Senators Haggle Over Labor Bill

Happy Over Decision

LEAVING COURT — A smiling Cheryl Crane leaves Superior Court in Santa Monica after learning that she will spend the next two months with her grandmother.

Until June 26 Court Hearing

Lana's Daughter Freed in Grandmother's Custody

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Cheryl Crane, 14, cleared of murdering Lana Turner's lover, is out of Juvenile Hall today but not in custody of her actress mother.

Superior Judge Allen T. Lynch, sitting in Santa Monica Juvenile Court, yesterday gave Lana's mother two months' temporary custody of the teen-ager. She remains a ward of the court. The decision came just 20 days after Cheryl rammed a butcher knife into the stomach of Johnny Stompanato, a one-time henchman of ex-gambler Mickey Cohen.

The ruling was, in effect, a continuance of the Juvenile Court hearing until June 26. Then a reappraisal of the case will be made to determine who gets permanent custody.

A coroner's jury ruled the slaying of Stompanato justifiable homicide. The Juvenile Court hearing cleared the girl of any possible murder charges.

Charges of lack of proper parental control will be considered at another hearing June 26.

The decision made Lana, Cheryl and Mrs. Mildred Turner very happy. But the joy was not shared wholeheartedly by Steve Crane, the child's father.

SHRUGS GLUMLY

Crane, second of Miss Turner's four husbands, shrugged glumly after the hearing. He refused to answer newsmen's questions, begging that he was "too upset to talk."

Later a reporter reached him at his apartment.

"Frankly," he said, "I had hoped that she would not be made a ward of the Juvenile Court."

UAW Slashing Salaries of 25, Laying Off 100

Economy Moves Called Necessary Because of Dip in Union Revenues

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers, Union, now negotiating for profit-sharing and a wage increase from The auto industry, is cutting the salaries of 25 top officers and laying off 100 staff employes to offset a decrease in union revenues.

This was disclosed today by a union official, who declined use of his name.

Formal announcement of the economy measures was expected to come today or tomorrow from the union's international executive board.

The group has been meeting here this week to review contract negotiations and study the union's financial problems.

Estimates of the amount of money saved ranged up to $50,000 a month composed principally of the salaries of the laid-off staff employes.

Reuther, who said in March that he received $20,920 in salary last year, would take a $2,092 pay cut under the plan.

The salary cuts and staff layoffs were caused by layoffs in the auto industry which have reduced the union's dues income.

★ ★ ★

The UAW faces a difficult bargaining period with the Big Three.

The union, however, currently has assets estimated at 36 million dollars. Of the total, some 24 million is tied up in a strike fund and cannot be used for general fund purposes. The union also is reported to have some two million in mortgage obligations.

Postpone Firing of Vanguard With Bigger Satellite

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—An attempt to launch the Vanguard rocket with a basketball-sized satellite aboard was postponed early today after a countdown of several hours.

The Navy gave no reason for the postponement, which was decided upon at 12:59 a.m. There was no indication when the attempt might be resumed.

Several times the countdown or 'preliminary check' progressed to within three to seven minutes of zero, then was set back.

It is three times bigger and almost seven times heavier than its predecessor, Vanguard I, launched March 17.

Blustery, Cold Winter Is Back

Brings Gales, Chills, Fells Trees and Limbs; Frost Possible Tonight

Gales reaching as high as 62 miles per hour roared through the Pontiac and Detroit areas yesterday, bringing with them promises that winter still is not dead.

The mercury dropped 10 degrees from a high of 69 degrees at 10:15 yesterday morning to 59 at 10:45 a.m. It reached a low of 37 shortly before midnight.

And the Weather Bureau said the thermometer will continue to hover around winter readings. Forecast also was a chance of scattered frost tonight with a low between 33 and 35 predicted.

Yesterday's high winds, which made walking hazardous in spots, toppled some trees, large limbs, signs and trash containers. Little damage was reported.

The prediction is for continued cool and cloudy weather for tonight. Not so cool with a high between 53 and 57 is predicted for Saturday.

The lowest reading recorded in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 36 degrees. The mercury had climbed to 54 degrees at 2 p.m.

Home Improvements in Order

43 Firms Participating in Jaycee Home Show

More than $200,000 worth of items are being displayed by 43 firms and organizations at the Miracle Mile shopping center.

The show opened yesterday and will run through Sunday. Doors will be open from 4-10 p.m. today, 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday and noon to 10 p.m. Sunday.

This year, Jaycees have arranged to stage the displays in one of the shopping center's brand new stores. It is handily located in the central portion of the center, between J. C. Penny Co. and S. S. Kresge store.

Representatives from each of the participating companies are on hand to answer questions and demonstrate products, said Theodore Jarvis, co-chairman of the event.

In the jam - packed display area you'll find just about everything from doorknobs to complete kitchens, he said. High - fidelity installations are a feature this year.

As usual, the show offers a wide variety of basic items such as storm windows, sashing, siding and other building materials.

Upper St. Clair River Free of Ice; Smelt Run

PORT HURON (AP) — The season's first big smelt run developed in the St. Clair River last night.

For the first time since winter, the river's intake from Lake Huron was fairly clear of ice today.

James Randolph of Port Huron, one of those smelt-dipping last night, reported he got 2½ bushels of the silvery little fish in three to four hours.

Vote on Union Control Plans Late Today

Attempts by Knowland to Broaden Legislation Face Tough Opposition

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate headed for a major election year showdown on labor reform legislation today amid bitter wrangling between Democrats and Republicans.

The issue was whether Democrats could block attempts by the White House and Senate GOP Leader William F. Knowland to broaden a simple Welfare and Pension Fund Reporting Bill to cover the whole field of labor-management relations.

Sen. John Kennedy (D-Mass), co-author of the bill, said they could. A roll call vote later today on the first of Knowland's 13 amendments to guarantee Democratic processes in unions was expected to give the answer.

Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson, in an angry exchange with Knowland and Sen. Gordon Allott (R-Colo), insinuated late last night that Republicans were attempting to filibuster against rival Eisenhower administration proposals to safeguard union funds and voting rights.

Knowland hotly denied the accusation. He earlier told newsmen he did not interpret Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell's advancement of the administration proposals for amendment to the Pension and Welfare Fund Bill as a slap at his own moves to expand the measure.

Kennedy, however, irately accused both Knowland and Mitchell of attempting to ram vast labor reforms — affecting 85 million Americans — through the Senate without public hearings and without testimony from representatives of unions or management.

Noting that only Mitchell and AFL-CIO President George Meany had testified before his labor subcommittee on union-management clean-up proposals, Kennedy condemned the "extraordinary action of Secretary of Labor Mitchell by denying the privilege to others that he sought for himself."

Knowland and Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz), accused Democrats at the same time of bowing to pressure by organized labor to prevent passage of GOP proposals. He suggested it was no "coincidence" that the only bill approved by the Senate Labor Committee is the one backed by organized labor.

Goldwater told newsmen: "I am amazed that an American political party can oppose cleaning up this mess just because the chief leadership of the mess supplies money for the Democratic Party."

Knowland said AFL-CIO lobbyists had been extremely active in the Senate corridors in the past few days.

★ ★ ★

Despite Mitchell's entry into the heated picture, a Democratic spokesman said the administration had "not changed a single vote." The source stated that liberal Republicans who normally support the administration still were adamant in their opposition to broadening the bill.

Death Car Had Stolen Goods

Suspect Pontiac Man Who Died in Accident Burglarized Firms

A Pontiac man found dead in his wrecked car early Thursday is suspected to have been responsible for several area burglaries, according to detectives at the Oakland County Sheriff's Department.

Lloyd V. Irwin, 39, of 695 Sterling Ave., was found with about $9,567 worth of stolen checks, a cash register, and $37 cash in his possession.

Deputies said he had evidently missed a curve on Bald Mountain Rd. a half-mile south of Silver Bell Rd., in Orion Township, and struck a tree. His neck was broken.

The checks had been reported stolen from the Sno-Bol Co., 23 Chamberlain St., Wednesday night. They weren't negotiable, having been stamped for deposit by the company, said detectives. Approximately $25 cash was also taken from the firm.

The cash register had been stolen the same night from Van's Grocery store, 511 Heights Rd., Lake Orion.

A West Bloomfield Township man reported to detectives today that 20 blank checks had been stolen from his mail box recently and several were cashed by a Lloyd Irwin.

Radio Ham Frozen by South Pole Chat

CHICAGO (AP)— Albert Patrick, owner of an amateur radio station, said he got a chill last night after he contacted by Morse code on 20 meters a station operated by a Soviet International Geophysical Year project in Antarctica, 200 miles from the South Pole.

★ ★ ★

After greetings, in English, Patrick said the chat turned to the weather. "How's the weather?" asked the Russian. "Pretty nice," Patrick replied. "How's it down there?" "Nice and cold," came the reply, "117 below zero this morning."

Only Adults Favor School in Summer, Interviews Reveal

By DICK SAUNDERS

With the current problem of providing enough school facilities to serve a growing student population has come a variety of solutions.

One suggestion has been to make school a year around proposition, spreading the educational process over a longer period. Although students might still have two semesters a year, their semester vacation might come in either the fall, spring, or summer.

Six area residents (three of them students) were asked the question: "What is your opinion of schools working on a three-semester per-year basis, making the summer months as a regular school term for some students?"

Edgar Gillies, of 431 Scott Lake Rd., Waterford Township said, "I think three semesters would be a good idea.

GILLIES

"Such a program would certainly utilize school facilities to a greater extent than they are being used now.

"However, I don't think children should be expected to attend three semesters a year, but the summer is going to waste under our present system."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Helen Crawford, of 84 Spokane St., gave a mother's opinion. "The program would be a fine idea. Summer vacations are too long anyway."

MRS. CRAWFORD

"I think children enjoy their first month or so of vacation, but then it begins to get boring. If there were three semesters a year it would help out considerably, but I still think the kids should get one of the three off."

Emil Sutt, of 9624 Dolores Dr., Clarkston, said: "There is a shortage of space, and such a year-round plan would be much better than the half-day setup.

SUTT

"It would only work, though, if the board of education could hire efficient teaching staffs. There would have to be salary enough to equal the income offered teachers by other summer jobs.

"More teachers would be needed too, since teachers as well as students must be expected to have a vacation. Many teachers, of course, might welcome the opportunity to work all year, but students need one vacation to keep their minds fresh and re-energized."

★ ★ ★

Jerry Lancaster, 17, of 1325 Mt. Clemens St., and a senior at Pontiac Central High, gave us a horrified "No!"

MISS LANCASTER

"Three semesters a year would be too much, and even with two I'd want the summer for vacation. After all, we can't get out in the sun and go swimming in the fall or winter.

"There just aren't enough things to do the rest of the year and some of us would have to take our vacations then. It's also so hot in classrooms during the sum-

Jobless Benefits Action Stalled

Attacks Bill as Threat to Unemployment Pay Program in U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Opposition by half the powerful House Rules Committee has stalled plans for House action early next week on a Democratic-sponsored plan for special unemployment benefits.

Committee Chairman Smith (D-Va), Rep. Colmer (D-Miss) and the four Republican members of the 12-man group yesterday attacked the measure as a dole which they contended might threaten the present federal-state jobless insurance program.

But Rep. Madden (D-Ind) told them: "Don't fly into holy horror now because the government must provide food to people who need food."

House leaders had hoped to get Rules Committee clearance for the Democratic bill so it could be taken up in the House next Monday or Tuesday.

But Smith held only a brief meeting and then called a recess until next Monday.

Since the Rules Committee decides what legislation will be considered by the House, Smith's action makes uncertain when the House may get to consider the bill which its sponsors say is necessary to provide relief for the nation's jobless.

★ ★ ★

The Democratic bill, which would cost an estimated 1½ billion dollars, would go far beyond a 600-million-dollar emergency proposal made by President Eisenhower.

Ideal Conditions Are Forecast

Trout Season Opens Saturday

By H. GUY MOATS
Outdoor Editor, Pontiac Press

KALKASKA — An ideal opening day — long a rarity for trout fishermen — may welcome the 235,000 anglers who take to Michigan's lakes and streams tomorrow.

After severe temperature drops and heavy rains during the past week, the State Conservation Department looks for peak conditions and good catches.

Trout centers in the Pontiac area lakes are expected to be about equal to that of last year. Because of warm temperatures during the past few weeks conditions for fish planting were ideal. Some 350,000 legal sized trout have been planted throughout the state.

Another 1,500,000 will be released before the season ends Sept. 14.

Tomorrow all fish will be legal except black bass. They are protected until June 21.

Waters in Southeastern Michigan are in good condition for fishing, but Lake St. Clair and the Detroit River may be dangerous because of floating ice.

Streams in the northern part of the Lower Peninsula have been running slightly low but are expected to be normal by Saturday.

★ ★ ★

Upper Peninsula streams are approaching normal levels as steady run-off of snow has helped the situation there.

Great portion of the army of trouters is moving our way upstate, especially to such popular streams as the AuSable River and its tributaries.

Clear and cold conditions are reported at other popular streams such as the Sturgeon, Manistee, Boardman and Betsy.

Resident trout anglers must have a special ($2) trout stamp in addition to the regular ($2) fishing license.

Turn For Better to Be Apparent in Final Months of '58

Executives Spotting Signs of Slump's End

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — A few first signs that the industrial slump may be flattening out are sighted today amid the welter of unpleasant statistics on the recent past.

They are too scattered to foretell a turning in the trend but businessmen are watching them closely. More company executives predict a turn for the better will be apparent in the final months of this year and the upswing in industrial activity will be marked in the first half of 1959.

In the less industrialized areas the slump may stay very mild indeed.

Here are some of the first signs of a change, as cautiously reported by business executives:

New orders for machine tools have risen in each of the last three months.

Although these are far behind the volume a year ago, the National Machine Tool Builders Assn. notes that in past recessions rising machine tool sales have led the way to recovery in the capital goods industry.

★ ★ ★

A gain in new orders of late is also reported by Ralph J. Cordiner, chairman of General Electric, who thinks this may herald an upturn in durable goods demand.

A similar rise in sales in recent days is noted by Crawford H. Greenewalt, president of Du Pont, who cautiously offers it as a sign that the chemical industry may be ready for a rebound.

Demand for fir lumber has increased and prices have rebounded sharply. This may be tied in with a report that the change in terms for Veterans Administration guaranteed mortgages, particularly the new no down payment rule, have revived house sales in some areas.

J. I. Case reports its tractor sales are now running 25 per cent ahead of last year.

In this connection, the Agriculture Department notes that farm income now is running at an annual rate of 13 billion dollars, compared with 11½ billion in 1957. This means that a sizable part of the population should have more money to spend this year.

★ ★ ★

The Department of Commerce adds that consumer spending continues high for all items except durable goods. The maker of one line of soft goods, Colgate-Palmolive, says sales this year easily should top last. And tobacco and drug firms report rising sales and profits.

★ ★ ★

In the prediction department are some other industries currently in trouble.

Augustus C. Long, chairman of the Texas Co., believes that the excess in oil inventories has nearly been corrected, offering the chance of better days in the latter part of the year.

A revival of demand for steel is expected before fall by Marcus J. Aurelius, vice president of U.S. Steel, and Charles M. White, chairman of Republic Steel.

Various utility executives note that consumer demand for power stays high and even is increasing enough in some areas to offset any loss of sales to industry.

These reports in themselves don't spell a return of boom times.

Lottery Game Called Illegal

Ziem Warns Residents in Area of Prosecution for 'Skil' Playing

Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem today warned area residents they would face prosecution if they participate in a new Bingo-like game called "skil."

He said the game, devised by a Pontiac firm called Skil Enterprises Limited, "falls within the prohibition of the Michigan State Statutes governing lotteries, and is therefore illegal."

The game involves the use of lettered and numbered cards like Bingo and requires an admission charge to play. It differs from Bingo, Ziem related, in that squares numbered from one to 10 are used to cover the called letter-number combinations.

All three elements of a lottery —prize, consideration and chance —exist in this game, Ziem said.

"The mere fact that the money taken in might go to charity has no bearing on its legality," he emphasized.

"If the people desire a change in the laws," he went on, "it must be done through their elected representative or by popular referendum." Until that time law enforcement agencies, such as the prosecutor's office, will continue to enforce present gambling laws.

Anyone playing this new game of "skil" faces a high misdemeanor charge of participating in a lottery.

Storms Belt Southern States; Cool for Rest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wet weather was the outlook in sections of the South and Northwest today but dry and fairly cool weather prevailed in most other parts of the country.

Stormiest weather during the night hit areas from northern Louisiana and southern Arkansas northeastward into southern Kentucky. Strong winds, with rain and hail, pounded sections of Mississippi and Tennessee. A funnel cloud was reported in west central Mississippi. Heavy thundershowers moved into Alabama.

More showers and thunderstorms were indicated during the day in the southern Plains and lower Mississippi Valley eastward into parts of the south Atlantic states.

The Weather Bureau reported hail stones the size of golf balls pelted the Charleston, W.Va., area while hail also fell in western Tennessee. A funnel cloud was reported near Huntington, W.Va.

By E. H. SIMS

Did the recent flight of an Air Force tanker-jet from Japan to the Azores take place above the weather? What use was made of the Jetstream?

The recent record hop from Tokyo to the Azores was not flown at an altitude that is above the weather. One must fly at 40,000 feet or more to fly above the weather at all times in all circumstances.

The KC-195 which made the long flight (in much less than a day) took advantage of a jetstream with good result until the stream slacked off (or turned northeastward) in the vicinity of the U. S. East coast.

These jetstreams, it is now believed, do affect our weather. Some believe they can cause tornadoes. They do, also, provide a boost for aircraft that find them, going their way.

Eye Agreement on Military Plan

Both Sides Suggesting Compromise Possible Between Ike, Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—Signs of possible compromise appeared today as Secretary of Defense McElroy hoped to finish his testimony on the administration's controversial military reorganization plan.

Cautious suggestions appeared on both sides that a compromise might be possible between the administration and congressional critics.

McElroy stressed that he was not agreeing in advance to any concessions. But he said that "so long as we jointly agree on the objectives to be achieved" it should be possible to discuss changing parts of the proposed bill.

On the other hand, Rep. Hebert (D-La) said it seemed to him that McElroy has "conceded some very important things already." Hebert has been sharply critical of the reorganization plan.

★ ★ ★

McElroy has testified the administration has no intention of merging the services, that it considered and discarded the idea of a single chief of staff, and that it knows it could not make any great change in the status of any one armed service over the opposition of Congress, which still would hold the purse strings.

★ ★ ★

He told questioners he hopes the legislative staff of the Defense Department and the committee's counsel can sit down together soon and start trying to find language that would allay some of the concern expressed by congressional critics.

Orders Ground Little Blue Man From Bad Axe

BAD AXE (AP)—The little blue man from outer space and his two satellites have been grounded.

Huron County Prosecutor James M. Umphrey released Jerry Sprague, 22, Donald Weiss, 23, and Leroy Schultz, 23, all of Bad Axe, yesterday on condition they stop playing spacemen.

Umphrey said Sprague admitted he was the man who has been bouncing out of roadside ditches in recent weeks and into the path of approaching autos on lonely rural roads.

Umphrey said numerous motorists reported a man dressed in long blue underwear, a blue cape, blue boots and a blue space helmet had a habit of bounding in front of their cars just after dark. They said that when they stopped to investigate the blue man was gone.

The prosecutor said Sprague told him he and the others decided to play space man as a prank with Sprague taking the leading role because "it was my underwear and I was the only one it would fit." His two friends drove Sprague to and from the spots where he dashed out into the road.

Umphrey turned the trio loose after they promised to behave in a more down-to-earth manner.

WASHINGTON (INS) — Informed officials said today President Eisenhower's policymakers have drafted a new formula for a world ban on nuclear weapons testing.

Secret Service, Police Step In

Stop Hysterical Woman Only Six Feet From Ike

WASHINGTON (INS) — An hysterical woman who screamed that an FBI agent "done terrible things" to her, was taken into custody by Washington police and Secret Service men yesterday when she tried to approach President Eisenhower.

She got within about six feet of the Chief Executive as he was entering his car after viewing an exhibit of paintings by Sir Winston Churchill at the Smithsonian Institution.

The red-haired woman — identified by the Secret Service as Mrs. Edith Finch, of Brookline, Mass., was shouting: "I have to get to him. I have to get to him."

Eisenhower, taken somewhat aback, stared as agents shoved the woman back. Mrs. Eisenhower, who had accompanied the President to the exhibit, already was in the automobile.

With the President watching, the woman struggled to break through to him and screamed that an FBI agent had "done terrible things to me."

The President shook his head, said "I'm sorry" and got into his automobile to return to the White House.

The woman still was screaming through a police car window as she was whisked away by police and Secret Service agents. She was taken to the Secret Service field office for questioning and then to the District of Columbia Hospital for an examination.

Secret Service Chief U. E. Baughman told newsmen that she had identified herself as Edith Finch and said she was married and 27 years old.

Baughman said: "She claims that between her husband and the FBI, they are doing her out of a lot of money."

Battle to Control Huge Oil Blaze

NEWPORT NEWS, Va. (AP)—A waterfront oil terminal fire burned furiously today as firefighters battled to prevent its spread.

Thirty-six hours after outbreak of the multimillion-dollar blaze in the Esso Standard Oil Co.'s Deepwater Terminal, fire officials said the flames were "confined but not controlled." An explosion in the steam generating room touched off the fire Wednesday night.

Light northeast winds blew today, carrying the intense heat, smoke, and flames toward the water's edge. A wind shift to the south could endanger an 82,000-barrel bunker fuel tank thus far untouched by the fire.

Still burning are two 20,000-barrel gasoline tanks and one 41,000-barrel railroad fuel oil tank.

Ten tanks, including the three, have been badly damaged or burned down. Two other tanks are standing but buckled at the top and are being cooled.

Two tanks have been scorched but show no other damage. Two tanks show no damage whatever. Five smaller tanks have suffered slight damage or no damage.

Estimates of damage ran from under three million to more than four million dollars. The cost of replacing the destroyed tanks was figured at about 1½ million dollars.

5 Tots Die in Fire, Mom Badly Burned

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Five small children burned to death, and their mother was critically burned in a fire which raced through a small frame house today in north Webster Groves.

The mother, Mrs. Oralee Washington, 29, was taken to St. Louis County Hospital. The dead, all Negroes, were Paul, 8; Ann, 7; Faye, 5; Freddy, 4; and Jane, 9 months.

Cause of the fire was undetermined. The father of the victims is a construction worker and reportedly was away at the time of the fire, which apparently started while the family was asleep.

State AF Man Dies as Bomber Crashes

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — A B47 Stratojet bomber assigned to the Lincoln Air Force Base crashed shortly after takeoff from Goose Air Force Base, Labrador, last night, killing two of three crewmen, Lincoln base officials reported today.

The aircraft was on a training mission and was headed for Lincoln when it crashed on ice-covered Goose Bay, about three miles from the Labrador base.

Charges Union Retaliation Try

Scott Says Official Attempting to Railroad Him Out of Group

A witness for the Senate Rackets Committee last night charged an official of a Wayne County AFL-CIO local with trying "to railroad" him out of the union in retaliation for his testimony against the Teamsters Union and president, James R. Hoffa.

Robert P. Scott, 51, of 31 Bloomfield Terrace, a former Pontiac barber and now a member of the State Board of Examiners of Barbers, made the charge at a Detroit hearing at which he was ordered to show cause why he should not be suspended from Barbers Union Local 552 (AFL-CIO).

He filed a formal complaint with the local, charging that Elmer Albrecht, its secretary - treasurer, had violated the union's constitution by bringing "false and unwarranted" charges against him.

Albrecht had charged Scott with actions "detrimental to the best interests of the union" and membership in a dual organization. A union committee that aired these charges last night must make up its mind within 30 days whether to suspend Scott.

Scott said that if suspended, he would appeal to the local's general membership and to the international. He said another committee should be appointed to hear his counter-charges.

Branding the union's allegations as "Teamster - inspired." Scott said the latter charge referred to his membership in the State Barbers Assn., Inc., a group partially made up of employers and organized by Scott in 1932.

Last night Scott produced evidence to show he had withdrawn from the association in 1947. He said it was a "ridiculous" charge anyway, since he belonged to both organizations for many years with no complaints.

He has belonged to the barbers union from 1927 to 1929 and from 1944 to date, Scott pointed out.

Before the McClellan Committee in Washington last September, Scott testified the 1948 election was "rigged" by Hoffa to assure election of his supporters.

He further charged that the local's funds were misspent. He testified from $11,000 to $14,000 had been spent on Hoffa's Lake Orion cottage and another $5,000 to $7,000 had been used by Hoffa's brother, William, for personal affairs.

Cheryl Released in Grandma's Care

Lana's mother getting custody, Crane replied: "I'm happiest most of all that Cheryl was released from Juvenile Hall. And I've always said I would be happy to see her in her grandmother's care."

Crane has made no secret of the fact that he would like full custody of his daughter.

Asked if he had any future plans concerning Cheryl's custody, Crane answered: "My only plans are to coperate with the juvenile authorities."

Lana, her eyes filled with tears of happiness, told reporters: "The decision to put her with my mother was one that I was hoping—and praying—for."

Jerry Giesler, Lana's attorney, said both she and Crane would have reasonable visitation rights with the youngster.

Cheryl, said by her father to be happier than she has been in weeks, spent the night at her grandmother's apartment in Beverly Hills. Later the two will move into a house which Lana and Crane will provide.

the term dole in criticizing some aspects of the Democratic plan, which would be financed by the federal government and would cover many workers not now eligible for jobless payments.

Eisenhower's proposal for an emergency extension of such payments would apply only to workers now covered by the federal-state program. Any federal funds used in that temporary program would have to be repaid by the states.

This unemployment compensation proposal was mentioned by Vice President Nixon last night.

Nixon spoke in New York a few hours after Eisenhower signed a bill aimed at giving the economy a boost by speeding up supply purchases by federal agencies.

Under this bill, sought by the administration as an anti-recession measure, government agencies may begin now to buy certain materials they normally would not purchase until the next fiscal year, starting July 1.

Michigan Paratroopers Released From Hospital

FT. CAMPBELL, Ky. (AP)—The Public Information Office reported last night that four Michigan soldiers, injured in a parachute jump which killed five paratroopers Wednesday, have been released from the hospital.

The Michigan men are Pfc. William Diebold, Swartz Creek; Pfc. Kurt D. Gordon, Royal Oak; Pfc. Kenneth Hawkyard, Madison Heights, and Pfc. Ronald Terry, Detroit.

Eleven Michigan soldiers were among the 137 paratroopers injured in the mass air drop.

The Day in Birmingham

High School Students Set Bosses Dinner Tuesday

BIRMINGHAM — "The Boss is coming to dinner."

That's the word in Birmingham today, but in this case he is the boss of a student at Birmingham High School, or rather a great number of them.

Members of the high school Business Club will stage their annual Bosses Dinner at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday evening in the Maple room of the school.

The semi-formal affair is the highlight of the year for the enterprising group formed to provide students with an opportunity to develop personality, knowledge and skills in his chosen vocation.

★ ★ ★

Each club member works part-time in a local store or industry office, to gain first-hand knowledge of the business world in addition to his training in the classroom.

★ ★ ★

But it's not all work and no play. Combining business and pleasure, the club sponsors three social functions a year. Besides the Bosses Dinner, the juniors entertain the seniors at a picnic and swimming party, and there is an opera outing to Detroit.

Mrs. Ann Birrell, deputy clerk of Bloomfield Township, will be honored tonight at a dinner at the Forest Lake Country Club for her more than 25 years service to the township.

Mrs. Birrell began her career with the township in 1930, and at the death of Deputy Clerk James Bailey eight years later, was appointed to succeed him.

For the past several years she has had charge of all election details and can recount many facts concerning the growth of the township.

Through the years, Mrs. Birrell has at various times been urged to seek elective office. She has expressed the desire, however, to remain free of politics and continue in her present post.

Other township officials also will be recognized at the dinner. They are Supervisor Arno Hulet, an official for 25 years; Floyd Blakeslee, township attorney for 33 years; Fire Chief Ralph Hemmerly, 16 years; and fireman Lester Allen for his 15 years of service.

Only Adults Favor School in Summer

mer that kids can't concentrate or do their best work."

★ ★ ★

When we suggested the three semester program to a fourth grader at St. Fredericks School, he looked at us as though we were born enemies, or spys.

BOVA

"I wouldn't like it at all," said Donald Bova, 9, of 80 Riviera St. "I like school alright, but I think there's enough of it nine months a year. We gotta have our vacation in the summer 'cause we can go swimming and play ball."

★ ★ ★

MISS HOLLINS

"Oh, I don't think I'd like that, but it would mean less crowded conditions and I guess it would help.

"The big problem is that it's too hot in the summer to do good work, and besides your mind wanders too easily on nice days. There's just too many things to do in the summer that you can't do in cold weather."

To Rival Cape Canaveral

LOS ANGELES (INS) — A top officer of the Navy air missile test center on the California coast said today the facility will rival the magnitude of Cape Canaveral, Fla., when it is completed in 1963.

Spitzbergen has been governed by the rulers of Norway since about 1925.

Fisherman Plucked Off Erie Mud Flat

MONROE (AP) — One Detroit fisherman was plucked from a Lake Erie mud flat by a Navy helicopter yesterday but his companion managed to crawl through the mire to safety.

Esther Harden, 45, and Henry Booker, 57, were fishing off the mouth of the Huron River when the wind shifted and blew the water around them into the lake and left the boat marooned on the flat. The boat overturned, throwing both men out.

Booker managed to crawl through the mud to safety but Harden became mired up to his knees. A passerby called police who, in turn called the Grosse Ile Naval Air Station which sent a helicopter that dropped a sling and lifted Harden to safety.

Raps Large State Dairies for Unfair Trade Practices

WASHINGTON (AP) — The operator of a small Michigan Dairy firm charges some large operators with using unfair trade practices to drive the little man out of the industry.

Richard H. Hoben, managing partner of Purity Ice Cream Co., of Adrian, told the House small business subcommittee yesterday that Congress should do something.

Hoben said one large chain makes its ice cream in Detroit and sells it for 99 cents a gallon in Toledo, Ohio, while charging 89-cents a half gallon at Monroe, Mich., only 20 miles away. He said a retail price of 99 cent a gallon is well below the cost of manufacture and delivery.

Scientists Will Teach as Instructors Gather

MIDLAND (AP) — While about 100 science teachers from nearby counties gather at Dow Chemical Co. today to hear the latest developments in research, an equal number of Dow scientists will teach their classes.

The exchange program is part of Dow's "Frontier Day" program to give "the impact of science teaching in some new developments in the field." Dr. W. H. Schuette, general manager of Dow's Midland Division, will keynote the program.

39 Pct. in Rural Schools

WASHINGTON — Some 11,898,000 pupils are enrolled in rural schools, which have about 47 per cent of the nation's teachers. The rural-school pupils make up about 39½ per cent of the nation's total pupil registration.

Most bobcats weigh 15 to 25 pounds although some have grown to 40 pounds in the Rockey Mountain regions.

New Space Venture Sought Every Month

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States may engage in a new space venture every month or two next year.

Dr. Herbert M. York, chief scientist of the Defense Department's Advanced Research Projects Agency, outlined these and other plans to the House Space Committee.

York said his Pentagon unit is studying about 60 space research proposals to determine which should be approved. He noted three shots at the mon and a couple more Army satellite launchings would go on after the end of the International Geophysical Year Dec. 31.

Auction Carnegie Ranch in Less Than 2 Hours

KANSAS CITY (AP)—It took less than two hours yesterday to auction off the 1,240-acre Dale Carnegie ranch, 756 Brangus cattle and a special tract for a total of $319,000.

The ranch of the Missouri-born author and lecturer who died in 1955 is near Harrisonville, Mo. More than 300 potential buyers attended the auction.

The cattle — part Brahma and Angus — sold for $118,000 to Kirk Foulke, Lancaster, Pa. The farm, in six parcels, went for $154,000. A tract near Belton, Mo., suitable for residential construction, was sold for $47,000.

Hal Boyle Groans:

1st Shots Fired in Annual Clean Desk War

NEW YORK (AP)—Along about this time of year a number of mysterious signs start appearing on my desk.

They say such things as:

"Order is a lovely thing."

"Clean up or move out."

And I sigh. For I realize the long office war between the orderly and the disorderly has entered into its spring phase. The forces of cleanliness anr righteousness have launched their annual "let's spruce up the place and look neat" campaign.

One must, for some reason or another, cooperate—or else run the risk of having a battle star ripped from one's good conduct ribbon.

So, dutifully, I get a shovel and spade into the lovely mountain of rubble on my desk and load it into big cardboard boxes. When my desk is spotlessly bare, I get a crisp "Well done" from one of the top sergeants in the office reform wave brigade. But it isn't a very satisfying reward. I feel miserable until the passage of time builds a new pile of debris on my desk.

What puzzles me is why we indoor peasants who love a cluttered desk meekly bow to the iron will of these paper clip Hitlers who sternly decree, "A desk should be as clean as your conscience at all times."

Personally, I have always held that it's the man with a cluttered desk who has the clearest conscience, because the mess on his desk proves he has nothing to hide. It's the guy who keeps his desk bare as a billiard table who's the prey of inner guilt. Obviously he must be hiding some terrible secret he doesn't want the rest of the office world to know.

When I see a man perennially massaging the top of his desk with a damp cloth, I feel pity for him. To me he's a male Lady Macbeth, symbolically trying to erase some horrible blot from his dark past.

But in a free world a man should have the right to keep his desk in any condition he wants to, subject only to the public safety and the local fire laws. The annoying thing is that these clean desk fiends insist that your desk be as nude and anonymous and lacking in personality as theirs. That way lies tyranny, the death of identity, and the spreading blight of ignoble conformity.

To me the top of a desk isn't merely a work site. It is a tower of magic, a storing place for wonderful memories, a warehouse of enchantment and the souvenirs of living. All that piles thereon isn't debris, but duty layers of excitement and wonder.

It makes life more interesting to know that one can stick his paw at random into this mass and pluck forth such trophies as a bejeweled lady's pipe, an abandoned shaving mug, or a Christmas card from the White House signed "Ulysses S. Grant."

I'd like to let my desk pile grow and grow until it was so historically interesting the Museum of Natural History would dispatch an archaeological expedition to excavate it and find out how America used to live.

But enough of this day-dreaming. It's time to get a shovel and step ladder and go to work. The order is out: "All desks clean by nightfall."

New Weigh-In Time for Figure Fashioners

Weighing-in time for members of the Waterford Township Fashion Your Figure club, has been moved up to 5:45 Wednesday from the regular schedule of 7 p.m.

The change was announced due to a tour scheduled for 7 p.m. Wednesday at Pontiac State Hospital in conjunction with the observance of Mental Health Week.

The award for losing the most weight last week was given to Mrs. Elta Dabio, and the symbolic Pigs for the most weight gained, were given to Mrs. Youl Baker, Mrs. Nazarre Dugaw, Mrs. Ann Wells, Mrs. Lillian Cummings and Mrs. Joe Murray.

DEPRESSION LEFTOVERS — Nearly 500 pieces of Indiana limestone were dug up recently after being buried for almost 30 years. The stones, cut to construct a tower, gable and spire for the First Congregational Church, had to be buried in the church parking lot then because lack of funds forced the congregation to halt construction. Now they are being matched and catalogued so that construction of the three structures can begin by June.

Stones Buried in Parking Lot Since '29 Dug Up by Church

By SYLVIA de STEIGER

The 1929 depression buried the tower, spire and gable of a Pontiac church for almost 30 years.

Today, members of the First Congregational Church, located at East Huron and Mill streets, are preparing to spend $65,000 to unearth and construct these three structures.

This is the story, as told by the Rev. Malcolm K. Burton, pastor of the church.

Construction of the present Gothic church began in 1925. But, in the early stage of the depression, plans to complete the structure which included a sanctuary, huge basement and classrooms were halted.

Since then, at least half of the huge pieces of Indiana limestone, which were cut to construct the tower, gable and spire, have been buried in the unused section of the church parking lot.

Before 1948, some were stored in a wooden shed but after it collapsed, the stones were buried or else heaped on a pile in the lot.

The rest of the more than 1,000 stones, the more elaborately cut, have been stored on the floor of the unfinished sanctuary.

All of the stones have now been uncovered. Now stone masons are busily trying to catalog the stones and match them with the 1926 original blueprints.

Each stone was numbered to aid builders in putting the structures together but by now, many of the numbers are weatherworn.

Another difficulty will also arise, explains the Rev. Burton. The stones stored inside the building, those which were buried and the ones which were exposed to the weather are different colors. Then too, new stones will have to replace some of the ones which were badly chipped or marred.

The congregation voted this month to first complete the exterior portions of the building which includes the spire, tower and gable. This was done because the rest of the unfinished sections depend on the completion of the outside construction.

★ ★ ★

What's next? After this construction, which is expected to be started in June and completed by fall, the congregation intends to complete the interior of the sanctuary since services are still held in the 1910 sanctuary, according to Rev. Burton.

Nonshaggy Dog Story

DEVON, Eng. (INS) — Another illusion has been shattered by chief constable Robert Bacon who says bloodhounds aren't as good as many other dogs for tacking fugitives. He based his statement on a report from two escaped convicts who said after they were recaptured that the bloodhounds had "walked right over them."

Where Were You on Monday?

A new City Commission will take office in Pontiac Monday night, elect a mayor from their number, and embark upon a two-year stint of operating this complex and growing city.

"New" is not a wholly accurate term, as four of the seven Commissioners were returned to office by voters in their respective districts in last Monday's spring election. Three others are new to their jobs.

★ ★ ★

Under our City Charter as amended by the voters a number of years ago all City Commission terms expire at the same time, and each Commissioner is elected solely by the voters in his district. This makes it possible for an entirely new (and inexperienced) Commission to take office some dismal April. Fortunately this has not happened.

The original City Charter carried a protection against this by staggering terms of Commissioners; and a successful candidate was required to have a majority backing of a city-wide vote.

Whether or not voters in the seven districts have made wise choices for their representatives at City Hall will perhaps be better known after watching the Commission in action over the coming months.

Regrettable is the fact that only slightly under a fourth of the eligible voters cast ballots Monday. The total vote was slightly better than two years ago: 8,848 as against 8,600 in 1956. But 37,000 were eligible to vote.

Must we assume that the more than 28,000 who stayed away from the polls do not care whether school keeps or not at the City Hall?

★ ★ ★

Maybe the 28,000 non-voters will be good enough to withhold all criticism and gripes on city affairs for two years, while the rest of us give the new Commission the kind of scrutiny and support such public servants deserve.

Pontiac Trackmen Staying Out Front

Winning of the Mansfield (Ohio) Relays last weekend by Pontiac High School's track and field team is another entry in an outstanding record built up in the past few years. The team victory at Mansfield was taken in competition which drew some 1,700 top high school athletes. Winning titles has become almost routine for the Chiefs.

Our Chiefs' first state championship was acquired in 1955. Since then two more state titles have been added, and the powerful array of track and field talent is apparently headed for another—a fourth straight championship—for this season.

Pontiac's fabulous Hayes Jones, currently a red hot Olympic prospect rose to prominence in 1955, led the Chiefs to their first title. He reached his prep zenith in 1956 when Pontiac again captured the MHSAA crown.

Few others have accomplished this high peak of achievement.

HAYES graduated in 1956. He went on to even greater heights in 1957 as a college freshman. His loss hit the Chiefs hard, but with what had been labeled an "average" squad, PCH once more brought home a state title. The '57 win was a stunning surprise.

★ ★ ★

These last four years have been the brightest in the school's history for the track team.

★ ★ ★

They were victors in five straight MHSAA regionals (1953 through 1957).

Twice they became the only Michigan school to win the great Mansfield, Ohio, Relays, in 1956 and again last weekend.

They were Saginaw Valley champions in 1955-1956.

Three current state records are held by PCH athletes — JONES' 14.4 high hurdles mark (1956), ALONZO HARRIS' 220 mark of 21.7 (1953), and JONES' broad jump of 23 feet 8⅞ inches (1956).

★ ★ ★

Credit for development of these great schoolboy teams goes to a corps of hard-working, dedicated coaches, starting with former head coach RAY LOWRY, who followed HARVEY NORRIS, then became chief aide for his successor, WALLY SCHLOERKE. SCHLOERKE'S squad brought the first state title.

After the 1956 season, SCHLOERKE retired as coach, and DEAN WILSON, who came here four years ago after four years at Traverse City was moved to the top post. LOWRY has continued as assistant coach.

Fearless Ike

David Lawrence Says:

Union Dirt Crops Up in Congress

WASHINGTON — The story of the year is being unfolded right now in Congress.

It's the story of how labor — union money — contributed heavily in recent political campaigns — keeps a majority of members of Congress from enacting laws that would do away with rackets whereby the dues of the workingmen are stolen or misused.

LAWRENCE

It's the story also of how Congress, though knowing full well how boycotts of innocent parties are used to further the aims of labor unions, does nothing by way of legislation to correct the abuses.

★ ★ ★

It's the story of how goons and hired thugs intimidate American citizens who venture to assert their right to work and to cross picket lines.

Plenty of outcries are heard when "civil rights" are denied in other fields of Constitutional law, but no such support is given the simple proposition that the American citizen must be free to join or not join a union and, if he declines, that he must not for such reason alone be deprived of his job.

Today, in certain trades, a citizen cannot earn a livelihood unless he consents to become, against his will, a member of a labor union which can use his dues money to finance the election of candidates for public office with whose views the worker happens not to agree.

Today to cross a picket line in a big strike is to jeopardize one's life. Local police authorities are intimidated by the political power of labor unions and do not give adequate protection to the citizen.

Companies that are not parties to a strike are sometimes boycotted if they buy materials or goods from a company that is having a labor dispute.

Financial irregularities have been disclosed in about five major unions. Many of the other big unions have not been investigated as yet. Sen. McClellan of Arkansas, Democrat, has thrown the searchlight on the misuse of union funds. The newspapers have been printing articles about it for several months.

Now, however, the time has come for action. But it looks as if a majority in Congress is itself intimidated. Privately many members say they would like to go ahead, but the Democratic Party — which is more beholden to the labor unions than are the Republicans — doesn't want to put the legislation through this year because it fears that individual members might be hurt in the coming congressional elections.

The plan all along has been to bury the legislation in committee in the Senate. There was to be no voting on broad aspects of the labor-union problem.

But Sen. William Knowland of California, Republican leader, took the bit in his teeth this week and decided to try for roll-call votes which would make every member answer to all the people and not just to the labor-union lobbies.

At first it was reported that there wouldn't be a chance for action. Sen. Knowland, however, determined to attach his proposals to the pending legislation on labor-union welfare and pension funds. He knew that the Senate committee on labor wouldn't report out any broad legislation.

The Country Parson

"I really think it's less work to become the kind of fellow you want people to think you are than it is to try to deceive them."

Dr. William Brady Says:

B-Complex, Not Digitalis Is Genuine Heart Tonic

Foxglove was used in folk medicine as a remedy for dropsy centuries before Dr. William Withering learned about it from an old woman of Shropshire and reported his discovery to the medical profession—about the end of the 18th Century.

DR. BRADY

The physicians gave the herb a scientific name — digitalis — and early in the 19th Century began using it as a remedy for heart trouble as well as for kidney trouble.

Today digitalis is usually prescribed for heart trouble and only rarely for dropsy — particularly dropsy due to impairment of the circulation.

As I have said many times, having studied digitalis all my professional life, I have lost what faith I had in it and I don't believe any one has shown or can show that the drug serves a useful purpose in medicine. I can conceive of only one circumstance in which I'd take it—if I were under the care of a good doctor and the doctor said take it or else.

I hardly need say that most good doctors use digitalis regularly and consider it good medicine for this or that kind of heart trouble. I have argued the question with many good doctors. Some of them lose their temper, others break off the argument, remarking: "Brady, you're unbalanced."

GET REAL TONIC

A lot of poor souls who have been persuaded that they require digitalis regularly would be happier and healthier if they would switch to a real heart tonic, namely, an optimal daily ration of vitamin B-complex. If this interests you send me 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope for the booklet CVD, about heart and artery troubles. In the booklet are detailed instructions for the use of B-complex as heart tonic.

When I say heart tonic I mean just that—something that tones the heart and improves heart function. I don't believe any medicine can be called a heart tonic. The vitamin B-Complex I recommend is not medicine. It is an essential factor of good nutrition which everyone should get from his daily food but few of us do get from our ultra-refined modern diet.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

One piece particularly I'll never forget — Telling how you treated your own baby for croup. I followed the suggestion when your young son had an attack last January—sat in the open window with the baby well wrapped up, and it worked like magic. (J. O.)"

Answer — Thank you. Croup seems to be unknown today.

"Has any remedy been found that will restore pigment to white patches in the skin? (H. S. W.)

Answer—I know of none. The appearance may be improved by skilled tattooing. Some physicians have reported good results from painting the white patch with 10 per cent alcoholic solution of oil of bergamot twice daily and then exposing the skin to ultraviolet lamp or strong sunlight. In the booklet Save Your Skin (35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope) is recipe for a cosmetic paint to cover the patches.

'There's More to Learning Than Academic Education'

As a parent and educator, I'm interested in progress, both in the way my children are taught and the way they learn. I'm interested in the development in relation to their group, with their acceptance of classmates, work and creative activities, and I want to see how they evaluate their own work and the responsibility they show toward it. I'm interested in the range of interests they're developing.

★ ★ ★

Are you familiar with how your child is taught? Have you observed him in a classroom? It isn't fair to criticise unless we've studied the child's performance in that educational system. We owe our schools and teachers allegiance. Are we making education seem important by encouragement and activities at home?

★ ★ ★

I want my children to master basic fundamentals but I want schools to endow them with a sense of wonder over what's happened and is happening. As long as individuals are interested in living and learning, they'll continue to grow.

'Don't Put Blame on Labor Force'

We're a society of buyers and sellers. When workers can't sell their labor power, they're in trouble. Fortitude, ingenuity and willingness to work hard are a drug on the market when demand for labor is non-existent. However, World War I and Korea indicated those qualities average high in our populace. Mistakenly intimating the individual accept blame for things beyond his control is morale-sapping and contributes nothing constructive toward solution.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Discuss Facts About Pregnancy

Milly is like thousands of modern wives who are childless. She has developed almost a mania for motherhood. Beware lest such a desire be chiefly a selfish attempt to "prove" your own feminine normalcy than a basic wish for a baby. And remember that Hannah and Rachel and Sarah had the same trouble in Biblical times. Send for the booklet below.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case X-389: Milly D., aged 31, has been married for 8 years.

"Dr. Crane, I have been ideally happy," she began, "except for one thing. And that is our lack of children.

DR. CRANE

"My husband would like a family, too, but he says he is quite happy as we are. But I worry and fret about it till I am becoming neurotic.

"We have been checked by our family doctor and he says he finds no organic reason why I can't have a baby.

"So what else can I do? My womb is a little tipped and the doctor says that might have a bearing on the case, but he doubts it.

"However, he says go ahead and have an operation if that will give me any peace of mind. Dr. Crane, do you think that would help me?"

MOTHER MANIA

If you are such a wife, analyze yourself carefully. Do you wish to become pregnant because of great love for children?

Or is your basic motive the desire to prove your own fertility and thus remove what you consider to be a stigma?

If you simply desire to be a mother, then you can easily indulge that urge by teaching a Sunday School class of toddlers, or by helping in Camp Fire Girl work or Girl Scouts, etc.

And you can often adopt children, by the legal route, though that is not as easy as it seems.

A "suspension" operation for a tipped womb is often helpful but resort to surgery as your last step. Thy the simpler measures first.

PREGNANCY FACTS

Milly's periods for the past year had been 24, 27, 26, 28, 28, 29, 25, 26, 29, 28, 27 and 25 days. They thus ranged between 24 and 29 days, which is fairly typical of the average wife.

The usual time when a wife can conceive is the 15th day before her next period begins.

And the ovum is subject to fertilization by the male sperm cell for possibly not more than 24 to 48 hours. Some researchers think even less.

The male sperm may lose its potency within 6 to 12 hours, and 24 may be the outside limit for its power to fertilize an ovum (egg) cell.

So thousands of childless couples have simply missed the narrow time slot in the menstrual month, just by chance alone.

★ ★ ★

So I urged Milly and her husband to focus on the likely pregnancy period in her monthly cycle.

As added insurance, since sperm cells are paralyzed by acid, I suggested Milly use a baking soda douche before marital relations.

Two months later she was pregnant, despite her previous eight years of sterility, so her trouble was largely a matter of perfect timing.

Literally hundreds of you wives have written to me or told me in person when I have lectured in your cities, that you also have conceived after many years of childlessness, just by this information.

Obviously, it will not remedy organic defects, and husbands are as likely to be sterile as wives. Moreover, if the Fallopian tubes

★ ★ ★

But when couples have no significant medical reason for lack of children, the above system may remedy matters.

So send for my booklet, "Facts About Pregnancy," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit).

Sarah and Hannah and Rachel of Biblical times were also sterile for many years, possibly due to the same lack of proper timing.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Iran Shah's Ex-Wife Masters Face of Sphinx

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—Were there tears in the eyes of Princess Soraya?

Or were they just burning from the sunlit smog on the waterfront?

MOUTH QUIVERING

Was her mouth quivering sadly when the press pressed the question, "Do you still love the Shah?"

Or was she trying frantically to supress a smile?

Ask any reporter or camerman among the more than 200 who hauled out of bed at 6 a.m. to watch Soraya's arrival in New York, and you may get more than 200 answers.

QUESTION MARK

This young woman, the discarded and motherless ex-wife of the Shah of Iran, is the biggest female question mark in the news at the moment. Quite possibly, she is the biggest question mark in my checkered career of observing the usually eloquent faces and fortunes of womanhood . . .

If she is miserable, if she is happy, if she is resigned, if she is hopeful — Princess Soraya's immobile face is not telling. When they ask, "Well, how did she look?" I am forced to reply, "She had circles under her eyes."

She also wore white shoes. Any further questions?

★ ★ ★

Soraya smiles, but without warmth. She bows her head, but without real respair. She waves with weary disinterest. She answers questions with a flat-voiced tolerance and meaningless information.

"Do you still love the shah?"

"That's a very personal question."

Is she really beautiful? There are as many tastes in female beauty as there are in humor. Soraya has brilliant emerald eyes and shining dark hair and a white porcelain skin, for those who like contrast. But her eyes are set close together, and her mouth is full. Her figure was rather well hidden under a trapezoid suit.

Soraya begs to be left alone. Yet she has been to America before. Surely she knows that New York is no land of peace and reverie for the newsworthy. Soraya said she was coming here, after weeks of tears, to forget. A macabre idea, then, that she should check into the 21st floor suite at the Waldorf Towers, where she once resided with the man she's hoping to put out of her mind.

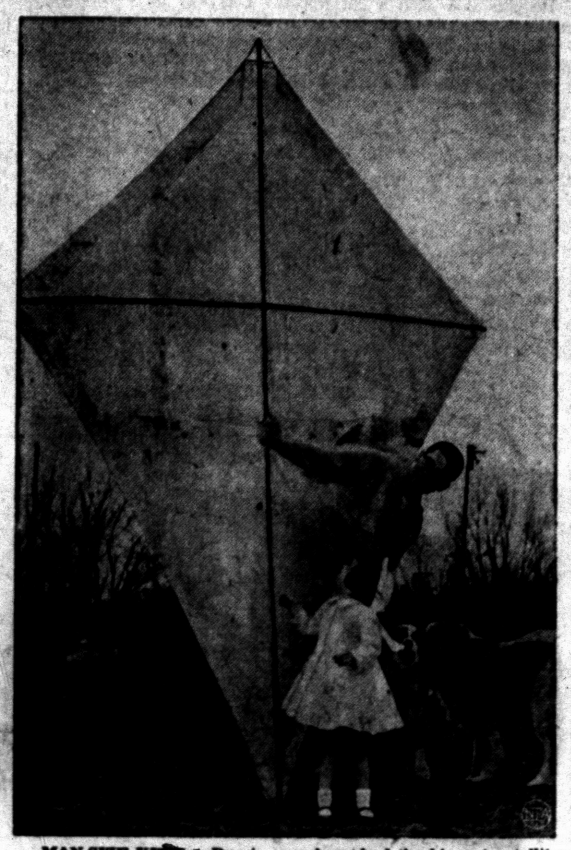

There are as many rumors afloat about Princess Soraya today as there were about Princess Margaret when she was in the throes of making her decision not to marry Capt. Peter Townsend. But all the walls of Clarence House could not protect Margaret's personal secrets any more effectively than the inscrutable face of Princess Soraya protects hers.

At least, when Princess Margaret finally made an appearance at St. Paul's Cathedral, I could tell at a glance how she was feeling. Her head was held regally, but her face was thin and sad.

With Soraya, seeing is not believing anything . . . In choosing to divorce, rather than share, her husband, she showed the East that she is a part of the western world.

But now she is showing the western world that in one respect, at least, she clings to the East. She has mastered the masquerade of the sphinx.

MAN-SIZE KITE—Russia may have had the biggest satellite up, but Ross Byers, who lives in Knox County, Ind., claims the biggest kite in his area. It's 10 feet high and 7 feet wide at the crossarm, and looks big enough to carry its little admirer, Susie Myers. Plastic covered, the giant kite requires a heavy nylon cord to hold it in flight and 150 feet of tail to balance it.

Chicago Building Named for Flint Industrialist

CHICAGO (AP) — The cornerstone for a $1,300,000 building named after a Flint, Mich., industrialist was laid Wednesday at the University of Chicago.

The cornerstone was for the Charles Stewart Mott Building which will house the university's industrial relations center. Mott pioneered in the concept of a school-centered community.

A grant of a million dollars for the building was made by the Mott Foundation.

Express Confidence for Second Half of '58

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Many small Michigan retailers are confident business conditions will improve in the second half of the year.

★ ★ ★

Three-fourths of the participants attending the University of Michigan's 12th Annual Merchandising Conference answered a questionnaire on the business outlook with a feeling of optimism. They replied that they expect their sales and profits later this year to equal or exceed the 1957 record from July through December.

The other quarter expects profits to dwindle.

★ ★ ★

CLAYTON L. DUNLOP

Word has been received of the death of Clayton L. Dunlop, 60, of Detroit, brother of Mrs. Meryl White of Pontiac. He died Wednesday in Grace Hospital, Detroit.

A sister and a brother living in Detroit also survive.

Service will be at 10 a.m. Saturday from the R. G. & G. R. Harris Funeral Home, Detroit. Burial will be in Oakland Hills Memorial Gardens Cemetery.

LLOYD V. IRWIN

Service for Lloyd V. Irwin, 39, of 695 Stirling St. will be at 1:30 p.m. Monday from the Voorhees-Siple Chapel with burial in the Veterans' Section of Perry Mt. Park Cemetery.

He was a self employed carpenter.

Surviving are his parents, Lynn and Lola Ogesby Irwin with whom he made his home; two sisters, Gertrude Irwin and Mrs. Charles Parris of Pontiac; and three brothers, Elmer of Drayton Plains, Delmar of Pontiac and Glendel R. Irwin of the U.S. Air Force stationed in South Dakota.

Mr. Irwin was dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital yesterday. Wednesday night his car apparently missed a curve on Bald Mountain road.

MRS. JAMES BORLAND

ALMONT — Service for Mrs. James (Elizabeth) Borland, 88, of 325 W. St. Clair St., will be held at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow at Muir Brothers Funeral Home, Almont. Burial will be in Scotch Settlement Cemetery.

Mrs. Borland, a lifelong resident of Almont Township, died Wednesday evening at Bishop Hospital after an illness of several months.

She was a member of the United Presbyterian Church and later the Almont Congregational Church.

Surviving are several nieces and nephews.

ROBERT W. HARPER

MARLETTE — Service for Robert W. Harper, 33, a resident of Marlette who died Wednesday at the Veteran's Hospital in Ann Arbor, will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at the Marsh Funeral Home. Burial will be in Marlette Cemetery under the auspices of the American Legion Post 162.

A veteran of World War II, he served in Gen. Patton's 3rd Army. Mr. Harper was a member of the IOOF Lodge 271 of Marlette.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Kendall Jacob of Taylor Center, Mrs. Garfield Smith of Mount Clemens, and a brother, Roy of Marlette.

MRS. ROY PRICE

OXFORD — Service for Mrs. Roy (Nora) Price, 75, of 111 Dennison St., who died yesterday at her home, will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday at Bossardet-Mabley Funeral Chapel, Oxford. Entombment will be in Oxford Cemetery Mausoleum.

A resident of Oxford for 51 years, Mrs. Price's late husband operated a drug store here.

She was a member of the Oxford Congregational Church, a life member and past chief of the Oxford Pythian Sisters, a member of the Past Matrons Club and the Oxford Literary Club.

Deaths Elsewhere

PARIS (AP) — Juan Claudio Guell y Churruca, 51, count of San Pedro de Ruisenada, a close friend of Don Juan de Bourbon, pretender to the Spanish throne, died yesterday of an apparent heart attack. He was one of Spain's wealthiest men.

★ ★ ★

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Dr. Craig Taylor, 48, well-known aeronautical research scientist, was killed yesterday in a fall from the roof of UCLA's four-story engineering building. Taylor, whose death was listed as suicide by police, had been a professor of engineering at UCLA since 1945. He was born in Edmonds, Wash.

★ ★ ★

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — John A. Brooks, credited with developing the first underground water sprinkler system, died Wednesday. Brooks, president of John Brooks, Inc., of Detroit, began manufacturing sprinklers in 1951.

Navy Sets Record in Rocket Speed

CHINA LAKE, Calif. (AP) — The tug of war for speed records between the Navy and Air Force has had another strong pull—this time from the sailors.

★ ★ ★

A two-stage unmanned rocket sled zipped down its monorail track this week and hit a top speed of 2,827.5 m.p.h., a spokesman at this naval ordinance test center announced.

This eclipsed the Air Force mark of 2,704 m.p.h. set last month at the Air Force Missile Development Center, Alamogordo, N.M.

Claims Reuther Placed Williams in Governorship

WASHINGTON (AP)—The probable November election opponent of Michigan's Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams today called Williams the personal governor of Walter Reuther.

Paul E. Bagwell, expected to win the Republican nomination for governor, accused the five-term governor of appealing to class hatred in his political pronouncements.

★ ★ ★

Both Williams and Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers Union, were denounced by Bagwell in an address prepared for the annual board meeting of the Effective Citizens Organization.

Bagwell, a 44-year-old professor on leave from Michigan State University, told a news conference yesterday the unemployment and economic troubles of Michigan constitute a "Williams depression."

His speech today blamed lack of general public interest for what he termed a power grab by the UAW in Michigan Democratic politics.

★ ★ ★

"In Michigan," Bagwell said, Walter Reuther has installed his own personal governor. His control of government extends from that governor on down through every office in the state with few exceptions."

Two 'Friends' Tussle on Courtroom Floor

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Joe H. Armknecht, 23, pleaded guilty to participating in a $113 market robbery and then testified that his pal Robert E. Howard also was involved.

Labor, Business Help Needed

Nixon Calls on Groups to Put New Spark Into Buying Power

NEW YORK (AP) — Vice President Nixon sees an end to the economic downturn under present moves, provided both business and labor help to create buying power.

But if further governmental aid is needed, Nixon said last night, he favors the right kind of tax cut to a government spending binge.

"We can state this one conclusion categorically," he said. "There will be no depression in the United States."

★ ★ ★

"This is true," he said, "both because of the basic strength of our economy and because it is backstopped by the determination of the national administration to use every proper governmental action to stop a prolonged recession and to help stimulate early resumption of a high rate of economy activity."

If further federal action proves necessary, he said, a tax cut programs would be the fastest, rather than major new spending the best and surest method to stimulate business.

★ ★ ★

"However," he added, "a tax cut will not do the job unless it is the right kind. It must be designed to put money in the hands of the investors and job creators, as well as consumers.

"It will not do the job if it is used simply to provide a popular political handout in an election year."

★ ★ ★

Businessmen can help, he said, by recognizing that "this is a buyers' market and act accordingly."

"New products, increased advertising, lower prices can have a dramatic effect on consumer psychology," he said.

2 of 17 Convicted for Loitering; Others Released

Two of 17 persons arrested on March 24 for loitering in an illegal liquor place were convicted yesterday in Municipal Court and the others freed.

★ ★ ★

Also, James A. Stewart, 2221 Hughes St.; John M. Muscovalley, 187 Luther St.; Robert Johnson, 276 W. South Blvd.; Tom Smith, 297 Rockwell St.; and Bennie B. Carter, 491 Nevada St.

Others were: Albert Mason, 237 Harrison St.; Rosetta Franklin, 196 Luther; and Granville Nesbitt, Detroit.

The judge found guilty Will C. Franklin, of 196 Luther, and Cleve Bell, of 607 S. Paddock St. He fined them $15 or three days in jail.

Two other persons arrested in the raid on 196 Luther failed to appear in court and will be tried May 1.

Charles T. Stewart, owner of the house, was acquited two weeks ago on a charge of operating the alleged liquor place.

Chinese Leaving Korea

TOKYO (AP) — North Korea announced today that 80,000 Chinese Communist troops have gone home in the first stage of the promised withdrawal of all Red volunteers. Intelligence agencies in South Korea estimated that 270,000 Chinese soldiers were left in the North.

Sen. Douglas Asks $220 Cut on Cars

WASHINGTON (AP) — A $220 cut in the cost of popular priced cars has been suggested by Sen. Douglas (D-Ill).

Douglas said yesterday such a cut could be made by combining a tax reduction with a slash in the manufacturer's price.

Douglas said such a cut would increase the demand for autos "and, hence, increase the volume of employment."

He added that "as a part of this arrangement, it seems to me the United Auto Workers Union might be willing to consider some of the new demands which they might make in the new contract which now is up for negotiation."

Douglas said his plan called for a three-quarter cut in the present auto excise tax — a drop of $120 a car — on condition the manufacturer also cut his price by $100, thus saving the buyer $220.

Payne Confused by Parallel to U.S. Sex Taboo

No Violent Movies for French Children

By LEE RELSER

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Actor John Payne thinks this is a crazy mixed up world.

"In France," he said, throwing up his hands, "kids can see sexy movies, but no violent westerns. In the United States, the only glimpse they get of Brigitte Bardot is from the posters outside the theater, but they can see shoot-em-ups by the dozen.

★ ★ ★

"Which is the worst," he added, "sex or violence?"

Payne, who recently returned from a picture-making stint in Europe, said there are many American-made films that are unrecognizable when shown in France or Scandinavia.

"They don't believe in violence over there," he added, "and they chop films to pieces in order to cut out all the brutality—gun fights, mob fights and killings."

The actor, who once in a while engages in a fracas himself in his NBC-TV series, "Restless Gun," tries to keep the knock-down-drag-outs at a minimum.

"I don't like gory scenes," he said. "I don't mind a guy being hit with a rock, but I hate to see the wound. I think there's been enough violence and brutality in movies to last a lifetime.

"People have a point," he added, "in not wanting their children to see such things. What they want for their kids is adventure, comedy and the wide open spaces and that's what I try to give them."

★ ★ ★

On the other hand, the tall, rangy actor feels American kids, like their educated foreign counterparts, should be allowed to see movies dealing with sex.

"Why shouldn't a teenager have a look at Brigitte Bardot," he asked. "What's wrong with her? She's a normal, natural girl with little violence attached.

"Kids have no trouble getting in to see her movies in France," he added, "but over here they slap an 'adults only' sign on her films and on all other sexy pictures.

★ ★ ★

"Over there," he went on, "they have a better idea; they hang an 'adults only' sign on pictures dealing with brutality. We should do the same thing here."

Truman Blames Money Policies

Says Financial Ideas Brought On Current Economy Slump

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman says Republican financial policies caused the economic recession. He predicts another bust similar to 1929 unless "somebody stops those fellows."

★ ★ ★

Truman spoke last night at the annual $50-a-plate fund-raising dinner sponsored by the New York County Democratic Committee.

"The Republicans are not to be trusted with the command of the administrative or legislative departments" of either national or state governments, he said.

Truman decried the tight money policies of the Eisenhower administration, and took big business to task for what he termed shortsightedness.

Referring to reports that the United States Steel Corp. was about to raise prices while laying off more men, Truman said: "Who in hell's going to buy if they haven't got jobs and they keep raising the prices?"

One of the worst things the Eisenhower administration did, Truman said, was to raise interest rates on the national debt. This, he contended, raised the interest charges for all businessmen borrowing money to keep their firms going.

Truman, speaking without notes, defined "the administration cocktail" as "business on the rocks." He told of seeing a sign at a Midwest farmers meeting: "In Ike we trusted, now we are busted."

★ ★ ★

Harriman charged the business slump was "a man-made, Republican-made recession, brought on by the ill-advised policies of the Eisenhower - Nixon administration."

Persistent Thief, Girl Can Play Golf Now

ALMA, Mich. (AP) — A persistent thief, who broke into a golf shop three shots at the moon and a golf equipment for himself and his girl friend.

The first time he broke into the Pine River Country Club pro shop, he just looked the situation over. Last week he came back and made off with four woods and covers.

This week, he took seven irons to match the woods, a golf bag and some golf balls. He also took seven women's irons.

Save Woman Injured in Plane Crash

JOHN DAY, Ore. (AP) — An injured woman was rescued late yesterday after lying helpless beside a wrecked plane since her husband set out pantless through the snow for aid Monday.

Doctors said Mrs. Bruce Davis of Fresno, Calif., survived because of her stamina and her husband's courage.

★ ★ ★

For a day and a half the 36-year-old orchestra leader floundered through deep snow — clad only in his undershorts, shoes and a light sport coat.

On Wednesday he stumbled into a deserted cabin. There he found a blanket, out of which he made a poncho, and a boy's cowboy hat. Then he set out again. He reached help early yesterday.

★ ★ ★

His wife, meanwhile, lay beneath a crude shelter rigged beside the wrecked plane. She was without food and lashed with pain from a hip fracture. The injury made it virtually impossible for her to move.

At a hospital here, where Davis and his wife were recuperating, doctors said the 35-year-old woman was in amazingly good condition.

"It was pretty horrible when Bruce had to leave, but I knew he had to go," Mrs. Davis said.

"I had nothing to eat except two lifesavers and a half stick of chewing gum. I ate pine needles to quiet my hunger. . . .

"I don't remember much. I laughed, I sang, I talked to myself, I cried and I prayed a little. But mostly I talked to myself to keep up my spirits."

★ ★ ★

The pretty, red-haired housewife said she was not able to move until yesterday.

"Then when I heard airplanes I knew I had to get out from the shelter, which was hidden by the timber. I rolled about 300 feet down the slope into the clearing.

"There I waved and screamed at the planes, although I knew they could never see me," she said.

★ ★ ★

But one of the planes that participated in the intense search of this northeastern Oregon area saw the wreckage and directed an Air Force helicopter to the scene.

The copter landed on a frozen lake a quarter of a mile away, and its four-man crew hiked to Mrs. Davis.

In 3 Communist Nations

Fear IRBM Bases Built

OSLO, Norway (AP) — Norwegian military officials believe the Soviet Union has built launching platforms for intermediate range ballistic missiles in East Germany, Poland and Czechoslovakia.

★ ★ ★

Foreign Minister Halvard M. Lange reported this to Parliament last night. Unless the military reports are proved untrue or the missile bases removed, he added, the West should not negotiate with the Communists on banning nuclear weapons from the three countries. The missiles presumably carry nuclear warheads.

The three Communist nations together with West Germany make up the central European zone which Polish Foreign Minister Adam Rapacki has proposed be closed to nuclear weapons. The Soviet Union supports the proposal.

The West has been skeptical that such a ban would be observed. Lange said there was little likelihood of Western acceptance of the ban.

★ ★ ★

Suwannee River Rises

FANNIN SPRINGS, Fla. (AP) — Near the mouth of the Suwannee River, the storied stream is at its highest level since the floods of 1948—nine feet above normal. The Suwannee has crept over its banks in some low spots and spread as much as a mile.

Bob Considine Says:

East Berlin Streets Eerily Devoid of Life

EAST BERLIN (INS) — You could blast a shotgun down some of the streets of this shabby showcase of communism and never touch a soul.

The census insists that this sector holds a million Germans, almost half as many as those who live in free Berlin. But even in mid-afternoon it's bleak, broken streets are eerily devoid of life, and what there is of it is lifeless.

FACADE CRUMBLING

Tiles are beginning to peel off the facings of the mile or two of buildings the Russians ordered built on both sides of Stalinalee, a crumbling facade whose occasional arcades reveal rubble in gaping open places spawned by a thousand air raids. A handful of window shoppers gaze slowly along.

There is a somewhat bigger group poking gingerly at the scanty goods in the big state department store on Alexander Platz, but nothing like the crowds on the streets and in the generally handsome, well-stocked stores in the Western sectors.

There is no difficulty in passing through Brandenburg Gate, which divides Berliners into ideological and standard-of-living spheres.

The two worlds are bound not only ethnically but by subway, an elevated and a streetcar line. There seldom is any search of persons, though the green uniformed East German police will sometimes poke through trucks and cars for contraband goods.

★ ★ ★

The Communists in East Berlin will accept the much more substantial West German marks only for propaganda items such as books, theater tickets and the like. Where there are exceptions they insist that the Eastern mark is twice as valuable as the Western mark.

Reducing it to our currency, that means you get four Western marks and change for your dollar but would receive only two and change on the other side of the gate.

Why do people continue to live in Communist Berlin?

Well, some of them prefer to, others have latched on to jobs that give them more prestige and authority than they had under Hitler or could obtain in the West, and some are appalled by the scope of escape—what with severing ties with families and friends.

MANY LEAVE

A tremendous number leave, not only East Berlin but East Germany to escape the harrowing experience undergone by the Hungarians winter before last. It is economic in many details. Some East Germans acquire enough West German marks to come to East Berlin.

They simply take a subway, bus or even a taxi to Tempelhof Airport, buy a ticket on Pan-American or Air France and fly out to one of the cities in free Germany which lies 110 miles from this strange oasis called Berlin.

★ ★ ★

Thus they bypass the comprehensive refugee system that has been set up in West Berlin. The refugee goes through a process which determines whether or not he will be "recognized." Strictly speaking, a refugee can be "recognized" only if he has to flee because he was in genuine political danger but actually he can be "recognized" for almost any reason unless he was a willing member of the Party or police.

★ ★ ★

A "recognized" refugee gets the privilege of being flown free of charge to West Germany, of housing and a job there and other protection. A non-recognized refugee must fend for himself or stay in a refugee camp in West Berlin. As a rule, young people are flown out of Berlin very quickly; their elders may wait in camp for months.

Four Queens to Boost State Farm Products

LANSING (AP) — Michigan will send four queens on a good will tour early next month to boost the state's apples, beans, cherries and dairy industry.

Three of the girls are blue-eyed blondes. The fourth, the state dairy queen, will be selected Friday at Michigan State University.

Apple queen is Patricia Keller, a high school senior from Watervliet, bean queen is Judith Lonsway, a senior at St. Andrew's High, Saginaw. Kay Lahym of Traverse City, a Michigan State University freshman, is the cherry queen.

The quartet of queens will leave May 3 for New York for a round of radio, television and personal appearances. They will be in Washington the latter part of the week to assist in the Michigan Week observance.

Threats Bring 30 Days

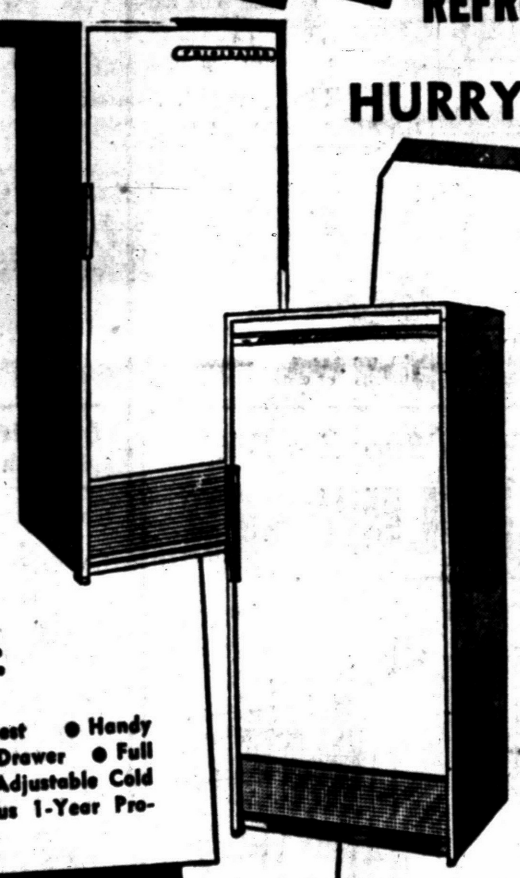

DETROIT (AP) — Frank R. Simmons, 18, of Detroit, was sent to the Detroit House of Correction for 30 days Thursday for threatening a teacher at Barbour Junior High School. Mrs. Jean Johnson, 37, who teaches English, said Simmons appeared at her classroom Wednesday, accused her of putting his brother in jail and threatened to "get" her. Simmons' 15-year-old brother is awaiting Juvenile Court action for allegedly slicing the top of Mrs. Johnson's convertible.

Most School System Rule Books Allow Punishment

Should Teachers Spank Troublemakers?

By JOHN BARROW
INS Staff Writer

If your son causes trouble in school, would you approve of his teacher whipping him?

With today's clamor for improving education, many parents may wonder how Johnny will fare—if his classes are upset by rowdyism. His teacher may wonder if an old-fashioned birching might help. Situations differ:

★ ★ ★

—In Cincinnati, a teacher was sued for spanking a defiant pupil.

—In Kansas City, a teacher said a student menaced her with brass knuckles and she "pretended not to see—it wouldn't have done any good."

—In Chicago, the president of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers said some children become troublemakers when the teacher does not make instruction "interesting."

—In St. Louis, a Catholic educator said, "The little red schoolhouse worked wonders because it had a little red woodshed in the background."

Across the nation, an INS survey showed most city school systems have "corporal punishment" in the rulebook but seldom use it. Often it amounts to smacking a pupil's palms after consulting the principal who acts as a witness to file a full report to the superintendent.

St. Louis must get written permission from the student himself. A short piece of rubber is prescribed — no paddles. Supt. Philip J. Hickey says:

"There are some children who have to be punished in such a manner, not many but a few. After all, such punishment is actually an extension of parental duties."

★ ★ ★

The State of Washington's code makes a teacher liable to a misdemeanor charge with a possible $100 fine for "punishment on or about the head of any pupil."

Supt. E. W. Campbell of Seattle says provisions "should be hedged about with regulations and checks which will keep indulgence in such a means of punishment at a low minimum." To outlaw it entirely would be "detrimental."

★ ★ ★

In Connecticut, "hand strapping" is used in Hartford and Waterbury. Supt. Robert H. Black at Hartford says the American Federation of Teachers sought to end the rule that the principal must be a witness, but was turned down.

★ ★ ★

Oklahoma teachers get the "same right as a parent to control and discipline the child" in their charge. State Supt. Oliver Hodge says assault charges can be filed if a teacher "goes too far," but no one has, in his memory.

But in Cincinnati, the parents of 11-year-old Roscoe McGeorge are suing Gayle Graner for $2,500 civil damages. The teacher said she paddled him when he refused to put away a deck of cards and study. His parents claim he was bruised and became ill.

★ ★ ★

While Miss Graner's other pupils joined to give her a "good luck" party, Judge Frank M. Gusweiler dismissed earlier charges of assault and declared her position "has been approved in the community."

★ ★ ★

Attitudes toward spanking in school follow those toward spanking at home, according to Dr. Raymond E. Robertson, Chicago psychiatrisi and head of the Institute for Juvenile Research. He says:

"Because social change is so rapid in America, 'control' is less defined. Punishment, physical or otherwise, is only one aspect in the total relationship between the child and the parent (or teacher as authority).

★ ★ ★

"There might be a time and place for punishment — but one doesn't rely on it as a means of helping a child adjust."

Colombia Liberal Heads Government

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—Liberal party leader Alberto Lleras Camargo finally has agreed to serve as president of the bipartisan government which will try to restore political normalcy to this former dictatorship.

★ ★ ★

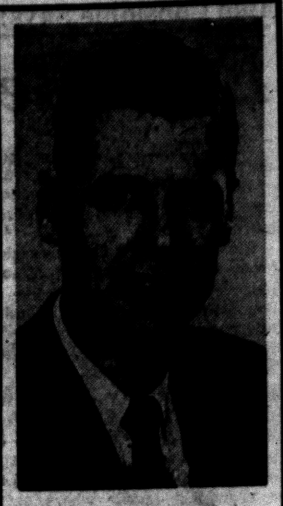

Lleras Camargo, president in in the 1940s before the dictatorship of Gen. Gustave Rojas Pinilla, waited two weeks before accepting the backing of both Conservatives and Liberals last night.

Earlier in the day the ruling military junta had announced it would go through with the presidential elections May 4 even if the two major parties did not agree on a candidate.

★ ★ ★

The Conservatives and Liberals originally had agreed that, to achieve a political peace, the seats in Parliament would be divided equally between the two parties and a Conservative would be named president, to be followed in four years by a Liberal. When the Liberals polled the majority popular vote in the parliamentary elections March 16 the Conservatives insisted the President come from the majority party.

About one of four persons in the United States is a member of the American Red Cross and about one of every 90 persons is an active Red Cross volunteer.

I am most grateful to the voters in District No. 6 who have supported me in the past. "The Die Is Cast." Mr. Wood is elected. For success in City government as a commissioner there must be support from the people he represents. So let us all get behind Mr. Wood and keep Pontiac progressive.

School Dispute Brings Upheaval

Alabama Pupils Strike When Principal Is Fired for Different Opinion

FORT PAYNE, Ala. (AP) — A long-standing dispute among educators, climaxed by a three-day strike of high school pupils, has resulted in an upheaval of Fort Payne's school system.

The pupils struck Monday when they learned that principal J. B. Hulsey of Fort Payne High School would not be rehired next year.

The approximately 500 pupils had demanded that Hulsey be rehired, and that Supt. of Education Wilson F. Gonce be fired.

Gonce resigned effective July 1. Last night, the City Council adopted a plan whereby the entire city school board will be rotated out of office, one member every six months.

Gonce said those who opposed his viewpoint "should be partially satisfied even if they aren't getting the reinstatement of Mr. Hulsey."

School officials and members of the board insist they did not give in to the pupils, who returned to classes yesterday.

"It is simply that Mr. Hulsey could not come around to our way of thinking," a board member said.

Hulsey, 45, said he had never been given any specific reason for not being rehired.

"The only reason they gave me was that I hadn't brought the school around to the city way of thinking," he said. "What the city way of thinking is I haven't been able to ascertain."

Captain of Shrimp Boat Describes 2-Day Ordeal

ROCKPORT, Tex. (AP)—A shrimp boat captain staggered to a coastal ranch yesterday and told of a two-day ordeal at sea which took the life of his crewman and cost him his vessel.

Capt. W. A. Fears, 31, of Brownsville, told the Coast Guard his boat became disabled Tuesday in high seas and sank Wednesday. He said he fought his way ashore with a raft yesterday, but L. E. Lind, 22, also of Brownsville, the mate, failed to make it.

★ ★ ★

Lind's body was found on an island beach.

Fears told this story:

The rudder broke on the Ocean Bride about 20 miles off Port Aransas last Tuesday morning. He fixed it once, but it broke again.

He then dropped anchor and he and Lind manned the pumps as huge waves broke over the vessel. The shrimper capsized early Wednesday and went under within 30 seconds. Fear and Lind took to a small raft and drifted all day.

Late Wednesday they spotted land and fought the raft through the surf toward shore.

Fears said Lind went out of his head in the cold water and drifted away in his life jacket.

Fears said he slept for several hours after reaching shore, then walked up St. Joseph's Island, where he landed, to the St. Jo Ranch and called the Coast Guard.

Re-Elect 7 to Board

DETROIT (AP) — Seven board members, including Walter O. Briggs Jr., were re-elected and one new director was added to the board of Briggs Manufacturing Co. at a shareholders' meeting Thursday. The new member is Arnold Kohler, senior vice president in charge of manufacturing.

The 1950 center of population in the U. S. was located eight miles northwest of Olney in Richland county in the state of Illinois.

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Louis D. Shoulders Jr., son of a principal figure in the Greenlease ransom money mystery, has been subpoenaed as a witness in a Senate Rackets Committee investigation of Teamsters Union affairs in this area.

Irwin Langenbacher, an attorney for the committee which is to conduct hearings here soon, handed the subpoena to Shoulders yesterday. The younger Shoulders, who has a police record, is a former taxi driver.

His father, a former St. Louis police lieutenant who arrested the two kidnapers of 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease in 1953, went to prison for lying about handling of suitcases containing ransom money. About half the $600,000 ransom never has been recovered.

Will Sentence Brothers in Slaying of Policeman

DETROIT (AP) — Turner Madison, 29, and his brother Andrew, 31, will be sentenced May 8 on first degree murder charges in the fatal shotgunning of a Detroit policeman.

The brothers, both of Detroit, interrupted their three-day trial yesterday to change their pleas from innocent ot guilty. Recorder's Court Judge Paul E. Krause accepted the pleas and ruled the brothers guilty of first degree murder in the Jan. 11 barroom slaying of Patrolman Donald W. Coulter, 38. Coulter was shot when he interrupted a holdup at the East Side Detroit bar.

Mrs. Essie Lee Graham, 32, a mother of eight children, also changed her plea from inocent and pleaded guilty to be an accessory in the slaying. Burton Farmer, 22, also accused in the slaying, refused to change his innocent plea and his trial was ordered continued. Both Mrs. Graham and Farmer are from Detroit.

Ziem Probing Allegations Against Southfield Official

Received Funds in Land Deals

New Councilman Says He Was Paid for Giving Advice in Two Cases

Ziem said that a Southfield resident, Philip A. Maloney, of 23551 Noel, a township trustee and unsuccessful candidate for city mayor, had told him a week before Monday's election that Robert F. Wuerfel, of 25120 Circle Dr., had accepted money in connection with two land deals in the township.

★ ★ ★

Yesterday Ziem took statements from the two men and received minutes of meetings of the township's Board of Zoning Appeals which Wuerfel headed.

Maloney told Ziem that Wuerfel received a check for $1,200 from the Professional Town and Country Club in connection with the rezoning of property on Twelve Mile road the club purchased for a new clubhouse.

Maloney alleged that Wuerfel had received money for helping the club get rezoning on the property, getting a building permit and helping with water, sewers and a street closing.

CONCERNS LAND SALE

The second instance cited concerned the sale of land on Northwestern Highway to Burrough's Inc. Wuerfel allegedly received a broker's commission of $2,200 in the sale after the zoning board had recommended it be rezoned to office building use.

Ziem said he was assigning Assistant Prosecutor Leroy W. McEntee, of Royal Oak, to investigate the matter and declined to say whether there was any evidence of a crime in the situation so far.

His office had refrained from looking into the allegations previously for fear it might be charged with interfering in the forthcoming elections, Ziem said.

"With the elections behind us, we are going to make a thorough investigation," the prosecutor said.

Wuerfel said today that the entire allegations were inspired by a desire to defeat Southfield's incorporation charter and were political propaganda.

He said he did receive the $1200 from the club but that it was only for giving them information "concerning the possibility of obtaining water and sewer facilities and vacating a plat plan and a road that had been dedicated.

AFTER HEARING

"This entire thing happened after the rezoning hearing," he said.

Wuerfel also stated he received $2200 from the broker in the Burroughs' deal and explained it as follows:

"Our planning board had earmarked the land for ERO (education, research or office) the same as the Burroughs land.

"Congregation Sharrey Zedik of Detroit owned the land but couldn't sell it without getting it rezoned commercial or manufacturing which we did not want there.

"All I did was call Burroughs and tell them they might find a factory next door if they didn't buy it and I also told them they would lose 114 feet of frontage on Northwestern to the highway department.

"These considerations led them to buy the property. I did it for the township with no thought of money.

"Later, one night when the congregation was about to sign the papers, they called me at the house and said they thought I had done most of the work on the deal and was entitled to a brokers fee."

"These rumors were spread around to discredit me and the charter before election. After the election I called Ziem and volunteered to come in with my records and clear the matter up."

TREE CRASHES INTO HOUSE — This giant tree was snapped by the wind yesterday noon and sent crashing across the front of the Russell G. Lovel home at 354 Chandler St. in Romeo. No one was in the house at the time. Several other trees were reported cracked and uprooted in Oakland and Macomb counties yesterday during the high winds which reached a gale velocity of 60 m. p. h. at times.

Rochester Students to Display Art

Schools Plan Open House

ROCHESTER — Summarizing their work for the year, Rochester elementary schools will hold a series of open houses and art exhibits. They are put on each spring by pupils, teachers, principals and art consultants.

The series will begin with the Hamlin School open house Tuesday from 7 to 9 p.m.

Other open house receptions will follow at the North Hill School, May 1; Harrison-Central, May 15; Stony Creek and Woodward, May 21; Brooklands and Avon, May 22; and at the Baldwin School, May 28. All will be from 7 to 9 p.m.

Each child is represented in the Rochester art program which stresses the idea that art doesn't belong to just the talented few, Dorothy Whipple, head of the elementary art department, said.

★ ★ ★

She and her consultants, Jean Wilson and Julius Kusey, have asked parents, relatives and friends of the Rochester pupils to come out and share in these get-togethers.

'—Old Burglars Never Quit, They Just Steal Away'

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Glen Spencer Gilbreath, a man who takes pride in his work, admitted the burglary of a plating firm upon learning the loot included Catholic Archbishop Joseph E. Ritter's silver creamer.

"Oh, my," said Gilbreath, "I would have to pick on him, wouldn't I?"

Police Capt. John Buck noted that Gilbreath's 12 convictions included two for burglary. "Yeah, captain, but think of the times you didn't catch me," Gilbreath replied.

★ ★ ★

Chemical Output Listed

CHICAGO — Total United States annual per capita production of chlorine is estimated at 45 pounds; of caustic soda, 45.6 pounds; of sulphuric acid, 181 and of ammonia, 39.

Khrushchev and Tito No Longer Buddies

LJUBLJANA, Yugoslavia (AP) — Western observers at the Yugoslav Communist Party Congress here are convinced that nothing short of a complete somersault by Nikita Khrushchev will make him President Tito's pal again.

★ ★ ★

Since the party conclave opened Tuesday, the continuous flood of sharp words aimed at the Kremlin has demonstrated that relations between the Soviet and Yugoslav Communist parties are about back where they were four years ago.

That was when Tito and Khrushchev started working to erase the damage done to Soviet Yugoslav relations by Stalin's cold war against his strongest Balkan partner.

Yugoslav sources at the Congress insist relations still are not so bad as in 1948, when Stalin read Tito out of the flock.

But many think the state visit to Yugoslavia by Soviet President Klementi Voroshilov, scheduled for sometime next month, may be canceled.

CAROL JEAN BLUMENSCHEIN

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Blumenschein of Post road, Holly, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Carol Jean, to Richard D. Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milford Roberts of Andersonville. The wedding date hasn't been set.

Forming Group to Aid Jobless

Waterford Setting Up Committee to Work on Individuals' Problems

Waterford Township officials have decided to set up an Unemployment Arbitration Committee similar to the one in operation in the city of Pontiac, according to Supervisor Elmer Johnson.

Purpose of the seven-member committee will be to aid persons unemployed through no fault of their own, to adjust satisfactorily, problems between landlord and tenant, and between creditor and debtor, during temporary unemployment.

Applications for persons in need of the committee's services, will be available at the township hall, and each applicant will be given careful consideration by the committee before any action is taken, Johnson said.

He emphasized that this new committee will not act as a welfare agency and that there are no means of giving financial assistance to anyone.

★ ★ ★

Included in the group will be a minister, attorney, financier, social worker and representatives of labor, small business and the real estate business.

★ ★ ★

Johnson said that his appointments to this volunteer committee will be announced at the regular Waterford Board meeting Monday night.

Checking for Arson in Waterford Blaze

Waterford Township police and firemen are today checking the possibility of arson in a $2,200 fire which raged through a vacant home at 340 N. Cass Lake Rd. yesterday.

They said rags soaked in kerosene which had been set afire, were found inside the $8,000 frame home owned by Nick Nicholas of Clarkston.

LIONS SELLING WHITE CANES — Members of the Westlakes Lions Club today began their annual sale of white canes to aid the blind. The drive is being conducted in Union Lake, Keego Harbor and Walled Lake. It will end tomorrow night. All the money collected will be for charity, with most of it being used to correct eye conditions and to buy glasses for needy persons. Club President Marty Smith said. John Bell (right) of 2943 Long Ridge Rd., West Bloomfield Township is shown here presenting a check for early donations to drive chairman Virgil Taylor of 7066 Colony Dr., West Bloomfield Township.

'Copter Rescues Four From Mountain Snows

SHERIDAN, Wyo. (AP) — A helicopter rescued four persons, two at a time, yesterday from huge snow drifts that had marooned them for nearly a day.

★ ★ ★

Two highway crewmen stranded with them on snow-logged U. S. 14 finally made it to safety on snowshoes.

★ ★ ★

The copter landed in the deep snow in the Big Horn Mountains and flew to safety Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Pierce, Nampa, Idaho; John T. French, Hastings, Neb., and Emil Engstrom, 29, Denver.

Panel to Talk on Government

C. of C. in Farmington Sponsoring Public Meet Wednesday Night

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP—In an effort to enlighten area residents on the workings of local government, the Greater Farmington Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a public meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Farmington High School gymnasium, featuring a panel discussion.

★ ★ ★

Recent petitioning for annexation to the City of Farmington by one part of the township and petitioning for village status by another section have focused attention on the inadequacies and advantages of the various forms of local government.

The Chamber of Commerce, feeling that an interested citizenry should have an opportunity to become familiar with all types of municipal government, has arranged to present three qualified speakers.

Arthur J. Miller, mayor of Warren, will speak on charter townships. Prof. Arthur Bromage of the University of Michigan and the Michigan Municipal League will discuss city government, and Harold A. Roseberry, former president of Franklin Village, will point out the merits of village government.

Chamber officials have emphasized that they are taking no stand on the issue, but are presenting it as a public service.

Arrangements for the meeting were made by Harry Farmer and his Chamber Planning and Zoning Committee with the support of the chamber's Board of Directors.

'Feverish' Calls Square Dances at W. Bloomfield

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — The Dancing Dandies, a square dance club in West Bloomfield Township, has issued a call for couples to join them every second and fourth Friday night at the West Bloomfield Township Hall.

This evening, from 8:30 to 11:30, the club will hold its second dance party at the hall.

Calling the western numbers will be "Feverish" Freddie Neumann who has become a favorite with the club.

The group started with the western basics and has progressed to the intermediate level. But there is still opportunity for beginners to catch up. Workshops will be held from 8 to 8:30 each evening dances are scheduled.

★ ★ ★

A committee of three couples was elected to manage the club. They are Mr. and Mrs. Walt Koenig, the Bill Roughtons and Fred Simsons.

Crowned at Fashion Show

Wanda Stone Reigns as 'Miss Lake Orion'

Wanda Stone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Stone Jr. of 45 Shadbolt St., was crowned last night in the State Theater before some 400 persons.

Wanda, who won over four other finalists, was selected in a penny - a - vote contest through the use of canisters placed in community stores. All proceeds go to the center's building fund.

Wanda, who is the youngest of nine children, works part-time at a drug store, but still finds time to be active in youth activities. She is treasurer of the Y-Teens group in Lake Orion.

Majoring in commercial subjects at school, she plans to become a stenographer after graduation.

The Scarlet Tones, a popular boys' quartet, sang two selections and Albert and Delline Michalski entertained on the accordion.

Church Slates Annual Mother, Daughter Affair

ORCHARD LAKE—The Orchard Lake Community Church will hold its annual Mother's and Daughter's Banquet May 9 at the church.

The program will feature a teenage fashion show entitled "Young Summertime," with fashions supplied by Fred's Wonderland store.

There also will be modeling of costumes, dating from the 1800s to the early 1900s, and musical selections by members of the church.

Dinner will be served at 6:30 p. m. Reservations may be made until May 5 by telephoning the church.

To Bid on Orion-Oxford Stretch of M24 Repairs

Bids for major work on M24 (Lapeer road) between Lake Orion and Oxford will be taken May 7 in Lansing, according to State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie.

The work will include 2.7 miles of grading, drainage and dual concrete roadway from Flint street in Lake Orion to the south village limits of Oxford.

A curve in the existing road just west of Bailey Lake will be straightened in the work. The entire project is expected to be completed Nov. 30.

Jaycee Unit Set Up for Federal Prisoners

Warden John J. Galvin said the 15-member group may be the first of its kind in penal history.

The Ashland Jaycees helped establish the new organization to assist inmates in obtaining better citizenship, Galvin said.

The prison Jaycees help other inmates with correspondence courses, aid in the recreation program and help in the administration of safety and sanitation programs.

Couple Settles in Lapeer After State Honeymoon

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Lewis Cook of Lapeer and Mr. Roy Vanniman of Grand Rapids. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. DeView of Lapeer.

Wixom to Vote on City Charter

Will Elect Officials to Serve Only if Revised Status Is Approved

WIXOM — Residents of Wixom will vote on a proposed city charter in a special election May 19 and will elect a mayor, council, and justice of the peace, all of whom will take office only if the charter is approved.

★ ★ ★

Candidates for the council include Lottie Chambers, Gunnar Mettala, Robert Wagnitz, Jesse Birchard, Walter Tuck and Gerald Abrams, all village council members. Other candidates are Ray Lahti and Fred Beamish.

Under the proposed city charter, the mayor would receive $150 per year, councilmen $100, and justice of the peace, $300 a year.

Youth Only Shaken as Auto Overturns

ROMEO — A 16-year-old Romeo High School student escaped serious injury when the car he was driving overturned yesterday afternoon on 29-Mile road, west of Camp Ground road in Washington Township.

★ ★ ★

Jeffery L. Shellabarger, of 67851 Dequindre Rd., told Romeo State Police he swerved to avoid hitting another auto and lost control of his car.

It skidded 510 feet before hitting an embankment and overturning, police said.

★ ★ ★

Merely shaken up in the mishap, the youth was released to the custody of his father, Cecil L. Shellabarger, to whom the car belongs.

TRUE FACTS ABOUT O-JIB-WA BITTERS

Mrs. Russell

Mrs. Rena Russell, 31660 Five Mile Rd., Livonia reports: "Before I discovered O-JIB-WA BITTERS, I suffered for a long time with arthritis pains in my arms and shoulders. I am glad to tell you that the very first bottle stopped the suffering. O-JIB-WA helped my stomach too, as I no longer am bothered with gas or indigestion and my nerves are much more relaxed. Because this fine medicine helped my husband's arthritis also, I recommended it to a friend barely able to walk, who is all better now and teaching school. I sure recommend O-JIB-WA BITTERS to all of you who suffer from rheumatism or arthritis and have not yet found relief."

Dear Abby....

Feed His Fancy, Ma'am!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: After a man reaches the age of 40 or 45 he is expected to have a fling, but my husband isn't even 30 yet and he has had two already. I can't understand it either as he seems very happy at home. Isn't there some way I can keep him true to me? I am a good cook and housekeeper and even bake my own bread." GOOD WIFE

ABBY

DEAR GOOD: Man cannot live by bread alone. Even home-made bread. Find out what he likes for dessert.

"DEAR ABBY: I am a girl of 20 and my parents will tell you themselves they never had any trouble with me. I'm in love with a boy, 22. He has a good job and goes to night school to better himself.

"My parents have tried to break us up because they say a boy who comes from a broken home is a poor risk for marriage. We love each other, Abby, and I don't think it's fair to blame him because his parents were divorced when he was small. Please give me your opinion."

A GIRL IN LOVE

"DEAR GIRL: Most children from broken homes make better husbands and wives. Having learned from bitter experience how tough it is to be raised in those circumstances, they try doubly hard to make a "go" of marriage.

"DEAR ABBY: My husband and I are the same age and have been married for 16 years. Ever since the day we were married he has referred to me as his "old lady." I was 20 years old then and that is far from being an old lady.

"My husband says it is just an expression but I am fed up to the neck hearing him say "the old lady this" and the "old lady that!" I know he could call me lots worse, but I still don't like it. What can I do?" MRS. X. X.

DEAR MRS. X. X.: Don't take him literally. Remember you are a LADY and if you are OLD at this age, then so is your old man!

"DEAR ABBY: This neighborhood is getting absolutely impossible. I have to go to work at 5 a.m. and so I need my night's sleep. Every time a car goes past, the neighbor's dog barks. Even when an airplane flies over the house that dog barks.

"It is getting so that the dog barks for nothing. Then another dog in the distance answers him. The two of them bark at each other all night long and by morning I am so worn out I could drop. How can I stop this?" SLEEPLESS

DEAR SLEEPLESS: Speak to the owner of the dog in your neighborhood. Tell him if he doesn't keep his dog quiet at night you will have to report him to the police. If that does not work — make good your threat.

★ ★ ★

Exercise Molds Figure

Can Trim Waist if Right Weight

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
(The Friday Question Box)

Q. "I would like to know if exercise alone will reduce the waist and hips or if dieting is necessary. I am 15 years old, of Medium build and weigh 148 pounds. My measurements are bust, 36, waist, 28, and hips 36½ inches."

A. You did not give me your height but your measurements do not sound as though you are fat. They are in very good proportion. You might take waist-slimming exercises for a little loss. If you are overweight, you will have to diet some although exercise will help. If you are the correct number of pounds, you can decrease your waist measurement with exercise alone.

Q. "My hands are short and my nails are flat. My question is should I wear nail polish? Would it make my hands look worse or better?"

A. If you wear your nails medium long and apply colored polish, it will make your hands look longer and your fingers more tapering. However, if your nails are very broad or wide, your hands probably will look better with clear polish.

Q. "We are two 13-year-old girls. Could you tell us what our weight should be? V. H. is 4 feet 10 inches tall and weighs 86 pounds. S. S. is 5 feet 3 inches tall and weighs 108 pounds."

A. V. H.'s weight is just right. S. S. is in fine shape, too.

Q. "I am 12 years old. Please tell me how much overweight I am. I am 5 feet tall and weigh 97½ pounds."

A. You are not at all overweight. Your measurements are also correct for a girl of your age.

Q. "My husband and I got to discussing my figure and he says I am not proportioned right for my height. I am 4 feet 11 inches tall and weigh 100 pounds. My bust measures 34 inches, waist 24 and hips 35. I am 25 years old. Age plays some part doesn't it?"

A. Your husband is hard to please. Your measurements are in just about perfect proportion. You are a little underweight. Since you are so short you might be wise to take hip-slimming exercises for the loss of an inch.

★ ★ ★

Age plays a part in what a woman should weigh until the age of 25. From then on she should keep the same weight all of her life which is ideal for her at 25. Few women do!

MARGARET H. MINNICH

Henry Arthur Minnich of Mariva avenue announces the engagement of his daughter, Margaret Helen, to Donald C. Leone, son of Mrs. Sadie Leone of Auburn avenue and the late Mr. Leone. The bride-elect is also the daughter of the late Mrs. Minnich. A June 21 wedding is planned.

Joan K. Henderson Wed

Forty guests witnessed the April 17 marriage of Joan Kaye Henderson and Alfred H. Miller Jr. The evening ceremony was performed in the home of the bridegroom's parents by the bridegroom's father, the Rev. Alfred H. Miller.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Henderson of Rosetta court, and the bridegroom is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Alfred H. Miller of Adams road.

Stephens Alumnae Install Officers

Installed as officers of Stephens College Alumnae Club of Birmingham were Mrs. J. W. Fenn III, first vice president; Mrs. R. W. Hansen, second vice president; Mrs. E. C. Hasse, secretary, and Mrs. H. W. Hastings, public relations.

The installation was conducted as part of the group's Guest Night Wednesday in the Bloomfield Hills home of Mrs. G. C. Waggoner Jr. She was assisted by Mrs. J. T. Downey, Mrs. Hansen and Mrs. R. J. Stuart.

PEO Chapter Hosts Husbands at Dinner

Mrs. Ralph Waterman and Mrs. Donald Butler showed pictures and spoke about school outdoor education when AW chapter of PEO entertained husbands and guests at a dinner party at Edgewood Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Cooke were among the guests at the Wednesday evening gathering.

300 Attend Pontiac Education Association Dinner

Pontiac Press Photos

Brig. Gen. Marshall Addresses Banquet

The 29th annual spring banquet of Pontiac Education Association brought out 300 members and their guests Thursday at Devon Gables.

Speaker for the evening Brig. Gen. S. L. A. Marshall discussed "The World Scene." He told of his recent visits to Israel and of his firm conviction that "This beautiful country is here to stay." Here, he said, the brotherhood of man has real meaning.

★ ★ ★

Touching on the satellite, Gen. Marshall declared that attempts to reach the moon are not security measures. They are merely in the interest of science, he pointed out.

'MOON FAR OFF'

He told those attending that in their lifetime they would not reach the moon; that during this same period there will be no satellite that will be practical as a space ship, and that guided missiles will not become decisive as weapons of war.

★ ★ ★

He stated the mistake the United States is making is in forgetting the importance of man, over-stressing importance of weapons. "Ultimately" he concluded, "the survival of free systems of government depends both on what they do toward the destruction of enemies and what they do toward keeping our people strong."

"Songs of Our World" were sung by the Lincoln Concert Choir under the direction of Jerry Smith.

PRESENTS GAVEL

Cochairmen for the banquet were Mr. and Mrs. George Yansen, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bell, decorations; Mr. and Mrs. Donald DeVoe, tickets; George Kindy, Lillian Paull and Lois Schneider, invitations; Jerry Smith, music; Mrs. George Morrow, publicity; and John Silvonen, program design.

Child Culture Club Hears Floral Talk

Mrs. Dorothy Brooks gave a floral demonstration to members and guests of Child Culture Club Thursday evening. The group met in the Hamilton drive home of Mrs. Hillman Fortney.

The speaker pointed out that proper tools are needed for flower arrangement and there are four basic principles involved in arranging flowers; design, scale, balance and harmony.

New Officers Installed by Mission Group

Installed as president of Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of First Baptist Church Thursday was Mrs. Nellie Monroe.

Others taking office were Mrs. Enoch Eley, first vice president; Mrs. Lewis Peters, second vice president; Mrs. Reinold Yeager, secretary; Mrs. Floyd Miles, assistant secretary; Mrs. Frank Rudlaff, treasurer and Mrs. John McCormick, assistant treasurer; Inez Slater, corresponding secretary, and Agnes Sturman, assistant corresponding secretary.

Pocketed Flower

From Paris comes the notion of slipping a single flower into a suit pocket for a pretty effect. For practical purposes, it's probably a good idea to anchor it from the inside with a tiny gold pin.

Mrs. Harry King (left) long associated with Pontiac School PTAs and past president of the Michigan Congress of PTA was a guest at the banquet. Photographed with her are Mrs. Gertrude Martin, who will retire from teaching this year, and Clark Balch who was toastmaster for the evening.

Four Officers Installed at PTA Congress

MUSKEGON (AP) — Carl R. Anderson of Ypsilanti has been installed as treasurer of the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Anderson, who succeeds Charles Sherry of Lansing, will serve as treasurer for three years.

Other officers who were installed at the 41st annual convention of the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers are Mrs. William Burkart, Iron Mountain; Mrs. Lowell Taylor, Midland, and Mrs. E. A. Blakeslee, Benton Harbor, all regional vice presidents.

Chiffon Is Popular

Sorority Plans May 24 Ball

Mrs. Fred Baumgartner will act as chairman for a May 24th annual summer Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority ball to be held at Westacres Country Club.

Assisting the chairman will be Mrs. Jack Andress, orchestra; Stephanie Linabury and Judy Steinhelper, decorations; Mrs. Marshall Rose, tickets; Mrs. Reginald Rippberger, patrons; and Mrs. Robert Hasse, publicity.

Ruth Circle Plans Special Event

Mrs. Eugene Hoisington was hostess to Ruth Missionary Circle of Joslyn Avenue United Presbyterian Church Thursday afternoon in her Giddings road home.

Participating in the program were Mrs. Walter Hubner and Mrs. Harry Lunsford. Plans were discussed for a May mother-daughter banquet.

Fairgoers Get 'Look' at America

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

American fashions will see the world, and vice versa, this summer as typical outfits, from Bermuda shorts to evening gowns, are modeled continuously every day in the American Pavilion at the Brussels World's Fair.

Four different collections of about 60 garments each will be shown at six-week intervals during the six months' life of the fair.

The clothes have been selected by the editors of a top U. S. fashion magazine, at the request of the U. S. State Department, and are chosen from the entire roster of American designers.

The object of the showing is to display the American look to the world, the fashions being chosen as typical of the clothes worn throughout the United States.

All price ranges are included, as well as outfits for all occasions — swimsuits, golf and tennis clothes, dresses for going to the supermarket, town suits, country casuals, pants of all lengths and dance dresses.

Job's Daughters Plans 'Sock Hop'

Jobs Daughters, Bethel 40, has completed plans for a Saturday evening "sock hop" dance to be held in Roosevelt Temple.

Chairmen working on this event are Marilyn Vernon, Kim Nixon and Pat Eaton. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Heads Mothersingers

Mrs. Roy Parden was elected president of Pontiac Mothersingers Thursday evening at a cooperative dinner held in the Sashabaw road home of Mrs. Ransom Robb. The hostess was aided by Mrs. Levern Terry, Mrs. James Macquire, Mrs. Ina Hutchinson and Mrs. Maynard Smith.

Other officers named were Mrs. Edward Muschell, vice president; Mrs. Russell Jacobson, secretary, and Mrs. Donald Richmond, treasurer.

Central Future Teachers Practice at Grade School

By WILLIAM BANK

Five members of the Pontiac Central High School Future Teachers' Club are spending their free hours at Crofoot Elementary School to participate in a student teaching program.

Those who have student teaching positions are Ronald Miller, Warren Norland, Richard Bailey, Karen Rognaldson, and Jackie Presby.

Their main work is helping slower elementary children speed up their reading. This includes listening to pupils read aloud, helping them improve their voacabulary, and assisting them with assignments that involve reading.

The program gives the high school student plenty of work, but never the work of a professional teacher as discipline. The novice teacher provides two extra hands and an extra head so more time can be spent with the slower student.

★ ★ ★

The purposes of the program are to provide an opportunity to see the atmosphere of teaching; perform a service to the regular teacher; and to show early indication of interest in teaching to future employers.

62 HONORED

Sixty-two Pontiac Central High School students were named as members of the National Honor Society this week.

Other new members are Larry Olliffe, Tom Osler, Edwina Palmer, Phyllis Peters, Ann Pirochta, Victor Rigotti, Gail Sedrick, Sophia Skinner, Worley Smith, and Sandra Sommerville, Robert Tenny, Duane Thomas, Janet Thomas, Robert Thompson, Rolly Tollefson, and Paul Tremper, Susan Uligian, Harry Van Matre, Sharon Warren, Claudia Wasik, Sadie Whiters, Sue Whitfield, Ann Whiting, Mary Alice Williams, and Richard Whitmer.

The election of members started with 137 students, the upper one third of the June graduating class. These students were nominated by teachers who knew them. Out of the 137, 62 were elected into the society's membership.

This final election was made by a committee of teachers, headed by Mrs. Rose McDonald, who are advisors in PCH extra-curricular activities.

The National Honor Society strives to keep the membership to not more than 15 per cent of the senior graduating class. The members were elected on the basis of character, service, and scholarship, and leadership.

The student body is in the midst of the annual magazine sale. This year's quota is $10,000. Those students who had sold more than five dollars worth of subscriptions were entitled to attend the talent assembly today. The show included singing, dancing, pantomimes and a comedy skit.

★ ★ ★

Concluding the list were Robert Thompson, Shirley Hutchison, Judy Furgison, Maryan Waring, and the Cimmiron Quartette.

Roger Blood, state representative of the YMCA, attended this week's Hi-Y meting. He showed the film "The 'Y' Will Never Die," the story of Hi-Y's part in rebuilding the YMCA in Seoul, Korea.

This morning 29 students left for Hillsdale College. They were bound for the State Science Fair and will return tomorrow after their projects are judged.

PROMOTE BAND CONCERT

The concert, marking the band's final concert appearance as a complete unit, will be held May 16 at Central High School.

The band will be divided when Pontiac Northern High School opens next fall since many members will be in the Northern school district.

The parents will meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday at Washington Junior High School to complete plans for the sale of concert tickets.

Erect Shrines to Virgin Mary

St. Michael Sodalists to Honor Blessed Mother in May

By MICHAEL BUCHANAN

Members of the sodality of St. Michael High School are busy this week erecting a shrine in each of the classrooms in honor of the Blessed Mother during the month of May.

Special devotions will be held Thursday, the first of the month, to begin the month's activities.

The seniors will visit the Pontiac State Hospital Monday in observance of National Mental Health Week.

Freshman Russell Grenlees has received $25 for winning the annual Archdiocesan Development Fund writing contest. This contest was based on the best written theme about the story and work of the ADF. Winners in every grade received a rosary.

Band to Enter Lansing Festival Tomorrow

The Walled Lake High School band, under the direction of Helmut Holland-Moritz, will participate in the state band festival at Lansing tomorrow.

They are hoping to match the record made by Frank Balaam's junior high school band at Ann Arbor last Saturday. The younger musicians earned a first division rating.

Monday the senior high students heard a few of numbers which the band and Mrs. Frank Balaam's choruses will present at the annual spring concert Wednesday May 7 at 8 p. m.

The public is invited to the affair and there will be no admission charge.

★ ★ ★

At the assembly the students also listened to campaign speeches of candidates for president and vice president of the student council.

When elections were held Tuesday, Bill Havel was elected president and Ned Ely, vice president. They are both juniors.

Four contestants accompanied instructors Mrs. William Duckwitz and Bruce Trimmer to Lansing Sexton High School Wednesday to participate in the regional speech contest. They were: Karen Kassner, declamation; Sondra Forsyth, dramatic reading; Dorothea Buck, original oratory; and Judy Barnes, humorous reading.

WTHS Student Council Plans Banquet With Junior High

By SANDY CLEMENCE

Student Council members of Waterford Township High School are discussing plans for a joint banquet with the student council of Isaac E. Crary Junior High School.

The purpose of the banquet will be to get the two groups together so that future problems can be worked out between the two schools.

The sophomore class dance, "Twilight Time," and their "Activities Night" will be held tonight from 8 to 11 p.m.

★ ★ ★

To Hold Rag, Paper Drives at St. Fred

By PATRICIA FOSTER

Next Friday, the annual rag drive will be conducted by St. Frederick High School students and proceeds will be used to support the school.

Playground equipment is hoped to be purchased with the funds received from the annual paper drive which will be held May 2. The drive is sponsored by the Mom's and Dad's Club.

Parents of senior and junior students at St. Frederick High School attended a meeting this week to make plans for the approaching Senior-Junior prom and banquet as well as the annual graduation party.

★ ★ ★

This year's yearbook, The Ramrod, should be ready for distribution early in May. The yearbook supplement which will contain pictures of the prom, banquet, senior play, senior ring ceremony and graduation activities will be distributed to the students through the mail sometime in the early summer.

SENIORS REVIEW KNOWLEDGE

The senior class started work on their senior reviews. The reviews cover work which was completed in grade school and each student must pass each part of the test with a B.

Orion Bands to Present Spring Concert Thursday

The annual spring band concert by the Orion Community School Bands will begin at 8 p.m. Thursday at the Lake Orion Community High School gymnasium.

★ ★ ★

The high school band under the direction of David Leith, will present "The Colonial Bogey March," by Alford; "The First Suite in E Flat," by Holst; selections from "The King and I" by Rodgers and Hammerstein; and "Stars and Stripes Forever" by Sousa.

The band elected Dietrich Ristow, German exchange student, as their student conductor. He will direct them in "Some Enchanted Evening" by Rodgers and Hammerstein.

The beginners band will also present four short numbers.

The Junior High Dance Band will play "These Foolish Things;" and the Junior High Band will present "The Trombone Tobogan," by Weber; "A Spiritual" by Don Gillis; and the "Black Knight" by Grundman. Donald Parrish is the director of the pre-high school bands.

The Lake Orion Community High School Career Day today is planned to give the students an opportunity to get first hand information from people in the field on vocations they are interested in learning more about.

Questionnaires answered by the students showed the following preferences: engineering, 66; automobile sales and service, 40; modeling, 37; teaching, 36; nursing, 41; secretarial work, 33; art, 31; conservation, 27; and policemen, 23.

In the morning, previous to attendance at the conference sessions, Dr. Guy Hill of Michigan State University, will speak to the combined groups in the auditorium on "Choosing a Vocation."

After lunch the students will again divide this time into interest groups. The girls groups include personality improvement; armed services; commercial demonstration; and in homemaking careers. The boys will choose to attend sessions on army, air force, navy or marines.

★ ★ ★

Disc Data and Chatter

Music in the Round

by Dick Saunders

There's a hit record on the market that misses the beat. It's the popular version of "He's Got the Whole World in his Hand."

This record is an example of the term "bad taste." The only fine version is by Mahalia Jackson. Why? Because she sings it as it was meant to be!

The commercial moguls in recording companies should keep their mitts off religious music . . . especially that which falls into the category of "gospel singing."

Rock 'n' roll isn't "bad" in itself, neither is rhythm and blues, but they are in bad taste when applied to a simple gospel song like this.

★ ★ ★

THE JAZZ NEST: A few weeks ago we informed hi-fi and jazz fans of the amazing work done by the Audiophile label. Now we recommend another of their fine LP's which we think superior to any others on the Dixie market.

This gem is another in their "Traditional Jazz" series by Doc Evans with Knocky Parker & Band (AP-33). The tuba on "See See Rider" is terrific, and the group does "Black Bottom Stomp" as if they owned it.

The album reaches a high point with the finest version of "Original Jelly Roll Blues" ever recorded. Even Jelly Roll's version is lacking next to this.

★ ★ ★

FIVE ACES: Pontiac record shops vote the following as the top five sellers this week: "Witch Doctor" by David Seville; "All I Have to Do Is Dream" by the Everly Brothers; "Twilight Time" by The Platters; "He's Got the Whole World in His Hands" by Laurie London; and "Wear My Ring Around Your Neck" by Elvis.

Plant Sweet Corn, Muskmelons Early for Steady Supply

County Agent Tells Why, How

Have Sufficient Amount of Corn Ready to Pick July Thru September

By WAYNE B. SIEFERT
County Horticultural Agent

If we could arrange to have a new planting of corn "ready to pick" each week from July 25 to Sept. 15, this would make a home garden pretty worthwhile. This is often done by commercial gardeners.

They usually use a real early variety such as North Star. This is followed by a mid-season variety, such as Gold Crest or Carmel Cross and finished up with a late variety, perhaps F-M Cross or Golden Cross Bantam.

Here is how to do it. Plant North Star April 25. Make shallow planting because of cold soil. This means not over one inch deep. When the first leaf shows of this first planting, make the next planting of North Star, and make an identical planting of Gold Crest or Carmel Cross. Make the third planting when the first leaves of Gold Crest or Carmel Cross show, using same variety. Also, plant a late variety of corn at the same time.

When the leaves of the late variety can be seen, make a fourth planting, using late variety only. When the leaves from this planting can be seen, plant the fifth and last time. This should give us a new planting to pick every week so do not plant more than a week's supply.

PLANT TWO ROWS

Well filled ears of corn do not usually occur unless two rows are planted near each other. Each time a new planting is started, always have two rows no matter how short they might be.

Yield per planting should be based on one good ear per plant. If the plants are spaced 10 inches per plant, 30 ears of sweet corn should be about 12 feet of double row.

Fertilizer is your ace in the hole. Spread 12 pounds of 12-12-12 or 10-10-10 before plowing. If you have already plowed, rake it into the surface. At planting time, sow one-half pound of 12-12-12 in each 12-foot row. This fertilizer should be at least three inches deep. After covering this fertilizer row, plant seed next to the fertilizer row but not on top of it.

When corn is knee high, make another application of 12-12-12 or straight Ammonium Nitrate. Punch a hole four inches deep near each plant with the hoe handle and apply a level teaspoon of fertilizer.

Corn ear worm is a sweet corn problem: The eggs of this pest are laid when the corn silk is less than a week out of the husk. Three applications of DDT, as a wettable powder with soap, or with mineral oil gives perfect control. Applications must be made every second day. A visit with your county extension agent will help you solve this insect problem.

MUSKMELON PROBLEMS

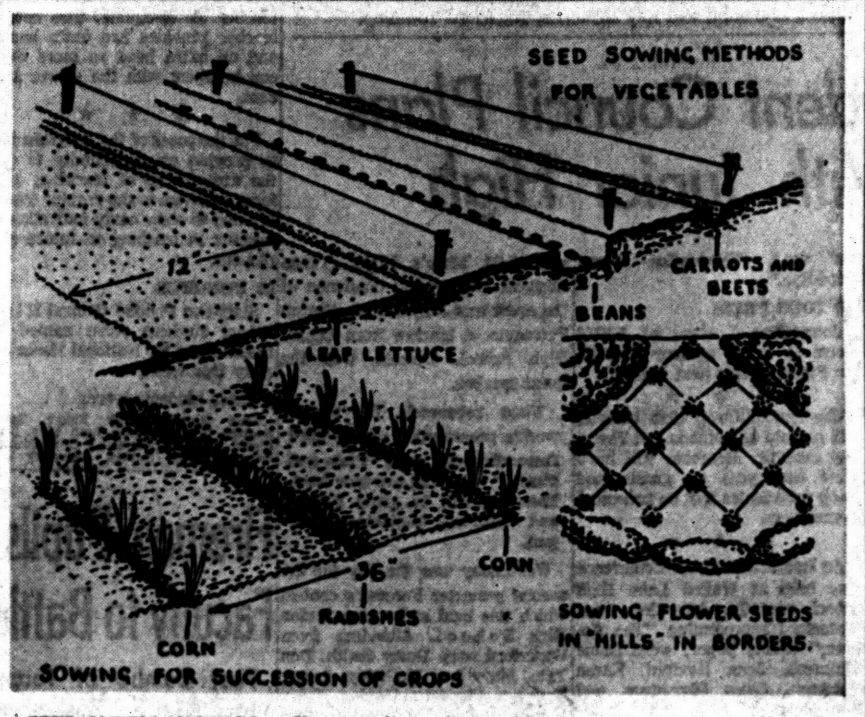

Many of the home gardeners' problems with muskmelons seems to be getting early melons. Part of the secret is to use cold frame grown seedlings. Often home garden grown melons will begin to ripen by August 15, if nice sized transplants are put out by May 20 to 25.

Try growing them in home made cold frame. Berry boxes, flower pots or wood veneer bands make ideal containers. Plants are ready to field three to four weeks after seeding. Very often good plants of good varieties can be purchased from local farmers' markets.

Such early varieties as Delicious 51 and Iroquois Honey Rock ripen in 90 days after transplanting. When fertilizing melons, spread 20 pounds of 12-12-12 per 1000 square feet before plowing.

Use no fertilizer when transplanting. When first blossoms appear, apply level teaspoon of 10-10-10 per plant by punching a four inch deep hole near each plant.

Farm and Garden News

SEED SOWING METHODS — Here are diagrams of the seed sowing methods of vegetables, flowers on "hills" and the succession of crops as described in the article "Gardeners Have Own Language to Use."

Gardeners Have Own Language to Use

Gardening has a language all its own. You don't need to join the army to "drill." It simply means that seed is sown in a furrow cut in the soil with a hoe or stick.

"Broadcast" has nothing to do with radio or television. It means to scatter seed over a wide area of ground.

A "hill" is not a hill at all. To gardeners it means that a few seeds are planted in a little circle.

Most vegetables are seeded in drills (or furrows, if you prefer) although a few, such as leaf lettuce (see diagram) are broadcast and some, such as cucumbers and squash, are planted in hills.

Annual flowers for the most part are seeded outdoors by the broadcast method. Seeds large enough to pick up in the fingers, such as marigolds and zinnias, may be placed three to a hill, the hills being spaced about a foot apart as shown in the diagram.

Before sowing any seed outdoors the soil should be turned over, fertilized and raked smooth.

Tiny petunias and snapdragon seeds can be pressed gently into the soil after the seed is broadcast from the packet. Nasturtiums, sunflowers, beans and corn can either be pressed into the soil about a half-inch or if they are sown in drills, the furrowed soil should be pushed back over them to about that depth.

But to remove any doubt from your mind as to the depth of planting seeds, instructions are always given on the back of each seed packet.

In the vegetable garden, a narrow drill for carrots and beets can be made in the soil with a pointed stick. Medium sized drills for radishes and onions can be made by drawing the hoe on edge along a taut cord between stakes that mark the row. Wide drills for peas and beans are made by using the full width of the hoe.

The distance between rows varies with the crop to be planted. Carrots, beets, beans and lettuce are spaced from 18 to 24 inches apart. Corn and tomato rows go 36 inches apart.

★ ★ ★

After the seed is sown and covered with soil, it should be watered with a fine sprinkler. Keep the ground moist at all times until germination. It's not necessary to sprinkle the entire garden . . . just the seeded drills or patches. Why encourage weed seeds to germinate between the rows?

So, in the garden vernacular, let's all get in and drill and broadcast and plant in hills.

Homeowners Can Install Own Underground Sprinkling System

Manufacturers using modern materials are making kits that permit nearly any homeowner to have an underground sprinkling system.

Once an exclusive feature of the large estate, a sprinkling system can now be installed by a handy man in a short time at modest expense.

★ ★ ★

Modern plastics such as polyethlene are used in spdinkkler kits that require no more than a spade, knife and screwdriver to install. Prices vary with the length of the pipe, number of sprinkler heads, whether they're adjustable, and of course quality of the materials.

Unless your lawn is a perfect square or rectangle with no odd corners and curving lines to worry about, it's a good idea to get a kit with adjustable sprinkler heads.

These can be adjusted to spray either a half or quarter-circle area. The adjustable heads work better, too, in areas where water pressure fluctuates during the day.

FIX WATER PRESSURE

Most kits contain instructions detailing the area the system will cover under different water pressure conditions. A majority of cities attempt to maintain pressure at about 45 to 50 pounds. But pressure is often less than maximum on a hot summer day. And since pressure varies, not only from one city to another but between neighborhoods as well, it's a good idea to check with the water department for the amount of pressure in your neighborhood.

Sprinkler heads should usually be placed about 12 feet apart. Planning your system on paper first will permit you to estimate your material requirements.

Locate the sprinkler heads as closely as you can to cover area, and drive stakes into your lawn at those points.

★ ★ ★

After you are certain of the location of everything, cut the plastic pipe wherever the sprinkler heads are to be inserted. Most kits contain metal tees and ells into which the sprinkler heads are screwed.

CHECK FOR LEAKS

Once your sprinkler system is assembled, turn on the water before you bury it. This is your chance to correct the layout before it becomes permanent. Check for leaks at this time.

The length of hose from faucet to sprinkler pipe should be of the same or a larger inside diameter. This will prevent a reduction in the flow of water.

With a square spade cut the sod to a depth of about six inches. Soaking the ground first, helps. Work the spade back and forth until you have an opening just wide enough to take the pipe.

Press pipe into the ground, making sure that the sprinkler heads are level with the base of the turf. This is important to allow clearance for the lawn mower.

Now that you have an underground sprinkling system, learn how to use it. The habits formed in the days when you used a conventional hose must be forgotten.

For example, you'll find that you won't have to water as much. A two-hour period every two days during hot, dry weather is sufficient; the same amount every three or four days during periods of light rain suffices.

SECOND TO RAIN

A sprinkling system more closely approximates rain than watering by hand. Soaking is thorough and needn't be done as often.

You can water at night with a sprinkling system without fear of fungus growth, because a fine spray of water is heavy with oxygen, which discourages such growth.

Blames Trade Act for U.S. Recession

CHICAGO (AP) — Sen. Malone (R-Nev) today said imported cheap labor products constitute the "chief factor in the so-called recession."

★ ★ ★

Malone, in an address to the National Machine Tool Builders Assn. convention, urged an end to the 1934 Trade Agreement Act, which will expire June 30 unless extended by Congress. This is the so-called Reciprocal Trade Act under which certain tariffs have been flexible on agreement between trading nations.

"Let this nefarious act expire and the American workingmen and investors are back in business competing for the American markets," he said.

Malone's speech was read to the convention by A. V. Bodine, president of the association. Malone had to cancel his appearance because of the press of Senate business.

In the speech, Malone called for "a new declaration of independence," saying, "We have lived on a war economy through two wars and preparation for war, printing the money and expanding the debt to pick up the check."

Grandma Gains Cheryl's Custody

Call for Jerry Giesler Results in Happy Choice

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — A big name movie star had troubles, so naturally there was Jerry Giesler.

The famed movieland attorney guided Lana Turner through the crowd outside and into the Juvenile Court hearing room.

"I always hope for hope," Giesler tersely told a reporter.

Ninety minutes later a judge decided the future of Lana's 14-year-old daughter Cheryl, who had been held for killing her mother's boy friend. Cheryl was placed in the custody of the actress' mother for a two-month period.

"We are all happy with the judge's decision," Giesler commented as he led Lana, crying with joy, into a waiting limousine.

The famine of words was typical of the close-lipped Giesler, usually the first person called when someone in the movie crowd gets in a jam.

★ ★ ★

On that hectic night of April 4 when Stompanato lay on the floor of Lana's pink bedroom, a butcher knife wound already causing a hemorrhage, the actress made two quick calls.

The second was to Giesler.

"I had never retained Mr. Giesler before — in fact, only had met him socially," she told a reporter later.

Giesler, 70, likes to describe himself as a plain old country boy from Wilton Junction, Iowa. And his courtroom demeanor has in it much more of Iowa than Hollywood.

★ ★ ★

If the movies were casting an ace lawyer, Jerry couldn't get past the studio gate. But through the years such Hollywood names as Charlie Chaplin, Errol Flynn, dance director Busby Berkeley, Robert Mitchum and producer Walter Wanger have shouted: "Get me Giesler."

It was Darrow, incidentally, who helped Giesler get started in big-time law. The famed lawyer was charged with bribing a juror in the Los Angeles Times bombing case of 1910.

Giesler, fresh out of the University of Southern California, was little more than an office boy in Earl Rogers' law offices. Darrow hired Rogers and Jerry went along "to help carry the brief."

Midway in the case, the two famed lawyers asked Giesler to look up an important point of law. Jerry came back with 40 pages of well-documented research.

Darrow and Rogers promoted Jerry to associate counsel on the spot. Darrow was acquitted.

It was 1931. Showman Alexander Pantages was already behind bars, convicted of raping a girl in his Hollywood office. If ever a case appeared hopeless, this was it.

★ ★ ★

Pantages, in desperation, hired Giesler. The lawyer looked over the transcript and detected a prosecution flaw. The state, in asking the maximum penalty, spoke of the girl's prior chastity.

But prior chastity had never come up during evidence. Thus, argued Giesler, the state could not later bring it up. The District Court of Appeals agreed. In a new trial Giesler got Pantages acquitted.

Jerry has been Hollywood's favorite lawyer since.

Hollywood Headlines

Horn Tooters, Fiddlers Giving Films Hard Time

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The beleaguered movie industry now has more trouble on its hands—this time from the horn tooters and violin scrapers.

★ ★ ★

On Feb. 20, the American Federation of Musicians and the producers broke off negotiations for a new contract. Since then, no musicians have worked in the movie studios.

A survey shows that the musicians' strike has hampered but not seriously affected production. Here are the effects:

Paramount recorded the scoring for "Vertigo" in London and Vienna before the AFM won agreements with most foreign musician unions not to work on Hollywood films. However, Mexico was not included, and Jerry Lewis scored his "Rockabye My Baby" there. Mexican musicians are also scoring the Elvis Presley film. Paramount has been forced to postpone start of the Red Nichols biography starring Danny Kaye.

Twentieth Century - Fox has scored "10 North Frederick" and "A Nice Little Bank That Should Be Robbed" in Mexico. Producer-director Frank Tashlin gave up prearation of a proposed Bing Crosby-Frank Sinatra film because of the strike.

MGM may be stymied in filming a couple of Cyd Charisse dance numbers at the end of "Party Girl," now in production Warners is the only lot shooting a full - scale musical — "Damn Yankees." The company is using records from the play album for numbers which will be recorded later.

Samuel Goldwyn has entered a deal with the AFM to permit work on "Porgy and Bess," with payments to be retroactive when a new contract is signed with producers. United Artists has similar deals in order to score "Separate Tables" and "The Big Country" here.

Relief from the strike is not in sight. A dissident group, Musicians Guild of America headed by Cecil Reed, has filed to represent studio musicians. Contract talks are at a standstill until the NLRB decides which union to certify.

Governor Hits GOP on Mental Health

DULUTH, Minn. (AP) — Gov. Williams has claimed Michigan is turning toward a policy "of locking up the mentally ill and throwing away the key."

"The damage done by Republican budget-cutters in the mental health field is worse than we thought," the governor said. "We definitely will be forced to lay off attendants, curtail treatment and generally go backward in our standards of patient care."

Williams made his comments from Duluth, where he was speaking before a meeting of steelworkers, after being advised of a state administration department analysis of the mental health bill adopted by the Michigan Legislature.

"Funds for the Legislature's own operations were increased substantially," he said. "But money for the operation of the 15 state - supported institutions has been cut about $1,400,000 below the present levels. It appears that we will be compelled to reduce the number of attendants and other employes by about 325 positions."

Primitive cave women in the United States tidied up their floors by spreading fresh soil over the debris rather than using the equivalent of a broom. Archeologists today are happy about this for it preserved the tools and other articles used in those ancient days as carefully as if they had been left in a modern filing cabinet.

School Districts Promised Aid

State Treasurer Says March 15 Payments to Be Sent Out May 1

LANSING (AP) — Relief in the form of state cash has been promised Michigan's money - hungry school districts.

Sanford A. Brown, state treasurer, reported that the school aid payment of approximately 29 million dollars, due March 15, will be sent out May 1.

Brown added that state sales tax revenues and general fund collections are coming into the treasury fast enough to pay out all the money due the schools before the end of the fiscal year, on June 30.

The state school aid payment due May 15, in excess of 30 million dollars, probably will be paid the last week of May, he said.

In addition, he said, general fund revenues in May should be sufficient to pay the states the balance of their primary money for the fiscal year.

Some 17 million dollars has been paid out and about 30 million dollars is still due.

Annual collections due in April and May are now coming in to make it possible to pay off the schools, he said.

During the past six weeks, however, from 20 to 30 schools a week have been going to the State Municipal Finance Commission for loans. All borrowed for operating expenses in anticipation of finally receiving the state aid, based on a formula of $190 a pupil.

2 Construction Workers Injured as Dirt Falls

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP)—Two construction workers were reported in good condition today after being pulled from beneath a layer of earth which buried them in a 30-foot pit.

Carl Hannenberg, 32, and Thomas McNulty, 50, both of Roseville, were hurt yesterday when the sides of a pit they were working in at the Mount Clemens water plant collapsed. They were rescued by 15 fellow workers who clawed through the earth with their hands to reach the trapped men.

Both are employes of W. J. Kaufman Construction Co. of Detroit.

Tigers Plan to Regain Second Tonight

Detroit Swings Into Cleveland for 4-Game Set

Athletics Drop Bengals From Runnerup Position With 7-2 Victory

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Detroit Tigers plan to get back into second place in the American League standings at the expense of the Cleveland Indians.

The Detroit drive to recover second gets underway tonight when the Tigers meet the Indians in the first of a four-game series.

The Kansas City Athletics dropped the Tigers from second to third yesterday and took the runner-up spot for themselves with a 7-2 victory. Prior to the defeat, the Tigers had moved to only one game behind the league leading New York Yankees with an 8-2 victory over the Athletics Wednesday night in the first contest of the two-game series.

The Athletics evened the series up yesterday by launching a 12 attack against Bob Shaw and two other Detroit pitchers while their own hurlers, Wally Burnette and reliefer Tom Gorman, held the Tigers to seven hits.

Burnette held the Tigers to four hits and a single run through six innings but had to have help in the seventh when Detroit scored a run with the help of an error by shortstop Joe De Maestri.

De Maestri's poor throw let Jim Hegan get on base with one out. Then singles by Gail Harris and Frank Bolling brought in the run. Gorman came in to stop the Tigers with only one hit — Ike Boon's single in the eighth.

★ ★ ★

The Athletics scored two runs off Shaw in the first inning. Mike Baxes singled, Bill Tuttle walked and both moved up on a sacrifice by Hector Lopez. Baxes came in when Power's ground out to third and Bob Cerv drove in the other with a double that scored Tuttle.

★ ★ ★

After that, Shaw managed to hold the Athletics until the fifth when Tuttle walked with one out and doubles by Lopez and Power scored two more runners. Vito Valentinette relieved Shaw on the mound and was in turn relieved in the seventh by Joe Presko who finished up for the Tigers. Presko gave up single runs in the seventh and eighth innings.

★ ★ ★

Jim Bunning, Detroit's 20 game winner season, is scheduled to start for the Tigers against Cleveland tonight. Bunning (1-1) will be opposed by Ray Narleski (1-1).

After Bunning, Foytack, Lary and Hoeft—Who?

Tighe Looks for 5th Starter

KANSAS CITY (AP)—If Detroit is to make a real run for the American League Pennant, manager Jack Tighe will have to find someone to pitch when Jim Bunning, Paul Foytack, Frank Lary or Billy Hoeft isn't throwing.

Right now, says Tighe, it isn't certain where he is going to find the man he needs.

"I'll stack my four starting pitchers against any of them, including Chicago's," says Tighe, "but we will have to see if our second line throwers can hold up their end."

Half an hour later yesterday afternoon, Tighe watched the Athletics shellack his starting rookie righthander, Bob Shaw, and two relief pitchers for a dozen hits and a 7-2 Kansas City victory. The defeat knocked the Tigers out of second place.

If that was discouraging—and it must have been—there is a stocky 31-year-old righthanded sinker ball expert who expects to take some of the wrinkles out of Tighe's brow.

He is George Spencer, ex-New York Giant who is trying a comeback after a three-year stint in the minors. He already has been in three of the Tigers' 10 games and notched his first victory in only 3⅓ innings' work.

"It's great to be back in the big show and I want to stay as Jack's short man (late inning reliefer). I hope I can do a solid job and see no reason why I can't," said the personable reliefer.

He has a 16-9 lifetime mark in the majors and pitched for two Giant pennant winners in 1951 and '54.

"He has looked good," says Tighe cautiously. "I hope he can do a job for us."

Spencer won eight and lost three last year pitching 115 innings in 68 games for Indianapolis in the American association. That's less than two innings a game. Would Spencer rather be a starter?

★ ★ ★

"Not on your life. Relief pitching is a challenge and I have a chance of getting in any game. A starter only works every four or five days. That's a drab life."

Spencer relies on a sinking fast ball. He thinks maybe it is easier to get them out for an inning or two in the majors than it is in the high minors.

The 1959 tournament will be held in St. Louis.

Confident White Sox Last, Boston Wins

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Mr. Nice Guy is last in the American League.

For months now, genial Al Lopez has been confident that this is the year his Chicago White Sox would win the pennant. This time, he had the pitching to prevent a repeat of those disastrous 14 defeats in 22 games against the New York Yankees that killed Sox hopes last season.

So what happens? After nine games, his big staff has been able to win only two—and they haven't had to face the Yankees yet. The Big Four look like this: Billy Pierce (0-2), Dick Donovan (0-2), Early Wynn (1-1) and Jim Wilson (1-1)—and only Pierce, last year's 20-game winner, has managed a complete game.

★ ★ ★

Wilson, the veteran righthander, didn't last three innings yesterday as the Cleveland Indians cuffed the White Sox 6-4 for their fifth straight defeat. The Sox lost five in a row only once last season, three of 'em to the Yanks. That was in May and they dipped no lower than second, a half-game behind.

Now they're last, five games back.

★ ★ ★

The Indians ripped Wilson for six hits, one Russ Nixon's home run, in his 2 2-3 innings while building a 5-0 lead. A three-run third, capped by Chico Carrasquel's two-run double, wrapped it up. Minnie Minoso, late of the Sox, drove in two with a single and homer.

★ ★ ★

The Sox were hitless for four against Dick Tomanek, then got six consecutive hits in a four-run fifth. Don Mossi came on and gave just two hits over the last four innings for his first victory. The Sox left five on base and have averaged eight LOB in their losing string.

★ ★ ★

Dick Gernert's pinch single scored the winner for the Red Sox off reliever Billy O'Dell. Jim Piersall drove in two for Boston, one with a homer, and Jackie Jensen's single tied it 3-all in the eighth. Mike Fornieles went all the way for his first victory, giving up seven hits, one a two-run homer by Billy Gardner.

Three-Way Tie for First Spot

LAFAYETTE, La. (AP)—It would be hard to tell that some of professional golf's top players were entered in the $15,000 Lafayette Open today, judging from the leaders as the second round opened.

The little-known trio of Everett Vinzant of Vernon, Tex., Frank Beley of Canton, Ohio and Don Whitt of Alameda, Calif., shared the top spot with 68's.

Trailing the top three were such name players as Jay Hebert, who learned his golf as a boy in the Bayou country around Lafayette; Gary Player of South Africa, winner of the Kentucky Derby Open last weekend; Don January of Eastland, Tex., and Bob Rosburg of Palo Alto, Calif.

Par took a bad beating at the Oakbourne Country Club yesterday, despite the sweltering heat and winds ranging up to 25 miles per hour. Vinzant, Beley and Whitt topped the 15 players who bettered par 71 over the 6,597-yard course.

Walls Hits 3 Over LA Screen in Chicago Romp

Giants Stay Close to Cubs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Memo to San Francisco Giant fans: Your boys are following the same formula that paid off with 1951 and 1954 National League pennants for the New York bunch—win the close ones, and win 'em late.

In '51, of course, the Giants went to an extreme. They led the league in one-run victories, took the race into a playoff and won by coming from behind with one out in the last of the ninth for a 5-4 decision in the final game.

In '54, they won better than half of their close games, and came up with a hero a day in the late innings.

At the moment, the Giants are hanging on, a half-game behind the front-running Chicago Cubs, with last-inning heroics from Daryl Spencer. He banged a two-run homer that capped a six-run comeback in the last two frames for an 8-7 decision over St. Louis Wednesday.

And yesterday the whammer from Wichita drove in the clinching run by beating out an infield hit for a 6-5 victory over the Cardinals, again with two out in the ninth.

★ ★ ★

The Cubs were less subtle, smashing the Los Angeles Dodgers 15-2 with Lee Walls, a kid who hit six home runs all last year, driving in eight runs by belting three homers over the left field screen in the Coliseum. It was the first eight RBI job in the NL since Milwaukee's Joe Adcock did it against the Giants on July 19, 1956.

Hank Aaron cracked two solo home runs as the Milwaukee Braves beat Cincinnati 6-2, and Pittsburgh rapped Philadelphia 7-4 in night games.

The Cardinals, stumbling along in last place, blew a three-run lead as Hank Sauer counted three for the Giants with his fourth and fifth home runs of the season. Ray Katt homered for a 5-4 St. Louis lead in the ninth, but then dropped a throw to the plate as the Giants scored the tying run. Ray Crone was the winner, Billy Muffett the loser, both in relief.

Walls became the 100th major leaguer to hit three or more home runs (the record is four) in one game while building his season total to four—all at the Coliseum, which has seen 24 homers in six games. Bobby Thomson also homered for the Cubs, while the Dodger runs came on homers by Charlie Neal and Don Zimmer.

Rookie Gene Fodge, making his first major league start, gave 10 hits, but won his first for the Cubs' first complete game. Don Drysdale, the most promising member of the Dodgers' young staff, lost it for a 0-3 record.

Warren Spahn, gained his 226th victory for the Braves a day after his 37th birthday. He had a shutout for six, finished with a seven hitter. Brooks Lawrence lost it as four Redleg pitchers gave up eight hits, nine walks, a wild pitch and hit a batter.

Pittsburgh's Bob Friend was two outs from a shutout, then needed Elroy Face's relief after Richie Ashburn's two-run triple and Bob Bowman's two-run homer. Curt Simmons lost his second when the Bucs scored four in the third — three on first baseman Harry Anderson's error.

Weekend Drills for CIO

Two baseball practices for CIO Local 594 of the Class A City League have been scheduled this weekend by manager Art Hearns. The Union team will hold workouts Saturday at Jaycee Park No. 1 and Sunday on Columbia-Joslyn's north diamond. Both drills will run from 2 to 5 p.m.

THURSDAY'S STARS

HITTING — Lee Walls, Cubs cracked three home runs, good for eight runs, in 15-2 romp against Dodgers.

PITCHING — Mike Fornieles, Red Sox gained first victory, first complete game with seven-hit, 10-inning job that beat the Orioles 4-3.

Detroiters Tie for Second

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — The mighty Detroit Strohs blasted a 3,205 series last night and earned a tie for second place in another session of torrid scoring in the 55th American Bowling Congress.

The Motor City quintet rolled games of 1,079, 1,038 and 1,088 to match the score assembled Wednesday night by the lesser-known San Antonio, Tex., Falstaffs.

The St. Louis edition of the Falstaffs continue to dominate this kegling circus with the 3,210 they rolled April 10.

George Howard led off for the Strohs with a tidy 225-211-209—675 series. Other scores in the line-up included Joe Joseph, 654; Captain Tony Lindeman, 648; Bill Golembiewski, 639, and Bob Nickel 589.

The Strohs were captained by Buzz Fazio for nine seasons before he emigrated to St. Louis last summer to form the Falstaff team which is currently leading the tourney.

The Strohs became the third team in the current show to top the 3,200 level. No other event in the 55 year ABC skein has boasted more than one 3,200 score.

The Grain Belt Beer Club of Minneapolis, Minn., rolled 3,054 to earn seventh place yesterday. Jerry Peterson set the pace with 638.

There was a smattering of changes in the minor events early yesterday.

★ ★ ★

Fred Lening and Vince Lucci of Fairless Hills, Pa., collaborated for fifth place in the Doubles with 1,317. Robert Chase of Kansas City, Mo., took fourth place in the All-Events with 1,963 and Al Mut of New Orleans, La., rolled into fourth place in the Singles with 708.

Snider Back in Lineup

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Duke Snider, who tried to throw a ball out of the park and threw his arm out instead, is back at work poorer and sorer.

The Los Angeles Dodgers disciplined their premier flychaser after he came up with a sore arm while engaging in a capricious throwing contest with Don Zimmer. The pair were trying to heave baseballs over the Coliseum stands—which rise 79 rows and 106 feet above the playing field — before Wednesday night's game with the Chicago Cubs.

When Snider was unable to play in the game, the club announced he would be docked a day's pay, about $275, and would draw no more pay until he was able to play again.

The Duke said his arm still hurt yesterday. "But at those prices," he said, "I've got to play." So he did, and went one for three as the Cubs tromped Los Angeles 15-2.

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

Patient's Complaint: Two-iron Trouble.
Diagnosis: Deceived By Appearances.

Treatment: Beginners and other high-handicap players tend to look on the two-iron as a tough club to handle. This club being the least lofted (20 degrees) of the irons, it seems to induce a fear of not getting the ball up. As a result, the player wants to "help" the shot get up by an upward movement with the hands.

Just how wrong can you be? All this movement will do is ruin the shot every time. What you must do is hit down and through the ball with the two-iron, the same as you do with more lofted irons. Do this and the ball will come up and away nicely.

The two-iron loft is just about the same as that of the 4-wood—believe it or not. True, the 4-wood has a larger face area than the two iron, and is therefore a little easier to use. But the two-iron can be mastered with just a little extra practice and confidence.

Lemon Assigned to Coast Club for Workouts

CLEVELAND (AP) — Bob Lemon, the oldest Cleveland Indian in point of service, Thursday night was assigned to the Indians' San Diego club to work out and also instruct young pitchers.

★ ★ ★

The 37-year-old veteran right-hander, placed on the disabled list Wednesday, first joined the club as an outfielder and third baseman in 1941. He has been pitching with the Indians since 1946 and won 20 or more games in seven different seasons.

★ ★ ★

The action was taken by General Manager Frank Lane after Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick ruled Lemon must not work out with the Indians while on the disabled list. Lemon must be on the list for a 30-day minimum.

Wisner Event Matches State Powers Today

Activity in All Sports Scheduled for County Teams

A track meet matching Class A powers Pontiac Central and Flint Northern at Wisner Stadium headed another busy schedule today for Oakland County area sports teams.

PCH was also active on the Saginaw Valley League front in tennis and golf. The Chief golfers were host to Bay City while the netmen met the same school away.

Other track events had Milford and West Bloomfield competing in the Howell Invitational and Ferndale at Cranbrook in the afternoon while under the lights at Fitzgerald tonight Lake Orion battles Troy, Avondale meets Madison and the host Spartans vs Clawson in another Oakland B double triangular.

Milford and Holly were at Clarkston in a Wayne-Oakland triangular and Oak Park was the guest of Berkley in a golf triangular while tennis powers Birmingham and Cranbrook met on the Crane courts.

★ ★ ★

A full slate in the Inter-Lakes League made up the baseball calendar. Farmington played at Waterford, Walled Lake was at Van Dyke and Berkley at Southfield.

The Pontiac-Flint Northern meet was expected to steal the show since the Valley rivals have dominated the Michigan prep track scene for the past four years.

They also have been front-runners in major meets outside the state such as the Mansfield Relays. Pontiac held the overall season edge in 1956 and Northern ranked slightly ahead last season until the Chiefs clinched their 3rd straight Michigan crown.

PCH won the Mansfield meet recently as Flint Northern ranked 5th and the Chiefs had the top slot in a 1-2 finish at the Huron Relays but Northern held the upper hand at the Central Michigan Indoor event two weeks ago. So today's big one could decide the state's top power.

Rams Bow; Romeo, Oxford Win

Milford Nine Tops W-O

Milford took over the Wayne-Oakland League lead while Romeo and Oxford were continuing unbeaten on the prep baseball front yesterday as the area schools braved the cold and strong winds to get in the games.

Gene Wright's St. Frederick Rams had a disappointing opener and Clarkston evened its record at 2-2 in other contests.

An unearned run in the 6th broke up a 2-2 tie as Milford whipped Holly 5-2 despite garnering only four hits. Terry Hoy gained his 4th straight triumph hurling in relief. Milford has won five in a row, two in loop play.

Bob Galan's two-hit 3-0 shutout over L'Anse Creuse in a Tri-County tilt gave Romeo five straight for the season.

Oxford downed Ortonville 8-5 in a South Central battle marred by eight errors and wind-blown hits. Wally Liley was the victor aided by the big bats of Jerry Hight, Jim McCallum and Jeff Brady. Chuck Graves had three of the losers' five safeties. Oxford tops the SCC with 2-0 and is 5-0 overall.

Ram Paul Saghy ruined a no-hitter with his 7th inning single for the only St. Fred bingle in a 7-0 loss to Larry Yezak of St. James in the Suburban Catholic. Five runs in the 3rd off Phil Biery iced the verdict early. Royal Oak St. Mary whipped St. Clement 10-3 in another SCL game.

Clarkston staged its best hitting display of the spring with 15 in slamming Brighton 8-2. The Wolves batted around for five in the six to insure the victory for Jerry Wilmont who got relief help from Dave Gaddis. Bob Porritt, Leroy Parks and Gaddis led the plate barrage with three hits apiece.

North and South Semifinal Today

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP) — Herb Durham of Dallas who says he rarely plays golf out of Texas, and three veteran campaigners used to tournament pressures were bidding for semifinals victories in the North and South Amateur today.

★ ★ ★

Dick Chapman, who has sought the North and South title for 25 years, matched skills with Bill Hyndman, 42, from Abington, Pa., in the other contest.

Survivors will meet over the 36-hole route for the title tomorrow.

Durham supplied the big surprise of the quarter-finals with a 3 and 1 conquest of Walker Cupper Arnold Blum of Macon, Ga. Penrose, three down after 11 holes didn't lose another as he stopped Bob Cochran of St. Louis, 1 up.

Chapman shot even par, the day's best effort over the 7,000-yard No. 2 course of the Pinehurst Country Club, in a 2 and 1 victory over John Ward of Fayetteville, N.Y.

★ ★ ★

Waterford, Vikings, Mikes Track Victors

Waterford raced to victory in the Inter-Lakes Conference and Walled Lake and St. Michael captured triangular outings in area track meets Thursday.

Th Skippers set two school records and won seven events as they defeated Farmington, 66-43, in an I-L affair at Waterford for their 4th straight outdoor victory.

Bill Cole of Waterford ran the 120-yard high hurdles in 15 seconds flat to set a school mark as he lost to Farmington ace Wayne Cauley who nipped him at the wire. Olen Wright posted a Skipper record in the shot with a heave of 47 feet, 2 inches. Cauley won three events while Bill Loveland took two for Waterford.

Frank Fink won three events and anchored the winning 880 relay team to account for 16¼ points as Walled Lake totaled 68 against 37 for Roseville and 34 for Van Dyke. The Vikings took seven events.

St. Mike's improving squad piled up 85½ points to smother Salesian (15½) and Benedictine (14). The Mikes won 11 events with Bill Flanagan and Bob Mineweaser each winning two.

Keego Golf Team Bows

Brighton High defeated West Bloomfield, 189-202, in a dual golf meet Thursday at Pontiac Country Club. Joe Collins of Brighton was medalist with 44 while Terry Kelly had 45 for the Keego golfers, whose record is now 1-1.

Auburn Heights Will Have Diamond Clinic

The first of a series of weekly baseball clinics will be held Saturday, May 3, at the Avondale Junior High baseball field.

A clinic will be held each Saturday during May under the direction of Auburn Heights Boys' Club director Sam Sheehy. He will be assisted by members of the high school team.

Teams will be organized for competition in the Pontiac City Recreation leagues following the final clinic.

All boys who will not be 13 before Sept. 1 should attend the clinics from 10 a.m. to noon and boys 13 to 15 from 1 p.m. to 3. Players should bring tennis shoes and a glove.

Eastern Pros Wallop West Team, 130-117

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—The East National Basketball Assn. All-Stars defeated the West 130-117 Thursday night before 2,500 fans.

Led by Kenny Sears of the New York Knickerbockers and Bill Sharman of the Boston Celtics, the East moved to a one-point lead at half time and gradually increased the margin.

Are NHL Kings Disintegrating?

By JACK SULLIVAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO — Has anyone noticed signs of diintegration in the world champion Montreal Canadiens? Are Maurice Richard and Doug Harvey about to retire because of old age?

Such questions aren't pertinent at this time when the Stanley Cup champions are being hailed in just about every hamlet in the land as possibly the greatest team in the history of hockey. And, certainly, the ageless Rocket and Harvey showed nothing in the playoffs to nourish the thought that they should hang up their tack.

But, since Jack Adams brought up the point, it might be wise to harken to him. The Detroit Red Wings general manager has 42 years of hockey behind him and is regarded as a master of trading and a genius in hockey shrewdness.

He knows all about the decline of Cup and National Hockey League champions. It was never more apparent than this year when his Red Wings finished third, well behind the pace-setting Canadiens, in four straight, and bowed to Toe Blake's men

During the playoffs Adams said, "A good hockey club disintegrates about every five years." He warned it would "happen to the Canadiens, too."

★ ★ ★

"Montreal has a great club, but time is running out on Maurice Richard and Doug Harvey," he added, "when the Canadiens lose those two they are going to have trouble."

Adams was quick to admit that Montreal has a bunch of fellows who give other NHL clubs plenty of trouble "but the Rocket and Harvey are the men who kill you and when they go the Canadiens are going to suffer."

Adams can be so right — and it might have been a different story if the Rocket and Harvey the fired-up Boston Bruins — but had missed the final series against maybe he forgot that Richard was out most of the season and Harvey also was sidelined with injuries and Montreal continued to murder other NHL teams.

Also, the question arises: when are these two fellows ready to call it quits?

The Rocket will e 37 next Aug. 4. He has 16 big league seasons under his belt and he led Cup goal-scorers with 11. Harvey, an 11-year NHL veteran who will be 40 on Dec. 19, is an easy-skating, free-wheeling defenseman who knows how to pace himself and remain on the ice more than 40 more than 40 minutes a game, as he did in the Boston series.

Adams had more to say on the subject. He recalled that when Detroit won the league title seven straight years — 1949-55 — "we actually went over the life span of the club by a couple of seasons, I managed that by dropping in a couple of fresh players every year."

Now, what does he think the Canadiens have been doing. Since the 1954-55 season they've brought up — all from farm clubs — goalkeeper Jacques Plante, defensemen Bob Turner, Jean-Guy Talbot and Junior Langlois and forwards Henri Richard, Phil Goyette, Claude Provost, Andre Pronovost and Don Marshtil.

But that isn't all. The Canadiens could e loaded for years to come.

This season, for instance, Canadien farm clubs the Regina Pats and Ottawa-Hull Canadiens — are meeting in the Memorial Cup finals. Both teams, naturally, are loaded with talent — young fellows who can follow the Goyettes, Turners, Richards, Provosts and Pronovosts who hopped to the big league from juniors.

As general manager Frank Selke of the Canadiens says:

"I think youngsters developed in our own organization are better because they have no divided loyalties."

Selke also could be so right. Three Cup champions in three years speaks for itself.

Gophers, Buckeyes in Key Roles

Big 10 Nines Slated

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Big Ten baseball pennant five opens today with Ohio State and Minnesota in key roles.

Ohio State's Buckeyes, who finished eighth last season, have an impressive 13-1 preliminary record and will start Ron Mischwitz, a southpaw with four decisions, against Iowa in a single game in Columbus.

Minnesota, fifth in 1957, has won 12 straight pre season contests after dropping its first two starts to Texas and Rice.

Other single games today send Illinois to Northwestern, Michigan to Michigan State and Purdue to Wisconsin. Rounding out tomorrow's twin bills, Purdue is at Northwestern, Michigan State at Michigan, Illinois at Wisconsin and Iowa at Indiana.

Ohio State has a fine pitching corps which has a combined 1.62 earned run average. Lefties Don Harpster and Carl Unger, or Jim Rutecki will be the Buckeyes' mound choices tomorrow.

Curve-balling Bob Tedesco is Illinois selection for its opener against defending champion Northwestern. The Illini have a 7-3 preliminary mark. Northwestern is 6-3 and will start Tom Scheuerman, the Big Ten's leading hurler last year. The Wildcats must replace six starters from their pennant team.

Michigan State takes an 8-4 record into its series with Michigan and has pitchers Ron Perranoski (3-1), Dick Badats (2-0) and Bob Rabins (3-1) ready. Five Spartan regulars are batting better than .300 with second baseman Frank Palamara leading with .386.

Michigan has won 10 of its first 12 starts. John Herrnstein has a 10-inning no-hitter to his credit this spring but now is nursing a sore shoulder.

★ ★ ★

Wisconsin and Purdue lost heavily by graduation. Iowa, which shared second place with Michigan and Illinois last year, has eight veterans back and compiled a 6-3-1 southern trip record.

Nominations for State 'Hall'

DETROIT (AP) — Nomination of candidates for the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame will be made in Detroit Tuesday at a meeting of the Michigan Sports Week Committee, it was announced today.

Nick Kerbawy, committee chairman and general manager of the Detroit Lions, said ballots will be distributed to Michigan sports writers and broadcasters.

They will vote for three sports figures, two living and one dead. Selections will be announced during the May 4-10 Michigan week.

Present members of the Hall of Fame are Ty Cobb, Walter Hagen, Gar Wood, Willie Heston, Harry Heilman, Joe Louis, Jack Adams, Charlie Gehringer, Fielding H. Yost, Mickey Cochran, George Gipp and Gordy Howe.

OSU COACH — Paul Walker, who has coached Middletown, Ohio, to five state championships, is a strong candidate for the basketball coaching job at Ohio State University after yesterday's announcement that Floyd Stahl had resigned.

Casper First Round Leader at Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—California's Billy Casper, who rated no better than fifth in pre-battle golf prophecies, today was first in line as play swung into the second round of the $40,000 Tournament of Champions.

The good looking, 26-year-old professional from Apple Valley, Calif., opened fire on the $10,000 target with a first round 33-32—65, seven blows under par for the 36-36-72 Desert Inn Country Club course.

Stranahan, closing out with a spectacular 42-foot putt on the 18th green, had a round of 32-34—66.

Alone at 68 was Gene Littler of San Diego, a young man who has made a successful career out of this tournamnt. Winner of the last three, 27-year-old Gene scored 35-33, and but for an out of bounds shot for a double bogey, would have been closer to the top.

★ ★ ★

In the legal Calcutta Pool, in which individuals or syndicates "buy" a player, Casper rated, in order, behind Ken Venturi, Littler, Doug Ford and Masters Champion Arnold Palmer.

Ford missed 10 of 14 drives and took a 72. Palmer had a poor first nine and ended with a 72.

Still in contention were such contestants as Stan Leonard, Tommy Bolt and Utah's Bill Johnston, tied at 69; Dutch Harrison, Ed Oliver and Roberto DeVicenzo, at 70, and Billy Maxwell and Walter Burkemo with 71.

Bill Casper	33-32—65
Frank Stranahan	32-34—66
Gene Littler	35-33—68
Stan Leonard	35-34—69
Tommy Bolt	35-34—69
Bill Johnson	33-36—69
Robert DeVinzo	33-37—70
E. J. Harrison	36-34—70
Ed Oliver	35-35—70
Billy Maxwell	36-35—71
Walter Burkemo	36-35—71
Arnold Palmer	37-35—72
Doug Ford	37-35—72
Lionel Hebert	37-35—72
Ken Venturi	37-35—72
Howie Johnson	37-35—72
Jimmy Demaret	38-35—73
Gardner Dickinson	35-38—73
Paul Harney	34-41—75
Dick Mayer	39-37—76

Jones Injured, Out of Relays

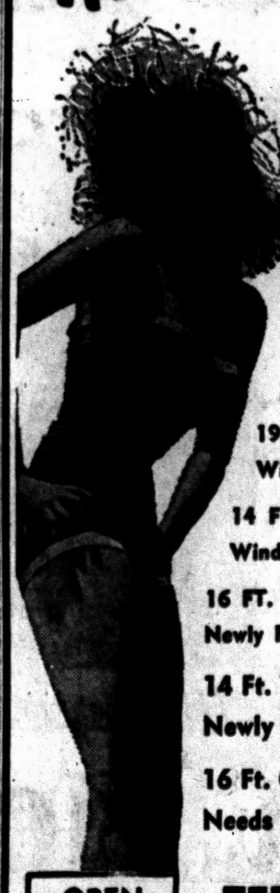

A slight injury suffered by Pontiac star Hayes Jones has caused Eastern Michigan College to drop out of the Drake Relays which begin today at Des Moines.

"Hayes injured his left leg while hurdling and coach George Marshall did not want to take any chances so he withdrew his four-man entry," said Huron publicist Bill Jones today.

Jones had been scheduled to run the high hurdles and anchor the 440 and 880 relay teams. He has been undergoing whirlpool treatments for the ache described by trainer Merril Hershey as "nothing serious."

The other three scheduled for the Drake event will join other EMC thincalds in the Michigan open meet at Ann Arbor.

Teeing Off

By BILL CORNWELL

"This will be as fine a test of championship golf as the women have ever had for their National Open tournament."

Joe Dey, executive secretary of the United States Golf Assn., was the speaker and his glowing words of praise were directed at Forest Lake Country Club, host to the women's USGA Open tourney June 26-29.

The controversial but thoroughly efficient Dey delivered this tribute Thursday afternoon during a press luncheon at Forest Lake CC. The occasion for his remarks was two-fold.

First of all, he came here to inspect the Forest Lake layout, suggest ways of making the course as competitively fair as possible and hash over tournament plans with head pro Bob Gajda and club president Blaine Eynon.

Club officials decided to capitalize on Dey's visit and "kill two birds with one stone." So they invited members of the press, radio and television to the club for an informal tourney information session.

Few if any of us had the chance to run over the plush 18-hole links with a fine tooth comb like Dey, Gajda and Eynon did following the luncheon. But if appearances mean anything, the course will be in marvelous condition when the gals arrive.

Dey's complimentary words made sense, despite the earliness of the season plus a gray, overcast sky and strong, chilly winds which buffeted the area yesterday.

Weather like that seldom brightens your outlook, but it couldn't hide Forest Lake's beauty. Even the rough looked inviting, if that's possible in a game where you try to avoid such things.

Forest Lake has become a popular spot for the lady golfers. They came here in 1955 for the Wolverine Open, then returned the next year for the LPGA. Now they're coming back again after a one-year recess.

They'll find the layout a little bit different this time around. Some changes were made on the course last year, including the revision of six holes on the back nine and turning the 13th hole into No. 1.

SHORT PUTTS

There's a new member of Oakland County's mythical "hole-in one" club. The latest to join is Ted Kraff, who fired the first ace of his career Wednesday at Glen Oaks with a 7-iron shot on the 162-yard 17th hole.

Redskins Ink Texans

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Washington Redskins Thursday announced the signing of two Texas halfbacks on the recommendation of Sammy Baugh, their famed former quarterback.

Baugh now coaches at Hardin-Simmons but his nominees played elsewhere — Charley Sanders of Amarillo for West Texas State and Charles Dupre of Houston for Baylor.

Pontiac Bowlers Leave Tomorrow for WIBC

Ten Pontiac women bowlers, traveling in two cars loaded to the roof and on top with luggage, will depart early tomorrow morning for the Far West to compete in the annual Women's International Bowling Congress tournament in San Francisco.

The Ward's Furniture team, captained by Viola Cargal, and the Pontiac Five, led by Margaret Weber, will be making the trip by auto hoping to arrive by Tuesday night.

Both groups will bowl in team competition the night of May 2 and break up for doubles and singles action the morning and afternoon of May 3.

Also taking part those days will be two other local teams. They are the 300 Lounge, captained by Peggy Bender and Gen Bradley's Huron Bowl aggregation. The latter teams leave next Wednesday by plane.

R & R Motors, which has Ruby Keller as captain, will not leave for the coast until May 10. They bowl May 14.

Thirteen of the area keglers will be serving as delegates to the WIBC convention May 5-6. They are Peggy Bender, Gen Bradley, Eve Miller, Ann Wilson, Bessie Holtz, Fern Bowles, Doris Lanktree, Mildred Anderson, Viola Cargal, Gloria Bonfiglio, Sally Hoffman, Margaret Weber and Gertrude Fleming.

South American Champ

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP) — Ramon Sandoval of Chile, a student at Lamar Tech in Beaumont, Tex., Thursday won the 800-meter race in the South American track and field championships. His time was 1:49.6. Earlier this week Sandoval won the 1,500 meters.

State Fencing Tourney May 3

Oak Park High School Is Site for Michigan Championships

A strong field is expected for the Michigan State fencing championships which will be held Saturday May 3, at Oak Park High School starting at 7:30 p.m.

★ ★ ★

Dick Berry of Royal Oak and Burnie Calkins of Birmingham will head the epee field which also includes Pan-American champion Raul Martinez from Argentina.

Judy Goodrich of Lapeer, member of the 1956 Olympic team, will head the women's field along with 1953 National champion Paula Sweeney and Margaret Danosi, daughter of Wayne State fencing coach.

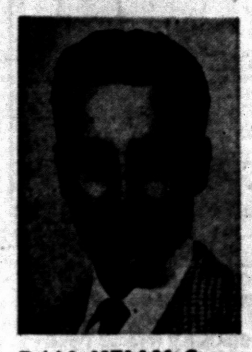

★ ★ ★

The Michigan champions will travel to New York June 29 for the National Championships and then to Philadelphia in August for the World Championships.

Says Agency Merger Wouldn't Affect Jobs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Deputy Budget Director Robert Merriam says a proposed merger of the Federal Civil Defense Administration (FCDA) and the Office of Defense Mobilization (ODM) "shouldn't have any appreciable effect on Battle Creek."

Merriam met with Sen. Potter (R-Mich) and Rep. Johansen (R-Mich) yesterday when the two Michigan officials expressed concern that such a merger would take jobs away from unemployment-troubled Battle Creek. The agency employs 830 persons in Battle Creek.

Merriam said there was "no anticipation of any appreciable removal of personnel" from the Michigan city.

Potter said the only immediate transfers from Michigan in event of the merger would involve budget, liasion and other high-level personnel.

Management Slate for Board Re-Elected Over Attorney's Protests

By DAVID J. WILKIE
AP Automotive Editor

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Studebaker-Packard's management today had an overwhelming vote of confidence from its stockholders.

The shareholders in a meeting that went into the evening hours re-elected a management-sponsored board of directors and they rejected every proposal arvanced by Sol A. Dann, Detroit attorney, who has been fighting the management for nearly two years.

Dann, who said he owned 4,500 shares of S-P stock, enlivened the meeting with charges that Curtiss-Wright Corp. was exploiting Studebaker-Packard; that the agreement with S-P gave Curtiss-Wright 50 million dollars in government contracts, and that Studebaker-Packard directors had made little or no effort to win more defense business.

★ ★ ★

Dann's major proposal calling for a recount of the vote by which Curtiss-Wright was given the contract to operate Studebaker-Packard was defeated, 3,229,391 votes to 469,139.

Dann's candidate for the board, Sol Diamond of Detroit, got 216,723 votes while the 11 present directors were returned with votes of more than 4,800,000 each.

★ ★ ★

Dann's allegations that the Curtiss-Wright arrangement was not properly voted were denied by the management. His demands for answers to certain questions brought from company executives the statement that he was endeavoring to try a law suit at a stockholders' meeting. Dann has filed several suits in this connection.

★ ★ ★

The Detroit attorney frequently was ruled out of order but he refused to be silenced and talked at length.

At one point Dann charged the former Packard plant in Detroit was sold for $750,000 although an original offer of two million had been made for it.

Asks Science, Math for Auto Engineers

EAST LANSING (AP) — A General Motors engineer today advocated more college training in drafting, mathematics and science and fewer elective courses for students planning to enter the field of automotive engineering.

Forest McFarland, executive assistant chief engineer of the Buick Motor Division of General Motors Corp., Flint, made the recommendation at a Michigan State University conference on the role of the engineer-scientist in America.

"Students are not well grounded in their mathematics and basic sciences," McFarland said. "Most do not get to the point where they have mastered the subjects well enough to enjoy them rather than consider them drudgery.

"Too much time is lost in schools on various one and two hour elective courses which could be better spent on basic fundamental classes," McFarland said.

Oils Score Only Consistent Gains

★ ★ ★

An exception was Chrysler which fell about two points below its New York close of yesterday. Chrysler announced a sharp net loss for the first quarter and a reduced dividend after the close.

It had a rise of 1⅛ yesterday on the big board, but sank on the news in Pacific coast dealings.

Oils scored small gains, about the only major group to do so consistently.

★ ★ ★

Bethlehem Steel was fractionally lower, trading at around the same as it closed yesterday on the Pacific coast following news of a earnings which didn't quite match the payout.

U. S. Steel, Phelps Dodge, Du Pont, General Electric, American Tobacco, Servel, Chesapeake & Ohio and Pan American World Airways made fractional gains.

AMC Profits Fall More Than 50 Pct.

DETROIT (AP)—American Motors Corp. says its second quarter profits totaled $2,380,985 or 42.4 cents a share—down more than half from the first quarter.

AMC, whose fiscal year begins Oct. 1, said its first quarter profits were $4,948,736 or 88.6 cents a share.

George Romney, company president, said yesterday that AMC's second quarter sales were $108,765,503, compared with sales of $118,598,502 in the first quarter.

Romney added, however, that "we anticipate profitable operations for the June quarter, but operating results in the final quarter (ending Sept. 30) will be adversely affected by the annual plant shutdowns for vacations, inventory and new model changeovers."

THE WITNESS WON'T TALK — Joseph P. Glimco, president of Chicago teamsters local 777, sits silent in the witness chair before the Senate Rackets Committee, in Washington. Claiming protection of the Fifth Amendment, Glimco refused to say whether the union records he produced under subpoena were complete. He planned a continuous vigil over the records in the Senate office building and vowed to stay with them "six months" if necessary.

Lady Docker Off for London

Weeps a Bit but Bears Up Well Under Rainier Decree of Expulsion

NICE, France (AP)—Lady Docker, banished from the playgrounds of Monaco and the French Riviera, flew off to London today full of outrage.

She wept a little but bore up fairly well under the decree of expulsion by Prince Rainier III of Monaco, who ruled the fun-loving, free-spending lady had insulted his principality.

★ ★ ★

She kissed everyone within range—hotel employes, an airways man, and a baggage handler—pulled her mink coat around her shoulders, and walked up the steps of the plane. With her were her industrialist husband, Sir Bernard, and their son Lance, 19.

She was banished from Monaco for tearing a small paper Monaco flag. She was angry because her son could not get an invitation to the baptism reception for Prince Albert, infant son of Prince Rainier and Princess Grace.

Sir Bernard was expelled because of his wife's action. Through treaty arrangements with France, the banishment was extended to the adjacent French Riviera.

"I am at war with Rainier, not with Grace," Lady Docker said. "If the princess had known I wanted an invitation for my son, she would have given me one. Rainier has the right to do what he wants in his own country, but it is unpardonable to have him upset our beautiful vacation at Cannes. For that I will never pardon him."

Islanders Point With Pride to 'Best Car'

NUKUALOFA, TONGA — "The best car in Tonga," proudly pointed out to visitors in Nukualofa, is the American-made 1956 ranch-wagon belonging to the Marist Sisters Mission.

★ ★ ★

The shiny, new-looking car came from Boston, U.S.A., and the idea behind it dates back to 1950 when an ex-Boston schoolteacher, Sister Mary Susanna, went to Tonga. Her American friends decided to send her a gift—a jeep—but before it happened the Sister became ill, was flown to New Zealand, and died in 1951.

★ ★ ★

Eventually, the Boston people decided to raise even a larger sum and send a vehicle down to Tonga to serve all the sisters. Nowadays it can be seen getting "gas" from a curbside pump, under a sign reading: "Fakatu'utamaki — Tapu Ifi Tapaka" ("Danger—No Smoking"), or being shined up by young Tongan mission helpers after a muddy trip inland.

Chrysler Shifts Executives, Slashes Quarterly Dividend

L. L. COLBERT

NEW YORK (AP) — Chrysler Corp. has made a top level executive shakeup in the wake of first quarter losses of $15,139,802. It also has slashed its quarterly dividend to the lowest level since 1938.

Chrysler President L. L. Colbert told the firm's board of directors at New York yesterday that first quarter sales dropped by 53 per cent from the boom levels of a year ago.

The net loss of $15,139,802 is equal to $1.74 a share and compares with a net profit of $46,545,521 in the first quarter of 1957 when Chrysler Corp.'s swept-wing "forward look" cars were riding high, wide and handsome.

It's the biggest loss for any quarter in Chrysler history.

The dividend was cut to 25 cents a share and is payable June 13 to holders of record May 21. That's the lowest since the second quarter of 1938. In recent quarters the company paid 75 cents.

Colbert said the first quarter loss was chiefly due to a sharp decline in automobile demand and the continued high costs of doing business.

Commenting on the dividend cut, he said, "The company's finances are in excellent condition, and in the best interests of the stockholders its strong cash position should be maintained, not only to meet the keen competitive situation in the industry but also the substantial outlay of capital expenditures that the company's continuing forward program requires."

To strengthen the company's top command, E. C. Row, administrative vice president, was made first vice president and William C. Newberg, formerly group vice president-automotive, was named executive vice president.

Merchandising and sales will be under Byron J. Nichols and manufacturing under R. S. Bright. E. C. Quinn, who has been Chrysler Division president becomes corporation general salesmanager, automotive products, responsible for field operations and distribution.

Earlier this week, Ford Motor Co. reported a decline of 77 per cent in first quarter profits—from $100,500,000 a year ago to $22,700,000. General Motors is expected to announce its results next week.

★ ★ ★

Sales of Chrysler Corp.'s Imperial, Chrysler, DeSoto, Dodge and Plymouth cars showed a greater drop from 1957's first three months than those of its two big competitors. Chrysler Corp. dealers sold 162,800 cars in the first quarter vs. 295,800 a year ago, a decline of 45 per cent. Dealer sales of Ford Motor Co. cars declined 36 per cent—from 456,800 to 291,400, and General Motors dipped 18 per cent—from 696,000 to 568,700.

Upper St. Clair River Free of Ice; Smelt Run

PORT HURON (AP) — The season's first big smelt run developed in the St. Clair River last night.

For the first time since winter, the river's intake from Lake Huron was fairly clear of ice today. Winds pushed most of what was floating by last night to the Canadian side.

James Randolph of Port Huron, one of those smelt-dipping last night, reported he got 2½ bushels of the silvery little fish in three to four hours.

Women in Furs at C&O Meeting

Stockholders in Detroit Told 'Not Alarmed' by Recession

DETROIT (AP)—More than half of the 93,000 stockholders of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway are women.

★ ★ ★

Many of them turned out for the company's annual meeting, which was held in Detroit yesterday for the first time. It was a chilly, windy day and some of the women were chic in fur capes.

The meeting was attended by 1,500 shareowners, who with proxies represented 87 per cent of the ownership. Women made up half the attendance.

The railway's president, Walter J. Tuohy, said, "It is fine the ladies are here in such a large number to provide charm and captivation."

The railway's nine directors, including Tuohy and Board Chairman Cyrus S. Eaton, were re-elected without opposition.

Tuohy noted that C&O earnings had dropped after reaching record levels and said: "You begin to worry about your job." But he said he was not alarmed about the recession and he believes there will be an upturn late this year.

"I firmly believe we will continue to earn our dividends for the year," he said.

A woman stockholder from Lexington, Ky., said she thought management was doing a fine job but she told Tuohy, "Just keep sending us our dividend checks."

Tuohy was asked by a woman stockholder from Ashland, Ky., to turn over one of the company's no longer used steam locomotives to her city to adorn a park. She said it wouldn't cost much to place the locomotive there because the park is near the main track."

★ ★ ★

Week's Car Output Lowest Since '52

DETROIT (INS) — Automotive News estimated this week's U. S. car output at 59,814 units, the lowest weekly total except for model changeover and holiday periods since the steel strike era of 1952.

The six-year low, the trade paper said, is approximately 32 per cent of practical capacity for American car assembly lines. It compares with 73,217 completions last week and 123,633 units in the comparable 1957 period.

Automotive News attributed the decline to the closing of nine of 11 Chevrolet assembly plants and short work weeks and production curtailments by other manufacturers.

This week's truck output was estimated by the publication at 16,419 units as against 16,637 last week and 24,515 in the same period a year ago.

Bandit Doesn't Show Gun

Bank Robbed of $40,000

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) A bandit who wrote threatening notes but didn't show a gun robbed a suburban savings and loan association office of $40,000 last night.

The robber got away with the money in bills while hundreds of grocery shoppers milled about the supermarket which houses the San Antonio Savings and Loan Assn. branch office.

The well-dressed young man walked up to the desk of Asst. Manager Alex Haas. Haas told Detective Capt. Joe Hester the man asked him about depositing some money and how quickly he could withdraw it if he needed it.

After talking calmly for about five minutes, Haas said, the man handed him a note which said: "This is a stickup. Go to the vault, get the money and put it in a bag. I have a gun. Do as I say or I'll shoot you."

★ ★ ★

Haas said he complied with the order and returned to the desk, where the man sat waiting. He was handed a second note reading: "Turn around and act like you are opening the safe. Stay that way for one minute. If you raise up I'll shoot you."

Waterford May Get PTA Unit

Whether or Not to Quit Oakland Council to Be Question Wednesday

Whether to remain a part of the Oakland County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations, or form a separate Waterford Township Council, will be the question to be discussed at an 8 p.m. meeting of PTA representatives, Wednesday at the high school.

★ ★ ★

The question was presented at the last meeting of the group and delegates were asked to return to their respective organizations to decide the question.

Spearheading the proposed Waterford Township Council group is chairman Mrs. Glenn Wolters.

She said, "If at least eight PTAs vote for a township council, we can proceed with our plans to elect a committee to draw up by-laws and set up a nominating committee for council officers."

Pick Koella to Head Assessing Officers

Herman Stephans, auditor for the county equalization department, was elected vice president, William Gallagher, Farmington Township assessor, secretary, and Howard H. Crenshaw, Berkley city assessor, was elected treasurer.

Koella, 50, of 1845 Woodland Dr., Sylvan Lake, had been vice president. He is also Sylvan Lake city assessor.

Kirkway Bridge Improvement Special Assessment No. 43.

Lots 1 thru 4 inclusive Kirkway Subdivision; Lots 1 thru 32 inclusive and Outlot B of Lochalsa Subdivision; Lots 1 thru 5 inclusive of West Lochalsa Subdivision, Section 7, 8, 17 and 18, Bloomfield Township, Oakland County, Michigan.

Please take notice that the Township Board of the Township of Bloomfield has tentatively declared its intention to make the following described improvements:

Raise the south, or Long Lake Road side of the bridge on Kirkway Drive to a height of 24" for a distance of 80 feet from the bridge and to erect the necessary warning or safety signs in connection therewith. Also grading, draining, providing proper gravel base and raising to a maximum height of 24" the approach to the bridge above mentioned on the south of Long Lake Side thereof, located on Kirkway Drive, Bloomfield Township, Oakland County, Michigan; and has tentatively designated the special assessment district against which the cost of said improvements is to be assessed as consisting of all the lots and parcels of land set forth above.

Plans and estimates have been prepared and are on file with the Township Clerk for public examination. The estimate of cost as prepared shows the cost of said project to be $2,000.00.

Take further notice that the Township Board will meet on May 1, 1958 at 7:30 o'clock p.m. at Bloomfield Township Hall, in the Township of Bloomfield for the purpose of hearing any objections to the petition to the improvements and to the special assessment district therefor.

Hurries to Tell Uncle

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—A Denver taxpayer wasted no time notifying the U.S. Internal Revenue Service of an added tax exemption. George H. Allan, Colorado director, received the notice in the mail—a colorful birth announcement card saying that a 6-pound, 13-ounce baby boy had been added to the taxpayer's family. The card contained no other remarks.

May Be Damaged in Efforts to Adjust

Life's Stresses Affect Brain

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The brain takes the brunt of trying to adjust to life's stresses and in the long run it may be damaged by its own persistent efforts, a New York research team said today.

They found that portions of the brain seem to govern a person's ability to adjust and express needs, drives or motives.

This was first measured in one study group of patients who had suffered some brain loss from surgery, usually for a tumor or other ailment. In these cases the exact amount of brain tissue lost was known.

Generally speaking the more brain tissue lost, the more difficulty a person had in adjusting.

The researchers compared this group with a group of persons who had no brain tissue loss through surgery — but who showed long-standing defects in adjustment to their environment and severe chronic anxiety.

In this second group, researchers found subjects reporting loss of their capacity to adjust much the same as those in the first group with brain tissue loss.

They also complained that they became tired readily, felt a slowing of thought or action, had difficulty thinking in abstract terms, had memory defects, poor concentration and difficulty making decisions.

They seemed to narrow their lives and avoided excitement, challenge and adventure. They were less inventive or imaginative, became frustrated easier, and could tolerate less frustration.

★ ★ ★

In fact, they showed the same impairment as did the first group.

Women Voters Pick 2 Topics for Study

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Foreign policy and water resources are the national issues that will be given intensive study by the League of Women Voters over the next two years.

★ ★ ★

The two topics were agreed upon yesterday after 2½ days of debate and the rejection of dozens of amendments.

Their selection completed the main work of the league's 23rd national convention, attended by 1,027 delegates. The meeting ends today with installation of new officers and the adoption of a budget.

In addition to its major areas of study, the league listed five other subjects which it called its continuing responsibility.

These are opposition to limiting executive and congressional powers in foreign relations; measures granting the President authority to veto items in appropriation bills; opposition to constitutional limitation on tax rates; self-government for the District of Columbia; and the federal loyalty security program.

Hobby Ends Here

ROUEN (INS) — Two respected chemical engineers couldn't understand why all the fuss about their "do-it-yourself" hobby, but nonetheless French officials put them on trial for manufacturing counterfeit 100 franc coins (25 cent pieces).

There are about 2,238,000 automatic dishwashers in U. S. homes today.

BROADWAY TO FAIRYLAND — Barbara Cook, who co-stars with Robert Preston in the Broadway hit, "The Music Man," will step off the stage and into fairyland Sunday evening when she will portray Gretel in the NBC-TV spectacular, "Hansel and Gretel." Taking the part of Hansel in the television musical will be Oscar-winning comedian Red Buttons.

Gary Cooper Is Upset by Surgery Publicity

BY EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — When Gary Cooper came out of the hospital last Monday—greatly upset that the news of his facial surgery had been headlined — he was nevertheless good-humored and said to a friend: "They...gave ... me ...some...pills...in...there...and... now...I...don't...talk....so....fast."

WILSON

In answer to questions, "What is a Wilson Girl?", I'd like to say that Hollywood starlet Nora Hayden (nominated by Bernie Kamber) is merely perfect.

We rode out to Brooklyn for Sophie Tucker's opening — and how great! Sophie says she has the 70-year-itch and that it's 10 times worse than the seven-year-itch. She sang "The Grizzly Bear" (San Francisco, 1910), "Alabama Jubilee" (1930) and "Calypso Sophie" (1958) while Gracie Fields, Paul Winchell and others applauded like crazy. Never saw Sophie so great.

NORA

There's going to be a colorful convention in Fort Wayne, Ind., soon, which I wish I could attend.

American railroaders who fought Bengal tigers, leopards and other wild animals, poisonous snakes and malaria in India during World War II, will hold their 12th annual reunion there June 19-21.

They made up the 745th Railroad Operating Battalion of the U.S. Army Transportation Corps. Their job was to see that supplies got through to the India - Burma - China Theater.

And that battle was tough. The railroad men ran through a mountainous jungle which has been described as one of Frank Buck's favorite hunting grounds. Many men died from disease, and almost everyone in the 745th got malaria.

But the 804 miles of the Bengal and Assam Railroad were kept running from March 1944 to September 1955. And the men of the 745th have several medals and citations to prove it. Sahib, fellows, happy reunion!

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Rock Hudson and John Wayne plan a film company together . . . Linda Christian's stepfather will be the doctor for Mexico's next president . . . Bob Hope and the Timex Co. (which fired him from it's TVers once) are palsy again after he did their commercial on the Steve Allen show . . . Arlene Dahl, flying to N.Y. with the baby, phoned ahead to have formula bottles ready at the airport . . . Gene Kelly's buying a home in Switzerland, where his daughter's in school.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: A B'way character says, "I quit work when I found out that I couldn't get along with management OR labor." . . . That's earl, brother.

House Committee OKs Foreign Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A $3,603,000,000 foreign aid authorization bill has been approved by the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

★ ★ ★

This total, 339 million dollars below Eisenhower administration requests, may be trimmed further when the House takes up the measure in the week of May 4. The Senate has not yet acted.

The bill sets terms and ceilings for the aid program in the fiscal year starting July 1. The actual money will be provided later in an appropriation bill.

The foreign affairs group voted $2,958,900,000 in new money for military and economic aid to friendly nations. The committee also allowed use of $644,192,500 already appropriated. Most of this is for economic loans on easy terms.

Red Buttons to Co-Star in Musical Version of Fairy Story

By DICK KLEINER

The pills are designed to cut down the danger of infection. She and Robert Preston, the two stars of "The Music Man," have been handing a cold bug back and forth all winter. All-out war has been declared.

Miss Cook aims to be in her best, healthy voice for her co-starring role with Red Buttons in the big "Hansel and Gretel" spectacular, over NBC-TV Sunday.

Playing Gretel will be something of a challenge. In Grimm's story, the little girl was supposed to be around 8. Barbara is a young, fresh looking girl, but she couldn't even make Bernard Baruch believe she was 8. So the script has been aged until she's a naive 14-year-old.

HER OWN HAIR

She will wear her own hair for Gretel, unloosing it from the neat bun in which she ordinarily ties it and letting it flow. It'll be worn in two braids on the show. Chances are she'll easily pass for 14.

Barbara is currently the reigning young soprano of the musical comedy stage. Her triumph in "The Music Man" follows a personal victory in the artistic failure, "Candide," and a long run as the Amish heroine of "Plain and Fancy."

She's an Atlanta girl who's been singing since she was knee-high to a cornpone. By the time she was in high school, "I was going full blast."

Her graduation present was a trip to New York with her mother. She announced she didn't intend to go back home, an announcement she says her mother simply did not believe. But, when the time came to get the southbound tickets, Barbara made her point clear and her mother was forced to believe her.

"It was a little tearful," Barbara says, "but she accepted it."

CLEAR SOPRANO

She has a crystal clear soprano, and many people assume she's a classically trained singer. She isn't; in fact, she never really studied until about 3½ years ago. She had lessons as a child, but doesn't think they were too much help.

"I never thought I had a chance to sing serious music," she says, "until I got my new teacher. He's increased my range tremendously —my top used to be G, but now I can sing E-flat over high C."

Tells America Not to Let Old Constellation Rot

BALTIMORE (AP) — An Englishman who helped build the Mayflower II says it would be an absolute disgrace to let the old frigate Constellation rot for lack of funds.

Warwick Charlton, London public relations counsel, arrived in Baltimore during a lecture tour. He was the initiator of the Mayflower project and helped sail her across the Atlantic to Massachusetts last summer.

Taking time off to visit the Constellation, he asked how a great port like Baltimore could hesitate to raise $250,000 needed to preserve the ancient vessel.

"No nation can afford to be tight-fisted about its heritage," he said.

Billy Graham Due in Frisco

Six-Week Campaign to Open at Cow Palace Tomorrow

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham arrives tomorrow to launch a six-week crusade in the San Francisco Cow Palace Sunday.

Thus Graham aims to impress upon all who come that the 16,500-seat arena — famed for livestock exhibits, sports events and political meetings — has been transformed temporarily into a church.

Billboards, posters, automobile stickers, bus cards and radio and television announcements herald the evangelist's coming.

A corps of 4,000 counselors, 2,000 ushers, 3,000 vocalists and hundreds of other volunteer workers have been training for weeks. Tonight thousands will gather in a dozen Bay area churches to pray for the revival campaign's success.

When Graham walks to the microphone at 3 p.m. Sunday to welcome the public, it will mark the realization of a 4-year-old dream by two California church leaders.

In 1954, Dr. Robert Munger of the First Presbyterian Church of Berkeley and Dr. Abbott Book, then executive secretary of the Northern California Council of Churches, began to plan for an eventual Graham crusade in the Bay area.

★ ★ ★

Northern California churches cooperating in the effort total 1,175. Graham organization workers say this is the greatest number of different denominations ever to work together on one project in the West.

Pacifists Won't Sail to H-Bomb Zone

HONOLULU (AP) — The four pacifists who planned to sail the yacht Golden Rule into the U.S. nuclear test zone in the Marshall Islands decided to comply with a court order forbidding the venture.

★ ★ ★

Albert S. Bigelow, the Quaker skipper, announced last night the four crewmen would appear in federal court here Thursday for a hearing on the order.

Dist. Judge Jon Wiig issued the temporary restraining order forbidding the pacifists to enter the 390,000-square-mile zone. They had planned to sail today despite an Atomic Energy Commission regulation barring all U.S. citizens and subjects from the area.

★ ★ ★

In a statement to the press, Bigelow said: "We are disappointed that our government has taken this legal action to challenge our right to protest on the high seas against further explosions of nuclear weapons."

Junior Editors Quiz on LEGENDS

QUESTION: Did Mrs. O'Leary's cow start the Chicago fire?

ANSWER: In 1870, the City of Chicago was fifth in size in the nation with a population of more than 300,000. Ten years earlier it was the site of the Republican National Convention which nominated Abraham Lincoln for President.

On Oct. 8, 1871, Chicago was gripped by drought. The weather had been hot and dry for weeks. That night a fire began which spread quickly through the city. Twenty-seven hours later rain began to fall and the fire was put out, but not before 250 persons were killed, 17,450 buildings destroyed and a loss of 200 million dollars incurred.

What started the fire? The story goes that it broke out in the barn of Mrs. Patrick O'Leary on De Koven Street. Her cow supposedly kicked over a lantern while she was milking. According to the story, Mrs. O'Leary denied any part in starting the fire but firemen found evidence in the wreckage of her barn.

The story had never been proved. One can't say definitely whether it is fact or fiction. This is fact: The people of Chicago rallied and rebuilt a city that is now second in size in the nation.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: This is Mrs. O'Leary getting ready to milk her famous cow. You can see the lantern is conveniently ready to be kicked. Paste this picture on cardboard and color the cow light brown. The lantern should have a red glow. Mrs. O'Leary has a bright blue blouse and a light blue apron. She wears a red kerchief over her hair and has red stockings.

State Publishes Vital Statistics

Birth, Death, Marriage Rates Drop, but Totals in All 3 Categories Up

LANSING (AP) — Birth rates, death rates and marriage rates are declining in Michigan but the totals in all three categories are going up.

Live births climbed to a record 208,063 last year, 2,000 more than the old record set the year before, the department said. At the same time, the birth rate fell from 27.4 per 1,000 population in 1956 to 26.7 last year.

Wedding bells rang as often as ever before, but with a population increase of 287,000 in 1947, the marriage rate fell from 15.5 per 1,000 population to 14.1 The figure was the lowest since 1938.

The ratio of deaths to population was the lowest last year since the department adopted its present reporting methods 60 years ago. Deaths rose to a record 65,944 but the rate declined from 8.6 per 1,000 population to 8.5.

The department said the death rate has been dropping steadily since 1918, when it stood at 15.6.

A major factor in the dropoff was a decline in the stillborn and infant deaths, the department said.

Foxy Squirrel Finally Tricks Himself in Chase

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Four firemen and a policeman were called to St. John's Catholic school to capture — preferably alive — a squirrel that had bitten two students. Authorities wanted to test it for rabies.

In the end, the squirrel outfoxed himself. As the firemen leaned a ladder on a tree to go after him, the squirrel tried to leap to a safer perch, missed and ran under an automobile.

He was pulled out from under the hood — but not before he chewed through a generator wire.

Normal Truck Loadings Start in UP Saturday

LANSING (AP) — Normal truck loadings will be allowed on all state trunklines in the Upper Peninsula effective Saturday, with a few exceptions, the State Highway Department announced today.

Exceptions will be on M67 between Chatham and Trenary, M117 north of Newberry, M64 between Bergland and White Pine, U.S. 41 between Deleware and Copper Harbor and U.S. 141 between Amasa and Covington.

To Satisfy Gourmets

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — A cafeteria for gourmets opens here next month. The menu will include such dishes as caviar, grenadine of beef in bearnaise sauce and cheese souffle, a spokesman for the Ontra cafeteria chain said.

Firing of Nurse Upheld in Patient Abuse Case

LANSING (AP) — Firing of a Northville State Hospital employe for abuse of a mental patient has been upheld by the State Civil Service Commission.

Uncover Escape Plot

BALTIMORE (AP) — Officials at the Maryland Penitentiary became suspicious when they saw sugar spread across the floor. They began a search and uncovered an escape plot. Prisoners Robert Ellinger and James C. Bradford had planned to escape and put the sugar on the cell floor to warn of the approach of guards. Both men were placed in isolation.
