Ring Fans Ask: Wha' Hoppen?

BY MURRAY ROSE

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Heavyweight Champion Floyd Patterson, wearing a patch over his left eye, said today he hopes to defend his title again this summer.

"This once-a-year routine is for the birds," the Rockville Centre, N. Y., fighter told a press conference. "I feel better when I am fighting more.

"Regardless of the income tax situation, I want to fight again this year. There are several good contenders. I don't know which one I would fight."

He told the press conference that Henry Cooper, the British champion, was high on the list of contenders who deserved a shot at the title.

He said the next defense of his crown would be handled by Feature Sports Inc., the promoter of the Miami Beach bout.

Asked about the date of his next fight, Patterson said:

"Sometime between June and the end of September."

Johansson slept late, spent a quiet morning on an island off the Miami coast and declined to see newsmen until later in the afternoon.

He called a press conference for 4:30 p.m. (Pontiac time) in Palm Beach.

After being stopped Monday night, the Swedish fighter said he does not plan immediate retirement.

Moore Lists Three Ideas to Save Children's Clinic

Oakland County Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore today proposed that the Oakland Child Guidance Clinic be financed in the future by governmental units and individuals who are serviced by the clinic.

In a letter to Dr. William J. Westmaas, president of the clinic's board of directors, and F. Robert Wolleager, executive director, Moore offered three major proposals.

1. That the county should render the clinic the support which it requests for the balance of this year (the clinic has requested $27,000 to keep its Birmingham office operating through 1961).

2. That a new countywide planning committee should be set up immediately by all interested parties to plan for a future, suitable method of operation and financing.

3. That such plans culminate in a more permanent program which might be called a "Five Year Plan."

★ ★ ★

According to Moore, such a plan should attempt to put such services properly in operation for all children throughout the county by the end of five years.

CHECK EFFICIENCY

It would also deal with any adjustments of financial support which need attention and make sure that operation of the clinic is efficient in every respect.

"All parties who would be asked to support the clinic should take part in the planning," Moore said,

Aside from the county, Moore proposed that financial support come from school districts, local municipalities and families served.

The judge suggested that the formula for support be based largely on the number of referrals of children from those respective areas and the financial ability of those areas.

Moore also suggested that the study committee find ways and

Lassiter Trial Starts April 10

Move to Quash Charges Denied by Judge as Attorney Protests

By MAX E. SIMON

Over the protests of defense attorneys, Wayne County Circuit Judge Joseph G. Rashid yesterday ordered Mrs. Nelle Lassiter and Gordon Watson to stand trial April 10 in the murder of Parvin (Bill) Lassiter almost two years ago.

★ ★ ★

Rashid set the trial date for Lassiter's widow and former business associate after denying motions to quash first degree murder and conspiracy charges against the admitted lovers.

★ ★ ★

Joseph W. Louisell, attorney for Mrs. Lassiter, protested the setting of the trial date because, he said, a second appeal to the State Supreme Court is planned.

"It's the obligation of the court to see that she gets a speedy trial," retorted Judge Rashid.

Louisell replied, "I don't see how Mrs. Lassiter would object to the delay when I as her defense attorney am requesting it."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Lassiter and Watson are charged in the April 1959 slaying of Lassiter, wealthy Royal Oak used car dealer.

Three Chattanooga, Tenn., men—Roy C. Hicks, Charles W. Nash and Richard Jones—have pleaded guilty in the actual shooting and are serving life sentences on charges of second-degree murder.

Mrs. Lassiter and Watson are accused of conspiring with the three to have Lassiter killed so they could continue their love affair.

DEFENDENTS ABSENT

Neither the glamorous blonde grandmother, who lives at 19690 Beverly Road, Beverly Hills, nor Watson, now a resident of Los Angeles, were present at the hearing.

In denying the motion to quash charges, Judge Rashid said he had no right to substitute his judgment for that of the magistrate who presided over the ex-

Bus Company Will Add Route for Perry Park

Other Changes Due; December Profit Helps to Offset Slight Loss

Pontiac Transit Corp., expressing optimism about increased patronage, today announced that service will be extended to populous Perry Park subdivision Monday on a 60-day trial basis.

Several other minor route changes were also announced to begin next week.

The service extension is the first by the new bus company, which began operations last June 9, two months after Pontiac City Lines, Inc., pulled out in the face of a six-month strike.

Neel B. Pilson, transit company manager, said the new service will go as far as Perry and Madison Streets near Pontiac Northern High School, leaving downtown every half hour during the morning and afternoon rush hours and once every hour the rest of the day.

The 15-minute outbound trip from downtown Saginaw Street will be over Mt. Clemens Street, East Boulevard and Perry Street to Madison. The return trip, also taking 15 minutes, will be via Kenilworth, Baltimore, Melrose, Mt. Clemens, Mill and East Huron Streets.

SECOND MOVE

The extended service is the second expansion move taken by Pontiac Transit Corp. The first occurred in November, when the company purchased 12 new GMC Truck & Coach Division buses.

Pilson said that it was the "gratifying" public response to the new buses that encouraged the company to extend service to Perry Park.

He said operating losses dating from the June 9 beginning of service were offset slightly by a few hundred dollars margin of income during December.

Last year, the company carried 469,000 patrons with operating revenues of $109,437, ending the year $5,000 in the red, Pilson said.

★ ★ ★

He said a big factor behind December's margin was the lower cost of maintaining the new buses.

Pontiac Transit Corp. has listed patronage since last June 9 as 44,614 patrons in June, 62,570 in

Wants $600 Million as Starter

JFK Asks Aid to Latins

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today urged Congress to provide $600 million as the first step in aid to Latin America. He said there is "grave and imminent danger that desperate peoples will turn to communism or other forms of tyranny" if help is not forthcoming.

The President sent a special message to the Capitol in a follow-up to his address Monday night calling for a 10-year cooperative aid program of "towering dimension" for south of the border nations.

He advocated hoisting a banner with this motto: "Progress yes, tyranny no."

The administration program—outlined by Kennedy in a White House speech to Latin-American diplomats—is keyed to the idea of an alliance of progress.

He wants the Latin-American countries to join with the United States in a massive drive to improve living conditions and thereby help oust "tyranny from a hemisphere in which it has no rightful place."

Kennedy made it clear he had Cuba and the Dominican Republic specifically in mind in saying this.

In his message today, the President asked Congress to appropriate $500 million as an initial step in the over-all aid program to meet a U.S. commitment made last year at Bogota, Colombia.

Eighteen other American republics also subscribed to the idea of mutual help. The U.S. share was authorized by Congress at the last session, but the money hasn't been provided yet.

Congress also authorized $100 million in aid last year for reconstruction and rehabilitation of areas of Southern Chile devastated by earthquakes and fires. Kennedy urged speedy appropriation of this money "so the task of rebuilding the economy of Southern Chile can proceed without delay."

Blowout at 100 M.P.H. Fatal to Belinda Lee

Actress Dies in High-Speed Crash

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP)—A skidding, somersaulting automobile flung British actress Belinda Lee 63 feet to her death Monday and injured three Italian movie-makers including her fiance.

The beautiful box-office star was returning to Hollywood from a scene-scouting trip to Las Vegas, Nev. The Italians have been making a documentary film, not involving Miss Lee, 26, about women's lives in various parts of the world.

The station wagon, estimated by a witness to be going more than 100 miles an hour, blew its left rear tire, skidded and crashed upside down, the Highway Patrol said. Miss Lee, unconscious, lived 15 or 20 minutes.

Her fiance, movie director Gualtiero Jacopetti, 41, suffered a broken leg. He was reported in fair condition at Barstow Community Hospital, where the injured were taken.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

The driver, Nino Falenga, 43, had a shoulder-blade fracture but was reported in good condition. A Hollywood resident, he has been the Italian movie-makers' adviser.

★ ★ ★

Miss Lee, born in Devon, England, was discovered by British photographer Cornelius Lucas, who married her when she was 19. He flooded magazines with pictures that brought her film parts. Her screen debut, in 1954, was in "Runaway Bus."

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Lucas divorced Miss Lee in April 1959, charging she had committed adultery with Italian Prince Filippo Orsini. A British court ruled that adultery had been proved against her but not against the wealthy industrialist.

Calls for $5-Million Outlay

Industry Lure Plan on Ballot

Voter Approval Would Create State Authority

Senate Okays Move 26-3; Agency Would Offer Financial Help

LANSING (AP) — Whether Michigan should use $5 million of its credit to attract new industry will be decided by the voters April 3.

A last-minute constitutional amendment was being added to the ballot today.

The measure, which was cleared by the Senate by a 26-3 vote Monday night, would pave the way for the creation of a Greater Michigan Authority.

The agency would have the power to extend financial assistance to industrial development projects.

Gov. Swainson praised the Senate decision and voiced confidence that the resolution would win approval in the spring election.

"I feel that, when implemented, the provisions of this legislation will go far to express to the nation our determination to further the economic development of our state," the governor said in Washington, where he was spending the day in conferences and congressional committee hearings.

A similar agency in Arkansas helped that state to lure the Norge Refrigeration operation from Muskegon, with the loss of some 1,800 jobs and a $10 million yearly payroll.

Because of the lateness of the proposal, election officials feared that most absentee ballots would not include the proposition, and absentee voters would be disenfranchised on the issue.

The measure provides that the legislature may allow credit of the state up to $5 million to be granted "for the purpose of financing industry, manufacturing and municipal development projects."

It is part of Gov. Swainson's proposal which he contended would stimulate new industry and create more jobs in the state.

But Sen. Lynn Francis, R-Midland, described the resolution as a long step toward socialism.

"This is going a long way toward government control of industries and our whole way of life," Francis said in debate on the measure.

"I am unwilling to accept socialistic propositions to turn over my rights as a citizen and an individual to government control."

Sen. Basil Brown D-Detroit, described the proposal as not going far enough but being a step in the right direction.

18 Communities Select Officers

Voter Turnout Light Except in Rochester, Beverly Hills, Orion

Light balloting was the order of the day yesterday as voters in 18 area communities went to the polls to pick their village officers.

Heavy turnouts were reported, however, in Rochester, Beverly Hills and Lake Orion where interest was high in most races. In these communities voters came in large numbers despite almost constant snow and rain showers throughout the day and evening.

In two of the three villages where proposals appeared on the ballot, they were favored by wide margins.

Franklin electors approved the purchase of the Village Green, and residents of Wood Creek Farms okayed a sewer contract with Farmington Township.

A small majority of 10 votes was all that was needed to pass the proposal to authorize the sale of liquor by the glass in Dryden.

Sticker candidates in Lake Orion drew considerable support but not enough to unseat the incumbents.

Generally yesterday's annual election served merely to confirm the Feb. 20 nominations or to re-elect village officers who were unchallenged in their bids to continue in office.

For complete returns of all village elections in the area, see pages 2 and 13 in today's Pontiac Press.

Claim Laotian Royalists Thwart Rebel Drive

Muong Kassy Retaken Easily

Town Was Southern Limit of Pre - Commie Offensive

From Our News Wires

VIENTIANE, Laos—Loatian military sources claimed royal troops recaptured Muong Kassy today, turning back a pro-Communist rebel offensive headed toward Vientiane.

Muong Kassy, about 100 miles north of Vientiane, fell to pro-Communist Pathet Lao soldiers Friday.

It was the southernmost point in a Red Offensive set in motion March 7 with the over-running of Sala Prou Koun, important road junction on the north-south highway leading to the rebel-occupied Planes des Jarres in central Laos.

They said a Pathet Lao battalion had pulled out in face of superior royal forces commanding the surrounding heights.

The Pathet Lao rebels claimed today they shot down two American-made planes over Laos and claimed a new series of victories that imperiled peace efforts there.

A new blow to peace negotiations was dealt by Prince Souvanna Phouma, the Communist-backed nationalist ex-premier of Lao, who announced he was leaving Phnom Penh today on a world tour—even to Washington if invited—instead of acting as go-between in an effort to solve the Laotian crisis.

In a third development blocking peace in Laos, Asian Communists planned to launch an all-out military, political and diplomatic offensive against the pro-Western Laotian government of Premier Boun Oum.

Soviet Astronaut Not Far Off: K

★ ★ ★

"We are confident that the time is not too far off when the first spaceship with man aboard will dash into outer space," he told an agricultural conference at Akmolinsk in Siberia.

Soviet radio stations broadcast the premier's address.

"We are living at a good time, comrads," the Soviet premier said. "Both on earth and in the boundless cosmic space, the boldest dreams of man are being made a reality.

"However, after that, can one fail to rejoice in the fact that the creator of many great deeds and achievements is our Soviet people, building communism."

Moscow radio said his statement was greeted with "stormy applause."

The Soviet premier's statement was his first recorded comment since the Russians launched their latest space ship — a five-ton ship with a dog aboard—last Thursday and brought it back safely to earth on the same day.

In Washington the National Space Agency plans to test the Mercury pilot escape system this week under the most severe conditions that might occur during an attempt to put a man in orbit.

If this and other planned flight tests are successful, the agency said, an astronaut will be launched into orbit around the earth "perhaps late this year" under Project Mercury.

A powerful Little Joe rocket will hurl an unoccupied Mercury space cabin into the sky. The escape rocket, mounted on a steel tower above the cabin, will fire at about 35,000 feet.

Give More Time in Chrysler Suit

Auto Firm Has 2 Weeks to File Briefs Seeking $80,000 From Minor

More time for attorneys to file briefs and answers was granted by Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams today in Chrysler Corp.'s suit against Jack W. Minor, former corporation official from Birmingham.

Edward P. Echlin, attorney for Minor, submitted his brief in support of his motion to dismiss the corporation's suit started Feb. 3. The corporation must file its brief within two weeks, and then Echlin has 10 days in which to reply.

Judge Adams said the attorneys reserved the right to present oral arguments if they wish.

Chrysler's $80,000 lawsuit seeks recovery of profits Minor allegedly made through his connections with outside advertising and sales concerns with which Chrysler did business while Minor was director of the Plymouth-DeSoto-Valiant Division.

Forces in Korea Placed on Alert

U.S. Says Action Only Routine Exercise and Denies Tension Rise

SEOUL, Korea (UPI) — American military forces in South Korea have been placed on a full scale alert, a United Nations Command spokesman said today.

★ ★ ★

The spokesman denied there was increased tension along the Korean truce line but said the alert was part of a "worldwide readiness exercise" of American armed forces.

★ ★ ★

The North Koreans shelled a South Korean naval vessel today but this came after the practice alert had been called. There were no casualties or damages in the shelling which came from a Communist garrison on an island off the West Coast of Korea.

The U.N. spokesman said the entire U.S. Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps in the Pacific Command were participating in a readiness exercise under an alert directed by the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

(In Washington a Defense Department spokesman said the alert is a "routine training exercise. Just a drill.")

The U.N. spokesman said the exercise was "designed to provide training for all military forces in reaching a readiness condition which would be required of them in the time of an actual emergency."

He declined to say when the exercise started or how long it would last.

'Miss K' Takes Stand in British Trial of Spies

LONDON (UPI) — Britain brought to the witness stand today a pretty girl secret agent—identified only as "Miss K"—in an attempt to prove that an international spy ring that included two Americans stole vital naval secrets and sent them in code to Russia.

She was a member of Branch No. 5 of British Military Intelligence, a highly secret organization whose agents are never identified to the public and never photographed.

Miss K followed a line of male secret agents — "The Nameless Men"—who testified about how they shadowed three men and two women being tried on charges of penetrating the security of Britain's vital naval base at Portland.

★ ★ ★

An embassy spokesman said the "technicians are in perfect condition" and said they "would be immediately returned." But he did not make clear where Moroccan authorities intended to take the men.

The Americans are employes of a California firm supplying oil equipment to the American-owned Union Oil Co., which is prospecting in the Spanish Sahara.

Pilson said little emphasis is given to the decline in patronage since January, explaining that January, February and March are traditionally poor months, especially in view of layoffs this year.

The other route changes Monday:

On the Huron-Sanford route, alternate buses no longer will make the Sanford Street-Auburn Avenue jog. All buses will continue west on East Pike Street to East Boulevard.

★ ★ ★

On the St. Joseph Hospital-Franklin Road line, all buses will use Franklin Road, from Wilson Street south, instead of alternately using Saginaw Street. The hospital stop will be in front of the hospital instead of across Woodward Avenue.

Buses to the hospital will run every 20 minutes during the morning and afternoon rush hours instead of every 40. The midday runs will continue at every half hour.

On the Joslyn line, outbound morning buses will stop at the Pontiac Motor Division plant on Highland Street before heading toward the end of the line. Inbound afternoon buses will come from the end of the line to the plant.

On the South Boulevard line, southbound buses will make three morning trips to the GMC Truck & Coach Division plant and afternoon buses will make two trips from it.

Detailed schedules will be available on all buses by Thursday.

On the subject of conspiracy, Judge Rashid said it matters not, legally, whether Lassiter was shot to death in a drunken rage.

"In a conspiracy, every act of any one person is an act of all persons," he observed.

"There is evidence in this case that the conspirators and defendants knew what happened and acquiesced. It was a conspiracy with a multiplicity of purposes, according to the evidence so far."

Call More Witnesses for Hoffa

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—Attorneys for James R. Hoffa called additional witnesses today in an effort to support pleas for dismissal of a 12-count federal mail fraud indictment against the labor leader and two codefendants.

"Is it possible to move along faster?" U.S. District Judge Joseph P. Lieb asked attorneys at the second session of the hearing.

"Can you agree what evidence is going to be introduced and let use dispense with calling some of these witnesses."

James T. Dowd of Washington, D.C., a Justice Department attorney, told the judge he could not agree to accept as evidence statements from defense counsel. He asked that the defense witnesses be called.

The defense continued efforts to show that women for the most part were excluded from the list used in selecting the grand jury which indicted the three Detroit men. It contends that this exclusion was in violation of federal law.

Moore pointed to other cases which were prone to delinquency or neglect but had not yet reached the County Juvenile Court.

These may be referred to the clinic by a county, city or village "Youth Protective Service."

"Here the service rendered is one of prevention of delinquency.

"In one sense it is a service to the county, reducing the volume of cases coming into juvenile court, and in another, to the local community because it will reduce its police problem," Moore contended.

"Thus, this type of case should be aided financially by both the county and the local municipality."

A third type is one where only the child's own person is involved. Moore suggested that here "the child is probably the responsibility of everyone."

The judge suggested consideration of future reimbursement by families served.

"I am advised that the average cost per family for service is about $160. This means that parents who have reasonable ability to repay the clinic should be very appreciative and glad to do their part," Moore asserted.

Still Looking for Market Holdup Men

City and state police were continuing investigation today of two area supermarket holdups that netted armed bandits over $20,000 in less than 36 hours.

A dragnet mobilized in and around the city yesterday morning minutes after the armed robbery at Tom's Market, 888 Orchard Lake Ave. failed to net the bandits, and was abandoned shortly before noon.

City detectives and troopers from the Pontiac post are working on the theory that the Tom's Market stickup in broad daylight is related somehow to Saturday night's armed robbery at Kroger market in the Miracle Mile Shopping Center just south of the city limits on Telegraph Road.

Descriptions of the masked gunmen given by victims did not match perfectly. But, according to troopers, there is enough similarity in both the method of operation and descriptions to lend strength to the theory.

The bandits had chopped a hole in the roof of Tom's Market to gain entry. Two of them, armed with revolvers, waited inside to surprise store manager, Eddie Caudill, 30, and two employes when they opened the market at 8:30 a.m.

The masked robbers then forced Caudill to open the store safe and fled in his car with over $10,000. The car later was abandoned on Gulf Drive.

The assistant manager of the Kroger store had just locked up for the night Saturday when he and a stockboy, were surprised by a lone gunman in the parking lot out front.

Latest Catheter Can Be Directed in Heart Artery

General Motors Research Laboratories engineers at Warren have developed a remotely controlled catheter that can be directed through the pulmonary artery into the human heart's cavities and passageways.

It was developed by GM research special problems department in conjunction with Richard J. Bing, M.D., professor of medicine and chairman of Wayne State University's department of medicine. Charles W. Gadd, supervisor of vibration and stress analysis, headed the engineering project for General Motors.

The catheter already has been used on humans and Dr. Bing has indicated it may become an important diagnostic instrument in heart disease. Although precision built, indications are it can be manufactured at reasonable cost for routine use in heart studies and diagnosis.

Catheters—flexible small diameter tubes—are commonly used for measuring blood pressures, obtaining blood samples or making other observations within the human heart. One of their main drawbacks is the impossibility of pointing or directing them once they have been inserted in a patient's vein leading to the heart.

Also, when a catheter tip entered the heart chambers, no means was available to aim it toward areas which are of important diagnostic value. With remote control the technique of inserting and routing the catheter and obtaining data from inside the heart may be speeded considerably.

Beat Congo to Find 300 Whites

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Malayan U.N. patrols today beat the bush to reach 300 white missionaries, businessmen and nuns in rebel-held Kivu Province as the first rescued told of atrocities by rapacious Congolese soldiers.

Some Americans were among the whites trapped in isolated jungle outposts as rescue forces were rushed out.

U. N. headquarters received a tearful typewritten plea from a Belgian nun: "Can no one help us from outside?"

The Congolese soldiers were running wild in a siege of terror that began more than two weeks ago in the Maniema region. Kivu officials, who refused to let the whites leave the chaotic province because their skills are needed, apparently were unable to keep their own forces in hand.

Right of Private Schools, They Say

Clerics Renew Bid for Loans

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A Catholic official told Congress today it would be "unthinkable" to omit the nation's parochial schools from President Kennedy's aid-to-education program.

Msgr. Frederick G. Hochwalt, director of the department of education of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, said the government "ought not to take any steps which would force the private schools out of business, or, in effect, to deny to parents the right to choose their kind of school."

Msgr. Hochwalt, whose department coordinates the national interests of the parochial school system in the 50 states, appeared before the Senate education subcommittee.

His statement came after Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., said he will recommend a presidential veto of the education bill if it contains civil rights amendments or provisions for loans to build private and parochial schools.

Meanwhile, a spokesman for President Kennedy declined comment on the latest criticism by Francis Cardinal Spellman who said the Kennedy education program for secondary schools was "not fair and equitable."

Msgr. Hochwalt said in his testimony that there is a need to grant government assistance to the elementary and secondary parochial and private schools by way of long-term, low-interest rate loans, with the interest rate computed on an annual basis.

"To grant federal assistance to only part of the American education effort is to deny to the other parts a chance to grow," he said.

The American people, he said, must be concerned about all the schools of the nation.

He added that: "If an intellectual and scientific breakthrough is to be realized, if excellence is to be achieved, who can tell whence will come the leadership for the nation—from the public schools, or from their partners in education, the private schools?"

Civil Service Strike Runs Paris Ragged

PARIS (AP)—Frenchmen couldn't get married, pay their taxes or get a driver's license today. A million civil servants struck for higher wages.

★ ★ ★

Garbage was piled high along the streets in major cities, long-distance telephone calls were refused, government offices closed and hospitals took only emergency cases.

About 6,000 civil servants made a protest march through downtown Paris, snarling traffic but causing no other disturbance.

A Texas well holds the world's drilling depth record. Completed in 1959, it was drilled to a depth of 25,340 feet. It was a dry hole.

Castro Assails Kennedy Plan

Says That He'll Form Exile Governments if U.S. Cubans Get Way

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro threatened today that Cuba will "form many revolutionary governments - in - exile" — beginning with Puerto Rico—if the United States sanctions a Cuban government-in-exile.

The prime minister made a sharp counterattack to President Kennedy's announcement of a broad 10-year economic and social development program for Latin America and Kennedy's expression of hope that the people of Cuba "will soon rejoin the society of free men, uniting with us in our common effort."

Castro quickly interpreted the Kennedy program, outlined to Latin-American diplomats at a White House reception, as a call for a revolt against his regime.

"If they promote revolution against us, we will promote revolution against the governments which promote revolution against us," he said.

Castro linked his attack on the Kennedy administration with a fresh charge of aggression by the United States. He said the United States had supplied counter-revolutionaries with an armed ship that shot up the nationalized Texaco oil refinery at Santiago before dawn Monday.

The government - controlled press and radio said the ship probably sped to a refuge at the U.S. Naval Base at Guantanamo Bay after firing shots that killed a Cuban sailor, wounded a militiaman, and set fire to an atmospheric tower at the refinery, and punctured three tanks.

Castro fumed with anger in a three-hour post-midnight speech before a rain-drenched crowd around the steps of Havana University. While the crowd was gathering, a bomb exploded in the Vedado district branch of the Cuban National Bank. No one was hurt.

Castro charged that armed attacks on Cuba had increased since Kennedy took over the presidency. He showered his warmest praise yet on the Soviet-led Communist bloc. Castro derided Kennedy as a "captive of monopolies" and called the President's "supposed alliance for progress a historical joke which intends to be a continental joke."

Vehicle Output Slips in Week, Says AMA

DETROIT (UPI) — Motor vehicle production in the United States last week totaled 113,557 units, the Automobile Manufacturers Association said today.

The AMA said the week's output included 91,314 passenger cars and 22,243 trucks. This compared with the previous week's total of 111,702 cars and 19,370 trucks and buses.

RB47 Probe Unlikely Despite GOP Wishes

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress apparently is going to learn only those circumstances of the Soviet Union's release of the RB47 fliers that President Kennedy is willing to divulge.

Despite Republican demands for an inquiry into any concessions that might have been made to gain freedom for the American airmen, Democratic leaders gave early indication that no investigation, as such, is likely to materialize.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said that Chairman Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., of the Senate Armed Services Committee might take a look at the situation to see if any action seemed justified.

But Mansfield said he personally would "hate to see a political issue raised on a matter of this kind."

Appraisal Contracts Up for Commission Approval

City commissioners tonight will be asked to approve contracts bearing on the eventual resale of land for private development in the urban renewal areas.

The prepared contracts are with the Real Estate Research Corp. of Chicago for appraisals of properties to be acquired in the 145-acre residential project now under way and the 20-acre commercial project contracted for planning under a $70,000 federal advance.

The appraisals are not for the purchase of property, but bear on the eventual resale of acquired and cleared lands.

It is the second such appraisal for the residential project and the first for the commercial.

Robert A. Stierer, assistant city manager and urban renewal coordinator, explained that under federal regulations the minimum resale price of acquired properties must fall between the values set in two different re-use appraisals.

A second re-use appraisal will take place in the commercial project after it has won full federal approval.

Tonight's contracts, based on the urban renewal budget, set a maximum cost of $2,500 for the appraisal in the residential project and $1,750 in the commercial.

Commissioners, on other subjects, will have before them cost estimates for the blacktopping of nine streets where curbs and gutters were installed last year.

The blacktopping is expected to be part of the 1961 public improvement program.

Up once more for consideration is the bid for city support in the move to gain more county funds for the Oakland County Child Guidance Clinic.

State Prisons Need More Psychiatrists

LANSING (AP)—Michigan's prison system badly needs new facilities for medical and psychiatric care of inmates, a survey by the University of Michigan's Bureau of Hospital Administration indicated today.

The state should build a 1,250-bed unit for diagnosing and treating prisoners with mental troubles, the bureau said in a report to the State Corrections Department.

Construction would cost approximately $18.75 million and operation about $4 million a year.

'Untouchables,' Others to Go Off ABC Network

NEW YORK (AP)—The Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co. announced today that it will drop sponsorship of "The Untouchables," a television show that has aroused the ire of persons of Italian descent.

The company also said it was dropping "Asphalt Jungle" and "Adventures in Paradise."

It said it is not continuing this fall, under its renewal agreement, participating sponsorship with the American Broadcasting Co. television network in the three programs.

The reason given by the company was that the programs have been rescheduled by ABC at 10 to 11 p.m. rather than 9:30 to 10:30 p.m.

5 Checker Players 2nd, 3rd in Tourneys

Five young checker players of the Pontiac YMCA placed second and third in checker tournaments played in Flint Saturday.

Placing third in the Senior Division were Don Martin, Major Miner and Anthony Snoddy.

Boys participating in this tournament were under 14 years of age and attend YMCA's in Flint, Saginaw, Owosso, and Pontiac.

Accompanying the "checkermen were Hailey Stout of Waterford, club leader, and Norm Featherstone.

On top of the checker ladder at the local Y this week for the first time is Wilford Miner.

Victim of Shooting Refuses Charges

A Pontiac man who police said has admitted blasting with a shotgun an unwanted occupant of his car was released from custody yesterday when the victim refused to file charges.

The victim, Arthur H. Thomas, 19, of 67 Florida St., was reported in satisfactory condition today at Pontiac General Hospital. He was shot once in the left upper arm and chest while seated in a car parked on a Pontiac side street on the west side.

According to police, Sylvester Johnson, 28, of 44½ Lorraine Court, admitted the shooting, saying he became angered when Thomas failed to get out of Johnson's car when ordered.

Thomas told authorities he didn't know why he was shot.

Sister Eunice Undergoes Appendectomy

★ ★ ★

Dr. Roy Hefferman performed the operation. A hospital announcement said Mrs. Shrivers, 38, mother of three, will be in the hospital from 5 to 10 days.

★ ★ ★

She flew from Chicago and entered the hospital Monday night. Her husband is the director of the new Peace Corps.

Argentine General Held

BUENOS AIRES (UPI) — Gen. Edgar Landa, commander of the 2nd Defense Zone, was reported in house arrest today as an apparent result of one of Argentina's recurrent army crises.

Auxiliary Will Teach Methods of Police

A new Civil Defense Auxiliary police training program will get under way at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Waterford Township Hall on Highland Road, according to coordinators Garfield Manchester and Ben Swanson.

Colored movies, demonstrations and illustrated lectures will be part of the course, open to all, whether or not they have had police training.

The course shows what to do in case of a national emergency, floods, a bombing or the arrival of a tornado.

Tomorrow nights meeting will include enrollment, orientation and a class in traffic control. No advance registration or reservation is necessary. Further information may be obtained from the two coordinators.

Basic photography is the subject of a pilot program of instruction meeting tonight under the auspices of the parks and recreation department.

There are still openings for new registrants in the course, scheduled for 7-9 Tuesday nights through spring at Webster School.

Leonard T. Buzz, recreation supervisor, said if the course is successful, it may be made a regular feature at other locations this fall.

The instructor, Leslie E. Howey, 910 Stratton Drive, said the course is aimed at improvement of camera technique, touching on such subjects as filters, lighting, lenses and outdoor photography.

$1 fees covering materials can be paid during registration for the course at City Hall. Registrations can be made by telephone.

Ex-Prisoner Tells Poison Tale on Peel

FORT PIERCE, Fla. (AP)—A former prisoner testified today that Joseph A. Peel Jr., asked him to slip a "deadly poison" into the food of Floyd Holzapfel.

The former prisoner, Robert E. Johnson of Greensboro, N.C., said Peel told him, "If I can get rid of Holzapfel, I can beat that Chillingworth murder charge."

Johnson said the alleged poison was contained in a cigarette pack that Peel handed him.

The witness said he hid the pack and later turned it over to a deputy sheriff.

Holzapfel, who has confessed that he drowned Circuit Judge C. E. Chillingworth and Mrs. Chillingworth in the Atlantic, and who named Peel as the man who plotted the crime, was in a cell on the fourth floor of the jail. Peel was in a cell on the third floor.

Volunteers to Crusade for Cancer Checkup

In 1961 about 85,000 cancer patients will die who might have been saved by earlier diagnosis, more prompt treatment. Such shocking facts as these should make us all pause a moment and reflect, have I had my checkup?

★ ★ ★

Early next month your doorbell will ring and it will be one of the volunteer workers in the door-to-door crusade sponsored by the Michigan Cancer Foundation, an affiliate of the Pontiac Area United Fund.

This educational crusade will take place April 10 and 11. The purpose is to alert everyone about cancer. The workers will not be asking for money. All they want you to do is to see your doctor.

★ ★ ★

The earlier your doctor detects cancer, the better your chances are for a complete cure. Your annual health checkup is your best assurance against this dreaded disease.

★ ★ ★

The Crusade volunteers that are taking the time to call on you are mainly interested in making sure you act in time.

If you have any of the seven danger signals listed below, act now, don't wait:

1. Unusual bleeding or discharge.
2. A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere.
3. A sore that does not heal.
4. Change in bowel or bladder habits.
5. Hoarseness or cough.
6. Indigestion or difficulty in swallowing.
7. Change in wart or mole.

Don't Fret About Germs on Money—It's Treated

If for any reason you have been keeping your distance from money for fear of germs it is all a myth. At least that's what H. J. HOLTZCLAW, director of the Federal Bureau of Printing and Engraving recently revealed.

★ ★ ★

He goes on to further say that all paper money is treated with germicides and is a much less likely source of infection than, say, doorknobs.

Personally, we've always been willing to take the risk. This latest statement from Mr. HOLTZCLAW should remove any serious objection to money that anyone has.

★ ★ ★

We rather imagine that people will continue going after it like it was going out of style.

Pres. Quadros Testing Benevolent Neutrality

With his nation practically bankrupt and a big new capital half built, President QUADROS must also take steps to improve this primitive back country area larger than Texas and inhabited by 21 million of Brazil's 67 million people.

★ ★ ★

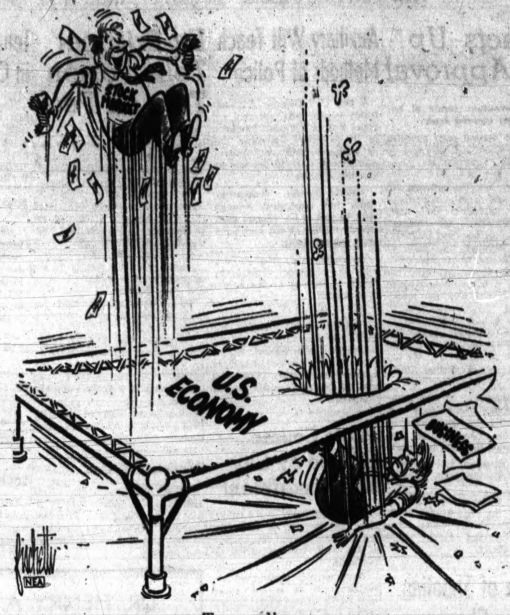

Successive Brazilian governments have promised relief but after elections the promises were forgotten. Now, bred by grinding poverty and despair, the depressed area has become the headquarters of a strong peasant movement led by sympathizers of FIDEL CASTRO. Something has to be done quickly.

★ ★ ★

President Kennedy has responded by sending top advisers into this largest Latin American country to consult with its government. A team of U. S. technical experts is due later this month. But President Quadros, although ideologically committed to the West, must avoid being tagged at home as subservient to "Yankee imperialism." This is politically dangerous.

Understandably he has made it clear that Brazil will go its own way. Diplomatic relations are to be resumed with Communist satellites and trade with East Germany.

It will be a great tribute to the skill of President Quadros if he can avoid internal revolution and at the same time institute economic and political reforms by holding to the "benevolent neutrality" course.

David Lawrence Says:

Russ Acts Should Be Probed, Too

WASHINGTON—What is "external" and what is "internal" in world affairs today? The United Nations is having trouble defining the difference, and so is the British Commonwealth Conference in London.

LAWRENCE

Some of the British Commonwealth nations are demanding that South Africa be excluded from that group because of its policy which requires "separation" in certain areas for the whites and the native blacks, though not for the "colореds."

★ ★ ★

The other day the Security Council of the United Nations voted to hold a debate on Portugal's administration of Angola, a Portuguese province in Africa—plainly an internal matter.

But the United Nations itself, on the other hand, apparently does not have the gumption to vote to inquire into the manner in which Hungary and the other satellites in Eastern Europe are being dominated by the Soviets, whose troops occupy many areas and intimidate the local governments.

Even the United States government, which is supposed to be the friend of the oppressed and downtrodden in the world, seems to be ready, under the Kennedy administration, to slacken its efforts for the liberation of Hungary and eventually to take the subject off the agenda of the United Nations.

This is reported to be part of a "deal" to persuade Moscow to withdraw its resolutions in the General Assembly about the U2 and RB47 incidents. Just why the United States should be reluctant to have these two episodes come up for discussion at any time is a mystery, as the Soviet resolutions already have been defeated in the Security Council.

Perhaps the most interesting of the new intrusions into internal affairs is the attitude of the British Commonwealth nations toward the request of South Africa that its forthcoming change to a republic should not invalidate its status in the commonwealth.

Actually, there is no constitution or written agreement or charter stating the conditions of membership in the British Commonwealth. It has developed into a sort of international club which cannot even be called a federation.

When Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa became independent, they utilized the term "British Commonwealth" as a more or less sentimental tie. When India, a former British colony, became a republic in 1949, it asked to be permitted to remain in the "commonwealth."

Up to that time, the king or queen of Great Britain had been recognized as the monarch, but, with the coming of the republic, India suggested that the king or queen hereafter be recognized simply as "the head of the commonwealth."

But now Ghana, India, Ceylon and other former British colonies are trying to punish South Africa for its racial policies, and lately the press dispatches have told of the opposition that has been expressed in London to the retention of South Africa in the commonwealth.

This represents an important turning point. For obviously action based on what the South African government does with respect to its internal administration could become a precedent for interference by the commonwealth in the internal affairs of Malaya or Ceylon or other countries.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Fresh Ground Coffee in Cold Water . . . Ah!

If you have a copy of my 90-page booklet, What to Eat and Why, you will find on p. 70 a secret worth at least the price of the booklet (35c and stamped, self-addressed envelope), "How to Make Coffee and Win Friends."

The gist of it is (a) don't buy coffee ready ground. Buy it in the bean; (b) grind in your own mill just enough for the immediate brew and put it in cold water as soon as it is ground; (c) let it stand in cold water, just enough to cover it from the air, an hour, DR. BRADY more or less, before brewing; it is not a bad idea to let it stand in cold water over night, before brewing; (d) never let coffee boil.

Now before you dispute any of these directions, let me recite some facts that many persons have never learned or have forgotten, namely:

(1) Coffee in the bean, like wheat in the kernel, keeps well in storage, but, like wheat, begins to deteriorate hours after it is milled or ground. This deterioration of wheat after milling or grinding affects mainly the heart, embryo or germ, which contains nearly all of the vitamin E (wheat germ oil) and the vitamin B.

★ ★ ★

Rancidity destroys vitamin E long before rancid taste becomes evident. Deterioration of coffee after grinding or milling affects chiefly the empyreumatic oil which gives coffee its delightful flavor and aroma — being volatile this oil evaporates and what remains is insipid and stale.

(2) The empyreumatic oil that gives coffee its inimitable flavor is produced by roasting — the raw coffee bean does not make a pleasant beverage. Cold water holds the aroma in solution, whereas boiling rapidly drives off the aroma. Some people like this pleasant aroma of the atmosphere so much that they do not mind drinking the witch's broth left in the pot.

If you permit coffee to boil even for a moment you lose much of the aroma and extract considerable tannic acid (tannin) which gives the brew a bitter, astringent taste. I'm afraid that's the way a lot of Americans have learned to like it.

From years of intensive study I concluded that a plain old 19th century coffee pot makes better coffee than the shiniest contraption the 20th century huckster has contrived to sell the credulous American housewife.

★ ★ ★

If you can't find a coffee grinder in Grandma's attic or perhaps in a second hand store or at a country auction, you can purchase either a hand power or an electric power grinder from one of the manufacturers named in the pamphlet Wheat to Eat, available on request if you provide stamped, self-addressed envelope.

★ ★ ★

In a piece to follow we'll endeavor to describe the effects of coffee in health and sickness. This may excite some controversy, but what assertion or teaching of mine doesn't?

In any case I promise respectful consideration of any contradiction a reader may make, and I'll print it if it is brief and sensible.

★ ★ ★

'Area Would Be Improved With Commercial Jets'

In reply to B. Carrier, the plane that crashed near Selfridge is a prop-type aircraft and not a jet type. Light and commercial planes have accidents just as often, if not more than jets.

★

As for the noise, there isn't that much difference between prop and jet. Your homes will not rattle, no window smashing or sonic booms because commercial aircraft do not fly faster than the speed of sound.

★ ★ ★

If we had commercial jets in our state and area with regular flights, maybe our state would become once more known as an industrial state instead of the state of confusion.

Says Spray Couldn't Possibly Kill Birds

I do not agree that spray is doing away with birds. In June even before our cherries are ripe we have hundreds of robins in our two cherry trees. Considering the space there is for birds to fly and live, I do not think the small amount of spray used on elm trees could possibly wipe out birds of any kind.

Tax Tips . . .

QUESTION:

My son is 20 years old and in 1960 earned $650.00. He is a student at the University of Detroit. I have contributed more than one-half of his support. Am I entitled to the dependency deduction for him?

ANSWER:

Yes, even though your son files his own tax return, you would be entitled to a dependency deduction. Federal tax laws provide that if your child was a full-time student (regardless of age or money earned) during five calendar months of the year at a qualified educational institution you may qualify to claim the child as a dependent if the support test is met.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Energetic Child Tires Mother

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE H 432: LARRY R., aged 4, is an only child, living in a city apartment.

"Dr. Crane, I never saw a child so full of energy," his weary mother protested.

DR. CRANE

"Larry is on the go from morning till night. And he gets into the most mischief.

"He nearly drives me distracted. I'm so worn out by lunch time, that I welcome a chance to lie down with him when he takes his nap.

"But then he may not fall asleep at all, though I may doze off within a couple of minutes.

"As soon as he sees that I am asleep, he slips out and ransacks the house. And I have a second serious worry besides his excessive nervousness. For he indulges in self sex stimulation."

LEG ACTION

That is particularly true of healthy children who are cooped up in city apartments.

For their mothers may try to keep them occupied in seat work games. They want the child to string wooden beads or build towers with blocks, and color with crayons.

Obviously, such games don't let the child run and romp. His legs may not be involved at all.

CALM A CHILD

If it is at all possible, let a child get out doors where he can run and romp. Such exercise will calm him down much quicker than indoor games where he sits still. That's why we have recess periods at school.

If your child has no brothers or sisters but is of toddling age, then get it a puppy or kitten to serve as a playmate.

The pet will extrovert the child's attention, and encourage more running and romping.

Besides, the animal gets hungry and thirsty. It needs a bed. And it gets hurt. These situations can thus be employed for teaching your child many valuable lessons in unselfishness.

You wouldn't be so likely to give him such instructions if his playmates were all inanimate objects like wooden blocks or a football.

When he kicks the latter, you think nothing about it. But when he kicks the puppy, you have a chance to use his action as the theme for a lesson in kindness to weak or defenseless living things.

SELF SEX PROBLEM

Larry's self sex practices are normal. In fact, the usual toilet seats encourage these actions, for the youngster is imprisoned in the bathroom for possibly 15 minutes.

He is naked. He often has nothing in his hands to play with and is too young to think about biting his fingernails or picking at hangnails.

So his hands soon strike the sexual areas of his body, just by chance. The habit then starts.

To prevent such a result, let the youngster have some toy to hold or play with.

★ ★ ★

Older children may start the habit by being forced to take a nap when they aren't sleepy, and have no doll or teddy bear to hold in their hands.

So let them have such toys when they go to bed. If their hands are occupied with toys, they are likely to be autoerotic.

'Why Not Reduce Rediscount Rates?'

Here we are again, fighting windmills to overcome a depression.

Remember the approximate period last June through August? Remember the great publicity about inflation? As though prosperity were an evil? To cure that "evil" the "Federal" Reserve Board started to raise the rediscount rates.

This had an almost immediate effect which started us on a toboggan slide into a depression. Since high rediscount rates brought us into a depression, why not reduce the rates to get us out? This it did before a number of times.

I appeal to the sincere senators and congressmen to get government charts showing rediscount rates, employment figures, and business income.

Then having gotten the figures give them broad publicity.

I'm sure the people will back these men against any attacks by the money controllers. Why continue to fight windmills?

Innocent Pleas Entered for Theft Suspects

Pleas of innocent were entered in Circuit Court yesterday for three men arrested for the armed robbery of a Southfield grocery when they were spotted by their victim standing in line for their 1961 license tabs.

Standing mute to the charge when arraigned before Circuit Judge Frederick C. Ziem were Ernest Stocker Jr., 33, of 34725 Fondt St., Farmington; James McCallion, 20, of Detroit; and Norman C. Cogan, 22, of 23863 Berg Road, Southfield.

Mrs. Edmund Roberts, owner with her husband of a grocery at 27000 Northwestern Highway, spotted the three in line Feb. 28 at the Secretary of State's branch office at the Northland Shopping Center as the same men who robbed her store at gunpoint on Jan. 27. They got $54.

Judge lowered their original $5,000 bonds to $2,500. No trial date has been set.

Missing Jail Prisoner Causes Grill Whistle

DURHAM, England (UPI)—Two prisoners roused guards in Durham jail before dawn Monday to complain they could not sleep because of the draught whistling through a hole in their cell.

Investigating the guards discovered that a metal grill was missing. Also missing — prisoner Tom Heslop.

Night Patrols Sought by Firm After Vandalism

Alarmed over damage by vandals to highway machinery at night at the 2¼-mile long construction site of Interstate 75 north of Pontiac, officials of the S. D. Solomon & Sons Construction Co. of Lansing have called for more night patrols by state police and sheriff's deputies.

The company also warned that it will prosecute anyone in the area at night.

Elmer Hunsaker, construction superintendent, said bicycle tracks near the huge earth-moving machinery indicated that it was children who over the weekend went on a spree of smashing gauges, stealing gas and letting air out of tires, costing the company "a couple thousand dollars" in repairs and lost time.

★ ★ ★

Auto tracks indicated that teenagers or adults might also be involved in the destruction, Hunsaker said.

Contracted for construction of the new freeway between M24 and M15, Solomon & Sons presently is working in the stretch between Sashabaw and Ruhr Roads.

Plea of Innocent Entered in Burglary

A moment of hesitation and Circuit Judge Frederick C. Ziem entered a plea of innocent for Leslie C. Motley, when the 17-year-old Pontiac youth was arraigned for burglarizing the same restaurant which landed him in trouble several months ago.

★ ★ ★

When asked by the judge how he pleaded to a charge of breaking and entering, Motley, of 805 St. Clair St., paused just several seconds, indicating to Judge Ziem he wasn't sure.

★ ★ ★

Motley is charged with the March 5 break-in of Donna's Restaurant, 891 Baldwin Ave. He was placed on probation in January by Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams for breaking into the same place last New Year's Eve.

Motley was returned to the county jail under $1,000 bond to await trial.

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials for normal regularity.

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents become so dry and shrunken that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge.

Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulks and moisteners may create gas, take 3 or 4 days for relief. Old-style salts and drugs cramp and grope the entire system. Of all laxatives, only new COLONAID gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).

(1) COLONAID moisturizes dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain or strain. (2) COLONAID's unequalled rebulking action helps retone flabby colon muscles. (3) And COLONAID acts gently, on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the vital "mass movement" of your lower colon.

COLONAID relieves even chronic constipation overnight; is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for expectant mothers. And COLONAID won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or other food nutrients. Get COLONAID today! INTRODUCTORY SIZE 42¢

State Colleges Unite in Pleading for Buildings

EAST LANSING (UP) — The presidents of Michigan's nine state colleges and universities have voiced concern over failure of the legislature to take action aimed at providing new buildings on their campuses.

* * *

The group, members of the Michigan Council of College Presidents, issued a joint statement Monday night reminding lawmakers that nearly 7,000 additional students will enter "crammed facilities" next fall.

"Applicants will again be turned away at some of the schools next September," they said.

* * *

Chairman, Victor F. Spathelf, president of Ferris Institute, said the council is making good headway in its efforts to develop cooperative action among the member institutions.

Release Near After 17 Years

Former Area Man Wins New Trial; Had Been Sentenced for Attack

A former Clarkston man, who has spent nearly 17 years in prison, is likely to win his freedom.

* * *

Back in 1944, when the country was wrapped up in war, the late Circuit Court Judge George B. Hartrick sternly lectured two young Clarkston men who he was about to sentence to life imprisonments for attacking an Independence Township gas station attendant with an iron bar during a robbery attempt on April 4 of that year.

"Unless you make a social adjustment you never should be allowed your freedom," Judge Hartrick said to Seymour S. Miller Jr., then 20, and Kenneth C. Root, then 18.

Within a month Miller should be released from Marquette Prison. Freedom will not be his immediately, however, as he will be returned to Oakland County to face a new trial for assault with intent to rob while armed.

* * *

Root was paroled some 10 years ago.

Miller last week was granted a new trial by Circuit Judge William J. Beer. Judge Beer said when Miller pleaded guilty to the crime he was not advised of his constitutional right to a jury trial. Miller has fought for the new trial.

There's a chance a second trial will not come, according to Prosecutor George F. Taylor. "There's not enough evidence to put him back on trial again, and besides," Taylor said, "it would be a travesty of justice to send him back again."

A hearing will be held April 3.

JFK Bill Won't Aid Parochials

Ribicoff Nixes Idea — Says Congress Must Draft Own Plans

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Health, Education and Welfare Secretary Abraham A. Ribicoff Monday told Congress that if it wants to offer assistance to parochial schools, it must find its own way of doing it.

Ribicoff, testifying before a House education subcommittee, turned down proposals to include private schools in President Kennedy's $2.3 billion public school construction and teacher pay bill.

He said a proposal to give tax deductions for parochial school tuition was "very interesting," but said he couldn't speak for the Treasury Department on the plan. He refused to take a stand on any other suggestions to help religious schools.

But he parried charges that the administration program would provide little improvement of teachers' salaries.

He said the grants, if all were applied to pay, would afford an average increase of $387, and few teachers would "sneeze at that."

Brazil to Trade With All

RIO DE JANEIRO (UPI)— President Janio Quadros declared Monday night, in a nationwide radio-TV speech emphasizing the need for drastic economic reforms, that Brazil must trade with all countries, "East, West or neutralist."

School Aid Defended by Swainson

WASHINGTON (UP) — Federal aid to Michigan's educational system has not resulted in federal control of school programs, Gov. Swainson told two congressional committees here today.

* * *

The governor, in testimony prepared for senate and house subcommittees on education, said that in Michigan federal support of public education dates back to 1787.

"This tradition of federal support to public education," he said, "has not changed the basic philosophy of local control of education held by the citizens of Michigan.

"We have at no time seen evidences of federal control of our educational programs accompanying federal assistance."

* * *

Swainson and Lynn M. Bartlett, state superintendent of public instruction, testified in support of legislation to carry out president Kennedy's proposals for increased federal assistance to state education.

* * *

Swainson said that three levels of government — local, state and federal — must join forces to solve the problems of education.

Advanced Atlas Fails to Match Distance Record

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — Engine trouble at the edge of space Monday night stopped a bid by an Air Force advanced model Atlas missile to match the world distance record for military rocket shots.

* * *

The 85-foot Atlas streaked more than 7,000 miles across the Atlantic Ocean in about 40 minutes — but landed short of its target 9,000 miles from here, in the Indian Ocean southeast of Africa.

The Air Force placed the blame on an unidentified malfunction which, it said, "caused an early shutdown of the sustainer engine."

Jamaica Won't Give Plane Crew to Fidel

LONDON (AP)—Britain, acting for semi-independent Jamaica, intends to refuse a Cuban demand for surrender of a DC-4 and its nine-man crew which crash-landed in the West Indies island March 4, British officials said Monday.

* * *

The regime of Prime Minister Fidel Castro claimed last week the aircraft was riddled by anti-aircraft fire after trying to drop arms to Cuban rebels. A note to Britain called for the plane and crew to be handed over.

* * *

The colonial office said all aboard the plane were exiled Cubans. Those among them who wanted to do so have been allowed to return to the United States, a spokesman said.

Introduce Bill to Up School Aid

But Its Chief Sponsor Says State Cannot Afford Rise

LANSING (UP)—A bill calling for an 8 per cent increase in state aid to local schools came into the legislature Monday night, but its chief sponsor declared the state cannot afford it.

* * *

"This is nothing but a vehicle for us to work with," said Rep. Raymond C. Wurzel, R-Port Huron, chairman of the House Education Committee. "It was introduced at the request of the Michigan Education Association and various other school groups."

The measure would boost state aid by $37.2 million a year.

"This increase, along with the probable increases in welfare, mental health and higher education, cannot be met and stay within our present budget," Wurzel said.

The 8 per cent improvement factor, allowing for no increase in the gross allowance of $205 per pupil and 3¼ deductible millage, would raise state aid costs by $21 million.

* * * * *

The anticipated 45,000 increase in the present 1,674,000 public school enrollment will cost another $7 million.

Improvements in special programs such as vocational education and transportation costs and a $2 million increase in the state's share of the public school employes retirement program would add another $9 million.

Gov. Swainson's program calls for a 3 per cent general improvement in state aid and a total increase of $18 million over the current $290 million outlay.

Castro Backers Force Priest to Flee Home

HAVANA (AP)—A young Cuban Roman Catholic priest was forced to flee his home in Camaguey Province to avoid attack by Fidel Castro supporters, church sources said Monday night.

The priest was identified as the Rev. Jesus Guerra, 27, of Senado.

The Castro group broke through the front door of Father Guerra's home but he managed to escape through a rear window, informants reported.

* * *

When the priest returned to the house, located next to Senado Catholic church, he found his furniture and clothing burned, the informants said. Father Guerra found temporary shelter with friends and later fled the town, the sources added.

Judge Enters a Plea of Innocent in 'Joke' Shotgun Slaying

Mrs. Sarah Ragatz, a Commerce Township grandmother accused in the "joke" killing of her husband last month, appeared before Circuit Judge Frederick C. Ziem yesterday to be arraigned on a charge of manslaughter.

Her Pontiac attorney Howard I. Bend told Chief Asst. Prosecutor Robert D. Long he waived the reading of the information (charge) and that Mrs. Ragatz, 50, 6098 Ashland St., wished to stand mute to the charge.

Judge Ziem entered a plea of innocent for Mrs. Ragatz and allowed her to remain free on a $5,000 bond pending trial. No date was set.

Mrs. Ragatz had told detectives she didn't know the 12-guage shotgun was loaded on Feb. 14 when she answered her 38-year-old husband's challenge to "go ahead" and shoot when he returned home.

She said the shooting was accidental and part of a standing joke between she and her husband about "joining our gun club"—except that this time the gun was loaded. Ernest Ragatz was killed instantly.

Lost Hunter Had No Guidepost, Was Going to Suicide

By W. E. HAYWOOD

I picked up my rifle from the frozen tree stump.

"I'm going to shoot myself!" I said to Alton. "I'm going to die now instead of later!"

Three days before, I'd never thought a man could say words like that. But since then I'd spent three days in Virginia's Dismal Swamp.

Monday morning, Dec. 12, 1955, my youngest boy and I shined up our rifles and took our new squirrel dog out to a woods that butts up against the swamp.

We talked some about how cold it was for southern Virginia, but mostly we grumbled about Mama and how she'd been at us again to stop hunting. She's a God-fearing woman, my wife Rosa is, and she believes that sport hunting is contrary to His will.

INTO THE SWAMP

By 10 o'clock we'd about decided that that new dog wasn't worth her room on earth. She just streaked ahead, yapping and barking, till she'd led us clear to the back of the woods—where it drops off into the swamp.

Then I'm darned if that fool dog doesn't keep right on going into the swamp. Alton made to follow her.

"Don't go in there, boy!" I called to him. Dismal Swamp is 800 square miles of water, ooze, rotting trees and briar jungle. There are human bones in that muck too; nobody knows how many.

Then we heard the dog yelping. Alton looked at me. "She's not much count, but we can't let her drown out there." And with that we plunged down into the swamp.

At last we found her, snarled in a briar thicket, and you never saw an animal gladder to see anyone.

STARTED BACK

We worked the dog loose and started back. It looked like the way we'd come, but when the woods should have been there, they weren't. Each way we turned, the frozen water and twisted trees were the same. Neither of us spoke the word on each of our minds.

Then, a long piece way, I saw an open field. "Look! That must be the field where we left the car. We're okay now!"

It took an hour. When we reached it, it was a sea of swamp grass.

The night came up black—and cold! We climbed up on an old tree stump, made a tent out of my pea jacket and tried to shut our warm breath inside it.

HEARD A SHOT

Hours later we heard a shot a long way off. Alton groped for his gun and fired a volley. We whooped and hollered till we were hoarse, then listened. The thick silence of the swamp settled around us.

★ ★ ★

"Sounded like a hunter," I said at last. "I wonder if he's lost, too."

There! I had said the word we'd been avoiding. We were lost.

We didn't know that the shot had come from one of the search parties out looking for us. They'd found our car and set in motion one of the greatest manhunts ever to tackle the swamp. More than 400 men.

They used planes, helicopters, flares, loudspeakers and walkie-talkies. The Salvation Army set up regular kitchens and clothes depots for the searchers. The Marines were there, the Navy, Coast Guard, all the hunters and game wardens around and of course my other two sons and five sons-in-law.

NO FIRE

By dawn, the only thing that mattered was getting warm. Our last two matches failed to light some ice-coated sticks, so we started walking.

When cold woke us the third morning we got up and staggered numbly on. The worst of it was, I couldn't pray. I tried all right, but I hadn't paid God much mind in the past 40 years. How could I all of a sudden ask Him for favors, now I'd got myself in a jam?

During the third night my feet froze. Each step was torture. We were so weak we couldn't walk two minutes without resting. It was during one of these halts that I picked up my gun to shoot myself.

A GREAT CIRCLE

Alton's a small talker. He can go a week and not put two words together. But he talked then.

"While we can draw breath," he said, "we'll walk."

Hours and hours later, Alton gave a little moan. In front of us was a rise in the ground. The swamp had led us in a great mocking circle back to where we had started that morning.

Then there was a noise to the left of us. Some vines parted and two men burst through.

It was hard to focus. "You . . . you lost too?" I remember asking.

The doctor at the hospital where they took us said it was a miracle we were alive.

MANY PRAYERS

It's more than I can understand," I told him. "Why should there be a miracle for me when I never asked for one nor expected it?"

"Maybe you didn't ask for one mister," the doctor said, but I guess everyone else in Virginia did. You've had churches praying for you, prayer groups, kids . . . "

All those people praying—and for me! It took just my breath away. The whole week I stayed in the hospital I worried with it. I'd always known that a church going man could get a lot of comfort out of prayer. But could his prayers actually change what happened to somebody else?

When I got home from the hospital I asked my wife about it. "Rosa," I said, "you're the praying one in this family. Suppose a lot of decent people prayed to save the life of a man who hadn't been so decent. God wouldn't listen to a prayer like that, would He?"

"Sure He would," said Rosa. "Honey, it's just the not-so-decent ones God rescues! Why He couldn't let you die, the state you're in." She smiled. "With you, He's got just years and years more work."

Q. What shall I do if my child is bitten by a strange dog? F. Tynes, Long Beach, Calif.

★ ★ ★

A. First, take your child to your physician or to the nearest hospital. Second, confine the dog, and report the indident to the local health authorities, who will place the dog under observation for 11 days.

★ ★ ★

A dog may not appear to be rabid, yet his saliva can contain rabies virus for a day or two before symptoms appear, a rabid dog will die within seven or eight days. For this season most states insist on this observation period for the dog.

Since preventative rabies shots are very painful and occasionally dangerous to humans, physicians do not like to give them unnecessarily. But if the dog cannot be found and observed, the medical authorities may start this treatment.

JFK Using Ax on Committees

Interdepartmental Units Are Abolished, Saving $301,375 Each Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has abolished 17 interdepartmental committees and more will get the ax soon.

The White House said Saturday the move was to "clarify and pinpoint executive responsibility and consolidate governmental duties in a number of important areas." It also will save $301,375 a year.

"There are going to be other committees eliminated," said White House press secretary Pierre Salinger.

The wiped out committees represent about a third of the interagency groups, most of which were set up during the Eisenhower administration.

One, the Government Patents Board, was established in 1950 in the Truman administration. Its duties now will be handled by the commissioner of patents.

Salinger said 32 persons with salaries totaling $64,375 a year for part-time work will be affected by the slash. They have regular agency jobs and will be given added duties to keep them busy.

★ ★ ★

One of the biggest of the committees was the Council on Foreign Economic Policy, on which officials from the White House, and the State, Commerce, Agriculture and Treasury departments served. The council had a budget of $110,000.

Porter-Fender Vows Given in 4 o'Clock Rite

★ ★ ★

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Suttles of Marion, N. C., the bride was given in marriage by Charles Atkinson, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, who is the son of John D. Porter of Anaheim, Calif., and the late Mrs. Porter.

The petal pink street-length dress of silk organza over taffeta for the bride featured a satin-piped scoop neckline. Soft pink satin roses accented the bustle back with satin piping extending to the hemline of the bouffant skirt.

Pink satin shoes, short pink lace gloves and a single strand of cultured pearls were worn. The shoulder-length veil of silk illusion fell from a crown of tiny pink mother-of-pearl flowers. A spray of feathered pink and white carnations rested on the bride's prayer book.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Charles Lloyd, the bride's only attendant, appeared in a petal pink silk organza sheath dress with matching organza peplum accented with a soft fabric rose. Her flowers were Rose Virginia carnations.

On the esquire side were best man Bud Redding of Hinsdale, Ill., with Earl Martin and William Seabold, both of Royal Oak, seating some 100 guests.

Assisting at the church reception were the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Charles Atkinson, Mrs. W. F. Dorris, Mrs. Henry Berry and Mrs. Omar Lewis.

Abby Grieves for Paper Boys

C'mon, Give the Kid a Break!

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Why do some people give the newsboy the run-around when he tries to collect for the paper?

They say, "Come back tomorrow, Sonny, I don't have any change." And when he comes back they see who it is, and don't answer the door. And some folks keep the poor kid standing outside with his mittens off while they go for the money and you would think they had to go to Fort Knox to get it.

But just let the paper boy deliver the paper late and they are on the phone in two minutes talking to the complaint department. Do our kids a favor, Abby, and mention this in your column.

FOR THE BOYS

DEAR FOR: Most folks don't realize that every carrier boy is in "business for himself."

It's an imposition to keep him coming back to collect. Our young men who have the initiative to take a paper route deserve consideration. Won't you please have the money ready when he calls—the first time?

DEAR ABBY: I am married to a man who is married to a television set. We never go anywhere unless it is absolutely necessary and then he tries to take some kind of illness so he can stay home and watch television.

When I tell him I would like to see some real live people in the evenings he tells me that he sees enough of them during the day (he sells insurance) and he wants to get away from them.

Then he says I do nothing but watch television all day (which is not true!) and I am fed up with it by night time. Please help me before I leave him.

Folk Songs Universal

Music From a Gentler Age

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Yesterday I mentioned the recording stars, The Brothers Four. These young men are not blood relations but fraternity brothers, and are making a career out of singing the folk songs they sang together for fun in college.

* * *

All are under 23 and their skyrocketing success is exciting. They were asked how they account for their huge audience. It seems that all ages fall under their spell. Here are some of their ideas.

"A person needn't dislike one kind of music just because he likes another."

"I think it's a faulty assumption that people are narrow in their appreciation for music. For instance, it's generally believed that if you're a folk-song man you can't blow your top about symphonic music or jazz. I think if you have an ear for music or an eye for art, you are very likely to be able to hear and see all kinds."

DON'T CATEGORIZE

"I think categorizing does the most harm when it is applied to age groups. As if humanity lives in little groups separated by ditches of time which no one can cross!"

"People speak of the younger generation as a race apart from the older generation. Why, for my young son, I am the older generation and for my parents I am the younger generation. I don't feel like either. I feel like a person. This 'generation deal' is a calendar device!"

When asked why they think folk songs are cherished by young people, parents and grandparents.

"Of course affinity for anything is as mysterious as falling in love or having a gift for mathematics, but folk songs accent chivalry, romance and adventure, all things people have always dreamed about, and their humor is ageless.

* * *

Some of them have sad endings but they are seldom neurotic, frustrating or frenzied. Folk songs come from a gentler age."

Today is so frenzied and fast-moving and full of threats! This is probably one reason for the tremendous popularity of this gentler type of music, and it provides a setting where all ages can meet.

ADVICE TO ALL WOMEN OVER 25

We are among the largest, if not the largest, sellers in the world of both loose face powder and compact-powder make-up. It is therefore immaterial to us whether we sell loose powder or compact powder. ■ However, our main concern is to beautify the woman. Hence, the following advice: WOMEN UNDER 25 are blessed with a smooth skin with hardly perceptible lines. For them compact-powder make-up is just as satisfactory as loose powder. ■ WOMEN OVER 25 sooner or later get lines, wrinkles, furrows and shadows. Compact-powder make-up, rather than hiding, emphasizes these imperfections, because compact powder must be rubbed on. And rubbing fills in and accentuates lines, furrows and large pores. Loose powder acts differently. It is puffed on, because it is air-light and fluffy. There is no film formed on the skin. Loose powder, therefore, softens and hides lines and wrinkles, and blocks out shadows. ■ Loose powder blends better with the skin tone because it is fluffy and translucent, and gives the skin a peach-soft look. Loose powder in combination with the natural skin color gives many subtle possible variations of shade. Loose powder in conjunction with a liquid make-up, such as our "Instant Beauty," has an even greater flexibility of shades. ■ Put as simply as we possibly can, loose powder "veils" your skin because it is air-light and fluffy. Your skin gets a poreless, flawless, translucent, young look. No other cosmetic can add more beauty to your skin.

bringing up baby, hints

COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

Have you tried these almost foolproof ways of combating crankiness when baby has an out-of-sorts spell:

- A short social session in a room other than baby's own often works wonders.
- A spot of soft radio music will often lull your darling into sweet tranquility.
- A playful splash in a tepid bath usually inspires smiles.

Smiles are inspired, too, when you serve your sweetheart Gerber Strained or Junior Meats. Succulent, savory, they have a smooth, moist texture any tot will take to. Only selected Armour cuts are used. After careful trimming, they're carefully processed to remove most of the fat so digestibility is assured. All are 100% pure meat, with just enough broth to brighten the flavors. Most important, they're rich in protein* for baby's growth, strength and the development of all body structures and tissues.

(Advertisement)

Armour Meat Protein is complete protein, supplying all the essential amino acids that build and re-build vital body tissues.

•

Fitting story. From time to time it's a good idea to check baby's sleepy-time clothes to see that he hasn't outgrown 'em. Check these points for tightness: neckband, crotch, armholes and footed pajama legs.

•

"Get-up-and-grow" division. I'm talking about Gerber High Protein Cereal . . . with 35% protein and iron to spare. Plenty of power here to aid baby's growth, give him strength. And talk about flavor...it's delicate, toasted, nut-like, terrific. Serve plain or pretty up with Gerber Strained Egg Yolks. Or use the egg yolks as a base for a nog, made with Gerber Orange Juice and milk. Gerber Baby Foods, Fremont, Michigan.

Balloting Light, Except in Rochester and Lake Orion

Incumbents Dominate Elections in 15 Communities

Most incumbents were returned to office in 15 area communities where annual elections were held yesterday.

In most instances the balloting was light. There were two exceptions, however; Lake Orion and Rochester where, despite bad weather conditions, voters turned out in near-record numbers to choose their village officials.

The proposals on the ballot in Wood Creek Farms and Dryden were favored by the respective electorates. In Wood Creek Farms voters approved a sewer contract with Farmington Township, and in Dryden, the sale of liquor by the glass proposition won by a 10-vote margin.

Metamora

A full slate of Progressive party candidates was swept into office over Citizens Party challengers in Metamora's village election yesterday.

Incumbent William Ribble led the Progressive party ticket, polling 67 votes to defeat his brother Howard in one of three races for trustee posts. The loser totaled 16 votes.

The two other trustee jobs went to Charles Flower, 63 votes, and George Schenkel, 51 votes. Schenkel's wife Jeanette was re-elected village treasurer with 62 votes. She defeated Citizens party candidate Dorothy Turner who had 17 votes.

Village President Percy Clark was returned to office by defeated Sammie A. Ray 57 to 23. Clerk Grove C. Morse was re-elected by winning over Mary Ann Smith 63 to 17.

Leonard

The seven incumbent candidates in Leonard were returned to office. All were without opposition.

Those regaining seats and their votes were Lawson Shiek, village president, 41; John Lobzien, clerk 41; Lucille Porter, treasurer, 44; Vivian Gabriel, assessor, 4; and trustees Charles Hamilton, 43, Dwight Patterson, 41, and John Sutherby, 40.

Imlay City

Ernest E. Simmons polled 178 votes to lead all candidates in the race for the four posts on the village council in Imlay City's non-partisan election.

Simmons was the only nonincumbent elected to the council. Returned to office were Councilmen Mervyn Muir, 165 votes; Joseph Maison, 157; and Roy Harley, 152.

Simmons and Muir, the two candidates with the highest vote totals, will serve four-year terms. Maison and Harley earned two-year terms.

Wood Creek Farms

Kreider received 91 votes. Lang, also a former councilman, tallied 61.

Two unopposed candidates were elected to council terms, Mrs. Conrad Lam, an incumbent, was given 128 votes, and Arthur J. Busch, 139.

A proposed sewer contract with Farmington Township that will permit the village to continue collecting $250 for tap-in fees to the Farmington Interceptor Sewer was approved 119 to 33.

The money will be held in escrow as a financial safety measure if at some future date the village has need of sewer facilities.

Lake Orion

The last-minute entry of three sticker candidates into the race yesterday helped draw a good turnout of voters in Lake Orion despite poor weather and a quiet pre-election campaign.

However, none of the sticker candidates was successful.

Incumbent Village President Irvine J. Unger, who was elected to his present post after running on a sticker himself last year, was returned to office with 200 votes.

Clarence Braidwood, the sticker candidate who challenged Unger yesterday, was defeated with 105 votes.

Clerk Mary Parkinson polled 300 votes to lead the Citizens party slate headed by Unger. Gilbert Woodcock, the only nonincumbent on the party's ticket, was elected to a trustee post with 202 votes.

* * *

Robert Hauxwell Sr., 250 votes, and David Erlandson, 219, were re-elected to the two other trustee positions.

Robert Stokes, 106, and George Schick, 102, were the two sticker candidates who were defeated in their bids for trustee vacancies on the council.

Treasurer Geraldine Campbell, 293, and Assessor Geraldine Storey, 282, also were returned to office.

Village officials said the total of Lake Orion voters who cast ballots yesterday was well over the some 300 who showed up at the polls for last year's election.

Oxford

The two incumbents, Gerald C. Olrich and Edmund A. Unger, tied for re-election to their posts as Oxford councilmen with 44 votes each. They will serve for two years.

Wayne Converse, who was seeking the council seat being vacated this year by Neil Coulter, received 37 votes entitling him to serve on the council for a one-year term.

Former village president Ted Pearson Jr. and Coulter polled 3 and 2 votes respectively as write-in candidates.

Clarkston

Clarkston voters, in effect, only confirmed the Republican candidates nominated in the Feb. 20 caucus for eight village offices since none had competition.

Robert Waters was elected village president with 51 votes. Incumbent Clerk Ralph Thayer and incumbent Assessor Lloyd Sibley received 52 votes each.

Incumbent treasurer Howard Altman tallied 37 votes.

* * *

Two-year trustee terms were won by incumbents James Huttenlocher, L. Mack Oakley and Jerome Wilford, with votes of 51, and 52 respectively.

Romeo

Three men, nominated for the three council posts open in Romeo, were elected to office by relatively small votes yesterday because of no contests.

The rest of the present officeholders and their totals are President Wayne N. Black, 236; Clerk Dorothy G. Carl, 242; Treasurer Elaine M. Hosner, 241; Assessor Elgin F. Anger Sr., 234; and Library Directors Edgar A. Priest and C. E. Preston, 226 and 216 votes respectively.

The total votes cast were 267 which is about two-thirds less than the February primary.

Armada

Re-elected by 36 votes each were President Robert E. Hollweg, Clerk Byron W. Wright, Treasurer Carl Plauman, Assessor Neuman P. Frost and Trustees Louis Osten, Carl Ballard and Arthur Johnson.

All are members of the People's party.

Forty-seven voters, or over half of the 88 registered in the village, cast ballots last year as compared to the 30 this year.

Dryden

The sale of liquor by the glass was approved by Dryden voters yesterday, 50 to 40, it was the only issue on the ballot to be voted on by the 90 electors who turned up at the polls.

Candidates for the seven village posts were unopposed. All but two of the candidates were incumbents.

Re-elected were Robert White, village president, 87 votes; Mildred Gray, clerk, 84; Gladys Harrington, treasurer, 83; Robert Weingartz, assessor, 82; and Robert McCauley, councilman, 79.

* * *

Milford

Village Councilman Paul Plotzer was defeated in his bid for re-election in one of the two races in Milford. Incumbent Vernon Rounds regained his seat on the council.

Edward Nealer also was unsuccessful in his bid for one of the council posts. He received 155 votes.

Wilbur Johnson, unopposed candidate for the post of village president, was given 327 votes. Maxwell Kelly, also unopposed for a one-year council term, received 319 votes.

Almont

Incumbent Village party candidate Donald Cochrane won election to a two-year term as trustee over Almont party challenger Norman Hamilton in Almont's only village election contest.

* * *

Incumbent Trustee Robert Voss, the only other Almont party candidate listed on the ballot, was re-elected with 41 votes. He was running unopposed.

Also re-elected were Village party incumbents George Juhl, village president; Verne B. Messer, clerk; Nelly Veness, treasurer; and Gordon Gould, trustee. Everyone but the treasurer received 61 votes. She totaled 62.

Rochester

Despite yesterday's inclement weather Rochester voters turned out in large numbers to re-elect three members to the council and elect a fourth nominee to a one-year term.

* * *

Nosed out in his bid for re-election was former Village President Clarence M. Burr, who had served on the council for 14 years.

The incumbents polling the largest number of votes were Jay Eldred with 529, Roy Rewold with 524 and John Boeberitz with 494. They will serve for two years.

The next in line in the heavy balloting was John Lowes, making his initial bid for election to public office. He tallied 451 votes.

* * *

Close behind him was Harold Milton who garnered 434 votes, 10 votes ahead of Burr who polled 424. Dale Cypher received 362 and Floyd C. Cummings trailed with 312.

* * *

A total of 911 votes were cast, which is more than 200 over last year. There are close to 1,500 registered voters in the village.

The newly elected councilmen will be sworn in at the village's organizational meeting March 27.

Then the council will elect its own president.

Holly

Candidates for seven village offices in Holly were unopposed. Five of the candidates were incumbents, the other two were new nominees for the council.

The uncontested candidates and their votes are Aram Krikorian, president, 54; George Patterson, clerk, 57; Hulda Anderson, treasurer, 52; Grant Hulet, assessor, 56; and Councilmen Fred Disbrow, 52, Clarence L. Lester, 57 and John Oldani, 56.

Lester and Oldani are new to the council.

Fight Over Drag Strip in Court Wednesday

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP—The township's fight over the construction of a drag strip here is scheduled for a Circuit Court hearing at 9 a.m. tomorrow before Judge H. Russel Holland.

Township officials filed suit against Robert Amos, owner of the Pontiac Speedway, more than a year ago. The injunction halted construction of the drag strip which was being built as part of the race track on M59.

The township stated that Amos was constructing a portion of the drag strip on property zoned for agriculture. Amos requested that the land be rezoned commercial but was turned down. He then filed a cross-bill against the township for its refusal.

The clinic is facing a current deficit of that amount in its 1961 budget and has been attempting to obtain the funds from the county.

NEWS OF THE AREA

Romeo Okays School Levy

Votes 529 to 445 for 3-Mill Operational Tax Second Time Up

ROMEO—History of a year ago repeated itself in the Romeo Community School District yesterday when voters approved a three-mill tax for operation. The vote was 529 yes to 445 no.

* * *

This is the second year in a row that the Board of Education scheduled a special election the same day as the annual village election in Romeo.

Last March 13 school district voters passed a four-mill operational tax which was requested by the board as a stop-gap measure to be levied for one year. It expires in June.

The three mills approved yesterday will be levied for seven years although only one mill will be levied during the 1961-62 school year.

* * *

A request for identically the same tax levy that was approved yesterday went down to defeat Feb. 3 by a margin of 40 votes. A $700,000 bond issue for classroom construction and expansion on the same ballot lost by a larger majority.

* * *

* * *

Voters in the Romeo precinct favored the proposal yesterday 403 to 293. In Washington, the vote was 85 yes to 58 no.

* * *

Troy Zoning Subject of Special Meet

TROY — The impact of recent court cases on Troy's master zoning plan, an issue which is widening the gap between the two factions on the City Commission, will be discussed at a special meeting here Monday.

* * *

The meeting, was set up last night after a letter was read to the city comissioners from developer Robert L. Silberstein of Detroit who recently won a zoning case over the city in Circuit Court.

Silberstein asked the commission to agree to a consent decree which would set a minimum size for lots in a housing development he plans in the northwestern section of the city.

Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland recently ruled that the city could not force Silberstein to build on half-acre lots as required in that section of the city under Troy's master zoning plan.

* * *

However, the judge did not set a standard size for lots in Silberstein's development. He indicated that the commission should either appeal the case to the State Supreme Court or go through the normal process of downgrading the zoning in that part of the city.

A motion to appeal the Silberstein case to the Supreme Court was dropped last week when it resulted in a tie vote of the commission.

Silberstein now wants to negotiate on the lot sizes with the city commission.

LARGE CROWD EXPECTED

With the city election coming up April 3, a large crowd of residents is expected to be on hand for the meeting. It will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Troy High School auditorium.

* * *

Commissioners in favor of appealing the Silberstein case said Troy's entire master zoning plan would be disrupted if a definite ruling was not made on the lot sizes in question.

Opponents of the Supreme Court appeal argued that setting up minimum lot sizes of one-half acre would keep housing developments out of the city.

City Attorney Stanley E. Burke, who recommended appealing the case, stated that a precedent could possibly be set in Michigan regarding a city's right to enforce a master zoning plan if the case were taken to the high court.

* * *

Burke said the Supreme Court in Michigan never has taken a firm stand on the matter.

REHEARSE FOR 'REVUE'—John Burns (center) doesn't look very convincing as a "hula girl" but his routine will draw plenty of laughs from those who attend the "Red Stocking Revue," a show which will be presented Friday and Saturday at 8:15 p.m. in the Rochester Junior High School auditorium. Adding charm to the chorus line of the follies are two members of the Rochester Junior Women's Club Rockettes, Mrs. James Reynolds (left) and Mrs. Gene Aldridge.

Garver suggested that two classes, not exceeding 12 pupils, be conducted during the summer months.

JOB SEEKER — There's a job open for a 5th starting pitcher with the Detroit Tigers and Bob Bruce is making a strong bid for it. Bruce, a 6-3 righthander, is a native of Highland Park. He lived in Birmingham and now resides in Livonia. Last year he compiled a 4-4 record as a starter. Every day Bruce works on the baseball pulley at Henley Field training camp to strengthen his arms.

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

LAKELAND, Fla. — There's a job open for a fifth starting pitcher with the Detroit Tigers and young Bob Bruce wants everyone, including manager Bob Scheffing, to know that he wants that job.

He tried to impress five other managers but everytime he started to make his point clear a new manager appeared on the scene.

"Every year I came to spring camp and it was all set who the four top pitchers were. All I could hope for was to impress another manager that I was good enough for the bullpen," Bruce said.

Last year with Paul Foytack and Don Mossi both on the disabled list, Bruce was pulled out of the bullpen and got his starting chance. He was 0-3 as a reliefer and finished 4-4 as a starter.

★ ★ ★

"I felt I did much better as a starter, and I sure would like to get a chance in rotation," he noted.

Bruce's best showing on record last year came in Chicago in August when he defeated the White Sox on two hits, 4-1.

"I really thought I had better stuff when I lost to the Red Sox 1-0 and was pulled for a pinch hitter in the ninth," Bruce added.

"I always thought about the chance to pitch against Ted Williams and striking him out," Bruce said.

"Finally, I got that chance and I guess my heart really swelled when I struck him out the first time I faced him. But he took the spunk out of me the next time up. He put the ball over the wall."

★ ★ ★

Bruce played baseball only in his senior year at Highland Park High School. "You won't believe this but I was a real little guy until my senior year and then I really sprung up," he said.

He went to Alma College and in his sophomore year after being scouted by Schoolboy Rowe, he was signed to a contract by Muddy Ruehl in 1953.

For two years he came into early camp and then entered the Armed Forces for two years. In 1958 and 1959 he played winter ball in Cuba before coming to Lakeland each spring.

Today, standing a big 6-3 and 200 pounds, Bruce isn't looking at his baseball career as a rookie anymore. "I've gained confidence. I know there are guys I can pitch to and teams I can beat," he said.

One batter Bruce admits is toughest to pitch to is Roger Maris. "He is the best hitter I ever faced. I tried to watch his every move at the plate but I still haven't found his weakness."

Bob's parents live in Royal Oak. His aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Douglas, live in Pontiac.

In the off season, Bob sells real estate. He likes it as an off-season job, but right now he knows there is a "help wanted" sign for a fifth starter with the Tigers and he wants manager Scheffing to give his application strong consideration.

Floyd Survives 2 Knockdowns to Stop Ingemar

Champion Is Surprised in First Round; Ingo Floored, too

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — Champion Floyd Patterson, who twice rose from the canvas to knock out Ingemar Johansson last night, will next defend his heavyweight crown against Sonny Liston at Philadelphia in September, it was learned authoritatively today.

Patterson and officials of the reorganized Feature Sports, Inc.—which promoted last night's "$3,000,000" fight at Convention Hall—will leave Swedish Ingemar to history, despite his thrilling performance in his third title fight with Floyd.

Neither Floyd nor the FSI officials are the least interested in the loud debate over whether it was a "short count" or a "rabbit punch" that caused Ingo to be in turn floored twice for a knockout at 2:45 of the sixth round. They know that another fight with Johansson would not sell.

The FSI officials have practically wrapped up the fight for Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium and will announce it just as soon as a group of reputable New York business men buy the contract of Philadelphia Sonny, the world's top contender in all rankings.

Patterson and manager Cus D'Amato have insisted that Sonny's questionable ownership give way to new purchasers. And the ownership will be changed soon, it was learned.

Brown-haired, dimpled Ingemar—who outweighed Floyd 206½ pounds to 194½—made a thrilling bid in the first round to become the second man ever to win back the heavyweight title. But it wasn't enough, and he wound up with a gashed right brow and a badly swollen left eye and with referee Bill Regan counting him out. It was the second time in their three title fights that Ingo had been knocked out by Patterson, first man to recapture the title.

Ingo floored Patterson twice in the first round with his "Goteborg thunderbolt" of a right fist. Each time Floyd bounced up at the count of two and took the mandatory eight-count—used for the first time in a heavyweight title fight.

After interesting competition in the next four rounds,in which the champion had a distinct edge, Johansson attacked desperately in the sixth round and had Floyd backing away—"while I adjusted myself" he explained. Then suddenly Floyd landed two solid left jabs that drove the ex-champion sideways. Then he hit on the left side of the head with a straight right that sent him backwards and sideways to the canvas. Ingo tried to rise at the count of eight and almost made it—but not quite.

When the referee waved his arms to signify the knockout, the crowd —estimated at 15,000—booed him because he thought he had given Ingo a short count.

However, neither the Swedish ex-champion; nor Edwin Ahlquist, his Swedish adviser; nor Nils Blomquist, his Swedish trainer; nor Whitey Bimstein, his American trainer, protested the count. But both Ahlquist and Bimstein did protest that the blow which felled the 28-year-old challenger was a "rabbit punch" delivered to the back of the head and neck.

Ingo said he didn't remember what kind of a punch it was "but it hurt."

In addition to Patterson's two knockdown trips to the floor last night, he slipped to the canvas once in the second round and once in the third while evading Ingo's blows. Neither was a knockdown. Also Floyd received a cut on his left brow in the third session.

No official figures were announced for the fight but Feature Sports estimated the crowd at 15,000 and the gate at more than $500,000.

CHAMP FLOORED — Floyd Patterson is down after being nailed by Ingemar Johannson's right in the first round. Seconds later he was dropped again by the same punch. The referee is Billy Regan.

AP Photofax

SO WAS INGO — It was challenger Johannson's turn to hit the canvas in the first round. The Swede survived until the sixth when Patterson won by a knockout.

Mandatory Eight-Count Claimed Decisive Factor

MIAMI BEACH, (AP)—Both Floyd Patterson and Ingemar Johnsson agreed today that the mandatory eight-count was as decisive as the left-right combination that kayoed the Swede in the sixth round and enabled Floyd to retain his world heavyweight crown.

The eight-second rule, used for possibly the first time in a heavyweight title fight, was exercised in the first round when Patterson was floored twice and Ingo once.

"It was good that he had the eight-count," said Johnsson afterward. "I had to wait."

Patterson agreed.

"The eight-count helped me," he admitted, "Those extra few seconds gave my head a chance to clear. He surprised me with that punch. It took all the zip out of me, I was groggy for a long time after that."

Edwin Ahlquist, Ingemar's adviser, also was convinced the eight count was responsible for Johnson's defeat.

"If Ingemar could have gone after him in two or three seconds after the first knockdown," Ahlquist declared, "he would have knocked him out. I didn't know anything about the rule until it was announced the morning of the fight." (Ahlquist did not ask for a change in the rule at the 11 a.m. weigh-in).

Another controversy arose over the actual knockout at 2:45 of the sixth round. There were many in the crowd who thought Johnson beat timekeeper Scotty Lang's count of 10. Ingemar thought so, too.

★ ★ ★

"I thought I was up in time," said Johnsson, "and I'm sorry I wasn't. When he (referee) say eight, I get a little too anxious and I fell.

★ ★ ★

Lang said Johnsson came up on one knee at nine, but then fell back at the count of 10.

"He started twisting as he got up," said Lang. "He tripped over himself and fell back at the full count."

Billy Regan, the referee, said he had just finished the full count when Johnsson tried to get up.

★ ★ ★

"He didn't make the count," Regan explained. "When I took him to his corner, he didn't know where he was at. He was bleary-eyed and wouldn't have continued anyway. I would have stopped the fight if he had gotten up in time."

★ ★ ★

The two gladiators were a sharp contrast when they met newsmen after the fight. Johnsson, although he carried marks of the beating he took from Patterson's smashing left hooks and right crosses, was smiling, alert and composed as he answered questions. Patterson, still bleeding from cuts over and under his left eye, cheekbone and lips, looked dazed and tired.

"I won and I'm happy," he said, "but I'm not satisfied. I could have fought better. I just couldn't get together. He took all the sip out of me with that first knockdown punch. It left me confused. I had no plan of attack after that. I didn't know whether to press him, box him or let him box me."

"I expected him to fight like he did in our second fight," said Patterson. "He was cautious then. But he came out swinging. He hit me before I knew what was happening. He hurt me lots of times."

Johnsson said his quick start was according to plan.

★ ★ ★

"It was my plan to belt him," fast," he explained. "I was figuring he would try to come on at me, as he did before. And I wanted to meet him with his own weapon."

Battle With Press After Main Event

Miami Police Triumph

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—The fight in which Floyd Patterson "knocked out" Ingemar Johansson to retain the heavyweight title was only a preliminary between two men fighting for $4,000,000.

But the best fight came afterward in the corridor fronting Johansson's dressing room where, as a visiting Swedish newspaperman put it, the Miami Beach police acted "just like the Gestapo."

It was a raucous demonstration of brass buttons and how not to handle people which shamed the flatie fireworks in the ring and wound up as a disgraceful exhibition of uncontrolled authority.

The police waded in with everything but nightsticks to prove their muscular superiority and a single-mindedness which made Marshal Foch's "they shall not pass" seem like a Girl Scout ultimatum.

Yngve Fenk, a mild little man representing the Stockholm Expressen, approached the writing cordon waving a dressing room pass which might as well have been printed on square tissues. He's have been safer in between Patterson and Johansson.

A policeman wearing the nameplate "Crane" and badge No. 167 heroically grabbed this underaized guest of the United States—who also has a limp—and nearly strangled him with his own necktie while giving him a shot on the shoulder.

"But," protested the uncomprehending Swede, "I have a dressing room pass."

"Back," virtually screamed the policeman.

"If you don't like it," the policeman shouted, thrusting the little man through the crowd violently, "go back where you come from."

Hugo Wessels, a photographer for United Press International, was removed bodily from the arena when he resisted the police pummeling. Andy Lopes, an old pro with the less who won the Pulitzer Prize for his work, also was hurled through the straining crowd by officers 80 and 181.

"We got our job to do," one policeman stormed, "and we'll do it over your bodies if necessary."

Naturally, Ingemar's forlorn appearance one hour after the bout was somewhat anticlimactic. He plodded in wearing a red tie, a blue left eye and a white patch over his left optic—the most patriotic motif of a rather hectic evening.

Swedes Turn Off Radios After Hero Is Defeated

GOTEBORG, Sweden (UPI) — Thousands of persons in Ingmar Johansson's home town sadly turned off their radios early today and returned to bed after their hero was knocked out in the sixth round by heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson.

Hours before the fight, all Goteborg's jail cells were filled by fans who celebrated the fight in advance.

About 600 fans heard the fight in the only Goteborg restaurant to stay open. Last time, 15 restaurants opened at 4 a.m. (local time).

State liquor stores last night had the busiest day in months as local citizens stocked up to celebrate Johansson's hoped-for win.

One of the first writers to comment on the fight was Stockholm's Tidningen columnist, Bengt Ahlbom, who comforted Johansson. "It is not shame to lose a good match."

"At the height of his triumphs as well as at the bottom of defeat, he showed a remarkable composure and blameless sportsmanship," Ahlbom said.

Ahlbom speculated that Johansson now might retire.

"Let's remember how he worked himself up to the world championship and won. This was one of the strongest performances ever of any Swedish athlete and he has done his best," he added.

ABC Classic Division Has First Big Night

DETROIT (UPI)—Onyx Trophies of New York City and Jerome "Whitey" Harris of St. Louis, Mo., combined talents to give the new classic division of the American Bowling Congress Tournament some long-awaited prestige here last night.

The Onyx club moved into the classic team lead with a 2,955 series to go with an opening 2,849 and 5,804 six-game total. This is 84 pins better than the previous leading 5,720 bowled by the Sullivans of Detroit.

Harris, after taking the classic singles lead with a 652 in the afternoon, came back with a 636 while rolling with the Bowlers' Journal team to give him 2,502 for his 12 classic games. This is the best total by any classic bowler competing in the full 12 games.

The new classic team leaders had to put on a rousing 1,032 finish to take first place. After games of 984 and 939 the New Yorkers then found the strike range.

Burmeister Lumber of Walled Lake rolled 2,560 in regular division action last night led by Capt. Paul Edwards at 555 and Wilson Eggleston with 538.

The boys' part of the American Junior Bowling Congress handicap event was to be completed at Cobo Hall with Bob Sutton of Pontiac's Washington Junior High and Waterford boy Charles Ahnen in the field.

Oven King Cookies of Birmingham, captained by Frank Roosen, and Pasquale's Pizzeria of Lake Orion will compete in the regular tourney tonight. Walt Rennhack heads the latter group.

Important Decision Confronts Sid Abel

DETROIT (AP) — Whether to rely on experience or steadiness in goal for the Stanley Cup is the biggest decision Sid Abel will make all season with the Detroit Red Wings.

The Red Wing coach, with time to be cautious, plans to continue experimenting in tonight's National Hockey League game here with the New York Rangers.

Abel will use both Terry Sawchuk and Hank Bassen in goal against the fifth-place Rangers. New York has found both Detroit netminders vulnerable in recent games. When Abel started his experiment of employing two goalies in one game Sunday at New York, the Rangers clicked for seven goals.

The two netminders have split the job almost evenly all season on a full-game basis. Newcomer Bassen has turned in the better average, slightly under 3 goals a game. Veteran Sawchuk is a bit above the 3-goal mark.

★ ★ ★

But this is what makes Abel's decision difficult. Sawchuk often has been a star in playoff action. Bassen never has played in a Stanley Cup game.

★ ★ ★

Abel will take his experiment into the press box tonight. He'll watch from an above-ice level, where he believes he may be able to spot certain things better. Jimmy Peters, coach of the Detroit Junior Wings, will handle the club from the bench.

Warren Godfrey will return to bolster the burdened defense corps after a three-game absence with a pulled muscle.

Gordie Howe, back in harness after the longest slump of his 15-year career, will seek to increase his Detroit record of notching a point in 16 straight games.

★ ★ ★

Len Lunde, who broke his ankle Feb. 12, had the cast removed yesterday. Lunde was to start skating today to get in shape for the playoffs.

★ ★ ★

The Wings will play at Chicago tomorrow and finish the season here against Montreal Sunday. Abel, carrying out his playoff preparations, will go to Montreal Thursday to watch the Canadiens' first-place battle with Toronto. The fourth-place Wings will play the team that finishes second.

★ ★ ★

The Red Wings announced that home playoff tickets will go on sale next Monday for games March 26 and March 28.

Pistons at Los Angeles to Start Cage Playoffs

By The Associated Press

The Syracuse Nationals open against the Warriors in Philadelphia, while the Detroit Pistons meet the Lakers in Los Angeles tonight as the best-of-five quarter-final playoffs begin in the National Basketball Association.

★ ★ ★

The Boston Celtics, defending world champions and again winner of the Eastern Division title, and the St. Louis Hawks, Western Division champions, will await the winners of each series to challenge for the final East-West playoff.

★ ★ ★

Detroit also plays at Los Angeles Wednesday, with the third game Friday in Detroit. If a fourth game is necessary, it will be Saturday in Detroit. A fifth, if needed, would be in Los Angeles. If the series ends after four games, the winner meets the Hawks Sunday in St. Louis. If the series goes five games, the semifinal will begin in St. Louis Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

After the Eastern opener tonight, the teams will alternate between Syracuse and Philadelphia, with Thursday's game in Syracuse and a Saturday game in Philadelphia. If a fourth game is necessary it will be in Syracuse Sunday, with the fifth game if needed in Philadelphia next Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

Maurice Podoloff, NBA president, said that if the Eastern series ended after three games the winner would meet the Celtics starting Sunday in Boston. He said no schedule had been drawn past that date for the East.

Detroit Win Streak Delayed by Weather

LAKELAND, Fla. — The Detroit Tigers take on the charges of their old front-office mentor Bill DeWitt here today in an exhibition with the Cincinnati Redlegs.

The Tigers victorious in their first three exhibition encounters, and the Milwaukee Braves lost out to another foe yesterday — rain.

The rain began to fall with Tiger lead-off man Jake Wood on third base as the result of a scratch single and two infield outs.

Two Milwaukee rookies, outfielder Mack Jones and pitcher Denis Overby, became minor casualties. Jones pulled a leg muscle over the weekend and Overby was hit on the left ear by a line drive in batting practice.

Roz Russell to 'Return' in 3 Top-Flight Movies

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — After a two-year absence from the screen rubber-faced Rosalind Russell will star in three top-flight pictures this year in a roaring comeback.

"My next four appearances will be in 'Majority of One,' 'Five Finger Exercise,' 'Gypsy' and probably 'Menninger's Clinic,'" the long-legged veteran cracked.

In her next three pictures she will be starring in parts created by other actresses. Gertrude Berg originated the role in "Majority of One," Jessica Tandy was the star of "Five Finger Exercise," and Ethel Merman blasted forth in "Gypsy."

Roz saw all of them perform on Broadway, but won't allow their characterizations to influence her own movie interpretations.

"I've had to forge other stage performances before making movies," Rosalind said. "Shirley Booth was the original star of 'My Sister Eileen,' and Ilka Chase originated my role in 'The Women.'

* * *

"In both cases I completely erased their performances from my mind. I even tried to forget my stage version of 'Mame' for the cameras. The mediums are absolutely different.

* * *

"The thing you have to watch most closely is projection. If an actress played a role as broadly on film as she does on the stage it would end in catastrophe. You have to tone down every move and gesture for movies."

Rosalind says her trio of new roles are all different — one is comedy, one is drama and the third a musical.

Movie Pay Tempts Those TV Actors

By BOB THOMAS

* * *

TV actors are pouring out of the corrals and private-eye offices to make movies. This is the season for it, now that TV series are winding up their production years. So we find Chuck Connors planning to play Geronimo, Robert Taylor filming in Formosa, a flock of Warners cowpokes in the Philippines. Even Andy Griffith is going into "The Diamond Bikini," if you can imagine it.

THOMAS

* * *

Richard Boone is staying here playing in "A Thunder of Drums" at MGM.

"It's a post-Civil War story," he reported.

Boone will portray a rough-tough cavalry officer who chews out everyone in his command. Only at the end of the movie will we find out what's chewing him.

This is his second film since he started his TV series. The first was "The Alamo," in which he had one of unique film deals of all time.

"I never had a contract until about the time I was going to the premiere," he recalled. "John Wayne just asked me if I wanted to do it, and I said sure." Boone said he worked a total of six hours and the pay came out to $4,000 an hour.

"When I got back to town," he said, "Duke (Wayne) called up the Rolls Royce dealer and told him to give me whatever I wanted. I went down and picked out a $24,000 Rolls. It was like a dream."

* * *

Boone's life in the movies was not always so munificent. He was brought out to Hollywood from New York to appear in "The Halls of Montezuma."

* * *

"I made 13 pictures in three years for Fox," Boone recalled. "Most of them were pretty bad."

Then came "Medic" and Paladin, and Boone was in the chips. There had been rumors he was ready to lay down his gun and quit traveling, but he denied he would part with the series.

"I've already signed for a fifth year," he said. "After that, who knows?

* * *

"But I'm willing to keep going with the show as long as it keeps growing. And it does. Next year we'll be doing most of the shows on location, and I'll be directing more of them; I did 10 last year. That's where my interest really lies: in direction."

JFK Delays Strike at Hanford A-Plant

The President sent telegrams to the principal officials concerned, saying "because of the nature of the operation at the plant," he urged the strike deadline be set back from 12:01 a.m. today to midnight March 31.

* * *

"The public interest requires a speedy end of this prolonged dispute," the President said in his telegrams. "I urge all parties to cooperate fully to that end."

A contract dispute began 7½ months ago between the Hanford Atomic Metal Trades Council and General Electric Co., which operates the science center in southeastern Washington where atomic materials are produced.

Moonshine Is Hidden in Rather Corny Place

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Federal officers had just seized a moonshine still and were looking for the products.

And where might you look for corn likker besides under a pile of corn? That's where they found 11 gallons of moonshine, too. Hidden under several hundred bushels of dry ear corn in the crib.

Out to Get U.N. Session Moving

Assembly Head Boland Is Reported Ready to Step In Thursday

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —U.N. Assembly President Frederick H. Boland today was reported ready to take a hand in getting the assembly session moving after a week of fruitless negotiations between the United States and the Soviet Union.

Authoritative sources said Boland probably would try to bring the two big powers together if they can't agree by Thursday on items to be dropped from the assembly agenda or delayed for consideration in the fall.

It was believed the 21-nation steering committee would meet soon after to allocate agenda items to various assembly committees and set a target date for the current session to end. The latest guess on a closing date is April 21.

The assembly faces at least six weeks of debate on such key issues as the Congo, disarmament, South Africa's racial policies and the Palestine refugee problem.

★ ★ ★

It is generally believed that as the closing target date nears, the assembly will decide to wait until the fall session to consider such cold war items as Hungary, Tibet and Soviet charges against U.S. reconnaissance flights over or near the Soviet Union.

Baby Due Monday to Gable's Wife

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Clark Gable's baby will be born Monday by ceasarean section in the same hospital where the movie star died.

Judging from mail, most of his fans want the baby to be named Clark Jr. if it's a boy, but—

"Clark and I talked about that," his blonde widow, Kay, said Monday. "He thought that would be too much of a handicap for a child to bear.

"He liked John Clark or Charles Clark. If it's a girl, he liked my middle name—Gretchen."

She said she hasn't decided on a name.

★ ★ ★

Of the birth itself, she said: "I told the doctor to give me just a spinal anesthetic. I want to be awake upstairs so I can give the baby a hug and a kiss from his pa the minute he's born."

She said it doesn't matter to her, and didn't to Gable, whether the child—his first—is a girl or a boy.

Reuther Is Seeking Another Top Aide

DETROIT (AP) — United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther is scanning a list of aides to pick a replacement for Jack T. Conway, his administrative assistant who has answered the Kennedy call.

Conway, a 43-year-old Democrat who lives in Grosse Pointe Park, has been a member of UAW Presidents top-level "brain trust" for 14 years.

Monday he was named by President Kennedy to become deputy administrator of the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency, a $20,000 a year post. He must be confirmed by the Senate.

Union sources say the most likely candidate to replace Conway as Reuther's right-hand man is Irving Bluestone, 44, who joined the international union staff here in 1944 after serving on the east coast region staff in Harrison, N.J.

Eddie Says Liz Will Work Only in Sunny Climes

LONDON (UPI)—Singer Eddie Fisher was quoted today as saying his wife Elizabeth Taylor who had a near-fatal bout with pneumonia, will work in the future only in places where the climate is warm and sunny.

★ ★ ★

London Express writer David Lewin quoted Fisher as saying, "I've decided that whatever happens after this miracle of the past week, what is of overriding importance is my wife's good health.

★ ★ ★

"She must have good climate and must have sun. So I've decided wherever she works and wherever she lives there must be sun."

Thief Hits Low; Takes Blind Tots' Garments

They'd Rather Have Southeast Asia

Reds Don't Want Peace in Laos

TOKYO (UPI)—Quick rejection by the Communist bloc of a Laotian "agreement to agree" points up what appears to be the Communists' policy for Laos: They don't want peace. They want Southeast Asia.

★ ★ ★

Unlike the Congo, which presents a nightmare in logistics should Russia try to turn the Dark Continent into a hot war, Laos borders on two Communist countries, Red China and Communist North Viet Nam.

Supplying arms to Laotian Communist forces is far easier than arming Congolese forces sympathetic to Moscow and Peiping. And with the red-backed Pathet Lao military units on the offensive, the Communists can be expected not to seriously consider any peace efforts.

Laos is not the only goal of the Communists. It is a major step in the Communist bloc's expansion that would include the rubber riches of Malaya and the oil and rubber wealth of Indonesia. A political peace would block this plan.

COURSE FOR PEACE

Two of the three political factions in Laos met last week in the neutralist capital of Cambodia, Phnom Penh. They charted a course for the leftists, neutralists and rightists to come to terms on a peace settlement.

The two Laotians, Deputy Premier Phouml Nosavana of the anti-Communist Laotian government, and Prince Souvanna Phouma, in-and-out premier of Laos now exiled in Cambodia, met last week and agreed to further talks on a peace plan.

Major points agreed on were the introduction of a three-nation neutral watchdog commission to oversee a Laotian truce while a Cambodian-sponsored 14 nation Geneva conference worked out a settlement.

★ ★ ★

The two leaders further agreed to meet again, perhaps this week, for talks with larger delegations from their factions. Although nothing has been definitely decided, they were believed working on a plan whereby the three factions could represent Laos at the international Geneva conference.

Gets His Instructions for Geneva Meeting

WASHINGTON (UPI)—With officials "determined" but "not overly optimistic," the Kennedy administration made final preparations today for its first bout with Russia on the issue of nuclear testing.

★ ★ ★

U.S. negotiator Arthur D. Dean was scheduled to meet this morning with President Kennedy and this afternoon with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee before leaving Wednesday for Geneva.

A week from today, in Geneva's Palais Des Nations, the United States, Britain and Russia will resume nuclear test ban talks they began Oct. 31, 1958. The talks were recessed for the U.S. elections.

Within six to eight weeks, U.S. officials expect to have a clear idea of whether Russia seriously means to negotiate or is only stalling.

Either way, the talks promise to have historic importance. If they fail, the new administration will be under strong pressure to resume U.S. nuclear tests suspended since 1958, and the nuclear race will be on again.

If they succeed, they would result in a treaty banning certain nuclear tests as a beginning.

Russia would have to open its doors to international inspectors to provide what the west insists must be a "substantial deterrent against cheating."

It also would probably result in a joint research program with Russia, including some experimental nuclear blasts, to devise ways of monitoring hard-to-detect small underground tests.

The amount of energy fixed annually in the sugar manufactured by plants in the U. S. is the equivalent of about 300 billion tons of coal.

Soybean Futures Looking Upward

After starting off with further losses running to about 2 cents on old crop deliveries, a flurry of buying turned prices upward and within a few minutes the recovery had carried well above the previous closes on the nearby months.

Brokers said the demand appeared to be mainly reinstatement of long positions that had been sold out during the setbacks. It was an indication, they said, that the decline may have come to an end for the present.

Clothiers Seek Good Weather

Pleasant Temperature, Confidence Are Keys to Easter Buying

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—With three weeks in which to sell Easter finery merchants are praying for good shopping weather—and for consumer attitudes to be unswayed by all the recession talk in and out of Washington.

Consumers are counted upon to take their cues from the stock market, where the sentiment of many investors is strongly optimistic.

Despite the large total of jobless, there are 64 million Americans with jobs. Most of them are able to maintain present spending habits and some are in a position to buy more now.

The early Easter, merchants hope, will start the ball rolling.

And if it does, higher retail sales could act in the same way as higher stock prices. That is, the contagion of optimism could alleviate, if not cure, some of the economic ills that have worried the experts in the uncertain months of winter.

Such hope apparently is what Commerce Secretary Luther H. Hodges has in mind when he says he thinks the economy is now in position to start to move upward.

Sheep-Rustling Charge Brings Jail for Pair

Edward Buchin, 24, of 21199 Flanders Road, and Harold Shepherd, 23, of Detroit, waived examination at their arraignment yesterday in the Howell Municipal Court.

They were ordered held in jail on $1,000 bond each to await trial in the Livingston County Circuit Court.

A deputy sheriff charged that during a drinking party in Detroit last Friday the defendants decided to go out and get something to eat for the other guests.

The deputy said the two men went to the farm of Carl Musch, killed two of his sheep with a hammer, and took them back to the party.

There they reportedly dressed one of the sheep and ate a portion of it. The other carcass was taken home by Buchin, police said.

Says Chinese Fired on a Patrol in India

NEW DELHI (UPI) — Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon said today Chinese Communist troops entered Indian territory Friday and fired on an Indian patrol.

★ ★ ★

He said Indian reinforcements rushed to the scene and captured a Chinese Communist prisoner.

The latest incursion in a series Chinese - Indian border disputes was reported near the border of Sikkim and Tibet in the Himalayas.

Wants to Unite Farmers

English Group to Hear Talk by Dr. James

Familiar passages of the Bible will be revealed in an unusual light when Dr. Thelma Gray James reads and interprets "The English Bible as Literature" at the Waterford Township English Association meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday, March 22.

The meeting will be held in the teachers' conference room of the John Pierce Junior High School. The public is welcome.

Dr. James will discuss such details of Biblical writing as style, vocabulary and figures of speech in a warm and personal manner as the result of her many years of study in this area of literature.

She is a professor in the college of liberal arts of Wayne State University. Her many professional interests include membership in the American Folklore Society, Michigan Folklore Society and the International Institute of Metropolitan Detroit.

News in Brief

Theft of her purse containing $16 and a department store charge plate from a desk at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital was reported to Pontiac police yesterday by Rita Varanoff, 49, of 32 Auburn Ave.

An unknown amount of change was looted from a cigarette machine during a break-in at Ashland's Gas Station, 2205 Pontiac Trail, in Commerce Township, it was reported to the sheriff's department yesterday.

Major Stocks Change Little

NEW YORK (AP)—Some wide moves in selected issues highlighted a mixed stock market early this afternoon. The over-all tendency was toward the downside.

Gains and losses of most key stocks were small, few going to as much as a point. More speculative issues produced moves of 4 points or so either way.

While long-range optimism about a business upturn continued, there was little in the current news to swing interest to the cyclical stocks.

Big three motors were down slightly, oils off on balance and steels narrowly irregular. Most chemicals declined. Many leading rails showed no change.

A huge accumulation of buy orders delayed the opening of Lockheed following news that it had been awarded an Air Force contract estimated at a billion dollars, of which half must be subcontracted.

Losers in the design competition which Lockheed won included Boeing, which traded about unchanged, General Dynamics, which eased, and Douglas Aircraft, which fell 4⅛ to 32 on successive blocks of 9,000 and 4,500 shares, later halving the loss.

Reynolds Tobacco, which rose 3⅜ Monday, on rumors of a stock split, spurted another 4 points or so.

Marine Strength Up at Guantanamo Bay

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Marine Corps commandant Gen. David M. Shoup said Monday there has been a "significant" strengthening of U.S. Marine forces in the Caribbean in the past year.

★ ★ ★

Shoup told the House Armed Services Committee in closed-door testimony later made public that Marine forces at the Guantanamo Naval Base in Cuba have been "augmented."

No further details on this point were made public.

Area Man Remains in Coma; Was Beaten

A 44-year-old Independence Township man remained in a coma at Pontiac General Hospital today more than 34 hours after being beaten brutally in his home early Sunday morning.

Sheriff's deputies were holding Robert Young, 22, of 4174 Lotus Drive, Waterford Township, for investigation of felonious assault.

Detectives said Rowley apparently had been severely beaten about the head and face with a chair.

Deputies found both Rowley and Young lying unconscious on the floor of Rowley's home when they responded to a summons by Mrs. Young. She said she had not seen any struggle between the two men, who, according to her, had been drinking together earlier.

City Centennial Committee Mum on Ladies' Part

In the face of an increasing number of queries about ladies' regalia in the centennial celebration, centennial headquarters is still trying to maintain a discreet silence today.

★ ★ ★

But it is an open secret that within a short time regalia for women will be proclaimed an official part of the Greater Pontiac Centennial, just as beards, old-fashioned hats and string ties have been okayed for men.

Centennial officials said they don't want to let the cat out of the bag just yet, planning to time the ladies announcement later on.

★ ★ ★

Probation and Fines Meted Out to Youths

Probation terms of one year, restitution and $100 court costs for each were the sentences meted out yesterday to two young men for looting telephone booth coin boxes.

Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams imposed the same sentences on James Shafor Jr., 18, 150 Heights Road, and James F. Cox, 21, 1392 Paul Blvd., both of Orion Township, after the pair pleaded guilty Feb. 27 to opening or attempting to open a coin box.

A broken taillight on the pair's car led to their arrest by sheriff's detectives. They said the two boys would tie chains between the phone booths and their car in attempts to rip the phones from the booths. Once a booth fell upon the taillight and smashed it.

Fr. Coughlin Suffers 'Mild Collapse' at Altar

ROYAL OAK (AP) — Rev. Charles E. Coughlin, pastor of the Roman Catholic Shrine of the Little Flower and once widely known as the radio priest, suffered what a parishioner term "a minor collapse" at the altar of his church Monday.

JFK Names Secretary

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy today chose U. Alexis Johnson, now ambassador to Thailand, to be deputy under secretary of state for political affairs.

Kansas City, Kan., originally was called Wyandotte City after the Wyandotte Indians.

Ex-Bar Director Hits Nonpartisan Judge Elections

A former director of the Detroit Bar Association today labeled nonpartisan election of Michigan Supreme Court justices "ridiculous" and called for adoption of the Missouri plan in Michigan.

William H. Baldwin, unsuccessful candidate for the State Supreme Court in 1959, cited nonpartisanship as "perhaps the major factor in dissuading highly qualified men from seeking election to the judiciary."

Baldwin told a meeting of the Bloomfield Hills Republican Women's Club that there are "inherent difficulties" in seeking election as a judge.

★ ★ ★

"The whole ethos of the courts and the legal profession dictates a certain restraint and decorum," Baldwin explained.

★ ★ ★

Takes Ghana AF Post

Criticizes Rush of Ballot Plan

County Clerk - Register Says Oakland Will Have to Spend $400 Extra

A last-minute rush by the legislature to get Gov. John B. Swainson's industrial credit proposal on the April 3 ballot was sharply criticized today by County Clerk-Register Daniel T. Murphy Jr.

★ ★ ★

Murphy said the county will have to spend about $400 to print extra absentee ballots containing the proposal. Absentee ballots were distributed today by Murphy's office to city, township and village clerks.

"They could have passed this thing weeks ago," Murphy said. "It perturbs me that the legislators can't give a little more consideration to local needs."

He said until the extra ballots are printed many voters in the county will not vote on the special proposition. He said it should take about two or three days for printing and delivery.

★ ★ ★

The proposal, which would grant the legislature the right to establish a $5 million loan fund to grant credit to industry seeking to expand or locate in the state, will, however, appear on all April 3 ballots.

35 Protest at Meeting

Discard Plans to Black Top Waterford's Riviera Street

Due to strenuous protests of Riviera Street residents, the Waterford Township Board last night decided to discontinue any plans for black topping the road.

The hearing drew protests from some 35 people attending the meeting on the fact that only a portion of the street would be black topped from Elizabeth Lake Road to Beechgrove Street.

Another major objection was that the estimated cost of $6,380 was too high. Each 50-foot lot assessment would pay about $245 plus an additional $42.50 for driveway paving to the property line.

However, the Township Board approved another black topping project on Cheeseman Street from Frembes Street to Sashabaw Road. Cost of this project was estimated at $10,251 or $5.74 a front foot.

★ ★ ★

Clerk James E. Seeterlin was authorized to ask for construction bids, and after these have been opened, there will be another hearing on the work.

Seeterlin was also authorized to ask for bids for a one-ton pickup truck for the water department. These will be opened at next week's board meeting.

★ ★ ★

A hearing date was set for April 10 for the establishment of a special street light district in the Watkins Hills No. 3 subdivision, on Silver Sands Street. There are 30 assessments costing $4.80 each for five lights, to be paid annually. The township would pay 10 per cent of the total $160.20 annual cost.

★ ★ ★

The Township Board discussed briefly a new attorney general's ruling that the township be required to pay the three per cent social security tax for justices of the peace. There had been some question as to whether the county or township should assume this responsibility. There was no board action on the matter.

★ ★ ★

Blackford Will Delay Cross-Shield Action

LANSING (UPI) — State Insurance Commissioner Frank Blackford said today he would hold off his decision on Blue Cross-Blue Shield rate increase requests pending a Supreme Court decision.

★ ★ ★

The State Supreme Court was asked Monday to issue a show cause order and set a hearing March 21 on the matter.

★ ★ ★

Paul Silvers, president of United Auto Workers Local 351, and Mike Marasco, vice president of UAW Local 7, both of Detroit, said Blackford should be required to hold a formal hearing on the requests.

Supervisor Candidate Addresses GOP Club

John Boardman, Republican candidate for supervisor, told the board he believes the government employes of Waterford Township should have some form of job security.

Boardman said the cost of training new people for less jobs is too high and that the township cannot afford this burden.

Boardman told the group that if he is elected supervisor there will be no mass firing of township personnel.

Keeps Political Link

Nixon Back in Law Office

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Richard Milhous Nixon, who rose from small town lawyer to vice president of the United States, is back in a law office today.

The defeated Republican presidential candidate ended two months of speculation about his future Monday when he told a news conference:

RICHARD M. NIXON

He is joining the large Los Angeles law firm of Adams, Duque and Hazeltine.

KEEPS FOOT IN DOOR

He will divide his time between the law office and a separate, privately run political headquarters.

He will scrupulously avoid any legal activity that might lead to charges of conflict of interest.

He intends to provide leadership for the Republican party in California and the nation.

Nixon noted he will work as counsel, not partner, for the firm. As counsel, he explained, he will be paid only for those cases which he handles directly. As a partner, he would share in all fees received by the firm. He said this arrangement will help him avoid any charges of influence peddling or conflict of interest.

The former vice president said he expects to work primarily in tax cases, labor relations and anti-trust suits and U.S. corporations' relations in foreign countries.

He added: "I won't take any matters of using my influence on a government agency to get special consideration for a client."

30-Page Report Tells Issues

Con-Con Gets Explained

EAST LANSING (AP) — A study designed to help Michigan voters understand the issues involved in a constitutional convention has just been published by the Michigan State University Bureau of Social and Political Research, the university has announced.

★ ★ ★

The study, "Focus on Con-Con," was written by Carolyn Stieber, MSU political scientist.

The 30-page report samples opinion but does not try to interpret or evaluate various positions, the university said.

★ ★ ★

Persons interviewed include Gov. Swainson, Swainson, Secretary of State James M. Hare, Dr. James Miller, president of Western Michigan University; Joseph Parisi, of the Michigan Townships Association; Stanley Powell and Dan Reed of the Michigan Farm Bureau, and August Scholle, of Royal Oak president of the Michigan AFL-CIO.

★ ★ ★

Found Guilty of Using a Stolen Credit Card

Sentence will be passed March 27 by Circuit Judge Frederick C. Ziem for Henry C. Helm, who pleaded guilty yesterday to getting $54 worth of merchandise by using a stolen credit card.

★ ★ ★

Helm, 17, 7735 Maceday Drive, Waterford Township, admitted, when arraigned on a charge of uttering and publishing, that he using a Kresge credit card of Willard A. Bell, 103 Fairgrove St., for six purchases. He was released on a $100 bond to await sentence.

Lockheed Will Develop Jet Transport, Then Build 100

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration has awarded a billion dollar contract for development and production of a new jet transport plane. The action is aimed at improving U.S. ability to move troops swiftly to any distant trouble spot.

The contract, announced by the White House Monday, calls for Lockheed Aircraft Corp. to develope long-range, high speed jet cargo and troop carrier planes and build more than 100 at its Marietta, Ga., plant.

* * *

The first planes are expected to be ready by mid-1964.

President Kennedy has given high priority to the problem of improving the armed forces' capability for fighting so-called "brush fire" wars, where nuclear weapons would not be used.

The plane, known as the SOR182 will replace older aircraft flown by the Military Air Transport Service.

* * *

Specifications call for the new transport to carry troops or heavy cargo at speeds of 440 to 500 nautical miles an hour for distances ranging up to 5,550 nautical miles, according to the load carried.

The plane will be powered by four turbo-fan engines and a pressurized cabin will permit carrying troops at altitudes of over 25,000 feet.

Sullivan Nixes Paar Challenge

Jack Calls Ed a Liar, Looks for Suit, but CBS Star Says No

NEW YORK (AP)—Jack Paar said on the air Monday night that "Ed Sullivan is a liar"—and he challenged Sullivan to sue him for libel. Sullivan said he had no intention of suing.

★ ★ ★

Paar told his nationwide television audience that Sullivan did not tell the truth about the reason for cancellation of their scheduled TV debate. In a courtroom, under oath, Sullivan would have to tell the truth, Paar said, indicating this was the reason for his challenge.

Sullivan was to have debated Paar on Paar's NBC program Monday night over the question of performers' fees.

The debate was called off Monday afternoon, with each side blaming the other.

Paar said this was not true. He said Sullivan did not appear on the videotaped show before a studio audience because "he would commit suicide before an audience."

Paar said all of Sullivan's ground rules for the debate had been agreed to—with the exception of two points.

First, Paar wanted an audience.

Second, Paar said he wanted the debaters to be able to ask each other questions, to discuss their differences, rather than each make a formal statement and rebuttal.

Asked to comment on Paar's statement, Sullivan said he did not intend to sue but would still like to debate.

"I won't tell a lie about Paar," he said. "Despite all the smoke screen and all the publicity from NBC, this fellow walked out on the debate."

Sullivan said plans for the debate had been all set when, at 2:30 p.m. Monday, Paar's representatives informed Sullivan's representatives that the NBC star would not appear in a debate unless a discussion period and question-and-answer session were to follow.

Sullivan said this was not acceptable, adding: "In a discussion, you can obscure a point by interruption. This device is particularly well fitted for a comic. I'm a newspaperman, and I'm interested in facts."

TV News and Reviews

Name Calling Obscures Paar-Sullivan Issues

By CYNTHIA LOWERY
AP-TV Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—By the time the Jack Paar signed off early this morning, it was getting a little difficult to remember what the Ed Sullivan-Jack Paar feud was all about.

The name calling and counter-charges had rather obscured the issues, if there ever were any.

Fortunately, the Patterson-Johansson fight (on radio) wound up just in time to permit the listeners to switch to the last round—one hopes—of the Sullivan-Paar affray.

Earlier in the evening on the NBC Huntley-Brinkley news show the situation of Sullivan pulling out of the debate was handled in three brisk, sardonic sentences by Chet Huntley.

However, during a station break immediately following the news show (and frequently during the evening) an announcer reported that the debate was off, but urged that we tune in the Paar show anyway to learn all the circumstances.

'PAAR WELSHED'

On CBS, Sullivan's network, Douglas Edwards devoted two or three minutes to a taped interview with Sullivan. Ed was grim, serious and righteous. To a CBS staff reporter's question as to why the debate was called off, he glared at the camera and said, "Paar welshed; choked up and ran out."

★ ★ ★

That was the end of it as far as CBS was concerned.

Hope for a debate flared again when the Paar show started. Hugh Downs came out and said earnestly that we were about to witness "an unusual and important television event."

This proved to be a bit of an overstatement. Paar came out, sat down facing the camera and for 50 minutes—including time out for the commercials—told us what he thought of Sullivan. He started by saying that "Mr. Sullivan has proved to be as honest as he is talented." Almost an hour later, he wound up by stating "Ed Sullivan is a liar." In between, it was pretty much the same, and it was a long 50 minutes.

It was a long, tiring evening. Just what it proved is another matter. But the feud sure gave Ed and Jack a lot of publicity.

SURE, AND IT'S TEA, NOW — Irish playwright Brendan Behan pours himself a cup of tea on arrival in New York Monday aboard the liner Queen Elizabeth. Notorious for his partiality to hard liquor, Behan now says he no longer drinks it. He plans to march in Friday's St. Patrick's Day parade, make several stage and TV appearances and see about production of a new play.

THEY LIKE HIS HELP — In appreciation for his leadership of a successful fund raising drive for local Junior Achievement activities, M. F. Rummel (right) director of purchasing for Pontiac Motor Division, was presented a pair of roasting forks from a division-sponsored JA group. Making the presentation were Tong Co. president Alfred Storm, Clarkston High School student; and Carmen Weber, secretary, a student of Pontiac Central.

Even Weatherman Is Funny on Broadway

By EARL WILSON

WILSON

"Isn't she beautiful? Only two weeks old—and already on cereal! I never heard of a two-weeks old baby having cereal!"

Henny, at home in the plush Plaza, said: "Every woman coming out of a beauty parlor now looks like Jackie Kennedy except my wife. She looks like Lyndon Johnson . . . She's never satisfied. She'd like to change places with Marilyn Monroe. I'd chip in a little to help her . . . I already bought her a mink-looking coat."

Pan Mail: "You made a boo-boo in your bit about Chinese food. Those ridiculous 'R' sounds in place of 'L' sounds would never have come out of a Chinese mouth. Since no 'R' sound exists in Chinese, they are apt to substitute an L for an R, saying 'Velly well,' and 'Solly.' The 'rots of ruck' expression was exploited by a comedienne doing a takeoff on a Japanese person's English.—Donald H. Palmeter, San Francisco."

BARBARA

Dear DHP: Sorry to say, you're right! Further proving your point, a Chinese girl disc jockey in Hong Kong told Irving Holiman, "I have lots of lelatives here who have luined my leputation cliticizing me because I play lock and loll lecords."

★ ★ ★

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Jack Carter's girl friend, Paula Stewart, says they'll wed when he finds an apartment . . . Pianist Errol Garner, who's suing Columbia Records, was asked where he's appearing lately. "Mostly," he said, "in court" . . . Frank Sinatra's looking for an office and living space in Washington.

Shelley Berman'll entertain in Washington at the radio and TV correspondents' dinner.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: "I won't tell you how long I've been working," says Phyllis Diller,—"but I was fired from my first job for stealing 2c stamps."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: You can figure the marriage has gone sour when your wife stops helping you with the dishes.

Report 1 in 11 Citizens Listed at 65 or Older

WASHINGTON (UPI) — One out of every 11 Americans is 65 or older, according to the Census Bureau.

Compared to 1950, when there were 12.3 million persons 65 and older, last year's figure was an increase of 34.7 per cent. For the population as a whole, the increase during the decade was 18.5 per cent.

Billboards Ruling: Not Permitted to Double Size

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Commerce Secretary Luther H. Hodges says he has rejected a proposal by the billboard industry that the government double the size of advertising signs allowed along the interstate highway system.

★ ★ ★

The proposal was made late last year to former Secretary Frederick H. Mueller who invited comments.

The department said today "the comments were overwhelmingly against the proposal" except for support from the billboard industry.

Hodges said his decision was in accord with recommendations of Clarence D. Martin, undersecretary for transportation, and Rex M. Whitton, federal highway administrator who has charge of the interstate system.

★ ★ ★

Hodges has indicated previously at press conferences that he was opposed to increasing the size of billboards along the highways. Monday's statement made it final.

Attorney General Kennedy Trying to Curb Trusts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy is moving quietly to curb antitrust violations, which he says "have the potential for bilking the general public."

★ ★ ★

"Right now, in almost every major community, investigations are taking place in this area," Kennedy told an interviewer recently. "Grand juries are sitting in a good number of these places."

★ ★ ★

"When you have a monopoly control, obviously you have prices going up for the consumer," he said. "That is why the Justice Department critically examines mergers which could lead to monopoly control."

★ ★ ★

Kennedy has given the word to his antitrust staff that he expects "actions that will speak louder than words."

"It may well be," Kennedy said "that our record here will reflect the record for the whole Department of Justice."

JFK Plans Addresses to Newspaper Groups

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The White House announced Monday that President Kennedy will address two groups of newspaper executives next month.

The President will speak here April 20 to a luncheon meeting of the American Society of Newspaper Editors.

On April 27 he will speak in New York at a dinner given by the Bureau of Advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers Association.

Almost Runs Deputy Down

Youth, 19, Sentenced to 5 Days Following a Charge With His Car

A 19-year-old Pontiac youth began serving a five-day sentence at the county jail yesterday for reckless driving after almost running down a sheriff's deputy during a wild ride through a restaurant parking lot Saturday night.

Courtemanche was first spotted driving without lights as he pulled into the crowded Blue Star Restaurant parking lot at 2008 Opdyke Road in the township with a carload of teen-age boys.

Sheriff's deputy Jesse Whitlock said he attempted to flag the car to a stop. Instead of stopping, Courtemanche swerved the car and bore down on the deputy.

LIKE A MATADOR

He sidestepped like a matador in the bullring, reached through an open window on the driver's side of the car and collared Courtemanche.

The youth stepped on the gas, forcing Whitlock to let go and jump clear. The car then careened several hundred yards until it smashed into a utility pole.

Slightly injured in the crash, Courtemanche refused medical treatment and was arrested. The other youths had jumped out of the wrecked car and fled on foot.

Whitlock said he had intended only to warn the youth about driving without lights before being nearly run down.

Mrs. Gerald Ferguson, 7583 Pontiac Lake Road, and E. A. Bradshaw, 7540 Pontiac Lake Road, both reported that there was a blinding flash of lightning, then all of the lights in the houses went out. The entire electrical circuits in the houses were blown out, including wall light plugs.

Cummings has served 23 years on the board, Anabel four months. Anable four months.

Bids to Save Dr. Finch From Death

Attorney Max Keith, 36, handling his first murder case, opens final defense arguments for the 43-year-old surgeon at his trial with Carole Tregoff.

It's the third trial for Finch and his mistress, accused of killing the doctor's wife in July 1959 — and he has placed his life entirely in the hands of the comparatively untested attorney.

Finch's first lawyer was elegant, grey-haired Grant Cooper, a high-priced veteran of criminal cases.

But Keith, whose boss is Cooper, is a drawling, Jimmy Stewart-type character whose professional hayseed manner is reminiscent of Hollywood's famous attorney of the stars, Jerry Giesler.

Keith's handsombe, likeable manner is of extreme concern to the prosecution — which also resents him because, like Cooper, he once worked in the district attorney's office, and now is opposing it.

Deputy District Attorney Joseph Powers warned the jury of nine men and three women last week that, like actor Jimmy Stewart, Keith tries to use his own pleasant personality to gain sympathy for his cause — or part.

Keith got his revenge in part Monday. During Powers' final prosecution argument, he looked as if he would fall asleep momentarily. He yawned from time to time. He looked excruciatingly bored.

House in Fog Over Plates

Won't Repeal, Nor Pass Appropriation to Order Reflectorized Tags

LANSING (UPI) — Secretary of State James M. Hare says the legislature must make up its mind soon on whether Michigan vehicles will carry reflectorized license plates next year.

Otherwise, he said, the license plate manufacturing unit at Southern Michigan Prison will not be able to produce them for distribution next November, when they normally would go on sale.

The legislature could quickly solve the problem by repealing the reflectorization law and the 35-cent fee that goes with it, Hare said. The repealer has cleared the Senate but appears bogged down in the House State Affairs Committee.

Rep. Lloyd Gibbs, R-Portland, committee chairman, said "There doesn't appear to be enough sentiment in the committee to send it to the House floor for debate."

"I am for repealing it myself," he said.

Michigan motorists set off a hubbub earlier this year when they learned they had to pay an extra 35 cents for reflectorized plates that did not exist.

The law and the extra charge went into operation last spring, but the legislature failed to make an appropriation for the specially treated plates, which were touted as a safety measure.

A Circuit Court order last month stopped collection of the fee, but only after motorists had paid out $1.3 million. Hare estimated the luminous coating would cost $2.3 million.

Advising the legislature on what it could do to resolve the problem, Hare suggested an appropriation for reflectorization as an alternative to repealing the law.

Teacher Is Slugged, Then Robbed of $9

A substitute teacher in Pontiac was slugged and robbed of her purse behind her home on the city's south side Sunday night.

Miss Mary Lyle, 25, of 91 Bloomfield Terrace told police yesterday that she had just got out of her car to go in the house when her assailant knocked her to the ground and ran off with her purse containing $9.

She suffered facial cuts and bruises in the attack, and was treated by a neighboring physician.

Bus Company Will Add Route for Perry Park

Other Changes Due; December Profit Helps to Offset Slight Loss

Pontiac Transit Corp., expressing optimism about increased patronage, today announced that service will be extended to populous Perry Park subdivision Monday on a 60-day trial basis.

Several other minor route changes were also announced to begin next week.

The service extension is the first by the new bus company, which began operations last June 9, two months after Pontiac City Lines, Inc., pulled out in the face of a six-month strike.

Neel B. Pilsen, transit company manager, said the new service will go as far as Perry and Madison Streets near Pontiac Northern High School, leaving downtown every half hour during the morning and afternoon rush hours and once every hour the rest of the day.

The 15-minute outbound trip from downtown Saginaw Street will be over Mt. Clemens Street, East Boulevard and Perry Street to Madison. The return trip, also taking 15 minutes, will be via Kennilworth, Baltimore, Melrose, Mt. Clemens, Mill and East Huron Streets.

SECOND MOVE

The extended service is the second expansion move taken by Pontiac Transit Corp. The first occurred in November, when the company purchased 12 new GMC Truck & Coach-Division buses.

Pilsen said that it was the "grat-

Voter Turnout Light Except in Rochester, Beverly Hills, Orion

Light balloting was the order of the day yesterday as voters in 18 area communities went to the polls to pick their village officers.

Heavy turnouts were reported, however, in Rochester, Beverly Hills and Lake Orion where interest was high in most races. In these communities voters came in large numbers despite almost constant snow and rain showers throughout the day and evening.

In two of the three villages proposals appearing on the ballot were favored by wide margins, Franklin electors approved the purchase of the Village Green, and residents of Wood Creek Farms okayed a sewer contract with Farmington Township.

A small majority of 10 votes was all that was needed to pass the proposal to authorize the sale of liquor by the glass in Dryden.

★ ★ ★

Sticker candidates in Lake Orion drew considerable support but not enough to unseat the incumbents.

Generally yesterday's annual election served merely to confirm the Feb. 20 nominations or to re-elect village officers who were unchallenged in their bids to continue in office.

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Malayan U.N. patrols today beat the bush to reach 300 white missionaries, businessmen and nuns in rebel-held Kivu Province as the first rescued told of atrocities by rampacious Congolese soldiers.

Some Americans were among the whites trapped in isolated jungle outposts as rescue forces were rushed out.

U. N. headquarters received a tearful typewritten plea from a Belgian nun: "Can no one help us from outside?"

RUNNING WILD

The Congolese soldiers were running wild in a siege of terror that began more than two weeks ago in the Maniema region. Kivu officials, who refused to let the whites leave the chaotic province because their skills are needed, apparently were unable to keep their own forces in hand.

Only fragmentary reports came from the Malayan U.N. troops rushed into the area dominated by Lumumbists.

No word had been heard from a patrol sent to rescue an American missionary girl who was raped by four Congolese soldiers and told she would never be allowed to leave the province alive.

Three Belgian nuns — one 75 years old — were among 20 brutally beaten Europeans brought to Leopoldville.

One told of a raid on the Kasongo Mission. The nuns were hauled off to prison and forced to strip, and two women "were brought away and violated throughout the whole night."

The terror in Kivu came to light as the Congo's anti-Communist political leaders arrived in Elisabethville, capital of Katanga Province, after their talks at Tananarive, Malagasy.

Measure Clears Senate 26 to 3 for April Vote

If Amendment Passes State 'Authority' Could Seek New Factories

LANSING (AP) — Whether Michigan should use $5 million of its credit to attract new industry will be decided by the voters April 3.

A last-minute constitutional amendment was being added to the ballot today.

The measure, which was cleared by the Senate by a 26-3 vote Monday night, would pave the way for the creation of a Greater Michigan Authority.

The agency would have the power to extend financial assistance to industrial development projects.

A similar agency in Arkansas helped that state to lure the Norge Refrigeration operation from Muskegon, with the loss of some 1,800 jobs and a $10 million yearly payroll.

Because of the lateness of the proposal, election officials feared that most absentee ballots would not include the proposition, and absentee voters would be disenfranchised on the issue.

The measure provides that the legislature may allow credit of the state up to $5 million to be granted "for the purpose of financing industry, manufacturing and municipal development projects."

It is part of Gov. Swainson's proposal which he contended would stimulate new industry and create more jobs in the state.

But Sen. Lynn Francis, R-Midland, described the resolution as a long step toward socialism.

"This is going a long way toward government control of industries and our whole way of life," Francis said in debate on the measure.

"I am unwilling to accept socialistic propositions to turn over my rights as a citizen and an individual to government control."

Sen. Basil Brown D-Detroit, described the proposal as not going far enough but being a step in the right direction.

The vote followed a public hearing by the Senate Judiciary Committee on the measure at which 12 witnesses testified on both sides. Most business representatives opposed the amendment.

The committee chairman, Sen. Carlton H. Morris, R-Kalamazoo, said the state's business climate was changing from "cloudy to overcast" to "fair and clearing."

He attributed part of the change to the election of Swainson, whom he said had not insisted on additional taxes on business as had his predecessor, G. Mennen Williams.

Wants $600 Million as Starter

JFK Asks Aid to Latins

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today urged Congress to provide $600 million as the first step in aid to Latin America. He said there is "grave and imminent danger that desperate peoples will turn to communism if help is not forthcoming or other forms of tyranny."

The President sent a special message to the Capitol in a follow-up to his address Monday night calling for a 10-year coöperative aid program of "towering dimension" for south of the border nations.

Speeding Car Crashes, Kills British Star

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP)—A skidding, somersaulting automobile flung British actress Belinda Lee 63 feet to her death Monday and injured three Italian movie-makers including her fiance.

The beautiful box-office star was returning to Hollywood from a scene - scouting trip to Las Vegas, Nev. The Italians have been making a documentary film not involving Miss Lee, 26, about women's lives in various parts of the world.

ACTRESS MEETS HER DEATH—This is the wreckage of the car in which British actress Belinda Lee was killed and three men connected with the Italian movie industry were hurt nine miles east of Baker, Calif., Monday. The car, which a witness said had been traveling at more than 100 m.p.h., skidded 1,100 feet after its left rear tire blew out.

The station wagon, estimated by a witness to be going more than 100 miles an hour, blew its left rear tire, skidded and crashed upside down, the Highway Patrol said. Miss Lee, unconscious, lived 15 or 20 minutes.

Her fiance, movie director Gualtiero Jacopetti, 41, suffered a broken leg. He was reported in fair condition at Barstow Community Hospital, where the injured were taken.

Paolo Cavara, 34, also an Italian movie director, suffered a bruised and sprained ankle.

★ ★ ★

The driver, Nino Falenga, 43, had a shoulder-blade fracture but was reported in good condition. A Hollywood resident, he has been the Italian movie-makers' adviser.

Miss Lee, born in Devon, England, was discovered by British photographer Cornelius Lucas, who married her when she was 19. He flooded magazines with pictures that brought her film parts. Her screen debut, in 1954, was in "Runaway Bus."

Ring Fans Ask: Wha' Hoppen?

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. —The most controversial heavyweight championship fight debate since the long-count Dempsey-Tunney contest appeared to be brewing today in the wake of Floyd Patterson's victory over Ingemar Johansson. In this case the questions are:

Was it a short count?

Was it a rabbit punch that knocked the Swedish challenger out?

On the first, the crowd in the Miami Beach convention hall booed when referee Bill Regan signaled the end of the fight Patterson winning on a knockout at 2:45 of the sixth round.

"Johansson did not protest," Regan said. "He tried to get up at the count of eight, but fell back and was still down at the count of ten. There was no question about it."

★ ★

Johansson first was reported as having told his doctor:

"I heard the count, but didn't make it up in time."

An hour later, when reporters finally were permitted to see Johansson, he said:

"I thought I was up in time. I'm sorry I wasn't."

He obviously did not want to make an issue of it.

to get up at the count of eight, fell back down and did not start rising until after the count of 10.

But the Johansson camp did claim, with what appeared to be justification, that the final punch Patterson threw was a rabbit punch. It was a right that hit Johansson in the back of his left ear.

Moore Lists Three Ideas to Save Children's Clinic

Oakland County Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore today proposed that the Oakland Child Guidance Clinic be financed in the future by governmental units and individuals who are serviced by the clinic.

In a letter to Dr. William J. Westmaas, president of the clinic's board of directors, and F. Robert Wolleager, executive director, Moore offered three major proposals.

1. That the county should render the clinic the support which it requests for the balance of this year (the clinic has requested $27,000 to keep its Birmingham office operating through 1961).

2. That a new countywide planning committee should be set up immediately by all interested parties to plan for a future, suitable method of operation and financing the clinic.

3. That such plans culminate in a more permanent program which might be called a "Five Year Plan" program.

Lassiter Trial Starts April 10

Move to Quash Charges Denied by Judge as Attorney Protests

By MAX E. SIMON

Over the protests of defense attorneys, Wayne County Circuit Judge Joseph G. Rashid yesterday ordered Mrs. Nelle Lassiter and Gordon Watson to stand trial April 10 in the murder of Parvin (Bill) Lassiter almost two years ago.

Rashid set the trial date for Lassiter's widow and former business associate after denying motions to quash first degree murder and conspiracy charges against the admitted lovers.

Joseph W. Louisell, attorney for Mrs. Lassiter, protested the setting of the trial date because, he said, a second appeal to the State Supreme Court is planned.

"It's the obligation of the court to see that she gets a speedy trial," retorted Judge Rashid.

Louisell replied, "I don't see how Mrs. Lassiter would object to the delay when I as her defense attorney am requesting it."

Deal New Blow to Peace Talks

Reds Claim Victories as Phouma Prepares to Ignore His Role

By United Press International

The Communist Pathet Lao rebels reported today they shot down two American-made planes over Laos and claimed a new series of victories that imperiled peace efforts there.

A new blow to peace negotiations was dealt by Prince Souvanna Phouma, the Communist-backed nationalist ex-premier of Laos, who announced he was leaving Phnom Penh today on a world tour—even to Washington if invited—instead of acting as go-between in an effort to solve the Laotian crisis.

In a third development blocking peace in Laos, Asian Communists planned to launch an all-out military, political and diplomatic offensive against the pro-Western Laotian government of Premier Boun Oum.

'WANTON STRAFING'

The agency said the two planes shot down were out of a formation of three trying to carry out "wanton strafing in an attempt to rescue the encircled traitor troops" in the Xieng Phouang area of Laos. The planes presumably were T6 trainers supplied by the United States, and equipped with machineguns, rockets and bombs.

Kennedy made it clear he had Cuba and the Dominican Republic specifically in mind in saying this.

In his message today, the President asked Congress to appropriate $500 million as an initial step in the over-all aid program to meet a U.S. commitment made last year at Bogota, Colombia.

Eighteen other American republics also subscribed to the idea of mutual help. The U.S. share was authorized by Congress at the last session, but the money hasn't been provided yet.

Congress also authorized $100 million in aid last year for reconstruction and rehabilitation of areas of Southern Chile devastated by earthquakes and fires. Kennedy urged speedy appropriation of this money "so the task of rebuilding the economy of Southern Chile can proceed without delay."

Soviet Astronaut Not Far Off: K

"We are confident that the time is not too far off when the first spaceship with man aboard will dash into outer space," he told an agricultural conference at Akmolinsk in Siberia.

"We are living at a good time, comrads," the Soviet premier said. "Both on earth and in the boundless cosmic space, the boldest dreams of man are being made a reality.

"However, after that, can one fail to rejoice in the fact that the creator of many great deeds and achievements is our Soviet people, building communism."

Moscow radio said his statement was greeted with "stormy applause."

The Soviet premier's statement was his first recorded comment since the Russians launched their latest space ship — a five-ton ship with a dog aboard — last Friday and brought it back safely to earth on the same day.

In Washington the National Space Agency plans to test the Mercury pilot escape system this week under the most severe conditions that might occur during an attempt to put a man in orbit.

If this and other planned flight tests are successful, the agency said, an astronaut will be launched into orbit around the earth "perhaps late this year" under Project Mercury.

A powerful Little Joe rocket will hurl an unoccupied Mercury space cabin into the sky. The escape rocket, mounted on a steel tower above the cabin, will fire at about 35,000 feet.

Brookings, Ore., reported nearly an inch of rain Monday with lesser amounts in the Seattle-Tacoma and Gray's Harbor area of Western Washington.

More time for attorneys to file briefs and answers was granted by Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams today in Chrysler Corp.'s suit against Jack W. Minor, former corporation official from Birmingham.

Edward P. Echlin, attorney for Minor, submitted his brief in support of his motion to dismiss the corporation's suit started Feb. 3. The corporation must file its brief within two weeks, and then Echlin has 10 days in which to reply.

Judge Adams said the attorneys reserved the right to present oral arguments if they wish.

Chrysler's $80,000 lawsuit seeks recovery of profits Minor allegedly made through his connections with outside advertising and sales concerns with which Chrysler did business while Minor was director of the Plymouth-DeSoto-Valiant Division.

Hoffa Calls Witnesses to Aid Plea

By JACK SIMMS

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Attorneys for James R. Hoffa planned to call six additional witnesses today to support pleas for dismissal of a 12-count federal mail fraud indictment against the labor leader and two co-defendants.

The U.S. District Court hearing on motions by counsel for the three Detroit men opened Monday before Judge Joseph P. Lieb.

Defense attorneys attempted to show that the grand jury which returned the indictment in December "was illegally constituted and empaneled" and that the indictment gave "no cause for action" by the federal government.

Hoffa, international president of the Teamsters Union; Henry Lower, former officer of a Teamsters local at Detroit; and Robert E. McCarthy Jr., a banker, could receive up to 60 years in prison and $12,000 in fines if convicted on all counts.

Bus Firm to Add Route

He said operating losses dating from the June 9 beginning of service were offset slightly by a few hundred dollars margin of income during December.

Last year, the company carried 469,000 patrons with operating revenues of $109,437, ending the year $5,000 in the red, Pilsen said.

He said a big factor behind December's margin was the lower cost of maintaining the new buses.

Pontiac Transit Corp. has listed patronage since last June 9 as 44,614 patrons in June, 62,570 in July, 64,107 in August, 70,754 in September, 75,974 in October, 74,506 in November, 76,485 in December, 70,019 in January and 63,701 in February.

Pilson said little emphasis is given to the decline in patronage since January, explaining that January, February and March are traditionally poor months, especially in view of layoffs this year.

OTHER CHANGES

The other route changes Monday:

On the Huron-Sanford route, alternate buses no longer will make the Sanford Street-Auburn Avenue jog. All buses will continue west on East Pike Street to East Boulevard.

On the St. Joseph Hospital-Franklin Road line, all buses will use Franklin Road, from Wilson Street south, instead of alternately using Saginaw Street. The hospital stop will be in front of the hospital instead of across Woodward Avenue.

Buses to the hospital will run every 20 minutes during the morning and afternoon rush hours instead of every 40. The midday runs will continue at every half hour.

On the Joslyn line, outbound morning buses will stop at the Pontiac Motor Division plant on Highland Street before heading toward the end of the line. Inbound afternoon buses will come from the end of the line to the plant.

On the South Boulevard line, southbound buses will make three morning trips to the GMC Truck & Coach Division plant and afternoon buses will make two trips from it.

Detailed schedules will be available on all buses by Thursday.

Set April 10 Date for Lassiter Trial

"Under law, the trial judge cannot substitute his judgment unless there was a clear abuse of discretion in the lower court. The examination record shows there was sufficient evidence to show probable cause in this case."

★ ★ ★

On the subject of conspiracy, Judge Rashid said it matters not, legally, whether Lassiter was shot to death in a drunken rage.

★ ★ ★

"In a conspiracy, every act of any one person is an act of all persons," he observed.

"There is evidence in this case that the conspirators and defendants knew what happened and acquiesced. It was a conspiracy with a multiplicity of purposes, according to the evidence so far."

Moore Says: Save Clinic

dren throughout the county by the end of five years.

CHECK EFFICIENCY

It would also deal with any adjustments of financial support which need attention and make sure that operation of the clinic is efficient in every respect.

"All parties who would be asked to support the clinic should take part in the planning," Moore said.

Aside from the county, Moore proposed that financial support come from school districts, local municipalities and families served.

The judge suggested that the formula for support be based largely on the number of referrals of children from those respective areas and the financial ability of those areas.

Moore also suggested that the study committee find ways and means of "limiting the intake so the clinic not be expected to handle either diagnostic or in-treatment patients which other agencies or communities themselves should attend to."

★ ★ ★

In his letter to clinic officials, Moore points out that "the public school systems refer to you the children who have emotional disturbances coupled with school truancy.

"These children are both a school and a clinic problem, therefore the school districts should finance some of the costs involved."

Moore pointed to other cases which were prone to delinquency or neglect but had not yet reached the County Juvenile Court.

These may be referred to the clinic by a county, city or village "Youth Protective Service."

"Here the service rendered is one of prevention of delinquency.

"In one sense it is a service to the county, reducing the volume of cases coming into juvenile court, and in another, to the local community because it will reduce its police problem," Moore contended.

"Thus, this type of case should be aided financially by both the county and the local municipality."

A third type is one where only the child's own person is involved. Moore suggested that here "the child is probably the responsibility of everyone."

The judge suggested consideration of future reimbursement by families served.

"I am advised that the average cost per family for service is about $160. This means that parents who have reasonable ability to repay the clinic should be very appreciative and glad to do their part," Moore asserted.

Still Looking for Market Holdup Men

City and state police were continuing investigation today of two area supermarket holdups that netted armed bandits over $20,000 in less than 36 hours.

A dragnet mobilized in and around the city yesterday morning minutes after the armed robbery at Tom's Market, 888 Orchard Lake Ave. failed to net the bandits, and was abandoned shortly before noon.

City detectives and troopers from the Pontiac post are working on the theory that the Tom's Market stickup in broad daylight is related somehow to Saturday night's armed robbery at Kroger market in the Miracle Mile Shopping Center just south of the city limits on Telegraph Road.

Descriptions of the masked gunmen given by victims did not match perfectly. But, according to troopers, there is enough similarity in both the method of operation and descriptions to lend strength to the theory.

The bandits had chopped a hole in the roof of Tom's Market to gain entry. Two of them, armed with revolvers, waited inside to surprise store manager, Eddie Caudill, 30, and two employes when they opened the market at 8:30 a.m.

The masked robbers then forced Caudill to open the store safe and fled in his car with over $10,000. The car later was abandoned on Gulf Drive.

The assistant manager of the Kroger store had just locked up for the night Saturday when he and a stockboy, were surprised by a lone gunman in the parking lot out front.

Fidel Counterattacks Kennedy's Latin Plan

olution against the governments which promote revolution against us," he said.

Castro linked his attack on the Kennedy administration with a fresh charge of aggression by the United States. He said the United States had supplied counter-revolutionaries with an armed ship that shot up the nationalized Texaco oil refinery at Santiago before dawn Monday.

The government - controlled press and radio said the ship probably sped to a refuge at the U.S. Naval Base at Guantanamo Bay after firing shots that killed a Cuban sailor, wounded a militiaman, and set fire to an atmospheric tower at the refinery, and punctured three tanks.

Castro fumed with anger in a three-hour post-midnight speech before a rain-drenched crowd around the steps of Havana University. While the crowd was gathering, a bomb exploded in the Vedado district branch of the Cuban National Bank. No one was hurt.

Castro charged that armed attacks on Cuba had increased since Kennedy took over the presidency. He showered his warmest praise yet on the Soviet-led Communist bloc. Castro derided Kennedy as a "captive of monopolies" and called the President's "supposed alliance for progress a historical joke which intends to be a continental joke."

The Day in Birmingham

Three Area Elections Have Widespread Results

BIRMINGHAM — Elections yesterday in three area villages saw two incumbent councilmen unseated in Beverly Hills, the approval of Franklin voters to purchase the Village Green, and the return of all unchallenged incumbents to office in Bingham Farms.

★ ★ ★

The two defeated Beverly Hills councilmen are Chester F. Guilmet and John A. McClanathan. They finished fifth and sixth, respectively, in a field of eight seeking four council posts.

The successful candidates for the four council seats were Charles M. Dotterer, 1,012 votes; incumbent Edward M. Shurtleff, 799; incumbent Douglas J. Wood, 757; and Claude A. Shepherd, 752.

The top three vote-getters receive two-year terms. Shepherd will serve for one year.

The other two unsuccessful challengers were N. Ralph Tucker and James R. Leach. Tucker was given 263 votes, Leach 179.

Besides approving the purchase of the Village Green 329 to 78, Franklin voters re-elected two councilmen and named the village treasurer to a council post.

The three successful council candidates were former treasurer Robert Winkel with 289 votes and incumbents Donald W. Hunter, 245, and Eugene J. Kelly, 215.

A. Newton Cole was elected treasurer over two other candidates, polling 178 votes. He defeated Donald W. Hacker, 152 votes, and R. M. Cuddohy, 89 votes.

Incumbent Assessor Alfred C. Emmerling was returned to office by defeating Ralph Smith 317 to 128.

Village Clerk Elsie M. Garwood was unchallenged in her bid for re-election. She received 422 votes.

The Village Green will be purchased for $53,000. A $15,000 down payment will be made and the rest paid in 10 years or less, according to local officials.

Bingham Farms voters yesterday had only to confirm the candidates for seven offices, since none were opposed.

Re-elected were Village President Haskell E. Wright, 45 votes; councilmen Donald Morse, 47, and William Hyland, 42; and Treasurer James M. Washburne, 49 votes.

Mrs. Carl Kalmbach was elected clerk, with 49 votes. A council seat was won by Donald A. Johnston with 47 votes, and David R. Stamy was named assessor, with 49 votes.

Mrs. James H. Filby

Mrs. James H. (Esther A.) Filby, 80, of 832 Emmons St., died yesterday following a two-year illness.

NORFOLK, Va. (UPI) — Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, director of Selective Service, said Monday the nation's draft call probably will be reduced soon because of "overstocking" last year.

"The main problem is to try to keep it running as slowly as possible without stalling," he said.

Forces in Korea Placed on Alert

U.S. Says Action Only Routine Exercise and Denies Tension Rise

SEOUL, Korea (UPI) — American military forces in South Korea have been placed on a full scale alert, a United Nations Command spokesman said today.

★ ★ ★

The spokesman denied there was increased tension along the Korean truce line but said the alert was part of a "worldwide readiness exercise" of American armed forces.

★ ★ ★

The North Koreans shelled a South Korean naval vessel today but this came after the practice alert had been called. There were no casualties or damages in the shelling which came from a Communist garrison on an island off the West Coast of Korea.

The U.N. spokesman said the entire U.S. Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps in the Pacific Command were participating in a readiness exercise under an alert directed by the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

(In Washington a Defense Department spokesman said the alert is a "routine training exercise. Just a drill.")

The U.N. spokesman said the exercise was "designed to provide training for all military forces in reaching a readiness condition which would be required of them in the time of an actual emergency."

He declined to say when the exercise started or how long it would last.

'Miss K' Takes Stand in British Trial of Spies

LONDON (UPI) — Britain brought to the witness stand today a pretty girl secret agent—identified only as "Miss K"—in an attempt to prove that an international spy ring that included two Americans stole vital naval secrets and sent them in code to Russia.

She was a member of Branch No. 5 of British Military Intelligence, a highly secret organization whose agents are never identified to the public and never photographed.

★ ★ ★

Miss K followed a line of male secret agents — "The Nameless Men"—who testified about how they shadowed three men and two women being tried on charges of penetrating the security of Britain's vital naval base at Portland.

Right of Private Schools, They Say

Clerics Renew Bid for Loans

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Roman Catholic hierarchy of the United States said today that "to grant federal assistance to only part of the American educational effort is to deny to the other parts the chance to grow."

★ ★ ★

The prelates did not ask that parochial elementary and secondary schools be given the same outright grants provided public schools under the program sponsored by President Kennedy, a member of the Catholic Church.

REPEAT LOAN REQUEST

But they again urged a program of long-term, low-interest loans for private and parochial schools to match any that might be made available through a federal aid program for public schools.

★ ★ ★

Msgr. Frederick G. Hochwalt, director of the National Catholic Welfare Conference Department of Schools, outlined the churchmen's views in testimony prepared for the Senate subcommittee on education. The NCWC, made up of U.S. bishops, archbishops and cardinals, is the spokesman group for the nation's Catholic hierarchy.

RIBICOFF'S STAND

Secretary of Welfare Abraham A. Ribicoff Monday refused to express any view on the idea of federal loan aid to church and other private schools. He said he would want to study any such bill before commenting.

However, Ribicoff urged that any effort to provide federal help to private schools should be in a separate bill and not be tacked on to the administration's $2.3-billion three-year program of federal aid to public schools.

A top Catholic layman, John C. Hayes, in other testimony prepared for the Senate subcommittee, said inclusion of a provision providing loans to parochial elementary and secondary schools was the "very minimum" required to make the education bill acceptable.

Hayes, president of the National Council of Catholic Men, said the providing of the loans would be "like the providing of general government services such as police and fire protection, simply an example of a religiously neutral government dealing with all persons.

Trades Ties, Sloshes in Mud but Carries No U. S. Policy

Africans Both Charmed and Dismayed by Williams

(Editors Note: Assistant Secretary of State for African Affairs G. Mennen Williams is completing his first mission — a swing through Africa. The following dispatch, compiled from on-the-scene reports of UPI correspondents, surveys the effects of his tour on people and governments of African nations.)

By RHODA ACKERSON

LONDON (UPI) — The personal charm of G. Mennen Williams has scored a hit on his current African tour. But some of his statements as a spokesman for the Kennedy Administration have drawn more brickbats than bouquets.

A survey of reaction by newspapers, officials and the general public in the African nations visited by the former Michigan governor indicated that Williams, the man, went over fine.

★ ★ ★

Williams' long training as a politician stood him in good stead as he moved through Africa, shaking hands, visiting libraries and orphanages and posing for photographs with his African hosts.

Observers said his greatest success stemmed from his "open, nonpaternal" approach to the sensitive leaders of newly independent African nations.

TRADES TIES

But Ileo, like many other officials along the route, appeared disappointed that Williams brought little clarification of U.S. policy toward his nation.

There was considerable confusion over the role of Williams as spokesman for the administration. Blacks and white alike seemed puzzled over the real reason for his trip.

★ ★ ★

The Kenya newspaper East Africa standard said Williams was "completely out of his depth in African politics."

Williams hastened to explain that in speaking of Africa for the Africans, he meant Africans of all races, not just Negroes.

★ ★ ★

But this, in turn, attracted criticism from African quarters. A member of the (Negro) Uganda people's party said bitterly that Williams' public statements were "irresponsible, showing an obvious lack of experience in African affairs."

The criticisms continued as Williams swung through the British territories of Uganda and Tanganyika. A member of parliament even demanded in London that the government protest to President Kennedy against "interference" in British African affairs.

On the Indian Ocean spice island of Zanzibar, he ran into a full-scale demonstration from natives carrying placards reading: "American imperialists, you have chosen the wrong site —go home."

But an Ethiopian newspaper came to Williams' defense. The voice of Ethiopia said whites were upset because of Williams' "keen interest in meeting as many officials as possible to learn their views."

"An American envoy committed to Africans must consult Africans," the newspaper said. "America is committed to self-determination, not the white settlers."

In Kampala, Uganda, officials said Williams made a better impression privately than publicly. They praised him for his willingness to "listen and learn rather than talk."

U.S. Food Bill for Needy Is Multiplied Fourfold

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The government's monthly bill for food donations to needy Americans now is nearly four times as big as it was last March.

★ ★ ★

The increase is largely the result of President Kennedy's order last January to expand the amount and variety of government food donations to the needy.

★ ★ ★

Under Kennedy's order, the Agriculture Department has begun buying pork and gravy, dried eggs and other foods, adding them to donations of farm surplus items like corn meal and dried milk.

Perfect for Jungle Peace Corps

Street-Corner Chap Okay

By HUGH A. MULLIGAN

NEW YORK (AP)—There's a young man up on the corner of our block whom we'd like to nominate for President Kennedy's Peace Corps — the overseas branch, not the domestic one.

This striking species of homus-Americanus comes fully equipped with a red satin basketball jacket, sleek-fitting dungarees, hand-tooled cowboy boots and a set of bongo drums.

The corps undoubtedly will reject him for a variety of reasons. Both cultural and intellectual, but perhaps they're being a bit too choosy. Just because the draft board was peckish about his academic attainments is no reason to overlook his versatility in other areas.

How often does someone come into the village palming a basketball in one hand and clutching a transistor radio to his ear with the other? Leftist elements may suspect him of trying to make contact with the Allen Dulles office, but actually he is only trying to keep abreast of the top 40 tunes on the juke box charts.

From what we can gather, our candidate for the corps is singularly suited to survive on the economy of any country, whether his assignment be in the jungles of Nigeria or the rain forests of the Amazon.

The fact that he is used to the great outdoors, having spent most of his formative years under the naked light bulb on the corner, should make him at home anywhere, be it a grass-roofed hut or an igloo.

His credentials as a peace emissary are equally impressive. Ever since finishing high school under somewhat benevolent auspices, he has been at peace with himself and the world, existing in a perpetual state of mental detachment that would stir the envy of a Buddhist monk. Getting him to move from in front of the drugstore is like asking the great Sphinx to chase itself around the desert.

The language barrier should present no particular difficulties. So far as we know, he has none. In all the years we've known him, we've never heard him utter any sound other than a piercing "Hey, bu-pheee!"

Who or what "bu-pheee" is, we have never been able to determine, but night and day, summer and winter, the lonely cry of "Hey, bu-pheee," echoes outside our window, like a prehistoric moan from the gray, forgotten centuries.

If "bu-pheee" ever turns up, we hope he gets into the corps, too. If not, our hero can pursue his solitary search around the world. When they finally do meet, on some far flung coral reef or on the crocodile-lined banks of the Zambezi, it should be cultural Kismet.

But No Punch in Idea

Lemon Growers Glad

WASHINGTON (UPI) — George V. Allen, former head of the United States Information Agency, has received a crate of lemons for suggesting that U.S. diplomats serve lemonade at some social affairs.

Rep. H. A. Gross, R-Iowa, told the House last week U.S. diplomats overseas could save money by serving lemonade at social affairs instead of martinis and whisky.

Gross said later he got this idea from Allen. He quoted Allen as saying, presumably on the basis of his experience as ambassador to Greece, India and Nepal, that lemonade would suffice at our Fourth of July parties abroad.

On the strength of this, Gross tried in vain to knock out of a pending bill $22,000 as an added diplomatic "representation allowance" to cover new embassies currently being opened in Africa.

Rep. Charles Teague, R-Calif., sent cases of lemons both to Gross and to Rep. John J. Rooney, D-N.Y., who opposed the Gross amendment on the ground that an occasional social drink was no more than a tool of the diplomatic trade.

Almost Runs Deputy Down

Youth, 19, Sentenced to 5 Days Following a Charge With His Car

A 19-year-old Pontiac youth began serving a five-day sentence at the county jail yesterday for reckless driving after almost running down a sheriff's deputy during a wild ride through a restaurant parking lot Saturday night.

Courtemanche was first spotted driving without lights as he pulled into the crowded Blue Star Restaurant parking lot at 2008 Opdyke Road in the township with a carload of teen-age boys.

Sheriff's deputy Jesse Whitlock said he attempted to flag the car to a stop. Instead of stopping, Courtemanche swerved the car and bore down on the deputy.

LIKE A MATADOR

He sidestepped like a matador in the bullring, reached through an open window on the driver's side of the car and collared Courtemanche.

The youth stepped on the gas, forcing Whitlock to let go and jump clear. The car then careened several hundred yards until it smashed into a utility pole.

Slightly injured in the crash, Courtemanche refused medical treatment and was arrested. The other youths had jumped out of the wrecked car and fled on foot.

★ ★ ★

Whitlock said he had intended only to warn the youth about driving without lights before being nearly run down.

Bids to Save Dr. Finch From Death

Attorney Max Keith, 36, handling his first murder case, opens final defense arguments for the 43-year-old surgeon at his trial with Carole Tregoff.

It's the third trial for Finch and his mistress, accused of killing the doctor's wife in July 1959 — and he has placed his life entirely in the hands of the comparatively untested attorney.

Finch's first lawyer was elegant, grey-haired Grant Cooper, a high-priced veteran of criminal cases.

But Keith, whose boss is Cooper, is a drawling, Jimmy Stewart-type character whose professional hayseed manner is reminiscent of Hollywood's famous attorney of the stars, Jerry Giesler.

Keith's handsombe, likeable manner is of extreme concern to the prosecution — which also resents him because, like Cooper, he once worked in the district attorney's office, and now is opposing it.

Deputy District Attorney Joseph Powers warned the jury of nine men and three women last week that, like actor Jimmy Stewart, Keith tries to use his own pleasant personality to gain sympathy for his cause — or part.

Keith got his revenge in part Monday. During Powers' final prosecution argument, he looked as if he would fall asleep momentarily. He yawned from time to time. He looked excruciatingly bored.

Ex-Bar Director Hits Nonpartisan Judge Elections

A former director of the Detroit Bar Association today labeled nonpartisan election of Michigan Supreme Court justices "ridiculous" and called for adoption of the Missouri plan in Michigan.

William H. Baldwin, unsuccessful candidate for the State Supreme Court in 1959, cited nonpartisanship as "perhaps the major factor in dissuading highly qualified men from seeking election to the judiciary."

Baldwin told a meeting of the Bloomfield Hills Republican Women's Club that there are "inherent difficulties" in seeking election as a judge.

"The whole ethos of the courts and the legal profession dictates a certain restraint and decorum," Baldwin explained.

GOP Rally Planned for April Hopefuls

The Birmingham Community House will be the scene tonight of a Republican rally at which five candidates for statewide offices in the April 3 election are expected to appear.

The 8 p.m. rally will hear Thomas B. Adams, candidate for the Wayne State University Board of Governors; James C. Zeder, candidate for University of Michigan regent; Charles R. Bodwell, state highway commissioner candidate; John S. Pingel, Michigan State University Board of Trustees candidate; and Supreme Court Justice Harry F. Kelly.

The name of the town of Olathe, Kan., comes from the Shawnee Indian language and means "beautiful."

TO BE A PRIEST—J. Garvin Cavanaugh, 53, formerly of East Norwalk, Conn., will become a Roman Catholic priest in Rome Saturday, the New York Herald Tribune said. Cavanagh, head of a hat family and said to be one of the wealthiest men in the United States, was quoted in Rome as saying there is more in life than "piling dollars on dollars."

Bowling Party Held by YM Teen-Agers

The active coed teen-age program of the Pontiac YMCA located at 131 Mt. Clemens St., just had a bowling party.

The YMCA Teen-age Board plans and sponsors various activities for the group. The board is composed of junior and senior high school students who meet monthly. Activities under consideration include: skating party, hay ride, pizza-dance-splash party, and a visit to another YMCA teen-age social.

★ ★ ★

Barbara McClure, a junior at Pontiac Central High School, is president of the board. Mrs. Marcia Wisdom, of the 'Y' Mothers club, and John Miller, youth director, are advisors to the board.

House in Fog Over Plates

Won't Repeal, Nor Pass Appropriation to Order Reflectorized Tags

LANSING (AP) — Secretary of State James M. Hare says the legislature must make up its mind soon on whether Michigan vehicles will carry reflectorized license plates next year.

Otherwise, he said, the license plate manufacturing unit at Southern Michigan Prison will not be able to produce them for distribution next November, when they normally would go on sale.

The legislature could quickly solve the problem by repealing the reflectorization law and the 35-dent fee that goes with it, Hare said. The repealer has cleared the Senate but appears bogged down in the House State Affairs Committee.

Rep. Lloyd Gibbs, R-Portland, committee chairman, said "There doesn't appear to be enough sentiment in the committee to send it to the House floor for debate."

"I am for repealing it myself," he said.

Michigan motorists set off a hubbub earlier this year when they learned they had to pay an extra 35 cents for reflectorized plates that did not exist.

The law and the extra charge went into operation last spring, but the legislature failed to make an appropriation for the specially treated plates, which were touted as a safety measure.

A Circuit Court order last month stopped collection of the fee, but only after motorists had paid out $1.3 million. Hare estimated the luminous coating would cost $2.3 million.

Advising the legislature on what it could do to resolve the problem, Hare suggested an appropriation for reflectorization as an alternative to repealing the law.

30-Page Report Tells Issues

Con-Con Gets Explained

EAST LANSING (AP) — A study designed to help Michigan voters understand the issues involved in a constitutional convention has just been published by the Michigan State University Bureau of Social and Political Research, the university has announced.

★ ★ ★

The study, "Focus on Con-Con," was written by Carolyn Stieber, MSU political scientist.

The 30-page report samples opinion but does not try to interpret or evaluate various positions, the university said.

★ ★ ★

Persons interviewed include Gov. Swainson, Swainson, Secretary of State James M. Hare, Dr. James Miller, president of Western Michigan University; Joseph Parisi, of the Michigan Townships Association; Stanley Powell and Dan Reed of the Michigan Farm Bureau, and August Scholle, of Royal Oak president of the Michigan AFL-CIO.

★ ★ ★

Found Guilty of Using a Stolen Credit Card

Sentence will be passed March 27 by Circuit Judge Frederick C. Ziem for Henry C. Helm, who pleaded guilty yesterday to getting $54 worth of merchandise by using a stolen credit card.

★ ★ ★

Helm, 17, 7735 Maceday Drive, Waterford Township, admitted, when arraigned on a charge of uttering and publishing, that he using a Kresge credit card of Willard A. Bell, 103 Fairgrove St., for six purchases. He was released on a $100 bond to await sentence.

35 Protest at Meeting

Discard Plans to Black Top Waterford's Riviera Street

Due to strenuous protests of Riviera Street residents, the Waterford Township Board last night decided to discontinue any plans for black topping the road.

The hearing drew protests from some 35 people attending the meeting on the fact that only a portion of the street would be black topped from Elizabeth Lake Road to Beechgrove Street.

Another major objection was that the estimated cost of $6,380 was too high. Each 50-foot lot assessment would pay about $245 plus an additional $42.50 for driveway paving to the property line.

However, the Township Board approved another black topping project on Cheeseman Street from Frembes Street to Sashabaw Road. Cost of this project was estimated at $10,251 or $5.74 a front foot.

★ ★ ★

Clerk James E. Seeterlin was authorized to ask for construction bids, and after these have been opened, there will be another hearing on the work.

Seeterlin was also authorized to ask for bids for a one-ton pickup truck for the water department. These will be opened at next week's board meeting.

A hearing date was set for April 10 for the establishment of a special street light district in the Watkins Hills No. 3 subdivision, on Silver Sands Street. There are 30 assessments costing $4.80 each for five lights, to be paid annually.

The township would pay 10 per cent of the total $160.20 annual cost.

The Township Board discussed briefly a new attorney general's ruling that the township be required to pay the three per cent social security tax for justices of the peace. There had been some question as to whether the county or township should assume this responsibility. There was no board action on the matter.

★ ★ ★

Nixon Back in Law Office

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Richard Milhous Nixon, who rose from small town lawyer to vice president of the United States, is back in a law office today.

RICHARD M. NIXON

He is joining the large Los Angeles law firm of Adams, Duque and Hazeltine.

KEEPS FOOT IN DOOR

He will divide his time between the law office and a separate, privately run political headquarters.

He will scrupulously avoid any legal activity that might lead to charges of conflict of interest.

He intends to provide leadership for the Republican party in California and the nation.

Nixon noted he will work as counsel, not partner, for the firm. As counsel, he explained, he will be paid only for those cases which he handles directly. As a partner, he would share in all fees received by the firm. He said this arrangement will help him avoid any charges of influence peddling or conflict of interest.

The former vice president said he expects to work primarily in tax cases, labor relations and anti-trust suits and U.S. corporations' relations in foreign countries.

He added: "I won't take any matters of using my influence on a government agency to get special consideration for a client."

Man in Space

1st Astronaut Will Get 85 Per Cent Chance

By KYLE THOMPSON

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI) — Col. John P. Stapp says the first American won't be blasted into space until he has an 85 per cent chance of survival, the same as a jet pilot has on his first solo flight.

Stapp is an Air Force man and a doctor. As far back as 1954, he felt some of the sensations the first man in space will feel. He rode a rocket sled at 632 miles an hour in New Mexico and stopped in 1.4 seconds.

He now is attached to the Aerospace Medical Center at Brooks Air Force Base, where doctors and scientists are working to insure the mental and physical health of future men in space.

Within the next year or so, Stapp doesn't think it will be far out of the ordinary for men to be zooming around 100 miles over the earth at 8,000 miles an hour.

"If we can advance from the horse and buggy to jet travel in 50 years, it is not unreasonable to believe that we can be traveling above the earth's atmosphere within the next few years," he said.

20 TIMES FASTER

"When we get 80 miles up, we're beyond the drag of the earth's atmosphere. There you can move at 20 times the speed of our current jet transports, using only one-fourth the fuel.

* * *

"The space transport would take off with jet engines at the standard speed and climb to 20,000 feet at more than 300 miles an hour. There the transport would switch over to ram jet power, with scoop engines which do not need to draw in air.

"At a height of 90,000 feet, at a speed five times that of sound, the pilot would start adding liquid oxygen to the intake and convert it to liquid rocket power.

"When you get up to 80 miles above the earth, traveling faster than 8,000 miles per hour, you can shut off the engines and coast. When the pilot wishes to land, he can slow down by reversing the order of the engines.

"At those speeds, the farthest-separated points on earth would be only two hours apart."

CONFINED AREA

Stapp believes that if man ever gets into successful interplanetary travel, he will have to confine himself to relatively small part of the solar system.

* * *

Venus and Mars, he believes, are the only planets in the solar system that are not too hot, too cold or too heavy for human life.

He considers the prime hazards of space travel to be the radiation storms that rage on the face of the sun and the ultra-violet and infra-red rays out in space beyond the filter of the earth's atmosphere.

Stapp believes that one of the most significant recent discoveries, as far as space travel is concerned, was that potassium super oxide on an asbestos frame will purify used air and release oxygen.

"In one experiment," he said, "this worked for five consecutive days."

TERRIFIC FORCE

Stapp's fastest rocket sled run subjected him to a force more than 45 times the pull of gravity when he decelerated.

The first astronaut probably will experience less than a third of the gravitational force Stapp did.

While the sled was accelerating, Stapp's vision blanked out; He was moving so fast his eyes could not focus.

When he decelerated, the blood rushed forward into his eyes and gave him momentary vision. Then he had a "red-out" as his retinas hemorrhaged.

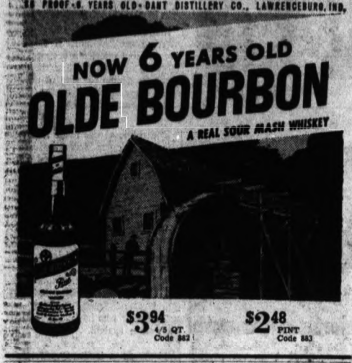

* * *

He thought he was blinded for good, but when the crew cut him loose from the straps which held him to the sled and put him on a stretcher, he opened his eyes and saw flecks of blue.

Clothiers Seek Good Weather

Pleasant Temperature, Confidence Are Keys to Easter Buying

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—With three weeks in which to sell Easter finery merchants are praying for good shopping weather—and for consumer attitudes to be unswayed by all the recession talk in and out of Washington.

Consumers are counted upon to take their cues from the stock market, where the sentiment of many investors is strongly optimistic.

Despite the large total of jobless, there are 64 million Americans with jobs. Most of them are able to maintain present spending habits and some are in a position to buy more now.

The early Easter, merchants hope, will start the ball rolling.

And if it does, higher retail sales could act in the same way as higher stock prices. That is, the contagion of optimism could alleviate, if not cure, some of the economic ills that have worried the experts in the uncertain months of winter.

Such hope apparently is what Commerce Secretary Luther H. Hodges has in mind when he says he thinks the economy is now in position to start to move upward.

Test Below-Ocean Sand Near Million Years Old

By RENNIE TAYLOR

Cores of sand and mud only a few inches long were brought up Saturday by the experimental drill ship Cuss I.

The Cuss I, operated by an oil exploration firm for the National Science Foundation, set a record when it lowered a drill pipe through water more than 3,000 feet deep and punched out samples of earth laid down 11,000 to a million years ago.

Researchers hailed this as a feat of first importance. The samples were examined superficially aboard the ship 15 miles off shore and then refrigerated for further investigation in laboratories ashore.

Drilling here is preliminary to an attempt to drop the pipe through 12,000 feet of water and drill into still more interesting earth layers near Guadalupe Island, off the coast of Mexico.

The tests here and off Guadalupe will guide scientists planning to drill all the way through the earth's crust and into the terrestrial mantle—a level that never has been sampled directly.

This is the opening move in Project Mohole, in which the researchers hope to drop the drill pipe through water nearly three miles deep and then drill several hundred feet into the unexplored rock of the earth's insides.

Flint to Hold Meeting on Planning Jobs

FLINT (UPI) — A "Get Flint Back to Work Full Time" meeting will be held Saturday with Gov. John B. Swainson and top United Auto Workers officials scheduled to speak.

E. S. Patterson, director of UAW Region 1C, said invitations have been sent to Mayor Charles Mobley, Osmund Kelly, executive director of the Manufacturers Association of Flint, and several state legislators to attend this meeting.

Patterson said, "Not only are 15.3 per cent of the General Motors workers on layoff here, but thousands of other workers have not had a full week's work since the end of November."
