OAKLAND UNIVERSITY MOTTO

The motto of Oakland University, "Seguir Virtute E. Canoscenza," which is incorporated in its seal, has a distinguished origin, Canto XXVI, line 120, of Dante's Inferno.

These are the final words of Ulysses' great speech to his men urging them to sail on and on in pursuit of knowledge and experience of the world — even beyond the pillars of Hercules, traditionally the frontier and limit of legitimate exploration.

This is the three-line stanza:

Considerate la vostra semenza

Fatti non foste a viver come bruti

Ma per seguir virtute e canoscenza

Consider your birth

You were not made to live like brutes

But to follow courage and knowledge

Message from the President

Congratulations to the Oakland University graduating class of 2014. This is a special day, when we recognize you for a milestone that is the culmination of years of hard work and effort. You are to be commended for your dedication and perseverance to reach this milestone.

Your experiences at Oakland have prepared you for contributing to a diverse, rapidly changing and increasingly global world. You will find it is a world of opportunities as well – and the education you received at OU will help you make the most of the opportunities presented to you.

You have the knowledge and skills to make a difference in the world. As you continue to grow and gain experiences of your own, always remember that learning is a lifelong process that doesn't end with graduation. We encourage you to stay connected with the faculty, staff and friends you have made here at Oakland University.

Again, congratulations on a significant achievement – and accept my sincere best wishes for your continued success.

Betty J. Youngblood, Interim President

Message from the Provost

On behalf of the university community, I'd like to congratulate each of you on joining the Oakland University Class of 2014. This is indeed an important achievement, of which you can be justifiably proud.

As you put your education into practice, set goals for yourself and make decisions that will help you reach those goals. Stick to your principles. Treat others with fairness and respect, and make a commitment to continue your education and personal growth.

Drawing upon what you have learned at Oakland, you have the ability to make a positive influence in the world. As you do so, you'll benefit professionally and personally.

Please accept my warmest regards and best wishes.

James P. Lentini, Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost

About Oakland University

Oakland University was created in 1957, when the late Alfred and Matilda Wilson donated $2 million and their 1,500-acre estate to Michigan State University to begin a new college in Oakland County.

Named Michigan State University-Oakland, the new campus enrolled its first 570 students in 1959. In 1963, its name changed to Oakland University as the first class of 125 students graduated. In 1970, the Michigan Legislature recognized the maturity and stature of the University by granting it autonomy, and the governor appointed Oakland University's first Board of Trustees.

From its beginnings, the University has emphasized academic quality, concentrating on providing a dynamic, student-focused learning environment with integration of liberal and professional studies by a faculty of dedicated scholar-teachers. The natural beauty of the campus, much of it still wooded and undeveloped, is enhanced by comprehensive recreational facilities and modern buildings that house the University's many academic and public service programs as well as more than 2,100 residential students.

Dedicated to preparing graduates to make meaningful and substantial contributions to the workplace, society and academia, the University is organized into eight academic units: the College of Arts and Sciences; the schools of Business Administration, Education and Human Services, Engineering and Computer Science, Health Sciences, Medicine, and Nursing; and The Honors College.

Oakland has 139 bachelor degree programs and 127 graduate degree and certificate programs. Doctorates are offered in education with concentrations in educational leadership, counseling and early childhood education; biomedical sciences with specializations in medical physics, health and environmental chemistry, and biological communication; reading education; systems and mechanical engineering; physical therapy; applied mathematical sciences; nursing practice; music education; computer science and informatics; psychology, medicine, and electrical and computer engineering.

The university is continuously adapting to meet the changing needs of students and the marketplace. New programs delivered online and on campus include master's degree programs in nursing, biology, training and development, software engineering, an executive MBA program in health care management, and innovative Honors College courses. Business and industry partnerships provide unprecedented opportunities for advanced, hands-on learning.

Now, more than 20,000 students attend classes at Oakland University each year, and the number of OU alumni has increased to more than 96,000.

Gebran S. Anton, Entrepreneur

Gebran S. Anton has an extensive record of success as a businessman, a civic leader, and a philanthropist. He has been an enthusiastic and generous supporter of Mt. Clemens and Macomb County for several decades. Mr. Anton's record of achievement reflects his deep desire to improve the community through enhancing the arts, education, and business opportunities.

Mr. Anton has strongly supported the arts. Examples include helping secure a $100,000 Cool Cities grant to create an outdoor art park and developing an endowment fund in the Community Foundation for Southeast Michigan to purchase many pieces of art for public places. In 2005, Mr. Anton capped three decades of arts support in Mt. Clemens by spearheading a $1.7 million campaign to renovate and expand the historic Carnegie Library in the downtown area. When completed in 2006, the City named the renovated facility the "Anton Arts Center".

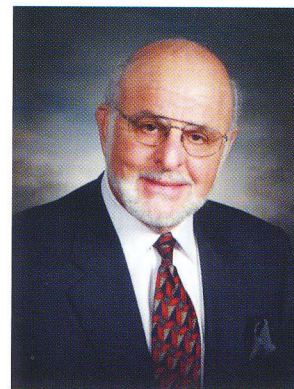

Mr. Anton has also been a diligent supporter of education. Some years ago, he created a local retail store operated solely by high school students so that the students could learn about all aspects of running a successful business. In 2010, Mr. Anton and his business partner, Stuart Frankel, generously donated an office building in Mt. Clemens to Oakland University. Following renovation, this building was named the Anton/Frankel Center (AFC). This beautiful facility has significantly enhanced access to higher education in Macomb County.

In addition to supporting education and the arts, Mr. Anton has a long and impressive record of community service. In 1985, he was named Macomb Distinguished Citizen. Over the next 25 years, Mr. Anton was named Citizen of the Year or Volunteer of the Year on several occasions by various Macomb organizations. In 2007, Governor Jennifer Granholm honored Mr. Anton with the Civic Leader Governor's Award for his efforts, passion, and commitment. Also in 2007, Mr. Anton received the Macomb Hall of Fame Award.

Many civic organizations and boards have benefitted from Mr. Anton's participation, including the Knights of Columbus, the Elks Club, Mt. Clemens Business Association, Michigan Retail Association, Boy Scouts of America, and the Mt. Clemens High School Foundation Board. He has served as President or Board Chair of the Lions Club, the Chamber of Commerce, the YMCA, the First National Bank, St. Joseph Hospital, and several other local organizations.

Gebran S. Anton is currently self-employed in commercial and industrial real estate development. He is a developer and broker for Anton Management Group, LLC and a partner in Anton, Sowerby and Associates, Inc. in Mount Clemens. His real estate development activities in Mt. Clemens have included the Clemens Center, Towne Square I and II, Cherry Street Mall, Gibraltar Trade Center North, Community Central Bank, Bath City Bistro restaurant, the new Macomb Daily Building, City Centre, Vicant Building, plus many other sites. He is also the former owner of Anton's Retail Stores, including nine locations in this region, mostly at major shopping malls across the tri-county area.

Mr. Anton has been married to Suzanne Patricia Anton for 61 years. They are the parents of four adult daughters.

Terry M. Blackhawk

Terry Blackhawk is the founder and director of Detroit's acclaimed insideOut Literary Arts project, a poets-in-schools program serving over 5,000 youth per year. She began teaching English in 1968 after graduating from Antioch College, and took up writing poetry, herself, when she was already teaching it to her students. "I thought, 'If I'm asking them to do this, I should have the same experience myself.' I fell in love with it. I became a poet. It's who I am."

Terry's poetry collections include Body & Field (Michigan State University Press, 1999), Escape Artist (BkMk Press, 2003), selected by Molly Peacock for the John Ciardi Prize; and The Dropped Hand (Marick Press, 2007). She has published two chapbooks, Trio: Voices from the Myths (Ridgeway Press, 1998) and Greatest Hits 1989-2003 (Pudding House Press). Her poems have appeared in numerous anthologies and journals, including Marlboro Review, Michigan Quarterly Review, Florida Review, Borderlands, Artful Dodge, The MacGuffin and Nimrod. Her essays have been published in Review Revue, An Emily Dickinson Encyclopedia, Language Arts Journal of Michigan and anthologies from the Teachers & Writers Collaborative. She was a finalist for the 2009 Pablo Neruda Prize from Nimrod Press for "Out of the Labyrinth" and other poems. She has received many recognitions for her teaching, including Creative Writing Educator of the Year from the Michigan Youth Arts Festival (2008), a Humanities Award from Wayne County Arts, History and Humanities Council (2008), and 2007 Detroit Bookwoman of the Year from the Women's National Book Association. She is the recipient of the 2010 Pablo Neruda Poetry Prize from Nimrod International for her poem "Chambered Nautilus, with Tinnitus and Linden." Terry's latest poetry collection is The Light Between (Wayne State University Press, 2012).

The oldest of four children, Terry remembers her youth as a sort of moveable feast. Her father, Ben Bohnhorst, was a much-traveled professor of education; her mother, Marie, a pianist. There was little money, but loads of culture. "The piano followed us wherever we moved." She is the mother of the historian Ned Blackhawk and grandmother to Eva and Tobias.

Terry serves on the board of the Association of Writers and Writing Programs (AWP) and is a founding board member of the WITS (Writers in the Schools) Alliance.

Lana Pollack

Lana Pollack was appointed Chair of the U.S. Section, International Joint Commission, by President Barack Obama, effective June 26, 2010.

Throughout a diverse career in public office, education and the public interest sector, Ms. Pollack has demonstrated leadership on a range of public policy issues. She served from 1996-2008 as president of the Michigan Environmental Council, a coalition of 70 environmental organizations working to protect the Great Lakes and Michigan's environment. She was elected three times to the Michigan legislature, serving as a state senator from 1983-1994. As a state senator, Ms. Pollack became a leading advocate for women, children and the environment. In this capacity, she earned praise as the architect of Michigan's landmark 1990 polluter pay statute which, before it was substantially amended in 1995, saved taxpayers $100 million by requiring proven polluters to pay for the cleanup of toxic waste.

In addition to these roles, Ms. Pollack was a Fellow at the Institute of Politics at Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government, taught at the University of Michigan and was an elected trustee of the Ann Arbor Board of Education. Other professional experiences included co-founding a statewide general interest magazine, and co-directing a school for elementary education in Lusaka, Zambia.

She served on a number of educational, non-profit and corporate boards, including the Michigan Natural Resources Trust Fund Board, which annually directed $35-50 million in discretionary public funds to protect, purchase and enhance parkland and open space for preservation and recreation.

Ms. Pollack, grew up on the shore of Lake Michigan in Ludington. She earned a BA in political science and an MA from the University of Michigan. She is married to Henry Nathan Pollack, with whom she raised two children.

MACE AND PRESIDENT'S MEDALLION

In medieval times, a mace was used in warfare. The mace is one of the oldest traditions in academe dating back to the early 1400's when it transitioned from warfare to ceremonial use. Considered a symbol of the university itself, the scepter mace is carried by the university marshal during commencement, convocation and other ceremonial events to signify the arrival of the faculty processional. Oakland's mace, created in 1994, was crafted by jeweler and OU alumnus, Paul Haig and designer Robert Dobbie of P.R. Haig Jewelers in Rochester.

The 30-inch long, approximately 8-pound mace has a white oak handle trimmed with sterling silver ribbon. A black obsidian disk on top is ringed with silver and is inscribed with the university motto. Obsidian is a natural black glass formed by the earth. On each side of the obsidian disk, there is a 14k yellow gold sail. On the base of the handle, a gold oak tree was modeled after a live tree on campus. The clean, straightforward design of the mace reflects the fact that Oakland University is a contemporary institution.

The President's Medallion, also created in 1994 by the same jeweler, is six inches in diameter and reveals the university sail, hangs on a silver chain and is worn by the president at ceremonial events. It is a permanent part of the university's president's academic regalia.

Mission

Oakland University has a three-fold mission. It offers instructional programs of high quality that lead to degrees at the baccalaureate, master's and doctoral levels as well as programs in continuing education; it advances knowledge and promotes the arts through research, scholarship and creative activity; and it renders significant public service. In all its activities, the university strives to exemplify educational leadership in a diverse and inclusive environment.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

An edifying note contributed by a certain anonymous doctor of philosophy.

On at least two solemn occasions during the academic calendar — spring and fall commencement — the faculty of the university publicly displays its full academic regalia and participates in the liturgy of processional and recessional, that curious coming and going that symbolizes the ceremony of commencement. The purposes of commencement are well known, but the reasons for the peculiar garb of the celebrants and their odd order of march are often as obscure to the audience as they are, in fact, to the faculty itself. This note may serve to explain academic dress and the professional pecking order it costumes.

Contemporary academics are descendants of clerical schoolmen in the universities of medieval Europe. Like the clergy, members of the bench and bar, and other learned professions, medieval scholars were clothed in heavy robes to stay warm in unheated stone buildings. Like all members of a hierarchical society, the medieval faculties rejoiced in visible insignia of rank. These outward signs of accomplishment and authority were tailored into robes. Although the need for such voluminous garments to keep the scholar from freezing is long past, the use of them as emblems of dignity remains. You will observe that all caps and gowns worn by our faculty are black, with certain disturbing exceptions. Black was the color adopted by mutual agreement among American universities at the end of the 19th century. In Europe, each university has its own distinctive gown, varying in color and cut from all others. A European academic assemblage is a far gaudier occasion than its counterpart in America. Recently, certain universities in this country rashly broke the agreement and authorized robes in their own colors: for example, the crimson of Harvard and green of Dartmouth may be seen in our ranks. This unsuitable spontaneity has been frowned on by sister institutions, yet the mavericks not only persist in their madness, but gain adherents to their ranks with each passing year.

There are three basic academic degrees: the baccalaureate or bachelor's degree, the master's degree, and the doctorate. A special style of robe is prescribed for each. The bachelor's gown is sparsely cut, neat, but a bit skimpy and unadorned, as befits apprentices. The master's gown is still simple, but fuller, sports a sleeve of extraordinary design impossible to describe, and has a hood draped from the shoulders down the back. Once used to keep the frost from the tonsured heads of medieval clerks, the hood is solely a badge of a degree of scholarly achievement. The master's hood is small and narrow, but displays the colors of the institution that awarded the degree. If you knew the colors of American universities, you could easily identify whence came our masters. The doctoral robe is the most handsome of academic raiment. Generous of cut, of fine aristocratic stuff, it is faced with velvet chevrons on the ample sleeves. You will note that most of the velvet facings and chevrons are black, but that some are of other colors. According to personal taste, the doctor may display the color of his or her doctoral degree on the sleeves and facings: light blue for education, pink for music, apricot for nursing, orange for engineering, and many more. The royal blue of the Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) is the most commonly seen in liberal arts institutions such as Oakland. The doctor's hood is the most elegant of all academic appurtenances. Large and graceful, it is lined in satin with the colors of the university that awarded the degree and is bordered with the color of the degree itself. Most academic costumes include the square cap called a mortarboard; the doctor's tassel may be either black or gold — tassels of all other degrees are black and stringy.

To instructed eyes, the order of march in the processional and recessional reveals the standing of individuals in the institution's formal hierarchy. In the processional the order of entrance into the hall is, quite fittingly, from most junior to most senior. The baccalaureate candidates enter first, followed successively by the masters and doctoral candidates with the whole separated from the faculty by a decent interval. In the faculty order, the instructors precede the assistant professors that in turn are followed by the associate professors. The august full professors bring up the rear. After a respectful distance come the deans who in turn are separated by a significant space from the awful majesty of the platform party, the vice president, the president, and the members of the board of trustees. All remain standing until the board is seated. After the ceremony, the order of recessional is the reverse of the processional. The greatest dignitaries stream out first, with the artfully organized ranks of priority wallowing in their wake.

It is hoped that these notes may make more intelligible the spectacle you are witnessing today. A discerning intelligence may detect in it many clues to an understanding of the academic profession as it confronts the ambiguities of the future with ancient wisdom and dignified confidence.

UNIVERSITY AWARDS

OUTSTANDING DISSERTATION AND THESIS AWARDS

In order to acknowledge the critical importance of producing quality dissertations and theses, Oakland University is designating the university's Outstanding Dissertation and Thesis Awards. These awards are based on the overall scholarship contribution of the work, quality of writing and organization of the work, and the creativity and originality of the research.

The 2013 recipient of the Outstanding Dissertation Award is:

Nan Xu, Ph.D. Mechanical Engineering

The 2013 recipient of the Outstanding Thesis Award is:

Hypaitia Rauch, College of Arts and Sciences, Master of Science, Biology

ALFRED G. WILSON AWARD

The Alfred G. Wilson Award is presented to an Oakland University senior man who has made outstanding contributions as a scholar, leader and responsible citizen to the Oakland University community.

The 2014 recipient of the Alfred G. Wilson Award is a senior in the School of Engineering and Computer Science:

Trpko Shawn Blazeovski, Information Technology

MATILDA R. WILSON AWARD

The Matilda R. Wilson Award is presented to an Oakland University senior woman who has made outstanding contributions as a scholar, leader and responsible citizen to the Oakland University community.

The 2014 recipient of the Matilda R. Wilson Award is a senior in the School of Engineering and Computer Science:

Caymen May Novak, Mechanical Engineering

HUMAN RELATIONS AWARD

The Human Relations Award recognizes outstanding work and dedication toward the improvement of human relations on the university campus.

The 2014 recipient of the Human Relations Award, a recent graduate in the College of Arts and Sciences:

Christopher Dalton Keemer, Psychology

OAKLAND UNIVERSITY™

Alumni Association

Dear Graduates,

Congratulations on your graduation! Thank you for all that you have done during your time here as students – you are living, breathing examples of the transformation and opportunity made possible by an Oakland University education. I am especially proud to congratulate our Legacy graduates, whose families – like mine – have made OU a family tradition.

The university has enjoyed remarkable growth during your time at OU. I encourage you to stay in touch and remain engaged in the life of the university through the alumni association.

Together, we make a difference by joining fellow alumni at events that support scholarships and programs, volunteering our time, making a gift, advocating for OU, mentoring OU students, and sharing our OU pride. One of the most important things we can continue is to support scholarships and provide opportunities that help ensure the success of the next generation of OU graduates.

As a graduate of OU, you automatically qualify to receive the benefits available through the association without membership fees. On behalf of the Oakland University Alumni Association Board of Directors, I hope that this will encourage you to continue to participate in the life of the university in a way that is meaningful for you.

Good luck in all you do as you begin this next chapter in your life.

Best Regards,

John Hruska, BGS '86, SBA '89
Chair, OUAA Board of Directors

This program contains an unofficial list of candidates for degrees and honors for 2014. The lists are as accurate as possible; however, because of printing deadlines, names of some degree recipients may not appear, while names of degree candidates may appear even though they have not completed their degree requirements.

The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the Academic Records Office, 102 O'Dowd Hall, 2200 North Squirrel Road, Rochester, Michigan 48309-4401.
