Michigan's Surplus at $48.8 Million, Romney Reports

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George W. Romney today released a year-end financial report showing Michigan has a net surplus of $48.8 million and termed the outlook for the coming year very favorable.

Barring an auto strike or other "major interruption" in the economy, the governor said, the state should again have a surplus of about $50 million at the end of the 1964-65 fiscal year.

Romney added that the state's financial position is sufficiently strong to rule out any apparent need for tax increases in the immediate future.

Obviously pleased with the financial report submitted to him by Controller Glenn Allen Jr., Romney told newsmen his administration was the first in 16 years that hasn't asked for a tax increase.

"I'm a no-tax governor," he said, "and I expect we will be able to manage the affairs of this state without a tax increase."

The report by Allen bore out unofficial reports earlier that the state would have $48.8 million in the general fund as of June 30, 1964, after paying its debts, including $20 million for liquor bills.

CASH CRISIS

The liquor payments had lagged up to $80 million behind at times since the "cash crisis" of 1959.

Allen's report showed Michigan collected $418 million in revenues during the last fiscal year, with expenditures of $325 million.

Money over and above what was appropriated totaled $13 million, or $5 million more than expected, Allen said.

Most of the increase results from reduced spending for welfare, a reflection of higher employment, Allen said, but "in part reflect administrative efficiency" and recommendations of the governor's "task force" on government economy.

Allen said all the figures in the report are "provisional" and will not be confirmed until a final audit in September.

Shouting Bout in Hoffa Trial

CHICAGO (UPI) — The James R. Hoffa $25-million loan fraud trial became a shouting match between opposing attorneys today a few hours before it was expected to go to the jury.

Defense attorney Charles Bellows shouted "You're a liar" three times at the chief prosecutor, William O. Bittman.

Bittman, in return, accused Bellows of "manipulations, dastardly misstatements" to the jury yesterday. He charged that Bellows, a veteran Chicago defense attorney, had deliberately tried to sneak in fresh evidence in the closing days of the trial.

The exchange became so heated that U.S. marshals took up positions so they could intervene in case the argument came to blows.

Bellows is defending Calvin Kovens, one of six men accused of conspiring with Hoffa to obtain $25 million in loans through fraudulent means from the pension fund of the Teamsters Union.

The trial is 12 weeks old and defense attorneys are nearing the end of their closing statements. The case is expected to go to the U.S. District Court jury later today unless more courtroom dramas hold up the proceedings.

Bittman opened today's fire-works with a charge that Bellows carried on "calculated misrepresentation" yesterday when he showed a chart purporting to show the disposition of six checks made out by Kovens.

Rights Law Upheld in Test

Atlanta Men Plan Appeal to High Court

ATLANTA (AP) — The public accommodations section of the Civil Rights Act — probably the most controversial part of the recently enacted law — has been upheld by a three-judge federal court.

The panel singled out the public accommodations section yesterday in ruling against owners of a restaurant and a motel. Both had sought to exclude Negroes, and both said they are preparing appeals.

"I think justice will prevail and we will be given a favorable verdict by the Supreme Court," said Lester Maddox, proprietor of the Pickwick Restaurant.

Moreton Relliston Jr., head of the Heart of Atlanta Motel Corp., said he would abide by the order but would appeal immediately.

The men commented yesterday shortly after the judges issued injunctions against their establishments in the first two court tests of the new law.

The effective date of the injunctions was delayed until Aug. 11 to allow time for appeals.

Relliston filed suit against the government to block enforcement of the law within two hours after it was signed on July 2 by President Johnson.

Maddox was sued by three Negroes he chased from his restaurant at gunpoint on July 3. The Negroes later were joined by the Justice Department.

Both suits questioned the constitutionality of the public accommodations sections of the law.

Basic arguments in each case hinged on whether Congress had constitutional authority to enact the law. The court disposed of this issue before ruling on the law's application.

The Republican Party of Oakland County will actively support Sen. Goldwater for president, Congressman William Miller for vice president and Gov. George Romney for reelection to the governorship of Michigan, said Lyle.

"The alternative, four more years of meandering by a Democratic administration in Washington and a prospect of a return to Democratic chaos in Lansing, leaves no doubts in the minds of any thinking Republican as to where he or she belongs."

The statement was Lyle's first task after motoring back from San Francisco yesterday.

It was greeted with no expression of surprise by Robert Smith, Royal Oak chemist who heads the county Goldwater organization.

Smith said he likewise had no objection to Lyle's views that the state party convention (Continued on Page 2, Col. 1)

Mayor Fails to Halt NY Riots

NEW YORK (AP) — Negro rioting and looting and police gunfire erupted again during the night despite a broadcast by Mayor Robert F. Wagner for peace and order.

Police shot and wounded three Negroes and arrested 122 in the Bedford-Stuyvesant section of Brooklyn in the fifth straight night of disorders in the city.

Police said about 200 store windows were smashed during the night in the section, raising the total to nearly 500 in the city.

The trouble broke out in Harlem Saturday night after a white police lieutenant fatally shot a 15-year-old Negro boy last Thursday.

The lieutenant said the youth was coming at him with a knife. The disorders have centered for the past two nights in the predominantly Negro Bedford-Stuyvesant district of Brooklyn.

Wagner, who cut short a European trip, went on radio and television and said continued disorders could set back Negro and civil rights programs for half a century.

Wagner said news of the disorders had damaged the city's tourist trade but that none of 4½ million visitors in the past three months, including 150,000 Shriners now holding their convention here, had been attacked.

OUTSIDE AREA

The visitors circulate largely in the midtown area, visiting such sight-seeing attractions as the United Nations and Rockefeller Center, and the Rock's

Fair in Queens — well outside the trouble areas.

Nevertheless, the Hotel Association of New York said that almost 500 reservations had been canceled in the past three days as a result of the violence.

Some 150 Negro leaders in a rare display of unity among their various factions demanded the immediate ouster of Police Commissioner Michael J. Murphy.

They also called for the firing of Walter Aron, a deputy police commissioner in charge of community relations, and the "inspector who led the riot squad in Harlem."

Barry Sorry Some in GOP Won't Support His Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater said today he's sorry that some Republicans have declared they cannot now support him as the party's presidential nominee, and added the GOP must "stick together."

Goldwater, back at the Senate for the first time since he won the Republican presidential nomination, told newsmen "That's their own choice. I'm sorry that they feel that way."

"Republicans have to stick together," he said in a running

WASHINGTON (AP) — FBI agents arrested three Mississippi white men today and charged them with violating the new civil rights act by conspiring to keep a Negro from going to a movie. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said the arrests are the first to be made in the wake of the Civil Rights Act which became law earlier this month.

Sens. Jacob K. Javits and Kenneth B. Keating of New York, J. Glenn Beall of Maryland and other Republicans have said they cannot now offer Goldwater their backing.

Goldwater said his aides are working to set up a conference of top Republicans to seek party unity.

He said the session probably will end up "being more than one meeting."

"We have a lot of people," he said. Goldwater said no date has been set for the unity session. He said the national committee will work on that.

"We're trying to find out when people can get together," the senator said.

Goldwater's press secretary, Edward K. Nellor, said former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, Govs. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania and Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and vice-presidential nominee William E. Miller are among the people the senator will invite.

He said Michigan Gov. George Romney probably will be invited, too, and such party leaders as Ohio Chairman Ray Bliss might also be on hand.

Aims Confab at Settling Fate of Asia Nation

French Leader Says U.S. Dominance in West is at an End

PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle today proposed a four-power parley for the settlement of the Vietnamese conflict and the future status of the whole Indochinese peninsula.

The president said the big nations with a direct responsibility for the fate of Viet Nam should meet to settle the nation's difficulties.

He said these nations were the United States, Red China, the Soviet Union and France.

De Gaulle said they should agree on peace conditions for Viet Nam, then join in a massive reconstruction program for the states of former French Indochina, including Cambodia and Laos.

Before speaking about Indochina, de Gaulle declared that "things have changed" and the United States no longer directly or indirectly runs the affairs of the Western world and that the grip of the Soviet Union on the communist world is weakening.

GUARANTEED PEACE

Concerning Indochina, which France lost a decade ago, he said a military solution in Viet Nam is impossible and that the big powers should guarantee peace in the area.

This implied a joint guarantee of neutrality for the two Viet Nams, Cambodia and Laos.

It simply reiterated a policy de Gaulle first enunciated last August. He told the newsmen the 1954 Geneva agreement—negotiated by 14 nations including the United States, France, the Soviet Union, Red China and the two Viet Nam regimes—was intended to end the fighting in the peninsula. But, he added, the accords have not been respected by either side.

WANTS PEACE

The president said that France only wants peace in the area, "and the sooner the better."

He said the United States obviously could carry the war to North Viet Nam if it wished, but it would be difficult for Washington to assume responsibility for the danger of an enormous generalized conflict.

De Gaulle asserted that the South Vietnamese population seems less and less willing to support a cause which seems to them that of a foreign power. (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

Deny Suit Dismissal

Oakland County Circuit Court Judge Philip Pratt today denied motions to dismiss a suit contesting the election of City Commissioner Emmett S. Wellbaum.

The comprehensive ruling, in effect, narrowed the suit down to questions of alleged fraud and misconduct on the part of some election officials and to the legality of a write-in candidate under provisions of a City Charter amendment adopted by voters in January.

Thus, the judge cleared the way for the two issues to be brought to trial. No date has been set for a pretrial hearing.

The suit, filed by Robert A. Landry, former mayor, challenged Wellbaum's election on four points, two of which are the alleged election irregularities and charter amendment issues.

The other two issues alleged that the recount of votes cast April 20 for District 7 candidates was "improperly and illegally conducted" and that "the geographical districting of the City of Pontiac is unconstitutional."

Judge Pratt dismissed both of these issues.

WRITE-IN WINS

Wellbaum, 58, of 269 Seward campaigned as a write-in candidate and defeated Landry, the incumbent, and Curtis Webb, the nominee who opposed Landry on the ballot.

Find 2 Victims of Mud Hole

Still Seeking Girl in Street Cave-In

AKRON, Ohio (UPI) — Rescuers today continued the search for the body of a young girl in a massive, mud-filled street cave-in following recovery of the bodies of two other persons trapped in the hole.

The body of Hugh M. O'Neil, 19, Akron, was found late last night in the cave-in. River more than a mile from the Talmadge Hill storm sewer outfall.

Searchers recovered the body of Patrolman Ronald R. Kutzner early today from the cave-in hole.

Still sought was the body of Lashia Shidler, 10.

The three died Tuesday after the cave-in caused by a collapse of the storm sewer, swallowed a car in which the Shidler girl was riding.

SAVED TWO

O'Neil, a bypasser, rescued Mrs. Velma Shidler, 47, and Janet Lewis, 13, from the auto.

O'Neil was sucked into the water and mud when he returned to get Claudia.

Retrocar disappeared into the mire when he attempted to save O'Neil and the girl.

Police said the searchers would continue working around the clock to find the girl's body either in the cave-in or along the river.

Officials said the massive, 40-foot-deep hole in the street would not be filled in until the Shidler girl is found.

GOP Leader Backs Barry

Lyle indicated that although there were some "omissions" from the national platform, Goldwater as president would enforce the civil rights law.

But Lyle said he was still bothered about extremism in the party.

"We have seen extremism at work in our state, with a group of union leaders taking over one of Michigan's major political parties and attempts by minority groups to take over the machinery of the Republican Party."

He said county Republicans would urge at the state convention "adoption of the plank on encouraging implementation of the civil rights law, and adoption of a platform repudiating extremists in government in either party."

One move bolstering their hopes was the approval by voice vote of an amendment by Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., to prohibit the establishment of youth camps in any state without the consent of that state's governor.

States Rights Amendment Boosts Poverty Bill Drive

WASHINGTON — Administration leaders drove for Senate passage of President Johnson's $962.5-million anti-poverty bill today after accepting a state's rights amendment they hoped would pick up support from Southern Democrats.

The bill has come under heavy attack from Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, the Republican presidential nominee. He has called it a "backward-looking hedgehog" with "the single objective of securing votes."

Goldwater was not on hand when the Senate opened debate on the bill yesterday. The fight against it was led by Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., who had joined Goldwater earlier in denouncing the measure in a minority report from the Labor Committee.

The extent, if any, to which Goldwater was going to mix in the debate was uncertain.

First Meeting Scheduled on Teacher Pay Study

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — The teachers' salary study committee of the Birmingham Hills Board of Education will hold its first meeting Wednesday night.

The group was formed recently to review present salaries and make recommendations geared to a millage issue proposal this fall.

Its first session will feature presentation of the teachers' schedule by the Bloomfield Hills Education Association and additional remarks by individual teachers.

Mrs. Anylee Chamberlain, board member serving on the committee, will present figures from other school districts.

Also to be discussed are other jobs requiring comparable education. Trustee Donald C. Hyde is compiling figures for other professions.

Trustee Max Miller is chairman of the group composed of board of education members, PTO representatives, teachers and other interested citizens.

Newly appointed to work on the committee are six teachers: Roy Thompson, Shirley Friedly, Mrs. Alice Kuley, Charles Johnson, Delmar Hetherington and Paul A. Gwinn.

The two have not yet been assigned to specific schools.

Two single-year vacancies were created by the leaves of Robert McBride, Harlan principal, and Harry Jones, who headed Midvale High will spend the 1964-65 school year studying on Mont Fellowship.

The third opening was caused by the resignation of Daniel Welch from Pierce. Welch will direct elementary education for the Royal Oak school system.

Wellbaum is represented by attorney Howard I. Bond, who had moved for dismissal of the suit July 10 on grounds that Henry had not proven why Wellbaum did not legally win the election as a write-in candidate.

In his ruling, Judge Pratt said that in his opinion Henry had waited too long (90 days) to file a writ of mandamus and that the Oakland County Board of Canvassers, who conducted the recount, did so "in accordance with statute."

On those grounds, he dismissed the recount issue as basis for the suit.

Judge Pratt dismissed the issue concerning constitutionality of districting in Pontiac on grounds that recent Supreme Court decisions on the question, if applicable here, do not indicate they have "a retroactive effect on prior elections to the extent that they would invalidate them."

In denying Bond's motion to dismiss the other two points, the ruling, in part, reads as follows:

"Plaintiff (Landry) here has made serious and grave allegations of fraud and misconduct on the part of election officials in allegedly approaching and seeking to persuade and induce electors to vote for the individual defendant, (supported by) the affidavit of 23 electors."

"They (the allegations) strike at the very heart of free and democratic election procedures."

Judge Pratt conceded that while it is the court's duty to guard against "any illegal incursions on the election process," that election officials should be given opportunity "to vindicate their actions" and "remove any suspicion of misbehavior" in the public eye.

The Soviet empire, which is the greatest and last colonial power of our times, has seen its domination of the vast areas of Asia challenged first of all by the Chinese, and has seen its European satellites going astray," he said.

"At the same time, the Communist regime is suffering a setback in its standard of living as compared with that of the West."

Sheppard won a new round yesterday when a three-judge federal panel of the 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals held his $10,000 bond—and his freedom—were valid until the court could decide if the U.S. District Court order for his release would stand.

The court is not scheduled to meet again until October and there was no indication that earlier action would be possible.

Dr. Sam, central figure in one of the nation's most publicized murder cases, headed with his new wife to their Cleveland home to wait until the legal smoke cleared.

His attorney, F. Lee Bailey of Boston, said: "I don't think this case will ever be retried."

Sheppard, convicted of second-degree murder in the 1956 budgeon slaying of his pregnant wife, Marilyn, was freed from Ohio Penitentiary a week ago after U.S. Dist. Judge Carl Weinman of Dayton ruled he had not received a fair trial.

Presiding Judge Paul O. Weick of Akron said the appellate court would not void Judge Weinman's granting of bail but would modify it.

He said the granting of bail was at the discretion of Judge Weinman.

Sheppard Allowed to Stay Out on Bail

Possible Brezhnev Rise Offers Political Puzzle

Could it be that KHRUSHCHEV is considering an heir? Recent events in Russia suggest such an idea. The resignation of Soviet President LEONID I. BREZHNEV and the election to his post of First Deputy Premier ANASTAS I. MIKOYAN may be the first step toward an heir apparent for K.

We are certain that within the party there is plenty of vying for K's job. This has existed in the past, and we see no reason to believe it is different now. KHRUSHCHEV is getting old (he is 70) and has on several occasions mentioned that sooner or later he must give way to younger men.

All the reports we have read indicate that Brezhnev is popular at home but is not a well-known figure outside Russia. Within the party apparently he has great respect and is considered by many as the logical choice.

It is interesting to note that he is an orthodox Communist who, while following the line laid down by KHRUSHCHEV, has never voiced any serious criticism of the Chinese Communist party.

Just like in our own country it is reasonable to believe that within the inner circle a power struggle will exist. Perhaps not now, but the moment something happens to K the fight will be on.

Right now Brezhnev is giving his full time and attention to his other and more important job within the Communist party, that of a member of the Secretariat of the Central Committee of the Communist party where he is second in rank to Khrushchev.

If K were to be successful in promoting BREZHNEV as his successor (few Communist leaders have been able to accomplish this in the past), it would mean that probably the present course of liberalism and accommodation with the West could well be continued.

Since Brezhnev has not criticized the Chinese Communist party, it is likely that he would lean toward reconciliation with Red China. This leaves the outcome more or less like a Chinese jigsaw puzzle.

U.S. Dollar Stability Strikes Sound Note

Things are looking up for the American dollar—for the first time in years.

It is depreciating less than any other leading currency.

Latest figures show the dollar has edged out those old front runners, the German mark and the Swiss franc, in the race against shrinkage of purchasing power.

Depreciation is measured by calculating the purchasing power of a nation's currency as revealed by the increase in cost of living or consumers price indexes.

Over the past 10 years, the American dollar has shrunk 1.3 per cent. By contrast, during the last year alone, the currencies of Brazil, Chile and Argentina plummeted at the rate of 43, 31 and 20 per cent respectively.

A corollary of the return of the U.S. dollar to world esteem is the virtual elimination of the drain on American gold reserves by foreign countries that had assumed serious proportions during recent years.

The stability of our dollar is good news for all, but particularly for Americans whose incomes are wholly or in part derived from sources with fixed-dollar return on original investments.

Needed for Assembly: Child, 10, Minus Tools

One of the crying needs of this Country is a 10-year-old child without tools.

Practically every handy household appliance comes to the customer knocked down in pieces which, the enclosed folder assures you, can easily be assembled by a 10-year-old child without tools.

The trouble is, many a household doesn't have a 10-year-old child without tools. The child may be 9 years old, or 11 or 12. Or he may be 10 but has a tool set—which automatically disqualifies him for the job. Or the darn kid is never home when you need him.

The solution, of course, is for the manufacturer either to make the handy household appliance in one piece, completely assembled, or send along a 10-year-old child without tools with every purchase.

GOP's Out Cold if Barry Loses

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analysis
WASHINGTON—If Sen. Barry Goldwater loses the 1964 election, the Republican party will have to search for a whole new batch of likely presidential prospects.

With the possible exception of Pennsylvania's Gov. William W. Scranton, the familiar figures of this year, and past years, seem washed out: Nixon, Rockefeller, Lodge.

Scranton at the end was Goldwater's only active rival for the Republican presidential nomination. He didn't make a glittering race.

Even allowing for his late start, much of his effort seemed wishy-washy and his campaign badly organized. But he is only 47.

The presidential bug could bite him again although it took some biting this time to get him started.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon is only 51, which would seem to give him time for another try or two, except for what happened to him.

Although he lost the presidency to Sen. John F. Kennedy in 1960, it was so close he might have been in a favorite spot for the No. 1 role again if he hadn't failed in a try for the governorship of California in 1962. His balloon went down.

A close loss of the presidency is one thing. But to lose the gubernatorial contest could be, and in his case seemed to be, a fatal blow.

New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, 56, will be 60 when the 1968 election comes. But after what happened to him this year, 1963 will probably be just a date on the calendar.

He was the one sturdy Republican who fought Goldwater through the primaries, campaigning hard. He beat the senator in Oregon, lost to him in California, and then dropped out when Goldwater's strength seemed too much.

This was his second frustration and second withdrawal. He made sounds like a candidate in 1960 but Nixon had such an inside track for the nomination that Rockefeller pulled out without even trying.

If nothing else, age alone would knock Henry Cabot Lodge out of the picture next time. He is 62 now, will be 65 then. He was very unimpressive this year, except for a short time after he won the New Hampshire primary over Goldwater and Rockefeller.

He quit as ambassador to come home, he said, to help Scranton beat Goldwater. But he wasn't very dynamic after he got here.

Yet, at the moment, there is no one in sight who could reasonably be said to be the man to replace these familiar figures from the past.

'Aren't You Glad We Don't Have To Go Through THAT?'

David Lawrence Says:

NY Riots Point Up Red Menace

WASHINGTON—The Communist conspiracy to provoke trouble inside the United States is at last coming out in the open.

The riots in Harlem and Brooklyn have been participated in, and to a certain extent incited, by Communists and Paul H. Survee, acting mayor of New York City in the absence of Mayor Robert Wagner, publicly and officially said so this week.

Coincidentally, Sen. James Eastland of Mississippi, Democrat, in a speech in the Senate, has called attention to the ways in which Communists have become a part of the race controversy by stimulating demonstrations and training student agitators.

He has actually named on the floor of the Senate some of the Communist conspirators involved in these activities throughout the country.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has been working on this problem for a long time, but it's one thing to be able to detect who the Communist agents are and quite another to make an arrest and get a conviction.

Also, the House Committee on Un-American Activities and the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee have been badgered so much by the left-wing and so-called "liberal" elements that they have been hindered in carrying on penetrating investigations such as would expose to the public eye all that the Communists are doing in America.

PERSISTENT CAMPAIGN

A persistent campaign has been waged to abolish the congressional committees concerned with these investigations, and it has gone so far as to enlist the support of unwitting and naive members of Congress—most of them "liberals." The left-wing and "liberal" groups in America which have been denouncing as "McCarthyism" the arguments about the Communist menace will have to do a turnaround if they wish to elect their candidates this fall, whether the nominees for congressional seats run on the Republican or the Democratic ticket.

The public is fed up with the idea of letting the Communist apparatus continue its deliberate infiltration in the racial controversy.

Many of the sensible, well-formed leaders of the Negro groups have been aware of the Communist activities and rightly have denounced them.

POWERLESS LEADERS

But often they are powerless to get rid of the Communists because the latter have been able to deceive many of the rank and file of the Negro groups.

All the facts about the intensity of certain Negro leaders and the Communists have not as yet been revealed, but progress in that direction now may be expected.

President Johnson will find that the Communist involvement in the civil rights movement will have to be explicitly denounced and drastic measures taken to deal with the problem.

Otherwise, if he wins the election, this may be viewed as another triumph for those groups in both parties which believe Communist plots and brush aside as mere expressions of free speech the very demonstrations which result in violence.

Now that extensive injury to innocent citizens has occurred, and violence is sweeping area after area in other parts of the country as well as the South, the persons who have triggered this part of the crime wave in America should be exposed and punished.

Both the Democratic and Republican leaders would be well advised to note that the grassroots sentiment is aroused on the whole subject.

Bob Considine Says:

Conservatives' Reign Ended With Coolidge

NEW YORK—The word "conservative" will get a lot of kicking around between now and Nov. 3.

We haven't had a conservative in the White House since Calvin Coolidge. If my understanding of the word is valid, I'll put his stamp on the country.

The charm of Grace Goodhue Coolidge, the death of their younger son in 1924 from a blast developed on the White House tennis court, the rise of the stock market, generated affection for Coolidge.

His political enemies in 1924 were divided between Democrats supporting John W. Davis (tutorously nominated at Madison Square Garden after endless ballots) and Progressive Robert M. La Follette, who was to poll a whopping 1,500,000 votes.

"Keep cool with Coolidge" was the cry, in that air-conditionless day.

Coolidge had no headaches in office.

NO MEDDLING

He believed the government had no business meddling in business, except to help it.

He cut down on the use of paper clips in government bureaus. "Economy is idealism," he said.

He opposed farm relief and the payment of bonuses to World War I vets.

He wanted no foreign "entanglements," wanted no part of the League of Nations though he would have accepted the World Court.

NOT QUITE SURE

No one to this day is quite sure what he meant by "I do not choose to run for president in 1928."

There is still speculation that he wanted to be coaxed. The GOP didn't chase Hoover. Instead, And Coolidge escaped the tempest that was to come.

He died three months before Franklin Delano Roosevelt took over. He would never have been able to comprehend FDR, or Democrats (and Republicans) who have followed, though some of them claimed the mantle of Conservatism.

Almanac

Today is Thursday, July 23, the 205th day of 1964 with 121 to follow.

The moon is approaching its full phase.

The morning stars are Jupiter, Saturn, Venus, and Mars.

On this day in history: In 1884, New York tavern keeper Steve Brodie claimed he had jumped off the Brooklyn Bridge into the East River.

In 1945, Henry Petain, former French chief of state, went on trial for treason in Paris.

In 1941, a U.S. plane with 38 aboard was hijacked to Cuba.

A thought for the day—Franklin D. Roosevelt said: "The truth is found when men are free to pursue it."

Thoughts

You shall not see your brother's ox or his sheep go astray, and withhold your help from them; you shall take them back to your brother, —Deut. 22:1.

No people can survive and no free nation can endure unless its roots are imbedded in moral principles. Our Christian faith is basic to the spirit which motivates our society. It pointed the road to our way of life long before our forefathers gave political meaning. —Walter B. Smith.

Voice of the People:

'Government to Blame for Unemployment'

Businessmen are whipped for causing unemployment by automation, and the inference is that they are bad boys. Presidents of unions and even the President of the United States talk about wanting a share of the profits industry has gained by automation, but no one speaks for industry. Public relations are sadly lacking. We should explain it to the newspapers so the American public might get a clearer idea about the free enterprise system. This might prevent further misleading.

In 1937 a labor law was passed which in effect gives the employee the right to kidnap property and hold it for ransom. We call it "collective bargaining," but the threat is so great of the big losses due to overhead in strikes, that industry capitulates. Many have attempted to stand a strike, but it is difficult. Industry has constantly raised wages until now we have them three or four times as high as any in the world. The only solution is to automate. Some industries can but some can't. Industry has done a tremendous job in avoiding still higher selling prices than we have today.

If we didn't have a government spending subsidy we would have a very critical situation with the largest production facilities and the highest costs of anybody in the world. Anyone can compete with us; yet they blame business for unemployment.

The government is creating unemployment. The little man can't automate and can't stand big competition. He is just quitting. He is too tired of handling the labor problems. Drive down the main streets of any large city and see the "for rent" places where little people have gone out. The big leaders who have capital and credit can borrow or raise capital to build newer plants, buy more machinery and try to reduce costs from these high labor rates.

We inherited a great country. Our forefathers did a better job in protecting things than we do today. We ought to correct the wrong impressions given out by greedy politicians who swear to defend the Constitution and yet advocate public funds to keep themselves in office. If this is not dishonesty in trusteeship, what is it?

Political Views Take VOP Spotlight

I find it inconceivable that a political party was founded on the principle that all men are created equal, has now fallen into such decadence as was evident during the Republican National Convention. This was not a convention, but a meeting of extremists and bigots who have all but forgotten the ideals which have made this country great.

Everyone is entitled to an opinion, but how can anyone with a conscience and believes in the Bible, endorse a candidate who has by his own record repudiated all of those teachings?

BEN ENGEL
230 E. BOULEVARD SOUTH

Millions of American citizens watched the rally and GOP convention. We've overlooked a party where every American can have a voice in the government. The adoption and passage of the civil rights bill made the American Negroes resentful and bitter. Many millions of Americans will not vote this coming election. Why?

CHARLES J. MARTIN
UNION LAKE

I was pretty fed-up with Barry and his playmates long before convention time. First they deny equality to even their own constituents because of their color (God help Negro Democrats), then they accuse our President of socialism. They even went so far as to pre-empt our beloved reruns.

Oh, how I longed for a "seen-already" Ben Casey of a 1933 'Bette Davis' movie!

MRS. FRANK D. KURKOWSKI
69 E. STRATHMORE

America has a two-party system: The American party and the non-American party. The first concerns itself with the troubles in America. The people strive to do the most good for the best purpose. Members may be Republican, Democrat or independent voters—but they are concerned with America.

Members of the "non-American party" don't necessarily have to be a Communist or socialist, but they are fanatics in that they practice what they preach—nothing! It's time for Americans to form a clean-up committee and strengthen the American party.

A DISGUSTED ADOLESCENT

Communism promises Utopia. It has delivered mass starvation, poverty, and police-state terror to its own people and promoted worldwide strife and hatred. Treason, terror, torture and Moscow-directed wars of "national liberation" spread Communist "brotherhood" and "social justice" around the world.

It is, then, no wonder that the Reds, planks, left wingers and "liberal" dupes are fretting and wobbling because a real American has been chosen to campaign for the office of President of the United States. It would appear that a substantial number of Americans have been aroused from indifference and lethargy. We proudly salute Sen. Barry Goldwater—a dedicated American.

'Armenians Exaggerate About Turks'

Armenians in the United States tell exaggerated stories about the Turks, since there are very few Turks here to challenge them. Those who listen to Armenians and Greeks should get the facts from Turks who live here.

World War I was not started by Turks. Two million Armenians were not massacred by Turks. The whole population of Armenians was only a little over 2 million. Not more than 10,000 were sentenced to death. Even today in Turkey we Muslims cannot gather for religious ceremony without police intervention even though 98 per cent of Turkish population are Muslims. A lot of Armenians and Moslem priests were tricked by Armenians and invited to a Moslem church and then burned to death. I can give the names of many. And that was the reason Armenians get the same treatment from relatives of the dead.

Jews, Greeks and Armenians who live in Turkey are more prosperous than their brothers elsewhere.

How would the American government act if the Armenians here plotted and asked to divide America and have their own state and buried Americans to death?

Let's forget the brutal acts in riots and war, as people do things they would never do in peace. As a Turk I love Greeks and Armenians and have them in my home all the time, even thought some of my own relatives were burned to death without having a chance to fight back.

Study the history of both sides. We have all done disgraceful things. Let us not cause hate among nations.

Mrs. Isabel Allison's letter in the Voice of the People suggests she doesn't know enough about the facts.

Reader Feels ADC Policy Is Too Lax

I'm concerned about the policy of Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) in giving support to so many children born to unmarried mothers. Quite often grandparents care for the children and ADC money is spent for the girl to buy gasoline and keep a car on the road — so she won't be bored. Sometimes the father is asked to leave school and pay back the ADC support. Not having an education it's almost impossible to make enough money.

Who ends up paying? The taxpayers. If these girls can't support the children then they should be placed for adoption at birth. It might make a girl stop and think if she knew she wouldn't get state aid for a child.

CONCERNED FOR OUR YOUNG PEOPLE

Youth Frightened by 'War on God'

What is our country coming to — atheism, communism, or is it something completely different? After reading the article "Mrs. Murray's War on God" in the Saturday Evening Post, I have become frightened for the first time in my 17 years.

Mrs. Murray wants to do away with Congress and other systems of legislation, but where would our country be without them? She can't believe in the miracles God has performed, she claims, because things like that don't happen today.

These miracles were performed thousands of years ago to keep our world from destruction. In those days they didn't have the wonder of automation that God has provided us with today.

Wallace Votes Are Released

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI) — Gov. George Wallace, declining to play a "favorite son" role, last night released Alabama's delegates to the Democratic national convention from supporting him for president.

The 38-member delegation voted unanimously to invite convention delegates from 13 other Southern and border states to meet Sunday, Aug. 23, prior to the convention in Atlantic City, N.J., to map plans to fight for a platform favorable to Dixie.

Wallace's release came as no surprise at the organizational meeting of the delegation, but the governor cautioned the delegates to stick together and present a united front.

"Alabama has helped awake the nation in the past few months, and I think we should be united at the convention," he told them.

The unity theme was the basis used by James Kahalley of Mobile who suggested the pre-convention caucus of states in the old confederacy. Kahalley was picked by Wallace for a convention committee appointment.

The delegates came close to a showdown split in their first session over the election of a permanent chairman, but Wallace forces pushed Bessemer Mayor Jess Lanier into the job after stopping a bid by national Democratic committeeman Eugene (Bull) Connor, former Birmingham police chief.

In his brief talk before the delegation, Wallace said his presidential campaign "sent a message that will be heeded by most national parties. I have accomplished my mission."

Presses Silent as Detroit Paper Strike Continues

DETROIT (AP)—Presses at both Detroit's daily newspapers remained silent today as a strike by two craft unions continued in its second week. The afternoon Detroit News and the morning Detroit Free Press were shut down the night of July 13 in a contract dispute with the International Printing Pressmen's Union Local 13 and the affiliated Paper and Plate-Handlers Union Local 10.

Pickets from both unions have maintained a vigil outside the newspapers and radio and television station WWJ, which is owned by the Evening News Association, publishers of the News.

No negotiations were scheduled. Mediators said both sides were on call.

Will Renounce Title to Seek Commons Seat

LONDON (AP)—Alexander Victor Paulet Montagu, 10th earl of Sandwich, announced today he is giving up his title. He will be known as Victor Montagu.

Lord Sandwich, 58, is reported anxious to return to the House of Commons, where he sat as a Conservative for South Dorset until his father died two years ago.

May Be Problem to Party

Some Dixie Democrats Defecting to GOP

ATLANTA (UPI) — Disident Southern Democrats, unhappy with the Johnson administration and the new civil rights law, have started defecting to the GOP in what promises to become a major problem for the national Democratic party in the approaching presidential campaign.

Most of the defections thus far have taken place in Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia, but there are also signs of trouble for the Democrats in South and North Carolina indicating the "solid South" is a thing of the past.

The move of Democrats into the Republican camp coincides with the withdrawal from the presidential race in Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace and a poll that shows Sen. Barry Goldwater is leading President Johnson in the South.

There are marked signs of unrest among Southern Democrats. A group of Georgia Democrats ranging from Sen. Herman E. Talmadge down to several leading elected state officers have announced they will not attend the national party convention in August because of prior commitments.

A member of Georgia's State Democratic Executive Committee has turned Republican. Two members of Mississippi's Executive Committee have gone to Goldwater and a loyalty battle is raging in Alabama.

Mississippi Democratic leaders, without a candidate since Wallace pulled out of the race, are conducting quiet meetings in an attempt to keep the party welded together.

They hope to counter moves such as that of Rep. Frank Lubois of Yazoo City who said yesterday he saw Goldwater as "the last chance for the nation."

Polk Lewis Harris, in a copyright story in the Washington Post yesterday, said Goldwater had shot ahead of Johnson as the South's number one choice for president.

The poll also noted, however, that Johnson is still the hands-down choice across the nation.

The copyright poll said the same voters were checked just before and after the GOP national convention last week. Southern voters preferred Johnson over Goldwater by a 41-38 ratio before the convention but the percentage shifted to 55-45 for Goldwater immediately after the convention.

In Alabama, State Rep. Malcolm Belcher of Jefferson County resigned from the Democratic party yesterday, protesting the "policy of the national Democratic party."

Belcher did not mention Goldwater or the GOP, but his letter of resignation said "I cannot support the national party in its Segregated principles of making all people equal by making them all dependent on the government, and since I believe it is impossible to separate the Alabama party from the national party, I can only withdraw from both."

Group of Dissenters Clogs Pontiac Twp. Sewer Plan

By ROGER BRIGLEY
PONTIAC TOWNSHIP. — Another group has hit the township's 5-year-old attempt to cope with sewage control in its "problem area."

The sanitary facility is to be constructed in Walton Heights and East Walton Heights subdivisions.

At least 36 of the affected property owners say they did not receive notices. Leading the group of dissenters are Mr. and Mrs. William J. Henley, 2538 Grosse Pointe.

However, today she said there were other ways of providing sewers for that area of the township which would be much cheaper than the proposed method.

The "problem area," which Township Building Inspector Clayton Lovelace says has been a headache to the township since 1958, is bounded by Phillips, James, Dexter and Walton.

Although the township is not working under pressure of a court order, it has been reprimanded by the Oakland County Health Department several times about the "health hazard."

One of the components of the hazard is open sewage found in the ditches.

Peach Queen Hopefuls Await Aug. 18 Contest

ROMEO — The date is set. The crown is all polished and shiny.

All that remains for Romeo Peach Queen candidates is to wait about three weeks for the contest.

Title holders from 11 area communities will vie for the coveted crown Aug. 18 at the Romeo Community Center.

Formal for the 8 p.m. competition will be patterned after the Miss Romeo contest July 2 which featured a garden setting.

The girls will appear on stage twice, first in street dress, later in formal gowns.

CONTEST PARTS

During the contest, they will be interviewed informally, give a short reading and finally answer several questions drafted by the judges.

To be eligible to compete for the crown, girls must already be queens in their own communities.

From this group of area leaders the peach queen and two maids of honor will be picked.

They will reign over the 32nd annual Peach Festival Labor Day weekend.

The remaining eight girls who vied for the crown will form the queen's court. All 11 will be guests in Romeo homes during the three-day celebration.

Mrs. Margaret A. Kaiser, who was in charge of the Miss Romeo contest, will serve again in the same capacity for the peach queen competition.

Submit Fair Entries Early as Possible

Exhibitors should submit entries as early as possible this year for the Michigan State Fair, which will run from Aug. 28 through Labor Day, Sept. 7.

That's the advice of Charles Figy of Morenci, chairman of the Michigan State Fair Authority, who said all indications point to a record number of livestock, agricultural and home arts entries.

Entry deadlines are July 31, home arts; Aug. 7, livestock, horses and agriculture; and Aug. 14, Junior Show.

The premium book — the handbook of information for all exhibitors — has been split into three sections this year: livestock and agriculture, home arts, and home arts.

Prospective exhibitors should indicate which section is desired when requesting a premium book from the Michigan State Fair, Detroit 3, Michigan.

NEW BUILDING

Home arts exhibits will be in the new building this year which should be completed except for the auditorium area.

Livestock judging and horse shows again will occupy the Coliseum day and night for the entire State Fair.

And again this year, barn and stall facilities will not be able to handle all entries for the entire 10 days. A split schedule of cattle and horse exhibits will be in effect.

Beef cattle will be in for the entire 10 days, but the dairy cattle will be split into two sections. From Aug. 28, through Sept. 1 will be Guernsey; Jersey, Milking Shorthorns and Red Poll; Sept. 2, through Sept. 7 is the period for Holstein, Ayrshire and Brown Swiss.

HORSE EXHIBIT

The horse exhibit is split into four sections:

• Aug. 28, through Sept. 2: Quarter horses, Palomino, Parade and Michigan Girls' Barrel Racing Horses.

• Noon Monday, Aug. 31, through Sept. 2: Arabian and Morgan.

• Sept. 3-4: Clydesdale, Belgian, Percheron, Appaloosa and Pony of the Americas.

• Sept. 5-7: Welsh, Hackney, American, Shetland, and Harness Ponies as well as Saddlebred and Tennessee Walking Horses.

Clyde Event Is Called Off

CLYDE — The annual Clyde School reunion will not be held this year.

It was canceled because two of the reunion officers will be unable to attend, according to President Mrs. Ellsworth Huff.

However, she said the event will be held next year on the fourth Saturday of July as usual.

Exiles Battle Fidel's Forces

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Cuban exiles have reported they fought Fidel Castro's military forces while landing supplies to anti-Castro guerrillas early Tuesday.

A communiqué issued by Commander L. and the Revolutionary Recovery Insurrectional Movement Wednesday night said the encounter lasted 10 to 12 minutes off the north coast of Cuba.

The communiqué said four exiles and an American identified as Don Baker of Fort Lauderdale fired 42 rounds from 30mm cannons and between 450 and 500 rounds from rifles and automatic weapons. It also said men were landed.

The exiles fled in their 30-foot boat for an undisclosed base but had to change their course to the Florida Keys after they ran short of fuel.

APPREHENDED
They were apprehended by federal authorities and held for questioning.

They Buy a Lot of Cars

Women's Wishes Built Into Modern Car

DETROIT (AP)—The man may make the final decision on which auto to buy, but regard for the woman's opinion has been built into the car and she's likely to have the final say on color and accessories.

The female influence in the auto industry is large. American Automobile Manufacturer's Association statistics show women buy a lot of cars. And with 33 million licensed women drivers, they get behind the wheel at one time or another of a tremendous percentage of the country's autos.

In addition, households owning two or more cars have grown to 8.7 million, and that second car usually is "hers."

Women have some definite ideas about what they want in cars. One suburban housewife put "ease" at the top of her list.

By this, she said, she meant "ease in getting in and out, ease in handling and driving and parking."

LIKES POWER
Also, she said, "I like power attachments... power windows, shift, brakes and steering. When I'm in a car with small children I like to be able to control all the windows from the driver seat."

"The power shift means there's just one less thing to worry about when you're driving in traffic with a carful of children and grocery bags."

She said the interior should be "luxurious to reflect her taste... but practical. A woman wants something that looks nice, but you must be able to get chocolate ice cream off the seat cover."

Among other things a woman likes, she said, are air conditioning: "A woman likes to arrive cool and calm and collected and doesn't like to get her hair mussed," and large glove boxes.

RESEARCH SERVICE
Chevrolet Division of General Motors Corp. recently commissioned a research bureau to look into women's influence. They found:

"The woman became a significant force in the automobile market when automatic and power assisted made cars more sensitive to her touch and gay interiors made them more pleasing to her eye. Movement to suburbs increased her need for personal transportation and an improved economic status permitted it."

Another key factor, the researchers found, was "woman's ascension in the business world and intellectual attainments equal to man's have won her respect and a more attentive audience for her opinions. In many families she is accepted as budget director. As such, her economic judgment determines the ceiling on monthly car payments."

However, a point the researchers found was that while the wife likes to be consulted, she shies away from complete responsibility. "Insistence on her choice would, she feels, offend her husband's ego. Besides, she is not confident enough of her judgment to risk the censure certain to be voiced should the purchase later prove a disappointment," the researchers said.

More Race Riots in Singapore

SINGAPORE (AP)—Chinese and Malays poured into the streets of Singapore for more racial battles today, pushing the official death toll to 16 since communal rioting began Tuesday night.

Hospitals reported 65 more injured were brought in after four hours of serious clashes, most of them during a morning break in the curfew to allow people to buy food.

Conflicting official reports of the total number of injured in the battling ranged from 103 to more than 300.

Police, riot units and troops had hauled in 1,000 persons on curfew violation charges and another 100 were charged with unlawful assembly or rioting.

A federal police spokesman in Kuala Lumpur, capital of Malaysia, said although the situation continued serious in Singapore, the rioting had not spread to other parts of Malaysia.

RELAX CURFEW

The curfew, in effect for 10 hours until 5:30 a.m., was relaxed somewhat in an apparent attempt to prevent complete stagnation of the island's bustling economy. Beginning Friday the new curfew-free hours are from 5:30 a.m. to 10 a.m. and from 3:30 p.m. to 6 p.m.

By mid-afternoon Singapore's streets were nearly deserted except for security forces and persons with curfew passes.

Singapore Premier Lee Kuan Yew indicated the curfew probably would continue through the weekend for the island of nearly 2 million people.

"If the curfew does not work," said Malaysia's acting prime minister, Tun Abdul Razak, "we shall see what else must be done."

State Dept. Leak Found

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk disclosed a state secret last night.

The terrace atop the State Department building, which overlooks much of downtown Washington, is not available to guests because it is under repair.

Apologizing at a formal dinner for Malaysia's visiting Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman, Rusk said the terrace had begun to leak on "those of us on the famous seventh floor," where he and his top aides have their offices.

"This is dangerous to say, I know," Rusk said. "It opens the way for our Republican friends to say that the Republicans built the State Department and it worked fine and the Democrats got in and it began to leak."

Give and Take in Auto Talks

Second Round Over Demands of Union

Detroit (AP)—Negotiations over new contracts for more than 550,000 workers in the automobile industry plodded along today with give-and-take discussions on several issues.

Representatives of the United Auto Workers union and the Big Three — General Motors, Ford and Chrysler — were in their second round of talks over the union's multiple demands.

Working conditions and work standards, one of the key UAW demands, were discussed Wednesday at the Ford bargaining table.

A subcommittee takes up the topic of supplemental unemployment benefits today, with the general committee in recess until Friday when it will consider proposals for salaried status for hourly workers.

LESS THAN HOUR

Negotiators at Chrysler met for less than an hour Wednesday for a discussion on joint scholarships and bereavement time off.

At General Motors, the talks centered around seniority problems.

The Big Three contracts expire Aug. 31, while the American Motors agreement continues until Oct. 15.

AMC negotiations are in recess until next month.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Premier Khrushchev's brief stay in Poland may herald yet another International Communist conference and a Soviet last chance offer to Red China to get in line with the Kremlin.

The Russians now want, quickly, a meeting of 28 Communist parties — those which served on the drafting committee for the 13,000-word Moscow declaration which resulted from the 1960. That declaration was supposed to be a blueprint for world Communist strategy and tactics.

The 20-member conference would be assigned the job of preparing for a new full-scale world meeting.

A Soviet letter to Peking published July 17 — one of a long series of acrimonious exchanges — says many factional groups within parties around the world, sponsored by the Chinese, claim to be real representatives of the Communists but "neither in theory nor in practice support the general line of the world Communist movement."

WORLD MEETING

The Chinese would try to get such parties into a world meeting, the letter indicates. Khrushchev apparently has taken steps to parry any such attempt. There are parties, the Soviet letter says, which have emerged since 1960 and could be invited, but only those who attended the 1960 meeting and signed the declaration should be considered capable of interpreting it.

That would rule out some groups from underdeveloped areas, where the Chinese are particularly strong among impatient Communists.

The 1960 conference was attended by 81 Communist parties of which 26 were assigned to draft the declaration.

The new letter says a meeting of the 26 to prepare for a bigger meeting is "urgent" in view of harm done the world Communist movement by Peking's attitude. The Chinese have said a world conference could wait four or five years, but Khrushchev has no intention of giving the Chinese an opportunity to pick up strength over a long period.

INCREASE SUPPORT

The Chinese apparently think that by putting off the meeting they can increase their supporters "and turn them into weapons of their own policy, thus creating favorable conditions for themselves," the Moscow letter said. There is strong indication in the letter that the Kremlin is offering the Chinese their last chance to end the feud. It said the Russians still are willing to hold two-way talks with Peking, although the Chinese leaders are "unwilling." It said the Russians still are willing to help China "build socialism."

But the Chinese, it added, are "an extraordinarily dangerous path." Not only are the Chinese assuming their own domination over all Asia, the letter said, but they are also getting together with "imperialist countries" in Europe. Even in the United States, said the letter, statements are heard from highly placed people that "change in relations with China is possible."

The letter implies the Chinese, if they continue to obstruct the Soviet drive for a new world meeting, will be responsible for whatever happens.

This year there will be about 1.8 million marriages in the United States, the Population Reference Bureau predicts.

Who Gets Credit for Michigan's Economic Recovery?

(EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the second in a two-part series on Michigan's economic recovery.)

By GENE ROBBINS
Detroit Free Press Writer
DETROIT—It's a cheerful debate.

The question is: Who—or what—deserves the credit for Michigan's booming economy, for a state treasury that is beginning to budge?

Only five years ago, an altogether different debate was raging.

Republicans accused Democrats of bringing about the widely publicized payless paydays for state employees, of causing the state's deficit to soar to $110 million. Democrats blamed the Republicans.

Now the argument centers on the state's comeback, and both sides are arguing all the way to the bank.

What actually does account for the state's new and rosiest hue?

TWO VIEWS

There are two distinct viewpoints—one shared by most Democrats, and a sizable segment of organized labor, the other held by Republicans and more than a sprinkling of businessmen.

Leaders on both sides, however, agree generally on these points.

A package of "nuisance" taxes on such items as telephone calls and cigarettes was enacted in 1962 by a Republican-controlled legislature and signed into law by former Democratic Gov. John Swainson. Without the taxes, which are producing revenue at a $77 million-a-year clip, the state would end the current fiscal year with a deficit, rather than a surplus.

AUTO PRODUCTION

Resurgent auto and truck production has returned thousands of jobless workers to the plants, increased state sales tax collections and spurred the economy. Combined car and truck production totaled 9,100,446 vehicles in 1963, compared to 6,728,629 in 1959, and is setting new records this year. Michigan assemblies about a third of the nation's total, produces parts and provides the administrative know-how for still more.

After these points are established, however, the debate over Michigan's prosperity begins in earnest.

In one camp are those who credit much of the Michigan "comeback" to Republican Gov. George Romney, the last-paired winner who stepped down as president of the American Motors Corp. to lead Michigan Republicans in their first gubernatorial victory in more than a dozen years.

SAME INGREDIENTS

Romney's boosters credit him with saving American Motors with a blend of supervision and "rugged individualism," and are convinced he's using the same basic ingredients to restore the state's "business climate" and repair its "shattered image."

"I am completely confident," says GOP State Chairman Arthur G. Elliott Jr., "that the Romney administration deserves full credit for untangling Michigan's embarrassing financial mess."

For introducing new efficiencies and economies into state government, for restoring business confidence in Michigan... for establishing in this state an orderly plan for economic expansion and ever-widening job opportunities," Zoltan Kereczi, State Democratic chairman, sharply disputes the idea that Romney deserves credit for a resurging Michigan.

He says the credit should go instead to the national Democratic administration of President Kennedy and Johnson. National car sales, he adds, began skidding under Republican President Eisenhower, began booming again under the Democratic President.

TIED TO CARS

Michigan's economy and its state treasury are intimately attuned to the car industry, he says, and, once the industry began its resurgence, no governor could have missed catching the state's deficit.

Siray away from the political leaders, talk instead to business and labor officials, and the debate over Michigan's prosperity takes a variety of dips and turns.

E. S. James, Michigan Group manager of Sears, Roebuck & Co., agrees that business fell and rose with the auto industry, but thinks that the "industrial and business climate" also played a role in the decline and resurgence.

Democratic administrations, he says, shook business confidence in the state "by an over-indulgence in attempts to sell social reform."

'GOOD SALESMAN'

"Romney, on the other hand, inspires confidence," James adds. "He gets through to people. He's a damned good salesman for the state and in Michigan he has an excellent product."

Leonard Woodcock, vice president of the United Auto Workers Union, dismisses the business climate argument.

"The so-called bad climate of a few years ago was manufactured," he says, "by businessmen who were using it as an argument for lower taxes. The same thing has happened—and is happening—in Wisconsin and other states."

"Romney hasn't really solved the state's financial problems," adds Woodcock. "The state won't get out of debt before, and could again if auto production sag, because the Republican-controlled legislature consistently refuses to overhaul Michigan's antiquated tax structure. The tax problem remains the same under Romney."

ANOTHER VIEW

Businessman Ibbotie Martin president of Dundee Cement, believes the "business climate" in Michigan today is "more favorable than it has been."

"The reason, I think, is more psychological than real," Martin adds. "With a Republican administration, business feels it is more likely to get a fair shake in Lansing. Whether this is true or not, I don't know."

Martin also feels that the state was maligned in its darkest days. "The very things we are touting today as being favorable were favorable then—our natural resources, like water and minerals, and our large pool of skilled workers, executives and technological talent. There was more emotion than fact involved in our poor image."

At the Solidarity House headquarters of the United Auto

Workers Union, Research Director Woodrow Ginsburg says, "The surge in the economy," he says, "has been reflected in expanding revenues from an unchanged tax structure. This money would have come in regardless of who is sitting in the governor's chair. If auto production declines and sales tax collections drop, will the high-riding GOP accept the responsibility?"

"Gov. John Swainson (the Democratic Romney defeated) was the governor's chair; made valiant efforts to have the tax structure revamped and finally was forced to go along with the new nuisance taxes. Today, they account for the largest part of the brighter revenue picture under Romney."

Another view comes from Hugh Daily, executive vice president of Michigan Consolidated Gas. He is convinced that both political parties helped darken the state's image and both have helped restore it.

"The state's bad image resulted from over-emphasis of a cash situation the state had and a lot of political infighting. The result was that Michigan had bad publicity and people got the impression we were a depressed area."

"Today, there is a behind-the-scenes attitude in both parties and we've come a long way." Daily cites as an indication of the new political mood a new law—the only statewide law enacted by the 1964 legislature which removes a state tax on jigs, tools and fixtures used in industry.

"It's no secret, of course, that repeal of the tax is $4 million a year revenue producer," says Martin of Dundee Cement. "But we're making progress—real progress."

What's more, the state's economy is becoming increasingly diversified. "We've still got a long way to go," says Martin of Dundee Cement. "But we're making progress—real progress."

"How confident are we in Michigan's future?" asks Daily of Michigan Consolidated Gas. "Well, our company is spending $56 million this year to expand its service. You can't get much more confident than that."

To JFK's Brother

Mementoes Saddening

CHICAGO (AP)—Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy was moved emotionally yesterday as he viewed a display of mementoes of his late brother's years in the White House.

"I think it's sad," Kennedy said as he looked at photographs of the late President John F. Kennedy in intimate moments with his family.

The attorney general, in Chicago for arrival of the traveling exhibit of photographs, historic documents and personal papers, told a news conference that about half the $10 million needed to construct the John F. Kennedy Library already has been donated. The library will be built in Boston.

The exhibit is on a nationwide tour.

LBJ Gets $1.5-Billion Bill for Military Facilities

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress has sent to President Johnson for his signature a $1,500,000,000 authorization for construction of military facilities in this country and overseas.

The House approved this compromise measure Wednesday, and the Senate passed it shortly afterward.

A separate appropriation bill to finance these projects already has been passed by the House. The Senate has not acted upon the money measure.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet Union says it isn't shipping American wheat to Cuba.

A minister at the Soviet Embassy here told the State Department Wednesday that reports of such shipments were false.

Capt. Arthur H. Fertig, skipper of the Sater Katago, reported a few days ago that Russian stevedores in the port of Novorossiysk told him that American grain was being shipped from the Soviet Union to Cuba.

Fertig's ship was boarded and searched by Russians when it left Novorossiysk without clearance last week. The United States protested against what it called excessive methods employed by Soviet authorities.

George M. Korlenko, the Soviet minister, denied the reports of the grain shipments. He suggested Fertig made his charge "to provoke trouble" because of the incident at the Black Sea port.

A State Department spokesman asked whether this government was satisfied with Korlenko's statement, replied that "we continue to seek any possible information" about the matter.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Seminars to clarify for businessmen provisions of the Civil Rights Act pertaining to personnel—from hiring to firing—are planned by the National Association of Manufacturers.

Under the new law the federal government is placed in the position "of final arbiter of personnel practices." W. P. Cullender, NAM president, said in a statement. Because of this, he said, "there is need of genuine appreciation of its implications at policy levels of management."

WASHINGTON (AP)—World War II veterans are facing increasingly tougher job competition from youngsters of the postwar baby boom, a Labor Department official says.

Louis Levine, director of the U.S. Employment Service, says the younger men who are coming into the labor market are generally better educated and better equipped for the jobs.

But Levine said that by and large veterans have fared well in the years since the (1) Bill 20, $3,000 for nonveterans. Their unemployment rate last year was about half (3.2 per cent) compared with 6.2 per cent of that experienced by nonveterans.

He gave this profile of the average World War II veteran: "Three out of four veterans live in urban areas. Their average annual income (last year) was $5,100 as compared with the $3,000 for nonveterans. Their unemployment rate last year was about half (3.2 per cent) compared with 6.2 per cent of that experienced by nonveterans."

A Junior Editors Quiz About AUTOMOBILES

QUESTION: How does the steering on a car work?

ANSWER: Jack, a young man with a driver's license, was changing a tire on his father's car when our artist sketched him. He is looking at a front wheel.

It is the front wheels which are turned by the steering mechanism of most cars. Notice the small round metal drum from which Jack lifted the wheel, after removing the nuts which held it to the drum.

This drum and the wheel when attached to it, can spin around freely, when lifted off the ground by the car being jacked up. But inside this drum is another one which does not spin, which is attached to the framework of the car.

It can, however, pivot around a certain distance, and it is this movement which allows the car to be steered in different directions. In the simplified diagram at the top, we look directly down.

The inner drums of both front wheels are connected with a system of tie rods and spindles. When you turn the wheel to the right, the steering shaft works the tie rods so they turn the inner drum that way (as at top) and the wheel on the freely revolving outer drum turns that way too and so does the car.

When the tie rods turn the drums and wheels to the left, the car will move in that direction.

FOR YOU TO DO: Watch for a chance to look in when a tire is being changed and you can see the tie rods (don't get under the car—the jack might slip). A flashlight, will show the steering mechanism more clearly.

What Was Behind Khrushchev's Denunciation of Goldwater?

(EDITOR'S NOTE—The Republican nomination of Sen. Barry Goldwater has been sharply criticized by many newspapers in allied European countries, and now by Soviet Premier Khrushchev—in a manner that has a diplomat's quality of being under-estimated. Is it proper? What is its aim? John M. Hightower, AP diplomatic affairs writer, provides some answers.)

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—The sharp debate over U.S. foreign policy which is developing in this year's presidential election campaign seems likely to excite more reaction in foreign countries than any American political dispute since the end of World War II.

News Analysis

Much of the European press has already expressed bitter criticism of the nomination of Sen. Barry Goldwater, assailing him as the leader of those who would change fundamental U.S. positions in world affairs.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev raised the operation to the summit level this week by denouncing both the Republican nominee and the platform on which he is running.

This kind of action by a foreign official is traditionally classified in diplomacy as interference in the internal affairs of the United States, and the diplomat who tried it would quickly find himself in serious trouble.

SENT HOME
In 1960 British Ambassador Lionel Sackville-West was sent home for taking sides in the contest between Grover Cleveland and Benjamin Harrison, and his fate is well remembered in the Washington diplomatic corps to this day.

But the rules that silence ambassadors do not operate for presidents and premiers, speaking from distant capitals. The betting in diplomatic quarters here is that considerably more will be heard from Khrushchev before next election day.

His outburst in Warsaw last Tuesday is probably only a beginning.

Khrushchev told a Polish audience that the 'candidate put forward by the Republican party' "made it clear that he wants to enter the White House under the slogans of unbridled anti-communism and war threats."

WARLIKE PLATFORM

He also asserted that the Republican platform, which he denounced as warlike, had been adopted "in an atmosphere reminiscent of the Fascist gatherings in Nuremberg."

The big question raised among U.S. foreign policy officials who are always concerned with the aims of Khrushchev's maneuvers, is what he hopes to accomplish by an attack at this time.

Is he seeking to magnify the concern expressed in the European press that Goldwater, if he became president, would radically alter U.S. policies toward the Communist countries, by buying American attitudes and would possibly make some changes in nuclear weapons policy?

Does he wish to arouse anti-American leans in the restless Communist countries of Eastern Europe and thus try to tie them closer to the Soviet Union?

OUTRAGING PEKING?

Does he want to prove for internal political reasons that he can be more anti-Goldwater than his Chinese foe within the Communist camp who pursue a strong, anti-American policy anyway?

Or is his purpose to influence American voters against the senator and thus strengthen the election prospects of President Johnson?

Khrushchev has interjected U.S. presidential politics before In 1960 he spoke out against Republican nominee Richard M. Nixon. At that time Khrushchev had broken off friendly personal relations with President Dwight D. Eisenhower over the U2 plane incident, and he expressed his antagonism toward Nixon by identifying him with Eisenhower.

ADIDING NIXON

The dominant reaction in the United States then to Khrushchev's interference was that he was helping Nixon by attacking him. Possibly this estimate, reflected in editorials and newspaper columns at the time, got through to the Kremlin. Midway of the campaign between Nixon and the late John F. Kennedy, the Soviet leader tried to switch to a neutral position.

Speaking of the two candidates, he said: "They are a pair of boots. Which is better, the right or the left boot? It would be difficult to distinguish between them."

The Soviet press and radio then quickly took up this neutral line and it remained the Soviet position until the election.

Diplomats here believe the present campaign debate on foreign policy probably will be more far-reaching and involve more fundamental issues than any in the past 20 years.

INDIVIDUAL TREATMENT
Where the Communist problem is concerned, for example, the Johnson administration has been following a policy of trying to treat different Communist countries differently according to their willingness to make practical agreements with the United States. In the Kennedy-Johnson administration the outstanding example of this policy is the limited nuclear test-ban treaty signed with the Soviet Union last summer.

In his acceptance speech Goldwater spoke of all Communist governments as enemies. In this sentence:

"We must make clear that until (Communism's) goals of conquest are absolutely renounced, and its relations with all nations, tempered, communism and the governments it now controls are enemies of every man on earth who is or wants to be free."

Goldwater also spoke in an interview with the German news magazine Der Spiegel, of his "disagreement with diplomatic recognition of Rumania" and said this recognition should be regarded by the United States as a tool for use in its relations with the Soviet Union.

In the same interview he talked of the possibility of making tactical nuclear weapons "a very small matter" available to NATO with control of the weapons "to be used as close by as possible in NATO hands."

Sewage Treatment Aid

LANSING (AP) — Michigan will have $2.93 million in federal aid to allocate for sewage treatment facility construction during the 1965 fiscal year, reports the State Water Resources Commission. Communities can receive grants of 30 per cent of the total cost of the project, or $250,000, whichever is less.

Fear Mounts as Congo Rebels Make Gains

ELIZABETHTOWN, the Congo (AP) — Appeals to evacuate whites from the revolt-torn eastern Congo mounted today following reports of new rebel gains.

One message from Belgian companies in the mining center of Bunia asked Congo authorities to evacuate 15 women and 16 children as soon as possible.

Kinshasa, capital of Maniema District in the eastern Congo, fell to rebel forces Wednesday. Radio messages from there said 100 whites were asking to be evacuated.

Premier Moise Tshombe flew to Bukavu, capital of neighboring Kivu Province, to carry on his campaign for national reconciliation.

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Premier Khrushchev flew back to the Soviet Union today after a two-day visit to Warsaw for the celebration of the 20th anniversary of Poland's Communist regime.

Police Communist party chief Wladyslaw Gomulka kissed the Soviet leader three times on the cheeks at the airport but there were no farewell speeches.

East German Communist leader Walter Ulbricht and Czechoslovak President Antonin Novotny also attended the anniversary celebration.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — The War Ministry has confirmed documents published by the news magazine O Cruzeiro showing that a brother-in-law of ex-President Joao Goulart received some $5 million from Fidel Castro to finance a revolt in Brazil.

The documents said Leonel Brizola, a former member of Congress who fled to Uruguay with Goulart after the rightist military coup last April, was promised $10 million in all by the Cuban prime minister.

Brizola, a controversial figure in Brazilian politics, was formerly governor of Goulart's home state, Rio Grande do Sul.

The Brazilian Congress gave final approval Wednesday to a constitutional amendment extending interim President Humberto Castelo Branco's term an extra year, until March 15, 1967.

LONDON (AP) — George Lawson, a Laborite member of Parliament, complained Wednesday that the British welfare state "values calves more than children."

The House of Commons was debating subsidies for Scottish hill farmers. Lawson observed that the farmer gets $66 from the government when a cow calves but only $44.80 when his wife has a baby.

James Stodart, undersecretary of state for Scotland, replied: "The conditions of birth on a Scottish mountainside are considerably more uncertainly."

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — The national police reported today that 48 persons have been killed and 53 injured as a result of heavy rainwater and lightning across South Korea in the past 12 days. Nearly 30 inches of rain fell in Seoul during the period.

City Takes Children on Zoo Outing

Some 325 youngsters piled into five buses at City Hall today and the annual Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department's Zoo Trip was on the road.

The children, accompanied by about 25 department employees, left around 12:30 for an afternoon at Detroit Zoological Park.

They were expected to return about 4:45.

Youngsters from 7 through 15 years of age took part in the event. All 22 city playgrounds in this year's summer program were represented.

For a fee of 75 cents, each youngster got transportation to and from the park, a ride on the zoo's train and admittance to the chimpanzee show.

FAT OVERWEIGHT

Available to you without a doctor's prescription, the DORINEX plan. You must use light fat or your money back. One of the basic problems of losing weight is your inability to stick to a planned diet. The DORINEX plan contains a tiny tablet and is easily swallowed. When you take DORINEX, you simply don't have the urge for extra portions because DORINEX depresses your appetite and decreases your desire for food thus making it easier and more comfortable for you to diet. Your weight must come down because as your own doctor will tell you, when you eat less, you weigh less. Get rid of excess fat and live longer. Of course DORINEX can't do all the work for you. But if you really want to cut down on your eating, and lose weight DORINEX can be a powerful helper. The DORINEX plan is sold with this guarantee: If not satisfied for any reason just return the package to your druggist and get your full money back. No questions asked. The DORINEX plan is sold with this guarantee by: SIMMS CUT RATE DRUG STORE, 27 S. Saginaw Ave. Orders filled.

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP) — If the Indonesian attack on Australian troops in Malaysian Borneo, New Zealand and the United States will be obliged to help them because of their membership in the Anzus Pact, Prime Minister Keith Holyoake said today.

Holyoake added this step would be taken only after full consideration and "due constitutional procedures."

He said New Zealand has 1,700 troops in Southeast Asia but there is no thought at this stage to committing them to any combat role in South Viet Nam or Malaysia.

READY FOR CUE — Famed pianist Van Cliburn wields a baton at rehearsal of the Interlochen Youth Symphony yesterday while Luci Baines Johnson stands ready with the

Viet Column Meets Strong Cong Attack

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE
SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—A powerful Communist unit pounced on a South Vietnamese mechanized relief force late Wednesday, inflicting 34

For the past week, the Viet Cong has hit at large government units somewhere in South Viet Nam every day, often resulting in heavy government casualties.

"The whole trouble is that they never seem to learn to put out adequate security or flank guards," a high American officer said Wednesday commenting on Vietnamese army tactics.

"We've done everything we can to make these things into them, but unnecessary bloodshed continues."

STRONGER DEFENSES

The aerial troop movement presumably was intended to strengthen government defenses against a possible Communist attack. Viet Cong guerrillas have been increasingly active in the northernmost part of South Viet Nam.

The troops going north had been shifted to the delta five months ago, and Premier Nguyen Khanh said then they could be spared because that sector was relatively well under control.

Communist China's New China News Agency reported today that North Viet Nam had sent six letters to the international commission on Indianan alleging U.S. and South Vietnamese military "intrusion" of the demilitarized zone that separates North and South Viet Nam.

The letters charged that in the last three weeks of May, U.S. and South Vietnamese authorities "illegally sent into the demilitarized zone 222 vehicles carrying 1,675 persons including U.S. military personnel."

North Viet Nam said "the in-casualties and destroying an or more vehicles.

The attack, about 25 miles northwest of Saigon, was the latest in a bloody series of one-day attacks on big government units.

Vietnamese officers estimated however, that their forces killed 60 of the enemy. They captured one of the Communists' guns, a 87mm recoilless cannon.

Seventeen of the government troops were killed, 34 were wounded and three were missing. Several U.S. advisers were involved in the fight, but all were reported unharmed.

The fight began along a road as several hundred troops and about 25 amphibious personnel carriers were rushing from the Trung Lang ranger post to the defense of a beleaguered out post.

The government force evidently was not caught by surprise, and was fighting as soon as first shots rang out.

The road runs near the edge of the Communist-controlled and densely jungled area north of Saigon that is called "D Zone."

The ceaseless fighting continued until two hours after sunset. The government launched a new operation today, but no new contact was reported.

General Not Backed on Bombing

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—South Viet Nam's Defense Ministry said today the commander of its air force was expressing only his personal views when he called for an aerial attack against Communist North Viet Nam.

Air Commodore Nguyen Cao Ky told newsmen at Lien Hui airport yesterday that he himself flew over North Viet Nam three years ago and, "where the head goes, the body follows."

Ky said "The time is ripe" for bombing North Viet Nam, even though he left Red China probably would move in, and that his air force is prepared for the mission.

A Defense Department spokesman gently rapped Ky on the knuckles, and said his views came a few days after Premier Nguyen Khanh called for a march on North Viet Nam.

Luci to Perform at Interlochen

INTERLOCHEN (AP)—Luci Baines Johnson, the President's 17-year-old daughter, will share a stage here tonight with the National Music Camp Symphony Orchestra and a fellow Texan, pianist Van Cliburn. Cliburn will conduct the 150-member Youth Symphony Orchestra and Miss Johnson will do the narration in Sergei Prokofiev's "Peter and the Wolf" symphonic fairy tale.

The President's dark-haired daughter was fitted Wednesday for the traditional dark blue uniform of this north woods music and culture center.

She'll wear the uniform at a morning rehearsal, again at

STAYING AT CENTER

Miss Johnson, accompanied by three Secret Service men and her press secretary, arrived at Interlochen shortly after noon Tuesday. She is staying at a student center and attending various classes at the camp.

After three rehearsals, Waldie Anderson, orchestra manager who is coaching Luci and giving her the cues for her narration, reported.

"Tuesday she appeared to be nervous, but Wednesday she was beginning to have fun with it. . . . she is very eager to do it right."

Luci's appearance at the National Music Camp reportedly was Cliburn's idea. The pianist met President Johnson when he was still a senator. While playing at the LBJ ranch near Johnson City, Tex., Cliburn asked Luci to join him in a concert.

Proceeds of tonight's benefit will be used to provide scholarships to the National Music Camp.

Man Kills His Family, Hangs Self

ROANOKE, Va. (AP)—A young salesman, described by neighbors as highly depressed, strangled his British-born wife and two young daughters Wednesday and hanged himself, police said.

"He never discussed any of his problems, but he has been despondent since he moved here three months ago," said Jane Tingler Wertz, sister of Frazier Leon Tingler.

The bodies of Tingler, 28; his wife, Jill, 25; and their two daughters, Dana, 6, and Penny Lee, 4, were found by their landlord and a plumber who went to the home to repair a sink drain.

The bodies of the wife and children were lying face down in the same bedroom. Tingler's body was hanging by an electric cord from the bedroom door.

MOTHER HOME

Mrs. Tingler's mother, Mrs. J. R. Johnson, called Wednesday from New York City to return to her home in Surrey, England, after a six-week visit with the Tinglers.

Tingler, a native of Roanoke, had stayed in England after being discharged from the U.S. Air Force there. He and his family came to the United States about a year ago.

London Police Probing Story of Gangster-Peer Relationship

LONDON (UPI)—Allegations of a homosexual relationship between a member of the House of Lords and a gangland boss were reported under investigation today by London police.

Britain's latest scandal burst into headlines yesterday when the matter was brought up in the House of Commons by Labor Party Member of Parliament Marcus Lipton who asked Home Secretary Henry Brooke whether he was investigating the possible existence of a protection racket.

No names were made public, and the peer's identity quickly became the subject of the biggest guessing game in London. There was speculation the scandal might rival last summer's lurid Profumo case.

On July 12 the London Sunday Mirror said it had evidence of "an alleged homosexual relationship between a prominent peer and a leading thug in the London underworld." The newspaper called the peer "a household name."

It also charged the case involved other gangsters and a number of clergymen who were being blackmailed by members of a protection ring extorting money from London nightclubs.

CLAIM PHOTOGRAPH

Police denied any information about the story. But last Sunday, the Mirror said it had a photograph of "a well-known member of the House of Lords seated on a sofa with a gangster."

The case could become the country's second sensational political scandal in a year.

Boys' Club Praised as Boon to Youths

Recent establishment of the Waterford Boys' Club has been hailed by Oakland County Judge Norman J. Burgess as another factor that should contribute to lowering the area's delinquency rate.

Judge Burgess, long active in Boy Scout and 4-H Club activities, said those and the boys' clubs all tend to help young boys stay out of trouble.

These three organizations provide something worthwhile for youngsters to do and help develop a sense of responsibility.

GOP Senators Set Welcome for Barry

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. J. Edgar Hoover, busy overseeing the forging of his presidential campaign strategy, returns to the Senate today to receive the plaudits of Republican colleagues.

The "welcome back" was arranged by GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois to mark Goldwater's first Senate visit since last week's Republican convention.

Except for this appearance, and any important votes for which he might be needed, Goldwater is spending most of his time at home.

"The real glowing, together hasn't even started," an aide to the senator said of the overall campaign strategy.

RECEIVING SUGGESTIONS
The Arizona senator is receiving numerous suggestions from people about the campaign and has made a number of telephone calls to persons who are brainstorming out the details.

One thing is definite: aides said. He'll rely on the main on major appearances and speeches and broad television coverage.

The senator's office staff, had a big bundle of dictation tossed at them as he caught up on the stacks of mail received while he was away.

Goldwater's schedule for next week is fluid, but aides said there was a possibility he might leave next Wednesday night to spend a couple of days on a brief vacation at Bohemia Grove, Calif.

If he does the assumption was he would then go to his Phoenix, Ariz. home and might attend the annual Spink Indian ceremonial at Prescott, Ariz., Aug. 1 to serve as narrator.

Puts 'Body' in Trunk, Just Innocent Activity

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—A woman looked out her window Wednesday and saw a man apparently stuffing another man into the trunk of a car. She called police.

Soon Michael Lambert, a mechanic, was explaining to them how he put a fellow mechanic into the trunk and drove him around the block to check a rattle in the trunk.

The cornerstone for the Treasury Building in Washington was laid in 1839 during the administration of President Van Buren.

Nigeria Boy Scout Says Lions Are Rare

VALLEY Forge, Pa. (AP)—Ajayi Israel, one of nine Boy Scouts from Nigeria at the sixth National Jamboree, says lions are so uncommon in his part of Africa that he's never seen one. The youth likes hunting at night for antelope, but prefers the old matchlock type gun to the automatics used on the jamboree rifle range.

In three per cent of all American families, both husbands and wives have college degrees, the Bureau of the Census reports.

State Program to Aid Housing for Elderly

LANSING (AP)—The State Commission on Aging has announced it is developing a program to assist communities and individuals in developing housing for senior citizens. Priority recommendations are the establishment of a state agency for senior citizen housing and tax relief for home owners of 65 or over, the commission said.

In the United States, more women marry at 18, and more men at 21, than at any other ages.

Ask Water Level Study

LANSING (AP)—Rep. Joseph Snyder, D-SL, Clair Shores, reports he has asked the Macomb County Board of Supervisors to petition the Army Corps of Engineers to finance a survey to establish the cause of low water levels in the Great Lakes and St. Clair and Detroit rivers and to recommend remedial action.

Skillful uses of paper, printing and meticulous work by engravers makes United States currency the most difficult in the world to counterfeit, according to the Treasury Department.

Striking Teamsters OK Pact

WASHINGTON — Teamsters known but that a majority had Union headquarters said today voted to accept the latest contract proposals.

The vote was the third one taken since the locals from New England to North Carolina went on strike several weeks ago.

The latest vote had been ordered by Haffa.

The strike had tied up delivery of thousands of new cars.

Haffa, who is on trial on fraud conspiracy charges in Chicago, ordered the latest vote a week ago on grounds that not enough members had been given a chance to vote in the two earlier ballots.

The vote which finally ended the strike was a mail referendum of all members of the 18 locals, with the ballots being counted at Eastern conference headquarters here.

In the previous two votes, the ballots were counted by the individual locals before being sent here.

The first rejection reportedly was because of objection to Haffa's efforts to establish a nationwide contract for the car haulers.

The second rejection was reported to have been based on the members' demands for time and one-half pay for work on Saturday and double time for Sunday.

Move to Protect Women, Children

U.N. Cyprus Troops Abandon Positions

NICOSIA, Cyprus (UPI) — U.N. peace-keeping force today abandoned positions between Greek and Turkish Cypriots near Hamid Manderes village and moved to protect women and children if threatened fighting begins, the U.N. announced.

It said the former British airfields of Tymbou and Lakadonia were being repaired for use by Greek Cypriot planes.

It did not identify the type of Greek Cypriots do not have trained there. The newspaper also reports the alleged arrival and deployment of Greek Cypriot planes by Greek nationals because of the threat of coastal torpedo boats.

This was the first time since the U.N. operation began March 27 that the U.N. force had given such a clear indication it was no longer able to control an inter-communal situation.

Yesterday, Turkish Cypriots near the village, north of Nicosia, seized a new gun position dominating the route to the Greek Cypriot village of Pano Dikomo and Kato Khikomo in the southern Kyrenia mountains.

Greek Cypriots demanded instant withdrawal. The Turkish Cypriots refused.

Early today, the Greek Cypriots informed the United Nations they would attack if the Turkish Cypriots did not withdraw their estimated eight men at the gun site.

SOLDIERS PULLED

The United Nations announced its Finnish soldiers were being pulled out from between the opposing factions and taking up position in Hamid Manderes to protect women and children.

The Greek Cypriot newspaper Phileletheros, quoting sources close to the Greek Cypriot government, claimed that the first Greek Cypriot fighter and reconnaissance squadrons have been formed with planes shipped to the island.

2 Men Shot in Gem Theft

MONTICELLO, Mont.—Four masked men shot a policeman and another man today as they held up a jewelry store near the Monticello Casino and escaped with more than $1 million worth of gems.

A number of passersby witnessed the quick operation. Several residents of the fashionable Hotel du Parc leaped from their hotel windows to watch.

It was the fourth holdup of the Gem Jewelry Shop in the past decade. The owners have estimated their losses in the four robberies at $2.5 million francs ($2.45 million).

The haul in today's holdup was estimated by them at 7 million francs ($1.4 million).

The robbers drove up to the shop today in a small pickup truck and doubled back in the street, Policemen Henri Nattali saw the truck—which had been stolen last night—and told the driver to move on.

OFFICER FLEED
As he turned his back, Nattali was felled by a machine gun burst to his legs.

The four men rushed into the jewelry shop, covered the three employees and escaped up the stairs in the main display case.

As they went back to the shop today in a small pickup truck, Nattali grabbed one of the men in an effort to stop his flight. The men tried to push Nattali into the truck but gave up the effort and abandoned him on the road after the manager of the jewelry shop, Antoine Ferrario, raced out with a pistol.

As the truck roared away, more bullets were fired. Orfeo Bonicelli, a gardener at the Hotel du Parc, was struck in the legs. Both Bonicelli and Nattali were taken to the hospital.

As the robbers fled, they dropped two rings on the sidewalk. One of the rings was valued at 5,000 francs ($1,000).

City Youth Given Prison for Burglary
A 20-year-old Pontiac youth who admitted a burglary which netted him only several dollars was sentenced to 2 to 15 years in Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson yesterday.

Circuit Court Judge Philip Pratt ordered the sentence for Richard Guizar, 254 W. South. He was charged with entering Paul's Seat Cover Mart, 256 S. Saginaw, on June 28.

Police said Guizar took a small amount of cash and a new car parked at the store in the burglary. He had previous convictions for transporting a car across state lines and burglary.

His body is at the C. J. Goddard Funeral Home, Keego Harbor.

Soviet Opera Producer Succumbs at Age 70
MOSCOW (U.S.)—Leonid Barstov, noted producer of Soviet classical opera, is dead, State announced today. He was 70.

An actor at the Moscow Arts Theater from 1918 to 1922, Barstov then was a producer at the Nemirovich-Danchenko Music Theater from 1923-1931.

Aldo Moro Sworn In as Italy Leader

Only two changes appeared in the new government, which in the 28th since the fall of fascism in 1943. Like Moro's earlier regime, it has 15 ministers from his Christian Democratic party, six Socialists, three Democratic Socialists and a Republican.

Veteran Socialist leader Pietro Nenni stayed on as vice premier and Democratic Socialist Giuseppe Saragat remained as foreign minister.

REPLACED GIOLITTI
The premier replaced Budget Minister Antonio Giolitti, a former Communist turned Socialist, and Labor Minister Giacinto Bosco, a Christian Democrat. Both represented factions in their parties that opposed a new center-left regime.

Moro announced his acceptance of the premiership Wednesday night after weeks of political bickering that opened new rifts in the coalition and roused speculation as to how long his new government could survive.

Moro's consultations with party leaders failed to produce any basic agreement on issues that led to the previous government's collapse. They include state aid for private and largely Roman Catholic schools, and plans for urban reform.

Moro's six-month-old government was ordered by a parliamentary vote to leave office.

The new regime must go before Parliament for a vote of approval, which may take two or three weeks. Since the coalition had 361 of the 630 seats in the chamber of deputies, endorsement is assured, barring party revolta.

Crash Injuries Are Fatal to State Man
A Grand Rapids man died yesterday afternoon in Pontiac General Hospital from injuries suffered two days earlier in a car-truck accident in Pontiac Township.

The victim, Walter H. Bartlett, 76, was injured Monday when his car was struck broadside at Perry and Opdyke at 11 a. m.

The truck driver, Samuel C. Spear, 27, of Hazel Park, and two witnesses told sheriff's deputies that Bartlett ignored a stop sign.

A woman passenger in Bartlett's car was treated and released.

Driver Faces Another Trial

A Waterford Township man who is appealing two jail sentences stemming from traffic violations, faces a new trial in Waterford Justice Court for driving his motorcycle with a revoked license.

Marvin Singleton, 22, of 7303 South Shaker Road, was yesterday at his arraignment before Justice John E. McGrath on the revoked license charge. Trial was set for Aug. 4, 10:30 a. m.

Singleton was arrested Tuesday night by Waterford Township police.

In a June 30 trial before McGrath on three separate traffic charges, Singleton was sentenced to 30 days in jail for driving with a revoked license, 90 days for reckless driving, 180 days for driving on a revoked license and three months for reckless driving offenses.

Singleton paid the fine but appealed the two jail sentences to circuit court and was freed on bond.

He also paid the $100 bond yesterday by McGrath after the arraignment on the new revoked license charge.

One of 2 Burglars Sentenced to Jail
One of two Pontiac youths involved in a warehouse burglary was sent to prison while sentencing was delayed for his companion yesterday by Circuit Court Judge Philip Pratt.

A 14- to 15-year prison term was ordered for Harley Tindell, 17, of 83 Norton. Cedric Patterson, 17, of 66 Murray will be sentenced in July, 1965, pending his behavior during the year.

The two were charged with entering the Goodies Beer Distributorship at 70 N. Cass on June 24. Both youths admitted the offense, but police said Tindell was implicated in four other burglaries and had previously been on probation.

Area Teen Sentenced for Boat, Motor Theft
The yen to acquire someone else's boat brought a 1½ to 5 year prison term yesterday for Earl Carr, 17, of 274 Baldwin, Orion Township.

Carr, who had a previous juvenile record, had pleaded guilty to grand larceny in the June 22 theft of a 10-foot aluminum boat and outboard motor at Voorhis Lake, Orion Township.

He was sentenced by Circuit Court Judge Philip Pratt.

Gas Rates Reduced
WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman Joseph C. Sweeney of the Federal Power Commission reported Wednesday that wholesale natural gas rates to distributors serving Detroit were reduced by $333,000 annually during the first half of 1964.

Crash Hospitalizes Keego Harbor Man

A Keego Harbor man, injured when the car in which he was riding hit the rear of a tractor-trailer at 3:30 p. m. yesterday in Waterford Township is in satisfactory condition at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital.

Harold Nelson, 71, of 2478 Furdman. The accident occurred at Kitchell Lake and Cass Lake roads.

Harry Ameroka, 34, of Dearborn, driver of the truck, told police he was waiting for the traffic signal to change when the car driven by Mrs. Nelson hit his stopped truck in the rear. Both vehicles were eastbound on Kitchell Lake Road.

Great Lakes Water Levels Due to Take Another Drop

By A. F. MAHAN
Associated Press Writer
DETROIT (AP)—Great Lakes water levels — which already have dropped away from many docks and exposed thousands of acres of what used to be bottom — are falling again or will be within the next month.

And what is more, the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers expects them to keep dropping for at least the next six months.

Lakes Michigan and Huron, joined by the Straits of Mackinac, are expected to drop to an all-time low by the end of the summer, wiping out a low record set only last April.

Only Lake Superior is expected to remain anywhere near the average for the last 10 years, at that prevailing from 1900 to 1963.

NORMAL GAUGE

In addition, only Superior is expected to remain above the so-called "Low Water Datum Line," an elevation from which channel depths normally are gauged. Every inch of depth below that line represents acres of tons lost in freighter cargo lands.

Two words explain why levels are low and going lower: precipitation deficiency.

Between January of 1961 and last April the basins of all the lakes reported subnormal precipitation (rainfall and snow), with the amounts ranging from 4.95 on Lake Superior to 11.69 on Lake Erie.

An upturn in precipitation over the entire Great Lakes basin in March, April and May has lifted the year's amount to 11.81 inches, compared with last year's 10.00 inches for the same period and with the 1900-1963 average of 11.27 inches.

CONSIDERABLE TIME

But even if precipitation were to shoot sharply above normal over the entire basin, it would take considerable time for it to be reflected in water levels.

Firial, ground water levels

(such as that in wells) is low. Second, streams and lakes feeding the big lakes are low. And thirdly, the land lying between the streams and lakes is dry and would absorb much water before registering any material runoff.

Lakes Huron and Michigan are expected to be at the same levels at the end of this month as at the end of June, but under normal conditions they run about an inch in July. And by December it is forecast they'll be a foot below current levels.

For the last six months in a row Huron and Michigan have been below record lows for each month and are expected to continue that to the end of the year. Levels now are a foot below those of the same date a year ago and about two feet, three inches below the 10-year, 1954-63 average.

RIKIAN FALL

Lake Erie began a fall this month that is expected to take it down more than a foot and a half by year's end.

Lake Ontario, which can be controlled partially by compensating works leading into the St. Lawrence River, is expected to fall two feet from its current level, which is about a foot below the 10-year average.

Lake St. Clair, currently three and a half feet below high water marks registered on top of the lakes in 1962, is expected to dip a foot and a half more in the next six months.

The U. S. Lake Survey says that hydraulic engineers, despite popular beliefs in even-year and 11-year cycles of high water, have been unable to defect any definite cycle in long-range fluctuations.

But it adds "Historical records show that periods of low water have occurred, the most recent in the mid-1950s, and that each such period has been followed by a period of higher levels."

"But that doesn't answer the question upstream in the minds of Great Lakes shippers of boats, both big and small: 'How long?' (th) 'how long?'"

There are 741 civil defense sirens in New York City.

People With Colds Should Stay Away

By DR. WILLIAM BRADY

Respiratory (accent on the second syllable, "spi") infections make most of the everyday work of physicians. They are so called because the germ or virus of the disease spreads from the person who has the disease or is coming down with it to other persons within sneeze, cough or conversation spray distance.

Typical respiratory infections are measles, whooping cough, infantile paralysis, chicken pox, coryza, septic sore throat, scarlet fever, diphtheria, pneumonia, meningitis.

You never know when you catch the crit (rhyming with "spit") — a word made up of the initials letters of Common Respiratory Infection — just which infection you have, in the early hours of the indisposition or illness. Neither does the doctor.

If you're a decent citizen, you'll call it "civ" — acknowledging it may be communicable and giving everybody fair warning to wear a mask or keep out of your spray range. If you're an ignoramus or a stinker, you may call it "just a little cold" and so distribute free samples to all the knuckleheads around you.

Voluntary isolation, not compulsory isolation or "quarantine," is the key to prevention of the crit. For instance, a 34-year-old mother of five children, ranging in age from 3 to 11 years, writes:

"EXCELLENT RESULTS!"

"Often it was the older children who brought these sicknesses from school and passed them on to the younger ones. After reading your article, we decided to teach the children about it and have had excellent results.

"We have taught them to avoid the spray of coughs and sneezes by closing their eyes and nose. We taught them to cover their mouth with a handkerchief when sneezing or coughing. If one does get sick we keep him away from the other children."

"A month ago my husband came down with what the doctor called a bronchial virus. He was ill 10 days. We practiced being careful. He stayed in his room away from the children, and I kept my distance during conversation. I'm happy to say that no one else got it."

"What a blessing it would be if only the general population could be taught to follow your easy rules. We have cut our illnesses down to less than half, and our doctor bills too."

DROP INVITATIONS

"I am afraid many of our friends think we are fanatics or a bit eccentric to say the least. When we invite anyone to our home, especially if they, too, have young children have 'colds' or the like."

"If the answer is 'only a little case of sniffles,' the invitation is off."

"The last time a little one came in who had 'only the sniffles,' turned out plenty — the sniffles laid out to be the measles and our 3-year-old was so ill he spent a week in hospital. The work of caring for sick ones, plus doctor and hospital bills, gives me the courage to go on being eccentric." (Mrs. M.R.P.)

Who regards such a mother as fanatic or eccentric? The ignoramus and the stinkers, of course.

White-Washed Moms Get Flood of Criticism

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor
NEW YORK — The cartoonist's caricature of the woman in sloppy robe and curlers at eight in the morning is unpleasant.

But what happens if she reverses habit and shows up instead made up to the last phony eyelash with fashion's new "kangaroo" eyes?

Such fantasies in makeup get the label "huldergus" pasted on them from one cosmetics authority.

"I'm sure such things are one of the chief causes of trauma among children," said William Loew. "I'm afraid the experience is as traumatic for husbands as for the children."

KANGAROO EYES
Those kangaroo eyes, he explained, are made up so that the false eyelashes turn down instead of up and back naturally.

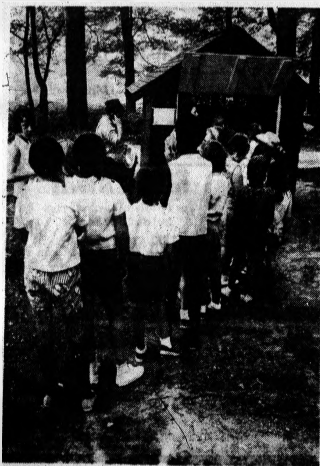

"Can you imagine that, plus stretch pants, in the A&P?" he asked. "All the wrong shapes are wearing those stretch things anyway."

Loew said in an interview, he is not against the dramatic in makeup — in its time and place and if the individual has the "confidence" to get by with it. But not for regular daytime.

For day he advocates use of cosmetics to create a look of simplicity, of naturalness. Dramatic eye makeup belongs "only in the chic fashion lounges after six."

BELONGS TO MODELS
Or, he said, it belongs to "the high fashion models or movie stars whose business it is to be 'in' at all time."

It does not belong on the numerous teen-aged girls who wear enough shadow and eyeliner to be right from those "rather tight than switch" advertisements, he continued.

Standing in line at the trading post waiting to buy such necessities as Kleenex, film, stamps, and stationery are these campers from the Little Pines unit. This daily event is eagerly anticipated by all the girls at Camp Sherwood and forms an important part of camp life. The campers with only a certain amount to spend have to be careful to "budget" their money.

Loew for the past six years has been beauty envoy for Charles of the Ritz, traveling the United States, Canada and Europe demonstrating to women the technique of cosmetics use.

Camp Sherwood, located on Davis Lake, is in the first week of its second session and the 103 campers there are having a ball. The Northern Oakland County Girl Scout camp has three sessions of two weeks each, ending Aug. 15.

Counselors are usually college girls, each one having charge of one of the camp's six living units. Each unit has several cabins with eight girls

Those oars are pretty big, but little Kitty Finan of West Doherty Drive, West Bloomfield Township, seems to manage without any trouble. Kitty has just had a boating lesson and is returning the oars to their storage place.

Improper to Stay With Godfather

By The Emily Post Institute

Q I plan to go to the World's Fair next month. My godfather, who is 20 years my senior and a bachelor, has a house not too far from the Fair grounds.

When he visited us this past winter, we talked about the Fair and I said that I planned to go when I got my vacation. He said he would gladly put me up in his house.

I would like to accept his kind offer not only because of convenience but of the money it will save me as well.

My parents, however, are rather dubious about my staying there. They don't think it will be proper.

Considering the difference in our ages and the fact that he is my godfather, could there be any possible impropriety in my staying at his house?

A I'm sorry, but it will not be proper for you to stay alone with your godfather in his house. He is too young, evidently in his early 40s, and not a blood relation.

Q I am married, and my name is no longer the same as that of my brother, who is a doctor.

In making introductions, would it be improper to introduce him as "Dr. John Well" or as "my brother, Dr. Well"?

I believe you have said that one does not use titles for members of one's family.

A It is quite proper to use a title if you make a pause in between.

You say, "My brother," pause a second, and then add for information, "Dr. Well."

Q When giving a birthday present to a married friend, should it be something for her own personal use or may it be something for her house?

A Unless the giver knows of some item that her friend would especially like for her house, something for her own personal use is more appropriate for a birthday gift.

to a cabin. The campers are aged 7 to 15.

CIT PROGRAM

The CIT program (counselors-in-training) is for girls interested in camp life and who want to continue with it. To enter, they must be 16 years old or entering the 11th grade.

This is a two-year program of four weeks each year. The first year consists of reviewing their skills, making their own camp site, and cooking most of their own meals.

In the second year the CITs help in the units and really work with the children. Here is where they learn to become good leaders.

The purpose of the CIT program is to bridge the gap

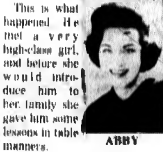

These CITs (counselors in training) are making a log pile which will keep their firewood dry in event of rain. Pat Rogers of Mt. Clemens and Ann Leighton of Thiensville, Wis. are two of the 11 first-year CITs. The girls have also made their own firewood, shower and pathway to the lake. Ann is here on an exchange program with a friend of hers from Berkeley. While Ann is attending Camp Sherwood, her friend is at Camp Northern Hills, sponsored by the Milwaukee council.

Son Is Well-Motivated in Offer to Teach Parents

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY Our son spent a year at the state university and now he thinks he is ready to educate his parents.

ABBY

This girl and her parents are making through our town this summer and they plan to stop here to meet us.

Our son offered to give his mother and me a few pointers in table manners like this girl gave him.

I told him over my dead body. What is your opinion of (A) a girl who would give a young man lessons on how to eat?

(B) a young man who would suggest giving his parents the same lesson?

KNOWS HOW TO EAT

DEAR KNOWS (A) Apparently the girl thought your son needed the lessons, and she liked him well enough to teach him. I admire her.

(B) Your son is well-motivated in offering to teach you. If you don't care to learn, that's your business. But don't get sore about it.

The girl's parents probably know that table manners aren't everything—as you do.

DEAR ABBY I don't drive a car, never have, and all my friends know it, so, naturally, I must depend on others for rides.

Whenever there is a club meeting, church doings, or something my friends know I want to attend, why must I call THEM and beg a ride?

Don't you think they should call ME and offer a ride?

NOT PUSHY

DEAR NOT PUSHY Most people are too preoccupied with their own business to guess who needs a ride. And unless you ask, they have no way of knowing.

Don't be so sensitive. If you need a ride, call whomever you think is going and ask for a lift.

If you are pleasant, prompt and appreciative, and do not take them out of their way, I am sure you will be welcome.

DEAR ABBY A couple who lived in our neighborhood recently split up. When the wife left she took everything that wasn't nailed down, including all the linen, kitchen utensils, appliances, you name it.

Grant Given to Dr. Melder at Convention

Dr. Eugene Keith Melder of Washington, D. C. recently became the first man to receive the Lena Lake Forrest Fellowship of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

Virginia H. Allan, national BFW president, announced the award of the $2,000 maximum grant at the Federation's annual convention this week in Detroit.

The recipient, an assistant curator at the Smithsonian Institution, received his Ph. D. Degree from Yale University in June, 1964. He holds a B. A. from Williams College and an M. A. from Yale.

Melder won the fellowship because of a research project entitled "The Beginnings of the Women's Rights Movement in the United States, 1800-1850."

Hospital Guild Plans Fall Tea

The membership tea committee of the Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital Guild held a coffee Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Simon Simoulon on Lakewood Drive.

Plans for the annual membership tea to be held on Sept. 30 were discussed. Co-chairmen for the event are Mrs. Donald Fraser and Mrs. Irwin Puster.

Other committee members present were Mrs. Franklin Mills, Mrs. Charles Gates, Mrs. LeRoy Johnson, Mrs. M. D. Petrie and Mrs. Ward W. Ross.

SHOCKED

DEAR SHOCKED: No. What this country needs is a good all-purpose umbrella to protect us against showers.

Girl Scouts at Camp Sherwood got several new sailboats last week and these two CITs are giving them a good test. Ellen Dereney of Utica is holding the big red sail while Diana Greaves of South Cass Lake Road tries to turn the small craft around. These boats have a unique feature about them — they're bulletproof!

Small crafts instructor, Jane Tripp of Voorhees Road, is telling these girls everything she can about canoes to prepare them for their trip on the Au Sable River next week. The hats they're wearing, as well as jackknives and whistles, are an important part of the girls' equipment. Canoe trippers must be skilled swimmers, as well as canoeists. This is Jane's first summer as an instructor at Camp Sherwood.

Polly's Pointers

Coolidge's Advice

DEAR POLLY — I practice Calvin Coolidge's philosophy of "let it up, wear it out, make it do or do without."

When I make new ruffled curtains I always make an extra yard or two of ruffling to save for "uplifting" when the ruffles wear out in spots due to exposure to sunlight and weather.

Also when I buy new crisp-cross ruffled curtains, I rip off the top ruffles of the curtain that will be underneath when they are raised over and then this curtain only has a casing for the rod at the top.

This gives me yards of ruffling for renewing work parts and also makes less bulk at the top of the window. It adds years to the wear of curtains.

Of course, the latter hint can only be done if each curtain reaches across the entire width of the window. — THIRIFTY

DEAR POLLY — I always get something from each column to add to my growing collection of "Homemaking Hints."

Beside me now is a raveled nylon stocking with which I hope to repair a small hole in a wool suit.

My own pointer is for making a pin cushion for bobby pins.

Four enough liquid glue or household cement into the buttoning pad in the cup on top of the glue.

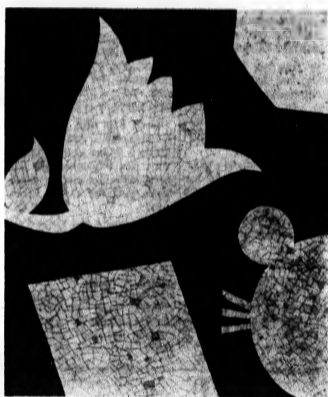

Let this dry and stand the bobby pins upright in the mug. They will always stay in place. I use a plastic mug so it is well covered with the glue. Place a loose plastic type acorn and right at your fingertips when you set your hair. — GRACE.

DEAR POLLY — I discovered a way to make the popular wraparound skirts without going to the expense of buying a new pattern.

Use your favorite skirt pattern and simply cut out two back pieces. After you sew on the belt or waistband, which will lie in the front, put a buttonhole where one of the back pieces joins the front piece to run the belt through as it goes from back to front.

To finish the skirt, hide one or two snap fasteners under the back flap. They will hold it in place. — DONNA

DEAR POLLY — My hint is for the person who has trouble controlling the intake of salt as prescribed in a diet. I filled a pepper shaker with salt and placed it beside my husband's plate. Lens salt comes through the smaller holes. — MRS. E. B.

Decorative touches for the table top can be made from leftover scraps of all-vinyl flooring simply by cutting any desired shape with scissors, and using it as a place mat says the Goodyear women's service bureau. Such pads also can be used as table protectors with flower pots or vases.

Infants Need Care for Foot Ailments

A West Virginia podiatrist warns that thousands of children born with severe foot pronation (a "rolling in" of the foot) face serious foot deformities as adults unless the condition is treated early in life.

He suggests that the same plaster casting technique that has proven so successful in correcting club foot can remedy the unnatural toeing out or in of congenital pronation.

Dr. H. Darrell Darby of Huntington, West Virginia expressed the opinion in a paper presented during a recent meeting of the American Podiatry Association.

Dr. Darby cited a statement by Dr. Fred Zeiss, an orthopedic surgeon at Loyola University School of Medicine, that "a delay of several years in initiating treatment to determine whether or not the patient will improve spontaneously is inexcusable valuable time is lost during which pliable bones may become deformed and ligaments overstretched by the stress of weight-bearing."

Songs, Fun—Part of Care

BOSTON, Mass. (AP) — To most persons visiting a hospital and hearing the voices of children singing "Ring-around-the-Rose" might sound strange.

Not so to visitors at the Boston Floating Hospital for Infants and Children. Singing and playing are a regular part of the hospital's program of care for the whole child.

Two adjoining rooms on the fifth floor of the hospital are set aside as playroom where the patients play games and participate in a wide range of nursery-school-like activities.

Linoleum Helps Stair Treads

The risers of stair treads get scuffed easily and paint won't hold up under constant wear.

If you don't want to use carpeting, try cutting strips of linoleum in the right size and shape and cementing them to the risers with special linoleum paste.

Wash them once in a while and wax just as you do linoleum floor coverings. They're easy to clean and inexpensive to replace.

In Eating Habits

Boy Will Copy Father

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE
CASE T-426: Matthew R., aged 4, is one of our grand-children.

His daddy would be fond of lima beans and one day he expressed dis- taste for them at the table.

There's after Matthew also said he didn't want any beans, though DR. CRANE he hadn't even sampled any.

But during the next few weeks, his mother tactfully "sold" him on trying some.

And soon he was eating them with gusto.

A few weeks later, when his daddy was home for dinner, they again had lima beans on the table.

When they were passed around, his daddy failed to take a helping.

But Matthew laded out a couple of spoonfuls on his own plate.

Meanwhile, he addressed his daddy as follows:

"Daddy, you better have some of these beans. For they are very good."

ADDS CLINCHER

As his father still hesitated a moment, Matthew added this clincher:

"And you know Mamma!"

Whereupon, his daddy meekly took a serving of the lima beans.

Matthew's case offers a sev- eral psychological points in the field of child psychology.

First, youngsters have no natural or innate liking for any of our foods, with the ex- ception of sugar.

So whether they will like lima beans or beefsteak, fried chicken or spinach and orange juice, will depend to a very large degree on what we psy- chologists call "conditioning."

NEW TERM

Since the Korean war, a new term has almost super- seded our technical psycho- logical word "conditioning," and the new addition to our vocabulary is "brainwashing."

In order to get a child to enjoy any new food, it thus becomes necessary to tie it in with an already developed pleasure.

If this is repeated several times, some of the original pleasure will figuratively "spill over" and paint the strange food attractively.

Since a child usually is fond of its daddy, then he should cooperate, especially during years till the child enters the teens.

Therefore, Scout leaders and other heroes may partly supplant his parents, and thus help offset their errors.

So be sure you not only in- sure your child's fondness for a wide menu, but also guar- antee him correct English vocabulary and grammar.

To do this easily, send for my booklet, "How to Tutor Your Child at Home," enclos- ing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20¢.

initiate their daddy's dialect and speech mannerisms, as well as his walk and his ideas, but they tend to follow his eating habits.

Being a good parent thus re- quires us to set a positive ex- ample, especially during years till the child enters the teens.

So be sure you not only in- sure your child's fondness for a wide menu, but also guar- antee him correct English vocabulary and grammar.

To do this easily, send for my booklet, "How to Tutor Your Child at Home," enclos- ing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20¢.

Ben Barrack
N-1144 JACKET $1.00
N-1145 SLIM SKIRT $5.50
N-1146 FLARED SKIRT $5.50

Of significant interest in this season's suit story is Ben Bar- rack's cropped-above-the-hip- bone jacket that pairs off to perfection with either the flared or the straight skirt al- lhouette.

The original model was trans- lated in cotton cord to empha- size the interesting shoulder yoke, its neckline coolly collar- less and split above the but- toned closing. The two-way skirt proposition offers a smart trav- el wardrobe with the vests skirt providing a quick refresher en- route, if the trip is lengthy, or on arrival.

Separate patterns give you the distinct advantage of order- ing different sizes for jacket and skirts if your measurements re- quire it. Suggested fabrics are plain or crosswise ribbed or striped wool, linen, cotton, rayon or silk in suiting weight. To select your correct size, use Spadea's exclusive ready - to- wear size hart.

Size 12 requires 1 1/4 yards of 54" fabric for Jacket, 1 yard of 54" fabric for Straight Skirt and 1 1/4 yards of 54" fabric for Flared Skirt. To order, state size for each pattern; send $1.00 for No. N-1144 Jacket, 50 cents for No. N-1145 Straight Skirt, and 50 cents for No. N-1146 Flared Skirt.

Add 25 cents for first class postage and special handling. Pattern Books No. 21, No. 22, No. 23, No. 24, No. 25, No. 26 and revised Duchess of Windsor are available for 50 cents each, OR any 3 for $1.25 OR all 7 for $3.00. Add 10 cents postage for each book.

Address SPADEA PAT- TERNS, Box 993, G.P.O., Dept. PX-6, New York, New York 10001.

Why Grow Old?
By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Clothes may make the man, but the figure makes the clothes when women are concerned. The most expensive stunning gown loses its punch if its wear- er has a protruding abdomen, a roll over the girdle or bulges at the thigh line.

On the other hand, the sim- plest dress looks chic if the woman who is wearing it has a good figure and lovely posture. Even if a woman is the cor- rect weight poor posture can make her look out of propor- tion and can turn a beautiful dress into a rag.

It is the figure a woman has, the way she wears her clothes and how she carries herself that make the difference.

If she does not hold herself correctly, her bust will prac- tically disappear, her waist will thicken two or three inches, her abdomen will protrude and she will probably be away- backed.

(Concerning what to wear, there are general rules for the tall woman, the short woman the fat woman and the thin one. While these rules are helpful, they sometimes get women in trouble.

WRONG METHOD

For instance, if a woman is very tall she may wear her skirt extremely short believing that this will cut her height. In- stead she looks all legs and it calls attention to her height.

The flat - chested woman may wear such extremely padded or wired brasieres that she looks distorted and not at all natural.

The very short woman may wear extremely high heels in or- der to add height to her sil- houette. She may not be able to handle these gracefully and may appear like a woman on stilts.

The tall woman may adopt the completely flat heel as her trademark and it becomes just that in the minds of others.

USE MODERATION

So, if you are above or below average height, have a flat chest of a full bosom, a long neck or a short one, use the rules with moderation and discretion. You wear your clothes. Don't let them wear you — down.

Keep keep with the styles. Be fashionable, but adapt the fashions to you in a flattering way. And remember, the fig- ure makes the clothes much more than the clothes make you!

If you would like to have my very short routine of exercise which is corrective to the most usual feminine figure defects send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for "Perfect Daily Routine," num- ber 18. Address Josephine Low- man in care of The Pontiac Press.

Fringe Benefits

Modern Potions for Golden Goddesses

By JEANMARIE ELKINS

Do you look like a golden goddess in the summer? Is your tan "seasonal"? Or is it that vicious cycle of burn-peel, burn-peel, burn-peel your lot?

Careful planning combined with some of the new skin protecting products on the market can give the lightest blonde or most brilliant red-head an even glow of healthy-looking brown.

The skin is a remarkable protective organ, despite its thickness of only 1/32 to 1/8 of an inch.

NOT ENOUGH

In the darker or non-sensitive skinned persons, this increased production will result in a tan. But for many people, insufficient melanin is produced and severe burn can result. Science has developed new products for sun worshippers. One will let you pick your own shade of tan—light, medium, or dark.

Another clear liquid dries instantly upon application and can be used safely around the eyes and lips.

Mermaids will enjoy a stainless liquid which travels easily in a plastic bottle and is waterproof.

USE LIPSTICK

Don't go without lipstick when sunbathing. Lips are delicate and lipstick is a good protection.

If your hair is tinted always wear a scarf or hat while in the sun. Bright sunlight will turn the delicate blonde shades brassy and reddish brown or brunette colors.

If you are sun sensitive remember to TAKE YOUR TAN IN SMALL DOSES.

Continuous overexposure to the sun will age the skin. One doctor writes that women who spend summers and winters lying on the beach age their skin 10, 20 or even 30 years.

USE LOTION

Always use lots of suntan lotion. After all, you baste a roast to keep it from drying out in the oven!

But the best treatment for a sunburn is still to avoid getting it.

Mrs. Obenauf at MSU Conference

Mrs. Walter Obenauf of Clark Road, Springfield Township, is attending the 37th Michigan State University Homemakers' Conference, "College Week for Women," in Lansing.

Some 1,000 women from throughout the state attend the event which provides a classes and general session to help homemakers improve the quality of living in the home, community and world.

About a third of the college students who received bachelors' and first professional degrees this year expect to go on to graduate school.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Bowers of Harrison, formerly of Milford, announce the engagement of their daughter Carolyn Ruth to Lyle James McLachlan, son of the Carlyle McLachlans of South Lapeer Road, Orion Township. She is majoring in home economics education at Michigan State University where her fiancé was a former student.

Finesse for a foyer is achieved with this delicately drawn chest and scone mirror from the distinguished new anniversary "Concerto 75" collection by Basic-Witz. Designer Sanford Wallack uses prima vera wood, accented by myrtle burl inlays in the three-drawer chest. The elongated octagonal frame of the mirror supports a pair of simple brass candleholders. Line available locally.

Wet Clean Some Stains

Drycleaners aren't completely dry. In order to provide complete professional care for your wardrobe many drycleaners have a wetcleaning service.

Usually wetcleaning isn't necessary, but some things are welcomed when they contain heavy deposits of moisture borne soil such as perspiration, beverages, fruit juices, or fabrics. These contain deeply embedded soil that cannot be removed in drycleaning, or local spotting. Likewise, garments with large stained areas.

How does wetcleaning differ from washing?

Garments are drycleaned before they are wetcleaned.

Garments are measured before wetcleaning.

Fugitive dyes/stuffs are set with special agents.

Garments are given individual treatment according to fabric construction.

Garments are hand brushed

in wetcleaning and thus not subjected to severe mechanical action as when washed.

Wash, Stretch Wool

Ten years ago, wool that could be washed in a machine without shrinking was little more than a dream. So were stretchable wool and wool with permanent creases and pleats.

Today, those dreams are realistic, according to Mary Hardy, extension agent in home economics for Oakland County.

She points out that at least three garment manufacturers are turning out shrinkproof wool apparel and others are making stretch-wool suits. What's more, the U. S. Quartermaster Corps has approved wool uniforms with permanent creases and pleats for the armed forces.

"POLYAMID" METHOD

The Agricultural Research Service (ARS), she notes, uses the "polyamid" method for shrinkproofing wool. By this process, the wool is given a very thin polyamid coating, chemically grafted to the fibers.

This coating changes fiber surfaces enough to reduce their tendency to tangle and mesh ("felt"). It also cuts down on shrinkage during turbulent washing. It adds little weight to the fabric — about 1 per cent.

Mrs. Hardy reports that ARS scientists say the treated fabric retains all the comfort, warmth and beauty of untreated wool. But it makes into easy-care garments that can be machine washed and that need only slight pressing afterward.

Teens Confused by Double Standards

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

To see the movie we'd come to see, we had to sit through the promotion trailer of another one—the kind made for the teen-age market.

Itself as about its results in out-of-wedlock pregnancy and venereal disease.

I challenge our society with a lot more than confusing sexual hypocrisy.

The fact that it produces sly behavior movies for children while it promotes sexual restraint is only one of the aspects of its confusing morality.

Their parents confuse them by having a year old "teaching" movie while at the same time they insist that the teenagers are too young to talk back to them.

TV COMMERCIALS
Television confuses them by intelligent documentaries on rat-failed shirt teenagers while at the same time it permits in derogation of the documentaries by commercials on the luxury of Miami's swimming pools.

Our scientists confuse them by inventing H-bombs while at the same time they protest their loyalty to human life by inventing antibiotics.

In a society where the split between what it says and what it does amounts to schizophrenia, the young are bound to become as confused as the grown-ups.

They will seek escape from their hypocrisy in sexual license, in defiance of restraint, in the creation of what sociologists call America's teenage "subculture."

Make 2 Spice Cakes

By JANET ODELL,
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Swedish spice cake has both spice and orange flavor. It is the sort of cake you serve in thin slices. It needs no icing. This recipe makes two loaves.

Today's cook is Mrs. John Oleson and on Thanksgiving to her for this interesting recipe.

SWEDISH SPICE CAKE
By Mrs. John Oleson

4 cups sifted flour
4 cups brown sugar
2 tablespoons cinnamon
1 tablespoon cloves
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon salt

Peel from one orange
2 eggs, beaten
2 cups milk
3 tablespoons melted shortening

Cut white membrane from orange peel, chop fine and cook in boiling water until soft.

Mix dry ingredients in bowl. Add cooked peel, Add eggs, milk and stir until blended. Add shortening.

Grease two large bread pans and sprinkle with bread crumbs. Pour in batter. Bake at 300 degrees for 1 hour or until loaves test done.

Clean Hot Plate

Wiping with a cloth dipped into hot soda is usually sufficient to wash the metal frame of a hot plate.

Banana Halves Hold Shrimp Salad

Since summertime is banana time, you might like to test your culinary skills by creating some new banana salad "spits" with this favorite yellow fruit.

Highly recommended for luncheons and light supper meals, these salads are cool, refreshing and certainly appealing to the eye.

And because bananas are melon in flavor and combine well with a wide variety of foods, there's never any difficulty in fashioning a split to please little folks' taste or that of the more sophisticated adults.

The bananas you choose should be all yellow or fully ripe... no green at the tips.

For each serving, line an individual rectangular dish with a banana leaf. Split a banana lengthwise and place one half on each side of the dish. Then, and the choice is up to you, fill the center with salad.

Ham salad, chicken salad, a fish salad... all team well with bananas.

As a starter you might like to try a curried salad split, followed by a fruit split the next time you entertain at luncheon.

Shrimp Banana Salad Split

- 2½ cup mayonnaise
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ¼ to 1 teaspoon curry powder
- Dash pepper
- 2 pounds shrimp, cooked, shelled and cleaned
- 1 cup cooked rice
- 2½ cup chopped celery
- ½ cup finely chopped onion
- 4 medium bananas, all yellow
- Romaine lettuce
- Lemon juice
- Chopped nuts

Blend mayonnaise with seasonings in bowl; add shrimp, rice, celery and onion. Toss lightly and chill. Halve bananas on lettuce-lined oblong plates with salad in center. Sprinkle nuts on top. Makes 4 servings.

Calypto Banana Salad Split

- 1 wedge watermelon (about 3 pounds)
- 1 honeydew or cantaloupe melon
- 1 pint fresh strawberries
- Romaine lettuce
- 6 large bananas, all yellow
- Lime juice
- Lime Whipped Dressing

Prepare 12 watermelon and 6 honeydew melon balls, using a number 20 ice cream scoop. Reserve 6 strawberries for garnish.

slice remainder over 6 lettuce-lined oblong plates.

Halve bananas lengthwise; brush with lime juice. Arrange banana halves on each plate with melon balls in center to resemble banana splits. Garnish with whole strawberries. Serve with Lime Whipped Dressing.

Lime Whipped Dressing

Blend 1 cup dairy sour cream with 1 tablespoon sugar, dash each; salt and nutmeg and 3 to 4 tablespoons lime juice. Fold in 1 cup heavy cream, whipped. Makes 3 cups.

Note: A ½-cup measure may be used if ice cream scoop is unavailable.

SHRIMP-BANANA SALAD—Banana salad splits challenge the imagination and skills of the creative cook. Here, a curried shrimp salad blends with the mellowness of all yellow bananas. Chicken salad or colorful canned or fresh fruits also lend themselves to this banana salad series.

And That's How It All Began

In 1905 Charles Knox, founder of Knox Gelatine, Inc., ran a cookery contest; Fannie Farmer was one of the judges.

The third prize, a sewing machine, was awarded to Mrs. John E. Cook of New Castle, Pa., who submitted a recipe she called "Perfection Salad." The recipe was widely distributed as a result of the contest and was greeted with such enthusiasm it is now considered an American classic.

Here's how to make this superb crisp salad:

- Perfection Salad
- 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
- 1½ cups water, divided
- 6 non-caloric sweetening

- tablets or equivalent
- ¼ cup vinegar
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ¾ cup finely shredded cabbage
- 1 cup diced celery
- 1 pint, chopped
- Sprinkle gelatin on ½ cup of the water to soften. Add non-caloric sweetener. Place over low heat and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Remove from heat and add remaining water, vinegar, lemon juice and salt. Chill to unbeaten egg white consistency.

Fold in cabbage, celery and pimiento. Turn into a 3 cup mold or individual molds and chill until firm. Yield: 6 servings.

Cool Drinks Made With Lemon

Each of these drinks calls for simple syrup. You merely boil a mixture of 1 cup water and 1 cup sugar for 5 minutes. Store it in your refrigerator for quick preparation of cold beverages.

Ginger Flair

Combine 1 package (12 oz.) frozen peaches, partially defrosted and drained; ¼ teaspoon nutmeg; ¼ teaspoon ginger; ¼ cup bottled lemon juice and ¼ cup simple syrup in a blender until smooth.

Pour into 4 tall glasses and fill with chilled gingerale.

Lemon Velvet

Dip two generous scoops of almond crunch ice cream (or vanilla ice cream) into a tall, chilled glass. Add ¼ cup bottled lemon juice and ¼ cup simple syrup. Fill the glass with cold gingerale.

Pineapple Chiller

Combine 1 package (12½ oz.) frozen pineapple chunks, ¼ cup bottled lemon juice, 2 tablespoons simple syrup, ¼ cup bottled lime juice, and rum flavoring in a blender.

Pour over ice cube in 4 tumblers or low-ball glasses. Garnish with pineapple spear and cherry.

Lemon Soda

Mix 2 tablespoons bottled lemon juice and 2 tablespoons simple syrup with a small amount of vanilla, chocolate or fruit ice cream.

Mix Sherbet and Juice for Foamy Beverage

When summer sizzles, refreshment is as near as your refrigerator. A 6-ounce can of frozen orange juice concentrate and a pint of orange sherbet make this delectable Orange Freeze.

Reconstitute the frozen concentrate according to can directions, combine with half the sherbet, and beat with rotary beater until foamy. Pour into 4 glasses and top with spoonfuls of the remaining sherbet.

A dash of cayenne pepper adds zest to homemade mayonnaise.

Meat Cornucopia

A cornucopia made from an ounce slice of bologna filled with 3 tablespoons of cottage cheese and served with a few raw car rot strips will give you less than 100 calories for a delicious snack.

More than two million volunteers aid the American Cancer Society in over 3,000 local units.

Search? Oh, No

To prevent searching when you heat milk, U.S. Department of Agriculture home economists suggest using moderately low, even temperature. Cover or stir the milk while heating to prevent skin formation.

More than 400,000 central air-conditioning units were sold in this country last year.

Michigan Blueberries Are Ripe

By JANET ODELL,
Pontiac Press Food Editor

There are always more new recipes for blueberries than we can ever pass on to our readers. From now until the middle of September you can get best berries which are really superb. In our first recipe blueberries go into pancakes and into a sauce that tops them. The pancakes are made with bread crumbs.

Mississippi Valley Blueberry Pancakes

1 cup dry bread crumbs
1 cup boiling water
1 cup milk
1 cup melted butter
2 eggs, well beaten
1 cup all purpose flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
2 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup fresh cultivated blueberries, washed and drained

Add bread crumbs to boiling water. Stir until well blended. Let stand for 30 minutes. Beat milk with melted butter and eggs. Beat in crumb mixture. Sift flour with baking powder, sugar and salt.

Gradually stir in dry ingredients. Beat until smooth.

Drop large spoonfuls of the batter on a hot lightly-greased griddle. Drop a few blueberries on top of each pancake. Turn pancakes when tops are covered with tiny bubbles. Brown on the other side.

Serve hot with blueberry sauce. Yield: Approximately 24 pancakes.

Blueberry Sauce

1 cup fresh cultivated blueberries
1 cup water
1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind

Wash blueberries and combine with remaining ingredients. Bring to a boil, lower flame and simmer about 10 minutes. Serve hot over pancakes. Yield: 1 1/2 cups sauce.

Lime and orange gelatin make an interesting base for a salad that can double as a dessert.

Lime Orange Blueberry Mold

1/2 cup boiling water
1 package lime-flavored gelatin

1 1/2 cups cold water
1 1/2 cups boiling water
2 packages orange-flavored gelatin
2 3-ounce packages cream cheese
1 cup heavy cream
2 cups fresh cultivated blueberries, washed and drained

Add boiling water to lime gelatin. Stir until dissolved. Stir in cold water. Blend well. Pour mixture into a 9x12 pan. Chill until firm.

Add boiling water to orange gelatin. Stir until dissolved. Whip cream cheese until soft and creamy. Gradually beat in gelatin mixture. Chill mixture until slightly thickened.

Whip cream until stiff. Fold cream and blueberries into gelatin mixture. Pour mixture over firm lime gelatin. Chill until firm. Unmold and cut into squares.

Use as a dessert or with greens as a salad. Yield: 9 3-inch squares.

Bavarian cream is a smooth rich dessert with an elegant air. At this time of year serve each little mold ringed with blueberries.

Almond Bavarian Cream

2 eggs, separated
1 cup milk
1 tablespoon (1 envelope) unflavored gelatin
1/2 cup 2 tablespoons and 1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon almond extract
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1 1/2 cups bite size shredded rice biscuits crushed to 1/2 cup
1 cup chopped toasted almonds
3 tablespoons soft butter or margarine
1 cup heavy cream, whipped

Beat egg yolks and milk together. Add gelatin, 1/2 cup sugar and salt. Beat and stir over low heat until thickened and smooth (about 10 minutes). Add almond and vanilla extract. Cool while preparing crumbs. Stir occasionally.

Combine cereal crumbs, almonds and 2 tablespoons sugar. Add butter. Mix until uniform. Press one heaping tablespoon crumb mixture into bottom of each of 6 individual molds. Beat egg white until foamy.

BLUEBERRIES AROUND THE CLOCK

Add 1/2 cup sugar gradually. Beat until whites hold a stiff peak. Fold into gelatin mixture with whipped cream. Spoon into molds. Sprinkle with remaining crumb mixture. Chill 3-4 hours until firm or overnight. Yield: 6 servings.

Dessert for those who must shut sugar can be appealing. Blueberry Coconut Parfait makes a handsome impression which does not diminish when it is tasted.

Blueberry Coconut Parfait

1/2 cup flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 eggs, well beaten
4 1/2 tablespoons sucaryl solution
2 1/2 cups skim milk scalded
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup shredded coconut

2 cups blueberries
1 tablespoon sucaryl solution

Combine flour and salt in the top of a double boiler. Add eggs and the 4 1/2 tablespoons sucaryl, stirring until smooth. Gradually add the scalded milk; cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until thick. Remove from heat, cool and add vanilla and coconut.

Sweeten blueberries with the 1 tablespoon sucaryl. Alternate layers of coconut pudding and sweetened blueberries in parfait glasses. Sprinkle top, if desired, with a little extra coconut.

Makes 6 servings. Each serving contains 141 calories, 6.3 grams protein, 4 grams fat, 19.4 grams carbohydrate. If made with sugar, each serving would contain 301 calories.

Cooked Vegetables Good in Salad

Let vegetables marinate in oil and vinegar dressing, served in crisp iceberg lettuce, take the place of a hot vegetable with summer meals. Carrots and cauliflowerettes make a handsome platter.

Cook 1 pound carrots in a marinade of 1/2 cup white wine, 1 cup water, 1/4 cup salad oil, 2 teaspoons sugar, 1 teaspoon salt and 1/2 teaspoon garlic salt. Chill in the mixture.

Meanwhile, cook 1 pound cauliflower in boiling, salted water to tender; drain, place with carrots in the marinade. Chill until serving time, turning occasionally.

Drain, place in lettuce cups. Garnish with red pimiento and chopped parsley. Serve with bottled Italian dressing.

Low-Calorie Lemon Sauce Good on Meat

A low-calorie barbecue sauce for poultry or beef is made with tomato sauce, lemon juice and seasonings.

Be sure you're barbecuing not to hurry the cooking. Keep the food far enough from the heat so that it cooks evenly without burning.

Low Calorie Barbecue Chicken

1 can (8 ounces) seasoned to-mato sauce
1 cup bottled lemon juice
1 small clove garlic, crushed
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon thyme
1/2 teaspoon poultry seasoning
1/2 teaspoon monosodium glutamate

Combine all ingredients. Use as a marinade for chicken or meat, letting stand overnight in the refrigerator. Use also as a sauce to brush on the meat while it is grilling.

Here's a neat loaf easy to make, but with excellent flavor and texture.

Combine 5 cups ground cooked ham, 2 cups a round cooked turkey, or chicken, 2 cups seasoned bread crumbs, dash of pepper, 1/4 teaspoon ground cloves, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 3 beaten eggs and 1/4 cup milk. Stir in 2 tablespoons molasses.

Shape into loaf in shallow greased pan; score top. Bake 40 minutes at 350 degrees. Combine 3 tablespoons molasses with 1 tablespoon horseradish and brush over loaf. Return to oven for 10-12 minutes. Brush loaf with rest of molasses mixture. Let stand 10 minutes before slicing. Makes 8-10 servings.

Shortcake Biscuits Coiled With Sugar

Heat oven to 400 degrees. Add 1/2 cup cream (or 1/4 cup milk plus 1/4 cup butter, melted) to 2 cups biscuit mix. Add 3 tablespoons sugar, if desired. Mix thoroughly with fork.

Knead 15 times on lightly floured surface. Roll about 1/4" thick into a 12x9" rectangle. Roll up like jelly roll. Cut 6 to 8 slices. Place on ungreased baking sheet. Spread them out so they are flat and even.

Bake 10 to 12 minutes. Serve with berries and cream. If berries have enough juice of their own, whipped cream can be used 8 to 8 servings.

Diced Nectarines Are Folded Into Pudding

Dice fresh nectarines to make 2 cups, leaving skins on. Prepare 1 package lemon flavor pie filling as package directs for filling. Remove from heat and stir in nectarines.

Turn into heat-proof dish or custard cups. Prepare meringue as package directs. Heap onto pudding. Place in 325-degree (hot) oven about 5 minutes to brown meringue.

De Menthe Frope

Into tall stemmed glass packed full. Top with a layer of creme de menthe. Serve this for a cooling appetizer or after dinner drink.

ALMOND BAVARIAN CREAM

Vegetables, Sausage Fill Big Sandwich

High wide and handsome describes the Bologna Big Boy Sandwich. It is salad and main course all in one, made to order for back porch suppers. Each layer is an appetizing combination of flavors and textures topped off with meaty slices of bologna.

Bologna is one of the most popular cold cuts. It is a favorite with those who pack a lunch. Bologna also appears on most every platter when cold meats and cheeses are served.

Bologna is made from selected cuts of beef, pork, and veal, finely chopped and delicately spiced. The meat is well cooked and given a mild hardwood smoke. It is available both by the pound and sliced.

Marinating the green beans and hard-cooking the eggs may be done early in the day and the foods stored in the refrigerator.

Even the butter-blue cheese and cream spread can be whipped up ahead of time. The sandwich layers go together quickly just before serving time.

Bologna Big Boy Sandwich

2 packages (6 ounces each) sliced bologna
10 ounce package frozen French cut green beans
2 tablespoons salad oil
1 tablespoon wine vinegar
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon basil
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 garlic clove, peeled and sliced
1/4 stick (1/4 cup) butter or margarine
1/2 cup crumbled blue cheese

2 tablespoons dairy sour cream
Lettuce
2 to 3 tomatoes, sliced
3 hard-cooked eggs, sliced
Loaf unsliced Vienna bread

Cook green beans according to directions on package. Drain. Blend green beans with salad oil, vinegar, salt, basil, pepper, and garlic. Refrigerate for several hours.

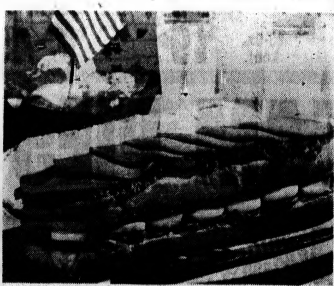

Whip together butter, blue cheese, and sour cream until smooth.

To assemble sandwich: slice bread horizontally into 3 sections. On bottom section of bread, place the marinated green beans. Cover the green beans with hard-cooked egg slices.

Arrange slices from one package of bologna on top of egg slices. Cover with second section of bread. Spread bread with 1/2 of butter mixture. Cover with lettuce leaves.

Arrange tomato slices on top of lettuce. Cover tomato with slices of bologna from second package. Spread cut surface of top section with remaining butter mixture. Place on top of sandwich.

Slice sandwich loaf into 8 sections.

BOLOGNA BIG BOY:—You probably can't get your mouth around it, but this sandwich is both main course and salad. Marinated green beans are the surprise ingredient in the bottom layer. Slices of large bologna go in both layers.

Chillest Drinks Are Most Cooling

To help keep you cool and dry your drinks icy, here are several beat-the-heat tips:

Use the coldest ice possible. This is not a play on words. Ice is formed at 32 degrees F., a relatively high temperature for cooling summer drinks. Be sure to set your refrigerator control to "summer cold," or if possible store ice cubes in the freezer. Cubes last longer if they are 6 degrees rather than the more meltable 32 degrees.

Don't use straws. Drinks are more cooling when sipped directly from the glass. Straws generally draw up the warmest part of the liquid from the bottom of the glass.

Make drinks psychologically cool. Drinks should look cool and refreshing. Serve daiquiris on the rocks with a cool-looking lime slice, or decorate your colins with a sprig of mint.

Chill mixes, sodas, liquors and glasses before using, if possible. The colder the ingredients and glassware the longer the drinks will stay cold.

When you are adding artichoke hearts (cooked frozen or canned) to a green salad, you'll find that a French dressing made with tarragon vinegar makes an excellent go-along.

PICNIC SALAD — You're never too young or too old to enjoy a picnic. Delicious food like a hearty salami noodle salad is an incentive to eat out of doors any time. You don't have to travel to a distant spot; just set up a table on the porch or in the backyard.

Noodles in a Salad Make Hearty Eating

"Let's go on a picnic" time is here. People who enjoy this warm weather activity fall into two broad groups.

There are those picnickers who like to cook and eat, both at the picnic site. The other type of picniker prefers to cook the food at home and just eat outdoors.

If you place yourself in the latter group, a menu featuring Hearty Salami Noodle Salad would be a tasty way to enjoy the picnic season. This salad, which can be made the night before, is truly hearty for it combines meat, vegetables, noodles and dairy products in one easy-to-carry dish.

Also on the menu are buttered hamburger, celery sticks and green onions, fresh fruit, butter cookies and milk. As you can see, this menu requires very little preparation at home and none at the picnic site.

To make it easy to go on a spur-of-the-moment or planned picnic, keep all the picnic gear washed and ready in one convenient spot. Correct equipment for carrying different foods will greatly simplify the packing. Milk served on a picnic should be cold—just as at home.

Be sure to include a generous-sized vacuum bottle, in which to carry milk, in your picnic supplies. A well-insulated bag will keep other cold foods fresh.

Hearty Salami Noodle Salad
1 6-ounce package sliced salami, bologna, summer sausage or ham
1 6½-ounce package wide

noodles, broken, cooked, drained and chilled (about 4 cups cooked)

3 cups thinly sliced celery
1 cup sliced unpeeled radishes
½ cup sliced green onion
½ cup coarsely chopped dill or sweet pickles

2 cups dairy sour cream (1 pint)

½ cup mayonnaise or salad dressing

1 teaspoon seasoned salt

½ teaspoon salt

½ teaspoon celery seed

Save 3 salami slices for garnish; cut remaining slices in small wedge-shaped pieces. Combine meat with remaining ingredients; mix well. Cover and chill several hours to blend flavors. Garnish with salami slices, parsley and cherry tomatoes, if desired. Makes 9 cups salad.

Add Some Goodies to Canned Macaroni
For a quick and delicious busy day supper, start with a can of macaroni with cheese sauce. In skillet, cook 6 slices bacon until crisp; drain and crumble 3 slices. Pour off all but 2 table-spoons drippings. Add ½ cup sliced celery, 2 tablespoons chopped onion, and dash leaf thyme; cook until vegetables are tender.

Add ½ cup cooked tomatoes, 1 can (15 ounces) macaroni with cheese sauce, and crumbled bacon. Heat, stirring now and then. Garnish with remaining bacon. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

Put Meat Loaf in Muffin Tins

Small, but a powerful lot of good eating, are Midget Meat Loaves. These individual loaves are baked in muffin cups, then served two to a person. A tasty garnish is baked into each "loaf" — halved olives are pressed into some, cheese cubes into the remainder.

Onion soup flavors Midget Meat Loaves, and packaged corn flake crumbs helps to extend the ground beef. Serve Midget Meat Loaves with squash, hashed brown potatoes, bread sticks and a red cabbage salad.

Midget Meat Loaves

3 cups corn flakes or ¾ cup packaged corn flake crumbs

1 ½ pounds ground beef

1 teaspoon salt

1 ½ teaspoon pepper

1 ½ cups (10 ½-oz. can) condensed onion soup

3 stuffed olives, halved

6 ¼-inch cubes Cheddar cheese

If using corn flakes, crush into fine crumbs. Mix together ground beef, corn flake crumbs, seasonings and soup. Spoon mixture into 12 ungreased 3-inch muffin cups; press lightly to shape.

Top half of meat loaves with olive halves; press cheese cubes into remainder. Bake in moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) about 20 minutes. Yield: 6 servings, 2 loaves each.

Rice cooked in cranberry juice cocktail is a flavorful accompaniment to baked chicken.

STERLING ENCLOSURE

Golden Gate Bridge Has Fatal Attraction

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Thousands of tourists snap photographs over the majestic Golden Gate Bridge every year. To them it is synonymous with San Francisco.

To San Franciscans, the rusted suspension bridge is becoming synonymous with suicide. Death leaps from the span have become so frequent that an expression — "I'm about ready for the bridge" — is a common way of expressing disgust with life.

Wednesday a soldier stopped his car on the Golden Gate span and raised the hood. Cars veered around him. He slammed the hood down, ran to the bridge's railing and leaped over to his death.

Drake E. Rogers Jr., 20, of Petaluma, Calif., described by his commanding officer as "an outstanding soldier," was the bridge's 35th known suicide.

DIED SECRETLY

There could be any number of victims who leaped in darkness and drifted to sea, never to be found.

In the 27 years since it was completed, the bridge has been a means to death for an odd assortment.

Victims include a man who leaped twice, a little girl forced to leap by her father — who followed her in a graceful dive — and a stunt man who didn't plan to die.

One young woman leaped and lived.

STRONG IMPULSE

Cornelia Van Ireland, 22 years old when she jumped on a sunny afternoon in 1941, explained that "I had an irresistible impulse to jump and suddenly I clambered over the railing and fell into space."

She plunged 235 feet and struck the waters of San Francisco bay at 80 miles an hour.

"I know I prayed, but I had no sensation of falling. I don't remember when I hit the water, but I know I was conscious every moment," said Miss Van Ireland, who recovered from multiple injuries and later married.

Others have leaped because of unrequited love, financial or marital troubles, illness and possibly schizophrenia — the fear of heights.

SIMPLE MATTER

Dr. B. L. Hayakawa of Mill Valley, Calif., noted authority on general semantics, once said the choice of a bridge for a suicide may be a simple matter of aesthetics.

"The fact that suicide is many times more frequent off the Golden Gate Bridge, while almost unthinkable off the ugly Richmond-San Rafael Bridge, is a comment on both the aesthetics and psychology of suicide," Dr. Hayakawa said.

An Oakland psychiatrist said: "The Golden Gate provides a more powerful setting for the final act of a man's life. When someone jumps from it he is, in a way, joining all those who went before him."

A California Highway Patrol officer assigned to the bridge thinks it is popular for suicides "because of its convenience, notoriety and glamour."

Why hasn't something been done to discourage, or prevent, the jumpers? The solution isn't simple, bridge authorities point out, mostly because of wind resistance and a desire not to clutter the lines of classic structure.

Week Named to Honor

Miss Michigan Fete

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George W. Romney has proclaimed July 26-31 as Miss Michigan Pageant Week to recognize the annual pageant held at Muskegon to select the Michigan entry for the Miss America contest.

Michigan had a national winner in Nancy Anne Fleming in 1960.

MANY TOOK PLUNGE — This view near the center span of San Francisco's Golden Gate Bridge is the last thing many people have seen. Yesterday's suicide brought the total of persons who have leaped and died from the famous bridge to 35 since 1937.

Study Flight of Space Glider

Second Launch Team Prepares Moon Shot

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—While experts assessed the results of a successful space glider test, another launch team today prepared the Ranger 7 spacecraft for a shot at the moon on Monday.

A delta-winged Project Ascent craft, survived a fiery 12,000-mile an hour ballistic flight from Cape Kennedy Wednesday in a test of materials for maneuverable manned vehicles of the future.

After the scorching 25-minute dive through the atmosphere, Ascent parachuted into the Atlantic Ocean about 1,650 miles southeast of here and was kept afloat by inflatable bags.

Four paratroopers from the Air Rescue Service jumped into the sea and secured the craft from a recovery ship. Then they climbed into air-dropped life rafts and baby-sat with the payload for nearly 10 hours until the range vessel Coastal Sentry reached the scene.

TO STUDY CRAFT

The winged craft will be flown later this week to the McDonnell Aircraft Co., St. Louis, for study by the engineers who developed it.

Ranger 7 is intended to make a 68-hour, quarter-million-mile journey to the moon to snap several thousand closeup pictures for the Apollo man-to-the-moon project.

Officials hope Ranger 7 will provide the United States with its first moon launching success. This nation has tried and failed 12 times since 1958 to send unmanned spacecraft around, near or to the moon.

Ranger 6, launched last Jan. 30 hit the moon but its six television cameras failed in the final minutes.

TO TELETYPE GAMES

In another space development, the Communications Satellite Corp. announced plans Wednesday to televise the Olympic games in Japan Oct. 10-24 to the United States and Canada via the Syncom 3 satellite, which is scheduled for launching from Cape Kennedy on Aug. 18.

Italy Heat Wave Over

ROME (AP)—Storms and showers brought relief to much of Italy today after a nine-day heat wave that was the country's hottest in 50 years. At least 17 weather deaths were recorded in the last two days.

Cong Ambushes Worry U.S.

SAIGON (AP) — A rising rate of successful Communist ambushes depressed U. S. military advisers today. A high American officer forecast bitterly they will continue until Vietnamese troops learn to post security patrols every time they move.

"We're bogging, we're pleading, we're reminding them," the officer said.

"We're cajoling, we cry, we sit up out in fury, we do everything, we bring them ice cream. But we haven't succeeded."

Communist military activity has reached its highest level since the peak of a red offensive last November and Vietnamese troops still are falling prey to roadside bushwhackers.

Latest in a series of Viet Cong victories-by-ambush was a battle Tuesday in Chung Thien Province, near Viet Nam's southern tip.

KILLED 28
Disciplined, black-garbed Communist soldiers killed at least 25 government troops, wounded more than 100 and are presumed to have captured 135 who are missing.

Casualties included a U. S. Army sergeant, listed as a prisoner of the Viet Cong, and a U. S. Army captain, wounded in the left knee and shoulder, who is hospitalized in Saigon.

Neither has been officially identified.

U. S. spokesman said Communist military activity reached the highest level of the year last week, with a total of 920 incidents ranging from one-man forays upward.

NEW RECORD
At the same time the U. S. casualty rate reached a new weekly record — four killed and 27 wounded.

Since 1961 a total of 158 Americans have been killed in combat here.

Government forces claimed an all-time high for the week of 13,100 unit operations. But only 110 of these involved contact with the enemy.

While the chief activity centered south of Saigon in and below the Mekong Delta, two developments drew attention to the north:

• Air Commodore Nguyen

Cao Ky, commander of the South Viet Nam Air Force, announced his pilots are dropping sabotage bombs over Communist North Viet Nam.

In a talk with newsmen, the dapper mustachioed officer advocated bombing of that source of Viet Cong recruits and supplies, even though he felt Red China probably would move in.

He said "The time is ripe."

A U. S. spokesman, usually wary about disclosing military moves in advance, announced a fleet of U. S. Air Force C130 turboprop transport, newly arrived from Japan, will ferry 400 Vietnamese troops today from Saigon to Hue.

Hue is only about 40 miles south of the Communist North Vietnamese frontier.

The spokesman said he did not know the purpose of the airlift, but noted there is a Vietnamese training camp in the area.

ern Spain, where he is affectionately termed "The gypsy from New York."

COOL SENSATION
Greco's kind of dancing has been a sensation for the past dozen years wherever he has toured, and that includes most countries of North and South America and Europe, this side of the Iron Curtain.

As soon as he finishes "Ship of Fools," he takes his company to South Africa.

Flamenco dancing has been around for a long time, but it took Jose Greco to make it really pay; his annual gross: a half-million dollars.

He was born in Montorio, Italy, to an Italian father and Spanish mother, and spent his years from 7 to 10 with his mother's family in Seville. There he picked up his feet for flamenco.

"But the important factor came after I moved to Brooklyn when I was 10," he said. "For six years I was a runner for ticket scalpers along Broadway. I got to see all the shows free. I studied what audiences enjoyed, how timing and production values could keep their attention."

Greco now travels most of the year, maintaining an apartment in Madrid and a villa in southern Spain.

Reds Retake Hill in Laos

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Communist forces reoccupied Phou Kout Hill Wednesday night, routing neutralist troops from the strategic point 20 miles west of the Plain des Jarres.

A neutralist spokesman said the Pathet Lao retook three peaks of the 4,200-foot hill, but neutralist forces which captured it Tuesday still held positions at the foot.

The spokesman said 3 neutralists were killed and 12 wounded in the skirmish.

Phou Kout has changed hands four times during the past two months. It overlooks the main east-west road leading to the Communist-held Plain des Jarres, 110 miles northeast of Vientiane, to the north-south road between Vientiane and Luang Prabang, the royal capital.

Bandit Flees on Bike as Victim Screams

BRIDGEPORT, Conn. (AP)—A would-be bandit wearing a black bandana over his face pulled a pistol on service station owner Patrick Kennedy Wednesday night.

Police said Kennedy screamed for help and the gunman fled on a bicycle.

King Firmly Denies Reds in Rights Drive

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI) — Dr. Martin Luther King, who vigorously denied last night that the civil rights struggle has been infiltrated by Communist sympathizers, goes to Vicksburg today in his five-day tour through troubled Mississippi.

Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., said on the Senate floor yesterday that several persons involved in the Mississippi civil rights drive are pro-Communist.

King answered the charge before the largest audience he had drawn so far in his tour through the state. He told about 2,000 Negroes and a few whites that he is "rich and tired of people saying this movement has been infiltrated by Communists and Communist sympathizers."

His voice rising, King shouted, "There are as many Communists in this freedom movement as there are Eskimos in Florida."

King again urged Negroes to reject the presidential aspirations of Republican nominee Barry Goldwater and support President Johnson under the banner of the Freedom Democratic Party (FDP), which hopes to be seated at the Democratic National Convention in the place of a regular Democratic delegation from Mississippi.

REGULAR PARTY

King said the regular Democratic party in the state "is the party in Mississippi that perpetuates lynching and police brutality."

Some regular Democrats in Mississippi have said they will support Goldwater.

Bringing his speech to a climax, King told the cheering audience that "with faith we will be able to speed up the day when we will be able to say 'free at last, free at last. Thank God almighty, free at last.'"

Hayard Rustin, the organizer of the 1963 civil rights march in Washington, made a surprise appearance at the rally and spoke briefly of the uprising in Harlem.

"RACIAL HELL"

He said the people of New York "are now beginning to understand the meaning of racial hell."

He described what he called incidents of police brutality in Harlem and criticized Eastland for fighting mediocre, administration's poverty program and federal aid to education. Rustin also urged Negroes to support the FDP.

The Rev. Ralph Abernathy, secretary of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference which King heads, brought the rally to an emotional pitch with an impassioned speech aimed at raising funds for the FDP.

"I am glad to come down here in Egypt land and say to the pharaohs like Eastland 'let my people go,'" he boomed. "It won't be long until we reach the promised land."

"We are going to fight like hell," he shouted. And then in an aside he asked "Did you get that down, Mr. President?"

The crowd laughed.

"I want you to give this movement the price of a good fifth of Scotch," Abernathy said. Within a few minutes, the audience had contributed $1,200 to the new party.

3 Republicans Eye Hart's Job

LANSING (AP) — Incumbent U. S. Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., is unopposed in the Sept. 1 primary but three Republicans will fight it out for the right to meet him in the Nov. 3 general election.

Nominating petitions were filed by Republicans James O'Neill, of Livonia, Mrs. Elly Peterson, of Charlotte, and Edward Meany Jr. of Grand Haven. O'Neill is a Ford Motor Co. employee who has served as a Republican member of the State Board of Education. Mrs. Peterson retired as assistant to the national GOP chairman and as national director of women's activities for the GOP last week. Meany is former sales and promotion manager of a leather company in Grand Haven.

Piggyback railroad carloadings rose from 700,000 in 1962 to 800,000 last year.

Rochester Swimmers Win in Novice Meet

Four Rochester youngsters won events in the 8th annual novice swim meet held at Low or Huron Metro park yesterday. Kit Crowe, swimming in the 13-14 year old group won first places in the 40 backstroke and 40 yard freestyle. Eric Sawhill was 40 breaststroke winner in 8-10 age group and Christopher Jacques was winner in the boys 8-10 age group in the 40 yard breaststroke. Sue Leland was 2nd in the 40 yard backstroke.

Chris Schriedel of Burnham was 2nd in the 40 freestyle for 8-10 year old boys.

DIVE AHEAD—Lumpie Ken Burkhardt dives out of the way as San Francisco's Tom Haller (5) rolls across the plate after being tagged out by Cubs' catcher Dick Bertell.

Foreign Players Ousted in U.S. Tennis Tourney

HAVERTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Chuck McKinley, the No. 1 U.S. tennis player, led wholesale advance of Americans in the men's singles competition at the Pennsylvania Lawn Tennis Championships Wednesday, sweeping aside all foreign competition, as the field was narrowed down to eight.

Defending champion McKinley, of San Antonio, Tex., in advancing to the quarter-final round, was extended to 3-6, 6-2 in a tough 65-minute match with Hay Moore, South African junior champion.

IMPRESSIVE

Impressive in his victory was Dennis Hailston, of Bakersfield, Calif., McKinley's Davis Cup teammate, who disposed of William Lenoir of Tucson, Ariz., 6-1, 9-7.

Hailston, second-seeded in the tournament, met former National Junior champion Charles Pasarell today.

Pasarell ousted Patricia Rodriguez of Chile, 6-1, 6-2, to advance to the quarter-finals.

Third-seeded Frank Froehling of Coral Gables, Fla., also advanced to the quarter-finals, overcoming Blais Harrison of Richmond, Va., 6-3, 6-2.

Other top-seeded players among the eight survivors in the tournament are Eugene Scott of St. James, N.Y., who beat David Sanderlin of El Cajon, Calif., 6-3, 9-7, and Arthur Ashe of Richmond, Va., who rallied to defeat Clark Graebner of Shaker Heights, Ohio, 5-7, 6-4, 6-4.

In the women's division, second-seeded Mrs. Karen Hantze Susman of San Diego, Calif., reached the quarter-final round with a 6-3, 6-4 victory over Carol Loop of Arcadia, Calif.

WATER SKI TRICKS and TREATS

By DIKIE ANN HOYT
National Girls
Water Skiing Champion
Written for NEA

The urge to excel in sports and the desire to show-off are inherent and universal.

The little boy who falls off a limb usually is not only striving to improve his tree-climbing technique but he also is trying to impress the girl next door who is showing off in her mother's high heels.

Almost without exception, as soon as a water skier masters the basics of this uncomplicated sport the deep-rooted twin urges take over.

The skier wants to do tricks which not only are spectacular but also offer the thrill of accomplishment over and above the satisfaction of performing routine maneuvers.

Even the most complicated and impressive tricks can be learned by the average skier who goes about it properly.

While tricks must be fun, like everything else worth while in sports they can be mastered only by a great desire to excel and intense concentration.

The mind plays almost as large a part as the body in doing ski tricks. You must think all the time, especially until you have the specific trick you are working on completely mastered.

After a spill — and you will have them — analyze your performance to find out why you failed before trying again. The more you think, the fewer spills you will have.

All of a sudden, you'll find you have mastered the trick you were working on and its performance after that becomes more or less matter-of-fact, the motions automatic.

The secret will then be locked in your subconscious mind and you can move along to the next trick you wish to add to your repertoire.

WHY BE TRICKY?

Single Handed Sailing on East Coast State

MARION, Mass. (AP) — The North American single handed sailing championship competition opens Friday in the waters between Marion and Buzzards Bay.

Twenty five monotype class boats from the country and Canada are competing and the first five finishers qualify for the pre-Olympic competition in California next month.

Last year's champion, Henry Sprague of Long Beach, Calif., did not qualify in the sectional eliminations.

The United States Coast Guard will observe its 175th anniversary in 1965.

'Cats' to Hold Championships at Cass Lake

3-Day Races Start Friday

The newest sailboat to hit competitive waters, the Catamaran, will be seen in full force at Cass Lake this weekend for the Shearwater North American Sailing Championships.

A total of 35 boats from throughout the country are expected to compete in the three-day races which will begin with tautog on Friday.

Two races are scheduled for Friday and two for Saturday with the final race set for Sunday morning.

The Cass Lake Shearwater Yacht Club is hosting the twin-hulled sail fleet.

Defending the title he won at Washington, D.C., last year, Ken Dunlap of Cocoa Beach, Fla., will be entered here.

Toughest competition for Dunlap is expected to come Ed Black of Pontiac. Two weeks ago, Black won the national "One-of-a-Kind" Catamaran championship at Erie, Pa., with his English-built "Cat."

Last year at Washington he finished a close second to Dunlap.

Because of its twin-hulled design, the Shearwater is considered as one of the fastest sailboats made.

The boats have been known to go in excess of 30 miles per hour.

The Shearwater Cats carry 255 square feet of sail area and have fiberglass hulls with plywood decking.

TUNE UP — The Shearwater Catamarans will sail in the National Championships at Cass Lake this weekend and Holland and Pat Heider of Pontiac give their "Cat" a tuneup. Heider leads the Cass Lake fleet in local races this summer.

Repaired Sloop Sails

HOLLAND — Following repairs to her storm-damaged spar and rudder, the 12-meter sloop Mitena left here Wednesday night for her third attempt at winning the Chicago to Mackinac sailing race.

Charles S. Mitena, one of five Grand Rapids businessmen who own the Mitena, was elected captain for the 57th annual classic.

Withey, one of five Grand Rapids businessmen who own the Mitena, was elected captain for the 57th annual classic.

Your boat registration number should be readable at a distance of at least 100 feet.

Rookie Play

AFL Jets Stirring

PEERSKILL, N.Y. — When San Diego Chargers, as the 51 Bill Mathis, New York Jets half back, turned in last line for a Wednesday morning, Coach Weir E. Whelan praised the guards who cleared the way.

MacGillivray, with San Diego for four years, was played on the water by the Chargers.

Edmund mentioned the three veterans Dan Fieca, Sam DeLuca and Pete Perreault as well as rookies Dave Herman of Memphis State, Bill Scott of Memphis State and Bernie Carney of West Virginia.

Herman and Perreault will start Friday's rookie game with the Boston Patriots at Lynn, Mass.

AFL NOTES

Lionel Taylor, top pass receiver in the American Football League, arrived at the Denver Broncos' camp Wednesday and promptly signed his contract.

Teammate, voted him the most valuable player on the team when the past season ended.

Brillie Hon Burton, the Boston Patriots' premier half back, is delighting Coach Mike Holovak in pre-season workouts.

Burton, who was sidelined for the Patriots' entire regular 1963 American Football League campaign, is reported completely recovered from the knee operation necessitated by a pre-season injury.

The Buffalo Bills tied a claim Wednesday on Paul McGaughey, linebacker and punter for the

Mailmen's Slowdown Is Tying Up England

LONDON (AP)—The phone bill fails to come on time—the old soldier's pension arrives five days late—that's not so jolly.

This is the sort of situation that has plagued 36 million Britons for two weeks because of a mailmen's slowdown. Now union leaders have ordered the 120,000 mailmen to strike at midnight Saturday and to stay off the job until the government meets their wage demands.

Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home called an emergency cabinet meeting today, seeking to avert the crisis. Britain has not had a postal strike of such a scale in this century.

Already 45 million letters are piled up unsorted in London and other major centers. Some are the lifeline of the commercial, manufacturing nation—export orders, specifications, urgently needed instructions.

Industry is being slowly choked to death—a helpless witness.

Mayor Assigned to Wagner Committee

Pontiac Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. has been appointed to the American Municipal Association's (AMA) committee on portability committee by Rodon Mayor John F. Collins, AMA president.

The committee, chaired by New York Mayor Robert F. Wagner, will meet in Miami this Saturday in conjunction with the 10th annual AMA Congress, July 25-28.

Taylor plans to participate in Saturday's meeting.

The committee is scheduled to review the AMA's 1964 national policy on area redevelopment and juvenile delinquency control and to consider new proposals for alleviating poverty.

Six of Pontiac's seven city commissioners and City Manager John P. Heinick are slated to leave tomorrow to attend the Congress.

Commissioner Kenneth S. Wellman is hospitalized and cannot attend. Traditionally, commissioners miss one meeting each year to attend the AMA event. Thus, there will be no City Commission meeting next Tuesday, July 28.

Mail order firms are laying off workers. Bookies who operate through the mails—legal in Britain—are losing business fast.

Thousands of government pensioners are short of money without their weekly checks.

In some towns it is impossible to use a public phone because coin boxes, normally emptied by postmen, are full.

In most of southern England, long distance calls are limited to six minutes. People are switching to phones instead of using the mails.

The mailmen—sorters, drivers and the blue-uniformed postmen who plod the streets—demand a 10 per cent increase in basic wages averaging $35.00 a week.

They staked their claim in January. The government offer to be determined after an inquiry finishes comparing post office wages with jobs in industry.

KEEP WORKING
Ron Smith, leader of the Union of Postal Workers said telegraphers, telephone operators and courier clerks will keep working for the time being.

"We are holding them in reserve and can call them out later if necessary," he said.

The Conservative Daily Telegraph commented:

"Whatever justice there may be in the postmen's claims—and it has always been conceded that there is a degree of justice in them—the vast damage done to the country's prosperity by such a strike as this must be mitigated."

"The postmen must know," said the pro-labor Daily Mirror, "that no government can possibly give in to an ultimatum of this kind. It is a national crisis which is building up."

Noted Minister Dies

POMONA, Calif. (AP)—Dr. L. Wendell Filfield, 73, a native of Benton Harbor, Mich., and a Congregational minister known nationally through his church, died Tuesday of a cerebral hemorrhage.

Philly Republican Dies

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Wilbur Hamilton, 54, former Republican city chairman and a power in his party in Pennsylvania for many years, died Wednesday of an apparent heart seizure.

2 Restaurant Owners Claim Fear of Reprisals

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Two St. Augustine restaurant owners have testified in U.S. District Court that they turned away Negroes because they feared reprisals.

Louis S. Connell, owner of the Santa Maria, told Judge Bryan Simpson yesterday that one day he watched a group of Negroes approach his restaurant from one direction and a group of whites from another.

"I was scared, I don't mind telling you," he said.

He said he looked the door. Later, he opened it and let the Negroes in, but his waitress refused to serve them, he said.

One of the Negroes, Willie Bolden, said the whites hit him and a white companion as they walked away from the restaurant.

FIRST SUIT

Connell and Russell R. Allen, another restaurant owner, are defendants in the first Florida suits under the Civil Rights Act.

Similar suits involving 19 other St. Augustine businesses are scheduled for trial next Tuesday.

Most motels and restaurants were integrated in the first week after the Civil Rights Act was signed but white segregationists began picketing, and proprietors closed their doors to Negroes again.

Allen said he refused to serve Negroes at his restaurant.

Bully's, and also at his father's restaurant because he was worried about losing business. He said he also feared violence.

Allen said that after refusing to serve a mixed group at his father's restaurant, he got in his car and chased two white men he had seen earlier with Negroes. He said he hit one of the whites when he caught them.

U.S. 'Rule' Over—De Gaulle

Mayor's Plea Fails to Halt NY Rioting

NEW YORK (AP)—Negro rioting and looting and police gunfire erupted again during the night despite a broadcast by Mayor Robert F. Wagner for peace and order.

Police shot and wounded three Negroes and arrested 122 in the Bedford-Stuyvesant section of Brooklyn, in the fifth straight night of disorders in the city.

Police said about 200 store windows were smashed during the night in the section, raising the total to nearly 500 in the city.

The trouble broke out in Harlem Saturday night after a white police lieutenant fatally shot a 15-year-old Negro boy last Thursday.

The lieutenant said the youth was coming at him with a knife. The disorders have centered for the past two nights in the predominantly Negro Bedford-Stuyvesant district of Brooklyn.

Wagner, who cut short a European trip, went on radio and television and said continued disorders could set back Negro and civil rights programs for half a century.

Wagner said news of the disorders had damaged the city's tourist trade but that none of 4 million visitors in the past three months, including 150,000 Shriners now holding their convention here, had been attacked.

OUTSIDE AREA
The visitors circulate largely in the midtown area, visiting such sight-seeing attractions as the United Nations and Rockefeller Center, and the World's Fair in Queens—well outside the trouble areas.

Nevertheless, the Hotel Association of New York said that almost 500 reservations had been canceled in the past three days as a result of the violence.

Some 150 Negro leaders in a rare display of unity among their various factions demanded (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Atlanta Men Plan Appeal to High Court

ATLANTA (AP)—The public accommodations section of the Civil Rights Act—probably the most controversial part of the recently enacted law—has been upheld by a three-judge federal court.

But the decision is going to be appealed immediately to the U.S. Supreme Court.

The panel singled out the public accommodations section yesterday in ruling against owners of a restaurant and a motel. Both had sought to void the law, and both said they are preparing appeals.

"I think justice will prevail and we will be given a favorable verdict by the Supreme Court," said Lester Maddox, proprietor of the Pickwick Restaurant.

Morgan Holliston Jr., head of the Heart of Atlanta Motel, said he would appeal immediately.

THE MEN commented yesterday shortly after the judges issued injunctions against their establishments in the first two court tests of the new law.

The effective date of the injunctions was delayed until Aug. 11 to allow time for appeals.

Holliston filed suit against the government to block enforcement of the law within two hours after it was signed on July 2 by President Johnson.

Maddox was sued by three Negroes he chased from his restaurant at gunpoint on July 3. The Negroes later were joined by the Justice Department.

Both suits questioned the constitutionality of the public accommodations sections of the law.

BASIC ARGUMENT
Basic arguments in each case hinge on whether Congress had constitutional authority to enact the law. The court disposed of this issue before ruling on the law's application.

The decisions were handed down by Chief Justice Earl Warren, the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, and District Judges Lewis R. Morgan and Frank A. Hooper.

Added to the primary battles for the 15th State Senate District in the southeast part of Oakland County was Reno Varani, 1910 Nadel, Southfield.

County Clerk-Register David R. Calhoun upheld Varani's contention that although he was a minute late in entering the elections clerk's department, he was inside the Clerk's outer office at the lawful 5 p.m. filing deadline.

The names of two attorneys have been added to the list of candidates running in the new Court of Appeals 2nd District, which includes Oakland County.

TWO CANDIDATES
They are Donald Sergeant of Pleasant Ridge and Thomas K. Manigault of Birmingham. This brings the number of contestants for three district judgeships to 14.

Added to the 1st Appeals District (Detroit) were Lee McManis and Harry Dringman. Included in the 3rd District was Maurice Black of Saginaw. Total number of appellate candidates throughout the state is 31.

AT COURTHOUSE — Dr. Samuel Sheppard leaves Summit County Courthouse in Akron, Ohio, after a hearing yesterday before a three-judge panel of federal jurists.

He was permitted to stay free on $10,000 bond until an order granting his release from prison can be argued on its merits.

Wins Round in Court

Dr. Sam Can Stay Free on Bail

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Dr. Samuel Sheppard won a new round yesterday when a three-judge federal panel of the 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals held his $10,000 bond—and his freedom—were valid until the court could decide if the U.S. District Court order for his release would stand.

The court is not scheduled to meet again until October and there was no indication that earlier action would be possible.

Dr. Sam, central figure in one of the nation's most publicized murder cases, headed with his new wife to their Cleveland home to wait until the legal smoke cleared.

His attorney, F. Lee Bailey of Boston, said: "I don't think this case will ever be retried."

FREED WEEK AGO
Sheppard, convicted of second-degree murder in the 1954 budgeon slaying of his pregnant wife, Marilyn, was freed from Ohio Penitentiary a week ago, after U.S. Dist. Judge Carl Weinman of Dayton ruled he had not received a fair trial.

Presiding Judge Paul O. Weick of Akron said the appellate court would not void Judge Weinman's granting of bail but would modify it.

He said the granting of bail was at the discretion of Judge Weinman.

Weick added that the panel would stay the habeas corpus writ until it could rule on the merits of it. He said the court would act "at an early date."

NEW TANGLE
This amounted to freedom for Sheppard and threw the case into a new legal tangle that could reach the U.S. Supreme Court.

Before reading his decision, Judge Weick warned the crowded, steamy courtroom he would allow no demonstrations.

When he finished speaking, Sheppard turned to his bride of five days, the former Ariane Tebbenjohanns, and embraced her. "Honey," she said, "we got it."

States Rights Amendment Boosts Poverty Bill Drive

WASHINGTON (AP)—Administration leaders drove for Senate passage of President Johnson's $962.5-million anti-poverty bill today after accepting a state's rights amendment they hoped would pick up support from Southern Democrats.

The bill has come under heavy attack from Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, the Republican presidential nominee. He has called it a backward-looking hedgepodge with "the single objective of securing votes."

Goldwater was not on hand when the Senate opened debate on the bill yesterday. The fight against it was led by Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., who had joined Goldwater earlier in denouncing the measure in a minority report from the Labor Committee.

The extent, if any, to which Goldwater was going to mix in the debate was uncertain.

He was to return to the Senate chamber today for the first time since his nomination and his GOP colleagues planned a round of welcoming speeches.

Under an agreement reached yesterday to limit debate on the bill and its amendments, Democratic leaders expressed confidence the measure would be passed and sent to the House late in the day.

One move bolstering their hopes was the approval by voice vote of an amendment by Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., to prohibit the establishment of youth camps in any state without the consent of that state's governor.

A major feature of the legislation is authority to establish a job corps to provide education, work experience and vocational training for young people age 16 to 21, in conservation camps and residential centers.

An enrollment of 40,000 is planned for the first year with 100,000 the next.

Sen. Pat McNamara, D-Mich., floor manager of the bill, said he was willing with "some reluctance" to accept Smathers' amendment.

Says Europe Able to Guide Own Destiny

French Chief Cites Similar Development Within Red Bloc

PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle asserted today that "things have changed" and the United States no longer directly or indirectly runs the affairs of the Western world.

Speaking in a packed news palace under the glare of television and newsprint lights, the president sharply declined the postwar era of U.S. dominance in the West he ended.

"New Europe," he said, "has emerged as an entity capable of living its own life, because it is full of its own values and means."

The president said a similar development is taking place in the Eastern world, too, in the quarrel between Moscow and Peking.

"The Soviet empire, which is the greatest and last colonial power of our times, has seen its domination of the vast areas of Asia challenged first of all by the Chinese," he said.

PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle today proposed a four-power parity for the settlement of the Vietnamese conflict and the future status of the whole Indochinese Peninsula.

At the same time, the Communist regime is suffering a setback in its standard of living as compared with that of the West.

Wearing his usual dark grey double-breasted suit, the president emerged from behind a red velvet curtain promptly at 3 p.m.

The hall already was crammed with newsmen and French officials.

As one side of de Gaulle on a rostrum was the Cabinet and on the other a group of palace officials.

Called for QUESTIONS
As usual, de Gaulle called for questions, groped them under topics for his replies, and then launched into a long statement.

He spent the first few moments on internal French matters (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

Deny Suit Dismissal

Oakland County Circuit Court Judge Philip Pratt today denied motions to dismiss a suit contesting the election of City Commissioner Emmett S. Wellbaum.

The comprehensive ruling, in effect, narrowed the suit down to questions of alleged fraud and misconduct on the part of some election officials and to the legality of a write-in candidate under provisions of a City Charter amendment adopted by voters in January.

Thus, the judge cleared the way for these issues to be brought to trial. No date has been set for a pretrial hearing.

The suit, filed by Robert A. Landry, former mayor, charged Wellbaum's election as four points, two of which are the alleged election irregularities and charter amendment issues.

The other two issues alleged that the recount of votes cast April 20 for District 7 candidates was "improperly and illegally conducted," and that "the geographical districting of the City of Pontiac is unconstitutional."

Judge Pratt dismissed both of these issues.

WRITE-IN WINS
Wellbaum, 58, of 289 Seward campaigned as a write-in candidate and defeated Landry, the incumbent, and Curtis Webb, the nominee who opposed Landry on the ballot.

MAMMOTH TANK — Construction on the frame of this 6-million-gallon ground storage tank near Macedonia Lake is slated for completion tomorrow with metal sheeting scheduled to begin Monday. The tank, 100 feet across, is the largest of the three storage tanks being built in conjunction with Waterford's central water system. A 4-million-gallon elevated tank is being built at Main and Walton and a 1.5-million-gallon elevated storage facility is under construction on Cass Lake Road south of Pontiac Lake Road.

Fear Mounts as Congo Rebels Make Gains

ELIZABETHTOWN, the Congo (AP) — Appeals to evacuate whites from the revolt-torn eastern Congo mounted today following reports of new rebel gains.

One message from Belgian companies in the mining center of Bunia asked Congo authorities to evacuate 15 women and 18 children as soon as possible. Kindu, capital of Maniema District in the eastern Congo, fell to rebel forces Wednesday. It was reported that 100 whites were asking to be evacuated.

Premier Moise Tshombe flew to Bukavu, capital of neighboring Kivu Province, to carry on his campaign for national reconciliation.

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Premier Khrushchev flew back to the Soviet Union today after a two-day visit to Warsaw for the celebration of the 20th anniversary of Poland's Communist regime.

Police Communist party chief Wladyslaw Gomulka kissed the Soviet leader three times on the cheeks at the airport but there were no farewell speeches.

East German Communist leader Walter Ulbricht and Czechoslovak President Antonin Novotny also attended the anniversary celebration.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — The War Ministry has confirmed documents published by the news magazine O Cruzeiro showing that a brother-in-law of ex-President Joao Goulart received some $5 million from Fidel Castro to finance a revolt in Brazil.

The documents said Leonel Brizola, a former member of Congress who fled to Uruguay with Goulart after the rightist military coup last April, was promised $10 million in all by the Cuban prime minister.

Brizola, a controversial figure in Brazilian politics, was formerly governor of Goulart's home state, Rio Grande do Sul.

The Brazilian Congress gave final approval Wednesday to a constitutional amendment extending interim President Humberto Castello Branco's term an extra year, until March 15, 1967.

LONDON (AP) — George Lawson, a Laborite member of Parliament, complained Wednesday that the British welfare state values calves more than children.

The House of Commons was debating subsidies for Scottish hill farmers. Lawson observed that the farmer gets $56 from the government when a cow calves but only $44.80 when his wife has a baby.

James Stodart, undersecretary of state for Scotland, replied: "The conditions of birth on a Scottish mountaineer are considerably more uncomfortable."

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — The national police reported today that 48 persons have been killed and 33 injured as a result of heavy rainstorms and lightning across South Korea in the past 12 days. Nearly 20 inches of rain fell in Seoul during the period.

City Takes Children on Zoo Outing

Some 325 youngsters piled into five buses at City Hall today and the annual Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department's Zoo Trip was on the road.

The children, accompanied by about 25 department employees, left around 12:30 for an afternoon at Detroit Zoological Park.

They were expected to return about 4:45. Youngsters from 7 through 15 years of age took part in the event. All 22 city playgrounds in this year's summer program were represented.

For a fee of 75 cents, each youngster got transportation to and from the park, a ride on the zoo's train and admittance to the chimpanzee show.

FAT OVERWEIGHT

Available to you without a doctor's prescription, the CORINEX plan. You must first sign up for or your doctor's name. One of the basic problems of losing weight is your inability to stick to a planned diet. The CORINEX plan contains a "key" tablet and is easily swallowed. When you take CORINEX, you simply don't have the urge for extra portions because CORINEX depresses your appetite and decreases your desire for food thus making it easier and more comfortable for you to diet. Your weight must come down because as your own doctor will tell you, when you eat less, you weigh less. Get rid of excess fat and live longer. Of course CORINEX can't do all the work for you alone. But if you really want to cut down on your eating, and lose weight CORINEX can be a powerful helper. The CORINEX plan costs $2.00 and it is sold on this guarantee: if not satisfied for any reason, return the package to your druggist and get your full money back. No questions asked. BUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP) — If the Indonesians attack membership in the Anzus Pact, New Zealand and the United States will be obliged to help them because of their membership in the Anzus Pact, Prime Minister Keith Holyoake said today. Holyoake added this step would be taken only after full consideration and "due constitutional procedures."

He said New Zealand has 17,000 troops in Southeast Asia but there is no thought at this stage of committing them to any combat role in South Viet Nam or Malaysia.

READY FOR CUE — Famed pianist Van Cliburn winds a baton at rehearsal of the Interlochen Youth Symphony yesterday while Luci Baines Johnson stands ready with the script of "Peter and the Wolf." The President's daughter will recite the fairy tale at tonight's performance at the music camp.

at Interlochen Luci to Perform

INTERLOCHEN (AP) — Luci Baines Johnson, the President's 17-year-old daughter, will share a stage here tonight with the National Music Camp Symphony Orchestra and a fellow Texan, pianist Van Cliburn. Cliburn will conduct the 150-member Youth Symphony Orchestra and Miss Johnson will do the narration in Sergei Prokofiev's "Peter and the Wolf" symphonic fairy tale.

The President's dark-haired daughter was fitted Wednesday for the traditional dark blue uniform of this north woods music and culture center. She'll wear the uniform at a morning rehearsal, again at a matinee for camp faculty, staff and students and finally at tonight's performance for the public.

STAYING AT CENTER
Miss Johnson, accompanied by three Secret Service men and her press secretary, arrived at Interlochen shortly after noon Tuesday. She is staying at a student center and attending various classes at the camp. After three rehearsals, Wladimir Anderson, orchestra manager who is coaching Luci and giving her the cues for her narration, reported.

Man Kills His Family, Hangs Self

ROANOKE, Va. (AP) — A young salesman, described by neighbors as highly depressed, strangled his British-born wife and two young daughters Wednesday and hanged himself, police said.

REHEARSAL ANGLISH — Luci Baines Johnson bites her lip in frustration yesterday when she missed a line during a rehearsal for "Peter and the Wolf" for which she will be narrator at tonight's Interlochen Youth Symphony concert.

"He never discussed any of his problems, but he has been despondent since he moved here three months ago," said Jane Tingle Wertz, sister of Prader Leon Tingle.

The bodies of Tingle, 28; his wife, Jill, 25; and their two daughters, Dana, 6, and Penny, 4, were found by their landlord and a plumber who went to the home to repair a sink drain.

The bodies of the wife and children were lying face down in the same bedroom. Tingle's body was hanging by an electric cord from the bedroom door.

MOTHER HOME

Mrs. Tingle's mother, Mrs. J. R. Johnson, sailed Wednesday from New York City to return to her home in Surrey, England, after a six-weeks visit with the Tingles.

Tingle, a native of Roanoke, had stayed in England after being discharged from the U.S. Air Force there. He and his family came to the United States about a year ago.

London Police Probing Story of Gangster-Peer Relationship

LONDON, (UPI) — Allegations of a homosexual relationship between a member of the House of Lords and a gangland boss were reported under investigation today by London police.

Britain's latest scandal burst into headlines yesterday when the matter was brought up in the House of Commons by Labor Party Member of Parliament Marcus Lipton who asked Home Secretary Henry Brooke whether he was investigating the possible existence of a protection racket.

No names were made public, and the peer's identity quickly became the subject of the biggest guessing game in London. There was speculation the scandal might rival last summer's lurid Profumo case.

On July 12 the London Sun

day Mirror said it had evidence of "an alleged homosexual relationship between a prominent peer and a leading thug in the London underworld." The newspaper called the peer "a household name."

It also charged the case involved other gangsters and a number of clergymen who were being blackmailed by members of a protection ring extorting money from London nightclubs.

CLAIM PHOTOGRAPH

Police denied any information about the story. But last Sunday, the Mirror said it had a photograph of "a well-known member of the House of Lords seated on a sofa with a gangster."

The case could become the country's second sensational political scandal in a year.

Viet Column Meets Strong Cong Attack

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE
SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A powerful Communist unit pounced on a South Vietnamese mechanized relief force into Wednesday, inflicting 34 casualties and destroying an armored vehicle.

The clash, about 25 miles northwest of Saigon, was the latest in a bloody series of one-day attacks on big government units.

Vietnamese officers estimated however, that their forces killed 60 of the enemy. They captured one of the Communists' guns, a 57mm recoilless cannon.

Seventeen of the government troops were killed, 34 were wounded and three were missing. Several U.S. advisers were involved in the fight, but all were reported uninjured.

BEGAN ON ROAD

The fight began along a road as several hundred troops and about 25 amphibious personnel carriers were rushing from the Trung Lap ranger post to the defense of a beleaguered out post.

The government force evidently was not caught by surprise, and was fighting as soon as first shots rang out.

The road runs near the edge of the Communist-controlled and densely jungled area north of Saigon that is called "D Zone."

The seesaw fighting continued until two hours after sunset. The government launched a new operation today, but no new contact was reported.

For the past week, the Viet Cong has hit a large government unit somewhere in South Viet Nam every day, often resulting in heavy government casualties.

"The whole trouble is that they never seem to learn to put

General Not Backed on Bombing

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — South Viet Nam's Defense Ministry said today the commander of its air force was expressing only his personal views when he called for an aerial attack against Communist North Viet Nam.

Air Commodore Nguyen Cao Ky told newsmen at Bien Hoa airport yesterday that he himself flew over North Viet Nam three years ago and, "where the head goes, the body follows."

Ky said "The time is ripe" for bombing North Viet Nam, even though he felt Hanoi probably would move in, and that his air force is prepared for the mission.

A Defense Department communiqué gently rapped Ky on the knuckles, and said his views came a few days after Premier Nguyen Khanh called for a march on North Viet Nam.

out adequate security or flank guards," a high American official said Wednesday commenting on Vietnamese army tactics.

"We've done everything we can to instill these things into them, but unnecessary bloodshed continues."

STRONGER DEFENSES

The Aerial troop movement presumably was intended to strengthen government defenses against a possible Communist attack.

Viet Cong guerrillas have been increasingly active in the northernmost part of South Viet Nam.

The troops going north had been shifted to the delta five months ago, and Premier Nguyen Khanh said then they could be spared because that sector was relatively well under control.

Communist China's New China News Agency reported today that North Viet Nam had sent six letters to the international commission on Indochina alleging U.S. and South Vietnamese military "intrusion" of the demilitarized zone that separates North and South Viet Nam.

The letters charged that in the last three weeks of May, U.S. and South Vietnamese authorities "illegally sent into the demilitarized zone 222 vehicles carrying 1,675 persons including U.S. military personnel."

North Viet Nam said "the in-

Fire Levels 7,000 Acres in California

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (UPI) — More than 7,000 acres of valuable watershed, six ranch buildings and an old vacant house have been destroyed in a major brush fire in the Cajon pass area which continued to plague firemen today.

U. S. Forest Service spokesmen said yesterday they had hoped to contain the fire by today, but a flare-up erupted late yesterday in the south end of the fire area and blackened about 2,000 acres of brush in a couple of hours.

About 350 weary fire fighters remained on the fire lines throughout the night.

No injuries have been reported in the blaze, which broke out Tuesday near busy U.S. 66, a freeway, about 15 miles northwest of here. Cause of the fire has not been determined.

By morning today, the fire was only about 40 per cent contained, compared with 60 per cent containment estimated yesterday morning.

Striking Teamsters OK Pact

WASHINGTON (AP)—Teamsters Union headquarters said today 18 striking Eastern locals have voted to accept a new contract with auto hauling firms and are being notified to return to work.

"The vote was favorable for settlement," said a spokesman for the Teamsters' president, James R. Hoffa.

He said the exact tally among the approximately 4,000 members of the 18 locals is not yet known, but that a majority had voted to accept the latest contract proposals.

The vote was the third one taken since the locals from New England to North Carolina went on strike several weeks ago.

"The latest vote had been ordered by Hoffa."

The strike had tied up delivery of thousands of new cars.

Hoffa, who is on trial on fraud conspiracy charges in Chicago, ordered the latest vote a week ago on grounds that not enough members had been given a chance to vote in the two earlier ballots.

The vote which finally ended the strike was a mail referendum of all members of the 18 locals with the ballots being counted at Eastern conference headquarters here.

In the previous two votes, the ballots were counted by the individual locals before being sent here.

The first rejection reportedly was because of objection to Hoffa's efforts to establish a nationwide contract for the car haulers.

The second rejection was reported to have been based on the members' demands for time and one-half pay for work on Saturday and double time for Sunday.

Move to Protect Women, Children

U.N. Cyprus Troops Abandon Positions

NICOSIA, Cyprus (UPI)—Finnish troops of the United Nations peace-keeping force today abandoned positions between Greek and Turkish Cypriots near Hamid Mandereos village and moved to protect women and children if threatened fighting begins, the U.N. announced.

This was the first time since the U.N. operation began March 27 that the U.N. force had given such a clear indication it was no longer able to control an inter-communal situation.

Yesterday, Turkish Cypriots near the village, north of Nicosia, seized a new gun position dominating the route to the Greek Cypriot village of Pano Dhikomo and Kato Khlkama in the southern Kyrenia mountains.

Greek Cypriots demanded instant withdrawal. The Turkish Cypriots refused.

Early today, the Greek Cypriots informed the United Nations they would attack if the Turkish Cypriots did not withdraw their estimated eight men at the gun site.

SOLDIERS PULLED

The United Nations announced its Finnish soldiers were being pulled out from between the opposing factions and taking up position in Hamid Mandereos to protect women and children.

The Greek Cypriot newspaper Phileleftheros, quoting sources close to the Greek Cypriot government, claimed that the first Greek Cypriot fighter and reconnaissance squadrons have been formed with planes shipped to the island in crates.

It did not identify the type of planes. It said the former British airfields of Tymbou and Lakadimita were being repaired for use by Greek Cypriot planes. U.N. sources said any such planes would have to be flown by Greek nationals because of Greek Cypriots do not have trained flyers.

The newspaper also reported the alleged arrival and deployment of coastal torpedo boats.

A Bermuda collar and barrel cuff bring an Early American idea up to a 'late American' styling in this Bobbie Brooks print shirt. The suspended skirt in cotton homespun has a perfect flare for its coachman styling. About $7 for shirt and about $10 for skirt. Line available locally.

A deliberate twist of skirt is the shape of the minute. It is the shape of femininity, softened, sentimental in a drift of dacron and cotton by Jonathan Logan. The shirred bodice is lavished with insertions of lace, the waist defined with a bow belt. About $23. Line available locally.

White-Washed Moms Get Flood of Criticism

A Pint of Dirt May be in Your Feather Pillows

Clean pillow cases will successfully camouflage pillows which have not been cleaned for years, but clean pillows are essential to germ-free sanitation.

According to Mrs. Anne Sterling, director of public relations for the American Institute of Laundering, feather pillows become lumpy, stained and perspiration and germ laden with use, especially during the warm summer months.

Heading the homemaker's list of various housecleaning chores for fall should be the cleaning of feather pillows. An average of a pint of dirt is removed from most pillows received in professional laundries for renovating.

Various foreign material is also discovered in the once-fluffy headrests. Many pillows are received with two and three soiled tickings covering the feathers and each other.

When a feather pillow comes into a professional laundry it is tagged twice so that the customer gets back both the same feathers and the same ticking.

But what happens if she reverses habit and shows up instead made up to the last phony eyelash with fashion's new "kangaroo" eyes?

Such fantasies in makeup get the label "ludicrous" pasted on them from one cosmetics authority.

"I'm sure such things are one of the chief causes of trauma among children," said William Low. "I'm afraid the experience is as traumatic for husbands as for the children."

KANGAROO EYES
Those kangaroo eyes, he explained, are made up so that the false eyelashes turn down instead of up and back naturally.

"Can you imagine that, plus stretch pants, in the A&P?" he asked. "All the wrong shapes are wearing those stretch things anyway."

Low said in an interview he is not against the dramatic in makeup — in its time and place and if the individual has the "confidence" to get by with it. But not for regular daytime.

For day he advocates use of cosmetics to create a look of simplicity, of naturalness. Dramatic eye makeup belongs

"only in the chic fashion lounges after six."

BELONGS TO MODELS
Or, he said, it belongs to "the high fashion models or movie stars whose business it is to be 'on' at all time."

It does not belong on the numerous teen-aged girls who wear enough shadow and eyeliner to be right from those "rather fight than switch" advertisements, he continued.

Low for the past six years has been beauty envoy for Charles of the Ritz, traveling the United States, Canada and Europe demonstrating to women the technique of cosmetics use.

Improper to Stay With Godfather

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: I plan to go to the World's Fair next month. My godfather, who is 30 years my senior and a bachelor, has a house not too far from the Fair grounds.

When he visited us this past winter, we talked about the Fair and I said that I planned to go when I got my vacation. He said he would gladly put me up in his house.

I would like to accept his kind offer not only because of convenience but of the money it will save me as well.

My parents, however, are rather dubious about my staying there. They don't think it will be proper.

Considering the difference in our ages and the fact that he is my godfather, could there be any possible impropriety in my staying at his house?

A: I'm sorry, but it will not be proper for you to stay alone with your godfather in his house. He is too young, evidently in his early 40s, and not a blood relation.

Q: I am married, and my name is no longer the same as that of my brother, who is a doctor.

In a king introductions, would it be improper to introduce him as "Dr. John Well" or as "my brother, Dr. Well?"

I believe you have said that one does not use titles for members of one's family.

Son Is Well-Motivated in Offer to Teach Parents

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Our son spent a year at the state university and now he thinks he is ready to educate his parents.

This is what happened: I met a very high-spirited girl and before she would introduce him to her family she gave him some lessons in table manners.

This girl and her parents are moving through our town this summer and they plan to stop here to meet us.

Our son offered to give his mother and me a few pointers in table manners like this girl gave him.

I told him over my dead body. What is your opinion of (A) a girl who would give a young man lessons on how to eat?

(B) a young man who would suggest giving his parents the same lessons?

KNOWS HOW TO EAT
DEAR KNOWS: (A) Apparently the girl thought your son needed the lessons, and she liked him well enough to teach him. I admire her.

(B) Your son is well-motivated in offering to teach you. If you don't care to learn, that's your business. But don't get sore about it.

The girl's parents probably know that table manners aren't everything—as you do.

DEAR ABBY: I don't drive a car, never have, and all my friends know it, so, naturally, I must depend on others for rides.

Whenever there is a club meeting, church doings, or something my friends know I want to attend, why must I call THEM and beg a ride?

Hospital Guild Plans Fall Tea

The membership tea committee of the Pontiac Hospital Guild held a coffee Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Simon Simonian on Lakeside Drive.

Plans for the annual membership tea to be held on Sept. 30 were discussed. Co-chairmen for the event are Mrs. Donald Fraser and Mrs. Irwin Postner.

Other committee members present were Mrs. Franklin Mills, Mrs. Charles Gates, Mrs. Lillian Johnson, Mrs. M. D. Petrie and Mrs. Ward W. Ross.

DEAR SHOCKED: No, what this country needs is a good all-purpose umbrella to protect us against showers.

DEAR ABBY: A couple who lived in our neighborhood recently split up. When the wife left she took everything that wasn't nailed down, including all the linen, kitchen utensils, appliances, you name it.

Last week one of the neighbors called and invited us to a shower for the husband.

She said she thought it would be nice if we all got together and helped to put him back into housekeeping.

Abby, have you ever heard of giving a MAN a shower because his wife left and took everything?

DEAR NOT PUSHY: Most people are too preoccupied with their own busyness to guess who needs a ride. And unless you ask, they have no way of knowing.

Don't be so sensitive. If you need a ride, call whomever you think is going and ask for a lift.

Fringe Benefits

Modern Potions for Golden Goddesses

By JEANMARIE ELKINS

Do you look like a golden goddess in the summer? Is your tan unsatisfactory? Or is that vicious cycle of burn-peel, burn-peel your lot?

Careful planning combined with some of the new skin protecting products on the market can give the lightest blonde or most brilliant redhead an even glow of healthy-looking brown.

The skin is a remarkable protective organ, despite its thickness of only 1/32 to 1/8 of an inch.

NOT ENOUGH

In the darker or sun-sensitive skinned persons, this increased production will result in a tan. But for many people, insufficient melanin is produced and severe burn can result.

Science has developed new products for sun worshippers. One will let you pick your own shade of tan—light, medium, or dark.

Another clear liquid dries instantly upon application and can be used safely around the eyes and lips.

Moroccan will enjoy a stainless liquid which travels easily in a plastic bottle and is waterproof.

USE LIPSTICK

Don't go without lipstick when sunbathing. Lips are delicate and lipstick is a good protection.

If your hair is tinted always wear a scarf or hat while in the sun. Bright sunlight will turn the delicate blonde shades brassy and reddish brown or brunette colors.

If you are sun sensitive remember to TAKE YOUR TAN IN SMALL DOSES.

Continuous overexposure to the sun will age the skin. One doctor writes that women who spend summer and winter lying on the beach age their skin 10, 20 or even 30 years.

TAN LOTION

Always use lots of sunbathing lotion. After all, you baste a roast to keep it from drying out in the oven!

But the best treatment for a sunburn is still to avoid getting it.

Mr. and Mrs. Therman Hoverson, of Harrison, formerly of Milford, announce the engagement of their daughter Carolyn Ruth to Lyle James McLachlan, son of the Carlisle McLachlans of South Lapeer Road, Orion Township. She is majoring in home economics education at Michigan State University where her fiancé was a former student.

Finesse for a foyer is achieved with this delicately drawn chest and scone mirror from the distinguished new anniversary "Concerto 75" collection by Basic-Witz. Designer Sanford Walack uses prima vera wood, accented by myrtle burl inlays in the three-drawer chest. The elongated octagonal frame of the mirror supports a pair of simple brass candleholders. Line available locally.

Wet Clean Some Stains

Drycleaners aren't completely dry. In order to provide complete professional care for your wardrobe many drycleaners have a wetcleaning service.

Usually wetcleaning isn't necessary, but some stains are welcomed when they contain heavy deposits of moisture borne soil such as perspiration, beverages, fruit juices, or fabrics. These contain deeply embedded soil that cannot be removed in drycleaning or local spotting. Likewise, garments with large stained areas.

How does wetcleaning differ from washing?

Garments are drycleaned before they are wetcleaned.

Garments are measured before wetcleaning.

Fugitive dyes are set with special agents.

Garments are given individual treatment according to fabric construction.

Garments are hand brushed

in wetcleaning and thus not subjected to severe mechanical action as when washed.

PICNIC SALAD — You're never too young or too old to enjoy a picnic. Delicious food like a hearty salami noodle salad is an incentive to eat out of doors any time. You don't have to travel to a distant spot; just set up a table on the porch or in the backyard.

Noodles in a Salad Make Hearty Eating

"Let's go on a picnic" time is here. People who enjoy this warm weather activity fall into two broad groups.

There are those picnicers who like to cook and eat, both at the picnic site. The other type of picnicer prefers to eat the food at home and just eat outdoors.

If you place yourself in the latter group, a most featuring Hearty Salami Noodle Salad would be a tasty way to enjoy the picnic season. This salad, which can be made the night before, is truly hearty for it combines meat, vegetables, noodles and dairy products in one easy-to-carry dish.

Also on the menu are buttered hamburger, beans, celery sticks and green onions, fresh fruit, butter cookies and milk. As you can see, this menu requires very little preparation at home and none at the picnic site.

To make it easy to go on spur-of-the-moment or planned picnics, keep all the picnic gear washed and ready in one convenient spot. Current equipment for carrying different foods will greatly simplify the packing. Milk served on a picnic should be cold—just as at home.

Be sure to include a generous-sized vacuum bottle, in which to carry milk, in your picnic supplies. A well-insulated bag will keep other cold foods fresh.

Hearty Salami Noodle Salad

1 6-ounce package sliced salami, bologna, summer sausage or ham.
1 6½-ounce package wide

noodles, broken, cooked...

drained and chilled (about 4 cups cooked)

3 cups thinly sliced celery

1 cup sliced unpeeled radishes

¼ cup sliced green onion

¼ cup coarsely chopped dill or sweet pickles

2 cups dairy sour cream (1 pint)

¼ cup mayonnaise or salad dressing

1½ teaspoon seasoned salt

Save 3 salami slices for garnish; cut remaining slices in small wedge-shaped pieces.

Combine meat with remaining ingredients; mix well. Cover and chill several hours to blend flavors. Garnish with salami slices, parsley and cherry tomatoes, if desired. Makes 8 cups salad.

Onion soup flavors Midget Meat Loaves, and packaged corn flake crumbs helps to extend the ground beef. Serve Midget Meat Loaves with squash, hashed brown potatoes, bread sticks and a red cabbage salad.

Midget Meat Loaves

3 cups corn flakes or

¼ cup packaged corn flake crumbs

1½ pounds ground beef

1 teaspoon salt

¼ teaspoon pepper

1½ cups (10½-oz. can) condensed onion soup

3 stuffed olives, halved

6½-inch cubes Cheddar cheese

If using corn flakes, crush into fine crumbs. Mix together ground beef, corn flake crumbs, seasonings and soup. Spoon mixture into 12 ungreased 3-inch muffin cups; press lightly to shape.

Top half of meat loaves with olive halves; press cheese cubes into remainder. Bake in moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) about 20 minutes. Yield: 6 servings, 2 loaves each.

Rice cooked in cranberry juice cocktail is a flavorful accompaniment to baked chicken.

For a quick and delicious busy day supper, start with a can of macaroni with cheese sauce. In skillet, cook 6 slices bacon until crisp; drain and crumble 3 slices. Drain off all but 2 tablespoons drippings. Add ½ cup sliced celery, 2 tablespoons chopped onion, and dash leafy thyme; cook until vegetables are tender.

Add ½ cup cooked tomatoes, 1 can (15 ounces) macaroni with cheese sauce, and crumbled bacon. Heat, stirring now and then. Garnish with remaining bacon. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

Put Meat Loaf in Muffin Tins

Small, but a powerful lot of good eating, are Midget Meat Loaves. These individual loaves are baked in muffin cups, then served two to a person. A tasty garnish is baked into each "loaf" — halved olives are pressed into some, cheese cubes into the remainder.

Fairly Active Trading

Market Hits Irregular Pattern

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market fell into an irregular pattern in fairly active trading today.

Steel, motors, rails, airlines and laborers were mixed. Just before the opening Chrysler, the most active issue in the last two sessions, announced record second quarter and first half earnings, up 50 per cent from a year ago. The company also declared a regular dividend. The stock opened at $110 and soon hit all of this higher.

NEARLY A POINT

Purd, which reported record earnings late Wednesday, picked up nearly a point. Both Ford and Chrysler reported mid-July daily selling rates of new cars above a year earlier.

However, GM was unchanged as was Studebaker. American Motors was a small fraction. Wednesday the AP 60-stock average gained 1 1/2 points.

American Stock Exchange prices advanced irregularly in opening trading. Up leaders were Kirby Petroleum, Barnes Engineering, Syntex and Ray-ette.

Police Kill Armed Man

Ex-Mental Patient Hunting for Patrolman

MEDFORD, Mass. (UPI)—A former mental patient armed with a shotgun and hunting for a patrolman who served summonses on him for motor vehicle violations was shot to death last night by three policemen who cornered him in dense bushes.

Robert A. Aldred, 32, of Medford died early today while undergoing emergency surgery at Lawrence Memorial Hospital 2 1/2 hours after he was wounded three times.

Officials said he was shot in the stomach, shoulder and leg after he threatened three policemen, saying, "Move and I'll kill you."

As he leveled a loaded shotgun at the three policemen, they let loose with six shots. Aldred did not have a chance to return the fire, fell to the ground and moaned, "OK, you got me."

The shots were fired by Sgt. John Jordan and patrolman John Cronin and Patrick Carr. They had chased Aldred through several backyards before cornering him in a dense bush. They ordered him to surrender, but instead he threatened to kill them, they said.

FATAL SHOT

It was not known which officer fired the fatal shot.

Police said patrolman Frank Cammarata went to Aldred's apartment last night to deliver five summonses for motor vehicle violations, including attaching wrong plates to car, operating an uninsured vehicle and driving after suspension of his license.

Aldred refused to answer the door so Cammarata shoved the summonses under his door and left.

A short time later, neighbors told police, Aldred came out of the house armed with a shotgun and looking for the policeman who delivered the summonses.

Police began a search of the neighborhood for Aldred. Carr and Cronin saw him hiding in bushes on Willis Avenue and gave chase. They were joined by Sgt. Jordan and eventually cornered him.

Police said Aldred had 15 shotgun shells in his pocket. He was a former mental patient at the Gardner State Hospital. He was employed by the Worcester Paper Box Co. in Medford and lived alone there.

Quake Lifts Alaska Isle Thirty Feet

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Montague Island, an uninhabited island located in Alaska's Prince William Sound, was a hurriedly moved more than 30 feet by the March 27 earthquake.

The U.S. geological survey said yesterday that the island, located about 100 miles from the epicenter of the quake, shifted up to expose a strip of sea floor up to 1,350 feet in width.

The southern end of the island was raised more than 20 feet, the agency reported, reaching a maximum of 33 feet at one point. The rest of the island rose more than 10 feet.

A greater uplift by a single earthquake is believed to have been recorded only once before. This was the raising of Bancas Point in Disenchantment Bay, Alaska, by more than 47 feet as a result of the 1899 Yakutat Bay quake.

Montague Island is one of several being studied by the geological survey in an investigation begun shortly after the Good Friday disaster.

Sales of candy rose to $2.7 billion last year, up from the $2.5 billion mark of 1962, the National Confectioners Association reports.
