More Arrests Expected Soon in Baby Market

10 Years of Operation Nets $3 Million for Ring in Montreal

MONTREAL (UP)—New arrests in a $3,000,000 black market baby ring were expected today as authorities moved quickly to stamp out the "frightful" traffic.

Official police sources said the ring had been operating out of Montreal for 10 years and had many ramifications. Doctors, lawyers, nurses and social workers were said to be facing arrest.

Early investigation indicated at least 1,000 babies born illegitimately in Montreal had been sold to childless couples in the U.S. at prices up to $3,000.

Most of the infants were said to have been sold to Jewish couples in New York. Others went to points as distant as Chicago, Cleveland and cities in Florida.

Ernest Mitler, assistant New York County District Attorney who came here to aid in the investigation, said he had personally interviewed at least 70 couples in New York who admitted buying babies in Montreal.

Existence of the ring was exposed by police Friday following the arrest of Herman Buller, 38, a Montreal lawyer. He was caught in a police trap at Dorval Airport as he was about to board an airliner with three members of his family for a vacation in Israel.

Buller was arraigned in Criminal Court on a charge of falsifying birth certificates. He was remanded to Feb. 19, for preliminary hearing and freed on $2,000 bail. His family cancelled the airline reservations and returned home.

The Montreal Council of Social Agencies said it had known for some time about a black market in babies here but was surprised by reports of the extent of the abuse. A council spokesman said "frightful irregularities in baby placement" had occurred.

Mitler estimated the ring's 10-year profits at $3,000,000. He said unwed girls who gave birth to the babies received only pregnancy expenses "and perhaps $50 to get them on their feet." The huge fees went virtually intact to the operators of the ring.

"I hope this case will serve a socially constructive purpose in both of our communities," Mitler said, "not only in routing out a tremendous international baby selling ring, but in improving adoption facilities and legislation."

Teamsters Plan to Meet Sunday

But Won't Violate Order Forbidding Assembly Under Name of Local

A spokesman for an anti-administration group seeking to unseat present officers of Pontiac Teamsters (AFL) Local 614 said today they intend to hold a meeting scheduled for Sunday afternoon, but will not violate a restraining order issued yesterday.

Pontiac Attorney Louis W. Snyder, representing the faction, said the group will comply with the order, which restrains the group from "calling any meeting in the name of local number 614. . . or under the guise or the authority of the trustee or trusteeship and interfering in any manner with the administration."

Snyder said, "It never has been our intention to interfere with the union's affairs in any respect. However, we have the right to freedom of assembly and speech to consider any future legal action."

The meeting will be at 4 p.m. at Chieftain Hall, 1782 Pontiac Dr.

James R. Hoffa, international vice president of the union and the local's trustee, obtained the order yesterday which followed a previous injunction by Snyder's group.

Snyder said the original notice for the meeting was canceled, following the second court order and new notices were sent out to "warehousemen, truck drivers and operators, yardmen and helpers."

Protestant Sect Name Taken Off Church in Rome

Police Remove 'Church of Christ' Sign, Seize Photographer of Act

ROME (AP)—Italian police descended today upon Rome's Church of Christ, chiseled its name off a wall and took a news cameraman of the Associated Press into custody for photographing them.

They vainly ordered an AP correspondent away from the scene.

The word "Christ" in six-inch-high letters, was the first word removed in this action against the Protestant religious organization, which has American financial backing.

The Roman police struck quickly after worshippers were forced to leave a Church of Christ in Leghorn late last night.

AP Photographer Remo Nassi, an Italian citizen, was seized with his camera and hustled off in a police car despite protests. AP Correspondent Allan Jacks, a U.S. citizen, was ordered to leave, but refused.

The sign was removed on direct orders of the Rome Questura, or police headquarters, which is under the Italian ministry of interior.

The new premier of predominantly Roman Catholic Italy, Mariol Scelba, is the minister of the interior as well as government chief.

The chief of the police party declined at first to give his name and identified himself as "Commendatore Pinko." This was an obvious jibe at Church of Christ preachers, who in the past frequently have been assailed by Italian critics as leftists. This they have always denied.

Later the police officer apologized and identified himself as Commissario De Rusk, the precinct captain.

Landlord Boosts Haymes' Woes

Home Owner Claims Crooner, Actress Owe for Rent, Damages

NEW YORK (AP)—Crooner Dick Haymes—who already has ex-wife alimony trouble, back-income tax headaches, and faces a government threat to deport him to his native Argentina—has added another "blue" note in the form of a landlord complaint over allegedly unpaid rent.

The owner of a furnished house in Greenwich, Conn., claims Haymes and his actress wife, Rita Hayworth, owe him $675 back rent plus $5,000 damage he says was done to the luxurious, 14-room house. He did not specify the "damage."

The landlord, Joseph Kraeler, installed deputy sheriffs in the house to watch over the personal effects of Rita and Dick, who are not there but staying somewhere in Manhattan.

Recently Kraeler got an eviction order against Rita, who signed the lease, for non-payment of rent. This was withdrawn when the couple paid up for December and agreed to pay $675 for the six weeks' period ending Monday, Feb. 15.

In New York yesterday Bartley Crum, the Haymes' attorney, said he plans to file a $100,000 damage suit next week against Kraeler.

Crum said the Haymes possessions in the Connecticut house are worth "at least $60,000"—including some valuable paintings, clothing and other personal effects, and a record collection.

Crum said Kraeler was acting "contrary to an understanding reached by Iacovo (Louis Iacovo, of Stamford, Kraeler's attorney) and me at Greenwich," adding:

"The couple agreed to be out of the house by Feb. 15 and to meet financial obligations at that time. That was our understanding and they've breached it."

U.S. War Strategy Mission to Indochina Being Mapped

WASHINGTON (INS)—The U.S. stepped up its plans today to give active, but short-of-combat, support to French and Anti-Communist forces in Indochina.

The nation's highest defense planners reportedly intend to ask Congress to okay a top-level U.S. mission which would help the French draft military strategy in Indochina.

The plan is expected to be presented by acting Secretary of State Walter Bedell Smith and Admiral Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, at a secret session of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee next Tuesday.

Gen. John E. Hull, U.S. Far East commander now in Washington for consultations, is said to believe the mission would serve as one of the best reinforcements, short of direct intervention.

A French request for a sharp speedup in the transfer of U. S. combat aircraft to Indochina is also under consideration.

A report on air needs presumably has been sent to Washington by Gen. Otto P. Weyland, U. S. Far Est Air Force chief, who returned to Tokyo Thursday from conferences in Indochina.

Pentagon sources said the U. S. has assured France that Indochina will not be permitted to fall to the Reds, and to have agreed that the time has come for decisive action.

Another measure under active consideration is a naval blockade to choke off the flow of war supplies to the Communist-led Vietminh from Red China.

Such a blockade would apply only to Vietminh-held ports in Indochina It would not affect the coast of Communist China, for Peiping might construe that as a belligerent action.

Austria Rejects Red Troop Plan

Nation's Minister Sees No Liberation in Such a Peace Treaty

BERLIN (AP) — Austria formally rejected today Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov's proposal that the Big Four powers keep troops in the country even after conclusion of a treaty giving Austria its independence.

Foreign Minister Leopold Figl said such an arrangement would mean there would be no liberation of his country.

He told Molotov, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and Foreign Ministers Anthony Eden and Georges Bidault that it was impossible for the Austrian government to accept the Molotov proposal.

The Western foreign ministers already have written off hope of concluding an Austrian state treaty at this conference, although the debate on it will run into an extraordinary Sunday session.

Message to Ask New Legislation From Congress

Use of Tactical A-Data by NATO Allies Aim of Eisenhower Plan

THOMASVILLE, Ga. (UP)—President Eisenhower will send a special message to Congress next week asking special legislation to make possible a greater exchange of tactical knowledge of atomic weapons with American allies, it was announced here today.

According to White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty, the President's message also will ask for legislation to encourage the peacetime use of atomic energy in the United States by private enterprise.

The message will have no connection with the President's December proposal to the United Nations for creation of a special U.N. pool of fissionable material and atomic knowledge.

Hagerty's announcement resulted from press inquiries made here where the President is spending the weekend hunting quail.

The President's atomic message will follow through on recommendations he sketched briefly in his January state of the union message.

Under present law, the United States, for example, cannot report to the NATO allies on the results of tests being made to determine the effect of atomic weapons on troops.

Hagerty said that in addition to asking a new law to encourage peacetime industrial development of atomic energy, the President would propose amendment of the atomic energy law "to permit our allies to have more tactical knowledge of the use of atomic weapons and their effects so that they, themselves, in their planning with their general staffs can take into account the use of atomic weapons."

Hagerty did not know when Mr. Eisenhower would be ready to ask Congress for legislation necessary to American participation in the U.N. atomic pool. Nor did Hagerty know what day next week the current atomic message would be submitted to the House and Senate.

Patrolman Hits Tree, 1 Killed, 2 Injured

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP)—One man was killed and two injured early today when a car driven by a Detroit policeman crashed into a tree on the South River road, 2 miles east of Mount Clemens.

The victim was Robert C. Feldman, 26, of Detroit. He was riding in the car driven by Patrolman Wayne B. Baxter.

Baxter and William S. Hart, of Grosse Pointe, Park, were taken to St. Joseph Hospital in Mount Clemens for treatment of injuries.

The three had been on a fishing trip on Lake St. Clair.

U.S. to Issue Breakdown on Security Risk Firings

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Eisenhower administration will tell the public how many of the 2,200 "security risk" firings from the government involved disloyalty, Rep. John Taber (R-NY) disclosed today.

The decision to give a breakdown came after repeated Democratic charges that the Republicans are trying to make political hay by implying that all 2,200 were guilty of treason or disloyalty.

Actually, Democrats said, very few, if any, real subversives were ousted by the administration.

Taber, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, said the breakdown may take three weeks to three months but added "it will come."

"It isn't going to be possible to classify all the firings to suit Democrats who have been trying to dodge their own responsibilities," Taber said. "But the breakdown will give them all the information anybody has license to ask."

Chairman Philip Young of the Civil Service Commission said a few weeks ago that President Eisenhower and the National Security Council will decide "in the near future" whether to issue a breakdown of the federal "security" findings.

Taber would not say where he got his information.

Meantime, House Democratic whip John W. McCormack (D-Mass) said information available to the Democrats indicates that "few if any Communists" have been turned up in the government by the administration.

If there were any, McCormack added, they were in the process of being fired by the Democrats before the Republican took over.

He said he understands also that some of the employes listed by the administration as ousted on security grounds actually still are on the federal payroll and were merely shifted from one job to another.

In Lincoln Day Address

Wilson Holds No Fear of Depression in Shift From War to Peace Economy

NEW YORK (AP)—Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson said in an address here last night, "There is no reason to fear" that the nation's shift from its Korean War footing to peace will lead to depression.

"I have no patience with the people who seem to think that blood spilling and jobs are synonymous," he declared.

In an address before the 68th annual Lincoln Dinner of the National Republican Club, Wilson said that war and production of guns and war equipment makes "no contribution to real prosperity."

"Whatever we put into defense we take out of our standard of living," he said.

"All the energy, all the money poured into war goods means less effort and fewer resources than can be devoted to civilian goods."

Wilson said the Communist world's failure to demobilize after World War II had made it essential for this country to "maintain a major defense program"—and it is doing so.

This is the Defense Department's main job, he said. But in "building increasing military strength, care also must be taken," he said, to conserve the naton's economic resources.

"There are those who contend that we cannot do both at the same time," Wilson said. "We refuse to accept this defeatist attitude. We are making progress in achieving both of these objectives."

Wilson said he didn't "go along with the thinking of those who believe that the only way we can keep everybody employed is by loosely spending a tremendous percentage of our resources in production of war goods.

"Some act like they believe that we must have either war or unemployment.

"While we are in a transition from a shooting war to an uneasy peace there is no reason to fear we are also in a transition from apparent prosperity and full employment to depression and widespread unemployment.

"None should be so foolish as to think that a sound road to higher living standards is one built on military spending."

As for the defense picture, Wilson gave a general review of his department's twin goal of keeping the country strong "in both a military and economic sense."

"Our effective military strength

Community Services Body to Act on Issue of Probing Need for More Facilities

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM—Should the Birmingham - Bloomfield - Franklin Council on Community Services study the problem of whether additional recreational facilities are needed in the city to combat rising juvenile delinquency?

That question will be decided by the council Tuesday night, council president Charles Kass said today, denying reports that he has accepted the problem on behalf of the group.

Asst. Supt. of Schools Paul Carter, Paul Wilson, head of the Birmingham Community House youth activities committee, and Chief of Police Ralph W. Moxley will present phases of the problem at the meeting.

Aroused by increasing youth problems in the city, and particularly in the teenagers recreation room of the Community House, 25 representatives of service clubs, civic groups, and police officials have held two discussion sessions, and asked the council to study the matter.

The Ranch Room of the Community House was closed Jan. 27 due to inadequate supervision and poor behavior of youngsters using it. Teenagers have organized to police their own conduct, and the room will be reopened as soon as supervision can be found.

The Council on Community Services, formed about 10 months ago, is composed of representatives of organizations in the city. It was organized with the cooperation of the United Foundation, and can ask that agency for financial and professional aid, Kass says.

Its aims are to act as a coordinating group through which organizations can work together to further health and welfare of the community, and prevent duplication of effort.

The council also strives to study social conditions, discover social problems, remedy them, and initiate new phases of social service if there is no agency capable of providing for unmet needs.

continues to build up," he said. "At the same time we are making progress in our drive to get more defense for each tax dollar. . . ."

He said that the department is being reorganized to "improve its effectiveness and efficiency" and that its civilian payroll has been cut by more than 150,000 people—saving salaries of $525 million.

Halt of the Korean shooting, and "more effective utilization" of military manpower, he said, have made it possible to cut draft calls in half.

Wilson estimated that "better strategic plans" and "better organization" will make it possible to reduce the total armed forces to about 3,038,000 by June 30, 1955.

This will be a cut of 475,000 from January 1953.

"Most of this reduction comes out of overhead and not out of combat units," Wilson said.

Question Rose Resident in Probe of Cottage Fires

A Rose Township woman charged with setting fire to eight residences near her home during the last 13 months, is being held in Oakland County Jail today on arson charges.

Mrs. Mabel Howe, 28, of 8247 Chief Dr., was arrested yesterday by Michigan State Police Detective Russell Kitzinger of Lansing and Brighton Trooper Donald Phillippi.

Trooper Richard Van Sipe of the Brighton Post said today that Mrs. Howe was accused of setting fires which twice destroyed the cottage of John Janowiak, a neighbor, once on Jan. 28, 1953 and again last Jan. 15, and with starting a blaze at the home of another neighbor Nov. 13 which also destroyed an adjoining cottage. Owners of both cottages destroyed last fall are unknown.

In addition, Mrs. Howe is accused of setting fire four other times.

Latest fire Mrs. Howe is accused of setting was to her own home last Sunday night. Van Sipe said she would give no reason for igniting her own home. Mrs. Howe will probably be arraigned on charges against her today or Monday, police said.

with Italian authorities first began the Italian interior ministry was headed by Scelba. He then criticized the Church of Christ and other Protestant evangelical cults as "aiding communism in Italy."

Just two days ago, the Vatican and the Italian government celebrated the 25th anniversary of the lateran pacts. The pacts establish the Roman Catholic religion as the Italian state religion.

The new republican constitution says "all religious confessions are equal before the law."

Last month Dr. Cline Rex Paden of Brownfield and Lubbock, Tex., who first organized the Church of Christ in Italy, visited the United States to report on what he called "continued difficulties" of the evangelical church in Italy.

In the first collective letter of its kind, Italy's top Roman Catholic prelates warned Catholics Feb. 1 against what was described as Protestant propaganda. The letter, signed by the cardinal archbishops of eight major Italian cities and bishops and archbishops of 11 other cities, said:

"Pernicious errors are arising in Italy from Protestant propaganda which tends to menace the spiritual unity of the Italian people."

French officials in Washington gave a cool reception to South Korea's offer of a full army division to fight communism in Indochina.

French sources said—and Americans agreed—that President Syngman Rhee's proposal might lead to active Chinese Communist intervention in the eight-year-old war.

These views received the support of many democratic senators, including Sen. Richard M. Russell (D-Ga.), ranking minority member of the Senate Armed Services Committee.

However, Senate majority leader William F. Knowland (R-Calif), said: "The same argument was heard against using Chinese nationalist troops in Korea, but Red China intervened there nevertheless."

Village Players Marking 30th Year Tonight

BIRMINGHAM—With a record of 85 three-act plays, 8 original musicals, 20 shorter musicals and over 200 one-act plays behind it, Village Players will celebrate its 30th anniversary tonight.

Digging back into the past, Mrs. Wallace R. Ivers and Mrs. Alec Parnie have produced old scripts and incorporated them with new for the variety show they will direct in a "then" and "now" style. Alec Parnie will act as moderator at the "for Players only" performance.

Unique in that casting is not done on a try-out basis, the amateur group built the Village Playhouse at Chestnut and Hunter in 1926. Limited membership has gradually climbed to 350, and with it the Playhouse has grown. Two major additions have increased the size of the lobby, kitchen, dressing rooms and storage space.

2 Waive Examination on Larceny Charges

Two Waterford Township men waived examination on charges of larceny from automobiles and a third man pleaded guilty to receiving stolen property yesterday before Waterford Township Justice Willis D. Lefurgy.

Claud Garland, 19, of 7280 Howell, and Arthur Farnsworth, 21, of 4021 Arcadia Park Dr., both of Drayton Plains, were bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court for arraignment Feb. 23. They were unable to furnish $1,000 bond each.

Gus Opdenhoff, 23, of 1647 Mercedes, pleaded guilty to receiving stolen property and was fined $25 and $25 costs.

Farnsworth and Garland are accused of stealing tires from car trunks in the Elizabeth Lake/Keego area. They were arrested Feb. 10 and implicated Opdenhoff under questioning by Oakland County Sheriff's Detectives Delos Anderson and Leo Hazen.

Opdenhoff was arrested by the detectives Thursday when he went to visit Farnsworth and Garland at the jail.

Lincoln 'Quotes' Actually Fakes

Part of Summerfield's Speech Text Will Be Deleted by GOP

WASHINGTON (INS) — Republicans were red-faced today over a "fake" quotation attributed to Abraham Lincoln in a prepared speech to be delivered tonight by Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield.

Democratic National Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell nailed the error last night after reading an advance text of Summerfield's scheduled address at a Lincoln Day dinner at Akron, Ohio.

The Republican National Committee agreed that Mitchell was right and promptly announced that the disputed passage would be deleted.

Mitchell charged that the quotation was "a combination of sheer invention and some paraphrases of Lincoln taken out of context: They have all been denounced as forgeries in the Abraham Lincoln Quarterly."

Moreover, he added, "A previous investigation had traced the phony quotation as far back as a 1942 leaflet distributed by the Committee for Constitutional Government."

Accusing Summerfield of trying "to make Lincoln sound like a modern old-guard senator," Mitchell said the remarks are "one of a series of recent Republican fakes and hoaxes." He quoted Summerfield as attributing these words to Lincoln:

"You cannot bring about prosperity by discouraging thrift. You cannot strengthen the weak by weakening the strong. You cannot help the wage earner by pulling down the wage payer.

"You cannot further the brotherhood of man by encouraging class hatred. You cannot help the poor by destroying the rich. You cannot establish sound security on borrowed money.

"You cannot keep out of trouble by spending more than you earn. You cannot build character and courage by taking away man's initiative and independence. You cannot help men permanently by doing for them what they could and should do for themselves."

Mitchell's sudden thrust and the Republican's quick retreat gave a weird twist to the blazing political warfare that has flared into open hostility during the past few weeks.

The quotation itself has an equally odd history. It reportedly was first made by an Erie, Pa., clergyman in 1916. He then revised it in 1938, using both versions under his own name.

Later, a postcard was circulating with authentic "Lincoln maxims" on one side and the Erie minister's quotations on the other.

A Republican member of Congress used the quotation in 1950 and, after conferring with Lincoln scholars, made a retraction.

It remained a mystery how the passage got into Summerfield's speech. The Republican National Committee would make no comment.

Van Wagoner Files Statement

Swears He Has Not Been Paid for Lobby Work on Tunnel

LANSING (AP) — Former Gov. Murray D. Van Wagoner has filed a sworn denial that he has benefitted or expects to benefit from employment as a lobbyist for a Chicago bond house which helped underwrite the $99,800,000 Straits of Mackinac Bridge bond issue.

Van Wagoner resigned as a member of the Mackinac Bridge Authority after the lobbying activity was disclosed.

He has said he was asked by Stifel-Nicolaus and Co., of Chicago, to help obtain legislative approval for a bill permitting Detroit acquisition of the Detroit-Windsor Tunnel. The Chicago firm was a member of the syndicate which underwrote the bridge bonds.

Van Wagoner filed the sworn statement with Aud. Gen. John B. Martin. It was a reiteration of Van Wagoner's earlier statement to newspapers that he had neither received nor been promised any money or employment in connection with the bond issue.

Martin said he telegraphed Van Wagoner for the statement, but that the former governor heard of the request before receiving the telegram and appeared in his office. Van Wagoner requested permission to file a signed statement and to take an oath as to its truth.

Martin sent a similar request to the Stifel-Nicolaus firm but said he had received no reply yet.

Speaker of the House Wade Van Valkenburg (R-Kalamazoo) said no decision would be made until next week on suggestions for a legislative investigation.

He said the financing of the bond issue had been handled by Commissioner Charles T. Fisher Jr., himself and Lawrence Rubin, commission secretary.

"The Legislature," Brown said, "provided for a public offering of the bonds and no one on the authority or anywhere in government could possibly favor one bidder over another. The purchase of the bonds made on Dec. 17, 1953, was approved by both the administrative board and the authority unanimously. The transaction was then completed, and neither Mr. Van Wagoner nor anybody else could have affected it before or after the sale."

As state highway commissioner, governor and member of the authority, Brown said, Van Wagoner will "be known as a builder of the bridge."

Senator Asks Warren Probe

FBI Report on Justice Just Routine Procedure, Sources Say

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman Langer (R-ND) of the Senate Judiciary Committee was reported today to have asked the Justice Department for an FBI report on Chief Justice Earl Warren, whose nomination to the highest U. S. judicial post is now before the committee.

Warren's confirmation is taken for granted. The question of obtaining an FBI report on him is one of procedure.

A Justice Department spokesman, when asked if such a request had been received, said he couldn't comment. Langer is away, but other sources left no doubt about the correctness of the report.

Langer's action was taken in response to the views expressed by some committee members at a closed meeting last Monday that no exception should be made for a chief justice to the practice of having the FBI check on nominees for the Supreme Court.

The next move is up to the Justice Department. It did not direct the FBI to probe Warren before his appointment, taking the position such action was unnecessary and contrary to custom in the case of Supreme Court justices.

Warren, former Republican governor of California, already is serving as chief justice under an interim appointment made by Eisenhower last fall while Congress was in adjournment.

His nomination was submitted to the Senate for confirmation Jan. 11 and since then has been under consideration by the Judiciary Committee.

Sen. Knowland of California, Senate Republican leader, said yesterday he saw no reason why the Judiciary Committee should not receive an FBI report on Warren if it wanted one. He remarked there is "no question in anyone's mind that the chief justice will stand up well" in any such report.

Knowland said he would not want to se confirmation held up by a dispute between the Justice Department and the Judiciary Committee on the issue.

No senator has announced he would vote against confirming Warren.

Mrs. Ivan Long Retires From Pontiac Schools

Mrs. Ivan H. Long bowed out of Pontiac Public Schools Friday after almost a dozen years as a teacher here—a career that began and ended at Malkim School.

Malkim School's teachers sponsored an informal luncheon for Mrs. Long with short talks by Mrs. Naomi Dennis, veteran Malkim teacher and Miss Lillian Davidson, principal.

Mrs. Long, a native of Calumet, received her teaching certificate from Michigan State Normal College.

She spent a year at Malkim in 1926, left the school system and returned in 1943 as a McCarroll teacher. She left again in 1946, started teaching again at Wever in 1948 and returned to Malkim in 1949. She and her husband live at 100 E. Avon Rd., Rochester.

Malkim's committee for Friday's luncheon included Miss Davidson, Mrs. Robert Green, Mrs. John Kish and Mrs. Carl K. Vedane.

COMMUTERS' COAT—A special commuters' coat, modeled by George Burtchy, was recently displayed at the International Association of Clothing Designers convention in Chicago, Ill. This model has two large dispatch pockets for carrying newspapers and other large items which can be reached from the outside of the coat. With no shoulder padding, manufacturers say the soft woolen coat can be rolled without causing any wrinkles.

Hal Boyle Says:

Girl in Ultra-Modern Job Must Keep Plastic Mind

NEW YORK (AP)—Twenty-five men a day ask pretty Pat Matteson this question:

"Are you made of plastic?"

"No, I'm sorry to say," replies Pat, gallantly smiling in an effort to make each man think he has said something terribly funny.

Pat, who is 25 and comes from Chicago, is getting to be tops in a new kind of professional modeling. Girls used to model hats, clothes, or (as they grew older) corsets. Today they also help sell new models of machinery—anything from the better mousetrap to the finer steamshovel—and they have to do more than merely look lovely. They have to know what they're talking about, so they can explain it to the public.

This week, for example, Pat has been answering 500 questions a day at the International Motor Sports Show here. She is demonstrating the Kaiser-Darrin auto, one of the first plastic American sports cars put into assembly line production.

Cars with plastic bodies are still a mystery to most motorists. They want to know if the plastic will dent if people lean on it, whether snow will melt the plastic, whether hot water will make a hole in it, or whether insects will become permanently embedded in it.

"No . . . no . . . no . . no," says Pat. "But a motorist can repair a fender dent in the same way he'd patch a tire. And he can fix it so it doesn't show.

"If a lady wants to change the color of the plastic body to match her hat, gloves or a new dress, she can do so by spraying on a new paint with a vacuum cleaner. But it would take her three hours."

There is a growing interest in sports cars. In the first few days of the show here sales passed the million dollar mark. Since the car Pat is demonstrating sells in the $3,750-$4,000 class, and foreign cars are priced up to $17,000, obviously the market isn't among teen-age hot rodders.

"It is older people who can afford them who show the most interest," she said.

One elderly man, after exploring the potentialities of the plastic car, asked Pat if she would consider a proposal of marriage. Turning on her most plastic smile, Pat responded with feigned eagerness, "Consider it? Why—" . . . . . .

"But you'd be surprised how few serious wolves there are," said Pat, who feels she is a typical Middle West girl, even though she does like to wear plastic silver fingernail polish.

It was her skill at putting together, taking apart and explaining the mechanism of the magnetic starter motor that won Pat her job of demonstrating the plastic sports car.

"It is really interesting work," she said. "Next week I'll be with the frozen foods show. I believe I'm to put whipped cream on cookies."

And she is already thinking up polite answers to questions like, "and whose little cookie are you, my dear?" In her job a girl has to keep a plastic mind.

Pontiac Woman Hurt in U.S. 10 Car Crash

A Pontiac woman is in Pontiac General Hospital today for observation of injuries suffered in a two-car collision earlier on U.S.10 in Waterford Township.

Miss June Marie McIntyre, 28, of 303 Baldwin Ave., is reported in good condition with neck and leg injuries and head cuts.

Another motorist involved in the same accident, Roland Harmes, 35, of 12985 Andersonville Rd., Davisburg, was arrested for drunk driving and paid a $75 fine and $25 costs. He pleaded guilty before West Bloomfield Township Justice Elmer C. Dieterle.

Michigan State Troopers Henry Deloff and Harold Wade arrested Harmes when two witnesses caught him after a two-mile chase on Silver Lake road following the accident.

Troopers said Miss McIntyre's auto was sideswiped by the Hamers auto and she lost control of her car and smashed into a cement septic tank in a nearby field.

Contractor Is Charged With Fatal Injury to County Road Flagman

ROYAL OAK—Eldon D. Quigg, 42-year-old Birmingham grading contractor, stood mute on a manslaughter charge yesterday before Municipal Judge William Sevald. A plea of innocent was entered for him.

Quigg is charged with fatally injuring Charles Vincen, 61, of Clawson, an Oakland County Road Commission flagman, Thursday.

He was released on $5,000 bond pending examination Friday.

According to police, Quigg ran down Vincen as the flagman directed traffic around a county road repair truck on Woodward, north of 12-Mile road.

Carl A. Braun, assistant county prosecutor, said the charge was based on reports that Quigg had ignored Vincen's warning signals.

Quigg was represented in court by Oakland County Corporation Counsel Harry J. Merritt.

Airport Zone Hearing Set

Suggested Ordinance Would Restrict Heights of Buildings

A hearing on a proposed ordinance to limit construction around Pontiac Municipal Airport has been scheduled for Monday at 7:30 at the Waterford Township Hall.

Te plan, sponsored by the Michigan Aeronautics Commission and the Pontiac Department of Aeronautics, would limit building heights to 500 feet within a 10-mile radius of the airport. In direct approaches to runways, construction would be limited to 25 feet.

Sponsors of the plan point out, however, that existing structures would not be affected by the proposed ordinance.

Studying the plan is a joint zoning board consisting of Lloyd Anderson, Waterford Township supervisor; Forrest I. Brendel, supervisor of White Lake Township; Norman Barnard, Troy Township supervisor; Henry C. Smith, chief of the Pontiac Planning Dept.; and Darrell S. Downey, representative of the Michigan Aeronautics Commission from Lansing.

Benson Replacing Aides With Trio of Conservatives

WASHINGTON (INS) — What is happening within the administration of Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson, and how will it affect the nation's farmers?

This is a question that is being asked more and more in agricultural circles following recent reports of dissension within the Benson team.

It is a question that also arises in the wake of announcements that three members of the original team will be leaving government service before long to return to their old jobs or to take up new ones.

The three are assistant secretaries John H. Davis and J. Earl Coke, and Commodity Credit Corporation President Howard H. Gordon, who also has been administrator of the Commodity Stabilization Service.

In addition, Marcus Brazwell, deputy administrator of commodity stabilization and a hold-over from the previous administration, is taking leave of government office.

The general concensus among veteran agriculture observers is that Benson is building around him a more conservative ring of assistants than that which served through the first crucial year of the Eisenhower administration, and that this action is being taken on demand of the Republican leadership in Congress.

Gordon denies that there has been any dissension among the members of the team, and says he never has worked in an operation where the cooperative spirit was as great.

But, Gordon also is frank to admit that there is a conflict of philosophies within the ground around Benson.

The ideological division appears to be a matter of degree on just how far should the government go in aiding the farmers with price supports and other props.

The conservatives would not go as far as the moderates, and the conservatives appear to be winning out.

Gordon, for example, is being replaced as Commodity Credit Corporation president by Undersecretary True D. Morse. Thus the undersecretary — who apparently has the full trust of Benson — now will be guiding the multi-billion dollar price support plan.

Gordon's Commodity Stabilization Service job likewise is going to a man who has been close to the conservative group and who is a staunch Republican — James A. McConnell, of Ithaca, N. Y., executive vice president of the Grange League Federation Exchange.

McConnell reputedly was responsible last year for Benson hiring John C. Davis of Cleveland to head up public relations in the department.

Davis — who left the department in the late summer — was the most conservative old-line Republican on the Benson crew, and the one most opposed to government aid programs and controls.

Utica Holds Secret of Winter Rhubarb, Grows 90 Per Cent for Nation's Market

By BURDETTE B. ASHLEY
Associated Press Staff Writer

This is the time of year that Utica in Macomb County becomes the rhubarb capital of the United States. An estimated 90 per cent of the nation's winter crop is grown in the area.

Some 425 Macomb County growers specialize in producing the cherry red stalks, and specialization is the word for it. It takes two or three years to get the rhubarb root ready for forcing of the stalks on a commercial basis.

And the so-called sheds where stalks are grown are downright spooky places. With low windowless walls, they are mounded over on top with earth, straw, or cornstalks for insulation. Only a few dim electric light bulbs pierce the darkness inside to mark paths between rows.

Winter rhubarb culture was once a closely guarded secret, and in some families cultivation practices are still handed down from father to son.

But basically the idea is to combine the right temperature with the proper darkness so that the stalks are topped by only one pale yellow leaf searching vainly for light.

While commercial rhubarb forcing is a trick and ofttimes risky business, home gardeners can, if they are lucky in choosing the right root, bring one in from outdoors and grow some nice red stalks during the winter in a cool, dark corner of their basement.

Michigan farmers are always going "over the top" of their production goals, it seems. Peaks that once appeared far distant are reached and new ones need to be sighted.

The "400" Club is composed of dairymen whose tested herds have averaged more than 400 pounds of butterfat for the last five consecutive testing years.

A total of 172 Michigan dairymen were revealed as members of the club at Farmers' Week.

But of that number 20 have averaged better than 500 pounds of butterfat over the past five years. Another 20 or more were within striking distance of the 500-pound mark.

Lakefield Farms of Clarkston topped the list with 567.1 pounds from an average of 15,312 pounds of milk from 46.36 registered Holstein cows.

It begins to look as though the "400 Club", will soon have to change its name to the "500 Club."

Members of the Hastings Future Farmers of America chapter have been engaged for the past two months in a contest to eliminate farm pests. The returns are now in, and this is what has been eliminated: 1,428 sparrows, 416 starlings, 178 mice, 119 pigeons, and 114 rats.

Like any business, the livestock auction and the stockyard have developed their own, sometimes bewildering jargon of descriptive terms that often baffle the uninitiated. Here are some of the more colorful:

"Fat rascals" — scornful reference to stringy cows dumped on the market.

"Nutcrackers" — hogs fattened on acorns.

"Scenery feds" — animals that have found more scenery than food in the feed lots.

"Sunfish" — thin-chested cattle.

"Mice" — small lambs.

"Sugars" — cattle fattened on sugar beet pulp.

Would Control Antibiotics to Maintain Effectiveness

ANN ARBOR — In his quest for health, man may be sitting con a time bomb, capable of exploding in his face, and shattering the illusion of medical miracles.

For through over-use, the highly vaunted antibiotic drugs are becoming less and less effective. The germs which they are supposed to kill actually are learning to live with them.

Taking a dim view of the promiscuous use of antibiotics, Dr. William C. Baum, assistant professor of surgery at the University of Michigan Medical School, said:

"Experience over the past 10 years has demonstrated that through improper application some of these drugs have lost or ar losing their life-saving effectiveness."

He also said: "Ten years ago X antibiotic was effective in 80 per cent of the cases in which it was used. Now, 10 years later, the same drug under the same conditions is effective in only 20 per cent of the cases."

Dr. Thomas F. Paine Jr., associate professor of bacteriology and of internal medicine, states:

"There is growing evidence in the medical literature that certain bacteria have learned to tolerate some antibiotics."

He also declares that one of the interesting aspects of this problem is that, in addition to learning how to live with drugs which formerly killed them, some bacteria become so adapted that they cannot llive without these medicines!

Fortunately, this bacterial dependence upon antibiotics has not yet proved to be troublesome to the practicing physician.

Dr. Paine indicates three unpleasant conditions which have bee known to occur with the use of antibiotics:

1. They knock out good germs, which have a constructive function in the body. "Good germs," says Dr. PAINE, "are normally present in everyone. They suppress the growth of bad germs and, perhaps, even supply us with some of the vitamins which we need."

2. Serious conditions, including allergies, may be caused by drugs. Such occurrences may be even worse than the illness for which the medicine originally was prescribed.

3. Most insidious of all, drugs "educate" germs so that they are no longer killed by the drugs. This is similar to the resistance which the common house fly has developed in response to DDT.

So, man appears to be facing a dilemma of his own making. He has invented a means of controlling certain diseases and has labeled his invention "antibiotics." The irony is that antibiotic literally means "against life."

Drs. Baum and Paine both re-emphasize the need for controlled use of antibiotics, because otherwise man may be giving his body a chance to trn a real medical miracle into a hoax.

Ticket Scalping Made Tough in Jerusalem

JERUSALEM, Israel (AP) — A new ordinance obliges movie owners to sell at least 15 per cent of all tickets at the minimum price, so that soldiers and people in the small income brackets can afford to go to the movies.

Another law says at least 50 per cent of all tickest must be reserved for selling in the two hours before the beginning of each performance. This is to discourage ticket scalpers.

"I'M RETIRED!"

by J. Lee Voorhees

J. L. VOORHEES

"What a joke that is," rumbled Mark Flaker's big, deep, happy laugh. "I was going to fish and loaf, sleep and eat, and let the world slide by." His old eyes twinkled and his hands opened. "One can't do that. Nature exacts a price and that price is mental and physical activity. I've changed my WAY of living but not the paymen.t"

M. L. SIPLE

"I'm clumsy with a saw but I've made shelves and two picket gates; I'm nurse-maid to carrots and onions; I'd forgotten the sparkling exhilaration of conversation; I've never had time to know my family; I'm getting acquainted with my grandchildren. I haven't been fishing. Too many jobs to loaf. We go to bed when we're tired and arise when we are rested and the days fly by. I'm retired, yes, but I've never worked harder, been busier, nor happier in my life."

"Retired? Graduated is a better word, to something more interesting."

"I Can Sell It to You for Less"

Every smart buyer likes to save money! But smart buyers do not always buy at the cheapest price.

An unscrupulous operator will often quote the lowest price. But when he delivers the merchandise or does the work, you will find that he has "cut corners." He will give you shoddy workmanship and materials. He will not give the service you have a right to expect.

So, before you make a purchase or sign a contract, at what appears to be a saving to you, know with whom you are dealing.

* Never sacrifice quality for price.
* Be sure you are getting full value in goods and services.
* Don't accept oral promises.

Remember, when a man says, "I can sell it to you for less," he is not always telling the whole truth.

A local, well-established dealer is your best assurance of complete satisfaction when you are looking for a genuine bargain.

BETTER BUSINESS BOARD

PONTIAC CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Waldron Hotel Bldg. Phone FE 5-6148

February 10th, 1954

To The Hon. Arthur J. Law, Mayor, and the Hon. Members of the City Commission:

I am greatly honored by your appointment of me to the Municipal Bench. I should say, honored and humbled, for no man so selected from the ranks of private or professional life to assume the duties of public office can help but feel the obligation and responsibility he owes the 75,000 people of the City of Pontiac whose elective will it is that he is rejected or retained as a member of its official governing body.

In practically twenty-two years of law practice before all courts, I have observed that the Municipal Court touches the lives of more of the people than any other Court. In these trying times, the proper judicial administration of this post requires the application of the following basic precepts:

1. Full and complete cooperation with all branches of the city, county and state governments.
2. A fair and prompt trial of all those charged with violations of the law.
3. Scrupulous adherance to the privileges of all citizens under our Constitutional Bill of Rights.
4. Strict adherance to the rules of law to forestall the necessity of or cause for appeal.
5. Fair and courteous treatment for all lawyers, witnesses and litigants appearing before the Court.

These precepts have been followed by Judge Maurice Finnegan and the late Judge Charles P. Webster. They are not new. They are difficult of perfect application, but I feel that in a spirit of cooperative effort we can make them work and in so doing help to make Pontiac a better place in which to live and rear and educate our children.

It shall be my dedicated purpose, God willing, to discharge the duties of this important judicial post in a manner which will reflect full credit to the judgment of you, the City's elected representatives of the people, in reposing your confidence in my ability to fulfill the duties of this important judicial office.

I shall qualify and take office as soon as possible, and devote my full time as well as over-time in relieving the congested condition of the court docket.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Respectfully yours,

Odin M. Johnson,
Municipal Judge

Higgins a Candidate

State Senator GEORGE N. HIGGINS yesterday officially announced his candidacy for Governor of the State of Michigan.

Senator HIGGINS has represented Oakland County in the State Legislature for the last 14 years and certainly is a highly qualified candidate for this office.

The Senator is a man of action and one who gets things done without procrastination and unnecessary delay.

Right after being elected in November 1938 Senator HIGGINS sponsored the passage of a bill amending the collection method of the sales tax on automobiles. During the next four years the State collected $17,000,000 more than in the preceeding period when car sales ran about the same.

One of his greatest contributions lies in the firm hand he has kept on useless expenditures Probably more credit is due the Oakland County figure for holding down State governmental costs than any single individual in Lansing. He is an unremitting foe of waste. He has steadfastly fought extravagance.

During his long term of office the Senator from Oakland County has fathered bills to provide the right type of taxation to help balance the budget.

Most recent among these is the business receipts tax for which Senator Higgins was directly responsible. The bill was passed in the last session and today has the State operating in the black for the first time recently.

A successful business man and proven legislator Oakland County is proud to have Senator HIGGINS' know-how and experience available to administer the top executive office in the State of Michigan.

State Awards for Ideas

Rep. WALTER NAKKULA has advanced for Legislative consideration an idea we like — awards for State employes who submit ideas for improving State government.

To that end he has introduced a bill which would create a five member awards commission. This body would be empowered to grant certificates of merit, medals or cash awards to State employes for ideas which result in more efficient administration and reduced operating costs.

Perhaps one of the reasons we like the idea is that in these columns about two years ago we made a similar suggestion. It was based on the fact that the awards for ideas plan had been adopted by Maine, New York and New Jersey.

Another reason which should ensure careful consideration for Rep. NAKKULA's bill is the success General Motors has had with its suggestion box plan. Incidentally, the idea is used by other large industrial corporations.

There has been some criticism of this plan on the ground that virtue is its own reward. Doubt also has been expressed about the cash award feature. It seems to us, however, that the plan properly recognizes the value of the incentive motive and that it should not be difficult to write into the bill adequate safeguards against abuses.

Job Downturn Small Here

What a difference a few months make!

In this period when the trend of business is slightly downward, there is some talk about unemployment. Opposition politicos are clamoring for Administration action to create more jobs. Of course January and February have always been quiet months.

Careful weighing of all factors reveals that the decline is gentle and probably not a great deal more than seasonal.

Unemployment totals about 2,500,000. This may reach 3,000,000 next month and 3,500,000 sometime during the Summer when students are hunting jobs.

But it should be remembered that this total is far below the 4,700,000 jobless in 1950. At that time the people didn't feel that the country was in a recession and weren't shouting for government action.

In Pontiac, for example, the situation is cheering. Total employment is 3,800 above a year ago, despite a seasonal drop of 1,300 between December 15 and January 15. This gives an unemployment rate of only four per cent.

The Detroit area which for Government purposes includes Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties, has been added to the list of distressed areas. But its 7.1 percentage of unemployment hasn't alarmed Defense Secretary WILSON.

Few men know this area as well as the former president of General Motors and his statement, "Come Spring, it's going to be all right," isn't just idle chatter.

Finally, there should be reassurance in the long range expansion plans of the automotive industry. According to the U. S. Department of Commerce figures the industry has spent more than $3.2 billion on plant expansion in the last four years. More important, the amount so spent has increased in each of these years with the result that 1953 expansion cost $959,000,000.

These aren't just meaningless statistics. They are dollars and cents proof that automotive leaders have faith in both the short and long range future of their business.

Parole Board Is Receiving Unaccustomed Bouquets

By JACK I. GREEN

LANSING (AP)—Ross Pascoe and Co. must be pinching themselves these days to see if they are dreaming.

Pascoe and Co. are the State Parole Board—all equal members, of course, except that Pascoe has been a member so long and through so many changing times that he has become "Mr. Parole Board." He has served 25 years on the board and it seems like he will go on forever.

Even though you never felt an officer's firm hand on your shoulder, or watched the moonlight creep across the bullpen, you must have heard of the parole board.

Why everybody knows that the parole board has been responsible for all the prison riots in modern Michigan history. It's common knowledge that the parole board has been so beastly to those poor lads in prison that they just have to turn around and be beastly to the guards.

Heavens, yes! And everyone knows that those nice convicts wouldn't try to escape from prison if the parole board wasn't so mean about making them stay in for a while.

Goodness, yes! Why everyone knows that all our prison and corrections problems would be cured if we could just get rid of that hard-hearted old parole board and let men closer to the people—like a governor's friends, maybe—release men from prison whenever they want to.

Gracious, yes! These things have been noised around so long that everyone has come to believe it.

Imagine the surprise then of the parole board when all of a sudden in the past two weeks it has been held up to public acclaim.

First, the new State Corrections Commission had a love-feast with the parole board, reviewed its policies and came out with the statement that Michigan has "a Cadillac board with a jalopy reputation."

This is all the more surprising since only a few weeks had passed since State Corrections Director Gus Harrison went before the commission with the intention of asking for the firing of Pascoe.

And reporters said that one new member of the commission at its first meeting rubbed his hands gleefully and asked: "When do we start on the parole board?".

And this week Milton Rector, director of parole for the National Probation and Parole Association, conducting a survey of the Michigan system, praised the parole board as "the most courageous" in the nation.

Rector praised the board for paroling 80 per cent of the men discharged from prison. He could have added that Michigan has one of the best records in the nation of men who do not violate parole.

Now some folks may think that the 80 per cent figure means the board is too soft.

That comes as funny to a board which has been belabored for years as being too harsh.

Actually, however, a high rate of parole is considered desirable because it rewards men for good behavior in prison, it keeps prisons from getting too overcrowded, and most of all it insures that men go out of prison still under supervision for their difficult return to society.

Men who are held to their maximum sentences without parole go out without supervision and cannot be jacked up if they begin to slip into bad ways again.

Can it be that that old bugaboo, the parole board, is to have a change of face and appear before the people in a little more reasonable light?

Mrs. Giddings Says Windowless Rooms Used in Schools Impair Health of Pupils

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature.)

Dr. Tally's letter in Wednesday's paper in regard to our extreme inability to keep up with school building needs is true. The windowless rooms and storage rooms we use for children's classrooms year after year contribute to physical and mental health problems of children and teachers.

The money we spend abroad to strengthen the nation from without is well spent. But, why do we not care for our potential internal strength . . . our children?

I do not believe Dr. Tally's plan to further increase the general property tax will work. It hasn't worked, even during prosperous years. We fall farther behind. Residences, generally, do not produce income. They are a necessity. They should pay taxes for police, sewers and services.

The only fair way to support schools in an industrial society is from income, personal and corporate, graduated according to ability to pay.

Income is best collected at Federal level. It should then be distributed to states according to need, thus equalizing opportunity for education.

Control should remain where it now is, with the people of the state. America, or any nation, can survive only in her children.

Asks Why Government Won't Protect His Rights

By government sanction of the 'closed shop' I have to belong to the union to work.

They have sole bargaining rights with my employer and I have to pay my money to them whether I wish to or not.

Now, after eight years of dictatorship without free election or accounting of my money and literally taking my life in my hands, I bring them to court.

Why doesn't the government owe me the same responsibility of protecting my rights without my having to hire an attorney out of my own pocket?

The local judges have ruled that it is a case for Federal Court action. The union has admittedly $31,000,000 and can carry this to the Supreme Court of the United States but I can't afford this procedure.

St. Valentine's Day Named After Priest Who Was Clubbed, Beheaded on Feb. 14

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

Poor old Valentine, a Third Century priest who was clubbed and beheaded on February 14 (year not known), would certainly be surprised to find himself a lovers' saint.

Nobody actually knows why lovers exchange their sentimental greetings on this particular day, but there is one plausible theory: that the Church used his day in an attempt to Christianize the old Roman Lupercalia, a pagan festival held around the middle of February.

Part of the ceremony consisted of putting girls' names in a box and letting the boys draw them out. This, supposedly, paired off couples for a whole year — until the next Lupercalia.

Using the old idea of retaining a pagan ceremony but changing its meaning, the Church substituted saints' names for girls names. The participant was supposed to model his life during the ensuing year after the life of the saint whose name he drew.

The old pagan custon gradually worked its way back and, by the 16th Century, the girls had regained possession of the name box.

It was the introduction of cheap postage that brought about the kind of St. Valentine's day we now know. Before that time, everything had to be left to the "drawing."

And what has St. Valentine, the priest and martyr, to do with all this? Really nothing at all. It just happened to occur on February 14, the anniversary of the day on which he was beheaded.

Established in 1922 by the Council on Race Relations of what was then the Federal Council of Churches, Race Relations Sunday is observed on the Sunday closest to Lincoln's birthday.

The character and general observance of the day has changed greatly during its 32-year evolution.

The original idea was to promote better relations between the white and Negro races.

But, by 1926, the scope of Race Relations Sunday had been extended, and the emphasis was on the essential oneness of all races.

Orientals and American Indians were included for the first time in that year. Since 1945, when the present form of the day was settled upon, all religious and all racial groups have been encouraged to join in worship on this one annual occasion.

The point being made is that the entire human race is one family — God's family — in actual fact, not just in theory and in special study groups.

When the Apostle James, who was also the first bishop of Jerusalem, died, the remaining Apostles immediately elected his brother Simeon to take his place. James and Simeon were first cousins of the Lord.

At the end of His ministry, just before the Crucifixion, Jesus had predicted that the Temple would be destroyed. "There shall not be left here;" He had said, "one stone upon another." (St. Matthew, chapter 24, verse 2.)

It was during St. Simeon's time as bishop that the destruction not only of the Temple but of the entire city took place. The terrible Titus, Emperor of Rome, moved in with his armies and almost literally left no stone upon another.

Simeon and his little congregation, natually, got out of the way. When the shooting was over they crept back into the ruined city and found that of the few buildings still standing was the one that contained their sacred "Upper Room."

This was the room in which the Last Supper had been eaten, in which the Lord had first appeared after His Resurrection, and in which the Holy Ghost had come upon the Apostles.

They went along here for 30 years or more.

Being related to Jesus, Simeon was a member of the royal Jewish line, and therefore, the Romans thought, a pretender to the throne. In the year 107 they arrested him. After torture and crucifixion he died, at the great age of 120.

Says Many Tithe Incomes to Church They Attend

"Faith without works is dead," says the Bible, and the usual "works" of us laymen in the various churches consist of our attendance at religious service, plus our contributions. A cigarette smoker burns up almost 3 times the money each year on his cigarettes as the average person contributes to church."

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case K-324: Rev. Alfred C. Crouch, aged about 55, has recently become the pastor of the South Shore Presbyterian Church, which is in our neighborhood.

He came to Chicago from a thriving church in St. Louis, and is a very talented leader, for he combines Christian principles with psychological "gumption."

As soon as he arrived, therefore, he started issuing a monthly mimeographed bulletin by mail to all members and friends.

This is excellent strategy for it keeps everybody informed and permits a pastor to offer the honest verbal bouquets which deserving workers merit.

Every topnotch priest or clergyman must be a wonderful psychologist if he expects to follow in Christ's footsteps, for Jesus was the greatest psychologist who ever trod this earth.

In fact, in my new college textbook, Psychology Applied, I have included an entire chapter on "Psychology Goes to Church," and have devoted a complete section therein to specific evidences of the consumate psychology which Christ employed while here on earth.

"Did you know that it cost $42 per day to operate our church?" was a challenging heading in Rev. Crouch's mimeographed church bulletin.

Then he explained that the $42 included salaries, plus operating expenses such as heat, lights, water, insurance, etc.

"Just 84c per week for 50 weeks, will operate our church for one day," ran another statement.

Later, the Finance Committee then called personally on members and friends of this church to raise the annual budget. And they kept the focus on that $42 per day.

They asked, for example, if your family could pledge enough to run the church for just one day. Or maybe one week!

Mrs. Crane and I are not members of this fine church but we are indebted to it in many ways, as for housing the Boy Scout Troop to which our sons belonged, so we were glad to make our pledge.

Furthermore, we were both reared to tithe our income and thus pay 10 per cent to God Almighty via his various uplifting organizations here on earth.

The Methodist Church is now urgently stressing this tithing of one's income and many others have long done likewise, such as the Mormon Church.

Oddly enough, people who tithe, despite their meager incomes, never lack money for worthy causes. God seems to help them, for I have never heard of a tither who starved or lacked a place to sleep!

If more of you good people would develop the tithing habit, your church finance committees wouldn't get gray hairs trying to meet the budget.

And you wouldn't lay yourselves open to criticism about near-gambling parties and other dubious money raising schemes in the name of the church.

Dr. E. L. Geissinger, of the Stewardship Board of the Methodist Church, recently quoted figures to show the average annual contribution of various church members.

For Methodists, it was $31.57, while Seventh Day Adventists averaged $158. The Wesleyan Methodists, $142. The Brethren in Christ, $124, and the Church of the Nazarene, $112.

The average Protestant contribution was $34.32, while the average cigarette smoker burned up $90.56 per year!

Uncle Sam now allows a 20 per cent tax deduction for gifts to religious and educational organizations, hence, he allows us double the Biblical 10 per cent tithe. So try to be more faithful in the financial support of your church.

Baering Down

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER

Some folks believe we will never retract that oldtime prosperity when the butcher threw in a piece of liver for the cat.

They're pessimists who claim he will soon be throwing the cat in for the liver.

We concede after mature ignorance that we will never have twenty cent coffee, thirty cent butter and, for five cents, pumpernickel. But we still insist the high cost of living is worth it.

Now that we're being fined one-twenty of the realm for coffee we owe George the third an apology.

Georgie, Porgie, we're sorry we heaved that tea into Boston Harbor. We never thought coffee would ever rocket to one-twenty. How about the cup that cheers and the saucer that rah rahs?

Georgie, when we say the third we mean you and not that triple cup of tea. It isn't that good. In the last month we have sipped Pekoe, Oolong, Caper, Congou, Souchong, Hyson, Gunpowder, Imperial and Five O'Clock. In Murray Hill liquid measure one-and-two-third saucers equal one cup.

Take-home pay has lost its meaning. The coffee, butter and meat men come right into the house after it.

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

THE MAIL BOX

Personality

Woman, 81, has lately become selfish, jealous and at times insulting. Is this from her old age or would it indicate dementia? (S. M. C.)

Answer—Probably dementia. It might be well to have her examined by a physician who would thus obtain information to qualify him as an expert witness inquiry later.

Potentiator

You said vitamin B-12 by mouth is as effective as by shots, provided its potentiator is combined with it. What is the potentiator? (E. M. P.)

Answer—Folic acid. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask for pamphlet The Red Blood Vitamin.

Blood Donations

You stated that blood may be donated every two weeks. I was advised that two weeks is too short an interval, as the blood cells take longer to form, and so the general rule is to wait five or six weeks between donations. (R. J.)

Answer—That is so. I do not recall saying two weeks was long enough, though unquestionably it is in some instances.

Allergy

Daughter suffered for years with allergy . . . until we sent for your pamphlet. Now she is better than she has been for years and able to hold her job . . . grateful . . . (Mrs. C. B.)

Answer—The pamphlet Relief for Allergy is available to any one who asks for it in writing and encloses stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Running Away

When I tell folks I have the CRI they run away, so you see I am getting results already! (K. P.)

Answer—The booklet Call It C R I tells how to prevent the everyday ailments that make doctor bills. For a copy send 25c and stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Penicillin

Four children, 4 to 16, kept the doctor coming about once a week for what you call CRI. Our youngest, 4, has had at least 30 shots of penicillin . . . (Mrs. M. J. P.)

Answer—The poor little tyke! Your doctor is a salesman, not a physician. I am not permitted to use the language to answer your query properly.

Corn Remedy

I would like to thank you for the wonderful results my (little boy?) husband had from your corn remedy. We passed it on to several others and they found the same benefit—but now we can't remember just what . . . (Mrs. J. A.)

Answer—Paint corn or callus once a day with a solution of 30 grains of salicylic acid in one-half ounce flexible collodion. In a week, more or less, you can wipe away the softened corn or callus. Keep the liquid off neck of vial and off cork and keep vial tightly stoppered. The recipe is not my invention. It was given in medical textbooks which were old when Topsy was a colt.

Do As I Say

I am going to try eating Ca and D for my chronic rheumatism. You say in one article, "If you try it at all you should do as I say." Well, what do you say? (H. N.)

Answer—As I have said or tried to say here many times, calcium and vitamin D is NOT medicine, but essential food, so you don't "try" it for a while, you eat it for several weeks, provided you have restored high calcium foods to your everyday diet and exposed yourself sufficiently to the ultra-daylight to generate your own vitamin D—as described in pamphlet Calcium and Rheumatis for which send stamped, self-addressed envelope. A clipping will not bring an answer.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.)

Wrong One Is Thanked for Present

Confusion Must Be Straightened Out by Recipient of Note

By EMILY POST

A reader asks me to help her out of a very embarrassing situation which she explains as follows: "I have just received a note from a friend thanking me for an anniversary present I am supposed to have sent her. Evidently the name on the card enclosed with it was very similar to mine and she took it for granted that it was from me.

"It makes it all the more embarrassing because she goes on to say that I am always so thoughtful, and that it was wonderful of me to remember her anniversary. What do I do now?"

Answer: Write to her and say that your are more than sorry that you don't deserve her thanks, but that much as you wish the present had been from you, you have to confess it was not.

Dear Mrs. Post: I would like to know what is proper in the following situation: When stopping for the night at a house that advertises rooms for tourists, may an inquiring traveler walk right in without ringing the doorbell?

Answer: After you have taken a room in the house, you, of course, go in and out without ringing the bell, provided the door is kept unlocked.

But before this, you must ring the bell and wait for someone to answer the door. Aside from this being the polite way to behave, you would probably find yourself in an empty hall with no way to attract anyone's attention.

Dear Mrs. Post: My mother is a doctor (M.D.). I would like to know about my wedding invitations and announcements. Should her name appear as Dr. or Mrs.?

Answer: If she is a practicing physician and known to everyone as Dr. Smith, then your father's and her name together must be engraved as Mr. Henry and Dr. Mabel Smith.

If she has given up her practice or if she has always been known socially as Mrs. Henry, then this is the way her name should appear on the invitations and announcements.

Florida Bound? Make Check-Up Before Leaving

Are you one of those lucky gals who is off in your car to warmer weather and sunny beaches?

Be sure everything at home is locked and secure. Tell the local police how long you plan to be away; take perishables out of the refrigerator and leave the door ajar; plan to have mail forwarded; cancel newspaper and milk deliveries; arrange for yard care; be sure lights and kitchen range burners are off and that no clothes are still flapping on the line.

And here's a tip that will pay you well in peace of mind. Several days before you plan to leave, see that your car gets a thorough check-up by a trained mechanic. It will save you trouble on the road and may save you time and money, too.

Encourage Dainty Habits

Is there a little girl who doesn't dress up in her Mommy's clothes at any opportunity?

Left to her own devices in a household, any tiny girl will rummage through Moms wardrobe. She'll traipse around in high heels and an available fu piece and anything else she ca locate in that "big girl" category from earrings to negligees.

One of the delights of the hair-ribbon set is Mom's makeup. Lipstick, rouge, nailpolish and fragrances intrigue a small tot like nothing else. This does not always please Mom, even though playing with cosmetics is likely to keep a small tot out of other mischief.

The question sometimes is can Mom afford it? More than one mother has found to her horror that daughter's pinafore reeks with the scent of her one and only good bottle of French perfume.

Some mothers encourage daughter's flight into the world of glamour by supplying her with her very own vanity table charmers. These are grooming items created exclusively for the pleasure of small fry.

There are clown soaps, bubble baths, light colognes, candy-scented toothpastes and dusting powders to please young folk and woo them to good grooming habits.

A tiny tot may even be thrown into ecstasy by possessing something resembling a lipstick. One firm has a colorless perfumed lip pomade that is prepared especially as a chap guard against winds and cold. There are solid colognes in lipstick form that will also fascinate little girls with a yen for feminine fripperies.

Wise Moms take the easy way out. They could forbid a youngster to play with these things which are irresistible to her, but how much simpler it is to find a solution that will make a little girl happy.

Play Love Letter Game

Here is a game which can be used at a party for fun or if you are not having a Valentine party, how about using this as a game for the family to play?

You will need to make as many hearts as there are letters in the alphabet, how many is that? You are right; there are 26.

These go into a paper bag with the letters of the alphabet printed on them. If you make red hearts, use white ink for the letters. If you use white hearts, put the letters on in red ink.

You can also write something on each paper bag as I have shown in the drawing. You will need one of these sets for each two people who play, for this is a "partners" game.

Give each couple one of the bags and at the word "Go," they begin to sort through their letters to see what couple can form the word "love" the first. The couples raise their hands when they have the word completed. This takes a little time for they can only draw one leeter out at a time, and must not look into the bag as they draw.

If you want to, you can have them make another word before the game ends. This can be the word "cupid." Give some Valentine candy as the prize for the winning couple. Your guests will like this game.

BISHOP-BRACKEN

Finds Fashion Work in Small Town

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"I had a wonderful job in the city, but after I married I had to move miles away to a small town, so I had to give everything up."

That is a complaint that I hear regularly, u s u a l l y accompanied with much self-pity. And I always tell the complainer the story of Jeannette S.

Jeannette was in a good fashion job in a big city department store. She loved the fashion field and was already beginning to move ahead, and assist with the big monthly fashion shows.

She was a tiny girl, and in order to dress herself to her best advantage, and make herself look taller, she had studied line and color and texture.

W h e n Jeannette married and moved to the little city in the Midwest, her friends all said, "What a pity to have to give up such a promising career!" But Jennette did not intend to be a martyr.

After she got settled in her new home and acquainted with her new neighbors, she got to work. She missed her fashion work, because it was really a lifework with her.

"I would see women on the street," she told me, "who were not dressing as becomingly as they could, and I would itch to tell them how they could minimize their bad points and make the most of their good points."

One day Jeannette went in to see the head of the town's biggest department store.

She had a talk with him and told him that she would like to run a monthly fashion show for him, and knew she could get her new friends in the women's club to cooperate and attend.

"I knew he couldn't afford to pay me much," she told me, "because, in the first place, he had no idea of what I could do — I was a pig in a poke.

"So I said I would do the first one for free, as a sample, so to speak. Then, if sales of the clothes increased sufficiently, we could get together and figure the proper fee.

"Well, it worked like a dream. I love it so, and the women loved it, especially the clothes I showed that were good for the short woman, the tall woman, the too-stout, the too-thin, and so forth.

"Sales zoomed, and now I do a regular monthly fashion show for the store, with a nice fat fee plus a percentage of the new business."

If you really like to do a thing, you need never let circumstances get in your way. If you love it enough, you can figure a way to handle it on Mars!

Neck, Shoulders Stressed

Ceil Chapman is rightly famous and rightly popular for bringing out the most of a woman's beauty in her designs. This model makes a point of bringing out the beauty of neck and shoulders, its tiny collar and neckline making an absolute frame.

The bodice is cut with the knowin hand and eye that this designer consistently applies to this area, this time with a new fillip — a standout cupped detail to emphasize the bust.

The skirt is a breathtaking affair of inverted pleats with a flare. Created in taffeta, it makes up in any of the stiffish silks.

Every Third Driver Is a Woman

If You Operate Car Be Sure It Receives Regular Care

Did you know that one-third of the 65,000,000 licensed drivers in this country are women? They don't average as great distances in a year as men do, but their driving is certainly essential to American family life.

Shopping, taxiing to school, trips to the doctor's are the three most frequent reasons listed in a recent survey why women drive the family car. In some places, especially in the suburbs, they are apt to have it from 75 per cent to 90 per cent of the time and many homes have been built in rural areas because a woman driver made it possible.

Since many women have the use of family cars in the daytime, more and more wives are taking over the responsibility of seeing to the care and the servicing of automobiles.

This is a serious responsibility since it affects their families' safety and their cars' efficient operation.

When you take over the duty of "tending to" the car, make it a habit to plan for regular checkup and care, just the way you plan for visits with the children to the doctor and dentist.

Use the same service man, whenever convenient. It's a good idea to take your car to the dealer who sold it to you. Not only does he know your car best, but he'll keep records on its care and be in a position to give you a better trade-in deal when you're ready for a new car.

Regular care will pay off in high dividends of worry-free driving, economical operation and higher turn-in value.

Fine Facial Pack to Make or Buy

About this time of year, the older woman is likely to seek a special treatment to rejuvenate her winter-weary skin. Nightly applications of her favorite lotion or cream do not seem to be enough at this time.

For you who feel this way, a face pack should prove the perfect treatment. Your skin will feel soft and pleasant afterward and lines are likely to be smoothed away, at least temporarily.

A most soothing pack can be prepared by your druggist from two ounces of borax, a half ounce of powdered tragacanth and two drams of magnesium carbonate. It should cost less than a dollar.

To the druggist's mixture, add water to make a paste and apply it directly to the face. After it has dried, peel it off with your fingers.

You can make a pack yourself by mixing three tablespoons of ordinary raw oatmeal and enough olive oil to form a paste and adding two teaspoons of glycerine.

Before applying the pack, pat on some lanolin cream. If bleaching action is desired, you can add the juice of one lemon and a half teaspoon of tincture of benzoin to the preparation.

Children in Cars

Safety tip: Teach children not to stand up when riding in the car. A sudden swerve or stop can give them a bad bump or serious fall.

With or without the jacket this is the prettiest fashion in the Easter Parade. See how the jacket is scooped to show off the bow neckline of the dress. It's a pleasure to sew—that easy! Choose a new print for dress—a contrast for jacket.

A reception at Detroit Yacht Club followed the ceremony, and later the bride changed to a navy suit with red and white accessories for the wedding trip to Miami Beach. On their return they will reside in Detroit.

Longfellow Students Give Readings

Special Programs Spark PTA Meetings

Special programs were on the agenda for several Thursday PTA meetings.

Longfellow

"A Salute to Our Flag" was presented by the fifth grade students of Mrs. Albert Roth's room at Longfellow School.

Charles Parmenter, narrator, introduced Nancy Serra and Susan Bellehumer, who gave readings on Abraham Lincoln and George Washington.

The history of our Flag from its beginning to the Flag of the present day was traced and illustrated.

The audience joined the children in the pledge to the Flag and in the singing of the national anthem with Stella Lou Hammond as accompanist.

Mrs. Edwin Carlson, PTA president, quoted a definition of brotherhood developed at the National Round Table held in Detroit. The definition said that brotherhood is "giving to others the rights and respect you want for yourself."

Timothy Williams spoke on Brotherhood Week and the children sang "America the Beautiful" to conclude the program.

It was announced that Mrs. Ivan Pierce will serve as the social chairman for the remainder of the year.

Mrs. E. E. Mount arranged the doubled tiered birthday cake which served as a centerpiece in commemoration of Founders' Day, the 57th birthday of PTA.

Baldwin

Past presidents were introduced and presented with corsages in recognition of their services when Baldwin PTA observed Founders' Day with Adah Shelly as guest speaker.

In her talk, "Reading for Children," Miss Shelly said that the changing interests of children have changed the type of books they read. Her choice of classics for children are books such as "Tom Sawyer" and "Robinson Crusoe."

With so many birthdays of famous men, biographies are of special interest, Miss Shelly said, and books of this nature teach the qualities which have made men great through the centuries.

Wilson

The advanced band of Wilson School, under the direction of Donald Schultz, presented several numbers to start off the PTA program.

A talk on "Safety" was given by a representative from the Pontiac Police Dept. Safety at home and at school was emphasized.

The main contributing factors of home accidents are medicines, matches, bath-tubs and bicycles, the speaker said.

Mrs. Robert Anderson, a dramatics teacher from Pontiac High School, presented readings.

In the business meeting that followed the program, plans were made to purchase a new opaque projector and equipment, and portable radios to be used in classrooms.

Members were invited to bring used clothing, needles, thread and buttons to be sent to Korea through the World Church Service.

$223,000 Goal of Episcopalians

Church Projects Will Be Aided by Michigan Diocese Campaign

Members of Episcopal churches at Pontiac, Milford, Rochester, Howell, Holly, Brighton, Utica and Hamburg are joining other Episcopalians of the diocese of Michigan in an unprecedented campaign to raise $223,000 in 1950 for the capital needs of the Michigan, national and international church.

This is the special event of this Episcopal church year and one which will be a dominant activity in 150 parishes and missions until the goal is achieved.

Under the banner "Builders for Christ," lay workers plan to raise $148,000 for the National Council of the Episcopal Church to provide capital funds for the improvement and expansion of United States, and to give major assistance to Christian churches in Japan, the Philippines and Puerto Rico.

In addition, "Builders for Christ" will give capital assistance for the urgent needs of church institutions within the country.

The contributions of Michigan Episcopal givers will, for nstance, join those of others throughout the nation to provide major funds for rebuilding the schools and extending the work for the American Church Institute for Negroes.

Sunday Sermonette

THE CAT WHO WALKED ALONE

In the dawn of human existence, when men and women lived in caves, all creatures were wild; no animals were domesticated. Of all the animals, the cat most enjoyed his independence; he loved to walk by himself in the woods.

But this cat has his sociable side; he was interested in the lives of the other animals, and he felt a pang whenever one of his friends—the wild dog, the wild horse, and the wild cow—left him to become tame and to live with the cave man and his wife. Nevertheless, he spurned domestication; he preferred to walk by himself.

In time, however, the cat weakened; he grew tired of his proud solitude and finally found himself a place in the cave close to the fire that had been waiting for him all along. Then he was content.

Told by Rudyard Kipling, this story is a parable of life. Born into a loving family, a child grows up among people who care for him and look out for his welfare.

Then, as time goes on, the child outlives his parents; the friends of his youth move away, and he is left to walk in the woods alone.

But all the while he walks, there is a bright fire burning, and at any time he can go to it and draw warmth from it. For always surrounding him, always ready to give him comfort, is the love of God.

Rev. Donald L. Hessler

Former Lake Orion Man Describes Mission Work

LAKE ORION—More than 2,000 people a year in Middle America are being aided by a community welfare and social service project operated by the Rev. Donald L. Hessler, formerly of Lake Orion.

Father Hessler, the son of Robert C. Hessler of 452 Shadbolt, Lake Orion is pastor of St. Joachim, a Maryknoll mission in southern Mexico.

The 3,500 people who live in his area earn a precarious livelihood through farming, wood cutting and gathering chicle. Unemployment is extensive. Health conditions are poor with a high rate of malaria and malnutrition.

In the field of education Father Hessler has started a training school for girls which provides instruction for religious life, social activity and recreation.

The credit union of Father Hessler's parish conducts an adult education program for 350 yearly participants. The project also sponsors vocational training courses in mechanics, electricity, agriculture and art.

To combat disease and poor diets, Father Hessler has organized an extensive program of health services. More than 700 people are treated each year in the project's dispensary.

A 45,000 gallon reservoir constructed by the project provides pure water for all the people of the region.

Recreational facilities developed by Father Hessler include a library, folk dancing programs, parish festivals and training in sports which attract more than 100 participants.

"Every person in the area has been served by the project to some degree, with about half receiving particular benefits, says Father Hessler.

The project has raised the general moral and cultural tone of the community and has aroused new interest in vegetable growing, general farming mechanization and Christian recreation, according to Father Hessler.

A graduate of Lake Orion High School, Father Hessler attended Sacred Heart Seminary in Detroit before entering Maryknoll in 1934. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1939 and served with missions in China that year.

After World War II he served with missions in Hawaii before being assigned to his present post.

Two twin copper sheets, rolled scrollwise, and containing statutes and laws of the Essenes, were unearthed in a cave in Judea by Father Roland de Vaux, director of the Dominican Archeological school. The Essenes were a sect of pre-Christian Jews.

Adventists Plan for Disaster Aid

Denomination Readying to Care for Casualties in Emergency

By Religious News Service

WASHINGTON, D. C. — "Every church a disaster relief station and every member trained in first aid and casualty care," is the pledge made by leaders of the Seventh-day Adventist denomination to federal civil defense officials here.

A two-day meeting of Adventist regional leaders heard Civil Defense Administrator Val Peterson praise the denomination for what it has already done to create relief centers, stockpile bandages and civil defense supplies, prepare home disaster kits, and encourage members to donate blood to hospital blood banks.

"These are all measures which will help save lives and relieve suffering in any emergency," he said, "whether it comes from enemy attack or natural disaster."

Dr. Wayne McFarland, director of the denomination's first aid activities, told the meeting, "It is the Church's duty to be prepared constantly for any community need."

He reported that 18,000 Adventists have completed first aid courses, and more than 1,000 of these have volunteered as instructors. The Church plans to train at least 10,000 of its members a year in Red Cross-approved courses, Dr. McFarland added.

"This is one way churches can demonstrate their gratitude toward a government which grants freedom of worship," he said.

Church Should Send Foods Overseas

By Religious News Service

WASHINGTON, D.C.—American churches ought to be doing more to distribute surplus American farm commodities to hungry people overseas, a seminar on the Christian Farmer and National Problems sponsored by the National Council of Churches was told here.

The Rev. Clyde Rogers, Columbus, Ohio, director of the department of town and country life of the Ohio Council of Churches, made the plea and subsequently testified before the House Agriculture Committee in a similar vein.

Pointing to the large stockpile of food which the government is building up under its price support operations, Mr. Rogers said churches have not fully availed themselves of that portion which has been offered to them free of charge.

He said transportation and distribution costs have been higher than church groups expected but the food is still a bargain and could do much good overseas. The clergyman urged that all the surplus food be made available to religious agencies.

Priest Launches Campaign to Aid City's Homeless

By Religious News Service

PARIS—A Roman Catholic priest who doubles as a garbage collector has sparked a successful campaign to save the homeless in Paris from freezing to death in Europe's worst winter in seven years.

Father Pierre Groues made a radio appeal for warm clothing, emergency shelters and trucks to round up the men and women who sleep on park benches and under this city's famous bridges on the icy quais of the Seine.

His appeal quickly stirred the public conscience and touched off the biggest charitable effort Paris has known.

City officials ordered subway stations, which normally close soon after midnight, to remain open all night. Public buildings throughout the city were opened as emergency shelters.

Confident Living

Peace of Mind Achieved Through 'Creative Silence'

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

I know a man who has a reputation for driving energy.

Outstanding in his business, he carries a great many heavy responsibilities and is active in a wide variety of social, religious and civic organizations. His schedule is so crowded that he scarcely has a free moment.

DR. PEALE

Yet this man carries his demanding program of activities with an ease and effectiveness that is most impressive. You would imagine that this pressure would cause him to lose his enthusiasm and perhaps even his health. But he carries it all lightly — at least, so it seems to me.

I became curious as to his technique for doing this and, one day, I asked him about it. "Oh, it's really very simple," he told me. "I just make a point of beginning and ending my day calmly. Once you have learned how to do that, you can handle all the busy time in between without any trouble."

'Exactly how do you begin your day calmly?" I persisted.

He answered by explaining that he spends 15 minutes each morning in what he calls "creative silence." He and his wife go into their living room and simply sit in silence for 15 minutes.

"We do nothing. We don't speak but remain silent. If the telephone or doorbell ring, we just let them ring. We devote this time to communing with God and in drawing power out of silence."

As he spoke, I remembered going to a Quaker meeting once and, in the silence there, which was somewhat new and strange to me, finding a solution to a problem of my own. Thomas Carlyle once wrote, "Silence is the element in which great things fashion themselves." And William James pointed out "that man's silence is equal in importance to his word power."

My friend then told me about ending his day. After saying his prayers and getting into bed he quotes various Bible passages such as "For so he giveth his beloved sleep." Passages like these, he said enable him to have the peaceful rest from which he draws the many demands he makes upon driving energy needed to meet the himself.

Among other passages he finds helpful in inducing natural and relaxing sleep are three more from the Bible:

"Come unto me all that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest."

"Thou will keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on Thee."

"In quietness and in confidence shall be your strength." These quieting passages he "drops" into his consciousness and thus he ends the day with deep calmness.

This man needs no sleeping pills, no tricks to induce sleep. He has found in the Bible the serenity that brings the sweetest kind of rest.

He bridges the gap between his morning periods of silence and the prayerful thoughts that bring him sleep by recalling statements he has read which have helped him. One is from Confucius, "The superior man is always quiet and calm." That remark carries with it the ageless wisdon of mankind.

Another is from Robert Louis Stevenson, who said, "Sit loosely in the saddle of life." And a third comes from a poem by Edwin Markham and describes the fundamental source of power, "At the heart of the cyclone tearing the sky is a place of central calm." That is to say that power comes from a calm center.

I recommend this man's technique to you. Begin your day calmly, end it calmly. Bridge the gap between with great thoughts, and you will find power and force. This is the real art of living for out of peace comes power, and out of quietness comes confidence.

"In quietness and in confidence shall be your strength."

Officers Named by Golden Rule

Foundation Headed by Dr. Daniel A. Poling of Christian Herald

By Religious News Service

NEW YORK — Dr. Daniel A. Poling, editor of the Christian Herald and president of the World's Christian Endeavor Union, was elected chairman of the board of trustees of the Golden Rule Foundation here.

The foundation was created in 1929 as a non-sectarian philanthothropic organization to "encourage people throughout the world to practice the Golden Rule in their daily lives."

Also elected board members were Msgr. Cornelius J. Drew of St. Charles Borromeo Roman Catholic Church; Robert L. Lloyd an officer of the American Maize Products Co., and Guichard Parris, an official of the Urban League, all of New York.

Mrs. Ethlyn Wisegarver Bott of Belleville, Ill., named last April by the foundation as American Mother of 1953, was a principal speaker at the annual meeting.

Other speakers were Mrs. Harold V. Milligan, president of the foundation, and Dr. John V. Connorton, recently appointed deputy administrator of the city of New York.

Pius' Housekeeper Falls, Suffers Fractured Leg

By Religious News Service

ROME — Sister Pasqualina, housekeeper to Pope Pius XII for over 36 years, tripped and suffered a fractured leg while carrying on her duties in the Papal apartments.

The accident temporarily deprived the Pontiff of the person who knows more about his personal habits, health and general welfare than anyone else in the world.

German-born Sister Pasqualina, as director of the Pope's domestic staff, looks after his wardrobe, personally supervises the serving of his meals and acts as his special and private almoner.

She began working for Pope Pius when he was Archbishop Eugenio Pacelli, Papal Nuncio to Bavaria.

MRS. BEULAH WHITBY

Teacher to Talk at New Bethel

Mrs. Beulah T. Whitby to Tell of Negro Women in U. S. History

Guest speaker at New Bethel Baptist Church Sunday at 3 p. m. will be Mrs. Beulah T. Whitby of Detroit. Her subject will be "Negro Women in American History." She is sponsored by the Ladies Club of the church, of which Leeatrice Stewart is president.

The Ladies Club meets twice a month and has a membership of 25 women. Their main object is the advancement of the community and church.

Mrs. Whitby is a graduate of Oberlin College in Ohio with a degree in social work from the University of Michigan and a certificate from the New York School of Social Work.

She is an instructor at Wayne University in the Graduate School of Social Work. For several years she was employed by the Department of Public Welfare in Detroit. During the war she obtained a leave of absence and served as executive secretary of the Emergency Welfare and Evacuation Service of the Office of Civilian Defense.

Jane Russell Severs With Hughes' Studio

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Jane Russell has declared her independence and signed up for what could be the best role of her career.

The beauteous brunette was swimming under water in the RKO tank when I saw her this week. She doesn't aim to rival Esther Williams; this was the windup sequence underwater for "The Big Rainbow." She came out of the water, shed her breathing tank, swim fins and goggles and announced she had also disposed of her 13-year connection with Howard Hughes.

As of now, she is a free agent, although she might sign a one-picture-a-year deal with RKO. She has some strange fear she will not be able to find work. Silly girl.

She is all set to go into one of the leads of "Guys and Dolls," which William Goetz will produce for a Columbia release. Her leading man will be none other than Clark Gable. Betty Grable will play Miss Adelaide and another top star is destined for the role of Nathan Detroit. Bob Hope maybe.

"But the interesting part is that my husband will follow Bill Goetz around like a bird dog during the production, asking him why he does this and why he does that," she added. Her husband is Robert Waterfield, formerly of pro football. The reason for his apprenticeship is that the Waterfields have formed their own production company, Russ-Field.

Anxious Jane is hunting for another picture to do before she starts "Guys and Dolls." It could be "The Long Wire" with John Wayne.

Gilbert Roland, Jane's co-star in "The Big Rainbow," also has plans of his own. He is anxious to begin work on "Blood on the Horns," the story of his bullfighting father. He already has a script from Niven Busch, who wrote "Duel in the Sun."

"Busch picked up a copy of my treatment in my agent's office," Roland relates. "He fell in love with the story and did a great script. The story has never been told before—how the life of a bullfighter affects his wife and children. I plant to shoot it this summer outside of Mexico City.

"I would love to have Ingrid Bergman play the role of my mother, and I'm going to try to get her. I think she'd be great. She played a Spaniard in "For Whom the Bell Tolls' and she was never better."

The trouble with that idea is that if he got Bergman he would probably have to take Roberto Rossellini as director. It doesn't seem likely that the deal will go through.

Television Fans Familiar With Richard Hayes Voice

NEW YORK — Richard Hayes, popular vocalist of television's "Jack Paar Show," has been in show business for 15 of his 24 years.

The dark-haired, quiet-mannered vocalist might have gone classical but, in a hurry to push ahead with a singing career, he passed up a Juilliard School of Music scholarship after graduating from Boys High in Brooklyn.

Jayes started chalking up professional credits at the age of nine, on a children's radio program, and at 16 was performing on television, too.

After graduation from high school, Hayes joined Teddy Phillips' band as a vocalist and toured for a while. Returning to New York, he went on "Arthur Godfrey's Talent Scouts." As a direct result of winning on the Godfrey show, Hayes was signed as a recording artist.

His popularity soared and he became a familiar face to television fans. He was a regular on television's "Songs for Sale," and has guest starred several times on Ed Sullivan's "Toast of the Town," and other shows.

Seeks Solution to Plant Dispute

Defense Contract Panel Hoping to Aid Detroit Area Unemployed

DETROIT (AP)—The reactivated Governor's Emergency Defense Contracts Commission is going to take a crack at settling an armed forces plant dispute in the hopes of getting some of Michigan's 176,000 unemployed back to work.

The 12 members of the commission got together in Detroit yesterday for the first time in two years in an effort to alleviate Michigan unemployment.

The commission plans to look into arguments between the Army, Navy and Air Force which have reportedly prevented leasing of Michigan plants.

The Navy has withheld a Macomb County plant from the Army, which wants to use it to turn out guided missiles. The plant was built to construct Navy jet engines.

A plant at Romulus, also built to turn out navy jet engines, is wanted by a contractor for the Air Force.

Part of the Macomb plant has been used by the Chrysler Corp. since January, 1953, to complete an Army contract. The Army wants to increase the work at the plant, but Chrysler has been unable to get the additional space, although only one-third of the plant is now being used.

Sources in Washington say that Curtiss-Wright wants to take over the Romulus plant to produce jet engines for the air force. The Navy now uses the plant to store machines.

The commission said it feels that putting these plants into full operation would solve at least part of the unemployment problem.

45th Stages Farewell for Returning GIs

SEOUL (AP)—The U. S. 45th Division, an Oklahoma National Guard outfit, staged a huge farewell parade today for soldiers returning to the United States.

The 45th is the first American division to leave Korea permanently since the start of the war. But only about 1,000 men normally scheduled for rotation will carry the division flag and colors back to Oklahoma—for rest will be assigned to other American units here.

The 45th is the first of two divisions President Eisenhower announced last month would be withdrawn from Korea. The 40th, a California National Guard division, will return late this spring.

4th Grade Teachers Meet Author of New Textbook

Pontiac Public Schools' fourth grade teachers gathered at the Wisner School Thursday afternoon to meet the author of a new textbook, "Exploring Michigan," which they'll use in spring classes.

The author, Mrs. A. L. (Delphine) Newcomb, of Lone Pine Court, Bloomfield Hills, said the tea was "the nicest experience that working on the book has brought me."

Gerald White, the school system's elementary cirriculum coordinator, acted as chairman of the program. The Wisner PTA supplied refreshments.

"The school system has bought 700 of these books," White said, "so each teacher will have half as many as she has students.

"We all know what a desperate need there has been for a social studies book on Michigan that fourth graders can use — and this certainly fills the bill."

Mrs. Newcomb, a native of Philadelphia, told how Michigan stirred her interest when she came here some years ago.

"The more I read the more I became interested in the wonderful story of this state," she said, "and I realized there wasn't very much material on it for youngsters to read."

That was when she gathered together a few stories about Michigan, bunched them in a folder and sent them to a publishing company.

Later, in an interview, she was asked if she'd like to do a social studies book on Michigan. She agreed to try, and "exploring Michigan" is the result of that effort.

"I discovered what the teachers in our public schools, private schools, country scholls and city schools wanted was a book that began at the beginning — with the Indians — and went right through to today," she said, "one that even slow fourth graders could read.

"This book stresses people—for people built every one of our great states and it tells how they lived, what they ate, what they did.

"Whatever's in it and whatever's not," she said, "my heart's in it."

Coffee Broker Submits Lists

Gives Senators Data on Trading in Futures During Recent Months

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Beall (R-Md) said today one New York coffee broker has supplied investigating senators with a complete list of all trades and traders in coffee futures contracts of recent months.

Beall is chairman of a Senate banking subcommittee looking into the jump in coffee prices. He said the group will wait "a week or ten days" to enable other coffee brokers to supply similar lists on a voluntary basis. He has said subpoenas will be used if necessary to get the information.

The next public testimony, Beall said, will be by large buyers of coffee such as chain stores and other retailers.

Gustavo Lobo Jr., president of the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange, has urged all members to supply lists of all transactions and lists of customers.

He said member firms are "anxious to have the public know the facts and to disprove some of the erroneous statements."

Senators agreed not to publish names of customers and their trading in coffee unless they discover "something out of line."

Beall said he would not make public at this time the name of the first broker to cooperate.

This week the Senate approved a bill that would impose government regulation and supervision of all coffee futures trading by the Commodity Exchange Administration, an agency of the Agriculture Department.

House members plan committee consideration of this bill during the coming week.

Same Women, Same Room, Same Reason

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Two young women were roommates in the hospital when their first babies were born on the same day 18 months ago. The hospital disclosed yesterday that they were roommates again when their second babies were born on the same day.

The mothers are Mrs. Charles R. Salmon, 23, Pasadena and Mrs. Robert S. Woodford, 30, Altadena. Pasadena and Altadena are adjoining communities.

Mrs. Salmon's first child was a son, John. Her second also was a boy, Stephen. Mrs. Woodford's first baby was a daughter, Mary, and her second also was a girl, Betsy.

Mrs. Salmon and Mrs. Woodford had never met until they occupied room 427 together the first time, 18 months go.

Yes, it was room 427 again this time, too.

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Postman Jack Eldridge hit a mailman's jackpot yesterday.

As he delivered his mail, he found a present in nearly every box. Neighbors learnd Eldridge and his wife were expecting their first child and decided to surprise their friendly postman.

Robin Chandler Likes TV Work

Is Now on 'Meet Your Cover Girl' Show but Was With Powers

NEW YORK — Robin Chandler, who graces the panel of "Leave It to the Girls" was once characterized by model agency man John Robert Powers as "one of the loveliest and brightest of his long-stemmed beauties."

Before she became a star of "Meet Your Cover Girl" and a guest on Leave It to the Girls and many other shows, she had devoted herself almost exclusively to writing, posing, counseling and discussing fashions.

Miss Chandler, who contends that any woman who knows how to make the most of herself can create the illusion of beauty, is a slim, natural blonde.

She was interested in the fashion business even at Notre Dame Convent and Miss Miller's School for Girls in her native Baltimore.

Her first job when she came to New York was with a cosmetic firm. Then she branched off in her chosen field as assistant to the director of the World of Fashion at the New York World Fair.

She received offers of modeling jobs but "I was always better behind a desk," she explains. She found a satisfactory desk to sit behind for six years, as assistant director of the John Robert Powers Model Agency.

She helped Powers pick models for his school, hired models, advised models and traveled through the country, opening and teaching at several new branch schools.

It was about this time that a handsome young motion picture actor named Jeffrey Lynn came into her life. In 1946 they were married and moved to Hollywood.

While her husband was in the movies, Miss Chandler made California her home. They lived for several years on the ranch of Hollywood designer Adrian and his wife, Janet Gaynor, two of their closest friends.

In 1951, the Lynns moved back to New York with two additions to the family, Jeffrey Jr., age 5, and Letitia (called Tish), 3½. Jeffrey Lynn Sr. returned to the stage and Robin Chandler to television.

She likes being on television, because she thinks television is "folksy."

"My program and the little bits of beauty and home advice that I give seem to make friends for me," she says. "I receive dozens of letters from women, telling me about their homes and their babies, and how hard it is to be a glamor girl and a housewife, and isn't it awful about prices of food and clothes going to high?

"This isn't glamor, but it's real and I like it. It is real homespun stuff."

Ticket Taker Found Dying by Patrolmen

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Mrs. Fay Shelton, ticket-taker in the Bay Bridge train station on Yerba Buena Island in the middle of San Francisco Bay, was found dying in her booth last night, apparently the victim of a bandit.

The middle-aged woman's limp form, huddled in a pool of blood, was found by California highway patrolmen checking her whereabouts for her employe, the Key System Transit Lines.

She died without recovering consciousness at the nearby Treasure Island Naval Station Dispensary. San Francisco homicide inspectors said she had been shot and her receipts taken.

Boy Topples From Wall, Impales Self on Fence

PUEBLO, Colo. (AP)—A 10-year-old boy who toppled from a wall and impaled himself on an iron picket fence was recovering early today from shock and loss of blood.

Jack Slate, only son of widowed Mrs. Myrlin Slate, managed to free himself and crawled to the home of a neighbor yesterday.

Hospital officials said the fifth grader was given blood transfusions which restored his strength. A jagged leg wound and severed artery were expected to heal.

Expense Accounts to Be Scrutinized

NEW YORK (INS)—Lush expense accounts deducted from income tax returns will be in for a rough time this year, declares T. Coleman Andrews, U. S. Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Andrews outlines "Operation Scoop"—the house-to-house canvass by revenue agents aimed at snaring the 3 per cent of crooked Americans who annually cheat the government out of billions of dollars.

If they could all be caught, Coleman says, it could mean that "each of us would pay an average of $250 less in taxes a year."

Wintertime Reds Continue to Blaze for Spring

One of the most dramatic gowns for spring formal wear is this tulip red hand run Alencon lace. Built over many layers of petticoats, the skirt will sweep in a queenly manner through doorways, both modern and traditional. Worn with the gown are pink gloves and rhinestone jewelery.

This mushroom pleated chiffon dress is in tulip red, too. Black accessories are excellent for this dress with neckline interest. The softly folded cowl at the front descends to nearly waistline depth ending in a big soft bow.

Tulip Hue, Orange Ice Spark Styles

Azalea Color Captures Dixie Spirit

The winter red colors which pick up many a dark day, giving a lift to the distaff side, are being carried over into spring.

You'll certainly think of "Gone With the Wind" or fancy yourself living in one of the antebellum homes about Natchez when you see the bright spring formals with their lowcut necklines, tiny Scarlet O'Hara waists, and wide, wide skirts.

Pink dominates as queen of the pale colors which will be seen very early this spring. These colors are coming early because of the late Easter, designers report.

Basic colors for coats and suits are beige, gray and navy. In every designer's collection, sharp black and white contrasts are noted. Large and small pique collars and cuffs are shown on many dresses and suits.

Spring of 1954 is the biggest print year in decades. Punctuated with lots of white space, these patterned dresses take on a newly refreshing and airy look. Opposite, in dense, dark clustered masses, they take on fool-the-eye depth.

Fruits, dots, reptile markings, bright-hued carnation clusters and florals of all types, grape bunches and turquoise butterflies in flight are just some of the designs that make conversation prints.

The brilliant colors, definitely here to stay, would not be so exciting were it not for the beautifully mixed fabrics. The thread of silk is through everything for spring. It is mixed with woolens, with worsted, with alpaca, mohair, cotton, linen and almost any fabric to give sheen and beauty.

This is the season when every woman can be beautifully dressed—and all eyes will be upon her in the Easter parade.

Your Neighbor's House

Arthur Rosenthal Home Achieves Dignity Yet Possesses Friendliness and Warmth

By HAZEL A. TRUMBLE

The Arthur Rosenthals of 210 Ottawa Drive have a new home that promises to transcend many eras of changes in house architectural design.

Relying upon simplicity, spaciousness, beauty of coloring and materials, the Rosenthals have been able to achieve their goal — a dignified, yet warm and friendly home.

Their house plan, besides the living room and den, includes a family-sized dining room, downstairs bedroom wing with master bedroom and a combination bathroom and dressing room with a kitchen and dining area.

Centering the house, a seven-foot wide reception hall features a concealed stairway. Two upstairs bedrooms and closets are accessible from this stairway without going through the other rooms of the house.

"I have always wanted a wide reception hall. It gives an atmosphere of spaciousness when people first enter a house," said Mrs. Rosenthal, whose many ideas were put into the home design by Herbert and Francis Schmidt of Detroit.

Papered in a textured grass paper, gold and tiny flecks of black and white are the colors in the wall covering of this hallway. Two white leather chairs with ebony framework flank an ebony chest against one wall.

Both the entire first floor and the upstairs are carpeted in gray-beige twist.

Living room wall colors are a gray-beige with accent colors in deep tan, blue and gold with white block printed draperies.

Two green button-back chairs give additional color tone to the room and an Italian marble fronted fireplace has the same stone in its hearth.

The other front-of-the-house room, the den, has walls of wide birch panels. One wall of built-in bookcases has a center section recessed for a brown leather davenport. Other room furnishings are in this same leather.

An oil painting done by a member of the Rosenthal family is a study of a man and his pipe. It provides the color key for the room.

Cameo pink tile covers all the counter tops and cupboard wall sections of the kitchen. Cupboard doors are in natural rubbed birch. Pass-through area between the kitchen and dinette is also covered with the pink tile.

Turquoise chintz draperies in the dinette section match the seats of a pair of wrought iron chairs. A leaf-on-leaf designed wallpaper in three shades of brown and beige covers the end wall overlooking the terraced backyard.

Black and white marble tile floors the sunroom which has three walls of windows with split bamboo draperies covering the glass sections.

Gray and pink tiles the combination bathroom and dressing room.

The other bedroom is in olive green with terra cotta and yellow for accent colors.

ROSENTHAL HOME FEATURES SIMPLE ELEGANCE—Beige brick and white trim with a lace-like frame of grill work around the front door greets the caller at the Arthur Rosenthal home, 210 Ottawa drive. Designed by Herbert and Francis Schmidt of Detroit, the Rosenthals have achieved a style home that will be outstanding in any changing architectural era. Floor plan includes a living room, seven foot wide reception hallway, den, bedroom wing, dining room, kitchen and dinette combination and sunroom. There is a two-car garage attached to the house which is accessible without going outdoors. The upstairs has two large bedrooms, each with its matching bathroom, and a sizable cedar-lined closet. Upper dormer of the house has an exterior of cedar shingles.

New Products Ease Painting Galvanized Iron

The great progress that has recently been made in methods of painting metal can be attributed to the scientific discoveries regarding the cause and prevention of rust.

The home owner's problem of painting galvanized metal surfaces, for instance, has been solved by the production of a galvanized metal primer which contains zinc dust.

In the past, much difficulty was encountered. The usual coating materials would not adhere to galvanized surfaces because of the chemical reaction between the shiny zinc skin covering the iron and the vehicle found in ordinary paints.

While vinegar or a copper sulfate solution was sometimes applied to etch the surface and improve adhesion, neither was thoroughly satisfactory.

All the surface preparation that is now necessary before applying the new primer to new galvanized surfaces is to remove the oil and grease deposited at the factory by a thorough cleaning with paint thinner.

Well-weathered galvanized surfaces need only soap and water and a clear water rinse. Rusted areas should, naturally, be sanded carefully.

CHINESE MING PATTERNS DINING WALLPAPER—A family sized dining room, the upper portion of the walls portrays a Chinese countryside scene of the Ming era. Again the warm tones of brown and beige are highlighted with turquoise. This latter color is used for covers on the dining room chairs. Opening from this room is the sun porch a few steps down from the dining room. In the summer time the double doors open to reveal one large room.

TERRA COTTA, BEIGE BEDROOM COLOR TONES—One wing of the Rosenthal house features the master bedroom and a combination bathroom and dressing room. Hallway entrance to this wing has one full wall of floor-to-ceiling guest closets and these walls and closet doors are painted the same beige-gray as the rest of the first floor rooms. Bedroom color notes are in the terra cotta tailored and scalloped coverlets for beds and the beige textured silk bed skirts. Beige silk gauze draperies are used at the windows. Bathroom and dressing room section having one full mirrored wall. Silver and pink print paper covers the upper portion of dressing area wall.

BIRCH DOORS AND PINK TILE—The Rosenthal kitchen is designed for ease of care and convenience in meal preparation. Counters and part of the cupboard walls are in cameo pink tile. Birch polished so that its natural grain is visible is the wood used in the cupboard doors. Floor is in a beige and brown tile with the dinette area, visible at one end of the room, featuring one wall papered in leaf-on-leaf tones of beige and brown. Turquoise fabric upholsters two wrought iron chairs and the chintz draperies are in turquoise.

New Way of Living Adds Home Beauty

Television and the shortened work week are having a marked influence on home decoration. Television has played a great part in again making the home the center of family life and entertainment.

As a result, every member of the family is more aware of the appearance of the home.

Because the shortened work week has left more time for leisure pursuits, Mr. and Mrs. America are devoting more and more time and talent to repainting their homes, indoors and out, thus making them more beautiful and keeping them in better condition.

Finished Attics Add Room

To gain increased space for living, many families are finishing expansion attics. To insure comfort without excessive fuel bills, batts or blankets of mineral wool insulation may be installed in the average attic at no more than the cost of a good suit of clothes.

Details Add Up to Ideal Kitchen

Eight Useful Devices Give Space, Efficiency to Home's Main Room

Details make a fine kitchen, just as they do fine tailored clothes.

Unlike clothing, however, a kitchen can be tailored to the homemaker's special needs at any time. Whether it is five years or 20 makes no difference. Details that will add to its comfort and convenience can be installed in it Whenever time and budget permit. Here are eight such features:

1. Lazy susan shelves in space that is wasted where cabinets meet in a corner. Several square feet of good space is lost in these corner areas in old kitchens. A "merry-go-round" shelf arrangement will put it in use.

2. Washable walls over range. A method of installing grease- and water-proof clay tile directly over old plaster greatly simplifies this remodeling project. The tiled surface can be cleaned easily and will never need redecorating.

3. Sliding cabinet doors. If the members of your family are always running into open wall cabinet doors, by all means replace them with the modern sliding type.

4. Shelves between shelves. More than a third of all storage space in older wall cabinets is lost because shelves are so far apart. Step-up shelves that will hold dishes, glassware and small cans can be installed easily by the home owner.

5. Specialized storage. Few old —or for that matter, new—kitchens have the right storage space for trays, platters and saucepan covers. It has to be built to order for each family.

6. Waterproof drainboards. Drainboard materials that loosen and wear out near the sink edge are both unsanitary and unsightly. One of the best materials for replacing them is waterproof tile, which is both durable and colorfast.

7. Ventilated drawers for vegetables. Paper bags may be the most satisfactory thing to buy potatoes and onions in, but most housewives would agree that they are a nuisance for storage. Ventilated drawers are the best answer.

8. A kitchen office. It may not be much larger than a postage stamp, but every housewife needs a place in the kitchen to make out shopping lists and menus.

Manufacturer Markets Flagstone Shaped Asphalt

The do-it-youreself mania for fixing up houses is making a sort of super-scout out of the home handyman, keeping him constantly on the lookout for new materials, new ideas. And such new things keep turning up to make bids for that part of the family budget we thought was earmarked for something else.

Just to dip into a few of the most recent developments, did you know that you now get exact color matches in all types of paint—whether for masonry, woodwork, plastered walls or wallpaper, ceilings, metal work—any place you'd use paint.

Did you know you can get acoustical tile to silence the youngsters' basement rough-house room—or any other room—in fancy patterns without holes punched in the material?

And if you'd like something different from squares in asphalt tile for floors, you can now get asphalt tiles in irregular flagstone shapes that fit together in varicolored patterns like a jig-saw puzzle. Imagine using your entire basement floor to work out a jig-saw puzzle!

The paint mixing formula is the newest development in using tubes of colors to duplicate the exact color you start out with. This privilege is now extended to all types of paint products, whether oil, rubber, alkyd, or varnish base.

This is known as the Key-tint color system. It solves a problem that has baffled he paint industry for years—that of producing a single color system to match shades in all types of paint for all surfaces.

If you ever tried to mix colors for both masonry foundation and wood siding, with maybe some enamel for trim, you know how the same apparent color turns out different when the various paints dry on different surfaces.

This problem has now been chemically solved. Even a porch floor can be made to match flat paint on wood or semi-gloss on trim. Even a refrigerator can match wood cabinets, papered walls or plastered ceilings.

Speaking of ceilings, a new noncombustible acoustical tile is now made out of fiber glass. Full of grooves, or striations as the designers call such ribbing, these 12 by 12-inch and 12 by 24-inch panels are called stria tiles.

They are rated to have a noise reduction coefficient up to 80 per cent and can reflect more than 75 per cent of the light striking them.

Composed of fine fibers of glass, compressed into boards, these tiles trap sound waves in their highly porous surfaces. They can be spray painted as many as eight times with a non-bridging water base paint without affecting their noise reducing efficiency.

About the niftiest development in floor coverings is the jig-saw flagstone idea, breaking away from conventional squared patterns.

With all the new types of floor tile on the market—vinyl, vinyl asbestos, and what not—manufacturers have out-puzzled all crossword puzzlers with fancy and attractive patterns.

It's really amazing, the striking effects you can get beyond the simple checkboard pattern. Ask your floor covering dealer to show your some.

But it took one of the oldest and best known producers of linoleum and cork flooring to come up with the flagstone idea.

First you install a row of what they call grids. Then all odd shaped tiles are fitted into the proper openings. Tiles along all sides of the grids interlock with the adjoining jig-saw tiles and adjoining grids.

The pattern repeats itself every 18 inches. But the whole thing looks like a jig-saw puzzle.

Flagstone asphalt tile is available in three color schemes combining plain, straight grain and swirl marbleized units.

Homemade Bank Teaches Thrift to Juvenile Set

Here is a bank which can be turned out on a home workshop lathe in a single evening.

As shown in the diagram, the piggy bank is basically egg-shaped, with an over-all length of four inches and a diameter of three inches. A good block of maple can be easily worked.

The two front legs are ⅝-inch by 1⅜ and fit in hole drilled in the body. The back legs are cut to conform to the curve of the body and are nailed and glued in place, as shown.

Finishing of the project offers several opportunities for humorous touches. The eyes, for example, will bulge prominently if white map tacks are used, and a brass ring can easily be inserted in the nose. Incidentally, an ordinary pipe cleaner makes a good twisted tail for the pig.

Stains Highlight Natural Grain

Permit More of Wood to Show, Staining House Exteriors

More wood, with natural grain visible through soft color tints, will be showing in 1954 house exteriors.

Builders have made wide use of such finishes on ranch-type houses and are now applying them to other wood sided houses, according to the National Lumber Manufacturers Association.

By using pigmented stains in recently developed soft tones, the builder can achieve a distinctive and pleasing appearance for many styles of house, the NLMA said.

"In a home building year that is already recognized as highly competitive, the use of pigmented stains has special attraction for both builders and home-buyers," Leo V. Bodine, Executive Vice President of NLMA, said. "These stains are usually less expensive than good house paint, and require no special priming or preparation of the wood surface. They may be readily brushed or sprayed on rought-sawed wood and shingles as well as on surfaced wood siding."

"The home buyer is receptive to the stain finish because the 'do-it-yourself' trend has brought with it a demand for durable finishes which can be easily and quickly applied by the home handyman who lacks the training and skill of the professional painter. The absence of brush marks in the penetratirig stain finish and the ease with which it can be brushed or sprayed have a practical appeal to the buyer who thinks ahead to the time when the house will need refinishing."

Pigmented stains are thin paints in which the amount of coloring pigment has been reduced to help absorption of the finish beneath the wood surface. Available with linseed oil or creosote oil vehicles, they provide a uniform color but do not hide the grain and texture of the wood.

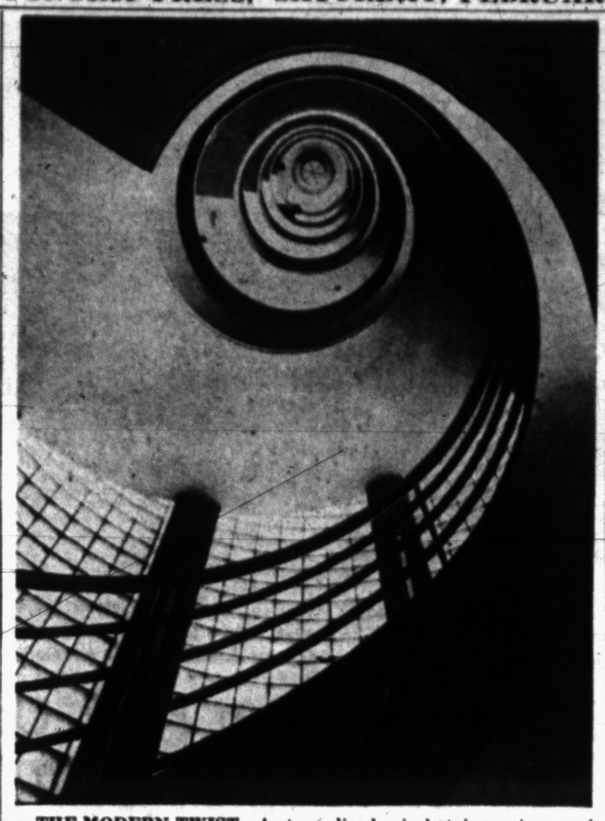
Originally available only in shades of red, brown or green, pigmented stains may now be obtained in such hues as Monterey blue, seafoam, chamois, mimosa yellow, hacienda gray, beachwood, old Virginia white, and many other shades with modern appeal.

"It is well known that stain finishes permit any moisture that may get into a wall to escape to the outside," Mr. Bodine pointed out. This eliminates moisture blistering or peeling.

"Yet, this non-blistering property should not be construed to lessen the importance of the ordinary safeguards taken by builders to keep moisture out of walls, such as provision of vapor seal and moisture barrier placement," Mr. Bodine said. "The advantage of the pigmented stains is that they assure there will be no moisture blistering of the finish if the vapor seal is accidentally punctured or if water from a hard rainstorm gets in back of the siding."

Furniture Getting Fancy

Look for more "dressed up" Colonial and Early American furniture. For added beauty more detailing, such as reeded posts, has been incorporated in the design of many Early American pieces. Finishes on this style of furniture will be the ruddier shades.



THE MODERN TWIST—A streamlined spiral staircase in a modern Berlin office building offers an interesting pattern, as viewed from the ground floor. Two interested visitors pause midway on the spiral structure to peer down at the scene below.

California Home Styling Adapted for Winter Living

Gracious living in the California manner strikes the major theme in the contemporary-type home being displayed to the public by Style-Rite Homes Inc., in Lone Pine Village Sunday.

"The indoors living area moves to the outdoors in the summer, and the spaciousness of the home contributes to a feeling of true outdoor living all year long," according to Gordon Miller, head of the firm.

Situated in the middle of an unusually large lot, 220 feet wide, the trim home's exterior is constructed of Roman Face brick, with gleaming California redwood panels.

The three bedrooms, all large, have sliding closet doors and the master bedroom, containing nine feet of closet space, has its own separate bath with Hollywood-type shower stall.

Thermopane windows throughout give ample protection against winter blasts while a distinctive-type roofing, of marble chips and asphalt, lends attractiveness and good protection to the home.

Perhaps one of the most striking features of this model is the use of the basement as a "second story," which, complete with natural stone fireplace and large windows, gives the owner a perfectly-designed recreation room with no sacrifice to living space.

Oil hot air heat and air conditioning are other features. A two-car garage with lightweight aluminum overhead doors completes this modern California-style home, designed and built for cold Michigan winters.

Located at 4774 Keithdale, Lone Pine Village, the home is open for inspection from 1 to 6 p.m. Sunday and from 9 to 5 p.m. on week days.

California Home Goes on Display at Walled Lake

Public showing of the first model of a planned development of California contemporary homes has been announced by Robelle Realtors, Walled Lake.

Open house is planned for Saturday and Sunday, from 1 to 9 p.m., at the model located at Welch and Pontiac Trail, two miles east of Walled Lake

New Glues Ease Applying Plastics to Flat Surfaces

Now, thanks to the development of several new adhesives, any handy man can glue hard, laminated plastics to a smooth counter or table top.

They should, of course, follow the directions on the can. But here, in brief, are the steps required:

The top to which the hard-plastic sheet is applied must be perfectly clean and free of all paint, varnish and cement. The wood should be at least ¾-inch thick—preferably plywood because it is less likely to warp.

Cut the piece of plastic so it's slightly wider and longer than the top to be covered. Then apply the adhesive to the wood and the back of the plastic sheet with a notched spreader, and let it dry for about 45 minutes.

When the adhesive has set, trim off the overhanging edges of the plastic with a flat rasp. Use careful downward strokes. Then, if desired, apply an edge molding.

Wall Fixture Sheds Light on Cook Stove

Have you ever wondered why the built-in light on your kitchen range doesn't shed more light into pots and pans. Actually, your range light wasn't designed to help you see what's cooking but to help you see controls quickly and more accurately.

Mount the fixture above the range so that its lower edge is no more than 58 inches above the floor. This pre-tested recipe has been developed to give you just the light you'll need for faster, surer seeing.

Oil stains composed of a color pigment, linseed oil and turpentine, are easy to apply and are very suitable for furniture finishing.

Tom Paints With Flowers

Add Aluminum Powder to Paint for Wrought Iron

A little aluminum powder added to black paint will give a finish that really looks like wrought iron. Applied to such pieces as an iron railing, it won't have that jet-black look most ironwork has. Another mixture that gives equally good results is black paint and a small amount of aluminum paint.

Removing Old Paint Easier With Gadget

All you do is slide it over the paint with one hand while, with the other hand, you scrape off the blistered and softened paint left behind.

Many home owners use blow torches to remove paint, but, because of the fire danger, they aren't recommended unless there is no other solution.

Flow Coating on Beds Resists Liquid Damage

Manor House Reflects Mood of 18th Century

TALBOT COUNTY, Md.—Well over two centuries old, "Boston Cliff," Maryland's rare old manor house, near the Choptank, is today carefully maintained and richly furnished.

In the drawing room, the finely paneled fireplace wall has been painted a rich blue. On the other three white-coated walls, the woodwork — including the cornice and the dado—has been painted the same blue.

The well-kept floor is partially covered with a colorful rug in which deep tones of blue, rose and dull gold are combined. These same hues are repeated in the upholstery of the chairs and sofa and in the fabric that curtains the deep-set windows.

The gleam of the beautiful mahogany furniture further enriches the room, while the dull gold of the mirror frame above the fireplace and of other treasured antique accessories lends additional beauty.

Settlers Used Cedar

Cedar Offers Beauty

The moth-repellancy of cedar lined closets is just one of their several advantages, according to builders. Many home buyers prefer them for the added attractiveness and distinction they lend a home.

Final Touches Vital for Wood

Amateur Woodworkers Easily Distinguishable From Professionals

By HUBBARD COBB

One of the things that worries a lot of part time woodworkers is why when the project is finished does it look like something turned out by a part time woodworker.

This is especially annoying when all the various boards have been cut to the exact length and a good deal of care has been taken with the assembly.

Well, from what we have been able to oberve, the main difference between the finish work of a professional and an amateur is that the amateur forgets a lot of the little finishing touches.

Nails, for example, should always be set below the wood surface in finish work and the resulting hole filled with plastic wood or a filler.

The same holds true of wood screws but here a hole should be drilled into the wood so that the screw head can be set below the wood surface. Filler is later used to fill in this hole.

After this has been done you want to spend a little time sanding down the article in question. It's assumed, of course, that before the parts were assembled they were planed down to remove any rough spots or rough edges.

You'll find that where there is a good deal of wood to remove but not enough to warrant a plane, a cabinetmaker's rasp will do nicely until the surface is smooth enough to be finished off with sandpaper.

For most jobs you should start with a moderately coarse grade of sandpaper and work down through the finer grades until the surface feels perfectly smooth to the touch.

Remember in sanding to always sand in the direction of the wood grain. If you sand at right angles to the grain or around in circles you won't get very good results.

Before refinishing a floor with varnish, shellac or a penetrating sealer, be sure to chink all cracks and crevices with prepared filler.

Put Paint in Pail to Avoid Messes

Using Stretched Wire to Drain Off Brushes Eases Decorating

Many an amateur home decorator has found there's more to painting than meets the eye. After making a mess of himself and the surroundings, he wishes he'd never started the job!

And one of the most frequent causes of the novice painter's troubles is a sloppy paint bucket. Paint runs down the outside of the bucket, getting on hands or clothing, and the difficulties begin.

Many novice decorators have discovered they can avoid such a problem by rigging up a handy, no-mess paint pail. It's easily done by stretching a wire across the top of a clean galvanized steel pail, fastening the wire to the pail's handle attachments.

During the decorating, excess paint is removed from the brush by using the wire, not the edge of the pail, thus letting the paint drip back into the pail instead of running down the outside.

Such a pail is excellent for mixing a large quantity of paint, too. It is big enough to prevent spilling and eliminates the necessity of using more than one container for mixing the paint.

If one of the new rubber-base paints is utilized, it is easy to wash the pail clean with water. Oil-base paint can be removed from the pail by using a cloth moistened with turpentine.

In either case, the pail should be cleaned immediately after the painting has been finished and excess paint has been emptied back into the can.

Getting Stuck on Roads Brings Arrest in Capital

Wide bands of yellow paint applied near the tops of lamp posts in the nation's capital warn unprepared motorists to stay off 56 of the main highways when the roads are icy or snow-clogged.

If you venture onto these paint-marked roadways without chains or snow tires at such a time—and get stuck—you are subject to arrest.

Home Craftsmen Find Coffee Tables Fun to Plan, Make With Tiles

The do-it-yourself home craftsman has latched on to coffee tables as the easiest conversational piece to wrest kudos for home workmen. Old tables are being crowned with modern or gilt picture frames—old or new flush doors are anchored to wrought iron or the newer fashion shiny brass legs—old fireside benches are being fitted with marble slabs—any old small table may be fitted with plain or decorated tiles.

One such tile-topped table, created recently by artist Sylvia Robbin and her husband, used 25 tiles, paints to decorate. Total cost about $13.

Mrs. Robbin used a charming Persian design for the tiles, making her all-over design first on paper. She advises that pattern and colors are best chosen to blend in with furnishings, that if pattern forms a unit on the tiles (as hers did) they should be numbered on the back so they will fit into proper order when finished.

Her designs were sketched in pencil on unglazed tiles (which she believes easier to work with than glazed ties). After pencil sketching she used an undercoat as filler before the design was applied in color.

When finished and thoroughly dry (about a day) a coat of clear glaze was applied. She baked the tiles at 250 degrees in her kitchen oven for about an hour, according to directions on her color kit.

A frame was made to fit the tiles instead of cementing them directly to the table top. Half-inch plywood served as backing and molding was tacked around the edge after being mitered at a lumber yard. (If you have a mitering box, do your own.)

A black and gummy adhesive was dabbed under each tile. Tile cement was mixed to heavy cream consistency and placed carefully between tiles.

Several coats of spar varnish and alternate sandings gave the molding an attractive finish. Raw places on plywood were touched up with gold powder mixed with glaze.

Plain tiles are the easiest for unartistic tyros. One large design made from a stencil may be carried over the entire tile area for a charming effect, however. Or tiles may be decorated, alternating plain and patterned tiles in a simple design.

Northern Maple Qualities Unexcelled for Flooring

The Northern Hard or Rock Maple is common to our country from Maine to Minnesota. But in the region of the Great Lakes, it attains its highest perfection in quality timber, size and symmetry. It often reaches a diameter of three feet and rises 60 feet to its first limb. Industrial trees on fertile soil occasionally reach 120 feet in height.

Its slow growth packs the wood tightly and gives it a tough fibre and tight grain, making it strong and hard. The botanical name is Acer Saccharum.

Northern Hard Maple wood will take a high polish. It wears evenly, never shells, splinters or disintegrates from ordinary uses in any manner whatever. It is extremely durable.

The color of the heartwood is brownish and the sapwood which predominates, is much lighter. The structure is compact and the grain close—occasionally curly or birdseye.

Northern Hard Maple has ability to resist pointed pressure without abrasion. It is unexcelled for flooring and has two to three times the wearing ability of other woods commonly used for flooring.

Northern Hard Maple Flooring is manufactured exclusively from kiln dried lumber from the Northern region. It is laid in all spaces where a non-splintering, warm, smooth, light-reflecting and long-wearing resilient wood is the primary requirement. Maple will outwear stone—yet gives resilient footing.

Primers Slow Rust on Metal Surfaces

Zinc yellow is an effective rust inhibitor that is used widely as a primer for ferrous metals, aluminum, magnesium and aluminum-magnesium alloys.

Around the home, it can be used on any uncoated metal surfaces that are subject to rust. When a metal surface is being repainted and there is evidence of rust in spots, these areas should be sanded clean of the rust and primed with a rust inhibitor before applying the final protective coats. Other efficient rust inhibitors include red lead, chrome yellow and zinc dust.

Javelle Water Aids in Removal of Stains

If the stain is stubborn, you can make a poultice of javelle water and whiting, spread it over the stain and let it dry. Repeat the treatment as necessary. Rinse well after the stain has completely disappeared.

Ski Wax on Snow Shovel Cuts Sticking to Surface

Skiers keep their skis carefully waxed because they know that waxed surfaces do not create friction and that snow is less likely to cling to them.

By keeping your snow shovel waxed with ski wax or a paste floor wax you can minimize sticking snow as you shovel your walks and driveways.

Permits Issued for Four Houses

Plant for Ready-Mix Concrete Also Is Listed in Week's Projects

Included in building permits issued this week by the city engineering department was an okay for construction of a $12,000 concrete ready-mix plant at 115 W. Walton Blvd.

F. G. Van Horn & Sons of 203 Mechanic St., secured the permit.

Others included permits to construct four $8,500 houses at 161, 162, 165 and 166 Strathmore Ave., issued to G & K Builders Inc. of Detroit.

Residing permits were for houses at 512 Whittemore St., $495; and 442 Harvey St., $1,160. Garage building permits were okayed at 248 W. Hopkins Ave., $1,000 and 846 Menominee Rd., $3,000.

Repair and remodel permits included houses at 62-66 N. Saginaw, $3,000; shoe shine parlor at 261 S. Saginaw, $500; 413 N. Perry., $1,500; front of store building at 24 W. Huron, $2,000 and changing to a 3-room apartment at 44 S. Saginaw St., $400.

Rubber-base paints are available for basement floors. These paints are not affected by the alkali present in cement floors.

Gypsum Board Needs Sealer for Wallpapering

If you have considered applying wallpaper over gypsum board with the idea that it might be removed later, you can avoid a lot of trouble by following one simple precaution.

That beforehand measure is this: Gypsum board surfaces should always be primed before they are covered with wallpaper.

Sizing varnish or a high gloss varnish cut 25 per cent with turpentine are recommended. The sealers specified by the wallboard manufacturers will also protect the board.

If you try to remove wallpaper from gypsum board that hasn't had a sealer coat, you will wind up peeling the paper surface of the board right off the gypsum core.

Insulation Cuts Drafts

Because walls insulated with full-thick mineral wool remain nearer to room temperature, there are fewer drafts in the insulated house. Thus, the danger of colds from drafty conditions is reduced.

Yeast Not Good for Septic Tanks

By HUBBARD COBB

As we all know, yeast is used for baking bread and it's used for making beer.

A few years ago some genius figured that if it was good for bread and beer it should be good for a septic tank.

Well, it isn't.

Putting yeast into a septic tank doesn't do any good at all and is a waste of good yeast. Now that we've got that off our chest we recall a few other things that aren't good for a septic tank.

For example, if you run lines from the roof gutters, driveway drains and basement into your septic tank you will be overloading the system and pretty soon the system will just stop working.

People with garbage disposal units in their kitchen sinks often figure that these are not good for a septic tank but the fact is that the discharge from these units is needed by the tank for proper action.

The tank must, however, be of sufficient size to handle this added amount of waste water. Chemical drain cleaners won't harm a tank

The brine discharge from water softening equipment should not be poured into a septic tank nor onto lawns or near vegetation. Best way to handle this waste is in a dry well located in an area some distance from the lawn and planting.

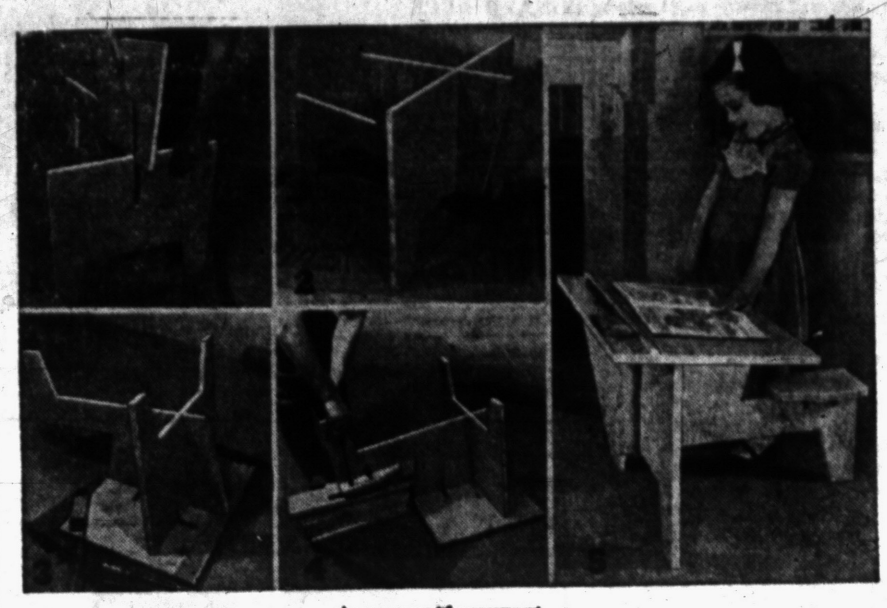
The tank itself and the drain field, if there is one, should be set in dry ground that is on the sandy side. If it is set in clay there will be little absorption of the liquids by the soil and you'll have a long and unhappy relationship with the tank.

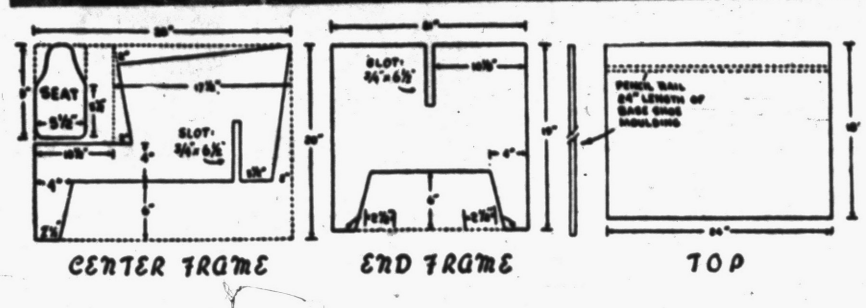
Farming Equipment Getting Fancy Paint

American farm equipment is given a coat of durable and decorative enamel by the manufacturer. This coat of paint prevents rusting of steel surfaces during outside service and outdoor storage.

It also gives the product a new and finished appearance, with every part identified as belonging to the complete ensemble. This coating gives the product eye-appeal—an important factor in attracting prospective purchasers—and makes them proud owners once they have bought it.

The particular color—or combination of colors—used also serves to identify the maker of the equipment.





SADDLE-SEAT DESK FOR YOUNG BUCKAROOS—Here's a week-end workshop project that will bring years of pleasure to any child—a saddle-seat desk that won't wobble. Its three legs assure even support. All you need is a few pieces of ¾-inch hardwood plywood, a length of ¾-inch base shoe moulding, some corner irons and ¾-inch No. 9 flat-headed wood screws. Cut the plywood pieces as shown in the bottom drawings, then join the center and end frames at the slots in egg-crate fashion (picture 1). Plane the top edge of the end frame so it has the same slant as the top of the center frame. The assembled unit (picture 2) now is ready to receive the desk top, which is simply an 18x24-inch hardwood plywood rectangle. When edges are exposed lumber core plywood generally is specified. Attach with four 2½" corner irons (picture 3). Fasten base shoe moulding high across the desk top for a pencil rail, using 1" screws applied from the back. Finally, cut the saddle from a plywood scrap and attach 1½" corner irons. A support of loose boards will make this operation easier (picture 4). Give the desk a natural finish to bring out the rich wood beauty and it's ready to delight the heart of any child (picture 5). Hardwood plywood, the same material used in making the finest furniture, is available at modest cost in mahogany, oak, gum, maple, walnut, birch and other species at most lumber yards.

FHA Experiencing Boom in Home Loan Business

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Federal Housing Administration which usually curbs operations this time of year is experiencing a totally unexpected increase in its home loan business.

It's too early to draw positive conclusions, but officials concede the unusual rise may be the first real sign of healthy—and hefty—home production in 1954.

Final figures on applications for FHA home loan insurance are not yet available but preliminary reports indicate a substantial jump in filings in a number of local FHA offices.

In Topeka, Kans., officials say applications for 170 FHA home loans were received last week, the highest weekly rate since last August.

Usually, builders file applications for FHA loan insurance on an increasing scale in February but rarely as early as late January in preparation for the spring building season.

One FHA official says he is sure that the January total will be higher than December and November, though, perhaps, not as great as the number of applications filed in January, 1953.

Nevertheless, he pointed out that the January 1954 rate will be "more than we expected on the basis of normal operations" and adds that the agency will watch the situation with "a great deal of interest."

The ever-increasing supply of mortgage financing is believed responsible for the January rise. With lenders more willing to make home loans, many buyers in outlying cities and towns are now able to obtain mortgages previously not available.

Moreover, home buyers may be shifting their borrowing from conventional lenders, who are not governed by federal rules, into the FHA and GI loan programs which generally cost less.

That there has been a decided change in the housing outlook is underlined by the fact that FHA's new budget has been geared for an annual production of 900,000 homes and apartments, with the agency accounting for about 25 per cent of this volume.

But most top government and industry officials are now speaking in terms of at least one million units this year and it is still a guess just how far President Eisenhower's program will stimulate the housing market when it is enacted.

Conceivably, FHA could get caught in a squeeze, but by next June, when the Eisenhower program is expected to reach the final congressional stages, special action can still be taken to solve the problem.

'Frost' on Cedar Indicates Quality

Home owners who purchase aromatic red cedar closet lining for construction of moth-repellant storage rooms sometimes observe a white fuzz or frost-like substance on the wood.

Manufacturers point out that the substance is merely crystalized cedar oil, not injurious to the lining. It will disappear if the lining is aired for a short time; or it can be brushed or rubbed off easily, leaving the wood clean and bright.

Appearance of the "frost" is an indication of strong oil content in the wood. It sometimes occurs when the cedar has been stored where air does not circulate and light does not penetrate.

Don't Paint Cedar Lining

Never put paint, varnish, shellac or other finishing materials on the aromatic red cedar lining of a closet. The wood should remain in its natural state in order to give off the fragrant aroma which kills moth larvae.

Don't Wrap Materials Stored in Cedar Chests

Don't wrap clothing and linens when storing them in a cedar lined closet, home maintenance specialists advise: The wrapping will act as a barrier to the fragrant cedarwood oil fumes, which protect goods from moths by killing moth larvae.

'Copters Serve Tenth of Nation

Inhabitants of Chicago, New York, Los Angeles Ride Whirlybirds

WASHINGTON (UP) — Although the first commercial air-worthiness certificate was granted a helicopter only seven years ago, more than 10 per cent of the nation's population today live in communities served by helicopter airlines.

These 16,750,000 Americans are inhabitants of the 84 communities in the Los Angeles, New York, and Chicago areas which are served by the nation's three certificated helicopter airlines.

Planes, official publication of Aircraft Industries Association, says that in addition to the 84 points presently being served by the three lines, there are 46 more communities which have been certificated by the Civil Aeronautics Board for helicopter service and which will be integrated into the present route systems as additional equipment and operating facilities become available.

The three lines today operate 17 helicopters, which vary in allowable passenger capacity from two to 12 persons.

The full impact of these revolutionary craft is yet to be felt, however. Best known for the tremendous tasks they performed during the Korean campaign and for delivering food, spraying crops and performing innumerable other jobs throughout the world, helicopters are now coming into their own as practical transportation vehicles.

A recent boon to the prospects of a network of helicopter passenger routes was the announcement by the military of a 40-passenger plane with speeds estimated in the neighborhood of 160 m.p.h. These larger planes should furnish range, speed and capacity necessary for financially successful airline operation.

Ex-Dynasty Cash to Be Big Help to Egypt Projects

CAIRO (UP)—The fabulous wealth of Egypt's former dynastic family may finance a program of development which will change the economic face of Egypt. Fortunes of more than 400 members of the Mohamed Aly family have been confiscated by the Egyptian government. Preliminary estimates value this wealth at between 143 to 287 million dollars.

Economic development projects planned by the revolutionary government of soldier-president Mohamed Naguib will cost an estimated 225 million dollars. (This does not include the projected new High Dam on the Nile.)

Originally, the government assumed that foreign loans would be needed to finance these projects. With the Mohammed Aly wealth now in government hands, however, it is believed that these projects can be financed without foreign aid.

Chapter 16

Cold showers (ugh) knock off more weight than hot showers or baths.

Seems when you are cold the body yells for more heat.

Inside you are mechanical engineers that start your motor racing. We call it shivering. Or goose pimples, which are nature's way of bringing blood to the cold surface.

If you're mechanically minded, with a good head for numbers, figure out how many goose pimples it takes to shiver off a pound!

For needed exercise on the "seat area," try wiggling in synchronization with your toothbrush as you slide it back and forth across the molars.

You may look ridiculous from the rear, but who can see you anyway. The exercise will reduce that portion of your anatomy.

You need 15 calories a day for each pound of your present weight, to maintain that weight. By adding 1,000 a day you gain — by taking off 1,000 you lose.

Four pounds — but they're the hardest yet.

After reducing 40 pounds, it's like being on the 4-yard line after a 40-yard run. The touchdown is toughest!

She is growing more cautious of her sarcasm.

Now that she has been forced to admit that her old fat boy has really reduced this time, going down more than his usual 6 or 7 pounds, I must give other wives some advice.

By all means don't put creamed soups and fried foods and rich cheeses and heavily gooed salads in front of Tubby.

Serving Fat Face "special diet dishes," while you sit back and guzzle down split pea soup, mashed potatoes and gravy with side orders of pork chops, won't do his will power any good.

If you must eat that way, do it at noon when he isn't around. Do your eating up to suppertime, then slow down and eat what Fatso eats.

Remove temptation from the poor guy.

Trim the fat for him in the kitchen, so he won't slide down a hunk when you aren't looking.

Help him keep from "calorie-cheating" himself.

Let Fatso think, of course, that he is really doing the picking and the choosing, but you do this for him back in the mysterious corners of the kitchen.

Sneak your own sweet tidbits in the afternoon when the girls are around gossipping, but keep them hidden from the old mouse.

Don't be a martyr, either.

If you let him think it is tough on you, if you go around saying, "This is certainly no picnic for me—but for your sake, Aloysius, I'll stay with you," he'll say, "Ah, nuts!" and go down to the corner free lunch at Kelly's and drown his disgust in meat balls and blintzes.

Unemployment Rise Apparently Leveling

WASHINGTON (UP) — Unemployment still was rising last week, according to Labor Department figures, but the increase was the smallest in a month.

The department's Bureau of Employment Security said yesterday 364,400 workers filed new applications for unemployment compensation in the week ended Feb. 6. This was 13,500 fewer than the previous week and well below the winter peak—468,878 in the week ended Jan. 9.

The new national total of jobless workers under unemployment compensation stood at 2,128,100 last week—higher than any corresponding week since World War II, except in the 1950 recession period when it rose to nearly 2,400,000. The total of workers drawing jobless pay has risen for 10 straight weeks.

Weather conditions and production cutbacks contributed to the continuing volume of claims.

Farm Program Planned for All

GOP Sees Agriculture as Total Industry; Ike Gives It Much Study

WASHINGTON (AP)—Undersecretary of Agriculture True D. Morse said today the administration's proposed new farm program was designed to help all the people—not farmers alone.

"Agriculture must be dealt with as a total industry—taking in all those who produce, process, store, finance, sell and otherwise work with farmers and farm products," he said.

"The narrow view," he added, "is to consider only the 16 percent of the population now living on farms. Such a limited approach will restrict agricultural progress . . . . The administration's program will increase the well-being and prosperity of all the people. That is why President Eisenhower has given it such close study."

Morse made these remarks in a speech prepared for a meeting of the Corn Belt Livestock Feeders Assn.

The administration program would place less dependence on price supports and production controls than do present farm programs.

Morse said the present program of high rigid price supports and controls is one of "scarcity" that would do damage to the total economy by reducing employment in the marketing, transportation, and processing of farm products.

Criticizing high supports for corn and other livestock feed grains, Morse said livestock producers and feeders are entitled to have "flexibility in the costs of their feed" to go along with flexibility in the prices they receive for cattle, hogs, poultry and dairy products.

He said present scarcity of pork and pork products and accompanying high prices can be blamed on price supports which encourage farmers to store corn under government price supports rather than feed it to hogs.

Jobless Pay Claims Jump 109 in Week

Plating Business Grows After Starting in Garage

A. J. LAWRENCE

A polishing and plating company which less than eight years ago started in a two-car garage now does plating for many of the industrial plants in and around Pontiac.

The Ajax Polishing and Plating Co., at 24 W. Rundell St., is equipped to do most types of industrial polishing and plating.

In 1948 the owner, A. J. Lawrence moved his small but growing company from the garage to an East Pike street location.

A partnership was formed that year between Lawrence and Roger St. Amant, which ended in July, 1953, when Lawrence purchased all interests in the plant held by St. Amant.

The company, again pressed for space, in 1950 purchased land and erected the building on Rundell street which it now occupies.

According to Lawrence they now have sufficient land to expand to three times their present size.

The labor force, according to Lawrence, has been approximately 20 to 22 employes until recent cut-backs in industry made it necessary to reduce this number considerably.

The company does cadmium and zinc barrel plating as well as still cadmium, zinc, copper, nickel and chrome work, and is supervised by George Strong who has 30 years of experience in the plating business.

L. S. (Jack) Soules, who has been with the company since it was founded, is the company representative.

Safety director of American Forging and Socket Co. until July of last year, Lawrence joined that firm in 1934 when he came to Pontiac. He was born in Pennsylvania and now resides at 1087 Berkley Ave.

Edison Has 19.3 Pct. Net Income Increase

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Edison Co. today reported a 19.3 per cent increase in net income in 1953 but hinted it may seek further rate increases to obtain an improvement on its investment return.

Skippers Score Upset, But Vikings, Milford Bow

By JACK SAYLOR

Despite the 10 losses on their record, Waterford High School's Skippers have a basketball specialty—beating league leaders.

Walt Ashley's crew has won only two games this season, but both have been at the expense of the Inter-Lakes Conference pacesetter. Friday night, Waterford tripped Southfield, 52-50.

Wayne-Oakland League now is faced with a rough task in catching Northville. Mustangs got over the hump Friday by downing Milford, 62-57. Clarkston refuses to give up, however, and kept going with a 39-31 win over Brighton, the 6th straight win for the Wolves.

Ferndale wrapped up the Eastern Michigan crown, beating Port Huron, 49-45, while Birmingham was assisting with a 53-42 triumph over Hazel Park. Troy moved within a game of the Oakland B "pennant" by lacing Fitzgerald, 49-25.

Bob Jacober paced Waterford's upset with 24 points. Skippers played without number two scorer, Dick Tims, but Jerry Kruskie, up from the reserves, came through in good shape. He tallied on the only three shots he took including a vital one late in the game.

Skippers won at the free throw line, by dropping 18 of 33 tries. Don Williams' brilliant effort was to no avail at Walled Lake as Farmington erased a Viking lead late in the 4th quarter. Williams scored 29 points.

Bob Stallsmith sparked a Milford rally in the closing stages, but Northville had a 12-point cushion to fall back on. Stallsmith had 18 points. Northville's 1-2 punch of Glen Howarth and Ed Nash contributed 23 and 14, respectively.

Clarkston didn't hit well Friday night, but had enough to overcome Brighton. Dick Johnston's basket broke a 24-24 tie and the Wolves stayed ahead. Pat Thompson was high with 12 points.

In another W-O contest, Keego posted 26 points in both the 3rd and 4th quarters to submerge Holly, 76-52, Johnny Wassel had 17 points for the Presidents and Bob Hobson and Bill Nicholson added a dozen each. Jerry Hunter's 15 paced Holly.

Troy permitted Fitzgerald only four foul shots in the 1st half and breezed home. Mike DeKane looped in 17 points and Jim Murdock added 15. Ortonville became Mayville's 7th straight victim, 49-37, as Mayville assured itself a tie for the South Central title.

In a pair of Tri-County contests, Oxford escaped the cellar by bumping Lapeer, 53-38, and Romeo won its 9th game in 10 starts by downing Lake Orion, 63-56. Jim Davis had 25 points in Clawson's 58-25 win over Avondale.

Unpopular Decision

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—Joey Giambra lost face, Italo Scortichini lost face and TV fans lost their temper.

That was the net result in last night's 10-round cross country race at Madison Square Garden where Giambra won an unpopular split decision over Scortichini.

One TV viewer even called the AP office in New York from Los Angeles to protest about the "lousy" decision. Most of the 3,011 who paid $7,481 to watch in person bombarded the officials with their boos.

Judge Frank Forbes voted for Giambra 7-3 and Referee Ruby Goldstein also gave Giambra the edge 6-3-1. Judge Artie Aidala saw it for Scortichini 5-4-1. The AP card agreed with Aidala. Eight of 13 ringside boxing writers sided with Scortichini.

Giambra, a 4 to 1 favorite, even disappointed his manager, Tex Sullivan, although Tex thought he won all the way.

"He didn't look like the real Giambra until the late rounds," said Sullivan.

The fighter had a strange explanation. He said he had gone "right hand crazy" in his most recent fights so had decided to concentrate on developing the left.

Scortichini confused Giambra, the No. 8 ranking middleweight, by backing away and circling, first one way and then the other.

Shamrock Win Leaves NS Five in Third Place

Outlasts St. James for a 27-22 Victory; Rams Win at St. Rita's

St. Michael outlasted Ferndale St. James, 27-22, here to clinch 3rd place in final standings, while St. Frederick edged St. Rita, 30-29, in the Vikings' gymnasium.

Mikes jumped into an 11-5 1st-period lead over the Dales, but ran into difficulty against the St. James zone defense in the following quarter. After missing six straight shots, Shamrocks elected to hold the ball in an attempt to draw the Dales out of their tight zone.

St. James refused to come out of the zone, and the Pontiac parochials merely held the ball for the final four minutes and the half ended, 11-9.

Northsiders came up with 10 straight points in the 3rd period to move ahead, 19-9, and were never threatened thereafter.

Forward Russ Shindorf paced the victory with 10 points.

Roger Nosek hit 11 points and teammate Lionel Bradley added 10 as St. Frederick scraped past St. Rita by one point. Rams pulled away from a 15-all halftime deadlock to lead 23-20 at the 3rd-quarter mark and staved off a late St. Rita rally to win.

Poles' Victory Forces Playoff for SCL Crown

Rally in Third Period Sends OL Into Lead; Meet Again Monday

A stubborn, determined St. Mary's High School five Friday night, in Detroit, dumped the Suburban Catholic Basketball League into another deadlock.

The high-scoring, front running Poles came from behind in the third period of last night's crucial encounter with the count 26-24 in favor of St. Benedict's. They first tied the score, then Gene Stasialowicz hit a field goal (1 of 9 he collected during the encounter) to send the Orchard Lake five ahead to stay. Final count was 45-40.

A tight defensive pattern cut Bens' scoring to a minimum in that important third session, the Detroiters collecting only three points, all on gift tosses. Eaglets piled up 18 on their own hook to assure the win, despite a resurgence by St. Benedicts in the finale. St. Mary's scored point for point with the Bens, totaling 13 and Bens 12.

Friday's victory for St. Mary's necessitates a playoff, which has been set for Monday at 7:30 p.m. in Visitation Gymnasium, Detroit.

St. Benedict took the lead early in the opener and was ahead 14-9 at the end of the period. Detroiters outscored the Eaglets 11-5 in the second for a halftime count of 25-14.

Eaglets pushed the total to 32-28 at the end of the third period.

Stasialowicz' 18 points topped scoring, all on field goals. He had able support from Jim Choike, with 16. Al Przcha, co-captain, who scored only two points, however, was the game's playmaker.

Scoring:

ST. MARY'S	9	5	18	13—45
ST. BENEDICT	14	11	3	13—40

Chief Tankers Upset Indians on Fine Effort

McLarty, Simson Turn Tide With 1-2 Places in Diving

Medley relay team of Tom Cross, McLarty and Jim Shellenburg won the next event in one minute 26.4 second — only a second off the Central pool record — to clinch the victory.

Other 1st places were taken by Bob Lamson in the 50-yard free style, Cross in the back stroke and Bob Keavy in the breast stroke.

Coach Des Boyce's squad travels to Bay City next Friday to meet Central's Wolves in their final Saginaw Valley Conference dual meet of the season.

Top-Ranked Fives Favored to Extend Winning Streaks

By RIP WATSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Five of the nation's highest ranking college basketball teams swing into action tonight with winning streaks totaling 55 games, and they'll be mighty surprised if the streaks don't add up to 60 when all the scores are in.

Kentucky, the nation's No. 1 team in the Associated Press poll for weeks, takes a 17-0 mark against Mississippi on the Wildcats home court, where they haven't lost in more than a decade.

Oklahoma A & M goes to work with 17 straight, dating back to a December loss to Minnesota and the Aggies figure to make it 18 against Oklahoma. A & M, ranked fourth in the country, whipped the Sooners 65-48 earlier in the season.

La Salle, No. 7 team, also hasn't lost since December and their winning streak should reach an even dozen tonight against Temple, a team the Explorers whipped 77-53 a few weeks ago.

Indiana is another team which hasn't lost this year—meaning 1954, and the third-ranked Hoosiers will have a sellout crowd on hand in the Northwestern field house as they go for their tenth straight.

Western Kentucky, No. 5 team, is the other top ranker in action. The Hilltoppers boasted the longest winning streak in the country, 21 games, until being upset by Eastern Kentucky last week. They came back to start a new one against Morehead Monday night and Murray State, a 57-43 victim earlier, should double the streak.

Two other members of the top 10 stretched modest win skeins last night. Holy Cross, No. 9, won its sixth in a row since a loss to sixth-ranked Notre Dame as they turned back Fordham 68-54. George Washington, No. 10, clinched first place in the Southern Conference race by walloping Washington & Lee 108-63 for their fifth consecutive victory.

Hawks, Gopher Game Top Rated

Win Would Set Up Tilt Feb. 22 as Title Race Showdown

CHICAGO (AP)—Iowa's youthful Hawkeyes, already a big surprise in the Big Ten basketball campaign, aim for continued ranking as Indiana's top title contender in a key game with Minnesota tonight.

Secondary billing on the conference program goes to the league-leading Hoosiers' appearance before a sellout crowd of 10,500 at Evanston, Ill., where they meet Northwestern's 8th-place Wildcats.

The sophomore-loaded Hawkeyes have lost only one game in eight conference appearances—and that was a home engagement with the Gophers. Minnesota, in 3rd place, has lost only two games—both to Indiana.

Thus if the Hawks can avenge themselves tonight they not only will narrow the race to a two-team affair but set up their Feb. 22 game with Indiana at Bloomington, Ind., as a championship showdown. This will be the only game between the Hoosiers and Hawks this season.

Despite its lordly journey through all opposition in eight games this season, coach Branch McCracken's Indiana team is wary of Northwestern, which has been able to win only two of six conference games.

3 Indiana Aces on All-Star Five

NEW YORK (AP)—Bob Leonard, Charley Kraak and Dick Farley, three stars of Indiana's defending National Collegiate basketball champions, were the first selections today for the West squad in the Herald Tribune's eighth annual East-West college basketball game at Madison Square Garden March 27.

The trio helped Indiana win the NCAA title last year and are mainstays of the current Hoosier team, which is leading the Big Ten race and is ranked third in the country in the A.P. pool with a 15-1 record.

World Mark Falls to Buckeye's Konno

COLUMBUS, O. (INS) — Slim, tiny Hawaiian swimmer Ford Konno cracked the world record for the 220-yard free style as he paced Ohio State to an easy 65-28 win over Indiana yesterday.

Konno topped the 2:05.5 mark of ex-Yale star John Marshall with a 2:04.8. He then came back to break an NCAA record in the 440 free style, turning in 4:30. That topped another Marshall record of 4:30.2 paddled in 1951.

Konno was never pressed in either race.

Panter Given Edge on Turner in TV Battle

SALT LAKE CITY (INS)—Middleweight Garth Panter of Salt Lake City was rated a slight favorite in his ten round TV bout tonight against Jesse Turner of St. Louis.

Clarence (Biggie) Munn's seven-year football coaching record at Michigan State is 53 wins, nine losses and two ties.

Dark Is Medalist for Ball Players Tourney

Ziske and Colby Meet in Women's Golf Final

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Joyce Ziske of Milwaukee, Wis., and Vonnie Colby of Sault Ste. Marie Mich., met today in the 18-hole finals of the women's golf championship of Palm Beach.

Miss Colby, 21, who teamed with Cookie Swift of Great Neck, L. I., to win the Hollywood International Four-Ball tournament, gained the finals by beating Mrs. Maurice Glick of Baltimore 1-up in 19 holes yesterday.

Chicago Honors Mack

CHICAGO (AP) — Chicago sports figures tonight will honor Connie Mack, long time manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, at a private party.

Mack, 91, is stopping in Chicago. He is enroute to Hollywood, where plans are going ahead for the filming of his life story.

Alabamans Apologize for Criticism of Wildcat Coach

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP) — Both basketball coach Johnny Dee and athletic director Pete Cawthon of Alabama have expressed regret for publicity given a telegram by Dee criticizing Kentucky's Adolph Rupp.

Both communicated last night with athletic director Bernie Shively of Kentucky, and said Shively was satisfied with their explanation of the affair.

Dee said he was "very much upset" because a Cincinnati sports writer gave publicity to what he called a "personal telegram."

Dee was quoted as saying he was thinking of quitting the game altogether because he had to associate with Rupp, coach of Kentucky's basketball powerhouse.

Rupp declined comment.

The story touched off the loudest uproar in the career of the bright young Southeastern Conference coach. Dee is a former Notre Dame star who so far this year has guided the Crimson quintet to a record of 12 victories and five defeats.

Is Allie Reynolds Serious?

Gerry Staley, Adolph Rupp, Ben Hogan Given Credit for 'Quotes of Week'

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—Our nomination for quote of the week goes to the forthright statement by Gerald Staley, the St. Louis Cardinals pitching star, that Solly Hemus, Card shortstop, "can't move up to big league standards," and that Ray Jablonski, another teammate, "doesn't have much range at third."

We'll bet the left side of that good old Cardinal infield is a real stonewall when Gerald toes the rubber next summer.

Second award goes to Adolph Rupp, the eminent Kentucky basketball mentor, who told an interested audience that his current team is the "finest ever assembled in the United States."

Adolph is no piker, especially since he also was coach of another Kentucky team a few years back which contained Alex Groza, Ralph Beard and Wahwah Jones.

The third, or consolation, prize belongs to Ben Hogan, who told "Golf Graphic" that "From every observation I have ever made of putting there is no reason why the average golfer cannot putt reasonably well, since putting is merely rolling the ball over the green by striking it a gentle but firm blow."

Great little kidder, that Ben.

It's always dangerous to suggest a baseball player might be a serious holdout, for the chances are good he will have signed before the item can get in print. But the fact remains that Allie Reynolds has fired his contract back to the Yankees for the second time and gives every evidence that he isn't fooling.

If the world champions are trying to get the game's highest paid pitcher to take a cut because of his nominal 13-8 record last year, this could become interesting, for two reasons.

The first is Reynolds is sufficiently well fixed from throwing baseballs and owning oil wells that he is in position, if sufficiently irked, to tell the Yanks to go fly their pennant.

The second reason is that many baseball men are far from sure Casey Stengel can make it six straight without the Chief, even if he is crowding 40.

Title-Bound Miss Dorsey Well on Way

Pert Coloradan Takes Senior Event, But Needs Free Style Points

Mary Ann won the senior ladies figure skating contest yesterday. But she still must pick up some points tonight in the freestyle skating event to retain her title.

Second place went to Patsy Herrick of Cleveland. Third place was awarded Claralinn Lewis, another Colorado Springs, girl.

Touring Pros Plus Star San Antonio Amateur Leading Entries

LAREDO, Tex. (AP)—A field of more than 100 golfers headed by Tony Holquin, Marty Furgol, Ed (Porky) Oliver and Shelley Mayfield of the touring professionals and a hot-shot amateur, Wesley Ellis of San Antonio, moved out today in the 1st round of the $3,000 Laredo Open.

Others of the pro tour, including Fred Wampler, winner of the Los Angeles Open, were due to put in appearance and will be accepted as entries.

Chances of Ellis finishing on top or high up were considered good in view of the way he has been shooting in practice rounds. He has had three consecutive five-under-par 67s.

The tournament is a 36-hold affair and is a substitute for the Tucson Open, scheduled this week but canceled by its sponsors. Final 18 holes will be played tomorrow.

Fast Field Ready for MSC's Relays

Santee will be running the anchor legs for Kansas in the distance medley and sprint medley relays.

Big Trio Signs Ending Cards' Worries

NEW YORK (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals' advance spring training camp is open today and their 1954 salary worries are pretty much of a closed question.

At about the time a squad of 75 rookies began limbering up at Deland, Fla., star second baseman Red Schoendienst and Ray Jablonski, rookie third baseman of 1953, reached for pens to sign new contracts in the Cardinal offices in St. Louis. Harvey Haddix, the Redbirds top hurler last year with a 20-7 won-lost mark and 3.06 earned run average, had agreed to terms earlier in the day.

The Milwaukee Braves, meanwhile, admitted shortstop Johnny Logan and second baseman Jack Dittmer were something less than happy about their proffered contracts. General Manager John Quinn pointed out the pair can't be classed as holdouts unless and until they fail to report March 1.

Schoendienst, Jablonski and Haddix were by far the biggest names in the comparatively small group of major leaguers to come to terms with the clubs yesterday.

Schoendienst, the National League's second leading hitter in 1953 with an average of .342, said he was "well satisfied" with a salary increase which reportedly brought his pay close to the $50,000 bracket. He received about $35,000 last season.

Jablonski hit 21 home runs in his first season, two more than Johnny Mize hit as a rookie, and batted in 112 runs. Haddix was believed to have doubled his $7,000 salary of last year.

Brooklyn signed rookie third baseman Don Hoak and sub outfielders Dick William and Bill Antonello, while the Philadelphia Phillies received the signed contract of Johnny Lindell, knuckleballer obtained from Pittsburgh last season.
