Ike Praises Mrs. Hobby's Handling of Vaccine

House Expected to Approve Ike's Reserve Plan

Measure Due to Pass Intact Despite Efforts to Soften or Kill It

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration's program to build up the military reserves was expected to pass the House intact today despite efforts to soften or kill it.

Rep. Brooks (D-La) predicted it would pass without major amendments, but only after a fight. Brooks leads House forces backing the legislation, which already falls somewhat short of original Pentagon requests.

President Eisenhower is behind the measure to give the military limited authority to enforce reserve obligations and to provide a new plan for training up to one million teenage volunteers in four years.

In one key provision, the measure would authorize the Pentagon to recall for 45 days' active duty reservists who fail to maintain a minimum of 84 weekly drills and 15 days' summer training a year, or the equivalent.

Involved are draftees and volunteers who have completed active duty since mid-1953 and are obligated for a total of five years' active and reserve service.

SOFTENS PROPOSAL

The House Armed Services Committee softened the Pentagon's original proposal to make these reservists liable to a discharge other than honorable if they failed to keep up their training. But Brooks said he expected attempts to reduce the enforcement provision further.

In a second key section, the measure would provide for up to 250,000 volunteers a year to be given six months' special training, followed by 7½ years' active reserve duty. The volunteers, between 17-19 years old, would save 18 months from the two years of active duty required of draftees. But they would put in this time in reserve duty.

Rep. Barden (D-NC) said he intends to offer a counterproposal that would permit students to fulfill their entire military obligation by taking three months' training each summer for four years.

Polio Victory Seen Aiding Cancer Study

WASHINGTON (INS)—Sen. Lister (Hill (D-Ala) said today that success with the Salk polio vaccine may crack the financial barrier to the cure and prevention of cancer.

The chairman of the Senate Appropriations subcommitte said he will move to restore the four million dollar cut the administration made and the House sustained in funds for cancer research.

He said he agreed completely with a witness who summed up the polio vaccine story in this terse sentence: "Came the money, came the men, came the victory."

Hill hopes to persuade Congress to apply this same formula to cancer research.

Cancer specialists testified that they have greater hope of triumph than ever before and are eager to expand their program. They said the National Cancer Institute should have the full $26 million it asked for next year's work. The budget bureau and the House approved only $22 million.

New York Shows Way to Save on Mailing

RENO, Nev. (AP)—The state of Nevada, which thinks it knows how to pinch pennies, got a lesson from wealthy New York yesterday.

Letters received by the Nevada Tax Commission from the New York Department of Taxation and Finance were enclosed in envelopes printed nearly a quarter of a century ago.

They still listed Alfred E. Smith as governor, although he left office in 1928.

End Undersea A-Test

WASHINGTON (UP)—The government announced yesterday it "successfully completed" history's second underwater atomic test — presumably of a nuclear depth charge or other missile designed to destroy enemy submarines.

DISCUSS SOVIET POLICY SHIFT — President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Dulles are all smiles at discussion in Washington before battery of cameras when they assessed the meaning of recent shifts in Soviet policy. The Eisenhower administration is preparing for a top-level Big Four conference with Russia in a belief it may prove the "new dawn" of peace is breaking over the world.

Says Death Car in Wrong Lane

Witness Testifies Here in Manslaughter Trial of Metamora Woman

A witness testified yesterday in Circuit Court that the car driven by a 19-year-old girl charged with manslaughter was on the wrong side of the road when it crashed headon with another last Dec. 5, resulting in the death of five Oxford residents.

Charged is Mrs. Erlene Wagenshutz, of 75 W. High, Metamora. The accident occured on M24's "Slaughter Hill" a mile north of Oxford.

Robert D. Wilson, of 1540 Lapeer Rd., Orion Twp., said the Wagenshutz auto was passing his in a yellow-line zone when the crash took place with a northbound auto driven by Harold Mangum, 21, of 49 Brabb Rd., who was killed.

Four occupants of the girl's car also died. They were Max Smith, 28, of 4 W. Burdick, Mrs. Edna Kuck, 31, of 30 Pleasant St., Charles Nelson, 25, of 32 Cottage Ct. and Lynn Best, 27, of 9 Stanton.

In his opening talk to the nine-woman, three-man jury, Assistant Oakland County Prosecutor Homer G. Gerue said he intended to prove Mrs. Wagenshutz was driving under influence of intoxicating liquor and at an excessive rate of speed.

Wilson's wife, Opal, testified she saw the accused, Nelson, Mrs. Kuck and Best in a tavern on M24 north of the accident scene shortly before the crash occurred. The four had beer on the table, she stated.

Waterford Township Patrolman Steve Hubbell who handled the accident while employed as a sheriff's deputy described the position of the two death cars and three others which crashed into them after the first smashup.

The trial was continuing today before visiting Circuit Judge Archie D. McDonald of Hastings.

Motorists' Nightmare

GRAND RAPIDS (UP) — Police and City Highway Department employes picked up several thousand small nails yesterday after they spilled from a truck. Police said the driver of the truck apparently didn't know the keg had tipped over and kept on driving, dripping nails for several blocks.

Defendant in Rape Trial Charges Police Threats

One of four men accused of kidnaping and raping a Pontiac housewife March 6 testified yesterday that threats by Pontiac Police officers caused him to make statements immediately following his arrest which differ with his assertions during the trial.

Joe Williams Jr., 23, of 38 Lake St., was cross examined yesterday afternoon by Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem before a crowd overflowing Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland's small courtroom.

Ziem pointed out that, in a statement at the police station to Chief Assistant Prosecutor George F. Taylor, defendant Williams said he had been drinking during the night in question and had never been arrested or convicted previous to March 6.

"Yet you stated today that you had not been drinking," said Ziem. The prosecutor then read a list of arrests against Williams dating from 1952 and mainly for traffic violations. The record shows Williams also spent several days in jail, Ziem declared.

Williams asserted that police officers had beaten the four defendants and they said things that were "not true" as result of fear.

Also accused are Oscar Chavers, 26, of Gary, Ind., his brother, Richard, 23, of 38 Lake, and Winston Johnson, 25, of 312 Hughes Ave.

They are charged with dragging the 21-year-old mother of three from a mud-mired auto off South Blvd. while her escort was away summoning aid and criminally assaulting her during an hour-long ride.

DENIED BEATING EARLIER

It was brought out yesterday by Ziem that Taylor had asked the quartet to point out any police officers who had mistreated them while they were still at the police

Pontiac's Commissioners Will Attend Conference

Pontiac's seven city commissioners were either en route or preparing to leave for the annual conference of Mayors in New York City today.

The meeting of civic officials from all over the nation will continue through Saturday.

Armed Forces' Parade Planned

City's Military Units, Bands, Vets to Appear in Saturday Event

Some 23 military units, bands and veterans organizations are scheduled to take part in the Armed Forces Day parade here Saturday.

S. H. 1 Joseph Carry, of the local Navy Recruiting office and publicity chairman for the program, said names of the groups have not been listed but those contacted have pledged their participation.

The parade, scheduled to get under way at 10 a.m., will form at Saginaw and Whittemore Sts. and proceed north to a dispersal area at Saginaw and Oakland Ave.

In conjunction with the display of military might on the ground, Air Force and Navy jet fighters will swoop over the city at intervals throughout the day. Flying as low as regulations permit, the jets are scheduled to zoom over at 10:20, 11:35, 1:35 and 3:56, Carry said.

Following the parade, Army and Navy installations throughout the city will hold open house to display equipment. Both National Guard units and the Naval Reserve have scheduled programs.

Inaugurated six years ago, Armed Forces Day is designed to pay tribute to the men and women in both regular and reserve service who devote their time to guarantee security for the country. It also was designed to allow public appraisal of armed forces might.

4 State Colleges Being Renamed

Senate Votes to Delete 'Education' From Title of 3 Schools

LANSING (AP)—The Senate appeared ready today to change the names of other Michigan colleges after agreeing to rename Michigan State College as Michigan State University.

The chamber was ready to vote on a House bill changing the names of the teacher colleges. There was no opposition in debate yesterday.

FOUR NEW NAMES

One bill would change Central Michigan College of Education, Western Michigan College of Education and Northern Michigan College of Education to Central Michigan College, Western Michigan College and Northern Michigan College.

Another would change Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti to Eastern Michigan College.

Also ready for a vote, with some opposition, was a bill to remove the requirement that students at Michigan State Normal agree to teach in Michigan schools as a condition of graduation. Sponsors said the law was impractical and should be lifted.

DROPS DEATH RIDER

Sen. Lynn O. Francis (R-Midland) dropped without a fight his attempt to hang the death penalty for serious sex crimes against children on a bill requiring local law enforcement officials to give the State Police lists of all sex offenders.

Francis, whose death penalty bill was killed in committee earlier, moved to attach the bill but was ruled out of order.

Senate Highway Bill Torn From Road Committee

House Unit Is Forced to Free Legislation for Floor Action

LANSING (AP) — The House had a Senate-approved highway bill before it today after snatching it from the hands of a committee in a move that made legislative history.

A coalition of young Republicans and Democrats discharged the House Roads and Bridges Committee from consideration of the bill in a dramatic parliamentary maneuver.

FIRST SINCE 1911

Not since 1911 has a committee been relieved of its jealously guarded right to act on legislation before it is sent to the floor. That happened in the Senate; the House has never discharged a committee.

In a touch-and-go battle on the floor and in the cloakrooms, four "Young Turks" scraped together a bare majority — 56 votes — to carry off the rare maneuver.

The feat greatly improved chances for legislative approval of a road program this session.

STATE GETS 75%

The Senate-approved bill calls for a 1½ cents per gallon gas tax increase. Three-quarters of the additional money would go to the state for construction of arterial highways. The rest would go to cities and counties.

The measure also calls for a 10 per cent increase in truck license fees.

Until now, disagreement over the distribution formula has blocked approval of any road program.

Many of the legislators feel the Senate formula would rob counties of their fair share of highway funds. These lawmakers support the present distribution formula, which gives 44 per cent of highway funds to the state, 37 per cent to counties and 19 per cent to the cities.

GOP FIGHTS MOVE

Republican Party leaders fought desperately to forestall the discharge movement. After a caucus which failed to discourage the "Young Turks," Rep. Allison Green (R-Kingston), Republican floor leader, moved to lay the motion over until Thursday.

Green's motion, a bid for more time during which a compromise might be arranged, was ruled out of order.

Rep. Harry J. Phillips (R-Port Huron) then took the floor. As he stepped to the microphone, Democratic Floor Leader Ed Carey of Detroit interrupted:

"Mr. Phillips is about to move for adjournment. Before you become victims of any parliamentary trickery, I move for a call of the House."

MOTION PASSES

Carey's motion passed. It required all House members to remain in the chamber and prevented adjournment.

DETROIT (INS) — Federal mediators stepped in today after negotiations for a new contract between Parke, Davis & Co. and the AFL-International Association of Machinists reached a standstill.

Cubans Stepping to Cha Cha Cha; Mambo Finished

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Now it's the Cha Cha Cha.

This is the latest from the home of the Rhumba and the Mambo. From sunup to sunup the Cha Cha Cha throbs on the Cuban air. The Mambo, here at least, is as finished as last night's daiquiri.

From the ch-ch-ch rattle of the maracas comes the Cha Cha Cha rhythm. It's a rapid 1-2, 1-2-3 beat. For the 1-2-3 read, or sing, Cha Cha Cha.

The dance is something else. It requires the coordination of a main event boxer and the boundless energy of a 3-year-old.

Luis Trapaga, one of Cuba's best known choreographers, says the Cha Cha Cha "is technically more difficult than the Mambo. Although the music is completely Cuban, the dance corresponds to the American Lindy with a Cuban flavor."

House, Senate Stalled on Tax

Legislature Is Faced With Special Session to Balance Budget

LANSING (AP) — Talk of a special session to balance the state budget was heard today because of a House-Senate deadlock over additional taxes.

The Senate Taxation Committee "postponed indefinitely" action on a House-approved bill to revise the collection formula in the corporations franchise tax. "Postponed indefinitely" usually means "killed," but there is always a chance the committee will reverse itself.

Rep. Rollo G. Conlin (R-Tipton), chairman of the House Taxation Committee and author of the buried bill, said he thought the Senate committee action indicated it was hostile to House proposals for more taxes and that this will mean a special session later in the year to balance the budget.

Gov. Williams submitted a budget 46 million dollars out of balance and the legislative appropriating committees have recommended budget bills still 23 millions out of balance.

The House has passed a business receipts tax change which would bring in 30 million dollars more and the Senate has passed its own version of the same bill to bring in 23 million more.

Conlin said he was certain the House would not accept the Senate ideas for changing the business receipts tax.

Area Temperatures to Warm Up Today

Mostly fair skies are predicted for tonnight and tomorrow, with temperatures due to warm up during the daytime hours.

Low tonight will be 42-46 degrees, high tomorrow 70-74. Tomorrow night, the weatherman says it will be party cloudy and warmer.

Anticipated heavy frost damage early today materialized in only a few widely scattered sections of the state.

Farmers in the heart of the cherry-growing section around Traverse City were up most of the night ready to light smudge pots, but the temperature never fell below 42.

High in Pontiac yesterday was 66, low 39. At 8 a.m. today, the downtown mercury stood at 50 degrees, rising to 70 at 1 p.m.

Refuses Reply to Accusations by Sen. Morse

Secretary of Welfare May Resign Soon Due to Personal Reasons

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today Secretary of Welfare Hobby has handled the Salk polio vaccine program and her job generally in a highly efficient manner.

The President's statement was made at a news conference when he was told Sen. Morse (D-Ore) had described Mrs. Hobby as guilty of "gross incompetency" in the vaccine program.

Morse said she ought to be removed from office.

Eisenhower said it would be a waste of time for him to take note of Morse's accusations.

The President went on to say that Mrs. Hobby's record in the Cabinet has proved out what Eisenhower termed the good opinion in which she was held during the war as WAC commander.

Those good opinions are fully justified, Eisenhower said, adding that she has handled her job, including the vaccine program, in a highly efficient manner.

Her counsel, Eisenhower said, has been eagerly sought.

Asked about reports that Mrs. Hobby may resign soon, the President said she placed him on notice some months ago that for personal reasons it might become necessary for her to leave government service.

Eisenhower said he would be sorry to lose her services because, as he put it, she is a symbol underscoring the idea that properly trained women are just as able to handle important jobs as men are.

The President gave no hint of what personal reasons might make it necessary for Mrs. Hobby to resign.

However, her husband, former Gov. William P. Hobby of Texas, has been ill with arthritis. Mrs. Hobby flew to Houston earlier this week to be with him.

The President also dealt with these other topics:

Vaccine supply—Eisenhower said his information is that the supply of Salk vaccine on hand or in sight is enough to take care of the program of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. That program is to provide vaccine free to first and second graders.

Big Four — The President said some item of good might result if he could sit down and talk at the proposed top-level Big Four conference with Marshal Georgi Zhukov, Russia's defense minister. Eisenhower and Zhukov developed a personal friendly relationship when they headed occupation forces in Berlin at the end of World War II.

In reply to a question, the President said he did not know whether Zhukov would be a member of the Russian delegation.

Premier Bulganin would represent Russia at a top level Big Four meeting.

Eisenhower said today there has been no further exchange of correspondence between him and Zhukov. And, in reply to a question, he said he had no plans at the moment for writing Zhukov again.

Air Power—Eisenhower said it just isn't true that the United States has lost in a twinkling all the great technical excellence and development of its air power. That remark was in reply to a request for comment on a speech by Sen. Symington (D-Mo) yesterday raising the question of whether the United States has lost control of the air to Russia.

Dulles and Ike Note Growing Signs of World Peace

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration is preparing for a top-level Big Four conference with Russia in a belief it may prove that a "new dawn" of peace is breaking over the world.

President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles made that clear last night in assessing — before television cameras — the meaning of recent shifts in Soviet policy, including the signing Sunday of an Austrian independence treaty.

By that pact Russia is pledged to withdraw its troops from Austria.

Communist satellite countries like Czechoslovakia and Hungary will also want freedom, he said, adding that the joy of the Austrians over their freedom will be "contagious."

Dulles predicted dramatic results from this pledge throughout Eastern Europe.

Dulles said that the acceptance of West Germany into the North Atlantic Treaty Organization has dealt the Soviet Union its "greatest diplomatic defeat" since World War II. The explanation of Russia's changed behavior, he said may lie in a Kremlin decision to stop trying to block such developments and "conform to some of the rules and practices of a civilized world community."

POLICY PAYING OFF

But whatever the explanation from Russia's side, he said, the important point is that a "policy of strength and firmness and the standard of moral principle" is beginning to pay off for the West. If the West sticks to that policy, he said, "we can face the future with confidence."

He cautioned both against relaxation of armed strength and against the great danger, as he called it, of expecting too much from the prospective Big Four talks between Eisenhower and the Prime Ministers of Russia, Britain and France.

Excessive hope now, he said, might result in disillusionment, dismay and even a war psychology later on.

Eisenhower, who interrupted Dulles' report to the nation from time to time with comments of his own, broke in to say he thought "the American people are pretty well aware of what is going on" and that they show "greater maturity" about negotiating with Russia than was expectable several years ago.

Chairman George (D-Ga) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee later said he thought Dulles was "overcautious" and showed signs of "timidity about the Big Four meeting."

* * *

"We will stay strong and we will stay vigilant," Eisenhower said, "but we are not to extinguish the hope that a new dawn may be coming even if the sun rises very, very slowly."

Dulles himself sounded a similar hopeful note at the outset of his half-hour broadcast with the President, saying: "I think now one can say that what happened (with respect to Germany and Austria) may really mark a turning point in the tide of history."

* * *

While the broadcast was aimed primarily at the American people, it was carried to all parts of the world, in many translations, by the government's Voice of America radio network.

The broadcast was the first television program from the President's oval office. Eisenhower sat behind his desk. Dulles sat on his right. On his left was a group of high government officials.

* * *

Aides said Dulles and the President wore no makeup.

The occasion was Dulles' return from Paris and Vienna. In a historic 10-day period he had participated in bringing West Germany into the North Atlantic Alliance, in signing an Austrian treaty, in working out a better understanding with France on support of an independent government in Viet Nam and in receiving from Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov Russia's acceptance of a bid from the Western Powers for a top-level Big Four meeting.

* * *

One of the great moments of the week, he said, came when he saw representatives of France and Germany sitting side by side as Allies at the NATO table in Paris.

"You felt a new page had been opened on European history," he told the President, "and the vision which so many people had for so many years of a unified Europe had actually started to come to pass."

In the same vein of acclaiming a triumph for the West, Dulles spoke of the Austrian Treaty signing.

Reds Fire Upon Chiang Aircraft on Patrol Flight

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Nationalsist Chinese planes ran into Red antiaircraft fire from the mainland and from warships while on patrol over Loyuan Bay near the Matsu Islands before dawn today, air force headquarters announced.

An undisclosed number of planes used radar to bomb the Communist craft in the darkness, the communique said. Results were not observed.

* * *

Loyuan Bay is 15 miles north of the Matsu Islands which lie close to the Communist coast 120 miles northwest of Formosa.

On Monday two Communist MIG fighter planes exchanged fire with two Nationalist propeller planes in the same area. On Sunday, 50 miles farther north, four MIGs fought a brief dogfight with four Nationalist Thunderjets over the Taishan Islands.

* * *

Air force headquarters said there would be air raid drills on Formosa and the Pescadores soon involving mock air attacks, antiaircraft target practice, simulated fires and first aid.

Consumers, Union Agree to Mediation

JACKSON (AP) — Consumer Power Co. and the CIO Utility Workers reached "a gentleman's agreement" today on a new contract carrying an eight-cent hourly pay increase.

Dr. R. P. Cranson, a state labor mediator, said both sides agreed to accept recommendations of a fact-finding board appointed by Gov. G. Mennen Williams to investigate a stalmated company-union dispute.

Besides the eight-cent hourly increase, the fact-finders also recommended liberalization of fringe benefits and improvements in pensions. Details of the latter, however, were not disclosed.

The dispute erupted Feb. 28 in a 24-hour strike, which resulted in Williams naming a fact-finding board, provided by law in utility disagreements.

Recovering Burglary Loot Too Dirty a Job

MUSKEGON (AP) — Police cleaned up an old burglary with the arrest of two youths, but it would be a dirty job to recover the loot.

Sgt. Andrew Plouhar said the two admitted breaking into a drug store in 1953 and burying the loot alongside an old dock on Muskegon Lake. The area now has been filled in with tons of dirt and house a construction company.

Lawmakers Seek to Block Commercial TV at MSC

Several members of the state House Ways and Means Committee said today they would attempt to block the plan of Michigan State College to set up a joint commercial-educational television station.

Rep. Joseph A. Warner (R-Ypsilanti), committee chairman, said the committee would be asked to re-insert a ban against the station included in a senate-approved appropriations bill but later defeated in a move led by Sen. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak).

MSC already has applied to the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) for Channel 10, jointly with the Television Corp. of Michigan.

During the course of the Senate debate on the plan it was said that Edward E. Wilson, Birmingham businessman and son of Defense Secretary Wilson, is an officer of Television Corp. of Michigan.

Wilson could not be reached for comment this morning.

DEFEND TV PLAN

MSC officials appeared yesterday at a Ways and Means Committee meeting to defend the television plan. The station would operate on the last very high frequency (VHF) channel available in the state.

Cost of construction would be borne by the state. Operation costs would be split by the college and corporation. MSC would broadcast 38 hours of educational programs per week and the corporation 63 hours commercially.

Broomfield said today the ban defeated by the Senate would have prohibited the college from using state-appropriated money for getting the VHF channel.

The lawmaker said the ban would possibly kill television at MSC. The college is now operating an ultra high frequency (UHF) station at cost of $281,000 a year, he stated.

"It requires a special adaptor to receive UHF and very few set owners can receive the college programs. If the college can't get a VHF channel, which would reach standard sets, its broadcasts might as well be discarded.

'GREAT LOSS TO PEOPLE'

"This would be a great loss to the people of Michigan in that educational television is a coming thing and holds great value for individual citizens."

Other members of the House Ways and Means Committee indicated they would support Warner in his attempts to re-insert the ban against the station.

Rep. James Gulette (R-Iron Mountain) said he could not approve the deal unless he had more information on it. He was joined by Rep. Louis Mezzano (D-Wakefield).

"I think more than half the members of the Ways and Means Committee would oppose the arrangement," said Rep. Frank D. Williams (D-Detroit) another committee member.

QUESTIONS RIGHT

"I certainly question the right of the State Board of Agriculture to enter into such a contract with a private firm without first letting bids," Williams said.

Declaring he supported educational television in principle, he said: "The question is — do we get a dollar's worth of education for every dollar we spend on it?"

Most of the members object to the arrangement on the grounds the government would be encroaching on private enterprise.

Williams said he would continue to fight against the TV plan despite a ruling by Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh that the prohibition proposed by the Legislature would be unconstitutional.

"It's our business to make laws in the best interests of the people," Williams said. "It is up to the courts to decide what is constitutional and what is not."

Defendant Claims Threats by Police station following their arest. Williams admitted the four then denied being beaten.

A doctor, who examined Williams several hours after his arrest, previously testified the man had bruised lips. "Isn't it true you got bruised lips when kicked in the face by (the woman)?" Ziem asked. "No," Williams replied.

Williams and Winston Johnson, who followed him to the stand, both said the housewife was not dragged from the auto, but had appeared on South Blvd. and called to them asking for a ride to town. They alleged she offered no resistance to their advances.

'DIDN'T SEE WOMAN'

They stated they did not see the woman in the mired car when they attempted to help her escort, Martin Weiberg, free it. Taylor asked Johnson if the dome light in Weiberg's car flashed on when Weiberg opened the door to start his motor. Johnson said he didn't know.

Weiberg, 24, of 102 S. Merrimae St., said last week on the stand he had ridden off a short distance with the four who said they would take him to a service station.

The car stopped after hitting a mud hole, Weiberg stated, and Oscar Chavers ran back across the field toward the car containing the woman. Weiberg then stopped a passing auto and went for aid, he testified.

City Approves Pontiac Taxi Cab Fare Hike

Taxi fares in Pontiac will go up in 10 days.

The new rates are included in in a revised taxicab ordinance passed by the City Commission last night.

They call for charges of 35 cents for the first one-fifth mile or less and 5 cents for each additional one-fifth mile or less. Ten cents will be charged for each three minutes waiting time.

The ordinance also provides that cab drivers must wear visored caps with metal identification badges affixed to them.

Cabs may carry advertising signboards on the rear deck section, providing they are approved by the chief of police and that they do not obstruct the driver's view or create a traffic hazard.

The regulation also states "in no case shall the driver accept any payment from a passenger without first throwing up the flag on the meter."

ARITHMETIC'S FUN THIS WAY — That was the decision of Tasha Bowden of 17310 Beechwood, Birmingham, shown here trying out the new abacus to be used in teaching arithmetic at Beverly Elementary School next fall. Demonstrating the gadget, as well as one of the adding machines which will be used in math classes at Barnum Junior High, is teacher Mrs. Annabele Sumera of 1067 Lincoln Ct. The abacus is said to teach arithmetic three to five times as fast as present methods. The idea, developed by a Marquette University professor, is to show children by sight and touch the fundamentals presently taught by memorization. First, second and third graders at Beverly School will begin using the abacus next fall.

The funeral was held this morning at 10:30 from the Saul Funeral Home in Trenton. He is survived by two daughters.

Lee Robert Collins

Service will be held Thursday at 1:30 p.m. from the Huntoon Funeral Home for Lee Robert Collins, 68, of 105 West Columbia Ave. The Rev. David Mortensen of the Marimont Baptist Church will officiate with burial in Davisburg Cemetery.

Mr. Collins died early yesterday morning at Pontiac General Hospital.

Virgil S. Moyer

Service will be held Thursday at 10:30 a.m. at the Brace-Smith Funeral Home for Virgil S. Moyer, 46, who died Monday at the Oakland County Tuberculosis Hospital. He had been there 12 years.

The Rev. James Luther of Silvercrest Baptist Church will officiate with burial in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Clarence L. Spanburg

Word has been received of the death of Clarence L. Spanburg, 56, formerly of Pontiac and now of 320 W. Ottawa St. E. Lansing. He died at his home Friday after a three months illness.

The funeral was held Monday at 2:30 p.m. from the Palmer Bush Chapel with burial in Oak Lawn Cemetery.

Mr. Spanburg was born Sept. 17, 1898, the son of John Henry and Emily Spanburg.

Besides his wife, Spray, he is survived by six children, Mrs. Joseph Reagan, Charles, Donald, James, John and Lawrence Spanburg, all of E. Lansing.

A sister, Mrs. Albert (Charlotte) Shaughnessy of Chicago, and two brothers, Lester and Irving, both of Pontiac, also survive.

GM Official Dies

DETROIT (UP) — Ray L. Newton, general sales manager of the Cadillac division of General Motors Corp., died yesterday in his suburban Highland Park home.

Newton, 63, was a native of Stoneham, Mass., and had been associated with Cadillac since 1920. He is survived by his widow, Maude, and two sons.

Recounts Ruled Out

Possibility of a recount of any races for state posts in the April 4 election has been ruled out, Oakland County Clerk Lynn Allen said today.

Allen has received word from Secretary of State James M. Hare that the ballot boxes, previously ordered held, may be released.

New Ordinance Sets Up Pontiac Historical Group

An ordinance establishing a Pontiac Historical Commission last night was wirtten into law by the City Commission.

The five-member commission will collect and preserve historical materials relating to the history of the city.

One member will serve one year, one two years, one three years, one four years and one five years. Appointments are expected to be made after the ordinance takes effect in 10 days.

NEW ORDINANCE READ

First reading was made of a new rubbish-fire ordinance which provides that such fires be made in nothing but receptacles approved by the fire marshal and that such fires be at least 15 feet from combustible buildings.

It provides that tree leaves may be burned on private property only when supervised and in a safe location.

ASKS DUST SURVEY

City Attorney William A. Ewart asked a Health Dept. survey of dust conditions around a cement plant in District 7. With the results of the survey as evidence, he said he believed a court injunction could be obtained preventing the firm's operation as a public nuisance.

The Commission authorized purchase of 60 acres of land in two parcels near Opdyke and Auburn Rds. for $66,000.

The 37-acre section will be used for an auxiliary sewage treatment plant. The 23-acre parcel will provide land for expansion of the ponds of the present treatment plant and also for a sanitary fill.

Also authorized was disposal of the old City Hall building. The land on which it stands may be used as a metered parking lot in the immediate future and a park area in the distant future.

FIRM AWARDED CONTRACT

Oak Construction Co. of Royal Oak, was awarded a $145,000 construct for concrete paving jobs.

A lease for seven plots of land for hangar construction at Pontiac Municipal Airport with Albert Wohlart, of Birmingham, was approved.

Public hearings were set for next Tuesday for a curb, gutter and drainage project on Ypsilanti avenue from Carlisle to Stanley, and on special assessment rolls for similar work on Peggy avenue from Voorheis to Hazel and Gordon from Oakland to Corwin.

Police Group Pledges Money to Foundation

The Pontiac Foundation, a nonprofit trust to gather funds for a civic center-auditorium, last night received the promise of a $100 contribution from the Pontiac Police Officers Assn.

In a letter addressed to Mayor William W. Donaldson, which he read at the City Commission meeting, the association said it was "proud" to contribute.

"Our city has gone for years with not one public building which it could be proud of, the letter stated. "While other cities spent millions in the construction of civic centers, museums and public buildings, Pontiac remained the same outmoded and unattractive city.

"We are finally pulling out of that 'rut' and doing something about solving the problem."

Donaldson also announced receipt of another Wisner Stadium bond for the fund. He said he believed many bond-holders did not realize the bonds could be turned over to the foundation.

Abacus, Adding Machines Enter Classrooms in Fall

BIRMINGHAM — Some 500 students at two schools in the Birmingham School District will be the first in Michigan to start using "gadgets" in arithmetic classes next fall.

The so-called gadgets are an abacus—a frame containing five rods with nine plastic discs on each rod—and adding machines. They were used by a Marquette University professor in developing a new method of teaching arithmetic.

Subsquent tests of children who were taught by this method showed they had covered in one four-month period what it normally took 14 months to learn.

"I spent two days in Milwaukee, watching students use the abacus and am convinced we can do some real good with it here," said Malcolm V. Ferguson, principal of Beverly school.

The 253 first, second and third graders enrolled for the fall semester at Beverly will begin using the abacus in arithmetic classes. Ferguson predicted one of two things "possibly" would come from use of the abacus. "Either it will trim learning time or it will add much more understanding of arithmetic problems. I'm happy we can be one of the schools to use the method."

Belief that use of the new method would cut learning time was echoed by Herbert Hengst, principal of Barnum Junior High.

The 250 seventh and eighth graders at Barnum will use special "instructor" type adding machines developed by the Burrought Corp. in arithmetic classes next fall.

Hengst said it was anticipated seventh and eighth graders would get their lessons much faster. "We face the danger of running out of lessons for them," he said, "but that's a pleasant danger to face." A total of 35 adding machines will be used in the Barnum program.

Developer of the new method was Dr. Andrew F. Schott. It was put into use in seven elementary and high schools, both public and parochial, in Milwaukee County in January 1954.

Tests of students who were taught with Schott's method were reviewed by Marquette University and the California Test Bureau. Among other things, results showed that seventh grade students made gains in four months that normally would require nineteen months; eighth and ninth graders showed gains in a single semester that normally would require four semesters.

Schott explained that use of the abacus and adding machine do not abolish standard arithmetic teaching techniques. A student learns what must actually happen with numbers in order to add, subtract, multiply and divide, he said.

"With an adding machine these short cuts on even a big arithmetic problem can be broken down into all its steps and each step reasoned and worked.

"The fundamentals really sink in, the students learn to do by doing and what once had to be accepted on faith and learned by memorization comes alive in a meaningful form," Schott added.

Birmingham educators visited Milwaukee this spring to see his method in operation. This week the board of education approved start of the program at Beverly and Barnum this fall.

Schott is scheduled to visit Birmingham in July to instruct teachers at the two schools—eight teachers at Beverly and three at Barnum—on just how to use the abacus and adding machines.

Mrs. Anne M. Connelly

Rosary service at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co., at 9 p.m. for Mrs. Anne Connolly, 1351 E. Maple, who died suddenly today at William Beaumont Hospital. She was 60. Funeral service will be held Friday at 10 a.m. at Holy Name Church.

Service arrangements were being made for Mrs. Anne M. Connelly, 1351 E. Maple, Birmingham, who died suddenly today at the William Beaumont Hospital at the age of 60.

Mrs. Connelly was a Birmingham resident for the past 29 years, moving to the city from Saginaw. She was the wife of the late Walter L. Connelly, Birmingham contractor, and a member of the Holy Name church, altar society, Rotary Ann and Women's Literary Club.

Surviving are six sisters and three brothers, Mary Louise, Helen and Frances Keho of Saginaw; Miss Alice Keho of Birmingham, Mrs. Joseph Lesperance, Inglewood, Calif., and Mrs. John J. Quinn, West Palm Beach, Fla. Surviving brothers are James and William of Flint, and Charles of Saginaw.

Courteous Driver Cited by Police

The Pontiac Police Officers' Assn. today announced the city's first courteous driver in the current "Be a Courteous Driver" contest which started May 1.

Keith Johnson, 31, was cited for his courteous act which took place May 6 on Huron Street in front of the courthouse.

Johnson, a foods salesman, was recommended as the first courteous driver by Patrolman William LeMonde who said:

"Johnson noticed an elderly lady's car stalled in heavy 5 p.m. traffic. Other motorists drove by her ignoring her predicament. Johnson stopped and tried to help get her car started. When this failed, he pushed her car to a service station where she was given further help."

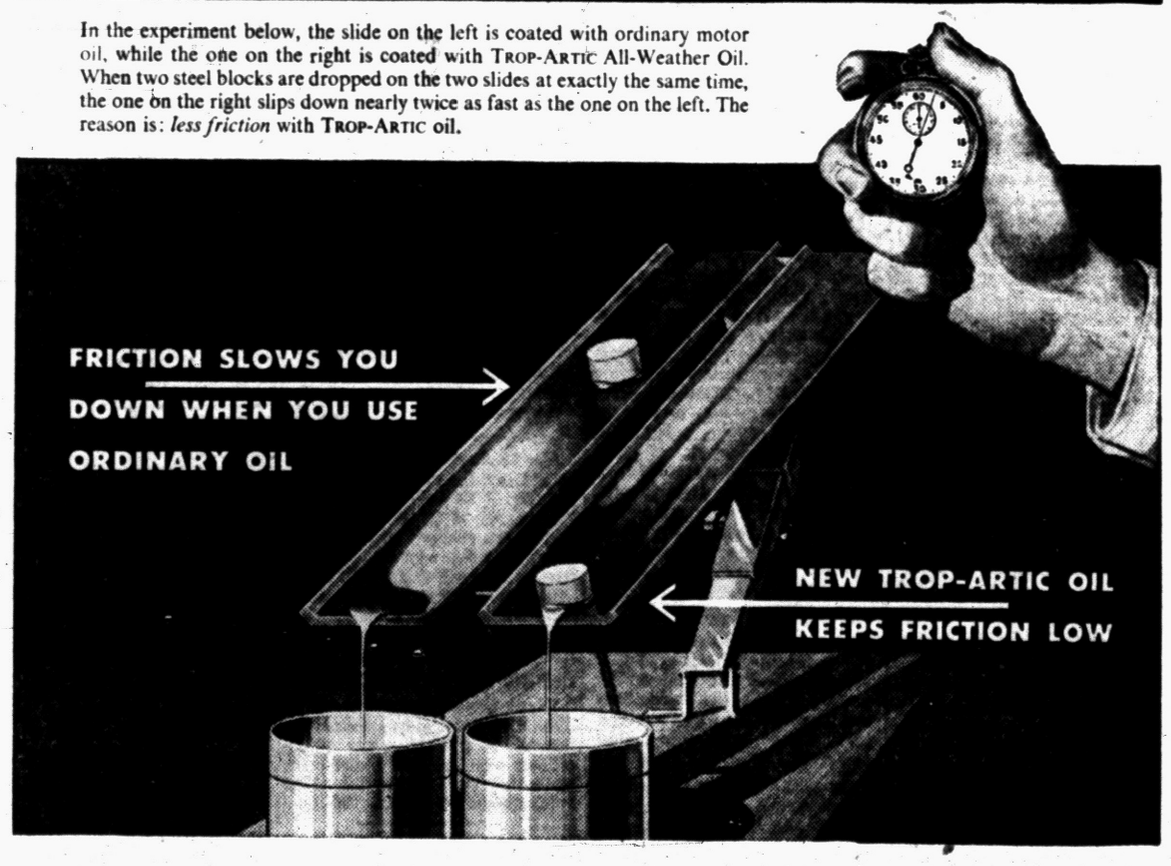

Johnson lives at 120 Marion, Waterford Township, with his wife and two small children.

Less Friction with Trop-Artic Motor Oil!

In the experiment below, the slide on the left is coated with ordinary motor oil, while the one on the right is coated with TROP-ARTIC All-Weather Oil. When two steel blocks are dropped on the two slides at exactly the same time, the one on the right slips down nearly twice as fast as the one on the left. The reason is: less friction with TROP-ARTIC oil.

IT'S PERFORMANCE THAT COUNTS!

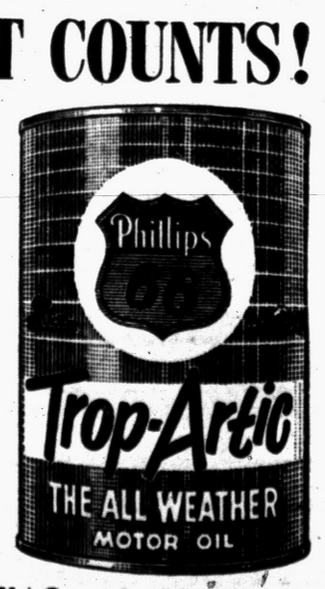

New Phillips 66 TROP-ARTIC reduces friction far more effectively than any ordinary oil. By reducing friction, it extends gasoline mileage. And it can reduce wear, even to the extent of doubling the life of an engine. It can cut oil consumption 15% to 45%. It keeps pistons cleaner. New TROP-ARTIC is the first all-weather type motor oil to meet the highest standard ever established for automobile motor oils, the Mil-0-2104 Supplement 1 Test. Announce New Way to Relieve Pain of Arthritis and Rheumatism Without Pills!

Greaseless, odorless cream penetrates deep—speeds up flow of fresh, rich blood into sore areas—actually helps drive away pain-causing congestion and pressure.

New York, N. Y. (Special)— Science has now developed an odorless, greaseless cream that acts in a new way to bring a new kind of relief from pains of arthritis, rheumatism, and muscular aches and pains. This new cream relieves these pains without the need of taking pills and other internal medicines that may only upset the system.

Gently rubbed into painful areas, this cream penetrates so deep and completely that it actually vanishes. Quickly a comforting feeling of warmth develops and the whole painful area takes on a pleasing glow. This is striking evidence of the power of this cream to penetrate quickly and stimulate the circulation of the blood. This glow illustrates how it speeds up the flow of fresh, rich blood into the sore areas and actually helps drive away the pain-causing congestion and pressure.

146 British and French doctors are so satisfied with this new help for patients suffering from arthritis and rheumatism that they have prepared written reports of success based on hundreds of cases. Further, one of the leading arthritis and rheumatism clinicians in the United States has now confirmed the findings of these doctors.

Now for the first time this remarkable cream can be obtained without a prescription at drug stores throughout America—under the name InfraRUB®. The price of InfraRUB is only 98¢ for a large tube. InfraRUB is backed by the amazing guarantee that sufferers from the pains of arthritis, rheumatism, lumbago, neuritis, neuralgia or muscle injuries or sprains will get hours and hours of comforting relief or their money will be refunded in full.

Peale's Followers Consider Him Almost Divine

By PHYLLIS BATELLE

(This is the first of three articles by Miss Batelle about Dr. Norman Vincent Peale.)

NEW YORK (INS)—Dr. Norman Vincent Peale is a hearty, square-jawed one-time newspaperman who decided, early in his 20s, that the search for a good life was more challenging than the search for a good story.

* * *

He promptly quit the police beat and set out for divinity school.

Today, at 56, Dr. Peale is one of the busiest, best known, and probably the most financially successful salesman Christianity has ever had.

He is also—mainly because of the best-seller status of his book "The Power of Positive Thinking"—one of the most controversial clerics of modern times. He has been sharply criticized for preaching "too easy" a gospel.

Dr. Peale is decidedly not a "minister's minister." He is a "people's man," and proud of it. When he prays, it is not usually in sentorian tones and archaic language, but man-to-God.

"Lord," he often says silently, when time is short. "Here's the problem. . ."

THE HUMAN APPROACH

This human approach to heavenly aid is symbolic of his new, practical concept in religious thinking which has caught on, with a happy, comforting fierceness, the country over.

But it is also a matter of necessity, because Peale has cut out such a schedule for himself that there is rarely time to mince words, even in prayer.

He prays dozens of times each day, on taxis, planes and street corners as well as in the sanctity of his four offices. Each morning he is in town, one of his secretaries presents him with a list of persons who have written, asking for his prayers.

He receives 5,000 letters a week. Because there is not time for Peale to read each letter, the secretary lists the writers' names, along with a brief resume of their individual troubles.

To thousands of Peale advocates, who hear him on radio, TV or from one of the overflowing chapels of his 4,000-member Marble Collegiate (Dutch Reformed) Church on Fifth avenue, or who read his countless books, folders, reprinted sermons, newspaper and magazine columns, the man is almost divine.

PEALE EMBARRASSED

This, he admits, "embarrasses" him.

"While it warms your heart, you realize your own deficiencies and know you're a slender reed for these people to lean upon," he says.

To his critics—many of them fellow Protestant clergymen—Dr. Peale is preaching "easy optimism," and making a grandstand play on the Gospel. A famed Methodist bishop recently warned on TV of the dangers of confusing true Christianity with the "cult of success," as expressed in the practice of positive thinking. It was an unmistakable prod at Peale's concepts.

This sort of thing hurts the doctor.

"I would like my fellow ministers to understand me," he says solemnly, "and I try not to be hurt by what they say. But I'm a human being, too."

Of those who say he teaches easy optimism, the Ohio-born pastor insists "nothing could be further from the truth. It takes blood, sweat and tears to accomplish what I preach. It's something I know because I tried it out on myself, when I was in my 20s.

"I grew up with an inferiority complex and had a lot of anxieties and worries. I decided to examine Christianity from the standpoint of whether it could help me solve these problems. Well, I'm the toughest personality I ever worked with—but I finally succeeded.

"Pretty well, that is," he says. "I still have an awful big job to do on myself."

From being a "nervous, unsure" young minister, he built himself, by age 30, into a man possessed of "a great feeling of confidence and peace."

"I knew then," he remembers, "that I had stumbled on a vein of gold."

He has been preaching confidence - through - Christianity ever since.

Bob Considine Says:

Gagwriting Probe Would Up U.S. Morale

NEW YORK (INS) — Congress, considering a $32,860,000,000 defense budget, proper distribution of the Salk vaccine, relations with Russia, Peru and other sensitive matters, has been asked to drop all work and do something about giving more protection to gagwriters.

* * *

The National Association of Gagwriters, through the Gagwriters Protective Association, he asked Sen. Harley Kilgore and Rep. Emanuel Celler, chairmen of their respective judiciary committees, to bring about legislation designed to throw the protective wing of the copyright law over creators of what passes for humor on TV, radio and in the nightclubs.

(The whirring sound you hear is Joe Miller revolving in his grave.)

"Can We Protect the Joke-Writer From Gag-Thieves?" was the subject of a recent seminar at the Comedy Workshop, Malin Studios, just off Broadway on 46th. I am honored with a communication from the GPA, which says in part:

"Kilgore and Celler have been requested to invite top comedians such as 'confessed' gag-thief Milton Berle, Bob Hope, Jackie Gleason, Groucho Marx and Jack Benny, and gagwriters such as Goodman Ace, Mac Benoff, Carroll Carroll et al (ed. note: Al Trahan?) and other leading authorities on humor, to testify.

"The National Association of Gagwriters feels that such a joint hearing under these high auspices would do much for the morale of the country. The impact of television on the youth of the nation has created a situation in which the gag-thief runs rampant, and is glorified."

* * *

Well, my morale could stand a little face-lifting, so let me state right here that I hope the probe comes off.

If Rep. Celler's great natural aversion to publicity can be overcome, and TV cameras are installed in the caucus room, and the proposed cast of characters shows up, the hearings will easily top the rating of the Army-McCarthy show and provide more laughs than Sen. Ferguson's inquiry, "Inside Johnny Meyer."

Bugs Baer, who has provided a couple of generations of alleged gagwriters with more fuel than is underfoot in Pennsylvania and Texas, once was asked by a high school journalist, "Where do you get your material?" Bugs answered, "Just borrow it back."

Methinks that despite the high goals of the GPA, the crusade is doomed. The poker chip is not the most homeless of all creations. The gag is.

There isn't room on a quip for a byline, just as there isn't enough humility or charity in the average person's soul to prompt him to give credit to the person from whom he appropriated the gag. And, really, there isn't time on most programs or skits.

* * *

The man with the putty nose about to be hit with the pie on TV can't say, "Custard's last stand—with apologies to Herman Q. Schmarz of the National Association of Gagwriters." He'd get hit before he gets to the credits . . . which mightn't be a bad idea at that.

THINK OF MOPPETS

If the morale of children TV addicts is at stake, as the GPA gloomily warns, it should consider whether it is wise to strip our moppets of their last vestige of illusion by informing them that 99-44-100ths of everything they laugh at on the screen came not from the comedian but from guys named Carroll Carroll and his friends et al.

That might be a real crusher and result in further juvenile delinquency. After all, not many present-day TV children heard Jack Benny on radio one night when, shattered by a Fred Allen crusher, he mourned, "I'd give $10,000 right now if my writers were here."

Godfrey fired more writers recently than did the shutdown of the Brooklyn Eagle. I see no sanctuary for gagwriters.

Who do they think they are, whooping cranes? Still, it would be a nice congressional hearing to cover. And the Congressional Record certainly could use some fresh material.

HAVE LOTS OF IT!

100 Young People Meet for 9th Annual Convention

The ninth annual Michigan Christian Youth Convention assembled Saturday at 2 p.m. in the Baldwin Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church.

In charge of the convention was Bernard C. Meece, State Director of Religious Education. Presiding at the afternoon and evening sessions was state president Dennis Sellers of Burt Lake.

Over 100 young people joined in the opening song service conducted by Mrs. B. C. Meece of Cadillac.

Afternoon devotions on the theme, "Lift Up My Eyes," were led by Dougald McColl assisted by Bob Dunn and Walter Brown, all of First Christian Church, Pontiac.

A group discussion on "This Is Youth Fellowship" was directed by George O. Taylor of Indianapolis. The Cascade Christian Youth presented a panel on "Building a Youth Fellowship."

At the business meeting the following officers were elected for next year: president, Bob Dunn of Pontiac; vice president, Barbara Heaven of Cascade, and secretary, Jack Rogers of Traverse City.

Special music was presented by girls from the United Christian Church of Detroit and a trio from the Cascade Christian Church.

Dennis Sellers of Burt Lake and Leo Hallenbeck led the evening worship service.

The closing address of the day was given by Gladys Harrison, religious education director of Jamaica.

Party Line Hog Faces Prison

Woman Found Guilty of Refusing to Let Fireman Make Call

POUGHKEEPSIE, N.Y. (AP)—A hot-tempered housewife has been found guilty of refusing to yield a country telephone party line when a volunteer fireman tried to report a fire.

Mrs. Mary L. Kayes, 43, of Rhinebeck, N.Y., could get a maximum of a year in jail, a $500 fine or both under a new state statute covering use of party line telephones in an emergency.

Mrs. Kayes, mother of four, sobbed when the verdict was announced in Dutchess County Court last night.

* * *

"Let me alone, don't bother me," she shouted at newsmen.

Judge John R. Schwartz set May 24 for sentencing and continued Mrs. Kayes in $500 bail.

According to testimony in the two-day trial, Mrs. Kayes said, "Let the damn thing burn and get off the line," when fire dispatcher Donald Townsend asked her to give up the line to report a brush fire last Jan. 21. Townsend and Mrs. Kayes share the line with five other users.

* * *

Townsend testified he had to drive nearly a mile to another telephone to make the call.

A fire official told the court the fire got out of control because of the delay and destroyed a nearby barn.

Mrs. Kayes claimed she didn't believe there really was a fire, because "you hear the darndest things on a party line."

A University of Illinois study indicates that children usually learn the grammar they will use for the rest of their lives between their first and third birthdays.

Colleges Face Problem of Higher Enrollment

One of the things that is worrying educators is the rapid growth in the ratio of college and university students to the rest of the population.

With the beginning of the Fall terms in 1954 the number of such students had reached an all time high of 2,500,000. A survey indicates this total will reach 4,000,000 by 1962 and 7,000,000 by 1970.

This means that to keep abreast of this growth, teaching staffs will have to be doubled in 15 years. Also, it will take billions to provide the necessary plant expansion and replace worn out and obsolete equipment.

Although corporation gifts to institutions of higher learning now run about $100,000,000 a year, increases in tuition have been necessary. Fees in publicly supported schools now average $240 a year while the average for those privately operated is $580.

The possibility of further increases in tuition fees also is worrying educators. They fear either that many students will receive a second class education or that many gifted young people will be denied higher education for lack of funds.

This indeed is a grave problem. Already it is attracting attention in Congress. There a bill has been introduced to provide $800 a year for worthy students. So far the Administration has given no sign of interest in Federal scholarships.

★ ★ ★

However, President Eisenhower has said it might be necessary to offer more scholarships in scientific fields to keep ahead of Russia's rate of producing engineers and other technicians.

This overall problem isn't going to solve itself. It deserves continued study by educators and lawmakers and any other groups which might point the way toward a possible solution.

Weather Bureau's Budget

A look back at the havoc wrought by the 1954 hurricanes Carol, Edna and Hazel, strongly suggests the need for an expanded Weather Bureau budget.

These three hurricanes caused property damage estimated at $800,000,000 and resulted in the loss of 200 lives. It is contended by experts that these losses would have been much smaller had the Weather Bureau been able by reason of a larger staff and better equipment to give more accurate advance storm warnings.

The bureau's budget for fiscal 1955-56 is $27,850,000 plus a special $5,000,000 for equipment to be spent over the next four years. Next year's $3,000,000 increase over the current budget is accounted for entirely by observation work the bureau is taking over from the Air Force.

The $5,000,000 asked for new equipment is needed for radar instruments largely to replace old equipment used in observation balloons.

Accurate weather forecasting never has been as important as it is now. This, of course, is due to the increasing dependence on forecasts by industry, agriculture and aviation. The result is that the Weather Bureau's needs for adequate staffs and equipment are more impressive than ever.

★ ★ ★

Congress not only should re-examine the bureau's budget with these things in mind, it should approve the Patterson bill. This measure would provide the $5,000,000, over and above the budget, needed to finance an emergency hurricane warning system.

Center Lights for Safety

This newspaper knows of no sound argument against a law proposed by State Sen. Porter of Blissfield to bring about uniform installation of traffic lights in Michigan.

★ ★ ★

His idea is that suspension of these lights over traffic lanes at intersections contributes much more to highway safety than do those placed at curbs.

It long has been the opinion of traffic engineers that the curb lights are less visible and hence less effective and tend to confuse drivers. This is especially true at intersections where neon signs of different colors make it more difficult to see the traffic lights.

★ ★ ★

Several Michigan cities, including Pontiac, have abandoned the curb lights. Lieut. J. Koren, head of Pontiac Police Department's traffic division, wholeheartedly endorses the Porter bill. He says that the three remaining curb installations in Pontiac soon will be replaced with center lights for the very reasons which prompted Sen. Porter to introduce his bill.

In the interest of uniformity and greater highway safety the Legislature should enact this measure.

Asked for his secret for longevity, a Denver man, 98, said, "Just keep breathing." Yes, but there are many circumstances under which a person can't just keep breathing—as, for example, when his heart stops beating.

Don't Look,Now, but—

David Lawrence Says:

Moscow May Force Tito to Play Ball Soviet Style

BONN—Something of the alarm which has swept Europe since Moscow announced that there would be a conference "at the summit" in Belgrade between Bulganin and Khrushchev, on the one hand, and Marshal Tito, on the other, is expressed in a cartoon on the front page of "Die Welt," a leading newspaper here.

It shows Marshal Tito in uniform with the stars and stripes as an insignia on one shoulder and the hammer and sickle of Soviet Russia on the other, with this this caption: "Will he wear them on both shoulders?"

There can be no doubt that the whole western alliance has received a shock over something which they should long ago have suspected.

For in the last year and a half the steady campaign carried on by Moscow to win Tito back to the fold has been revealed in a series of moves which were minimized in the West but which finally bore fruit.

WON'T BREAK TIES

It is true that Tito has reassured the western democracies that he has no intention of breaking his ties with them, but what has not yet been disclosed is that he may not be able to control his own destiny and that the break with the West may develop now.

* * *

Here in Bonn, where they know a good deal about Yugoslav affairs and where they tend to look on the situation in the Balkans with a certain detachment now that Austria has been neutralized, the reports are conflicting concerning the origin and purposes of the Bulganin mission to Belgrade.

Yugoslavs here insist that there will be no discussion about a resumption of ideological ties but only about practical problems in the diplomatic and economic relations of the two governments.

Others say that the meeting is basically ideological because there has been a steady infiltration by Moscow Communists in Belgrade in recent months, and its is pointed out that Walter Ulbricht, leader of the Communist party in East Germany, soon is to make a trip to confer with leaders in Belgrade.

SOVIET SCHEME

What it all seems to add up to is a definite effort on the part of Moscow to swing Tito away from the West, even though he may not allow himself to become a puppet of Moscow.

* * *

So far as the Soviet Union is concerned, it may well be content with the addition of Yugoslavia to the neutral belt which has been started with the successful detachment of Austria from the West. Once a block of buffer states from the Mediterranean to the Baltic has been established, the Soviet regime can well afford to offer to pull back her own troops and insist that American troops go home.

Western Europe would then be at the mercy of a gigantic land army of Russians which could become supreme, especially if Soviet propaganda succeeds in persuading the West to give up atomic weapons of mass destruction.

So the Soviet aim now is to spend the next three or four years in what looks outwardly like a relaxation of tension but which actually means a determined effort to win by a "cold war" certain vantage points that are necessary for the Soviet conquest of Europe in later years.

REDS PLAY FOR TIME

On every side here, for example, leaders in the government warn that Soviet Russia is playing for the time needed to build economic strength for armament while she seeks disarmament of the West on atomic weapons and the weakening of the western armies by a hoped-for program of neutralization, to include Germany.

* * *

Behind the scenes in all this is the crafty hand of Nehru and his stooge, Krishna Menon. It was Indian diplomacy that brought Tito to New Delhi a few weeks ago and a trade union delegation of Yugoslavs to Peiping.

After the India visit, Tito proclaimed his belief in the necessity of admitting Red China to the United Nations, and his public declarations were completely at variance with what he knew to be the policy of the United States.

Any true friend of the West would not have picked out unnecessary issues for a public statement, especially when it was known the viewpoint would be accepted widely as a criticism of United States policy.

TITO IN MIDDLE

The true story of what is happening inside Yugoslavia has yet to be told. There are evidences that Moscow has been conducting an intrigue among the hard-core Communists in Belgrade, faithful to the Soviet Union, who were recently released, and that, due to internal politics, Tito has found himself compelled to accept the friendly gestures of the Soviets, who are persuasively arguing that they are not asking him to become an ally and to line up against the West but merely to stay neutral, just as Austria is and as the Communists hope to persuade a reunited Germany to be.

These are anxious times for the West in the "cold war," and a counteroffensive boldly calling for the liberation of all the satellite states is certainly needed.

Boy Scouts to Honor Military Services in Armed Forces Day Parade May 21

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

The Boy Scouts of America is definitely not a military organization. We have been invited to participate in the Armed Forces Day Parade on May 21.

We were happy to accept this invitation and, therefore, our Cubs, Boy Scouts and Explorers will be in the parade in the role of a patriotic organization which emphasizes citizenship training, and one which welcomes this opportunity to pay honor to the Armed Forces of this country.

Press Reader Praises New Pontiac City Hall

This was a city of no mean appearance even before the new building on the mount. That is the City Hall with its large tree in front.

Although there may be those in our community, as well as those that labor in the factories, opposed to a strike, all of us here for nearly 30 years have common sense. We do not want the national economy to be thrown for a loss.

Those who have been here for less than ten years take everything for granted . . . vacation pay, overtime, holiday pay. Those who are now opposed to a guaranteed annual wage, perhaps did exist here in the very early thirties of the depression.

There would not be a union, as I see it, had it not been for Franklin Delano Roosevelt. Be Republican or Democrat, always remember that fact. Do you wish slavery and chains of mind and body? It is up to you, officials of corporations.

GOP Urged to Campaign on the Basis of Prosperity

By MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER
INS Economic Commentator

Politics is only one of the overtones affecting the trend for job-creating activities in business, but ever since New Dealers made an issue of modifying the enterprise system, politics has bulked larger than before.

Recently pessimism has seized Republicans in the fear that perhaps President Eisenhower might elect to retire after one term or, if he should accept a second nomination, he would perhaps be a reluctant candidate.

As such, it is argued, he would in a second term increasingly stress his non-partisan approach, and thus leave the party without sufficient patronage and buildup to continue in office after his retirement.

It seems to me that superficial political wiseacres are overlooking some of the facts of life.

Maybe the confusion occurred in 1952 when the Republicans ditched the late Sen. Robert A. Taft, Mr. Republican, in favor of a military hero, Eisenhower. As a result, with the Republicans there was doubt as to how much Eisenhower's election depended on personal popularity and how much on his views.

* * *

While undoubtedly the motives of voters were mixed, it was perhaps a fortuitous historic accident that a military hero possessed tremendous enthusiasm for the basic elements in the American economic system—our free-choice economic society.

EMOTIONS DIFFERENT

But more is involved in the change in public sentiment toward economic matters than the personality of the individual in the White House. The basic alteration lies in the inescapable reality that the emotions of men are different in a high level of employment and of business activity than in an interlude of hard times, with soup kitchens and breadlines.

In spite of feelers put out to the effect that Eisenhower might like to be a one-term President, there are strong factors at home and abroad which are likely to induce him to consider running again. And there is little dispute over the polls that indicates he would probably be the strongest candidate of his party.

But Americans generally and Republicans in particular should give heed to Eisenhower's view that there is "no indispensable man." A nation and a party are in a poor way when the reservoir of potential effective leadership is limited to one personality.

Furthermore, if the Republicans take the defeatist view that they can eke out a few more years in office only if a popular hero plays ball, they are indeed taking a dim view.

Irrespective of personalities, the party ought to start right now to make intellectual inventory.

DEMS WIDELY SPLIT

The schism in the Democratic Party between the Jeffersonian Democrats, particularly of the south, and the Americans for Democratic Action group of the north, with CIO and other union allies, creates both a challenge and an opportunity.

* * *

The Republicans would gain inner strength if they recognized that the intellectual issues of the depressed 1930s are more or less obsolete in the dynamic, expanding and prosperous mid-50s.

The Republicans, instead of looking backward, should undertake to restyle themselves as the party of foresight, which merchandises realistic optimism about the long-term future promise of American life.

The Republicans have an opportunity to win friends and influence people through espousing the enterprise system as contrasted with the economic slavery of government-dominated police state systems.

TRADE ON SUCCESS

If the Republicans in 1956 are favored with a healthy national economy and improving international relations, they should recall the time-honored American maxim that nothing succeeds like success.

* * *

They should stress the importance of competency in government, and should take credit for curtailing federal expenditures, and for returning to the states, the localities and to private investment some of those activities which they are able and willing to assume, thus reversing overcentralization at Washington.

Stressing research and the forward look, those who believe in the American way should emphasize that nothing in life is permanent except change, and thus free themselves from the poison of reactionary label.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Attractive Girl Has Good Position, Car but Longs for Job as Wife and Mother

Theda is very attractive but she scares men away. They see the gleam in her eye of the huntress. They vaguely feel the whir of the lariat and know she'll have them roped. So she needs to follow Seneca's advice and adopt that "push-'em-away" strategy. Watch tomorrow's follow-up case.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case O-333: Theda M., aged 23, poses a very common problem.

"Dr. Crane, many times I have felt that life wasn't worth living," she began.

"For I have no boy friends. In high school mother said I'd have plenty of time for dates later on, so I concentrated on my studies and became an honor student.

"Now I have a good job and my own car. I go to church regularly but that doesn't seem to solve my wish for a boy friend.

"The married women where I work tell me I ought to be glad I am single, but I would trade my position anyday for the job of a housewife who has children to take care of and love.

"So, Dr. Crane, how can I win a suitable man?"

Millions of men, as well as admirable girls like Theda, could soon meet eligibles if we had a Scientific Dating Bureau to match them with certified members of the opposite sex.

Men are almost as numerous as women in writing me for advice on how to meet suitable girls.

Etiquette hampers girls more than men, for the male is permitted to make the advances whereas it is regarded as unduly bold or brazen for a girl to do so.

But even with that accepted advantage, males still deluge me with letters. And those men are businessmen and professional workers, not the "culls" or "lemons."

I have lost my last six secretaries to men who wrote in and wanted to meet some eligible girls. These men included a physician, a biology teacher, an attorney, scientific farmers, etc.

But Theda's problem is partly due to her too narrow perspective. She thinks happiness is a case of 100 per cent or zero. That's not true.

You can seldom be 100 per cent happy in life, even when ideally married. And millions of married people are not as happy as certain single men and women.

So if you can't be 100 per cent happy, then shoot for 95 per cent or even be grateful to rate 80 per cent or maybe 70 per cent.

Any girl who threatens suicide or says life isn't worth living because she hasn't a wedding ring, is obviously so narrow in her social perspective that she can't see the showers of blessings that God Almighty has poured on even the most luckless American citizen.

Besides, such a narrow outlook actually drives men away. For the casual male sees this greedy gleam in the eye of every female who has nothing but a wedding ring in mind.

With her opening greeting he can faintly hear the lariat whirling around his head, so he knows he better make a quick exit or he'll be roped and hogtied.

Girls, that's definitely not the strategy to win men!

Seneca gave some excellent advice on winning a sweetheart when he said: "Go to the archer. See how he handles his bow. With one hand he pulls it back but with the other he pushes it away again."

Theda has enough charms to pull men to her so she needs to figuratively push them away. Suppose she accepts the philosophy that she is never going to marry and even publicizes that tactfully.

Then men immediately will feel safe around her. She can laugh gaily and enjoy camaraderie with males, for they will feel free and easy in her company.

Soon she can use Seneca's "push-'em-away" technique. It works miracles on men. For whenever a male finds a woman who admits she doesn't want to get married that piques his vanity.

So he sets out to change her mind and make her see the wisdom of marriage. He gets hooked in the process. Girls, it's surefire!

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and a dime to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his psychological charts.

Some Doctors Still Treat Animal Wounds With Acid

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Believe it or not, some doctors and some hospitals still cauterize fresh wounds inflicted by animals or birds, or did indulge in such malpractice as recently as 1951 because, forsooth, of an understandable misapprehension that public health authorities prescribed it.

Some years ago any animadversions upon mad dog scares infuriated a metropolitan health commissioner unbearably. He published an open letter in the press, declaring that there is only one way to destroy rabies virus—by cauterizing the wound inflicted by animal or bird, particularly dogbite, with fuming nitric acid.

The health commissioner could not cite scientific evidence to support his assertion. But, by gum, the commissioner did his darnedest to support malpractice, and at the same time put me under a cloud of suspicion in the minds of many wiseacres.

The proper emergency treatment of dogbite or any wound inflicted by the teeth, claws, beak, talons or spurs of animal or bird, tame or wild, gentle or "mad," healthy or "rabid," as any reputable physicians or surgeon will agree, whether he or she has the courage to condemn cauterization or not, is:

(1) Wash out the wound with plain soap and sterile (boiled) water

(2) Rinse away the soap with sterile water

(3) Cut away dead tissue

(4) If the wound gapes, stitch it up

(5) Paint the surrounding skin with mild tincture or solution of iodine (2%)

(6) Apply a dressing of sterile (ironed) gauze (washed cheesecloth) spread with just sufficient sterile (boiled) petrolatum or other sterile neutral salve or ointment to prevent the gauze sticking to the wound.

That's all.

But I'd go one step further, or at least I'd want the doctor to go one step further if I were the patient, and that is:

(7) Administer tetanus antitoxin—one dose immediately, a second injection 5 to 7 days later.

You see, I regard such wounds as most likely to favor development of tetanus (lockjaw), and therefore, I believe, the doctor who fails to give tetanus antitoxin, regardless of the question of rabies, takes a terrible responsibility.

The question of rabies (hydrophobia)?

If the wound were my child's or my own and the seven steps in emergency treatment were followed as described, I wouldn't worry about it. In my opinion rabid animals, if there are any in the community, do much less harm than our rabid public health officials.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Gleason Defends 'Firings' by Godfrey

(This is the third of five articles based on exclusive interviews with Arthur Godfrey in which the radio-TV star presents his side of several controversial incidents and tells what his career has cost him.)

By CHARLES P. ARNOT

NEW YORK (INS)—TV's Jackie Gleason says TV's Arthur Godfrey is "one of the most maligned guys in the business."

Godfrey says Gleason is "A man I admire."

Mutual admiration between a couple of old friends?

Hardly. They have never met.

* * *

They made the statements in exclusive interviews on different days and in different parts of town.

Someday, when and if they both get time, they hope to get together.

Godfrey, who has been among the top radio-TV stars longer than any other, says the No. 1-rating Gleason is one of a lot of show-business people he'd like to know.

This lack of time to get together with the people he'd like to know better is part of the price Godfrey has paid for success.

KNOWS FEW SHOWMEN

"Sometimes it seems to me I don't know a single soul in this business," the Redhead said meditatively. "I would probably be better off if I had time to get to know fellows like Jackie Gleason."

* * *

Time is the monster in the Godfrey life—an odd mixture of frenzy and isolation broken by weekends on his 2,000-acre Virginia farm. Three different radio-TV shows and a mountainous administrative load add up to at least a 60-hour work week.

The nine scheduled hours of radio and television time per week add up to $23,000,000 a year in billings for Columbia Broadcasting System. The best estimates place Godfrey's own annual income before taxes from radio, TV and recordings at $1,820,000. He doesn't deny it.

Another part of the price for this $35,000-a-week gross income is a high-voltage dose of nervous tension for the most controversial man in the business.

DISCIPLINE A MUST

"Sure, I have to raise a little h..l sometimes," the Redhead admitted. "You've got to have discipline. I suppose that's why they sometimes say I'm different on the air.

* * *

"I've had to walk into rehearsals sometimes and tighten things up. But nobody has ever heard me bawl out an underling or a menial. If things don't go right, I go right to the superior—the guy responsible."

"You know I've just never had time to meet fellows like Jackie Gleason. He's a man I admire so much for his role as the bus driver in that sketch—what's it called? Oh, yes — 'The Honeymooners.'

"I'd like to know this boy who started out without a quarter and winds up on top of his domain—and then gets kicked in his fat belly doing it. Who knows? Maybe we could sit down and work things out."

GLEASON SPEAKS UP

In another part of town, Gleason himself had a few words about the flareup over Godfrey dropping some of his "gang?"

* * *

"It's most unfair," the portly star declared. "After all, if a guy has authority to hire, he should also be given the courtesy to be able to dismiss them without being maligned—especially when he does it in the interests of improving his own show."

Over the years, Godfrey has found time to meet a few in his own business—but only briefly.

"I know Perry Como a little from around the studios. I know Bob Hope from playing in the same benefit show with him. Bing Crosby is a guy I've admired and wanted to know all my life. So far I've been able to spend one afternoon with him.

MET SULLIVAN ONCE

"Ed Sullivan? I met him only once. The head of CBS asked me to go over and congratulate him before the TV cameras three, four—or maybe it was even five years ago.

* * *

"I walked out and we shook hands in front of the cameras. That's the only time I ever met Sullivan—before or since.

"Never in my life on the air have I ever said an unkind word about another performer. And I've never criticized a newspaperman for telling the truth, no matter what he says."

A buzzer sounded and Godfrey picked up one of his two telephones. It was one of the singing McGuire sisters. Godfrey briefly outlined the plan for getting to Coney Island where the "friends" were staging the Wednesday night show.

AGENTS ALLOWED

"I don't have a publicity man or a manager," he went on, "but it isn't true that I would never allow anyone on the show to have an agent. I don't care who has an agent.

* * *

"Take the case of a young boy who comes off the 'Talent Scouts' program. This is a boy who has won on an unrehearsed show. The decision came from an honest applause meter.

"I say, 'gee, that boy can really sing,' and I keep him around a couple of weeks. Then he comes to me and says he's got three or four guys around who want to sign him. He wants my advice on which one should he pick.

"I say, 'son, watch your step. I suggest you take your time. You don't need an agent with me. If you want to get into the nightclubs and places like that, that's different.'

"But even back in the days when (producer) Larry Puck was on both the Wednesday and Monday shows, I had him and an assistant serving as agents for the cast for free. What did these people need with agents?

"If they'd ask me about hiring a publicity agent, I'd ask them why? 'You are on a show seen by 70,000,000 people a month,' I'd tell them. 'That's a lot of publicity. If you want to put out a press release, CBS has publicity men who can help you. Why a publicity man?'

"They say I forced them to dance. Well, except for Frank Parker, none of these kids had any stage experience to speak of. It was again my theory that if you don't stand acquaintance, you go down.

"So I hired dancing teachers and had them give lessons twice a week. But (Julius) La Rosa and the Mariners (singing quartet) didn't like it. I even hired Madison Square Garden and gave them ice-skating lessons.

LA ROSA LEARNING

"What has happened now? La Rosa is paying for his own dancing lessons. He found out the old boy was right. Dancing helps.

"The story of some of them was that I didn't let them do things—that I was jealous of them."

* * *

"Then there was the business of nightclub and other appearances. Here they are with a nice income. Not one of them on the show made less than $1,000 a week, and I suppose that's pretty poor dough.

"If they came dragging in Monday after doing a Sunday night show somewhere, it was our own show that suffered. I don't think that's asking too much for them to give their best performances. All I was trying to do was make some semblance of organization and present them all in their best light."

Claims Egyptian Mine Killed Israeli Soldiers

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israel has blamed an Egyptian land mine for the death yesterday of two Israeli soldiers and the wounding of three others. The Israelis complained to the U.N. Mixed Armistice Commission.

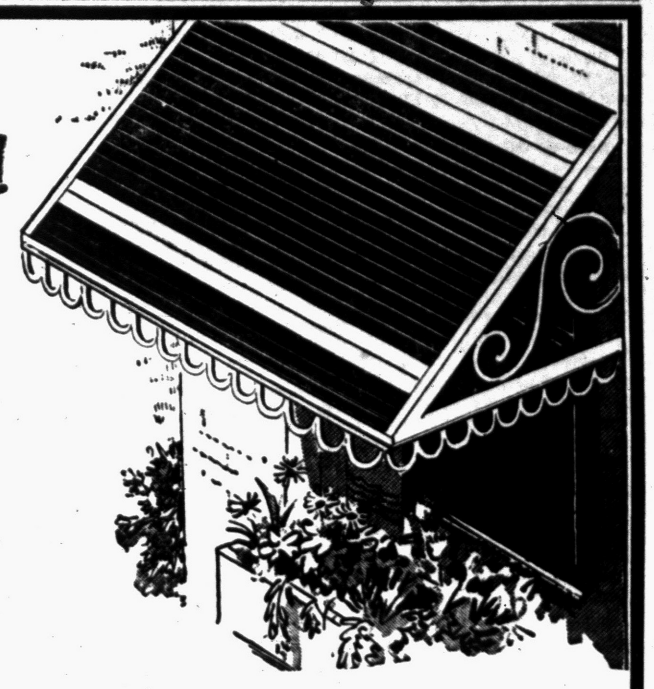

An Israeli army spokesman said the troops were on a routine patrol along the Israeli-Egyptian truce line adjoining the Gaza territory when their car exploded the mine.

Justice Roberts' Death Ends Great Career

PHILADELPHIA (INS) — Former Justice Owen J. Roberts, who retired from the Supreme Court in 1945, died yesterday after several months illness at his home in suburban Phoenixville.

Justice Roberts left the bench at the legal retirement age of 70 after a 15-year term beginning with his appointment by President Herbert Hoover.

Roberts, tall, gray-haired, but erect despite his 80 years, had three careers behind him when he left the high court amid nationwide acclaim.

For 20 years he had taught law at the University of Pennsylvania and for a quarter of a century he had practiced law in Philadelphia.

* * *

During the First World War, Roberts prosecuted saboteurs as special deputy attorney general representing the government in the eastern district of Pennsylvania.

NAMED PROSECUTOR

But he did not attain national stature until 1924, when President Coolidge appointed him as prosecutor in the notorious Elk Hills and Teapot Dome oil scandals.

Roberts plunged into the work with little knowledge of the procedure. Yet he and the other attorneys succeeded in recovering millions of dollars and valuable lands for the United States.

Then came the call to the Supreme Court, and from 1931 until 1945, Justice Roberts was a mainstay on the tribunal which sat in judgment on many of the late President Roosevelt's social measures.

* * *

During Roosevelt's first administration, Roberts generally opposed the government's domestic policies, but he endorsed most of the New Deal legislation in the following four years.

KNOWLEDGE VAST

The late jurist baffled those who like to tab public figures as either "rightists" or "leftists." All agreed, however, that his knowledge of law, domestic and international, was virtually unparalleled.

Back in the pre-war days when it was fashionable to be an isolationist, Justice Roberts repeatedly called for an awakening of the average American's interest in the world overseas.

And when Adolph Hitler had tramped through Czecho-Slovakia and Poland and prepared to continue his bloody march, Roberts struck out at dictators. He said:

* * *

"Is it not true that national life, national character, national aspirations cannot be for long imposed from above, but depend ultimately upon the beliefs of the mass of the people?"

Upon his retirement, Justice Roberts felt free for the first time to crusade for his cherished lifetime objective—a world government embracing all the peoples and races on the globe.

He founded and headed the United Nations Council of Philadelphia and devoted a great deal of time to writing and speaking about his scheme for "one world —one government."

"Eventually, we must have something better than the United Nations," Justice Roberts asserted. "As it is, any one nation can block the work of the others."

And so Roberts suggested an international government "armed with legislative power to forestall aggression and oppression before they start."

After his retirement, Justice Roberts took on a variety of jobs which would take pages to list. He became chairman of the National Mental Health Foundation to improve care of the insane.

He was co-chairman of a "Food for Europe" campaign which sent ships into empoverished lands abroad laden with the donations of American families.

Together with other legal experts, Justice Roberts reviewed 35,000 U.S. Army court martials to determine that justice was done and to suggest needed changes in the Army's judicial system.

Then, in late 1946, Justice Roberts received an honor unique to laymen in America—he became the chairman of the house of delegates of the Episcopal Church.

Roberts lived on a 700-acre farm in Chester County with his wife, the former Elizabeth Caldwell Rogers, of Fairfield, Conn., whom he married in 1904. They had one daughter, Elizabeth.

Lawyer Tries To Free Student

Claims Evidence Lacking for Jailing of Genius Pending Murder Trial

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP)—The attorney for Richard Kluckhohn has taken steps to have him released on bond while awaiting trial on a charge of murder.

Howard Manning filed a petition with the Superior Court yesterday asking for a habeas corpus writ. He contends the state showed insufficient evidence at a preliminary hearing Monday to warrant holding the youth without bond.

* * *

Kluckhohn, 21, of Evanston, Ill., described as a gun fancier and brilliant anthropology student, is accused in the fatal shooting last Friday of Miss Bernie Seawell, 43, government employee of Arlington, Va.

* * *

Police said a shot fired from a hotel room occupied by Kluckhohn hit Miss Seawell as she and a sister were standing at a parking lot. Kluckhohn son of two Harvard University faculty members, claims his German luger pistol discharged accidentally.

Hal Boyle Says:

Marriage Vet Debunks Husband Worship

NEW YORK (AP)—Would it help cut the divorce rate in America if every year we had a week dedicated to husband worship?

A hundred Hindu wives in India recently completed a five-day festival of husband worship. In one ceremony during the festival each wife washed her husband's feet, and a Hindu mystic expressed hope this rite "will end divorce."

* * *

Well, it was a heart-warming thought. But would it work here? Many foreigners accuse Americans of woman worship. They feel our high divorce rate stems from the fact the ladies have too much power in this country—that a wife loses respect for a husband she can wear like a watchfob or dangle like a marionette.

Hmmmm. After all, we do celebrate things like National Dill Pickle Month. Why not set aside one measly week a year for husband worship? That would still leave us 51 weeks of wife worship—surely enough to keep any reasonable woman happy.

* * *

So, fired up with the heady prospect of launching America's first annual Worship Your Husband Week, I broached the project to a guy I know whom everybody calls "the oldtimer." He is wise in the ways of marriage, a combat veteran scarred but unbroken by a 30-year tour of duty on the same matrimonial battlefront.

Somewhat to my surprise, the oldtimer, after listening to my proposal, immediately threw cold water on it.

* * *

"Son, I know it sounds like heaven," he said, "but that's why it won't work. Heaven don't work on earth."

"You mean you wouldn't enjoy having your wife worship you for a week out of every year?" I asked.

"Lord a-mighty, no!" he thundered. "I don't know how those Hindu men stood it, having their womenfolk coming around worshiping 'em and a-washing their feet for five whole days. Father's day is almost more than I can bear, with my wife and kids behaving like simpering idiots seeing me for the first time. You haven't thought this thing through."

"I don't get you," I murmured. "How?"

* * *

"Well, for one thing, I bet you think American wives would resent a Husband Worship Week and holler against having to wash the old man's feet, like Hindu ladies."

"Of course, they'd holler."

"That's how little you know about women," said the oldtimer. "Why, they'd go for it like a weasel goes for hen eggs.

* * *

"The wives would be fighting to show how much they worshipped their husbands. Every home soon would have a gilded bowl—something like the old shaving mugs—inscribed, 'Dear Daddykins—His Tootsie Bath.'

"They'd have all kinds of Precious Papa foot soaps on the market—perfumed naturally. Wives would be trading foot bath recipes, and there'd be national televised contests to pick America's leading foot-washing wife."

"Don't you think that's a bit overdrawn, oldtimer?"

"Not at all," he replied. "A Husband Worship Week would be one long hell. A man couldn't move. He'd be so smothered in feminine adulation he'd be like a fly in a barrel of molasses. And that's the way his wife would like to have him.

"Son, when you worship something, it becomes your prisoner. Nothing with any sense really likes being worshipped. That's why women enjoy it. I fought my wife for 20 years before I found out the secret of how to beat her—which was, to worship her.

* * *

"I quit being her slave the day I told her I worshipped her. I've been telling her that ever since. When you keep telling a woman you worship her, she has to let you have your own way—for fear you'll stop telling her. If there's a slave in the family now, well—it ain't me."

The oldtimer paused for breath.

"Let's have no more nonsense about husband worship," he said. "A thing like that could snowball and ruin every sensible marriage in America.

* * *

"Any husband who lets his wife put him on a pedestal will find he's turned his home into a museum and himself into a piece of statuary."

MSC Adds Space for Overflow Grid Crowd

EAST LANSING (AP) — Workmen are busy putting concrete around a three-foot strip at the edge of Macklin football stadium. The concrete base will provide a firm footing for the chairs put out for overflow crowds.

The turf taken out also is coming in handy to resod the middle of the field, chewed up by spring football practice.

MRA Head on Mackinac

MACKINAC ISLAND (AP) — Dr. Frank Buchman, founder of the international moral rearmament movement, arrived at Mackinac Island Tuesday to prepare for the group's convention starting May 26. With him were the cast of "Vanishing Island," a new musical by Peter Howard which will be produced here this summer. The show dramatizes MRA's conception of an ideal type of world statesmanship.

Justice Roberts' Death Ends Great Career

PHILADELPHIA (INS) — Former Justice Owen J. Roberts, who retired from the Supreme Court in 1945, died yesterday after several months illness at his home in suburban Phoenixville.

Justice Roberts left the bench at the legal retirement age of 70 after a 15-year term beginning with his appointment by President Herbert Hoover.

Roberts, tall, gray-haired, but erect despite his 80 years, had three careers behind him when he left the high court amid nationwide acclaim.

For 20 years he had taught law at the University of Pennsylvania and for a quarter of a century he had practiced law in Philadelphia.

* * *

During the First World War, Roberts prosecuted saboteurs as special deputy attorney general representing the government in the eastern district of Pennsylvania.

NAMED PROSECUTOR

But he did not attain national stature until 1924, when President Coolidge appointed him as prosecutor in the notorious Elk Hills and Teapot Dome oil scandals.

Roberts plunged into the work with little knowledge of the procedure. Yet he and the other attorneys succeeded in recovering millions of dollars and valuable lands for the United States.

Then came the call to the Supreme Court, and from 1931 until 1945, Justice Roberts was a mainstay on the tribunal which sat in judgment on many of the late President Roosevelt's social measures.

* * *

KNOWLEDGE VAST

The late jurist baffled those who like to tab public figures as either "rightists" or "leftists." All agreed, however, that his knowledge of law, domestic and international, was virtually unparalleled.

Back in the pre-war days when it was fashionable to be an isolationist, Justice Roberts repeatedly called for an awakening of the average American's interest in the world overseas.

And when Adolph Hitler had tramped through Czecho-Slovakia and Poland and prepared to continue his bloody march, Roberts struck out at dictators. He said:

* * *

"Is it not true that national life, national character, national aspirations cannot be for long imposed from above, but depend ultimately upon the beliefs of the mass of the people?"

Upon his retirement, Justice Roberts felt free for the first time to crusade for his cherished lifetime objective—a world government embracing all the peoples and races on the globe.

He founded and headed the United Nations Council of Philadelphia and devoted a great deal of time to writing and speaking about his scheme for "one world —one government."

"Eventually, we must have something better than the United Nations," Justice Roberts asserted. "As it is, any one nation can block the work of the others."

And so Roberts suggested an international government "armed with legislative power to forestall aggression and oppression before they start."

After his retirement, Justice Roberts took on a variety of jobs which would take pages to list. He became chairman of the National Mental Health Foundation to improve care of the insane.

He was co-chairman of a "Food for Europe" campaign which sent ships into empoverished lands abroad laden with the donations of American families.

Together with other legal experts, Justice Roberts reviewed 35,000 U.S. Army court martials to determine that justice was done and to suggest needed changes in the Army's judicial system.

Then, in late 1946, Justice Roberts received an honor unique to laymen in America—he became the chairman of the house of delegates of the Episcopal Church.

Roberts lived on a 700-acre farm in Chester County with his wife, the former Elizabeth Caldwell Rogers, of Fairfield, Conn., whom he married in 1904. They had one daughter, Elizabeth.

Good Citizenship Costly

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—Finnis C. Morris, Capron, Okla., drove 130 miles to Wichita for jury duty —as ordered. He was declared ineligible for Kansas jury duty, however, when Judge William C. Kandt learned he had moved to Oklahoma two years ago and that the court summons was forwarded from his old Wichita address. Morris was paid 7 cents a mile for his trouble.

Lawyer Tries to Free Student

Claims Evidence Lacking for Jailing of Genius Pending Murder Trial

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP)—The attorney for Richard Kluckhohn has taken steps to have him released on bond while awaiting trial on a charge of murder.

Howard Manning filed a petition with the Superior Court yesterday asking for a habeas corpus writ. He contends the state showed insufficient evidence at a preliminary hearing Monday to warrant holding the youth without bond.

* * *

Kluckhohn, 21, of Evanston, Ill., described as a gun fancier and brilliant anthropology student, is accused in the fatal shooting last Friday of Miss Bernie Seawell, 43, government employee of Arlington, Va.

* * *

Police said a shot fired from a hotel room occupied by Kluckhohn hit Miss Seawell as she and a sister were standing at a parking lot. Kluckhohn son of two Harvard University faculty members, claims his German luger pistol discharged accidentally.

Hal Boyle Says:

Marriage Vet Debunks Husband Worship

NEW YORK (AP)—Would it help cut the divorce rate in America if every year we had a week dedicated to husband worship?

A hundred Hindu wives in India recently completed a five-day festival of husband worship. In one ceremony during the festival each wife washed her husband's feet, and a Hindu mystic expressed hope this rite "will end divorce."

* * *

Well, it was a heart-warming thought. But would it work here? Many foreigners accuse Americans of woman worship. They feel our high divorce rate stems from the fact the ladies have too much power in this country—that a wife loses respect for a husband she can wear like a watchfob or dangle like a marionette.

Hmmmm. After all, we do celebrate things like National Dill Pickle Month. Why not set aside one measly week a year for husband worship? That would still leave us 51 weeks of wife worship—surely enough to keep any reasonable woman happy.

* * *

So, fired up with the heady prospect of launching America's first annual Worship Your Husband Week, I broached the project to a guy I know whom everybody calls "the oldtimer." He is wise in the ways of marriage, a combat veteran scarred but unbroken by a 30-year tour of duty on the same matrimonial battlefront.

Somewhat to my surprise, the oldtimer, after listening to my proposal, immediately threw cold water on it.

* * *

"Son, I know it sounds like heaven," he said, "but that's why it won't work. Heaven don't work on earth."

"You mean you wouldn't enjoy having your wife worship you for a week out of every year?" I asked.

"Lord a-mighty, no!" he thundered. "I don't know how those Hindu men stood it, having their womenfolk coming around worshiping 'em and a-washing their feet for five whole days. Father's day is almost more than I can bear, with my wife and kids behaving like simpering idiots seeing me for the first time. You haven't thought this thing through."

"I don't get you," I murmured. "How?"

* * *

"Well, for one thing, I bet you think American wives would resent a Husband Worship Week and holler against having to wash the old man's feet, like Hindu ladies."

"Of course, they'd holler."

"That's how little you know about women," said the oldtimer. "Why, they'd go for it like a weasel goes for hen eggs.

* * *

"The wives would be fighting to show how much they worshipped their husbands. Every home soon would have a gilded bowl—something like the old shaving mugs—inscribed, 'Dear Daddykins—His Tootsie Bath.'

"They'd have all kinds of Precious Papa foot soaps on the market—perfumed naturally. Wives would be trading foot bath recipes, and there'd be national televised contests to pick America's leading foot-washing wife."

"Don't you think that's a bit overdrawn, oldtimer?"

"Not at all," he replied. "A Husband Worship Week would be one long hell. A man couldn't move. He'd be so smothered in feminine adulation he'd be like a fly in a barrel of molasses. And that's the way his wife would like to have him.

"Son, when you worship something, it becomes your prisoner. Nothing with any sense really likes being worshipped. That's why women enjoy it. I fought my wife for 20 years before I found out the secret of how to beat her—which was, to worship her.

* * *

"I quit being her slave the day I told her I worshipped her. I've been telling her that ever since. When you keep telling a woman you worship her, she has to let you have your own way—for fear you'll stop telling her. If there's a slave in the family now, well—it ain't me."

The oldtimer paused for breath.

"Let's have no more nonsense about husband worship," he said. "A thing like that could snowball and ruin every sensible marriage in America.

* * *

"Any husband who lets his wife put him on a pedestal will find he's turned his home into a museum and himself into a piece of statuary."

MSC Adds Space for Overflow Grid Crowd

EAST LANSING (AP) — Workmen are busy putting concrete around a three-foot strip at the edge of Macklin football stadium. The concrete base will provide a firm footing for the chairs put out for overflow crowds.

The turf taken out also is coming in handy to resod the middle of the field, chewed up by spring football practice.

MRA Head on Mackinac

MACKINAC ISLAND (AP) — Dr. Frank Buchman, founder of the international moral rearmament movement, arrived at Mackinac Island Tuesday to prepare for the group's convention starting May 26. With him were the cast of "Vanishing Island," a new musical by Peter Howard which will be produced here this summer. The show dramatizes MRA's conception of an ideal type of world statesmanship.

Air Force Surveys Area in Manistee

MANISTEE (AP)—A team of three Air Force officers began a survey in the Kaleva-Copemish area of Manistee County yesterday.

The area has been suggested as a possible site for the eight million dollar jet base the Air Force had scheduled for the Cadillac area.

The survey team consists of Lt. Col. William R. Morton, Lt. Col. John Summers and Maj. Charles Chapman. They made a tour of Manistee, then proceeded to the Kaleva-Copemish area in a jeep borrowed from a local unit of the Michigan National Guard.

Last month, a delegation from Manistee County conferred in Washington with top Air Force officials. They said they were promised a survey of the Kaleva-Copemish site they favor.

Plan Flag Day Contest Here

Elks to Hold Program Honoring Naturalized Citizens

A program honoring citizens naturalized in Oakland County during the past 12 months and emphasizing significance of the American Flag is planned again this year by Pontiac Elks Lodge 810.

A citywide contest is planned on Flag Day, June 14. It will see a savings bond awarded to the family or person flying the best-displayed flag, said County Clerk Lynn D. Allen, Elks Americanism chairman.

A committee will divide Pontiac into zones for judging, he stated. Outstanding flag displays will be picked in each and then compared with those judged best in other zones.

On June 15 the annual Flag Day services are scheduled at 6:30 p.m. in the Elks Temple. Citizens naturalized in Oakland County during the past year will be honored guests, said Allen.

* * *

Cooperating in the event will be Cook-Nelson American Legion Post 20, Chief Pontiac American Legion Post 377, the Marine Corps League, VFW, AMVETS, Blue Star Mothers and several other patriotic organizations, Allen explained.

Elks members working with Allen in arranging the ceremony are Clifford Maison, Leo Halfpenny, Robert Morris, Albert Games, Leo Buckley, Roman C. Gravilla, Dr. Lynn D. Allen Jr., Charles Manz, Don R. MacDonald and Russell Dodd.

A CRUISE TO HAWAII—3
The Land of Sunshine

Hawaii is a land of sunshine. In the winter, when much of the United States is covered with snow, the Hawaiian temperature is about 70 degrees. In the summer it averages 78 degrees. Mild weather and plentiful rainfall are especially good for growing sugar cane and pineapples, the two largest crops.

Farming is the chief industry on the island and about 40 per cent of the people work at it. Many of the sugar and pineapple products are canned and exported to this country. It takes about two years for a crop of pineapples to grow. First, long strips of paper are placed on the fields to keep the ground moist and prevent weeds from growing. Then farmers set the pineapple plants through holes in the paper.

Hawaii's flowers are another beautiful and important export. There are orchids of all colors, hibiscus, African tulip, the bird of paradise and many other kinds.

Color the drawing of this young Hawaiian boy picking some pineapples as seen through your porthole. Save it so you can have your own picture story of these beautiful islands by the end of the week.

Tomorrow: Let's go sightseeing.

Plan to Rehabilitate Lake Control Level

Plans to rehabilitate the Pontiac Lake control level, being processed by Conservation Dept. engineers, are expected to be completed next month, according to Ralph A. Main, Oakland county drain commissioner.

The nine-foot earth dykes at the South end of Pontiac Lake are now being reinforced with sandbags and there is danger of some water from the lake flowing through onto lake property, Main said.

Repair of the lake level was authorized by the board of supervisors. The state Conservation Department will absorb the largest share of the costs, along with land owners effected, Main said.

Man Prepares Own Funeral

Buys Casket, Makes All Arrangements and Then Takes Life

OYSTER BAY COVE, N. Y. (AP) —On Monday, Ernest Woolard, well-to-do interior decorator, visited a funeral parlor. He said he wanted to arrange for a funeral for a member of the family who was near death.

He wrote down the precise cost of each item. He chose a simple pine casket, and listed the prayers to be said. He ordered the burial in a Washington, D. C., cemetery.

Then he went home and wrote a note to an old friend, Police Lt. C. Russell Haff. It said, "You will find my body in the jeep in the garage in the event my wife doesn't find me first."

Woolard's wife found the body yesterday. The jeep was covered with a canvas, and a hose was rigged to the exhaust. Police ruled the death a suicide from carbon monoxide.

Police said Woolard, 54, was despondent over his 18-year-old married son John, who is in jail on a rape charge.

The youth was arrested last month on complaint of Maryanne Joyce, a pretty 20-year-old redhead from nearby Glen Cove. She said young Woolard raped her in his car after their second date.

Young Woolard was released on $5,000 bail posted by his father. But two weeks ago, police said, the youth grabbed his mother by the hair and ordered her to cook his breakfast.

The elder Woolard hit him on the head with a coffee pot. Then he went to Nassau County Court in Mineola and revoked the bail. The youth was rearrested and jailed.

Boy Scouts' National Meeting Scheduled

With "Training to Serve the Boys of America" as its theme, the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America will hold its 45th annual meeting at Hotel Jefferson and Kiel Auditorium in St. Louis, Friday and Saturday.

Executive board members of the Clinton Valley Council and their wives scheduled to attend are: Mr. and Mrs. Ray D. Baker, 3011 Warner Dr., Green Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sanderson, 3458 Winterberry St., Westacres; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Haas, 201 Grant St., Holly; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bennett, 119 Jones St., Mt. Clemens, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Barck, 40 S. Gratiot St., Mt. Clemens.

Nearly 1,500 adult leaders from the U.S. will represent 539 local councils which give scouting programs to 3,804,462 boys and adult leaders throughout the U.S. and its territories.

Student Obeys; Discards Teeth Stuck in Candy

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Mrs. Loretto Bonner, a teacher at Taft Junior High School, noticed one of her students struggling with a piece of candy he was chewing.

"Either swallow the candy or toss it in the wastepaper basket," she advised the youth.

"Can't," said the lad. "The candy is stuck between my teeth." Jokingly, Mrs. Bonner told the youngster: "Well, toss your teeth in the basket with the candy."

The boy took out his teeth and threw them into the basket. He had a complete upper plate.

Investigate Detroit Man for Concealed Weapon

A 26-year-old Detroit man was being held in Oakland County Jail today for investigation of carrying a concealed weapon.

The suspect, Enoch Davis, was arrested by Troopers Stanley Sitkowski and Richard Gordenier of the Pontiac State Police Post last night after they discovered a .32-caliber revolver in the glove compartment of his car. He was stopped for speeding in Bloomfield Township, the troopers said.

Steal From Police

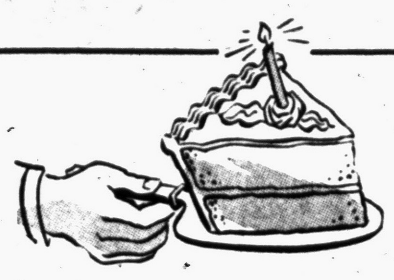

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Elzie Williams, 26, of Lowell, was charged in municipal court Monday with taking part in the theft of $4 from a cash drawer at the Lowell Police Station. Police Chief Frank Stemphs said Williams acted as lookout while two 16-year-old boys took the money. The juveniles also are in custody.

The Chanters: Big Business Echoes

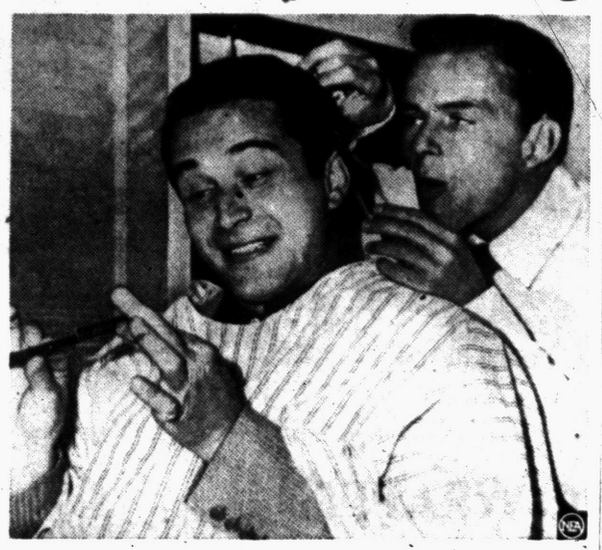

Voice, Personality for High Bidder

By DICK KLEINER
Last of Three Articles

NEW YORK (NEA) — One of Perry Como's brothers once tried to give his mother a picture of just how much money her singing son made. He spoke of record royalties and TV salaries and money from endorsements and the figures were pretty impressive. Mrs. Como smiled and nodded and then said: "Any man who makes $75 a week steady, that man makes a good living."

Perry Como makes considerably more than $75 a week. So do the other top chanters. That's why the mad scramble for fame. There are few winners but for those who do win, there's a genuine, old-fashioned fortune.

Como is now big business. There's a suite of offices in one of the Rockefeller Center buildings that is headquarters for Perry Como, the industry. He employs a conductor, an arranger, a music copyist, secretaries, managers, accountants.

EX-BARBER — Perry Como, whose voice made him big business, gets mock haircut from aonther top chanter named Sinatra.

BIG ENTERPRISE

It has to be that way. His TV show, his records, his personal appearances, his many other activities add up to a complicated enterprise. The commodities are a voice and a personality. They are sold on the open market to the highest bidder. The only difference between selling Como and selling soap is that there isn't enough Como to go around.

To Como, the man, all this means that he is in the baritone chips. There are no authentic figures on his income. But his lovely home, large donations to charities and scale of living indicate rich returns.

Besides such tangible things as money, becoming a top star brings fame. To some the fact of being recognized on the street, stopped for autographs, and otherwise idolized is the important thing. Como is modest, and while he submits good-naturedly to the clamorings of his fans he prefers the peace and quiet of his home.

COMO STREET

But fame is the price of stardom. There is now a Perry Como Street in his home town, Canonsburg, Pa. It was dedicated one day when the city declared a holiday, and all the schools were closed for the celebration. That's part of stardom and fame, too.

Another part is the almost complete lack of privacy. Wherever a well-known star goes he is recognized. He cannot eat in a restaurant in comfort. Even the waiters ask for autographs. He cannot go to a movie without drawing a crowd. His home, no matter how carefully he guards the address, is bound to be a magnet for throngs.

VAUGHN MONROE
. . . on the way up.

His daily life is generally tiring. There are rehearsals, conferences, interviews, costume fittings, benefits, photographs. He must go through it all with smiling grace. The slightest objection and he gets labelled "temperamental." If he forgets a face the word goes out that he's got a "swelled head" since he hit the big-time.

STAR'S LIFE HARD

So perhaps the money rewards are his due. It is not an easy life, this stardom. And the drains on his income are fantastic — 10 per cent to a personal manager, perhaps five per cent to a press agent, possibly another slice to a business manager, big sums laid out for clothes, special material, answering fan letters.

But if the sheer staggering amounts that they earn impress you, prepare to be impressed.

Eddie Fisher's annual income is well over a half-million dollars.

Johnnie Ray gets around $2,500 a week for a personal appearance. He got a flat $100,000 for appearing in the movie, "There's No Business Like Show Business."

WHERE IT GOES

When Frank Sinatra was 26, his income was in the five figures per week bracket. Today he also makes movies.

What do they do with their money? (After taxes, the take is considerably lower.) They have their pet extravagances.

Eddy Arnold has a 107-acre farm at Brentwood, Tenn., where he raises pure-bred Herefords. Johnnie Ray started a foundation for the deaf and once donated his entire $7,500 pay check from a TV appearance to that charity. He also was so free with tips and handouts that his managers now limit him to $20 a day spending money.

Fisher courted and won movie starlet Debbie Reynolds. Being a top star includes such privileges, denied to ordinary mortals, of hobnobbing and romancing the top stars of the opposite sex. That is another reward. It's one that lures many youngsters into show business.

MANY CLIMBING

Today's top chanters — like Como, Fisher, Ray, Sinatra, Tony Bennett, Eddy Arnold — are reaping these varied rewards. There are others clamoring for the top spots. Some, like Vaughn Monroe, Frankie Laine, Nat "King" Cole, and Vic Damone, are almost on a par with the leaders.

And there are the others, the young ones, who hope that they'll be up on top any day now. The most promising are Johnny Desmond, Bill Hayes, Rusty Draper, Guy Mitchell and Roy Hamilton. They're in the medium-sized chips now. Tomorrow they may be the big ones.

Or maybe some unknown will come along and skyrocket to fame and fortune. It all depends on those breaks.

PAINS OF ARTHRITIS HURT LIKE A KNIFE CUTTING THROUGH ME

"I'm glad to report that O-JIB-WA BITTERS helped my rheumatism and arthritis more than any medicine I ever tried" says Mrs. Martha Frisbie, 1130 Dandy Street, Cadillac, Michigan.

"I speak from experience when I say that O-JIB-WA BITTERS is the best medicine for rheumatism and arthritis. For over 20 years, I suffered terrible pains in my arms and legs, and once it settled in my shoulders, and I could hardly get my own meals. At times the pains hurt like a knife cutting through me, but I refused to be confined to bed. After taking O-JIB-WA BITTERS for two months, I was practically better, and give it full credit for feeling so good now in spite of my 82 years of age. It helped my stomach and kidneys too. Words Fail me in telling about the marvelous results. O-JIB-WA has helped many other people that I know in this vicinity, where I have lived for about 32 years. Because it helped my condition, and so many of my neighbors, I always recommend your medicine when I hear of somebody suffering. O-JIB-WA BITTERS is truly the best medicine I ever used."

THE PONTIAC PRESS

WEDNESDAY, MAY 18, 1955 PONTIAC, MICHIGAN THIRTEEN

Pontiac Educators Watch Industry's Wheels Turn

Tool engineer Russ Dahl, at right, explains a blueprinting machine's operation to Theodore Carlson (Pontiac High) and Lillian H. Davidson (Malkim) at American Forging and Socket Co.

Pontiac teachers today have the answer for the student who wants to know about the inner-workings of local business and industry as a result of the fourth annual B-I-E day (business, industry and education) yesterday.

Six hundred and eighty Pontiac educators peered behind the cogs and wheels of big and little businesses as guests of the Chamber of Commerce. Sixty representative business firms served as hosts for the groups.

The teachers were day-long inspectors of the automobile and truck production plants, banks and financing firms, public utility business, dairy production, the insurance business, lumber supply, stores and radio stations.

The Pontiac Press hosted 35 of the Pontiac faculty members, showing every phase of newspaper production from news gathering and advertising to getting the paper ready for delivery.

Others visited downtown business, viewing the operation of a "five-and-ten" store and a big department store.

Groups of teachers spent the day as guests of the retail automobile firms, furniture merchandisers and a large wholesale food supply company watching the arrival of shipments and the process of distribution.

Michigan has been observing B-I-E Day for nearly nine years with 693 communities reported to be carrying on this project as an annual affair.

B-I-E day is a nationally-conducted program which was initiated several years ago to better acquaint business with the problems of education and education with the needs and operation of business.

Robert J. St. Clair, director of the Chamber, said that this year's B-I-E day was undoubtedly the most successful of the local programs.

Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent of Pontiac schools, said that from the reaction of his staff it was evident that a much better acquaintance of the facts of business now existed among the teachers.

In previous years, Pontiac has carried on B-I-E day programs with education inviting business back to school for the day. Recently the students who will one day work in these local businesses were the guests of business.

St. Clair pointed out that B-I-E day also served to make teachers more aware of the different resources which do exist in this community.

Banker Chases, Grabs Robber

Wild Ride and Crash Follow $2,000 Holdup in St. Clair Shores

DETROIT (AP)—The husky manager of a newly opened suburban bank singlehandedly captured a lone gunman who held up the bank and fled with more than $2,000 in cash.

When the gunman drove away from the St. Clair Shores National Bank late yesterday, Manager Bernard St. Germaine vaulted over the counter, raced to his own car and gave chase.

For a mile and a half at speeds up to 70 miles an hour, the two cars flew along busy thoroughfares.

Then a cement truck lumbered into an intersection and the robber's car plowed into it. St. Germaine shouted to bystanders:

"Grab that man; he just robbed a bank!"

Nobody moved, so St. Germaine grabbed him himself. He held the man until police arrived, then picked up the money which had spilled into the street.

"I just couldn't see letting him get away Scot-free like that," St. Germaine said.

Semidazed by the crash, the man offered no resistance.

Police identified him as Charles J. Cadaret, 21, of Detroit, and held him for the FBI for investigation of bank robbery.

Truman Says U.S. Must Stay in U.N.

JEFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP)—Harry S. Truman says withdrawal of this country from the United Nations would mean preparation for a third world war and "the destruction of the world."

The former President also said yesterday the United States should try to keep Russia in the U.N., adding:

"When we have the Russians before the world, we are in a better position to make them perform for peace."

He told a joint session of the Missouri State Legislature world peace or world destruction are the only two alternatives we have.

Man Accused of Firing Shots Into Freighter

PORT HURON, Micy. (AP)—A Marine City boat livery operator was held at St. Clair County Jail today, accused of firing rifle shots at a Canadian freighter steaming past his property on the St. Clair River.

Floyd B. Warwick, 45, was one of a number of rivertront residents who had complained that waves from fast-moving vessels had damaged their property.

Warwick denied he was the sniper who fired three shots at the freighter John E. F. Misner last Thursday.

Bullets struck the ship but none of the crew was wounded.

Warwick was charged with unlawfully discharging a firearm, which carries a maximum penalty of a year in jail and a $500 fine.

The Parthenon in Athens was dedicated in 438 B. C. to the goddess Athena.

11 Flee Dutch Ship Aground in Channel

LONDON (AP)—Eleven Dutch seamen jumped to safety today from the plunging deck of a crippled freighter as blinding May gales lashed the English Channel and the North Sea.

Dozens of small ships scuttled for shelter in the channel ports. The liner Queen Mary docked 12 hours late from New York after riding at anchor throughout the night.

* * *

The Ramsgate lifeboat rescued the 11 Dutchmen from the 309-ton coaster Urmajo as it wallowed aground on the treacherous Goodwin Sands. One man, hurled against a scalding steam pipe in the storm, was burned badly on the hands.

Inland driving rain, snow blizzards and biting winds brought winter conditions to much of Britain.

Wife, 17, to Graduate

TITUSVILLE, Pa. (AP) — The School Board has agreed to let 17-year-old Mrs. Nancy L'Huillier Sutton, expelled from school because of her marriage, earn her diploma. She'll be allowed to take final examinations, although not attending classes, and will get her diploma if she passes. Her parents have threatened to take court action to permit her to graduate.

At Dinner for Adoptive Parents

Children's Aid Society to Gather

The annual dinner which is given by the board of directors of the Michigan Children's Aid Society for the foster parents of children under the society's care will be held May 25 at Hotel Waldron.

MYRTLE REUL TO SPEAK

Myrtle Reul of Lansing will be speaker. A former member of the Department of Social Work of Michigan State College, Mrs. Reul has worked with the Michigan Children's Aid Society, and she has been active in the public school system as a classroom teacher, assistant principal and visiting teacher.

She has received two graduate degrees from Michigan State College, has done graduate work at the University of Michigan, and now is working on final requirements for doctoral degree.

The committee in charge of arrangements includes Mrs. Syver Thingstad, chairman, assisted by L. Harvey Lodge, Dr. Richard Galpin and Mrs. Barney Habel.

PTAs Plan Installation, Meetings

Safety Programs, Alaskan Movies on Agenda

Several school PTA groups are holding a flurry of meetings before the semester comes to a close:

Malkim

Both mothers and fathers have been invited to attend the annual May cooperative luncheon, scheduled for Thursday morning at 11:45, which will be followed by the childrens' presentation of a program in celebration of Michigan Week.

New officers will be installed during a business meeting, with Mrs. Carson Cascadden heading the group as president. She will be assisted by Mrs. Charles Heinisch, vice president; Harold McConnell, father vice president; Mrs. Carl Vedane, teacher vice president and Mrs. Jack Dougherty, secretary.

Completing the slate will be Mrs. Hurles Pace, historian; Mrs. Edwin Solomon, parliamentarian and Mrs. Roy Trador, Mrs. Glenn Horsington and Mrs. Nolan Keener, council delegates.

Committee members for the luncheon include Mrs. Rudolph Pfeiffer, chairman; Mrs. Darold Houle, Mrs. Arthur Allen, Mrs. Edwin Solomon, Dorothy Weaver, Mrs. Cascadden and Naomi Dennis.

Donelson

Movies of their recent Alaskan trip will be shown by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Baumgartner at the monthly PTA meeting to be held at 8 p.m. Thursday in the gymnasium.

Several selections will be sung by three Waterford Township music teachers and kindergarten mothers will serve refreshments.

Wilson

PTA members climaxed the season with a program on safety. Speaker at the final meeting was Theodore Vanderstempel, Pontiac traffic engineer. Short talks on summer safety for children were given by Nancy Schmansky, service patrol captain and Robert Farrell, safety patrol captain.

Refreshments for the recent meeting were provided by kindergarten and first grade mothers.

In other activities, Mrs. John Neaves, retiring PTA president, was honored at a recent luncheon given by the board of directors and held at the Sanford street residence of Mrs. Raymond Ellsworth. A gift and corsage were presented Mrs. Neaves.

Attending were Mrs. Burtis Crowe, Mrs. Leroy Eastham, Mrs. Wallace Lacy, Mrs. Katherine Puscas, Mrs. Arthur Beyer, Mrs. William Hollis, Mrs. C. Stait Lloyd, Mrs. John Potter, Mrs. Harold Talmage and Mrs. Clergue Webster.

Mrs. Sampson Opens Her Home to Zonta Club

Mrs. L. R. Sampson opened her home on Watkins Lake to 40 members and guests of the Zonta Club recently for a May dinner and business meeting.

The club voted to make a contribution of $100 to the Civic Auditorium Fund.

Mrs. Adrian Ish, president, reported that there are now 1,368 members in District Five of Zonta.

She also reported on the success of the recent project of the City Federation of Women's Club, done in cooperation with local merchants.

The next meeting will be a luncheon Thursday at Stevens Hall. A breakfast honoring this year's new members will be held June 5 at Rotunda Inn. Officers will be installed at this time.

Birthday Luncheon Held by Group

Twenty-eight members of the April-May Group of First Presbyterian Church met for an annual birthday luncheon recently at Rotunda Inn.

Mrs. James White was in charge of the program. Other committee members were Mrs. John Livingston, Mrs. Quentin Sweet and Mrs. Floyd Mortenson.

BETTY LOUE GEORGE

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd George of Oxbow Lake are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Betty Loue, to Dale Stanley Helgemo. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Helgemo of South Josephine street. No date has been set for the wedding.

Junior League of Birmingham Arranges Party

The Junior League of Birmingham has made plans for a party to be held Saturday at the Birmingham home of Mr. and Mrs. John Richardson. The party will honor transfers and their husbands.

Mrs. Frank Rhodes Jr., chairman of the transfer group, is being assisted with arrangements by Mrs. Bartow Duncan, Mrs. Harry Swan, Mrs. Hugh Mack and Mrs. James Chapman.

There are six pages in today's Women's Section

Old and new board members of the Junior League will be entertained June 7 by Mrs. George Squibb of Birmingham.

Mrs. Squibb and Mrs. Rudolph Eberstadt Jr. recently returned from Sun Valley where they represented the Junior League at a 33rd annual conference of Association of Junior Leagues of America, Inc.

Humor Can Salve a Sorry Situation

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

One Friday, Mike's grandparents came to supper. Later, in the living room, Mike was happily absorbed in his favorite TV cowboy program when Grandpa joined him.

Without speaking, he waved Mike out of his chair to sit down in it himself. Mike had found another chair when Grandma made her entrance. "Up, sir," ordered Grandpa again — and in growing exasperation, Mike surrendered his second chair.

As he sprawled on the floor, Grandma said fretfully, "Oh, dear, can't you turn to something besides all this noisy shooting, Arthur?" Mike's father dismissed the cowboys.

So Mike drew his cowboy gun. In a state of high excitement, he rushed about, poking it so insistently into everyone's face that his father angrily sent him to bed.

The next morning, with intense resentment, Mike began to criticize his grandparents.

Suddenly, his mother interrupted. "Let me show you how we all looked to me yesterday!" she said. And pulling her face into grim disapproval, she imitated Grandpa's pompous gesture, crying "Up, sir," in a deep voice.

Then, making a growling noise, she laughed. "That was you, Mike, getting mad — and here's me!"

Wringing her hands in burlesque of herself, she whined, "Oh, how unfair everyone is to my child! What shall I do? Though I understand how he wants to shoot us all up, it's not polite to say so. Oh dear what shall I do?"

A small grin had appeared on Mike's face. The next moment, at his mother's imitation of his father's confusion between duty to his parents and duty to his child, Mike burst into liberating laughter.

His mother's humor had made weakness look so absurd that he could no longer respect it enough to resent it.

Have I given the impression that I'm endorsing disrespect for grandparents? I don't want to. So let me point out that Mike's mother made light, not only of her elderly in-laws' self-centeredness, but of his reactions to it, his father's irritated confusion and her own helplessness.

She was poking fun, the wise kind woman, not at people but at the follies they allow to keep them apart.

There's a kind that's bad for them — the kind that makes them feel little and helpless, not big and strong. We all know it. It's the fun-poking that seeks to humiliate us.

That's not the humor that's grand for children; the brand Mike's mother displayed is.

Miscellaneous Shower Honors Miss Anderson

A miscellaneous shower honoring Eleanor Anderson, bride-elect of Wilbur Whayne of Voorheis road, was given Monday evening.

Eleanor is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Anderson of Walled Lake, and he is the son of Mrs. Elizabeth Whayne of Sacramento, Ky. The couple will speak their nuptial vows June 4.

The shower was held at the home of Mrs. W. Earl DeMond on Barkman road. Mrs. Charles W. Griggs assisted the hostess.

Guests were Mrs. Henry J. Green, Mrs. Frances McCue, Mrs. Walter Babb, Mrs. Aletha Vorhes, Mrs. E. A. Reitmeyer and Mrs. Lester Stanley.

Others were Mrs. Jack Thompson, Mrs. Alton Owens, Mrs. Gordan Shelton, Mrs. William Hartman and Mrs. Bill Wiseheart.

Still others were Carol Stanley, Mary Eleanor Lockman, Jackie Kroeplin, Aletha Leonard, Norma Ainsley, Janet Guoin and Emily Hayes.

Society Names Delegates

Alpha Beta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma is sending nine delegates to the state conference of the society at Kellogg Center, East Lansing, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The group will be led by its president, Mrs. Iva O'Dell, and Mrs. Gertrude Ealy, vice president.

Others making the trip will be Mrs. Harvey Avey of Walled Lake, Mrs. Thomas Dodson, Freida Huggett and Hazel Potts.

Mrs. Harvey Bidstrup, Mrs. Olive Lord, Mrs. Honora Kinsella and Mrs. T. E. Wiersema, also attending, will sing in the All-State Chorus when the group appears on the Saturday evening program following the annual banquet.

SPECIAL MEETING

A special meeting was held at the new Walled Lake High School on Monday afternoon. Three Walled Lake senior girls, Eleanor Sherwood, Toni Horseman and Joyce Graham conducted the members on a tour of the building.

* * *

The spacious cafeteria seating approximately 300 students, the newly equipped classrooms, and the fine laboratories were some of the highlights of the tour.

Mrs. O'Dell presided over a brief business meeting making plans for the closing business of the school year. Mrs. Ethyl Gibson of Walled Lake High School was in charge of the refreshments served in the new library.

She was assisted by Mrs. Harry Avey and Miss Nina Kropidloski. The senior girl guides also helped in serving the refreshments.

* * *

The next meeting will be a picnic on June 7 at the home of Mrs. T. E. Wiersema with Mrs. Emily Hicks as chairman.

Coming Events

Sewing Circle of Welcome Rebekah Lodge 246 will meet Thursday with Mrs. Harold Curtis, 44 Delaware Dr., for cooperative noon luncheon.

Anna Gordon Unit, WCTU, will meet for box luncheon at noon Thursday in First Baptist Church.

Corinne Sisterhood 184, Dames of Malta, will meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. in Malta Temple, 83 Perkins St.

Sharon Smith Weds Mark Thatcher

Emmanuel Baptist Church was the setting for the marriage of Sharon E. Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Smith of Alberta drive, to Mark B. Thatcher.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Frances Raynard of Addie street and Enoch Thatcher.

The Rev. Tom Malone performed the 7:30 p.m. ceremony Saturday before 200 guests. Palms and baskets of gladioli, carnations and stock decorated the church.

The bride wore a floor length tiered gown of nylon net trimmed with rosepoint lace and fashioned with sweetheart neckline. Her headpiece secured a fingertip length veil and she carried an arrangement of roses and carnations.

Dorothy Barber attended the bride as maid of honor wearing a nile green gown and picture hat. She carried an arrangement of purple stock. Her shoes matched the bouquet.

Bridesmaids were JoAnne Womack and Roberta Smith, sisters of the bride, and Carol Raynard, sister of the bridegroom.

They wore lilac dresses in princess style and picture hats. They carried bouquets of purple stock and wore matching shoes.

William Pappas was best man and seating the guests were Ted Womack, Floyd Raynard and Jim Raynard.

A reception followed the ceremony in Gingellville Community Hall. The bride's mother wore a navy dress with white accessories and a yellow rose corsage.

An aqua dress with pink accessories and pink roses was worn by the bridegroom's mother.

For a wedding trip to northern Michigan the bride wore a purple paper faille dress with white accessories and a purple orchid corsage.

Honeymooning in northern Michigan are Mr. and Mrs. Mark B. Thatcher. The bride is the former Sharon E. Smith, daughter of the Robert C. Smiths of Alberta drive. Mark is the son of Mrs. Frances Raynard of Addie street and Enoch Thatcher.

"Things Should Perish Fast," Says Scientist

By MARY MARGARET McBRIDE

Mr. Price whose hobby is antique automobiles, shook his head sadly as he viewed the 1955 streamlined job his neighbor had just proudly acquired.

"They don't build 'em the way they used to," he declared and looked lovingly at the vehicle in his own driveway, an ancient touring car, more like a praying mantis than anything else.

Mr. Price probably won't agree with an argument I recently heard put forth by Dr. Margaret Mead, one of the most lucid of our thinkers.

The brilliant anthropologist called the fact that we don't build houses, furniture, hats or even stockings quite as solidly as we used to, a sign of a "good" civilization.

"In a good civilization," remarked Dr. Mead thoughtfully, "things should perish fast. Toys, for example. You buy them, take them home, the children play with them for a while and break them.

You throw those away, go out and buy some more. That creates more work for the people who make toys."

I suspect—and said in this column not long ago—that fashions in clothes are part of a major scheme to make you and me buy more garments than we absolutely need to cover our nakedness.

And, according to Dr. Mead who may possibly have had tongue in cheek, this is just dandy. She cited the floral necklace of the South Seas that takes several days to make as a case in point.

The necklace lasts for a day or so, fades and is discarded. Lots of work and very little wear, but says Dr. Mead: "The decks are cleared and they start making another. It's a good idea."

My vision sharpened by listening to the anthropologist, I spotted, while leafing through a report on a forum attended by food and cookbook writers, the question an amateur observer had asked a merchandising expert, wit: "Are jar lids that you have to pry off and can't screw back an irritant to the consumer?"

The expert, not to be caught in a direct answer, parried: "There is a reason for the pry-off top. People hate to throw away glass containers.

If a glass has a screw top, people keep it for ages, even if they have no use for it!"

So the glass packagers, bless their little hearts, make pry-off tops to save us from ourselves—and sell more jars of course.

I'd like the packaging people to know that I'm one who has been definitely irritated by pry-off tops of glass jars, first, because the tops always manage to roll away to a corner under the sink while being transported to the ice box, and second, because I buy about four times more grated Parmesan cheese than I would if it came in jars with screw-on tops.

Now, because of Margaret Mead's theory of desirable perishability, I'm resigned to the situation. All the same, I've thought of a way to bore a hole in the dike of our economic situation.

I shall, henceforth, save all jars with screw-on tops and use them for my grated Parmesan cheese. And I shall throw away the pry-off tops but save the cheese jars themselves for an emergency supply of drinking glasses!

MR. and MRS. DONALD R. OGG

Motoring through the southeast are Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Ogg, who were married Saturday evening. The bride is the former Gayle Janice Hubbuck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville A. Hubbuck of East Huron street. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ogg of Stanley street.

Trip Through Southeast Taken by Newlyweds

Seed pearls outlined the sweetheart neckline of the nylon net and lace gown worn by Gayle Janice Hubbuck as she spoke her marriage vows to Donald Robert Ogg at 7:30 Saturday evening.

The Rev. C. George Widdefield officiated at the ceremony at All Saints Episcopal Church, before an altar decorated with candelabra, white stock and daisies.

Fitted net sleeves blended into lace at the wrists of the bridal gown and a three-tiered skirt trimmed with Chantilly-type lace ended in a chapel train.

The bride's veil of illusion was fitted to a lace halo outlined with seed pearls. She carried her mother's gift of a white Bible, covered with an orchid and lilies of the valley.

Zoe Cretal, maid of honor, wore an orchid crystalette ballerina gown and carried yellow glamellias.

Identical dresses in Nile green were worn by Gloria Schumacher, Carol Fox and Judy Campbell, bridesmaids, whose flowers were orchid glamellias.

FLOWER GIRLS IN NET, LACE

Francy Sue Dickey of St. Louis, Mo. and Debby Rhue, were dressed in yellow nylon net and lace as they served as flower girls for their aunt.

Best man was Charles Furlong. Eugene Hubbuck, the bride's brother, Gerald Brewer and Dale Burrell were ushers.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Orville A. Hubbock of East Huron street. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ogg of Stanley street are the bridegroom's parens

A white and avocado linen dress with black patent accessories was worn by the bride's mother as she greeted guests at the reception at the VFW Hall immediately following the ceremony. She placed a corsage of yellow talisman roses on her purse.

The bridegroom's mother selected a blue linen dress with navy accessories and a pink talisman rose corsage.

Before leaving for a trip through the southern and eastern states, the bride changed to a red and white print dress with matching accessories.

Friend Asks When to Pen Thank-You

Wants to Verify Girl's Allowance of 6 Months Grace

By EMILY POST

Today's first letter asks: "Will you please tell me the exact time a bride is allowed to write thank-you notes for her wedding presents?

A friend of mine tells me that she as long as six months in which to acknowledge them. Is this right?"

Courtesy exacts that she write them, as many as she can, every day before the wedding—trying, if possible, to send a thank-you note the day each present is received.

It is true that the bride who receives very many may not be able to keep up with her list and will therefore have to wait until after she gets back from her wedding trip to send her thanks for those that arrived the last day or two before the wedding.

It may be that she manages to find time to writ a few especially appreciative notes while she is away. In any case, she writes to everyone when, and as soon as, she can.

ENDING LETTERS

Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me the proper closing of a letter to a social acquaintance? Some of my friends say, "Very truly yours," or "Yours very truly" is correct.

Others say that this is incorrect and that "sincerely yours," or "Sincerely" is the proper close. Will you please tell me which is the correct form?

Answer: Either "Sincerely," or "Sincerely yours," or "Very sincerely" is correct for social usage. "Very truly" was used in olden times but is a definitely business letter phrase today.

INVITATION NECESSARY

Dear Mrs. Post: My fiance's parents live in another state. As a result I haven't as yet been able to meet them.

Would it be proper to go and visit them for a week end upon my fiance's request, or must I wait for a letter from his parents inviting me?

Answer: I'm sorry, but you must be invited by his mother, or other older members of his family.

Wedding Plans Are Revealed

May 28 is set as the date for the marriage of Barbara Jeanne Lee to Ronald D. Connole. The ceremony will take place at 7:30 p.m. in Central Methodist Church.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Lee of Woodlow road and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Connole of Merry road, Watkins Lake.

Pilgrim Group Meets at Church

The Pilgrim Group of First Congregational Church met for a cooperative luncheon recently in the church parlors.

Mrs. V. L. Newcomb presented a devotional program based on the book, "Gift From the Sea," by Anne Morrow Lindbergh.

Mrs. E. K. Vanderlind, president, announced completion of a new stainless steel kitchen in the Fellowship hall. A special donation was given to help buy added equipment.

Mrs. Don Thomas was appointed chairman of a luncheon to be served Friday for the Congregational Women's Fellowship.

Graduating Class of 1935 Slates June 11 Reunion at CAI

E. C. Conwell Is General Chairman

Educators to Be Guests of Class at Gathering

Alumni from as far away as Green Bay Wis. will make the trek here to help add to the success of the June 11 reunion slated by members of the 1935 Pontiac High School graduating class.

That's the word coming in in response to RSVP's added to the 472 invitations that have been mailed to the grads of 20 years ago.

In addition, the class will be visited by several special guests at the gathering to be held at the Waterford CAI Buiing. There will be F. J. DuFrain, retired now but assistant superintendent of schools back in the pig tails and knee pants days of the alumni.

Others will be John Thors, current school principal, Helen Hunt of the English department and S. M. Dudley, formerly with the mathematics department and now retired.

Master of ceremonies at the dinner will be Charles G. Uligian, a January, 1935 graduate.

Committee heads who are still anxious to hear from those who have not yet sent in reservations are E. C. Conwell, general chairman; Mrs. William H. Taylor Jr., June, '35 class secretary; Mrs. C. E. Van Trease Jr., January, '35 class secretary and Mrs. Neil McCormick, treasurer.

Assisting in the preparations are Mrs. Howard O. Powers, Mrs. Robert Peoples, W. L. Cotter, C. P. Ledford, Mrs. Frank Redner, Ledger Criger, Loel Shotwell, and Lloyd Huntley.

Others are Charles Foote, Mrs. M. H. Lockhart and Mrs. C. A. Rogers.

Card Party Slated by Catholic Women

St. Vincent de Paul Church was the setting for a meeting of the Rosary Altar Society and National Council of Catholic Women.

Arrangements of spring flowers adorned the tables for the recent cooperative supper. Reports of standing committees were given by Mrs. Harold Brady, NCCW president.

Members of the NCCW will be hostesses June 21 in St. Vincent de Paul Parish Hall for a Northwestern Deanery card party.

A sturdy material that is light as a feather, Fiberglas reinforced plastic, makes it possible to design the laundry tub out of the cellar and into the kitchen. The baked-in colors — lemon yellow, pistachio green, strawberry pink, raspberry blue, and white, too — will blend with any decorator scheme or spark a basement utility room. The tub is shown here on its own wrought iron stand.

Bridal Gown of Duchess Taffeta

BIRMINGHAM — At a four o'clock ceremony in St. James Episcopal Church Saturday afternoon Maude Dorothy Minto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis W. Minto, was married to Pierce Bray of Chicago.

He is the son of Harold A. Bray of Chicago and the late Mrs. Bray.

The bridal gown was of white Duchess taffeta, fagoted around the boat neckline, with long sleeves and a full skirt which fell from pleats at the waist into a circular train. An heirloom lace Rose Pointe cap held a tiered veil and the bouquet was of white lilacs.

Mrs. Oscar M. Carney of El Paso, Tex., was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles Horn of Cleveland, O., Mrs. Howard deHaven of Pontiac and Mrs. Willis Gillespie.

They all wore iridescent aqua taffeta frocks, waltz length, with folds at the neckline forming cap sleeves. They wore ivy in their hair and carried purple lilacs.

Philip S. Harper Jr. of Chicago was best man and ushers were John K. Elwood, Cleveland, John C. Secrest, Ann Arbor and Frank Alfred Minto, brother of the bride.

At the reception in the Minto home on Yarmouth road Mrs. Minto wore an ankle length gown of pale green lace and organza with a matching hat and white orchid corsage.

For her wedding trip to Europe the bride wore a navy wool suit and matching hat. After several months in Europe the couple will go to Manila in the Philippine Islands to live for several years.

Sorority Chapter Inspected by Official

Members of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority are busy making decorations for their forthcoming summer ball to be held June 4 at Westacres Country Club.

An underwater theme is being followed by the decorations committee under the direction of Maxine Miller, chairman. A local orchestra will provide music for dancing.

Which 1 Are You--Jane or Mary?

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Sometimes, it seems to me, we pay a pretty high price for being civilized.

We know that the real purpose of strong emotions, like fear or anger, is to prompt us to take action.

The lion in the jungle, when he feels these emotions, will either run or fight. He will do something about it.

But, too often, we civilized creatures, in the face of fear or anger, will just sit and stew and churn our nerves into such a state that we are totally ineffectual.

KNOWS HER WORTH

For example, take two girls, whom I shall call Mary and Jane.

Mary is doing a fine job as secretary to the office manager of a firm.

She deserves a raise, but her boss has told her, and quite truthfully, that business is so bad in that line right now he cannot give her a raise.

Mary's furious. She knows she's worth more.

But she is also frightened, because she fears the process of looking for another job.

She does nothing about it—nothing but stew and weep on people's shoulders and complain bitterly that "such is life."

Mary will probably end up with stomach trouble and a gaunt, wrinkled face.

RINGS DOORBELLS

But Jane, fortunately is not so "civilized."

Jane works for a fund-raising organization in the health field.

She was also a secretary, and a good one, who couldn't get a raise because the budget wouldn't permit it.

Jane got angry, too, decided it wasn't fair and made up her mind to act.

She used her head, saw that a lot of people who ought to contribute to the fund, weren't doing it.

So, she volunteered to ring doorbells in her free time, to interest more people in the community in the wonderful work her organization was doing.

Jane raised a lot of funds, evenings and weekends.

She asked her boss if she could be transferred into the fund-raising department, where she felt she could make a real contribution.

Jane is now a full-time fund-raiser, at just about double her previous salary.

"I just figured," Jane told me, "that if there wasn't enough money to give me a raise that I really deserved, maybe I'd better do something about seeing that we got some more money!"

Mrs. Rosenthal Speaks to Club

An interpretation of the basic qualities of the symphony was given by Mrs. James K. Rosenthal for members of Pillar Club at their meeting Tuesday evening.

Using a piano and recordings she illustrated the pattern of symphonies, and suggested that music appreciation is increased through better understanding of the various forms of the art.

The club met at the home of Mrs. Harold Haskins on Walnut Lake Road for a cooperative dinner. Devotions were given by Mrs. F. R. Conner. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. William Gordon, Mrs. Wilbur Rowston, Mrs. Robert B. Tarr and Mrs. Conner.

June meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Marcus Scott.

New Salad Combination Is Colorful

Mrs. Carl Spencer Uses Stuffed Olives With Oranges.

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Several years of dieting, says Mrs. Carl Spencer, aren't conducive to many original ideas for food. However, further questioning brought out an interesting salad idea for an orange-olive combination.

One of the many Canadian-born women now living in the Pontiac area, Mrs. Spencer is still new enough here not to have made many contacts. She says she trys to keep even with her children and the housework. She has been participating in a Red Cross course.

Mrs. Spencer gave us one good suggestion about poaching eggs. In order to have them come out of the boiling water in round shape use the rings that seal the separate tops on Mason jars. Butter them before putting in the water for easy removal of the eggs.

Child Study Club Celebrates 25th Birthday Tuesday

Grace Lutheran Church Is Setting for Luncheon

The 25th anniversary of the Junior Child Study Club was celebrated Tuesday afternoon with a luncheon held in Fellowship Hall of Grace Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Howard Powers welcomed those gathered and presented Mrs. Vernon C. Abbott with an honorary membership in the club.

Mrs. Donald Robertson introduced 19 past members who attended the affair. Among them were Mrs. E. C. Hayhow of Hillsdale and Mrs. Douglas Watkins of Jackson.

Mrs. Adolph Magnus installed Mrs. Powers as president for the coming year. Mrs. Neil Gray was installed as first vice president; Mrs. John E. Madole as second vice president; Mrs. Victor Schramm, recording secretary, and Mrs. Carl Donelson, financial secretary.

OTHER OFFICERS NAMED

Mrs. Julius Koprince is corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. L. Thomas, reporting secretary; Mrs. Ross Walls, treasurer; Mrs. William A. Ewart, parliamentarian and Mrs. Eugene Foley, auditor.

Mrs. G. R. Sayers introduced Mrs. Ralph Norvell, Mrs. James Nye, Mrs. Philip Rowston, Mrs. Richard DeWitt and Mrs. George Ross as new members of the Junior Child Study Club.

Mrs. John Madole, program chairman, introduced Mrs. John Nicolls to the group as Hedda Hopper of Hollywood. She served as commentator for a program over station JCSC-TV.

"Hedda" capably broadcasted a fashion show of hats and neckpieces of the past 25 years. Background music was provided by Mrs. E. D. Foley as the models paraded before their audience. Modeling were Mrs. Donaldson, Mrs. Frank Bonner, Mrs. William R. McClure and Mrs. Lyle Passmore.

The names of past presidents were included in the commentator's discussion of the fashions.

Serving Junior Child Study Club members as presidents since the group's organization in 1929 have been Mrs. Frank Moreau, Mrs. Dwight Ernest, Mrs. Adolph Magnus and Mrs. William McClure.

Other past presidents are Mrs. Earl Taber, Mrs. Milton Young, Mrs. George Shearer, Mrs. Roy Wright, Mrs. E. L. Guy and Mrs. Cecil McCallum.

Still others are Mrs. Berle Roush, Mrs. Sayers, Mrs. Herbert Ashbaugh, Mrs. Clarence Stolpe, Mrs. Wilfred Whitfield, Mrs. Richard Bashore and the late Mrs. Donald Hansen.

TABLES DECORATED

Floral arrangements on the luncheon tables were arranged under the direction of Mrs. William L. Thomas and Mrs. Ross Walls.

The reception committee included Mrs. Robertson, Mrs. Magnus, Mrs. John P. Niggeman and Mrs. Nelson Hunter.

Mrs. Shearer, charter member of the club, was presented with a floral arrangement by Mrs. Powers on behalf of the group.

Mrs. John Nicolls of Sylvan Shores drive, Mrs. Carl Donelson of Mohawk road, and Mrs. John Madole of Preston avenue (standing left to right) were members of the Junior Child Study Club who gathered around the piano where Mrs. E. D. Foley of Old Orchard drive (seated) accompanied those taking part in the program following the anniversary luncheon.

Wax Best for Keeping Linoleum

Disastrous Results Can Be Anticipated if You're Guessing

By HUBBARD COBB

Here is a moderately sad story that involves a Mrs. W. W. D. who spent several dollars having new linoleum installed in her kitchen and breakfast room.

After about the third week Mrs. W. W. D. decided that the linoleum was looking a little dingy so she decided to do something about it.

What she did was to give it a nice coat of varnish which certainly made it look nice and glossy for a few days.

It also made the linoleum look a little yellow but she soon got used to that.

After a few months the varnish coating began to show signs of wear and Mrs. W. W. D. decided that the best thing to do would be to remove the old varnish and apply a fresh coating.

Only trouble with this plan was that any solvent strong enough to soften the varnish would also soften up the linoleum.

She did a good deal of looking around and finally she got her flooring dealer to remove the varnish with a highly inflammable and toxic solvent which Mrs. W. W. D. didn't want to take a chance on using herself.

All of which goes to prove that you should never apply anything to anything unless you first are sure that it can be removed without too much trouble at some future date.

It also goes to prove that linoleum and similar types of flooring don't need coatings of this type.

The best coating for them is wax and if you use a good grade of wax in thin coats the wax will neither be soft, slippery nor apt to hold dirt and stains.

Of course, in time, the wax will become soiled and then it must all be removed and a fresh coating applied.

But wax is pretty easy to remove —much easier by far than varnish or similar coatings.

GLASSES

The hairdo should be carefully chosen for those who wear glasses. It should not be tailored to severity nor should it be an intricate design. Softly feminine, moderately off the face lines are best. Brush your hair until it shines is a good rule for all, but especially applies to those who wear glasses.

Make your hair truly a crowning glory and it will do much to enhance your attractiveness. Keep your eyebrows neatly shaped so that no untidy hairs will detract from the smart line of your glasses.

Hats with an uneven or curving brim are the most becoming with glasses. Don't wear dangling earrings ever!

Sisterhood of Temple Beth Jacob Elects New Officers

Mrs. Irving Gordon Is President

Mrs. Irving Gordon was elected president of the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Jacob when members gathered Tuesday in the temple for luncheon.

Mrs. Joseph Nosanchuk is first vice president; Mrs. George Wyman, second vice president and Mrs. Harry Arnkoff is secretary.

Other officers are Mrs. Thomas Horwitz, treasurer, Mrs. Rudy LoPatin, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Harry Ackerman, financial secretary and Mrs. Julian Levine, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Harold Chapman introduced Mrs. Sanford Saperstein and Mrs. Jerome Lapides who took over the afternoon's program. They reported on a Sisterhood convention held recently in Muskegon. The report was done in the form of a skit.

The invocation for the luncheon was given by Mrs. Isadore Good. Committee reports for 1954-55 were given during the afternoon. Mrs. Sam Stolorow gave the benediction.

Male Who Didn't Give Gift Will Get One in Return

So Few Special Days Can Be Shared, Steady Advised to Select Remembrance

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: My boy friend's birthday is coming very soon and I'd like very much to give him a small gift.

He didn't do anything about my birthday, but then we weren't going steady at that time. Would it be all right for me to give him something? And if so, what?"

His birthday will be the first of the very special private days that you will share, so celebrating it in style seems to me to be in order.

Perhaps his family will plan something extra for his birthday in which you will be included. Perhaps you can add to his festivities by having him over to the house for dinner the night before.

In any case a little remembrance would add to his pleasure.

Maybe some initialled handkerchiefs, or a sport shirt, a snazzy necktie or argyle socks. If he has a hobby that you know about, keep it in mind.

Records for his collection, perhaps, or stamps or coins, or books or flash bulbs. It needn't be an extravagant gesture—just something to let him know you are mighty glad he was born.

"Dear Miss Woodward: I've been going with this senior for about three months now, and his graduation is close at hand.

Is it required or considered proper for me to get him a graduation present? If so, what kind of gift would best suit the occasion?

You're going steady with him, so you'll undoubtedly be included in his graduation festivities. Perhaps his family will entertain in his honor at a party of some sort and everybody will bring him presents.

You will probably be invited to his commencement exercises. As the very special girl in his life at this big moment you'll be pretty much expected to give him a present.

And graduation presents are supposed to be rather permanent in nature. So I'd suggest one of the following ideas:

A billfold, a pen and pencil set, traveling kit for his toilet articles, a pair of military brushes with his monogram on the back, a generous supply of stationery with his name and address printed on it, one of those gay new traveling suit bags.

Or you might try a big leather picture frame for his bureau, or a small folding frame for lots of snapshots to carry with him. An album of his favorite music might also do the trick, or an old map framed to hang on his wall.

Know your boy—his tastes, his likes and his needs. Then spoil him just a little bit. This is the one and only time he'll be graduating from high school.

Roquefort cheese owes its marbled appearance to a mold called penicillium roqueforti, which is added to the cheese curd before curing.

Students Hold Piano Recital

Bethany Baptist was the setting Sunday afternoon for a piano recital.

Participating in the program were Nadine Williams, Jill Prestel, Marilla Corwin, Rosemary Hoenstine, Ralph Koprince, Jimmy Exline, Natalie Daniels, and Carol Norvell.

Others were Marvel Wolfe, Helene Schultz, Jon Barnhart, David Hunt, Bill Graves, Barbara Payne, Cheryl Williams, Jane Bigler, Susan Putnam, Connie Greisbach and Diane Woolcock.

Also taking part were Douglas Anderson, Nancy Greenhalgh, Mitzi Schroeder, Judith Wallace, Barbara Atwell, Jill Miller, Mary Frances Hodges and Ann Hodges.

Still others were Mary Shadley, Barbara Smith, Carol Riley, Wanda Sue Vaughn, Ruth Ann Vaughn, Marilyn Barnhart, Carol Stacy, Judith Brooks and Sharon Wallace.

Completing the list were Doris I. Brooks, Jean Hoenstine, Paulette McReynolds, Elaine Elkins, Clark Lefurgy, John Markley, Brian Woolcock, Jerry Exline, Karen Bowman, Gay Ann Cornell, Frieda Griesbach, Sharon Wolfe and Shirley Bryan.

55 Are Present at Association's May Breakfast

Devon Gables was the setting Saturday morning for an annual May breakfast enjoyed by 55 members and guests of the Pontiac Association for Childhood Education.

A sextet from McConnell school furnished music. Those comprising the sextet were Mrs. Royal Exline, Mrs. Francis Schell, Mrs. Walter Wittkopf, Doris Martin, Anna Metzger and Josephine Stilwell.

Josephine Stilwell has been re-elected president of ACE, Mrs. Florence Pappert was introduced as vice president and Nancy Prevette as recording secretary.

Mrs. Alton Madden is treasurer; Mrs. Melvin Johnson, adviser, and Geraldine Gibbs, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Ruth Wright had charge of breakfast reservations and Mrs. Royal Exline made arrangements for the music.

Decorations were taken care of by Mrs. Arthur Pinkall, Mrs. Eustace Thibodeau, Nina Sackett, Doris Martin, Anna Metzger and Mrs. Francis Schell.

Western Whirlers Have Guest Caller

Frank Kapalski from the Sierra Squares of California was guest caller at a recent dance held by the Western Whirlers at West Bloomfield Township Hall. Pete Lergen also called dances.

Decorations were taken care of by Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Hamp and refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Lester Mehlberg and Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Rock. The last dance of the season will be held May 28.

Helen Lapisch Assists at Parley

Helen Lapisch of Dellwood avenue has returned from Pittsburgh, Pa. where she participated in the Northeast Regional International Toastmistress convention.

Representing the Pontiac Toastmistress Club and Council Four, of which she is chairman, Miss Lapisch spoke on "Evaluation on the Council Level." Following the workshop the participants were taken on a tour of the city.

Mrs. Irl Williams Named President of WSCS

Mrs. James Deeg installed those who will conduct activities of the WSCS of Oakland Park Methodist Church at which time Mrs. Irl Williams became president.

The business meeting was combined with a cooperative dinner at the church, attended by 50 members and guests and served by the Rebecca Circle.

Officers assisting Mrs. Williams during the coming year will be Mrs. Edward Tutty, vice president; Mrs. Courtney Clara, recording secretary and Mrs. Albert Barker, treasurer.

Sigma Beta Members at District Session

Several local members of Sigma Beta sorority traveled to Gary, Ind. Sunday for a meeting of province one.

Mrs. Charles Fournier, national corresponding secretary; Mrs. Wallace Williams, national charity finance chairman; Mrs. Eddie O'Brien, president of Psi Chapter; Mrs. DeVere Games and Mrs. William Spalding attended from Psi-Chapter.

Members of Beta Alpha Chapter who attended the meeting were Patricia Sturgis, who was named secretary-treasurer of province one, and Grace Campbell.

Mrs. Spalding was elected province governor.

Clawson Woman Hurt in Accident

Mrs. Pearl B. Williams, 45, of Clawson, was reported in fair condition at Pontiac General Hospital with injuries suffered when the car in which she was riding struck a utility pole last night on Crooks road near Hamlin road in Avon Township.

She sustained a broken rib, a possible concussion and head cuts when the car, driven by Mrs. Emma Sue Craig, 30, of Hazel Park, left the road on a curve and smashed down several guard rail posts before ramming the pole. Mrs. Craig was treated for minor bruises.

She was unable to tell Oakland County Sheriff's deputies how the accident happened.

Midnight Snack

FARNBOROUGH, England (UP) — British Army Bugler Jack Fury got 112 days in the guardhouse for stealing 24 eggs and a half-pound of bacon from the mess hall because "I was hungry that night."

Detroit Zoo Cuts Red Tape to Get 2 More Gorillas

DETROIT (AP)—Two more baby gorillas are coming to the Detroit Zoo after some fast red tape cutting.

The zoo wants them to keep a gorilla it has just received from getting lonely. But zoo officials were balked in getting export permits from French Equatorial Africa.

The zoo went to Mayor Albert E. Cobo. Cobo went to Sen. Potter (R-Mich). Potter went to Secretary of State Dulles. Dulles went to the U. S. ambassador in Paris. The ambassador went to the French government. Up came the permits.

To Air Dispute

JACKSON (AP)—Representatives of Consumers Power Co. and CIO Utility Workers of America meet today to discuss recommendations of a fact-finding panel in a wage dispute. State labor mediators were to sit in on the session.

6 Former Stars Named to State 'Hall of Fame'

DETROIT (UP) — Six all-time sports greats were named today to the Michigan "Hall of Fame" with the honorees representing five different sports.

Tyrus Raymond Cobb, former player and manager of the Detroit Tigers, led the balloting of state newspaper sports editors and radio and television sports directors.

Football was the only sport with two representatives—the late Fielding H. Yost and Willie Heston, both of Michigan.

Others were general manager and former coach Jack Adams of the Red Wings, former heavyweight boxing champion Joe Louis and golf great Walter Hagen.

It is estimated that Americans spend three billion dollars a year on research.

Weather, CD Heads Will Plot Fallout

BATTLE CREEK (AP)—Officials of the U.S. Weather Bureau and the Federal Civil Defense Administration have completed final plans for coordinating their efforts in plotting the fall-out pattern of nuclear explosions.

Fourteen top weather men completed a 2-day conference with civil defense officials yesterday at FCDA headquarters here.

Starting June 1 daily reports on air currents and wind conditions will be relayed to civil defense workers throughout the nation. From these, fall-out patterns of nuclear blasts will be determined.

Reports will be sent out twice daily during operation alert, the nationwide civil defense test set for June 15-16.

A recent survey shows that the most gasoline is sold to U.S. motorists between 4 and 7 p.m.

U. S. Atom Experts Predict Nuclear Power for Homes

TOKYO (AP) — American homes can "conceivably" begin using electricity produced by atomic power plants within three or four years, the United States' former atomic power chief said today.

* * *

Dr. Lawrence R. Hafstad, now atomic research director for the Chase Manhattan Bank of New York, told a reporter "four of five U. S. utility companies" are now building commercial atom power plants.

"They will produce 700,000 kilowatts of electricity, enough to supply a city of 700,000 persons," he said.

Dr. Hafstad, who resigned as director of atomic reactor research for the Atomic Energy Commission early this year, made his remarks immediately after a press conference here.

* * *

Also attending were Dr. Earnest O. Lawrence, Nobel Prize-winning physicist and director of the radiation laboratory at the University of California, and John Jay Hopkins, president of the General Dynamics Corp., builder of the world's first atomic-powered submarine, the Nautilus.

The unofficial team of experts, here at the invitation of Japanese industrialists, said:

* * *

1. There is no real danger from lingering radiation after an atomic bomb explosion—only from the explosion itself.

2. The only "string" attached to a U. S. offer of uranium concentrates to Japan is that the fissionable material never be converted into a weapon of war.

3. The world is on the threshold of a new atomic era, with the United States trying to hasten its arrival by "planting the seed of this thing" in the countries that can use it the most.

All three exlained their purpose here was to provide information on peaceful uses of the atom.

Fire Destroys Mill

BAD AXE (AP) — Fire destroyed a feed and grinding mill 18 miles south of this Sanilac County community Monday. Damages and the cause of the blaze were not determined immediately.

Soviet Farmers Told to Hurry Planting of Corn

MOSCOW (AP) — Strong orders went out today to Soviet farmers to end an "unbearable" delay in the planting of corn and get their quotas in the ground within the next three to five days.

The Kremlin command was made public last night only a few hours after announcement of the U. S. invitation for a delegation of about 10 Soviet farm experts to inspect Iowa farmers' ways with corn and hogs this summer.

The coincidence, however, did not appear by Soviet design. The Moscow and provincial papers have been packed for the past 10 days with denunciations of the farmers' failure to follow through on Communist party chief Nikita S. Khrushchev's demand in February that vastly more corn be grown for hog food.

The Russians are considered certain to accept the American invitation to visit Iowa. In exchange, a party of U. S. farm experts is slated to visit the Soviet Union. The American note yesterday asked how many should come and when.

Last night's blast from the Ministeries of Agriculture and State Farms did not say how badly the corn planting was lagging, or how much was the goal. But it ordered directors of state and collective farms to draft all farm workers—and their families as well—for the sowing, and to keep them working every daylight hour. No penalties were annouced for further failures.

Soviet Premier Blames Workers for Lag in Production of Industrial Tools, Metals

LONDON (AP) — Premier Nikolai Bulganin has warned the Soviet Union that it is lagging seriously in the production of such major industrial items as machine tools, oil, metals and chemicals.

* * *

The Premier addressed the opening session yesterday of a national conference in the Kremlin on increasing productivity. Moscow radio broadcast the speech today.

The importance of the conference was underlined by the attendance of Bulganin, Communist party chief Nikita S. Khrushchev, Deputy Premier Georgi Malenkov and other top leaders.

* * *

Bulganin announced that to improve production, planning of the Soviet economy would be split into long-term and short-term aspects. A separate commission would be set up for each phase, he said.

Moscow radio said the Premier declared:

"Because of inadequate output of special equipment, the proportion of highly productive machine tools is falling off in the machine tool pool.

"The production of forging and pressing equipment is lagging behind sharply.

"Processes rendering production automatic are being but slowly incorporated.

* * *

"Poor use is made of existing equipment in many engineering works. And we have works which still make machines inferior to those made by some works abroad."

Bulganin said that in the metallurgical field, "not enough is being done to improve the quality of special steels and alloys, especially of heat-resisting types." The latter are vital components of modern jet fighters and bombers.

The Soviet Premier said there also is an over-all lag in the drilling of new oil wells, petroleum refining and coal mining.

* * *

He complained that workers in many industrial plants appeared to dawdle during the first two thirds of the month, then put on a burst of speed to meet their monthly quotas. In many such plants, the declared, "nearly one half of the goods are produced during the last third of the month."

Twister Upsets Car; Driver Keeps Going

CHILLICOTHE, Tex. (AP)—Police Chief Henry Bunch said a small twister overturned a car on a rural road near here last night but that nobody was injured.

Said Bunch: "The man, I don't know who he was, just drove his car out of the field and went on his way."

Northwest Texas was frightened by several twisters last night as turbulent weather swept the area but there was no report of injuries and little damage.

Reds Jump Gun on Removal of Austria Troops

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — Russia apparently is not going to wait for ratification of the Austrian state treaty to begin withdrawing its occupation troops. Austrian sources say Soviet commanders in several towns have notified police that their headquarters will be closed in a day or two.

A U.S. Army spokesman said yesterday that no orders have been received to move out American troops in advance of ratification. The pact does not actually go into effect until ratification has been completed in the United States, Britain, France, Russia and Austria.

The treaty was signed Sunday by the Big Four powers and Austria. Under its terms, the 70,000 Russian and Western occupation troops are to be out of the country within 90 days after final approval by all the signers.

The Austrian government already has taken its first step toward ratification. Chancellor Julius Raab's Cabinet approved the 38-article pact yesterday and agreed to send it on to Parliament immediately for action.

"We must be the first to ratify our treaty," Raab later told a cheering crowd of electrical workers.

Jackson Man Retires

JACKSON (AP)—John P. Riley, friend of the court at Jackson since January 1949, has sent his resignation to Gov. Williams, effective June 1. He did not reveal his future plans.

No. 15 in a series of RARE CREATURES:

THE EVERLASTING NAY

defends a weak position so strongly he couldn't back down if he wanted to

The NAY is an advertiser who's made a mistake but can't bring himself to admit it.

He armors himself with false logic and counters all truths with a "nay!"

Fortunately the NAY is a rare creature.

Most advertisers realize they can't afford to pour good money after bad. If they've made a mistake or two they're big enough to admit it.

Most of all they would never put themselves in a position of denying that newspapers are basic as an advertising medium.

Simply because nearly everybody reads a newspaper. Despite all the activities competing for people's time and favor, newspapers rack up greater circulations each year – up now to an all-time high of more than 55 million copies a day!

A newspaper campaign reaches practically all your prospective customers. It impresses your dealers and distributors. It generates immediate sales.

What more can you ask of any advertising medium?

All business is local . . . and so are all newspapers!

This message prepared by BUREAU OF ADVERTISING, American Newspaper Publishers Association, and published in the interests of fuller understanding of newspapers by

Bonanzagram No. 11

The Jones twins, going on thirteen, were left all alone one Saturday when their parents drove off to market early. The boys decided that a meeting of the Davy Crockett Club was in order and invited all the gang over by telephone. Unfortunately, the meeting turned into a cowboys-and-Indians battle and the boys created considerable havoc. They opened cans of paint and stuff stored in the shed, and did a good deal of damage to the contents of the barn and garage. Even the house was messed up. One of the twins was so frightened by the sight of the wreckage that he ran off to his secret hideaway in the woods. The other stayed to face the music, and that afternoon, urged on by worried parents, he dashed off a quick note for his brother and deposited it in their favorite mailbox — a hollow tree. When the boy picked up the note, it had been nibbled at by a chipmunk or squirrel, and some of it was missing. But he was able to read it, and decided it was all right to return home. Can you, too, reproduce the message?

How To Play 'Bonanzagram'

Solve the "Bonanzagram" by filling in all the missing letters, as indicated by the underscores, in the message. Insert only one letter above each underscore. Many clues to the missing letters are hidden in the story, or anecdote, accompanying the message. Clues may also be found in the message itself, and, in a few cases, the contestant's general knowledge should provide the correct letter. The contestant will note that the message is unpunctuated. Punctuation will help solve the message but is not necessary to win.

All missings letters must be correctly inserted to win a Bonanzagram prize. Punctuation will not be considered in judging a correct answer.

When properly filled in, the "Bonanzagram" will spell out a clear message that will conform in every way with the clues. In many cases it will seem that more than one word would be the correct one. That's part of the fun! You should weigh the clues and select the BEST possible word in each case.

How to Submit Entries

1. After solution is completed, "Bonanzagram" should be clipped and pasted to a two-cent postcard with your name and address.

2. Entries will be received at the Pontiac Press office, 48 W. Huron St., until 5 p. m. Tuesday, May 24. Mail entries must be postmarked before midnight Tuesday, May 24 for Bonanzagram No. 11. Address "Bonanzagram, % Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

3. Entries may be mailed in envelope but contestant's full name and number of puzzle must be printed in upper left corner of address side of envelope.

4. Copies of the Press need not be purchased to enter. Facsimiles made by hand and corresponding as closely as possible to the original "Bonanzagram" printed in the Press will be accepted but are limited one to a family. Mimeograph, duplicator or other unofficial mechanical reproduction is forbidden.

How to Collect the Prize

The entrant must work out and keep duplicate solution as a claim check. When the solution is published in the Press, he should compare his "claim check" with the published solution, and, if his claim check is identical, he should call in person with his claim check at the Press office, 48 W. Huron St., before 5 p. m. on the Monday following publication of the solution.

If a winner cannot call at the Press office in person, he should mail his solution to "Bonanzagram Editor." Postmark on this letter must be not later than 5 p. m. the Monday after publication of the answer. Correct answers are void unless the contestant reports his claim by the deadlines listed here.

About Eligibility, Information, Etc.

1. Anyone is eligible for the "Bonanzagram" contest except employes of the Press and members of their immediate families. (Immediate family means all those living in an employe's household.)

2. No question as to winners will be answered by phone.

3. The Press will award a prize of $100 to the winner of each weekly "Bonanzagram." If more than one winning answer is received, the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If no correct solution is received, the $100 will be added to the next week's prize. If the winner is a subscriber of record to the Press a $20 bonus will be added to the $100.

4. Only one winning entry from a family will be eligible for the prize, but there is no limit on number of entries.

5. The Press retains the right to correct typographical errors.

6. Judges' decision will be final and contestant's submission of entries indicates acceptance of these rules.

7. No liability is accepted for entries that fail to reach us.

8. The Press reserves the right to alter rules and/or discontinue the contest at its discretion.

A-Industry Expects to Spend $7 Billion on Nuclear Power Plants in Ten Years

WASHINGTON (UP)—Atomic industry said today it expects to spend more than $7,500,000,000 in the next ten years on nuclear power plants.

A sizeable part of that sum, it said, will be invested "on an uneconomic or break-even basis" before atomic power becomes competitive with conventional energy sources.

* * *

That is expected "some time after 1962."

These estimates were made by the Atomic Industrial Forum, Inc., of New York in what it said was the first survey of its kind.

It said private atomic activities will mushroom again and again in the years ahead.

DOUBLE EFFORTS

"Research and development efforts will continue to increase in size and productivity," the forum said, "until they double their current rates by 1958 and double again by 1965."

* * *

The forum is a non-profit organization of nearly 300 industrial, research, and educational organizations and 800 individuals active in peacetime atomic developments.

It based its survey findings on information supplied by more than 400 private organizations "estimated to comprise 75 per cent of the total private U. S. atomic energy industry from a dollar volume point of view."

The forum said non-government organizations such as manufacturers, electric power companies, and research institutions will spend about $300,000,000 of their own money in the next four years on atomic energy research alone.

COMPETITION COMING

Before large nuclear power plants become competitive after 1962, the forum said, between 3,000,000 and 5,000,000 kilowatts of electric capacity may have to be built and operated on an uneconomic or break-even basis.

* * *

The forum estimated that in 1963, makers of parts for atomic power plants will be doing a business of more than $700,000,000 a year. Until then, or perhaps until 1965, the biggest equipment market will be in atomic engines for submarines, other naval vessels, and aircraft.

By 1965, with more than $7,500,000,000 invested in them, power reactors will be consuming atomic fuel at the annual rate of 8,000 tons of uranium, including 26 tons enriched in fissionable uranium-235.

"Also by 1965," the forum said, "atomic energy developments, both government and private, will call for a total of 30,000 to 40,000 scientists and engineers, or about double the number in both categories today."

CISLER GIVES REPORT

The report, called "a growth survey of the atomic industry—1955-65," was released by forum President Walker L. Cisler, who also is president of the Detroit Edison Co.

"For the first time," Cisler said of the survey, "those industrial firms which will be developing, manufacturing, and marketing materials and equipment for the atomic energy industry have a realistic guide as to what will be required."

Just Looking Around

SON DIEGO, Calif. (UP)—An automobile show was declared a success, with only one minor disturbing incident.

"A lady got stuck under a car," the show manager said, "and we had to use a jack to get her out. We were too surprised to ask how she got there and she was too embarrassed to tell."

7 PTA Groups Plan Meetings

Speakers, Open Houses, Card Party, Convention Reports Slated

A variety of programs are planned for the 7 PTA meetings in the Oakland County area tonight, Thursday and Friday evenings.

Here are the planned programs for the different groups:

Thomas

The Thomas PTA will have a "Pay to Play" card party at the Community Hall this evening. Non-members are welcome, officials said.

Southfield Township

The annual spring open house will be held at the Angling Road school at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Parents have been invited to meet teachers and inspect the achievements of their children. New officers will be installed.

Auburn Heights

Mrs. Elmer Dancy and Mrs. Lester Oles will give reports on the recent state convention at the 7:30 p.m. Thursday meeting of the Auburn Heights PTA.

The meeting will be held at the school. Students who have attended dancing classes during the year under the direction of Mrs. Betty Smith will furnish entertainment.

Waterford Township

The Waterford Center PTA will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday at the school for a quiz program of games.

This will replace the usual speaker. Mrs. E. L. Windeler will install the new officers. The annual report will be given by the historian, Mrs. Harry Carlisle.

The Hudson Covert PTA will have the last meeting of the semester at the school Thursday evening. New officers will be installed, and a program will be presented by the Boy Scout troop.

Walled Lake

John Allison, Ann Arbor high school teacher, will discuss military service at the 8 p.m. meeting of the Walled Lake Junior-Senior high school PTA, Thursday in the high school cafeteria.

An election and installation of officers will be held during the business meeting. Mrs. Edward Johnson, president of the Oakland County Council PTA will be the installing officer.

At this meeting also, consideration will be given to the question of splitting this PTA into two groups, one each for the high school and junior high.

Goodison

A family night program called 'A Family Evening in Japan' is being sponsored by the Baldwin-Goodison PTA at their next meeting in the Baldwin School in Goodison at 8 p.m. Friday.

NEW SKIPPER EDITORS — The annual "Waterlog" and the school paper "The Anchor" of Waterford High have new editors for the coming year, as a result of recent elections in the Journalism class. Karl Liewart will be sports editor of both publications. Others are (l-r) Jean Limatta, second semester editor of the Anchor; Ruth Willis, first semester editor of the Anchor, and Carole Fortin, editor of the Waterlog.

Township to Share Chloriding Costs

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — The township will participate in chloriding streets at a cost of $14.07 per 1,000 feet cost to the property owner.

If oil is preferred in certain sections, it will be done on the same basis, the township board has decided.

A building report for the month of April showing 66 permits valued at $667,925 was accepted by the board.

Doolittle Honored

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. James H. Doolittle has been awarded the 1954 Gold Medal of the Federation Aeronautique Internationale, highest international civil award for personal contributions to aviation progress and development.

Seniors of Area Holding Annual Trips; Tour New York, Washington, Niagara

Members of three area high school senior classes are returning late this week from their annual senior trips, and another group left today for their excursion.

The 180 seniors of Waterford Township High School left at noon today for a trip to Niagara Falls. A lake steamer will take them on the 3-day outing.

One-third of the necessary funds was earned by group projects, another third by a special magazine and candy sale, with the final third coming from the individual students.

Accompanying the seniors are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Larmee, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Merrit, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Arsen, and Mr. and Mrs. William Long. Also attending are Mrs. Gordon Bryce, Laura Mahan, Arthur Lake and Paul Ripley.

Fifty-three members of Imlay City senior class have been touring New York city and will return Friday morning. They were accompanied by class sponsors Richard Wheeler, principal, and Katherine Robbins.

Also returning Friday after a 10-day trip including Washington, D.C., Niagara Falls, New York City, are the 27 seniors of the Brandon Township School in Ortonville.

Accompanying them were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sayre, Gerald Irish, Duane Johnson and Shirley Jacobsen.

Recently returned from a trip to New York is the senior class of the Marlette Community School.

Jets Chalk Up Speed Record

U.S. Planes Fly From Tokyo to Australia in 12 Hours Nonstop

NEW CASTLE, Australia (AP) — Four U. S. Thunderjets landed here today, completing a record nonstop Tokyo-to-Australia flight in 12 hours 2 minutes.

The speedy single-engine fighters each capable of carrying an atomic bomb, refueled in the air three times during their 4,840-mile hop — over Guam, Manus Island and Townsville, Australia.

The flight, part of a U. S. Air Force good will mission to Australia, extended the nonstop over-water record for single-engine jets by 355 miles. Col. David Shilling set the previous mark of 4,485 miles in 1953 on a flight from Turner Air Force Base, Ga., to North Africa.

The F84s set down at the Royal Australian Air Force's huge Williamstown Air Force Base here at 5:32 p.m. Australian time. Newcastle is 60 miles north of Sydney, on Australia's southwest coast.

The flight had left Yokota air base, near Tokyo, in balmy spring weather, but landed here in the Southern Hemisphere's May autumn.

Memorial Clinic Officers Return for New Terms

WALLED LAKE—All directors of the Dr. O. R. MacKenzie Memorial Clinic have been re-elected at the second annual meeting.

Returned to office were Charles Riffenburg, Charles Rogers, Bertha Williams. Marion Murray was elected to fill the term of Jackie Murray who resigned.

Re-elected by the directors were Elmer Conrad, president; J. L. Taylor, vice president; Waldo Proctor, secretary; and Margaret Dennis, treasurer.

Although the clinic is expected to be completed early in the summer, plans are being made to have the formal dedication in September.

Cleanliness Unsafe

WAUSAU Wis. (UP)—Charles Fiet nursed a cut on his nose and explained to friends he got it when he walked right through a plate glass window in the new Marathon County Courthouse. "The glass was so clean I didn't see it," he said.

Mrs. Hurd Is Speaker

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—Mrs. Bessie Hurd, state WCTU president, will be the guest speaker at the Waterford WCTU chapter meting at 11 a.m. Thursday at the United Presbyterian Church, Drayton Plains.

Circus Parade to Be Featured at Pack Meeting

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — A grand circus parade will highlight the 7 p.m. Thursday meeting of the Lambert Cub Scout Pack 30.

Included in the circus at the school will be a dog act, strong man, clowns, a tumbling show, and a freak show, containing a bearded lady, a snake charmer, a tattooed man and a rubber man.

Awards and advancement in ranks will also be made.

Gable, Allyson Win in Magazine Survey

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Woman's Home Companion in its 11th annual family awards poll has named Clark Gable and June Allison as Hollywood's most popular actor and actress.

Other winners in the entertainment field announced yesterday as tops included: Lucille Ball, most popular television actress; George Gobel, most popular television actor; "The Robe," favorite film, and "I Love Lucy," favorite television show.

Sales on Street Get Regulations

Fireproof Construction Required in Business, Manufacturing Areas

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—The township board has adopted several changes in the building code, tightening the law in the face of the further development of the rapidly growing township.

Included in the code now is a change requiring all persons dispensing wares from a tent, trailer, automobile or truck to locate at least 25 feet from the highway or road right of way.

Adequate parking for at least six vehicles, in addition to exits and entrances, must be provided, under provisions of this safety measure.

In another change, all buildings erected altered or repaired on land zoned for commercial or manufacturing development must be of masonry or other fireproof construction.

The exception is for buildings used as a single family detached dwelling.

Several recommendations made by the township zoning board were approved by the board of trustees, subject to the approval of the county coordinating zoning board.

The board was advised to change from agricultural to residential zoning the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section 12. Also the southwest corner of Scott Lake Road and Pontiac Lake Rds., from residential to commerical.

The plat for the Lake Angelus Golfview Estates subdivision was approved, subject to the installation of a water system and blacktopped roads. The subdivision is to be north of Silver Lake Golf Course and borders on Wormer and Mohawk Lakes.

Wants Big 4 Talks Before Chou Parley

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. George (D-Ga) said today any discussion with Red China's Premier Chou En-lai about relaxing tensions in the Far East should await a forthcoming top-level Big Four meeting.

George, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said he still favors a meeting with Chou despite conditions laid down by the Red Chinese leader early yesterday in renewing his offer to negotiate directly with the United States on Formosa.

Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ), a Foreign Relations committeeman, predicted, "There will not be any talks with Chou under the conditions he has laid down."

Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont), another committeeman, said in a separate interview he hopes this country will insist on the release of imprisoned American fliers and detained U. S. civilians before it agrees to any meeting.

Chou has said the Communists would not sit down with representatives of the Chinese Nationalists and would not give up their claims to Formosa. He repeated his demand for a Red Chinese seat in the United Nations.

U.S. Tuna Fishermen Fight for Freedom of the Seas

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—American fishing vessels today are engaged in a conflict over freedom of the seas.

Shots have been fired and one man, William Peck, 42, Seattle, Wash., seriously wounded.

* * *

The conflict is over the claim of Peru, Ecuador and Chile to sovereignty for 200 miles off their shores. It is complicated by increasing competition from Japan for the U.S. consumer market.

The American tuna vessels have extended their range to reach virgin fishing areas south of the Equator. Some have moved their base of operations to South America.

* * *

Eight vessels flying the U. S. flag have been seized by Peru and Ecuador. Their owners have been fined a total of more than $85,000 to obtain release of the ships.

The U. S. State Department has protested and Congress has reaffirmed this country's position that the seas are free beyond three miles from shore.

Congress has also authorized reimbursement of the fines from the Federal Treasury and efforts to recover the amounts from the South American countries. This, as yet, has not been done.

Even more urgent are demands of the tuna fishermen for tariff barriers to cut down the Japanese imports, which they declare are threatening them with ruin.

* * *

Mason Case, manager of the fishermen's cooperative at San Pedro, declared April 30:

"If the situation isn't corrected by the federal government our lucrative fishing industry will collapse and this will throw 10,000 men out of work, tying up about 1,900 American tuna boats in Los Angeles and San Diego."

* * *

The San Diego Chamber of Commerce says the capacity tonnage of the American tuna clipper fleet, based almost entirely at San Diego and San Pedro, dropped from 44,300 in 1951 to the present 37,500. In addition, purse seiners with tuna permits have declined from 110 to 67 vessels.

During the same period, the Chamber said, frozen and canned tuna imports into the United States, principally from Japan, have increased from 24½ million pounds to 155 million.

* * *

The share of the domestic market supplied by the American fleet has dropped from 91.4 per cent to 55 per cent, the Chamber reported.

Tables Turned on Cheer-Ups

Letter From Mamie Rewards Club

By WILMA GREENWAY

ORCHARD LAKE — Ten warm-hearted girls who have spent the past six months working to bring cheer to handicapped children and shut-ins had real cause for elation today—they are celebrating the arrival of their own "letter of cheer," sent to them by no less a person than the First Lady of the land.

The group, called the Cheer-Ups, has been meeting weekly under the leadership of Mrs. Hector Van de Vyver, 3639 Commerce Rd., to make scrapbooks and gifts for shut-ins at Pontiac General Hospital.

Two weeks ago, Mrs. Van de Vyver's daughter, Joanne, 13, a member of the club, read that Mrs. Eisenhower was ill. Joanne sent her a scrapbook and pot-holder the group had made.

Monday a letter, written on White House stationery and signed "Mamie Dowd Eisenhower," arrived, commending the girls on their work and thanking them for the gifts.

"You certainly are thoughtful girls to spread such cheer among those who are ill," the letter read. ". . . It is friends such as you who have made me feel much, much better. . . ."

The news of Mrs. Eisenhower's citation came as a big surprise to the girls, for Joanne had kept the fact that she had sent the gifts to Mamie as "top secret."

Mrs. Van de Vyver said she started the little club when she moved from Detroit last fall "to give my children companionship under my own supervision—and to help them and other girls to understand that you get out of life what you put into it."

Two of Mrs. Van de Vyver's six children are not club members—Ronald and Gerard, 7. But Patricia, 13, and Margaret, 11, are ardent Cheer-Ups, as well as Joanne and Joyce, 10.

The other six members are Shannon Donelly, 11, of 2410 Fordham; Rita Hahnefeld, 12, of 2163 Erie Dr.; Jacqueline Logie, 11, and Janice Logie, 12, of 3187 Orchard Lake Rd.; Shirley Proulx, 12, of 7581 Honeysuckle; and Nancy Rabaut, 12, of 2274 Honeysuckle.

All the girls are students at Our Lady of Refuge Catholic School.

The group meets every Tuesday after school to make its "Cheer-Up" gifts. Last Christmas the girls made 14 books for hospitalized children and at Easter they made special baskets. They plan to continue the work on a big scale this summer.

Meanwhile Mrs. Van de Vyver was trying to arrange to have photostatic copies of the First Lady's letter, so that each girl might have her own.

Guy Madison Signs Deal With Columbia for 6 Films

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—I had to laugh when I saw Guy Madison and he said, "Louella, before you ask me "What's New?' I'm going to tell you. I've just signed to make six pictures for Columbia.

* * *

"Or I should say, I'll make the films for my own independent company with Columbia financing and releasing. Something like John Wayne's deal with Warners."

Guy added, "Our first is a Mary McCall Jr. story called 'Seven watchmen'."

Guy's pretty wife, Sheila, looking well and happy after the serious time she had when Bridget Katherine was born, was with her husband.

DOUBLE CELEBRATION

There was a double celebration at the home of Margo and Eddie Albert a few days ago. Eddie Jr. was given a birthday party with a dog as his gift. And Eddie Sr. has just signed to play Burt McGuire, the husband of Lillian Roth, in "I'll Cry Tomorrow" with Susan Hayward.

Burt is the husband who helped Lillian back on the right road after 16 years as an alcoholic.

There's no truth in Grace Kelly's romance with Jean Pierre Aumont. Charles Feldman says. He was at a dinner Elsa Maxwell gave at the Carlton Hotel in Cannes.

"That's where Grace met Aumont and he invited her to have luncheon the next day," said Charlie.

Since Grace is so much in the public eye and every little bit of news about her is seized upon as a big story, Aumont evidently was not adverse to having his name associated with Grace.

Charlie's first date when he got back to town was with Dana Wynter who, unless I miss my guess, will be one of our 1955 stars.

Seek Water, Find Oil

FREDONIA, Ky. (UP) — Two months ago this community launched a fund-raising campaign for a waterworks system. After raising almost $2,000 workers began drilling for water. Yesterday the drill went down 265 feet and hit oil. Experts said the well may be one of the best producers in western Kentucky. The search for water is still on.

Pigs Crowd House

SPARTA (UP)—Jane Noller's 500 pigs fill all but two bedrooms of her parents' home at Sparta. But Mr. and Mrs. William Noller don't mind—the pigs are figurines, collected from throughout the United States and cities in Mexico, Venezuela and other Latin American locations. The collection is a hobby theerapy for 15-year-old Jane, a student at the Lincoln Foundation School in Grand Rapids for handicapped children.

More than 60 billion eggs a year are required to meet American consumer demands.

Records Threatened in Press Links Test

Tournament records are in danger as a fine field of over 60 prep golfers are ready to compete in the annual Pontiac Press Prep golf tourney at Municipal course next Monday.

Entries for the 4th annual event close today with at least a dozen Oakland County and area teams set for action in the 5-man, 18-hole medal play affair.

The field is headed by Birmingham High, seeking its 3rd straight team title. Maples won in 1953 with 393 strokes to 396 for runnerup Shrine. Last year, Joe Borovick's crew posted a 400-stroke score, 5 better than runnerup Southfield.

Pontiac won the inaugural tournament in 1952 with a team total of 385, which stands as the tourney and Class A record. Shrine's 396 in 1953 is the Class B team record.

Maples will be seeking to retain another year's possession of the beautiful championship trophy. The winner also receives a smaller, permanent trophy, and members of the winning team receive medals.

Individual medalist for the tournament receives a medal as does the runnerup. Low scorers in both Class A and B-C divisions also are awarded medals.

Birmingham appears to have a possibility of breaking the original team record set up by the Chiefs' great team of 1952. Leading the Maples is Tim Baldwin, 17-year-old junior, who last year took medal honors as a sophomore.

Baldwin fired a 38-38—76 over the Municipal layout last spring to tie with Bob Turner of Southfield, then defeated Turner on the 1st hole of a sudden death playoff.

Mike Conroy, who had a 77 last year, is back, as is Bob Goldsmith, who fired an 82, but is averaging about 80 this year.

To the lineup have been added Sandy Siegel, a senior who hits about 80 per 18 and Pete Jackson, a 15-year-old sophomore who averages about 82 strokes. Obviously, steady play by this quintet and exceptionally hot rounds by one or two could result in a new record.

Conversely, however, if the Maples should slip, capable teams will be on hand to step into the title picture.

Bob Hall's Southfield is fresh from a victory in the Inter-Lakes Conference tournament. Don Sherer, a transfer from Redford, sets the Bluejays' pace and was medalist in the I-L tourney.

Waterford's Skippers, Royal Oak and little Bloomfield Hills High are entered, keeping alive their record of playing in every Press' tournament. At least 2 schools will be making their 1st appearance in the affair, Troy and Bentley having filed entries for the 1st time.

While Birmingham rates as a solid favorite for team honors, the race for individual medals shapes up as a wide-open affair.

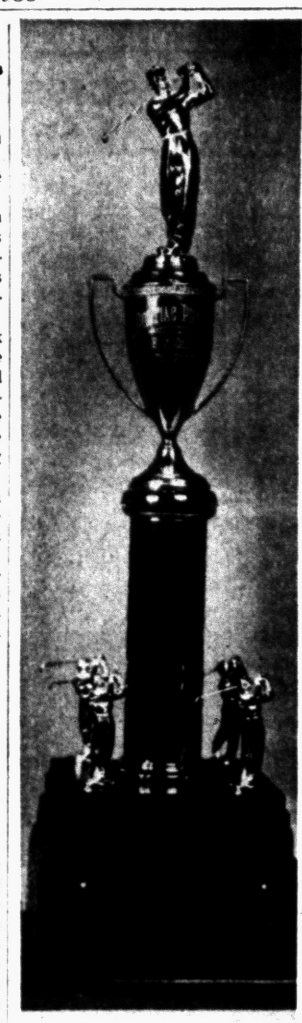

Any Birmingham team member is capable of hauling down the tourney or Class A medal, but the Maples sharpshooters will have plenty of competition.

Pontiac High's Tom Cross booked a brilliant 1-under-par 70 in regional play at Brighton's Burroughs Farms just last weekend and his teammate Bill Martin has broken 80. Sherer and Jim Bradley of Southfield are steady players and Waterford's Jack Reynolds is another threat.

Likewise in the Class B-C division, the medal battle should be keen. Shrine's Fred Howting carries an average of about 78 and his teammate Ron Troy often flirts with the 80 mark. A real darkhorse in this class may be Buddy Badger, a 14-year-old freshman from Bloomfield Hills, whose average is listed as 82, but who is capable of lower scores.

Other Class B threats are John Schmanske of Fitzgerald, Bud Gladstone of Rochester and George Catto of Troy.

Pairings for the Monday tourney will be listed in Friday's editions of the Pontiac Press.

TOP AWARD — Here's the big prize some dozen or so high school teams will shoot for, next Monday, in the 4th annual Pontiac Press Golf Tourney. Event, only one of its kind in Michigan, with MHSAA's full approval, takes place over an 18-hole route at Pontiac Municipal course.

Missed Chances Beat Tigers

BALTIMORE (AP)—Detroit Tigers lost another tough one last night, bowing 3-2 to the Baltimore Orioles in a game filled with missed opportunities.

It was "Al Kaline Night" as his hometown folks honored the young Tiger outfielder. Al gave them a show, picking up a triple with a good slide in the 6th and scoring the 1st Detroit run.

But on the whole nothing went right for the Detroiters.

Right off the bat in the 1st inning Harvey Kuenn and Jim Delsing watched Billy Cox's pop fly fall between them for a double. Eddie Waitkus bunted and Ned Garver's throw to 1st was just too late.

Apparently rattled and irked, Garver proceeded to walk Gene Woodling and then Hal Smith, forcing home the 1st Baltimore run. Garver didn't walk another man all night.

Billy Cox homered in the 5th for the 2nd Baltimore run.

In the 6th former Tiger Hoot Evers opened with a double. Manager Paul Richards apparently hasn't heard about the strong throwing arms of the Detroit outfield because he sent Evers down to 3rd when Woodling lofted to Bill Tuttle and outguessed Tuttle again by waving Evers home after Smith lined to the centerfielder.

Tigers' 2nd run came in the 7th when Fred Hatfield tripled off the right field wall and scampered home after a fly by Garver.

Garver gave up just five hits, but four went for extra bases—three doubles and Cox's home run. Tigers collected six, including three triples, off Erv Palica.

Twice the Tigers wasted scoring opportunities last night. In the 1st inning Kuenn opened with the 1st of his three singles and Kaline walked with one out. But Ferris Fain grounded out and Ray Boone popped up.

In the 4th Fain opened with a walk only to be erased on a double play. Then with the bases empty Jim Delsing tripled and was left stranded.

Tigers ended their road trip with a day game in Baltimore today.

TRAPPED — There's no escape for Kansas City 3rd baseman Jim Finigan as he is caught in a rundown between 1st and 2nd in the 2nd inning of last night's game with the Washington Senators in Washington. Coming in with the ball for the tag is pitcher Mickey McDermott of the Nats, while in the background is shortstop Tony Roig and in left foreground waits catcher Ed Fitzgerald. The play went McDermott to Mickey Vernon (not shown), to Roig, to McDermott who made the tag. A's won, 1-0.

Crane 9 Hands Chiefs Surprise

PHS Drops 3rd Game as Early Blast Hits for 5 Runs

A 1st and 2nd inning blast that produced five runs yesterday afternoon, at Cranbrook, set PHS baseball Chiefs down for their 3rd loss against 8 wins. Those five tallies were all Cranes got, but they were more than enough in the 5-2 victory. Win gave Cranbrook a 7-6 mark for the season.

After starter Jim Jones fanned the 1st two Cranes, he lost control entirely, walked the bases full. Then Pete Dawkins, and Jim Grube scored on Dave Cooper's double. Chuck Grube singled George Gary and Cooper home.

That really was the game, although Cranes got another run in the 2nd on errors aided by a single. Marc Cunningham counted when an attempted Crane "squeeze" went awry, and Pontiac players bobbled it, too.

Bob Johnston took over after two-thirds of the 1st inning and fanned 8, walked none. Pete Bedford went all the way for Cranes, fanned 5, walked 2.

Pontiac's counters came in the 4th on singles by Bob Smith and Al Hayward, who subsequently went home on an outfield error and a throwin after Walt Poe's fly to center.

Linscott Gains Unanimous Nod Over Perrault

Pontiac Middleweight Scores 5th Straight Comeback Success

Pontiac's Gene Linscott marked up the 5th straight victory of his current middleweight campaign Tuesday night at Motor City Arena with a fairly close, but unanimous decision over Jimmy Perrault of Duluth, Minn.

Linscott, who weighed 154¼ for the 6-rounder, had trouble with Perrault, an experienced and crafty boxer, but he kept the Minnesotan on the defensive with a steady body attack to accumulate the winning points.

Referee Lou Handler had the bout very close, giving the Pontiac boxer the edge, 56-55. Linscott gained more solid support from Judges Joe Greenberg (58-50) and Bill Appleton (58-52).

* * *

A full house of 1,141 fans, including many Linscott supporters from Pontiac, sat in on the bouts at the Motor City Arean.

In the co-featured 6-rounder Detroit featherweight Dick Ramazetti stretched his winning streak to 14 bouts by gaining a split decision over Tommy Corrick of Toronto.

The Pontiac middleweight's overall pro record now stands at 13-1.

Gidley 9 Wins Season Debut

Backing Dick Shafto's 5-hit pitching with an 11-hit attack, Gidley Electric opened its Waterford Township Softball League season Tuesday night with a 13-4 victory over Sylvan Center at Township Park in Drayton Plains.

Shafto struck out 6 in his 5-hitter and didn't walk a man. Steve Ryeson, with 2 hits in 2 trips, paced the Gidley offensive. The Gidleymen tallied 7 runs in the 1st 2 innings and coasted home.

Searle Has 4-1 Record for Michigan Normal 9

Danny Searle, Michigan Normal southpaw pitcher from Pontiac, has worked 28 1/3 innings for the Hurons thus far this season and boasts a won-loss record of 4-1. Searle has struck out 21, while walking only 6.

Also on the Huron squad are Jerry Wedge of Birmingham, batting .390 with 7 hits in 18 trips, Jim Zickel of Royal Oak, regular center fielder, is hitting .250.

Qualifying Crash Injuries Are Fatal to Manuel Ayulo

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Manuel Ayulo's friends practiced grimly today for the qualification runs next weekend at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, reminded once again that death awaits on every turn at the big track.

The 33-year-old driver from Burbank, Calif., trying to make the starting lineup for the 500 - mile Memorial Day race for the sixth time, hit the wall on the southwest turn in a practice run Monday.

* * *

He died Tuesday, the 45th fatality since the Speedway opened in 1909. Funeral services will be held Thursday at the Conkle Funeral Home in Speedway City, with services and burial at Burbank Friday.

There was no official report on the cause of the wreck, but it appeared that the steering gear had failed. Witnesses said Ayulo seemed to be tugging at the steering wheel as he headed into the turn.

Technical officials of the American Automobile Assn. said examination of the wreckage showed a broken axle and a pin jarred from a steering arm. The car was demolished.

* * *

Ayulo had started a qualification attempt Sunday but had been called in by the car owner, Peter Schmidt of St. Louis, who apparently thought the speed was not sufficient to insure a place in the starting lineup May 30.

There was another scare at the Speedway Tuesday as a wheel collapsed on the Dayton S.W. Special while Elmer George was taking a driver's test. The car did not slide, however, and George stopped it without further damage.

Eight cars qualified last weekend, and 25 places in the May 30 lineup are still open.

Stars Slump, but Sox Stay Near AL Lead

Minoso, Trucks Failing, Rest of Team Taking Up Slack

NEW YORK (AP) — The Chicago White Sox were breathing hotly down the necks of the American League leading Cleveland Indians today but Manager Marty Marion was looking forward to better days ahead.

This confusing statement naturally needs explanation so Marion obliged.

* * *

"That's right," he grinned. "We're playing good, steady ball but our hitting hasn't been sensational and neither has our pitching. (The Sox got splendid pitching by Billy Pierce last night but made only seven singles off the Yanks' Whitey Ford, losing 1-0. A victory would have put Chicago into first place.

* * *

"We've been winning but do you realize we've done all with little help from Minnie Minoso, our best hitter, and Virgil Trucks, our best pitcher?

"Of course, we can't possibly hope to go on this way without help from those two fellows. If Minoso continues not to hit, we're hurt badly. If he starts to hit like we all know he can, he'll take the pressure off the other fellows. The same is true of Trucks. I look for both to get going soon and when they do we'll be a much better club."

Minoso, a .320 hitter last year with 116 runs batted in, currently is batting .269 with 16 RBI's and Trucks, a 19-game winner in 1954, has won two out of five decisions thus far.

Why is the club winning then, Marion was asked?

* * *

"We're winning because of the guys who didn't do too well last year," he said. "Fellows like Bob Nieman, Sherman Lollar, Dick Donovan and Mike Fornieles. They're all doing a wonderful job.

"I'm not surprised at the way Nieman is hitting. I had him in St. Louis and I always knew he could hit. All he needed was the opportunity to prove it. Donovan has won four games for us, three of them shutouts. I know he failed to make it in two previous tries in the big leagues but he may be one of those guys who takes a little longer to develop into a good pitcher."

Third Stringer Hurls No-Hitter for Berkley 9

Parker Keeps Bears in 1st Place With Blanking of Walled Lake

Larry Parker, a 3rd string pitcher at Berkley High School, came up Tuesday with the 2nd no-hitter in the Inter-Lakes Conference and the 3rd in the Oakland County area this spring.

Parker, a 6-foot, 155-pound junior right hander, has warmed the bench most of the season while Herb Duncan and Bob Blackwell pitched the Bears to 1st place in the Inter-Lakes.

A fine relief performance against Van Dyke earned Parker a starting job Tuesday at Walled Lake and he responded with his no-hitter. He struck out 9 and walked 4 and didn't permit a ball to be hit out of the infield.

Ray Filar of Southfield and Barney McIlvoy of South Lyon hold the only other 2 no-hitters in the area this season. Berkley gained only 3 hits, but benefited from errors for a 3-0 victory.

It kept the Bears in 1st place, one game ahead of Southfield. The Bluejays squashed Waterford's title hopes Tuesday with a 4-3 victory with Dave Juhnke in the starring role. He hit a 2-run homer in the 1st inning and drove home the winning run in the 5th with a single.

Birmingham marked up its 6th straight win and its 4th in league competition with a 4-2 decision over East Detroit. Larry Milford worked 4 2/3 innings to get the win, but got splendid relief from Dick Sheldon who fanned 6 of the 7 men he faced.

Bill Henderson of Rochester gained his 4th win against one loss as he hurled the Falcons to a 5-2 triumph over Avondale. He fanned 10 and walked 3 as he gave the 'Jackets 3 hits. Rochester tallied 4 runs in the 2nd inning en route to its 6th win in 7 games.

Wolverines Rout U-D, 9-0; Use 5 Pitchers

DETROIT (AP) — University of Michigan baseball team rolled to a 9-0 shutout of the University of Detroit yesterday behind the three-hit pitching of five Wolverine hurlers.

Ten Michigan hits and five errors by the Titans accounted for the scoring. Mob Benedict slammed a triple and a single in three at bats to pace the Wolverine attack.

Strives to Improve

Wrists, Timing Keys to Kaline's Success

BALTIMORE (AP) — Al Kaline, a 20-year-old perfectionist, has taken about the shortest possible route to make his amazing jump to a top spot in the baseball world.

Just five years ago Al was a skinny 135-pound utility player at Southern High School here. His future on the squad was uncertain.

Today he is a major league standout with the Detroit Tigers. His future points to stardom and possible greatness.

But in some ways Al hasn't changed. He's still quiet and serious, somewhat shy. He's still a team player who's continually trying to improve.

* * *

Except for added weight, Kaline's physical assets also have remained unchanged. He still has lightning speed, a strong throwing arm and a powerful wrist motion that has made him a leading hitter.

Al tried out for the high school team when only a freshman. Coach Bill Anderson used him as a pitcher, infielder and outfielder and was considering demoting Al to the junior varsity when a regular outfielder suffered an injury.

Given his first starting chance, Kaline won the game with a home run. He played in every game after that and for four years he was selected on the All-Maryland high school team.

"He wasn't imposing in size," Anderson reflects today, "but his wrists and timing at the bat made him outstanding."

Al has added about 20 pounds to his still slender frame since last year and now weighs about 175.

He is currently hitting .378 and is among the leaders in home runs (7), triples (4), hits (45), runs batted in (25), runs (25) and stolen bases (4). He has hit safely in 29 of Detroit's 31 games.

Hardly mediocrity. But if it can be improved on, Al will find a way.

Eaglets Track Squad Buries Oak Park Crew

Orchard Lake St. Mary overwhelmed Oak Park in track Tuesday at Orchard Lake, 93-16. The meet was originally scheduled as a triangular, but Detroit Austin failed to put in an appearance.

Eaglets were victorious in every event but the medley relay, losing that on a disqualification when the baton was passed too soon. There were two double winners, Ed Gabriel taking the 100 and 220-yard dashes and Chet Wajda in the broad jump and pole vault.

No seniors participated in the meet. Activity was carried on largely by freshmen and sophomores, plus a few juniors.

Summerall Signs for '55

CHICAGO (AP)—Pat George Summerall, conversion specialist and defensive end, today signed for his third season with the Chicago Cardinals of the National Football League. Last year, Summerall booted 21 extra points and 8 field goals, including a 50-yarder against the New York Giants.

Texas Sprinter Seeks 5th Win

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Dean Smith, the man who runs with a zip for Texas, goes to the Coliseum Relays in Los Angeles Friday night to sprint 100 yards for the fifth straight time.

He has had much success at it and of course, would like to win it again as a stepping stone to the national title. But he would prefer a triumph for Texas in the 44-yard relay.

The Texas sprint relay team, of which Smith is an important member, has met nothing but disappointment in the Coliseum Relays although holding a tie for the world's record of 40.5.

Kuenn Takes Over AL's Batting Lead

BALTIMORE (AP)—Detroit's Harvey Kuenn held the American League batting lead today following a spurt that netted him 10 hits in his last 14 at bats.

Kuenn collected three hits in four trips last night against the Orioles and raised his average to .398. He is five points in front of runnerup Vic Power of Kansas City.

Ex-Spartan Scholes in AAU Title Tourney

EAST LANSING (AP) — Clarke Scholes of Detroit, former MSC free styler now in the army, will be entered in the AAU swimming and diving championships at Los Angeles in July. Scholes set an Olympic mark in 1952 with his time of :57.1 in the 100 meter free style and also holds numerous NCAA and Big Ten championships in the 50 and 100 free styles.

John Dudeck, another Detroiter, and holder of the 1953 and 1954 100-yard breaststroke titles, is a second probable entry from MSC.

Top Jockeys Do Well in Races at Detroit

DETROIT—Top jockeys at the Detroit Race Course win from 17 to 22 percent of the races they enter. Bobby Baird, the 1954 champion, ranked third in the nation last year with a winning percentage of .22 He was 1st, 2nd or 3rd 55 percent of the time here in 1954.

No-Hitter Marks Action in City Softball League

A five-inning no-hitter by Drive-In Cleaners' pitcher, Robert Harris, and a two-hit shutout by H. Dennis of GMC highlighted Tuesday's 2nd night activity in the men's city softball league.

Drive-In team buried Pontiac & Opdyke, 15-0, in an abbreviated 5½ inning opener at Northside, as Harris mowed down the opposition. He walked three, struck out three, and had three errors made behind him, but he was not nicked for a single safety. Loper hit a home run for the winners.

Defending champion GMC bounced back into the win column with a 5-0 victory over Bicmar, behind the nifty two-hit hurling of H. Dennis. Dennis struck out 14 and walked only two while giving up singles in the 2nd and 4th innings.

Another neat pitching chore was turned in by Atwood of Riteway Cleaners as his team defeated Ashland Flying Octane, 3-1. Atwood allowed only two hits, but a hit batsman and a lusty triple by MacIntosh in the 6th spoiled his bid for a whitewash.

Elks came from behind, scoring four runs in the 7th frame, to down the K. C. team, 7-5. The latter held a 5-2 advantage entering the last inning.

Stump's 2 Victories Hazel Park Feature

DETROIT (UP) — Mel Stump aced last night's racing card at Hazel Park Harness Raceway with a pair of victories as 5,004 fans turned out to bet $270,546.

Stump won the 4th race behind V. E. Lambert and the 8th race with Rammona Grace up front.

Chief's Star won the featured A pace, edging out Libby's Boy for his 5th victory of the season.

Athletic Banquet Is Set at Lake Orion

The Lake Orion Lions Club will sponsor an all-sports banquet for Lake Orion High School athletes Tuesday, May 24, at 6:30 p. m. at the Blanche Sims Elementary School.

Proceeds from the affair will be used to purchase athletic equipment for the high school. Co-chairmen for the event are John Laucks and Mike LaMagna. Principal guests are Sherwin (Sonny) Gandee, defensive end of the Detroit Lions, and Gene Linscott, Pontiac middleweight boxer. Harvey Lodge will be the toastmaster.

Duckett Joins Pros

REGINA, Sask., (UP) — Ellis Duckett, a defensive halfback from Michigan State, has signed a contract with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Western Interprovincial Football Union, Frank Tripucka, WIFU all-star quarterback with the Roughriders last year, also has signed to bring to 16 the number of imports on hand.

35-Year-Old Steeplechase Jockey Tom Molony Comes to U.S. From Ireland for Big Race Saturday

NEW YORK (AP)—Ruddy-cheeked Tim Molony from County Limerick was back in the United States again today with high hopes about doing better than finishing second in steeplechase races at Belmont Park.

Not exactly a wee broth of a lad any more, the 35-year-old Irishman rides the English horse Chatham in the $20,000-added International Steeplechase Handicap Saturday.

* * *

Molony, top British steeplechase jockey for the last four seasons, hopped off his plane from London and headed straight for Belmont Park where in 1950 he rode the American horse Oedipus to second place in both the U. S. Grand National and the Temple Gwathmey 'Chase.

"I've got to catch up to my brother, Martin," he said with a broad grin. "At least Martin won a race here—he beat me."

Martin Molony came over in 1950 and won the Temple Gwathmey with Tourist List. He's quit riding now.

Tim Molony has ridden Chatham a 7-year-old chesnut gelding, since the horse was a 3-year-old and he has great respect for his chances in Saturday's race against an International field of about 10 horses from six countries.

"I won the Victory Steeplechase at Manchester with this horse in January, and if he jumps fast here he has a very good chance. That will be his handicap in comparison to the American horses."

American horses are trained to swish through the upper part of the hedges—there will be 16 barriers in the 2½ mile event Saturday. In the races overseas, Tim explained, if a horse's feet struck the top of the hard birch hedges they'd go down.

"I think Chatham is better than Beechpark, the Irish horse, but I've no way to compare him with the French horse Projectile, or the Italian, Machiavel."

Molony has ridden in the famous Grand National at Aintree, England, every year since 1947, but "it's been no good." He came closest, a sixth place with Bricett in 1949.

Top AL Clubs Eye Senators' Better Players

WASHINGTON (AP) — The front-running clubs in the American League reportedly are after some of the better talent playing for the seventh-place Washington Senators. The Nats' management apparently is in a mood to consider any good offers.

The Senators' woeful early season showing has sent Washington officials hunting desperately for a first class shortstop and a solid hitting outfielder.

Calvin Griffith, Washington's executive vice president, said Tuesday the New York Yankees have indicated interest in two of the Senators' better pitchers, probably Bob Porterfield and Mickey McDermott.

Furthermore, the Cleveland Indians—now leading the league—are known to be in the market for Washington first baseman Mickey Vernon, currently hitting around .312. The Chicago White Sox, in second place a half game ahead of New York, are said to be high on Nat outfielder Roy Sievers.

And the Boston Red Sox, currently in fifth place, reportedly want Washington third baseman Eddie Yost.

In New York, an informant said the Indians had offered four players for Vernon—outfielders Dave Philley and Wally Westlake, first baseman Joe Altobelli and third baseman Rudy Regalado. Griffith confirmed that Hank Greenberg, Cleveland's general manager, had come up with an offer "pretty much along those lines." Griffith said the Senators definitely are interested in Altobelli and Regalado, both now with Cleveland's Indianapolis farm team in the American Assn.

* * *

The Senators' vice president said the Yanks have been seeking some of Washington's pitchers, but he would not identify them. Although Griffith said the Senators would not part with both Porterfield and McDermott, he indicated offers for either one would be studied. If the Senators should send one of their pitchers to New York, they probably would ask for Elston Howard, the Yankees' Negro catcher, in return.

* * *

The White Sox reportedly have offered to trade outfielder Johnny Groth for Sievers, but apparetly no definite decision has been made on this score.

Griffith said it was not true—as reported in New York—that the Red Sox had offered third baseman Grady Hatton, outfielders Karl Olson and Gene Stephens and an unnamed young pitcher for Yost.

DRIVING FINISH — Here's Bill Douglas, PHS ace half miler, in a real driving finish. Bill had to go all out, at Ypsilanti, because just behind him was converted 440-man Norris Jackson. Bill hit a fine 2:03.8 and says he's going to clip that time materially in the big state meet Saturday, at East Lansing. He might, too, with some promised hot competition.

Defending ABC Kings Defeated

Red Elkins Is Victim Opening Day; Other 3 Last One More Day

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP) — The fifth American Bowling Congress Masters Tournament reached the semifinal stage today with all of the four previous winners on the sidelines.

Red Elkins, the 1954 winner at Seattle, was eliminated as the tournament opened Monday and the other three were ousted Tuesday as the 64-man starting field was cut to 12.

Willard Taylor of South Chalesston, W. Va., the 1952 winner, was the last to bow out. Taylor was eliminated by Tony Lindeman of Detroit on Tuesday night's final shift.

Bill Murray, football coach at Duke, is chairman of the NCAA Coaches' Assn. committee on ethics.

State Tourney Cash Provides Record 'Split'

LANSING (UP) — Participating schools in the 1955 high school basketball tournament will receive a record share of $45,000 of the tournament profits, state athletic association officials announced today.

Charles E. Forsythe, director of interscholastic athletics, said the previous high payment to participating schools was $38,316 in 1954.

Forsythe said $71,500 of the tournament's surplus will go to the association for its operating budget for the coming year and another $7,500 to the insurance benefit plan which covers high school athletes.

Total tournament surplus was $124,000 this year.

Net Test Postponed

Tuesday's scheduled SVC tennis matches at Bay City between the Pontiac Chiefs and Bay City Central have been postponed until Thursday. Delay was by mutual agreement.

Berkley, Van Dyke Report Shifts in Coaching Staffs

Two coaching changes have been announced at Inter-Lakes Conference schools.

In a surprise move at Berkley High, both head football and basketball coaches, Lloyd Houden and Jim Beadle, respectively, were relieved of their duties, while head football coach Max Evans of Van Dyke Lincoln, resigned.

Evans, who has handled Van Dyke gridders for 3 years, will be succeeded by Charles Saxton, his assistant last season. Saxton previously was on the staff at Van Dyke Fitzgerald High.

There were no specific reasons given for the firing of Houden and Beadle at Berkley. Both are expected to stay in the school system as teachers.

Replacements for both were announced. Howard (Red) Bailey, an assistant coach for 2 seasons, will take over the football reins, while Fred Holdsworth will become basketball mentor.

Holdsworth has been Berkley's baseball coach for 6 years. Houden also acted as athletic director, but this post, has not been filled. Houden succeeded Robert (Pop) Lewis 2 years ago after he retired after 25 years of coaching.

MSC Relay Quartet in Coliseum Races

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State's 880-yard relay team will be entered in the Colesium Relays at Los Angeles Friday night.

The team of Edgar Brabham, Julius McCoy, Kevan Gosper and Ron Suess won the 880 at the Big Ten meet with a time of 1:26.7. The combination has been as low as 1:25.4 this year.

Spartan runners will go against Houston, Southern California and possibly another school. There is an outside chance the race could result in better than the 1:24.0 record for the distance.

Major League Pitchers Heading for Banner Season

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

From the looks of the past seven days, this may turn out to be a pitcher's year in the major leagues —their first since 1951.

It's been four years since the pitchers got together and confronted the hitters with as many as 13 guys who won 20 or more. Since then the hurlers with the whammy have fallen off to six in '52, eight in '53 and six again last season.

Right now, 17 pitchers have won four or more (a year ago there were 13) and they've had help from the rest to give the majors a total of 39 shutouts to date. In each of the past three seasons there were only 35 scoreless performances on record at this stage.

Thirty-two pitchrs have figured in the whitewashings, and 13 shutouts have come in the past week —including Don Newcombe's one-hitter at Chicago and Sad Sam Jones' no-hitter against Pittsburgh.

There were three shutouts last night. Rookie Lary Jackson put the collar on National League-leading Brooklyn at St. Louis in a 3-0 Cardinal victory. In the American League, Alex Kellner gave the Kansas City Athletics a 1-0 triumph for the New York Yankees against the Chicago White Sox.

* * *

Only two other National League games were played. Milwaukee took over second place, eight games behind the Brooks, by beating New York's Giants 9-4. Cincinnati made it six straight defeats for Pittsburgh 9-2. Cold weather shelved Philadelphia's game at Chicago.

In the American, Boston knocked off Cleveland 10-3 and Baltimore beat Detroit 3-2.

* * *

Home runs by Red Schoendienst and Ken Boyer gave it to the Cards, who got nine hits off Carl Erskine, losing his first in six decisions, and Jim Hughes.

At New York, Ford dueled with Billy Pierce for seven innings before claiming his third shutout of the season and fifth victory. Pierce blew it in the sixth when he walked Mickey Mantle and Yogi Berra. After a double steal attempt that moved Mantle to third but nipped Yogi at second, Pierce walked Elston Howard. Then Eddie Robinson's infield grounder brought the run home without a hit.

Kansas City managed just six hits off Maury McDermott, but got home in front on the Washington lefty's lone walk, a sacrifice and a single by Kellner in the fifth.

At Milwaukee, the Giants' Don Mueller saw his 24-game hitting streak stopped, settling for a tie for the club's record.

* * *

Cleveland, missing the injured Al Rosen, Bobby Avila and Georgie Strickland, finally was dumped at Fenway Park after taking 11 straight at the Red Sox handout. Early Wynn lost it, his first setback of the season, when Jackie Jensen and Eddie Joost homered for four runs in the fifth. Bill Henry won his first with help from Ellis Kinder.

Annual Sports Affair Pays Honor to St. Fred Athletes

Athletes and cheer leaders of St. Federick's school were honored Tuesday night at the school's annual "all sports" athletic banquet in the parish gym.

Letters were awarded to boys in football, basketball and baseball, while girls received letters for basketball and cheer-leading. Graduating seniors, both boys and girls, were presented with trophies. Rev. Maurice Veryser, athletic director, made the awards.

Guest speakers included Dorne Dibble, star end for the Detroit Lions; Wally Fromhart, head football coach at the University of Detroit; and John Panelli, former Notre Dame fullback. Ray Null, U-D athletic director, was unable to attend.

Joseph Wright, alumnus of St. Fred who played football at St. Mary's pre-flight school during the war and later for the U-D Titans, was toastmaster.

A short talk was given by Gene Wright, another St. Fred alumnus who will be the Rams' new head coach next year. Gene, the toastmaster's brother, is now mentor at Hesperia. Al Serra, current coach, also spoke briefly, as did Joan Mazza, departing girls instructor.

Motion pictures showing highlights of the Detroit Lions' 1954 football season concluded the activities.

This year's banquet was sponsored by the "Mothers and Dads" club, newly-formed organization designed to promote athletics at St. Frederick. Tom Tracy is president.

Coast Paper Reports Stydahar to Be Fired

PORTLAND, Ore. (INS) — The Oregonian said today that Joe Stydahar will be dropped within a week as head coach of the Chicago Cardinals professional football team.

The newspaper also said that his old rival, Hampton Pool, may be chosen to succeed him.

72 Entries Set for Kingswood

Birmingham, Rochester Girls Listed for Action in Net Event

Seventy-two girls, including five from the Oakland County area, are entered in the Michigan State Girls' Open tennis championships, for 18-year-olds and under, at Kingswood School, Cranbrook, in Bloomfield Hills.

Eliminations start today and wind up with championship finals on Sunday afternoon.

Area entrants are Sharon Gray and Jane Collister, of Birmingham, and Nancy Butson, Katherine Sherby and Susan Webb, from Rochester. The host school lists 27 in the tournament.

There are eight seeded performers slated for action, three of them involved in the tourney for 15-year-olds concluded last Sunday. Phyllis Saganski, last week's champion, and Darnella Everson and Virginia Hesse will compete again. All three are from Hamtramck.

Two other "seeds" also call Hamtramck home—Joyce Pniewski and Gwen McEvans. The other ranking players, top-seeded Carolyn Wikoff, Lynn Lawson and Judy Hagan, live in Middletown, Ohio.

Throat Trouble Sends Steve Gromek Home

BALTIMORE (UP) — Veteran Steve Gromek, who was scheduled to start for the Detroit Tigers against the Baltimore Orioles today, was on his way back to Detroit instead.

Tiger manager Bucky Harris announced before last night's game with the Orioles that Gromek would return to Detroit because he was suffering from a slight throat infection.

Penn Body Resumes Probe of Johnson's Bout Today

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pennsylvania Athletic Commission resumes its probe of the Harold Johnson-Julio Mederos fight today, intent on proving that Johnson and his aides knew he was not in condition to meet the Cuban heavyweight.

The commission said in the opening of its hearings Monday that it would prove Johnson, the No. 1 light heavyweight contender, Matchmaker Pete Moran, and Johnson's trainer and seconds were guilty of covering up a "sham, fake or collusive boxing match."

Johnson collapsed after the second round of the May 6, nationally televised fight and Mederos was awarded a TKO victory. Subsequent commission and police investigations disclosed that Johnson had been drugged prior to the bout.

As a result, Gov. George M. Leader suspended boxing for 90 days and ordered the present hearings.

The commission alleged Monday that Johnson, Moran and the others knew Johnson was unfit to enter the ring but failed to nofity proper authorities, thus permitting the "fake" boxing match.

There has been no public indication by police or the commission if any leads have been developed that could lead to the person responsible for the drugging.

Young Cardinal Hurlers Turning in Effective Jobs

Rookie Larry Jackson Blanks Brooklyn 3-0, Bums' 1st Shutout

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals young pitching staff, the pre-season question mark of the club, is making itself felt in a big way around the National League these days.

Rookie Larry Jackson, a 23-year-old righthander from Idaho, jumped on the bandwagon Tuesday night as he set down the Brooklyn Dodgers, 3-0, marking the first time the league-leading Bums had been whitewashed this season.

Jackson's effort was the latest leg in a string of brilliant Redbird pitching that has allowed the opposition only one run in the last four games, including three shutouts.

Jackson gave up 10 hits but had a tricky curve ball working for him in the pinches.

* * *

Brooks Lawrence turned in a four-hit shutout over Pittsburgh Saturday night. Gordon Jones followed with a three-hit and one-run job over the same club on Sunday and southpaw Luis Arroyo fashioned a six-hit whitewash over the Pirates Monday night.

Manager Eddie Stanky should be well pleased with the efforts of his mound corps, the key to any possible first place hopes. Stanky earlier had said the club would finish either first or sixth, depending on the work of his hurlers.

The victory over Brooklyn vaulted the Cards into a slim two-point percentage hold on third place in the National League chase, nine games behind the Dodgers. It also put them over the .500 mark with a 14-13 record.

* * *

Stanky's pitching has come while his ace, southpaw Harvey Haddix, has been in an early season slump. However Haddix, with a 1-5 record, turned in a creditable job although losing to the New York Giants 4-3 in 10 innings in his last outing.

Unbeaten Maple Track Team Gains 6th Win

Birmingham High's undefeated track team turned the heavy work over to 2nd-line performers Tuesday, but still had ample power to squash East Detroit, 82-27. It was the 6th straight dual success for the Maples, in addition to the regional victory last weekend.

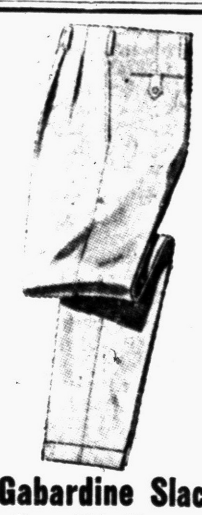

Birmingham took 10 of 13 1sts and uncovered a fine freshman shot putter in Chuck Gibson, who won the event with a toss of 45 feet, 2 inches.

Pep, Cadilli Meet in 'Grudge' Battle

DETROIT (UP)—Willie Pep, the former featherweight champion, ruled a slight favorite over Gil Cadilli for their 10-round "grudge" rematch tonight at Olympia which will be televised nationally.

The 32-year-old Pep dropped a disputed decision to Cadilli at Parks Air Force Base, Calif., two months ago. He's anxious for revenge because "I figure I won that 1st fight."

Cadilli is hopeful a repeat victory over Pep will catapult him into the featherweight title picture. He's managed by Sid Flaherty who already has one champion—middleweight king Carl (Bobo) Olson—in his fold.

BOXING COACH — John Brotzmann, veteran member of the Michigan State physical education and coaching staffs, has been nominated by Athletic Director Biggie Munn to succeed George Makris as Spartan boxing coach. Makris has resigned to become athletic director and head football coach at Bolling Field Air Force Base, Washington, D. C. effective July 1.

Boy Scout's Gesture Hits Responsive Note

LANSING—A gentlemanly gesture of a type seldom seen recently cheered the Conservation Department maintenance force at Sleeper state park in the "Thumb" area of Michigan.

Too often, the crew must spend its time repairing equipment and facilities smashed by vandals.

But the opposite touch occurred when Jim Candler, Grosse Pointe boy scout, borrowed $4 from his father and tried to pay for one pane of glass he broke in one of the park buildings.

The accident occurred when Jim's Scout troop spent a weekend at the park.

Horses Won't Accept Monkey as Companion

DETROIT—For the 1st time in its history, the Detroit Race Course has a monkey on the grounds. Horses enjoy pets around the barn, and trainer George White arrived for the 1955 season with a one-year-old female monkey given him by a friend in South America. But it's been a problem getting the horses to accept her as a friend. Goats, dogs and birds are common stable pets.

First night game in the major leagues was played at Cincinnati's Crosley Field on May 24, 1935. Redlegs defeated the Phils 2-1 before 20,422 fans.

House Rejects Bid for Control of Deer Herd

Turn Down Move to Keep Power in Hands of Conservationists

LANSING (AP)—The house conservation committee has smashed a new attempt to extend the conservation commission's control over Michigan's deer herd.

The committee yesterday turned down by an 8-4 vote a move to reconsider a bill extending the authority for two years. The bill was tabled last week.

The legislature three years ago authorized the commission to set special "any deer" seasons during which hunters could kill does, bucks or fawns.

The commission's management of the seasons has caused heated controversy among sportsmen, some of whom claim the "any deer" seasons resulted in a wholesale slaughter of deer last season.

The commission contends the "any-deer seasons keep the herd down to the available supply of food.

Following yesterday's action, committee members said they saw no chance of extending the commission's authority, due to expire this year.

Bigger Trout, Less Cost Is State Aim

LANSING (UP) — More fishing enjoyment at lower cost may be the result of fingerling brook trout planting tests now under way in the Upper Peninsula, the state conservation department reports.

The department says preliminary tests on Moccasion, Swanzy and Airport lakes in Marquette county indicate that fingerling brooks released in the fall cost less to plant and return four to six times as much poundage to the angler as the bigger fish now being planted in lakes and streams.

Skipper Golfers Win

Waterford High School's golfers turned in good overall scoring Tuesday at Palmer Park Municipal course in Detroit to hand Hamtramck a 162-191 defeat. Jack Reynolds shot a 38 to lead the Skippers, but Cleland Charboneau and Tom Furtney each came in with 41 and Roger Asbury had 42.

Angling Scribe Finds Hurry Often Loses the Big Ones

By JACK PATTERSON

Happened to be up in the trout country Tuesday on other than fishing business but managed to conclude the extraneous affairs in time to try out a new fly line purloined from Shakespeare's Ben Hardesty. Had a chance to marvel once again at the weird and wonderful variety of Michigan's spring weather — from sweltering to mighty chilly in 15 miles and as many minutes. Of more interest to the trout fisherman was opportunity to test the fishing under what should have been very poor circumstances; sudden chilling of the air and a brisk to strong northeast wind.

PATTERSON

Stepped into the Au Sable's North Branch at Lynn Allen's camp and noted with considerable surprise that despite the weather there was quite a bit of surface feeding in evidence.

Sporadic hatches of the small gray fly common to the North Branch all season aroused the interest of the fish but they were extremely selective and we had to go down to a size 18 Adams to get results.

Lots of small fish around. Two very nice browns were lost. The 1st was lost to woolgathering while dawdling a red marabou streamer in the tail of a pool. The 2nd, and greater of the fish was lost because of an apparent inability to recognize the truth of the old "saw" that 'haste makes waste."

* * *

A very good fish rose under an overhanging alder. Debated risking a streamer and then decided against it because of the tangle of roots below the surface. Because of the current pattern and wind it seemed unlikely that we could get a satisfactory float over the spot with a dry fly cast from the stream.

It looked like a perfect set-up for the ancient and effective — though sneaky — gimmick of "dapping" in which the fisherman lets his fly dangle over the bank at the mercy of the wind which will cause the fly to touch the water, take off and retouch in much the manner of an egg-laying female.

So we moved below the pool, crossed the stream and made an elaborate stalk to a point just upwind of the fish. Everything worked according to plan. The fly soared about a few inches off the water, dipped and as it touched the fish rose and took it with a solid chug.

* * *

It was then that we reaped the fruits of our folly In the hurry to get set up before anything came along to louse up the picture a new leader was tied on with a simple half-hitch, which is a good enough way to do it if care is taken not to leave too much tag end. We didn't exercise that care.

* * *

In order to get the proper length of line for the purpose the butt of the leader was reeled into the top guide. When the fish hit, the overlong tag of the line to leader knot hung up in the guide just long enough to break off the fish. It was a nice one—in the two and a half to three pound class, definitely not the kind the dry fly operator hangs every day. Some day we hope we'll learn.

FOR BETTER FISHING — Two federal Geological Survey workers here "gauge" a northern Michigan trout stream in preparation for planned improvement work. "Gauging" provides basic information about the speed of flow of streams, location of springs and other necessary data. It's all put to work in the state's expanding watershed improvement program.

Spartan Coach Optimistic Over Big 10 Cage Future

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State basketball coach Forddy Anderson is "cautiously optomistic" about the Spartan Big Ten chances next season.

"Underline the caution part though," he urged.

Michigan State, which placed 4th in conference standings last season, wound up spring practice this week.

For next year, Anderson will have a solid core of regulars and some promising newcomers.

"We'll have at least two men competing at every spot and a little depth," Anderson said. "Also we'll have some height for a change, something we've lacked, especially at guard."

Several of the regulars were busy competing in other spring sports and had to miss the 10-day practice.

Those on hand were Duane Peterson, the 6-6½ center from Elkhart, Ind., Harry Lux, 5-10 guard from Chicago, and Duane Olson, 6-5 forward from Detroit.

Occupied at other sports were guard Pat Wilson, 6-0, from Lapeer; forward Julius McCoy, 6-2, Farrell, Pa., running with the track team; guard Walt Godfrey, 6-1, Detroit, pitching baseball, and guard Jim Raymond, 5-11, Lansing, playing golf.

Just by assembling his returnees, Anderson could have a pretty solid starting five this winter.

Work Project in Barn Area Near Completion

DETROIT — Workmen are just completing a $200,000 improvement program conducted solely in the barn area of the Detroit Race Course. This includes new tackrooms, conduit wiring, foundations, fire walls, paving and seeding — necessary work that the general public doesn't see.

Detroit Tigers will play an exhibition game with the Cincinnati Redlegs on Aug. 15 at Flint, Mich., as part of a centennial celebration.

Michigan Offers Many Fine Vacation Places

By MORT NEFF

With the summer months almost upon us several million native sons and daughters of the fair state of Michigan begin to look around for a good vacation spot — and a very large percentage will be smart enough to know that they'll find just what they're looking for somewhere in their own "Water Wonderland."

NEFF

To help make the choice of a good vacation site for you and your family the Michigan Tourist Council and its affiliated branches stand ready and willing.

Their vacation guide service is excellent and thorough. Southeastern Michigan, West Michigan, East Michigan and the Upper Peninsula all have separate bureaus dedicated to the job of helping you decide just where you can have the most fun this summer.

* * *

For example, let's say you've heard a lot about Michigan's sand dune country along the vast shoreline of Lake Michigan. You'd like to get the story first hand this summer, and you need resort-information, a few tips on good dining facilities, and a useable map of the area. Maybe you'd also like to camp out along the way—so information of camp sites and state parks would prove helpful. How can you get it? Just write West Michigan Tourist and Resort Association, Rowe Hotel Building, Grand Rapids. Ask for the 1955 guide to West Michigan —and a beautifully edited booklet will be mailed promptly—a book that will serve you far beyond expectations.

* * *

If the Eastern shoreline or the wilderness lake country in that portion of Michigan interests you another book is ready for mailing to you, from East Michigan Tourist Association, Log Office, Bay City,

Michigan Lightning Regatta at S. Haven

SOUTH HAVEN (UP) — The Michigan Lightning class championship sailboat regatta will be held at the St. Joseph River Yacht Club July 15-17, the International Lightning class association announced today.

Other Lightning class regattas in Michigan this summer will be at St. Joseph Yacht Club June 18-19; Tawas Bay July 2-4; Higgins Lake July 30-31 and Crescent Sail Yacht Club July 3-4.

Lightning Class Association International regatta will be held at New Orleans, La., Sept. 1-3, the association, which has its international headquarters here, said.

Michigan Likes Races

DETROIT—Thoroughbred racing for 57 days at the Detroit Race Course last season resulted in $2,685,203 being paid the State of Michigan in pari-mutuel taxes.

CHAMPION HOOP ROLLER — "I just had to win," said Miss Anita Racioppi, 21, of Bridgeport, Conn., after winning traditional Wellesley College Hoop Rolling Contest against 200 other seniors in Wellesley, Mass. Anita felt she had to come in first because she is president of the student athletic association. Traditionally the winner is supposed to be the 1st of her class to wed but Miss Racioppi said "I'm not even engaged."

Outboard Regatta Set for Weekend

First of the season's outboard regattas on Oakland County waters is set for Sunday afternoon at White Lake. Nor-West Boat Club of Detroit will hold a 6-race event, starting at 1 p.m. at the White Lake Inn, headquarters for the meet. Arla Becker, inn owner says.

All drivers must be APBA registered. Each race will be a 2-heat affair of five laps over a mile course. There will be 18 trophies for winners.

Management of the Buffalo Bisons in the International League insured its 23 man squad for $1,200,000 before the club traveled by plane to Havana for its opening series there.

Grandma Doss Pleads Guilty

Admits Giving Poison to 5th Husband; Faces Life Sentence

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—After pleading guilty yesterday to poisoning husband No. 5, Grandma Nannie Doss admonished her daughter not to worry because "I'm not worried."

The surprise plea, entered in District Court after the confessed poisoner of four husbands was visited by the daughter, reversed her earlier plea of innocent.

* * *

The daughter, Mrs. Melvina Hedrick, born of Mrs. Doss' first marriage to Charley Bragg, told a newsman her visit from Lexington, N.C., had nothing to do with her mother's sudden decision to tell the court she was guilty of killing Samuel Doss, 59, with rat poison.

Mrs. Doss, who had been scheduled for trial next month for Doss' death last Oct. 10, faces either life in prison or death.

* * *

Judge Elmer Adams explained carefully to the 49-year-old widow the possible punishment he will decide on May 31. County Atty. J. Howard Edmondson said he would ask for death in the electric chair.

Public defenders Quinn Dickason and Gordon L. Patten advised their client to enter the plea in belief she would receive the life term and later be committed to a state mental hospital.

A sanity hearing jury this month took only 15 minutes to decide the cheerful widow was legally sane and could be tried.

Film Producer Sued for Child's Support

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A 32-year-old divorcee has a new suit on file against Arthur Freed, an Oscar-winning film producer, asking that he be compelled to support her child.

Twice before Mrs. Mary Norris filed suit against Freed, charging that he assaulted her. Neither came to trial. In the suit filed yesterday she asserted Freed is the father of her daughter Furnitta Joe, 4 months.

She asks $2,500 immediate support, $500 a month and $20,000 attorney's fees. One of her attorneys said that Mrs. Norris first met Freed when he interviewed her for a film bit role.

Freed's pictures include "An American in Paris," an Oscar winner for 1951.

The United States produced 87.2 tons of iron ore in 1954.

NEW MRS. AMERICA — Mrs. Ramona Deitemeyer, of Lincoln, Neb., wears the crown of Mrs. America of 1956. Mrs. Deitemeyer, who succeeds Wanda Jennings of St. Louis, was chosen from among six finalists at Ormond Beach, Fla. Finalists were picked from 49 contestants.

Ad Man Chosen by Philly GOP

Longstreth Wins Over 3 Others for Mayoralty Nomination

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—W. Thacher Longstreth, a 34-year-old advertising executive, won the four-sided Republican mayoralty nomination battle in Philadelphia yesterday in Pennsylvania's relatively quiet primary election.

The 6-foot-6, bespectacled former naval intelligence officer will run in November against veteran campaigner Richardson Dilworth, the Democratic nominee. This is Longstreth's first try for public office.

Dilworth, an unsuccessful gubernatorial candidate five years ago and former district attorney, had an easy time defeating William A. Paschall, wholesale meat dealer who ran with no visible means of political support. Democratic incumbent Joseph S. Clark Jr., a potential senatorial candidate next year, declined to run again.

* * *

The voting was the first step in the buildup for the 1956 presidential campaign. Observers noted with interest the indorsement by GOP National Chairman Leonard Hall of Longstreth as the first step in GOP efforts to return Philadelphia and Pennsylvania to the party fold after the Democratic sweep of state offices last November.

The balloting gave no indication of a trend of approval or opposition to the first four months of Democratic Gov. George M. Leader's state administration.

Church Group Plans $14 Million Building

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Council of Churches' design for its new headquarters here is a 14-million-dollar, 17-story edifice, sufficient to accommodate at least 3,000 staff workers and housing a number of facilities.

Construction plans were announced yesterday by Edmund F. Wagner, president of the church center's Board of Trustees.

* * *

The council's offices are now in rented space in eight buildings in downtown Manhattan.

The new headquarters is planned for a block-long site on Riverside Drive, between 119th and 120th streets, overlooking the Hudson River and near Columbia University.

John D. Rockefeller Jr. has donated the site and has offered to pay for a modified Gothic limestone exterior for the united church center.

In addition to being headquarters of the council, the building will house offices of a number of the 30 Protestant and Orthodox denominations—with 35½ milion members — which the council represents.

Rhode Island is only 1/200th as big as Texas, but has 400 miles of coastline.

It's Cpl. Schine Now

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—It's Cpl. G. David Schine now. The former aide to Sen. Joseph McCarthy and heir to a hotel chain was promoted from private first class Monday along with 24 other members of the 71st Military Police Company at Ft. Richardson.

Chicken Going Up

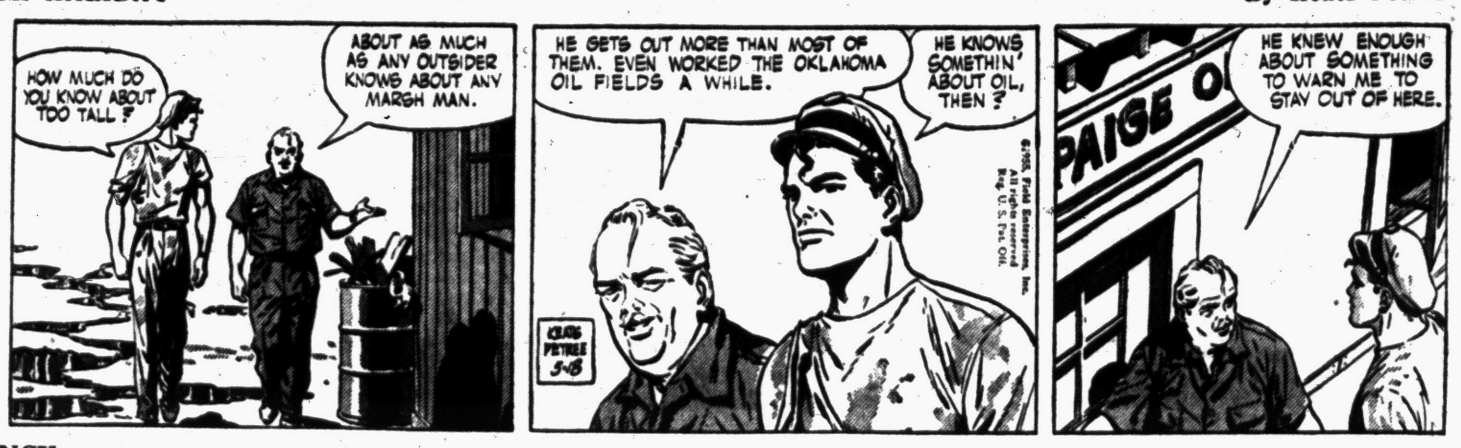

GONZALES, Tex. (AP) — Merle Ann Gloor, 15, a 4-H Club member, sold 12 dressed broilers yesterday for a total of $510 against a regular market price of about $10.45. A local hatchery purchased her grand champions at the Broiler Festival auction.

Grains Easing in Quiet Trade

CHICAGO (AP) — Most grains eased a little in quiet dealings on the Board of Trade today.

Easiness showed up first in soybeans. Then wheat turned downward. Feed grains held up fairly well, although they weren't able to make any forward progress. Dealings proceeded at a slow pace in all pits.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was unchanged to ¾ lower, May $2.19½; corn ⅛ lower to ¼ higher, May $1.44; oats unchanged to ¼ lower, May 73¾; rye unchanged to ½ lower, May $1.01½; soybeans ½ to 1¼ lower; May $2.52¾; and lard 10 cents lower to 2 cents a hundred pounds higher, May $12.15.

Proxies to Decide Fate of Reo Holding

LANSING (AP)—Proxy counters will report Friday morning on the fight to gain control of Reo Holding Corp., formed to liquidate Reo Motors, Inc., of Lansing.

The struggle is between directors of Reo Holding, who promised to liquidate assets by Dec. 15, and Telautograph, Inc., of New York, which seeks to continue the corporation for the purpose of carrying on nuclear research.

Telautograph claimed at a meeting of stockholders Tuesday to have control of 323,000 of the 547,000 shares of Reo Holding stock.

CHALLENGE CLAIM

Reo Holding officials challenged the claim and the proxy count was agreed upon. Percy Willette of New York City, representing Telautograph, and Donald R. Flintermann of Detroit, representing Reo Holding, were named to check on the proxy votes.

Reo Holding was formed to distribute $16,500,000 paid by Bohn Aluminum and Brass Corp. for the truck firm. One liquidation payment of $20 per share has been made and another was planned before Dec. 15.

Aircrafts Make Strong Showing

NEW YORK (AP) — Aircrafts made a strong showing today in generally higher stock market.

Early dealings brought out gains running to between 1 and 3 points. Losses were fractional.

Aircrafts have been shoved higher and lower with some violence in recent markets, and today they were higher.

General Dynamics, which has lost a total of 2⅞ as the most active stock of the past two days, was up between 2 and 3 points today. The stock opened on 2,500 shares up 1⅝ at 56¼.

There were a few other notable blocks including Chrysler 1,200 up ⅞ at 75, Mack Trucks 1,000 up ⅜ at 25⅝, and Boeing 1,500 up 1⅛ at 56⅛.

Higher with the aircrafts were the steels, motors, chemicals and railroads. Other divisions were steady or mixed.

Stocks advancing included Bethlehem Steel, Goodrich, Northrop, Boeing, Douglas, United Aircraft, RCA, Allied Chemical, Du Pont, General Electric, Brown & Bigelow, New York Central, and Texas Co.

Lower were Caterpillar Tractor, Zenith Radio, American Telephone, United Air Lines, Loew's, and Goodrich.

Ambulances on the Way Before 2 Trains Collide

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (UP) — Ambulances with sirens open sped toward the scene of a train crash yesterday, minutes before the accident happened.

Station misters at two stations about 50 miles from here realized they had sent two freight trains heading toward each other on the same track but were powerless to stop them.

So they called for ambulances and awaited the crash.

One man was hospitalized with minor head injuries but everyone else jumped clear before the head-on crash which telescoped several freight cars.

12-Year-Old Boy's Intelligence Too High to Be Scored

CLEVELAND (AP)—The parents of 12-year-old John Francis Schivell have a problem. Psychologists told them their son's level of intelligence is so high it can't be measured by standardized tests and most public schools are inadequate for his intellectual gifts.

A strapping 150-pounder who stands 5 feet 6, John is wrapped up in physics and mathematics and says he wants to become a "research scientist."

* * *

He is a freckle-faced bespectacled eighth-grader at suburban Maple Heights High School, where he gets straight A's.

Two years ago, during routine testing by Kent State University psychologists, testers said John "broke through the top of the Stanford-Binet intelligence test."

* * *

In tests by the department of psychology of Western Reserve University, John attained a perfect score in such areas as language development memory, ability to compare and contrast ideas and concepts and recognition of words, according to Dr. Corinne F. Baker, assistant clinical professor there.

* * *

The boy spends his spare time reading technical publications, studying foreign languages, and is currently absorbed in a biography of the late Albert Einstein.

Dr. Baker said:

"It is easily seen that John is out of place among boys of his own age. He has adult reading habits and is bored with school, because there is insufficient challenge."

Dr. Baker said John recorded the highest possible score of 190 in a series of IQ tests in which average children register in a range from 85 to 114.

* * *

John's father, a layout inspector in a factory, applied for a scholarship for the boy at a private academy, but says he cannot afford the $800 yearly cost for the boy's room, board and books.

Organist's Music 'Sends' Woman —Right to Court

CHICAGO (AP) — A 35-year-old woman told Circuit Judge Carnelius Harrington yesterday that she traveled 20 miles to attend church because Robert Metzler's organ music "sends me."

"I am not interested in Mr. Metzler," Miss Harriet Davis said. "I'm interested in his music. It sends me. There's something about it different from the music in any other church."

* * *

Metzler, 50, is organist in a church in suburban Glencoe. He formerly was organist at a Northwest Side church but he said he left that job to escape the attentions of Miss Davis and her mother, Belle, 55.

Last February after Metzler saw them at the Glencoe church, he obtained an injunction against them. At that time he said the two women had maneuvered their car to block off his car as he was leaving the church.

* * *

They were in court yesterday to have the injunction set aside. Judge Harrington refused and said: "If you attend this Glencoe church, I will interpret it as an attempt to annoy Mr. Metzler, and I will hold you in contempt of court."

Ford Considers Stand on GAW

Word That Firm Hasn't Taken Position on Issue Spurs CIO Bargaining

DETROIT (AP) — The Ford Motor Co. says it still hasn't taken any position on the guaranteed annual wage issue.

* * *

And, learning of this, the CIO United Auto Workers tried at another bargaining session today to convince Ford that it should grant the union's guaranteed wage demand.

Ford's position — or lack of one — was set forth yesterday in a company bulletin to top supervisory employes. The word soon spread to the downtown hotel room where Ford and the UAW are seeking to hammer out a new contract to replace the five-year pact which expires June 1.

The bulletin said Ford "has taken no position as yet on the guaranteed annual wage."

Contract talks between General Motors and the UAW were confined today to subcommittee sessions on skilled trades. Full-fledged negotiations resume tomorrow.

GM negotiators meanwhile met with representatives of the CIO International Union of Electrical Workers.

About 125 UAW delegates from Chrysler Corp. locals across the country will meet here Thursday and Friday to talk over union demands. The Chrysler-UAW contract runs to Aug. 31. Negotiations are expected to start July 1.

2 Schools Planning Kindergarten Days

Kindergarten registration and open house have been scheduled by the Waterford Village School and the North Branch School.

Hours of 9 to 11:45 a.m. and from 1-3:45 p.m. have been set for Friday's open house at the Waterford Village School.

Birth certificates must be presented establishing that the child will be five years old on or before Dec. 1, 1955.

In North Branch, children from the rural areas will be registered Thursday, and those from the village on Friday. Hours are 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. both days.

Parents have been requested to bring a list of the immunizations and diseases each child has had.

Youth, 14, Admits Killing Playmate on Sudden Urge

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Police said 14-year-old David Drew admitted bludgeoning and stabbing to death his 7-year-old playmate last night.

Officers quoted David as saying the beating of Stanley R. Frank Jr. began as an accident, but added:

"I get an urge just like that once in a while."

Stanley didn't come home for dinner so his parents began searching. They met David who first took them to another location—then to Stanley's body.

* * *

Inspector Bruce Cunningham said the boys squabbled as they built a fort in a ravine, two blocks from Stanley's home. David told Stanley to go home. Stanley refused. David tied his hands with a rope.

Cunningham quoted David:

"Stanley ran away. I called him to come back.

"He bent beneath a branch looking for something. I hit the branch with a hatchet to scare him.

"Just then he raised his head and was hit. He started screaming.

* * *

"I had my knife in my other hand. I stabbed him three or four times.

"I don't know what happened. I just got scared."

Doctors said death was apparently caused by a hatchet wound on the head. They said the knife wounds were superficial.

David was held for investigation.

Hit New Low Price in Wholesale Food

NEW YORK (AP)—Wholesale food prices as measured by the Dun & Bradstreet index this week touched a new low since April, 1953.

The index stood at $6.37 compared with $6.39 a week ago and $7.39 in the same week a year ago. On April 14, 1953, the figure was $6.35.

The index represents the total cost at wholesale of one pound each of 31 foods in general use.

Lower this week were flour, wheat, corn, beef, lard, coffee, tea and hogs. Higher were rye, barley, ham, sugar, cottonseed oil and steers.

Senators Toss Sailors' Hats Into Graft Probe

WASHINGTON (INS) — Senate graft probers dug today into charges that a man without a plant or a payroll got a government contract for nearly seven million sailor hats.

The investigators also heard the story of an alleged $1,000 "payoff" by a textile firm in return for contracts for a million garrison caps.

And a major general testified that he received "about a dozen letters" alleging "fraud and corruption" in award of military clothing jobs.

These were highlights of a Senate investigating subcommittee inquiry into "graft and corruption" in armed services uniform and equipment purchases.

The charge involving the sailor hats came from the subcommittee's former chairman, Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis). Sen. Karl Mundt (R-SD) produced a letter written by McCarthy last June 30 to Maj. Gen. R. P. Hollis.

May List Oakland in Frost Disaster

By UNITED PRESS

Oakland County is expected to be one of 64 counties in the lower Peninsula designated a disaster area as a result of frost damage to fruit crops eight days ago.

G. Elwood Bonine, state director of the Department of Agriculture's Farm Home Administration, said he is "seriously considering" recommending the entire Lower Peninsula with the exception of four counties be declared a disaster area.

Expected to be excluded from the list are Monroe, Lenawee, Wayne and Washtenaw counties.

Bonine said he'll "probably" make that recommendation to Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson in a week so emergency loans can be granted to fruit growers who suffered the heavy frost damage to their crops.

MORE SPACE FOR LESS MONEY

It's a well known fact that older houses provide more usable living space per dollar spent. This large 3 bedroom home is in excellent condition and offers all the advantages of the new ranch type home. All 6 rooms are on 1 floor, plus a full basement and attic to be expanded and a 1 car garage. About 25 years old. This home is F.H.A. approved for a $10,100 mortgage and is in an excellent location in Rochester. $2900 down will move you in if you act fast.

Bargain-Mad Women Lampooned by Comic

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—I don't want all the bargain-mad wives in America mad at me; so I'll play down Jack Carter's spoofing of their shopping habits in this review of his excellent new act at the Copacabana.

"Eighty per cent of the money is spent by women," Jack told us. "The other 20 per cent is spent by men—on women." He claimed one female tore home and panted to her belover, "Look at it! Only $87.50!"

★ ★ ★ ★

"What is it?" the old man asked.

"I don't know," she confessed breathlessly, "but isn't it wonderful! The salesman said it was the last one they had!"

JACK CARTER

Jack and "Let Me Go, Lover" Joan Weber are in the new show—and incidentally, the women around me thought Miss Weber's much prettier than her pictures. Jack said some of the Copa waiters are bitter about the club's plan to remove four of the big posts.

"They want to know," contended Jack, "'Where we gonna put the customers we hate?'"

★ ★ ★ ★

Park Avenue Hillbilly Dorothy Shay saw Huntington Hartford drinking milk at her Plaza Persian Room opening. "You may be drinking milk," she told him, "but you're payin' for booze."

DOROTHY

For her first appearance here in three years, she came loaded with new material.

In "That Little Western Town of Beverly Hills," she sings that "The kids ring your bell on Halloeen, and beat it in a chauffeured limousine." She adds that "Every day the mothers offer up a prayer, their son'll become President . . . of Metro-Goldwyn Mayer."

★ ★ ★ ★

B'way character Jack Tirman phoned his wife Fawn: "Fawn, baby, it's BEAUTIFUL outside today. Don't stay cooped up indoors. Get outside in the sun. Get out . . . go out somewhere . . . to a nice movie or someplace."

★ ★ ★ ★

Wonder if the 52nd St. strip joints have an uncover charge . . . Our NY sunsets are so purty now, the International Set think they're imported from Italy . . . L. Martin Courtney II of Toledo calls Army food: "Sad Snack."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Steve Allen'll take his show to Niagara Falls—to cover the June brides . . . Corinne Calvet's engagement rock from Jeff Stone looked worth 10 G's . . . Anita Ekberg's posing for a picture book for Berkley Publications. It'll be stacked with stacked pictures.

Margaret Truman says she might be financially interested in a proposed old-fashioned ice cream parlor, "if it doesn't serve liquor." (It won't).

Robert Mitchum, who was supposed to be interviewed here Thursday, fell asleep on the couch at United Artists.

Jackie Gleason's sold a million albums for Capitol Records. That pretty timekeeper on "Masquerade Party" is Reneee Miles.

RENEE MILES

Ed Begley of "Inherit the Wind" is living at the Lambs—his daughter, 6½, has measles and the house is quarantined . . . Bob Hope'll be 52 this month—or just 13 years older than J. Benny.

★ ★ ★ ★

Imogene Coca's mother died . . . Groucho Marx, sitting behind agent Joe Glaser at Yankee Stadium, complained, "When you're behind an agent, you can see only ninety per cent of the game" . . . Dr. Robert Franklin, Vanessa Brown's ex, is dating busty Carol Ohmart.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "A hen-pecked husband," says Jack McCauley of San Francisco, "is a man who doesn't dare bite the hand that 'bleeds' him" . . . That's earl, brother.

Singer Passes Loyalty Test

Dear Phoebe Squeezes From Sponsors Clutch to Suit Pete Lawford

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS)—Asked how long he'll stay in radio, Bing Crosby passed his loyalty test thus:

"When there is only one set left."

Peter Lawford's "Dear Phoebe" was squeezed out of the sponsor's clutches because sponsor wanted Pete to be a ladies' man with a new fictional gal each week; Pete couldn't see the sympathetic side to a philanderer.

Tommy Rettig of "Lassie" just had the court O.K. his $1,250 per week TV pay.

Georgiana Carhart of "Life Begins at 80" was 90 Tuesday.

Liberace was 35 Monday.

Georgiana earns $150 a week; Liberace, $50,000.

NBC will do a radio "Davey Crockett" series with no mention of Walt Disney. (Imitation is the flattest form of sincerity.)

George Murphy will emcee the summer Comedy Hour.

Bing Crosby on his radio show now takes more vigorous stands on more uncontroversial subjects than anyone short of an election-year candidate.

Marion Marlowe joins Godfrey grads Julius La Rosa, Archie Bleyer, the Chordettes, on Archie's Cadence records . . . Mariners may be next.

Now that it has "Today" and "Tonight" on the TV air, NBC is planning one called "Tomorrow."

All except three or four Jack Benny's next-season radio shows will be transcriptions of old shows.

Milton Berle gave "Person to Person" a polite no.

Ex-kid star Freddie Bartholomew is director of the new "Welcome Travelers" maudlinism . . . the lad's first network job.

"Best of Broadway" learned the worst—dropped.

"Saint of Bleecker Street" on NBC Opera Theater had a quality it lacked on Broadway: An intimacy, almost as if you were merely one of a few persons witnessing the reverent tortures of the young girl of the title.

On stage in a huge Broadway theater it seemed a curiously and uneasily circus-style exhibition of a delicately sacred experience.

Its TV simplicity and sincerity removed all the carnival aspects. It was a better, deeper, more personal experience on TV.

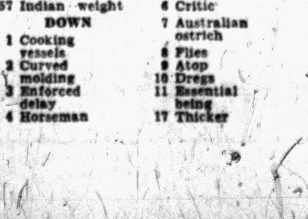

Break Ground Monday

KALAMAZOO (AP) — Ground will be broken Monday for Louis C. Upton Hall of Science, Kalamazoo College's first major construction project in eight years. The building program was made possible by gifts from Upton's widow and family. He founded the Whirlpool Corp., St. Joseph home appliance manufacturer, and was for many years a member of the college board of trustees.

Princess Named

DETROIT (AP)—Georgetta Aikens, 18-year-old Chippewa-Delaware Indian, will reign as princess Saturday at the 15th annual anniversary banquet of the North American Indian Club of Detroit. Representatives from 22 Indian tribes in Michigan and Ontario will attend.

Nationalist Soldiers Like Debbie's Act

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Sunbronzed Nationalist Chinese soldiers vigorously applauded Hollywood star Debbie Reynolds and nine other USO performers today. The Americans put on a show within two hours after arriving from California.

It was Debbie's first live performance in the Orient and the first time the soldiers had seen Americans perform in the flesh.

The troupe will give two more performances in Formosa tomorrow and appear later in Korea and Japan.

Filibuster Drones On for Over Fifteen Hours

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — State Sen. Kilmer Corbin's one-man filibuster droned on and on today and was 15½ hours old at 5:35 a.m.

It was the fourth filibuster of the Texas Legislature's present session.

Corbin, from Lubbock in West Texas, was talking against a conference committee's agreement on a plan to finance a 100-million-dollar statewide water program.

Long distance power transmission in Sweden uses 380,000 volts.

Happy Is The Day When Backache Goes Away . . . .

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages.

Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Tipster Foils Postal Robbery

Five Are Held in Plot to Steal Las Vegas Gambling Take

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Police said an informer's tip thwarted an elaborate plot to rob the U.S. mail of a large amount of gambling casino money last night.

Police Chief A. H. Kennedy said five persons were taken into custody, including a Las Vegas police officer and his attractive red-haired wife.

He said an informer told him two weeks ago of a plan to rob a police car delivering a load of cash from the Las Vegas post office to the railroad station.

* * *

Postal authorities said the police car had been scheduled to carry a "very substantial amount of money" destined for San Francisco. There were reports it would have amounted to half a million dollars but postal authorities would not verify this.

Several postal inspectors from California and Nevada hid with 22 policemen in the vicinity of the post office. No attempt was made to halt the police car, which because of the tip carried no money. However, police arrested Las Vegas policeman George Anderson, 31, and his wife Joyce, 24, a casino cocktail waitress, in front of the post office.

Kennedy said Robert Schomer, 29, an electrician, was arrested behind the post office. The three were booked early today on suspicion of conspiracy to rob the mail by force. Two other men were taken into custody for questioning and a sixth person is being sought. A variety of weapons and masks were seized.

Navy Plans to Build Eighth Atomic Sub

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy plans to build an additional atomic submarine, bringing the projected total of such craft to eight.

This was reported yesterday by Sen. Jackson (D-Wash), who said the Navy had advised a Senate-House Atomic Energy subcommittee of its intentions.

The Navy had asked congressional authority to build three more nuclear-powered subs. The change of plans would add one to this figure. Four atomic submarines were authorized earlier and one of these has been completed.

Canadian to Speak

HOUGHTON (AP) — Sir James Dunn, Canadian industrialist, will be commencement speaker at Michigan Tech June 5. Sir James is president and chairman of Algoma Steel Corp., and chairman of Canada Steamship Lines.
