Hands Off Cuba, Russians Warn

AP Photofax

LODGE REPLIES — Henry Cabot Lodge, U. S. ambassador to the United Nations, replies to a Cuban charge that the United States has revived the Monroe Doctrine in an attempt to dominate Latin America. Lodge, considered a leading candidate for the Republican vice presidential nomination, presented America's case in the Security Council Tuesday.

Say They Would Assist Castro at His Request

U.S. Out to Suppress Debate by Call to OAS, Fidel Claims in Tirade

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. Security Council today voted to send the Cuban-United States controversy to the Organization of American States. The decision was taken after a bitter exchange between the United States and the Soviet Union. Each warned the other not to touch Cuba. The vote was 9-0 with the Soviet Union and Communist Poland abstaining.

Russia warned the United States today "Don't Touch Cuba" and said it would use its military might for the Cubans if Cuba asked for it.

Soviet Ambassador Arkady A. Sobolev told the United Nations Security Council the "Soviet people will not remain indifferent if armed intervention is undertaken against Cuba."

"Nobody in the leading circles of the United States should have any illusion that the people of the Soviet Union will not use their military might for Cuba if Cuba asks for it," Sobolev said.

In Havana, Prime Minister Fidel Castro accused the United States today of trying to take its dispute with Cuba out of the U. N. Security Council's hands and put it before the Organization of American States because it can exert more pressure on the "spineless" member nations of the inter-American group.

Castro also took note of anti-Communist outbursts at Roman Catholic Church services in Havana in the past two days. He accused "privileged counterrevolutionary" elements of trying to convert religious shrines into centers of conspiracy and asserted that part of the Catholic clergy in Cuba is "pro-Franco, and Falangist and reactionary."

The Spanish Embassy had requested a church mass to com-

Leave Leopoldville, Reds Tell America

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES

MOSCOW — The Soviet Union today demanded that the United States withdraw a detachment of 20 armed men which it said had landed at Leopoldville in the Congo.

(The only American soldiers known to be in the Leopoldville area are ground crews and technicians aiding in the unloading of U.N. troops and food and helicopter units on missions rescuing stranded whites.)

The warning was issued verbally by Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko to Charge d'Affaires Edward I. Freers.

He said press dispatches reported that a 20-man detachment was in Leopoldville. Gromyko told Freers they should be withdrawn at once or "the Soviet Union will draw its own conclusions."

In New York, the U.N. announced today that Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold will leave Saturday for the troubled Congo.

Dr. Ralph Bunche, chief Unit-d Nations representative in The Congo, announced today that Belgium would begin pulling its troops out of Leopoldville by Saturday night.

Bunche said U.N forces would take over the task of maintaining peace in the capital and ensuring the protection of people and property in the capital.

Forty Belgian technicians will remain at Leopoldville Airport which, however, will be held by U. N. troops, he said. An entire company of Belgian paratroopers will be out of the town by tonight.

Bunche made the announcement in a broadcast over the Congolese radio after three-hour talks with Belgian Ambassador Jean Van Den Bosch, U.N. military commander Gen. Carl Von Horn and Belgian army officials.

Bunche said more contingents of U.N. troops including forces from Burma, Canada, and some Latin American nations troops will arrive soon to boost U.N. strength. A Swedish battalion arrives tomorrow.

ULTIMATUM RAPPED

Premier Patrice Lumumba had demanded Belgium withdraw all its troops by today and threatened to call in Soviet troops to expel them if they did not leave.

However the ultimatum was repudiated by his own senate, by Belgium and by Bunche who

Recover Body of Area Youth

Drowned While Skin Diving in Gilbert Lake Sunday Night

The body of a 17-year-old Birmingham youth who drowned while skin diving in Gilbert Lake, Bloomfield Township, was recovered last night.

Skin divers from Pontiac area police departments had been searching for Robert D. Scott, 17-year-old son of George D. Scott, 561 Rudgate St., since his disappearance in the reed-choked waters Sunday night.

The body was found by Paul Valentine, 20, of 20 Putnam St., a member of the Pine Lake Diving Club.

Prosecutor George F. Taylor and Sheriff Frank W. Irons today conferred with the owner of a Birmingham store from which the youth and a companion rented skin diving equipment Sunday afternoon.

While not liable for renting the equipment, stores will be warned not to sell or rent skin diving apparatus to those without the proper knowledge for its use, Taylor said.

"It's not a sport for amateurs," Irons stated.

Sheriff's deputies said he was apparently overweighted with equipment.

Weather Extremely Hot for Moscow—It's 93

MOSCOW (AP)—For the fourth straight day, Moscow broiled Monday in 93-degree heat—and this city was not built for torrid weather.

Citizens in their homes and buildings, often behind massive walls and without benefit of air conditioning, say there hasn't been such heat in this old capital since the czarist year of 1905. The Russians had a revolution that year.

Not Bells, Either

These Olives Have a Ring

Remember the "surprise" included in every box of cracker jack?

Well, a Pontiac woman came up with a surprise in a 20-ounce jar of olives last night.

When Mrs. Wells K. Rayl of 101 Auburn Ave., reached the bottom of the jar, she saw something shiny.

It turned out to be a ring.

"I was amazed," she said. "It looks like a wedding band."

In fact the ring is a perfect fit. It appears to be gold with an orange blossom design.

"My husband and I inspected it carefully under a magnifying glass but can't find any markings or inscriptions on it," said the attractive housewife.

The Rayls are avid olive eaters. "We just bought the bottle last Thursday," she explained.

"My grocer says the olives came from Spain and were bottled in Detroit. I plan to call the bottling plant and see if anyone reported a lost ring."

She also plans to have a jeweler look at the mysterious ring to determine whether it's really gold.

Children, Workmen Barely Escape

Rochester Building Falls

Several small children and three workers barely escaped being crushed to death near Rochester today when a new addition to the Rochester Glass Service Co.'s building collapsed with a sudden roar.

The 80 by 40-foot cement block addition at 560 S. Rochester Rd. was in its final stages of construction when it crumbled with no warning just before noon today.

Neighbors reported seeing several small children playing alongside workmen just before the walls of the building fell.

Workmen jumped clear without having time to shout any warning.

A search of the debris indicated that the youngsters were able to flee in time to escape injury. They were nowhere near the scene afterward.

Mrs. Andrew Hughes was in her home at 34 Childress St., just 20 feet away from the nearly completed structure when she heard a tremendous roar.

"It sounded like a jet breaking the sound barrier — I thought the whole end of my house was coming down," she said.

When she looked outside all she could see was dust settling.

One of the workers, Churchill Thorpe, employed by Dahlman Co. of Rochester as a landscape worker, said he saw the building suddenly settling as the last load of sand was being dumped into the excavation around the story-and-a-half addition.

He and two co-workers, Lonnie Spencer and Al Burnham, jumped clear and ran just in time to escape the tumbling cement blocks, he said.

Another woman living near the glass company, Mrs. Richard Stranahan of 21 Pulver Ct., said she had seen children playing "under the workers feet" before the cave-in.

Company spokesmen, in the absence of the owner, Harold Juhl of Rochester, refused to estimate the loss or give the name of the builder.

Rubble was spread over about an 80 foot area, which was roped off by Sheriff's deputies.

Adlai Backer Urges Unity for Kennedy

NEW YORK (AP)—Thomas K. Finletter, a leader of a "reform" group in the Democratic party here and a supporter of Adlai E. Stevenson for the presidential nomination, has urged solid party support behind Sen. John F. Kennedy.

Finletter, former Air Force secretary, made his plea Monday night in a speech before a local Democratic club meeting.

He urged "reformers, the Stevensonians, to put their heart and their energy into winning" and to "create the maximum drive towards this end."

Rockefeller Likes His Role as GOP's Mystery Man

CHICAGO (AP)—Republican convention preliminaries get under way today with New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller still playing to the hilt his mystery role in shaping the GOP's 1960 ticket and platform.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon still seemed to be the party's easy and unchallenged winner for the presidential nomination at convention sessions next week.

But all the talk among early arrivals was about Rockefeller, his vote-getting reputation, his long-shot chance of nudging Nixon out of the No. 1 spot, the less remote possibility of his becoming Nixon's running mate, and his policy conflict with both Nixon and President Eisenhower.

But the New Yorker gave little encouragement to his highly vocal supporters, already busy passing out buttons and campaign material for their favorite, apparently without the official blessing of Rockefeller.

Nixon' cohorts withheld convention fanfare, seemingly confident their man is a cinch anyway.

Rockefeller got a rousing reception on his arrival Monday on the convention scene to lay his platform proposals before the party Resolutions Committee.

He is expected to advocate again a big jump in defense spending and a revamping of other GOP policies.

If anything, Rockefeller has made himself less available as a contender against Nixon for the presidential nomination. He

Harrelson Pleads Not Guilty

Leaun W. Harrelson, 26-year-old son of Pontiac Teamsters President Leaun Harrelson, pleaded not guilty to forging nominating petitions at his arraignment yesterday before Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

Harrelson was arrested by Pontiac police on a warrant issued last Friday.

He was released pending trial July 27.

He is accused of forging some 61 names on nine nominating petitions of David Kaufman, candidate for Oakland County probate judge. The charge, a misdemeanor, could result in a 90-day jail sentence, $100 fine, or both.

Officers said that Harrelson, clad only in trousers, bolted out of his home at 570 Desota Place and into the house of a neighbor when their police car pulled up at his residence.

He surrendered after they threatened to obtain a search warrant to enter the neighbor's home, they said.

A COMPARISION—Mrs. Mabel Child, county election clerk, demonstrates the difference in Aug. 2 primary election material needed for the county's remaining four voting precincts using paper ballots (above), compared with the same number of precincts using modern voting machines (below). Of the county's 311 voting precincts, only two in Brandon Township, one in Groveland Township and one in Northville still use paper ballots. The comparision was noted as Mrs. Child distributed election material to the many city and township clerks and election workers preliminary to the primary two weeks away.

Dem Platform Called Economically Unsound

CHICAGO (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson said today the Democratic platform calls for an economic growth rate "built on quicksand."

He urged that Republican platform drafters avoid aping the Democratic planks on economic matters.

"We do not seek economic progress by unnecessarily enlarging government and thereby limiting individual choice," he said.

Anderson hit at Democratic calls for lower interest rates and for a Federal Reserve Board more responsive to the wishes of a president.

Both Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the apparently sure GOP nominee, and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller have indicated they favor policies designed to spur a faster rate of business expansion.

Like Anderson, they have stressed the role of individual effort and initiative, but the Treasury chief was more emphatic in that respect.

The Democratic platform calls for an average annual growth rate of 5 per cent—about double the recent average.

"Goals relying on faceless statistics or arbitrarily forced rates of growth are built on quicksand," Anderson said, and growth cannot be achieved through a magic formula or "by trying to better percentages instead of people."

8 Dead, 11 Hurt in Store Blast

MERRILL, Wis. (AP)— A violent explosion turned the J. C. Penney Co. department store into a pile of twisted, charred debris Monday. Eight persons were killed and 11 injured.

"We don't know what caused it," said Mayor Ralph Voigt. "It's a terrible thing for us."

The identified dead were Einar Seger, 55, a customer in the store and former clerk for this village of 10,000 in northern Wisconsin; Mrs. Louis Hamilton, Mrs. Geraldine Wissen, and Mrs. Lawrence Borchardt, all employes; Mrs. George Erickson and her mother, Mrs. Amanda Evans, shoppers; Mrs. Carl Yorde and her son, 12.

I. S. Stats and John McHale, of the State Industrial Commission, began an investigation into the cause of the blast.

The one-story modern building was located on the same site where an A&P supermarket was destroyed by an explosion July 12, 1951. The blast was then blamed on an accumulation of gas in an adjoining building. Officials of the Merrill City Gas Utility said the Penney explosion "could not possibly" have been caused by a gas leak. They said none of their pipes are connected to the building.

GOP Hopefuls to Be Presented

Bagwell to Lead Group at a Public Session in Bloomfield Hills Tonight

Gubernatorial candidate Paul D. Bagwell will lead a group of Republican state and county candidates into Bloomfield Hills High School tonight for a postgraduate course in political science for voters.

Staging a novel meet-your-candidates session, where the voters will file from one classroom to another to hear the many hopefuls lecture on why they should be elected Aug. 2, is the Oakland County Council of Republican Women's Clubs.

The public rally will begin at 7:30. The school is at 4200 Andover Rd., just off West Long Lake road.

Other candidates beside Bagwell expected to attend are Rep. Alvin M. Bentley and Donald S. Leonard, vying for nomination as U.S. senator, Sen. Edward Hutchinson and Clarence A. Reid, candidates for lieutenant governor, and candidates for state senator and state representative, and county office incumbents.

Delaware Segregation Reversed

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals today struck down Delaware's grade-a-year school desegregation plan and ordered full integration of the state's public schools to begin in the fall of 1961.

The Appellate Court for the Third Circuit also directed that 20 Negro students who had attacked the gradual desegregation plan should be admitted to Delaware public schools this fall.

In so doing, the court upheld an appeal by Louis L. Redding, Wilmington, Del., attorney for the children who contended segregation of the races is illegal and that the plan for total integration by 1972 did not comply with a U.S. Supreme Court ruling.

The Delaware Board of Education's grade-a-year plan went into effect last September with the approval of U.S. District Judge Paul Leahy.

Chief Judge John Biggs Jr., writing the majority opinion for the three-judge court, said Leahy's decision did not conform to rulings of the Circuit Court or the Supreme Court.

Today's decision was by a 2-1 vote.

Last year, 20 Negro pupils were admitted to first grade classes in Delaware's school system. This fall, under the plan struck down today, Negros would have reached the second grade.

By 1972, Negroes would have been seated in all 12 grades.

Redding contended that none of the pupils he represented—there were 42 originally—would ever be integrated since all were above the first grade level when the plan went into effect.

Judge Herbert P. Goodrich dissented.

He wrote that "it seems to me that in view of the local (Delaware) social inertia against any plan at all that the one submitted and approved is as good as we can expect in view of the obstacles to be overcome in making it work."

Rocky Plays Role as Man of Mystery

reiterated to newsmen that while not a candidate, he would accept a genuine draft.

But in defining what genuine meant Rockefeller said it would mean that 666 delegate votes — the majority needed to nominate — were for drafting him for the No. 1 spot on the ticket. Well over that number have said they prefer Nixon.

'NO' TO VP

As for the vice presidency, Rockefeller used the words positively and absolutely to emphasize his previous stand, that he would not accept the vice presidential nomination under any circumstances.

He underlined one major point of disagreement with Eisenhower and Nixon, the matter of legislation to provide health care for the aged.

Eisenhower and Nixon have endorsed a federal-state subsidy plan to provide a limited program.

Rockefeller said such a system could lend itself to inflationary pressures and lead to abuses. Instead, he favors the type of plan under the present social security system that the Democrats have pledged in their party platform and ticketed for priority when Congress reconvenes in August.

Children Don't Want to Be Firemen Now

CHICAGO (AP)—There was a day when youngsters wanted to become firemen and policemen and baseball stars.

Not so today, says a report by a University of Michigan research team for the Boy Scouts of America. Now, a majority of boys entering their teens hope to be professional men, with medicine, science and engineering leading other fields.

That was one of the findings in a study of 1,435 boys in the 11-13 age group from throughout the country.

More than half the boys want to emulate some relative, member of their immediate family or popular figure. Thirty-four per cent want to be like Dad, 12 per cent movie or TV stars and 9 per cent other popular heroes.

State Polio Toll Down in 1960

15 Cases Reported as Compared With 29 Last Year to Date

LANSING (AP)—Only 15 cases of infantile paralysis have been counted in Michigan so far this year, the State Health Department reported.

The count was up to 29 at this time last year.

There were six paralytic polio cases among those reported to date. All but one of the victims had not received any polio immunization.

Polio crippled 164 persons in Michigan last year—80 per cent of them under 10 years of age.

Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner, urged parents to act now to have their children immunized against polio if they have not yet had the shots.

"Polio reaches its peak in mid-August, so if the children are started on the vaccine right now, the two shots they will receive before then will give them quite a bit of protection," he said.

A new immunization law requires all children entering school for the first time, unless parents object on religious grounds, to present proof of immunization against polio, diptheria, whooping cough, smallpox and tetanus.

Waiting until school starts to have this done, Heustis said, will leave the children unprotected this summer and make them more vulnerable to disease when they meet other youngsters this fall.

Romulo of Philippines to Accept Pontiac's Gift

Philippine Ambassador Carlos Romulo will accept a $30,000 gift tomorrow from the people of the Pontiac area.

The gift is an airplane, "The Spirit of Pontiac," which will be used to spread Christianity and literacy to natives of the Philippines.

The plane, a Helio-Courier, will be presented to Romulo at public ceremonies starting at 10:30 a.m. at Pontiac Country Club.

A group of area men known as the Spirit of Pontiac Committee has been working on the project since April.

ROWSTON TO PRESENT

Mayor Philip E. Rowston will make the official presentation.

Mrs. Romulo and Mrs. Rowston will then christen the aircraft with waters taken from Manila Bay and Lake Michigan.

Clyle R. Haskill, committee chairman, said, "The contributions of so many have made this truly a people-to-people project. We hope residents come out to see the presentation and the exciting demonstration following."

After the plane is presented, it will take off from the golf course, perform a series of maneuvers showing its unique abilities, and then land on the course.

It is designed for operation from small, unprepared fields, needing only half the length of a football field to take off or land.

Although the plane will be owned by the Philippine government, it will be maintained and operated by the Summer Institute of Linguistics, a wing of Wycliffe Bible Translators, Inc.

TO REACH JUNGLE AREAS

Personnel from SIL will use the craft to reach jungle communities previously reached only by land or water.

Their languages will be translated for the first time and these natives will learn the mysteries of "the paper that talks"—the printed page.

They will be educated and taught the principles of Christianity in an effort to protect them from falling prey to Communist propaganda.

Two Street Light Districts Set Up in Waterford Twp.

The Waterford Township Board last night approved establishment of two street light districts at a hearing held from 7 to 9 p.m. and denied a request for another in the Otter Hills subdivision.

Seventy-eight street lights will be installed in the Elizabeth Lake Estates area bounded by Cass-Elizabeth Lake road, Winding drive and Lakeside street. There are 648 assessments costing a total of $2,436 or $3.39 for each assessment.

The township will pay 10 per cent of the cost. The Detroit Edison Co. will make the installations.

Another small special street lighting assessment was set up for 547 feet on Linda court at Sashabaw road at 7 cents a foot for those benefiting from the light. The township will pay the balance of the total cost of $42.

The Otter Hills Improvement Assn., located in the Cass-Elizabeth Lake area, was denied street lighting installations pending further study and information from those affected by personal placement of the lights.

Township Clerk James E. Seeterlin presented three quotations for purchase of a new tractor-digger for the water department. The lowest figure, $1,245, was presented by the Pontiac Tractor & Equipment Co.

However, Seeterlin said that a good used tractor was available for $675 from the Robert McGinnis Co., and the Board approved purchase of the used vehicle.

A request from Police Chief Millard J. Pender for an additional policeman was turned down due to lack of funds at this time. The board approved the hiring of one employe in the clerk's office to work for $1.50 an hour until September.

Pleads Guilty in Son's Death

Troy Dad Earlier Had Stood Mute in Shooting Over Bag of Candy

A remorseful Troy father today appeared before Circuit Judge William J. Beer and pleaded guilty to second-degree murder in the shotgun slaying of his 12-year-old stepson.

Paul F. Henley, 55, of 2680 Wisconsin St., earlier this month stood mute to a charge of first-degree murder in the death of Mitchell (Mickey) Steele.

The youngster was shot following a quarrel of Henley with his wife over five cents worth of candy she had purchased earlier for Henley's natural son, Fritz, 5. Mickey was killed June 25 as he returned home with a bag of candy bought with money his stepfather had given him.

Judge Beer set sentencing for Aug. 2. Henley was returned to the county jail without benefit of bond.

Jim Ninowski Traded to Lions From Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Browns traded their No. 3 quarterback, Jim Ninowski, to the Detroit Lions today for linebacker Bob Long and a high draft choice. Ninowski, a former Michigan State star, is a Detroit resident. He has been an understudy of passer Milt Plum for two years.

Long, who is 6-4 and weighs 230, is 26 years old. He played his college football at UCLA and has been with the Lions five seasons.

"We made this move with the full realization that we could be giving Detroit a fine quarterback," said Coach and General Manager Paul Brown. "But we prefer to work with two quarterbacks only."

Mid-1960 Traffic Accidents Increase Over 1959 Period

BIRMINGHAM — Traffic accidents here for the first six months of the year increased over the same period in 1959, Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley reported today.

An increase in June traffic accidents was also shown over the same month a year ago, he said, with 77 accidents investigated, compared to 59 in June 1959.

The six-month total accident picture for 1960 compared to 1959 shows an increase in all phases of Moxley's report.

There have been 385 accidents this year compared to 362 last year at this time, he said.

There were also 93 personal injury accidents with 142 persons injured compared to 9 personal injury accidents and 80 persons injured last year.

"Much of the increase, however, can be attributed to more complete reporting as provided in the new accident report forms placed in use at the start of this year," Moxley said.

The most frequent cause of these accidents was "Right of Way" violations with 130 reported this year compared to 142 last year, he said.

"Following too Closely" accounted for 121 accidents this year as compared to 91 last year, he said.

Kennedy Sees Nixon Debates

Expects TV to Set Up Tangles; Allen Dulles to Brief Him Saturday

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, gave the word today he expects to debate the Republican presidential nominee on television.

Pierre Salinger, Kennedy's press secretary, told reporters the major networks are offering free time to the nominees and that Kennedy "presumes there would be joint appearances on television by himself and the Republican nominee."

Salinger said Kennedy will take time out from his vacation tomorrow for a campaign strategy meeting with members of his staff.

Salinger also announced Allan W. Dulles, Central Intelligence Agency director, will fly to Hyannis Port Saturday to give Kennedy a briefing on the world situation in general and foreign policy matters concerning Latin America and Africa, specifically.

Kennedy yesterday accepted President Eisenhower's offer of an opportunity to receive these confidential reports on foreign policy problems.

Salinger said Robert F. Kennedy, brother of the senator and his campaign manager, talked by telephone with Dulles this morning to arrange the meeting.

The senator planned to go boating with his wife, Jacqueline, today. He agreed to allow newsmen and photographers to witness the departure from the dock but laid down a rule. There would be no interviews.

Large Ad Agencies to Merge in Detroit

DETROIT (UPI)—Two of Detroit's largest advertising agencies, Ross Roy, Inc., and Brooke, Smith, French, & Dorrance, Inc., will merge Aug. 1, it was announced today in a statement from the two companies.

The new agency, to be known as Ross Roy-B. S. F. & D., Inc., will start with combined yearly billings of $25 million.

Ross Roy, president of Ross Roy, Inc., will become chairman of the board and chief executive officer and Walter C. Ayers, president of B. S. F. & D., will assume presidency of Ross Roy-B. S. F. & D., and will serve as senior consultant to the new organization.

Backs Civil Service Status for Firemen

The Executive Committee on Political Education (COPE) of the Oakland County AFL-CIO Council last night endorsed the proposal on the Waterford Township primary ballot that would give firemen protection under civil service.

Fred V. Haggard, president of the council, said the action was unanimous of the 70 members present.

During one scuffle between Catholics and pro-Castro youths Wednesday, an American woman and her two sons were dragged from a passing car, and the eldest boy was beaten on the head with steel bars after he had started to take pictures of the fight. It was the first known physical attack on Americans here since Castro took power.

HE'S DISTURBED

Castro was visibly disturbed by the expected Security Council action leaving the U. S. — Cuban dispute up to the OAS. The united States, he declared, is "judge and jury" in the hemisphere body because most of the nations are small and impoverished like Cuba, and "Cuba's disadvantage in a dispute with the powerful United States in the OAS is clear . . ."

It would be therefore vulnerable to the same weapons the United States has used against Cuba."

He defended his own acceptance of Soviet economic offers and indicated he would accept Soviet military aid.

"If you know you are going to be murdered and someone comes and tells you he is going to help keep you from getting killed, are you going to reject that help?" he asked.

Castro called the Monroe Doctrine "ancient and worm-eaten" and accused the United States of using it to "assume the right of piracy."

Commenting on the recent wave of defections by his ambassadors, Castro accused the U.S State Department of offering to pay off Cuban diplomats if they abandoned the revolutionary cause.

Golden Age Club Sets Potluck Friday

Members and friends of the Waterford Township Golden Age group will have a 6:30 p.m. pot-luck dinner Friday at the Community Center on Williams Lake road.

People past 60 have been asked to bring a dish to pass, and their own table service.

Hostesses for the evening are Mrs. Cecil Weber, Mrs. Roy Cronkright, Mrs. Emil Grischow and Mrs. Mary MacFarland.

Following the dinner, organized card games and shuffle board activities have been planned.

Western diplomats already were expressing fears that Lumumba would bring in a wave of Soviet "technicians" to replace departing Europeans even if he did not carry out his threat to call for Soviet armed intervention.

Gen. von Horn obviously placed little stock in Lumumba's ultimatum that he would ask Soviet troops to intervene unless all Belgian troops were withdrawn from the Congo by tonight.

Reports from several sources said several Moroccan members of the U.N. peace force had been killed in two separate clashes Monday, the first casualties to be suffered by U.N. troops.

Mine Fire Traps 50; 4 Bodies Are Found

SALZGITTER, Germany (AP) About 50 miners were caught by an underground fire in an iron ore mine here today.

Four bodies were brought to the surface by rescue teams. Escape routes were blocked by flames and fumes.

A mine spokesman said a faulty cable may have sparked the fire which then exploded an oil storage tank supplying a generator with fuel.

Youngest King Sister Gives Birth to a Boy

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Marilyn King, the youngest of the four singing King Sisters, gave birth to a boy at Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital Tuesday.

The child was named Adam Howard. Miss King is the wife of Howard Lloyd, a sales executive with the National Broadcasting Co. They also have a daughter, Susannah, 2.

Mrs. Robert Briggs

Mrs. Briggs died yesterday after a lengthy illness.

She was a member of First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham and the Eau Claire Womens Club and the King's Daughters of Eau Claire.

Surviving are a daughter Mrs. B. A. Aikens Jr. of Birmingham, four grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Beverly Hills Village Clerk Fannie Adams was authorized last night by the Village Council to hire a deputy clerk in order to ease her work load.

A move to hire a deputy clerk was made several weeks ago when Mrs. Adams walked out of a village council meeting 45 minutes before it ended.

She then telephoned the Council and told them she would like to resign because the work was too much. Mrs. Adams said that although she had been promised additional help upon taking the job early this year, she had received none.

Salary for the new position, also approved by the Council would be from $1.50 to $2 an hour.

Summer Stock Blossoms on West Side of State

(Editor's Note: This is one in a series of dispatches that will continue through the summer detailing special festivals and points of interest for Michigan vacationists.)

By United Press International

Stock—the summer theater variety — is booming in west Michigan.

The Cherry County Playhouse at Traverse City, Michigan's first star-system summer theater, is well into its sixth season. Stars this season include Zazu Pitts, Wendell Corey and Robert Q. Lewis in such plays as Sabrina Fair, Fallen Angels and Third Best Sport.

The New York professional cast of the Red Barn Theater at Saugatuck, directed by James Dyas, has a 12-week play schedule for its 13th season. Red Barn productions include Life With Father, Two for the Seesaw and Carrousel.

Grand Rapids' Circle Summer Theater has started its eighth season. Among its productions are Bells Are Ringing, Born Yesterday and The Moon Is Blue.

Informality is a feature of West Michigan's summer theater circuit, which runs from June into September. Actors frequently visit with patrons during intermission "coffee breaks" and after plays, the dress of theater-goers is usually informal and audiences are seated more closely to the stage than in large permanent theaters.

Several theaters present special shows each week for children.

Among the other summer theaters operating in the area are Ledges Playhouse at Grand Ledge, Barn Theater at Augusta, Manistee Summer Theater, Wingspread Summer Theater at Colon, Lake Michigan Playhouse at Grand Haven, Petoskey Playhouse, Paw Paw Playhouse near Coloma.

Ramsdell Opera House, built in 1902 by a tycoon in Michigan's lumber industry, but still one of the finest theaters, is home of the Manistee Summer Theater, now in its 10th season.

Selection of a king and queen from couples married more than 50 years will be one of the highlights of the 10th annual Old-Fashioned Days Festival at Fremont Saturday and Sunday.

All events of the festival will be keyed to the theme of days gone by.

Merchants and townspeople will dress in fashions of years ago and storekeepers will merchandise their wares on sidewalk racks, counters and push carts.

Street auctions will be held throughout opening day and stores will be trimmed as they were years ago.

Miss Michigan of 1961, Nancy Flemming of Montague, will be guest of honor at the festival and crown the king and queen.

Rail Unions Oppose Merger of NP, GN

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Railroad brotherhoods said Monday they will oppose merger of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific railroads if the proposal goes to Interstate Commerce Commission hearings.

Richard Bichsel, Northern Pacific chairman for the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, said the merger proposal would be opposed on the basis it would adversely affect seniority of NP engineers.

Bichsel said employment of engineers on the GN and NP had decreased to a total of about 1,500 during recent years, the decreased being due principally to dieselization.

C. L. Birdsell, Northern Pacific chairman for the Brotherhood of Firemen and Enginemen, said his union is studying demands for protection of seniority if the merger materializes. He said protection of displaced workers would be a major issue at ICC hearings.

The merger plan, which has been approved by directors of the railroads, still need stockholder approval and approval by several federal agencies.

Rural Dwellers Warned of Shady Septic Cleaners

LANSING (UPI) — The Department of Agriculture has warned owners of rural homes and cottages to beware of whom they let clean their septic tanks.

The department said some operators try to charge enormous prices for simple cleaning operations.

The department's foods and standards division has an interest in the practice because most septic tank cleaners charge on the basis of pounds of waste removed, the department said.

The department urged cottage owners to employ a reputable local dealer to avoid any chance of dissatisfaction.

Retired Judge to Seek Sen. Bridges' Seat

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — Albert Levitt of Hancock Monday entered New Hampshire's Sept. 13 primary as a candidate for the republican nomination to the U.S. Senate.

Levitt, a 71-year-old retired federal judge, will contest the renomination bid of Sen. Styles Bridges, who is seeking his fifth consecutive Senate term.

Russ Oil Offer Forces West Cut

India Now in Position to Get Bargain Price, Save Needed Sterling

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Under pressure from Soviet offers to sell India oil at a cut rate, Standard Vacuum Oil Co. announced today a substantial reduction offer by the second of three Western oil companies that import from Persian Gulf sources and refine here. Burmah Shell had offered to cut import prices 7½ per cent but the government does not consider this enough. The main purpose of the reductions is to enable the Indian government to save sterling, which is badly needed for economic development.

The amount of the Stanvac cut is undisclosed, but Indian sources indicated it is much greater than Burmah Shell's. The Stanvac announcement said the new price was "substantially lower and will be fully competitive." This apparently referred to the price at which the Soviet Union is offering oil.

The third company, Caltex, is reported offering a reduction also.

Early Customers Use Self-Service System

LOCKPORT, N. Y. (AP) — Sheriff's deputies say the honor system of self-service drinking underwent a successful test at the Walmore Inn, Town of Niagara.

Answering a report of four men being inside bedore opening time, they sped to the tavern. Sure enough, the men were inside "drinking and paying for each drink and making the right change from the till."

Owner Stanley Gibbs said he forgot to lock the door. Officers took the drinkers' names but no charegs were placed.

Blond Hair Hurts Those Male Screen Lovers

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Blond men, the record shows, have been notoriously sexless in movie history while blonde actresses—the Grables, Monroes and Novaks—long have been the screen's sex-pots.

Why this lack of screen sex appeal among blond male stars?

One producer, who wants to remain nameless because he hates controversy, says that in his 35 years in Hollywood he can remember only one blond star who excited women—both on and off screen. That was the late Leslie Howard.

Blonds and even freckle-faced redheads like Van Johnson can make the bobby-soxers sigh—but then who can't?

LOOK WASHED OUT

One moviemaker blames it all on the black and white camera.

"Blond males, no matter how virile they are offscreen, are washed out in the black and white film. That's why we usually use a blond to portray stupidity or crazed villainy. Had Richard Widmark been black-haired, I doubt if he ever would have gotten the chance to push that old lady in a wheelchair down a flight of stairs."

Some stars with light complexions have sex appeal—William Holden, Gary Cooper, Burt Lancaster, Kirk Douglas and the late James Dean—but none could be called true blonds.

Nelson Eddy, aided by romantic music, a rich baritone and Jeanette MacDonald, stirred some hearts in the thirties.

But over the years from Valentino on, the first-string screen lovers have been the dark-haired boys. Look at the list—Clark Gable, Cary Grant, Robert Taylor, Tyrone Power, Errol Flynn, Humphrey Bogart, John Garfield, Greg Peck, John Wayne, James Stewart, Marlon Brando, Glenn Ford, Frank Sinatra, Rock Hudson, Elvis Presley and Tony Curtis.

And then there's Yul Brynner, who combs his hair with a towel yet flips the femmes. He has dark roots.

Canada Cigarette Sales Puff to Higher Level

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Cigarette smoking in Canada is getting more popular. In 1959, consumption climbed to 33.8 billion cigarettes.

In 1958, consumption was 32.4 billion. Filter-tipped cigarettes made up about 45 per cent of Canada's cigarette sales last year.

PET DOCTOR

By A. W. Moller, D.V.M.

Q. We are thinking of buying a collie. What can you tell us about this breed?

A. The collie (or English sheep dog) still herds sheep in Scotland and Wales. Its long nose enables it to nip the heels of wayward sheep easily. The proud profile of the collie is in keeping with the prestige it has gained since Queen Victoria introduced it to England from Scotland. Loyal and lovable, it will unhesitatingly challenge or protect.

Its intelligent face and lugubrious brown eyes make it one of the most easily recognized breeds.

The heavy coats of both the smooth and rough haired varieties enable them to live outdoors the year around. You can obtain more information from Collie Club, 250 Park Avenue, New York 17, N.Y.

An estimated 75 per cent of Czechoslovakia's population is Roman Catholic, the rest Protestant (Hussite), Greek Orthodox and others.

Jets, Horses Retrace Route

Pony Express Recalled

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Galloping ponies and a jet airplane set off across half the continent today honoring the brief, romantic ride of the pony express a century ago.

The first of 1,000 riders started from Sacramento and St. Joseph, Mo., the terminal points of 1860, to retrace the steps of the legendary mailmen who rode the overland trail.

An Air Force T33 jet was to take off from Mather Air Force Base near here with a letter for President Eisenhower, bearing the special commemorative stamp issued by the Post Office Department. Its' scheduled time: 3½ hours.

The horsemen's time: nine days.

The real pony express, crossing trackless deserts and towering mountains where hostile Indians waited, averaged about 10 days for the one-way trip.

The fastest run was seven days, 17 hours. The distance is 1,966 miles.

HAD TO BE SKINNY

An advertisement of 1860 tells something of the men who carried the mail for the pony express.

"Wanted — young, skinny, wiry fellows not over 18. Must be expert riders willing to risk death daily. Orphans preferred. Wages $25 per week."

They rode 50 to 150 miles, changing horses every five or six miles, spurring the animals on with little horns all pony express riders carried.

The pony express was credited with keeping open the communications which kept California in the union in the Civil War.

Its riders covered 600,000 miles, carrying 35,000 letters.

Only one pouch was ever lost. Its carrier reportedly was found on the plains of what is now Nebraska with an arrow through his back.

But its days were numbered as the transcontinental railroad and the telegraph speeded communication. In October, 1861, the pony express made its last run. The first had been in April, 1860.

Ex-White Lake Boy, 13, Killed

Struck by Car While Riding Bicycle Through St. Charles Intersection

A former White Lake Township boy, John T. Johnson, 13, was killed instantly Monday when struck by a car near St. Charles.

The Johnson boy, whose family moved from its home at 9455 Buckingham St., two months ago, rode his bicycle through an intersection and was struck by a car driven by David Griffiths, 25, of Flint, according to sheriff's deputies.

Johnson's father Allen was working on a road project in the St. Charles area. Deputies said the boy was dragged 100 feet.

Griffiths told deputies he was on his way to his parents' home to tell them about the birth of his new son.

* * *

Johnson was a student at John D. Pierce Junior High School in Waterford Township.

Methodist, Presbyterian Missionaries Are Safe

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—All Methodist and Presbyterian missionaries caught in rebellion areas of The Congo have been evacuated and are safe, a medical missionary, has informed his wife in Dallas. Dr. Mark Poole, who flew from his station in Luluabourg into isolated areas of The Congo to bring out fleeing missionaries, called his wife from New York to tell her "everyone is safe." On more than a dozen flights into the rebellion area, Dr. Poole helped 200 or so missionaries to flee.

He pleaded guilty to driving without a driver's license.

For the next 10 days, Adams' address will be the Oakland County Jail.

Detroit Restaurant Bombed; No Injuries

DETROIT (AP) — A dynamite explosion shattered the front window of Red Kemp's restaurant here shortly after midnight last night, but no one was injured. The restaurant is directly across the street from the police department's motor traffic division.

Police said preliminary investigation disclosed no motive for the attack.

The homemade bomb tore off the awning and blew away a shutter on the outside wall of the dining room. The room had been closed at midnight and the only customers were in a bar at the rear of the building.

Basement Flood Costs Oxford Man $300 in Damages

Even without rains, the floods came yesterday at the home of William Curtiss, Oxford Township.

When Curtiss went into his home at 601 Sebek Blvd., he found water five feet deep in his basement.

Sebek told sheriff's deputies that someone had turned on a hose and run it into his basement.

He estimated damage at $300.

Business Failure Rate Declines

States on Pacific Coast Get Highest Percentage of Bankruptcies

NEW YORK (AP) — Pacific Coast states had the highest rate of business casualties last year as the nation's over-all rate declined from 1958, Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., reported Tuesday.

The mercantile agency's study of business failures showed that Oregon had the most at 175.3 per 10,000, California was third with 112.5 and Washington fifth at 92. In between were New York (127.8) and Rhode Island (98.1).

For the country as a whole, the rate declined to 52 per 10,000 from 56 in 1958. Total failures last year also declined, falling to 14,053 from 14,964 the previous year, while total liabilities were down to $692,808,000 from $728,258,000 in 1958.

North Dakota had the lowest failure rate — 4 per 10,000 — in pacing the West North Central states (Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, the Dakotas, Nebraska and Kansas) to the lowest area rate. Nebraska was next with 4.9 and New Mexico third at 5.1.

Cleveland, San Francisco, Rochester, Boston, Denver and Pittsburgh had small increases in number of failures, while New York City, Chicago, Philadelphia, Detroit and Los Angeles all showed total failures well below 1958.

Write-In Candidates Get Ballot Break

LANSING (UPI) — Secretary of State James M. Hare, himself a candidate for the Democratic nomination as governor, said yesterday provision will be made in Michigan's machine-voting precincts so write-in candidates for office can be marked.

A paper ballot will be placed in machines so a vote can be cast for a write-in candidate, Hare said.

At least one candidate, Eugene C. Keyes who is seeking the nomination as Democratic lieutenant governor, has said he would be a write-in candidate.

The State Board of Canvassers refused to certify Keyes as a candidate and the Supreme Court refused to order his name on the ballot.

Gov. Barnett Proposes Dixiecrats Rise Again

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Gov. Ross Barnett of Mississippi has taken the lead in urging a Southern bolt from the Democratic party.

Barnett said Monday night, upon returning from the Democratic National Convention, he favors reconvening the Mississippi Democratic Convention to support a third-party movement.

The Mississippi governor, who bitterly opposed the Democrats' civil rights plank, said the Democratic platform was "so horrible, so repulsive, so obnoxious, and so contrary to our form of government, I don't see how the people of the South can accept it."

Although Barnett indicated he didn't think there was "any chance of Mississippi going along with the Republican nominees," some Mississippi Democrats will be following the Republican National Convention closely in the hope of finding a platform and candidate they can support.

Mississippi Republican leaders, headed by Wirt Yerger Jr., of Jackson, GOP state chairman, have left for the GOP convention in Chicago, promising to fight for a platform that will set the stage for major Republican gains in the South.

Some Mississippi Democrats appear willing to join with Republican conservatives. State Sen. W. B. Alexander of Boyle has suggested a third party headed by GOP Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona. Goldwater has not indicated any enthusiasm for this idea.

Any move for independent electors or a third party likely would run into opposition from the state party's loyalists. Former Gov. James P. Coleman is considered friendly to Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic nominee. Another former governor, Hugh White, also has indicated he would back Kennedy.

A survey prepared by the U.S. Foreign Agricultural Service showed that France and Belgium have among the highest butter prices, while the United States and Canada are leaders in high cheese prices.

Franco Again Talks of Monarchy Restoration

Reports continue to come out of Spain that Dictator FRANCO plans to restore the kingdom as he pledged in 1947.

Claimant to the throne, 47-year-old DON CARLOS DE BOURBON has been living in self-imposed exile in Portugal. He has rights of inheritance under designation by the late King ALFONSO. His 22 year old son, Prince JUAN CARLOS seems to be FRANCO's choice for successor.

Don Juan has stated repeatedly that he would not accept the throne "on the point of Franco's sword." He is said to be much too pro-democratic and anti-totalitarian to suit Franco.

In the meantime two petitions addressed to Gen. FRANCO appealing for an amnesty for political prisoners in the name of "justice and humanity" have been delivered to the royal palace where the dictator resides. For 20 years relatives and others have been petitioning authorities to no avail.

While the government claims officially that there are no "political prisoners," the latest petitions are made in behalf of more than 600 who are in prison or exiled for holding views unacceptable to the dictatorship.

There is no doubt that Franco wishes to preserve his present regime with its non-elected parliament. But he also would like to restore the monarchy to insure unity and continuity. The question is which royal personality would be willing to take the job under such conditions.

Ike Warns Khrushchev on Interference in Cuba

President Eisenhower has bluntly warned Premier Khrushchev that the United States will stand by its treaty obligations and not permit the establishment of a Communist dominated or any other alien government in this hemisphere.

The President's statement was in reply to KHRUSHCHEV's rocket threats against the U.S. if we committed "aggression" in Cuba. This revealed Russia's intention of establishing a Communist beachhead in Castroland.

Under the Rio treaty of 1947, the Bogota charter of 1948 and the Caracas resolution of 1954 the nations of the Western Hemisphere are pledged to stand together against any outside intervention in the government of any one of them.

For these reasons Mexico's statement that she would stand by CASTRO in any quarrel with the U.S. is puzzling. A congressional spokesman for the Mexican government, however, declared his country's "attitude of solidarity with the Cuban people." This is something else again.

Hypnotized by his own oratory, Fidel Castro may or may not understand what Khrushchev is saying. The Russian premier clearly shows that he now considers Cuba a Soviet satellite.

Bonn Offer Disappoints Development Aid Group

Representatives of nine nations meeting in Bonn as a Development Assistance Group are discussing further ways and means of helping underdeveloped countries.

Britain, France, Canada and other industrialized nations as well as the United States have contributed substantially to this project both directly and indirectly.

American representatives have voiced their disappointment over the fact that Germany has offered only $357 million for direct aid. Moreover, this is to be in the form of counterpart funds and money obtained from the sale of the government's Volkswagen plant to private interests.

Germany was helped generously after her defeat, especially by the United States. We were motivated not only by self interest but by a large measure of idealism. It is true that German industry has extended credits to some countries as a business matter but something else is needed.

It may be that the shadow of the 1961 West German elections with perhaps higher taxes is preventing a more generous offer. But prosperous Germany can now afford to help carry the load and assist other nations as she herself was assisted.

The Man About Town

Changing Times

Our County Has Occupied Various Places in Rank

Expenses: What are easy to meet—you run across them everywhere.

Second only to Wayne has usually been the position of Oakland among our state's counties. It started out in that position.

But, as the interior of Michigan was colonized, the new counties there had a more rapid growth, and we once were as low as seventh place. Our industrial development brought us back to second place which we have held for a number of decades.

It is interesting to note that for several years we were Michigan's leading agricultural county. In the 1870's we led the state in the production of horses, cows, potatoes, oats, beans, hops and some minor crops.

In the same period we were second on wool, milk, butter and cheese; third on wheat and hay; sixth on corn and ninth on pork.

Our great growth in population has pushed the farmer back, until now we do not hold such favorable positions on any of these products. In fact, some of them now are hardly raised here at all.

As a sample of the changing times, it is pointed out that before the turn of the century Royal Oak led our 25 townships in the number of acres of farming land. It then was one of the state's leading agricultural townships. Today there's hardly a farm in the entire township.

But more intensive farming in our county's remaining agricultural areas, coupled with fertilization, crop rotation and other modern methods are keeping Oakland County near the top in general soil production among the 83 counties in Michigan.

In the matter of fruit growing, Oakland now is among the six largest apple growing counties in Michigan, being the only one away from the west side of the state, the others being Allegan, Berrien, Kent, Oceana and Van Buren.

Do you think you are observant? If so, without looking, what letters are in the figure one hole on your dial phone?

Besides being a railroad center, according to my good friend, Mayor

Fred Summerhays,

the little city of Durand has another outstanding distinction. It has no cemetery. "If you want to be buried you have to go two miles from town," says Fred.

Waterford Hills has had a number of distinctions, including a signal point in Indian times and testing ground for the first Pontiac made automobiles.

Bearing His Burden—Or Carrying a Chip?

David Lawrence Says:

Acceptance Speech Unacceptable

LOS ANGELES—Time was when an acceptance speech by a presidential nominee was delivered a month or more after the national convention.

LAWRENCE

With "the tumult and the shouting" over, there was an opportunity for serious reflection and for the writing of a thoughtful presentation of the main issues of the campaign ahead.

The circumstances surrounding Sen. Kennedy's speech gave the appearance of its having been prepared in a hurry—there were many changes made in it between the time the advance copy was given to the press and actual delivery.

The objective, of course, was to get votes from the mass audience assembled here as well as before television screens throughout the country. The assumption was that the voters would be concerned only with appearances—the "image" created by a good-looking young man with a forceful style of speaking.

But in that same acceptance speech, the Democratic nominee violated one of the basic rules of fair play in American campaigning: "Never impute a lack of honesty or integrity to your opponent."

The attack which the Democratic presidential nominee made against Vice President Nixon was a shock to all who had hoped that the nominee of the Democratic Party would negate the widely held impression about his immaturity and that he would carry himself with the dignity befitting a man who might become president of the United States. Kennedy, however, impetuously clawed at his opponent when he said:

"His (Nixon's) political career has often seemed to show charity toward none and malice for all. . . .

"But before he (Nixon) deals, someone is going to cut the cards."

OTHERS, TOO

There were other statements which caused dismay. Thus, for instance, there are many who wonder just what was meant by this paragraph in the acceptance speech:

"But the new frontier of which I speak is not a set of promises—it is a set of challenges. It sums up not what I intend to offer the American people, but what I intend to ask of them. It appeals to their pride, not their pocketbook—it holds out the promise of more sacrifice instead of more security."

What does "more sacrifice instead of more security" really mean? How many of the listeners understood those phrases?

In another part of the same speech, the nominee extols the party platform which promises more and more money and favors for every group with enough numbers to bring in votes. Kennedy said:

"I am grateful, too, that you have provided us with such a strong platform to stand on and to run on. Pledges which are made so eloquently are made to be kept."

Does Kennedy, however, really intend, for instance, to fulfill the platform pledge which promises the right to vote to any man or woman, whether or not he or she can read or write? The platform as adopted promises to do away somehow with the literacy tests for voting which are embodied in state laws.

There are many passages in the acceptance speech which will cause an arching of eyebrows, but none perhaps more than this one:

"All over the world, particularly in the newer nations, young men are coming to power—men who are not bound by the traditions of the past—men who are not blinded by the old fears and hates and rivalries—young men who can cast off the old slogans and the old delusions."

The world is witnessing in the Congo what some of the "newer nations" are doing. It is witnessing also the rise of "youth" in Cuba. Especially its bearded leader who now makes common cause with Moscow.

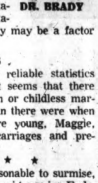
Rashness is a characteristic of youth—nothing that is old appears to be any good. The wisdom of past generations, including the words of the Greek philosophers and of the founders of the American republic—Washington, Jefferson and Madison—these are frequently brushed aside as obsolete.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Vitamin E Deficiency May Cause Sterility

From voluminous "scientific reports" that come periodically in the mail, from an institution in Canada, a doctor who reads such stuff might get the impression that vitamin E is good for almost any kind of heart trouble.

From popular magazine articles and newspaper pieces by "science writers" one might get the impression that vitamin E works like magic. Especially if one hasn't the time to study the question thoroughly or isn't qualified to judge.



DR. BRADY

The richest sources of vitamin E are wheat germ and green leafy vegetables, especially lettuce. Vitamin E is present in many other foods, but in only small quantities.

There is good reason to believe that the average American diet is deficient in vitamin E, and vitamin E deficiency may be a factor of sterility.

NO STATISTICS

There are no reliable statistics available, but it seems that there are more barren or childless marriages today than there were when you and I were young, Maggie, and more miscarriages and premature births.

This, it is reasonable to surmise, may be due to vitamin E deficiency in the modern ultra-refined diet, particularly the use of so much refined white flour instead of whole wheat.

Besides preventing sterility, vitamin E, or wheat germ oil, has been used as a remedy for multiple sclerosis, muscular dystrophy and amyotrophic lateral sclerosis. I regret to say I have no knowledge of any great benefit from such treatment.

GIVES OPINION

Use of vitamin E for heart disease is for the birds, in my opinion.

It is difficult to understand, says Bicknell and Prescott (The Vitamins in Medicine), why wheat germ oil (vitamin E) should ever be given in preference to whole wheat germ.

It is certain the oil cannot contain anything not present in the parent germ, and it is equally certain that much of value may be lost.

Yahbut, when a customer pays a fancy price for wheat germ oil the poor geek likes to think there's magic in it.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

The Country Parson

"The fellow who knocks a home run is not the one who is afraid to bat for fear he'll strike out."

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Instruct Children for Later Life

Should Jerry be permitted to stay away from Sunday school? You parents should face this common problem early. For it is the job of all good parents to see that their youngsters are well equipped to meet the crises of later adult life. Children aren't competent to judge what is best.

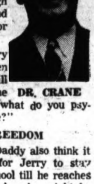
By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE F-420: Jerry M., aged 9, has a sister who is 7.

"Dr. Crane, Jerry objects to going to Sunday school," his mother began.

"He says he'd rather stay home and play. And now his Daddy thinks maybe it would be better to wait till Jerry is of high school age and can decide for himself.



DR. CRANE

"But if Jerry stays home, then his sister Lois will want to do the same thing. So what do you psychologists advise?"

HOW MUCH FREEDOM

Does Jerry's Daddy also think it would be well for Jerry to stay out of public school till he reaches the age of 15, when he might be old enough to decide for himself whether school is desirable?

Or do we let children wait till the middle teens to decide whether it is best for them to use a toothbrush regularly?

Certainly not! One of the jobs of being a good parent is to employ our superior adult intelligence so that our children are equipped for ultimate happiness and health.

Naturally, children will shun soap and water and toothpaste and school and work of all sorts.

For such things are regarded as chores. "They are all so boring" many a youngster will state.

But life consists largely of chores. Such things fall under the heading "Duty." For life is not just an easy "ice cream & cake" type of existence.

And children are supposed to be prepared for the practical situations of everyday living. Sunday school helps them adjust more happily to these.

GO TO CHURCH

Obviously, a child prefers freedom to restraint, and so do we adults. But parents know that restriction of their free time is what makes children learn to play the piano or violin.

It is also what keeps them in grammar school till they learn arithmetic and history and English composition.

The Sunday school doesn't coerce its pupils with a truant officer who will call on all children and force them to attend.

So parents should tactfully use all proper pressure to get their youngsters into church on Sunday morning.

That one-hour session on ethics is about all the formal teaching most of them will ever receive during the entire week.

Here are some additional suggestions to sugar-coat Sunday school:

CHURCH STRATEGY

You parents should get up and go to Sunday school with your children, thus setting them a strong positive example.

And occasionally make a gala event out of the rest of the day. For instance, after church, have a picnic lunch in the park or out in the country.

Mrs. Crane and I used to take our children to the Lincoln Park zoo here in Chicago. So Sunday school became linked with a holiday mood instead of a stodgy classroom.

The teachers, too, in Sunday school should try to use every tactful method to dramatize the lessons and inflate the ego of the children so they will want to come back the following Sabbath.

But all good parents should see that their children are in Sunday school. Otherwise, you are cheating your youngsters out of vital spiritual training which will be stabilizing ballast for their later years.

Send for my bulletin "How to Pep Up Sunday School & Party Games," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20c. Give it to Sunday school teachers.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 6c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People

'Dems Set Poor Example for Younger Generation'

I am more disillusioned than ever in our country, and mainly in the men who are supposed to be guiding our future. The Democratic Convention was the most juvenile display of confusion and triteness.

How can we expect to raise a decent younger generation, when apparently the members of the "grown-up" set are nothing more than immature politicians? The Democratic Convention resembled a high school football rally, and it seems to have had about the same degree of seriousness!

If the Republicans act anything like the Democrats did, I will really be completely discouraged.

J. B.

'Warren-Rockefeller Best Combination'

If the Republicans were smart they would select U.S. Supreme Court Chief Justice Earl Warren as their presidential candidate with Rockefeller as his running mate. Warren, the author of the historic 1954 integration edict, could crack the Negro voting bloc which is still predominantly Democratic.

Such a combination would really shake up the Democratic leadership who are so certain of support from labor and minority groups that they felt they could foist Lyndon Johnson upon these groups after choosing for the top spot John Kennedy.

A Warren-Rockefeller ticket would strike at the real heart of Democratic power, the industrial North and the burgeoning West. Our own Michigan, California and New York (the candidates' own states) plus Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio, New Jersey and Indiana would capitulate to the GOP and provide about 200 of the 266 electoral votes needed.

The "solid south," could only provide the Kennedy-Johnson ticket with about 100 electoral votes.

A Warren-Rockefeller ticket would give many Northern liberals, such as our "disappointed" Gov. Williams, many restless nights. This dilemma will probably never arise. The GOP nomination of Nixon will be a formal recognition of a decision made eight years ago. So Northern liberals will have to support the Kennedy-Johnson ticket.

Glad to See Editorial on Ike's Relaxation

Thank you for your editorial concerning President Eisenhower's healthful activity of playing golf. It did my heart good to see the statistics in black and white. I hope that the everlasting critics took note.

Our President has done a hard job well, and with the dignity becoming to one in this highest office of our country. He has been a gentleman at all times and has earned the respect of the American people.

We can earnestly hope that the successors will be as amiable and efficient as the Eisenhowers have been. Bless them!

New Chemical Makes Creases That Remain

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Agriculture Department scientists have developed a chemical which permantly creases stay or pleats wool slacks and skirts. The department said the creases stay through long wear and exposure to rain and high humidity. If the fabric is suitably shrink-proofed, the creases remain after machine washing.

The long-lasting creases are put into wool garments through the use of dilute solutions of ethanolamine. The department said this chemical is widely available, safe and inexpensive.

Adlai or Bowles for Dems; GOP?...

Secretary of State Choice Crucial Move

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—The second most important job in the government, secretary of state, won't be in the hands of the voters at all when they choose their new president and vice president next November.

There is speculation now that if Sen. John F. Kennedy wins the presidency he will choose between Adlai E. Stevenson and Chester Bowles in naming his secretary. There is not even speculation on who'd be a new Republican president's choice.

But in the next four years — with Russia growing stronger, more daring and more belligerent and Red China's muscles getting bigger day by day — the secretary of state will have a tremendous burden.

One thing seems sure. Even if the Republicans win the election, the present secretary, Christian A. Herter, will step out. Herter is an honest man and an earnest one, but during his secretaryship this country has suffered diplomatic disasters.

MANY EXAMPLES

For instance, there were the American U2 spy plane downed over Russia, the State Department's bumbling in handling that episode, the blowup of the summit meeting, the cancellation of President Eisenhower's trips to Russia and Japan.

In addition there has been the wretched deterioration in relations with Cuba, the Soviet efforts to get a foot in there, the debacle in the Congo, and the Communist maneuvering to edge into Africa.

These are probably only samples of problems to come but as yet unimagined.

Handling them will call for firmness and decision and, perhaps above all, imagination in finding new methods of dealing with communism to prevent its expansion.

Kennedy, the Democrats' presidential nominee, and vice president Richard M. Nixon, who seems certain to be the Republicans' presidential choice, are both strong-minded men.

Either as president would almost certainly be the dominant figure in foreign affairs in his administration, but each would have to rely to an enormous degree on the day-by-day and long-range judgment of his secretary of state.

BOTH HAVE TRAVELED

Stevenson, while he has traveled widely around the world since first losing the presidential race to Eisenhower in 1952, has never held a high overseas government assignment.

Bowles, now a Democratic congressman from Connecticut, was ambassador to India and was Kennedy's foreign policy adviser during the latter's campaign for the presidential nomination. Both Bowles and Stevenson have written on foreign affairs.

Will It Be Juneau or Anchorage?

Alaska Fights 'Civil War' Over Capital Location

ANCHORAGE AND JUNEAU, Alaska (UPI)—Alaska's capital fight is rapidly taking on "civil war" campaign proportions.

The issue, which developed soon after the former territory became the 49th state a year and a half ago, will be determined Aug. 9 in the state's primary election.

On that day Alaskan voters will decide whether the state capital should be moved from the southern coastal town of Juneau.

Anchorage, or a site near this city of 85,000, the population center of the state, has been suggested for the state governmental headquarters.

A group known as Alaskans United is leading the fight against moving the capital, but it is apparent that Alaskans are far from being united on the issue.

The fight, in fact, has taken on aspects of a battle royal although to date, acrid bitterness is yet to develop. The fight is being waged publicly in newspaper editorials, on radio and television.

The battle is not without its sentimental angle.

Juneau, a historical city of the "49th," produced more than $150,000,000 worth of gold from 1880 to the mid 20th century. It is steeped in color and tradition.

But proponents of the move to transfer the governmental site, maintain that, with the glitter long gone from the Juneau area, the disadvantages of having the capitol building in Juneau far outweigh the historical attractions.

Those favoring the move have charged that mercenary objectives, which disregard long range benefits for all Alaskans, are behind the movement to keep the capital in Juneau. The city is now a fishing port.

Robert Atwood, publisher of the Anchorage Daily Times, contend that "the present state government establishment is clumsy and inefficient."

State decisions are made at Juneau, 500 miles or more from 85 per cent of the population and field operations are subject to remote control from Juneau."

Norman Brown, publisher of the Anchorage Daily News has pointed out in his paper that the move would cost Alaska between fifty and one hundred million dollars to make.

Along those opposed to moving the capital from Juneau are Gov. William A. Egan, former territorial Gov. Mike Stepovich and Sen. Robert Bartlett (D-Alaska).

Claims Freeway Boosts Value of Adjacent Land

ALMA (AP)—Freeway construction tends to boost the value of land located nearby, State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie told a service club luncheon here today.

Mackie cited several specific instances he said were uncovered in a right of way division study of the effect of new highways on abutting land.

In the Kalamazoo area, he said, a subdivision planner contended a new highway would reduce the value of lots in the development.

"In fact," Mackie said, "the new highway expedited the sale of lots in the subdivision and at prices higher than had been expected. This happened mainly because of the accessibility to the new freeway."

In the Battle Creek area, Mackie said, a 101-acre parcel was left landlocked by a new highway. Appraisers figured the construction dropped the value of the land from $8,200 to $800 and the department paid the owner the difference.

Shortly after the highway was completed, Mackie said, the land was sold for $5,000.

Top Red China Banker Disillusioned, Defects

HONG KONG (AP) — One of Communist China's top banking officials in Hong Kong has broken with the Reds after finding all is not as pleasant on the mainland as Red China's masters try to make it appear.

The banker, who asked to remain anonymous, recently defected after a tour of the China mainland with a group of other Communist officials and businessmen from Hong Kong.

"Everything was very impressive as long as we stayed on the conducted tour," he said. "Industry, agriculture, housing construction appeared to be booming, and everyone looked happy, well-fed and dedicated to communism."

Then he got permission to visit his native Foochow, capital of south China's Fukien Province, where his parents still live. What he found there staggered him.

"My father is going blind. My mother is suffering from malnutrition," he said. "Hunger and fear are written on the faces of all my relatives and friends. Most of them would not talk to me. They just eyed me suspiciously. They were so different from the people I met on the conducted tour."

His parents met him with complete silence. Finally his mother broke down in tears and asked him, "Why did you have to come back?"

She was ashamed to have him see her in her condition, he said. He was so disillusioned that he cut short his tour and returned to Hong Kong.

Liberalizes Ruling on Maternity Leave

Under the new rule, the person returning from maternity leave can fill a vacancy in any state agency that wants to hire and has a job similar to the old one open.

The three-year time limit for rehiring also was suspended by the commission.

Tells of Brutality at Florida's Prison

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI)—Convicted murderer Charles T. Bashlor of Detroit testified yesterday he was chained to his cell for 55 hours and sprayed with a hose in 1958 because he tried to saw his way out of the maximum security building at Raiford State Prison.

Bashlor, serving a life sentence for killing a prominent Jacksonville banker in 1951, was called to the stand by the federal government as the brutality trial of 14 former Raiford guards entered its fourth week.

Bashlor, only 16 when he shot and killed banker John E. Stephenson during an attempted burglary at Stephenson's home, drew nation-wide notoriety as Jacksonville's "baby faced" killer.

New Fashions Reveal Wide (and Wild) Variety

A scarf suit in heather tweed, left, designed by Phillippe Tournaye for the Marquise collection, features a box jacket, green grooved buttons and flap pockets. Rudolph's long-waisted dinner dress at right continues the popular short skirt. The lavish pattern is executed in nutmeg toned tweed on a taupe and beige ground.

Editor's Note: What's in store for the well-dressed woman this autumn? Here's a look at prevailing trends and modish moods as the 30th National Press week of fall fashions gets under way in New York.

NEW YORK (AP)—Fashion designers still have a mind of their own.

This reassuring fact became apparent in the first afternoon showings of a week-long display of fall clothes by the New York couture group for 230 visiting fashion editors.

With the soft, liquid, languid and low-waisted ensemble a shoo-in for dominant silhouette along came Jane Derby Monday with determinedly controlled oval skirts, Oleg Cassini with figure-hugging sheaths and the Marquise collection with an almost exclusive preoccupation with leather and fur.

Mrs. Derby called her outline of rounded, tapered skirt below a narrow bodice "the ninepin silhouette." While it didn't bowl anyone over, it nonetheless was cordially received by the fashion press.

She made wise use of the double skirt, flaring either as a tunic over a slim slip or set over a slightly narrower slip for a tiered effect. Other skirts were completely round and imaginatively draped.

ANIMALS TOPS

In the Marquise collection, designed by Philippe Tournaye, the animal kingdom was given top billing. Nobody has polled the furbearers on their reaction, but there's no denying Tournaye put some little known pelts on the fashion map.

A coat of Australian o'possum had a Basque green lining to match its dress. A three-quarter Burgundy greatcoat was lined with Norwegian fox to keep warm the matching nubby wool crepe dress under it. A full-length antelope suede coat was trimmed with fisher. There were white mink ascots and trimmings and stoles of sable, chinchilla and nutria lavished on coats, suits and costumes.

Igor Cassini confided to the fashion editors that he didn't have a single sequin or pearl, fur or embroidery.

"I still believe in a thing called 'line'," he said, and proceeded to demonstrate what he meant with a series of close-fitting sheaths and exquisitely mannered little black dresses.

In what he termed a departure he exhibited, to applause, dresses all in one piece that looked like overbloused sweaters on box-pleated skirts.

Some of his costumes seemed sheer whimsy, perhaps in keeping with his outrageous titles such as "I was a dental assistant," "Wake me when it's over," "Raucous in the Caucasus," and "Ben Hé."

Then there was the floor-length evening dress in black lace over bronze metallic fabric, with its black chiffon skirt gathered in with elastic above the calf.

"Good if you have crooked knees," Cassini explained.

Changes in the fashionable silhouette for fall are subtle. But new easy softness of line, teamed with wild extravagance of fabric, fur and glitter, will make women prettier than they've been for years.

Since no one silhouette has taken over, the new clothes offer a variety of fluid, feminine outlines. This promises fashionable wearing for more than one season. And a good thing, too. This fall's lavish use of furs and sparkle puts costume ownership in the investment class.

Evening wear is especially opulent. The long evening dress is making a comeback, almost always with its own wrap, ablaze with jewel and bead embroidery, swathed in precious furs.

FASHION AT A GLANCE

DRESSES: They're loose, soft, low-waisted, or with over blouse or tunic. Now and then a slightly shaped chemise shows up. Skirts may be tiered, full, cut on the bias, or pleated, but always allowing easy movement. Sleeves have deep arm holes, set on low shoulder line. Necklines may be collarless or have scarf collars or cowl folds. Sashes instead of belts circle the waist, and if the whistline is not actually cut lower, hipbands or low-placed pleats sustain the fiction.

SUITS: Jackets are in lengths from hipbone to wristbone. Skirts may be rounded, pleated or flared. Often they have their own stoles or matching coats.

COATS: The full coat is back in magnificent width. Some look like capes. Many are cut a length called nine-tenths or seven-eighths. As part of a costume, the coat is worn with matching dress or suit. Frequently it's lined with fur.

EVENING WEAR: The silhouette is elegantly slim and tall, with spectacular use of glitter.

FABRICS: Silk brocades, jewel strewn gold lace, metal brocades, cut velvets backed with gold cloth star for evening. Tweeds, velours, wools, fluffy weaves and mixed fibers, patterned fabrics and plaids are for daytime use. And everywhere, fur, fur, fur.

COLORS: Especially sumptuous designers' hues are dark and rich, keeping close to the deep tones of stained glass: purples, blue, green, rich browns.

Jane Derby shows this ankle-length evening dress in layers of mauve net with pleated underskirts. The strapless bodice with blue grosgrain bows is embroidered with pink and crystal beads — the embroidery extending part way down the gathered skirt.

Regal is Adele Simpson's evening ensemble of white silk with gold metal embroidery. It is extravagantly collared and cuffed with sable. Beneath the dramatic sweep of coat with its elbow-length sleeves is a sliver of a dress with a low, rounded neckline.

Darlyne Gould and Barbara Frasa assisted with the opening of gifts.

The St. John Lutheran Church has been reserved for the Aug. 27 wedding.

New Hat Style for Meg

LONDON (AP)—Since her marriage to fashion-conscious Antony Armstrong-Jones, Princess Margaret has radically changed her hat styles.

She's settled on a variation of the toque, or souffle, made famous by her grandmother, the late Queen Mary.

Did her husband talk her into the lid switch? Only the newlyweds know the answer to that.

Gone are the beloved headpieces of yesterday—the elaborate cartwheel that made the petite princess look top-heavy, the berets, turbans, picture hats and hats with brims.

Since her wedding on May 6, Margaret has worn the toque on every occasion she's been in the public eye.

NEW MODE

She sailed off to her Caribbean honeymoon in a toque of spun net, color sunshine yellow. She returned to London on June 18 in a white toque.

On June 24, when opening a school, she donned a toque. On July 12, on an official visit to Birmingham, it was a toque. Yesterday, at her first Buckingham Palace garden party as a married woman, it was a toque again.

Her milliner, Simone Mirman, says the princess has another style from her trousseau that she has yet to wear. It's called the ballerina bandeau.

Margaret's toques differ from her grandmother's in that they're made of very light spun net. Queen Mary's were of heavy silk and satin.

And just as the princess has clung to the toque in hats, she's worn a duster coat on every public occasion. Sometimes it's been the same coat, in brilliant cyclamen pink.

Margaret has changed her shoe style, too. Instead of the open-toed model that she used to wear and that her sister Queen Elizabeth II still wears Margaret's new style is close-toed.

Cool Malt Has 400 Calories

Enlightening for Summer

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Yesterday I suggested that summer is a good time to lose extra pounds because we have less appetite than in cold weather and there are so many wonderful fruits and vegetables on the market.

Today I want to talk about which foods are cooling. The fact that the foods which are cooling also are reducing is another reason why summer is a perfect time to reduce.

Literally, of course, there is no such thing as a food which cools one — but calories are heating. Many women are misinformed about which foods are cooling, or less heating . . . On a hot day they may stop in for a cold, chocolate malt. This gives you a burning 400 calories. They eat many cold but calorie-packed items to beat the heat.

CHECK CALORIE CONTENT

You can eat a medium head of lettuce for only 50 calories, although I am not suggesting that you eat it at one sitting! There are only 100 calories in the following foods; one cup of cole slaw (with a moderate amount of mayonnaise); two cups of greens; one small cantaloupe; one cup of cherries or berries; one orange or apple; two fresh pears; five medium carrots; one small cauliflower head; 20 stalks of asparagus; four cups of cabbage.

So, you see, just because foods are cold in temperature does not necessarily mean that they will make you feel cooler. The way you prepare and serve your food makes a big difference in calorie count and therefore in the heating potentiality of a food.

TRIMMINGS RICH

If you have your berries with whipped cream and sugar, for instance, that is a different story. If you load on rich salad dressings such as Thousand Island or any of the heavy cream dressings, you are lost so far as reducing and cooling. Hollandaise sauce on cold, cold asparagus will heat you up and puff you up.

It is a mistake to get so hot and lazy that you lighten up on lean meat and vegetables and go heavy on ice cream sodas, chocolate malts and sandwiches!

If you would like to have my calorie chart leaflet "Count Your Calories," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 26. Address Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

What's better eating than an apple or an orange —and each contains only 100 calories. Remember, too, just because foods are cold in temperature does not necessarily mean that they will make you feel cooler.

Invite Candidates

Oakland County candidates have been invited to attend the Waterford Township Democratic Women's Club meeting July 26 at the Waterford CAI Building.

Mrs. Gerald Craig, Mrs. Edward Gommer and Mrs. Carlos Richardson will be hostesses for the 8 p.m. event.

Cleo's Beauty a Legend—Was It Personality?

(NEA)—The legend of beauty is sometimes puzzling. Cleopatra was actually ugly, according to the drawings of her still extant. Yet the legend built around her is one of dazzling beauty.

Mary Queen of Scots was, judging by contemporary paintings, a long-nosed, unprepossessing female. She was married three times. Two of these marriages were arranged and her third marriage, to Bothwell, was one in which she was not loved. Yet, her reputation, too, is that of the great beauty who had many suitors.

* * *

Since facts are so at variance with the legends, we can only conclude that royalty can exert a powerful influence. Both women were courted, of course, because they were heads of states and marriage with either could be advantageous. For the rest, we can only think that both must have had some fascination for others, an elusive kind of charm that could not be caught in a painting.

Big and Beautiful

(UPI)—Big stones—Whether precious or costume, the big, beautifully cut stone has a special place in the fashion spotlight for fall. It's seen in rings, in pins, in bracelets and in necklace clasps.

Marilyn Hughes Weds

MRS. JOSEPH D. HASTING

Pink floral crosses against a background of white gladioli and carnations graced the altar of Lutheran Church of the Redeemer in Birmingham for the Saturday morning nuptials of Marilyn Gustie Hughes and Joseph Damon Hasting.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Irwin Hughes of Marion avenue, Waterford Township, hosted their daughter's church reception following the double-ring service read by the Rev. Theodor Wuggazer Jr.

Preceding the bride to the altar were attendants in mutation shades of pink silk organdy over taffeta. Graduated sizes of pink carnations were arranged in their colonial cascade bouquets.

Mrs. Darrill Martin was matron of honor. The bridegroom's sisters Donna and Linda Hasting served as junior bridesmaids, and Pamela Martin was flower girl.

The princess-style bridal gown of imported antique ivory Chantilly lace over silk-faced peau de soie featured a bateau neckline and half-sleeves. Dusty pink silk velvet ribbon accented the molded empire waistline. The bouffant floor-length skirt belled into a chapel train.

Silk illusion fingertip veiling fell from a crown of seed pearls and aurora borealis crystals. Resting on the bride's lace-covered prayer book was a colonial arrangement of pink sweetheart roses, white feathered carnations and ivy.

Glenn Hasting assisted his brother as best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Damon Hasting of Willard street. Freddie Hasting seated guests at his brother's wedding, with the bride's brother Joseph Irwin Hughes Jr.

HONEYMOON IN NORTH

To begin the northern Michigan honeymoon the new Mrs. Hasting donned a brown and white checked linen sheath dress sparked with white accessories. She wore the roses from her bouquet.

The bride is a registered x-ray technician on the staff of William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak. Her husband is a graduate of the Ardmore Automotive College, Ardmore, Ala. They will live on Rockcroft street in Waterford.

Mrs. Hughes chose blue lace and net over taffeta for her daughter's wedding and reception. Mrs. Hasting appeared in royal blue silk crepe. Both mothers wore white glamellias.

The bride's aunts Mrs. Lloyd Hughes and Mrs. Leslie Hughes, with her cousins Mrs. Frank Dumont and Laura Hughes, assisted at the breakfast-reception.

Camp to Have 3 Noted Composers

Deems Taylor, Peter Mennin and Don Gillis, three of America's foremost composers, will be at the National Music Camp, Interlochen, July 24 through 31. Mr. Taylor and Mr. Mennin will participate in camp activities and consult with faculty and students. Don Gillis is vice president of the National Music Camp, in charge of development, and composer in residence.

Hugh Downs of the Jack Paar Show and other programs also will visit the National Music Camp next weekend.

Deems Taylor, writer, music critic and radio commentator, is the composer of "Through the Looking Glass," "The King's Henchman," "Peter Ibbetson" and other works. He is credited with making music more intelligible and more enjoyable to thousands of Americans.

Peter Mennin is director of the Peabody Conservatory of Music, Baltimore, Md., and winner of the New York Music Critics Circle Award and the first Gershwin Memorial Award. His compositions have been played by every major symphony orchestra in America.

These composers and others on campus, as well as Mr. Downs, are expected to be in the audience at 8 p.m. Sunday for the fourth concert of the season by the National High School Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Dr. Joseph E. Maddy, president and founder of the National Music Camp.

Featured contemporary works on the program will be Don Gillis' "Five Acre Pond" and Ferde Grofe's "Grand Canyon Suite." Dr. Maddy has chosen to open the program with Peter Ilich Tschaikowsky's "Symphony No. 5 in E Minor."

"Five Acre Pond" was first performed here in 1958 with Don Jaeger of the Dallas Symphony Orchestra as soloist and A. Clyde Roller, conductor of the Amarillo (Texas) Symphony Orchestra, as conductor.

PART OF RECOLLECTIONS

It was written as a part of recollections of Cameron, Mo., birthplace and boyhood home of the composer. Reflecting the nostalgic memory of the old swimming hole and favorite fishing spot of days gone by, it is scored for oboe solo, string orchestra, celeste-piano, percussion and harp.

Mr. Gillis was producer-director for the NBC Symphony broadcasts under Arturo Toscanini and such other programs as "University of the Air," "An Evening with Romberg," "U.S. Steel Symphony of the Air" and others. He reorganized the symphony when it left the network and, as president of the Symphony Foundation of America, took the orchestra on tour throughout the Far East as part of the President's Cultural Exchange program.

His special interest is American opera. As director of the American Opera Workshop, he produced 21 American operas at the National Music Camp last summer, including his own "Park Avenue Kid."

Nineteen public concerts will be presented by the National Music Camp at Interlochen during the fourth week of its concert series beginning today and continuing through Sunday.

In its first appearance of the season, the Faculty-Staff Male Chorus will be heard Wednesday at 8 p.m. This chorus of 55 voices of men of the faculty and staff of the National Music Camp, many of them outstanding instrumentalists, conductors and composers as well, will present a group of 19th Century German and Scandinavian songs of Grieg, Schumann, Schubert and Beethoven.

A composition of the contemporary composer Alan Hovhaness will also be featured. A percussion ensemble of two marimbas, tympani, a gong and a tenor drum will accompany the Hoveness song.

The Faculty-Staff Male Chorus was started at the National Music Camp to demonstrate what an ideal male chorus could do. The first public performance by the group last season proved to be so popular that a similar concert will be scheduled annually.

Thursday, Orien Dailey will conduct the Honors Orchestra at 8 p.m. in Don Gillis' "Symphony No. 6," Robert Palmer's "Memorial Music" and Warren Benson's "Theme and Excursions."

In the audience for this concert Thursday will be approximately 40 4-H Club members from Wyoming and Minnesota who are visiting 4-H Club members in the Grand Traverse area this week.

Attend Fete Short While if Invited

By EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: The daughter of our next door neighbor has sent my son—aged 21—an invitation to her "sweet 16" birthday party which is to be held at the country club.

We have known this family for many years and have always been very friendly. My son refuses to go to this birthday party.

His reason being that he is "too old." I think that as she was good enough to invite him, it would be very discourteous of him not to go, if only for a short while. I would appreciate your opinion on this matter.

Answer: Unless other older friends of the "birthday girl" have also been invited to the party, you son would feel out of place at a "sweet 16" birthday party. However, having received an invitation, it would be courteous and kind of him to take a present to the girl, wish her a happy birthday, stay at the party a short while, and leave.

Dear Mrs. Post: We have received an invitation to a wedding reception addressed to Mr. and Mrs. John Jones and family. There are five in the immediate family — mother, father, two daughters and one son. Will you please tell me how such an invitation is answered?

Answer: Most correctly it would be answered as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. John Jones
Misses Mary and Alice Jones and Mr. Henry Jones accept with pleasure etc.

Dear Mrs. Post: When introducing my fiance to friends, is it necessary to explain who he is? In other words, do I say, "John Jones, my fiance," or is "John Jones" enough? (2) Also when introducing a relative, is it necessary to explain the relationship?

Answer: "John Jones—my fiance" is correct. (2) Yes, you naturally say, "My sister," "my cousin" or whoever it may be.

Dear Mrs. Post: When inviting six or eight guests into dinner when cocktails have been served in the living room beforehand, would it be too far afgiss to ring a small antique dinner bell I have to summon them into the dining room when dinner is ready? I would very much appreciate hearing from you on this matter.

Answer: No, please not the bell. Come into the living room and tell them that dinner is ready.

Dear Mrs. Post: When a woman of 60 or so enters a rather small crowded room in which 10 or 15 women half her age are sitting, should the younger women rise? This seems rather awkward and unkind to me, but there are some who disagree with me.

Answer: If the hostess is present, she of course must rise and go forward to meet her guest, but the others should remain seated.

Newlyweds to Tour UP

MRS. GERALD R. PAQUETTE

After a honeymoon on historic Mackinac Island, Gerald Roger Paquette and his bride, the former Maxine Marie Wittler, will tour the Upper Peninsula before returning to their home on Mt. Clemens street.

The Rev. Vincent Myrick solemnized their wedding vows at noon Saturday in St. Joseph Catholic Church, Lake Orion.

The Edward F. Wittlers of North Andrews avenue, Lake Orion, were hosts at their daughter's reception in the Knights of Columbus Hall. Receiving with them were Mr. and Mrs. Moses Lawrence Paquette of Gingell court, parents of the bridegroom.

Pink cattleya orchids centered the bride's crescent-shaped bouquet of white stephanotis which complemented her tiered floor-length gown of white Chantilly lace over satin.

The fitted torso bodice was styled with lavalier neckline and short sleeves. Fingertip veiling of pure silk illusion and a single strand of cultured pearls, gift of the bridegroom, was also worn.

Maid of honor Jean Widdis appeared in street-length pale pink nylon over taffeta with short lace jacket and veiled crown headpiece. She held a crescent of shrimp majestic daisies.

Wearing identical ensembles were bridesmaids Patricia Hall and the bridegroom's sister Mrs. Chesley Drouillard. Pale pink Killian daisies were arranged in their crescent bouquets.

Chesley Drouillard assisted the bridegroom as best man. Daniel Pruente and Edward Sutherland seated the guests.

Before leaving on her honeymoon the new Mrs. Paquette changed to a beige linen sheath jacket dress worn with white accessories and pink cattleya orchids.

Mrs. Wittler chose beige imported embroidered polished cotton with green accessories for her daughter's wedding and reception. Cerulean blue lace-patterned nylon was Mrs. Paquette's selection. Both mothers wore Hibbard rosebuds.

No Room for Gloom in Visiting

By ALICIA HART

The other day, I had lunch with a friend who is in her early fifties. She is slim, chic and well-groomed with beautiful silvery hair. But the moment she starts to talk, this very favorable impression vanishes.

For her conversation is one long tale of woe. It centers about her own illnesses, the illnesses and woes of her friends and relatives and her fears of the future. Before the luncheon was over, she had forced upon me the feeling that she was an old, tired woman.

This is a common failing of many mature women. And it doesn't seem to matter if they are successful wives and mothers or successful career women. Their conversation is gloomy and filled with foreboding.

If this is a failing of yours, check yourself sharply. For it can strip you of all charm and render null and void good looks, good grooming, smart clothes. A joy in living is a very special ingredient of charm. We can't be joyous all of the time but we needn't pile our woes on others.

How Does Wife Figure With an Alcoholic?

NEW YORK (AP) — A man who drinks to excess is a bum . . . If a man really loves his wife he won't drink too much . . . A wife is the mainstay of marriage . . .

Do you agree or disagree with these statements?

Further, what was the attitude of your parents toward drinking?

When did you first become aware that your husband had a drinking problem? What did you do about it?

These are a few of the questions being asked wives of alcoholics in research concerned with America's fourth largest public health problem — the disease of alcoholism.

Only mental illness, heart disease and cancer claim more victims than alcoholism, which has some five million sufferers in the United States.

Wives of alcoholics have come in for special attention in a number of scientific studies as victims who need help as much as their husbands for the emotional and physical toll caused by the disease.

TO MAKE SURVEY

"But," says Dr. Margaret Bailey, research associate for the National Council on Alcoholism, "some of the most spectacular findings were based on very small samplings. We plan to cover a more comprehensive area."

A $79,000 grant from the U.S. Public Health Service's National Institute of Public Health makes the new study possible.

Under Dr. Bailey's direction, trained workers will question 250 women from every cultural and economic level. Each interview takes from 1½ to two hours.

"We're getting wives who have come to clinics for help, from family groups affiliated with Alcoholics Anonymous, from medical doctors, clergymen, psychiatrists and court referrals," Dr. Bailey says.

"There's a popular theory that wives of alcoholics are themselves a distinct personality type; that a certain type of woman marries the excessive drinker.

"But I'm not convinced. I know individual wives have married inadequate men so they could be the dominant partner; there are cases where women actually enjoyed the suffering of life with an alcoholic. A study in Pittsburgh even found a small group of women who became sick when their alcoholic husbands sobered up."

NOT ENOUGH EVIDENCE

"But such studies show the need for more research. I don't feel there is enough evidence to justify singling alcoholism out as a disease that attracts a certain type of person, any more than cancer or heart disease."

One area to be explored is the effect of alcoholism on the wife's health. Findings will be matched against a study on community health unrelated to drinking.

"We hope to learn how wives of alcoholics compare with women in a random sampling as to nervous and physical symptoms — shortness of breath, trembling hands, headaches, stomach upsets. There may be differences, maybe not."

Interviewers will probe for the point at which drinking breaks up a family.

It might be when children are drawn into shattering quarrels; or when a wife feels she can never mean as much to her mate as his bottle; or when physical violence is involved.

"One woman had been married only three weeks when her husband knocked her down stairs while on a binge," Dr. Bailey says. "She walked out and never came back. Yet other wives endure protracted physical abuse.

"What determines a woman's tolerance?"

Experts know that family attitudes are crucial both in the alcoholic's realization that he can't control his drinking without help and in his ultimate recovery.

Dr. Bailey's project hopes to learn what makes a woman seek help for the alcoholic problem or end the marriage.

This should help make treatment and preventive public education that much more effective.

Dr. Bailey hopes the present study — on which results will be compiled next winter — will lead to further projects to examine men with alcoholic wives, parents and children of alcoholics.

"What we learn can help clergymen, doctors and social workers who deal with alcoholism as a family problem.

"And that will be a big step toward earlier detection and treatmen of the alcoholic himself."

Abby Says: You Have a Problem

Talk This Over With Dad

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: We have four children and my husband has a 15-year-old son by a former marriage who has always spent two weeks with us during the summer. This year I was told he was coming to spend the whole summer with us as his mother couldn't manage him any more. I was neither consulted nor considered.

ABBY

I am the one who has to cook and clean for him, and to do his laundry in addition to trying to discipline him, which is not easy.

I feel that this responsibility is too much for me as the boy is ungrateful, unreasonable and mean. What should I do?

NOT CONSULTED

DEAR NOT CONSULTED: Tell your husband what you've told me.

DEAR ABBY: Five years ago Bob died and left me with three sons—then 6, 8 and 10. He had some insurance, but I was far from being a wealthy widow.

In all this time (five years) Bob's family did nothing for me or the boys. No one offered to take the boys to a ball game, a circus or to go fishing. Not even a Christmas dinner.

I met a fine man a year ago. He loves me and the boys and we love him. He is not of my religion but I am changing to his to marry him. We've told the boys they may choose their own religion and they are all changing so we can go to church together.

Suddenly Bob's family came to life. They are up in arms. They've been calling and coming over to "bring me to my senses." They say I have no right to do this to Bob's children. I'd like your opinion.

TROUBLED

DEAR TROUBLED: If you promised your first husband to bring up his children in his faith, you should keep that promise. If no such promise was made, disregard the protests of Bob's family. The family that prays together—stays together.

Income Soars to Record Rate

June Personal Receipts a Billion Dollars Higher Than in May

WASHINGTON (AP) — Personal income of Americans climbed to a record rate of $405,750,000,000 a year last month. The increase was a billion dollars over May.

The Commerce Department reported Monday that total wage and salary payments rose by about 300 million dollars in June despite a decline in factory payrolls due to a slowdown in the steel and automotive industries.

June's total represented an increase of 10 billion dollars in the annual rate since January and a rise of 22 billions since June, 1959.

Aerojet General Wins Solid-Fuel Rocket Job

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Air Force announced Monday that a contract calling for solid-fueled rockets which eventually may develop more than one million pounds of thrust has been awarded to Aerojet General Corp. of Azusa, Calif. Such rockets are expected to serve as space boosters and may also be used as ballistic missiles.

The contract calls for about $4 million in the fiscal year that started July 1. Eventual total outlays were not estimated.

Editor Expects Rocky for VP

Says GOP Must Run Strongest Duo for Win in November

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI) — Gov. Nelson Rockefeller will be on the Republican ticket in November, Louis B. Seltzer, editor of the Scribbs-Howard Cleveland Press, predicted Monday.

Seltzer said the New York governor doesn't like vice president Richard M. Nixon and the feeling is mutual. But he said that Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, and his running mate, Sen. Lyndon Johnson, are equally at odds.

Right now, with a strong Kennedy-Johnson ticket, the Republicans must come through with their strongest possible combination," said Seltzer. "It's Nixon and Rockefeller."

The editor said that although Gov. Rockefeller wants only the presidential nomination he will think twice about declining the second spot when the convention speaks in Chicago.

"He will know that if he turns them down in 1960, when they believe the party needs him, they, at a later time, can easily spurn him—and the memory of this convention's delegates is like that of their party's own symbol."

Ike Calls Aides to Talk of Reds

Recent Bitter Attacks on U. S. by Russians Concerns President

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—President Eisenhower confers with key advises today to deal with the Soviet Union's increasingly bitter propaganda attacks on the United States.

The President called to the summer White House for an afternoon meeting a strategy-mapping team headed by Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and Charles E. Bohlen, former ambassador to Moscow and now a State Department specialist on Soviet problems.

Also expected to sit in were Foy D. Kohler, assistant secretary in charge of United Nations matters.

That array of officials, whose top concern at the moment is the Kremlin propaganda offensive, underscores the administration's apparent decision that the time has come to get tough with the Soviet Union, to slam back at anti-American charges.

City 'Jungle' Slaying Led to Weed Cutting Program

A 1955 tragedy led to the city's weed cutting program that is getting under way this week for the fifth straight year.

A woman was murdered while walking on the sidewalk on Baldwin avenue near her home.

The slayer had lain in wait in the heavy growth of weeds that existed then in the vacant lots along Baldwin.

The "jungle" slaying horrified the city. By the time summertime came around next year, the city was armed with a new ordinance, based on state law, allowing the Department of Parks & Recreation to move in on weeds where property owners failed to cut them.

The ordinance is effective only in the more populous portions of town — where the subdivisions are at least 60 per cent built up.

And property owners have learned to cooperate.

In the early years of the ordinance, the city was cutting as many as 3,000 lots in a summer. Last summer the figure was down to 681.

Of course, many of the vacant lots of several years ago have since become the sites of homes, observed David R. Ewalt, parks and recreation director.

There's another safety factor behind the weed cutting program — one that has to be considered on a day-to-day basis.

That's traffic safety, said Ewalt. "Corner lots overgrown with weeds prevent drivers from getting an unobscured view of approaching traffic," he explained.

"This is an important part of our program, since the incidence of corner accidents is very high."

In a general sense, trim lots improve the city's appearance and offer youngsters a place to play, Ewalt added.

Under the ordinance, the city is empowered to trim lots after July 1, first notifying property owners. Property owners are billed for the service and if they don't pay their names go on a special assessment roll.

INSPECTS WEEDS — Lester Stanley, city weed inspector, measures the growth in an overgrown vacant lot that is scheduled for cutting by the city, unless the property owner does so on his own. City cutting will get under way this week.

Spain Observes Civil War Day

Marks 24th Year of Start of Conflict That Ushered in Franco

MADRID, Spain (AP)—Spain observed Monday the 24th anniversary of the start of the Spanish Civil War, the three-year conflict which left a million dead.

Masses of Thanksgiving for the victory of Gen. Francisco Franco's nationalist forces over the Spanish Republic were sung in churches throughout the country.

Newspapers published Fong articles extolling the regime's accomplishments since the war's end, March 31, 1939.

In New York,—A score of anti-Franco demonstrators picketed the Spanish consulate to mark the anniversary.

Watched by a half-a-dozen policemen and a few bystanders the picketers quietly circled in front of the consulate bearing placards which read "Franco is a murderer" and "Spain has 5,000 political prisoners," among others.

Made Olympic Team but Couldn't Defeat Fate

By CHUCK ABAIR

A Bloomfield Hills woman is well aware of the anxiety building up in the heart of Hayes Jones as he awaits next month's Olympic Games in Rome. She once had the same feeling.

★ ★ ★ ★

She is Mrs. Ben J. Mills, wife of the vice president and general manager of the Lincoln-Mercury Division of Ford Motor Co.

Mrs. Mills, the former Helen Richardson, made the Olympic team in 1936 midway through a 12-year career as an outstanding competitive swimmer. An accident prevented her from going to Berlin the year she made the grade after pointing for the opportunity for four years. Shortly after qualifying in the 100-meter breaststroke, the Iowa native suffered a back injury during an exhibition at Jones Beach in New York.

"I started out to do a full twist and one and a half from a 10-foot diving board," she recalled. "I did the twist all right but hit the board coming up on the way down. I broke one vertabra and cracked another in my lower back."

She was hospitalized for six weeks and in a cast for another two weeks, becoming the third qualifier to miss out on the games. Previous Olympic champion Eleanor Holm was one of the others.

Miss Richardson went back to swimming and even to diving, although it took her about 12 trips back and forth across the board to "get the nerve to dive again."

The final of her approximately 60 medals was won at the 1939 President's Cup Regatta in Washington with top government officials looking on. She set a city record to turn the trick. A sweep of diving and free style honors at a meet in England in 1943 rang down the curtain on a sparkling career which earned her 105 medals and numerous ribbons.

Winning of the national junior title in the first year started it all. High school and college triumphs at Iowa and AAU achievements throughout the Midwest, East and South as well as titles in England, France and Rome followed.

Making the Olympic team, a feat she performed in Baltimore, and the development of the first water ballet in southern England rank as Mrs. Mills' top thrills in sports.

A ruling of judges in Baltimore disallowed a first victory in the breaststroke, forcing another race after only 10 minutes of rest. She broke the pool record in the next try.

The Vaughn road resident, whose specialty was the 300-meter medley, swims now for pleasure only. Mr. Mills is a good swimmer, golfer, bowler and musician. They have lived in this sector since 1954, and a total of 12 years in Michigan.

Returns Misappropriated Funds

Paroled to Become Minister

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — When Bill Sparks, 35, went to prison last October for fraudulent conversion, his self-image was shattered. He was shocked. He felt dead. He was almost agnostic.

But Monday when the Purple Heart Army veteran came out on parole he was walking "a new road." In his own words, he had found a new life in prison.

Bill Sparks was paroled from an 11½ to 23-month sentence to enroll at the Princeton Theological Seminary in Princeton, N.J.

Dean Elmer G. Homrighausen of the seminary wrote the court: "This is our first experience with a man with such a background. We are most eager to do everything we possibly can to help Mr. Sparks to rehabilitate himself in society after this trying experience. We are also impressed with his potentialities."

Judge Leo Weinrott commented: "I think that maybe this is one of those storybook tales where someone has really surmounted a real heavy burden and shows the intestinal fortitude to come through."

In an interview today, Sparks freely admitted he had made a mistake. He also explained why he turned to religion.

"I felt the need for somthing better than the bad times before," he said. "In search of this, religion seemed to be the answer.

"But it was gradual. The counseling I received from the Rev. Richard S. Armstrong, pastor of the Oak Lane Presbyterian Church, was the thing that made it unfold.

"When I first entered prison I was bitter, depressed. I felt small and unimportant. Mostly because there was nothing else to do I began to read and think. In business you don't have much time to do this."

Sparks will serve as assistant to the Rev. Mr. Armstrong at the Oak Lane Church on weekends as part of his seminary field work. The church has offered to provide some backing for him, too.

Sparks, who graduated from Temple University in 1950, is married, and has two children, William, 5, and Sarah, 6. His wife teaches school in the Princeton area.

He explained that while in the real estate business in 1956 he misappropriated about $50,000 worth of funds based on the intention to repay them. He said he did it because he was ambitious and aggressive. Later, he said, he realized he had used poor judgment. Sparks said he has repaid everything except about $18,000 and he hopes to accomplish that somehow.

Expect Steel Output to Stretch Recovery

NEW YORK (AP — Steel production this week is expected to continue a recovery from the low point reached just after the Fourth of July.

The American Iron and Steel Institute yesterday predicted output would total 1,556,000 tons, equal to 54.6 per cent of capacity, for the highest showing since the industry operated at 61 per cent of capacity in the week of June 20.

This week's forecast compares with actual production last week of 1,476,000 tons, equal to 51.8 per cent of capacity.

With production at 42.2 per cent of capacity in the week of July 4, that was the lowest rate in a non-strike week since 1939.

A month ago, output came to 1,739,000 tons a week and a year ago, during a strike, production was 365,000 tons.

Troy Approves Plan to Use Detroit Water

Southfield Still Snarls Drain

Council Feels Bearing 76 Per Cent of Cost Is Too Much to Ask

SOUTHFIELD—The City Council will ask the Oakland County Drainage Board for a better deal on cost apportionment for the proposed five million dollar South-Oak Storm Drain Sewer at a public hearing tonight.

City Clerk Patrick Flannery made the announcement today.

The hearing is scheduled to get under way at 8 p.m. in the City Hall.

Flannery said the Council feels that the 76 per cent of the total cost that the City of Southfield is being asked to pay is too much, even though the major part of the storm drain will be built in Southfield.

The sewer, formerly called the Eight Mile Storm Drain will serve Southfield and Oak Park. It will relieve heavy, seasonal rains in the two cities.

Oak Park has already agreed to pay its apportionment, three per cent of the total cost. The state and county are to pay the remaining 21 per cent.

According to Daniel W. Barry, Oakland County Drain Commissioner, labor and material costs have jumped the total cost to $5,238,425 from the earlier total of $4,760,000.

Protests against assessments from Southfield residents snarled the project in court for more than a year.

Under the new plan, the two municipalities will decide how they will collect what is due to the county for the sewer.

The state and county are bearing part of the cost due to the fact that water running off state and county roads will be carried by the South-Oak Drain.

Vote, Pact Due Within 2 Weeks

63 Per Cent of Needs Will Be Furnished by Motor City System

TROY — At a special meeting here Monday night, the City Commission voiced approval of a plan to have the city of Detroit supply 62 per cent of Troy's water needs by next spring.

An official vote on the move and signing of a contract with Detroit are expected within two weeks, but Mayor Robert J. Huber and all commissioners present unanimously agreed to back the plan in an informal poll.

City Manager David W. Hasse was directed to inform Detroit Water Board officials that Troy is in favor of receiving the water at the proposed rate of $1.46 per 1,000 cubic feet.

The cost includes storage, transportation and pumping charges. A discussion on the possibility of Troy handling its own water storage resulted in an opinion that the city could not afford to finance such facilities.

If the new plan is officially approved, Detroit water will be supplied to residents in a general area bounded by Dequindre, Crooks, 18-Mile and 14-Mile roads.

Residents of other areas will continue to be supplied through Troy's municipally-owned water system. This system now supplies all of the city's water.

It was agreed that the present system of supply will soon become inadequate — especially if a $4-million-dollar bond issue for sewers and a sewage treatment plant is approved by Troy voters in the Aug. 2 ballot.

Hasse told the Commission that the city can receive the Detroit water with no increase in rates to its customers. He also said it can save each customer $40 to $50 a year in water softeners and soaps now needed by users of Troy water.

The city manager estimated that the switch to Detroit water would result in a "drop of about 75 per cent in the 'hardness' factor."

Approximately 230 million gallons per year would be consumed by users of Detroit water, Hasse said. He said the city's supply would be piped through a water main along Dequindre road.

WILL BE LENGTHENED

The main, which presently runs to 11½-Mile road, will soon be lengthened to reach 14-Mile road. When the action by Troy becomes official, Detroit will extend the 54-inch main to 17-Mile road.

A further extension to 20-Mile road will be made if Pontiac agrees to join the Detroit system.

Hasse is negotiating with Detroit officials in hopes of getting a shorter contract than the 30-year pact which the Motor City water board is offering.

He also recommended that Troy hire a qualified engineering consultant ot study the city's own internal system of water distribution.

He said the present system is deficient since fewer than 10 per cent of the pipes in the city's 83 miles of water mains are 12 inches in diameter. The rest range from 10 to six inches.

Detroit officials promised Hasse that water would be available to Troy by the spring of 1961.

7 Hurt in 2 Crashes

Seven Oakland County residents were injured in two automobile accidents Monday. All are in serious or critical condition today.

Ten members of families from Madison Heights and Clio were hospitalized following a two-car collision 20 miles west of London, Ont.

Taken to General Hospital at nearby Strathroy, Ont., were Fred A. Podobnikar, 35, of 30171 Dequindre Rd., Madison Heights; his wife Elizabeth, and their children, Barbara, 17, Fred Jr., 14, Patricia, 9, and Harry, 6.

Also admitted to the hospital were Evangelist Ernie Kalenda of Clio, his wife Elizabeth, and their two sons, Ernie Jr., 5, and Paul, 7.

The extent of their injuries was still undetermined. But hospital officials said the four parents are on the critical list, and the children are in serious condition.

Two other Kalenda children in the car, Carolyn, 6, and Rachel, 2, were not injured.

Ontario Provincial Police said the collision occurred when a westbound car attempted to pass a gravel truck.

A Berkley pedestrian was in critical condition today at William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak, after being struck down at 8:30 p.m. yesterday at the 11-Mile road and Woodward avenue intersection.

The victim, Stanley J. Jankowiak, 71, of 685 Columbia St., Berkley, suffered a fractured skull when a car driven by Margaret Hunt, 47, of 1003 Batavia St., Royal Oak, backed into him as he was crossing Woodward avenue.

Miss Hunt told Berkley police she was caught halfway through the intersection on Woodward avenue when the light changed to red.

She failed to see Jankowiak crossing with the light behind her when she backed up. She was not held.

1961 Price Supports in Balance

Wheat Quota Vote Slated Thursday

By DON MYERS

LANSING (UPI) — A simple question that requires a "yes-or-no" answer will mean a lot to Michigan farmers who ballot Thursday on wheat quotas for the 1961 crop.

The question:

"Are you in favor of marketing quotas for wheat for the 1961 crop."

Ed Lunde, in charge of Michigan wheat production for the Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Section of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, said more than 20,000 Michigan farms qualify to vote on the issue.

The exact number of eligible voters can't be determined accurately.

"We go by the number of farms because many times both the husband and wife qualify to vote because they are joint operators of a farm," Lunde said.

"Sons are also sometimes eligible and even minor children can vote if they are classed as operators of a farm."

Any farm with an allotment of more than 15 acres of wheat is eligible to vote, and any farmer who plans to produce more than 15 acres of wheat— regardless of his quota—can also vote, he said.

"If the referendum committee at the polling place has no record of the potential voter, it will accept a ballot under challenge until it can be checked," Lunde said.

County ASC committees supervise the balloting.

The results of the Michigan election are telephoned to Washington as soon as compiled. The USDA counts ballots from all states, and if two-thirds of those voting are in favor of controls, they remain in effect.

Last year, about 53 per cent of Michigan voters were against the quotas.

But they remained in effect because farmers in other states approved them by a big enough majority to overrule the Michigan decision.

A "yes" or "no" decision means this to farmers:

If quotas are approved, wheat support prices for the 1961 crop will be $1.78 a bushel—75 per cent of the parity price. Last year, 75 per cent of parity was $1.77 a bushel.

Penalties would be in effect for farmers who grow more than 15 acres without allotment for it and refuse to store the grain.

If quotas are disapproved by more than a third of national voters on the question, price supports would be at 50 per cent of parity, and there would be no penalty for growing over quota.

Farmers who grow over the quota would not be eligible for even the 50 per cent of parity support rate, however.

Year of Debate, Denials Ends

Novi Council Stamps OK on 10-Mile Road Land-Fill

NOVI — Permission to operate a land-fill on the northeast corner of Novi and 10-Mile roads was granted last night by the Village Council.

After more than a year of debate and denials the Council approved the application for a license to operate a land-fill to the Munn Contracting Co. of Detroit.

The Munn company was first denied application by the Village Building Department a year ago and lost again when it took the request to the Appeal Board.

The firm then sued the village, and only a week and a half ago received a decision from Circuit Court Judge Frederick C. Ziem, who stated the action of the board was "unreasonable and arbitrary" and tossed the case back to the Council.

SETS STIPULATIONS

In approving the land-fill application, Council set up stipulations which the company must follow.

One was that the landfill must be completed in at least two years.

Other stipulations provide that village residents be allowed to dump rubbish free of cost; landfill truck drivers will use Novi road primarily and limit transportation on 10-Mile road; and a promise that the land-fill will conform to all regulations of the village ordinance.

About seven acres of property is included in the land-fill.

Only dry rubbish can be dumped at the site and inspections will be made periodically by village officials to keep it controlled.

51,975 AMC Shares Added by Romney

DETROIT (AP) — American Motors Corp. President George Romney said Monday he has added 51,975 shares to his personal holdings of AMC stock.

Romney said AMC filed a registration statement Monday with the Securities and Exchange Commission at Washington, covering 945,000 AMC capital stock shares "previously sold or authorized for sale to officers and key employes under the company's stock option plans.

"No public offering of securities by the company is contemplated," he added.

Aligns Japan With the West

New Premier Rejects Neutrality Policy and Pledges Prosperity

TOKYO (AP)—Japan's new premier, Hayato Ikeda, aligned his government firmly with the Western democracies today. He rejected a foreign policy of neutrality and pledged to work for greater prosperity at home.

In his first news conference since succeeding Premier Nobusuke Kishi, Ikeda also:

1. Criticized Kishi's tactics in winning parliamentary ratification of the controversial U. S.-Japanese security treaty.

2. Proposed interparty meetings to improve relations between his own Liberal-Democratic party and the Socialist opposition.

3. Advocated restoration of normal relations with Red China and more cultural and economic exchange with the Red mainland.

"I will not adopt a 'neutralist policy,'" he declared. "I will stick to the alliance of the Western free nations."

His criticism of the treaty ratification apparently was aimed at Kishi's summoning of police into Parliament to quell rioting by the Socialists. "The use of violence against violence must be avoided," he said, but did not indicate what he would have done.

NL 'Accepts' Expansion, Studies Means

Owners Back 10-Club Plan, if CL Is Flop

Giles Tells Chicago Confab New Loop Has Not Met Standards

CHICAGO (AP)—The National League finally has excepted the "inevitability" of baseball's expansion, and, in effect, has told the Continental League to put up or shut up.

Following a lengthy meeting of club owners and general managers yesterday, NL President Warren Giles said, "If it develops that a new major league is impracticable, the National League has voted unanimously to expand its membership to 10 clubs.

"The standards for a new league were set forth last year and were accepted by the Continental League, which so far has not met them."

Giles, claiming "expansion is inevitable," said his league discussed two possible means of expansion—either through a third major league, or by padding the present structure to two 10-team leagues.

Giles has found expansion "inevitable" for some time now, ever since the New York Giants and the Brooklyn Dodgers headed west three years ago. That was the end of franchise shifts, said Giles at the time, and any future changes in the baseball map would be by expansion.

It was the flight of the Giants and Dodgers that brought about the Continental League, which was formed primarily as an effort to make New York a big town again—with more than just one major league club.

Until yesterday's unanimous approval by NL owners for a look-see at expansion possibilities, however, Giles has come away from such gettogethers with word that there was no sentiment for expansion in the NL.

This time, the NL owners caught up with the American League and formed an expansion committee. The AL already had one, Walter O'Malley, owner of the Dodgers, heads the NL group, which also numbers Lou Perini of Milwaukee, John Galbreath of Pittsburgh and Bob Carpenter of Philadelphia.

The committee advised Joe Cronin, AL president, and Branch Rickey, CL president, that it would like to meet with either or both about expansion.

In New York, Bill Shea, founder of the Continental, said he was hopeful the action was a good sign. He said Rickey would be glad to meet with the committee "because we want to use every means at our disposal to be taken into organized baseball."

"My main objective has been to get another club for New York," Shea said. "I have been convinced that the only way to do that is by a third league. Perhaps Mr. Crosley's statement that he planned to remain in Cincinnati had something to do with the National League's action."

Powel Crosley, owner of the Cincinnati club, spiked rumors that he would move the Reds to New York, stating that they would remain in Cincinnati during his lifetime.

Giles said no cities were mentioned in the expansion discussion.

In the only other major action taken at the meeting, a proposal to increase a visiting team's receipts from 27½ cents per admission to a flat 20 per cent of the total gate was voted down.

Yank Series Win Stirs Sagging Hopes

Tigers Talking Big Again

DETROIT (UPI)—Those Tigers whooping it up after taking three out of four from the league-leading Yanks, are thinking big again.

A couple of weeks ago it looked like they were headed on a one-way trip to the depths of the second division but their recent surge has renewed the sagging hopes of a strong finish near the top.

The Tigers, who have won five of their last six starts and eight of the last 11, are still in fifth place and seven games off the pace. But now they are talking about making a big run for the money.

The club opens a three-game series with Washington tonight and the first business at hand is to get a firmer grip on the fifth-place slot. The Senators are poised in sixth place, one game behind Detroit.

The Tigers will send southpaw Don Mossi out to the hill tonight and he will be opposed by the temperamental Cuban, Pedro Ramos.

Mossi, Detroit's most effective hurler these days, has won five of his last six decisions and has an 8-6 season record. Ramos has only five victories in 15 decisions.

The Senators promise to be troublesome in the three-game set here. They have won nine of their last 12 games in spite of injuries to Jim Lemon, Harmon Killebrew, Camilo Pascual and Jack Kralick.

Much of the credit for the Tigers' revival boost can go to the unpredictable hitting department in general and Rocky Colavito in particular.

Colavito, after a dismal start this year, has found the range in recent weeks and has hiked his total to 19 home runs and 50 runs batted in. Rocky also has pushed his batting average up to .255, third highest among the Tiger regulars. Norm Cash leads the starters with a .284 mark.

Following the series with Washington, the Tigers head on a junket through the East which will keep them away from Briggs Stadium until Aug. 5.

But in the matches played Paul Palmer of Phoenix, Ariz., ranked third in the older division, edged Pete Monroe of Grosse Pointe, Mich., 6-4, 6-4. And the fifth seeded junior, Mike Neely of Atlanta, Ga., had almost as much trouble in eliminating John Murray of Dayton, Ohio, 6-1, 6-4.

Detroit Drafts 20 More for National Pin Squad

OMAHA (AP) — Detroit's entry in the new National Bowling League drafts 20 more players today to complete a lineup already well staffed with home talent.

In the first five rounds yesterday, Detroit chose Buff Fazio, George Howard, Tom Harnisch and Bob Crawford, all of Detroit, and Andy Rognoznic of Chicago.

Four other Detroit keglers were drafted in the opening rounds as club owners grabbed the top name bowlers.

Ed Lubanski was picked by Birmingham in the first round, Bill Golembiewski and Therman Gibson were chosen by Dallas and New York drafted Tony Lindemann.

Members of the two powerful St. Louis teams—the Budweisers and the Falstaffs—were popular choices among the the club owners.

The first team to choose, Miami, surprised the assembly by passing up the Budweisers' Don Carter, the biggest name in bowling. Instead they chose Billy Welu of the Falstaffs, the 1960 All-Star champion.

The 12-team league is scheduled to start competition in September 1961. Members are Miami, Fort Worth, Minneapolis-St. Paul, Detroit, Chicago, Los Angeles, Omaha, San Antonio, New York, Birmingham, Dallas and Kansas City.

Detroit's choices in rounds 6 to 15 were:

Andy Varipapa, Hempstead, L.I., N.Y.; Phil Vellenoweth, Wheeling, W. Va.; Jack Curry, Lansing, Mich.; Eugene Marquardt, Detroit; John Ruggiero, Detroit; Mike Totsky, Detroit; Pat Iannucci, Detroit; Monroe Moore, Pontiac, Michael Dale Seavoy, Detroit; and Pete Carter, Detroit.

Softball Wins to CIO, Police

Other Verdicts Taken by Pontiac Merchants and Rogers

C.I.O., Pontiac Police and Pontiac Merchants were American League softball winners Monday night.

CIO took a 3-0 lead in the first inning but had to come back with a pair in the 6th on three singles to nip Stadium Inn, 5-4. A two-run home run by Pete Landino featured a four-run Stadium 2nd. Chet Woodmore laced two singles and double for the victors.

The Police combined seven hits, three errors and numerous walks to breeze past Dave's Beefburger, 14-4. Elmo Burgess gave up all Dave's runs in the 4th after leading 7-0.

A leadoff triple by Gerry O'Shaughnessy and Wayne O'Shaughnessy's sacrifice fly produced a run in the 8th and a 2-1 decision for the Merchants over the Moose. Gerry Larsen, who had a four-hitter retired three straight batters in the bottom of the 8th to end it.

Rogers Electric tripped Pontiac Retailers 8-2 in the long International loop tilt breaking a 1-1 tie with four in the 4th. Bob Orr was the batting star for Rogers with three singles.

Change Planned for H of F Vote

CHICAGO (AP) — After failing to elect anyone into the Hall of Fame for the last four years, a new method of election has been proposed by the Baseball Writers Assn. of America.

Under the new system, subject to approval by the Hall of Fame committee, if no candidate receives the required 75 per cent of the votes, a second ballot will be taken. The plan was announced by Edgar Munzel of the Chicago Sun-Times, president of the writers' group.

On the runoff, however, only the top 30 will be on the ballot and the writers will vote for only five instead of 10, as on the first ballot.

Only one player will be enshrined if a runoff ballot is required and he must have at least 75 per cent of the votes.

Commissioner Ford Frick, who sat in on the discussion of a new election system at a New York meeting last week, assured the writers approval was a mere formality.

St. Paul, Pontiac Go 8 Innings to End in 1-1 Knot

In the only game in Avondale Church softball league history where the only runs were scored as result of errors, loop leader St. Paul ME (Rochester) and Pontiac RLDS (6th place) wound up in a 1-1 knot over eight innings. The game will be replayed later on. St. Paul scored in the 7th to tie the count after an outfield error in the 4th helped Pontiac to its lone tally. A similar error produced the Rochester run.

In other games last night 2nd place Lake Orion RLDS defeated Emmanuel Baptists 14-2; with LO's Earl Koonce getting two homers, and a 4-for-4 round at bats; Judah Lake Baptists defeated Elmwood ME 6-5; United Presbyterian defeated Avondale Baptists 21-5 with two homers by UP's Charles Franklin the feature; First Church of God defeated Stone Baptists 9-7.

Elmwood and First Church play Thursday, at Oakmont field, and on Friday St. Paul meets Lake Orion RLDS at Nike field in makeup games.

Top Red Wing 'Farm' Goalie OKs Contract

DETROIT (UPI) — Dennis Riggin, top-ranking goalie in the Detroit Red Wing farm system has signed his contract for the 1960-61 hockey season.

Red Wing manager Jack Adams announced today that the 24-year-old goalie had agreed to contract terms. Riggin is the second Red Wing to sign for the coming season. Gordie Howe signed last week.

Riggin played nine games with the Wings last season, replacing the ailing Terry Sawchuk. He gave up 32 goals for a 3.55 average, scoring one shutout against the Chicago Black Hawks.

In 59 games with the Edmonton Flyers in the Western League, he allowed 200 goals, for a 3.39 average. He scored five shutouts.

Minister Gets Ace at Municipal Course

Rev. W. M. McGuire, 450 Eileen drive, likes his golf, and yesterday achieved the eminence of an ace-maker, when he holed out a 8-iron shot to No. 13 green at Pontiac's Municipal layout, north course. The hole is a par three, 127-yard shot. Witnesses were his son Jim, and Russell and Joe Rizzutto. Ace was the 4th this season, 2nd for the hole at the course.

Another area golfing ace was reported at Morey's Club, it first of the season. Richard F. Hatfield, Detroit, holed out a wedge shot on No. 7, a 135-yarder on the blue course. He had 34 for the 9 holes.

Doctoring Your Golf

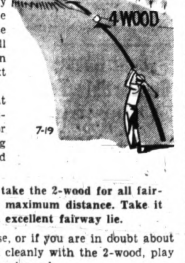
By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: "Two-wood trouble"

DIAGNOSIS: Using it from close lies.

TREATMENT: If there is ever a time in golf for ultra-conservatism, it is when your ball lies in the fairway some 300 or so yards from the green—or too far away to logically reach the green on one shot. In this situation, the big idea is to get the ball close enough to the green to get on with the next shot.

The main point is that 10 or 15 yards of extra distance will make little or no difference. The thing to avoid is a badly missed shot.



So do not slavishly take the 2-wood for all fairway shots that call for maximum distance. Take it only when you have an excellent fairway lie.

If the lie is at all close, or if you are in doubt about being able to hit the ball cleanly with the 2-wood, play it safe by taking the 3- or 4-wood.

Score's Win Boosts Chisox to 2nd

Al Lopez finally has begun to collect dividends for his weeks and months of patience in the Herb Score case.

Score came through with a complete game, his first after 15 straight failures over a two-season span, to pitch Lopez' Chicago White Sox into second place last night in the American League race.

"Al understands me," said Score shortly after he was traded to Chicago by Cleveland April 18. "He knows my problem. He's helping me."

Although Lopez understood the left-hander's peculiar problems and stuck with him in the face of criticism, Score was slow to repay him for his faith.

Until Score threw a five-hitter at Boston for a 9-1 victory, he had not gone the route since July 11, 1959. He started seven more games for Cleveland last season and eight more for Chicago this year before he finally finished.

Score's pitching, blacked by a 14-hit attack, boosted the White Sox into second place, only two games behind the New York Yankees, who dumped Cleveland into third place with a 9-2 triumph behind Whitey Ford.

Monday was a night for comebacks. Ned Garver also chose the occasion to record his first victory of the season, pitching Kansas City to a 5-1 decision over Baltimore. The defeat left the fourth-place Orioles four games off the pace. Detroit and Washington were not scheduled.

The entire National League had an open date Monday. They all return to action tonight. Pittsburgh, leading Milwaukee by 2½ games, opens an important series at Los Angeles against the hard charging Dodgers. Milwaukee also has its work cut out for it because St. Louis, now resting in third place, comes into County Stadium to open a series. San Francisco will try to regroup its forces at home against Philadelphia, and Cincinnati will be at home to Chicago in other night action.

Score's pitching effort was remarkable for him. He walked only four men. Sometimes he walks that many in an inning. Ever since the night in 1957 when Gil McDougald's line drive hit him in the right eye and almost ended his career, Score has been having his troubles. His best year was a 16-10 record in his rookie season, 1956, when Lopez was his manager.

Roy Sievers ran his consecutive game hitting streak to 21, longest in the majors this season, as the Sox won their 17th in their last 25 starts. Boston had taken a seven-game winning streak into the contest. Gene Freese, who hits best against Boston, had three hits, making it 22 in 33 at bats or a .667 average against the Red Sox.

Mickey Mantle's three-run homer was the big blow of a five-run fourth inning for the Yanks in their victory over Dick Stigman. It was Mantle's 22nd. Roger Maris added No. 29 in the ninth off Barry Latman, while Ford calmly turned back the Indians with eight hits, including John Romano's 10th homer.

Norm Siebern hit his 11th homer with a man on and Andy Carey slammed a two-run double as Kansas City broke a five-game losing streak. Garver scattered seven hits while loser Hal Brown gave up all nine Kansas City hits and the five runs.

From The PRESS BOX

Cleveland shortstop Woodie Held suffered a broken middle finger on his right hand last night and probably will be sidelined three to five weeks. The injury occurred when Hector Lopez of the Yanks slid into Held. The Dodgers learned today that Don Demeter broke a bone in his wrist in a July 3 collision. He will be out six weeks.

X-Touche's Win Is Now Official

Detroit Yacht Led Way in Port Huron-Straits Annual Race

MACKINAC ISLAND (AP) — X-Touche, first boat to cross the finish line, today was declared official winner of the 235-mile Port Huron to Mackinac Island yacht race.

The race committee announced the sleek ocean racer owned by Moon Baker and Jerry Clements of Detroit was the winner in overall and Class B competition.

X-Touche crossed the line yesterday a bare two minutes ahead of Gypsy, owned by Charles Kotovic of Milwaukee.

The Detroit boat completed the race after 33 hours 8 minutes and 41 seconds on the fog-shrouded course. She won on a corrected elapsed time of 35:19:39.

Gypsy was the official runnerup and Class A victor with a time of 33:10:50 and a corrected clocking of 35:19:39.

Apache, last year's winner from Detroit, finished fifth in Class B.

Commanche, from Grosse Pointe Mich., was the Class C winner with a corrected time of 39:10:1. Alady, also of Grosse Pointe, took Class D honors with a 44:49:50 clocking.

Still to be determined was the Class E champion. Many Class E craft were among those yachts still on the course.

Waterford Softball Fans See Thrillers

A pair of 2-1 battles kept the fans on the edges of their seats last night in a Waterford softball doubleheader.

Drayton Drug edged Lakeland Pharmacy in the opener on a big two-run double by Stan Larkin in the 7th following an error and single. John Herrington hurled one-hit, 10-strikeout ball for the victory.

A wild throw that went through four players on an attempted steal in the 7th gave Rod's Sunoco the other win over Spencer Floors. Bob Ferree matched a first game one-hitter by Herring-ton. Loser Jack Nelso gave up just three safeties as had Ed Miller in the opener.

GUESS WHO WON — It appears in this picture that Zora Folley, right, is having everything pretty much to his liking in the second round against Sonny Liston last night. It didn't last long as Liston retaliated by scoring a knockout in round three.

Baseball Scores High

It was a high scoring day for area baseballers from the youngest boys right up through the men's leagues.

One of the more mild games of the day was a 6-2 Class A triumph for the Knights of Columbus over the Jets.

Tom McCormick pitched one-hit shutout ball after a two-run first with Tom Wagner putting out a final threat in the 7th. The Knights broke a tie in the middle innings featuring two singles by Bob Rabaja. Al Barkeley stole home for one KC tally.

Class B had a pair of wild affairs. Talbott Lumber drubbed Griff's Grill 11-2. It was actually a close duel until Talbott exploded for seven in the 6th. Del Norman pitched excellent ball in relief. Larry Cates fired a one-hitter in a 10-0 Pontiac Business Institute romp over Don Nicholie. Dan Dropps slammed a three-run homer to lead the way.

In Class E, Pontiac Boys Club scored its runs early and held on to edge Pontiac Police 7-6 and Great Lake Mutual outscored Slankster & Jones, 16-10. The BC boys garnered only two hits. Seven different boys had two hits in the 26-run contest which went six innings due to darkness. Slankster got eight in the 6th.

Lake Orion had to go nine frames to nip Oxford 4-3 in Class D. A two-out triple by Doug Trueman led to the clincher.

Class F fans had plenty of action. St. Benedict started early on the way to a 11-2 blasting of the Boys Club Americans. The Police whitewashed the Lancers 11-0 on Len Gaches' one-hit job. The Aztecas whipped Baldwin EUB 12-3, Perry Drugs took the Spartans 13-7 and the Tigers took Pontiac Fire Fighters, 12-5. Herb Sizemore had a two-run homer for Perry.

The Emerson Juniors downed the Moose 5-2 and Ned's Drillers got by Hudson Hornets 5-4 in Widget play.

In the Boys Club Federal Savings Program, the Orioles buried the Yankees 16-6 featuring a double triple and homer by pitcher Leroy Farnsworth. Cy Bailey contributed a single and homer to the cause. Mike Hawka got a pinch-hit homer for the losers. The Pirates nipped the Giants 3-2 in National League game.

Berlo's victory in the Coaching Club American Oaks gave jockey Eric Guerin his third win in the stake. He won with Next Move in 1950, and Grecian Queen in 1953.

2 Area Boys Qualify for U.S. Junior

Jackson, Skover in 4-Way Tie for 2nd Spot

Fire 77s in Trials for August 3-6 Event at Overland, Kas.

Two Birmingham golfers were among seven in a field of 83 starters to qualify Monday for the United States Junior Amateur championships to be held Aug. 3-6 at Overland, Kansas.

Mike Jackson and Phil Skover had 77s in a four-way tie for second place in the area trials at Detroit Golf Club.

Losing out in a playoff was Fred Ewald, also of Birmingham. He matched three others at 78 but lost out in a playoff that went two extra holes.

Jackson had 39-38, Skover 38-39 and Ewald 39-39. Skover is the son of top amateur Tony Skover.

Finishing right close behind the qualifiers was Walled Lake's Volney Bayley Jr. at 39-40—79.

There were several other Oakland County stars in the field made up of outstanding youngsters.

Jim Clink of Royal Oak had 82, Larry Michaels and Charles Fry of Bloomfield Hills, Jim Stephenson and John Sumner, Birmingham, and Steve Alexander of Berkley totaled 84. Birmingham boys Jeff Reutter and Tom Stevens matched 85s.

Doug Swartz of Farmington had 86 followed by Jim Anderson of the same city with 87. At 91 were Dave Hyde, Birmingham, and Farmington's Nill Mandulak.

Ken Monroe of Southfield, Martin Kenealy, Bloomfield Hills, and Gary Willey hit 93.

Others were George Enot, Birmingham, 94, Bill Reutter, Dan Mathews and Mike Brennan of Birmingham and Phil Hazeltine, Farmington, 95, Jim Voss of Birmingham 97 and a 98 for Fred Adams Jr., Birmingham.

Medalist for the qualifying was Plymouth High star Del McAllister. He shot 38-37—75. The 5-foot-six-inch, 120-pounder had two birdies.

PGA Title Course Labeled Tough Test

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Sam Snead took his first look at the remodeled Firestone Country Club course, where the PGA championship will be played Thursday through Sunday, and pronounced it "A tough test of golf."

Despite this estimate, Snead shot a 69 in yesterday's practice round, becoming the first player to break par on the toughened par-70, 6,163-yard layout.

Snead, 48, bidding for a fourth PGA championship, matched par with 35 on the front nine, then closed with a 34 despite bogeys on the last two holes.

"Weather conditions, high winds and rains could be a determining factor," said Snead, winner of the PGA crown in 1942, 1949 and 1951. He thought a par 280 would win the 72-hole medal play tournament.

But Alex Redl, professional at Firestone since 1946, guessed that scores would be a littler higher. Redl said he thought a 283 or 284 would win the $9,000 top prize easily.

For the PGA, the course has been heavily trapped and lengthened, and two artificial lakes have been added.

Arnold Palmer, favored to win the tournament, again had trouble in yesterday's round, winding up with a 75. The No. 16 water hole, 625-yards long, again proved the downfall of the 30-year-old ace from Ligonier, Pa.

Palmer had an eight on the hole Saturday, when he carded a 76. He drove into the lake again yesterday and took a double bogey seven.

Palmer has won seven tournaments on the PGA tour in the last eight months. If he would capture the PGA, he will be the first golfer to win the Masters, the U.S. Open and the PGA the same year.

The 197 players who have entered form the largest field for any major pro tournament in U.S. history. The full field, including 17 former PGA titleholders, will play 18-hole rounds Thursday and Friday, with the 90 low scorers and ties advancing to the third round Saturday. The low 60 and ties get into the final 18 Sunday. The winners will divide a pot of at least $50,000.

U.S. Cuppers Move Up Easily

Darlene Victim of Upset

CHICAGO (AP)—One Australia Davis Cup player was on the sidelines today, but a full, fourman U. S. team was ready for the second round of the National Clay Courts Tennis Tournament.

Marty Mulligan, sixth ranking Aussie, was eliminated in yesterday's first round by Rudy Hernando of Modesto, Calif., 10-8, 5-7, 6-2.

But that took a far back seat to the surprise that shook the River Forest Tennis Club. In one of the greatest first round upsets in the meet's 50-year history, 17-year-old Justina Bricka, a senior at University City High School in St. Louis, ambushed top-seeded Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., 7-5, 1-6, 6-2.

Miss Bricka, National Girls Indoor Champion and recently winner of the Southern Girls crown in Atlanta, today faces another comparative youngster, Sue Hodgman of Kalamazoo, Mich., fresh from victory in the Western Tourney at Indianapolis.

U. S. Davis Cup players, led by No. 1 seeded Barry MacKay, advanced with fair ease. They were defending champion Tut Bartzen, seeking a fourth clay courts title; Earl Buchholz and Chuck McKinley.

The only one who found it a little rough was Buchholz, who took a 7-5, 8-6 decision from tenacious John Cranston of San Mateo, Calif.

Rod Laver, current Aussie national singles and doubles champion and a Wimbledon finalist, and his two other teammates, Bob Mark and Bob Hewitt, also found little difficulty advancing.

In addition to the U. S. Davis Cup team, all other domestic seeded players moved up—Whitney Reed, Jack Frost, Larry Nagler and Dennis Ralston.

Wall Least Surprised at Title Loss

By BILL CORNWELL

Close to 30,000 persons invaded Western Golf and Country Club Sunday afternoon for the windup of the Western Open golf tournament and probably the least surprised one of the bunch at the result was the one who let the title get away from him — Art Wall Jr.

"I suspected something like this would happen when we started the final round. There was an uneasy feeling in my bones," Wall told golf writers after Canadian pro Stan Leonard beat him on the 1st hole of a sudden-death playoff to win the Western Open crown.

"Everybody thought I had the title in the bag," Wall told newsmen, "but you fellows know as well as I do that things can happen swiftly on a golf course to completely change the picture."

"A four-stroke lead is virtually nothing out there against competitors like these fellows," Wall said. "You can lose an apparently comfortable lead in a two-hole stretch."

As you recall, Wall entered Sunday's final 18-hole round with a four-stroke edge over Pete Cooper and a six-stroke advantage over Leonard.

But Wall had his poorest day of the tournament as he shot a 74 while Leonard was sailing home with a four-under-par 68 to completely eat up the difference and force the playoff.

Wall is a serious-minded young gentleman and a keen student of the game who takes a calm, philosophical approach toward everything he does, both on and off the golf course. As one veteran put it: Art is a thinker.

He had nothing but praise and best wishes for Leonard. Wall never alibis for a defeat and never puffs himself up following a victory.

"I have no excuses," said Art. "I played badly and didn't deserve to win. All the credit in the world should go to Stan.

"I knew it just wasn't my day when that putt on No. 18 wouldn't stay in the cup," Wall remarked. Wall's putt on the 18th green, a seven-footer which would have won for him by a single stroke, went into the hole and came out.

Perhaps the most surprised man at Wall's bogey on the 18th was Leonard. "I never thought Art would bogey that hole," declared Stan. "I really never expected to get a chance for a playoff."

Leonard also thought Wall's eight-foot putt on the 1st green in the playoff was "in" for a birdie three. "I thought Art's putt was 'in' all the way," said Stan, "but it broke off at the last instant." Leonard then canned his six-footer for a "bird" to win the championship.

Maybe the law of averages caught up with Wall. Sunday's playoff was the 7th of his illustrious career and he had won the previous five duels. Leonard's victory evened his playoff record at 2-2.

Aside from Wall, the unhappiest man at Western must surely have been Jack Fleck, who had a mental lapse in Saturday's 3rd round and took a fat 13 on No. 15 to knock himself right out of the tourney picture.

"I just fell asleep," Fleck said. He took four practice swings in a water hazard on the par five hole and suffered eight strokes in penalties. Fleck was still in contention at the time, but that ended it for him.

Liston Flattens Folley

DENVER (AP) — The massive 14-inch fists of Sonny Liston thundered a tattoo today on the door to the heavyweight boxing throne room occupied by Floyd Patterson.

Liston's sledge-hammer hands smashed Zora Folley to the canvas twice in the second round and knocked him out in 28 seconds of the third round in their scheduled 12-round bout last night at the Denver Coliseum.

"I got him quicker than I expected," the unmarked 215½ slugger from Philadelphia said in his dressing room afterward.

Folley, 198½, from Chandler, Ariz., said he made a mistake in trying to slug it out with Liston. "I fought the wrong type of fight —I fought his fight," he said.

Lackadaisical Play Costs Piersall $200

CLEVELAND (AP)—Cleveland Manager Joe Gordon said Monday he has fined outfielder Jimmy Piersall a day's pay — approximately $200—for his lackadaisical performance during the double loss to Washington Sunday.

Gordon also said Piersall would be fined $500 the next time he is ejected from a game by the umpire. Piersall has been bounced five times this season.

Piersall did not start either game against Washington. He struck out on three pitches in a pinch-hitting appearance in the opener, and flied to center in the second, also as a pinch-hitter.

During the two games, Piersall sat in the outfield bullpen, kicking baseballs and gloves trying to entertain the customers.

Speaking at a luncheon meeting Monday, General Manager Frank Lane said Piersall's clowning clearly was designed to "show up" Gordon for keeping him out of the lineup.

Palmer Earns $66,600, Tops Pros' Rewards

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP) — The latest earning figures released by the Professional Golf Assn. show Arnold Palmer of Ligonier, Pa., still the top winner on the tournament circuit with $66,600.

Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla., is second with $36,100. Neither Finsterwald nor Palmer changed the total last week.

In third place is Ken Venturi of Palo Alto, Calif., with $32,400, up $700 from last week. In fourth is Jerry Barber, Los Angeles, with $31,000, up $200.

Mike Souchak, Durham, N. C., is fifth with $30,600, an increase of $1,200.

Pocket Radios Help Veeck Check Players

CHICAGO (AP)—President Bill Veeck of the Chicago White Sox somewhat slowed down following further amputation of his right leg, has devised a system of keeping in touch with key personnel around Comiskey Park.

Veeck is using a two-way pocket radio which enables him to talk to others located in and around the ball park. Veeck carries one radio while others are placed in offices.

The range of the radio is from one-half to one mile. It weighs 13 ounces and can be carried in a shirt pocket.

Veeck's leg became infected while he was in military service in World War II.

Seeks One-for-All Organization

Jack Adding Glue to Repair Splits

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy is using the same methodical tactics which won him the Democratic presidential nomination in a state-by-state drive to mold bickering Democrats into harmony.

Kennedy, on vacation at his summer home here, planned more boating and swimming today along with his firm-handed behind-the-scenes peacemaking.

His forces were reported under instructions to move swiftly in trouble spots to produce the disciplined one-for-all sort of campaign organization he demands.

Kennedy disclosed Monday he will assign an executive campaign director to every state, choosing them in collaboration with the party's state organizations.

SEEKS TO ADD GLUE

Aides said the idea is to pull into cohesive effort recognized Democratic groups, including those which don't get along together very well or not at all. There are several of them—in California and New York, for instance.

In a Los Angeles speech Saturday directed specifically to the Democratic National Committee, but actually beamed more at wrangling groups in the various states, Kennedy gave this warning: "If we fail, you fail; if we succeed, you succeed."

Well-placed sources in the Kennedy camp say the senator is firmly convinced that do-it-yourself campaign efforts by dissident groups and rival or overlapping efforts by committees going their separate ways are weakening.

Kennedy himself said about the same thing when he announced a face-lifting operation on campaign techniques for the national ticket. This was in Los Angeles when he announced there will be one national campaign group, the Democratic National Committee. The Democrats lost in 1952 and 1956 when Adlai E. Stevenson had his own organization plus the national committee.

The Stevenson group's efforts and those of the national committee were not always synchronized.

NAMES FRIEND

Kennedy Monday named a friend, to whom he may owe his life, as executive campaign director in Virginia. His selection of William F. Battle, a Charlottesville, Va., lawyer, to fill the post gave further evidence of Kennedy's intention to place an accent on youth in the pursuit of votes.

Battle is 41. Kennedy's own age 43, was an issue raised by some of his grayer-haired rivals for the nomination. His tack from the start was this: Youth isn't a calamity unless you have lost it.

Battle is the son of former Gov. John S. Battle of Virginia. He led a PT boat squadron which in 1943 rescued Kennedy and his crew after a Japanese destroyer had rammed and sunk their PT boat in the South Pacific.

Kennedy's press secretary Pierre Salinger, said Kennedy was desirous that Battle work closely with Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va) and Gov. J. Lindsay Almond of Virginia, who have not seen eye to eye on strategy for dealing with the racial segregation problem, although both oppose integration.

Uncertain Mart Creeps Upward

NEW YORK (AP)—An uncertain stock market managed a jog to the upside early this afternoon after six straight sessions of decline. Trading was moderate.

Advances of fractions to about a point among leading issues outnumbered losers in the same range.

Gains by steels, utilities, electrical equipments and some chemicals and aircrafts helped the market averages.

An assortment of recent highflyers in electronics and other "growth" fields recovered partially from recent sharp losses.

The market was a bit higher at the start, lapsed into irregularity, then nudged to the upside as trading picked up a bit.

The business news background was still drab. Second quarter earnings reports were mixed and the international situation remained nervous.

Gains of more than a point by U. S. Steel and Lukens pepped up their section of the market. Youngstown Sheet and Jones & Laughlin gained fractions. Bethlehem was about unchanged.

The average was also bolstered by gains of more than a point by Eastman Kodak and General Electric.

Among the "hot" stocks, NAFI, Universal Match and Vendo rose about 2 or better. Vendo started the day hesitantly as investors tried to assess the news that it plans both a 2-for-1 stock split and a new issue of convertible debentures.

Texas Instruments recouped about 5. Gains of more than a point were made by Radio Corp., Zenith and Automatic Canteen. ABC Vending continued soft, losing aobut a point.

Iron Mine Fire Kills 21 Men, 30 Missing

SALZGITTER, Germany (AP)—An iron mine fire, belching heavy black smoke, today took the lives of at least 21 miners. Their bodies were recovered. About 30 others were missing.

The disaster occurred in the Hannoversche Treue (Hannover-ian Faith) Mine, part of government-owned mining properties formerly known as the Reichswerke Hermann Goering. Police closed off approaches to the mine. Anxious relatives and weeping wives waited at the company gates for word on the fate of the trapped men.

Margarine was first developed by a French chemist in 1870 to ease a fat shortage that occurred as a result of the Franco-Prussian war.

July Contracts Ease in Early Grain Trade

CHICAGO (AP) — The July grains futures contracts eased slightly today in early dealings on the board of trade but other deliveries held in a generally steady range.

All losses during the first several minutes were a half cent or less and reflected scattered liquidation, brokers said, with hedging the bearish factor in wheat.

Well over half the contracts either were unchanged or shifted only a minimum fraction as activity in the distant months dropped to a meager volume.

Sylvan Lake Awards Bonds

$25,000 Road Issue Goes to Detroit Firm for 3.5 Pct. Interest

At a special meeting last night, the Sylvan Lake City Council awarded $25,000 in motor vehicle highway fund bonds to McDonald-Moore & Co. of Detroit.

The Detroit firm was low bidder, asking 3.5 per cent interest.

The $25,000 will be used to get the city's proposed blacktopping program under way. Four firms bid on sale of the bonds.

The bonds will be payable over a seven-year period, primarily from state-collected taxes to be returned to the city for highway improvement purposes.

They will begin maturing next year with $3,000 maturing each year from 1961-63 and $4,000 annually from 1964-67.

Thursday afternoon City Manager David E. Firestone will open construction bids for the project.

These will be tabulated and the contract awarded at a special meeting next Monday night.

The program is estimated to cost about $101,000 over a three-year period with about $40,000 work being done this year.

Deputies Spook Youths; 10 Arrested at Cemetery

Ghost hunting can be ghastly.

Some 30 teen-agers investigating the supernatural learned about it last night.

Oakland County sheriff's deputies surrounded the group in the Lakeville Cemetery and arrested 10 of the would-be "ghost hunters" on charges of disturbing the peace.

The youths — all 17 or 18 years old — were released on $25 bond to appear today before Raymond Snyder, Addison Township justice of the peace.

Deputies said another group of youths had been found in the Lakeville Cemetery Saturday night and sent home.

The youths told of having seen "ghosts" there.

Deputies said they had seen two "ghosts," too — apparently two youths dressed in Halloween costumes. The "ghosts" escaped into a nearby woods.

Farm Income Scores Gain

But It Lingers Below Last Year's First Half and Revised Average

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Agriculture Department said today a substantial improvement in April-May and June raised farmers' realized net income in the first half of 1960 to an average annual rate of about $11 billion.

This was 9 per cent below the first half of 1959, and 3 per cent below the revised estimate of $11.3 billion for the full year 1959.

The annual rate of farmers' realized net income for the second quarter of this year was $11.8 billion, compared with $10.2 billion for the first quarter.

If the average, $11 billion is maintained throughout the year this would be the lowest realized net farm income since the $8.8 billion of 1942.

Airport Runway—Look Out for All Whitetail Deer

ALPENA (AP) — "Airport runway — look out for the deer." That warning might well be displayed on the approaches to Collins Air Field outside this Lake Huron town in Michigan's north woods country.

Instead, Alpena County and the Michigan Air National Guard are pooling funds to build a six-mile fence around the airport—solely to keep the deer out.

Whitetail deer graze like cattle alongside the runways and have become so accustomed to aircraft that most merely raise their heads in curiosity when a plane zooms in for a landing. More than 100 of them have been counted near the runways at one time.

SPECIAL ELECTION—TO THE QUALIFIED ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY of Oakland, State of Michigan. Notice is hereby given, that a Special Election will be held in the

at all of the regular voting precincts or places of holding the election in the Township of White Lake on

from 7 o'clock in the forenoon until 8 o'clock in the afternoon, Eastern Standard Time.

To vote on the Propositions set forth in the following Resolution Adopted by The Board of Supervisors of said County on the 7th day of June, 1960, to-wit:

IN RE: Special County Election — Sinking Fund and Millage for Construction or repair of County Buildings.

To The Oakland County Board of Supervisors:

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Whereas, the new Court House and County Building now under construction at the Service Center Site was planned to be built in stages and the Court House Tower being the first stage is now under construction and funds are on hand to finance the cost thereof, and

Whereas, the rapid expansion of population of the County has necessitated providing additional services for the public which in turn, has created a serious space problem which aggravates the pre-existing problem of housing for the various county offices, and

Whereas, it previously appeared that the construction of the remaining stages of the Court House and County Building could be delayed several years. It now appears not only expedient but vitally necessary that the last stages of construction should be commenced as soon as possible, and

Whereas, although the Board of Supervisors planned to pay for the several stages as monies accumulated from miscellaneous revenues and from the sale of various county owned properties, it will be necessary if the remaining stages of construction are to be commenced in the near future that a tax must be levied for that purpose, and

Whereas, Act No. 14 of 1958 (Extra Session) gives the Board of Supervisors the power to submit the question of voting millage for a sinking fund for the construction or repair of public buildings; and

Whereas, it appears from a study prepared for the Board of Supervisors by Dr. L. L. Priedland, Consultant, that the sum of Four Million Dollars will be required in order to complete the construction of the Court House and County Building.

Now, therefore, be it resolved that the following question, to-wit:

"To authorize the Board of Supervisors to levy a tax of one-half mill (50c per $1,000.00) on the assessed valuation as equalized, each year for a period of four (4) years, from 1960 to 1963, both inclusive, to create a sinking fund to be used for the construction and/or repair of public buildings?"

☐ YES
☐ NO

be submitted to the electors at a special election to be held concurrently with the Primary Election on August 2, 1960.

Further Resolved, that there shall be submitted to the electors at a special election to be held concurrently with the Primary Election on August 2, 1960, the following proposition:

"Shall the limitation on the total amount of taxes which may be assessed each year against property in the County of Oakland, State of Michigan, for all purposes except taxes for the payment of interest and principal on obligations incurred prior to December 3, 1923, be increased for a period of four (4) years from 1960 to 1963, both inclusive, by 1/20th of 1% (50c per $1,000.00) of the assessed valuation as equalized, of the property in the County for the purpose of creating a sinking fund to be used for the construction or repair of public buildings?"

☐ YES
☐ NO

and the said proposition shall appear upon the ballots in the above form and shall appear upon the voting machines in the following form:

"Shall the tax limitation on real property in the County of Oakland, for all purposes except taxes for obligations incurred prior to December 3, 1932, be increased from 1960 to 1963, both inclusive, by .50c per $1,000.00 of the assessed valuation as equalized, to create a sinking fund for the construction or repair of public buildings?"

☐ YES
☐ NO

When voting machines are used, the full text of said tax limitation proposition as set forth first above, shall be posted in each election booth.

Provided further that each City and Township Clerk shall give notice of the submission of the aforesaid propositions by including the same in the election notice for said Primary Election. The Notice of the Tax Limitation propositions shall contain a statement of the County Treasurer of all voted increases in the total tax limitation affecting property in the County of Oakland and the years such increases are effective.

Be it further resolved that the County Clerk be directed to serve a copy of this resolution upon the Sheriff and that the Sheriff be directed to give the Notice required by Act 51 of the Public Acts of 1954 (Extra Session) as amended.

Moved by Levinson supported by Cyril Miller the resolution be adopted.

Ayes, 72. Nays, 0. Carried.

The following statement has been received from the County Treasurer as to previously voted increases in the total tax rate limitation affecting taxable property in the County of Oakland, to-wit:

HOLLYWOOD COUPLE — Actor Jimmy Boyd and actress Yvonne Craig take a stroll after announcing their engagement. They plan to wed late this month. Boyd first gained prominence as an 11-year-old singer.

Wreckers, Builders Galore

No Matter Who's Winner, Washington Will Change

WASHINGTON (AP) — Washington just won't be the same any more, no matter who wins the election. The wreckers and the builders are all over the place.

The faithful old Capitol dome cringes under a red paint petticoat. A creamy new white coat gradually, is creeping down from the top.

The Capitol's east front extension has yet to emerge from a maze of construction gear.

The fancy new Senate Office Building neighboring the Senate will be matched by an even newer House Office Building.

K's ROCKET THERE?

Southwest from the Capitol toward the Potomac River block after block of dilapidated structures look as if they had been hit by a Khrushchev rocket. The old wharf sections, once a favorite for sea food lovers, are mostly piles of rubble.

Great plans are afoot for this southwest section; new federal buildings, big apartment projects, homes and shopping centers.

The Mall between the Capitol and the Washington Monument is cluttered with construction for a new Museum of History for the Smithsonian Institution and a tunneling project to carry traffic under the Mall and connect with a new freeway.

Modernistic glass and stone office buildings are rising on many corners. The State Department is putting finishing touches on a 57-million-dollar annex.

A labyrinth of highways is a building for motorists. Three new bridges will span the Potomac.

A large chunk of the Virginia countryside is giving way to Dulles International Airport, named after the late and much-traveled secretary of state.

MANY FAMILIAR SITES

But not all of Washington is changing. It is still a tree-shaded federal city where military bands give concerts from a water-borne stage on the Potomac, where youths play softball on a summer evening on the park behind the White House.

There are still the old familiar standouts—the Capitol, the White House, the statues in the parks, the memorials to Lincoln and Jefferson, and the white shaft of the Washington Monument.

* * *

This summer, for the first time, the top of the Washington monument is open at night to all who want to gaze on their capital from its unmatched vantage point.

Churchill's Life to Be Televised

Work Starts on 26-Part Series on War Days—He Won't Take Part

By EDDY GILMORE

LONDON (AP)—The American Broadcasting Co. began work today on a 26-episode television version of Sir Winston Churchill's wartime memoirs.

Britain's leader in World War II will take no part in the production. He is on an Afriatic-Mediterranean cruise.

Sir Winston will receive a percentage from world distribution of the series.

The first installment is planned for showing in the United States on Nov. 27. Three nights later Sir Winston will see it in Britain on his 86th birthday.

'NOT DOING HISTORY'

"I wish to make it clear that we are not doing history," Edgar Peterson, director of the series, told reporters.

"Through the life of Sir Winston and his words, we are trying to project some of the experiences of the past into reality, not only for today but for the future."

Associates of Sir Winston will appear in the episodes. The producers are using much film already made and will supplement this with new scenes.

There will be no attempt to imitate Sir Winston's famous voice. And that's leading to trouble.

Thirteen actors have been tested so far for the Churchill role, and all have been rejected.

Space Age Soap Opera Takes Old Tools Into Orbit

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — Three . . . two . . . one . . . zero . . . vacuum cleaners off!

CBS-TV, in a new attempt to slow the housewife's routine, has come in with "The Clear Horizon," billed as our nation's first space age soap opera.

As the network says, "It is the dramatic story of a young Army officer and his wife, stationed at the site of the U. S. Army's top-priority missile and rocket-launching project" at Cape Canaveral, Fla.

I've spent a week tracking this daily, 30-minute series, which left the launching pad at 11:30 a.m. July 11.

DOZEN CHARACTERS

So far, we've met a dozen characters, including the young Army officer Roy Selby and his wife Anne, played by Edward Kemmer and Phyllis Avery, respectively, who are two pleasing performers.

Recently transferred to a cushy Pentagon chair after a rugged stay in Alaska, Roy suddenly must choose one of three alternatives:

He can accept transfer to Canaveral, refuse and bate himself for it, or resign from service and accept a civilian electronics offer that would bring him a heavy payload of money.

Of course, we know Roy will go to Canaveral, else there's no show. But he has been reluctant to tell his wife about his decision because she has been taking to suburbia like a Kennedy to a coffeeklatsch.

Their active, well-adjusted son Ricky also doesn't want to leave his new friends in Arlington, Va.

To go or not to go has been the problem for the past week.

Once Roy goes, he's undoubtedly going to run into his long-lost brother, who is in the Army and, guess what? Yes, stationed at Canaveral.

His future commanding officer has a pretty young daughter and it seems reasonable to expect these kids to be among the high-potency, well-intentioned troublemakers who will mill around the story and help becloud that clear horizon.

USES SOAP TALK

Script writer Manya Starr makes slick use of the soap opera shorthand language even though she's now dealing with the complexities of the missile and space era.

The soap opera shorthand involves the use of timely phone calls to set a scene, brief wink-laded brow conversations to point up a dilemma, fortuitous meetings to heighten showdowns.

You'll be pleased to learn that these techniques, well-known in the horseless carriage days of melodrama, haven't been discarded in the space age.

The series is perhaps most unusual because it makes no attempt to sugar-coat life at Canaveral.

From what I've seen of the enlisted man's off-duty life at Canaveral, he'd be better off on Devil's Island.

The acting is low-key and generally acceptable, even though the dialogue frequently becomes unglued and careens off in different directions.

I guess the show isn't going into orbit to send back new, original messages.

It's going to wobble, bobble and plop back into its pre-ICBM origins, somewhere between the world of "Young Dr. Malone" and "Helen Trent."

And the Canaveral project will survive.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: "All-Star Circus," starring the Schumann Cirkus of Copenhagen and Paul Winchell as host, will be presented on NBC-TV as a one-hour special Friday, Oct. 21. Winchell flies to Denmark to tape the show late in August.

Mark Goddard, seen in the "Johnny Ringo" series this season, is moving into ABC-TV's "Robert Taylor's Detectives" for the 1960-61 season. Goddard will portray Lt. Chris Ballard, a young officer working on Taylor's staff. Lee Farr, a Taylor aide in the show this season, has been dropped.

Kennedy Supporter in Quandary

NEWPORT (UPI) — Newport City Councilman Erich A. O. Taylor who sports a "Kennedy for President" badge on his lapel, has agreed reluctantly to a proposal to rename one of the resort's streets for President Eisenhower.

Taylor, one of five Democrats on the seven-man Council, voted in 1957 against inviting Eisenhower here. And this year when "I Like Ike" buttons were passed out at a council meeting, he threw his on the floor and stamped on it.

* * *

There's now a council committee seeking a street to rename for Ike but its running into trouble because most of the main thoroughfares have designations rooted in the history of Newport when it was the fabulous playground of millionaires. Councilmen don't like to tamper with the past.

Meanwhile, the Navy has named the road leading to the President's quarters Eisenhower Place.

University of Arizona was established in 1800 on ground donated by the town's leading gamblers and was constructed before the state had built any public high schools.

New Marshall Plan Is Needed to Check Red Influence, He Claims

NEW YORK (UPI)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has called for "a kind of Marshall Plan for Latin America" to check such Communist-inspired antidemocratic forces "as far as tragically evident in Cuba today."

Rockefeller said there is an urgent need for a Western Hemisphere confederation to foster needed housing, soil and power projects to "work toward a long-range industrial development and a hemisphere free-trade area."

This would allow "a free flow of men and goods and money from Point Barrow, Alaska to Tierra del Fuego, South America," the governor said in a magazine article.

"Only action of this scope can check antidemocratic forces, spurred on by Communist influences from abroad—as are so tragically evidence in Cuba today," he said.

He proposed similar confederations—all within the framework of the United Nations—for other areas of the free world, notably Africa. He said America must recognize "that the nation-state today is becoming obsolete . . ."

Election Watchdogs Readied for Primary

LANSING (AP)—The elections division of the secretary of state's office will have a "watchdog patrol" looking for violations of the elections law at the Aug. 2 primary.

Nearly 100 enforcement personnel from all over the state attended a one-day training session here yesterday to prepare for assignment to polling places on election day.

The elections division said "A sizable number" of infractions of elections laws were uncovered two years ago.

"Most of them were very minor, and were caused by unfamiliarity with the law," said Robert M. Montgomery, chief of the division. "The people just didn't know what they should do and got goofed up."

How we do admire the wisdom of those who come to us for advice . . . The group most opposed to early retirement seems to be children . . . We hear of the old maid who gets into her bathtub three times a day, hoping the phone will ring. —Earl Wilson.

Texas Delegation Made Convention a Gold Rush

By EARL WILSON

BEVERLY HILLS AND BUSTED — The State of Texas' fine art of $pending dollar$ was grandly and gloriously upheld here during the great Democratic Gold Rush of 1960.

WILSON

I was a little worried at first about Texas becoming a pauper state. Some of the Texans for Lyndon Johnson claimed that Jack Kennedy's Daddy, Joe Kennedy, had spent up the whole little old U.S. mint leaving them without one $1,000 bill to rub against another one.

Then I chanced into a chap who unfolded a tale.

He told me that Wesley West of Houston, who has a passel of money, had got real little old mad when the Texan delegation was consigned to a downtown hotel.

He asked Conrad Hilton if the delegation couldn't be moved into the Beverly Hilton.

They were much, much too late—the Beverly Hilton had thousands of reservations to honor, and it couldn't be done.

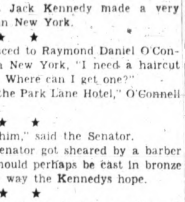
"Tell you what," suggested Mr. West. "You just sell me the Beverly Hilton Hotel and I'll be responsible for straightening out all those other people with reservations."

Conrad Hilton declined.

Maybe because he didn't know where he'd stay if he sold his hotel. How would it look if Conrad Hilton didn't have a hotel room? Now, after all!

* * *

I shoved through the floor mob and helped Mrs. Peter Lawford (the former Pat Kennedy) demonstrate for her brother, Senator Jack.



PAT

Pat said she and Peter met at the Chicago Democratic convention in 1952 and got married two years later.

Now it can be told that Jack Kennedy made a very hasty decision the other day in New York.

"Say," he suddenly announced to Raymond Daniel O'Connell, a Boston friend, while in New York, "I need a haircut if I'm going to the convention. Where can I get one?"

"There's a good barber at the Park Lane Hotel," O'Connell said, "right next door."

"O.K. If you recommend him," said the Senator.

As casually as that, the Senator got sheared by a barber named Louie, whose scissors should perhaps be cast in bronze providing things work out the way the Kennedys hope.

Never mind casting those scissors in bronze, after all. The Texas delegation just suggested we make it gold.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: If you don't think the younger generation is interested in getting ahead, just wait 'till one of them pulls up alongside you at a traffic light . . . That's earl, brother.

"Only action of this scope can check antidemocratic forces, spurred on by Communist influences from abroad—as are so tragically evidence in Cuba today," he said.

He proposed similar confederations—all within the framework of the United Nations—for other areas of the free world, notably Africa. He said America must recognize "that the nation-state today is becoming obsolete . . ."

Cuba OKs Sugar Trade for Soviet Oil, Products

BRUNSBUETTELKOOG, Germany (AP) — The 3,654-ton Cuban freighter Rio Cabacoa passed through the Kiel Canal Monday with 5,000 tons of Cuban sugar for the Soviet Union. It was the first shipment under the Russians' new agreement to trade oil and other Soviet products for a million tons of Cuban sugar a year for the next five years.

LODGE REPLIES — Henry Cabot Lodge, U. S. ambassador to the United Nations, replies to a Cuban charge that the United States has revived the Monroe Doctrine in an attempt to dominate Latin America. Lodge, considered a leading candidate for the Republican vice presidential nomination, presented America's case in the Security Council Tuesday.

South Is Urged to Bolt Dems, Form 3rd Party

Mississippi's Governor Barnett Calls Platform Horrible, Repulsive

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Gov. Ross Barnett of Mississippi has taken the lead in urging a Southern bolt from the Democratic party.

Barnett said Monday night, upon returning from the Democratic National Convention, he favors reconvening the Mississippi Democratic Convention to support a third-party movement.

The Mississippi governor, who bitterly opposed the Democrats' civil rights plank, said the Democratic platform was "so horrible, so repulsive, so obnoxious, and so contrary to our form of government, I don't see how the people of the South can accept it."

Although Barnett indicated he didn't think there was "any chance of Mississippi going along with the Republican nominees," some Mississippi Democrats will be following the Republican National Convention closely in the hope of finding a platform and candidate they can support.

Mississippi Republican leaders, headed by Wirt Yerger Jr., of Jackson, GOP state chairman, have left for the GOP convention in Chicago, promising to fight for a platform that will set the stage for major Republican gains in the South.

Some Mississippi Democrats appear willing to join with Republican conservatives State Sen. W. B. Alexander of Boyle has suggested a third party headed by GOP Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona. Goldwater has not indicated any enthusiasm for this idea.

Any move for independent electors or a third party likely would run into opposition from the state party's loyalists. Former Gov. James P. Coleman is considered friendly to Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic nominee. Another former governor, Hugh White, also has indicated he would back Kennedy.

Recover Body of Area Youth

Drowned While Skin Diving in Gilbert Lake Sunday Night

The body of a 17-year-old Birmingham youth who drowned while skin diving in Gilbert Lake, Bloomfield Township, was recovered last night.

Skin divers from Pontiac area police departments had been searching for Robert D. Scott, 17-year-old son of George D. Scott, 561 Rudgate St., since his disappearance in the reed-choked waters Sunday night.

The body was found by Paul Valentine, 20, of 20 Putnam St., a member of the Pine Lake Diving Club.

Prosecutor George F. Taylor and Sheriff Frank W. Irons today conferred with the owner of a Birmingham store from which the youth and a companion rented skin diving equipment Sunday afternoon.

While not liable for renting the equipment, stores will be warned not to sell or rent skin diving apparatus to those without the proper knowledge for its use, Taylor said.

"It's not a sport for amateurs," Irons stated.

Sheriff's deputies said he was apparently overweighted with equipment.

Promise Fidel Military Aid on Request

Castro Rants That U.S. Is Trying to Suppress Debate by Call to OAS

From Our News Wires

Russia warned the United States today "Don't Touch Cuba" and said it would use its military might for the Cubans if Cuba asked for it.

Soviet Ambassador Arkady A. Sobolev told the United Nations Security Council the "Soviet people will not remain indifferent if armed intervention is undertaken against Cuba."

"Nobody in the leading circles of the United States should have any illusion that the people of the Soviet Union will not use their military might for Cuba if Cuba asks for it," Sobolev said.

"We merely mean to say: 'Don't touch Cuba; leave it alone,' let it do what it deems proper. Don't threaten it with your might because other people also will use their might."

In Havana, Prime Minister Fidel Castro accused the United States today of trying to take its dispute with Cuba out of the U. N. Security Council's hands and put it before the Organization of American States because it can exert more pressure on the "vulnerable" member nations of the inter-American group.

CASTRO HAGGARD

Hoarse and haggard from his recent siege of pneumonia, Castro returned to TV with a wide-ranging three-hour blast in which he called the new U. S. plan of aid for Latin America a "half-billion-dollar bribery" designed to "destroy the sympathies of the Latin American people for the Cuban revolution."

Castro also took note of anti-Communist outbursts at Roman Catholic Church services in Havana in the past two days. He accused "privileged counterrevolutionary" elements of trying to convert religious shrines into centers of conspiracy and asserted that part of the Catholic clergy in Cuba is "pro-France, and Falangist and reactionary."

The Spanish Embassy had requested a church mass to commemorate the start of Spanish Generalissimo Francisco Franco's role in starting the Spanish Civil War in 1936. It called that war anti-Communist.

Belgian Troops to Quit Leopoldville in 4 Days

From Our News Wires

LEOPOLDVILLE — Dr. Ralph Bunche, chief United Nations representative in The Congo, announced today that Belgium would begin pulling its troops out of Leopoldville by Saturday night.

Bunche said U.N. forces would take over the task of maintaining peace in the capital and ensuring the protection of people and property in the capital.

Forty Belgian technicians will remain at Leopoldville Airport which, however, will be held by U. N. troops, he said. An entire company of Belgian paratroopers will be out of the town by tonight.

Bunche made the announcement in a broadcast over the Congolese radio after three-hour talks with Belgian Ambassador Jean Van Den Bosch, U.N. military commander Gen. Carl Von Horn and Belgian army officials.

Bunche, speaking in French, said the Belgian troops will start pulling out of their Congo bases on Wednesday and that withdrawal from the capital will be complete by Saturday.

As Bunche spoke, groups of Belgian troops in Leopoldville already were preparing to withdraw to their bases of Kamina and Kitona.

Bunche said more contingents of U.N. troops including forces from Burma, Canada, and some Latin American nations troops will arrive soon to boost U.N. strength. A Swedish battalion arrives tomorrow.

ULTIMATUM RAPPED

Premier Patrice Lumumba had demanded Belgium withdraw all its troops by today and threatened to call in Soviet troops to expel them if they did not leave.

However the ultimatum was repudiated by his own senate, by Belgium and by Bunche who felt them necessary to preserve law and order until U.N. forces are strong enough to prevent further arson, rape, murder and looting.

Western diplomats already were expressing fears that Lumumba would bring in a wave of Soviet "technicians" to replace departing Europeans even if he did not carry out his threat to call for Soviet armed intervention.

Gen. von Horn obviously placed little stock in Lumumba's ultimatum that he would ask Soviet troops to intervene unless all Belgian troops were withdrawn from the Congo by tonight.

Lumumba has issued a series of conflicting statements, demands and threats since the Congolese army mutinied against its Belgian officers last week and chaos followed.

The conviction was growing in Leopoldville that his threat to turn to the Soviet Union was a feint to speed U.N. action and hustle the Belgian troops off the scene.

Soviet propaganda organs continued to rail at Belgium and the United States, accusing them of trying to preserve colonial control of the Congo.

Reports from several sources said several Moroccan members of the U.N. peace force had been killed in two separate clashes Monday, the first casualties to be suffered by U.N. troops.

Jets, Horses Retrace Route

Pony Express Recalled

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Galloping ponies and a jet airplane set off across half the continent today honoring the brief, romantic ride of the pony express a century ago.

The first of 1,000 riders started from Sacramento and St. Joseph, Mo., the terminal points of 1860, to retrace the steps of the legendary mailmen who rode the overland trail.

An Air Force T33 jet was to take off from Mather Air Force Base near here with a letter for President Eisenhower, bearing the special commemorative stamp issued by the Post Office Department. Its scheduled time: 3½ hours.

The horsemen's time: nine days.

The real pony express, crossing trackless deserts and towering mountains where hostile Indians waited, averaged about 10 days for the one-way trip.

The fastest run was seven days, 17 hours. The distance is 1,966 miles.

HAD TO BE SKINNY

An advertisement of 1860 tells something of the men who carried the mail for the pony express.

"Wanted — young, skinny, wiry fellows not over 18. Must be expert riders willing to risk death daily. Orphans preferred. Wages $25 per week."

They rode 50 to 150 miles, changing horses every five or six miles, spurring the animals on with little horns all pony express riders carried.

The pony express was credited with keeping open the communications which kept California in the union in the Civil War.

Its riders covered 600,000 miles, carrying 35,000 letters.

Only one pouch was ever lost. Its carrier reportedly was found on the plains of what is now Nebraska with an arrow through his back.

But its days were numbered as the transcontinental railroad and the telegraph speeded communication. In October, 1861, the pony express made its last run. The first had been in April, 1860.

Harrelson Pleads Not Guilty

son of Pontiac Teamsters President Leaun Harrelson, pleaded not guilty to forging nominating petitions at his arraignment yesterday before Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

Harrelson was arrested by Pontiac police on a warrant issued last Friday.

He was released pending trial July 27.

He is accused of forging some 61 names on nine nominating petitions of David Kaufman, candidate for Oakland County probate judge. The charge, a misdemeanor, could result in a 90-day jail sentence, $100 fine, or both.

Officers said that Harrelson, clad only in trousers, bolted out of his home at 570 Desota Place and into the house of a neighbor when their police car pulled up at his residence.

He surrendered after they threatened to obtain a search warrant to enter the neighbor's home, they said.

Rocky Plays Role as Man of Mystery

CHICAGO (AP)—Republican convention preliminaries get underway today with New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller still playing to the hilt his mystery role in shaping the GOP's 1960 ticket and platform.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon still seemed to be the party's easy and unchallenged winner for the presidential nomination at convention sessions next week.

But all the talk among early arrivals was about Rockefeller, his vote-getting reputation, his long-shot chance of nudging Nixon out of the No. 1 spot, the less remote possibility of his becoming Nixon's running mate, and his policy conflict with both Nixon and President Eisenhower.

But the New Yorker gave little encouragement to his highly vocal supporters, already busy passing out buttons and campaign material for their favorite, apparently without the official blessing of Rockefeller.

Nixon' cohorts withheld convention fanfare, seemingly confident their man is a cinch anyway.

Rockefeller got a rousing reception on his arrival Monday on the convention scene to lay his platform proposals before the party Resolutions Committee.

He is expected to advocate again a big jump in defense spending and a revamping of other GOP policies.

If anything, Rockefeller has made himself less available as a contender against Nixon for the presidential nomination. He

Sen. Morton Blasts Away at Dem 'Utopia' Platform

CHICAGO (AP) — A Republican leader today advised GOP platform writers to pledge aid in building a better America but not the "lifelong Garden of Eden" he said the Democrats had promised at Los Angeles.

Sen. Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky said the Republican declaration of principles should emphasize that the individual American as well as his government has a responsibility to help guide the nation to a peaceful, prosperous future.

Morton, the GOP national chairman, offered this guideline in a talk for the opening session of a 109-member committee set up to write a platform for the party's national convention next week.

Morton's digs at the Democratic platform sought to draw a contrast between Democratic and Republican viewpoints on economic and political philosophy.

The committee gathered with an awareness that Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York has publicly criticized policies of the Eisenhower administration on national defense and on a program for medical aid to the aged.

The New York governor was to give the committee a detailed statement of his views on these and other issues later in the day.

He said at a news conference Monday that he will urge a much stronger civil rights plank than the one adopted by the Democrats.

He may want the party to go further on this issue than does Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the convention's almost certain choice for president.

The committee also faced a possible battle over a farm plank. One of its members is Sen. Milton R. Young of North Dakota, an outspoken critic of the Eisenhower administration's policy of pulling government out of agriculture as much as possible.

In taking pot shots at the Democratic platform, Morton said the document contained many promises the Democratic party could not carry out because of opposition within its ranks.

8 Dead, 11 Hurt in Store Blast

MERRILL, Wis. (AP) — A violent explosion turned the J. C. Penney Co. department store into a pile of twisted, charred debris Monday. Eight persons were killed and 11 injured.

"We don't know what caused it," said Mayor Ralph Voigt. "It's a terrible thing for us."

The identified dead were Einar Seger, 55, a customer in the store and former clerk for this village of 10,000 in northern Wisconsin; Mrs. Louis Hamilton, Mrs. Geraldine Wissen, and Mrs. Lawrence Borchardt, all employes; Mrs. George Erickson and her mother, Mrs. Amanda Evans, shoppers; Mrs. Carl Yorde and her son, 12.

I. S. Stats and John McHale, of the State Industrial Commission, began an investigation into the cause of the blast.

The one-story modern building was located on the same site where an A&P supermarket was destroyed by an explosion July 12, 1951. The blast was then blamed on an accumulation of gas in an adjoining building. Officials of the Merrill City Gas Utility said the Merrill City Gas Utility said the Penney explosion "could not possibly" have been caused by a gas leak. They said none of their pipes are connected to the building.

GOP Hopefuls to Be Presented

Bagwell to Lead Group at a Public Session in Bloomfield Hills Tonight

Gubernatorial candidate Paul D. Bagwell will lead a group of Republican state and county candidates into Bloomfield Hills High School tonight for a postgraduate course in political science for voters.

Staging a novel meet-your-candidates session, where the voters will file from one classroom to another to hear the many hopefuls lecture on why they should be elected Aug. 2, is the Oakland County Council of Republican Women's Clubs.

The public rally will begin at 7:30. The school is at 4200 Andover Rd., just off West Long Lake road.

Other candidates beside Bagwell expected to attend are Rep. Alvin M. Bentley and Donald S. Leonard, vying for nomination as U.S. senator, Sen. Edward Hutchinson and Clarence A. Sandstorms Add Misery in Southwest

By The Associated Press

Blinding sandstorms during the night heaped more misery on the desert Southwest, already sweltering under 100-degree temperatures.

Sand whipped by winds up to 60 miles an hour struck several communities in southern California's Mojave Desert, surprising some 250 spectators unprotected at a softball tournament at the Marine Corps base at Twenty-Nine Palms. One person was injured by flying debris, and damage to the base was estimated at $5,000 to $7,000.

A 15-minute sandstorm cut visibility at Blythe, Calif., to half a mile, toppled trees and ripped up business awnings. A blast of at Thermal, Calif., from 100 degrees up to 107, then a rare thunderstorm dropped it back down to 95 in less than an hour.

LIGHTNING SETS FIRES

The California Division of Forestry said 15 fires had been started by lightning in vineyards and date groves in the Coachella Valley.

Salt Lake City braced for its sixth straight day of 100-degree temperatures. Monday's high of 104 degrees was the city's highest since 1937 and only two degrees short of its highest recorded temperature ever.

reiterated to newsmen that while not a candidate, he would accept a genuine draft.

But in defining what genuine meant Rockefeller said it would mean that 666 delegate votes — the majority needed to nominate — were for drafting him for the No. 1 spot on the ticket. Well over that number have said they prefer Nixon.

'NO' TO VP

As for the vice presidency, Rockefeller used the words positively and absolutely to emphasize his previous stand, that he would not accept the vice presidential nomination under any circumstances.

He underlined one major point of disagreement with Eisenhower and Nixon, the matter of legislation to provide health care for the aged.

Eisenhower and Nixon have endorsed a federal-state subsidy plan to provide a limited program.

Rockefeller said such a system could lend itself to inflationary pressures and lead to abuses. Instead, he favors the type of plan under the present social security system that the Democrats have pledged in their party platform and ticketed for priority when Congress reconvenes in August.

SALZGITTER, Germany (AP) — About 50 miners were caught by an underground fire in an iron ore mine here today.

A mine spokesman said a faulty cable may have sparked the fire which then exploded an oil storage tank supplying a generator with fuel.

State Polio Toll Down in 1960

15 Cases Reported as Compared With 29 Last Year to Date

LANSING (AP)—Only 15 cases of infantile paralysis have been counted in Michigan so far this year, the State Health Department reported.

The count was up to 29 at this time last year.

There were six paralytic polio cases among those reported to date. All but one of the victims had not received any polio immunization.

Polio crippled 164 persons in Michigan last year—60 per cent of them under 10 years of age.

Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner, urged parents to act now to have their children immunized against polio if they have not yet had the shots.

"Polio reaches its peak in mid-August, so if the children are started on the vaccine right now, the two shots they will receive before then will give them quite a bit of protection," he said.

A new immunization law requires all children entering school for the first time, unless parents object on religious grounds, to present proof of immunization against polio, diptheria, whooping cough, smallpox and tetanus.

Waiting until school starts to have this done, Heustis said, will leave the children unprotected this summer and make them more vulnerable to disease when they meet other youngsters this fall.

Commissioners Cite Estimates

8 Street Improvement Proposals Scheduled on Tonight's Agenda

Eight street improvement proposals are slated to go before the City Commission at tonight's meeting.

The agenda calls for estimates from the city engineer on three curb and gutter projects and a public hearing on another.

The Commission will also receive special assessment rolls on two jobs and are scheduled to confirm two others.

The city engineer will give his estimates on curb and gutter work on Hillsmont avenue from Nebraska to Earlmoor; on Melrose avenue from Madison to Mt. Clemens; and on Pleasantview drive east of Hillsmont street.

Commissioners are expected to receive special assessment rolls for widening of Edison street from Rundell to Montcalm, and curb and gutter work on Raeburn street from Sanford to Baxter alley.

The public hearing scheduled for tonight will be on the proposal for curb and gutter work on Seward street from Auburn to Osmun street.

The Commission is expected to confirm special assessment rolls for curb and gutter work on Tennyson and East Beverly avenues, from Fuller to Arlene.

The latter action applies particularly to those who expect to be on vacation or otherwise out-of-town.

Children Don't Want to Be Firemen Now

CHICAGO (AP)—There was a day when youngsters wanted to become firemen and policemen and baseball stars.

Not so today, says a report by a University of Michigan research team for the Boy Scouts of America. Now, a majority of boys entering their teens hope to be professional men, with medicine, science and engineering leading other fields.

That was one of the findings in a study of 1,435 boys in the 11-13 age group from throughout the country.

More than half the boys want to emulate some relative, member of their immediate family or popular figure. Thirty-four per cent want to be like Dad, 12 per cent movie or TV stars and 9 per cent other popular heroes.

TRAIN DERAILED — The Milwaukee Road's Hiawatha passenger train, carrying 150 passengers, was derailed Monday at St. Paul, Minn., after hitting a semitrailer truck. At least 33 persons were injured, none seriously. The semi-trailer's cab had crossed the track before the accident, so the truck driver escaped alive. The train locomotive units and 13 cars left the track.

Romulo of Philippines to Accept Pontiac's Gift

Philippine Ambassador Carlos Romulo will accept a $30,000 gift tomorrow from the people of the Pontiac area.

The gift is an airplane, "The Spirit of Pontiac," which will be used to spread Christianity and literacy to natives of the Philippines.

The plane, a Hello-Courier, will be presented to Romulo at public ceremonies starting at 10:30 a.m. at Pontiac Country Club.

A group of area men known as the Spirit of Pontiac Committee has been working on the project since April.

ROWSTON TO PRESENT

Mayor Philip E. Rowston will make the official presentation.

Mrs. Romulo and Mrs. Rowston will then christen the aircraft with water taken from Manila Bay and Lake Michigan.

Clyle R. Haskill, committee chairman, said, "The contributions of so many have made this truly a people-to-people project. We hope residents come out to see the presentation and the exciting demonstration following."

After the plane is presented, it will take off from the golf course, perform a series of maneuvers showing its unique abilities, and then land on the course.

It is designed for operation from small, unprepared fields, needing only half the length of a football field to takeoff or land.

Although the plane will be owned by the Philippine government, it will be maintained and operated by the Summer Institute of Linguistics, a wing of Wycliffe Bible Translators, Inc.

TO REACH JUNGLE AREAS

Personnel from SIL will use the craft to reach jungle communities previously reached only by land or water.

Their languages will be translated for the first time and these natives will learn the mysteries of "the paper that talks"—the printed page.

They will be educated and taught the principles of Christianity in an effort to protect them from falling prey to Communist propaganda.

Committee members to be in attendance tomorrow include Gelston V. Poole, vice chairman; Leslie R. Ware, secretary-treasurer; Dr. H. H. Savage, pastor of First Baptist Church of Pontiac; and Gordon K. Hicks of Bloomfield Hills.

W. Cameron Townsend, general director of SIL, will introduce Romulo.

Also representing the institute will be Lawrence J. Montgomery, superintendent of Jungle Aviation and Radio Service International; Robert T. Griffin, JAARS program director in Equador; and Donald H. Burns, regional secretary for the Eastern United States.

Griffin will fly the plane to the Philippines.

A color guard and marching band will get the ceremony under way.

John Hirlinger, manager of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce, will be master of ceremonies.

Many area business, industrial and political leaders will be present, as will members of the clergy and city commissioners.

Rowston and a welcoming party will meet Romulo at Willow Run Airport early tomorrow and then be whisked to Pontiac with a police escort.

Pontiac Country Club is at 4335 Elizabeth Lake Rd.

Two Street Light Districts Set Up in Waterford Twp.

The Waterford Township Board last night approved establishment of two street light districts at a hearing held from 7 to 9 p.m. and denied a request for another in the Otter Hills subdivision.

Seventy-eight street lights will be installed in the Elizabeth Lake Estates area bounded by Cass-Elizabeth Lake road, Winding drive and Lakeside street. There are 648 assessments costing a total of $2,436, of $3.39 for each assessment.

The township will pay 10 per cent of the cost. The Detroit Edison Co. will make the installations.

Another small special street lighting assessment was set up for 547 feet on Linda court at Sashabaw road at 7 cents a foot for those benefiting from the light. The township wall pay the balance of the total cost of $42.

The Otter Hills Improvement Assn., located in the Cass-Elizabeth Lake area, was denied street lighting installations pending further study and information from those affected by personal placement of the lights.

Township Clerk James E. Seeterlin presented three quotations for purchase of a new tractor-digger for the water department. The lowest figure, $1,245, was presented by the Pontiac Tractor & Equipment Co.

However, Seeterlin said that a good used tractor was available for $675 from the Robert McGinnis Co., and the Board approved purchase of the used vehicle.

A request from Police Chief Millard J. Pender for an additional policeman was turned down due to lack of funds at this time. The board approved the hiring of one employe in the clerk's office to work for $1.50 an hour until September.

Driving Woes Give This Man New Address

Chris Adams' troubles were only beginning when his car was smashed up in a two-car accident Sunday night.

For one thing, his auto collided with a police car.

And, secondly, he didn't have a driver's license.

Adams, 36, of 412 Howland St., found himself before Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum yesterday.

He pleaded guilty to driving without a driver's license.

For the next 10 days, Adams' address will be the Oakland County Jail.

Jim Ninowski Traded to Lions From Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Browns traded their No. 2 quarterback, Jim Ninowski, to the Detroit Lions today for linebacker Bob Long and a high draft choice. Ninowski, a former Michigan State star, is a Detroit resident. He has been an understudy of passer Milt Plum for two years.

Long, who is 6-4 and weighs 230, is 26 years old. He played his college football at UCLA and has been with the Lions five seasons.

"We made this move with the full realization that we could be giving Detroit a fine quarterback," said Coach and General Manager Paul Brown. "But we prefer to work with two quarterbacks only."

The Executive Committee on Political Education (COPE) of the Oakland County AFL-CIO Council last night endorsed the proposal on the Waterford Township primary ballot that would give firemen protection under civil service.

The Day in Birmingham

Mid-1960 Traffic Accidents Increase Over 1959 Period

BIRMINGHAM — Traffic accidents here for the first six months of the year increased over the same period in 1959, Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley reported today.

An increase in June traffic accidents was also shown over the same month a year ago, he said, with 77 accidents investigated, compared to 50 in June 1959.

The six-month total accident picture for 1960 compared to 1959 shows an increase in all phases of Moxley's report.

There have been 385 accidents this year compared to 362 last year at this time, he said.

There were also 93 personal injury accidents with 142 persons injured compared to 9 personal injury accidents and 20 persons injured last year.

"Much of the increase, however, can be attributed to more complete reporting as provided in the new accident report forms implaced in use at the start of this year," Moxley said.

The most frequent cause of these accidents was "Right of Way" violations with 130 reported this year compared to 142 last year, he said.

"Following too Closely" accounted for 121 accidents this year as compared to 91 last year, he said.

Beverly Hills Village Clerk Fannie Adams was authorized last night by the Village Council to hire a deputy clerk in order to ease her work load.

A move to hire a deputy clerk was made several weeks ago when Mrs. Adams walked out of a village council meeting 45 minutes before it ended.

She then telephoned the Council and told them she would like to resign because the work was too much. Mrs. Adams said that although she had been promised additional help upon taking the job early this year, she had received none.

Salary for the new position, also approved by the Council would be from $1.50 to $2 an hour.

Kennedy Sees Nixon Debates

Expects TV to Set Up Tangles; Allen Dulles to Brief Him Saturday

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, gave the word today he expects to debate the Republican presidential nominee on television.

Pierre Salinger, Kennedy's press secretary, told reporters the major networks are offering free time to the nominees and that Kennedy "presumes there would be joint appearances on television by himself and the Republican nominee."

Salinger said Kennedy will take time out from his vacation tomorrow for a campaign strategy meeting with members of his staff.

Salinger also announced Allan W. Dulles, Central Intelligence Agency director, will fly to Hyannis Port Saturday to give Kennedy a briefing on the world situation in general and foreign policy matters concerning Latin America and Africa, specifically.

Kennedy yesterday accepted President Eisenhower's offer of an opportunity to receive these confidential reports on foreign policy problems.

Salinger said Robert F. Kennedy, brother of the senator and his campaign manager, talked by telephone with Dulles this morning to arrange the meeting.

The senator planned to go boating with his wife, Jacqueline, today. He agreed to allow newsmen and photographers to witness the departure from the dock but laid down a rule. There would be no interviews.

Lay Off Cuba, Say Reds; Promise Aid to Fidel

with steel bars after he had started to take pictures of the fight. It was the first known physical attack on Americans here since Castro took power.

HE'S DISTURBED

Castro was visibly disturbed by the expected Security Council action leaving the U. S. — Cuban dispute up to the OAS. The united States, he declared, is "judge and jury" in the hemisphere body because most of the nations are small and impoverished like Cuba, and Cuba's disadvantage in a dispute with the powerful United States in the OAS is clear. It would be therefore vulnerable to the same weapons the United States has used against Cuba."

He defended his own acceptance of Soviet economic offers and indicated he would accept Soviet military aid.

"If you know you are going to be murdered and someone comes and tells you he is going to help keep you from getting killed, are you going to reject that help?" he asked.

Castro called the Monroe Doctrine "ancient and worm-eaten" and accused the United States of using it to "assume the right of piracy."

Commenting on the recent wave of defections by his ambassadors, Castro accused the U.S State Department of offering to pay off Cuban diplomats if they abandoned the revolutionary cause.

Cuban-U.S. Rift to OAS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The U.N. Security Council was expected to give the Organization of American States a clear field today to deal with the bitter dispute between Cuba and the United States.

After a day of debate on Cuban charges of U.S. economic aggression against Prime Minister Castro's regime, the 11-nation council today heard a blast from Soviet delegate Arkady A. Sobolev and vote on an Argentine-Ecuadorean resolution passing the controversy to the inter-American organization.

Castro in a television appearance in Havana Monday night assailed the move to refer the dispute to the OAS, saying the United States had less influence in the United Nations than in the OAS. But Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa, representing the Castro regime in the Security Council debate, privately accepted the resolution.

Because of Roa's acceptance, some delegates believed the Soviet Union would either vote for the resolution or abstain on the vote. But in case of a Soviet veto, Argentina and Ecuador were prepared to substitute a procedural proposal that would have the same effect but would not be subject to the veto.

RAUL J. ROA

The original resolution noted that the Cuban-U.S. dispute is under consideration in the 21-nation OAS and called on the council:

1. "To adjourn the consideration of this question pending the receipt of a report" from the OAS."

2. To invite the OAS members "to lend their assistance toward the achievement of a peaceful solution."

3. To urge "all other states to refrain from any action which might increase the existing tensions between Cuba and the United States." This was considered directed at the Soviet Union, Premier Nikita Khrushchev having threatened a rocket attack on the United States if U.S. forces intervene in Cuba.

End Sought to School Use

Read Bible 'Round Clock as Florida Trial Goes On

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A church youth group has launched a 'round-the-clock prayer marathon during a trial testing the constitutionality of Florida's law which requires reading of the Bible in public schools.

Thirty members of the Shenandoah Presbyterian Church are taking one-hour shifts reading the Bible while the trial, expected to be carried to the U.S. Supreme Court, progresses.

Circuit Judge J. Fritz Gordon is presiding over trial of two companion suits, one brought by a self-styled agnostic and the other by a group of Jewish leaders and a Unitarian.

An overflow crowd Monday, including white-shirted, Bible-carrying boys from a Baptist church, forced transfer of the trial to a larger courtroom.

BACKED BY CL UNION

Harlow Chamberlin, a radio advertising salesman who describes himself as an agnostic, is backed in his suit by the Florida Civil Liberties Union. Webster's Dictionary defines agnostic as "one who subscribes to the doctrine that the existence and nature of God are unknown and unknowable."

Three Jewish parents and a Unitarian woman filed a companion suit seeking to prohibit religious activities in schools, including Bible reading, baccalaureate programs, use of religious symbols, and observance of Christmas, Easter, Hanukkah and other religious holidays.

The Jewish group says such observances are "unlawful infringements upon the religious liberty of the school child, and as such are unconstitutional."

Chamberlin testified his daughter Sandra Sue, 7, developed disturbances and a dislike for school after hearing her teacher tell about angels and the devil.

Seeking Recess in Arms Confab

U.S. Reluctant About British, Soviet Request on Geneva Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — U. S. officials today viewed with reluctance proposals by the Soviet Union and Britain for a recess in the prolonged Geneva talks on an atomic test ban.

The Soviet and the British representatives were reported seeking a recess starting Aug. 15. How long the recess might be was not disclosed.

The three-power conference has been under way since November, 1958, with time out for various recesses, and has made some progress toward an agreement. It is the only negotiation still in progress between the Soviet Union and the United States in the aftermath of the summit conference in May.

* * *

U. S. authorities said they preferred to have the talks continue through the summer, especially since no official reply has come yet from the Soviet Union on the latest American compromise proposal.

But they added Washington probably would not object if the other two insist on a recess.

Book Puts State Soldiers in Civil War Struggle

LANSING (UPI) — The Michigan Historical Commission has announced publication of a new booklet, "Michigan Soldiers in the Civil War," summarizing Michigan's contribution to the war between the states.

The book was written by Frederick D. Williams, professor of history at Michigan State University.

The book came out about a year in advance of the Civil War Centennial celebrations coming up next year, the Historical Commission said.

The 90,000 Michigan soldiers in the war are discussed in detail in the book, the commission said.

Anderson Mentioned as Nominee for VP

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (AP) — A Texas Republican says a move is underway to name Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson as the GOP vice presidential nominee at the party's convention in Chicago next week.

Edwin S. Mayor, the 1958 GOP gubernatorial candidate, said in an interview Monday that the native Texan's stock has been soaring since the Democrats named Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex) as their vice presidential candidate.

Says Fidel Faces Major Decision

Castro Must Choose Between Religion and Red Line, Bentley Says

By The Associated Press

Premier Fidel Castro will have to chose between communism and religion, Rep. Alvin Bentley (R-Mich) said Monday.

He added that a decision for communism may cost Castro his popularity in Cuba.

"No dictator has ever been able to make a compromise between communism and religion," Bentley told a Detroit audience. "I don't think Castro will be equal to the task either.

"Since religious people can never be converted to communism, Castro would have to force them into it at gunpoint," he continued.

Bentley, a member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, is campaigning for the Republican nomination for the United States Senate. His opponent in the Aug. 2 primary is Donald S. Leonard of Detroit.

McNAMARA MOVES

Meanwhile, Sen. Patrick McNamara (D-Mich), who will oppose either Leonard or Bentley in November, turned to his specialty. McNamara is chairman of the Senate subcommittee on problems of the aged and aging.

The senator urged the Republicans to remove the issue of medical aid to the aged from politics by adopting a strong platform plank favoring it.

"Some people look upon the health insurance question as a good campaign issue this fall," McNamara said. "I would just as soon remove it from the political arena by passing it in August when Congress returns and putting it into effect for the millions who need it so desperately."

* * *

He asked the GOP convention, which starts next Monday, to join the Democrats in supporting use of the social security system to finance health care for the elderly.

U.S. to Send Jeeps, Planes to The Congo

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United Nations command in The Congo with 10 transport airplanes and 20 jeeps for use in helping to restore order in the new republic, the Defense Department announced Monday.

* * *

The vehicles will be turned over to U.N. commander Maj. Gen. Carl Von Horn, a Swede, and will not be operated by American crews.

The airplanes are C47 transports of World War II vintage and will be provided by the U.S. military command in Europe.

The Pentagon said that the white-painted jeeps will be flown from Barksdale AFB, Shreveport, La., along with enough spare parts to last 180 days.

Meanwhile the Navy reported that the aircraft carrier Wasp is proceeding toward that country in case it is needed for rescuing U.S. nationals.

It carries six transport planes and eight helicopters. A fleet supply ship is two days behind the Wasp.

Other American efforts in the Congo crisis include the airlifting of 1,000 Tunisians and 1,200 Moroccan troops to the Congo area.

The U.S. European command also has flown 300 tons of flour to The Congo and has provided 4,000 helmets painted U.N. blue for use of Von Horn's troops.

Americans eat well but they rank only sixth among the big eating nations of the world, according to United Nations figures. Ireland has the largest daily per capita caloric intake of 3,510. Denmark is second followed by New Zealand, Switzerland, Australia, the U. S. and Canada.

Wall Least Surprised at Title Loss

By BILL CORNWELL

Close to 30,000 persons invaded Western Golf and Country Club Sunday afternoon for the windup of the Western Open golf tournament and probably the least surprised one of the bunch at the result was the one who let the title get away from him — Art Wall Jr.

"I suspected something like this would happen when we started the final round. There was an uneasy feeling in my bones," Wall told golf writers after Canadian pro Stan Leonard beat him on the 1st hole of a sudden-death playoff to win the Western Open crown.

"Everybody thought I had the title in the bag," Wall told newsmen, "but you fellows know as well as I do that things can happen swiftly on a golf course to completely change the picture."

"A four-stroke lead is virtually nothing out there against competitors like these fellows," Wall said. "You can lose an apparently comfortable lead in a two-hole stretch."

As you recall, Wall entered Sunday's final 18-hole round with a four-stroke edge over Pete Cooper and a six-stroke advantage over Leonard.

But Wall had his poorest day of the tournament as he shot a 74 while Leonard was sailing home with a four-under-par 68 to completely eat up the difference and force the playoff.

Wall is a serious-minded young gentleman and a keen student of the game who takes a calm, philosophical approach toward everything he does, both on and off the golf course. As one veteran put it: Art is a thinker.

He had nothing but praise and best wishes for Leonard. Wall never alibis for a defeat and never puffs himself up following a victory.

"I have no excuses," said Art. "I played badly and didn't deserve to win. All the credit in the world should go to Stan.

"I knew it just wasn't my day when that putt on No. 18 wouldn't stay in the cup," Wall remarked. Wall's putt on the 18th green, a seven-footer which would have won for him by a single stroke, went into the hole and came out.

Perhaps the most surprised man at Wall's bogey on the 18th was Leonard. "I never thought Art would bogey that hole," declared Stan. "I really never expected to get a chance for a playoff."

Leonard also thought Wall's eight-foot putt on the 1st green in the playoff was "in" for a birdie three. "I thought Art's putt was 'in' all the way," said Stan, "but it broke off at the last instant." Leonard then canned his six-footer for a "bird" to win the championship.

Maybe the law of averages caught up with Wall. Sunday's playoff was the 7th of his illustrious career and he had won the previous five duels. Leonard's victory evened his playoff record at 2-2.

Aside from Wall, the unhappiest man at Western must surely have been Jack Fleck, who had a mental lapse in Saturday's 3rd round and took a fat 13 on No. 15 to knock himself right out of the tourney picture.

"I just fell asleep," Fleck said. He took four practice swings in a water hazard on the par five hole and suffered eight strokes in penalties. Fleck was still in contention at the time, but that ended it for him.

Liston Flattens Folley

DENVER (AP) — The massive 14-inch fists of Sonny Liston thundered a tattoo today on the door to the heavyweight boxing throne room occupied by Floyd Patterson.

Liston's sledge-hammer hands smashed Zora Folley to the canvas twice in the second round and knocked him out in 28 seconds of the third round in their scheduled 12-round bout last night at the Denver Coliseum.

"I got him quicker than I expected," the unmarked 215½ slugger from Philadelphia said in his dressing room afterward.

Folley, 198½, from Chandler, Ariz., said he made a mistake in trying to slug it out with Liston. "I fought the wrong type of fight —I fought his fight," he said.

Lackadaisical Play Costs Piersall $200

CLEVELAND (AP)—Cleveland Manager Joe Gordon said Monday he has fined outfielder Jimmy Piersall a day's pay — approximately $200—for his lackadaisical performance during the double loss to Washington Sunday.

Gordon also said Piersall would be fined $500 the next time he is ejected from a game by the umpire. Piersall has been bounced five times this season.

Piersall did not start either game against Washington. He struck out on three pitches in a pinch-hitting appearance in the opener, and flied to center in the second, also as a pinch-hitter.

During the two games, Piersall sat in the outfield bullpen, kicking baseballs and gloves trying to entertain the customers.

Speaking at a luncheon meeting Monday, General Manager Frank Lane said Piersall's clowning clearly was designed to "show up" Gordon for keeping him out of the lineup.

Pocket Radios Help Veeck Check Players

CHICAGO (AP)—President Bill Veeck of the Chicago White Sox somewhat slowed down following further amputation of his right leg, has devised a system of keeping in touch with key personnel around Comiskey Park.

"Veeck is using a two-way pocket radio which enables him to talk to others located in and around the ball park. Veeck carries one radio while others are placed in offices.

The range of the radio is from one-half to one mile. It weighs 13 ounces and can be carried in a shirt pocket.

Market Falters and Turns Mixed

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market faltered and turned mixed early today after pushing slightly ahead at the opening. Trading was moderate.

Gains and losses of fractions to about a point were scattered throughout the list of key stocks.

For a while it looked as if the market was rallying after six straight sessions of decline.

But hopes of the bulls went glimmering as the list floundered in irregularity. A large number of stocks was unchanged.

A few of the high quality stocks, as well as more flashy issues, recovered some lost ground.

Gains of about a point were posted for General Electric and Eastman Kodak. Zenith and Texas Instruments recouped more than a point each.

ABC Vending dropped a couple of points and American Photocopy was off around 3.

Vendo was about unchanged following news of proposals for a stock split and a new issue of convertible debentures.

Standard Oil (New Jersey) was fractionally lower after opening unchanged at 40½ then trading at the same price on a big block of 14,600 shares.

Off about a point were North American Aviation and U.S. Gypsum. Small gains were posted for Automatic Canteen, U.S. Steel, American Motors, Boeing, United Aircraft, Royal Dutch and Kennecott.

Sylvan Lake Awards Bonds

$25,000 Road Issue Goes to Detroit Firm for 3.5 Pct. Interest

At a special meeting last night, the Sylvan Lake City Council awarded $25,000 in motor vehicle highway fund bonds to McDonald-Moore & Co. of Detroit.

The Detroit firm was low bidder, asking 3.5 per cent interest.

The $25,000 will be used to get the city's proposed blacktopping program under way. Four firms bid on sale of the bonds.

The bonds will be payable over a seven-year period, primarily from state-collected taxes to be returned to the city for highway improvement purposes.

They will begin maturing next year with $3,000 maturing each year from 1961-63 and $4,000 annually from 1964-67.

Thursday afternoon City Manager David E. Firestone will open construction bids for the project.

These will be tabulated and the contract awarded at a special meeting next Monday night.

The program is estimated to cost about $101,000 over a three-year period with about $40,000 work being done this year.

Rubber Workers Talk With Firestone

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI) — Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. and the United Rubber Workers Union opened wage talks Monday, the first round of negotiations covering nearly 90,000 rubber workers across the nation.

The Firestone talks covered 18,000 workers at plants at Akron, Ohio; Los Angeles, Noblesville, Ind.; Memphis, Tenn.; New Castle, Ind.; Fall River, Mass.; Des Moines, Iowa; and Pottstown, Pa.

Wage talks between the URW and the other three members of the "big four" companies will start July 26.

The union and Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. bargaining teams will meet here at the same time union negotiators sit down with the U.S. Rubber Co. in Cincinnati and the B.F. Goodrich Co. in Columbus.

Deadline of the Firestone talks, when the contract can be canceled if an agreement is not reached, was midnight of Aug. 2. The Goodyear and Goodrich deadlines were Aug. 6 and for U.S. Rubber, Aug. 7.

Wage negotiations also were being arranged between the union and the Seiberling Rubber Co., General Tire & Rubber Co., Armstrong Rubber Co. and Richardson Rubber Co.

Former Fighters Favor Cyprus, Greece Union

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — A group of former EOKA underground fighters announced Monday night they will enter candidates in coming parliamentary elections in opposition to Archbishop Makarios' Patriotic Front party. The announcement came after a meeting of 93 former EOKA members. They oppose the provision of the independence agreement which bars union of Cyprus with Greece.

Property Tax Cut Proposed

Ed Connor Urges Plan as Break to Oldsters Living on Pensions

DETROIT (UPI) — Ed Connor, Democratic candidate for governor, proposed today that "homestead exemptions" be made for Michigan's senior citizens who must live on limited pensions and social security benefits.

Connor suggested that such exemptions be "in the neighborhood of the first $2,000 of assessed valuations on homesteads in which elderly citizens live." The exemption would reduce actual local property taxes by about $100 annually, he said.

"As a member of Detroit's Board of Review on Assessments," Connor said, "I have seen thousands of sad cases come before us, where elderly folks cannot make a go of it on inadequate pensions and small social security benefits."

"As governor of Michigan, I would pledge any influence and support in favor of the clear program of national legislative action laid down by Sen. Pat McNamara," Connor said.

Airport Runway—Look Out for All Whitetail Deer

ALPENA (AP) — "Airport runway — look out for the deer."

That warning might well be displayed on the approaches to Collins Air Field outside this Lake Huron town in Michigan's north woods country.

Instead, Alpena County and the Michigan Air National Guard are pooling funds to build a six-mile fence around the airport—solely to keep the deer out.

Whitetail deer graze like cattle alongside the runways and have become so accustomed to aircraft that most merely raise their heads in curiosity when a plane zooms in for a landing. More than 140 of them have been counted near the runways at one time.

Write-In Candidates Get Ballot Break

LANSING (UPI) — Secretary of State James M. Hare, himself a candidate for the Democratic nomination as governor, said yesterday provision will be made in Michigan's machine-voting precincts so write-in candidates for office can be marked.

A paper ballot will be placed in machines so a vote can be cast for a write-in candidate, Hare said.

At least one candidate, Eugene C. Keyes who is seeking the nomination as Democratic lieutenant governor, has said he would be a write-in candidate.

The State Board of Canvassers refused to certify Keyes as a candidate and the Supreme Court refused to order his name on the ballot.

Farm Income Scores Gain

But It Lingers Below Last Year's First Half and Revised Average

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Agriculture Department said today a substantial improvement in April, May and June raised farmers' realized net income in the first half of 1960 to an average annual rate of about $11 billion.

This was 9 per cent below the first half of 1959, and 3 per cent below the revised estimate of $11.3 billion for the last year 1959.

The annual rate of farmers' realized net income for the second quarter of this year was $11.5 billion, compared with $10.2 billion for the first quarter.

If the average, $11 billion is maintained throughout the year, this would be the lowest realized net farm income since the $8.8 billion of 1942.

SPECIAL ELECTION—TO THE QUALIFIED ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY of Oakland, State of Michigan. Notice is hereby given, that a Special Election will be held in the

COUNTY OF OAKLAND, STATE OF MICHIGAN

at all of the regular voting precincts or places of holding the election in the Township of White Lake on

TUESDAY, AUGUST 2, 1960

from 7 o'clock in the forenoon until 8 o'clock in the afternoon, Eastern Standard Time.

To vote on the Propositions set forth in the following Resolution Adopted by: The Board of Supervisors of said County on: the 7th day of June, 1960, to-wit:

(IN RE: Special Building Election—Sinking Fund and Millage for Construction or repair of County Buildings.

At the Oakland County Board of Supervisors:

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Whereas, the new Court House and County Building now under construction at the Service Center Site was planned to be built in stages and the Court House Tower being the first stage is now under construction and funds are on hand to finance the cost thereof; and

Whereas, the rapid expansion of population of the County has necessitated providing increased services for the public which, in turn, has created a serious space problem which aggravates the pre-existing problem of housing for the various county officials; and

Whereas, it previously appeared that the construction of the remaining stages of the Court House and County Building could be delayed several years, it now appears not only expedient but vitally necessary that the last stages of construction should be commenced as soon as possible; and

Whereas, although the Board of Supervisors planned to pay for the several stages as monies accumulated from miscellaneous revenues and from the sale of various county owned properties, it will be necessary if the remaining stages of construction are to be commenced in the near future that a tax must be levied for that purpose; and

Whereas, Act No. 14 of 1956 (Extra Session) gives the Board of Supervisors the power to submit the question of voting millage for a sinking fund for the construction or repair of public buildings; and

Whereas, it appears from a study prepared for the Board of Supervisors by Dr. L. L. Friedland, Consultant, that the sum of Four Million Dollars will be required in order to complete the construction of the Court House and County Building;

Now therefore, be it resolved that the following question, to-wit:

"To authorize the Board of Supervisors to levy a tax of one-half mill (50c per $1,000.00) of the assessed valuation as equalized, each year for a period of four (4) years, from 1960 to 1963, inclusive, to create a sinking fund to be used for the construction and/or repair of public buildings?"

☐ YES
☐ NO

be submitted to the electors at a special election to be held concurrently with the Primary Election on August 2, 1960.

Further Resolved, that there shall be submitted to the electors at a special election to be held concurrently with the Primary Election on August 2, 1960, the following proposition:

"Shall the limitation on the total amount of taxes which may be assessed each year against property in the County of Oakland, State of Michigan, for all purposes except taxes for the payment of interest and principal on obligations incurred prior to December 8, 1932, be increased for a period of four (4) years from 1960 to 1963, both inclusive, by 1/20th of 1% (50c per $1,000.00) of the assessed valuation as equalized, of the property in the County for the purpose of creating a sinking fund to be used for the construction or repair of public buildings?"

☐ YES
☐ NO

and the said proposition shall appear upon the ballots in the above form and shall appear upon the voting machines in the following form:

"Shall the tax limitation against property in the County of Oakland, for all purposes except taxes for obligations incurred prior to December 8, 1932, be increased from 1960 to 1963, both inclusive, by 50c per $1,000.00 of the assessed valuation as equalized, to create a sinking fund for the construction or repair of public buildings?"

☐ YES
☐ NO

When voting machines are used, the full text of said tax limitation proposition as set forth first above, shall be posted in each election booth.

Provided further that each City and Township Clerk shall give notice of the submission of the aforesaid propositions by including the same in the election notice for said Primary Election. The Notice of the Tax Limitation proposition shall contain the statement of the County Treasurer of all voted increases in the total tax limitation affecting property in the County of Oakland and the years such increases are effective.

Be It Further Resolved, that the County Clerk be directed to serve a copy of this resolution upon the Sheriff and that the Sheriff be directed to give the Notice required by Act No. 43 of the Public Acts of 1926 (Extra Session) as amended.

Moved by Levinson supported by Cyril Miller the resolution be adopted. Aye, 12. Nays, 8. Carried.

The following statement has been received from the County Treasurer as to previously voted increases in the total tax rate limitation affecting taxable property in the County of Oakland, to-wit:
