Cuba Said Set to Recognize Chinese Reds

Trade Pact Also Seen; Moves Would Destroy Latin Common Front

NEW YORK (AP) — Fidel Castro's regime is getting ready to establish diplomatic ties with Red China, the New York Times said today.

The move would break the solid Latin American front against recognizing Peiping and would arouse concern in the United States, which has spearheaded the move to keep the Chinese Communists out of the Western Hemisphere.

Times correspondent Tad Szulc wrote from Havana that Cuba was also reported planning a major trade pact with the Communist Chinese and had invited Premier Chou En-lai to visit Cuba.

Diplomats believe relations with Peiping will be established before July 26, anniversary of the 1953 uprising from which Castro's revolutionary movement took its name.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev who has accepted Castro's invitation to visit Cuba, might arrive at that time, the Times said, and Chou may also be on hand.

Cuba has been cementing ever closer ties with the Soviet bloc and has maintained unofficial relations with Peiping for some time. Observers took it for granted after Castro resumed diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union last month that he would soon recognize Red China.

The United States is certain to view recognition as a hostile move, the Times said.

U.S. diplomats are also concerned that with Soviet and Red Chinese embassies functioning in Havana, Red activities throughout Latin America will increase tremendously.

The reported Havana-Peiping trade pact is believed to call for sale to China of 500,000 tons of sugar—Cuba's reserve after she has disposed of this year's crop. Red China bought and paid for 130,000 tons of Cuban sugar this year.

SCHOLARSHIP FOR MOM — Mrs. Alice McLeod, 21, of Royal Oak, will add the role of student to those she now has as wife and mother of three children. Mrs. McLeod, who quit high school at 16, has won an all-expense college scholarship to Michigan State University Oakland after attending three years of night classes.

Machinists Quit Work Across the Country

Labor Disputes Could Stall Much of Rocket, Aircraft Industry

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Union machinists today struck key Atlas missile bases from California to Florida — first walkout in labor disputes that could tie up a major portion of the aircraft-missile industry.

Among those hit is the huge missile base at Cape Canaveral, Fla., where the nation's major missiles are tested.

At the Cape, 800 members of the International Assn. of Machinists set up picket lines that were observed by sympathetic members of some other unions.

Launchings and construction activities were expected to be slowed.

Also hit were Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., site of the only operational launch pads for the Atlas Intercontinental rocket; Warren Air Force Base, Wyo.; and Offutt AFB, Neb.

The midnight walkout was aimed at the Convair division of General Dynamics, which makes the Atlas.

Pickets appeared at the headquarters plant here this morning, urging workers to attend a mass meeting.

Union officials said the local work stoppage was not a strike but only a stoppage—at least until after the meeting.

OTHERS MENACED

Meanwhile, strikes authorized by Union members—but not yet called—threaten production of such other defense items as the submarine-launched Polaris missile and the MIDAS, SAMOS and Discoverer satellites.

Polaris is made by Lockheed's missile and space division, with solid-fuel engines supplied by Aerojet-General.

The IAM is expected to file a strike notice Friday at Lockheed, which also makes the second (orbiting) stage of the Midas, Samos and Discoverer.

★ ★ ★

Atlas will power the Midas missile-detecting and the Samos television-reconnaissance satellite.

At Douglas Aircraft Co., maker of the Thor IRBM and other missiles, the IAM has authorized a strike if necessary against the El Segundo plant, and a similar authorization is expected Wednesday for the Santa Monica plant.

Union officials from the Long Beach, Tulsa and Charlotte plants met yesterday to consider giving

Eye Expansion of Courthouse

Supervisors to Vote on Ballot Designation for Millage Increase

Important expansion plans for the new county courthouse will be laid before the Board of Supervisors tomorrow.

Primary among them will be a vote to determine whether county voters in the Aug. 2 primary should cast their ballots on a four-year half-mill tax increase levy to finish the seven million dollar courthouse project.

In a committee-of-the-whole meeting in Detroit recently, supervisors indicated they were willing to place the question before the voters.

Tomorrow's vote makes it official — one way or another.

RACE CALENDAR

Supervisors are racing the calendar to get the question on the primary ballots. Deadline is June 14, according to Norman R. Barnard, corporation counsel.

Courthouse planning supervisors have decided now is the time to add four additional buildings to the under-construction courthouse tower unit in the County Service Center off Telegraph road.

Supervisors need four million dollars to complete it.

The 83-member Board of Supervisors tomorrow will also be asked to approve a $55,233 contract for construction of a storm sewer at the site, discuss installation of another $14,000 well there, and approve the final form with Pontiac for relocation of West boulevard to make way for the additional buildings.

Other items on the agenda include setting up a policy to avoid legal hassles encountered over incorporation expenses incurred by the county.

A lawsuit involving Southfield was recently won by the county.

Waterford Township Supervisor Elmer R. Johnson will also present a petition for the county to establish a level for Cass Lake.

More county-owned lands will be put on the selling block if supervisors approve their sale Tuesday.

Ike Takes Pot Shots at Mr. Khrushchev

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP)—President Eisenhower is back among his West Point classmates of 1915 today after a one-two rap at Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and a round of warm public receptions.

The President, taking part in a full day of alumni activities, decided to fly back to Washington Tuesday morning instead of late tonight after another reunion dinner.

His program today includes the traditional march with men of his class, a review of the cadet corps on the plain above the Hudson River, and a brief speech at an alumni luncheon.

Eisenhower arrived at the United States Military Academy Saturday afternoon, then interrupted his visit Sunday to fly to South Bend, Ind., to accept an honorary degree and make the commencement adress at the University of Notre Dame.

At Notre Dame the President took a crack at world leaders he accused of brandishing "angry epithets, slogans and satellites."

He called them enemies of human dignity. Eisenhower didn't mention Khrushchev by name but there was no doubt the Kremlin leader was a target.

It was the second time within 48 hours that the President had jabbed at the man who has been vilifying him for three weeks.

Saturday night Eisenhower left the 45th reunion dinner of his class and made an informal talk near West Point at a Republican banquet. He reminisced a few moments about his cadet days and then turned specifically to the Khrushchev tirades against him.

"Many of the excesses, particularly the ill-tempered expressions of Mr. Khrushchev have really brought the West closer together than I have known it," Eisenhower declared to a round of applause from his audience of 1,500 diners.

Set High Honor for Ike

MANILA (AP) — President Eisenhower is to receive the Philippines' highest decoration on his mid-June visit to this Asian ally of the United States. The decoration is the Rajah of the Order of Sikatuna, symbolizing a blood compact between brothers.

UP Man, 70 Fights Bear 20 Minutes

ENGADINE (AP)—Arthur LeGault, 70-year-old pulpwood cutter, fought an angry female black bear for 20 minutes Sunday before driving her off with his jackknife.

★ ★ ★

His wounds were treated today at Tahquamenon General Hospital in Newberry. He suffered severe claw cuts on the back and face.

LeGault's encounter with the bear occurred in a forest near this Upper Michigan community.

LeGault, still in shock and unable to give a coherent account of the attack, said the animal attacked without warning and his only defense was a jackknife. He said the bear ripped off part of his clothing but he finally chased it away by stabbing at its eyes.

HAS TO WALK HOME

In the fight Le Gault lost the keys to his truck and he had to walk a mile back to his home. His wife drove him to the hospital.

Two veteran hunters, Arnold Norman and Tom Singleton, said the bear had two cubs and it appeared that Le Gault, without realizing it, had approached the cubs too closely and angered the mother bear. The bear ran off, avoiding the hunters.

Attacks by Upper Michigan bears on humans are not frequent. But a 2-year-old girl was killed and partly eaten by a bear at Mission Hill 26 miles west of Sault Ste. Marie in July of 1948.

★ ★ ★

LeGault had a scrimmage with a bear several years ago. But he was armed then with a rifle and killed the bear.

Young Mother of Three Wins MSUO Scholarship

As a 16-year-old sophomore five years ago, Alice McLeod quit at Kimball High School in Royal Oak to get married. Chances of her ever finishing a college education were 1,000-1.

Today, the odds are in favor of the pert 21-year-old mother of three.

It's through no chance that Mrs. George McLeod is all set to attend Michigan State University Oakland this fall — she has earned an all-expenses paid scholarship.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. McLeod, of 128 N. Gainsborough St., Royal Oak, said she decided soon after quitting school to continue her formal education. She said she was "bored with just staying home."

"I knew the stereotype that people had of teen-agers who got married," she added. "I was determined that the stereotype was not going to apply to me."

She wanted to become a teacher. So she attended night classes for three years, fitting them in with caring for a growing family. It now numbers Mary Ellen, 3, David, 1, and Raymond, 2 months.

Her husband, a water meter reader for the City of Royal Oak, helped with the dinners and got the youngsters ready for bed, tucked them in and washed dishes on school nights.

He said he was "real proud" of his pert wife. "She does a lot of extra work for her classes, and an awful lot of outside reading, too. She's always studying," he said.

Since she went back to school in September 1957, Alice has made straight A's except for a B in typing.

★ ★ ★

Adult education officials encouraged Alice to take the test for the MSUO scholarships. She and nine others of 70 contestants won the all-expense awards at the university.

Going to college, Alice acknowledges, will present more problems. She is working part time in a Detroit department store to save money.

She expects continuing help from her husband. Her mother Shirley Gardiner of Berkley, will help care for the children.

U. S. Probe Urged of Gas Price Boost

LANSING (AP) — Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams today asked a federal investigation to determine whether gasoline companies conspired together in boosting gas prices four cents a gallon last week in the Detroit area.

Adams asked U.S. Atty. Gen. William Rogers to direct a probe into circumstances of the simultaneous price increase. The state does not have proper staff or facilities for such an investigation, he said.

"It seems curious that whenever one of the gasoline companies sends up the price kite, the tail, made up of all the other companies, follows swiftly," Adams said.

Coast Campaign Starts to Boil

Dems, GOP in Angry Clash as Primary Vote Slated Tomorrow

By the Associated Press

The campaign in California's presidential primary suddenly is bristling with controversy.

Angry charges and counter-charges burst out in a busy weekend of politics that also found Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York acting like a Republican candidate and two Democratic senators hunting votes in Minnesota.

Democrats and Republicans vote in California's primary Tuesday.

The Republican presidential preference ballot lists only Vice President Richard M. Nixon. The Democratic ballot lists Gov. Edmund G. Brown and a minor candidate, George H. McLain.

The campaign, dormant for weeks, livened after Brown called for a heavy Democratic vote to swamp the turnout for Nixon.

A former congressman, Patrick Hillings, wrote Los Angeles Republicans that such a vote would be interpreted by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev "as an indication that the administration's tough attitude toward communism is not supported by the American people."

Brown attacked the letter "as the ugly tactics of the old Nixon and 11th hour McCarthyism." Adlai E. Stevenson, the 1952 and 1956 Democratic presidential candidate called on Nixon to repudiate the letter.

Bell Employes Will Get Raises in 3-Year Pact

DETROIT (AP) — Michgain Bell Telephone Co. and the Communications Workers of America agreed early today on three-year contracts covering 16,800 employes.

★ ★ ★

Company and Union officials had negotiated since April 26. The new contract provides increases ranging from $1.50 to $4.50 weekly and increased fringe benefits. The old contract expired at midnight Thursday, but Bell employes continued working.

★ ★ ★

The new agreement covers plant, traffic and accounting departments. Michigan Bell said the three-year agreement is the longest in its history and includes a provision for two annual wage reopeners.

In Pontiac, operator's wages, now $74 a week, will be increased to $76.

Plant switchmen, repairmen and cable splicers who now have maximum weekly wages of $123.50 and $105.50 will be raised $5 per week. Those with maximums of $113, $116, $113 and $108 will all be raised $4 a week.

Briggs Unchanged After Serious Stroke

BENNINGTON, Vt. (AP)—Walter O. (Spike) Briggs, 48, noted sports figure and former president of the Detroit Tigers, lay in critical condition here today following a cerebral hemorrhage.

Briggs, the scion of a prominent Detroit family, came east to attend the graduation of a son, James, from Williams College, at nearby Williamstown, Mass. The football and baseball player graduated Sunday, but Briggs didn't make the ceremony.

She said he was not in a coma, but did not seem to be aware of what was going on.

Mrs. Briggs said today there appeared to be no change in her husband's condition but that physicians gave him a "50-50 chance."

With him when stricken were Mrs. Briggs and another son, Walter III, a Detroit advertising ex-

Back Candidate for Lt. Governor

Grand Rapids Man Is Endorsed by Labor but Top Post Skipped

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Efforts were being made today to have the Michigan AFL-CIO Council convention now in session here refrain from endorsing anyone for governor.

★ ★ ★

But State Council President August Scholle was of the "personal opinion" that Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson has the strongest support.

Meanwhile, attorney Richard F. VanderVeen has the backing of Michigan's top labor echelon for Democratic nomination as lieutenant governor in the Aug. 2 primary.

Scholle looked for no real pressure from the convention floor to endorse any of the three candidates for Democratic nomination for governor.

"I don't think there was ever any real drive for it . . . but we took precautions to avert one," he said.

VanderVeen, 37, of Grand Rapids, is making his second bid for public office.

He was defeated in November 1958 for the Fifth District (Kent-Ottawa counties) representative by Republican incumbent Gerald R. Ford Jr.

VanderVeen won council executive board endorsement last night after a weekend screening of six candidates for the post.

★ ★ ★

In a caucus prior to the executive board meeting, the board and Committee on Political Education (COPE) recommended the convention approve a 1 per cent per capita membership tax boost to establish a citizenship and education fund.

Strikes Stall U. S. Atlas Missile Work

Douglas a seven-day contract termination notice.

An Air Force spokesman said war-readiness at Vandenberg Air Force Base, the nation's only operational intercontinetal ballistic missile base, will be maintained despite the walkout.

Negotiations by the IAM are in behalf of the Atlas base workers along with 22,726 at the San Diego plants and 2,869 at a plant at Pomona, Calif.

The dispute is over wages and other benefits. Convair's last offer was an 11-cent hourly wage increase and a 3-cent cost-of-living raise which would be incorporated in the permanent wage. The union said the offer was inadequate.

Present machinists' scale ranges from $1.79 to $3.40 an hour. The machinists seek a 14-cent hourly pay increase over a two-year period.

Fire, Water Damage Home on South Blvd.

★ ★ ★

The fire was discovered by two men who were driving by. One ran to the front door and the other to the back door of the Davis home to alert the occupants.

Mrs. Davis was home with her sister, Mrs. Isabelle Follette, who is staying with her. They called the Pontiac Township fire department while the men got out the garden hose to spray water on the burning roof.

The blaze was brought under control in about a half an hour. Cause of the fire and extent of damage still are undetermined, according to Fire Chief Carl Schingeck.

Teacher Seeks Drain Office

31-Year-Old Sol Plafkin of Hazel Park Has Had Related Experience

A Detroit school teacher and a resident of Hazel Park has announced he will seek the Democratic nomination for Oakland County drain commissioner in the Aug. 2 primary.

Sol F. Plafkin, 31, of 1011 E. George St., said he believes the county's drainage problems "can be constructively met by a liberal Democratic program which can come forth with realistic solutions."

Plafkin is a former reporter for the Ypsilanti Daily Press, a position which enabled him to work closely with that city's government on drainage and sewage control.

Also a former member of UAW Local 400 and the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, the candidate is presently chairman of Local 231 of the Detroit Federation of Teachers (AFL-CIO).

Plafkin is a member of the Americans for Democratic Action, National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), and the Young Democratic Clubs of Oakland County.

He has earned a bachelor's degree in sociology from Wayne State and a master's degree in the same field from the University of Michigan.

The candidate is a graduate assistant in metropolitan Detroit area studies, having analyzed problems concerning the metropolitan area, particularly drainage and sewage problems in relation to urban areas.

$100,000 Donated to Beloit College by Mrs. Wilson

A $100,000 gift to the Beloit College library fund in Wisconsin has been made by Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson who, with her husband, helped create Michigan State University Oakland.

The Wilsons attended commencement exercises over the weekend at the school, at which time Miller Upton, college president, made public the gift.

Mrs. Wilson and her husband, a graduate of the school, are trustees. Wilson has been on the Board of Trustees for 30 years and Mrs. Wilson for the past several years.

The Wilsons jointly gave the college $50,000 toward the remodeling of a student union there several years ago.

Mrs. Wilson's latest contribution brought the total pledged toward construction of the $1,200,000 library to $1,093,000, Upton said.

Area Ad Agency Cofounder to Hall of Fame

NEW YORK—The late James R. Adams, cofounder of MacManus, John & Adams, Inc., Bloomfield Hills advertising agency, today was elected to the Advertising Hall of Fame in ceremonies which featured the annual convention of the Advertising Federation of America.

★ ★ ★

The citation was accepted by Charles F. Adams, executive vice president of the agency, and son of Adams. Also present were Ernest A. Jones, agency president, and John R. MacManus, senior vice president.

MacManus' father, the late Theodore F. MacManus, also an agency cofounder, was similarly honored in 1945—making today's award the first instance of one agency represented by two persons in the Hall of Fame which is maintained in the Advertising Club of New York.

Elections are posthumous and just 52 advertising notables are to be selected by the year 2000.

Election is on the basis of "special achievement and service in the upbuilding and advancement of the social and economic values of advertising."

James R. Adams with MacManus and W. A. P. John founded the agency in 1934. It now ranks among the largest in the United States and represents more than sixty accounts in this country and abroad.

Beats Girl, 15, With Steel Pipe

Her Screams Scuttle Attacker at Marshall, Judson Streets

A married 15-year-old Pontiac girl was beaten with a steel pipe last night by a man who jumped from behind a hedge at the intersection of Marshall and Judson streets.

The screams of Janice Shipp, 303 S. Anderson St., were heard by Mary Lee Dunway, 149 S. Marshall St., who called police at 11:15 p.m.

Mrs. Shipp told police she was walking south on Marshall when the attacker jumped from behind the bushes.

"Oh, I'm sorry. I thought you were someone else," she quoted him as saying. Then he started beating her with the pipe and kicking her, she said.

She said the assailant jumped into a car and fled when she screamed. She ran to the home of Roy E. Lewis, 173 S. Marshall St., and called officers.

She was treated for bruises at Pontiac General Hospital and released.

W. Frederic Jackson Dies in Hospital

Service for W. Frederic Jackson, 66, of 145 Illinois St., will be at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Farmer-Snover Funeral Home.

Mr. Jackson who had been employed as a printer at The Pontiac Press since 1919, died Saturday in Pontiac General Hospital.

He had been an elder and chairman of the board of First Christian Church for 18 years as well as president of the Men's Fellowship Group. Mr. Jackson was also a 40 year member of the Pontiac Typographical Union.

He is survived by a daughter, Marla Lee Jackson, at home.

Burial will be in White Chapel Cemetery.

REMEMBER WHEN—Lots of old and pleasant memories were renewed recently at the Bloomfield Township home of Mrs. Alfred E. Grann, 6700 Oakhills Dr., during the visit of Wolfgang von Dorrer, adviser to the minister of transport in Chancellor Conrad Adenauer's West German government. The German official stopped over in Oakland County to renew a friendship dating back to 1931. He's in this country to study transportation systems.

Visiting German Engineer Emphatic

Calls for Toughness With Mr. K

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

A man who knows what it is like to be tough urges Americans to give Nikita Khrushchev a taste of his own medicine.

Wolfgang von Dorrer, a German visitor to Bloomfield Township who has seen his native country go from a hot to a cold war, says this country must get a little tough with the acid-tongued Soviet premier, who of late is off on a rampage of castigating President Eisenhower.

Von Dorrer likened Khrushchev to a big bully who continues beating up smaller children after he tastes the success of flooring his first victim.

"You people have to tell Khrushchev that the language he uses makes it impossible to have any contacts with him," Von Dorrer said.

"Your country or ours can't give in to him because then he will think he is boss, and we can't be bossed by this creature."

LEARNED HARD WAY

Von Dorrer knows what it is like to stand your ground.

As adviser to Dr. Seebohm, minister of transport in Chancellor Conrad Adenauers West German cabinet, Von Dorrer has learned the hard way not to let the Communistic East Germans bully their way into the free zone.

The 54-year-old engineer is in this country for a month along with 11 other German government and private transportation officials to study our methods of coordinating means of transporting goods.

But before setting out for Washington yesterday, Von Dorrer could not pass up an opportunity to visit Mrs. Alfred E. Grann. He had first met her in 1931 when he was an exchange engineer with the old Packard Motor Car Co. and Murray Body Corp. in Detroit.

★ ★ ★

From the visiting group's trips to Washington, Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland and Philadelphia, it is hoped the Germans can create a smoother, more economical and faster system of transporting goods.

A goal is the possible formation of a common market among European nations for transportation, as opposed to what Von Dorrer says is today a "broken" system between the different countries.

"With this in mind," he said, "we'll probably study very closely your interstate commerce system during our stay."

Today with the zones of Berlin separated by checkpoints everywhere, transportation is a hodge-podge of delays, the visitor said.

At first, he was reluctant to discuss the hot topic of troubles brewing over East and West Germany and the dream of all "free" German people — a unified Germany. Von Dorrer said he prefers to leave this discussion to the politicians.

"But everything we do in Berlin and the rest of Germany seems to be political in one way or another," he said.

His description of the situation: "We're in a state of well kept hostility." The cause: Mr. K.

What the East Germans need more than anything else is an opportunity to exercise democratic free elections to decide what form of government under which they wish to live. But such a desire is almost impossible as long as Communistic Khrushchev continues to pull the strings of the East German government.

"Of course," Von Dorrer said, "Khrushchev knows in this case his puppet government would be thrown out by these votes."

As others have claimed before him, Von Dorrer said peace in Europe depends largely on a unified Germany. Although he said the tension between the two Germanys is building up, he added, he doesn't believe the cold war will lead into another hot war.

He held out little hope for a successful Summit conference on Khrushchev's terms.

Lessening the chances for bringing the two German sides together is the fact that the Soviet dictator is nearing a separate peace treaty with East Germany, Von Dorrer fears.

"And it will not be backed by the free will of the East Germans."

Troy's Yanich Ruled 'Lawful'

Judge Holland Decides Job on Commission Still His

Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland today ruled that Louis Yanich is a "lawful commissioner" of the City of Troy.

★ ★ ★

A suit was brought in April by Prosecutor George F. Taylor at the request of Troy taxpayer Leo J. Claugherty of 1085 Brooklawn Ct.

Claugherty questioned the right of Yanich to serve on the seven-member Troy City Commission after he resigned his post last December.

Yanich withdrew his resignation verbally the following month. He said this should be sufficient as it was recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Judge Holland ruled in favor of Yanich this morning, pointing out in his ruling that the resignation was never accepted by the Commission and that the commissioner voluntarily chose to continue serving.

"Tendering of a resignation is not irrevocable," he ruled.

The decision came on a motion by Yanich's attorney Theodore F. Hughes to rule Yanich the "lawful occupant" of the Commission seat because his resignation was never accepted.

★ ★ ★

Claugherty, a member of a taxpayers group opposing some of Yanich's action, ostensibly filed the writ with Taylor's office to get a legal ruling on city questions which Yanich voted on after his Dec. 12 resignation.

Collision Injures Two in Waterford Township

Two Waterford Township drivers were injured at 2 a.m. Saturday as one attemped to make a left turn off West Huron street, near Elizabeth Lake road.

Andrew C. Suhart 39, of 2550 Ostego Rd., told Waterford Township police that he was driving his car in the right lane of traffic and started to make a left turn. He misjudged the speed of a car behind him driven by David A. Mason, 32 of 7373 S. Shaker St. and turned into its path.

Suhart is in satisfactory condition at St. Joseph's hospital with lacerations to the head and right hand, and Mason was treated for abrasions to the head and released, hospital attendants reported.

Driver Grabs Boy From Danger on School Bus

The alert action of a school bus driver in Southfield Friday saved a 10-year-old boy from possible injury or death.

Bill Hathaway, 54, who drives a school bus for St. Michael Parochial School in Southfield, said he was checking traffic on Telegraph road as he slowed on 12-Mile road to make a crossing when he caught a glimpse of the young passenger opening the bus door.

"The boy was starting down the doorsteps when I grabbed him," the driver said. "His lunch box flew out the open door and landed under the still - moving bus wheel. It could have been the boy," he added.

The lunch box was flattened.

"If I'd had to stop quick, the boy probably would have flown out the door," said Hathaway, who has been driving school buses two years without an accident.

★ ★ ★

He warned parents to instruct their children to remain seated on the bus until it comes to a complete stop.

Light Hearing Tonight in Waterford Twp.

A street light hearing for the Loon Lake Shores subdivision is the only business on tonight's Waterford Township Board meeting agenda according to clerk James E. Seeterlin. The establishment of a street lighting district involves 48 assessments costing each owner $4.73 annually. Forty people had filed petitions for installation of street lights.

Seeterlin said that the Board may also discuss the contract with township engineers Johnson & Anderson on the proposed township inter-connecting water system. The firm had presented a proposed contract to the Board at last week's meeting.

Gets 5- to 10-Year Term for Wounding His Wife

A Pontiac man who shot his estranged wife during an attempt at reconciliation last November today was sentenced to 5 to 10 years in Jackson Prison by Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams.

Austin Stewart, 55, of 182 Elm St., was found guilty by a Circuit Court jury of 10 women and two men last month.

He was convicted of assault with intent to do great bodily harm in the Nov. 7 nonfatal shooting of his wife Rosalee.

Commission to Consider Court Clerk Transfer

BIRMINGHAM—A proposal to transfer the Municipal Court clerk's operation from the city clerk's office to the Violations Bureau is expected to be acted on at tonight's City Commission meeting.

With the proposed transfer it has been recommended by City Manager L. R. Gare that Mrs. Ann Bosworth be appointed court clerk and City Clerk Irene Hanley be appointed deputy court clerk.

In a letter to commissioners, Gare stated: "For administrative reasons the entire court operation was not transferred to the Violations Bureau when it was established.

"It would appear that it would be feasible at this time to complete the consolidation of all court activity in the Violations Bureau."

Gare said that he has received a letter from Municipal Judge John C. Emery Jr. consenting to the proposed two appointments.

The Franklin Cemetery Auxiliary will meet Thursday at 1 p.m. for a picnic luncheon at the home of Mrs. Floyd Beardslee, 725 E. Square Lake Rd. A business meeting will follow the luncheon.

ecutive. A third son, Mickey, attends Harvard.

The late Walter O. Briggs Sr., founder of Briggs Manufacturing Co. and long-time owner of the Tigers, broke his son into baseball.

When Briggs Sr. died in 1952, Spike became president of the Detroit Baseball Co. He sold the club in the fall of 1956 to a group of businessmen for a then-record $5,500,000. Briggs became general manager, but resigned under fire in 1957.

DIRECTED REMODELING

Briggs supervised the remodeling of Briggs Stadium, home of the Tigers and the Detroit Lions of the National Football League.

He is a member of the executive committee of the Detroit Football Co., owner of the Lions, and was one of the founders of the new NASCAR auto race track at Daytona Beach, Fla.

Webster Registration Time Periods Noted

Webster School officials have corrected the times for kindergarten registrations tomorrow and Wednesday for their school.

Registrations Tuesday June 7 will be from 1 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. Wednesday, the registrations will be from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

The Press in an earlier story erroneously stated that registrations for those two days will take place all day. The Press regrets the error.

A GOOD CREDIT RECORD
FOR HER
SHINING FUTURE

For a successful married life and to build the most solid foundation for the future it's most important to create and protect a good credit record by buying wisely and paying promptly. In this simple manner you create a permanent record that is a mark of personal prestige.

A good credit record enables you to always buy the things you need without accumulated cash and to pay for them out of future income—it provides security for your family's future—it carries you over small setbacks, should they happen in future years. Protect your credit record for the shining future—it pays.

Judge Sentences Girl to Solitary Confinement

MARSHALL (AP) — Circuit Judge Alphonso A. Magnotta in his crackdown on delinquent youths has extended his solitary confinement jail sentences now to include an 18-year-old girl.

Previously he has sent 30 boys to solitary confinement for from 15 to 45 days on a diet of bread, milk, water and vitamins "to straighten out their thinking."

Sally Klepper, an 18-year-old Battle Creek girl, got the solitary confinement treatment Friday when she was brought before Judge Magnotta as a probation violator.

She goes to jail for only 10 days and only the last five will be in solitary, and she will be fed the regular jail fare.

But she can have no cigarettes, only religious matter or school textbooks for reading, and no visitors except a minister.

Sally was placed on two years probation last October after she and a girl companion were convicted of unlawfully driving away an automobile. Both were 17 at the time.

Judge Magnotta told Sally her "whole general attitude has been quite poor" and that she had violated her probation at least three times. He said, specifically, that she had been away from home May 23 and 24 without her parents knowing her whereabouts.

A probation term was not to leave home without parental approval.

"I will not tolerate any further difficulty with you," the judge told Sally. "If you are brought here again you will be sent to the Detroit House of Correction."

★ ★ ★

The Detroit institution is a state prison for women.

And when she leaves jail 10 days hence, Judge Magnotta told Sally she'd have to abide by these added terms of probation: Make her home with her parents and observe a curfew by being home every day between 11 p. m. and 7 a. m.

Market May Fend Campaign Damper

NEW YORK (UPD)—The election campaigns no doubt will hav the effect of restraining market enthusiasm, but the usual summer rally should probably carry on and may even gain in breadth and vigor, according to Shearson, Hammill & Co.

In addition to retail issues, Shearson says, other groups which are in a position to perform well and provide candidates for the "new high" list include the electric utilities, some of the steels, certain construction stocks, the fiberglass makers and the better representatives from the service industries.

Safest Roads in U.S.

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Connecticut had the nation's safest highways last year with a traffic death rate of 2½ deaths for each 100 million miles of travel. The National Safety Council said the state will receive an award for its accident prevention program. Connecticut inaugurated a tough program of license suspensions for convicted speeders in 1955.

Also, Mrs. Albert Mallett, secretary; Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas, treasurer; Ellen Jones, inside guard; and Mrs. Perry Craig, outside guard.

The new auxiliary trustees are Mrs. Elmer Jones, Mrs. Roy Ottmar and Mrs. Charles Farnsworth.

Crash Injures 7 in Springfield Twp.

A two-car head-on collision resulted in injury to seven persons Saturday night on Ormond road near White Lake road in Springfield Township, according to sheriff's deputies.

Most seriously hurt was one of the drivers, Mrs. Thelma Barriger, 49, of Caro. She is in poor condition with internal injuries and a fractured arm at Pontiac General Hospital.

David J. Bryant, 57, of 16166 Inverness, Detroit, the lone passenger in the other car, is in satisfactory condition with head injuries.

Treated for minor injuries and released were Charles Barriger, 54, the driver's husband, Beverly Beacher, 21, Beatrice Rundell, 52, and her husband Ellsworth, 54, all of Davisburg, and Willie B. Perry, 38, of 5386 Ormond Rd., Springfield Township, the other driver.

Emergency Power Gets CD Test Here

Emergency civil defense electrical generators were used to feed power to the Public Safety Building for three hours Saturday night as normal electrical supplies were cut off by prearrangement as a new line was installed into the new Pontiac Public Library.

While Consumers Power Co. crewmen worked to tie the library into the trunkline that serves the City Hall and safety building, civil defense officials chose to test the emergency equipment.

Two gasoline-operated generators —a 10-kilowatt generator in the basement of City Hall and a five-kilowatt mobile generator in the safety building — worked fine except for one hitch: the smaller one ran out of gasoline.

"The test was satisfactory otherwise," said Robert A. Stierer, assistant city manager.

D-Day Started 16 Years Ago

1st Allied Troops Hit Normandy on This Date to Start Liberation

BAYEUX, France (AP) — Sixteen years ago today Allied troops landed on the soil of Normandy to begin the liberation of Europe from Nazi rule.

After U.S. and British bombers had softened up Nazi strong points, 1,000 planes and gliders brought in the first D-Day forces. Assault troops from a giant channel armada swept across the beaches near Bayeux.

Soon a beachhead 60 miles long and 10 miles deep began receiving Allied forces which eventually numbered 2,800,000 men. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was in command.

The news spread like wildfire throughout occupied France. Resistance fighters went into action behind the German lines.

Bayeux, the first city liberated, fell to the British June 7.

As it has each year since, Bayeux marked the anniversary of D-Day with solemn ceremonies.

French Veterans Minister Raymond Triboulet and Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville laid wreaths on a floodlit liberation monument Sunday night.

Couve de Murville rekindled the "flame of liberty," then a French navy band played the national anthems of the Allied nations. French troops paraded through Bayeux.

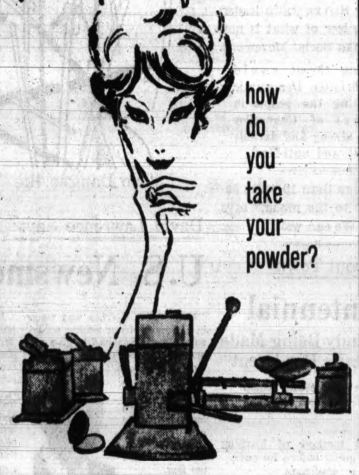

The two ministers were to visit nearby Omaha and Utah beaches and an American cemetery today.

Traffic Higher on Mac

ST. IGNACE (AP)—Traffic across the Mackinac Bridge was 2 per cent higher in May than in the same 1959 month, but toll revenues were up only $108, the Mackinac Bridge Authority reports. Vehicles pay varying tolls, depending upon size. In May 70,384 vehicles crossed and paid $284,477.

Daily News Presents View of Death Penalty

America and the world at large almost lost sight of CHESSMAN in the recent to-do over his legal demise.

★ ★ ★

Most of the arguments seemed to lose sight of the real issue—Chessman's guilt—and centered around whether we should have capital punishment.

Should it continue?

Should it be abolished?

★ ★ ★

The New York Daily News just published an interesting comment on the whole matter and we reproduce it herewith:

"Into the death-penalty dispute stirred up by the recent execution of CARYL CHESSMAN, J. EDGAR HOOVER injects what we regard as a husky shot of common sense.

★ ★ ★

"Most of the demands for abolishing capital punishment, says Mr. Hoover in the June issue of the Federal Bureau of Investigation's law enforcement bulletin, come from good-hearted people who simply do not know at first hand of 'the horrors man can and does perpetrate against his fellow beings' and have never seen 'the savagely mutilated bodies and mentally ravaged victims of murderers, rapists and other criminal beasts.'

★ ★ ★

"For such two-legged animals, there is next to no hope of rehabilitation. If they are allowed to live, the chances are great that they will repeat their crimes sooner or later; so why let them live?

★ ★ ★

"That, it seems to us, is the long and the short of this whole argument about the death penalty."

★ ★ ★

There is a sharp divergence of opinion in the world, and only by airing all the views on both sides will we ever reach a common viewpoint. The PRESS is inclined to string along with the Daily News.

Symington Would Add to Taxpayers' Burden

Those that cast an eye of approval on Senator STUART SYMINGTON as a possible Democratic nominee for President should consider some of his most recent remarks.

★ ★ ★

Symington is critical of Dwight D. Eisenhower for not "expanding our economy at a swifter pace." He wants more of the taxpayers' money poured into national projects. The Defense Department is heavily underscored, but he also wants a little more social security, Federal housing and welfare activities. In his opinion, the taxpayers should have several additional loads piled on their creaking backs.

★ ★ ★

This is the permanent Democratic theme: "Spend, spend and spend," just as long as the money comes from the poor goofer back home who pays, pays and pays.

Adenauer Again Leads the Christian Democrats

The Karlsruhe convention of the Christian Democratic Party again elected 84 year old Chancellor ADENAUER to be chairman by a 427-14 vote. Minister of Economics LUDWIG ERHARD, who briefly challenged ADENAUER's leadership last summer, will head the campaign for the Chancellor's re-election.

★ ★ ★

The Christian Democrats face stronger opposition than in the past. Social Democrats are showing strength in opinion polls and in recent municipal elections having won the mayoralties in Munich and Regensburg.

They have two appealing and popular national candidates to choose from — Willy Brandt, mayor of West Berlin, and Carlos Schmid, parliamentary leader. It is not likely, however, that the Social Democrat party could win a clear majority because of former Marxist leanings. But it could weaken the Christian Democrats and be able to form a coalition government with the Free Democrats.

★ ★ ★

The resurgence of neo-Nazi and neo-Fascist activities in Germany is causing some concern. FREDERICH KLEIN, a former HITLER youth leader, is the key organizer of what is now called the German Social Movement.

This growing threat could benefit the Christian Democratic party by uniting the people in their support of Chancellor Adenauer, the strong and durable anti-Communist and anti-Nazi.

"IT MAY be more than 10 years before you can go to the moon," says a rocket expert. We can wait.

The Man About Town

Our Centennial

Advance Study Being Made on Next Year's Big Event

Celebration: An event which no other city ever had as many reasons for.

With his usual method of learning about where he's going before he goes,

Stuart E. Whitfield, who is planning our next year's Pontiac centennial celebration, is making a careful study of the proposition, and the big job it involves.

He is gathering first hand information from other cities who have put on similar events, so we can profit by their successes —and failures. Knowing of their experiences, Pontiac can do a better job.

Stu finds in the case of Lansing, for instance, that we shouldn't get too enthusiastic too far in advance, lest it may go stale and wear out. But even at this early date we should ever be mindful of what's coming, and see that if we lose any enthusiasm it is because it rubs off on others. Beginning about Jan. 1, it should be the top topic in every household.

Lansing also advises that the big parade be restricted to an hour or so. Their parade strung out to four or five hours, and everybody went home worn out. They frankly admit that their parade was too repetitious.

Another prime essential is that everybody who is given an assignment for a part in the celebration, accept it with the distinct understanding that they will give it the time and attention that its success merits. If they are not in a position to do so, the time to make that fact known is when they are appointed, so that somebody else can be assigned to the task.

A phone call from the Drayton Plains 12-year-old who challenged the Detroit Tigers to a game with his team, says that he now wants to withdraw it.

Oliver (Skip) Briscoe,

Among Pontiac's presidential timber, I find several Nixons, but no Dick. We haven't a Rockefeller. There are many Kennedys, and they have at least four Johns. The Stevensons are numerous, but they lack an Adlai.

The Pontiac area is going after another first; breeding better Shetland ponies than are produced anywhere else in the world. At a recent auction sale, of Dryden paid the highest price ever received for a Shetland sire, $56,500.

Miss Patricia Burton

Looks like this column will conduct another freckle contest in connection with the Oakland County 4-H Club Fair early in August. Advance notice is given so prospective contestants can begin to let 'em grow.

"No Danger Ike, You'll Be as Safe Here as I Am"

David Lawrence Says:

U.S. Newsmen Comforting Nikita

WASHINGTON—Time was when in the midst of war neither scribe nor politician ventured to give aid and comfort to the enemy.

Time was when the citizen felt a tingle of emotion go up and down his spine as he sang the "Star-Spangled Banner" or saluted the flag.

Time was when the nation found itself in peril, and nothing else mattered. No sacrifice—even of life itself—was too great to make for the honor of our country.

LAWRENCE

But things seem to be different now. The President of the United States is insulted and yet some writers continue to furnish aid and comfort to the press of the Soviet Union by denouncing Eisenhower and holding him culpable for errors he couldn't possibly have avoided and still protect the safety of the American people against surprise attack.

Is the country changing? Is patriotism just an obsolete notion, nurtured only by those of us who have witnessed manifestations of national spirit and pride over a long span of years?

Are some of us old-fashioned because we cannot accept the modern cynicism which insists that a President of the United States shall be pilloried by political leaders and by some segments of the press of his own country as Moscow papers reprint every bit of captious and carping criticism?

Is a "cold war" any different really from the crises that call for nonpartisanship during a "hot war"?

Time was when in wartime a newspaperman practiced "voluntary censorship" and when his conscience kept him from writing anything that might possibly aid the enemy.

A "cold war" and a "hot war" are no different so far as national danger is concerned.

Today the demand is for almost every scrap of information including "classified" information and there are newsmen and members of Congress who insist in all sincerity that they and not the executive branch of government—which has the responsibility for our safety —shall be the final judges of what ought to be suppressed or disclosed.

★ ★ ★

Time was when this correspondent used to hear the expression: "I'm an American first and a newspaperman second."

But today things seem different.

No matter how damaging to one's own country, the tendency now is to give the information or comment publicly to the enemy dictator who promptly quotes it in his propaganda speeches.

As America, moreover, approaches a political campaign, partisan writers say the President should have known in advance of every act to be performed, by every subordinate in the numerous agencies of a big government and that efforts to gather information abroad clandestinely should have been in effect suspended indefinitely to the advantage of a gangster regime in Moscow.

GOBBLED UP FAST

Immediately, Moscow seizes on every such adverse comment, especially when it emanates from the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Was it too much to ask, as Sen. Wiley (R-Wis) did, that a public investigation by any congressional committee on international matters during a crisis be suspended?

Maybe the urge to patriotism is less strong today than winning an election or carrying on a partisan crusade.

Maybe we are witnessing the rise of new "liberals" who espouse the cause of nationalism in the various countries of Africa and Asia but denounce any nationalism expressed in the United States in behalf of the interests of our own country.

But these misguided "intellectuals," so many of whom in the scientific world especially believe in "world citizenship" as superseding American citizenship, will some day be proved completely wrong.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Only Large Doses Cure Vitamin A Deficiency

"Last fall," writes ESB, "I read in your column that it might be necessary to take as much as 50,000 units of vitamin A daily to correct trouble due to vitamin A deficiency.

DR. BRADY

I did, and got rid of an ear infection, allergy and even my supposedly arthritic pains. I have consulted various physicians for these troubles, but none could help me. Many, many thanks!"

It is good to know that you have found relief, but we can only surmise that the vitamin A had something to do with it.

★ ★ ★

At the same time I assure you that vitamin A is harmless and a child or an adult may take 50,000 units a day for a month or more with impunity.

To the best of my knowledge, vitamin A deficiency is responsible for malnutrition in Americans, who think they are well fed, only rarely, compared with other nutritional deficiencies.

Nutrition authorities designate about 4,000 to 5,000 units of vitamin A daily as the adequate daily ration for an adult.

So, 50,000 units is not a tremendous amount of vitamin A. If there is good reason to believe the pathological manifestation is attributable to A deficiency, 50,000 units of real vitamin A (not carotene) a day for a month or more is a minimum therapeutic test—the least one should take to correct the trouble.

In many instances it may be better to take 100,000 units a day for the first week or 10 days, and 50,000 a day after that.

Two teaspoonfuls of standard (U.S.P.) cod liver oil contain an adequate daily ration of vitamin A, as well as an adequate daily ration of vitamin D. Milk, cream, butter, cheese, oysters, sardines and liver are the richest food sources of vitamin A. Lettuce, carrots, tomato or tomato juice, spinach, watercress, broccoli, dandelion greens, escarole, kale, turnip greens, dried prunes, dried peaches, green peas, Hubbard squash and sweet potato are good sources of pro-vitamin A (carotene) which is converted into vitamin A in human or animal metabolism.

Manifestations of vitamin A deficiency are poor dark adaptation (the individual has more than ordinary difficulty finding his way to his seat when he comes into a darkened theater from daylight); dry rough skin (toad skin, fish skin, shark skin); night blindness (more than ordinary dazzling by opposing head lights when driving at night); and, in the opinion of some investigators (I'm from Missouri about this), greater than ordinary susceptibility to the cri.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Gripes on Those Who Burn Garbage With Their Trash

Spring is here and most folks can open their windows and let lots of clean, fresh air rush in. Not so in parts of Indian Village, where we must close our windows.

The offenders are those too lazy to cart out their rubbish on pick up day and just burn it in the evenings with enough garbage mixed in to really make it smell.

'Why Shouldn't They Go Into Industry?'

In examining current attitudes of John Q. Public, I could wish for much more objectivity. As a case in point, I allude to the recent public hearing at Willis School involving an experienced teacher about to be fired. Perhaps facts are facts, as was brought out, but why not present all the facts?

★ ★ ★

The "grapevine" says that three teachers have been given the "scarlet F" at this school in the last three years. This, at a time when teachers are going into industry in large numbers, is certainly not a healthy sign.

★ ★ ★

And why not go into industry? We read nothing about industry publicly airing a worker's shortcomings, hiring an expensive lawyer to prove its case. Besides, anyone looking objectively at this incident must admit that it puts teaching on the black list as a safe profession, a profession in which tenure means little, if anything, a profession in which discontent and insecurity among teachers because of such incidents are rampant, but with fear preventing their "unheard-of" exposure. The teacher "plays against a stacked deck."

'Red Fox Bounty Is Unnecessary'

Readers worried about conditions at our state parks need only to send for the booklet "Red Foxes of Michigan" from the state conservation department in Lansing.

★ ★ ★

This explains all about the bounty system which the department does not want. The bounty system is a waste, and a vote-getter for some of the legislators.

★ ★ ★

The red fox will never be extinct. The trappers nurture them in their wild state and use other trickery as the pamphlet will prove! If you are convinced a man should not be paid for hunting certain animals, please write to Rep. Arthur Law in Lansing. He could use your letters and we'd finally have better conservation.

'Why Let Employes Use Parking Space?'

It's nice for downtown merchants to provide free parking on special sale days, but why are employes allowed to go down early and take up the space all day? Almost all the free meters are taken before the stores even open. Why do these people park all day when the merchants have paid for this space so shoppers have a place to park?

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE E-479: Donna D., aged 25, is a school teacher.

"Dr. Crane, I resent your remarks," she spoke angrily, "for you tell wives they should make concessions to their husbands and become boudoir actresses.

CRANE

"Well, sir, I'd have you know that modern girls can earn their own living, so they don't need a husband at all.

"You say that men don't marry just to get a cook and laundress and that wives must constantly be on guard against losing their mates to sirens.

"Don't husbands have to watch, too, lest they lose their wives?"

FACTS OF MARRIED LIFE

Yes, there is merit in Donna's charges, but you girls must remember that women far outnumber men!

So every wife should look at herself in the mirror each day and say:

"I am in a constant love triangle! Unless I can keep my husband thinking I am wonderful, some unscrupulous siren may win him away."

But that didn't strike Donna favorably.

"Dr. Crane, if I marry and my husband promises to love me as long as we both shall live, won't his promise mean anything?"

Girls, here's a big mistake wives have made ever since the modern wedding ceremony was invented.

HUSBANDS CANNOT GUARANTEE EMOTIONS FOR FUTURE DELIVERY!

Men (and women, too) can guarantee future MOTIONS but not EMOTIONS!

You can thus pledge that tomorrow at noon you will walk around the block or make a phone call or write a letter, and easily make good on that promise.

But to vow that tomorrow noon you will froth at the mouth with rage or shed tears of grief or shiver in terror — such emotions must be aroused afresh by the situation tomorrow noon!

Today's vow will thus not make a bridegroom love you tomorrow or next year or 25 years hence — UNLESS!

★ ★ ★

And that big "UNLESS" means unless you evoke his affection by your personality at that later date.

WEDDING MISTAKES

Sex is still one of the biggest problems in modern marriage, but there is another widespread mistake that most brides make.

That is their notion that a husband can make himself love his wife! He can't. But his wife can do it.

★ ★ ★

You wives thus have the power to guarantee that your husbands will love you in the future. But you must learn male psychology and keep yourself an attractive, alluring creature.

If you were 118 pounds on your wedding day, what happens when you grow careless and so fat your girdle cannot hide that bulging upholstery around your equator?

★ ★ ★

When your 118 zooms to 160 lbs. you are not the same girl he married! You now are "motherly" instead of seductive.

It is possible to develop other assets to compensate for your "waddling walrus" figure, but you are safer if you slenderize.

So send for my booklet "How to Lose 10 Lbs. in 10 Days," enclosing a stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit).

★ ★ ★

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Russia Tests Capitalistic Potato Chips

MOSCOW (AP) — Potato chips have arrived in the stores of Kirov, 650 miles southwest of Moscow. A dispatch to the newspaper Soviet Russia said the chips — pronounced about the same as in English — are produced by a special section of the state vegetable and berry trading organization.

The chips have not yet appeared in Moscow stores, and Kirov apparently has been selected as a test area in line with Premier Nikita Khrushchev's policy of varying the Soviet diet.

TOP MIDDIE — Alton K. Thompson of Dallas, Tex., will graduate at the head of a 738-man class of midshipmen Wednesday. He has led his class scholastically for four years and this year held the top military job. He attended the same Dallas high school as West Point honor man Charles P. Otstett.

The Church of Sweden now has its first three women ministers.

Battle Creek Pulls Recheck on Low Census Toll

BATTLE CREEK (AP)—Volunteer workers have started a spot recheck of one of the city's 32 subdistricts in an effort to determine the accuracy of a recent U. S. census report which showed a decline in Battle Creek's population.

The 1960 census, showed that Battle Creek has a population of 43,858 or 4,808 below the 1950 figures.

Mayor Raymond Turfer ordered the recheck in Merrit Woods, a section showing a loss of 306 residents.

* * *

Turner questioned the government's figures because he said a significant number of building permits were issued in the residential district in the past five years.

PET DOCTOR

By A. W. Moller, D.V.M.

Question: Should the ears of our boxer pup be trimmed?

Answer: If you intend to use the dog for show purposes, the rules of the dog show include ear trimming of the boxer and several other breeds.

* * *

These are mostly German in origin (Dobermans, Boxers, Schnauzers, etc.). The operation is performed under a general anesthetic between the ages of 8 and 12 weeks.

* * *

Post-operative treatment is usually necessary, and includes "taping" the ears to train them to stand at the correct angle. In some parts of the United States, ear trimming is prohibited at the request of humane associations.

(Address your question to Dr. Moller in care of this paper. He will answer selected inquiries in his column, but cannot reply to them.)

Predicts Merger of Intelligence

Sen. Javits Says U. S. Will Consolidate Action After U2 Incident

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. intelligence activities will be consolidated as an aftermath of the U2 spy plane incident, Sen. Jacob K. Javits, (R-NY) predicts.

Javits, making the forecast Sunday, suggested that the secretary of state be given control of the information-gathering work of the various government agencies.

Javits said the Senate inquiry showed there was a lack of coordination in the administration's handling of the plane incident "rather than anybody's fault."

'DON'T JUDGE HARSHLY'

Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont), assistant Senate Democratic leader, said he didn't think the administration should be judged "too much or too harshly." He said Democrats should ask themselves what they would have done if they had been in the administration's shoes.

* * *

Sen. Henry Jackson (D-Wash) said the incident showed a lack of administration coordination.

* * *

Sen. Gale W. McGee (D-Wyo) said "no one was minding the store when these integrated series of events transpired so suddenly."

Mickey Rooney Sheds No. 4, Year After 5th Wedding

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mickey Rooney, long since married to wife No. 5, Friday was granted his final divorce from wife No. 4.

The actor explained it this way:

In January 1959 he divorced wife No. 4 Elaine Mahnken Rooney, 30, in Mexico, and immediately married No. 5 Barbara Thomason, 23.

* * *

No. 4 obtained an interlocutory decree a year ago, and it became final Friday. Wife No. 5, meanwhile, presented the 39-year-old actor with a daughter, Kelly Ann, last Sept. 13.

Rooney's previous wives were, in order, Ava Gardner, Betty Jane Rase, and Martha Vickers; he has two sons, Mickey Jr., 14, and Timothy, 13, by Miss Rase, and a son, Ted, 9, by Miss Vickers.

With the exception of minerals and metals, Florida could almost be self-sufficient. Its farms, ranches and fishing resources supply almost all other needs. And its tourist attractions supply money for everything else.

Driver's License Ticket Back to Penitentiary

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI)—Theodore Kramer obligingly produced his driver's license when police stopped to check after they found him asleep in a car.

* * *

The license listed his address as 254 Spring St., Columbus. One of the officers recalled that was the address of the Ohio Penitentiary. A check revealed Kramer, a trusty, had escaped from the prison by stealing a guard's car.

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes

Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles". It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night.

No matter what you've used without results — here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids — without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In one hemorrhoid case after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of months! Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration.

The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in ointment or suppository form known as Preparation H.® Ask for Preparation H suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Absolute satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

State Anti-Bias Plan Upheld by Adams

LANSING (AP)—Proposed administrative rules to stop real estate brokers and salesmen from discriminating on race, color or religious grounds have been approved as to form and legality.

★ ★ ★

Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams said the next step is for public hearings on the rules by their author, Lawrence Gubow, state corporations and securities commissioner. Gubow's department has supervision over licensed real estate operators.

★ ★ ★

He proposed the rules after State investigation into the so-called point system used in Grosse Pointe to screen home buyers and renters. Adams said the system was contrary to law.

Lansing Telephone Office to Get $500,000 Addition

LANSING (UPI)—The Bell Telephone Co. plans a $500,000 addition to its downtown Lansing offices, officials said today.

The addition, to be completed in 1962, would house dialing and other equipment needed by the company.

County Institute Thursday

To Study Fire Prevention

The first annual public Oakland County Fire Prevention Institute, sponsored by the fire safety committee of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce, will be held from 7:30 to 10 p.m. Thursday in the auditorium of Pontiac State Hospital.

Some 1,700 invitations have been extended to all local government fire control organizations, and to personnel responsible for industrial fire safety, according to Ross Luxon, chairman of the Industrial Division of the Committee.

"The purpose of the institute is the promotion of fire prevention practices among persons responsible for the fire safety of the villages, townships, homes and industry in Oakland County," he said.

Among the speakers will be State Fire Marshal Glen R. Walker. He will outline the duties and services of his office.

BUILDING LAYOUT VITAL

Pontiac Fire Chief James R. White will speak on the importance of a thorough understanding of a building's layout and contents in case of fire.

His talk is entitled "Know Your Targets."

A demonstration on characteristics of fire and fire prevention will be given by Inspector F. A. Beer of the fire prevention bureau of the Detroit Fire Department.

Francis Hartman, director of firemanship training at the University of Michigan, will discuss the university's firemanship training extension service.

★ ★ ★

"The Birth of an Infant," will be the subject of a talk by Sherwin M. Birnkrant, chairman of the fire safety committee.

Organizations which send representatives will receive certificates, Luxon said.

Bill Would Give GI 2nd Insurance Bid

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A bill to grant World War II and Korean War veterans a second chance to take advantage of low-cost National service Life Insurance has been approved by the Senate.

The measure was passed and returned to the House for concurrence in Senate amendments.

Sen. Russell B. Long (D-La) sponsored the legislation to reopen for one year the privilege of certain veterans to reinstate their service life insurance. The measure was opposed vigorously by the administration.

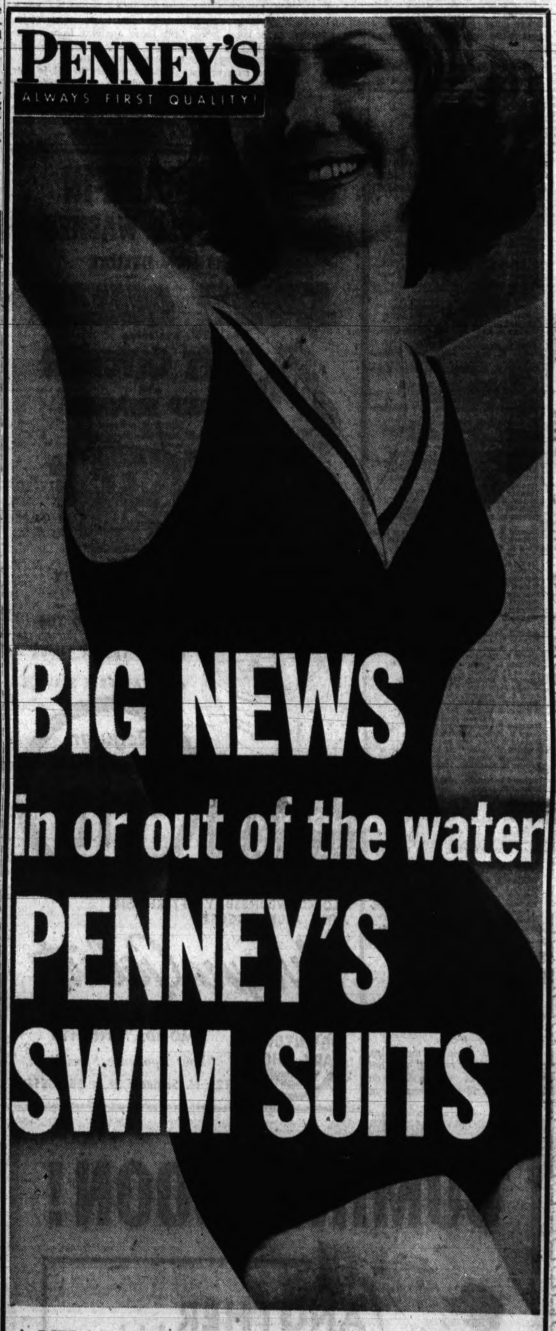

The Senate has passed similar proposals in the past, but they always died in the House.

Summit Tensions Not Felt Yet

Visitors Still Flood Russia

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's attacks on President Eisenhower may have an adverse effect on Soviet tourist trade, but before Friday's news conference there was little indication of it here.

Hotels are full. Travel agencies said there had been no cancellations from America that could be traced to political troubles.

* * *

Americans continue to find themselves pleasantly treated by Russians they know. Again, that could change if Khrushchev continues to sharpen his attacks to a degree that Russians feel they must follow suit. So far they have not.

Early this spring the Soviet travel agency Intourist said it expected 25,000 American visitors this summer in Moscow compared with 15,000 last summer.

* * *

People here wonder where any such increase will find accommodations. Hotels have been booked solid, and even important visitors will have trouble finding places of their choice or any place at all to stay.

ROUGH NIGHT

Many travelers are beginning to find that travel agency assurances of hotel accommodations don't always hold. Fifteen American and French travelers recently were stranded in a hotel lobby, faced with sleeping four to six in a room. It was already long after midnight, and some had waited for hours.

Most tourists don't stay long enough to get far off the beaten track. They visit Moscow, the nearby monastery at Zagorsk where priests still live and work, Leningrad and Kiev.

Some are touring now around the Black Sea, which is rather hot around this time of the year. It is a favorite Soviet resort.

So far as it can be learned there are no more restrictions on travel than in presummit days. There are always a good many spots in the Soviet Union where travelers, official or otherwise, are not permitted.

* * *

Khrushchev has said visas still continue to be issued for Americans to come to the Soviet Union. Only those applying from outside can say whether they are tougher to get than normally.

What is tougher to get is hotel accommodation, and Intourist normally won't arrange for a tour until all hotel space is available. Reportedly that is holding down the number of tourists.

Evidence Was Polite but Very Damaging

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—David Edwards, 23, politely removed his hat while being questioned by Tucson police officers.

A partially smoked marijuana cigarette rolled out of the hat band. Edwards was booked on suspicion of illegal possession of marijuana.

Pasternak Knew of Election to U.S. Academy

NEW YORK (AP) — Boris Pasternak, discredited in his own country, went to his death knowing he had been elected to the American Academy of Arts and Letters.

When the 70-year-old Soviet poet died last Monday, the honor had not yet been announced.

The academy said Friday that after he had been informed of his election several weeks ago Pasternak cabled Douglas Moore, Academy president.

"Most modest and heartfelt thanks for the election to you and colleagues. The membership is a high pride, honor, distinction to me, but undertake nothing before having obtained my letter," the cable said.

Apparently Pasternak planned to write further on the matter but fell fatally ill.

The Wildfowl Sanctuary in Ontario, Canada, stamps birdbands with passages from the Bible. Eskimos, who have found bands on birds killed for food, travel many miles to the nearest mission post to have "God's message" translated.

Hue Vital in Deciding on Gown

By EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: My daughter is going to be married in two months and is shopping around for a wedding dress. The manager of a very exclusive bridal shop here has practically convinced her to choose a wedding dress in pastel color —which she says is very modern.

I am very much against this and think that colored wedding dresses are for second brides only. As this is my daughter's first marriage I think she should wear white and that she will bring criticism upon herself if she wears a color.

★ ★ ★

Answer: A bride marrying for the first time suitably wears a white dress. However, the propriety of the colored wedding dress your daughter is thinking of, depends entirely on what is meant by a pastel color. If the dress has an almost imperceptible accent of blue or pink, it would be quite all right — especially if she is past 30 when a dead white can be very unflattering to her skin. A definite pink or blue, on the other hand, would suggest a second marriage and would not be proper.

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. Post: I am going to be married next month and would like to invite the clergyman who will officiate at the ceremony to the reception, which is being held at a hotel. Do I send him an engraved invitation or do I invite him personally?

★ ★ ★

Answer: If he is married, you would send an invitation addressed to The Rev. and Mrs. If he is not married, you would invite him personally when you make arrangements for the wedding.

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. Post: My husband and I are taking a boat trip the last week of June and the first week of July.

He has a new navy blue suit. Will that be all right for the captain's dinner? If so, what kind of tie should be worn, bow or four-in-hand?

★ ★ ★

Answer: It will be wise to ask if on the boat trip you plan there will be any dinner or gala evening which will require that the men wear tuxedos. If not, the blue suit with whatever tie your husband prefers will be correct.

Waitresses Deserve Respect, Says Abby

No Occupation Disgraceful but People Sometimes Are

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a waitress who works in a combination bar and restaurant. Many fellows have said to me, "What is a nice girl like you doing in a place like this?"

Abby, this hurts me very much. I am a nice girl. I do waitress work because I need the money. The tips are good and I have to support my little girl and myself as I am a widow.

ABBY

I never thought it was a disgrace to do waitress work, but lately I find I am ashamed of how I make my living.

Please print something in your column on the subject, because a lot of girls have this problem. WAITRESS.

DEAR WAITRESS: There are no "disgraceful" jobs—just disgraceful people. Waitress work has as much dignity as the women who undertakes to do it. Anyone who stands on tired and swollen feet eight hours a day, serving the hungry and thirsty (and often abusive) public, deserves respect.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: How can I improve my husband's memory? He brings home his boss' shirts every week for me to wash and iron. He remembers to bring home the shirts, and he remembers to take them back. But he forgets to give me the money. NORA

DEAR NORA: Two can play that game. The next time he brings home the shirts—keep "forgetting" to do them up until he remembers to come through with the money.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: What do you give a man who has everything? LU

DEAR LU: Encouragement!

DEAR ABBY: When I was 16 I made a mistake and had a baby out of wedlock. I paid for my sin and my sister is keeping my baby for me. She is a darling little girl almost three now. I am going to take her back as soon as I am married.

I met a swell fellow and he knows about my past. He is studying to be a minister so you know he is all right.

We love each other very much and he asked to marry me. He took me to meet his parents, but before we went in, he asked me not to say anything about my little girl. I didn't say a word.

Now he wants me to keep it quiet until after the wedding. He said his parents are narrow-minded and wouldn't understand. They are going to have to know sooner or later and I don't feel right keeping it from them. Don't you think he should tell them before the wedding?

NOTHING TO HIDE

DEAR NOTHING: His parents should certainly be told before the wedding. Surely they know that only he who is without sin should cast the first stone.

★ ★ ★

"What's your problem?" Write to Abby in care of The Pontiac Press. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Abby's best-selling book, "Dear Teen-ager," is on sale at all bookstores.

United in Evening Ceremony

Vows of Lynne Barker Humphrey, daughter of the Stanley Magoun Humphreys of Bloomfield Hills, and Richard Clay Harbke, son of the Denver Clay Harbkes of Wood River, Ill. were read Saturday in Kirk-in-the-Hills Church

MRS. RICHARD CLAY HARBKE

Reception at Orchard Lake Country Club followed Saturday evening vows of Lynne Barker Humphrey and Richard Clay Harbke at the Kirk-in-the-Hills, Bloomfield Hills.

Dr. Harold C. DeWindt read the candlelight ceremony.

★ ★ ★

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Magoun Humphrey of Kirkway drive, Bloomfield Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Denver Clay Harbke, parents of the bridegroom, are of Wood River, Ill.

★ ★ ★

Amazon lilies and lilies-of-the-valley arranged in a hand cascade complemented the bridal gown of white Chantilly lace and nylon tulle, styled with chapel train.

EMBROIDERY ACCENTS

The sabrina neckline was accented with pearl embroidery.

A crown of matching lace and pearls caught the fingertip veil of French illusion.

Linda Harbke, sister of the bridegroom, was maid-of-honor. Bridesmaids were Carlene Blunt of Winnetka, Ill., Constance Metz of Detroit, Mrs. Stephen Allans of Wilmette, Ill., and Mary Frings of Pekin, Ill.

★ ★ ★

Blue and white carnations complemented their dresses of white parchment nylon with blue cummerbunds and panels.

★ ★ ★

The bride's brother Stanley C. Humphrey was best man. Ushers were Lloyd J. Charlesworth, John J. Fedors, Patrick D. Barnes and Norman O. Bindler.

After a Bermuda honeymoon, the newlyweds will be at home in Ann Arbor.

Miss Erwin Reveals Her Attendants

Bride-elect Sandra Erwin has announced attendants for her July 23 wedding. Maid of honor will be Brenda Lowman of North Carolina. Serving as bridesmaids will be Lynne Anderson and Valda Classens.

Junior bridesmaids will be Lee Ann and Laurie Anderson. Serving as flower girl will be Shawn Henderson.

The announcement was made at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Carl Donelson and Mrs. Howard Cate Jr. at the home of Mrs. Cate of Mohawk road.

★ ★ ★

Tea and coffee for the Thursday evening event was poured by Mrs. James Erwin, mother of the bride-elect and Mrs. Frank Anderson, mother of the bridegroom.

Among the guests attending were Mrs. Arthur Noyle, Mrs. Dale McCoy, Mrs. Philip Noyle, Mrs. Charles Anderson, Mrs. John Baer, Mrs. Verne McCall, Mrs. Robert Nellis, Mrs. Ervin Richards, Miss Margie Richards, Mrs. Raymond Williams, Mrs. Gary Classens and Mrs. Charles Henderson.

Others were Mrs. Winifred Fulford, Mrs. Ralph Heiple, Mrs. A. J. Cadieux, Mrs. L. Campbell Wernet, Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. Duncan Anderson, Mrs. Robert Quinn, Miss Lynne Anderson, Lee Ann Anderson, Laurie Anderson and Mrs. Max Evans.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Erwin of Seminole road. Her fiance is William N. Anderson whose parents are the Frank Andersons of Oneida road. The couple will be married in the First Church of the Nazarene.

Women's Section

Married in Sheraton-Cadillac Rite

The Founders' Room of the Hotel Sheraton-Cadillac, Detroit, was transformed into a garden setting for Sunday nuptials of Dolores Jeanne Surowitz and Stephen Kenneth Rothman.

Rabbi Israel Goodman officiated at the candlelight ceremony.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Surowitz of West Iroquois road, the bride appeared in floor-length white peau de soie which swept into an Empire train.

Motifs of Alencon lace reembroidered with seed pearls which outlined the portrait neckline and cap sleeves were repeated on the bouffant skirt.

★ ★ ★

The fingertip veil of French illusion fell from a tiara of Alencon lace and seed pearls. Wearing long white French kid gloves, the bride held a prayer book topped with a white orchid, ivy and stephanotis.

Tissue nylon over taffeta fashioned the attendants' scoop-necked dresses styled with soft permanent-pleated skirts accented with a Dior bow at the bodice.

Maid of honor Rhoda Goldberg's dress was Cotillion blue.

In pale blue were bridesmaids Elaine Surowitz and Barbara Stoler of Detroit and Sharon Rodd of Oak Park. Rosalind Surowitz was her sister's junior attendant.

They wore fresh flower headpieces and carried baskets of summer flowers.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Frederick Rothman of Columbus, Ohio, was his brother's best man.

They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rothman of Toledo, Ohio. Jerome Cohen, David Miller and David Pinkus, all of Toledo, seated the guests. The bride's brother Ronald, was junior usher.

Soft pink silk chiffon fashioned Mrs. Surowitz's dress styled with shirred bodice and floating back panel.

The bridegroom's mother wore aqua silk chiffon with scoop neckline and draped bodice. Both mothers pinned corsages of orchids on their purses.

★ ★ ★

After a Florida honeymoon, the newlyweds will be at home in Toledo.

The bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Zeichner of Detroit and Mount Clemens, and the bridegroom's grandmother Mrs. Sam Buch of New York, attended the wedding and reception.

MRS. STEPHEN K. ROTHMAN

Wed Sunday in the Hotel Sheraton-Cadillac Detroit were Dolores Jeanne Surowitz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Surowitz of West Iroquois road, and Stephen Kenneth Rothman, son of the Samuel Rothmans of Toledo

Family Dinner Lauds Foster Parents

Fifty Michigan Children's Aid Society foster parents were honored at the Family Dinner hosted by the Oakland Branch, board of directors, Friday in the Community Services Building.

★ ★ ★

Board President Dr. Richard Galpin of Birmingham was master of ceremonies.

Oriel Endelman, executive secretary, gave the history of foster care and traced the history of adoption from 4,000 years ago to today's high standards.

Foster parents Mrs. Richard Mercer of Troy, the Richard Johnsons of Berkley and the Robert Johnsons of Rochester shared their "reflections" of the joys and sorrows of foster care.

DAUGHTER'S VIEW

Seventeen-year-old Gail Nedeau also gave her "reflections" of growing up as a foster family's daughter. Her parents Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Nedeau have boarded about 50 children since 1946.

Assisting Mrs. R. W. Steere Jr. of Birmingham, dinner chairman; were Mrs. Grant Chamberlin, Lake Orion; Mrs. Adeline Habel; Mrs. James Harrington, Waterford Township; Mrs. Roy G. Leitch Jr., Bloomfield Hills; Mrs. Edward Raney, Huntington Woods; and Mrs. Syver Thingstad, Birmingham.

★ ★ ★

Foster parents recognized were the Robert Allens, the Earby Austins, the Herbert Burnetts, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Hauns, the Harold Hicksons, the Taft Jacksons, the Stanley Kipps, the Alfred Lowmans, the Harold Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Patrix, the Donald Prestons, the Robert Tates, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Vaught, the John Vinettes, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Wallace, the David Williams and Mr. and Mrs. James Wikle.

Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Agrusa, the Richard Johnsons and the James Ridings of Berkley; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bublitz, the Leslie Gilmores, and the Eldon Powleys of Lake Orion.

From Rochester were the Robert Johnsons, and Annie King, with the Richard Mercers of Troy, the Clarence Moores and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Notch of Oxford, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Riggs of Royal Oak, the Doral Wiseleys of Keego Harbor, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Nedeau of Commerce and the Clare Titsworths.

Just Go Halfway

Sandals Help Feet

(NEA) — Open sandals do wonders for your feet in summer. They are cool and because they are so open, they remove pressure. Bumps and calluses vanish almost overnight. But make sure that they are properly fitted and that they give your feet enough support. This is important to foot health.

Just Push Button

NEW YORK (UPI) — A new push-button telephone which eliminates dialing and connects parties at triple speed has been introduced for inter-office use.

Do a Closet Study

NEW YORK (UPI) — Study storage space in your new home. Make a clear division in your husband's closet and drawer space and yours. Designate special places for your clothes and accessories and his. Keep yours where they belong and try to encourage him to do the same.

Comparing notes before the annual Foster Parents' dinner sponsored by Oakland branch, Michigan Children's Aid Society are Mrs. Richard Mercer, left, of Troy, foster mother, Gail Nedeau, foster child of Walled Lake, and Richard Johnson, foster dad of Berkley. All participated in Friday's program at the Community Services Building.

Mrs. Donald Lloyd, left, of Tilmor drive joins sorority sisters of Alpha Omega and Zeta Lambda Chapters of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority in examining a collection of records the group has given the pre-school special education room at Washington Irving School.

Mrs. Robert Lyon of LeBaorn avenue, Mrs. Gerald Flessland of Empire drive and Director of Special Education William G. Wright are all pleased with the philanthropy project of the group.

Must Cope With Developing Curves

Gal a Bust Without a Bra

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

For a few days now I am letting you peep into my mail. It is always fascinating and full of variety. For instance this letter says:

"Dear Mrs. Lowman: I am almost 14 years old and want to pass along some advice to mothers of teen-age daughters. For quite a while now I have suffered from great self-consciousness.

"It really has affected my life. I have a good figure for my age and my bust measures only one-half inch less than my hips. I still do not wear a brassiere!

"Now that summer is coming along I urge you mothers to buy your daughters happiness — by buying them a bra. I know that if I had had one I never would have crawled into my shell like I have.

"So many other young girls tell me the same story.

"I think there should be a law that all girls of 13 be required to wear a brassiere except for the girls who have absolutely no bustline at all."

IT MAKES SENSE

I think this is a cute letter and it makes sense, too. The time at which a girl begins wearing a bra should depend on the size of her bust, not on her age. Some develop a bustline very young while others are late in growing curves.

I do think that sometimes mothers are cruel without meaning to be. They do not quickly become accustomed to the idea that their children have become young ladies. They may deny them some of the aids to growing up which they really need.

I think it is terrifically important to guard against self-consciousness at this age. While it is essential that a young girl does not adopt any damaging standards which the group she is associated with may have, I do not believe that she should be made to feel "different" from others in minor ways.

CORRECT DEFECTS, TOO

What if she does wear lipstick or get her first high-heeled party shoes a bit earlier than you think appropriate? This is much less important than it is to avoid shyness which make her retreat into herself and fail to make friends.

For this same reason it seems vital that any defects be corrected if it is possible to do so. Such conditions as acne and protruding teeth can mar a personality for life.

If you teen-agers would like to have my leaflet which was written especially for you, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 58 "Popularity." Address Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Tomorrow: "Not the Banquet — But Few Extra Calories Add Weight."

If a young teen has developed to the point of needing a bra, her mother should allow her to wear one.

The Time Is Now

The time to make minor repairs in clothes is the moment you discover a snap off, a rip or a hem coming undone. Otherwise, you find yourself stuck at the last moment with a favorite dress that isn't fit to wear.

Hicks-Opland Rite Held in First Methodist Church

MRS. FLOYD Q. HICKS

The Rev. Paul T. Hart officiated at the Saturday evening nuptials of Carol Louise Opland and Floyd Quentin Hicks of Drayton Plains in First Methodist Church.

Receiving with the bride's parents the Carl Leonard Oplands of Seminole avenue in the church parlors were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Joseph Roberts of Grand Rapids, parents of the bridegroom.

Iridescent sequins and pearls accented the bateau neckline of the white Chantilly lace and tulle bridal gown. Motifs of lace were appliqued on the tulle skirt which ended in a chapel sweep.

A caplet of pearls and sequins caught the fingertip veil of pure silk illusion. White orchids and stephanotis comprised the bride's bouquet. Her only jewelry was a diamond pendant necklace.

★ ★ ★

Four attendants in pastel shades of nylon over taffeta and tulle preceded the bride to the altar decked with white gladioli and peonies for the candlelight service.

Mrs. Raymond C. Ebey was matron of honor with Joyce Mapley, Shirley Dobson and Mrs. Charles Gavette, bridesmaids Lezlie Callahan of Clarkston was flower girl.

David Kitchen assisted the bridegroom as best man. Guests were seated by Donald L. Reene, Thomas Callahan of Clarkston and Richard Vogel of Mount Clemens.

The newlyweds will live in Drayton Plains after a Cape Cod honeymoon.

Green cymbidium orchids accented Mrs. Opland's dress of beige lace over taffeta. Mother of the bridegroom pinned white cymbidium orchids to her frock of rose lace and taffeta.

Sloppy Shoppers Money Wasters

Women spend millions of dollars each year in this country for clothes alterations. At least part of this is due to sloppy shopping. If you don't want your good money going down the drain, make sure that a dress really fits when you buy it.

Don't decide that you like the style so much that you can have the dress nipped at the waist, lifted at the shoulders or otherwise changed.

Get a Cotton Suit

(NEA) — An excellent companion on a summer holiday is a cotton suit. A keynote to the suit silhouette is ease and grace — with softly gathered or pleated skirts and deepened, shortened sleeves.

Barbecue Crew Dressy as Food

(UPI) — The barbecue set will be wearing cottons as spicy as mustard.

One cook-out ensemble features a sleeveless, short patio dress in a purple and white toile print worn with a pin-on detachable apron in an identical print of red and white. Cotton barbecue coveralls and full skirts with cropped tops have huge pockets.

Candlelight Holds Sway for Nuptials

Lighted candles tied with white satin ribbons marked aisle pews in Grace Lutheran Church for Saturday evening vows of Kathleen Mae Rouse and Kenneth Louis Rosche.

The Rev. R. C. Stuckmeyer officiated at the candlelight ceremony before the altar decked with white gladioli, Shasta daisies and pompons.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Edmond Rouse of Edison avenue, Bloomfield Township, and Mrs. Martin Rosche of Plymouth, Wis., and the late Mr. Rosche.

Medallions of Fontainebleau lace, re-embroidered with pearls, encircled the neckline and formed the Empire bodice of the princess-style gown of white peau de soie.

MRS. KENNETH L. ROSCHE

The fingertip veil was caught by a scalloped crown of pearls. Resting on the bride's prayer book covered with peau de soie were white butterfly rosebuds and pink Carol Amyling rosebuds with streamers of stephanotis.

Judith Irene Rouse is ballerina-length lilac silk organza over taffeta was her sister's honor maid. Her caplet of tiny flowers was styled with a nose veil. Her flowers were violet carnations.

In identical dresses were the bride's other sister Linda Lee and her cousin Theresa Jane Dobsid. Diane Lynn Rouse was her sister's junior attendant.

★ ★ ★

Jerome Rosche of Waldo, Wis., stood as best man for his brother. Ushers included another brother, Keith, of Plymouth, Wis., Kenneth Davidson and Daniel Parshall, and Hugh Parks of Fenton.

On their return from a honeymoon at Niagara Falls, the couple will live at Grafton, Wis.

The bridegroom will teach in Lutheran Parochial schools before returning to Concordia Theological Seminary, Springfield, Ill., to complete his last year of study for the Lutheran ministry.

Over 350 guests were greeted by Mrs. Rouse at the church reception. A corsage of cream cymbidium orchids complemented her jacketed sheath dress of pink Chantilly lace over taffeta.

Mrs. Rosche chose a beige Chantilly lace sheath with satin cummerbund and floating back panels. Her corsage was mint green cymbidium orchids.

RITA LISTER

Rita Lister Is Queen of Bethel 40

Rita Lister is the newly honored queen of Bethel 40, International Order of Job's Daughters.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lister of Mark street, she was installed Saturday evening at a candlelight ceremony in the Roosevelt Masonic Temple.

Men, Here's How to Be Boss at Home

By RUTH MILLETT

Memo to the June bridegroom: If you want to be the head of the household you'd better start out right.

If your wife is going to help you earn a living, then you ought to share the household chores. But if you are the only wage earner then your wife shouldn't have you wearing an apron in the kitchen.

If there are some things you can't abide—like seeing a girl running around with her hair done up on rollers—say so. I know one husband who laid down the law on that score the first week of his married life and in 25 years of marriage he has never had to look at a wife in pin curls.

★ ★ ★

If you don't want your in-laws interfering in your marriage, put your foot down the first time it happens.

If a well-run, orderly house is important to you—make that fact quite clear.

★ ★ ★

If you want to belong to a men's club or go bowling with the boys one night a week, don't let your wife convince you that you shouldn't want to do anything without her.

If you don't want to be swamped with installment payments, don't be afraid to say "We'll have to wait a while for this or that."

Don't push decisions off on your wife just because it is easier. You can't be head of anything—even a family—if you are too lazy to take the lead.

One word of warning: If you want the respect as well as the love of the girl you have married, you've got to prove to her that you are a man who is capable of being the head of his own house.

★ ★ ★

High Waistline?

(UPI) — If your figure is short and plump, help yourself by selecting dresses with a moderately high waistline, possibly the soft-topped surplice or brief overblouse dress. This narrow, tapered line actually is more slenderizing than the full or old tight waisted dresses.

Fabrics of Gowns Complement Bride

NEW YORK (UPI) — If the bride's dress is silk, the attendants should wear dresses of silk, velvet or velveteen.

If her dress is cotton, their dresses should be cotton, too. The style and color should complement the bride's dress.

Herbs and Wine Flavor Italian Veal Scalopini

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

When we visited the Bert Whites near Highland to take pictures of their home, we asked—as we usually do—for a recipe. Mrs. White and her mother collaborated on this one for Veal Scalopini. Both women use essentially the same recipe.

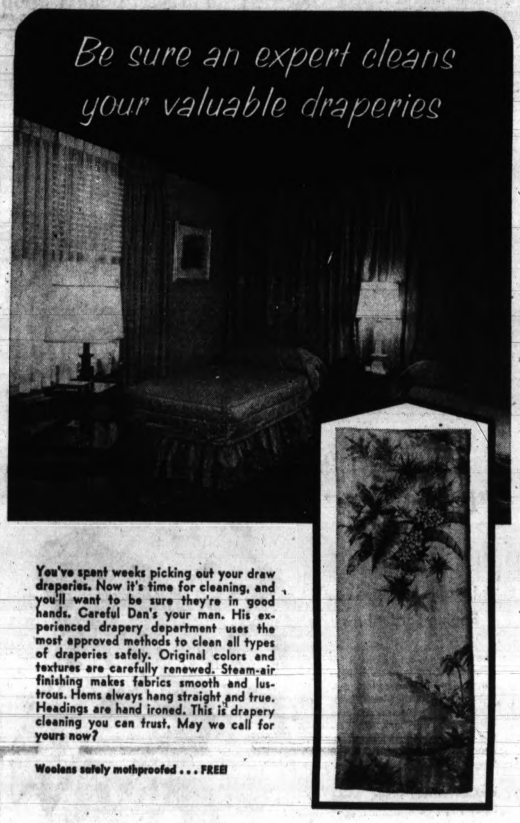

Mrs. White is a school teacher. Her mother, Mrs. Emma Barchetta, baby sits with the three White children.

VEAL SCALOPINI
By Mrs. Bert White

1½ pounds veal steak
Oil for cooking
1 can tomato paste OR 1½ cups canned tomatoes
Marsala or sauterne wine
Sweet basil
Rosemary
Mushrooms

Cut veal into thin strips and pound very thin. Coat with flour and brown in hot oil. Add tomato paste or canned tomatoes. Simmer until meat is tender.

Add a bit of wine and just a smidgen of the herbs before the end of the cooking time. Always use a light hand with herbs. Add mushrooms and heat them through. Serves 4.

You've spent weeks picking out your draw draperies. Now it's time for cleaning, and you'll want to be sure they're in good hands. Careful Dan's your man. His experienced drapery department uses the most approved methods to clean all types of draperies safely. Original colors and textures are carefully renewed. Steam-air finishing makes fabrics smooth and lustrous. Hems always hang straight and true. Headings are hand ironed. This is drapery cleaning you can trust. May we call for yours now?

Wilsons Go to Pennsylvania

Honeymoon in Mountains

MRS. DARYL WILSON

Honeymooning at Mount Airy Lodge in the Pocono Mountains in Pennsylvania are the Daryl Wilsons who were married Saturday afternoon in Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church.

★ ★ ★

The Rev. Theodore R. Allebach read the service before some 200 guests.

The former Onalee Joyce Sweet chose white nylon organza embroidered in thread lace for her wedding.

Styled with a modified sweetheart neckline, the bouffant skirt extended into a V-shape chapel train.

SWEDISH CROWN

A Swedish crown of seed pearls secured the fingertip veil of silk illusion.

The bride wore a pearl necklace, gift of the bridegroom, and carried a semicascade of white roses and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

The Quentin Sweets, parents of the bride, hosted the church reception followed by buffet dinner in their home on South Avery street, Waterford Township.

★ ★ ★

The bridegroom is the son of the Donald J. Wilsons of Preston avenue, also of Waterford Township.

White embroidered silk organza over powder-blue taffeta, with royal blue cummerbunds, fashioned street-length frocks for the attendants.

Patricia Hadden of Waterford, maid-of-honor, carried royal blue carnations with white maline tufts.

CARRIES ROSE PETALS

Flowers for Ileane Wilson, sister of the bridegroom, and Lynn Kyte, bridesmaids, were light blue carnations.

Denise Sweet, in white silk organza, carried a basket of pale pink rose petals.

William Hampton was best man. Richard Sweet seated guests at his sister's wedding, assisted by David Carter of Waterford. Dennis Sweet carried the rings.

The bride's mother appeared in a brown organza sheath with white organdy collar.

Mrs. Wilson chose beige silk organza with light green accessories. Both mothers wore beige cymbidium orchids.

Powder Eyebrows Before Penciling

(NEA) — If you want your brows to look natural after careful penciling, try powdering them before you use the eyebrow pencil.

Then shape and supplement their natural line, using short hair-like strokes in a color that complements your hair and skin coloring.

Informal Wedding

(UPI) — For the informal chapel, hotel or home wedding, choose a delicate pastel or white dress with a small headdress or wreath.

Note This, Newlyweds

URBANA, Ill. (UPI) — Professor Russell M. Nolen, of the University of Illinois, suggests these four ways to cut interest costs on loans for a house, furniture or car:

—Make as large a down payment as possible. Sometimes, a lender gives a lower rate on a large down payment because less risk is involved.

—Get the lowest possible interest rate. Check on different types of loans at different lending agencies, such as banks, savings and loan associations, mortgage loan companies and insurance companies.

—Use as short a payment period as possible.

—Try to get a loan that allows prepayment without penalty and will reduce interest charges as payments are made.

Health Statistic

NEW YORK (UPI) — High blood pressure affects more than twice as many women as men in the United States.

A Health Insurance Institute report shows that 3.8 million women have high blod pressure compared to 1.5 million men.

Past Presidents Honored

Past presidents of the Maple Leaf Club were honored at the 11th anniversary smorgasbord luncheon Friday, at the home of Mrs. William R. McClure on Illinois road.

★ ★ ★

Reviewing highlights of their term in office following the luncheon were Past Presidents Mrs. Nettie Hymers, Mrs. Charles Lloyd, Mrs. Hugh Endries, Mrs. Stuart Townsend, Mrs. Dale Moats, Mrs. William Bedard, Mrs. Vivian Tubbs, Mrs. Lawrence Terrien and Mrs. McClure.

Guests at the last meeting of the season for the Canadian-born members were Mrs. William David of Lochaven road, Waterford Township, and Mrs. Bert Mallinson of Toronto, Ont.

Best Astringent Yet—Cold Water

(NEA)—One of the best astringents ever invented is cold water. Splash it over your face and neck in the morning so that your skin tingles. Repeat the treatment at night, after your bath or shower. A good many beauties rely upon cold water as a regular part of their grooming routine.

But stay away from ice cubes or ice water. The water needn't be that cold. It should really be just cold enough to make your skin feel alive, not frozen.

High Forehead?

(NEA) — A high forehead doesn't have to be a beauty problem. You can minimize appearance of height by using foundation make-up one tone darker across your forehead at the hairline.

Blend with the original shade. Be sure to keep a high forehead powdered, as a shine will make it seem more noticeable.

The hair on your head, says a reference service, is as strong and pliable as aluminum.

Use Frankness, Not Guile, With Children

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

I'd been waiting at the department store counter for the boy and his mother to complete their purchase of his new bathrobe.

As it was being packaged, he drifted off to inspect a display of pajamas. His mother, smiling triumphantly, took me and the clerk into her confidence. Lowering her voice, she said:

"See? It never fails. If I'd told him I wanted him to take the maroon bathrobe, he wouldn't have looked at it. But I was smart.

"I said 'You wouldn't like a ratty color like this, would you?' And he takes it.

"I tell you, you can never push him. He always has to make his own decisions."

He had not made his own decision on the bathrobe. It had been made for him, not with honesty but with guile.

This kind of manipulation is as bad for us as it is for children.

What's the matter with us today? Are we American women all so scared of seeming "unfeminine" and dominating that we have to express our wishes to children with the deviousness of corkscrews?

★ ★ ★

We do not teach a child to make his own decisions by refraining from the open expression of our wishes. He learns to make them by listening to our wishes and taking them into account in his decisions.

He learns to make them by feeling free to say:

"No, I want the blue robe instead of the maroon one for these reasons. . . ."

To express our wishes to him does not make us a dominating mother. A dominating person is not one who refrains from the open expression of his opinions, but one who can tolerate no objection to them. He is the person for whom no wishes but his own exist.

All human beings wish certain behavior from other people. If, to avoid any appearance of seeming "unfeminine" and dominating, we avoid open demands on children, what happens is what happened to the mother of this column.

We begin to demand secretly. We turn to guile and trickery to get what we want from children and deny them the opportunity to declare their opinions and make their case for them.

We become the most dangerous kind of dominator — the secret kind.

We join the breed, not of loving women but of the contemptuous ones who trick their way to power by the sweet pretense that they don't want it.

It's a nasty breed to belong to.

Federal Reserve Cuts Discount Rate

Will Banks Drop Other Financial Shoe?

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — The borrowing public is waiting today to see if the nation's banks will drop the other shoe.

Two Federal Reserve system banks dropped the first shoe Thursday by lowering the discount rate—that is, by making it cheaper for the commercial banks to borrow money from the Federal Reserve System.

Now it's a question: Will the commercial banks in turn make it cheaper for the public to borrow from them?

And if they do, will there be enough pickup in such borrowing to give business in general a boost on the prosperity ladder?

By cutting the discount rate to 3½ per cent from 4 per cent the reserve banks in San Francisco and Philadelphia were bringing this rate more in line with other short-term borrowing charges, which have been mostly on the downside for many weeks.

★ ★ ★

The interest rates were dropping because the demand for loans from business firms and from home builders hadn't been as large as previously. And many felt that the psychology of a weakened stock market had led business to be less eager to borrow for expansion or to build up stocks.

★ ★ ★

The scuttling of the summit meeting in Paris set off no rush to stock up, and apparently led few people to look for higher prices.

So the Federal Reserve System spokesmen say there is little inflationary psychology any more, and therefore no reason to keep as tight a hand on the supply of money and credit.

DONE FOR BOOST

Cutting the charges for commercial bank borrowing from the central banks is often done when the money managers feel that deflation is more likely than inflation, or when they feel that making borrowing cheaper will give a lagging economy a boost.

★ ★ ★

Raising the discount rate is often done when the money managers feel a business boom may get out of hand and lead both to higher prices and finally to a bust.

But for the public itself, raising or lowering of the discount rate means little except what it leads the banks themselves to do.

Of late the banks haven't had to borrow much from the Federal Reserve. A lower rate may not lead them to borrow any more now. It may not lead them to cut their own rates to the public.

★ ★ ★

If they do cut their rates to their corporate and individual borrowers, the effect on the economy in general will still depend on the public reaction.

'MUST DRINK'

If business doesn't want to borrow more and build up greater stocks, or expand its activities, the effect on the general economy will be slight.

★ ★ ★

But one form of borrowing goes merrily on. Outstanding consumer instalment credit in April made its biggest monthly expansion since last August. The lowly consumer goes right on buying on the cuff.

★ ★ ★

A lowered discount rate could let the commercial banks borrow more money to finance further increases in instalment credit — if the money isn't available from other sources, such as the increased flow of savings from depositors, from pension funds, and the like.

The funds for financing all the sales on time—the total outstanding is now in excess of 40 billion dollars—was found when the discount rate was 4 per cent, as it still is in most of the 12 Federal Reserve districts.

★ ★ ★

So the effect, if any, of cutting the discount rate seems likely to be only on business borrowing. And that depends on business psychology. Of late it's been on the cautious side — looking for no boom, nor for any recession in the next few months either.

Lutheran Church Eyes Merger While Marking 100th-Year Celebration

ROCK ISLAND, Ill. (AP) — The Augustana Lutheran Church will celebrate its 100th anniversary here this week and at the same time may take the first steps toward ending the church's existence in its present form.

★ ★ ★

On Wednesday delegates will vote on the question of merger with three other Lutheran bodies into the proposed Lutheran Church in America.

If the merger is approved by all four churches, the new church will come into being in 1963 and the Augustana Lutheran Church, as well as the others, will lose its identity.

The proposal is that the Augustana Lutheran Church, with 600,000 members, join with the 2,400,000-member United Lutheran Church in America, the 35,000-member Finish Evangelical Lutheran Church and the 23,000-member American Evangelical Lutheran Church.

★ ★ ★

The Augustana Church will be the first to vote on the merger.

Favorable action by the delegates on the merger this week will not be final.

If approved by the majority of the delegates, the proposal will be presented to the conventions next spring of the 13 regional conferences of the Augustana Church where a majority approval also will be required for passage.

If conferences having two-thirds of the total membership of the church vote approval, the matter will be submitted to the 1961 synod of the church when a favorable vote of at least two-thirds of the delegates will be required.

College Students Getting Smarter, Study Reveals

ITACA, N. Y. (UPI) — A survey shows that college students may be a bit brighter, academically speaking, than their parents were.

A study of the marks of undergraduate students at Cornell University revealed that the average for the entire student body was 77.07 last year. A similar survey two decades before showed average marks of 75.21.

MSUO Night Courses County's Melting Pot

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

By MAX E. SIMON

At night, Michigan State University Oakland becomes the melting pot of Oakland County.

More than 1,200 local residents from all walks of life have taken advantage of the educational opportunities offered by the new university during its first year of operation.

Business executives, housewives, factory workers, doctors, mechanics, and local government officials are among those enrolled in the evening classes.

Students in specialized courses represent a surprising number of varied occupational fields.

★ ★ ★

A course in the problems of township government, for example, includes an upholsterer, telephone switchman, accountant, housewife, machinist, salesman, dentist, draftsman, surveyor, civil engineer, dairyman and a theater manager.

In addition, of course, the class attracts township officials.

Among them are Roy Davis, Pontiac Township supervisor, and Frank J. Voll, Oakland Township supervisor.

Trustees from Sterling and Avon townships, the treasurers of Pontiac, Avon, and White Lake townships, and the clerks of Sterling, Shelby, Pontiac and Oakland townships, also are students.

GOOD CHANCE

Of the course, sponsored by the MSUO Office of Continuing Education and the MSU Institute for Community Development, Davis said:

"For those in the class who were not familiar with the subject, it was an excellent chance to learn the functions of township government.

"Then they're not so apt to criticize," he added.

Another of the specialized courses offered at MSUO this spring is one in supervisory methods and management, tailored to the special needs of the Oakland County Road Commission.

★ ★ ★

Sol D. Lomerson, one of three commissioners taking the course, said:

"The main benefit to our superintendents taking the course is that it refreshes their memories, brings to light things they may have forgotten."

PAY TUITION

The Commission is paying the tuition of its supervisory employes taking the course.

Why?

"Some of our people," Lomerson explained, "haven't had the opportunity of much study —they've grown up in the job.

"These men are picking up new ideas. The Commission has had much criticism heaped on it in cases where these fellows have met the public.

"A lot of supervisors have an arrogant attitude: 'I'm the boss and to heck with you.'

"The important thing for a man in supervision to learn is that the man in the small job is just as important in that job as the boss is in his."

The MSUO courses attract people with different educational levels. Dr. William Kluback's night class, "Philosophies of Life," includes adults who did not finish high school, high school and college graduates, and two persons with advanced professional degrees.

VARIED CLASS

The students include a pair of laboratory technicians, a painter, lawyer, insurance clerk, medical secretary, library assistant, and an elementary school teacher.

"I've been getting interested in these basic questions about man's relationship with man, with the universe, with God, for the past three or four years," said Russell Carlson, a lab technician at the Baldwin Rubber Co.

"The course gives me a chance to look at religion, question the dogmas, to wonder why."

The reasons for returning to school vary among the students.

Of all the subjects that would be needed by a civil engineer, Russian would seem the least necessary. Yet that is what Chester T. Wieczerniak of Utica studies in the evenings.

RUSSIAN HELPS

"I was motivated mostly by curiosity," he said. "But it might be useful professionally, too. Today the two top scientific and technical countries are the U.S.S.R. and the United States, so the current literature coming out tends to be in one of those two languages."

Alman J. Durkee, vice president of a Birmingham architectural firm, is a student in a course entitled "Effective Speaking and Leadership."

"In my profession I am asked to make public presentations and I wanted them to be more polished," Durkee explained.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Ruth Hearn, 3615 Baybrook Dr., Waterford Township, is an art student because, she said: "I've been wild to do it." She is the mother of three small children.

Mrs. Zabelle Hooks, 498 Bay St., studied art at Detroit's Cass Technical High School and worked as an artist in the advertising department of a Detroit corporation.

Now a part-time art instructor in the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Dept. adult program, she finds the art courses at MSUO offer her an opportunity to advance her studies.

TO HELP TEENS

Even MSUO employes attend classes. One of them, Mrs. Alvena Zimonick of 1251 Sycamore St., Avon Township is studying beginning psychology.

"I am in constant contact with teen-agers," explained Mrs. Zimonick, who works in the Office of the Registrar. "Because I develop friendships with them they come to me with minor problems.

"But I often didn't know what to tell them—so it was back to school."

Dr. Lowell Eklund, director of the adult education program, said the university administration has been well pleased by community response to the opportunities for adult learning offered by the university.

"Next year we plan to increase substantially our selection of course subjects in order to provide university-level opportunities for learning by more and more of the adults in the community," Eklund said.

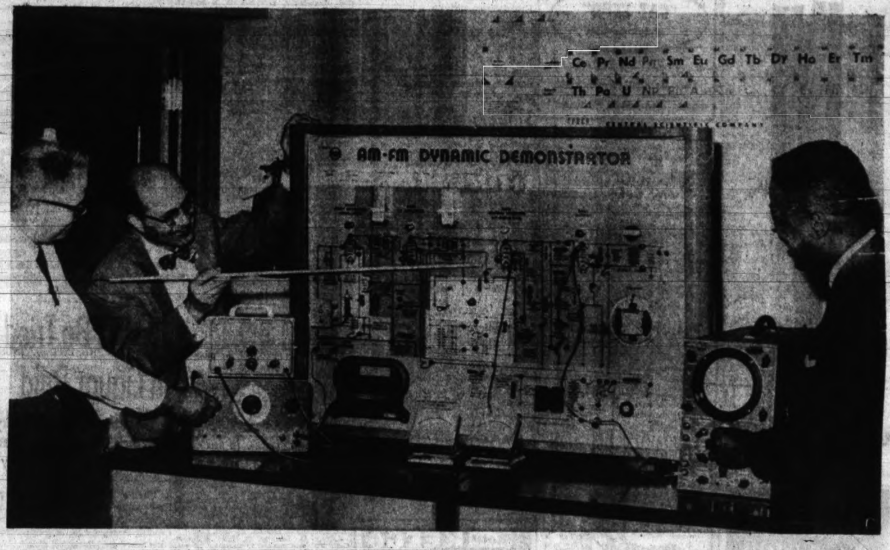

"We shall offer additional professional courses designed to meet the need for professional development inevitably encountered by the maturing, ambitious individual who finds that his high school or college education fast becomes obsolete or fails to qualify him for new professional opportunities and demands.

"However, our continuing emphasis will be on the real heart of education—the humanities or liberal arts," Eklund added. "These are the areas of learning directed at man as a man—not as a money-maker—the 'whys' of knowledge rather than the 'hows'.

"The effectiveness and wholesomeness of his life requires the 'liberating' process that he can get only from the study of such subjects as philosophy, science, history, religion, music, psychology and great books."

LEARNING TO PAINT—Mrs. Renee Radell (right) scrutinizes the art work of Mrs. Leslie Hearns, 3615 Baybrook Dr., Waterford Township. The other art student is Mrs. Zabelle Hooks, 498 Bay St. Both women are housewives. Several art classes are among the evening courses offered at MSUO.

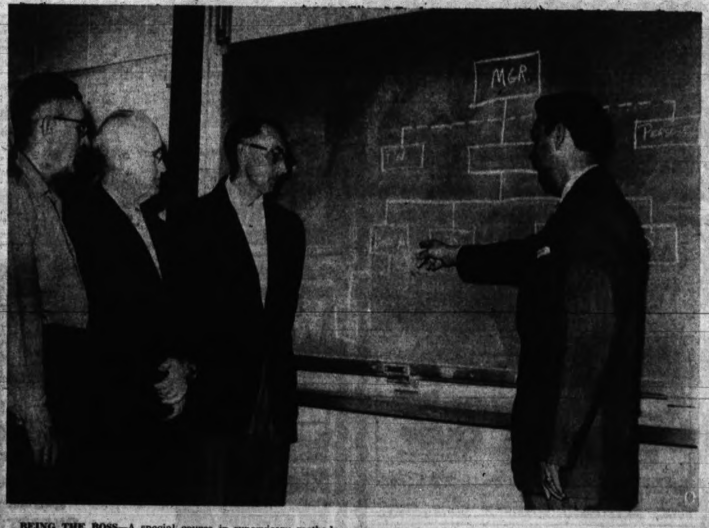

EXPLAINS ELECTRONICS—Robert Allured, instructor, uses his pointer to show two night school students at Michigan State University Oakland, how a principle in electronics theory works in practice. On the left is Pat Smith, 154 Highland St., Avon Township. The other student is Ben Boulier of Detroit. Allured teaches a series of courses in basic electrical engineering.

CLASS IN HOME—There's no rule at MSUO that classes have to be held on campus, and so sometimes students and instructors meet elsewhere. Dr. William Klubeck (right) holds a class in "Philosophies of Life" at the home of one of his students, Mrs. David Engstrom, 455 Wimpole Dr., Avon Township. Listening are (from left) Mrs. Engstrom; Mary Lou Pung, 231 S. Adams Rd., Avon Township; and John A. Hannum, MSUO curator.

BEING THE BOSS—A special course in supervisory methods and management is one of the specialized courses offered at MSUO. Colgate St.; Oscar Loomis, 2340 Montroyal St., Waterford Township; and Edward Wright, 100 Broadway St., Davisburg.

More Hospital Time May Ground Mamie

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower probably will spend most of this week in Walter Reed Army Hospital, her sister said.

★ ★ ★

It appears, from this, that she will not be going to the Far East with President Eisenhower, who is scheduled to leave on that trip Sunday, June 12.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Eisenhower already has spent seven days in the hospital for treatment of acute asthmatic bronchitis. She is reported to be progressing satisfactorily.

Charge Woman, 74, in Grandson's Death

DETROIT (AP)—Police said they would seek a murder warrant today against a frail 74-year-old grandmother held in the fatal shooting of her teen-age grandson.

Police said Mrs. Sarah Phillips told them she shot her grandson Kenneth Phillips, 17, because he struck and knocked down his 13-year-old sister Nona. Mrs. Phillips was held for investigation of murder.

Phillips died Saturday night six hours after he was shot in the forehead.

"I didn't think I was strong enough to pull the trigger—but I did," police quoted Mrs. Phillips as saying.

7,000 Crowd Mark Twain Shrine Dedication

FLORIDA, Mo. (AP) — About 7,000 persons jammed into this village Sunday for the dedication of a Mark Twain shrine.

★ ★ ★

The shrine is the two-room cabin where Samuel Langhorne Clemens was born 125 years ago. Writing as Mark Twain, Clemens attained world fame as a humorist.

★ ★ ★

The cabin, moved a short distance from its original location, is housed in a $250,000 modernistic museum.

Socialists Push Japanese Plan

They'll Quit Parliament as Act Against Kishi and Ike's Visit

By RENE-GEORGES INAGAKI

TOKYO (AP) — The Socialist bloc in Parliament today formally approved its mass resignation in a pressure move aimed at ousting Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi and washing out President Eisenhower's visit to Japan.

Socialist leaders hoped the mass resignation would arouse public opinion to force Kishi to dissolve Parliament before the U.S.-Japan security treaty automatically takes effect June 19 — the day Eisenhower is due to arrive.

★ ★ ★

The big national labor federation, Sohyo, called a national convention Wednesday and Thursday to draft plans for another strike against Kishi, the security pact and the Eisenhower visit.

The "People's Council to Block the Security Pact," spearheaded by the Socialists and Sohyo, announced a timetable on its anti-government campaign emphasizing protests against the President's visit.

Included are demonstrations in front of the U.S. Embassy June 10 when a White House advance party, led by presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty arrives; "May Day-like" demonstrations throughout the country June 11 with 200,000 expected to take part in protest rallies around the Parliament building and the U.S. Embassy; a series of work stoppages June 15-17, climaxed by a strike on the 17th, and mass marches with demonstrators wearing mourning on the day Eisenhower arrives.

Kishi has declared he intends to stand fast behind the invitation to the President "no matter what may come." He also has said he will not resign until after the treaty is in effect.

Fulkerson Assails Taylor's Tactics

A Democratic candidate for Oakland County prosecutor criticized Republican incumbent George F. Taylor for what he alleged was "complete mishandling" of a gambling conspiracy case last year.

★ ★ ★

In a campaign talk to nearly 400 in Waterford Township Saturday night, Birmingham attorney George J. Fulkerson said Taylor proceeded with a conspiracy charge against five persons without sufficient evidence.

Two defendants were acquitted of the conspiracy charges last October in Circuit Court, while conspiracy charges against the other three had been dismissed earlier for insufficient evidence.

"The defendants were charged not with gambling, but with conspiracy to violate the gambling laws," Fulkerson said in his talk, a much more difficult charge to prove.

Huron River a Major Culprit

State Traffic, Drownings Claim at Least 17 Lives

By United Press International

Traffic and drownings combined to take a total of at least 17 lives in Michigan during the weekend.

State Police said 11 persons were killed in traffic accidents during the weekend and at least six persons were known to have drowned.

In addition to the drownings and traffic deaths, Larry Christesen, Waterford Township, was killed when his car slipped off a jack and crushed him.

In addition, a University of Michigan student was missing and police were dragging the Huron River for his body on the presumption that he may have drowned.

Thomas W. Cameron, 25, Ann Arbor, left his home Friday night to go fishing. His wife reported him missing when he failed to return home by midnight.

No trace could be found of Cameron, and his wife said he was carrying a check for $400 when he left home. She said he usually fished from the bank of the river and not from a boat. His fishing gear was not in his car, which was found near the spot where he usually fished.

Huey Tyrell, 23, Detroit, drowned in the Huron River near the spot where Cameron usually fished. Part of Tyrell's picnicking party watched police drag the river for Cameron's body but Tyrell said he didn't want to "see a dead man's body" and went for a canoe ride.

The canoe capsized 30 feet from shore and Cameron drowned.

The Huron River also claimed the life of Ross Mauers, 16, Detroit.

Mauers was swimming with a companion in the river at South Rockwood when he suddenly disappeared beneath the water and was not seen again.

Other drowning victims included:

Roy Davis, 35, Farmington—drowned Saturday when he was pitched from his speedboat on Ford Lake near Ypsilanti.

Ernest Reed, 13, Flint—drowned Saturday while swimming with a group of boys in the Flint River in the city.

Bruno Slominski, 48, Hamtramck—drowned in Lake St. Clair Saturday when the motor boat in which he and four others were riding was swamped by wind-whipped waves, one mile off Selfridge AFB. Nearby boaters rescued the others, but Slominski, a good swimmer, apparently exhausted himself in efforts to save his 10-year-old son.

Albert R. Barnes, 6, Kalamazoo drowned late Saturday in Morrow Lake near Comstock when he slipped off a slab of concrete and fell into deep water while his parents were fishing from a boat nearby.

Wayne M. Miller, 50, and Alfred B. Schmidt, 51, both of Springport, were killed in a two-car, head-on crash on M-60 about 1½ miles from Springport in Jackson County. Three other persons in the cars were in critical condition in St. Lawrence Hospital in Lansing.

The Jackson County Sheriff's Department said the accident occurred when a car driven by Joan Bibler, 29, also of Springport, crossed the center line and crashed into the other car.

In the only other accident claiming more than one life, Willie Cooper, 27, and Louis Winslow, 47, both of Detroit, were killed when they were involved in an accident as they drove their motorcycles away from the Ionia County fairgrounds, after a motorcycle race.

One of the motorcyclists crashed into a car as he was attempting to pass another car. His motorcycle was thrown into the path of the other motorcyclist and both were killed in the crash.

Hunt UP Woods for 3 Fugitives

Convicts Flee Prison Camp Near Paradise After Slugging Guards

By The Associated Press

A police dragnet combed the heavily wooded area near Paradise in Upper Michigan today in search of three fugitives who overpowered a guard and escaped from the Tahquamenon State Prison camp Sunday.

The escapees, described by State Police as dangerous, were armed with knives when they broke out of the honor institution operated by the maximum security Marquette State Prison.

In other prison break-outs, two prisoners cut through a wire fence and escaped from an outside dormitory at the Ionia Reformatory but were recaptured six hours later.

Two prisoners sawed their way out of the half-century old Wexford County Jail at Cadillac, but they also were apprehended in the area several hours later.

★ ★ ★

The fugitives still on the loose from Paradise are Earl J. Lacey, an Indian from Sault Ste. Marie, serving time for larceny, forgery and parole violation; Alfred Bumpus, 26, of Tipton, sentenced for unarmed robbery and parole violation, and William H. Hanhan, 36, of Detroit sentenced for auto theft.

Commerce Twp. Boy Injured by Auto

A Commerce Township boy, Patrick L. Noskey, 8, was reported in satisfactory condition today at Pontiac General Hospital after being struck by a car Saturday afternoon.

Patrick, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Noskey of 1555 Lookout Dr., was walking across Cooley Lake road near Williams Lake road when he was struck by a car driven by Joseph L. Barrett, 39, of 8240 Vandell St., Commerce Township.

The boy said he was carrying a large box and couldn't see Barrett approaching. Witnesses told sheriff's deputies that Barrett had no chance to avoid the lad.

Wants to Inspect Voting Records of 4 Counties

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Justice Department asked four more southern counties today to open their voting and registration records for FBI inspection to determine whether Negroes were being discriminated against.

Attorney General William P. Rogers, operating under the 1960 Civil Rights Act, asked election officials in Clarendon and Hampton counties, South Carolina; Sumter County, Alabama, and Fayette County, Georgia, to make available their registration and voting figures.

The four counties brought to 12 the number of southern counties which have been asked to provide their records for inspection since President Eisenhower signed the Civil Rights Act.

Under Their Noses

MOBILE, Ala. (UPI)—Safecrackers opened two safes and a cash register in stores across the street from the police station here and escaped with $3,000 in cash.

12 Will Be Tried in Liquor Raid

11 Enter Pleas of Guilty After Being Captured by Vice Unit Saturday

Twelve men arrested in a Pontiac police vice squad raid on an alleged illegal liquor establishment at 271 Prospect St. will face trial this week in Municipal Court.

Eleven men pleaded not guilty Saturday to charges of loitering in an illegal liquor place. The other is accused of maintaining and operating an illegal liquor place.

Judge Maurice E. Finnegan set trial on Wednesday for Robert L. McNeacy, 36, of the Prospect street address. He is accused of operating the establishment. Bond was set at $100.

Those accused as loiterers will be tried Thursday. They include Redmond J. Henry, 43, of 238 Hughes St.; Knox Young, 32, of 356 Midway St.; Charles Vann, 22, of 237 Harris St.; Wallace Smith, 55, of 198 Rapid St.; Joseph F. McCoy, 30, of 292 Rapid St.; and Junior L. Shaw, 27, of 165 Fulton St.

Others are Calvin E. Reynolds, 30, of 209 Earlemoor Blvd.; Roy Bass, 39, of 23 Hillsmont St.; Ruby B. Bell, 31, of 223 S. Edith St.; Jimmie Goodman, 24, of 172 W. South Blvd.; and Thomas Short, 34, of 73 Elizabeth St.

The house was raided at 1 a.m. Saturday.

Visits Daughter From Germany

INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP—A German grandmother was reunited today with her daughter who married an American GI and came to the United States more than 11 years ago.

Visiting this country on a six-month visa is Mrs. Marie Schmiebauer, 58, whose daughter, Anita, 32, is the wife of Larry Hefferman, 5368 Console St.

For the first time, Mrs. Schmiebauer has met her three grandchildren, Eva Maria Hefferman, 11, Larry J., 10, and David, 2.

Mrs. Schmiebauer arrived at Detroit Metropolitan Airport last night after a series of airplane flights from her hometown of Augsburg, near Munich.

* * *

Three months from now she plans to visit a second daughter, Elizabeth, who also married a GI and left Germany two years ago.

The daughter is now Mrs. Robert Stauffer of Akron, Ohio, the mother of a two-weeks-old baby boy.

"I wanted to take the children to visit mother in Germany for years," said Mrs. Hefferman. "But we never had the money.

* * *

"Finally my husband and Elizabeth's decided they could afford to bring mother here, if we couldn't go there."

The reunion was saddened only by the fact that Mrs. Hefferman's father died a year ago. At one time there were plans that he, too, make the trip to this country.

Still another of Mrs. Schmiebauer's daughters married an American soldier. She is Marianne, who became Mrs. Robert Hartley four years ago. Hartley, an Army lieutenant, is presently stationed in Germany.

The Heffermans were married in Augsburg in 1947, while Hefferman was stationed there with Army occupational forces. They came to Pontiac after Hefferman was discharged in late 1958.

Hefferman is an assembly worker at Fisher Body Division in Pontiac.

PLOTTING COURSE—West Bloomfield High School junior Jack Newton, 17, of 3225 Walma Dr., Orchard Lake, points out the location of the small island off Denmark where his American Field Service trip will take him for six weeks. Looking on are two other students active in the AFS program, Barbara Black and Millan Millan Munioz. Barbara is the president of the newly formed high school club that will sponsor AFS activities at the school. Millan Millan is an exchange student from Spain who participated in the program this year. He returns to his home June 29.

Body Would Create Plan for Shelby Twp. Growth

SHELBY TOWNSHIP—The Shelby Township Board will ask voter approval Aug. 2 to create a commission to work on a master plan of township development.

The proposal calls for a planning commission which township officials believe will better implement its current development project than the existing zoning board, according to Township Clerk William R. Peper.

The Township Board has ordered a survey of the entire township with special emphasis on the area north of Hall road that is included in Utica's proposed annexation plan.

Expected to result from the survey is a new zoning map and a revised set of ordinances.

Utica engineer George Koopman has been hired to assist with the project, taking charge particularly of the land use and rezoning study. Township engineer John Lehner was ordered to start the drainage survey which will be used in the development of a master drainage plan.

Under consideration by the Board was the hiring of a planning consultant to develop all phases of a master plan. This was abandoned in favor of hiring a second engineer.

The sum of $3,000 has been allotted in the township budget to finance the project this year.

GREATER POWER SEEN

The commissioners feel a new body would have greater power and responsibility than the zoning board.

* * *

The commission would be composed of as many as nine members, including a township official (probably the clerk), who would serve varying terms in office. The entire commission would be appointed by the Township Board.

Township officials say they have been working on plans for a development program for about eight months, and that in the meantime Utica's Mayor Edward Church announced proposed expansion of the city to include eight square miles and 10,000 residents.

A poll was taken in one subdivision of Shelby Township to see if the paid-up members in the Shelby Manor Civic Assn. were for or against the mayor's plan. The poll showed that 75 per cent of the membership favored it.

Although the boundaries have not been set, the area tentatively considered for incorporation is from Schoenherr road to Mound road, between 19 and 21 Mile roads.

The total area will include Dresden Village, Grant Park and the National Machine Products Co. on Utica road besides Shelby Manor subdivision. These properties are in sections of both Shelby and Sterling townships.

Excluded is the proposed City of Moravian Hills.

Shelby and Sterlig township officials have gone on record as agreeing that the problem of expansion is solely that of Utica.

* * *

According to them, Utica has been told by the state to abandon its present water system, and outside help will be needed to solve that problem.

* * *

Peper said that after studying the proposal and Utica's budget, his Board believes the best thing the city could do would be to incorporate and go back to the townships.

Bandits Escape After Holding 4 at Gunpoint

HAZEL PARK — Police here are looking for three men who entered a confectionary store at 20809 John R St. yesterday morning and held up three customers and the store clerk at gunpoint.

* * *

The bandits escaped with $1,158 and an $83 pay check.

The clerk, Lonnie Clark, 54, whose brother Roy owns the store, told Hazel Park police the men entered at about 10 a.m., each carrying a gun. They herded the clerk and customers to the basement and took their money.

* * *

Clark was hit over the head by one of the bandits because he refused to tell "where the rest of the money" was hidden. The thug was called "Angelo."

Charged in Shotgun Assault

* * *

Earl Matteson Jr. of 46 James St. was picked up at his home Saturday by Pontiac police on the complaint of an Avon Township man who said Matteson threatened to kill him earlier in the afternoon.

Charles T. Rhodes of 1002 Tienken Rd. was visiting at the home of Bernard Clark, 7690 Washburn St., Washington. According to Romeo State Police, Matteson drove up, got out of his car pointing a shotgun at Rhodes, threatening to kill him.

Clark hollered at Matteson, telling him this wasn't the man he was gunning for. He said it wasn't Floyd Coulter who was married to Matteson's wife before he was.

* * *

State troopers said Coulter and Matteson have had two or three fights before but this is the first one in which a gun played any part.

Rhodes called State Police who had Matteson picked up at his home. Pontiac police said he was drunk and had a loaded shotgun in his car.

Matteson was to be arraigned today before Macomb Justice Francis A. Castellucci.

Driver Seriously Injured

Crash Near Lapeer Fatal

LAPEER — A 59-year-old Flint woman was killed and the driver of the car in which she was riding seriously injured when their vehicle hit a railroad bridge abutment three miles west of here yesterday.

* * *

The car plunged down a 100-foot embankment after the crash.

Dead before she reached Lapeer County General Hospital was Pearl Grenier of 509 Prospect St. The driver of the car, Mrs. Eleanor M. West, 49, of 10364 Davison Rd., Davison, is listed in fair condition there today.

According to Lapeer County sheriff's deputies, the West car was heading out of Lapeer on Genesee road, around an s-curve when it struck the bridge. It sheared off three guard rails before plummeting down the embankment, landing on its top.

* * *

The stretch of road is posted with a 35 m.p.h. speed limit.

Sheriff's deputies and the county prosecutor today are investigating the cause of the accident.

Farmington Twp. Man Drowns Fishing

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — Roy Davis, 35, of 20966 Renselaer Rd., drowned yesterday when he fell out of his motorboat while fishing alone on Ford Lake, two miles southeast of Ypsilanti.

* * *

His body was recovered by State Police skin divers in about 15 feet of water.

* * *

UAW Neutral, Reuther Claims

Rules Out Link With Endorsement of Jack Kennedy by Williams

DETROIT (AP)—President Walter P. Reuther said Saturday that Gov. G. Gennen Williams' endorsement last week of Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) for president "has in no way changed" his or his union's neutrality in the contest for the Democratic nomination.

"The governor's endorsement," Reuther said, "was his personal decision and it was made without consultation with or advance knowledge of the UAW and its leadership."

The UAW has decreed that its leaders, locally and nationally, shall not use their union titles in campaigning as individuals for candidates of their choice.

* * *

Reuther said both he and the UAW "subscribe fully to the sound polity of the AFL-CIO of maintaining neutrality as between the candidates for the nomination" . . .

Then Reuther added in a statement:

"The three Democratic senators seeking the presidential nomination—Johnson (D-Tex), Kennedy (D-Mass) and Symington (D-Mo)—have all made significant contributions to the advancement of important and meaningful social legislation affecting the welfare of all the people of our nation."

Reuther made no mention of Vice President Nixon, the only announced candidate of the Republican Party.

Found Dead in Closet of Commerce Home

A Commerce Township man was found dead in the closet of his bedroom Sunday afternoon, according to sheriff's deputies.

Deputies said Everett Winters Jr., 51, of 8581 Cooley Lake Rd., hanged himself.

W. Bloomfield AFS Perks Up for Summer

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — While most clubs and organizations have begun to slow down for the summer months, the local chapter of the American Field Service here is planning an increased activities program.

* * *

For the most part, the speeded-up program will be undertaken by the recently formed West Bloomfield High School Club of AFS.

The new club, headed by Barbara Black, a junior, will sponsor activities to raise funds to bring a foreign student to this country and send a local high school student abroad for the summer.

* * *

"Committees will be formed to orientate foreign students and make them at home during their stay in this country," Barbara said.

RAISED DOOR-TO-DOOR

In the past, most donations to support the program have been raised through a door-to-door campaign and rummage sales held by the local chapter.

The local chapters need $600 for each foreign student they sponsor and $595 for American students sent abroad.

This year, the chapter sponsored the trip of a boy from Spain, Millan Millan Munioz, who attended the school this semester.

* * *

The high school student for who they will underwrite the cost of the trip abroad for six weeks is Jack Newton of 3225 Walma Dr., Orchard Lake, a 17-year-old junior.

Millan Millan, 18, who graduates next week, returns to his home in Granada June 29.

During his stay in this country, he has been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Roswell Reeves, 5815 Commerce Rd., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Urquhart, 6460 Commerce Rd., both of Orchard Lake.

GOING TO DENMARK

Newtons trip will take him to Denmark, where he will live with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rosenstand.

Rosenstand is the director of an agricultural college in Korinth on the island of Fyn.

Newton, who leaves on his trip the day after school lets out for the summer, said he especially wants to take a tour of the many castles in the area, tour Copenhagen and visit the home of Hans Christian Anderson.

He said he is looking forward to the trip since the Rosenstand's have a boy his age.

Newton said he has been told that an American student from California is already living with a family in the forest and lake surrounded city.

Under leadership of the local chapter, the high school club will sponsor a Christmas card design contest open to students in the school.

The three winning designs will be printed and sold to raise funds to sponsor more exchange trips next year.

While the AFS was formed in 1915 as a volunteer ambulance service with the French armies, the teenage exchange program has only been in existence since 1947.

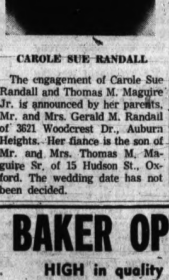

During World War I and II, its members found that daily personal contact fostered international understanding, respect and good will and they set up the peacetime youth program.

10,000 PARTICIPATE

Since its inception in 1947, some 10,000 students have participated in the program.

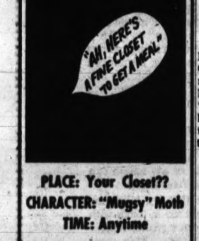

About 1,100 students are active in the exchange program this year.

The present aim of AFS is to have 5,000 students participate in the program annually.

CAROLE SUE RANDALL

The engagement of Carole Sue Randall and Thomas M. Maguire Jr. is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald M. Randall of 3621 Woodcrest Dr., Auburn Heights. Her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Maguire Sr. of 15 Hudson St., Oxford. The wedding date has not been decided.

A Hurricane of Common Sense

By DR. FRANK N. D. BUCHMAN

THIS ADDRESS WILL GO TO THE WORLD THROUGH PRESS, TELEVISION AND RADIO. IT WAS GIVEN ON THE OCCASION OF DR. BUCHMAN'S 82ND BIRTHDAY, JUNE 4TH, AT THE OPENING OF THE MORAL RE-ARMAMENT WORLD ASSEMBLY IN CAUX, SWITZERLAND, AND ALSO MARKED THE OPENING OF THE MRA ASSEMBLY IN MACKINAC ISLAND, MICHIGAN. THESE ASSEMBLIES HAVE BEEN CALLED TO BRING A CURE TO THE CRISIS OF THE NATIONS.

THERE is a hurricane of common sense sweeping through the world. "A Hurricane of Common Sense"—that was the headline in a newspaper read by the leaders of Washington. It refers to the manifesto Ideology and Co-Existence which in the last six months has gone to 73,000,000 homes throughout the United States, Canada, Scandinavia, Germany, Italy, France, Great Britain, The Netherlands, Greece and Turkey, as well as India, South Africa, South America, Australia and Japan. It has already been translated into 24 different languages, and will be read by the millions. It puts squarely to the modern world the choice—Moral Re-Armament or Communism.

My old friend General Guisan, wartime Commander-in-Chief of the Armies of Switzerland, wrote the foreword to the Swiss edition. In it he said, "On the ideological plane neutrality can be dangerous, for refusal to fight for what is right plays the enemy's game. The training center at Caux is a unique instrument that has changed the conduct of nations. I long that our whole people should face realistically the forces which confront each other today, that we draw from our traditions a relentless determination to safeguard at all costs the freedoms we inherit."

This was the last public statement General Guisan made. When he died 300,000 citizens of Switzerland stood in silent tribute to the man who was regarded as the savior of his nation. His widow wrote to me, "General Guisan was gripped by the idea and the might of Moral Re-Armament. In the evening of his life it was a great girder of support to him."

Mighty Wind of Hope

Moral Re-Armament is a hurricane of common sense sweeping irresistibly through the heart of nations. It is smashing down the barriers between nations and races, dispersing the fogs of hate that threaten humanity and bringing a mighty wind of hope to the millions of the earth.

Hoffnung—Hope—is the name of the play God put in the mind of a miner from the Ruhr. He is a worker at the coalface. He had never thought of writing a play. He changed. He found an answer to division in his home, his nation and the world. Chancellor Adenauer heard of this play and sent for this Ruhr miner and his friends. He asked them to go to Britain and France to prepare the way for his own visits to those countries. "Many of us Germans," he said, "do not realize how deep are the wounds in other countries which were caused by what we did through having the wrong ideology." In an exclusive article in the New York Journal-American headlined "Adenauer Calls MRA World's Hope", the Chancellor said, "A nation with an ideology is always on the offensive. A nation without an ideology is self-satisfied and dead."

In Britain, Hoffnung was like a hurricane. It shifted the prejudices of years. In the spirit of Moral Re-Armament men like James Coltart, executive of the British press and television, took inspired and fearless action to prepare for Chancellor Adenauer's visit. His time in Britain was hailed as a triumph. Back in Bonn the Chancellor at a meeting of the Christian Democratic Party referred to the mistrust between Britain and Germany which had been swept aside, and said, "We have to thank Moral Re-Armament for that."

In Paris, French audiences stood and cheered. Some were in tears as the German miners sang the Marseillaise in French.

There is a shrine at Mont Valérien where during the occupation 4,500 Frenchmen of the Resistance met their death. To Mont Valérien went those Ruhr miners. They were escorted by the wife of the General at the head of the French nation's defenses, and the niece of President de Gaulle. They were the first Germans to go there in fifteen years. They gave news of an idea powerful enough to unite nations separated by generations of hate. They expressed their sorrow for the past and their resolve to lay down their lives to rebuild Europe and the world. The columns of Figaro gave the news of this event to the French nation.

Vaterland, leading Swiss Catholic newspaper, reported the response to the miners' play in the monastery schools of central Switzerland under the headline, "Catholic Colleges Hail MRA Play." Vaterland reported Rector Scherrer of Schwyz as saying, "We can all subscribe to the principles of MRA. To recognize absolutely the dominion of God, or to bow down under the domination of human tyrants, that is the alternative which should unite us all whether we are Catholics, Christians or non-Christians." Vaterland also reported how Father Rector Thommen of Kollegium Niklaus von der Flue in Sarnen declared, "Because you live what you believe, we can whole-heartedly accept this ideology."

In Luxembourg where the German miners were Government guests, the Prime Minister, Pierre Werner, said, "The moral and spiritual values on which your actions are based are the ideology that can save the Christian West from its enemy."

The hurricane blew into Kerala and its 16,000,000 inhabitants, the first major state in the world to vote itself into the Communist camp. Night after night vast crowds flocked to hear the evidence of MRA. Mannath Padmanabhan, father of his State, leader of the Hindu majority in Kerala, had found at Caux the secret of uniting with Christians. The Governor of the State, the Cabinet Ministers, trade union leaders, industrial men and students in their hundreds and their thousands came to hear the news of an answer.

Communism Ousted in Kerala

Archbishop Gregorius of Trivandrum said, "History will record our permanent gratitude to Mannath Padmanabhan not only for having ousted the Communist regime in Kerala, but for creating the unity of all the communities following his return from Caux." The Governor of the State, Ramakrishna Rao, then said, "All our problems, political, economic, individual, must be solved in the spirit of MRA. It has an essential appeal to every man."

Men changed in Kerala. The leader of 38,000 students made the experiment of listening to the voice of God. He said, "I am going to end impurity in my own life and clean up the student body. It is through moral compromise among the students that Communism has gripped us. I see that the choice for India is Moral Re-Armament or Communism, and I choose MRA."

Rajmohan Gandhi, grandson of my old friend Mahatma Gandhi whom I met on the first of my nine visits to India in 1915, said, "Without Moral Re-Armament the new government in Kerala might already have fallen. Moral Re-Armament will save India and Asia and the world from Communist take-over." When Chou En-lai arrived in India for his conferences with Prime Minister Nehru, the Times of India and the Hindustan Times carried full pages with the double-banner headline, "Moral Re-Armament—the next step for Communists and non-Communists alike."

These pages challenged the two men who today lead 1,000,000,000 Asians to find a new way of doing things for the sake of all men everywhere. They said in part, "Communism has failed to produce the new type of man—the unselfish man who can develop and run the unselfish society. The ideology of MRA changes people. That is why thousands of former Communists all over the world are fighting the battle of Moral Re-Armament to restore the world on the basis of absolute moral standards." It was a real hurricane, and it was common sense.

Prime Minister Kishi of Japan gave a reception in his official residence to the Moral Re-Armament international force which included the German miners presenting their play "Hoffnung" (Hope) in Japan. Mr. Kishi said, "Moral Re-Armament is the moral backbone of the world. The world will rally to its work of building peace based on true freedom and moral standards." This MRA force and "Hoffnung" have since come to America at the invitation of eleven U. S. Senators. "Hoffnung" is currently being presented at the National Theatre in Washington, D. C.

Representatives of the Baluba and Lulua tribes of Kasai Province in the Belgian Congo at Caux with Dr. Frank Buchman. They asked him to give all his attention to the situation in Africa and to send the all-African color film "Freedom" with an international force of Moral Re-Armament to the Congo before its independence on June 30 this year.

Chancellor Adenauer conferred on March 19 in Los Angeles with his long-time friend Dr. Frank Buchman. He said, "I must tell you how much I value you and your work of Moral Re-Armament. It is absolutely essential for the peace of the world."

When Chancellor Adenauer arrived in Tokyo for his state visit, he was welcomed at the airport by his miners from the Ruhr. He spoke to a joint session of the Japanese Diet calling for a moral ideology that could unite East and West and answer Khrushchev's challenge to take over the world. Next day in the Japanese Diet a Cabinet Minister said, "Chancellor Adenauer proclaimed Moral Re-Armament to Japan."

The miners had come to Japan in response to an invitation from Japan's Prime Minister and other leaders of the country and they were the guests of the Japanese throughout their six weeks' visit. A special train was put at their disposal by Governor Sogo of the Japanese National Railways in gratitude for the sanity of the news they brought.

Massive Impact on Japan

Prime Minister Kishi said, "You are giving a moral backbone to the whole world. I wish to express my gratitude for the massive impact MRA has made on this nation during the past six weeks. The reports which I have received from all over Japan have convinced me of the effectiveness of this mission in giving ideological clarity and a moral answer to our people."

A leader of the Japanese Socialist Party at a crisis point early this year, said that MRA has played a key part in healing a fresh split in their ranks and prevented Communism from taking over. A leader of the Seinendan, a political organization of 4,300,000 youth, cabled me at Easter saying that MRA had once again won every seat from the Communists at the annual election in spite of the Communists' outpouring of manpower and money in the last twelve months.

A trade union leader tells how through Moral Re-Armament the President of one of the great mines of Japan was changed and as a result of his change, 3,500 miners, who needed 3,000 armed police to keep them from attacking the President, went back to work satisfied that their just claims were being met.

At the Miike mine, where workers had fought workers at the pithead, one man had been killed and hundreds injured. The leader of the organized women of the mine said, "You brought us the answer to hate. Without it more would have been killed and injured. MRA is the answer to every injustice and human hate."

And one of the great men of Japan, primarily responsible today for the security of his country, said, "For the first time since the end of the war you have given me hope. MRA is restoring a sense of destiny to a hundred million Japanese people. You are talking straight to us and cleaning us up in homes and politics. You are saying to us what no one else has dared to say."

A movie is going out to the millions which says what needs to be said in a way that the modern man understands, accepts and follows. It is a full-length Technicolor musical called The Crowning Experience, which in the words of Arthur Baker, for 21 years Chief of the Parliamentary Staff of The Times of London, is of "indescribable beauty. Its message is so deep that it needs to be seen again and again and yet again. It answers all the hunger and hurts of nations."

When Spyros Skouras, President of 20th Century Fox, saw this movie, he threw his arms in the air saying, "Fantastic! Fantastic! Fantastic! This must go to every movie theater throughout the world."

S. S. Vasan, President of the Indian Film Federation, said of it, "A thousand times wonderful. You have shown me not only how to make a film, but how to live a life."

Secret of Nigerian Independence

And the leadership of the nations of Africa are clamoring for The Crowning Experience. They say it will blow like a hurricane through the hearts of the Africans and heal the hating of a continent. Dr. Azikiwe, the man to whom 35,000,000 Nigerians say they largely owe their freedom, says, "I spent many years in America where I was fed with the bread of bitterness. It took me fifteen years to find an answer to my spirit of revenge. I found that answer at Caux." He added that The Crowning Experience attacks with tact and subtlety the social inequalities that have created wrong ideologies between men and gives definite promise of a cure. And he says, "Moral Re-Armament was the secret of independence for Nigeria."

Jasper Savanhu, first African to be a Member of the Federal Government of Rhodesia and Nyasaland, says The Crowning Experience must be seen by every African, black and white, this year. He says, "Winning political power will not by itself secure the future of the African. We can throw off the foreign yoke and then find African leaders who live only for personal advantage. Unless leadership is inspired by Moral Re-Armament, there is no future for the people. MRA is the solution to the greed, ambition, selfishness and competition in high places all over the world."

Leaders for the 40,000,000 French-speaking Africans eagerly demand The Crowning Experience for their people. They say its message could bring the bloodshed in Africa to an end. Gabriel Marcel, the world-famous French writer and philosopher, said after seeing it and talking with leaders from Africa, "I came to Caux in despair. Here I have found a transfusion of hope. A deep confidence flowed back into my being."

White and black leadership in South Africa want their Cabinet and the whole country to see this movie. They say it holds the secret that alone can cure the racial divisions that are tearing South Africa apart, dividing her from other countries, and undermining her economic life.

Mrs. Daisy Bates, Negro leader of Little Rock, Arkansas, known all over the world for the part she played in the battle with Governor Faubus over racial integration in the schools, saw The Crowning Experience. She said, "Magnificent! It must go everywhere. It is essential in the South, but MRA is now needed throughout the world. It will soon catch the imagination of the whole world. Nothing else on the scene can do it."

Mrs. Bates, and her husband, as publisher of a newspaper, came to our training center in Mackinac Island, Michigan. There Mr. Bates said, "For the first time in my life I have lost my hatred of the white man." On her return to Little Rock, Mrs. Bates invited some of the leading citizens of her State, white people who had also been to Mackinac, to dinner in her home. They came—the first time in the history of Arkansas that such a dinner party had been possible. After dinner, Mrs. Bates suggested a time of quiet in which together they should seek God's way of ending the deadlock. The thought came that Mrs. Bates should visit Governor Faubus, the man who for years had been pictured to the world as her bitterest enemy. She trembled, but she went. She said later, "The Governor could not have received me more graciously if I had been the President." They shook hands, and the picture of that handshake went round the world. Governor Faubus had previously said, "Moral Re-Armament is sowing the seeds that will prove to be the salvation of us all."

Mrs. Bates told an audience in Washington, "Without Moral Re-Armament it would have been impossible for me to meet Governor Faubus without hate. But I have learned to fight for what is right without hatred. I want Moral Re-Armament for the children of the South and of America. We can see on the horizon a new day." A major American network in its review of 1959 described this handshake as possibly the most significant news event of the year, which could mark the end of a hundred years of civil war in the United States.

MRA in South America

In the Republics of South America the hurricane is blowing too. Millions read the news of an answer. Millions more hear it over the radio. In one week alone all the main newspapers of Montevideo carried reports of the world work of MRA, and 17 leading papers of Argentina, Uruguay, and Peru carried 33 articles. A leading editorial in La Prensa, the largest newspaper of Peru, said, "Moral Re-Armament has a unique strength for the ideological battle in the world today. It is an insistent call to all who believe in a supreme Creator to confront those who preach atheism. It is a world effort to defeat materialism. The morally rearmed are not an easy prey to materialist indoctrination."

Eudocio Ravines, one of the great revolutionaries of our time who, trained by Mao Tse-tung, introduced Communism to Peru and Chile, met in Moral Re-Armament a superior ideology that changed him. He says, "The basic problems of Latin America are not under-development, but corruption and Communism. While our countries welcome economic aid, alone it cannot touch the root problem. Without a moral ideology, it may even aggravate the problem. The best export the United States of America or any nation can send to Latin America is Moral Re-Armament."

In a long lifetime of experience that has taken me to all parts of the world and brought me in touch with every sort of people, I have never seen a greater hunger and a greater hope than we find today. Man must choose the road of common sense or he will inevitably take the path of common suicide.

Dr. P. J. Little, the well-known statesman and thinker of Ireland, put the challenge clearly in the Dublin Sunday Press. His article about Moral Re-Armament occupied two central pages. It was headed, "World War III—the war of ideas—the battle we cannot lose."

He said, "The Cold War has only to heat up to boiling point for ten seconds and civilization will be blasted into eternity. Ideas not bombs will determine who wins the battle of ideologies, and on this battle depends the length of time we have left to live and whether our children will ever grow up."

World-Wide Transformation

But the far-seers of this century recognize in Moral Re-Armament the certainty of cure. My friend Robert Schuman of France, who has twice written the foreword to the French edition of my published speeches, puts it this way, "Moral Re-Armament is a philosophy of life applied in action that I have seen reaching the millions. It is a world-wide transformation of human society that has already begun."

It needs a hurricane of common sense to bring men to their senses, restoring the Communist and the non-Communist world to sanity and unity before it is too late. That hurricane is sweeping through every nation today, and in the midst of the hurricane the still small Voice of the living God, an unseen but ever-present Guide, willing and able to speak to the men of the Kremlin, the men of Washington, to the millions everywhere, leaders and led, who have lost their way and seek to find it.

It is so normal. It is so practical. It is a hurricane. And it is common sense.

There's Something Rocky Likes About Ex-Teammates

Colavito Raps Three Homers Over Weekend

Tigers Lose Nightcap 9-0 After 7-2 Triumph in Opener

CLEVELAND (AP) — Don't knock the Rock — at least not too hard when he's playing in Cleveland.

And while you're at it, take it a little easy on Steve Bilko.

The Rock — Rocky Colavito — broke out of a slump and slammed two home runs as the Detroit Tigers beat the Cleveland Indians here Saturday.

Yesterday he blazed away in the first game for another home run, a double and a single and drew a walk for a three-for-four game. He also drove in three runs.

Bilko, who also has had his bad days, blasted a home run as the Tigers won 7-2.

In the second game, Colavito got only one hit in four trips and Bilko was blanked. The Tigers lost 9-0.

★ ★ ★

Detroit is off today and opens a series with league-leading Baltimore at Baltimore tomorrow.

Jim Bunning scattered six hits to win the first game, striking out four batters. It was his second victory against three losses.

Cleveland got its two runs in the first game on a home run by Ken Aspromonte and a run scoring single by Jim Piersall.

★ ★ ★

Detroit jumped out in the third inning when Colavito walked, Chicago Fernandez singled and Piersall bobbled the ball and Frank Bolling doubled them both home.

Red Wilson singled to start the fourth inning and Colavito doubled him home for another run.

In the sixth inning, Rocky homered, his seventh of the season, and Fernandez doubled, Yost singled Chico home.

★ ★ ★

The Tigers scored again in the seventh as Maxwell singled, stole second and came home on Colavito's single. Bilko homered over the left field fence, his third of the year, for Detroit's last run in the ninth.

Bobby Locke, recalled by the Indians from Indianapolis four days ago, pitched a six-hit shutout in the nightcap. Locke allowed only two runners to reach third.

Piersall homered and so did Hank Foiles for Cleveland.

Pete Burnside was the loser in the second game.

★ ★ ★

Cleveland wrapped it up with a five-run rally in the eighth inning.

The Tigers missed some good chances in the second game. In the second inning Wilson popped a double and Colavito singled with two out. But Wilson made the final out trying to score on the single.

In the sixth inning Eddie Yost beat out a hit, Bolling singled and Al Kaline walked to fill the bases with two out. Bilko then popped out.

New Belle Isle Record Set for 5-Mile Race

DETROIT (UPI)—Gerald Young set a course record yesterday in winning the senior, five-mile run sponsored by the Michigan Road Runners Assn. at Belle Isle here.

Young was clocked in 26 minutes, 54.1 seconds, bettering the previous mark of 27:57.4 set by Jerry Bocci, who finished second yesterday with 27:53.

Olin Larson of the Flint Track Club, won the two-mile junior run.

Talks of Trade at NHL Meetings

MONTREAL (UPI)—Trade talk and the future of Maurice Richard overshadow the routine business of the three - day annual National Hockey League meetings which start today.

The biggest bids reportedly being made are for excess Montreal Canadiens talent and there is speculation that Montreal and Chicago will continue their "Yankee-Kansas City" type relations.

But the rumor mill also included a report that the Detroit Red Wings have offered all-star defenseman Marcel Pronovost to Montreal for young center Ralph Backstrom.

Leftwing Ab McDonald and minor league defenseman Reg Fleming are reported headed for the Black Hawks in return for highly regarded Minor League goalie Dennis Dejordy.

The New York Rangers offered $100,000 cash for McDonald, defenseman Bob Turner and center Donnie Marshall. Although the Canadians have not publicly rejected it, Marshall is not to be offered to anyone. And Chicago, according to past practice, has first call on any excess Montreal talent.

Other trade talk involves Toronto and the Rangers with left winger Dick Duff and goaltender Ed Chadwick going to New York for veteran goalie Lorne (Gump) Worsley, New York defenseman Lou Fontinato is another blueshirt considered expendable.

Montreal figures it must deal off at least two members of last year's five-time Stanley Cup champions in order to protect from the draft two highly regarded youngsters. They are left winger Gilles Tremblay and defenseman J. C. Tremblay (no relation).

★ ★ ★

The Canadiens had hoped that Rocket Richard would announce his retirement last week. Thus leaving a much needed space on on their protected list. (Each club can protect 18 players and two goalies from the draft.)

But Richard has deferred his decision until September. The Canadiens still are expected not to protect the Rocket but only if they can convince the five other clubs not to draft him.

In today's meeting the NHL rules committee convened in the morning and a joint rules committee session was scheduled in the afternoon, including representatives of the three Professional minor leagues, the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association and the American Hockey Association.

Of the seven applications for rules amendments, none was of a major nature. One proposed change would allow a player serving a major penalty to return to the ice before his time has expired if two goals have been scored against his team. Another seeks approval for a new type skate heel protector, and a third would clamp down on players who delay the game unnecessarily.

Rudell Stitch Attempts to Rescue Man, Loses His Life

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—Rudell Stitch, a top-ranking welterweight boxing contender, lost his life in the Ohio River Sunday while trying to rescue a fellow fisherman.

Both the boxer and his 25-year-old companion, Charles L. Oliver, drowned in the swirling wa'er below the Clarksville Dam here. Stitch only last year was awarded the Carnegie Medal for his heroic feat in rescuing a worker in 1958.

★ ★ ★

Stitch, ranked No. 5 by the National Boxing Association in the welterweight division, and Oliver had been fishing with Stitch's manager, Edgar Lee (Bud) Bruner and Bruner's 19-year-old son, Edgar Jr., on a rock shelf below the dam. They had decided to quit and were heading back to shore when the accident occurred.

Funeral services for Stitch will be held Wednesday at 11 a.m. CDT, at Central Presbyterian Church here, where he was a deacon.

Miss Ziske Wins Wolverine Open

Guest of Press Clinic Recently Takes Tourney

Joyce's 299 Is Three Strokes Better Than Runnerup

MT. CLEMENS — Joyce Ziske practices what she preaches.

Last week Miss Ziske and Beverly Hanson demonstrated their technique in The Pontiac Press golf clinic.

In the Wolverine Open at Hillcrest Country Club she continued her great putting which she demonstrated here and yesterday it paid off to a winning total of 299 in the tournament.

The Wisconsin proette, a long-hitter whose putter sometimes gives her anxious moments, won by three strokes over Betsy Rawls, Wiffi Smith and Mary lena Faulk in the 72-hole event.

Miss Ziske's winning total was 299, one under par at Hillcrest's 6,500-yard layout. She closed with a par-equalling 37-38—75 after previous rounds of 73, 78 and 73.

The 26-year-old former Curtis Cup player, who learned her golf on a driving range near her Wisconsin farm home, was at the head of the pack from start to finish. She was tied for first after Friday's opening round and maintained her position through 36 holes on Saturday, forced on the field after rain washed out Thursday's play.

She began the final round tied with Miss Rawls, but the veteran from Spartanburg, S.C., shot herself out of the running with a front nine 40.

Miss Ziske got a brief challenge from Miss Smith, the home-town favorite with whom she was paired for the final day. Wiffi, shooting for her third victory in the last five tournaments, was one-under par on the front nine and trailed by just two strokes.

But Miss Ziske disposed of that threat quickly by scoring an eagle three on the tenth hole. She reached the green on the 422-yard hole in two shots, then snaked in a 30-foot putt.

"I played for pars from then on," said the winner. "I nearly played it too safe. I tried to cozy up my second shot on No. 17 but I hit it too well I landed on a little plateau just six feet from the river."

Miss Smith, who grew up at neighboring St. Clair, Mich., closed with 75 for her 302 total. She, Miss Faulk and Miss Rawls each collected $816, while the winner made $1,313.

Mazur Pitches No-Hitter

It was makeup day in city softball circles yesterday and the local boys went all out playing six games at two parks.

★ ★ ★

Four of the contests were in the American League with the highlight of the day being Jake Mazur's no-hitter for Elks 810 in a 6-0 blanking of Moose 182. Stadium Inn, the Merchants and Sno-Bol were other AL victors.

O'Neil Realty downed First Presbyterian 7-1 in the National loop and Buettner's Cleaners tripped Griffs Grill in the International 3-1.

Mazur walked four and hit one batter but kept pitching his way out of trouble aided by nine strikeouts. Five Moose errors and a homer by Al Dennis helped make it easy.

Stadium blasted CIO 11-1 in 5½ innings putting together five singles and five doubles before the 10-run rule ended play. Roger Reynolds, who had two hits, was the winner. Jerry Larson lost a shutout in the 7th as the Merchants whipped the Police, 8-3. The pitcher and Tom Stillwell belted home runs, the latter with two on.

★ ★ ★

Sno-Bol tallied four times in the first two frames and went on to defeat Arro Realty, 7-2. Harlan Keith handled the pitching and batterymate Bill Ruelle led the offensive.

★ ★ ★

O'Neil broke up a tight mound duel between winner Marv Fuller and Lowell Vollmer by scoring five times in the 6th. Gene Heffman buried the triumph for Buettner's. He had a shutout until the final round.

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: "Spraying the ball all over."

DIAGNOSIS: Wobbly right knee.

TREATMENT: When the body turns on the backswing, the right leg should be the axis on which it turns. If the right knee buckles and breaks outward, as is exaggeratedly shown in the drawing, the body will necessarily move back off the ball.

If this happens, the usual result is a combination push-slice, more often than not, a high, weak one. So if you're hitting this kind of shot, start looking for the trouble in the action of the right knee on the backswing.

Ideally speaking, the right leg should stay firmly in place throughout the backswing. Most players, however, find it hard to live up to this ideal.

If you have the same difficulty, the thing to do is to keep the right leg as nearly steady as possible. Work on the problem on the practice tee.

Ward Wins Race in Record Time

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Rodger Ward was the leader today in the competition for the national big car driving championship after winning the 100-mile Rex Mays Classic in record time.

The 39-year-old Ward shot into the lead in the race at the Wisconsin State Fairgrounds Sunday on the 81st lap and stayed in front the rest of the way to finish five seconds ahead of A. J. Foyt of Houston, Texas.

★ ★ ★

Ward, second in the Indianapolis 500 on Memorial Day, averaged 99.44 miles per hour to finish in one hour, 19.38 seconds. He broke the record of 98.96 m.p.h. set in 1956 by Pat Flaherty of Chicago.

Ward pushed his point total in the driving championship to 1,200, 200 ahead of Indianapolis winner Jim Rathmann of Miami, Fla., who failed to qualify for the race.

Rathmann said, "It seemed to me that I didn't have the proper gear ratio. The car just didn't have it."

Western 9 Ends Its Worst Year

EAST LANSING (AP) — Western Michigan wound up its worst baseball season in history Saturday, losing 6-5 to Michigan State in the season's finale for both teams.

MSU tallied its winning run in the last of the ninth when pitcher Mickey Sinks sprinted home from first base on Pat Sartorius' double.

Bob Ross hit a two-run homer in the fifth to put the Spartans into a 5-3 lead, but WMU's Larry Randall duplicated with a two-run blast to knot the count in the seventh.

Michigan State wound up the campaign with a 17-13 slate. Western's record was 7-14.

With Ear Flaps Yet

Piersall's Helmet Riles Tigers, Delights Fans

CLEVELAND (AP)—Jittery Jim Piersall has introduced a new little league style batter's helmet into the American League to the delight of local fans and the fury of the Detroit Tigers against whom the Cleveland center fielder felt he needed protection.

The helmet, an oversize job with ear flaps, was donned by Piersall when he came to bat in the fifth inning of Sunday's nightcap. On the mound was southpaw Pete Burnside off whom Piersall clubbed his seventh home run of the season in the third inning.

In running out his homer, Piersall came into third base full speed then stopped, doffed his cap and shouted at the Detroit dugout.

When he came up in the fifth Piersall got such a riding from Detroit catcher Red Wilson that umpire John Flaherty stepped between them.

Burnside's first two pitches were inside, causing Piersall to jump back, and the third one appeared to be aimed at Piersall as he moved out of the box. This caused Flaherty to rush to the mound to warn Burnside about throwing at the batter—a warning that carried an automatic $50 fine.

Piersall left the game for the rubbing table after the sixth inning and when the game was over General Manager Frank Lane kept reporters from talking to him.

Lane said Piersall, who suffered a nervous breakdown in 1952, was "very tired and crying."

"Give him a break, fellows," Lane said. "You can't talk to him now. He's been trying to umpire, play centerfield, help the ground crew and do a few other things."

The helmet Piersall wore was Lane's idea. Lane got it about 10 days ago after ordering it designed by a sporting goods manufacturer because he feels all batters should wear better protective headgear. Lane said he was looking for someone to try it out.

★ ★ ★

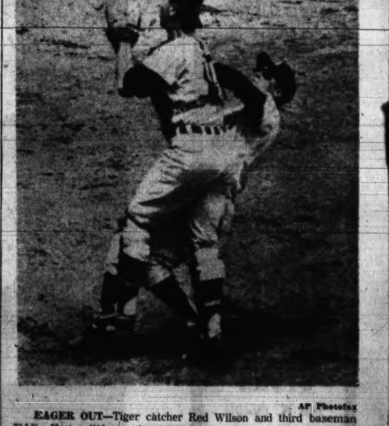

Manager Joe Gordon said he removed Piersall because the center fielder "became sick to his stomach and dizzy."

"He's an emotional, high-strung guy and simply became exhausted," Gordon said. "His leaving the game had nothing to do with the incident up there at bat."

Manager Jimmy Dykes angrily accused Piersall of inviting Burnside to pitch at him.

"When you play to the people, you got to invite it, and you got to get it," Dykes said. "Any pitcher with red blood in his veins would do it. It's bad for baseball.

"I have nothing against the kid, but I think he should be put in his place. I'm surprised Gordon let him go up there with that helmet on."

EAGER OUT—Tiger catcher Red Wilson and third baseman Eddie Yost collide as they eagerly go after a high foul in the second inning of the first game. Wilson caught the ball as he knocked Yost to the ground. The Tigers won the first game, 7-2, and lost the nightcap, 9-0.

Connecticut Man Gets Muskegon's IHL Franchise

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — An International Hockey League franchise was granted Sunday to Columbus, Ohio, expanding the circuit to nine teams for 1960-61.

★ ★ ★

The franchise award is contingent on the filling by Columbus owners of a certified check with Commissioner Frank Gallagher of Dearborn, Mich., by Thursday.

★ ★ ★

League Directors also awarded the New Muskegon, Mich., franchise to Jerry DeLise of New Haven, Conn., who had been competing with other interests for the ownership.

Ingo Shows Right in Training Camp

GROSSINGER, N. Y. (AP)—World heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson finished the fourth week of training Sunday for his title defense against Floyd Patterson on June 20 and showed his vaunted right for the first time.

Johansson let loose against three sparring partners, with whom he went two rounds each.

★ ★ ★

First, he rocked Artie Towne in the second with a series of hard rights. Then, he took on Bill Johnson and almost floored him with a right to the face.

★ ★ ★

He operated on Lennart Risberg, the unbeaten Swedish light heavyweight champion, last. He bounced Risberg from one end of the ring to the other.

Public Links Trials Now Under Way; Dearborn Open Host Tomorrow

By BILL CORNWELL

It's "cut-throating" time today and tomorrow in Oakland County area golfing circles.

Final qualifying time has arrived for both the National Public Links tournament and the 60th U.S. Open championship and golfers from coast to coast will be making their bids for starting berths.

Sectional trials for the public links tourney are under way today at Pine Lake and Forest Lake in a real "dog-eat-dog" marathon.

There are 339 publinx players fighting for only six berths in today's 36-hole grind which undoubtedly will finish in semi-darkness —without any bad luck.

★ ★ ★

The lucky six qualifiers in this record field will earn themselves a trip to Hawaii. This year's National Public Links event is scheduled July 11-16 at Ala Wai Golf Club in Honolulu.

It's a considerably smaller field at Dearborn Country Club Tuesday where the sectional trials start at 8:30 a.m. for the U.S.G.A. Open, but the competition for nine available spots will be every bit as fierce.

The National Open tournament is slated June 16-18 at Cherry Hills Country Club in Englewood, Colo., near Denver. There will be 150 golfers in the starting field at Cherry Hill.

Thirty-seven players — 27 pros and 10 amateurs—will battle for the nine openings over a 36-hole route at Dearborn.

Among the entries are Pontiac's Gene Bone, 28-year-old Warwick Hills pro who qualified for the U.S. Open a year ago for the first time in his career and passed the local qualifying test two weeks ago today at Franklin Hills and Knollwood.

There are several outstanding amateurs from the Oakland County area entered in tomorrow's trials. They include:

★ ★ ★

Pete Green, runnerup in the North - South Amateur championship; peerless Chuck Kocsis, recent winner of the Michigan Medal Play title; Bud Stevens, State Amateur champion; veteran Tom Draper of Birmingham; John Molenda, U. of D. golfer, and Birmingham's Clem Jensen.

A total of 490 will bid for positions in the National Open tourney on a coast-to-coast basis. Other national qualifying sites include San Francisco, Washington, Atlanta, Chicago, St. Louis, Rochester, Oklahoma City and Fort Worth.

Chisox Win Twice by 2-0

By the Associated Press

Chicago White Sox boss Bill Veeck created a lot of excitement in the Windy City by landing such big fish as Minnie Minoso, Gene Freese and Roy Sievers in major trades since the close of last season.

There was hardly a ripple, however, when he hauled in a couple of nondescript pitchers, southpaw Frank Baumann and right-hander Russ Kemmerer, in minor transactions with rival American League clubs.

★ ★ ★

Yet it's just because of these one-time hapless hurlers that the defending champions are back in the thick of the AL pennant race today, only three games behind the first place Baltimore Orioles.

Kemmerer, who rarely won for Washington and Baumann, oft-beaten with Boston, turned in back-to-back 2-0 shutouts in the White Sox' doubleheader sweep over Kansas City Sunday.

The 28-year-old Kemmerer, purchased May 18, doled out three hits to win his second since joining the Sox. Baumann, obtained in a winter trade for first base flop Ron Jackson, limited the A's to seven hits in the nightcap for his second straight shutout.

★ ★ ★

The double triumph enabled the third place Sox to climb to within one game of runner-up Cleveland, which split with Detroit. The Indians won 9-0 after the Tigers had taken the opener 7-2. Baltimore widened its lead, to two games over the Indians with a 6-5 decision in Washington. New York slapped down Boston twice 5-4 and 8-3.

Chicago newcomers Freese and Minoso also were key operators in the White Sox' first game victory. Freese doubled in the fourth and scored on Luis Aparicio's single to end a scoreless pitching duel between Kemmerer and Tom Hall. Minoso's seventh homer added an insurance run in the sixth. It was Hall's second loss, both to Chicago. He has won five.

★ ★ ★

Another comparative White Sox newcomer, Ted Kluszewski, scored the first run in the nightcap after hitting a double in the second inning. Sherm Lollar's single scored him. Ned Garver, who had to leave after two innings because of a knee injury, was tagged with his fifth loss in as many decisions.

★ ★ ★

The Sox have won six of their last 12. Baumann and Kemmerer have been responsible for four of the triumphs.

Two walks, a Texas League single and a throwing error presented Baltimore with two ninth inning runs which enabled the Orioles to overcome a 5-4 Washington lead.

★ ★ ★

With one out, Tex Clevenger walked Willie Tasby and Al Pilarcik. Marv Breeding blooped a single to short center. Outfielder Lenny Green, who had driven in two Washington runs in the eighth with a pinch single, then overthrew third in an attempt to catch Tasby and two runners scored as the ball bounced into the seats.

Ted Williams, back in action after a virus attack that came on the heels of a leg injury, hammered his third home run of the season and 495th of his career but couldn't stop the Yankees from beating his Red Sox in the opener. Mickey Mantle's eighth homer and Roger Maris' 14th, with two on, were the big Yankee blows.

★ ★ ★

Bobby Shantz cemented the Yankee victory with a brilliant relief job, getting Vic Wertz to hit into a game-ending double play with the bases full. Art Ditmar hurled a 6-hitter for New York in the nightcap.

Sherry Ailing, Drysdale May Go to Hospital

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers have lost ace reliever Larry Sherry for about two weeks, and they may have to hospitalize Don Drysdale, the workhorse of their pitching staff.

★ ★ ★

Sherry sprained an ankle in the fourth inning of Saturday night's game with Chicago when he stepped on a bat while running in to cover home plate.

★ ★ ★

Drysdale suffered severe muscular and ligament strains in his back when he slipped while walking through the Dodger shower room Sunday. A doctor said he responded to treatment, but might be sent to a hospital and put in traction.

BUCHAREST, Romania (AP)—Elvira Ozolina of Russia smashed her own women's world javelin record with a toss of 195 feet 2 inches Sunday in an international track and field meet here.

Phils Dump Pittsburgh 2-0 and 4-1

By The Associated Press

You'll have to pardon the Pittsburgh Pirates if they refuse to sympathize with the oft-defeated, much-depleted and last-seeded Philadelphia Phillies.

Expected to fatten up their first place National League lead Sunday over the under-manned Phillies, who have four men in the hospital, the Pirates instead were held to one run and lost twice 2-0 and 4-1.

In the opener, Pittsburgh managed 10 hits off Gene Conley but the 6-8 right-hander did not permit a Pirate runner to go beyond second base. The Bucs also out-hit the Phils in the nightcap, but they barely avoided being shut out again, by Jim Owens, thanks to Dick Stuart's homer in the eighth.

St. Louis' 9-4 triumph over San Francisco enabled the Pirates to finish the day with a one-game lead over the Giants. Milwaukee closed to within 4½ of the lead by splitting with Cincinnati. The Braves won 4-1 after Cincinnati had copped the opener 3-2. Chicago's Cubs outslugged Los Angeles 12-8.

The Phils got five hits in each game to hang defeats on Bob Friend and Harvey Haddix. First inning singles by Bobby Del Greco and Tony Taylor and Tony Curry's scoring grounder were enough to account for the opener. Home runs won the nightcap for the Phillies. Haddix allowed but two hits in six innings but one was Ted Lepcio's first home run of the season. Cal Neeman's three-run clout off reliefer Jim Umbricht in the seventh was the clincher.

Ex-Giant Bill White rapped four of St. Louis' 17 hits and ignited two Cardinal rallies with doubles. The Redbirds overcame a 2-0 deficit with four runs in the sixth and broke a 4-4 tie with three more in the seventh. Lindy McDaniel, in relief, won his third.

Held scoreless by Sandy Koufax until the sixth, the Cubs rallied for seven runs with five hits and five walks. They went on to amass 15 hits off five Dodger pitchers. Frank Thomas drove in three runs with a pair of homers and a single.

Cincinnati got only five hits off Milwaukee southpaw Juan Pizarro but three of them were home runs—by Billy Martin, Roy McMillan and Vada Pinson. They were enough to give Bob Purkey his fourth victory.

The Braves snapped a 1-1 tie in the eighth of the nightcap. Five hits, including doubles by Felix Mantilla and Henry Aaron, produced three runs off loser Joe Nuxhall.

Warran Spahn, who shut out the Reds with one single in 4 2-3 innings of relief, gained the 27lst victory of his career and fourth of the season.

Sunnybrook Keeps Publinx Loop Lead

Defending champion Sunnybrook stayed atop the Red Division standings of the Michigan Publinx Golf League by posting its fourth victory without a loss yesterday, defeating Brae Burn 15½-6½.

Jay Law and Sam Lima each had a 71 to pace the victory.

Dick Robertston's 73 and Dick DeWitt's 75 paced Bald Mountain to a 14½-7½ win over Loch Alpine to stay in a second place tie with Morey's.

Bob-O-Link, Sylvan Glen and Rochester all were tied in the White Division with 2-1 records.

U. S. Swim Relay Mark

SANTA CLARA, Calif. (AP)—The American record for the 440-yard swimming relay was bettered Sunday by four teen-age girls at an exhibition meet held here to raise funds to send them to the Olympics.

Chris Von Saltza, 17, one of this country's best hopes in the summer games, was one of the girls who set the mark of 3:55.8 for the relay. The record is 3:56.6 by the Walter Reed Swim Club of Washington, D.C.

Seaholm Third in State Tennis

Area Netters Unable to Cope With Tough Annual Powers

(Special to The Pontiac Press)

KALAMAZOO — A distant third place in Class A for Birmingham Seaholm was the best Oakland County area entries could do in the state tennis championships which ended Saturday at Kalamazoo College.

Regional doubles champions John Sisson and Steve Smith scored the Maples' three points. Kalamazoo University School upset annual winner Hamtramck for the Class A crown.

★ ★ ★

Kazoo had 13¾ points to 10 for the Cosmos, who had won 11 straight times. Francisco Castillo of the No. 2 team set a record by winning in singles for the 4th successive season.

Bay City Central and Flint Central had one point each and Berkley took one-half point. Pontiac Central was scoreless.

East Grand Rapids won the big "B" trophy while Northville got into the scoring on an early win in doubles by Jon Rodgers-Tom Long. Cranbrook was shut out. Sturgis was a close second and Rockford third.

Ann Arbor University High squeezed by Grosse Pointe University 6½ to 6 in Class C-D. Third went to Galesburg-Augusta.

Another Silver Lake Ace

Weekend golfing activity in the Pontiac area resulted in another hole-in-one at Silver Lake Golf Club.

Paul Johnson Jr. aced the 120-yard 8th hole with an 8-iron in the presence of his father, Paul Johnson Sr., and Ken McClintock and Norm Cummerford. Johnson's ace helped him shoot 45 for nine holes.

Titan Nine Out of NCAA

By the Associated Press

Minnesota, Boston College, Southern California and Arizona joined Oklahoma State and St. John's of New York in the round of eight for the NCAA baseball championship after weekend play. The eight district winners open the 14th College World Series at Omaha, Neb., Friday.

However, the winner of the rain plagued District 3 play at Gastonia, N.C. will not be determined until Tuesday. The District 7 representative will be decided in a best-of-three series between Utah and Colorado State College at Salt Lake City Tuesday and Wednesday.

Minnesota made a clean sweep of District 4 play at Minneapolis by defeating Detroit 5-4 in the final game. Southern California took the District 8 championship Saturday by downing Washington State 8-3 and 10-5 after losing the first game of the best-of-three series.

Minnesota broke through the Detroit's pitching-shuttle system for three runs in a dramatic eighth inning Saturday.

Detroit coach Lloyd Brazil alternated lefty Gary Mettie and righthander Dan Osinski between the mound and rightfield in the eighth but a Gopher triple and a single spoiled the bizarre strategy.

The defeat eliminated the Titans, who had whipped Ohio University 14-4 earlier in the day. Detroit wound up with a 2-2 mark in the meet.

Boston College edged Holy Cross 5-4 Sunday with two-out pinch single in the ninth deciding the District 1 competition.

Arizona won the right to represent District 6 by winning two straight from Houston.

Strong Finish Wins Watkins Lake Event

Harmon Gillan's strong finish to win the thistle crown featured the racing events of the Watkins Lake Yachting Association Sunday.

He overtook Karl Kreitz after trailing most of the way. Don Zanoth was third behind the nip-and-tuck battlers.

Glenn Fries and Jack Berlien were other winners.

Fries beat out Dave Green and Ray Frenkel for the top positions among snipes.

Berlien won lightning honors. Gus Eldred was runnerup and the No. 3 position went to Jim Zuelke.

Pile Up Total of 101 Points in County Test

Pritchett Suffers First Loss; PCH's Walker Tops State Jump Champion

By H. GUY MOATS

The favorites performed as expected in Saturday's highly successful, first All-Oakland County Track Championships, at Southfield HS field.

Pontiac Central's state champions set up an early backlog of points and then barrelled along to win, going away, with 101 6-14 points. The Chiefs had nearly double the runnerup total set by Birmingham Seaholm at 51 29-64 points. Ferndale was a distant 3rd with 36 1-12 and Waterford was next with 30 3-7 points. Seventeen of the 20-school field figured in the distribution of points.

Perfect conditions held until the final two events, when showers drenched athletes and an unexpectedly big crowd in the stands. Size of the gallery delighted the meet officials who are already talking plans for the 1961 event.

The recent state (MHSAA) meet had little, or nothing, over this first all-county test, in the way of fine performances, many of which were as good as those in the state meet.

★ ★ ★

Most events were exciting, blanket-finish affairs, particularly the dashes, the mile and the relays.

There were several surprising upsets, in two of which Pontiac Central performers figured as the winners.

The really big one was the first defeat of the season, in a big meet, for state champion shotputter Bredell (Bill) Pritchett. Teammate Jerry Rush, who has been playing "2nd fiddle" to Pritchett all season, finally moved to the No. 1 spot with a tremendous 59-7½ toss to upset Bill by an even foot. Jerry was a state record-holder at Ann Arbor for a short time, before Pritchett came through with his title-winning throw.

★ ★ ★

In another rather stunning upset, PCH's Bob Walker defeated MHSAA champion Steve Jacobson with a 22-3¼ broad jump, one inch beyond the Birmingham ace's best for the day.

Among the five first places Chiefs collected was the medley relay, sponsored by The Pontiac Press. The PCH quartet had to hit a very fast 2:29.4 time to win. And the finish was one of the most drama-filled features of the meet.

★ ★ ★

Ferndale's fast four, with Seaholm's quartet, were early leaders, the Ferndale anchor going in front of Van LaCore on the final 440. But not for long, as Van set sail on the turn, pulled even and then drove to the tape to win a thriller by a scant foot.

The mile was another hair-raiser. Joe Anderson, the PCH favorite, had a fight on his hands all the way. Seaholm's Reid, Waterford's Mike Kaines and Bloomfield Hills' Barry Armstrong battled for the lead until Joe made his move in the final 100 yards. He couldn't shake Kaines, and the pair went into the stretch shoulder-to-shoulder.

★ ★ ★

Thirty yards from the tape, the Hills lad, Armstrong, "came out from nowhere," shot past both Anderson and Kaines, Joe and Mike were startled to see Armstrong rush in front, and neither could muster enough kick to overtake the flying youngster. Anderson's time, 4:28.3 (a tenth back of Armstrong) established a PCH record.

Only two double winners were set up, Leon Prentis won both hurdle events, the lows producing one of the best races of the night. Reid, Ferndale's fine sprinter, took both dashes, but had to stave off Ratcliff in both.

The meet, dedicated to this writer, marked the close of the 1960 prep track campaign, one of the best for the Chiefs.

PCH wound up with the Michigan title, the CMU indoors crown, the Thurston Regional honors, and Saturday's meet. State title was the 5th in six years for PCH, which also was never under 2nd in any big test, including the Saginaw Valley Conference, Mansfield Relays, EMU and U. of D. Relays.

ALL ALONE—One of two double winners in Saturday's All-County track championships at Southfield HS, Chiefs' Leon Prentis was snapped (above) as he finished easily in front of the high hurdle field. Prentis turned in a fast :14.7, also won the low sticks with a :19.9 clocking. PCH won the meet.

Spencer Wins Twin Bill

Spencer Floor Covering of the Waterford Softball League swept a twin bill from Thompson's Super Market of Flint Sunday night in exhibition play at Drayton Plains.

Jack Nelson's four - hit shutout pitching and Marshall O'Shaughcessy's run-scoring single in the 6th inning brought Spencer a 1-0 victory in the 1st game. Jim McClellan's steady nine-hit hurling and a two-run rally in the 6th gave Spencer a 2-1 triumph in the nightcap.

For Memphis Title

Three-Way Duel Today

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — A dramatic playoff in the $30,000 Memphis open today had three of golf's greats swinging for top money — Ben Hogan, Tommy Bolt and Gene Littler.

They made the regulation 72 holes over the 6,500-yard, par 34-36—70 Colonial Country Club course in 7-under-par 273s to top a 144-man field.

★ ★ ★

If was a cliff-hanger finish.

Hogan, his game still shaky after a scrambling 73 that cost him the lead, birdied two under pressure to come back up. The Fort Worth hawk carded his final bird on the 18th, bringing a roar from the gallery.

Making his run after starting the fourth round three strokes off the pace, Bolt shook off a jolting hospital bulletin to make a full steam finish with birds on 17 and 18.

This fat end of the purse gives $4,300 to the winner, $3,000 for second place and $2,000 for third.

Desperate Tibetans Stir New Woe for Red China

DARJEELING, India (AP) — Desperation has driven Tibetans to new attacks on their Chinese Communist masters.

★ ★ ★

As a result there has been a recent upsurge of guerrilla fighting in many parts of Tibet.

Preliminary reports indicate there was a major popular uprising recently in Shigatse, one of Tibet's main cities, 135 miles west of the capital of Lhasa.

Battles occurred in a number of other places and guerrillas have been conducting hit-and-run raids at widely separated points on the roof of the world.

FORCED INTO HILLS

Many of the guerrillas have been forced into the hills by intolerable conditions in the towns and villages.

This picture was pieced together from numerous reports reaching this Indian mountain town 40 miles from Tibet.

The reports came from sources proven accurate in the past as well as from refugees driven out of Tibet by the recent fighting.

★ ★ ★

The Shigatse uprising is believed to have occurred after the Chinese discovered anti-Communist activities among followers of the Panchen Lama.

The Panchen, revered in Tibet as second only to the self-exiled Dalai Lama, has been used as a Chinese stooge since the 1959 Lhasa uprising was crushed.

But the Panchen Lama's followers refused to go along with him.

MONKS STAGE BATTLE

One unconfirmed report said some monks from the Panchen Lama's monastery there turned against the Chinese in an open fight after they had been sent to attack other Tibetans.

★ ★ ★

The Panchen Lama himself reportedly is under palace arrest in Lhasa and is no longer trusted by the Chinese.

"They don't trust any Tibetan," one official observer of Tibetan events said.

One of the claimants to the Panchen's throne is reported to have escaped from a Chinese concentration camp near Lhasa and reached Bhutan, a buffer state between India and Tibet.

Sources said the claimant, whose name was not disclosed, had been tortured by the Chinese and was accompanied to safety in Bhutan by five followers.

★ ★ ★

The old Panchen, regarded by Tibetan buddhists as the 10th incarnation of their greatest religious teacher, died about 1940.

Three small boys were discovered as candidates for the 11th incarnation.

The final choice was supposed to have been made by the Dalai Lama and other high priests, but it never occurred.

Civil war almost broke out over the dispute in 1951, but the Chinese intervened and set up their protege as the present Panchen.

One claimant was said to have died and another to have made a vain attempt to escape to India.

It is not clear which one of these two now is reported in Bhutan.

★ ★ ★

Reports of other major battles in Tibet recently have come from areas around Nargartse Dzong, east of Gyantse, and also from west of Gyantse.

The Chinese are known to have been bringing truckloads of their dead in Gyantse.

With most Tibetan military strongpoints wiped out, the guerrillas have returned to the pattern of attack they used when opposition to the Chinese occupation of Tibet first flared six years ago.

Resistance forces waylay on lonely stretches of highway and engage unwary Chinese truck convoys in short but intensive skirmishes before retreating.

★ ★ ★

Bridges are blown up and gasoline dumps also attacked.

The long-range success of these attacks is unknown but similar tactics denied the Chinese use for several years of one highway they built into Tibet.

Since the Lhasa uprising the guerrillas have been considerably weakened by Chinese counterattacks and depletion of supplies.

They are therefore not expected to continue large-scale resistance indefinitely. Casualties have been extremely heavy.

Tibetan sources say the Chinese have used Tibetan women and children as hostages recently.

WOMEN, CHILDREN SHIELDS

The women and children are herded ahead of the Chinese as a shield during advances.

Loss of wives and children, inability to support families on low Chinese pay and the threat of forced labor on roads, railroads and airfields at half-rations—all have driven many men to the mountains for guerrilla life.

There they depend on plundered arms. No help is known to be reaching them from outside.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, the Chinese are continuing to strengthen their forces in Tibet.

Most towns are reported to have garrisons of between 1,000 and 2,000 troops, with villages garrisoned by 25 to 50 men.

Rename Estenssoro President of Bolivia

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP)—Victor Paz Estenssoro, who nationalized Bolivias huge tin industry in 1952, rode back into the presidency today on an overwhelming vote.

★ ★ ★

The 52-year-old political veteran led the ruling pro-American Nationalist Revolutionary Movement (MNR) to a landslide victory against three challengers.

Two of the defeated candidates shouted fraud even before all the ballots were counted in Sunday's election, which was carried out with only a smattering of violence in this Andean nation noted for turbulence. Fifty persons were killed during the campaign.

Top Cadet Joins Rare Company

WEAT POINT, N.Y. (AP) — Cadet Charles P. Otstott has a better-than-average chance of rising to the rank of general, if past records mean anything.

Ostott, 23, of Dallas, Tex., will be graduated first in his class at the U.S. Military Academy next Wednesday. He is No. 1 man academically and militarily, an unusual distinction held by only eight other graduates since 1871, the academy said.

★ ★ ★

Of the eight, at least four won their general stars, including General of the Army Douglas MacArthur, class of 1903.

The othrs: Smith Leach, class of 1875; Maj. Gen. James A. Woodruff, 1899; Edward N. Johnston, 1901; Brig. Gen. Frederick S. Strong Jr., 1910; Col. Charles J. Barrett, 1922; Brig. Gen. Kenneth E. Fields, 1933; and Lee D. Olvey, 1935.

★ ★ ★

Otstott will receive his second lieutenant's commission in the infantry and a bachelor of science degree at next Wednesday's graduation exercise.

Trading in Grains Remains Sluggish

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain futures prices shifted within a narrow range again today with dealings still sluggish on the Board of Trade.

★ ★ ★

Only a few plus signs were scattered through the list, mostly in corn during the first several minutes.

★ ★ ★

Dealers said there appeared to be willingness to liquidate a number of positions but demand was weak and when prices eased the offerings were withdrawn. Export business over the weekend was very light.

Baptists to Remain in National Council

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (UPI)—The American Baptist Convention today overrode protests by a militant church group from Wichita, Kan., and decisively reaffirmed its participation in the National Council of Churches.

Some five thousand delegates to the 53rd annual meeting adopted a resolution recommended by the convention's general council with an overwhelming show of hands.

A substitute motion, presented by the First Baptist Church of Wichita to entreat American Baptists to sever ties with the National Council, was defeated.

Steels, Motors Pace Mart Rise

NEW YORK (AP) — Steels and motors paced a renewed stock market upturn early this afternoon in active trading.

After a hesitant start, with prices only narrowly higher, steel shares forged gains running from 1 to 3 points. Motors joined in the upturn with gains stretching from fractions to about 2.

Oils, rails, chemicals and nonferrous metals tagged along. Their gains were more moderate.

Electronics and aircraft-missiles were irregular.

The steels gathered strength from Wall Street talk to the effect that inventory positions of steel customers were down sharply and that an upturn in new orders was just around the corner.

Buying of steel shares was also occasioned by a flash from a big brokerage house placing the steels in a "relatively favorable" category instead of "average."

★ ★ ★

The market was slightly ahead in early trading. Gains were stretched late in the morning and then trimmed a bit.

The rise of steels, motors and oils was a continuation of the recovery of these "oversold" issues which began late last week as the "romance" stocks lost favor.

Suggests Nan Wait for Awhile

BITBURG, Germany (AP)—Patricia Wallace Vanderbilt has advised her pretty 19-year-old daughter to wait awhile before marrying the handsome American soldier she ran away with.

★ ★ ★

But the divorced fifth wife of American millionaire Cornelius Vanderbilt Jr. refused to say whether she would approve an eventual marriage of her daughter, Nanette Wallace, to Wiley Lockamy, 23, of Clinton, N.C.

Nanette touched off a police search when she disappeared May 26 from Cannes, the French Riviera resort where she was vacationing with her mother. Lockamy brought her here to the home of his sergeant, Warren Sullivan, and his wife and the young couple announced they planned to wed.

★ ★ ★

Nanette met Lockamy, an antiaircraft missile repairman, on the Riviera. He is with a small ordnance detachment stationed at Bitburg base. Mrs. Vanderbilt followed them to Bitburg and is also staying with the Sullivans.

State Schools Award Degrees

Four Honor National, State Leaders; CMU Lone Exception

By the Associated Press

Awarding of honorary degrees highlighted commencement exercises at five Michigan institutions of higher education Sunday.

★ ★ ★

Graduation ceremonies were held at Kalamazoo College, Central Michigan University, Lawrence Institute of Technology, Olivet College and Northern Michigan College.

Kalamazoo conferred honorary degrees on Dr. Samuel H. Miller, dean of the Harvard Divinity School, Dr. Willard Thorp, chairman of Princeton University's English department and Dr. Marston Balch, Tufts University drama director.

Paul C. Ackerman, vice president of engineering at Chrysler Corp., received an honorary degree and delivered the graduation address at Lawrence Tech's exercises in Detroit.

★ ★ ★

Olivet awarded honorary degrees on Dr. Herman L. Shibler, director of the airborne television project at Purdue University, Edward L. Ransom an Olivet graduate and board member of the Imperial Furniture Co. of Grand Rapids, and Dr. Carroll W. Grant, chairman of the Brooklyn College biology department.

Four men won honorary degrees at the 60th annual commencement exercises at Northern Michigan College at Marquette. They were: Dr. Lynn M. Bartlett, state superintendent of public instruction; Don H. Bottum, an NMC faculty member for 36 years who retired as dean of students; Jack F. Wolfram, a General Motors Corp. vice president, and Dr. Harlan C. Koch, associate dean of the University of Michigan graduate school.

★ ★ ★

Central Michigan, which awarded no honorary degrees, gave degrees and teaching certificates to 669 graduates at ceremonies in Mount Pleasant.

The Barrett Park Zoo on New York City's Staten Island has one of the world's largest collections of snakes and other reptiles.

STAR GAZING—The skies cleared up Friday night in time for members of the Pontiac Northwest Detroit Astronomers Assn. to get a good look at the heavens. Here Frank J. Rosemeck, 2651 Harvard Rd., Berkley, squints at the moon. Rosemeck, an engineer, is president of the association, which gathered at Cranbrook for its annual spring star party. There'll be a fall outing in August.

COUNCIL POWWOW—More than 200 Cub Scout leaders of Clinton Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America, gathered at Camp Agawam near Lake Orion Saturday for their annual Council Powwow. Shown boning up on handicrafts they will teach to cubs are den mothers from Oakland and Macomb counties. Following a banquet in the evening, the all-day program concluded with the presentation of certificates, group singing and skits, and a short history of cub scouting in the area narrated by Mrs. Kenneth Jones of Waterford.

Liberal Spending Alleged

Claim Committees Fake Foreign Spending Tabs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Public Works and Judiciary committees have submitted artificial reports of their 1959 spending of public funds overseas, the Knight newspapers said today.

Reporters Don Oberdorfer and Walter Pincus wrote in a copyright article:

"These reports have sailed through the House committee accounting system into the public domain without a ripple even though the itemizations are obvious concoctions."

★ ★ ★

The committee expense reports in question cover congressional spending of counterpart funds overseas. These are currencies of foreign governments which the U.S. government owns as a result of aid and sales transactions but holds within the overseas country.

Two other House committees, Agriculture and Education and Labor, did not even itemize counterpart spending by categories, the article said.

"Congressmen can draw these funds freely at just about any United States embassy in the world on the say-so of a congressional committee chairman. The individual congressman is required to report his counterpart spending only to his committee chairman," the article said.

★ ★ ★

"His report must say what he spent for transportation, lodging, meals and other expenses. The law requires that committee chairmen, at the end of each year, consolidate these individual reports before making them public, so nobody can see what any one congressman spent."

The article said that "in each of the 23 countries from Argentina to Sudan where members of the Judiciary Committee traveled, their report asserts that they spent exactly 30 per cent of their counterpart money for transportation, exactly 20 per cent for lodging, exactly 30 per cent for food, exactly 10 per cent for gratuities and exactly 10 per cent for "miscellaneous."

Chairman Emanuel Celler (D-NY) was quoted in the article as saying he had not seen the report on the 1959 spending which totaled $54,363.81, and would not look into the circumstances of the consolidated report.

Christian Scientists Ponder National Vote

The Christian Science Board of Directors today told some 7,000 Christian Scientists that decisions about national elections should come out of each voter's communion with God and the guidance obtained through prayer.

★ ★ ★

The directors' message calling for an end to apathy, irresponsibility and blind partisanship was heard at the annual meeting of the mother church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

In reference to political decisions, the directors said, "Through prayer, we can rise above blind partisanship and the irresponsible tumult of aggressive mental suggestion."

The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Pontiac is at 164 W. Lawrence St.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac's Share $274,000 in State Highway Funds

IF

IF you have enough life insurance your family may be able to pay off the bills if something happens to you. Maybe they will have enough to live on—for a while. But if yours is like most families it will take additional cash to pay off the mortgage on your home.

IF you want to be sure that you leave your family a home instead of a mortgage, get the details about Modern Woodmen's Mortgage Retirement Plan. It's a mighty comfortable feeling to know that you have a plan that will pay off the entire mortgage at one time.

Mystery Hour Prosecutor Is Sure No Perry Mason

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI)—If there was one more act in last night's NBC-TV "mystery show," my guess is that it would have shown the prosecutor being fired.

Now, we're all pros at courtroom procedure, having been through the Perry Mason law school. I'm willing to bet my "I Like Raymond Burr" button that the supposed villain, the defendant in Adrian Spies' play, "The Thunder of Silence," left the courtroom a free man.

Here's the picture: After a midnight fire charred a school for deaf children, the assistant district attorney, played by James Whitmore, received a phone call from a tipsy floozy.

She told him that the supposedly respectable head of the school, who claimed he was on duty at the time the fire started, was, in fact, lushing it up with said anonymous tipsy floozy in a nearby cottage.

★ ★ ★

Whitmore got on the case right away. His investigator discovered that the headmaster, played by John Hoyt and named Arnold Bellson, is a secret drinker, a man who buys lots of booze in lots of out-of-the-way grog shops and occasionally unwinds in a distant honky-tonk.

While acquiring this information, Whitmore never seemed able to line up any witnesses. Bellson, after being suspended from his job, lined up a shrewd lawyer and waved a "show cause" court order at the prosecutor.

Just before the final curtain, Whitmore found his corroborative witness to the cottage bacchanalia. The witness was the school handyman, a pitiable, schizophrenic character of subnormal intelligence who had feigned deafness nearly all his life and suddenly was exposed as a man who could hear and did hear the party noises.

On this triumphant note, Whitmore prepared to take his case against Bellson to court. Now, ladies and gentlemen of the jury, are you going to destroy Bellson on the say-so of a nut and an anonymous, drunken phone call? I say let's sentence this script to summer camp for a couple of weeks so it can get some meat on its bones.

I also didn't care for the acting, which became too feverish too fast and had no real steam left for the final two acts.

The play didn't measure up to the promise contained in the stylish, darkly foreboding commentary of Walter Slezak, the between-the-act host of this summer series.

DIALING AND FILING: For his final CBS-TV half-hour, George Gobel and Joe Flynn repeated their irreverent sketch about doctors and druggists and a tranquilizer called, "chuck-it-all."

It's a good sketch and it's unfortunate that Gobel's season left us with just this one highlight. He's not expected back next season.

★ ★ ★

The David Susskind seminar called "Open End," brought together comedians Buddy Hackett, Tom Poston, Alan King, Milt Kamen and Bob Newhart for a free-wheeling, frequently hilarious discussion about their work. Hackett revealed that his film carreer was ruined by his remarkably close facial resemblance to Tony Curtis. Kamen said he's not afraid of "sick" comedians. It's their "sick" audiences that scare him.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Expedition, a filmed adventure-education series that starts on ABC-TV Tuesday, Sept. 20, is seeking a permanent host in the Lowell Thomas-John Gunther mold.

Every third week the half-hour show will be pre-empted so that the network's local outlets can present local public affairs programming.

Teen-age idol Fabian has pulled out of Pat Boone's June 27 special on ABC-TV. The singer says his Hollywood film commitments prevent him from keeping the date.

Here's Latest Lingo Right From Hipsville

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — I am lame and in a box, and I've got a pointed head.

So I'm growing a Castro or a Mitch, and almost any decade now, I'll be able to make the Hipsville scene.

WILSON

"Lame" is to be a square, and if you're square, you're nowhere, and to get out of the box, to become a rounder, you've got to enrich your vocabulary. You've got to say "Listen, Charlie," particularly to people named Sam, and also Mary and Gertrude. Otherwise, you'll never be called a cat and a mother and a swinger, and you're Deadsville, which is like making the Forest Lawn scene.

I gleaned a modicum of this intelligence from Brook Benton, the hip young balladeer who just happens despite his singing to know English, too.

Your Yale Knife—forget it, Charlie," young Mr. Benton advised me.

BENTON

"My Yale Knife?" I wondered.

"Your YK, yeah — don't be a box."

My Yale Knife, I discovered, is my crewcut, although I think I would have named it a Princeton Pancake.

"Look Charlie," Brook told me, "the hip talk is growing everywhere, like. You got to speak it to find all the action."

A teen-ager who has a hip and perhaps a flip, too, interrupted our conversation shoving forth pen and paper.

"Ink me, Daddy," the flip flipped. That's N.Y. hip. Out in Los Angeles, they say, "Do me, Man."

Or something complicated such as "Here's a book—make your Brook."

★ ★ ★

Every city appears to have its own. In Las Vegas a cat introducing his chick says "Meet the rib." In Kansas City that's "Spank the plank." In Akron, an ice cream soda is "bubbles," in Milwaukee it's "cream on the rocks." Automobiles pique the hipsters' interest, too. A convertible in Philadelphia is, for example, "a go-cart."

"I'm gonna cop some ZZZs" is to sleep . . . the ZZZs coming from the cartoonists' balloons showing their subjects snoozing. To say merely "Later" is "Goodbye." Around Boston, a theater pass is "a visa."

Well, I'm cuttin' out. I've got to get my head tightened. It's getting a haircut.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Singer Jaye P. Morgan and her groom (Chuck Kelly of the Modernaires) are separated again . . . Jimmy Durante's long-time drummer, Jack Roth, is seriously ill . . .

Ted Lewis and Sophie Tucker—now working together — have been asked to bring their cafe act to a Broadway theater . . . Postmaster Gen. Arthur Summerfield had his 65-ft. yacht air-conditioned . . . U.S. publishers are after Charlie Chaplin's forthcoming autobiography, but he'll give it to a European publisher.

★ ★ ★

EARL'S PEARLS: Life is pretty tough, but think how much tougher it would be if you couldn't sleep a third of it away.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Definition of a chaperone—Someone who could never make the team, but is still in there intercepting passes. . . . That's earl, brother.

More Illness for Piaf

PARIS (AP) — French songstress Edith Piaf, dogged by poor health, was reported today to be suffering from new ills which may force cancellation of her summer tour. She is reported under treatment for jaundice complicated by a recurrence of an intestinal condition.

Seward, Alaska, is a town of 3,000 people.

INGRID'S DAUGHTER—Jennie Lindstrom Callaway, 21, has her hood adjusted by the faculty marshal during commencement exercises at Mills College in Oakland, Calif., Sunday. She is the daughter of actress Ingrid Bergman and the wife of Fuller E. Callaway, 28, heir to a textile fortune.

State Students Snub Languages in High School

LANSING (UPI)—At least one foreign language is offered in 77.4 per cent of Michigan's high schools, but only 19.6 per cent of the students study one or more, the Department of Public Instruction reports.

Latin leads all other languages both in number of schools offering it and number of pupils taking it, the department said.

★ ★ ★

A survey of the last school year showed 71.2 per cent of high schools offering a foreign language offered Latin, and 43.4 per cent of pupils enrolled in a foreign language were taking Latin.

Some 30.8 per cent of foreign language students were taking Spanish, 22.3 per cent French and 3.5 per cent were taking German, Italian or Russian, the department said.

Tradition Shaken

LONDON (AP)—Television announcer Alex MacIntosh appeared on the screen in an open-neck shirt Sunday and set a precedent. It was the first time a British Broadcasting Corp. TV announcer was allowed to doff his coat and neclgie. The temperature was 83 degrees outside the studio and hotter inside under the lights.

Tonight's Show His Last

Steverino Quits TV

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Steve Allen bids goodbye to television tonight. He won't be back next year.

★ ★ ★

A sensitive, sentimental man, Steve refuses to discuss his swan song.

The fact that he is going off the air grieves the big guy, but cold blooded ratings and his own busy schedule have killed "The Steve Allen Show."

The bespectacled Allen was an unknown to televiewers only six years ago.

STARTED ON 'TONIGHT'

But his old "Tonight" show, forerunner of Jack Paar's melange, and his weekly variety show brought the young whippersnapper enormous wealth and a following of millions.

Since 1954, when the "Tonight" show caught on, Steve has proven that he is more than a genial emcee.

He is an accomplished comedian musician, composer and writer.

★ ★ ★

When his weekly hour-long show began in 1956 an immediate feud with Ed Sullivan sprang up. It became one of the most famous in show business. They appeared opposite one another on Sunday evenings.

The more enraged Sullivan became, the more Steve would turn aside his wrath with humor.

Last fall Steve gave up the Sunday night spot and moved to Monday. Many insiders think this was his downfall. He also switched his show from New York to Hollywood.

ARDENT CRUSADER

An indefatigable crusader, Steve takes an active interest in international affairs, politics and show business ventures.

He is a founding member of SANE and traveled to San Francisco a few weeks back in an attempt to spare Caryl Chessman's life.

He is one of the few performers who will discuss controversial subjects with the press without dodging questions.

★ ★ ★

Now that Steve is free of the pressures of a weekly show he will put the finishing touches on his biography, "Mark It and Strike It" (his seventh book), continue his pace of writing at least one song a week (latest hit, "This Could Be the Start of Something"), and recording albums (he's already turned out 25).

Steve would like to return to television within a year to star in six or eight specials a season, like Bob Hope and Jerry Lewis, in addition to making one or two movies.

He and wife Jayne Meadows will remain here to be near his sons by a previous marriage. They live a short distance from Steve's posh San Fernando Valley home.

A special office is being built above his garage where Allen and his three secretaries will work on his many projects.

Shark Menaces Bathers

JONES BEACH, N.Y. (AP) — The dreaded cry "shark" drove bathers out of the water at this Long Island beach Sunday. Coast Guardmen with rifles killed the 12-foot, 350-pound marauder as it cruised in the surf.

CONSULTATION
1 The Silver Shield program is a united effort by leading dealer-contractors of this community to make sure you receive-full value for your money when you buy a heating system. These dealers have organized an Indoor Comfort Bureau here, as part of a nation-wide program, and any of them will be happy to work with you in the planning of your new heating system . . . without charge or obligation.

FACTS
2 Authoritative information about modern heating and air conditioning systems is provided in a new booklet, "The Silver Shield . . . Your Guarantee of Heating and Air Conditioning Comfort." It tells you exactly the type of performance you have a right to expect from a heating system, and explains how a good system saves money and trouble in the long run. This booklet is free, from any member of the Indoor Comfort Bureau.

INSPECTION
3 To be awarded the Silver Shield seal of performance, a heating system must be designed according to rigid standards established by the National Warm Air Heating and Air Conditoning Association through 40 years of research. After it is installed, the system is inspected by qualified representatives of your community's Indoor Comfort Bureau. It must be proved in action before the Silver Shield seal can be awarded. This inspection service is included in your Silver Shield installation purchase.

Here's What the SILVER SHIELD Guarantees You—
- Even temperature in all rooms.
- No hot and cold cycles.
- Warm floors.
- Comfort everywhere and always.
- Filtered air in all rooms.
- Guaranteed quality.
- Humidity can be added to all rooms.
- Modern system for better living.
- Inspection by experts.
- Longer-lasting system.

U2 Pilot's Father Drops Russian Trip

POUND, Va. (AP) — Oliver G. Powers Saturday suddenly called off his projected trip to Russia to see his son Francis, the imprisoned U2 spy plane pilot.

There was no explanation for the overnight change in plans of the 55-year-old shoemaker, sorely beset over the plight of his son, 33.

* * *

The man who was to accompany Oliver Powers, Sol W. Cury, said the trip is "definitely canceled for the time being, until a future date that can be more advantageous to his son's life and welfare."

Cury, vice mayor of Norton where Powers has his shop, said Powers told him he had received instructions not to make the trip at this time.

It was also understood Powers was instructed to hold off making any more public statements. Cury said he didn't know where the instructions came from.

255 Keyboards Climax

DETROIT (AP)—The 17th annual Michigan Music Festival drew to a thunderous close yesterday at the Detroit State Fair Coliseum as 230 pianos and 25 organs were played simultaneously in what was called the world's largest keyboard concert.

The mass piano concert came when 411 children performing before a capacity crowd of 10,000 persons.

Breaks Leg When Horse Bolts Onto Area Highway

An Avon Township girl is in satisfactory condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital today with a compound fracture of the right leg suffered Saturday when the horse she was riding bolted into the path of a car.

Strike Perils Atlas Firings

Cuba, Red China Tie Is Predicted

NEW YORK (AP)—Fidel Castro's regime is getting ready to establish diplomatic ties with Red China, the New York Times said today.

The move would break the solid Latin American front against recognizing Peiping and would arouse concern in the United States, which has spearheaded the move to keep the Chinese Communists out of the Western Hemisphere. Times correspondent Tad Szulc wrote from Havana that Cuba was also reported planning a major trade pact with the Communist Chinese and had invited Premier Chou En-lai to visit Cuba.

★ ★ ★

Diplomats believe relations with Peiping will be established before July 26, anniversary of the 1953 uprising from which Castro's revolutionary movement took its name.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev who has accepted Castro's invitation to visit Cuba, might arrive at that time, the Times said, and Chou may also be on hand.

Cuba has been cementing ever closer ties with the Soviet bloc and has maintained unofficial relations with Peiping for some time. Observers took it for granted after Castro resumed diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union last month that he would soon recognize Red China.

MAJOR CONCERN

The United States is certain to view recognition as a hostile move, the Times said.

★ ★ ★

U.S. diplomats are also concerned that with Soviet and Red Chinese embassies functioning in Havana, Red activities throughout Latin America will increase tremendously.

The reported Havana-Peiping trade pact is believed to call for sale to China of 500,000 tons of sugar—Cuba's reserve after she has disposed of this year's crop. Red China bought and paid for 130,000 tons of Cuban sugar this year.

AT 114,000 —This huge balloon, 50-stories high and described as the world's largest, soared slowly west across the lower United States today in an experiment designed to provide more information about cosmic rays. The 500-foot diameter balloon, floating at 114,000 feet, is expected to come down in Texas Wednesday. Its $50,000 film package, weighing 800 pounds, will be parachuted to the ground, according to plans. The flight began early Sunday in New Jersey.

Convair Dispute Hits Key Bases Throughout U. S.

Canaveral Is Picketed; No More Negotiations Are Scheduled

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Key Atlas missile bases from California to Florida were struck today in a contract dispute between Convair and the International Assn. of Machinists.

The strike could affect test firing of the Atlas, the United States' only operational intercontinental range rocket.

An Air Force spokesman said war-readiness at Vandenberg Air Force Base, the nation's only operational intercontinetal ballistic missile base, will be maintained despite the walkout.

About 800 IAM members struck Cape Canaveral, Fla. missile test center. Picket lines were set up at midnight. Also struck as the midnight deadline moved across time zones to the West Coast were Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., Warren Air Force Base, Cheyenne, Wyo., and four facilities of Offutt Air Force Base near Omaha, Neb.

Convair officials in San Diego said the strike definitely would affect firing of the big missiles.

IAM members, 330 strong, also struck the Holloman, N.M., Air Force Base facility of Convair. But this strike stemmed more from a local issue than from the national negotiations that broke off Sunday in a deadlock.

TALKS STYMIED

After two hours of talks between union and Convair officials in San Diego, Federal Mediator E. Marvin Sconyers said no further meeting was expected until called by either side.

Negotiations by the IAM are in behalf of the Atlas base workers along with 22,726 at the San Diego plants and 2,869 at a plant at Pomona, Calif.

A one-day work stoppage, beginning with the midnight shift, was announced fo rthe San Diego and Pomona plants that build the Atlas and several smaller missiles.

A union spokesman said a meeting-ink is set for 10 a.m. PDT (noon Pontiac time) today for workers at these two plants.

The dispute is over wages and other benefits. Convair's last offer was an 11-cent hourly wage increase and a 3-cent cost-of-living raise which would be incorporated in the permanent wage. The union said the offer was inadequate.

Present machinists' scale ranges from $1.79 to $3.40 an hour. The machinists seek a 14-cent hourly pay increase over a two-year period.

Ike Takes Pot Shots at Mr. Khrushchev

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP)—President Eisenhower is back among his West Point classmates of 1915 today after a one-two rap at Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and a round of warm public receptions.

The President, taking part in a full day of alumni activities, decided to fly back to Washington Tuesday morning instead of late tonight after another reunion dinner.

His program today includes the traditional march with men of his class, a review of the cadet corps on the plain above the Hudson River, and a brief speech at an alumni luncheon.

Eisenhower arrived at the United States Military Academy Saturday afternoon, then interrupted his visit Sunday to fly to South Bend, Ind., to accept an honorary degree and make the commencement adress at the University of Notre Dame.

At Notre Dame the President took a crack at world leaders he accused of brandishing "angry epithets, slogans and satellites."

He called them enemies of human dignity. Eisenhower didn't mention Khrushchev by name but there was no doubt the Kremlin leader was a target.

It was the second time within 48 hours that the President had jabbed at the man who has been vilifying him for three weeks.

Saturday night Eisenhower left the 45th reunion dinner of his class and made and informal talk near West Point at a Republican banquet. He reminisced a few moments about his cadet days and then turned specifically to the Khrushchev tirades against him.

Eye Expansion of Courthouse

Supervisors to Vote on Ballot Designation for Millage Increase

Important expansion plans for the new county courthouse will be laid before the Board of Supervisors tomorrow.

Primary among them will be a vote to determine whether county voters in the Aug. 2 primary should cast their ballots on a four-year half-mill tax increase levy to finish the seven million dollar courthouse project.

In a committee-of-the-whole meeting in Detroit recently, supervisors indicated they were willing to place the question before the voters.

Tomorrow's vote makes it official — one way or another.

RACE CALENDAR

Supervisors are racing the calendar to get the question on the primary ballots. Deadline is June 14, according to Norman R. Barnard, corporation counsel.

Courthouse planning supervisors have decided now is the time to add four additional buildings to the under-construction courthouse tower unit in the County Service Center off Telegraph road.

Supervisors need four million dollars to complete it.

The 83-member Board of Supervisors tomorrow will also be asked to approve a $55,233 contract for construction of a storm sewer at the site, discuss installation of another $14,000 well there, and approve the final form with Pontiac for relocation of West boulevard to make way for the additional buildings.

Other items on the agenda include setting up a policy to avoid legal hassles encountered over incorporation expenses incurred by the county.

A lawsuit involving Southfield was recently won by the county.

Waterford Township Supervisor Elmer R. Johnson will also present a petition for the county to establish a level for Cass Lake.

More county-owned lands will be put on the selling block if supervisors approve their sale Tuesday.

Bentley Files Petitions

LANSING (UPI)—Rep. Alvin M. Bentley (R-Mich), candidate for the GOP nomination to the U.S. Senate, today filed 18,960 signatures on petitions for the Aug. 2 primary, about twice the number needed.

U. S. Probe Urged of Gas Price Boost

LANSING (AP) — Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams today asked a federal investigation to determine whether gasoline companies conspired together in boosting gas prices four cents a gallon last week in the Detroit area.

★ ★ ★

Adams asked U.S. Atty. Gen. William Rogers to direct a probe into circumstances of the simultaneous price increase. The state does not have proper staff or facilities for such an investigation, he said.

★ ★ ★

"It seems curious that whenever one of the gasoline companies sends up the price kite, the tail made up of all the other companies, follows swiftly," Adams said.

Coast Campaign Starts to Boil

Dems, GOP in Angry Clash as Primary Vote Slated Tomorrow

By the Associated Press

The campaign in California's presidential primary suddenly is bristling with controversy.

Angry charges and counter-charges burst out in a busy weekend of politics that also found Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York acting like a Republican candidate and two Democratic senators hunting votes in Minnesota.

Democrats and Republicans vote in California's primary Tuesday.

The Republican presidential preference ballot lists only Vice President Richard M. Nixon. The Democratic ballot lists Gov. Edmund G. Brown and a minor candidate, George H. McLain.

The campaign, dormant for weeks, livened after Brown called for a heavy Democratic vote to swamp the turnout for Nixon.

A former congressman, Patrick Hilings, wrote Los Angeles Republicans that such a vote would be interpreted by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev "as an indication that the administration's tough attitude toward communism is not supported by the American people."

Brown attacked the letter "as the ugly tactics of the old Nixon and 11th hour McCarthyism." Adlai E. Stevenson, the 1952 and 1956 Democratic presidential candidate called on Nixon to repudiate the letter.

George W. Milias, California Republican chairman, Sunday countered by accusing Brown of "sanctimoniously throwing rocks" at other candidates "in an obvious effort to divert attention from a Democratic sludge fund of nearly a quarter of a million dollars."

Cooler Weather Due First Part of This Week

The weatherman tells us temperatures will be slightly below normal early this week, becoming somewhat above normal later in the week.

Tuesday is expected to be fair and cool with a high of 71.

Sunday was mostly sunny with a high of 78 and a low of 52.

★ ★ ★

Rainfall recorded in downtown Pontiac from 10 a.m. Saturday to 10 this morning was .2 of an inch.

The low tonight is expected to be 48.

Morning northwesterly winds at eight m.p.h. will become moderate north to northwesterly this evening.

★ ★ ★

Fifty-two was the lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. At 1 p.m. the reading was 71.

Young Mother of Three Wins MSUO Scholarship

As a 16-year-old sophomore five years ago, Alice McLeod quit at Kimball High School in Royal Oak to get married. Chances of her ever finishing a college education were 1,000-1.

Today, the odds are in favor of the pert 21-year-old mother of three.

It's through no chance that Mrs. George McLeod is all set to attend Michigan State University Oakland this fall — she has earned an all-expenses paid scholarship.

Mrs. McLeod, of 128 N. Glenborough St., Royal Oak, said she decided soon after quitting school to continue her formal education. She said she was "bored with staying home."

"I knew the stereotype people had of teen-agers who were married," she added. "I was determined that the stereotype was not going to apply to me."

She wanted to become a teacher. So she attended night classes for three years, fitting them in with caring for a growing family. It now numbers Mary Ellen, 3, David, 1, and Raymond 2 months.

Her husband, a water meter reader for the City of Royal Oak, helped with the dinners and got the youngsters ready for bed, tucked them in and washed dishes on school nights.

He said he was "real proud" of his pert wife. "She does a lot of extra work for her classes, and an awful lot of outside reading, too. She's always studying," he said.

Since she went back to school in September 1957, Alice has made straight A's except for a B in typing.

Adult education officials encouraged Alice to take the test for the MSUO scholarships. She and nine others of 70 contestants won the all-expense awards at the university.

Going to college, Alice acknowledges, will present more problems. She is working part time in a Detroit department store to save money.

She expects continuing help from her husband. Her mother Shirley Gardiner of Berkley, will help care for the children.

As a matter of fact, George is talking about going to college himself.

Waterford Dragster Killed as Jack Falls

A 25-year-old Waterford Township man, Larry Christoson of 6029 Grace St., was killed yesterday afternoon at the Detroit Dragway when his hotrod car slipped off a bumper jack, pinning him to the ground.

★ ★ ★

Christoson had been racing in the morning and had trouble with the exhaust system which he was attempting to repair when the jack holding the rear of the car gave way.

He was taken to Wyandotte General Hospital with a crushed skull and died a half hour later.

Bell Employes Will Get Raises in 3-Year Pact

DETROIT (AP)—Michgan Bell Telephone Co. and the Communications Workers of America agreed early today on three-year contracts covering 16,800 employes.

Company and Union officials had negotiated since April 26. The new contract provides increases ranging from $1.50 to $4.50 weekly and increased fringe benefits. The old contract expired at midnight Thursday, but Bell employes continued working.

The new agreement covers plant, traffic and accounting departments. Michigan Bell said the three-year agreement is the longest in its history and includes a provision for two annual wage reopeners.

In Pontiac, operator's wages, now $74 a week, will be increased to $76.

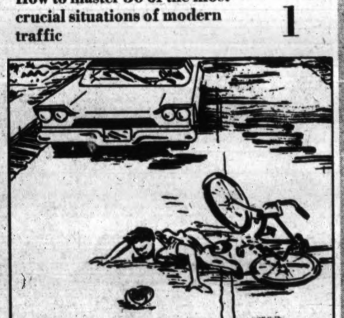

Plant switchmen, repairmen and cable splicers who now have maximum weekly wages of $123.50 and $135.50 will be raised $5 per week. Those with maximums of $113, $116, $113 and $108 will all be raised $4 a week.

Briggs' Condition Critical After Cerebral Hemorrhage

BENNINGTON, Vt. (AP)—Walter O. (Spike) Briggs, 48, noted sports figure and former president of the Detroit Tigers, lay in critical condition here today following a cerebral hemorrhage.

Briggs, the scion of a prominent Detroit family, came east to attend the graduation of a son, James, from Williams College, at nearby Williamstown, Mass. The football and baseball player graduated Sunday, but Briggs didn't make the ceremony.

He was felled on the campus Saturday and rushed to Henry Putnam Memorial Hospital here.

Mrs. Briggs said, "He is in very critical condition. They just can't tell us anything, what the future might hold."

She said he was not in a coma, but did not seem to be aware of what was going on.

With him when stricken were Mrs. Briggs and another son, Walter III, a Detroit advertising executive. A third son, Mickey, attends Harvard.

51 Visit Pontiac's Prototype Family Fallout Shelter

Pontiac proved to be pretty curious about the prototype family fallout shelter over the weekend.

Fifty-one visitors trooped into the basement of Mr. and Mrs. Clarance Dolsen, 88 W. Walton Blvd., to view the shelter during its first public showing.

National, state and local civil defense officials have sponsored the shelter in an effort to spur interest in preparedness against nuclear attack.

The shelter is open for public inspection 10 a.m. to noon and 2-5 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays.

When it is fully equipped, state civil defense officials are to be invited to an official opening.

Ike Takes Pot Shots at Mr. Khrushchev

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP)—President Eisenhower is back among his West Point classmates of 1915 today after a one-two rap at Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and a round of warm public receptions.

The President, taking part in a full day of alumni activities, decided to fly back to Washington Tuesday morning instead of late tonight after another reunion dinner.

His program today includes the traditional march with men of his class, a review of the cadet corps on the plain above the Hudson River, and a brief speech at an alumni luncheon.

Eisenhower arrived at the United States Military Academy Saturday afternoon, then interrupted his visit Sunday to fly to South Bend, Ind., to accept an honorary degree and make the commencement adress at the University of Notre Dame.

At Notre Dame the President took a crack at world leaders he accused of brandishing "angry epithets, slogans and satellites."

He called them enemies of human dignity. Eisenhower didn't mention Khrushchev by name but there was no doubt the Kremlin leader was a target.

It was the second time within 48 hours that the President had jabbed at the man who has been vilifying him for three weeks.

Saturday night Eisenhower left the 45th reunion dinner of his class and made and informal talk near West Point at a Republican banquet. He reminisced a few moments about his cadet days and then turned specifically to the Khrushchev tirades against him.

Eye Expansion of Courthouse

Supervisors to Vote on Ballot Designation for Millage Increase

Important expansion plans for the new county courthouse will be laid before the Board of Supervisors tomorrow.

Primary among them will be a vote to determine whether county voters in the Aug. 2 primary should cast their ballots on a four-year half-mill tax increase levy to finish the seven million dollar courthouse project.

In a committee-of-the-whole meeting in Detroit recently, supervisors indicated they were willing to place the question before the voters.

Tomorrow's vote makes it official — one way or another.

RACE CALENDAR

Supervisors are racing the calendar to get the question on the primary ballots. Deadline is June 14, according to Norman R. Barnard, corporation counsel.

Courthouse planning supervisors have decided now is the time to add four additional buildings to the under-construction courthouse tower unit in the County Service Center off Telegraph road.

Supervisors need four million dollars to complete it.

The 55-member Board of Supervisors tomorrow will also be asked to approve a $55,233 contract for construction of a storm sewer at the site, discuss installation of another $14,000 well there, and approve the final form with Pontiac for relocation of West boulevard to make way for the additional buildings.

Other items on the agenda include setting up a policy to avoid legal hassles encountered over incorporation expenses incurred by the county.

A lawsuit involving Southfield was recently won by the county.

Waterford Township Supervisor Elmer R. Johnson will also present a petition for the county to establish a level for Cass Lake.

More county-owned lands will be put on the selling block if supervisors approve their sale Tuesday.

Bentley Files Petitions

LANSING (UPI)—Rep. Alvin M. Bentley (R-Mich), candidate for the GOP nomination to the U.S. Senate, today filed 18,960 signatures on petitions for the Aug. 2 primary, about twice the number needed.

Cuba, Red China Tie Is Predicted

NEW YORK (AP)—Fidel Castro's regime is getting ready to establish diplomatic ties with Red China, the New York Times said today.

The move would break the solid Latin American front against recognizing Peiping and would arouse concern in the United States, which has spearheaded the move to keep the Chinese Communists out of the Western Hemisphere. Times correspondent Tad Szulc wrote from Havana that Cuba was also reported planning a major trade pact with the Communist Chinese and had invited Premier Chou En-lai to visit Cuba.

★ ★ ★

Diplomats believe relations with Peiping will be established before July 26, anniversary of the 1953 uprising from which Castro's revolutionary movement took its name.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev who has accepted Castro's invitation to visit Cuba, might arrive at that time, the Times said, and Chou may also be on hand.

Cuba has been cementing ever closer ties with the Soviet bloc and has maintained unofficial relations with Peiping for some time. Observers took it for granted after Castro resumed diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union last month that he would soon recognize Red China.

MAJOR CONCERN

The United States is certain to view recognition as a hostile move, the Times said.

★ ★ ★

U.S. diplomats are also concerned that with Soviet and Red Chinese embassies functioning in Havana, Red activities throughout Latin America will increase tremendously.

The reported Havana-Peiping trade pact is believed to call for sale to China of 500,000 tons of sugar—Cuba's reserve after she has disposed of this year's crop. Red China bought and paid for 130,000 tons of Cuban sugar this year.

U. S. Probe Urged of Gas Price Boost

LANSING (AP) — Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams today asked a federal investigation to determine whether gasoline companies conspired together in boosting gas prices four cents a gallon last week in the Detroit area.

★ ★ ★

Adams asked U.S. Atty. Gen. William Rogers to direct a probe into circumstances of the simultaneous price increase. The state does not have proper staff or facilities for such an investigation, he said.

★ ★ ★

"It seems curious that whenever one of the gasoline companies sends up the price kite, the tail, made up of all the other companies, follows swiftly," Adams said.

Briggs' Condition Critical After Cerebral Hemorrhage

BENNINGTON, Vt. (AP)—Walter O. (Spike) Briggs, 48, noted sports figure and former president of the Detroit Tigers, lay in critical condition here today following a cerebral hemorrhage.

Briggs, the scion of a prominent Detroit family, came east to attend the graduation of a son, James, from Williams College, at nearby Williamstown, Mass. The football and baseball player graduated Sunday, but Briggs didn't make the ceremony.

He was felled on the campus Saturday and rushed to Henry Putnam Memorial Hospital here.

Mrs. Briggs said, "He is in very critical condition. They just can't tell us anything, what the future might hold."

She said he was not in a coma, but did not seem to be aware of what was going on.

With him when stricken were Mrs. Briggs and another son, Walter III, a Detroit advertising executive. A third son, Mickey, attends Harvard.

AT 114,000 —This huge balloon, 50-stories high and described as the world's largest, soared slowly west across the lower United States today in an experiment designed to provide more information about cosmic rays. The 500-foot diameter balloon, floating at 114,000 feet, is expected to come down in Texas, Wednesday. Its $50,000 film package, weighing 800 pounds, will be parachuted to the ground, according to plans. The flight began early Sunday in New Jersey.

Coast Campaign Starts to Boil

Dems, GOP in Angry Clash as Primary Vote Slated Tomorrow

By the Associated Press

The campaign in California's presidential primary suddenly is bristling with controversy.

Angry charges and countercharges burst out in a busy weekend of politics that also found Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York acting like a Republican candidate and two Democratic senators hunting votes in Minnesota.

Democrats and Republicans vote in California's primary Tuesday.

The Republican presidential preference ballot lists only Vice President Richard M. Nixon. The Democratic ballot lists Gov. Edmund G. Brown and a minor candidate, George H. McLain.

The campaign, dormant for weeks, livened after Brown called for a heavy Democratic vote to swamp the turnout for Nixon.

A former congressman, Patrick Hillings, wrote Los Angeles Republicans that such a vote would be interpreted by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev "as an indication that the administration's tough attitude toward communism is not supported by the American people."

Brown attacked the letter "as the ugly tactics of the old Nixon and 11th hour McCarthyism." Adlai E. Stevenson, the 1952 and 1956 Democratic presidential candidate called on Nixon to repudiate the letter.

George W. Milias, California Republican chairman, Sunday countered by accusing Brown of "sanctimoniously throwing rocks" at other candidates "in an obvious effort to divert attention from a Democratic sludge fund of nearly a quarter of a million dollars."

Convair Dispute Hits Key Bases Throughout U. S.

Canaveral Is Picketed; No More Negotiations Are Scheduled

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Key Atlas missile bases from California to Florida were struck today in a contract dispute between Convair and the International Assn. of Machinists.

The strike could affect test firing of the Atlas, the United States' only operational intercontinental range rocket.

An Air Force spokesman said war-readiness at Vandenberg Air Force Base, the nation's only operational intercontinetal ballistic missile base, will be maintained despite the walkout.

About 800 IAM members struck Cape Canaveral, Fla. missile test center. Picket lines were set up at midnight. Also struck as the midnight deadline moved across time zones to the West Coast were Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., Warren Air Force Base, Cheyenne, Wyo., and four facilities of Offutt Air Force Base near Omaha, Neb.

Convair officials in San Diego said the strike definitely would affect firing of the big missiles.

IAM members, 330 strong, also struck the Holloman, N.M., Air Force Base facility of Convair. But this strike stemmed more from a local issue than from the national negotiations that broke off Sunday in a deadlock.

TALKS STYMIED

After two hours of talks between union and Convair officials in San Diego, Federal Mediator E. Marvin Sconyers said no further meeting was expected until called by either side.

Negotiations by the IAM are in behalf of the Atlas base workers along with 22,726 at the San Diego plants and 2,869 at a plant at Pomona, Calif.

A one-day work stoppage, beginning with the midnight shift, was announced fo rthe San Diego and Pomona plants that build the Atlas and several smaller missiles.

A union spokesman said a meeting is set for 10 a.m. PDT (noon Pontiac time) today for workers at these two plants.

The dispute is over wages and other benefits. Convair's last offer was an 11-cent hourly wage increase and a 3-cent cost-of-living raise which would be incorporated in the permanent wage. The union said the offer was inadequate.

Present machinists' scale ranges from $1.79 to $3.40 an hour. The machinists seek a 14-cent hourly pay increase over a two-year period.

Bell Employes Will Get Raises in 3-Year Pact

DETROIT (AP) — Michgain Bell Telephone Co. and the Communications Workers of America agreed early today on three-year contracts covering 16,800 employes.

Company and Union officials had negotiated since April 26. The new contract provides increases ranging from $1.50 to $4.50 weekly and increased fringe benefits. The old contract expired at midnight Thursday, but Bell employes continued working.

The new agreement covers plant, traffic and accounting departments. Michigan Bell said the three-year agreement is the longest in its history and includes a provision for two annual wage reopeners.

In Pontiac, operator's wages, now $74 a week, will be increased to $76.

Plant switchmen, repairmen and cable splicers who now have maximum weekly wages of $123.50 and $105.50 will be raised $5 per week. Those with maximums of $113, $116, $113 and $108 will all be raised $4 a week.

SCHOLARSHIP FOR MOM — Mrs. Alice McLeod, 21, of Royal Oak, will add the role of student to those she now has as wife and mother of three children. Mrs. McLeod, who quit high school at 16, has won an all-expense college scholarship to Michigan State University Oakland after attending three years of night classes.

Cooler Weather Due First Part of This Week

The weatherman tells us temperatures will be slightly below normal early this week, becoming somewhat above normal later in the week.

Tuesday is expected to be fair and cool with a high of 71.

Sunday was mostly sunny with a high of 78 and a low of 52.

★ ★ ★

Rainfall recorded in downtown Pontiac from 10 a.m. Saturday to 10 this morning was .2 of an inch.

The low tonight is expected to be 48.

Morning northwesterly winds at eight m.p.h. will become moderate north to northwesterly this evening.

★ ★ ★

Fifty-two was the lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. At 1 p.m. the reading was 71.

Set High Honor for Ike

MANILA (AP) — President Eisenhower is to receive the Philippines' highest decoration on his mid-June visit to this Asian ally of the United States. The decoration is the Rajah of the Order of Sikatuna, symolizing a blood compact between brothers.

Young Mother of Three Wins MSUO Scholarship

As a 16-year-old sophomore five years ago, Alice McLeod quit at Kimball High School in Royal Oak to get married. Chances of her ever finishing a college education were 1,000-1.

Today, the odds are in favor of the pert 21-year-old mother of three.

It's through no chance that Mrs. George McLeod is all set to attend Michigan State University Oakland this fall — she has earned an all-expenses paid scholarship.

Mrs. McLeod, of 128 N. Gainsborough St., Royal Oak, said she decided soon after quitting school to continue her formal education. She said she was "bored with just staying home."

"I knew the stereotype that people had of teen-agers who got married," she added. "I was determined that the stereotype was not going to apply to me."

She wanted to become a teacher. So she attended night classes for three years, fitting them in with caring for a growing family. It now numbers Mary Ellen, 3, David, 1, and Raymond 2 months.

Her husband, a water meter reader for the City of Royal Oak, helped with the dinners and got the youngsters ready for bed, tucked them in and washed dishes on school nights.

He said he was "real proud" of his pert wife. "She does a lot of extra work for her classes, and an awful lot of outside reading, too. She's always studying," he said.

Since she went back to school in September 1957, Alice has made straight A's except for a B in typing.

Adult education officials encouraged Alice to take the test for the MSUO scholarships. She and nine others of 70 contestants won the all-expense awards at the university.

Going to college, Alice acknowledges, will present more problems. She is working part time in a Detroit department store to save money.

She expects continuing help from her husband. Her mother Shirley Gardiner of Berkley, will help care for the children.

As a matter of fact, George is talking about going to college nimself.

Waterford Dragster Killed as Jack Falls

A 25-year-old Waterford Township man, Larry Christoson of 6029 Grace St., was killed yesterday afternoon at the Detroit Dragway when his hotrod car slipped off a bumper jack, pinning him to the ground.

★ ★ ★

Christoson had been racing in the morning and had trouble with the exhaust system which he was attempting to repair when the jack holding the rear of the car gave way.

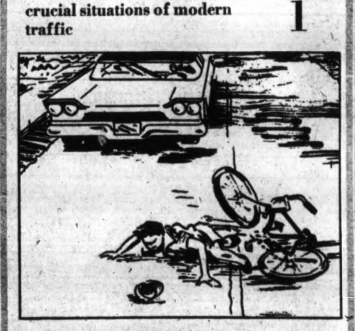

He was taken to Wyandotte General Hospital with a crushed skull and died a half hour later.

51 Visit Pontiac's Prototype Family Fallout Shelter

Pontiac proved to be pretty curious about the prototype family fallout shelter over the weekend.

Fifty-one visitors trooped into the basement of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dolsen, 88 W. Walton Blvd., to view the shelter during its first public showing.

National, state and local civil defense officials have sponsored the shelter in an effort to spur interest in preparedness against nuclear attack.

The shelter is open for public inspection 10 a.m. to noon and 2 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays.

When it is fully equipped, state civil defense officials are to be invited to an official opening.

Back Candidate for Lt. Governor

Grand Rapids Man Is Endorsed by Labor but Top Post Skipped

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Efforts were being made today to have the Michigan AFL-CIO Council convention now in session here refrain from endorsing anyone for governor.

★ ★ ★

But State Council President August Scholle was of the "personal opinion" that Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson has the strongest support.

Meanwhile, attorney Richard F. VanderVeen has the backing of Michigan's top labor echelon for Democratic nomination as lieutenant governor in the Aug. 2 primary.

Scholle looked for no real pressure from the convention floor to endorse any of the three candidates for Democratic nomination for governor.

'NEVER ANY REAL DRIVE'

"I don't think there was ever any real drive for it . . . but we took precautions to avert one," he said.

VanderVeen, 37, of Grand Rapids, is making his second bid for public office.

He was defeated in November 1958 for the Fifth District (Kent-Ottawa counties) representative by Republican incumbent Gerald R. Ford Jr.

VanderVeen won council executive board endorsement last night after a weekend screening of six candidates for the post.

★ ★ ★

In a caucus prior to the executive board meeting, the board and Committee on Political Education (COPE) recommended the convention approve a 1 per cent per capita membership tax boost to establish a citizenship and education fund.

The tax would go from six cents at present to seven cents, possibly by July 1.

"It's primarily for use in putting on registration drives," Schoole said, "particularly in those areas where Republicans are predominant."

Fulkerson Assails Taylor's Tactics

A Democratic candidate for Oakland County prosecutor criticized Republican incumbent George F. Taylor for what he alleged was "complete mishandling" of a gambling conpiracy case last year.

★ ★ ★ ★

In a campaign talk to nearly 400 in Waterford Township Saturday night, Birmingham attorney George J. Fulkerson said Taylor proceeded with a conspiracy charge against five persons without sufficient evidence.

Two defendants were acquitted of the conspiracy charges last October in Circuit Court, while conspiracy charges against the other three had been dismissed earlier for insufficient evidence.

"The defendants were charged not with gambling, but with conspiracy to violate the gambling laws," Fulkerson said in his talk, a much more difficult charge to prove.

The Rain Again Falls Mostly on the Plains

By The Associated Press

Thunderstorms and showers fell over Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas and into Ohio today.

Precipitation for the most part was light. In Oklahoma, where the rain started Sunday night, nearly 1½ inches was reported at Enid, and 1.15 at Tinker Air Force Base.

In the Northeast Sunday, sections of Pennsylvania, New York and the Maine coast received up to an inch of rain.

Area Ad Agency Cofounder to Hall of Fame

NEW YORK—The late James R. Adams, cofounder of MacManus, John & Adams, Inc., Bloomfield Hills advertising agency, today was elected to the Advertising Hall of Fame in ceremonies which featured the annual convention of the Advertising Federation of America.

The citation was accepted by Charles F. Adams, executive vice president of the agency, and son of Adams. Also present were Ernest A. Jones, agency president, and John R. MacManus, senior vice president.

MacManus' father, the late Theodore F. MacManus, also an agency cofounder, was similarly honored in 1949—making today's award the first instance of one agency represented by two persons in the Hall of Fame which is maintained in the Advertising Club of New York.

Elections are posthumos and just 52 advertising notables are to be selected by the year 2000.

Election is on the basis of "special achievement and service in the upbuilding and advancement of the social and economic values of advertising."

James R. Adams with MacManus and W. A. P. John founded the agency in 1934. It now ranks among the largest in the United States and represents more than sixty accounts in this country and abroad.

Wants to Inspect Voting Records of 4 Counties

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Justice Department asked four more southern counties today to open their voting and registration records for FBI inspection to determine whether Negroes were being discriminated against.

Attorney General William P. Rogers, operating under the 1960 Civil Rights Act, asked election officials in Clarendon and Hampton counties, South Carolina; Sumter County, Alabama, and Fayette County, Georgia, to make available their registration and voting figures.

The four counties brought to 12 the number of southern counties which have been asked to provide their records for inspection since President Eisenhower signed the Civil Rights Act.

The mass piano concert came when 411 children performing before a capacity crowd of 10,000 persons.

Teacher Seeks Office

31-Year-Old Sol Plafkin of Hazel Park Has Had Related Experience

A Detroit school teacher and a resident of Hazel Park has announced he will seek the Democratic nomination for Oakland County drain commissioner in the Aug. 2 primary.

Sol F. Plafkin, 31, of 1011 E. George St., said he believes the county's drainage problems "can be constructively met by a liberal Democratic program which can come forth with realistic solutions."

Plafkin is a former reporter for the Ypsilanti Daily Press, a position which enabled him to work closely with that city's government on drainage and sewage control.

Also a former member of UAW Local 400 and the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, the candidate is presently chairman of Local 231 of the Detroit Federation of Teachers (AFL-CIO).

★ ★ ★

Plafkin is a member of the Americans for Democratic Action, National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), and the Young Democratic Clubs of Oakland County.

He has earned a bachelor's degree in sociology from Wayne State and a master's degree in the same field from the University of Michigan.

★ ★ ★

The candidate is a graduate assistant in metropolitan Detroit area studies, having analzed problems concerning the metropolitan area, particularly drainage and sewage problems in relation to urban areas.

Emergency Power Gets CD Test Here

Emergency civil defense electrical generators were used to feed power to the Public Safety Building for three hours Saturday night as normal electrical supplies were cut off by prearrangement as a new line was installed into the new Pontiac Public Library.

While Consumers Power Co. crewmen worked to tie the library into the trunkline that serves the City Hall and safety building, civil defense officials chose to test the emergency equipment.

★ ★ ★

Two gasoline-operated generators —a 10-kilowatt generator in the basement of City Hall and a five-kilowatt mobile generator in the safety building — worked fine except for one hitch: the smaller one ran out of gasoline.

"The test was satisfactory otherwise," said Robert A. Stierer, assistant city manager. "Now we know that we'll have to have a long-term fuel supply on hand, at least a two-weeks supply."

Visiting German Engineer Emphatic

Calls for Toughness With Mr. K

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

A man who knows what it is like to be tough urges Americans to give Nikita Khrushchev a taste of his own medicine.

Wolfgang von Dorrer, a German visitor to Bloomfield Township who has seen his native country go from a hot to a cold war, says this country must get a little tough with the acid-tongued Soviet premier, who of late is off on a rampage of castigating President Eisenhower.

Von Dorrer likened Khrushchev to a big bully who continues beating up smaller children after he tastes the success of flooring his first victim.

"You people have to tell Khrushchev that the language he uses makes it impossible to have any contacts with him," Von Dorrer said.

"Your country or ours can't give in to him because then he will think he is boss, and we can't be bossed by this creature."

LEARNED HARD WAY

Von Dorrer knows what it is like to stand your ground.

As adviser to Dr. Seebohm, minister of transport in Chancellor Conrad Adenauers West German cabinet, Von Dorrer has learned the hard way not to let the Communistic East Germans bully their way into the free zone.

The 54-year-old engineer is in this country for a month along with 11 other German government and private transportation officials to study our methods of coordinating means of transporting goods.

But before setting out for Washington yesterday, Von Dorrer could not pass up an opportunity to visit Mrs. Alfred E. Grann. He had first met her in 1931 when he was an exchange engineer with the old Packard Motor Car Co. and Murray Body Corp. in Detroit.

★ ★ ★

From the visiting group's trips to Washington, Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland and Philadelphia, it is hoped the Germans can create a smoother, more economical and faster system of transporting goods.

A goal is the possible formation of a common market among European nations for transportation, as opposed to what Von Dorrer says is today a "broken" system between the different countries.

"With this in mind," he said, "we'll probably study very closely your interstate commerce system during our stay."

Today with the zones of Berlin separated by checkpoints everywhere, transportation is a hodge-podge of delays, the visitor said.

At first, he was reluctant to discuss the hot topic of troubles brewing over East and West Germany and the dream of all "free" German people — a unified Germany. Von Dorrer said he prefers to leave this discussion to the politicians.

"But everything we do in Berlin and the rest of Germany seems to be political in one way or another," he said.

★ ★ ★

His description of the situation: "We're in a state of well kept hostility." The cause: Mr. K.

What the East Germans need more than anything else is an opportunity to exercise democratic free elections to decide what form of government under which they wish to live. But such a desire is almost impossible as long as Communistic Khrushchev continues to pull the strings of the East German government.

"Of course," Von Dorrer said, "Khrushchev knows in this case his puppet government would be thrown out by these votes."

As others have claimed before him, Von Dorrer said peace in Europe depends largely on a unified Germany. Although he said the tension between the two Germanys is building up, he added, he doesn't believe the cold war will lead into another hot war.

He held out little hope for a successful Summit conference on Khrushchev's terms.

Lessening the chances for bringing the two German sides together is the fact that the Soviet dictator is nearing a separate peace treaty with East Germany, Von Dorrer fears.

"And it will not be backed by the free will of the East Germans."

Huron River a Major Culprit

State Traffic, Drownings Claim at Least 17 Lives

By United Press International

Traffic and drownings combined to take a total of at least 17 lives in Michigan during the weekend.

State Police said 11 persons were killed in traffic accidents during the weekend and at least six persons were known to have drowned.

In addition to the drownings and traffic deaths, Larry Chritosen, Waterford Township, was killed when his car slipped off a jack and crushed him.

In addition, a University of Michigan student was missing and police were dragging the Huron River for his body on the presumption that he may have drowned.

Thomas W. Cameron, 25, Ann Arbor, left his home Friday night to go fishing. His wife reported him missing when he failed to return home by midnight.

No trace could be found of Cameron, and his wife said he was carrying a check for $400 when he left home. She said he usually fished from the bank of the river and not from a boat. His fishing gear was not in his car, which was found near the spot where he usually fished.

Huey Tyrell, 23, Detroit, drowned in the Huron River near the spot where Cameron usually fished. Part of Tyrell's picnicking party watched police drag the river for Cameron's body but Tyrell said he didn't want to "see a dead man's body" and went for a canoe ride.

The canoe capsized 30 feet from shore and Cameron drowned.

The Huron River also claimed the life of Ross Mauers, 16, Detroit.

CLAIMS DETROITER

Mauers was swimming with a companion in the river at South Rockwood when he suddenly disappeared beneath the water and was not seen again.

Other drowning victims included:

Roy Davis, 35, Farmington—drowned Saturday when he was pitched from his speedboat on Ford Lake near Ypsilanti.

Ernest Reed, 13, Flint—drowned Saturday while swimming with a group of boys in the Flint River in the city.

—Bruno Slominski, 48, Hamtramck—drowned in Lake St. Clair Saturday when the motor boat in which he and four others were riding was swamped by wind-whipped waves, one mile off Selfridge AFB. Nearby boaters rescued the others, but Slominski, a good swimmer, apparently exhausted himself in efforts to save his 10-year-old son.

Albert R. Barnes, 6, Kalamazoo drowned late Saturday in Morrow Lake near Comstock when he slipped off a slab of concrete and fell into deep water while his parents were fishing from a boat nearby.

Wayne M. Miller, 50, and Alfred B. Schmidt, 51, both of Springport, were killed in a two-car, head-on crash on M-50 about 11½ miles from Springport in Jackson County. Three other persons in the cars were in critical condition in St. Lawrence Hospital in Lansing.

The Jackson County Sheriff's Department said the accident occurred when a car driven by John Bibler, 29, also of Springport, crossed the center line and crashed into the other car.

In the only other accident claiming more than one life, Willie Cooper, 27, and Louis Winslow, 47, both of Detroit, were killed when they were involved in an accident as they drove their motorcycles away from the Ionia County fairgrounds, after a motorcycle race.

One of the motorcylists crashed into a car as he was attempting to pass another car. His motorcycle was thrown into the path of the other motorcylist and both were killed in the crash.

Commission to Consider Court Clerk Transfer

BIRMINGHAM—A proposal to transfer the Municipal Court clerk's operation from the city clerk's office to the Violations Bureau is expected to be acted on at tonight's City Commission meeting.

With the proposed transfer it has been recommended by City Manager L. R. Gare that Mrs. Ann Bosworth be appointed court clerk and City Clerk Irene Hanley be appointed deputy court clerk.

In a letter to commissioners, Gare stated "For administrative reasons the entire court operation was not transferred to the Violations Bureau when it was established.

"It would appear that it would be feasible at this time to complete the consolidation of all court activity in the Violations Bureau."

★ ★ ★

Gare said that he has received a letter from Municipal Judge John C. Emery Jr. consenting to the proposed two appointments.

The Franklin Cemetery Auxiliary will meet Thursday at 1 p.m. for a picnic luncheon at the home of Mrs. Floyd Beardslee, 725 E. Square Lake Rd. A business meeting will follow the luncheon.

Matthew B. Whittlesey

Service for Matthew B. Whittlesey, 83, of 1383 Washington Blvd., will be held at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday at St. James Episcopal Church with private intombment to follow.

Mr. Whittlesey died June 5 after a long illness.

He was an investment counselor with American Industries brokerage firm in Detroit, and served on the firm's board as an executive.

Mr. Whittlesey was a member of the vestry of St. John's Episcopal Church, Detroit, a board member of St. Luke's Episcopal Home, and a former vestryman of St. James Church here.

★ ★ ★

A life member of the Detroit University Club, he also was a former member of the Beaver Dam Club.

Surviving are his wife, Ellen Ruth; a daughter, Mrs. James Joyce of Birmingham; four sons, Frederick of Tucson, Ariz., George of Palos Verdes, Calif., John of Birmingham and Dr. Robert H. Whittlesey of Cleveland, Ohio; 19 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

His body will be at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. through tomorrow evening.

The family suggests that memorial tributes be made to St. James Episcopal Church Building Fund.

Mrs. Edith A. Dietrich

Service for Mrs. Edith A. Dietrich, 63, of 2616 McClintock Rd., Bloomfield Township, will be at 10 a.m. tomorrow at Our Lady of Refuge Church, Orchard Lake. Burial will be in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Southfield.

A rosary service will be at 8 p.m. today at the C. J. Godhardt Funeral Home, Keego Harbor.

Mrs. Dietrich died Saturday at Pontiac General Hospital after an illness of six months.

A widow, Mrs. Dietrich was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, and was employed at a Detroit clothing store.

★ ★ ★

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Harry G. Brewster of Bloomfield Township; a son, Robert Dietrich Jr. of Detroit; a sister and five grandchildren.

Hunt UP Woods for 3 Fugitives

Convicts Flee Prison Camp Near Paradise After Slugging Guards

By The Associated Press

A police dragnet combed the heavily wooded area near Paradise in Upper Michigan today in search of three fugitives who overpowered a guard and escaped from the Tahquamenon State Prison camp Sunday.

★ ★ ★

The escapees, described by State Police as dangerous, were armed with knives when they broke out of the honor institution operated by the maximum security Marquette State Prison.

In other prison break-outs, two prisoners cut through a wire fence and escaped from an outside dormitory at the Ionia Reformatory but were recaptured six hours later.

Two prisoners sawed their way out of the half-century old Wexford County Jail at Cadillac, but they also were apprehended in the area several hours later.

The fugitives still on the loose from Paradise are Earl J. Lacey, an Indian from Sault Ste. Marie, serving time for larceny, forgery and parole violation; Alfred Burnpus, 26, of Tipton, sentenced for unarmed robbery and parole violation, and William H. Hanhan, 36, of Detroit sentenced for auto theft.

★ ★ ★

Police said the fugitives slugged guard Leroy Clemens over the head and tied him with another guard, Robert Willis.

A GOOD CREDIT RECORD
FOR HER
SHINING FUTURE

For a successful married life and to build the most solid foundation for the future it's most important to create and protect a good credit record by buying wisely and paying promptly. In this simple manner you create a permanent record that is a mark of personal prestige.

A good credit record enables you to always buy the things you need without accumulated cash and to pay for them out of future income—it provides security for your family's future—it carries you over small setbacks, should they happen in future years. Protect your credit record for the shining future—it pays.

Judge Sentences Girl to Solitary Confinement

MARSHALL (AP) — Circuit Judge Alphonso A. Magnotta in his crackdown on delinquent youths has extended his solitary confinement jail sentences now to include an 18-year-old girl.

Previously he has sent 30 boys to solitary confinement for from 15 to 45 days on a diet of bread, milk, water and vitamins "to straighten out their thinking."

Sally Klepper, an 18-year-old Battle Creek girl, got the solitary confinement treatment Friday when she was brought before Judge Magnotta as a probation violator.

She goes to jail for only 10 days and only the last five will be in solitary, and she will be fed the regular jail fare.

But she can have no cigarettes, only religious matter or school textbooks for reading, and no visitors except a minister.

Sally was placed on two years probation last October after she and a girl companion were convicted of unlawfully driving away an automobile. Both were 17 at the time.

Judge Magnotta told Sally her "whole general attitude has been quite poor" and that she had violated her probation at least three times. He said, specifically, that she had been away from home May 23 and 24 without her parents knowing her whereabouts.

A probation term was not to leave home without parental approval.

"I will not tolerate any further difficulty with you," the judge told Sally. "If you are brought here again you will be sent to the Detroit House of Correction."

★ ★ ★

The Detroit institution is a state prison for women.

And when she leaves jail 10 days hence, Judge Magnotta told Sally she'd have to abide by these added terms of probation: Make her home with her parents and observe a curfew by being home every day between 11 p. m. and 7 a. m.

Market May Fend Campaign Damper

NEW YORK (UPI)—The election campaigns no doubt will have the effect of restraining market enthusiasm, but the usual summer rally should probably carry on and may even gain in breadth and vigor, according to Shearson, Hammill & Co.

In addition to retail issues, Shearson says, other groups which are in a position to perform well and provide candidates for the "new high" list include the electric utilities, some of the steels, certain construction stocks, the fiberglass makers and the better representatives from the service industries.

Safest Roads in U.S.

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Connecticut had the nation's safest highways last year with a traffic death rate of 2½ deaths for each 100 million miles of travel. The National Safety Council said the state will receive an award for its accident prevention program. Connecticut inaugurated a tough program of license suspensions for convicted speeders in 1955. Largest U.S. post office serves Manhattan and the Bronx, two of New York's five boroughs. It earns one-tenth of total postal revenues and handles 17 million pieces daily.

CHEERED AGAIN—Piano wrangler Van Cliburn, 25, of Kilgore, Tex., raises the hand of his coach-conductor Gennady Rozdestvensky during the wild ovation that followed Cliburn's return to the Moscow conservatory. The enthusiastic audience was made up mostly of teen-agers and their warm reception was not wholly shared by Soviet music critics. The concert was his first of a scheduled month's tour in Russia.

U. S. Jets Testing Mobility in Asia

MANILA (AP)—U.S. jet fighters fanned out over Southeast Asia today in an exercise ostensibly planned to test the mobility of combat air units.

The 120-plane operation also was widely viewed as a show of force and a warning to the Chinese Communists. Air Force officials said, however, that the exercise was planned months ago.

The exercise, which got under way June 1, is scheduled to last until June 15. Storm conditions north of the Philippines last weekend set the exercise back one day.

CIA Official Evaluates

Sees Russ Questioning Red Infallibility Doctrine

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass. (UPI)—A top official of the Central Intelligence Agency said Saturday there are signs Russia's leaders are finding it harder to defend rigid Communist doctrines to questioning youth.

Richard Helms, assistant CIA director, said "If we hold the Soviets within the physical and political confines of their present influence, there are grounds for believing that a slow process of evolutionary change may have its effect on Russian society."

He said in a prepared speech to Williams College alumni that "Already, in the universities of Moscow and Leningrad, healthy skepticism and outright heresy have goaded (Premier Nikita) Khrushchev into demands for tighter ideological discipline."

There also is evidence, he added, that the new scientific and managerial elite dare to question the infallibility of the Soviet governing group, the Presidium.

"It is reasonable to expect that this new class will begin to demand, in return for its brains and work, some share in making the decisions which today are still so much the monopoly of the dictatorial few at the top."

The key to encouraging this change in Soviet policymaking, Helms said, is successful resistance over a long period to the "expansionary dreams of present Soviet leaders." It must be proved that "The inevitable triumph of a Communist world society . . . is but a delusion."

The continuing struggle "may cost us some sacrifice in our material standard of living," he said, and "We shall no longer be able to afford the racial and religious prejudices of the past . . . but it can be done."

But he said the Communists "can be deterred from a suicidal act, if we continue to confront them with the promise of swift and certain retribution."

State Cherries 7 Million Pounds Over Last Year

ST. JOSEPH (AP)—Michigan's sour cherry crop this year stands at 179,200,000 pounds, more than seven million above last year's output, the Michigan Frozen Food Packers Assn. has announced.

★ ★ ★

The southwest section of the state was expected to account for the greatest increase, association members said at a meeting here. The southwest produced about 57 million pounds compared to last year's figure of 39,800,000 pounds.

The Grand Traverse area in the northwest part of the state had an estimated production of 83,200,000 pounds, or about the same as 1959.

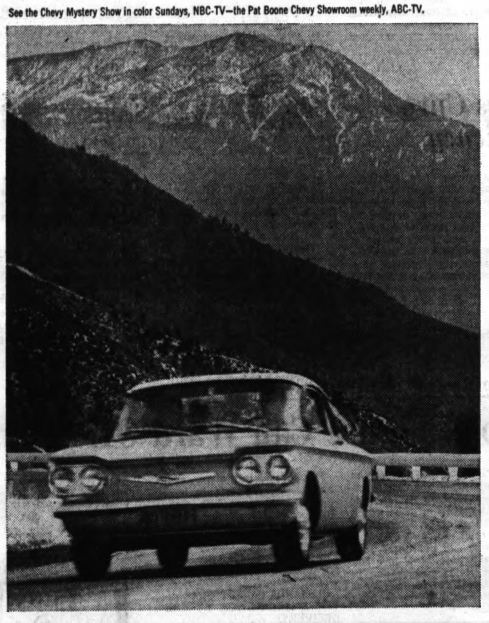

The west central sour cherry section, hurt by a damaging freeze during pollination, saw its production fall off 10 million pounds to 46 million.

★ ★ ★

The association said the other state cherry areas produced an estimated two million pounds as against three million last year.

More than 21 million incorrectly addressed letters end up annually in the Post Office Department's dead letter offices, undeliverable and unreturnable.

Pasternak Knew of Election to U.S. Academy

NEW YORK (AP) — Boris Pasternak, discredited in his own country, went to his death knowing he had been elected to the American Academy of Arts and Letters.

When the 70-year-old Soviet poet died last Monday, the honor had not yet been announced.

The academy said Friday that after he had been informed of his election several weeks ago Pasternak cabled Douglas Moore, Academy president.

"Most modest and heartfelt thanks for the election to you and colleagues. The membership is a high pride, honor, distinction to me, but undertake nothing before having obtained my letter," the cable said.

Apparently Pasternak planned to write further on the matter but fell fatally ill.

French Village Real Gasser, but Then Work ...

... is nestled within 200 meters of a plant treating the natural gas from the Lacq field. The gas contains highly poisonous hydrogen sulfide. A few months ago a flame suddenly went out at the treatment plant and almost 100 workers had to flee.

To avoid trouble in the village, the civil defense organization ordered the 400 residents to carry gas masks at all times.

Three blasts of an air raid siren is the signal to don the masks.

Driverless Car Scares 'Em at First

Modern 'Headless Horseman' Not Far Off

PRINCETON, N.J. (UPI)—Washington Irving put the Headless Horseman on paper. A corporation named RCA has now put the driverless car on the road.

The automaton tends to be as scary as the ghost, until you get used to it. But someday we may have to live with it.

The road is a private one, souped up mightily with loops and lengths of electronic gear buried within the asphalt pavement, at the research center here of the Radio Corp. of America.

It's about as automatic as a road can get, and in effect it does the driving.

TELLS FULL STORY

The "electronic highway" can sense the presence of any metallic vehicle on its surface and tell you where the vehicle is, how fast it is going, and in what direction.

RCA engineers admitted that a herd of cattle would not be detected, unless they were dressed in armor—but then, the limited access highway of the future will be closed to cows.

Given such a smart road, it remained to smarten up the automobile so it could take electronic directions for steering, acceleration and braking.

★ ★ ★

This has been done by General Motors, by adding a few gadgets to standard models.

The result is two experimental automatic cars. Using one standard automobile as a hazard, they performed with the press as passengers on the quarter-mile oval roadway.

The sensation of buzzing along with no one in the driver's seat, and starting, speeding up, and suddenly stopping in accordance with the calculated whims of the driver in front of you, is an unsettling one at first—even though rather slow speeds were involved.

NO HANDS, NO FEET, NO . . .

The demonstrator flipped a switch putting the automatic pilot gadgetry into operation and from then on it was a no-hands (and, for that matter, no-feet and no-brain) operation.

On the dash were two meters, one showing our speed and the other the distance from the preceding car.

We stayed about 80 to 100 feet behind the other car, and when it stopped we pulled up smoothly to a halt 20 feet behind it.

Then the demonstrator had the first car go around the other side of the track and stop.

Then he activated our automatic works and we started zooming around the single-lane oval.

"Now," said the demonstrator, "let's suppose we're cruising normally down the highway around a blind curve and we don't know a car is stopped in front of us and —oops!"

Our automatic auto apparently didn't know it either. The demonstrator said later he probably had forgotten to flip a switch.

As we sped dangerously close, he had to flip back to manual operation and apply the brakes the old-fashioned way, with a foot. We didn't hit.

Nobody screamed. But the age of automation can have its moments.

★ ★ ★

In general, the "automatic pilot" cars performed just fine.

This first full-size electronic highway system guides cars by means of an electrically charged cable running, buried, straight down the center of the lane.

Its signal is picked up by two coils on the front bumper. If the car starts to veer, they "sniff" the error and send a corrective message to the steering mechanism.

One of the uses envisioned for the electronic highway is to activate a "flying tail" of signal lights to follow each car—perhaps changing from red to yellow to green—to let a driver behind know how close he's getting.

Ray of Optimism Gleams on Broadway

By GERALD MILLER

NEW YORK (AP)—A ray of hope waited in the wings today as the dismal drama, Broadway blackout, dragged on. . .

★ ★ ★

With the closing of Broadway's 22 stage theaters last Thursday, both sides in the fight between actors and producers predicted a lengthy and disastrous stalemate. But as tempers cooled during the weekend recess in negotiations, optimism began breaking through the gloom.

★ ★ ★

Nobody was willing to be named, but spokesmen for Actors Equity and for the League of New York Theaters conceded that a settlement might be reached before the end of the week.

★ ★ ★

Behind the upbeat were informal overtures by both sides toward a compromise proposal on the crucial issue, a pension plan for actors.

CUBAN GIFT — Nikita Khrushchev inspects a Cuban flag presented to him by Antonio Nunez Jimenez, right. Jimenez is heading a Cuban economic mission in Russia and it was he who extended Prime Minister Castro's Cuban invitation to Mr. K. Behind Khrushchev is Soviet Foreign Trade Minister Nikola Patolichev. The others were not identified.

We Slap Back at Soviets, Cuba

U. S. Slams Nikita for Ike Attacks, Hits Castro Slander

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has fired back at the increased salvos of criticism coming from the Soviet Union and Cuba.

★ ★ ★

Within a period of a few hours Saturday, the State Department:

1. Said it was disgusted with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's bitter attacks on President Eisenhower. It accused Khrushchev of trying to degrade international relations and confuse the issue of the Paris summit conference collapse.

★ ★ ★

2. Protested to Havana that the Fidel Castro regime was building an intense official campaign of slander against the United States. It said the Cuban government was trying to sow distrust and animosity while claiming to seek friendship and understanding.

IKE CHIPS IN

President Eisenhower, without naming Khrushchev, also hit back at the personal criticism of him which has been coming from Moscow.

In a commencement address Sunday at the University of Notre Dame, he deplored as "the enemies of human dignity" the leaders who "brandish angry epithets, slogans and satellites."

★ ★ ★

Earlier, Eisenhower had said in a talk at West Point, N.Y., that Khrushchev's "ill tempered expressions" had made the Western alliance stronger than ever. That time he mentioned the Soviet leader by name.

Visits Daughter From Germany

INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP—A German grandmother was reunited today with her daughter who married an American GI and came to the United States more than 11 years ago.

Visiting this country on a six-month visa is Mrs. Marie Schmiebauer, 58, whose daughter, Anita, 32, is the wife of Larry Hefferman, 5368 Console St.

For the first time, Mrs. Schmiebauer has met her three grandchildren, Eva Maria Hefferman, 11, Larry J., 10, and David, 2.

Mrs. Schmiebauer arrived at Detroit Metropolitan Airport last night after a series of airplane flights from her hometown of Augsburg, near Munich.

★ ★ ★

Three months from now she plans to visit a second daughter, Elizabeth, who also married a GI and left Germany two years ago.

The daughter is now Mrs. Robert Stauffer of Akron, Ohio, the mother of a two-weeks-old baby boy.

"I wanted to take the children to visit mother in Germany for years," said Mrs. Hefferman. "But we never had the money.

★ ★ ★

"Finally my husband and Elizabeth's decided they could afford to bring mother here, if we couldn't go there."

The reunion was saddened only by the fact that Mrs. Hefferman's father died a year ago. At one time there were plans that he, too, make the trip to this country.

Still another of Mrs. Schmiebauer's daughters married an American soldier. She is Marianne, who became Mrs. Robert Hartley four years ago. Hartley, an Army lieutenant, is presently stationed in Germany.

★ ★ ★

The Heffermans were married in Augsburg in 1947, while Hefferman was stationed there with Army occupational forces. They came to Pontiac after Hefferman was discharged in late 1958.

★ ★ ★

Hefferman is an assembly worker at Fisher Body Division in Pontiac.

PLOTTING COURSE—West Bloomfield High School junior Jack Newton, 17, of 3225 Walma Dr., Orchard Lake, points out the location of the small island off Denmark where his American Field Service trip will take him for six weeks. Looking on are two other students active in the AFS program, Barbara Black and Millan Millan Munioz. Barbara is the president of the newly formed high school club that will sponsor AFS activities at the school. Millan Millan is an exchange student from Spain who participated in the program this year. He returns to his home June 29.

Body Would Create Plan for Shelby Twp. Growth

SHELBY TOWNSHIP—The Shelby Township Board will ask voter approval Aug. 2 to create a commission to work on a master plan of township development.

The proposal calls for a planning commission which township officials believe will better implement its current development project than the existing zoning board, according to Township Clerk William R. Peper.

The Township Board has ordered a survey of the entire township with special emphasis on the area north of Hall road that is included in Utica's proposed annexation plan.

Expected to result from the survey is a new zoning map and a revised set of ordinances.

Utica engineer George Koopman has been hired to assist with the project, taking charge particularly of the land use and rezoning study. Township engineer John Lehner was ordered to start the drainage survey which will be used in the development of a master drainage plan.

Under consideration by the Board was the hiring of a planning consultant to develop all phases of a master plan. This was abandoned in favor of hiring a second engineer.

The sum of $5,000 has been allotted in the township budget to finance the project this year.

GREATER POWER SEEN

The commissioners feel a new body would have greater power and responsibility than the zoning board.

★ ★ ★

The commission would be composed of as many as nine members, including a township official (probably the clerk), who would serve vatrying terms in office. The entire commission would be appointed by the Township Board.

Township officials say they have been working on plans for a development program for about eight months, and that in the meantime Utica's Mayor Edward Church announced proposed expansion of the city to include eight square miles and 10,000 residents.

A poll was taken in one subdivision of Shelby Township to see if the paid-up members in the Shelby Manor Civic Assn. were for or against the mayor's plan. The poll showed that 75 per cent of the membership favored it.

Although the boundaries have not been set, the area tentatively considered for incorporation is from Schoenherr road to Mound road, between 19 and 21 Mile roads.

The total area will include Dresden Village, Grant Park and the National Machine Products Co. on Utica road besides Shelby Manor subdivision. These properties are in sections of both Shelby and Sterling townships.

Excluded is the proposed City of Moravian Hills.

Shelby and Sterlig township officials have gone on record as agreeing that the problem of expansion is solely that of Utica.

★ ★ ★

According to them, Utica has been told by the state to abandon its present water system, and outside help will be needed to solve that problem.

★ ★ ★

Peper said that after studying the proposal and Utica's budget, his Board believes the best thing the city could do would be to incorporate and go back to the townships.

Bandits Escape After Holding 4 at Gunpoint

HAZEL PARK — Police here are looking for three men who entered a confectionary store at 20809 John R St. yesterday morning and held up three customers and the store clerk at gunpoint.

★ ★ ★

The bandits escaped with $1,158 and an $83 pay check.

The clerk, Lonnie Clark, 54, whose brother Roy owns the store, told Hazel Park police the men entered at about 10 a.m., each carrying a gun. They herded the clerk and customers to the basement and took their money.

★ ★ ★

Clark was hit over the head by one of the bandits because he refused to tell "where the rest of the money" was hidden. The thug was called "Angelo."

Charged in Shotgun Assault

★ ★ ★

Earl Matteson Jr. of 46 James St. was picked up at his home Saturday by Pontiac police on the complaint of an Avon Township man who said Matteson threatened to kill him earlier in the afternoon.

Charles T. Rhodes of 1002 Tienken Rd. was visiting at the home of Bernard Clark, 7000 Washburn St., Washington. According to Romeo State Police, Matteson drove up, got out of his car pointing a shotgun at Rhodes, threatening to kill him.

Clark hollered at Matteson, telling him this wasn't the man he was gunning for. He said it wasn't Floyd Coulter who was married to Matteson's wife before he was.

★ ★ ★

State troopers said Coulter and Matteson have had two or three fights before but this is the first one in which a gun played any part.

Rhodes called State Police who had Matteson picked up at his home. Pontiac police said he was drunk and had a loaded shotgun in his car.

★ ★ ★

Matteson was to be arraigned today before Macomb Justice Francis A. Castellucci.

Driver Seriously Injured

Crash Near Lapeer Fatal

LAPEER — A 59-year-old Flint woman was killed and the driver of the car in which she was riding seriously injured when their vehicle hit a railroad bridge abutment three miles west of here yesterday.

★ ★ ★

The car plunged down a 100-foot embankment after the crash.

Dead before she reached Lapeer County General Hospital was Pearl Grenier of 509 Prospect St. The driver of the car, Mrs. Eleanor M. West, 49, of 10264 Davison Rd., Davison, is listed in fair condition there today.

According to Lapeer County sheriff's deputies, the West car was heading out of Lapeer on Genesee road, around an s-curve when it struck the bridge. It sheared off three guard rails before plummeting down the embankment, landing on its top.

★ ★ ★

The stretch of road is posted with a 35 m.p.h. speed limit.

Sheriff's deputies and the county prosecutor today are investigating the cause of the accident.

Farmington Twp. Man Drowns Fishing

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — Roy Davis, 35, of 20966 Renselaer Rd., drowned yesterday when he fell out of his motorboat while fishing alone on Ford Lake, two miles southeast of Ypsilanti.

★ ★ ★

His body was recovered by State Police skin divers in about 15 feet of water.

★ ★ ★

Police were told that after Davis fell from the boat it circled the lake for a short time.

UAW Neutral, Reuther Claims

Rules Out Link With Endorsement of Jack Kennedy by Williams

DETROIT (AP)—President Walter P. Reuther said Saturday that Gov. G. Gennen Williams' endorsement last week of Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) for president "has in no way changed" his or his union's neutrality in the contest for the Democratic nomination.

"The governor's endorsement," Reuther said, "was his personal decision and it was made without consultation with or advance knowledge of the UAW and its leadership."

The UAW has decreed that its leaders, locally and nationally, shall not use their union titles in campaigning as individuals for candidates of their choice.

★ ★ ★

Reuther said both he and the UAW "subscribe fully to the sound polity of the AFL-CIO of maintaining neutrality as between the candidates for the nomination".

Then Reuther added in a statement:

"The three Democratic senators seeking the presidential nomination—Johnson (D-Tex), Kennedy (D-Mass) and Symington (D-Mo)—have all made significant contributions to the advancement of important and meaningful social legislation affecting the welfare of all the people of our nation."

Reuther made no mention of Vice President Nixon, the only announced candidate of the Republican Party.

Found Dead in Closet of Commerce Home

A Commerce Township man was found dead in the closet of his bedroom Sunday afternoon, according to sheriff's deputies.

Deputies said Everett Winters Jr., 51, of 8583 Cooley Lake Rd., hanged himself.

W. Bloomfield AFS Perks Up for Summer

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — While most clubs and organizations have begun to slow down for the summer months, the local chapter of the American Field Service here is planning an increased activities program.

★ ★ ★

For the most part, the speeded-up program will be undertaken by the recently formed West Bloomfield High School Club of AFS.

The new club, headed by Barbara Black, a junior, will sponsor activities to raise funds to bring a foreign student to this country and send a local high school student abroad for the summer.

★ ★ ★

"Committees will be formed to orientate foreign students and make them at home during their stay in this country," Barbara said.

RAISED DOOR-TO-DOOR

In the past, most donations to support the program have been raised through a door-to-door campaign and rummage sales held by the local chapter.

The local chapters need $650 for each foreign student they sponsor and $595 for American students sent abroad.

This year, the chapter sponsored the trip of a boy from Spain, Milan Millan Munioz, who attended the school this semester.

★ ★ ★

The high school student for who they will underwrite the cost of the trip abroad for six weeks is Jack Newton of 3225 Walma Dr., Orchard Lake, a 17-year-old junior.

Millan Millan, 18, who graduates next week, returns to his home in Granada June 29.

During his stay in this country, he has been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Roswell Reeves, 5815 Commerce Rd., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Urquhart, 6469 Commerce Rd., both of Orchard Lake.

GOING TO DENMARK

Newtons trip will take him to Denmark, where he will live with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rosenstand.

Rosenstand is the director of an agricultural college in Korinth on the island of Fyn.

Newton, who leaves on his trip the day after school lets out for the summer, said he especially wants to take a tour of the many castles in the area, tour Copenhagen and visit the home of Hans Christian Anderson.

He said he is looking forward to the trip since the Rosenstand's have a boy his age.

Newton said he has been told that an American student from California is already living with a family in the forest and lake surrounded city.

Under leadership of the local chapter, the high school club will sponsor a Christmas card design contest open to students in the school.

The three winning designs will be printed and sold to raise funds to sponsor more exchange trips next year.

While the AFS was formed in 1915 as a volunteer ambulance service with the French armies, the teenage exchange program has only been in existence since 1947.

During World War I and II, its members found that daily personal contact fostered international understanding, respect and good will and they set up the peacetime youth program.

10,000 PARTICIPATE

Since its inception in 1947, some 10,000 students have participated in the program.

About 1,100 students are active in the exchange program this year.

The present aim of AFS is to have 5,000 students participate in the program annually.

CAROLE SUE RANDALL

The engagement of Carole Sue Randall and Thomas M. Maguire Jr. is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald M. Randall of 3621 Woodcrest Dr., Auburn Heights. Her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Maguire Sr. of 15 Hudson St., Oxford. The wedding date has not been decided.

Connecticut Man Gets Muskegon's IHL Franchise

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — An International Hockey League franchise was granted Sunday to Columbus, Ohio, expanding the circuit to nine teams for 1960-61.

★ ★ ★

The franchise award is contingent on the filing by Columbus owners of a certified check with Commissioner Frank Gallagher of Dearborn, Mich., by Thursday.

★ ★ ★

League Directors also awarded the New Muskegon, Mich., franchise to Jerry DeLise of New Haven, Conn., who had been competing with other interests for the ownership.

Ingo Shows Right in Training Camp

GROSSINGER, N. Y. (AP)—World heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson finished the fourth week of training Sunday for his title defense against Floyd Patterson on June 20 and showed his vaunted right for the first time.

Johansson let loose against three sparring partners, with whom he went two rounds each.

★ ★ ★

First, he rocked Artie Towne in the second with a series of hard rights. Then, he took on Bill Johnson and almost floored him with a right to the face.

★ ★ ★

He operated on Lennart Risberg, the unbeaten Swedish light heavyweight champion, last. He bounced Risberg from one end of the ring to the other.

'Cut-Throating' Time for Area Golfers

Final Qualifying Tests Scheduled Today, Tuesday

Public Links Trials Now Under Way; Dearborn Open Host Tomorrow

By BILL CORNWELL

It's "cut-throating" time today and tomorrow in Oakland County area golfing circles.

Final qualifying time has arrived for both the National Public Links tournament and the 60th U.S. Open championship and golfers from coast to coast will be making their bids for starting berths.

Sectional trials for the public links tourney are under way today at Pine Lake and Forest Lake in a real "dog-eat-dog" marathon.

There are 339 publinx players fighting for only six berths in today's 36-hole grind which undoubtedly will finish in semi-darkness —without any bad luck.

The lucky six qualifiers in this record field will earn themselves a trip to Hawaii. This year's National Public Links event is scheduled July 11-16 at Ala Wai Golf Club in Honolulu.

It's a considerably smaller field at Dearborn Country Club Tuesday where the sectional trials start at 8 a.m. for the U.S.G.A. Open, 36-hole competition for, nine available spots will be every bit as fierce.

The National Open tournament is slated June 16-18 at Cherry Hills Country Club in Englewood, Colo., near Denver. There will be 150 golfers in the starting field at Cherry Hill.

Thirty-seven players — 27 pros and 10 amateurs—will battle for the nine openings over a 36-hole route at Dearborn.

Among the entries are Pontiac's Gene Bone, 38 - year - old Warwick Hills pro who qualified for the U.S. Open a year ago for the first time in his career and passed the local qualifying test two weeks ago today at Franklin Hills and Knollwood.

There are several outstanding amateurs from the Oakland County area entered in tomorrow's trials. They include:

★ ★ ★

Pete Green, runnerup in the North - South Amateur championship; peerless Chuck Kocsis, recent winner of the Michigan Medal Play title; Bud Stevens, State Amateur champion; veteran Tom Draper of Birmingham; John Molenda, U. of D. golfer, and Birmingham's Clem Jensen.

A total of 490 will bid for positions in the National Open tourney on a coast-to-coast basis. Other national qualifying sites include San Francisco, Washington, Atlanta, Chicago, St. Louis, Rochester, Oklahoma City and Fort Worth.

5:30-1:00—Denn Bute, Akron, O.; *Jack Whelan, Canton, O.
5:36-1:06—Gene Bone, Pontiac; *Michael Kosar, Massillo, O.
5:42-1:12—Richard Bury, Grosse Pointe Shores; Lou Powers, Mt. Clemens.

Chisox Win Twice by 2-0

By the Associated Press

Chicago White Sox boss Bill Veeck created a lot of excitement in the Windy City by landing such big fish as Minnie Minoso, Gene Freese and Roy Sievers in major trades since the close of last season.

There was hardly a ripple, however, when he hauled in a couple of nondescript pitchers, southpaw Frank Baumann and right-hander Russ Kemmerer, in minor transactions with rival American League clubs.

★ ★ ★

Yet it's just because of these one-time hapless hurlers that the defending champions are back in the thick of the AL pennant race today, only three games behind the first place Baltimore Orioles.

Kemmerer, who rarely won for Washington and Baumann, oft-bealen with Boston, turned in back-to-back 2-0 shutouts in the White Sox' doubleheader sweep over Kansas City Sunday.

The 28-year-old Kemmerer, purchased May 18, doled out three hits to win his second since joining the Sox. Baumann, obtained in a winter trade for first base flop Ron Jackson, limited the A's to seven hits in the nightcap for his second straight shutout.

★ ★ ★

The double triumph enabled the third place Sox to climb to within one game of runner-up Cleveland, which split with Detroit. The Indians won 9-0 after the Tigers had taken the opener 7-2. Baltimore widened its lead to two games over the Indians with a 6-5 decision in Washington. New York slapped down Boston twice 5-4 and 8-3.

Chicago newcomers Freese and Minoso also were key operators in the White Sox' first game victory. Freese doubled in the fourth and scored on Luis Aparicio's single to end a scoreless pitching duel between Kemmerer and Dick Hall. Minoso's seventh homer added an insurance run in the sixth. It was Hall's second loss, both to Chicago. He has won five.

★ ★ ★

Another comparative White Sox newcomer, Ted Kluszewski, scored the first run in the nightcap after hitting a double in the second inning. Sherm Lollar's single scored him. Ned Garver, who had to leave after two innings because of a knee injury, was tagged with his fifth loss in as many decisions.

★ ★ ★

The Sox have won six of their last 12. Baumann and Kemmerer have been responsible for four of the triumphs.

Two walks, a Texas League single and a throwing error presented Baltimore with two ninth inning runs which enabled the Orioles to overcome a 5-4 Washington lead.

★ ★ ★

With one out, Tex Clevenger walked Willie Tasby and Al Pilarcik. Marv Breeding blooped a single to short center. Outfielder Lenny Green, who had driven in two Washington runs in the eighth with a pinch single, then overthrew third in an attempt to catch Tasby and two runners scored as the ball bounced into the seats.

Ted Williams, back in action after a virus attack that came on the heels of a leg injury, hammered his third home run of the season and 485th of his career but couldn't stop the Yankees from beating his Red Sox in the opener. Mickey Mantle's eighth homer and Roger Maris' 14th, with two on, were the big Yankee blows.

★ ★ ★

Bobby Shantz cemented the Yankee victory with a brilliant relief job, getting Vic Wertz to hit into a game-ending double play with the bases full. Art Ditmar hurled a 6-hitter for New York in the nightcap.

Sherry Ailing, Drysdale May Go to Hospital

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers have lost ace reliever Larry Sherry for about two weeks, and they may have to hospitalize Don Drysdale, the workhorse of their pitching staff.

★ ★ ★

Sherry sprained an ankle in the fourth inning of Saturday night's game with Chicago when he stepped on a bat while running in to cover home plate.

★ ★

Drysdale suffered severe muscular and ligament strains in his back when he slipped while walking through the Dodger shower room Sunday. A doctor said he responded to treatment, but might be sent to a hospital and put in traction.

Tops Her Own Mark

BUCHAREST, Romania (AP)—Elvira Ozolina of Russia smashed her own women's world javelin record with a toss of 195 feet 2 inches Sunday in an international track and field meet here.

WINNER WARD—Rodger Ward of Indianapolis grins as he holds the trophy after driving to victory in the 100-mile race for big cars at the Wisconsin State Fairgrounds. He won in record time and speed of 99.44 m.p.h. He was second in the "500" race on Memorial Day.

Phils Dump Pittsburgh 2-0 and 4-1

By The Associated Press

You'll have to pardon the Pittsburgh Pirates if they refuse to sympathize with the oft-defeated, much-depleted and last-seeded Philadelphia Phillies.

Expected to fatten up their first place National League lead Sunday over the under-manned Phillies, who have four men in the hospital, the Pirates instead were held to one run and lost twice 2-0 and 4-1.

In the opener, Pittsburgh managed 10 hits off Gene Conley but the 6-8 right-hander did not permit a Pirate runner to go beyond second base. The Bucs also outhit the Phils in the nightcap, but they barely avoided being shut out again, by Jim Owens, thanks to Dick Stuart's homer in the eighth.

St. Louis' 9-4 triumph over San Francisco enabled the Pirates to finish the day with a one-game lead over the Giants. Milwaukee closed to within 4½ of the lead by splitting with Cincinnati. The Braves won 4-1 after Cincinnati had copped the opener 3-2. Chicago's Cubs outslugged Los Angeles 12-8.

The Phils got five hits in each game to hang defeats on Bob Friend and Harvey Haddix. First inning singles by Bobby Del Greco and Tony Taylor and Tony Curry's scoring grounder were enough to account for the opener. Home runs won the nightcap for the Phillies. Haddix allowed but two hits in six innings but one was Ted Lepcio's first home run of the season. Cal Neeman's three-run clout off reliefer Jim Umbricht in the seventh was the clincher.

Ex-Giant Bill White rapped four of St. Louis' 17 hits and ignited two Cardinal rallies with doubles. The Redbirds overcame a 2-0 deficit with four runs in the sixth and broke a 4-4 tie with three more in the seventh. Lindy McDaniel, in relief, won his third.

Held scoreless by Sandy Koufax until the sixth, the Cubs rallied for seven runs with five hits and five walks. They went on to amass 15 hits off five Dodger pitchers. Frank Thomas drove in three runs with a pair of homers and a single.

Cincinnati got only five hits off Milwaukee southpaw Juan Pizarro but three of them were home runs—by Billy Martin, Roy McMillan and Vada Pinson. They were enough to give Bob Purkey his fourth victory.

The Braves snapped a 1-1 tie in the eighth of the nightcap. Five hits, including doubles by Felix Mantilla and Henry Aaron, produced three runs off loser Joe Nuxhall.

Warran Spahn, who shut out the Reds with one single in 4 2-3 innings of relief, gained the 271st victory of his career and fourth of the season.

Sunnybrook Keeps Publinx Loop Lead

Defending champion Sunnybrook stayed atop the Red Division standings of the Michigan Publinx Golf League by posting its fourth victory without a loss yesterday, defeating Brae Burn 15½-6½.

Jay Law and Sam Lima each had a 71 to pace the victory.

Dick Robertston's 73 and Dick DeWitt's 75 paced Bald Mountain to a 14½-7½ win over Loch Alpine to stay in a second place tie with Morey's.

Bob-O Link, Sylvan Glen and Rochester all were tied in the White Division with 2-1 records.

U. S. Swim Relay Mark

SANTA CLARA, Calif. (AP)—The American record for the 440-yard swimming relay was bettered Sunday by four teen-age girls at an exhibition meet held here to raise funds to send them to the Olympics.

Chris Von Saltza, 17, one of this country's best hopes in the summer games, was one of the girls who set the mark of 3:55.8 for the relay. The record is 3:56.6 by the Walter Reed Swim Club of Washington, D.C.

Seaholm Third in State Tennis

Area Netters Unable to Cope With Tough Annual Powers

(Special to The Pontiac Press)

KALAMAZOO — A distant third place in Class A for Birmingham Seaholm was the best Oakland County area entries could do in the state tennis championships which ended Saturday at Kalamazoo College.

Regional doubles champions John Sisson and Steve Smith scored the Maples' three points. Kalamazoo University School upset annual winner Hamtramck for the Class A crown.

★ ★ ★

Kazoo had 13¾ points to 10 for the Cosmos, who had won 11 straight times. Francisco Castillo of the No. 2 team set a record by winning in singles for the 4th successive season.

Bay City Central and Flint Central had one point each and Berkley took one-half point. Pontiac Central was scoreless.

East Grand Rapids won the big "B" trophy while Northville got into the scoring on an early win in doubles by Jon Rodgers-Tom Long. Cranbrook was shut out, Sturgis was a close second and Rockford third.

Ann Arbor University High squeezed by Grosse Pointe University 6½ to 6 in Class C-D. Third went to Galesburg-Augusta.

Another Silver Lake Ace

Weekend golfing activity in the Pontiac area resulted in another hole-in-one at Silver Lake Golf Club.

Paul Johnson Jr. aced the 120-yard 8th hole with an 8-iron in the presence of his father, Paul Johnson Sr., and Ken McClintock and Norm Cummerford, Johnson's ace helped him shoot 45 for nine holes.

Trading in Grains Remains Sluggish

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain futures prices shifted within a narrow range again today with dealings still sluggish on the Board of Trade.

★ ★ ★

Only a few plus signs were scattered through the list, mostly in corn during the first several minutes.

★ ★ ★

Dealers said there appeared to be willingness to liquidate a number of positions but demand was weak and when prices eased the offerings were withdrawn. Export business over the weekend was very light.

Baptists to Remain in National Council

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (UPI)—The American Baptist Convention today overrode protests by a militant church group from Wichita, Kan., and decisively reaffirmed its participation in the National Council of Churches.

★ ★ ★

Some five thousand delegates to the 53rd annual meeting adopted a resolution recommended by the convention's general council with an overwhelming show of hands.

A substitute motion, presented by the First Baptist Church of Wichita to entreat American Baptists to sever ties with the National Council, was defeated.

Active Mart Edges Higher

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market edged higher in moderately active early trading today. Key stocks rose from fractions to about a point.

★ ★ ★

Oils, rails, motors, chemicals, nonferrous metals and aircrafts were generally higher but most of their gains were small. Steels and electrical equipments were mixed. Utilities were unchanged to a shade lower.

Woolworth, chosen as "stock of the month" by an advisory service, gained a fraction in routine dealings. Recommended by the same service, General Telephone recovered about a point of last week's losses and Commercial Solvents gained a fraction in fairly brisk dealings.

Fairly encouraging reports of auto sales accompanied the rise of motors shares. Fractional gains were posted for General Motors, Chrysler and American Motors. Ford was steady.

Suggests Nan Wait for Awhile

BITBURG, Germany (AP)—Patricia Wallace Vanderbilt has advised her pretty 19-year-old daughter to wait awhile before marrying the handsome American soldier she ran away with.

★ ★ ★

But the divorced fifth wife of American millionaire Cornelius Vanderbilt Jr. refused to say whether she would approve an eventual marriage of her daughter, Nanette Wallace, to Wiley Lockamy, 23, of Clinton, N.C.

Nanette touched off a police search when she disappeared May 28 from Cannes, the French Riviera resort where she was vacationing with her mother. Lockamy brought her here to the home of his sergeant, Warren Sullivan, and his wife and the young couple announced they planned to wed.

★ ★ ★

Nanette met Lockamy, an anti-aircraft missile repairman, on the Riviera. He is with a small ordnance detachment stationed at Bitburg base. Mrs. Vanderbilt followed them to Bitburg and is also staying with the Sullivans.

COUNCIL POWWOW—More than 200 Cub Scout leaders of Clinton Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America, gathered at Camp Agawam near Lake Orion Saturday for their annual Council Powwow. Shown boning up on handicrafts they will teach to cubs are den mothers from Oakland and Macomb counties. Following a banquet in the evening, the all-day program concluded with the presentation of certificates, group singing and skits, and a short history of cub scouting in the area narrated by Mrs. Kenneth Jones of Waterford.

IF

IF you have enough life insurance your family may be able to pay off the bills if something happens to you. Maybe they will have enough to live on—for a while. But if yours is like most families it will take additional cash to pay off the mortgage on your home.

IF you want to be sure that you leave your family a home instead of a mortgage, get the details about Modern Woodmen's Mortgage Retirement Plan. It's a mighty comfortable feeling to know that you have a plan that will pay off the entire mortgage at one time.

7,000 Crowd Mark Twain Shrine Dedication

FLORIDA, Mo. (AP) — About 7,000 persons jammed into this village Sunday for the dedication of a Mark Twain shrine.

★ ★ ★

The shrine is the two-room cabin where Samuel Langhorne Clemens was born 125 years ago. Writing as Mark Twain, Clemens attained world fame as a humorist.

★ ★ ★

The cabin, moved a short distance from its original location, is housed in a $250,000 modernistic museum.

State Schools Award Degrees

Four Honor National, State Leaders; CMU Lone Exception

By the Associated Press

Awarding of honorary degrees highlighted commencement exercises at five Michigan institutions of higher education Sunday.

★ ★ ★

Graduation ceremonies were held at Kalamazoo College, Central Michigan University, Lawrence Institute of Technology, Olivet College and Northern Michigan College.

Kalamazoo conferred honorary degrees on Dr. Samuel H. Miller, dean of the Harvard Divinity School, Dr. Willard Thorp, chairman of Princeton University's English department and Dr. Marston Balch, Tufts University drama director.

Paul C. Ackerman, vice president of engineering at Chrysler Corp., received an honorary degree and delivered the graduation address at Lawrence Tech's exercises in Detroit.

★ ★ ★

Olivet awarded honorary degrees on Dr. Herman L. Shibler, director of the airborne television project at Purdue University, Edward L. Ransom an Olivet graduate and board member of the Imperial Furniture Co. of Grand Rapids, and Dr. Carroll W. Grant, chairman of the Brooklyn College biology department.

Four men won honorary degrees at the 60th annual commencement exercises at Northern Michigan College at Marquette. They were: Dr. Lynn M. Bartlett, state superintendent of public instruction; Don H. Bottum, an NMC faculty member for 36 years who retired as dean of students; Jack F. Wolfram, a General Motors Corp. vice president, and Dr. Harlan C. Koch, associate dean of the University of Michigan graduate school.

★ ★ ★

Central Michigan, which awarded no honorary degrees, gave degrees and teaching certificates to 669 graduates at cerenonies in Mount Pleasant.

The Barrett Park Zoo on New York City's Staten Island has one of the world's largest collections of snakes and other reptiles.

STAR GAZING—The skies cleared up Friday night in time for members of the Pontiac Northwest Detroit Astronomers Assn. to get a good look at the heavens. Here Frank J. Rosemeck, 2651 Harvard Rd., Berkley, squints at the moon. Rosemeck, an engineer, is president of the association, which gathered at Cranbrook for its annual spring star party. There'll be a fall outing in August.

Liberal Spending Alleged

Claim Committees Fake Foreign Spending Tabs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Public Works and Judiciary committees have submitted artificial reports of their 1959 spending of public funds overseas, the Knight newspapers said today.

Reporters Don Oberdorfer and Walter Pincus wrote in a copyright article:

"These reports have sailed through the House committee accounting system into the public domain without a ripple even though the itemizations are obvious concoctions."

★ ★ ★

The committee expense reports in question cover congressional spending of counterpart funds overseas. These are currencies of foreign governments which the U.S. government owns as a result of aid and sales transactions but holds within the overseas country.

Two other House committees, Agriculture and Education and Labor, did not even itemize counterpart spending by categories, the article said.

"Congressmen can draw these funds freely at just about any United States embassy in the world on the say-so of a congressional committee chairman. The individual congressman is required to report his counterpart spending only to his committee chairman," the article said.

★ ★ ★

"His report must say what he spent for transportation, lodging, meals and other expenses. The law requires that committee chairmen, at the end of each year, consolidate these individual reports before making them public, so nobody can see what any one congressman spent."

The article said that "in each of the 23 countries from Argentina to Sudan where members of the Judiciary Committee traveled, their report asserts that they spent exactly 30 per cent of their counterpart money for transportation, exactly 20 per cent for lodging, exactly 30 per cent for food, exactly 10 per cent for gratuities and exactly 10 per cent for 'miscellaneous.'"

Chairman Emanuel Celler (D-NY) was quoted in the article as saying he had not seen the report on the 1959 spending which totaled $54,363.81, and would not look into the circumstances of the consolidated report.

Christian Scientists Ponder National Vote

The Christian Science Board of Directors today told some 7,000 Christian Scientists that decisions about national elections should come out of each voter's communion with God and the guidance obtained through prayer.

★ ★ ★

The directors' message calling for an end to apathy, irresponsibility and blind partisanship was heard at the annual meeting of the mother church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

In reference to political decisions, the directors said, "Through prayer, we can rise above blind partisanship and the irresponsible tumult of aggressive mental suggestion."

The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Pontiac is at 164 W. Lawrence St.

★ ★ ★

At the annual meeting, Arthur W. Eckman of Cambridge, Mass., was named president of the mother church for the coming year.

Pontiac's Share $274,000 in State Highway Funds

Pontiac will get $274,415 and Oakland County $1,683,061 in the first quarter motor vehicle highway fund distribution.

★ ★ ★

Of $83,572,307 collected January through March in state gasoline, weight and diesel fuel taxes, the State Highway Department will get $38,554,097, or 47 per cent.

Under the distribution formula, 35 per cent, or $28,710400, goes to county highway departments and 18 per cent, or $14,765,895 goes to cities and villages.

Distributions to communities in the Pontiac area:

Driver Grabs Boy From Danger on School Bus

The alert action of a school bus driver in Southfield Friday saved a 10-year-old boy from possible injury or death.

★ ★ ★

Bill Hathaway, 54, who drives a school bus for St. Michael Parochial School in Southfield, said he was checking traffic on Telegraph road as he slowed on 12-Mile road to make a crossing when he caught a glimpse of the young passenger opening the bus door.

"The boy was starting down the doorsteps when I grabbed him," the driver said. "His lunch box flew out the open door and landed under the still - moving bus wheel. It could have been the boy," he added.

The lunch box was flattened.

"If I'd had to stop quick, the boy probably would have flown out the door," said Hathaway, who has been driving school buses two years without an accident.

★ ★ ★

He warned parents to instruct their children to remain seated on the bus until it comes to a complete stop.

Attorney Jerry Giesler Rests After Heart Attack

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—Movieland attorney Jerry Giesler was resting at home today after suffering a mild heart attack while vacationing in Las Vegas, Nev.

Giesler, 75, stricken Friday, was released from a hospital in the desert gambling center Sunday. He had a previous mild heart attack last September.

Baptists OK Building of $8.5-Million Center

By an overwhelming voice vote, delegates to the American Baptist Convention at Rochester, N. Y., Saturday authorized the signing of construction and financing contracts, for a new $8,500,000 headquarters at Valley Forge, Pa.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Joseph I. Chapman, pastor of Bethany Baptist Church and an executive council member said "it will add a new stimulus and effectiveness to our work, and will save us money in the long run."

★ ★ ★

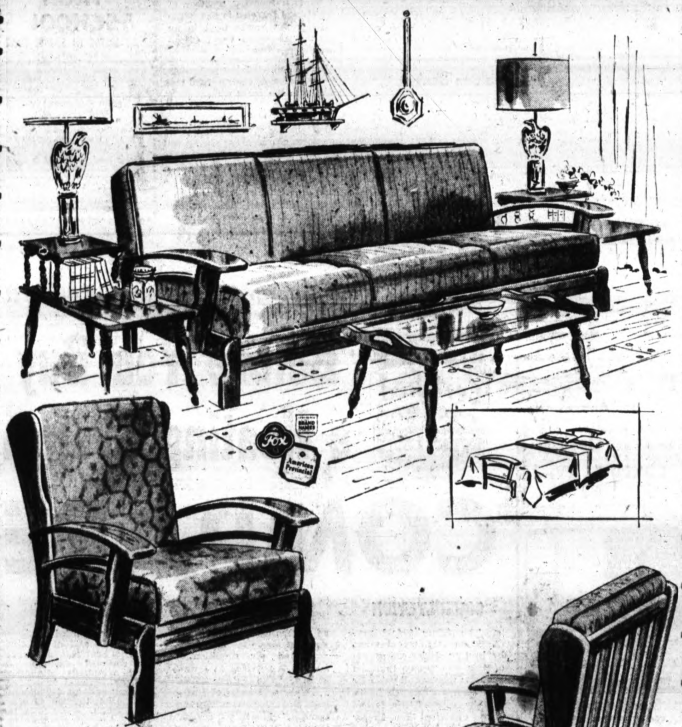

Missionary leaders fought the action, claiming the money for the project could be better used for spreading the gospel.
