NEW YORK (AP) — Federal agents arrested three men and a woman today on charges of conspiring to blow up the Washington Monument, the Statue of Liberty and the Liberty Bell.

The announcement, made in Washington, said a cache of explosives had been found in the Bronx.

AREA CLOSED

More than 75 uniformed police and detectives were assigned to the vicinity.

Residents of the area said they had seen policemen assigned to rooftops and other spots in the area earlier in the day.

★ ★ ★

They said a light blue automobile that might have contained explosives seemed to be the focal point of attention. Police backed the car, bearing New York license plates, to a parking lot.

Agents said those arrested were three Negro men and a white woman from Canada.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said agents cooperating with New York City police seized a quantity of dynamite and blasting caps buried in a lot in the Bronx. He said the cache was a portion of the explosives being accumulated by the conspirators as part of their plot.

Those arrested were Robert S. Collier, 28; Walter A. Bowe, 32; Khaleel S. Sayyed, 22, and Michelle Duclos, 28.

Hoover said the four were charged with conspiring to destroy government property — specifically the Statue of Liberty in New York harbor, the Washington Monument near the White House in Washington, and the Liberty Bell in Philadelphia's Independence Hall. Conviction could carry a maximum

Pick Nominees in 14th District

Former Republican State Sen. Farrell E. Roberts and Livonia City Councilman Edward H. McNamara were nominated yesterday in a special primary election for the 14th District Senate seat.

They will oppose one another in a general election April 5. The winner will succeed Paul M. Chandler who was elected to the post in November but died before taking office.

An attorney, Roberts, 42, of 2486 Lafay, West Bloomfield Township, led the field of six GOP candidates in getting the nomination, while McNamara beat out two other Democrats.

McNamara, 38, a manager with the Michigan Bell Telephone Co., won the nomination with 4,003 votes.

FARRELL E. ROBERTS

DEM OPPONENTS

His Democratic opponents, John H. Burke, a Farmington attorney, and Elsie Gilmore, onetime head of the Democratic party in Wayne County, garnered 1,032 and 978 votes, respectively.

Other GOP candidates and their votes were as follows:

Allen C. Ingle, Farmington Township justice of the peace, 1,154; Thomas J. McHugh, a Sylvan Lake councilman, 909; Fitzhugh Prescott, a Farmington businessman, 383; and George T. Ames, a Novi barber, 230.

The vote totals include the 51 precincts in Oakland County and 53 precincts in Wayne County that make up the 14th Senate District.

DISTRICT

Attacks Could Ignite War, Russians Say

LONDON (AP) — Moscow radio warned the United States today that continued strikes against North Viet Nam could ignite a world war.

In an English-language broadcast beamed at North America, the Soviet radio said:

"The old saying 'peace is indivisible' remains true to this day.

"The flames of war starting in one place could easily spread to neighboring countries and, in the final count, embrace the whole world.

★ ★ ★

DANGER EXISTS

The broadcast accused the United States of planning new raids against North Viet Nam and said:

"To this end large contingents of the U.S. armed forces are being concentrated off the shores of Indochina, including an extremely powerful strike force from the U.S. 7th Fleet.

★ ★ ★

"By striking out against North Viet Nam the United States is encroaching on the entire Socialist camp."

FBI Seeking Elusive Mayor of Dearborn

DETROIT (AP) — Dearborn Mayor Orville Hubbard, object of a five-day search by federal authorities, promised to appear for arraignment in federal court here today.

DETROIT (AP)—The FBI today entered the search for Orville Hubbard, mayor of suburban Dearborn, as the fruitless quest entered its fifth day.

The U. S. Attorney's office here requested FBI aid after concluding that Hubbard "is in hiding and attempting to avoid arrest."

A caller identifying himself as Hubbard telephoned local news media Sunday saying he would be in his office Monday, but Hubbard failed to show up as U.S. Marshals sought to arrest him for a violation of a federal civil rights statute.

The search began Friday when Hubbard failed to appear in U. S. District Court to answer charges of denying police protection to a homeowner in the mostly white suburb. A mob gathered at the home on Labor Day, 1963, apparently acting under the mistaken assumption that the home was being sold to Negroes.

★ ★ ★

Chief Assistant U.S. Attorney George Merrill said Ralph B. Guy, Dearborn corporation counsel, called him Monday morning on behalf of Hubbard.

Guy indicated Hubbard would like to appear for arraignment tomorrow, but, Merrill added, "could provide no good reason" for the mayor's not appearing Monday.

Big Rocket Performs Without a Flaw in 8th Straight Success

The space traveler's assignment was to measure and count the impacts with space debris and report back with electronic "squawks."

Word was awaited from tracking stations as to whether the satellite unfolded its giant wings to absorb and relay the blows.

Soon after the launching word came from tracking stations that the satellite had unfolded its broad wings as planned, setting up a target to take and record the blows.

★ ★ ★

CAMERA SET

Space agency officials said a camera mounted on the rocket's second stage provided clear pictures of the deployment.

It was the eighth success in a row for the big booster on which the United States counts for major manned space ventures.

The huge rocket blasted off at 9:37 a.m. EST with the satellite folded in its nose.

Eleven minutes later, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported the rocket had done everything expected of it and had drilled into orbit.

An announcement said a shroud covering the payload had been jettisoned.

Guard Hearing in Second Day

Romney Overrules Requests to Dismiss

LANSING (AP)—After overruling renewed requests to dismiss charges against two Michigan National Guard generals, Gov. Romney began a scheduled seven-hour session today to examine details of the charges.

★ ★ ★

In cross-examination of today's first witness, defense attorneys were attempting to show that the Michigan military establishment has continued bookkeeping methods for which Maj. Gen. Ronald McDonald and Brig. Gen. Carson Neifert were charged with gross neglect of duty.

★ ★ ★

REVIEW REQUEST

As soon as Romney opened his "administrative hearing" for the generals yesterday, defense attorneys renewed a request for dismissal of charges.

After the state's one hour opening statement, they repeated the request.

House Fire Is Fatal to Waterford Boy

A house fire early today in Waterford Township resulted in the death of a 4-year-old boy, serious burns to his mother and hospitalization of three sisters.

Dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital from suffocation due to smoke inhalation was Harold Babb of 2068 Denby.

Mrs. H. D. Babb, 30, who was in the house with her five children when the 12:28 a.m. blaze broke out in the basement, suffered second and third degree burns of the face, neck and hands and was in serious condition this morning at Pontiac General.

Daughters, Wynne, 12, Candace, 8, and Carolyn, three weeks, all suffered smoke inhalation and were listed in satisfactory condition at the hospital.

★ ★ ★

Another child, Loren, 2, who was sleeping in the same room as Harold, apparently was awakened by the smell of smoke. He walked from the house to safety.

The house was a total loss. Firemen have not determined the cause of the blaze as yet.

Waterford Fire Chief Lewis Goff said that H. D. Babb drove up to the house just before firemen arrived on the scene.

Babb, who had been in Flint having his car repaired at his father's garage, attempted to enter the burning building but was driven back by the flames, Goff said.

The two older girls who occupied a rear bedroom in the quad-level home had already

Reject Income Tax in Grand Rapids

A city income tax proposal, identical to the one which Pontiac residents will vote on March 18, was defeated in Grand Rapids yesterday by a 4 to 1 margin.

The tax plan was turned down by a vote of 36,349 to 9,658.

A companion proposal to reduce the city charter limitation on allowable property taxes from 10 mills to seven if the income tax passed was also defeated, 23,426 to 18,305.

★ ★ ★

The two proposals reflected more than two years of work and discussion on finding a method to raise more money for the city's general fund.

New Pump Project to Hike Lake Levels

An 18-month, $110,000 project designed to bring Lower and Middle Straits lakes back up to their normal levels was completed yesterday with the flick of a switch.

Pontiac Press Photo

INSPECT NEW PUMP — A new pump on the banks of the Huron River was given a last-minute check yesterday before it was turned on by Robert Evans (center), Oakland County deputy drain commissioner. Located near Tamworth and Commerce Road, the pump will force 4,500 gallons of water per minute more than a half-mile into Lower and Middle Straits lakes. Shown with Evans are Fred Marshall, lake level maintenance man (left), and Jack Portman, lake level project engineer.

Consisting mainly of a large centrifugal pump and some 3,500 feet of 18-inch pipe, the project was built by the Sterling Construction Co. of Utica under the supervision of Daniel W. Barry, Oakland County drain commissioner.

After several days of testing, the pump was given the final OK and started yesterday by Robert Evans, deputy drain commissioner.

Some 4,500 gallons of water per minute will be lifted from the Huron River and forced into Lower Straits Lake by the pump, which is located on the river bank just off Tamworth near Commerce Road in Commerce Township.

★ ★ ★

As Lower Straits Lake fills up, it will overflow into Middle Straits. Drain engineers estimate it will take about 90 days for the pump to fill both lakes, operating 24 hours a day.

LAKE LEVELS

Middle Straits is presently 2.86 feet below legal level and Lower Straits is down 4.4 feet, according to Evans.

★ ★ ★

Recreational value of property around the two lakes should be restored by spring.

★ ★ ★

Similar lake level control projects are under way on several other lakes in Oakland County. All are engineered and supervised by Barry and his staff of engineers.

Install New Viet Premier; Calls for National Unity

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A new government head by Dr. Phan Van Quat, a former foreign minister, and a new 20-member legislative council were installed in Saigon today by appointment of Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh's high command.

Quat called for national unity.

He said the formation of the new regime will free the army for further military duties in the U.S.-backed war against the Viet Cong. Quat is a former North Vietnamese who pulled out when the Communists took over North Viet Nam.

A spokesman for the U.S. Embassy said:

★ ★ ★

"We welcome the end of this interim period and look forward to very close cooperation with this new government."

The legislative council, made up of 20 representatives of the military and various political and religious groups is to serve as a forerunner for a future elected legislature.

In fact, neither the government nor the legislative council will have much real power. The military, under Khanh, continue to hold a watchdog position.

★ ★ ★

As expected, most of the Cabinet members are natives of North and central Viet Nam. The militant Buddhists are strongly represented.

A significant inclusion was Tran Quang Thuan as minister of social welfare. He held the post in Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh's first Cabinet after Jan. 30, 1964, but quit after a series of public arguments with Khanh.

Selection of Quat, 55, a former foreign minister, had been delayed when the military balked at plans to appoint Tran Van Tuyen as interior minister. Tuyen is originally from North Viet Nam and it was argued he would have difficulty in the post because of having to deal with the touchy religious groups of South Viet Nam.

The ambush left 32 government men dead; 8 wounded and 10 missing. About 100 men, a regional forces company, were on the trucks.

Two of three armored troop carriers escorting the convoy were knocked out by recoilless rifle fire.

State Dems Unveil Job Benefits Bill

LANSING (AP) — House and Senate Democrats today praised the report of Republican Gov. George Romney's study commission on workmen's compensation and unveiled a bill paralleling its recommendations.

★ ★ ★

Liberalized benefits — granting up to $100 a week, eliminating the 500-week limitation and increasing payments annually to reflect the cost of living increases—was to be introduced in the House today and in the Senate Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

The new schedule of benefits, however, could not apply to workers presently receiving compensation — but only to future cases.

It was outlined by Sen. Sander Levin, D-Berkley, and Rep. James Bradley, D-Detroit, chairmen of the House and Senate labor committees.

MANDATORY COVERAGE

The bill broadens mandatory coverage to include agricultural employes who work 35 hours a week for 13 weeks. It would include all other workers—including domestics—if one or more employes of a single employer work 35 hours a week for 13 weeks.

Elected public officials, whose elected post is their major source of employment, also would be included.

The $10,500 maximum benefit limitation for workers disabled by silicosis, a respiratory disease, would be eliminated—but only after a one-year grace period.

Levin said he did not expect "every side to agree with every aspect of this bill."

★ ★ ★

The reason the proposed new law would not be retroactive, he said, "is that the cost to employers is still too speculative. Insurance companies also would complain that we are changing the rules in the middle of the game," he said.

Election Campaigns Launched

Candidates for office in Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills officially got their campaigns under way yesterday by filing nominating petitions.

There will be competition for City Commission seats in both April 5 elections and a race for justice of the peace in Bloomfield Hills.

Renfrew was appointed to the commission in September 1951 and elected to the post the following April.

★ ★ ★

He had served as mayor in 1954-55 and was picked again by his fellow commissioners last year.

CANDIDATES

Candidates for the two available three-year terms on the commission are incumbent Carl F. Ingraham; Brent K. Hogshead, 1519 Henrietta; Ruth B. McNamee, 1271 Lakeside; and William B. Saunders, 685 Pierce.

Mrs. McNamee, a city planning board member, was unsuccessful in her bid for a commission post last year.

TWO CHALLENGERS

In Bloomfield Hills, two men joined the three incumbents who filed for two year terms on the commission.

The April ballot will list as prospective commissioners incumbent Mayor Louis J. Colombo Jr.; incumbent David W. Lee; incumbent John W. Blanchard; Manton M. Cummins, 753 Sebago; and E. R. Davies, 1670 Hammond.

Two attorneys are running to succeed Justice of the Peace Alva J. Richardson, who retired last year.

Filing petitions for the four-year post were Benjamin T. Hoffiz Jr. of 718 Parkman, a Detroit attorney, and Jack B. Baldwin of 1750 Hillwood, an assistant prosecuting attorney for Oakland County.

★ ★ ★

Incumbent Homer J. Murphy is the single candidate for the one-year constable term.

BIRMINGHAM — Voters in the April 5 election will be asked to authorize the sale of a small, undeveloped city park.

The triangular parcel is located at Worth and Webster on the city's southeast side. It is known as Worth Park.

Surrounded by commercial developments and parking lots, the use of the property has been discussed a number of times by the city commission since last summer.

Last night, commissioners voted 4-2 in securing public expression by placing the sale proposal on the ballot.

Several persons have expressed an interest in either purchasing the property or leasing it.

The Chamberlain Real Estate Co. would like to purchase the property and transform it into a parking area for employes and customers. The company has indicated that it would be willing to pay in excess of $15,000 for the land.

However, if the property is sold, it would be done under the city's so - called Probate Court method.

This involves establishing a minimum appraisal and a minimum price, advertising the sale and holding all offers which may be received for two weeks and then readvertising. This readvertising continues until the highest bid is received.

In another action concerning the April 5 ballot, the commission gave approval to the placing of explanatory captions under each of the two proposals on initiative and referendum.

CAPTION WORDING

The captions will read "Amendment proposed by City Commission," and "Amendment proposed by Electors' Petition."

★ ★ ★

The commission decided not to go into detail since neither explanation as suggested by the city attorney contained all the information pertinent to describing the propositions.

★ ★ ★

The commission proposal provides for initiative and referendum only on ordinances, and places restrictions on initiative and referendum rights on certain types of legislation including zoning and fiscal matters.

The other initiative and referendum proposal has no restrictions.

To Draft Law on Weapons

Waterford Is Seeking Ordinance on Minors

Waterford Township Board members last night instructed the township attorney and police department to collaborate in drafting a proposed ordinance regulating the use of certain weapons by minors.

★ ★ ★

Adoption of such an ordinance was requested by the police department to help control the growing amount of property destruction.

Weapons suggested by police for inclusion in the ordinance are air rifles, air pistols, bows and arrows and sling shots.

Presently the township has a firearms ordinance but it does not include weapons such as air rifles and slingshots which are used in most instances of property destruction by minors.

★ ★ ★

PROHIBIT MINORS

According to the ordinance, violators would lose their weapons and their parents or legal guardians would be subject to a fine if they knowingly allowed the minors to possess a weapon.

Trustee Rudy Mansfield objected to the township adopting the same ordinance Pontiac has because he said it would jeopardize the right of the many youngsters who use weapons properly to stop a few offenders.

★ ★ ★

Trustee Loren Anderson also objected. He said that under the Pontiac ordinance a youngster on his way to an archery lesson sponsored by the Waterford Recreation Department could be apprehended.

★ ★ ★

In referring the task of drafting an ordinance, the board suggested that the attorney and police consider amending the present firearms ordinance to include the other weapons.

Firm to Offer Plan on City Bus Service

A proposal to continue bus service in the city for a year beginning April 1 is scheduled to be presented to the City Commission tonight.

The proposal is contained in a letter to Joseph A. Warren, city manager, from American Transit Corp.

Essentially, the proposal calls for a continuation of the present lease agreement between the city and American Transit, parent firm of Pontiac Transit Corp.

The city and bus firm currently are operating under a 90-day extension of an old contract that provides for a city subsidy on bus company losses up to $1,700 per month.

In related business tonight, a report on bus company operations during the month of January is slated to be given to the commission.

Also tonight, a motion is to be presented to have the city join with Bloomfield Township in petitioning the county drain commissioner to construct a storm sewer in the area of Square Lake Road and the Grand Trunk Railroad.

In addition, a public hearing is to be held on construction of sewers for an area in the southwest portion of the city.

The sewers are tentatively proposed for Arthur, Luther, Ditmar, Alton, Pearsall and Fildew between Wren and Motor.

jumped 12 feet to the ground on the instructions of their mother who was awakened by the smell of smoke.

Mrs. Babb then dropped the baby to the girls from the front window and jumped out herself.

The fire victims all were taken to the house of next-door neighbor Harry Willhoff, of 2070 Denby, where they awaited the arrival of ambulances.

Mrs. Wellhoff said that shortly after she went to bed she was awakened by screams from the Babb house.

She said she woke her husband and when they saw smoke billowing from the house they called the fire department.

ESTIMATED $33,000 LOSS

Chief Goff said that the $25,000 brick and frame house was entirely gutted and was a total loss.

He estimated an additional $8,000 damage to contents of the building.

Goff said that the fire started in the furnace room but that it has not been determined yet whether the furnace caused the blaze.

Babb said that he thinks the fire damage to the building and contents is covered fully by insurance, according to Goff.

Mrs. Wellhoff and some of the other neighbors are arranging to take care of the family's clothing needs since all their belongings were destroyed in the fire.

penalty of 10 years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

FACTS PROVIDED

Hoover provided this information about those arrested:

In 1964, Collier, a Boston native, violated State Department regulations by traveling to Cuba with a group under the auspices of a student committee. Hoover said Collier is the self-styled leader of an organization Collier calls the Black Liberation Front.

Collier is married and lives in Manhattan with his wife and one child. He studied electrical engineering in 1962-63 at the Lowell Institute School, Cambridge, Mass.

He was employed at the New York Public Library last December. While in the Air Force in 1956, Hoover said, Collier was convicted on a charge of slashing a man during a fight in London and received a less than honorable discharge.

★ ★ ★

Bowe, a native of Philadelphia, is also married and the father of one child. Currently employed as a judo instructor at the Henry Street Settlement House in New York City, he was a student at Howard University in Washington last year. Hoover said Bowe has been a supporter of Fidel Castro and the Fair Play for Cuba Committee.

ATTENDED SCHOOL

Sayyed, who was born in Brooklyn and lives there, is single and attended Howard University's school of engineering in Washington last year.

Hoover said Miss Duclos, who entered this country yesterday from Canada, has been employed by one of Quebec province's separatist parties — Rassemblement Pour L'Independence Nationale. She lives at 307 Maplewood Ave., Montreal.

War Crimes Chief Admits: I Was a Nazi

STUTTGART, Germany (UPI) — Erwin Schuele, West Germany's chief hunter of Nazi war criminals, admitted today he was a Nazi himself.

Schuele told a news conference he joined the party in 1937 to escape persecution for his anti-Nazi beliefs.

Communist East Germany has charged that Schuele, director of West Germany's Center for the Prosecution of Nazi Crimes, has been protecting war criminals.

Schuele told newsmen his postwar record at the center shows "how absurd" are the Communist charges. His center provided much of the evidence for the prosecution of hundreds of former Nazis including those accused of running the Auschwitz death camp.

Schuele said his Nazi party membership was so loose he was not even sure he had been a full member until last week when he checked at Berlin with U.S. Army authorities holding captured Nazi records.

DRAFTED IN SA

The 51-year-old Nazi hunter said he was drafted into the SA (the party's Strongarm Legion) upon graduation from high school in 1933. He said he was studying law at Tuebingen University in 1937 when he ran into trouble because of his anti-Nazi attitude.

He said he then filed papers asking for party membership. Schuele said he never received a party card or took part in Nazi activities.

Doctors Part Siamese Twins

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Surgeons separated the Webber Siamese twins at 11:45 a.m. today. Both infants appeared to be doing well, a medical bulletin said.

★ ★ ★

A hospital spokesman said the twins were connected by the membrane around their hearts and that this was successfully separated.

The separation in the liver area, considered the most critical, was completed at 11:30 a.m.

The scheduled three to four-hour operation began at 8:45 a.m. when tubes were inserted in the infants' scalp veins.

★ ★ ★

The twins were born to Mr. and Mrs. John Webber Jr. of nearby Bay City and rushed to the Texas Children's Hospital in Houston immediately after their Dec. 8 birth.

The giant two-stage Saturn 1, believed to be the most powerful rocket in the world, blazed away from Cape Kennedy at 9:37 a.m. EST on the 1.5 million pounds of thrust generated by its first stage powerplant, a cluster of eight engines.

Folded in the nose of the rocket was its unique payload, officially named Pegasus after the flying horse of Greek mythology.

Once in orbit, the nose shroud was to fall away and Pegasus was to extend two wing - like panels to a span of 96 feet.

Each wing is 14 feet wide and about an inch thick. The burned-out second stage was to remain attached, giving the craft the appearance of a huge bird swooping through space.

NATIONAL WEATHER — Rain is forecast tonight for the lower half of the Mississippi Valley and northern Pacific Coast, snow or rain for upper part of Mississippi Valley, snow along northwest border and flurries in lower Lakes area. It will be warmer from the central Plateau to the upper Lakes and colder from the southern Plains to the north Atlantic.

City Tax Review Board to Begin Sessions March 2

Pontiac's Board of Tax Review will meet March 2 at 9 a.m., it was announced today by City Assessor Edward C. Bloe.

★ ★ ★

The board sets the city's total assessed valuation annually. It will begin hearing appeals on local assessed valuations at the March meeting.

★ ★ ★

Scheduled to be heard during the first week are hardship cases. During the week beginning March 8, personal and real estate cases will be heard.

★ ★ ★

Bloe said that the vote on the city income tax, slated for March 18, would not affect board of review actions.

POWERFUL DETERRENT — A California Highway Patrol officer tapes a paper seal to a 12-gauge shotgun being issued to the state's officers. The seal shows the weapon is loaded and ready for use and breaks when a shell is pumped into the chamber. The extremely deadly weapons were issued as a deterrent to increased attacks on patrolmen.

Road Report Shows '64 Costliest Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — Accidents killed a record 104,000 Americans last year and cost the nation's economy more than $15 billion.

The Public Health Service also reported Monday night that accidents hospitalized about 2 million persons.

Dr. Paul V. Joliet, chief of the Division of Accident Prevention, said the number of accidental deaths was up 3,000 over 1963. Auto accidents claimed 48,000 lives last year, up 5,000.

Returns Drag In

Taxpayers Uncomplaining but Poky

WASHINGTON (AP) — Good sport that he is, the American taxpayer is digging down for that extra tax money without telling his troubles to the Internal Revenue Service.

But, probably because his pocketbook hurts so, he is being slower than usual with his income tax returns.

The reason so many Americans have a bigger bundle of tax trouble this year is underwithholding last year, a by-product of the 1964 tax reduction law.

The underwithholding was well-publicized in advance, and many taxpayers — there are no figures available on how many — adjusted their deductions accordingly.

NO REPORTS

Perhaps because of this, the revenue service has had no reports of unusually numerous or loud cries of anguish from underwithheld taxpayers.

But in the first five weeks of the new year, the revenue service received 6 per cent fewer returns than in the first five weeks of 1964.

* * *

It seems reasonable to assume that many persons who owe $50 or more may be a shade slower in getting their returns in the mail — especially if they have been used to getting refunds.

However, a revenue spokesman said it is too early in the year to tell if there will be mass foot-dragging.

$5.5 BILLION

Refunds ran about $5.5 billion last year and it has been estimated that they will be $1 billion to $2 billion less this year.

Hardship from underwithholding is expected to fall hardest of taxpayers in the $7,000 to $20,000 a year class. Taxpayers below $7,000 received a higher percentage tax cut under the 1964 law. Those above $20,000 probably have become accustomed to underwithholding.

The withholding problem recurs each year for millions of taxpayers since the deduction is only an approximation of what the taxpayer owes. It became more acute this year, however, because withholding rates were lowered last year more than the scope of the tax cut.

* * *

Income tax rates this year are lower as the second stage of the tax cut takes effect. Withholding remains at the 1964 level, however, and this should provide a better balance between withholding and taxes owed.

HIGHER RATE

There is a possibility the House Ways and Means Committee will consider this year a plan to provide a higher withholding rate on higher salaries, but the committee has not given the matter a priority rating.

Rep. James B. Utt, R-Calif., has proposed an installment payment plan for taxpayers who wound up with a sizable income tax bill.

* * *

Unless some such proposal is adopted — and this seems unlikely — any slowdown in payments will have only a limited effect on revenues. The slowdown can't last beyond April 15.

Tax Tips

(EDITOR'S NOTE — The following income tax information is furnished by the Internal Revenue Service.)

QUESTION: "Income averaging" is a new term that has been added to the vocabulary of the Internal Revenue Service. Just how does it work and whom does it affect?

ANSWER: The new income averaging provision should be particularly helpful to persons with sharply fluctuating income such as salesmen, entertainers, writers, professional athletes and many business and professional people.

This provision of the 1964 tax law treats the qualified extra income of one year as if it had been earned over a five-year period. Since tax rates are progressive, this means a lower tax rate for the higher year's earnings.

Income averaging can be used by a U.S. citizen or resident over 25 who has not been a full-time student during four of his taxable years beginning after he attained age 21. It can be used by taxpayers under 25 if they have furnished at least one-half of their own support in all four years prior to the averaging year.

To qualify for averaging, income in the current year must be at least one-third greater than the average income earned during the previous four years. This excess must also exceed $3,000. The income in excess of 133⅓% of the "average income" is then taxed in an amount equal to five times the tax payable on the first one-fifth of the excess. This procedure amounts to a spreading of the excess over a five year period.

For the answer to your question call your local Internal Revenue Service office.

Cuba to Halt Rationing of Root Vegetables

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Fidel Castro has promised Cubans a new year's present next year — no more rationing of root vegetables.

Government-controlled Havana radio said in a Miami-monina radio said in a Miami-monitored broadcast Monday that the prime minister pledged that "viandas", as Cubans call these roots, will be removed, through "extraordinary efforts", from rationing cards.

Election Races Start in Seven Area Cities

★ ★ ★

The clocks which marked the deadline for filing nominating petitions yesterday also signaled the official start of races for candidates seeking city offices.

The "finish" line" will be gained April 5 when voters will choose those who will govern them for new terms.

South Lyon

Two candidates are yet to be announced in South Lyon, where the City Council will have to name a pair to compete against the two men who filed for seats on the council.

The city charter stipulates that at least two persons must run for the mayoralty and each available council post.

It further provides that the council must name candidates if a sufficient number do not file. The appointments are expected to be made at the council's March 1 session.

Declaring their intention to seek the four-year terms were incumbent Vincent Weinburger and Herbert W. Bondy, 596 Hagadorn.

OPPOSES MAYOR

Ralph K. Lloyd, 630 Hagadorn, filed to oppose Mayor John E. Noel in his bid for reelection for a two-year term.

Farmington

Farmington Mayor Robert B. Lindbert did not file for a chance to retain the office he has held for almost 12 years.

Lindbert, who first was elected to the council in April 1953 after being appointed to the post four months earlier, will resign because of business commitments.

Seeking the three available council terms are incumbent Wilbur V. Brotherton; incumbent Henry B. Forrest; Ralph D. Yoder, 31661 Lamar; Virgil Cornwell, 32366 Valleyview; Ernest E. Sauter Jr., 21323 Birchwood; Robert A. Rogers, 32912 Slocum; and John A. Allen, 32293 Shiawassee.

The two candidates getting the largest number of votes in the April election will serve four-year terms and the next highest will receive a two-year term.

Utica

In Utica, Marvin Stadler is running against Mayor Fred H. Beck, who is seeking another two-year term.

★ ★ ★

Assessor Kenneth Titsworth will face James T. Murphy, 8237 Hall, in his bid to serve for another two years.

No one filed to compete with Treasurer Leona A. Morrison, also running for an additional two years.

Leonard Morrison Jr., 45890 Brownell, is the single candidate filing for the two years left in the term of Earl Swartz, who was transferred out of the city by his company shortly after being elected two years ago.

APPOINTEE RUNS

The post has been held by appointee Charles Stone, who is seeking one of the three available four-year terms.

Morrison's father, who currently is serving on the council, is resigning because of ill health.

Besides Stone, others running for four-year terms on the council are incumbent Herbert Rhodes; incumbent Henry S. Scheper Sr.; Edward Richards, 45614 Hecker; and Earl H. Ennis III, 46290 Custer.

Walled Lake

Six candidates filed for the three two-year council seats in Walled Lake, including two of the incumbents and three former councilmen.

★ ★ ★

Incumbents filing were Robert J. Buffmyer and Margaret A. Thibideau.

Other candidates are Louis James, 1765 Ashstan; Leland Philp, 244 S. Pontiac Trail; Marshall E. Taylor, 45350 Pontiac Trail; and E. V. Mercer, 415 E. Walled Lake.

Keego Harbor

In Keego Harbor, Fred Milliron Jr., 2433 Hester, filed to oppose incumbent Michael M. Victor for a three-year term on the City Council.

Candidates who filed in Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills are listed on page 2.

Area Ballots Narrowed

Elect Nominees in 4 Primaries

Voters in four area municipalities went to the polls yesterday to pick nominees for local offices whose names will appear on spring general election ballots.

Primary elections were held in Troy, Rochester, Romeo and Milford to narrow slates to the maximum allowable in the general election.

Troy

When Troy voters go to the polls April 5 to cast their ballots in the general election, they'll find the names of Vincent J. McAvoy and Clifford F. Sutermeister Jr. heading the list of candidates, both vying for the top office of mayor.

The two polled 970 and 555, respectively, decisively eliminating the third candidate, Clarence F. Lang of 1086 E. Big Beaver, from the race. Long tallied 391 votes.

McAvoy, incumbent mayor, and Sutermeister, a city commissioner, were chosen to face each other in the spring election by more than 1,800 voters in yesterday's primary.

★ ★ ★

ONLY ONES

The names of the three candidates for the top spot were the only ones on the primary ballot, although the posts of two city commissioners, a municipal judge and associate judge also will be filled in the April election.

Rochester

Village Councilman John Boeberitz, who has received a majority vote in each of his three terms, demonstrated his winning ways again yesterday by topping a list of nine candidates for four Village Council seats.

Cut from the list of hopefuls by the primary was David N. Parker of 436 Hill, who was given the lowest vote total of 107.

Boeberitz collected 319 votes. Following him in the order of vote totals were Louis A. Mitzelfeld of 200 Charles, 303; former Police Chief Samuel Howlett of 227 Romeo, 245; and incumbent Village President John O'Donnell, 172.

MARCH ELECTION

Of the eight candidates remaining, the three highest votegetters in the March 8 general election will serve for two years, the fourth for one.

Milford

One of five candidates for 2 three-year Village Council terms, Charles Roose of 1217 Marjorie, was eliminated by yesterday's primary.

Roose collected the lowest vote total of 62. Nominees in the order of their vote totals were incumbent R. C. Wakefield, 281; Norton Caswell of 946 Duke, 267; incumbent Max Kelley, 196; and Hugh P. Davies of 715 Atlantic, 129.

No narrowing of slates was necessary for other offices.

★ ★ ★

Incumbent appointee Merlin Feigley received 307 votes to Archie J. Noon's 132. The two face each other in the March 8 election to determine which will serve the remaining two years of Feigley's term.

RESIGNATION

★ ★ ★

Romeo

Village voters issued a mandate for change yesterday as they eliminated two incumbent trustees and denied contention to two former trustees, all running on a "Progressive Administration" slate.

"Positive Team" members Merlin J. Kerr of 153 Croswell and Donald R. Mosher of 122 Bradley, polled 494 and 440, respectively, to defeat incumbent Councilmen Howard Pallister and Marvin Sieweke, who received 246 and 337 votes.

The only incumbent trustee to hold his position as the all-Republican slate was cut to the necessary size for the March 8 general election was another "Positive," Stanley J. Holmes, with 396 votes.

★ ★ ★

Also downed were Tony P. Galan of 288 S. Main and Jack McFadden of 221 Croswell, both former trustees.

VILLAGE PRESIDENCY

He was beaten, 483-264 by Byron E. Nichols of 261 W. St. Clair for the spot now held by Edgar Welsch, who is not running for reelection.

Nichols and incumbent Clerk Norman Engel, were the two other "Positive Team" candidates.

McFadden received 285 votes in his unsuccessful bid for one of the three two-year council terms open.

★ ★ ★

IDENTICAL TOTALS

Engel and Treasurer Mrs. Elaine M. Hosner received identical vote totals of 627 in unopposed bids to run again in the general election.

★ ★ ★

In a no-contest area, incumbent library board member Mrs. Elizabeth B. Spencer tallied 492 votes and Mrs. Vonnie E. Kost of 421 N. Bailey, 503, for 2 three-year board openings.

Pontiac Press Photos

ADDS HER SUPPORT — With her brother John Boeberitz a candidate for a fourth term on the Rochester Village Council, it was only natural for sister Lucille to cast her ballot in his behalf in yesterday's primary. Boeberitz topped the field of nine which was narrowed to eight to run for office in the March 8 general election. Miss Boeberitz is shown here handing her registration card to election board member Mrs. Hardy Korff.

NEWS OF THE AREA

2 Village Caucuses Pick Slates for March 8 Vote

New village presidents were practically guaranteed in Metamora and Clarkston last night as voters met in caucuses to nominate candidates for various village offices in March 8 general elections.

Dryden electors will caucus at 8 tonight in the fire hall to select their nominees for the spring election.

Clarkston

Robert Waters, president for the past four years, stepped down and James W. Huttenlocher of 6201 Middle Lake received the nomination for the top village post.

Clerk Artemas Pappas, Treasurer Mary Ann Pappas and Assessor Ralph Thayer, all present officeholders, were nominated along with Huttenlocher for one-year terms.

★ ★ ★

Nominated for two-year terms on the council were E. James Mahar of 46 Miller and incumbents Stanwood M. Radoye and John L. Whitherup.

ONE-YEAR TERMS

★ ★ ★

Since the Citizens party is the village's only party, the slate of candidates presented for the March 8 election will automatically be elected unless there is write-in opposition.

Metamora

For the first time in a number of years, caucuses were held in Metamora last night by the Progressive party, which now dominates all village offices, and also by the Citizens party.

Incumbents and others who failed to win nominations for the Progressive party ticket sometimes found themselves nominated for spots on the opposing slate as one caucus followed the other.

In Progressive party action, former Trustee Sammie Ray of 56 Barrow won the nomination for village president from the incumbent, Percy Clark, by a 6-5 vote. Clark was later nominated for one of three trustee spots open.

★ ★ ★

LATER PICKED

Albertson of 4019 Center later was picked as the Citizens party candidate for treasurer.

Incumbent Treasurer Mrs. Jeannette Schenkel turned in her resignation as the Progressive meeting got under way.

One of the two remaining trustee positions on the Progressive ticket was retained by incumbent Richard Yorks, and the other taken by Richard Roe of 4109 Pleasant.

★ ★ ★

Incumbent Trustee George Schenkel could not run for reelection due to his 1964 appointment as village marshal, and fellow Trustee Edward Haver was not nominated for the Progressive slate.

FOUND A SPOT

But Haver, like Albertson, found his spot on the opposition ticket, where he was picked as the Citizens party candidate for village president.

Incumbents Clerk Mrs. Margaret Brauer and Assessor Victor Maslin won Progressive nominations for reelections without opposition.

In another twist, LeRoy Yorks of 4088 Pleasant was chosen for the clerk's spot on the Citizens party slate.

★ ★ ★

PARTY CHOICES

Citizens party choices for trustee were former Clerk Mrs. Mary Ann Smith of 114 High, Donald Hardwick of 4090 School and David Hobbins of 134 First.

Story Carnival at Milford High

★ ★ ★

The collection of stories by noted American humorist James Thurber will be performed by members of the school's drama club directed by J. Rodney Baughn.

Scenes will include the familiar "Walter Mitty" and "The Night the Bed Fell."

Because of the varied roles involved in so many different scenes, many of the actors have several types of parts.

★ ★ ★

Leads John Micallef and Kathleen Kalcec will be supported by Rick Hill and Judy Bell.

Performances will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Little Theater of the school, 2380 S. Milford. Tickets can be purchased at the door.

OU Awarded Grant for Work-Study Plan

The Office of Education of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare has awarded a $17,374 grant to Oakland University for a work-study program, according to Senators Patrick McNamara and Philip A. Hart.

★ ★ ★

The work-study program, designed to comply with President Johnson's antipoverty bill, will provide job opportunities on campus for students in fananciai need.

Family Flees House Fire

Report $4,000 Loss in Oxford Twp. Blaze

About $4,000 worth of damage was done to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barton J. Hodge, at 1436 Cardigan, mostly in the kitchen-utility room area.

Oxford firemen responded to the alarm at 5:04 a.m. after the family was awakened by a noise which sounded like "something breaking."

Hodge got the family out of the house, but firemen had to rescue the dog, which was found gasping in a hallway.

★ ★ ★

The blaze was extinguished in about an hour. Hodge used a garden hose on the fire from outside the house until firemen arrived.

Extensive smoke damage to the house was reported, but very little water damage. Ruined were major appliances, wiring, flooring and carpeting.

Seek Funds for Family

ROCHESTER — A drive for funds to aid the family of a Pontiac Township man killed Friday in a airplane crash is under way here.

The drive is for the aid of the wife and daughter of Jerry Holland, 28, of 664 Jamestown. Holland worked as a hair stylist at Geon's of Rochester, 311 N. Main.

Holland and his brother, Gail M. Holland, 24, of Livonia died when their light plane crashed at Pontiac Municipal Airport in dense fog early Friday morning.

★ ★ ★

Walled Lake to Honor Rep. Smart

WALLED LAKE — Plans are well under way for a large reception to honor Clifford H. Smart, superintendent of the Walled Lake schools for 19 years and now GOP representative to the State Legislature from the 60th District.

The affair will take place at the Walled Lake Senior High School Sunday from three to five p.m.

It is being sponsored by a number of loeal organizations with Mrs. Watson Stringer, president of the Walled Lake PTA Council as general chairman.

Cosponsoring the reception are the Walled Lake Charober of Commerce and Junior Chamber; the Rotary, Kiwanis and Optimist clubs; the Walled Lake-Wixom Lions Club; and the Walled Lake and Union Lake Businessmen's Association.

Mrs. Raymond Campbell is assisting Mrs. Stringer.

OTHERS LISTED

Others are Ralph Goodhard, coordinator of assistance from the service clubs; Tom Weisheit for the businessmen; Rolland Langerman, acting superintendent of schools; Mrs. Carmin Ginter from the PTA Council; and Mrs. Richard King, who is in charge of hospitality.

Joining Smart and his family in the receiving line will be the presidents of the various clubs, while PTA presidents will be hosts and hostesses for the afternoon.

When Smart became superintendent in 1945 there were less than 1,500 students in the district. At that time the building on Pontiac Trail which is now the Walled Lake Junior High housed the junior and senior highs, the Walled Lake elementary, and all of the administrative offices.

★ ★ ★

The only other schools in the district were the old Commerce building and the old portion of Union Lake.

7,500 IN DISTRICT

Upon leaving the post in December Smart could see a district with more than 7,500 pupils, most of whom are housed in buildings completed during his tenure. These include Glengary, Wixom, Walled Lake elementary, new Commerce, Decker, Twin Beach, and Keith; as well as a new senior high and a junior high named, at public insistance, in his honor.

Also renovations and additions have constantly been under way and a new administration building and bus garage have been built.

During the years Smart's abilities were recognized in other ways, too. He served as Michigan Education Association president, held the same post among Michigan School administrators, and for many years was State Legislative chairman for the PTA.

He was named Rotary "Man of the Year," and was elected a trustee of the new Oakland Community College, a post he also had to relinquish before taking his seat in the legislature.

TO SHOW APPRECIATION

"It would be impossible to note all of his honors and accomplishments or to recall all of the fine things Cliff Smart has done to further education, but," said Mrs. Stringer, "we home this reception will help show him what a fine person we think he is."

Mrs. Stringer also stressed that this was a family affair and everyone was invited to attend.

Pay Hikes Rejected in Farmington Twp.

They buried the question under 2,599 "no" votes, almost three times the 928 affirmative ballots.

About 26 per cent of the township's electorate voted on the question.

The referendum election was set when more than 1,600 township voters requested that the Township Board's action in increasing the salaries be taken to the electorate.

★ ★ ★

Pay boosts for the township's full - time officials were approved by other Township Board members Nov. 2, the night before the three were re-elected.

$9,000 IN RAISES

Totaling $9,000, the raises were to go into effect during fiscal 1965-66.

Supervisor Curtis H. Hall's salary was jumped from $11,200 to $15,000 a year, Clerk Floyd A. Cairns' from $9,000 to $11,500 and Treasurer Elise Avery's from $8,300 to $11,000.

The action first was challenged by 11 township residents in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Judge Philip Pratt ruled the move was not unconstitutional and that trustees had acted within the scope of their authority.

The referendum petition was filed while the case was in court.

LAST MEETING

According to statute, the salaries of the officials now cannot be altered until the last board meeting before the next election.

The State Legislature has not yet decided when townships will hold their next elections.

Judge to Speak to Area Teachers

A talk by Royal Oak Municipal Judge Keith J. Leehouts will highlight the dinner meeting Thursday of Area Seven Department of Classroom Teachers, Michigan Education Association, at Madison High School, Madison Heights.

Topic of Judge Leehouts' talk will be the "Effect of the Inspirational Personality."

Area Seven also will hear Jim Bowen, state teacher-to-teacher chairman, on this project.

Dinner reservations should be made with Mrs. Helen (Vincent) Mrakovich, 756 W. Lantz, Detroit.

Acceptable Birth Control Said Possible

Editor's Note: President Johnson said in his State of the Union address that new ways are needed to curb the population explosion and the misery and poverty it has brought to some. The following dispatch — the second of three — explains what he possibly had in mind.)

By LOUIS CASSELS

WASHINGTON (UPI) — It's commonplace that poor families have the most children.

The same phenomenon can be observed on an international scale. The highest birth rates are found in undeveloped countries.

This simply shows that birth control is more likely to be practiced effectively by people with fairly high living standards.

The reason is obvious. Most of the contraceptive devices widely used in the United States and Europe presume the existence of plumbing facilities and a degree of privacy which poor families and poor nations cannot often afford.

* * *

Some of the newer methods of birth control, such as intrauterine coils and anti-ovulation pills, require medical supervision which countries like Brazil, India and Egypt are unable to provide because they don't have enough doctors and nurses.

JAPAN CONTROLS RATE

The rhythm method of birth control, which is approved by the Roman Catholic Church, has been found to work well when it is employed by properly - instructed and high-motivated couples. But efforts to introduce it among poorly educated, low-income families have not been conspicuously successful.

Two methods of birth control have proved extremely effective in Japan, the only Asian nation which has managed to achieve a sharp reduction in its birth rate.

They are legalized abortion and sterilization operations, performed free by government clinics. But these drastic methods are morally unacceptable not only to Catholics, but also to most protestants, Jews, Moslems, Buddhists and Hindus.

It seems unlikely that the population problem will be solved by techniques which are condemned by all of the world's great religions.

ACCEPTABLE METHODS

Is it possible to develop methods of birth control which would be safe and effective; which could be used by people who don't have indoor toilets, calendars and corner drug stores; and which would be morally acceptable to all faiths?

That sounds like a very tall order. But one of the world's foremost authorities on birth control, Dr. John Rock, says it can be filled.

Dr. Rock is a Harvard University scientist noted for his pioneering research on human reproduction. He is codeveloper of the antiovulation pill.

* * *

Given adequate funds for research, he says, scientists can come up with a variety of entirely new birth control techniques which would be far better than any now in use, and which "all religious groups could accept."

CAN BE DONE

And this can be done "in a remarkably short time" — IF the U.S. government is willing to pump enough money into the effort.

At present, the government's annual expenditure on research in any way related to human fertility is less than $10 million — or 1 per cent of the total sum which is being invested in medical research.

In his State of the Union message to Congress President Johnson implied that he is ready to support a much broader effort to find workable answers to the birth control problem.

* * *

He said this country must "seek new ways to use our knowledge to help deal with the explosion in world population."

PLANNED PARENTHOOD

A spokesman for the Planned Parenthood Federation immediately urged the President to fit action to his words by ordering a five-year $100 million crash program of fertility research by the national institutes of health.

So far, however, Johnson has given no indication what specific steps he plans.

Lady Copter Pilot to End U. S. Flight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gay Maher, a 37-year-old mother of three, hopes to complete today the first solo helicopter flight by a woman across the United States.

"This is really the way to see the country," Mrs. Maher said Monday night at a National Aviation Club reception given by fellow members of the Whirly Girls, an association of women helicopter pilots.

Mrs. Maher takes off later today on the last leg of the trip to her home, Medford, N.J., some 20 miles east of Philadelphia. She plans to fly out over the Atlantic to complete the ocean-to-ocean journey which started Feb. 6 at Culver City, Calif.

Redistricting Decree of High Court Opposed

The American Bar Association, never characterized by impetuosity, has added its protests to the capricious decision of the U. S. Supreme Court that both bodies of state legislatures must be apportioned on a population basis.

Moreover, the protest has taken the form of a vote to support a Constitutional amendment permitting states to apportion one house on basis of geography, county or municipal boundaries, economic conditions, history and other factors supplementary to population.

★ ★ ★

When the High Court's stunning apportionment bombshell exploded a year ago, there was immediate disposition among state legislatures and in Congress toward such an amendment.

The House was so stirred that it passed a bill depriving Federal district courts of jurisdiction over state apportionment cases and the Supreme Court of appelate authority.

But the Senate did not go along, and Congress adjourned without legislative action.

Sen. Everett Dirksen, R-Ill., has now introduced a bill along the lines favored by the Bar Association. But because of the liberal orientation of the new Congress, it is felt that mustering the two-thirds majority in both houses to initiate a Constitutional amendment would be difficult, and proponents have set the amendment machinery in motion on the state level.

Such procedure requires Congress to call a Constitutional convention when two-thirds of the state's legislatures have so petitioned. Already, 16 of the required 34 states have taken this action.

But time is of the essence, if the Supreme Court's arbitrary ruling is to be rectified. With each passing month the chances diminish of obtaining the necessary approval of three-fourths of the states' legislatures to implement a constitutional amendment, since many states are now in process of redistricting themselves. Once such revisions have been effected with many new representatives seated in state capitals, support for the proposed constitutional amendment will correspondingly lessen.

We think that the Supreme Court's reapportionment formula is one of the most inequitable judicial mandates ever imposed upon the Nation's legislative structure, and that in the name of democracy it should in one way or another be repudiated.

U.S.-Philippines Rift Suggests Status Shift

It's never pleasant to see pictures of Uncle Sam being burned in effigy. When the pictures come from an old and valued friend of this country—the Philippines — it is distinctly upsetting.

Filipinos burned Uncle Sam in front of the gates of the U.S. embassy in Manila in reaction to the shooting of trespassers on American military bases.

This and other anti-American demonstrations have protested not only the shootings — and deaths — but the fact that the United States exercises jurisdiction in cases involving base security and where the Americans involved are on official duty. In some cases, the United States claims jurisdiction over Filipinos.

With no other sovereign nation—and the Philippines have been sovereign since 1946—does the United States expect this prerogative. In agreements with NATO countries, for instance, the host country has jurisdiction over its own nationals, on or off U. S. bases.

The Philippines have had a special and close relationship with the United States throughout this century. While we never considered them a colony, we looked on ourselves as, if not their mother country, at least their benevolent stepfather.

Maybe some clinging vestiges of that attitude are part of the present friction between what ought to be two equals.

No One Knows Feeling of Viets

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — The United States has spread the war from South Viet Nam to North Viet Nam, not because the Communist guerrillas did anything basically different but because they intensified what they had been doing.

MARLOW

Meanwhile, in a situation muddy for 20 years, no one knows whether a majority of the people in both Viet Nams prefer communism or would rather live under an American-backed government.

The muddy condition of this conflict started in 1945 when France, although it had held the area as a colony three-quarters of a century, still refused it independence. The Vietnamese Communists fought them.

The French not only lacked support of the Vietnamese people but were so feeble they needed American help as early as 1951. In the end the French were smashed and had to get out.

★ ★ ★

A Geneva conference in 1954 agreed on a division of Viet Nam into North and South — the Communists were left in control of the North — with elections by all Vietnamese in two years to choose a single government.

American-backed Ngo Dinh Diem, in a referendum in South Viet Nam only, got himself elected chief of state and, later, president. He wouldn't buy the idea of an election in both Viet Nams to create a single government.

He argued the Reds in the North would not permit free elections there. He was undoubtedly right. But it is very questionable there would have been free elections in South Viet Nam, where Diem operated with an iron hand.

He asked the United States to send in men to train his troops. This country sent in more and more men, called advisers. But, since so many have been killed in the fighting, they are hardly mere advisers.

As more guerrillas moved into South Viet Nam from the North, the war broadened, all of it limited to South Viet Nam.

But the South Vietnamese, without experience in democracy, split into factions. Led by military men with ambitions of their own, they showed less than wholehearted support for Diem, who was assassinated in 1963.

Then South Vietnamese factional fights got out of hand. One government after another was toppled. The guerrillas took over 60 per cent of the country. South Viet Nam was collapsing in chaos, despite American help.

Then the guerrillas stepped up their pace by attacking American bases in South Viet Nam. The United States, instead of stepping up the pace against the guerrillas in South Viet Nam, did what it had tried to avoid: it broadened the war with attacks on North Viet Nam.

Never Underestimate The Power —

David Lawrence Says:

Bargaining Reform Is Needed

WASHINGTON — Collective bargaining has received a body blow in the last few weeks. Many union leaders are unhappy about this, but they are powerless to make those unions which act irresponsibly conform to the public interest. So public opinion will LAWRENCE naturally turn to the government for a remedy.

Much as all sides dislike to see enacted any new laws or amendments to existing statutes restricting the arbitrary power of labor unions or management, the residue of ill-feeling left by the recent dock strike can hardly be ignored by Congress.

Not only has the national economy suffered losses which President Johnson referred to as of "staggering proportions," but lots of workers also incurred substantial losses in income and other hardships during the strike.

The big question is how to regulate the collective bargaining process so that the bluffing and the bludgeoning will be superseded by a sincere and honest effort to reach an agreement and, if this failed, the case would be submitted to a fact-finding board, which at least could clarify the issues.

The Taft-Hartley Act, which provides for an 80-day "cooling-off" period, has not solved the problem, because each side stands firm and regards the "cooling-off" device as merely an artificial extension of the negotiations.

The real difficulty lies in the fact that usually neither side trusts the other, and there's always the belief on the union side that, if a strike can be prolonged, management will give in or will make more concessions than would have been the case if earlier proposals had been accepted.

A change in sentiment is developing throughout the country, and a feeling is growing that, distasteful as it may be to all sides, the government must step in and introduce some new form of settling strikes so as to protect public interest.

Many suggestions have been offered whenever critical situations have arisen in disputes between management and labor.

One proposal that may gain favor would provide that, whenever a serious disagreement has arisen in collective-bargaining negotiations, the government should step in with either a fact-finding or mediating procedure, but that strikes should not be permitted unless there is absolutely no chance of working out an agreement by negotiation.

Under such circumstances, the law might provide that, after a reasonable length of time, the government would be authorized to require both sides to accept some impartial procedure for settling the dispute.

★ ★ ★

While government control of labor negotiations or compulsory arbitration is unpopular, the time is coming when such reforms will be the only alternative if managements are permitted to continue to unite and labor unions are allowed to act in concert to produce work stoppages which bring inflationary trends, inflict serious injury on innocent parties, and damage considerably the public interest.

Bob Considine Says:

Deserting S. Vietnamese Plague U.S. War Efforts

NEW YORK — The most depressing news from Viet Nam is only now beginning to filter through, what with the return of American wounded and the publication of letters from men on the spot.

CONSIDINE

The depressing news is that there are an awful lot of Vietnamese who have no stomach for the war we're helping them fight.

That goes for our SEATO allies, too. The assistance rendered U.S. and South Korean forces during the Korean War was of a token nature, except the British Commonwealth Division. But at least it was there and pledged to fight.

There were a dozen flags aligned under the shield of the United Nations. In Viet Nam there is only that of the U.S. and what appears to be a pretty tattered Vietnamese banner.

★ ★ ★

Capt. Carlton Holland, as handsome and virile as any TV marshal, wrote to his wife in Junction City, Kan., a few days before he was killed in Duc Phong, that the main reason he had ordered barbed wire strung around a hill where he was serving as an adviser to a defending force of Vietnamese was not to keep the Viet Cong from breaking through but the Vietnamese from breaking out.

Thirty of the 76 troops he served with deserted after receiving their first pay checks.

Vietnamese brass from Saigon, visiting the area, had no conception of the rigors of life in the field. Holland expected to be killed by the men he was trying to help and kept his gun ready. He must have been surprised when the blow came from foe, not friend.

Seems hard to believe that 167 of those huge intercontinental missiles we were so proud to have in our arsenal a couple of years ago have been retired as obsolescent.

★ ★ ★

They have not been junked, as are manned bombers that go out of date. They are trucked like dead elephants from the places where they were poised and toted to Norton AFB, San Bernardina, Calif. They are not mothballed.

CHECKED SIX TIMES

The more than 100 Atlas Ds, Es and Fs must be checked six times a day to measure their air pressures. They are, in effect, inflated.

The skin of an Atlas is so thin that without inflation the heavy innards would cause it to collapse like a punctured accordion.

★ ★ ★

The discarded missiles cost well over a billion dollars, but it won't be a total loss. Many will be modified and become boosters for the National Aviation and Space Agency.

In Washington:

Negotiated Settlement Illusory

By BRUCE BIOSSAT

WASHINGTON (NEA) —"Each member . . . undertakes to respect the sovereignty, the independence, the unity and the territorial integrity of the above-mentioned states and to refrain from any interference in their internal affairs.".

BIOSSAT

This surely has a good ring to it as a possible "honorable negotiated settlement" of the sort now being urged for South Viet Nam and all Southeast Asia by French President Charles de Gaulle, certain British Laborites, leaders in India, and such U.S. figures as Sen. Frank Church of Idaho.

There is just one thing. The quoted pledge is part of the final declaration of July 21, 1954, approved by most participants in the Geneva conference which that year formally ended France's disastrous Indochina war against the Communist Viet Minh and gave the Reds title to North Viet Nam.

★ ★ ★

More than a decade later, the Reds' Viet Cong guerrilla forces are deep in South Viet Nam, stirring havoc on a rising scale that Vietnamese and American defenders today find difficult to combat — short of a widened war they do not want.

A Communist adversary thus painfully advanced in position through ten years of effort hardly can feel the necessity for restating or enlarging the shattered terms of 1954 and guaranteeing the neutrality and independence of South Viet Nam and its neighbors.

★ ★ ★

Whether in Washington or Paris or elsewhere, any urgings for a negotiated settlement which envision so happy an outcome for beleaguered Southeast Asia have about them an incredible unreality. Free world self-delusion seldom has reached higher heights of fantasy.

Since when does a winning military side yield all it has so laboriously gained and get nothing in return?

It is the Reds, not we, who have the superior bargaining power in the present circumstance. Unless we should now begin to pummel North Viet Nam with crushing force, we are not in a position to win anything except some degree of surrender and escape.

The events surrounding and quickly following the 1954 Geneva accords make plain they were a serious surrender. South Viet Nam was born in a shadow that has only deepened.

★ ★ ★

The late U.S. soldier-diplomat, Walter Bedell Smith, faced the grim Geneva result: "Diplomacy has rarely been able to gain at the conference table what cannot be gained on the battlefield."

One day after the Geneva declaration, Ho Chi Minh, the Viet Minh leader, pledged himself to "liberate" South Viet Nam in the years ahead.

The seeds of the Great Infiltration were planted as repatriated Viet Minh guerrillas quietly left comrades and arms caches behind for another day. More came southward in the flood of 860,000 refugees leaving North Viet Nam.

★ ★ ★

By 1957, three years after Geneva, the Red drive to take South Viet Nam was clearly under way. Perhaps luckily for the defenders, the 1956 election called for in the accords was never held. The Communists might very well have won.

Only delusion could read hope and a balanced prospect of independence and neutrality into the documents of 1954. Realistic diplomats suggested a free South Viet Nam would not last six months.

Shored up by U.S. money and might, it has somehow survived a decade of religious and tribal strife, governmental incompetence, the taint (not borne by the Reds) of association with the French colonialists — and the ravages of a bewildering war.

It will take more than bland imaginings of an "honorable settlement" to save this tortured piece of Asian soil from the tightening grip of the North Vietnamese. A time of hard decision is here.

Reader Explains Recent Teacher Demonstration

Obviously "Old Fogey" is not aware of the facts surrounding the teacher demonstration. The two teacher representative groups were not aware of the fact that a choice would be made on the basis of membership lists. This decision was announced after most teachers had joined one of the two organizations.

★ ★ ★

Many teachers from both organizations felt a vote of all teachers should have been taken in order to determine which group would represent them. This is the democratic way.

★ ★ ★

It will be a pleasure to see persons in this community, who have been denied the democratic right to elect others to represent them, take an honest stand for their beliefs.

Lighter Load Due in Infantry

Weight Big Factor in Army Equipment

WASHINGTON (AP) — Relief is on the way for the overburdened infantryman, but he may have to trade protection for his lighter load.

The Army disclosed today it has approved the findings of an 18-month study seeking ways "to conserve the energy of the combat infantryman."

It has ordered its research and development authorities to press ahead with specifications for new equipment, giving priority to lightness over increased protection.

Army officers said considerations of weight versus protection may be applied to such equipment as helmets, armored vests and gas masks.

EXPENDABLE MASK

For example, the study proposes a small one-pound, expendable gas mask that would cover the eyes, nose and mouth and be held in place with a simple strap. The present mask weighs three times as much, including a carrier and a hood.

Armies have been trying to find ways to ease the burden on the infantryman, almost since the days of the Roman legions.

This is because, the Army says, the capability of an infantry soldier to fight, is directly related to the load he has to carry.

Ideally, the Army said, a soldier ought not to have to carry more than about 40 pounds. The combat load of U.S. soldiers now is around 72 pounds.

The latest study began in February 1963 and was approved by Army headquarters last September.

Conducted at Ft. Benning, Ga., it stressed that commanders and their staffs do their utmost to eliminate unnecessary chores that waste the energy of front-line troops.

A major proposal calls for development of load-carrying devices, possibly a form of rugged cart, either man-powered, mechanically powered, or a combination of both.

Another idea called for development of an 8- to 10-ounce concentrated food package the soldier can carry with him.

Mountain Climb Tough—Judge

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (UPI) —Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas stepped down from a shaggy rescue pony last night exhausted and bruised from nine snowbound hours on an icy mountain trail.

But looking back at the 10,000-foot Sandia Mountain peak, he called the experience part of a "beautiful trip" and promised he would tackle it again some day.

Douglas, 67, rode the sure-footed mountain pony out of the mountains where he and three companions were stopped in their day's hiking by the precipitous switchback trail and heavy snowdrifts from an earlier blizzard.

After the hazardous six-mile return trip, the high court's famed outdoorsman admitted "I've never been in such a steep place." But aside from a minor gash on the right hip, he suffered no ill effects from his assault on the Sandia's Mountain's western slope.

Panting a bit, Douglas told waiting newsmen in the Juan Tabo base camp that the thin atmosphere in the high altitude of the 10,000-foot mountain was tiring and had slowed him down.

"We all took spill after spill," the justice said. On one spill a sharp stick slashed the justice's right hip but the wound was not severe.

The party had to use ropes to cross a 500-foot snowfield, Douglas said, which bordered a sheer drop to the bottom of the mountain range.

* * *

Accompanying Douglas were Fred Kennedy, an old friend of the justice and southwestern regional forester, Irving T. (Pat) Murray, ranger for the New Mexico Cibola National Forest and Robert Nordhaus, former student of Douglas while the justice was with Yale University.

NO LOST TIME

Douglas, dressed in an old army work coat, heavy boots and wool sport shirt, said the trip would not hold up his scheduled appearance at Los Angeles tomorrow.

Douglas rode the final two miles down the steep, winding trail aboard a sure-footed Palomino mountain pony, shaggy with its winter growth of hair.

The justice, with a big stetson on his head and warmly bundled against the cold, stepped down from the pony and talked with newsmen for about 15 minutes before leaving by car for his hotel.

* * *

ALL FELL DOWN

Kennedy said the entire party slipped and fell on a steep bank of slick snow.

* * *

Douglas said the wound was not severe and would require no stitches. First aid was administered by the party on the trail.

Thieves Continue to Give Theater Owner Trouble

Six months ago his jeep was stolen from in front of the theater and never found. Recently thieves stole a bicycle, some barbells and croquet set from the screen tower.

A couple of weeks ago Jones reached into his mailbox for letters and out ran a snake. He narrowly avoided being bitten.

Burglars recently broke into the theater snack bar and stole a projection machine lens. A short time later two hub caps were stolen from Jones' car, parked in front of the theater.

The theater, incidentally, has been closed for some time because of highway construction.

Junior Editors Quiz on INDIANS

QUESTION: Where did the first Indians come from?

* * *

ANSWER: Many experts believe that the ancestors of the American Indians came from Asia some 20,000 years ago, when the Asian and American continents probably were connected with a land bridge between Siberia and Alaska.

In 1925, a remarkable find was made near the town of Folsom, N. M., of several spear heads, beautifully shaped and chipped.

These were among the bones of a kind of bison which lieved in the Ice Age and is now extinct. It is now supposed that many of the big game animals of the Ice Age, such as the bison and the hairy mammoth (shown in the picture) may have wandered over the land bridge with ancient man following them—for the early men existed by killing game.

Then, tribes of such moved down the North and South American continents, as shown by the white arrows. By about 8000 years ago some of these people had worked their way down to the southern tip of South America.

In eastern North America, the Indians remained mostly as hunters and in the plains areas there were buffalo to kill until the days of the white men. But in the southwest, Indians planted corn and built settlements called pueblos.

FOR YOU TO DO: What happened when the migrating ancestors of the Indian reached Central and South America? This is a stirring story. Find out about it.

U.S. Reaches Higher Levels in Production

WASHINGTON (AP) — Increases in output of machinery and some household goods nudged the nation's industrial production level another notch higher in January.

The Federal Reserve Board reported Monday that its index of industrial production was 137.7 in January. This means the total output of factories, mines and utilities was 37.7 per cent higher than the 1957-59 average. The reading was 137.0 in December.

The high level of steel output undoubtedly reflects some stockpiling as protection in case of a steel strike in late spring.

LESS CONSTRUCTION

The board noted that construction activity dropped one per cent in january and retail sales declined slightly after zooming up the previous month.

There was little change in industrial commodity prices. Livestock price rises caused some increase in the wholesale food price index.

Thugs Attack, Rob Driver

A Highland Township man was beaten and robbed as he unloaded his delivery truck in Pontiac yesterday.

Johnson said the man with the gun hit him, knocking him down. The pair then took nearly $190 in cash and checks, he said.

The robbery took place at 5:20 p.m. on the south side of 360 Franklin Road. Police are questioning suspects in connection with the holdup.

U.S. Has Evidence China Readies Bomb

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States has evidence that Communist China is now actively preparing for its second nuclear test, official sources said today.

* * *

They said that while the evidence was not conclusive, it indicated the blast could be detonated within a few days or several weeks.

If so, it would come in the midst of the stepped-up confrontation with Asian Communists over recent U.S. bombings in North Viet Nam. Its effect on that confrontation would be hard to gauge.

Red China detonated her first nuclear explosion last Oct. 16, a test device said to have been short of an actually deliverable A-bomb.

* * *

Western intelligence had been aware of preparations for that test well in advance. Secretary of State Dean Rusk made this knowledge public Sept. 29 in a move to soften world psychological impact.

'SOME SIGNS'

U.S. sources said they now have received "some signs" that the same kind of preparatory "countdown" noted in September is now under way again. There was always the possibility technical difficulties might long delay a planned test.

The nature of the U.S. evidence was not disclosed. There have been published reports in the past of various manned and unmanned reconnaissance planes over China, and that U.S. observation satellites are capable of monitoring the test site in western China.

U.S. officials gave no support to reports that this time Red China may attempt to set off a thermonuclear explosion — an H-bomb. Some sources indicated strong doubts.

United Press International diplomatic correspondent K. C. Thaler reported from London yesterday that China plans a second nuclear test "very shortly," and said that it might be an H-bomb.

The State Department yesterday neither confirmed nor denied the report but said "appropriate officers of this government are looking into it."

The center will explore community problems and help to solve them through OU forums and a community schools program.

5 Members Named to Youth Aid Group

Five new members of the Waterford Youth Assistance Committee were named last night by the Waterford Township Board.

* * *

In other business last night the board appointed Roger Rapelje, an insurance adjuster, to a three-year term on the township's library advisory committee.

The board accepted the low bid of $1,945 from Beattie Motor Sales, Inc., for a car for the township supervisor.

Also last night board members authorized the sale of four township-owned lots for which the township has no specific use.

Bids on the lots will be opened March 29.

Cash amounting to 20 per cent of the purchase price must accompany each bid.

In other business the board authorized the rezoning of two parcels recommended for zoning change by the planning commission.

Rezoned were a five-lot parcel near Walton and Clintonville from recreational to residential and an area on Crescent Lake Road behind the township hall from commercial to manufacturing.

* * *

The board also authorized the water department to purchase two electric typewriters for $891 and fire extinguisher equipment for the new water department building at a cost of $283.

A request from the police department to lease a copying machine on a monthly basis also was approved.

200 Trapped in Italy on Snowbound Trains

CAMPOBASSO, Italy (AP) — Police snowplows and army helicopters were pressed into service today to carry food, fuel and medicine to 200 persons trapped on snowbound trains for more than 24 hours.

One train was blocked by snow at Bonefro, another at Ripabottoni. Snowdrifts higher than the trains stalled them in a blizzard Monday as they were heading for this central Italian town in the Appennine Mountains east of Naples.

Area Driver Hurt in Crash

A Groveland Township man is in serious condition at Pontiac General Hospital after the car he was driving collided with a truck this morning on the Dixie Highway.

Editor for Eagles Will Speak in Area

Arthur S. Ehrmann of Milwaukee, Wis., editor of Eagles publications for the Fraternal Order of Eagles, will be featured speaker at the Waterford Aerie tomorrow.

The occasion will be a large class initiation with Waterford No. 2887 Ritual and Drill teams officiating.

Chicago Unit to Vote on Birth Control Plan

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Board of Health votes Wednesday on a controversial family planning program which, its supporters say, will divorce birth control from the issues of race, religion and morality.

The proposal calls for the board of health to give out birth control information and devices to both married and unmarried women, the board president, Dr. Eric Oldberg, 63, said Monday.

* * *

"I would think it would become one of the most forward-going programs in the country," said Dr. Oldberg, a prominent neurosurgeon and an avid supporter of the measure. "I am optimistic."

Oldberg said he is going to tell the eight-member board "to fish or cut bait."

BROAD PROGRAM

"I'm not tying it to economics at all and I'm not going to begin a pilot program," Oldberg said. "I'm going to put out a broad policy program — they can accept it or refuse it."

"The idea is that the program would be a health measure, a program to help parents whose children are just happenstances," he said in an earlier interview

"If we can keep these people from having unwanted children, then I think it's a very moral thing," he said. "I don't see how any ethical or religious organization could object."

LACK MOTIVATION

"Who can tell me that these people are regularly going to take their pills?" Edward asks. "There just isn't the motivation now among them to avoid pregnancy.

"We give a bottle of pills to a 15-year-old girl and tell her she must not use this for fornication or adultery. But we kind of suspect she's going to and this is why we give them to her."

* * *

Oldberg said that approval of his program didn't mean the Board of Health was "going to start passing out a lot of stuff to teen-agers in high school."

"We're not going to make it possible for anybody to become promiscuous," he said.

IN FAVOR

Board member Dr. Robert C. Stepto, 44, said he thought "the whole board is in favor of the plan."

Stepto, a gynecologist who has practiced in the Chicago area for 21 years, said the program "would be divorced from the issues of religion."

Last Friday the Illinois Birth Control Commission recommended that the state provide free birth control services to all mothers on public aid rolls over 15 years of age. Eight of the commission's 15 members are Roman Catholic, but only one of them voted against the measure.

Fare Increase Ups Revenue at City Transit

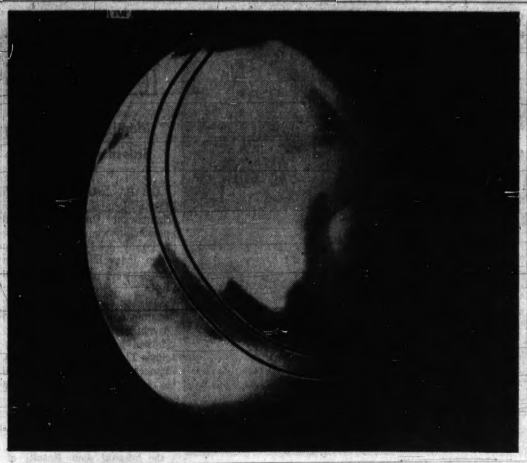
Due largely to a hike in adult fares last October, Pontiac Transit Corp. received slightly more revenue in January than a year ago, despite a drop in patronage.

In January, there were 67,282 riders and $16,907 in revenue.

Compared to January 1964, there were 75,237 riders, but only $16,388 in revenue.

However, local bus patronage last month was down from December with its traditional Christmas shopping season.

Bus company officials reported 70,919 total passengers for a revenue of $18,221, the highest monthly revenue for the year.



MARINER'S CAMERA TARGET — Area between black lines on this model of Mars is expected to be photographed July 14 if the Mariner spacecraft is still operating normally when it flies past the planet. New Technique Improves Space Photos

By RALPH DIGHTON
Associated Press Science Writer

PASADENA, Calif. — Scientists have found a way to double the quality of pictures taken of the moon by Ranger 7, and the same technique will be used to study any photographs made by the upcoming Ranger 8 mooncraft and the Mars-bound Mariner 4.

* * *

The method, developed by Dr. Robert Nathan of Jet Propulsion Laboratory, uses a large IBM 7094 computer to find and eliminate distortion picked up during transmission of pictures from the spacecraft to earth.

* * *

Raymond L. Heacock, one of a team of scientists assigned to analyze Ranger photographs, says "the quality and sharpness of several of the pictures has been improved by a factor of two."

Eventually most of the more than 4,300 Ranger 7 pictures will be restudied with this new technique to learn more about elevations and slopes of the lunar terrain and draw better contour maps of the Mare Cognitum area where the spacecraft crashed last July 31.

DELIGHTED

No surprises have appeared in the study so far but Heacock and others say they are delighted with the new technique developed by Nathan after two years' research.

Here's how the new method works:

* * *

The radio signals sent back by Ranger 7 to produce man's first close-up view of the moon were recorded on film and on magnetic tape.

* * *

Played through a television receiver, the tape yields still photographs in much the same way that pictures of taped shows are reproduced on home television sets.

The computer sees each picture as 300 lines, each of which is made up of 300 points of varying shades of black, gray or white. Thus each picture contains 90,000 points — similar to the tiny dots you can see if you look closely at photographs printed in newspapers.

SCAN LINE

The computer then compares each scan line with its two neighbors and spots extreme changes in brightness which logic indicates are due not to differences on the lunar surface but to noise or interference with the transmission of signals.

At first glance there isn't much difference between the computer-processed picture and the original, but scientists making precise measurements under microscopes say the technique helps them be more exact in figuring length of shadows and the roughness of the lunar surface.

Three of the six cameras aboard Ranger 8, scheduled for launching on its 65-hour voyage to the moon Wednesday, have been modified to increase amplification of their video signals.

Scientists say they also plan to use computers to clean up the pictures to be sent back by Mariner 4, now 134 million miles out on its 325-million—mile trip to Mars. Mariner 4 is expected to snap up to 21 photographs as it sweeps past Mars at a distance of 8,400 miles next July 14.

Construction to Start

DETROIT (AP)—Construction will start in April on a $5.2 million north wing of the Institute of Arts, Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh said Monday.

Elderly Clerk Foils Stickup

CHICAGO (AP) — An elderly night clerk gave the would-be holdup man a withering stare when the man asked for money.

"If this is a stickup," asked clerk Michael McLaughlin, 77, "where's your gun?"

"You've got a lot of guts, old man," the intruder said as he walked out, without a gun or the money.

* * *

McLaughlin notified police yesterday and Donald T. Haragadon 26, of Chicago was arrested near the hotel. He was jailed on a charge of attempted robbery.

Police said Hargadon had told them he needed money to see a girlfriend in Canada.

Find Cause of Motion Sickness

NEW YORK (AP) — Space medical research has turned up the exact cause of motion sickness — often the bane of travelers by airplane, ship or even automobile.

The finding can help the search for better drugs to combat seasickness, airsickness or even space-flight sickness, Dr. Eugene B. Konecci said today.

* * *

The research has found that one antibiotic produces a numbing effect on organs within the ear that give rise to the motion sickness sensation, he said, and tests are under way to learn how much of this drug might be a threat to a patient's sense of balance.

* * *

Konecci, of the National Aeronautics and Space Council, told the New York State Medical Society about studies conducted by Dr. Ashton Graybiel and associates of the U.S. Naval School of Aviation Medicine.

HAIR CELLS

He said Graybiel had found that the motion sickness sensation comes from hair cells that detect the motion of fluids in canals of the inner ear. The canals are in the portion of the ear known as the vestibular labyrinth.

Motion sickness can "be more properly referred to as canal sickness," he said.

* * *

Other experiments showed that the inner ear sensations are related to certain uncontrolled movements of the eye, Konecci said.

The eye has a tendency to resist any change in its vertical or up-and-down axis, and undergoes jerking motions when the body or head is tilted.

* * *

Now a test has been devised to measure this effect very precisely, Konecci said. This provides an eye test to measure normal or abnormal functioning of the vestibular canals.

Report on Bias in Mississippi

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — The state advisory committee to the U.S. Civil Rights Commission said today that police brutality, economic pressures and night riders have forced Mississippi Negroes to accept an inferior station or live in terror.

The biracial committee's charges were presented in a report to the commission, which began public hearings today on the racial situation in Mississippi.

The report, presented by Dr. A. B. Britton Jr., a Jackson Negro physician and committee chairman, noted what it termed progress in recent months.

This included free registration of Negroes as voters in some counties, desegregation of many public accommodations, testimony from officials of Greenville and Gulfport before the committee and statements from various business and civic groups urging compliance with the Civil Rights Act.

19-PAGE REPORT

Most of the 19-page report reviewed complaints and testimony received by the 10-member committee over the past year.

The group — which includes three Negroes and is made up of clergymen, professional men, a former college president, a housewife and a newspaper publisher — reported many were reluctant to testify for fear of reprisal.

In one instance, the report said, the home of a former McComb policeman was bombed hours after he testified.

The report said committee members themselves had been victims of both economic and social pressures, and, in at least one instance, a member had been forced to leave the state.

EFFORTS THWARTED

The committee reported "law enforcement officials," as well as private citizens, have actively thwarted efforts of individuals and groups to register to vote in a number of counties.

"Witnesses from several southwest Mississippi counties reported that crosses had been burned in their yards."

The committee reported witness testimony of a kidnaping and beating, a store bombing, and a shooting at a home.

"Under color of law, voter registration workers have been stopped on roads and highways and subjected to cursings, insults and physical beatings," the report said.

WORKERS STOPPED

The report said at Canton, "witnesses reported that police continually harassed persons attending voter registration rallies" and that officers in the area had beaten and arrested some participants.

★ ★ ★

"Several witnesses reported that in some sections of Mississippi there appeared to be a pattern of collusion between local law enforcement officers and hoodlum elements," the report said.

It mentioned associations between officers and leaders of the Ku Klux Klan and beatings shortly after civil rights workers were stopped by officers.

RIGHTS VIOLATED

The committee said "the idea of the dignity and worth of every individual is . . . systematically violated and an injustice done to us all when 42.3 per cent of the citizens of this state must either accept an inferior station in life and an attitude of servility or endanger themselves and their families. Terror hangs over the Negro in Mississippi and is an expectancy for those who refuse to accept their color as a badge of inferiority."

★ ★ ★

The committee criticized the state government on grounds of not seeking actively to protect the rights of all citizens and it criticized the state press for "failing to meet its obligations to alert people."

The report mentioned few place names and people.

Report Decline in Air Patrons

Fewer People Use Local Flight Service

North Central Airlines (NCA) patronage at Pontiac Municipal Airport hit its lowest level in January in over a year.

According to NCA officials, outbound flights carried only 15 passengers, compared to 30 passengers in December.

AIR EXPRESS

Outbound air freight dropped from 2,071 pounds in December to 1,255 pounds last month.

Inbound air mail during January dropped from December's 2,007 pounds to 1,659 pounds, while inbound air freight was dropping from 6,345 pounds in December to 3,995 pounds in January.

MSU's Cyclotron Passes First Test

EAST LANSING (AP)—Michigan State University scientists sent nuclear particles racing up to speeds of 42,000 miles a second as MSU's new cyclotron passed its first test successfully, they said Monday.

Dr. Henry Blosser, director of the MSU cyclotron laboratory, said the particles reached an energy level of 25 million electron volts.

He emphasized, though, that about another month of testing would be needed before the multimillion - dollar machine could be said to be completely operative.

But Pleased With March Turnout

King Unhappy With Slow Registering

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. expressed pleasure over a large right-to-vote demonstration here but said the registration procedure was "snail-like" and would be until the state of Alabama does something to speed it up.

"It was a magnificent demonstration," King said of Monday's march of more than 2,000 on the country courthouse. But, King said, the procedure for signing up new voters is "a snail-like pattern of registration.

★ ★ ★

"We are still very disappointed with the registration procedure," he said. "It's far, far too slow. It will continue so until the state of Alabama does something to speed up the procedure."

He objected particularly to a state law which sets up only two regular registration days per month in most Alabama counties.

MORE ARRESTED

In another development at Selma, Negro comedian Dick Gregory and seven other persons were arrested early today after an argument over reservations at the Holiday Inn motel.

Gregory, who spoke to a Negro rally Monday night, and one of the others in the group had reserved three rooms, motel manager Harold Sewell said, but the rooms had not been guaranteed. Sewell said the motel held the rooms until 8 p.m., but Gregory had not appeared.

★ ★ ★

Gregory and his group appeared after midnight and an argument followed.

PLAN STRATEGY

King said a strategy meeting would be held soon to decide what action will be taken in connection with voter drives. "We are considering the possibility of a large group from throughout the state going to Montgomery," King said.

King led the march at Selma, then went to Camden and Marion, in neighboring Wilcox and Perry Counties to assist in registration drives there.

Dallas County's population of voter age in March 1964, was listed at 29,515, including 14,400 whites and 15,115 Negroes. The Justice Department said there were 9,542 whites registered to vote at that time and 335 Negroes.

In Selma, the population is 49.2 per cent Negro. The city has a population of 29,000, with an estimated 6,400 registered voters. Negro leaders say only about 250 of the voters are Negroes. But one official connected with voter registration estimated the figure at about 500.

120 PROCESSED

The Board of Registrars in its second and final day of registration this month, processed voter applications of 120 persons, including 91 Negroes and 29 whites. There was no disclosure as to the number registered.

During the day, 560 Negroes signed the board's waiting list and received priority numbers for the registration line the next day the board is in session on March 1.

Sheriff James G. Clark, who had ordered most of the 3,000 arrests since the start of the drive, observed the demonstration but remained mostly in the background.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Negro leaders ordered the more than 1,200 pupils who have been absent since Feb. 8 to return to school today.

Sportscaster's Tests Near End

Identified as Missing Salesman From Ohio

OMAHA, Neb. (UPI) — John (Fritz) Johnson, the sometimes flamboyant Omaha television personality who turned out to be a legally dead salesman from Ohio, today neared the end of exhaustive physical and mental tests.

Johnson has been undergoing examination by neurologists and psychiatrists since fingerprints showed he was actually Lawrence J. Bader, an Akron, Ohio, kitchenware salesman thought to have drowned nearly eight years ago.

Johnson's attorney, Harry Farnham, said the television personality would be out of the hospital soon. Results of the extensive tests will be ready "possibly" by tomorrow, Farnham said.

Johnson, sports director of television station KETV and Nebraska state archery champion, has claimed he remembers nothing of his life as Bader. He was linked to Bader when a man from Akron saw him at a Chicago sporting goods show and said he was a dead ringer for the long missing salesman.

★ ★ ★

His attorney yesterday left the door open for a possible reunion between Johnson and Mrs. Marylou Bader. Farnham said he told Bader's brothers that "there was certainly no objection whatsoever to her or any member of the family meeting with either Mr. or Mrs. Johnson."

4 CHILDREN

Mrs. Bader has four children and has not remarried. She said during the weekend that she would like to meet her legally dead husband face to face.

★ ★ ★

Johnson married a 24-year-old Chicago divorcee a few years after he showed up in Omaha. He showed up in Omaha only four days after Bader was thought to have been lost on a fishing trip on Lake Erie. Mrs. Johnson is not living with Johnson until the situation is resolved.

Boy Wants Details for Weekend

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: The college which I attend is having a Spring festival. I am planning to invite a girl from my home town to come down for the event.

This is the first time I have ever invited a girl to a college weekend and I am very vague as to what is expected of me. Will you please enumerate some of the "musts" in connection with such a visit?

* * *

A: As soon as she has accepted your invitation, write and tell her the exact duration of the weekend and also inform her of the train or bus schedules.

Note activities so she will know what clothes to take. (There's no excuse for ruining her good time, and yours, by having her leave the right clothes at home.)

Tell her that you will meet her when she arrives or if impossible for you to do so, arrange to have a friend go in your place.

You are not expected to pay for her transportation to and from the college, but you must arrange for her accommodations, either in a dormitory, fraternity house, house of friends or hotel with other weekend guests.

After she arrives, you are expected to show her all the courtesies due a guest.

* * *

The Emily Post Institute cannot answer personal mail, but all questions of general interest are answered in this column.

The Glenn Cumberlands of Petoskey announce the engagement of their daughter, Pamela, a Western Michigan University junior, to Frederick A. Staley, son of the Francis W. Staleys of Glendale Avenue. Her sorority is Alpha Sigma Alpha. Her fiance, an alumnus of WMU, is enrolled as a graduate student. A June wedding is being planned.

Barber Is Still a Barber and Not a Physician

DEAR ABBY: So you say that a barber is not permitted or qualified to remove blackheads?

ABBY

Well, please go to the library and read "The Practice and Science of Standard Barbering," and I believe that you will change your mind after reading the chapter entitled, "Disease of the Skin, Scalp and Hair."

I am a student at a barber college in Covington, Kentucky, and I have personally removed two warts from the face of a customer by high frequency treatments.

Sincerely Yours,
A FUTURE BARBER

DEAR FUTURE BARBER: A barber is neither qualified nor licensed to treat diseases of the skin, whether contagious or otherwise.

It is possible that when you removed two "warts" from the face of your customer one of them may have been a cancer, and the high frequency treatment that you used could have spread malignant cells into the bloodstream.

It is also possible that when you remove blackheads, you are unaware that your customer may be a diabetic or suffer from hemophilia (a bleeding disease).

Highly qualified dermatologists require special laboratory techniques before they know whether a scaling of the scalp is ringworm or ordinary dandruff.

So my advice to you is to perfect your skill as a barber, and do not trust even the best-trained surgeon you know to cut your hair.

He might get carried away and scalp you!

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have been happily married for ten years. We have four lovely children.

When I first started dating my husband, I told him I was five years younger than I really was, because he was five years younger than I, and I was afraid he wouldn't continue to date me if he knew it.

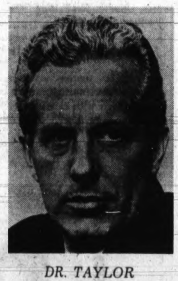
When we did get married, I still couldn't bring myself to tell him the truth, so I gave my age as the same as his for the marriage records. To this day he believes we are the same age.

This has bothered me, Abby, because I feel that one day he might find out. Should I let him go on thinking I am five years younger than I really am?

AGE PROBLEM

DEAR PROBLEM: Tell him the truth. Deceiving him in the first place was wrong, of course.

But any woman who can knock five years off her age and get away with it deserves a little credit for having preserved herself so well.



DR. TAYLOR

OU Slates Dr. Taylor for Series

Oakland University will present Dr. Harold Taylor, Educator and author, on "Education and the Quality of Society," on Feb. 22 at 8 p.m.

All proceeds from the lecture which will be held in Oakland Center will be used to provide financial aid to OU scholarship students.

Associated with many educational activities, Taylor, past president of Sarah Lawrence College, developed the Peace Research Institute in Washington and is chairman of the National Research Council on Peace Strategy.

MISS ROSENBERGER

Noted Pianist Will Perform

Carol Rosenberger, noted Michigan-born pianist, will appear in recital in Oakland University's Gold Room on Friday evening at 8:15.

A native Detroiter, Miss Rosenberger began her formal training under Edward Bredshall and gave her first recital at eight years of age. She later studied with Webster Aitken and has been the recipient of the Steinway Centennial Award.

Tickets will be available at the door.

Birmingham AAUW

Fashions Help Scholars

An afternoon of fashion, beauty and music will be offered by the Birmingham branch of the American Association of University Women (AAUW) in their annual benefit fashion show and tea.

"Petticoats and Parasols" will be presented Feb. 26 at 1 p.m. in the Cranbrook Auditorium.

* * *

HELP FOR STUDY

Queen of the Kitchen Contest Announced

Entries are now being accepted for the fourth annual Detroit Edison Company cook-off to select the "Queen of the Kitchen" among women who work.

Electrical appliances will be awarded to ten finalists.

The grand prize is a new deluxe range. The "Queen" will have her choice of six models from nationally known manufacturers.

The special second prize will be an open hearth smokeless broiler - rotisserie complete with shish kebab attachment, and the third award will be a seven - speed blender.

ANNUAL EVENT

The cook - off is held each year in cooperation with the Central Business District Association's annual Salute to Women Who Work Week which begins on March 21 this year.

The contest is open to any girl or woman working full time who lives in Southeastern Michigan.

* * *

Each is invited to submit a recipe for a one-dish meal that can be cooked in an hour or less. The recipe should be sent to Electric Living, 2000 Second Detroit, Michigan 48226, or to the local Edison office.

Deadline for entries is midnight, Friday, March 5.

Each entry must include name, address, telephone number and occupation. The contestant must be able to compete in the cook-off which will be held in Edison's Electric Living Kitchen in Detroit on Thursday, March 25.

Professional home economists and cooks and employes of Detroit Edison and members of their immediate families are not eligible.

Home economic experts from newspapers, radio and television will serve as judges and select the ten most interesting and promising entries.

The ten finalists will be announced Monday, March 22, and will compete in the cook-off for the top prizes three days later.

GUESTS AT GALA

The finalists will be guests at the gala Salute to Women Who Work Week banquet at Cobo Hall on March 23.

Marion Ryan, director of the Electric Living Department at Edison, said the recipes of the finalists will be published in a handsome booklet again this year for general distribution free of charge.

Beverly Livingstone Field, daughter of the Norwood H. Fields of Detroit, and Dr. Frank E. Bonner Jr. are planning an early June wedding. Her fiance, son of the Frank E. Bonners of Bow Lane, is a graduate of Eastern Michigan University and the University of Detroit School of Dentistry.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

Q. I am 14 years old, 5 feet 4, weigh 135 pounds and I know I am overweight. My main problem is that my face is always red. I always look as though I have been crying.

If I lose these extra pounds would that help my face? I am very shy and become easily embarrassed.

Can you think of a way to give me self-confidence?

A. It is possible that you may be allergic to the soap you use, or something you use on your face. I wonder if your face is really as red as you think? Rosy cheeks are attractive.

You might try using one of the soaps which is for those who have allergies or a very sensitive skin.

There is another possibility; you say you are shy. Emotions affect the blood vessels and perhaps you blush a lot. You are definitely overweight even if you have a large frame.

I think it would add greatly to your self-confidence if you lost those extra pounds. It might solve everything — that and a change of soap.

I am sure your family would cooperate with you if you let them know that your overweight is making you unhappy. I suggest that you see your family doctor and get his help.

Use these general rules when losing weight. Eat less, cut out between - meal snacks, except for fresh fruit or skim milk or fruit juice.

Forget pastries and candy bars and chocolate milk shakes and sundaes and such items for the time being. Eat a well-balanced diet.

Q. I would like to know if contact lenses are safe for the eyes. I wear regular eye glasses and would like to wear contacts.

A. If your eyes are examined by a well-qualified person first and then the glasses are prescribed, they should be safe. However, your eyes should be checked periodically. Thousands of persons use these today with no trouble at all.

Q. I don't know if you can help me. I have had this trouble all my life. I am in my early thirties, married and have one child.

Every time any man looks at me I blush. I can't talk to anyone about anything, even my boss. It is so bad that I even embarrass the person I am talking to. I am just average looking and have no right to feel this way. Please help me if you can.

A. Blushing is the result of nervousness. When you are shy and self-conscious it makes you jumpy and nervous. You will have to change your viewpoint.

Don't think of men as belonging to another strange category. Think of them as members of the human race and as friends.

Also learn the trick of looking out instead of in. When you talk to someone concentrate on something about them, what they are saying, what their interests are, or even something as simple as how they hold their mouth when they talk, or how they stand or what kind of shirts they wear.

The important thing is to concentrate on them and therefore forget yourself.

Heywood-Wakefield's new Contemporary American Stack Units are shown in full array as an overall decorative wall unit. Here two cabinet bases, one three-drawer unit and four tops introduce an architectural feature into the room while providing abundant storage area. The bases alternate with horizontal and vertical plank detailing with solid ash door and drawer fronts which are neatly framed in crisp miter corner designs. Solid aluminum pulls in a black finish add a subtle touch as just the right amount of trim. The tops, 30" square, may be placed on any one of their four sides to vary the divided shelf arrangements. This group is available in either a Teak or Cafe Walnut finish on the ash wood.

New Storage Units

A beautiful showpiece for living room or dining room is this handsome huntboard and deck. The huntboard can be used alone as serving table in dining room, or as hall or living room console piece. The highlight of the piece is the handsome, deeply carved apron in authentic shell and floral motif. From Drexel's new French—in the Country Manner group, it has a dark, worn looking antique finish reminiscent of those from a French country manor house.

Needlework Kit

Learn With Sampler

Here's an embroidery lesson that will result in worthwhile needlework for you to feature in your home.

Special instructions for all stitches are included so that even a beginner can follow them easily and accurately.

This endearing sampler was copied from a rare old one. Its verse has a sweet nostalgic charm.

While most of the motifs, and the verse are to be embroidered in cross-stitch, there is also a sampling of outline, lazy daisy (or loop), running, blanket, satin, couching stitches and French knots.

Marvelous Marble

To keep marble lustrous, experts recommend wetting the surface with clean water, then washing it with soap or detergent suds.

Apply the suds with a wad of lamb's wool, a sponge, or a lint-free cloth.

Dig Out Old Sheets Create New Pants Outfit

Sheets are spreading over new territory this season. Besides covering beds, going to costume parties and dusting furniture, they're now being snipped and stitched into high fashion pants.

* * *

This new role makes sense, says the Tintex Color Council, because the material is sturdy, and of course it's economical, since everyone has old sheets on hand.

All you need is color, and home fabric dyes give you an easy solution to that problem.

INEXPENSIVE

Fashionable? Since Courreges and Chanel pantsuits hit the Paris headlines last fall, pants have been on the move in the fashion world.

Made of every imaginable fabric, slacks have moved from the country into town—from the casual to the high fashion scene.

* * *

Now the latest "imaginable" fabric is sheeting. You can make pants for all occasions —at home, parties or downtown.

The first step is to dye an old sheet and pillow case a light color—maize yellow, for example. Use dye containing a T-7 catalyst which enables you to dye without boiling water.

Then cut out the pants and sew together.

TOP IS EASY

To make top, first cut a hole in center large enough for head; cut arm holes about 7 to 8 inches long, and bind with bias tape.

For bow, cut a bias strip of dyed sheeting 48 inches by 12 inches. Double fabric lengthwise, sew along open side and turn inside out.

An attractive "tie-dye" design can be obtained by basting thread in circular and band patterns, pulling thread tight, and dipping these gathered areas into a second dye bath.

Put Responsibility on His Shoulders

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

DEAR MRS. LAWRENCE: Can you recommend some incentive to make my 8-year-old boy get up in the morning in time for school?

Though he gets a good 10 hours of sleep every night, he has to be roused four and five times before he finally gets up.

I have done everything I can think of to help him, even to feeding breakfast to his little brother in his pajamas to avoid fighting in the bathroom.

I am worn out by the time I get him off in the morning.

ANSWER: Would you be able to withdraw all this helpfulness of yours? Could you say to him:

"I am not going to wake you up for school ever again. Instead, here's your own alarm clock.

"You know school's rules about getting there on time just as well as I do. I hope you'll obey them because teachers get mad at children who are late.

"But from here on you'll have to make up your own mind about obeying them and getting up when this clock tells you it's time to get up."

HARD AT FIRST

If you can just live through the anxiety you feel the first morning you entrust him with his own responsibility for school promptness, the chances are excellent that he will assume it.

Children can get very resentful of our pushing them to get up in the morning. Interest in frustrating us gets substituted for getting to school on time.

They roll over in their beds away from our reminders that it's a quarter to eight, not because they want to be late for school but because their resentment at our pushiness enjoys our worry and helplessness.

As we overprotective parents are also sentimental ones, we reject this evidence of the child's satisfaction in our helplessness since it offends our notion of the beautiful "love" existing between us.

So eager are we to do our loving duty by him that we can't see it is actually saying to him:

"You are so incompetent in comparison with me that I can't credit you with the sense to know you'll get in trouble if you're late for school — and so must operate on my knowledge of this as though you were a nitwit."

HIS OBLIGATION

It is, of course, soothing to imagine that we are doing our loving duty by a child when we assume his obligation to get up in time for school.

But from his point of view, it is a belittling experience and his feeling becomes, "O.K. See where you get by treating me like a nitwit."

Corregidor's Reconquest Recalled by Ex-War Correspondent

(EDITOR'S NOTE — James M. Hutcheson was an Associated Press war correspondent and covered the landing of American troops on Corregidor in 1945. Now executive news editor of the Walla Walla Union-Bulletin, Hutcheson recalls the landing on the 20th anniversary.)

By JAMES M. HUTCHESON

WALLA WALLA, Wash. (AP) — A doughty little general, who had led the first daring march into Manila and later was to lead the first occupation troops into Tokyo, commented with emotion as he stood on the bridge of the command ship:

★ ★ ★

It was just 20 years ago today. American troops, by parachute and by landing craft, had just undertaken the reconquest of Corregidor, the fortress island astride the entrance to Manila Bay. It was a comeback that was almost forgotten.

Corregidor — A name that recalled memories of both bitter defeat and gallantry against hopeless odds.

VOW TO RETURN

Corregidor — The headquarters from which Gen. Douglas MacArthur set out for Australia by PT boat with the promise to return.

Corregidor — The battered island when Gen. Jonathan Wainwright emerged from Malinta Hill's tunnels to surrender his emaciated, sick and bleeding force to the commander of the invading army.

Maj. Gen. William C. Chase, who had been given command of a division on nearby Bataan after leading a spearhead into Manila as a brigade commander, remembered the sacrifice of Gen. Wainwright as he rode the command ship as an observer 20 years ago.

★ ★ ★

To the paratroopers and infantrymen landing on the island, there was no time for sentimental reflections. Corregidor might stand as a symbol to the generals and folks back home, but to them it was only another barren battleground on which many of them would die.

SPECTACLE

If a battle can fittingly be described as a spectacle, the reconquest of Corregidor was it.

Naval guns pounded the polly-wog-shaped "Rock" the preceding day, then joined the bombers in blasting it again before the landing started. Aboard ships offshore, we had floating grandstand seats.

First came paratroopers of the 503rd Parachute Regiment. They landed atop the plateau "head" of the island, site of the old parade grounds and barracks. Varicolored parachutes dotted the "Rock" in spectacular patterns against the burned and scarred terrain. Some paratroopers landed on the steep cliffs; or in the water and had to be picked up by boats. But most of the force landed according to plan, trapping the Japanese in their caves and tunnels and proceeding to take their "topside" objectives.

Then came the landing craft from the Navy force offshore, carrying 24th Division troops to a narrow beach on which mines were planted like carrots in a garden. Within an hour, however, the first of the infantrymen set off a smoke flare to signal their arrival atop Malinta Hill, the midisland peak of many tunnels — the tunnels where Americans had held out to the last in 1942 and in which hundreds of Japanese now remained as the Americans climbed the island.

Much cleanup fighting remained ahead, but the American grip on the island never was threatened. Hundreds of Japanese were killed later in caves and tunnels, or when they emerged from them.

The worst slaughter was an instance of mass suicide. The defenders set off a blast inside Malinta Hill which seemed to lift the hilltop and which carried several Americans to death under a rockslide at its base.

CORREGIDOR SHUDDERED

As a dispatch from the scene described it the next day: "All Corregidor shuddered last night."

It was almost two weeks later, on March 1, when Gen. MacArthur announced virtually complete destruction of the trapped enemy. He told how the conquest was achieved by an American force only half the size of the elaborately entrenched Japanese garrison of 6,000.

The general said 4,215 defenders' bodies were counted, while many never were retrieved from blasted caves or tunnels. American casualties were comparatively light.

The reconquest of Corregidor seemed a symbol of "the road back." Yet, ironically, it received little attention in the news of the day. The battle for Manila was raging at the same time — the smoke of the burning city was clearly visible from atop Malinta Hill.

LANDING ON TWO

Of even greater import, the landing on Iwo Jima was announced the same day. It was a giant stride toward the Japanese homeland, temporarily overshadowing all action in the Philippines.

Corregidor, once a sentimental and strategic symbol, was just another blasted and scarred milestone on the long road back.

★ ★ ★

It had no airfield sites to offer, and a fortress against a sea attack became an anachronism in an air era. Twice a battleground, historic Corregidor became a military ghost, with Malinta Hill standing as a sentinel over the dead of two nations who had tried to defend it.

TICK TICK TICK

The time it takes to move a car of freight from your siding to your customer's siding has a direct bearing on the profitability of the shipment. That is why Grand Trunk Western—your friendly, courteous railroad—streamlines all freight movement through major rail terminals, especially in the Chicago area. This is one excellent reason for locating your new plant site on GTW track.

Another good reason is that GTW, with its western rail connections, can now move car lots of freight to west coast destinations in 72 hours and offer correspondingly fast, dependable services to Canadian and New England destinations.

On the basis of these two reasons alone, it is understandable why that, in the last year, 35 new industries acquired property and located on GTW lines. 21 existing on-line industries are completing substantial building expansion programs.

Before committing yourself to time, money, and effort in the location of plant sites, contact H. B. Secor, Industrial Development Manager, Grand Trunk Western Railroad, 131 West Lafayette Blvd., Detroit, Michigan, 48226, Telephone 962-2260. There is no cost, no obligation. Indiana Assists Wolverines' Title Drive

AWED BY IT ALL — Michigan's Cazzie Russell (left) and Larry Tregoning (right) seemed awestruck by the flailing bodies of Indiana's Larry Cooper (45) and Tom VanArsdale and an unidentified Wolverine; but the two 'M' performers are actually watching for chance to grab rebound during action last night at Bloomington, Ind. The visitors notched an almost unbelievable two-overtime 96-95 win to remain unbeaten in Big Ten play.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (UPI) —Dave Strack was wrong.

The youthful coach of the top-ranked basketball team in the country said Monday, "If you're going to win the Big Ten championship, you've got to do it yourself. You can't expect other teams to help you out."

That was before he directed his Wolverines to a 96-95 double-overtime victory against Indiana. Michigan received a lot of unexpected help . . . from Indiana.

Twice the hurrying, hustling Hoosiers had the wonderful Wolverines on the ropes. Twice they failed to deliver the knockout blow and twice Michigan rebounded to pull into a tie.

Cazzie Russell, who scored 23 points, tossed in two free throws with 45 seconds to play in the second overtime session to provide Michigan with its game-winning points.

Bill Buntin also had 23 and Larry Tregoning 20 for Michigan while Tom and Dick VanArsdale topped Indiana with 27 and 21, respectively before fouling out.

HOOSIER'S FOLD

Indiana took a 50-44 half-time lead and forged ahead 81-74, with a minute to play after the Wolverines had tied the count, 70-all. But Michigan never gave up and Indiana folded under the pressure.

Again Indiana took command and held a 92-88 lead with 30 seconds to play in the overtime period.

But Tregoning canned two more charity tosses with 26 seconds to play and Buntin tipped in a basket in the final seconds to tie the score again, 92-92.

After Tom VanArsdale had intercepted a pass and sank a layup to put the Hoosiers ahead with 60 seconds to play in the second overtime, Russell connected for his two free throws with 45 seconds left to end the scoring.

* * *

But, the action didn't stop there. Indiana stalled for the final shot and missed with 20 seconds left. After Michigan lost the ball, Russell fouled Ron Peyser, but he missed both free-throw attempts. Michigan again lost the ball and Indiana's Steve Redenbaugh took a last-second 25-foot jumper that was swatted out of the air by Buntin.

FOUL TROUBLE

Indiana, until Monday night one of the nation's top teams in free throw accuracy, missed 15 foul shots and lost the game despite outscoring Michigan 37-33 from the field.

The Wolverines are idle until Saturday when they'll entertain Ohio State. Michigan and OSU tied for the conference crown last season, but the Buckeyes have been weak this season, owning a 2-5 league record and an 8-9 over-all mark.

Opponent Average Is Now 'Only' 97

Oh, sure, the team still is losing all its conference games. But for the first time, Mary N.'s opponents are averaging less than 100 points a game. Only 97, in fact, to Mary N.'s 36.

* * *

For Mary N., this is a notable achievement. You have to remember that only two years ago, one opposing player scored 127 points against Mary N. in a single game, and one team scored 189.

Mary N's misfortunes were duly reported in an Associated Press story at that time.

It turns out the team didn't like all those points being scored against it, and it didn't like the publicity, either.

"I even got letters from California after that story," says Mary N's athletic director, Howard Parsons. "The attitude of the whole thing was wrong.

"Would you think it was folly if somebody wrote that you were that bad? Put those shoes on your feet and see how it feels."

FIGHTING BACK

This year, Parsons and Mary N. — a school of 600 in a rural area of Virginia's Eastern shore, 65 miles from here — are fighting back. They've discovered an ingenious way to hold down the scores: Forefeits. A 2-0 score is better than 189-34 any day.

Mary N. is forfeiting about six games this season, for one reason or another. Parsons says one reason is cost. By forfeiting, the school saves maybe $100 for round-trip tickets, and maybe 100 more points.

The conference statistician says Mary N. has lost 96 conference games in a row, 16 this year — that's with forfeits included.

Parsons says Mary N. has won one or two against schools in Maryland.

Parsons sees better days ahead.

"We've got two consolidated elementary schools opening up and both are bigger than our high school," he says. "Just wait until our feeder program gets started.

"We're already keeping the total points down some. We're going to win a game one of these days. We may even win the next one we play."

Meeting of NFL-AFL Is Called 'Inevitable'

PALM DESERT, Calif. (AP) — There will be a meeting of the National and American Football League teams in the "near future" in the opinion of one of the strongest owners-coaches of the old established NFL, George Halas of the Chicago Bears.

Halas, who laughs at his title as the junior-elder statesman of the NFL — actually he is the elder statesman — expressed this opinion as the NFL plunged into its formal meeting.

Halas, one of the founders of the league, would not pinpoint the exact year of any NFL-AFL game, but he did say it was inevitable in the not-too-distant future.

Would it be 10 years, five years?

"Just say in the near future," said old Papa Bear, who has shepherded the Bears as well as the National League through decades of their history.

There has been no indication from Commissioner Pete Rozelle that the league has any idea playing the AFL either an exhibition or championship game, and there is also no indication that anything of this nature will transpire at the current NFL meeting.

SEVERAL ISSUES

The formal league meeting got under way today with several issues under consideration. Included were such rules changes as reducing the penalty for grabbing a mask in a game from 15 yards to five yards.

The National League regular schedule will open the weekend of Sept. 19, a week later than usual, and the championship game will be Jan. 2, 1966, with the Western Division winner the host.

There will be an open date Dec. 26 for a possible playoff in either or both of the two divisions of the NFL.

As tentatively set, the Playoff Bowl between the runners-up in the two divisions will be Jan. 9 at Miami, Fla., and the Pro Bowl game will be at Los Angeles Jan. 16.

The All-Star game at Chicago, which features the Seniors of the 1964 college season and the champion Cleveland Browns, is set for Aug. 6 at Chicago.

The Columbia Broadcasting System, according to sports director Bill MacPhail, will telecast nine pre-season NFL games, as well as all regular season games, to which CBS has exclusive telecast rights.

Hawks' Mikita Closing Gap

* * *

Hull led the league by 14 points Jan. 7 but Mikita narrowed the margin to one point after picking up four points in four games last week. NHL statistics released today show Hull on top 67-66. Hull has put his total together with 38 goals and 29 assists, Mikita with 20 goals and 46 assists.

State Golf Pro Escapes Injury in Plane Crash

PANAMA (AP) — Three pro golfers from the United States and Paul Hahn, world famous trick shot artist, escaped without injury when their light plane crashed near the Colombian border.

With Hahn in the plane were John Barnum, of Belmont, Mich.; Wes Ellis, of Caldwell, N.J., and Bill Collins of Purchase, N.Y. They were on their way to do some fishing at Pinas Bay on the west coast of Panama after competing in the Panama Open.

Hahn said all four had to crawl out of the wreckage of the plane but no one was injured.

New Prep Quintets in Top 10

By The Associated Press

Detroit Northeastern and Flint St. Matthews are the newest additions to the Top Ten rankings in the Associated press weekly high school basketball poll.

Northeastern jumped three spots to replace Niles in the No. 10 Class A slot. St. Matthews replaced Detroit St. Leo as the 10th-rated Class D club.

The leaders — Benton Harbor in Class A, River Rouge in Class B, Portland in Class C and Barryton in Class D — remain unchallenged. All four clubs hold substantial margins over the second place teams in the voting conducted by AP's panel of sportwriters and sportscasters.

PCH MOVES UP

Except for minor exchanges among the rated teams, Class A's Pontiac Central and Ann Arbor University High in Class D made the largest gains. Each team jumped four places in their respective rankings. Central moved from No. 10 to No. 6 in Class A. U High leaped from eighth place in Class D to the No. 4 spot.

The major shuffle came in the Class A rankings were where Lansing Sexton and Dearborn Fordson, both on the losing end last weekend, dropped three spots each.

Hurlers Get Attention

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—Two former National League pitchers who are looking for major league jobs can expect a lot of attention from the Detroit Tigers in the next ten days.

* * *

Glenn Hobbie, a former Chicago Cubs right-hander who won 32 games for them before being traded and winding up in the minors, also has been promised a shot at a regular berth. Hobbie is not on the Tigers roster but club officials expect him to be there when the regulars start practice Feb. 25.

* * *

Some 60 young players, about ten more than Detroit officials expected, attended Monday the first working sessions in the Detroit early camp at nearby Tigertown.

TOP PROSPECTS

Two of the youngsters, left-handers Doug Gallagher and Tom Fletcher, are considered top prospects for the pitching staff. Gallagher is a strong-looking hurler but he has been plagued by shoulder troubles. Fletcher received a $65,000 bonus from the Tigers a few years back.

* * *

Minor league batterymen will have the camp to themselves until Sunday when farm club infielders and outfielders report.

Pitchers and catchers on the Detroit roster report to Henley Field on the 25th, with the remainder of the squad scheduled March 3.

* * *

There was one casualty Monday. Dan Wyles, a right handed pitcher from Jamestown, was struck on the hand and side by a bat which flew out of a batter's hand during hitting practice.

Coaches Pat Mullen and Mike Roarke were on hand with a number of minor league managers and coaches for the first day's practice.

* * *

Call 'Big O' All-Purpose Player of NBA

NEW YORK (AP) — It comes as no surprise to followers of play in the National Basketball Association but for the records Oscar Robertson is as good as they come in all-around play.

Figures released today by the NBA and including games of last Sunday show Cincinnati's Big O No. 1 in assists with 652 feeds for an 11.4 per game average, second high in scoring with a 30.9 per game average, third in foul shooting with a percentage of .835 and No. 8 among the field goal percentage leaders with .481.

* * *

Wilt Chamberlain of Philadelphia easily held to his top spot in the scoring column with an average of 35.3 points on 1,907 points in 54 games. Robertson has scored 1,760 points in 57 outings.

Homer Hitters Sign Contracts

By The Associated Press

For a while Hank Aaron didn't know where he was going to play, Mickey Mantle still doesn't.

The two homer hammerers—Mantle is seventh on the all-time list and Aaron 14th—signed their 1965 baseball contracts Monday and took their usual places among the highest paid players in the game's history.

Mantle stepped into the No. 2 spot by agreeing to terms with the New York Yankees for an even $100,000. Aaron, who will be playing for the Braves in Milwaukee this year and Atlanta next, stepped up $10,000 to the $70,000 neighborhood.

That left San Francisco's Willie Mays the No. 1 in terms of salary with a $105,000 contract, Mantle in the runner-up spot and Aaron in the No. 3 neighborhood along with Yankee outfielder Roger Maris and pitcher Sandy Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

ROAMING AFIELD

Mantle, however, doesn't yet know if he is going to earn his salary roaming in center field or playing right field.

★ ★ ★

"It doesn't make any difference to me," he said, explaining that new Manager Johnny Keane would probably make the decision during spring training. "Actually, I think center field is easier myself. The only thing Yogi Berra thought it would save my legs because I wouldn't have to run so much in right."

Mantle said it didn't bother him that his salary fell short of Mays' although it was rumored that the Yankees would offer $107,000 to their slugger to get him the No. 1 spot.

"As long as he gets $105,000 I don't mind being second," said the 33-year-old switch hitter. "I took what they offered and I'm happy."

So was Aaron.

"I thought I deserved a raise and I'm well satisfied," he said.

Aaron, the leading active hitter with a .320 lifetime average, batted .328 last season with 24 homers and 95 runs batted in. During his 11 seasons with the Braves, he has hit 366 homers.

Mantle, who has a lifetime batting average of .309, hit .303 in 1964 with 35 homers and 111 RBI. He has hit 454 homers in his 14 seasons with the Yankees.

In Recreation Basketball

Success Spawning Success

The rich got richer in men's recreation basketball last night.

In town, Roy White's Unbeatables (6-1) assured themselves of top seeding in the Class A playoffs that begin next week by pinning a 75-68 defeat on third place K.D. Television.

The other game found Lloyd Motors (4-3) hanging on to nip the once-victorious Students, 80-78, and thus grab second place from the 4-4 video quintet.

Waterford Township action had Spencer Floor Covering, Hi 'n' Dri Lounge and Gancia-Cote all improving their records and remaining in contention. Each has lost once.

★ ★ ★

Don Smith's 18 paced the winners. The losers' Jim Chamberlain (20) and Joe Umphrey (19) were tops in the tilt.

Hi 'n' Dri (7-1) took over sole possession of first place in the township's National League with its 71-57 decision over Howe's Lanes (2-6). The latter led, 39-35, at halftime.

The loungemen finally went ahead for good at 58-56. Jim Devine's 28 points before intermission carried Howe's in the early going. He finished with 39 while Dick Blacklaw's 20 topped Hi 'n' Dri.

Gancia-Cote (6-1) remained a half game off the pace and tied for second place with a 66-50 romp against Joe's Bar (4-4). "Casey" Clauser's 22 paced the winners while Dave Dodd took game honors with 22 for the barmen.

Orion's Baptist 5 Finishes Unbeaten

Lake Orion Baptist completed an unbeaten regular season campaign Monday night in the YMCA's Church Basketball Men's League in its usual fashion.

The Baptists dropped First Church of the Brethren, 85-54, behind the high-powered scoring of Jerry Olson who put in 37 points. George Thrasher had 20 for the losers.

Ron Toles of St. Luke Methodist took individual honors for the night, though, with 41 in a 95-28 beating of Elizabeth Lake Church of Christ. Avondale Baptist tripped Pontiac Business Institute, 73-54, to round out the slate.

Leaving Bench Costs Canadien $125 in Fines

MONTREAL (AP) — Montreal's Jim Roberts has been hit with an extra $100 fine and a total of $925 in fines levied against the 10 Canadiens and six members of the Toronto Maple Leafs involved in a hockey brawl last week.

★ ★ ★

Each of the players involved was fined $25 in addition to the automatic $25 penalty assessed against a player leaving the bench to fight. The additional fines were announced Monday by Clarence Campbell, president of the National Hockey League.

★ ★ ★

The game last Wednesday, won by Toronto 6-2, was held up from 15-20 minutes by the battles.

Bill Farrah Says,

"A Friend Of Mine Swears That The Rambler Classic Rides Better Than His $6,000 Car . . .

I had called at his house one night to take his wife and himself to dinner. I was driving one of our Rambler Classics and when we left his house he asked if he could drive it. I said sure and we took off down a rough, winding country road that was full of pot holes. They keep it that way because they have children and the cars have to slow down on that stretch of road.

When we reached the main highway, he turned to me and said, "That's amazing!" I said, "What is?" Then he replied, "This Rambler rides better on this rough road than my big car does and it costs only about one-third of what I paid for mine.

Then as we started down the expressway, he stepped on the gas and that Rambler really took off. When we reached the restaurant, the parking lot was loaded but he had no trouble sliding the Rambler into a very short space.

He turned to his wife and said, "Darling, this is the car for you. In fact I'm going to ask Bill to figure what two of them will cost. I want one too."

Well, he could buy three Ramblers for what his big gas-guzzler cost him. So can you. So come on in and check the room, ride, styling and economy that you get in a Rambler, and only in a Rambler.

Next Potential Trouble Spot

U.S. Is Bracing for Steel-Labor Conflict

WASHINGTON (AP) — With most longshoremen back on the job, federal officials are bracing themselves for the next potential labor explosion — in the steel industry.

While no one is predicting a steel strike, or even whether overt government intervention will be needed, the Labor Department is clearly uneasy over the possibilities.

Spokesmen insist, however, that beside the dock strike and possible steel troubles, prospects are for a generally peaceful year at the bargaining table even though about one-third of all union contracts — covering about 5 million workers — are up for renwal.

ELECTION CONTEST

The most immediately worrisome aspect of the steel talks is the uncertainty over the election contest for president of the million-member AFL-CIO United Steelworkers of America.

★ ★ ★

"Nobody will be able to do a thing until we know who the leader is," said one government spokesman, referring to the contest between President David J. McDonald and Secretary-Treasurer I. W. Abel, for the presidency of the Steelworkers Union.

★ ★ ★

Abel has claimed victory, but official ballots are still being tabulated. McDonald forces are talking about a court fight if their man is declared the loser.

The union's talks with the steel industry were recessed pending the outcome of the election and several weeks of bargaining time already have been lost. Steel contracts expire May 1.

DANGER PRESENT

While rejecting predictions of widespread labor strife the rest of the year, some Labor Department officials concede that any of the major contract talks could erupt unexpectedly.

Aerospace, textiles, rubber, aluminum, canning and construction are some of the big negotiations coming up.

New York City newspapers, shut down for 114 days in late 1962 and early 1963, are locked in another tough set of negotiations with union printers. The contracts of 10 New York newspaper unions expire March 30.

Despite a sharp rise in strikes during the past six months, the Labor Department insists the period looks worse than it really was because 1963 was so quiet.

BAD IMPRESSION

Department spokesmen say such publicized strikes as last fall's auto walkouts and the current dock strike created a misleading impression of general labor strife.

★ ★ ★

The walkouts at General Motors, Ford and American Motors accounted for nearly one-third of the 23 million man-days of strike time last year.

There was a time when a no-trump opening with a five card major suit was frowned upon, but that day seems to have gone by. At least in the world championship trials seven of nine South players opened one no-trump on today's hand.

In each instance the bidding proceeded as in the box. North's two club response was the Stayman request to show a four or five card major suit and after South rebid two hearts each North player took his partner right to game.

There wasn't much to the play at four hearts. West cashed the ace and king of spades and shifted to a diamond. South went after trumps and lost a trick to the ace. Later he tried the club finesse. When it worked he made the contract.

Two South players chose the old fashioned bid of one heart. In each instance West overcalled with one spade and South failed to get to game. Of course, these two South players also made 10 tricks but they scored 170 instead of 620.

In International Match Point scoring as in rubber bridge it pays to bid even money games and this heart game was almost exactly even money since it depended on the location of the king of clubs.

On the other hand the result here showed the luck in duplicate. The two pairs who missed game lost nine IMPs each. Shift the king of clubs to the West hand and they would have picked up five IMPs each instead of losing nime.

Of course, the loss was their own fault but their opponents picked up the same nine points each for merely sitting at the table.

Selected Issues in Spotlight

Stock Mart Irregularly Lower

NEW YORK (AP) — Selected issues were in the spotlight as the stock market worked irregularly lower early this afternoon. Trading was moderately active.

Changes of fractions to a point or so prevailed among most key stocks.

Wider gains or losses appeared among an assortment of stocks affected by merger news, rumors or special corporate action.

The news from Viet Nam was quiet for a change and there was no general incentive for the list to move one way or another. Profit taking mixed with speculative and investment buying.

The trend was a little lower among oils, rails, tobaccos, steels and motors. Many other groups were mixed. Aerospace issues were a little higher.

★ ★ ★

The averages were depressed by du Pont, which slid off more than 2 in further disappointment over dividend action and failure of directors to propose a stock split.

Chrysler (ex dividend) recovered from yesterday's sharp loss and gained more than a point.

SLIGHT GAIN

Braniff Airways was up a fraction and Continental Airlines off a fraction as merger rumors appeared to be cooling.

Control Data and Polaroid were off about a point each.

Prices were generally higher on the American Stock Exchange. Trading was moderate.

Bank Elects 9 Directors

Pontiac State Report Shows Area Growth

At the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Pontiac State Bank last night, nine directors were elected to serve for 1965.

Those elected were Milo J. Cross, Edward E. Barker Jr., James A. Corwin, John C. Cowe, Rodger J. Emmert, Frank A. Mercer, Goodloe H. Rogers, William D. Thomas Jr. and Stuart E. Whitfield.

Milo J. Cross, president, reported that shareholders approved the sale of capital notes in the maximum amount of $1 million, and that the additional capital through the sale of these notes was consistent with the bank's continued growth in the Pontiac area.

Cross also announced the transfer from undivided profits to capital surplus of $300,000.

This increase brings the bank's capital surplus to $1,400,000, making the combined capital and surplus $2,500,000, and at the same time increases the bank's individual maximum lending authority to $500,000.

CAPITAL FUNDS

Several new year-end records were reported. Deposits exceeded $50 million (up 14.7 per cent). Total resources were almost $55 million (up 15.2 per cent).

Total loans and discounts were $26,627,000. Cross reported this 19 per cent increase was invested in the Pontiac area by way of customer purchases of homes and consumer products, and to finance both new and existing businesses.

ADD TO FUNDS

This contribution to capital funds was equal to $2.80 per share.

In spite of increased expenses as a result of higher interest rates to savings depositors, Cross said he is optimistic about 1965, both as to improved earnings and continuation of the bank's healthy growth.

NEW FORDS, FARM STYLE — Ford Motor Co. is introducing today a line of five new farm tractors which it said cost $100 million to develop. Ford brought out the new line in a bid to increase its share of the $2 billion annual U.S. tractor and equipment market. The new models range from a 3,360-pound, two-plow model (left) to a 6,900-pound, five-plow machine (right).

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "Recently you advised against buying more American Telephone, because of its poor technical action following the split. My problem is that I hold 667 stares of this stock and am wondering if I should sell at least 100 shares and put the proceeds into Commonwealth Edison and Illinois Gas. I also hold 100 Dow Chemical and 100 Jersey Standard. I am retired and interested in security."

J.K.

A) You are fortunate in owning such a good block of Telephone. I have never recommended the sale of this stock except for the purpose of diversification, which seems to apply in your case—since your holdings of the issue are disproportionate.

Before selling, I think you should consult a tax man and determine what your capital gains liability might be in the event that you went through with your plan.

If you do so, the two stocks you have chosen as replacements are excellent choices.

Lawyers Title Hits New Income Marks

New national income records were established last year by Lawyers Title Insurance Corp., of Richmond, Va., according to George C. Rawlings, president.

Total income for the year was $23,400,169, an increase of $2,510,557 or 12 per cent over 1963.

Net income was $3,009,601, an increase over 1963 of $775,411 or 34 per cent, Rawlings told stockholders.

UAW's Stellato Not Seeking Reelection

DETROIT (AP)—Carl Stellato today removed himself from contention for the presidency of giant Ford Local 600 of the United Auto Workers Union, a post he has held for nearly 15 years.

Stellato said he would not seek reelection because the $13,000-a-year job "had become grueling" and "pressures have taken their toll." He refused to discuss future plans.

★ ★ ★

The Detroit News, however, said it had learned Stellato hoped to return to the international UAW, which he left to make his first successful bid for the Local 600 presidency in 1950.

Ford Unveils New Tractors

Company Introduces Five Machines Today

BIRMINGHAM (AP) — In a bid to increase its share of the $2 billion annual U.S. tractor and equipment market, Ford Motor Co. today revealed a line of five new tractors which it said cost $100 million to develop.

The new farm tractors range in size from a 3,360-pound, two-plow model to a 6,900-pound, five-plow machine equipped with a 242-cubic inch diesel engine.

Ford's Tractor and Implement Division spent more than one million man hours over three years in developing the new line, said Emery Dearborn, general operations manager.

The $100 million investment, he said, included design, testing and new tooling at the company's Highland Park plant and two new plants in Europe.

Ford says it sold about 19 per cent. The nationwide total was up from 186,200 the previous year.

RETAIL SALES

Ford said its retail tractor sales in 1964 were up 7.9 per cent from the previous year.

"We expect to exceed this level of sales activity with the introduction of our completely new tractor line in this country beginning next month," Dearborn said.

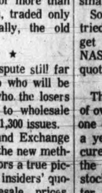
Factors which should help Ford sales, he said, are a high level of farm cash receipts from farm crop and livestock marketings and government payments, new and improved models of all kinds of farm machinery and the desire of farmers to reduce production costs by investing in more productive equipment.

For Price Quoting

New Market Method

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK—Traders on the biggest stock market of them all—the over-the-counter market—are adjusting today to a new method of quoting prices.



DAWSON

For 1,300 issues bought and sold nationally but unlisted on any stock exchange, wholesale prices will be quoted instead of retail. For more than 35,000 other issues, traded only regionally or locally, the old rules still apply.

But there's a dispute still far from settled as to who will be the gainers and who the losers from the change to wholesale quotations for the 1,300 issues.

The Securities and Exchange Commission says the new method will give investors a true picture of prices, the insiders' quotations or wholesale prices, rather than the retail prices previously quoted. These were the insiders' or dealers' prices plus an unpublicized commission or markup.

CLEARER PICTURE

But a sizable segment of the 4,100 over-the-counter dealers who belong to the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. — NASD — says that what is really going to happen is this: Small dealers will be forced out of business when investors shop around for the smallest commission, and only the big stock and bond houses will survive because a big volume of business will let them charge the smallest commissions.

The new method of quotation of over-the-counter stocks is just one of the SEC proposals made a year ago. Already it has secured law revisions requiring the bigger companies whose stocks are traded over the counter to make public disclosures of their financial status, comparable to those required of companies whose stocks are listed on exchanges.

RISKLESS TRANSACTIONS

The SEC still has in abeyance a proposal that would end riskless transactions. This is the name given to deals where the stock broker instead of executing a customer's order as an agent, goes into the market and buys the stock himself and then resells it to the customer at a markup, usually well above the normal commission.

SEC proposals also include a demand for full disclosure. This would make a dealer tell his customer what he had paid for any particular stock and the amount of the markup.

The SEC began its study of the huge over-the-counter market after the big speculative buying there in 1961 which sent many unlisted stocks soaring — only to tumble in the spring of 1962.

In 1961 around 2.5 billion shares changed hands in the over-the-counter market for a total of about $39 billion. The market cooled down after the 1962 crash. But of late it has regained much of its old activity.

LOST STAR PERFORMERS

It has lost a number of its star performers, however. The SEC proposals, especially the law requiring fuller disclosure of company business, caused a number of big firms to seek listing on the nation's stock exchanges.

Admitted Kidnaper Found Hanging in Cell

CLEVELAND (UPI) — A 22-year-old self - admitted kidnaper of a 7-year-old girl took his own life early today in a cellblock in Cuyahoga County Jail, the sheriff's office reported.

* * *

Chief jailer William Lynch said the body of William Rehard was found hanging from a bar at 4:35 a.m. Rehard left a note addressed "To whom it may concern" in which he said he was sorry for what had happened to Donna Adkins and wished it had not happened, Lynch said.

Time Is on Senators' Side

Contemplation for Nation

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — In any anthology of bright sayings by adults, you will find more quotations about "time" than almost any other subject.

WEST

Diogenes spoke of time as "the image of eternity." Ben Johnson called it "that old bald cheater." Both concepts have a certain validity, but it is from William Shakespeare that I take my text for today.

* * *

Good old Bill pretty well summed the whole thing up when he wrote that "Time travels in divers paces with divers persons."

As an example of the divers paces that time travels with divers members of Congress, let us consider what happened on a single day this week.

On one side of the Capitol, Sen. Gale McGee, D-Wyo., proposed that U. S. senators be given a "sabbatical leave" at some point during each term so they would have time to "sit and think."

* * *

McGee pointed out that most senators are so occupied with the day-to-day routine they rarely have an opportunity to contemplate the eternal verities and other abstract precepts.

'BIG PICTURE'

"What I seek is time to think about what has been facetiously called the big picture," he explained.

"Where would a senator go on a sabbatical? I believe that question is of little importance. Perhaps to a mountain top. Perhaps to a lonely isle. Perhaps he would hide out aboard ship, where there were no telephones."

Although McGee didn't say so, prudence would require that a senator studying the big picture up there on the mountain make certain that nobody down in the valley was undercutting him politically.

Meanwhile, on the other side of the Capitol, Rep. David S. King, D-Utah, was looking at time from a different angle.

He said it was time that Congress started working a five-day week rather than continue "the dog-eared routine geared to a three-day week."

He said this would enable Congress to adjourn in the late summer and permit members to spend the rest of the year at home.

* * *

I don't know what, if anything, will come of either of these proposals. A short time later both sides of the Capitol suspended business for a week and drifted off for their annual Lincoln's birthday sabbatical.

So for the time being, as Shakespeare also said, "Time is out of joint."

Woman Slain in W. London

Believed 7th Victim of 'Jack the Stripper'

LONDON (UPI) — The nude body of a woman was discovered in West London today, apparently the seventh victim in 15 months of a sadistic killer dubbed "Jack the Stripper."

The woman's body, hidden under grass, was found by a passerby on the edge of an athletic field in the West Acton neighborhood of West London. Police said it appeared to have been there for some time.

Since November 1963 six other women, all convicted prostitutes, have been found dead within a mile of the Thames River in West London. All had been stripped of their clothes. Three were tattooed.

He apparently lured them into his car, made them strip and then strangled at least five of them. They believe the man carried the bodies in the car for a time, disposed of the victim's clothes — none of which has ever been found — and dumped the bodies after dark.

The string of murders brought back memories of Jack the Ripper, a 19th century psychopath who also preyed on prostitutes and murdered them with a knife. He is believed to have killed between six and 16 women. He was never caught.

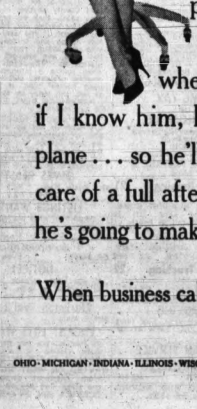
"but I just don't dare! He's flying North Central"



I'd love to slip out and go shopping with you. But my boss usually gets back the same day when he flys North Central. And if I know him, he'll probably snooze on the plane . . . so he'll bounce in here ready to take care of a full afternoon's work. There's a rumor he's going to make Vice President . . .

Canada's New Flag Flying Around World

OTTAWA (AP) — Canada's new maple leaf flag flew over all its official establishments today, marking its first full day as Canada's national emblem.

The red-and-white flag was hoisted at noon Monday on Parliament Hill, in provincial capitals and at Canadian missions and ships throughout the world.

Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson led a glittering first night audience attending the film premiere last night of "The Greatest Story Ever Told."

Mrs. Johnson

She was escorted by Adlai Stevenson, the U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations. The President's wife wore a white sequined gown and a white stole.

At one point, a man described as an "overzealous guest" raced up the aisle toward the First Lady. He was halted by police and Secret Service agents.

A theater spokesman described the incident as "of no consequence." The man was questioned and released.

Dean Rusk Enjoyed His Vacation

Secretary of State Dean Rusk has given a warm endorsement to vacations and plans to make them a regular habit.

He returned to Washington yesterday, sporting a suntan from his 10-day Florida vacation to recover from a cold.

RUSK

Posing for pictures, Rusk joked: "I've got to be careful and take regular vacations. I go away for 10 days in four years and people think I'm resigning."

Rusk said he felt greatly recovered "but I won't say I am 100 per cent cured."

Beatle Lennon in Driver's Seat

Beatle John Lennon, 24, owns two cars, his wife owns one and he's planning to buy a fourth car. But at least now he can drive them.

He passed his driving test in London yesterday on his first try. "It wasn't too bad," Lennon said. "But I was nervous."

Barbara Hutton Is Still in Pain

Barbara Hutton, 52, the Woolworth heiress, is reported ill and suffering abdominal pain at the Presbyterian Medical Center. She was hospitalized last week.

Her illness has not been fully diagnosed. Her seventh husband, Prince Doan Vinh Na Champacak, said Miss Hutton has had difficulty in resting and has suffered pain since entering the hospital.

'Deputy' Bows to Rome Ban

Controversial Play's Next Move Uncertain

ROME (AP) — A group of Italian actors bowed to a city government ban on "The Deputy" today after giving one performance of the controversial play behind the locked doors of a Rome bookstore.

The Rome prefecture banned the play by West German writer Rolf Hochhuth after the Vatican radio and newspaper attacked efforts by Gian Maria Volonte and a group of actors to stage the play. It questions whether Pope Pius XII did all he could to save the Jews from the Nazis.

★ ★ ★

"We made our point," said Volonte. "We wanted to show we had a right to put the play on here. We'll meet later to decide what to do next."

Volonte suggested his group might try to stage "The Deputy" outside Rome, since the ban applies only to the city.

SPECIAL STATUS

In banning the play, the prefecture cited the 1929 Lateran Concordat, which established relations between the government of Italy and the Vatican State. It recognizes a special status for Rome as the center of Roman Catholicism and obliges the Italian state to protect the papacy from "public offense and injury."

Volonte's troupe had tried to present the play before an invited audience Saturday night in an improvised theater. The police prevented that performance on the ground Volonte had not obtained a safety license for a public gathering.

★ ★ ★

Police hauled away some of the audience by force, and the actors began a sit-in in the theater behind a police barricade.

Monday night, while Volonte remained inside the theater and the police were still outside, the actors slipped out to a bookshop half a mile away owned by Giangiacomo Feltrinelli who has the Italian publishing rights for "The Deputy."

An invited audience of 150 witnessed the play.

Says Italian 'Dish'

'Nothing to Do in Hollywood'

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — Once upon a time in Hollywood's glamorous long-ago, it was the dream of most European performers to star in American movies and live beside a swimming pool.

THOMAS

Times change. Witness the stunningly beautiful Italian dish, Virna Lisi. Did she harbor visions as a young actress of conquering Hollywood?

"No," she replied bluntly. "I never thought about it at all."

Another dent in Hollywood's pride, Miss Lisi went on to explain:

"To me, work is everything. When I go for a week without working or preparing to work, I am very unhappy. In Europe I can make five or six pictures a year. I like that.

"But what would I be doing if I stayed here? I would probably make only one picture, maybe two pictures a year. The rest of the time I would go crazy.

WHAT TO DO?

"What is there to do here if you aren't working? Hollywood, it is nothing. One day when I was making the picture here, I had a day off and I wanted to see Hollywood. What did I find? Nothing but drugstores and supermarkets!"

As for grand living, Miss Lisi could give a few lessons to Hollywood's big spenders. She has five large houses in Rome, the Italian countryside and mountains. All this hasn't derived from her film earnings alone; she is married to Italian industrialist Franco Pesci.

Virna was paying a return visit here this week at the end of a tour to exploit her first Hollywood film, "How To Murder Your Wife." Her English this trip is passably good.

Fortunately, her role opposite Jack Lemmon didn't require any English at first. She plays an Italian immigrant who pops out of a cake during a stag dinner and ends the evening in Lemmon's bed. They are married by then, which is a switch on the current run of Hollywood plots.

Don't get the impression that Virna downgrades everything about Hollywood. She likes the people, the sunshine, in fact, almost everything —except the coffee.

★ ★ ★

"They tell me Americans make coffee like the Italians," she commented. "It is not true. I can drink five, six cups of American coffee and still sleep like a baby. It is too weak. Oh, if only I could have a cup of good Roma coffee."

AP Photofax

THE SUN IS NICE — Italian actress Virna Lisi enjoys the sun and swimming pools in Hollywood, but not the movie world. She says the old Hollywood routine would not be strenuous enough for her. She also cares little for the night life, preferring Rome.

Kidney Switch Is Successful

ANN ARBOR (AP)—A Nigerian mother's kidney was successfully transplanted to her son Monday in adjoining operating rooms at the University of Michigan Medical Center.

If the operation had not been performed doctors say the young man would have died.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Asabi Adedire, flown from her home in Nigeria Feb. 2, and her son, Abraham, were reported in good condition by hospital officials Monday night.

★ ★ ★

Adedire, who holds a degree in chemistry from Michigan State University, was hospitalized Nov. 17 when it was found that his kidneys were failing.

BLOOD MATCHES

Mrs. Adedire, whose blood matches her son's, was flown from Nigeria with her daughter for tests to determine if a transplant could be accomplished.

★ ★ ★

Hospital officials say Adedire will be in the hospital for one or two months. Mrs. Adedire is expected to be released within three weeks.

Thief Handcuffs Woman, Flees With $4,500

DETROIT (AP) — Although many persons feel chained to their jobs Mrs. Olive Smith was handcuffed to hers.

A hooded bandit forced Mrs. Smith into the payroll office of a Detroit restaurant Monday and absconded with $4,500 of weekend receipts.

★ ★ ★

Police arrived shortly and cut the cuffs from the machine. Two hours later Mrs. Smith was freed from her unwanted bracelets.

Tributes to Dead Singer Pour In

Wife Kept Secret Cole Was Doomed

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Doctors told Nat King Cole's wife last Friday that the 50-million-record singer was dying, but she kept it a secret from the world — and from him.

Half a day later, at 5:30 a.m. Monday, he was dead of cancer.

Doctors said an autopsy showed cancer in all major organs and glands of Cole's body. He was 45.

UNDER TREATMENT

The singer had been under treatment for lung cancer for months. He took a turn for the worse last week, and doctors at St. John's Hospital learned through tests that cancer had reached his liver.

They told Mrs. Cole. It was her decision to keep it secret, a hospital spokesman said.

★ ★ ★

Tributes to the singer from around the world began to pour in Monday.

Band leader Duke Ellington, in London on a tour, said he was shocked and sorry.

GREAT LOSS

"His death is a great loss to music," Ellington said.

Singer Eartha Kitt, also in London, said, "A great tragedy. A beautiful soul has gone to waste."

★ ★ ★

Entertainer Sammy Davis suggested that the best way to remember Cole would be to "do all we can to help stamp out the dread disease that took him from us."

The British Broadcasting Co. in London broadcast a television tribute to Cole.

COUNCIL ADJOURNS

The Los Angeles City Council adjourned in Cole's memory.

The Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors ordered flags flown at half-staff at the new, multimillion-dollar music center, of which Cole was a founder.

Cole's body will lie in a closed casket at St. James Episcopal church, on Wilshire Boulevard in Los Angeles, from 3 to 10 p.m. Wednesday to permit the singer's fans to pay their last respects.

Private funeral service will be held at the church at 11 a.m. Thursday. Entombment will follow at Forest Lawn Memorial Park in nearby Glendale.

HIS FAVORITES

One of Cole's brothers, Ike, a pianist and singer, arrived at St. Louis television studio for an appearance Monday and learned that his brother had died. He insisted the show must go on and played and sang three of his brother's favorites, "Pretend," "Nature Boy" and "Mona Lisa."

Another brother, Eddie, said in Honolulu he thought the death of their father two weeks ago hastened the singer's death.

★ ★ ★

"We had to tell him and I guess it made him turn for the worse," Eddie said. "He loved our dad. We could see him change right then."

The father, the Rev. Edward B. Coles died in North Chicago.

HEAVY SMOKER

Cole, a long-time cigarette and pipe smoker, entered the hospital Dec. 9.

Doctors diagnosed the lung cancer and began cobalt radiation treatment.

They said radiation reduced the malignancy by 70 per cent, and they performed surgery Jan. 25, removing one lung.

Other survivors include a daughter, Natalie, 15; twin sons, Timolin and Casey, 3; two adopted children, Carol, 20, and Nat Kelly, 6; a sister, Evelyn, of Chicago, and a third brother, Fred, of New York.

Seventy-six per cent of the U.S. households have one TV set, 17 per cent have two and 7 per cent of the households have none.

$6 Million for Roads to Be Bid on March 10

LANSING (AP) — The State Highway Department says it will open bids March 10 at Lansing on nine projects with construction costs estimated at more than $6 million. The largest project will be for bridge deck concrete, lighting and fencing on the Rouge River Bridge carrying I75 over the Rouge River in Detroit, to cost some $4.6 million.

Israel Asks Review on Germany

JERUSALEM, Israel (AP) — The Israeli Parliament called on the government Monday night to reassess its relationships with West Germany because of the Bonn government's decision to cut off arms aid to Israel.

★ ★ ★

Bonn announced the move in an effort to dissuade the United Arab Republic from recognizing Communist East Germany.

★ ★ ★

By a vote of 54-26, the Israeli Parliament adopted a resolution expressing "astonishment and indignation" at the West German decision and describing it as a surrender to Egypt's President Gamal Abdel Nasser.

★ ★ ★

Premier Levi Eshkol said Israel would not accept West Germany's offer of money for the $15 million worth of undelivered arms. Bonn agreed in 1960 to ship $80 million worth of arms to Israel in addition to $825 million in reparations for crimes committed against the Jews by the Nazis.

ACCOUNT PENDING

"The account still pending between the Jewish people and the German people — an account written in blood — goes far beyond the limits of the political and material spheres," Eshkol said.

★ ★ ★

Nasser has been pressuring the West Germans to halt their arms shipments to Israel. Last month he announced plans for a six-day state visit to Egypt by Communist East Germany's President Walter Ulbricht.

★ ★ ★

West Germany claims the visit and the red-carpet welcome planned for Ulbricht will be tantamount to de facto recognition of the East German regime. The West German government threatened Monday to cut off about $190 million in aid grants to Egypt if Ulbricht's Feb. 24 visit comes off. Bonn did not renew a previous threat to break off diplomatic relations.

★ ★ ★

Leaders of most of America's 5½ million Jews called the West German arms decision a "breach of international morality" exposing Israel to Arab hostility.

State College Policy Blasted

Says Overcrowding Due to Out-of-Staters

LANSING (AP) — Sen. John Bowman, D-Roseville, blasted Michigan State University and University of Michigan admission policies Monday night because, he said, they admit too many out-of-state students, force the state to pay some of their costs and keep Michigan students from attending the state universities.

Bowman, taking advantage of a slow night in legislative activity, suggested the two state schools should become more interested in educating Michigan students than in becoming national universities. The question has been raised often in past years.

★ ★ ★

Bowman prefaced his remarks by observing that MSU President John Hannah had recently advised high school graduated-to-be to apply to community colleges.

"Perhaps this is why Dr. Hannah advised such applications," said Bowman, launching into a series of figures researched by a Senate intern.

COMPARES FIGURES

He said 24 per cent of the U. of M. student body and 17 per cent of the MSU enrollment—excluding foreign students is composed of out-of-staters. At Ohio State University, said Bowman, the figure is only nine per cent.

His figures showed that average annual student cost at MSU is $1,127 but out-of-staters are charged only $870 tuition. At Michigan costs are $1,515, tuition $1,492.

The Roseville Democrat said he is tired of getting calls from constituents who complain about paying taxes, then can't get their children into Michigan or Michigan State because they're crowded out by out-of-staters.

His speech came at the tag end of a short Senate session in which the only major business was approval of 31 appointees of Gov. George Romney.

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Are the comedians going to give President Johnson and Lady Bird a rest in their gag-spouting . . . and is it because of the tense Viet Nam situation?

WILSON

That's the conclusion reached by a lot of conclusion-jumpers here after Bob Hope came to town for a Catholic Youth Organization dinner, where he received a Champions medal, and didn't use one joke about LBJ, the ranch, the President's dancing, the President's cold, nor even the President's penchant for turning the lights out or holding beagles by the ears.

Scintillating, as always, Hope dealt more with the religious aspect. Acknowledging Cardinal Spellman's presence, he said, "The Cardinal has visited all the trouble spots — Korea, Berlin, the World's Fair." He added, "The Fair's really in trouble . . . the only one who can save them is the real Moses."

James A. Farley, who was there, he called "Coca-Cola's answer to Joan Crawford." Speaking of his wife Dolores, Hope said, "George Murphy introduced me to her — but I voted for him, anyway."

Diahann confirmed this to me personally after her brilliant and spectacular opening at the Plaza Persian Room, Poitier, now divorcing, didn't attend her opening, because she felt his presence would have made her nervous. Poitier'll be one of the Oscar presenters April 5 and Diahann, appearing at the Los Angeles Cocoanut Grove simultaneously, will be his date, making it all sort of official.

Poitier'll be popping into the Persian Room now to catch her act. We recommend to him a number in which she says, "Producers are asking what I'd like to do next, and I say, 'Well, I'd like to do "My Fair Lady" — the movie, of course. Maybe Professor Higgins could be played by Cab Calloway.'"

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Heavenly Baby

A New Star Is 'Born'

By FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Science Writer

WASHINGTON — Discovery of what may be the first real baby star — one apparently much smaller than the moon — was described today by the National Science Foundation.

★ ★ ★

Although seemingly a real pipsqueak as stars go — having roughly one-thousandth the diameter of the sun — the newfound dwarf shapes up as a heavenly heavyweight champ of sorts.

★ ★ ★

It apparently packs 300 tons of material per cubic inch of volume, more than 100 million times the density of water.

The NSF told about it in its annual report to the White House and Congress. It credited the find to Dr. Willem J. Luyten, a University of Minnesota astronomer doing research aided by an NSF grant.

There's no question about the discovery of the star, the report said. The only possible question is whether the distance to it has been figured accurately because that would have a bearing on computing its actual size.

As things stand, estimates are that the star, in the constellation Cetus, is some 288 trillion miles from the earth, and the light seen from it on any given night started coming to the earth about 48 years previously. Light from a star travels at 186,000 miles a second.

However, it is relatively chummy with the earth, as star distances go. It also is by far the smallest among about 12,000 relatively small and "nearby" stars that Dr. Luyten has uncovered in special studies using the 48-inch Schmidt telescope on Mt. Palomar, Calif., the NSF said.

The baby star, with a presumed diameter of only 1,000 miles, also would be much smaller than any of the planets. The earth, for example, has a diameter of 8,000 miles.

Among other new developments funded by NSF grants for basic research, the agency told of:

Artificial production by Philip Eaton, a University of Chicago chemist, of a new type of complex carbon compound called cubane because it has a box-like arrangement of its atoms. It may prove to have powers to combat virus infections and furnish new varieties of pesticides, fungicides and herbicides.

★ ★ ★

Development by University of Wisconsin scientists of new chemical techniques which offer promise of further cracking of the genetic code.

Social-science studies of public reaction to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. The results, still being analyzed, "are expected to contribute to our knowledge of both individual and group behavior."

★ ★ ★

Studies also are under way of public reaction to "a more pleasant, but nevertheless rather sharp, environmental change," the tax cut enacted by Congress in the spring of 1964.

Military Chief Favored in Honduras Election

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (AP) — Hondurans vote today in a tense election that is expected to make the young air force colonel who heads the current military regime the new constitutional president.

All signs pointed to victory for Col. Oswaldo Lopez Arellano, 43, who rose to power after the October 1963 coup which ousted President Ramon Villeda Morales.

House Democrats Discussing Candidates for New Auditor Post

LANSING (AP)—House Democrats discuss candidates for legislative auditor today—while Senate Republicans try to get their say as to who fills the new position.

The House Democratic caucus was to discuss the qualifications of five candidates for the eight-year post with a $25,000 annual salary.

"But it's unlikely that we'll take a vote," said Majority Floor Leader J. Robert Traxler, D-Bay City, "since many of the members will be in Detroit for the insurance hearing."

State Insurance Commisioner Allen Mayerson has called a two-day hearing on spiraling automobile insurance costs and cancellations. A number of legislators asked to be excused from today's session in order to attend the hearing.

FRONT-RUNNERS

The contest for the post has developed into a bigger tussle than some legislative leaders feel it is worth.

★ ★ ★

State AFL-CIO President August Scholle is known to favor Austin, and State Democratic Chairman Zolton Ferency has backed him as "my personal choice." Austin also has been backed by U.S. Rep. John Conyers, who defeated him in a congressional primary last year.

Lee, on the other hand, has the backing of the Wayne and Macomb County AFL-CIO councils.

'BEEN IGNORED'

Since the Democrats dominate both houses, the job of picking the auditor — who takes over most of the functions of the auditor general—falls to them.

Senate Republicans, however, complain that "we have consistently been ignored."

★ ★ ★

Minority Floor Leader Sen. Emil Lockwood, R-St. Louis, said Republicans "have initiated several attempts to get the majority party to set up a bipartisan committee to conduct these interviews (of prospective candidates)"

★ ★ ★

Republicans named a five-member committee of their own to parallel the work of the Democrats.

This is The Pure Oil Performance Trials braking test—where the 1965 cars have to make a panic stop from 65 mph and at the same time keep within a standard-width traffic lane. This is one of three exacting tests in The Trials—the new-car tests that test cars, not drivers.

Who just won The Pure Oil Performance Trials, the meanest new-car tests of them all?

Take a look.

Oldsmobile 98 Holiday	won Class I	(Luxury)
Pontiac Bonneville	won Class II	(Deluxe 8 cylinder)
Chevrolet Impala	won Class III	(Medium 8 cylinder)
Buick Special Deluxe	won Class IV	(Small 8 cylinder)
Oldsmobile F-85	won Class V	(Standard 6 cylinder)
Ford Falcon	won Class VI	(Compact 6 cylinder)
Ford Mustang 2+2	won Class VII	(Sport compact)

Tests for acceleration...Tests for economy...Tests for braking

The 1965 Pure Oil Performance Trials were mean because they were thorough.

And there were no loopholes. None for the cars; none for the drivers. The National Association for Stock Car Research saw to that. (NASCAR sanctions and supervises The Pure Oil Performance Trials.) Every entry was taken apart and inspected by NASCAR, to make sure it conformed to the Automobile Manufacturers Association specifications. The running of The Trials was done in accordance with a set of rules designed to eliminate driver skill as a factor in the results.

So if you want to know how the '65 cars really perform, check the winners at left.

'M' Cagers Put Ranking on Line Tonight at Indiana

Shortened '500' to Lorenzen

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Fred Lorenzen, who has now won at all four majors tracks on the NASCAR circuit, has no intention of quitting.

The Elmhurst, Ill., racing veteran piloted his 1965 Ford to victory Sunday in the rain-shortened Daytona 500 at the Daytona International Speedway.

★ ★ ★

"I'd much rather make a run for it and take the checkered flag," Lorenzen said. "But that's the way things happen, sometimes. I'll take this win — I've wanted it for a long time."

Race officials waited more than 1½ hours before stopping the race. The field, reduced to 22 of the original 43 starters, had run some 43 of those laps under the yellow flag.

LITTLE LUCK

Lorenzen, who has won at Atlanta, Charlotte and Darlington in addition to Daytona, has a little bit of luck going for him Sunday.

But he also did a lot of advance planning, and believed he could have won anyway because he planned only four pit stops.

★ ★ ★

"We used a 3-to-1 gear ratio and figured to save on gas," Lorenzen explained. "We were getting 42 laps to the tank, and I know the other drivers, though having faster cars, could have to make more stops."

him to return to the race without losing his position.

The win, at an average speed of 141.539 miles per hour, was Quick work by his pit crew a few laps before the race was stopped kept him in the lead.

could have won anyway because

On the 127th lap, Marvin Panch of Daytona Beach, the leader for most of the race, slammed into Lorenzen and Lorenzen's car went into a guard rail.

The right front fender scraped along the tire, but Lorenzen's pit crew cut away enough of it to stop the rubbing and allow worth $28,600 to Lorenzen, including $800 in lap money.

Darel Dieringer of Charlotte, N.C., who started on the pole, placed second and won $11,950. Bobby Johns, of Miami, Fla., won $7,850 for third and Earl Balmer of Floyd Knobs, Ind., got $4,250 for fourth.

★ ★ ★

Junior Johnson of Ronda, N.C., forged to the lead on the first lap and led for the first 27. A tire on his car was apparently cut by a sharp object and he was sidelined after slamming into the wall.

Pontiac Ladies Again Winners

Local Teams Still Rule Elks' Keg Tourney

Hospitality has never been lacking when the Pontiac Elks No. 810 sponsors its annual Ladies National Invitational Bowling Tournament; but visiting chapters may soon start wondering about the team event.

The local teams — in the majority, of course — continued their domination of the five-woman handicap competition by winning the title for the fourth straight year Saturday.

Pontiac also had the runner-up team, Montcalm Auto Glass which hit 2949 the preceding Saturday.

★ ★ ★

This marked the seventh time in the eight years of the tournament that Pontiac has had the championship team. The singles, doubles and all-events titles will not be determined for two more weeks.

Another 20-Goal Season for Howe

Throwing 20 touchdown passes.

He scored his 20th and 21st goals of the season Sunday night as the Detroit Red Wings whipped the New York Rangers, 6-2. It marked the 16th straight season he has potted 20 or more goals!

Gordie the Great, who will be 37 years old March 31, set a new National Hockey League record, breaking his old mark of 15 in a row. And he upped his all-time scoring total to 587 goals, 746 assists and 1,333 total points.

ENDS SLUMP

At midseason the talk around Olympia Stadium was that Howe's age was showing. He had lost his touch. So, he decided to silence his critics and since the half-way mark has scored 12 goals — in 16 games.

The Wings trail the league-leading Chicago Blackhawks by six points, but lead fifth-place New York by 17.

The question always comes up as to when Howe, the Sampson among the skating set, will retire.

★ ★ ★

"I want to play 20 seasons, first," he answers. "So I'll have to stick around at least one more year, even if it's as a defenseman, where I wouldn't have to skate so much."

Hoosiers Big Challenge for No. 1 Michigan

Wolverines Trample Spartans, 98-83 for Big Ten Triumph

ANN ARBOR (AP) — If the Wolverines of Michigan are behind at the half when they face Indiana at Bloomington tonight they may find the going a lot tougher than it was Saturday.

It's certain a 60-point second half would not be as easy against the Hoosiers, ranked eighth in the nation in the Associated Press poll.

"They know they've got to do the job," says Michigan coach Dave Strack. "Santa Clause is not operating in the Big Ten this year.

★ ★ ★

The Hoosiers, fifth in the Big Ten with a 4-2 record, will take the floor with Tom and Dick Van Arsdale, a pair of 6-foot-5 twins, leading a whole cast of returning veterans.

MSU WINLESS

The No. 1 ranked Wolverines met the hapless Spartans of Michigan State in Ann Arbor Saturday night and added a 98-83 defeat to make State's record 0-8.

The first half of the game looked as if it might be a replay of the 103-98 overtime Michigan squeaker of Jan. 26. Powered by forward Stan Washington's rebounding and 18-point first half, the Spartans went to the locker room with a 43-38 lead.

★ ★ ★

Led by senior guard George Porney, the Wolverines went into a zone press defense early in the second half. The maize and blue exploded for 60 points to rout the Spartans.

State coach Forddy Anderson said after the game, "We played the best we knew how, but that pressure was the difference."

Cazzie Russell led all scorers, adding 32 to Michigan's total. Center Bill Curtis led the Spartans with 22 points with Washington adding 21. Bill Bunton fired in 19 for the Wolverines.

Michigan goes into tonight's game with a 15-2 season record and 7-0 in Big Ten play. State's over-all mark stands at 4-13.

Skating Titles Decided

Injury Sidelines U.S. Ice Star

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. (AP) — The United States has lost one of its leading figure skaters for this weekend's North American Championships in Rochester, N.Y.

Christine Haigler, 17, of Colorado Springs, Colo., announced she would be unable to compete in the meet because of a back injury suffered in last week's U.S. Championships here.

Tim Wood of Bloomfield Hills was third in senior men's singles.

Miss Haigler, the highest-ranking American girl in the 1964 world meet, returned home Sunday to rest the injury. She was hurt Thursday night when she fell while attempting a double-revolution jump and landed on her tailbone.

Despite the injury, she won the compulsory figures in ladies' singles in the national meet, but lost the title in the free skating to 16-year-old Peggy Fleming of Pasadena, Calif. Miss Haigler placed second.

"I had been looking forward to the North American Championships," the pretty Cheyenne Mountain High School junior said, "but I think the best thing I can do is take a few days off and get back in shape. I want to be ready for the world meet next month."

The 1965 World Championships will be on Miss Haigler's home ice at the Broadmoor World Arena in Colorado Springs March 2-6. She was fifth in the ladies' singles a year ago.

Norwegian Hits 301 Feet

★ ★ ★

Engan added jumps of 312 and 317 feet in Class A competition Sunday for 243.5 points and a comfortable margin over second-place Yukio Kashiya of Japan. The Tokyo jumper rolled up 231 points on leaps of 287, 308 and 313 feet.

★ ★ ★

Because of a steady crosswind, officials started the jumping from the lowest of four starting gates on the 90-meter hill. If none of the entrants reached the hill's critical point, they would have been allowed to move up to the next gate on succeeding jumps.

★ ★ ★

But Engan's first jump passed the critical point by one foot and officials ordered remaining starts from the first gate. It was estimated that a move to the second would have added a minimum of 20 feet to later jumps.

Twenty feet on either of Engan's last two leaps would have carried him past the North American standard of 324 feet he set a week earlier at Leavenworth, Wash. His 317-foot effort was only two feet short of the hill record set last year by Matz Jenssen, another Oslo jumper who had taken off from the second gate.

Funseth's 'Knees Knock' in Win

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Rod Funseth headed for the $46,000 Tucson Open today after taking a big jump off the springboard others have used to launch them to the top of the professional golf world.

Funseth, a 31-year-old pro from Spokane, Wash., who admits his "knees were knocking," put together four fine rounds to win the $10,500 first prize in the $67,500 Phoenix Open Golf Tournament.

He fired a 71-68-68-67—275 on the 6,584-yard, par-72 Arizona Country Club course to outdistance a field which included such notables as Jack Nicklaus, Billy Casper, Tony Lema and Bobby Nichols.

Nicklaus won the tourney last year and went on to be the top money winner in golf. The previous three years Arnold Palmer won the event, and in two of them he was tops on the money list.

"I had a lot of breaks," said Funseth, who hit two spectators with tee shots and both times had the ball bounce into improved positions.

ONE PROBLEM

"My only real problem," he said, "was my knees knocking."

Funseth was the third-round leader in the $100,000 Bob Hope Desert Classic two weeks ago at Palm Springs, Calif. He soared to a 78 in the fourth round and finished in a tie for 14th.

"This time I didn't let the course get the best of me," he said.

Funseth was one stroke off the pace going into the final round at Phoenix. He birdied the first hole to catch leader Bert Yancey and went ahead to stay when Yancey bogeyed the ninth.

WIND UP — Rod Funseth of Spokane, Wash., winds up his final round of 67 to win the Phoenix Open golf tournament with a 274 total. It was his first major pro tourney in 10 years on the PGA trail.

College Quints Await Tourney

By The Associated Press

UCLA's defending national collegiate basketball champions, unbeaten in their conference, appear to be one of the best bets to make the NCAA tournament that will decide the 1965 titlist next month.

The Bruins won two Pacific Athletic Conference games last week, pushing their record to 8-0 and 18-2 over-all and all but nailing down a spot in the 25-team field that must struggle through first round activity, then four regional tourneys before reaching the final round of four in Portland, Ore., in March.

★ ★ ★

With three weeks of the regular season remaining, these teams appear today to have the best chances of taking their conference titles and gaining a spot in the tourney:

Michigan, Big Ten; Tennessee, Southeastern; Oklahoma State, Big Eight; Wichita, Missouri Valley San Francisco, West Coast; Texas Tech, Southwest; Cornell, Ivy; St. Joseph's, Pa., Mid-Atlantic; Davidson, Southern; Duke, Atlantic Coast; Connecticut, Yankee; New Mexico, WAC; Eastern Kentucky, Ohio Valley, and Miami of Ohio, Mid American.

AT-LARGE

Providence, Penn State, Villanova, DePaul, Notre Dame, Chicago Loyola, Houston, Texas Western, Seattle, St. John's of New York, Miami of Florida, Detroit, Boston College and Colorado State U. are in the running for the 10 at-large berths.

Some of the teams which fail to make the NCAA will be invited to the National Invitational Tournament in New York. That 14-team field may come from Providence, Detroit, Army, St. John's, Dayton, Miami, Fla., Holy Cross, St. Bonaventure, NYU, Notre Dame, Boston College, Syracuse and the runners-ups in the Missouri Valley and WAC. At present that would be Louisville from the MVC and either Brigham Young, Arizona or Wyoming from the WAC.

★ ★ ★

Michigan, the No. 1 team in The Associated Press poll must down Minnesota and Illinois before nailing down the Big Ten title. Tennessee may have a playoff with Vanderbilt for the SEC crown. Oklahoma State has to shake off Kansas. Cornell must beat Princeton again to sew up the Ivy. Davidson and Duke, despite records of 21-1 and 16-2 must win championship tournaments in the Southern and AAC.

Tennessee's 79-66 victory over seventh-ranked Vanderbilt and Minnesota's 105-90 rout of 10th-ranked Illinois were among the highlights of Saturday's action. Unbeaten Providence made it 18 straight by downing Duquesne 83-75. Davidson won its 20th in a row by whipping Richmond 83-73. Cornell won its 12th straight with a 90-60 romp over Brown.

OSLO (AP) — Per Ivar Moe, an 18-year-old Oslo electrician who won a bronze medal at the Innsbruck Olympics, has added the 1965 World Speed Skating Championship to his growing list of laurels.

St. Benedict Cagers Move Closer to Title

St. Benedict took a long stride toward the Northwest Catholic Youth Organization basketball championship Sunday by defeating second place St. Bede, 35-31.

Mike McGill with 16, and Gary Mazza with 10, led unbeaten St. Benedict. All other teams now have two lossers.

27 Red Sox in Fold

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Red Sox have 27 signed players in the fold with the addition of first baseman Lee Thomas, catcher Russ Nixon, infielders Chuck Schilling and Dalton Jones and pitcher Jack Lamabe.

Homecoming Big Success for Falcons

Midwestern Baptist Seminary's basketball team provided the focal point for the school's first Homecoming Saturday and it was a good selection.

The cagers romped past Detroit Bible College, 103-47, to square their Michigan Christian College Athletic Association record at 5-5.

In addition to scoring 25 points and pulling down 10 rebounds, forward Larry Thompson at halftime was named Mr. Midwestern and Kathy Scott was crowned Miss Midwestern.

Thompson relinquished game honors to teammate Ralph Wingate who had 35 points. Wayne Selby (12) and Ed Odom (10) also were in double figures. Odom had 11 rebounds; Selby and Wingate 10.

Former Emmanuel Christian athlete Ron Jackson led the losers, getting 19 points before fouling out. Midwestern's Falcons hit the first field goal and they were never head.

Michigan Tech Posts Ice Win

By The Associated Press

Michigan Tech blanked Denver 3-0 Saturday night to score the first Western Collegiate Hockey Association shutout of the season.

★ ★ ★

It was the first time Denver had been shutout in 100 games.

Wayne Weller was the big gun for Tech, scoring in the first and third periods. Dennis Huculak collected another tally in the second stanza.

Tech now is 8-5-1 in WCHA play and Denver is 3-6-1.

In other action Saturday night, Michigan State beat Wisconsin 9-3 and Ohio University blanked Western Michigan 6-0.

Doug Roberts, Tom Mikkola and Doug Vilmar scored two goals each for MSU. The Spartans now have 1 14-8 over-all record and Wisconsin is 11-8.

OU Tankers Score Fifth Victory, 55-35

Oakland University's swimming team won its 5th meet in six starts by Calvin College, 55-35.

Double winners again were former Birmingham Groves tanker Rick Korgsrud and Terry Koehler, another Birmingham swimmer but from Birmingham, Calif.

Leon Mellen, ex-Pontiac Central ace won two events also. Mellen went 2:43 in the 200 butterfly and 6:38.5 in the 500 freestyle.

Krogsrud went 1:48.1 in the individual medley and 2:29.1 in the 200 backstroke, while Koehler went 59 flat in the 100 freestyle and 33 seconds in the 60 yard event.

Cinder Standouts to Skip NY Meet

By The Associated Press

Peter Snell is going to write a book while Randy Matson and young Paul Wilson have to read some, so the big weekend winners won't compete in the AAU National Indoor Track and Field Championships.

The AAU championships in New York this weekend, a two-day combined men's-women's meet, takes center stage but schoolboy Wilson, New Zealander Snell and Texan Matson will be among the missing.

Snell, Olympic gold medalist at 800 and 1,500 meters, closed his indoor career with a four-yard victory over arch rival Bill Crothers of Canada in a good 2:07.9 time for 1,000 yards Saturday night in the Los Angeles Times Games.

He had announced earlier it would be his last indoor race. The mile record-holder said he plans one more outdoor season.

"I'm writing a book about track," he said. "I guess that automatically will end my amateur career. But I want to quit this year anyhow. I can't give enough time to track and advance my work, too."

INDOOR RECORD

Matson, the Texas A&M giant, broke the indoor shot put record with a tremendous toss of 66 feet, 2¼ inches in the Dallas Invitational Saturday, then announced plans to start concentrating on the outdoor season. Besides, the Aggies sophomore has some studies to attend to.

Same thing with Wilson, a 17-year-old from Downey, Calif., who was the first schoolboy to clear 16 feet in the pole vault. He went 16¾ and won the event against a veteran field in Los Angeles and was acclaimed the meet's outstanding athlete.

★ ★ ★

The AAU, however, has talent galore, what with the Russian delegation and a total of 11 Olympic gold medal winners entered.

The center of interest figures to be Russia's incomparable Valery Brumel, Olympic gold medalist and holder of the indoor and outdoor high jump records. He has gone 7-3 this year and has announced a concerted try at his own indoor mark of 7-4.

TWO DAYS

The meet is being split into two days for the first time, and the men's and women's championships are being combined for the first time.

One of the top attractions could be the broad jump battle among Russia's Igor Ter-Ovanesyan, Nashville's Ralph Boston and New York's Charlie Mays. Boston beat the Russian in Los Angeles by one-quarter inch — 26-4¾ to 26-4½.

Another feature figures to be the try for a double, in the 600 and 1,000, by St. John's Tommy Farrell. Farrell, who recently set an indoor half-mile mark of 1:49.8, will go against U.S. Olympic gold medal winners Mike Larrabee and Ollan Cassell in the 600 Friday, then come back in the 1,000 Saturday.

Cincinnati Wins Without Big Men; Celtics Romp

By The Associated Press

Oscar Robertson was on the bench. Wayne Embry was in Civilian clothes. Jerry Lucas was nowhere to be seen. But, if the Cincinnati Royals had the shorts, it didn't show on the scoreboard.

The Royals, already depleted by injuries to Lucas and Embry, their top big men, lost Robertson on fouls with 11½ minutes to play in Sunday's National Basketball Association game at St. Louis. But Bud Olsen and Jack Twyman led a come-from-behind spurt that snapped the Hawks' five-game winning streak 99-92.

In the only other game scheduled, the Bill Russell-less Boston Celtics got a second half lift from 7-foot-1 Mel Counts and riddled the Baltimore Bullets 126-111 for their 51st victory in 63 starts.

Olsen and Twyman combined for 11 points in the closing minutes, bailing out Cincinnati after the Hawks had gone in front 83-80 following Robertson's sixth personal foul. The Big O left with 30 points, high for the game and six more than St. Louis' Bob Pettit, who also sat out the last period with a twisted knee.

STRETCH DRIVE

Olsen filled in for Embry, who was hurt in Saturday's 108-106 victory over Philadelphia. He scored 17 points, including seven down the stretch.

★ ★ ★

Russell, out for the second straight game with arthritic knees, watched understudy Counts grab nine rebounds and score eight points as the Celtics overpowered Baltimore in the opening minutes of the second half.

★ ★ ★

Outrebounding the Bullets 24-1 in one 16-minute span and limiting them to 16 shots in the third period, Boston raced from a 58-58 deadlock to a 96-86 bulge.

Sam Jones led the NBA champions with 35 points and Tom Heinsohn scored 26. The Bullets' Walt Bellamy, held to seven points in the first half by Boston rookie John Thompson, wound up with 24.

The Celtics lost to New York 123-113, Baltimore beat Detroit 123-117 and Los Angeles trimmed San Francisco 129-105 in Saturday's other games.

Albion Quintet Notches Share of MIAA Crown

By The Associated Press

Albion assured itself of at least a tie for the MIAA championship Saturday by whipping Kalamazoo 97-88.

Junior cocaptain Larry Downs led the Britons from a 59-59 tie to defeat the Hornets. Downs topped all scorers with 29 points. Kalamazoo is 3-5 in the conference.

Albion's MIAA record of seven victories and two losses ties it with Hope.

Hope's Dutchmen defeated Alma 106-81 to keep in contention for the MIAA title. Carl Walters scored 26 points for Hope. Bill Pendell had 21 for Alma, now 0-9.

Adrian dumped Olivet 85-71 in another MIAA contest. Olivet's Dave Gosselin topped all scorers with 19 points, all in the second half. Lee Kennedy hit 17 for Adrian. Adrian is 5-4. Olivet is 2-7 in the conference.

BRONCS KICKED

Western Michigan fell victim to the Mid-American Conference championship drive of Miami of Ohio. The Redskins won their 10th game against no losses over the Broncos, 93-68. WMU, 6-14, was paced by Dave Anderson with 20 points. Jeff Gehring led Miami with 23 in the game at Oxford, Ohio.

★ ★ ★

Calvin won its homecoming game, wiping out an 8-point deficit and defeating Ferris 87-83 at Grand Rapids. Ken Fletcher led all scorers with 25 points for the Knights, now 8-9. Bernie Kilpatrick scored 23 for the Bulldogs, now 13-5.

★ ★ ★

Jerry Pettway fired in 44 points as Northwood beat Sault Tech 98-93. Ross Sober was high scorer for the Hornets with 29. Northwood is 11-5. Sault Tech is 15-2.

Unbeaten Wayne State added an 80-70 victory over John Carroll to its drive for a President's Athletic Conference title. Fred Wolcott scored 29 points for Wayne, now 6-0 in the PAC. John Carroll is 5-3.

HIGH SCORER

Gene Simmons scored 24 points for Davenport in its 108-101 victory over Michigan Lutheran. Mervin Gallop of Lutheran led all scorers with 30 points.

A game-high 34 points by Gene Summers sparked Northern Michigan to a 111-89 victory over St. Norbert of Wisconsin. Dick Rankin was high man for the losers with 21 points. NMU is 16-3. St. Norbert is 13-8.

★ ★ ★

Moorhead State of Minnesota dumped Michigan Tech 78-57 at Moorhead for its winningest season of all time. Moorhead has won 17 games this season and is 6-1 in the Northern Intercollegiate Conference. Tech lost its 17th game of the season.

Detroit Tech bowed to Fenn State of Ohio 79-69. Jim Garza scored 32 for Fenn and Dick Mostowy 24 for Tech. DIT is 2-19. Fenn is 6-8.

HALL OF FAME BOWLING TIPS

By JOE NORRIS
Written for NEA

Andy Varipapa is perhaps best known for his colorful personality and mastery of trick shot bowling, and that's not altogether fair.

True enough, his antics please crowds wherever he bowls, but many in his younger generation of fans don't know of Andy's many serious bowling achievements.

He was the first man to win successive National All-Star titles and he was 56 years old when he won the second in 1948. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1957.

The snap Andy puts on the ball at the point of delivery is a big reason for his success both at stringing strikes and producing amazing trick shots. His excellent timing brings him to the foul line with his body in balance and ready for ball release.

★ ★ ★

He imparts a pin-spilling hook to the ball by drawing his hand upward as it leaves the ball. He does this with the authority — or snap — necessary to give the ball a driving spin. The result is greater pin mixing, the mark of a champion.

ANDY VARIPAPA

Former Flint Skier Wins Jumping Title

MESICK (AP)—Jan Simonsen of Globe, Arizona, took first place in the senior division of the Michigan Lower Peninsula ski jumping championships Sunday.

Giants Set Fast Pace in Signing '65 Squad

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The San Francisco Giants announced today the signing of two more players, making 37 of their 44-man roster in the fold.

Newly signed are infielder Chuck Hiller, who hit .180 in reserve action last season, and outfielder Charles (Cap) Peterson, who hit .203 and led the club in pinch hits with 12.

Olympic Skater Wins 2 Races in Flint Outing

FLINT (UPI) — Eddie Bertand, the North American Olympic intermediate champion, won the Flint Open speed skating title in his division Sunday, then beat the field in an open two-mile race.

Bertand, the 17-year-old Detroiter, finished with a 7:17.8 clocking in the two-miler with Paul Mehl of Southfield second. Bill Freeman of Detroit third and Don Blasy of Midland fourth.

Jeanne Omelenchuk of Warren and Bill Kucyk of Detroit, Michigan's two national outdoor champions, also swept the senior women and juvenile boys divisions, respectively.

Lost Boy Lived Like Huck Finn

TUXEDO PARK, N.Y. (AP) — Huck Finn and Tom Sawyer have nothing on 7-year-old Greg Johnson.

Lost in the woods, the boy didn't panic. He munched on wild wintergreen leaves and spent the night in the hideout cave of a revolutionary era highwayman.

Gregory drifted away from a hiking party in Bear Mountain-Harriman State Park Saturday. More than 100 persons, aided by bloodhounds and two Air Force helicopters searched for the youngster.

Greg was found yesterday morning by a neighbor, William Jannone, who also resides in the nearby village of Tuxedo.

* * *

After he became lost, Greg said, he "remembered what daddy said about not wandering in the forest at night." He found the cave once used as a hideout by Claudius Smith, the horse thief and murderer hanged on the village green in Goshen, the seat of Orange County.

SLEPT FITFULLY

It was kind of cold, Greg said, so he covered himself with leaves. The second-grader said he slept fitfully and "every once in a while, I'd sit outside and just look at the moon."

* * *

Mrs. Johnson, asked if Greg would be in school today, said: "You bet. He can't wait to tell his chums about his night in the bandit cave."

ARA Extension to be Sought

Say Johnson Will Ask Overhaul of Program

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson is expected to send a special message to Congress this week urging extension of the controversial area redevelopment program, but recommending that it be overhauled.

The loan-and-grant plan to areas has been the target of vociferous critics since it was set up about four years ago. It is due to expire June 30.

Congressional sources said that Johnson would request extension of the program and propose a $400 million appropriation to keep it in business.

He is also expected to urge reorganization of the program along lines which, some believe, partially acknowledge the validity of past criticism.

* * *

The program is intended to woo job-producing industries to chronic unemployment regions by providing subsidies to build plants, public facilities, and other community improvements.

OUT OF MONEY

In 1961, Congress provided $451 million to finance it, but the Area Redevelopment Administration (ARA), which administers the program, ran out of money last summer.

An attempt to replenish the ARA fund was rejected in the House the year before.

President Johnson said in his economic report to Congress last month that ARA had helped economically depressed areas, but he emphasized that "redirection of this program can benefit from the experience of the last four years."

* * *

Earlier, in his budget message, he said that in the future "federal resources and efforts would be concentrated more heavily in areas of greatest need."

Soviets Warn U. S. on Raids

Attacks Could Ignite War, Russians Say

LONDON (AP) — Moscow radio warned the United States today that continued strikes against North Viet Nam could ignite a world war.

In an English-language broadcast beamed at North America, the Soviet radio said:

"The old saying 'peace is indivisible' remains true to this day.

"The flames of war starting in one place could easily spread to neighboring countries and, in the final count, embrace the whole world.

★ ★ ★

"This is the situation that is developing in South Viet Nam.

DANGER EXISTS

The broadcast accused the United States of planning new raids against North Viet Nam and said:

"To this end large contingents of the U.S. armed forces are being concentrated off the shores of Indochina, including an extremely powerful strike force from the U.S. 7th Fleet.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

"By striking out against North Viet Nam the United States is encroaching on the entire Socialist camp."

WAUKEGAN, Ill. (AP)— A flash fire raced through the 100-year-old Commercial Hotel today, killing one person. Hotel authorities said one other person may be missing.

14th District Nominees Picked

Former Republican State Senator Farrell E. Roberts and Livonia City Councilman Edward H. McNamara were nominated yesterday in a special primary election for the 14th District senate seat.

★ ★ ★

They will oppose one another in a general election April 5. The winner will succeed Paul M. Chandler who was elected to the post in November but died before taking office.

An attorney, Roberts, 42, of 2486 Lafay, West Bloomfield Township, led the field of six GOP candidates in getting the nomination, while McNamara beat out two other Democrats.

McNamara, 38, a manager with the Michigan Bell Telephone Co., won the nomination with 4,003 votes.

DEM OPPONENTS

His Democratic opponents, John H. Burke, a Farmington attorney, and Elsie Gilmore, one-time head of the Democratic party in Wayne County, garnered 1,032 and 978 votes, respectively.

Other GOP candidates and their votes were as follows:

Allen C. Ingle, Farmington Township justice of the peace, 1,154; Thomas J. McHugh, a Sylvan Lake councilman, 909; Fitzhugh Prescott, a Farmington businessman, 383; and George T. Ames, a Novi barber, 230.

FARRELL E. ROBERTS

EDWARD H. McNAMARA

The vote totals include the 51 precincts in Oakland County and 53 precincts in Wayne County that make up the 14th Senate District.

DISTRICT

The district comprises most of western Oakland County and Livonia, Plymouth and Northville in Wayne County.

While only about 7,500 of the 50,000 registered voters went to the polls in the 12 townships and seven cities in Oakland County, the turnout was slightly higher than had been forecast by County Clerk John D. Murphy.

Only a 10 per cent turnout had been predicted.

★ ★ ★

Roberts was a state senator until last year when he gave up his post to run for the new Michigan Court of Appeals.

He served two terms in the senate. Prior to that he was a state representative.

★ ★ ★

From 1952 to 1954, Roberts was an Oakland County assistant prosecutor.

SECOND TERM

McNamara is serving his second term on the Livonia City Council, and is a member of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors.

★ ★ ★

He was a member of the Dearborn Township School Board from 1952-58, serving two terms as its president.

Press Lists Area Vote Results

Slates of candidates for local offices in Troy, Rochester, Romeo and Milford were narrowed for spring general elections by the voters in primary elections yesterday.

In yesterday's special election in Farmington Township, voters there rejected pay raises for the top three township officials by a 2,599-928 margin.

Saturn Rocket Is Flawless in 8th Success

Satellite Slated to Check Space Debris With Giant Wings

The space traveler's assignment was to measure and count the impacts with space debris and report back with electronic "squawks."

Word was awaited from tracking stations as to whether the satellite unfolded its giant wings to absorb and relay the blows.

Soon after the launching word came from tracking stations that the satellite had unfolded its broad wings as planned, setting up a target to take and record the blows.

★ ★ ★

CAMERA SET

Space agency officials said a camera mounted on the rocket's second stage provided clear pictures of the deployment.

It was the eighth success in a row for the big booster on which the United States counts for major manned space ventures.

The huge rocket blasted off at 9:37 a.m. EST with the satellite folded in its nose.

★ ★ ★

Eleven minutes later, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported the rocket had done everything expected of it and had drilled into orbit.

An announcement said a shroud covering the payload had been jettisoned.

RADIO REPORT

The radio report on the count, direction and force of the impacts is to help determine the threat these fast-moving bits of

Siamese Twin Girls Due for Surgery Today

The twins, Karen Marie and Kimberly Marie, were born by Caesarean section Dec. 8 to Mr. and Mrs. John Webber Jr. of Bay City.

Boy Dies in House Fire

A house fire early today in Waterford Township resulted in the death of a 4-year-old boy, serious burns to his mother and hospitalization of three sisters.

Dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital from suffocation due to smoke inhalation was Harold Babb of 2068 Denby.

Mrs. H. D. Babb, 30, who was in the house with her five children when the 12:28 a.m. blaze broke out in the basement, suffered second and third degree burns of the face, neck and hands and was in serious condition this morning at Pontiac General.

Daughters, Wynne, 12, Candace, 8, and Carolyn, three weeks, all suffered smoke inhalation and were listed in satisfactory condition at the hospital.

★ ★ ★

Another child, Loren, 2, who was sleeping in the same room as Harold, apparently was awakened by the smell of smoke. He walked from the house to safety.

The house was a total loss.

Waterford Fire Chief Lewis Goff said that H. D. Babb drove up to the house just before firemen arrived on the scene.

Babb, who had been in Flint having his car repaired at his father's garage, attempted to enter the burning building but was driven back by the flames, Goff said.

The two older girls who occupied a rear bedroom in the quad-level home had already jumped 12 feet to the ground on the instructions of their mother who was awakened by the smell of smoke.

Mrs. Babb then dropped the baby to the girls from the front window and jumped out herself.

The fire victims all were taken to the house of next-door neighbor Harry Willhoff, of 2070 Denby, where they awaited the arrival of ambulances.

Mrs. Wellhoff said that shortly after she went to bed she was awakened by screams from the Babb house.

She said she woke her hus-

More Testimony Is Due in State Guard Hearings

LANSING (AP) — Overruling renewed requests to dismiss charges against two Michigan National Guard generals, Gov. George Romney scheduled seven hours today to start looking into the complicated details of their cases.

As soon as Romney opened his hearing for Maj. Gen. Ronald McDonald and Brig. Gen. Carson Neifert yesterday, defense attorneys renewed a request for dismissal of charges.

Assistant Atty. Gen. Russell Searl said he will call about 20 witnesses in an attempt to prove McDonald and Neifert were guilty of "gross neglect of duty, misfeasance and malfeasance" in office.

Only three witnesses took the stand yesterday. Nealy half the time went in discussion between Romney and the defense over hours and location of the hearing, arguments for dismissal of charges and numerous defense objections.

REQUESTS MATERIAL

Romney told McDonald's attorney, Thomas McAllister, "I would be pleased to receive any additional material you care to file on your motion to dismiss. It will receive consideration."

McAllister, who first asked for dismissal Jan. 28, contends Romney has determined McDonald is guilty.

In his new brief yesterday, he

War Crimes Chief Admits: I Was a Nazi

STUTTGART, Germany (UPI) — Erwin Schuele, West Germany's chief hunter of Nazi war criminals, admitted today he was a Nazi himself.

Schuele told a news conference he joined the party in 1937 to escape persecution for his anti-Nazi beliefs.

Communist East Germany has charged that Schuele, director of West Germany's Center for the Prosecution of Nazi Crimes, has been protecting war criminals.

Schuele told newsmen his postwar record at the center shows "how absurd" are the Communist charges. His center provided much of the evidence for the prosecution of hundreds of former Nazis including those accused of running the Auschwitz death camp.

Schuele said his Nazi party membership was so loose he was not even sure he had been a full member until last week when he checked at Berlin with U.S. Army authorities holding captured Nazi records.

DRAFTED IN SA

The 51-year-old Nazi hunter said he was drafted into the SA (the party's Strongarm Legion) upon graduation from high school in 1933. He said he was studying law at Tuebingen University in 1937 when he ran into trouble because of his anti-Nazi attitude.

He said he then filed papers asking for party membership. Schuele said he never received a party card or took part in Nazi activities.

New Pump Project to Hike Lake Levels

An 18-month, $110,000 project designed to bring Lower and Middle Straits lakes back up to their normal levels was completed yesterday with the flick of a switch.

Consisting mainly of a large centrifugal pump and some 3,500 feet of 18-inch pipe, the project was built by the Sterling Construction Co. of Utica under the supervision of Daniel W. Barry, Oakland County drain commissioner.

Some 4,500 gallons of water per minute will be lifted from the Huron River and forced into Lower Straits Lake by the pump, which is located on the river bank just off Tamworth near Commerce Road in Commerce Township.

As Lower Straits Lake fills up, it will overflow into Middle Straits. Drain engineers estimate it will take about 90 days for the pump to fill both lakes, operating 24 hours a day.

LAKE LEVELS

Middle Straits is presently 2.86 feet below legal level and Lower Straits is down 4.4 feet, according to Evans.

★ ★ ★

Recreational value of property around the two lakes should be restored by spring.

Similar lake level control projects are under way on several other lakes in Oakland County. All are engineered and supervised by Barry and his staff of engineers.

INSPECT NEW PUMP — A new pump on the banks of the Huron River was given a last-minute check yesterday before it was turned on by Robert Evans (center), Oakland County deputy drain commissioner. Located near Tamworth and Commerce Road, the pump will force 4,500 gallons of water per minute more than a half-mile into Lower and Middle Straits lakes. Shown with Evans are Fred Marshall, lake level maintenance man (left), and Jack Portman, lake level project engineer.

Reject Income Tax in Grand Rapids

A city income tax proposal, identical to the one which Pontiac residents will vote on March 18, was defeated in Grand Rapids yesterday by a 4 to 1 margin.

The tax plan was turned down by a vote of 36,349 to 9,658.

A companion proposal to reduce the city charter limitation on allowable property taxes from 10 mills to seven if the income tax passed was also defeated, 23,426 to 18,305.

The two proposals reflected more than two years of work and discussion on finding a method to raise more money for the city's general fund.

New Premier and Cabinet Take Reins in S. Viet Nam

The new Cabinet was forged barely in time for the previously scheduled swearing-in ceremony. At the last minute, Dr. Bui Tin Huan decided against becoming finance minister and the post was given to Tran Van Kien.

LAY SPOKESMAN

Since then, Thuan has served as a lay spokesman for the Buddhists who have played a major part in destroying other Saigon governments.

Khanh, who set up the new government, did not attend the inaugural. The government presented itself to the figurehead chief of state, Phan Khac Suu, who himself holds office by Khanh's appointment.

The general is expected to soon announce formation of a 20-man council of civilians and military officers to act as a legislative advisory body.

Selection of Quat, 55, a former foreign minister, had been delayed when the military balked at plans to appoint Tran Van Tuyen as interior minister. Tuyen is originally from North Viet Nam and it was argued he would have difficulty in the post because of having to deal with the touchy religious groups of South Viet Nam.

DEPUTY PREMIER

Tuyen was named a deputy premier and vice minister for planning, and Nguyen Hoa Hiep, a southerner, was named interior minister.

The ambush left 32 government men dead; 8 wounded and 10 missing. About 100 men, a regional forces company, were on the trucks.

Two of three armored troop carriers escorting the convoy were knocked out by recoilless rifle fire.

1 CONG WOUNDED

One Viet Cong was wounded and captured. Other Communist losses were not known.

In central Viet Nam, where soldiers killed 15 civilians Monday in putting down two anti-government demonstrations, a firing squad execution was scheduled for one of the demonstrators.

Brig. Gen. Nguyen Chanh Thi said two of the dead were known Viet Cong agitators, and the prisoner scheduled for execution Wednesday was a Viet Cong section leader.

U.S. Sees Step-Up in Cong War

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. authorities said today they expect the government of South Viet Nam to step up its campaign against Viet Cong Communist forces, particularly in the Mekong River delta region south of Saigon.

Informants described the intensified campaign as an outgrowth of the talks presidential adviser McGeorge Bundy held in Saigon with U.S. and South Vietnamese officials just before the two nations launched reprisal raids against North Viet Nam last week.

The sources said the reprisal raids were no substitute for the important effort of winning the war in the south.

U.S. officials have followed closely reports from Saigon on the formation of a new civilian government headed by Dr. Phan Huy Quat, former foreign minister.

ALL ELEMENTS

The new government is expected to represent all political elements in the country dedicated to defeating the Viet Cong and seems likely to have full U.S. backing.

Meanwhile, efforts are continuing to gain additional international support for the U.S.-Vietnamese effort. Some 2,000 South Korean combat engineers are headed for South Viet Nam to supplement the Korean medical unit and a team of karate experts already there.

* * *

U.S. authorities regard the Korean contingent as a significant experiment. It will bring the number of foreign personnel, not including those from the United States, to more than 3,000. An international liaison headquarters is being set up in Saigon to coordinate the international effort.

In addition there may be some small increases in the technical and economic support provided by Nationalist China to South Viet Nam.

To Draft Law on Weapons

Waterford Is Seeking Ordinance on Minors

Waterford Township Board members last night instructed the township attorney and police department to collaborate in drafting a proposed ordinance regulating the use of certain weapons by minors.

* * *

Adoption of such an ordinance was requested by the police department to help control the growing amount of property destruction.

Weapons suggested by police for inclusion in the ordinance are air rifles, air pistols, bows and arrows and sling shots.

Presently the township has a firearms ordinance but it does not include weapons such as air rifles and sling shots which are used in most instances of property destruction by minors.

* * *

PROHIBIT MINORS

According to the ordinance, violators would lose their weapons and their parents or legal guardians would be subject to a fine if they knowingly allowed the minors to possess a weapon.

Trustee Rudy Mansfield objected to the township adopting the same ordinance Pontiac has because he said it would jeopardize the right of the many youngsters who use weapons properly to stop a few offenders.

* * *

Trustee Loren Anderson also objected. He said that under the Pontiac ordinance a youngster on his way to an archery lesson sponsored by the Waterford Recreation Department could be apprehended.

* * *

In referring the task of drafting an ordinance, the board suggested that the attorney and police consider amending the present firearms ordinance to include the other weapons.

Firm to Offer Plan on City Bus Service

A proposal to continue bus service in the city for a year beginning April 1 is scheduled to be presented to the City Commission tonight.

* * *

The proposal is contained in a letter to Joseph A. Warren, city manager, from American Transit Corp.

Essentially, the proposal calls for a continuation of the present lease agreement between the city and American Transit, parent firm of Pontiac Transit Corp.

The city and bus firm currently are operating under a 90-day extension of an old contract that provides for a city subsidy on bus company losses up to $1,700 per month.

* * *

In related business tonight, a report on bus company operations during the month of January is slated to be given to the commission.

Also tonight, a motion is to be presented to have the city join with Bloomfield Township in petitioning the county drain commissioner to construct a storm sewer in the area of Square Lake Road and the Grand Trunk Railroad.

In addition, a public hearing is to be held on construction of sewers for an area in the southwest portion of the city.

Guard Hearing Will Continue

asked for a separate hearing for McDonald. This request was echoed by Neifert's attorney, Russell Noble. He also contended the matter is under jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals.

* * *

McAllister failed last Thursday in an attempt to have the court prevent Romney from opening the hearings. Although the court denied an immediate injunction, he contended it still has jurisdiction in the case.

COURT MARTIAL

McAllister said again any charges against the generals should be heard at a court martial.

"I'm gravely concerned about the whole structure of the National Guard in this state," Romney replied. "I'm hopeful these hearings will develop information for a proper organizational structure of the National Guard."

After the state's opening statement, Noble moved to dismiss the charges because, he said, the state had not shown any violations of law.

* * *

McAllister said all of the generals' actions mentioned in the charges had been approved by the State Military Board.

City Tax Review Board to Begin Sessions March 2

Pontiac's Board of Tax Review will meet March 2 at 9 a.m., it was announced today by City Assessor Edward C. Bloe.

* * *

The board sets the city's total assessed valuation annually. It will begin hearing appeals on local assessed valuations at the March meeting.

* * *

Scheduled to be heard during the first week are hardship cases. During the week beginning March 8, personal and real estate cases will be heard.

* * *

Bloe said that the vote on the city income tax, slated for March 18, would not affect board of review actions.

Road Report Shows '64 Costliest Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — Accidents killed a record 104,000 Americans last year and cost the nation's economy more than $15 billion.

The Public Health Service also reported Monday night that accidents hospitalized about 2 million persons.

* * *

Dr. Paul V. Joliet, chief of the Division of Accident Prevention, said the number of accidental deaths was up 3,000 over 1963. Auto accidents claimed 48,000 lives last year, up 5,000.

ESTIMATED $33,000 LOSS

Chief Goff said that the $25,000 brick and frame house was entirely gutted and was a total loss.

He estimated an additional $8,000 damage to contents of the building.

Goff said that the fire started in the furnace room but that it has not been determined yet whether the furnace caused the blaze.

* * *

Babb said that he thinks the fire damage to the building and contents is covered fully by insurance, according to Goff.

Mrs. Wellhoff and some of the other neighbors are arranging to take care of the family's clothing needs since all their belongings were destroyed in the fire.

Birmingham Area News

Election Campaigns Launched

Candidates for office in Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills officially got their campaigns under way yesterday by filing nominating petitions.

There will be competition for City Commission seats in both April 5 elections and a race for justice of the peace in Bloomfield Hills.

Renfrew was appointed to the commission in September 1951 and elected to the post the following April.

* * *

He had served as mayor in 1954-55 and was picked again by his fellow commissioners last year.

CANDIDATES

Candidates for the two available three-year terms on the commission are incumbent Carl F. Ingraham; Brent K. Hogshead, 1519 Henrietta; Ruth B. McNamee, 1271 Lakeside; and William B. Saunders, 685 Pierce.

* * *

TWO CHALLENGERS

In Bloomfield Hills, two men joined the three incumbents who filed for two year terms on the commission.

The April ballot will list as prospective commissioners incumbent Mayor Louis J. Colombo Jr.; incumbent David W. Lee; incumbent John W. Blanchard; Manton M. Cummins, 753 Sebago; and E. R. Davies, 1670 Hammond.

Two attorneys are running to succeed Justice of the Peace Alva J. Richardson, who retired last year.

* * *

Filing petitions for the four-year post were Benjamin T. Hoffiz Jr. of 718 Parkman, a Detroit attorney, and Jack B. Baldwin of 1750 Hillwood, an assistant prosecuting attorney for Oakland County.

* * *

Incumbent Homer J. Murphy is the single candidate for the one-year constable term.

BIRMINGHAM — Voters in the April 5 election will be asked to authorize the sale of a small, undeveloped city park.

The triangular parcel is located at Worth and Webster on the city's southeast side. It is known as Worth Park.

Surrounded by commercial developments and parking lots, the use of the property has been discussed a number of times by the city commission since last summer.

Last night, commissioners voted 4-2 in securing public expression by placing the sale proposal on the ballot.

* * *

Several persons have expressed an interest in either purchasing the property or leasing it.

The Chamberlain Real Estate Co. would like to purchase the property and transform it into a parking area for employes and customers. The company has indicated that it would be willing to pay in excess of $15,000 for the land.

However, if the property is sold, it would be done under the city's so - called Probate Court method.

This involves establishing a minimum appraisal and a minimum price, advertising the sale and holding all offers which may be received for two weeks and then readvertising. This readvertising continues until the highest bid is received.

* * *

In another action concerning the April 5 ballot, the commission gave approval to the placing of explanatory captions under each of the two proposals on initiative and referendum.

CAPTION WORDING

The captions will read "Amendment proposed by City Commission," and "Amendment proposed by Electors' Petition."

* * *

The commission decided not to go into detail since neither explanation as suggested by the city attorney contained all the information pertinent to describing the propositions.

* * *

The commission proposal provides for initiative and referendum only on ordinances, and places restrictions on initiative and referendum rights on certain types of legislation including zoning and fiscal matters.

The other initiative and referendum proposal has no restrictions.

May Ask FBI Aid in Search for Elusive Dearborn Chief

DETROIT (AP) — The FBI today entered the search for Orville Hubbard, mayor of suburban Dearborn, as the fruitless quest entered its fifth day.

DETROIT (AP)—The search for Orville Hubbard went into its sixth day today with federal officials saying the FBI may be called in to help find the elusive mayor of suburban Dearborn.

A caller identifying himself as Hubbard telephoned local news media Sunday saying he would be in his office Monday, but Hubbard failed to show up as U. S. Marshalls sought to arrest him for a violation of a federal civil rights statute.

The search began Friday when Hubbard failed to appear in U. S. District Court to answer charges of denying police protection to a homeowner in the mostly white suburb. A mob gathered at the home on Labor Day, 1963, apparently acting under the mistaken assumption that the home was being sold to Negroes.

Chief Assistant U. S. Attorney George Merrill said Monday, "we are still looking and we will keep looking until we find him. We may bring the FBI in after a while, but it's not that serious yet. However it is a possibility we may explore."

COUNSEL CALLS

Merrill said Ralph B. Guy, Dearborn corporation counsel, called him Monday morning on behalf of Hubbard. Guy indicated Hubbard would like to appear for arraignment Wednesday, but, Merrill added, "could provide no good reason" for the mayor not appearing Monday.

"I told him," Merrill said, "to have Hubbard in court today or Hubbard would be arrested on sight."

A barrage of reports in Detroit Sunday night indicated Hubbard was back in town. Several radio stations and one Detroit newspaper were telephoned by a man claiming to be Hubbard. The caller said he had been in Boston since last Thursday and had no knowledge of the search for him.

* * *

He said he would be in his office Monday morning for business as usual.

DIDN'T ARRIVE

In his telephone call to Merrill, Guy said the mayor was tired from his trip and was sleeping in. Exactly where the mayor was sleeping in was not determined.

More Judges Recommended

Ask for 13 More at State Circuit Posts

The State Supreme Court yesterday recommended to the legislature that 13 new Circuit Court judges be added to the Michigan judicial system, including one for Oakland County and seven for Wayne County.

Chief Justice Thomas Kavanagh said the additions would cut down the lengthy time citizens must wait to have certain types of cases heard—a backlog that ranges to 37 months in Wayne County.

Wayne County currently has 20 circuit judges while there are seven in Oakland County.

The recommendation proposes two new judges for Macomb County, bringing the total to six, and one more each for Genesee and Ingham counties, giving them five and four circuit judges, respectively.

In addition the Supreme Court recommends the realignment of the 21st and 34th circuits Eastern Michigan.

SEPARATE COUNTY

It would also mean the transfer of Gladwin County from the 34th to 21st district, joining Clare and Isabella counties. This would leave Otsego, Crawford, Roscommon, Ogemaw and Arena counties in the 34th.

Kavanagh said the additions of the 13 judges would cost the state $195,000. The state pays $15,000 with the circuit adding varying amounts, which is $11,000 in Oakland County.

He said the court believes that any court delay of more than 12 months "is denying citizens of a proper court system."

CASES DELAYED

Negligence jury trial cases are delayed, he said, up to 23 months in Ingham county and 17 months in Oakland and Genesee.

Addition of the 13 would meet the backlog problem for the next three to four years, said Kavanagh.

He recommended that the legislature adopt an automatic judge addition law which would expand the bench as population increases.

'Space Bird' Attains Orbit

The giant two-stage Saturn 1, believed to be the most powerful rocket in the world, blazed away from Cape Kennedy at 9:37 a.m. EST on the 1.5 million pounds of thrust generated by its first stage powerplant, a cluster of eight engines.

Folded in the nose of the rocket was its unique payload, officially named Pegasus after the flying horse of Greek mythology.

Once in orbit, the nose shroud was to fall away and Pegasus was to extend two wing - like panels to a span of 96 feet.

Each wing is 14 feet wide and about an inch thick. The burned-out second stage was to remain attached, giving the craft the appearance of a huge bird swooping through space.

U.S. Reaches Higher Levels in Production

WASHINGTON (AP) — Increases in output of machinery and some household goods nudged the nation's industrial production level another notch higher in January.

The Federal Reserve Board reported Monday that its index of industrial production was 137.7 in January. This means the total output of factories, mines and utilities was 37.7 per cent higher than the 1957-59 average. The reading was 137.0 in December.

The high level of steel output undoubtedly reflects some stockpiling as protection in case of a steel strike in late spring.

LESS CONSTRUCTION

The board noted that construction activity dropped one per cent in january and retail sales declined slightly after zooming up the previous month.

There was little change in industrial commodity prices. Livestock price rises caused some increase in the wholesale food price index.

Thugs Attack, Rob Driver

A Highland Township man was beaten and robbed as he unloaded his delivery truck in Pontiac yesterday.

Johnson said the man with the gun hit him, knocking him down. The pair then took nearly $190 in cash and checks, he said.

The robbery took place at 5:20 p.m. on the south side of 360 Franklin Road. Police are questioning suspects in connection with the holdup.

U.S. Has Evidence China Readies Bomb

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States has evidence that Communist China is now actively preparing for its second nuclear test, official sources said today.

★ ★ ★

They said that while the evidence was not conclusive, it indicated the blast could be detonated within a few days or several weeks.

If so, it would come in the midst of the stepped-up confrontation with Asian Communists over recent U.S. bombings in North Viet Nam. Its effect on that confrontation would be hard to gauge.

Red China detonated her first nuclear explosion last Oct. 16, a test device said to have been short of an actually deliverable A-bomb.

★ ★ ★

Western intelligence had been aware of preparations for that test well in advance. Secretary of State Dean Rusk made this knowledge public Sept. 29 in a move to soften world psychological impact.

'SOME SIGNS'

U.S. sources said they now have received "some signs" that the same kind of preparatory "countdown" noted in September is now under way again. There was always the possibility technical difficulties might long delay a planned test.

The nature of the U.S. evidence was not disclosed. There have been published reports in the past of various manned and unmanned reconnaissance planes over China, and that U.S. observation satellites are capable of monitoring the test site in western China.

U.S. officials gave no support to reports that this time Red China may attempt to set off a thermonuclear explosion — an H-bomb. Some sources indicated strong doubts.

United Press International diplomatic correspondent K. C. Thaler reported from London yesterday that China plans a second nuclear test "very shortly," and said that it might be an H-bomb.

The State Department yesterday neither confirmed nor denied the report but said "appropriate officers of this government are looking into it."

OPEN FOR BUSINESS — Oakland University's Mott Center for Community Affairs, 3820 Walton, near Squirrel Road, opened its doors this morning. Moving over from South Foundation Hall to direct the center's activities are Dean Lowell Eklund, director; Mrs. Priscilla Jackson, assistant director; and Mrs. Dorothy Owens, administrative assistant. The center will explore community problems and help to solve them through OU forums and a community schools program.

5 Members Named to Youth Aid Group

Five new members of the Waterford Youth Assistance Committee were named last night by the Waterford Township Board.

In other business last night the board appointed Roger Rapelge, an insurance adjuster, to a three-year term on the township's library advisory committee.

The board accepted the low bid of $1,945 from Beattie Motor Sales, Inc., for a car for the township supervisor.

Also last night board members authorized the sale of four township-owned lots for which the township has no specific use.

Bids on the lots will be opened March 29.

Cash amounting to 20 per cent of the purchase price must accompany each bid.

In other business the board authorized the rezoning of two parcels recommended for zoning change by the planning commission.

Rezoned were a five-lot parcel near Walton and Clintonville from recreational to residential and an area on Crescent Lake Road behind the township hall from commercial to manufacturing.

The board also authorized the water department to purchase two electric typewriters for $891 and fire extinguisher equipment for the new water department building at a cost of $283.

A request from the police department to lease a copying machine on a monthly basis also was approved.

200 Trapped in Italy on Snowbound Trains

CAMPOBASSO, Italy (AP) — Police snowplows and army helicopters were pressed into service today to carry food, fuel and medicine to 200 persons trapped on snowbound trains for more than 24 hours.

One train was blocked by snow at Bonefro, another at Ripabottoni. Snowdrifts higher than the trains stalled them in a blizzard Monday as they were heading for this central Italian town in the Appennine Mountains east of Naples.

Island Gets Rare Snow

CAPRI, Italy (AP) — This island of sun and romance in the Bay of Naples had snow today — the first in 15 years.

Refinery Blast, Fire Leave 1 Dead, 33 Hurt

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Only scorched shells of two refinery buildings remain today after an explosion and fire. One worker was killed and at least 33 others injured.

Fire Dept. Supt. Arthur J. Heyd estimated damages at more than a million dollars to the American Sugar Co. refinery in Chalmette, some five miles south of New Orleans.

Area Driver Hurt in Crash

A Groveland Township man is in serious condition at Pontiac General Hospital after the car he was driving collided with a truck this morning on the Dixie Highway.

Fairly Active Trading

Market Moves Are Mixed

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market put on a mixed showing early today in moderately active trading.

Du Pont sank nearly 2 points as investors showed disappointment over dividend action and failure to propose a stock split.

MERGER TALK

Penzoil gained another fraction despite denial of a report it may be acquiring Richfield Oil.

* * *

IBM recovered more than 2 points of Monday's loss of 7⅞. U.S. Smelting ran-up more than 2 also.

Aerospace issues, drugs and rubbers were a little higher on balance. Motors were mixed. Chrysler (ex dividend) recovered a fraction of Monday's 2⅛-point decline. General Motors declined slightly.

Opening blocks included: Chrysler (ex dividend), up ⅜ at 54⅞ on 11,000 shares; Texas Gulf Sulphur, off 1¼ at 65¼ on 8,000; and American Telephone, off ¼ at 66¾ on 5,000.

* * *

Monday, the Associated Press Average of 60 stocks fell .8 to 331.9.

Bank Elects 9 Directors

Pontiac State Report Shows Area Growth

At the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Pontiac State Bank last night, nine directors were elected to serve for 1965.

Those elected were Milo J. Cross, Edward E. Barker Jr., James A. Corwin, John C. Cowe, Rodger J. Emmert, Frank A. Mercer, Goodloe H. Rogers, William D. Thomas Jr. and Stuart E. Whitfield.

Milo J. Cross, president, reported that shareholders approved the sale of capital notes in the maximum amount of $1 million, and that the additional capital through the sale of these notes was consistent with the bank's continued growth in the Pontiac area.

Cross also announced the transfer from undivided profits to capital surplus of $300,000.

* * *

This increase brings the bank's capital surplus to $1,400,000, making the combined capital and surplus $2,500,000, and at the same time increases the bank's individual maximum lending authority to $500,000.

CAPITAL FUNDS

Several new year-end records were reported. Deposits exceeded $50 million (up 14.7 per cent). Total resources were almost $55 million (up 15.2 per cent).

Total loans and discounts were $26,627,000. Cross reported this 19 per cent increase was invested in the Pontiac area by way of customer purchases of homes and consumer products, and to finance both new and existing businesses.

* * *

ADD TO FUNDS

This contribution to capital funds was equal to $2.80 per share.

In spite of increased expenses as a result of higher interest rates to savings depositors, Cross said he is optimistic about 1965, both as to improved earnings and continuation of the bank's healthy growth.

Stock Report Is Changed Despite Suit

NEW YORK (AP) — Despite a court suit, the National Association of Securities Dealers yesterday started providing newspapers with "wholesale" quotations for national stocks traded over the counter.

A federal judge Friday rejected a request by a group of over-the-counter dealers seeking to block publication of quotations for these stocks under a new system.

* * *

Up to now, quotations provided newspapers have included markups or commissions that customers normally pay. The new system will more accurately reflect prices of the stcoks.

The over-the-counter market is made mainly over the telephone. It is the principal market for bank and insurance stocks.

NEW FORDS, FARM STYLE — Ford Motor Co. is introducing today a line of five new farm tractors which it said cost $100 million to develop. Ford brought out the new line in a bid to increase its share of the $2 billion annual U.S. tractor and equipment market. The new models range from a 3,360-pound, two-plow model (left) to a 6,900-pound, five-plow machine (right).

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "Recently you advised against buying more American Telephone, because of its poor technical action following the split. My problem is that I hold 667 stares of this stock and am wondering if I should sell at least 100 shares and put the proceeds into Commonwealth Edison and Illinois Gas. I also hold 100 Dow Chemical and 100 Jersey Standard. I am retired and interested in security."

J.K.

A) You are fortunate in owning such a good block of Telephone. I have never recommended the sale of this stock except for the purpose of diversification, which seems to apply in your case—since your holdings of the issue are disproportionate.

Before selling, I think you should consult a tax man and determine what your capital gains liability might be in the event that you went through with your plan.

If you do so, the two stocks you have chosen as replacements are excellent choices.

* * *

Q) "I have money to invest for one year only. Would municipal or some other tax-free bonds be suitable for my purpose?

A.S.

A) Since all bonds fluctuate to some extend on changes in money rates, I would consider only tax-exempts maturing in a year, when you will apparently require your money for other purposes. Short-term municipals offer a relatively low yield and are bought mainly by corporations which are subject to a 48-per-cent income tax. For example, you could obtain a 2.20 per yield on New York City notes due February 1, 1966 and if you are in the 50 per cent bracket, your taxable equivalent yield would be 4.40 per cent. If you are in a lower bracket, I believe your funds belong in the savings bank.

Ford Unveils New Tractors

Company Introduces Five Machines Today

BIRMINGHAM (AP) — In a bid to increase its share of the $2 billion annual U.S. tractor and equipment market, Ford Motor Co. today revealed a line of five new tractors which it said cost $100 million to develop.

The new farm tractors range in size from a 3,360-pound, two-plow model to a 6,900-pound, five-plow machine equipped with a 242-cubic inch diesel engine.

Ford's Tractor and Implement Division spent more than one million man hours over three years in developing the new line, said Emery Dearborn, general operations manager.

The $100 million investment, he said, included design, testing and new tooling at the company's Highland Park plant and two new plants in Europe.

* * *

Ford says it sold about 19 per cent. The nationwide total was up from 186,200 the previous year.

RETAIL SALES

Ford said its retail tractor sales in 1964 were up 7.9 per cent from the previous year.

"We expect to exceed this level of sales activity with the introduction of our completely new tractor line in this country beginning next month," Dearborn said.

Factors which should help Ford sales, he said, are a high level of farm cash receipts from farm crop and livestock marketings and government payments, new and improved models of all kinds of farm machinery and the desire of farmers to reduce production costs by investing in more productive equipment.

For Price Quoting

New Market Method

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK—Traders on the biggest stock market of them all—the over-the-counter market—are adjusting today to a new method of quoting prices.

For 1,300 issues bought and sold nationally but unlisted on any stock exchange, wholesale prices will be quoted instead of retail. For more than 35,000 other issues, traded only regionally or locally, the old rules still apply.

DAWSON

But there's a dispute still far from settled as to who will be the gainers and who the losers from the change to wholesale quotations for the 1,300 issues.

The Securities and Exchange Commission says the new method will give investors a true picture of prices, the insiders' quotations or wholesale prices, rather than the retail prices previously quoted. These were the insiders' or dealers' prices plus an unpublicized commission or markup.

CLEARER PICTURE

* * *

But a sizable segment of the 4,100 over-the-counter dealers who belong to the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. — NASD — says that what is really going to happen is this: Small dealers will be forced out of business when investors shop around for the smallest commission, and only the big stock and bond houses will survive because a big volume of business will let them charge the smallest commissions.

* * *

The new method of quotation of over-the-counter stocks is just one of the SEC proposals made a year ago. Already it has secured law revisions requiring the bigger companies whose stocks are traded over the counter to make public disclosures of their financial status, comparable to those required of companies whose stocks are listed on exchanges.

RISKLESS TRANSACTIONS

The SEC still has in abeyance a proposal that would end riskless transactions. This is the name given to deals where the stock broker instead of executing a customer's order as an agent, goes into the market and buys the stock himself and then resells it to the customer at a markup, usually well above the normal commission.

SEC proposals also include a demand for full disclosure. This would make a dealer tell his customer what he had paid for any particular stock and the amount of the markup.

* * *

The SEC began its study of the huge over-the-counter market after the big speculative buying there in 1961 which sent many unlisted stocks soaring — only to tumble in the spring of 1962.

In 1961 around 2.5 billion shares changed hands in the over-the-counter market for a total of about $39 billion. The market cooled down after the 1962 crash. But of late it has regained much of its old activity.

LOST STAR PERFORMERS

It has lost a number of its star performers, however. The SEC proposals, especially the law requiring fuller disclosure of company business, caused a number of big firms to seek listing on the nation's stock exchanges.

House Democrats Discussing Candidates for New Auditor Post

LANSING (AP)—House Democrats discuss candidates for legislative auditor today—while Senate Republicans try to get their say as to who fills the new position.

The House Democratic caucus was to discuss the qualifications of five candidates for the eight-year post with a $25,000 annual salary.

"But it's unlikely that we'll take a vote," said Majority Floor Leader J. Robert Traxler, D-Bay City, "since many of the members will be in Detroit for the insurance hearing."

State Insurance Commisioner Allen Mayerson has called a two-day hearing on spiraling automobile insurance costs and cancellations. A number of legislators asked to be excused from today's session in order to attend the hearing.

FRONT-RUNNERS

The contest for the post has developed into a bigger tussle than some legislative leaders feel it is worth.

State AFL-CIO President August Scholle is known to favor Austin, and State Democratic Chairman Zolton Ferency has backed him as "my personal choice." Austin also has been backed by U.S. Rep. John Conyers, who defeated him in a congressional primary last year.

Lee, on the other hand, has the backing of the Wayne and Macomb County AFL-CIO councils.

'BEEN IGNORED'

Since the Democrats dominate both houses, the job of picking the auditor — who takes over most of the functions of the auditor general—falls to them.

Minority Floor Leader Sen. Emil Lockwood, R-St. Louis, said Republicans "have initiated several attempts to get the majority party to set up a bipartisan committee to conduct these interviews (of prospective candidates)"

★ ★ ★

NASCAR INTERNATIONAL

Tests for acceleration...Tests for economy...Tests for braking

The 1965 Pure Oil Performance Trials were mean because they were thorough.

And there were no loopholes. None for the cars; none for the drivers. The National Association for Stock Car Research saw to that. (NASCAR sanctions and supervises The Pure Oil Performance Trials.) Every entry was taken apart and inspected by NASCAR, to make sure it conformed to the Automobile Manufacturers Association specifications. The running of The Trials was done in accordance with a set of rules designed to eliminate driver skill as a factor in the results.

Then stop at any of the Class Winners' showrooms. They'll be glad to tell you who they beat.
