ALUMNI NEWS

Vol. II, No. 3 May 1965

WHERE THE ALUMNI ARE IN
BUSINESS, INDUSTRY, SOCIAL WORK, GOVERNMENT SERVICE

As a sequel to last month's report on the whereabouts of the Oakland graduates who have entered the teaching profession, this is a report on the 136 who have taken positions with business, industry, government and social agencies. A future issue will list the names and institutions of alumni who are now graduate students.

Those who have entered industry and government service are geographically more widespread than were the teachers. Seven are out of the United States, 33 are in other states and 96 remain in Michigan. Listed according to their major field at Oakland, these graduates are distributed as follows:

In Memoriam

Betty Ann Oniga '63 died April 18 after a 10-week illness. She was a teacher in the Marshall School, Warren and a member of the Charter Class.

Varner to Keynote American Alumni Council National Convention

Chancellor D.B.Varner will give the keynote address at the national convention of the American Alumni Council, an association of colleges and universities throughout the country, at Atlantic City next month.

His title will be "The Elephant In The Tent;" his subject matter--the need for the continuing education of alumni.

University Graduates 211 in April

Two hundred and eleven students were awarded degrees at Oakland's third commencement Saturday, April 24.

At the ceremony Christine R. Kifer and Anthony Cornellier became the first recipients of the Alfred G. Wilson and Matilda R. Wilson Awards for "having made outstanding contributions to the life of the University through scholarship, student leadership and the expression of responsibility in the solution of social problems."

Highest University scholastic honors went to Richard W. England, summa cum laude; Mark H. Wirth, Frederick W. Clegg, Nancy J. Hough, Mary R. Vander Ven, Wade F. Wilkison, Bruce N. Parkinson and Kenneth R. Renner, magna cum laude. Cum laude graduates included David G. Johnstone, Christine E. Kales, Diana K. Haines, and Alberta M. Peoples.

New graduates will receive the Alumni News and other publications regularly, beginning with this issue.

Honorary degrees were awarded to Meyer Schapiro, Columbia University professor of art; Roy Wilkins, executive director of the NAACP, and John V. Lindsay, Republican Congressman of New York who gave the commencement address.

ALUMNI COUNCIL ELECTS OFFICERS

The Alumni Council held its annual business meeting on April 26 and elected as officers:

Mary Schultz '63, Chairman
Phillip G. Williams '64,
Vice-chairman and treasurer
Penny Batts '64, Secretary

Jim Morrison '63, outgoing chairman, welcomed newly appointed members: Ilse Werzer '64, Ed Windeler '64, Dennis Parle '64, and Bob Linsenman '64. They replace retiring members Gloria Brischke '63, Jim Drummond '63, Howard Hinkel '64, and Bob Johnson '63.
