Adoption Code Proposal Hits 'Baby Buying'

Judge Moore Has Plan for Legislation to Force Court Supervision

Oakland County Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore has introduced proposed changes in Michigan child adoption code aimed at doing away with what he calls "baby buying."

He said he has hopes that State Sen. L. Harvey Lodge and the county's representatives might back his proposal during the current session of the Legislature.

Judge Moore said he drafted the suggested amendments to the state's 1947 adoption code after he uncovered a case where parents sold a newly born child for $200 to a couple unknown to them.

"The licensing statute, the placement statute, the monetary payment law and the adoption code were entirely disregarded and flouted, either through ignorance or worse," he said.

Under his proposal, probate courts of the state would shoulder the responsibility from the time parents file an "adoption release" of a child to when the child becomes the legal ward of the new parents.

A report would be required where "the physical and mental health, emotional stability and personal integrity of the prospective adoptive parents and their ability to promote the welfare of the child" would be of the utmost concern.

If the probate judge then was satisfied with what the investigator finds, he would set a hearing or order temporary approval of such an adoption.

The child could then be placed in the custody of the prospective

DETROIT (AP)—Mrs. Deborah Baker told the judge that after the wedding ceremony in 1956 her husband, Lon, took her out to eat.

"Then he put me on a bus and told me to go home," she testified.

She was granted a divorce on grounds of desertion.

Call Harrelson, Kierdorf in Trial

Two Are Subpoenaed for Testimony in Flint Arson Case

Leaun Harrelson, president of Pontiac Teamsters Local 614 and Herman Kierdorf, uncle of human torch victim Frank Kierdorf, have been subpoenaed to appear at the trial of Flint Teamster business agent Jack D. Thompson.

Thompson, 41 is charged with arson in the Aug. 3 fire of a Burton Township dry cleaning outlet near Flint. Police believe Frank Kierdorf received his fatal burns in this fire.

Harrelson, once Pontiac's representative in Lansing, was quizzed several times in connection with the case, made more mysterious because Kierdorf was left off at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital two hours after the fire.

Investigators at one time believed Harrelson had met Thompson and Kierdorf at a Bloomfield Township truck stop and helped in transferring the critically-burned Kierdorf to the hospital. Harrelson has denied any part in the scheme.

Police further theorized that Harrelson was only trying to "set up an alibi" when he appeared at the Pontiac police station shortly afterwards saying his daughter-in-law had asked him to look for his son Leaun Jr.

The elder Kierdorf, of Madison Heights, disappeared for 13 days after visiting his nephew at the hospital. He had sworn revenge for the burning.

Kierdorf, 68, was sentenced to Jackson Prison for 1 to 5 years in November for possession of a pistol silencer which he turned over to a neighbor when he learned he was to testify before the Senate Rackets Committee. His sentence has been stayed, pending an appeal to the Supreme Court.

Thompson, a fellow business agent of Frank Kierdorf at Flint Local 332, awaits trial after standing mute on the arson charge yesterday. No definite date has been set.

DISCUSSES ECONOMIC REPORT — Dr. Raymond J. Saulnier, chairman of President Eisenhower's Council of Economic Advisers, briefs newsmen on Ike's economic report.

Ike Cites U. S. Recovery as 'Lesson' in Economics

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower said today the nation's quick recovery from last year's business recession proved he was right in opposing tax cuts and a big public works program.

The most important "lesson" of the recession, the President said in his annual economic report to Congress, is that the American economy has remarkable power to "hold a downturn within fairly narrow limits."

He said the government should take this lesson to heart, and be careful in any future recession to "avoid hasty and disproportionate actions such as tax reductions that needlessly endanger the prospects of future fiscal balance."

Eisenhower, 68 starts his seventh year in office today reportedly determined to keep the Democratic controlled Congress on the defensive if it balks at his program.

With half of his second four-year term behind him, the President scheduled no formal observance of the anniversary of his inauguration.

Democratic congressional leaders stood with the President last year in resisting a clamor for anti-recession tax cuts. But they differed with him on the need for new public works projects, which they favored and he opposed.

Eisenhower told Congress today that experience vindicated his argument that "the major emphasis of federal policies to counteract an economic downturn should be placed on measures that will act promptly."

"Though an effective contribution can be made by the acceleration of public construction projects already under way, little reliance can be placed on large undertakings which . . . can be put into operation only after an extended interval," he said.

Eisenhower said the 1957-58 recession also showed that there is no single, infallible cure-all for a slump. He said "each is unique" and must be diagnosed and treated individually.

Says Balanced Budget 1st Step in Holding Line

Sees Record Production, Income for '59; Urges Self-Discipline

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower today called for a declaration of war against inflation.

In his annual economic message to Congress today, the President:

1. Forecast record national output and income in 1959.
2. Called for national self-discipline to avoid inflation and government controls.
3. Told Congress a budget balance is "the most important step."
4. Gave assurance that tax relief is "foreseeable."

The President warned that U.S. economic health is jeopardized by an upward spiral of wages and prices that continued even during the recession..

He appealed to Congress, consumers, businessmen and especially to labor leaders to join in a "relentless war" against this creeping inflation.

He said that labor leaders, because of the "great power lodged in their hands," have a "particularly critical role to play" in stabilizing living costs and protecting the value of the dollar.

Urging them to exercise "self-discipline and restraint" in contract demands, the President said that wage boosts which are not justified by increased productivity are "inevitably inflationary."

"They impose severe hardships on those whose incomes are not enlarged," he said. "They endanger jobs by limiting markets at home and impairing our capacity to compete in markets abroad. In short, they are, in the end, self-defeating."

Eisenhower called on businessmen to "redouble their efforts" to keep production costs down. In setting prices, he said, business should always keep in mind the economies that can be achieved through mass production and expanding markets.

His appeals to business and labor were buttressed with a warning that if wages and prices cannot be stabilized through voluntary action, it may be necessary to resort to government controls "which are alien to our traditional way of life."

The President assigned to individual consumers the "important role" of "shopping carefully." Housewives can do much to protect their own pocketbooks, he said,

Russian Heads Home, 'Glad for Welcome'

Before boarding a train for New York, where he will take a plane this afternoon, Mikoyan said to reporters:

"Please convey to the population of Washington and to all the people I met in the United States my gratitude for their very warm welcome and hospitality and their desire for peace and friendship with the Soviet Union. And when I arrive in my country I will convey to high people all the best wishes and the desire for peace of the American people."

Mikoyan had a private car on a train which left Washington at 9:47 a.m. EST. The car was directly behind the engine.

He boarded it during a steady rain which came with the first warm day since he arrived here 17 days ago.

Mikoyan is due in Moscow tomorrow after an overnight transatlantic flight.

The Soviet official conferred with Eisenhower last Saturday and spent last Friday in a series of meetings with Secretary Dulles. Their talks failed to make any progress toward solution of the U.S.-Soviet dispute over Berlin and the future of divided Germany.

Yesterday he got nowhere with moves for elimination of what he calls U.S. barriers against trade with his country and the exchange wound up in sharp words.

State Department officials were disappointed that the Soviet visitor came up with no concessions in Soviet policy on Berlin and other German issues.

Mikoyan had his own explanation of that as he made his final appearance at a big Soviet Embassy reception Monday night.

"Why should we make concessions if no one else is making any concessions?" he asked a questioning newsman. "Everybody is talking about concessions but no one is making them."

A highlight of the embassy reception was the unannounced appearance of Van Cliburn, the Texan who won an international piano competition in Moscow last spring.

Walkout Ends in Argentina

Workers Ordered Back to Jobs as Frondizi Flies to Washington

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—The government's order drafting transport workers into the army appeared today to have broken the backbone of a nationwide strike against President Arturo Frondizi's austerity program.

Buses and trolley cars began rolling in Buenos Aires again as disgruntled drivers, motormen and many other strikers ambled back to work under the eye of security forces armed with machine guns.

Railway and subway workers already were under mobilization orders from a previous strike and these systems were operating normally.

The government, in a pre-dawn order, had threatened to court-martial Buenos Aires transport strikers who did not get back on the job.

The nationwide walkout started yesterday under the leadership of Peronista and Communist unions.

In the U. S., Arturo Frondizi, President of Argentina, left Charleston, S.C. today for Washington where he will confer with President Eisenhower.

Frondizi and his official party arrived here late yesterday and spent a quiet evening in their hotel quarters.

The Argentine group left in the Columbine III, President Eisenhower's plane. A host of police officers and military officials saw them off.

More Snow Tonight; Colder Days Ahead

More snow is forecast for Pontiac and the vicinity.

The U.S. Weather Bureau said snow would begin falling late this evening and continue tonight and tomorrow. Tonight's low will be near 22 degrees; tomorrow's high, 30.

The bureau said yesterday's heavy snowfall precedes a new cold front heading for the state. Temperatures for the next five days are expected to range from 10 to 15 degrees below the normal high of 34 and normal low of 18.

The cold front will bring an abrupt halt to the heavy snow. Flurries throughout the week will amount to less than an half inch.

The lowest recorded temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 10 degrees. The mercury read 23 at 1 p.m.

County GOP Meets Here Tomorrow

Republicans in Oakland County will convene in Pontiac tomorrow night for their county convention.

But the usual spirit and contests of a convention will be missing, party leaders say, as they head into it without any apparent "local son" candidates to vie for numerous state positions up for grabs in the spring election.

Major order of business will be to find out how many of the Republican delegates elected at the August primary plan to attend the Republican State Convention in Detroit Feb. 14. Oakland can seat 140.

A chairman of this delegation will be chosen here tomorrow night also.

He will serve as chairman of the meeting slated to begin at 8 in the Supervisors Room, 1 Lafayette St., according to County Chairman Arthur G. Elliott Jr. of Pleasant Ridge.

Attack Philosophy of Tax Committee Majority Report

By E. C. HAYHOW,
(Publisher The Hillsdale Daily News)

The State of Michigan faces a deficit estimated at $100 million by the end of the fiscal year, June 30.

This makes more taxes inevitable.

As a blueprint for additional taxes, the Legislature has the recommendations of a Citizens' Tax Advisory Committee which spent 18 months studying tax matters.

The recommendations are in the form of two reports.

One signed by 18 members of the committee, is known as the "Majority Report."

The other, signed by two members, is known as the "Gillespie-Hayhow dissent" or the "Minority Report."

I am one of the dissenters. The other is Tyrone Gillespie of Midland.

Our objections to the majority report are largely based on the philosophy which permeates them.

We are unutterably opposed to the philosophy that a relatively small group of individuals should carry the major tax load while thousands escaped untouched.

This is confiscating wealth, earnings and income.

We are as vigorously opposed to the philosophy that the power to levy and collect taxes should be shifted from the local level to the state level.

This is Statism, super-government, or whatever else you choose to call it.

It is incompatible with the traditional American principle of keeping government and its taxing powers as close as possible to the governed.

The socialistic philosophy of the Majority Report is glaringly evident in its recommendation of a graduated income tax; in the ridiculous $9 sales tax rebate feature, and in its treatment of death taxes.

The graduated income tax of the majority is inequitable and vicious . . . inequitable in that it exempts thousands of individuals with incomes from any tax responsibility, vicious in its treatment of the middle income group.

If the majority proposal is adopted, the great bulk of taxation will fall on those with incomes over $6,000 and on corporate business.

Government services are provided for people, and it is people who demand services. To eliminate thousands from any material participation in, and responsibility for, the payment of services encourages political irresponsibility, as all of man's recorded history clearly demonstrates.

Obviously a bold-faced bid for support of the entire majority package, the $9 sales tax rebate gimmick would free further thousands from paying any tax and would add tremendously to administrative costs. This recommendation should be laughed out of the Legislature.

Adoption of the majority's estate tax proposal would force wealth (investment capital) to flee to other states. Many would find it too expensive to die in Michigan. And Michigan's already gloomy business climate would be further clouded.

In the area of Statism, or super-government, the majority would eliminate the personal property tax, except for inventories, and replace the revenue loss to local units of government with state aid.

This is a dangerous threat to local autonomy.

It accelerates a trend which has more than doubled state aid in the last 10 years.

It repudiates the valid assumption that local taxation will best determine what people need and can afford. The voice of the people is heard more clearly as we approach them more closely.

Subject to the same objection is the sales tax rebate. It would cost between $63 million and $72 million (depending on population), a share of which is earmarked for the schools.

The schools are understandably suspicious of state promises after what has happened this year. Most school districts will be forced to borrow money to avoid closing before the school year ends, due to failure of the state to make good on its aid pledges.

The purpose of the tax study committee was fourfold:

1. To simplify the state tax structure.
2. To make it more equitable.
3. To improve the industrial and business tax climate to avoid losing industry to other states.
4. To raise sufficient additional revenue to erase the state's deficit and provide for necessary additional services.

In the view of the minority, the committee failed in every area except one . . . that of raising additional money.

It will be a sad day for Michigan if the Legislature adopts the Majority Report.

Truth Is Shrouded in Mystery

How Lethal Can Germ Warfare Be?

America's military leaders have warned repeatedly that the Soviet Union might resort to germ warfare. Is the United States prepared to defend herself?

By ROGER GREENE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Could a few ounces of lethal germ crystals wipe out the population of New York City — even annihilate all life on the North American Continent?

Could plague germs spread by an enemy touch off a nationwide epidemic?

Could enemy planes or saboteurs destroy this country's crops and livestock, reducing the land to starvation?

The truth about gas and germ warfare is shrouded in secrecy and mystery.

Last May the North Atlantic Treaty Organization warned in an official report: "The Russians are capable of waging biological (germ) and chemical warfare on a large scale."

But the United States' policy on the use of these fearful weapons is top secret, says the Pentagon.

One high Pentagon official puts it bluntly: "We're scared to death even to mention germ warfare."

OK TAKES 7 WEEKS

One man who presumably should have the answers is Maj Gen. Marshall Stubbs, chief of the Army Chemical Corps.

It took seven weeks for the Pentagon to approve a newsman's interview with Gen. Stubbs. The event turned out to be little more than a handshaking formality.

Stubbs said frankly he would like to clear up many points of confusion but had been ordered to observe strict silence.

A written question was submitted to the Pentagon asking if we have enough biological warfare weapons now to combat the enemy if they used them first. After 25 days came back the reply: "The Chemical Corps has a capability in biological warfare."

In such an atmosphere of secrecy, it is little wonder that the most lurid distortions and conflicting statements about germ warfare go virtually unchallenged.

Item — Dr. Brock Chisholm, director-general of the United Nations' World Health Organization, says scientists have discovered a substance so deadly that seven ounces would be enough to kill all the people in the world.

COULDN'T KILL EVERYONE

Item — Army pamhplet No. 8-12 entitled "What You Should Know About Biological Warfare": "No kind of biological warfare could kill or sicken every person in a large area or city. Talk of one ounce — of toxic material — killing millions is silly."

Item — The British Medical Journal says two or three drops of nerve gas on the skin will kill within 30 minutes; one drop in the eye or a tiny amount inhaled as vapor kills in a few minutes.

Item — Chemical Warfare Service handbook, issued by the Army Chemical Center at Edgewood Arsenal, Md.: "A single droplet of nerve gas in a person's eye could kill him."

Item — Col. D. G. Brothaus, commanding officer at the Army's Rocky Mountain Arsenal where nerve gas is manufactured: "Nerve gas does not have the super-powerful attributes that some writers would have you believe. One drop on the skin will not kill in 30 seconds, and one quart jar will not kill every living thing in a cubic mile."

Item—Military experts engaged in the Army's 1955 "Exercise Sagebrush" mock warfare maneuvers in Louisiana said a cloud of concentrated nerve gas could kill men at a distance of 50 miles from the point of release within 15 minutes.

Item — Dr. Selman A. Waksman, famed co-discoverer of streptomycin, director of Rutgers University Institute of Microbiology: "Maybe if you stood directly under a germ-bomb explosion with your mouth open or had some skin cuts, there would be an infection."

What then, are you supposed to believe in all this welter of conflicting statements?

Tight official silence has created a virtual blackout on authoritative information. Yet the Pentagon, in response to written questions submitted by a reporter, allowed the following sentence to remain among heavily censored answers:

"The Chemical Corps is anxious to put the true facts before the public so that the nature of chemical and biological warfare can be viewed in its proper perspective."

Maj. Gen. William M. Creasy, former Chemical Corps chief, had chafed at the bonds of secrecy imposed on him. Before resigning to enter private business last Sept. 1, he publicly urged:

"We must strip all mystery from these munitions so that our understanding of their nature will not be clouded. The job of education will not be completed until the public knows as much about the realities of Chemical-Biological-Radiological (C-B-R) warfare and defenses against it, as it does about atomic warfare."

Dinner to Honor Pontiac Doctor

Neopolitan Club Gives Testimonial Friday for Dr. Roy V. Cooley Jr.

A testimonial dinner for Dr. Roy V. Cooley Jr. will be sponsored by the Pontiac Neopolitan Club at 7 p.m. Friday at Devon Gables Inn.

The 38-year-old native of Pontiac will be honored for his many contributions to his home town, the club said, both as a physician, a former City Commissioner and a civic-minded citizen.

The main speaker will be William T. Patrick, a member of Detroit Common Council.

Dr. Cooley, who lives at 441 Bartlett St., served as District 1 representative on the Commission from 1952 until his retirement last year.

During that time, he brought many improvements to his district and successfully advocated the first adoption by any Michigan city of a Fair Employment Practices Act.

He was noted for working as conscientiously for the city as a whole as for his own district.

A 1937 graduate of Pontiac Central High School, Dr. Cooley attended Wayne University before graduating from University of Michigan in 1942. He was graduated from University of Michigan Medical School three years later.

After interning in New York City and Chicago, Dr. Cooley returned to Pontiac to practice and helped establish the Well Baby Clinic here.

A member of the county and state medical associations, Dr. Cooley belongs to the Neopolitan Club, the Rema Club and the Southwest Civic Assn.

He is an active PTA member, is a trustee of the Oakland County Camp Fire Girls and belongs to the Pontiac Chapter, NAACP.

Propose Sunday Beer Ban Vote

Pontiac Pastors Assn. Is Circulating Petitions; Has 1,000 Signers

The Pontiac Pastors Assn. has gone an estimated one-tenth of the way in its renewed fight to ban sale of beer and wine here on Sundays.

The association has obtained an estimated 1,000 signatures on petitions calling for a referendum vote on the issue, said Rev. Daniel Wallace, associate pastor of Centra Methodist Church.

There is an all-out drive to get at least 7,000 to 8,000 signatures by next Monday, according to the Rev. Wallace, chairman of the effort.

"But our aim is to get 10,000 to show there is powerful public support behind us," he added.

The association hopes to submit its petitions to City Hall by Feb. 2, in time to place before voters in the April 6 biennial election this proposition:

"Shall the sale of beer and wine within the city of Pontiac between the hours of 2 a.m. and 12 midnight Sundays be prohibited?"

The referendum is provided for under state law, which requires that petitions forcing it be signed by a number equal to at least 35 per cent of the last Secretary of State vote.

There are approximately 650 petitions in circulation, the Rev. Wallace said, including those located at 56 different Pontiac churches.

The Pastors Association asked the City Commission to consider a ban on Sunday sale of beer and wine last summer. But the commission voted the proposal down.

Several commissioners said then that the issue was one that should be decided by the public at an election.

The Day in Birmingham

Ambulance Service Bids Will Be Sought by City

BIRMINGHAM — Bids will be sought from private ambulance companies by the city of Birmingham to assure residents of this service.

City Manager L. R Gare was authorized last night to prepare an agreement for the commissions approval and later to seek bids.

After considerable discussion, commissioners dropped the idea of city-owned ambulances which would cost about $33,000 a year to operate as ascertained by a study conducted by Assistant City Manager Robert Kenning.

This figure does not include the cost of $12,000 or more for each vehicle.

One hearing, the confirmation of the special assessment district for the Lake Park storm sewer was approved. The subject of much opposition last year, no objections to the district were received at this time.

In further business, city commissioners entered an agreement with the county to widen W. Maple avenue from Westchester Way to Cranbrook road. The city's share of the $499,850 project will be $424,926.

City commissioners approved Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley's proposal that Birmingham enter a reciprocal police aid agreement with other area departments.

James Howlett, city attorney, said he would like to make slight changes in the agreement before final approval is made.

Vaccine for Cold Almost Ready

Measles Treatment Is Being Developed, Too, Says Parke, Davis

NEW YORK (AP)—A common cold vaccine and a measles vaccine both may be put on the market before the end of the year by a Detroit pharmaceutical firm.

Harry J. Loynd, president of Parke, Davis & Co., told a meeting of the New York Society of Security Analysts yesterday that his firm hopes to have the vaccines on the market by that time.

Loynd said the cold vaccine may take care of about 75 per cent of the causes of the common cold.

(At Detroit, a Parke Davis spokesman said of the cold vaccine that its "price, duration of immunity, dosage distribution procedures, etc., are under study and cannot be answered at this time.)

Loynd also disclosed the company is working on a mumps vaccine, which it hopes may be ready for marketing within two years, and has under clinical study a combination vaccine for diphtheria, tetanus whooping cough and polio.

The concern also is working on a vaccine against so-called ECH viruses which recently have been found to cause a paralytic disease similar to polio, Loynd said. This would be combined with the polio vaccine.

Loynd said he expects Parke, Davis to show a 10 per cent increase in sales and a 5 to 10 per cent gain in profits in 1959. He also said the company will spend 50 million dollars in the next three or four years on expansion both in this country and overseas.

Willman Gets Report on Jail

25-30 Page Study Is Completed by City Public Safety Head

A report on Pontiac's new city jail in the Public Safety Building was in the hands of City Manager Walter K. Willman today, but the manager was mum on its contents.

The report on the jail—which has never been in use — was prepared for Willman by Public Safety Director George D. Eastman.

"It's quite elaborate," Willman said of the report, "and I haven't had a chance to study it yet. I've only glanced at the report and don't know what it says."

Willman said the report is 25-30 pages in length.

Although the Public Safety Building has been open since December of 1957, the jail has remained dark.

An injunction to halt the naming of an administrator for the jail was obtained by two Pontiac police officers last July 31 in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Patrolmen Lon Peters and Harold Hayden charged the city was about to name a civilian head of the jail, when the job should go to a policeman under State Civil Service Act. 78.

The injunction is still in effect.

Optimist Club to Hear Talk by Eastman

The Pontiac Optimist Breakfast Club will have Pontiac Public Safety Director George D. Eastman as guest speaker at its meeting Wednesday.

Eastman's talk will concern what his police program has done for the city and what plans are in store for the future, a club spokesman announced.

Mort Neff Will Speak at Rotary Club Dinner

Neff, whose television show, "Michigan Outdoors," is widely known throughout the state, will speak to the group about outdoor topics and answer questions.

$5,919,250 City Budget Up for Hearing Tonight

Public hearing on Pontiac's proposed 1959 budget will be held at 8 tonight in the City Commission's second-floor chambers in City Hall.

Up for initial airing is the annual appropriation ordinance to implement $5,919,250 in operating expenditures which the city administration has proposed to the Commission this year.

The proposed budget is $235,000 more than last year's and is designed to maintain the current tax rate of $13.27 for each $1,000 of assessed valuation, providing the city's assessed valuation goes up $5,000,000 this year, City Manager Walter K. Willman has said.

The manager, in other business, is scheduled to report on progress of agreements to cancel building contracts at Pontiac General Hospital and have the work taken up by local contractors on a time-and-material basis.

Commissioners approved the action on an "emergency" basis last week because extra repair costs in the hospital's east wing will push the cost of completing the expansion program to an estimated $300,000 to $350,000 more than anticipated.

Up for first reading is an ordinance rezoning four lots in the triangular parcel bounded by Lakeside, Montcalm and Stanley from residential to commercial.

Castro to Attend Havana Rally

Expects to Take Part in War Crimes Trial Despite Attack of Flu

By STANFORD BRADSHAW

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — Although fighting a bad attack of the grippe, Fidel Castro doggedly held today to plans for a giant rally to show public support of the speedy execution of those his forces condemn as war criminals.

Castro hoarsely told a reporter he had a bad case of an ailment similar to influenza. But he said "the probabilities are that I will go" to Wednesday's Havana rally, which is expected to draw half a million supporters.

Castro has invited 350 newsmen and commentators from the United States and Latin American, plus some U.S. senators and congressmen, to attend the rally and the first showcase trial of war crimes defendants in Havana.

Informants said Castro, a practicing lawyer before he led the revolt against dictator Fulgencio Batista, would treat the international audience to a display of his courtroom talents by taking the prosecutor's role.

The provisional government had announced the Havana trials would start by Wednesday. A total of 561 former policemen, military men and others are being held in Havana's La Cabana Fortress on charges of murdering or torturing rebels and suspects.

Ike Asks Congress to Fight Inflation

by insisting on quality merchandise at fair prices.

He called on Congress, for the third time in a fortnight, to abide by the spending cuts in the 77-billion-dollar budget which he sent to the Capitol Monday for the year starting July 1.

This, he told the legislators, would be "the most important single step in discharging the government's responsibility to help preserve the stability of prices and costs through the prudent management of its own affairs."

If government income and spending can be matched in the year starting next July 1, and if tax collections are swelled by the expected growth of income and business profits, Eisenhower said, then — "A significant additional step in tax reduction and reform can be taken in the reasonably foreseeable future."

Toastmasters Observe 10th Anniversary

The Pontiac YMCA Toastmasters Club No. 643 will hold its 10th anniversary celebration at the Pontiac YMCA tonight.

Honored guests at the event will be Mayor Philip E. Rowston, George D. Eastman, public safety director; Bob Nickels, area governor of Toastmasters International; and Richard Newman, district governor.

Featured speakers will be Sidney Siegel and George Crabtree, active members, and John Hirlinger, a past toastmaster.

Reject Convention 'Me-Tooism'

Perry Street Parking Cut

The number of cars on Perry street has gone up and the number of parking meters down.

Surveys conducted before the state trunkline (M24) was widened to a divided four-lane highway between East Huron street and the northern city limits showed that an average count of cars amounted to 14,951 during daylight hours.

After widening was completed last fall, an average daily count was 19,235, Theodore M. Vanderstempel, city traffic engineer, reported.

Because of the increase, the city Thursday removed 27 parking meters that were on the west side of the street in the three-block section south of Huron and north of Water street, Vanderstempel said.

The action, ordered by State Highway Department which controls the trunkline, has resulted in "a definite improvement" in traffic circulation, Vanderstempel said.

He pointed out that increased use of Perry north of Huron has resulted in more cars on it south of Huron.

The three-block stretch south of Huron is also four lanes, but with parking permitted in the easternmost lane, only three lanes were open to traffic, two northbound and one southbound.

"A traffic bottleneck resulted in the southbound lane," Vanderstempel explained.

No change in the meters on Perry between Water and Auburn avenue is contemplated, he said, because the road is six-lanes wide there.

Storm Rolls Out of Rockies

Snow Warnings Posted

By United Press International

Weathermen posted heavy snow warnings for parts of Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma Tuesday in the path of a blinding storm rolling out of the Rockies.

In the northeast, near gale force winds Monday whipped weekend snows into drifts which blocked roads and forced schools to close in upstate New York and western and central Pennsylvania.

The fresh wintery onslaught whipping into the plains threatened to dump five inches or more of snow in southern and eastern Kansas, west central Missouri, the Oklahoma Panhandle and possibly southern Colorado. Freezing rain also was expected in southern Missouri.

The Weather Bureau in Chicago warned motorists and cattlemen that the storm, ranging from the southern Rockies to the Canadian border, was expected to intensify as it moves eastward, causing "widespread hazardous driving conditions."

Overnight temperatures dropped as much as 30 degrees in advance of the storm, plunging to below zero in Montana, North Dakota and northern Minnesota and Wisconsin, and to near zero in Michigan and northern Illinois and Indiana.

To the south, a warming trend overspread the Gulf and Atlantic coast states, snapping a three-day cold wave blamed for the deaths of at least 11 persons in Florida.

Temperatures were expected to climb into the 70s Tuesday after reaching a low of 23 in some northern Florida spots early Monday.

Florida weather officials said the cold snap, which began during the weekend, did "rather serve" damage to truck crops in the Everglades region, but most of the state's citrus and vegetable crops survived unharmed.

House Speaker Starts Economy With Carnations

LANSING (AP)—Red carnations fell victim to a state economy move today in Michigan.

For more than 20 years, the speaker and clerk of the Michigan House of Representatives have appeared for their legislative duties each day with fresh carnations affixed to their lapels.

No more.

"Economy begins at home," said Speaker Don R. Pears in ordering the practice stopped.

Debts in the state treasury are expected to reach 100 million dollars by July 1. The two carnations, Pears noted, cost the legislature 80 cents a day, or about $85 a year.

Judge Enters Innocent Plea

Bookie Suspects Mute

Pleas of innocent were entered yesterday by Oakland County Circuit Judge William J. Beer for five persons accused of operating a horse race bookie ring in Pontiac.

Three attorneys for the five said their clients would stand mute on charges of conspiracy to violate state gambling laws. Judge Beer allowed all five persons to remain free on bond.

Arraigned Monday after being bound over from Pontiac Municipal Court were: Basil W. Burke, 59, of 29 Salmer Ave.; former deputy City treasurer LaRue E. Gullett, 41, of 301 Dick Ave.; his wife, Gladys, 35; James Pruzor, 54, of 4 S. Saginaw St.; and Charles D. Apley, 44, of the Salmer address.

The five were arrested Aug. 29 in raids by State Police Rackets Squad members. Detectives say Burke, an ex-convict, was ring leader.

No date has been set as yet for the Circuit Court trials of the five.

parents under Judge Moore's proposed bill.

But, "should circumstances arise in the opinion of the court that make such adoption undesirable," the temporary order would be terminated. This essentially is what is contained in the present code, Judge Moore said.

Besides probate courts, duly licensed child placement agencies could handle the entire mechanics of adoption.

The proposed legislation also would give to the courts regulation and restrictions of all monetary obligations and payments solely for the welfare of the child.

This, the future welfare of the "defenseless child," said Judge Moore, is the major purpose behind his new legislation.

Hawaii Statehood Bill Introduced by Alaskan

WASHINGTON (UPI)— Alaska's brand new Congressman, Rep. Ralph J. Rivers (D) has introduced his first bill — a Hawaiian statehood bill.

Rivers said Hawaiian delegate John A. Burns "and the people of Hawaii went all out for us." He said it gave him great pleasure to return the favor.

The average American factory worker received $2.10 an hour last April—eight times that of Japan's average of 26 cents an hour and about three times that of France, West Germany, and England, whose averages are 72 cents, 68 cents, and 80 cents, respectively.

Flown From Alaska for Treatment

Ailing Governor in Seattle

SEATTLE (AP) — Pale and receiving blood plasma as he was taken from a plane by stretcher, the first elected governor of Alaska arrived here Monday night for treatment and what will probably be a long rest.

William A. Egan, 44, Democrat, who suffered an acute pancreatic attack about a week ago after making steady recovery from an operation for removal of his gall bladder Jan. 6, was taken to the Virginia Mason Hospital. It appeared almost certain he would still be there next week when Alaska's first state Legislature convenes.

Dr. C. C. Carter, who accompanied Egan from Juneau, said "I have no idea how long he'll be here but it will probably be quite awhile."

Secretary of State Hugh J. Wade is acting governor in Egan's absence.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Expressions of sadness came from high government officials at the death of J. Ernest Wilkins, Negro member of the Civil Rights Commission and a former assistant secretary of labor.

Wilkins, 65, was found dead in his home here yesterday, apparent victim of a heart attack.

President Eisenhower said Wilkins was a "gifted and dedicated public servant who contributed much to the welfare of our country."

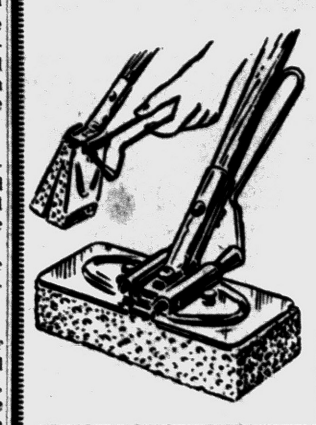

Britain is the only country ever to have held all three official world speed records — air, water, and land—at the same time. She won this distinction four times: in 1930, 1932, 1945, and 1956.

Truth Is Shrouded in Mystery

How Lethal Can Germ Warfare Be?

America's military leaders have warned repeatedly that the Soviet Union might resort to germ warfare. Is the United States prepared to defend herself?

By ROGER GREENE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Could a few ounces of lethal germ crystals wipe out the population of New York City — even annihilate all life on the North American Continent?

Could plague germs spread by an enemy touch off a nationwide epidemic?

Could enemy planes or saboteurs destroy this country's crops and livestock, reducing the land to starvation?

The truth about gas and germ warfare is shrouded in secrecy and mystery.

Last May the North Atlantic Treaty Organization warned in an official report: "The Russians are capable of waging biological (germ) and chemical warfare on a large scale."

But the United States' policy on the use of these fearful weapons is top secret, says the Pentagon.

One high Pentagon official puts it bluntly: "We're scared to death even to mention germ warfare."

OK TAKES 7 WEEKS

One man who presumably should have the answers is Maj Gen. Marshall Stubbs, chief of the Army Chemical Corps.

It took seven weeks for the Pentagon to approve a newsman's interview with Gen. Stubbs. The event turned out to be little more than a handshaking formality.

Stubbs said frankly he would like to clear up many points of confusion but had been ordered to observe strict silence.

A written question was submitted to the Pentagon asking if we have enough biological warfare weapons now to combat the enemy if they used them first. After 25 days came back the reply: "The Chemical Corps has a capability in biological warfare."

In such an atmosphere of secrecy, it is little wonder that the most lurid distortions and conflicting statements about germ warfare go virtually unchallenged.

Item — Dr. Brock Chisholm, director-general of the United Nations' World Health Organization, says scientists have discovered a substance so deadly that seven ounces would be enough to kill all the people in the world.

COULDN'T KILL EVERYONE

Item — Army pamhplet No. 8-12 entitled "What You Should Know About Biological Warfare": "No kind of biological warfare could kill or sicken every person in a large area or city. Talk of one ounce — of toxic material — killing millions is silly."

Item — The British Medical Journal says two or three drops of nerve gas on the skin will kill within 30 minutes; one drop in the eye or a tiny amount inhaled as vapor kills in a few minutes.

Item — Chemical Warfare Service handbook, issued by the Army Chemical Center at Edgewood Arsenal, Md.: "A single droplet of nerve gas in a person's eye could kill him."

Item — Col. D. G. Brothaus, commanding officer at the Army's Rocky Mountain Arsenal where nerve gas is manufactured: "Nerve gas does not have the super-powerful attributes that some writers would have you believe. One drop on the skin will not kill in 30 seconds, and one quart jar will not kill every living thing in a cubic mile."

Item—Military experts engaged in the Army's 1955 "Exercise Sagebrush" mock warfare maneuvers in Louisiana said a cloud of concentrated nerve gas could kill men at a distance of 50 miles from the point of release within 15 minutes.

Item — Dr. Selman A. Waksman, famed co-discoverer of streptomycin, director of Rutgers University Institute of Microbiology: "Maybe if you stood directly under a germ-bomb explosion with your mouth open or had some skin cuts, there would be an infection."

What then, are you supposed to believe in all this welter of conflicting statements?

Tight official silence has created a virtual blackout on authoritative information. Yet the Pentagon, in response to written questions submitted by a reporter, allowed the following sentence to remain among heavily censored answers:

"The Chemical Corps is anxious to put the true facts before the public so that the nature of chemical and biological warfare can be viewed in its proper perspective."

Maj. Gen. William M. Creasy, former Chemical Corps chief, had chafed at the bonds of secrecy imposed on him. Before resigning to enter private business last Sept. 1, he publicly urged:

"We must strip all mystery from these munitions so that our understanding of their nature will not be clouded. The job of education will not be completed until the public knows as much about the realities of Chemical-Biological-Radiological (C-B-R) warfare and defenses against it, as it does about atomic warfare."

Dinner to Honor Pontiac Doctor

Neopolitan Club Gives Testimonial Friday for Dr. Roy V. Cooley Jr.

A testimonial dinner for Dr. Roy V. Cooley Jr. will be sponsored by the Pontiac Neopolitan Club at 7 p.m. Friday at Devon Gables Inn.

The 38-year-old native of Pontiac will be honored for his many contributions to his home town, the club said, both as a physician, a former City Commissioner and a civic-minded citizen.

The main speaker will be William T. Patrick, a member of Detroit Common Council.

Dr. Cooley, who lives at 441 Bartlett St., served as District 1 representative on the Commission from 1952 until his retirement last year.

During that time, he brought many improvements to his district and successfully advocated the first adoption by any Michigan city of a Fair Employment Practices Act.

He was noted for working as conscientiously for the city as a whole as for his own district.

A 1937 graduate of Pontiac Central High School, Dr. Cooley attended Wayne University before graduating from University of Michigan in 1942. He was graduated from University of Michigan Medical School three years later.

After interning in New York City and Chicago, Dr. Cooley returned to Pontiac to practice and helped establish the Well Baby Clinic here.

A member of the county and state medical associations, Dr. Cooley belongs to the Neopolitan Club, the Rema Club and the Southwest Civic Assn.

He is an active PTA member, is a trustee of the Oakland County Camp Fire Girls and belongs to the Pontiac Chapter, NAACP.

REDUCED RANGE—Fired by the 209th Field Artillery Missile Group, this Redstone ballistic vehicle marked the first inland daytime blast-off of the weapon. Referred to by Army public relations as a "tactical-type" firing, the event was a graduation exercise. Because of the limitations of White Sands Missile Range, the missile was not serviced to go the full distance its capability permits.

Propose Sunday Beer Ban Vote

Pontiac Pastors Assn. Is Circulating Petitions; Has 1,000 Signers

The Pontiac Pastors Assn. has gone an estimated one-tenth of the way in its renewed fight to ban sale of beer and wine here on Sundays.

The association has obtained an estimated 1,000 signatures on petitions calling for a referendum vote on the issue, said Rev. Daniel Wallace, associate pastor of Centra Methodist Church.

There is an all-out drive to get at least 7,000 to 8,000 signatures by next Monday, according to the Rev. Wallace, chairman of the effort.

"But our aim is to get 10,000 to show there is powerful public support behind us," he added.

The association hopes to submit its petitions to City Hall by Feb. 2, in time to place before voters in the April 6 biennial election this proposition:

"Shall the sale of beer and wine within the city of Pontiac between the hours of 2 a.m. and 12 midnight Sundays be prohibited?"

The referendum is provided for under state law, which requires that petitions forcing it be signed by a number equal to at least 35 per cent of the last Secretary of State vote.

There are approximately 650 petitions in circulation, the Rev. Wallace said, including those located at 56 different Pontiac churches.

The Pastors Association asked the City Commission to consider a ban on Sunday sale of beer and wine last summer. But the commission voted the proposal down.

Several commissioners said then that the issue was one that should be decided by the public at an election.

The Day in Birmingham

Ambulance Service Bids Will Be Sought by City

BIRMINGHAM — Bids will be sought from private ambulance companies by the city of Birmingham to assure residents of this service.

City Manager L. .R Gare was authorized last night to prepare an agreement for the commissions approval and later to seek bids.

After considerable discussion, commissioners dropped the idea of city-owned ambulances which would cost about $33,000 a year to operate as ascertained by a study conducted by Assistant City Manager Robert Kenning.

This figure does not include the cost of $12,000 or more for each vehicle.

One hearing, the confirmation of the special assessment district for the Lake Park storm sewer was approved. The subject of much opposition last year, no objections to the district were received at this time.

In further business, city commissioners entered an agreement with the county to widen W. Maple avenue from Westchester Way to Cranbrook road. The city's share of the $499,850 project will be $424,926.

City commissioners approved Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley's proposal that Birmingham enter a reciprocal police aid agreement with other area departments.

James Howlett, city attorney, said he would like to make slight changes in the agreement before final approval is made.

The second accident within 24 hours at the Maple and Woodward avenues crossing was reported yesterday at 12:50 p.m. Mrs. Marilyn J. Pearce, 40, of 950 W. Lincoln Ave. suffered injuries to the pelvis and hip as she attempted to cross the street and was hit by a car.

She was taken to William Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak were her condition is reported as "satisfactory" today.

William T. May, 73, of Detroit, driver of the car, was ticketed for failure to yield the right of way to a pedestrian in a cross-walk.

At almost the exact same time Sunday Genevieve Wall, 56, a city employe suffered a broken right arm in a similar mishap at the Maple and Woodward avenues intersection.

Vaccine for Cold Almost Ready

Measles Treatment Is Being Developed, Too, Says Parke, Davis

NEW YORK (UP)—A common cold vaccine and a measles vaccine both may be put on the market before the end of the year by a Detroit pharmaceutical firm.

Harry J. Loynd, president of Parke, Davis & Co., told a meeting of the New York Society of Security Analysts yesterday that his firm hopes to have the vaccines on the market by that time.

Loynd said the cold vaccine may take care of about 75 per cent of the causes of the common cold.

(At Detroit, a Parke Davis spokesman said of the cold vaccine that its "price, duration of immunity, dosage distribution procedures, etc., are under study and cannot be answered at this time.)

Loynd also disclosed the company is working on a mumps vaccine, which it hopes may be ready for marketing within two years, and has under clinical study a combination vaccine for diphtheria, tetanus whooping cough and polio.

The concern also is working on a vaccine against so-called ECH viruses which recently have been found to cause a paralytic disease similar to polio, Loynd said. This would be combined with the polio vaccine.

Loynd said he expects Parke, Davis to show a 10 per cent increase in sales and a 5 to 10 per cent gain in profits in 1959. He also said the company will spend 50 million dollars in the next three or four years on expansion both in this country and overseas.

Willman Gets Report on Jail

25-30 Page Study Is Completed by City Public Safety Head

A report on Pontiac's new city jail in the Public Safety Building was in the hands of City Manager Walter K. Willman today, but the manager was mum on its contents.

The report on the jail—which has never been in use — was prepared for Willman by Public Safety Director George D. Eastman.

"It's quite elaborate," Willman said of the report, "and I haven't had a chance to study it yet. I've only glanced at the report and don't know what it says."

Willman said the report is 25-30 pages in length.

Although the Public Safety Building has been open since December of 1957, the jail has remained dark.

An injunction to halt the naming of an administrator for the jail was obtained by two Pontiac police officers last July 31 in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Patrolmen Lon Peters and Harold Hayden charged the city was about to name a civilian head of the jail, when the job should go to a policeman under State Civil Service Act. 78.

The injunction is still in effect.

Optimist Club to Hear Talk by Eastman

The Pontiac Optimist Breakfast Club will have Pontiac Public Safety Director George D. Eastman as guest speaker at its meeting Wednesday.

Eastman's talk will concern what his police program has done for the city and what plans are in store for the future, a club spokesman announced.

The breakfast meeting is scheduled to begin at 7:30 a.m. at the Elks Temple, 114 Orchard Lake Ave.

Mort Neff Will Speak at Rotary Club Dinner

The Pontiac Rotary Club will have Mort Neff as guest speaker at its weekly luncheon meeting tomorrow at the Waldron Hotel.

Perry Street Parking Cut

The number of cars on Perry street has gone up and the number of parking meters down.

Surveys conducted before the state trunkline (M24) was widened to a divided four-lane highway between East Huron street and the northern city limits showed that an average count of cars amounted to 14,951 during daylight hours.

After widening was completed last fall, an average daily count was 19,235, Theodore M. Vanderstempel, city traffic engineer, reported.

Because of the increase, the city Thursday removed 27 parking meters that were on the west side of the street in the three-block section south of Huron and north of Water street, Vanderstempel said.

The action, ordered by State Highway Department which controls the trunkline, has resulted in "a definite improvement" in traffic circulation, Vanderstempel said.

He pointed out that increased use of Perry north of Huron has resulted in more cars on it south of Huron.

The three-block stretch south of Huron is also four lanes, but with parking permitted in the easternmost lane, only three lanes were open to traffic, two northbound and one southbound.

"A traffic bottleneck resulted in the southbound lane," Vanderstempel explained.

No change in the meters on Perry between Water and Auburn avenue is contemplated, he said, because the road is six-lanes wide there.

Castro to Attend Havana Rally

Expects to Take Part in War Crimes Trial Despite Attack of Flu

By STANFORD BRADSHAW

HAVANA, Cuba (UP) — Although fighting a bad attack of the grippe, Fidel Castro doggedly held today to plans for a giant rally to show public support of the speedy execution of those his forces condemn as war criminals.

Castro hoarsely told a reporter he had a bad case of an ailment similar to influenza. But he said "the probabilities are that I will go" to Wednesday's Havana rally, which is expected to draw half a million supporters.

Castro has invited 350 newsmen and commentators from the United States and Latin American, plus some U.S. senators and congressmen, to attend the rally and the first showcase trial of war crimes defendants in Havana.

Informants said Castro, a practicing lawyer before he led the revolt against dictator Fulgencio Batista, would treat the international audience to a display of his courtroom talents by taking the prosecutor's role.

The provisional government had announced the Havana trials would start by Wednesday. A total of 561 former policemen, military men and others are being held in Havana's La Cabana Fortress on charges of murdering or torturing rebels and suspects.

$5,919,250 City Budget Up for Hearing Tonight

Public hearing on Pontiac's proposed 1959 budget will be held at 8 tonight in the City Commission's second-floor chambers in City Hall.

Up for initial airing is the annual appropriation ordinance to implement $5,919,250 in operating expenditures which the city administration has proposed to the Commission this year.

The proposed budget is $235,000 more than last year's and is designed to maintain the current tax rate of $13.27 for each $1,000 of assessed valuation, providing the city's assessed valuation goes up $5,000,000 this year, City Manager Walter K. Willman has said.

The manager, in other business, is scheduled to report on progress of agreements to cancel building contracts at Pontiac General Hospital and have the work taken up by local contractors on a time-and-material basis.

Commissioners approved the action on an "emergency" basis last week because extra repair costs in the hospital's east wing will push the cost of completing the expansion program to an estimated $300,000 to $350,000 more than anticipated.

Up for first reading is an ordinance rezoning four lots in the triangular parcel bounded by Lakeside, Montcalm and Stanley from residential to commercial.

Ike Asks Congress to Fight Inflation

by insisting on quality merchandise at fair prices.

He called on Congress, for the third time in a fortnight, to abide by the spending cuts in the 77-billion-dollar budget which he sent to the Capitol Monday for the year starting July 1.

This, he told the legislators, would be "the most important single step in discharging the government's responsibility to help preserve the stability of prices and costs through the prudent management of its own affairs."

If government income and spending can be matched in the year starting next July 1, and if tax collections are swelled by the expected growth of income and business profits, Eisenhower said, then — "A significant additional step in tax reduction and reform can be taken in the reasonably foreseeable future."

Judge Enters Innocent Plea

Bookie Suspects Mute

Pleas of innocent were entered yesterday by Oakland County Circuit Judge William J. Beer for five persons accused of operating a horse race bookie ring in Pontiac.

Three attorneys for the five said their clients would stand mute on charges of conspiracy to violate state gambling laws. Judge Beer allowed all five persons to remain free on bond.

Arraigned Monday after being bound over from Pontiac Municipal Court were: Basil W. Burke, 59, of 29 Salmer Ave.; former deputy City treasurer LaRue E. Gullett, 41, of 301 Dick Ave.; his wife, Gladys, 35; James Pruzor, 54, of 4 S. Saginaw St.; and Charles D. Apley, 44, of the Salmer address.

The five were arrested Aug. 29 in raids by State Police Rackets Squad members. Detectives say Burke, an ex-convict, was ring leader.

No date has been set as yet for the Circuit Court trials of the five.

Judge Moore Hits Code for Adoptions

parents under Judge Moore's proposed bill.

But, "should circumstances arise in the opinion of the court that make such adoption undesirable," the temporary order would be terminated. This essentially is what is contained in the present code, Judge Moore said.

Besides probate courts, duly licensed child placement agencies could handle the entire mechanics of adoption.

The proposed legislation also would give to the courts regulation and restrictions of all monetary obligations and payments solely for the welfare of the child.

This, the future welfare of the "defenseless child," said Judge Moore, is the major purpose behind his new legislation.

Storm Rolls Out of Rockies

Snow Warnings Posted

By United Press International

Weathermen posted heavy snow warnings for parts of Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma Tuesday in the path of a blinding storm rolling out of the Rockies.

In the northeast, near gale force winds Monday whipped weekend snows into drifts which blocked roads and forced schools to close in upstate New York and western and central Pennsylvania.

The fresh wintery onslaught whipping into the plains threatened to dump five inches or more of snow in southern and eastern Kansas, west central Missouri, the Oklahoma Panhandle and possibly southern Colorado. Freezing rain also was expected in southern Missouri.

The Weather Bureau in Chicago warned motorists and cattlemen that the storm, ranging from the southern Rockies to the Canadian border, was expected to intensify as it moves eastward, causing "widespread hazardous driving conditions."

Overnight temperatures dropped as much as 30 degrees in advance of the storm, plunging to below zero in Montana, North Dakota and northern Minnesota and Wisconsin, and to near zero in Michigan and northern Illinois and Indiana.

To the south, a warming trend overspread the Gulf and Atlantic coast states, snapping a three-day cold wave blamed for the deaths of at least 11 persons in Florida.

Temperatures were expected to climb into the 70s Tuesday after reaching a low of 23 in some northern Florida spots early Monday.

Florida weather officials said the cold snap, which began during the weekend, did "rather serve" damage to truck crops in the Everglades region, but most of the state's citrus and vegetable crops survived unharmed.

House Speaker Starts Economy With Carnations

LANSING (UP)—Red carnations fell victim to a state economy move today in Michigan.

For more than 20 years, the speaker and clerk of the Michigan House of Representatives have appeared for their legislative duties each day with fresh carnations affixed to their lapels.

No more.

"Economy begins at home," said Speaker Don R. Pears in ordering the practice stopped.

Debts in the state treasury are expected to reach 100 million dollars by July 1. The two carnations, Pears noted, cost the legislature 80 cents a day, or about $85 a year.

Flown From Alaska for Treatment

Ailing Governor in Seattle

SEATTLE (AP) — Pale and receiving blood plasma as he was taken from a plane by stretcher, the first elected governor of Alaska arrived here Monday night for treatment and what will probably be a long rest.

William A. Egan, 44, Democrat, who suffered an acute pancreatic attack about a week ago after making steady recovery from an operation for removal of his gall bladder Jan. 6, was taken to the Virginia Mason Hospital. It appeared almost certain he would still be there next week when Alaska's first state Legislature convenes.

Dr. C. C. Carter, who accompanied Egan from Juneau, said "I have no idea how long he'll be here but it will probably be quite awhile."

Secretary of State Hugh J. Wade is acting governor in Egan's absence.

She Gives Them Love

New Babies Her Charges

By LEE WINBORN

AVON TOWNSHIP — Grandmother to 2,000 babies, Mrs. Burlie Swan of Avon Township puts in a busy 8-hour day taking care of newborn infants in the nursery of Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital. She's had the job for over five years and says she "loves every minute of it."

Mrs. Swan, who lives at 3086 Greenwood Dr., Avon Township, rises early each day to get her housework done so that she can report on the job every afternoon at the hospital.

She and her husband, who is a retired jitney driver in Pontiac, eat their big meal at noon. Then Mrs. Swan leaves her modest five-room house for the hospital where she is on duty from 3 to 11:30 p.m. five days a week.

"My husband always waits up for me, and we have a snack together when I get home," she said.

The charming gray-haired grandmother recalled how she started on her present job June 1, 1953, when the hospital was located at 32 Auburn Ave.

"Over there I was in the nursery, too. But because the hospital was small, I worked on other jobs on the floor," she said.

'FASCINATING' JOB

"It's fascinating to take care of babies and to meet their mothers when they come back to have their second, third and even fourth child," she said.

Mrs. Swan has one daughter, Mrs. Cecil Stover, 2868 N. Grant St., Pontiac and nine grandchildren.

GIVEN AWARD

Her devotion to duty was recognized by the hospital last month when the administration presented her with the first merit badge to be awarded to an employe of the hospital. She earned the award for being the hospital's oldest employe in point of service, for her dependability as afternoon nurse in the nursery and for her neat appearance.

"I've only missed one week of work since I started and that was because of illness," Mrs. Swan said proudly. "I've never asked for a day off when I was supposed to be on duty."

Mothers of the newborn babies and nurses who work with Mrs. Swan soon learn to realize that this grandmother, so devoted to her job, gives more to it than just her attention. She gives her love.

LOVES "HER" BABIES — Mrs. Burlie Swan of Avon Township takes care of one of her many charges in the nursery of Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital. She has been afternoon nurses' aide in the nursery for over five years and has taken care of some 2,000 babies. Mrs. Swan recently received the hospital's first merit badge given to a worthy employe for her devotion to duty since the hospital opened June 1, 1953.

2 Youths Held for Burglaries

State Police in Romeo Report Utica Pair Admit Two Area Thefts

UTICA — Two Utica youths have admitted two burglaries which netted them close to $500 in sports equipment and rare coins, Romeo State Police reported today.

They are Gregory L. Holder, 20, of 2466 Barclay St. and George E. Good, 21, of 47870 Greenview St.

Both were arraigned yesterday in Macomb County Justice Court, Mount Clemens, on the charge of breaking and entering in the nighttime. They waived examination and were bound over to circuit court.

The youths failed to furnish $1,000 bonds each and were lodged in Macomb County jail.

Holder and Good are charged with breaking into Gasow Sports Center, 3335 Auburn Rd., Shelby Township Oct. 24 and taking $285 worth of sports equipment. Two shotguns have been recovered from this burglary, investigating officers said.

The youths also admitted looting Pitts Coin Shop, 1731 E. Auburn Rd., Avon Township Nov. 19 and stole $175 worth of rare coins, State Police said.

Some of the coins were sold in a pawn shop in Cincinnati, Ohio when the two were en route to Florida to spend the profits from their burglary spree, police said.

Oakland Seeking to Lessen Losses Under Conlin Plan

A special committee of three Oakland County officials has come up with a plan which should lessen somewhat the drain on county funds should a proposed new taxing program for Michigan be adopted.

Norman R. Barnard, corporation counsel, William J. Emerson, superintendent of public schools and chairman of the Tax Allocation Board, and Robert E. Lilly, secretary of the Board of Auditors, today released a nine-page report which is being distributed to county supervisors:

In it the three have come up with three major recommendations to supervisors:

1. That a formula of state subsidy be devised to make up for the annual tax personal property be should a recommended exemption on taxing personal property be adopted in the new program.

2. That supervisors urge the Legislature to pass laws designed to underwrite 80 per cent of the cost of child care, welfare relief, medical care and hospitalization, and 50 per cent of Board of Education costs.

3. Find a solution to meet increasing county needs even should these increases in state aids be considered favorably.

The three officials were authorized by the Supervisors Ways and Means Committee last month to look into what effect the proposed Conlin Tax Study would have on Oakland County.

This was prompted when Emerson had learned that industrial counties like Oakland would be hard-hit should factory machinery, such as dies and presses, be exempted from taxation, with the exception of inventories.

"This is but a factual guide for supervisors and is not intended to be a stand of the county either favoring or opposing the Conlin plan," Barnard emphasized.

However, it appeared evident from the statistical report that Oakland's fiscal future will not be too rosy under the Conlin plan, which contemplates a net gain in state revenues of 137.7 million dollars.

"Oakland County taxpayers would pay $33 million in state income tax" under the proposal, the report points out.

"The state tax revision proposal now before the Legislature will produce an additional $137.7 million, none of which is earmarked for Oakland County after 1959," was another point contained in the study.

Major drawback of the Conlin plan, which presently is being put into bill form for presentation to lawmakers in Lansing, would be the drain on county income as the result of the exemption of tangible personal property from taxation.

The county received $916,000 from this source last year, the report says.

Although under the Conlin recommendation it is proposed that this amount be paid back to counties for the first year, no definite recommendation is made on how the counties could regain this loss in revenue in years to come.

So supervisors have been asked by the three men to "take the position that the state each year pay to the County of Oakland an amount equal to 2.72 per cent of the state income collected on this county.

"The property tax collection on Conlin exempted items in 1958 was 2.72 per cent of the estimated income tax collection as of this year. County government should expect that the state return to Oakland County an equal percentage of income tax collected here each year in the future," the study stresses.

The recommendation that the state increase its share of costs for child care, relief, medical care and education is hard to assume in the light of the cash crisis now confronting Michigan.

But Barnard explains this recommendation was made on the assumption that the Conlin report would be adopted, thus bringing into the state treasury increased taxes.

Oakland now receives state subsidies in the amount of $1,800,000.

Under the new increased subsidy suggestion, this would produce in 1959 $3,600,000, the report details, and, assuming an annual increase of 14.7 per cent increase (the average tax levy increase over the past 10 years) per year, this would produce $6,300,000 in 1963.

Picks New Site on Main Street

Detroit Realty Firm Asks Council to Rezone 12 Acres in Village

MILFORD — The shopping center project was again a topic for discussion at last night's regular council meeting.

Realtor Edward Steele, representing a Detroit firm, now wants to erect a shopping center from Main street and Summit street north on Milford road and west along Highland road.

A large hill would have to be leveled into two ponds at the base of an incline there, providing approximately 12 acres for a 14-store unit with adequate parking space.

Before final negotiations or work would begin, Steele has asked that the newly planned area be zoned from heavy industrial to commercial. Council members turned down Steele's first request for a zoning change for a similar site in the area at the last meeting.

Steele and his employer, who has refused to give his name to date, plan on meeting with the Milford Zoning Board this week to review the proposed project.

In other business the council awarded a contract to the Van Camp Chevrolet Sales and Service firm for leasing a police car for one year.

The village will pay $125 a month for the car and Van Camp will pay for the maintenance.

If the police department installs any extra equipment, the car must be returned to its original state at the end of the year, according to the agreement. The police department will continue to use their present 1958 Chevrolet as well.

Later in the evening they decided to bring in the rest of the ski equipment before retiring. Manahan found it gone when he went out to the car.

Grains Show Bearish Trend

CHICAGO (UP)—Dealers said the grain futures market appears to have slipped into another bearish trend as prices eased again today in light early transactions on the Board of Trade.

Domestic commercial business remained almost at a standstill with little prospect for more than minor improvement from time to time over the next few weeks. Mills were understood either to be well supplied or buying high protein wheat direct from markets in the Southwest.

Prices in all pits were within small fractions of previous closes.

However, most contracts had moved slightly to the plus side near the end of the first hour. Wheat was ¾ cent a bushel higher to ¼ lower, March $1.96⅝; corn ⅛ higher to ⅛ lower, March old type contract $1.14¾; oats ⅛ to ¼ higher, March 67; rye ⅛ lower to ⅝ higher, March $1.36¾; soybeans unchanged to ⅜ higher, January $2.17.

Motors Stock Takes a Loss

NEW YORK (UP)—American Motors was hit by profit taking as the stock market presented a mixed picture in heavy trading early today.

Price changes of key stocks were mostly fractional, a few gains or losses went to a point or so.

American Motors fell 1½ to 41½ on a big opening block of 10,000 shares. In brisk dealings later it cut about a point from the loss.

The stock was heavily traded and up 1¾ yesterday in advance of its financial report which contained record net income for the first fiscal 1959 quarter.

Parke, Davis was fairly active and ahead about a point in a resumption of yesterday's rise on news it hopes to have vaccines for the common cold and measles before the end of the year.

Aircrafts as well as most electronics and utilities were a bit higher. Steels, rails, chemical and nonferrous metals were mixed.

Youngstown Sheet, off more than a point was also a profit-taking victim.

5,000 Harvester Workers Refuse to End Walkout

CHICAGO (UP) — Some 5,000 workers at two International Harvester Co. plants remained on strike today despite ratification by a majority of the company's 37,000 workers of a new contract, ending a 67-day walkout.

About 32,000 of the United Auto Workers employed at the big implement firm's 23 other plants and warehouses returned to their jobs yesterday, formally ending the strike, which started Nov. 13.

The Farmall tractor plant in Rock Island, Ill., remained closed after the UAW local voted to continue the strike because of grievances in connection with piecework rates.

At Louisville, Ky., about 2,600 employes of the Harvester plant stayed away from work, refusing to cross picket lines set up by the International Assn. of Machinists. The machinists' local plans to meet with company officials tomorrow in an attempt to settle the dispute.

State Lawmakers Await Williams' Budget Speech

LANSING (UPI)—Lawmakers their four-day recess ended, today returned to the capitol to await Gov. G. Mennen Williams' budget message and weigh his proposal for easing Michigan's cash crisis by mortgaging the Veterans' Trust Fund.

The Senate will convene at 2 p.m. and the House at 8 p.m.

The 1959-60 budget, expected to total more than 400 million dollars, will be presented later this week or early next.

The stop-gap plan to tap the trust fund was handed to lawmakers during a stormy, two-day organizational session last week. It faces an uphill fight for Legislative passage and probably would be rejected if up for a vote today.

"We've all had tons of mail in opposition to touching the Veterans' money," said Sen. Harry Litowich (R-Benton Harbor).

Most of Williams' mail has been in protest of the plan but the Governor said he was hopeful of getting support after the bills are actually drafted this week.

Most lawmakers took a wait-and-see attitude on the plan to tap the 50-million-dollar Veterans' Fund last week. Some, including Rep. George Sallade (R-Ann Arbor) and several Democratic lawmakers, were in favor of using the fund, which was originally set up to assist needy Veterans.

But lawmakers are more open in opposition now that leaders of Veterans' groups have formally urged a hands-off policy and voters around the state have flooded lawmakers with protests.

Williams, whose budgets deal in millions, will talk money Thursday with Detroit Banker Joseph M. Dodge, who dealt with billions when he was U.S. Budget Director.

Williams also will meet Thursday with Detroit Mayor Louis Miriani.

The Detroit talks will be among a series of meetings arranged by Williams to get soundings on tax plans.

Edison Earnings Dip

Steelworkers Union Ads 'Booster for Economy'

PITTSBURGH (UP) — The United Steelworkers Union says its nationwide newspaper advertising campaign is aimer at boosting the nation's economy and providing more jobs for union members.

A spokesman said the advertisement, which appeared yesterday in newspapers at "vital spots" across the country, is the first of a 13-part series.

The spokesman said the campaign is keyed to the theme "The More You Earn . . . the More You Buy."

He denied that it had anything to do with upcoming contract negotiations between the union and the steel industry.

The advertisement is in the form of a memo to major auto manufacturers. It proclaims "Here is Our '59 Model!"

A shrouded auto and steelworker holding a large placard with the words "Contract, United Steelworkers of America," make up the illustration."

The phrase "one billion dollars in new money for your automobile dealers and you!" is beneath the drawing.

The advertisement copy states:

"Automobile manufacturers must realize now that their profits come only from people. New ideas, new styling, new models in the automobile industry don't mean a thing unless the people . . . a lot of people . . . are financially able to buy a new car.

"1,250,000 steelworkers will soon negotiate their 1959 wage contract. How they do with their '59 model will almost certainly decide how you'll do with yours."

Architect Tells How to Achieve Sensible School

ROMEO — "Taxpayers can get common sense schools," Architect Neal Smith told the Romeo Lions Club last night. "The method is not easy, it has no short cuts and it requires a lot of hard work along with a good deal of common sense."

Smith, a member of the firm of Smith & Smith Architects of Royal Oak, is one of the area's foremost designers of public buildings. He presented a 25-point check list for consideration when planning new school buildings after reviewing the present situation in regard to costs, national income and schools needs.

"Taxpayers can get common sense schools whenever planners start early to watch for the important things. If this method is followed, it cannot fail," he said.

Smith cautioned against overdoing multi-purpose planning of certain areas, such as auditorium and gymnasium, as well as total use by the community in addition to the educational function.

"There is no single blueprint for schools," Smith said. "In studying the needs, start with education and not with the building."

Texan Takes Agents on Gold Hunt

CORSICANA, Tex. (UPI)—A 50-dollar-a-week service station attendant was believed to be trying to prove today his claim that he had nearly two and one-half million dollars in gold hidden in an East Texas wood.

Secret Service agents ordered D. E. Jones to produce the 86 gold bars he said he found in a berry patch near Alto, Tex., last May 17. Jones said he moved the gold from the berry patch to the woods and hid them "where even the Russians couldn't find them."

Neither Jones nor the Secret Service would say when a trip to the treasure spot was supposed to start, but Jones yesterday borrowed his boss' car and said he wouldn't be back until some time this morning.

It was believed that Jones left here to meet the Secret Service agents, and head for some point in the east Texas woods.

Both U.S. Attorney William Steger of Tyler, Tex. and Forrest V. Sorrels, chief of the Secret Service office in Dallas, said they expected to announce today or tomorrow whether Jones has the gold.

Michigan Farms Prediction:

Leaner Year Lies Ahead

EAST LANSING (UPI)—While Michigan farmers look back on a fairly profitable 1958, at least one expert sees 1959 as a year for the narrower profit margin and smaller farm income.

William A. Cromarty, a Michigan State University farm economist, said today that President Eisenhower's recommendation for a slash in the farm benefit budget, combined with large supplies of farm products, would probably continue the trend toward lower incomes.

Cromarty, emphasizing that any predictions at this point were just predictions and not sure-fire forecasts, said the recommended 668-million-dollar cut in the acreage reserve program of the soil bank amounted almost to a discontinuance of the program.

The outlook is "not encouraging," Cromarty said, referring to the Eisenhower request, although some farmers do not use the soil bank program and of course wouldn't be affected by its changes.

Cromarty's main interest seemed to be in the 238-million-dollar reduction in Commodity Credit Corp. outlay for price supports, which he said, combined with greater surpluses, spelled some trouble.

Predicting events for the next year price-wise is not easy, he said.

In foretelling the dairy price picture, he said, various aspects affecting prices, such as feed supply, support levels and consumption are pieced together and a total picture results.

Cromarty said these probably wouldn't be much change from last year in dairy prices. Support levels should remain at about 75 per cent of parity; there may be a slight change in per capita consumption but not enough to have much affect, and government purchases will be down.

Cromarty expects the farm population to continue its decline but whether the rate would increase or decrease depended largely on the off-farm employment situation which might possibly not be good for the year. This would mean fewer persons would be inclined to leave farms, he said.

But an encouraging income outlook and probable higher costs will mean a narrower profit margin. This in turn means the farmer would have to be as efficient as possible to realize the most for his time and expenses.

Cromarty wasn't saying anything about the 1960 picture but said a short, low income period would not have a large effect on the inefficient farmer.

"Over a long period," he said, "the inefficient farmer would really be hurt with the profit margin becoming smaller but not for a year."

Re-Elect Hartman to Head GMTC Credit Union Here

Rudolph Hartman, 831 Glendale Ave., was re-elected president of the General Motors Truck & Coach Employes Federal Credit Union at the credit union's 23rd annual meeting Saturday night at St. Benedict Church Hall.

Other officers elected were Donald J. Wilson, vice president; H. W. Reeve, clerk; and Harry J. Woodman, treasurer-general manager.

Elected to the Board of Directors were Nicholas B. Skosich; W. J. Tobin, Michael R. Becker, A. E. Silk, and John Walton.

Charles Williams was elected chairman of the Supervisory Committee. Others on the committee are Charles Talbot and Robert Edwards.

Re-elected to the Credit Committee were Glen O. Treadway, Katherine M. Baker and R. Guy Emery. Others serving on the committee are Kathryn D. Stone and Harry J. Woodman.

The membership approved a 4 per cent dividend and it was announced by the Board of Directors that a 10 per cent rebate of all interest paid would be made.

The evening's guest speaker was Robert Peden of the Wayne State University controller's office.

Entertainment was provided by the Ed Krupa Combo, harmonicist Dick Kefgen, and Betty Gray and Marianne James, singing and dancing.

Closed Schools Upset Both Sides

Interviews to Include School Superintendent, Governor, Residents

The integration deadlock in Norfolk, Va., where the closing of six schools is currently keeping 10,000 students from furthering their education, and the effect of these closings on the community, will be examined in detail on "The Lost Class of '59: A Study Of Virginia's Massive Resistance Plan," Wednesday on Channel 2 (8:00-9:00 PM).

The hour-log special report is being produced for CBS News by Edward R. Murrow and Fred W. Friendly.

Approximately 10,000 of Norfolk's 43,000 school-age children are now "out-of-work." That is, they have no schools to go to as a result of the closing last September of three Senior and three Junior high schools by Virginia's Governor J. Lindsay Almond Jr. Through interviews with many of these students, their parents, ministers, businessmen, and members of Norfolk's naval community (Norfolk currently has the largest complex of naval installations in history), Morse and Barnett show viewers what is happening to the children and to their community.

When people are involved on both sides of a fundamental controversy, there usually isn't much problem about getting them to talk, but such was not the case when reporter-director Arthur Morse first arrived with his television film crew to spend more than a month shooting material for "The Lost Class of '59."

"We ended up getting full and complete cooperation from both sides," Morse reports, "but, at the start, the situation was quite different."

"There were a variety of reasons why key people did not want to talk," Morse continues. "Segregation groups feared distortion by the 'Northern press'; teachers and supervisory personnel in the school system were dependent on the state for their salaries; civic leaders were fearful of the political implications of any statement they might make; the clergy was divided and feared exploitation. However, they all decided that their best interests would be served by coming before our cameras."

Gov. Almond will be interviewed by Edward R. Murrow. Norfolk leaders interviewed will include Superintendent of Schools; President of the Norfolk Education Association; President of the Tidewater Education Foundation; Chairman of the Norfolk Committee for the Public Schools; President of the Norfolk Ministerial Association; and the only one of Norfolk's 1,200 public school teachers now teaching at a private school.

Ellis James, a white resident of Norfolk, Virginia, who is suing the State's Governor over his closing of six of the city's schools last September, will appear. James, whose 15-year-old daughter, Penny, is one of the dispossessed children, explains how his family arrived at the decision to have Penny become a litigant in the widely-publicized case.

Robert D. Robertson, Chairman of the Norfolk branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is also scheduled to appear.

FAVORS REOPENING — J. J. Brewbaker, Superintendent of Schools in Norfolk, Va., tells why he's in favor of reopening Norfolk's six closed public schools in an interview on "The Lost Class of '59" tomorrow night.

Big Deals Often Due to the Girls

NEW YORK (AP)—Viewpoints expressed on a radio program indicate that sex has become big business in the world of big business.

Unidentified speakers on the program, "The Business of Sex," said that the use of call girls to help swing big deals for large corporations has become so widespread that some companies pay prostitutes by the month and others keep them on regular payrolls as part of public relations staffs.

The program, "recommended for adult listening only," was broadcast on the CBS network Monday night and narrated by Edward R. Murrow.

Gils described as prostitutes said anonymously they made as much as $25,000 a year through their deals with companies and did not pay income taxes.

One girl said that girls-for-hire actually get verbal agreements on deals for companies.

An unidentified corporation executive explained another aspect of company-financed prostitution. The point is that I know that the buyer has spent the night with a prostitute that I have provided . . . in most cases the buyers are married, with families," he said.

"It sort of gives me a slight edge; well, we will not call it exactly blackmail . . . it is a good weapon to have."

Estimates of the number of prostitutes operating here ranged from 3,000 to 30,000. One publicist said even more use is made of call girls in Chicago, St. Louis, and Cleveland.

Supermarket Burns, Reopens Circus Style

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — A supermarket burned down and one week later reopened in a huge tent pitched on the parking lot of the burned store.

Launched with clowns and other circus atmosphere, the store under canvas went on a 24-hour-a-day schedule pending completion of the new building.

Sales of white paint for outside use have declined steadily since 1950. But even so, 60 per cent of the exterior paint sold today is white.

Wayne Politicos See Summerfield

Visit by GOP Leaders Aimed at Rebuilding Party in Detroit Area

WASHINGTON (AP) — Six Wayne County Republican leaders paid a whirlwind visit to Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield yesterday for the purpose of rebuilding the GOP in the Detroit area.

Summerfield, a former Republican national committeeman from Flint, said the six Wayne County Republican congressional district chairmen had arranged the appointment with him.

"They wanted to discuss aspects of the administration's program," said Summerfield. "We discussed political matters too, generally, but it had nothing to do with personalities."

The postmaster general declined comment on whether the discussions dealt with patronage matters.

The six visitors reportedly were airlifted to Washington at Summerfield's personal expense.

Summerfield has been reported trying to gain greater strength in Michigan's Republican organization. It also was reported that yesterday's talks concerned 8,500 census jobs in Michigan next fall and in the spring of 1960.

The six visitors were Frank Skierski, First Congressional District; Emmanuel N. Kary, 13th; Stanley J. Baldwin, 14th; Irwin H. Burdick, 15th; George Hummel, 16th; and Mrs. Gladys Smith, 17th.

'High Adventure' Presents Scrawny 60 Minutes

By WILLIAM EWALD

NEW YORK (UPI)—High Adventure, a one-hour CBS-TV travel series, delivered its third installment of the season and it proved a scrawny 60 minutes.

Last October, a group of scientists shipped out to the Pacific island of Puka Puka for IGY, who is, of course, the educated brother of Izzy. The object of the scientists was to film a solar eclipse and the object of the accompanying CBS-TV camera crew was to film the scientists.

Unfortunately, shooting scientists is not nearly as entertaining on TV as shooting, say, Indians and as a result the hour seemed stretched thin to the point of flimsiness.

There were a few useful sequences in the hour: Some underwater photography, some shots of the solar eclipse and some really stunning color footage of flareups along the skin of the sun. But for the most part, the visit to Puka Puka was pretty punka punka.

SHORT SHOTS: ABC-TV's "Youth Anonymous," a one hour peek at Detroit's successful battle against juvenile delinquency, was a serviceable rumble. It was made even more serviceable by ABC-TV's decision to display it in prime evening time instead of TV's beautifully manicured Sunday afternoon graveyard.

Tennessee Ernie's contributions to the CBS-TV Danny Thomas show last night were amusing, but the show, as usual, dissolved in a squish of maudlin sentiment at the close . . . Keenan Wynn squandered himself on an NBC-TV Goodyear Theater what-is-it last night, "Afternoon of the Beast" . . . Dick Van Dyke got off to a nervous start as temporary emcee on the NBC-TV Jack Paar show last night and then let his guests overpower him. But he is a young man of amiability and wit and I have a feeling that once he shakes himself loose, he'll turn out some first-rate shows.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: NBC-TV's Meet the Press racked up its highest Trendex since Nov. 2, 1952, with its Mikoyan interview Sunday — a 16.4 . . . Polly Bergen will be absent from the panel of CBS-TV's To Tell the Truth for six to eight weeks while rehearsing for the upcoming Broadway musical, "First Impressions."

ABC-TV will start Meet McGraw one hour later on Sunday evening beginning Feb. 1 . . . Jocelyn Brando, who is Marlon's sister, will star in "Emergency Only," a Feb. 3 offering of ABC-TV's Alcoa Presents . . . The Phil Silvers named their new 6-pound, 14-ouncer Nancy Elizabeth.

Rigger Drops 70 Feet —Lives to Tell the Tale

BRISBANE (AP) — Norman Milde crashed 70 feet from the sixth floor of a new building, and lived to tell about it.

He fell onto Charles Crepin who was working on the basement level.

Wife, 14, Tells Police of Rival—12 Years Old!

ROCKFORD, Ill. (AP)—Rockford police have heard many a tale of marital difficulty, but this one beats all.

They arrested a delinquent 14-year-old wife who complained that her husband of one year was running around with a younger woman.

The 14-year-old's husband is 26. Her rival is 12.

Automatic Device Cuts Over-Long Phone Calls

LANDRUM, S.C. (AP)—The Thermal Belt Co., is cutting down on long-windedness on the telephone here.

A buzzer sounds on the line after 5 minutes of yakety-yak. A minute later, if the call hasn't been ended, the parties are automatically disconnected.

Most effective, customers complain.

Fathers Seem to Be Making a Comeback

By EARL WILSON

COLUMBUS, O. — Dear Dads:

You may become fads.

You're staging a comback. You may become almost as important as Teeners and Sub-Teeners.

WILSON

Don't panic, now, and I'll explain. When I flew back to Ohio — home state state of such TV and movie stars as Dean Martin, Danny Thomas, Bob Hope, Doris Day, Hopalong Cassidy, Polly Bergen, Clark Gable, Peggy King and Ted Lewis —it was to observe the inauguration of the new 5-foot-5 governor, His Excellency Mike DiSalle.

And I found Frank Sinatra's dad, Marty Sinatra, of Weehawken, N.J. a friend of Mike's, signing autographs.

Everybody was talking about Mike's own father, Tony DiSalle, 71, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., stealing the show.

"I couldn't get dad away from the inaugural ball — he was having a ball," Mike said. "Pops did the polka till 1 A.M."

They look alike — "Except," as an insulter told Mike, "Your old man looks younger — and better."

Politicians used to wave the flag and talk of home and mother. Mike spoke of his mother but also of his dad's sacrifices to send him to Georgetown University.

"He made $1 an hour as a metal polisher, or $40 a week, and he sent me $12 a week of it — and he had six others at home!" Mike said.

Mike interlarded tributes to his dad in some of his humorous remarks which they call "DiSallies" here.

Asked about being presidential timber, Mike laughingly said once, "I can't be — I'm an immigrant — I was born in New York City."

The Mike of today has no mustache, though he did 10 years ago when he was Harry Truman's Price Administrator and one of the most headlined guys living. His friend John Daly says Castro grew a beard and runs Cuba, while Mike cut off his mustache and runs Ohio.

Mike also gave up smoking cigars — though friends say those weren't cigars—those were Wheeling Stogies.

His Excellency is a dad and granddad himself and I'm glad he's going to enshrine dad on a pedestal — where he'll be easier to find when the family wants something.

Luck to you, Daddy-o!

Thug Leaves in Disgrace

NEW YORK (AP)—Somewhere in the city today a frustrated bank robber is probably practicing his snarl.

His attempt to rob a Bronx bank Monday night left him no richer—and with very little pride.

The bandit slipped a note into the head teller's cage at a branch of the Industrial Bank of Commerce.

"This is a stickup," the message read. "Give me $5,000 in 10-dollar and 20-dollar bundles. Put them in an envelope."

The teller, Daniel Adair, 30, looked up and smiled.

"Who are you?" he asked.

The bandit opened his overcoat to show a pistol in a shoulder holster. "Come on, don't smile, give me $3,000," he demanded.

"Well, what do you want, three or five?" Adair demanded.

"Don't laugh!" commanded the bandit. "Give me the money."

"Is that thing for real?" Adair taunted, referring to the pistol.

The exasperated bandit turned and dashed out empty-handed.

Latin Week Costume Boon to Sleepyheads

HILLIARDS, Ohio (AP)—For one week, anyway, any late-rising student from Hilliards High School could simply wrap his bedsheet around him and head for class.

That was Latin Week, when most of the student body wore sheets in the style of the togas worn by Roman citizens.

Under a new trade agreement between Sweden and West Germany the latter will purchase 300,000 tons of grain from Sweden during each of the next three years.

'Rebels' Use Post Cards

Seeking Ouster of Wayne President

DETROIT (AP)—A post card war designed to force the removal of Wayne State University President Clarence B. Hilberry has been launched by an unknown underground rebel group.

The rebels signed the cards "The Minute Men of Wayne." They were mailed Friday to alumni, newsmen, legislators and Wayne officials. Campus officials are stumped. But they started an immediate investigation yesterday aimed at detefmining the sender of the cards.

The post cards say:

"Because of utter disregard of the opinions and wishes of the faculty, students and alumni of Wayne State University: HILBERRY MUST GO."

The cards apparently stem from Dr. Hilberry's proposal to place Wayne under a single governing body with the University of Michigan.

Many persons connected with Wayne have been outspoken in their disfavor of the proposed consolidation.

The post cards were the second poison pen attack on a Wayne president in recent years.

Anonymous letters were sent to the University of Illinois board of trustees in 1954 describing Dr. David D. Henry as an inept administrator. Dr. Henry was a candidate for the Illinois presidency at the time. He was given the job.
