Nixon Enters 'Open Fight' as GOP Convenes

Keynoter Readies Address

AP Wirephoto

THE KEYNOTER VISITS THE PLATFORM — Gov. Arthur Langlie of Washington pays a visit to the speaker's rostrum at the Cow Palace in San Francisco yesterday. He'll deliver the keynote address at the Republican convention which opens this afternoon. His speech will be early this evening.

Moo-ve Over! Make Room in Cow Palace

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. (NEA)—Nobody ever calls it that, but the right name for San Francisco's "Cow Palace," where the Republicans meet in national convention, is "Livestock Pavilion of No. 1-A District Agriculture Association."

* * *

A San Francisco News story and headline 20 years ago gave it the shorter name. It has stuck in spite of high kicks from horsy society people who show their thoroughbred jumpers, steppers and saddle nags there but beef about having to do it in a cow barn.

Ground was broken for the huge coliseum in 1935. It seats nearly 17,000 people and leaves standing room for 2,000 more. It was built by the U. S. Public Works Administration to help relieve the depression.

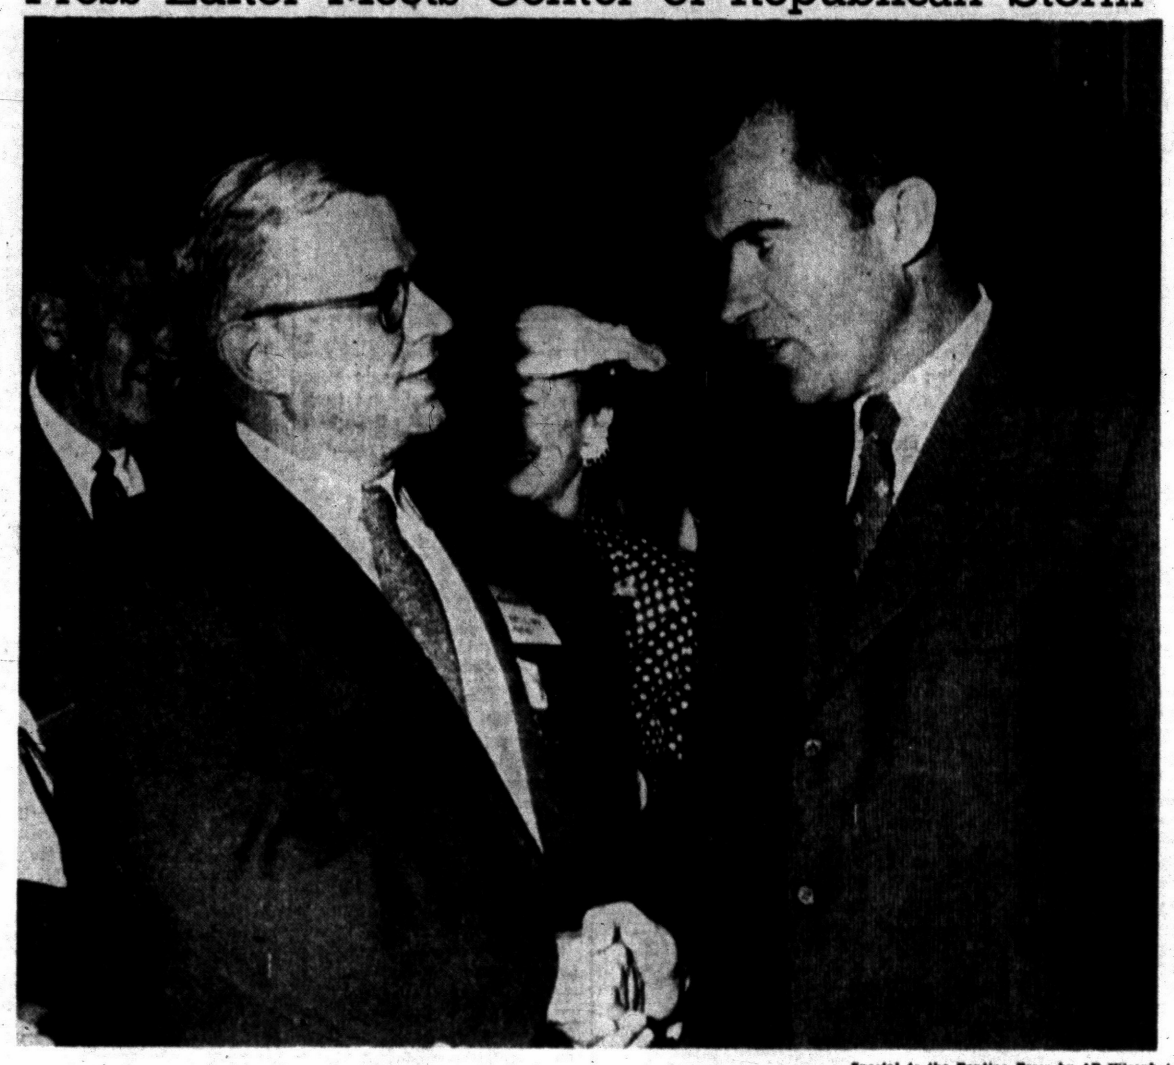

But a San Francisco News reporter wrote at the time that:

"While people are being evicted from their homes and are walking the streets in hunger, they are building a palace for cows out in Vistacion Valley."

* * *

Vice President to Win Easily, Delegates Say

Stassen Steps Up Drive to Muster Opposition; Ike Due a Day Early

By JAMES LEE

SAN FRANCISCO (INS)—Republicans moved into San Francisco's huge Cow Palace today for a jubilant "Eisenhower, Peace and Prosperity" convention in which they expect to see Vice President Richard M. Nixon easily win a "free and open" fight to keep his place on the GOP ticket.

The big show began at 1 p.m. (Pontiac Time). President Eisenhower is due to arrive here tomorrow — 24 hours earlier than scheduled and the "Nixon issue" sharpens with intensified efforts by White House Aide Harold E. Stassen to mount a genuine offensive against the vice president.

Stassen, not a delegate and in San Francisco for the sole purpose of convincing the convention Nixon should be replaced, hinted he soon will disclose high level support for his operations.

GOP national Chairman Leonard W. Hall made no attempt to shut off a battle. Hall declared, in the text of a speech prepared for tonight's session: "Of course, there will be differences of opinion among you. The day will never come when one Republican is not free to disagree with another Republican."

Hall promised, in obvious reference to reports Stassen will carry his anti-Nixon crusade to the convention floor through backers among the delegates, that any delegate "who properly seeks recognition" will get it and "none will be overlooked."

COMPLICATIONS

Vice President Nixon Visits Michiganders at Bellevue Reception

By ROBERT B. TARR
Managing Editor, Pontiac Press

SAN FRANCISCO—Michigan delegates, party officials and visitors, several hundred strong, got together en masse for the first time yesterday afternoon at a reception in the Bellevue hotel, Michigan headquarters.

TARR

The event was given by the Michigan Arrangements committee in honor of Michigan men prominent in the federal governmental service.

Guests of honor included Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield; Wilber M. Brucker, secretary of the army; David Kendall, assistant secretary of the treasury; Frank G. Millard, counsel for the defense department.

Also present were Senator Charles E. Potter and Congressman Jesse P. Wolcott. Mrs. Brucker, Mrs. Summerfield and Mrs. Kendall were with their husbands.

NIXON APPEARS

Highlight of the afternoon was the unscheduled appearance of Vice President Nixon and Mrs. Nixon. The reception line, which had disbanded, quickly formed again as the vice president and his charming wife appeared with Summerfield.

After greeting Michiganders the vice president and Pat went across the hall to pay their respects to the Wisconsin delegation, holding a reception at the same hour.

Then they returned to the Michigan room and posed for photographers and for convention visitors who are making their own camera record of events.

BIG NEWS ANNOUNCED

The pair made their customary fine impression, and the conviction that Nixon will snowball into the renomination, despite earlier rumblings, is growing fast.

Other big news was that President Eisenhower has moved his schedule ahead one day and expects to arrive here sometime tomorrow.

OAKLAND PEOPLE PRESENT

Present from the Oakland County area, in addition to delegates, are Mrs. Bert Norton and Mrs. Francis Covert, both of Rochester, and Mrs. Charlotte Cook, of Royal Oak.

Found Verne Spooner in the Michigan crowd. A Michigan Bell Telephone man, Verne at one time held forth in the Pontiac exchange, now is in Detroit, but lives in Clarkston.

Michigan's largest delegation is holding a breakfast caucus this forenoon, hoping to complete state business in time to get to the Cow Palace before the first session is called to order at 11 o'clock (1:00 P.M. Pontiac time.) A second session is scheduled for 6:00 P.M. (Pontiac time) this evening.

Tuesday through Thursday session will start at 3:30 local time. Starting at 5:30 Pontiac Time they will run well into the evening for the radio and TV coverage.

Turning Turret Crushes Soldier

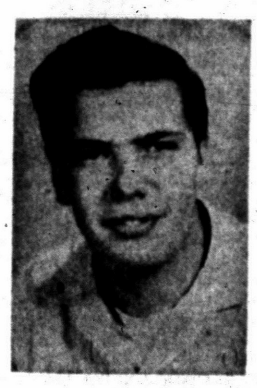

Local Guardsman Dies While Checking Repairs on Tank at Grayling

A Pontiac National Guardsman was killed instantly at Camp Grayling yesterday when he was crushed by the turning turret of a tank he was helping check following repair work.

Pfc. James E. Spires, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Spires, of 90 N. Francis St., was found dead inside the tank following the operation by fellow workers.

Trapped between the moving turret and the base of the tank, a welding torch had to be used to free the boy's body.

Guard officials today were unable to explain how the accident could have happened since Spires had been familiar with the turret movement and had turned on the master switch to enable the turret to be moved just before he was killed.

PFC. JAMES V. SPIRES

Spires, a member of the 107th Ordinance Company of Pontiac, had volunteered for the Sunday work with a buddy, Pvt. Alfred J. Lorenze, 20, of 274 N. Johnson Ave. The pair had worked several days on the Sherman tank during off duty hours.

Lorenze told investigators he started the turret revolving, on instructions from Spires. He said he shut off the power when he realized Spires was trapped but it was too late.

Spires was attending his second National Guard camp. Last year he had worked as a cook during the two-week Fifth Army training program.

U. S. Tells Suez Delegates Its Plan for Running Canal

LONDON (AP)—The United States laid the Western proposal for international operation of the Suez Canal before the 22-nation Suez conference today.

A few minutes earlier India had proposed a compromise giving Egypt the major role in operating the waterway.

Secretary of State Dulles, in submitting the Western "declaration of principles," said a definite system must be established "to guarantee at all times and for all the powers the free use" of the Suez Canal.

He said of the proposals presented here that "no majority—however large — can bind a minority however small."

According to the Cairo press, the Western proposals have been rejected already by Egypt's special envoy here, Ali Sabry.

India's V. K. Krishna Menon suggested that consideration be given without prejudice to Egyptian ownership and operation and urged the formation of a group embracing both the user interests and the Egyptian "operating" corporation.

Menon's plan involved the setting up of a two-tier system of operation and control of the canal with the Egyptians in the top tier and the foreign users joined in an advisory group of lower rank.

Menon obviously failed to sway Western diplomats.

No Brink's Juror Yet

BOSTON (INS)—Still without a juror for the Brink's robbery trial and after the 10th panel of 100 prospective jurors had been exhausted today, court was adjourned until 10:45 a.m. tomorrow.

Sweater Weather: Friday'll Be Better

Fair and cool weather is the U. S. Weather Bureau's forecast for the Pontiac area tonight. The low tonight will be a chilly 50 to 54 degrees.

Tomorrow will also be fair and cool, with a high expected of 68 to 72 degrees.

In downtown Pontiac, the lowest temperature reading preceding 8 a.m. was 53 degrees. The mercury rose to 69 degrees at 2 p.m.

The five-day forecast calls for temperatures averaging 5 to 6 degrees below normal. Thursday and Friday it will be warmer with scattered showers.

Stevenson Visit for Labor Day Stuns Detroit

DETROIT (INS)—Announcement that Adli Stevenson plans to launch his campaign for president with a Labor Day speech in Detroit has caused considerable surprise in Michigan.

It earlier had been reported this year's Labor Day celebration in Detroit would be non-partisan.

State Democratic Chairman Neil Staebler said he had explained to Stevenson that Detroit's Sept. 3 festivities were to be non-partisan and had urged the Democratic nominee to spend two days or more in the state, but at some other time.

A spokesman for Gov. G. Mennen Williams said:

"We did not know of Stevenson's plans, but we did hope he would come into Michigan at least twice."

* * *

Mike Novak, president of the Wayne County CIO Council and chairman of the Detroit Labor Day observance, said the joint AFL-CIO committee had not discussed the Stevenson appearance, but would hold a meeting on the question Wednesday or Thursday.

Puzzle vs. Convention

Maybe we're unfair—readers are "word-happy" enough during political convention time without calling upon them to addle their already-overworked minds on a puzzler like Pot-O-Gold.

But, although roll calls may distract and speeches intrigue, we still think a prize of at least $100 is worth a few minutes away from watching history in the making. A new chance to win it is on Page 7 where the first copy of Puzzle No. 12 appears.

The only other raw material you'll need is a pencil, postcard and an assist from the following list of words, all of which are part of the solution: bind, bond, brick, brisk, calf, filed, fix, flied, fox, gun, guy, half, law, lump, now, plum, rack, rock, saw, seance, snob, snub, stack, stalk, stance, stride, strike, stripe, torch, touch, words, works, worms, won.

Oxford Driver Dies of Injuries

Edward J. Holstine, 25, of 2281 Ray Rd., Oxford, died at Pontiac General Hospital today after receiving severe injuries in a Sunday morning accident one-half mile from his home.

Holstine was found unconscious in his car by an Oakland County Sheriff's Patrol. He sustained a fractured skull, punctured lung, possible back injuries, and fractures of an arm and leg when his car went off the road and struck a pole.

An investigation was called to study the possibility of a hit-and-run driver.

Holstine's brother, Andrew, 27, said today he found maroon paint on a fender of the car when he arrived at the scene.

He said his brother had been in the car several hours because he had left an area drive-in for his home 5½ hours before the wrecked car was found.

Puerto Rico's Clown to Hush Up This Time

SAN FRANCISCO (INS)—Marcelino Romany, who provided some comic relief at the 1952 Republican convention, is in San Francisco today to take part in the convention but says he won't play the same role again.

The tiny bald delegate brought down the house in 1952 and had a nation of TV-viewers laughing when he insisted on polling the three-man Puerto Rican delegation. And each time he spoke spelled out his name — R-O-M-A-N-Y.

Old Gazette Offers Pantaloons, Worm Pills

Frequently readers bring The Press copies of newspapers from this general area that date back into the previous century.

* * *

But it remains for Mrs. Edwin L. Tibbals to come up with a real prizewinner. She produces a facsimile of The Detroit Gazette, Volume 1, Number 1, dated July 25, 1817. That's a "right fur piece back"—139 years, no less.

Right off we're intrigued by the price, which is five cents. The paper is four tabloid pages and prints approximately the contents of two standard pages of today's Press. Porportionately, and with no allowance for changes in the times, we should collect around $1 an issue. Confidentally, most of us around here think The Press deserves it, but—

GALOONS AND SNAFFLES

And no modern journalist could hope to pack into 15 column inches the amount of detail crowded into the ad that occupies the traditional "lead story" position of a modern newspaper.

Headlined simply "J. M'Donell," the column lists in article form 333 bargains of the day. It, after laboriously scanning M'Donell's pitch, you still felt inclined to browse you'd find such items as hambro lines, galoons, gentlemen's beaver do, snaffles, saddler's webbs and snuffer trays.

Another tradesman boasts of "a good supply of Indian goods" and advises candidly "traders will do well by calling." The same chap also waxed enthusiastic over bombazetts, ratimetts and bombazines.

Early Michigan Territory settlers had to have good imaginations when confronted with such cryptic Page Two accounts as:

"Last Wednesday two prisoners (Cronant and Bailey) escaped from the city jail. Bailey has been retaken and Cronant was found but the pursuers state he kept them off with a loaded rifle."

Editorial blasts were to the point in those days:

One General Jackson (Andrew, probably) was taken sharply to task on Page Three for an order in which he had expressed displeasure with his officers for obeying War Department orders before they were passed through him.

RIDICULOUSNESS?

Noting that the order "contains a mixture of good sence, passion and ridiculousness," the Gazette's editors further observed that the general's directive denoted "a great irratibility of temper . . ."

The cudgel for marriage as an institution was taken up in an adjoining column by a reader who exulted by way of a salutation: "If you are for pleasure—marry! If you are for rosy health—marry! If even money be your object—marry!

The letter was signed "No Friend of Celibacy."

And why the half-page in French? Well, it seems that about the same proportion of Detroiters in those days knew no other tongue. It all began with their ancestors and an enterprising fellow named Cadillac . . .

Show Passes End Wednesday Morning

Early Wednesday morning is the last time to get free tickets for the Pontiac Merchants sponsored back-to-school theater party.

"Chief Crazy Horse," starring Victor Mature and in full color and CinemaScope will be shown in the three Pontiac Butterfield Theaters, Strand, Oakland and State tomorrow and Wednesday morning at 9:30 for school age children.

The free tickets are available on request from 18 different Pontiac merchants. Children may obtain them if they are accompanied by a parent.

Besides the main feature, several cartoons and a comedy will be shown, says Art Sanford, Pontiac Butterfield Theater manager.

5 Die in Crash at New Buffalo

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A Chicago family of four and a passenger with them were killed in a car-train collision near New Buffalo Sunday, boosting the Michigan weekend accident death roll to 24.

* * *

Eleven others were killed in traffic accidents from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Sunday. Five persons drowned and three died in miscellaneous accidents.

Killed in the New Buffalo crash were Peter Levine, 49, his wife, Molly, about 45, their 14-year-old son Norman and 19-year-old daughter Paula. David Strinel, 12, also of Chicago, and a passenger with the Levines, also died.

Other traffic victims included:

Norman Altenbernt, 39, of Ann Arbor.

Louis Armock, 5, of Sparta.

Carl A. Johnston, 27, and Robert O'Neil, both of Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Maude Jeffries, 63, of Mattawan.

John R. Stayer, 16, of Blissfield.

Cline Conn, 22, of Dana, Ky.

John A. Bos, 39, of Albion.

Harry Meserve, 71, of Baylis, Ill.

Thomas E. Wyatt, 55, of Toledo.

Odis Harville, 33, of Kalamazoo.

Robert Biel, 18, of Jackson.

Mrs. Flossie Wirt, 55, of Beaverton.

Dawn Addie Channels, 2, of Paw Paw.

Killed in miscellaneous mishaps were:

Everett Conklin, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Conklin, strangled on a sweet roll Sunday while the family was having breakfast at its Manistee home.

Leon Johnson, 22, of Detroit, was killed Saturday in an accident on a crack-the-whip ride at a St. Clair Shores amusement park.

8 Hurt, 3 Critically in Highway Collision

Eight persons were seriously injured yesterday afternoon when one car attempted to pass another on M24, two miles south of Lapeer, and crashed headon into an auto coming from the opposite direction.

In critical condition at Flint's Hurley Hospital are Harold Haggadone, 40, and his wife Margaret, 29, of Brown City, both of whom suffered skull fractures. Their two children, Shirley 13, and Paula, 11, were treated for shock, cuts and bruises.

Mrs. Lillie Hannon, 39, of Ferndale, suffered a fractured arm, face and body lacerations, and her son Robert, 13, received critical injuries in the collision. Two other children, Bruce, 9, and Kathleen, 11, were treated for minor cuts.

According to Deputy Duane Parks, Mrs. Hannon crashed into the Haggadone auto when she attempted to pass another vehicle while traveling south on the highway at about 5 p.m. The Hannons were taken to Pontiac General Hospital for treatment.

Wheeler Still Leads in Canvass of Votes

A canvass of votes in Oakland County's Sixth Legislative District increases the slender lead of the winning Republican nominee, County Clerk Lynn D. Allen, said today.

The results give Bruce P. Wheeler 986 votes and the runner-up, Gordon D. Haupt, 977 votes. The previous official total gave Wheeler 980 votes.

The canvass verified earlier counts for other candidates in the district. It was completed by the Board of County Canvassers in the presence of all candidates.

The Democratic nominee is incumbent, Walter T. McMahon.

There has been no request for a recount, Allen said.

CRACK INFANTRYMEN—Top soldiers of the 46th National Guard Division stand at attention during Governor's Day ceremonies at Camp Grayling Saturday. The men were chosen from various units as candidates for the Stewart Medal, awarded annually to the best all-around soldier at the summer encampment. Sgt. Donald Russ of Pontiac, winner of competition in the 125th Infantry Regiment, stands third from the right.

Regiment's Top Infantryman

Area Guardsman Honored

A Pontiac police officer, who switches uniforms for two weeks out of the year to become a "citizen soldier," was acclaimed the top infantryman in the Michigan National Guard's 125th Regiment in ceremonies Saturday.

The distinction won for Sgt. Donald L. Russ the Gen. Thomas A. Colladay Medal when he topped 2,200 eligible candidates in an extensive series of inspections and examinations.

A 27-year-old resident of Waterford Township, Sgt. Russ was presented the award after compiling 93 of a possible 100 points. His closest competitor finished with 80 points.

The Korean War veteran was selected for his excellent work in military courtesy, map reading, interior guard, basic weapons, scouting and patroling, school of the soldier with and without a weapon, first aid, leadership and command and personal appearance. The test included both written and physical exams.

Russ has been a member of Company M and the police since early this year and is already off to an excellent start in both departments. He was a member of a Guard unit in Big Rapids before entering active duty for seven years. Six of those years were spent with the Airborne Rangers.

The sergeant stood at attention with five other top soldiers during Governor's Day ceremonies on the Camp Grayling parade ground as Gov. G. Mennen Williams pinned the Stewart Medal on the chest of S.1.C. Glenn J. Glessner of Three Rivers.

SGT. DONALD RUSS

CITY UNITS PARTICIPATE

Among the marching units participating from every part of the state were Company M of the 125th Infantry Regiment and the 107th Ordnance Company, both of Pontiac.

Governor's Day highlights the two week encampment each year. It also marks the end of the first week of training for the troops.

Gov. Williams conducted his official inspection of the troops accompanied by Maj. Gen. Gordon A. MacDonald, 46th Infantry Division camp commander.

DONDERO ATTENDS

Othes in the reviewing stand included Lt. Gov. Philip Hart, James M. Hare, Secretary of State, Congressman George A. Dondero, Congresswoman Martha Griffith, Maj. Gen. Edgar C. Erickson, Chief of the National Guard Bureau in Washington, State Adjutant General George Moran, and retired Guard leaders, Maj. Gen. Ralph Loveland, and Brig. Gen. Harold Weber.

Williams also presented a citizenship medal to C.I.C. Glenn J. Glessner.

The program got under way with a 19-gun salute for Williams, commander-in-chief of the Michigan National Guard. Following the playing of the Governor's march by the 46th Division band, Gov. Williams made his review of the troops.

The event concluded with the mass parade of all the troops.

Government Switches to Coast

Set Up S.F. White House for Ike's Brief Appearance

By ROBERT B. TARR
Managing Editor, Pontiac Press

SAN FRANCISCO—Should anyone chance to Telephone Room 621 in the St. Francis Hotel the next few days, the answer probably will be: "San Francisco White House."

* * *

For room 621 and the suites surrounding it will be the heart of the federal government during President Eisenhower's brief stay here to accept the Republican nomination. Army Signal Corps has been busy installing direct communication with Washington, including coding and decoding machines.

* * *

A former Pontiac resident, Dr. Sheldon Cherney of the University of Southern California, has just completed a study of humor as used in 254 presidential campaign speeches in the years 1940-52. He is writing a book on the subject.

* * *

Cherney is a graduate of Pontiac High School and the son of Mrs. Rose Cherney, 10054 Talbot St., Huntington Woods. A graduate of the Unievrsity of Arizona and Wayne State University, he will join the MSU faculty in the fall.

* * *

As for the coming campaign, he warns: Get set for a barrage of ridicule and banter as Eisenhower and Stevenson hit their stride. Humor can win votes.

* * *

Many visitors failed to believe stories about San Francisco's cool weather. One delegate told me he shopped a number of large stores looking for a pullover sweater to wear under his coat. There were none left. The temperature is chilly in the early morning; delightful in midday, in the sun; just plain cold after dark. No rain as yet and the weatherman says the chances are 100 to 1 against rain during convention week. Hope he has a better batting average than the FELLOW who misguesses Pontiac weather.

* * *

The pint-size cable cars are still San Francisco's trademark, and usually carry a capacity crowd, plus a dozen or so additional. Passengers get on or off at the front, rear, or either side as convenient. I don't think there is much danger of complete extinction of the cars. Nothing else on steel wheels could possibly climb and descend these hills without the extra pull and brake of the cables.

* * *

Some parts of San Francisco know only two directions: up and down. The worst of GM's Milford torture grades would run a poor second to many here.

* * *

Conventions create some unusual contrasts. While we were listening to Harold Stassen tell newsmen Saturday, in the Fairmont Hotel, that voters will give Ike stronger backing if Nixon is not on the ticket, a crowd was whooping it up in front of the Mark Hopkins across the street upon Nixon's arrival. Stassen claims a national opinion pool shows Nixon's name would weaken the ticket. Many things can happen in the next two or three days, but as of now most everyone expects Nixon to be renamed as Ike's running mate.

An example of how Detroit's Grand Circus Park will look when they get that big, deep hole filled up again is found in San Francisco's downtown Union Square. Underneath the well planted and charming park is a four-story underground garage. Opened in 1942, it was built at a cost of a million and a half, accomodates 1,750 cars and is always well filled.

* * *

Young Republicans are playing an important role in this convention. They have their own headquarters, registered 1,700 of their members before convention week ever opened, and through their local clubs are making a big contribution to the many details of running a big convention.

Pontiac Deaths

Louvenia Dersons

Louvenia Dersons, 35, of 407 Branch St., died Saturday in Pontiac General Hospital after an illness of nine months.

She was the daughter of Manuel Helbert and Alice England, and was born August 4, 1921 in West Baton Rouge, La. She attended school there and was a member of the Pleasant Grove Missionary Baptist Church.

Coming from Benton Harbor, she was a resident of the city for six years.

Funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. Friday from the Pleasant Grove Missionary Baptist Church with burial in Oak Hill Cemetery. Rev. S. Littlejohn of the Pleasant Grove Missionary Baptist Church will officiate.

The body may be viewed at 7 p.m. Wednesday at the Frank Carruthers Funeral Home.

Leslie Ann Gibbons

Leslie Ann Gibbons, infant daughter of Robert and Jeanne L'Amoreaux Gibbons, 25631 Woodbine Dr., died Saturday in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital one day after birth.

Besides her parents, she is survived by six brothers and sisters; Regina Rae, Robert John, Gerard Michael, Jo'Ellen, Christopher Mark, and Jeffrey Stevens, all at home.

Funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. from St. Benedicts Church, with burial in Mt. Hope Cemetery. The body may be viewed in Brace-Smith Funeral Home.

Thomas M. Hennessey

Thomas M. Hennessey, 74, of 518 West Huron St. died Saturday in Detroit after an illness of two years.

Mr. Hennessey was born in Cass City January 10, 1882, the son of Thomas and Ellen Mullen Hennessey. In 1915 he married the late Catherine A. Hughs in St. Vincent de Paul's Church here.

A resident of the city for 50 years, and a member of St. Michael's Catholic Church, Mr. Hennessey was employed as Health Inspector for the Pontiac Health Department.

He was past president of St. Michael's Holy Name Society and of St. Michael's Ushers Club, as well as a member of the First Friday Club.

Survivors include a brother, Daniel Hennessey of Cass City, and nieces Mrs. Catherine Hylla and Mrs. Margaret Kraft, both of Pontiac.

Recitation of the Rosary will be this evening at 8 p.m. at the Farmer-Snover Funeral Home. Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 9 a.m. from St. Michael's Church, with burial in Mt. Hope Cemetery. Rev. Michael J. O'Reilly of St. Michael's will officiate.

William Leaske

Word has been received of the death of former Pontiac resident William Leaske, who died Sunday at Grand Ledge.

Called to Grand Ledge yesterday were Mr. Leaske's two daughters, Mrs. Worth Eastman and Mrs. Fred Johnson, both of Pontiac.

Funeral service and burial will be held in Grand Ledge later this week.

Claude M. Lessel

Claude M. Lessel, 79, who made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Thad Beall at 274 State Ave., died yesterday at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after an illness of one year.

Born in Star City, Ark., Nov. 17, 1876, he was the son of Albland and Mary Pierce Lessel. In 1904 he married the former Kittie Shackelford.

He came to Pontiac three and a half years ago from Poteau, Okla., where he was a member of the First Baptist Church. Previously employed as a grocer in Rock Island, Okla. and postmaster from 1934 to 1947, he moved to Poteau after retiring.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a son, William and a daughter, Mrs. Beall both of Pontiac; another daughter, Mrs. Ernestine Brake of Arkansas, seven grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren; and a brother, Rossor, of Poaeau.

Funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow from the Davis Funeral Home, with burial in the Oak Hill Cemetery. Officiating will be Rev. William E. Hakes.

Fred Rice Jr.

Fred Rice Jr., 37, of 275 Rockwell St. died yesterday at his home after an illness of seven months.

He was born in Mindon, La., June 26, 1919, the son of Fred and Myrtle Salter Rice. There he attended school and married the former Nancie Thomas in 1941.

A member of the New Bethel Baptist Church, he was also deacon of that church. Mr. Rice was employed at Pontiac Motors.

Surviving besides his wife are a daughter, Mary at home; his parents, and two brothers, Alex of Pontiac, and Calvin of Mindon.

Funeral service and burial will be held in Minden, La. next Sunday with the Rev. A. R. Coleman of the New Light Baptist Church officiating. The body may be viewed at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the Frank Carruthers Funeral Home.

James U. Spires

James Urban Spires, 18, of 90 N. Francis St., died yesterday at the National Guard Camp, Grayling, in a tank accident.

The son of Joseph S. and Theresa Frick Spires, he was born Jan. 31, 1938, in Pontiac.

A June graduate of Pontiac High School and a member of the First Church of God, he was previously employed at the Peoples Food O'Mat. He was a member of the 107 Ordnance Co. of the National Guard.

Besides his parents, he is survived by 11 brothers and sisters; Joseph, of Lake Charles, La.; Mrs. Jacqueline Gotz of Enid, Okla.; John P. of Detroit; Gerald of Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Johanna Darnell of Milford; and Jason, Jeffery, Julian, Josiah, Janet, and Janella, all at home.

Funeral service will be held at 1:30 p.m. Thursday from the First Church of God, with burial in Roseland Park Cemetery. Rev. Eugene Ramsey of the First Church of God will officiate. The body may be viewed this evening in the Huntoon Funeral Home.

The Day in Birmingham

Schone at Helm as City Faces New Fund Snags

BIRMINGHAM — City Manager Harold Schone began work this morning, just in time to iron out new snags in financing of the city's proposed parking lots and its share of the Twelve Town drain estimated costs.

But if secretaries are the ones that break in new executives, Birmingham's different—Schone's secretary is on vacation and Whitman's secretary is on sick leave.

A staff meeting was called for this afternoon for Schone, and tonight he will face his first city commission meeting.

A new blow at the parking lot finances was struck Friday when the Circuit Court awarded $97,700 to three property owners of lots being condemned for proposed Parking Lot No. 4.

The amount was slightly over what the city expected to pay for the three parcels, according to Juhl, but will not prevent financing of lot No. 4 along with Lots 3-A and HH in the north sector of town.

No. 4 will be at Brownell and Forest, a block south and east of Maple and Woodward.

But the city will be too strapped to plan further lots with present parking funds, Juhl says.

The commission will be faced tonight by need of determination of the 1956 levy for the Twelve Town Drain, according to Clark Hagstorm, city assessor.

The levy decision must be in the hands of the county clerk by Aug. 27 to be included in winter taxes, Hagstrom says.

The taxes would be added to about $5,000 already netted by the city towards the expected Twelve Town first payment. The payment according to L. R. Gare, who was acting city manager until Schone arrived, will be made in April, 1958.

* * *

Tonight's commission meeting will include hearings on the extension and paving of Ferndale street, widening of Park street, paving of Park from Oakland to Hamilton, and putting in a sidewalk on Eton from Cole street south 178 feet.

A request of Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley for a new car for use in radar-traffic work will be considered. It would be unmarked, with eight cylinders rather than the six of the city's regular cars.

John T. Clark

Born in Baltimore, Md., he came to Birmingham 37 years ago from Illinois. Retiring in 1944 as a bulk distributor of Standard Oil products in Birmingham, he had been with the firm for 37 years, 25 of them here.

Surviving are his wife, Estella Mae, three daughters, Mrs. Marguerite Aulph, Mrs. Helen Giddens and Mrs. Virginia Bell, of Birmingham; two sons, Milford and Raymond of this area; two sisters, Roberta Clark and Mrs. James Blanchard of Pontiac.

Service will be at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co., tomorrow at 1 p.m. with burial in White Chapel Cemetery.

Republicans Meet Nixon in 'Open Fight'

with delight as his 1956 running mate.

* * *

Hall, Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams, and Nixon all denied knowledge of the existence of any such list.

PUTS ON PRESSURE

A Southern revolt against a strongly worded civil rights plank in the party platform erupted explosively, and Committee Chairman Sen. Prescott Bush of Connecticut was forced to call for peacemaking pressure from the White House.

Dixie Republicans led by Thad Hutcheson of Houston, and Charles Beaird of Shreveport, La., threatened an angry struggle on the convention floor if Northerners hammer down a plank calling for new federal laws for enforcement of the Supreme Court decision outlawing racial segregation in public schools.

Already nailed down is a foreign policy plank pledging support of Israel "against armed aggression" but avoiding the Suez issue with which Secretary of State John Foster Dulles is now grappling. The plank affirmed the GOP's stand against admission of Red China to the United Nations and reiterated the call for liberation of the Soviet Union's captive states.

* * *

The conventioneers headed for the Cow Palace on the outskirts of the mist-bathed, glamorous city still headily aglow from last night's colossal torchlight parade, rally and fireworks display.

The noise and splendor, the bands and flares, the cloppety-clop of horses' hooves, the mounted precision of the sheriff's posses in the line of march, and the eerie glow of crimson flares gave the occasion an Arabian Nights touch in keeping with the spectacular quality of the Republican pageantry.

Ike Concurs on Ban Against China Travel

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today gave his "full concurrnce" to a State Department policy of refusing to grant valid passports to newsmen to visit Red China.

Acting Secretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr. disclosed the White House support in a one-sentence staement. It said:

"The acting secretary of state today stated that the President has authorized the department to make clear the President's full concurrence in the policy statement issued by the State Department on Aug. 7, 1956, regarding travel to Communist China."

In its Aug. 7 statement, the department noted that some American newsmen had been invited by the Peiping regime to visit Communist China. The State Department promptly turned thumbs down.

They Never Give Up

MOSCOW (AP)— Pravda said today the outlawed Communist party in West Germany will continue to fight—presumably underground—for "a radiant new future for the German nation."

Searchers Seek Lad in New Mexico Hills

PECOS, N.M. (AP)—Search parties today combed the rain-soaked Pecos Hills and streams for an 11-year-old Santa Fe boy who vanished Saturday while seeking aid for a blind companion.

Bobby Martinez, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Martinez of Santa Fe., hasn't been heard of since 2 p.m. Saturday when he and a companion, Albert Gonzales, blind Santa Fe attorney, were caught by a rain storm.

They took refuge under a tree, and Bobby volunteered to run back to the ranch where his parents were staying to obtain transportation for Gonzales. He never reached the ranch.

Staggers Into Police to Strike Up Friendship

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—An Albuquerque man Clyde Shye, 20, staggered off the streets into police headquarters last night, insisted he had been in the jail four days and demanded his freedom.

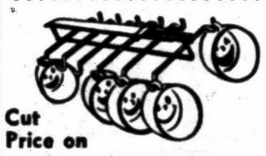

Officers hadn't seen him before, but expect to get to know him better. He was charged with drunkenness.

The death rate among owners of 80,000,000 ordinary-life-insurance policies hit a new low in 1955 of 599 per 100,000. This compares with 608 per 100,000 the year before and 790 in 1945.

Loophole to Act

Countywide Drain Body Many End Area's Problem

County officials are pondering a new idea for solving the area's growing drain problems.

Suggested by retiring Drain Commissioner Ralph A. Main at a recent meeting of the Drain Committee, the Ways and Means Committee and the Detroit Builders Assn., the idea is to create a countywide "department of public works."

"If we could guarantee the full faith and credit of the county on bond financed projects, we'd go a long way toward circumventing some of the impossible restrictions of the County Drain Act," Main said yesterday.

Details of the scheme still need study and work, Main said, and enabling legislation probably would have to be passed in Lansing.

County officials hail the idea as a much-needed means to provide county initiative in starting and carrying through projects embracing more than one community.

At present, projects such as the Twelve Towns Relief Drain must be started by the voluntary cooperation of all communities involved. County engineers and financial experts step in only after the communities have formally agreed to the project.

"Many times, communities fail to cooperate because they simply don't have enough money to provide their share of the cost," Delos Hamlin, chairman of the County Board of Supervisors, said today.

Find Loophole in Jobless Plan

UAW to Use Obscure Part of Law Extending Pay for 44 Weeks

DETROIT (AP) — Using a little-known section of the Michigan Employment Security Act, the United Auto Workers union today launched a program to thin the bulging ranks of the state's unemployed.

Under the section, idled workers can train for new jobs while receiving up to 44 weeks, nearly 10 months, of state unemployment benefits, the union said. Such benefits lapse after 26 weeks under normal conditions.

The plan came out of conferences between the UAW, Gov. Williams and state agencies, Clayton E. Johnson, UAW unemployment and workmen's compensation director, said over the weekend. It is to be put into effect "immediately," he added.

* * *

The Michigan Employment Security Commission will announce details of the plan later, Johnson said. MESC offices will interview applicants to determine their qualifications.

Not all who apply will be declared eligible, Johnson added.

It will not solve the employment problem in Michigan, Johnson admitted, but "it will help relieve the contradictory situation we have been in during recent months in which thousands of skilled and semi-skilled jobs go begging while more than 232,000 workers are without jobs."

He noted that the retraining provision has been a part of the state law for the past 18 years, but only 25 unemployed workers have used it.

Hoffa Off to Israel to Lay Cornerstone

NEW YORK (AP)—Detroit Teamster Boss James R. Hoffa is en route to Israel today to lay the cornerstone for a children's home to be built with money raised at a testimonial for him.

* * *

Hoffa and his daughter, Barbara Ann, were in a party of 25 leaving here by plane yesterday for Israel. The group will spend 10 days in Israel and confer with European labor leaders in Rome, Paris and London.

Some $300,000 was raised for the Israel children's home at a testimonial dinner in Detroit last April for Hoffa, the Teamster International vice president. The hospital will be known as the Beth Hoffa home for children.

Expects Changes in CD Policies

A revision can be expected of federal policies related to Civil Defense welfare activities, Mrs. John F. Warren, Oakland County's coordinator of emergency welfare service, said.

* * *

Mrs. Warren and her husband, West Bloomfield Township's Civil Defense director, recently returned from the first Federal Civil Defense Staff College held Aug. 13-17 in Battle Creek.

The change will be necessary "in order to handle the increased number of people coming out of target areas," Mrs. Warren said. She added the change is expected as the result of reports submitted to federal authorities from representatives of 27 states and Canada who attended the session.

West Hopes That Nasser Will Change Suez Stand

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles has offered a plan to settle the Suez Canal crisis in the crucial London conference.

* * *

In the ferment of current Arab nationalism the plan failed to get a good reception in Cairo. But the Western powers are hoping that Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser can find a way to "save face" and accept it.

Dulles firmly proposes that the canal be internationally controlled, that Egypt have a fair return out of canal revenue, and that the Suez Canal Company which Egypt nationalized be given adequate compensation.

All these proposals should be acceptable to Egypt on the basis of what Nasser has said—except the proposal for international control. He insists that Egypt have a dominant voice in any control mechanism created to govern the canal.

* * *

Russia can be depended on to back Nasser, but to what extent still remains to emerge from the London conference.

FUTURE MEETINGS

If the conference fails, as Russia, India and others predict it will, there probably will be future conferences. Nasser presumably is banking on a long drawn-out process in the hope that he will get his way eventually.

The British and French do not want to use force, but this possibility is not overlooked even by the United States, which seeks to prevent it.

Britain is muting the fact that it is sending troops to the eastern Mediterranean. But to Egyptian and Russian complaints that this is exerting unfair pressure, the London government says, in effect.

"We already have had an example of aggression in Nasser's seizure of the canal. It may not have been a territorial aggression but it was pure aggression. And we have to be on guard in case there is another example of it."

* * *

The Western allies are moving cautiously in this dispute, after the first initial anger. If the situation is wrongly handled, Arab nationalism may reach heights provoking military conflict.

TEMPTING EXAMPLE

Beyond the specter of war there also is a Western realization that if Nasser goes unchallenged in breaking the Suez Canal Company concession, other nations will be tempted to tear up existing agreements.

* * *

This could cause great turmoil, but not only for the West. Underdeveloped nations, or "emergent nations" as they are sometimes called by London, would find themselves bereft of Western financial aid in their struggle to raise the standard of living in their respective countries.

Teach Safety to Children

Knowing Them by Rote May Reduce Accidents and Save Lives

With thousands of youngsters again scheduled to be crossing U. S. highways daily on their way to and from school, Brakeblok safety engineers offer these suggestions for parents to tell children:

1. Never to run across a street. The additional seconds it takes them to walk from the curb into traffic lanes will usually give drivers enough extra time to brake their cars to a stop.

* * *

2. Not to move into traffic lanes from behind a parked car.

* * *

3. To look to left and right before stepping off the curb.

4. To cross at intersections only and obey traffic signals where they exist.

* * *

5. To watch out for vehicles turning the corner where they are about to cross.

* * *

In the quest for a reduction of the nation's awesome auto accident toll, one of the brighter signs of progress is the increasing emphasis being placed on driver instruction in safe motoring.

A program of driver education in high schools, which began in 1936, has been steadily expanding to a point where today almost half of the two million youngsters who annually come of licensing age are benefiting by some type of school driving instruction.

The American Automobile Association, which is extremely active in this program, believes that this type of driver education "offers the greatest single potential for safer use of highways of any program ever offered."

* * *

Russo-Jap Peace Talk Broken off in Moscow

Anyone aware of Russia's postwar expansionist aims won't be surprised by the collapse in Moscow of peace negotiations with Japan.

Foreign Minister Shigemitsu had to report from there that the Russians wouldn't make any concessions the Japanese regard as vital to them. As a result, differences between the two countries seem irreconcilable.

It now is more than eleven years since Japan admitted defeat and surrendered. After a period of U.S. occupation, there followed a general peace treaty. Russia, which was in the war only one week, refused to sign and since has been trying to impose its own drastic terms.

So far, all the Russians have held out as inducements are increased trade and support of Tokyo's admission to the United Nations. While offering return of some small islands off Hokkaido, the USSR refuses to give up the two most southern islands of the Kurile chain. These are important to food short Japan because of their excellent fishing grounds.

The government in Tokyo is under pressure to conclude a treaty and to get some of the "promised" trade. But it would be a mistake for it to count on any increase. That's a lesson more than one country has learned from trusting Russian promises.

With Moscow's terms already labeled "final," there is serious doubt as to whether the negotiations can be revived.

Automatic Supermarket

This invasion is scheduled for September. At that time about a dozen new test markets, one of them in New York, will be equipped with electronic and automatic machinery to serve patrons.

★ ★ ★

Principal feature of the new equipment in the markets to be opened by the Independent Grocers Alliance (IGA), is a combination of electronic gadgets and conveyor belts. Customers will be able to push buttons opposite the food items they want to buy. This will bring them sales slips showing the cost. When they pay the amount at the checkout counter, their orders will await them, wrapped and ready to take away.

★ ★ ★

It's estimated that such purchases will result in a saving of 80 per cent of the shopper's time. Even more time can be saved by use of the card system which will be another feature. The cards can be punched at home to indicate items desired and fed into the system at the supermarket. The result is the same as though the housewife had pushed the buttons in the stores.

★ ★ ★

It will be interesting to watch how this experiment is received by the public. IGA's President Don R. Grimes believes these stores will cut distribution costs and reduce original investments. If he proves to be right and the Nation's housewives like the idea, the era of pushbutton food shopping would be here to stay.

"Tests show that people are more likely to believe a lie than the truth," says a psychologist. No doubt. Truth is stranger than fiction, and accordingly less plausible.

Medical Insurance Gains

An interesting development of the times is the continued increase in the amount of medical insurance being carried by the American people.

According to the Health Insurance Council, last year's growth of hospital, surgical and regular medical expense insurance was to be expected. It merely was continuation of a spectacular trend in progress for more than a decade.

Moreover, it is reflected in the 20 per cent increase in benefit payments so far this year over 1955. That, in turn, reflects the progress made in this country in bringing health insurance protection to more nearly adequate levels and the continued spread of ownership.

As a result, a total of 110,000,000 persons now are protected by hospital insurance and 94,000,000 by surgical policies. Besides these 58,000,000 have regular medical expense coverage and seven million are insured against major medical costs.

These facts show beyond doubt that the competitive system and the voluntary, free enterprise idea have worked well in medical insurance. In the words of the Council "the inherent vitality of the voluntary health insurance movement is continually being demonstrated by the development of new and improved insurance methods."

David Lawrence Says:

Negative Endorsement Ok'd Estes

EN ROUTE FROM CHICAGO TO SAN FRANCISCO—The inside story of what really occurred at the Democratic national convention in selecting a vice presidential nominee bears little resemblance to what the American people were led to believe happened.

For one thing, it was not by any means a precedent-breaking method. For the same kind of contest for the vice presidency took place at the Democratic national convention in Chicago only 12 years ago, when Henry Wallace almost went over the top and Truman came from behind with the private blessing of FDR and the big city bosses to dump the then vice president.

Just as Franklin Roosevelt played it coyly at that time and pretended publicly to be leaving it to an "open" convention, so did Adlai Stevenson do the same thing last week. In 1944 Truman, Wallace and Justice Douglas all were supposed to be satisfactory to FDR as vice presidential nominees, but behind the scenes the skillful work of the late Robert Hannegan of Missouri, national chairman—with the knowledge and consent of President Roosevelt—did the trick, and Wallace was sidetracked for Truman, friend of Hannegan.

NEGATIVE ENDORSEMENT

To understand what happened, it is necessary to relate that Stevenson himself, after being nominated, sat down late Thursday night with prominent leaders singly and, while endeavoring to avoid a positive selection, did nevertheless say enough negatively about the political weaknesses of nearly every man proposed as to leave no doubt that he wanted Kefauver named.

Stevenson knew that Sen. Kennedy—whose father, Joseph P. Kennedy, is a multimillionaire and a good contributor to the campaign funds of the Democrats—had been making for several months a vigorous and intensive canvass throughout the Democratic organizations of the country in the hope of landing the vice presidential nomination. It was the only organized effort of consequence for the vice presidential nomination. There were many stories widely circulated in behalf of Kennedy about how important it is for the Democratic party in the North to win back some of the Roman Catholic vote it supposedly lost in 1952. Since Kennedy is a Catholic, his backers used that argument to offset any claim about a possible defection in the South if he were named.

If Stevenson had turned thumbs down on Kennedy and had openly favored Kefauver, he would have antagonized the Kennedy followers and also the supporters of Mayor Wagner of New York, another Catholic. While Stevenson said he had not made any commitments to Kefauver, nevertheless the Tennessee senator did withdraw in his favor and a few weeks ago gave a big bloc of votes to the former Illinois governor to help assure his nomination. So it was a tough pill to ask Kefauver's manager to swallow when they were told they must seek the vice presidential nomination in an "open" convention.

DEEP OBLIGATION

Kefauver, therefore, was logical and, whether or not Stevenson admitted it publicly, he was under deep obligation to the Tennessee senator. It was assumed that Kefauver would win anyway on the first ballot and that the Kennedy and Wagner forces at least would have a run for their money. As for Kennedy, he is only 39 years old and is a comer in politics. He might even be the party nominee for the presidency in 1960. He got a wonderful buildup for the race four years from now and should be happy.

The reason for Kennedy's big vote was the sudden switch in the South. It was actually a "stop-Kefauver" maneuver. The bitterness against Kefauver was not concealed. Kefauver had deserted his southern brethren on the segregation issue. To them this was unforgivable, and they said so. His own state of Tennessee wouldn't endorse him as a favorite son on the first ballot. By voting for Kennedy, the other southern states accomplished two things—they not only showed their dislike of Kefauver, but they showed the Democratic Party that the southern political leaders are not prejudiced against a Catholic. Incidentally, when Al Smith, a Catholic, was named for the presidency in 1928 on the first ballot—before it was made unanimous—he had almost all of Louisiana's votes and some strength in the other southern delegations but not as much as Kennedy got this time.

How was the message—to get behind Kefauver—conveyed to the big bosses who swung in line for him at the opportune moment? This is an invisible phase of American politics. The word was passed down—as it always is. The tip-off came in the Illinois and Pennsylvania delegations, which on the second ballot withdrew some of the Kennedy votes and did what they felt Stevenson wanted done. It was an interesting spectacle but a contrived result. It was Adlai Stevenson's influence and the maneuvers of his own managers which brought the vice presidential nomination to Estes Kefauver. That's the inside story.

Smiles

A Michigan man has a TV set that has run for three years without any fixing. That's probably why it still runs.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Doctor Ridicules Advice Released by Medical Body

From time to time I have quoted statements of the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation. I have assumed that statistical statements of the Foundation are accurate, but I have questioned some of the views, opinions or theories that somehow get mixed in with the statistics.

The latest official statement given out by the Foundation July 16th frankly admits that it is "not known why the farmer who spends most of his life in the healthful outdoors should be the nation's leading arthritis sufferer."

Although I expect nine out of every 10 poor souls who think they have arthritis will react indignantly, I must nevertheless point out that that is not all that is not known about chronic joint disability.

Then, conforming to standard medical custom, the Foundation oraculates as follows:

1. Don't overdo more than you absolutely must.
2. Get sufficient rest.
3. Stop for a breather several times in the course of the day.

4. Prevent wear and tear on the muscles by warming up before a day of strenuous activity. Simple setting up exercises will do. (Remember, I'm quoting this verbatim).

5. Start the day with the lightest chores.
6. Try to overcome worry and unpleasant situations.
7. Don't forget regular medical checkups.

Honestly, now, I wonder if anybody in Yankeeland today would overdo more than he "absolutely must."

Maybe I am singularly lacking in that kindness and sympathy a real doctor should have, but I can't help chuckling at the thought of the ambitious farmer or his hired man springing out of bed at 4 a.m. to do his setting up exercises before he starts getting in the hay.

The Foundation should apply for a trademark on that No. 6 idea. Not only the farmers, but most of us loafers who manage to live without working need such sage advice to help us cope with rent, taxes, and parking tickets.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Voice of the People

More Readers Discuss Death Penalty Problem

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

"Does any person or group of people have either the duty or the right to take a person's life?" asks the Rev. Widdifield in his letter.

Our reply is that in the case of a confessed murderer the state most assuredly does have both the duty and the right to execute the killer.

May we refer to Genesis 9:6, "Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man." Numbers 35:30 says: "Whoso killeth any person, the murderer shall be put to death." and Numbers 35:31: "Moreover ye shall take no ransom for the life of a murder, which is guilty of death: but he shall surely be put to death."

The latter two references pertain specifically to Israel, but certainly they apply in principle and concept to all nations. The first reference is definitely addressed to the entire race of mankind.

R. F. Dohner
36 S. Tasmania Ave.

I am one who believes that if a man would take one of my children and in cold blood kill it, I could see the worst happen to him. The easiest thing for people to do now days is to talk and maybe think of what maybe is right, but we all know if that happened to one of our loved ones, we would want the man taken care of. I know two wrongs never make a right, but why let him go so he will in time get a chance to make two wrongs.

I think if the people of Michigan would have the guts to get out and vote for capital punishment, that many of the murders wouldn't happen. I think if we are to be good citizens, we should vote for it, but until we do, we had all better keep our mouths shut as to being good citizens.

I have three young boys, and if one or all of them would go out and kill in cold blood, I could see them take capital punishment. There isn't a mother in the world who thinks any more of her children than I do, and this may sound hard of a mother to say, but my children must live up to the right things before they become good citizens. If they don't, let them take their punishment, even though they wouldn't suffer much in Michigan.

How many of you agree with me that jail now days is a summer resort?

Lois M. Linson
644 N. View Ct.

To "Angry Mother" and those of you who want capital punishment. Do you not have faith in the Great Leader of all scouts? Read your Bible, prayer book or Catechism. When you come to the Fifth Commandment, read it many times and think before you would be in favor of such a law.

There are so many loopholes in some man-made laws I would be afraid some innocent people would be executed by being framed or otherwise merely because all evidence pointed toward them. It could be someone very dear to you or me. As for Howard Moore, I would say, "God, forgive him, for he knew not what he did." He was drunk and it was excessive indulgence in the bad habit which actually caused the hideous crime.

His wife probably feels just as bad about it as anyone and yet she must be a good woman who takes her marriage vows seriously or she wouldn't stand by him in his trouble. It's too bad the mother of the little girl had to work away from home to help support her family.

God created all of us and what He has so created, do not let any man put assunder.

GTM

I agree with you concerning your editorial in favor of a death law. What does a life sentence mean to Howard Moore? The Michigan taxpayer can provide lodging, food and clothing and, if the prisoner works a few hours, give him $15 and a good Christmas dinner.

How many tears did he shed for helpless little Martha? God forbid that we have to witness such a tragedy in this community. What can we do to protect our children?

One Who Favors Death Penalty

The Scriptures teach us that "Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed." And again it says "He that smiteth a man so that he dieth, shall surely be put to death."

Notice that it does not say to take a murderer and lock him up and feed him the rest of his life at the expense of the people. This law was given by our Creator Himself for the protection of society and to protect an individual's right to live. When the individual's right to live has been violated, God Himself demanded the murderer's life whether it was caused from sexual or premeditated murder.

My own personal opinion is that the state that does not carry out the capital punishment that God has given to government is just as guilty of the murder as the one who commits it. Government is of God and when the demands that God sets forth are not obeyed, society pays for it.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Ignorance Is Cause of Divorce

Dorothy's experience shows that you should never let a young couple marry without giving them the booklet named below. For most adults are woefully ignorant of the functional differences between the two sexes. Divorce is usually due to ignorance, so insure permanent marital happiness by presenting newlyweds with this simple 20 cent (non-profit) booklet.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case S-343: Dorothy M., aged 29, is the mother of two little girls.

Although she had a husband who provided financially for the family and loved them, Dorothy feuded with him regarding sex matters.

* * *

She even debated getting a divorce, but her clergyman said she was not warranted in considering such drastic action.

But she remained neurotic and frustrated. Then she wrote me a long letter in care of her local newspaper.

But she failed to enclose a stamped return envelope and the usual 20 cent fee, so her letter would normally have been disregarded.

For we can't possibly handle this educational mail service unless you readers at least defray the bare costs of paper and secretarial labor.

I donate all my time and derive no royalties in any manner from the booklets we send you, but I can't also underwrite all the other costs, though I still must donate all my speaking fees to wipe out the losses.

* * *

But my cousin Mildred, who sorts the mail before it reaches my desk is soft hearted. She insisted Dorothy's problem was acute. So I said send her the booklet "Sex Problems in Marriage," regardless, which is what we do in thousands of crucial cases.

MARRIAGE COUNSELLING

Well, here is just one of thousands of cases to prove that newspapers can salvage many unhappy marriages. Notice Dorothy's recent reply:

"Dr. Crane, I can't express my appreciation adequately for what you have done for us by your newspaper booklet 'Sex Problems in Marriage.

* * *

"We had bought three different books on marriage problems but none of them solved our difficulty, partly because they were too vague as regards the intimate aspects of marriage.

"Meanwhile, I had felt that our difficulty was all in my husband. But after reading your booklet, I realized that I was about 95 per cent to blame.

"In the few months since I received that booklet, I have reorganized my thinking, and have finally begun to function as a real wife.

"Not only is my husband now delighted with me (In fact, we act like newlyweds).

"But for the first time in my eight years of marriage, I am now completely happy and relaxed.

"My nervous tension has vanished and I no longer act indifferent to my husband or shun his affection.

"In our neighborhood club there were several other wives like me who were tense and dissatisfied. Some of them had started to smoke cigarets just to drain off their jitters.

"But I have passed your booklet around and at least two of these other wives have now experienced similar remarkable changes in their relations with their husbands.

"So tell your readers, before they ever consider divorce, to use that booklet for a few weeks and try out the advice it gives."

IGNORANCE CAUSES DIVORCE

A large number of divorces are caused by ignorance. You can't expect to be happily married all your life, if you are steering blindly or have no exact road maps to guide you to your destination.

In past generations, young couples were married and then sent on their way to grope blindly. Is it any wonder that 20 per cent ended in smash-ups?

* * *

Morality is based on scientific rules, so insure the continuation of your courtship love by learning the true facts.

There are marked differences between the two sexes, not just in anatomy but in function. That's where most married couples err.

So send for my booklet, "Sex Problems in Marriage," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents. Take it on your honeymoon and read it together.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Solve 16 Clues, WinPot-O-Gold in Press Game

The prize in the Press' summer Pot-O-Gold continues to grow. This week we add another $100 — it's the least some lucky reader can win if he or she comes up with the correct solution to Puzzle No. 12. There's no easy way to win. The best advice we can give is to read the rules carefully, analyze the clues and get your entry in before the Tuesday deadline cited in Rule No. 3. Good luck!

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below.

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conforms to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

OFFICIAL CONTEST RULES

1. Anyone is eligible to enter the POT-O-GOLD contest with the exception of Pontiac Press employes or their immediate families.

2. A contestant may submit as many entries as he or she wishes but they must be on official entry blanks printed in this newspaper.

3. To submit an entry the contestant must print his answer words in the proper spaces, cut out the area enclosed by dotted lines and attach it securely to a 2-cent postcard. No entries will be accepted if they are in envelopes. Entries for Puzzle No. 12 must bear a Tuesday, Aug. 28, postmark (or before). No entries received after that time, whether mailed or delivered by hand, will be declared eligible. The Press is not responsible for entries lost or delayed in the mail.

4. Sorry, telephone calls or mail concerning details of the contest cannot be answered or acknowledged.

5. The Pontiac Press will award a cash prize of $100 a week to the winner of each weekly POT-O-GOLD contest. If more than one winning answer is received the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If any week or weeks should pass without any winners, the prize will be added weekly until a winning solution is submitted.

6. Winners will be awarded an extra cash bonus of $25 each if they are Pontiac Press subscribers of record on the day winners are announced. Only one such bonus can be awarded to each prize-winner, no matter how many weekly prizes may accumulate.

7. Each week's puzzle will be published Monday, Wednesday and Friday until the contest's end, Labor Day. Either or all will be considered as official entry blanks.

8. Winners and correct solutions will be announced each Friday of the week following individual contests. Official keeper of answers will be Frederick C. Ziem, prosecutor for Oakland County. Only the General Features Corp., originators of the puzzles, will know the solutions until after each contest is over. Answers will be delivered to the Press judges by Mr. Ziem after the final deadline.

9. There is only one correct solution to the POT-O-GOLD puzzle, and only that correct answer can win. The decision of the judges is final and all contestants agree to abide by the judges' decision. All entries become the property of The Pontiac Press and none can be returned.

10. Completed puzzles must be addressed to POT-O-GOLD, POST OFFICE BOX 58, Pontiac, Michigan. Winners will be notified either by telephone or in the mails.

Diana Dors Takes Swim, Says Cameraman Shoved

* * *

The British couple went into the water at the shallow end of the pool last night along with two male guests. All were fully clothed.

The other two in the dunked quartet were Miss Dors' agent, Louis Schurr, and her dress designer, Howard Shoup.

The photographer, Stuart Sawyer, 32, of the United Press, was slugged in a fight that followed. Hamilton admitted striking Sawyer, who later flatly denied pushing anyone.

* * *

Miss Dors complained of a sore back and was put to bed. Her physician, Dr. Stanley Immerman said she received "numerous bruises and abrasions" and that X-ray pictures would be taken.

Dr. Immerman said Hamilton's hand also was hurt.

Sawyer, a United Press employe for seven years, suffered a possible broken nose, facial lacerations and bruises on the face, head and ribs, a physician reported.

Hamilton later said he held no grudge against the photographer and was willing to "let bygones be bygones."

GOP Promises an 'Entertaining' Convention

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

SAN FRANCISCO (INS) — There's a great deal of high-toned gossip going around (high-toned being the kind of gossip spread by socialites and men who are high) to the effect that this will be a dull convention.

* * *

There's also a low-brow rumor (low-brow being the kind of rumor spread by small, worrying type fellas) which says it will be explosive.

To get the straight story, you go see Judy Weis, the national planning chairman.

She knows everything, from how many elephants Ike needs to put on a good show to which newspapermen are replacing what bales of hay in the Cow Palace.

"You may think I'm prejudiced, since I'm a Republican "but I think this is going to be the most joyous, easy political convention ever held. The sessions will be short, the speeches will be short, and the enthusiasm will be long.

"We have been working a year and a half on it," she says—"You know it takes a long time to arrive at a good, stimulating state of chaos. And I am sure you'll find there's nothing boring about it."

Mrs. Weis added, as she slyly slipped us a rhinestone "I like Ike" pin, that if we were the type who likes to whoop we would have a fine time in San Francisco.

DEFINITION OF WHOOP

After a week of work, reporters need a definition of that word whoop. "Oh you know," explained Mrs. Weis, "forgetting that depressing Democratic convention!"

The first woman ever to be in charge of planning a political soiree of this magnitude, Judy Weis is a grandmother with blue-gray hair and bounce, who manages to look like a Wellesley girl, improved with age, about to return for her 15th reunion. She also does not think in the grandmere manner.

"It's a big thing now with TV, trying to put on an entertaining program and still keeping it serious—because of course this is serious business," she says. "I'm so happy about Mr. Eisenhower and the outlook, I guess I would have had dancing girls jumping out of pies every day at noon.

"But I guarantee," and she folded her delicate hands demurely, "our convention will be entertaining, and still in good taste."

Mrs. Weis lives in Rochester, N.Y., when she's not politicking, with a husband who runs a lithograph company and is connected with the Republican Party "only by virtue of having to live with me."

She first became interested in politics because of "a deep-seated hatred of housework." How did she get into this planning job?

"Why, I read it in the newspapers."

OOPS, PARDON ME

Republican national boss Leonard Hall appointed her two years ago as chairman of the planning committee for the national convention and neglected to mention it to her personally.

They have gotten together many times since, in Washington and here, and Hall thinks Judy has done a peachy job, except in the allocation of rooms to official Republican pages, press, radio and TV.

"We took a little run around the hotels a few weeks ago and I pointed out where everybody was going. Finally Len turned to me and said, 'Swell. Everybody's taken care of. Swell . . .

Judy thinks, since then, some sort of arrangement has been made for Hall.

Tydings Quits Senatorial Race

Ill Health Is Reason as Maryland Dems Begin to Look for New Man

* * *

Tydings, who was out to regain the seat he held 24 years before Butler defeated him in a controversial 1950 race, announced last night he was quitting his comeback campaign because of ill health.

Now 66, the tall, spare veteran of clashes with the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt and Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) has been suffering from a severe case of shingles.

* * *

He was stricken shortly after beating George P. Mahoney, Baltimore paving contractor, by a razor's-edge margin in the May 7 primary.

His successor is expected to be named Wednesday night at a special meeting of the State Central Committee.

Besides Mahoney, those prominently mentioned as possible replacements included former U.S. Solicitor Gen. Philip B. Perlman; William C. Walsh and Michael J. Birmingham.

* * *

Tydings, who had been hospitalized 46 days by the shingles virus which painfully attacks nerve endings, told a small group of political associates at his Havre De Grace home last night that doctors had warned him a strenuous campaign might cause a recurrence.

Plans to Hit All Key States

Adlai to Go 'Everywhere' in Speech Bid for Votes

LIBERTYVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Adlai Stevenson gave enthusiastic approval today to an airplane and "whistlestop" train campaign embracing virtually every key state in the country.

* * *

He booked time Sept. 13 for a 30-minute, nationwide television address in a drive that will continue without letup until the eve of the election. And it will cover full participation by former President Harry S. Truman and Sen. Estes Kefauver, Stevenson's vice presidential running mate.

Stevenson's campaign manager, James A. Finnegan, Philadelphia political pro, outlined these plans, still being formulated, as he conferred with the nominee at his farm home near here.

* * *

There also was no formal confirmation here as yet of reports Stevenson will make an even earlier campaign opener with a nontelevised Labor Day address at Detroit. There were reports, also unconfirmed, that Stevenson might speak in New York and Los Angeles, prior to his major TV opener.

Gov. George Leader of Pennsylvania announced last month that Stevenson would speak Sept. 12 at Harrisburg, Pa.

The conferees, at a dinner last night in Stevenson's home, rejected any idea of the campaigners making President Eisenhower's health an issue.

* * *

"You don't thrust a man's illness in his face. The health question is one for the American people to consider for themselves."

The Sept. 13 TV address, from a city to be announced later, will be one of six 30-minute major TV talks by the nominee. In addition, Finnegan said, talks by Stevenson and others will be featured in 89 five-minute spot programs to be worked in at the end of popular TV commercial shows.

* * *

Finnegan said he hoped that Truman's services, like those of Kefauver, "can be utilized to their full capacity all the way down the line."

He foresaw no difference between Stevenson and Kefauver over campaign strategy and said he knew they will "be working in concert."

Meanwhile, between conferences Stevenson loafed about his farm, or answered questions from a crowd of correspondents. He greeted reporters yesterday in faded blue jeans.

He said he had "a wonderful night's sleep of nine or 10 hours Saturday night.

During the convention, he said, he didn't get to bed before 3 or 4 a.m. some nights, "and being the country type, I'm not accustomed to living it up that way."

Toy Bank Is Looted

Thieves broke into a home at 31 Ellwood St. Friday to loot a toy bank of $23 in change, according to Pontiac police.

The owner, William Sells, said entry was gained through a rear door, they added.

Knights of Malta Hall Is Ransacked

Filing cabinets and lockers were ransacked by thieves in the Knights of Malta Hall at 82 Perkins St. Friday night, according to Pontiac police.

The lodge secretary, H. B. Nelson, of Drayton Plains, reported that nothing apparently was missing. A side door was forced open, police said.

Thieves Enter Restaurant, Empty Register, Machines

Vending machines and the cash register were looted of an undetermined amount of change by thieves who broke into a restaurant at 441 E. Pike St. Saturday night, Pontiac police said.

The owner, Mrs. Nannie Clark, of 62 E. Sheffield Ave., said that a screen was torn from a rear window, which was pried open.

Court Orders Ballots Saved

Write-In Candidate Says He's Only One Eligible for Judgeship

Primary election ballots were ordered preserved Friday after a Pontiac attorney filed suit in Oakland County Circuit Court claiming he is the only candidate properly nominated to run for circuit court judge in November.

* * *

The order was issued by Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick at the request of attorney Milton R. Henry.

Henry claims several write-in and sticker votes were cast for him in Royal Oak Township, but were not tallied by election inspectors.

His suit asks a writ of mandamus forcing inspectors of three precincts, the county board of canvassers and County Clerk Lynn D. Allen to count and record the votes.

* * *

No candidates for the office were listed on the printed primary ballot. The November election, Henry says, is a special one set by state law.

It would affect Judge Clark J. Adams, who was appointed this year. The law reportedly requires an election the first November after such an appointment.

Henry claims he's the only one eligible to have his name printed on the November ballot. He also says a candidate must receive votes in a primary election in order to be nominated.

Adams and Allen were unavailable for comment today.

Oxford, North Branch Areas Eye School Unity

Sept. 13 Vote Set in Oxford

Balloting to Decide on Sharing Debt, Also New Taxes

OXFORD — Voting on consolidation for twelve Oxford area school districts will be held September 13 from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

* * *

All three issues on the ballot must carry or the whole plan fails, according to Oxford Superintendent R. A. Ambrose.

Ballot number one provides for actual consolidation, number two for the new district to assume the indebtedness of all ($74,000), and number three for adopting millage to retire that debt.

Oxford School District No. 5 will vote as a unit at the usual place, the high school auditorium. The other eleven districts will comprise the other unit but will vote at two or three polling places to be announced later.

* * *

Plans call for utilizing the present adequate elementary buildings at Oxford, Lakeville, Thomas, and Leonard. The present high school will become a junior high school as soon as a new high school can be built. Both will have a broadened curriculum, with personal counseling.

Teacher requirements and educational opportunities can thus be equalized, says Supt. Ambrose.

Each school operated last year again will be operated this year and all seventh and eighth graders will be sent to Oxford so that consolidation, if carried, will require little readjustment.

An interim school board from Oxford and the other districts, appointed by the Oakland County Board of Education, will serve until an election can be held, but not more than 45 days. This board will decide whether or not any tuition students from outside the new district can be accommodated.

In addition to Oxford schools (District No. 5) the following schools will be incorporated under the new plan recommended after the three year study by community residents: Arnold, Rock Valley, National, East Travis, West Travis, Whigville, Kingsbury, Oakwood, Thomas, Lakeville, and Leonard.

The consolidation is enthusiastically supported by the Michigan Department of Public Instruction and county auuthorities.

Only district in the area which did not petition for the plan is North Oxford where feelings are mixed. Besides the Arnold school which wishes consolidation, it is the only one-room district school still in operation.

Troy Studying Fifth Pumphouse and New Well

TROY—City Council tonight will open bids for a new pump house in the Glenmore subdivision addition and will study a proposed bond issue that would purchase a well from Birmingham.

The Glenmore well would be the fifth in operation in the city, and would feed into the main at Livernois. It would be in section 4, in the north part of the city, and its proposed equipment would pump 1,000 gallons a minute.

Subdividers would supply the funds for the pump house.

A bondsman will discuss the city's issuing revenue bonds for expanding its water system by buying the well now owned by Birmingham within the Troy city limits.

Dodds Residents to Vote Aug. 28 on Consolidation

NORTH BRANCH — A vote is set for Aug. 28 on whether the Dodds School District No. 2 in Rich township, Lapeer County, will join the North Branch Area Schools.

* * *

Four proposals appearing on the ballot call for, in order, the annexation, raising the 15-mill limitation, sharing the North Branch Area Schools indebtedness, and taxing two mills for building and site fund, with levying in the Dodd district.

Qualified citizens of the area may vote on all but the indebtedness sharing, in proposition No. 3. Only a citizen and husban or wife, whose name appears on the assessment roll, may vote on No. 3.

The election will be at the schoolhouse from 1 to 8 p.m.

City Attorney Rules Appointment Illegal

MADISON HEIGHTS — The civil service commission appointment of James L. Kealing, 519 Belaire, has been ruled illegal by the City Attorney Harry H. Young.

The appointment is void because Kealing has not resided in the county three years as required by the city charter, he says.

* * *

The dispute over Kealing's appointment which has caused a 4-3 split in the council was climaxed last week when the three council members who voted against Kealing tried unsuccessfully to fire City Manager Donald V. Smith.

State Delegation Going Ike-Nixon

By ROGER LANE

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — But for two or three dissidents, Michigan's Republicans today entered their party's national convention ready to strongly back another Eisenhower-Nixon ticket.

* * *

Delegation leaders predicted confidently that when the chips go down Nixon will have unanimous support for another four years as vice president.

John Feikens, state chairman, viewed the questioning attitude of a small minority as the natural consequence of the lull before a convention which offers prospects of no major controversies.

"What else is there to talk about?" Feikens asked.

John H. Thorpe, a delegate and secretary-treasurer of the AFL Michigan Federation of Labor, stuck to his position that "Nixon should take himself out of the race."

HAS SOME SUPPORT

Thorpe, who would like to see Gov. Goodwin Knight of California get the vice presidential nomination, said the only thing he has against Nixon is that he is a "controversial" figure and might cost some votes.

He said several other delegates, while they didn't exactly agree with him, didn't disagree either. These persons were not speaking up.

Last night, the industrial state delegates got their first glimpse of the platform committee's proposed labor plank.

In one place it called on Congress to "revise and improve" the Taft-Hartley Act, and in another to "overhaul" the Labor Relations act, but was vague as to exactly how.

BLAMES DEMOCRATS

On the question of federal minimum wages, the plank called for "vigorous administration of the federal prevailing minimum wage law for public supply contracts," and extension of the wage minimum coverage where this was "possible and practicable."

Feikens, Clifford O'Sullivan of Port Huron and other delegation leaders visited during the afternoon for more than two hours in Summerfield's suite.

POTTER HONORED

Potter, chosen for one of the speeches seconding Nixon's nomination, was honored during the day by the California Republican Assembly which cited him for "capable and loyal" service to party and country.

As the time for today's first caucus drew near, no opposition had appeared to reelection of O'Sullivan as national committeeman and Mrs. Rae Hooker, Mt. Pleasant, as national committeewoman.

Former Residents Wed

Speak Vows in Bad Axe

Candelabra and baskets of white gladioli flanked the altar of First Presbyterian Church, Bad Axe, Sunday afternoon, as Joyce Ann Dodge repeated the nuptial vows which made her Mrs. Emerson J. Elliott.

Her bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Elliott of Kalamazoo and Joyce is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dodge of Bad Axe. Both families were former Pontiac area residents.

The bride chose a cathedral gown of nylon organza, designed with a bateau neckline accented with petals of crisp organdy. Diminutive sleeves were encrusted with the same detailing. A diaphanous hooped skirt was embossed with circlets of organdy flowers, as was the cathedral-length train.

Joyce complimented her gown with a fingertip veil of imported French illusion. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls and tiny pearl earrings. Her bouquet was of white roses and stephanotis.

Janet Dodge, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor and Judy Brockway of Flint, Judy Dodge, another sister, Marolyn McMullen of Bad Axe and Mrs. Charles Voelker of Bad Axe, were bridesmaids.

MRS. EMERSON ELLIOTT

Best man was Philip Elliott, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers included Raymond Elliott, David Elliott, both cousins, Jerry Nichol of Filion and Robert Race of Buffalo, N. Y.

Two hundred fifty guests attended the event and a buffet supper was held afterward at Verona Hills Golf Club.

After a wedding trip to Montreal, Ottawa, Quebec and the New England states, the couple will reside at 928 Church St., Ann Arbor.

Girls, Men Join Garden Clubwomen

GINGELLVILLE—A total of 64 prizes were awarded in a field of about 100 entries at the Gingellville Garden Club flower show Saturday night.

Chairman Mrs. Arthur Burgess and co-chairman Mrs. Floyd Sanchez say that the family aspect of the show was exceptional, with a half dozen girls and several husbands entering flower arrangements and with entire families attending the evening's display.

Decorations, centered with a wishing well, included several unusual vegetable oddities and dried arrangements as well as seasonal flowers.

Caverlys to Reunite

DRAYTON PLAINS—The second annual Caverly reunion is planned at the C. Russell Baer home, 3200 Judah Rd., Pontiac, at 1 p.m. Sept. 2. All related families are invited, according to Iva Caverly, secretary.

Oxford Ad Draws Apt, Young, Old From Afar

OXFORD — "Greater love hath no man—" might have referred to this village for a former resident and employe of nearly fifty years ago has even offered to donate his services as the new village manager.

* * *

This application is but one of 14 received by President Ted Pearson Jr. and councilmen Lee Van Wagoner and Robert Brower, who met Saturday to choose three men for final interviews for the newly created post.

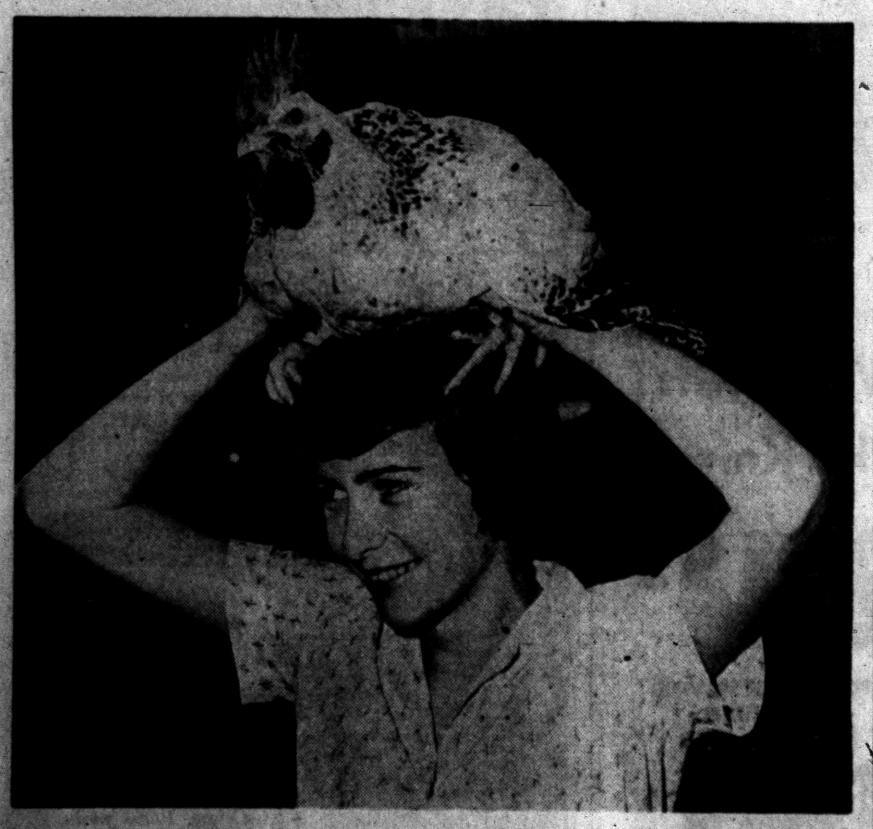

Most of the applicants are young men with four to six years of university training in government administration and some practical experience.

"The thing that pleases us," stated Pearson, "is that they seem eager to come to this Water Wonderland from larger places as far away as Texas and California." The salary will be at from $5,000 to $6,000.

Francis Baldwin, superintendent of public works, will be leaving village employ Sept. 1. He had resigned earlier but agreed to remain until a manager could be secured in accordance with the new charter effective July 1.

Head Hits Trestle; Falls Into Water, Breaks Leg

ROCHESTER — Alfred Bigos, 23, of 20533 Sunset, Detroit, was taken to Pontiac General Hospital at 4 p.m. Sunday for a broken leg received when he was running under a railroad trestle, spanning the Clinton River east of here. Bigos hit his head on the trestle, falling into the river and breaking his leg, authorities said.

Taken to Avon Center Hospital here was Mrs. Mitchell Hyduk, 2639 Neibelair, Hamtramck, who was treated for shock and possible internal injuries.

Mrs. Hyduk was the only person injured yesterday at M150 and Auburun road in a two-car collision.

Swine Day at State to Feature Feeding

EAST LANSING—At Swine Day, Aug. 27, at Michigan State University, hog producers will inspect a research project comparing ground mixed rations and free choice feeding, ground versus whole grain, and rations with or without oats.

* * *

Other research will show effects of overfeeding minerals and feeding of antibiotics.

* * *

Tours will begin at 9:30 a.m. at the swine research farm. An afternoon program will feature a talk by an Indiana pork producer averaging 250 litters of hogs a year.

List Livestock As Fair Stars on Three Nights

Michigan State Fair's coliseum will see three complete days and evenings of livestock judging and Farm Fun Frolics for which there will be no admission charge.

Theatrical entertainment will be adjourned while the farm events take over for Sept. 4, 5 and 6. The Fair runs from Aug. 31 to Sept. 9.

Attendance equalling the 10,000 spectators at each night event last year is expected again.

Champion livestock judging will be each morning and afternoon, with the grand auction on Sept. 5 at 1 p.m. Evening shows, emceed by John Merrifield, radio and television farm editor, will start at 6:45 p.m.

Events will include Kiltie Band music, livestock parades, Detroit Mounted Police drill, sheep shearing, and judging of Morgan, Arabian, Western and English Pleasure classes, four and six horse hitches, and dressage acts.

Receives Fractured Jaw as Car Strikes House

Kennedy was treated at Pontiac General Hospital. The other driver, Robert T. Duncan, 66, of 1231 Stanley Ave. was not injured.

Couple on Florida Trip After Saturday Wedding

LAKE ORION—Following a two-week wedding trip to Florida, Mr. and Mrs. James Lane Brady will reside at 50 Ogemaw St., Pontiac.

* * *

Brady took Joan Elizabeth Cochran, daughter of the John S. Cochrans, 325 Shadbolt, as his bride in ceremonies in Lake Orion Methodist Church Saturday night before 300 guests. Later, the guests were received at the American Legion Hall in Rochester.

The bridegroom is son of Mrs. Helen Brady, 123 Grandview, and Burl Brady of Pontiac.

* * *

Matron of honor was Mrs. Richard Garbe, the bride's cousin of Lake Orion. Mrs. Elizabeth Seitz and Mrs. William Kleino of Lake Orion and Mrs. Burdette Stoddard of Pontiac were bridesmaids. Flowergirl was Jeanne Morin of Lake Orion.

Best man was Hugh Brady, and ushers were Robert Thomas and Richard Garbe both of Lake Orion, and Charles Brady, the bridegroom's brother, of Romeo.

MRS. JAMES LANE BRADY

MRS. WAYNE L. MORGAN

DRAYTON PLAINS—Candlelight rites Friday night united Betty Jane Fowler, daughter of the Harry W. Fowlers, 3443 Signet, and Wayne L. Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Morgan, Sr., 7785 Allen Rd., Clarkston.

The bride chose a lace and tulle gown with Peter Pan collar, lace inset in the tulle skirt and long, wrist-pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil was held by a Juliet cap. She carried a white orchid and stephanotis.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Clark Morgan, Jr., of Drayton Plains, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Donald Langdon, Pontiac; Onalee Morgan, Clarkston, and Mrs. Steward Grove of Flint.

Best man was Clark Morgan, Jr., while ushers were Larry and Manley Morgan of Clarkston and Donald Ridgeway of Drayton Plains. Ring bearer was Ricky Smithling of Birmingham and flower girl was Linda Morgan of Ortonville.

* * *

The bride, an Alma College graduate, is teaching at Monteith School in Waterford Township, while the bridegroom has just recently been discharged from the U. S. Navy.

Lansing Officer Kills Burglar

Blinded by Shot Wound and Paralyzed, Shoots Down One Gunman

LANSING (AP) — A policeman, blinded in one eye and partially paralyzed by gunmen's bullets, shot and killed one of his assailants last night in a pistol fight during a burglary investigation.

* * *

His shot killed a youth police identified as Donald Ferris, 20, of Lansing.

Yauch underwent an emergency operation early today. His left eye was removed. Doctors said they thought he would live. He is the father of two children.

Two other youths from nearby Bath were taken into custody for investigation after the shooting.

Lansing Police Sgt. P. R. Beech said Gerald Graham, 18, gave himself up. Beech said Graham told him he took part in the gun fight. Also held was Richard Wood 17, who was picked up by state police.

Beech said Yauch and his partner, Patrolman Chester Sweeny, were investigating a burglary report at the Sellers Sash and Door Lumber Co.

Yauch was hit with gunfire just after he entered the back door of the building.

Bob Considine Says:

Chandler Should Race Ike for Nomination

SAN FRANCISCO (INS)—I wish Happy Chandler, who missed getting the Democratic presidential nomination by only 658½ votes would fly to San Francisco and contest President Eisenhower for the GOP nod. He could run on a platform claiming he loves baseball more than Ike. He does, too.

Happy's campaign introduced a wonderful note of hope, gaiety and nonsense into what was essentially a pretty grim meeting at Chicago. The former baseball commissioner was the only candidate in the race who had a swing in his headquarters. There was a caption over it which read, "The Swing Is to Happy." He may sue the swing company.

* * *

He had by far the best of the phony demonstrations which greeted the announcements that the several candidates were formally in the race. There was a woman smoking a cigar carrying a banner which read "Move Out Mamie, Move in Mama." Mama is beautiful Mildred Chandler, the kind of wife any man would want.

"I think Happy will make it" Mama confided a couple of hours before Adlai Stevenson somehow managed to slip in by a score of 1,372 to 0. Mama wasn't kidding. She believed it. Happy seemed also to believe he might score in the biggest game known to the secular world. He became heavily dependent toward the end on an all-out split over the civil rights plank relating to segregation in public schools. He had had a pretty nasty setback when Alabama, whose delegation he met at the train, didn't put his name up as the first to be nominated.

Another banner in Happy's parade carried an inspiring call, "We Want Happy as the Nation's Pappy." Why not? Happy is a good father and one who looks out for his family. He put a governor—a block of wood—under the gas pedal of Mama's car some time ago, after Mama had been stopped for speeding in several states, including Kentucky. Mama shortly thereafter was taking the children for a drive and tried to pass a car that was doing 50 or 60. It was nip and tuck, trying to get back in line after inching past the car. Matter of fact, it was frightening, but Mama got back in line. Sore.

* * *

And a child replied, "How kin he mama, he ain't even here?"

Happy had the only armed drum majorettes in the demonstration parades. And the only high school band—one from St. Rita's in Chicago. He denied as a canard of certain Northern sportswriters that the majorettes had loaded the ball on their batons with buckshot and were under instructions to conk any delegate who looked like he wasn't going to vote the straight Chandler ticket. Happy scoffed too at reports his bass drummer really was swinging at delegates the girls missed. Why should the kid? Hadn't Happy himself pasted Dan Parker's picture on one side of the drum and Dave Egan's on the other?

The man who nominated Happy for the presidency made a speech which should have sent Happy careening into the nomination. Unfortunately, the people it was directed toward did not seem to be listening, or present.

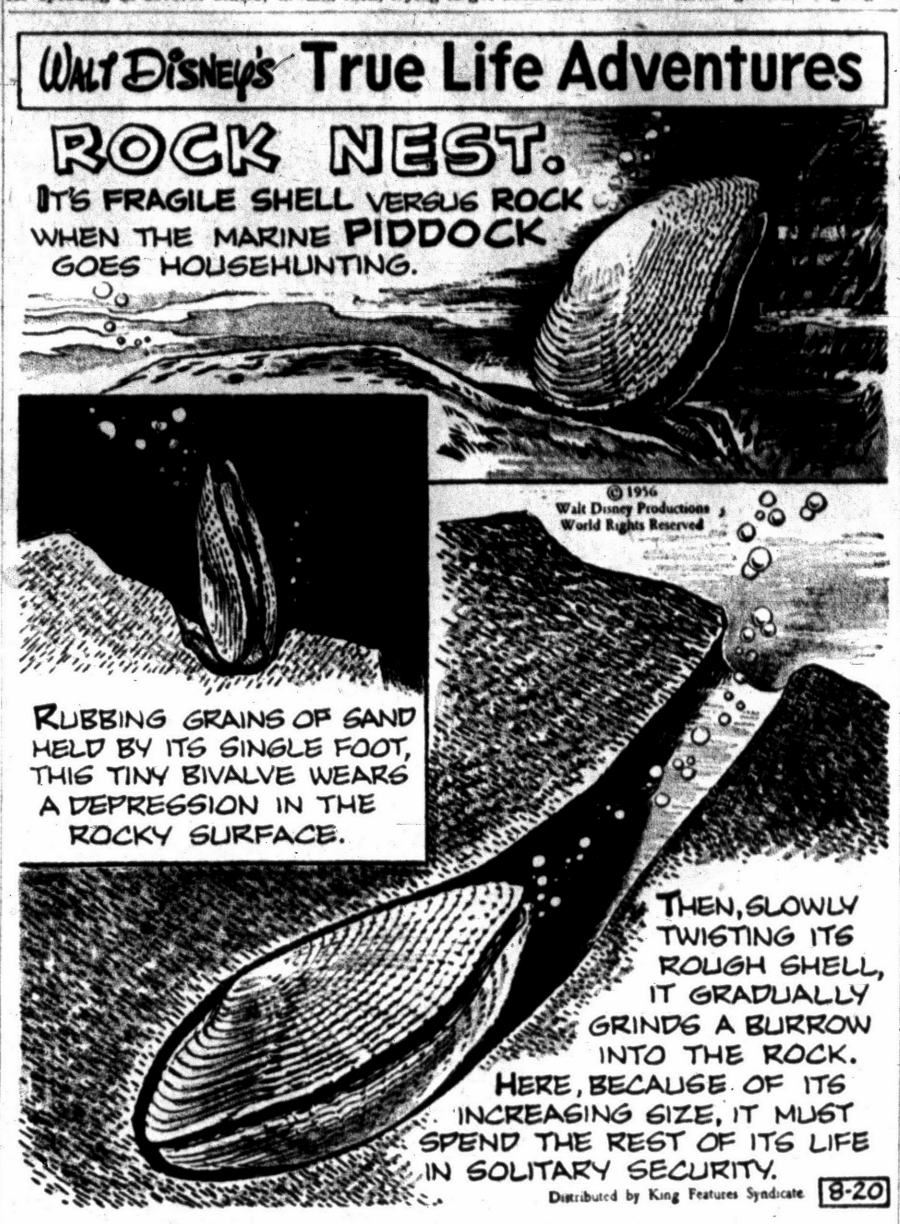

He said, in effect: "If you name Governor Chandler as your nominee you can count on the vote of every baseball fan in these United States, and every Kentucky colonel as well."

Plainly this was a call to arms which, if answered, would have sent Stevenson back to his law practice and Eisenhower packing off to Gettysburg. There are an estimated 100 million baseball fans in the country, but that is a small number compared to the legions of Kentucky colonels.

Can't this appeal be made at San Francisco? Emphases is achieved through reiteration. And what's one defeat? Plenty (four) men have even lost in presidential races and come back to win.

Happy had an enemy in Jimmy Petrillo's union at the Democratic convention—the arranger. He kept ordering the band to play "I wonder Why?" and "Take Me Out to the Ball Game" during the demonstration. Delicate choices, to say the least.

Art Buchwald, marching in the Chandler demonstration, said he would put Happy across by arranging for former President Truman to denounce him. "Look what Harry did for Adlai," he said. But he never kept his word. It was just one more blow for Happy, but I still think he might make it if he'd try again at San Francisco. It would be a lot happier convention, you can be sure.

Juliana Won't Abdicate Yet

To Rule 3 More Years Until Princess Finishes Schooling, Say Reports

LONDON (INS)—Juliana of Holland was reported today to have told a three-man Dutch commission investigating royal household difficulties that she will not abdicate for at least three years.

The London Daily Mail said the queen told the commission of three elder statesmen that she would not give up the throne "at least until Princess Beatrix has finished her three-year course which is starting next month at Leyden University."

Queen Juliana and her husband, Prince Bernhard appointed the commission June 29 "to advise on circumstances" which have resulted in newspaper stories outside The Netherlands concerning the royal family's life.

The Daily Mail said the commission has completed its task but no report has been issued. The newspaper said it is unlikely that the advice given by the group to the royal couple will be published.

European newspapers have carried reports, denied by the Dutch government, that the queen and her husband have been split by a controversy over Juliana's association wtih 61-year-old faith healer Greet Hofmans. The faith healer was employed by the queen to treat partially-blind Princess Marijke.

The Daily Mail said it is believed that Miss Hofmans was strongly advised by the commission to go to South America. This would remove one of the chief causes of the rift in the royal family.

To reduce tension in the palace, the London newspaper said, Bernhard is expected to go to the couple's Tanganyika estate for four months. Juliana also is expected to act more circumspectly in not mixing her religious life with state duties.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H.® Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

250 Attend Patio Party

Pontiac Press Photos

Among the guests attending the patio party given by the Bruce Annetts on Saturday were (left to right) Mrs. Don Nicholie of East Iroquois road, Don Nicholie, and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Barnett of Huntington Woods.

Everyone enjoyed the party hosted by the Bruce Annetts at their home on Sylvan Lake Saturday. Finding a cool spot for a moment's conversation were (left to right) Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ziem of Elizabeth Lake road and Judge H. Russel Holland of East Iroquois road.

German Band and Boat Rides Keep Folk Entertained

And when it did come, the three-piece German band struck up, "It Ain't Gonna Rain No More" — leaving those who had suspected rain drops thinking it was only their imagination.

Nobody could overlook the band — their little derby hats in multi-colors, stripes and plaids which matched the very loud suits.

Some of the guests came in Bermuda shorts which the host had donned too. There were all sorts and colors and styles seen, as well as fancy knee length socks to coordinate with the Bermudas.

People who hadn't seen one another for some time got together and just "talked things over." Others made plans to get together again "real soon."

If you wanted to take a boat ride up Sylvan Lake there was one at your disposal, and there was plenty of food for everyone. We even "caught" one couple leaving with a couple "hot dogs."

Pick Mrs. Jones to Head MOMS Past Presidents

Officers were elected by members of Zone Eight, Past Presidents' Club, MOMS of America, Inc., at their Thursday meeting with Mrs. Bessie Clark of Lake Angelus. To serve as president is Mrs. William Jones.

Other officers are Mrs. Arthur Burgess, vice president; Mrs. L. R. Naugle, treasurer; Mrs. Duncan McVean, recording secretary and Mrs. Samuel Sprague, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Frank Polasek was selected to serve as chaplain. Mrs. Charles O'Brien, historian; and Mrs. E. K. Vanderlind, director. They will be installed at the state parley, Sept. 12 at Galloway Lake Fire Hall.

Mrs. Naugle offered a prayer for peace and better understanding among nations and Mrs. Vanderlind presided. An invitation was extended from the Ginvellville MOMS Unit 33 to attend their installation of officers Wednesday in the Community Building.

Tension Increases Exaggerations

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

"Her voice was ever soft, gentle and low; an excellent thing in woman," wrote William Shakespeare.

In a mild way you've always taken pride in the modulation of your voice. Even in motherhood's maddest moments, it has not exploded into those ear - splitting warnings you've heard mothers shriek at their children.

The day Billy bit your finger for removing stolen chocolates from his mouth, your "Ouch!" was less shrill than astonished.

Certainly, you've raised your voice to the children. The thing is, you've never made it into a blast of yelps and screams.

So it is with shock that you overhear your teenager describing your request to subdue the volume on her phonograph. At the hall telephone, she's telling a friend, ". . . so I'll bring my new Elvis Presley record over to your house and play it on your machine. No, she won't say why she can't stand him. She just SCREAMS at me every time I play him, that's all. Absolutely shrieks. . ."

What you have said to your daughter with what you hope was Mr. Shakespeare's excellent modulation was "Penny, if you've got to listen to that record again and again, please do it in your room."

So Penny has not called your utterance "screams" and "shrieks" because these descriptions are accurate.

Why, then, has she used them?

Well, to people of Penny's age, parents often seem to be "screaming" or "hollering" when we're doing nothing of the kind.

Into these exaggerated terms, Penny puts both her passionate longing to be free of us—and her fear of this freedom.

The words' violence reflects the tension between these two pulls in her. And so it is a great relief to her. They enable her to shove us away in safe talk instead of action she isn't ready for—and identify herself with people of her own age.

If we understand the insecurity behind this kind of accusing exaggeration we treat it compassionately.

Lawrence and Mary Frank write of it helpfully in their new book "Your Adolescent at Home and in School": "The young adolescent is unpracticed at being a person in his own right. The familiar self-image that has been built up over the childhood years is now shattered.

It is this shattering which makes him unsteady and unsure. With back-talk, contradictions, irritability and sarcasm, he expresses his desire to be less helpless than he feels just as adults may become hostile when they feel unrecognized or inadequate."

Madeline Monrroy to Wed Utica Man

Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Monrroy of Birmingham announce the engagement of their daughter, Madeline Dolores, to William E. Phillips of Utica. He is the son of Mrs. Mark LaBarge of Utica.

He attended Michigan State University, and she was graduated from Highland Park Junior College. A fall wedding is planned.

Grand Rapids Scene of Wedding

The Rev. Richard W. Albert of Trinity Lutheran Church, Grand Rapids, officiated at the wedding of Barbara Louise DeLong and Donald Raymond Jones Saturday afternoon. Two hundred guests witnessed the 4 o'clock service.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. James MacGregor DeLong of Grand Rapids, and Donald's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Edward Jones of Birmingham.

The bride chose a gown of ivory silk organdy, fashioned on princess lines with a chapel train, for her wedding. The bodice featured a pleated sweetheart neckline with grosgrain ribbon inserts forming the bodice and continuing through the skirt in a spiral effect.

Her veil of ivory French illusion was held in place by bands of grosgrain matching the gown. Her flowers were stephanotis, sweetheart roses and ivy leaves.

FOUR ATTENDANTS

Mrs. John Allen Gibbs of Birmingham was matron of honor. Other attendants were Mrs. John R. DeLong of Grand Rapids, Mrs. Daniel A. Nesbitt of Royal Oak, and Mrs. Horace C. King of Birmingham.

* * *

Mrs. DeLong was gowned in beige Schiffli embroidered silk organza for her daughter's wedding. Her flowers were green cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Jones chose romance blue lace over taffeta. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

The bride is a graduate of Michigan State University and the bridegroom was graduated from General Motors Institute of Technology.

The pair will make their home in Royal Oak when they return.

MRS. DONALD RAYMOND JONES

Married in Grand Rapids Saturday afternoon were Barbara DeLong, daughter of the James DeLongs of Grand Rapids, and Donald Raymond Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Edward Jones of Birmingham.

Cavanaughs to Introduce Carol Cook

BLOOMFIELD HILLS—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Cavanaugh of Kirkway drive are planning a cocktail party next Sunday to introduce their future daughter-in-law, Carol Jane Cook, to their friends.

Carol's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Cook of River Forest, Ill., and her brother, Richard, will be guests of the Cavanaughs that weekend.

On Aug. 5, Mr. and Mrs. Cook entertained at a cocktail party, with members of the Cavanaugh family as their guests, and announced their daughter's engagement to Lt. James Robert Cavanaugh of the U.S. Marine Corps.

Also visiting the Cooks that weekend were the George A. Cavanaughs Jr. and Jim's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Guay.

Both young people are graduates of Marquette University and are planning a spring wedding. Lt. Cavanaugh will be stationed at Quantico, Va., for the next six months.

Check Periodically to Arrest Signs of Aging

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

I cannot imagine anything more neurotic or boring than spending a part of every day peering at oneself in the mirror to look for some new sign of aging. However, the alert woman does give herself the "once over" periodically in order to catch those small signs before they turn into big handicaps.

Aging is an accumulative process and the first droop, the first little lines, the bulge at the thighs and other symptoms, can be minimized if you get to work on them immediately.

No woman can expect at middle age, to look like she did as a young girl. But she can appear years younger than she is if she will be on the lookout for small signs of deterioration.

These small defects may seem to have appeared overnight but actually they had been getting worse for some time before you noticed them.

* * *

In the question of lines on the face we must think of lubrication and more lubrication. We will take cleanliness for granted as a part of the day's routine.

Josephine Lowman cannot imagine anything more neurotic or more boring than spending a part of every day peering at oneself in the mirror to look for some new sign of aging.

As I have said before, the natural oils dry out gradually. This fact, plus the exposure our faces and necks take from sun and wind and cold, make regular lubrication essential.

* * *

The best way to apply cream is to pat it on. However, if you have deep lines you can massage the cream along the line, using a rotary motion. General facial massage is apt to stretch the skin and speed the loss of fatty deposits if it is not done by an expert.

If you notice your pores are getting large in certain areas of your face, begin using soap and water on those portions and an astringent afterwards.

Probably every woman past 35 should use a hormone cream of oil and take facial exercises.

USE EYE CREAM

Pat eye cream about your eyes every night before going to sleep. If your hair looks dull begin the scalp massage you have been planning for so long.

Remember, too, that good nutrition, general exercises and happy thoughts and emotions, are reflected in your skin. Also beware of extreme facial expressions such as lifting the eyebrows and so forth.

When checking yourself periodically do not forget to climb onto the scales once in awhile. Also check your posture. This often becomes lazy with the years. You can take a beautiful carriage down the years with you and nothing will make you look more youthful or more lovely.

* * *

If you would like my facial exercises send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 9 "Facial Exercises," to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

CAN'T FIND YOUR WAIST? BETTER EXERCISE THEN A PARODY OF SORTS

Some day when in the glass I stare
I see a waist that isn't there.
I saw it there again today.
Ye gods, I wish it'd come to stay.

It wasn't your imagination! It is there all right. It is just hidden by layers of fat and lax muscles. And, it will not come to stay unless you do something about it.

Nothing gives the figure such a boost toward beauty as a slim waist. If your waist is trim you can carry a few extra inches in your hip measurement and still look lithe. If your waist is slim your bust will appear larger. There is something about thickening in the middle which is definitely aging in appearance.

Naturally, if you are overweight you will have to count your calories, but even when you do fatty deposits have a tendency to cling to this portion of the figure from middle age on, unless you exercise.

The following exercise is splendid for slimming the waistline. Stand tall with your feet separated. Bend your right elbow and place the palm of your right hand on the top of your head. Keep it there while you bend to the left, trying to touch your left toe with the fingers of your left hand. Raise your trunk. Continue for ten times.

BIG warning. Keep your knees stiff or this exercise will have little value. If you cannot touch your toes with your fingers go as far down toward the floor as possible on the bend. After practice, which will stretch your leg muscles, you will be able to introduce your fingers to your toes.

If you would like to have my tested waist slimming exercises which will take a few inches from your waist measurement in a few weeks time, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 6. "Don't Go to Waist," to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Buttermilk and Cream Go Together

Long Time Reader Contributes Recipe From South Lyon

By JANET ODELL

When we returned from vacation last week, the following recipe was on our desk — almost buried by a mountain of mail that had accumulated.

Mrs. Frank Deer of South Lyon who is 79 years young says she is one of The Pontiac Press' oldest readers. Her father, she adds, was its first subscriber.

Mrs. Deer says this salad dressing recipe is very good.

BUTTERMILK SALAD DRESSING
By Mrs. Frank Deer

1 cup vinegar
1 cup sugar
1 cup cream
1 cup buttermilk
1 tablespoon flour
3 eggs
Pepper

Hats are taller this fall, replacing the wide, flat look of last spring. This will be a welcome change to most women.

Bertha Adkins Picks Nixon Boosters to Pour at Tea

BY RUTH MONTGOMERY

SAN FRANCISCO (INS) — Demure, auburn-haired Patricia Nixon was queen-for-the-day of this Republican kingdom, and the most that her unwilling subject—Mrs. Harold Stassen—could hope for as she trotted down the curtseying line was a gracious pump of the hand.

Bertha Adkins, top lady kingpin of this peace-loving GOP party, tossed the biggest femme wingding of the conclave Sunday afternoon, with Second Lady Nixon as the undisputed guest of honor.

A glittering array of cabinet, White House, senatorial and gubernatorial spouses were invited to "pour", but neither Mrs. Stassen nor the wife of her lance - tossing husband's vice presidential preference, Mrs. Christian Herter, were entrusted with the teacups.

Interestingly enough, neither was Mrs. Goodwin (Goody) Knight, recent bride of the peripetetic host-governor who would like to freeze rival Californian Dick Nixon out of the No. 2 spot.

Politics has its own reward, and very much in the limelight was Mrs. William F. Knowland of this golden state, whose senatorial husband has swallowed his own antipathy for Dick, listened dutifully to President Ike, and thrown his mighty all into Nixon's re-election campaign.

If husbands could only realize how they mess up their wives' political-social standing by getting out on those lonesome limbs!

Helen Knowland was one of only four senatorial spouses enmantled for the plush lady-in-waiting role. Others were Mrs. Styles Bridges of New Hampshire, Mrs. Everett Dirksen of Illinois and Mrs. Irving Ives of New York—all firmly in line for princeling Nixon.

Two governors' ladies — Mrs. Arthur Langlie of Washington and Mrs. Theodore McKeldin of Maryland—also made the social grade, even though California's own first lady missed it.

Just in case you were thirsty, the tinkling tea urns were further tapped by the wives of all cabinet officials except Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, who is currently sparkling at the even more fashionable court of St. James.

Nancy Plans to Continue Art Classes

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

Politics is for the birds — and those who have time for it. Nancy, who has taken almost no part in her husband's frenetic primary campaign, revealed today that she has no intention of stepping up her political tempo.

"I'll probably do as much as I've been doing," she smiled impishly, "but no more." Then, her green eyes twinkling merrily, she added: "Art is my escape from a hectic life and from the children. It is also, of course, my profession."

The daughter of Sir Stephen Pigott, Scottish shipbuilder knighted by the British crown, had to be naturalized in 1938, three years after she came to this country as the bride of a young Yale graduate in Tennessee.

If Adlai Stevenson should be elected, and if fate should decree that he could not serve out his term, Nancy would become the first chatelaine of the White House to have been born a foreigner.

Nancy, wearing pixie dark green glasses and a sky-blue cotton dress liberally bespeckled with braid, watched eagerly from her box during the pandemonium of the final balloting. Not until 15 minutes after Estes officially became the Democratic vice presidential nominee did she slip behind stage to greet him.

"I'm very proud of my little candidate," she murmured happily as her towering husband, dressed in an ice cream suit and blue Stevenson tie, embraced her in his long arms.

Not since Thursday has Nancy had an opportunity to talk by telephone with the four Kefauver children, who are vacationing at the farm of Cowan Oldham in McMinnville, Tenn.

The harried mother had called to tell them that she and Estes will be flying there tomorrow to join them, and rest.

Mrs. Gordon Flattley presided at the Thursday evening meeting of the Fashion Your Figure Club held at the Adah Shelly Library.

Mrs. Robert Bunce and Mrs. Thomas Folsom conducted a discussion on "Clothes, the Type to Wear and Avoid."

A "Name that Tune" program was presented by Mrs. George Stafford and Mrs. William Carr.

A report was given on the current six-week contest, and further plans were revealed on the fall style show to be presented in October.

Career Wives Find 2 Jobs Overlap

By ANNE HEYWOOD

It seems to me that only once a year, at New Year's Eve, can we truthfully say, "Off with the old and on with the new." Only then does it honestly stop being one year and start being another.

In life, we sometimes expect this kind of quick transition, but we never get it.

We think, "When I graduate from school, it will be the end of one life and the beginning of another," but we find that things aren't all that different.

The same goes for marriage, parenthood and most of life's changes. We expect them to be revolutionary, open and shut, a complete off with the old and on with the new.

* * *

But there's always that transition period, when some of the new comes along, but there's still a big residue of the old.

TRUE IN BUSINESS

This is truest of all when it comes to starting any kind of home business.

Mrs. K., in Ohio, writes:

"I am starting a home typing service.

"I plan to spend six hours a day at the typing and about three delivering and picking up work. I plan to cook dinner myself, but will have a full-time woman come in for the housework and baby-sitting."

Then she goes on to question about fees, advertising, etc.

* * *

Well! Mrs. K. pictures herself becoming, overnight, a business woman and dropping her role as housewife entirely. Off with the old and on with the new.

But she won't be able to. She won't make sufficient money, at the beginning, to afford any help at all, let alone full-time help. The early fees will straggle in and will barely cover her business expenses and a very occasional baby-sitter.

For Mrs. K. and all other women in her position, I have some advice:

Figure at least a year at handling both roles. Simplify your housework as much as you can, so you'll have time for the home project.

* * *

USE SHORTCUT

Give up elaborate entertaining, learn to set your own hair, give the children a "salary" for handling some of the chores. Enlist your husband's help on marketing and whatever else you can talk him into.

Give up your "girl friends,"

Otherwise, you'll never get your project off the ground—and you'd be wiser not to start it. Because it won't be off with the housework and on with the career—it never is!

* * *

For further pointers on starting a home project, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my list of good books on making money at home.

Mildred Gingell Gives Report to Garden Club

Mrs. Edward Carvey was hostess to 31 members and guests of the Better Home and Garden Club Thursday at her home in Clarkston. Mrs. William Kennedy was chairman of the program and picnic luncheon.

Mildred E. Gingell, teacher at Lincoln Junior High School, spoke. The club sponsored her trip to the Conservation Scholarship School at Higgins Lake. Her report covered all aspects of conservation.

She stated that more natural resources have been used in the state of Michigan in the last 20 to 25 years than in all preceding years.

The uses of fish license fee money were also explained by Miss Gingell. In speaking of fire prevention, she told of watching a well digging demonstration of a "drift well," whereby equipment is taken in the fire area to get water to fight fire.

Committee members assisting the chairman were Mrs. Lulu Luby, Mrs. John Armstrong, Mrs. Wilber Rowston, Mrs. H. J. Sampson, Mrs. Roy Annett, Mrs. Joseph Schledorn and Mrs. Gil F. Roddewigg.

Mrs. G. B. Bex was received into the club.

Let Friends Know About New Home

By EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: "After ten years of living in apartments, we have finally bought our own house and we are very proud of it. I would like to send out announcements to our friends and relatives.

"Is such an announcement possible, and if so, how can it be worded? I had thought of having pictures made of the house and using these as announcements. What is your opinion of this?"

Answer: I think it would be a charming idea. Write: "We're at home here. Do come and see it and us soon."

Dear Mrs. Post: "Isn't it better to pass friends by in a public place if they are busily occupied with other friends? This was our experience lately.

"However, as it turned out, they saw us and questioned my husband for not having joined them. Will you please tell me what is proper in this situation?"

Answer: Under most circumstances, we do not join those whom we know when they are talking with those whom we don't, and you were quite right in passing them by unless they see you and smile.

Dear Mrs. Post: "My wife and I are expecting a baby and should like to name him (if it is a boy) after my father. I had a brother who died several years ago who was named for my father, and was, of course, junior. I would like to know if our son will be junior or third?"

Answer: Since your brother is not living, he will be junior.

Husband Is Wet Blanket? Maybe It's Your Fault

Show Some Gumption, Create Own Fun; Lure Mate Into Outings, Entertaining

By RUTH MILLETT

Why do so many wives blame their husbands for the dull lives they lead?

Because it is easier for a wife to put all the blame on her husband and decide there's simply nothing she can do to change her life—short of changing her husband—than it is for her to get busy creating a little fun and excitement.

* * *

Maybe her husband doesn't perk up when she says half-heartedly, "Would you like to see a movie tonight?"

But if she gives the movie she wants to see a big buildup, and dangles a little bait before him by mentioning that his favorite Hollywood glamor girl is in the picture she might get a better response.

Perhaps her husband doesn't ever offer to take over the children while she gets away for a few hours. That doesn't necessarily mean she has to be tied down.

USE INGENUITY

If she can't afford a baby sitter she can usually find a neighbor who will be glad to take over her children occasionally if she will reciprocate by doing the same for the neighbor.

* * *

She may be sold on the idea that her husband doesn't like entertaining and so has stopped inviting people in.

But did she ever try inviting HIS friends instead of hers for an evening and then watch him shine as a jovial host?

So her husband doesn't talk to her about his work? Lots of husbands don't.

* * *

But wives who have plenty of outside interests of their own don't feel shut away from the world just because they don't share in their husbands' business lives.

WET BLANKET

So her husband throws cold water on most of her plans and ideas.

Let him throw. He'll get tired of throwing cold water if it never does him any good.

No, husbands aren't responsible if their wives lead dull and boring lives. With a little gumption and imagination any wife can get some of the things she wants out of life, no matter how little cooperation and encouragement she gets from her husband.

* * *

Giving up is never the fault of anyone but the one who decides to give up.

LET'S TAKE A TRIP—1
The Sequoias

America, a wide land stretching from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from the Canadian to the Mexican border, is filled with scenic wonders. Let's take a trip and see some of them.

First, we will visit the Sequoias. Here is one through which a roadway was cut years ago.

These evergreens which grow in California are the largest and oldest living plants in the world. They grow 200 to 400 feet high and some measure 100 feet around at the base. Their fluted trunks often rise 180 feet without branches. They have long sharp needle-like foliage.

Authorities think some of the trees are as old as 4,000 years! Many are now preserved in Sequoia National Park on the western slopes of the Sierra Nevada range of mountains.

Punch holes at the top and hang the picture up with cord. Then, by means of the center tab, you can move the auto along the road beneath the tree.

(Freddie Harrison, Richmond, Va., first suggested this idea. If you have an idea for Junior Editors send it in care of this newspaper and it may be worth $10 to you. Violet Moore Higgins; AP Newsfeatures.)

NIXON AND HERTER IN LOBBY MEETING—Gov. Christian Herter, left, of Massachusetts talks with Vice President Richard M. Nixon in a hotel lobby in San Francisco Saturday evening. Harold E. Stassen has waged a virtual one-man campaign to have Nixon replaced by Herter as a running mate for President Dwight Eisenhower in 1956. Herter is scheduled to put Nixon's name before the convention for renomination.

AP Wirephoto

STASSEN SAYS CAMPAIGN GROWING — Harold Stassen, undismayed by assertions of Republican leaders that Richard Nixon's name will be the only one put in nomination for the Vice Presidency during the Republican convention, tells reporters upon his arrival here last Friday that his campaign to get the nomination for Gov. Christian Herter of Massachusetts is "growing every day." He said he's still convinced it's necessary to replace Nixon on the ticket if the GOP is to win in November.

One Man's Opinion

SAN FRANCISCO (INS)—Politically-wise Thomas E. Dewey said today it was his impression—in watching the Democratic national convention on TV—that Sen. John Kennedy of Massachusetts won the vice-presidential nomination and that it was "taken away from him."

They Should Know

AP Wirephoto

THE CONVENTION WILL SOON COME TO ORDER—Rep. Joe Martin, who will preside over the Republican convention as its permanent chairman, waves six king-size gavels made of Vermont maple which he'll use trying to keep the delegates in order. The convention gets underway today.

RED HOT CONVENTION—The Republican National Convention in San Francisco is expected to be a pretty dull, routine affair. But this group is trying to do all it can to put a little life in the gathering by tooting some red hot jazz in the lobby of the Fairmont Hotel. Note the signs for Vice President Richard Nixon . . . brought into the lobby as part of a Nixon demonstration.

Cheerful Nixon Visits Delegates

Takes Tour of States on Eve of Convention; Appears on Television

By MORRIE LANDSBERG

• • •

If Nixon was at all worried about staying on the Republican ticket or facing a GOP challenge for his job, he didn't show it in the least.

Appearing cheerful and relaxed, the vice president who greeted Republican leaders, appeared on television and dropped in on state delegations on the eve of the GOP convention.

• • •

With support building up for his renomination, Nixon had no hesitancy in welcoming an "open convention" selection of President Eisenhower's running mate. He said repeatedly he didn't know whether Eisenhower wanted him on the ticket again and would invite other nominations.

• • •

Former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, telling why he endorsed Nixon, said "nobody has ever done so well as vice president." Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell said he detected strong pro-Nixon sentiment among delegates thronging in for the convention.

• • •

The New York and Pennsylvania delegations gave Nixon a rousing welcome when he visited them last night. The Missouri delegation called on him in his hotel after his return.

• • •

Rep. Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts, GOP leader in the House, intimated his state would support Nixon even though Stassen has been working to shove Massachusetts Gov. Christian Herter into his place. Martin said after joining other high-ranking Republicans at breakfast with Nixon:

"If Gov. Herter nominates Mr. Nixon—I am just guessing—I see no reason why the Massachusetts delegation would not follow Gov. Herter and vote for Mr. Nixon."

• • •

Nixon spent 38 minutes in private with Herbert Hoover in the former president's Mark Hopkins Hotel suite six floors above his own. He said he looked over the speech Hoover will deliver before the GOP convention Tuesday night. He said they did not discuss the Republican ticket.

The vice president found time, too, to stop in at a reception honoring his wife, Pat. It was given by Mrs. Leonard Hall, wife of the GOP national chairman.

Teddy McKeldin Eyes Second Spot With Ike

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Gov. Theodore McKeldin of Maryland looked for word from the White House today on whether to challenge Vice President Nixon for the No. 2 spot on the Republican ticket.

Eisenhower's decision to come to the Republican convention tomorrow instead of Wednesday as originally scheduled was interpreted by McKeldin as an indication the President "wants to take a hand" in settling any question over the vice presidency.

There appeared to be no question Nixon was most favored among delegates for renomination.

Knight Praises Ike; Keeps Mum on Nixon

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — California's Goodwin J. Knight welcomed the Republican convention to San Francisco today and hailed President Eisenhower as "the leading statesman of our times."

Knight's prepared speech pledged that California Republicans and "independent minded Democrats" would see to it that Eisenhower got the state's 32 electoral votes.

But he made no mention at all of his fellow Californian, Vice President Richard M. Nixon. About the strongest endorsement Knight has ever given of Nixon is that he would support him if Eisenhower asks for Nixon as his running mate again.

Adlai 'Blockbuster'

LIVERTYVILLE, Ill. (INS) — Democratic nominee Adlai E. Stevenson will launch his bid for the White House early next month with a "blockbuster" attack on the eisenhower administration, in which he will enlist the help of former President Harry S. Truman.

Socialists Name Farrell Dobbs for President

NEW YORK (AP)—The Socialist Workers party has again nominated Farrell Dobbs as its candidate for president and Mrs. Myra Tanner Weiss for vice president.

• • •

Dobbs, a former truck driver, and Mrs. Weiss, a onetime cannery worker, headed the party's ticket in 1952. Dobbs also ran for president in 1948.

The two were on the ballots in seven states in 1952. They polled 10,306 votes.

'Twill Be Gay, Expensive Trip to Convention

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (NEA) — The Republican Party is about to dramatize the country's booming prosperity—for which it takes credit—by holding the most lavish, expensive convention in history.

• • •

The travel bill will be highest. It's the first West Coast GOP convention.

Not being able to split costs of coverage with the Democratic convention in Chicago, the practice in the past, skyrockets the expense to news, radio and TV services.

And personal expenses to delegates are likely to set new records.

If a delegate gets by on $35 per day for the bare essentials of food, transportation and shelter he'll be lucky. Teh average delegate will shell out a lot more than that.

People here boast that the per capita income is higher than in any big U. S. city, a fact which has helped create a magnificent standard of eating and living. The result is a delightful, but expensive, experience for the visitor.

HOTEL COSTS

A single room in one of the better hotels is between $10 and $14 per day. Doubles are betwen $15 and $20. Suites go up to $60 per day. Deals have been made for private apartments and homes for $300 per day.

In this town it's vulgar to discuss money, and the fabulous food they serve, in the same breath. However, it can be revealed that dinner for one person at such famous eating places as Maison Paul, Trader Vic's or Omar Khayyam's can go to $15 without the waiter rating you a reckless spender.

For just drinking and relaxing there are such spots as the world-famous Top Of The Mark, the bar atop the Mark Hopkins Hotel with a magnificent view of the whole Bay area.

For strippers, gambling and spicier, more active forms of evening entertainment there's the Barbary Coast area — but, remember the gals are running this convention.

Delegates are being encouraged to leave cars at home. This means taxi fare from downtown to the Cow Palace, where the convention meets, will run about $3 per trip. The thrifty can use a bus.

Delegates coming to the convention, even if they are loaded with dough, will be impressed by the prices. They must seem high even to San Francisco's thick pay envelope.

Mere cost of planning this convention is likely to set a record, too. It's always the practice to stay within the quarter of a million dollars which the town puts up to get the meeting. Insiders say the GOP will be lucky to spend anything less than twice that amount this time.

EXPENSIVE TIME

Delegates and convention planners aren't the only ones spending high for the convention, however. City and state welcoming groups are sparing no expense to make this a plush meeting.

There will be continuous music at the railroad and airport terminals for arriving visitors. Delegations will be formally greeted and escorted to their hotels. Flowers and gift bottles of California wine and champagne will be placed in the rooms of even the fairly important delegates and visitors.

California's Gov. Goodwin Knight is going to do it up good, too. He's throwing an elaborate reception and buffet dinner to welcome all delegates. Hollywood stars will be around acting as hosts.

A good, expensive time is expected to be had by all.

SCENE IS PLAIN—But the prices are fancy at famed Fisherman's Wharf. It's major San Francisco attraction.

ALL ABOARD—In celebration of San Francisco's first national convention since 1920, these avid Republican rooters rented one of the city's famed cable cars. Urging voters to jump on the bandwagon, the happy celebrants even had a full-fledged band aboard to liven things up.

Bernard Baruch Gives Formula on Life Success

NEW YORK (AP) — Bernard M. Baruch's advice on his 86th birthday:

"To be a success in life requires one thing—work."

The financier and adviser to presidents was interviewed after a birthday luncheon at his apartment yesterday. Present were his three children, a son-in-law and two close friends.

There were many congratulatory messages.

Judd of Minnesota Picked to Keynote Republican State Convention in Lansing

LANSING—Congressman Walter H. Judd, of Minnesota, will give the keynote address at the Republican State Convention at Grand Rapids Sept. 1, State Chairman John Feikens announced here.

* * *

"This will be the greatest Republican State Convention in history," Feikens said. "There is more enthusiasm and optimism in the party today than ever before and a solid determination to carry Michigan for President Eisenhower and Mayor Albert E. Cobo. Congressman Judd will bring us a powerful message about the Eisenhower program and we are honored that he has agreed to keynote the convention."

Plans are proceeding for a "short, snappy" convention to start the Republican campaign, he added.

Accent will be on youth, with the selection of Charles E. Chamberlain, of Lansing, nominated for Congress from the Sixth District, as Convention Chairman; and State Rep. George M. VanPeursem, of Zeeland, as Chairman of the Preconvention Resolutions Committee.

Four of the GOP's new nominees for Congress are in their thirties—Chamberlain, in the Sixth District; Robert J. McIntosh, Port Huron, in the Ninth; Robert P. Griffin, Traverse City, in the Tenth, and William S. Broomfield, Royal Oak, in the Eighteenth.

Congressman Judd has served in Congress since 1942 and is a member of the powerful Foreign Affairs Committee.

UP FOR NOMINATION

The Convention will nominate candidates for Attorney General, Secretary of State, Auditor General, and State Treasurer as running mates for Mayor Albert E. Cobo of Detroit, nominee for Governor; and former Lieut. Gov. Clarence A. Reid, renominated for his old post. Two candidatee for Justice of the Supreme Court will be named to run on the non-partisan ballot, and the convention will name 20 Presidential Electors.

Summer primaries are necessary in Michigan to make it possible for servicemen and women to vote in the general election, according the Secretary of State James M. Hare.

Noting recent criticisms of the summer primary, because so many voters are away from home on vacation, Hare says that this is a real problem, but observes that against it must be weighed the need to allow sufficient time for handling servicemen's ballots.

"Our present schedule for primaries was adopted by the legislature during World War II when hundreds of thousands of our citizens were in all corners of the globe on active service," says Hare.

"We wanted them to have an opportunity to vote. We knew that it took a long time for absentee ballot applications to arrive in Michigan from these faraway places, and just as long for the ballots to get back to those who requested them.

"For that reason the time schedule was set up so that there could be reasonable assurance that all the time-consuming steps could be taken care of. This meant that we had to have the primary in August.

"I suppose that there are some who would argue that the average serviceman did not have to participate in the primary as long as he could vote in the final election. I disagree with this line of thought. The primary is just as important to the voter as the final election, because the primary determines what choices will face the voter in November.

"Furthermore, the August primary was needed so that ballots could be prepared in time to make the trip to the absent serviceman, be marked by him, and be returned in time to be counted on Election Day.

* * *

"Surely we should all be willing to undergo the minor rigors of voting in the summertime, or even the need for applying for an absentee ballot, in order to make it possible for American citizens in the armed forces to exercise their right to vote. As long as they are as widely scattered as they still are, this is the least we can do for them," concludes Hare.

Another Slaying in Riesel Case?

Blinded Columnist Links Truck Driver's Killing to Gangland War

NEW YORK (AP)—Labor columnist Victor Riesel says the slaying of a truck driver Saturday is another link in a chain of underworld murders that have followed his blinding by acid.

The murders are "indicative of a terrific gang war which is just beginning in New York and will soon spread across the nation," Riesel said in a brief television appearance last night—the NBC-Steve Allen Show.

Riesel, blinded by an acid-flinging hoodlum April 5, referred to the killing Saturday of Fred Mischner, 26. The truck driver was found with four bullets in his body in a hallway of a Lower East Side tenement.

Police said, however, there is "no definite association at this time" between Mischner's death and the slaying of Abraham Telvi, 22, last month.

The FBI has said Telvi was the man who tossed the acid at Riesel for a $1,000 fee.

Two ex-convicts were found dead in a parked automobile the same day Telvi's body was discovered. The two were wrapped in canvas and trussed with rope.

The FBI said the two knew "too much" about Telvi. They theorized that Telvi himself was slain by the underworld because some of the acid had splashed on his face and left him a marked man.

Still at large is the mastermind who engineered the wanton attack on the crusading, 41-year-old syndicated newspaper columnist. The FBI said the attack was ordered to prevent Riesel from telling a grand jury about labor racketeering.

Buddhist Congress Set

KATMANDU, Nepal (AP) — The fourth world Buddhist Congress opens here Nov. 15 as part of the year-long observance of the 2,500th anniversary of Buddha's death. Buddhist scholars from 37 countries are expected to take part in discussions of Buddhism's relationships to capitalism, socialism and communism.

Mexico Seeking Trade

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The Navy Ministry says it favors barter agreements with Japan, Sweden, Norway, Denmark and the Netherlands to exchange surplus cotton for fishing vessels and other ships. Officials believe 300 to 400 small vessels could be obtained this way. The government proposes to buy all surplus Mexican cotton not sold abroad.

President to Dictate '56 Republican Platform

SAN FRANCISCO (INS)—Republican platform architects have begun forming up a 1956 GOP statement of policy that is certain to follow President Eisenhower down the middle of the road to "dynamic conservatism."

Ten subcommittees went behind closed doors yesterday to polish up official language that will raise the Eisenhower administration and pledge continuation of its policies.

There was general agreement among the 10 panel chairman that the platform, designed to elect Eisenhower and a Republican Congress, should deviate not at all from the course set by the chief executive.

Although some delegates were expected to urge different routes on foreign spending, world trade, racial segregation, farm price supports and immigration, they stood no chance of reaching their goal.

BUSH HEADS GROUP

The full resolutions committee, headed by a staunch Eisenhower man, Sen. Prescott Bush (R-Conn.) and top-heavy with administration stalwarts, showed no inclination to shatter convention harmony by getting out of step with the chief executive.

The statement of policy will express simply the over-all political philosophy which Eisenhower has described as his "dynamic conservatism."

The platform, when it emerges officially from the Bush committee Saturday night, is expected to follow these general lines:

1. Call for a continuation of flexible price farm supports and the billion dollar soil bank that pays farmers to cut back production.

2. Urge that the U.S. guarantee the physical safety of Israel and the Arab states, without offering arms to any Middle Eastern nation.

3. Suggest that a continue effort be made to lower international trade barriers.

4. Propose a boost to small business by recommending a one-third tax cut on all corporation profits up to $25,000.

right-to-work laws that ban the union shop.

6. Advocate a temporary program of federal aid for school construction.

7. Praise the Eisenhower "partnership" program which permits both private and public development of power.

8. Call upon Congress to tighten legislation covering the merger of corporations.

9. Laud Eisenhower's defense chiefs and pledge the U.S. to continued supremacy in the air.

10. Push for immediate Hawaiian statehood, and suggest that both Alaska and Puerto Rico might eventually join the union.

11. Make no specific mention of the dispute over Egyptian seizure of the Suez Canal.

12. Propose that the federal minimum wage be extended to workers not now blanketed under it.

13. Ask for a revision of Internal Revenue depreciation rates as a boon to small business.

14. Stand firmly behind the four-point Eisenhower civil rights program, which is designed to guarantee all citizens the right to vote and provide redress in federal court for those who are denied their constitutional liberties.

15. Urge "implementation" of the Supreme Court's anti-segregation school decision.

Mexico Labor Gains

MEXICO CITY (AP)—The Mexico City Labor Federation reports workers gained wage increases ranging between 15 and 20 per cent in most of the 3,000 contracts negotiated in the capital so far this year.

SPILL AND A JIG—New York Yankee pitcher Johnny Kucks, sprawls on the ground after slipping while trying to field a bunt by Baltimore's Gus Triandos. Yank third baseman Bill McDougald skips to avoid the sliding Bob Nieman as first baseman Bill Skowron chases the ball. Baltimore won, 3-2.

Chisox in 3rd After Split With Tigers

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago White Sox have a skimpy hold on 3rd place in the American League today, thanks to a doubleheader split yesterday with the Detroit Tigers and Boston's two-game loss to Washington.

The Tigers won yesterday's opener, 3-1, in 11 innings, but righthander Dick Donovan held the Bengals to five safeties as the Sox took the nightcap, 4-1.

Detroit's Billy Hoeft gave up only eight hits, but he allowed two runs on a wild pitch in the first inning and was never able to get ahead again.

Frank Lary's winning performance for the Tigers in the opener cracked a five-game Chicago winning streak. The victory also put the little righthander over the .500 mark for the first time this year with a 13-12 record. He has won nine of his last 11 starts.

* * *

Lary and Chicago's Jack Harshman were knotted in a pitchers' duel until the Sox southpaw tired in the 11th. Harshman walked leadoff man Harvey Kuenn, Earl Torgeson followed with a single and Charley Maxwell dropped a Texas leaguer into center to score Kuenn with the tie-breaking run.

Hoeft's downfall in the second game came after the Tigers had taken a 1-0 lead in the first inning on Kuenn's triple and Torgeson's sacrifice fly.

Luis Aparicio led off the Chicago half of the inning with a triple and Hoeft retired the next two men. But after Minnie Minoso walked and stole second, Hoeft let fly a wild one and both runners scored.

* * *

Walt Dropo's double in the 7th, a walk an error by Kuenn on a double play and a double by Donovan gave the Sox two insurance runs.

Moves Nearer to 200th Win

Spahn Keeps Braves in 1st Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Southpaw Warren Spahn, pitching for a pennant, and righthander Bob Lemon, the ace of a first-rate pitching staff that hasn't been able to fire a second-place club, today are within reach of the select 200-victory club in major league ball.

* * *

The stylish Spahn, coming through in the clutch, pitched Milwaukee back into a two-game lead in the National League race as the Braves defeated Cincinnati 3-1 yesterday. Lemon, who broke in as an infielder, used a five-hitter to get Cleveland started on a doubleheader sweep of the Kansas City Athletics, 5-2 and 2-1, and keep the Indians' meager flag hopes alive in the American League race that isn't.

It was the 197th major league victory for each of the 35-year-old veterans.

* * *

There are only two active 200-game winners in the business today and Cleveland has 'em both. Bobby Feller, without a victory this season, has a 266 total, and Early Wynn, with 14 this year, has 215.

Spahn's 14th victory of the year was the big one of the day, sending the Redlegs back to third place after winning the first two games of the important four-game series at Cincinnati. Brooklyn's Dodgers reclaimed the runner-up spot by seven percentage points with a 3-2 decision over Philadelphia.

Another veteran, Murry Dickson (who'll be 40 tomorrow) struck out nine and gave just two hits as the fourth-place St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Chicago Cubs 6-0 in a doubleheader split. The Cubs took the nightcap 3-1. The New York Giants, socking six home runs, took two from Pittsburgh, 7-6 and 3-2.

Cleveland's sweep moved the Tribe to within 8½ games of first-place New York as the two clubs get set for a two-game series in Yankee Stadium starting tomorrow night. The Yankees were trimmed 3-2 at Baltimore.

The Chicago White Sox moved into third place, splitting with the Detroit Tigers while Washington was taking two from Boston. Chicago won 4-1 after an 11-inning 3-1 defeat; Boston slipped to fourth on 7-5 and 11-10 losses with the nightcap going 11 frames.

U. S. Harmsworth Boat to Be Picked Tuesday

DETROIT (AP)—The U. S. entry in the International Harmsworth Trophy race will be picked tomorrow from among five sleek Detroit boats and a powerful Texas craft.

The Texas boat, Shanty I, has an edge on the other five hopefuls in the trials, but the speedy racer owned by Oilman William Waggoner of Vernon, Tex., may find the rough waters of the Detroit river a major handicap.

Shanty I, with 808.120 has compiled the most points in previous races and would ordinarily be the logical choice to meet Miss Supertest, the Canadian boat which poses the first challenge to U. S. Harmsworth Trophy supremacy in five years.

But the fact that Shanty has never competed in local waters apparently led the 12-man selection committee of the Yachtman's Assn. of America yesterday to order the trials over the Harmsworth course. The judges' choice tomorrow will meet Miss Supertest Saturday.

* * *

Selected by the committee to compete with Shanty I for the honor are:

1. Miss U. S. II, owned by George Simon, Grosse Pointe, Mich., (705.026 Harmsworth points)

2. Dora My Sweetie, owned by Horace Dodge of Detroit (703.149)

3. Only a citizen and husband Jack Schafer of Detroit (407.096)

4. Gale V., owned by Joe Schoenith of Detroit (400.227).

5. Gale VI, another Schoenith entry (305.495).

The U. S. boats will each make a lone run over the standard Harmsworth course of five nautical miles. Time and several other factors will decide the U. S. entry.

Miss U. S. II easily won the 11th running of the Silver Cup regatta Saturday on the Detroit river, averaging a mediocre 83.160 miles an hour over the choppy three-mile course. Driven by 24-year-old Don Wilson of Dearborn, Miss U. S. collected 1,100 points.

Second, with 800 points, was Gale IV. Dora My Sweete was 3rd with 652 and Gale VI 4th with 625.

Flaherty Off Critical List

Winner of '500' Classic Still Serious Following Illinois Crackup

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Pat Flaherty, winner of the 500-mile Indianapolis auto race Memorial Day, remained in serious condition today following his crackup Saturday night. Flaherty, however, definitely is off the critical list, hospital authorities reported.

Flaherty was injured in a 100-mile race at Illinois State Fairgrounds when his auto spun around and was rammed by another racer.

Dr. Fenton Drake described Flaherty's condition as "serious." The 29-year-old Chicago tavern owner is at St. John's Hospital.

* * *

Flaherty won the Indianapolis race in his fifth attempt after posting the best qualifying time. In previous years, he had cracked up twice at Indianapolis and had finished among the top 10 twice.

Colleges Help U. S. Olympics With $326,102

DENVER (AP)—The NCAA Olympic Committee says $326,102.47 has been raised by member colleges and universities for the U.S. Olympic fund.

The fund will be used to help train, equip and send to Australia this nation's Olympic Games representatives.

Toledo Girls Advance

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Toledo advanced to the championship finals tonight by defeating Adrian 4-2 in a winners bracket game in the Women's East Central Regional softball tournament last night.

Ed Furgol Fires 65 to Win

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The professional golf caravan today headed for St. Paul, Minn., the next stop on the circuit—without gritty Ed Furgol, winner of yesterday's $35,000 Milwaukee Open Golf Tournament with a blue-chip final round of five-under-par 65.

The 39-year-old St. Louis pro, richer by $6,000 and a new station wagon after posting a 15-under-par 265 in the 72-hole medal tournament at Tripoli, said he had to get back to his teaching duties at the Westwood Country Club.

"I'm sorry I can't go to St. Paul for the Keller Open," the lame-armed Furgol said after accepting his check and the keys to the station wagon. "But, I'd better get back to Westwood. I really can't say which tournament will be my next one."

Furgol, whose left arm is withered due to a childhood accident, was an 11th-hour entry here. Tournament officials had to find a caddy for him. He never had played the tricky, wind-swept 6,380 yard course.

After carding a course record of seven under par 63 on the first day, the former U. S. open champion admitted he was playing hooky from his home club.

"I looked over my teaching chart Wednesday," he said, "and saw I only had two lessons scheduled. I figured it was a shame to miss the tournament so I decided to skip school."

Going into the final round, Furgol trailed 54-hole leader Jackie Burke, master's and PGA champion from Kiamesha Lake, N. Y. by two strokes—198 to 200.

* * *

Beefy Bill Casper Jr. of Chula Vista, Calif., also had a 200. And, tied at 203, were Gay Brewer Jr. of Cincinnati and Gene Littler of Singing Hills, Calif.

Furgol overcame Burke's edge on the front nine with a one-under-par 34 with the aid of a pair of birdies, and then collected four more birdies on the back nine to wrap up the title.

Burke, who like Furgol had a 63 on the first round, finished third with a 270, one stroke back of the 26-year-old Littler. Burke took a 72, Littler a fine 66. Casper took fourth place money with a 71 and 271. Brewer tied Abilene's Don January for 5th with a 71 and 274.

Fans Thrilled at Orion Races

Speed, Spills Mark Big Day; Sailor Dives in to Retrieve Wallet

Hundreds of race fans were thrilled by the many speedy boating events of Sunday's Orion Boat Club's annual affair on Lake Orion, entertained immensely by the unexpected spills and side features that developed in the day-long regatta.

* * *

Winners included Tim Butts of Lake Orion (13 years old) in the 5 h.p. class; Jim Cameron of Norwest Club won the Class A outboard race in which Bill England was tossed out, got back in his boat and finished 4th. In a hydroplane event an Ann Arbor boat turned a double flip, but no one hurt. Event was won by Ray Hay of Ann Arbor. Outboard open went to Chuck Cartwright of Keego Harbor Ward's Point. Frank Dodge of Detroit flipped in this race. Alvin Spencer, Cass Lake, won the inboard event with three straight heats. Mickey Ferguson of LO won the 135 class, Allen Doleck the 95 h.p. class.

Breen Sets 4-Mile Mark in AAU Race

ALEXANDRIA BAY, N.Y. (AP) — George Breen of Buffalo and the U.S. Olympic team today holds a new swimming record, 1 hour, 32 minutes and 55 seconds, in the National AAU 4-mile race. The previous record was 1:35.12.

* * *

Breen finished the Lake of the Isle course yesterday about a quarter mile ahead of defending champ Frank Brunell of the Vesper Swim Club of Philadelphia, who was timed in 1:39.04.

Pontiac Golf Team Wins MRA Tourney

Pontiac's municipal golf team, representing the distaff side of the game not only won the Michigan Recreation Association's women's team tourney at Lansing, Sunday, but also had the event's medalist.

After Zada DeBolt carded 90 for the medal, the team of Mrs. DeBolt, Betty Sue Syron (99), Jerry Featherston (101), Lucy Everett (107) and Dorothy Selle (109) won a playoff with Lansing, taking the extra hole on Mrs. DeBolt's birdie 4. Teams had tied at 506 aggregate. Dearborn was 3rd and Plymouth 4th. Tourney was at the Groesbeck course.

Pontiac Wins District Crown

BC's Legion Nine Stops Berkley Sunday by 5-1 Count

Junior American Legion 18th district baseball title was nailed Sunday at Berkley when Pontiac's Boys' Club nine stopped the host club, 5-1. Boys' Club broke open the game in the 6th after a tight scoreless battle to the 5th, in which Berkley had scored one run.

An infield error, Ron Mastick's bunt, another error, Chuck McIlreth's single and then the big blow, an over-the-fence homer with one on by Jim Skinner iced the contest. Jim's blast went over the 350 foot distant barrier. Kenny McLintock's homer in the 8th gave BC its only other counter.

Leon Weeks threw a 4-hitter at Berkley and the BC fielders turned in their 25th and 26th double plays of the season, at opportune times.

Motors Sink Detroiters

Paul (Diz) Trout's Detroit All Stars were handed a terrific licking here Sunday afternoon when they tangled with Pontiac's unbeaten General Motors Truck & Coach nine. After the cannonading on Wisner field was over in the regulation length contest, Motors had compiled an even dozen runs to nothing for the Stars.

An array of GMC hurlers took turns setting down the club spotted by former big-timers, including the one-time strong-arm Tiger, Diz Trout. Diz hurled four innings then retired after giving up four runs and four hits. All-Stars got only three safeties off the Motors chucking staff.

The exhibition was the nightcap of a double bill that also saw Griff's Grill edge CIO 6-5 in a tight, interesting battle.

Griffs collected four counters in the bottom of the opening frame, then won their contest in the 4th with a two-run blast, helped by a couple CIO misplays. Unionists had counted three in the 2nd and two more in the 3rd but couldn't muster another although they had men on in the last two innings.

Union shut out Griffs in a Saturday afternoon contest 5-0, called at the end of the 6th because of rain. CIO got its runs in the 1st two frames, then went scoreless to the time the tilt was halted. Only one hit was given up by two Union hurlers, Ralph Armstrong and Bob Johnson.

Clarkston Is Loser of 14-Inning Battle

Tri-County loop member Clarkston ran into trouble in two weekend games, wound up with a 2-2 tie in one and lost a heart-breaking 14-inning battle 12-11. On top of that the club faces a rash of double-headers this week, with a twi-night affair at 5:30 (starter) at Durand's lighted park, and on Wednesday in the same park in the Durand invitational tourney (both rainouts).

Saturday the 7-inning battle was called because of rain and will be replayed Tuesday.

At New Lothrop on Sunday Clarkston the host club won the marathon in the 14th, after Clarkston had tied it up in the 7th 11-11, on Rog Johnson's tally. Clubs then played five scoreless frames before New Lothrop came through with the winner.

Class B, C Softball Finals Set

Waterford and Roseville will meet tonight in the finals of the Class C district softball tournament at Drayton Plains after weekend activity saw Southfield, Howell, Pontiac, and Mt. Clemens eliminated from the tourney.

In Class B tournament action at Beaudette Park and North Side Park, Royal Bar of Pontiac and Roseville emerged the finalists in a game slated for tonight at Beaudette.

Yesterday Lakeland Pharmacy eliminated Mt. Clemens, 4-1; Royal Bar eliminated Lakeland 3-1, and Roseville handed Royal Bar a 3-0 defeat.

Roseville needs to beat Royal Bar tonight to win the title in the double-elimination tourney. Should Royal Bar win a second game will be played.

Waterford moved into the finals by dumping Mt. Clemens 6-2 yesterday with Bill Goulet getting the victory. Being a double-loss elimination tourney, Mt. Clemens was then knocked out by Roseville, 3-2 in the final of three games played Sunday.

Roseville swept through three games over the weekend. Saturday, Roseville ousted Southfield 2-1 in 10 innings, and Sunday Harry Witgen pitched a no-hitter for Roseville against Pontiac.

* * *

Witgen pitched a perfect game except for a lone hit batsman and he won his own game by doubling in Joe Belia in the bottom of the 7th to win 1-0.

Pontiac eliminated Howell on Saturday 5-1 behind the 5-hit pitching of Cal Bidwell.

If Roseville should win tonight against Waterford a second game will be played since Waterford is unbeaten. Since Roseville has one loss in the tourney, another defeat at the hands of Waterford would end the tournament. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

QB Slot Again Chief Worry of Navy's Coach

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—After a year and a half free of quarterback worries, Coach Eddie Erdelatz has 'em again.

* * *

One of the big questions to be settled after the Navy football squad opens its fall practice Wednesday is who will replace George Welsh.

* * *

On the basis of spring practice, Pat Flood, a junior who transferred to Navy after his freshman year at Notre Dame, appears to have the inside track.

Erdelatz plans to start him out as No. 1 this fall and see how he does. But he says the situation is not set.

Tourney Sites Picked

NCAA Sets Sports Dates

DENVER (AP)—The NCAA Executive Committee, at its midyear meeting, announced sites and dates last night for collegiate sports tournaments for 1956-57.

* * *

Among the announcements was the decision to return the 1957 basketball finals to Kansas City, where the tourney was held in 1954 and 1955. Last spring, the tourney was held at Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill.

The 1957 finals, which will follow a round of regional tourneys, will be held March 22-23.

At-large teams will be selected in first-round tournaments March 11-13. After first-round play, competition will start March 15-16 at four regional meets with the following host schools: Pennsylvania, Eastern Division; Kentucky, Midwest; Southern Methodist U., West; Oregon State, Far West.

Dates and sites for other tourneys include:

* * *

Ice hockey, Colorado College, March 14-16; Golf, Colorado College June 23-29; skiing, Utah and Utah State, March 29-31; Tennis, Utah June 17-22; cross-country, Michigan State Nov. 26; fencing, Detroit March 22-23; gymnastics, Navy March 22-23; swimming, North Carolina U. March 28-30; track and field, Texas June 14-14-15, and wrestling, Pittsburgh March 29-30.

Eastern Dog Wins PKC Top Honor, Press Award

By H. GUY MOATS

Michigan dogs came close to being shut out of the winners' circle in the group championships at Pontiac Kennel Club's annual unbenched show at Wisner Stadium, Sunday. Only one from the state, a shepherd owned by an Allegan exhibitor broke into the winners, headed by a beautiful liver and white springer, owned by a Bethel, Conn. woman, Mrs. R. Gilman Smith.

Ch. Mellotus Royal Oak, an 8-year-old veteran campaigner, who goes better by the name of "Oakie," won the best-in-show and the big Pontiac Press best-in-show trophy. "Oakie" had to beat out a terrific field of entries in his own breed to first win the sporting breed group. He outlasted five other group champions for the finals.

Hound breeds — smooth-haired dachshund Ch. Dis von Hohensstaussen, owned by Mary E. Coronet of Washington, D. C.; working breeds—imported English bull terrier (brown and white), Dulac Heatland's Commander, (Dr. E. S. Montgomery of Tarentum, Pa.); toys — white Maltese, Ch. Brittigan's Dark Eyes, (Ann and Stewart Pendleton, Canton, O.), and non-sporting breeds—black miniature poodle, Ch. Wynchewood Black Nero (Mrs. J. Lynn Welsh, Wheaton, Ill.).

"The show was a terrific success," said PKC's Prexy Ed Kraft. "We had a fine gate, a perfect day, and the biggest entry in the show's history."

New golf champion at Franklin Hills CC is Detroit's Art Schlesinger. Sunday he defeated four-time champion Harvey Hubar, 7 and 6.

* * *

Two of the dates and sites listed on the NCAA's calendar for 1956-57 include Michigan state and University of Detroit. The NCAA cross country tournament will be held November 26th at MSU and the NCAA fencing meet will be held at U of D March 22-23.

Boat Races, Driverless

DETROIT (AP)—It was the final heat of the Grosse Pointe Farms Regatta for hydroplanes, and Victor Verhaeghe's little boat was leading the pack of racers down the home stretch.

* * *

Suddenly Verhaeghe was flipped into the water as his boat hit a wave. He was unhurt, but his pilotless craft, skipping along at 50 miles an hour began criss crossing the course.

* * *

The other racers broke off the contest and pursued the runaway boat. In the hectic 15 minutes that followed, a boat driven by Verhaeghe's son Robert collided with another of the pursuers, and the runaway hydroplane bounded into at least two other chasing craft.

* * *

Rosewall Wins Singles Title

Aussies Favored in National Doubles

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP) — The 75th National Doubles Tennis Tournament which opens today may reveal how much Davis Cuppers Ken Rosewall of Australia and Ham Richardson of the United States have learned about the doubles game.

* * *

Rosewall is teamed with Lew Hoad as the top-seeded entry in the men's division of the week-long competition at the Longwood Cricket Club. Richardson is paired with veteran Vic Seixas to form the No. 2 seeded twosome.

Rosewall, who defeated Richardson 6-0, 8-6, 6-2 for the singles title at the Newport Casino Tournament yesterday, was sidelined as a partner in Australia's top doubles combine last year in favor of Rex Hartwig.

After the Rosewall-Hoad team lost to America's Tony Trabert and Seixas in the Davis Cup doubles and the U.S. Nationals in 1954, Hartwig stepped in beside Hoad. Rex is now a professional.

Rosewall has improved steadily in his singles game. Teamed with young Neale Fraser, he has taken the doubles crown at East Orange and Newport.

The upset by Shirley Fry of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Mrs. Betty Rosenquest Pratt of Jamaica, B.W.I., over Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., and Mrs. Margaret Osborne duPont of Wilmington, Del., yesterday in the Essex Women's invitational finals adds spice to the feminine division.

Miss Brough and Mrs. DuPont were top-seeded but fell to Miss Fry and Mrs. Pratt, 6-2, 1-6, 6-4.

Albert, who used to drive opposing linemen dizzy with his "hidden ball tricks" pulled the oft-injured Hugh McElhenny off the bench Sunday and the 49ers swept to a 28-17 victory over the Browns.

In other action Saturday night, the Chicago Bears, sparked by the play of rookie halfback Perry Jeter, defeated the Chicago Cardinals 31-7 and the Green Bay Packers came from behind to overcome the Philadelphia Eagles 27-6.

Doctoring Your Golf Game

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: Poor chipping

TREATMENT: If you watch the pros on the tournament trail, you'll immediately learn to respect the chip-and-run shot as a constant stroke saver. Admittedly it isn't a pretty shot compared with the bold pitch that thumbs on the green with backspin and stops abruptly. But we don't think about the beauty of a stroke. With us it's strictly a case of getting into the cup in the fewest number of shots, with whatever club will do it.

I'm sure the average player would cut his score down quite a few strokes per round if he would keep the pitch clubs in his bag more often from just a few yards off the green and use straighter-faced clubs instead.

In the sketch I am playing a chip-and-run from some five yards off the green's apron over smooth approach turf. I am using a No. 5 iron which, through practice, has become my favorite for the shot. What club to use actually changes with the terrain, with a little more loft required if the approach is over a small incline. The No. 6, 7, or possibly the 8 are the proper clubs in that case.

Sweep the club back low, the left arm in control, and feel the left arm in command as well in the forward swing, as you see in the sketch. Keep the arm firm, so that the back of the left hand stays pointed to the hole, much like a putt. Let the clubhead swing through smoothly, on line. Important: Look the shot over carefully to determine exactly where you want to land the ball on the green. With practice you'll learn just how much roll you get with each club.

Dorow, Janowicz Hurt in Weekend Accidents on Coast

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Two stars of the Washington Redskins backfield, quarterback Al Dorow and halfback Vic Janowicz, were under treatment today for injuries suffered in separate weekend traffic accidents.

* * *

Both figured prominently in the Redskins 39-21 victory over the Los Angeles Rams in a National Football League exhibition game here last Friday night. Dorow went all the way as quarterback, Janowicz kicked a field goal and three conversion points.

* * *

Dorow, 26, complained of a back injury after the accident yesterday near San Bernardino in which his mother-in-law, Mrs. Bernardine Allison, about 43, of Ontario, Calif., was killed.

The quarterback was first taken to the San Bernardino County Hospital, then was released to the care of a private physician.

Janowicz, also 26, suffered a severe concussion, cuts and bruises in an accident Saturday and may be lost to the team for a month, General Manager Dick McCann said. The halfback is in Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital. The team is training at Occidental College here.

12-Year-Old Angler Lands 3-Pound Bass

Fishing alone in a boat near an old dock, Steven hooked into a fighting largemouth bass. The 3-pound-4-ounce fish, taken on a spinrod, with nightcrawler rig, gave Steve a real battle. The 18-incher was Steve's biggest bass.

Consider 5 Doctors for Post on Island

LANSING (AP) — Beaver Island probably will get a new doctor, and he may arrive just in the nick of time.

The island, 30 miles off Charlevoix in Lake Michigan, will lose its only doctor Sept. 12. Many islanders say they will be forced to leave if their families are without medical service.

"We've had about 15 applications and are seriously considering five of them. We should have a decision in the next 10 days," said Dr. Albert E. Heustis, State Health Commissioner.

The Beaver Island physician is an employe of the State Health Department. The department has pressed the search for a new doctor.

Dr. Harry F. Vail, the island's only physician, will return to practice on the mainland after four years on the island.

Hal Boyle Says:

Air Conditioning Clears Political Scene

That air conditioning is responsible for a major improvement in American political practices: The hotel room in which party leaders pick a candidate no longer has to be smoke-filled. Presumably this enables them to see the issues more clearly.

* * *

That Betty Furness, the pretty lady icebox peddler, took a 30-dress wardrobe to the two national political conventions . . . but not to be outdone, Carl King, huckster for a rival TV network, showed up with 15 suits, 8 pairs of shoes, 36 shirts, 20 ties, 5 belts, 8 tiepins, and 24 sets of bvd's.

That Elaine Malbin, the opera singer, has changed her hair style 38 times this year alone.

* * *

That there are only about 125 pounds of steak on a 1,000-pound steer—which explains why most of us have to eat hamburger.

That—male motorists probably won't believe this—two-thirds of the women in America don't drive automobiles. It only seems like the other third all get on the highway at the same time.

That only about 25 per cent of babies born in America now are breast-fed.

That about 30 per cent of the life insurance policy holders in the United States are under 18.

That a columnist in the Missouri State Penitentiary's monthly newspaper—we never knew a well-run prison would board a columnist—observes bitterly, "about the only way for an excon to make an impression today is with his fingerprints."

That if a girl doesn't want too much competition while husband hunting her best bet is to go to college. Two out of three of America's 2,400,000 college students are men.

That a young man seeking a wife who can keep him in the style to which he wants to become accustomed will do better to look for an heiress rather than a working girl. Only 40,000 of the 21 million American women who hold jobs outside the home earn $10,000 or more a year.

That, no matter how many headaches the woes of modern life produce, the drug industry feels ready to cope with them. Does it comfort you to know there are now machines that can spew out a million tablets in 8 hours?

That two-thirds of the rainfall in America falls in the Eastern half of the country—a condition about which Congress has done precious little.

That we may not live as pure lives as our grandparents, but we must be a lot cleaner. The per capita use of water has increased from 600 gallons a day to 1,500 gallons in the last half century.

That only one out of every 10 people who start a diet ever get down to their desired weight—and stick to it.

That men, who've always had the job of "bringing home the bacon," now are playing a bigger role in selecting all the family groceries. Checks by supermarkets show that only 52.7 per cent of sales are made to women shopping alone.

* * *

That a lady named Ann Necchi used 124,000 yards of thread to sew the U. S. Constitution on a blue felt cloth 210 by 18 feet. Can't help wondering where she'll hang it—in the guest room?

That Gertrude Berg — "Molly Goldberg" — gives this leap year tip: "A sensible girl should have enough sense not to look like a sensible girl."

CONVENIENCE — The clock-radio's set for tomorrow morning. It will play for half-an-hour before absolute rising time and then the buzzer will go off. For Saturday's outing he can detach the clock, have lightweight portable battery radio.

Portugal Plans Highway

LISBON—Construction of a new highway to link Lisbon and Vila Franca de Xira will be started soon to provide better access from the capital to Portugal's northern provinces. Vila Franca is the center of the bull-fighting region.

What Is a Convention? Freeloaders' Paradise

By EARL WILSON

SAN FRANCISCO—"The Ringling circus didn't close down," the fellow said. "It just moved on to Chicago and San Francisco . . ."

I gained four pounds eating and drinking up that hospitality of the old south (South Chicago). I never saw the like. You needed three or four stomachs and, to tell the truth, I put on another one. Now we wonder how much more we'll gain in San Francisco.

"Have some Corona-Coronas on Ave Harriman," a guy said to me, handing me half a dozen, or about four bucks' worth.

But probably the high in hospitality was when some country fresh milk flown in from Philadelphia was placed on my doorstep—by which I mean the threshold of room 2513 at the Conrad Hilton.

"Since your B. W. is from Wilkes-Barre, she is entitled to the same courtesy. Princess Grace Kelly was raised on this milk, as it is a very old dairy."

Well, I am getting to be a very old columnist and I need an alternate to help me with the free-loading. Airlines, broadcasting companies, etc., have booze and tubs of beer on ice.

Drop into the NBC Hospitality Trailers and Gen. Sarnoff or Mannie Sachs, the Veep, may not only force a drink on you but compel you to eat a big dinner.

"So you've already had dinner . . . Come on, have another one."

Then there was that Coca-Cola. Coke generously paid the Hilton Corp. for each bottle of Coke that Coca-Cola gave away in the hotel.

As each of the 3,000 rooms was given four bottles, it was a big tab—just to give away your own product.

Pepsi and the southern colas also flooded us. Free "Dr. Pepper" anybody?

Some delegates wore "I like Ice" badges. The partying began with breakfast. The two-party system now refers to two at the same time.

"I'm a Harriman man," a fellow told me, "and I started to a Harriman party but got to one Adlai was giving.

"Adlai was serving highballs, peanuts and pretzels. I went on to Ave's party where they had punch, sandwiches and cake. I got to wondering," he hiccoughed, "whether we want a punch-and-cake man in the White House."

Poor Dave Garroway couldn't enjoy this as he's on a skim-milk diet and at the famous Pump Room it only cost him $1.50 for a quart. It was served in a champagne bucket, though.

★ ★ ★

Yes, the number of free saloons there was staggering and so were the guests.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL IN N.Y. . . .

Hey, Ted Williams! There's now a "Spittoon Song" . . . Monaco Buzz: Wealthy Aristotle Onassis may pull out of the Monte Carlo gambling setup . . . Paramount wants to screen-test Sonny (64G Challenge) Fox . . . Lex Barker boasts that he owns more bathing suits than his wife, Lana Turner.

Two Central Park checker players discourage kibitzers with a sign: "Our next move is you" . . . Joe Louis dieted off ten pounds after his heart scare . . . Biggest buy in town: A 99c volume entitled "Divorce Laws in the 48 States."

Earl's Pearls . . .

A man's like a gun. He may feel like a Colt, yet look like an old 45.—Art Moger, Boston.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "A man who refused to fight used to be called a coward. Today they call him a bachelor."—Tony Vogel.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Taffy Tuttle said she'd been two-thirds married once: "I was there. The minister was there. But my boy friend wasn't there."

Tony Curtis Real Excited Over Being – a Papa

By DOROTHY MANNERS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Not since the birth of his daughter has Tony Curtis been so excited about anything as he is over being top candidate for "John Paul Jones" at Warners. The deal between producer Sam Bronston, director William Dieterle and Tony is all but set, and there's no doubt but this would be papa Curtis' biggest chance yet to shine as an actor.

While he's younger than Robert Taylor and Jimmy Cagney also hinted for the life of America's beloved naval hero), John Paul Jones didn't live to celebrate his 40th birthday, so there's not too much "aging" to do.

Tony is a free agent after completing his final picture for U-I last week.

Of all people to play a maiden aunt, and a frustrated one at that, —is Joan Blondell, who is set for the frustrated maiden aunt in "Woman in Hell" with Eleanor Parker.

The hale and hearty Joan is getting a kick out of this job. She told Kirk Douglas, for whose Bryna Productions she's playing this role, "I haven't been a maiden nor an aunt in so long,—this will be sheer talent."

Joan's been playing summer stock in the East ever since finishing "The Opposite Sex" at MGM but she'll be here Aug. 27. Mel Dinelli wrote the screenplay and Hugo Haas directs "Woman in Hell."

Everything's all right with Rita Gam again. The beautiful Rita, who has been ailing since bridesmaiding for Grace Kelly in Monaco, looked wonderfully well (a friend reports; dining with her book-publisher bridegroom, Tom Guinzburg, at the Harwyn Club in New York.

Rita reported that she's feeling so well she's resuming her career. She'll star in "Wedding Breakfast" (stage version of "Catered Affair") at the Sea Cliff summer theater on Long Island late this month.

Carroll Baker's like a kid finally getting around to furnishing the New York apartment she and Jack Garfein rented way back in 1955 before fame came in a big way. They had bought no more than a stove and an icebox when out of the blue Carroll was called to the coast for "Giant" followed by the role they say will make her a star in "Baby Doll" for Elia Kazan.

* * *

After this, she joined Jack in Florida where he's been directing "End as a Man." Last week, when the young couple finally returned home, Carroll took a look around and said, "The baby will be here before the TV set."

HOLLYWOOD IN SHORTS: Anne Baxter, who hasn't been in New York in two years, arrives today to visit her family and see the press regarding "The Ten Commandments."

Always known as a director of "he-man" stories, John Farrow is switching to the "she-women" field with Anita Ekberg in his "Back From Eternity" and Diana Dors coming up in "Lady and the Prowler."

Back 2 From UP for GOP State Slate

MANISTIQUE (AP) — Michael T. O'Hara, a Menominee attorney, and John Belamy of Petoskey, have the backing of the Northern Michigan Republican Assn. for top offices at the Republican State Convention next month.

The association endorsed O'Hara as a candidate for the State Supreme Court and Belamy as auditor general at a weekend meeting in Manistique.

Both men will be presented as candidates at the GOP convention in Grand Rapids, Sept. 1. Traditionally, one post on the Republican state ticket is reserved for a Northern Michigan candidate.

British Cardinal Dies of Heart Attack at 57

LONDON (AP)—Bernard Cardinal Griffin, archbishop of Westminster and Britain's highest Roman Catholic prelate, died early today after a heart attack. He was 57 and had been in poor health the past five years.

* * *

The son of a Birmingham City councillor, the cardinal was noted as a scholar, church administrator and authority on canon law. Educated at Cotton College in Warwickshire and in Rome, he was ordained in 1924.

* * *

He succeeded the late Arthur Cardinal Hinsley as archbishop of Westminster and leader of Britain's 3½ million Roman Catholics in 1943. Three years later he was elevated to the rank of cardinal.

Rye Moves Up on Grain Market

CHICAGO (AP)—Grains drifted lower in quiet dealings on the Board of Trade today, only rye being able to make upward progress.

* * *

While there wasn't much pressure on the market, activity in all pits was very limited. The buying in rye reflected a further upturn in this cereal at Winnipeg. The Canadian rye crop is expected to be down sharply this year from last year's production.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was 1⅛ to ⅜ lower, Sept. $2.19⅜; corn ⅛ to ⅝ lower, Sept. $1.50¾; oats unchanged to ¼ lower, Sept. 74¾; rye 2¼ to 3 higher, Sept. $1.47; soybeans ½ lower to one cent higher, Sept. $2.48¼; and lard unchanged to 10 cents a hundred lower, Sept. $12.10.

Slavery Exists in Middle East

Saudi Arabia Remains as Leading Stronghold in Modern World

Money from royalties is plentiful in this oil rich country and there is a steadily growing demand for domestic and work slaves. Twentieth - century slave hunters use all the old methods of enticement and kidnap, plus some new techniques.

Saudi slave-dealers roam on motor trucks as far as French Equatorial Africa, Nigeria and the Belgian Congo. They choose remote villages out of sight of the police or army, pretend they are Moslem missionaries and proceed to convert the healthiest looking specimens to the faith of Islam.

The article discloses that these men persuade their victims that the quickest way to ensure an eternal future in Paradise is to make the pilgrimage to Mecca. Upon reaching Saudi Arabia the pilgrims are placed under immediate arrest for "illegal entry" and then eventually disappear into the slave markets.

According to the story, oft-times attractive girls are drugged, and transported to the illegal slave bazaars of Aleppo in Syria, where they are then sold into the harems of the desert sheiks.

* * *

Detroit Girl Injured on County Highway

Twelve-year-old Barbara L. Hunt, of 15908 Asburn, Detroit, is in good condition at Pontiac General Hospital today after being injured Sunday afternoon when she was struck by a car while riding on a bicycle.

She is being treated for multiple cuts and bruises. The accident occurred on N. Milford Road in Highland Township.

Darleen B. Hockridge, 31, of 170 N. Opdyke, told investigators from the Oakland County Sheriff's Department she tried to avoid the collision but could not turn away in time when the girl tried to cross the road in front of her car.

All Out of Shakes?

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — If Gov. Arthur B. Langlie's gestures are not up to snuff when he makes his keynote speech this afternoon, there's a reason. He has shaken hands so much since his arrival here Friday that he has developed a sore hand.

Stock Market Irregular Today

NEW YORK (AP)—The Stock market plodded an irregular course in early trading today. Dealings returned quiet after a moderately active opening.

Gains in key issues ranged up to around a point, while losses were mostly in fractions.

There was little in the way of major news to influence the market sentiment. In London, some delegates to the important Suez conference reported the danger of a shooting war over the canal dispute was fading.

Glenn L. Martin again was heavily traded today, with an opening block of 7,500 shares up ¾ at 37. On Friday, Martin was the most active issue on the exchange, gaining 1½ at 36¼ on 32,800 shares. Brokers attributed the advance to word of big contracts the company has received in the intercontinental guided missile field.

International Paper was ahead more than a point after losing 3½ points on Friday. Directors on Friday approved plans for a merger of International and Long Bell Lumber.

Higher by fractions were Youngstown Sheet, Chrysler, Douglas Aircraft, Southern California Edison, International Nickel and Eastern Airlines.

U.S. Housewives Learn How to Haggle in Spain

MADRID — With the backing of the Spanish Government, classes have been organized at the famed Academicia de Gastronomia at which American housewives living in Madrid can learn how to haggle with the butcher, the baker, the grocer, and the cook.

The lessons, conducted by some of Spain's best chefs, are free. The Americans learn how to shop in Spanish, how to instruct their servants, and how to prepare Spanish dishes.

Nickel-plating was developed on a commercial basis in 1870.

Republicans Have Tough Task Ahead Trying to Regain Control of Congress

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Republican National Convention was told today President Eisenhower must have a GOP-controlled Congress so his program will be supported with "wholehearted cooperation" instead of being hampered by "partisan heckling."

Presenting what they called "the case for a Republican Congress," GOP congressional leaders stressed the importance of eliminating the bottlenecks, as they put it, "of political frustration created when a president is of one party and the Congress controlled by another."

* * *

In a prepared speech, Rep. Richard Simpson of Pennsylvania, chairman of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, promised that a GOP Congress "will remove the president of the United States from a position of supplication in dealing with the nation's welfare."

* * *

Sen. Andrew Schoeppel of Kansas, chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, said in another prepared talk the need now is for a GOP Congress so "the virtue of good government will be continuousuly geared to the economic and social progress that has been reached today" under the Eisenhower administration.

Schoeppel said the Republicans have built a stronger America despite what he denounced as "the tear down tactics of the New Dealers."

* * *

The campaign committees which Simpson and Schoeppel head have the job of helping elect Republicans to Congress by furnishing them money, materials and advice.

To bolster their "case," the Republican leaders lined up a roster of GOP Congress members and candidates for the House and Senate. This is what they said in prepared remarks:

* * *

Rep. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania—"All who believe in the spiritual equality of men are glad that President Eisenhower and the Republican party have used their days in office to protect the rights of all Americans against segregation and prejudice."

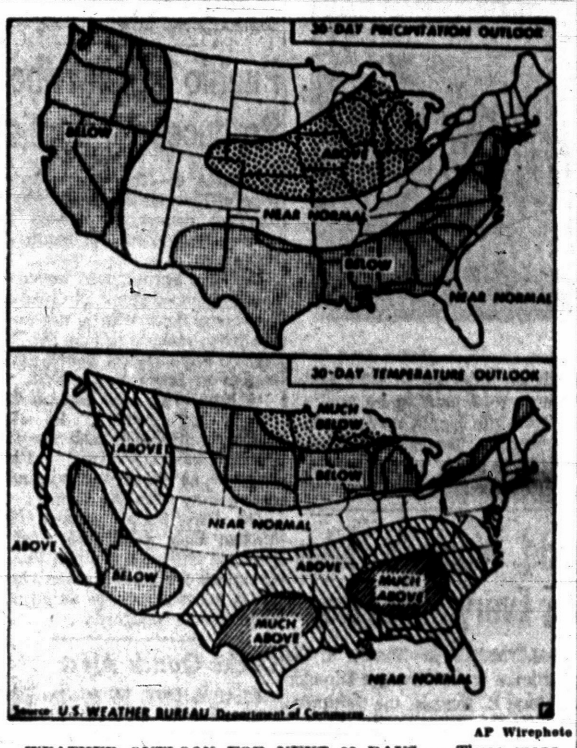

Rep. Melvin Laird of Wisconsin—"as a result of Republican action in Congress and by the Eisenhower administration, the decline in farm prices was halted and farm families can look to the future with confidence."

* * *

Rep. Bruce Alger of Texas — "Out of the fiscal mess of waste, high taxes and a mounting public debt, a Republican Congress and Republican administration began the long rebuilding of public trust in handling the tax money of our people."

* * *

Rep. Katharine St. George of New York—"We know from the record of the Republican administration that men of vision and courage now deal with the leaders of the Soviet Union . . . from the moment a Republican Congress and a Republican president took office in 1953 the job of breaking down the roadblocks to permanent peace began."

Murphy Park Celebration Is Planned for Labor Day

The annual Labor Day parade sponsored by the Oakland County CIO Council has been canceled for this year, Albert Wilkinson, chairman of Labor Day festivities has announced.

* * *

Plans are in formulation stages, however, Wilkinson said, for a big celebration for the public at Murphy Park in Pontiac during Labor Day afternoon and evening.

It will be a day of games, top speakers an amateur contest, softball, food, dancing and music, Wilkinson said.

Speakers invited for the day include Gov. G. Mennen Williams, Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart; Walter Reuther, UAW president; Emil Mazey, president of local 600 of the Ford Motor Co.; William McAulay, director of Region 1-B; August Scholle, president of Michigan CIO Council and Senator Patrick V. McNamara.

* * *

Also in one of the top spots on the program is an amateur contest. Anyone who wishes may enter by registering with the CIO Council, 22½ Lawrence St.

Prizes will be awarded in both senior and junior divisions.

* * *

A baton twirling exhibition featuring 30 county twirlers is also planned for the festivities along with continuous band music and games.

The day's program will begin at 12:30 at Murphy Park with flag raising ceremonies and invocation.

Committee members include Eugene Sutherland, 617 Marke, park committee; Cameron Willinson, 387 Prospect, recreation; Mrs. Grace Miller, 9587 Dixie Highway, refreshments; and Mrs. Mildred A. Burns, 59 Monroe, program.

'Jock' Whitney Slated for Ambassador Post

LONDON (AP)—John Hay "Jock" Whitney has been offered the job of American ambassador to Britain should President Eisenhower be re-elected, an informed source said today.

Winthrop W. Aldrich, the present U. S. envoy to London, is reported to have recommended Whitney, wealthy 52-year-old New York financier and sportsman, as his successor.

Rites for Beatification of Pope Innocent Slated

VATICAN CITY (AP)—L'Osservatore Romano, the Vatican newspaper, said today Pope Pius XII has set Oct. 7 as the date for the ceremony of beatification of Pope Innocent XI. The previous indicated date was Oct. 21.

There has been speculation that Pope Pius would call a consistory of the College of Cardinals to add solemnity to the beatification rites — a step in the process of elevation to sainthood.

KEEP A STIFF UPPER LIP—Politicians beware! A new television profession has been introduced by NBC in their coverage of political conventions. NBC has hired Dolores Mona, a professional lip reader, shown here during her monitorial duties as she watched former President and Mrs. Harry Truman at the Democratic National Convention in Chicago last week, to monitor the mouthings of on-camera, off-sound personalities at both the Democratic and Republican conventions. Miss Mona says that President Eisenhower is a hard man to read because he smiles so much and the smiles tend to obliterate the speech movements. Of Adlai Stevenson, she says he is a mixture, because he jokes a lot and moves his head around making it rough on the reader, but when you catch him still he is not hard to read.

HOOVER WITH NIXON — Former President Herbert Hoover has a handshake for Vice President Richard Nixon as they met in San Francisco yesterday on the eve of the opening of the Republican National Convention. Republicans were streaming into town today bent on pushing back Harold Stassen's bid to replace Nixon on the GOP ticket.

Uphill Battle All Right

Can Nixon Scale Frisco?

By WALTER KIERNAN

SAN FRANCISCO (INS) — The Republicans have a horizontal convention going in this vertical city and they'll have a difficult time proving they're not slanting their speeches.

If he is unseated by Harold the harrier it will be only because he let go the ski tow rope.

Nixon is from California and knows how to lean uphill in San Francisco.

On the other hand Stassen is the fellow who slipped Wendell Willkie under the curtain in Philadelphia in 1940 while Dewey was still writing his acceptance speech.

Tempestuous Tom had just gotten as far as "fellow delegates . . ." in the writing of the speech when the handwriting on the wall reported "Willkie wins."

Willkie didn't win the national election but don't blame that on Harold . . . his influence on Democrats was thin. In fact he had just learned how to handle Republicans.

So while it may seem that Harold will be ineffectual here let us rest our case for him on political history until the new page is written.

One thing you can truthfully report about any activity in San Francisco . . . it's an uphill battle even when it's going well.

FAMILIAR GRIN — President Eisenhower sported his ready grin yesterday for photographers as he left church after attending services with the First Lady. The President plans to leave tomorrow, a day earlier than he had planned, for the Republican National Convention in San Francisco. White House Secretary James Hagerty, who announced the change in schedule, also denied a Miami Herald published report that Eisenhower faces a second intestinal operation.

Wouldn't It Be Better to Drive Safely?

The 22 - year - old driver, said Sheriff Stanley M. Christian, was strapped in the seat of his car. "That's the only reason he's not dead right now."

Doty's car roared along the shoulder of the road, then spun out of control going frontward, then sideways and then frontward again, then sideways for 230 feet. The auto rocketed into a utility pole and snapped it in half. The car went 150 feet more and crashed into a two-foot thick tree.

The sheriff said the motorist, though seriously hurt, was strapped in the seat and alive, despite a fractured pelvs, broken left elbow and head injuries.

Pueblo Indian Tribe Produces 1st Dentist

OMAHA (AP)—The Pueblo Indian tribe of New Mexico has produced its first dentist, 25-year-old Dr. George Blue Spruce of Santa Fe, N.M.

Dr. Blue Spruce, who wound up seven years of study at Creighton University here with a degree in dentistry, planned to take the New Mexico State Dental Board examination at Santa Fe June 18.

"I hope to go back and practice among my people," he said, "through affiliation with the U.S. Public Health Service." First, however, he will serve two years on active duty with the Navy.

Dr. Blue Spruce won a New Mexico Elks scholarship which paid his tuition, books and fees at Creighton for his full seven years. He is married and has an adopted 18-month-old daughter.

Ducks Quack Alert

CLAREMONT, N. H.—Do ducks post sentries? Yes, says wildlife photographer Howard Modavis in The Claremont Eagle. While observing a large flock of migratory ducks, he noticed that when anything frightened the ones that were awake, they would quack loudly, waking the others. And the sentries would not leave till all the sleeping ducks had wakened and flown away.

Piecework Favored

OSLO—About 65 per cent of Norway's industrial workers are employed on a piecework basis. This compares with 25 per cent in 1938. In construction the figure now ranges between 80 and 90 per cent. In some trades as many as 95 per cent labor on a piecework basis.

Beagles Most Popular

NEW YORK—The beagle hound, with 55,091 registered in 1955, still leads in popularity among dogs in this country, according to the American Kennel Club. The beagle in 1953 displaced the cocker spaniel from first place after cockers had rated first for an unprecedented 17 years. At present boxers are second in popularity and cockers third.

Odd, Money's There for Everything Else

BALTIMORE (AP)—Thanks to the thriftiness of U.S. Budget Director Rowland R. Hughes, the Baltimore Assn. of Commerce has brought the 65 billion dollar federal budget $5 closer to being balanced.

When the association invited Hughes, a New York banker, to speak at one of its meetings, officials also requested a photograph of him to publish in the association's magazine.

Hughes replied that the federal budget does not appropriate money for photographs of the budget director. The association had to pay a commercial photographer $5 to take a picture of Hughes.

Can't Stop Good Deeds With Failing Schedule

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Kentucky farmers were behind in their plowing and planting this year but it didn't keep them from good deeds.

Worth Weighti n Gold

MADRID—In the Middle Ages the Knights Templar once had to match a lady's weight in gold to free her from a castle 100 miles southwest of Madrid. The place became known as Oropesa ("weig in gold") and its crest came to bear the image of a maiden, a tower, a scale, and a pile of coins. Modern visitors to Oropesa can get lodging in the 15th Century palace of the Dukes of Frias.

Foils Woodpeckers

ST. LOUIS — The only way to make utility poles woodpecker-proof is to wrap them with heavy gauge steel webbing. This is prohibitively expensive except in remote areas where the extremely high cost of replacing a ruined pole makes it economically necessary.

They Produce or Else—It's Really a Dog's Life

Sao Paulo Governor Janio Quadros received a report on the activities of police dogs owned by the state in tracking down criminals. It appeared the dogs were not living up to expectations.

Card of Thanks 1

I WISH TO THANK THE MANY relatives, friends and neighbors for their kind expressions of sympathy during the recent bereavement of my husband, Claude Earl Kilman. I also want to express my gratitude to the Pontiac Township Fire Dept., to Rev. Lindsay, and to Huntoon Funeral Home. Mrs. Claude Earl Kilman.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF EARL Finch, who passed away 1 year ago, Aug. 19. Sadly missed by wife Nina, Children and Grandchildren.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF FRED Johnson, who passed away Aug. 20, 1955.
Where loveliness never dies,
He lives in the land of glory,
Mid the blue & gold of the sky,
Gone from us who loved him,
Into the heaven of rest.
To the home of our loving Savior,
Sweetly his soul to rest.
His absence silent grief.
He is sleeping in God's garden,
In the sunset of perfect peace.

IN MEMORY OF OUR SON AND brother, Wilfred Bowen, who passed away one year ago, Aug. 20.
Empty are our hearts since the day we had to part.
We will always love and remember you.
Steve, Sandra and Mary Bowen.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF HOWard C. Harroun, who passed away Aug. 19th, 1955.
A wonderful Husband, man and aide.
Oen who was better, God never made.
A wonderful worker, so loyal and true,
One in a million, that Husband was you.
Just in your judgment, always upright.
Honest, liberal, ever upright.
Loved by your friends and all you knew,
A wonderful Husband, that Husband was you.
Sadly missed by Rose.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF HOWard C. Harroun, who passed away Aug. 19th, 1955.
He was a buddy he was a pal,
Right up to the end.
He shared our good times, as he shared our bad.
There was no other like him.
He was our Dad.
Sadly missed by his stepchildren, and their families.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MY husband, Wilfred Bowen, who passed away Aug. 20th, 1955.
Thy will be done.
Wilma

Movie Methods Are Too Torrid

Terry Moore Learns to Avoid Hollywood's Sizzling Embraces

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Why hasn't television developed any great lovers like the Valentinos, the John Gilberts, the Frank Sinatras and the Bill Holdens of the movies?

* * *

As one CBS executive summed it:

"You just can't get torrid in the living room even in this air conditioned age."

John Cassevetes, a veteran of many TV kissing scenes, and Terry Moore, who has been kissed often and long in the movies, found this out the past few days in rehearsing for the television show, "Climax."

* * *

The young Broadway actor made only one movie, "Crime in the Streets," wherein he played a juvenile delinquent. Miss Moore has done little television. The two appeared on TV in "The Right to Kill," adapted from Dostoyevsky's classic "Crime and Punishment."

It was Cassevetes' job, during rehearsals, to coach Miss Moore in the kissing scenes, to slow down her too torrid movie approach.

She suggested that one scene be best played by Cassavetes kissing the back of her ear. That was taboo.

"My husband will be watching this show," she laughed. She was recently wed to Eugene McGrath, young Panama businessman.

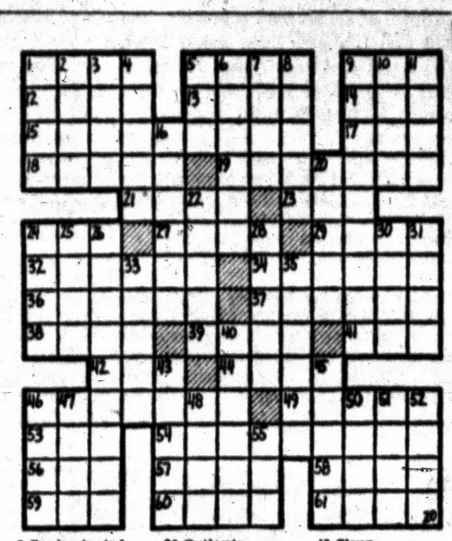

She said that almost every love scene she played in the movie version of "Come Back, Little Sheba"—a portrayal that won her an Academy Award nomination—would be red penciled on television.

Grand Rapids Man Dies in Arizona Auto Crash

TOPOCK, Ariz. (AP) — Gorden A. King, 20, of Grand Rapids, was killed yesterday when the car he was in collided with a truck.

Joseph Bundey of Los Angeles, driver of the car, also was killed.

By CHARLES DENTON

SAN FRANCISCO (INS) — Wendell Corey, whose face will be first one you'll see on television from the Republican convention hall, admitted today it's the first time in his career he has been scared to death by a bit part.

"I'm a little numb. No, I'm scared to death," the slim, soft-spoken screen star said of his role as emcee of the first day or two—or maybe three—of the roaring Republican show.

"To tell the truth, I'm sort of confused right now about what I'm supposed to do, too," he puzzled as he pulled his clothes on before charging off to a briefing session he hoped would clarify matters a bit.

"Originally, I was supposed to emcee the first and second sessions. Now I understand it's the first and third and maybe the second. I just don't know yet."

Besides being bewildered about his schedule, Corey admitted to some dismay about the nature of his appointed task in the great GOP scheme. He's never been an emcee before.

'I HAVE A ROLE'

"But I suppose I just say who's coming on next," he shrugged. "That's about the limits of my abilities. Just try to keep 'em in the room.

"Mine is a small role anyway, but how could I resist it? How could anyone resist a thing like this? My presence around here certainly isn't going to influence any votes, but at least I have a role."

As it is for many of the less lustrous conventioneers, the conclave is the first Corey has ever attended, and he is as thrilled as a kid at a candy store auction.

"Even when it's dull, it has drama about it," he said with obvious glee. "It's sort of like a championship fight. This isn't just playing around; this is it."

HE HELPED OUT

A paradoxical aspect of Corey's selection by GOP entertainment chief George Murphy to open the dikes for the flood of words that will stream from the convention rostrum in the next week is that Corey is neither a Republican nor a Democrat—by registration.

But he "campaigned—well, helped out" for President Eisenhower in 1952.

"I'd have been flattered if the Democrats had asked me to emcee their show, though," he said. "But don't misunderstand me, I'm an Ike man."

In his still cloudy capacity, Corey will introduce some of the other entrees on Murphy's entertainment menu, including, on the opening day, Dennis Morgan, Jane Powell, Ethel Merman and Irene Dunn.

* * *

All but Miss Dunne will attempt to soothe any savage feelings in the hall with music. Miss Powell drew the honor of singing the national anthem at tomorrow's second session, and Miss Dunne will recite "The President's Prayer."

In the days that follow, quite an impressive display of show business talent will perform for the delegates, including Irving Berlin, Lucille Norman, John Charles Thomas, Patrice Munsell, Lee Bowman and Nat (King) Cole.

GOP Points to Its Record in Pitch for Labor's Vote

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Republican platform writers today pitched for the labor vote this fall by pointing to record employment and saying that "the American wage earner . . . can buy more than ever before . . ."

* * *

Framing a tentative plank expected to be approved by the GOP National Convention tomorrow, they declared:

"The Eisenhower administration has brought to our people the highest employment, the highest wages and the highest standard of living ever enjoyed by any nation."

They also charged that a Democratic - controlled Congress blocked "needed changes" in the Act, and various administration-sponsored proposals in the health-welfare field.

Meanwhile, the 105-member Drafting Committee met behind closed doors again last night seeking a compromise on the potentially explosive civil rights issue.

The platform committee, after four hours of debate, approved early today a civil rights plank its chariman said would help the GOP in both the North and the South.

Southern members intimated they were not so sure of Sen. Prescott Bush's optimism. But there was no indication the Dixie delegates would take the issue to the floor of the National Convention opening today.

The wording of the plank was not made public, but it was understood to say the party "accepts" the Supreme Court decision barring racial segregation in the public schools as the law of the land.

It approves the civilrights recommendations of President Eisenhower, specifically mentioning proposals for a civil rights commission and to give the Department of Justice a new civil rights division.

* * *

Bush, of Connecticut, said the proposed plank would be made public later today. He added that the civil rights plank drafting completed work on the 5,000-word platform, which is subject to convention approval.

Bush described the conclusions on civil rights as "very harmonious" and couched in language reflecting Eisenhower's views "very faithfully."

He also said the plank was stronger than that of the Democrats.

Stassen Getting Nowhere—Quick

By SAUL PETT

Almost everyone agrees to what's coming — another Eisenhower-Nixon ticket. In a broad sea of confidence, the only island of contention is a tiny atoll manned by Harold E. Stassen. It is well off the main shipping lanes; Stassen's headquarters in the St. Francis Hotel gets few important visitors.

Pictures of President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon are the only ones hanging in the convention hall, in the lobbies and corridors of the graceful old hotels atop Nob Hill and along the alpine slopes of Powell Street. Pictures of any other candidates are harder to find than an empty hotel room.

Everywhere you turn you're handed Eisenhower-Nixon buttons, you see Eisenhower-Nixon signs like "Click with Ike and Dick," you see dancers and singers whooping it up for the incumbents.

Last night a hotel rumor swept past the sedate marble columns of the Fairmont Hotel. The rumor was that one key delegation was badly split—where to have dinner. But it quickly blew over.

Outside of Stassen's small voice, there are just no signs of disagreement here. You don't see candidates racing between hotels to make their sales pitches. You see none of the frantic pulling and hauling, banging attacks and counterattacks and other signs of battle you saw among the Democrats at Chicago last week.

* * *

The convention hall itself is the big Cow Palace, south of town, at the foot of San Bruno Mountain and near "Boneyard Hill," where animal carcasses are pulverized into fertilizer. Like the Democrats at the Chicago Stockyards Amphitheater, delegates at this convention will not be without a memorable odor.

In a barn near the main hall, the Republicans have 2,000 extras on hand — "volunteers" who will be rushed, 500 at a clip, into the hall to fill any sizable empty spaces that may develop in the spectator seats.

Inside the Palace — which, incidentally, was built by the Roosevelt administration's WPA — pictures of Eisenhower and Nixon hang at the east end. Each is 10 by 20 feet. At the opposite end is a huge gold and bronze display featuring an Eisenhower and Lincoln medallion and the words, "peace—prosperity."

The speaker's platform here is a switch on the Democrats. In Chicago, the floor where the speaker stood could be raised or lowered to adjust to his height. Here the floor remains stationary but the lectern will be moved up or down.

Yesterday technicians were busy making last minute adjustments. Robert Montgomery, the presidential television adviser was there to make certain, he said, the television picture will not be cluttered by distracting elements when Eisenhower speaks.

* * *

Among other things, Prince said, he plans sudden outbursts of Eisenhower enthusiasm led by collegiate cheer leaders. From the spectator baleonies will come clickety-clap type chants, like "Who do you like—Ike, Ike, Ike." Young Chines Republicans will whoop it up with dragons.

On the occasion of the first federal census taken in 1790, only about 5 per cent of the entire population of the U. S. lived in cities or towns.

Some 500 new hotel guest untis are planned or under construction in Jamaica. This will mean an increase of about 15 per cen over the 3,500 units now available in Jamaica's 54 hotels and numerous guest houses.
