Reuther Demands Labor Act

'Must Use Stiff Broom, Strongest Disinfectant'

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Walter P. Reuther says American labor must clean house with the "stiffest broom and brush and the strongest soap and disinfectant" it can find.

★ ★ ★

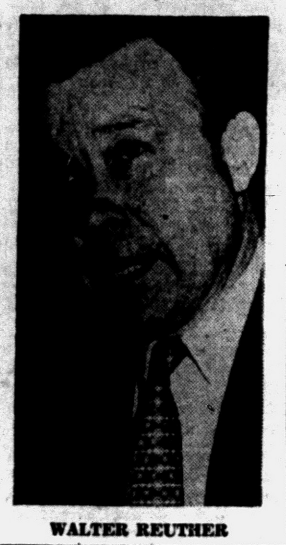

Otherwise, Reuther told the United Auto Workers convention yesterday, "the reactionaries will clean it for us. But they won't use a broom; they'll use an ax, and they'll try to destroy the labor movement in the process."

The UAW chief called on labor to "drive out every crook and gangster and racketeer we can find."

He drew a loud cheer from 2,300 delegates representing 1½ million UAW members by declaring, "All the corruption is not on labor's side."

He charged that "reactionary, corrupt managements would rather pay a bribe to a crooked labor leader than to pay a living wage to the workers represented by that crooked labor leader."

Reuther's re-election as president of the UAW, which he has headed since 1946, apparently was assured by an overwhelming majority in convention voting Wednesday.

WALTER REUTHER

A caucus of Reuther supporters, making up most of the delegates, voted unanimously last night to renominate Reuther and his entire administrative staff of elective officials.

The caucus, filling a hall with a 2,000 seating capacity, also pledged Reuther supporters to vote for his key proposals. These include an increase of 50 cents a month in basic union dues of $2.50 and changes in bargaining procedure to permit skilled trades groups to negotiate supplemental contracts within the industrial union's structure.

Reuther's keynote speech to the opening session of the convention that will continue through Friday touched on subjects ranging from union jurisdictional disputes to international diplomacy.

Mail Service to Be Restored if House Acts

Summerfield Claims Delay Depends Upon OK of $47 Million

WASHINGTON (INS) — Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield says mail service cutbacks set for next Saturday will not last long if the House acts favorably this week on his money requests.

He expressed confidence that if the House Appropriations Committee sends the measure to the floor, the full House will approve the entire 47 million dollars he asked to run the department through June 30.

Summerfield added that he was "assured" yesterday that the Senate Appropriations Committee would then "immediately convene" and send the House-approved bill to the floor for a vote.

"So," he added, "there need be no long delay."

The House Appropriations Committee has approved only 17 million dollars of Summerfield's request. It will take up the remaining 30 millions Friday.

Rebuplicans on the committee, who have been the principal economizers on budget requests, are battling to push Summerfield's request through the committee. But the postmaster general said even if this group does not vote the full 47 millions, the House will when the measure gets to the floor.

Meanwhile, Summerfield reiterated that he is not bluffing about cutting out Saturday deliveries, closing post office windows on Saturdays and placing an embargo on all third class mail except merchandise.

ISSUES ORDER

Questioned as to whether he might be using the threat of curtailed service to push his proposed postage rate increases, he declared:

"The (cutback) order . . . is already in the hands of 38,000

NOT BLUFFING—Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield poses with a chart he set up for newsmen to explain his stand on threatened cuts in postal service. Summerfield said yesterday that he is "not bluffing" and that postmasters across the country have been ordered to cut back on service unless Congress approves an extra $47 million he insists he needs to maintain present services.

Bulletin Orders Drastic Cuts in Mail Delivery

Dean Says Congress Can't Appropriate Cash Quickly Enough

Pontiac's Post Office will definitely be closed next Saturday, Acting Postmaster Leslie Dean said today.

"I don't see how Congress can move fast enough to prevent at least this Saturday's closing," Dean said, referring to Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield's threat to lop off Saturday service unless his deparement receives $47 million in supplementary appropriations to finish out the fiscal year ending July 1.

Dean revealed he had received a special bulletin from Washington ordering drastic cuts in service. Included are:

1. Effective April 13, the post office will close Saturday and Sunday.

2. Effective April 13, no city, village or rural delivery service will be given on Saturdays except special delivery.

★ ★ ★

3. Effective April 29, no third class mail will be received by the post office except certain medical items.

4. Effective immediately, no reimbursement will be made to carriers for uniform purchases.

5. Effective April 15, window service will be limited to not more than 8½ hours a day. Pontiac presently gives service from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., or 10 hours a day.

6. Effective April 29, no first or second class post offices (Pontiac is first class) will sell money orders.

PUBLIC ATTENTION

In commenting on the new rules, Dean said he believes Postmaster Summerfield is trying to bring before the public the annual problem of supplementary appropriations.

"This happens every year," Dean said, "The Post Office has to estimate its budget a year in advance and it always underestimates."

"So for the last quarter it has to ask Congress for extra money. You can see that we can't estimate accurately because of the tremendous growth in postal service every year.

★ ★ ★

"Right here in Pontiac," Dean added, "the people know how much our service has expanded each year."

"Every few years, Congress balks at the extra appropriation and gives us a headache. Why one year recently we couldn't pay our carriers for weeks," he said.

The acting postmaster pointed

Pontiac Hospital Suit Postponed

15-Day Delay May Give Doctors, Director Time to Settle Rules Dispute

Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty today granted a 15-day postponement in the show-cause hearing why Pontiac General Hospital Dierctor Miss Lauretta Paul shouldn't be enjoined from enforcing some disputed surgical regulations at the city hospital.

The delay to April 23 was granted when attorney William J. Beer, representing six doctors, said his clients and the hospital were "still trying to effect an amicable disposition of the dispute."

The six doctors, all general practitioners, filed suit March 15 seeking stoppage of rules which, the suit said, "prohibited unrestricted use of their licenses."

Miss Paul, director at the hospital for the past 10 years, was named as defendant in the suit.

The doctors are Leonard Blackwell, Robert W. Albrecht, Douglass A. Haddock, Maolin Han, Rodman C. Jacobi, and Roy V. Cooley, also a city commissioner.

DISPUTE AUTHORITY

They charge that only the Michigan State Board of Registration in Medicine can regulate rights of surgeons and physicians to practice in public hospitals.

The hospital's Board of Trustees and medical staff have steadfastly supported the rules as necessary and in effect in other hospitals.

Dr. Arnold Brown, chief of staff, said there was a "definite possibility that differences will be ironed out out of court."

40 Aboard Brazilian Liner

3 Plane Crashes Kill 45; B47 Hits Peak in Hawaii

A total of 45 persons, including five Americans, died yesterday in three plane crashes in Nevada, Hawaii and Brazil.

All four crewmen were killed in Hawaii when an Air Force B47 bomber slammed into the tip of a 2,400-foot mountain above the World War II rest camp known as "Happy Valley" on northwest Oahu.

The dead were identified at their home base at Altus AFB, Okla., as Capt. Dunn N. Roges, 36, Altus, Okla.; 1st Lt. Sherman Bozeman Jr., pilot, 25, Montgomery, Ala.; 1st Lt. Frank R. Clausi, observer, Altus; and S.Sgt. Haskell E. Gray, crew chief, Altus.

In Brazil, forty persons, all believed to be Brazilians, were killed in an airliner crash.

The plane, a two-engine Varig, burst into flames shortly after taking off from Bage, in southern Brazil, and crashed near the airport. The airliner, with 35 passengers and 5 crewmen, was en route from Livramento to Porto Alegre.

In Nevada, a search party is en route today to a spot in desolate desert country where a missing secret research plane and its dead pilot were located yesterday.

The flier was Robert L. Sieker, 35, Grananda Hills, Calif., a Lockheed Aircraft Corp. engineering test pilot. He and the U2 jet, a high altitude research plane, vanished last Thursday after taking off from Mercury, Nev.

Approximately 70 aircraft took part in the ensuing search in parts of Nevada, California and Utah. Yesterday the plane was spotted in the desert near Pioche in eastern Nevada.

★ ★ ★

The B47, a swept-wing, six-jet bomber was coming in for a landing at Hickam AFB, Hawaii, when it hit the peak only 40 feet from the top, broke up and burst into flames.

Land rescue teams which inched up the steep mountainside reported "nothing but pieces" was found of the wreckage.

Paris Hails Visit of Queen, Duke in Gay Pageantry

PARIS (AP)— Queen Elizabeth II of Britain and the Duke of Edinburgh arrived in Paris today for a four-day official visit. France was determined to make her stay the most colorful pageant the republic has ever staged for a monarch.

★ ★ ★

President Rene Coty and a host of top-hatted French dignitaries beamed as the Viscount airliner landed the young Queen and her husband at flag-bedecked Orly Airfield. About 1,000 persons were in the official welcoming party.

The drive to the airport and streets on the Queen's route were jammed with crowds waving small British and French flags.

A bright sun shone and a brisk breeze was blowing from the direction of the English Channel.

The Queen stepped smiling from the four-engine plane in a beige ensemble. Prince Philip wore the uniform of a Royal Air Force marshal.

The visit is intended to strengthen ties between Britain and her closest European ally. A busy round of entertainments and sightseeing was arranged for Elizabeth's first trip to the French capital since she became queen.

It was the first state visit by a reigning British Queen since Victoria crossed the Channel in 1855, and Elizabeth's first since she visited Paris as a princess in 1948.

Ann Arbor Riders Sharing Cab Seats

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Ann Arbor bus riders looked for taxicabs today, their first day without bus service.

The emergency began when Great Lakes Greyhound stopped service in the city Saturday. Newly elected Mayor Samuel Eldersveld yesterday announced five taxicab companies would pinch hit temporarily for the buses.

The cabs will pick up passengers on a share-the-ride basis.

The city council is expected to tackle the situation tonight.

It will consider a plan which would have a group headed by John W. Rae, an attorney, take over public transportation. This group proposes to purchase buses and serve as a municipal organization. A decision is expected by a week from today.

Greyhound stopped service because of failing revenue.

County Board to Consider Peak $10,710,920 Budget

A record $10,710,920 tentative budget will be submitted to the Oakland County Board of Supervisors by the Ways and Means Committee tomorrow.

Committee chairman Fred W. Smith of Royal Oak is expected to call for a week's study, with the board approving the figures for tax allocation purposes at a special meeting next Monday.

The proposed budget is based roughly on a 10 per cent increase over last year's spending, and calls for $9,010,920 to be raised by taxation.

Final passage will take place in the fall. However, next week's action will determine what share of property taxes will be needed by the county for its operation next year.

★ ★ ★

No discussion on the final budget is expected tomorrow.

MAJOR ITEMS

Three other important items are on the agenda.

★ ★ ★

The State Highway Department hopes to report on bids opened tomorrow in Lansing for the proposed $39,000,000 extension of Northwestern highway across the western part of the county.

Supervisors must join the state in approving bids, since $1,800,000 of the cost is being borne by the county.

The state is asking bids for $25,000,000 in bonds, with the rest of the money coming from the federal government.

AID FOR CHILDREN'S HOME

The Ways and Means Committee will call for another measure improving services at the crowded Children's Home.

It will recommend a new employe be hired, mainly to locate boarding homes for wards of the court. A step-up in this program, it is believed, would help relieve crowding.

The board also will be asked to abolish the present board of appeals governing complaints over enforcement of the septic tank code.

Cyril Miller of Avon Township will ask that, as a replacement, a semi-official board be organized among the County Health Department and members of the Supervisors' Health Committee, which he heads.

The present appeal board is made up of one public member and two supervisors, not committee members.

Nixon Report on Africa Commended

Dulles Outlines Aid Plans for Senators; to Use Loans

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of States Dulles sketches for senators today a foreign aid program expected to call for establishment of a capital loan fund to aid underdeveloped countries.

Members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said they expect the secretary to outline in general terms how President Eisenhower plans to spend the $4,400,000 he is asking for foreign assistance.

There were reports the administration will propose setting up a fund on which Asian and African nations could draw to exploit their natural resources and to build facilities for general economic development.

BIPARTISAN SUPPORT

Four senators of both parties commended today Vice President Nixon's recommendation for more emphasis on U. S. relations with Africa to offset Communist infiltration and intrigue.

Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont), assistant Senate Democratic leader, said Nixon's proposal for a new bureau of Africa affairs in the State Department already has "been approved by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee."

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala) agreed the idea of a separate bureau was better than "lumping this area together with South Asia and the Middle East as was done in the past."

NEED NEW IDEAS

Sen. Mundt (R-SD) said, "This is a vast new continent that requires new ideas." He lauded Nixon's suggestions for an increased exchange of students, leaders and technicians.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Aiken (R-Vt) said Nixon's recommendations on his recent 22-day trip to eight African nations merit prompt congressional consideration.

"I have every confidence in the reports and recommendations," Aiken, also a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, said.

Nixon's 3,500-word official report to President Eisenhower was made public during the weekend. It contained no startling new proposals, although Nixon mildly criticized some foreign aid operations

Engine No. 6322 Takes Last Run

Grand Trunk Western Yields to Diesel in Sad Lansing Ceremony

LANSING (AP) — The band played cheery tunes like "I've Been Working on the Railroad" but the occasion was a sad one for those assembled.

Engine No. 6322, pulling Grand Trunk Western Railway's No. 17, the Intercity Limited, was getting a sendoff on her farewell run, the last before yielding to a diesel successor.

The 335-ton steam locomotive panted at the depot Saturday for 10 minutes while the band did its stuff, Mayor Ralph Crego made a speech and some 300 passengers looked on with melancholy.

They had traveled to Bancroft, a few miles out of Durand, to take a last sentimental ride behind the retiring Iron Horse.

The 60-piece band from Walter French High School, keying its final song to the mood of the moment, tootled Auld Lang Syne, and No. 6322 chugged on down the track toward Battle Creek to complete her run from Port Huron — and out of sight for the last time.

This One May Be Worth $300

New Puzzle Appears Today

Here we go again on a new Pot-O-Gold puzzle. This one, on Page 5, is worth $300 to the lucky winner if no correct solutions are found for last week's puzzle. At the very least it's worth $100, so you won't want to pass up the chance.

Now that the numbers are being used instead of words, you will find it much easier, and your chances of winning are greatly improved.

Just remember that the judges now insist on the numbers being written in the squares. Your entry will be disqualified if you have written just the words.

Other than that, your main concern should be getting your entry postmarked on time and mailing it on a postcard. Late entries and entries in envelopes are also disqualified. With nothing more to worry about than that, you should have no trouble selecting the right numbers.

MEMO TO CAESAR

A Supper Is Planned

(Another in a Lenten Series)

Junius, the Roman agent, came in person to Pilate's palace in Jerusalem and made a report which was later transmitted to Caesar. He said. . . .

The enemies of the Nazarene are making progress. They have found one of his own apostles who is willing to betray him. The man's name is Judas Iscariot.

He came secretly to a group of the local leaders and offered to give his master up — for a price. So the conspirators got together and raised money to pay the traitor when he devises a way to betray Jesus.

At one time that betrayal would have been difficult; it will not be so hard now. Too many people have turned against the Nazarene. The leaders will figure they need only a slight excuse since their action will be popular. That always makes a difference.

But how or when this betrayal is to take place, I have been unable to learn.

I know this much. Today is the feast day of these people and the Nazarene has sent two of his men, named Peter and John, to find a place where they may mark the occasion properly.

I am having them followed.

This may all have been prearranged; I have been unable to determine this for sure. But at any rate, Peter and John were given a signal. They were to watch for a man carrying a pitcher of water and go to his house.

There, Jesus told them, they would find a large furnished upper room where they were to get ready for the supper. . .

Hearing Junius' recital, Pilate seemed agitated.

★ ★ ★

"Go to this house at once," he said. "Keep an eye on everything that happens and let me have the news."

Junius slipped into the patched beggar's cloak which he wore as a disguise and disappeared into the night.

3rd Major Storm Lashes Plains

Snow Blankets Western States

Hits East to Tennessee With Threats of Floods; 2 Illinois Men Drown

CHICAGO (INS)—The third major spring storm in two weeks which dumped up to 18 inches of snow on parts of the Rocky Mountain and Western Plains states over the weekend struck South and East today.

The storm piled snow on Kansas and plunged temperatures below freezing in the Texas Panhandle.

It also unleashed severe thunderstorms in Eastern Oklahoma, Southern Missouri, Northern Arkansas and Western Kentucky and Tennessee and swirled clouds of dust through Southeastern New Mexico and Western Texas.

And weather forecasters predicted even worse to come. They issued tornado and thunderstorm warnings for Southern and Eastern Kentucky and Western and Central Tennessee.

Snow was expected in most of Oklahoma, the Central Plains and Missouri.

Hardest hit by the storm so far was Colorado Springs where the snowfall ranged up to 18 inches.

Heavy accumulations of snow also were reported in Utah, Wyoming and Nebraska.

Meanwhile, the possibility of more rain threatened further flooding along the Illinois-Indiana border.

Two brothers, Burt and Joe Gibson, were drowned in the swollen backwaters of the Little Muddy River near Effingham, Ill., while shooting fish from a boat Saturday.

★ ★ ★

The flooding of the Big Muddy River also forced a dozen families from their homes at Murphysboro.

Thousands of acres of lowland and bottomland were inundated along the Kaskaskia River south of Vandalia.

The Wabash and the Cache Rivers were dangerously swollen and spilling over their banks in some places.

Another flood developed in the Southeast on the Alabama River. Several thousand head of cattle were reported marooned by the high water.

However, farmers in Kansas, Colorado and the Texas and Oklahoma Panhandles, hard hit by the early spring drought, welcomed the snowstorms and heavy rains.

Agricultural experts have estimated that, along with the expected normal rainfall for the remainder of the year, the three spring snowstorms will put enough moisture into the parched soil to break the five - year drought.

Some rain mixed with snow was forecast today for the Southern Great Lakes Region and parts of the Atlantic Coast states.

But generally fair weather was expected to prevail in the Pacific Coast states, the Rockies, the Northern Plains, the Northern Great Lakes and the South Atlantic Coast states.

Aga Khan Failing, Prince Asks Visit by Rita's Child

CANNES, France (AP) — Prince Aly Khan has wired an appeal to Rita Hayworth to rush their child, Princess Yasmin, to the bedside of her gravely ill grandfather, the Aga Khan.

Prince Aly was summoned from Paris yesterday as four doctors set up an around-the-clock watch on the wealthy, 79-year-old ruler of the Ismaili Moslems.

Miss Hayworth is preparing to make a new picture in Hollywood. Studio aides could not reach her last night but said she had given no indication she planned to leave the country.

The Aga Khan has been steadily failing in recent months. A medical bulletin last night said he had a recurrence of pulmonary bronchitis but was "slightly better and his temperature has gone down slightly." 8 3

Salk Shot Clinic to Open in May

Enough Doses in Offing to Resume Inoculations for Certain Groups

County Health Commissioner Dr. John D. Monroe, said today that Oakland County Health Department's free polio vaccine clinic will not reopen until sometime in May.

However, Dr. Monroe said he thought that enough vaccine will be available by May 1, to successfully resume clinic operation.

He has received 5,000 doses of the Salk vaccine as Oakland County's share of 82,800 doses recently acquired by the State Health Department.

Dr. Monroe said, "The 5,000 doses will be used to give second shots only through the clinic which serves youngsters in the 1 to 14 age group, and pregnant women.

SECOND SHOTS

"Those eligible for second shots will be notified by mail starting next week."

Drug firms which manufacture Salk vaccine believe they will produce 33 million doses between now and July 1. According to the State Health Department, Michigan's share would be 4½ per cent for all users.

If the state legislature appropriates enough funds, Michigan should have ample vaccine to continue both private and public inoculation programs through July 1, it has been said.

HELD IN SLAYING — Donald McMann (left), of Holt, is being held for questioning today in the fatal shooting of Benjamin L. Bennett, 28, of Mason, as he said good night to McMann's former girl friend. (Story below.)

Lansing Man Kills Rival, Injures Girl

Fatal Farewell for Couple

LANSING (AP) — A 24-year-old man was shot to death last night and his 18-year-old girl friend was wounded as they said goodnight at the rear door of her Lansing home.

Capt. Sidney Hildebrandt of the Lansing police said Donald McMann, 28, of Holt told officers he fired at the pair with a .30 caliber deer rifle because the girl, Carol Silkey, had been his girlfriend.

Dead was Benjamin Bennett, 24, of Lansing. Miss Silkey was reported in fair condition at Lansing's St. Lawrence Hospital.

Bennett was struck by a ricocheting bullet and a spray of cement fragments kicked up by the bullet when it struck the pavement, Hildebrandt said. Miss Silkey was hit in the arm by another bullet.

★ ★ ★

Capt. Hildebrandt said that McMann had been keeping company with Miss Silkey until a recent breakup, after which, Hildebrandt reported, McMann had said that if he couldn't go out with her, no one else would.

Police arrested McMann at his home near Lansing, sometime after the near midnight shooting.

Hildebrandt said McMann had followed the couple after spotting them driving along a Lansing street. Then, Hildebrandt said, McMann had gone home for his rifle.

Hildebrandt said a warrant would be sought today.

Pilot Uses Road to Land Safely in Snowstorm

MONROE (AP) — A two-seat plane used the Detroit-Toledo expressway for a landing field yesterday.

The single-engine aircraft, caught in a snowstorm, landed, pulled off the highway and after a two-hour wait, took off again. There was no harm to man, plane nor automobile.

Police said the pilot, John McGrath, circled the road until he spied a break in traffic. He descended after failing to find an airport in the vicinity.

McGrath taxied for three miles and then pulled off the expressway to wait for the snow to let up. Police later blocked traffic so McGrath could again take his craft aloft.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower was ready today to tackle another work week after spending two days at his Gettysburg, Pa. farm.

On the 84-mile drive home late yesterday—as on the way up Friday — Eisenhower's car stayed within the posted speed limits. He and Mrs. Eisenhower made the trip home in 2¼ hours.

Before leaving Gettysburg, the President did a little putting in front of his farm home and watched on television the windup of the Masters Golf Tournament at Augusta, Ga., one of his favorite golf courses.

Action Planned on Sewer Issue

Waterford Board's Last Business to Deal With Farmington Interceptor

One of the last duties of the out-going Waterford Township Board at tonight's meeting will be to endeavor to put Waterford Township back in the Farmington Interceptor District for sewer service, according to acting supervisor Louis Barry.

Waterford Township was tentatively eliminated by action of the Detroit Public Works Department in December due to the establishing of an arbitrary boundary line at Twenty Mile road.

Other business at the meeting will be to approve a water system for the new Bircherest Subdivision at Pleasant Lake. A permit has been received from the Michigan State Board of Health for the new well.

The new Waterford Township Board will be sworn in some time this week. New board members will take over the township government operation the first of next week.

2 Costly Fires Hit State Hospital Here

Fires in two Pontiac State Hospital buildings totaled $4,000 in damages over the weekend, although no one was reported injured.

The first fire originated in the central warehouse about 6:15 p.m. Saturday, firemen report.

Gerald Bax, business executive of the hospital, said the building contained food, hardware, clothing and equipment. Firemen estimated damages of $2,000 to contents and $100 to the building.

The second fire, on Sunday was in the employes' lounge, located in the basement of the administration building. Firemen attributed this $2,000 fire to a careless smoker.

The fire started in a couch, which was destroyed. Walls, ceiling and other furniture were damaged by smoke.

With nearly 9,000,000 young adults in the United States in the 18-to-21 age group, the nation's college enrollment totals some 3,000,000.

Michigan Roads Fatal for Seven

Car Crashes Take 5; 2 Pedestrians Killed; 1 Man Dies in Fire

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Seven persons were killed in highway accidents in Michigan over the weekend as wind, rain and snow reduced motor travel.

In addition, a River Rouge man perished as fire swept his rooming house.

James R. Hallam, 23, of Vicksburg, near Kalamazoo, died Sunday of injuries suffered when the car he was driving hit a tree. Hallam had skidded off a county road to avoid hitting a horse which was crossing the highway.

Mrs. Gertrude Ferguson, 67, of Dearborn, was killed Sunday in a three-car collision at a highway junction in Redford Township in suburban Detroit.

Lokas Angelinas, 47, of River Rouge was found dead Sunday of asphyxiation in the rooming house where he lived.

Gerald Martens, 4, of Rte. 3, Bellevue, was killed Saturday when hit by a car near his home in Eaton County.

Samuel Fallon, 55, of Detroit, was killed Saturday when hit by a taxicab as he crossed a Detroit street.

Shirley Barber, 19, of Ferndale, and Keith P. Dunlap, 20, of Ann Arbor, were killed Friday night when their car left US23 and struck a tree near Brighton.

John Benson, 51, of Luna Pier was killed Sunday when his car collided with a truck on Telegraph Road, five miles north of the Ohio line.

Money Exchange Fraud Snares 2 City Merchants

The manager of one local drycleaning firm and the employe of another were tricked, apparently by the same man with the same method, Saturday.

James Patterson, employe of Ogg Cleaners, 430 Orchard Lake Ave. and Clyde Turner, manager of the French-Glo Cleaners, 33 S. Telegraph Rd., each told police the same story of being chated.

In each case, a man of the same description entered the store, presented a handful of one dollar bills, and asked for a $20 bill in exchange

When he was given a $20 bill, the subject supposedly placed it in an envelope and sealed it.

Both Patterson and Turner said they counted the dollar bills and only found 19. When the "customer" was informed of the shortage, he gave back the sealed envelope, supposedly containing the $20 bill, and took back the single dollars.

He told both men he would go to his auto and get another dollar from his wife.

The man never returned and in each case the envelope was empty.

Car Drops on Man

James Jacobs, 22, of 3355 Gidding, Orion Township, underwent surgery for a ruptured spleen in St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital early this morning after his car fell on him last night as he was making repairs on it at his home.

Sheriff's investigators learned that a suspension chain holding the car up either broke or gave way, they said.

Hope to Save Sight of Boy Hurt by Gun

An 11-year-old Orion Township boy underwent emergency surgery yesterday in an effort to save the sight of his left eye after his BB gun discharged as he was playing in a field at Hills Farm at Pine road.

Gerald R. Fosdick, 1505 Shell Rd., told Sheriff's investigators he laid the rifle down alongside a fence and started to climb over it when the gun went off. Gerald was taken to Pontiac General Hospital with the BB pellet embedded in his left eye.

Surgery removed the pellet, a spokesman said, but, "It is too soon to tell whether the sight in the eye can be saved."

Gerald said the gun had just been returned to him after it had been in the factory undergoing repairs on the trigger.

Wolfson Meets With Romney

Will Discuss Possible Expansion Plans for American Motors

DETROIT (AP)— For the second time, American Motors President George Romney and major AMC stockholder Louis E. Wolfson will meet in Detroit this week to talk over expansion plans for the auto and appliance firm.

Romney said yesterday that "My meetings with Mr. Wolfson are for the purpose of open-minded exploration, not only of basic methods for capitalizing on the company's position, but for consideration of specific suggestions."

Romney said these suggestions include specific acquisitions that Wolfson believes "would strengthen the company and accelerate its return to profitable operations."

With his wife, Wolfson owns 350,000 shares of the 5,670,430 shares outstanding, making him AMC's largest single stockholder.

In an earlier meeting in Florida, Romney and Wolfson talked over plans for widening the scope of AMC operations. In a news conference several days later, Romney said Wolfson did not propose to cut down on AMC's auto-making.

He reiterated this in his prepared statement yesterday, saying "the full strength" of AMC's auto line "can only become apparent next fall when the company introduces its first cars completely planned, styled and tooled since the formation of American Motors."

American Motors produces Hudson, Nash and Rambler autos and Kelvinator appliances.

"HOW I LOST 15 POUNDS IN THREE WEEKS the CHEWING GUM WAY!"

by LAWRENCE TIBBETT
Star of the Broadway Musical Hit "FANNY"

I would never have thought it possible to lose so much weight...the chewing gum way. It may sound hard to believe, but I lost 15 pounds in 3 weeks by chewing FERGUSON'S FORMULA 71.

You see, I was asked to take the leading role in the Broadway Hit, "Fanny". But I discovered I would have to slim down before going on stage. I really had a problem! Like everyone else who has been overweight, I was anxious to lose, but I had all sorts of prejudices about how to go about it. I had ideas about reducing pills and special diets with calorie counting, that had to be watched all the time, and, personally, I don't work well when I feel hungry. I like to exercise. But when you are busy rehearsing for a play, there is no time for stringent exercise.

Then I heard of FERGUSON'S FORMULA 71... a pleasant tasting special chewing gum for reducing. It sounded impossible, reducing this chewing gum way. Still, I had to lose weight, and quickly...so I gave it a try. Surprisingly, it worked! And, fast, at that! Inside of three weeks, I had lost fifteen pounds! And the amazing part about it... I was not aware I was losing weight. I lived my normal everyday life.

This is how I went about it: Just before each meal, I would chew two pieces of FERGUSON'S FORMULA 71. When I sat down at the table a few minutes later, I had the feeling my appetite was satisfied. I enjoyed my favorite foods as much as ever... but I did not have the urge to overeat, which I usually had in the past. FERGUSON'S FORMULA 71 had curbed my appetite, yet allowed me to feel satisfied. And whenever I became hungry between meals... I would pop a piece of Formula 71 gum in my mouth to discourage snacking.

FERGUSON'S FORMULA 71 has done such a wonderful job in helping me to reduce, that I have recommended it to many friends. Believe me, FERGUSON'S FORMULA 71 is the answer for anyone and everyone with an overweight problem. I know that once you have tried it, you too, will be as pleased with its results as I am.

MISSIONARIES' CHILDREN — Mrs. T. Edward McCully Jr. holding her youngest son, Matthew, (back row, left) is shown with boys and girls whose missionary parents are working with Indians in the interior of South America. Mrs. McCully is caring for the children in Quito, Ecuador so they may attend school. Her husband, a missionary, was slain in January 1956 by the savage Auca Indians in an Ecuadorian jungle. Mrs. McCully, the former Marilou Hobolth, is a graduate of Pontiac High School and a member of the First Baptist Church.

Marilou McCully Continues Her Mission in Ecuador

A year ago last January, five American Protestant missionaries were attacked and killed by wild Auca Indians in the Ecuadorian area of the Amazonian jungles.

Mrs. T. Edward McCully Jr. whose husband was a member of the ill-fated mission party, returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Hobolth, 362 N. Johnson Ave.

On November 29, with her three small sons, she flew back to Quito, Ecuador to resume missionary work there. Presently she is managing a home for children whose missionary parents are working with Indians in the South American jungles.

The wives of the other four missionaries have been in Ecuador until recently when Mrs. Peter (Olive) Fleming returned to the United States.

Mrs. Nathaniel (Marjorie) Saint is serving in Quito as hostess of the guest house for missionary radio station HCJB, "The Voice of the Andes."

In the Ecuadorian jungles, Mrs. Roger (Barbara) Youderian continues at the outstation of Cangaine among the Jivaro headhunters.

Mrs. James (Elizabeth) Elliott serves today at Shandia, on the headwaters of the Napo River, where the only communication with the outside world is by radio and airplane.

She works alone in Bible translation, teaching and medical work at a government accredited school for boys.

This week Mrs. McCully wrote the following letter to the Pontiac Press church editor:

Dear Mrs. Anglemier:

Greetings from Quito. It's just four months since I arrived back in Ecuador. With 12 children in the house, I find it hard to get everything done that there is to do.

There have been both problems and joys in caring for the children but on the whole I am very happy here and confident that this is the Lord's place for me.

It has been interesting to hear the children's conversation at the table. A favorite topic is what each child wants to be when he grows up.

They were discussing this one day when one spoke up and said he wanted to be Nate Saint and fly the missionary airplane. Another one quickly made fun of this idea by exclaiming "Yeah, and get killed by the Aucas?"

To which my Stevie answered "I wouldn't care if I got killed by the Aucas because I'd just go to Heaven and see Jesus and my daddy."

I continue to be amazed at the simple faith of the children. Stevie still talks about Ed and sometimes feels sorry for himself because he doesn't have a daddy like the others, but he is always comforted when reminded of Heaven.

The five of us girls were together for several days in February. This will likely be the last time for quite awhile. Olive has returned to the states and although it was hard to say goodbye, we are happy that she has peace in her heart and mind that this is the Lord's will for her.

Barbara and Betty have returned to their jungle stations and Marj and I are here in Quito. It has meant so much to me to be living near Marj. She has been a real help during these months of getting settled.

It's been nice taking our children places together, shopping together and talking over our problems and encouragements.

Enclosed is a picture of my large family. The responsibility of so many children often scares me but then I remember that "My help cometh from the Lord who made Heaven and earth."

Sincerely,
Marilou McCully

Vienna Reports Soviet Plans

Red Atomic Missiles on Hungarian Bases

BERLIN (UP) — A West Berlin newspaper says the Soviet Union, which has been warning NATO countries against permitting U. S. atomic weapons bases, plans to build launching sites for its own atomic missiles in Hungary.

The independent newspaper Telegraf, in a dispatch from Vienna, said yesterday the decision to build the bases was made during the recent visit to Moscow by a Hungarian government mission headed by Premier Janos Kadar.

The dispatch said the bases would be built near Papa, Tapolca, Hajmasker and near the uranium mining center of Pecs. All would be in the Hungarian province of Transdanubia (Dunantul), at distances ranging from 37 to 62 miles from the Austrian border. They would be equipped to fire missiles with atomic warheads, the paper said.

The Communists, meanwhile continued their propaganda campaign charging the West with plotting atomic warfare against the Soviet Union.

The East German radio claimed that West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, during his American visit in May, would sign a secret agreement giving West Germany atomic weapons. The broadcast said the agreement would cover delivery of tactical atomic weapons to the West German army and the "storing of hydrogen bombs" in the Bonn republic.

★ ★ ★

U. S. security regulations bar the government from turning over atomic explosives to other countries. However, the Pentagon has indicated it can let America's allies have weapons capable of firing the warheads at nearby American bases.

The Moscow radio, in a Greek language broadcast last night, added Greece to the number of NATO countries the Russians have warned against becoming bases for atomic weapons. The broadcast said the "United States intends to station atomic formations on Greek soil."

Catholic Priest Reaches Safety

Freed After 6 Years in Red Chinese Prison for Alleged Espionage

HONG KONG (UP) — The Rev. Fulgence Gross, Roman Catholic missionary freed after six years' detention in Red China, says he expects to be dogged by the Communists everywhere he goes.

The 53-year-old priest from Omaha, Neb., arrived last night from Shanghai aboard a British ship. He was freed 10 days ago after completing a sentence for alleged espionage. He served most of his term in a prison, being transferred to house arrest toward the end.

★ ★ ★

He was interviewed by about 40 newsmen. Asked by one whether he had confessed to the espionage charges when he was arrested March 29, 1951, he said:

"I prefer not to answer. I don't trust any of you. Some of you might be Communists. I cannot trust anyone.'

Later, when he was asked if he were guilty of the charges, he said: "Absolutely not. I could not confess to anything I did not do.'

★ ★ ★

Father Gross said he hoped to return soon to the United States and added:

"I will be dogged by their men (Communists) everywhere I go. I fully expect it."

"The Communists are after international communism," he said. "Who knows: America may be next. Let's not kid ourselves."

The priest said it is unlikely that any of the five other Amerihim in Shanghai will be freed before their sentences are up.

★ ★ ★

"All five are under considerable mental strain," he said. "They but the mental strain is great."

He declined to discuss his treatment in prison except to say it was "rough, that's all.' He said his trial took months.

He said he hopes to resume missionary work in Asia but that "foreign missionaries are finished" in China. He added that his observation was "there is absolutely no freedom of religion there."

The subcommittee said Ross' wife and her brother, H. D. (Breezy) Wynn, also have agreed to appear at the public hearing. They are officials of companies with which Ross has said he severed all connections several years ago.

★ ★ ★

Ross resigned Feb. 20 after contracts with Wynn clothing manufacturing companies became an issue before the Senate Investigations subcommittee headed by Sen. McClellan (D-Ark).

Wynn firms were reported to have received five million dollars worth of defense contract awards over a period of years until last Jan. 1.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UP)—Detective Jim Frost, called to investigate a $170 theft from a laundromat, thought he smelled a rat.

SNUB FOR THE ADMIRAL — It looks like a turn for the worse in Anglo-American relations as "Vectis King," bulldog mascot at the Royal Navy Barracks in Portsmouth, England, turns his back with a glowering expression while Adm. Arleigh Burke, U. S. chief of naval operations, passes by during a recent ceremonial inspection. But the admiral takes this doggy snub with a broad grin as he continues with his visit.

Senate to Probe Unions, Management

Eye Construction Industry

WASHINGTON (UP) — The Senate Rackets Committee soon will open public hearings on alleged collusion between "dishonest management and dishonest unions" in the New York area construction industry.

This word came yesterday from Sen. Mundt (R-SD), a member of the committee which has been concentrating up to now on activities of Teamsters Union officials. The committee is empowered to look into charges of racketeering by both unions and management.

★ ★ ★

The hearings are in recess while the investigators check into complaints now totaling about 20,000.

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) said Saturday, "The magnitude of this investigation is just beginning to appear."

Mundt told a television panel the hearings on the New York situation will begin soon after Easter and will have "all the facets of melodrama."

★ ★ ★

The alleged management-union collusion, he said, led to defrauding of veterans buying homes. He did not go into detail, but said "strong arm" methods figured in the situation and that these included acid throwing and "goon squads."

Mundt's reference to acid throwing recalled the blinding of New York labor columnst Victor Riesel in this manner. Riesel had written and broadcast about some unions in the construction industry before he was attacked. But Mundt did not mention Riesel in connection with the forthcoming hearings.

A key figure in the Rackets Committee's probe has been Dave Beck, head of the giant Teamsters Union. Beck refused repeatedly to answer committee questions about his finances. He invoked his Fifth Amendment privilege, contending that if he replied to those questions he might incriminate himself. Beck said he is the subject of an Internal Revenue Service investigation.

GOOD LUCK, SON — Father and son entries, Don Shell (right) and Jerry (left) wish each other well before starting their qualifying round in the Bowlerama at Land-O-Lakes Saturday. Jerry was one of the top qualifiers at Land-O-Lakes with a total series of 660. Father, Don, had a 539 total.

Clarkston Man Leads Qualifying

261 Qualifiers Roll in Opening of Bowlerama

Qualifying to Continue at Three Alleys Next Saturday

By CHUCK ABAIR

The 1st Pontiac Press Bowlerama got off to a roaring start over the past weekend with several outstanding scores posted during the 1st round of qualifying.

Howard Compton of Clarkston, Lee Miller of Waterford Township and Pontiac's Frank Pavlinac were the leaders among the 261 qualifiers Saturday and Sunday.

Another 229 keglers, including 107 women, will swing into action Saturday to determine the participants for the April 20 finals. The top 10 per cent of the qualifiers at each location will be eligible for the finals.

Compton, who bowls in the South Shores Sunday Mixed League at Walled Lake, posted the outstanding series of the two-day session with a 694 at Dixie Recreation. He rolled a 580 actual to go with a 114 handicap.

Pavlinac hit 683 with a 584 total and 99 handicap to pace the field at Land-O-Lakes. Miller was the standout at Auburn Lanes rolling the best actual series of 615 and topping them all with 687 in handicap.

★ ★ ★

The leading 2nd place showing of the weekend was posted by L. Smith at Dixie. He matched Pavlinac's total of 683 and fired the best actual series of the tournament thus far with a 635.

Bob Pickett ranked runnerup at Land-O-Lakes with 680, while Charles Lemke trailed Miller at Auburn with 642. Ron Rothbarth finished 15th at Land-O-Lakes but had the best actual series of 593 at the Waterford alley. All three are Pontiac residents.

There were a host of other impressive 600 series rolled at the three qualifying places with several more expected this week as some of the best in the area shoot for a chance at the finals.

Despite the impressive opening weekend scores, the leaders could very likely be changed considerably by next Monday. Final qualifiers will not be decided until all bowling is completed.

At least 13 at each qualifying house are expected to advance to the men's finals with Compton, Pavlinac and Miller the leaders in race for the Press trophies as the top qualifiers.

Women will be bowling for the same honors at all three locations on the final qualifying day. Approximately 11 women will be eligible for the championship battle.

The men's champion will receive $400 and a handsome desk calendar set and the women's victor will take home $200 in cash and a desk set. Ten other handsome prizes are guaranteed in each division.

Hanley Behind Breen

State Swimmers Do Well

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Swimmers from Michigan—though winning no championships —were in the forefront as the AAU indoor tournament closed over the weekend.

Dick Hanley of the University of Michigan, entered unattached, was second high individual point winner of the four-day meet. Hanley scored 17 points—second to George Breen of the Buffalo, N.Y., athletic club. Breen totaled 19 points.

Hanley finished second to Breen in the 440-yard free style as the New Yorker successfully defended his title in the event and cinched the meet medal for high point honors.

Paul Reinke of Michigan State, also competing unattached, was second to Olympic star Manuel Sanguily of Havana in the 100-yard breast stroke as the meet concluded.

Dupas Tilt Has Fans Guessing

Question in Tonight's Scrap Is How Fighter Weathered Charges

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Ralph Dupas, sixth-ranked lightweight boxing contender, takes on No. 6 welterweight Vince Martinez tonight in a bout that has fight fans guessing.

Dupas, a 21-year-old New Orleans veteran of 77 fights, is a fancy-moving boxer with speed to spare, while Martinez, 27-year-old Paterson, N. J., counterpuncher, has more steam in his blows.

★ ★ ★

The big question mark is how well Dupas weathered accusations last week that he was a Negro and as such barred by state law from meeting Martinez, a white fighter.

The Louisiana State Athletic Commission decided after two session of hearings that there was no evidence to warrant calling off the fight. It also held, in effect, that there was no substance to claims that Dupas was a Negro.

★ ★ ★

Promoter Heard Ragas said he expected 10,000 fans and a $50,000 gate for the bout at Pelican Stadium.

Rochester Bows Out in YMCA Tournament

The Rochester Falcons, representing the Pontiac district, were eliminated in the semifinals of the state YMCA basketball tournament over the weekend.

Cranes End Tour on Winning Note

Cranbrook's baseball team wound up its southern tour on a winning note Saturday with a 4-2 victory over Mercersburg Academy at Mercersburg, Pa. It was Cranbrook's lone triumph in seven games.

A four-run outburst on only one hit in the 6th inning turned the trick for the Cranes. Three walks, an error, a squeeze bunt, a wild pitch and Dave Campbell's infield single did the damage.

Campbell, the last of three Crane hurlers, was credited with the win. He also made two of Cranbrook's three hits, Bill Surener was the losing pitcher.

Pontiac Women Take State Doubles Lead

FLINT—Mildred Molter of Pontiac blasted a 645 actual series as she and her partner, Helen Achenbach, spilled a 1,316 handicap to take the doubles lead here Sunday in the state women's bowling tournament.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Molter's big series figured in a fourth-place 1,931 handicap all events score. Coupled with Gen Bradley's 638 actual effort, good for a fifth-place 692 handicap in singles. Pontiac women accounted for three of the four changes in the top 20 board positions.

Mrs. Molter opened Saturday night with scores of 177, 171 and 203 for a 551 actual series for Huron Cleaners in the team event. She followed Sunday night with 232, 226 and 187 for the 645 actual in doubles before finishing with 181, 181 and 184 for 546 actual in singles.

Mrs. Bradley spilled games of 201, 203 and 234 in her 638 actual singles series, which jumped to 692 handicap with a 17-stick start per game.

Beverly Burcar's 600 and Phyllis Smith's 589, both actual, paced Traverse City Lampert Drugs to 3,011 handicap and fifth place in the team event. It was the eighth 3,000 series thus far in the tourney.

Ford's 66 Foils Strategy

Calculations Wrong — Snead 2nd in Masters

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Sam Snead lost his bid for a record fourth Masters golf title to the golfer Snead says is the best in the business around the greens — poker-faced Doug Ford.

Snead, like Jimmy Demaret a three-time Masters winner, finished second in the 21st staging of the prestige and money rich Masters yesterday, and he couldn't have won even if he'd shot the kind of golf in the final round he thought would win it.

"I thought a 70 would win it for me," the drawling West Virginia slammer said after it was all over and Ford had whisked in and pocketed the $8,750 first prize check.

"And I thought I could shoot a 70 because there weren't any of the par-five holes out there that I couldn't reach in two shots," Sam continued.

★ ★ ★

But Sam was wrong in his calculations. A 70 would have given him 284 for the 72 holes in this richest — $53,000 — of all Masters Ford, playing aggressive, accurate golf, whipped par by six stroke with a 66 for a 283 total—one shot under the goal Snead was seeking.

Snead, who began to gamble in an effort to hold off Ford's threat ran into trouble on the back nine and finished with a 72 and 286, good for second place and $4,375.

Sam was surprisingly affable for a fellow who had led the tournament two days and was a solid choice to pick up his fourth Masters title.

"Man, after I got that birdie on No. 7 and my par at No. 8 to stay one under par, I thought the cake was mine," Snead allowed. "I was real relaxed and thought all I had to do was finish," he said, stuffing a golf shoe into a bag, "and I'm still relaxed."

MISSIONARIES' CHILDREN — Mrs. T. Edward McCully Jr. holding her youngest son, Matthew, (back row, left) is shown with boys and girls whose missionary parents are working with Indians in the interior of South America. Mrs. McCully is caring for the children in Quito, Ecuador so they may attend school. Her husband, a missionary, was slain in January 1956 by the savage Auca Indians in an Ecuadorian jungle. Mrs. McCully, the former Marilou Hobolth, is a graduate of Pontiac High School and a member of the First Baptist Church.

Marilou McCully Continues Her Mission in Ecuador

A year ago last January, five American Protestant missionaries were attacked and killed by wild Auca Indians in the Ecuadorian area of the Amazonian jungles.

Mrs. T. Edward McCully Jr. whose husband was a member of the ill-fated mission party, returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Hobolth, 362 N. Johnson Ave.

On November 29, with her three small sons, she flew back to Quito, Ecuador to resume missionary work there. Presently she is managing a home for children whose missionary parents are working with Indians in the South American jungles.

The wives of the other four missionaries have been in Ecuador until recently when Mrs. Peter (Olive) Fleming returned to the United States.

Mrs. Nathaniel (Marjorie) Saint is serving in Quito as hostess of the guest house for missionary radio station HCJB, "The Voice of the Andes."

In the Ecuadorian jungles, Mrs. Roger (Barbara) Youderian continues at the outstation of Cangaine among the Jivaro headhunters.

Mrs. James (Elizabeth) Elliott serves today at Shandia, on the headwaters of the Napo River, where the only communication with the outside world is by radio and airplane.

She works alone in Bible translation, teaching and medical work at a government accredited school for boys.

This week Mrs. McCully wrote the following letter to the Pontiac Press church editor:

Dear Mrs. Anglemier:

Greetings from Quito. It's just four months since I arrived back in Ecuador. With 12 children in the house, I find it hard to get everything done that there is to do.

There have been both problems and joys in caring for the children but on the whole I am very happy here and confident that this is the Lord's place for me.

It has been interesting to hear the children's conversation at the table. A favorite topic is what each child wants to be when he grows up.

They were discussing this one day when one spoke up and said he wanted to be Nate Saint and fly the missionary airplane. Another one quickly made fun of this idea by exclaiming "Yeah, and get killed by the Aucas?"

To which my Stevie answered "I wouldn't care if I got killed by the Aucas because I'd just go to Heaven and see Jesus and my daddy."

I continue to be amazed at the simple faith of the children. Stevie still talks about Ed and sometimes feels sorry for himself because he doesn't have a daddy like the others, but he is always comforted when reminded of Heaven.

★ ★ ★

The five of us girls were together for several days in February. This will likely be the last time for quite awhile. Olive has returned to the states and although it was hard to say goodbye, we are happy that she has peace in her heart and mind that this is the Lord's will for her.

Barbara and Betty have returned to their jungle stations and Marj and I are here in Quito. It has meant so much to me to be living near Marj. She has been a real help during these months of getting settled.

It's been nice taking our children places together, shopping together and talking over our problems and encouragements.

Enclosed is a picture of my large family. The responsibility of so many children often scares me but then I remember that "My help cometh from the Lord who made Heaven and earth."

Sincerely,
Marilou McCully

Trouble Seen for Thief of Out-of-Date Coins

RACINE, Wis. (AP) — Thieves who stole $1,353 from the safe at the Spinning Wheel cafe will have trouble spending $250 of the loot.

Proprietor Charles Presta said the $250 represented old coins and old bills which are out of circulation. He said the collector's items included 50 commemorative half dollars from different states, some of them in odd shapes and sizes.

Vienna Reports Soviet Plans

Red Atomic Missiles on Hungarian Bases

BERLIN (AP) — A West Berlin newspaper says the Soviet Union, which has been warning NATO countries against permitting U. S. atomic weapons bases, plans to build launching sites for its own atomic missiles in Hungary.

★ ★ ★

The independent newspaper Telegraf, in a dispatch from Vienna, said yesterday the decision to build the bases was made during the recent visit to Moscow by a Hungarian government mission headed by Premier Janos Kadar.

The dispatch said the bases would be built near Papa, Tapolca, Hajmasker and near the uranium mining center of Pecs. All would be in the Hungarian province of Transdanubia (Dunantul), at distances ranging from 37 to 62 miles from the Austrian border. They would be equipped to fire missiles with atomic warheads, the paper said.

★ ★ ★

The East German radio claimed that West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, during his American visit in May, would sign a secret agreement giving West Germany atomic weapons. The broadcast said the agreement would cover delivery of tactical atomic weapons to the West German army and the "storing of hydrogen bombs" in the Bonn republic.

★ ★ ★

U. S. security regulations bar the government from turning over atomic explosives to other countries. However, the Pentagon has indicated it can let America's allies have weapons capable of firing the warheads at nearby American bases.

The Moscow radio, in a Greek language broadcast last night, added Greece to the number of NATO countries the Russians have warned against becoming bases for atomic weapons. The broadcast said the "United States intends to station atomic formations on Greek soil."

Catholic Priest Reaches Safety

Freed After 6 Years in Red Chinese Prison for Alleged Espionage

HONG KONG (AP) — The Rev. Fulgence Gross, Roman Catholic missionary freed after six years' detention in Red China, says he expects to be dogged by the Communists everywhere he goes.

The 53-year-old priest from Omaha, Neb., arrived last night from Shanghai aboard a British ship. He was freed 10 days ago after completing a sentence for alleged espionage. He served most of his term in a prison, being transferred to house arrest toward the end.

★ ★ ★

He was interviewed by about 40 newsmen. Asked by one whether he had confessed to the espionage charges when he was arrested March 29, 1951, he said:

"I prefer not to answer. I don't trust any of you. Some of you might be Communists. I cannot trust anyone.'

Later, when he was asked if he were guilty of the charges, he said: "Absolutely not. I could not confess to anything I did not do.'

★ ★ ★

Father Gross said he hoped to return soon to the United States and added:

"I will be dogged by their men (Communists) everywhere I go. I fully expect it."

"The Communists are after international communism," he said. "Who knows: America may be next. Let's not kid ourselves."

The priest said it is unlikely that any of the five other Amerihim in Shanghai will be freed before their sentences are up.

★ ★ ★

"All five are under considerable mental strain," he said. "They but the mental strain is great."

He declined to discuss his treatment in prison except to say it was "rough, that's all.' He said his trial took months.

He said he hopes to resume missionary work in Asia but that "foreign missionaries are finished" in China. He added that his observation was "there is absolutely no freedom of religion there."

Ex-Defense Official Faces House Quiz

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Military Operations subcommittee called former Asst. Secretary of Defense Robert Tripp Ross today for questioning about defense contracts awarded to a family firm.

★ ★ ★

The subcommittee said Ross' wife and her brother, H. D. (Breezy) Wynn, also have agreed to appear at the public hearing. They are officials of companies with which Ross has said he severed all connections several years ago.

★ ★ ★

Ross resigned Feb. 20 after contracts with Wynn clothing manufacturing companies became an issue before the Senate Investigations subcommittee headed by Sen. McClellan (D-Ark).

Wynn firms were reported to have received five million dollars worth of defense contract awards over a period of years until last Jan. 1.

SNUB FOR THE ADMIRAL — It looks like a turn for the worse in Anglo-American relations as "Vectis King," bulldog mascot at the Royal Navy Barracks in Portsmouth, England, turns his back with a glowering expression while Adm. Arleigh Burke, U. S. chief of naval operations, passes by during a recent ceremonial inspection. But the admiral takes this doggy snub with a broad grin as he continues with his visit.

Senate to Probe Unions, Management

Eye Construction Industry

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Rackets Committee soon will open public hearings on alleged collusion between "dishonest management and dishonest unions" in the New York area construction industry.

This word came yesterday from Sen. Mundt (R-SD), a member of the committee which has been concentrating up to now on activities of Teamsters Union officials. The committee is empowered to look into charges of racketeering by both unions and management.

★ ★ ★

The hearings are in recess while the investigators check into complaints now totaling about 20,000.

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) said Saturday, "The magnitude of this investigation is just beginning to appear."

Mundt told a television panel the hearings on the New York situation will begin soon after Easter and will have "all the facets of melodrama."

★ ★ ★

The alleged management-union collusion, he said, led to defrauding of veterans buying homes. He did not go into detail, but said "strong arm" methods figured in the situation and that these included acid throwing and "goon squads."

Mundt's reference to acid throwing recalled the blinding of New York labor columnst Victor Riesel in this manner. Riesel had written and broadcast about some unions in the construction industry before he was attacked. But Mundt did not mention Riesel in connection with the forthcoming hearings.

A key figure in the Rackets Committee's probe has been Dave Beck, head of the giant Teamsters Union. Beck refused repeatedly to answer committee questions about his finances. He invoked his Fifth Amendment privilege, contending that if he replied to those questions he might incriminate himself. Beck said he is the subject of an Internal Revenue Service investigation.

GOOD LUCK, SON — Father and son entries, Don Shell (right) and Jerry (left) wish each other well before starting their qualifying round in the Bowlerama at Land-O-Lakes Saturday. Jerry was one of the top qualifiers at Land-O-Lakes with a total series of 660. Father, Don, had a 539 total.

Clarkston Man Leads Qualifying

261 Qualifiers Roll in Opening of Bowlerama

Qualifying to Continue at Three Alleys Next Saturday

By CHUCK ABAIR

The 1st Pontiac Press Bowlerama got off to a roaring start over the past weekend with several outstanding scores posted during the 1st round of qualifying.

Howard Compton of Clarkston, Lee Miller of Waterford Township and Pontiac's Frank Pavlinac were the leaders among the 261 qualifiers Saturday and Sunday.

Another 229 keglers, including 107 women, will swing into action Saturday to determine the participants for the April 20 finals. The top 10 per cent of the qualifiers at each location will be eligible for the finals.

Compton, who bowls in the South Shores Sunday Mixed League at Walled Lake, posted the outstanding series of the two-day session with a 694 at Dixie Recreation. He rolled a 580 actual to go with a 114 handicap.

Pavlinac hit 683 with a 584 total and 99 handicap to pace the field at Land-O-Lakes. Miller was the standout at Auburn Lanes rolling the best actual series of 615 and topping them all with 687 in handicap.

★ ★ ★

The leading 2nd place showing of the weekend was posted by L. Smith at Dixie. He matched Pavlinac's total of 683 and fired the best actual series of the tournament thus far with a 635.

Bob Pickett ranked runnerup at Land-O-Lakes with 680, while Charles Lemke trailed Miller at Auburn with 642. Ron Rothbarth finished 15th at Land-O-Lakes but had the best actual series of 593 at the Waterford alley. All three are Pontiac residents.

There were a host of other impressive 600 series rolled at the three qualifying places with several more expected this week as some of the best in the area shoot for a chance at the finals.

Despite the impressive opening weekend scores, the leaders could very likely be changed considerably by next Monday. Final qualifiers will not be decided until all bowling is completed.

At least 13 at each qualifying house are expected to advance to the men's finals with Compton, Pavlinac and Miller the leaders in race for the Press trophies as the top qualifiers.

Women will be bowling for the same honors at all three locations on the final qualifying day. Approximately 11 women will be eligible for the championship battle.

The men's champion will receive $400 and a handsome desk calendar set and the women's victor will take home $200 in cash and a desk set. Ten other handsome prizes are guaranteed in each division.

Pontiac Women Take State Doubles Lead

FLINT—Mildred Molter of Pontiac blasted a 645 actual series as she and her partner, Helen Achenbach, spilled a 1,316 handicap to take the doubles lead here Sunday in the state women's bowling tournament.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Molter's big series figured in a fourth-place 1,931 handicap all events score. Coupled with Gen Bradley's 638 actual effort, good for a fifth-place 692 handicap in singles. Pontiac women accounted for three of the four changes in the top 20 board positions.

Mrs. Molter opened Saturday night with scores of 177, 171 and 203 for a 551 actual series for Huron Cleaners in the team event. She followed Sunday night with 232, 226 and 187 for the 645 actual in doubles before finishing with 181, 181 and 184 for 546 actual in singles.

Hanley Behind Breen

State Swimmers Do Well

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Swimmers from Michigan—though winning no championships —were in the forefront as the AAU indoor tournament closed over the weekend.

Dick Hanley of the University of Michigan, entered unattached, was second high individual point winner of the four-day meet. Hanley scored 17 points—second to George Breen of the Buffalo, N.Y., athletic club. Breen totaled 19 points.

Hanley finished second to Breen in the 440-yard free style as the New Yorker successfully defended his title in the event and cinched the meet medal for high point honors.

Paul Reinke of Michigan State, also competing unattached, was second to Olympic star Manuel Sanguily of Havana in the 100-yard breast stroke as the meet concluded.

Dupas Tilt Has Fans Guessing

Question in Tonight's Scrap Is How Fighter Weathered Charges

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Ralph Dupas, sixth-ranked lightweight boxing contender, takes on No. 6 welterweight Vince Martinez tonight in a bout that has fight fans guessing.

Dupas, a 21-year-old New Orleans veteran of 77 fights, is a fancy-moving boxer with speed to spare, while Martinez, 27-year-old Paterson, N. J., counterpuncher, has more steam in his blows.

★ ★ ★

The big question mark is how well Dupas weathered accusations last week that he was a Negro and as such barred by state law from meeting Martinez, a white fighter.

The Louisiana State Athletic Commission decided after two session of hearings that there was no evidence to warrant calling off the fight. It also held, in effect, that there was no substance to claims that Dupas was a Negro.

★ ★ ★

Promoter Heard Ragas said he expected 10,000 fans and a $50,000 gate for the bout at Pelican Stadium.

Rochester Bows Out in YMCA Tournament

The Rochester Falcons, representing the Pontiac district, were eliminated in the semifinals of the state YMCA basketball tournament over the weekend.

Rochester held a 22-19 halftime lead but could not match a taller Grand Rapids contingent the rest of the way in bowing 63-50. Gordon Montross paced the locals with 19 and Bruce Ross had 18.

Idaho Punchers Win 7 Titles, Team Honor

POCATELLO, Idaho (AP) — The Idaho State College boxing team this past weekend completed the most successful season ever compiled by collegiate punchers.

The Bengals swept seven individual championships in the NCAA tournament which ended here Saturday night. And they compiled 59 points in winning the team title.

Cranes End Tour on Winning Note

Cranbrook's baseball team wound up its southern tour on a winning note Saturday with a 4-2 victory over Mercersburg Academy at Mercersburg, Pa. It was Cranbrook's lone triumph in seven games.

A four-run outburst on only one hit in the 6th inning turned the trick for the Cranes. Three walks, an error, a squeeze bunt, a wild pitch and Dave Campbell's infield single did the damage.

Campbell, the last of three Crane hurlers, was credited with the win. He also made two of Cranbrook's three hits. Bill Surener was the losing pitcher.

Ford's 66 Foils Strategy

Calculations Wrong — Snead 2nd in Masters

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Sam Snead lost his bid for a record fourth Masters golf title to the golfer Snead says is the best in the business around the greens — poker-faced Doug Ford.

Snead, like Jimmy Demaret a three-time Masters winner, finished second in the 21st staging of the prestige and money rich Masters yesterday, and he couldn't have won even if he'd shot the kind of golf in the final round he thought would win it.

"I thought a 70 would win it for me," the drawling West Virginia slammer said after it was all over and Ford had whisked in and pocketed the $8,750 first prize check.

"And I thought I could shoot a 70 because there weren't any of the par-five holes out there that I couldn't reach in two shots," Sam continued.

★ ★ ★

But Sam was wrong in his calculations. A 70 would have given him 284 for the 72 holes in this richest — $53,000 — of all Masters Ford, playing aggressive, accurate golf, whipped par by six stroke with a 66 for a 283 total—one shot under the goal Snead was seeking.

Snead, who began to gamble in an effort to hold off Ford's threat ran into trouble on the back nine and finished with a 72 and 286, good for second place and $4,375.

Sam was surprisingly affable for a fellow who had led the tournament two days and was a solid choice to pick up his fourth Masters title.

"Man, after I got that birdie on No. 7 and my par at No. 8 to stay one under par, I thought the cake was mine," Snead allowed. "I was real relaxed and thought all I had to do was finish," he said, stuffing a golf shoe into a bag, "and I'm still relaxed."

Announce Work at Niagara Falls

International Group Plans to Keep Beauty, Develop More Power

WASHINGTON (AP) — The International Joint Commission has announced remedial works at Niagara Falls, designed to preserve their beauty and permit generation of more electricity, will be completed in two or three months.

★ ★ ★

Completion will be marked by an international ceremony at the Falls in September, the commission said yesterday in summarizing its four-day semiannual meeting here. The commission deals with problems involving waters which flow across the Canada-U. S. boundary.

It said the final cost of the works, undertaken to halt erosion at the crest of the falls, will be "substantially less" than the original estimate of $17,000,000.

Field operations in the commission's investigation of the international tidal power potential of Passamaquoddy Bay, on the Maine-New Brunswick border, will begin "in earnest" in a few days and the commission itself will visit the area in June.

★ ★ ★

The technical advisory board on air pollution reported continued improvement in the smoke abatement program in the Windsor-Detroit area. The commission authorized continuation of voluntary control for the abatement of vessel smoke on the Detroit River for the 1957 navigation season.

Suddenly It's Springtime in the Big City

New Yorkers Become Daffy in April

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — Spring begins to make itself felt in New York City along about Jan. 15 (you're just boarding a plane for Florida and, suddenly, the sun), but it isn't until now that everything goes crazy.

★ ★ ★

April is a season of rare delight for the wacky, and—ask anybody from Iowa—New Yorkers are the wackiest.

The crocus does not slip its perky yellow head above the earth, because we don't have much earth to allot the crocii. The robin rarely flies into New York from the South, preferring to express directly over to Boston.

It is scarcely feasible, either, for New Yorkers to observe that other certain sign of a-cumin' summer, barefoot boys sponging through the grass toward a fishing hole. (We keep our boys in shoes till it's really hot, lest they stub their little toes on a building.)

★ ★ ★

Anyway, New Yorkers have a sixth sense about spring that is surely keener than the senses of more sensible people. Comes the first good shot of sunlight, and a run of two or more hours' balmy breezes, they take to the sidewalks, dazedly aloof to robins or jobs.

NEEDS NO CALENDAR

Like the natives of primitive cultures who eat when they're hungry and sleep when they're weary, the New Yorker needs no pendulum or calendar to tell him the time for dreaming and goofing-off hath come.

★ ★ ★

The perfumed urge has wafted in through the 3 feet of concrete around his office and it has been irresistible.

Just look, on an April day, down the broad expanse of Third avenue. In March it was a busy street; now it dawdles.

Children are spread out haphazardly on the stoops of the delicatessens and saloons that have stoops. Lovers, the young ones, are dangled over refuse cans, conversing with adoring eyes as she idly pushes the "in" door and he gently stabs at the "out."

★ ★ ★

A middle-aged woman, unaccompanied except by an ice cream cone, looks in antique shop windows.

VIVID FLOWERS

Elderly men sell vivid flowers from wagons drawn by horses that suddenly have bows or rosettes on their manes. Teenage boys stand in clumps and in shirt sleeves (it's not that warm, but New York boys are manly) on street corners.

★ ★ ★

They do not only whistle at girls, they quietly discuss things among themselves. Possibly love, probably baseball, it's nobody's business anyway.

On the side of the street where there is shade, almost no one passes. The sunny side bulges with people and pigeons, the pigeons looking much more alert as they waddle with finesse past the feet of the oblivious.

It is a wonderful, zephyry day, the kind on which every lucky New Yorker will dig himself up a bunch of dafodils, a girl, an ice cream bar, or, at the very least, a lot of greenery dreams.

A week or so from now there will be complaints about the weather, for it is not normal for the New Yorker to be placid for long. Too much to do, too many competitors to beat. But everybody must rest now and then, and establish his place in the sun.

★ ★ ★

April is the time.

State Unemployment Up 6,000 March 15

DETROIT (AP) — Unemployment increased by 6,000 in Michigan between Feb. 15 and March 15, the Michigan Employment Security Commission has reported. Detroit's share of the increase was 3,000 and it brought to 6.3 the percentage of the city's work force that was idle.

Total Michigan unemployment March 15 was reported as 175,000 or 6 per cent of the work force. Statewide employment totaled 2,600,000, of which 1,423,000 were working in Detroit. The total unemployed in Detroit was figured as 96,000.

Unemployment compensation paid out in March totaled $9,500,000, and 31,530 new applications for benefits were filed.

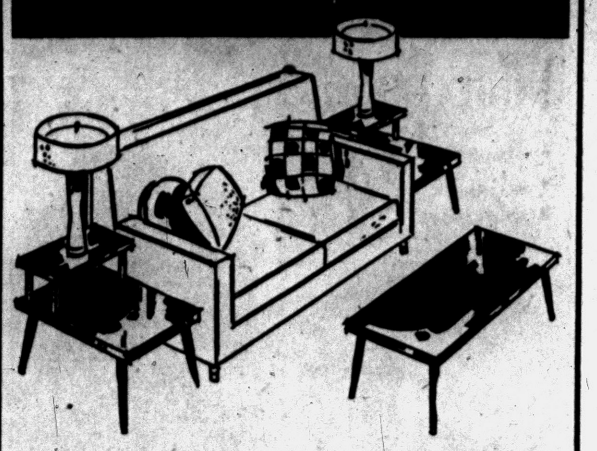

Man Refuses Pay Hike

SAGINAW (AP) — Thomas Township clerk Elmer Rusch was offered a $500 raise to boost his salary to $1,500 a year but said he only wanted $200. Explaining that he didn't feel he deserved the full increase, Rusch told the township board he sometimes had help from others with his clerical work.

All but one per cent of India's district towns now have telegraph facilities, the Posts and Telegraphs Department announced in New Delhi.

Most Stocks Nudge Higher

NEW YORK (AP) — Aircrafts rose in an irregular stock market early today.

Key stocks made gains of fractions to around a point. There was a wide assortment of fractional losers.

Trading fell off to a moderate pace after an active and slightly higher opening.

Wall Street analysts saw nothing in the weekend news to encourage great trading interest. But encouraging factors were a slowing in the decline for steel orders and a brighter outlook for employment, according to Commerce Secretary Weeks.

Douglas Aircraft, Boeing and Glenn L. Martin were all up around a point or more as aircrafts were in fairly active demand.

Some gains were posted by motors and oils, too, but in these divisions trading was not so brisk. General Motors, Chrysler and Studebaker-Packard were all steady to a bit higher. Ford eased.

Grain Futures Remain Firm

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain futures were fairly firm in most cases in early board of trade dealings today but price changes generally were small.

Corn and oats showed more strength than other grains. Buying in corn was attracted by the fact that for the second successive day there were no corn bids from exporters. Poor planting weather caused some strength in oats.

May wheat started firm on indications of further exports in the offing, but the price soon turned downward and pulled new crop futures down with it.

Near the end of the first hour wheat was ⅛ higher to ⅜ lower, May $2.23⅝, corn was unchanged to ⅜ higher, May $1.28⅞, oats were ⅛ to ¾ higher, May 71⅝, rye was ¼ to ¾ lower, May $1.28¾, soybeans were ¼ higher to ⅛ lower, May $2.44¾, and lard was 2 to 10 cents a hundred pounds higher, May $14.77.

Fox fur prices were up 28 per cent from a year ago at Norway's latest fur auction.

Merchants Warned About Coupon Books

The Business Ethics Board of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce has issued a warning to merchants regarding promotional coupon books.

The board warned that merchants "should be careful to examine the offer of promoters before entering into any agreement."

William L. Belaney, assistant Chamber manager stressed that coupon books are not illegal but in some cases have been known to force smaller firms out of business or to retract offers.

Coupon books are a promotional idea reportedly to bring merchants, especially those dealing in services more customers by promising free merchandise or service to purchasers of the books.

"The trouble with the idea is that the promoters receive all the money by selling the books to persons, and the merchants receive little if any increased business," Belaney said.

★ ★ ★

He said this was substantiated by the National Better Business Bureau which reported that "merchants who have participated in previous plans report free service or free merchandise offers do not actually have the effect of increasing their business or bringing them new customers."

★ ★ ★

The bureau said it "doesn't appear to be wise to try to secure permanent new business from people who are seeking something for nothing."
