

Monday, October 13, 2008

'Nightmare on Elm Street' continues student theatre trilogy

The student team that brought horror fans Friday the 13th LIVE! and Halloween LIVE! present Nightmare on Elm Street LIVE! in the Varner Lab Theatre October 26-31, 2008.

Many years ago, a man named Fred Krueger kidnapped and murdered local children whom lived on Elm Street. When the parents found out they banded together and put a stop to this menace. Now, the new kids of Springwood are experiencing terrible Nightmares, featuring a man with knives for fingers. But are they really just bad dreams?

Find out, when Freddy Krueger haunts your nightmares in A Nightmare on Elm Street LIVE! a student produced stage show adapted for stage by Ryan Falcheck and Denver Surgener and directed by Brian Papandrea and Ryan Falcheck.

Shows are at 10:30 p.m. October 26, 27, 28, 29, 30 and 31, with a midnight show on October 31. There will also be a costume contest on October 31. Tickets are just $5, and available at the Varner Box Office, open Tuesday-Friday, 3-6 p.m. and one hour before performances. Tickets are also sold in Oakland Center from noon-1 p.m. Monday through Friday, and at the door, although these shows always sell out - arrive early if you're buying tickets at the door.

Viewer discretion is advised due to stage violence and mature content of this play.

SUMMARY

The Oakland University student team that brought horror fans Friday the 13th LIVE! and Halloween LIVE! present Nightmare on Elm Street LIVE! in the Varner Lab Theatre October 26-31, 2008.

Created by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Monday, October 13, 2008
Modified by Carly Uhrig (uhrig@oakland.edu) on Tuesday, February 15, 2011

Article Start Date: Monday, October 13, 2008