Rampant Tension on Red Zeal

Commission Looks at '62 Budget Tonight

Highlighting tonight's City Commission meeting at city hall will be the proposed 1962 budget and final action on an ordinance to require immunization of dogs against rabies in Pontiac.

It is expected administrators will propose a 1962 budget totaling $6,719,075, an increase of some $147,000 over the 1961 budget.

Kerbaw Sues Pistons' Owner

Deposed Manager Asks $5.5 Million, Charges Slander and Conspiracy

DETROIT (AP)—W. Nicholas Kerbaw, deposed general manager of the Detroit Pistons, today filed a $5½-million suit in U.S. District Court against Fred Zollner, owner of the National Basketball Association club.

The suit charges Zollner with libel, slander and conspiracy, and Kerbaw said damage to his professional reputation resulted from these.

Kerbaw, of 1010 Joanne Court, Bloomfield Hills, signed a contract to become general manager of the Pistons in 1958 and reported his 30-year past was for $1 million. Earlier this year Zollner placed Kerbaw on "a leave of absence," accusing his general manager with a conflict of interest, slandering a stockholder fight for control of the Detroit Lions football club.

Zollner fired Kerbaw Sept. 30, 1959, after Kerbaw had been general manager of the Lions from February 1952 until Zollner fired him.

In his 10-page, three-count declaration, Kerbaw charged his ability to obtain employment had been impaired because of his "slander." The suit also charged that Zollner, in placing Kerbaw on a leave of absence last January, did so "contriving maliciously to destroy (Kerbaw's) good name and reputation and to bring him into public scandal, infamy and disgrace."

Kerbaw asked $1 million for alleged libel, charging that Zollner wrote a letter that was published and which Kerbaw said implied that he was "disloyal, dishonest, untrustworthy, neglectful of his duties, unfair in his dealings with the Detroit Pistons, not dedicated to his employment."

Community Bank Orders $500,000 Electric Brain

Community National Bank will become the first bank of its size in the Midwest to process records with an electronic computer system when it installs a $500,000 Burroughs system.

The system, designed especially by Burroughs technicians and bank personnel, will be installed in the downtown office and be in use in 1½ years, according to A. C. Girard, president and board chairman of the bank.

It will process checking accounts, savings accounts, Christmas Club accounts, loans, money orders and cashier checks in "one of the most progressive and comprehensive approaches to handling yet developed by a bank of its size," Girard said.

"This will mean faster and more accurate services for more than 250,000 people in the bank's customer area," he added.

The advanced system uses a magnetic ink character recognition encoder, a development that enables record processing equipment to "read" coded information from bank documents, such as checks, and then automatically do the countless tasks involved in sorting, computing and posting accounts.

This will involve numbering all checking accounts, Girard said. The order was placed with Burroughs after months of study by a 10-member operating committee.

The system features a solid state processor, a card reader, a high speed document sorter reader, four magnetic tape units and a line printer.

LITTLE MISS MERRY CHRISTMAS—Nine-year-old Charlene Nichols has been elected from a field of 31 8- to 10-year-old girls to ride on a special float in Lake Orion's Christmas parade Saturday. A fourth grader at Blanche Sims School, she is the daughter of Mrs. Arvilla Nichols, 465 Oakland St. The parade, sponsored by the Lake Orion Merchants Association, will start at 10 a.m. at Atwater Park.

Izvestia Story 'Step Forward'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy today called Russia's publication of his Izvestia interview "a marked step forward in American-Soviet understanding."

Kennedy, after hearing from the U.S. Embassy in Moscow that the interview had been published in full, issued this statement through his press secretary Pierre Salinger:

"I consider the publication of the interview in the Soviet Union a marked step forward in American-Soviet understanding. I hope it will lead to further intensification of free communication between our two countries at all levels."

Salinger previously called the Soviet action a step forward.

The interview, first of its kind to be published in Russia, was reported to have been sanctioned personally by Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev.

White House sources said Khrushchev approved the idea as a result of some five months of discussions between Salinger and top Russian press officials.

Salinger proposed the interview, asserting that Khrushchev had spread his views to the American public through interviews he granted to three American journalists.

Salinger said no U.S. President had been able to communicate his ideas directly to the Russians.

Salinger was understood to "have acted with Kennedy's full knowledge and approval."

The press secretary was asked today by newsmen if he thought Kennedy's points had been diluted by long statements by the interviewer, Izvestia Editor Alexei I. Adzhubey.

Kennedy Deals With Berlin as Focus of Trouble

Turns Thumbs Down on Agreement Giving East Control Over City

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy told the Soviet people through their own government newspaper today that the root of East-West troubles is the Russian effort to "communize... the entire world."

In an interview with Alexei Adzhubey, editor of Izvestia and son-in-law of Premier Khrushchev, the U.S. Chief Executive laid heavy stress on the aim of freedom of choice for peoples—and he said the peoples of Eastern Europe do not have it.

Kennedy dealt with the Berlin conflict as the focus of East-West tensions, overshadowing issues such as trade and disarmament. An agreement on Berlin could lead to "peace in this century in Central Europe," Kennedy said.

But he firmly turned thumbs down again on a settlement that would give the East German puppet regime control over West Berlin or its access routes.

On another major point of East-West conflict, Kennedy told the Soviet editor:

"If we are able to achieve an agreement on cessation of nuclear tests, that would bring other agreements on disarmament."

Kennedy granted the exclusive interview last Saturday in Istanbul, Turkey, and it was published in Moscow today. The White House thereupon released a transcript.

Nehru Charges Red Aggression

India Accuses China of Frontier Abuses; Hints at Possible Warfare

NEW DELHI, India (UPI)—Prime Minister Jawahar Nehru disclosed today that India had accused Communist China of fresh aggression on India's northern frontier. He said India would protect its territory by "warfare" if necessary.

Nehru released to parliament the text of a note sent to Peking charging that Communist Chinese troops were strengthening their military positions in Ladakh—bordering Tibet—where 10 Indians were killed in a border clash two years ago.

In answer to questions from members of parliament Nehru said India has strengthened its own position in the area, establishing half a dozen military posts with "bases behind them."

"It's not easy to conduct warfare in this region but if necessary this has to be done," he said.

Nehru said that when India is fully prepared it will take "effective steps to recover such territory as was (sic) in the possession of China."

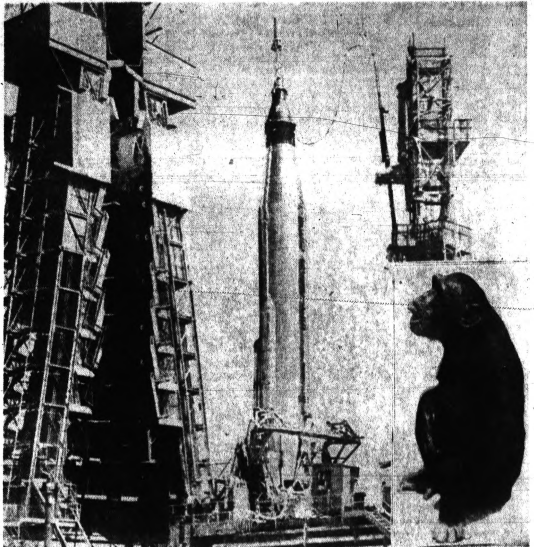

Ladakh is an area at the extreme north of India. It borders on Tibet and China's Szechwan Province and is part of the former princely state of Kashmir, territory which is disputed between Pakistan and India.

News Flashes

BIRINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Federal officials announced today the arrest of one of the jurors in the recent "freedom rider" bus burning trial on a charge of perjury.

LONDON (UPI)—Princess Margaret's baby has been named David Albert Charles, it was announced tonight.

Ready to Send Astro-Ape Aloft

POISED FOR TRIP—An Atlas missile, topped with a Mercury capsule which will carry a chimpanzee into a three-times-around-the-earth orbit, is standing on its launching pad at Cape Canaveral, Fla., ready for launching. The chimpanzee (inset) is one of several trained for the orbital trip. Aop the Mercury capsule is the escape tower which will be fired to free it from the rocket if trouble develops.

U.S. Hopes to Orbit Chimpanzee Soon

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A young chimpanzee, plucked from the forests of Africa, will enter a mighty rocket for a whirlwind ride through space—three times around the world.

If all goes well, a U.S. astronaut will ride another Atlas rocket into space for another 4½-hour tour around the globe—perhaps after Christmas, perhaps after New Year's.

Perhaps half an hour after the chosen chimpanzee will pass over his native Africa for the first of three times.

The chimp will be performing his space tasks, tripping levers on signal from a control panel, despite the brutal press of acceleration and the confusing sense of weightlessness.

WILL 'CHUTE BACK—They will make a strange pair as they blast off from this spaceport—a 125-ton rocket and a 40-pound chimpanzee.

Then the Atlas will drop away (two-ton space capsule, will complete his three orbits, returning to earth by capsule parachute after rockets have slowed his 17,000 m.p.h. pace.

From five original chimps trained for the flight, three finalists were selected. One of these was Ham, the only one with flight experience. It was Ham, wearing a diaper, who rode a Redstone rocket 155 miles into space last January to pave the way for the first U.S. astronauts, Alan B. Shepard Jr. and Virgil I. Grissom.

Results of the upcoming orbital flight by the chimp and an astronaut will determine the pace and direction of future U.S. space efforts.

Two Soviet astronauts already have successfully orbited the earth, shoved into space by ram-motors rockets. The second of these, Gherman Titov, orbited the earth 17 times, experiencing nearly 25 hours of weightlessness.

Notre Dame Notified Game Won Illegally—KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Notre Dame has been notified officially that its football team scored the winning field goal against Syracuse on an illegal play.

Notre Dame defeated Syracuse, 17-14, Nov. 18 on a field goal kicked by Joe Perkowski after time officially had run out.

Gen. Bob Neyland, director of Tennessee athletic director and chairman of the National Collegiate Athletic Association football rules committee, said today Notre Dame officials have been advised by the rules committee that the field goal was illegal.

Neyland said the committee also had told Notre Dame and Syracuse that "there is no authority, no redress, once a game ends. The score cannot be changed unless Notre Dame wants to acknowledge that the game belongs to Syracuse."

'CLOSER TO CUSTOMER'—Mulligan said the reorganization will bring management closer to the customer and promote improved standards of service in the fast growing Oakland, Macomb and Wayne County areas.

Brown said it would also mean adding to the staff of the Pontiac office, 25 W. Lawrence St.

"Nearly half of the company's 531,000 gas customers are in the Southeast Division," Mulligan said, "and in the city of Pontiac we have a large and growing use of."

Pontiac Firm Gets Contract

NASA Extends Role of Progressive in Saturn Project

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration has awarded a $55,028 contract to Progressive Welder and Machine Co. of Pontiac for engineering, fabrication and related services in the Saturn development program.

Progressive has been a member of the Saturn team since work began on the giant rocket, which is being designed to put a U.S. astronaut in space.

The contract, in effect, continues Progressive's role as designer and fabricator of large fixtures essential to assembly of the rocket.

The fixtures are made in the Pontiac plant at 915 Oakland Ave. and assembled at Huntsville, Ala. Earlier this year Progressive was awarded a $1-million contract for work leading to the successful launching of the first Saturn in October.

Unit Discusses Water System

Waterford Twp. Board Making Plans to Link Scattered Facilities

The Waterford Township Board last night discussed interconnecting the existing water systems scattered throughout the township.

The first stage—to cost approximately $6 million—would also provide for two large elevated storage tanks and water service for approximately 75 per cent of the population, according to Clerk James E. Seterlin.

About a year and one-half ago, the township board borrowed $100,000 from the Federal Housing and Finance Agency to have township engineers Johnson & Anderson make a detailed survey.

This was completed and referred to financial consultant, Louis Schimmel. He told the board that the standard form of township government must be changed to charter township in order to obtain the necessary funds for the project.

Residents approved the change at the special election Sept. 12, clearing the way for the huge water program.

Trustee Joseph McGee last night said, "We've looked at blueprints, costs and surveys and it's high time we did something."

He was referring to the possibility of obtaining bonds to finance the project.

The board also discussed having a sewer bond issue at the same time.

Supervisor Elmer R. Johnson said, "We are now waiting for Schimmel to come up with some cost figures on financial capabilities on sewage as well as water facilities."

Buying Power Hits New High

Living Costs Also Up but Only by One-Tenth of One Per Cent

WASHINGTON (AP)—Living costs edged up to a new high in October, but spendable earnings and buying power also went to new records, the Labor Department announced today.

The index of consumer prices advanced by one-tenth of one per cent to 128.4 per cent of the 1947-48 average. Higher prices for new cars and consumer services were largely responsible for the increase.

The rise was "so small it can be called almost no change," Commissioner Ewan Clague of the Bureau of Labor Statistics told reporters. The usual September-October rise is greater.

About 530,000 workers will receive pay increases, mostly of $3.70 a week or almost 5 per cent. Because the price index has gone up only 0.1 per cent over the year, the buying power of factory workers' paychecks has gained 4 per cent over the year.

Has Answer for Santa

NORTH SYRACUSE, N. Y. (UPI)—A Santa Claus at a local shopping center reports he asked a 4-year-old boy what he wanted for Christmas. The boy replied, "Anything I can get."

Man Who Lost Eye in Scuffle to Stand Trial

Trial has been set for Dec. 7 in Pontiac Municipal Court for Robert H. Hickey, charged with first-degree murder in the slaying of a fellow inmate.

Hickey, 25, of 2245 Half Acre Road, White Lake Township, pleaded innocent yesterday when arraigned before Judge Earl N. Nash.

Hickey's attorney has started a $150,000 lawsuit against a Ferndale police officer who, Hickey said, struck him in the face as he was being arrested. Hickey said he lost his left eye as a result.

Patrolman Patrick T. Sullivan said Hickey struck him first.

Prison Slayer Pleads Guilty

Killed Fellow Inmate at Ionia Reformatory; to Be Sentenced Dec. 2

A convict who formerly lived in Southfield pleaded guilty in Ionia Circuit Court today to an open charge of murder in the slaying of a fellow inmate at the Michigan reformatory.

Robert Cottee Jr., 23, will be sentenced Dec. 2 for the murder of Gerald Mackay, 25, whose body was found in a prison passageway a week ago.

Cottee was serving 30 to 15 years for the armed robbery of a Royal Oak motel Nov. 5, 1960. Mackay, formerly of Detroit, was serving 15 to 30 years for the second-degree murder of a Detroit hoodlum whose bullet-riddled body was found in a shallow grave in Commerce Township.

Warden George Kropp said Cottee admits luring Mackay to a storage area passageway on the promise of whiskey and then striking him with an iron bar. Cottee waived examination on the murder charge.

Arrest Indiana Man in Fatal Shootings

GARY, Ind. (AP)—A deputy sheriff and another man were shot to death early today and a third was wounded in a word-scuffle of car thefts and shootings.

Gary police arrested Paul Kennedy, 20, of Gary, near his home after tracing the dead deputy's car to a Gary street, a blown out tire worn to the rim.

Police said he denied any connection with the shootings. He will be questioned further.

Strike Cuts Power Over French Nation

PARIS (AP)—Lights flickered and trains rumbled to a halt throughout much of France today in the worst of a series of one-day public strikes for higher wages.

Few of France's 46 million escaped either minor frustrations or major inconveniences as the 500,000 workers of the government-operated transport, gas and electric industries carried out their protest in work stoppages that disrupted the nation's routine.

The lack of power gave thousands of motorists a one-day layoff and dealt city dwellers a hard blow.

The rolling wave of walkouts started at 4 a.m. with a 24-hour nationwide railway strike.

Kennedy to Fly to Army-Navy Football Battle

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy will fly to Philadelphia for the Army-Navy football game next Saturday and return to Washington by train, the White House said Monday.

The homeward trip will be on a special train which probably will carry other Washington dignitaries back to the capital.

The White House had announced previously that Kennedy would watch the first half of the annual service classic from the Army side of Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium and the second half from the Navy side.

Sen. Aiken Sees No GOP Scuffle

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., discounted today reports that Republican liberals and conservatives may clash over filling party posts vacated by the death of Sen. Styles Bridges, R-N.H.

Aiken, who quarterbacked an unsuccessful 1958 effort of liberals to capture the GOP floor leadership which went to Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., said in a telephone interview he has no intention of resigning.

given no thought to organizing a similar drive next January.

"I hope the vacancies will be filled with men who will add to the progressive image of the party in the 1962 elections," he said. "But I doubt that we're going to have any fight about it."

Aiken said he assumes that if Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, R-Mass., wants it he can have the job of chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, which Bridges held. Saltonstall, who takes a middle road course, is regarded as far less conservative than Bridges.

British Burglars Loot Mansion of Queen's Cousin

LONDON (UPI)—Burglars put up a ladder against the ivy-covered stone walls of the Duke of Windsor's former pleasure palace Monday night and stole 1,500 pounds—$4,200—worth of jewels and furs from the wife of the Hon. Gerald Lascelles, cousin of Queen Elizabeth II.

Lascelles and his wife were at dinner below and did not hear the thieves ransacking their bedroom on the second floor of Port Belvedere, 27 miles south of London. The 35-room mansion was the duke's favorite country retreat when he was Prince of Wales and king Edward VIII.

people than any other man in history?

The nod might well go to Bob Hope, who didn't invent vaudeville and stage, movies, radio or television — but he came a top star in all those fields. Versatile Robert this year is celebrating his 25th year in films. In the last quarter century Hope figures he made 53 movies and they brought in some $250 million.

QUITE A FEAT

"All but one or two got into the profit picture," he remarked. That feat in itself is enough to win Bob a golden name forever in Hollywood annals — if not an Academy Award.

At 58, Hope's hair is thinning a bit, but he still has the fastest clip in show business. He said during a stopover here the other day that he's trying to slow down, as his doctors suggested some years ago.

DOESN'T KNOW HOW

The trouble is—he doesn't know how to.

"I keep a schedule on my washstand, a schedule on my desk, and a schedule in my car," he said.

"I have to lead a scheduled life. There isn't any other way."

In addition to his chores as an entertainer, Bob has multimillion-dollar business interests ranging from oil wells to dairy farms, packing plants and professional baseball and football clubs.

"But I try not to let it all get my stomach worked up," he said.

'KEEP MOVING'

His success formula is simple. "Keep moving. Never let yourself get trapped. Try doing different things so you never feel stale," he says.

The problem of boredom that afflicts some stars who find fame chafing and wearying never has upset Hope. After more than 40 years in show business he is still in love with an audience — any audience.

"I don't have time to think about boredom," he said. "If I had my life to live over again I couldn't—I wouldn't be able to find the time."

'ONLY WHEN BORING'

"You get bored only when you bore the audience—or when you get stuck doing the same thing I try to avoid that."

Young Killers Lose Bid for New Trial

RUSSELL, Kan. (AP) — Two young soldiers condemned to the gallows for one of seven murders have lost an attempt to get a new trial.

Judge Benedict P. Cruise rejected the motion Monday and set Saturday for sentencing James Douglas Latham, 19, of Mauriceville, Tex., and George Ronald York, 18, of Jacksonville, Fla.

York and Latham were found guilty of first-degree murder for the robbery slaying of an elderly railroad worker near Sharon Springs, Kan. They also admitted murders in Florida, Tennessee, Illinois and Colorado.

Their victims were killed last May and June after Latham and York broke out of the stockade at Fort Hood, Tex., and went on a robbery rampage.

"That baby is so cute he makes his grandmother look like a kid," joked Bob. As we drove on, Hope glanced down a side street.

"I can remember being broke in every street here," he recalled, "The warmest feeling I have gotten out of success is being able to sit down and check up on help someone who is in a tight spot."

ple are those who learn how to do it—do give it away.

"Some people never get wise. It reminds me of once when I was in Texas. I was with a fellow who pointed at another man and said, 'There's a poor millionaire.'"

"What do you mean?" I asked. "He doesn't know how to give away his money," my friend said.

No one says that about Bob. He learned early how to avoid being a "poor millionaire."

Pilot Escapes Injury in Selfridge Crash

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP) — Lt. Clifford A. McCluney, 27, escaped injury Monday in the landing crash of his F106 Delta Dart at nearby Selfridge Air Force Base.

The fighter's landing gear collapsed and it caught fire after skidding more than 300 yards down a runway, but Lt. McCluney managed to escape unhurt.

Selfridge authorities reported considerable damage to the plane because of the fire. The landing gear was sheared off in the belly-rum.

McCluney is a member of the 1st Fighter Interceptor Squadron at Selfridge.

Our Domestic Airlines Are Operating at a Loss

Current statistics indicate that air travel is having a peek of trouble.

Our domestic lines lost over $13 million dollars in the first six months of 1961; whereas in 1960, they netted approximately a million dollars. And even this was only a three per cent return on a hazardous business.

The faster, the higher and the further these powerful new jets have flown, the more money they've lost and too many of these dream airplanes are traveling with many empty seats.

The companies have almost exhausted the gimmick business. They've planned second and third class passages at reduced rates. They've run coaches at night. They've served champagne and course dinners—and then summarily abolished the whole business. They've given college students sharp reductions on straight travel—and on tight budgeted trips to Europe.

Further, airlines face the necessity of greater safety. Special compulsory radio transmitters will be installed in all large airplanes, and landings and departures from congested areas are undergoing heavy scrutiny. And so, one of our newest and fastest developing commercial activities is experiencing growing pains on an expanding scale.

Vision Is Often Impaired by Frosted Windshield

Now that winter's hoary breath is upon our necks, an additional safety hazard emerges to plague the motorist.

We refer to the frosted windshield. For the many auto owners who leave their cars outside at night, the morning greets them with an additional chore when they want to hurry off to work.

Either the car must be started early, allowing the defroster to clear the windows, or the scraper must be vigorously employed. All too often the alternative is a driver who cannot see where he is going.

Although policemen write traffic tickets for this, there are still many drivers who will risk their hide and fenders by venturing out on the highway practically blind. All for lack of a little elbow grease, or time.

UAW Members Fined for 'Overworking'

Milwaukee is the scene of an unusual court trial.

From the testimony submitted, it indicates that UAW members who do more work than the union officials think essential are plastered with a fine. The amount has been trivial but the accompanying rebuke wasn't necessarily.

A few hardy souls persisted so the levy leaped to $50 and even $100. Now the National Labor Relations Board has moved in and it is using to see whether a labor union actually has the right to compel men to slow down. This may shed some light on industry's charges that production increases have lagged behind wage boosts.

Phooey . . .

Apparently, the Russians expect us to pay to listen to their hogwash. Recently when they were asked to pay a larger share of the total United Nations general expenses than they now do, the Russians started crying.

Indeed, they say that the United States, as the "richest country" on earth, should pay proportionately more, rather than less, as new U.N. allotments specify.

If we understand this correctly, what the "poor" Soviets are urging is that we should pay a bigger part of the bill for maintaining a forum in which they will make longer and longer speeches telling the world how they are getting richer than we are.

The Man About Town

Now Is the Time To Get Your Equipment in Readiness for Birds

November: A month that cannot make up its mind.

Several readers of this column who have been getting a lot of pleasure and satisfaction out of feeding the birds in past winters are asking us to coax others to participate in the joy.

One of the strongest advocates is Mrs. Horace Griston of Rochester, who writes: "Nobody who ever started this joy producing work will ever give it up. Nothing else can produce more happiness on a dull winter day. And the expense is negligible. The birds will be happy to get what is usually thrown into the garbage. And they'll sing for it."

In digging up ancient presidential campaign buttons,

Mrs. Gladys Whiteley of Waterford brings one for Parker and Davis, and wants to know when they were nominees. They were the Democratic candidates 57 years ago, when Theodore Roosevelt led the Republican ticket to victory.

"Deer are more numerous in Oakland County than in many locations in Northern Michigan," phones

Almond Sullivan of Birmingham, who says there's a good reason. The year round feeding and protection is better, and the deer is rapidly becoming a domesticated animal. Like the robin, it prefers to be close to human habitation.

Another of the former celebrities now living in Pontiac's suburban Franklin, Hal Newhouse, former Detroit Tiger pitching great, is Oakland County chairman of the 1962 March of Dimes.

Commenting on the wisdom of the blue

Jays, Mrs. Frank J. Felchman of Rochester phones that the other evening she burned out the old newspapers and other trash in her fireplace, and the blaze even ran out the top of the chimney. No other birds exhibited any notice of it, but the neighborhood blue jay gave a great commotion, their cries even sounding like "Fire."

In the great plethora of words and wisdom, (or lack of it), that has been foisted upon an innocent public in connection with the doings of the con-men at Lansing, a governor from Pontiac and Oakland County has made the most salient remark. In talking to them the other day,

Murray D. VanWagoner warned them that, no matter how good a constitution they put together, it will be administered by politicians.

Since the season opened, at least a dozen readers of this column have sent word that they've seen deer within the Pontiac city limits.

The chickens always come home to roost, even after 40 years. A recent article commending the work of

Grant Mapley as a school traffic guard at Oxford brings a letter from

Mrs. Winnie Jennings Bell of Sylvan Lake, stating that 40 years ago, when her parents conducted a grocery store in Pontiac he delivered bread to them—and was everlastingly obliging and courteous.

David Lawrence Comments:

Political Candidates Harm Our U.S.

WASHINGTON — How honest is American politics, and how honest-minded are many of these political speakers who confuse, if not mislead, the voters in order to win an election?

The subject becomes pertinent now in view of a frank and candid comment just presented to the public by the New York Times — a supporter of Kennedy in the election campaign last year.

The editorial says in part: "The 'missile gap,' like the 'bomber gap' before it, is now being consigned to the limbo of synthetic issues, where it always belonged."

"The 'missile gap'—the prediction of an overwhelming Soviet superiority in intercontinental ballistic missiles in the early 1960s—was the product of partisan politics and service—primarily Air Force—pressures. The same forces and the same congressional and journalistic mouthpieces who manufactured an alleged bomber gap in the 1950s sponsored, and indeed invented, the alleged missile gap in the 1960s."

Now, judged by the hard-bitten estimates of actual Soviet strength, to which all the forces apparently subscribe, the "missile gap" has vanished; the quantitative advantage, if any, is on the side of the United States.

"The issue became one in part because Air Force intelligence estimates of Soviet missile capabilities, which were always far higher than other estimates, were used as political and propaganda tools. The Air Force thought it had a good lever with which to pry more money out of the administration and Congress."

"The Republicans, needlessly on the defensive, got a bad case of foot-in-mouth disease."

"The Democrats, then on the political out, used the alleged 'missile gap' as a club with which to belabor the administration. The result was that a ghost, a shadow, became a synthetic issue, which obscured real national defense problems and confused the voter."

And nobody took the trouble to analyze how much of the decline of American "prestige" overseas was due to the fault-finding and despair-carrying growth of politicians making speeches inside the United States.

Some of the harm done was partly offset later by President Kennedy, who, shortly after he took office, repudiated, in effect, some of the things he himself had said on the stump indicating that American defenses had been neglected.

Wearing shoes which make any pressure on the toes, even for an hour or two a day, will defeat all efforts at conservative treatment of ingrowing nail. If you must put shoes on, cut out the upper part around the affected toe, or wear only sandals that give the toes room, or go barefoot.

The radical treatment of ingrown nail consists of injecting a local anesthetic as far back as the base of the toe and removing a wedge edge of the nail and the flesh bordering it. The wound is held together without stitches by a suitable wet dressing, and complete healing takes about ten days.

In my opinion, it is a mistake to try to insert cotton or anything view the businessman who engages in such conspiracies in the same light as I regard the racketeer who siphons off money from the public in crooked gambling or the union official who betrays his union members."

Maybe there should be added now: "Or the politician—in or out of public office—who betrays the citizens generally, misleads the voters, and by misstatements of fact damages the prestige of his own country throughout the world."

Smiles

Many a beau who doesn't know it is playing second fiddle.

We're not sure what the rage is in winter clothes for women unless it's from husbands.

How can you spend money for happiness better than by paying the doctor for a new baby?

Dr. William Brady Says: Comfortable Shoes 1st Step in Treating Ingrown Nail

Every doctor, orthopedic surgeon, podiatrist or chiropodist seems to have his or her own idea about the cause of ingrown toenail and the proper way to prevent and treat it.

All agree on prevention or treatment of ingrown nail, pressure must be avoided, pressure from shoes that are too short, too narrow across the front of the foot or too tight for comfort.

Some experts DR. BRADY insist the nail doesn't "grow in," but the flesh grows up over the edge of the nail. I won't say you can search me, because if you did, you might find that my nail grows into the flesh. Even if I'm wrong in my views of it, I find that these two methods of treatment keep the toe comfortable.

1. Keep the skin or flesh drawn away from the inside edge of the nail, by applying to the alcohol- or gasoline-cleaned skin a half-inch-wide strip of adhesive plaster about two and one-half inches long, which goes under the toe, then up to end on the skin just behind the nail. Keep the groove between edge of nail and skin or flesh dusted with powdered alum.

2. If the nail is evidently thickened or excessively curved (convex) from side to side, keep the top filed, rasp up over the down, eased by use of a kind of pumice called "bavastone." This favors flattening of the nail and less curling down as it grows.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE
CASE K-462: Carolyn M., aged 36, presents a common complaint. "Dr. Crane," she began, "why is it so difficult to find a doctor who will make a house call at night?"

"Most of them seem to want you to meet them at a hospital during daylight hours."

"PROJECT 'MORE'": "Is there a doctor in the house?" That question has often been flashed on movie screens or announced via loud speaker at football games.

And the "doctor" referred to is the GP or General Practitioner.

He is the "family doctor," who has been somewhat overshadowed the past decade by an undue emphasis on hospitals.

Indeed, in an emergency nowadays, people tend to ask:

"Where is the nearest hospital?" not "where is the nearest doctor?" Or they vary that query by requesting:

"Call an ambulance so we can get him to a hospital."

This shows the dangerous trend to enshrine medical buildings instead of medical men.

So it is high time we restored the family doctor to his dominant role, for he is the physician who has built up most of the prestige for medicine all down through the centuries since Galen and Hippocrates.

Voice of the People:

'Article Warning Children Has Proved Most Helpful'

I would like very much to express my feeling about the page you printed concerning the warning to all boys and girls.

All parents try to tell children these things, but sometimes they listen to other people's advice sooner than ours. My 11-year-old daughter read it and said, "Mom, you told me every bit and now I know it's true."

The way it was written and the pictures made it so easy for them to understand. Even the smaller children can learn. I want to say thanks again to The Press and all who produced it.

Have Different Views on Reading List

I commend the PTA parents and the Rev. Somers on their recent stand for correct reading matter for youth.

Those arid movie ads could well be deleted from The Press and why not a crusade to clean up the newsstands and "paper backs"?

Three cheers for people with courage to stand up for their convictions.

Mrs. B. Wonnack
92 West Brooklyn

It is disgusting the way some people insist on comparing "Drums Along the Mohawk" and "The Good Earth" with the Holy Bible. They are very different. In the Bible, the guilty were punished for their sins and I fail to see where this is true in "The Good Earth," where these things are glorified.

Are people's minds so corrupt that they can't recognize that these books are undermining the morals of our country? I understand there have been complaints in several other parts of the country.

There is a very great difference between "recommended reading" and "required reading." It's certainly a good thing that these types of books weren't "required reading" when I went to high school. I never would've received a diploma.

Utterly Disgusted

These so-called objectors probably haven't noticed the type of books and magazines their children might be reading or have cast in their rooms. Look in your own children's rooms, before you cast any objections.

A magazine stand operator said that 90 per cent of his magazines on true-story, romances, sex, love, etc., are purchased by teenagers.

I have read all of the so-called objectionable books "Drums Along the Mohawk," "The Good Earth," etc., and I don't feel that it has warped my mind.

The type of language used in these books, your children will be hearing at times most of their lives, as they will encounter all types of people during their lifetime, so they might as well be prepared.

A Fact-Facing Man

When a scuffer is punished, the simple becomes wiser; when a wise man is instructed, he gains knowledge. — Proverbs 21:11.

Man is never helped in his suffering by what he thinks for himself, but only by revelation of a wisdom greater than his own. It is this which lifts him out of his distress. — Carl Jung.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Restore Role of Family Doctor

The Academy of General Practice thus designated this month of November as "Dr. D. Career Month." It picked two cities to serve as pilot plants, namely, Omaha, Nebraska and Binghamton, New York.

Junior and Senior high school students have been assigned to practicing family physicians as "Project Preceptors."

These boys sat in on medical conferences, made hospital rounds, accompanied the doctor on house calls, and even spent the evening with the physician and his family.

Afterwards, these boys are to write an essay on "Medicine as a Career."

The aim of this ingenious "MORE" project is to stimulate more interest on the part of young men in choosing a career as a "family doctor."

The project deserves ardent support of all intelligent folks, and in those two test cities, the mayors eagerly cooperated, as did the school officials, newspapers, radio and TV.

Other professions, like dentistry, law, engineering, and the clerical, might well imitate project "MORE."

FAMILY DOCTORS

Carolyn is correct in saying the trend in medicine has been away from office practice.

The public has subtly been taught to transfer its admiration from the M. D. to the massive hospitals and research laboratories.

This is dangerous. For when medical men become submerged

'We Should Amend 5th Amendment'

Law-abiding United States citizens rarely find themselves in need of invoking the 5th Amendment for their personal protection. However, as it stands, it does not truly represent the purpose for which it was intended.

An amendment to the 5th Amendment, in part, would seem advisable.

In reply to "B. S.," you can't keep heart victims off highways because we all have hearts, whether they are good or bad. You can have a perfect heart before starting out but before reaching your destination, the good heart could collapse. In 1963, the United States observed the first Thanksgiving Day set aside by national proclamation.

In 1966, the United States expressed concern to the Syrian government over substantial shipments of Soviet arms to Syria.

In 1968, day, U.S. fired an intercontinental ballistic missile at full range for the first time.

by buildings, we are on the road toward socialization and the complete control of medicine by government bureaucrats.

In our "free enterprise" system, physicians and dentists have been the bulwark of defense against encroachment by the government.

And in past years, most patients have been treated at home or in the physician's private office.

The current "hospitality" craze has shifted the emphasis abnormally. Project "MORE" should help restore proper perspective.

Southfield School Voters OK Bond Issue, Mill Tax

SOUTHFIELD—Authorization to sell $7.2 million in bonds to finance new school construction was given yesterday by voters in the Southfield School District.

Also approved in the special school election was an extension of a three-mill levy for operation and an increase of two additional mills for a five-year period. Both proposals passed by wide margins.

The bonding proposal, one of the largest ever requested in South Oakland County, was approved 2,551 to 1,738. The tax proposal was accepted by a vote of 2,411 to 1,891.

Money from the sale of the bonds will be used to construct a new junior high school, two elementary schools and a 600-student addition to the Southfield High School.

Frightened Bandit Crashes Through Store Glass Door

A jumpy bandit holding up a Detroit jewelry store last night crashed through a glass door, frightened by a 67-year-old Oak Park man.

Isaac Malach, 1410 Balfour, owner of the store, was getting unried while the bandit wasn't looking.

"Suddenly he glanced at me and saw I had my feet loose," Malach said. "He whirled and went tearing right through the glass door."

The bandit and two companions had tied up Malach and taken 41 watches valued at $1,600 and Malach's wallet which contained $8. The jumpy one of the trio had stayed behind after the others left, apparently to hunt for more loot, police said.

At Banquet Thursday

Will Honor Top Dairyman

Oakland County's "Dairyman of the Year" will be honored and other top dairymen cited at a banquet Thursday in Pontiac.

More than 100 owners and operators of dairy farms in the county are expected to attend the annual affair. It will be held in the Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Building, 761 W. Huron St.

The event is sponsored by the county dairy committee which is headed by Frank Huggles, 3561 Cooley Lake Road, White Lake Township.

The best of the county's more than 200 dairy farmers will be named after the 7:30 p.m. dinner. He will be given a trophy by Lee Winborn, area news editor of The Pontiac Press.

SELECTED BY PANEL
The recipient of the award is selected by a panel of judges from the three Dairy Herd Improvement Associations in the county.

According to Jay Poffenberger, county agricultural agent for the cooperative extension service, several factors are studied by the judges before they pick the top dairyman.

They take into consideration his herd's high production of milk and butterfat, the improvement he has made in farm management during the past year and his participation in improvement association programs.

Certificates also will be given to outstanding dairymen in each of the three DHIA associations at the banquet. They will be presented by the supervisors of each association.

Two other awards will go to younger dairy farmers in the county.

The second place state contest award for his cow's efficient milk production under the 4-H Club program will be presented to Doug Long. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Carlos Long, 2888 Steeth Road, Commerce Township.

TO RECEIVE AWARD
A boy or girl judged to have made the greatest contribution in the past year to the 4-H Club Black and White or Holstein program also will get an award. The winner of this citation will be named at the banquet.

TOASTMASTER will be James Reid, 5400 Cedar Island Road, White Lake Township.

After the banquet the three groups of the improvement association will hold their annual meetings and elect officers for the coming year.

Principal address of the evening will be given by Dr. Percy S. Marsa of the Orion Medical Group. He will show pictures and tell of his experiences as a medical missionary in Africa.

Another special feature of the program will be a reading to be given by Brenda Long, Doug's sister.

The meal will be prepared and served by the Farm Bureau women in the county.

Pollution Suit Shocks Romeo

Action Filed by State Although Council Has Passed Ordinance

ROMEO — Village officials today said they were "surprised and shocked" upon learning court action had been initiated against Romeo for failure to abate the pollution of the Clinton River.

Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner, took the matter to Macomb County Circuit Court to put a stop to the dumping of raw or partially treated sewage into the East Mill Pond and the river.

Dr. Heustis said in his bill of complaint that the village had failed to go through with plans for construction of an adequate sewage treatment plant as ordered by the state over two years ago.

Village President Wayne N. Black said today that he was "frankly bewildered," especially since the Village Council adopted an ordinance Aug. 29 providing for a $245,000 program of expansion of present sewer plant facilities.

RATES HIKED
At its regular meeting earlier this month, the council hiked water and sewer rates to finance the proposed construction program through sale of revenue bonds rather than bonds on real estate.

The increases in water and sewer service rates will go into effect Jan. 1 and will be billed to customers in April.

The new trickling-type sewage disposal plant will be built on the same site as the present facility, three-quarters of a mile east of Romeo on 32-Mile Road.

Construction will begin next spring, with completion of the project expected by the end of the year, Black said.

What is particularly surprising the village president said, is that the action was taken although sanitation engineer Maurice Richmond of the State Health Department has been working right along with the council on plans for expanding existing sewage treatment facilities.

Richmond had warned the week before the adoption of the ordinance that the pollution case against Romeo was "ready for filing" in circuit court.

The ordinance was subsequently filed with the county and state, and wheels were set in motion to get a federal grant, Black said.

He has instructed Village Attorney Gary Carbin to prepare an answer to the charges filed by the state health commissioner.

Men's Club to See 2 Films at Meeting
CLARKSTON — Two movies, one from the United States Marine Corps, the other from the Atomic Energy Commission, will be shown at tomorrow night's dinner meeting of the Methodist Men's Club here.

The films are entitled "Self Preservation in Atomic Age" and "Effects of Radiation."

All men of the community are urged to attend the 6:30 p.m. meeting at the old First Methodist Church, corner of Buffalo and Church streets. Reservations may be made by calling the church office.

Mayor Clarkson Agrees to Sign Water Contracts

SOUTHFIELD — Even though the council over-ruled Mayor S. James Clarkson's veto of three water projects, approved by the council two weeks ago, the mayor agreed to sign contracts for their construction last night.

In his veto message, Clarkson said that the council did not have the authority to sell bonds for any construction because it has no city assessor.

However, he said that he saw no reason why the council should not transfer funds from the water department for the construction of water mains on Nine Mile and Cures roads.

The mayor had fired city assessor Gerald Eastlick in June, and Clarkson has been trying ever since to get the council to agree with him on a successor.

Clarkson contends that only the city assessor can levy special assessments.

Councilman John J. Hollywood wanted to know why deputy assessor Wilbur Meier could not act in the absence of an assessor as in the case of assistant administrator or deputy treasurer.

The mayor told him that there was no provision in the charter giving a deputy assessor such powers.

Members of the MacDowell Male Chorus are in final rehearsal this week for their annual holiday concert at 8:15 p.m. Friday in Pontiac Northern High School. Director, Melvin Larimer of Oriole Road conducts the enthusiastic vocalists in a jolly rendition of a Christmas carol scheduled for the program. The chorus welcomes to membership interested men in the Pontiac area.

Concert Set by Chorus

The MacDowell Male Chorus will present its annual holiday concert at 8:15 p.m. Friday in Pontiac Northern High School.

A variety of fine choral music is programmed, ranging from Handel's "Thanks Be to Thee" and Bach's "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee" to lighter favorites like LeRoy Anderson's "Sleigh Ride." The program will close with a musical salute to the holiday season.

SPECIAL GUESTS. Appearing as guests will be the G-voice Waterford Boy's Chorus, representing 24 elementary schools in Waterford Township. Organized in 1957, each year new members are selected from the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades of the schools. The boys meet for rehearsals one hour a week after school. Janet Grimes is director and Judith Dunn serves as accompanist.

The MacDowell Male Chorus is composed of men in the Greater Pontiac area who like to sing. They include electricians, dentists, saloonmen, school principals, engineers, industrial supervisors, teachers, florists, postmen and ministers. Melvin Larimer conducts, with Michael Dempsey at the piano.

Several men, still singing with the group, are charter members. Members who have been with the group 25 years or longer include Dr. Stanley Dalley, Ivan Long, Oscar Schmidt, Kenneth Young, Leeland Dennis, Earl Crawford and Philip Wargelin.

STARTED IN '31. Named for Edward MacDowell, American composer, the group started as a quartet and organized as a choral group in 1931. Adding a cultural spark to the community, the group is affiliated with the Pontiac Department of Parks and Recreation.

Community appearances, the main activity of the group, bring music to the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium, Pontiac State Hospital and the Oakland County Infirmary. Request performers before church groups, clubs and business organizations are frequent.

The chorus is always looking for men with a musical background who desire fellowship with a men's singing group.

Dear Abby Says:

Just Plan Your Own Party, Have Fun on New Year's Eve

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am the luckiest woman alive 364 nights of the year, but on New Year's Eve I wish I were dead!

We always go to the New Year's party at our club, and this is the one night my husband really lets the bars down. He gets himself loaded, and of himself kissing all the women. He tells me that he loves only me, that it doesn't mean anything, but I get so jealous and mad I could choke him. What should I do this year? Should I tell him I can't take it any more and send him alone? I can't go through another New Year's Eve like the last five.

ABBY

DEAR HAD IT: Level with your husband. Tell him you are going to invite a few couples in for a private New Year's Eve party. Then do it.

DEAR ABBY: Ever since I started going with this girl I have had a lot of "friendly criticism" from her mother. I am not a high school sophomore. I am a second year law school student. I got the best immediately on the way I dressed.

I wanted a sports car, but her mother said no to that. I have always worn a crew cut, and now her mother insists that I let my hair grow. I am crazy about this girl, but she is mamma's girl and mamma can do no wrong. Is this deal healthy for me?

Couple Married for 35 Years

The 35th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hovis, Calvert Street, was celebrated at a dinner in the Dwight Avenue home of his brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hovis.

Fifty and slides of past family gatherings were shown at the Saturday fete attended by Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Adams, Gwendolyn Hovis and Marie Larson of Arcadia.

The honored couple has a daughter Mrs. Lou Greer of Berkley Street and three sons Norman, Taylor Street; Kenneth, Scott Lake Road; and Vernon, en route to Korea with the U.S. Army.

Square Dance Club Plans Party Dec. 9

Some 40 couples attended the Donelson School Grand Square Dance Club Saturday evening, dancing to a local orchestra with Norman Hill calling.

Chairman for the evening, refreshments were the William Millers, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Jay Paffenberger and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Newling. Sixteen guest couples were present.

The Christmas dance is slated for Dec. 9 to which members will bring wrapped gifts for teen-age boys at Camp Oakland.

DEAR R. M. U. C.: Like Asiatic flu. If you let your hair grow, it will only to cover the holes in your head. Give the girl back to her mother.

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem concerning my 13-year-old daughter. She is attractive, well-developed and popular. She does well in school, and we have never had any trouble disciplining her.

My problem concerns her modesty. She runs around the house with next to nothing on. She has answered the front door in her bra and slip, and says there is nothing wrong with it.

The other night, while my husband, our son (17) and I were watching TV in the living room, our daughter came in, complained of the heat, and proceeded to take her skirt and blouse off.

Gerber Cereals are enriched with B-vitamins and calcium, are brimming with calories too.

Reassuring resolutions: Trust your mother's instinct to help you hurdle the so-called hazards of baby care. Trust your trusting one to tell you his needs. Be surprised how soon you learn what cry means what.

Mothers, Don't Nag

Help Daughters Reduce

BY JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
Active encouragement is certainly much more potent than inactive, "on the sidelines" help. The following letter from a young girl proves this:

"I'm 18 years old and will be going into my second year of college. During the past year I have gone from 120 lbs. to 115 lbs. I'm 5 feet 1 1/4 inches tall and my measurements have gone from 38-

28-42 to 35-24-36. I feel so much more alive! My phone keeps ringing! However, I would like to lose another 5 or 10 pounds, and another inch or two from my hips.

"My greatest help was my mother. She cooked low-calorie foods, did exercises with me (your exercises), and never nagged me or talked about my diet to my family. My father didn't even realize I was dieting until one day he looked at me and exclaimed, 'Why, you're losing weight!'"

"I'll bet her phone does keep ringing and she deserves it! However, her mother certainly had an important part in her success. It seems to me that too often we criticize our children without giving them positive assistance. Of course, in this instance the reducing routine became a game because two were playing it with the idea of surprising other members of the family."

"I believe that most teenagers dislike having their overweight discussed by their families—they even dislike being teased and certainly hate being nagged about it."

"Many mothers are sincerely concerned about overweight in their children during adolescent years. They also realize that the unfortunate repercussions of teenage overweight on personal life can damage successful living in mature years."

"Why not really work on a plan with your daughter? Why not take an active part in it?"

"If you would like my Family Exercise Plan (leaflet No. 35) and a calorie chart (leaflet No. 36), send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request. Address: Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press."

DIANN LUCILLE MEYERS

Carpet on the Ceiling Sensible in Reverse

By RUTH MILLETT
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Did you read about the Kansas housewife who ordered wall-to-wall carpeting for her living room and had it put on the ceiling instead of the floor?

It kind of shook up rug company officials who thought she must be kidding, until she explained that she had six children (five of them boys). She figured, with all the traffic in the living room, that a carpet wouldn't last very long.

What she wanted it for was to look at, anyway — so why not put it on the ceiling? Then, when she had a chance to sit down and rest for a few minutes, she could just look up and admire her wall-to-wall carpeting.

It reads as though this is one woman who is practical-minded and daring enough to get her own particular status symbol without letting it become a burden to her.

She has her carpet and she doesn't have to worry about the kids spilling things on it, tracking it up, or wearing a path across it.

Furthermore, she shouldn't have to replace it for years and years — perhaps never.

And if anyone makes any remarks about wall-to-wall carpeting on the ceiling she can always say, "Well, it's so common to see it on the floor."

After all, that's the kind of reasoning that has prompted the woman who has everything to wear her hunk as a lining for a cloth coat. Putting carpeting on the ceiling isn't a bit more absurd than putting mink INSIDE a coat, is it?

Church Guild Sets Social Gathering

St. Catherine's Guild of St. Vincent de Paul Church will hold a social gathering Wednesday evening at Parish Hall with members of the other church guilds invited.

Mrs. James LaVeque, guild captain, is in charge of the affair, with assistants Mrs. George Winters, prizes; Mrs. George Bodnovich and Mrs. Alex Fenlon, refreshments; and Mrs. Marshall Sprague, hall arrangements.

Plan Art Exhibit and Sale

Two local artists, Renee and Lloyd Radell, faculty members in the Michigan State University Oakland continuing education program, plan a studio sale of drawings, water colors, oil paintings and sculptures.

Location for their exhibit and sale will be on West University Drive, downtown Rochester. Hours will be from 2 to 5 and 6 to 9 p.m. on Dec. 7 and 8; and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., Dec. 9.

Mrs. Radell recently conducted her third one-man show in Detroit, after successfully climaxing participation in a select group show in New York in 1960. She is represented in several museum collections, including displays in the Detroit Institute of Arts, Walter P. Chrysler Museum of Fine Art in Massachusetts and the Dearborn Museum.

Recipient of numerous awards in recognition of local and interstate competition, she also is represented in many Detroit area private collections, including one of the noted Minora Yamskaki.

Mr. Radell is assistant professor of art at Mercy College, Detroit. Currently displaying his work in many local exhibitions, he also is represented in private collections.

A spokesman for the artists said, "They are vitally interested in the possibilities that this area represents and are dedicated to the cultural enrichment of this and surrounding communities."

Builder Is Cleared of Larceny Charges

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP)—Larceny by conversion charges against builder Jay Schultz of Oak Park and Detroit have been dismissed in Macomb County Circuit Court.

Judge Alton H. Noe ruled Monday there was no proof of criminal intent against Schultz and that the case should have been heard in Wayne County where the builder had his offices.

Prosecutor George N. Purris accused Schultz of mishandling more than $60,000 in deposits on homes.

December Sales Predicted to Hit Close to Record

WASHINGTON (U)—Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges Monday forecast a brisk Christmas buying season and near-record retail sales for December.

Hodges told a news conference that sales next month should be at or a per cent better than in December 1960, when they reached $17.5 billion. That would mean sales next month of near $18.5 billion, just $100 million shy of the April 1960 record.

October sales hit $18.5 billion, thanks to deliveries of new autos, and Hodges said the outlook for November also was very favorable.

One-fifth of the U. S. has no regular annual snowfall.

Plans New Rule in Realty Code

Cleveland Might Place New State Controls on 'Blockbusting' Brokers

EAST LANSING (U)—"Blockbusting" realtors who prey on homeowners' fears of neighborhood changes faced the possibility of stiff new state controls today.

Raymond F. Cleveland, state corporation and securities commissioner, disclosed Monday that he is considering an amendment to the State Real Estate Code to prevent agents from "harassing homeowners" in partially integrated neighborhoods to promote sales.

"The type of broker I have in mind goes into a neighborhood where a minority family has moved in and harasses the other property owners by saying that property values are going down," he said. "He creates tension and panic."

Cleveland indicated the problem was most acute in the Detroit area.

He announced his proposal to state agency and department heads who met to discuss civil rights in the operation of state government.

Gov. Swainson summoned the group together to talk over ways of making sure that racial and other forms of discrimination are not practiced in state government.

Cleveland's proposed "Rule 10" would follow the controversial "Rule 9" adopted by his predecessor, Lawrence Gubow. It prohibits real estate agents from practicing discrimination.

The Michigan Real Estate Association, through some of its members, is testing the validity of the ruling in Ingham County Circuit Court.

Highway Dept. Starts Drive to Remove Signs

LANSING (U)—The State Highway Department has started a drive to remove signs on public right of way.

The department said between 15,000 and 20,000 private signs located on state highway property will be removed in an enforcement program.

State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said the ban on private signs on public right of way was required by state and federal law. Firms will be asked to remove their own signs.

"It is not fair to one business for another to have the competitive advantage of a sign on the right of way," Mackie said. "If we let everybody put up a sign without any restraint, our highways would soon be jungles of competing signs."

Governor Lauds ADC Programs

Praises Plan to Help Mothers Locate Jobs; Critics Are Attacked

GRAND RAPIDS (U)—Gov. Swainson Monday lauded programs in eight Michigan counties assisting mothers receiving aid for dependent children to find jobs.

At the same time, he assailed critics of the ADC program as "unlikable."

Swainson, addressing the Michigan Welfare League's annual conference, cited a report received by the State Welfare Commission in Lansing Monday on demonstration projects aimed at improving the lot of mothers receiving ADC.

Boards of education, business, industry and civic groups developed the guidance and employment programs on a local level. Said the governor:

"These mothers who have been subjected to unlikable public criticism added to their already heavy burden, welcome the opportunity for self help and, because they had received this help, turned to community thanks in their appreciation."

Counties who launched the programs two years ago were Wayne, Genesee, Kent, Calhoun, Kalamazoo, Washtenaw, Shiawassee and Van Buren.

Swainson urged others to follow their lead.

Indonesian Newspapers Show Circulation Hike

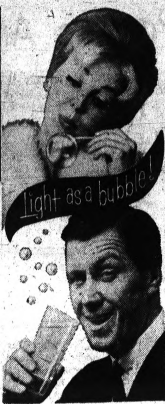

JAKARTA, Indonesia (U)—Indonesian newspapers have a combined circulation of 731,500 today, an increase of 5,000 since June, a government committee in charge of newspaper appropriation said.

This compares with a total circulation of 1,348,000 at the end of 1959. The decline is attributed to government directives concerning retotyping of the Indonesian press along "guided" lines.

A matter of minutes confirmed its fame!

He had heard and read a great deal about this 1962 Cadillac over the past several months.

And frankly, he wondered if any motor car could live up to the compliments that have come the way of this new "car of cars".

Well, he has just spent thirty minutes at the wheel—and the evidence is unmistakable.

Exhibit A: the way it looks. Inside and out, Cadillac styling has an undeniable sense of "rightness" about it. And its colors and fabrics are all master touches of elegance and luxury.

Exhibit B: the way it rides and handles. Boulevard or back trail, this one takes the road with incredible ease. Steering is little more than a gesture . . . and the car's ride is so level and smooth and quiet that it seems almost to float over the highway.

Exhibit C: the way it's built. The car is crafted to the most meticulous standards that can be placed over the manufacture of an automobile—and more than 1400 inspections now guard the production of every model. Here is quality that can be seen, and felt and sensed.

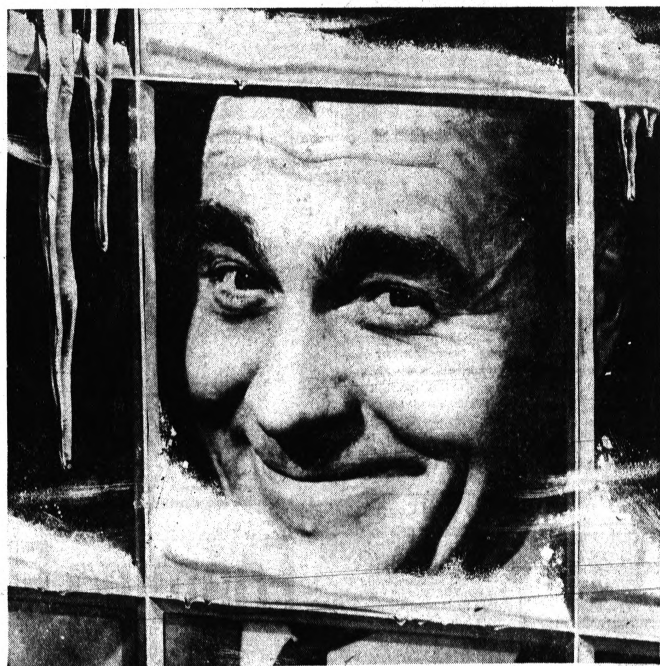

The verdict, of course, is indisputable. This is the zenith of sixty years of fine-car design and engineering. This is a Cadillac among Cadillacs.

We suggest, however, that you visit your dealer's showroom soon and act as your own jury. He'll be happy to present the case for Cadillac at any time.

Auburn Threat to Buckeyes No. 2 With Last Poll Set Next Week

Spartans Remain 8th, but Minnesota Drops After Serback

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Alabama goes against traditional rival Auburn here Saturday as the nation's No. 1 college football team—but only by a narrow margin.

The Crimson Tide, unbeaten and untied in nine games, set out an open date last weekend and lost considerable ground in the Associated Press poll to Ohio State's Buckeyes, who walloped Michigan 50-20.

The semifinal poll showed Alabama slipping from 19 first-place votes last week to only 25 this week among the 40 sports writers and sportscasters on the AP panel.

The Buckeyes from the Big Ten, finishing an 8-0 season in strong fashion, increased their first-place draw from 6 last week to 21 this week.

Louisiana State is fifth, Texas fourth, Mississippi fifth and Colorado sixth, each moving up one rung.

Minnesota, third last week, dropped to seventh after losing 23-21 to Wisconsin.

Michigan State is eighth, Arkansas ninth, and Missouri, the only newcomer to the rankings, is 10th. Missouri's Tigers displaced Kansas, which they beat 10-7 last week.

Alabama, counting heavily on its awesome defense, is a strong favorite to dump Auburn and wrap up its first undefeated and untied season in 16 years, and then head into the Sugar Bowl.

The oddsmakers figure that Alabama is a two-touchdown better than the beaten Auburn.

And, despite the traditional ferocity of this cross-state rivalry dating back to 1892, it would be a mistake to say the odds go out the window.

Only twice in recent years—in 1949 and in 1959—did a true underdog overturn a favored foe in this series.

Alabama Coach Paul Bryant, whose team has yielded only three touchdowns through nine games, figures Auburn should give his vaunted defense a stern test.

"We think," he said, "that Auburn will be the most dangerous offensive team we've faced."

Auburn Coach Ralph Jordan, who has seen his team lose three games by a grand total of four points, says Alabama "is a wonderful football team." But he adds: "We're not conceding anything. We've got a chance to win."

The top ten, with first place votes and season records in parentheses (points on a 10-0 scale):

1. Alabama (10-0) 229
2. Ohio State (9-0) 225
3. Georgia (8-0) 223
4. Texas (8-0) 221
5. Minnesota (7-1) 219
6. Wisconsin (7-1) 217
7. Michigan (7-1) 215
8. Michigan State (7-1) 213
9. Missouri (7-1) 211
10. Arkansas (6-2) 209

Other teams receiving votes: Penn State, Rutgers, Wisconsin, UCLA, Utah State, Arizona, Purdue, Rice, Georgia Tech, Michigan, Duke, Iowa, Syracuse, Syracuse, Kansas.

Ousted Tulane Football Coach Studies Future

NEW ORLEANS, (AP)—Andy Pilney, the one-time Notre Dame head football coach Monday, says his plans are "pretty indefinite," perhaps removed from football altogether.

Under pressure from an alumni splinter group, known as the Friends of Tulane Athletics, Pilney resigned after 15 years on the Tulane athletic staff, eight of them as head coach. His teams won 25 games, lost 49 and tied six.

Tulane named Tommy O'Rourke, Pilney's chief assistant, as acting head coach, but university officials indicated they were searching for other possible candidates.

Ambitious Program

GREENVILLE, N.C. (AP)—Ambitious East Carolina College Monday hired Clarence Stasavich as head football coach, ending his 16-year stay at the helm of Lehigh Rhine's perennial Cardinal conference champions.

The move is the latest step in a building program in which, East Carolina has begun work on a 16,000-seat stadium and has campaigned in recent years to gain admission to the Southern Conference.

Tigers to Play Here

The Detroit Tigers' basketball team—that's right, basketball, not baseball—will play the city of Pontiac next week in the interest of a worthy cause.

The Tigers, coached by Neal (Doc) Finkel of the Detroit club's publicity staff, will play the Pontiac High School gymnasium on Friday, Dec. 8, with proceeds earmarked for the new building fund in the Pontiac YMCA's expansion program.

Sponsored by the city "Y" and several prominent citizens here, the benefit exhibition game will start at 8 p. m.

Members of the Tiger squad include Charley (Faw Paw) Maxwell, Phil Regan, Paul Foy, Jack Aguirre, Terry Fox, Steve Beria and former Tiger Billy Hoek as well as Finkel.

Coaching the local all-stars will be Jim Templeton, physical director at the Pontiac YMCA, and his personnel features a handful of players who have starred for Art Van Ryzin at PCH within the last three years.

Ex-Chiefs on the all-star roster include Booker Hunter, Amos Bailey, John Bandy and Bradell Pritchett. Others set to play for the stars are Roosevelt Wells and Larry Douglas.

The Tigers will come to Pontiac early in the day of the game and speak on an assembly program at PCH. The Bengals guests also will visit Pontiac Northern High School and Western elementary as part of their stay.

All tickets will be sold on 5-6-16.

Provost Gains on Bathgate

MONTREAL (AP)—Claude Provost of Montreal, with two goals and three assists last week, has moved within three points of New York's Andy Bathgate in their National Hockey League scoring race.

Bathgate, who scored one goal and one assist last week, leads the scoring with 30 goals and 22 assists for 52 points, according to official league statistics released today. Provost, with 16 goals and 14 assists, has 30 points. Bernie Geoffrion of Montreal remains third with 25 points. Geoffrion was the league scoring champion last year.

White Sox Trade Mino to Cards for Cunningham

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Minnie Mino, despite his age, still is one of the fastest men in baseball and swings one of the biggest bats. The colorful Cuban led the White Sox in runs scored with 91, stole 11 home bases, hit 14 home runs and drove in 82 runs despite a .280 batting average, his lowest in 12 American League seasons with Cleveland and Chicago. He owns a lifetime mark of .335.

The even swap, consummated after hours of negotiations, was the second inter-league deal made at the annual baseball convention Monday. In a deal of less magnitude, Cleveland sent right-handed pitcher Bobby Locke (4-4) to the Chicago Cubs for infielder Jerry Kindall (2-2).

Johnny Keane, manager of the Cardinals, was almost as pleased by the acquisition of Mino as he was when his daughter presented him his second grandchild last week.

"Minnie will play left field and Mino will switch to right," he announced. "Stan is equally as home in right field as he is in left."

"It will give us more experience in the outfield but it adds punch mixed in with Ken Boyer, Bill White and Mino. Also, it will enable us to bring along our two promising young outfielders, Charley James and Carl Warwick, the way we want to. They'll spell Mino and Mino when they show signs of needing a rest."

The acquisition of Cunningham, who batted .286 with seven home runs and 40 RBI in 113 games last year, paves the way for further trade possibilities. The White Sox reportedly are willing to swap Roy Sievers, their slugging first baseman, for either a starting pitcher, or a third baseman like Frank Malone of Boston. Sievers, 35, slugged 27 home runs and drove in 92 runs on a .295 batting average last season.

Some of the better known names to be drafted were outfielder Cino Cusi by Kansas City, pitcher Joe Drabowski by Cincinnati, pitcher Billy Short by Baltimore, and infielder Billy Conzolo by the Phillies.

The Cincinnati Reds purchased relief pitcher Dave Slader from Washington for $75,000. The New York Mets hired Red Kross as a farm manager and Dick Keely as a scout.

Wilt Threatens Scoring Record

NEW YORK (AP)—Wilt Chamberlain of the Philadelphia Warriors has poured in 834 points in 18 games for a 46.3 average, and is threatening to make a shambles of his previous National Basketball Association scoring record.

The 7-foot-plus skyscraper scored a record 3,033 points last season for an average of 38.4. He can easily surpass the 3,500 mark in the 1961-62 campaign even if he drops down a few points a game over the remainder of the schedule.

Last year at this juncture in the schedule, about one-quarter of the way through, Chamberlain trailed Elgin Baylor of Los Angeles, who then had 716 points. Today Baylor is a distant second with 695 points and a 34.7 average.

The scoring leaders:

1. Chamberlain, Phila. 32 335 154 84 46.3
2. Baylor, L.A. 29 288 105 80 34.7
3. Robertson, Cin. 29 268 97 69 30.6
4. Gartin, N.Y. 29 214 84 60 29.8

Broncos Back in First as Thunderbirds Slip

By The Associated Press

The Dallas Broncos furnished the big noise as the National Bowling League resumed action after a week's layoff. In the three nights the Broncos moved back into first place in the Eastern Division.

The Broncos, who had shooting from J. B. Solomon and Carmen Salvino, took three matches in a row from the Kansas City Stars and replaced the Detroit Thunderbirds at the top by a 2½-match margin.

Detroit lost two out of three to the Fresno Bombers, who increased their first place margin in the Western Division.

Fort Worth, which had held second place, dropped two out of three to Omaha, Los Angeles, which captured two matches out of three from New York, took over in the runner-up spot back of Fresno.

Private Eyes Aiding Search in Dope Cases

LONDON (AP)—Police and "private eyes" stepped up their hunt Monday for a mysterious woman and her gang of racehorse dopers after discovering another top class British steeplechaser was dropped before a big race.

The horse is the 16th to have been doped in the last two months after visits to stables by mysterious women who speak with a French accent.

Police say the woman visits stables, says she intends placing horses to be trained and at the same time makes a plan of the stables. The horses for training never arrive but soon afterwards a horse from the stable is found to be doped.

HOW I STARTED A NEW LIFE WITH $7

By a Wall Street Journal
Subscriber

I work in a large city. Over a period of time I noticed that men who read The Wall Street Journal are better dressed, drive better cars and have better homes.

I said to myself, "Which came first, the hen or the egg? Do they read The Journal because they have more money or do they have more money because they read The Journal?"

I started asking discreet questions. I found that it works both ways. Men who are well off have the information in The Journal. And average fellows like me can actually win advancement and build up increased incomes by reading The Wall Street Journal. How do I know? Because not long ago I sent $7 for a Trial Subscription to The Wall Street Journal. It has put me ahead already.

This story is typical. The Journal is a wonderful aid that I have found. I have been making $7,500 to $30,000 a year. It is valuable to owners of small business concerns. It can be of priceless benefit to ambitious young men.

The Wall Street Journal is the complete business DAILY. Has largest staff of writers on business and finance. The only business paper served by all business press associations. It costs $24 a year, but you can get a Trial Subscription for three months for $7. Send me this ad and attach check for $7 and mail to you.

Published right night in the Midwest to bring you vital business and Washington news immediately. Address: The Wall Street Journal, 111 W. Monroe St., Chicago 6, Ill.

Janet Buys 158 Handbags for Christmas Gifts

By EARL WILSON
NEW YORK — Janet Leigh has been reported around to the Pierre-Cottillon Room, the Peppermint Lounge and other such ch-ch-ch spots, by young Martin Levan, who's in handbags. But don't draw any wrong conclusions, chums. Levan's a close friend of Tony Curtis, whose down in Argentina, making a film, due back Dec. 12. . . . And here's the kicker. Janet bought 158 handbags for Christmas presents, and who do you suppose she got the handbags from? UH HUH! (Janet, I love you, you're beautiful and adorable, etc., but if you send me a hand bag for Christmas — I'll sm-a-sh-you!)
How'd you like to be out there on the floor at the Cottillon Room, singing a love song on opening night — and forget a key word in your song? It happened to Tulsa's lovely Louise O'Brien in the new revue, "Sounds of Love." She smiled at the audience and said, "Wait a minute — I'll come to me!" And it did — from the orchestra leader who fortunately was paying attention. "Real cute," George Abbott told her later. "You probably rehearsed it that way." (Swears she didn't.)
Way DeWitt, Wilbur Evans and Midge & Bill Haggett, who didn't forget anything, get just a bare mention in my place. It pays to goof once in a while.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .
Paris salons are expecting a business increase — from film stars who lost wardrobe in that A. H. M. disaster. Master Sammy Kaye's writing songs and book for a Broadway show about Tin Pay Alley.

In accordance with time-honored BLOB procedure, the program chairman scheduled all seminars and business meetings simultaneously in different suits. Members in good standing, including your traveling recording secretary, were permitted to move about at will and monitor portions of each session for as long as their strength held out.

After the welcoming address by Meyer Meyer of "67th Precinct," the chair summarized the 1961-62 season and reported on the blooming of "25 e-writes" and "Frank McGee's Here and Now" on Fridays, "Meet the Press" and "20th Century" on Sundays, and the continuation of across-the-board 11 p.m. newscasts.

Separate resolutions were adopted, unanimously, expressing satisfaction for the lumping and blobbing of such attractions as "Lassie" and "The Bullwinkle Show." "Wall Disney's World of Color" opposite "Dennis the Menace," and "Mr. Ed" opposite "1, 2, 3-Goes."

Delegates roared approval when advised that early in 1962, Gertrude Berg's "Mrs. G. Goes to College" would move to possible Shirley Booth's "Hazel" series. Wordcast frustration was forecast amid cheering. Various reports which described the infatuation with "Accents" shifted to compete with another highbrow feature, "Bulwinkle."

The ways and means committee reported that its 1962-63 goals were to get "The Kidnapper" moved opposite "Ben Casey," "The Steve Allen Show" moved opposite "The Garrry Moore Show," "Bonanza" opposite "Wagon Train," and "Accents" shifted to compete with another highbrow feature, "Bulwinkle."

3 Air Guard Units Shipped to Europe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Another 1,200 men in three Air National Guard fighter squadrons have been sent to Europe to bolster American tactical air power there in light of the Berlin situation.

The guardmen who were called to active duty Nov. 1 are part of the 161st Fighter Group from Arizona, the 189th Fighter Group from South Carolina and the 124th Fighter Group from Tennessee. Sixty Starfighter jets were sent overseas with them.

The units joined eight other Guard fighter squadrons recently sent to Europe.

Plans for Soviet Grandeur Little Foggy

K's Pet Grain Project Continues to Fail

By PHIL NEWSON

UPI Feature News Analyst

In a six-hour speech before the 22nd Communist party Congress last month, Nikita Khrushchev painted in glowing terms the future of the Soviet people as it would be in 1980.

The Soviet Union, he said, would exceed the United States in all fields of production. It would be the beginning of "a period when all the difficulties and hardships borne by the Soviet people in the name of its great cause will be rewarded a hundred-fold."

It would include a 500 per cent increase in agriculture and free housing for all.

It was a somewhat different refrain last week in a tour of his pet virgin soils project in the Soviet Republic of Kazakhstan beyond the Ural Mountains.

FAILURE TO PRODUCE

For the third straight year, Kazakhstan had failed to meet its grain quotas.

As a grim Khrushchev looked on, party Secretary D. A. Kuznetsov admitted that "substantial failures and miscalculations had lowered the republic's grain production."

At which point, Khrushchev snapped: "They didn't lower the production — they wrecked it."

No single project inside the Soviet Union since the death of Stalin has been so closely associated with Khrushchev as the virgin lands program. But not since the bumper crop of 1958 has the project met its grain quotas.

Purges among the republic's leadership almost annually, have not helped. This week it appeared that a new one might well be on the way.

In January 1960, Khrushchev interrupted another, discouraging reporter to shout, "This is bad, very bad."

Thereupon, he summarily fired

Kuznetsov's predecessor, one Nikolai Belyayev.

In January 1961, with still another bad year behind him, the blame was placed on cheating managers, some of whom even bought privately produced butter to meet state quotas.

SOME OBSERVATIONS

From this record of failures have emerged a number of observations.

One is that Khrushchev himself has managed to emerge unscathed.

Scapgoats have been found for failures to produce quotas which ignored climatic conditions.

Human elements below party leadership also have played a prominent part.

For instance figures prepared by the Soviets themselves showed that in 1959, private plots produced more than half the potatoes, nearly half the vegetables, 83 per cent of all the eggs and 82 per cent of the wool in the Soviet Union.

In the midst of the 1960 harvest, mechanics and tractor drivers imported into Kazakhstan walked off the job in dissatisfaction with their wages. This year, the tractor men are grumbling again.

But, said Khrushchev, they shouldn't grumble. After all they get the same wages as doctors, teachers and factory workers.

This Is a Very Happy Man!

His name is Ernie Lendler and he owns the new Trade Fair store in Pontiac. He opened his first Trade Fair store in Pontiac in 1956. He knew he had good values and to tell people about them he began a consistent advertising program in The Pontiac Press. The Press readers saw his advertising and came to see his values and stayed to buy. So, he advertised a little more and more people came and he grew. In fact he grew out of his store and found another twice as big. Bigger store . . . more advertising . . . more customers . . . and soon he needed another store. This year he built a store with 10,000 square feet of merchandising space. He joined with his new neighbor, Felice Market, to run a 12 page section in The Pontiac Press. Over 62,000 homes got the message and they really turned out. Pretty soon he'll advertise some more, he'll grow some more and . . . It's no wonder Ernie Lendler is a happy man. He gives his customers good values and good service, and he tells them about it by advertising in a good newspaper, The Pontiac Press.

I'm Merry, Are You?

LITTLE MISS MERRY CHRISTMAS—Nine-year-old Charlene Nichols has been elected from a field of 31 eight-to-ten-year-old girls to ride on a special float in Lake Orion's Christmas parade Saturday. A fourth grader at Blanche Sims School, she is the daughter of Mrs. Arvilla Nichols, 485 Oakland St. The parade, sponsored by the Lake Orion Merchants Association, will start at 10 a.m. at Atwater Park.

Consumers Division to Be Reorganized

In a move to serve customers better by bringing management closer to them, Consumers Power Co. will reorganize its Southeast Division into four divisions, the company announced today.

The changes are effective Jan. 1.

Each of the four districts now making up the Southeast Division will become a new division headed by the present district manager as division manager.

Charles F. Brown, appointed a year ago as district manager at Pontiac, will head the Pontiac Division.

David H. Gerhardt, presently manager of the Southeast Division, will be reassigned to the company's offices in Jackson as assistant vice president, a post he was elected to by the board of directors.

In charge of the southeast Division since 1953, Gerhardt will work with Claude A. Mulligan, vice president in charge of divisions, rates and customers' services. Other division managers will be: Wilfred L. Whitfield, South Oakland Division, in Royal Oak; George L. Mayhew, Macomb (County) Division with headquarters in East Detroit; and James P. Thomas Jr., West Wayne (County) Division headquartered in Livonia.

'LOSER TO CUSTOMER'
Mulligan said the reorganization will bring management closer to the customer and promote improved standards of service in the fast growing Oakland, Macomb and Wayne County areas.

Brown said it would also mean adding to the staff the Pontiac office, 28 W. Lawrence St.

"Nearly half of the company's 551,000 gas customers are in the Southeast Division," Mulligan said, "and in the city of Pontiac we have a large and growing use of electricity." The volume of business is expected to increase.

Rocky Abandons Fruitless Search for Son Michael

HOLLANDIA, Dutch New Guinea (AP)—New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller today abandoned his fruitless personal search for his youngest son Michael, who disappeared in New Guinea jungle and began the long sad journey home.

"The chances of finding Mike are greatly diminished," Rockefeller told newsmen as he left the search headquarters in New Guinea, on the south coast of Dutch New Guinea.

"A miracle could happen and perhaps it will, but we must be realistic. The hope is very small," the governor said.

No Progress for Princes

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Representatives of Laos' three leading princes failed again today to reach agreement on security measures at a meeting of their princely leaders.

In answer to questions from members of parliament, Nehru said India has strengthened its own position in the area, establishing half a dozen military posts with "bases behind them."

"It's not easy to conduct warfare in this region but if necessary this has to be done," he said. Nehru said that when India is fully prepared it will take "effective steps to recover such territory as was (sic) in the possession of China."

Ladakh is an area at the extreme north of India. It borders on Tibet and China's Xinjiang Province and is part of the former princely state of Kashmir, territory which is disputed between Pakistan and India.

Says Red Zeal Root of Tension

Izvestia Editor Hears JFK Hit Russian Aims

Words Printed Today in Soviet Union and Released in Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy told editor Alexei Adzhubei of the Soviet government paper Izvestia in an interview published today that the root of East-West conflict is the Soviet's efforts "to communize, in a sense, the entire world."

The interview was published today by the Soviet government paper and made public by the White House.

In it Kennedy told Adzhubei, son-in-law of Premier Khrushchev:

"If the Soviet Union were merely seeking to protect its own national interests, to protect its own national security and would permit countries to live as they wish to live in peace—then I believe that the problems which now cause so much tension would fade away."

Kennedy said Americans want the Soviet people as well as themselves to be able to live in peace. "It is this effort to push outward the Communist system, on to country after country, that represents, I think, the great threat to peace," Kennedy said.

"If the Soviet Union looked only to its national interest and to providing a better life for its people under conditions of peace, I think there would be nothing that would disturb the relations between the Soviet Union and the United States."

The lengthy interview, which took place last Saturday at Kennedy's home in Hyannis Port, Mass., was as much dialogue as a question-and-answer session.

To Kennedy's comment on the Soviet's attempt to spread its system around the world, Adzhubei replied, "I cannot agree with you in that part of your answer where you are saying that we are trying to 'communize' the world."

Adzhubei said the Communist party congress last month declared "that we are against any export of the revolution, but we are also against any export of counterrevolution."

He told Kennedy that from the Soviet viewpoint, the United States is interfering in the affairs of many other countries.

In response to Adzhubei's remarks, Kennedy said he did not want to get into a debate. But he asserted that the United States wants every nation to have the right to make a free choice as to its government.

Kerbawy Sues for $5½ Million

DETROIT (AP)—W. Nicholas Kerbawy, "deposed" general manager of the Detroit Pistons, today filed a $5½-million suit in U.S. District Court against Fred Zollner, owner of the National Basketball Association club.

The suit charges Zollner with libel, slander and conspiracy, and Kerbawy said damage to his professional reputation resulted from these.

Kerbawy, of 1010 Joanne Court, Bloomfield Hills, signed a contract to become general manager of the Pistons in 1958 and reported his 28-year part was for $1 million. Earlier this year Zollner placed Kerbawy on "a leave of absence," accusing his general manager with a "conflict of interests, stemming from a stockholders fight for control of the Detroit Lions football club."

Zollner fired Kerbawy Sept. 30, 1961, and Kerbawy hired him.

In his 10-page, three-count declaration, Kerbawy charged his ability to obtain employment had been impaired because of his ouster.

The suit also charged that Zollner, in placing Kerbawy on a leave of absence last January, did so "contriving maliciously to destroy (Kerbawy's) good name and reputation and to bring him into public scandal, infamy and disgrace."

Kerbawy asked $1 million for alleged libel, charging that Zollner wrote a letter that was published and which Kerbawy said implied that he was "disloyal, dishonest, untrustworthy, neglectful of his duties, unfair to his dealings with the Detroit Pistons, not dedicated to his employment."

Strike Cuts Power Over French Nation

PARIS (AP)—Lights flickered out and trains rumbled to a halt throughout much of France today in the worst of a series of one-day public strikes for higher wages.

Few of France's 46 million escaped either minor frustrations or major inconveniences as about 500,000 workers of the government-operated transport, gas and electric industries carried out their protest in work stoppages that disrupted the nation's routine.

The lack of power gave thousands of nonstrikers a one-day layoff and dealt city dwellers a hard blow.

The rolling wave of walkouts started at 4 a.m. with a 24-hour nationwide railway strike.

Community Bank Orders $500,000 Electric Brain

Community National Bank will become the first bank of its size in the Midwest to process records with an electronic computer system when it installs a $500,000 Burroughs system.

The system, designed especially by Burroughs technicians and bank personnel, will be installed in the downtown office and be in use in 1½ years, according to A. C. Girard, president and board chairman of the bank.

It will process checking accounts, savings accounts, Christmas Club accounts, loans, money orders and cashier checks in "one of the most progressive and comprehensive approaches to handling yet developed by a bank of its size," Girard said.

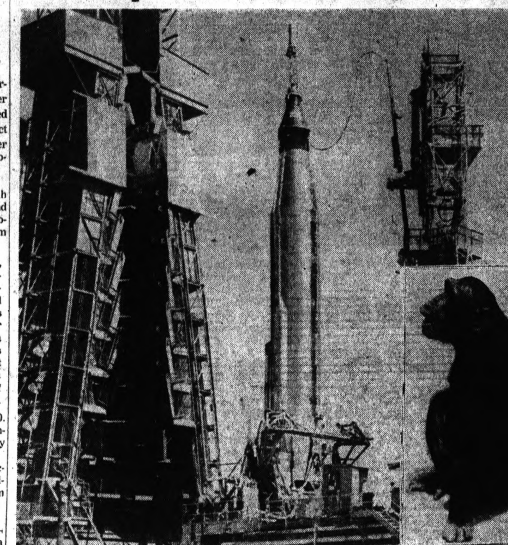

"This will mean faster and more accurate services for more than 250,000 people in the bank's customer area," he added.

The advanced system uses a magnetic ink character recognition encoder, a development that enables record processing equipment to "read" coded information from bank documents, such as checks, and then automatically do the countless tasks involved in sorting, computing and posting accounts.

This will involve numbering all checking accounts, Girard said. The order was placed with Burroughs after months of study by a 10-member operating committee, he said.

The system features a solid state processor, a card reader, a high speed document sorter reader, four magnetic tape units and a line printer.

Ready to Send Astro-Ape Aloft

POISED FOR TRIP—An Atlas missile, topped with a Mercury capsule which will carry a chimpanzee into a three-times-around-the-earth orbit, is standing on its launching pad at Cape Canaveral, Fla., ready for launching. U.S. to Orbit Chimpanzee

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The chimp will be performing his space tasks, tripping levers on signal from a control panel, down the forests of Africa, will enter a mighty rocket for whirlwind tour through space—three times around the world.

WILL CHUTE BACK
They will make a strange pair as they blast off from this spaceport—a 125-ton rocket and a 40-pound chimpanzee.

Then the Atlas will drop away and the chimp, locked inside a two-ton space capsule, will complete his three orbits, returning to earth by capsule parachute after rockets have slowed his 17,400 m.p.h. pace.

Perhaps half an hour after the Atlas blazes into the sky, the chosen chimpanzee will pass over his native Africa for the first of three times.

Commission Will Study $6.7-Million Figure for Pontiac '62 Operation

Highlighting tonight's City Commission meeting at city hall will be the proposed 1962 budget and final action on an ordinance to require immunization of dogs against rabies in Pontiac.

It is expected administrators will approve a 1962 budget totaling $6,719,675, an increase of some $147,000 over the 1961 budget.

Preliminary budget proposals must be presented to the commission before Dec. 1 each year. The proposed budget, which administrators have indicated will require a hike in the tax rate, will remain with commissioners for study and possible revision until after Jan. 1.

A public hearing and final adoption will be scheduled sometime in January.

SOURCE IS SPLIT

Administrators indicate revenue from sources other than taxes next year will amount to some $2 million. The remaining $4,719,675 needed to balance the proposed budget would have to come from taxes.

Assuming the city's total assessed valuation remains as it was this year, this would require a tax rate increase.

On a total assessed valuation of $230 million, the 1961 tax rate of $13.60 per every $1,000 of assessed value produced only $3,359,700.

Commissioners also will be faced with the possibility that next year's total assessed valuation may drop.

The controversial amendment to Pontiac's dog ordinance would make two major changes if approved.

First, it would require dog owners to present a valid certificate from a veterinarian showing that their dog has been immunized against rabies before a license will be issued. To be valid, the certificate must show protection through Dec. 31 of the license year.

Second, it changes the deadline for dog licenses from May 15 to March 1 of the license year. Any persons obtaining dog licenses on or before March 1 will pay $2 (the current rate). After that date the license fee is $3.

The amendment requires all dogs in Pontiac over six months of age to be licensed. Any dog found roaming public streets without vaccination tags would be impounded.

Dear Abby Says:

Just Plan Your Own Party, Have Fun on New Year's Eve

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY I am the luckiest woman alive 364 nights of the year, but on New Year's Eve I wish I were dead!

We always go to the New Year's party at our club, and this is the one night my husband really lets all the bars down. He gets himself loaded, and makes a fool of himself kissing all the women.

He tells me he loves only me, that it doesn't mean anything, but I get so jealous and mad I could choke him.

What should I do this year? Should I tell him I can't take it any more and send him alone? I can't go through another New Year's Eve like the last five.

ABBY

HAD IT

DEAR HAD IT: Level with your husband. Tell him you are going to invite a few couples in for a private New Year's Eve party. Then do it.

DEAR ABBY: Ever since I started going with this girl I have had a lot of "friendly criticism" from her mother. I am not a high school sophomore. I am a second year law school student. I got the heat immediately on the way I dressed.

I wanted a sports car, but her mother said nix on that. I have always worn a crew cut, and now her mother insists that I let my hair grow. I am crazy about this girl, but she is mamma's girl and mamma can do no wrong. Is this deal healthy for me?

R.M.U.C.

DEAR R. M. U. C.: Like Asiatic flu. If you let your hair grow, it will be only to cover the holes in your head. Give the girl back to her mother.

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem concerning my 13-year-old daughter. She is attractive, well-developed and popular. She does well in school, and we have never had any trouble disciplining her.

My problem concerns her modesty. She runs around the house with next to nothing on. She has answered the front door in her bra and slip, and says there is nothing wrong with it.

The other night, while my husband, our son (17) and I were watching TV in the living room, our daughter came in, complained of the heat, and proceeded to take her skirt and blouse off.

(Advertisement)

My husband and I are concerned, but she won't listen to us. Perhaps you can get through to her.

CONCERNED

DEAR CONCERNED: Since your daughter actually sees nothing wrong with running around with "next to nothing" on you can keep her properly covered by demanding it. She may obey to please you but, unless she understands why it is important to have a sense of modesty about her body, you are fighting a losing battle. Mother, a frank mother and daughter talk is long overdue.

Everybody's got a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3363, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Bringing Up Baby.

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

Home from the hospital... a bundle of love in your arms... who wouldn't be enthusiastic? But many a new mother forgets that her baby is still undergoing a dramatic change and therefore tires more quickly. During the first two weeks it's wise to take advantage of as many helping hands as you can. Then, try to organize your day in terms of baby's needs and your foot-steps. Let the household chores that can go hang. Dusting can wait, a little heart that needs you can't.

Do you know why babies need specially prepared cereal? Because they supply iron to replace the diminishing store of iron baby had at birth. Gerber's Baby Cereal provides iron to spare... 6 tablespoons give him more than 100% of the Recommended Daily Dietary Allowance for infants. Then too,

Gerber Cereals are enriched with B vitamins and calcium, are brimming with calories too.

Mother savers. An inexpensive high stool is a good investment for sitting out chores like ironing, peeling vegetables, etc. If you alternate sitting and standing chores and change shoes once a day, you'll reduce fatigue considerably.

Reassuring resolutions: trust your mother instinct to help you hurdle the so-called hazards of baby care. Trust your training one to tell you his needs. Be surprised how soon you learn what cry means what.

As you probably know, babies, like adults, need a daily ration of vitamin C. Gerber's Strained Orange Juice is just the thing to give baby for plenty of this important vitamin. Ever so mild, it's pasteurized for baby's protection and finely strained for easy feeding. Other excellent starting aids: Gerber's Strained Apple Juice and Orange-Apple. Big Fullback Sparked Buckeyes to Top Place With 10 Touchdowns

CHICAGO (AP) — Fullback Bob Ferguson of Ohio State's unbeaten champions is a unanimous choice and the only repeat on the 1961 All-Big Ten football team named by the Associated Press. Other unanimous selections are quarterback Sandy Stephens and tackle Bob Bell of runner-up Minnesota.

In addition to Ferguson, an outstanding candidate to repeat as an All-American, the Buckeyes also landed guard Mike Ingram on the first team.

Two places each also went to Michigan State and Purdue. Northwestern got one berth each while Iowa, Indiana and Illinois were blanked.

The 217-pound Ferguson led the Buckeyes to the conference title and top yard-gaining honors. In six Big Ten games he drilled 627 yards for a 5.2 average and scored 10 touchdowns. In three years Ferguson was thrown for a loss only three times for a total of six yards—a three-yard setback as a sophomore, one yard as a junior and two as a senior.

Stephens is an excellent triple-threat back who was indispensable for Minnesota as the core of its attack. He gained 394 yards rushing, 75 passing and was outstanding on defense.

With Stephens and Ferguson in the No. 1 backfield are Michigan State's George Saimes, a powerful fast runner who shines equally well on defense, and Michigan's mercurial Benjie McRae. On the line, in addition to tackle Bell, are ends Pat Richter, Wisconsin, and Jack Elwell, Purdue; tackle Dave Behrman, Michigan State; guards Mike Ingram, Ohio State, and Stan Scuzurke, Purdue; and center Larry Onesti, Northwestern.

The 6-foot-4-inch Richter set a conference record of 100 yards in a game against Minnesota, catching 36 passes caught and seven touchdowns.

The line averages close to 210 pounds and the backfield a little more than 190.

The No. 2 unit includes quarterback Ron Miller of Wisconsin, the Big Ten's total offense champion who gained 1,188 yards passing; backs Sherman Lewis, MSU, Dave Rainey, Michigan, and Mark Woodson, Indiana.

Ends Tom Hall, Minnesota, and Tom Perdue, Ohio State; tackle Pete Scholte, Northwestern, and Don Brumm, Purdue; guards Tony Parrilli, Illinois, and Sherwyn Thorson, Iowa, and center Bill Van Duren, Iowa.

Press Team Duel Drawing Top Stars

Some of the top bowlers around Oakland County are being lined up to represent various leg establishments in team competition in one of the new features of the 5th annual Pontiac Press Bowlerama tournament starting Sunday.

Five-man groups will be battling for a huge "House Trophy" in the meet. Team scores will be figured on the actual scores of the 5 men in the regular handicap tourney.

Team members do not have to bowl together or at the same place. It also does not matter if they make the finals or not. Totals of the listed team men will be compiled to determine a champion.

Besides the house trophy, each member of the winning unit will earn an additional five-dollar gift certificate. This will be aside from any money he may win in the individual part of the three-week competition.

Huron Bowl, a qualifying site the 2nd Sunday on Dec. 10, has entered the meet it sponsored in a rugged Detroit league. The contest includes proprietor Joe Bonfiglio, Joe Foster, Mike Samardzija, Jim Walker and Frank Spadafora.

Lakewood will have Bill Bell, Carl Bessler, Bob Leroy Jr., Bob Eskilsson and Gary Thompson carrying its colors. The West Huron Street keg place will be one of the qualifying locations this Sunday.

Hilltop in Rochester has listed Try Gary, Bill Johns, Keith Parker, Ray and Dr. E. E. Ludwig.

The new 200 Bowl, championship and actual tourney, will be at the Detroit Recreation, Joe Puertas, Monroe Moore, Don Martell and George Chivovsky set to go. One more star will be added.

Set to bowl for Cooley Lanes are proprietor Paul Rabaut, Ted Bessler, Harold Bessler, Clyde Prince and Harvey Brown.

Airway Lanes is set on its five team members. They will be Les Rothbarth, Bill Lee, Ed Gibbs, Arnold Osta and Karl Van Dellen. Airway is an alternate qualifying site.

Pontiac Lakes Lodge 810, B & M and Maple Lanes in Wallis Lanes, Dixie Recreation, Howe's Lanes, Motor Inn Recreation and Wonder Lanes are certain to have teams but have not completed their rosters as yet.

Rochester Lanes, Collier's Lanes, Fairgrounds and Sylvan Lanes are other possibilities.

Wonderland is a qualifying place along with Lakewood this week and Collier's joins Huron Dec. 10. The finals are Dec. 17.

The addition of the team event to go along with an increased actual invitational and the big handicapped tourney.

First Time Entrant Sweeps NCAA Meet

EAST LANSING (AP) — Oregon State came through in style the first time it ever entered the NCAA cross country run, sweeping both the individual championship and the team title.

Junior George, who ran barefooted, won the four-mile grid over the Michigan State University course in a creditable 18:46.6 despite the handicap of bitter 32-degree cold and a 20-mile-an-hour wind.

The slender, 142-pound runner finished a good 30 yards ahead of Matt Ratz of Brigham Young University, who was being defended by helping him win.

Oregon State won the team title with a low of 68 points. San Jose State was second with 81, defending champion Houston third with 122, Kansas fourth with 124 and the University of Iowa fifth with 161 points.

Count Fleet Honored

NEW YORK (AP) — Count Fleet winner of horse racing's triple crown in 1935, has been added to the sport's hall of fame in the National Museum of Racing at Saratoga, N.Y. It was announced Monday.

Count Fleet, who swept the Kentucky Derby, the Preakness and Belmont Stakes, had a short but meteoric career, winning 30 of 31 races as a 3-year-old, and only six times as a 2-year-old. His career ended when he struck himself during the running of the Belmont Stakes that race by 25 lengths.

MSU Names Former Dellerla Pupil MVP

By BILL CORNWELL

EAST LANSING—Paul Dellerla, Pontiac Central's talented head football coach, certainly must be proud man today.

One of Dellerla's prize gridiron pupils, fullback George Saimes of Michigan State University, was awarded a double honor here Monday night at the annual MSU team banquet in the Student Union building.

Saimes, who was coached by Dellerla for three years at Canton (Ohio) Lincoln High School before he migrated to MSU and Paul came to Pontiac, garnered the two highest honors possible in Spartan football.

As a start, he was named the Spartans' most valuable player for the 1961 season and Gov. John B. Swainson presented him with the annual Governor's Award, which is symbolic of the achievement.

Before he had time to recover from that revelation, outgoing Captain Ed (Rocky) Ryan came to the speaker's table and announced that Saimes had been elected captain of next year's Spartan squad.

Saimes, a fiery competitor on the playing field, was visibly shaken as he came forward to accept the MVP award from Gov. Swainson and words of thanks came hard and slow.

Double Honors for Saimes

The emotional impact was even greater when the 195-pound junior heard that his teammates had chosen him as their 1962 captain. With a little aid from head coach Duffy Daugherty, Saimes acknowledged his second honor—in broken, choked-up fashion.

Named to The Associated Press All-Big Ten team today and a leading candidate for All-American honors, Saimes is the first Spartan to win both these honors in the same year since 1944 when Jack Breslin, also scored a "double."

Breslin, now an assistant to MSU President John Hannah and secretary to the Board of Trustees, spoke in behalf of Dr. Hannah who was forced to miss his first team banquet because of an important session at the Constitutional Convention in Grand Rapids.

Wayne Fantes received the Oil Can award from Daugherty to open the program. The Oil Can award annually goes to the Spartan player who contributes the most honor to the team.

Congratulations to the Spartans for their fine T-2 season were given by Athletic Director Biggie Munn, faculty athletic representative John Fyzak and, of course, Duffy.

Hint of Deemphasizing

ABILENE, Tex. (AP) — Hardin-Simmons, swept by a huge defeat in the athletic department and a 12-20 record in basketball, announced Monday that it would continue a program of intercollegiate athletics. But there was a hint of deemphasis.
