Judge Dismisses Sullenberger Hospital Suit

Record Budget Gets Approval of School Board

Tax Allocation Group Scheduled to Receive Request for $10 Million

By HAROLD S. COHEN

A record operating budget of $8,355,547 was approved last night by the Pontiac Board of Education for presentation to the County Tax Allocation Board.

The budget, including $1,590,000 for debt service and $930,000 to pay for schools now under construction, totaled $10,875,571.

The board agreed that it send the allocation board a budget reflecting its entire needs for the 1958-59 fiscal year, rather than the austerity operating budget of $7,864,230 offered by the administration last month.

The higher operation budget figure was arrived at by adding to the "austerity" budget the sum of $491,317. This added money represents important projects the board feels should be done next year but for which few or no funds are in sight.

Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent, told the board that it is his hope that the Tax Allocation Board will allot the same 10 mills, of the total 15 mills for county, township and school taxes, that was given last year.

If less than 10 mills is allocated, the board will have to resort to increased borrowing for construction costs and revert to the austerity budget for operations, he indicated.

Dr. Whitmer said the estimate of state aid for the next fiscal year is $2,919,030. With the school district's millage remaining at 10, another $7,103,282 in local taxes should be raised for a total income of $10,138,312, or about $750,000 less than needs.

This deficit will have to be overcome, he said, by cutting the operating budget and borrowing to pay construction bills.

He also indicated he would again ask the allocation board to grant the school district its 1.7 mill differential on school taxes in Pontiac and outside Pontiac.

Residents in the school district who live outside Pontiac now pay 1.7 mills less in taxes in order to allow a margin for their township

Panel Discusses Traffic Plan for Pontiac

Checks on Road Into Willow Run

Mackie Admits GM Has Approached Him About Highway to New Plant

LANSING (AP) — State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie confirmed today reports that he had been approached by General Motors spokesmen about construction of a new plant near the Willow Run Airport.

Mackie said the GM representatives asked about a roadway to provide access to the plant.

"The GM representatives told us that construction of the plant is starting this summer and that it is expected to be ready for production by early next year," he said.

Mackie said he understood that the plant would employ between 3,500 and 4,000 persons.

Mackie said his meeting with two representatives of GM's real estate division was attended by Al Eastman, administrative assistant to Rep. George Meader (R-Mich).

"However," Mackie said, "no information was given about the type of production. The representatives said they were not at liberty to divulge this information."

Mackie said he was told the new plant will be located near the GM hydromatic plant adjacent to the airport.

The highway commissioner said he told the GM representatives the state would study the road project with the understanding that the corporation would pay part of the cost.

Mackie acknowledged reports that the new plant would be used for small car production to meet foreign competition but said he could not confirm them.

General Motors continued to decline comment on reports that it would build a new plant.

GM recently announced it was shutting down the Chevrolet truck plant at Willow Run for remodeling and said the unit would be closed for about a year.

City Roads Plan Highly Praised

As more details were disclosed yesterday, the Barton Transportation Study preliminary report was acclaimed from several quarters.

From a preview of its findings, it appeared the city would have:

1. A five-year plan covering basic changes necessary for a modernized street system.

2. A broader design for further development of arterial and secondary roads.

Among basic changes recommended was a new one-way loop system skirting the downtown area to keep through traffic out of the central business district.

Construction that would lead eventually to other cross town thoroughfares further out, was also urged.

The time-schedule for the five-year plan was not necessarily rigid said George W. Barton, head of the Evanston, Ill. consulting firm that prepared the eight-months report through a $17,000 grant by the Downtown Pontiac Assn.

"This study will give Pontiac a chance to improve its street system a little bit at a time in easy steps, not by 'giant-steps,' that might be difficult to take," he said.

Barton and the study's project engineer, Michael A. Powills Jr., outlined their ideas at a two-hour gathering of about fifty officials and citizens interested on local, county and state levels.

City Boys' Club Robbed of $1,428 Last Night

Boys' Club Week in Pontiac, which began Monday, experienced a setback last night when someone stole approximately $328 in currency plus $1,100 in checks from the Pontiac Boys' Club, 530 E. Pike St.

The money was discovered missing just an hour before the festive "Miss Boys' Club" contest was held.

"When I returned about an hour later, the sack was gone," said Fiorillo. Most of the currency was in rolled change, and the sack was quite heavy, said police.

The money was to have been deposited in the bank today.

Education Fund Boost Assured

Rebel Republicans Back $2.3 Million Increase for Colleges in House

LANSING (AP) — Enough rebel House Republicans lined up today behind a $2,330,000 boost in higher education spending to assure passage of the bill at $90,144,000.

The increase would restore a portion of Senate cuts which reduced 1958-59 expenditure authorizations for state colleges and universities about 13 million below Gov. Williams' recommendation.

The higher allotment would restore University of Michigan, Michigan State University and other institutions to operating fund levels for the current fiscal year.

The development shattered Republican House unity on budget policies and threw a Republican caucus into disorder. It pointed to probable attempts by Democrats, with splinter Republican support, to jack up appropriations for junior and community colleges, mental hygiene and other purposes.

Speaker George M. Van Peursem confirmed to newsmen the caucus revealed more than the eight Republican votes needed to assure the increase for colleges and universities were available.

In the confusion of the 90-minute wrangle, Van Peursem said, no formal decisions were taken other than to keep in readiness for a passage vote Gov. Williams' 20 million dollar increase in the State Intangibles Tax.

With Republicans in the Senate holding firm for austerity, the House situation made it certain that remaining issues of the legislative session cannot be resolved in time for the scheduled midnight windup, and that some knock down, drag out fights are ahead in adjusting House-Senate money disagreements.

Dismissal Opinion of Judge

Following is the text of Judge Timothy C. Quinn's dismissal of the Pontiac General Hospital-Dr. Neil H. Sullenberger suit this morning.

"The essential legal proposition presented in the plaintiff's case is found in the last sentence of the bill of complaint. As I understand the reasoning advanced to support this proposition it is as follows: Since the state granted plaintiff his license and has not delegated the authority to revoke that license, the state alone has such authority, and any local rules which contravene this authority to any extent are invalid.

"If this is the law of this state it should be so announced clearly and unequivocally by the Supreme Court.

"This court proposes to afford that opportunity before submitting these litigants and this community to the sensational publicity and degradation necessarily incident to a public trial of the charges contained in these pleadings.

"Plaintiff relies on the medical practice act and some dicta in Albert vs. Gogebic county hospital as legal authority for his reasoning. Nowhere in the Medical Practices Act is there any reference to regulating hospitals and this court cannot accept the Gogebic case as authority for the proposition advanced by the plaintiff.

"It is the opinion of this court that the plaintiff has ignored some very fundamental laws in arriving at the proposition he asks this court to accept as the law of the state.

"All political power is inherent in the people. Government is instituted for the equal benefit security and protection. That power remains there except as delegated by constitution or statutes.

"Any city may acquire, own, establish and maintain hospitals. Charter provides for acquisition of the hospital . . . These two provisions are certainly 'permissive in dictating that the constitution and statues recognize that authority to establish and maintain city

Supreme Court Ruling Suggested by Jurist

Decision About Appeal Facing Pontiac Doctor Who Sought $250,000

By PETE LOCHBILER

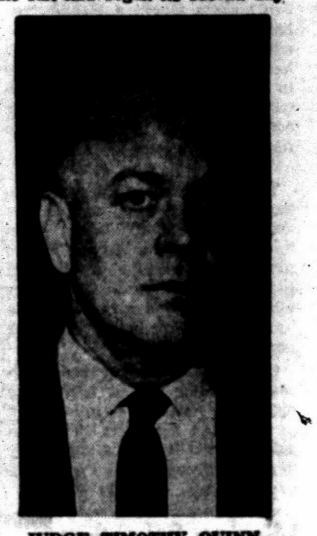

Circuit Judge Timothy C. Quinn today dismissed Dr. Neil H. Sullenberger's $250,000 damage suit against Pontiac General Hospital.

The dismissal could be appealed by Dr. Sullenberger to the Michigan Supreme Court. Judge Quinn said the legal question involved should be settled there.

The 42-year-old chest surgeon, whose fight for the right to practice again at the city-owned hospital had attracted national attention, was undecided whether to appeal or not.

JUDGE TIMOTHY QUINN

in court, left the doctor and his attorney looking a little stunned.

Had the hospital's motion to dismiss the suit been denied, the way would have been open to a long trial, lasting several weeks at least, during which sensational charges and counter charges might have been aired involving the medical profession.

The motion also dissolved a court order, obtained by Dr. Sullenberger when he filed suit last Dec. 2, restraining the hospital board of trustees from taking action that could lead to Dr. Sullenberger's permanent suspension from the hospital's medical staff.

Carl I. Flath, the hospital director, and William P. Babcock, a board member and its former chairman, did not believe any action against the surgeon would be taken at the board's next scheduled meeting April 17.

They were attending the trial as defendents when it got started this morning at 9:30 a.m. in Circuit Judge H. Russell Holland's vacant courtroom in the county courthouse.

The case resumed today to hear arguments on three motions made

Winter Snaps Back at City

Snow, Cold Spell Put Damper on Spring in Pontiac Area

Winter returned to the Pontiac area today with snow and temperatures in the 30's.

The Weather Bureau's five-day forecast put a slight damper on spring activities when it disclosed that temperatures will average about five degrees below normal. Showers have been forecast for Monday and Tuesday.

The mercury may drop below the freezing mark tonight, the bureau said. A low between 34 and 30 is forecast with high tomorrow hovering between 44 and 48 degrees.

The temperature preceding 8 a.m. in downtown Pontiac was 34 degrees. The mercury had climbed to 39 degrees at 2 p.m.

U. S. Quickly Says 'No'

Reds Set Date for Parley

MOSCOW (INS) — The Soviet Union today asked the U.S., Britain and France to open ambassador-level conferences on April 17 in preparation for an East-West summit parley.

Meetings on this level could be followed by a conference of foreign ministers and, if everything proceeds smoothly, to a heads-of-government parley.

Russia proposed that date for the envoys' meeting in messages to the three Western allied governments. Presumably, the meetings on the ambassador-level will be held in Moscow.

But in Washington, the United States quickly denounced as unacceptable the Soviet suggestion.

The U. S. reaction, one of the fastest on record, was announced from the White House while President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles were still discussing the note just received from Moscow.

Potter Predicts Right-to-Work Law

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

Michigan someday will have right-to-work laws enacted, as in force now in 18 other states, Sen. Charles E. Potter predicted last night.

The Republican member of Congress said the "behavior" of some top labor leaders will be the force behind bringing such laws to the state.

"They're bringing on the right-to-work laws by their own behavior," Potter said in a press conference in Birmingham during his grass-roots tour of Oakland County.

He singled out UAW president Walter P. Reuther as one such leader using "labor as a commodity and not for the good of the workingman."

Potter, who is expected to announce he will seek his second six-year term in Washington soon, bitterly denounced Reuther and other leaders who, he said, use union dues for political achievement.

Saying he is not anti-labor, Potter added that he felt it would be better to bring labor unions under anti-trust laws, like big corporations, instead of having right-to-work laws in the state.

Retail Sales Decline Levels Off at 1 Pct.

WASHINGTON (AP) —The government reported today that retail sales dropped one per cent in March and the rate of personal income dipped 300 million dollars annually.

In each case, the decline was less steep than in the previous month, giving support to President Eisenhower's assertion earlier this week that March saw a slowing-up of the decline.

They Just Look for New Victims

Old Swindle Artists Never Die

Con men working "employe benefits" never die out.

Pontiac business men have been fleeced out of money in the past and will be worked over again as these high pressure bunko artists flit from city to city.

The latest was a "benefit" for the members of Pontiac City Employes Local 100. Probably none of the members has heard about it, but children's tickets were sold in bunches of ten and twenty and an ad in the "program" was an even hundred dollars.

John Riley, President of The Chamber of Commerce was one of the "intended victims" and was offered a "choice location" for an ad and a nice batch of tickets.

Riley happens to be a veteran advertising campaigner and he smelled a dozen rats when the salesman refused to come to The Press in person to get advertising copy or deliver the tickets.

Otherwise, he could have been identified if arrested. So John Hirlinger, Chamber of Commerce Secretary, and John Riley, with a Pontiac officer called in person and the suspects were ordered to appear at Police Headquarters next morning in person. The next day when Riley & Hirlinger appeared to testify, the thieves had ducked arrest and flown the coop. Merchants who "bought space" can write it off to additional experience with crooks.

"Don't buy space in programs for any organization that refuses to visit you in person and that isn't willing to wait for the money until the booklet or program is printed," says Police Chief Straley. "And established business firms don't have to pay in advance for charity tickets."

It is believed these are the same men that have been "working" Pontiac's outskirts the past three weeks with good success.

2 Airmen Tell of Bloody Fight

Assailed Aboard South Korean Transport Plane During Flight

SEOUL (AP)—Two South Korean airmen who fought off an attempt to force their plane into North Korea said they lost so much blood their armed assailant almost broke away from them.

Capt. Kim Kap Kyoo, pilot of the C46 transport, and Sgt. Chon Byong Hoon, the plane engineer, gave this account from their hospital beds:

The twin-engine plane was on a flight from Taegu to Seoul yesterday when Capt. Choi Jung Il, one of seven men aboard, climbed into the cockpit and fired two shots from a .45-caliber pistol at Sgt. Kim Sang Bok, the radio operator. One bullet smashed into Kim's forehead, killing him instantly.

Choi fired two more shots at Sgt. Chon, grazing his forehead. Then he slugged Capt. Kim and Lt. Choi Byong Lin, the copilot, on the back, houting, "Let's go to North Korea!"

Kim, a 27-year-old veteran of the Korean War, said he heard only the words "Let's go . . ." but immediately sensed an attempt to take over the plane. He pretended not to understand and slowly turned around, loosening his seat belt as he turned. At that moment Sgt. Chon leaped at Choi, grabbing his wrist and forcing the pistol down.

Kim grabbed the intruder's left wrist and a moment later another bullet pierced the pilot's left arm. For the next 10 or 15 minutes, the two airmen fought a blood-bathed battle with the captain. They finally forced him to the floor but had to fight several minutes more to hold him before other passengers came to the rescue. Even the copilot left the controls several times to help hold the intruder.

The passengers in the rear compartment said they mistook the shots for engine trouble and, when the plane dropped from 6,000 to 800 feet during the scuffle, got ready to bail out. Once they joined in, they gave the captain a thorough beating before the plane landed.

Capt. Choi was put under arrest when the copilot landed the plane at Pyongtaik, 40 miles south of Seoul. An air force spokesman said an investigation is under way to determine whether he is a Communist agent.

Missing Schoolman Safe With Relatives

Everett C. Russell, Pontiac and Royal Oak schoolman missing since late Wednesday afternoon, was located safe at the home of relatives in Kewanee, Ill., early today.

Russell, who had been seriously ill with a kidney and heart ailment last fall and early winter, was last seen near his home at 383 W. Iroquois Rd.

Members of his family and friends feared he might have suffered some temporary loss of memory or other mental breakdown because of the illness.

When Russell heard he was listed as a missing person he was "completely surprised," said his wife. He said he had gone to clear up some business concerning a farm he owns near the town.

Rhode Island reported as much as five inches in some places. Four inches were measured in some parts of Connecticut and in the Catskill Mountains of New York.

Horse racing was canceled at Lincoln Downs, R. I., because of a five-inch accumulation on the track.

At Storrs, Conn., the University of Connecticut postponed a baseball game with the University of Maine, and a track meet with Northeastern University because of a four-inch cover.

Two inches fell during the forenoon at Boston, where the Weather Bureau said rain succeeding the snowfall would cause slushy conditions in northern New England.

Pontiac Roads Plan Gets High Acclaim

Besides the loop system, here are some of the other changes the study recommends for Pontiac:

Creation of a beltline along Montcalm and East boulevard. This would involve widening at many points, and construction of a Montcalm extension to Telegraph road and an extension of East boulevard to Woodward avenue.

Creation of another major artery to the west of the Grand Trunk Railroad running from Franklin and Square Lake roads to the Montcalm extension. This would utilize Bagley and Norton avenues and involve construction of a new roadway south of the Montcalm extension, a Norton-Bagley connection, and a connection between Bagley and Franklin.

Elimination of several existing bottlenecks. Involved are smooth connections between Auburn avenue and Orchard Lake avenue; Franklin road and Saginaw street; and Huron street and Mt. Clemens street.

Other new Grand Trunk grade separations were recommended at the Montcalm extension, W. Huron, Orchard Lake, Franklin, and the East boulevard extension.

The study takes into account State Highway Department plans to build a new M59 superhighway into the city limits between Auburn and South boulevard. It recommends that the new highway end east of East boulevard by means of two forks, one to Auburn on the north and the other to South boulevard on the south.

Here's what some of the attending officials had to say about the street plan:

Donald Cruise, chief planner for the State Highway Department: "This seems to be a well-planned study and Pontiac should be congratulated on taking the initiative on this important step.

"The highway department will be happy to study your data and consider a redesignation of trunklines that might aid you financially."

Glenn L. Richards, Detroit DPW director and highway planner: "Pontiac is the first city of its size that I know of to make such a study and have it available for the state. With its plans on paper, it should soon be in a position to take advantage of all available construction funds. Other cities have complained they missed out on highway money. Those cities were without definite plans.

"The whole metropolitan area must work together solving its road problems. This is a tightly-knit area, what one community does directly affects other communities."

Paul Reid, director of the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission: "Pontiac should be very proud that it was citizens' money that financed this important study. It appears to be backed by substantial data. It is ambitious, but I do not think it is a pipe-dream."

Paul Van Roekle, Oakland County Road Commission highway engineer: "Pontiac must be congratulated on doing first what other communities have neglected to do. I can promise you cooperation from the road commission. Having a plan of this caliber completed is a big step in getting important road improvements under way."

Visiting Jurist Ends Controversial Case

by the defense Tuesday, the day trial began. Tuesday's session lasted only eight minutes in open court and 75 in the judge's chambers, where hospital attorneys first brought up their motions.

The first motion was to dismiss the case on grounds that Dr. Sullenberger had not exhausted every means for relief under the hospital's by-laws. The second was to lift the court order and the third to strike the question of damages from the suit.

Judge Quinn listened to arguments on the first motion only, then dismissed the case.

The hospital's arguments were presented by attorney Glenn C. Gillespie, speaking for Flath and the board of trustees, and by William H. Hartman, representing the medical staff, another defendant.

The main argument was that Dr. Sullenberger had asked for appeal hearings by the board of trustees and then failed to attend them.

The hearings were accorded him, Gillespie said, under hospital by-laws as a means of seeking appeal from a recommendation of the credentials committee of the medical staff that he be suspended "because of his conduct in and around the hospital."

TERM HEARINGS 'FUTILE'

Dr. Sullenberger's attorney, Harry N. Dell, in answer had charged it would have been "futile" for Dr. Sullenberger to attend the hearings, since the board, he believed, "had reached an inflexible decision to suspend him."

Dell's main argument, however, was that the hospital had no right in the first place to make rules and regulations governing the professional qualifications of licensed physicians. He said only the State Board of Registration in Medicine had this right.

Judge Quinn called this question "the heart of the case."

In an opinion that he had written out after reading pleadings in the case and briefs prepared by both sides on their arguments, Judge Quinn said:

"Nowhere in the state's Medical Practices Act is there any reference to regulating hospitals. Since all political powers are inherent in the people, and remain there except as delegated by constitution and statute, this court recognizes that authority over the hospital rests in the people of the city.

"It concludes, then, that the rules and regulations that were promulgated are valid."

Judge Quinn said the question of ultimate authority over the hospital should be put before the Supreme Court, where it could be answered "unequivocally" on appeal.

He said he was not passing on the "reasonableness" of the suspension, but termed "totally unwarranted" Dr. Sullenberger's claim that the hearings would have been "futile."

The surgeon will have 20 days in which to file his appeal after a final order dismissing the suit is entered.

The dismissal represented a victory for the hospital, not only by ending the suit, but by keeping medical testimony out of it.

Dell wanted to show that Dr. Sullenberger, charged by Flath with violating professional standards in 25 cases, in six of which he said the patient died, had a professional record as good or better than the other 160 staff members at Pontiac General.

To do this, he had tried to subpoena thousands of hospital records concerning surgery by other doctors there. The hospital up to today had successfully fought this move.

Gillespie, arguing for dismissal, charged there was an attempt to place "the whole hospital medical staff" on trial.

"If we tried this case according to his (Dell's) methods, it would require a long, long period of time and submission in court of several filing cabinets full of hospital documents," he said.

Dell argued that the rules and regulations in question were "totally impossible and unworkable." He said:

"The citizens of this community own the hospital and they have a right to choose their own doctors. But if the hospital's method of arbitrarily suspending any one doctor is upheld, then every citizen is potentially denied the right to use this hospital."

Opinion of Judge in Dismissing Suit hospital resorts in the people of that city.

"From these provisions, this court concludes that the rules and regulations of Pontiac General Hospital were promulgated validly. By his application for staff membership, plaintiff agreed to be bound by these rules and regulations.

"On such rule provides a means by which the charges against the plaintiff could be heard by a committee from the group charged with the responsibility with running the hospital.

"Through his attorney, David Spence, the plaintiff sought to avail himself of the benefits of this rule. Three dates were set for such a hearing and plaintiff never appeared.

"He now pleads that such an appearance would have been futile, a totally unwarranted conclusion. The medical profession might not like the analogy, but factually, the situation is analagous to a union member reporting to the courts before he has exhausted his remedies under the union constitution and by-laws.

"This court holds the plaintiff has brought his suit prematurely and the motion to dismiss is granted. This court is not passing on the reasonableness of the rules and regulations, nor on the action of the executive committee in recommending plaintiff's discharge. Such questions must abide a hearing on the merits.

"This decision on the first motion makes a decision on the other two unnecessary.

"Because the implications of this case were so much greater than the rights of any party to it, this court explored the possibility of settlement and found none. That was to be expected with conditions and tempers as they presently are.

"However, if the ruling of this court is sustained on appeal, the problem will be right back where it should have been settled in the first place — in the hands of the profession involved and the management of the hospital.

"This court has deliberately used this reasoning as the main basis for this opinion in order that the question may be answered unequivically on appeal. In doing so, the well reasoned brief furnished by counsel for the medical staff has not been ignored."

Castro's Columns Elude Trap in Cuba

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Rebel leader Fidel Castro's two main guerrilla columns appeared today to have eluded a government trap in mountainous eastern Cuba.

There were scattered clashes there and some shooting in Havana. But the tempo of action fell off sharply after the futile rebel uprisings in Havana Wednesday and in Santiago yesterday.

Cuban army headquarters said the group led by Castro "which had been isolated is still being pursued." A communique added that troops were chasing other rebels along the north coast of Oriente Province.

The army had announced five days ago that rebel columns led by Castro and his brother Raul had been cut off in Oriente. But today's communique indicated no progress in attempts to capture or destroy either.

The communique asserted many rebels were surrendering and prisoners were being taken.

QUEEN — Pretty Jo Ann Giroux, 19, has been crowned beauty queen of Ferris Institute, in Big Rapids, where she is a freshman. The Walled Lake High School graduate is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Giroux, of 3174 Erie Dr., Orchard Lake and was runner-up for the title of queen of the Pontiac Auto Show last summer.

"Union members, tired of seeing their dues used to better their leaders' advancement, have been awakened by the disclosures of the McClellan labor rackets committee," the World War II Silver Star winner said.

"My mail from UAW members has increased ten-fold since these hearings," he said. "Their wives are bringing to their attention that they should find out just where their dues go.

"Today we are seeing a new light of independence on the part of the labor man, to make up his own mind as to how he should vote," he added.

Potter visited Birmingham and Pontiac during the fourth day of his week-long tour of the state to find out what the people back home think. He met for a chicken dinner with some 40 GOP county workers and then met a group of 100 at the Republican headquarters in Birmingham.

BRIEFED ON JOB SITUATION

During his brief stopover in Pontiac, he learned from the Pontiac Michigan Employment Security Commission office that 1,004 unemployed workers in the Pontiac area had exhausted their compensation payments during the first three months of this year.

Upon his return to Washington, he said, he would introduce legislation which would allow Michigan to issue these checks, with money loaned by the Federal Government, for an additional 13 weeks beyond the original 26.

Questioned on the recession, the 42-year-old native of Lapeer, continued his stand that the Eisenhower administration is not doing all it can to end it.

"We must find something with an immediate effect," he said, "and this would be it." The creation of more public works does not put more money into circulation soon enough, he said.

"I've talked to the President on this," he added, "and between now and June 30 I will try and knock the tax down at least to 5 per cent."

The Day in Birmingham

Holding 'Carp Carnival' for Children Tomorrow

BIRMINGHAM — Make way for the junior Isaac Waltons. The Birmingham Recreation board is sponsoring a "Carp Carnival" at Quarton Lake tomorrow from 1 to 4 p.m. Young fishermen will have their chance to prove that the trophies don't all go to the deep sea experts with their expensive tackle and chartered boats.

Last year, in spite of nasty weather, 250 youngsters turned out to test their skills against the finny residents of the lake. Although there's little prospect of an increase in temperature, Recreation Board members are hoping for an even better turnout this year.

Prizes will be awarded to the youngest fisherman; for the longest fish caught; for the most fish landed and for the boy or girl who shows up with the most unusual tackle.

"It's all yours," Robert Girardin, recreation director, announced to the children of Birmingham today. "Quarton Lake is there, the fish are there, the prizes are there. Let's see what you can do about it!"

The Altrust Club of Greater Birmingham will join more than 400 other clubs Monday in the 40th anniversary of the group.

Shortly after its formation, Altrusa adopted vocational guidance as its project and since that time has sponsored career conferences in high schools throughout the country.

Since taking on its second major project in 1945, the grants-in-aid, more than $100,000 has been given to Asian and Latin American Women to help finance their education.

During Monday's meeting the local club will install Mrs. Gunnar Karlstrom and Miss Harriet Pearson as members.

The trio walked into the station at 11 p.m. with their hands in their pockets and ordered the young attendant to "open the till," according to Township Police.

Alone in the station, Edward Vincent of 3092 Fox Rd., Walled Lake, told police he handled them approximately $540 in cash.

He said he did not see nor hear an automobile.

Birmingham's Senior Men's Club was scheduled to hear Herbert H. Gardner, senior vice president of the Detroit Bank and Trust Company's local offices, speak at its meeting this afternoon. The discussion group chose for its topic, "Transportation from the Beginning to the Year 1900."

Steve Anderson, 14, of 1251 Buckingham Rd., Birmingham, was injured slightly yesterday when his bicycle was struck by a car at Adams and Maple roads.

Robert W. Dunn, 31, of 1946 Brewers St., Birmingham, told police the boy's bike went through a red light and ran into the path of his car.

A Birmingham woman, Mrs. Helen Haddick, 53, of 1196 Suffield Rd., escaped injury when her car was struck in the rear by an auto driven by Edward K. Glenn, 62, of Detroit.

Glenn told police his brakes failed and he was unable to avoid hitting Mrs. Haddick's car which had stopped for a traffic light at Hunter boulevard and Oakland taxes within the overall 15 mill constitutional limit.

In other action, the board adopted recommendations for personnel promotions and changes.

Victor Lindquist, science teacher at Pontiac Central High, was named assistant principal of Pontiac Northern High.

The new posts of administrative assistants were authorized at both high schools.

Donald McCracken, former second assistant principal at Pontiac Central, will fill the new job at Pontiac Northern, while William Lacy, head of the business department at Central, will take the same post at Central.

Also at Northern, Peter Evarts was named head of the English Dept.; Leo Kawiecki, head of the Business Dept.; and Evert Meyer, head of the Industrial Dept.

At Central, Thomas Atkinson will replace Lacy as head of the Business Dept.

The board also shuffled three junior high principals. Norman Kuijala, of Washington, will take over at Lincoln; Kenneth Nagley, of Eastern, will move to Washington; and Theodore Wiersema, of Jefferson, will shift to Eastern.

The moves will leave a vacancy at Jefferson, instead of at Lincoln, where Philip J. Wargelin has been promoted to the principalship of Pontiac Northern.

Waterford Committee to Plan Heating Code

When the Waterford Township Electrical Board met last night, there were 15 men present who were interested in adopting a heating ordinance for the township.

So far, there has been no set rules governing the installation or relocation of heating units. As a result, many furnaces have been improperly installed, often causing fire from short circuits, according to Fire Chief Edward Smith.

Police Satisfied Daughter's Thrust Killed Stompanato

Lana Turner Stars Today at Inquest

Handsome Johnny Stompanato, onetime bodyguard for ex-gambler Mickey Cohen, was stabbed to death last Friday in a bedroom of the actress' pink-carpeted Beverly Hills mansion.

Police say they are satisfied with the story that Miss Turner's daughter Cheryl, 14, held the kitchen knife that pierced Stompanato's stomach. Cheryl said he was threatening her mother.

The coroner's inquest seeks to determine how Stompanato died and whether anyone was criminally responsible.

A verdict by a coroner's jury is not binding legally, however, and Cheryl's fate remains in the hands of juvenile authorities, who have been holding her since Stompanato's death. Cheryl faces a Juvenile Court hearing April 24. At that time she could be:

Released to the custody of her mother or made a ward of the court and (1) released to her mother; (2) released to Steve Crane, her father and second of Miss Turner's four husbands; (3) placed in a foster home; or, (4) placed in a state home at Santa Rosa, Calif.

Stompanato, a husky ex-combat Marine, walked into the knife that killed him, the examiner said today.

The story said Cheryl told her father: "Daddy, I didn't mean to, but I was afraid for Mommy. I stepped in between Mommy and John as he came forward. I was holding the knife against my side and then I lifted it as he came forward."

An autopsy revealed that the eight-inch blade plunged upwards into Stompanato's stomach and ruptured his aorta. He died almost instantly, the coroner reported.

Meanwhile, police continued an investigation of how torrid love letters from Miss Turner to Stompanato came into the possession of Cohen. The pudgy former gambler, who said he got the letters from "people who had a right to have them," told reporters he turned them over to the Herald-Express, which published the letters in copyrighted stories.

Police say they have a report that Stompanato's apartment was burglarized a few hours after his death.

"If any burglary was committed, I guarantee the cops done it," said Cohen, who now operates a florist shop.

Officers said the manager of Stompanato's apartment house said Cohen showed him a telegram last Sunday purporting to be from Stompanato's family in Illinois. The telegram asked that clothing be forwarded for Stompanato's burial.

The manager, Norman Beck, told police he opened the apartment and handed a suit to Cohen, who remained outside in the hall.

Blitzed by Brigitte Bardot

Sinatra-Bacall Duet Pffft

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — The romance between Frank Sinatra and Lauren Bacall, which had been sailing smoothly toward the blissful island of matrimony, has seemingly been sunk to the bottom by a full-rigged French frigate, Brigitte Bardot.

Sinatra opened an engagement in Las Vegas Wednesday night but Miss Bacall, the widow of actor Humphrey Bogart, was back in Hollywood at Dean Martin's opening at the Cocoanut Grove.

When asked about Sinatra, whom she had admittedly planned to marry, she snapped:

"Do me a favor—never mention me again in the same breath with Frank Sinatra."

She said she definitely has no plans to go to Las Vegas to see Sanatra.

It was not too difficult to speculate on the reason for Miss Bacall's sudden chill. Last week Miss Bardot, the French sex-kitten who has been scorching the screen in this country with three films now in release, said she was eagerly awaiting Sanatra's arrival in France to co-star in her next picture, "Paris by Night."

Brigitte, in a remark that is a minor classic in candor, said:

"Miss Bacall is no fool. If I were she I would do the same. Sinatra and I together will make interesting chemistry. It is in the contract Miss Bacall is not allowed to come with him while he makes the picture.

"You see—I am no fool either."

Measure Designed to Prevent Overlapping of Projects in Bureaus

Gov. Williams has put his signature on a bill which will prevent any overlapping of projects between the Oakland County Drain Office and the Department of Public Works.

Senate bill 1294, sponsored by Sen. L. Harvey Lodge (R-Drayton Plains), allows Drain Commissioner Daniel W. Barry, with the approved of the Board of Supervisors, to relinquish jurisdiction over certain drain projects to the DPW.

"This will eliminate any overlapping on these jobs," declared Harold K. Schone, acting DPW director.

He cited three sections of the Evergreen interceptor project which, under the new measure, will be turned over to his office, after supervisors pass on it.

The law will enable the two departments to "handle more expediently" sanitary sewer works through the proper channels and without dispute over which department should do the work, said Sen. Lodge.

Lodge's bill also permits a county, with the permission of a bordering county, to extend a drainage district through the latter in in order to secure a proper outlet.

Modern 'Wyatt Earp' Fires Gun in Holster

DETROIT, Mich. (AP)—Fred G. Sam, 25, and some friends went to a shooting range for target practice.

Sam was too fast on the trigger and too slow on the draw. The gun went off before clearing the holster.

Japan, South Korea Agree to Resume Talks

TOKYO (AP) — Japan and South Korea agreed today to resume talks to settle disputes between them. The negotiations will begin Tuesday.

The Japanese Foreign Office said the talks will cover all pending issues between the the two nations, which have not had normal diplomatic relations since World War II. These include Japanese property claims in Korea, which was a Japanese colony from 1910 until the end of World War II, and a Korean claim to exclusive fishing rights for 60 miles offshore.

Low Selling Price Brings on Law Suit

Named in the suit filed Thursday in Oakland County Circuit Court were the Park Distributors, Inc., of 24910 John R Ave. Filing the suit was the O. M. Scott and Sons Co. of Marysville, Ohio.

The Ohio manufacturer charges the local store with advertising last Sunday in a Detroit newspaper a fertilizer product at $3.79 a bag when the established price was $4.50.

This was in violation of the Fair Trade Practices Act of Michigan, the Ohio firm charged in the suit.

Told to Avoid Opposing Ike

Department of Defense Employes Forbidden to Publicly Rap Proposals

WASHINGTON (AP)— Uniformed officers and civilian officials in the Defense Department have been told bluntly to avoid any public speeches opposing President Eisenhower's proposals for tightening the top military command.

But in issuing this warning, Secretary of Defense McElroy said such persons should give frank full replies to congressional committees which seek their views on the issue.

McElroy also indicated a belief that any officers or civilian officials who disagree with the reorganization plan should quit if their objections were so strong they felt they could not work under it.

The defense chief made these

statements in reply to a question after a speech to the National Press Club. In that speech, McElroy denied the plan would make him a czar in military matters, and he disavowed any desire for blanket control over defense appropriations. Congressional opponents of the President's plan have raised these two chief points.

As described by McElroy, the reorganization plan would streamline the chain of command, clarify the defense secretary's authority and give him a "modest flexibility in money matters."

After his speech, McElroy was asked how far a military officer could go in opposition to the Eisenhower proposal, short of becoming insubordinate.

The secretary was primed for such a question, and he took out a prepared statement and read it, saying: "I can see no excuse for military or civilian members of the defense organization undertaking to make public speeches in their official capacities in opposition to the program of their commander in chief to strengthen the nation's defenses.

Austrian Men Shout 'No!'

Women Seeking to Join Chimney Sweeps Trade

VIENNA (AP) — The chimney sweep trade is so flourishing in Austria that women want to get into it.

Sikula is a happily married man and there are no indications that he and other sweeps are biased against females in principle.

But, he explained, "Ours is a dirty job. Where would the girls wash up after work? The men would have to leave the washrooms or the girls would have to wait.

"The job requires a lot of physical strength. Climbing roofs and up chimneys, wielding heavy brushes and so forth takes a lot of power."

Sikula said a few girls had tried but were soon discouraged.

"We just made it difficult for them," he said.

There is no law against girl sweeps, but the guild wields a lot of power.

Currently there are only two women sweeps in Austria, and none in Vienna.

Chimney sweeping is a prosperous craft here. There is no competition because there are only as many licenses as there is possibility of work.

Vienna has 27 sweeping districts, with 200 masters and 500 aides. One master can't work in another's district.

Their semiofficial status is achieved by working hand in glove with the fire departments and police. Chimney sweeps must check buildings regularly.

The Austrian sweeps' tools have not changed much in 300 years.

Sweeps are a traditional symbol of luck in European countries. Meet a sweep on the street and it's your lucky day. Many pick up extra money by loitering around churches or chapels to wait for wedding couples.

Big Ben Marks Hundred Years of Bonging Time

LONDON (AP)—Big Ben, the 13½-ton bell of the most famous clock in the world, marked its 100th birthday yesterday.

For a century now it has rung out the hours from the top of the 320-foot clock tower looming over Britain's houses of Parliament at Westminster.

No special booms were sounded for the centenary—just the usual slow, sonorous notes marking time for London.

Some Dems Tired of Williams

Some Democrats have tired of Governor WILLIAMS' socialistic thinking, planning and scheming to the point they are breaking into open rebellion.

There is plenty of confirmation for this assertion and there has been for many years, but there is little chance of squelching the Governor in the method these opponents have selected. The only way to handle him is through Walter Reuther.

The fact Governor WILLIAMS has been so far to the left so long indicates plainly that this is probably an order from above. This much is absolutely certain: WILLIAMS could never stay as far to left as consistently as he has without approval or at least permission from the boss.

(Editor's Note: The following editorial is reprinted from the Jackson Citizen Patriot. The opinions expressed concur with those of this newspaper).

Prof. HENRY STEEL COMMAGER told students of journalism at the University of Michigan last week that American newspapers are sensational, provincial and anti-intellectual. He said their editorial policies are almost always "namby-pamby."

It isn't surprising to find Prof. COMMAGER complaining about newspapers. His leftish theories of public ownership and his political ideals just don't happen to agree with those of many editors. But what is surprising is that in one breath he calls newspaper editorial policies "namby-pamby" and in the next he complains that they continually preach "to our young against public enterprise."

We suspect he'd be much happier if the press would assume a "namby-pamby" attitude and make no protest against public ownership projects which are sustained by the taxpayers and which compete against taxpaying private enterprise. Fundamentally, the trouble with the newspapers obviously is that their editorial thinking doesn't agree with the Commager left wing philosophies.

He protests that newspapers don't always uphold civil rights. Yet no news event was more honestly and objectively reported than the unfortunate events at Little Rock.

A difficulty is that COMMAGER isn't arguing with just the newspapers; he's at issue with the American people. Not long ago, he said that the people were hysterical over communism because they protested what he considered a harmless speech by a Russian-born woman, before students of a Washington, D. C. high school. He wrote in a published article, "She said nothing any normal person could find objectionable." Further, that nowhere in her talk was there "a single disparagement of anything American." Yet this was the speech in which the speaker said, according to the National Review, "I never appreciated the life in Russia until I live here (America). Here you have to work hard to live, use all your courage not to die."

This woman is entitled to that opinion. But the fact that Prof. COMMAGER feels such obvious propaganda for the Communist cause was a proper presentation to children in an American school is an eloquent picture of his thinking.

And to get back to the Commager charges that editorials are "namby-pamby"; if he includes this newspaper, we can supply the names of a dozen and more local and state public officials and others who will disagree with him and tell him what they think of the editor in one syllable words which are not "namby-pamby."

COMMAGER said in Ann Arbor that, because a newspaper gives prominence to the results of a high school football game it isn't a responsible paper. This is unadulterated nonsense. An honest newspaper is a mirror. It reflects the events of the day, giving to them the prominence which the interests of its readers dictate. One day a high school game may be top news; the next it may be a speech by a great scientist and still another day the sudden death of a popular entertainment figure.

Prof. COMMAGER is called a student of history. What he has learned from history conflicts with what some other students have learned. But that at least is a field in which he has credentials. However, as a critic of newspapers, he reflects simply his own ideological bias.

Baseball Contest Closes; Don't Let $250 Get Away

Women: A silly sex — they talk almost as much about bridge as men do about golf.

Our baseball contest closes at noon one week from today, April 18. That $250 prize is yours if you submit the nearest correct answer to the following:

What player who has been at bat at least 25 times will be leading the American League on the night of Thursday, May 1, and what will be his batting average?

Every member of your family is eligible to compete, but each entry must be on a separate piece of paper. Better get busy RIGHT NOW, and then you'll not be sorry that you overlooked the matter, and let your chance on that $250 get away.

David Lawrence Says:

Principals Trying to Coerce Press

WASHINGTON — "Book burning" got a lot of criticism not so long ago from many quarters. Yet the idea of imposing economic penalties on the press, for printing what it considers to be news, still survives in America among certain groups. It raises a question of whether they really believe in freedom of the press, to which they constantly pay lip service as an ideal.

LAWRENCE

Thus, the National Association of Secondary School Principals has just sent out a letter from its Washington office to the principals of approximately 20,000 junior and senior high schools recommending that they threaten "Time" and "Life" magazines with a cancellation of school subscriptions "as long as they have an attitude and policy inimical to education."

CALLED UNTRUTHFUL

The organization which sponsored the letter is a division of the National Education Association, and the action was taken by the seven-member executive committee of the principals. The association of principals argues in its letter that it doesn't question the right of the magazines to hold opinions on public education but that no magazine should be purchased for classroom use if it is "untruthful and, in this instance, 'Life' falls into that category."

The article to which exception is taken appeared in the March 24 issue of "Life" and concerned mathematics and foreign languages are neglected studies in United States schools.

Whether the article on such a controversial subject is palatable to the high-school officials is not the real issue. What is important as a basic principle is that school principals undertake to act virtually as censors on a subject in which they themselves may be considered to have a vested interest.

Even if a particular article is wrong, certainly the publishers are willing to print the other side. To threaten, however, to use the power over public funds as a punitive instrument to make any publisher conform to the viewpoint of any branch of the government is inimical to the whole spirit of constitutional practice in the United States.

For it has been held that no governmental unit may use any of its powers to abridge the freedom of the press. The Supreme Court of the United States denounced a Louisiana statute for that reason, and any ruling made by any subdivision of government would unquestionably also encounter court resistance.

It is not a problem of what publications the individual principals may choose to read themselves as private citizens, but it is a problem involving the right of school principals to use public funds to foster their own viewpoint on educational or other governmental policies, whether state or federal.

GROUPS CONCERNED

Certainly the parent-teacher associations should be sufficiently interested to find out whether the secondardy school principals in their respective communities are going to take orders from the private association in Washington or whether they are going to remain independent minded in their handling of school funds designed to provide news materials for use in classrooms.

There are, of course, plenty of publications available, but none should be blacklisted just because there is disagreement with the views expressed. Surely students should have access to all points of view on controversial subjects in the news.

As for the two magazines in question, they doubtless will pick up subscriptions from persons who disagree with the school principals which will more than make up for those discontinued. So, from an economic standpoint, the threat will be of no avail. But it is startling to see any group of educators make the mistake of thinking that the way to change the attitude of a publication is to use governmental funds as a means of coercion.

Diversity of thought rather than conformity of thought has always been taught heretofore in the classrooms of America, and it is to be hoped the secondary school principals will reverse their action and acknowledge their mistake.

Smiles

Dr. William Brady Says:

Thyroid Gland Hormone Contains 65 Pct. Iodine

Hypothyroidism means in sufficient production of hormone by the thyroid gland. Hormone is a chemical substance produced by a gland, or by certain groups of cells in gland or organ, and secreted into the blood to be carried to the area where it serves its special function.

DR. BRADY

Hyperthyroidism, as opposed to hypothyroidism, means excessive production of hormone by the thyroid gland.

Insulin is a hormone produced by specialized groups of cells in the pancreas. It is carried in the blood to the liver and muscle tissue throughout the body to convert glycogen (animal sugar) into energy.

Other names for hormones are "internal secretions," secretions of ductless glands, endocrines, chemical messengers.

Thyroxine, the thyroid gland hormone, is a compound containing 65 per cent of iodine. For the treatment of hypothyroidism, so-called thyroid "extract" — dried or desiccated thyroid gland substance—is employed in tablet or other form given by mouth.

The thyroid gland, weighing nearly an ounce, is in the front of the neck behind the upper end of the breast bone, in front of the upper end of the windpipe just below the larynx (voice box, Adam's apple). About one-fifth of all the iodine in the body is stored in the thyroid gland; the rest of it is in the blood and other tissues.

If child or adult gets no iodine at all from food, water or medicine, the iodine reserve in the thyroid will keep his metabolism (vital fire) going for at least a few months.

I can cite no recognized medical authority, but I believe hypothyroidism is identiac with iodine deficiency; that in every case of hypothyroidism it is imperative the patient get an adequate daily ration of iodine from food, water or medicine, the year around. Adequate, that is, to keep the thyroid functioning normally.

But I can cite recognized medical authorities to support my statement that a suitable daily ration of iodine the year around can do no harm in any circumstance.

Send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope for the pamphlet The Iodin Ration—even if it does you no good it can't do you any harm.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady. If a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

The Country Parson

"It isn't because we don't know we have faults that we fail to correct them — but because we think others don't know it."

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Hen-Pecked? Assert Yourself

Horace was a typical hen-pecked husband. His wife nagged at him constantly. And the worse she criticized him, the more he humored her. So her inner fury just grew more intense. Then the worm turned! And she almost died of heart failure, as the case below will indicate. If he'd used the contents of the booklet offered today, he would have forestalled her six years of nagging.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

DR. CRANE

"My problem is my wife, he began abruptly. "Nothing I ever do seems to please her.

"She is a typical nagging wife. Yet I treat her with great respect and give her my full pay check each week.

"She has her own car and does about everything she likes. But the more I give in to her, the worse she nags.

"Dr. Crane, do you suppose I humor her too much? I'm almost a doormat right now. Maybe the worm should turn, eh?"

WORM TURNS

Yes, Horace had idealized his wife. So he treated her with the deference and almost hallowed awe that are linked with angels.

That gallant attitude pleased his wife at the start. But most women can't take it as a permanent diet.

For they subconsciously crave some he-man treatment. The average girl grows up in a home where she has witnessed her father blow up at times and assert himself.

She has thus seen her mother cowed by the violence of her father's words. At least occasionally her father has laid down the law and showed who was boss.

Actually, women are usually the master minds in most homes and do most of the real bossing.

But a happy home is one where the wife knows that on occasion there is a stronger personality than her own who may erupt and call the tune.

Well, daughters may grow irate at their dads when the latter are in one of these occasional tantrums. But subconsciously, the average girl links strength and physical dominance with the male sex.

So when she can trample all over her husband and treat him as a meek doormat, she grows irritated.

The more he submits to her tyranny, the more she irritates him. For nagging is just one subtle device by which a wife tries to goad her meek mate into a laying on of hands.

So I egged Horace into doing a right-about-face. And the worm turned!

SHOCKED WIFE

"Shut up," Horace angrily exclaimed, and although this rude language is normally not approved, there are exceptions to all rules.

"I've heard enough of your nagging," he continued. "One more complaint out of you and I'm going to turn you over my knee and whale the tar out of you!"

His astonished wife thought Horace was drunk. Then she decided he was simply putting on an act.

But secretly she hoped it was real, so she nagged him some more to find out.

Horace seized her and shook her figuratively till her teeth rattled. Then he whirled her over his knee, removed his shoe and paddled her rear piazza till indignant shrieks subsided into whimpers.

Next, he kissed her forcefully a couple of times and cuddled her head on his shoulder, while she had her cry out on his shoulder. Thereafter she was as sweet as pie.

A nagging wife is usually a frustrated female, generally in the erotic realm, so don't waste sympathy on a henpecked husband.

He usually deserves it. If he'd assert himself, his wife would not need to nag.

So send for my booklet, "Sex Problems in Marriage," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit). It gives you the full antidote for nagging wives.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People

'Don't Let Spring Weather Bring Out Litterbug in You'

Now that nice weather is coming back and many people are out driving, let each one remember not to be a litterbug. In case you don't know, "A litterbug is a messy, two-legged animal that travels around turning the country into a dump and spoiling it for other people."

Carry a paper bag and see that occupants of your car use it. When filled, take it home, leave it at a gas station or trash can so it will be properly disposed of.

It costs you money to throw it out the window. In some places, there's a fine if you get caught. In all places part of your taxes go to pay someone else to pick up what you're too thoughtless to take care of properly.

Mrs. G. D. S.

'I Thought They Want Crackdown'

Why does everyone want this 14-year-old Turner girl to go scott free? I thought this was the time they were going to reduce juvenile delinquency by making the juveniles answer in court. When a girl sticks a ten-inch butcher knife in a man's stomach so that he dies right on the spot, shouldn't she face up as much as though she were a boy? Are we going to have two criminal codes? Let's clean up and let's clean up completely.

Law and Order

'Capitalism May Lose Loyalty'

Unless capitalism can display dynamism and decision in dealing with "poverty in the midst of plenty" and do it on the basis of maintaining peace, it will not much longer retain the loyalty of the American working class and other forward looking citizens. The Socialist Labor party offers a solution for problems of this era on the basis of freedom and industrial democracy.

Mr. Truman, did all right, too. He didn't believe in a man being unemployed or facing foreclosure. And he did a great deed when he fired MacArthur.

'Then What Would Real Ones Say?'

When her gangster boy friend was bumped off, Lana Turner insisted she had no romantic interest in him at all. He was just an "acquaintance" that she happened to travel with through Europe and Mexico for a couple of years. Now when her love letters are produced in court, it raises this question. If those were purely impersonal notes, what would her love letters be like? Won't you newspapers dig up some of those? You'd have to print them in liquid fire.

'What Are We Paying For?'

It's about time our dog laws were changed in Oakland County. Right now a dog has more protection than a child going to school.

The other day a dog as big as a horse knocked my little girl down and a bystander had to use a broom to get it off her. The owner said it wouldn't hurt her, but being knocked down is serious enough. The same has happened to other children on school grounds.

I was advised the only thing I could do was either hire a lawyer to defend my child while the dog runs loose or keep her home from school. Yet I would get into serious trouble if I hit the dog to protect myself. We pay taxes to maintain these officials, but they can't even make an owner tie up a dog in a case like this.

'These Same Who Ask Recognition?'

The Red Chinese have liquidated 18 million. That seems impossible. Are these the folks that want more national and international recognition? Are these statistics sufficiently authenticated to make them as completely acceptable as they appear to be? This stands as one of the greatest crimes in all history. Who will be held accountable for this?

Portraits

By JAMES J. METCALFE

You are my life, my world, my all . . . In every happy way . . . You are tomorrow in my heart . . . Today and yesterday . . . Your love is all I ever want . . . The sunshine of your smile . . . Your understanding nature and . . . Your goodness all the while . . . I cherish you, my darling, as . . . I hold you in my arms . . . No other one could be so sweet . . . Or ever match your charms . . . However dark the sky may grow . . . Or wild the widest sea . . . You will forever be the one . . . Whose heart belongs to me . . . Wherever I may go, my love . . . Or what I strive to do . . . I am your own forever, dear . . . My life belongs to you.

Mr. Krueger died this morning after a short illness.

A resident of Oxford for 51 years, he was a member of the American Legion Post 108 of Oxford.

Surviving are his wife, Mabel; two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Blezinski and Mrs. Clara Rider, both of Oxford; a sister and three grandchildren.

Ex-Pontiac Grocer Dies in Hospital

Bruno Perna, a former grocery store owner, died yesterday in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. He had been in ill health the past eight years.

A native of Italy, he came here in 1919 and was a member of St. Vincent de Paul Church.

Mr. Perna, 72, leaves his wife, Rose; three daughters, Mrs. Mary Day of Rochester, Mrs. Edith Peters and Mrs. Amelia Sibary of Pontiac; four sons, Orland of Oxford, Alfred at home, Sam and Robert of Pontiac; 16 grandchildren; two great - grandchildren; a brother, Joseph of Pontiac; and three sisters, Mrs. Pat Felice of Pontiac and two sisters in Italy.

Mr. Perna's body is at the Sparks - Griffin Funeral Home.

Fast-Thinking Neighbors Save Elderly Widow

Mrs. William C. Stevenson, who lives alone, was reported in good condition at St. Mary's Hospital.

The elderly woman apparently stumbled and fell in her living room Wednesday night.

Friends said Mrs. Stevenson managed to knock the phone off a mall table, but was unable to reach it.

Mrs. Margaret Perrin, a neighbor on the same party line attempted to make a telephone call yesterday and herd faint cries for help.

City Detective, Unarmed, Holds Pair for Arrest

An unarmed Pontiac Police detective held off two assailants armed with broken beer bottles, last night until patrolmen arrived to capture the pair.

Detective Albert W. Foster, of 275 S. Marshall St., was at home eating dinner when two men banged on the front door.

Foster's wife told him they were drinking and had walked on up the street. He phoned the police station and then went outside looking for the pair.

"I found them in a neighbor's yard and told them I wanted to talk to them," he said. Foster heard one of the prowlers say "Let's take him."

Foster said they came at him. "I was standing atop a small brick wall dividing the two yards which were on different levels," he explained.

When one of the assailants broke a bottle and used the jagged end as a weapon, Foster said he just kept punching and kicking the men to keep them from scrambling up to his level.

Deaths Elsewhere

BEAVER, Pa. (AP)—Thomas C. Buchanan, 62, former member and chairman of the Federal Power Commission, died yesterday of heart trouble. He served on the FPC from 1948 to 1953 when he resumed his law practice in Beaver County.

LONDON (AP)—Sir Charles Brinsley Peake, 61, veteran British diplomat and until a year ago ambassador to Athens, died yesterday. He entered diplomatic service in 1922 and in 1939 was named head of the Foreign Office news department and chief adviser at then Ministry of Information.

Special Announcement

To The Public

In an effort to be more considerate and better serve our families, and in response for some such procedure, starting Monday, April 14th, there will be specified visiting hours in all Pontiac Area Funeral Homes. These hours will be: Afternoons 3 to 5 p. m. Evenings 7 to 9 p. m.

Thousands of families, in the many communities where such a program has been successfully tried, are most appreciative of such a program.

This does not mean the funeral homes will be limited to only these hours for calling. It does mean, however, friends may expect to find the families of the deceased in attendance at these hours to receive friends.

The New Visiting Hours Begin Next Monday April 14th

Youngster Hurt Falling Down Laundry Chute

LOS ANGELES (AP) — While playing in the hallway, Fred Perkins, 11, strode into the laundry chute of the hotel where he lives with his parents. A few seconds — and three floors later — the boy landed in a pile of soiled clothes in the basement. He was treated for a concussion and possible broken ankle.

Drips on Tap

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "If you have a leak," read the sign on the back of a Philadelphia plumber's truck, "we're the drips to call."

Forecast Huge Coffee Harvest

Brazil Summer Crop Expected to Hit Peak Set in Twenties

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (INS) — U.N. food and agriculture experts are forecasting huge coffee harvests this summer that should lower consumer prices considerably.

Barring weather "catasrophies," it was predicted that Brazil will reap a coffee harvest comparable to the record output of the twenties.

The U.N. Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) said output will rise in other coffee-producing countries, especially those of Africa where virtually all production is exported, some to the U.S.

FAO said that "consumers in the United States appear to have become increasingly price-conscious and are making weaker coffee and using greater quantities of instant coffee."

For this reason, it said, "rises in consumption are not likely to be large" despite the impending production increases.

The organization reported that last year about 20 per cent of roasted coffee beans imported by the U.S. went into the manufacture of instant coffee. In 1948 only two per cent of imports were used for instant coffee.

Reports Marking Pavement Cuts Auto Accidents

LANSING (AP) — Pavement markings cut traffic accidents, the State Highway Department concluded today.

The department reported that experimental use of pavement edge markings on U.S. 112 in Hillsdale and Lenawee County had resulted in an 80 per cent drop in the death rate and a 46 per cent drop in personal injuries.

The study covered a year before and after edge markings were placed on the highway between Jonesville and Clinton, a distance of 38 miles.

Fatalities dropped from five to one and personal injuries were down from 112 to 60, the report showed. Traffic accidents declined from 199 before to 177 after, a cut of 11 per cent. Traffic volume, however, declined nine per cent during the same period.

More Money Urged for Lakes Channels

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army engineers say they could use 4 to 6½ million dollars more than President Eisenhower asked Congress to appropriate for the Great Lakes connecting channels.

The engineers' position, contained in a letter to Sen. Potter (R-Mich) has been released by Potter. The senator immediately asked the Senate Appropriations Committee to surpass the administration request.

Potter has contended the Midwest will not receive the full economic benefits from the St. Lawrence Seaway until the Great Lakes connecting channels are constructed to permit the movement of ocean-going vessels.

The seaway will open next year, but the completion date for the connecting channels is 1962. Potter says the 1962 target date will not be met unless Congress appropriates more money than the President has requested.

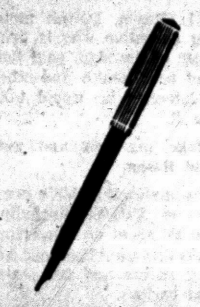

Ben Blue Recovering

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Comedian Ben Blue was reported recovering nicely today after removal of what doctors said was a noncancerous intestinal growth.

'Trapeze' Replacing 'Chemise' by Autumn

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE
(Copyright, 1958).

NEW YORK (INS) — AMERICA IN A NUTSHELL:

The "trapeze" dress, rather than the "chemise," will be the big look by autumn. The girdle-makers may be in for a long dry stretch . . .

More than 100,000 motorists were injured, and nearly 1,000 killed, by swerving to avoid litter on the highways last year. Top diversionary danger—beer cans . . .

Philip Wylie has spent his professional life debunking women, a career which has added both to his sense of self-importance and theirs. Now he's come out for "apartness," instead of that popular little crusade for "togetherness." Operation togetherness, he says, had fed the "neurotic, unfeminine, unnatural and greedy fantasies of infantile women" . . .

J. Edgar Hoover's latest bulletin reveals that since '53 population in the 10-17 age group has increased only 14 per cent; arrests in the same brackets mounted 42 per cent. He blames it on "parental negligence." And so? The theme of Father's Day," 1958, is just announced. It is, "Integrity starts in the home" . . .

New York Assn. for the Blind reports the nation's 334,000 sightless are saddened by the passing of good, dramatic radio. They do, however, "watch" TV as best they can. Some like quiz shows but consider "What's My Line" unfair because it gives only visual identification of guest's occupations. About westerns, one blind man reported: "Once the action starts, it's just gunfire and you miss the most interesting part."

I kept remembering Helen Keller, who's both deaf and blind, and loves to go to Broadway musicals. She plants her feet firmly on the floor, grips her hands on the chair arms, and lets the rhythm course through her. "It's thrilling," she raved.

FRESH IDEAS FOR WORRY-LOVERS: Harvard University surveys show that, contrary to common impression, most suicides occur in the warm late spring, rather than in the depressing winter; on Mondays and Tuesdays, rather than on lonely weekends; and in the light of morning, rather than the black of night. Chin up! . . .

The Marriage Council of Philadelphia finds that in marriages where both mates work, there is a difference of opinion as to the reason for mutual diligence. Husbands, probably in defense of male ego, say their wives work to provide "a high standard of living." Wives say they work "to provide the necessities" . . .

RELATIVE TO THE RECESSION: Elsa Maxwell says men give better parties than women, because women scrimp. "Thrift, I am sure, is an admirable asset, but excessive thrift has no place in the design of a party" . . .

Women now spend millions of dollars to bleach their hair. In 1870 they did it frugally: Boil together a quart of lye prepared from the twigs, celendine roots and tumeric, safron and lily roots, flowers of mullein, yellow stechas, broom and just a hint of St. John's wort. Let cool. Dunk in head. Pray . . .

"Working Women's Forum" has another budget tip for office workers. Cut off the feet of old nylon stockings and use them as covers for blouse and dress cuffs. Just another way to get a run for your money.

SONNET FOR NIL-SCARRED LOVERS:

Roses are red.
Violets are blue.
Our love is dead.
What else is new?

Missile Training Asked

LONDON (AP)—Britain has asked to send about 150 officers and men to the White Sands Proving Ground in New Mexico for training with the Corporal missile. The British missile training center in the Hebrides won't be ready this year.

Luxury Liner on Great Lakes for Sale Again

Now anchored at Tawas City where she served as a floating motel and restaurant, the 56-year-old ship will not open for business this year.

Robert L. Rosen, Detroit metal processing executive who is principal owner of the ship, said that because of poor health and other business interests he would take $75,000 for it.

"I'll take my loss and get out," said Rosen.

Rosen estimates the ship's present value at $500,000, including about $150,000 spent on converting her to shoreside use. The boat has two dining rooms and 200 staterooms and parlors.

Easter Parade Comes Late in New York City

NEW YORK (AP) — Christmas comes but once a year. Not so with Easter, at least in New York City. By proclamation of Mayor Robert F. Wagner next Sunday is post-Easter Promenade Day. This is to give New Yorkers and visitors a second go at the Easter parade, rained out last week.

There are 250 religious denominations in the United States.

TRUE FACTS ABOUT O-JIB-WA BITTERS

Mrs. Russell

Mrs. Rena Russell, 31660 Five Mile Rd., Livonia reports: "Before I discovered O-JIB-WA BITTERS, I suffered for a long time with arthritis pains in my arms and shoulders. I am glad to tell you that the very first bottle stopped the suffering. O-JIB-WA helped my stomach too, as I no longer am bothered with gas or indigestion and my nerves are much more relaxed. Because this fine medicine helped my husband's arthritis also, I recommended it to a friend barely able to walk, who is all better now and teaching school. I sure recommend O-JIB-WA BITTERS to all of you who suffer from rheumatism or arthritis and have not yet found relief."

Junior Editors Quiz on WHALES

QUESTION: How long can a whale stay under water?

ANSWER: The answer here will depend upon the kind of whale. Whales are of two general types. The right or bowhead whales have enormous mouths filled with "whale bone" which screens out from the water the small animals on which the whales feed. The other main type is the sperm whale, an aggressive, fighting animal with a long narrow lower jaw armed with two rows of ivory teeth.

The first kind of whale eats simply by cruising along with its mouth open. Such whales usually feed at the surface and submerge for not more than 10 or 12 minutes.

On the other hand the great sperm whale, king of the sea, feeds mostly upon octopus and cuttle fish, which he hunts at great depths. Old time whalemen who chased the sperm whale were keen students of whale behavior. When the sperm whale flung high his great tail and "sounded" or dove for the sea bottom, the whaleman in charge of the whaleboat would note the time on his watch. Just about one hour later his majesty would surface again and the fight would be on.

Keeps Busy This Winter

WARMINSTER, Va. (AP) — Last summer Henry E. Ballowe drew quite a bit of attention in local horticultural circles by growing a sunflower that measured 14 inches in diameter. But he didn't let the cold winter weather stop his sunflower work. He reports he counted the seeds in the head — all 2,100 of them.

Bob Considine Says:

Visionary Saw Need for Huge Arms Firm

GROTON, Conn. (INS) — John Jay Hopkins, an unforgettable character who died of cancer last year after piecing together what amounts to a major world power, General Dynamics, would have approved of what happened here today.

The Navy opened the main hatch on U.S.S. Seawolf, the atomic submarine which General Dynamics Electric Boat Division built, and invited 35 odd reporters for a day's ride with the fission fleet.

NEWSHENS ABOARD

What was unusually odd about 35 odd reporters was that four of them were newshens. The first woman ever to board a United States submarine was Clara Barton, founder of the Red Cross. That was half a century and more ago, and it's doubtful if as many have been aboard subsequent underwater boats since then as boarded Seawolf today.

"Good show," Hopkins might have said. He lived, prospered and died doing things in a big way. When the Californias hit Wall Street he swung from the heels and made them like it.

When he concluded at the end of World War II that we'd still be buying all sorts of complicated weapons, he put together in an astonishingly few years a war-and-research industrial complex which, if it were a sovereign nation, would rate just behind the U.S. and the Soviet Union as a world power.

BUILT FIRST SUB

If General Dynamics had a capital city, it would be this old town and the guarded berths and ways of the Electric Boat Company. Fifty-eight years ago today an honorably discharged Irish Christian Brother named John Holland delivered to a skeptical navy the first practical submarine, one that ran underwater on electric batteries.

It was built here. John Jay Hopkins was destined to take over the company in World War II and give it more drive and push than it had ever known.

His directors might have divided up the profits and placidly turned to canoe-making after V-J Day if Hopkins had not let loose a roar. He took the money and brought Canadair, which no Canadian financier wanted. Canadair was making parts for DC3s at the time and doing meekly.

Now it builds Sabrejets for NATO, Lockheed jet trainers, Britannias and recently was given the task of building the new Convair airliner, which will replace the reciprocating engines with two Napier Eland prop-jets. Canadair has made more money each year for General Dynamics than Hopkins paid for the whole works.

Hopkins was just beginning. He bought Convair figuratively before it got off the ground with its postwar upsweep. Convair now is producing the first supersonic bomber, the B58 Hustler, two century-series fighters, the F102 and F106, and the forthcoming 4-jet 190-passenger airliner, the 880.

Its Astronautics Division fabricates the nation's first intercontinental ballistics missile, the Atlas.

All in all, Hopkins' conviction that man would persist in cussedness and continue to demand protection from his government has made General Dynamics the biggest supplier of defense goods on earth.

The quarter-billion-dollar Seawolf is just one item off the company's colossal shelf. But, like Nautilus, Skate and the missile-launching atomic subs now taking shape in the yard, it is a brilliant floating memorial to a man who lined like an indelible skyrocket.

All Invited to Attend Annual Open House April 27-30 at Pontiac State Hospital

Dr. Ivan A. LaCore, superintendent of Pontiac State Hospital, invites you to the hospital's open house April 27, 28, 29 and 30. A program geared to acquaint you with all the phases of treatment of the mentally ill has been arranged. Several well-known speakers will head the workshops to be held April 28.

Pontiac State Hospital is preparing for its 12th annual open house April 27 through April 30. Hours will be 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

The public is invited to visit the hospital and to see first hand what is being done to care for and treat the mentally ill.

Visitors will be taken on tours through the hospital and will see mental health films, and they will be treated to a patient-presented musical. On display will be arts and craft work by patients.

WORKSHOPS SCHEDULED

There are workshops to attend on April 28 beginning at 8 p.m. Although admission is free, tickets must be secured for the workshops and presented at the door. Among the topics to be pursued are "Today's Children," "The Cloud of Alcoholism" and "Dealing With Your Tensions."

Leaders of the workshops will be Eleanor Keyes, psychiatric case worker at the hospital; Richard Arthaud, case work supervisor; Ted Panaretos, case work supervisor, and Douglas Everhart, case worker.

A special workshop, "A Symposium on Group Therapy Techniques" will be held Monday afternoon from 3 until 5 p.m. with Marguerite M. Parrish, director of Social Service as leader.

Pontiac State Hospital provides the necessary care and treatment for 3,100 mentally ill patients. According to Dr. Ivan A. LaCore, medical superintendent, planned therapeutic assignments such as work take up part of the patient's day.

Recognized as vitally important is a well planned and supervised recreational program, such as is carried out in the hospital's recreational therapy department.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Although the hospital has a number of active volunteers, still many more are needed to help with the varied programs offered for the patient.

The volunteer program which is a very vital part of the hospital was set up by Dorothy Roe, director of the recreational therapy department. During the past two years it has expanded rapidly and now nearly every department has its own volunteers who come faithfully every week.

Some of the activities of volunteers include patient supervision, ward parties, teaching various classes, accompanying for community singing and dancing lessons, helping with field trips, reading to elderly patients and transporting patients.

Also contributing greatly to the hospital are the Family Care therapists. These people have taken patients, still under the hospital's jurisdiction, into their homes, thus creating more room in the hospital for seriously ill patients.

LEARN VOCATIONS

Visitors to the hospital will find the vocational program for patients an interesting phase of treatment. This program, sponsored jointly by the Vocational Rehabilitation Office of Flint and the hospital, makes it possible for patients receiving psychiatric treatment to learn a useful vocation.

One such class is the typing class. Patients who have completed the course and later been released from the hospital now are earning their livelihood by working as stenographers. Still others have enrolled in business schools and are continuing their education.

Here is a scene from the musical revue "Music On Parade" which will be staged at 2:30 p.m. daily April 27 through April 30, during the Pontiac State Hospital's open house. The performance will be repeated at 8 p.m. April 30. The musical, performed by patients, is under the direction of the recreational therapy department.

Mrs. Charles Neldrett Will Preside

State PTA to Meet April 22-23

Mrs. Charles Neldrett of Mariva avenue, president of the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers, will preside at the annual convention of MCPT to be held April 22-23 at Muskegon.

Delegates from local PTA organizations will select four new officers of the congress when the list of nominees is presented to the convention at the first general meeting at Muskegon High School. Additional nominations may be made from the floor.

Actual balloting will be April 23, with installation following the final evening general session. Officers of the Michigan PTA are elected for three-year terms, and the terms are staggered so delegates vote for several positions each year. Mrs. Neldrett was elected last year.

THOSE NOMINATED

Nominees and their positions include Carl R. Anderson of Ypsilanti and Warner Biekkola of Marquette, treasurer; Mrs. William Burkart of Marquette and Mrs. Robert Landre of Menominee, representing Region A in the Upper Peninsula, vice president; and Mrs. Harold Marsh of Manistee and Mrs. Lowell Taylor of Midland, representing Region B in counties north of the line from Muskegon-Ottawa to the Saginaw Bay, vice president for that area.

Nominees for vice president of Region E, counties south and west of and including Ingham, are Mrs. E. A. Blakeslee of Benton Harbor and Mrs. Christian Roosenraad of Lansing.

All eight candidates have been active for long periods of time with both local PTA groups and the state organization.

In addition to the election, resolutions and other business, the convention will offer several nationally known speakers and workshops of a practical nature for the officers and leaders of the 2,000 PTA units in Michigan. About 4,000 are expected to participate in the annual convention, which was held at Traverse City last year.

Zontians Aid Girls Ranch

Members of the Zonta Club of Pontiac pledged $2,000 to Girls' Ranch a year ago. To help meet the pledge the finance committee decided that each member should raise $10 through some special effort other than from her routine job.

Last night the clubwomen not only paid the fee, but they had to write letters or poems explaining just how the money was acquired.

They did such things as gather walnuts, baby sit, paint walls, take subscriptions for magazines, launder, wash dishes and cook. One even simonized her husband's car, while still another got paid for the weight she lost.

Mayor William W. Donaldson judged the letters and the means of obtaining the money. First place winner was Marion Holden; second place winner, Mrs. Beecher Connell, and third place winner, Mrs. Robert Frayer.

Mrs. L. Harvey Lodge and Mrs. Fotis Takis are cochairmen of the annual breakfast, to be held April 27 at Devon Gables.

Willis PTA Sees Movie on Bridge

Men's Night was held at Willis School PTA Thursday evening in the multipurpose room. A motion picture entitled "Mackinac Bridge Diary" was shown. Refreshments were served by a committee from Mrs. Carroll Porritt's room assisted by Lawrence Ferman and Harrol Beebe.

Fills Voters League Post

Elizabeth Halsey has been named to fill a vacancy on the board of directors of League of Women Voters. The League's Executive Board met Wednesday evening in the Prall street home of Amy Krueger.

Unit meeting on April 23 will be held in the Lorraine court home of Miss Halsey with Mrs. John Borsvold presenting the program.

Plans were made for an orientation meeting for new members. Mrs. Claire Hinckley is to be hostess with Mrs. Fred Steinbaugh in charge of the program which will present the purpose of the league and explain phases of government on which the league in Pontiac works.

William Brown Emcees Do-C-Do 'Wabbit Whirl'

Members made fancy hats and during a grand march the orchestra acted as judge to choose the prize winning hats. Mrs. George Harkless and Francis Lohff were named winners.

Callers for the evening were George Newton, George Harkless, Mr. Brown, Robert Newhill, Rex Lawrence, Gordon McLeod, John Streit, Arthur Yarger, president of Square Set Club; Leonard Buzz, president of Hoedowners Club, and Fred Froede.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hale, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kayga, Mr. and Mrs. Yarger, Mr. and Mrs. Froede and Mr. and Mrs. Buzz.

Dance Set for Tonight

Chairman of decorations for the Viernes Dance Club party tonight in Elks Temple are Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Oosterhof. They are being assisted by Dr. and Mrs. John Schmitt, Dr. and Mrs. Lynn Allen Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. George Panks.

Preceding the dance the Howard Gradys will give a party at Forest Lake Country Club. Also giving a pre-dance party are Mayor and Mrs. William W. Donaldson and the Philip E. Rowstons. Setting for this party will be the West Lawrence street home of the Donaldsons.

Dear Abby....

If 'Mirth Control' Fails, Laugh Along With Him

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I go with a man who is very nice and very well liked. He is overweight but you know the old saying, everyone loves a fat man. That's not my problem. My problem is his "laugh."

ABBY

When we are in a movie or restaurant and he laughs, everyone in the place turns around and looks at us. His laugh is like nothing you have ever heard before and it embarrasses me. How can I solve this problem?

EMBARRASSED

DEAR EMBARRASSED: If your boy friend can't practice a little "mirth control"—laugh with him.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a man who says he likes your looks and takes your phone number and then instead of calling you for a date he gives your number to a perfect stranger to call you up?

When I asked this stranger what happened to George (the fellow who took my number in the first place) he said, "George is married but he likes to line up dates for his friends." Would you have gone on a gamble?

MURIEL

DEAR MURIEL: Not on a bet!

DEAR ABBY: My oldest son skipped school so often, they sent a case worker around to talk to me. All in the line of work, this case worker (a man) told me I was too young and pretty to be alone. (I'm a widow.)

Then he asked me if I had any dance records around because he wanted to teach me to do the cha cha. I told him I didn't have any records, and was too tired to dance.

He talked about everything but my son who skipped school and I had trouble getting him to leave. Should I report him or is this the way they all act?

D. D.

DEAR D. D.: This "case worker" should certainly be reported. He needs someone to work on HIS case.

DEAR ABBY: I loved your answer to that poor mother who ate her heart out because her 15-year-old daughter kept her room in such a mess. I was one of those mothers who aggravated herself over the same thing.

A miracle happened when my daughter got married. Her house is neater than mine now. I think maybe all my scolding finally got through to her.

Please print this to show other mothers that they shouldn't worry too much about their teenaged daughters because they are messy. They will turn out all right.

"GRAMMA RUTH"

DEAR ABBY: My little boy is going to have his eighth birthday and I'm giving him a party. He always gets presents he can't use. Do you think it would be okay if I made a list on the bottom of the invitation saying what he needs?

ASKING

DEAR ASKING: Certainly not. Let the guests bring whatever they wish.

Shows Upper Gums and Teeth

Can 'High' Smile Be Corrected?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
(The Friday Question Box)

Q. "I have a high, wide smile. I am a gay person naturally but when I smile my upper gums and teeth show. I understand that one of the most famous movie stars today had a high smile but lowered it through exercise. Could you give me one which would lower mine?"

A. So far as I know there is no exercise known to man or advertiser which will lower a smile. The thought of lowering a smile is dreadful anyway. The idea of losing one is even worse! There are too few of them already!

I know what you mean though. PLEASE do not let the world lose your smile by drawing your upper lip down and looking sad and not at all like you really are or how you feel. You just keep on smiling and the world won't even notice your gums or your teeth.

Q. "Is it safe to have my eyebrows dyed? I have heard that it could make me blind."

A. You should be most careful. Be sure that you have a well-trained operator and never have your brows dyed without first having a patch test to see if you are allergic to the dye.

Q. "Is there more than one brand product for those who are allergic to regular cosmetics? If so, what are their names?"

A. I know of three brands but I do not give trade names in this column. If you would like to have them, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for them.

Q. "Will tweezing the brows make them thicker? Will more hairs grow in? If so, I am going to tweeze mine because they are very thin. Should I tweeze them down the middle a little bit?"

A. No. Do not tweeze your brows except to remove stray hairs from the outer line. Tweezing will not make more hairs grow in. It will just make your brows thinner.

Q. "When I walk should I place one foot exactly in front of the other? I have heard that I should. This makes me look awkward and I want a pretty walk."

A. You place one foot almost in front of the other but not quite. draw a chalk line and place the inside of each foot on the line when you walk.

Q. "I have pains in the calves of my legs and under my instep. What could this come from?"

A. It could come from many different things. Have a physical checkup by your physician. Weak arches could cause your trouble, too.

Tomorrow: "Follow This Advice to Keep Hair Nice."

Do not tweeze your brows except to remove stray hairs from the outer line. It is important not to let this go, however, once you have begun tweezing.

Pontiac Press Photo

A smiling father-daughter combination, Arthur and Althea Bell, was snapped by the Pontiac Press photographer upon arrival at Wever School Thursday evening for the PTA Father-and-Daughter Banquet at which Mr. Bell was toastmaster. Mrs. Chris Hall, who assisted on the food preparation committee, was on hand to accept tickets for the affair.

Ivan M. Forbes Claims Bride in Detroit Service

In a candlelight ceremony in Hotel Sheraton-Cadillac, Detroit, Rochelle Debra Miller and Ivan M. Forbes exchanged wedding vows. Rabbi Morris Adler performed the ceremony beneath a canopy decorated with white roses and chrysanthemums.

Parents of the bride are the Abraham B. Millers of Detroit. Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Forbes of Detroit, formerly of Pontiac, are parents of the bridegroom.

The sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Irving Goodman of Detroit, acted as honor attendant. She was gowned in an ice blue silk organza gown shading into a deep royal blue. Her hat, made of ice blue veiling, was held on by a large matching bow and a smaller, deep royal bow below the crown. Mrs. Goodman carried a crescent arrangement of white butterfly roses.

OTHER ATTENDANTS

Barbara Ann Miller, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor. Janice Forbes of Huntington Woods was bridesmaid and Marian Phyllis Miller, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. They were gowned like the honor attendant.

Stanley S. Schwartz of Detroit served the bridegroom as best man. Guests were seated by Edmund London of Royal Oak, Irving Goodman of Detroit and James L. Howlett. Martin Howard Miller, brother of the bride, was junior usher and Bruce Colton assisted the ushers.

Mrs. Forbes' choice was a pink Chantilly lace sheath dress with pink accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

Before leaving on a trip to Mexico the new Mrs. Forbes changed to a periwinkle blue suit with matching accessories. The couple will live in royal Oak.

Mrs. Forbes attended the University of Michigan and is now a student at Wayne State University. The bridegroom was graduated from the University of Michigan Law School and is a member of Phi Sigma Delta fraternity.

Wever PTA Holds Fete

Wever School was the scene of the PTA Father-and-Daughter Banquet Thursday evening.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Philip W. Somers. Ronald Carr gave the welcome address. An award went to Marvin Hawkins, youngest father. Kandy Craig was honored as the youngest daughter. She was escorted by her father, Lloyd Craig.

Arthur Bell, toastmaster for the evening, introduced Loren Kay, incoming PTA president, and daughters Paula Sue, Terry, and Patty Ann. Also introduced were James Card and his guest, Linda Miller; William Hill and daughter, Mary Ellen, and Melvin Norberg and daughters, Sharon and Susan.

Serving on committees were Loren Kay, decorations; Ronald Carr, program; Mrs. Clarence Miller, program booklets; Mrs. Clarence Dolsen, tickets; and Mrs. Edward Bigger, publicity.

Mrs. Floyd Harp supervised preparation of food, assisted by Mrs. Herbert Thomas, Mrs. Chris Hall, Mrs. Joseph Taylor, Mrs. Keith Soule, Mrs. Charles Norman, Mrs. James Nichols, Mrs. Robert Norberg, Mrs. Vernis Whitehead, and Mrs. Harold Soule. Mrs. Dolsen was in charge of serving. Mrs. Carl Pearson was dining room chairman. Table decorations, prizes, programs, and favors were handled by room fathers.

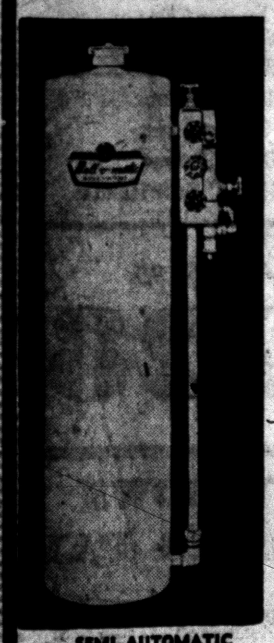

Club Donates to Girls Ranch

When the Parent Guidance Club met at the home of Mrs. James Fortier of Farmington, members voted to send a donation to aid in the establishment of Girls Ranch and are assisting on tag day.

Plans were made for a Revelation dinner to be held May 14 at Botsford Inn at which members will reveal secret pals and exchange gifts. Mrs. George Watts was co-hostess, Mrs. John Huntzinger also participated in the program.

Lake Orion Citizens Launching Drive

To Help Youth, 16, Fight Illness

LAKE ORION—Lake Orion, the "little village with the big heart," takes care of its own.

Proof of this is evident in the way the town is marshalling its forces to help 16-year-old Richard Lamphier of 366 S. Broadway, who is finding recovery from a Dec. 17, 1956 motor scooter accident a slow, discouraging process.

Richard, a student of Lake Orion High School who had managed to cram all-A grades and still take care of his 89 Pontiac Press customers, suffered an injured hand, four fractures in his left arm, and seven in his left leg in the accident. Taken to St. Joseph Hospital for bone grafting, he was found to have soft bones that do not knit properly. Infection set in.

How long Richard will be hospitalized, or how many operations will be needed, is not known. But the bills are mounting sky-high. Richard's father is dead, and his mother, Mrs. Helen Lamphier, must carry the burden of worry and expense, along with keeping up a home for his sister, Janet, 14, and brother, Gerald, 18.

That's why Lake Orion has decided to show its sympathy in more than words.

A drive to aid Richard will kick off with a public card party, starting at 8 p.m. Saturday at Shafer's Motor Sales, 125 S. Broadway. The Maccabees, sponsors of the affair, say they hope the party will "just be a starter to get the funds rolling," according to chairman Mrs. Pearl Bryant.

Tickets for the card party can be obtained at the Dor May Gift Shop, 20 N. Broadway, and those wishing to make contributions also may leave them there. Merchants are turning over valuable items to be used as prizes for the party, prize chairman Mrs. Clarence Arnold says. And all refreshments not donated will be paid for by the Maccabees, so that the total proceeds of the party can be used to pay Richard's medical bills.

Another project—Tag Days—is being planned each Friday and Saturday through April, from 11 a.m. through the afternoon. Canisters are being placed in many stores.

Besides the money-making events, Orion residents at home and in churches are joining the Lamphiers with their prayers for Richard's complete recovery.

Meanwhile, the courageous youth, determined to maintain his high scholastic record, is continuing with his studies whenever it is physically possible, under the guidance of homebound teacher Mrs. Stuart Williams.

CD Dept. Slates First Aid Course

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP — In its campaign to prepare residents here for the care of injured in man-made or natural disasters, the Pontiac Township Civil Defense Dept. has scheduled two five-week courses in first aid.

Both courses will begin Wednesday, one on the morning and the other at night. They will be held in the Pontiac Township Hall, 2060 Opdyke Rd.

Morning classes will be held from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. each Wednesday. Night classes will be from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Wednesdays for the five - week period. Each is the standard Red Cross first aid course, under qualified instructors.

"We are asking everyone who can take the course, regardless of whether they wish to volunteer for civil defense work," Carl Schingeck, township fire chief and civil defense director, said.

Some 50 CD auxiliary policemen in the township may take the instruction, in addition to other residents, Schingeck added.

Persons who wish further information regarding the courses may call the Township Hall, or Chief Schingeck at FE 5-4629.

Rochester OES Sets Card Party, Variety Show

ROCHESTER — The Rochester Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold its annual card party and variety show at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at the Avon Park Pavilion.

The program will feature singing, pantomime, skits and a Dixieland band, according to committee chairman Allison Toussaint.

There will be tap dancing and spin skating performances and the Charleston will be danced as it was in the roaring '20s.

One of the highlights of the show will be the introduction of the "Glamor Girl of 1958" by George Ennis, Rochester Village president.

There will be prizes and refreshments. The public is invited.

Savings Co. Holdup Nets Bandit $8,500

DETROIT (AP) — A masked gunman held up a branch of the Detroit and Northern Savings and Loan Assn. and escaped with an estimated $8,500 today.

Three employes said the gunman looked like the one who held up the office March 3 and escaped with $4,066 in cash and $4,200 in savings bonds.

Two women and a man employe were forced into a vault, then made to lie on the floor and ordered not to come out for eight minutes.

The bandit took $1,000 from the vault and $7,500 more from cash drawers.

Cleaner Roadsides Studied to Cut Nation's Car Deaths

DETROIT (AP) — A roadside improvement program for reducing off-the-road accidents was discussed by auto industry executives and the governors' conference special committee on highway safety today.

At the General Motors Proving Grounds, Charles A. Chayne, General Motors engineering staff vice president, outlined a road design plan for removing roadside trees and other obstacles, flattening road shoulders and grading parallel drainage ditches and ravines.

Roadside and guard rail crash tests with remotely controlled vehicles were staged for the committee.

Other demonstrations included panic brake stops at 70, 50 and 30 miles an hour, a rollover and a right front tire blowout with the test car maintaining a straight-ahead course and sharp turns at high speed.

Tomorrow at General Motors Technical Center an experimental unicontrol automobile with a combined hand-operated electro-hydraulic steering, braking and throttle system, will be shown the visiting officials.

Only conventional item of the new car's control system is an automatic transmission lever on the stub of a wheel-less steering column. A four-inch stick topped by a heavy ball at the driver's right performs all other driving chores—steering, braking and accelerator control.

The car turns right as the stick is moved in that direction, to the left when it is moved in that direction. It has a two-inch travel in any direction. For acceleration it is moved forward. Brakes are applied when it is drawn backward.

John M. Campbell, research staff scientific director, said eventual use of the one-control system for automobiles depends on future developments of electronic and hydraulic devices. At present, he said, neither has the reliability of mechanical steering systems.

White ants are not ants. They are termites.

Heavy Ice Floes Moving in River

Mackinaw Makes Dash Through 'Worst Jam' in Lake Huron

PORT HURON (AP) — Heavy ice floes careened down the St. Clair River today, raising water levels 16 inches in an hour at Port Huron after a smashing run in Lake Huron by the Coast Guard icebreaker Mackinaw.

Capt. Evor S. Kerr, skipper of the powerful vessel, said the Mackinaw made a single pass through "one of the worst ice jams ever encountered in this area."

Kerr said big chunks of solid and slush ice, running 15 to 18 feet thick, broke off as the jam snapped.

"Floes are running very heavily down river," he said in a ship - to - shore telephone interview. "The water level jumped 16 inches, in an hour at Port Huron."

The skipper said the ice field extends 14 miles north of the bridge and reaches from shore-to-shore, "with slush and solid ice interwelded."

Kerr said the Mackinaw had to run "full power at all times" in its passage. "It won't stop us," he said, "but it slows us down to a walk."

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower takes off today for a weekend of golf at his favorite vacation retreat in Augusta, Ga.

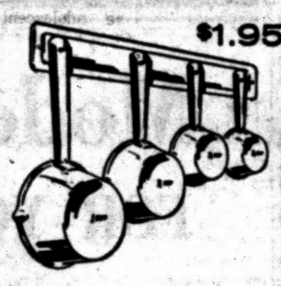

Eisenhower is taking along the preliminary draft of a speech he will make in Washington next Thursday at a luncheon meeting of the American Society of Newspaper Editors. It will deal with the President's controversial defense reorganization program.

The President plans to fly back to Washington Sunday evening.

Radar Control 'Talks' Speeding Jet Safely Through Snow, Hail and Fog

(Editor's Note: This is the second of two articles about a flight at 40,000 feet as a target ship for aerial gunnery and about breaking the sound barrier. The first appeared in The Press yesterday).

By HAROLD A. FITZGERALD
Publisher, The Pontiac Press

Certainly this was one of the most exciting adventures I'll ever experience and I felt absolutely no concern about safety, whatsoever. Even when the field was "talking us in," later, I enjoyed every split second and just so you won't think I'm bragging, I hasten to set down that when I won my wings in World War I, some 40 years ago, I was scared stiff many, many times.

The size of our transportation belied its mission and performance. How could anything that small and fragile fly 14 miles a minute . . . . . a mile every four seconds . . . . . Pontiac to Birmingham in less than 30 seconds . . . . . Pontiac to Detroit in a minute and a half. Wait. 90 seconds to Detroit — can that be correct? . . . . . Yes, it is . . . . . It's utterly fantastic. It's beyond belief.

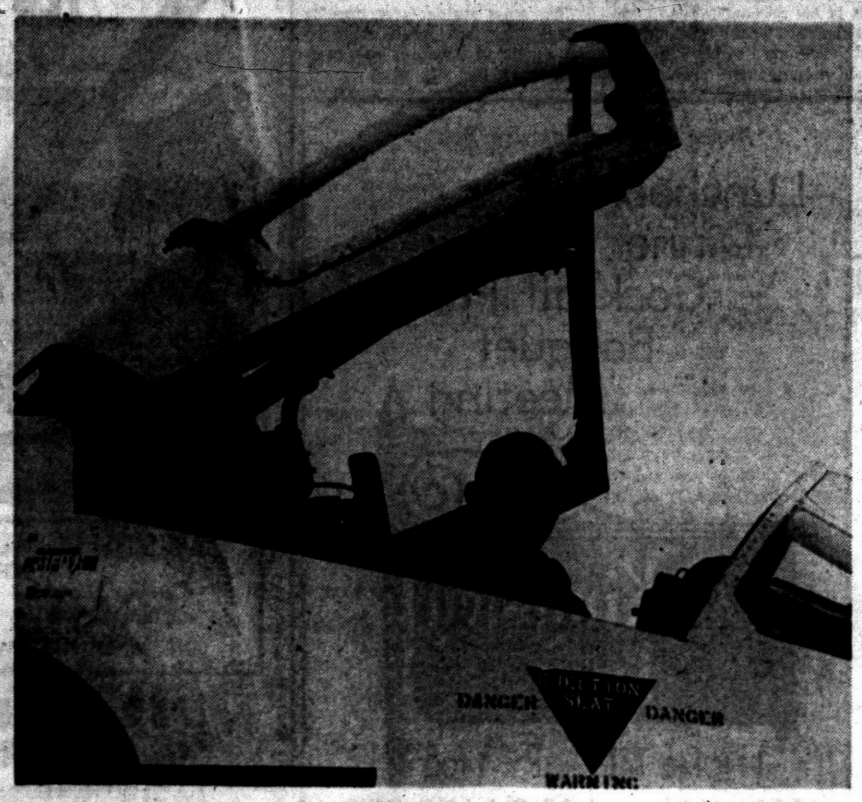

Nothing—but nothing—could take you from Pontiac to Detroit in 90 seconds and yet that was our speed. And the pert, trim, almost frail looking aircraft didn't seem hard pressed.

These fighters used to employ machine guns which are only effective within a scant few hundred yards. Slowly the caliber increased until they became small cannons and finally just plain cannons. But even this wasn't enough. Today these whirlwind airplanes challenge with rockets and missiles which are deadly and destructive at—well, all I'm permitted to say, is "at quite a distance." They're saving the precise information for some curious foreign power that asks for a personal demonstration in open combat.

Once, one of our "attackers" was out of position and shot across in front just a few hundred yards away. It was an awe inspiring sight. We couldn't hear a thing, but here was this airplane racing through the skies at 700 miles an hour, flashing across in front like a frightened shadow out of nowhere. Suppose he'd been just a split second later as he crossed—what then, little man?

HAPPY EXPLORER — Press Publisher, Harold A. Fitzgerald, smiles happily after an 800-mile-an-hour ride more than seven miles above the earth in an Air Force jet fighter based at Oscoda.

And maybe you think our landing at Oscoda wasn't a thriller. During the hour and a half we were up there playing target, the weather below got all fouled up and when we "headed home," Major Weatherwax said, "we're dropping to 10,000 feet, flying toward the field just over the clouds and then going into the soup. Everything has closed in since we left and they're having snow and rain. You're going to have a new experience and one that wasn't on the docket."

When you land in New York, a commercial air liner probably has been at a maximum of 20,000 feet and the pilot carefully starts his descent about Batavia, so you won't have any of those elevator sensations and to protect your ears. Weatherwax is strictly an Air Force pilot and letting down from 40,000 to 10,000 is like walking down the front steps at home. He just stuck the nose down and—well, we went right down—but good.

Then we skipped along the top of the overhang until he finally stuck the nose down again and we went into the soup. You couldn't see anything — and I mean anything. We were in sleet, snow and heavy fog or clouds. Little particles pelted against the windshield and I wondered whether hail had ever broken it.

Suddenly I became aware of the voice on the intercom. "Major," I asked with great interest, "are we being talked in?"

He nodded. "We sure are. And aren't you glad?"

If I were supposed to be glad I proposed to be glad and so glad I became, but I'd rather have had nice, clear vision. The voice in the intercom intoned:

" . . . . 33.2, ... that's it . . . . a little left . . . . now 33 . . . . you're o. k. and you're eight miles away . . . . back to 33.2 again . . . . . hold 'er . . . . you're about two miles now . . . . . back a shade to 33.1 . . . . good . . . . steady . . . . and then suddenly we burst through the soup and flashed into visibility with the ground very, very close and our nose POINTED DIRECTLY UP THE RUNWAY. I wanted to stand up and lead a company cheer.

What an Air Force!

These people are "outer space" folks right now with their knowledge and ability and the rest of us don't know it.

Down on the field a radar screen showed our blind airplane whipping towards the ground at a few hundred miles an hour on a gradual glide.

We were completely invisible, but we were shown on this screen in a control room and our position was pin-pointed constantly. Also, the radar equipment indicated the exact position of the runway. How the operator knew we were 150 feet off the ground instead of 250 or even 1,500 is a mystery to me. But then, I was mystified all day long and groping in an outer-space fog time and again. We could see nothing, but when we veered slightly away from a dead line on the runway, the invisible man below corrected our position by telling the pilot on the intercom.

When we touched the ground, the Major looked over and grinned; "How'd you like that?"

I told him. And it took five minutes.

"Watch out now," he said. "I'm going to unfasten that parachute that slows us down." We were probably traveling some 150-200 miles an hour. Without brakes and no dragging parachute we'd have continued right on the ground into Lake Huron. When the parachute opened behind, the drag cut us down rapidly.

Major General Robert E. L. Eaton of Selfridge Field started me on this trek. There were two physical exams and tests. Selfridge examined me as though I'd applied for a million dollars worth of life insurance. Then came the altitude test and "school" at Dayton that took nearly two days.

Capt. Cooper of Selfridge Field flew me up to Oscoda in an L-27 and when we passed the Midland airport he dropped down for a look at the wreckage of the ill fated air liner. Certainly it was close to the runway and the intervening ground was free of trees or building.

The weather was so bad they wouldn't let him take off in the L-27 for the return trip, so I came down in a big B-47 which was headed for Selfridge anyway. For many years this was the great airplane of our Air Force and possessed capabilities far beyond its time.

You can't break the sound barrier under 18,000 feet and now they prefer 30,000. The noise is sufficient to disturb the civilian population for the steady succession of "booms" simulates a bombing. Also, in certain atmospheric conditions at lower altitudes windows can be shattered and other incidental consternation and havoc heaped upon a hapless populace.

We have a marvelous Air Force.

We're prepared for eventualities.

We have fire power. We have the mechanical equipment and we have speed and the know-how. But more important than all, we have the men and the boys. They're our greatest asset. They're the foundation of our established world position. American youth and American manhood through the armed forces constitute our not so Secret Weapon and our greatest security.

Your safety and protection are in marvelous hands.

Use White Rats

Madison's 7th Graders Experiment With Diets

This is the claim of members of the seventh grade science classes of Dennis Beach, instructor at Madison Junior High School, after they conducted a four week experiment with white rats.

The classes in co-operation with Mary Slater, food consultant for Pontiac schools, first conducted a survey on the food consumption of Madison students in the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades. The results showed that a majority of the students were not eating balanced diet.

The groups then decided to use white rats in a four week experiment so that they could demonstrate that a balanced diet is important to physical growth and development of the adolescent. They used rats of about 6-12 weeks in age which correspond to adolescents of about 12-14 years.

Three rats were used. One rat was named Satan. He was fed a balanced diet consisting of portions of the cafeteria lunch each day. He also was fed whole milk. The second was named Eight Ball. He too was fed the cafeteria lunch but the milk was replaced with water. The third rat was named Bill. He was fed candy bars, potato chips, crackers, water, pop, or cider for the four week period.

By the end of the month the difference in their appearance and weights was very apparent. Satan began at 55 grams and grew to a weight of 100 grams. He looked fat and healthy. Eight Ball looked good, but his weight did not increase as rapidly as Satan's. He grew from 61 grams to 94 grams during the period of the experiment. Bill began at 52 grams and grew from 61 grams to 94 grams anemic and his fur was rough — his tail scaly.

To publicize their results students have used posters, pictures and other interesting techniques to draw other students attention to the fact that potato chips, pop, and candy are not a good substitute for a good balanced diet.

Apparently the experiment has been a success, for there has been a noticeable increase in the participation of students in Madison's cafeteria lunch program and in the consumption of milk.

The members of the top team in Madison's Boy's Bowling League are "Three Knights," Dave Taylor, Ron Leach, and Phil Wells. In the Girl's League the high team is the "Highlights," with Beverly Herdener, Linda Jordan, and Sharon Stevens.

The girl and a boy who have won "Bowler of the Year," award were Mark Vincent and Louise Bolog. Winners of the singles games during a recent tournament were Jim Smith and Gloria Johnson.

AT WASHINGTON

Award-winning photographs from the 1957 Scholastic-Ansco Photography Awards will be on exhibit until next Friday at Washington Junior High School.

The winners were selected from over 30,000 entries submitted by junior and senior high school students throughout the country. The photo will be exhibited from 8:25 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. each week day.

AT EASTERN

Nine Eastern Junior High School boys were among the 10 seventh graders in the nation who won awards in the annual Industrial Arts contest sponsored by the Ford Motor Company.

The winners are: Bruce A. Bell, Dwight Boyd, Charles I. Lowe, Leon A. Mellen, James E. Moore, Edward Wasik, Gary Wesley, Gary Williams and Tom Zink.

Winners in this year's competition represented 45 states, the District of Columbia, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and Canada. In all, 732 students shared $50,000 in cash awards.

Schedule Prom Fashions Tonight

By SANDY CLEMENCE

Waterford Township High School seniors will have a preview of fashions which can be worn at their senior prom tonight when they model for the "Prom Fashion Show" they are sponsoring.

The event, beginning at 8:30 p.m. in the school gym, is being held to raise funds to purchase a gift for the school from the senior class.

The formals, modeled by senior girls, will be from Alicia Bridal Salon and the Lion Store will furnish the men's apparel for the male models.

Co-chairmen of the show are Bonnie Williams and Bonita Brookshear. Jim Davis is chairman of the men's fashions. Admission is 50 cents.

Members of the Dramatics Club plan to canvass the township tomorrow to sell tickets for their third play, "Plain and Fancy," to be presented May 2 and 3.

2 Clubs to Sponsor 'April Love' Dance

The Hi-Y club and the Y-Teens of the Lake Orion Community High School will sponsor a dance, "April Love," next Friday at the school

Co-chairmen of the committees are: Diana Turner, Walter ter Cudnohufsky, decorations; Bobbie Schumacher and Jack Schaeffer, refreshments and Wanda Stone and Patrick Caldwell, orchestra and tickets. Mary Lou Liebbart is handling publicity; and Michael Hudson will be charge of the check room.

This will be a dress up dance with a popular band.

Student Government Day Wednesday was a success with 45 students taking over the school's clerical, teachers, administrators and maintenance positions.

The job of superintendent of schools was headed by Vincent Butera. Douglas Black was principal and other positions were held by Carl Baber, assistant principal; Marilyn McKenzie, girls counsellor and Jon Dombrowski, boys counsellor.

Announce First Exchange Pupil at Avondale

Gary Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Wright, 790 Nichols Dr., will be the first student from Avondale High School to participate in the American Field Service exchange student program.

Gary has been notified of his selection but he as yet does not know which country he will visit this year.

The junior class play, "Her Kissin' Cousin" will be presented Thursday in the high school auditorium at 8 p. m.

Four members of the Avondale Future Homemakers of America are in Grand Rapids today attending a three day regional meeting. They are Nancy Riggle, Patricia Combs, Kitty Mildebrandt and Venette Hysmith.

The students and their projects are Kay Jerome, Evolution of Horse Foot; Jerald Jerome, Metamorphosis of Tadpoles; John Roush, Family Tree of Animal Kingdom; Bruce Berg, Classification of Arthropods; Richard Serwin, Effects of Hormones on Plant Growth; Ronald Hoekman, Evolution of Vertebrate Heart.

Others are: Wendy Maneck, Chicken Embryology; John Blamy, III, sea Urchin; Robert Armstrong, Electric Tit-tat-toe; William Bank, Chemical Properties of Chlorine; William Heider, Evolution of Man; and Sherry Fink, Evolution of Brain.

MICHIGAN BELL ASSEMBLY

Yesterday Michigan Bell Telephone Company held a double assembly. The purpose of this assembly was to explain the new Direct Distance Dialing system which enables Pontiac residents to dial directly to far distant places.

At a recent meeting of all J-Hop committees, the juniors decided the theme of the dance would be "Moonlight 'n Mist." The dance will be held May 10 in the Boys' Gymnasium from 8 p .m. until midnight.

MISCHIEVOUS SISTER — Karen Yakey, (left) 1085 Thames St., plays the lead in "Seventeenth Summer" to be presented by the Rochester High School Dramatics Club April 18-19. In this scene she seems dazed as she looks at her new found boy friend Vance Jones, 60951 Mt. Vernon Rd., unaware that her kid sister, played by Charlotte Clanahan, 520 Willard St., is about to sock him over the head with a hammer.

Disc Data and Chatter

Music in the Round

by Dick Saunders

Are you a narrow-minded music lover? A good example of one is the guy who thinks that show music LP's done by original casts are the living end. According to him, once the show has been recorded in its original form, all other so called "take offs" are nothing.

The album on the Epic label is presided over by one James Duigald McPartland. Featured are about two dozen famous jazzmen. The LP also features something the original cast lacks—it swings!

When Jimmy was in town recently (before the LP was released for public sale) we listened to it and agreed it was one of his best in recent years.

"Sadder-but-Wiser Girl for Me" is my favorite cut of the set. Jimmy produced a telegram from the show's mentor, Meredith Willson.

Meredith had flipped. "Think the album is great," the telegram read. Congratulations followed with a closing note — " 'Sadder-but-Wiser' is a gas."

The mad scramble: Top sellers (in order of sales) in the Pontiac area this week, according to record shops are: Ricky Nelson's two-sided goldmine, "Bucket's Got a Hole in It" and "Believe What You Say"; "Twilight Time" by the Platters; "Witch Dr." by David Seville; "Who Wrote the Book of Love" by The Monotones; and "Billy" by Kathy Linden.

Stage Spring Play

"Seventeenth Summer," the story of a girl's first summer love, will be told next Friday and Saturday when the Rochester High School dramatics class presents their annual spring play.

The event will be held at the Rochester Junior High School gymnasium, Fifth St., beginning at 8 p.m. Patricia Higgins, dramatic instructor, is the director.

Murder Thriller Set for St. Mike's Soon

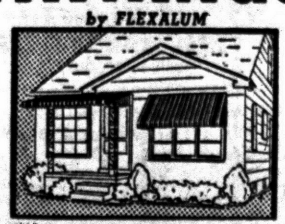

By MICHAEL BUCHANAN

Sunday, the two night presentation of "Murder Takes the Veil," will open at the St. Michael Hall.

The play, which opens at 8 p.m. is being presented by the senior class of St. Michael High School. Donation is one dollar for the Sunday and Monday performances.

Prosecution Now Asks More Time in Assault Case of Fenton Man

The tables have turned in the Clifford B. Dye appeal case. The prosecution is now asking for more time.

Chief Assistant Prosecutor George F. Taylor has asked Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams for an extension of 90 days in answering Dye's appeal to the Michigan Supreme Court.

Taylor had fought numerous delays of the former Fenton village attorney in filing his appeal of assault with intent to do great bodily harm conviction handed down in March of 1956.

Dye was convicted in the nonfatal shooting of William C. Clark, 28, following disputes between the two over management of a Fenton farm leased by Clark from Dye's sister.

"Because of the great number of cases we handled in the February court term, I will be unable to make the deadline," Taylor said. He leaves on his vacation next week.

Moons Seen Improving Weather Forecasting

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Artificial satellites should eventually improve long-range weather forecasting, Dr. J. Wallace Joyce said.

Joyce, head of the Office for the International Geophysical Year in Washington, D.C., said a series of satellites would allow forecasters to keep cloud formations under constant surveillance.

"Such a program would permit us to observe the formation of storm areas early enough to improve our warning service," he told the opening day session of the 10th Southwestern Conference of the Southwestern Institute of Radio Engineers.

Only Good Students Get to Take Cars to School

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — Unless you study and get good grades, you may not be able to keep a car at the University of Colorado.

A recommendation to that effect, made by the Campus Traffic Committee of both teachers and students, is on President Quigg Newton's desk. He is expected to approve it.

A committee spokesman said a minimum grade average of C was decided upon, both as an incentive to study and a way to ease parking congestion on the campus.

Early steam engines were developed to pump water from mines.

Hal Boyle Says:

...And That Spring Fever Will Soon Passeth

NEW YORK (AP) — There are many days in Manhattan when a man feels his soul has the altitude of an African pygmy.

But the payoff days come in spring. Then everyone shrugs off his coat of winter morbidity, and the tallest skyscraper is only knee-high to his soaring mind.

On such a day, when spring fever grips the big city, it turns into a small town.

Folks quit shoving each other in the subway.

The angry cabbie ceaseth to unbraid the foolhardy pedestrian, and runneth over him not.

The rich theatrical agent, overcome by intimation of a common humanity, buys the unemployed actor a hot dog, and accepts his thanks with misty eye.

The old cop on the beat reaches up and fingers an opening leaf on a grimy tree, and wonders how it will be when he retires to Florida.

The sadness dies out of the voice of the guitar-playing blind beggar on Broadway. He sings a new tune, and passers-by clink silver music into the cup that is his portable cash register.

The rich city dog, strolling down Park Ave. at the end of a leash held by a hired doorman, feels a bit warm in his mink wrap. His nose inspects only every other hydrant on his route. It is too much work to check them all.

From the remaining fine old saloons on new-proud 3rd Ave. a distinctive aroma of beer spread for half a block. And, sniffing, the passing wastrel tracks it back to the spout.

The new stenographer who cannot type has fewer critics. Who cares? In her bright chemise she is lovely as a rose in a flour sack of many colors. Could the Queen of Sheba type? The middle-aged bookkeeper stareth at her, forgetteth the small noisy hungry mouths at home, and maketh errors in his accounts.

Distance lends enchantment, and everyone wishes the boss would become more enchanted by going home early. Duty no longer calls; it barely whispers.

Everyone wants to go out in the open air to find an apple tree in bloom to lie under and remember when he was young, and his love was too.

Just mass spring fever, turning people back into people again by the magic of April. It will pass. And that's the pity of it.

Dancers Slap Selves

PAGO PAGO, Samoa —Dancing in Samoa differs greatly from the Hawaiian hula, in which the hands tell a story, and the Tahitian hula, in which the hips do the narrating. In Samoa the dancers leap about, slapping their hands, legs, and chests.

6-Minute Test Detects Cancer

Dye, Ultraviolet Light Point Up Malignancy From Smears, Sputum

LOS ANGELES (INS) — A Los Angeles medical scientist has described a simple test in which uterine cancer is determined within a matter of minutes through the flashing of flaming orange-red signals from malignant cells.

Dr. Ludwig von Bertalanffy of Mr. Sinai Hospital said the technique was developed several years ago in his laboratory when he was associated with the Unniversity of Ottawa in Canada.

The doctor said cells obtained from cervical smears are stained with a dye called acridine orange, a task that requires six minutes.

He said the cells, when observed through a microscope equipped with ultraviolet light, emit an orange-red light when they are malignant, as distinguished from normal cells, some of which give off a green light.

The Vienna-born researcher said the orange-red danger signal "together with abnormal sizes and shapes of cancer cells, alerts the examiner that all is not well."

Dr. von Bertalanffy said these cells may be of a malignant or a benign tumor, "but they indi- further tests."

He emphasized that color alone is not a definite indication of malignancy and that abnormal cells help determine whether danger is present.

He added that the procedure also helps determine whether the subject has a pre-cancerous condition, infection or other trouble which require treatment.

Dr. von Bertalanffy said researchers at various laboratories have tested more than 4,000 persons in a program that has been under way for more than a year and a half, and that subsequent studies have shown the technique to be approximately 95 per cent accurate.

He said the test is inexpensive and can be taken in a doctor's office.

The tests at Mt. Sinai have been confined to cervacal smears, but the technique, he reported, can be applied to sputum from the lungs or tissue from other parts of the body.

4 Teens Display Living Proof of Tooth Transplant

BOSTON, Mass. (AP) — Living proof has been presented that it is now possible to transplant teeth successfully.

Four teenagers showed their transplanted teeth last night in a demonstration for 150 dentists and oral surgeons attending the annual Harvard Dental Assn. meeting.

The four are among 50 young patients who had transplant operations performed by Dr. Walter C. Guralnick, dental surgeon at Massachusetts General Hospital and orel surgery instructor at the Harvard school of dental medicine.

The first transplant of a tooth was made four years ago, Dr. Guralnick said, and in all cases the transplants were successful.

Bolivian Official Asked to Duel by Union Leader

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP)—The Marxist president of the Bolivian Labor Confederation challenged Interior Minister Jose Cuadors Quiroga to a duel last night. There was no immediate response.

Juan Lechin called for swords or pistols, officially but still an accepted way of settling disputes in Latin America, after an immigration official led a raiding party of pro-government tin miners in a search of Lechin's home. The miners also raided the confederation headquarters and seized its stock of arms and ammunition.

Lechin charged that Quiroga ordered the raids. The union leader is seeking wage raises in the government-operated tin mines. The government opposes increases as part of its fight against inflation.

Three Top Entertainers Receive Gold Medallions

NEW YORK (UP) — Gold medallions were bestowed last night upon three members of the entertainment profession in annual ceremonies of the Dutch Treat Club. The top awards went to composer Richard Rodgers, librettist Oscar Hammerstein II and singer Mary Martin.

Hollywood Headlines

Schary Anxious to Sign Myrna Loy for Star Role

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—The happy note in Dore Schary's voice is because his movie "Miss Lonely Hearts" is shaping up so well. The script is half finished and Dore expects to put it on the screen in July. He has been negotiating with Myrna Loy for one of the top roles.

I told Dore that I had heard that Monty Clift has the starring role in "Lonely Hearts." He just laughed and said, "I won't deny it, nor can I confirm it."

He told me that tickets for his successful New York play "Sunrise at Campobello," the early life of Franklin D. Roosevelt, have been sold out until January. Dore says he is very grateful for all his blessings and well he might be.

When Anna Magnani returns to this country this summer for Tennessee Williams' play "Orpheus Descending," she'll be given the script of Kathleen Dickinson Mellen's "The Magnificent Matriarch" to read. David Lewis has bought the rights and he'll film it in the new Panovision process.

Lewis has already had preliminary talks with Magnani who would truly be wonderful as Queen Kaahumanu, one of the first natives on the islands to embrace Christianity.

We were in Hawaii in 1938 and were the guests of Alice Campbell at the festivities on King Kamehameha Day. Some of the costumes worn by the old families at the ball belonged to their mothers and grandmothers. Alice herself was related to the queen.

You'll be seeing Pat Bosworth in "The Nun's Story" with Audrey Hepburn. Maybe that doesn't mean a thing to you now but it so happens that she is the daughter of Rita Hayworth's legal beagle, attorney Bartley Crum, who is always here when Mrs. James Hill has trouble.

This is Pat's first motion picture but she has appeared in "Inherit the Wind" and "Small War on Murray Hill" on Broadway. She was a classmate of Marilyn Monroe when Marilyn was studying at the Actors' Studio.

That reminds me that Marilyn is just itching to make a picture and I think she should as soon as possible.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random:

Surgery may be necessary for George Raft. He's in St. John's Hospital and Dr. Marc Rabwin will give his decision tomorrow.

"Another Time, Another Place," Lana Turner's British-made film will not be released until September. The postponement was made before the current Stompanato tragedy.

Former ambassador to Mexico Bill O'Dwyer, in town very quietly, dining with Margia Dean at La Rue.

With a print of "Indiscreet" under his arm Cary Grant flies out for London Monday to oversee a few changes he wants made before the picture opens at New York's Music Hall.

That's all today. See you tomorrow!

Expecting Liz Taylor Back to Work Monday

HOLLYWOOD (UP) — Elizabeth Taylor, described by her friends as a heartbroken widow, is expected to return to work Monday.

The raven-haired actress has not been before the cameras since three days before her husband, producer Mike Todd, and three others were killed in a New Mexico plane crash last month.

A studio source announced that Miss Taylor said she will resume work in "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof." She had worked eight days on the film before Todd's death.

Debra Seeking Divorce

JUAREZ, Mexico (UP) — Movie star Debra Paget filed for divorce from singer David Street in Juarez yesterday. She gave incompatability as grounds for the action.

High School Pupils War on Recession

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UP) — High school pupils from 35 states yesterday opened the convention of the Distributive Education Clubs of America, pledging themselves to a fight against the nation's economic recession.

The 800 delegates, enrolled in sales training courses in high schools, sent a statement to President Eisenhower, members of his Cabinet and governors of each state represented at the four-day convention.

It read: "We will dedicate ourselves to improving our own selling methods and urging others employed in distribution to join us in increasing sales of goods and services for the purpose of assisting in overcoming the current business recession."

10-Year-Old Mongre! Held Blameless in Suit

LOS ANGELES (UP)—It was another half-breed, not Bosco, that bit little Gary Hinkle, a jury has decided.

Bosco, a 10-year-old mongrel, was held blameless in a $50,000 damage suit brought by Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hinkle, parents of 4-year-old Gary.

Bosco's owners, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Thompson of nearby Palmdale, maintained that the charge against their dog was a case of mistaken identity. Their lawyer maintained that the plaintiff's description would fit nine different types of dogs.

Gary was attacked two years ago in the garage of his home in Palmdale. The Hinkles now live in Spokane, Wash.

Organic Matter Good to Apply

Take Care of Berries, Tomatoes, Corn Now —It's Time

By WAYNE B. SIEFERT
County Horticultural Agent

With spring plowing and spading of garden and flower beds close at hand, the problem of fertility is now of concern.

Incorporating organic matter is one of the most useful practices. Many gardeners sowed rye, wheat or rye grass seed in late September as a winter crop. Before the grass gets more than an inch tall, harvesting of vegetables is complete and frost has killed down most of the flowers. This dense sod makes ideal organic matter to plow or spade down in April and early May. Where a green cover crop is not present, leaves, straw, manure and stalks of dead plants should be plowed into the soil.

Sweet Corn is very responsive to additional fertilizer. A common practice is to apply one teaspoon of 5-20-20 near, but not with the seed at planting time.

When plants are knee high, a second application of one teaspoon of Ammonium Nitrate (33 per cent nitrogen) will produce some of the finest sweet corn grown in the home garden. Five inch deep holes punched near each hill or plant make a convenient way of applying this fertilizer.

Raspberries are often fertilized during the spring just before new growth appears. When older plantings are grown in a hedge-row fashion, it is advisable to broadcast a 10-10-10 at the rate of one pound of fertilizer per five feet of row.

When plants are grown in individual hills, broadcast the fertilizer over the crowns at the rate of one pound per five hills. If you have a young planting, spread one pound of fertilizer over the crowns of 10 plants. It is not necessary to work the fertilizer into the soil.

No fertilization is necessary on Bearing patches of strawberries. On new spring or fall plantings, a 10-10-10 fertilizer is most often used. Apply one heaping teaspoon of fertilizer per plant. It is more beneficial if it is three inches deep and within two inches of the transplant. Putting fertilizer in the trench at transplanting time is not recommended.

Tomatoes are one of the very fruitful home garden vegetables. It is not unknown for home gardeners to harvest a bushel of fruit per plant but this does not happen by chance. Early planting, the right variety and lots of fertilizer are all part of the combination.

In addition to broadcasting fertilizer at plowing time, two additional fertilizations are necessary after transplanting. One-third pound of 5-20-20 at a depth of five inches and five inches from the newly transplanted plant gives a long lasting supply of fertilizer. Holes punched around the newly set plant makes a convenient way of applying this fertilizer.

Return to 18th Century Garden for Inexpensive, Colorful Beauty

How would you like to have the most interesting garden in town! With only a few dollars worth of seeds, you can plant this wheel of flowers right out of the eighteenth century.

It's designed with the geometric precision that the American colonists loved so much, and contains many of the annual flowers grown in colonial days.

This lovely little garden with flowers of white, blue, yellow, orange and a touch of purple will complement your home whether it's of traditional or modern design. And it's so easy to plant and maintain that even a child could do it. In fact, it would make a good spring planting project for the small fry in the family.

Let it be the springboard to their appreciation of our American heritage and at the same time an introduction to the pleasures of gardening.

A stake with an eight-foot cord becomes a giant compass to mark off the 16-foot circle on the ground. After the ground is turned over to a depth of about eight inches and is fertilized and raked level, the individual planting areas are marked in the soft soil with a stick.

The seed of each variety of flower is sown in the center of the spot designated for it. Later, the young plants are thinned out to fill the allotted space. Depth of sowing and thinning instructions are given on the back of each seed packet.

After sowing, small sticks can be inserted through the colorful packets and be used as markers to identify the plants when they come up.

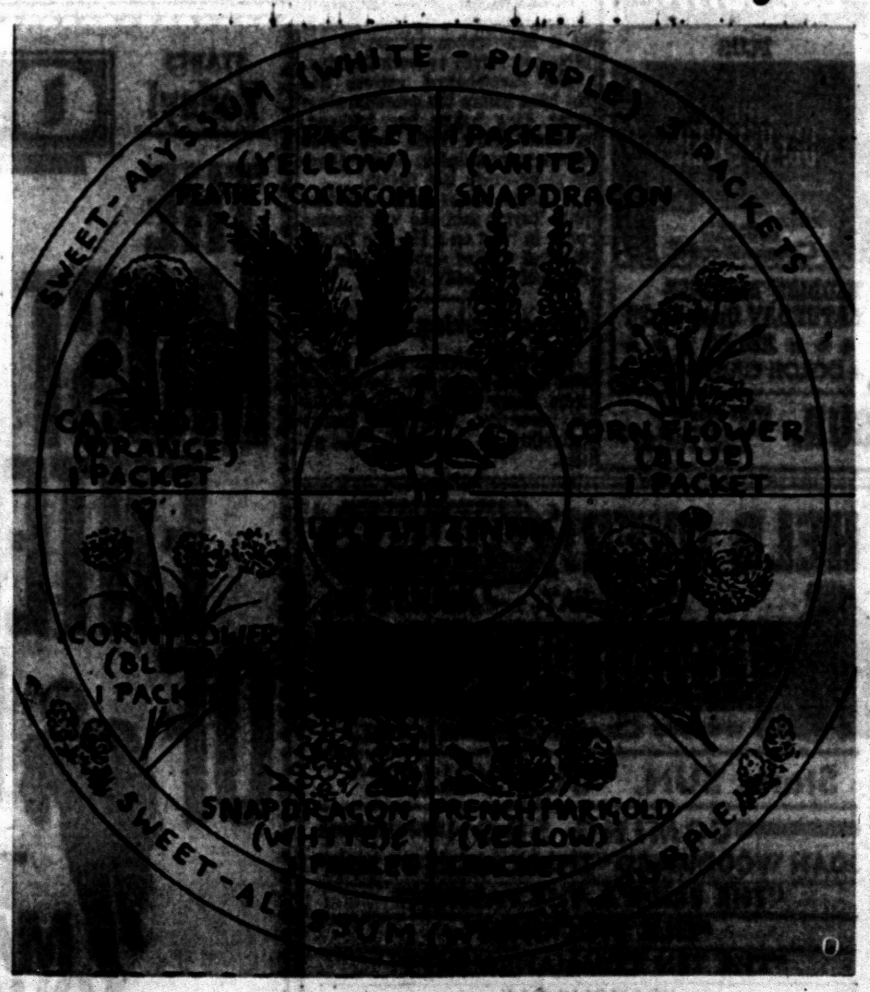

The soil should be kept moist to make the seed germinate. Use a garden hose with a fine spray nozzle every day if necessary.

In about ten days the seedlings will appear. Then scratch the surface of the ground around each seedling patch to prevent weeds from taking hold in the unseeded areas.

When three sets of leaves appear on the seedlings, they are ready for thinning. Crowded plants are carefully dug up and replanted in the open areas. Weeds that may have appeared among the plants should be pulled up. Thinning and transplanting should be done on a cloudy day so the hot sun won't have a chance to make the plants wilt. Loosen the surface of the soil between the plants each week with a hoe.

The garden should also be watered deeply. About a month after sowing, the soil should be dusted lightly with a complete fertilizer, such as 5-10-5. Work it into the soil and then water well. Try not to get the fertilizer on the leaves of the plants.

Rid Lawns of Wild Garlic

A strong contender for the most diabolical lawn weed is known as garlic or wild onion. It produces bunches or coarse green shoots from bulbs which require three years to mature.

Clumps contain bulblets in three stages of development. The plan of attack therefore requires treatment once a year for three successive years in order to eradicate the pest.

Authorities recommend spraying with a selective chemical compound of 2,4-D and 2,4,5-T esters. Such spraying penetrates the waxy coating without any mechanical aid or individual treatment.

TREAT EARLY

Early treatment is especially important in successful treatment. Garlic grows most strongly at a time when most other plants are dormant—during the winter and early spring.

If the clumps are sprayed very early in the spring, there is no chance for the plant to build up its food reserves to carry it over the summer dormant period, and the best response is obtained.

Wild garlic was originally a native of Europe. It came to this country in the seventeenth century and has spread into pastures, cultivated field, gardens and lawns from coast to coast. It is particularly annoying to home owners because of the ragged appearance the clumps give the lawn.

Garlic tops come up before lawn grasses start growing, at a time when there is no other need to mow.

Rose Is a Rose —Not Always

Rhododendron Has Few Economic Uses, but It Lends Blaze of Color

Though its Greek name literally means rose tree, rhododendron is a member of the world-wide heath family that includes heather and mountain laurel. It is closely related to the cranberry and blueberry.

Unlike its edible cousins, rhododendron has few economic uses. The honey from some species is poisonous to man. The plant itself seems to exist solely for its spectacular beauty, whether cultivated in gardens or running a wild blaze of color over the green ridges of mountains.

For sheer magnificence, few species can match the Catawba Rhododendron, the National Geographic Society says. Probably the world's most extensive, beautiful, and accessible stand of it blankets the summit of Roan Mountain on the North Carolina — Tennessee border.

Gnarled plants grow in clumps as big as houses. Clusters of delicate, purplish-pink blossoms often attain the size of cabbages. A single plant may rise 15 feet and bear 800 flowers.

The Catawba, which covers extensive tracts of land in the southern mountains, was named and first described by the eminent French botanist Andre Michaux in 1794. The English authority W. J. Bean said it "has proved perhaps the most valuable evergreen shrub for ornament ever introduced."

Other popular species include the rose bay or maximum, the state flower of West Virginia, and the californicum, Washington State's floral emblem.

But these are just three among hundreds of rhododendron species native to the mountainous regions of North America and Asia. Azaleas are assigned to the rhododendron genus by botanists, though the superficial differences are so pronounced that gardeners regard them as separate plants. True rhododendrons usually are evergreen, azaleas deciduous.

Unfamiliar Posy Adds Excitement to Gardens

We all know zinnias, marigolds and petunias if we have ever gardened at all, but how much pleasure may we be missing by not trying our unfamiliar flowers in our gardens!

How about taking a chance on Gomphrena Buddy or Cissy? Have you ever seen Xeranthemum? Are your familiar with the dwarf african marigold Cupid? Turn off the beaten path; you'll find treasures only a step away.

Rain Disrupts Tighe's Pitching Rotation

Weatherman Plagues Tigers

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — With the opening of the American League season less than a week away, the weatherman poses an additional problem for Detroit Tiger manager Jack Tighe.

Tighe is trying to set up his pitching rotation for the season which opens Tuesday in Chicago.

Rain in Florida, rain in Birmingham, Ala., and rain yesterday in Tulsa, Okla., has hampered Tighe in selecting his pitching for the season opening series.

Jim Bunning, big gun on Detroit's mound staff, was supposed to hurl against the Milwaukee Braves yesterday at Tulsa. Rain limited the Tigers to a brief workout in a barn near the Tulsa ball park.

Tighe plans on using Bunning for the league opener. He'd like to send Paul Foytack and Billy Hoeft against the Braves in the exhibition season windups tomorrow and Sunday at Milwaukee.

Harvey Kuenn gave Tighe another headache. The big outfielder was laid up with boils on his right leg. A Tulsa physician treated the boils and said Kuenn probably would have a fast recovery, but there was a chance Kuenn, a native of Wisconsin, might miss the Milwaukee series.

Tighe said Charley Maxwell will rejoin the club in Milwaukee. Maxwell left the Tigers in Florida to go to Detroit for allergy tests. Originally the outfielder wasn't expected back until the league opener.

Maxwell also has been suffering from boils but trainer Jack Homel said there was no connection between the two cases. A skin infection is believed to have started Kuenn's troubles.

Heikkinen Gets Northern High Football Post

Dick Hall Is Selected Basketball Coach for the New School

By BRUNO. L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Two principal head coaching positions for the new Pontiac Northern High School were approved last night by the Board of Education.

Edwin Heikkinen, 34, currently assistant football coach at Pontiac Central was named to head the grid staff at Northern. The head basketball coaching position was filled by the selection of Richard Hall, 31, presently on the faculty and basketball coach at Lincoln Junior High.

Although the new high school is expected to open its doors for the fall term, the first varsity football team will not be fielded until the 1959 season.

Heikkinen will be associated with staff at Pontiac Central for the 1958 campaign as coach of one of the two junior varsity teams which will continue to play football as part of the PCH program.

Permission was obtained several months ago from the Michigan High School Athletic Association to allow Pontiac Northern students to play football as a single unit under the Pontiac Central staff because athletic facilities at the new school would not be available until the winter sports season.

The majority of junior varsity players under Heikkinen would be made up of underclassmen, mostly 10th graders, within boundary limits of Pontiac Northern's district. The team will play seven games with junior varsity teams of other area schools, using Pontiac Central facilities.

Heikkinen, a native of Ramsey, Michigan, graduated from Johnson High School in that community in 1942. He attended Illinois Tech and Renssalaer Polytechnical Institute under the Navy V-12 program.

He was named on the "Little All-America" team as quarterback at Renssalaer in 1944. In 1948 he transferred to the University of Michigan where he obtained his Bachelor's degree and later his Master's.

In 1949 he joined the Pontiac Central faculty as math teacher and assistant football coach. Since 1953 he has also been head baseball coach.

Hall, a graduate of Wayne State University, attended Mackenzie High School in Detroit and received his Bachelor's degree from Wayne in 1950.

A veteran of WWII, he received four varsity letters in basketball at Wayne and for three seasons, 1946 through 1949 he led the team in scoring.

Before moving into the Pontiac school system in 1956 at Lincoln, he was at Southfield High and also coached and played in Detroit semi - pro basketball ranks for six years.

Coaching positions for baseball, swimming, track, golf, tennis and wrestling are expected to be filled before the current spring semester ends.

Lane Acquisitions Produce Victory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It can never be said that trader Frank Lane is content with the status quo. He is always trying. He is the game's No. 1 manipulator.

The man who introduced the three-platoon system first with the Chicago White Sox and then the St. Louis Cardinals — that is, one team going, one coming and one playing — is now up to similar tricks with the Cleveland Indians.

The Indians won a 15-14 tenning marathon from the San Francisco Giants yesterday in Houston, Tex., and the deft hand of Cleveland's new general manager, Lane, was recognizable in the proceedings.

Mickey Vernon hit a three-run homer in the eighth to put Cleveland ahead 12-11. Vernon was bought from the Boston Red Sox last winter. It's a good thing, too.

Cleveland's regular first baseman, Vic Wertz, cracked an ankle March 30 and probably is lost until July. Vernon, who twice won the American League batting crown, is his likely substitute at first.

After the Giants had gone ahead 14-12 in the tenth, J. W. Porter lashed out a pinch-hit double to score two runs and pave the way for the ultimate victory. Porter was another of the pawns in a Lane trade. The catcher came to the Indians in a four-player deal which sent Jim Hegan to the Tigers.

Lane has refurbished the Cleveland outfield by bringing back Larry Doby from the Baltimore Orioles and obtaining Minnie Minoso from the Chicago White Sox.

The Cleveland general manager could take no credit for one phase of the exhibition game, that was the performance of Giant centerfielder Willie Mays, who drove in five runs with two homers, a double and single and then threw wild to home to permit the winning run to score.

Rain washed out five exhibition games in the South and Southwest but four were played.

In addition to the Indians-Giants nightmare at Houston, the Chicago Cubs beat the Los Angeles Dodgers at Mesa, Ariz., 7-3, on a seven-inning home run by Ernie Banks; the St. Louis Cardinals edged the Chicago White Sox at Denver, 8-7, on a bases-loaded wild pitch in the ninth by Bill Dufour, and the Pittsburgh Pirates slugged Mexico City again, 10-2, in a night game below the border.

800 at Opening Session

Boat, Sport Show Opens

Close to 800 persons, interested in the latest models of boats, and boating gadgets, sports materiel — and current summer athletic wear as well as new summer outdoor fashions, crowded into the first session of the Miracle Mile Shopping Center's boat and sports show, on Thursday. Show runs through Sunday.

Highlights included the demonstration of fly-bait-casting by world champion Ben Hardesty, style show by nine Pontiac Central High girls; fine music by Cliff Weigand; and the sale of Girl Scout cookies by the Scouts, assisted by uniformed members of the Marine Corps recruiting team here.

Al Tang and his archers will give a demonstration of the bow-and-arrow art at 8 p.m. today.

Trade exhibits include latest in outboard motors, from 5 to 50 horsepower, boats of all kinds, with just one wooden - type rowboat, hundreds of gadgets. Sports equipment galore, is on hand. Outside the show building Art Hickson's big hydroplane, Bildor, is displayed. It has all its running equipment installed.

Pontiac Lions club handled tickets, and will receive show profits to aid its visual help fund for children, in which it has paid $300 for eye operations and glasses, during the last 10 days.

Morey's Going Private? Owner Says 'No'

By BILL CORNWELL

Rumors were flying around that Morey's Golf and Country Club was planning to become private. All those reports have been scotched by Ed Morey, owner of the 27-hole course which bears his name.

"There is no truth to the rumor that this course is turning private," Morey said, "This club was built specifically for the paying public," he added, "and it will remain that way."

Morey continued: "Years ago I remember observing how many wonderful golf courses there were in Oakland County and yet I knew that only a few people could play on most of them. I vowed then to build a course for everybody. Now I've succeeded."

The new head pro at Morey's is Fred Richmond. It's actually a return to Morey's for Richmond, who spent two years there (1953-1954) before working at Bald Mountain and trying his hand at salesmanship. He replaces Bob Young.

SHORT PUTTS

Mrs. John F. (Sallie) Gilmore, three-time Pine Lake Country Club women's golf champion, died Monday at her home in Detroit at the age of 79. Mrs. Gilmore won club titles at Pine Lake in 1928, 1931 and 1932.

Her daughter, Mrs. C. L. (Janet) Fox, was Pine Lake champ in 1936 and 1937. Mrs. Fox is still very active in area golfing circles.

Gerry Prieskorn, 21-year-old nephew of Pine Lake pro Elmer Prieskorn, is Elmer's No. 1 assistant this year. Gerry is taking over the duties of Paul Van Loozen, who has switched to Edgewood.

Red Run Golf Club will not hold its invitational tournament this summer because of the Western Open, which has a May 29-June 1 engagement there.

Tom Miller, 22-year-old golfer from Lafayette, La., is Bill Graham's new assistant at Bloomfield Hills Country Club. The Hills officially opens May 17.

-Joe Thacker has picked up a couple of new helpers at Knollwood, Ron Stevens of Minneapolis and Sam Cropley of Akron. Ted Huffman has returned to Tam O'Shanter as Warren Orlick's right-hand man.

Waterford Nine Wallops Pontiac

Big righthander Chuck Kirken pitched and batted the Waterford Skippers to a 9-1 opening day victory over Pontiac Central at chilly Wisner Stadium yesterday afternoon.

Kirken pitched two-hit ball while slamming a double and two singles himself to bat in three runs. It was Pontiac's 2nd defeat in three days.

A five-run 5th broke up the contest after the Chiefs led 1-0. Four more crossed in the final two frames.

Waterford garnered at total of 12 hits off Pontiac hurlers Dave Jones, Charley Honchell and Bob Garrett. Jones was the loser. Skipper shortstop Tony Hiller matched Kirken with three hits.

Doctoring Your Golf

By Dr. CARY MIDDLECOFF

Patient's Complaint: Poor Distance, Worse Direction

Diagnosis: Hitting From the Top

Treatment: A golf swing can go wrong in a lot of places, just as a wreck can happen at any point along the road. Carrying this analogy a little further, there are danger points in the golf swing just as there are danger points along the highway.

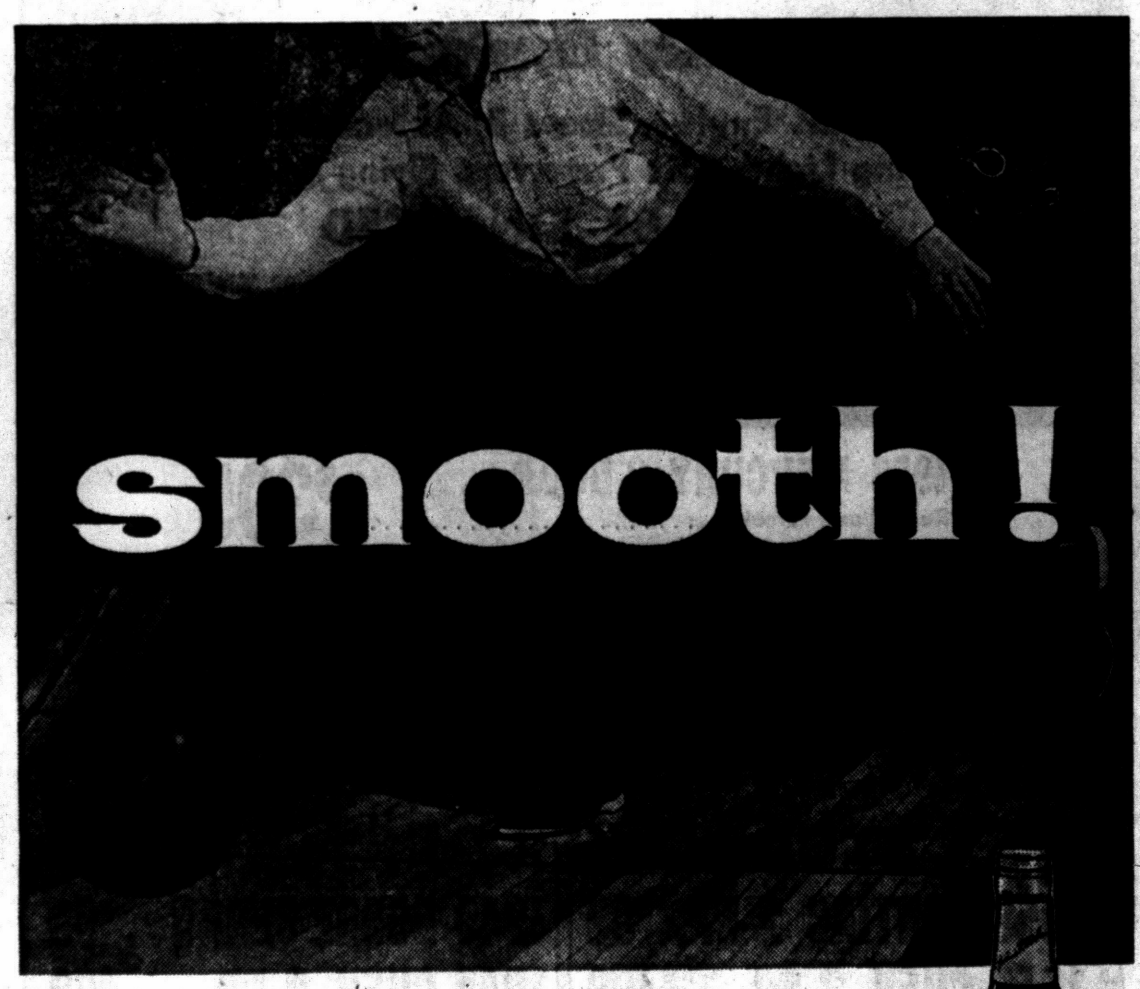

The hairpin curve of the golf swing is where the backswing ends and the downswing begins.

If you'll just go slow and stay calm through this stretch of the swing, you'll save many, many golf shots.

I'm not trying to be clever about this; I'm just trying to dramatize the point so that you'll remember it. Of all the faults in golf, the most prevalent and most costly in strokes is this hitting from the top.

Remember: START THE DOWNSWING SLOWLY AND SMOOTHLY.

OCSC Archers Enjoy Banquet, Award Honors

Dinner will be served at 7 p.m. followed by a program that includes award of league titles and honors, won during the 32-team competition. Individual championships this winter were won by Ruth Baker and Tom Adams.

Spring and summer campaign of the OCSC bow enthusiasts is scheduled for a start within a week or two. First event will be a 52-target round. One-hundred-thirty-eight took part in the winter shooting.

Romeo Wins Opener in Baseball, 10-1

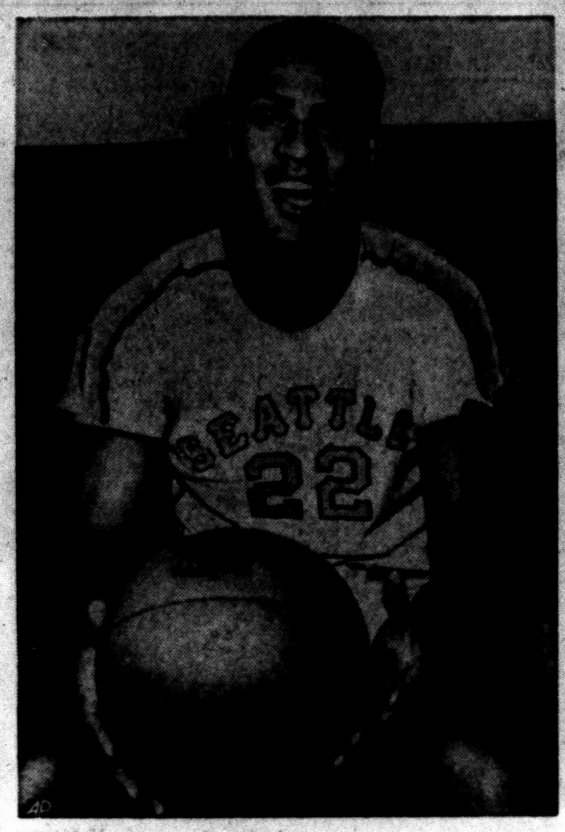

A 9-hit barrage and some tight pitching by Bob Calan got Romeo off and running towards what is expected to be another big baseball season as the Bulldogs walloped Marysville 10-1 in their season opener yesterday.

Veteran Ray Ritter and newcomer Ron Schmidt walloped home runs to lead the attack. Ritter had two other hits and four RBI's. Galan fanned ten and allowed just two safeties.

CHECKED BY NCAA — All-America Elgin Baylor was the center of attention as reports were made that Seattle University may be under investigation by the NCAA for unlawful recruiting practices. Baylor's eligibility is being checked.

Disciplinary Action Expected

Seattle Recruiting Eyed by NCAA, Writer Avers

SEATTLE (UP) — Seattle University, which battled to the No. 2 spot in the NCAA Basketball Tournament last month, may find itself on the outside looking in when post-season tournament play rolls around next year.

The Post-Intelligencer, in an article written by Boyd Smith, said it learned today from a reliable source that the NCAA infractions committee has been giving Seattle University player recruiting practices the eagle eye and has found those practices don't measure up to NCAA standards.

As a result, the paper said, the committee may recommend to the NCAA Council at its meeting in New Orleans later this month that the Chiefs be banned from post-season play in 1959.

The P-I said the committee was particularly interested in an instance in which Coach John Castellani is alleged to have paid the expenses of a high school cager who visited the Seattle campus.

Official reaction to the story was so subdued as to be barely audible.

"I can neither confirm nor deny reports of this kind," Walter Byers, executive director of the NCAA, said in Kansas City.

Castellani was out of town and unavailable for comment.

The P-I quoted the Rev. John Kelley, S.J., academic vice president of Seattle University, as saying:

"I can tell you that the allegations have been made and that Seattle U. is cooperating fully with the NCAA. The school will do everything it can to correct any violations which may have occurred."

The P-I also said Homer Cooke Jr., director of the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau, learned of the investigation of Seattle's recruiting tactics when he announced plans to use a picture of Chieftain All-America Elgin Baylor on the cover of the 1959 basketball guide.

Cooke, the P-I said, was warned by Wayne Duke, NCAA publicity chairman, not to use Baylor's picture because Seattle was "up for investigation" and might be barred from post-season tournament play.

"Our guide already has gone to press and the cover was selected before I went to the tournament in Louisville," Cooke said. "Tom Hawkins of Notre Dame is on the cover. Baylor was never considered."

Druggists Win League Crown

68-60 Defeat of Swan Produces 2nd Straight Waterford Title

Drayton Drug won the Waterford Township Recreation League basketball crown for the 2nd straight year Thursday night with a 68-60 victory over White Swan in their title playoff game at Isaac Crary Junior High gymnasium.

The two teams ended the regular season schedule in a tie for 1st place with 9-3 records.

Swan, which defeated Johnson & Anderson last week to win the annual loop tournament, fell behind after four minutes of play and never caught up. Drayton enjoyed a 39-26 halftime lead.

John Collins sparked the Druggists with 20 points, 12 in the 1st quarter, and Ed McNamara added 18. Swan's Harry Dearborn and Mel Karrigan took scoring honors in a losing cause with 25 and 21 points respectively.

Team and individual trophies were awarded to the Druggists following the game. Joe Umphrey of Hutchinson's Mobile, who averaged 20 points per contest, received the high scoring award and the sportsmanship trophy went to Mike Ashley of J&A.

Cunningham Named to Fight Harris

DETROIT (AP)—Johnny Cunningham, veteran Baltimore welterweight, will substitute for Weyman Dawson against Duke Harris, Michigan 147-pound champion, in a scheduled 10-round bout at Motor City Arena tomorrow night.

Jack Laken, Dawson's manager, reported yesterday both he and the fighter were suffering from flu.

Simmons Stars in 5-2 Victory Over Champions

His 31 Stops, Horvath's Two Goals Pace Win; Play Again Sunday

The slender 150-pound goalie for the Boston Bruins of the National Hockey League was acclaimed as the key figure in Boston's 5-2 upset victory over the Montreal Canadiens last night that squared the Stanley Cup final playoff series at 1-1.

In the opening game Tuesday night he had been feinted out of position on the winning goal in Montreal's 2-1 victory.

The 26-year-old netminder from Port Colborne, Ont. was plenty hot in making 31 stops. He was praised to the skies in the dressing room afterwards.

"Simmons won it for us," asserted Boston Coach Milt Schmidt.

"If it hadn't been for Simmons we would have lost," said Captain Fern Flaman, rugged Bruin defenseman.

"Simmons pulled us through in the clutches," declared veteran Harry Lumley, Boston's other goalie. "It was the best game I have ever seen him play."

The Bruins, alert for breaks, squelched the Canadiens with the same formula they used in knocking off the New York Rangers in the semifinal. They struck swiftly in the first period, racking up a 3-1 lead, and the satisfaction of seeing the proud NHL champions start floundering.

Bernie "Boom Boom" Geoffrion and defenseman Doug Harvey scored for Montreal. Geoffrion's goal gave the Canadiens a brief 1-1 tie in the first period. Harvey's second-period goal came after the Bruins had set up a 4-1 lead.

Fleming Mackell, who figured in McKenney's goal, equalled the record of 12 for assists in playoff series. He had 10 in the semi-final against New York and one in Tuesday's game.

Montreal's Maurice "Rocket" Richard set a record by playing in 117 playoff games. Ted Lindsay, while with Detroit, was the former record-holder with 116.

The five goals scored by the Bruins was the highest they have registered against Canadiens in playoff in 38 games. They scored a 5-4 win March 30, 1943.

The 5-2 setback was also the worst for Montreal in a final since 1955 when the Detroit Red Wings slapped on a 7-1 win in Detroit.

The third and fourth games of the best-of-seven series will be played in Boston Sunday and Tuesday.

North Branch Wins Meet

Paced by the stellar performance of Dick Thompson, hurdler and jumper, who won both barrier tests, tied for 1st in broad jump and was 2nd in the high jump, North Branch defeated Mayville, 65⅔-43⅓, in a South Central League dual match, Thursday.

20,000 to See Silky Run Today

Upwards of 20,000 fans were expected to watch the chestnut colt, pride of California, in a $10,000 mile race. It's Silky's only appearance in northern California at this Golden Gate meeting.

The race against a field of seven 3-year-olds goes off at about 8 p.m. EST. It is Silky's last California run before heading for Kentucky Derbyland.

Eleven players in the Major League draft cost $135,000.

St. Louis ABC Open Team Leader

Fazio Little Help as Beer Quintet Moves in Front

Former Detroit Star Fails to Average 200 on 'Cold' Night

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (UP)—The St. Louis Falstaffs marched into first place in the open team division of the American Bowling Congress championships last night to climax a day of brilliant scoring.

The Falstaffs' 1,060 - 1,034 - 1,116 - 3,210 salvo cut short the reign of the Jenny five team, from Rochester, N. Y., which had assumed the lead Wednesday night after shooting 2,990.

Only two scores in the 55-year history of the ABC have exceeded the Falstaff total. The all-time record is the 3,234 posted in the 1948 show by the Birk Brothers of Chicago. The Tri-Par Radio team of Chicago shot 3,226 in 1954.

Steve Nagy, the St. Louisians' burly anchorman, led the parade last night with a 244-227-258-729 series. His scoresheet for the 30 frames involved was clean of splits and errors.

Only Buzz Fazio, the colorful Falstaff captain, failed to average 200. He was able to muster only 553.

If the Falstaffs' lead stands up through the remaining 59 days of the tournament, they will become the first St. Louis team in ABC annals to win a championship.

The Marcal Products squad of East Paterson, N. J., moved into fourth place with 964-965-1,043 — 2,972.

Another St. Louis team, the Airport Bowl, rolled 1,003-996-921 — 2,920 and moved into an eighth-place tie with the John Zablotney Highway Supt. of Buffalo, N. Y.

Bill Byard of South Charleston, W. Va., battered the pins to a 751 tune in the doubles but got only 550 pins support from his partner, Allen Wells. The duo's 1,301 was enough to boost them into first place, however, in the two-man category.

Brittany Field Trial on Saturday, Sunday

Michigan Brittany Club will hold its AKC-approved spring field trial Saturday and Sunday at the Highland Recreation area. Entries close at 8 p.m. today, and drawing is set for tonight at Haven Hill Lodge, following a dinner at 6:30 p.m. A dinner will also be held Saturday at 6:30 at the same place at conclusion of the trials.

Events listed include open all-age, 7 a.m., Saturday; open derby Saturday, at completion of all-age; open puppy stakes, Sunday at end of open derby; amateur all-age Sunday, following puppy match.

AP Facsimile

Lions Sign Russell and Rookie Boutee

DETROIT (UP)—The Detroit Lions today announced that tackle Ken Russell, a rookie who blossomed into unexpected stardom in the last two games of 1957, has signed his 1958 contract.

The big lineman from Bowling Green sat on the Lions' bench almost all the season until Charlie Ane was hurt. Russell stepped into Ane's spot for the Western Conference playoff game in San Francisco and did an outstanding job.

Also signed for 1958 is rookie end Harold Boutee of San Jose State, the Detroit club's 12th draft choice. He is 6 feet 3 and weighs 215 pounds.

Western Amateur Qualifiers

Area Golfers in 2nd Round

DELRAY BEACH, Fla. (UP) — A 27-year-old banker whose club rejoined the association just so he could compete, and a 30-year-old Walker Cup team veteran set the pace today as the Western Amateur golf championship entered its second qualifying round.

The youthful banker is James Key of Columbus, Ga., a last-minute entry. He classifies himself as a weekend golfer and never has won a big event, although he was Florida intercollegiate champion, Georgia junior champion, and was medalist in the Southern Amateur in 1948.

James Jackson, Kirkwood, Mo., bag salesman, was a Walker Cup team member in 1953 and 1955 and twice was Missouri Amateur champion.

Each shot a one-under-par 71 over the Country Club of Florida course yesterday as the 7,200-yard layout baffled all except four of the other 100 entrants.

Don Bisplinghof of Miami Beach, Paul Tarnow Jr. of Tampa, Lee Raymond of Miami and Ben Smith of Birmingham, Mich., each had a par 72.

Right behind them in good position with 73s were the defending champion, Dr. Edgar Updegraff of Tucson, Ariz., and the 1956 champion, Mason Rudolph, stationed at Ft. Chaffee, Ark. Pete Dye of Indianapolis and Eddie Hopkins, Jr., of Abilene, Tex., also were in that bracket.

Chick Hendrickson, from Ferndale, Mich., was tied for 15th place with 75.

The venerable but spry Chick Evans came in with an 82. National Amateur champion Hillman Robbins of Memphis was tricked into a 78 by a wayward putter, and Robert Sweeny of Palm Beach former British Amateur titleholder, had to be content with a 76.

The second round will cut the field to the low 50 and ties for the final two qualifying rounds Saturday. They will determine the 16 players to complete in the match play.

Rehearsal Monday

Call for baseball rehearsal at the No. 1 Jaycees diamond was issued today by Griff's Grill team management. Players and candidates were requested to be on hand at 5 p.m. Griff's is a Class A City League entry.

Golfers Try Again Today

GREENSBORO, N.C. (UP) — A field of 130 golfers was ready to try it again today in the $15,000 Greater Greensboro Open Tournament after the scheduled opening day was washed out.

The tournament is the official kickoff of the Professional Golf Assn.'s summer tour. But temperatures yesterday were in the mid-40s and rain persisted two hours after the tee-off.

Chief Thinclads Facing Big Test

Central Michigan College annual invitational indoor track meet, tonight, will provide somewhat of a preview for the 1958 Saginaw Valley Conference spring campaign. Coach Dean Wilson's thinclads will face a tough assignment in an effort to repeat their success at the recent Huron Relays (Eastern Michigan). Many of the same teams that took part at Ypsi will be at Mt. Pleasant tonight.

Chiefs expect strong competition from their arch-rivals Flint Northern, Flint Central and Saginaw High. "All three are tough" Wilson commented this morning, announcing makeup of his squad for the meet. He pointed to the recent under-the-record medley relay time of 6:09, by Central's quartet against Saginaw, as clipping the meet record held by FCH (6:11) by two seconds.

Pontiac's entries:

AMC Will Increase Rambler Production

DETROIT (AP) — American Motors Corp. said yesterday it will increase Rambler production by about 10 per cent starting Tuesday.

Roy D. Chapin, executive vice president of the firm's automotive division, said the boost will be accompanied by an increase in employment of about 400 persons at plants in Wisconsin.

Chapin said output will go up from an average of 600 Ramblers a day to 660 to meet increasing sales demands.

Rambler production nearly doubled in the first three months of 1958, the company said. First quarter output was 41,183 units compared with 22,332 in the like period a year ago.

NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL ESTATE

Take notice that the Bloomfield Hills School District No. 4 County of Oakland, Michigan, will receive sealed proposals for the purchase of the following described lots and the improvements thereon on Tuesday, the 22 day of April, 1958, until 8:00 o'clock p.m., at the Bloomfield Hills High School in said School District.

The lots to be sold are described as follows:

Lots 251, 252, 253, 254, 255, 256, 257, 264, 265, and 266 South Bloomfield Highlands Sub. of part of S.W. ¼ of Section 3, Town 2 North, Range 10 East, Bloomfield Township, Oakland County, Michigan, as recorded in Oakland County Records in Liber 28, page 3 of Plats, and will include all buildings and improvements thereon but shall not include the equipment and personal property now therein or thereon. Said lots will be sold subject to existing easements, building and use restrictions and zoning ordinances.

The School District will furnish an abstract of title and tax history of the above described premises, certified to a date later than the date of sale above, prepared by Abstract and Title Company, or a title policy with only standard exceptions, or commitment for the same in an amount equal to the purchase price drawn by a recognized title company, and will consummate the transaction within ninety (90) days from the date of sale by delivery of a Warranty Deed conveying a good and marketable title. The expense of certifying the abstract or the cost of the title policy shall be paid by the School District. The purchaser shall pay the full purchase price for the above described property less the good faith deposit hereinafter required, in either cash or by certified or cashier's check. Possession of the above-described premises shall be given upon consummation. The School District shall pay all utility bills to the date of consummation.

Each bidder shall submit with his proposal a cashier's check or a certified check equal to ten per cent (10%) of his proposal as evidence of good faith, to be forfeited as full liquidated damages in the event that such bidder's proposal is accepted and the bidder fails to perform in accordance with this notice. The good faith checks of unsuccessful bidders shall be promptly returned. The good faith check of the successful bidder shall be applied to the purchase price upon consummation or in the event the School District fails to perform in accordance with this notice said check shall be returned to the bidder.

The School District shall furnish the Abstract of Title and tax history to the purchaser within twenty (20) days from acceptance of any proposal. The purchaser shall then have twenty (20) days to raise any objection to the title. If a valid objection to the title is raised the School District shall have twenty (20) days to correct the defect or furnish a title policy with only standard objections or a commitment therefor.

Each bidder in submitting his proposal shall be deemed to include the provisions of this notice in his proposal and shall be deemed to agree that his proposal shall be irrevocable for ten (10) days from the date of sale fixed above.

The proposal offering the highest amount for the above-described property shall be accepted, provided, however, that the School District, by its Board of Education, shall in its sole discretion have the right to reject any and all proposals.

Bids may be mailed to the Bloomfield Hills Board of Education, 4200 Andover Road, Bloomfield Hills, Michigan. —

Stock Market Prices Mixed

Aircrafts and rails moved ahead slightly. Motors leaned to the upside. Steels were unchanged to easy. Farm implements and rubbers declined.

American Motors, yesterday's most active stock, continued to advance in brisk trading following news that it is increasing production and recalling 400 workers. It rose ¼ to 9⅛ on a big opening block of 15,000 shares.

International Business Machines was helped by an increase of nearly 25 per cent in first quarter earnings over the like period a year ago. IBM rose 4½ to 339 on 1,100 shares.

U. S. Steel, American Telephone, General Motors and Du Pont showed scant change; Chrysler and Standard Oil (New Jersey) were steady.

Gainers included Boeing, Douglas, Raytheon, International Nickel and American Smelting.

Three Bandits Hold Up Good Neighbor Market

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP — Three men, one armed with a blue-steel revolver and another with a knife, held up the Good Neighbor Market at W. Eight Mile road and Riemanville street shortly before 9 p.m. yesterday and escaped with approximately $600.

Two of the bandits were masked, store owner John Yasso, 53, of Detroit, told township police.

There were three customers in the market at the time, he said.

Corn Futures Market Weak

CHICAGO (AP) — Fairly broad liquidation hit all pits in early board of trade dealings today and grain futures turned weak in nearly all contracts.

The May wheat delivery, in which there are possibilities of a tight supply, was in good demand and ran a cent or more to the plus side during the first minutes.

But corn and soybeans were decidedly weak at the time, with losses out to a cent or more.

Traders said some of the corn pressure was profit-taking in consequence of the steady advance this grain has made during the past two weeks.

The new crop wheat and soybean trading has been largely speculative for several days.

Near the end of the first hour, wheat was 1 cent on the May to ⅝ lower on the new crop wheat, May $2.20; corn ¼ to 1 cent lower, May $1.25; oats unchanged to ¼ lower, May 66¾; rye ¼ to 1⅛ lower, May $1.30¾; soybeans ⅛ to ⅜ lower, May $2.30⅛; lard 2 to 5 cents a hundred pounds lower, May $12.75.

To Boost Economy
Professor Offers Plan

ANN ARBOR (AP) — A seven-point program to beef up the nation's economy was advanced today by a University of Michigan economist.

Prof. William Haber said the government should enforce the plan if the sagging economy doesn't improve this spring.

Haber's points:

1. Increase individual tax exemptions.

2. Reduce excise taxes on cars and pass the reduction along to the consumer.

3. Speed up public works with emphasis on highway construction.

4. Give the unemployed more benefits.

5. Increase social security payments by 10 per cent.

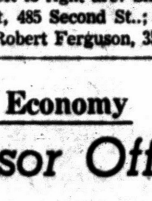

6. Spend more money on defense.

7. Further ease Federal Reserve credit.

Haber is chairman of the Federal Advisory Council on Employment. He said the nation has all the necessary forces for recovery from the recession and lacks only some additional purchasing power and confidence.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF Michael Vackaro, who passed away 1 year ago today, April 11.
You have left a beautiful memory,
And a sorrow too great to be told;
But to us who have loved and lost you,
Your memory will never grow old.
No morning comes, no night returns,
But what we think of you,
Sadly missed by Wife, Children and Grandchildren.

Michigan Captain Wins $108,000

KALAMAZOO (INS) — Captain Michael O'Rourke returned to his Kalamazoo home today after winning $108,000 on a nationally televised quiz program.

Capt. O'Rourke lost out last night on the NBC-TV Tic-Tac-Dough program. He had been making appearances on the show for 19 weeks.

His wife said she was relieved and happy that the strain was over. She said, "I won't know what to do on Thursday nights now."

School Head Makes Sweeping Statement

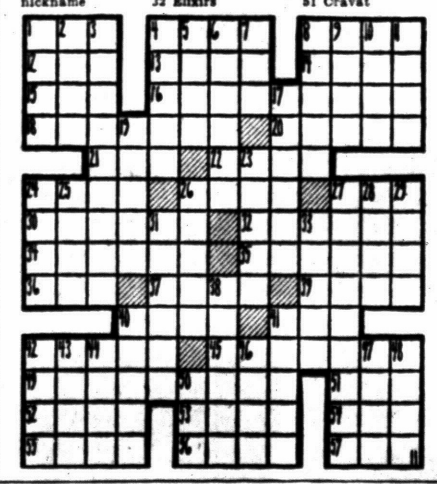

BILLINGS, Okla. (AP) — Superintendent of Schools John Gorton isn't going to make any more rash deals with the high school student body.

He told the students anyone found in the halls after the bell rings in the morning has to sweep the halls. If no one is found, he pushes the broom.

Gorton has been on the business end of the broom since school started.

Prowls Home Town of Writer McIntyre

BY EARL WILSON

GALLIPOLIS, O.—A private plane had set us down here in O. O. McIntyre's home town on the Ohio River and now I was studying the breakfast menu.

WILSON

"Cornmeal mush!" I suddenly yelled. "I gotta have that—in milk!"

Mush, I guess, is as out-of-date as the home-town livery stable McIntyre used to get nostalgic about in "New York Day by Day." It was the one remnant of the past I found when I prowled State Street here in "Gallipoleece" (pop. 8,000) trying to see if there's anything old-fashioned left in America except old-fashioned highballs.

Why, Odd McIntyre wouldn't know this booming Ohio Valley! From here to Marietta and Cincinnati it's an aluminum area . . . producing for satellites—but the people . . . well now, listen:

McINTYRE

They use swear words like "Aw, shoot!"and "Golly Ned." And the men are very strange. They take off their caps in elevators.

Out at well-kept Mound Hill Cemetery there's a stone bench over the McIntyre grave. On it are the words, "Beloved of a Nation." The late Maj. Edward Bowes had suggested the inscription.

We drove around to the house of Aunt Kate Small, the milliner, who raised him. There was a plaque there. Atop it was a figure of Odd McIntyre typing, with a watchful little dog behind him.

I'd never known McIntyre—who died in '38 at 54—but had always hankered to see this little town famous principally for him. "Funny thing was, Odd always wrote about being homesick—but never came back," one native said . . . but Mrs. Edna Mauck said:

"He wanted to remember it as it was."

Legend says Odd started writing "personal items" and that one famous line told of a gent swallowing a nail. "It cause him some inconvenience," Odd reported.

Anyway, they're salt-of-the-earth folks here in Athens, Nelsonville, Zanesville and Coolville—and only one thing makes 'em upset: Mispronouncing "Gallipoleece," and Rio Grande, which is "Rye-o Grande."

"What are people here called—riverrats or hillbillies?" I asked jokingly . . . "Gallipolitans!" I was informed.

"Are there any illegal stills hereabouts?" I asked at the Elks.

"What do you think that is you're drinking?" somebody with a good sense of humor shot back.

I'm glad I made the pilgrimage. I came after a visit to my own home town, Rockford, up the pike a piece. I was flattered to find that in my home town that day they'd let the school out.

Yep—'twas spring vacation.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL IN N.Y. . . .

Lana Turner's ex, Steve Crane (Cheryl's father), has private eye Fred Otash working on the case . . . President Eisenhower may visit Cape Canaveral . . . Frank Sinatra's gift to Princess Grace's son: a $2,000 gold place setting.

EARL'S PEARLS: Do something daily to make other people happy, even if it's only to leave them alone . . . That's earl, brother.

Requesting Injunction to Stop Union Picketing

A request for an injunction to stop union picketing against her Hazel Park cleaning store has been asked by the store owner in a suit filed yesterday in Oakland County Circuit Court.

The owner, Ruth Little, charges in the suit that the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, AFL-CIO, is attempting to "coerce" her employes into joining the Detroit union local when they don't want to join.

She said in the suit that several sign-carrying pickets had paraded in front of her dry cleaning establishment at 21807 Dequindre, Hazel Park.

Emcee Accused of Taking Sides

Fans Are Sure That He Slights Their Pet Contestants

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Somebody always wins on "The $64,000 Challenge" (CBS-TV). The only consistent loser is Ralph Story, host and referee of the Sunday night program (10 p.m., EST).

"I must lose," Story said the other day." 'The Challenge' is a personal conflict between two contestants. The viewing audience picks its sides—its hero and villain.

"I do my best to be neutral. But no matter what I do, that part of the audience which was plugging for the person who lost feels that 'We wuz robbed'—and some of them blame me."

Far from feeling persecuted by this state of affairs, Story knows that identification and conflict are necessry to a good ball game or television quiz show.

"We wuz robbed," said Tony Galento when his team of seven boxers lost to pretty Dr. Joyce Brothers. But viewers, looking at seven fighters vs. one small blonde, deluged Story with complaints that he was favoring the boxers. "You're a bum, like the rest of those plug-uglies. . . "

MORE TIME NEEDED

They refused to recognize that it took seven times as long to acquaint the audience with seven men as with one woman.

Then a new deluge began: "Those guys know more about boxing than that dame ever will. . . . Wise up and stop being a lady-killer."

The complaints became ever more vitriolic when Mrs. Alice Morgan, the aging champion of the stock market category, was challenged by 14-year-old Lenny Ross.

"I noticed you shook hands with Lenny Ross but you only greeted dear Mrs. Morgan with stiff formality. If you want the kid to win, why don't you admit it?"

NEW COMPLAINT

So the next week Story shook hands with both. Then the letters read: "Skating hands with a youngster is fine, but you should treat Mrs. Morgan with the respect due her age."

The next week Story omitted shaking hands with either. The result? "You treat that darling little boy as if HE were 77 years old. You obviously don't understand children."

"Madame Butterfly," the Puccini opera about the Japanese girl who fell in love with an American naval officer, was first performed in Milan in 1904.

CONSISTENT LOSER — Ralph Story, master of ceremonies on "The $64,000 Challenge," claims that he always loses because viewers pick sides and then accuse him of favoring the opposing contestant. If their favorite misses out; they usually blame Story. The competitive quiz program is telecast Sundays at 10 p. m. by CBS.

Now Detroiters Can Really Roll Out Red Carpet

The city has just received what is believed to be its first official civic red carpet—a plush $147 model that is 40 feet long and three feet wide.

The carpet was loomed in Brussels, Belgium, and the first person to tread upon it will be Baron Silvercruys, Belgian ambassador to the United States.

He was in Detroit today for special ceremonies marking the first sale of a new stamp commemorating the 1958 Brussels World Fair.

Suing County Roads Office for $100,000

The Oakland County Road Commission was named in two $50,000 damage suits filed yesterday in circuit court by two women who claim they suffered "severe and permanent" injuries in a collision with a county truck in February of last year.

Filing the suits were driver Elda La Voy, 21, of Milford, and a passenger, Mary C. Hunt, 21, of Ann Arbor, both employed by the Superintendent of Schools in Milford.

They charged in the suit that their car was forced off North Milford road near Reed road by a road commission truck driven by Herman Lindsey. Each asked $50,000 damages for injuries suffered and for time lost from their jobs.

To Sample Each Other's Lives

Upper Peninsula Children to Swap With Detroiters

LANSING (AP) — Thirty seventh graders from the western Upper Peninsula and 30 from the Detroit area will trade homes and schools next week to see what life is like in the opposite corner of Michigan.

The pupil exchange, a prelude to the annual Michigan Week celebration May 4-10, is believed to be the first of its kind.

Involved in the trade will be youngsters from all Gogebic County schools and the Lee Thurston School in the South Redford district near Detroit.

All next week they'll live in the homes of seventh graders in the community they visit, taking part in regular classwork and school programs as well.

M. D. Roe, superintendent of Thurston School, suggested the idea as a method of giving youngsters a better working knowledge of Michigan.

"When they come home, they'll be able to tell their classmates about areas of the state which some of our children have never visited," he said.

After a sightseeing trip in the bridge area, Gogebic County pupils will transfer to the Bedford school bus, Redford children will shift to the Gogebic bus and all will be driven to their destinations. A week later the group will meet again at the bridge, exchange seats and head for home.

Except for lunches en route, school districts will pay the bill.
