ALONE AT LAST—There's plenty of time for romance at the Detroit Zoo in Royal Oak during the quiet winter months, but Valentine's Day is special. "All summer, I've had

Khrushchev Reports Cut in Russian Armed Forces

United Press International MOSCOW—Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev announced today that the Soviet Union is making cuts in the strength of its armed forces.

"The Soviet Union is making certain cuts in its military expenditures and the numerical strength of its armed forces not because of economic difficulties but because of considerations of common sense, guided by a sincere desire for peace," Khrushchev said in a long speech to a special meeting of the Communist party Central Committee.

Khrushchev also snubbed Communist China and scoffed at a U. S. Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) report on the slowness of Russian economic growth.

In his speech, Khrushchev diagnosed the ills of Soviet farming and recommended certain remedies. He also touched briefly on these points:

• Soviet arms cuts will not affect the Kremlin's military punch, which must be kept strong because "Imperialists refuse to accept Soviet proposals and come to us in disarmament."

• "RIGHT PATH"
• Russia has found the right path to communism and "will fight revisionists, dogmatists, and the newly-baked Trotskyites who, while making high-sounding revolutionary phrases about the struggle against imperialism, undermine the unity of the world Communist movement by their splitting activities."

This was as close as Khrushchev came to mentioning the Chinese Communists—although today is the 14th anniversary of the Soviet-Chinese Friendship Treaty on which relations between the two Communist giants are based.

Khrushchev's speech was almost wholly devoted to agriculture.

In it, he asserted that with the aid of capitalist methods and machines, the Soviet Union will cover its farm lands with chemical fertilizer in seven years, doing what it took capitalist countries decades to do.

Exclude Arson in Pontiac Fire

Officials Not Certain How Blaze Started

City and state fire marshals, after digging through charred debris for hours yesterday, said they were unable to determine the exact cause of the fire that gutted the Big Value Furniture Store.

"All we know is that it was a natural fire," said Pontiac Fire Marshal Charles Metz, "and could have started any number of ways, such as a discarded cigarette."

"We do know that no arson was involved," Metz said.

Metz, Assistant Fire Marshal Allan Tunney and Detective Erlend Wiitanen of the state fire marshal office in Detroit, inspected the building site at 47-55 S. Saginaw.

IN MEZZANINE
Metz said that the investigation revealed that the fire started in the mezzanine at the rear of the store.

The building was gutted by flames Tuesday night. Total damage was estimated at $135,000.

British Judge Orders Train Case Acquittal

AYLESBURY, England (AP)—The presiding judge directed a jury verdict of acquittal today for John T. Daly, one of 21 defendants in Britain's great mail train robbery.

Daly, 32, an Irish-born antique dealer, was accused of conspiracy in connection with the seizure of 2.6 million pounds ($7.28 million) in bank notes from a Glasgow-London train near here last Aug. 8.

Chance of Snow This Weekend for Pontiac Area

Winds blowing in from the northwest are expected to bring a few snow flurries tomorrow. Temperatures will drop to 25 to 30 tonight but will rise again to the mid-30s tomorrow.

There's a chance of scattered snow flurries with not much change in temperature Sunday.

Today's westerly winds at 5 miles per hour will become southwest to south at 8 to 15 m.p.h. tonight, and west to northwest at 10 to 15 miles tomorrow.

Twenty-four was the low reading in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. At 2 p.m. the recording was 34.

Burns $1,302 in Loot

CHELMSFORD, England (AP)—Cashier Keith Rogers of the Essex County Council burned $1,302 in a waste paper furnace, Chelmsford magistrates were told Thursday.

Rogers, 46, pleaded guilty to larceny of the money and was put on probation for two years. He told police: "I couldn't stand the sight of money any longer and I had to burn it."

Cyprus Leader Rejects NATO Peace Force

Makarios Will Take Dispute to U. N. as Fighting Continues

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—President Makarios today rejected the British-American proposal to land an international peace force on embattled Cyprus, and will take the matter to the United Nations immediately, authoritative diplomatic sources said.

Sporadic fighting persisted between Greek and Turkish Cypriots.

There was no immediate official statement from Makarios or from U. S. Undersecretary of State George Ball who ended three days of discussions in Nicosia.

The basic U.S.-British plan was for an army of about 10,000 men to be recruited from members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, with the United States putting up perhaps 2,000 to keep the peace between Cypriots of Greek and Turkish extraction.

Ball flew to Ankara to report to Turkish officials on his talks with Cypriot leaders and to urge restraint on Turkey.

SIMILAR MISSION
He will then go to Athens on a similar mission to Greek authorities.

Makarios is expected to ask for a U.N. Security Council resolution which would prevent any one nation from intervening in Cyprus and to protect Cyprus' territorial integrity. This would be aimed primarily at Turkey.

Diplomats said the United States and Britain believe a solution must be found to settle the differences on the island which might possibly lead to a war between Greece and Turkey, who are allies in NATO. It was understood both British and American officials tried to convince Makarios that he might not get the results he desired from the Security Council, where the Soviet Union would have a voice concerning the island's future.

ISSUES STATEMENT

Before taking off for Turkey in a U.S. Air Force plane, Ball issued this statement at the Nicosia airport:

"I had discussions with President Makarios and other members of the government.

"I think we leave with a better understanding of each other's position.

"As far as my government is concerned, we have not abandoned the search for ways to bring about the return of peace and order in Cyprus and create conditions for a settlement."

Rep. Law Sponsoring Bill to Allow Public Flogging

LANSING (AP)—Michigan would join Delaware in authorizing public flogging if a bill filed yesterday dealing with juvenile delinquents becomes law.

Rep. Arthur Law, D-Pontiac, said the bill he alone is sponsoring would revive "an American institution—the old-fashioned whipping with a switch or a belt."

"I don't think this will lead to the whipping post such as Delaware has on the books. But it's time we quit theorizing about what causes delinquency and do something to curb it," he said.

Law, 58, an Oklahoma-born grocer and veteran of three two-year terms in the legislature, would authorize public corporal punishment, preferably administered by the offender's father, on order from a probate judge.

This punishment would be in addition to other sentencing and be "administered by the father of the child or peace officer designated by the probate court," the bill says. "The court shall designate the place and time of punishment."

"I think the judge should order it to be done in the school, in front of the other students," Law said. "They could call an assembly for it."

MORE EFFECTIVE
"If this were done in front of the kids and in the neighborhood where the delinquent acts were committed, it would be far more effective."

"A school principal or a teacher could be authorized to administer the punishment. But it would have to be under police supervision, making sure it is at once safe, and adequate," Law said.

The gray-haired legislator has a reputation among his colleagues for wishing to see wrongdoers dealt with sternly. He is sponsoring another bill to double the sentence for rape to 100 years.

"I want the court to make the father exercise the responsibility which he has ignored. This has to be done in the formative years," Law said.

U.S. Okays Soviet Visit to Defector

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet Union has asked that its officials be permitted to see Yuri I. Nosenko, a Soviet secret police officer who defected to the United States, and officials said today that arrangements will be made to meet the Soviet request.

The Moscow government has now protested against Nosenko's defection and has also asked the United States for information as to how it happened.

The protest was registered in Moscow today by Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko with U.S. Ambassador Foy D. Kohler.

Kohler promptly reported to Washington. Authorities here declined to release details but indicated that Gromyko had taken the line that the U. S. government was responsible for Nosenko's behavior.

Valentine From Pontiac

Pontiacs are red. Pontiacs are blue. Higher production figures are our Valentine to you!

Aides to E. M. Estes, Pontiac Motor Division general manager, couldn't resist the chance this morning to report like this that two new production records went up like Cupid's arrow.

Single home plant output yesterday was 1,379, while national production was 3,186, both records for a day.

Frank V. Bridge, Pontiac general sales manager, added the sweet touch.

He said sales for the first 10 days of February of 16,132 were highest for this period in the division's history and passed the old 1955 mark of 14,018.

Cuba Will Get Equipment for Road-Building

Large Credit Offered to Soviet Union for Purchase of Factories

LONDON (AP)—Plans to sell British road building equipment to Cuba and to extend a huge credit to the Soviet Union for massive purchases of factories were reported today.

The disclosures came as Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home headed home from Washington after making clear to President Johnson that Britain intends to continue trade with Cuba and the Communist bloc. He says Britain must trade to survive.

Three Cuban government officials arrived to negotiate for the purchase of road rollers and earth-moving equipment, said to value $1.4 million.

At the same time a group of London banks was reported preparing a credit to finance a deal with the Soviet Union for up to $448 million worth of British fuel and other non-strategic chemical plants.

Colin Ryan, managing director of the Aveling Barford plant at Grantham, said his firm is negotiating to sell road rollers and earth-moving equipment to Cuba. He did not give the value of the transaction but said the amount is substantial.

WAIT TO SEE
"We are waiting to see what the Prime Minister has to say about this thorny question," he added.

Part of the order is understood to be for 55 tractor shovels powered by Leyland engines. Leyland last month denied the United States by agreeing to supply Cuba with 400 buses. An option for 1,800 more buses also has been signed.

The credit deal for the Soviet Union also runs counter to U.S. policy if it provides easy terms over a long period. The terms of the deal were not disclosed.

The Russians already have signed an agreement covering $266 million worth of factories and know-how, the Daily Mail reported. Contracts would call for down payments of 20 per cent.

FINANCE CREDITS
A London merchant bank was said to have got together a group to finance the credits for 80 per cent of the cost of the various plants. The Board of Trade would guarantee the credits.

Premier Khrushchev last December announced that the Russians will invest $3.92 billion annually to expand their chemical industry.

Cyprus Leader Rejects NATO Peace Force

Makarios Will Take Dispute to U. N. as Fighting Continues

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—President Makarios today rejected the British-American proposal to land an international peace force on embattled Cyprus, and will take the matter to the United Nations immediately, authoritative diplomatic sources said.

Sporadic fighting persisted between Greek and Turkish Cypriots.

There was no immediate official statement from Makarios or from U. S. Undersecretary of State George Ball who ended three days of discussions in Nicosia.

The basic U.S.-British plan was for an army of about 10,000 men to be recruited from members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, with the United States putting up perhaps 2,000, to keep the peace between Cypriots of Greek and Turkish extraction.

City to Detour Main Street

Saginaw to Close for Tunneling Work

The intersection of Saginaw, Auburn and Orchard Lake in downtown Pontiac will be closed to traffic for more than a month beginning Wednesday when work is to begin on tunneling the Clinton River under Saginaw.

The project is estimated by city engineers to keep the intersection closed for 45 to 60 days.

A massive, complex detour system was outlined yesterday by City Traffic Engineer Joseph Koren.

The detour will involve opening a currently closed portion of the perimeter road to two-way traffic and turning portions of six two-way streets into one-way thoroughfares temporarily.

Becoming one-way eastbound will be Whittemore, from Saginaw to the Perimeter Road; Patterson, Cass to Saginaw; and Water, Saginaw to Perry.

The following will change to a one-way westbound traffic movement: Judson, from the perimeter road to Saginaw; and Pike, perimeter road to Saginaw.

Perry, from Water to Auburn, will be one-way southbound.

The following are detours to be used on Saginaw (north-south) and Auburn-Orchard Lake (east-west) for both local and thru traffic (MS9) traffic.

The public schools are local sponsors and serve as collection depots.

Parents are requested to take summer and winter shoes and garments to any school next week. The articles need not be perfect but should be sturdy and in wearable condition.

HARD-CORE POVERTY

The clothing received will be distributed in the Southern Appalachian Mountain area where a flood last winter plus hard-core poverty make it difficult to satisfy basic living needs.

Although emphasis is on children's clothing, adults' garments also will be accepted.

Save the Children Foundation, established in 1932, is registered with the State Department Advisory Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid. It helps children here and abroad through sponsorships, self-help scholarships and family-school and community self-help projects in addition to the annual clothing drive.

Local chairman for the drive is Arthur Roller, principal of Torry School.

"Holiday in the Alps," a color travelogue by Eric Pavel, is scheduled for tonight and tomorrow night presentations at the Community House.

Educated in Switzerland, Pavel conducted his tour from the French Riviera to the shores of the Adriatic. Tickets for the 8 p.m. programs can be purchased at the door.

The program will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday at Pierce School.

Panelists will be Dr. Richard Galpin, pediatrician; Mrs. Ruth Martin, Birmingham school nurse; Donald Kern, administrator of the Oakland Child Guidance Clinic; Mrs. C. Frank Alcala, Birmingham visiting teacher; and Mrs. William J. King, a parent.

Daniel Welch, Pierce School principal, will moderate.

Flint Officials Oust 2 More

Brings to 5 Number Dropped Since Probe

FLINT (AP)—City Commission Thursday night removed two more city officials charged with misfeasance and neglect of duty, pending hearings.

The ousters of City Clerk Lloyd Henderson and Olney P. Craft, city finance director, brought to five the number of officials removed from office pending hearings on charges against them.

Theodore D. Moss, public works director; Albert C. Hull, purchasing director and Gerald Childers, city planner, were ousted Tuesday night. They will receive civil service hearings. The commission appointed a three-member committee to hear charges against Henderson and Craft.

URGES FIRINGS

Circuit Court Judge Donn D. Parker, conducting a one-man grand jury investigation of alleged graft at Flint City Hall, urged the five officials charged against the five officials and recommended the dismissals. Parker said actions by the five others in improperly obtaining public funds.

The charges stem from Flint's purchase of land on Lake Huron for a proposed $42 million water pipeline.

Rep. Law Sponsors Bill to OK Flogging

Law said the courts have overdone the job of protecting children from abuse, and this has resulted in robbing the authorities of useful disciplinary resources.

Law said published accounts of juvenile rowdism in Detroit prompted him to enter the bill, "expecting when I read the teachers want life insurance. 'I don't see how these high school extortion rackets and such can go on without these kids later employing the same tactics against adults—mugging and robbing,' he said.

West Germans Turn Down Offer to Reopen Wall

BONN, Germany (AP)—The West German government and the West Berlin Senate turned down today the East German offer to reopen the Berlin wall for the Easter holidays.

The government and the Senate made known their decision in a joint announcement issued in the West German capital. The announcement said they were fully agreed on the refusal. The East German government said last night it was willing to allow West Berliners to visit East Berlin during Easter on the same basis they had during the Christmas holidays. Report K Yielded in Castro Talks

By K. C. THALER

LONDON (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev was reported today to have bowed to Cuban Premier Fidel Castro's insistence on continuing to press for revolutionary violence in Latin America.

An authoritative British assessment of Cuba's relations with Moscow and Peking said Castro made only a few modest political concessions to Khrushchev during his Moscow talks last month and in return was rewarded handsomely with economic aid.

These concessions, it said, did not include a renunciation of Castro's goal of leading the Latin American revolution or of trying to touch it off with outbursts of violence like those of the Castroists in Venezuela.

Such violence is at variance with Khrushchev's policy of peaceful coexistence.

PEKING VIEW

It does, however, reflect the revolutionary views of Communist China.

But China cannot offer the Cubans aid on the scale promised by the Soviets.

Thus, the analysis said, the Cuban-Soviet marriage of convenience, is likely to remain "a necessary but uncomfortable match."

NO CHANGE

He has not signed the nuclear test-ban treaty, a key part of Khrushchev's peaceful coexistence, thus aligned Cuba with Peking and a few of its satellites.

Khrushchev needs Castro's friendship to show the other Latin American Communists that the Soviet Union and China should have the leadership of the Communist drive for influence in the hemisphere.

It is also of great propaganda value to him to be able to show the world that the Communists have established a beachhead 90 miles off the coast of the United States.

Khrushchev was reported hopeful that Castro will be more willing to accept Soviet direction as the Cuban economy becomes more oriented toward the U.S.S.R.

Airline Plans Service Halt

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—National Airlines, faced with a clerical workers strike, says it will suspend service at 12:01 a.m. Saturday.

Members of the Air Line Employees Association have announced they will walk out at 12:03 a.m. Saturday. Their contract expired last April.

Negotiations on a proposed new three-year pact stalled on wage rates and differentials. The union asked a $60 raise on a monthly wage scale of $350 to $417 and was offered $36 to $51.

National had said earlier it would continue operating if a strike occurred. A spokesman announced the change in plans after three key unions pledged support to the ALEA, which bargains for 1,800 ticket agents and clerks.

Note of Hope Seen by Britisher LBJ, Sir Alec End 2-Day Conference

WASHINGTON (AP) Britain's Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home set out for home today with the expressed hope that the accomplishments of his visit with President Johnson will benefit "a great many other countries also."

Secretary of State Dean Rusk seconded Douglas-Home's theme in a brief farewell ceremony marking the close of the British leader's two days of conferences here.

Rusk said the parley, the first business session between Johnson and Douglas-Home as heads of government, "was in the best sense a working meeting" which covered some 30 different international topics.

Referring to the published U.S.-British disagreement over sales to Cuba and the Soviet Union, Rusk jokingly noted that there is "a rumor we didn't agree on one or two" of the 30 items. But he said this score shows "a very high batting average."

Other countries Douglas-Home put it this way: "I hope it will benefit not only our countries but a great many other countries also."

The British leader had said he will continue trading with Cuba and is willing to grant credit to Communist nations in the same way it does to others.

The main purpose of the Anglo-American summit, spokesmen stressed, was for Johnson and Home to get to know each other before each is caught up in the whirl of election campaigns.

In this respect the get-together was a complete success, said a high American official, who commented: "The farmer from Scotland and the farmer from Texas understood each other perfectly."

Briefly, these were the issues discussed: 1. On Southeast Asia, the British pledged complete support for U.S. policies in Viet Nam, and the United States reaffirmed its support for Malaysia.

2. Both sides asked for stepped-up efforts to formulate new proposals aimed at breaking the deadlock in East-West talks on Germany and Berlin.

3. It was agreed that further relaxation of East-West tension depends largely on the outcome of the Geneva disarmament conference and action on Western proposals for a nuclear freeze and the stationing of control posts on both sides of the Iron Curtain to detect preparations for a surprise attack.

4. Though the interests of the two countries are not exactly identical, both sides pledged to work toward the success of the forthcoming tariff cutting negotiations in Geneva.

5. The British are not quite convinced about the military effectiveness of the U.S.-proposed multilateral nuclear force.

6. On trade with Communist countries in general and with Cuba in particular, the British maintained their traditional attitude which Douglas-Home summed up this way: "We have to trade if we want to live. We do not believe in boycotts." Britain will not sell arms or other strategic materials to the Communists, the prime minister promised.

PATROL STORY

California Highway Patrol Capt. Richard Langer said he believed this is what happened: Edens, a worker on the Middle Fork American River water project, left Auburn sometime Monday. He was traveling the narrow road 40 miles east of the city when he lost control of his car.

As the car tumbled end over end, Edens was thrown out about 500 feet from the cliff's edge. Blood was found nearby and it appeared he was trying to crawl back up when he slipped and fell the rest of the way down the face.

On Wednesday, a forestry patrol spotted skid marks on the road and investigated the foot of the cliff. They found the car wreckage but no sign of Edens. They did not know he was only 76 yards away.

SEARCH RESUMES

The patrol informed the Placer County sheriff's office and on Thursday a crew of sheriff's deputies and the California Highway Patrol resumed the search.

They heard the groan and found Edens unconscious. Using ropes and mountain-climbing techniques, they hauled Edens back to the road where a helicopter waited to take him to a hospital.

Langer said Edens was cited last week for not having a driver's license.

Find Crash Victim After 3-Day Ordeal

AUBURN, Calif. (AP)—Floyd A. Edens, 53, who lay undiscovered for three days after his car plunged 1,000 feet down a near-vertical cliff, remained unconscious today in a hospital.

He was discovered by a rescue party Thursday morning at the bottom of a cliff that winds through a remote area in the foothills of the Sierra Nevada.

His rescuers said a single

Ruby Venue Judgment Due Today

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Attorneys for both the state and defense, awaiting a decision today on a change of venue motion, said they are prepared to start questioning prospective jurors Monday for the Jack Ruby murder trial.

Dist. Judge Joe B. Brown said he would rule at 1 p.m. EST on the defense's request to move the trial to another city in Texas. He could grant the motion, deny it, or could reserve a final decision until after efforts are made to empanel a jury here. The trial is scheduled to begin Monday if it is not transferred.

Melvin Bell, chief defense counsel, said Thursday he believed "the chances are pretty good" that Judge Brown would direct the lawyers to try to get a jury here. But Bell predicted that a jury could not be picked and that Ruby would then get a change of venue.

Dist. Atty. Henry Wade, who opposed transferring the case, said he is ready to start the trial of Ruby, who killed Lee Harvey Oswald in the city jail Nov. 24 before a nationwide television audience.

CONFESSED MARXIST

Oswald, a 24-year-old confessed Marxist, had been charged with the assassination of President John F. Kennedy two days earlier.

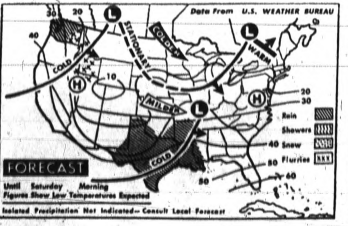

During the more than three days of testimony Bell sought to prove his contention that "there is a blueprint in Dallas to deprive our client of a fair trial."

The defense insisted that what it called "the Dallas oligarchy"—civil organizations and leaders—has so emphasized shame brought on the Dallas image that a juror "would be obligated to convict Jack Ruby of murder with malice to prove that Dallas is a place of law and order."

Pontiac Police Eye Arson in School Blaze

Pontiac police are investigating the possibility of arson in connection with a fire this morning that caused an estimated $2,000 damage to the Bagley Elementary School, 320 Bagley.

Firemen said the blaze started at 7:27 a.m. in a storage room at the front of the building where charred papers were found.

The blaze, confined to the storage room, was brought under control before children arrived at school. Classes were held as scheduled.

Damage was estimated at $1,400 to contents in the room and $600 to the building.

Constitution Changes Go to Negotiating Unit

LANSING (AP)—House members have submitted a package of proposed constitutional amendments to a six-man "negotiating committee" to determine if there can be bipartisan agreement.

Partisan differences over what the package should and should not contain emerged Thursday as Republicans and Democrats met separately.

Neither party took a poll of its members on the proposed changes in election provisions of the constitution, but agreed to send them to the special committee for further talks.

House Speaker Allison Green, R-Kingston, said he expects "something" in the way of a package to result from negotiations by Tuesday, when the parties will meet privately again.

"We need to find out if we have enough leeway to come up with something. We recognize the issue is orderly government. That's the reason for the negotiating committee," Green said.

Republicans are not in accord on the contents of the amendments to be submitted to voters in a special April 22 election, said Green, but might supply "60 per cent" of the votes needed to get them through the House.

Among Democrats, however, coolness toward the proposed amendments was more apparent than at any previous time.

Democratic State Chairman Zoltan Ferency told his party's caucus that the Democratic policy committee, made up key party leaders, is opposed to legislators sending "self-serving" amendments to a vote of the people.

Democrats, it was reported, were split over whether to endorse amendments that would allow lawmakers to hold down other government jobs and to give House members four-year terms.

Both of these changes are part of the key resolution, the purpose of which is to freeze existing legislative districts for this year's election unless a new apportionment plan is in effect as of June 1.

One Democrat said he didn't expect the amendments—originally put together by a bipartisan House group—to receive much support in the Democratic caucus.

If the proposals eventually are rejected by Democrats, he said, it probably will be because of objections to freezing the dis-

"The Democrats are willing to let this campaign go on for a while just for the publicity about the new constitution needing amendments," he said.

"But when the chips are down, they're not going to support any plan that would allow the Republicans to keep control of the legislature."

In addition to the resolution freezing of legislative districts, the proposals include changes to permit township officers to run in spring elections and county officers to run this year for two-year terms, and four years beginning in 1966.

House minority leader Joseph Kowalski, D-Detroit, said some Democrats want to add other changes to the list—among them, restoring the elective offices of some administrative board members.

Rep. E. D. O'Brien, D-Detroit, has said that, despite Democratic objections to the package, he expects it to be approved by the House with better than the two-thirds caucus and to pass the House (74 votes) required.

The attorney general's office advised both party caucuses Thursday that there are no apparent legal obstacles to the plan for freezing legislative districts temporarily if no new apportionment plan is approved.

Higgins a Contender for GOP Nomination

FERNDALE (AP)—Former State Sen. George N. Higgins is virtually a contender now for the Republican nomination for governor.

Commenting "I can beat George Romney," Higgins said Thursday he would have a "final announcement" after March 1 though he avoided a flat statement of candidacy.

"As it stands now," he said, "I can say I'm almost definitely in. I've pretty much made up my mind."

The 63-year-old former legislator, now chairman of the Michigan Employment Security Commission (MESC), had said earlier he was considering making the race.

He appeared just a hairbreadth from positive candidacy Monday, repeating that he would have a "final announcement" when ready.

Higgins, a car dealer and tax expert in his half dozen terms in the House and Senate, criticized Romney.

He declared the governor had no right to claim credit for economic progress in Michigan since, he said, progress has been the result of good automobile business in other states as well as Michigan.

"That's what's bringing prosperity," he said. "It's nothing that the governor is doing."

YET TO ANNOUNCE

Romney has yet to say whether he will seek a second term in office.

At a Republican dinner in Dearborn Thursday night the governor said again he would have a decision within a few weeks.

Though he has made himself available for a draft for the Republican presidential nomination, he reiterated he was not a candidate.

Former Republican Lt. Gov. Clarence A. Reid, Romney's running mate in 1962 who was defeated by Democrat T. John Lesinski, said he would aid Higgins.

He is convinced, Reid said, that Romney will get the Republican presidential nomination.

Higgins said he had considered running for Congress from the new 19th District but indicated he had decided against this.

Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt Says:

Get Into A-1 Condition for Skiing Rigors

Skiing continues to be popular and boasts close to 1 million enthusiasts in the U.S.

Yet it is estimated that four of every 1,000 skiers will spend from one to seven days in the hospital this winter.

Many will incur sprains chiefly of the ankles and knees or fractures of the long bones of the leg.

Add to this a sprinkling of cuts, bruises and dislocations and you will have the debit side of the joyous picture.

Most accidents are due to poor physical condition and taking foolish chances.

No sport can be profitably enjoyed on a part-time basis.

If you make fitness a full-time program, you can enjoy tennis in the summer and skiing in the winter and sandwich a variety of other sports in between.

DON'T GO FLABBY

If, on the other hand, you let yourself go flabby from one skiing holiday to the next, you can expect to have more than your share of accidents.

Then everyone will say you are accident prone—but that is just a poor alibi.

For those who have let themselves get soft but who insist on skiing this winter a minimum of 10 weeks of vigorous reconditioning should precede the holiday.

Half-knee bends, raising up on your toes, walking on your toes, bending down and touching your

TIGHT MUSCLES

You should also strengthen your thigh muscles by sitting on a high stool and lifting your legs to a horizontal position with gradually increasing weights attached to your ankles.

Don't consider yourself in trim until you can lift 35 pounds with either leg.

Dummy Blows Whistle

LONDON (AP)—Detectives of Scotland Yard's flying squad pounced on a four-man gang as it raided a clothing store Thursday night. The signal to move in was given by a detective standing in the store window posing as a tailor's dummy.

Skiing lessons from an expert are essential. Most accidents happen to beginners.

And you will always be a beginner if you get your instruction from amateurs.

Q. I wear socks to bed but my mother says that is unhealthy.

If I don't wear them I curl up in a ball to keep warm and have a hard time going to sleep.

What do you think?
A. If you need socks to keep your feet warm in bed, by all means wear them.

The only thing about it that would be unhealthy would be failure to change them often enough.

You should wear a different pair in the daytime.

If you need to wear socks in bed when the weather is warm, you should have your doctor check you over to see why your circulation is not up to par.

West Cautious Over Offer to Reopen Wall for Easter

BERLIN (AP)—West German and Allied officials cautiously studied today a Communist East German offer to reopen the Berlin Wall for the Easter and Whitsun holidays.

The Communists offered the same conditions that allowed more than 500,000 West Berliners to visit relatives in East Berlin for family reunions during the Christmas and New Year's holidays on one-day passes.

The East Germans suggested renewal of the old agreement Thursday at the sixth meeting between Erich Wendt, East Germany's deputy cultural affairs minister, and Horst Korber, a West Berlin city official. They negotiated the previous agreement. The holiday agreement gave West Berliners their first chance to visit relatives in East Berlin since the Communists erected the wall in August 1961. Thousands of West Berliners waited for hours in bitter cold and snow to apply for one-day crossing permits.

West Berlin newspapers bitterly assailed the East Germans for insisting on such an ordeal of red tape. Since then, Western officials have demanded a new method of handling crossing applications.

To meet these objections, the East Germans proposed opening temporary permit offices in West Berlin schools as early as

Feb. 25 for an Easter crossing period from March 21 to March 30. Easter Sunday is on March 29.

The East Germans gave no indication how long they would keep the wall open for the Whitsun holiday, Whitsun falls on May 17.

Injecting two new elements, East Germans indicated they favored special rapid processing for family emergencies and suggested easier requirements for the reunion of separated husbands and wives.

UNACCEPTABLE TERMS

The West Berlin government entered into the talks last month hoping to work out a long-term arrangement, but the Communists so far have set terms that could not be accepted without damaging the Western position in the divided city.

The East German government sees an agreement as a chance to further the Communist theory of "three Germanys"—East and West Germany and a demilitarized West Berlin isolated from the West.

The U.S., British and French commanders in Berlin were called in to study the latest offer to make certain there is nothing involved to bolster the three Germanys idea. The three Western powers refuse to recognize East Germany and have rejected the idea of a demilitarized West Berlin first advanced by Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

But Who's Driving?

Bus Decides to See World

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UPI)—Sometime after a double-deck Greyhound Scenicruiser bus returned here from Palm Springs last Sunday, it mysteriously vanished from the local depot.

Yesterday morning an armored car driver in Bakersfield—a little more than 100 miles to the north—reported seeing a Greyhound bus parked on a side street off old US99 for the past four days.

Greyhound's Bakersfield office notified Santa Monica—which had alerted other offices to the missing bus—and the reply came that "That's our baby." The question of who took the bus remained a mystery.

OU's Music Festival Gets Strong Approval

It is doubtful whether any other project for community betterment has met with response as favorable and widespread as that given the Meadow Brook Music Festival to be initiated at Oakland University.

Plans have been completed for 12-series programs of summer music by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra for 1964 and 1965.

Enthusiastic reaction on the part of the university's faculty and student body has been matched by civic, social and art groups of the metropolitan community and a representative cross section of its citizenry.

Supplementary to the primary summer music festival is the concept of a performing arts center to be developed at OU, with promise of national and even international recognition. Students and other young people of the area will thus be enabled to avail themselves of instructional technique of not only members of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra but of musical artists from around the world.

It is stressed by proponents of the design that the summer concerts are not to be "social affairs," that informality will prevail and admission charges be low. The advantages of the university's cultural complex will be beamed on the generality of the area's residents.

Families could avail themselves of a day of cultural appreciation by an afternoon visit to Meadow Brook Hall and viewing its great masterpieces of art with, perhaps, the enjoyment of a picnic supper before attending the evening concert.

The inception of the Meadow Brook Music Festival and performing arts center is made possible through a grant from the Lula Wilson Fund. It was immediately swelled by a subscription from Mr. and Mrs. Marvin L. Katke of Bloomfield Hills.

The residents of our area are indeed to be congratulated on the cultural advantages to be offered through the generosity and leadership of its community benefactors.

Big Ten Won't Permit Pro Ball in Stadiums

As far as professional football is concerned, all Big Ten football stadia are circumscribed with a stern edict:

"Hands off."

Thus the Lions suddenly become the goats as far as 1964 is concerned.

A flying start is a tremendous help in a season as short as professional football's. There's no opportunity to recover lost ground when a full schedule only runs 14 games. This fall the Lions will be barred from the help of a home crowd in the first three consecutive contests: The American league has scheduled home Tiger baseball for all three dates.

By the time September rolls around, the Tigers will probably be wallowing in the depths of despond and a lowly berth in the second division as per usual. But they will grimly occupy Tiger Stadium on the final Sundays and probably some 10,000 bored but faithful fans will wend their way in to see the 153rd (or some such) game of the season. The 55,000 that would have packed the place for the Lions will be shunted home to their TV sets.

A logical solution would be for the Lions to use the stadium at Ann Arbor which seats 101,001, or the Spartan playground at East Lansing which exceeds 75,000. But the Big Ten says "no."

This should pain Wolverine taxpayers mightily, as the rental for these first three games could go against the tremendous University expenses which the citizens face annually. The same is probably true in Chicago, Minneapolis and Green Bay. Don't the taxpayers count with Big Ten authorities? These two football fields in Michigan stand idle 360 days a year. Pro football grants 15% of the gross as rental. This could mean more than $50,000 a game to ease the burden of our struggling citizens who pay the great bulk of the educational bills.

Michigan legislators: What do YOU think? Don't YOU have a voice in state-owned property?

Dreamy Quality in Primary Fight

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — There is almost a dreamy quality about the campaign for the New Hampshire Republican presidential primary.

Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, one of the candidates, started circling New Hampshire this week in below-freezing weather before dawn. She chatted with one couple in their home by the light of oil-lamps and as the day wore on she talked about fabrics and foxes, advertising and ancestors.

But she never got around to explaining why she's in the race at all except to say she wants to beat the other candidates. One of them, Philadelphia's Harold E. Stassen, who has had presidential ambitions for years and feels them tugging at him again, started campaigning in New Hampshire last week.

This week a spokesman at Stassen's headquarters in Manchester said: "If you know when he is coming back, you are one up on me."

Another candidate, Arizona's Sen. Barry Goldwater, who has made the rounds of the state in search of primary votes, this week was out West trying to drum up interest in himself there.

He and New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, also running in New Hampshire's March 10 primary, will oppose each other in the Oregon primary May 15 and California's June 2 primary.

Wednesday in California Goldwater said that state, with 86 votes in the Republican convention next summer, "is far and away the most important primary election state."

NOT VERY FLATTERING

This may not seem very flattering to the New Hampshire voters, although it's realistic. They will be able to send only 14 delegates to the convention.

The smiling, handshaking Rockefeller is more jovial than Goldwater with his heavy, dark-rimmed glasses. Rockefeller is spending a lot of time whisking around New Hampshire.

He tried to get Goldwater to debate him. Goldwater wouldn't. Rockefeller has spent a lot of his time finding fault with both Goldwater and President Johnson.

Even if all four of the publicly acknowledged candidates — Smith, Stassen, Goldwater, Rockefeller — managed to make New Hampshire hum they may still wind up behind two men not acknowledged candidates at all.

The voters could write their names on the ballot: former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., American ambassador to South Vietnam. Lodge has been truly silent but Nixon, even though he says he's not a candidate, sounds like one in his speeches outside New Hampshire.

Run for Both

The Arizona Daily Star

Under Arizona law Sen. Goldwater can run for both jobs (presidency and senate), just as Lyndon Johnson did in 1960 when he ran for both vice-president and the senate. Barry severely criticized Lyndon for doing that, but look where Lyndon got by doing it. Barry now may learn why a good politico must never use the word "never."

He is going to have to eat his words. He could wreck the Republican party in Arizona, should he stand by his criticism of Lyndon Johnson.

Should Barry run for both jobs, the chances are that he will be easily elected senator. No Democrat in his right mind wants to bump up against Barry in a senatorial race. On the other hand, should he run for both jobs, it is possible that he will not even carry Arizona as a candidate for president, while his chances of being elected senator are excellent.

Barry cannot be elected without the votes of thousands of Democrats. He has been elected by Democrats, but there are many, many Democrats who will not vote for him for president, but will vote for him for senator, because they admire him personally.

The people of Arizona wish Barry well. They are proud of him, proud that he promises to desist from a campaign of name calling and personalities.

Defends Flag

The Nashville Banner

The Ghana government is boiling mad at A. Emerson Player, American Negro attaché at the embassy in Accra, charging him with "notorious activities." What did he do to bring on this tantrum?

Well, when a Ghana mob stormed those premises and hauled down the U.S. flag, he defied the rioters at the risk of his own life, and put Old Glory back where it belonged. More than mere letters of commendation for that, he deserves a citation for valor.

In the series of incidents that have desecrated the flag abroad, he is the first State Department figure in such a setting to show guts enough to PROTECT the U.S. emblem and all it signifies that way.

Washington could use right now a lot of that example in its responsibilities wherever in this riot-ridden world, the flag waves.

Camera Shy?

Editor and Publisher

Those people who attack newspaper photographers, reporters and television cameramen at public demonstrations, as they did during the interracial difficulties in Cleveland do so with the quick and easy alibi that it is a private affair, it's nobody's business, but their own, and they just don't want their pictures taken.

They fall into the same classifications as the gutless wonder who writes a scathing letter-to-the-editor and is afraid to sign his name. These are the people who prefer to do their fighting in dark alleys. They think they believe in something but they haven't the courage to stand up and be counted, to let their neighbors and others know what they think.

The Davenport (Iowa) Times-Democrat

Extravagance means the way that other people spend their money.

Bob Considine Says:

The Most Punctual Golfer Is a 'Duffer' Named Ike

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. — Dozens of estate owners offered their places to Presidents Johnson and Lopez Mateos for their impending sojourn here.

The Secret Service made the final selections, which had nothing to do with whether the chief executives knew the people or not. Location, road facilities, communication, security, etc. were the deciding factors.

LRJ has never met his 'host.' The most punctual golfer in the area — which has 156 courses — is D. D. Eisenhower.

Each morning at 8, the former President steers his golf cart out of the grounds of his winter home along the 11th fairway of the great El Dorado course and heads for the first tee.

There, the rest of his foursome awaits him — or, they'd better be there.

Ike would drive off without them. He's got other work to do. The farmer who sold the old citrus grove out of which El Dorado was carved was first approached by a small group of would-be purchasers which included Bob Hope, Bing Crosby and Phil Harris.

The man asked $1,000 for the property. Harris turned to the others, "I can get it cheaper," he said.

"The old guy sold it the next week for his one million-ten," Hope recalled as we played the superb layout. "Today it's worth $150,000,000."

Phil Hegan, a good friend of presidents since FDR, and particularly of JFK, was surprised (and pleased) the other day to learn that a check he had sent to former Philadelphia Mayor Richardson Dilworth was being returned to him.

Phil had asked Dilworth to call up the Philadelphia mint and pick up some of the upcoming Kennedy "proof sets," of coins.

Seems that Kathryn Granahan, treasurer of the U.S., has not taken any new orders since Jan. 10.

Best bet to get one, or more, Phil says, is to notify your bank to stash a stack for you when received.

'Parents Responsibility to Teach Basic Ideals'

Learning to live with others begins when a child is born. He has to live with his parents and brothers and sisters. If a child isn't taught the basic ideals of living in the first six years, they will never be instilled. Parents set the example; schools just carry on the responsibility of good behavior.

Disturbed by Citizens' Council Ad

I was shocked at the Citizens' Council ad. You wouldn't give similar coverage to a Communist or fascist organization. Groups which preach separation of the races and which believe in the superiority of one race over the other are an even greater menace. Many will defend your action on the basis of freedom of the press. I would also defend your right in this regard, but you owe a duty to the people of this city.

Wallace Baldwin

Please send me more information on Lincoln's plan for settling the American Negro problem. In fact, all the pamphlets and information you can . . . so I can burn them along with the Feb. 10 Pontiac Press.

Arnold McConner

The insanity of the South has spread to Pontiac. The Pontiac Press has helped the infection along by running an ad claiming a solution to the American Negro problem. The answer was segregation and the authority was Abraham Lincoln. For those who wish to read for more "knowledge" the address was Jackson, Miss.

It's a small flame that ignites a big explosion. If the "free" press is allowed to print material based on personal freedom then for the sake of the preservation of our country, let's have a restricted press.

Negroes are God's people, too, and if the whites don't stop acting superior they may find the Negro has become the only American left who can truthfully be called God's people.

Someone should wake up Bruno Kearns to the fact that it's impossible for Pontiac to be the world's sports capital. We can't even get a decent city government.

'Schools Do Well in Handling Children'

Schools know what they're doing when they take children out of class. Why should the teacher and other students suffer? If parents know how their children behave and insist the child is doing right, how else is the child going to act?

It takes special classes and special teachers to take care of these children. A lot of parents should attend class, too. They need as much help as their children.

'Beatles Create Troublesome Image'

First we had Elvis Presley and now The Beatles. What are they doing to our society? They know how to move around, but are they dancing? They raise and lower their voices, but are they singing? They show boys how not to comb their hair and how not to have it cut. To young girls they build a false image. The performers are law-abiding but the image they create causes trouble.

Feel Library Isn't Needed in Waterford

I wonder why we're having a library when it was closed down twice. What we need in Waterford, among other things, is a hospital. With Waterford's growing population it would be well supported. Why not let the voters choose between a hospital or a library?

Wandering

I concur entirely with Mrs. Hoke's letter regarding the Waterford library. After the issue was defeated twice it would seem difficult for the township board to ignore the people's sentiments. Before investing our money in luxuries they should provide basic services, such as police and fire protection. The national standard is one policeman per 1,000 people. How does Waterford compare? Let the board advise us on how many more firemen and policemen we could have hired for the total costs of the library in its first year.

First Things First

'Church Entertained—Didn't Teach'

We moved here a year ago and attended church near our home. We were advised that all children be taken to the nursery or assembly room where they would be entertained. (It disturbed older people if children were near.)

The minister began his address "all those who call themselves teen-agers . . ." And I quote the exact words—"if any of you attempt to whisper or move about in any way—I shall halt the services, point you out, and ask an usher to escort you to the door." I was shocked. I believe in quietness but this was a crude method of making the point.

We went to other services and the same phase was repeated. We stopped going.

I can tell you what's wrong with one phase of church training—the children are entertained instead of being taught God's word. After being entertained all their young lives and driven when teen-agers, what can we expect but rebellion.

'Pontiac Has Lots More Than Lakes'

A letter in The Press from Waterford rather panned Pontiac and ended up: "Keep your factories. We'll keep our lakes." Well, we intend to keep our factories. We're very proud of them. We intend to keep our pavements, too, and our sidewalks and our fine police force and, our adequate fire department and our well financed and very adequate schools. And we're going to keep our very low tax rate.

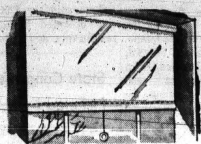

What do you plan to keep—after the lakes? There's room for everyone around here in a friendly spirit.

Justice Agents Zero In on Mafia 'Family'

By RICHARD F. WHALEN

NEW YORK (AP)—Five Cosa Nostra "families" are said to control the rackets in the New York area. The Justice Department is zeroing in on the one authorities say is headed by Thomas (Three-Fingers Brown) Luchese.

U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy was here today as the frontal assault on the crime syndicate by a federal grand jury gained momentum. About two dozen of Luchese's underlings have appeared this week.

Syndicate links with a ring of call girl-housewives in Long Island suburbs were disclosed Thursday by Dist. Atty. William Cahn of Nassau County.

He also announced the arrest on bookmaking charges of a partner of an accused procurer who died mysteriously in a flaming, parked automobile Tuesday.

LONG ISLANDER

Luchese, 63, is a short, dapper, garment industry executive who lives in a mansion on Long Island's South Shore. He has always maintained he has no connections with the crime syndicate.

His son went to the U.S. Military Academy at West Point and his daughter to Vassar College. She married the son of another Cosa Nostra "family" chieftain, Carlo Gambino.

Luchese, who was born in Sicily, home of the Mafia, went to prison once, in 1921, for 25 months on a bootlegging charge. He lost his right forefinger in a machine shop accident in his youth.

Joseph Valachi, the turncoat mobster, told Senate investigators in Washington last October that Luchese, Gambino, Joseph Magliocco, Joseph Bonanno and Vito Genovese were the heads of the Cosa Nostra "families," or gangs, in the New York area.

In Mineola, Long Island, Cahn said a secret witness "has given us information which for the first time solidly links this ring (of call girls) with the organized underworld in metropolitan New York."

"This whole operation now takes on a far bigger aspect," he said.

Arrested on bookmaking charges was Joseph Napolitano, a partner of Edmund Nugent, 49, whom Cahn had called a prospective defendant who signed a statement about his part as a steerer. The two were co-owners of the Jericho Lounge.

Cahn said autopsy reports indicate Nugent was alive seconds before flames engulfed his parked car. He said there was no evidence of knockout, drops. But Nugent had enough alcohol in his body to make him unfit to drive, police said.

One woman has been arrested as the madam of the alleged prostitution ring. Fourteen others, described as typical suburban, housewives, are held as material witnesses.

Cahn said the $200,000-a-year ring—operated through motels, restaurants and taverns.

Picketed by NAACP

BENTON HARBOR (AP)—A group of NAACP members picketed a building in which Rep. Edward Hutchinson, R-Mich., was visiting Thursday.

The group, from the Benton Harbor NAACP branch, said it was protesting Hutchinson's vote against the civil rights bill Monday. He was one of five Michigan congressmen who voted against it.

Driver Escapes Two Trains

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—"It was enough to turn a man's hair gray," said Kustae Malkamaki, 58, after two close scrapes with death.

Malkamaki's car skidded into the path of a fast-moving freight train when he tried to stop for the red blinker lights at a railroad crossing yesterday.

Shaken but unhurt, the motorist looked up to see a passenger train bearing down on him. He jumped clear as the train hit, scattering the wreckage a mile down the New York Central's railroad tracks.

Baker Probe Counsel Told Data on Witness Is Secret

WASHINGTON (AP) — L. P. McLendon, special counsel for the Senate's Bobby Baker investigation, says that when he asked executive agencies for background records on a key witness he was told they were classified.

The witness he was referring to is Don B. Reynolds, a local insurance agent whose testimony brought the name of President Johnson into the inquiry being conducted by the Senate Rules Committee.

McLendon told newsmen

Thursday that he inquired of both the Defense and Justice departments, prior to Reynolds' testimony, if background records on him were available. "I was informed the reason they were not available is that they were classified," McLendon said.

Since Reynolds testified, columnist Drew Pearson has published derogatory information about him as material that came from files of the Defense Department and other agencies.

Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., a Rules Committee member, demanded Thursday that the Pentagon and the FBI investigate what he termed the use of leaked official information "to destroy witnesses whose testimony becomes embarrassing."

The committee is investigating whether Baker, who resigned last Oct. 7 as secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority, engaged in outside business dealings that conflicted with his official duties or involved other improprieties.

Reynolds testified that in 1957, after writing a $100,000 insurance policy on the life of Johnson, then the Senate Democratic leader, he agreed to give Johnson a $585 stereo set and buy $1,200 worth of advertising time on a Texas television station controlled by the Johnson family.

Baker investigation. He said he has been given "a perfectly free hand."

"And I didn't come up here to whitewash anybody or to sweep anything under the rug," the Greensboro, N.C., lawyer said.

House Unit Demands New Jet Bomber

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Armed Services Committee, headed by influential Rep. Carl Vinson, D-Ga., bluntly told the administration today that work should begin "immediately" on a new bomber to replace this country's aging B52s and B58s.

The committee said the Air Force also needs an improved interceptor that can knock down long-range Soviet bombers at distances so great the Russian planes would have no chance to fire their own missiles.

For these two purposes, the house group authorized an extra $92 million not sought by the administration.

In so doing, the committee overrode the advice of Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara and headed, instead, warnings from Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, Air Force chief of staff.

FORMAL REPORT

Vinson's committee explained why in a formal report to the House today on its record $16.9 billion arms authorization bill. The house will vote on it Thursday.

The bill would authorize more than 2,700 new aircraft and about 35,000 missiles for the armed forces. It also would provide 53 new warships for the Navy, including six nuclear-powered attack submarines.

The lawmakers said that the U.S. strategic bomber force would be substantially reduced "in the not very distant future."

"The last deliveries of B52 and B58 bombers were in October of 1962," they said. "No new bomber has been designed, much less is in the process of production, and it is a simple and easily understood fact that we will have no bombers if we do not start on the road toward bomber production at this time.

"The B52s and B58s will fly for some time to come, but common sense tells us that they will wear out. This is inevitable."

Dem Defends Double Pay for Overtime Work

By JIM DYGERT
Democratic Congressman James G. O'Hara, who represents Macomb County and Michigan's Thumb area, yesterday defended President Johnson's controversial proposal for double payment for overtime work as an effective approach to the unemployment problem.

In Pontiac for luncheon and dinner speeches before Democratic Business and Professional Club chapters, O'Hara said there were no reliable estimates yet, however, as to how much it would reduce unemployment.

O'Hara is sponsor of the administration's bill to make possible a government-ordered increase in overtime rates in selected industries.

HEARINGS MONDAY
Hearings on the bill are to begin Monday before the House Education and Labor Committee, of which O'Hara is a member.

The proposal already had encountered strong opposition from the automobile industry, which is expected to fight it at the committee's hearings.

The Automobile Manufacturers Association opposes the measure on grounds that it amounts to government invasion of private business.

O'Hara said the reaction "compares to the opposition to the original act that established time-and-a-half pay for overtime back in 1938."

LOSE INCENTIVE
Under the proposal, O'Hara explained, employers would lose the "economic incentive" to work employees overtime rather than hire additional workers because overtime costs them less than hiring new workers.

A committee of representatives from business, labor and the public would examine industries to determine which were involved in the kind of overtime of that type, he said.

This committee would enforce the selective application of the law in those industries where double pay for overtime would result in an "economic benefit" of increased employment, he said.

It would depend on the reason for the overtime, O'Hara explained.

COULD CAUSE HARM
Double pay would cause harm rather than good if the overtime resulted from a shortage of skilled labor or temporary program scheduling problems, he said.

"I believe that this is, although limited, probably a very worthwhile approach to this condition in which we find large amounts of overtime being worked in the midst of unemployment that varies between 5 and 6 per cent of the total work force."

In a luncheon speech before the Pontiac Democratic Business and Professional Club, O'Hara said those who see today's main issue as centralized federal power versus local government and individual freedom are missing the point.

"The question is one instead of determining what our needs and goals are at all levels," he said.

NEED COOPERATION
"We need cooperation among all levels of government and must so design our efforts to solve our problems so as to protect individual liberty," O'Hara said. "We must reject this simplified centralism versus localism debate."

"PLEASE BE MINE" — Slowly the red, pink and white Valentine moves through the space between John Coats and Laura Stanley, first graders at Roosevelt School in Keego Harbor. The declaration of one's affection is serious business for two suddenly shy youngsters at this stage. But John is determined and you can bet his message will get across, just like those of many another swain who took crayon in hand to express his sentiments today.

Almont, Imlay City Study Plans for Merging Schools

The two advisory committees studying the proposed merger of the Almont and Imlay City school systems will continue their analysis in a joint 8 p.m. session Tuesday at Imlay City High School.

Both groups, one from each of the two districts, have been considering the consolidation since the two school boards approved the cooperative study.

They have been aided by Dr. Ray E. Kehoe, of the Bureau of School Services, University of Michigan.

Purpose of the program is to determine whether an improved curriculum, especially at the high school level, could be offered should the two organizations merge.

Dr. Kehoe thinks so.

PROGRAM AIDED
In a report submitted to the two boards by Dr. Kehoe, he pointed out that although there would be no financial savings for residents of a joint district, a merger would substantially improve the high school program.

The present Imlay City High School could be used for secondary level students now in the two districts, or a new high school could be constructed.

Dr. Kehoe also said in his report that under the present millage levy, little improvement could be made in the curriculum of grades kindergarten through eight, where Kehoe feels the greatest deficiency is found.

The school expert said that to provide a comprehensive academic program for all grades, about 3.5 additional mills would have to be charged.

POOR PROGRAM
Dr. Kehoe has analyzed the two school districts and found what he called a "poor junior high program" in both, as well as overcrowded elementary classes.

Should the two districts agree to the merger, the new school district would have a state equalized valuation of about $25 million, according to Imlay Schools Supt. Alvin Norlin.

Earlier the Dryden School District expressed an interest in the proposed merger, but was not included in Dr. Kehoe's study.

The two advisory committees were set up last month, to consider the idea.

ADDITIONAL DATA
In addition to having the assistance of Dr. Kehoe, they have heard presentations by William Eckstrom, Schools Superintendent of the Lakewood School District in Lake Odessa.

Eckstrom discussed the results of school district mergers in his area of the state.

Eligible Farmers Can Get New Feed Grain Bases

Area farmers can establish new farm grain bases under the 1964 Feed Grain Program if they are not eligible for the 1959 or 1960 programs, it was announced today.

Robert Long of the Oakland County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) disclosed the information.

Long said to be eligible for a new farm feed grain base the operator must expect to receive at least 50 per cent of his livelihood in the current year from production of agricultural commodities.

Other rules governing eligibility also were explained by Long.

FEED GRAIN
He said the farmer must have produced feed grain two of the past five years, must have equipment and land suitable for feed grain production and must not have an interest in any other farm for which a feed grain base has been established.

The ASCS agent said interested producers who can meet the requirements should contact the county ASCS office before Feb. 28 and file an application.

PLAYGOERS GET BONUS
The play adapted from W. Somerset Maugham's work will be presented at 8:30 p.m. Feb. 23 at the Farmington Playhouse, on 13 Mile, east of Powers.

Ticket information can be obtained from Mrs. James McLaughlin, 2801 Mandale, Orchard Lake, or Mrs. Donald Craig, 8291 Golfane, Union Lake.

ADRIAN COLLEGE GRANT
ADRIAN (AP) — A trustee of Adrian College, Russell V. Dancy, has given the school $100,000 for a scholarship fund. Dancy of Grosse Pointe is a co-founder of the Nicolay-Dancy Food Co.

BARBARA E. ZIMMERER

The engagement of Barbara Elaine Zimmerer to Jack C. McClellan, of 3221 W. Draher, Oxford Township, is announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zimmerer of Hamilton, Ohio. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McClellan of Hamilton. An Aug. 22 wedding is planned.

On Organization Setup Walled Lake Firemen Want Their Say

By PAT McCARTY
WALLED LAKE — The firemen want to get a word in edgewise.

They plan to have their say on how the fire department is going to be run.

Their declaration of intent was a result of a meeting held last night after the temporary chief had asked to be relieved of his fire department duties.

Police Chief James A. Decker was appointed head of the fire department Jan. 21 after the resignation of Frank Hamilton.

COMMITTEE FORMED
A committee was established by Mayor Milton A. Parrish to study the department and make recommendations for its reorganization.

Decker, protesting that the group was taking too long to reach a decision, Wednesday asked that he be allowed to relinquish his new duties until some order was established.

He and City Manager Frank C. Derby have outlined five alternative plans which they will present to the City Council Tuesday night. All involve Decker's being in charge of both departments.

At this point, the firemen will make their appearance.

EYED PROMOTION
All they wanted was a simple change in personnel, Hamilton said, in speaking for the group this morning. They figured that Assistant Chief Don Vickery would be promoted and that a new man would be hired to replace him.

The other 13 members of the department are volunteers.

"We agreed to completely cooperate with a committee set up by Mayor Parrish," Hamilton said. "We even went further and cooperated with Manager Frank Derby when he made Police Chief Decker temporary fire chief, though bailing — our tongues when this was done."

"Though all of these things happened, we felt we were adult enough to stick out the committee and Decker and see what the outcome would be — and work at that outcome."

PUBLIC STATEMENTS
Firemen noted that public statements attributed to the police-fire chief "weren't, we feel, in our best interests."

They declared they would take no more sitting down.

The plans submitted by Decker and Derby "seem to be bettering the police department and leaving us with the short end of the stick," Hamilton said.

In urging other residents to attend Tuesday night's meeting, he said, "If we need more than four full-time and six auxiliary police officers and can't even afford one full-time fireman each day, so be it — if it's what the people of Walled Lake want. But I can't believe they do."

Rochester Chamber Will Honor Citizen

ROCHESTER — The Rochester Area Chamber of Commerce will honor the community's citizen of the year at its annual dinner-dance tomorrow night.

The name of the person to be cited for outstanding service to Rochester will be revealed during the brief program to follow the meal.

The event will be held at the Colonial Post Home on Rochester Road, near East Long Lake Road in Troy. Refreshments will be served at 6:30 p.m. with dinner to follow at 7:30.

A Rochester High School student also will be honored during the festivities.

Kirk Rouse will receive a trophy for composing the "Miss Rochester" song sung during the contest in which the village queen was picked in December.

The queen, Judi Soule, also will be present to tell what activities she has attended since her coronation and what her plans are for the future.

The chamber sponsored the queen's pageant and coronation ball which were added to its annual Christmas parade program last year.

William Toussaint is president of the chamber this year. Serving with him are Walter Rewold, vice president; Mrs. Betty Levick, secretary; and Donald Foss, treasurer.

ELIZABETH J. HODGE

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lis of Detroit announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth Jane Hodge, to Clarence Burmeister Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Burmeister, 894 Schuyler, Milford. The bride-elect is also the daughter of Lloyd L. Hodge of Detroit. A November marriage is planned.

Foe of Mackie to Challenge?

Considers Entering Race for Congress

LANSING (AP) — State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie may run into home town opposition in his drive for the Democratic nomination for Congressman from the new 7th District.

Rep. Albert R. Horrigan — A Democrat from Flint, Mackie's former superior — says he is considering challenging Mackie for the Democratic nomination. Mackie announced for the Congressional seat Wednesday.

Horrigan, assistant Democratic floor leader in the House, said: "I'm not afraid of him at all. He's a good highway commissioner — but that doesn't mean anything in Congress."

LESINSKI IRKED
L.A. Gov. John Lesinski, irked by Mackie's endorsement of the gubernatorial candidacy of Democratic Congressman-at-large Neil Staebler, said he will back Horrigan. Lesinski has said he is considering seeking the nomination for governor in opposition to Staebler.

Mackie, 43, finishes his last term as highway commissioner June 30, 1965. The new State Constitution has changed the post from an elective to an appointive one.

Troy Mishaps Injure Two

Man and Boy Hurt in Separate Accidents

TROY — A 7-year-old boy and a Pontiac man were injured in separate traffic accidents here yesterday.

Both victims are reported in satisfactory condition in William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak.

Timothy Lane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Avery Lane, 1154 E. Big Beaver, was walking along the north side of Big Beaver when he darted in front of an eastbound car.

Allen Lane, 10, said his brother ran into the path of a car driven by Morris Bargman, 41, of Huntington Woods. The youngster was struck by the left front fender of the car.

He suffered a fractured rib and possible lung puncture.

In a second Troy accident yesterday, Gerald P. Morgan, 23, of 3094 Willett, sustained head cuts and a fractured right leg. CRASHED IN REAR

Troy police said Morgan was driving north on Crooks when he crashed into the rear of an automobile driven by Maximo R. Nieves, 28, of Selfridge Air Force Base.

Nieves told police he was pulling his car off the road when Morgan's vehicle struck his car.

The accident happened near the 175 freeway.

PTA Panel on Services in Avon Twp.

AVON TOWNSHIP — A panel discussion of special school and home services available in the community will highlight the Hamilton School PTA meeting Monday night.

Moderating the 8 p.m. session will be Miss Jean Lilly, visiting teacher for the Rochester Community Schools.

Panelists will include F. R. Wallinger, program director, North Oakland Clinic Guidance Clinic and Mrs. Ruth Kennedy, district supervisor, Pontiac branch of Oakland County Family Guidance Association.

Third panel member will be Ronald Kevers, director of special services for the local school district.

A question and answer period will follow.

Applicants Sought by Keego Council
KEEGO HARBOR — The City Council, hopeful of appointing a board of canvassers at its Tuesday night meeting, is now seeking applicants.

Forms are available at the City Hall. Any resident who is a registered voter affiliated with either major party can apply.

The board required under the new state constitution will be composed of two Democrats and two Republicans.

KAREN ELOISE DRAKE

A May 2 wedding is being planned by Karen Eloise Drake and William Russell Even, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Even, 5944 Little Pine, Oakland Township. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. Vernal Drake, 90 Merritt, Lake Orion, and the late Mr. Drake.

Only 1 in 3 Seeks Vocational Aid Plan

Diabetes, heart malformations, asthma, and arrested tuberculosis are all conditions that could qualify high school students for the county-run vocational rehabilitation programs.

Only a third of the physically handicapped high school students eligible for these special programs have sought this assistance.

This is the estimate of Mrs. Helen Sanford, consultant for Oakland Schools.

Mrs. Sanford said that one student per hundred, or 347 in Oakland County could be expected to qualify for vocational rehabilitation services.

FINANCED JOINTLY

The program, financed jointly by Oakland Schools and the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation of the federal government, now has only 130 students enrolled.

The students are given counseling, restoration and placement services.

Many youngsters, she said, have conditions that permit a relatively normal school life, but will interfere with future employment.

Oakland Schools officials indicate that students may be covering up some of these disabilities without realizing the difficulties in the future of finding employment.

OBVIOUS HANDICAPS

Of course, Mrs. Sanford said, the program also covers youths with more obvious handicaps, such as poor vision, hearing, crippled or amputated legs, arms, feet or hands.

She said that the program includes a medical evaluation to determine limitations imposed by an individual's disability.

Some physical restoration is possible, such as hearing aids, glasses, braces or artificial limbs.

TO BE ELIGIBLE

To be eligible, the youngster must be a resident of one of the 30 Oakland County School districts and a high school student.

High school students, 16 or older, who have health problems are urged to report their conditions to public school counselors.

Fraternity Hates Girls, but Just This Week

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (AP) — The brothers of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity at Colorado State University neatly side-stepped buying valentines this year.

They proclaimed this as "We Hate Women Week." The fraternity men are under strict orders not to talk or communicate in any way with girl students.

Hootenanny Is Set in WTHS Gym

5 Folk Groups Will Entertain

Co-Op Club Sponsors of Evening Event

By MARY BARNINGHAM
Five folk singing groups will join in setting a spirited mood at tomorrow night's hootenanny in the Waterford Township High School gym from 8 to 11 p.m.

Appearing at the event will be The Five Jacks, who were rated the top hootenanny group in the state of Michigan at the Michigan State Fair and The Coaches, who were rated third at the fair. Both groups are from Detroit.

Also entertaining will be The Villagers from Rochester, The Wanderers from Pontiac Central High School and Waterford's own folk singing group, The Travelers.

The hootenanny, which is open to the public, is sponsored by the WTHS co-op club.

PROCEED USE

Proceeds will be used for the annual employer-employee banquet and to provide a scholarship for a co-op student who plans to further his education in the field of retailing.

Gary Polley is general chairman of the event, and Jack Harthun is emcee. Other chairmen are Betty Proper, publicity; William Kellogg, refreshments; Gary Polley, program; and Sharon Walker, tickets.

Tickets will be on sale at the door for $1.25 per couple or 75 cents per person.

Thunderbird Lodge at Caberfae ski resort is destination of some 46 ski club members this weekend.

TRAVEL BY BUS

Members will leave at 5 p.m. today and travel by bus to Caberfae, near Cadillac. They will return Sunday afternoon.

Cost of the trip is $27, which includes bus fare, lodging and tow ticket.

Chaperones are Alfred Cuthrell, Stu Thorell, Donald Kettering, Julie Keith, president; Marlene Kibbie, vice president; and Maureen Simmons, treasurer.

Waterford's newly formed art club began its activities by viewing slides of pictures by well-known artists and visiting the art exhibit at the Pontiac Mall.

CLUB OFFICERS

Officers of the club, which meets from 7 to 9 p.m. Mondays, are Julie Keith, president; Marlene Kibbie, vice president; and Maureen Simmons, treasurer.

Sophomores ordered their class rings today. A $5 deposit was required on the rings, which are yellow gold with a blue stone and the school crest.

BHHS Club Tours for Education Plan

By KAREN TRIMMER

Members of the future teachers club of Bloomfield Hills High School have made trips to the University of Michigan for their special educational program affiliated with the medical center, Mercy College of Detroit and Wayne State University.

Officers are Julie Rupe, president, and Carol Souze, secretary. Club is sponsored by Deanna M. Maher, American problems teacher.

Members of the junior play, "Harvey," have been chosen and include Pat Horton, Debbie Rutzen, Connie Di Mattio, Karen Hartkopf, Cathie Abbott, Tim Cowen, Dud De Nador, Diane Willis and Sandy Tauber.

Others are Gretchen Twit-meyer, Sue Sweeney, Michael Muller, Pat Wilson, Robin Brown, Michael Kohlrust, Chris Van Allen, Susan Wiant and Gary Fisher.

Harvey is under direction of Glenn Wooster, drama teacher, and will be presented March 13 and 14.

Debaters Robert Koch, Robert Uzelac, Robert Fink and David Reuther compiled a record of eight wins and no losses, winning the Wayne Oakland League Debating Tournament.

They then competed in the University of Michigan Debating Tournament and won all six debates. They were one of four schools out of 55 to achieve this distinction.

The BHHS choir has been invited to perform at the Detroit Central Methodist Church Feb. 28 for Lenten services.

Traub scholarship applications are now available to seniors with outstanding ability in art and music.

Student Council Offers Spring Dance

By DIANE OLSEN

The student council of Pontiac Central High School is sponsoring the annual spring dance tomorrow evening from 9 to 12:30.

Johnny Lee, a disc jockey, will supply the entertainment, furnish records, performers, and live bands for the intermission.

Committee general chairman Connie Vanderlind, is being assisted by the following committee chairmen, Ann Madsen, Skip Stone, Glenn Stitt, Cindy Gowen, and Janet Gilchrist.

The dance will center around the St. Valentine's Day theme.

OTHER ACTIVITY

Another planned student council activity is the annual magazine drive coming in April.

Proceeds from this sale are used for projects to better the school. Recent additions bought by the magazine sale have been the cheerleader's uniforms and the marquis in the parking circle of the school.

Added to Central's list of senior class officers has been Craig Zadosko, selected from a field of five.

Craig will be the class treasurer under an election held two weeks ago under revised methods proposed by student Glenn Stitt.

BAND COMPETED

The band at Pontiac Central, directed by R. L. Morse, participated in competition Saturday at Royal Oak Kimball High School.

Those receiving the highest rating were Jill Anderson, performing a clarinet solo; Lyle Vette, snare drum and marimba solo; and Anal Wesley, with a snare drum solo.

Also placing in the competition were Annette Rofe, clarinet solo; Paul Anderson, oboe solo; Jill Anderson and Jane Belanger, clarinet duet; Donna Nelson and John Post, clarinet duet; and Art Gale and Ed Chase, cornet duet.

Concluding this list were Stephanie Bennett and Diane Crawford, oboe duet; Annette Rofe, Donna Nelson, Debbie Smith and Karen Kirchmeyer, clarinet quartet; Lynn Nelson secretary-treasurer.

Other Area Schools Report on Activities

W. BLOOMFIELD

By SUE GOTSCHALL

West Bloomfield High School's annual student-faculty basketball game will be played Thursday.

Students who will be playing include Bill Haney, Homer Mayberry, Mike Grulke, Rod Thompson, Larry Zidar, Wilfred Dunn, Norman Williams, Tim Ruen, Rik McClurg, Jim Clott, Tom Catalano, John Nemyer and Dave Worster.

Opposing them will be faculty members coach Art Paddy, coach Kenneth Dauder and instructors Walter Poe, Courtney Carr, Adrian Dutcher, James Maker, Brad Cory, Richard Ulasich and Fred Milliron.

MILFORD

By BOB GORSLINE

The drama club of Milford High School, under direction of J. Rodney Baughn of the English department, will present a melodrama, "Dirty Work at the Crossroads," Monday through Saturday.

Each performance will begin at 7:30 p. m. in the high school Little Theater.

Tickets now on sale may be purchased for 75 cents for students and $1 for adults and may be reserved by calling the school from 3 to 3:30 p. m. on weekdays.

The play, with Barbara Spry and John Micallef in the lead roles, is the classic story of the fair damsel, the brave hero and the villain in conflict.

OXFORD

The future farmers club of Oxford High School recently took a trip to Michigan State University in Lansing under the supervision of Jay Allen.

Purpose of the trip was so members of the club could familiarize themselves with new farming machinery and techniques.

Two students from Oxford High have been chosen to travel with the Michigan Choral. They are Jack Edwards and Mary Stewart, both seniors.

LAKE ORION

By NANCY GREENHILL

Nanci Johnson, a junior at Lake Orion High School, was chosen by the student body to be the 1964 basketball homecoming queen.

The seniors will again this year have the privilege of participating in the academic class enrichment series.

The programs will be presented during class hours and students taking classes in subjects involved will be invited.

Professors from Oakland University will be the speakers. First program was given Tuesday.

WALLED LAKE

By SUE GERVASIS

Walled Lake High School's music department is busy rehearsing for its annual midwinter concert.

The choruses, orchestra, and concert band will present this program of festival music and show tunes at 8 p. m. Feb. 25.

The journalism class, under direction of Robert Reimer, recently decided to organize a school newspaper, to be published bimonthly.

BRANDON

By CARMEN SUE MILLER

Tonight the junior class of Brandon High School will sponsor a Valentine's dance "Cupid's Kaper." The dance will begin immediately following the Brandon vs. Lake Fenton basketball game.

Several Brandon band students attended the recent solo and ensemble contest at Kimball High School in Royal Oak.

Those high school students attending include Lloyd Davis, Willie Davis, Alan Bass, Diane Krantz, Tom Seelbinder, Wayne Wills, Bill Roman, Mike Shilling, Lyn Dalaba, Gail Kilbourn and Linda Rush.

Senior Beverly Austin was named the Betty Crocker Home-maker of Tomorrow for Brandon High School.

EMMANUEL

By CAROL ARBRUSTER

A rousing pep rally was conducted today by the cheerleaders of Emmanuel Christian High School in anticipation of the game with Webberville tonight at 8 p. m. at the school.

The cheerleaders also proclaimed today as "Color Day" and a person wearing the most maroon and white, the school's colors, won a free pass to the game tonight.

The junior class is waiting for its class rings, which should arrive at the end of the month.

The school failed to list Jack Gillespie on the honor roll. He had a 4.0 grade average.

OKLAHOMA—Rehearsing for their part in the Broadway musical production "Oklahoma" are from left) Giles Kandi of 774 Palmer, Cheryl Montgomery of 645 Cameron (a former student) and Pat Durfee of 551-Vallentine. Matinee performances will be Wednesday and Friday with evening performances on Thursday and Saturday.

'Oklahoma' Is Next Week at Pontiac Northern High

By SUSAN KILLEN

First attempt at a Broadway musical production at Pontiac Northern High School will bear fruit next week as the student body presents Rogers and Hammerstein's "Oklahoma."

A cast and chorus of some 75 students from PNH will perform in the production.

Major roles are held by Cheryl Montgomery, Giles Kandi, Patricia Durfee, Andrew Kives, Spencer McCool, Patricia Smith, Robert Dugan, Bruce Mann, Tom Ellis and Nancy Elkins.

The chorus, consisting of about 50 of Northern's best vocalists, will perform with the cast such numbers as "Oklahoma," "People Will Say We're in Love," "Surrey With the Fringe on Top" and other favorites.

DIRECTORS

The directing is being undertaken by Mrs. Judith Hansen and the student director is Judith Slabinsky. Stage direction for the chorus is being handled by Thomas Marsh. Music direction is by Michael Dempsey.

Alan Dittmer and Sidney Borders are working on the stage sets and prop collections.

Two matinees will be presented for area schools. Wednesday and Friday afternoons will find the auditorium curtain going up at 2:30 p. m.

Evening performances will take place on Thursday and Saturday. For these performances curtain time will be at 8:15 p. m.

Tickets may be purchased from any cast members. Those tickets acquired for the evening performances must be reserved, and that may be done by the purchaser himself or by the person selling the tickets.

Lent Season Under Way at St. Michael

By MICHAEL OMANS

As the Lenten season opens, St. Michael High School students make preparations for the holy season week.

St. Michael male choir sang at their usual 10:55 a. m. Mass on Ash Wednesday, and choir members also participated in the 7:30 p. m. Mass on the same night.

Sister Mary Hilerne, SSJ, future teachers adviser, and two of the club representatives, Deborah Linsenman and Ann Pierce, will journey to Grace Hospital for the tricity meeting of the future teachers. All three will leave tomorrow.

Today, in honor of Saint Valentine's Day, the student body assembled for a hootenanny.

Several students, who play guitar, provided music. Led by Fr. David Britz, St. Michael students sang songs from their country's past as well as modern folk songs.

RHS Juniors Plan Car Wash

By FRED ENNIS

Members of the junior class at Rochester High School will present a car wash tomorrow at the City Service station on the corner of Walton and Pontiac roads.

All proceeds from the car wash will be forwarded to the junior class treasury.

Dave Flanigan, junior class president, has extended an invitation "to members of the community to have their cars washed and support a worthwhile group of teen-agers at the same time."

Several members of the RHS concert band entered the Michigan school band and orchestra association District 4 Festival at Royal Oak Kimball High School.

THOSE PARTICIPATING
John Farrar, Craig McBride, Trish Early, Dick Dodman, Ken Stevenson, Tom Jacobson, John Watson, Anita Salzman, Sue Smith, Dorothy Davnick and Ron Bishop were among those participating.

Robert Ellerbrush, chairman of the social studies department, has announced that four RHS students will appear later in competition with Grosse Pointe High School on the "Quiz 'Em on the Air" television program.

Current events test winners who will participate are Scott Johnson, Eileen Siewert, Janet Cameron and Robert Scribner.

Broadway to the Masters

Winter Concert Set by WKHS Band

By JIM McRYNOLDS
Celebrating weeks of preparation, the curtain will rise tomorrow on Waterford Kettering High School's symphonic band winter concert.

Among numbers to be featured are Richard Wagner's "Transtransfonia," J. S. Bach's "Fugue" and "Polka and Fugue" and Richard Rogers' "No Strings."

Highlighting the concert will be an alto saxophone solo, Alfred Reed's "Ballade," performed by senior Richard Lawrence.

Also present will be a saxophone quartet consisting of Linda Elliott, Richard Lawrence, Gerald Schenel and Kurt Zuelch.

TICKETS AT DOOR
The performance is scheduled for 8:15 p. m. in the WKHS gym. Tickets may be purchased at the door. Elementary school children will be admitted free.

Senior Diana Irish has been chosen to represent Waterford Kettering at the annual Y-Trems midwinter conference, which begins today at Clear Lake Camp near Battle Creek.

A television "celebrity" walks unnoticed in the halls of WKHS. He is junior David Keagy, who recently appeared on the nationally televised panel show, "To Tell The Truth."

While Dave was a guest of the show, his plane reservations, hotel accommodations and meals were handled by a member of the "To Tell The Truth" staff.

Catching the spirit of St. Valentine's Day, the student council will hang heart-shaped decorations in the west cafeteria for tonight's after-game dance.

Monday morning, the WKHS student body was privileged to hear Donald Lorie, well known speaker on teen-age problems.

Sponsored by the assembly planning committee, Lorie greeted the assembly with humorous parables on difficulties of modern youth.

Club Plans 'U.N.' Trip at Avondale

By KATHY WILKES

The United Nations club of Avondale High School, under direction of Leonard Passant, is preparing a trip to Hillsdale College for the annual model U. N. assembly March 13 and 14.

Delegates will represent the countries of Malaysia and Columbia.

A test based on structure and history of the U. N. will be given to any student at 1:30 p. m. March 3.

Prizes will be awarded to the two best papers, which will be considered for state and national recognition.

FASHION SHOW

In the near future, The Future Homemakers of America will sponsor a fashion show for the American Field Service. Show fashions will be by the Lions Store of Pontiac.

The library club is planning a meeting Thursday. Members are currently mending school books.

Student council has ordered pins for new members. The exchange assembly program and participations were discussed at the last meeting.

Seniors were measured for caps and gowns this week.

The journalism class is organizing the next edition of the Yel-O-Jack, which will come out this month.

Junior Editors Quiz on THE ZODIAC

QUESTION: Is the zodiac a real thing or something astrologers dream up?

ANSWER: The zodiac is a zone of the heavens within which the moon and planets appear to travel.

This zone extends for a fixed distance on either side of the "ecliptic," an imaginary path in the same shape as the earth's path around the sun, only much bigger. In this zone, or belt, are 12 major constellations, the "zodiacal signs," most of which represent animals.

The names zodiac comes from the Greek words "zodiakos kytos," meaning circle of animals.

Ancient astrologers divided the zodiac into 12 parts, naming each one for the constellation nearest it. The astrologers then tried to determine the fortunes of people by finding out where the sun, moon and planets stood when a person was born.

For example, if the moon was traveling through the part of Pisces, the fishes, when someone was born, this would show something about that person's character and might suggest his future.

Today, only people who believe in astrology, think that the signs of the zodiac influence a person's life.

FOR YOU TO DO: Get a book from the library showing the different constellations or signs of the zodiac. See how they look like the animals they represent. Then try to locate some of these constellations in the sky.

Vatican Art Pieces

Sent for World's Fair

NAPLES, Italy (AP)—The first shipment for the Vatican's exhibit at the New York World's Fair left for New York this week aboard the Italian liner Leonardo da Vinci. The ship is due next Wednesday.

Included in the five huge crates are parts for a full-sized reproduction of St. Peter's tomb and a 5th-century Christian sarcophagus.

The normal body temperature for most species of birds is 125 degrees.

2 Candidates for Police Post

The two eligible candidates for the job of police chief in Waterford Township both have indicated their interest in the post.

In line to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Millard J. Pender Feb. 3 are Capt. William Stokes and Lt. Frank Randolph.

Charles Zamek, president of the township's civil service commission, said that selection of the new chief will be based on written and oral examinations as well as present rank and service time.

The only two command officers in the 18-man department, Stokes and Randolph both joined the force the same day, Jan. 1, 1954.

NO DATE SET

The mechanics of scheduling the examination is under way but no date has been set, Zamek said.

If either Stokes or Randolph decides not to take the exam, the department's three sergeants then would be eligible for it, Zamek said.

Legal Safeguards Enabled Nazis to Commit Suicide

FRANKFURT (AP) — Legal safeguards designed to stamp out any trace of Nazi tyranny enabled two major defendants in a forthcoming war crimes trial to commit suicide, officials said today.

Thus Dr. Werner Heyde, chief defendant in a case involving "mercy killings" of 200,000 mental defectives in World War II, was allowed to keep a belt with which he hanged himself in prison on Thursday.

Thus another main defendant, Friedrich Tillmann, was able to leap to his death—at least officials call it a suicide—from an eighth-floor window of a Cologne building Wednesday. Courts refused to order him to jail pending trial on grounds of health.

There is widespread suspicion

that a Nazi underground is helping with the suicides as well as organizing escapes. Fritz Bauer, chief prosecutor in the state of Hesse, shares this suspicion. He was to have prosecuted Heyde and Tillmann in a trial scheduled to open next Tuesday.

DON'T MATTER

When newsmen asked how Heyde got hold of a belt to hang himself in his cell, Bauer replied: "If he didn't have a belt, he could have used a bed sheet or his underpants or something else."

Guenther Johann, director of Butzbach Prison, where Heyde was being held, added: "You can't leave a man naked in the cell."

The influential Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung said in an editorial: "To strip the prisoner of every personal possession and to watch him uninterceptedly could hardly be reconciled with the basis rights in our constitution."

Heyde had been in jail since 1959, and was under close watch since an attempt to escape last September. He committed suicide when a guard left his post for a few minutes.

LEFT IN FREEDOM

Tillmann and two other defendants had been left in freedom, Bauer said he had tried repeatedly to get court orders to arrest them, but the courts had refused on the ground that they were in poor health.

One of them, Gerhard Bohne, was well enough to disappear from his Dusseldorf home last summer. He is now believed to be in South America.

On the day Tillmann died he fell from an office building where he was well enough to go visit a relative.

Hans Hefelmann, the only defendant still available, lives in Munich with his family. Bauer said he would try again to get him put behind bars, but it was doubtful if he would succeed.

Bauer explains that when you are dealing with men experienced in ways of death—Heyde was a professor of medicine—they can pretty well kill themselves any time they want. Heyde had boasted as much.

"When I was in a concentration camp under the Nazis," Bauer said, "I knew a man who killed himself with just an ordinary little stick of wood."

GM Hourly Labor Gets Record '63 Pay

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors' hourly workers were paid record earnings in 1963, the corporation reported Thursday. GM said its payroll and worldwide employment also were the highest in history.

Political Amnesty Granted by Nasser

CAIRO (AP) — President Gamal Abdel Nasser has declared an amnesty for an unknown number of political prisoners, including at least three one-time followers sentenced to life imprisonment for plotting against his regime, informed sources said Thursday.

The amnesty was declared on the eve of Bairam holidays which end the Moslem holy month of Ramadan.

The Egyptian government never has disclosed how many political prisoners now are in jail, though they are known to include several hundred Communists.

Noted U. P. Leader

Dies at Age of 92

MUNISING (AP)—George H. Roberts, 92, a former member of the Hancock Board of Education and president of the Central Mine Memorial Association, died Thursday at the home of a daughter in Munising.

Roberts was an insurance agent in Hancock 45 years and a board of education member 40 years. He was a native of Central Mine, now a ghost town in the Upper Peninsula's Keweenaw Peninsula.

Hourly workers were paid an average of $144.34 a week last year compared to $136.19 in 1962, GM said.

The year 1963 was General Motors' greatest for net income, a $1.6 billion figure.

GM said its average hourly employment in the United States last year was 354,000 on a total payroll of $2.65 million. This compared to the previous years 338,000 and $2.39 million.

GM said its worldwide payroll for 640,000 workers last year was $4.3 million.

FRINGE PAY

The company said that in addition to the direct payroll it put about $400 million into fringe payments for American workers including pension and health and life insurance, supplemental unemployment benefits (over and above state unemployment pay) and stock savings purchases for employees.

To Get Hat in Ring

Claims Nixon Has Until May

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Republican national chairman figures that Richard M. Nixon will have to throw his hat in the ring by May if he hopes to be in the running for the party's presidential nomination.

"I certainly don't think you can discount a man like that," said Rep. William E. Miller in Rome, N. Y., last night. "In the event we should have an all-out deadlocked convention it could turn to Dick Nixon."

But, added Miller, "I will say I don't believe we are going to have a deadlocked convention. Anyone who gets it (the nomination) will be announced by April or May at the latest."

The former vice president has said he would accept a draft but is not going out to stir one up.

OTHERS BUSY

Meanwhile, the announced candidates were busy in pursuit of primary votes and zeroing in on President Johnson and each other.

In Reno, Nev., Sen. Barry Goldwater said he didn't think his rival, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, would pull Republicans to the polls next November.

A Rockefeller-Johnson race, said the Arizona conservative "would be a choice of Tweedledee and Tweedledum."

Goldwater said he would run a better race than the New Yorker but he told a press club that Johnson now appears a stronger opponent than the late John F. Kennedy would have been.

'CRAPPED OUT'

But as for foreign affairs, said Goldwater, dropping into the lingo of the city's dice tables.

Johnson is like "a fellow that just crapped out six times in a row."

Rockefeller today was swinging into the final day of his current vote drive in New Hampshire for the Granite State's March 10 primary.

Rockefeller feels that a victory in New Hampshire would add up to an important breakthrough in his bid for the nomination, and his advisers say they think he's making progress with his person-to-person campaigning.

But still a large number of the state's residents profess they haven't decided which candidate they'll back.

SOME PRAISE

Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, also plugging hard in New Hampshire, offered some praise for Johnson yesterday.

The President's campaign against poverty, "sounds good," she said, but added she will "be glad to see what he winds up with.... We shouldn't have any poverty in this country. President Johnson's objectives are fine even if his ideas are a little broad."

Mrs. Smith said she thought graft and conflict of interest will be major campaign issues "but I will have no part in any campaign based on the Bobby Baker scandal."

Journal Eyes Link Between Leukemia, Rays

LONDON (AP) — The British Medical Journal said today it was almost generally accepted that low doses of X-ray radiation causes leukemia in unborn children but possible effects of radiation after birth are inconclusive.

The Journal, in an editorial, said if it could be understood why heavy doses of radiation produce leukemia, it might also be possible to decide which other circumstances of exposure carried a risk and which did not.

Conclusive evidence, the Journal said, could only come from the studies of many thousands of subjects.

Three million Mexican Indians speak only their tribal language, not Spanish.

THY FAITH HATH MADE THEE WHOLE

On His way out of Jericho en route to the triumphant entry into Jerusalem, Jesus worked one of His last miracles. He cured Bartimaeus, the blind beggar who sat by the roadside and began crying out when he heard Jesus of Nazareth was passing by.

The crowd tried to hush him, but Jesus called and asked him, "What wilt thou that I should do unto thee?"

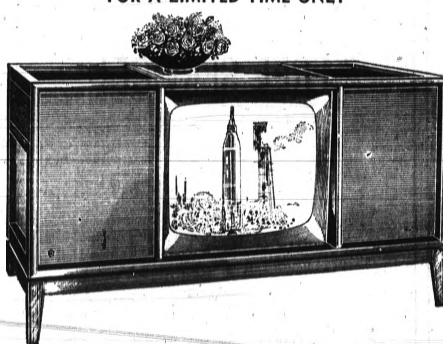

The blind man said unto Him, "Lord, that I may see."

And Jesus said unto him, "Go thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole." And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus along the road. (Mark XI: 46-52)

Girl Wants Future?

In the secretarial field there are more job openings than there are unemployed, but the jobs call for skill and training. Businessmen are demanding much more in a secretary than a woman skilled in shorthand, typing, and business English. The executive wants a woman with poise, one who dresses well, who modulates her voice properly, who is a public relations specialist on the telephone, and one who ably performs many other functions as the executive's Girl Friday. PBI offers unique personalized training in charm, conversation, beauty, grooming plus complete secretarial skills.

Unit Views Slides of Arab Trip

Edwin Eustice of Goodbody Investment Company was guest speaker at the Tuesday evening dinner meeting of the Land-O-Oak Chapter of American Business Women's Association.

Mr. Eustice spent several years in Saudi Arabia working for the Saudi Arabia American Oil Company. Slides were shown of the modern city built for American employees by the oil companies and the way of life of the natives.

Slides taken throughout Egypt, the Holy Land and Greece showed the contrast of modern buildings being built among the ancient ruins to members who had gathered at Airway Lanes.

Land-O-Oak chapter's "hand of friendship" tea will be March 15 at the Waldron Hotel.

JOHNSON-MEINKE

At a family dinner-party, the Theodore Johnsons of South Berkshire Road announced the engagement of their daughter, Susan Kay, to Herman R. Meinke, son of Mrs. Herman A. Meinke of Huntington Woods and the late Dr. Meinke.

The bride-elect, an alumna of Mercy College, Detroit, attends University of Michigan and is affiliated with the University Hospital in Ann Arbor. Her fiancé attended Detroit Institute of Technology and Lawrence Institute of Technology.

A June 6 wedding in St. Hugo of the Hills is planned.

SUTTON-VAN CAMP

The Ersell D. Suttons of Fowlerville announce the engagement of their daughter Barbara Jean to J. Peter Van Camp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon D. Van Camp of Green Lake.

Miss Sutton is a graduate of Michigan State University. Her fiancé is an alumnus of the University of Michigan where he was affiliated with Chi Phi Fraternity.

An April wedding is being planned.

YOUNGBLOOD-CORLEY

The James H. Youngbloods of Bloomfield Hills have revealed the engagement of their daughter Rada Marie to James Michael Corley, son of the Thomas Corleys of Cleveland, Ohio.

Both the bride-elect and her fiancé are attending Lincoln College, Lincoln, Ill.

The custom of sending greetings on Saint Valentine's Day is said to have sprung from an ancient Roman festival dating back to the third century A.D. Best Valentine of all, in the opinion of these Pontiac area beauties, is the gift of an engagement ring from their betrothed. Announcing their engagements on this sentimental day are top row, from left: Susan Kay Johnson, Barbara Jean Sutton and Rada Marie Youngblood; second row, from left: Margaret Voy Ambler, Mary Catherine Fabek, Sheryl Lynn White, and lower center: Barbara Jean Hale.

Clothes Secrets Told

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Fashion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — When Blanche Thebom finishes describing the various steps she takes to keep her wardrobe in top condition, you wonder how the willowy, green-eyed Metropolitan opera star has time to sing.

Yet it is because concert tours, opera and television appearances consume so many of her precious hours that Miss Thebom is so meticulous.

"I can't afford to be careless," she says. "My clothes have to last because I just don't have time to shop."

Whether your reason for keeping garments in action a long time is a shortage of time or money, you may benefit from some of her tricks.

SUITS

These make up a major portion of her daytime wardrobe. "I pay good money for them," she says, "but that's not extravagant when you consider I don't buy one very often. I choose classic styles and, with systematic care, they accumulate in my closet."

Keeping the shape of the suit is the secret to its longevity, she says. Therefore she never carelessly drops her jacket over a chair or a bed for a minute while still warm from her body heat. The heat reduces the crispness of the stiffened inner lining.

She buys special suit-hangers shaped to simulate the feminine shoulder contour and an attached clamp bar. The bar grips the skirt firmly at the waist band, and allows it to hang straight without folding. She has disciplined herself into buttoning up the jacket — and zipping up the zippers.

Shoes

Naturally, tidy Miss Thebom does not wait for lifts to be noticeably run down before replacing them. And it follows that she keeps each pair on shoe trees.

When her shoes are slightly wet, she inserts shoe trees and lays them on their sides so that the exposed soles can dry more quickly. When they are soaking, she stuffs them loosely with wads of tissue paper to maintain the shape and absorb some of the dampness inside.

Accepting a generous helping of bouillabaisse, this little charmer doesn't have to worry about spoiling her sparkling white dress with food spills. With the new "Zepe!" fabric protector, spills will either roll off or can be blotted up. Sizes 2-14.

Polly's Pointers

Vote for Dressing Up

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY — My letter is prompted by the one from the gentleman who likes to dress for an evening out.

How refreshing to hear of at least one man who believes in being elegantly dressed for the theater or a dinner party.

I have seen men at summer theater wearing short-sleeved, open-neck shirts.

Perhaps we girls are to blame by walking along the streets with sheep dog hairdos and tight-fitting pants which look ridiculous on most women.

Some of us forget what a dress is for until we go to a dance when we stretch our means to buy an expensive dress.

Isn't there a happy medium? This man says he owns two tuxedos, which certainly make a man look his best, but, lacking those, a plain dark suit is always proper.

There is too much neglect in dress these days by both sexes.

Girls — The following letter came from a gentleman who operates a chain of stores renting men's formal attire. He, too, feels we could do a bit more to help this cause. — POLLY

DEAR POLLY — We agree that it would be delightful if ALL men liked to wear formal dress when the occasion requires it.

We do feel that in many instances the woman could be more insistent that her escort dress at least as correctly and formally as she.

After all, a lady's finest accessory is a formal escort. Formally yours. — R.A.F.

DEAR POLLY — When we wrap presents for a family birthday party, we decorate one big box to hold all the gifts.

Each gift has a long ribbon that comes out of the box to create a sort of grab bag.

There are no more "Open mine first" arguments in our family — SUE, the oldest of six.

DEAR POLLY — I cannot wear rubber gloves so I always keep worn cotton gloves and use them for household tasks such as painting, and paring fruits and vegetables that stain or have a strong odor.

Peaches are not so slippery when held in a gloved hand. Any holes in the gloves are covered with iron-on tape. I wash the gloves in the machine with bleach, and they come out clean.

If my hands or nails are rough, I wear cotton gloves when putting on my hose. — CORINNE

Pair Shows Club Slides to Society

Dr. and Mrs. Daniel S. McGee presented a program before the Pontiac Audubon Society at a meeting Wednesday in All Saints Episcopal Church.

Slides were shown portraying the outdoor activities of the Pontiac club over the past two years.

Highlighting this year's program will be the appearance of Dr. Olin S. Pettingill Jr., director of the laboratory of ornithology at Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y. He will present the film "Penguin Summer," March 6, in Lincoln Junior High School.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Rex Wonders and Martha Frick.

Brazil has an area of 3,286,170 square miles which makes it larger than the U.S. without Alaska.

Protected with "Zepe!" fabric fluoridizer to resist watery and oily stains, this navy blue sailcloth skimming dress is ideal for dining out. Note the red fish motif on cobbler pockets above tiny pleated flounce. Sizes 2-14.

Chapters Greet Pledges, Make Plans at Meetings

Three local chapters of three sororities met this week.

ALPHA DELTA KAPPA

A pizza party preceded an informal pledge ceremony at the Tuesday evening meeting of Alpha Nu Chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa.

The gathering was held in the Hudson Drive home of Dorothy Bell. The three new pledges are Dorothy Worthman, Sandy Lantz and Sally Leitch.

BETA SIGMA PHI

Plans for a skiing party for members and escorts of Phi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi were made at the Thursday evening meeting.

Mrs. Albert Padar opened her Fremont Street home for the gathering at which Mrs. John Hood was appointed secretary pro tem.

Mrs. Karl Stickle presented a cultural program entitled "You and Your Audience."

PI OMICRON

Two summer conventions were discussed at the Thursday evening meeting of Iota Eta Chapter of Pi Omicron sorority held at the home of Mrs. Hugo Harnack of Lexington Drive.

A cooperative dinner preceded plans for the Michigan State Convention to be held in Kalamazoo from May 16-17 and the National Convention to be held in Hershey, Pa. from July 29 to Aug. 1.

National president, Mrs. Sig Cervinski of Lathrop Village was special guest and conducted pledging ceremonies for Mrs. Harold Bigelow and Mrs. Ruthmary Wilder. Mrs. Margaret Hutchinson was also a guest.

LAMBDA CHI OMEGA

An installation dinner and model business meeting were held by Beta Omega Chapter of Lambda Chi Omega sorority at its Wednesday evening meeting at Devon Cables.

Donna Lee Bucher, Beta Chapter, El Paso, Tex., was guest of honor.

Committee members for the meeting were Mrs. Thomas Zielinski, Mrs. Martin McLaughlin and Mrs. Richard Ervin.

New members include: Mrs. Max Dajnowicz, Mrs. Cecil Poppy, Mrs. James Greenwood, and Mrs. Robert Cook. Also initiated are Mrs. Robert Hutchings, Mrs. Jean Weaver, Isabelle Evans and Joanne Zimmerman.

Make Your Own Newest Lacy Knit

What's the biggest fashion of the decade? The spirited sixties have seen knits irresistibly taking over stage center, standing in every fashion situation, back-boning every well-planned wardrobe.

You're just not "in" if you are not turned out in a knit of some sort for almost any occasion. The avant garde are even choosing knits for evening dresses! And smart women who sew are sewing knits like mad.

ALL THINGS

Remember when knits were drabish things, practical as all get-out, running the gamut of black, brown and navy; relegated to the role of "good traveling companions" for ladies making the grand tour? Today's knits are all things to all women: textured, looped, air-light, tweed-like, deliciously colored.

These new knits are in fashions-by-the-yard departments as well as in specialty shops, and that's a happy circumstance that wasn't always thus. The people who make knits were sure, until comparatively recently, that women who sew couldn't or wouldn't sew knitted fabrics.

But those who sew are notoriously enterprising, usually way ahead of the people who make fabrics. They loved knits, wanted knits, and demanded knits. So, today they can find knits-by-the-yard as varied as those in the whole fashion field.

Probably the newest knit you can own is a lacy one in a pastel; light-as-a-bubble in the hand, interestingly patterned. So exciting in itself, that it should be made in a non-fussed, simple, clean-cut fashion like the one here.

HAVE NO FEAR

There's no need to be afraid to tackle a knit if you follow certain do's and don'ts from the experts. They point out that zig-zag sewing is just what knits need.

Of course a knit as lacy and light as this must be lined. But, far from making it harder, the lining will make it even easier to sew. You should cut and sew the lining and knitted fabric as though they were a single piece of fabric. Then, everything will go smoothly and easily.

After basting the lining to the knitted fabric to prevent slippage, trim off lining close to the basting. Then stitch the fabric and lining together permanently. Now you will have what amounts to a single fabric, and you will proceed to treat it as such.

To prevent raveling on a loosely knitted fabric like this you should use a fine zig-zag stitch (set at 10 length, 3 width) along the very edge of the seam allowance.

SPECIAL TRICKS

A well-turned hem means almost as much to a young modern as a well-turned ankle did to grandma. Turning a good hem in a knitted fabric calls for its own special tricks. First, after your lining and knit have been stitched together, turn up just as you would any single fabric. Finish the hem edge with plain or multiple zig-zag stitching for a flat edge.

After turning up hem, hand-catch ¼ inch below the hem edge, catching between the garment and the hem. Do not use a hand-stitch drawn over the edge, this will pull the knit and will show.

Sleeve ends can be finished in the same way.

Lacy weave wool, in a mouth-watering butter-scotch shade, new knit by William Heller, by-the-yard for those who sew on their own. Seen here in an easy-fit, two-piece fashion from McCall's Patterns (No. 7163). Do's and don'ts for sewing this sort of lacy weave from Singer sewing experts stress importance of zig-zag stitching, easy tension.

Bethany Baptist

Club Probes 'One World'

"Living in One World" was discussed at the Wednesday evening meeting of the Women's Society of Bethany Baptist Church. Speaker was Mrs. Solomon D. Ross, minister's wife, author and president of the Women's Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention.

Mrs. Darlene Ross McKenney showed pictures of the Holy Land and reported on the Youth Baptist Convention in Beirut, Lebanon last summer. She showed books and articles brought from the convention.

George Scott, choir director, provided the music and announced a sacred concert to be held at the church March 28.

Plans for a benefit sale were made. The president of the Detroit Women's Society will speak at the March meeting.

Mrs. Hoyt Joyner was in charge of the tea table.

Bags Keep Clean

Those ploomf bags, that come from dry cleaners, are ideal covering for any clothes being stored. Just slit one side and you'll have a big sheet that will protect and keep things clean.

Salt Packs Perk You Up

A salt pack is an old-fashioned beauty treatment guaranteed to make you feel fresh as a daisy after the worst fatiguing day.

Make a paste of salt and Spanish olive oil and put all over the face. Relax about five minutes, then wash off with warm water. Your face will tingle and feel soft as a baby's.

Dealing Doubles

A fine idea recently introduced — knitted men's sport shirts with two pairs of sport socks to match. And another one — short socks, anklets, calf length socks, etc., all guaranteed to "stay up."

Special Care for Kitchens

Many new homes now have built-in stainless steel sinks and stoves. Suggestion on care include for no rust and no streaks, get a stainless steel "sponge" to clean stoves and sink tops.

Use warm water, soap or detergent and the steel sponge. Then follow by an immediate drying off with a paper towel in the direction of the grain. This treatment will keep stainless steel surfaces bright and unmarred for years.

After the age of 40, one of every two women and one of four men will develop varicose veins of the legs.

Stapedectomy Discussed by OCMAS Unit

Dr. John A. Fushman of Royal Oak spoke before a crowd of some 34 medical assistants at Thura's dining room Wednesday evening at the dinner meeting of the Oakland County Medical Assistants Society.

"Stapedectomy: Inner Ear Surgery Under Microscope," was illustrated with color movies of the operation. An open discussion of the surgery followed.

The group announced plans for their ninth annual boss's night April 22 at Kingsley Inn. Mrs. L. M. Elliott is coordinating arrangements for this affair with Mrs. George Hermonian in charge of the entertainment.

The next meeting will be at the Ardmore Hospital March 11 with Dr. F. A. Gaensbauer as speaker.

After Checking Grave

Mystic Widower Gone

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: I am a widow with two grown children. For almost two years I went with a widower.

We got along very well and seemed made for each other. He asked me to marry him and I said yes. Then all of a sudden, just before the holidays, he said he needed more time to things over.

He said he wanted the approval of his two older sisters, and he also wanted to talk it over with his deceased wife at her graveside in another town.

I haven't heard from him since. Aside from the hurt and humiliation I have suffered, I can't help wondering what happened at his wife's grave.

Or do you think he was just trying to find an escape because he changed his mind about marrying me? Can you offer an explanation to ease my torment?

TROUBLED
DEAR ABBY: His sisters probably turned thumbs down. What the graveside consultation turned up only the mystic widower knows.

Who knows — perhaps you are the lucky one.

DEAR ABBY: I sized when I read that letter from "GOOD NEIGHBOR" who found two little tots playing inside an old refrigerator he had stored in his garage.

He said he scolded them and explained how dangerous it was, and then he gave them each a good swat on the behind so they'd remember it.

Then he got a call from their mother telling him it was against the law to lay hands on someone else's child, and he'd be hearing from her lawyer!

If I had been that mother I would have baked that man a beautiful apple pie and presented it to him with my own thanks.

And then I'd paddled my kids soundly for going onto other people's property.

ANOTHER MOTHER

DEAR ABBY: How stupid can one be? When that "Good Neighbor" found the two little neighbor children playing in the old ice box he had stored in his garage, he should have been told that if he had turned the ice box with the door up against the wall he wouldn't have to worry about anybody crawling into it and suffocating to death.

SAN DIEGO DOCTOR

DEAR ABBY: We have our old refrigerator out in the garage, but it will never be a death trap for little children, or pets who chance to wander into the garage and find it a cozy place to curl up. You see, we have taken the door off!

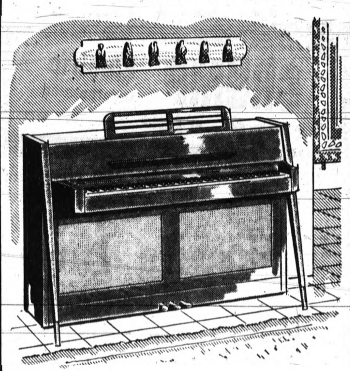

SAFETY FIRST

Sororities Pledge Local Gals

By BARBARA GRIFFIN
Many Pontiac area coeds have recently pledged social sororities at the University of Michigan.

Proudly wearing new pledge pins around campus, these students are participating in the pledging program, which will end with the formal initiation ceremonies in early May.

GAMMA PHI BETA
Among the new pledges of Gamma Phi Beta sorority are Judy Smith and Pat Corpron. Judy lives on Gulfport Road and Pat on Keithdale Road. The pledge class of Alpha Chi Omega includes Pam Griffin of Ogemaw Road.

Alpha Omicron Pi has claimed Sue Nunn of Sebago Lane and Roberta Sommer of Winterberry Drive as members of their new pledge class.

Dorothy Cataldo, Coachmaker Drive, and her pledge sisters of Alpha Gamma Delta are being honored by the active members of the sorority Sunday afternoon at an open-house in their chapter house.

Wearing the Kappa Kappa Gamma pledge pin around campus is new Kappa pledge Ann Livingstone of Berkshire Road.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA
Kappa Alpha Theta has three girls from the Pontiac area in their new pledge class. New Thetas are Diana Gornick of Lone Pine Road, Mary McCarthy of Elizabeth Lake Road, and Erma Jean Livingstone of Berkshire Road.

Pledging Alpha Phi sorority during the recent rush period was Frankie Hutton of Echo Road.

Among other area students pledging Michigan sororities are Mary Fox of Ridgewood Road, Delta Delta Delta; Janet Newland of Breer Court, Chi Omega; and Martha Hopkin of Lone Pine Road, Pi Beta Phi.

Many students headed for Hill Auditorium after their Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoon classes this week to hear Dr. Billy Graham speak to a capacity audience on the value of religion in today's world.

SPONSORED BY UNIVERSITY
He also spoke at several panel discussions during his stay on campus. Dr. Graham's visit was sponsored by the University Office of Religious Affairs and is a part of his tour to several college campuses this spring.

University students and the Ann Arbor public had the opportunity to see the new, unique Oxford Housing Project Sunday afternoon when the girls held an open-open house to show off their new quarters.

The Oxford Project, opened last fall, is a complex of eight buildings where 416 girls are housed in co-operatives, apartments, and suites.

While co-ops are not new to the campus, suites and apartments have never before been offered by the University for undergraduate women's housing. These modern facilities include private baths and kitchens in each unit.

HONORS SYSTEM

Another unique feature of the Oxford Project is that their closing hours and conduct rules are based on an honors system. There are University house directors living in the buildings, but they exercise a minimum of supervision, in contrast to the system in other dormitories.

Area students greeting visitors at Sunday's open house are Sally Hamilton of Oakwood Drive and Julie Calver of Yarmouth Road.

Among the fraternity parties held on campus last weekend were the band dances at Chi Psi and Sigma Phi Epsilon. Attending the Chi Psi affair with his date was Tom Jackson of James K Boulevard.

Enjoying themselves at the Sig Ep house were Ted Barrett of Pine Tree Trail and his date Gretchen Gaensbauer of North Hammond Lake Drive, who attends Albion College.

Handy Idea: Use the Rod

Why not hang a shower "caddy" on your shower rod? This many-pocketed plastic strip will organize sponges, bathing brushes, shower cap, bathing cap, cologne, dusting powder, and other bath-time accessories conveniently at hand.

It also lessens the temptation of neglecting to use them. After all, washing with soapsuds is the very basis of beauty.

Don't Say Goodbye for So Long

By The Emily Post Institute
Q: Won't you please write something in your column about guests who prolong their good-bys in the front hall until their hosts are ready to drop?

A: If we suggest they come back into the living room and stay a while longer, their answer is, "Oh no, we must go," but they don't.

When a guest is ready to leave, doesn't good manners require her to say goodbye and then go?

A: It certainly does, and the only thing I can think of to remedy this is when you go out into the hall, to open the front door and say something such as, "It has been so nice to see you," which certainly should prompt the visitor to go out the door and say good night.

Q: My boy friend has a practice which embarrasses me very much. Whenever we go out to dinner in a restaurant and I don't finish what I have on my plate (I have a small appetite), he exchanges his empty plate for mine and proceeds to finish my dinner.

He says it's a shame for food to go to waste. Isn't such behavior crude?

A: If done inconspicuously, I see nothing wrong in saving this food from waste. Furthermore, there is very slight chance that anyone in the dining room will even notice it.

Q: My 14-year-old daughter has of late been answering the telephone by saying, "Jones residence, Mary speaking." Is this proper?

A: "Jones residence, Mary speaking," is a business form and is not in good taste when used socially.

The correct wording and addressing of wedding invitations and announcements are described in the new Emily Post Institute booklet entitled, "Wedding Invitations and Announcements."

Fruit Cocktail Cake Is Still Favorite Dessert

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor
At our recent cooking school Mrs. Harry Prall handed me her recipe for fruit cocktail cake.

This cake was very popular a number of years ago. But many new home-makers may never have heard of it and will welcome the recipe. It is delicious.

FRUIT COCKTAIL CAKE

By Mrs. Harry Prall
2 cups sifted flour
1 1/2 cups sugar
2 teaspoons soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 cups fruit cocktail (1 No. 303 can)
2 eggs
1/2 cup brown sugar
Mix first four ingredients. Add fruit cocktail, including juice. Beat well. Beat eggs and add. Beat well again.

Pour into greased 8x8x2 pan. Sprinkle brown sugar over batter. Bake 30-35 minutes at 325 degrees. Cool.

Topping

1 stick butter or margarine
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup undiluted evaporated milk
1 can flaked coconut. Boil 2 minutes and pour over cake.

Some cooks prefer to serve the cake with whipped cream or ice cream, instead of the above topping.

Offer 'Em Rum Fighters Come

The military forces have always known how to lure men into active duty. When the Coast Guard was started 171 years ago, all comers were issued "a half gill of rum" and two pounds of soap as special inducements!

Tax Tips

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following income tax information is supplied by the Internal Revenue Service as a public service.)

QUESTION: I am 18 years old. During 1963 I had a summer job at a resort area. I made $507 on this job. Of this amount, my employer withheld $46 for federal income tax. This was my only income for the year. Must I file a federal income tax return?

ANSWER: Since your total income was less than $600 you are not required by law to file a return. However, you should file a return so as to get a refund of the $46 which was withheld by your employer. This money will not be refunded unless you do file.

For the answer to your question call your local Internal Revenue Service Office.

Longer Hours Set for Library

Waterford Twp. Unit Notes Use Increase

Plans to extend library hours from 33 to 40 weekly due to a sharp rise in usage were announced yesterday by Waterford Township Librarian Mrs. Richard Lee.

Mrs. Lee said that between 1,200 and 1,300 books were circulated since the township-operated library opened a month ago.

This compares to just over 2,000 books circulated all year before the facility became a public library.

A total of 1,473 library cards have been issued since the library opened, according to Mrs. Lee.

EFFECTIVE DATE The 40-hour schedule will be effective March 1.

A best seller rental program also will be instituted at the library beginning March 1.

More than 80 best seller titles will be available for a weekly rental fee of 10 cents, Mrs. Lee said.

Income from rentals will be used to maintain an adequate supply of popular books.

LIBRARY STAFF Presently the library is being operated by Mrs. Lee; Mrs. Robert Kaminski, assistant librarian; three pages who work 12 hours weekly each; and six volunteer women who each contribute a few hours weekly. The library is affiliated with the North Oakland Library Co-operative and its library cards may be used at other NOLC units.

But It's a Rare Commodity

African Talks Held at 'Haven of Peace'

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst
Translated from the Arabic, Dar es salaam means "haven of peace."

But for many an African nation whose delegations were converging on the Tanganyika capital of Dar es Salaam, peace, especially internal peace, had been a commodity hard to come by.

NEWSOM

In Dar es Salaam, foreign and defense ministers of the 35-nation Organization of African Unity were to study a special humiliation.

It was that Tanganyika, Uganda and Kenya, former British colonies had been forced to call upon British troops to help them put down local rebellions.

Lending an air of crisis to the meeting was the escalating quarrel between Ethiopia and Somalia, and the massacre of thousands of Walutsi tribesmen in Rwanda by their former vassals, the Bahutus.

So long as any African state is forced to rely on outside troops to safeguard its citizens, said Tanganyikan President Julius Nyerere, the enemies of African liberation will continue to mock Africa.

The presence of the British troops in the three nations was, a matter of fact, only a manifestation in another form, of an allment chronic to the new nations emerging in the headlong rush away from colonialization.

French and British colonial administrations had done a good job of training native civil functionaries but there were not enough. In the Congo, the Belgians had left evidence of notable failure.

Tribesmen stirred to revolt against the colonial powers by wild promises of the benefits of freedom took it to mean freedom to burn and pillage and the right to quit work.

Some African leaders, such as Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana, solved their problems by establishing strict work laws and repressive strongman governments.

In the Tanganyika meeting, there was talk of an all-African "fire brigade," a military force by which Africa could put out its own brush fires.

The idea obviously was both premature and dangerous.

Jealousies and suspicions would prevent the selection of any one African to lead such a force and any decision as to when and where to use it would at best be open to suspicion.

As Africa goes through its growing pains, it suffers from many divisive factors.

Togo eyes Ghana suspiciously.
Senegal and the Ivory Coast distrust each other. So do Gabon and the former French Congo.

Business and rail relations between Senegal and Mali only recently resumed after the breakup of the Mali federation in 1960.

With memories of the old slave trade still alive, black Africans below the Sahara distrust the Arab states to the north.

With Cheerful Confidence

Ex-Actor Enters GOP Politics

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — "Right this way, senator."

George Murphy beamed and followed the Brown Derby waiter toward a booth. The Irishman stopped to table-hop along the way, and pal told him "George, you may win the Republican primary."

"And the general election, too," Murphy replied firmly.

He arrived at the booth after a circuitous route and talked of the new career he has approached with the same cheerful confidence he brought to his first career as hooper and actor.

THOMAS

Now it's George Murphy, corporation executive, World's Fair showman—and candidate for United States Senate. With only financier Leland Kaiser in the Republican race as yet and the Democrats in a state of confusion over the health of Sen. Clair Engle, Murphy's candidacy is being taken seriously by party pros.

WHENCE THE CHANGE
What brought about his change from an acting career? "It wasn't working," he said. "It seems that political activity doesn't hurt a liberal who is an actor, but it can hurt a conservative."

"I decided to see if I could earn a living from what I had been doing for nothing."

His activities had been stage managing the Republican National Conventions, helping the Eisenhower campaign and doing public relations chores for the film industry. The latter earned him an Academy Award. After he left MGM, Murphy got a phone call from Desi Ar-

naz. "I just bought a movie studio," said the Cuban. "Come over and help me run it."

DESIRABLE POSITION

Murphy went with Desilu in a public relations and production capacity, then left to become a vice president with the new Technicolor management. His duties include public and government relations. He reckons his salary at a fifth of what he made as a film star, but the challenge and the opportunity are rewarding, he said.

He also formed George Murphy & Associates and scouted possibilities of a pleasure park in Phoenix. This was shelved for

He doesn't look it or feel it. He makes one comment: "Thank God, I haven't had a sick day in my life."

The other day he had a polyp removed from his nose but that was just a minor interruption in his busy television schedule. The doctors asked him what an anesthetic he was allergic to. "I've never taken any before. I've never even had a tooth pulled."

ENTHUSIASM
Enthusiasm is the key to Benny's secret fountain of youth. No man in town enthuses about and remembers the little things of life as does Jack.

Once when he attended a party at the White House during the Truman administration, he and a friend wound up the evening with a walk. A few blocks from the White House, they stopped in a diner and ordered ham and eggs.

"You know," enthused Jack, "these are the greatest ham and eggs I've ever eaten in my life."

Five years later, the same two attended a White House party given by President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Jack's after-party comment: "I want some more of those ham and eggs."

Comic Milton Berle

Quips at White House

WASHINGTON (AP)—At the White House state dinner for British Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home Thursday night, comedian Milton Berle moved unawed through the reception line.

Arriving at President Johnson, Berle shook hands and quipped: "I didn't catch your name."

As recently as 1940, 15 per cent of the women of the U.S. in their early 30's had never been married; in 1960, it was just 7 per cent.

another enterprise: the Hollywood exhibit at the New York World's Fair.

"This has been a tremendous amount of work, but I think it's going to be worth it," said Murphy. "We have had the cooperation of most of the big studios in supplying sets for the exhibit. We pay for hauling them to New York, and the studios get a world of publicity."

The studios cooperated; not so the state of California. The administration kept it waiting nine months before deciding not to go in on the exhibit," said Murphy, adding another reason for his displeasure with the Democrats.

DANNY W. LOVE

EAGLE—Boy Scout Danny W. Love, 15, has become the first member of Troop 21 at Baldwin Evangelical United Brethren Church to attain the rank of Eagle. Danny, a scout for four years, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Love, 142 Cadillac. He is a sophomore at Pontiac Central High School.

Hare Hunters Hope for Added Month

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's rabbit-hunting season would be extended to March 31 under provisions of a bill introduced in the House Thursday.

Present seasons are Oct. 21-March 1 in southern Michigan and Oct. 1-March 1 in the Upper Peninsula and northern Lower Peninsula.

Rep. Russell Hellman, D-Dollar Bay, introduced the bill on behalf of Rep. Dominic Jacobetti, D-Negaunee, who is recovering from surgery.

Jacobetti said the season should be extended because the rabbit population seems to be increasing and hunting rabbits is a pleasant and relatively safe sport for hunters of all ages.

Film Producer's Wife Suing for a Divorce

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Movie producer-writer Sidney Barlett, 55, was sued for divorce Thursday by his wife Carol, whom he married in Las Vegas, Nev., last Aug. 3.

She charged cruelty. Terms of a property settlement were not disclosed.

OSU Protest Was Costly

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Six hours of demonstrating by Ohio State University students Wednesday night may have cost as much as $10,000 in damage and police overtime pay, officials say.

The students were protesting the arrest, jailing and alleged mistreatment of a coed for failing to pay a jawwalking fine.

Some 300 police officers—200 of them on overtime—were pressed into service to attempt to control the more than 5,000 young people demonstrating on High Street, a main north-south artery adjacent to the Ohio State campus.

During the demonstration, autos and buses were damaged and traffic was snarled for miles. Bus passengers were delayed for hours.

Suit Filed Against Big State Firms

LANSING (AP) — Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley has launched a tax battle against some of Michigan's largest corporations in a continuing fight over deferred federal tax funds.

Suit was filed Monday in Ingham County Circuit Court, but was just brought to light Thursday. It was filed on behalf of Lenton G. Sculthorpe, state corporations and securities commissioner. It marks another attempt by the state to tax reserve funds set aside by the corporations as the result of accelerated depreciation tax deferrals.

DEFENDANTS

"Named as defendants were General Motors, American Motors, General Telephone, Michigan Consolidated Gas, Consumers Power, McLouth Steel, Interstate Motor Freight Lines, Detroit Edison, Parke Davis, Winkelman Brothers, Associated Truck Lines, Indiana and Michigan Electric, and Huck Manufacturing."

The state has ruled twice, in effect, that these funds are not taxable by the state. The current suit, however, is asking the court to decide just who determines the taxable base of a corporation, said William D. Dexter, assistant state attorney general.

The question is whether accountants or the state should make the determination, he said.

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP)—Police say two 13-year-old boys stole an oil painting of Abraham Lincoln and took it to school Wednesday—Lincoln's birthday—in hope of getting good grades.

Suspicious teachers questioned the boys and learned the source of the $25 foot painting, valued at $30,000. Owner Sam Rudnick said it was brought West in covered wagon days.

The boys had carried it 12 blocks to school, right past the police station.

One boy was taken to Juvenile Home; the other released to his parents.

"They didn't get a good grade."

Missile Explodes in Silo

ROSWELL, N.M. (AP) — An Atlas ICBM missile exploded and burned in an underground launch silo about 32 miles east of Roswell yesterday.

An Air Force spokesman said all personnel were evacuated and there were no injuries.

Three Air Force personnel were killed last year in a similar missile explosion and fire north of Roswell.

The 82½-foot missile was about one-third of the way to the surface, in what appeared to be a practice alert, when the blast occurred.

The spokesman said it would take several months to determine why the $13-million missile exploded.

Ship Firm Stops Auto Transporting

DETROIT (AP) — T. J. McCarthy Steamship Co. said Thursday it will not operate its fleet of four specially designed car-carrying freighters on the Great Lakes this year.

Company President T. J. McCarthy said that 250 crew members assigned to the ships will not be recalled at the start of the lakes shipping season.

McCarthy said increased competition from railroad carriers forced the company to discontinue its car-carrying operations between Detroit and the eastern states.

FAT OVERWEIGHT

Available to you without a doctor's prescription, the ODRINEX plan. You must lose up to 100 lbs. or more. One of the basic problems of losing weight is your inability to stick to a planned diet. The ODRINEX plan contains a tiny tablet and is easily swallowed. When you take ODRINEX, you simply don't have the urge for extra portions because ODRINEX suppresses your appetite and decreases your desire for food thus making it easier and more comfortable for you to diet. Your weight must come down because as your own doctor will tell you, when you eat less, you weigh less. Get rid of excess fat and live longer. Of course ODRINEX can't do all the work for you alone. But if you really want to cut down on your eating, and lose weight ODRINEX can be a powerful helper. The ODRINEX plan costs $3.00 and is sold in this guarantee: if not satisfied for any reason just return the package to your druggist and get your full money back. No questions asked. Suggests U. S. Use Big Stick

Rickenbacker Pushes Return to TR Views

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker suggests a United States return to diplomacy of soft talk and a big stick as the answer to the challenge of communism.

Rickenbacker, former military flyer and retired Eastern Airlines chief, spoke Thursday night at the annual banquet of the Traverse City Area Chamber of Commerce.

"What this country needs today is a Teddy Roosevelt, of men with convictions and confidence in our way of life," Rickenbacker said.

The late President Theodore Roosevelt advocated a policy of "walk softly and carry a big stick."

SPEECH TITLE
His address was entitled "Conservatism Must Face Up to Liberalism."

He called for withdrawal from the United Nations to "control our own foreign policy and national sovereignty until all members have paid up in full." He criticized participation in the nuclear test ban and urged severance of relations with Soviet Russia.

He warned against "surrender via negotiations." He suggested that reaffirmation of the Monroe Doctrine should be backed up by U. S. military strength. He called for "a rebirth of American patriotic national conservatism."

Rickenbacker also was critical of the federal tax laws and denounced foreign aid as a waste. He called for "dedication to the perpetuation of the American principle of freedom with confidence."

Rickenbacker, famed World War I fighter ace and survivor of an ocean crash in World War II, recently gave up his executive post in Eastern Airlines to give his time to what he called an effort to protect and advocate American principles.

Seventy-five per cent of all U.S. foreign commerce is financed by New York banks.

U. of M. Chief Speaks
Scorns Med School for MSU

LANSING (AP) — University of Michigan President Harlan Hatcher heaped scorn upon the idea of a medical school at Michigan State University in a speech a few miles from the MSU campus Thursday.

Addressing the U. of M. alumni clubs' legislative dinner in downtown Lansing, Hatcher cited "objective, non-partisan studies" which have outlined the state's educational needs and financial requirements in the years ahead.

None of these include the cost of a third state medical school at MSU, he said.

"In taking this position, we at (U. of M.) may appear to be jealously protecting a vested interest," he said. "Nothing is further from our minds."

"We firmly believe, however, that whenever the resources which the state has so carefully and over such a long period of time built up in Ann Arbor are adequate to meet the needs — or whenever these resources or those at another institution, such as Wayne (State University in Detroit), can be augmented to meet the demands more economically than new facilities can be created elsewhere — it is our responsibility to state the facts clearly and unequivocally."

Hatcher cited a report of a special committee named by the Michigan Coordinating Council for Public Higher Education, which recommended expanding facilities at Wayne State and developing U. of M. facilities in the basic sciences at MSU.

GOP Dinner May Cause Lost Appetite

WASHINGTON (AP) — It will be the same old variety of chickens and peas, but tartly seasoned.

When Republicans of Maryland's Prince Georges County gather tomorrow night at the University of Maryland for their Lincoln Day dinner, the menu will include:

MAO COOKIES
"Pickles a la Bobby Baker, Southern-style chicken disjointed a la Lyndon, surplus sauteed green peas Orville, glazed sweet potatoes Ladybird, tossed salad with oil a la Udall, farm support pie, coffee a la Castro, subsidized milk and Chinese tea."

Grandchild for Rocky

NEW YORK (AP) — New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has a new grandchild, his 11th, it was learned Thursday.

The child, Michael Sorum Rockefeller, was born Jan. 27 to the Rodman Clark Rockefeller, who have three other children.

The boy bears the name of Rodman's brother, Michael, who disappeared more than two years ago off the coast of New Guinea while on an expedition to collect primitive art.

The Name's the Same; So Is Their Purpose

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — The town of Brighton hopes to have a successful ambulance fund drive this year, led by chairman Robert Kelly and his assistants.

Robert Kelly, Robert Kelly and Robert Kelly.

Robert C. Kelly is chairman of the drive. The other three Kellys, all with different middle initials, are assisting him. The four are related.

Canada's official emblem is the maple leaf.

Reveal Name Change of Area Organization

The Weaver-Owen-Hawthorne-Alcott Community Club has been renamed the Baldwin-Walton Community Club, Mrs. Ford Drum, secretary, announced.

The club was formerly named after schools in the area the organization represents. The new name is taken after the area's major intersection.

8 Yanks Pulled Out Before Laos Reds

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Eight American and 120 Filipino and Thai road workers have been evacuated to neighboring Thailand before an advance by pro-Communist Pathet Lao forces in Laos, Bangkok newspapers reported today.

A U.S. Embassy spokesman was unable to confirm the reports. The men were engaged in the construction of a road in western Laos under the auspices of the U.S. Agency for International Development.

Trio Dashes Into Flames of Oil Well

JACKSON (AP) — Soaked with water beforehand, three men darted through flames Thursday in helping to extinguish an oil well fire about eight miles southwest of here.

One of the trio, Robert Hester of Hanover, was hospitalized with smoke inhalation. Neither he nor his two companions, Les Kerr and his brother, Herbert of Pulaski suffered burns.

The three, all independent oil well drillers, drove two miles to lend assistance upon learning that the blaze had erupted in a well on the Dean Center property.

SOARING FLAMES
Flames were shooting 200 to 300 feet higher when Hester and the Kerr brothers asked firemen to douse them with water.

The three then ran through the flames and shut off the valves controlling the flow of oil and gas in the 4,200-foot well.

Firemen from Hanover, Horton and Concord had the blaze extinguished about 45 minutes after it started.

The well, known as Wolverine Center 2B, has been in production since Feb. 2. One other well is located on the Center property.

HOLD LEASES
Hester and the Kerr brothers have leases on other Center property and plan to drill later.

Pressure in the well was believed to have started Thursday's fire. There was no immediate estimate of the loss.

Soviets Claim U. S. Wages Chemical War

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union today repeated Communist charges that U.S. troops in South Viet Nam are waging chemical warfare against Red guerrillas.

Tass, the Soviet news agency, said that the charges were contained in a North-Vietnamese telegram to Britain and the Soviet Union, co-chairmen of the Geneva conference on Indochina.

POTENT BACKLINE—Mike Montgomery (14) and George Minton pose a solid threat for the unbeaten Midwestern Baptist Seminary quintet that has produced seven straight wins. Minton is averaging more than 20 points per game and Montgomery directs the attack, which is scoring at a rate of 77 ppg in the Michigan Christian Athletic Association standings.

New Baseball Loop
Formed by 6 Towns

A new Inter-City baseball league in Oakland County, encompassing the Babe Ruth programs for boys 13-15 and continuing through to 18 years of age, has been organized and will go into effect this summer.

In conjunction with the new setup, the Birmingham Baseball Club, Inc., was formed in Birmingham and it will sponsor a Babe Ruth team and two teams in the Inter-City league.

Besides Birmingham, Royal Oak, Berkley, Hazel Park, Ferndale and Madison Heights are the communities in the County Inter-City League.

Birmingham will have one Babe Ruth team in the six-team league, and two entries in the higher-age Inter-City league, made up of 10 teams.

Most of the games will be played under the lights in Royal Oak and in Berkley. There will be some games scheduled in the afternoon on other cities.

Inter-City league games will give seven innings and 15 players are permitted per team.

Managers of the two Birmingham entries are Al Bates and Charles Horner and they have announced the season to start the second week of June. Try-outs will be held in May.

RO Kimball

Tickets for the big swimming meet tonight between Birmingham Seaholm and Royal Oak Kimball at Kimball are available, but in the gym where TV closed circuit will be set up.

Capacity for the seating in the pool has been assured however seats for the gym will go on sale starting at 6:30 p.m.

The meet begins at 7:30 p.m. and Seaholm (10-4) will be a slight favorite to repeat its earlier 54-51 decision over Kimball, now 11-1.

Both are strong contenders for the state title and several records are expected to be shattered in the meet, especially in the distance freestyle events with Birmingham's Pete Adams going against Doug Webster and Bill Watts of Kimball.

Thurston Wins Title of Swimming League

Thurston won the dual championship of the North Suburban Swim League yesterday by defeating Fitzgerald, 68-38.

This completes the season at 5-0 for Thurston, leaving Groves behind at 3-1 and Fitzgerald at 2-2, with Northern still on the schedule. Fitzgerald is 10-4 overall.

The Fitzgerald junior high team won its 27th straight dual meet by defeating Wilkinson junior high of Madison, 55-32 last night.

In Inter-Lakes Tournament

PNH Bidding for 2nd Mat Title

Pontiac Northern will be looking for its second league wrestling title in a row when the Inter-Lakes loop opens conference mat action Saturday at Berkley.

The league tourney will open with weigh-ins at 11 a.m. at Anderson Junior High School, 3205 Catalpa Drive.

Preliminary matches will start at 1 p.m. Finals are set for 7:30 p.m.

The Huskies and Berkley finished the loop season in a tie for first place with 5-1 records, and they are expected to wage a strong 1-2 battle for the conference title.

They have racked up a 9-1 season record, the lone setback coming at the hands of the Berkley Bears, 24-16.

Giving the PNH squad balance are Dave Owsik (103), Dave Beebe (112), Jim Stephens (120), Pat McIlroy (127), Jim Kimmel (133) and Don Weyer (145).

60+ M.P.H.

Once you have seen the ELIMINATOR you know that everything claimed for this incomparable boat is true, and then some. You will marvel at the brilliant two-tone Fiberglass finish, the customized tack and roll naugahyde interior, the easily construction throughout which is usually reserved for boats selling at three and four times the price.

The ELIMINATOR is incomparable in action, too. Never before has a boat of this size and weight been built with such stability, poise, safety and ruggedness. The specially designed thick bottom (15/16"x1 1/4" transom) so successfully withstood thousands of hours of grueling tests that it earned an unconditional 2-year structural hull guarantee.

In roughest waters, the ELIMINATOR has an incredibly stable safe ride, turning at high speeds without a slip, slide or stall. It will outrun and outmaneuver any boat in the world in its class and most high-powered larger boats. The dynamic action of the ELIMINATOR insures skiers of powerful deepwater takeoff with the utmost control.

The ELIMINATOR pictured above can be seen at all three boat shows listed below. Demonstration rides on Leon Lake as soon as the ice goes out. Rides will also be available in the new 160-H.P. DORSETT JET SEA HAWK & JOHNSON'S NEW 150-H.P. INBOARD-OUTBOARD.

Senator Seeking Finley Subpoena

WASHINGTON (AP)—The diligent efforts of Charles O. Finley to pull his American League baseball club out of Kansas City threatened today to get tangled in a swelling Senate investigation.

The league already has threatened to revoke Finley's franchise unless he comes to terms which would keep the team in Kansas City.

NO SIGN

With Finley showing no sign of yielding to his fellow club owners' ultimatum and threatening an antitrust suit if the league attempts to enforce it, Sen. Edward V. Long, D-Mo., blazed away from the flanks.

State Golden Gloves' Finals Saturday

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—A switch from the soft sentiments of Valentine's Day brings 63 youths into battle here Saturday night for amateur boxing laurels in the State Golden Gloves finals.

Boxers are representing regional centers at Grand Rapids, Lansing, Flint and Saginaw. Tournament general chairman Robert C. Todish says the eight open division winners travel later this month to Louisville, Ky., as Michigan representatives to the national Golden Gloves tournament.

Chopped to a single evening of competition instead of two as in former years, the tournament here will abide by rules calling for 2 minute rounds and 1-minute rest periods. Each bout is limited to three rounds.

At least once and four are former state champions.

Randy Armstrong, a member of Clarkston's Wayne-Oakland League co-champions in football, will make his bid for a state boxing championship today at Grand Rapids.

Armstrong represented Grand Blanc as he won the Flint Golden Gloves Heavyweight championship last Friday.

The Veterans Disposal team had a 3196 series and Callie Smith trimmed four points off the 300 Bowl lead in Huron Bowl Classic highlights last Friday.

U.S. Olympic Goalie Backs Up Sawchuk

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Red Wings made U.S. Olympic goalie Pat Rupp stand by in Thursday night's game with the Boston Bruins and called up rookie Howie Menard from Cincinnati.

Rupp, who got his hockey start with the Junior Wings, an amateur team sponsored by Detroit's National Hockey League Club, posted a shutout at the recent Winter Olympics at Innsbruck, Austria.

Red Wing officials said if Rupp's obligations with Philadelphia of the Eastern Amateur League can be worked out, the netminder will be used to back up goalie Terry Sawchuk again Saturday at Montreal.

Detroit holds professional rights to Rupp but he is under contract to an amateur with Philadelphia.

Menard, 22, has scored 18 goals at Cincinnati to lead the Central Professional Hockey league team in scoring this year. He will replace the injured Alex Faulhaber in the weekend series with Montreal. Faulhaber has a badly sprained right ankle.

Elks Tournament Lead Eyed by Local Ladies

Team Entries Will Compete Tomorrow

Past Champions Set to Bowl; City Duos Do Well in Doubles

Pontiac team entries will be hoping to duplicate the success that local double entries had last week as action resumes tomorrow in the Elks' Ladies National Invitational Tournament.

Pontiac League 810's seventh annual tournament at the Orchard Lake Ave. Temple will have both last year's team champion and the preceding year's bowling tomorrow.

Jerry Woolver Studio's entry, is the defending champion and Happyland Shows (both Pontiac teams) took the team honors two seasons ago.

Last Sunday three local duos took over second through fourth place in the doubles standings. Millie Harmon and Eva Chakroff were only four pins behind the total of the Chicago, Ill. duo that leads the handicap event.

The Pontiac pair's 1229 was five pins above that of Virginia Miller and Marguerite Young (the former having 616 actual).

Fourth place is now held by Wanda Siple and Wanda Miller at 1218.

The two Wandas did grab the lead for the top doubles game with a 482 and a handicap score. Eleven Steinhilper and Fran Keller of Pontiac are second with 455.

None of the singles leaders changed.

Strampe 2nd; Moore Out

Dick Hoover PBA Leader

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—Dick Hoover of Akron, Ohio, leads a field of 16 bowlers into the semifinals of the Mobile Professional Bowling Tournament Friday.

Hoover totaled 5123 pins in two days of qualifying rounds. He is followed by Bob Strampe of Detroit at 5117 and Wayne Zahn of Atlanta at 5065.

Pontiac's Monroe Moore had blocks of 1046 and 1092 among his first three rounds and did not qualify for the semifinals.

The top four after Friday's 15 individual matches will move into the nationally televised finals Saturday.

Notes crossing a bowling writer's desk: Pontiac bowlers had a good weekend in state competition last week.

At the 38th annual Michigan Women's Bowling Association tournament at Cadillac the McCandless Carpet team and its members fared well.

The team is well with an actual total of 2842 and fifth in the handicap field with 3002. Peg Carter is first in actual all events with 1850 and handicapped all events with 2003.

Mrs. Carter and Betty Smiley lead the actual doubles field with 1086 and are third in the handicap class with 1242. Mary Ann Christoff and Nancy Thomas are tied for fourth in the latter with 1240.

The other team members are Dorothy White and Laura Mead. The team bowls Friday nights at 300 Bowl in the Ladies Major Classic League.

Meanwhile at Bay City last weekend, Pontiac's Joe Cox and John Harbaugh took the lead in the handicap doubles phase of the Elks State Tournament with their 1313 total.

Another Pontiac pair, Charley Baker and Ed Lalendresse, is in second place with 1302.

Cooley Lanes helped 300 Bowl extend its lead in the Pontiac Traveling Classic League last weekend with an upset of defending champion Airway Lanes, 14-8.

Meanwhile, "300" toppled Huron Bowl only by the benefit of 10 pins after the two tied, 10-10. The winners had 2654 pins to Huron's 2589.

Another upset found Howe's Lanes beating third place Montclair Bowling Centre, 9-6, on the latter's lanes. Wanderland Lanes beat West Side Lanes, 10-4, and Primrose Lanes topped Fairgrounds Bowling, 13-4.

Wayne Tosh with 224 for four points and Jack Ashton with 225 for three won half of the Cooley points as it surprised Airway.

Allison Signs '64 Contract

By The Associated Press
Friday the 13th came on Thursday this month, but that didn't bother W. Robert (Bob) Allison, Minnesota's practitioner of reverse superstition.

Allison, one of the American League's most prolific home run hitters, flouts the superstition surrounding the number 13 by signing his contract every year on the 13th of some month.

His contract calls for a $4,000 raise to about $2,000. He earned the salary boost by slashing 35 home runs and knocking in 91 runs for the second-place Twins.

This homer total marked the fourth time in five full seasons with Minnesota that he has hit more than 29.

Orchard Lanes is having a free bowling school each Monday for local men and women; and junior bowlers are being taught every Saturday by Bob Kwiecien.

The 7th annual GM Girls Bowling Association tournament saw the Chief Pontiac team of Pontiac finish second in the team event and three local doubles teams were among the top five finishers.

Pat Drake and Kay Gaddes were second, Jane Earley and Dorothy Albard took third, and Arlene Newcombe and Barbara McClothine came in fifth.

Some Blue Chips Lose

Stocks Irregularly Lower

NEW YORK (AP)—Losses by some blue chips tilted the stock market irregularly lower early this afternoon. Trading was slack.

Key stocks fell from fractions to a point or more.

Considerable profit taking in American Telephone resulted in a loss of nearly 2 points for this issue.

Standard Oil (New Jersey) was down a full point, pacing a downturn among the majors.

DECLINE SOFTENED

The decline was softened, however, by Eastman Kodak's rise of more than 2 as it touched a new high.

Most of the cigarette as well as the cigar stocks were higher. The cigars were inspired by Ray's 2-for-1 stock split proposal.

Leading motors and rubbers were off slightly. Nonferrous metals, airlines, electrical equipments and electronics trended lower.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was unchanged at 285.4 with industrials up 1, rails up 4 and utilities of 4.

Bayuk advanced more than 2 points on its split news. Consolidated Cigar, General Cigar and D. W. G. Cigar rose a point or better.

Prices were mixed in light trading on the American Stock Exchange. Syntax fell 4 points.

Corporate bonds were irregular in slow trading. U.S. Government bonds were unchanged.

Autos Push '63 Economy

Car Industry Listed as Major Contributor

DETROIT (AP)—Chrysler's 1963 record earnings—all-time high profits of $16.1 million—clinch the automobile industry's position as a major contributor to the nation's fast economic pace.

The Chrysler announcement Thursday of its earnings combined a Big Three auto industry combination of record income for last year. General Motors and Ford previously reported profits records.

Chrysler's earnings were nearly 2 1/2 times its profit of 1962.

PACESETTER

Autos are usually the pacesetter for business in general. The Chrysler earnings, equal to $4.35 a common share, compared to the company's 1962 profit of $5.4 million or $1.81 a share. Chrysler's previous record was $13.22 million in 1949, or $3.80 a share.

Chrysler's earnings were announced in New York by Lynn A. Townsend, president, and George H. Love, board chairman, the team generally credited with heading the company's resurgence.

Fourth quarter earnings last year were a record $60.86 million, or 21-cent per share, the previous fourth quarter high of 1962.

DIVIDENDS INCREASE

Dividends for the year totaled $16.1 million, an increase of $9 million over 1962. Chrysler's record earnings resulted in a rise in sales in one year from $2.37 billion to $3.5 billion.

Chrysler's passenger car sales jumped 38 per cent from 1962 and its truck sales 30 per cent.

The gains reflected Chrysler's comeback. For the industry as a whole car sales in 1963 were up 9 per cent and trucks 15 per cent.

Western Union Will Get Faster Stock Tickers

The Pontiac district office of Western Union Telegraph Co. will be involved in an extensive modernization of the firm's stock market ticker system.

High speed quotation tickers will be installed later this year, said D. C. Geck, manager of the Pontiac office. The modernization is part of a nationwide investment of $5 million in new equipment.

Some 3,100 new 900-character-a-minute tickers will replace the present 500-character machines serving members of the New York Stock Exchange, which lease them from Western Union.

Geck said the Pontiac office presently provides ticker service to Watling, Lerchen & Co. brokerage offices. A number of brokers in the Birmingham area are served by the Western Union office there.

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK—Success in slowing the outflow of dollars to other lands is taking some of the steam out of the pressure building up for higher interest rates. These are regarded as a prime weapon in halting the drain on gold.

But some bankers say tighter money is sure to come anyway, even if the international problem eases. Others look for the official money managers to try to hold down the rate of expansion in the money supply later this year. This is sure to be fought by many in and out of government.

Involved are the two goals, often seen at odds—saving the U.S. gold reserves and spurring the domestic economy to make more jobs.

Lining up in both government and banking circles are the advocates of easier money to finance a boom and on the other side those who think credit should be tightened to forestall inflation.

DEFICIT IN PAYMENTS

Some say that 1964 will see the fight against the deficit in U.S. payments with the rest of the world working even more at cross purposes with the economic boom expected from a federal income tax cut.

This would complicate the easy money debate. The official view, however, is that a booming economy here will attract foreign dollars and solve the gold problem—and hopefully furnish the needed jobs.

Interest rates were pushed up on short-term loans when so many dollars were going abroad to take advantage of higher yields there that the payments deficit was soaring and foreigners were using surplus dollars to buy U.S. gold. Higher rates here kept many of these dollars at home, and the gold loss slowed to a trickle.

In the last six months the balance of payments problem has eased notably. The deficit comes from foreigners spending less on U.S. goods and for investment here than this government and private concerns spend abroad for imports, loans, grants, investment.

ANNUAL RATE

At mid-1963 the deficit had mounted to a $5-billion annual rate. At the end of the year it had fallen to an annual rate of $1.5 billion. For the year as a whole the official deficit is at $3 billion. But Washington is taking heart chiefly from the sharp drop in the financial markets. Emphasis thus has been shifted to the possibility of tightening credit at home to forestall an inflationary boom rather than to preserve the gold at Ft. Knox.

Last year the money supply increased by 4 per cent. The supply is "the amount actually in circulation plus the total demand deposits. An increasing money supply finances both consumer purchases and business investment—that is, the growth of the economy."

The question is how much the money supply can be increased without producing a boom that leads to price inflation.

ANOTHER INCREASE?

Some bankers here are arguing that the regulators of credit should allow another 4 per cent increase this year. Some officials are reported of the opinion that would cause inflation and that perhaps a 3 per cent increase would serve the economy better.

If demand expands as expected after the tax cut, and the money and credit supply is held down, interest rates will be under pressure to rise.

If lots of credit is allowed to build up and money turns easier, interest rates will fall. And then there'll be that payments deficit and gold problem again.

Anyway, that's how bankers see the tightrope that Washington will have to walk in coming months.

Agency Head Celebrates 25 Years With MacManus

Ernest A. Jones, president of MacManus John & Adams, can offer a business executive's guide to success: sell yourself and your product.

Tomorrow, Jones marks his 25th year with the Bloomfield Hills-based advertising agency, which, he points out, "Among the top 25 agencies ranks third in growth over the last five years."

He said MJ & A in the fiscal year closing will record its best billing year—$65 million, up from $48 million the previous fiscal period.

Jones, who may have the longest tenure with one employer of any major ad agency chief executive, got his teeth into advertising at the University of Michigan.

U OF M GRAD

After serving as business manager of the campus Michigan Daily, he graduated in 1938 to work for the Detroit Polish Daily News as an advertising manager and space salesman.

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q "I own $200,000 of Alcoa stock. I've owned it since 1937 and I've never sold a share. I'm 67 now. Do you think the interest payments are safe?" D. R.

A) If you are thinking in terms of absolute safety, my reply would have to be in the negative.

Douglas earned its interest charges 1.02 times in 1962, which is not considered a wide margin from a safety standpoint.

The coverage will probably be considerably higher this year and I consider that these bonds are relatively safe and may be retained if you require the large 6.5 per cent yield which they afford.

McCoy's charges were covered only 1.56 times in 1962 and I have no figure for 1963, although there may well be some improvement. McCoy's 5 1/2 per cent bonds sell currently to yield not far from 8 per cent.

This is a clear indication that the market sees some risk here and I advise you to sell.

Q "I have ten shares of Continental Oil and would like to sell it and reinvest in Sears, Roebuck. Do you think this is a wise move? I'm interested in growth, not income. For my purpose, what do you think of Long Island Lighting which I also own?" B. G.

A) I should like to commend you for your good investment sense.

I believe Long Island Lighting serves an excellent and expanding territory and is admirably suited to your purpose.

I like Continental Oil, which is a growing crude producer and marketer with an important play in Libya. Earnings have risen here but the market has refused to assign to the shares a very generous price-earnings ratio. They sell currently well below their best levels of 1956 and 1957.

Sears, Roebuck has had a faster rate of earnings gain and a more consistent and a greater price rise over the past decade.

I believe this switch would improve your growth position.

De Gaulle to Face French Popular Vote for First Time in '65

PARIS (U) — The vote doesn't take place until late in 1965, but French politicians are warming up to their country's first direct presidential election in more than a century.

A constitutional amendment has eliminated the electoral college of some 100,000 notables who named Charles de Gaulle in 1958.

The amendment handed the decision to the electorate. French politicians agree that this alters the scene considerably, although just how is yet to be seen.

Gaston Deferre, 53, mayor of Marseille, got the ball rolling as the Socialist party's official candidate. With the help of imaginative publicity, he has launched a "New Frontiers" sort of pitch with an "association for the horizons of 1980."

YOUNG VOTERS

The association is designed to lure support from young voters outside the regular Socialist party ranks.

The Independent - Republicans, a minor segment of the present governmental coalition, are already urging de Gaulle to run for another seven-year term.

As a practiced politician, de Gaulle is hiding his intentions, but most persons expect him to run.

As of now, they also expect him to win.

OTHER CANDIDATES

Several other candidates also may take the race, but it is difficult to say who or how many.

The election will mark a turning point in French political history. The direct popular election will give the nation a new sort of campaign.

The simple fact of popular election puts a new emphasis on the office of president. The greatly increased power of the presidency under the constitution of the Fifth Republic is another factor.

So, too, is the towering personality of de Gaulle himself, if he faces the voters for the first time as a candidate.

WIDE OPEN RACE

The amendment of 1962 provides for a wide open initial race, then a runoff between the two top runners if no one gets a majority on the first ballot.

something like a Democratic primary in the American South.

Between the initial vote and the runoff, any candidate can withdraw. The runoff is between the two top men left in the running.

In this way, the man in second place in the first vote could withdraw in favor of the man who came in third.

VICE PRESIDENT

Some politicians, mindful of the Kennedy tragedy, have suggested that France elect a vice president at the same time. This idea has encountered icy opposition from de Gaulle, and so is ruled out.

De Gaulle does not want anyone else's name on the same ballot, according to persons close to the president.

Others have suggested that the vice president could be named on a separate ballot, but this could result in the election of an anti-Gaullist for the second spot.

De Gaulle's basic opposition is that he does not want anyone "looking over his shoulder." At present, there seems little chance for Deferre or anyone else to beat de Gaulle. But de Gaulle sets his own rules, and his personal vanity is a factor.

MAY PULL OUT

Some persons feel that if de Gaulle fails to get an outright majority on the first ballot, he might decide he had been repudiated by more than half the voters, and then pull out.

For this reason, the first aim of the anti-Gaullists is to force him into a runoff.

$2-Hour Minimum in State Wage Bill

LANSING (AP)—A bill to establish a $2 minimum wage was in a package of labor bills introduced Thursday by Rep. Edwin Fitzpatrick, D-Detroit.

The other bills would require double-time for overtime, provide for time off for workers who want to vote on election day, and give real estate salesmen Sunday's off.

He said $2 should be a national hourly minimum "to prevent all sorts of unfair competition against industries from area to area."

Other candidates are likely to bob up from old-line parties—the Communists, the middle-roading and badly misnamed radical-Socialists, and perhaps the popular Republicans (MRP) and their allies.

The candidates likely will be longstanding party leaders, endorsed first by the party's national committee, and then by a national party congress.

DULL CONVENTION

A party convention here is much different from what Americans will see this year in San Francisco or Atlantic City. The lack of drama in the absence of rivalries leading to a choice of nominees and platform. A French party convention is more like a rally to promise leaders and platform—a series of speeches extolling party virtues for the benefit of the precinct captains.

Almost by definition, a French party already has its platform before the convention ever starts.

The only other direct presidential election in France was in 1848 when Louis Napoleon Bonaparte won the office. Three years later, he dissolved Parliament and had himself proclaimed emperor as Napoleon III—a step which direct elections, at least up to recently, soured French politicians on.

Patients' Fears Don't Halt Day Care of Mentally Ill

By L. GARY THORNE
A fear of the hospital and other patients have been biggest problems encountered in Pontiac State Hospital's experiment in day care of the mentally ill.

"Day care patients were quite upset at being mixed with regular hospitalized patients," the director of the pilot program said.

Dr. Edward L. Herman, 31-year-old staff psychiatrist, heads the project, instigated early last fall from a directive by the Michigan Department of Mental Health.

The hospital was asked to begin a day care program where patients receive regular treatment during the day but return to their homes at night and on weekends.

SEPTEMBER BEGINNING

Almost immediately, according to Dr. Herman, the trial balloon met its first problem.

Divided 75 per cent voluntary and 25 per cent committed, the patients feared being in a locked ward. This was unavoidable, Dr. Herman explained, because of a lack of space.

However, the fear was doubled.

The day care patients were not only afraid of the regular patients, but also feared they might become like them.

"Some of them could identify with the hospitalized patient. This gave them the fear they wouldn't get better."

Dr. Herman said the problem is lessening now, but at first the day care patients did not even want to associate with each other.

This also is slowly disappearing, he said. In fact, transportation or commuting to the hospital every day proved difficult for some patients. This has been partially solved now by car pools.

Dr. Herman hopes to lessen the initial fear of coming to the hospital with the day care program's new, separate facilities. The program, which has 20 patients now and will work up to a total of 30 in its present experimental phase, is slated to take over a three-story wing next month.

Dr. Herman said the new facilities will enable the program to be housed as a complete unit for the first time.

The attempt, he added, has been for the program to function as unit with its staff of 11 making up all the services and treatment the patient might need.

Regular hospital treatment is emphasized for day care patients, including medication, group therapy and occupational, recreational and work therapy.

The facilities built in 1877 as a medical and surgical unit but converted in the 1930's to house women patients, had been closed last November because it was uneconomical to keep 24-hour patients there, according to Dr. Donald W. Martin, medical superintendent.

Dr. Herman said the new housing will enable "everyone (the staff) to work together and allow closer supervision of patients."

"This is a wonderful example of the psychiatric team approach," commented Dr. Martin.

PATIENT RECORD

Only a little over five months old, the day care project has seen eight patients leave, five discharged and three hospitalized.

Dr. Herman said that it was still too early to draw any conclusions, but he was optimistic over the program's development.

"There is a need for day care," he commented, "a certain segment of the population can be helped by this."

Selected to pioneer day care in Michigan, Pontiac State Hospital has submitted a second year's budget. Dr. Herman views this as an indication the program will continue.

FASTER RECOVERY
Day care was conceived with the idea that some patients can recover faster without complete hospitalization.

"They don't lose contact with their family and environment. Thus, they don't have the readjustment to make after a long hospital stay," said Dr. Herman.

Board of Directors Elected by Clinics

Election of a board of directors was the main business item last night at the annual meeting of the Oakland Child Guidance Clinics.

Meeting at the Village Woman's Club in Bloomfield Hills, supporters of the clinics elected 12 new board members and reelected six others.

Dr. Peter A. Martin, special adviser on mental health and chairman of the Michigan Mental Health Advisory Council, was main speaker.

The associate professor at Wayne State University discussed the effect of marital disharmony on the development of children.

WORK WITH PARENTS

He said there was a definite connection between parental troubles and children. He urged that child guidance clinics work with parents to understand their role in helping the child.

Elected to three-year terms on the board of directors were: Mrs. Waldemar Adams of Birmingham, Mrs. Howard H. Fitzgerald of Beverly Hills, James M. Ginn of Franklin, Judge Arthur E. Moore of Royal Oak and Joseph Neff of Southfield.

Also elected were Rev. Glenn W. Lankton of Holly, Rev. William Teague of Pontiac and Dr. Jay J. VanZoren of Birmingham.

Property Offer Recalls Deal

An offer by the Waterford Township Board of Education to sell a lake-front parcel to the township will below market value reciprocates a reverse land deal a dozen years ago.

At that time the township sold 30 acres to the school system for what is now the Pierce Junior High School.

The selling price — $250 per acre — is exactly what the township paid for the property several years earlier.

Now, the school board has offered to sell the township approximately 10 acres on Loon Lake.

The parcel, suggested as an ideal park site, includes approximately 800 feet of lake frontage.

The school board has offered to sell the land for $3,000 per acre. This is the per-acre price it paid for the entire school site parcel.

Rest Home Closing Order Set Aside

A court order designed to close the Oakland County Convalescent and Rest Home in Waterford Township was set aside yesterday by Circuit Court Judge James S. Thorburn.

Two Youths Plead Guilty to Assault

Two Pontiac teen-agers yesterday pleaded guilty in Circuit Court to aggravated assault charges in a Dec. 6 beating of two other Pontiac youths.

Ronnie P. Kester, 17, of 39 Oakhill, and Jay T. Seres, 19, of 870 Farnsworth will be sentenced March 10 by Judge Philip Pratt.

The two were originally charged with felonious assault on Michael Buckley, 17, of 87 S. Paddock and James Smith, 17, of 193 State with a beer bottle, but were permitted to plead to the lesser offense.

The attack occurred at Mechanic and Douglas in Pontiac. Kester is currently awaiting sentence for burglary of a Pontiac gas station.

Cadillac Teen Killed in Car-Truck Crash

ADAMSVILLE (AP) — A Cadillac girl was killed today as a car in which she was riding struck a gasoline tank truck parked just south of Adamsville.

Police identified the victim as Darlene Hower, 16. She was riding with Richard Durall, 25, of Elhart, Ind., who was injured seriously.

Attorneys for Waterford Township and the nursing home at 2280 Osley will return to court Monday to argue whether an injunction against occupancy is justified.

The township charges that inadequate sewage disposal facilities at the home are causing raw sewage to flow into an open storm drain.

A temporary restraining order was granted last Monday by Thorburn after an attorney for Mrs. Margaret Peterson, owner of the property leased by the nursing home, failed to appear in court.

It was learned later that the attorney had suffered a heart attack.

The township did not press enforcement of the order, however, to require closing the home and moving some 25 elderly patients, including about 16 receiving welfare aid.

Pontiac attorney Philip E. Rowston, who represents the nursing home and Mrs. Peterson individually, said construction of new sewage disposal facilities to correct the problem will begin soon.

Caucus Set in Leonard to Select Candidates

Aids Over-40 Worker

Law Proposes Job Bill

Workers over 40 would benefit from one bill, and everyone over 65 from another, introduced in the current session of the state legislature by Rep. Arthur J. Law, D-Pontiac.

The bill would amend civil rights legislation to forbid employment discrimination on the basis of age against qualified workers over 40.

"Job opportunities for people over 40 are far less," Law said.

He said his bill is aimed at employment practices of automatically not hiring a worker who has passed the age of 40 regardless of qualifications.

CAN'T RETIRE

"These people are too young to retire, yet find they can be too old to get work easily even when they are qualified," Law said.

Law also has introduced a bill to provide free small game hunting licenses to state residents over 45 years of age.

"It's time we recognize our duty to help people who have reached this age to enjoy themselves. They're entitled to a little extra."

Law said free hunting licenses would be "a little symbol of appreciation for their years as good citizens and taxpayers."

Copied to the state, he said, would be an insignificant decrease in hunting license fee revenue.

California Firm Picked for Airport Study

A San Francisco aviation consulting firm was chosen yesterday to conduct a $10,000 study of airport needs in Oakland County.

The selection was made by the County Board of Supervisors Aviation Committee from among four competing firms.

The three-month study is intended to show whether Pontiac Municipal Airport or the county's sod airfield in Orion Township should be developed into a major county airport.

A representative of Leigh Fisher Associates of San Francisco is expected to arrive here within the next 10 days to sign a contract with the county.

Committee Chairman Charles B. Edwards Jr. said the study should be started within 30 days after the contract is signed.

He said the study will include market research to determine the extent of transportation facilities being used by firms and individuals in Oakland County and to what extent this might be increased by a new terminal.

The consulting firm also is being asked to provide an organizational and financial plan for the timing of airport expansion and construction in keeping with the Federal Aviation Agency and Michigan Department of Aeronautics requirements and policies.

SWAP PROPOSAL

A proposal that the county acquire Pontiac Municipal Airport from the city is lying dormant pending outcome of the study.

City officials had proposed a swap of the airport for county-owned properties in Pontiac and possibly other concessions.

They maintained that Pontiac Municipal Airport in Waterford Township should be expanded and developed to meet future airport needs of the area, but that the city is financially unable to undertake the task alone.

Negro Fund Nets $1,741, Tops Goal

Local contributions of $1,741 helped the United Negro College Fund conclude one of its most successful drives, Theodore B. Bloom, Pontiac area fund chairman, reports.

Bloom, personnel director of Pontiac Motor Division, said donations from individuals and business firms far exceeded the $1,000 goal.

Nationally, the Negro college fund reports a record $2,671,723 was raised last year, 16 per cent above the 1962 campaign.

Some 33 privately supported, accredited colleges and universities in 11 Southern states benefit from the fund.

County Draft Quota to Be 37 for March

Oakland County draft boards will provide 37 of the 636 Michigan men slated for induction into the Army next month.

Local Board quotas: No. 65, 12; No. 66, 8; No. 67, 10; No. 321, 3; and No. 331, 4.

The new recruits will be between 20 and 25 years of age, according to State Selective Service Board.

TAKES STAND—Frank Sinatra Jr. arrives at the federal building in Los Angeles yesterday to testify as a prosecution witness on his kidnapping from Lake Tahoe. Sinatra will be cross-examined today by the defense who claim the kidnapping was a publicity stunt.

Former Star TV Quizzer No Star as Ski Whizzer

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Hal March took a ski lesson at the Hotel Concord and broke his right leg a few minutes later when he tried to zip down the ski slope alone.

WILSON

"It was the first day of his winter vacation . . . He'd just returned from filming a Hollywood picture, 'Send Me No Flowers,' with Doris Day . . . Hal, his wife Candy, and three of their children were out on the ski slope . . . He'd just been on skis three years before and not very much then."

"He got himself all tangled up in his skis," Candy reported later. "He landed in Monticello Hospital—and he'll be on crutches for a couple of months."

The busted leg shouldn't interfere with a TV series he's due to start in July. His pal, Red Buttons, is meanwhile circulating the fallacious rumor that Hal "broke his leg in three places—Lilly, Monticello and Kiamasha Lake."

Producers of "Funny Girl" deny the rumor that Barbra Streisand's such a funny girl she'd get pregnant just before the Broadway opening. "Tunny, so, comes the word, loud and clear, from Philadelphia."

CBS claims Ed Sullivan's 5.8 Nielsen rating for NY with his Beatles show was the highest ever recorded here. (72.7 per cent share of the audience)—and means that Ed was seen by 7 million New Yorkers.

Singer Dorothy London has a suite just below the Beatles' at the Plaza: "I don't know what they do up there—even their hair makes noise!" . . . Dick Shawn, who just took over Zerkow's role in "Forums," will star in a new Hal Prince musical in November . . . Corbett Monica and his kid brother Ronnie Martin will tour in "Come Blow Your Horn"—playing brothers.

Former actress Temple Texas (whose husband Joe Scribman is Rosemary Clooney's mgh.) says she seldom calls herself Temple Scribman: "People might think I was a synagoge." . . . Jose Ferrer, who does eight shows a week in "Girl Who Came to Supper," spent his Sunday off seeing two others: "Man for All Seasons" and "Rugantino." . . . Calls Kidnap Publicity Stunt Defense Hopes to Shake Sinatra Jr.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A trio of defense lawyers, bent upon proving a publicity hoax, try today to shake the story of Frank Sinatra Jr. that his kidnapping was real and frightening.

Young Sinatra has only a few minutes of direct testimony left today as a government witness. His cross-examination starts.

Sinatra, 19 at the time of the kidnapping but since turned 20, testified in U.S. District Court Thursday that he was kidnapped from Lake Tahoe last Dec. 8 "with a gun in my ribs."

BLINDFOLDED

He told how he was blindfolded, given sleeping pills and held captive for 54 hours until his father paid $240,000 ransom.

Prime target of the cross-examination undoubtedly will be Sinatra's own story of how he cooperated with his alleged abductor to elude a police roadblock. The defense has charged that Sinatra cooperated in the deed so that the publicity "would make the girls swoon over him as they did over his papa."

Sinatra, under oath, denied any such motive.

"My state of mind was fear—and the question: Why was all of this happening to me?" Sinatra said.

TWO REMARKS

He testified he cooperated in the roadblock evasion because of two remarks made by the two men in the car.

He said they said: "If there is any trouble, there's going to be shooting."

And "Jeez, this gun is uncomfortable in my belt."

The frail witness, sometimes extremely poised, occasionally nervous, told the court that his ordeal began when a tall, young man entered his room at Harrah's Lodge with a wine carton, ostensibly a gift.

"Then he removed a black leather glove from his right hand and produced a small caliber revolver.

"At first, I just stared blankly at the weapon. I thought it might have been a very bad joke."

The intruder was identified in court by Sinatra as defendant Barry Keenan, 23. The other defendants are Joseph Amisler, 23, and John Irwin, 42. Sinatra said he was blindfolded all but a few minutes during his captivity. He could not identify the other defendants.

A half hour after his exit from Lake Tahoe, Sinatra testified: "I heard one of the men say, 'We are coming to a roadblock.' Then he told me to 'lie there asleep, play it cool and nobody will get hurt.' They told me to use another name and that if I were questioned I was to be John Wade."

TOOK OFF RING

"I suggested that I better take off my signed gold ring with initials 'F.S.' on it."

"Then I suggested to them that the best way to bypass the roadblock was to tell them that I'd been to a party and I'd had too much to drink."

"One of them said: 'That's a good idea.'"

Sinatra added: "My state of mind was to offer no resistance and not try to escape."

SAME STORY

From then on, his narrative was much the same as that revealed at the time of his safe return, unharmed to his mother's Bel-Air home early in the morning of Dec. 11.

U.S. Winds Up Hoffa Case; Defense Will Start Monday

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—The government completed its case against James R. Hoffa today winding up the fourth week of his jury-tampering trial.

Special prosecutor John J. Hooker of Nashville rested the government case at 10:14 a.m., after presenting Albert J. Gasdor, a court reporter from Washington, D.C., as his final witness.

Gasdor was the reporter at Hoffa's 1962 conspiracy trial in Nashville, and simply testified a statement by the judge that a juror was excused at the start of the 1962 trial because he reported a $10,000 bribe offer.

The Nashville judge declined to appear as a government witness against Hoffa at this trial.

JUDGE'S VIEW

U.S. Dist. Court Judge William E. Miller of Nashville was quoted by a source close to him as terming such an appearance "an act of judicial impropriety."

The government, which asked Judge Miller to tell of his dismissing a juror at the start of the earlier trial, planned to end its case against Hoffa today.

The jury-tampering charges on which Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union, and five others are being tried here spring from the 1962 trial, which ended in a hung jury.

A number of defense motions and arguments remain to be disposed of by U.S. Dist. Court Judge Frank W. Wilson.

Hoffa's attorneys do not expect to open the defense before Monday.

Miller called the 1962 meeting in his office to tell attorneys that juror James C. Tippens had reported the offer of a $10,000 bribe.

Tippens, a white-haired Nashville insurance salesman, testified Thursday over defense protests that what he said was the "rankest hearsay."

Under conditions laid out by Judge Wilson, Tippens said he would vote for Hoffa's acquittal.

Huge Sales, Loans Britain Plans Red Deals

Cyprus Leader Rejects NATO Peace Force

Makarios Will Take Dispute to U. N. as Fighting Continues

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—President Makarios today rejected the British-American proposal to land an international peace force on embattled Cyprus, and will take the matter to the United Nations immediately, authoritative diplomatic sources said.

Sporadic fighting persisted between Greek and Turkish Cypriots.

There was no immediate official statement from Makarios or from U. S. Undersecretary of State George Ball who ended three days of discussions in Nicosia.

The basic U.S.-British plan was for an army of about 10,000 men to be recruited from members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, with the United States putting up perhaps 2,000, to keep the peace between Cypriots of Greek and Turkish extraction.

Ball flew to Ankara to report to Turkish officials on his talks with Cypriot leaders and to urge restraint on Turkey.

SIMILAR MISSION

He will then go to Athens on a similar mission to Greek authorities.

Makarios is expected to ask for a U.N. Security Council resolution which would prevent any one nation from intervening in Cyprus and to protect Cyprus' territorial integrity. This would be aimed primarily at Turkey.

Diplomats said the United States and Britain believe a solution must be found to settle the differences on the island which might possibly lead to a war between Greece and Turkey, who are allies in NATO.

It was understood both British and American officials tried to convince Makarios that he might not get the results he desired from the Security Council, where the Soviet Union would have a voice concerning the island's future.

ISSUES STATEMENT

Before taking off for Turkey in a U.S. Air Force plane, Ball issued this statement at the Nicosia airport:

"I had discussions with President Makarios and other members of the government. I think we leave with a better understanding of each other's position.

"As far as my government is concerned, we have not abandoned the search for ways to bring about the return of peace and order in Cyprus and create conditions for a settlement."

LONDON (AP)—Plans to sell British road building equipment to Cuba and to extend a huge credit to the Soviet Union for massive purchases of factories were reported today.

The disclosures came as Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home headed home from Washington after making clear to President Johnson that Britain intends to continue trade with Cuba and the Communist bloc. He says Britain must trade to survive.

Three Cuban government officials arrived to negotiate for the purchase of road rollers and earth-moving equipment, said to value $1.1 million.

At the same time a group of London banks was reported preparing a credit to finance a deal with the Soviet Union for up to $448 million worth of British fertilizer and other non-strategic chemical plants.

Colin Ryan, managing director of the Aveling Barford plant at Grantham, said his firm is negotiating to sell road rollers and earth-moving equipment to Cuba. He did not give the value of the transaction but said the amount is substantial.

"We are waiting to see what the Prime Minister has to say about this thorny question," he added.

WAIT TO SEE

Part of the order is understood to be for 55 tractor shovels powered by Leyland engines.

The credit deal for the Soviet Union also runs counter to U.S. policy if it provides easy terms over a long period. The terms of the deal were not disclosed.

The Russians already have signed an agreement covering $266 million worth of factories and know-how, the Daily Mail reported. Contracts would call for down payments of 20 per cent.

Saginaw to Close for Tunneling Work

The intersection of Saginaw, Auburn and Orchard Lake in downtown Pontiac will be closed to traffic for more than a month beginning Wednesday when work is to begin on tunneling the Clinton River under Saginaw.

The project is estimated by city engineers to keep the intersection closed for 45 to 60 days.

A massive, complex detour system was outlined yesterday by City Traffic Engineer Joseph Koren.

The detour will involve opening a currently closed portion of the perimeter road to two-way traffic and turning portions of six two-way streets into one-way thoroughfares temporarily.

Becoming one-way eastbound will be Whittemore, from Saginaw to the Perimeter Road; Patterson, Cass to Saginaw; and Water, Saginaw to Perry.

The following will change to a one-way westbound traffic movement: Judson, from the perimeter road to Saginaw; and Pike, perimeter road to Saginaw.

Perry, from Water to Auburn, will be one-way southbound.

The following are detours to be used on Saginaw (north-south) and Auburn-Orchard Lake (east-west) for both local and trunkline (MS9) traffic:

STREET DIRECTIONS

Northbound: Saginaw to Whittemore to perimeter to Pike to Judson to Saginaw.

Eastbound: Local: Orchard Lake to Cass to Patterson, to Saginaw to Water to Perry to Judson to Saginaw.

Westbound: Trunkline: Auburn (MS9) to Perry to Judson to Saginaw.

Westbound Local: Auburn to perimeter to Pike to Williams to Orchard Lake.

Westbound Trunkline: Auburn (MS9) to perimeter to Pike to Perry to Mt. Clemens to Mill to Huron and west on Huron.

REP. ARTHUR LAW

Valentine Verse Boasts of Pontiac Peak Production

Pontiacs are red, Pontiacs are blue. Higher production figures: Are our Valentine to you?

Aides to E. M. Estes, Pontiac Motor Division general manager, couldn't resist the chance to report this year's production records went up like Cupid's arrow.

Single home plant output yesterday was 1,379, while national production was 3,108, both records for a day.

Frank V. Bridge, Pontiac general sales manager, added the sweet touch.

He said sales for the first 10 days of February of 16,132 were highest for this period in the division's history and passed the old 1953 mark of 14,018.

"I think the judge should order it to be done in the school, in front of the other students," Law said. "They could call an assembly for it."

MORE EFFECTIVE

"If this were done in front of the kids and in the neighborhood where the delinquent acts were committed, it would be far more effective."

"A school principal or a teacher could be authorized to administer the punishment. But it would have to be under police supervision, making sure it is at once safe, and adequate," Law said.

The gray-haired legislator has a reputation among his colleagues for wishing to see wrongdoers dealt with sternly. He is sponsoring another bill to double the sentence for rape to 100 years.

"I want the court to make the father exercise the responsibility which he has ignored," Law said.

Rep. Law Sponsors Public Flogging Bill

LANSING (AP)—Michigan would join Delaware in authorizing public flogging if a bill filed yesterday dealing with juvenile delinquents becomes law.

Rep. Arthur Law, D-Pontiac, said the bill he alone is sponsoring would revive "an American institution—the old-fashioned whipping with a switch or a belt."

"I don't think this will lead to the whipping post such as Delaware has on the books. But it's time we quit theorizing about what causes delinquency and do something to curb it," he said.

law and veteran of three two-year terms in the legislature, would authorize public corporal punishment, preferably administered by the offender's father, on order from a probate judge.

This punishment would be in addition to other sentencing and be administered by the father of the child or peace officer designated by the probate court," the bill says. "The court shall designate the place and time of punishment."

Referring to the publicized U.S. British disagreement over sales to Cuba and the Soviet Union, Rusk jokingly noted that there is "a rumor we didn't agree on one or two" of the 30 items. But he said this score shows "a very high batting average."

OTHER COUNTRIES

Douglas-Home put it this way: "I hope it will benefit only our countries but a great many other countries also."

The British leader had made it clear his country will continue trading with Cuba and is willing to grant credit to Communist nations in the same way it does to others.

The main purpose of the Anglo-American summit, spokesmen stressed, was for Johnson and Home to get to know each other before each is caught up in the whirl of election campaigns.

Note of Hope Ends Parley

Douglas-Home Sees Benefit in LBJ Talk

WASHINGTON (AP)—Britain's Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home set out for home today with the expressed hope that the accomplishments of his visit with President Johnson will benefit "a great many other countries also."

Secretary of State Dean Rusk second Douglas-Home's theme in a brief farewell ceremony marking the close of the British leader's two days of conferences here.

Rusk said the parley, the first business session between Johnson and Douglas-Home as heads of government, "was in the best sense a working meeting," which covered some 30 different international topics.

Referring to the publicized U.S. British disagreement over sales to Cuba and the Soviet Union, Rusk jokingly noted that there is "a rumor we didn't agree on one or two" of the 30 items. But he said this score shows "a very high batting average."

Public Schools Prepare for 'Bundle Days' Drive

BIRMINGHAM — "Bundle Days" will be observed in Birmingham public schools next week.

With the need for clothing more desperate than ever in depressed areas, the Save the Children Federation will launch its 22nd annual drive for used clothes.

The public schools are local sponsors and serve as collection depots.

Parents are requested to take summer and winter shoes and garments to any school next week. The articles need not be perfect but should be sturdy and in wearable condition.

HARD-CORE POVERTY
The clothing received will be distributed in the Southern Appalachian Mountain area where a flood last winter plus hard-core poverty make it difficult to satisfy basic living needs.

Although emphasis is on children's clothing, adults' garments also will be accepted.

Save the Children Foundation established in 1932, is registered with the State Department Advisory Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid. It helps children here and abroad through sponsorships, self-help scholarships and family-school and community self-help projects in addition to the annual clothing drive.

Local chairman for the drive is Arthur Rother, principal of Torrey School.

"Holiday in the Alps," a color travelogue by Eric Pavel, is scheduled for tonight and tomorrow night presentations at the Community House.

Educated in Switzerland, Pavel conducted his tour from the French Riviera to the shores of the Adriatic. Tickets for the 8 p.m. program can be purchased at the door.

A panel discussion on the physical and emotional development of children will be the second in a series of programs for parents of preschool children in Birmingham.

The program will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday at Pierce School.

Panelists will be Dr. Richard

Galpin, pediatrician; Mrs. Ruth Martin, Birmingham school nurse; Donald Kern, administrator of the Oakland Child Guidance Clinics; Mrs. C. Frank Alcala, Birmingham visiting teacher; and Mrs. William J. King, a parent.

Daniel Welch, Pierce School principal, will moderate.

Flint Ousts 5 From City Jobs

Firings Are in Wake of Grand Jury Probe

FLINT (UPI) — The scandal involving the Flint-Lake five water pipeline reached to five city officials yesterday who were discharged from their jobs because of alleged misfeasance and willful neglect of duty.

City planner Gerald Childers, Public Works Director Theodore D. Mott, Purchasing Director Albert C. Hull, City Clerk Lloyd Hendon and Finance Director Olney Craft were relieved of their duties at noon by City Manager Thomas Kay.

Childers, Moss and Hull all were civil service employees. Craft and Hendon were appointees of the city commission.

The city commission, at a meeting last night, appointed a three-man committee, headed by Commissioner Harry Cull, to hold public hearings on the charges against Hendon and Craft. The hearings will start March 4.

SEPS MEETING
The Civil Service Commission scheduled a meeting next Monday to set procedure for its hearings in the cases of the other three, Hull, Childers and Moss.

The city manager also sent a letter to Henry M. Foley, 74, a member of the city manager's staff since 1954, telling him his job would be terminated May 1.

The five men fired yesterday had been named in a one-man grand jury report by Circuit Court Judge Donn Parker, charging them with misfeasance and willful neglect.

All but Moss were members of the city land board when Flint bought property for a water intake station several years ago.

LAND FRAUD
Parker has been investigating fraud in land purchases.

Several indictments already have been returned and those named include Flint millionaire Samuel M. Cattsman and former Pontiac City Manager Robert Carter, who had been city manager in Flint.

Carter has resigned his post at Pontiac since the indictment.

Rep. Law Sponsors Bill to OK Flogging

This has to be done in the future years," Law said.

NOTHING NEW
"This bill is nothing new. It's a revival of an old tried practice that for many generations did a world of good. The only difference is that here we recognize the role of the probate court in handling juveniles."

Law said the courts have overcome the job of protecting children from abuse, and this has resulted in useful disciplinary resources.

Law said published accounts of juvenile rowdism in Detroit prompted him to enter the bill, "especially when I read the teachers want life insurance."

"I don't see how these high school extortion rackets and such can go on without these kids later employing the same tactics against adults—mugging and robbing," he said.

Ruby Venue Judgment Due Today

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Attorneys for both the state and defense, awaiting a decision today on a change of venue motion, said they are prepared to start questioning prospective jurors Monday for the Jack Ruby murder trial.

Dist. Judge Joe B. Brown said he would rule at 1 p.m. EST on the defense's request to move the trial to another city in Texas. He could grant the motion, deny it, or could reserve a final decision until after efforts are made to empanel a jury here. The trial is scheduled to begin Monday if it is not transferred.

Melvin Belli, chief defense counsel, said Thursday he believed "the chances are pretty good" that Judge Brown would direct the lawyers to try to get a jury here. But Belli predicted that a jury could not be picked and that Ruby would then get a change of venue.

Dist. Atty. Henry Wade, who opposed transferring the case, said he is ready to start the trial of Ruby, who killed Lee Harvey Oswald in the city jail Nov. 24 before a nationwide television audience.

CONFESSED MARXIST

Oswald, a 24-year-old professional Marxist, had been charged with the assassination of President John F. Kennedy two days earlier.

During the more than three days of testimony Belli sought to prove his contention that "there is a blueprint in Dallas to deprive our client of a fair trial."

The defense insisted that what it called "the Dallas oligarchy"—civil organizations and leaders—had so emphasized shame brought on the Dallas image through a Ruby murder, that Dallas is a place of law and order.

Russians to Copy Capitalists

Chemical Farming in 7 Years, Says K

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev asserted today that with the aid of capitalist methods and machines, the Soviet Union will cover its farmlands with chemical fertilizer in seven years, doing what capitalist countries took decades to do.

Addressing the plenary meeting of the Communist party's Central Committee in summing up the Soviet food crisis, Khrushchev, said "certain politicians in capitalist countries contend that the planned program of development of chemistry is beyond the strength of Soviet economy."

"But the Soviet Union is a mighty Socialist country," he declared. "The program of creating a large-scale chemical industry is within the possibilities of our people. There is no question that it will be fulfilled.

"We must utilize all that is interesting and useful in the sister Socialist countries and study more deeply the achievements of science and practical farming in the capitalist countries," he said.

COPY CAPITALIST

"It would be stupid to ignore the achievements of foreign science only because they were made in a capitalist country,"

Khrushchev said Roswell Garst, the Coon Rapids, Iowa, corn expert, had told him Soviet seed hybrid corn developed from American strains now was better than the original.

The Soviet premier said a good machine, whether made in a Socialist or a capitalist country, can be successfully used in building communism and any officials who do not apply new ideas "must be replaced and others promoted."

Criticizing efforts to raise corn regardless of soil and climate conditions, he left it up to local farmers to decide what to plant.

BACKED DOWN

Clearly backing down from his former insistence on mass sowing of corn, Khrushchev said that although corn and sugar beets are valuable fodder crops, "distortions must not be tolerated. The most valuable crops for local conditions should be used."

Following last year's wheat harvest failure, the premier indicated warning enthusiasm about corn, his favorite crop.

He admitted last December that dry winds in many areas ruined the harvest just as the kernels were maturing and that in such areas it would be more sensible to sow wheat.

In contrast to his earlier statements about the unlimited possibilities for corn growing, he told the committee: "Do not swear eternally by one particular crop, we do not intend to pray to it."

Economy Lag Denied by Nik

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev assailed the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency today for claiming that Russia's economic growth had slowed down the past two years.

Addressing a plenary meeting of the Communist party's Central Committee, Khrushchev hotly denied the CIA's recent estimate that the growth rate of the Soviet economy fell to 2.5 per cent annually in 1962 and 1963.

He said Soviet industrial production rose 19 per cent the past two years while the country's gross national product increased 11 per cent in the same period, according to the Tass account of his speech.

CIA analysts made the estimate of Russia's economic growth in a briefing with news men Jan. 8. The estimate was part of a general size-up in which the CIA said the Soviet Union had gotten into an economic fix from a combination of overambitious economic programs and lagging farm production.

In 1940 35 per cent of the Negro population lived on farms, but in 1960 only 8 per cent were on the farms.

Report K Yielded in Castro Talks

By K. C. THALER

LONDON (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev was reported today to have bowed to Cuban Premier Fidel Castro's insistence on continuing to press for revolutionary violence in Latin America.

An authoritative British assessment of Cuba's relations with Moscow and Peking said Castro made only a few modest political concessions to Khrushchev during his Moscow talks last month and in return was rewarded handsomely with economic aid.

These concessions, it said, did not include a renunciation of Castro's goal of leading the Latin American revolution or of trying to touch it off with outbursts of violence like those of the Castroites in Venezuela.

Such violence is at variance with Khrushchev's policy of peaceful coexistence.

PEKING VIEWS

It does, however, reflect the revolutionary views of Communist China.

But China cannot offer the Cubans aid on the scale promised by the Soviets.

Thus, the analysis said, the Cuban-Soviet marriage of convenience, is likely to remain "a necessary but uncomfortable match."

NO CHANGE

He has not signed the nuclear test-ban treaty, a key part of Khrushchev's peaceful coexistence, thus has aligned Cuba with Peking and a few of its satellites.

Khrushchev needs Castro's friendship to show the other Latin American Communists that the Soviet Union and not China should have the leadership of the Communist drive for influence in the hemisphere.

It is also of great propaganda value to him to be able to show the world that the Communists have established a beachhead 90 miles off the coast of the United States.

Khrushchev was reported hopeful that Castro will be more willing to accept Soviet direction as the Cuban economy becomes more oriented toward the U.S.S.R.

Find Crash Victim After 3-Day Ordeal

AUBURN, Calif. (AP)—Floyd A. Edens, 53, who lay undiscovered for three days after his car plunged 1,000 feet down a near-vertical cliff, remained unconscious today in a hospital.

He was discovered by a rescue party Thursday morning at the bottom of a cliff that winds through a remote area in the foothills of the Sierra Nevada.

His rescuers said a single groan led them to where he lay, 200 feet from where his car came to rest after hurtling off a narrow road high above.

The Oakland man, they said, was on his way from a driver's test in Auburn to the tunnel site where he worked—in Hell Hole Canyon.

PATROL STORY
California Highway Patrol Capt. Richard Langer said he believed this is what happened: Edens, a worker on the Middle Fork American River water project, left Auburn sometime Monday. He was traveling the narrow road 40 miles east of the city when he lost control of his car.

As the car tumbled end over end, Edens was thrown out about 400 feet from the cliff's edge. Blood was found nearby and it appeared he was trying to crawl back up when he slipped and fell the rest of the way down the face.

On Wednesday, a forestry patrol spotted skid marks on the road and investigated the foot of the cliff. They found the car wreckage but no sign of Edens. They did not know he was only 70 yards away.

SEARCH RESUMES

The patrol informed the Placer County sheriff's office and on Thursday a crew of sheriff's deputies and the California Highway Patrol resumed the search.

They heard the groan and found Edens unconscious. Using ropes and mountain-climbing techniques, they hauled Edens back to the road where a helicopter waited to take him to a hospital.

Langer said Edens was dazed but not having a driver's license.

Radar Car Schedule

The Pontiac police radar-equipped patrol car will be on Woodward-Saginaw, Huron, Perry and Oakland tomorrow.

BOWLING

The Veterans Disposal team had a 3196 series and Calbi Music trimmed four points off the 300 Bowl lead in Huron Bowl classic highlights last Friday.

Calbi took eight points from Gay Brothers while "300" was held to a split by Royal Recreation.

U.S. Olympic Goalie Backs Up Sawchuk

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Red Wings made U.S. Olympic goalie Pat Rupp standby in Thursday night's game with the Boston Bruins and called up rookie Howie Menard from Cincinnati.

Rupp, who got his hockey start with the Junior Wings, an amateur team sponsored by Detroit's National Hockey League Club, posted a shutout at the recent Winter Olympics at Innsbruck, Austria.

Red Wing officials said if Rupp's obligations with Philadelphia of the Eastern Amateur League can be worked out, the netminder will be used to back up goalie Terry Sawchuk again Saturday at Montreal.

Menard, 22, has scored 18 goals at Cincinnati to lead the Central Professional Hockey league team in scoring this year. He will replace the injured Alex Faulkner in the weekend series with Montreal. Faulkner has a badly sprained right ankle.

Trinity Baptist Five Trims Oakland Squad

Trinity Baptist maintained its share of the lead in the Pontiac YMCA Church League Thursday with a 109-33 triumph over Oakland Park Methodist.

Jim Mitchell led the winners with 23 points. Stan Allison netted 14 for the losers.

Post Champions Set to Bowl; City Duos Do Well in Doubles

By JERE CRAIG

Notes crossing a bowling writer's desk:

Pontiac bowlers had a good weekend in state competition last week.

At the 38th annual Michigan Women's Bowling Association tournament at Cadillac the McCandless Carpet team and its members fared well.

The team is first with an actual total of 2642 and fifth in the handicap field with 3002. Peg Carter is first in actual all events with 1850 and handicap all events with 2003.

Mrs. Carter and Betty Smiley lead the actual doubles field with 1086 and are third in the handicap class with 1242. Mary Ann Christoff and Nancy Thomas are tied for fourth in the latter with 1240.

The other team members are Dorothy White and Laura Mead. The team bowls Friday nights at 300 Bowl in the Ladies Major Classic League.

Meanwhile at Bay City last weekend, Pontiac's Joe Cox and John Harbaugh took the lead in the handicap doubles phase of the Elks State Tournament with their 1313 total.

Another Pontiac pair, Charley Baker and Ed Latendresse, is in second place with 1302.

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—Dick Hoover of Akron, Ohio, leads a field of 16 bowlers into the semifinals of the Mobile Professional Bowling Tournament Friday.

Hoover totaled 5,123 pins in two days of qualifying rounds. He is followed by Bob Strampe of Detroit at 5,117 and Wayne Zahn of Atlanta at 5,065.

Pontiac's Monroe Moore had blocks of 1946 and 1092 among his first three rounds and did not qualify for the semifinals.

The top four after Friday's 15 individual matches will move into the nationally televised finals Saturday.

Pick Coaches for Grid Tilt

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Winning coaches in the last two Rose Bowl football games will match systems next Jan. 2 in the Shrine East-West Game.

Shriners announced Thursday that Pete Elliott of Illinois—whose team whipped Washington last January in the Rose Bowl—would be head coach for the East and John McKay of Southern California will coach the West.

McKay's Trojans outlasted Wisconsin in the 1963 Rose Bowl. Hank Folsberg of Texas A. and Bob Devaney of 1963 Big Eight champion Nebraska will assist McKay. Ben Schwartzwalder of Syracuse and a coach to be named will assist Elliott.

Cooley Lanes helped 300 Bowl extend its lead in the Pontiac Traveling Classic League last weekend with an upset of defending champion Airway Lanes, 13-8.

Meanwhile, "300" topped Huron Bowl only by the benefit of total pins after the two tied, 10-10. The winners had 2654 pins to Huron's 2589.

Another upset found Howe's Lanes beating third place Montclair Bowling Centre, 9-6, on the latter's lanes. Worland Lanes beat West Side Lanes, 10-4, and Primrose Lanes topped Fairgrounds Bowling, 13-4.

Wayne Tosh with 234 for four points and Jack Ashton with 225 for three won half of the Cooley points as it surprised Airway.

pin behind but couldn't match the Cooley bonus markers.

Pat Tinson put on a one-man show with 279-226-684 and ten points but it wasn't enough for host Montclair to avoid its upset. Howe's was led by Hal DeLongchamp, Al Swansee and Ron Rothbarth.

DeLongchamp bowled 245-641 for six and Swansee 614 for four, while Rothbarth posted a 610. Dave Eby's 617 led the 300 Bowl victory over Huron.

Sunday the travelers will visit Howe's beginning at noon.
