37 Lose Lives in Jamaican Airliner Explosion

Spanish Envoy Blasts Fidel

EXPLODES AT CASTRO — Spanish ambassador to Cuba, Juan Pablo de Lojendio, rushes into a television studio where Fidel Castro was broadcasting on a nationwide program, to accuse Castro of slandering him in his address. The envoy was hustled out of the studio and then ordered to leave Cuba in 24 hours. Castro also recalled his ambassador to the Franco regime.

Must Return to Spain

Cuba Boots Ambassador

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro today gave the Spanish ambassador 24 hours to get out of Cuba after a fiery speech tonight over television before a nationwide television audience that threatened to develop into a riot.

Fuming with rage, the bearded Prime Minister announced he was immediately recalling his own ambassador to Madrid, Jose Miro Cordona. He said it was uncertain whether a complete diplomatic break with Generalissimo Francisco Franco's government would follow.

Police and soldiers grabbed the Spanish Ambassador, Juan Pablo de Lojendio, Marquis of Vellhen, and hustled him out of the TV studio after he had rushed in through a side door and accused the Prime Minister of slandering him in the broadcast.

Castro had said the embassy was "in contact with war criminals and has ties with them." He accused the U.S. Embassy of similar activity against his regime.

The bearded Prime Minister, towered over the clean - shaven, aristocratic diplomat as he refused the ambassador's demands to be heard and shouted angrily: "You are not in Spain now. You are in Cuba."

After the ambassador was whisked away to safety from the menacing crowd, Castro brought cheers from the studio audience with the assertion:

"I will give the Spanish ambassador 24 hours to get out of Cuba."

President Osvaldo Dorticos, who was in the audience, jumped to the microphone and shouted:

"There is no other course. This outside the TV studio shouting "out with the Spanish ambassador."

Joe Louis, former world heavyweight boxing champion, was in the audience during the fracas. Louis, who is among a group of Americans invited to Havana by the Castro government to help promote the lagging tourist industry, was called to the microphone and said:

"I congratulate the Prime Minister and the rebels for the protection they gave to the Spanish ambassador."

While Castro was speaking, a crowd of about 1,000 gathered

PPOA Wants Straley AND Eastman to Quit

Bombshell Proposal Is Made on 24-6 Vote at Heated Session

By MAX E. SIMON

In a surprise move, the Pontiac Police Officers Assn. (PPOA) last night called for the resignation of both Public Safety Director George D. Eastman and Police Chief Herbert W. Straley.

The vote was 24-6.

Det. Robert A. Emery, PPOA president, said the proposal came "like a bombshell."

It was made by Sgt. Herbert C. Cooley, a former PPOA president and long-time foe of the police chief.

The motion passed after an hour and a half of heated debate.

Emery said the organization's officers will direct a letter to City Manager Walter K. Willman and the city commissioners asking them to seek the resignations of both men.

Emery said such action would be an "amicable solution" to the long years of strife within the city's police department.

"Although we feel Eastman has been of great benefit to the department and the city, we feel we can't sacrifice the well-being of 130 officers and the citizens of Pontiac because we personally like him," Emery said.

"We can't let personalities enter into this."

HAD EASTMAN'S SANCTION

Eastman today said "the motion had my sanction in advance."

Emery said that since Eastman's arrival in Pontiac the public safety director had accomplished "many things the citizens didn't realize—such as cutting the accident and death rates. Although crime has increased, the crime clearance rate is also up," he said.

He charged that Eastman had received "unfair publicity" for his actions.

"He's never been credited with what he's accomplished," Emery asserted.

"We feel that we're doing what is best for the city," Emery said.

The PPOA has been considered a strong supporter of Eastman.

Only 9 Escape Flames; Capehart Kin a Victim

KINGSTON, Jamaica (AP)—A Colombian airliner bound from New York to Colombia buckled its landing gear and exploded in setting down at the Montego Bay airport early today, killing 37 of the 46 persons aboard.

Seventeen of the dead were Americans, among them a son and daughter-in-law of Sen. Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind.) They were Thomas C. Capehart and his wife, Nancy, both 36, of Indianapolis, on a business trip to Bogota, Colombia.

Two Dutch and two Australian passengers and five members of the seven - member Colombian crew lived through the crash and the resultant fire that ravaged the (two-million-dollar Super Constellation for two hours.

The plane, operated by the Aviaca Colombian National Airline, had made an unscheduled stop at Miami for repairs to a faltering engine.

It was 10 hours overdue when it reached Montego Bay, a popular Caribbean resort on Jamaica's north coast 550 miles south of Miami, about 2:35 a.m.

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION

The weather was good as it headed in for a landing. But witnesses said the left landing gear had collapsed as the plane hit the runway, and there was a terrific explosion, followed by two other blasts. The blazing plane skidded to a point about 200 yards from the old airport building.

The plane captain, J. Duque, was among the survivors. None of those who got out appeared to be seriously injured.

This was the fourth fatal crash of a commercial airliner in 1960 and raised the airliner death toll for the first three weeks of the new year to 163. At least 16 others have died in United States in private plane crashes since Jan. 1.

Some of the passengers aboard the Colombian plane—Aviaca's Flight 671—were booked for vacations or business pursuits in Jamaica, popular with winter hasseekers. Others were heading on to South America.

All 42 persons aboard died when a Scandinavian jet liner crashed on a hill near Ankara, Turkey, on Tuesday.

Last Monday, a Capital Airlines plane crashed in Virginia, killing 50 persons.

Air Crash 'Dead' Man Still Alive

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—A gray-haired, heavily insured ex-convict presumed dead in a mysterious airliner crash has turned up alive here.

Dr. Vernon Spears of Dallas was the focus of investigation into bizarre circumstances surrounding the Nov. 16 crash of a commercial airliner into the Gulf of Mexico.

Federal authorities are investigating the possibility that the crash may have resulted from a bomb.

Spears was seized by two FBI agents Wednesday as he hurriedly checked out of a Phoenix resort motel. He was jailed on a charge of interstate transportation of a stolen car, but the FBI was more interested in his answers to these questions:

What was the 65-year-old naturopath up to when he took out $100,000 in travel insurance? Why was he listed as a passenger on the ill-fated flight?

Did he prevail upon William Allen Taylor of Tampa, Fla., a former prison acquaintance, to take his place on the plane? If so, why and how?

Was there any connection between Spears and Julian Andrew Frank, New York lawyer insured for $500,000 and named as a possible suicide bomber on the airliner which crashed in North Carolina Jan. 6?

If Spears has given any answers, the FBI won't say. News-

400 Students Kept Home

Vandals Idle Holly Buses

Vandals were blamed today for cutting the gasoline lines of 22 school buses in the Holly Area School District keeping more than 400 children home from classes.

Superintendent of the schools Ray W. Barber said he had no idea who had cut the copper gas lines, but believed that it was not the work of teen-age pranksters.

"This was not the work of children," Barber said. "The vandalism was done systematically.

"Each bus had its line cut in the same way, all from underneath the bus."

Damage to old and new buses was discovered this morning at 7 a.m. when drivers would normally warm up the motors before starting their routes.

Holly Police Chief James Parker said 20 of the buses which were disabled by the vandals were parked in a lot in Holly. The other two were parked at the homes of drivers in nearby Davisburg.

Only six buses operated by the Holly area public schools were in running condition this morning.

Parker indicated that a number of persons were involved because it would have been virtually impossible for an individual to sever so many gas lines.

"Except for a few large footprints," Parker said, "we haven't too much to go on.

"And the footprints aren't too clear since a light snow fell on the area during the night."

"I will say though that there was more than one person responsible for severing the lines," he said.

Parker said that he has notified the Sheriff's Department and expects to work on the vandalism with an officer from the department for the next several days.

The buses were expected to be back in operation by tomorrow morning.

Winter, Brisk Style, to Stay Here Awhile

Brisk winter weather will continue in the Pontiac area tonight and tomorrow, the weatherman says.

Cold and scattered snow flurries are forecast. Skies will be cloudy.

The mercury will drop to a low of 16 tonight. Friday's high will be 26.

Morning westerly winds will continue at 10 - 18 m.p.h. tonight through Friday.

The lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 16. The reading at 2 p.m. was 22.

OLATHE, Kan. (UPI)—A crippled Trans World Airliner with 34 persons aboard made a safe emergency landing today at the Olathe Naval Air Station.

PARIS (AP) — The French government announced today a total ban on air flights over a big area of the Sahara — preparatory to the explosion of an atomic bomb — will go into effect tomorrow. The effective hour is 12:45 a. m. EST. The government previously indicated such a ban would be imposed at least 11 hours before any atomic explosion takes place.

U.S. Rocket Carries and Ejects Monkey

WALLOPS ISLAND, Va. (AP)—The United States today launched a "Little Joe" rocket with a female monkey named "Miss Sam" aboard in a rehearsal for lofting a man into space.

Minutes later the monkey was parachuted to the ocean in a small chamber encased in a one-ton capsule. The capsule was a full scale model of the type that will be used in the Mercury Astronaut program.

Miss Sam is reported to be fine after the flight.

It was an apparently successful test of the escape mechanism which it is hoped will save human Astronauts' lives if they run into trouble during launchings.

The capsule reached a maximum altitude of about seven miles above the earth before it dropped toward the ocean.

Demand State Extend Highway

Eight County Residents Present Ultimatum on Plans for Northwestern

A Pontiac attorney, representing some eight county residents who demand Northwestern Highway be extended and converted into an expressway as planned, has served notice on state officials to live up to their word.

In a registered letter to Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams, Harry D. Wise Jr. said, "I hereby request you as attorney general to institute the proper legal proceedings to compel performance of the contract."

If this is not forthcoming promptly, Wise said, a suit might be initiated on behalf of the residents who claim they developed homes and businesses in the area because of the proposed project.

Nearly three years ago in 1957 the state sold $25,000,000 in bonds, money from which was to be used to widen and extend Northwestern across the western corner of the county to M59 (Highland road) and then on to U.S. 23 near Fenton in Livingston County.

Wise contends Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie hasn't lived up to the original contract, and in nearly three years has only purchased about 10 per cent of the land. None of the work is under contract, he added.

Besides Adams, Wise sent letters to Mackie and Sen. John N. Stahlin (R-Belding), chairman of a committee investigating the highway department.

"Demand is hereby made for completion of the toll-free limited access highway," Wise's letter told Mackie.

Mentioned in the letter as three of Wise's clients are Roswell G. Curtin Jr., of 8270 Golfside Dr., Milford; Sherwood Steele, 4300 M59, Highland Township, and A. J. Nagler of 10174 Cedar Island Rd., Milford. Nagler is the announcer for Detroit hockey games.

Sale of Pontiacs Set a Record Pace Last Year

Pontiac retail car sales last year soared to a record 64 per cent increase over 1958 sales, it was announced today.

During the calendar year 1959 Pontiac dealers delivered a total of 336,870 new cars, according to S. E. Knudsen, General Motors vice president and general manager of Pontiac Motor Division.

"This remarkable performance made 1959 the best sales year for Pontiac since 1955," Knudsen said.

"Nationwide registrations for 11 months of 1959 (January through November) reveal Pontiac to be in third place among all car makes and leader of the medium price field."

New car registration figures for December are not complete.

Pontiac finished 1958 in sixth position in the auto industry with the sale of 205,872 new cars.

Knudsen said dealer stocks depleted by the recent strike "situation" are being replenished through "accelerated production" to meet the increasing demand for 1960 Pontiacs.

Russia Begins Pacific Testing

Claims Rocket Falls in 1.24 Miles of Goal After 7,760-Mile Flight

MOSCOW (AP)— The Russians announced today they fired a rocket 7,760 miles into the central Pacific which fell less than 1.24 miles from its calculated target.

The multistage ballistic missile "was the first in the series of planned launchings" for producing rockets to put heavy earth satellites into orbit and for space flights toward other planets of the solar system, Tass news agency said.

The Tass announcement said the point of fall of the rocket "confirmed the high exactitude of the system of rocket control."

It landed at 8:05 p.m. Wednesday Moscow time (1:05 p.m. EST) at a point 12,500 kilometers (7,760 miles) from the takeoff spot—not named in the announcement—and traveled at a speed of 26,000 kilometers (16,150 miles) an hour, the announcement said.

Cooking School Tickets? Sorry, They're All Gone

Pontiac area homemakers are so anxious to learn more about new food ideas that they have exhausted the supply of tickets for the cooking school to be held Jan. 26, 27, 28 and 29 at Pontiac Central High School.

More prizes have been added to the list of household equipment and food already announced. Dishmaster Co. is giving one Dishmaster Imperial Unit for a kitchen sink. Thomas Economy Furniture will give an innerspring mattress each day, two Serta inner springs and two Spring Aire mattresses.

Winners of the two grand prizes, a Hotpoint electric range from Federal Department Store and a Magic Chef gas range from Consumers Power, and other major prizes, must be present Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday to be eligible.

They need not be present Friday.

There will be a limited number of parking spaces available in the Crofoot School playground parking lot, just west of Franklin boulevard, on Huron street.

Ticket holders are urged to be in their seats well in advance of the programs which starts at 2 p.m.

Any seats vacant when the curtain rises will be filled.

'59 State Building at Record

Michigan Said Third in Nation

Industrial Growth Is 76 Pct. Jump Over '58 in New-Job Value

LANSING (UPI)—Michigan led all but two states in industrial building last year, it was revealed today by a survey that surprised even the state's most avid boosters.

Construction Daily, a McGraw-Hill publication, said the dollar value of 1959 industrial building contracts in Michigan was at an all-time high of $193,800,000.

The figure represented a 76 per cent jump in the dollar value of new plant jobs in 1958, the year Michigan's business climate was a major campaign issue.

Only two other states, Texas with $252,400,000 and Ohio with $235,400,000, attracted more industrial building, according to Construction Daily.

The McGraw-Hill report came as leaders of both parties sought ways to accelerate Michigan's industrial development.

"Michigan's economic growth in the next decade will be fantastic," said Rep. Frank D. Williams (D-Detroit), sponsor of the bill.

Republicans weren't so sure.

That economic growth is a major concern in Michigan is reflected by the efforts of more than 20 "industrial ambassadors" who travel the nation to sell Michigan . . . by the intense buildup for the May 15-21 celebration of Michigan Week . . . by the proposal by Sen. John H. Stabl in (R-Belding) Wednesday for a "truth train" to spread Michigan's glories in other states.

When informed of the Construction Daily report, Dr. Paul Herbert, the department's research chief, said he considered it a reflection of confidence by businessmen in Michigan's future.

Herbert said his preliminary survey of 1959 showed 313 "favorable" industrial developments and 93 "unfavorable" developments.

The favorable breakdown showed 17 move-ins, 199 local expansions, 36 in-state expansions, 50 new starts and 11 reopenings.

The unfavorable showed 23 move-outs, 26 closings, 8 contractions of operations and 36 expansions outside of Michigan.

Herbert, who said the northern Lower Peninsula showed the best ratio, emphasized it was difficult to get accurate figures.

Straley and Eastman Asked to Quit Posts

resent 80 per cent of the department's membership. Emery said 73 officers belong.

The PPOA president called the turnout "the largest ever."

He made clear that the PPOA was insisting that Straley be ousted along with Eastman. "We certainly wouldn't want Straley to stay and Eastman to leave," he emphasized.

A special meeting will be held Saturday night to okay the wording of the letter which is expected to reach Willman and the commissioners Monday.

Eastman said the PPOA action "clearly displays a measure of objectivity" about the dispute.

"By a very real agreement between myself and the city manager, I serve only at his pleasure," Eastman said. (He agreed to stay here two years at an annual salary of $12,000).

"Any man in public office who has lost the confidence of his superiors and subordinates should from the standpoint of simple ethics resign," he stated.

"That is what makes Mr. Straley's position so difficult to understand."

"Likewise, even if an official has the confidence of his superiors and subordinates, if he becomes highly controversial his future value is limited from the standpoint of effectiveness and tenure."

Eastman was referring to himself.

"I have suggested that my office be abolished. My remaining service should be pointed to considered and orderly change, the relations of the police and fire departments to the city manager, and the selection of a competent chief of police."

"Eastman said his services would "no longer be needed" after he accomplished these aims.

He explained that he had no written contract with the city because "he considered them inadvisable for people in positions such as mine."

Straley expressed amazement at the PPOA action.

"Honestly?" he said upon being informed of the action.

He was reminded that when Eastman first arrived here he had predicted the PPOA would some day oppose the public safety director.

"If I said it, I won't deny it," the chief said.

"It might be called retribution," he declared. "Just dues come to those who deserve it.

"Anyway the sun is shining a little more brightly today."

It was Eastman who drew up charges which led to Straley being fired by the Pontiac Civil Service Commission last spring. He was reinstated by order of Ionia County Circuit Judge Morris K. Davis of Ionia last month.

Airliner 'Victim' Caught in Phoenix men have not been permitted to talk with him.

Mrs. Spears, crying and shaken by the news that her husband did not die in a plane crash two months ago, sent a telegram to him today just before being put to bed under sedation.

The brief telegram said: "The babies and I are well and thinking of you."

The extent of the FBI's interest is indicated by the $35,000 bond it asked for Spears at his arraignment on the theft charge before U.S. Commissioner Carey B. Wilson. Spears waived preliminary hearing and was held in lieu of bond.

"I doubt if I could make it if you knocked $30,000 off of it," he said when the bond was set.

Investigation into the two crashes — both of National Airlines planes — is continuing by the Civil Aeronautics Board and the Senate Aviation subcommittee in Washington. So far, their probes have not established that a bomb was responsible for either crash.

The crashes claimed 76 lives, 42 in the Gulf and 34 near Bolivia, N. C.

A reporter asked Spears Wednesday if he had bombed the plane. He laughed and replied, "No. I may make a statement tomorrow."

Troy Boy Loses Leg in Scooter Accident

Rushed to William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak, was Peter M. Stevens, of 2870 Big Beaver Rd.

Peter was a passenger on the scooter driven by Jerry B. Laurance, 15, of the same address.

According to Birmingham police the car and motor scooter collided at Adams and Derby roads. Driver of the car was Mrs. George Bauer, of 2566 Dorchester Rd., Birmingham.

Murphy Park Toboggan Run Iced and Ready

It's tobogan time again at Murphy Park in Pontiac.

The slick slide was opened today to the public. Parks & Recreation Department crews — helped by cold weather — have iced the runway and packed down the snow.

There's a 300-foot runway and a long glide afterwards for a good ride.

The slide is open all day. But there're supervisors on duty to watch over children from 3:30 p.m. to dark on weekdays and from 1 p.m. to dark on weekends.

There's a heated comfort station in Murphy Park, located on East boulevard next to the U.S. Naval Reserve Training Center.

Try to Smile—Even the South's Got the Chills

By The Associated Press

A huge mass of cold air enveloped most of the eastern two-thirds of the nation today. No immediate warming appeared likely in most areas east of the Mississippi River.

The chilly air nipped the Deep South. Temperatures dropped below freezing in northern Florida and along most of the Gulf Coast.

It was a frosty 27 degrees at Mobile, Ala., and Pensacola and Cross City, Fla., were cool with readings at 31 degrees. Miami's 47 was below seasonal levels. The 30s cooled most of Texas, excluding southern sections.

The weather bureau said there was a vast mass of Arctic air in Canada and little relief from the cold was indicated immediately.

Pontiac Federal Names Officers

Clare Cummings Is Chosen President at Annual Meeting

Directors and officers for 1960 were named last night at the annual shareholders meeting of the Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Assn.

The two directors re-elected for a three-year term are Judge Clark J. Adams and Mahlon A. Benson Sr.

Also on the board are Conrad N. Church, James Clarkson, Louis H. Cole, Clare Cummings and John Q. Waddell.

Cummings was chosen president; Clarkson, executive vice president and secretary; Benson, vice president; Vern McMaster, vice president and E. W. Johnston, treasurer.

Other posts were filled by William Delke, assistant treasurer and branch manager; Thoralf Uleth, assistant treasurer and branch manager; James M. Rahl, assistant treasurer and branch manager; Ronald Facer, acting branch manager; and C. Bryan Kinney, attorney.

The association announced a 40.26 per cent increase of assets and a net gain of $7,167,889.

An association official said it was the highest level in 25 years of operation.

Reports showed also that 788 mortgages were closed in 1959 with a total dollar volume of $8,723,374. Total assets for the year stood at $24,811,762.

Allege Blood Type Mixup

Sue Osteopathic Hospital

An Oxford couple has asked for $200,000 damages in suits against Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital and four of its attendants.

The suits, filed yesterday in Detroit Federal Court, allege that the woman was permanently injured when given a transfusion of the wrong type blood at the hospital last summer.

Separate suits were filed in behalf of Emil Fischer, 36, of 80 Glaspie St. and his wife, Idellja, 30, by H. Malcolm Kahn, a Pontiac attorney. Fischer is employed by a concern which produces building materials for sales.

The Fischers, who came to Michigan from Germany five years ago, chose to file their suits in federal court because they are not U.S. citizens. They ask $100,000 each.

Named in the suit in addition to the hospital itself are Dr. David G. Jennings, an Oxford osteopath; Charles Monk, a laboratory technician, Dr. Joseph Maxwell, laboratory director; and Jack Leve, laboratory supervisor.

Dr. Jennings, it was alleged, was Mrs. Fisher's physician when she was admitted to the hospital in June of last year for treatment to stop hemorrhages.

It was further alleged that on June 12 Mrs. Fischer was given a transfusion of the wrong type blood. Both Mrs. Fischer's blood type and the type she received at the hospital are common ones, Kahn said.

★ ★ ★

But as a result of the transfusion, the suits contend, Mrs. Fischer has suffered pain, weakness and loss of memory and has required frequent medical treatment.

★ ★ ★

GOP Effort Springs Up in Birmingham

Launch 'Griffin-for-Senator' Drive

The campaign torch was lighted last night to groom Congressman Robert P. Griffin, a former Pontiac resident, for the U. S. Senate.

It was the first official draft movement as Michigan Republicans searched for a candidate to oppose Democratic Sen. Patrick V. McNamara for re-election this year.

At a three-hour meeting in Birmingham, seven young county men decided that Griffin, 36-year-old second-term congressman from Traverse City, was the man.

"We feel that we have an outstanding and well qualified candidate who has done a brilliant job in Congress and is one of the brightest stars on the Republican national horizon," said George W. Kuhn, Berkley mayor and chairman of the new draft "Griffin-for-Senator" movement.

HE'S UNDECIDED

Kuhn and six others are going ahead as Griffin ponders whether to seek the nomination. He has said he will decide by early next month.

Being prepared today were applications which Kuhn's group will mail out to county chairmen, members of the Republican State Central Committee and Young Republican clubs in hopes of spreading the grass roots movement.

"Griffin is a clean cut, clear thinking and most able legislator who can inspire a fresh new approach in the United States Senate as one of the representatives of Michigan," the chairman said.

A member of the group feels that by beginning now, support for Griffin will mount so that he will get the nod over another potential candidate, Rep. Alvin M. Bentley (R-Owosso).

Bentley and Griffin have a gentlemen's agreement that one or the other will pull out of the race if the other seems to be the better candidate, observers say.

"We want to see what kind of public support Griffin is able to develop," declared Joseph P. Bianco Jr., former chairman of the Oakland Young Republicans and a member of the draft team.

WILL ANSWER QUESTION

"If he is able to get this support, we think there won't be any question as to who the candidate will be," Bianco said.

Other members of the group are Duane Gale, an engineer from Madison Heights; John Titus, an insurance salesman from Berkley; Ralph S. Moore, a Berkley attorney; Bristol Hunter, Clawson justice of the peace; and Ronald Dodd, former executive director of the Republican Committee of Oakland County.

To most, Griffin, whose parents live in Pontiac, was just another congressman before he co-authored the controversial labor reform bill last year.

"He is now recognized nationally for his outstanding work on the Landrum-Griffin bill which recognized and assured the basic rights of all union members," Kuhn declared.

"The opportunity to elect this young man has never been greater," he added.

'CAN BEAT McNAMARA'

Bianco was asked if Griffin could beat incumbent McNamara.

"We think he can," he answered unequivocally.

"We definitely think he can. He is the type of young man who can carry the campaign right to the people and win, which we don't think McNamara can do."

The Day in Birmingham

Arthur Lake, 31, Named 'Man of the Year' Here

BIRMINGHAM — Co-owner of Lake Jewelry Store, Arthur Lake, 31, has been named "Man of the Year" here by the Birmingham Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Lake was honored for his work on the board of directors of Michigan Retail Jewelers, the management committee of the YMCA and the Cub Scouts and as Sunday School teacher and volunteer fireman.

The new "Man of the Year," his wife, Beth, and their four children live at 345 Tilbury Rd.

American Motors Corp. President George Romney will present a series of four lectures on "What Mormons Believe" at the Detroit Stake Center of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latterday Saints in Bloomfield Hills.

The series, open to the public, will begin this Sunday at 3 p.m. and continue on following Sundays. Romney is president of his church's Detroit Stake.

Each hour-long lecture will treat a different subject and will be followed by Romney answering questions from the audience.

The new stake center is at 425 Woodward Ave.

"The Moving of Mariners Church in Detroit" is the subject to be treated by Carleton B. Johnson when the Birmingham Senior Men's Club meets tomorrow at 10 a.m.

After lunch, Harry E. Fromm will lead the discussion group. Bridge and various games will follow.

The Bloomfield Republican Women's Club of Bloomfield Township has announced the election of officers. They are:

Mrs. Vernon Myers, president; Mrs. E. T. McKelvey, first vice president; Mrs. Franklin Butler, second vice president; Mrs. P. T. Ladd, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Gordon T. Getsinger, recording secretary; and Mrs. William Cozad, treasurer.

Next meeting is scheduled for 10 a.m. Feb. 8 at the home of Mrs. Robert J. Eoff Jr., 5860 E. Miller Way.

Detroit Pneumonia Up

DETROIT (UPI) — The Board of Health reported today pneumonia cases in Detroit are up nearly 50 per cent over a year ago.

In addition, since Jan. 1 there have been nine deaths in which flu was either the cause or a contributing factor. Detroit had a total of 11 such deaths in all of 1959.

Kennedy Puts Name on Wisconsin Ballot

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—Sen. John F. Kennedy plunged into the Wisconsin presidential primary today with a charge that his chief competitors for the Democratic nomination are staying "safely on the sidelines" in hope of manipulating the convention.

Kennedy announced that he will wage an April 5 primary battle against Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn) in Wisconsin, the heart of Humphrey's strength for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Minnesota Humphrey, who now insists he's in an "uphill" campaign, will enter mountainous West Virginia's presidential primary in his quest for Democratic presidential delegates, it was learned today.

State Diesel Tax Take Over $2 Million Mark

LANSING (UPI) — Revenue from diesel fuel taxes in Michigan has exceeded two million dollars for the first time in the two decades the tax has been collected.

The 1959 figure of $2,303,085 is a 34 per cent increase over 1958, the secretary of state's office reported.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. John Bowman

We of McCleod Carpet Co. are happy to announce the appointment of our new manager, Mr. John Bowman. We extend a warm invitation to you to come in and meet Mr. Bowman. And to see our beautiful display of carpeting and draperies.

Could Soapy Be Eying Another Term in Office?

Is there a velvet-smooth carpet being laid in Lansing by Democrats leading toward a seventh term for Gov. G. MENNEN WILLIAMS?

First hint of this came before the opening of the Legislature when Williams "surprised" some by saying Michigan's financial future wasn't as gloomy as painted during the political holocaust last year.

Next the Governor pleased taxpayers when he said in his state-of-the-state message that he was advocating no new taxes.

He said the question of a permanent tax program was a question for the people to decide, not the Legislature.

WILLIAMS last year apparently didn't feel that way when Republicans insisted that voters in April decide what new taxes they preferred—income or increased sales taxes.

Now Williams is playing a third voter-pleasing tune on his political turn-about fiddle. All of a sudden he's willing to be the first citizen to sign a petition for a constitutional convention.

That wasn't the tune we heard last year when he and his Democrats steadfastly opposed the so-called concon idea.

Let us not forget that suddenly its 1960 and election year.

Ticket Jaywalkers if It Cuts Accidents

Jaywalkers can be a big problem in any city and Pontiac is no exception. They not only interfere with an already overcrowded traffic problem, but they endanger their own lives.

★ ★ ★

Detroit has just issued the word that they are clamping down on these violators. Police officers have been told to start issuing tickets.

Some of the bad accidents that resulted last year in this area occurred because of jaywalkers. Crossing the street in the middle of the block is commonplace in Pontiac. Many of the pedestrians are completely oblivious to all traffic.

This practice is particularly dangerous at dusk and during heavy traffic hours on Friday and Saturday. Pontiac police might well initiate a crusade to stop this menace.

★ ★ ★

Senate Group to Study Latin American Trade

A staff group under the direction of Sen. GEORGE A. SMATHERS (D-Fla) chairman of the Latin American subcommittee on Interstate and Foreign Affairs, leaves this week for a tour of 11 of those nations.

The committee is concerned particularly with what is beginning to look like a trade crisis. Figures for the first nine months of 1959, says the Senator, show that the United States is now buying more from Latin America than we are able to sell them.

Hardest hit of Latin American imports from the United States have been organic chemicals, tractors, road machinery and copper. But American goods haven't suffered any more in competition than those of other free nations.

The Latinos appear to have spent themselves out of pocket, says Editorial Research, and are now paying the price. In some areas the spending has been required by a basically sound attempt to diversify both agricultural and industrial production. In others it has been wasteful though often politically necessary.

A recent Senate Foreign Relations Committee study has suggested two main courses of action to stimulate U. S. trade: (1) Reduce import quotas wherever possible such as minerals and oil. (2) Continue development aid and make short term borrowing easier for commodity producing nations.

President EISENHOWER'S forthcoming good will tour of four South American countries has no direct connection, with the trade mission, but it will go far toward convincing all Latin American nations that the United States is concerned with maintaining orderly economic growth and political freedom in the Western Hemisphere.

That Should Help!

The Man About Town

Pontiac Hearing

On a Plan to Have Vicinity Railway Agents Dropped

Ancestors: What we'll admit might have been monkeys—but TV wrestlers, never.

Changing times causes the New York Central Railroad to ask to discontinue its agents at four Pontiac area stations: Rochester, Utica, Oxford and Lapeer. It is proposed to have all four stations covered by one visiting agent.

Lapeer is putting up a big fight against the proposition, and through the efforts of

of that city a hearing with the Michigan Public Service Commission has been secured. It will be held at the Oakland County Office Building at 1 Lafayette St., Pontiac, at 10:30 o'clock on Feb. 19.

Loss of both freight and passenger business at these four points is given by the railroad as the reason for the proposed change.

Perhaps there's something more than mere sentiment in a letter from who asserts that the only people who favor a continuance of the bounty are those who find themselves outsmarted by the fox.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Laminiates, sent from Buenos Aires, which says: "Better come down, and we'll try to find you a spot on the bathing beaches."

The office optimist has discovered that leap year gives us an extra day before that April 15 deadline.

First adult to be baptized when St. Joseph's Catholic Church of Lake Orion and Oxford was opened 20 years ago was four other generations of his family having since been baptized there.

Rollie Lynn Haines,

Making a further revision in his figures,

Johnson Matthews

of Birmingham, says that if all the rain we've had during the last few weeks had come as snow, it would be over two feet deep on the level.

A letter just received from

of Detroit says that 65 years ago his father delivered the wood for heating some of the Pontiac schools. He received $1.25 for each cord which was a pile of wood eight feet long and four feet high, the sticks being 18 inches long. He hauled it with a team of horses from his farm nearly ten miles out Pontiac Trail. Each load consisted of two cords and one trip consumed a ten-hour day, which of course did not include the labor of felling the trees and sawing up the wood by hand. And the elder Holtforth paid off his farm mortgage this way.

David Lawrence Says:

Time Runs Out for Fidel Castro

WASHINGTON — When will all the Latin-American countries wake up to the fact that Fidel Castro is doing more to hurt the business development of the entire hemisphere than anybody else, unless it is the regime in Moscow?

LAWRENCE

Businessmen today are hesitating whether to invest money in Central and South America. They wonder if the same destructive influences which gave Castro power will arise in other countries besides Cuba.

Most significant is a statement just made by William R. Mathews, editor and publisher of the "Arizona Daily Star." He is widely known for his writings and has for years done a great deal of traveling to different parts of the world to report on political and economic conditions. He says:

"As one of the several newspaper and radio reporters who interviewed Castro of Cuba in his home near Havana last Feb. 28 and saw what a rare opportunity he had to bring about the blessings of freedom and democracy to his country, the course of events has compelled me to change my opinion drastically.

"I have seen Communist operations all over the world. Castro, in my opinion, is a prisoner of the Communists. The time is not far away when he will have to bow to their will and establish a 'people's democracy' or make way for his brother and others to do it.

"Probably in the next year, if our present hands-off policy continues, we will be confronted with a full-fledged Communist nation on our doorstep.

"Let us not overlook the fact that Commissar Mikoyan spent 10 days in Mexico a few months ago. For what? If we remember that the Castro Revolution was hatched in Mexico, the reason for such a visit becomes more apparent."

★ ★ ★

Mathews suggests that maybe the time has come to invite the people of Cuba to come into the United States with the same free commonwealth status as Puerto Rico has. Certainly rather than have Cuba go Communist, many Cubans would prefer to be under American protection.

U.S. CAN ASSIST

But the people of Cuba undoubtedly want to preserve their independence and their sovereignty. The United States can do a great deal to assist Cuba to remain free from the control of any foreign government. The problem, however, is not merely in Cuba but all through Latin America, where the Communist apparatus is at work infiltrating political and economic institutions.

Relations between foreign countries and Cuba are steadily growing worse, rather than better. Confiscation of property is continuing. The American government has been patient, but already measures of reprisal are being proposed.

Thus, Sen. Smathers, Democrat, of Florida has come forth with the suggestion that the United States withhold from Cuba its subsidy on sugar until Cuba repays Americans for confiscated properties.

The subsidy is about $150 million annually, and comes about because the United States pays Cuba a certain amount above the world price for sugar.

The idea would be to deposit the differential in a special fund until the Cuban government makes proper compensation for seized properties. If, within a reasonable time, Cuba doesn't compensate those whose investments have been confiscated, then the money would be used to repay Americans for their losses.

The Florida senator, before leaving on a 10-nation tour of Latin America with a Senate subcommittee studying international trade, urged a new appraisal of United States policies toward Cuba in view of the fact that the Cuban government, as he sees it, is "playing the Communist game." He added:

"The time has come for over-all strategy as to what we're going to do about Cuba." (Copyright 1960)

Dr. William Brady Says:

Long Bed Stays Injurious; They Drain Your Calcium

Confinement to bed for more than a few days is injurious to anyone, particularly to elderly persons. It induces loss of muscle tone, and heaven knows most Americans have poor muscle tone at best these days, with the flabbiness that they develop by long distance sitting, riding, lounging, watching professionals play, hiring help to do their work for them.

DR. BRADY

With long bed rest there is an extraordinary loss of calcium from the storehouse — the skeleton — amounting to three or four times the calcium excretion of a healthy, fairly active person. The greater part of the calcium excretion is through the urine and this may be sufficient to cause formation of stone in kidney, ureter or bladder.

Low back pain in elderly patients is often due to fracture of one or more vertebrae, which occurs from trivial injury, owing to the decalcification of the bone. Such compression fracture causes great pain and immobility of the back, more or less kyphosis (hump back) and shortening of stature.

Long-continued loss of calcium through the years, the usual effect of our calcium deficient diet, is the predisposing cause of a lesion we hear more and more about these days — herniated intervertebral disk or "slipped disk."

In fact the disks of fibro-cartilage in the lumbar region may herniate into the bodies of the softened vertebrae. Routine X-ray examination of spine and pelvis in cases of low back pain have enlightened us about what was formerly assumed to be just the inevitable weakness and frailty of old age.

NOT OLD AGE

The spinal lesions I have mentioned are all characteristic of the weakening, wasting, atrophy or degeneration of the bones which physicians call osteoporosis. To be sure, osteoporosis and advanced age are so closely associated that we too easily neglect its manifestations by ascribing them to old age, just as we neglect many ailments of persons of middle age by ascribing them to "change of life."

In an earlier talk, I listed the functions of physiological effects of calcium, one of which is that it diminishes sensitivity to ache or pain — calcium is nature's own analgesic.

I do hope you will remember this little lesson in physiology. And if you want to learn more about the importance of calcium send me 35 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my booklet The Calcium Shortage.

Now let me say for the nth time there is no scientific ground for the notion that "deposit" or accumulation of calcium in the walls of the arteries, in the joints or elsewhere in the body is a cause of disease. On the contrary the scientific evidence is clear that such calcification of the tissues is the consequence of degeneration, and in fact long-continued calcium shortage is a common cause of the degeneration.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene not disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Alumnus Supports Waterford Students

As an alumnus of Waterford Township High School, the students have my full support in opposing the name change. I've talked to many graduates and all agree, if the name is changed, it would feel like we didn't have an alma mater. Even our diplomas would carry an obsolete name. I don't care what the new school is named, but leave WTHS its rightful name. To us it could never be anything else.

'More Comment on Police Mess'

Our Charter provides for a Commission-Manager form of government, with the Manager responsible to the Commission, the Commission to the people. If Straley had the firm backing of the Manager and Commission, we wouldn't have had this long battle.

★ ★ ★

The safety director has shown his small stature and people are ready to discard the office and Eastman along with it. Mr. Landry and Mr. Heary have shown leadership the people want. Our able editor has said the Commission has committed one blunder after another. We're fortunate indeed to have such an able editor and counselor in our City.

★ ★ ★

This Commission and Manager conspired with the hospital board to promote a fraudulent election on the bond issue and City business has gone from bad to worse. People have lost faith in the present Commission and won't vote any more money for them to spend. Note the vote on sewer, disposal plant. Read the editorial of Jan. 16, taxpayers. It's one of many our editor has printed for our benefit.

Home Owner

How long will the people have to put up with this nonsense? People must have backbone, along with the Commissioners, to send Eastman back where he came from and give Straley his full authority. Make Willman do something to earn his wages.

★ ★ ★

These behind-closed-doors sessions are for the birds. As taxpayers, it's our right to know what's going on. Open the doors and let Straley's hackers in with him. Eastman need not be so smug about giving Straley orders. Willman won't interfere now.

★ ★ ★

Why can't taxpayers along with the Commissioners clean house in Pontiac and have a smoother-running city?

Pastors Association Requests Answers

The following letter was approved by the Pontiac Pastors Association:

Recent letters to the editor have asked why a Roman Catholic could not make a good President. Theoretically, there's no reason why he couldn't. Recognizing our Catholic friends can't and shouldn't be penalized for religious beliefs, we of Protestant faiths nevertheless feel several questions need to be answered before we can in clear conscience vote to place a Catholic in the White House.

★ ★ ★

What is the candidate's attitude with regard to use of public funds for support of any church? What is the candidate's attitude with regard to enactment of legislation which is designed to force doctrines of any religious group upon the majority of citizens of this country, as in the current birth control controversy? What is the candidate's attitude with regard to free expression of their beliefs, which other faiths hold very dear, and which the Catholic Church by definition holds to be heresy?

★ ★ ★

We of the Pastors Association feel these are fair, objective questions which we're entitled to ask and for which answers can and should be given.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

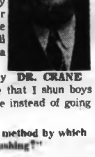

Girl's Blush Is Boy's Ego Booster

Linda makes the mistake of many shy girls in her dilemma and shuns parties. Instead, she should be glad she blushes, for that gives her an advantage over the non-blushing girl. It makes boys feel superior, which is why they stay around her to tease her further.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE D-458: Linda W., aged 18, is a college coed.

"Dr. Crane, I blush on the slightest provocation," she confessed.

DR. CRANE

"And because of that fact, boys pick on me. They go out of their way just to tease me, knowing I'll blush as red as a beet.

"It makes my life so miserable that I shun boys and stay at home instead of going to parties.

"Is there any method by which to overcome blushing?"

Blushing is a first cousin to stuttering, as well as to spastic colitis, and several other nervous effects.

★ ★ ★

WHY GALS BLUSH

The cause of redness is the extra blood that suddenly accumulates in the vessels of the skin when they dilate.

Blushing is thus a natural reaction in an overheated person, for the body then dilates the blood vessels in the skin so the blood will cool off faster.

But Linda's type of blushing is the psychological sort which has developed as a nuisance habit and thus has become a "complex," to stuttering.

Whenever she feels acutely self-conscious and imagines that everybody is looking at her, she says she can then feel the warmth in her skin and knows that she is turning red as a beet.

The most effective means of combating such blushing is to avoid that self-consciousness.

"Yes, Dr. Crane, but how can I quit feeling so self-conscious?" she begs.

The answer is to focus your attention diligently on other people, as by joining the Compliment Club.

ARE POPULAR

It requires you to become a social detective so you can pick out some desirable traits in your companions. Then pay them a verbal compliment thereon.

And as you search your neighbors for their virtues, you meanwhile cannot be thinking acutely about yourself.

So people who are shy and blush, must extrovert their attention to others. They must not flee from social contacts and shun parties or dates.

"Linda, do you know why boys tease you about your blushing?" I asked.

"Oh, it's because they want to embarrass me," she replied.

But that isn't the basic reason. They do it because Linda makes them feel happier. For as she blushes, they feel superior. They are more poised than she is.

"I want to Feel Important," is the magic motto figuratively tattooed on the chest of all of us at birth.

So Linda's blushing makes the boys actually feel more assured and important, for they are NOT blushing as she is.

Linda actually has an advantage over non-blushing girls. She must remember, that boys tease her because they enjoy her company.

"Why are you blushing?" they may boldly inquire.

"Because I'm a red-blooded American," she should pertly learn to reply, with a smile, and then turn the spotlight on them by some compliment, such as "By the way, that's a beautiful tie you are wearing. Where did you get it?"

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long stamped, self-addressed envelope and he will be glad to offer you personal advice by letter. $10,000 Campaign Lid Stirs Controversy

WASHINGTON (AP) — A proposal to impose a $10,000 limit on individual campaign contributions stirred a fresh round of Senate controversy today over a bill to regulate spending in federal elections.

The measure already has been strengthened in two major respects by amendments covering primary elections and state and local political committees which support candidates for federal office.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill), who fought both amendments, told a reporter he would not be surprised if the bill now is pigeonholed in the House.

GOP Senators Dispute Williams' June 30 Idea —$75 Million

LANSING (AP) — Republican senators said today the state will be only 49 million dollars in the hole by June 30 instead of the 75 millions foreseen by Gov Williams.

* * *

They produced a mass of figures to support the latest argument. The general fund deficit at the start of the new fiscal year last July 1 was 95 millions.

The statistics boiled down to the contention that revenues from taxes in effect the first two quarters of 1960 will yield 8 per cent more revenue in the first half of 1960.

Beyond that, the treasury will benefit from the 134-million-dollar-a-year nuisance tax program enacted last month, 13 millions in new business taxes and cashing of veterans trust fund, they said.

Sen. Clyde H. Geerlings (R-Holland), taxation chairman, said fresh analysis showed last month's tax settlement was not "stingy as proclaimed by the governor."

Say '5 Pcter.' Did No Wrong

Court Clears Former Dem Committee Official in Portugese Affair

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Court of Claims ruled Wednesday there was no wrongdoing on the part of Col. Lawrence Westbrook in connection with a nine-million-dollar government tungsten contract that figured in the 1952 political campaign.

The court ruled the government must pay a Portuguese corporation, Companhia Atlantica de Desenvolvimento e Exploracao de Minas, $502,200 for breaching the contract.

Westbrook, a research and development engineer and former Army man, was fired as an official of the Democratic National Committee during the political furor over the contract.

Stephen Mitchell, then Democratic National chairman, announced he was dismissing Westbrook as an assistant although he said there was no evidence of anything improper.

Westbrook, who now lives in San Angelo, Tex., and an associate, Heinz Pulvermann of Rye, N.Y., had negotiated the contract with government officials.

The Portuguese firm had made an agreement naming Westbrook and Pulvermann its exclusive sales agents for obtaining contracts in this country, Germany and Switzerland for the sale of specified metals, including tungsten. The agreement provided that Westbrook and Pulvermann for a period of five years were to receive a commission of 5 per cent on all sales up to specified tonnage as industrial consultants.

In that political year there had been considerable hue and cry about "five percenters."

When the contract and agreement came into the political campaign, Dwight D. Eisenhower, then running for his first term as president, referred to the case in a New York speech as "the sort of crookedness (that) goes on and on in Washington."

The government canceled the contract.

Ann Arbor Will Dedicate $250,000 Building

ANN ARBOR (AP) — University of Michigan President Harlan Hatcher will be featured speaker at the dedication of the city's new $250,000 community center Sunday.

Construction of the building was financed entirely by private donations.

Several of the city's leading churchmen also will speak at the dedicatory ceremonies.

Tell Oldsters to Live It Up

Two Doctors Advise Love, Marriage Long After Retirement Age

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Lonely oldsters should try the boy-meets-girl formula and look forward to the prospect of love and marriage long after the normal retirement age, say two doctors who deal with the problems of aging.

The senior citizen should live it up, moderately at least, and forget about taking it easy, they added.

* * *

And the medical profession might justifiably speed up the application of some of its new drugs and techniques to benefit oldsters now, rather than waiting for some degree of perfection which might take years or generations, one of them said.

These ideas were put before a regional conference on aging and in a news conference Wednesday by Dr. Theodore G. Klumpp of New York City and Dr. Alfred Auerback of San Francisco. The conference was sponsored by the

* * *

Dr. Klumpp, a member of the AMA committee on aging, said that if medical science has drugs and methods which are reasonably sure to help the aged but haven't been proved 100 per cent, they should be used, even if occasional mistakes are made.

And he advised oldsters to "use all of your functions as long as you can; get as much mileage out of your body as possible; forget talk about slowing down, because inactivity means atrophy, or wasting away, of both mind and body."

Dean Stockwell to Wed Actress Millie Perkins

LONDON (AP) — A spokesman for 20th Century Fox said today actress Millie Perkins and actor Dean Stockwell plan to marry some time this summer. Hollywood specialists in juvenile roles, the two announced their engagement in New York last Aug. 31.

Miss Perkins, who played the title role in "The Diary of Anne Frank," is now in London visiting Stockwell, who is working in the film version of D. H. Lawrence's "Sons and Lovers."

Man has been exterminating other mammals at the rate of one species a year since 1900.

Airline Preflight Bomb-Search Bill Introduced

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill which would require airlines to make preflight searches of luggage and cargo for bombs and other destructive items was introduced in the House Wednesday.

* * *

Rep. James G. O'Hara (D-Mich) of Utica offered the measure which would require examination of all articles except mail taken aboard commercial passenger aircraft. Private planes and cargo carriers would be exempt.

O'Hara said it would not necessarily require that passengers open all luggage because x-ray equipment "may provide adequate examination."

* * *

Senate investigators have suggested that bombings may have been involved in the recent destruction of two airliners with a loss of 76 lives.

Williams to Seek Millions in Building

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Williams indicated Wednesday he will recommend a state building program of 150 million dollars or more to the 1960 state legislature.

"We haven't reached a final figure but it will come out pretty close to the old one," he said. The capital outlay program last year was for 146 million dollars. It got little consideration.

The new budget recommendations will be ready for delivery to lawmakers next week.

Construction would be carried on through a state building authority vested with power to borrow by selling bonds. The bonds would be retirable from annual rents paid by state agencies occupying new facilities.

There seemed little chance his proposal would make much headway in the Republican-controlled Legislature.

Highway Department Names Chief Designer

LANSING (AP) — Gerald L. McCarthy, 33, has been named head of the office of design for the State Highway Department.

He will assume duties performed by Chief Engineer Carlos A. Weber, recently retired after nearly 40 years with the department. John E. Meyer, director of engineering, will have the title of chief engineer formerly held by Weber.

President to Help GOP Campaign, He Tells Backers

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower indicated to a group of Young Republicans Wednesday that he plans to participate extensively in the forthcoming GOP presidential campaign.

* * *

* * *

The President, speaking informally at a luncheon meeting of the Young Republicans leadership training school, said he would "see a lot of you here and there in the months to come."

Do Much for Safer Driving

Real Hot Rodders Ask Apology

By JACK VANDENBERG
UPI Automotive Editor

DETROIT—The public owes hot rodders an apology and a debt of gratitude, says the president of the National Hot Rodders Assn.

The public generally associates the term "hot rodder" with any teen-ager who drives recklessly.

* * *

But NHRA President Wally Parks says most true hot rodders might give the average adult driver a good lesson in good driving.

In the true sense of the word, "hot rodder" applies to a youth who belongs to a car club, Parks says. Most of these clubs are either members of or modeled after clubs which belong to the NHRA.

They are made up of youths who are interested in cars, not only for speed but for mechanical perfection and unique styling as well.

MOST LIKE RACING

It is true, Parks admits, that most hot rodders also are interested in racing their cars.

But the majority of them confine their racing to authorized drag strips, he says.

It is the one "rotten apple in the barrel" and the youths who don't belong to clubs that give young drivers a bad name, according to Parks who is also editor of Hot Rod Magazine.

A member of a club authorized by the NHRA can be banned from membership for careless driving, he says.

Although they lay few claims to having "originated" the countless ideas and innovations found in common use on their unique cars, their trial-and-error processes of experimentation have developed many discarded ideas to the point where they become practical for production use, Parks says.

Innumerable components on today's passenger cars, he says, were first popularized by their use on hot rods.

TRY TO ERASE STIGMA

In an effort to banish the stigma connected with the term hot rodder, club members stop and offer aid whenever they see a fellow motorist in trouble.

They never accept any payment for their help but always leave a card with the grateful motorist telling him he is indebted to a hot rodder.

Club members also are required to give their cars safety checks four times a year.

14 DEFECTS ON HIS CAR

They found 14 mechanical defects on the police car, and the policeman was so impressed he called a tow truck and refused to drive the car back to headquarters.

Parks says the next time you feel the urge to call a reckless teen-ager a "hot rodder" see if he has a car club sticker on his windshield.

Ike's Budget Provides for More FDA Personnel

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) staff would be increased nearly 19 per cent if Congress approved President Eisenhower's new budget proposal.

The President's budget for the fiscal year starting July 1 would allot $17,520,000 for FDA activities, an increase of more than 19 per cent over the current fiscal year.

The extra money would increase the agency's crew of field inspectors from 498 men to 593. This would give the agency more manpower for enforcing the pure food laws.

THE PONTIAC PRESS

THURSDAY, JANUARY 21, 1960 — PONTIAC, MICHIGAN, — THIRTEEN

WINNER'S POSE — Like an ebony statue, grand champion Sabre Jet stands poised, ready to pull his owner, Glen Ellis, around his Clarkston area farm in the family's 125-year-old cutter. An open winter for the most part this year has curtailed such sleigh excursions for Ellis and his proud-stepping Tennessee walker. But both welcomed the current snow, hoping it will stay for awhile.

Glen Grew Up Training, Breeding Them

Horses Traditional at Ellis Farm

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

When strangers left a tiny baby on the doorsteps of the huge Ellis mansion near Clarkston some 75 years ago, they had no idea that the infant would develop into one of the finest horsemen in the country.

On a cold, blustery day in 1885, big Norman Ellis opened his front door and found the shivering newborn boy in a large hand basket.

He carried the infant into the house, and the childless couple could not resist taking the helpless baby into their hearts. They raised him as they very own.

During boyhood — from the time Glen Ellis was able to reach the stirrups of a saddle — he rode, trained and developed high bred horses on the Ellis' 300-acre farm at 9331 Dixie Hwy. His entire life became wrapped up in his foster father's first love — raising fine horses.

At first there was the g r a n d - daddy of all w o r k horses, the mighty Percheron breed. Norman Ellis purchased the very first registered Percheron stallion in 1860 for $2,100 and as the fame of the animal spread, the breed became one of the most popular for farm work for miles around.

By the time young Glen was 12 years old, a huge $28 by 56-foot barn stood on the property. Downstairs from the hay storage area, there were stalls to accommodate almost 100 horses.

(After 100 years, the well-preserved barn still stands on the property).

As time went on, sleek high-stepping coach horses imported from England and France became popular in this country. Norman Ellis immediately began to breed this type of horse.

The trick was to breed and train a perfectly matched pair of horses —usually jet black—to move as if they were one. The challenge of this venture was cut short by the introduction of a new contraption, the horseless carriage, Glen recalled.

However, by that time the young man had learned much about horses: he knew how to bring out the best in any animal that he undertook to train. When his foster father died, Glen continued to raise and train horses.

In due time he married a pretty school teacher who had been teaching just north of Clarkston, and the couple had a son and a daughter.

As horses began to fade, breeding and training show horses for high society enthusiasts soon became the main operation on the Ellis farm.

Every type of registered saddle horse was trained for walking, trotting and fine performances in the ring.

The patience required to train the thousands of horses that have left the farm has paid off for Ellis in both dollars and real satisfaction of a job well done, he said.

HIS FAVORITE.

At the present time, his favorite blue ribbon Grand Champion Walking horse, Sabre Jet, is in the finest stall in the Ellis barn. He originally cost $20,000 as a two-year-old, but because his owners in Tennessee could do nothing with the horse, Ellis "got him for a song."

The moment the animal realizes he is being admired, he strikes a pose which resembles a huge shiny black statue.

"Sabre Jet is like no living horse," Ellis said. "He can back up a country mile without moving a muscle, is gentle as a lamb and yet his regal manner is fit for a king," he added.

There are now only seven blue ribbon registered champion horses in the big barn on the Dixie, but each weekend the Ellis children and grandchildren all flock out to the 16-room house to exercise their own private mounts.

* * *

All seven of the animals must be kept in top condition, and seem to anticipate the elite horse shows that they will all be a part of next summer, Ellis concluded.

Youth Code to Be Formed for Rochester Teen-Agers

ROCHESTER — Noting the tabulation of an attitude survey of 942 teen-agers and parents, the Rochester Area Youth Guidance Committee decided last night to proceed as soon as possible with the formulation of a suggested youth code.

Members of the Youth Code Committee, which conducted the recent survey, have completed tabulation of the near-thousand questionnaires and presented their report to the parent organization.

Mrs. Robert Kusse and Mrs. Leonard Westerman Jr. are co-chairmen of the committee.

The results of the survey have produced evidence that parents of teen-agers in the Rochester area are in favor of a youth code, their report states.

A preliminary study of the written comments by both parents and teens substantiates the statement that youth in the area "want and need more parental guidance," according to the report.

Now the Youth Code Committee will proceed with its evaluation, and final recommendations are due within a few weeks.

The questionnaires were distributed to junior and senior high school students and members of clubs, organizations and churches in the Rochester School district shortly before Christmas.

The survey was conducted to determine opinions of teen-agers and adults on such home problems as dress, smoking, driving and general conduct.

At or before the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Youth Guidance Committee, the Youth Code Subcommittee plans to present to the general membership copies of the suggested code for their "study and consideration."

CAPT. EDGAR DAVIS

Vet Fireman Dies at His Post

Capt. Edgar Davis, 56, Succumbs to a Heart Attack While Asleep

A veteran of 32 years with the Pontiac Fire Dept. died this morning while on duty.

Capt. Edgar Davis, 56, of 481 Fourth Ave., was stricken in bed at Station No. 1, 41 E. Pike St.

He was discovered when Fire Marshal Charles E. Metz went to wake him up and was pronounced dead at the station by a coroner. A heart attack was given as the cause.

Davis was active in the Metropolitan Club of city policemen, firemen and post office employes, the Pontiac Firefighters Assn. and Masonic Lodge No. 21 F&AM.

Capt. Davis is survived by his wife Ruth, four sons, Edgar, Rodger and Donald, all of Pontiac, and Charles of California; his father, Charles Davis, a sister, Mrs. Viola Acker of Pontiac, and five grandchildren also survive.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete at the Huntoon Funeral Home.

Farmington Feud Ends Out of Court

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — A feud between Justice of the Peace Robert H. Nelson and Supervisor Curtis H. Hall apparently came to an abrupt halt yesterday.

In a prepared statement, Nelson said "The parties have met and have adjusted their differences. All pending litigation has been dismissed by stipulation of the parties."

Hall was not available for comment, but Nelson said, "Curt would have told you the same thing."

"When we came to this agreement we also agreed we wouldn't say anymore than was in the statement," Nelson said.

However, Nelson did add "We really wanted to settle this thing and we did."

An agreement means that a contempt of court charge against Hall by Nelson will be dropped as will a suit against the township charging that a record of all ordinances hasn't been kept up to date.

At the same time a violation against Nelson for occupying a building without a permit will be dismissed, he said.

The feud started in early December when Nelson cited Hall's 18-year-old son Michael for contempt of court for not obeying an order regarding a traffic violation.

Shortly after Nelson was arrested on a warrant signed by Hall for occupying offices at 31547 13 Mile Rd. without the permit.

School Plans OK'd in Troy

Architect's Work on 3 Major Building Projects Passed by Board

TROY—The Troy Board of Education has approved architect's plans and specifications for three major building projects in the district.

These include the 16-room addition to the Morse School—making 18 rooms in all—the three-room addition to Poppleton School and the new 18-room elementary school to be located between 17 Mile, 18 Mile, Livernois and Rochester roads.

The Board also heard a report from architect Harry Harman and engineer Joseph Olivieri on progress drawings for high school additions.

These include three wings of five rooms each and enlargement of the gymnasium.

$1.3 MILLION FOR ADDITION

Of the recently-approved $2.3 million bond issue, about $1,236,000 will be used to build the high school additions.

The rest covers cost of the elementary school projects which also include heating plant improvements and renovation of sewage treatment and storage facilities where needed.

The new elementary school is designed to relieve over-crowding at Niles, Troy, Union and Colerain schools.

Building plans for the entire project are being drawn by Wyeth and Harman Architects of Port Huron.

Although it has a population of more than 181,000, the streets of Grand Rapids, Mich., are so well planned one can drive from the center to the outskirts in 10 minutes.

Leonard PTA to Hear Oxford Principal Cloud

LEONARD—Roy B. Cloud, principal of Oxford Junior High School, will speak at Monday night's meeting of the Leonard School PTA.

Cloud spent last year as an exchange teacher in England. He will show films and tell of his experiences.

The meeting will start at 8 p.m. After the program refreshments will be served by Mrs. Mary Rountree's room mothers.

All parents are urged to attend.

West Bloomfield Protests Interceptor Sewer Tie-Ins

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — A formal protest from the township to the Oakland County Department of Public Works against four neighboring communities seeking temporary use of the Farmington Interceptor Sewer now being built will be in the mail this week.

* * *

At last night's township meeting the board agreed to send a letter protesting the use of the sewer by Walled Lake, Novi, Wixom and Commerce Township.

Recently, Walled Lake passed a resolution requesting the county department to create a sewage disposal system for the area, that would also serve the city.

This was the second such resolution passed by the Walled Lake Council. They passed a similar resolution in November 1957.

Now it is possible that several communities in the area of the Farmington Intercepter could be served, though only on a temporary basis.

West Bloomfield Township officials now feel that until a major portion of the residents in the township are served it would not be right for surrounding communities to tie in.

It will provide sewage disposal for Farmington Township, West Bloomfield Township and Keego Harbor.

* * *

In West Bloomfield trunk arms to serve various portions of the township and laterals will have to be constructed and paid for by residents through special assessments.

Franklin Knolls and Sylvan Manor subdivisions in the township have already filed petitions asking that special assessment districts be created for construction of laterals.

Ike Will Visit Japan After K

Other Far East Nations Inviting Him; He Eyes Stop in Hawaii

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower was reported under pressure today to expand his trip to Japan into a full fledged peace and friendship tour of the Far East.

* * *

Government leaders of Formosa, South Korea, the Philippines, Indonesia, Thailand and the Indochina states were understood to be ready and eager to welcome after his Tokyo visit.

Some diplomatic officials believed it inevitable that Eisenhower would lengthen his tour, lest he injure the feelings of some friendly governments.

South Korea's Ambassador You Chan Yang quickly predicted Eisenhower would visit his country. Otherwise, he said, South Koreans "will feel very much slighted."

* * *

Accepting a formal invitation, Eisenhower agreed to visit Japan about June 20, one day after ending his scheduled 10-day tour of the Soviet Union as guest of Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

At the same time, Eisenhower invited Japan's Crown Prince Akihito and his young wife, Princess Michiko, to come to the United States.

The President was also quoted as saying today that he would like to visit the newest U.S. state, Hawaii, on his way home from the Soviet Union and Japan.

Sen. Hiram Fong (R-Hawaii) had breakfast with Eisenhower at the White House and invited him to come to the 50th state.

U.S. Bonds Turn Easy After 10-Day Spurt

NEW YORK (AP) — The treasury bond market exhibited a definitely easier tone in quiet trading today.

Small minus signs appeared throughout the government list ending, at least temporarily, a mild rally which saw longer range maturities add about a full point on light volume during the past 10 days.

Lake Orion Boarder Arraigned Monday

LAKE ORION — A boarder in a Lake Orion home will be arraigned at 1:30 p.m. Monday in Circuit Court on a charge of assault with intent to do great bodily harm in the stabbing of the home owner, Kenneth M. Ferguson, 50, of 56 Elizabeth St.

Tom Tomasello, 64, waived examination and was unable to furnish the $1,000 bond set by Orion Township Justice of the Peace Helmar Stenaback at his arraignment.

Tomasella was remanded back to Oakland County jail.

Ferguson is listed in fair condition at Pontiac General Hospital with stab wounds in the back and arm he received in an argument with Tomasella early Sunday morning, according to Lake Orion Police Chief Neal Leonard.

Meet Friday at Brooklands

Residents Will Protest John R Widening, Ditch

AVON TOWNSHIP—Residents along John R road have called a special meeting Friday night at Brooklands School, Auburn road, to protest proposed street widening and installation of ditches.

The group is particularly concerned about the stretch of pavement between Auburn road and Bloomer State Park.

Township Supervisor Cyril E. * * * Miller and Rex Bebout, township attorney, will be present.

The two officials are expected to recommend that a five-member committee be set up to meet with the county road commissioners to learn exactly what is planned for the road project.

In the meantime, county road crews which had started chopping down trees there have been directed to stop work because of the protests.

Robert O. Felt, chairman of the Board of Oakland County Road Commissioners, said that the road is due for recapping with asphalt this spring because the old concrete is breaking up.

He added that tree removal is one of the first steps in the street renovation program which also calls for widening the strip, a foot on each side.

The residents also are expected to discuss the possibility of making road commission offices elective rather than appointive.

WORK ON PROJECT — Helping members of the PTA at the Morse School in Troy arrange articles for their forthcoming rummage sale, which is the organization's one major money-making project of the year, are Girl Scouts of Troop 489. Here three scouts, Linda Henry, 11; Darleen Holden, 10; and Sharon Adams, 11, look over the contributions. The sale will begin at 8 p. m. Jan. 26 in the school.

Bailiff in Hospital (With Pay) for 15 Years: Fired

DETROIT (AP) — Henry Gordon, a Common Pleas Court bailiff who has received a weekly fee even though hospitalized for 15 years, was fired yesterday.

He was convicted at a Common Pleas hearing on charges of misfeasance and abandoning his job.

The court ruled he was "wholly and completely incapable of performing the duties of his office."

Bailiff Richard P. Hopson testified that he agreed 16 years ago to handle all bailiff assignments made to Gordon during his illness and would give Mrs. Gordon, who lives in South Haven, a split on the money received.

Bailiffs are appointed for life. The court is currently investigating some dozen cases where bailiffs have not performed duties for months or years yet have received fees.

Detective Solves 190 Cases

Arrest 4 Theft Suspects

Intensive work by a Pontiac police detective has led to the solution of 190 thefts from cars over the past year, it was announced today.

* * *

Lt. Raymond Mergitt, detective bureau commander, credited Det. Albert W. Foster Jr. for tracking down four persons responsible for the thefts.

Two of them are 16-year-old boys. One is in custody at the Oakland County Children's Home. The other is believed to have fled from the state.

One of the other two, Charles W. Eason, 17, of 198 E. Huron St., was sentenced to 1 to 5½ years in Jackson State Prison last month.

Arley L. Shelter, 23, of 365 S. East Blvd., was arrested yesterday on a charge of receiving stolen property. He waived examination before Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum and was bound over to Circuit Court.

He is free on $50 bond pending arraignment Monday.

The four men stole tires, hubcaps, other car accessories, and articles inside the cars, Foster said. The total value of the stolen goods has been placed at $7,220.

One of the juveniles, being questioned about another case, implicated the group in the thefts, Foster said.

Rep. Miller to Head One GOP Committee

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. William E. Miller of New York today was elected chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee. His principal rival, Rep. William M. McCulloch of Ohio, withdrew to prevent a party split.

Miller succeeds the late Rep. Richard M. Simpson of Pennsylvania as head of the committee whose function is to help elect Republican candidates for the House.

Simpson died earlier this month. When he became too ill to serve he designated McCulloch as acting chairman.

Miller had the support of the Halleck wing of the party while McCulloch was backed by followers of Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr. of Massachusetts.

Martin was replaced as House GOP leader last year by Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana.

Glenn H. Curtiss of Hammondsport, N.Y., devised the seaplane in 1911. He also invented the aileron, built the first flying boats, made the first flight over ocean water, opened the first water-cooler aeronautical engine, obtained the first aviator's license and, on May 29, 1910, made the nation's first long-distance airplane trip by flying from Albany to New York City.

SHARON SUE DODMAN

The engagement of their daughter Sharon Sue to Theodore R. Kottmeier is announced by Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Dodman Sr. of 2774 Gravel Ridge Rd., Avon Township. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kottmeier of Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Plans are being made for an Aug. 13 wedding.

KAY JUDITH THOMPSON

An August wedding is being planned by Kay Judith Thompson and Jerome W. Ganzel. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Thompson of 1634 Pruit Dr., Highland Township. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Ganzel of 3267 N. Milford Rd., Highland Township.

CARLA AILEEN HILL

Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Hill of 3435 Adams Rd., Avon Township, announce the engagement of their daughter Carla Aileen to the Rev. James M. Butler, son of the Rev. and Mrs. D. E. Butler of Cross City, Fla. A June wedding is planned.

TERRYL GRAHAM DIXON

A Feb. 20 altar date has been set by Terryl Graham Dixon and James J. Kane. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Dixon of West Wind Farm, 2160 Haggerty Rd., West Bloomfield Township. Her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald B. Kane of Highland Park.

MSU Expert Will Head Area Farmers' Meeting

The latest information on dairy feeding, herd management and calf raising will be presented at a special meeting for area farmers tomorrow, Jay Poffenberger, county agriculture extension agent, has announced.

Don Hillman of Michigan State University's dairy department will lead the meeting beginning at 8 p.m. in the Cooperative Extension Service office, 1280 West Blvd., Pontiac.

Stronger Engines Optional

More Zip for Compacts

DETROIT (AP) — The three new American compact cars, which made their initial sales appeals on lower price and better mileage, now all offer optional equipment to give them more get up and go.

Chevrolet's rear-engine Corvair can be boosted from 80 horsepower to 95; Ford's Falcon can be boosted from 90 to 100 and Chrysler's Valiant from 101 to 148.

None of these options is being advertised heavily. So far they are available only on special order. Apparently the new engines are to satisfy demands for more speed and pickup while retaining the new, smaller body size.

Because of a voluntary industry agreement not to emphasize speed and horsepower, there probably won't be much said about the more potent engines.

James O. Wright, Ford Division general manager, specifically denied recently that there is any "horsepower race" among the companies, and only Chevrolet chose to make any public announcement of the hotter engine.

A Valiant spokesman said specifications for its engine package, called "Hyper Pack," were filed with the Automobile Manufacturers Assn. in December. The Corvair package won't be available for another month or so.

The Valiant option includes a four barrel carburetor instead of a two barrel, a 10.5 to 1 compression ratio instead of 8.5 to 1, dual exhaust, manual choke and a 15-gallon gas tank instead of 13 gallons.

COMET TO HAVE 95 H.P.

The Ford Motor Co.'s Comet, which will be introduced late next month, is said to have an engine rated at 95 horsepower.

All of these cars offer only six-cylinder engines. The two older compact cars, Rambler and Lark, offer both sixes and V-8s. The Rambler six in the American is 90 horsepower and the six in the standard Rambler is 127 horsepower. The Rambler V-8 is 200 horsepower.

The Lark six develops 90 horsepower and the Lark V-8 has 180.

In standard-size cars the Chevrolet six is rated at 135 horsepower while the Dart, Plymouth, and Ford are 145 horsepower.

U. of M. Will Dedicate Mental Health Building

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Gov. Williams and two of the nation's most prominent spokesmen for science will help dedicate the University of Michigan's new 1½-million-dollar Mental Health Research Institute Building Jan. 29.

The institute, established in temporary quarters four years ago, hopes to utilize the new facilities to open a concerted attack on the basic elements of mental illness.

State funds have provided more than $750,000 toward construction of the research facility, with the balance coming from the U.S. Public Health Service.

Gatun Lake, which is 85 feet above sea level in the north portion of the Panama Canal Zone, has an area of 164 square miles.

THE LADY AND THE GIANT

By Clarence Budington Kelland

© 1959 by Clarence Budington Kelland. © 1959 by The Curtis Publishing Company. Distributed by NEA Service.

THE STORY: Because of the sensational discovery of the Cardiff Giant, Syracuse says grand attention to the mummified body of an unknown man found in the Applegate barn. Orrin Applegate becomes even more mystified by Madam Cissie Janeway who seems to be a woman of great wealth and whose name is connected with that of Financier Daniel Drew.

X

One afternoon when Madam was newly returned from some journey, she required me to accompany her and Lossie on a drive. It was a beautiful chilly afternoon, with the foliage of our trees making the countryside a flaming wonder of color.

Madam fumbled in her reticule and brought out a little leather case and snapped it open. In the satin of it was a jeweled brooch which looked highly expensive to me.

Madam tapped Lossie's hand affectionately. "I got to thinking of you one day," Madam said, "and I missed you. And it seemed I simply had to do something about you. So I went in and bought this trinket for you. Somehow it made me less lonely for you, my dear."

Lossie took the case in her slender fingers and looked at it and admired its contents, and then her pert face became grave. "It's lovely, Madam Cissie," she said, "and it was sweet and generous of you to think of me." Her voice became firmer. "But, Madam, there must be an understanding between us." She nodded her head determinedly. "What understanding, honey child?"

"That never on any occasion whatever shall you give me a gift more expensive than I can afford to give to you."

"But that, Lossie, is so silly. The cost means nothing. I'd feel ridiculous giving you a book or a box of bonbons."

* * *

Lossie interrupted and shook her head stubbornly. "A book I would like; bonbons I would love. But" — she paused and compressed her lips, so that I knew she meant what she said and would not change her mind — "but if you buy me anything costly, I shall have to return it."

For an instant Madam seemed hurt, but then she smiled and patted Lossie's hand. "Such pride!"

There could be no doubt of Madam Janeway's kindness and generosity, nor of the lavish manner in which she spent money. She never seemed to give a thought to the cost of a thing she wanted or to the expense of any amusement or recreation that promised pleasure.

But contradictorily, there was economy to the running of her household — economy that amounted almost to niggardliness. She did her shopping for groceries and vegetables and meats was done exclusively by the butler, Oscar.

And if ever there was a stingy, penny-pinching human being, it was he.

He haggled and dickered and demanded. He would bicker over the cost of a 50 cent tack hammer, and the wages he paid the other servants were lower than those paid by anybody else in town.

While Oscar was haggling with a farmer over the price of a peck of potatoes, his mistress would be squandering a couple of hundred dollars on some absurd fancy or kindly charity.

She was a brilliant conversationalist — really a prodigious talker. Her mind was facile and brilliant, and there seemed to be no topic upon which she was not informed nor city in the world which she could not describe in fascinating language.

"Of reticence," mother said, "she seems to have none. She'll talk about anything. But when she's done she's told nothing."

"She's a flittermouse," said Mrs. Fox indulgently. "But she's a dear, sweet woman."

"She's dear and sweet all right," Mother conceded. "But if you were asked, could you tell anybody where she came from? No, ma'am, you couldn't. Or where she was married, or if she has any children? Or why she came to Syracuse?"

Lossie's mother didn't care.

Lossie's mother was not of suspicious or inquiring mind and generally accepted things at their face value.

"Banker Waits must have looked her up. He never would have given that dinner and reception for her if somebody important hadn't vouched for her. Now would he?"

"I suppose not," mother answered a little dubiously. "But I bet, when you come right down to it, that bankers are as gullible as anybody else. They just make believe they are cautious to impress people."

Andrew White was the new president of Cornell College up at Ithaca and was rated as a pretty smart man and wouldn't be easy to bamboozle.

He, in the interests of veracity, had a meeting in our town with the regents of the State University from Albany and with James Hall, who was the most able paleontologist of the day.

This august body did not go so far as to agree that the stone effigy was a petrified man of ancient times.

But Hall, most qualified of all of them to speak, declared that it did not date back to the Stone Age, but was the most remarkable object brought to light in this country, and was deserving of the attention of archaeologists.

Mr. White was disgusted and he quoted Schiller's line, "'Against stupidity the very gods themselves contend in vain.'" He declared the figure to be bogus, a hoax; and all those who believed it either to be a petrified human or a work of great antiquity were credulous simpletons.

* * *

THE HOME OF QUALITY FURNITURE AT BUDGET PRICES!

GO '60
GO CHEVY!

NOW-THE CAR THAT STARTS THE SIXTIES
WITH SO MUCH THAT'S NEW,
SO MUCH THAT'S DIFFERENT
...AND SETS THE PACE WITH LOWER PRICES!

Chevrolet speaks of the Sixties like no other car—with a broad accent on spaciousness, stirring new concepts in styling and strong emphasis on spirit and thrift.

Step inside this superlative '60 and look at the worlds of room around you: head room, hip room, shoulder-squaring room. Note how Chevrolet's engineers have further flattened and narrowed the transmission tunnel to give the middle man more foot room. Chevrolet's greater roominess is inside where you want it—not outside in useless body overhang.

Under the hood you'll find economy teamed with performance in a new standard V8, engineered to deliver up to 10% more miles for every gallon, or the strapping Hi-Thrift 6, a remarkable gas saver.

Still, as savings-minded as this new Chevrolet is, it's hard to find a car that does you prouder at any price.

And riding comfort in the new one is a never-ending treat, thanks to Full Coil spring suspension. There are also thicker newly designed body mounts that filter noise and vibration to the vanishing point, more rigid frame and many other engineering advances.

But you'll have to drive the Sixty sizzler yourself—that's the clincher.

Use Tax Refund Chore Is Almost Completed

LANSING (AP) — The laborious chore of processing refunds for the short-lived penny increase in the use tax is nearly over, the State Revenue Department reported.

★ ★ ★

Clarence W. Lock, deputy director, said most of the department's audit crew had been assigned to the task.

★ ★ ★

"We hope to have it pretty well licked by the end of the month," he said.

★ ★ ★

To date, 15,033 claims for refunds of $396,935 have been processed, Reuben S. Forsman, chief of the Sales and Use Tax Division, reported.

Forsman said a backlog of between 8,000 and 10,000 claims still is on hand.

House Grants Funds for More Payola Probing

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Wednesday granted an extra $275,000 to pay expenses of a subcommittee investigating alleged "payola" in the broadcasting industry. The funds are in addition to $300,000 provided last year.

★ ★ ★

The House also approved a resolution granting $327,000 to pay expenses of the committee on un-American activities.

State GOP Preparing a Heavy Banquet Menu

LANSING (AP) — Republicans figure to monopolize the Michigan political spotlight for the next week or so — unless Gov. Williams suddenly springs an answer to the seventh term question.

GOP leaders will gather Friday and Saturday for their first full scale, statewide huddles of the campaign year.

And on next Wednesday GOP oratory will crackle from rostrums at $100-a-plate fund raising dinners in 10 cities — part of the nationwide "Dinner With Ike" program.

A slate of top-drawer Republican stars has been assembled for the banquets, including Earl Eisenhower, the President's brother, and Dr. Keith Glennan, chief of the nation's space effort.

Williams will be in Washington, D. C., Saturday to appear with other Democratic presidential hopefuls at a $100-a-plate dinner Democrats are staging there.

The Republican State Central Committee meeting Saturday will provide the best forum so far for 1960 candidate discussions, with the focus on the U.S. Senate and governor nominations.

★ ★ ★

Congressmen Alvin M. Bentley of Owosso and Robert P. Griffin of Traverse City have expressed interest in opposing Sen. Patrick V. McNamara, Democratic incumbent. Neither has committed himself.

There has been no serious talk thus far about a primary opponent to Paul D. Bagwell, the unsuccessful 1958 nominee who is expected to run again for governor.

The committee will adopt an operations budget for the campaign year. An over-all goal of $1,250,000 has been set for fund raising, including $400,000 for the GOP National Committee.

After the morning session, a testimonial luncheon will be held for Vernon J. Brown of Mason, former lieutenant governor and elder statesman of the Michigan Republican Party.

RECRUIT SESSION SET

A "recruit for 60" session is set for the afternoon, as part of a national organization effort aimed at getting three new volunteer workers in each precinct for the 1960 election.

★ ★ ★

Michigan Republicans, already making headway organizationally, enter the campaign year with 14 staffed, full-time party offices on the county or district level, nine of them in outstate cities.

"We are in much better and stronger shape than we were a year ago," said a headquarters spokesman. "This is partly a result of the 16 county meetings that were held over the state last fall.

"Activity is at a higher all-around level," he added. "Consider that the Women's Division has just finished 20 political schools, many of them attended by 50 or 60 women, and seven or eight more are scheduled."

The Dinner With Ike program, more ambitious than that of any other state, is expected to attract 6,000 persons, and on this basis to raise $600,000 that would be divided by state, local and national parties.

★ ★ ★

President Eisenhower will appear at a fund-raising dinner in Los Angeles and his speech will be piped via closed circuit television to other dinner sites.

His brother Earl will speak at the Ishpeming dinner and Dr. Glennan at Jackson.

Gov. J. Caleb Boggs of Delaware will appear at St. Joseph; Fran B. Morse, Agriculture undersecretary, at Battle Creek; Charles S. Thomas former Navy secretary, at Flint, and Henry Kearns, assistant commerce secretary, at Muskegon.

Charles Percy, Chicago businessman, will speak at a Detroit dinner expected to attract 2,500 at the Masonic Temple. Percy chaired a committee of 43 that wrote a national party policy statement last year.

★ ★ ★

Gen. E. R. Quesada, head of the Federal Aviation Agency, is booked at Saginaw; Kevin McCann, Defiance, Ohio, college president and former special assistant to the president, will appear at Lansing; and former Congressman Robert J. McIntosh at Port Huron.

Ask Congress to Approve Next Seaway Budget

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress was asked yesterday to approve a $1,414,000 operating budget for the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corp. for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

The corporation plans to spend one million dollars for operation and maintenance and $414,000 for administrative expenses, Administrator Lewis G. Castel said.

The operations budget represents a $25,000 increase over the current fiscal year primarily because of pay raises granted seaway employes, Castle said.

Open Major Exhibition of Paul Gauguin Works

PARIS (AP) — A major exhibition of more than 120 paintings, drawings and sculptures by Paul Gauguin opened Wednesday, insured for 140 million dollars.

The French master, whose fictionalized biography has appeared in books, films and television as "The Moon and Sixpence," died on a South Seas island in 1903 in poverty.

Expense Tabs Eyed

U.S. Firms Face Tax Crackdown

NEW YORK (UPI) — The federal tax collectors plan to crack down sharply this year on businessmen and their expense accounts.

Uncle Sam may make such an example of some that they and their bosses will wind up paying a tax on their real income that is more than their salaries.

Internal Revenue officials in New York said today they are being driven to action not only by the need for revenue but by floods of complaints from people who don't have expense accounts and who "are furious at what they see some of their neighbors getting away with."

Take the case of an executive drawing a $30,000 salary but living at a rate of $100,000 a year, him with a car, winter and summer homes, several trips abroad yearly, a lavish entertainment account and even paying for his Christmas gifts.

"This character pays a tax of less than $10,000," complained the tax man. "If we could nick him on what he really spends, it would be nearer $65,000. We can't bring this bird down by aiming directly at him. We tried that two years ago and had to lower our sights. Too many of those guys have influence in Congress."

AIM AT CORPORATIONS

So this time the tax men, by aiming at the corporations which allow these lavish expenses. The individuals will be quizzed closely, but the big pitch will be to disallow hundreds of millions of dollars worth of such payments made by corporations for executives and to make the firms pay taxes on them.

★ ★ ★

Form 1120, the 1959 corporate tax return, will ask columns of embarrassing questions about company - operated yachts, hunting lodges, hotel space, vacation allowances, the use of credit cards, the attendance of wives and children at business meetings, and how closely commission salesmen's expense accounts are checked against commissions.

Where expenses are charged against commissions, corporations often have no real interest in how large they are. So the salesmen can inflate them for tax purposes.

"Kiting expenses 100 per cent isn't uncommon — a good commission salesman can cheat on $10,000 or more of income that way," said the tax man.

★ ★ ★

The main Internal Revenue Bureau in Washington has come up with some dandies in previous expense cheating. One man tried to charge off all his son's college fees as a contribution to his alma mater . . . visits to phony branch offices at swank resorts are a growing means of tax swindling . . . another businessman claimed a "necessary deduction" for a sports car used by his son in college . . . many cases of "lunch groups" who ate together regularly on credit cards, with a different man charging off lunch for all each week as tax deductions, were found.

★ ★ ★

Grill Con Man in Finch Trial

Defense Out to Prove He Was Not Hired to Kill Mrs. Finch

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Jack Cody, a coarse, cocky con man who claims he was hired to kill, faced another seige by the cross-examiner in the Finch murder trial today as it became evident the defense will contend:

1. That Cody was hired to entrap Barbara Jean Finch romantically, not to murder her.

2. That Dr. R. Bernard Finch was not armed when he went to see his wife the night of her death, and that he killed her by accident or in self defense.

Finch, wealthy 42-year-old surgeon, is on trial with his pretty mistress, Carole Tregoff, 23. They are accused of murder in the July 18 gunshot death of Mrs. Finch, 36. She was slain outside her suburban home.

Cody, brought here to testify from the Minneapolis workhouse, insisted again Wednesday under cross-examination that the doctor and Miss Tregoff paid him $1,400 to do away with Mrs. Finch, and that he had no intention of going through with it. But he was more vague about his purported conversations with Miss Tregoff than he had been under examination by the prosecution.

Bendix Ann Arbor Chief Named Vice President

DETROIT (UPI)—Bendix Aviation Corp. Wednesday announced three major executive personnel changes.

Dr. Russell O. O'Neal, formerly general manager of the Bendix Systems Division at Ann Arbor, was named vice president in charge of engineering for the corporation.

Roy J. Sandstrom, formerly assistant general manager, moved up to replace O'Neal as head of the systems division. L. B. Young, who has been in charge of long-range planning for the division, succeeds Sandstrom as assistant general manager.

In relation to population, Sweden is the most motorized country in Europe. There is slightly more than one motor vehicle for every four inhabitants.

Central Michigan Asks for $7.9 Million Budget

MOUNT PLEASANT (UPI) — Central Michigan University has requested a budget of $7,864,852 for the 1960-61 fiscal year, president J. W. Foust said Wednesday.

The budget includes $4,482,975 for operating expenses and $3,381,877 for capital outlays.

Make More Compacts

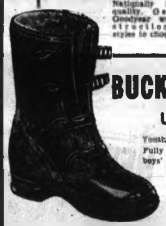

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. has begun producing its compact Valiants at a new St. Louis assembly plant, which opened last fall. Until now the Valiant line has been built only at Chrysler's Hamtramck plant here.

Reminiscing at the PEO Sisterhood's Founders' Day luncheon Wednesday are from left, Mrs. Martin Wager of Dixie Highway, Charlotte Baird of Sashabaw road, Mrs. Victor M. Lindquist of Chippewa road and Mrs. George Putnam of West Iroquois road. The foursome furnished the music when the local group gathered for its 10th anniversary celebration.

Mark 91st PEO Anniversary

Observe Founders' Day

Representing 14 area chapters, the Oakland County Cooperative Group of the PEO Sisterhood observed Founders' Day Wednesday afternoon with a luncheon at Birmingham Community House. The occasion marked the 91st anniversary of the organization and the 10th anniversary of the local group.

Dedicated to provide opportunities for women to further their education, PEO operates an educational loan fund and International Peace Scholarships.

Guest speaker was Dr. Blanche Hinman Dow, president of Cottey Junior College for Women at Nevada, Mo. The college, which is owned and operated by the PEO Sisterhood, enrolls nearly a hundred international students and has become known as the "College of World Friendship."

* * *

Dr. Dow has administered Cottey College since 1949. During this period, seven buildings have been added to the campus. Her accomplishments in the field of education are noteworthy. She is a member of the national council and president of the Missouri chapter of the Assn. of University Professors. President of the Missouri division of the American Assn. of University Women, she was named the outstanding citizen of Nevada, Mo. in 1956 by the American Legion — the first time this honor was bestowed on a woman. She is the recipient of an honorary degree of Doctor of Science in Education from Iowa Wesleyan College, site of the founding of PEO.

* * *

Mrs. D. H. Lamb of Birmingham is chairman of the 14 club cooperative. Mrs. R. T. Hatch, also of Chapter CG was chairman of Founders' Day arrangements. Assisting her were Mrs. T. M. Mattson, reservations; Mrs. R. M. Boyd and Mrs. J. P. Englehardt, decorations; Mrs. C. A. Thomas and Mrs. C. R. Colville, program; Mrs. J. W. Keasey, music; Mrs. T. C. Morgan and Mrs. A. D. Kirk, luncheon and house arrangements; Mrs. A. F. Boucher and Chapter CY members, PEO Tribute; Mrs. J. J. Plumb, social arrangements; and Mrs. H. C. Carlson, publicity.

* * *

Music for the affair was furnished by Charlotte Baird, Mrs. Victor M. Lindquist and Mrs. George Putnam with Mrs. Martin Wager accompanying. All are members of Chapter CL.

Founders' Day chairman Mrs. R. T. Hatch of Birmingham, at left, greets PEO members arriving for luncheon at the Birmingham Community House. They are Mrs. M. K. Fell of Fairport street, Mrs. William Miller of Elizabeth Lake road and Mrs. Dalton Lamb of Birmingham.

Entertain MOMS

Mrs. Worth E. Eastman entertained 15 members of Unit No. 2, MOMS of America, Inc., at Tuesday luncheon in her home on Pinegrove avenue.

*

Mrs. Duncan McVean, who printed 2,500 names in the Soldiers' Honor Roll book given to the City of Pontiac by the unit during World War II, will resume entering names in the book. Because of this record, three soldiers received military funerals while Morgan Siple was in charge of the Veterans Administration office on Lafayette street.

At the Feb. 2 meeting with Mrs. Harry Sibley on Mathews street, each member will bring a 'school-girl lunch.'

Mrs. Edward K. Vanderlind of South Johnson avenue will hostess Zone 2, Past Presidens' Club, MOMS of America, tonight.

Exchange Students Speak

* * *

A Pontiac Central High School pupil, Miss Koprince was an exchange student to Germany last summer.

Helmut, also a pupil at Pontiac Central, is from Vienna, Austria.

After discussing home life, school and education in their respective countries, the students answered questions.

* * *

Program chairman Mrs. James Youngblood introduced Mrs. C. G. Uligian at whose home Helmut is staying while here.

* * *

Mrs. Frank Copp, Mrs. George Tremper, Mrs. Fred Hoenstine, Mrs. F. E. Bonner and Mrs. Philip J. Proud were cohostesses.

Sashayers Set Feb. 5

On Tuesday evening, the Elks Sashay Quadrille Square Dance Club squared their sets to live orchestra music.

Elwyn Hall was master of ceremonies. Callers for the evening were Oscar Denham, John DePauw, Burnell McAllister, William Schmiel and Bert Denham. Novelties were directed by Howard Bond.

* * *

Village Club Picks Junior Hostesses

By RUTH SAUNDERS

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — Junior hostesses for the February luncheon meeting of the Village Women's Club are Mrs. John W. Kausch and Mrs. Richard GeGole.

They are assisting Mrs. Felix F. Bruner with flower arrangements at Oakland Hills Country Club where the affair will take place Wednesday, Feb. 3.

Mrs. Walter A. Kleinert is general chairman. Speaker will be David Hardy, associated with a national magazine.

For the last three years, Mr. Hardy has been news analyst for NBC and has directed and produced radio programs from United Nations headquarters for listeners in foreign countries.

Chairman Mrs. Carl Metz, Mrs. Maurice Smith and Mrs. Ivor Williams are taking reservations.

Senior hostesses will be Mrs. T. W. F. Meyer, Mrs. Harry F. Klein, Mrs. Albert A. Clark and Mrs. G. W. McCormick Jr.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Peters of Summit, N. J., who formerly lived in Bloomfield Hills, are expected Saturday for a weekend visit with Mr. and Mrs. Percy K. Loud of Highmoor Way.

Among old friends who will entertain for the visitors are Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Craig.

Mrs. Loud will give a luncheon for Mrs. Peters Tuesday at Devon Gables.

* * *

The affair will be given in the Otter home, "Apple Tower," in Bloomfield Hills.

* * *

Announcement has been made of the marriage Saturday of Peggy Gail Sheldon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sheldon Jr. of Burning Bush road, and John Widman Appleford whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Alexander A. Appleford of Bradway blvd.

Peggy attended the University of New Hampshire and her fiance attends Dartmouth College.

The ceremony was read in St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Dover, N. H.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Carmel are planning a cocktail party tomorrow at their home in West Long Lake road.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Baldwin have left Pontiac for a cruise to Australia. They'll sail Feb. 14 from San Francisco on the S. S. Mariposa.

En route to the West Coast they will visit a son-in-law and daughter, the Hugo Millers, in Palm Beach, Fla., and friends in Texas.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Ben D. Mills will visit their friends the John W. Ashers in Denton, Md., on the eastern shore next weekend.

Mr. Mills will stop over in Washington D. C., before joining Mrs. Mills in Maryland.

Cystic Fibrosis Film and Talk Given Nurses

A symposium on "Cystic Fibrosis" was presented to the Oakland County District Nurses' Assn. Tuesday evening in William Beaumont Hospital.

The film produced by the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation presented the medical aspects of the disease, including symptoms, diagnosis, treatment, and the emotional impact on the family.

* * *

Dr. Robert Gregg, director of the Medical Out-patient Clinic at Children's Hospital, Detroit, pointed out that with early diagnosis and treatment, 50 to 60 per cent of children afflicted should reach adolescence.

Mrs. Arthur Pohutsky, mother of a seven-year-old child with the disease, told of benefits to the lay group through the Detroit Metropolitan chapter of the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation.

PTA to Hear Dr. Proud

Dr. Philip J. Proud will speak concerning "A Study of Pontiac Schools" at a meeting of Bethune School PTA tonight at 7 at the school.

Young People Plan Dance

Area young people (college students and high school alumni) have been invited to attend a "Dancing in Modern" program from 9 to 1 a.m. Saturday at Oakland County Sportsmen's Club. A local band will play.

Tickets are available by calling Irving LaDuke, sponsor for the semiformal dance for 18-year-olds and over. Refreshments will be served.

Pontiac Area Folk Find Their 'Fun in Sun' Valley

The shimmering slopes of Sun Valley, Idaho, attracted a number of ski enthusiasts from the Pontiac area this past week. Local couples pictured at the ski school above are, from left, the junior Louis H. Coles of Old Orchard drive (Mr. Cole's sister, Mrs. Virginia Newcomb of La Canada, Calif., is the first skier at left); Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Benson Jr. of Old Orchard drive; and Mr. and Mrs. George Richman of Ottawa drive. Accompanying this group were former Pontiac residents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Miller, now of Okemos, pictured at right. Mr. Miller's parents are the F. H. Millers of Chippewa road and Mrs. Miller is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Thomas of Florida, formerly of Birmingham.

South County Unit Meets

Speaks at Scout Confab

Mrs. A. Hilliard Williams of Royal Oak was guest speaker at the semiannual council meeting of the Southern Oakland Girl Scouts Tuesday afternoon at Birmingham Community House.

Her topic was "Today's Girl Scout World."

* * *

Mrs. Williams, a former president of the council, is a member of the national organization's Board of Directors and is chairman of the four-state Great Lakes Region.

In addition to her girl scouting, Mrs. Williams has served as secretary of the Royal Oak Board of Education the past eight years.

She is a director of the Oakland Child Guidance Clinic and the Oakland County Special Education, Advisory Committee.

* * *

A graduate of the University of Michigan, she is a former teacher and principal and is active with the American Assn. of University Women and the Women's Committee of the United Community Services of Metropolitan Detroit.

WILLIAM MacGOWAN

All Saints Will Feature Organ Recital Monday

William MacGowan, recital organist of the Old North Church (Christ Episcopal) in Boston, Mass., will present an organ recital at 8 p. m. Monday in All Saints Episcopal Church.

Director of music and organist at the Maple Street Congregational Church of Denvers, Mass., he is also harpsichordist of the Boston Chamber Players.

A former student at National Music Camp, Interlochen, Mr. MacGowan holds the degree of Master of Music in organ from the University of Michigan. Organ teachers include Palmer Christian, Robert Baker and Robert Noehren.

* * *

At the annual Midwinter Conclave of the American Guild of Organists in New York City in December, he had the honor of being the opening recitalist.

This year he is scheduled to play in North Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Indiana, South Dakota, Michigan and Massachusetts.

Moose Women Hear Future Activity Plans

Twenty-two members attended Monday's meeting of Pontiac Chapter 360 Women of the Moose at the Moose Hall.

The College of Regents will sponsor a Valentine dance Feb. 13 at Moose Hall, with proceeds tagged for the House of God at Mooseheart.

A ritual practice is scheduled for 8:30 p.m. Thursday, and a friendship meeting at Moose Hall on Wednesday.

On Sunday, Jan 31, the chapter will attend the Midwinter Conference of Women of the Moose in Flint.

Auxiliary to Dine With Husbands

Members of the Oakland County Osteopathic Auxiliary and their husbands will meet for dinner this evening at Rosemond Hills Country Club.

Following the business meeting they will see films of the recent European trip of Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Brown of Oxford.

Appoints Attendants

* * *

Return From Honeymoon in Northern Michigan

Returned to their Pontiac home following a northern Michigan honeymoon are Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wilmert Welch (nee Betty Bonacci). Their nuptials were solemnized by the Rev. Lewis M. Ellis at high noon Saturday in St. Patrick Church, White Lake.

* * *

Parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. John Bonacci, of Elizabeth Lake road, were hosts at the reception in the VFW hall, Keego Harbor. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Linden Munro of Walled Lake and Russell Welch of Marquette.

The bouffant bridal gown of white peau de soie swept into a circular train. Alencon lace, re-embroidered with seed pearls, set into the skirt below the Empire waistline, was repeated along the Sabrina neckline.

Lloyd Munro stood as best man for his stepbrother. Ushers were Don Munro and Paul Aubry. All are of Walled Lake.

MRS. WARREN W. WELCH

Wear Gloves for Driving

(NEA)—Perspiring palms on the steering wheel are uncomfortable and also unsafe, since a sliding grip in an emergency could be fatal.

One way to keep your hands both clean and comfortable is to wear string driving gloves. These come with leather palms and are completely washable.

Women Form Group to Push Desegregation

NEW YORK (UPI)—Seventeen national women's groups claiming a total membership of 14 million have opened a campaign against segregation in public schools.

The women's religious, racial, civic, labor and service groups has announced establishment of the National Organizations of Women for Equality in Education (NOW).

* * *

Mrs. Thelma Richman of Philadelphia, president of the women's division of the American Jewish Congress and chairman of the NOW planning committee, said the organization will hold a conference in Washington Feb. 17 with Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt as chairman and principal speaker.

* * *

Mrs. Richman said more than 1,000 women were expected to attend the conference to "hammer out a preliminary approach to the problem" of school desegregation.

Maybe Other Women Envy You Your Skill

By RUTH MILLETT

Don't let other women give you an inferiority complex, because so many of them seem to excel at things that you haven't the time, the talent, or the nerve to tackle.

When you give the matter a little thought you'll discover that:

* * *

Mrs. B., who is such a perfect housekeeper, directs most of her energy toward keeping a perfect-looking house, and often the house comes before anything or anybody else. So if her children seem to find your home a more pleasant place to be than their own, why wish you were as good a housekeeper as she?

Mrs. A., who always has time to head committees and shine as a clubwoman, may be "do-gooding" at the expense of her own children.

So why wish for her executive ability, if you spend the time she spends in meetings on making a good home, and being a good wife and mother?

Mrs. C., who is such a marvelous hostess and who entertains so beautifully, may be a social success because she doesn't spend any time on the little kindnesses that nobody ever hears about—such as taking a shut-in for a ride, keeping a neighbor's children when the mother is ill, or working a day a week as a hospital aide.

If you find time for such "little" things why should you envy a woman who puts all of her energies into keeping up a busy social life?

Mrs. E., who has a good job may seem like a whiz, but something has to give when a woman is trying to handle two full-time jobs at once, and usually it is not the job that is neglected but the family.

So why should a woman who is giving her best to the job of home-making envy the working wife who is giving her best to her paying job?

Each woman decides for herself how she can spend her time and energy and women who excel at one thing often do so at the neglect of something else.

So don't envy other women for skills and achievements you feel you lack. Chances are you have a few of your own that they don't have.

Think Being Only Child Is a Detriment

Majority of Teens Want 3 or 4 Children

By EUGENE GILBERT

Teen-agers of today—the parents of tomorrow—expect to have larger families than their own parents.

Though they have occasional, or even frequent, spats, they believe brothers and sisters are a boon, that jealousy is infrequent, and that being an only child is a detriment.

They feel this way even though most prefer the privacy of their own rooms at home.

This is their answer to prophets of doom who predict that in these troubled times, the family—backbone of our modern society — is in danger of extinction.

We questioned 697 American teen-agers about their families, and the families they intended to have.

We learned this, first of all: The average family of today (43 per cent of the youngsters fitted into this category) has two children, as many having a boy and a girl as there are those with both children of the same sex.

Only 10 per cent of the families have an only child, while 26 per cent have three children, 7 per cent have four children, 3 per cent five children, 2 per cent six children and 4 per cent more than six.

The two largest families we found have 11 children each.

By contrasts, the average family of tomorrow will have four children if the girls have their way, and three if the boys make the decisions.

GIRLS WANT LOTS

The girls are definitely more in favor of large families than the expense-minded boys.

While 23 per cent of the girls favored four children, 13 per cent said they would like to have five, 7 per cent were in favor of six and 4 per cent said they want more than six.

All of the youngsters, girls and boys, have reasons for the size families they have chosen.

"I feel a fairly large family is usually very happy," says 15-year-old Jacquie Davis of Detroit, who wants three or four. "I enjoy children."

Elaine Beaudoin, 15, of Hartford, says she wants six or eight "because I was an only child and I think you have a lot of fun with numb kids in the house."

"Three," says Larry Kendrick, 17, of Griffin, Ga. "I don't think it will be so very hard to support this number."

PREFER MIXED FAMILIES

Eighty-two per cent of the teen-agers want their families to be mixed, rather than all boys or all girls.

Coming back to the present, which without question influences the youngsters' plans for the future, we asked whether they thought there was more of an advantage to having brothers and sisters or being an only child.

More than 88 per cent said they preferred brothers and sisters.

Of the 13 per cent who would rather be an only child, four out of five were boys.

"When you are the only child," says 15-year-old Dick Gimlin of Buffalo, N. Y., who happens to be an only child, "you have more attention." Eldridge Downes, 16, of Haddonfield, N. J., feels that "being an only child helps you to acquire more things."

★ ★ ★

"If you have brothers and sisters," says 17-year-old Elaine Bense of St. Louis, "you learn to get along with people and to watch out for other people's interests."

But do the teen-agers always get along with their brothers and sisters? Do they fight?

"Never," says 5 per cent. "Rarely," replies 45 per cent. "Quite often admits 41 per cent. The other 9 per cent didn't answer.

Many of the 5 per cent who never fight admit this is so because, as Nancy Jeffers, 15, of Chicago, put it: "My brother is away at school and I hardly ever see him."

Others say they fought more when they were younger. "We don't fight any more because we are both older now and know that it doesn't help," says Sally Hughes, 16, of Los Angeles.

While most of the youngsters are willing to share their possessions, they prefer not share their rooms. Seventy-seven say they like to have their own room. Privacy is the paramount reason.

JEALOUS? HARDLY EVER

On the other hand, companionship was the main argument in favor of sharing a room. "When we are busy," says 17-year-old Elisabeth Mitchell of Hampton, Ga., "the only time we see each other is when we are in our room. We enjoy each other's company and like to talk."

Our last question called for some soul-searching on the part of the teen-agers. We asked: "Do you think you are jealous of each other?"

Only 15 per cent admit to feelings of jealousy.

Rhoda Wain, 14, of Detroit, also acknowledges jealous feelings because "your mind exaggerates everything."

But the majority say they are not jealous.

Jane Manning, 16, of Clarks Summit, Pa., feels her family has achieved an ideal relationship. "We feel that an equal amount of affection is given to each," she says, "and that whenever one gets something special, the others receive something else."

Other Girl Makes the Difference

By EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: My husband, who is in his late thirties, will be going to another city for two days very shortly on business. His youngest sister (early twenties) who shares an apartment with another girl in this city has asked my husband to stay at their apartment using the living room sofa, rather than go to a hotel. I think this would be most improper.

★ ★ ★

Answer: Because of the other young woman your husband should not accept his sister's invitation. He should take a room at a hotel.

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. Post: The invitations to my wedding were sent out about 10 days ago with printed reply cards to insure an answer. I have noticed that on several of the cards that have been returned, some of the married couples have taken the liberty of including their children even though the invitations were addressed to Mr. and Mrs. alone. I had not counted on these "extras." Is there anything I can do about this?

★ ★ ★

Answer: There will surely be very few couples who will assume that their children are invited and bring them, and I think it will be wiser to make the effort and prepare for these extras rather than risk offending their parents by telling them they can't bring their children to your wedding.

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. Post: My nephew is soon to be married and he and his prospective bride would like very much to have his mother, a professional lyric soprano sing at their wedding. Do you think this would be in good taste?

★ ★ ★

Answer: If his mother is willing to sing, there is certainly no reason why she may not.

Dear Mrs. Post: I would very much like to have you settle a discussion in regard to the correct way to eat soup. Is it spooned away from one or toward one?

★ ★ ★

Answer: Away from one.

Presence, Not Presents, Says Abby

Let Dad Know He's Needed at Home, Son

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a 14-year-old boy with a big problem, I can't talk to my Dad because he is my problem.

I am pretty good at sports and made the baseball team last spring, and this year I made the football team at school. All the other boys have their Dads come to watch them play. My Dad has never once seen me play. He has the kind of job that takes him out of town better than half the time. He says he is working for his family but, Abby, we would rather have him home and making less money than have him gone so much.

How can I make him understand that I would just as soon have one pair of shoes and a second-hand suit if only he would stay home and be a Dad like other boys' Dads?

FATHERLESS

DEAR FATHERLESS: Dads aren't mind-readers. Tell him how you feel. Dads who travel for a living are frequently able to arrange their schedules so that they can be at home for "special events." Perhaps if you talked this over with your mother she could help you convince your Dad that his "presence" at home NOW is more important than his "presents" later.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I have a brother-in-law who is so ignorant it isn't even funny. He signed all their Christmas cards, "JOE AND MARGARET." Shouldn't the lady's name always come first?

CURIOUS

DEAR CURIOUS: Not necessarily. It is correct to address letters "MR. AND MRS. BLANK." So why not sign a card, "JOE AND MARGARET?"

* * *

DEAR ABBY: There should be eleven Commandments. The eleventh being: "No man shall take his wife to live next to his mother." I always thought talk about mothers-in-law was a lot of foolishness, but I learned better after living next door to mine for a year.

She is very nosy and tries to find out things that don't concern her (from my husband) when I'm not around. She carries tales from one daughter-in-law to another and when she has us all fighting she says what a pity it is that we can't get along. She has said things about others in the family while I kept my lip buttoned and then she said I said these things. Do I have a right to tell my husband that either WE move or I move without him?

FED UP

DEAR FED: You have. With a mother-in-law like yours, "distance lends enchantment."

* * *

CONFIDENTIAL TO OLIVE AT THE TELEPHONE COMPANY: Most women who try too hard to bring out the "beast" in a man discover the "beast" is a skunk.

* * *

You'll Keep a Cool Head

Hair-Dryers to Bake You Faster

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI) — The half-baked look we women get from the hair-dryer is cooked.

Soon we will be devoting no more than a comfortable 10 minutes instead of 30 to 40 leafing through old issues of movie and fashion magazines.

The promise of cooler heads comes from Leon Amendola, who as director of a New York school of advanced hair design, keeps up with the newest in hair-dressing developments.

"Within six months, drying will be no more than a 10-minute process," said the hairdresser. These improvements are not in the talking stage. They are here. I predict that in the next two years, we will see the greatest improvement yet in the technique of hair-dressing."

* * *

He explained that improvements will be both chemical, as in the case of bleaching, dyeing and permanenting, and mechanical. Dryers will operate electronically, "baking" us without our noggins feeling the heat, much the same way electronic ovens cook food without heating the utensil. The electronic waves will bounce against the head and bounce off again, drying as they go.

Amendola, a brisk articulate man with a beard to compete with Commander Whitehead's, is a New Yorker of Italian descent. He began a career in painting and sculpture, which he studied in New York and Italy, but got into hair-dressing because friends advised it was a wide open field.

Through his second career, he also met his wife — a former director of make-up and fitness for a cosmetics concern. The couple has two children, a girl going on three and a boy three months old.

* * *

Amendola figures that in the 25 years he's been teaching, he has trained 40,000 stylists — the school he now directs draws from all over the world and gives lessons to 5,000 a year.

I sat in on one of Amendola's classes as he demonstrated to some 40 "pupils" the technique of setting for a French twist. "A poor hairdresser is one who is satisfied," said the 44-year-old Amendola. "The good ones go back to school."

Later in an interview he talked of other hair news. The Marcel wave — a heat method for curling used when Amendola started — is coming back "because it is fast".

Also set for revival: the shingle bob, but modernized and "in no way a duplicate of the 1920's.

"The old shingle was squared off," he said. "Women's heads looked like Japanese tea gardens. This time as we take the hair off the neck, it'll be a gentle shaping. No shearing, to make a woman look like a truck driver.

He foresaw an era of "small heads" — hair clinging closer to the scalp, and no longer puffy as a meringue. More of an over-all cap shape, he said, with the length remaining above the collar line. And, wispy strands scattered across the brow.

"This type of bang brings attention to the eyes, the most beautiful feature in a woman's face," he said.

I asked Amendola if he had any "do's" and "don'ts" to suggest to women.

"Yes," he said, "don't be afraid of your hairdresser.

"And don't go to him asking for a style to disguise a big nose.

Socialite Heads Organization Promoting Better Taste

NEW YORK (UPI) — One woman's conviction that bad taste in America must go and good taste must grow has spurred the foundation of a new national organization.

It is the American Institute of Approved, Inc., a nonprofit and noncommercial project to "maintain and heighten standards of good taste . . ."

Its founder is Lady Malcolm Douglas-Hamilton, Boston socialite who perhaps is best known for the "Bundles for Britain" project which she established in 1939 to help our World War II ally.

The institute has a rotating panel of 75 American women leaders in social, charitable, civic, professional and cultural circles, who "as wife of the president and editor-in-chief of the Louisville Courier-Journal and Times; Mrs. John Sherman Cooper, wife of the Kentucky senator; socially prominent Mrs. Searle Whitney of New York; Mrs. Grayson Kirk, wife of the president of Columbia University; and Mrs. Earl E. T. Smith, former model, fashion designer and wife of the former ambassador to Cuba.

The institute will attempt to upgrade the taste rating of products where women traditionally have a voice in buying — prefab houses, furniture, cars, china, appliances, to name a few.

How about women's fashions?

"Well," said Lady Douglas-Hamilton, "we thought we'd like to get established with things for the home. But if a clothing manufacturer comes to us, why of course . . ."

Any industry which consults the panel will pay a "normal fee," based on gross income "because we want to get small as well as big business consulting us." The fees will go to maintenance of an administrative staff, and panelists will receive a $100 honorarium for serving.

Periodically, the institute will present an "Award of Approval" for products and designs it has reviewed.

"I want to stress that ours will be an honest approval," she said. "Awards so often get commercial. Ours won't ever be bought."

"What is good taste?" I asked her.

"I knew you'd bring that up," she smiled. "It is indefinable . . . intangible. Like trying to say what is a good man. But to me, good taste represents the instinct of fitness of things. It is knowing what is appropriate and suitable for the time and place.

"There are thousands of women in America today with what I call good taste. And any of them could have served on the panel; the ones chosen just happened to be women I know.

JUST A CAUSER

The institute's director will serve without pay—"I'm just a causer," said the attractive, dark-haired woman who since World War II also has worked to further NATO, founded the "Common Cause," an organization to fight communism, and now is active in "Friends for Haiti," which is working for the economic rehabilitation of that caribbean island.

I asked Natalie Douglas-Hamilton why there were no men on the panel. Was it because she thought men had poor taste?

"Oh heavens no," she said. "We started with women because we were aiming for the woman customer. But everybody else is asking the same thing, so our board plans to let the men be heard, too."

It Takes Longer, Though

Hips CAN Be Reduced

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

This week I am giving you two of my favorite exercises for each of the most usual figure faults. I have found that the abdominal and waist measurements respond to specialized exercise more readily than the hip measurement. However if a large hipline is your problem, do not despair! It just takes a little longer.

For the lower hipline the following is an extremely effective exercise. Sit on the floor with your legs straight. Place your hands on the floor at your sides and a little back. Now lean on your hands as you lift both legs up until your body weight falls over the largest part of your hips.

Lift the left hand from the floor and roll onto your right hip, catching yourself with BOTH hands. Now roll over onto the left hip, catching yourself with both hands.

The manner in which you do this exercise is most important. It is often executed in a smooth way which does little good. Two hands are better than one because you can give yourself a better pushoff for the roll onto the other side. Your legs must remain straight throughout the exercise.

Your feet should remain over the same spot on the floor. Lift your legs and turn your feet in the direction of the roll but do not swing your legs from side to side. This gives the exercise a choppy motion.

For the upper hips. Lie on the floor with your legs straight and your arms resting on the floor, extending straight out from each side. Bend both knees up close to your abdomen. Keep the knees in this position as you roll from side to side.

If you missed my 8-Week Self-Improvement Marathon and would like to join, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for the Marathon booklet.

If you would like to have my exercise routine for hip-slimming send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 3. Address Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Record Turkey Crop

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Agriculture Department has forecast a record 1960 crop of 85,234,000 turkeys, six per cent more than last year.

The prediction was based on reports of growers' plans for the season.

CONGRESSMAN'S SON ENLISTS — Alvin Bentley Jr. of Owosso, son of Rep. Bentley (R-Mich), is sworn into the Coast Guard, Tuesday, by Chief Boatswain's Mate Donald W. Pyle. He enlisted for four years, and will go to Cape May, N. J., for training.

Williams Sees No Nomination

He's Not a Candidate; Will Work for Strong, Liberal Platform

DETROIT (AP) — Gov. G. Mennen Williams would accept either first or second place on the 1960 Democratic presidential ticket, but he said today he does not think there is much chance of getting either nomination.

Williams appeared on Dave Garroway's Today television show, taped here yesterday.

Asked specifically if he were going to run for president, Williams replied that he wasn't a candidate, and added:

"I am interested in the Democratic Party's building as strong, liberal and forward-looking a platform as possible, and I think I can possibly be of help in that."

On the possibility he may run for a seventh consecutive two-year term as governor, Williams said:

"I am still thinking about this problem and have not reached a decision."

Williams took exception to an introductory remark referring to Michigan as "a bankrupt state." He said the state's assets exceed its obligations and that currently the state is paying its day to day obligations.

Little Old Widow Set to Retire as a Teamster

LANSING (AP)— Mrs. Gladys Clark, a 41-year-old widow, is four feet, eight inches tall and weighs 114 pounds.

You wouldn't think of her as the typical Teamsters Union member.

* * *

But Mrs. Clark has been a steward for most of the 13 years she's worked for the Teamster-organized Banner Linen Service in Lansing. She's also a member of the bargaining committee.

Mrs. Clark is also noted as the first "lady Teamster" in Michigan approved for retirement under the union's new pension set-up.

* * *

Twenty years of Teamster employment are needed to qualify. Employment at a Columbus, Ohio, creamery from 1930 to 1939 gave the slight, gray-haired widow the rest of her pension credits.

Quits as City Manager

DURAND (AP) — Boyd Benedict, 34, announced his resignation as city manager here Thursday to accept an appointment as administrative assistant to Lt. Gov. John Swainson. He had served in the managerial post for the past four years. The city council will meet tonight to consider a successor.

Remedies for Lunch Box Slump

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Have you hit the lunch box slump? Here it is, almost the end of the first semester of school, and you're facing another four to five months of daily lunches for your school children. If the man of the house carries his lunch, you have a year-round job.

We were a little amused by the mother in Detroit who protested her son's being barred from the school lunch room. She was sure his health would suffer from the cold lunches he would have to carry.

Why cold lunches? Anyone can buy a vacuum bottle at the nearest store. Canned soups, hot cocoa or more elaborate hot foods can go to school in that bottle.

If you and your family are tired of the soups you always eat, make up some new combinations. One day fill the vacuum bottles with cream of chicken and cream of celery soups. Tomato and green pea are another good mixture. Let the youngsters decide on their own combinations.

Send eggs in hard-cooked form, deviled in egg salad or in an egg-nog. Considering the low price of chicken these days, a drumstick or chicken breast is as cheap a lunch main course as you can buy. Plain bread and butter sandwiches with some crisp lettuce in a plastic bag should go along.

Finger food such as pickles, celery and carrot sticks, radishes and olives can substitute for salad. Regular mixed salads can go in a tightly closed plastic container. If the sandwiches you send come out of the freezer, they'll keep the salad cold as they thaw.

Peanut-Butter Honey Sandwich

¼ cup peanut butter
¼ cup honey
2 tablespoons chopped dried apricots
Butter or margarine

Combine peanut butter and honey, mixing until well blended. Add chopped apricots and mix well. Spread bread with butter or margarine. Spread peanut butter-honey mixture on 4 slices bread. Cover with remaining bread slices. Makes 4 sandwiches.

* * *

Hawaiian Ham Sandwich

8 slices enriched bread
Butter or margarine
½ cup ground cooked ham
¼ cup drained crushed pineapple
1 tablespoon brown sugar
½ teaspoon ground cloves

* * *

Spread bread with butter or margarine. Blend together ham, pineapple, brown sugar and cloves. Spread ham filling on 4 slices bread. Cover with remaining bread slices. Makes 4 sandwiches.

* * *

Minted Lamb Sandwiches
(Makes 4 sandwiches)

8 slices cooked leg or shoulder of lamb (about ¼-inch thick)
8 slices bread, buttered
¼ cup mint jelly
¼ cup chopped parsley

Arrange lamb on 4 slices bread. Spread with mint jelly and sprinkle with parsley. Top with remaining bread slices. Makes 4 sandwiches.

* * *

For that something sweet that every child (and adult too) looks forward to, tuck in several cookies made with orange juice.

Orange Crackles

3 tablespoons (¼ lb.) butter or margarine
2 cups all-purpose flour
½ cup thawed frozen orange juice (undiluted)
1 cup sugar
½ teaspoon baking soda
Glazed fruit for garnish

Place butter or margarine over low heat until melted. Cool slightly then blend with sugar. Add frozen orange juice, undiluted, and mix well. Sift flour with baking soda and add gradually to orange mixture. Knead on breadboard until dough is blended.

Roll out ⅛" thick. Cut into rounds with 2" cookie cutter. Place on greased cookie sheets and garnish with glazed fruits (optional). Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) 10-12 minutes until golden brown. Place on cooling rack immediately. Approximately 4½ to 5 dozen cookies.

Statistics show that in 42 per cent of all homes someone carries a lunch to work or school at least every other day of the week. That puts a big job on you homemakers, doesn't it?

LUNCH BOX VARIETY — This different lunch box picture shows just some of the foods you can keep on hand to put in the away-from-home lunches your family eats. Starting with the soup, going clockwise, you see a radish, shrimp, chicken, an egg, sausage, lettuce and tomatoes, mixed delishes, fruit, olives, cake, candy, cheese and crackers. Do you have such supplies on your shelves?

MSU Issues Call for Old Cookbooks

EAST LANSING (AP)—Michigan State University has issued a call for old cookbooks dating back to before 1900.

Donations are needed, the MSU Library explained, to expand a collection of rare cookbooks given by Mrs. Mary R. Reynolds, an alumnae and former women's editor of a farm magazine.

The 328 cookbooks given by Mrs. Reynolds include 106 not found in the nation's largest such collection housed in the Library of Congress, MSU librarians said.

If you like your baked potato skins soft, rub them with a little butter or margarine before putting them in the oven.

Peanut Butter Often Finds New Quarters

At a buffet party recently at the Lotus Club in New York there were several very good dishes using peanuts or peanut butter.

Here are some of the buffet recipes:

Peanut Butter Meat Balls

½ cup peanut butter (smooth or crunchy)
½ pound ground beef
½ cup fine, dry, cracker crumbs OR 3 tablespoons instant cereal meal
1 tablespoon onion, grated
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
Fat, shallow

1 tablespoon peanut oil

Mix peanut butter lightly with beef, onion, chili sauce, salt, pepper and egg. Form into 3 dozen small meat balls. Fry in hot peanut oil, turning to brown on all sides. Serve hot with toothpicks.

Peanut Butter-Bacon Spread

4 slices bacon
½ cup peanut butter (smooth or crunchy)
½ cup finely chopped dill pickle
2 tablespoons dill pickle juice
¼ teaspoon salt
Dash hot pepper sauce

Cook bacon until crisp. Drain on paper towels. Crumble into small pieces. Mix with peanut butter, dill pickles, juice and seasoning. Serve on crackers. Makes about 1 cup.

Deviled Peanut Spread

½ cup peanut butter (smooth or crunchy)
1 4½-ounce can deviled ham
½ teaspoon celery salt

Mix all ingredients lightly. Serve on crackers. Makes about 2-3 cup.

Spicy Vinegar Marinates Beef for Sauerbraten

Sauerbraten may become a naturalized citizen before long, for it has taken out its first citizenship papers through popular demand. The smooth, juicy fruit surrounding this tantalizing roast literally had its roots in European soil too, for pears were a treasured fruit of the Continent until they flourished in American soil and became a fruit that could be enjoyed by everyone.

German food is substantial and world renowned, and has had a marked effect on the eating habits of our own country. The venerable hot dog and hamburger were imported from Germany to reign as undisputed monarchs of the short order and drive-in restaurant trade.

German Sauerbraten is beef, marinated for several days in a spicy vinegar mixture. This marinade has a dual purpose in its brief association with the beef, for it flavors the meat and tenderizes the most valiant roast to a fork cutting tenderness. The pungent gravy is served over crisp potato pancakes; or potato balls (Kartoffel Klosse) makes this even more of a traditional combination.

To serve with this tantalizing entree, canned Bartlett pears may be presented as they come from the can, chilled and accompanied by a mellow sliver or slice of Cheddar cheese; or perhaps enhanced with a very light spicing.

LIGHTLY SPICED PEARS

1 can (No. 2½) Bartlett pear halves
2 pieces cinnamon sticks
1 teaspoon whole cloves
¼ cup white vinegar

Drain syrup from pears. Add spices and vinegar; heat to boiling. Pour over pears; chill overnight. Serve with Sauerbraten.

OLD COUNTRY SAUERBRATEN

2 cups vinegar
2 cups water
2 bay leaves
10 peppercorns
5 teaspoons whole cloves
1 medium-sized onion, sliced
6 pounds pot roast
Seasoned flour
2 tablespoons shortening

Combine vinegar, water, bay leaves, peppercorns, cloves and sliced onion; bring to boiling. Place meat in large bowl; pour hot mixture over meat; cover bowl and marinate for 2 days in refrigerator, turning meat several times.

Remove meat; drain; rub well with seasoned flour; brown on all sides in hot fat. Add marinade liquid to depth of ½ inch; cover tightly. Bring to boiling; reduce heat; simmer 2-3 hours.

To make gravy, skim off any excess fat; measure remaining liquid, add water if necessary to make 2 cups. Stir in 1 tablespoon sugar, ½ teaspoon salt, 6 tablespoons gingersnap crumbs; cook over low heat, stirring, until gravy thickens.

PEARS AND SAUERBRATEN — Sauerbraten is a wonderful spicy meat dish that came to this country with the German immigrants. Here you see it garnished with chilled spiced pears.

Smoked Fish Can Be Creamed, Too

Creamed Smoked Fish

1 pound boneless smoked fish fillets
3 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
⅛ teaspoon white pepper
2 cups boiling water
¼ cup nonfat dry milk solids
2 tablespoons minced parsley
2 hard-cooked eggs

Cover fish with water; bring to simmering; simmer 15 minutes; drain and flake. Melt butter in a medium saucepan over low heat; stir in flour and pepper. Gradually add boiling water, stirring constantly until smooth; remove from heat.

Sprinkle dry milk solids over mixture; whisk until smooth. Return to low heat; cook and stir constantly until thickened. Add fish flakes and parsley with 1 egg chopped; reheat. Slice remaining egg and use as garnish for fish. Makes 4 servings.

One Hour Will Do Whole Job

The Hot Pot has been a popular English dish for many a decade. The addition of kraut and frankfurters gives it an American touch, with a popular tang. Here is an easy recipe. Serve it with tiny brown-and-serve rolls, and a salad of orange wedges and crisp pieces of apple.

Kraut and Frankfurter Hot Pot

2 cups sauerkraut, drained
1 10½-ounce can condensed cream of celery soup
½ cup milk
1 teaspoon celery salt
½ teaspoon chili powder
½ teaspoon pepper
1½ cups cooked peas
1 pound can sliced carrots, drained
1 cup chopped canned pimientos
1 pound frankfurters, sliced

Combine kraut, soup, milk, celery salt, chili powder, pepper, peas, carrots and pimientos; mix well. Turn into greased 2½-quart shallow baking dish. Add frankfurter slices. If desired, top with pastry strips. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees) 25-30 minutes, or until thoroughly heated. Serves 6.

Best Oranges Are Smooth and Heavy

In selecting oranges, remember that the rougher the skin, the thicker it is, says Josephine Lawyer, Consumer Marketing Information Agent for Oakland County.

A smooth, lightly pored skin indicates a thin skin and higher proportion of juice. The size of an orange has no relation to its quality, but its weight does. The most-for-your-money orange is heavy for its size.

On some oranges you'll notice russeting; these are often the best value. Russeting does not penetrate below the outer rind, but, since many homemakers choose only those with clear color, these are frequently marked down.

"Color Added" is permissible under Federal food regulations, only when oranges are fully ripe. Some varieties have a natural green tinge when fully ripe. Since many homemakers expect ripe oranges to have a good orange color, it is necessary to add perfectly harmless color to these varieties.

Creamy Chipped Beef Tops Herb French Toast

Your brunch hostess with a flair for surprises serves Herb French Toast With Creamed Chipped Beef. Her method is simple: Season a French toast egg-milk mixture with caraway seeds, rosemary, and salt. Dip French bread strips (3 of equal size cut from each 1-inch bread slice) into the mixture and brown on both sides in a hot, well-greased skillet. Top with creamed chipped beef (may be made the night before and reheated) and serve immediately.

LEMON FLUFF PUDDING—You can watch your waistline grow smaller after holiday splurging if you include some low calorie desserts in your menus. This lemon Fluff pudding has applesauce in it and as the pink topping. You'll find it hard to believe it's diet fare.

Creamy Pink Top Dessert Kept Low in Calories

One of the bugaboos of post-holiday dieting is the sense of austerity which accompanies the dessert-eliminating diets. Somehow, this not only seems to take all the fun out of dieting, but makes one highly susceptible to "sneaky snacking." If a diet can include some of the tastier snacks, or low-calorie desserts it (and the dieter) has a much better chance of being successful.

With an eye to keeping some of the glamour in post-holiday diet menus, try, both for snacking and low-calorie dishes the refreshing and slimming apple. With the Washington Delicious — both Red and Golden—a perfect eating apple you can assuage your between-meal or late evening hunger with only 80 calories per apple.

The fruit acids found in the apple will balance of the heavier portions of your diet and because the apple pulp is filling you will have a satisfied feeling on very low calories. Both the mentioned Washington varieties, Golden and Red Delicious—are also excellent for salads, and the former is a "good cooker" too.

If you find raw apples difficult to tolerate then prepare a basic apple sauce leaving the skin on the apples (for full vitamin retention) using a low calorie sweetener in place of sugar. Use a dish of sauce as a low-calorie snack or serve it with meals or as a dessert. A superb cooking variety on the market now is the Washington Winesap. It has a pungent and tart flavor, and is excellent for sauce. This variety is used for the pink applesauce which festoons the low-calorie Lemon Fluff Pudding. This will be one of those dishes, which once prepared, will become a low-calorie favorite in your household.

Lemon Fluff Pudding

Basic Applesauce:
8 apples, cored and sliced (Golden Delicious, Winesap, Romes, Newtons)
½ cup water
Dash salt

Simmer apples in water until mushy. Add more water during cooking if necessary, so apples won't stick to pan. Put through sieve.

Pudding:
1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin
½ cup unsweetened applesauce
1 tablespoon liquid sweetener
2 eggs, separated
1 teaspoon shredded lemon peel
4 tablespoons lemon juice
4 tablespoons non-fat dry milk solids
4 tablespoons ice water

Sauce:
1½ cups unsweetened applesauce
Liquid sweetener
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
Red food coloring

Soften gelatin in applesauce. In saucepan, beat egg yolks, add sweetener, lemon peel and juice. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens. Remove from heat and stir in softened gelatin. Cool.

Beat egg whites until they form soft peaks, fold into gelatin mixture. Combine dry milk solids and ice water. Beat to consistency of whipped cream; fold into gelatin mixture. Chill thoroughly.

To the 1 2/3 cups applesauce add liquid sweetener as desired. Stir in cinnamon and tint with red food coloring to an appetizing pink. Serve pudding spooned into footed glasses and top with pink applesauce. Serves 8.

Pineapple Applesauce Frozen Into Relish

Something for dessert — or even a relish — is frozen apple sauce. Home economists at Michigan State University give the ingredients as one quart of apple sauce, one cup of crushed pineapple and two tablespoons of finely-cut, candied ginger. Mix ingredients together thoroughly and freeze in the refrigerator tray.

STICK MAN — To make the stick man, cut eyes, nose, and mouth of carrot slices and place on a broiled meat patty at the top of the plate. Use traditional frozen French fries, or the new crinkle cut style with the scalloped look, and lay potatoes out as usual, flat on a cookie sheet, to crisp and brown for 15-20 minutes in a 425-450 degree oven. When they're just the golden-brown color you prefer, fashion French fries into body, arms, and legs below the meat patty head on the plate. Two layers of three potato strips side by side make the body, and single strips form arms, legs, and feet. Carrot curls or celery sticks till the little figure's hands.

Gypsy Rose Lee Has Unsuspected Talents

CHICAGO (UPI) — Ex-stripper, turned-author Gypsy Rose Lee can cook, too. She's writing a cook-book to prove it. Already three years in the making, the book may take even more time, Gypsy said. She's testing all recipes several times.

"It's put seven pounds on me this year alone," she said.

* * *

"I'm writing a cookbook because cooking is one of the two things at which I'm a natural," she added. Her other talent? "Quilting," she said.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Cream pickle eggs make a high-protein salad. For 6 servigs halve 5 hard-cooked eggs and remove yolks. Combine yolks with one-third cup of sweet pickle relish, drained, 1 cup of sour cream, and salt and pepper to taste. Mix well.

Fill egg whites with yolk mixture, sprinkle with paprika and serve on a bed of lettuce.

Baked Shrimp Get West Indies Touch

This season in the sunny clime of the balmy Bahamas, the Royal Victoria, Nassau's landmark hotel, is celebrating its Centennial Year.

This First Lady of Nassau resorts was completed in the early days of the Civil War. If you'll turn back the clock a hundred years for a moment, and peek through the century glass, you'll discover that among its first patrons were the dashing men in gray of the Confederate Army; the daring blockade runners; and representatives of many English cotton firms whose business was to get cotton at any price for the Lancashire mills.

Then, as now, it was the scene of many gay parties—the center of revels and excitement which prevailed in Nassau in those delirious days, when gold eagles and twenty dollar gold pieces were flung to young scramblers in the front court, instead of pennies.

Here is one of the popular dishes, with a continental and Bahamian flair, which is being featured on the Royal Victoria's menu. It is easy to make and you can enjoy it right at home too.

Bahamian Baked Stuffed Shrimp

12 jumbo shrimp
½ pound scallops
4 tablespoons butter
¼ teaspoon paprika
2 tablespoons crushed potato chips
¼ cup cracker meal
3 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese
1 to 2 tablespoons Chablis wine optional
Lemon wedges

With a sharp knife cut the shrimp from the underside through the meat but not through the shell. Wash and devein them. Put a toothpick under the meat but over the shell at both ends to keep the shrimp flat; otherwise they will curl when they are baked.

Chop ½ pound of raw scallops and fill into the shrimp. Melt 4 tablespoons of butter in a small saucepan, add ¼ teaspoon of paprika, and cook over a very slow fire for 10 minutes or so to take the raw taste out of the paprika. Combine with 2 tablespoons of crushed potato chips, ¼ cup of cracker meal, and 3 tablespoons of grated Parmesan cheese.

Cover the shrimp with this mixture and place them in a shallow baking dish with a little water in the bottom. Bake for about 20 minutes in a moderate oven at 350 degrees. 1 to 2 tablespoons of Chablis may be sprinkled over the shrimp if desired just before removing them from the oven. Serve with lemon wedges.

* * *

Shrimp baked this way have a lovely fresh flavor and a nice moist texture. Serves four.

Ever Steam Lettuce, Serve as Vegetable?

Steamed lettuce is a delicate dish to serve as a vegetable with mayonnaise or hollandaise sauce. Cut 1 large head lettuce into 6 or 8 wedges. Place on a rack in a large saucepan. Pour in ¼ inch boiling water. Cover and steam 5 minutes or until lettuce is tender.

Serve hot with mayonnaise or hollandaise sauce. Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

Vary the French Toast With Apple Butter Dip

"Little things mean a lot." In the making of Apple Butter French Toast. Only 2 tablespoons of apple butter, when combined with 2 beaten eggs as a dip for enriched bread, create a new breakfast treat. Whisk 6 bread slices through the mixture and bake in a hot, well-greased waffle baker until nicely browned. Serve immediately, with or without a favorite topping.

SPICED TONGUE — Tongue is one meat that can be used as a main course, for sandwiches, casseroles, salads or on a cold meat platter. Prepare it in a spiced mixture to have on hand for unexpected guests or for that weekend company you invited.

Spiced Tongue a Real Treat

Tongue is always prepared by the method of meat cookery known as cooking in liquid since it is a less tender meat cut and therefore must be simmered until fully tender. The advantage in preparing it this way is that many highly flavored ingredients can be added to the cooking liquid in order to produce various flavors in combination with the tongue.

* * *

These Spiced Tongue Slices are prepared by first washing the beef tongue and then adding enough water to cover.

To the water, the following ingredients are added: 2 tablespoons salt, 1 stalk celery cut in 1 inch pieces, 12 whole cloves, 2 bay leaves and 12 whole peppers.

Cover and cook slowly until tender, allowing about 1 hour per pound. Remove skin and slice about ¼ inch thick.

Then combine 2 cups sugar, 2 cups vinegar and 2 cups water and cook for 10 minutes. Pour over the cooked tongue. Add 6 onions thinly sliced and store in the refrigerator for use as desired. This yields 8 servings.

Gourmet Dish of Onion Soup Is Economical

It would be difficult to dream up a more warming dish, or one that can be put on the table with less burden to the pocketbook. Onions, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, are plentiful now, thanks to a big harvest in the fall. The onions most abundant in the stores these days are the small and medium yellow varieties which provide the most flavor per pound, and offer the most pounds per dime.

* * *

In some households, onion soup is a welcome enough guest so it becomes the main dish of the meal. In others, onions may be just a warming first course for the meal. This will have something to do with the amount of onion soup you cook up.

There are many good recipes for onion soup, but if you don't have one that's already established itself as your favorite, try this one suggested by home economists of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Chop 6 onions fine and cook in 2 ounces of butter or margarine, until yellow. Add to 1 pint boiling water and simmer 20 minutes. Add 2 quart meat broth. Add 4 tablespoons of flour blended with cold water; boil for a few minutes. Add salt and pepper to taste. That's the making of the soup.

When it comes to serving, some people like to have a slice of toast floating atop the bowl; some like to go one step further and sprinkle some grated cheese on the toast.

Q. What is the name of this cut of meat?

A. Standing Rib Roast of Beef.

Q. Where does it come from and how is it identified?

A. It comes from the rib section and contains usually two or more ribs. The short ribs or chine bone may or may not be removed.

Q. How is it prepared?

A. It is roasted in a slow oven (300 degrees). Allow 18 to 20 minutes per pound for rare, 22 to 25 for medium and 27 to 30 for well-done.

Smelt and Eggs Share Spotlight of Low Prices

After climbing to the highest point since last November, pork prices dropped again at the first of the week. There are some excellent values in Boston butt roasts and steaks, in center cut chops, spareribs, bacon, partly-boned hams and luncheon meats.

BEEF: Wholesale beef prices are still at a high level but because supplies had increased about 15 per cent at the end of last week the upward price trend is expected to fade. Though chuck roasts are in greatest demand, there are more features on them at this time of the year and some stores are also displaying special prices on the standing rib roasts.

POULTRY: With the cutback in production, wholesale fryer prices are considerably higher this week. This means that any retail features available on whole birds or fryer parts are exceptionally good values. The only sizes of turkeys which seem to be available after the holidays in any abundance are the small fryer-roasters and many markets are featuring them at attractive prices this week. Stewing chickens are also low in price in some stores.

Fish supplies are about the same as a week ago. Ample supplies of fresh whitefish are arriving from northwest Canada and fresh herring and cod are good values in some markets. Smelt is running earlier this year for the first time in about 40 years and the catch is quite heavy.

EGGS AND DAIRY: Egg prices average in the general price ranges of a week ago. These are the lowest January prices since 1941. Prices of medium sized eggs are about 5-6 cents a dozen less than the large eggs of the same quality and the large ones are the better buy by weight.

* * *

Soybean oil and cottonseed oil which go into oleomargarine are in record supply and all markets are offering exceptional buys on the oleo. A large number of the natural and processed cheeses — in the chunk and sliced — are also being featured.

FRUITS: Perhaps the usual slackened demand following the holidays has been partly responsible for the slightly lower prices on grapefruit, in some cases, the reds are better values than the white seedless. Oranges continue along at about the same levels as a week ago with more of the large sizes of Temples being offered at lower prices. They are an excellent all purpose orange — for juicing, desserts or hand eating.

Green beans, green peppers, cucumbers, greens and radishes are somewhat lower in price. Supplies of radishes are exceptionally large.

* * *

Heavy frost and following rains in California curtailed shipments of many vegetables and caused quality to be variable. Head lettuce yields were cut, heads show some discoloration and lack of size, and prices are generally high. Cabbage shipments have been curtailed and those prices are about the same as last week — to fractionally higher.

The celery market is on the low side due to heavy tonnage and some lowering of quality. Florida is beginning to offer much heavier shipments. Carrots have also increased in price because shipments are arriving from no many areas. They are one of the better all-round vegetable buys this week.

Tomatoes are also a better value. When making price comparisons, note that the tube tomatoes are only 14 ounces while vine-ripened tomatoes are sold by the pound.

* * *

In menu planning from the grocery shelves, canned apple sauce, fruit cocktail, tuna fish, evaporated milk and a variety of pickles offer the better values in the most markets. Because U. S. stocks of coffee are 28 per cent greater than a year ago, coffee drinking is also becoming cheaper.

Hearty Salad Is All-Year Dish

Salad meals always have great appetite appeal during the hot summer months but there are many salads that are equally appealing at all other times of the year. Some salads require certain ingredients that are available only during the salad months, but such is not the case with this Luncheon Meat and Macaroni Salad.

* * *

The important part of a recipe such as this is the luncheon meat. It offers a great deal of flavor, but more than that, it makes this salad a very nutritious dish in offering an ample supply of high quality protein.

Salads that require some of the ingredients to be cooked well in advance are really true labor savers because the final assembling of the salad is just that much more simple. In this recipe, it is well to cook the macaroni in advance, and to make it even more intriguing, shell macaroni is used.

The first step then is to have 1½ cups of cooked shell macaroni ready to assemble with the other ingredients. Then, open a 12-ounce can of luncheon meat and cut the meat into ½-inch cubes. Combine the meat and macaroni and add ½ cup chopped sweet pickle, ½ cup diced celery, 2 tablespoons minced onion, 2 tomatoes cut in eighths, and 1 tablespoon chopped pimiento.

Season with salt and pepper and mix with enough salad dressing to moisten. Spoon the salad into individual lettuce cups, or spoon it into a lettuce-lined bowl. Sprinkle with paprika for added color. Yield: four generous servings.

* * *

A salad meal is one of the easiest of all meals to prepare, and merely by serving hot rolls or biscuits as an accompaniment, it can be a very complete and tasty meal for everyone.

Wintry Days Perfect Foil for Hot Drink

Hot chocolate milk makes a delightful drink for a late breakfast, a bridge tea or a midnight snack. Try serving these variations, such as Hot Chocolate Milk Malted or Chocolate Milk with Chocolate-Coconut Topping.

Hot Chocolate Milk Malted

Alaska Solon Backs Up Plea With Fog Talk

ANNETTE ISLAND, Alaska (AP)—State Rep. Earl Hillstrand, leader of a movement to shift Alaska's state capital from Juneau to his own home town of Anchorage, had some new ammunition for his campaign today.

With the legislative session opening next Monday, Hillstrand and 17 other Democratic lawmakers have been trying all week to fly to Juneau. They haven't been able to because Juneau has been fogbound since Monday.

President Eisenhower's tour of Europe, Asia and Africa took him to lands in which live about 22 per cent of the world's population.

President Wants to Combine All War Colleges

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower has revived a controversial proposal to combine all of the armed forces war colleges under a unified command and training program.

A Pentagon spokesman said the Joint Chiefs of staff have been directed to report promptly on the plan, which some military leaders have opposed on grounds it might lead to eventual merger of the Army, Navy and Air Force.

The single war college idea originated in the 1947 act which unified the armed forces under the Department of Defense. Eisenhower, in his final year as president, is understood to want top military leaders to have a common educational background to enable them to work smoothly together regardless of service.

NFL Owners Ride Road to Nowhere

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—National Football League owners will resume today where they left off late last night — crunching along the road to nowhere in their quest for a new commissioner to succeed the late Bert Bell.

The progress, if any, was the increase of the number of names submitted from two on the first ballot to a total of five during the six hours of deliberation.

The original candidates, as expected, were acting commissioner Austin H. Gunsel, and Attorney Marshall Leahy of San Francisco. The original ballots showed Leahy in front, 7-5, and at one point he polled eight votes, one shy of the nine necessary for election.

Through a succession of these ballots the names of Paul Schissler, special events director of the Los Angeles Times; Edwin J. Anderson, president of the Detroit Lions; and Don Kellett, general manager of the world champion Baltimore Colts, were added to the list.

As midnight neared, the weary owners, obviously seeing no break in the deadlock, adjourned until 1 p.m., (EST) today. The eighth and final ballot showed Leahy with seven votes and Kellet with four as the names of Gunsel, Schissler and Anderson disappeared entirely. One owner did not vote on the last ballot.

* * *

The fadeout of Gunsel and the emergence of Kellet as a candidate were distinct surprises.

Just how serious were the nominations of some of the candidates is problematical. The Schissler and Anderson nominations were reported by one source to be diversionary moves to block Leahy's election.

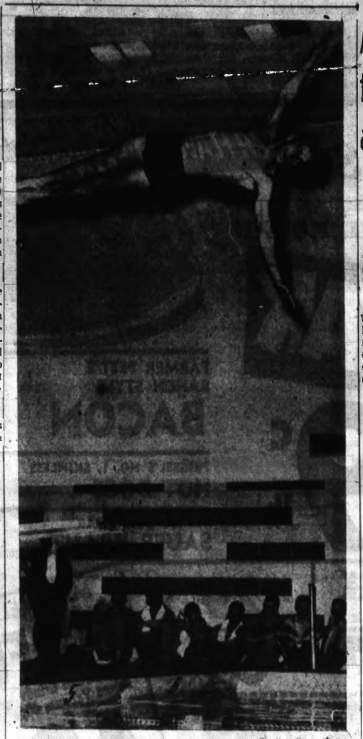

Kellet, who developed the Colts from an also-run to NFL championships in 1958 and 1959, had been mentioned casually several months ago, but not recently. He is a former three-sports star at the University of Pennsylvania. His name, and that of Anderson, were brought forward at the night session. Kellet is recuperating at a nearby Florida community from a recent exhaustion collapse.

* * *

Leahy, 46, is attorney for the San Francisco 49ers. He is a former basketball captain at Santa Clara and has five young daughters, and other family ties in California. He has said that if elected he would devote his full time to the $30,000 commissioner's job, but that he would not move to the Midwest or East.

* * *

The order of business was changed so that the election of a commissioner would come first.

BIRD? NO, IT'S RATLIFF — Pontiac Northern's Bill Ratliff, who is unbeaten in diving competition for the Huskies this year, scored another victory in a dual meet against Utica last night. Ratliff also swims the breast stroke for the Huskies and won this event also last night as PNH scored a 67-25 victory.

Anderson Fails to Get Support at Miami Beach

Detroit Proxy Deserted by Partners in Voting for NFL Commissioner

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—There were renewed reports of a split among the Detroit Lions' top brass today.

* * *

President Edwin J. Anderson, target of angry war cries by some Lion directors last November, failed to receive support from his own club last night when nominated for National Football League commissioner.

Anderson was placed on the ballot when a deadlock occurred between acting commissioner Austin Gunsel and San Francisco attorney Marshall Leahy. The Detroit president was first nominated on the sixth ballot and remained on the slate for the two succeeding votes.

"When I was first nominated it was to be a trial balloon," said Anderson. "There was a distinct possibility something would happen. But now with my own club voting against me, I have withdrawn from the race."

* * *

NFL owners adjourned for the night without picking a successor to the late Bert Bell.

Attending the meetings with Anderson are vice presidents Bill Downey and Lyle Fife. Anderson said a majority vote among the three is ruling the Detroit Football Co.'s policy at the league meetings. He said the club's directors decided on the three-man majority vote.

"The whole league is bewildered," said Anderson. "I had not the faintest idea that they (Downey and Fife) would vote against me.

"It's customary that a favorite son candidate gets at least the first vote. To say I'm flabbergasted is putting it mildly."

* * *

Anderson said after last night's meeting broke up he would refrain from discussing the matter with Downey and Fife.

"I'm too mad to see them tonight," he said.

Anderson, reported possibly on his way out as president in November, received a December vote of confidence from the club's executive board. The directors then retained him and coach George Wilson for another year.

Buckeyes Argue Rule Changes

Ohio State Would Quit Big Ten?

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Disturbed by what it considers a threat to faculty control of Western Conference athletics, Ohio State's faculty council has appealed for a conference constitutional convention.

* * *

If the appeal results in a shutdown, the Ohio State council may be forced to decide whether to get out of the Big Ten.

* * *

The whole simmering dispute over Big Ten rules changes, which, in the view of the faculty council, threatens complete faculty control of athletics, almost boiled over Tuesday. Only after a personal appeal by Athletic Director Dick Larkins did the council soften the wording of a resolution which he considered a threat to the Big Ten.

* * *

The matter probably will rest for a couple of weeks until the return of Ohio State President Novice G. Fawcett from a trip to India.

* * *

The council passed unanimously a two-part motion submitted by Prof. Salvatore Marco and other members calling for:

1. A review of changes made in Western Conference rules Nov. 1.

2. Dr. Fawcett to recommend to the council of 10 (the presidents of Big Ten member schools) that a convention be held to draft a formal constitution governing athletics.

An amendment to this motion caused consternation in the council.

* * *

The original wording said in essence that Ohio State would abide by Big Ten rules adopted after Nov. 1. Larkins said he felt this constituted a threat and that such action "would make it almost impossible for us to operate as a member of the Big Ten."

The amendment then was reworded and softened somewhat to recommend that conference rules as of Oct. 31 be in effect until a constitution could be drafted and ratified by all Big Ten faculties

All-Star Pin Points

By DICK HOOVER

DICK HOOVER'S FAST BALL

It is difficult for me to persuade fast-ball bowlers who have watched me that they would be better off if they would let up a bit.

They tell me that I throw harder than any other bowler who has won major tournaments. That isn't supposed to be good, but in 1951 it helped me capture the National Individual Match Game Championship the day after my 21st birthday and two Masters Tournament championships since.

To each his own. A few people can roll a fast ball. Most cannot. Nearly all instructors, myself included, agree that a fast ball is generally bad. Many times I have attempted to reduce my speed but rolling fast is the only way I feel natural.

A ball that is going too fast will not carry as many pins. It will often slice through the wood without mixing. Many apparently good pocket hits will be disappointments to the fastballer and he will figure he is a chronic victim of bad luck.

* * *

I score high despite my habit of bowling hard because I am accurate. Hall-of-Famer Joe Norris estimates that I hit the 1-3 pocket about 20 per cent more often than most other top bowlers. Because of this I can afford to take more so-called bad breaks and still score.

Unless you have remarkable accuracy, though, you will do best to keep speed moderate.

PNH Tankers Sink Utica; Maples, Jays Also Triumph

Pontiac Northern rolled up its best effort in the North Suburban swim league last night in defeating Utica 67-25 for its third league triumph against as many losses.

* * *

The Huskies took 8 of 10 events as Utica scored its wins in the 100-yard butterfly and 100-yard backstroke.

In another league meet, Southfield swamped Madison Heights 71-18 by winning every event and setting a new pool and school mark in the speed relay with a time of 1:41.

Birmingham gave Ferndale a 56-40 dunking in the Dale pool yesterday with the Maples breaking four Ferndale pool records in backstroke with Larry Severy, breast stroke with Jim Bird, freestyle with Denny Collins and medley relay team. Birmingham took eight firsts.

* * *

In the Northern meet, Bill Ratliff was a double winner in the diving and breast stroke events. Wally Johnson, winner of the 200 individual medley, lost a close race in the 100-yard butterfly to Utica's John Rainus whose time was 1:18.1.

PNH - UTICA SUMMARY

50-yard freestyle — Jim Tuttle (PNH); 2nd, Tom Hey (PNH); Budd Carr (U); 100-yard butterfly — John Rinus (U); 1:18.1; Wally Johnson (PNH); Phil Wells (PNH).

200-yard freestyle — Lee Barrie (PNH); 2:19; Rich Gould (PNH); Gary Zimmerman (U).

100-yard backstroke — Rick Mount (U); 1:02.2; Dick Kidd (U); Chuck Lambert (PNH).

100-yard breast stroke — Bill Ratliff (PNH); 1:13.2; Pete McCarthy (U); Tom Hawke (PNH).

100-yard freestyle — Fred Kern (PNH); 1:01.1; Bill Mashburn (PNH); Bud Carr (U).

Michigan Cager Lost for Rest of Season

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan's sagging basketball fortunes received another blow yesterday when regular forward Dick Clark underwent surgery for a groin tumor which could sideline him for the remainder of the campaign.

Franchise for Los Angeles, Officiating on NBA Agenda

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The National Basketball Assn. today talked on Len Corbosiero to present proposals for a franchise for the Los Angeles Jets.

If approved, it could mean two NBA clubs for the West Coast since owner Bob Short of the Minneapolis Lakers might attempt to move his franchise to San Francisco or Los Angeles if the club doesn't come out of the red financially.

At the same time league owners at their annual meeting prepared to delve into the problems presented by the admission of Chicago and to set up a playoff schedule and select a date for the player draft.

Also on the agenda is the caliber of officiating in the league.

* * *

After the St. Louis Hawks defeated Cincinnati 119-108 last night, Royals' general manager Pep Wilson said he planned to make a verbal protest at the meeting about the caliber of officiating.

At a hastily called news conference, Wilson declared:

"This is another game the Royals had taken away from them by grossly incompetent officiating. We have been putting up with it all year. In this league the officials call a foul on the player and not the play. There are four or five (officials) who don't belong in the NBA."

Wilson did not name any officials or elaborate any further.

There will be no games tonight as the league will play its 10th annual All-Star game in Philadelphia's Convention Hall Friday night beginning at 9 p.m. (EST). The East is a slight favorite over the West.

FRIDAY'S SCHEDULE
East-West All-Star game at Philadelphia

Double Card of Rassling

One of the feature bouts on the double main-event card at the Armory Friday night will pit Ricki "The Crusher" Cortez against Leaping Larry Chene.

Both men are acknowledged masters of their own particular styles of wrestling, as well as solid competitors in all other aspects of the game.

Cortez, of course, prefers the rough-and-tumble, anything goes style of wrestling, at which he has been spectacularly successful. Chene is regarded as perhaps the finest aerial wrestler in the world, and his successes have equaled those of Cortez.

Central Matmen Home, Huskies at Waterford

An action-packed schedule will have most of this area's high school wrestling teams competing tonight.

Pontiac Central, having dropped two straight, entertains Bay City Central while Pontiac Northern and Waterford do battle at the Skipper gym in the feature of an Inter-Lakes slate.

Walled Lake seeks its 4th straight success at Berkley and Southfield vs Farmington in the other I-L affairs.

Hazel Park vs Cranbrook and Ferndale is at Port Huron rounding out the complete slate for matmen.

Alma Grabs Victory

ALMA (AP) — Alma grabbed the lead from Lawrence Tech midway in the third period and raced on to a 98-77 victory Wednesday.

Jim Northrup of Alma and Cap Peihers of Lawrence Tech tied for scoring honors with 28 points each.

Pontiac's Munson Figures Highly in Bright Titan Basketball Future

Cage Empire Grows at U-D; '52 Wayne 5 One of Best

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

A basketball empire is in the making at the University of Detroit, one which could produce the greatest cage era ever to represent the state of Michigan in collegiate circles.

The encouraging thing about the Detroit prospectus is the fact that the core of this prospective basketball powerhouse is the amount of home grown talent on the roster.

It wouldn't be fair to compare the present U. of D. cage team with some of the best collegiate teams in the State of Michigan in the past 10 years, but it is interesting to note which have been the great college units in the last decade.

Since 1949, there are five teams which must be classed among Michigan's collegiate best.

* * *

Which would be first, could produce a good argument, but in our opinion this is the way those five teams would be rated: 1. The Wayne team of 1952-53 2. The MSU team of 1958-59 3. The MSU team of 1956-57 4. The U. of D. team of 1949-50 5. The Wayne team of 1955-56.

The first two positions could easily be switched around and have strong support as being the best.

Someone looking at the record of the team we have nominated as the best would probably object immediately. That 1952-53 Wayne unit won 16 and lost six, not really an impressive record to be rated too highly.

One must actually look at that team and the circumstances to understand the reason for the high rating.

* * *

That Wayne team started to mold in 1951 by winning 19 and losing six. A transfer guard named Wally Ziemba went from MSU to Wayne and joined four other players named Charley Primas, John Kline, Ernie Wagner and Paul Dean.

The schedule for that team was woefully weak. It did knock off highly rated NIT entry St. Francis with Maurice Stokes. It also scored a convincing victory over powerful Duquesne in the finals of the Motor City tournament.

As a unit, this quintet sticks in our mind however as best we have seen in 10 years. Potentially, if the schedule was tougher, we believe this team could have beaten some of the best.

* * *

But disaster struck the team that season. Three of the players became ineligible for the last five games of the season and as result four of those games were lost. Had it been able to stick together for another season we doubt that any other college team in Michigan could have touched that unit.

* * *

Last year Michigan State put a team on the floor that got to the regional finals of the NCAA. It was comprised of Johnny Green, Bob Anderegg, Lance Olson, Horace Walker and Tom Rand.

That team could also be called the best in 10 years in the state. Even coach Forddy Anderson rated it the best he had ever coached, and that's saying plenty in view of the powerhouse outfits he had when he coached at Bradley.

* * *

The surprising thing is that Forddy even ranked the 1958-59 team higher than the one which got to the semi-finals of the NCAA before losing in triple overtime to champion North Carolina in 1956-57.

The other teams we rate highly are the 1948-50 Titan team which won 20 of 26 and had among its victims national powers, Bradley, Oklahoma A&M and St. Louis. The Wayne team which gave Kentucky a tremendous battle in the NCAA tournament in 1955-56 had all earmarks of a great team. Coach Jost Mason, however, still feels that the 1952-53 unit had greater potential.

It was the 1949-50 U. of D. team which started the last decade of top Michigan college quints, and now another decade starts and once again the current Titan team appears to be a potent unit.

* * *

They call Dave DeBusschere the best high school player to come out of the city of Detroit in 25 years. They also say that Charley North is the best to come out of Detroit city leagues in 10 years.

This encompasses a period which has produced thousands of prep cagers, and being sophomores it certainly paints a bright future for U. of D.

Four of the top six will be back next year and coach Bob Calihan actually sees more strength at the forward spot with the addition of Pontiac's Harrison Munson who is now averaging better than 27 a game for the Titan frosh.

The present team, we feel, could easily move into the third position among the teams we listed. The potential to take over the first spot is there. The season, however, still has long to go before any actual results can be considered.

City Parochials Home; Avondale Has Big Road Game

Northern, Skippers Tangle Friday

By CHUCK ABAIR

Pontiac Northern returns to the Inter-Lakes basketball wars tomorrow night but the Huskies are glad of it.

Even though PNH can be given only a slight edge, if any, at Waterford Friday the charges of Dick Hall will be happy to take their chances against league opposition again heading the pack at 4-0.

That record is turned around when you look over non-loop play thus far. West Bloomfield, no better than a fair Class B outfit, has twice dumped the Huskies in end short victory streaks.

Waterford will certainly be in no charitable mood when the Red and White quintet visits the Skipper court. The Highland Road cagers have dropped three straight although they gave an excellent account of themselves against Highland Park.

* * *

Gerry "Man of the Year" Wallace has the difficult task of trying to get his boys keyed up again despite the slump. Waterford is now 2-2 in the I-L after losing the lead early.

Walled Lake will be at Berkley hoping to come up with a second straight triumph while Farmington tries to snap last week-end's double walloping at Southfield in other league play.

St. Michael and St. Fred will be performing here. The Shamrocks host St. Clement Feeding to keep winning to retain any title chance. The struggling Rams take on St. James as front-running Orchard Lake St Mary goes to St. Rita and St. Benedict invades Royal Oak St. Mary in the Suburban Catholic.

* * *

Avondale will have its work cut out at Fitzgerald attempting to repeat an earlier defeat of the Spartans. It is a "must" affair for the Oakland B co-leaders since Troy should breeze past Madison. Lake Orion is expected to post another victory at home over Oak Park.

In the Eastern Michigan race, Birmingham Seaholm's down-but-not-out Maples hope to bounce back at Ft. Clemens with ex- leader Port Huron idle. Pontiac will likely continue a hot streak by whipping Royal Oak Kimball and Hazel Park visits East Detroit completing the loop schedule.

Clarenceville could meet its Waterloo in a big Wayne-Oakland contest at Brighton with the Bulldogs in trouble after their upset by Clarkston. The Wolves hope to add another at home against Bloomfield Hills. Milford visits Northville and Holly entertains unpredictable West Bloomfield — the team that thrives on Class A foes.

The second week of action comes up in the Tri-County conference with first night victors Romeo and L'Anse Creuse matched. Rochester plays at Lapeer in a meeting of consistent losers.

Highly - ranked Ortonville is heavily favored to add another triumph to its season and South Central records in a home tilt with North Branch. Another interesting loop duel pend: Imlay City to Oxford.

It's wide open in the Southern Thumb now with another full slate on tap. Tomorrow's big one has present pacesetter Armada and former top dog Anchor Bay clashing. Improved Almont takes on New Haven, luckless Memphis is at Capac and Brown City vs. Dryden.

* * *

There are several other games on tap, league and otherwise, on a big night of prep hoop action.

They include Utica at Fraser, Royal Oak Dondero vs Ferdson, South Lyon at Boyne Ville, Millington at home to meet Maple Grove, Country Day travels to Huron, Lamphere hosts Lutheran East, Royal Oak Shrine vs St. Patrick, Farmington OLS plays St. Agatha, Roseville is at Warren Lincoln and Marlette at Vassar.

PCH Quintet in All-Out Valley Warfare at Saginaw

By BILL CORNWELL

Saginaw High's Larry Laeding, the dean of Saginaw Valley Conference coaches, is brewing a large dose of TT poison for Friday night's invasion by unbeaten Pontiac Central.

Laeding hopes his TT brew will be potent enough to hand the Chiefs their first defeat of the 1959-60 season and give his Trojans a virtual share of the Saginaw Valley lead.

* * *

The "double T" refers to Thompson and Tillman, Saginaw High's twin-barreled scoring and rebounding punch.

Senior forward Jerry Tillman and sophomore center Ernie Thompson, both standing 6-foot-3, have been mainly responsible for Saginaw's hold on 2nd place in the Valley standings with a 2-1 record.

Saginaw's over-all mark is 4-2, the latest success a 60-55 victory over Bay City Handy Tuesday on the Trojan court.

Reports from upstate hint that the Trojans will be keyed to fever pitch for Pontiac Central's visit. The Trojans realize the importance of this game to their title chances and they will go all out for victory.

The Chiefs head the Valley pack with a 4-0 record and their over-all 6-0 mark was good enough to place them 3rd in this week's Associated Press Class A high school poll.

* * *

Laeding, head basketball coach at Saginaw High since 1937, really has discovered a gem in Thompson, one of the brightest sophomore cage prospects to roam a Valley floor in recent years.

The jumping-jack Thompson is one of the league's top scorers with a 14.7 average and he has been a tower of strength under the backboards.

Tillman, even higher than Thompson in the Valley scoring race with a 17.3 average, has two years of experience behind him and provides the Trojans with additional rebounding muscle.

Pontiac's trip to Saginaw will be a "blue chip" test for coach Art Van Ryzin's 1-3 backboard combination of George Fed and Bill Pritchett.

The agile 6-2 Fed and the husky 6-4 Pritchett, both juniors, will have a full-scale battle on their hands in the rebounding department tomorrow evening.

Fed and Pritchett swept the boards with a king-sized broom last Friday when the Chiefs toppled Flint Northern at Flint and they'll need to exercise that same broom with the same kind of authority this time if PCH plans to keep its record perfect.

The Trojans have staged a fine conference revival this season after finishing next to the cellar last year. Their raceborse offense is always dangerous, especially at home.

A win over PCH would bring the Trojans a virtual tie for 1st place. If the Chiefs lose, they would still retain a half-game edge since Saginaw has played one less Valley contest.

Saginaw's scheduled Valley game with Flint Central last Friday at Saginaw was postponed because of bad weather and rescheduled for Tuesday, Jan. 26.

Arthur Hill goes to Flint Central and winless Bay City Central plays host to Flint Northern to complete tomorrow's Valley program.

Ole Cagey Charley Sez:

Ole Cagey is doing right well for himself in picking the local prep basketball games. After hitting on 12 of 15 last week, his season average now is 48 right and 16 wrong for a .750 percentage.

The big picks last week were Lake Orion's upset of Fitzgerald and Romeo over Rochester.

Pontiac Central over Saginaw, Fitzgerald over Avondale, Mt. Clemens over Birmingham, Clarkston over Bloomfield Hills, Pontiac Northern over Waterford, Holly over West Bloomfield, Northville over Milford, Ferndale over Kimball, Romeo over L'Anse, Oxford over Imlay City, OL St. Mary over St. Rita, St. Mike over St. Clement, St. James over St. Fred, Berkley over Walled Lake and Troy over Madison.

Petrie Gets 6 Goals to Lead Ranger Win

Tom Petrie scored six goals Wednesday at Northside Park to pace the Mt View Rangers to a 15-1 rout of the Sylvan Fliers in a City Junior Hockey League game for boys 13 to 15 years of age. Neal Norgrove added three goals to the Mountaineer attack.

Doug Schofield tallied four times and Bill Linquist notched three to lead the Pontiac Rangers to a 9-2 victory over J & M Hardware in another contest in the 13-to-15 division. Bob Schaffer scored both goals for the losers.

Two games are scheduled today at Northside in the 16-to-18 division. The Rochester Royals meet Spencer Floor Covering at 6 p.m., followed by a 7:30 duel between the Pontiac Central Fliers and the Thunderbirds.

Fencing Program at PCH

A special fencing program is being conducted at Pontiac Central High School in the girls gymnasium on Wednesday nights from 7 p.m. till 10 p.m. for teen-agers and adults in basic fencing techniques and skills.

Fencing as a sport involves skill and techniques in the use of blunt or protected foils, epees, and sabres.

The participants are protected by body and arm guards and face masks.

Instruction in the correct form and fundamentals used in fencing matches will be given by Mr. Aldis Gardner, Jr.

The Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department, which sponsors this program, will provide the basic equipment necessary for this program. It will be necessary for participants to bring with them tennis shoes, which must be worn, and a glove for their right or left hand.

* * *

Advance registration will be necessary for all those teen-agers or adults, men and women, and boys and girls who wish to participate in this program.

Those interested may register by calling the Parks and Recreation Department at FE 3-7131 and giving their name, address, telephone number, and age. There is no fee required for participation in this class.

The fencing class is scheduled to start Wednesday, January 27, and will run for eight weeks through March 16. Registration will be accepted on a first come first served basis until class limits are reached.

Mantle Rejects Contract Offer

DALLAS (AP) — "They cut me more than I thought they ought to," Mickey Mantle said yesterday after returning a contract to the New York Yankees without his signature.

* * *

Mantle, who spends much of his time here at his bowling alley, agreed his performance on the field last year "wasn't so good."

Reports in New York were that Mantle was cut from $75,000 to $60,000.

The Elks' Ladies National Invitational tourney, which gets bigger and better every year, is off and running once again here at Lodge 810.

It's the 3rd annual and the number of participants has increased each time out as the interest continues to spread throughout Michigan and nearby states.

A big factor in the expansion of the meet is the way the people at the Elks go all-out to make the bowlers happy.

People remember the little things and not only keep coming back but also tell their friends. That's true of sports or anything else.

* * *

General chairman Don Long and tourney secretary Eve Miller leave nothing undone in pleasing the keglers, especially those from out of town. Their efforts are certainly strong boosts for the tournament and the club and also for Pontiac.

Floor shows, organ music and luncheons are only a few of the extras the ladies get each weekend without charge. Their is also other entertainment and even free lockers to store their bowling equipment while not on the alleys.

All in all the women have an enjoyable weekend plus the opportunity to finish in the prize money. That's a hard-to-beat combination.

* *

Conspicuous by his absence at the Elks on opening weekend was the popular "Cap" Halliday, who is "Mr. Bowling" at 810. He is in St. Joseph Hospital recovering from a recent stroke.

Hawks Return to 4th Place

Chicago Tops Bruins, 3-1; Boston Invades Detroit Tonight

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Black Hawks were back in fourth place in the National Hockey League race today in their fight with Boston for the last playoff berth.

But the Bruins, defeated 3-1 last night by the Hawks, get a chance to regain the fourth spot tonight in a game at Detroit. The Hawks, who lead Boston by only one point, will be idle.

* * *

The league - leading Montreal Canadiens meet the last - place New York Rangers in tonight's other game.

The fight for the NHL individual scoring title also came out in favor of the Hawks in last night's game, the only one scheduled. Bobby Hull, the Hawks' star wing, picked up one goal and added an assist to boost his total points to 57, one more than Boston's Bronco Horvath. They were tied for the lead entering the game.

Horvath scored the Bruins' only goal late in the second period when the Hawks were shorthanded.

Bad News for Indians —Chisox Sign Wynn

By The Associated Press

Bad news for the Cleveland Indians' American League pennant hopes!

Burly Early Wynn, the majors' top winner at 22-10 last year, signed his 1960 contract with the AL champion Chicago White Sox yesterday for a reported $45,000. Wynn's pitching was particularly effective against the Indians whom he beat six of seven times in helping lead the Chisox to their first pennant in 40 years.

Giants Finish Their Western Swing in 1961

CASA GRANDE, Ariz. (AP) — San Francisco Giants will complete their Western movement in 1961 by shifting their farm club training camp to this central Arizona desert town.

* * *

The Giants' minor league teams have done their spring training at Melbourne and Sanford, Fla., for 20 years.

* * *

Giants' president Horace Stoneham announced last night the purchase of 640 acres of land and plans to spend half a million dollars to build five diamonds and housing for some 300 players.

One American Team Left at Monte Carlo

MONTE CARLO (AP)—American entries in the Monte Carlo auto rally were cut in half Wednesay as the dwindling band of tired drivers approached France's icy Massif Central Mountains.

* * *

Air Force Captains George Larose of Bethlehem, Pa., and Roy Hebel of Chicago, driving a Renault Dauphine from Paris to Monte Carlo, were reported out of the race by a checkpoint at Bourges in Western France. No reason was given.

The other American team, Donald Delling of Bethel, Conn., and William Dodd of Amherst, Ohio, passed through Luxembourg Wednesday afternoon on time. Driving a Volvo, they had picked up no known penalty points as they headed for Chaumont, France.

* * *

With the 2,200-mile first portion of the rally two-thirds over—but the toughest part still ahead—rally headquarters reported 232 of the 297 starters still were in the race.

Accidents took out about a dozen entries Wednesday.

Queen's Winter Ball Saturday at Manistee

The Manistee ski area is holding the Queen's Winter Ball Saturday at the Chippewa Hotel in Manistee with Carla Samuelson, Metropolitan Detroit Ski council queen, reigning.

The Manistee ski area, which has Ed O'Neill of Rochester as instructor, will be open daily from Jan. 21 to February 7th. Otherwise it will open only on weekends. Next year the area hopes to go on a 7-day basis.

Skiing this weekend is very good with two inches of base and seven inches of new snow.

Good Report for Teeple

The area will be operating Saturday and Sunday from 10 to 5 with two tows in operation and four runs.

Skiing Is Just Excellent This Week

At last, Lower Peninsula skiers have seen the snow. Recent snowfalls and dropping temperatures have given the area its best ski conditions of the season.

All around the state skiing is reported to be excellent. Grampian Mountain near Oxford has all slopes, tows, and other facilities in operation with skiing reported good to excellent.

Very good skiing is also reported at Mt. Christie where a base of 6 to 8 inches prevails along with the addition of seven new inches of snow.

Mt. Holly had 6 to 12 inches of machine made snow and four inches of new snowfall with all slopes and tows in operation for excellent skiing.

Dryden, with three slopes open, expected to be in full operation for the weekend with skiing reported the best at the club thus far.

* * *

Night skiing is excellent at Summit ski area near Fenton where six inches of new snow has covered the 6-inch base. Summit is now operating on a 7-day basis.

Last year the club was closed on Mondays.

Here are reports from across the state:

UMELEZA SKI HOLLOW—Fair to good.

TEMPLE HILL—Good. Two tows operating this weekend. 4 inch base.

The East Michigan Tourist Assn. reported the following conditions:

MT. FREDERICK—5 to 6 inch base. Also 10 inches new powdered snow. Excellent.

MOTT MOUNTAIN—6 inch base with 4 to 6 inches of new snow. Excellent.

ARTLINE—1 inches of roller-packed base. Good.

MAJOR MOUNTAIN—5 to 9 inch base with 7 inches new snow. Excellent.

OTSEGO SKI CLUB (PRIVATE)—6 to 10 inch base with 4 inches new snow. Excellent.

New Ski Mark Predicted in Olympics' 80 Meter

SQUAW VALLEY, Calif. (AP) — Birger Torrissen isn't normally a betting man, but he's willing to wager on one phase of the 1960 winter olumpics.

"Somebody will set a new olympic record on the 88-meter jump," the 25-year-old Norwegian . American declared today. "I'd bet my shirt on that."

Torrissen has a dual role: He's Olympic Biathlon director as well as tender of the hill.

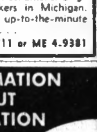

* * *

Torrissen figures the record-setter could be a Finn, Swede, Russian, Norwegian, German or an American. The Czechs also figure.

That's a lot of territory to cover. But, Torrissen said, there's been so much improvement among the world's top jumpers that the coveted gold medal could go to one of at least 10 of the 70 jumpers.

He cites last year's initial competition off the 1960 Olympic hill, a winning 88.5 meter (290 foot) jump by Kalvei Karkinen of Finland. The Olympic record, set in Cortina, was 84 meters (276 feet) by Antti Hyvarinen, another Finn.

TOM STACHLER

Three Time "Master Guild Award Winner"

Master Salesman Guild AWARD WINNER

Tom Stachler

For the third year in a row Tom Stachler has won the coveted Master Salesman's Award from the Pontiac Motor Division. It is in truth an 'Oscar' for exceptional performance by a Pontiac Automobile Salesman. It is significant of Tom's sincere efforts in doing his job well, of serving his customers beyond the expected.

We at Pontiac Retail are proud of Tom's record of selling the most cars in one year and congratulate him for having achieved this honor. We know we speak in Tom's behalf in thanking those of you, his customers, friends and associates who helped him win this award.

Awards are recognition one receives for doing something well. To be a three-time winner means that Tom has served his customer to the point of complete satisfaction. To the point of having them come back to him again for the car of their choice. Pontiac for 1960 will win your choice, too. Let Tom work with you today to give you the rewarding Pontiac deal that makes you too, a proud Pontiac owner.

Lopez Sees Sox Stronger in 1960

By AL LOPEZ
Written for Associated Press

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—I feel definitely we have strengthened the Chicago White Sox with our winter deals. Whether we have been strengthened more than our two closest rivals, Cleveland and New York, remains to be seen.

* * *

As I look at it we have increased our offense by some 30 per cent and did so without sacrificing any of our defense which was the best in the league last year. By adding Minnie Minoso and Gene Freese to our starting club we have added two men who hit a total of 44 homeruns and drove in 180 runs. Our entire team drove in 620 runs in winning the American League pennant last year.

These extra runs batted in can mean a reduction in the "older league" which found the White Sox specialists in one-run decisions. We won 35 of the 90 one-run games in which we participated. With more power we may not have to call on our bullpen as often in 1960.

* * *

True, we had to give up some talent to add Minoso, Freese and company, but we gave up "futures" who did not figure too greatly in our 1960 plans. The only regular we parted with was Bubba Phillips and we replaced him at third with Freese. The latter will do a good job defensively and we always have Billy Goodman and Sam Esposito to fill in when needed.

* * *

What delighted me most about our trades was that we were able to make them without disturbing the best defense and pitching in the league. I believe Minoso, Jim Landis and Al Smith will be far superior to any outfield trio we were able to field in 1959.

* * *

Our pitching will be even better in 1960. We have added lefthanders Frank Baumann, Don Ferrarese and Jake Striker and righthander Mike Garcia, as well as a number of outstanding farm hands. The most promising of the farm hands appears to be Ed Mobaugh, a young righthander who had a fine season at Indianapolis. Garcia can help in a dual role of a spot starter and relief pitcher. The same for Ferrarese.

* * *

Our starting staff is headed by Early Wynn and Bob Shaw and includes Billy Pierce, Dick Donovan and Barry Latman. Add our bullpen twins Gerry Staley and Turk Lown and we have an even more impressive pitching staff than last year.

* * *

It's difficult to predict that Wynn, who will be 40 years old, will duplicate his 22 victories of 1959. Knowing his talent and determination, however, I wouldn't bet against it. Shaw should be even better than his 18-6 record of last year and could very well be the best pitcher in the league. Latman also should be a bigger winner with a full season of Major League pitching under his belt. Two youngsters who came up last year, Ken McBride and Joe Stanka, may also be heard from.

I can't say enough about my "down-the-middle" boys. It used to give me a wonderful feeling whenever I'd go out on the field at the start of the game and see Sherm Lollar behind the plate, Nellie Fox and Luis Aparicio around second base and Landis in center field. Add Wynn on the mound and my "down-the-middle" boys won five of the first nine places in the balloting for the Most Valuable Player honors last season.

Last year I said we could win the pennant. The players bore out my belief with a great season. I feel we are considerably stronger and see not only a White Sox first place finish, but also a World Series flag flying over Comiskey Park by mid-October.

Supports Legality of Voting Registrars

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Philip A. Hart (D-Mich) says he believes it would be constitutional to establish federal voting registrars to insure Negro voting rights in the South.

Hart and Sen. Jacob J. Javits (R-NY) gave their arguments in person Tuesday to the Senate Rules Committee. George M. Johnson, the Negro member of the Civil Rights Commission, sent the committee a statement agreeing with the two senators.

The question of constitutionality has become more important since last Wednesday when President Eisenhower told his news conference he didn't know whether the federal registrar arrangement would be legal under the constitution.

Southern Senators have called the idea unconstitutional from the time it was first proposed last September by the Federal Rights Commission.

Hart called the committee's attention to what he called shocking revelations that "thousands of American citizens are unable to register or vote because of their color."

Second largest city in Great Britain is Glasgow, Scotland.

TB Detention Unit Ready at Northville

LANSING (AP) — Tuberculosis patients who must be forcibly isolated to protect the public health will be shifted to a new detention unit at Northville.

The 120-bed unit is in the Maybury Sanatorium, owned by Detroit and operated by that city's health department.

The State Health Department said the unit is ready to accept rebellious patients.

"The new unit will serve a long felt need in Michigan," said Dr. Howell. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner. "We can now protect the public against that small group of TB patients who don't care if they spread disease throughout our communities."

A law allowing probate judges to commit TB patients at the request of health authorities was passed several years ago.

But until now, Heustis said, there were no facilities to prevent a patient from leaving a hospital after being committed.

Heustis said creation of the Northville unit also will permit deletion of a $100,000 budget request to construct a detention wing at the Michigan State Sanatorium at Howell.

Proposes 2 Riders in Water Ski Boats

LANSING (AP) — Citing a growing rate of water accidents, Rep. Hugh Smald (D-Detroit) has introduced a bill requiring two persons to be in any watercraft towing water skiers or surfboarders.

* * *

"In the first nine months of 1959, there were 38 water ski accidents on Michigan lakes and waterways," he said.

* * *

"By requiring an additional rider in the boat, the driver can give all his attention to the traffic ahead."

Violation would bring a maximum $100 fine, 90 days in jail, or both.

Holland Voters Reject Sewer Expansion Bonds

HOLLAND (AP) — City voters in a special election Tuesday rejected a $2,900,000 bond issue to pay for sewer expansion. It was the second rejection in three months.

The plan was voted down by a 3,026-1,184 margin.

Last October, the proposal received a 121-vote majority, but needed a three-fifths margin to carry.

Saltonstall's Daughter Seeks to Divorce Byrd

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (UPI) — Mrs. Emily S. Byrd, daughter of Sen. and Mrs. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts, filed for divorce Wednesday from her husband, a son of Richard E. Byrd.

Mrs. Byrd, in a petition filed in Middlesex Probate Court, charged Richard E. Byrd Jr. with "cruel and abusive treatment."

Byrd is a nephew of Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.).

Byrd filed an answer, denying the cruelty allegation. He said Mrs. Byrd was "cruel" to him on several occasions.

The couple has four children ranging in age from five to nine years.

Algae Develops Into Delicious 'Space Food'

NEW YORK (UPI) — Development of a pleasant-tasting food for use in space travel was announced today by the Boeing Aircraft Co.

The "space food," developed by Boeing biscientists at the company's Seattle, Wash., laboratories, is a white algae which looks like flour, is nutritious and can be used in making cookies and cupcakes.

It also can be prepared in paste form, the way it probably would be served to space travelers.

Boeing researchers developed the new space food by blanching green algae under fluorescent lights to produce a white algae which has a pleasant taste.

By comparison, green algae, long regarded as a good source of oxygen and food for space travel, has a grassy, bitter taste.

Feb. 8 Deadline for Registration

City, Court Candidates Will Be Picked in Local Primary on March 7

The last day to register for the municipal primary election is Feb. 8.

The primary — March 7 — will be concerned with selection of candidates for the City Commission and the Municipal Court bench. Only those posts contested by three or more candidates will be considered in the primary runoff.

Deadline for candidates to file for the primary is Feb. 16. No nominating petitions have been filed so far, reported Ada B. Evans, city clerk.

Newcomers to the city and older Pontiac residents who have not voted in any election in four years must register in order to qualify as electors at the primary.

To qualify as a Pontiac elector, voters must have lived in Pontiac 30 days and Michigan six months before election day.

Those who have moved within the city since the last time they voted must file changes of address.

Registrations and changes of address may be made at the Clerk's office in City Hall, open Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

ENOCH ELEY

Pick Team for City JA Fund Drive

A team of local businessmen has been organized to head the 1960 Junior Achievement fund drive which starts Feb. 1.

Enoch Eley, assistant comptroller of Pontiac Motor Division, has been named divisional chairman for the campaign.

Appointed by Eley to assist him in raising funds through solicitation of local business and industry are Henry Gotham of the Pontiac Retail Store; James Spence, secretary of the Pontiac Manufacturers Assn.; Mlle Cruse of the Pontiac State Bank; and Carrol Gerrow of the Community National Bank.

Included in the group also are Bob Nelson of Universal Oil Seal; Ralph Smith of Smith - Wideman Realty; Ralph Norvell of Austin-Norvell Agency, Inc.; Dick Fisher of the Maple Leaf Dairy; Karl Bradley of the Pontiac Area United Fund; and Owen O'Neal of the General Motors Truck and Coach Division.

Funds raised by these businessmen will be applied to a goal of $240,000 set for the Junior Achievers of Southeastern Michigan 1960 campaign. Said Eley:

"Reaching our goal will assure young high school students of an opportunity to obtain experience in the operation of business enterprises."

Chicago Commissioner Called by Grand Jury in Burglary Scandal

Police Commissioner Timothy J. O'Connor has been subpoenaed to appear before a grand jury investigating charges several policemen helped ex-convict Richard Morrison loot North Side stores.

Policemen continued taking lie detector tests in a downtown hotel. Six already have been tested and 194 more were scheduled to take their turn.

Confessed burglar Morrison, 23, touched off the investigation when he told state's attorney's agents he faced up to 20 years in prison for burglaries and decided to "take a lot of cops with me."

13 CHARGED

Also subpoenaed before the grand jury was Irwin N. Cohen, city commissioner of investigation.

Thirteen policemen have been charged with burglary, conspiracy to extort or to obstruct justice in what Mayor Richard J. Daley, a Democrat, called the "most disgraceful and shocking" scandal in police department history.

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow and Nathaniel Hawthorne were members of the same graduating class at Bowdoin College in Maine.

Extra Oakland Money to Be Pulled, Hauled

An old wrangle over which gets the most in state funds for road improvements — townships or cities — probably will be renewed Feb. 3 when Oakland supervisors play a tug-of-war over $100,000.

The money, which supervisors were told Monday was one-eighth of some unexpected non-tax surplus from last year, was headed for use on 13 bridge projects in different townships when a city supervisor put a halt to the transfer.

Roy F. Goodspeed, of Farmdale, said the County Road Commission has no more right to use the funds for improvements of township roads, "than it has to spend county monies for the maintenance of a township hall, or the payment of salary of a township clerk, or for furnishing a local fire department."

Furthermore, Goodspeed, who was injured in an auto accident Monday while on the way to carry his protest to the Board of Supervisors, claims a portion of the surplus comes from taxes and thus is not eligible to be used for this designated purpose.

"Can anyone say that the dollar received from fees is any different than the dollar received from taxation?" Goodspeed asked in letters seeking support from other city supervisors.

Members of the Board of Road Commissioners will appear next month before the Ways and Means Committee to fight for securement of the money as originally requested.

The funds, according to Hiland M. Thatcher, Board vice chairman and former township supervisor, are needed to supplement $771,415 the county received last year from the state in gas and weight tax receipts for maintenance of local roads.

"We just don't have enough to go around," Thatcher said.

Thatcher said under a state law county road commissions are entitled to ask for additional funds if the county closes the year with a surplus of so-called non-tax receipts. Oakland did in 1959, according to the Board of Auditors.

The Board of Supervisors last Sept. 14 approved the local road commission's request for $104,380 in the event the county were to have a surplus. Goodspeed was absent then.

In his letters of protest, which Thatcher said he would answer at the meeting Feb. 3, Goodspeed contends the county does not have the right to "throw this amount away" for purposes that are not of general benefit to the county.

At the end of 1957, a total of 326 common stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange had paid cash dividends consecutively for 25 years or more.

Constitution Drive Starts but Faces GOP Rejection

LANSING (AP) — A petition drive for a constitutional convention in 1961 got off the ground today amid growing doubt the Legislature will put the issue on the ballot by resolution.

It appeared almost certain the Republican-controled Senate would reject the con-con approach jointly backed by the League of Women Voters and the state Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Discordant rumblings rose from Democratic ranks as well, indicating possible rejection in the House where a GOP caucus yielded no agreement.

A political twist entered the picture when Gov. Williams yesterday became the first signer in the petition drive for 300,000 signatures launched by the League and the Junior Chamber.

Even Republican Paul Bagwell, who championed con-con in his campaign for governor 15 months ago, backed off in temporary confusion.

Bagwell said he would announce his stand after a Republican State Central Committee meeting here Saturday. He added that he favored any proposal that was "reasonable, logical and equitable."

★ ★ ★

The Republican leader told newsmen Williams did a flip-flop in jumping on the con-con bandwagon Monday. Bagwell said he had expected to be asked by the League to endorse the plan, but not until next week.

"Why the girls broke it this soon I don't know," he said.

Williams refused to support a con-con in 1958.

The new con-con proposal differs from 1958 in one factor of major political importance. It would provide somewhat balanced Republican-Democratic representation in the rewrite convention.

Under the 1958 plan, Republicans in all likelihood would have ended up with a two to one delegate majority over Democrats.

The GOP Senate majority was in no mood to yield advantage, and indicated it would favor a selective repair job on the 1908 state basic charter rather than a complete overhaul.

Meanwhile, August Scholle, AFL-CIO state president and influential figure in the Democratic Party voiced disappointment at the Williams endorsement.

In his view, the basic problem in state government is legislative representation. Accordingly, the AFL-CIO has the existing Senate apportionment under court attack and is pushing through Democratic Party channels for a reapportionment proposition on the November ballot.

The Democratic State Central Committee is weighing a study group's proposal for a one-house legislative system that would completely erase the Senate as now constituted.

The Jaycees, who launched the drive, claim 5,000 members in 130 chapters. The non-partisan League has about 3,300 members in 30 chapters.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Howard Lichterman of Huntington Woods, League president; Fred Warner of Sandusky, Jaycee president; and Robert E. Dwyer of Plymouth, chairman of the Jaycee con-con drive, met with Gov. Williams yesterday to get his signature on the first petition.

Nebraska Clerk Cites Benefits

Claims Unicameral Idea Works

[illegible]'s Note: The clerk of Nebraska's unicameral legislature is the state has the best legislature in the country. Two members of a joint Michigan Democratic study committee will visit Nebraska's one-house legislature. In the following story Srb, former member of the two-house Legislature and clerk of the unicameral since its inception, insists that the alleged superiority of the bicameral is a "myth."

He said Nebraska's one-house lawmaking body is "more representative, gives bills much more attention than other states, and fixes responsibility on the individual senator."

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI)—Nebraskans apparently are well satisfied with their one-house Legislature because there never has been a serious effort to abolish it—and it has been in existence since 1937.

Hugo Srb, former member of the two-house Legislature and clerk of the unicameral since its inception, insists that the alleged superiority of the bicameral is a "myth."

When the one-house Legislature was established, Srb said, "population was given first consideration in apportionment of districts." Each lawmaker was given a district with about 31,500 residents. Shifts in population and the growth of cities—particularly Omaha and Lincoln—have resulted in some senators representing considerably more than 31,500, while other districts have fewer residents than in 1937.

Srb said Nebraska lawmakers are more "responsible" than in other states.

"Under our system," Srb said, "it is impossible for any senator to avoid responsibility because any member of the unicameral can ask for a record vote at any time on any bill."

Each bill introduced in Nebraska—there were more than 700 during the 1959 session—gets close scrutiny as it progresses through the legislative mill, Srb said. No measure can be passed until five days after introduction. Under the former two-house system, rules could be suspended and bills passed in one day.

Nebraska also requires five days of notice of public hearings on each bill so that those interested can arrange to testify. No bill can be advanced to the floor without first having a public hearing before a standing committee.

* * *

(These procedures are not unique with the unicameral legislature. Michigan allows demands for record votes and requires a five-day waiting period. It does not require public hearings.)

Srb said the claim which occasionally is voiced that two-house legislatures have better built-in preventions against hasty legislation is another "myth."

The legislative clerk said another feature of the unicameral which has worked out well is the comparatively small membership. Nebraska has only 43 state senators. There is talk from time to time that the number should be boosted.

(Michigan has 34 senators and 110 House members.)

"The smallness of membership," Srb said, "leads to efficiency and economy."

Commenting on the claims of those who insist the unicameral is still in the experimental stage, Srb said it has operated successfully in Nebraska since 1937. He said similar systems have almost universal acceptance in Canada, Formosa, Libya, Guam, Denmark and in other governmental units, including cities.

* * *

Srb disagrees with those Nebraskans who think the Legislature should be made partisan. Both Democrats and Republicans have urged from time to time that the unicameral would be more effective if it were partisan and if the members could be made subject to at least a semblance of party discipline.

"Having the Legislature nonpartisan enables members to vote their convictions rather than the party line," Srb said. "After all, if a bill is good for the state, it should be good for both political parties."

(Michigan Democrats are considering a plan for a partisan unicameral legislature.)

While little criticism has been heard about the one-house legislature, there is a move afoot to do something about legislative salaries. The senators get only $372 annually. A proposed constitutional amendment will be on the next ballot to authorize the Legislature to hike salaries to a maximum of $200 monthly.

Nebraska's Legislature meets every other year. During the year the unicameral is not in session, members serve on legislative council study committees which research the need of legislation in various fields.

* * *

For example, one of the committees this year is studying whether the state needs a labor relations law, while another has been assigned to make a comprehensive study of the state's higher education needs in the years ahead.

The findings of the committees are submitted to the Legislature in the form of recommendations just prior to the opening of each session.

Burned Valley Returns to Life

Scientists Watch Alaska Area as Example How Earth Developed

WASHINGTON — Nearly half a century ago, one of history's greatest volcanic explosions blanketed an Alaskan valley with hot ashes that burned and buried virtually every trace of life.

The Katmai eruption — biggest since the explosion of Krakatau in Indonesia in 1883 — created an area believed similar to the barren surface of the earth before life appeared. Hence scientists welcomed an opportunity to watch a re-enactment of nature's conquest of desolation.

* * *

Four years after the 1912 eruption, Dr. Robert F. Griggs led a National Geographic Society expedition to Katmai to study revegetation in the area.

* * *

It was then he discovered the Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes, a sight he described as "one of the most amazing ever beheld by mortal eye." The whole valley seethed with thousands of smokes curling up from its fissured floor. Columns of steam shot up a thousand feet.

LIFE REGAINS TOEHOLD

Dr. Griggs found not a vestige of the vegetation that had originally covered the valley. But already life was beginning to reassert itself: around some of the smoke vents, moss and algae were spreading a faint carpet.

Several years later there were large spots of bright green. By 1928, 15 years after the eruption, Dr. Griggs observed that flowerets had taken over vast areas which had been bare a decade earlier. He also found isolated clumps of grass.

In 1953 Dr. Victor H. Cahalane, former chief biologist of the National Park Service and now assistant director of the New York State Museum, picked up the study of the valley's revegetation.

In a report just published by the Smithsonian Institution, Dr. Cahalane states that the algae and mosses have practically vanished, and seed plants have taken their place. About 35 species have gained a foothold in the valley, including the common horsetail, blue grass, willows and the Arctic poppy.

That Article VIII of the Zoning Ordinance be amended to read as follows:

Article VIII as amended.

Commercial District C-4

Regional Trailer Parks

Section 8.1—Trailer parks may be permitted in this district but is limited to trailer parks which are intended to and which are in accordance with the Michigan Trailer Park Law and the requirements as set forth hereinafter.

Section 8.2—Each lot site shall be permitted, not to exceed twenty-four (24) trailers.

Section 8.3—Trailer Parks and Associated Enterprises. The extension of any enterprise associated with trailer parks shall conform to the following minimum requirements as hereinafter set forth:

(a) That said enterprises shall have proper roadways for vehicular travel throughout said trailer parks which shall be not less than forty-six (46) feet wide with an eight (8) inch gravel base and a twenty (20) foot wide bituminous surface two (2) inches thick in the center of said roadways.

(b) That no trailer shall be located on any site situated in said trailer park which is less than thirty-five (35) feet wide to permit a mandatory side yard of five (5) feet on one side of a trailer and twenty (20) feet on the other side for off street parking which will be the only permitted parking in said trailer parks for the occupants and their guests.

(c) That no trailer shall occupy any site, unless it is of sufficient depth to allow a fifteen (15) foot set-back from the edge of the roadway and an equal amount, five feet from the rear lot line.

(d) That there shall be provided throughout the trailer park, a thirty-six foot concrete service walk for the occupants and their guests for pedestrian travel between trailers, trailer park services and the recreation area, located at the discretion of the governing board.

(e) That there shall be provided an area equal to four hundred thirty-five (435) square feet for each trailer site to be designated as a recreational and park area for the occupants of said trailer park.

(f) That there shall be provided for each trailer site a sewage disposal system and water system which shall conform to the minimum specifications required by State Law at the time said trailer park or associated enterprises shall be constructed or operated.

(g) That all storm drains as provided in such trailer parks and associated enterprises must comply with specifications and pass inspection by the Township engineer.

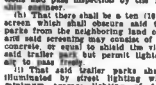

(h) That there shall be a ten (10) foot screen which shall obscure said trailer parks from the neighboring land owners and said screening may consist of wood, concrete, or equal to shield the view of said trailer park but permit lights and air to pass freely.

(i) That said trailer parks shall be illuminated by street lighting with a minimum average lighting of 0.6 foot candles.

This Ordinance shall become effective thirty (30) days after publication in a newspaper circulating within the Township. This Ordinance enacted by the Township Board of Pontiac Township, Oakland County, Michigan, December 14th, 1959.

Grain Futures Weak, Trade at Slow Pace

CHICAGO (AP)—The grain futures market was generally weak during the first several minutes of transactions today on the board of trade.

Most declines were in small fractions but soybeans fell back about a cent on new crop months. Trade again was at a slow pace and in small volume.

Dealers said commercial buying was nil all around. Italy bought a small amount of soybeans and the United Kingdom took a little corn.

Hot grease caught fire on a kitchen stove at the home of Leonard Berglund, 3560 Clintonville Rd., Waterford Township, last night, causing an estimated $135 in damage, according to township firemen.

Science Issues Lead Recovery

NEW YORK (AP)—Paced by electronic-missile-rocket shares, the stock market staged a fair recovery in moderate trading early this afternoon.

The rocket launchings by the United States and Russia drew attention once more to the "science" issues involved in the national space effort.

At the same time, steels, motors, oils, rails and other key stocks acquitted themselves well although not sensationally.

Brokers saw ample grounds for a technical rebound since the market has risen only twice thus far in 1960. Many stocks, including the space age issues, were down well enough below their highs to attract speculative demand.

* * * *

Aircrafts, tobaccos, building materials and an assortment of selected stocks were on the upgrade. Gains among the pivotal stocks went from fractions to a point or so while a few secondary issues were up 2 or 3 points.

The rise in the British bank rate to 5 per cent from 4 per cent emphasized tight money fears which have dampened the market recently but Wall Streeters now believe that another boost in the discount rate may not occur until next month.

Gains of a point or better were made by Ampex, Thiokol, General Tire, Motorola and Litton ,Industries, the latter having just acquired an electronic division of General Controls which was inactive and up fractionally. Texas instruments added a couple.

Conduct Leadership Class for Hospital Supervisors

A voluntary "Leadership Training Program" is being conducted at Pontiac General Hospital for all supervisory personnel on a weekly basis.

The five-week session was developed jointly by the supervisory staff in an effort to promote leadership and improved personnel and employe relations, according to Harold B. Euler, hospital administrator.

A case study technique is being used throughout the classes.

2 Top Western Singers Will Headline Jamboree

RAY PRICE

WILLIAM O. MOULTON JR.

Two of America's top country and western singers will appear at Pontiac Central High School Saturday in three shows.

Ray Price and Stonewall Jackson will headline the Michigan Jamboree being presented by the Pontiac Lions Club.

All proceeds from the shows, to begin at 2, 7, and 9:30, will go into the Lions Club sight conservation program.

Price is recognized as the top name in the country and western field. He has ridden to fame largely on his recordings of "Crazy Arms," "Heartaches by the Numbers," "City Lights," and "Wasted Words."

The second title was voted the top country and western song in 1959 by trade magazines.

Stonewall Jackson has followed a "rags to riches" course. In two years he has risen from dirt farming in Moultrie, Ga., to national fame in the country and western field.

His first "pop" hit was "Waterloo." His current hit record is "Mary Don't You Weep."

Both are stars of Nashville's Grand Ole Opry. Joining them will be Billy Martin of Pontiac and his driftin' wranglers, widely known throughout Michigan.

Other Michigan Jamboree favorites on the program will be Rusty Williams of Rochester; Rose Lane of Hazel Park; Clyde Vaughn of Flint; Archie Grammer of Auburn Heights; and the Kentucky Rebels of East Detroit.

Proceeds will go toward support of the Leader Dogs for the Blind School in Rochester, and provide more glasses and other medical aid for persons who could not otherwise afford it.

Tickets will be available at the door at all three performances, from any club member, or at Grinnell Music and Calbi Music in Pontiac and Bejnar's in Utica.

New Rail Car for Autos Rolls

Triple-Decker Prototype Is Latest Method of Hauling Developed

A new triple-level flat car pulled out of Ford Motor Co.'s Lincoln plant siding at Wixom yesterday afternoon loaded with the first automobiles to try this latest method of rail transportation.

* * * *

The load, consisting of eight new cars, was hauled away on the prototype flat car, first of its kind, by Santa Fe Railway. It is headed for Los Angeles.

The triple-deck freight car is expected to permit more vehicles to be transported on a single rail car than is now possible by box car and piggyback methods.

The prototype measures 53 feet, 6 inches long. It will be followed with production of a full-scale, triple-level flat car measuring 88 feet long and will carry 12 to 15 automobiles.

* * * *

The present experimental shipment culminates a year of joint effort by Ford and Santa Fe companies to develop a system that would increase the flat-car load, reduce travel time on long hauls, alleviate highway congestions and offer unlimited variations in vehicles being transported.

Officials of both companies hailed the system, as one that combines the best features of present short and long-haul methods and one that will be utilized on a large scale when the full-scale cars are put into service.

Says Networks to Air Culture

N. Y. Paper Reports Pact With FCC on Use of Prime Evening Time

NEW YORK (AP) — The three national television networks have been persuaded by John C. Doerfer, chairman of the Federal Communications Commission, to carry cultural and educational programs on a regular basis during prime evening hours, the New York Times said today.

The networks are expected to announce such a plan within the next few days, a Washington dispatch to the Times added.

It will be a voluntary agreement under which the networks and their affiliates will take turns each night in carrying public service programs, the story said.

The Times said Doerfer declined to comment on the proposals, but that it was learned elsewhere he had been consulting with officials of the three networks and helping to bring them together on the agreement.

The Times said the final agreement among the networks is likely to assign each of them one weekday evening. The network would put on a cultural or public service program—at least 30 minutes long—that would otherwise not be on the air.

Also, an effort will be made to have network affiliated stations around the country put on local public service programs, the Times said.

Shell Oil Announces Wholesale Hike of 1.9

DETROIT (AP) — Shell Oil Co. announced yesterday a wholesale price increase of 1.9 cents a gallon for regular, and 2 cents for premium gasoline in the Detroit area.

The increase, which becomes effective today, followed a similar announcement by Standard Oil Co.

A general rise in gas prices is expected in the Pontiac area in a day or two. Regular gas is 26.9 or 27.9 in most places now.

U.S. Navy Will Attempt Depth Record Friday

GUAM (AP)—While other agencies reach for the moon, the Navy Friday will try to reach an ocean depth never seen by man.

Scientist Jacques Piccard and Lt. Donald Walsh will man the ocean-probing Bathyscaph Trieste in the Marianas Trench, 300 miles southeast of here, in an attempt to plunge 30,000 feet below the surface of the Pacific.

Credit Union Holds Election

William A. Moulton Jr. Chosen President of Oakland Group

At the annual meeting in Pontiac last night, William O. Moulton Jr., director of the Children's Home, was elected 1960 president of the Oakland County Employes Credit Union.

Moulton, a county employe since 1945 and director of the home since 1949, succeeds Paul F. Thams, director of special education for the County Board of Education.

Re-elected to one-year terms were Herbert R. Radunz, sheriff's deputy with civil matters, vice president; John Straus, road commission, treasurer; and Mrs. Pauline Hammond, with the payroll department of the Board of Auditors, secretary.

There was a large turnout at the 7th annual meeting of the 1,800-member organization held at the Pontiac Federal Savings & Loan Assn. building.

Besides Moulton, Radunz, Jones and Mrs. Hammond, William Arnold of the maintenance department, Mrs. Florence Allen of the clerk's office, and William Webb of the treasurer's office were elected to the Board of Directors for the coming year.

Bank Interest Goes to 5 Pct. in London

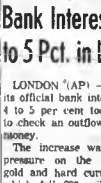

LONDON (AP) — Britain hiked its official bank interest rate from 4 to 5 per cent today in a move to check an outflow of investment money.

The increase was prompted by pressure on the sterling area's gold and hard currency reserves, which fell 238 million dollars in December and $333,200,000 for the whole of 1959.

Most of this decline was attributable to nonrepetitive international loan repayments. Part of it, however, was caused by investors searching for better interest yields abroad, particularly in the United States.

Business Notes

BOYLE

A native of Milford, Boyle was a trial attorney for the past three and a half years with the Michigan State Highway Department in its land condemnation program.

Following his graduation from the University of Michigan law school and his admission to the bar in 1953, Boyle served two years in the Army as a legal adviser.

Boyle was appointed to the Attorney General's Office in 1956 by Michigan Supreme Court Justice Thomas M. Kavanagh, then state attorney general.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF our dear husband, who passed away January 21, 1958.
Loving memories come to me
As years roll on and days pass by,
In my hearts a memory is kept for you
Dear husband.
—Wife

IN LOVING MEMORY OF LOUIS Spadafore who passed away January 21, 1954.
Come to the face we loved so dear,
Kneel to the voice we loved so near,
Pray for every for sight to speech,
Rest for toil, for day for week,
Sadly missed by his wife, Rose; Sons: Paul, Guy and Sam Daughters Theresa, Esther and Dominica

IN LOVING MEMORY OF EDward J. Hawkins who passed away 2 years ago January 20, 1958.
It is unusual here without you,
And sad and weary the way
Life has been since you were called away
Gently missed by children and grandchildren.

WE WISH TO EXPRESS OUR thanks to all the people who were so kind to Frankie D. Newton. It was greatly appreciated. Mr. & Mrs. Frankie D. Newton

Ike to Keynote GOP Session?

Not Likely to Become Temporary Chairman of Convention, Though

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower apparently will sound the keynote of the Republican National Convention opening July 25 in Chicago.

Although Eisenhower is not likely to take over the duties of temporary chairman, as usually delivers the keynote speech, Republicans generally expect the President to set the tone for their campaign in a major address.

GOP National Chairman Thruston B. Morton said it has been left up to Eisenhower to decide which day he wishes to speak.

Eisenhower's appearance would be calculated to give a lift to a convention that may lack crowd and television appeal because of the absence of any contest for the party's top nomination. Vice President Richard M. Nixon is almost certain to be named to head the ticket.

★ ★ ★

Some Republicans have been tween their potentially cut - and - worried about the contrast bedried affair in Chicago and the dramatic battles Democrats may put on in Los Angeles two weeks earlier.

NIXON FOR TAFT?

Nixon, who is regarded as likely to have the final say in the matter, has indicated he wants Robert A. Taft Jr., son of the late Ohio senator, placed in an important convention job.

Young Taft, who has dabbled in Ohio politics, may head one of the major committees. He called on Nixon Wednesday and was reported to have been informed of the vice president's plans for him.

★ ★ ★

With Eisenhower sounding the keynote and young Taft sharing in the limelight, Nixon's friends think it will be relatively easy for Republicans to forget the differences that marked Eisenhower's convention victory over Sen. Taft in 1952. But they haven't sewed up the seams split by Rockefeller's exit from competition.

Hormones? Nuts, Says Salesman

Men Go Ga-Ga Over Buttermilk

By MERRIMAN SMITH

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Backstairs at the White House: This, Inspector, is the case of the "hot" buttermilk, or as we say downtown, the clabby clabber.

It reached all the way inside the White House before the neighborhood pusher ran out of supplies.

★ ★ ★

We've had these cases before, Inspector. You know how it is — a man gets to be 60 or so and begins to think of his youth and someone comes along with a gimmick to make him feel young again—monkey glands, vitamin pills, all that jazz.

In this case, the magic stuff was buttermilk, pure and simple buttermilk . . . with hormones . . . male hormones.

As near as our agents can determine, this business started at a Cabinet meeting with President Eisenhower sitting up there just as big as you please.

★ ★ ★

One of the Cabinet members got to whispering with another fellow at one end of the room. The other fellow was one of President's chief assistants. The assistant, it seems, said how well the Cabinet member looked.

"Buttermilk," said the Cabinet member. "That's what did it."

Something was said about hormones; that this particular milk was simply loaded with the stuff to make a man feel like himself again.

★ ★ ★

Our case switches now to the supplier, a pleasant little man who was minding his own business selling overpriced groceries to bigshots in a little rare foods emporium not far from the White House. Among his choice items was buttermilk from a small dairy.

★ ★ ★

The next thing the storekeeper knew, there was a long line of black limousines purring up to the curb, uniformed men sliding inside to ask for a couple of quarts of "that" buttermilk.

Without a limousine to serve as a credential, it was possible to get the magic elixir simply by mentioning the name of the Cabinet member in a properly hushed, speakeasy type voice.

Inspector, the thing turned into a boom. This supplier got to where he was selling more buttermilk than cheese tidbits. One high government official raced into his store and demanded, as it were, to be saved.

★ ★ ★

There was even a system of deliveries started at some of the highest government offices in town. The word of buttermilk with hormones spread like fire in dry leaves.

Then the case came to the attention of this department. Let the neighborhood clabber pusher tell his own story:

"I don't know what got into those men. Hormones? Nuts. That would be against the law, putting anything in milk that wasn't put there naturally.

"There's absolutely nothing in this buttermilk. Absolutely nothing. It was just plain old churned buttermilk and somebody got to talk about it.

"Those fellows bought me out high and dry. I haven't been able to get hold of a quart for days. Boy, while I had it, I sure sold it. I have a waiting list now if I ever get a supply again. You want me to telephone the White House if any comes in?"

Name-Change Action Unlikely

Waterford School Unit to Mull Issue Tonight at Meeting

Although there will be some discussion on changing the name of Waterford Township High School at tonight's Board of Education meeting, there probably will be no action taken, according to Superintendent William Shunck.

At a meeting Tuesday night, 18 students representing the four high school grades presented reasons why the name Waterford Township High School should not be changed to Thomas A. Edison High School.

Shunck said that the Board was impressed with the dignified and orderly way in which the students presented the issue.

Other business scheduled on the agenda includes a report from the building committee concerning two new elementary school sites in the Huntoon Lake and Beaumont-Pontiac Lake areas.

Several test borings have been taken in the Pontiac Lake area and all have proven unsatisfactory for holding school buildings, Shunck said.

There will be further consideration of liability insurance policies for the school district.

Recreation Director Thomas Belton will be present to discuss relations between the school board and the Recreation board.

Bible Story Park Will Be Built in California

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (UPI) — A proposed 15-million-dollar park devoted to dramatizing Biblical lore will be built here, it was announced Wednesday.

Nat Wineeoff, vice president and founder of the project, announced the park called "Bible Storyland" will be located on a 320-acre site at nearby Cocoanut.

Opening of the park — which will include such features as a "Ride to Heaven" and "Jonah's Whale" — was tentatively set for Easter Sunday, 1961.

"Bible Storyland will bring into sharp, three - dimensional focus the wondrous people, places and things of the Bible like nothing has done heretofore," said Donald F. Duncan, board chairman of Bible Storyland.

"This project gives the entertainment business a wonderful opportunity to create something that is above and beyond entertainment alone," he said.

Backs Legislation for More Milk Funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department Wednesday reversed itself and backed legislation to increase funds for the special milk program for children.

Clarence L. Miller, assistant secretary of agriculture, told a House agriculture subcommittee, however, that the program started in 1954 should not be made permanent.

Miller said he favored bills by Rep. Lester Johnson (D-Wis), subcommittee chairman, and other members which would:

Increase the present authorization of 81 million dollars for the special milk program for the year ending June 30, 1960, to 85 million dollars and increase the $4 million authorized for the year starting July 1, 1960 to 90 million dollars.

The department a year ago opposed raising the authorization of 75 million dollars a year to even the current levels.

Miller said that last year more than 81,000 schools, child-care institutions and summer camps were in the program and participating children consumed nearly 2,200,000,000 half-pints of milk.

LANSING (AP) — Alexander C. Perlos 29, a Jackson attorney has been named by Gov. Williams as Circuit Court commissioner for Jackson County, succeeding Justice of the Peace Gordon W. Britten.

Lake Ship Safety Study Apparently Agreed Upon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Canada and the United States reportedly have agreed on a study of ship safety on the Great Lakes.

The House Merchant Marine Committee approved last year legislation to require pilots on Great Lakes vessels.

Canada had no objections to this, but did disapprove of another feature in the bill calling for a joint U.S.-Canada commission to study other pilotage problems.

Group Celebrating National Week

Jaycees Busy All Year 'Round

Every week is Jaycee Week to the Jaycees.

The Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce called attention today to its year-long program in behalf of the community.

The organization is celebrating National Jaycee Week, proclaimed throughout the nation, state and city.

Jaycees have dozens of projects every year in Pontiac, said Norman O'Brien Jr., this year's president.

All of them are conducted with the betterment of the community in mind, and many of them are aimed especially at children.

Here are some of the bigger projects the Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsors year-in and year-out:

Jaycee Park — One of the largest in the city, located at Walton boulevard and Joslyn road, it has ball diamonds for the youngsters and picnic grounds for the whole family.

Jaycees have put $7,500 into improvements so far and expect to help the Parks & Recreation Development develop the area further as time goes by.

EGG HUNT IS FUN

Easter Egg Hunt — Not too many days away, this springtime fun sees Jaycees and other civic groups helping Parks & Recreation workers give thousands of Pontiac children an Easter thrill.

Builders Show — A big money maker, the show brings local businesses and prospective customers together each year amid new products and new ideas.

Teen-age Road-E-O — Competition is keen as youthful drivers learn good motoring habits while they strive for prizes in contests of skill. Jaycees also sponsor the traffic accident scoreboard at Saginaw and Huron streets.

Clean-up, Paint-up Week — The annual spring reminder to householders that a few repairs and a coat of paint will spruce up almost any home.

Mystery Treat Contest — Prizes go to youngsters who are home Halloween night by the curfew times set by schools and the Parks & Recreation Department.

Christmas programs — Jaycees do lots of little jobs at Christmas time, but one of the most rewarding comes when 30 underprivileged children go downtown shopping, each with five silver dollars in his pocket or purse. Jaycees also give children at Pontiac State Hospital a Christmas party.

Jaycees sponsor the annual Golden Gloves boxing tournament for boys — another big money-maker. To encourage youthful boxing, they run a gymnasium with boxing instruction weekdays from 6 to 9 p.m. at 18 N. Perry St.

The money-making projects provide funds to finance other Jaycee projects, O'Brien said.

Telephone Stars Again in Good Stock Mart Probe

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — The telephone is having quite a time of it on TV.

Last Saturday, Art Carney, starring in "Call Me Back"—subtitled "The Telephone Hour"—heated up a phone as he talked himself into suicide.

The phones were sizzling again last night when CBS-TV's Armstrong Circle Theater presented "Full Disclosure," a story of fraudulent stock manipulators and their high-voltage telephone tactics.

They were eventually disconnected by the combined efforts of a legitimate stock broker, a wary customer and the Securities Exchange Commission's laws and agents.

Harold Gast's script was informative, entertaining and straightforward.

It also generated suspense: Would the young engineer, calmly and effectively played by Martin Brooks, end his $5,000 saving's into "Spacenet," a worthless stock that a friend tipped him to? No.

It was a fine show, despite some fluffs in production details. I suppose the moral of the story is: If someone tips you, knock him over.

Robert Horton, the scout for "Wagon Train," took the denim wraps off his singing voice during a guest shot on Perry Como's NBC-TV colorcast last night.

The result was generally pleasing. Horton joined Como in "Route 66" and then soloed with "It's Wonderful," attired in white tie and tails, no less.

His voice differs from the current trend in pop singing (adult-style) since he avoids the Frank Sinatraisms and displays a kind of Parisian music hall style, or timbre.

DIALING AND FILING: Wagon Train attempted a delicate morality play last night and spoiled it by approaching the plot with the subtlety of a trolley car. Young Richard Eyer turned in the show's best acting job . . . Ozzie and Harriet on ABC-TV began with an amusing scene involving son David and his boss, played by Francis de Sales. From then on, however, the story stammered along into some more demonstrations of parental delinquency. . . . Edmond O'Brien really worked to put over his stunt on "I've Got a Secret." He was photographed with all four panel members during the week as he performed menial chores for them, in disguise.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Art Carney's 90-minute NBC-TV special for Friday, Feb. 5, is titled "3-in-1" and consists of Carney appearing in three one-act plays: Sean O'Casey's "A Pound on Demand", Noel Coward's "Red Peppers" and Eugene O'Neill's "Where the Cross Is Made."

Patti Page replaces ailing Ginger Rogers on next Wednesday's Perry Como Show. . . . Person to Person visits Gwen Verdon and English actor Martyn Green on CBS-TV Friday, Jan. 29.

There's Nothing Funny About 24th Anniversary

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — The Beautiful Wife and I just knocked off our 24th wedding anniversary and are going to try for 25. When I told the B.W. I wished I could think of a joke about us being married 24 years, she said, "You won't be able to — because there wasn't anything funny about it."

Col. Tom Parker, Elvis Presley's mgr., came up from Nashville to meet Hal Wallis and discuss Elvis' movie, "GI Blues." Parker, a great kidder, told Wallis: "Elvis will be back home in March — unless he decides to reenlist."

Jackie Gleason came out stoutly (how else?) against special tax breaks for actors on the Barry Gray radio show, and got such a good response "I could have been elected Mayor," he says. Denying the contention that actors deteriorate ("I didn't," he said), Gleason asked Cedric Hardwicke and Moss Hart how long they'd been in show business. Forever, they admitted.

"A special break for athletes, yes," Gleason argued. "And how about the garbage man? He might only have five good years from throwing those heavy cans in the truck. I'm for everybody getting a tax break—from a lottery or off-track betting—but not for actors any more than anybody else."

Jackie, who plays "Take Me Along" until Oct. 21, leaves almost immediately thereafter for Paris to get set for his movie, "Gigot." He subbed for ailing Ed Sullivan for free, but gets about $35,000 to do "The Fabulous Fifties."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Ingemar Johansson has a new business venture — shipping chocolate to Sweden.

"Ecstasy," which boosted Hedy Lamarr to fame, will be filmed again in Germany — minus Hedy . . . Anita Ellis, vacationing from "Flower Drum Song," is skiing in Switzerland . . . Former Met Opera star Grete Stuckgold is now modeling (with daughter Eva Burney's agency).

EARL'S PEARLS: Sign at a Miami reducing salon: "Come in and Shoo the Fat."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "Success is relative — the more success, the more relatives."

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: "I won't believe Stevenson isn't going to run until he gets his shoes resoled." . . . That's earl, brother.

Rush to Head Off Rail Walkout Friday

CHICAGO (UPI) — Federal mediators worked toward a Friday deadline today in efforts to head off a 50,000-member union's threat to break off wage talks with the nation's railroads.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers yesterday said it would take a strike vote and ask the National Mediation Board to arbitrate if the carriers do not make higher wage increase offers by Friday.

Perry S. Heath, assistant grand chief engineer of the union, said the brotherhood had rejected a "feeler" by the railroads, for a 3 per cent wage boost—about 7½ cents an hour —effective next Jan. 1.

However, Theodore Short, spokesman for the railroad negotiating team, denied that a wage offer had been made and charged that Heath's statement was an attempt to "mislead the public."

A supermarket (defines F. G. Kerman) is a place where you can find anything you want, except the kids when you're ready to leave . . . A great many of today's problems are man-maid. —Earl Wilson.

Desegregate Restaurant at Atlanta Air Terminal

ATLANTA (AP)—Negroes have won the right to sit wherever they please in the Atlanta airport restaurant.

The policy of the restaurant, operated by Dobbs Houses Inc., had been to serve Negro patrons behind a screen, setting them apart from white customers.

U. S. Dist. Judge Boyd Sloan issued a decree Wednesday which permanently prohibits the restaurant from discriminating against persons because of race.

EXPORTS CUT—Premier Fidel Castro's campaign to reduce Cuba's dependence on the United States is making headway, as sketch above shows. Cuba is still this country's largest Latin - American customer for farm products, but in the third quarter of 1959 exports to Cuba ran 39 per cent below the like period in 1958.

Cite 22 Allies Against Poll Tax

Bill May Substitute for an Effort to Amend the Nation's Constitution

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R-NY) announced that he and Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill) have been joined by 22 other senators in sponsoring a bill to eliminate poll taxe payments as a requirement for voting in federal elections.

* * *

It will be advanced as a substitute for a proposed constitutional amendment to do away with the poll tax in the five states—Alabama, Arkansas, Mississipi, Texas and Virginia—where it still is a prerequisite to voting.

The constitutional amendment was introduced late in the last session of Congress by Sen. Spessard Holland (D-Fla) and has the support of Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex), the Senate majority leader.

Johnson said yesterday it might come up for action in the Senate later this week.

Plans call for offering it as a rider to another constitutional amendment which would give governors the power to fill vacancies in the House in the event more than half the members were killed by an atomic attack or other disaster.

* * *

This strategy has been worked out since the anti-poll tax amendment has been hotlied up in the Senate Judiciary Committee, headed by Sen. James O. Eastland (D-Miss).

Javits said he is opposed to the constitutional amendment because he believes the enactment of a statute is "capable of achieving the same result with equal if not added effectiveness."

Opponents of an anti-poll tax bill have contended that a constitutional amendment is required to eliminate poll tax payments as a voting requirement.

Javits disputes this.

"As a lawyer," he said, "I believe it is most inadvisable to use a constitutional amendment to do what I am convinced the Congress is fully capable of doing through legislative channels."

* *

He said he also is opposed to use of a constitutional amendment to eliminate the poll tax "because it is a cumbersome technique at best."

He said he has doubts about the confidence expressed by sponsors of the constitutional amendment that it would be speedily ratified by three-fourths of the states.

Hawaii's Kapoho Is Safe, but Lava Hits New Area

HONOLULU (AP) — A 10-foot deep stream of boiling and hissing lava from Kilauea volcano stopped abruptly Wednesday night at the outskirts of the tiny, deserted village of Kapoho — but a fiery finger headed for another hamlet on Hawaii Island.

The inhabitants of the newly threatened village, Kone, northeast of Kapoho at the eastern tip of the island, were evacuated with Kapoho's 300 residents ahead during the week-old eruption.

"At present Kapoho seems pretty safe," said Albert Wilson, civil defense official.

Spanish Envoy Blasts Fidel

EXPLODES AT CASTRO — Spanish ambassador to Cuba, Juan Pablo de Lojendio, rushes into a television studio where Fidel Castro was broadcasting on a nationwide program, to accuse Castro of slandering him in his address

AP Wirephoto

The envoy was hustled out of the studio and then ordered to leave Cuba in 24 hours. Castro also recalled his ambassador to the Franco regime

Must Return to Spain

Cuba Boots Ambassador

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro today gave the Spanish ambassador 24 hours to get out of Cuba after a face-to-face midnight row before a nationwide television audience that threatened to develop into a riot.

Fuming with rage, the bearded Prime Minister announced he was immediately recalling his own ambassador to Madrid, Jose Miro Cordona. He said it was uncertain whether a complete diplomatic break with Generalissimo Francisco Franco's government would follow.

Police and soldiers grabbed the Spanish Ambassador, Juan Pablo de Lojendio, Marquis of Vellhca, and hustled him out of the TV studio after he had rushed in through a side door and accused the Prime Minister of slandering him in the broadcast.

Castro had said the embassy was "in contact with war criminals and has ties with them." He accused the U.S. Embassy of similar activity against his regime.

★ ★ ★

The bearded Prime Minister hovered over the clean shaven, aristocratic diplomat as he refused the ambassador's demands to be heard and shouted angrily, "You are not in Spain now. You are in Cuba."

After the ambassador was whisked away to safety from the menacing crowd, Castro brought cheers from the studio audience with the assertion:

"I will give the Spanish ambassador 24 hours to get out of Cuba."

President Osvaldo Dorticos, who was in the audience, jumped to the microphone and shouted:

"There is no other course. This is an official decision of our government."

NO OTHER WAY

"We are going to recall our ambassador immediately, there is no other remedy," declared Castro. "We are not going to lose much."

He added sarcastically: "I hope they don't send the Spanish fleet to invade the island."

Cuba was under Spanish rule for centuries until it gained independence with the help of the United States in 1898. It became a republic in 1902.

While Castro was speaking, a crowd of about 1,000 gathered outside the TV studio shouting "out with the Spanish ambassador."

Joe Louis, former world heavyweight boxing champion, was in the audience during the fracas. Louis, who is among a group of Americans invited to Havana by the Castro government to help promote the lagging tourist industry, was called to the microphone and said:

"I congratulate the Prime Minister and the rebels for the protection they gave to the Spanish ambassador."

Straley AND Eastman Should Quit---PPOA

By MAX E. SIMON

In a surprise move, the Pontiac Police Officers Assn. (PPOA) last night called for the resignation of both Public Safety Director George D. Eastman and Police Chief Herbert W. Straley.

The vote was 24-6.

Det. Robert A. Emery, PPOA president, said the proposal came "like a bombshell."

It was made by Sgt. Herbert C. Cooley, a former PPOA president and long-time foe of the police chief.

The motion passed after an hour and a half of heated debate.

Emery said the organization's officers will direct a letter to City Manager Walter K. Willman and the city commissioners asking them to seek the resignations of both men.

Emery said such action would be an "amicable solution" to the long years of strife within the city's police department.

"Although we feel Eastman has been of great benefit to the department and the city, we feel we can't sacrifice the well-being of 120 officers and the citizens of Pontiac because we personally like them," Emery said.

"We can't let personalities enter into this."

HAD EASTMAN'S SANCTION

Eastman today said "the motion had my sanction in advance."

Emery said that since Eastman's arrival in Pontiac the public safety director had accomplished "many things the citizens didn't realize—such as cutting the accident and death rates. Although crime has increased, the crime clearance rate is also up," he said.

Vandals Hit 22 School Buses

25 Per Cent of Pupils in Holly Area Fail to Attend Classes Today

Vandals were blamed today for cutting the gasoline lines of 22 school buses in the Holly Area School district keeping more than 500 children home from classes.

Superintendent of the schools Ray W. Barber said he had no idea who had cut the copper gas lines, but believed that it was not the work of pranksters.

"This was not the work of children," Barber said. "The vandalism was done systematically.

"Each bus had its line cut in the same way, all from underneath the bus."

Damage to the old and new buses was discovered this morning at 7 a.m. when drivers would normally warm up the motors before starting their routes.

Holly Police Chief James Parker said 20 of the buses which were disabled by the vandals were parked in a lot here. The other two were parked at the homes of drivers in nearby Davisburg.

Only six buses operated by the Holly area public schools were in running condition this morning.

Parker indicated that a number of persons were involved because it would have been virtually impossible for an individual to sever so many gas lines.

Report Aneurin Bevan Still Seriously Sick

LONDON (UPI)—Aneurin (Nye) Bevan, 62-year-old fiery symbol of British socialism, was reported "still seriously ill" today in London's Royal Free Hospital. His wife was at his bedside.

Bevan underwent a major abdominal operation Dec. 29.

Sale of Pontiacs Set a Record Pace Last Year

Pontiac retail car sales last year soared to a record 64 per cent increase over 1958 sales, it was announced today.

During the calendar year 1959 Pontiac dealers delivered a total of 296,879 new cars, according to S. E. Knudsen, General Motors vice president and general manager of Pontiac Motor Division.

"This remarkable performance made 1959 the best sales year for Pontiac since 1955," Knudsen said.

"Nationwide registrations for 11 months of 1959 (January through November) reveal Pontiac to be in third place among all car makes and leader of the medium price field."

New car registration figures for December are not complete.

Pontiac finished 1958 in sixth position in the auto industry with the sale of 238,872 new cars.

Knudsen said dealer stocks depleted by the recent steel "situation" are being replenished through "accelerated production" to meet the increasing demand for 1960 Pontiacs.

Russia Begins Pacific Testing

Claims Rocket Falls in 1,24 Miles of Goal After 7,760-Mile Flight

MOSCOW (AP)— The Russians announced today they fired a rocket 7,760 miles into the central Pacific which fell less than 1.24 miles from its calculated target.

★ ★ ★

The multistage ballistic missile was the first in the series of planned launchings" for producing rockets to put heavy earth satellites into orbit and for space flights toward other planets of the solar system, Tass news agency said.

The Tass announcement said the point of fall of the rocket "confirmed the high exactitude of the system of rocket control."

It landed at 8:05 p.m. Wednesday Moscow time (1:05 p.m. EST) at a point 12,500 kilometers (7,760 miles) from the takeoff spot—not named in the announcement—and traveled at a speed of 26,000 kilometers (16,150 miles) an hour, the announcement said.

Airliner Crash Suspect Hooked in Phoenix, Ariz.

Jailed on Theft Charge, but Line With Taylor and Frank Is Sought

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — A grey-haired, heavily insured ex-convict presumed dead in a mysterious airliner crash has turned up alive here.

Dr. Vernon Spears of Dallas was the focus of investigation into bizarre circumstances surrounding the Nov. 16 crash of a commercial airliner into the Gulf of Mexico.

Federal authorities are investigating the possibility that the crash may have resulted from a bomb.

Spears was seized by two FBI agents Wednesday as he hurriedly checked out of a Phoenix resort motel. He was jailed on a charge of interstate transportation of a stolen car, but the FBI was more interested in his answers to these questions:

What was the 63-year-old naturopath up to when he took out $100,000 in travel insurance? Why was he listed as a passenger on the ill-fated flight?

DID HE?

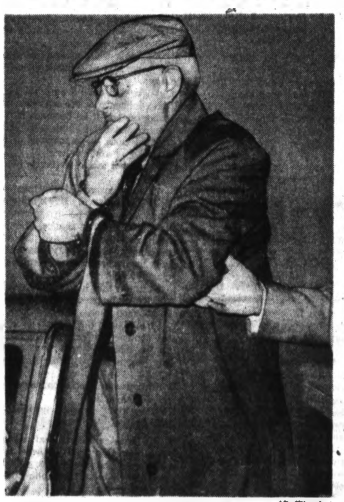

Did he prevail upon William Allen Taylor of Tampa, Fla., a former prison acquaintance, to take his place on the plane? If so, why and how?

Was there any connection between Spears and Julian Andrew Frank, New York lawyer insured for $800,000 and named as a possible suicide bomber on another airliner which crashed in North Carolina Jan. 6?

If Spears has given any answers, the FBI won't say. Newsmen have not been permitted to talk with him.

Mrs. Spears, crying and shaken by the news that her husband did not die in a plane crash two months ago, sent a telegram to him today just before being put to bed under sedation.

The brief telegram said: "The (Continued on Page 2, Col. 7)

Sen. Capehart's Kin a Victim in Jamaica

Landing Gear Buckles, Followed by Explosion —9 Persons Escape

KINGSTON, Jamaica (AP) —A Colombian airliner bound from New York to Colombia buckled its landing gear and exploded in setting down at the Montego Bay airport early today, killing 37 of the 46 persons aboard.

Seventeen of the dead were Americans, among them a son and daughter-in-law of Sen. Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind.). They were Thomas C. Capehart and his wife, Nancy, both 36, of Indianapolis, on a business trip to Bogota, Colombia.

Two Dutch and two Australian passengers and five members of the seven-member Colombian crew lived through the crash and the resultant fire that ravaged the two-million-dollar Super Constellation for two hours.

The plane, operated by the Aviance Colombian National Airline, had made an unscheduled stop at Miami for repairs to a faltering engine.

It was 10 hours overdue when it reached Montego Bay, a popular Caribbean resort on Jamaica's north coast 550 miles south of Miami, about 2:35 a.m.

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION

The weather was good as it headed in for a landing. But witnesses said the left landing gear had collapsed as the plane hit the runway, and there was a terrific explosion, followed by two other blasts. The blazing plane skidded to a point about 200 yards from the old airport building.

The plane captain, J. Duque, was among the survivors. None of those who got out appeared to be seriously injured.

This was the fourth fatal crash of a commercial airliner in 1960 and raised the airliner death toll for the first three weeks of the new year to 163. At least 18 others have died in the United States in private planes crashed since Jan. 1.

Some of the passengers aboard the Colombian plane—Avianca's Flight 671—were booked for vacations or business pursuits in Jamaica, popular with winter funseekers. Others were heading on to South America.

All 42 persons aboard died when a Scandinavian jet liner crashed on a hill near Ankara, Turkey, on Tuesday.

Last Monday, a Capital Airlines plane crashed in Virginia, killing 50 persons.

Cooking School Tickets? Sorry, They're All Gone

Pontiac area homemakers are so anxious to learn more about new food ideas that they have exhausted the supply of tickets for the cooking school to be held Jan. 26, 27, 28 and 29 at Pontiac Central High School.

More prizes have been added to the list of household equipment and food already announced. Dishmaster Co. is giving one Dishmaster Imperial Unit for a kitchen sink. Thomas Economy Furniture will give an innerspring mattress each day, two Serta Inner Springs and two Spring Aire mattresses.

Winners of the two grand prizes, a Hotpoint electric range from Federal Department Store and a Magic Chef gas range from Consumers Power, and other major prizes, must be present Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday to be eligible.

They need not be present Friday.

There will be a limited number of parking spaces available in the Crofoot School playground parking lot, just west of Franklin boulevard, off Huron street.

Ticket holders are urged to be in their seats well in advance of the program which starts at 2 p.m.

Any seats vacant when the curtain rises will be filled.

U.S. Rocket Carries and Ejects Monkey

WALLOPS ISLAND, Va. (AP)—The United States today launched a "Little Joe" rocket with a female monkey named "Miss Sam" aboard in a rehearsal for lofting a man into space.

Minutes later the monkey was parachuted to the ocean in a small chamber encased in a one-ton capsule. The capsule was a full scale model of the type that will be used in the Mercury Astronaut program.

Miss Sam is reported to be fine after the flight.

It was an apparently successful test of the escape mechanism which it is hoped will save human Astronauts' lives if they run into trouble during launchings.

The capsule reached a maximum altitude of about seven miles above the earth before it dropped toward the ocean.

New Baby for Williams' —a Little Boy Poodle

LANSING (UPI) — Days of waiting in the household of Gov. G. Mennen Williams ended today when the governor's poodle, Jody Joy, gave birth to her first puppy—a male.

The governor, barefoot, and his wife huddled around a cardboard box in the executive mansion's bathroom as the poodle gave birth to her first pup shortly after 9 a.m.

Demand State Extend Highway

Eight County Residents Present Ultimatum on Plans for Northwestern

A Pontiac attorney, representing some eight county residents who demand Northwestern Highway be extended and converted into an expressway as planned, has served notice on state officials to live up to their word.

In a registered letter to Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams, Harry D. Wise Jr. said, "I hereby request you as attorney general to institute the proper legal proceedings to compel performance of the contract.

If this is not forthcoming promptly, Wise said, a suit might be initiated on behalf of the residents who claim they developed homes and businesses in the area because of the proposed project.

Nearly three years ago in 1957 the state sold $25,000,000 in bonds, money from which was to be used to widen and extend Northwestern across the western corner of the county to M59 (Highland road) and then on to U.S. 23 near Fenton in Livingston County.

★ ★ ★

Wise contends Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie hasn't lived up to the original contract, and in nearly three years has only purchased about 10 per cent of the land. None of the work is under contract, he added.

Besides Adams, Wise sent letters to Mackie and Sen. John H. Stahlin (R-Belding), chairman of a committee investigating the highway department.

"Demand is hereby made for completion of the toll-free limited access highway," Wise's letter told Mackie.

Mentioned in the letter as three of Wise's clients are Roswell G. Curtis Jr. of 8270 Golfside Dr., Milford; Sherwood Steele, 4300 M59, Highland Township, and A. J. Nagler of 10174 Cedar Island Rd., Milford. Nagler is the announcer for Detroit hockey games.

Winter Shows No Hurry to Move Away

Brisk winter weather will continue in the Pontiac area tonight and tomorrow, the weatherman says.

Cold and scattered snow flurries are forecast. Skies will be cloudy.

The mercury will drop to a low of 14 tonight. Friday's high will be 26.

Morning westerly winds will continue at 10 - 18 m.p.h. tonight through Friday.

The lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac yesterday at 8 a.m. was 16. The reading at 1 p.m. was 29.

'59 Store Building at Record

Michigan Said Third in Nation

Industrial Growth Is 76 Pct. Jump Over '58 in New-Job Value

LANSING (UPI)—Michigan led all but two states in industrial building last year, it was revealed today by a survey that surprised even the state's most avid boosters.

Construction Daily, a McGraw-Hill publication, said the dollar value of 1959 industrial building contracts in Michigan was at an all-time high of $197,800,000.

The figure represented a 76 per cent jump in the dollar value of new plant jobs in 1958, the year Michigan's business climate was a major campaign issue.

Only two other states, Texas with $252,400,000 and Ohio with $235,400,000, attracted more industrial building, according to Construction Daily.

The Michigan figure was nearly twice the total of six New England states.

The McGraw-Hill report came as leaders of both parties sought ways to accelerate Michigan's industrial development.

"Michigan's economic growth in the next decade will be fantastic," said Rep. Frank D. Williams (D-Detroit), sponsor of the bill.

Republicans weren't so sure.

The Senate Tax Committee, concerned with what it said was an excessive tax burden on industry, warned against new increases.

That economic growth is a major concern in Michigan is reflected by the efforts of more than 20 "industrial ambassadors" who travel the nation to sell Michigan . . . by the intense buildup for the May 15-21 celebration of Michigan Week . . . by the proposal by Sen. John H. Stahlin (R.-Redding) Wednesday for a "truth train" to spread Michigan's glories in other states.

When informed of the Construction Daily report, Dr. Paul Herbert, the department's research chief, said he considered it a reflection of confidence by businessmen in Michigan's future.

Herbert said his preliminary survey of 1959 showed 313 "favorable" industrial developments and 93 "unfavorable" developments.

The favorable breakdown showed 17 move-ins, 199 local expansions, 36 in-state expansions, 50 new starts and 11 reopenings.

The unfavorable showed 23 move-outs, 26 closings, 8 contractions of operations and 36 expansions outside of Michigan.

Herbert, who said the northern Lower Peninsula showed the best ratio, emphasized it was difficult to get accurate figures.

Straley and Eastman Asked to Quit Posts

received "unfair publicity" for his actions.

★ ★ ★

"He's never been credited with what he's accomplished," Emery asserted.

"We feel that we're doing what is best for the city," Emery said.

The PPOA has been considered a strong supporter of Eastman.

Its demands that Straley be ousted as police chief led to Eastman's hiring in October of 1958.

The association claims to represent 80 per cent of the department's membership. Emery said 23 officers belong.

The PPOA president called the turnout "the largest ever."

He made clear that the PPOA was insisting that Straley be ousted along with Eastman. "We certainly wouldn't want Straley to stay and Eastman to leave," he emphasized.

★ ★ ★

A special meeting will be held Saturday night to okay the wording of the letter which is expected to reach Willman and the commissioners Monday.

Eastman said the PPOA action "clearly displays a measure of activity" about the dispute.

"By a very real agreement between myself and the city manager, I serve only at his pleasure," Eastman said. (He agreed to stay here two years at an annual salary of $12,000).

"Any man in public office who has lost the confidence of his superiors and subordinates should from the standpoint of simple ethics resign," he stated.

"That is what makes Mr. Straley's position so difficult to understand."

"Likewise, even if an official has the confidence of his superiors and subordinates, if he becomes highly controversial his future value is limited from the standpoint of effectiveness and tenure."

Eastman was referring to himself.

"I have suggested that my office be abolished. My remaining service should be pointed to considered and orderly change, the relations of the police and fire departments to the city manager, and the selection of a competent chief of police."

Eastman said his services would "no longer be needed" after he accomplished these aims.

He explained that he had no written contract with the city because "he considered them inadvisable for people in positions such as mine."

Straley expressed amazement at the PPOA action.

"Honestly?" he said upon being informed of the action.

He was reminded that when Eastman first arrived here he had predicted the PPOA would some day oppose the public safety director.

"If I said it, I won't deny it," the chief said.

"It might be called retribution," he declared. "Just dues come to those who deserve it."

"Anyway the sun is shining a little more brightly today."

It was Eastman who drew up charges which led to Straley being fired by the Pontiac Civil Service Commission last spring. He was reinstated by order of Ionia County Circuit Judge Morris K. Davis of Ionia last month.

Algae Develops Into Delicious 'Space Food'

NEW YORK (UPI) — Development of a pleasant-tasting food for use in space travel was announced today by the Boeing Aircraft Co.

The "space food," developed by Boeing bioscientists at the company's Seattle, Wash., laboratories, is a white algae which looks like flour, is nutritious and can be used in making cookies and cupcakes.

It also can be prepared in paste form, the way it probably would be served to space travelers.

Boeing researchers developed the new space food by blanching green algae under fluorescent lights to produce a white algae which has a pleasant taste.

★ ★ ★

By comparison, green algae, long regarded as a good source of oxygen and food for space travel, has a grassy, bitter taste.

Rep. Miller to Head One GOP Committee

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Rep. William E. Miller of New York today was elected chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee. His principal rival, Rep. William M. McCulloch of Ohio, withdrew to prevent a party split.

Miller succeeds the late Rep. Richard M. Simpson of Pennsylvania as head of the committee whose function is to help elect Republican candidates for the House.

Simpson died earlier this month. When he became too ill to serve he designated McCulloch as acting chairman.

Miller had the support of the Halleck wing of the party while McCulloch was backed by followers of Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr. of Massachusetts.

Martin was replaced as House GOP leader last year by Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana.

Murphy Park Toboggan Run Iced and Ready

It's toboggan time again at Murphy Park in Pontiac.

The slick slide was opened today to the public. Parks & Recreation Department crews — helped by cold weather — have iced the runway and packed down the snow.

There's a 300-foot runway and a long glide afterwards for a good ride.

The slide is open all day. But there're supervisors on duty to watch over children from 3:30 p.m. to dark on weekdays and from 1 p.m. to dark on weekends.

There's a heated comfort station in Murphy Park, located on East boulevard next to the U.S. Naval Reserve Training Center.

Try to Smile— Even the South's Got the Chills

By The Associated Press

A huge mass of cold air enveloped most of the eastern two-thirds of the nation today. No immediate warming appeared likely in most areas east of the Mississippi River.

The chilly air nipped the Deep South. Temperatures dropped below freezing in northern Florida and along most of the Gulf Coast.

It was a frosty 27 degrees at Mobile, Ala., and Pensacola and Cross City, Fla., were cool with readings at 31 degrees. Miami's 47 was below seasonal levels. The 30s cooled most of Texas, excluding southern sections.

The weather bureau said there was a vast mass of Arctic air in Canada and little relief from the cold was indicated immediately.

GOP Effort Springs Up in Birmingham

Launch 'Griffin-for-Senator' Drive

The campaign torch was lighted last night to groom Congressman Robert P. Griffin, a former Pontiac resident, for the U. S. Senate.

It was the first official draft movement as Michigan Republicans searched for a candidate to oppose Democratic Sen. Patrick V. McNamara for re-election this year.

At a three-hour meeting in Birmingham, seven young county men decided that Griffin, 36-year-old second-term congressman from Traverse City, was the man.

"We feel that we have an outstanding and well qualified candidate who has done a brilliant job in Congress and is one of the brightest stars on the Republican national horizon," said George W. Kuhn, Berkley mayor and chairman of the new draft "Griffin-for-Senator" movement.

HE'S UNDECIDED

Kuhn and six others are going ahead as Griffin ponders whether to seek the nomination. He has said he will decide by early next month.

Being prepared today were applications which Kuhn's group will mail out to county chairmen, members of the Republican State Central Committee and Young Republican clubs in hopes of spreading the grass roots movement.

"Griffin is a clean cut, clear thinking and most able legislator who can inspire a fresh new approach in the United States Senate as one of the representatives of Michigan," the chairman said.

★ ★ ★

A member of the group feels that by beginning now, support for Griffin will mount so that he will get the nod over another potential candidate, Rep. Alvin M. Bentley (R-Owosso).

Bentley and Griffin have a gentleman's agreement that one or the other will pull out of the race if the other seems to be the better candidate, observers say.

"We want to see what kind of public support Griffin is able to develop," declared Joseph P. Bianco Jr., former chairman of the Oakland Young Republicans and a member of the draft team.

WILL ANSWER QUESTION

"If he is able to get this support, we think there won't be any question as to who the candidate will be," Bianco said.

Other members of the group are Duane Gale, an engineer from Madison Heights; John Titus, an insurance salesman from Berkley; Ralph S. Moore, a Berkley attorney; Bristol Hunter, Clawson justice of the peace; and Russell Dodd, former executive director of the Republican Committee of Oakland County.

To most, Griffin, whose parents live in Pontiac, was just another congressman before he co-authored the controversial labor reform bill last year.

"He is now recognized nationally for his outstanding work on the Landrum-Griffin bill which recognized and assured the basic rights of all union members," Kuhn declared.

"The opportunity to elect this young man has never been greater," he added.

'CAN BEAT McNAMARA'

Bianco was asked if Griffin could beat incumbent McNamara.

"We think he can," he answered unequivocally.

"We definitely think he can. He is the type of young man who can carry the campaign right to the people and win, which we don't think McNamara can do."

CAPT. EDGAR DAVIS

Vet Fireman Dies at His Post

Capt. Edgor Davis, 56, Succumbs to a Heart Attack While Asleep

A veteran of 32 years with the Pontiac Fire Dept. died this morning while on duty.

Capt. Edgar Davis, 56, of 484 Fourth Ave., was stricken in bed at Station No. 1, 41 E. Pike St.

He was discovered when Fire Marshal Charles E. Metz went to wake him up and was pronounced dead at the station by a coroner. A heart attack was given as the cause.

Davis was active in the Metropolitan Club of city policemen, firemen and post office employes, the Pontiac Firefighters Assn. and Masonic Lodge No. 21 F&AM.

★ ★ ★

Capt. Davis is survived by his wife Ruth, four sons, Edgar, Rodger and Donald, all of Pontiac, and Charles of California; his father, Charles Davis; a sister, Mrs. Viola Acker of Pontiac, and five grandchildren also survive.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete at the Huntoon Funeral Home.

Allege Blood Type Mixup

Sue Osteopathic Hospital

An Oxford couple has asked for $200,000 damages in suits against Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital and four of its attendants.

The suits, filed yesterday in Detroit Federal Court, allege that the woman was permanently injured when given a transfusion of the wrong type blood at the hospital last summer.

Separate suits were filed in behalf of Emil Fischer, 36, of 80 Glaspie St. and his wife, Kielija, 30, by H. Malcolm Kahn, a Pontiac attorney. Fischer is employed by a concern which produces building materials for alloy.

The Fischers, who came to Michigan from Germany five years ago, chose to file their suits in federal court because they are not U.S. citizens. They ask $100,000 each.

★ ★ ★

Named in the suit in addition to the hospital itself are Dr. David G. Jennings, an Oxford osteopath; Charles Monk, a laboratory technician, Dr. Joseph Maxwell, laboratory director; and Jack Leve, laboratory supervisor.

Dr. Jennings, it was alleged, was Mrs. Fisher's, physician when she was admitted to the hospital in June of last year for treatment to stop hemorrhages.

★ ★ ★

It was further alleged that on June 12 Mrs. Fischer was given a transfusion of the wrong type blood. Both Mrs. Fischer's blood type and the type she received at the hospital are common ones, Kahn said.

★ ★ ★

But as a result of the transfusion, the suits contend, Mrs. Fischer has suffered pain, weakness and loss of memory and has required frequent medical treatment.

★ ★ ★

It was alleged that Monk made the wrong blood type classification, while working at the hospital under the direction of Dr. Maxwell and Leve.

NEW DELHI (UPI) — Soviet President Kliment Voroshilov was on an "Ike-like" visit to India today but he had a long way to go if he expected Indians to give him the rousing reception they gave President Eisenhower last month.

The Day in Birmingham

Arthur Lake, 31, Named 'Man of the Year' Here

BIRMINGHAM — Co-owner of Lake Jewelry Store, Arthur Lake, 31, has been named "Man of the Year" here by the Birmingham Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Lake was honored for his work on the board of directors of Michigan Retail Jewelers, the management committee of the YMCA and the Cub Scouts and as Sunday School teacher and volunteer fireman.

The new "Man of the Year," his wife, Beth, and their four children live at 345 Tilbury Rd.

American Motory Corp. President George Romney will present a series of four lectures on "What Mormons Believe" at the Detroit Stake Center of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latterday Saints in Bloomfield Hills.

The series, open to the public, will begin this Sunday at 3 p.m. and continue on following Sundays. Romney is president of his church's Detroit Stake.

Each hour-long lecture will treat a different subject and will be followed by Romney answering questions from the audience.

The new stake center is at 425 Woodward Ave.

"The Moving of Mariners Church in Detroit" is the subject to be treated by Carleton B. Johnson when the Birmingham Senior Mens Club meets tomorrow at 10 a.m.

★ ★ ★

After lunch, Harry E. Fromm will lead the discussion group. Bridge and various games will follow.

The Bloomfield Republican Women's Club of Bloomfield Township has announced the election of officers. They are:

Mrs. Vernon Myers, president; Mrs. G. T. McKelvey, first vice president; Mrs. Franklin Butler, second vice president; Mrs. P. T. Lahti, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Gordon T. Geisinger, recording secretary; and Mrs. William Cuxon, treasurer.

Next meeting is scheduled for 10 a.m. Feb. 8 at the home of Mrs. Robert J. Eaff Jr., 5980 W. Miller Way.

Detroit Pneumonia Up

DETROIT (UPI) — The Board of Health reported today pneumonia cases in Detroit are up nearly 50 per cent over a year ago.

In addition, since Jan. 1 there have been nine deaths in which flu was either the cause or a contributing factor. Detroit had a total of 11 such deaths in all of 1958.

babies and I are well and thinking of you."

The extent of the FBI's interest is indicated by the $35,000 bond it asked for Spears at his arraignment on the theft charge before U.S. Commissioner Carey B. Wilson. Spears waived preliminary hearing and was held in lieu of bond.

"I doubt if I could make it if you knocked $30,000 off of it," he said when the bond was set.

Investigation into the two crashes — both of National Airlines planes — is continuing by the Civil Aeronautics Board and the Senate Aviation subcommittee in Washington. So far, their probes have not established that a bomb was responsible for either crash.

The crashes claimed 76 lives, 42 in the Gulf and 34 near Bolivia, N.C.

★ ★ ★

A reporter asked Spears Wednesday if he had bombed the plane. He laughed and replied, "No. I may make a statement tomorrow."

President to Help GOP Campaign, He Tells Backers

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower indicated to a group of Young Republicans Wednesday that he plans to participate extensively in the forthcoming GOP presidential campaign.

* * *

Eisenhower also forecast "another victory celebration" for his party in November.

* * *

The President, speaking informally at a luncheon meeting of the Young Republicans leadership training school, said he would "see a lot of you here and there in the months to come."

Hotels and inns in Japan are installing American-style electrical outlets to accommodate tourists carrying electric razors, travel irons and portable plug in radios.

Do Much for Safer Driving

Real Hot Rodders Ask Apology

By JACK VANDENBERG
UPI Automotive Editor

DETROIT—The public owes hot rodders an apology and a debt of gratitude, says the president of the National Hot Rodders Assn.

The public generally associates the term "hot rodder" with any teen-ager who drives recklessly.

But NHRA President Wally Parks says most true hot rodders might give the average adult driver a good lesson in good driving.

In the true sense of the word, "hot rodder" applies to a youth who belongs to a car club, Parks says. Most of these clubs are either members of or modeled after clubs which belong to the NHRA.

They are made up of youths who are interested in cars, not only for speed but for mechanical perfection and unique styling as well.

MOST LIKE RACING

It is true, Parks admits, that most hot rodders also are interested in racing their cars.

But the majority of them confine their racing to authorized drag strips, he says.

It is the one "rotten apple in the barrel" and the youths who don't belong to clubs that give young drivers a bad name, according to Parks who is also editor of Hot Rod Magazine.

A member of a club authorized by the NHRA can be banned from membership for careless driving, he says.

Although they lay few claims to having "originated" the countless ideas and innovations found in common use on their unique cars, their trial-and-error processes of experimentation have developed many discarded ideas to the point where they become practical for production use, Parks says.

Innumerable components on today's passenger cars, he says, were first popularized by their use on hot rods.

TRY TO ERASE STIGMA

In an effort to banish the stigma connected with the term hot rodder, club members stop and offer aid whenever they see a fellow motorist in trouble.

They never accept any payment for their help but always leave a card with the grateful motorist telling him he is indebted to a hot rodder.

Club members also are required to give their cars safety checks four times a year.

As a result their cars are often in safer condition than those of many adult drivers.

In California a policeman once stopped when he saw a group of youths dismantling a car. The youths explained they were hot rodders giving the car a safety check.

After they produced proof of ownership, they offered to give the patrol car a safety check.

14 DEFECTS ON HIS CAR

They found 14 mechanical defects on the police car, and the policeman was so impressed he called a tow truck and refused to drive the car back to headquarters.

Parks says the next time you feel the urge to call a reckless teen-ager a "hot rodder" see if he has a car club sticker on his windshield.

Ike's Budget Provides for More FDA Personnel

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) staff would be increased nearly 19 per cent if Congress approved President Eisenhower's new budget proposal.

The President's budget for the fiscal year starting July 1 would allot $17,829,000 for FDA activities, an increase of more than 19 per cent over the current fiscal year.

The extra money would increase the agency's crew of field inspectors from 499 men to 593. This would give the agency more manpower for enforcing the pure food laws.

Village Club Picks Junior Hostesses

By RUTH SAUNDERS

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — Junior hostesses for the February luncheon meeting of the Village Women's Club are Mrs. John W. Kausch and Mrs. Richard GeGole.

They are assisting Mrs. Felix F. Bruner with flower arrangements at Oakland Hills Country Club where the affair will take place Wednesday, Feb. 3.

Mrs. Walter A. Kleinert is general chairman. Speaker will be David Hardy, associated with a national magazine.

For the last three years, Mr. Hardy has been news analyst for NBC and has directed and produced radio programs from United Nations headquarters for listeners in foreign countries.

Chairman Mrs. Carl Metz, Mrs. Maurice Smith and Mrs. Ivor Williams are taking reservations.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Peters of Summit, N. J., who formerly lived in Bloomfield Hills, are expected Saturday for a weekend visit with Mr. and Mrs. Percy K. Loud of Highmoor Way.

Affiong old friends who will entertain for the visitors are Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Craig.

Mrs. Loud will give a luncheon for Mrs. Peters Tuesday at Devon Gables.

The affair will be given in the Otter home, "Apple Tower," in Bloomfield Hills.

Announcement has been made of the marriage Saturday of Peggy Gail Sheldon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sheldon Jr. of Burning Bush road, and John Widman Appleford whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Alexander A. Appleford of Bradway blvd.

The ceremony was read in St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Dover, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Carmel are planning a cocktail party tomorrow at their home in West Long Lake road.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Baldwin have left Pontiac for a cruise to Australia. They'll sail Feb. 14 from San Francisco on the S. S. Mariposa.

En route to the West Coast they will visit a son-in-law and daughter, the Hugo Millers, in Palm Beach, Fla., and friends in Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben D. Mills will visit their friends the John W. Ashers in Denton, Md., on the eastern shore next weekend.

Cystic Fibrosis Film and Talk Given Nurses

The film produced by the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation presented the medical aspects of the disease, including symptoms, diagnosis, treatment, and the emotional impact on the family.

Dr. Robert Gregg, director of the Medical Out-patient Clinic at Children's Hospital, Detroit, pointed out that with early diagnosis and treatment, 50 to 60 per cent of children afflicted should reach adolescence.

Mrs. Arthur Pohutsky, mother of a seven-year-old child with the disease, told of benefits to the lay group through the Detroit Metropolitan chapter of the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation.

PTA to Hear Dr. Proud

Dr. Philip J. Proud will speak concerning "A Study of Pontiac Schools" at a meeting of Bethune School PTA tonight at 7 at the school.

Young People Plan Dance

Area young people (college students and high school alumni) have been invited to attend a "Dancing in Modern" program from 9 to 1 a.m. Saturday at Oakland County Sportsmen's Club. A local band will play.

Tickets are available by calling Irving LaDuke, sponsor for the semiformal dance for 18-year-olds and over. Refreshments will be served.

Mark 91st PEO Anniversary

Observe Founders' Day

Representing 14 area chapters, the Oakland County Cooperative Group of the PEO Sisterhood observed Founders' Day Wednesday afternoon with a luncheon at Birmingham Community House. The occasion marked the 91st anniversary of the organization and the 10th anniversary of the local group.

Dedicated to provide opportunities for women to further their education, PEO operates an educational loan fund and International Peace Scholarships.

Guest speaker was Dr. Blanche Hinman Dow, president of Cottey Junior College for Women at Nevada, Mo. The college, which is owned and operated by the PEO Sisterhood, enrolls nearly a hundred international students and has become known as the "College of World Friendship."

Dr. Dow has administered Cottey College since 1949. During this period, seven buildings have been added to the campus. Her accomplishments in the field of education are noteworthy. She is a member of the national council and president of the Missouri chapter of the Assn. of University Professors. President of the Missouri division of the American Assn. of University Women, she was named the outstanding citizen of Nevada, Mo. in 1956 by the American Legion — the first time this honor was bestowed on a woman. She is the recipient of an honorary degree of doctor of Science in Education from Iowa Wesleyan College, site of the founding of PEO.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. D. H. Lamb of Birmingham is chairman of the 14 club cooperative. Mrs. R. T. Hatch, also of Chapter CE was chairman of Founders' Day arrangements. Assisting her were Mrs. T. M. Mattson, reservations; Mrs. R. M. Boyd and Mrs. J. F. Englehardt, decorations; Mrs. C. A. Thomas and Mrs. C. R. Colville, program; Mrs. J. W. Keasey, music; Mrs. T. C. Morgan and Mrs. A. D. Kirk, luncheon and house arrangements; Mrs. A. F. Boucher and Chapter CF members, PEO Tribute; Mrs. J. J. Plumb, social arrangements; and Mrs. H. C. Carlson, publicity.

★ ★ ★

Entertain MOMS

Mrs. Worth E. Eastman entertained 15 members of Unit No. 2, MOMS of America, Inc., at Tuesday luncheon in her home on Pinegrove avenue.

Mrs. Duncan McVean, who printed 2,300 names in the Soldiers' Honor Roll book given to the City of Pontiac by the unit during World War II, will resume entering names in the book. Because of this record, three soldiers received military funerals while Morgan Siple was in charge of the Veterans Administration office on Lafayette street.

At the Feb. 2 meeting with Mrs. Harry Sibley on Mathews street, each member will bring a "school-girl lunch."

Mrs. Edward K. Vanderlind of South Johnson avenue will hostess Zone 8, Past Presidents' Club, MOMS of America, tonight.

Exchange Students Speak

★ ★ ★

A Pontiac Central High School pupil, Miss Koprince was an exchange student to Germany last summer.

Helmut, also a pupil at Pontiac Central, is from Vienna, Austria.

Program chairman Mrs. James Youngblood introduced Mrs. C. G. Uligian at whose home Helmut is staying while here.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Frank Copp, Mrs. George Tremper, Mrs. Fred Hoenstine, Mrs. F. E. Bonner and Mrs. Philip J. Proud were cohostesses.

Founders' Day chairman Mrs. R. T. Hatch of Birmingham, at left, greets PEO members arriving for luncheon at the Birmingham Community House. They are Mrs. M. K. Fell of Fairport street, Mrs. William Miller of Elizabeth Lake road and Mrs. Dalton Lamb of Birmingham.

Sashayers Set Feb. 5

On Tuesday evening, the Elks Sashay Quadrille Square Dance Club squared their sets to live orchestra music.

Elwyn Hall was master of ceremonies. Callers for the evening were Oscar Denham, John DePauw, Burnell McAllister, William Schmiel and Bert Denham. Novelties were directed by Howard Bond.

Return From Honeymoon in Northern Michigan

Returned to their Pontiac home following a northern Michigan honeymoon are Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wilbert Welch (nee Betty Bonacci). Their nuptials were solemnized by the Rev. Lewis M. Ellis at high noon Saturday in St. Patrick Church, White Lake.

* * *

Parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. John Bonacci, of Elizabeth ception in the VFW hall, Keego Harbor. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Linden Munro of Walled Lake and Russell Welch of Marquette.

The bouffant bridal gown of white peau de soie swept into a circular train. Alencon lace, re-embroidered with seed pearls, set into the skirt below the Empire waistline, was repeated along the Sabrina neckline.

Attached to a bandeau of lace and pearls was the waist-length veil of silk illusion. A cascade of white carnations comprised the bride's bouquet.

* * *

Maid of honor Janet Welch, sister of the bridegroom, and the bride's nieces, Pamela and Sherry Mitchell, bridesmaids, wore ice-blue satin ballerina dresses and carried pink and white carnations.

Lloyd Munro stood as best man for his stepbrother. Ushers were Don Munro and Paul Aubry. All are of Walled Lake.

MRS. WARREN W. WELCH

Wear Gloves for Driving

(NEA)—Perspiring palms on the steering wheel are uncomfortable and also unsafe, since a sliding grip in an emergency could be fatal.

One way to keep your hands both clean and comfortable is to wear string driving gloves. These come with leather palms and are completely washable.

Maybe Other Women Envy You Your Skill

By RUTH MILLETT

Don't let other women give you an inferiority complex, because so many of them seem to excel at things that you haven't the time, the talent, or the nerve to tackle.

When you give the matter a little thought you'll discover that:

* * *

Mrs. B., who is such a perfect housekeeper, directs most of her energy toward keeping a perfect-looking house, and often the house comes before anything or anybody else. So if her children seem to find your home a more pleasant place to be than their own, why wish you were as good a housekeeper as she?

Mrs. A., who always has time to head committees and shine as a clubwoman, may be "do-gooding" at the expense of her own children.

So why wish for her executive ability, if you spend the time she spends in meetings on making a good home, and being a good wife and mother?

Mrs. C., who is such a marvelous hostess and who entertains so beautifully, may be a social success because she doesn't spend any time on the little kindnesses that nobody ever hears about—such as taking a shut-in for a ride, keeping a neighbor's children when the mother is ill, or working a day a week as a hospital aide.

If you find time for such "little" things why should you envy a woman who puts all of her energies into keeping up a busy social life?

Mrs. E., who has a good job may seem like a whiz, but something has to give when a woman is trying to handle two full-time jobs at once, and usually it is not the job that is neglected but the family.

So why should a woman who is giving her best to the job of homemaking envy the working wife who is giving her best to her paying job?

Each woman decides for herself how she can spend her time and energy and women who excel at one thing often do so at the neglect of something else.

So don't envy other women for skills and achievements you feel you lack. Chances are you have a few of your own that they don't have.

CONGRESSMAN'S SON ENLISTS — Alvin Bentley Jr. of Owosso, son of Rep. Bentley (R-Mich), is sworn into the Coast Guard, Tuesday, by Chief Boatswain's Mate Donald W. Pyle. He enlisted for four years, and will go to Cape May, N. J., for training.

Williams Sees No Nomination

He's Not a Candidate; Will Work for Strong, Liberal Platform

DETROIT (AP) — Gov. G. Mennen Williams would accept either first or second place on the 1960 Democratic presidential ticket, but he said today he does not think there is much chance of getting either nomination.

Asked specifically if he were going to run for president, Williams replied that he wasn't a candidate, and added:

"I am interested in the Democratic Party's building as strong, liberal and forward-looking a platform as possible, and I think I can possibly be of help in that."

On the possibility he may run for a seventh consecutive two-year term as governor, Williams said:

"I am still thinking about this problem and have not reached a decision."

He said the state's assets exceed its obligations and that currently the state is paying its day to day obligations.

Little Old Widow Set to Retire as a Teamster

LANSING (AP) — Mrs. Gladys Clark, a 61-year-old widow, is four feet, eight inches tall and weighs 114 pounds.

You wouldn't think of her as the typical Teamsters Union member.

But Mrs. Clark has been a steward for most of the 13 years she's worked for the Teamster-organized Banner Linen Service in Lansing. She's also a member of the bargaining committee.

Mrs. Clark is also noted as the first "lady Teamster" in Michigan approved for retirement under the union's new pension setup.

Twenty years of Teamster employment are needed to qualify. Employment at a Columbus, Ohio, creamery from 1930 to 1939 gave the slight, gray-haired widow the rest of her pension credits.

LEMON FLUFF PUDDING—You can watch your waistline grow smaller after holiday splurging if you include some low calorie desserts in your menus. This lemon Fluff pudding has applesauce in it and as the pink topping. You'll find it hard to believe it's diet fare.

Creamy Pink Top Dessert Kept Low in Calories

One of the bugaboos of post-holiday dieting is the sense of austerity which accompanies the dessert-eliminating diets. Somehow, this not only seems to take all the fun out of dieting, but makes one highly susceptible to "sneaky snacking." If a diet can include some of the tastier snacks, or low-calorie desserts it (and the dieter) has a much better chance of being successful.

With an eye to keeping some of the glamour in post-holiday diet menus, try, both for snacking and low-calorie dishes the refreshing and slimming apple. With the Washington Delicious — both Red and Golden—a perfect eating apple, you can assuage your between-meal or late evening hunger with only 80 calories per apple.

The fruit acids found in the apple will balance of the heavier portions of your diet and because the apple pulp is filling you will have a satisfied feeling on very low calories. Both the mentioned Washington varieties, Golden and Red Delicious—are also excellent for salads, and the former is a "good cooker" too.

If you find raw apples difficult to tolerate then prepare a basic apple sauce leaving the skin on the apples (for full vitamin retention) using a low calorie sweetener in place of sugar. Use a dish of sauce as a low-calorie snack or serve it with meats or as a dessert. A superb cooking variety on the market now is the Washington Winesap. It has a pungent and tart flavor, and is excellent for sauce. This variety is used for the pink applesauce which festoons the low-calorie Lemon Fluff Pudding. This will be one of those dishes, which once prepared, will become a low-calorie favorite in your household.

Lemon Fluff Pudding

Basic Applesauce:
8 apples, cored and sliced (Golden Delicious, Winesap, Romes, Newtons)
½ cup water
Dash salt

Simmer apples in water until mushy. Add more water during cooking if necessary, so apples won't stick to pan. Put through sieve.

Pudding:
1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin
½ cup unsweetened applesauce
1 tablespoon liquid sweetener
3 eggs, separated
2 teaspoons shredded lemon peel
8 tablespoons lemon juice
4 tablespoons non-fat dry milk solids
4 tablespoons ice water

Sauce:
1½ cups unsweetened applesauce
Liquid sweetener
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
Red food coloring

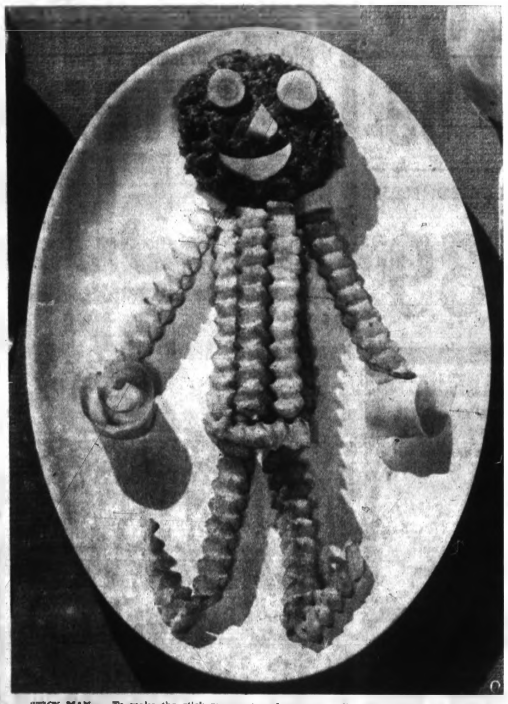

Soften gelatin in applesauce. In saucepan, beat egg yolks, add sweetener, lemon peel and juice. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens. Remove from heat and stir in softened gelatin. Cool.

Beat egg whites until they form soft peaks, fold into gelatin mixture. Combine dry milk solids and ice water. Beat to consistency of whipped cream; fold into gelatin mixture. Chill thoroughly.

To the 1 2/3 cups applesauce add liquid sweetener as desired. Stir in cinnamon and tint with red food coloring to an appetizing pink. Serve pudding spooned into footed glasses and top with pink applesauce. Serves 8.

Pineapple Applesauce Frozen Into Relish

Something for dessert — or even a relish — is frozen apple sauce. Home economists at Michigan State University give the ingredients as one quart of apple sauce, one cup of crushed pineapple and two tablespoons of finely-cut, candied ginger. Mix ingredients together thoroughly and freeze in the refrigerator tray.

STICK MAN — To make the stick man, cut eyes, nose, and mouth of carrot slices and place on a broiled meat patty at the top of the plate. Use traditional frozen French fries, or the new crinkle cut style with the scalloped look and lay potatoes out as usual, flat on a cookie sheet, to crisp and brown for 15-20 minutes in a 425-450 degree oven. When they're just the golden-brown color you prefer, fashion French fries into body, arms, and legs below the meat patty head on the plate. Two layers of three potato strips side by side make the body, and single strips form arms, legs, and feet. Carrot curls or celery sticks fill the little figure's hands.

Gypsy Rose Lee Has Unsuspected Talents

CHICAGO (UPI) — Ex-stripper-turned-author Gypsy Rose Lee can cook, too. She's writing a cookbook, to prove it. Already three years in the making, the book may take even more time, Gypsy said. She's testing all recipes several times.

"It's put seven pounds on me this year alone," she said.

"I'm writing a cookbook because cooking is one of the two things at which I'm a natural," she added. Her other talent? "Quilting," she said.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Cream pickle eggs make a high-protein salad. For 6 servigs, halve 6 hard-cooked eggs and remove yolks. Combine yolks with one-third cup of sweet pickle relish, drained, 1 cup (8 oz sour cream, and salt and pepper to taste. Mix well.

Fill egg whites with yolk mixture, sprinkle with paprika and serve on a bed of lettuce.

Baked Shrimp Get West Indies Touch

This season in the sunny clime of the balmy Bahamas, the Royal Victoria, Nassau's landmark hotel, is celebrating its Centennial Year.

This First Lady of Nassau resorts was completed in the early days of the Civil War. If you'll turn back the clock a hundred years for a moment, and peek through the century glass, you'll discover that among its first patrons were the dashing men in gray of the Confederate Army; the daring blockade runners; and representatives of many English cotton firms whose business was to get cotton at any price for the Lancashire mills.

Then, as now, it was the scene of many gay parties—the center of revels and excitement which prevailed in Nassau in those delirious days, when gold eagles and twenty dollar gold pieces were flung to young scramblers in the front court, instead of pennies.

Here is one of the popular dishes, with a continental and Bahamian flair, which is being featured on the Royal Victoria's menu. It is easy to make and you can enjoy it right at home too.

Bahamian Baked Stuffed Shrimp

12 jumbo shrimp
½ pound scallops
1 tablespoon butter
½ teaspoon paprika
2 tablespoons crushed pickle chips
½ cup cracker meal
2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese
1 to 2 tablespoons Chablis wine (optional)
Lemon wedges

With a sharp knife cut the shrimp from the underside through the meat but not through the shell. Wash and devein them. Put a toothpick under the meat but over the shell at both ends to keep the shrimp flat; otherwise they will curl when they are baked.

Chop ½ pound of raw scallops and fill into the shrimp. Melt 4 tablespoons of butter in a small saucepan, add ½ teaspoon of paprika, and cook over a very slow fire for 10 minutes or so to take the raw taste out of the paprika. Combine with 2 tablespoons of crushed potato chips, ¼ cup of cracker meal, and 2 tablespoons of grated Parmesan cheese.

Cover the shrimp with this mixture and place them in a shallow baking dish with a little water in the bottom. Bake for about 20 minutes in a moderate oven at 350 degrees; 1 to 2 tablespoons of Chablis may be sprinkled over the shrimp if desired just before removing them from the oven. Serve with lemon wedges.

★ ★ ★

Shrimp baked this way have a lovely fresh flavor and a nice moist texture. Serves four.

Ever Steam Lettuce, Serve as Vegetable?

Steamed lettuce is a delicate dish to serve as a vegetable with mayonnaise or hollandaise sauce. Cut 1 large head lettuce into 6 or 8 wedges. Place on a rack in a large saucepan. Pour in ½-inch boiling water. Cover and steam 5 minutes or until lettuce is tender.

Serve hot with mayonnaise or hollandaise sauce. Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

Vary the French Toast With Apple Butter Dip

"Little things mean a lot," in the making of Apple Butter French Toast. Only 2 tablespoons of apple butter, when combined with 2 beaten eggs as a dip for enriched bread, create a new breakfast treat. Whisk 6 bread slices through the mixture and bake in a hot, well-greased waffle baker until nicely browned. Serve immediately, with or without a favorite topping.

WIDE AWAKE — Little Rickey Reynolds of Royal Oak must have decided it was time to take off the skis and carry them. Something has caught his attention as he heads for the clubhouse at Grampian Mt., which like all other area ski resorts, is enjoying its best week for the sport with the aid of recent snow falls. Excellent skiing is reported in all areas.

Skiing Is Just Excellent This Week

At last, Lower Peninsula skiers have seen the snow. Recent snowfalls and dropping temperatures have given the area its best ski conditions of the season.

All around the state skiing is reported to be excellent. Grampian Mountain near Oxford has all slopes, tows, and other facilities in operation with skiing reported good to excellent.

Very good skiing is also reported at Mt. Christie where a base of 6 to 8 inches prevails along with the addition of seven new inches of snow.

Mt. Holly had 6 to 12 inches of machine made snow and four inches of new snowfall with all slopes and tows in operation for excellent skiing.

Dryden, with three slopes open, expected to be in full operation for the weekend with skiing reported the best at the club thus far.

* * *

Night skiing is excellent at Summit ski area near Fenton where six inches of new snow has covered the 6-inch base. Summit is now operating on a 7-day basis.

Last year the club was closed on Mondays.

New Ski Mark Predicted in Olympics' 80 Meter

SQUAW VALLEY, Calif. (AP) — Birger Torrissen isn't normally a betting man, but he's willing to wager on one phase of the 1960 winter olumpics.

"Somebody will set a new olympic record on the 80-meter jump," the 58-year-old Norwegian American declared today. "I'd bet my shirt on that."

Torrissen has a dual role: He's Olympic Biathlon director as well as tender of the hill.

* *

Torrissen figures the record-setter could be a Finn, Swede, Russian, Norwegian, German or an American. The Czechs also figure.

That's a lot of territory to cover. But, Torrissen said, there's been so much improvement among the world's top jumpers that the coveted gold medal could go to one of at least 10 of the 70 jumpers.

He cites last year's initial competition off the 1960 Olympic hill, a winning 88.5 meter (290 foot) jump by Kalvei Karkinen of Finland. The Olympic record, set in Cortina, was 84 meters (276 feet) by Antii Hyvarinen, another Finn.

Master Salesman Guild AWARD WINNER
Tom Stachler

TOM STACHLER
Three Time "Master Guild Award Winner"

For the third year in a row Tom Stachler has won the coveted Master Salesman's Award from the Pontiac Motor Division. It is in truth an 'Oscar' for exceptional performance by a Pontiac Automobile Salesman. It is significant of Tom's sincere efforts in doing his job well, of serving his customers beyond the expected.

We at Pontiac Retail are proud of Tom's record of selling the most cars in one year and congratulate him for having achieved this honor. We know we speak in Tom's behalf in thanking those of you, his customers, friends and associates who helped him win this award.

Awards are recognition one receives for doing something well. To be a three-time winner means that Tom has served his customer to the point of complete satisfaction. To the point of having them come back to him again for the car of their choice. Pontiac for 1960 will win your choice, too. Let Tom work with you today to give you the rewarding Pontiac deal that makes you too, a proud Pontiac owner.

Supports Legality of Voting Registrars

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Philip A. Hart (D-Mich) says he believes it would be constitutional to establish federal voting registrars to insure Negro voting rights in the South.

Hart and Sen. Jacob J. Javits (R-NY) gave their arguments in person Tuesday to the Senate Rules Committee. George M. Johnson, the Negro member of the Civil Rights Commission, sent the committee a statement agreeing with the two senators.

The question of constitutionality has become more important since last Wednesday when President Eisenhower told his news conference he didn't know whether the federal registrar arrangement would be legal under the constitution.

Southern Senators have called the idea unconstitutional from the time it was first proposed last September by the Federal Rights Commission.

Hart called the committee's attention to what he called shocking revelations that "thousands of American citizens are unable to register or vote because of their color."

Second largest city in Great Britain is Glasgow, Scotland.

TB Detention Unit Ready at Northville

LANSING (AP) — Tuberculosis patients who must be forcibly isolated to protect the public health will be shifted to a new detention unit at Northville.

The 120-bed unit is in the Maybury Sanatorium, owned by Detroit and operated by that city's health department.

The State Health Department said the unit is ready to accept rebellious patients.

"The new unit will serve a long felt need in Michigan," said Dr Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner. "We can now protect the public against that small group of TB patients who don't care if they spread disease throughout our communities."

A law allowing probate judges to commit TB patients at the request of health authorities was passed several years ago.

But until now, Heustis said, there were no facilities to prevent a patient from leaving a hospital after being committed.

Heustis said creation of the Northville unit also will permit deletion of a $100,000 budget request to construct a detention wing at the Michigan State Sanatorium at Howell.

Proposes 2 Riders in Water Ski Boats

LANSING (AP) — Citing a growing rate of water accidents, Rep. Hugh Smale (D-Detroit) has introduced a bill requiring two persons to be in any watercraft towing water skiers or surfboarders.

* * *

"In the first nine months of 1959, there were 36 water ski accidents on Michigan lakes and waterways," he said.

* * *

"By requiring an additional rider in the boat, the driver can give all his attention to the traffic ahead."

Violation would bring a maximum $100 fine, 90 days in jail or both.

Holland Voters Reject Sewer Expansion Bonds

HOLLAND (AP) — City voters in a special election Tuesday rejected a $2,900,000 bond issue to pay for sewer expansion. It was the second rejection in three months.

The plan was voted down by a 3,026-1,194 margin.

Last October, the proposal received a 131-vote majority, but needed a three-fifths margin to carry.

Saltonstall's Daughter Seeks to Divorce Byrd

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (UPI) — Mrs. Emily S. Byrd, daughter of Sen. and Mrs. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts, filed for divorce Wednesday from her husband, a son of Richard E. Byrd.

Mrs. Byrd, in a petition filed in Middlesex Probate Court, charged Richard E. Byrd Jr. with "cruel and abusive treatment."

* * *

Byrd is a nephew of Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.).

* * *

Byrd filed an answer, denying the cruelty allegation. He said Mrs. Byrd was "cruel" to him on several occasions.

The couple has four children ranging in age from five to nine years.

Stress Comfort, Convenience

Has New Concept in Movie Theaters

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The most frequent complaint you hear from movie makers is the run-down condition of American theaters.

THOMAS

One man who is doing something about it is Walter F. Reade Jr., a third-generation theater man, boss of 44 houses in New York and New Jersey, former president of the Theater Owners of America, board member of Cinerama, guiding light of the scented Aromarama process.

* * *

"Too many theaters are operated as though they have a sign up saying 'stay away,'" he said bluntly. "They're hot in the summer, cold in the winter, they're dirty and old, they have bad sound and no parking facilities. They offer nothing in the way of comfort and convenience."

What the nation's theaters need, he said, is a dynamic new concept of their role in the community. He stands ready to deliver it.

"The movie theater should be the center of the community life," he remarked. "There is virtually no matinee business left, except on weekends. So we have all this real estate sitting idle most of the time. The theaters should be used for women's groups and civic meetings.

* * *

"Theaters should also have facilities for serving of meals and alcoholic beverages. One of the pleasures of attending the theater in London is that you can also get drinks there. Why not at movies?"

Reade put TV sets in his lobbies when TV was considered the movies' worst enemy. He has established party rooms — isolated areas where groups up to 20 can watch the show in comfort and luxury.

* * *

Now he is negotiating to build wholly new theaters in Denver, New York City and New Orleans (which has the worst film theaters of any large city"). These would include such features as:

* * *

1. Circular construction. "A round auditorium would give more patrons good seats."

2. No balcony. "People don't like the idea of walking up or downstairs when they spend their money."

3. No aisles. "Center aisles are disturbing."

4. Medium size. "Over 1,500 seats is too big for people to get a real experience from the screen. Under 800 is too small to pay for the investment."

5. Living room seats. "They should be deep and comfortable and not all of them pointed directly at the screen. There should be small groups of chairs so you don't seem to be part of a mass audience."

* * *

Reade's ideal theater would also include party rooms, restaurants, bars and meeting rooms, as well as the best sound and projection equipment. It should be equipped for smell, too, he added with a plug for Aromarama.

"The use of smells is another tool for the director, along with color and wide screens," he argued. "We should use everything that will contribute to a full movie experience."

GOP Ponders Civil Rights

State Plan Would Put an End to All Housing Discrimination

LANSING (AP)—Republican leaders today pondered a request by the Coordinating Council on Civil Rights for endorsement of a strong new civil rights law that would ban all housing discrimination.

* * *

The council, representing various organizations pushing civil rights legislation, got a generally lukewarm reception yesterday from GOP legislators.

"I frankly don't think there's a chance of getting your bill through this session, although some sections are okay," said, Sen. Frank D. Beadle (R-St. Clair), Senate majority leader.

Civil rights measures died in the House State Affairs Committee the last two years.

WILL PUSH AGAIN—

Both would have extended the authority of the Fair Employment Practices Commission to housing, public accommodations and education.

Republicans, including Paul D. Bagwell, Republican governor candidate in 1958, voiced strongest reservations on a proposed ban against bias in renting or selling all housing.

Bagwell endorsed extension of Michigan's civil rights law to new areas, but added:

"I want to study this proposal closely to make certain that one section guaranteeing rights to a minority group doesn't violate the even more fundamental right of private property."

Back on Stage After 4-Story Plunge in N.Y.

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — When actor Pat Hingle plunged four stories down an elevator shaft in his New York apartment house last year, it looked like the finish of a booming career.

* * *

But he's Broadway-bound again in a new play that won critical plaudits for its tension and suspense — and for Hingle's "natural, easy manner."

* * *

All that's visible now of Hingle's accident last February is the cane he uses in the play, "The Deadly Game," which premiered here Wednesday night.

* * *

To almost anyone else, Hingle's rapid return to the stage after such serious injuries might be surprising. The 36-year-old actor, however, says he's disappointed that his progress was not faster.

In the mishap, Hingle suffered fractures of the skull, left wrist, most of his ribs. His left leg was broken in three places.

Measures Up in Court

NEW YORK (UPI) — Mrs. Dorothy Fredericks, who is never without her tape measure, inched herself out of a parking fine Wednesday.

* * *

Mrs. Fredericks, 29, turned up in Brooklyn Traffic Court with a ticket she received last Oct. 25 for parking her little foreign-made car too close to a fire hydrant.

With her was the tape measure. She explained she uses the tape to measure ladies—and parking spaces.

"I always carry a tape measure," she told Magistrate Maurice Matzkin, because she sells women's clothing.

* * *

"I measured the distance to the fire plug and it was 15 feet," she told the judge. The summons said Mrs. Fredericks' car was parked seven feet from the hydrant.

She suggested that a bigger car had pushed her tiny auto closer to the plug.

"Do you mean to say," the magistrate asked, "that every time you park you measure the distance?"

"Yes," she said.

* * *

"You know, don't you, that you're testifying under oath," the judge said.

"Yes," she replied.

"Not guilty," said the judge.

Air ROTC Program Is Voted Out at WSU

DETROIT (AP)—Wayne State University's Board of Governors voted out the Air Force ROTC program yesterday.

* * *

Clarence B. Hilberry, WSU president, said the Air Force had indicated to him it considered the Wayne State program uneconomical in comparison with programs at other universities because Wayne State has graduated so few students.

Aid Commuters in Philadelphia

City Forms Corporation to Improve Caliber of Transportation Service

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Formation of a nonprofit corporation to improve commuter service in the greater Philadelphia area was announced Wednesday by Mayor Richardson Dilworth.

The corporation, first of its kind in the nation aims to provide low-cost, speedier, frequent service on commuter lines with modernized equipment, new rail stations and increased parking.

Dilworth said articles of incorporation for the agency, to be named the Passenger Service Improvement Corp. of Philadelphia, will be filed tomorrow by City Solicitor David Berger.

It will represent the city government in all transportation matters and will absorb the present urban traffic and transportation board.

* * *

Under the plan, described by Berger as the first combined effort anywhere of government, railroad management and labor to solve the pressing transportation problem, the PSICP wil enter into contracts with the Pennsylvania and Reading railroads which operate the commuter lines here.

The PSCIP will purchase service from the railroads with the contract directing all revenues from fares, advertising and parking be credited to the corporation.

The railroads will be reimbursed at a minimum $1,400,000 for the first year to help cover costs on "operation northwest," a low-cost plan currently operating.

* * *

The PSCIP will determine train schedules, equipment, means of improving service, promotion and managerial activities.

The railroads will continue employment practices required under state and federal laws and by collective bargaining agreements with railway unions.

Sohio Gives Up Plans for Leonard Acquisition

CLEVELAND (AP)— The Standard Oil Co. (Ohio) said yesterday it would abandon plans to acquire the assets of Leonard Refineries, Inc., with headquarters at Alma, Mich.

Sohio said that because of the length of time required to obtain a final court decree in an injunction suit recently filed by the Department of Justice, it had no practical choice but to give up pursuit of the transaction.

The department claimed in its suit that acquisition of Leonard Refineries by Sohio would "substantially lessen competition" and "tend to create a monopoly."

The firms claimed that virtually no competition presently exists between the two companies as Leonard brand gasoline is sold only in Michigan and Sohio brand products only in Ohio.

State Diesel Tax Take Over $2 Million Mark

LANSING (UPI) — Revenue from diesel fuel taxes in Michigan has exceeded two million dollars for the first time in the two decades the tax has been collected.

The 1959 figure of $2,303,095 is a 34 per cent increase over 1958, the secretary of state's office reported.

Business Notes

BOYLE

A native of Milford, Boyle was a trial attorney for the past three and a half years with the Michigan State Highway Department in title and condemnation program.

Following his graduation from the University of Michigan law school and his admission to the bar in 1953, Boyle served two years in the Army as a legal adviser.

* * *

Boyle was appointed to the Attorney General's Office in 1956 by Michigan Supreme Court Justice Thomas M. Kavanagh, then state attorney general.

Small Gains Dot Moderate Mart

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market moved upward slightly in moderately active early trading today. Gains of most leading stocks were small, stretching in some instances to about a point.

Steels, chemicals, coppers, rails and electrical equipments showed a firmer tone.

In a mixed airlines group, United Air Lines added about 2 points.

Du Pont rose more than a point. Republic Steel and American Smelting rose about a point apiece.

* * *

The missile firings by Russia and the United States sparked no general activity among the "science" stocks at the outset. Thiokol and General Tire, which has rocket -subsidiary, were up fractions. Brunswick-Balke and Fairbank Whitney were active and up slightly.

Ford was briskly traded and rose a fraction as did General Motors and Chrysler.

Fractional gainers included Bethlehem, U. S. Steel, Union Carbide, New York Central, Anaconda, Kennecott, General Electric, International Paper and Westinghouse Electric.

Universal Match added 3 points to its rise of 2 yesterday, apparently in response to reports of its new bill changing device.

Concern over tight money was underlined by news that the British bank rate had been hiked to 5 per cent from 4 per cent but Wall Street apparently was convinced that another rise in the discount rate may not be made by the Federal Reserve Board until possibly February.

Open blocks included General Motors, up ¼ at 50⅝ on 4,000 shares; U. S. Steel up ¼ at 92¼ on 2,500; and American Can off ⅝ at 42⅜ on 3,000.

Troy Boy Loses Leg in Scooter Accident

Rushed to William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak, was Peter M. Stevens, of 2870 Big Beaver Rd.

Peter was a passenger on the scooter driven by Jerry B. Laurance, 15, of the same address.

According to Birmingham police the car and motor scooter collided at Adams and Derby roads. Driver of the car was Mrs. George Bauer, of 2566 Dorchester Rd., Birmingham.

2 Top Western Singers Will Headline Jamboree

RAY PRICE

WILLIAM O. MOULTON JR.

Two of America's top country and western singers will appear at Pontiac Central High School Saturday in three shows.

Ray Price and Stonewall Jackson will headline the Michigan Jamboree being presented by the Pontiac Lions Club.

All proceeds from the shows, to begin at 3, 7 and 9:30, will go into the Lions Club sight conservation program.

Price is recognized as the top name in the country and western field. He has ridden to fame largely on his recordings of "Crazy Arms," "Heartaches by the Numbers," "City Lights," and "Wasted Words."

The second title was voted the top country and western song in 1959 by trade magazines.

Stonewall Jackson has followed a "rags to riches" course. In two years he has risen from dirt farming in Moultrie, Ga., to national fame in the country and western field.

His first "pop" hit was "Waterloo." His current hit record is "Mary Don't You Weep."

Both are stars of Nashville's Grand Ole Opry. Joining them will be Billy Martin of Pontiac and his driftin' wranglers, widely known throughout Michigan.

Other Michigan Jamboree favorites on the program will be Rusty Williams of Rochester; Rose Lane of Hazel Park; Clyde Vaughn of Flint; Archie Grammer of Auburn Heights; and the Kentucky Rebels of East Detroit.

Proceeds will go toward support of the Leader Dogs for the Blind School in Rochester, and provide more glasses and other medical aid for persons who could not otherwise afford it.

Tickets will be available at the door at all three performances, from any club member, or at Grinnell Music and Calbi Music in Pontiac and Bejnar's in Utica.

Bank Interest Goes to 5 Pct. in London

LONDON (AP) — Britain hiked its official bank interest rate from 4 to 5 per cent today in an effort to check an outflow of investment money.

* * *

The increase was prompted by pressure on the sterling area's gold and hard currency reserves, which fell 238 million dollars in December and $333,200,000 for the whole of 1959.

* * *

Most of this decline was attributable to nonrepetitive international loan repayments. Part of it, however, was caused by investors searching for better interest yields abroad, particularly in the United States.

Shell Oil Announces Wholesale Hike of 1.9

DETROIT (AP) — Shell Oil Co. announced yesterday a wholesale price increase of 1.9 cents a gallon for regular, and 2 cents for premium gasoline in the Detroit area.

The increase, which becomes effective today, followed a similar announcement by Standard Oil Co.

A general rise in gas prices is expected in the Pontiac area in a day or two. Regular gas is 26.9 or 27.9 in most places now.

Conduct Leadership Class for Hospital Supervisors

A voluntary "Leadership Training Program" is being conducted at Pontiac General Hospital for all supervisory personnel on a weekly basis.

The five-week session was developed jointly by the supervisory staff in an effort to promote leadership and improved personnel and employe relations, according to Harold B. Euler, hospital administrator.

A case study technique is being used throughout the classes.

Credit Union Holds Election

William A. Moulton Jr. Chosen President of Oakland County Group

At the annual meeting in Pontiac last night, William O. Moulton Jr., director of the Children's Home, was elected 1960 president of the Oakland County Employes Credit Union.

Moulton, a county employe since 1945 and director of the home since 1949, succeeds Paul F. Thams, director of special education for the County Board of Education.

Re-elected to one-year terms were Herbert R. Raduns, sheriff's deputy with civil matters, vice president; John Jones, road commission, treasurer; and Mrs. Pauline Hammond, with the payroll department of the Board of Auditors, secretary.

There was a large turnout at the 7th annual meeting of the 1,800-member organization held at the Pontiac Federal Savings & Loan Assn. building.

Besides Moulton, Raduns, Jones and Mrs. Hammond, William Arnold of the maintenance department, Mrs. Florence Allen of the clerk's office, and William Webb of the treasurer's office were elected to the Board of Directors for the coming year.

Says Networks to Air Culture

N. Y. Paper Reports Pact With FCC on Use of Prime Evening Time

NEW YORK (AP) — The three national television networks have been persuaded by John C. Doerfer, chairman of the Federal Communications Commission, to carry cultural and educational programs on a regular basis during prime evening hours, the New York Times said today.

The networks are expected to announce such a plan within the next few days, a Washington dispatch to the Times added.

If will be a voluntary agreement under which the networks and their affiliates will take turns each night in carrying public service programs, the story said.

The Times said Doerfer declined to comment on the proposals, but that it was learned elsewhere he had been consulting with officials of the three networks and helping to bring them together on the agreement.

The Times said the final agreement among the networks is likely to assign each of them one weekday evening. The network would put on a cultural or public service program—at least 30 minutes long —that would otherwise not be on the air.

Also, an effort will be made to have network affiliated stations around the country put on local public service programs, the Times said. The networks will release to the affiliates an evening half-hour of option time ordinarily reserved for network programs.
