Formosa Mobs Injure 9 in Riots Against America

Ravage U.S. Embassy After Acquittal of GI for Shooting Chinese

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Chinese mobs went on an anti-American rampage today, ravaging the U.S. Embassy and U.S. Information Agency Office, besieging a military headquarters and chasing Americans on the street.

Nine Americans were injured. The American Flag was hauled down from the embassy flagpole and torn to shreds.

Thousands of Chinese, worked up to a frenzy by the acquittal of a U.S. Army sergeant who killed a Chinese Peeping Tom, stormed the embassy, and spent most of the afternoon tossing broken furniture and torn documents through the windows.

The disorders spread and the mobs tried to invade the U. S. military communications center housing about 100 Americans who closed the storm gate and were besieged inside.

Another mob assaulted the U. S. Information Agency office and ransacked it in the same pattern as at the embassy. Furniture, papers, typewriters and equipment were wrecked and tossed out.

Informed sources said Chinese authorities were preparing to proclaim a state of siege or a curfew as a result of the worst anti-American disorders since Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek escaped here with the remnants of his Nationalist forces in 1949.

U. S. authorities advised all American personnel to stay indoors. The British consul issued similar advice to Britons.

Tonight three lines of defense were set up around the American Embassy—Military Police in a hand-to-hand chain in the outer ring, civilian police in a middle cordon and troops in an inside line.

Armored cars were stationed at strategic points. Guards were rushed to other American installations and to American homes, especially in outlying areas.

Two of the Americans injured in the attack on the embassy were

State Park Fee Bill Goes to Governor

LANSING (AP)—The Legislature today gave final approval to a bill for a $2 annual admission charge to state parks.

The measure was dispatched to Gov. Williams, who has indicated he might veto it.

Final agreement came when the Senate rescinded its action on asking for a conference committee with the House and decided instead to accept House changes in the bill.

The difference between the two chambers centers on a House preference for a daily charge of up to 50 cents. The Senate, until today, had insisted that a flat charge of that amount should be provided.

Also, a bill raising hunting license fees cleared the Legislature today and advanced for the governor's signature.

General Motors Tops Newspaper Advertisers

NEW YORK (INS) — General Motors was listed today as the top national advertiser in newspapers in 1956, the tenth year it has held the position. A study by the Bureau of Advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers Association showed GM expenditures of $53,778,652, more than twice the outlay of second-place Ford Motor Co. which spent $25.3 million. Chrysler was third, Colgate-Palmolive fourth and Distillers Corp. fifth.

Tax on Tobacco, Whisky Gets Tentative Approval

LANSING (AP)—It looks today like a four per cent excise tax on whisky to help support Michigan schools in 1957-58.

Legislative conferees working on next year's state school aid program tentatively agree on such a levy, along with a two cents a pack increase on cigarettes.

The two new revenue sources are estimated to bring in more than 25 million dollars to supplement state sales tax collections and primary interest fund receipts that now finance state school aid payments.

The Senate-approved aid proposal, which provided the basis for discussion, called for a combination cigarette-whisky tax plan with the whisky excise levy at the rate of 2½ per cent.

This plan was calculated to produce just short of 23 million dollars a year.

But with a formula based on $190 a pupil and a deductible millage factor of 2¾ for outstate districts more revenue had to be found after the conference committee decided on some other changes in the bill.

The committee agreed to recommend a lower deductible millage rate for Detroit, the decrease in rate, from 2½ to 2⅛, would boost state aid payments to Detroit by about $2,100,000.

ANOTHER FEATURE

Another liberalizing feature of the tentative conference agreement that called for a boost in revenues was a lifting of the lid on school transportation payments from the 10 million dollars fixed by the Senate to 12 millions.

The conference group also agreed to recommend a ceiling of four million dollars, instead of three million, on tuition payments.

The conferees were prepared to write in another alteration in the transportation aid section of the bill, changing from one to one and one-half miles the distance a pupil would have to traverse before his transportation costs could be reimbursable by the state.

Five of the six conferees reportedly were ready to sign the tentative report.

Milford Youth Killed, 3 Hurt in Car Crash

A Milford youth was killed and his friend injured in an accident on U.S. 25 about one-half mile south of Sibley, near Flatrock, yesterday.

Thomas C. Bennett, 17, of 3057 Hillside Dr., was dead on arrival at Wyandotte General Hospital after his car pulled out from behind a dump truck into the path of a haulaway truck at 9:30 a.m., said State Police.

His friend, Richard W. Vanerstron, of the same address, was treated and released for multiple cuts and bruises. The boys live with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller.

Also in the car were two Dearborn girls, Betty Dehring, 16, of 5879 Huron St., is still in "very critical" condition after spending most of yesterday undergoing surgery.

Brenda Rife, 15, of 6990 Jackson St., is in "fair" condition, it was reported.

Heat Toll 17 in Mexico

MEXICO CITY (INS) — The temperature shot up to 113 degrees today in practically waterless Monterey and snuffed out the lives of seven more children in Mexico's third largest city. Death toll is now 17. More than 300 children have been hospitalized.

Fire Marshal Bans Beds From Hospital Hallways

Pontiac General Hospital's present bed capacity will be cut by about one-sixth in the near future in compliance with a directive from the city fire marshal.

The Board voted last night to eliminate as soon as possible the beds that have been placed in hallways in order to meet the overwhelming demands by the public for more hospital care.

Fire Marshal Charles E. Metz noted that the crowded hallways were inviting disaster in case of a fire. His request for their elimination was backed by the State Fire Marshal.

The cutback will mean a slash in personnel, from probably 10 to possibly 20 per cent, board members figured.

"It will mean less public service on the one hand, but better treatment for those fortunate to get into the hospital," observed Dr. Arnold L. Brown, hospital chief of staff.

The hospital, built to accommodate 152 patients, has been running at 110 to 120 per cent of capacity while the new 200-bed wing was under construction.

There are presently 28 beds in the hallways, and these may be eliminated as they are vacated by the present patients.

Metz' letter to the board last night indicated he had held off until results of Monday's special election were learned.

"Since now there is no definite date when the new addition will be opened and the hallway beds eliminated, there is no other course than to get rid of the dangerous hazard right now," Metz said today.

The failure of the $1,500,000 bond issue to complete and equip the addition occupied the board's attention for the major part of last night's meeting.

A tentative program was planned in an attempt to reconstruct building plans and prevent future financial loss.

The board plans to ask for an informal meeting with the City Commission as soon as possible to discuss how to revamp plans.

It also considered a thorough review of the equipment and construction specifications that are planned for the new addition.

Board members decided to request from the city attorney a complete written review of the city's liability on $436,000 in outstanding purchase orders for hospital equipment.

Following this, board members hoped to complete the new addition in piece-meal fashion as funds become available.

Willis M. Brewer, who has headed the board's special building committee since the original $3,000,000 bond issue was

Clarkston High Girl Dies on Her Senior Class Trip

A grief-shattered Davisburg family today tried to resume the pattern of normal life in the wake of sudden death of the eldest daughter, scarcely three weeks after the mother died.

Pretty Jean Longton, 17, collapsed and died yesterday morning aboard a train carrying her and 69 fellow Clarkston High School seniors to a gay weekend of sight-seeing in Washington, D. C.

DISCOVERED IN LOUNGE

Jean was discovered in the women's lounge shortly after the group had breakfasted on the train. She was rushed to a Brunswick, Md. hospital where she was dead on arrival.

Her mother, Mrs. Deama Longton, had died three weeks earlier of leukemia.

Cause of Jean's death could not be determined immediately by Dr. Russell S. Fischer, Maryland medical examiner, following a preliminary examination.

NATURAL CAUSES

Dr. Russell said, "Pending a microscopic and chemical study, I cannot tell the cause, but I am inclined to believe she died of natural causes. I have found no evidence of foul play."

The medical examiner discounted a gash on the girl's forehead, saying it was apparently caused when she struck her head as she fell in the lounge.

One of the three adults accompanying the class, Floyd Vincent, 1773 Eason St., Waterford Township, a Clarkston High teacher, suffered from shock when he saw the girl's body. He was treated and released at the Brunswick Hospital.

CAR SEALED

Other teachers with the class are Vincent's wife and Kurt Wild of Clarkston.

The car in which Jean was riding was sealed by railroad officials, pending further investiga-

Money on Way to State Schools

But Williams Warns They Won't Be Getting 'Something for Nothing'

LANSING (AP) — State checks totaling 24 million dollars go into the mails today for 3,080 local school districts, including some with virtually bare treasuries.

With the big cash distribution, however, went a caution from Gov. Williams to school administrators that they were "not getting something for nothing."

The governor yesterday signed a bill that put in motion the payment machinery.

The bill authorized immediate disbursement of school primary interest fund monies accumulated in the state treasury for distribution in August — as a charge against 1957-58 state assistance to schools.

HOCUS POCUS

Williams called this "hocus-pocus" financing which is likely to cause serious school money crises later on."

"This bill adds nothing to the total of school monies," he said in a statement accompanying the bill signing.

"It simply advances the date of disbursement of funds to take care of this year's obligations with money intended for the next school year."

The current payment, limited to primary interest fund monies, is on a flat enrollment basis, slightly favoring areas with large parochial school enrollments.

★ ★ ★

About the end of the month, another distribution of some 10½ million dollars will be made, representing the final installment of 1956-57 school aid under the 1956 legislative help formula.

State Legislators Hustle

LANSING (AP) — Hustling to beat a session windup deadline at midnight, Michigan legislators today tore into a stack of about 40 bills awaiting final decision, including major spending, school aid and road financing measures.

Denies Threat to Move Plants

GM Head Makes Reply to Williams; Urges Impartial Tax Study

DETROIT (INS) — General Motors President Harlow H. Curtice denied today that he ever threatened to move GM operations out of Michigan because of high taxes.

In a letter to Gov. G. Mennen Williams, Curtice said the governor "had misinterpreted" his past statements in arriving at a conclusion that GM was attempting to pressure the legislature into opposing new taxes.

Governor Williams had asked Curtice to "suggest" a tax solution to this the automotive executive suggested:

"A thoroughgoing, impartial analysis of fiscal policies and operating efficiency at all levels of government in Michigan — state, county and local."

Curtice's letter was an answer to the governor's May 14 letter in which Williams had criticized GM stand on taxes and asked for suggestions from Curtice on how to finance state operations.

"My only references (in the past) with respect to location of plants or operations are as follows:

"' . . . even the present level of business taxation in Michigan has already led us to locate plants in other states, where the taxes per General Motors job are less than one-half of the present taxes per job in Michigan. This also will be taken into consideration in the placement of additional plants."

Won't Run Again, Says Mayor Cobo

DETROIT (AP)—Mayor Albert E. Cobo announced today "I definitely will not be a candidate again for mayor." He has been mayor since 1950 and his current term ends next January.

The mayor, unsuccessful Republican candidate for governor of Michigan last November, made the announcement at the annual meeting of the Detroit Citizens League.

Among the possible successors who were close-mouthed about the mayor's announcement were Common Council President Louis C. Miriani, councilmen James Lincoln and Edward Conner, DSR Manager Leo J. Nowicki and City Clerk Thomas D. Leadbetter.

Lauretta Paul Quits Her Post After 10 Years

Pick Assistant Director Warren W. Simonds as Acting Head

It was accepted by the board.

Assistant director Warren W. Simonds was named acting director and summoned to the hospital to take over duties this morning.

She announced no immediate plans.

Besides William Babcock, there were Willis M. Brewer, Mrs. Edna Roush, Charles E. Yeager, Joseph E. Jones, Harold B. Euler, Cecil J. Cosgrove, Rev. Theodore R. Allebach and James Clarkson.

★ ★ ★

The action climaxed a long history of feuding between Miss Paul and various board members.

Last January, the director was threatening to quit over a salary hike that she thought was not big enough.

The board upped her pay to $13,000 a year, a $1,000 increase. Miss Paul wanted $14,000, charging that she had twice been denied $1,000 increase last year.

Miss Paul issued the following statement:

"I have resigned my position as director of Pontiac General Hospital, effective May 24, 1957. This action is taken as a sequel to the decision of the board of trustees in January concerning my salary, and the fact that they have since then taken no action to correct what I consider an inequity in my compensation in view of the increased responsibilities of the operation of Pontiac General Hospital, the result of the building program, and the necessary reorganization of its staff in preparation for a larger operation, including the annex to the Pontiac General Hospital, which was taken over in December, 1956."

Miss Paul's tenure as director came under direct fire when the contents of a four-month report by the James R. Hamilton Associates were disclosed last July.

The Minneapolis hospital consulting firm recommended Miss Paul be given one year "to carry out recommendations for strengthening executive management and internal operations."

It noted the fact that several members of the board were attempting to replace the director and added:

"Miss Paul has many necessary attributes of a good executive but her fundamental weakness is that she runs a 'one man show.' The director has pursued a rugged path during her eight years stewardship."

It added, however, "Her supe-

For Anti-American Riots on Formosa

China Expresses Regrets

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chinese Ambassador Hollington K. Tong expressed to the United States today the "profoundest regrets of my government" for the anti-American rioting in Taipei, Formosa.

On instructions telephoned here by Chinese Nationalist Foreign Minister George Yeh, Tong conferred with Asst. Secretary of State Walter Robertson shortly before noon and made the statement of regrets.

Tong told reporters afterward "there's no deep anti-American sentiment" involved in the rioting in his opinion. He called it "an outbreak of emotion."

He also said a number of members of the mob had been arrested and "more will be." The situation has been brought under control, he said, with the establishment of a curfew and a declaration of martial law.

Tong left Robertson's office saying this was the "most distressing mission" he has had to perform in his year in Washington.

And in talking with newsmen, he said, "it's awful."

He made this report of his call on Robertson:

"The purpose of my call is to express the profoundest regret of my government for the incident that occurred yesterday.

"Since I came here a year ago this is the most distressing mission for me.

"Quite a number of the mob were arrested and more will be arrested. Curfew and martial law have been declared and the situation is under control.

★ ★ ★

"I'm too distressed to say any more. You can understand my feelings."

In response to questions, Tong said he received a telephone call from Formosa at 6:30 a.m., Washington time, informing him of the rioting.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Severe weather which has pounded areas in the Southern plains during the week swept into wide sections east and northeast of Texas during the night.

Arkansas appeared hardest hit by the violent weather, with tornadic winds and torrential rains in many areas.

The stormy weather occurred in the hot and humid air that extended from Texas eastward across the Gulf states and northeastward to points south of the Ohio River through the lower Great Lakes to New England and the Atlantic seaboard.

While southwest Arkansas was under a severe weather alert last night, tornadic winds lashed Monticello, in the southeastern part of the state.

★ ★ ★

Most areas in Texas were hammered again by violent weather, with tornadoes, heavy rain and hail. Three twisters were reported near Winters, Marshall and Mount Pleasant, with two persons injured at Winters.

Winds up to 73 m.p.h. whipped the Dallas - Fort Worth area. Drenching rains and hail pelted the region.

★ ★ ★

Thunderstorms rumbled across the Southeast and heavy showers were reported in the lower Mississippi Valley. More than four inches of rain fell at Mobile, Ala., in six hours.

Temperatures during the night were mostly in the 70s from New England to Florida. Showers fell in scattered areas in New England.

Showers and thunderstorms were forecast for parts of the central and southern plains westward over the Rockies and over most of the inter - mountain region. Similar weather was the outlook from the Mississippi Valley eastward to the Atlantic and northward into the Ohio Valley.

Top Officials Eye Arms Cut

WASHINGTON (INS)—Top cabinet officers meet today to hammer out details of America's new disarmament plan calling for the world powers to scrap 10 to 15 per cent of the major weapons.

★ ★ ★

The proposal envisions creation of international arms control depots for receiving a "small slice" of the world's nuclear-carrying weapons — planes, missiles, ships, submarines, tanks and heavy artillery.

Special disarmament adviser Harold E. Stassen will carry the new plan to London and offer it upon resumption of the five power arms control negotiations Monday.

The proposal, disclosed by authoritative sources yesterday, also calls for a worldwide agreement prohibiting the manufacture of nuclear weapons by any nation other than those making them at present—the U. S., the Soviet Union and Britain.

NO AGREEMENT

There was no full agreement on what type of inducements would be offered to non-producers to abide by the scheme or to Russia for withholding demands that Communist China be included.

The need for establishing an inspection zone is emphasized in the plan but there was said to be no agreement on the location of the "open skies" sector.

The new plan was disclosed yesterday after a meeting of the national security council and a closed door conference including Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, Stassen, the Senate disarmament subcommittee, and Senate Democratic and Republican leaders.

This afternoon's session will include Dulles, Stassen, Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson, Atomic Energy Commission Chairman Lewis Strauss, Admiral Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, and Robert Cutler, special presidential assistant for national security affairs.

Predict Changes in Aid Program

2 Dems Say Congress Will Ask More Control of Foreign Spending

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Senate Democrats predicted today President Eisenhower's foreign aid program will undergo "drastic revision" to give Congress more control over spending abroad.

That view came from Senators Mansfield (D-Mont) and Humphrey (D-Minn) as the Senate Foreign Relations Committee of which both are members continued public hearings on the $3,865,000,000 program.

The group called Asst. Secretary of Defense Mansfield D. Sprague to learn details of the administration's requests for $1,900,000,000 of military aid and 900 millions of economic support for countries with which the United States has defense pacts.

Both Mansfield and Humphrey spoke favorably of the over-all program, but Mansfield said "there will be changes to assure Congress retains its annual review of the whole program."

Humphrey, referring specifically to a proposed development loan fund, said "the bill must be changed in some way so that Congress will know in advance to what countries and for what purposes the loans are to be made. I know it's a problem," he added, "but we can't give unlimited authority and keep Congress in the dark."

See Need for High Schools; to Ask $6,000,000 June 10

BIRMINGHAM — Citizens Committee on Education this week said 14 elementary schools accepting students this fall stress the need for more junior and senior high school classrooms in the near future.

It is on this basis that the Board of Education will ask voters to authorize a more than $6,000,000 building program at the June 10 election.

The board has accepted the committee's recommendation for a junior - senior high school; one new, twenty-room elementary; the rehabilitation of the old Baldwin School and a service building.

Since 1949, about 67 per cent of the more than $15,000,000 approved by voters for building has been for elementary schools.

This has resulted in a great wave of elementary graduates engulfing the junior and senior high school facilities according to the committee. Enrollment studies show that the growth is about 1,000 a year. Present upper grade level schools will not be able to meet the requirements after another two years, the report said.

The committee estimates that by 1959, junior high enrollment alone will exceed capacity by 1,400 students.

Official dedication of two Birmingham Parks will take place tomorrow morning. A bronze plaque will be dedicated at St. James Park on Edgewood near Lincoln avenue, at 11 a.m.

At 11:30, the ceremony will be shifted to Booth Park, on Woodward Avenue.

Birmingham Junior Chamber of Commerce, rained out of its sale of American Flags last Saturday, will try again tomorrow.

The sale will be conducted from a truck at Pierce and Martin streets, as well as from trailers circulating through residential areas.

Want to Reduce? This Woman Did —the Hard Way

For 20 minutes she tried to steady herself by doing a little dance on her free leg while the motor-powered seat moved back and forth.

Know the Weather

By E. H. SIMS

What are isobars and what do they indicate on a weather map, such as that carried in newspapers?

Isobars are a simple mapmaker's way of showing where barometer pressure (the weight of the layer of gas above the earth) is the same. Usually you'll observe that isobars are circular lines, ringing either a high or low pressure area.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

The pressure lines are nowadays numbered in milibars, which is just another system of measuring the weight of air. You can easily see where the center of a high or low pressure area is by noting the highest milibar line, which will usually be a small circle.

The higher the milibar number on the line, the better the weather is likely to be inside the circle it forms.

Many Haven't Been Inside Church in Years

Thousands Hear Billy Graham Preach

NEW YORK (AP)—Mixed motives today are bringing thousands of New Yorkers to hear the gospel preached—many of whom haven't been inside a church in years.

The man behind the pulpit is Billy Graham, but he himself says his only message is the Bible, and every minister has one. So what is it that brings those who usually aren't interested in the subject?

You get all kinds of answers from the assorted people flocking to Madison Square Garden nightly—18,000 of them last night.

Diann Cyre, a Manhattan stripTease dancer: "I'm in show business, and I just wanted to find out why so many people come to hear about a story that's 2,000 years old. Is it showmanship or what he says?"

Harry Roskolenko, of Manhattan, a novelist: "I'm spiritually interested. I have my own private sort of religion, and I'm wondering what this man's appeal is. Is it a personality thing, or are the people starved inwardly and trying to find out what's what?"

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Edythe Hammel, a church-going Brooklyn housewife: "I came because I think it's going to do me some good. I think this man is going to bring religion back to the country, and that's what it needs."

So it goes. As for the varying motives, Graham tells the crowds:

"It makes no difference why you came. If it was curiosity, that's all right. Many people came to Christ originally out of curiosity."

★ ★ ★

Out of Graham's huge congregation last night, 765 filed to the front in his concluding appeal to "humbly surrender your life to Christ."

This brought the total of such decisions in nine nights to 5,835.

For his text, Graham used Proverbs 23:7: "For as he (a man) thinketh in his heart, so is he." The evangelist declared that "all of our hearts have a spiritual disease"—a blight of sin.

Heart ailments, he noted, are the nation's No. 1 killer, but the spiritual disease is "far worse than the physical disease. It has infected everyone. Everyone has a bad heart."

"We can't have a better world as long as we have bad, deceitful, stony hearts," he declared.

"We deserve death and judgment and hell," Graham said, jabbing his finger toward the floor. "But Jesus Christ went to the cross and died in our place."

Debate Cutting Defense Funds

Both House and Senate Battle Over Proposed $2½ Billion Slash

WASHINGTON (AP) — The battle over a proposed 2½ billion dollar slash in new defense funds was waged in both House and Senate today.

House leaders opened debate on a $33,541,225,000 defense money measure carrying some 2½ billion less than President Eisenhower requested for the fiscal year starting July 1. No votes were expected until next week, perhaps Wednesday.

Meanwhile, Chairman Chavez (D-NM) called top Army leaders before his Senate Appropriations subcommittee. Secretary of the Army Brucker and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, Army chief of staff, were lined up to present the Army's case for more money.

"We are not going to jeopardize the national defense," Chavez told newsmen in advance of the hearing.

"I'm rather partial to air power but I'll have to be satisfied they need every penny."

Sen. Ellender (D-La) said in a separate interview he is convinced defense agencies could absorb the 2½ billion dollar cut recommended by the House Appropriations Committee — "and more if they just wanted to do it."

He agreed the services could take more than a billion dollars of the proposed cut, classifying this portion a bookkeeping matter. But he insisted repeatedly that more than a billion should be restored. Otherwise, he said, this country's missile, aircraft and warship programs would be affected adversely.

★ ★ ★

At one point Wilson said tartly: "Sooner or later the job is going to be open and all these people who want to save five billion dollars a year can step up and try it."

Tobin-Cote Post to Meet Tuesday

Other officers elected last week were Raymond E. Holsworth, senior vice chairman; John Furlong, junior vice chairman; Paul F. Gross, finance officer; William Davis, chaplain, and Billy Jones, sgt.-at-arms.

All members of the post have been invited to attend the meeting.

hospitalized. They were the press attache, Alexander Boase, who was seriously but not critically beaten; and a security officer, Carl Ackerman, who was hit on the head but not seriously injured. Marine Sgt. William Sutton was sent home after receiving six stitches.

OTHERS INJURED

Other embassy personnel injured were counselor Paul Meyer, cuts and bruises; Helen Voselka, roughed up; administrative officer Howard Chaille, and messenger Frank Nesci, both slight injuries.

Most of the embassy personnel were away for lunch at the time of the attack, and those inside avoided more serious injury by taking refuge in the air raid shelter.

Most Americans encountering the mobs in the streets escaped, but two airline employes were reported to have been beaten when they came out of a restaurant on Taipei's main street.

FOUND INNOCENT

A U. S. court-martial found the sergeant innocent yesterday of charges of voluntary manslaughter of a Chinese caught looking through a bathroom window while his wife was taking a shower. A guard of 67 armed police escorted Reynolds and his family to the airport.

The outburst followed bitter attacks by Taipei newspapers against the acquittal of Reynolds. The papers termed the court-martial action a perversion of justice.

Taipei papers quickly seized on the prosecution argument that Reynolds should have tried only to cripple the intruder, and also the prosecution contention that the Chinese did not necessarily mean to attack Reynolds.

Obviously, however, the mob was motivated as much or more by the fact that an American soldier had been exonerated by an American court for the killing of a Chinese.

GRABBED STICK

The court-martial board of five colonels and three master sergeants found the 42-year-old sergeant innocent after he testified he shot the Chinese, Liu Tze-jan, outside the American's home last March when Liu grabbed a stick and came at him.

Dog Needs First Aid, Goes to Veterinarian

Later, the dog was hit by a car. He promptly ran away from home—straight to the veterinarian's office.

Dr. E. L. Taylor found it outside his office door in the morning, threated it for minor injuries and returned it to Hamilton.

Report Letters Urge Teamsters Board Slate Early Session

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

WASHINGTON — Teamster Union vice presidents were reported urged today to meet soon to discuss ousting Dave Beck.

Teamster Secretary - Treasurer John F. English was understood to have sent a letter to the other members of the 13-man executive board calling for a meeting soon.

English conducted the maneuver on a hush-hush basis, but told newsmen yesterday that he was considering such a move.

English is the leader of the anti-Beck movement in the nation's largest union. He replaced Beck on the AFL-CIO Executive Board when the Teamster chief was suspended from that post Monday following charges that he misused at least $370,000 of Teamsters funds for his own profit.

Vice President James R. Hoffa, who is under federal indictments for bribery and wiretapping, is said to be urging a delay on the matter until the union's convention in Miami next September.

TEST FOR HOFFA

Lansing (Mich.) reports the influence of Hoffa will be tested today in an election of officers by newly - organized Michigan State Building and Construction Trades Council.

In Washington yesterday the AFL-CIO suspended the 85,000-member Laundry Workers Union on corruption charges involving alleged welfare fund abuses.

The Allied Industrial Workers with 75,000 members, and the Distillery Workers, with 30,000, were put on a year's probation.

voted for the addition in 1954, last night offered to resign as chairman if there were any criticism of his committee.

His offer was rejected.

"I have no apologies," Brewer said, "and I want to do my part to finish this hospital, if I possibly can."

★ ★ ★

Harold B. Euler believed the board must reconsolidate its position immediately or face "untold increased future expenses."

The board chairman, William P. Babcock said he did not think Monday's vote was a sign of public criticism.

"I think the board is doing a fine job. The difficulties we've faced usually have not been our fault. We should keep on trying to give the public the best possible hospital for their dollars."

Schoolgirl Dies on Senior Trip

tion, but the senior class continued on its trip to Washington and will return as scheduled Sunday.

The mystery surrounding Jean's death was deepened by a statement from the family doctor, Rockwood W. Bullard Jr., of Clarkston.

NEVER EXAMINED

He said he had never examined Jean, although he treated her mother and other members of the family. "She was so healthy apparently that she never required medical attention," he said.

Jean's father, William Longton, of 3515 Ellis Rd., was prostrate yesterday after learning the news. Neighbors said the 45-year-old Fisher Body worker was just beginning to recover from the shock of his wife's death when the second tragedy occurred.

Other children in the family are Veronica, 15, Michael, 13 and Patricia, 5. The elder youngsters both attend Clarkston High.

★ ★ ★

Principal S. F. Goedde said Jean was a popular student with better than average grades. "The whole student body was deeply shaken when we announced the news of Jean's death," he added.

The father said today Jean had been happy when she left on the trip. Just before he learned of her death, he received a post card from her, mailed in Detroit.

Jean said she was writing from the railroad station and was "having lots of fun."

Longton said he paid for the girl's trip to give her a good time, although he had incurred many expenses during his wife's five-weeks' illness.

Jean liked art very much, the father continued sadly, and hoped to make a career in that field before her mother died.

"After her mother passed away," he said, "she told me she would stay home for a couple of years and help me raise the younger children."

"I just don't understand what happened," the father said, "she was so healthy and so happy. She had never been sick before."

Funeral service for Jean will be held at 4 p.m. tomorrow at the Davisburg Methodist Church.

Rev. Marshall Saunders will officiate and friends may view the body between 3 and 4 p.m.

Another service will be held in Kalkaska, 2 p.m. Monday, at the Berg-Schwartz Funeral Home. She will be buried at Bel-Aire, 30 miles from Kalkaska, where her mother is interred.

The family comes from the Kalkaska area.

Buses Will Halt Service on Line

Route on Mt. Clemens Discontinued, Cut-Back Also Announced

Discontinuance of service on Mt. Clemens street and a cut-back of Perry Park route service will take effect after tomorrow, E. W. Dreasher, transportation superintendent for Pontiac City Lines, Inc., announced today.

In a letter to City Manager, W. K. Willman, Dreasher wrote that service on the Mt. Clemens route, started Dec. 29, 1956, after petitions for it were filed by residents in that area, had proved unprofitable.

On April 21, he said, service was cut to the morning and evening rush hours only, but even that has not provided enough revenue to meet "out-of-pocket costs."

Also on April 21, Dreasher said, service was restored on Saturdays on the original Perry Park route, but again failed to pay its way.

Therefore, he told the city, all Mt. Clemens route service and Saturday service on the Perry Park route will be halted after tomorrow.

Roberto Again Denies Plans to Divorce Ingrid

Rossellini Gossip Bewilders Husband

CALCUTTA, India (AP) — Movie director Hari Das Gupta said today he is bewildered by the "unexpected episode" involving his wife and Italian producer Roberto Rossellini.

★ ★ ★

Das Gupta's estranged wife, Sonali, has been living in a Bombay hotel next door to Rossellini, the husband of actress Ingrid Bergman.

Rossellini, who was in New Delhi yesterday on business, denied for the second time newspaper reports that he might divorce Miss Bergman to marry the young Indian script writer.

"There is nothing to it," Rossellini said.

The husband was interviewed in Calcutta, where he is working on a movie.

"I am bewildered by this unexpected episode and I don't know what to say," said Das Gupta, 36. "Can't you realize my position? Please don't ask me for more details."

★ ★ ★

Das Gupta has worked with Rossellini on films the Italian is making for the Indian government. The Indian director introduced his wife to Rossellini about three months ago.

Economic Experts Declare:

U. S. Embargo Hurts Reds

TOKYO (INS)—America's rigid trade embargo against Communist China was credited today by economic authorities in Japan with helping bring the Peiping regime to its present serious industrial crisis.

They said at the same time it would be "foolish" for the U. S. to bow to British and Japanese demands for total relaxation of the ban unless it wishes intentionally to ease the communist mainland burden.

(In Washington Wednesday the Senate Commerce Committee voted to explore the possibility of U.S. trading with Red China.)

Reports from Peiping indicate the nation is suffering badly from economic dislocation, resulting in part from the embargo, and giving rise to inflation, black marketeering and hindering both industrial and weapons development.

Britain and Japan are pressing hard for scrapping of the American-inspired restrictions on shipment of strategic goods to Peiping.

Negotiations now are underway on the subject. The U. S. reportedly has decided to maintain its own full embargo, now more than half a decade old, even if concessions are made to others.

Peiping Radio, voice of the Red Chinese, claimed that the U. S. is being forced to make certain concessions in order to salvage even minimal control over what would be left of the ban.

Hunger Stalks 200 Million in Red China

By MARVIN STONE

TOKYO (INS) — Possibly 200,000,000 Chinese are going hungry this spring because of natural disasters and grave miscalculations by the Communist regime in Peiping.

As many as 30,000,000 of these people are being stalked by death-dealing famine, according to Western sources.

The uneasy mainland government maintains that all will be eased when this year's "bumper crops" are harvested.

However, this is four months off and until then Red China will suffer privations that, according to Western authorities, may not decrease unless the Communists are willing to backtrack in their rush to become an overnight industrial power.

While these experts estimate the number of hungry at 200,000,000 they profess that the figure could be another 50,000,000 "either way."

The Chinese regime has aired much of its economic problems, but it is suspected of trying to hide serious shortcomings, particularly gross mismanagement of cooperatives.

Millions upon millions of otherwise fertile acres were totally abandoned. The loss of crops is causing serious belt-tightening in big cities like Shanghai and Peiping.

In increasing pitch, the regime has demanded that China's 600,000,000 people observe austerity. They are aiming particularly at the cities, and at the peasants in eastern and central China and in Manchuria.

Chinese are individualists, particularly those who work the land. What effect the famine—and there are indications that almost 100,000 persons already have died of starvation—and callous exhortations chairman Mao Tse-tung's headlong rush to collectivize the peasantry.

One result, as related by the official Peiping People's Daily, is a terrible shortage of farm animals because peasants refuse to "regard the public draft animal as they did their private animals."

Another reason the peasants have not been delivering is a shortage of feed. Another is the lack of incentive and the temptation to withhold foods for the black market.

China was plagued by famine in 1953, 1955 and again this year. No authoritative sources suggest that the masses of China may be nearing an explosion point of dissatisfaction.

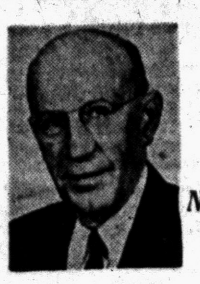

are having, is difficult to gauge.

It always had been considered a crime to export foodstuffs in hard-pressed China. Yet the Communists have been doing it at a rate that probably has no parallel in Chinese history.

The result, even aside from the natural calamities of 1956, is a chronic shortage of food, causing inflation, black marketeering and thievery on a scale unprecedented since the Reds took over the government in 1949.

Bob Considine Says:

Aides Pleased to See Ike Riled Up

NEW YORK (INS) — The President is slow to anger, but once he gets his dander up he can hit a ceiling as well as the next man. To the relief of his inner circle, that dander is rising. He was full of fight for what he believes is right about his budget, in his press conference.

★ ★ ★

His previous mood was that of conciliator between the pros and the cons. Now he shows every willingness to p u n c h his way through to a decision, win or lose. His appetite to lead has returned.

It's all arranged. Some 3,500 children will be lost at July 4 picnics, says Paul D. Graning, executive vice president of the National Dairy Queen Development Co. of Davenport, Iowa.

He is making arrangements to have his company, which distributes soft ice cream through 12,000 agencies, supply each lost child with a cone of the soft stuff.

★ ★ ★

After which the recovered kid will stick close to anybody or anything.

COWBOY CITY

There's a place at Farmingdale, N.J., named Cowboy City, that bills itself as the only Western town in the East.

★ ★ ★

There's a lively rata-tata-rata-tata of gunplay out the windows of the ol' Copper Creek narrow gauge railroad when the James boys hold her up between Dead Horse Gulch and the place where the soft ice cream is oozing out of the machine.

★ ★ ★

Bottle warming service available.

People who believed organized crime vanished under the hooves and rhetoric of the Kefauver committee have been jarred of late. Frank Costello nearly gets rubbed out by the paid killer of a mob he probably knows very well.

The "retired" gambler ("I'm a philanthropist . . . a b u s i n e s s man") is carrying a slip indicating a $600,000 business for a casino when he's pinked.

Mickey Cohen, the prototype hood, speaks on Mike Wallace's TV show of g a m b l i n g takes running up to $650,000 a day, a business protected by somebody "stronger than the mayor" of Los Angeles.

LANGUAGE TRIAL

The English language goes on trial in New York in several weeks. Seems that a man named Tom Ferrara opened a restaurant along New York's famed Steak Row — on East 45th street — and gave it a name which he hoped would attract those who eat beef. He called it the Beefeater.

Nothing doing, said the Beefeater gin people, and slapped an injunction on the awning. The word's in the dictionary, Signor Ferrara's lawyers complain. It means one who eats beef, not one who drinks gin.

The case, which promises to be the Hall-Mills case of semantics, has aroused much debate in local chop houses, during which time much beef and Beefeater is being consumed.

If Ferrara loses the case, he plans to call his place the Ivory Tower, at least until the soap people padlock him.

Eighty-one-year-old Chancellor Adenauer, Ike's weekend guest, was asked when he plans to retire from German politics. "I've already had my retirement," the ramrod-straight statesman replied. "Twelve years under the Nazis."

Ike Goes to the People but Result Is Doubtful

President Dwight D. Eisenhower has now "gone to the people" twice in an effort to win support for his record $71.8 billion budget. Each time his television and radio address was beamed primarily at the people of the country, although it was also destined for serious and thoughtful consumption in the District of Columbia.

They aren't all he wished.

★ ★ ★

In his second talk, the President made an all-out pitch for his foreign aid program. He declared that pooling resources with foreign countries was the most economical way to establish the worldwide defenses which we need. Some Congressmen declared they would take up the cudgel in behalf of the President's position, while others asserted the total was too great and should be reduced by amounts that ranged between half a billion and a billion dollars.

★ ★ ★

In fact, the President showed a flash of real fire when he announced summarily that Republicans who sought to block his program would be disappointed at the endorsements and support they received from the White House in the next Congressional elections. Apparently the Chief Executive is settling down for a stern struggle with no quarter conceded.

★ ★ ★

As this newspaper has said before, we believe the nationwide protest against the current budget was the most all-embracing and the most unanimous of any that we recall. Dissatisfaction stemmed from all sides. It was never confined to any particular cult or ism.

Congress continued discussions in both houses that centered on reductions. The President's party did not rally notably behind his call for suport. When the voters back home became sufficiently vocal, presidents, kings and all else are relegated to a lesser position.

Always there are protests against new measures and new bills. That's a part of a Congressman's life and is philosophically accepted as such. However, in this instance, the clamor was widespread. It never suggested a small, disgruntled element.

★ ★ ★

Probably the overall picture will be a compromise. It is dead certain the President will not get his full $71.8 billion. On the other hand, it would appear now as though the projected five billion cut (and even as much as eight) is too high. The final results will probably see around three and a half to four billion dollars lopped off. This isn't as much as the people demanded, but it is less than what President Eisenhower said was necessary.

Surely there will be no income tax reductions in 1957.

'The Worm Turns'

"Revenge" is a harsh word.

"Retribution" has unpleasant connotations.

However, the sympathy for Ingrid Bergman in her present dilemma is apt to be slight and fleeting at best. Certainly no one wishes misfortune for Miss Bergman or anyone else. It isn't the way we are taught to think. But if anyone ever asked for a major domestic disaster, it's this self-same Miss Bergman.

After the first news dispatch suggesting that Rossellini was giving Ingrid the pitch for a new love, there were denials from several quarters. Then it appeared that the latest lady in the Italian's life had left her husband and was living in the next hotel room in India.

Of course, this isn't complete proof of misadventure, but it requires a tremendous amount of rapid and convincing explanations. Few would volunteer for the assignment.

Now Rossellini has booked passage from Bombay to Rome for both of them. The gal in the deal is an Indian and a great moral wave has swept the country, demanding that she be wrenched from the clutches of this infamous lover.

★ ★ ★

Well, maybe they can pry her loose, but that doesn't solve Miss Bergman's plight particularly. First, she lived with Rossellini until her "delicate condition" became too obvious. Then she made a public statement and renounced her husband in this country, said a sort of farewell to her daughter and after a messy divorce that was thoroughly publicized, she married the movie magnate.

★ ★ ★

She was variously pilloried and wept over, depending on your viewpoint. The first named action far exceeded the latter, but through it all she maintained a reasonable aplomb and slowly returned somewhat to favor. In fact, she was awarded a trophy for an outstanding performance and flew to America to accept it. Her reception here was friendly and forgiving—save that her 17-year-old daughter made no attempt to see her.

★ ★ ★

Now her legal and illegal lover seems to have turned the same trick again and this time she's the wronged and injured victim.

Again we say, we ask no misfortune for anyone. At the same time, the latest turn of affairs can't have been a complete surprise or shock to her, for she can always recall just how she wooed the man herself.

Nature Center Building at Oakland County Park

Oakland County now has one of the best wild life study sanctuaries in the nation. The recent opening of the new Nature Center building at Kent Lake Park, just south of Milford, makes it possible for all of us to see the exhibits and learn first hand about what few of us really do know about the flora and fauna of our own area.

It is open to the public from two to four o'clock Monday through Friday, on Saturday from ten to four o'clock, and Sundays from one to four o'clock. Admission, of course, is free.

For school groups the nature center bridges the gap between class room and field. Advance reservation is necessary for all groups, and may be made by writing the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, Detroit 29, or by phoning them at Detroit WOodward 1-5865. A park naturalist takes charge of the groups. Park Superintendent

"It Seems to Have Calmed Down Somewhat"

David Lawrence Says:

Huge Budget Halts Red Infiltration

WASHINGTON — Vice President Nixon thinks that the biggest danger that confronts the free world today is not a defeat in a shooting war—he believes America can win such a war—but the infiltration and penetration by the Communists in the "uncommitted" countries, with 700,000,000 people.

LAWRENCE

Nixon, who spoke on the Federal budget in Chicago on April 30 and in Hartford, Conn., on May 14, has just delivered his third punch in behalf of President Eisenhower. Having recently come back from some of the underdeveloped areas of the world, the vice president portrays vividly the situation there in relation to the security of the United States.

Nixon points out that critics of the Federal budget have overlooked a salient fact—that "eighty per cent of the increase is directly attributable to the higher prices the government has to pay for both material and personnel." But his most significant statement, which is a challenge as well as a disclosure of what's going on in Washington, was couched in even more pointed phrases, as follows:

"Unless Congress decides to discontinue domestic programs it previously has approved, budget cuts as high as five to six billion dollars, which some have suggested, cannot be made unless the items for national defense are substantially reduced. Anyone who contends otherwise is just kidding himself and the public as well — because approximately 75 per cent of the entire Federal budget goes for the Defense Department, Atomic Energy Commission, interest on the national debt, foreign aid and other defense-related items."

Nixon contends that any cut of the defense budget below 38 billions would be "a reckless and foolhardy action which on sober reflection the American people will not and should not support."

He adds that the four billions to be spent in mutual security programs and economic assistance are "as essential a part of our national defense as the 38 billion dollars we spend for our Army, Navy and Air Force at Home." He argues that, despite waste and mistakes, "we are getting more for our money in security for the United States in what we are spending abroad than we are in what we are spending at home."

GET THERE FIRST

The vice president predicts that the Communists will obtain a strong hold on the "uncommitted" countries unless America gets there first and wins the people to our side. The expenditure of about one billion dollars in that field, out of the four billion for foreign aid, is supported by him as a necessary risk to be taken in the "Cold War" because the stakes are so important. He declares that there is "no expenditure being made by our government which is more essential to our national security than this one."

Nixon warns, however, that "this is no time to announce to the Communists and the world that we are tired of the struggle."

What the vice president didn't refer to in this particular speech, but which the President has emphasized, is that the free countries have spent more than 107 billion dollars for defense against Communism since the close of World War II and that the United States has furnished them with about 17 billions in assistance.

This answers the argument that America is doing it all and that the other nations are not as concerned with their own defense against the Communist mence as they should be.

As the debate on the budget goes on, it is apparent that those on the attacking side have generalized that the waste in governmental operations amounts to many billions of dollars and that a tax cut of that sum can be obtained. Actually, it now appears that even the Democratic leaders are unwilling to try to pass a tax-reduction bill at this session of Congress and will not be pinned down as to whether or when they will propose one after next January.

While a tax reduction—if the budget were cut by as much as six billion — would mean a saving to every taxpayer of about $78, it could be at a cost later of such a weakened defense in a possible war, as to wipe out overnight any such saving.

LI'L ONES

"May I go home now, Miss Stamler, if I promise to pass along your phone number?"

Dr. William Brady Says:

Best Way to Save Teeth: Use Them for Chewing

Reader, 43 years of age, has visited her dentist two to four times each year for the past nine years. On her last visit, the dentist did not fill any teeth and suggested she just let them go until they hurt and then he would have to extract all of them.

DR. BRADY

She admits that her gums have been receding... Now, remember, I'm only an M. D. (Doctor of Medicine) and "P.H.D." (Doctor of Personal Health). It is not my intention to invade the domain of the dentist.

On the other hand, I submit that the diagnosis, prognosis, and treatment of so-called pyorrhea alveolaris calls for medical as well as dental knowledge and skill.

The reader says her gums are receding. Well, that is inevitable if the teeth are not used enough for chewing. It is the way of all gums in this modern world of namby-pamby, refined, "purified" food.

Atrophy, shrinking, or receding or the gums, formation of pus pockets, and loosening of the teeth in their sockets are familiar signs of pyorrhea. But pyorrhea itself is not primarily a disease.

★ ★ ★

It is degeneration of gum tissues, tooth-socket linings, jaw muscles, bones, vessels, and nerves, from insufficient use of the masticating machinery.

SIGN OF INCOMPETENCE

Extraction of one tooth or several or all the remaining teeth is no treatment at all. It is a confession of the dentist's and/or physician's incompetence or lack of interest.

★ ★ ★

If what the reader says is true — that all her upper and lower teeth are perfect — I can't understand why her dentist wants to extract them.

Let no one infer that I have a cure for pyorrhea. All the advice I can give in reference to pyorrhea is in the way of prevention. For this, consult Little Lesson No. 1, Save Your Teeth, for which send 35c and stamped, self-addressed envelope.

The reader is only 43 years old. Evidently she has had trouble with her gums and teeth for nine years. A sad history. At 35 to 40, a woman should be at her best in every way.

What has the lady been chewing all these years? Refined white bread with the crust trimmed off? Orange juice without any pulp? Mashed potato?

One with any sign of pyorrhea should make a point of eating a large green salad or a reasonable quantity of raw vegetables, greens, or fruit every day; make nuts and peanuts part of his everyday diet; eat whole fruit; and take no dessert except fruit.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Church Ritual Can Be Excessive

Aaron offers some stimulating challenges to both the Catholic and Protestant branches of the Christian Church. Debate his arguments next Sunday, for it is possible for ritual to clutter up theology to the point where newcomers can't see the basic ethical principles because of the folderol.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case U-389: Aaron S., aged 29, is a Hebrew who attended my Bible Class recently.

"Dr. Crane, it seems to me that various religions are spending too much time on non-essential bits of ritual," he began.

CRANE

I have felt vaguely dissatisfied so have been visiting different churches the past year, trying to find some solution to my problem.

"My own Hebrew religion opposes the use of pork. But Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, as well as Joseph and the other leaders of my people for the first 400 years of their recorded history, apparently ate hog meat freely.

"Furthermore, I have visited Catholic and Protestant Churches. I find that the Roman Catholics and the high Episcopalians veto the use of any meat but fish on Friday.

"But Christ ate beef and chicken and lamb and mutton on Friday and it was no sin. And so did all the early Christians, including Peter and Paul.

"So why is so much fuss made nowadays about such a trivial bit of ritual?

"Some of your Christian churches condemn a man to everlasting punishment if he isn't baptized correctly. But what is the correct form?

"Some churches use sprinkling. Others pour water on the head of the penitent. A third group demand complete immersion.

"And then there are still others which say that baptism is just an outward public symbol of an inner change of personality, so they let you take your choice and be baptized by any of those three methods.

"Today in your Bible class, moreover, you mentioned the feuding in Northern Indiana between members of a sect which opposed the use of buttons on clothing and insist on the use of hooks and eyes, exclusively.

"You said they even banned the button users from their church. Well, do you think God pays attention to such petty quibbling?

★ ★ ★

"It is discouraging to me to see so much emphasis placed on petty details.

"How can a deep religious faith be based on buttons or fish vs. non-fish menus or pork vs. non-pork meat courses at the table?

"Did your Christ stress these picayune things? If not, why do His churches get sidetracked on such minor items of ritual?"

CHALLENGE TO CHURCHES

This young man has certainly placed a very common challenge before all churches. You readers might discuss his remarks next Sunday.

I urged Aaron to read the first four books of the New Testament for himself and see how little emphasis Jesus placed on ritual.

Christ was a basic thinker who stressed primarily the fact we should love God with all our hearts and our neighbors as ourselves.

The latter code has been called the Golden Rule.

But most of the ritual that is seen in various Christian churches was not even mentioned by Jesus. Jesus stuck to fundamentals. He preached as a man's man, rather than as an effeminate personality.

Itis usually women who scallop the edges of grapefruit and write etiquette books and make much of folderal, and thus stress ritual.

Much of the excessive ritual of churches is thus probably due to feminine influence. This doesn't mean women rule the churches, but many old men grow sexless in their declining years and thus are half female in their psychology.

Excessive ritual may often be traced to old men who have lost their virile stress on fundamentals and have become somewhat sissy in outlook.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Children's Carts in Stores Nuisance, Mother Says

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

A note on the carts they have for kids to push in stores. They are a nuisance because all the kids do is run up and down aisles and into people. Agree, mothers and dads?

'Elvis Gives Public Music It Wants'

So Old Feller thinks Elvis is no good, huh? Well, frankly I prefer him to Gisele MacKenzie any day. He should know that Gisele sings rock 'n' roll too. After all, doesn't a singer give the public what it wants to hear? Teenagers buy most of the records and if they want to hear rock 'n' roll, that's what Elvis will give them.

Earlier Writer Gets Answers

Someone says five per cent of the people have 95 per cent of the income. Government figures have shown this completely false. Furthermore, if 100 per cent of the big incomes were taken in taxes, it would hardly affect the economy. These figures have been printed time after time.

Accountant

A writer says "I'm working for the richest company in the world and yet it can't provide full employment." I suppose he means General Motors. Would he have the company build a thousand cars a day that they can't sell? Where would they put them? What would they use for wages when their money had been paid out and they had automobiles that couldn't be sold?

This reminds me of the big laugh a few years ago when Chevrolet was down rather sharply. Someone wrote all the papers and suggested Chevrolet make their peak rate of cars and store the unsold ones in the Fair grounds at Detroit as this was a large place and would hold thousands and thousands. What would they do with these "new" cars when the next models came out?

Volunteers Help With Pigeons

If Sorehead will coax all the pigeons in Pontiac into one big package, I will personally transport them to any part of the state. But I honestly believe that New York City woman who gave them bread will be the one who wakes up in the morning with a light heart, smiling face and she will hear sweet music instead of sparrows, pigeons, dogs and cats. It isn't those things that bother me. It's people.

Two Comment on City Hospital

Pontiac being a General Motors city, wouldn't it be nice if GM would donate the money to finish our Pontiac General Hospital?

Ol Herb

I can't understand people in Pontiac making such a fuss about paying their share of finishing the hospital. Those who holler about paying taxes are usually the ones who spend a great deal more in a beer garden rather than pay their share of the cost of the hospital, which will help them more than a beer garden.

'Budget's High, Peace or War'

I am a reader of your paper and have been for several years. I must say I think your paper is wonderful except very biased. The people aren't as well informed as they might be on the proposed budget. It is higher than any of Roosevelt's, higher than several war years and higher than Truman's peacetime deficit-spending years.

Michigan Week Inspires Letter

This is Michigan Week, and we have a lot of which we can be thankful and proud. Michigan seems to have everything to make it a delightful place in which to live. I have traveled all over the United States, Mexico and Canada and have never seen anything to compare with Michigan. If I were obliged to pick a state in which to live and never leave its boundaries, I certainly would choose Michigan.

Approves Banning Alcohol Flavoring

It is commendable that people are becoming concerned about selling "near beer" to minors and that a bill to prohibit it would also prohibit sale to minors of soda pop, milk shake, etc., with alcohol in its flavoring.

Many of us use non-alcoholic flavors and find them fine. It might be a good idea to take the foot of the liquor business out of the door they seem to be trying to open for alcohol in drinks, candy and other things sold to children.

Schools Open on Saturday?

17 GOP Freshmen Ask for Fuller Utilization of Present Facilities

LANSING (AP) — Seventeen freshmen Republican legislators have called on school officials at all levels to take a closer look at available facilities to see if they can be put to fuller use.

A six-day school week was one suggestion.

The proposal was offered in a resolution yesterday as one way to help solve problems of enrollments growing at a faster pace than facilities can be built to accommodate them.

"You hear of one school construction bond issue after another being turned down, and yet our school enrollments are going up at a faster rate each year," said Rep. Ralph H. Young (R-East Lansing), sponsor of the resolution.

"We don't presume to tell school officials what to do, but we think they might re-examine their facilities to see if they can't do more about utilizing them to a greater extent."

The resolution noted that most schools now operate nine or 10 months a year and 40 hours a week.

"Perhaps they could go on a six-day week in some cases, or go on a double shift basis," Young said. "Classes might start at 7 a.m. instead of eight and go on as late as 9 or 10 at night."

Young, former athletic director at Michigan State University, said MSU operated on a six-day week during World War II, enabling students to obtain their degree in three years instead of four.

★ ★ ★

Young said schools are so closely tied to traditional schedules that little thought apparently has been given to schedule changes.

Thief Vaults Counter, Grabs Money, Doughnut

DETROIT (AP)—An athletic thief amazed waitress Jane Braden, 38, by vaulting over the counter and snatching $13.48 from the cash register.

Mrs. Braden told police the thief jumped back over the counter but paused to snatch a doughnut and then fled down the street with the money in one hand and the doughnut in the other.

Indian-Killing Movies Banned in South Korea

The Education Ministry's ban followed a recent statement by President Syngman Rhee that America should "stop making movies showing the killing of American Indians."

Rhee contended such films make the United States look colonialist, a bad thing in Asia.

California Gets Hearst Castle as Memorial

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (INS) — The Hearst Corporation has presented a series of gifts to the state of California, including the famed Hearst castle at San Simeon in San Luis Obispo County complete with its priceless art treasures.

Gov. Goodwin J. Knight said he was "pleased and gratified" over the gifts which will constitute a memorial to the late William Randolph Hearst, noted publisher, to be received by the state in the name of his mother, Mrs. Phoebe Apperson Hearst.

The gifts include the hilltop buildings and structures of the famous ranch known as La Cuesta Encantada, with their furnishings and art works, and 120 acres of grounds.

The legislature several years ago adopted a resolution agreeing to accept the property as a historical monument.

Frontier-Day Buildings Razed

Fire Sweeps Tombstone

TOMBSTONE, Ariz. (AP) — Fire swept through the historic downtown area of Tombstone yesterday, burning out three buildings dating back to the frontier days, and threatening the Tombstone Epitaph and the Crystal Palace saloon.

Asst. Fire Chief Clayton Smith, who also edits the Epitaph, gave a preliminary estimate of loss at about $100,000. No one was hurt and there was no firm indication of the cause of the fire. Smith said it began in a storeroom.

The blaze began in the Cattlemen's and Miners' bar and raced through Win's cafe and Sanders grocery. On one side it stopped at a firewall protecting the Crystal Palace, on the other it was blocked before hitting the Tombstone cafe. The fire was under control two hours later.

The walls of the old adobe buildings, dating back to the 1880s when the Clantons and the Earps fought the battle of the OK Corral, were still standing after the blaze. But Smith said the grocery was a total loss and the bar and the cafe were severely damaged inside by water, fire and falling roofs.

★ ★ ★

The fire raced across the antiquated wooden roofs, made of thatched logs and branches. The wood was covered by sheet metal, and firemen had to hack through it to pour water onto the blazing wood.

Thus the local efforts to preserve the historic buildings in this "town too tough to die" had sown the very seeds of their destruction.

2 Die in Detroit Traffic

DETROIT (AP)—Two traffic fatalities were recorded in Detroit Thursday. Daniel R. Hawskins, 46, was killed when his cab crashed into a railroad guard rail. Lloyd McLean, 32, of Garden City died of injuries suffered when the car he was driving crashed into another car which was waiting to make a left turn.

Texas Politicians Disregard Rule on Proper Attire

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—It got so hot on the last day of the Texas Legislature's 55th session that House Speaker Waggoner Carr abandoned a long-standing rule of attire.

★ ★ ★

With the temperature reading 90 degrees yesterday, Carr shucked his suit coat and said, "there's such a thing as being foolish in decorum. I'll recognize anyone who removes his coat."

★ ★ ★

Without such permission, a member seeking recognition would be subject to a point of order that he was not properly attired.

★ ★ ★

Carr ruled out a request that page boys, mostly 9 to 12 years old, be allowed to take off their ties and unbutton their shirts in addition to removing their coats.

★ ★ ★

"These things have a habit of going from one extreme to another," Carr explained. "I know boys." He has a seven-year-old son.

Woman Claims Jet Damaged Her Home

DALLAS (AP)—The jet age went to court yesterday when a woman claimed an airplane damaged her house and caused her to be injured.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Donovan Winslow, formerly of Mabank, Tex., who now lives in Dallas, filed a $12,500 damage suit in U. S. District Court against Chance Vought Aircraft, Inc. She claimed her home was damaged in December.

★ ★ ★

She said in her petition a jet plane was "propelled too close to earth . . . or propelled so high it pierced the sound barrier. . . causing a rush of wind of tornadic force. . .

★ ★ ★

"The plaster on the ceiling and walls cracked and was shaken loose. There was a loosening of joints and beams." The petition said she was thrown to the floor and injured.

A spkesman for the aircraft company said attorneys for the firm were not available for comment.

Higher Than Man Has Ever Ascended by Balloon

Air Force Officer to Hang Suspended in Capsule 18 Miles Above Earth

By RICK RAPHAEL
Alamogordo Daily News

ALAMOGORDO, N.M. (AP)—Within the next few hours a young Air Force officer will hang suspended in a sealed capsule 18 miles above the earth — higher than man has ever ascended by balloon — and remain at that altitude for the longest period in history.

But this extraordinary altitude ascent will only be a final test for the first venture of man into the last tenth of earth's atmosphere for a prolonged stay of 24 hours.

Wind and weather conditions permitting, 31-year-old Air Force Capt. Joseph W. Kittinger will squeeze into a three-foot-wide and seven-foot-tall aluminum capsule Saturday morning and rise to 95,000 feet above Minneapolis, Minn.

Kittinger, assigned to the Holloman Air Development Center's aeromedical laboratories here will only be testing the equipment for another even higher ascent to be made in early June by Maj. David G. Simons.

★ ★ ★

Sealed and isolated from humanity except by invisible threads of radio communication, Simons will drift at 110,000 feet — more than 20 miles high — for 24 hours in one of the most grueling tests of human reaction ever devised.

Both Simons and Kittinger have been months in training for the flight which will break all balloon altitude records.

Guiding genius for "Operation Manhigh" is Col. John P. Stapp, head of Holloman's aeromed labs who himself gained world fame for his high-speed sled runs.

Crammed in the pill-shaped man-carrying capsule will be as many metering and monitoring devices as the labs could pack, while cameras, telescopes, and other data-gathering gimmicks of both military and civilian science will stud the exterior.

Riding in the narrow cylindrical capsule, each man will be carried aloft by a specially-designed 200-foot balloon developed by the Winzen Research Co. The balloon is made of polyethelene plastic, 15-thousandths of an inch thick and inflated at maximum with three million cubic feet of nonexplosive helium.

Each man will wear a pressure suit and heavy coveralls, and the gondola itself will be pressurized.

Apart from the breath-taking altitudes planned, Col. Stapp said that he considered the flights "much safer than any heavier-than-aircraft flight at half the altitude."

Kittinger will go aloft and will remain up for approximately 12 hours in a final test of the equipment. His 95,000-foot altitude will top the previous world balloon mark made by another Air Force captain nearly 22 years ago.

At that time, Capts. Orville Anderson and Albert Stevens ascended to 72,394 feet above Rapid City, S. D.

Minneapolis has been chosen for the launch site because of maximum cosmic radiation which will be encountered in a flight there. Launching will probably take place from an abandoned, deep open cut iron mine which provides adequate shelter

Lawmakers Pass Bill on Justices

LANSING (AP)—A bill to standardize accounting practices of justices of the peace finally emerged from the legislature Wednesday with the adoption of conference committee recommendations.

The measure was an outgrowth of investigations by the state auditor general which in the last two years brought to light 37 cases in which JPs got badly tangled up in their bookkeeping. A few of the justices went to jail.

As finally approved, the bill would require maintenance of separate bank accounts by JPs as depositories for monies collected in fines and fees.

Disbursements from the accounts could be made only by check—in most cases to effect transfer of the funds to the county treasurer.

Justices would be required to make deposits into the accounts at regular intervals under a system designed to hold down on accumulations of public monies in their personal possession.

Senate and House adoption of another conference committee report completed passage of a bill to authorize school districts to acquire and maintain facilities for school bus service and storage.

The committee struck from the bill a provision inserted in the House that would have permitted extension of the legal school year from the present 180 to 185 days.

90 Years Ago, 'Magnetic' Springs Drew Horde of Sick and Ailing to Michigan

According to a rare book "Magnetic and Mineral Springs of Michigan," by Stiles Kennedy, published in 1872, the first such spring was established at St. Louis, Mich., in 1869.

A company boring in the earth for salt to establish a salt works discovered the water which was clear and barely tasted of alkline.

A resident discovered that his knife blade stuck to the iron pipe through which the water flowed. The pipe attracted and then held the blade like a magnet. Hundreds came to get their knives magnetized.

CONCEIVED IDEA

Kennedy says a sick person then conceived the idea that water and magnetism, if good separately for his disease, would be better still if combined. He began drinking the water and the people in the town saw him gradually recover.

★ ★ ★

In two months, Kennedy's book says, some 200 people came to St. Louis to drink the spring water.

Other wells were drilled and by 1870 some 60 wells, each of which was claimed to be magnetic, were in operation.

Scientists later explained the springs were not springs at all but artesian wells, Kennedy says.

CURED EVERYTHING

Testimonials gathered for the wells stated the waters cured cancer, tumors, nervous prostration, malaria, diabetes, St. Vitus dance and over-brainwork.

★ ★ ★

Springs attracting the sick were located in Alpena, Midland, Eaton Rapids, Spring Lake, Lansing, Fruit Port, Grand Rapids, Owosso, Grand Ledge, Hubbardston, Leslie, Flint and Ypsilanti.

Kennedy's book says that although several thousand people visited Michigan for the benefit of her springs during 1870-71, the supply of springs was in excess of the demand.

In order to keep people at some of these springs, Kennedy says proprietors resorted to the practice of sending out "runners" or men hired to travel on railroad lines entering the state.

"They are a plausible, smooth-tongued set of fellows, with very few scruples of conscience. Everyone has a long list of cures to talk about," the book says.

Zane Grey's Widow Applies for Benefits

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—The widow of western novelist Zane Grey has applied for old age benefits.

Mrs. Grey said yesterday she plans to continue working full time on publication of her late husband's works, and will give some of her benefits to charity. The remainder will go into an educational fund for her great grandchildren.

★ ★ ★

The Social Security office said she consented to publication of her application to help advise the public that monthly payments may be collected by persons over 72 no matter how much they earn.

Asked her age, Mrs. Grey said: "I'm past 72."

Attempts to Asphyxiate Noisy Cricket in Auto

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Sheriff's deputies investigating a suicide report found a closed automobile with motor running, and a hose from the exhaust pipe into the interior.

Detractors of Actress Thrive on Latest Gossip

I-Told-You-So's Echo Around Ingrid

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—The tragic part of the latest Ingrid Bergman Rossellini back-fence gossip is not so much what is happening to the beautiful Swede herself—but what is going on in the minds and mouths of her detractors.

★ ★ ★

The "I-told-you-so" factions are at work. Miss Bergman is big enough, intelligent enough, certainly experienced enough to take care of her own problem, whether it is truth or propaganda.

But the I-told-you-so's are already out of hand. Some of them are purists, others purely gossips, but they raise a raucous sound as they try to slaughter the black sheep.

Ingrid need only close her hotel room door and bolt up her courage, two arts at which she has become, perforce, proficient. But the folks back home have either to explode their tempers or plug their ears, depending upon which side of the back fence they stand sentinel.

For more than eight years, the country has been divided upon an issue that is not enough its own business to become such a national squabble.

Like rigid, over-protective parents whose daughters suddenly leave home and make it clear they like it, the more fanatically proper and prudent Americans have looked upon (and sounded off at) Ingrid with a brooding kind of dismay.

BETRAYED FAITH

She was a clean-cut, sweet lass who betrayed their faith. And her unorthodox, redoubtable experience was used as a symbol to other clean-cut, sweet lassies to beware of many things — from men in general to Italians in particular, from the wicked city of Hollywood, to the dangers of travel.

★ ★ ★

In making small speeches across the country, I have occasionally recounted the experience of interviewing Mrs. Rossellini shortly after her marriage, at which time she was filled with shy humility—but also with a happiness hard to find, I'd wager, in the eyes of her critics.

I have been amazed, frequently, to be charged, "Why do you even mention that woman?" The attitude of many: She's a disgrace to America.

It was always comforting to those on the sympathetic side of the fence to remember that Ingrid was not an American, so her undeniably unconventional behavior was not to be considered a national issue.

★ ★ ★

(In Scandinavian countries, the moral code is not as strict as ours, and the very fact that she bore an illegitimate child without subterfuge attested the fact that her deep philosophy in the matter was —if you will—"foreign" to American thought and procedure.)

FORCEFUL WEAPON

But the most forceful weapon held by those who tried to understand, or at least forgive, Ingrid's action was the fact that her marriage appeared to be a glowing concern.

★ ★ ★

No one could refute that, with her three children and seemingly eternal youth with Rossellini, she had at least—no matter how untrue to puritan principles — found a world that, for her, was better than most of us attain.

Now, with the gossip that Roberto is in love with another woman, the defense must rest, at least temporarily, and let the "I told you so's" meddle and muddle on.

Recently, Miss Bergman said she couldn't understand about Americans—"how one day they can beat you over the head so that you fall bloody to the ground and the next day say, "Who hit her?' "

★ ★ ★

By this time, it's surprising that she doesn't understand inhuman nature.

Adenauer Denies Russian Charge

BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government has emphatically denied that West Germany is being turned into an "aggressive atomic base."

Foreign Minister Henrich von Brentano handed Soviet Ambassador Andrei Smirnov a note replying to the Russian charge, made last month in a note to the Adenauer government.

★ ★ ★

The Russian communication was one of a series to NATO countries warning them that by permitting the stationing of nuclear weapons on their territory they faced fearful retaliation in the event of war.

★ ★ ★

Full of vim, vigor and V8 action

. . . the sweet, smooth and sassy new Chevy

It's plenty frisky, that's for sure. Tucked away under that neatly tailored hood is the perkiest power you ever put a toe to. But for all its high-spirited ways, Chevy's beautifully behaved.

Got any tough hills around where you live . . . the kind that make a car gasp for second wind? Turns that make a car sway-heavy? Well, they won't be there when you ride by in a new Chevrolet!

A car has to have a lot in the performance department to make a promise like that, and this one's waiting with all the response and vim it takes to back it up. Just check with anyone who's driven a new Chevy!

It's not a matter of power alone, this nimble Chevrolet performance, although the power's there, all right, in options up to 245 h.p.* It's also what goes along with the power . . . the solid way a Chevy is put together.

A Chevrolet sets its wheels foursquare on the road and keeps them there. It rides with a beautiful balance, steers with a relaxed touch and responds to the gentlest hint on the wheel. There's a key at your Chevrolet dealer's that will let you see a Chevy in action. Pick it up for awhile. See if you don't hang on to it for keeps.

*Optional at extra cost. A 270-h.p. high-performance V8 engine is also available at extra cost.

Right Answers Bring You $900 in Pot-O-Gold

Nine hundred dollars makes quite a bulge in anyone's pocket, and if you'd like yours to bulge a little more, get to work on this week's Pot-O-Gold contest. Where else can you spend your time having so much fun and make money at the same time? That's providing you arrive at the right solution, of course. Read the rules carefully to increase your possibilities of winning.

The new puzzle contains a series of squares which are alphabetically lettered and a corresponding list of sentences with two clue words. Each of the words is numbered. The object is to select the word which you think best fits the clue sentence. You then place the number of that word in the square which has the same letter as the clue sentence.

In other words, you will read the clue labeled A and decide which of the two words makes the most sense in the sentence. You then write the number of that word in the puzzle square marked A.

Jewish Couple Allowed to Keep Adopted Child

With those words, Gov. LeRoy Collins yesterday granted sanctuary in Florida to Mr. and Mrs. Melvin B. Ellis, the Jewish foster parents of 6-year-old Hildy, born of an unwed Catholic mother.

★ ★ ★

Massachusetts—which has tried for four years to take the child away from the Ellises under a law requiring adoptions within religious faiths where possible—charged the Ellises with kidnaping Hildy.

A crowded hearing room applauded. There were tears in many eyes. One of Ellis' attorneys, Ben Cohen, wiped a handkerchief across his face.

With joy shining through tears of relief, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis thanked the governor, the men and women of newspapers, radio and television who helped tell their story and the many thousands who wrote letters of encouragement.

The ordeal has cost the Ellises a home and a successful dry cleaning business in Masachusetts.

★ ★ ★

"But when I weigh it all against having Hildy safe and secure, I don't feel sorry," he said.

They rushed from the hearing directly to an airliner taking them back to Miami Beach and a reunion with Hildy. Today the child graduates from the first grade at Lear School there. Her mother announced proudly she is first in her class.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind. (AP) — The manager of the Indiana Bell Telephone and Telegraph outlet here is a little embarrassed — he doesn't have a telephone at his home.

"We expect to have a phone within 30 days," he said.

Authorities Fear Illinois Scandal

Public Funds Amounting to $444,000 Involved, State Officials Report

CHICAGO (AP) — Cook County (Chicago) authorities today investigated for leads in what one official termed "illegal and irregular" money transactions involving at least $444,000 in public funds.

★ ★ ★

The case was disclosed yesterday by County Treasurer Herbert C. Paschen. He and Cook County State's Atty. Benjamin Adamowski said transactions from a fund in the treasurer's office appear "illegal and irregular." Paschen said he had conducted a three-month private check of records.

"We began to find discrepancies and discovered that files were missing," Paschen said, "so I called in the state's attorney."

Adamowski said the case had "overtones of similarity with" the Hodge scandal," the free-spending escapade in which Orville Hodge, then state auditor, milked some 2½ million dollars from the state treasury before his thefts sent him to prison. Adamowski said the money involved might reach $750,000.

Paschen's disclosures brought swift action. A county grand jury subpoenaed records of two former county treasurers, a court reporting firm, two legal publications and an attorney. Two veteran employes of the treasurer's office were suspended.

★ ★ ★

They are Christ E. Peterson, 57, head bookkeeper and a treasurer's office employe since 1939, and Milton Baer, 55, supervisor of the foreclosure department who has been in the office since 1932.

Medical Director May Quit Detroit

DETROIT (INS) — The medical director of the Wayne County board of health said he plans to resign from his $16,000-a-year job because he feels board members lack confidence in him.

Dr. Howard Cadwell said he had been called "a good doctor but a poor administrator," by Charles E. Brake, chairman of the board.

The 32-year-old physician, who took over his present post in March 1954, said he has offers of several jobs he can accept when he resigns as director.

Dr. Cadwell said the principal complaint leveled against him by board members was his failure to submit a program to the county board of supervisors that would increase the department's $612,000 budget.

Board Chairman Brake indicated that Dr. Cadwell's resignation would be accepted if offered, but said no comment could be made on the reported resignation until the board's meeting next Wednesday.

To Test Teen Motorists

Slate Waterford Driving Road-E-O

The fourth annual Teenage Road-E-O to be held in Waterford Township, will get under way at 1 p. m. Sunday at the high school parking lot.

★ ★ ★

It is sponsored by the Waterford Township Junior Chamber of Commerce, and all girls and boys up to 20-years of age with a driving permit, or license, have been invited to participate, according to Edward Kuhn, chairman.

Invitations have been extended to Clarkston, Ortonville and West Bloomfield Township youths, and a large number of contestants are expected to test their driving capability in four 1957 cars.

A similar event, sponsored by the Pontiac Jaycees, is scheduled for the Tel-Huron parking lot Sunday afternoon.

★ ★ ★

There is absolutely no speed involved in the Road-E-O, Kuhn said. "This is strictly a skill-testing contest, along with proving the teenager's ability on the obstacle course," he added.

★ ★ ★

A big deal is in store for the winner. He will be qualified to enter the state meet to be held in Detroit in June.

The successful candidate from the Waterford Township meet, will be a guest at a Detroit hotel over the weekend, see a Tiger baseball game, and be an honored guest of the Waterford Township Jaycees.

Charles Bolden, a senior at Waterford Township High School was last year's local winner, and has entered as a contestant again this year.

Among the local judges will be Police Chief Frank VanAtta and State Trooper Gerald Tafel.

Cash to Boost Mental Health

County to Benefit From Budget Hike Advanced by Committee

A slight increase in current operating budgets was promised Oakland County's mental health facilities by a House-Senate conference committee today.

The committee boosted Senate-approved appropriations for the entire state mental health program by $1,057,000, generally following the lines laid down by the House.

The House conferees, however, agreed to drop 61 personnel from their version of the bill, leaving the mental health budget at $63,330,000.

The cuts affect Pontiac State Hospital which would have received six new employes under the House verison.

$100,000 MORE

The state's 17 Child Guidance clinics will receive $700,329, about $100,000 more than the Senate has agreed to, but some $90,000 less than the governor had requested.

★ ★ ★

The Oakland Child Guidance Clinic will be able to maintain its present level of service under the new figure, said Mrs. Lawrence Martz, of Bloomfield Township, board chairman, but will probably not be able to expand with the growing need.

The compromise bill also gives Lafayette Clinic, Detroit, and Hawthorne Center, Northville, the approximate sum their directors had requested.

Map Use of Land in Four Counties

A master plan for future use in Oakland, Wayne, Macomb and Monroe counties was approved yesterday by the executive committee of the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission.

Paul M. Reid, executive director, said the plan would be used to co-ordinate development of land for industrial, residential, commercial and public use in the metropolitan area.

Included in the plan are four eastern townships of Washtenaw County.

Reid said the plan would be submitted for approval June 27 at a meeting of the full Regional Planning Commission.

Boy Run Over by Car Reported in Fair Shape

Robert Blecker, 16, of 5560 Oakwood Rd., Oxford, is in "fair" condition at Hurly Hospital in Flint today after suffering injuries when he fell from the fender of a car and was run over yesterday.

Blecker was riding on the front fender of a car driven by Ronald E. Brown, 17, of 969 Lakeville Rd., Oxford, when he slipped off and was run over before Brown could stop the car, said Oakland County Sheriff Deputies. The accident occurred on Hummer Lake Road about one half mile west of Hurd road, in Brandon Township.

Jury Still Debates Verdict on Singer

DETROIT (INS)—A jury of 10 women and two men resumed deliberations today in the first degree murder trial of Philip J. Singer, accused of the 1953 slaying of JoAnn Gillespie.

The jury spent the night at the Ft. Wayne Hotel in Detroit. They were sent to the hotel at shortly before 11 p.m. after failing to reach a decision during more than six hours deliberation.

Buses took the jurors to their homes and for any effects they might need before being lodged at the hotel.

Recorder's Judge Gerald W. Groat, before ordering the recess, sent an officer to the jury room to ask the foreman, Harry Rowley, if there was a chance of a verdict "very soon."

Rowley answered, "decidedly no."

The prosecution's case during the three weeks of testimony placed heavy emphasis on Singer's confessions, which the 37-year-old ex-Marine repudiated.

Defense Counsel G. Leslie Field cited an alibi provided by Mrs. Gladys Yocum, Singer's former girl friend, his client's record as a serviceman and the absence of any physical evidence that would place the defendant at the scene of the crime.

City's Story-Tellers Spin Yarns at Third Annual Dinner Meeting

Pontiac Press Photos

Spinning yarns and telling tales come naturally to members of the Pontiac Story-Tellers League.

At their third annual dinner meeting held Thursday at Hotel Waldron, members delighted their guests with tales of laughter and tears. Some of the tales were designed only to make the audience laugh, while others were thought-provoking.

The growth of the league has been rapid, with members giving 230 hours of service in story-telling during the past year, President Mrs. Robert Boggs announced.

Guest story-teller was Mrs. Clifford Ketchum of the Detroit Story-Tellers League, who told "The Denominational Garden"—a tale of comedy and depth. "The Elephant's Child," which has a moral, too, is a very amusing tale of the too, too curious elephant.

★ ★ ★

Local story-tellers were Mrs. Theodore Fauble, Laura Cobb and Mrs. Walter Hedley.

UNUSUAL CEREMONY

Mrs. Oscar Schmidt installed the officers in an unusual ceremony centered around a May basket theme.

As each officer was installed, she was presented with a nosegay from the basket. Then she was given a special flower representing her duty, which Mrs. Schmidt presented in story-telling fashion.

The new officers are Mrs. Boggs, president; Laura Cobb, vice president; Mrs. Fauble, treasurer; Julia Dalzell, corresponding secretary, and Grace Clark, recording secretary.

Announcement was made of the story festival to be held June 28 at Mrs. Hedley's home. Ann Arbor, Detroit, Royal Oak and Walled Lake leagues will be in attendance.

The regional convention will be held June 19-22 in Lexington, Ky.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Merrell Stephens, Mrs. Joseph Fouts, Mrs. William Dawson, Mrs. P. C. McGillvra, Mrs. H. H. Hanser, Mrs. John Hobart, Isabel Goodsen, Mrs. John Bailey, Mrs. Roger Cuneo and Doris Haines.

President of the Pontiac Story-Tellers League is Mrs. Robert Boggs (center) of Crescent Lake road. She is photographed with Mrs. Clifford Ketchum of Detroit, story-teller of the evening, and Mrs. William L. Smith, president of the Detroit Story-Tellers League.

Capital Food Displeasing to Epicure

By JANE EADS

★ ★ ★

"If I lived here I'd take a box lunch," the rosy, roly-poly epicure told me as he picked at a crab ravigotte during a luncheon meeting here.

"It's always roast turkeys and hams," he went on. "Everyone hires the same caterers, though I suppose you eat well at private residences and some embassies have their own great chefs."

Beard admits he lives to eat and eats to live. He prefers the food he whips up himself in the kitchen of his Greenwich Village apartment in New York.

★ ★ ★

DESSERT DRINK

As food consultant for the French cognac industry, he was here to show us the "latest way to drink your dessert."

★ ★ ★

Since it was strictly billed as a coffee and cognac party at 9 p.m. food was incidental and undistinguished by the Beard magic.

Guests were invited to sample several favorite versions of the coffee-cognac ritual with which the sophisticated continental diner invariably polishes off an elegant repast.

One called "Cafe Mayflower" added up to only 50 calories, "if you worry about such things."

★ ★ ★

This "drink dessert" was made by adding one-half ounce of cognac (only 37 calories) and a teaspoon float of whipped cream (13 calories) to a cup of black coffee (NO calories)!

CAFE ROYAL

Best known of the coffee and cognac combine, "Cafe Royal" was also sampled by thirsty guests.

★ ★ ★

Beard makes this by putting a lump of sugar in a teaspoon, sousing it in warmed cognac and lighting it before slipping it into the demitasse of hot coffee.

The simple procedure of alternating sips of cognac and coffee, Beard described as a "wedding of tastes and aromas" and favored by the true gourmet, along with the even simpler method of lacing a half ounce of cognac with the java.

Some folks take their cognac without coffee. Sir Winston Churchill, for instance, drinks his with just a "splash of soda," according to Beard.

Training for Instructors Arranged by Camp Fire

Mrs. Donald Beck, day camp director and field director for Camp Fire Girls in Pontiac, announces a training course for day camp instructors. An indoor training session is planned for Tuesday at 9:15 a.m. at the Red Cross Building on Franklin boulevard. It will continue until 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. Beck invites women interested in being leaders or assistant leaders to attend. An explanation will be given of what day camp is—its principles, purposes, policies, program planning and regulations covering camping and camp administration.

On June 6, the second training session will be held on the site of Camp Oweki on Gulick Lake east of Clarkston. A tour of the 120-acre camp will be conducted as hiking and nature study training. A luncheon cookout will incorporate fire building, various kinds of cooking fires and general outdoor safety.

★ ★ ★

Leaders work with 10 to 15 girls and plan their day-to-day activities. Mrs. Neil Wasserberger, director of Pontiac Camp Fire Girls, and Mrs. I. J. Davis are in charge of waterfront activities for the camp and Mrs. John Vanderlind is in charge of nature study.

Is Your Child Extra Intelligent?

NEW YORK — Learn to recognize the characteristics of an extremely bright child, for your child may be one of them.

There are only 500,000 extremely bright children in our elementary schools today, states the current issue of a national magazine.

These children—who may well be tomorrow's leaders, creators, scientists and engineers — they must be recognized early and given the proper chance to develop their powers and talents.

No child will possess all the traits presented by the article, but if your child has a number of them, the chances are that he is bright. Among the characteristics to look for are:

An early starter: Children who have learned to walk and talk at an early age. They become interested in reading very early, often with little or no training.

Insatiable curiosity: They ask more questions, more intelligently, more insistently and more persistently than other children do. At early ages they tend to develop unusual interests in encyclopedias, atlases and numbers; and in games that require thought like chess and checkers.

Younger than fellow students in same grade: They already mastered the curriculum to a point two full grades beyond the one in which they are enrolled. They have large vocabularies and very often unusual. They are particularly sensitive to words and ideas.

Don't feel apprehensive about raising a bright child, suggests the article. Accept them matter-of-factly, and let them have a long slow taste of the joys of childhood.

By answering questions and giving all your love and understanding, parents may develop bright children to the fullest extent of their amazing capabilities.

Exercise Suggested for Fat Upper Arms

Girl Should Lose About 15 Pounds

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
(The Friday Question Box)

Q. "I am 19 years old and have very fat arms. I weigh 134 pounds and am 5 feet 3 inches tall. Please tell me how to lose in my arms and give me some diet information."

A. You are around 15 pounds overweight. If you have a large frame you will not need to lose that much. You will lose in your arms as you lose generally. Eat a sensible, well-balanced diet, but eat smaller portions and no seconds. Leave off in between-meal snacks. Replace desserts with fresh fruit.

The following exercise is the best one I know for large upper arms: Stand tall. Raise your arms forward, shoulder height with the palms facing the ceiling. Now swing the arms down and back vigorously. Pull back as far as comfortable. Return arms to starting position and continue.

Q. "I am 17 years old. I have long hair which I brush faithfully and wash every three days since it is so oily. My hair seems to have stopped growing. My mother thinks that if I get it cut off it will grow longer. Will you please advise me about this?"

A. The length to which hair grows is an individual matter. Cutting the hair will have no influence on it. Brushing and scalp massage and good nutrition will promote the health of the hair.

Q. "I am curious because I always have to take my clothes in somewhere. I can never buy them to fit. I am 15 years old, 5 feet 1 inch tall and weigh 102 pounds. Will you tell me if I am underweight and about my measurements? My bust measures 33, waist, 22 and hips 33½ inches."

A. Your measurements are perfect. You are a little on the light side. Perhaps a gain of from 5 to 8 pounds will solve your problem.

Q. "Is there any way to get rid of wrinkles at the elbows?"

A. The skin is bound to wrinkle some, but if you will keep the elbows soft and pliable with lubrication it will make them more attractive. Massage a good cream into them each day or night.

Q. "I am 14 years old, 5 feet 5 inches tall and weigh 150 pounds. I would like to lose about 45 pounds within the next few months. How can I stop eating between meals?"

A. If you lost 45 pounds you would be underweight. However, you do need to lose around 30 pounds. Since you have so much weight to lose and are so young, I think it would be a good idea for you to have a physical check-up and reduce under your doctor's supervision.

Everytime you are tempted to eat between meals take a look at yourself in the mirror and think how much you would like to be slimmer. If you do eat between meals, make it fresh fruit.

★ ★ ★

If you would like my general teenage rules for losing weight, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for the leaflet No. 58 "Popularity." Address Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

This exercise is best for upper arms. Swing the arms back and forth vigorously. Pull back as far as comfortable.

Party Guest Leans Over to Sip Wine

Afraid to Lift Glass That's Been Filled to the Very Brim

By EMILY POST

A reader writes: "At a dinner party the other evening, my wine glass was filled to the very brim and, fearing that I would spill it all over my hostess's beautiful linen cloth, I leaned over and sipped the first mouthful from the glass without lifting it.

"After I did this, I felt the critical gaze of several of the guests on me and since then I have wondered whether I committed a breach of etiquette. Will you please tell me how I should have handled the situation?"

Answer: The fault was with whoever poured the wine, but I have to agree that leaning so far over as to have your chin practically touch the tablecloth was very strange.

If you could have steadied your arm against the table's edge and lifted the glass over your own plate, then you could have leaned over your plate and sipped the wine.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My mother is a doctor (M.D.). I would like to know about my wedding invitations and announcements. Should her name appear as Dr. or Mrs.?"

Answer: If she is a practicing physician and known to everyone as Dr. Smith, then your father's and her name together must be engraved as Mr. Henry and Dr. Mabel Smith.

If she has given up her practice or if she has always been known socially as Mrs. Henry, then this is the way her name should appear on the invitation and announcements.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When eating at a lunch counter, is it proper to ask a person who is sitting with an empty seat on either side of him to move over so that two friends may sit together?"

Answer: If the person is young and has not too many dishes in front of him, it would not be unreasonable to ask him if he would mind moving so that you and your friend can sit together.

Zonta Hears Progress Report

Auditorium Plans Outlined

Progress to date on plans for a civic auditorium was reported by John Hirlinger, secretary of the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce, at the Thursday luncheon meeting of Pontiac Zonta Club.

★ ★ ★

Through the efforts of the Greater Pontiac Advisory Council, a study made of auditoriums in various Michigan cities resulted in the drafting of charts for a building adapted to the needs of Pontiac.

Contemporary in structure, the building would serve the people and function for at least 12 activities essential to the growth of the community.

The tentative date for the dedication of the building is set for 1961, centennial year. "The attainment of this goal is up to the citizens of Pontiac," Mr. Hirlinger said in closing.

By JANET ODELL

Ever put spinach in meat loaf? Well, it's a new idea and if the name of the recipe is correct, we can credit the Italians for the suggestion.

Today's cook, Mrs. Herbert Rohn is interested in church work and in gardening.

High School Marriages Blamed on Going Steady

By RUTH MILLETT

"It started in the senior class and now our 10th and 11th graders are being bitten by the marriage bug. A number of them have already married and dropped out of school. And judging by the engagement rings and the mooning in classes, the epidemic isn't letting up."

What does this teacher blame for these early marriages that are interrupting educations, plopping kids into adult responsibilities when they should be enjoying the freedom of youth, putting an end to parental hopes and ambitions for sons and daughters?

She blames going steady for giving so many youths the idea they are ready for marriage long before they actually are.

★ ★ ★

"After all," she says, "where do you go from going steady but to marriage? It's just the next step."

FOOLISH PARENTS

She confesses that she would feel sorrier for the parents of these high school youths if they hadn't thrown up their hands when their children started going steady and said, "There's nothing we can do about it."

★ ★ ★

She figures that is just being short-sighted and irresponsible, and that any parent who lets a child start going steady at 14 shouldn't be surprised if the child gets married at 16.

Undoubtedly she has a point. Any parent who can't talk a 14-year-old out of going steady, can't really hope to talk him out of marriage when he is a few years older.

Youths who have never been made to wait for anything can hardly be expected to wait for marriage until they are old enough to make wise choices and to assume adult responsibilities.

Study Jobs Before Selecting One

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Too many of us make one big mistake. Whether we're job-hunting, buying a dress or choosing a book, we don't investigate enough.

We don't "try on" enough. Instead, we let ourselves slip into the first thing that comes along.

In fact, I know people who put more effort into planning a two-week vacation than they do in planning their entire career.

One big step that is overlooked is the matter of reading about various jobs and kinds of work.

We know about a few types of work — what our fathers, older brothers, sisters and friends do — but beyond that, we don't know anything.

Yet the vocational world is full of a number of things. We might find that the exact right job for us does really exist.

A GOLD MINE

The public library is a gold mine of information about fields where the grass is plenty green.

★ ★ ★

Another thing too many of us forget is that education is sometimes available on special grants or scholarships. I know young people who can't afford further education and so they give up and settle in a routine job.

Yet all the time, if they only knew, there are organizations offering special scholarships to people just like them.

"I finally broke down and took your advice," one young woman writes.

"We live in a rural area. About twice a month we drive in to the city—quite a long drive. My mother, sisters and I usually spend the two days shopping or at shows, but this time I broke down and spent my time in the library—and did I learn plenty!

ART SCHOLARSHIP

"Among other things, I looked up the book you mentioned called 'Your Opportunity' and I found that I can get a scholarship to study art!"

★ ★ ★

If you want to succeed in your job, do resolve to put a little effort into planning it.

Do get acquainted with your public library, your local bookshop, the good magazines. Start a scrapbook of articles from your newspaper and magazines, articles about different kinds of jobs.

Whether you're in school, or in a job you dislike, or a mother planning to work some day when the children are grown, begin a career scrapbook.

★ ★ ★

If you are interested in scholarships, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope, care of The Pontiac Press, and I'll tell you about the book, "Your Opportunity."

Up-to-the-Minute Fashion: a Wardrobe of Watches

BASLE, Switzerland (INS) — Women can now have an entire wardrobe of watches ranging from a "Bikini watch" for swimming to a jeweled bracelet timepiece for a gala ball.

At the annual watch fair in Basle, Switzerland, some of the latest jeweled-lever timepieces have been designed as parts of ladies' round-the-clock fashions.

There is the waterproof watch built into a miniature, lifebuoy to be fastened to the shoulder straps or panties of your swimsuit.

With your sports clothes or town suit the latest is to wear a "belt watch or a timepiece on an old-fashioned fob chain. For your car key chain, there is a watch to ring an alarm when your parking time is up.

Elegant women will check the hour on a watch built into a ring, a jewel pin or a stylish gold bracelet. When you dress up for the opera or a ball, a diamond bracelet complete with miniature watch will look feminine.

As in clothes, in watches too there is a solution for practical— and budget-minded—ladies. It is the "medallion watch" shown in Basle in various shapes and with different ornaments.

The medallion watch is a revival of the timepiece great-grandma used to wear on a chain around her neck. In 1957 such a watch again can be worn around the neck either on a chain or a string of beads.

You can also wind the chain around your belt or wear it fob chain fashion. The watch, taken off the chain, can be hooked to a lapel pin or even worn on a bracelet as a "charm."

Naomi Circle Holds Election of Officers

Mrs. Arthur Smith was elected president of the Naomi Circle of First Christian Church. Also elected were Mrs. Richard Thompson, vice president; Mrs. Clare LaForm, secretary, and Mrs. Ray Patton, treasurer.

Mrs. Denzil Flowers presented the program when the group met at the Reid Graham home on Joslyn avenue recently.

Officers Chosen by Junior Guild

★ ★ ★

Elizabeth White of Crooks road was hostess to the group Tuesday and told of her experiences as a teacher in the Robinson Methodist School at Santurce, Puerto Rico.

★ ★ ★

Members of PEO Entertain Husbands

Mrs. Audra E. Francis of Saginaw spoke at the recent meeting of Chapter AW of PEO Ssisterhood held at Haven Hill Lodge. Husbands were guests for the evening dinner meeting.

Mrs. Francis displayed several antique lamps during her talk, which was titled "Grandmother's Samplers." She has a collection of 300 lamps dating back to the 17th Century.

Mrs. Ashton Emery served as general chairman and Mrs. Paul Snover prepared decorations for the affair.

Missionary Society Gathers for Brunch

Mrs. Jack Stepleton conducted the installation of officers at the Thursday brunch and meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Richard Broach, missionary in Venezuela, was speaker. The Rev. James Savage presented a trombone solo.

WTHS Seniors Depart for Cruise to Mackinac

By SANDY WHITE

Waterford Township High School seniors boarded Greyhound buses at 1 p.m. today as a first step toward their destination, Mackinac Island.

The ship should reach Mackinac Island about 1 p.m. Saturday.

Considering the many activities that will take place on the boat, seniors found it difficult to squeeze all the clothing and other articles needed into one suitcase.

Last week at the senior class meeting, 38 students were asked to go on the earlier cruise to Mackinac Island that started at 8 a.m. as there were not enough staterooms and other accommodations on the S. S. South American for all going.

Thirty-eight students volunteered. They will tour Mackinac Straits and will view bridge construction.

Both cruises will reach the island at the same time and will return back in Detroit at the same time.

Also discussed at the senior class meeting last week were skip day, scholarships, baccalaureate and commencement exercises.

Combined talents of the Waterford High band and choir were presented Wednesday evening for the spring concert "Show of Shows." Directors were Bruce Orr and Miss Martha Smith.

G.A.A. will hold its annual banquet at the Old Mill on May 29. Sharon Gaynor has been chosen as toastmistress for the evening. Among the events of the evening, a blanket will be awarded to the outstanding senior girl participating in G.A.A.

"Waterlogs," the annual yearbooks, were distributed yesterday. This is a special day in which the first 15 minutes of each class is relinquished to the students to sign books.

The theme of the book for this year carries out the idea of the football lights, a school project last fall.

★ ★ ★

A final copy of the Senior Magazine went to the printers last Wednesday. "Seniors will get these books at commencement practices," says Barbara Tallerday, editor.

All students are facing final exams. Underclassmen take theirs in early June, while seniors take theirs on Tuesday and Wednesday.

An all-class talent competition assembly was presented last week. Competing for the gold plaque, to be presented at the Honors Convocation assembly, were the sophomores, juniors and seniors.

Each section had 20 minutes to present their original acts and skits. Judges will base their decisions on presentation, quality, interest and originality. Seniors have been victorious in the past few years. They hope to maintain the tradition.

Honor Awards Made

Junior Highs Elect Student Officers

School elections and honors awards were the major activities in area junior high schools this week.

Results of last week's Student Council election at Madison Junior High show that one homeroom, Mrs. Sandra Randall's eighth grade group, made a clean sweep of all offices.

New officers for the coming year will be Becky Bomsta, president; Bruce Norton, vice president; Gary Holtz, secretary-treasurer.

They were inaugurated at this morning's Honors and Awards assembly for those students who have been outstanding in attendance, citizenship, and scholarship.

At the assembly, the gold guard, the highest honor, went to Marshall Bishop, Johanna Lampi and Cynthia Sach. Eight students received the next highest ward, the gold M; 11 received silver M's; and 16 got certificates.

AT LINCOLN

Another musical treat was given parents and friends of Lincoln Junior High when the band and the orchestra presented a joint concert on Tuesday, at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium.

An appreciative audience responded to the first appearance of the newly formed orchestra under direction of George Eckroth. It is the first orchestral group to appear in many years. The band was under the direction of Eldon Rosegart.

City election is a thing of the past, but campaigning for president and vice president of Lincoln is the talk of the week. The following six candidates were selected by a nominating convention held this week:

Karen Chester, Joan Davis, Caroline Dudley, Tom Eley, Carolyn Mills, Shirley Parent.

The entire school will cast votes on May 29 to elect these two officers for the fall semester. Mrs. Naomi McVean and Paul Atkins with Mrs. Christine Gary are sponsors of the activity.

Pat Pennington won $10 as first prize; Pamela Totten, $8 as second; Georgia McSkulin, $6 as third; Linda Bolin, $4 as fourth; and Peggy Wilson $2 as fifth. Lincoln is proud of them and Mrs. Margaret Burrette, their instructor.

Eighth grade science classes are completing a unit on first aid which includes instruction in bandaging, artificial respiration, treating of wounds, treatment for shock, and care of the patient in general. Students who receive excellent rating in these divisions are presented with a Red Cross Junior First Aid Certificate.

The spring primary election of the Eastern Junior High Student Assn. Council was held on Monday morning in the homerooms. The two candidates receiving the highest number of votes were Charlen Wiegert and Terry Braun.

The final election will be held on Monday, to determine which of the two will serve as president of the student body for 1957-58.

In the recent Americanism essay contest for 1957, sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of the Pontiac American Legion, Eastern's winners were:

Dennis Whittaker, first prize, $5; Johnnie Greer, second, $3; and Mary Sue Wheeler, third, $1. The title of the essay was "Heritage of a Free Land." The essay, not to exceed 500 words was to develop this theme.

St. Fred Seniors Hustle as Final Day Draws Near

By MARGARET DRAKE

These are busy days for all St. Frederick students, but especially for the seniors who will receive diplomas at commencement exercises to be held in St. Vincent de Paul Church on Thursday evening, June 6, at 8. Studies in preparation for exams take most of the time.

Tuesday, however, was a free day while the Sisters took part in B.I.E. day.

On Thursday, the annual Athletic banquet was held to honor the students who had participated in basketball, football, baseball, and golf.

The awards were presented. The Girls Basketball Team was presented a trophy for regional championship and the senior basketball players were given trophies. Senior boys, members of the Varsity club, were given jackets. John Panelli of Detroit was guest speaker.

Today is designated as St. Fred's day for participation in the observance of Michigan Week. This afternoon the Manhood and Womanhood Awards will be given and the senior girl elected to crown Our Lady at the annual May Procession will be named. At the assembly scholastic honors for the students will be awarded.

Junior class can be heard tuning up to sing to the Seniors at a picture-hanging ceremony to be held next week. The Junior-Senior Banquet will take place Thursday evening.

Old Bingo Card Sealed in School's Cornerstone

LITTLE CHUTE, Wis. (AP)—Bingo card No. 765, a survivor of a state raid on a bingo party here last April, was included in mementos sealed into the cornerstone of the new St. John's Catholic High School.

State beverage tax agents, who raided a bazaar, confiscated 200 other cards and the master card. The prize at stake was a pound of coffee. The bazaar was part of a drive to raise funds for the new school.

PHS Biologists Take Field Trip

Specimens Collected on Visit to State Park With Experts

By JACK HENDRICKSON

Pontiac High School's advanced biology students took a field trip Saturday to Yankee Springs State Park.

Dr. G. W. Prescott, of Michigan State University, accompanied the group which John Youngpeter had assembled, which included Martha Hodge, Sharon O'Connor, Rick Serwin and Jerry Powers.

Yankee Springs, west of Lansing, offered a desirable bog area where they collected insect-eating plants, moss, and algae. Dr. Prescott offered his laboratory for the students to examine their collections Saturday afternoon.

Constantine Sousania, PHS senior, has been awarded a gold key inscribed with the word, "Science," for his outstanding accomplishments in the scientific endeavors such as project work for science fairs and especially for three years as photographer for the State Science Academy "Journal." He served this year as its editor.

Constantine, a student in science-math, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sousanis of Mohawk road. His "Journal" advisor is J. M. Youngpeter. The key will be presented at the Publications Banquett, Monday.

The award was made available by "Science World," a new science magazine for schools. To help teachers encourage promising students, the publishers supply gold science keys, which the teachers may award for outstanding achievement among their students.

At the recent ninth annual Language Festival held at Eastern Michigan State College, Ypsilanti, PHS Spanish and French students demonstrated their talents.

Traveling with the group were Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Martz, Mrs. Helen Anderson, and Neil Gray, all foreign language instructors at Pontiac High School.

Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, president of Eastern Michigan, greeted the junior linquists.

The Poetry Recital was held in the morning. Ann Pirochta, first year French student, gave "L'Amitie"; and Sharon Holland, second year French student, recited "Arres le Bataille."

Two first semester French students gave the pledge of allegiance to the flag in French. They are Judy Haroutunian and Eunice King. Spanish students Janet Thomas, first year, and Margaret Thrasher, second year, also participated.

A variety program highlighted the afternoon. A "Can-Can" dance was done by Phyllis Peters and Ann Pirochta. The Spanish students presented a play in which Michael Newhouse played an American tourist; Louise Shaw, his wife; Sofia Trevino, a maid; and Valerie Armstrong, the announcer.

Another trophy has been added to the PHS crowded showcase. Dean Wilson coached our boys to their third straight state track championship.

Towering Hudson Ray took the crown in the high jump for the third year straight, a new state record, and placed third in the broad jump. Alex Barge, who tied with Hudson the first year, placed second in high jump. Fred Brooks, a promising sophomore, was third.

Mike Hardiman set a new school record in the shotput but captured fourth spot in the state. Larry Beamer won the half-mile and Roger Coates won the mile.

Area High School Seniors Prepare for Final Events

With graduation drawing closer, a number of final school events are planned by the seniors and the juniors.

Avondale High School juniors will honor the seniors at the annual Junior-Senior Banquet tomorrow night at the high school. A steak dinner will be served, followed by a program.

Participating in the program will be: Frank Harris, Carla Bramlett, Linda Burt, Ken Sheehy, Bob Snyder, Amy Carol Cooper, and Marge Gingrich.

Others are: Joan Bourdo, Catherine Gorang, Glenna Dyer, and Sharon Wiles. Also, senior class president, Jim Greenlees, will present the school chain to junior class president, Gerry Poynter.

Sophomores will sponsor the "Spring Frolic" tonight at the high school, beginning at 8 p.m. Music for the dancing will be furnished by "The Continentals," and tickets can be purchased at the door.

Seniors will leave on their trip Sunday, and will be gone until May 29. They will leave Detroit by boat, tour the Great Lakes, Mackinac Island, and Chicago, and return from Chicago by bus.

Upon their return they will immediately begin decorating for the senior prom, "I'll Be Seeing You," which is May 31.

AT LAKE ORION

A new use for the Lake Orion High School parking lot and a section of Lapeer street adjacent to it will be made on May 31, when the Student Council holds a street dance to raise additional funds for the electric scoreboard.

Committees include: Margaret Braid, decorations; Alfred Kochanowski, refreshments; Jack Schaeffer, admissions; David Carlson and Diane Sanford, entertainment; and Karen Graven, publicity.

The seniors and sophomores and their parents filled out questionnaires in connection with the determination of needs for the area for a local branch of M.S.U.

To represent them on the Youth Board, guiding group of the Youth Center, they elected: Larry Kelly and Marilyn McKenzie, juniors; Chuck Stevens and Marlene Matteson, sophomores; and Janice Carney and Bill VanDusen, freshmen.

AT CLARKSTON

The theme was "Neptune's Holiday." The students spent a lot of time setting it up this year.

The Spring Band and Chorus concert was held May 16, in the high school gym.

The band featured two Seniors as soloists. Glenn Underwood, first clarinet, played "Interlude," accompanied by the band; Pat Thayer, first saxophone, played "Song of India," accompanied by Mrs. Peterson, the chorus instructor.

The choir had one featured soloist, Suellen O'Dell, who sang "Why Do I Love You."

This Spring Concert holds the record for attendance for any of the school's concerts.

Consider Power Equipment

Always Look for Quality First

If you are considering the purchase of power equipment for lawn or garden, such as power mowers, tractors or tillers, here are a few suggestions that may make your purchase more pleasant and satisfactory.

Consider your purchase from all angles and get the best standard machine to do your job.

When buying look for quality construction and the past record of the company that makes the machine.

Some gas engines have no bearings or bushings to support the crankshaft, and these are constructed of very light materials. As the old saving goes, you only get what you pay for, and quality merchandise is cheaper in the long run.

HELP YOURSELF

Insist on nationally known makes from reliable dealers, who stock parts and have service when you need it.

Do not buy equipment in a box. Insist on assembly as sometimes parts are missing or machines may be damaged in shipment. This requires time to return and change, or wait for replacement.

Have the machine serviced and run at the time of purchase before accepting, because sometimes the gas is shut off, the float needle may stick due to an air lock in the sediment bowl which prevents the gas from entering the carburetor. The mixture of gas and air may be too rich or too lean, consequently the engine won't start or run smoothly or have proper power.

CHECK ALL PARTS

All nuts should be checked and tightened, and especially the blades on rotary mowers, to prevent serious accidents.

All equipment does not have oil in the crank. case, air cleaner, gear box or wheels when shipped from the factory. Some require special hypoid gear lubrication which the average home owner does not have.

After two years experience with cut rate machines, authorized dealer serviceships are hesitating to grant warranty service on these because of continuous service necessary.

When machines have to be returned to the manufacturer for adjustment or warranty, they have to be crated or boxed and express charges paid.

As a result the customer is without a machine from two weeks to as long as two months. During this time the gass and weeds are not receiving proper care.

Clip Grass by Hand Until Bulb Leaves Die

If you cherish the early spring sight of crocuses under trees and naturalized in clumps here and there on the lawn, prepare to pay for the sight by hand-clipping the grass in the area until the leaves of the bulbs have yellowed down.

★ ★ ★

If they are chopped off by the mower along with the grass, they will be unable to develop bloom for the next season.

Peruvian Lily Is Different

See Something Unique for Home Gardeners This Year

Looking for something different in garden flowers?

If you are, consider the Peruvian Lily . . . a plant that flowers in June and July and grows 2½ to 3 feet tall in various shades of yellow, orange, pink and white.

Actually, these beauties will represent some advance planning for next summer, since they are planted in the fall at the same time and in pretty much the same way you plant tulips or daffodils.

Peruvian lilies make several stems and should be planted about 18 inches apart in humus-rich, moist soil. Holes should be dug about a foot deep, and compost and soil should be mixed right in the hole. When the mixture is pressed down, the hole should be about 8 inches deep. Set the roots at this depth and cover with the soil mixture.

Later in the fall when the ground is frozen about 2 inches, sprinkle a handful of complete plant food over each planted area.

The first summer after planting, the Peruvian Lily often grows only 2 inches and has comparatively few flowers. From the second year onward; however, you can start cashing your dividends.

Plants Get Time Out for a 'Coffee Break'

A lady in Rockville, Nebraska attributes much of her success in raising plants to feeding them black coffee. At one time, a cactus plant that had been taking regular coffee breaks had 240 blossoms as well as numerous buds. Undoubtedly, that lady must have had a "coffee thumb."

DELIGHTED WITH SPRING — Now that the snow and winter fun have disappeared in Columbia, Mo., little Julie Sullivan is ready to pick flowers and chase butterflies.

Visitors Are Invited to Cranbrook House

It's tulip time at Cranbrook! Over three thousand of these stately flowers are now blooming in the Gardens and Park of Cranbrook House.

Visitors may tour the Gardens daily, except Mondays, from 2 until 5 p.m. A small admission charge is made to benefit the scholarship fund of Kingswood School Cranbrook.

The tulip-filled area is part of the 40 acres surrounding Cranbrook House. Many visitors to the Gardens will also see flowering shrubs, imported statuary, and a full acre of late blooming daffodils.

The grapefruit is a native of the Malayan and Polynesian Islands. A handsome tree, it is extensively cultivated in home gardens in the semitropical southern areas.

Notes on Lawn Disease

Diseases are more likely to occur when lawns have been improperly established or maintained.

Inadequate soil aeration or drainage, overwatering, and improper fertilizing or clipping may lead to disease problems.

★ ★ ★

Some lawn diseases can be controlled by using chemicals called fungicides. Many kinds of fungicides are on the market.

When using fungicides be sure to follow the directions and the precautions on the container. Fungicides are poisonous.

Injury from other causes is often mistaken for disease symptoms. Such injuries include burning with chemical fertilizers, dog damage, insect damage, burning of the grass caused by placing rugs, mats or similar objects on the lawn in hot weather, burning by chemical weed killers, and drought.

How to Treat Trees

Mistreatment of the roots of a tree such as burying them too deeply, flooding them with water for long periods of time, or too tightly packing of soil over them, will effect the welfare of the whole tree, according to the National Arborist Association.

Firm Tells Thieves to Check Its Safes

FRANKLIN, Tenn. (AP)—After an outbreak of safecrackings, a real estate firm, Roberts and Green Co., took to removing all valuables from its two office safes each night.

★ ★ ★

Here Is Correct Puzzle Solution

The following are correct answers and explanations for the Pot-O-Gold Puzzle which appeared in last week's Pontiac Press.

A. (2) CALLER. A hostess would naturally be solicitous about her guest who has been caught in the rain, and would want to lend her something dry to slip on, while the soaked garments and shoes dried out. There is little a housewife could do about a damp Cellar until it stopped dripping.

B. (3) JOLTED. A bridegroom would certainly be badly shaken—in the emotional sense — if his bride failed to show up for the wedding. "Badly" Jilted is not a good combination of words; a discarded lover is just JILTED.

C. (5) MASTIC. The quick-drying, pasty cement known as MASTic would be a better choice for "repairing tile walls." In the case of replacement of tiles, there might be occasion to use Plastic but this would be a less usual operation.

D. (8) WETTER. If the weather is likely to get WETTER, it's handy to have a folding umbrella tucked in one's purse — many purses have an umbrella attachment. If the weather is likely to get Better, one could take a chance and not carry an umbrella.

E. (9) RANKLING. A smoldering resentment or irritation won't let the mind alone and certainly does not make for a good night's sleep. Wrangling is a noisy quarrel; many quick-tempered people are just as quick to cool off and forget a quarrel by bedtime.

F. (12) NOSTRUM. A quick remedy for everything is a demagogue's specialty; he hopes voters will be impressed by his vague promises to "do something about it." But sometimes voters are not taken in. A Rostrum is the platform from which he speaks, so the ROSTRUM itself would not attract voters, only the speech.

G. (14) CHANTEY. Since a CHANTEY is a tune sung to set the rhythm for united physical labor, one would certainly expect the singing to be in unison. A Chantry — a small chapel attached to a church — is used for minor services, and the religious music would be of many varieties, including solos.

H. (15) PREPOSITION. The clue here is "after a bill has been passed" by Congress. Sometimes a simple PREPOSITION, such as on, rather than in, has crept in without anyone's realizing that it confuses the meaning of the bill. A Proposition, or a subject for discussion, gets into the controversy before, not after, the bill has passed.

I. (18) AMOUNTS. If a bookkeeper's Accounts were inaccurate, it would only be evident because the AMOUNTS came out wrong.

J. (19) MAGNATE. A person of importance in industry certainly can be said to have an attraction for many, who are impressed by him. A Magnet does attract iron or steel; it is not in the realm of "often said to have," etc., as an unproven statement.

K. (21) CONTIGUOUS. Lots with touching edges would be needed for a large city apartment. Often, however, the purchaser is unable to assemble a Continuous, or uninterrupted plot, and must build L-shaped around a corner plot whose owner won't sell.

L. (23) COLLEGE. "Particular" effort is needed for the high school senior who wants to go to COLLEGE. There is now a crisis in which COLLEGES are so overcrowded that they can accept only part of the applications they receive. The pursuit of Knowledge is the usual routine for a student, rather than a "particular" effort.

M. (26) LEATHER. Though wet LEATHER can be dried out, it certainly hastens the wear and tear on shoes to get them wet. They can always be protected from wet WEATHER with rubbers.

N. (28) NATIONAL. Not only our Natural resources, such as oil and tillable land, should be protected, but our NATIONAL ones — our industrial plants, defenses, etc.

O. (29) CURRY. A man with high blood pressure is told not to eat heavily spiced foods, and CURRY is not recommended for his diet. Hurry can be a passive activity, such as riding in a plane or a car.

P. (31) SAMPLES. Every physician constantly receives SAMPLES of medicines from the pharmaceutical houses, so he will know what new remedies are on the market. Simples — medicinal plants — has an old-fashioned connotation that doesn't match up so well with "nowadays."

Q. (34) CONDUIT. Since a CONDUIT carries water or electricity, there is definite danger if it is not up to standard. We cannot regulate others' Conduct (a child is not mentioned in the clue) unless it breaks the law.

R. (35) RUFFLE. A girl who has just combed her hair would not want someone to disorder it by "disturbing a smooth surface." This fits the clue more accurately than Rumple, which we think of more in connection with wrinkles, in clothing.

S. (38) TIGHT. An awning would need to be Taut of course — with no slackness — but it would need also to be close-fitting around its framework; the word TIGHT covers that, and TAUT as well.

T. (39) SYMPATHY. An understanding wife is certainly important for a struggling composer, who needs to work undisturbed. Even if a particular Symphony is not a success, a composer's whole career does not rest on one composition.

Hollywood Headlines

'The Loving Couple' Role Definitely Interests Rock

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—From the beginning, Freddie Brisson has had his heart set on Rock Hudson for the male lead in "The Loving Couple," the best seller by Patrick ("Auntie Mame") Dennis. So, a few days ago, he again called Rock in Rome.

Rock said he is definitely interested in the hilarious story of one stormy day in the life of a young married couple, but Freddie will have to wait until Rock returns for further discussions.

On Monday, Freddie gets back from New York where he went to launch his latest Broadway musical, "New Girl in Town."

He'll watch with interest Playhouse 90 on May 30 when "Circle of the Day" is presented. He bought the Helen Howe novel "The Success," from which "Circle of the Day" is taken, and he'll either develop it into a Broadway play or a movie.

All reports that Ava Gardner planned to skirt Hollywood and return to Paris without even a nod in our direction are untrue. Ava arrives in town tomorrow to see producer Sam Zimbalist about "Spectacular," a motion picture.

Gore Vidal has turned in a finished script and it's tailored to fit Ava in every curve.

Incidentally, Sam tells me that his production of "Ben Hur," which William Wyler will direct, will be filmed entirely in Rome. But because of the delays in casting, it now has been decided to start shooting very early next spring.

Burt Lancaster is still the front runner for the lead, and will play it if he can clear up his other commitments.

HE'S NOT TALKING

Not one word will Milton Greene say about his troubles with Marilyn Monroe. I met him and his wife, Emmy, at the Villa Capri opening.

While Milton is here he will photograph Suzy Parker for Life Magazine. He walked out on a $50,000-a-year contract as a photographer when he became M.M.'s manager.

He's also negotiating a deal to produce pictures, and I have a big hunch it's with 20th Century-Fox.

I asked Mrs. Greene if Marilyn is expecting a baby. She said, "I don't believe it is true."

When singer Peggy King finishes "Zero Hour" Tuesday, she's packing her bags and moving to New York to live. She's holding her head high and insisting that she's not running away because of her broken engagement to Andre Previn.

She told me that when she started going with Andre he told her that he was definitely separated from his wife and that she took him to Ohio to meet her parents.

"I'm not the kind of girl who would break up a home," Peggy told me. "Every day Andre would say that his wife was going to free him and we would get married, and then nothing happened.

"I gave up the Jackie Gleason replacement show and a Broadway play for him, but I'm never going to give up anything for any man again."

GETTING WELL FAST

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Great news! Joe Santley is getting well fast, and will produce the Pat Boone TV show as soon as he's out of the hospital.

Dusty and Jean Negulesco, who leave next week for Paris where Jean will direct "A Certain Smile," have invited their chums for a farewell party Saturday night. Christine Carere, brought here to test for "Smile," makes her first Hollywood appearance.

Hear tell Jimmy Cagney's had it, as far as directing is concerned. From now on he'll stay on the other side of the camera.

Marlene Dietrich and Edith Head, the designer, had a meeting in New York this week to discuss Marlene's wardrobe for "Witness for the Prosecution." Marlene won't leave for Hollywood until after the birth of her newest grandchild.

I'd never visited Ye Little Club until I was taken there to hear Abby Lincoln. Every table was taken. Abby has a beautiful, torchy voice.

Hungarians Ask Entry Into U.S.

Students Demonstrate at Embassy in Austria Carrying Placards

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—More than 100 Hungarian refugee students demonstrated today outside the U.S. Embassy and conulate here, demanding visas to emigrate to the United States.

★ ★ ★

The students carried placards declaring "We fought for freedom" and "We want to go to the U.S." Some said they intended to remain at the consulate until their demands were granted. Austrian police tried to persuade the students to disperse, pointing out that public demonstrations are forbidden without police permission.

★ ★ ★

Roger Heacock, U.S. consul, received a delegation of four student leaders in his office. They handed him a letter stating they felt they should be admitted "to the United States, the country of freedom" and asking the aid of American officials here. Heacock told them he would forward their request but that he had no authority to expand immigration quotas.

★ ★ ★

Except for one specially processed group of everal hundred from a Salzburg camp, only a few Hungarian refugees are being admitted to the United States. Earlier this month there were three hunger strikes by Hungarians in Austrian camps demanding American visas. The demonstrating students came from a camp at suburban Schwechat.

Tax Assessors Split the Bill

EAST JORDAN (AP) — Tax assessors from two counties hold a kind of reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Arnold yearly.

★ ★ ★

They meet to determine how much the Arnolds owe Charlevoix and Antrim County because the couple sleep in Charlevoix County and generally live in the other.

The assessors meet, divide up their portion of the small cottage, and present their respective tax bills.

But the Arnolds must vote in the county in which they sleep — Charlevoix.

Community Leaders Launch Plan

Tornado Area to Rebuild

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Civic and business leaders have launched a plan designed to restore 739 homes in Kansas City's tornado-devastated suburbs in no more than 60 days.

★ ★ ★

Eighty-six of the more than 200 hurt in Monday night's storm still were in hospitals today, four of them in critical condition.

The death toll stood at 37.

President Eisenhower yesterday ordered disaster area designations for the suburban area on the south edge of Kansas City, in adjoining counties in Kansas and for wrecked towns in southeast Missouri where 14 more were killed Tuesday by twisters.

The Red Cross mobilized 300 case workers at Kansas City and tentatively set aside $900,000 to help 1,200 families with their food, clothing and shelter problems.

Main target of the plan for quick, systematic rebuilding of homes was the Hickman Mills-Ruskin Heights residential development, hardest hit area just south of Kansas City.

John M. Popkess, president of a Kansas City mortgage company, said the finance companies holding mortgages on the destroyed or damaged houses, the insurance companies with policies on them and the Veterans Administration had agreed to the idea.

Insurance money will finance at least the major part of the rebuilding cost and owners will continue their present mortgage arrangements.

"This will save refinancing at higher interest rates," Popkess explained. "It will avoid additional financing costs and preserve present long-term loans for the owners. Heavy obligations for new personal effects might make it impossible to recast loans for owners on any other basis."

Education Board to Open Bidding

$5.2 Million Structural Program Started in City Under Current Budget

Bids on a $2.7 million bond issue will be opened Monday night by the Pontiac Board of Education.

The bond revnue is part of the system's $5.2 million construction program started under the current budget and which will continue during the 1957-58 fiscal year.

The money will be used to construct part of the new senior high school, the Herrington Hills and Kennett road elementaries and for additions to the Malkim and Bethune elementaries.

Bids on the new high school will be opened June 25. Five proposals will be received for the project: general construction, mechanical work, metal lockers, electrical work, kitchen equipment.

Plans and specifications will be available starting May 29 from the architect, Eberle M. Smith Associates, Detroit.

By Spurts and Jerks

WASHINGTON (INS) — President Eisenhower, on the progress of his legislative program, stated: "I have learned that progress in Congress is a very spotty thing. It goes along, and there is nothing doing for a long time, and suddenly there is a great burst of energy and you are signing bills almost faster than you can write."

Of 223,427 miles of railroad in the U. S. in recent years, about 222,934 miles or 99.74 per cent were of standard gauge. There were about 584 miles of 3-foot gauge in various localities.

A New Action-Packed Western Novel!

GUNLOCK

Authored by Wayne D. Overholser, One of America's Top Western Writers

Mr. Overholser is a two-time winner of the Western Writers of America Award for the best Western novel of the year. THE PONTIAC PRESS IS ESPECIALLY PLEASED TO PRESENT HIS NEW NOVEL AS A FEATURE OF OUR NEWS COLUMNS.

"GUNLOCK" is a fast-moving action story of the Old West. The tale of a man who inherits a legacy of violence and death, and what happens when he tries to change himself and all those around him into peace-loving people. Don't miss the action . . . don't miss the suspense of "Gunlock!"

WHY DID HIS WIFE HATE HIM? Joe Pardee's crippled wife, Sarah, turns away in hate when Joe tries to kiss her goodbye. Neither of them know it, but Joe is riding to a date with death. Who will take Joe's place as ruler of the Box P Ranch and the Easter Valley settlers? Can peace-loving Will Beeson, whom Joe took in as an orphan, enforce Joe's brand of two-gun law and justice? And what happens when Sarah finds out that part of Joe's legacy is left to Kathy, who runs gambling tables in her home and sells whiskey? You'll find the answers in each action-packed chapter of this new Western Novel as it unfolds in The Pontiac Press.

Thursday's Sports In Brief

TENNIS

PARIS—Herb Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., advanced to the fourth round of the French International tournament by beating Gordon Forbes of South Africa 6-1, 6-4, 6-3 while Niel Gibson upset Lew Hoad, the defending champion, in the third round 2-6, 3-6, 6-4, 6-4, 6-4.

RACING

NEW YORK—Duane Hanover ($15.10) won the $27,750 Good Time Pace by a head over Dottie's Pick, running the mile in 2:00 3-5 for the fastest mile time of the year on a half mile oval.

CAMDEN, N. J.—Bora ($17.60) ran the 6-furlong feature at Garden State Park in 1:10 3-5.

INGLEWOOD, Calif.—Lover Boy ($3.50), behind by as much as 20 lengths, won the $10,000 feature race at Hollywood Park.

CHICAGO, Ill. — French Cost ($5.20) came from last to win the Errard Purse at Washington Park.

Tight Battle Looms for Press Tourney

By H. GUY MOATS

With one of the strongest fields, overall, that the event has boasted in its six years, The Pontiac Press Invitational Prep Golf Tourney today was all ready for action.

Entries for the May 27 event closed Thursday, and with few exceptions all invited schools filed their player lists. The list includes 16 teams of five players each. It is rich in better than usual individual shotmakers, and one of the closest and most interesting events in tourney history is anticipated.

Here are the competing teams: Defending champions, Waterford; 3-time champions Birmingham; Pontiac (first champion); Southfield; Royal Oak Dondero (Five Class A schools). Class B—Fitzgerald, Shrine (Royal Oak); Farmington; Milford, Rochester, Avondale; Brighton; Bloomfield Hills; Clawson; Holly. Class C—Pontiac St. Frederick.

Tournament, only MHSAA-approved golf test for schoolboys conducted by a newspaper, has full sanction of the state prep body. It is operated entirely within the rules and regulation governing high school athletics.

Teams will start play at 9 a.m. Monday at Pontiac's fine Municipal course. Medal play will be observed, with total team cards determining the standings. Play is over a 18-hole route. In case of unplayable weather tourney will be played Tuesday May 28.

Pairings and starting times are published on this page today. They must be adhered to, without fail, except where alternates may be named and these changes must be made prior to start of tourney.

Waterford, 1956 champion, will be hard pressed to retain its title. Clel Charbaneau is the only returning member of last year's team. Johnny Wettlaufer, Skipper ace, won both Class A and tourney medals in a playoff with Birmingham's Tim Baldwin. Both are graduated, as is Skippers' Jack Reynolds who finished just behind the other two.

However, Maples again boast a strong combination that only Wednesday won the EML crown. Pete Jackson's 70 and Ted Murray's 72 set the pace for the 308-361 win over Port Huron. Murray may get a starting spot Monday as a result of his fine play. Pete Green and Mike Conroy, with Jackson were on last year's 3rd place team.

Among top individuals taking part in Monday's test are Bloomfield Hills' Bud Badger, a consistent 70-plus shooter, B-C medalist in 1956; Frank Syron Jr., of Shrine, another 70-plus player; Ed Tokarsky of Milford; Dick Whitmer of Pontiac; Rick Bera of Royal Oak; Bill Ptashnik of Fitzgerald; Ed and Dick Kast of St. Fred and Russ Porteus of Clawson.

Winner will hold the big Pontiac Press rotating trophy for one year, plus a permanent plaque. Gold medals go to winning team. Tourney medalist, Class A medalist and Class B medalist all will receive medals.

Parks and Recreation Deparment permits use of the course without cost to the boys, and with city schools physical education department help will assist in operation of the big event.

Purdue Seeking 3rd Straight Golf Title

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) — Purdue's two - time defending champions open defense of their Big 10 conference golf title on the new 6,515-yard University of Iowa course today.

The two-day meet will consist of 72 holes of medal play. The top five scorers of the six men entered from each school will be counted in the team's total score.

Joe Campbell, national collegiate champion in 1955 and national amateur semifinalist last year, again will lead Purdue in search of its third consecutive title and fifth in eight years.

Press Tourney Pairings

Here are pairings and starting times for Monday's (May 27) Pontiac Press Invitational Prep golf tournament at Pontiac Municipal Golf Course. All times must be adhered to fully.

DOESN'T LOSE—Don Gross, Cincinnati left-hander, hasn't lost a game for the Redlegs since 1955. In his 29 appearances he has not had a losing mark on his record, having 3-0 last year and 4-0 this season. He defeated the Cards, 6-2, last night.

Hanson Enjoys 3-Stroke Lead

ASHVILLE, N. C. (AP) — Slender Beverly Hanson of Indio, Calif., carried a three-stroke lead into the second round of the 72-hole $7,500 Land of the Sky Open Golf Tournament today.

★ ★ ★

Miss Hanson, using a tremendous short game and a good putter over the rugged 6,242-yard Country Club of Asheville course, lopped six strokes off par yesterday to finish ahead of Wiffi Smith of St. Clair, Mich., who fired a 71.

★ ★ ★

The California Miss, who apparently takes these mountain courses in stride, fired a 33-35 to set a new women's competitive course record. She won the Gatlinburg, Tenn., Open two weeks ago, also on a mountain course.

★ ★ ★

Behind Miss Smith in third place was Jo Ann Prentice of Birmingham, Ala., who fired a 73. Kathy Cornelius, defending national champion from Lake Worth, Fla., and Diana Garrett of Houston, Tex., were tied for fourth at 74.

Dittmer Takes Over Third Base

Tigers Aim to Shake 'Blues'

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Detroit Tigers will try to shake their Kansas City Blues tonight with a revised batting order and a new third baseman.

Jack Dittmer will take over at third as Reno Bertoia continues to rest his aching shoulder on the bench. Jim Finigan, who performed here for the Athletics last season and who has started the last two games at third for Detroit, will go back to the bench with Reno.

Finigan couldn't get a hit in either of the two games. He wasn't alone. Harvey Kuenn hasn't hit in his last 15 times at bat while Frank Bolling and Al Kaline also have seen their averages hit the skids.

When the Tigers left Detroit 10 days ago for their first eastern swing manager Jack Tighe was moaning about the lack of long hits. The Tigers got him the long hits—producing a flurry of home runs in Boston and New York.

Dittmer has been used almost exclusively as a pinch hitter since coming to the Tigers from Milwaukee during the winter. His normal position is second base.

Dittmer will bat second in the new order with Kuenn moving from the second slot back to his familiar lead off position. Bolling, who has been leading off, will be shifted downward to sixth or seventh.

Kansas City is one of two teams in the league the Tigers haven't beaten this season. The Athletics took two games here at the opening of the season and two more a little later in Detroit. Last year the Tigers also had trouble in the early going with the A's but wound up with a 16-6 record over them, including 10 victories here.

Paul Foytack will open for the Tigers against Tom Morgan with Duke Maas due in another night game tomorrow night and Frank Lary Sunday afternoon. Foytack worked three innings in relief at Baltimore in the 16 inning marathon Tuesday night and received credit for the victory—his third against two losses.

Jim Bunning, who worked the first 13 innings Tuesday night before retiring with a blistered finger, will be rested until next Tuesday unless the relief staff falls apart.

Gross Beats Cards, 6-2

Redlegs Lead by Two

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

One thing about Den Gross, the young Cincinnati lefthander may not win 'em all, but he hasn't lost one for the Redlegs since 1955.

The 25-year-old southpaw has been the pitcher of record only eight times in his last 29 appearances in the majors — and each decision was a victory. He last lost one Sept. 8, 1955, to Philadelphia.

Gross was in 19 games last season and wound up with a 3-0 record.

Last night, he made it 4-0 for '57 in his eighth appearance of the year, defeating the St. Louis Cardinals 6-2. It was the only game scheduled in the majors and pushed the Redlegs back into a two-game lead over Milwaukee in the National League.

Wally Post, with three runs batted in on three hits — one a two-run homer — and Don Hoak, with a two-run single, got the job done for Gross, who gained his fourth victory over the Cards in his 8-0 streak.

A five-run third inning, with only one run earned, carried the Redlegs to their 19th victory in the last 22 games and dumped the Cardinals into sixth place. Manager Fred Hutchinson shook up his line-up — shifting third baseman Ken Boyer to centerfield, replacing rookie Bobby Gene Smith, and putting rookie Eddie Kasko at third — in an attempt to avoid St. Louis' fifth defeat in a row.

Gross gave up only Stan Musial's home run and two singles until the ninth, when three singles brought the Cards their other run and Tom Acker came on in relief to get the final out.

The majors get back into the swing of things today with the Chicago White Sox carrying their three - game American League lead and 10-game unbeaten streak into Cleveland against the second-place Indians under the lights. The New York Yankees, who beat Brooklyn 10-7 in an exhibition game last night, were in third place, four games behind after losing two in a row, as they met Washington in Yankee Stadium this afternoon.

Elsewhere in the American, it's Boston at Baltimore and Detroit at Kansas City, both night games.

In the National, St. Louis stays at Cincinnati for a nighter, Milwaukee goes to Chicago for an afternoon game, New York is at Brooklyn at night and Pittsburgh is at Philadelphia, also under the lights.

Crawford Gets Decision

FLINT (AP)—Mickey Crawford stopped Wallace (Bud) Smith's debut into the welterweight ranks last night by taking a unanimous 10 round decision from the former lightweight champion.

A crowd of 1,293 at the I.M.A. saw Crawford dominate the bout. There were no knockdowns.

Judge Sid Sidor scored it 50-39 for Crawford; referee Billy Moore favored Crawford 49-40, and Judge Harold Anderson scored it 50-40 for Mickey.

Four Suspended in Horse Mix-Up

Owners and Trainers Dropped for Illegal Horse Transfer

BALTIMORE (AP) — Two owners and trainers had their racing licenses suspended yesterday for participating in a one-horse merry-go-round.

It started with Donald Grubb of New Bedford, Mass. According to testimony before the Maryland Racing Commission, Grubb wanted to claim a horse named Heroic Song for $2,500 from C. Lamar Creswell.

★ ★ ★

The hitch was that Grubb had not raced any horse at Bowie where Heroic Song was in a claiming race. Only owners racing at a track may claim another.

★ ★ ★

Grubb wired money and a request to make the claim to Frederick Preece, a trainer. Preece couldn't do it and asked John J. Cornell, another trainer. Cornell wasn't eligible either. He asked Edward Merritt.

★ ★ ★

The racing commission suspended the licenses of Preece, Cornell, and Merritt until June 1, 1959. Grubb may apply for reinstatement on June 1, 1958.

Creswell not only lost Heroic Song, but the horse has won about $4,000 since then.

Jersey Stakes Offers Tuneup for Iron Liege

Calumet trainer Jimmy Jones said he planned to start Iron Liege, with Willie Hartack at the reins. He was less certain about Barbizon, which won the world's richest race, the Garden State worth $319,210 here last year.

Iron Liege is expected to run in the Belmont June 15. The Jersey Stakes, a mile and an eighth test for 3-year-olds, is often regarded as a tuneup event for the Belmont. It is expected to draw more than 35,000 fans to the track.

Waterford Inter-Lakes Track Champs

Strong team balance in every event overshadowed some outstanding individual performances as Waterford captured the Inter-Lakes Conference track championship for the 2nd successive year at Farmington yesterday.

The Skippers had only three 1st places as compared with the same number by runnerup Walled Lake and five by 3rd place Berkley but ranked on top of the scoring heap with 57 points.

Seven 2nd places, three 3rds and four others among the top five gaye the champs their 3rd crown in four years. Waterford clinched the victory with a 2nd and 3rd in the 880.

Cecil Dumbrigue was the lone Skipper individual winner taking the broad jump with a leap of 20 feet, four inches. He was 2nd in the pole vault to score 9 points. Teammate Leroy Vogl had 9¼.

Vogl was a member of the winning 880 relay team which also included Stan Jones, Jerry Nelson and Lindy Salathiel. Salathiel, Jones, John Morhet and Jim Green made up the medley relay champs.

Frank Fink of Walled Lake paced all the scorers with 16 points featuring victories in the 100, 220 and pole vault. Berkley ace Jerry Meyer had 15¾ as he won both hurdle events and set a new high jump record of five feet, 8¼ inches.

Southfield's Len Lamb also broke a record despite the muddy terrain. His mark came from a shot put heave of 47 feet, 8¼ inches. Both records had stood since 1952.

Fritz Eilber in the 440 and Jerry Young in the mile were the other Berkley victors. Dave Warriner of the host Falcon team took top honors in the 880.

Judge Slaps IBC

Promoters See Daylight

NEW YORK (AP) — Independent boxing promoters today saw a large crack of daylight in what for many years has been a very black world.

★ ★ ★

The crack was opened by Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan during yesterday's hearings in the government's case against the International Boxing Club and Madison Square Garden.

He indicated during testimony by IBC Secretary Truman Gibson that he may compel New York's famous Eighth Avenue sports arena to "open its doors" to independent fight promoters at a fixed, reasonable fee.

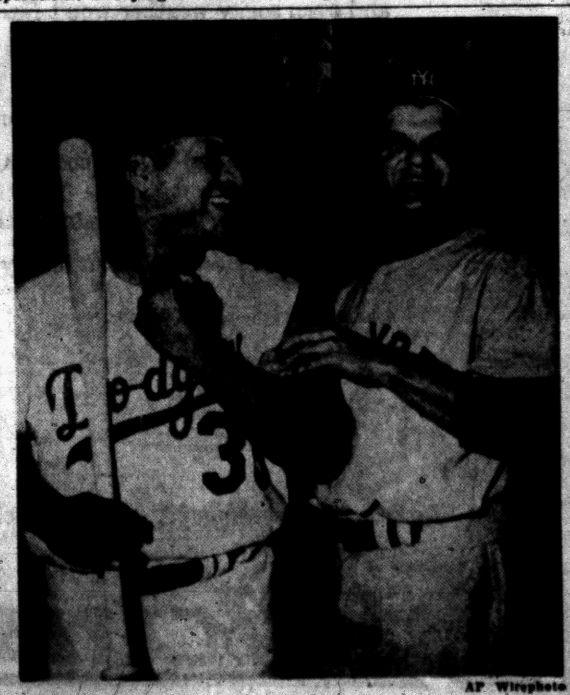

★ ★ ★

This would put teeth in a move to curtail all the IBC's far-flung operations. The judge's comments indicated that such outdoor arenas as Yankee Stadium and the Polo Grounds would also be available for independently promoted championship fights. The IBC also has held exclusive contracts to these two sites.

Judge Ryan also indicated that a final decision is near on the case before he adjourned until Wednesday.

Hoosier Thinclads Strong

Big Ten Meet Today

EVANSTON, Ill.— Indiana and Ohio State are expected to battle for defending champion Michigans team title as the 57th annual Big Ten track and field championships open at Dyche Stadium today.

Indoor champion Indiana is paced by Olympic broad - jump champion Greg Bell, who will be shooting at the world record of 26 feet, 8¼ inches set by Jesse Owens of Ohio State in the 1935 Big Ten meet at Ann Arbor, Mich.

Ohio State's title bid will rest mainly on Glenn Davis, Olympic champion in the 400 - meter hurdles. Davis, defending low hurdles champion, also is entered in the 100-yard dash, the 200-yard dash, the 120 - yard high hurdles and will run anchor on the Buckeye's mile relay.

In last winter's indoor championship, Indiana won the title by shading Ohio State, 37⅓ to 31⅓, as the Buckeyes were disqualified in the closing mile relay event. Other new records may be fashioned in the shot put, the mile run, the high jump and the 120-high hurdles.

Defending champion Dave Owen of Michigan already this spring has tossed the iron ball 57-11, well ahead of the 56-5 record set in 1948 by Charles Fonville, also of Michigan.

Deacon Jones of Iowa, an Olympic place winner in the steeplechase, has a 4:08.9 mile to his credit this spring, under the Big Ten record by a 10th of a second. In the high jump, Al Urbanckas of Illinois has cleared 6-8⅝, bettering the meet mark of 6-7¼.

Indiana's Willy May has been timed in the 120-high hurdles at :13.9, a 10th of a second better than the conference mark.

Hunting Bill in Senate

LANSING (AP) — Speedy legislative approval was expected today on a bill raising the cost of hunting licenses.

The house yesterday gave into senate amendments in following recommendations of a conference committee appointed to adjust differences of opinion between the two chambers. Senate approval was all but a foregone conclusion.

Despite vigorous objections from Democrats, the house went along with a senate decision to do away with an amendment to extend free hunting privileges to anyone who has reached his 65th birthday.

Also agreed to was a 15-cent fee to be paid to the person issuing the license, a substitution for the original proposal to pay 5 per cent of the cost of the license.

Basic fee raises remained unchanged. Most important of these would boost the resident deer license charge from $3.50 to $5 and the resident small game fee from $2 to $3. Most non-resident fees and charges for archery hunting licenses and camp deer permits also would go up.

Billy Burke won the 1931 U.S. Open golf crown at Inverness in Toledo with a 292 before a 72-hole playoff. In 1930 he was 14 strokes behind and tied for 28th place with a 306.

Big Ten Leaders Seek 'Softening' of Present Setup

New Revision Involving Scholarship Aid Is Top Item on League Agenda

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — Big Ten athletic leaders today are expected to accept a proposed softening of the conference's controversial new financial aid to athletes program.

★ ★ ★

Northwestern, Minnesota, Iowa and Indiana have contended recently that the new athletic code has left the Big Ten prey to large scale talent raids by outside schools. Illinois, Michigan, Purdue Michigan State, Ohio State and Wisconsin can't agree.

The 6-4 margin is the same by which the Big Ten approved the new program last February, but that was before the free-for - all hunt for athletic talent in the Big Ten area.

★ ★ ★

Basically, the new program allows aid to athletes on proven need and requires financial statements from parents to prove such need. It also prohibits a conference school from making a formal tender of aid to an athlete until June 15.

A prime proposed revision, to be acted upon today or tomorrow, would permit granting of academic scholarships in the amount of room, books, tuition and fees.

Such a scholarship would require an athlete to be in the upper third of his high school graduating class and to maintain a B—C average in college.

The new rule, as it stands now, limits scholarship awards, other than on a basis of need, to tuition.

Two other modifications which may get conference approval include one permitting grants - in-aid to transfers from junior colleges and another allowing coaches to contact athletes who have formally accepted offers of financial aid.

Akins 7-5 Choice to Whip Beecham

★ ★ ★

Support for the 22-year-old Beecham rested on past conquests of the once highly-regarded Hector Constance and on recent creditable performances. But it wasn't enough to offset the liking for Akins' experience and punching ability.

★ ★ ★

Akins, 29, is fourth of fifth-ranked challenger for Carmen Basilio's National Boxing Assn. Beechem is unranked, and a craving for recognition prompted him to take the Akins fight on short notice.

No Luck at the Race Track? - - - - - - Get a DDD Degree

NEW YORK (AP) — Having any luck at the race track? No? Okay, relax. All you have to do is go to school, and winners come easy.

"I lost heavily for the first 20 years, then for about 10 years I broke even," he says. "I made a thorough study of the thing and for the last several years I've made money. I cash about six out of every 10 tickets."

Ford doesn't pretend to have a fool-proof system. He never touts "sure things." To the 150 to 175 who overflow his classroom every week, he merely passes on some of the wisdom of this highly risky business which he says it took him "years to learn."

Such as:

"Don't play hunches.

"Seldom if ever wager on any choice beyond sixth choice — remember one third of all races are won by favorites, 50 per cent of them are won by the 1-2 choices."

"Watch the tote board (the Totalizator, which reflects betting odds). The tote board picks one of every three winners. The average selector's best average is one of four.

"Ninety per cent of all winners come from one of three groups: 1, the favorites, picked to win on form; 2, a horse which has dropped in class, such as a $12,000 claimer running in a $7,500 race; 3, horses which have 'given notice,' that is, looked good in previous races but lost out because of a bad ride or racing luck."

★ ★ ★

Ford began his classes April 5, advertising them with a half-inch of small type in the classified sections. His staff consists of a former college mathematics professor, who helps in the analyses, an usher and a clerk who collected the $3 fee.

★ ★ ★

Ford and his staff spend six hours study entries for the next day's card. The students are given the list of horses in the order they should run.

He Crowds Plate

Minoso Is Beanball Bait

NEW YORK (AP)—Minnie Minoso holds one record he would be glad to give up. It is the American League all-time high for most times hit by a pitched ball in one season — 23.

The 33-year-old Cuban has been plunked on various parts of his anatomy a total of 100 times in a big league career that stretches over parts of seven seasons. Frankly, it is getting annoying.

★ ★ ★

Opposing pitchers and their managers sometimes say Minnie doesn't try to get out of the way. They claim Minoso will let a stray pitch nick his bat or graze his elbow if the Chicago White Sox are desperate for a base runner.

Minoso doesn't like this sort of talk. He claims he just is slow in judging the direction in which a ball will move.

★ ★ ★

"Some people pick up ball quick, when it leaves pitcher's hand," he said when the Sox were at Yankee Stadium. "Me, I pick up ball four-five feet away."

Why does Minoso usually lead the league in the "hit by pitcher" department?

★ ★ ★

"They pitch me tight." said Minnie. "I hit close to the plate."

'Miracle Mile' at LA Tonight

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Huge Memorial Coliseum, setting of countless revisions of the track and field record book, has never been the site of a world record in the mile foot race.

Things may be changed tonight, however, when four 4-minute mile busters from abroad, plus five U. S. aspirants for such acclaim, hook up in the feature event of the 17th annual Coliseum Relays. Their goal: John Landy's world mark of 3:58.0.

The invading quartet consists of Merv Lincoln of Australia and Laszlo Tabori of Hungary, each with a best of 3:59.0, and England's Derek Ibbotson, 3:59.4, and Brian Hewson, 3:59.5.

Rounding out the entries in this international "miracle mile" are Jerome Walters of the Los Angeles Striders, ex - Iowan Ted Wheeler, Texas' Joe Villareal, 2-miler Max Truex of the University of Southern California, and Dan Schweikert of Los Angeles State College.

Racers Still Wait to Qualify for '500'

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—The Indianapolis Motor Speedway's fabulous weather luck — only one 500-mile race in 40 has been postponed — was turning a little sour today.

Rains which washed out the second scheduled qualifying session last Sunday have poured down most of the week. There is a 400-acre mixture of lakes and bogs where some 30,000 autos were parked for last Saturday's time trials. Water oozed through crevices in the track.

Most of the fastest cars among the 54 entrants are ready to run tomorrow if weather permits. But most spectators would have to park outside the grounds — possibly miles away — and the gate probably would suffer.

The brick and concrete track itself dries rapidly. The 33-car starting field can be filled easily over the weekend if there are a few hours of running time. However, Speedway owner Tony Hulman promised owners of 45 unqualified cars that everybody will be given a chance to run, even if the trials have to be extended through Tuesday.

Nine cars were qualified between the showers last Saturday. Pat O'Connor of North Vernon, Ind., early leader in last year's Memorial Day race, won the pole position at a speed of 143.948 miles an hour for the 10-mile run.

★ ★ ★

Twenty-two cars that were lined up last Sunday will run in the same order when the trials are resumed. First in line is Jimmy Bryan of Phoenix, Ariz., twice national big car champion who has started in five previous "500."

★ ★ ★

Following Bryan will be Eddie Russo of Hammond, Ind., son of race driver Joe Russo, who was killed on the Langhorne, Pa., track in 1934, and Eddie's uncle, Paul Russo of Canoga Park, Calif. in the rebuilt Novi which crashed while he was leading last year's race.

The qualifying delay permitted the Agajanian Special crew to put the finishing touches on the car of Johnnie Parsons, 1950 Indianapolis winner, which he wrecked in a practice run May 12.

★ ★ ★

The only cars regarded as unlikely to make the trials were the entry of Giuseppe Farina, former world champion from Italy, which was demolished May 15 in a wreck that killed Keith Andrews of Colorado Springs; a car entered by Pete Salemi of Cleveland as a spare for Johnnie Baldwin of San Carlos, Calif.; the tiny Italian Maserati entered by Bob Morgan, Paterson, N. J., sports car enthusiast, and a Mercedes-Jaguar entered by Eddie Shreve, Indianapolis policeman.

★ ★ ★

Drivers waiting for a chance to qualify include Sam Hanks of Pacific Palisades, Calif., who has started in 11 Memorial Day races and finished second last year in spite of a wreck, and Tony Bettenhausen of Tinley Park, Ill., former national champion who has a twin to Paul Russo's Novi.

Both of the Novis and Hawks' horizontal engine Belond Special are possible record breakers. Qualifying marks set last year by race winner Pat Flaherty of Chicago are 145.596 for 10 miles and 146.056 for a single lap around the 2½ mile track.

The maximum engine size was cut 10 per cent after 10 wrecks, all nonfatal, that marred last year's race. Race car designers made this year's models lower and lighter to compensate for the lost piston displacement.

If the 41st "500" isn't run as scheduled next Thursday it will be the first postponement since 1915. That race was held over from Saturday to Monday.

U.S. Tennis Team Favored Over Venezuela

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — The United States is favored to spoil Venezuela's debut in Davis Cup competition today and take another stride toward Australia and the challenge round of the international tennis competition.

Grant Golden of Wilmette, Ill., gets an opportunity to send the United States off in front in a match with 23-year-old Iyo Pimentel, Venezuela's national champion. Seixas, captain of the U. S. team, meets Ricardo Lopez in the second singles match.

The doubles will be played Saturday and the final two singles matches Sunday.

Tennis Tips by Rosewall

Volley Is Fine Attack Shot in Fast Play

By KEN ROSEWALL
AP Newsfeatures

Everybody who hopes to become better than average as a tennis player should learn the volley.

It is one of the best attacking shots, especially with the fast game being played today. I think we have a faster racket and a faster ball than when I first started tournament tennis a dozen years ago. I believe this ball makes a volley shot a must shot to learn.

★ ★ ★

You must learn to keep your eyes on the ball because when it comes to you at 75 miles per hour you must get your racket into position without too much loss of motion.

The volley gives you an opportunity to get to the net sooner, often surprises your opponent and saves wear and tear on these important leg muscles.

The volley is like a short jab in boxing. It's not a long sweeping stroke like the serve, forehand or backhand. The ball comes up at you fast and you don't have time to make a full shot.

Try hitting two successive volley shots against a wall and you will see immediately the effectiveness of your first shot.

Rosburg Leads KC Open With Opening Round 67

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Unorthodox Bob Rosburg is a golfer whose game gets better as the weather grows hotter and he now looks ready to start his usual summer surge toward the top of the professional ranks.

★ ★ ★

The 30-year-old San Francisco pro, whose "baseball grip" on the clubs would make a duffer shudder, shot a 5-under-par 67 over Hillcrest Country Club's hill-and-dale course yesterday to take a shaky lead in the first round of the annual $22,000 Kansas City Open.

★ ★ ★

Rosburg didn't gain an ounce of security with his brilliant round of five birdies and 13 pars. Compliments on his play brought this muttered rejoinder:

"I've got to play good because the old bank roll is beginning to hurt; I've barely been making expenses."

Rosburg sank a 15-foot putt for a birdie three on the 18th hole yesterday to wrest the lead from Lloyd Mangrum. The 42-year-old Los Angeles veteran finished just a few minutes ahead of Rosburg with a 35-33—68 for the par 36-36—72 course.

★ ★ ★

Mangrum, who has won this tournament twice, was alone in second place, but 29 other golfers played the 6,668-yard layout in par or better and were close on the heels of the leaders.

Tied for third place with 2-under-par 70s were Al Besselink, Pat Schwab, Billy Maxwell, Tom Nieporte, Ed Furgol, South African Gary Player and defending champion Bo Wininger.

Eight others including Jack Burke Jr., Dow Finsterwald and Australian Peter Thomson, were deadlocked at 71. The 14 players who played par 72 golf included 1957 masters' champion Doug Ford, Billy Casper Jr., Dick Mayer and Jack Fleck.

Last year at this time, Rosburg had won only $3,700 in price money, but he finished the year ranked 15th among the tournament pros with $18,251. He started his 1956 comeback in mid-July, and climaxed it by beating Ed Furgol in a playoff in the Motor City Open at Detroit.

St. Fred Athletes Honored

St. Frederick High paid honor to its athletes Thursday night at the school's annual spring all-sports banquet in St. Vincent parish hall.

Head coach Gene Wright presented letters and other awards to St. Fred athletes in football, basketball, baseball and golf on both the varsity and junior varsity level.

The regional golf championship trophy was presented to the St. Fred golf team and Bill Mountain, named to The Pontiac Press Class C All-Oakland County basketball team last March, was awarded his trophy by The Press.

Harness Race Star Wins 4 Trot Events

★ ★ ★

Haughton won four races including the $27,750 Good Time Pace with Duane Hanover in a roman chariot finish that had six horses near the wire in the fastest mile time of the season for a half mile oval.

★ ★ ★

Then Haughton, of Brookville, N. Y., came back in the sixth, a $10,000 event with some of the nation's fastest trotters, and won with Trader Horn, equalling the Yonkers track record.

Pancho, Trabert Win Opening Net Matches

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Pancho Gonzales and Tony Trabert scored opening victories last night in pro tennis matches at the Cow Palace and play today for a $1,000 purse.

Gonzales downed Pancho Segura 6-2, 6-1 and Trabert came from behind to beat Australian Ken Rosewall 6-1, 6-3.

Boys of 9th grade and high school age interested in learning the procedure of umpiring baseball should attend. Starting time is 7:30 p.m.

Craig Fanning, Cornell tennis captain, also captained the soccer and squash teams at the Ithaca, N.Y., campus.

Jackson May Meet Patterson in July

NEW YORK (AP)—A title defense by heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson against Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson at the Polo Grounds in late July again was in the talking stage today.

★ ★ ★

Lippe Breidbart, Jackson's manager, said he was willing to accept 20 per cent of the over-all gate, including an estimated $175,000 for television with a local blackout.

★ ★ ★

However, Breidbart said his attorney had been informed by Emil Lence independent promoter named by Patterson's manager to run the show, that Jackson would have to agree to a rematch if he should win the title. This latest demand and a request that part of Jackson's purse be held in escrow for a posible return was holding up the show pending further conferences.

Pitching Seen as Key to NCAA Title Series

NEW YORK (AP)—Ace Parker's contention that pitching is 75 per cent of college baseball is borne out by the statistics of teams that have qualified or are in the running for the 1957 National Collegiate baseball championship.

★ ★ ★

Figures from the NCAA Service Bureau indicate that three of the nine teams already qualified, including Parker's own Duke team, made it mainly on their pitching strength. One, Arizona, did it on some of the dandiest hitting ever seen in college baseball.

Furthermore, the teams with good hurling appear to have the edge over the hitting teams in the races for the 15 tournament berths still open. For instance, Missouri, with four over .350 batters in its line-up, has only an outside chance of beating out Iowa State this weekend for the Big Seven title and a place in the District 5 playoff against Bradley.

★ ★ ★

In addition to a stellar pitching staff of Dick Burton, Dick Smallwood and Harleigh Fatzinger, Duke's Atlantic Coast champions have the three top hitters in the league and probably the fastest outfield in college ball. Dave Sime (.395) is a world record sprinter; Bernie Blaney was a scatback in football, and Pete Maynard (.389) is another swifty.

★ ★ ★

Thirteen of the 15 remaining spots in the 24-team tournament likely will be filled in the next few days. The Big Ten, Big Seven, Mid-American and Middle Atlantic races should be settled today and tomorrow. At large selections in Districts 1 and 4 are to be made Sunday and in District 2 Monday. Title playoffs in the Skyline and Pacific Coast conferences will hold up final selections in their districts.

★ ★ ★

Playoffs in the eight NCAA districts will be held from May 30 to June 4. The winners go into the double - elimination College World Series at Omaha, June 8-13.

Already qualified are Duke, Texas, Bradley, George Washington and Colorado State as conference winners and Arizona, Florida State, Georgia Teachers and Portland as at-large entries.

Birmingham Sets Marks While Trouncing Chiefs at North Hills

Birmingham High's sizzling golf team, warming up for Monday's Pontiac Press Prep Invitational tournament, set one school record and tied another yesterday while trouncing Pontiac, 377-415, in a dual meet at North Hills.

Mike Conroy, son of North Hills pro Leo Conroy, tied the school mark for an individual with a par 70. An out-of-bounds shot on the 17th hole cost him a 68.

Following Conroy were Pete Jackson and Pete Green, who fired 74 apiece, and Ted Murray with 77, Warren Sumner, the 5th man, had 82 .

Jefferson, Madison Conquer Track Foes

Madison won the 440 relay to clinch a 41½-35½ victory over Lincoln and Jefferson overpowered Eastern, 72-5, in junior high school dual track meets Thursday afternoon at Wisner Field.

Madison swept the running events and Lincoln dominated the field events in their evenly-matched competition. Lincoln's Delarosa won the pole vault and the broad jump.

Jefferson, which will defend its Junior High League title at next Wednesday's league meet on the Wisner track, won every event and took all runner-up positions except one.

Lakers Down Barons on Homer by Gibbs

A two-run homer in the 6th by catcher Don Gibbs overcame a 1-0 deficit and gave West Bloomfield a 2-1 verdict over Bloomfield Hills in a Wayne-Oakland League battle yesterday.

The victory was the 5th in 10 loop starts giving the Lakers sole possession of 2nd place. It was the 4th win for John Lucadam who fanned 15 and allowed three hits.

John Long had two of winner's five hits of loser Jim Gerhard, the 2nd preceding Gibbs' big blast. Chuck Mezey batted in the lone Baron marker in the 5th.

Day I Remember Most

(Tenth in a series of articles written especially for The Associated Press and the Press by Detroit Tiger players.)

By FRANK HOUSE

DETROIT (AP) — Steve Gromek may get mad at me for bringing up a subject a bit unpleasant for him, but it's been my biggest moment in baseball even though the victim was a fellow who now is my teammate.

My first major league home run knocked Cleveland out of the 1951 pennant race late in the season. At least, it knocked the Indians out of first place and the Yankees went on to win it, as usual.

We were tied 6-6 with the Indians in the eighth inning and Gromek was pitching for the Indians. I don't remember what type of pitch I hit, but I remember it went into the stands and gave us a 7-6 victory.

I wasn't with the Tigers very long that season. Most of the year I was in Toledo and I wasn't noted for my long ball hitting in that league, either. In fact, I had only one homer all year at Toledo before coming to Detroit at the tail end of the season.

Still Not Caught Up on Iron Ore Shipments

CLEVELAND (AP)—Nearly three million tons of iron ore were shipped on the Great Lakes in the week ended Monday, but the shippers are still a million and a half tons behind last season, the Lake Superior Iron Ore Assn. reported yesterday.

Shipments last week totaled 2,969,777 tons, compared with 2,700,003 tons in the same week of 1956. Season totals are 11,863,391 tons this year, compared with 13,377,288 tons in 1956.

Will Curtain Part?

WASHINGTON (INS)—Senate Commerce Committee Chairman Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash) says: "The U. S. is out of step with the rest of the world in not permitting trade with Red China. You just can't keep 450 million Chinese behind an economic Bamboo Curtain forever because we don't like their government."

Gains by Oils Boost Market

NEW YORK (AP)—Gains by oils and other selected issues gave an irregular stock market a slightly higher tendency in early trading today.

Prices throughout the list were a mixture of gains and losses, running generally from fractions to a point or so for key stocks.

Turnover was fairly active. The market was still fluctuating mildly in the zone of its new 1957 highs posted within the past two weeks.

★ ★ ★

Getty Oil, yesterday's most active stock, added around 2 points as oils again won attention from investors. Amerada and Socony Motor made fractional gains.

TV Wide World Show Sponsored by GM

NEW YORK — General Motors will sponsor NBC-TV's 90-minute afternoon "Wide Wide World" series, starring Dave Garroway as host, during the 1957-58 television season, it was announced today.

The announcement was made jointly by Harlow H. Curtice, president of General Motors, and Robert W. Sarnoff, president of the National Broadcasting Company.

Plans are underway for Charles Van Doren, nationally-known educator and quiz-winner, to appear on several programs originating from major American historic locations.

The series will consist of 20 hour-and-a-half programs, to be telecast every other Sunday afternoon, 4-5:30 p.m. beginning Sept. 15.

MacManus, John and Adams, Inc., is the advertising agency that will represent General Motors in connection with this program.

Weather Factor Lowers Grains

CHICAGO (AP)—An improvement in the weather—although apparently only temporarily—was a factor in pushing grain futures prices downward again today on the Board of Trade.

Losses in wheat and soybeans reached more than a cent at times in active selling which partly was a continuation of yesterday's price break.

Near the end of the first hour old style wheat was ⅝ to ⅞ lower, July $2.05, new style wheat was ⅝ to 1⅛ lower, July $2.05⅝, corn was ⅜ to ⅝ lower, July $1.32½, oats were ⅜ to ½ lower, July 66½, rye was 1 to 1¼ lower, July $1.15, soybeans were ½ to ¾ lower, July $2.33¾, and lard was unchanged to 5 cents a hundred pounds lower, July $12.22.

Don't Share Doubts of Executives

Ike's Economic Advisers See Business Booming

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — The economists who advise the President apparently don't share all the doubts that beset businessmen today.

But President Eisenhower's Council of Economic Advisers sees almost all phases of the nation's economy climbing to new heights this year.

It finds business getting more profitable. More companies appear to be licking the profit squeeze — the rising operation costs that have lowered profit margins uncomfortably for many firms.

The Council has revised its estimate of corporate profits after taxes for the final quarter of 1956 to bring them to an annual rate just above 23 billion dollars, a record. In the immediately preceding quarters the profit rate had been declining.

The Council further estimates that in the first three months of this year the annual rate held just 100 million dollars below the record. Since fourth quarters are often the best of the year, the slight dip in this year's first quarter was expected.

In fact many businessmen had expected a considerable drop. Stock market traders bid down prices until mid February, appearing to believe that the profit squeeze might trigger a recession.

The Council reports, however, that the 1957 first quarter figures were 6½ per cent higher than those in the like period in 1956.

Also on the sunny side of the economic street is the report that the dollar value of all goods and services in the first months of this year set a record annual rate of 427 billion dollars.

This takes considerable of the chill off the fact that the steel and other metal output figures have been falling, that auto production is a bit under earlier hopes, that the pickup in home building this spring has been slight, that gains in dollar volume of retail trade appear to be mostly due to higher prices.

The rising prices bother the president's economic advisers, however. They warn that increasing inflationary pressures can make some of the records toward which the economy is heading largely illusionary.

Army's Role in Haiti May Cause Violence

By LARRY ALLEN

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti, (AP) — The army's efforts to restore normalcy to Haiti and politicians' attempts to regain power threatened today to bring major violence to the Negro republic.

★ ★ ★

The political partisans who ordered a paralyzing strike in Port au Prince seemed to be inviting a clash in the belief bloodshed would force the ouster of Brig. Gen. Leon Cantave as army chief and military ruler.

★ ★ ★

Cantave appeared gradually being pushed into ordering his troops to open and run stores and factories locked up four days ago by the supporters of Sen. Louis Dejoie and Daniel Fignole, two of Haiti's 10 presidential candidates. The fourth general strike in six months of political turmoil, it was almost completely effective in halting the capital's business life.

★ ★ ★

PORT HURON (AP) — Port Huron will commemorate its 271st year Friday as a part of heritage day observance in Michigan Week.

Video Wizardry Slated Monday

Famous Artists From Other Lands Will Vie With Christopher

By DICK KLEINER

★ ★ ★

Those are two of the problems in connection with "Festival of Magic," the 90 minute hocus-pocus spectacular coming via NBC-TV on Monday. Christopher, as show consultant and one of the stars of the program, is busy both with arranging for the seven magicians from all over the world who will perform and perfecting his own act.

★ ★ ★

The guest magicians—coming from France, India, China, South Africa, England and Ireland—are the tops in their trade. And Christopher, the only American in the crowd, is one of the finest in this country.

He's out to out-magic the others, so he'll try the dangerous feat of catching a .22 rifle bullet in his teeth, fired from across the stage.

★ ★ ★

"I've been practicing in the long hallway in our apartment," he says. "So far, it's worked. But 12 magicians have been killed trying the trick. Maureen doesn't like the idea."

NEVER WONDERS

Maureen is his wife, a pretty writer for an advertising trade magazine. Christoper says she's "the perfect wife for a magician"—she never wonders how he does his tricks.

★ ★ ★

Christopher, a Baltimore product, wanted to be a magician since the day his father showed him the only trick he knew — how to cut a piece of string and put it together again.

He's done his stunting—he does all kinds of magic from card tricks to heavy illusions to mental wizardry—all over the world. And from these trips came the basic idea of a TV show featuring the best magicians the world has to offer.

Producers' Showcase which generally goes in for heavy drama, heard about Christoper's idea and bought it. They signed Ernie Kovacs to emcee the show — TV's first all-magic program.

If it works out the way Christopher hopes, it will be the forerunner of a continuing magic series. He's working on three formats for magic on TV.

★ ★ ★

Televised legerdemain presents some problems. One came up when The Great Sorcar, an Indian wizard who will be on "Festival of Magic," did his best illusion over England's BBC. He sawed a woman in half.

'DID SHE LIVE?'

The only problem was that time ran out before he had a chance to put her back together again. The BBC was deluged with calls —"Did she live?" —and had to put the answer on a later news program.

★ ★ ★

Another problem is that the TV camera can get pretty snoopy. And, says Christopher, many magic acts are designed to be viewed from the front only, as in a theater. If a camera starts taking pictures from the sides or the rear, a few secrets may be shown.

That's why all the magicians on his coming spectacular insisted that he be in the control booth during camera rehearsals, to make sure that their livlihood won't go up in coaxial smoke.

UP IN THE AIR — Magician Milbourne Christopher rehearses a levitation trick for NBC-TV's "Festival of Magic." The 90-minute hocus-pocus spectacular will be presented Monday, with comedian Ernie Kovacs as emcee.

NEW YORK—A couple of readers objected to me publishing girls' vital statistics; so I decided to print some boys' vital statistics—starting with Groucho Marx.

Cancer Society Needs White Cotton Material

A plea for white cotton cloth has been issued by the Waterford Township Cancer Society, due to lack of material to supply 20 local patients.

The organization started work in late December, and many church, school and extension groups are cooperating in trying to keep the shelves stocked at the Community Activity center's headquarters.

The Cancer Society office is open 1 to 4 p.m., Monday and Friday, and 9 to 12 a.m. Wednesday, according to Mrs. John Thompson, president of the group.

Second highest coal mine in the world and highest of any in the U. S. is believed to be the Fioresta which is located at nearby Crested Butte, Colorado.

Police Seeking Stolen Grenades

4 Boys Admitting Theft From Baltimore Siding Aid Intensive Search

BALTIMORE (AP)—Weary police searched today for seven live hand grenades they said were still missing from a batch of 20 stolen Tuesday from a railroad car.

Lt. Thomas L. McKenna said investigators had found where two of the grenades had been buried in East Baltimore's Patterson Park, but "some kid must have found them first and taken them home."

"If he pulls the ring on one of them it's going to be an awfully sad story," he said.

McKenna said four boys, 15 and 16 years old, admitted the theft and tried to help police track down the explosives.

Police broadcast hourly radio and television pleas in an attempt to locate those still missing.

One was found in a locker at Mergenthaler Vocational High School, McKenna said, three in the home of one of the boys, three in an automobile glove compartment, two buried near the railroad tracks, one lying nearby, and one in the park. The boys said they had detonated two.

The boys were released in the custody of their parents without being charged, McKenna said.

Loan Shark Gets 6 Months in Jail, $2,500 Fine

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A money lender who gave trading stamps must serve six months in prison. He was fined $2,500.

★ ★ ★

David Fogel, 41, pleaded no defense to charges of violations of the Small Loans Act. Judge Leo H. McKay imposed the sentence in city court and ordered Fogel to refund to his clients all interest in excess of 6 per cent.

★ ★ ★

It was testified that Fogel gave trading stamps, cigarette lighters and "luck badges" to his clients. If the number on the badge came up in a weekly drawing the customer was given credit on his loan. Judge Fogel said testimony had brought out that Fogel charged interest rates from 50 to 75 per cent.

Sees Drive to Foist Seaway on Taxpayer

NEW YORK (AP) — Perry M. Shoemaker, president of the New York state chamber of commerce, predicts a campaign by Great Lakes shipping interests to make the taxpayers foot the bill for the St. Lawrence Seaway through elimination of tolls.

"There is no question in my mind," Shoemaker says, "but that the backers of the seaway who sold the project to the American people so enthusiatically as completely self-liquidating, are contemplating the eventual saddling of the cost on the American taxpayer, regardless of its ultimate effect upon Atlantic coast ports and upon other elements in the transportation picture."

Shoemaker is president of the way recently in addressing the annual banquet of the propeller club, held on national Maritime day. More than 1,000 maritime industry officials and their guests attended.

Shosmaker is president of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad, one of the transportation facilities which will be affected by the St. Lawrence Seaway being built by the United States and Canada. The seaway will open the Great Lakes to transatlantic shipping.

ANIMAL QUIZ

QUESTION: Why does a llama lie down on the job?

ANSWER: Although a distant relative of the camel, the llama has no hump. He is a native of Bolivia, Peru and Chile, where he has been used as a pack animal for hundreds of years. He can travel 10 to 12 miles a day over steep mountain trails, carrying as much as 120 pounds. His strong ankles, sturdy hoofs and sure sense of balance enable him to pick his way along narrow ridges high in the mountains where no other animal could safely travel.

Like the camel, the llama can go for days without water. It lives mainly on low shrubs and other wild plants growing in the mountains.

The llama is a faithful worker but refuses to be overworked. If the pack driver puts too heavy a load on its back, the llama actually lies down on the job and stubbornly refuses to get up until the burden is lightened. Well treated, he is a gentle animal and his owner takes great pride in him, decking him out in gay tassels.

FOR YOU TO DO: Here is a Peruvian boy and his llama. Color, paste down on cardboard, cut and assemble as directed and save for your animal collection.

Defendant's Story Fails to Move Married Judge

ANDERSON, S. C. (AP)—The defendant in a non-support case told Circuit Judge J. B. Pruitt yesterday that his wife nagged him about doing housework.

"I didn't marry to wash dishes either," retorted the judge, "but I do sometimes." He order McAbee to pay $60 monthly toward support of his wife and child.

An average telephone central office requires as much as 150,000 feet of cable and each cable in turn may contain from six to 312 units to provide for the necessary service connections.
