Nixon and Rickover Get Nuclear 'Run-Around'

Castro Warns U.S. As He Resumes Post

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro, swept back into the Cuban premiership as expected, by an enormous popular demonstration, served notice Sunday night he will be friends with the United States only if the United States does not get in his way.

★ ★ ★

The spectacular crowd estimated at nearly a million cheered wildly as he told them he would bow to "the will of the people" and resume office.

The demonstration again underscored that the bearded, 32-year-old revolutionary leader is Cuba's strong man.

The vast sea of humanity sent up reverberating cheers as Castro by implication told off critics in the United States.

He asserted that Cuba is not a protectorate or colony of any other country but a free sovereign nation and "we have to account to no one."

Castro said Cuba wants to be friends with all nations but can not be with those "who offend us, who insult us and who exploit us" nor with any vested interest which tries to "impose itself on the destiny of our people."

But in 2½ hours of talk, Castro failed to mention communism by name at all. He referred to it only obliquely, when hitting at his critics, but apparently did not feel it necessary to deny their charges that he is letting the Reds influence his government.

Uptown Havana's vast Civic Plaza was packed with the shouting, cheering throng. Castro told it emotionally that from now on the "symbol of our revolution will be the machete," the long, sharp knife used for cutting sugar cane.

FURIOUS RESPONSE

The announcement provoked furious response during which some 400,000 campesinos — farmers — brought from the provinces to swell the demonstration clashed their machetes in unison to add to the general uproar.

Castro whipped up another ovation when he added that if his enemies should ever think of coming back to Cuba," let them contemplate for just about five minutes those machetes."

Castro made it clear that such mammoth demonstrations will be held whenever it is considered necessary to demonstrate popular support for his policies. That of Sunday, officially celebrating the anniversary of his 26th of July revolutionary movement, was called originally to demonstrate support for his land redistribution program.

Castro claimed it was only the will of the people that persuaded him to resume the premiership he left nine days ago to force the resignation of provisional President Manuel Urrutia.

The first announcement of his return to office came from Presi-

WATERY GREETING — Nikita Khrushchev took Richard Nixon for a motorboat ride yesterday. Apparently the Russian Prime Minister didn't pick a secret lake. Bathers swarmed around the boat to shake hands with the American vice president. Khrushchev seems more concerned with the efforts of some swimmers to climb aboard. Guess he wasn't in the mood to get wet.

Aren't Allowed to See Inside of Atom Icebreaker

Vice President Tells of Accord With Nikita on Pathway to Peace

From Our News Wires

LENINGRAD (AP) — The Russians lifted their secrecy curtain a bit today and let Vice President Richard M. Nixon have an hour-long look at their atomic icebreaker Lenin.

But Vice Adm. Hyman Rickover, father of the American atomic submarine and a member of the Nixon party, told newsmen "We are getting the run-around. I want to see the inside."

Nixon and Rickover were given a chance to inspect the prize icebreaker from top to bottom, but were kept at long range when it came to the three reactors which are to supply the power.

LENINGRAD (AP)—Mrs. Richard M. Nixon described today how she and four other women sat and "didn't say a word" for close to six hours while her husband and Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev held their dinner table conference yesterday.

"It's the first time I've heard of any serious conversation at a dinner table," admitted Mrs. Nixon, who is a veteran at such affairs.

They were allowed for about two minutes on a catwalk in the reactor room high above the reactors themselves. Rickover said that at that distance no one could see anything, and he requested a closer look.

The reactors were inactive, though the Russians told Nixon they will be running at full power before October.

★ ★ ★

After inspecting the icebreaker, the vice president told applauding shipyard workers, "We must work together to break the ice."

The vice president and his party flew to this second largest city of the Soviet Union to begin a five-day swing that will take them to parts of western Siberia.

Nixon told an airport crowd he and Soviet Premier Khrushchev had many differences in their six-hour talk at Khrushchev's country home Sunday but they agreed on one thing — that world differences "must be settled at the conference table and not on the battlefield."

BACKS DEMANDS

Nixon backed up Rickover in his demands to see more of the atomic icebreaker. In swapping champagne toasts aboard ship, Nixon suggested that Rickover be allowed to make an additional two-hour tour by himself to inspect the reactors.

Turning to Rickover, Nixon said "You stay and talk to them.

Hoffa to Sue Kennedy for Charges Made on TV

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Teamsters president James R. Hoffa said today he would accept a challenge to sue Senate rackets committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy for libel.

Kennedy hurled a half dozen charges at Hoffa on a nationwide television program and then challenged the peppery union leader to sue for libel.

Hoffa told United Press International he had "every intention" of bringing libel action against Kennedy for these charges and for accusations he made last Wednesday on "The Jack Paar Show." He said he also would sue NBC, the network that carried both programs.

The Teamster chief said he, union attorney Edward Bennett Williams and other lawyers would go over a transcript of the first program today to decide which portions to cite in the libel action.

Hoffa said the suit would be filed as soon as the necessary legal papers could be prepared. He said Williams would decide where to lodge the action and other details of the suit.

Kennedy charged on the program yesterday that the rackets investigation had shown "that Mr. Hoffa has made collusive deals with employers, that he betrayed the union membership, that he put gangsters and racketeers in important positions of power within the teamsters union, (and) that he has misused union funds."

Kennedy challenged Hoffa to sue him "immediately" for libel so that a jury could decide if the accusations were true. If Hoffa were found guilty of any of the charges, Kennedy said, he should resign as Teamster president because he would not be "worthy" to hold the job.

Hoffa said he watched Kennedy immediately following his own appearance on "Face The Nation" on the CBS network. He said the counsel "acted like a small kid again."

Kennedy, who also monitored Hoffa's appearance, said it was "most unfortunate" that the Teamster president was not asked to make some accounting for his acts and those of his chief lieutenants.

Hoffa notified NBC president Robert Sarnoff last Friday that he had instructed his attorneys to prepare libel action against the network, Kennedy, Paar, the sponsors and others connected with the earlier "shameful abuse of national television time."

In both his TV appearances, Kennedy generally repeated the charges against Hoffa made by the

City Stores Revive Month-End Sales

Pontiac area retail stores today revived month-end sales.

Most stores are featuring month-end values tonight and tomorrow, announced George Richman, president of the Downtown Merchants Assn.

Similar two-day sales are planned for the next three months, said Richman. They are scheduled to begin Aug. 24, Sept. 28 and Oct. 26.

Mitchell Hopeful on Steel Strike

Negotiations Resumed With Federal Mediators in New York Today

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON — Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell reported to President Eisenhower on the steel strike today. He said after their 45-minute meeting that the President was "particularly pleased" that negotiations have been resumed.

The President, he said, "hopes they will continue to negotiate constantly in an effort to get a settlement.

Negotiations were resumed at New York today under auspices of the federal mediation service in an effort to reach an agreement to end the 13-day old strike.

Asked about the outlook for an agreement, Mitchell replied:

"The fact that they are continuing to negotiate is, I think, heartening. Certainly both sides are well aware of the importance of a settlement.

"I would hope for a settlement in the reasonably near future. I wouldn't want to venture a guess."

Launch Full-Scale Manhunt for Pontiac Doctor's Murderer

Pontiac police today began an all-out manhunt for the killer of a 71-year-old city doctor who died of pistol wounds Saturday night in Pontiac General Hospital.

Lt. William Nesbitt, detective bureau commander, said clues are slim.

Dr. W. Carleton Warrick of 263 Chippewa Rd. was shot by the gunman around 7:45 p.m. Friday. He was found a few minutes later by a long-time patient, Lloyd Tunnell, 53, of 1755 Williams Lake Rd., Waterford Township.

A police guard had been stationed in front of Dr. Warrick's room Saturday morning after he told officers the gunman said to him: "I'm going to kill you."

LEAVES $1,365

Dr. Warrick told police Friday night that the gunman had held him up.

After the shooting, the gunman fled without $1,365 the doctor was carrying in a back trousers pocket.

About $100 in bills was found on the floor of the doctor's office.

★ ★ ★

Police are unsure of the killer's motive, but tend to believe the intruder entered the offices to rob the doctor.

The dying man's statement that the gunman came to kill him was a distant possibility, they said.

Dr. Warrick's answers were barely audible Saturday and he was questioned only briefly, Nesbitt said.

"It's hard to make sense of his later statement," Nesbitt said. "He was in serious condition, of course."

The doctor was shot twice by the gunman, once in the abdomen. The other bullet hit his left thumb.

Police found four shells from what they believe to be the murder weapon, but so far have found only three bullets.

They were to return to the doctor's office today to continue their search for clues.

"The threads we're working on are slim," said Nesbitt. "No one apparently saw the killer enter or leave the doctor's office."

Nesbitt said, however, that police would press the investigation, hoping for a break which will lead them to the gunman.

The doctor's office is on the second floor of an office building at 24½ E. Huron St.

He is survived by his wife, Joan, 44, and daughter, Carole, 5.

Formerly a member of the Elks Lodge and Pine Lake Country Club, Dr. Warrick also is survived by three brothers.

They are Homer, of Osceola, Ind.; John of South Bend, Ind.; and Bert, of Elkhart, Ind.

Service will be held at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at Farmer-Snover Funeral Home with burial in White Chapel Cemetery.

Scattered Rain to Keep Humid Temperatures

Pontiac area weather will vary somewhat during the next five-day period. More humid temperatures and scattered showers are predicted for tonight and tomorrow. Tonight's low will be 68.

★ ★ ★

Temperatures will average near the normal high of 84 and normal 63 low this week.

Tomorrow's high is expected to reach 88, but cooler temperatures are forecast for Wednesday, followed by a warm trend about Saturday, the weatherman says.

Precipitation will total near one half of an inch from scattered showers Tuesday and Wednesday and possibly again Saturday.

The mercury dropped from a high of 86 at 5 p.m. yesterday to 63 at 5:30 this morning. At 2 p.m. the reading was 86.

BULLETIN

NEW YORK (AP)—Formation of a third major baseball league, to be known as the Continental League, with five founding cities, was announced today by William Shea, chairman of Mayor Wagner's New York Baseball Committee. The league expects to operate in 1961.

★ ★ ★

The five founding cities are New York, Houston, Toronto, Minneapolis-St. Paul and Denver.

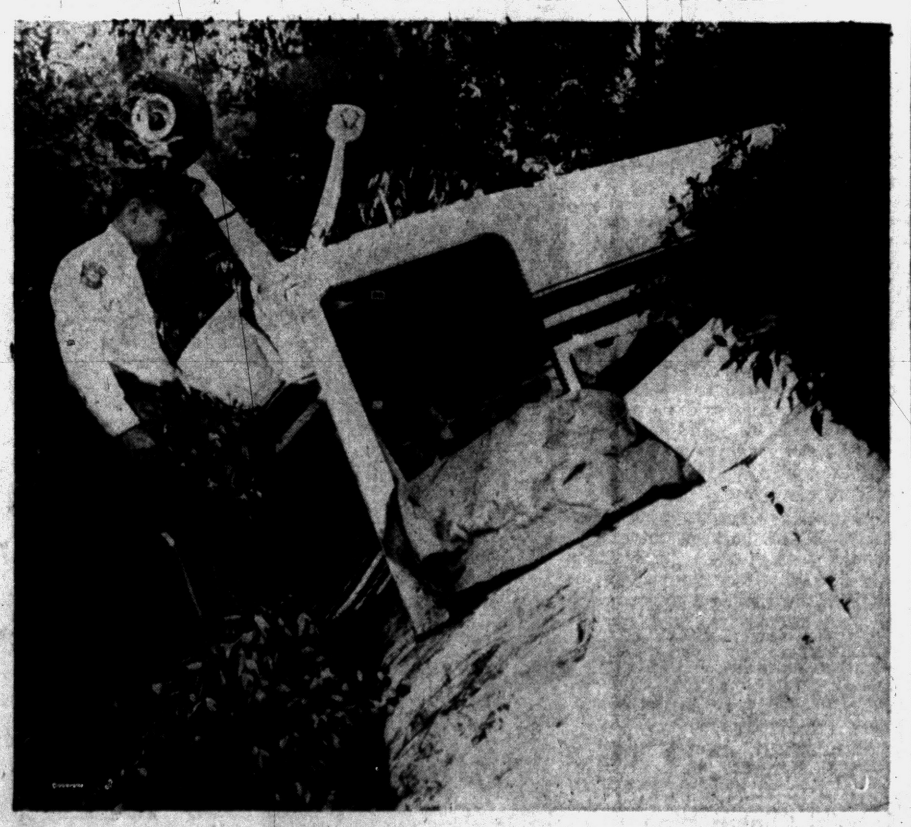

★ ★ ★

Shea said the league would have a minimum of eight clubs and there could be more. He said it would play a 154-game schedule.

★ ★ ★

In addition to the five founders, Shea said the following cities were interested: Buffalo, Montreal, Atlanta, New Orleans, Miami, Indianapolis, Dallas-Fort Worth, San Diego, Portland, Seattle and San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Plane Crashes Near Wixom

ENGINE FAILS — Two men escaped serious injury when this two-seater Cessna plane crashed in a wooded area near Spencer Field Saturday afternoon. The field is off Pontiac Trail near Wixom. The pilot, William E. Ramsey, 58, of Farmington, told Redford State Police, he applied for engine power as he brought the plane in for a landing but there was no response. He was treated for facial cuts at Redford Community Hospital. Also in the plane was Leon H. Sampson, 44, of Detroit. He was uninjured and walked away from the plane, which flipped over when it crashed. Looking at the wreckage is State Trooper Donald E. Kaiser.

Story Unfolds at AA Meeting Here

Theirs Is a Happy Ending

By PETE LOCHBILER

Some of the Pontiac area's heaviest drinkers of former years got together Sunday — over coffee and doughnuts.

There weren't any hangovers at the first district meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous ever held in Pontiac.

More than 400 persons—members of AA's Eastern Michigan District — gathered at Pontiac Northern High School's Little Theater. Most were from the Pontiac area and Oakland County. A few came from as far away as the Thumb area.

Getting to know each other for the first time, AA members were impressed by the force of their numbers.

★ ★ ★

"The feeling of unity with other AA members who are successfully battling the same kind of drinking problem helps give an alcoholic resolve to stay on the wagon," explained one AA.

"The same feeling of unity inspires in him the desire to help others who have not yet been able to overcome drinking."

AA members usually get together once a week in relatively small, autonymous local groups.

There they deal together with the emotional troubles that in less happy days would have led them to drink. Each group stands ready to put in long, difficult hours helping obsessive drinkers who want to conquer the habit, but can't without help.

There are 14 such groups in the immediate Pontiac area, with memberships running from about a dozen persons to as many as 50.

"It is hoped that getting the various groups together at big meetings like this will spur AA's rehabilitative activities in this area," said the chairman of the program.

He, like other AA members, prefers to remain anonymous. The AA's wore identification tags, listing their home groups and first names, but not their last names.

It was easy for them to get acquainted, though, for AA's greet each other traditionally with a big smile, firm handclasp and friendly "Hi."

Among themselves, they talk about their homes, families, jobs, vacation plans. Most of the AA's were middle-aged or older, but there were a few younger couples and they brought their children.

With an outsider, the AA talks about his biggest source of pride —the fact that he is not drinking.

They like to say, "I've been five years, sober," or six years, or whatever length of time they've successfully belonged to the AA program.

Fenton Split on Proposed Race Track

FENTON (UPI)—A proposed $3,000,000 horse race track, the hottest issue to hit this southern Genesee County community in years, will be taken up by the Fenton Township board Aug. 12.

★ ★ ★

The township zoning board forwarded the proposal to the board without recommendation after deadlocking on it twice.

Grand River Amusement Enterprises Inc., Novi, asked for a permit to build the track between Fenton and Linden, about 13 miles south of Flint near the US23 expressway.

The area has split into two camps, one favoring approval because of the revenue it would bring to the area, and the other opposing it on moral grounds.

★ ★ ★

B. F. Gregoric, Wayne, spokesman for Grand River Amusement, said the firm has an option on 200 acres for construction of the track if it can obtain board approval.

★ ★ ★

Gregoric said two tracks would be built, one a mile oval and the other a half mile.

The smaller track would be enclosed under a transparent plastic roof which could be raised and lowered under aluminum trusses.

★ ★ ★

Plans also call for a 10-story grandstand, stables for about 1,200 horses and parking for 10,000 cars.

U.S. to Try Out a 'Paddlewheel' Satellite Soon

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States plans to launch a "paddlewheel" satellite from Cape Canaveral, Fla., around Aug. 7 to test feasibility of using solar power to operate radio equipment aboard space probes to be fired later at the planet Venus.

★ ★ ★

Reliable sources said today that if the paddlewheel shot is successful that National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), also plans:

★ ★ ★

—To launch a 375-pound payload toward the moon in early October with the hope that it will go into a lunar orbit.

★ ★ ★

—To fire a deep space probe in November into a trajectory which would take it to the vicinity of Venus if the planet were in a favorable position. Actually, Venus won't be in shooting distance of the earth again until 1961.

Judge O'Brien Dies 36 Hours After Son

DETROIT (AP) — Patrick H. O'Brien, 91, a retired probate judge, died here today only 36 hours after the death of his son, D'Arcy W. O'Brien, state public administrator, in East Lansing.

Judge O'Brien was admitted to Jennings Hospital Friday for treatment of a liver tumor. He had not been told that his son was ailing.

Judge O'Brien served on the probate bench for 17 years before his retirement 2½ years ago.

D'Arcy O'Brien, 58, died of a stroke Saturday. He recently suffered a mild form of pneumonia.

Funeral arrangements for the judge were incomplete. His sole surviving son, Daniel P. O'Brien, said burial will be in Houghton where the jurist began his career of public service as a circuit judge.

A third son, Gerald K. O'Brien, former Wayne County prosecutor, died two years ago.

Auto Workers to Get Raises

Pay Increases to Start August 1 and Average 6 Cents an Hour

DETROIT (AP)—More than half a million hourly rated auto workers will get pay increases averaging six cents an hour Aug. 1.

The raises are provided in three-year contracts negotiated with the industry last year by the United Auto Workers union.

Those agreements specify that an automatic annual improvement factor of six cents or 2½ per cent, whichever is greater, shall be paid each year for the duration of the contract.

The raises will go to 330,000 hourly rated employes of General Motors Corp., 120,000 at Ford Motor Co., 65,000 at Chrysler Corp. and 23,200 at American Motors.

In most instances workers will get the pay raises in checks for the first pay period after Aug. 1.

The pay boosts are in addition to anything the employes receive under cost-of-living escalator clauses which gear wages to fluctuations in the cost of living.

Deny Townships Liquor License Fees

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Williams today signed a bill providing for the return of 85 per cent of township liquor license proceeds to sheriffs' departments unless the township maintains a full-time police or ordinance department.

The Michigan Townships Assn. last week urged the governor to veto the measure, contending it would reduce enforcement of liquor laws in many townships. Many said they could not afford full-time enforcement.

The Michigan Sheriffs Assn. backed the proposal. About 3½ million dollars in license fees is returned to local governments for enforcement, more than two million dollars to townships who will lose their share under the new law, Backers said.

"Many townships were using these moneys not for the intended purpose of enforcing liquor control but for general purposes such as the purchase of street lighting, sidewalks or fire engines," Williams said.

Enormous showmanship went into making the rally the spectacular thing it was. Gimmicks included the release of a thousand doves as Castro made his appearance and release of hundreds of red, white and blue balloons trailing the black and red colors of the 26th of July movement.

Planes and helicopters zoomed low overhead dropping small, multicolored parachutes containing candy.

Before the speech, a Cabinet minister presented Castro with evidence of recovery of 20 million dollars in cash and 51 million dollars worth of property from collaborators of Batista.

There were reports that 17 persons had been injured in various parts of Havana. A number of army officers were arrested for unauthorized firing of their guns to celebrate.

AA Members Meet in Pontiac School

problem with them, it was overwhelming.

"If it weren't for AA and the fact I can lead a profitable, happy life now, I'd blow my brains out," was the sincere statement of one dignified gentleman.

"Alcoholism was the hardest profession I ever practiced," said another. "It wasn't a 9-5 job, five days a week with a vacation once a year. It took me almost 24 hours a day, 365 days a year for years and years."

The main speaker identified himself as Jack, then went on to tell how he cured his problem drinking through AA.

★ ★ ★

Now a highly successful business man in Saginaw, Jack hit the skids early in his drinking career.

He described three years on Detroit's skid row while still relatively young. Rescued by friends, Jack got a job but didn't give up the bottle.

"Seventeen years I worked my way up in my company until I was nearing the top. Seventeen years I went on drinking, trying to kid myself and my bosses that I wasn't an alcoholic."

In and out of hospitals several times, Jack finally drank himself out of his job one weekend. That's when a friend from AA found him and helped him.

Like most AA's, Jack believes he got his chance to beat the bottle through the help of God.

Virtually all AA's are churchgoers and when they get together they bring their faith into the meeting in a non-denominational way.

Sunday, they recited the Lord's Prayer together. No mumbling over the words, but with loud, firm voices in almost-perfect unison.

They talked of God in their daily lives, of practicing the kind of brotherly love which Christ called charity.

"We try to keep our lives simple, free of emotional problems," explained one AA.

★ ★ ★

"For that reason we try to be direct, honest and sincere with other people, friendly, understanding and, above all else, humble."

The alcoholic paused, then said with emphasis:

"This is a very successful, happy way to live. In fact, most people would like to live like we do.

"In a way, alcoholism cured has many rewards. Our greatest curse turned out to be our greatest blessing."

Russians Show Love for Cliburn With Candy

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Russians, who first proclaimed him a great pianist still love Van Cliburn, he learned yesterday.

At the Soviet exhibition here, a Russian official handed Cliburn a box of what he said was Russia's best-selling candy. It was shaped like a grand piano and carried a portrait.

Nixon, Rickover Stymied

You point out my understanding is that you were to see just as much — no more — as Mr. Deputy Premier Kozlov when he visited the United States.

"We think that's a fair exchange. We don't want to do anything that's wrong, only what's fair.

But Soviet authorities balked at granting the request immediately.

"I will take the matter up and something will be decided," the shipyard manager said.

Rickover told 12 American newsmen who were allowed to follow Nixon on to the ship that Kozlov was given far more opportunities to inspect the American atomic merchant ship Savannah and the big atomic power plant at Shippingport, Pa.

FLY IN SOVIET JET

Nixon flew here from Moscow with Mrs. Nixon, Soviet first Deputy Premier and Mrs. Frol R. Kozlov in a Russian TU104 jet airliner. They made the flight in one hour and nine minutes.

A crowd of between 1,000 and 1,500 persons gave the Nixons and the Kozlovs a cordial welcome at the sun-drenched airport.

Nixon in response to an official welcome from Chairman I. V. Spiridonov of the Leningrad Committee of the Communist Party, discussed his five hours and 45 minutes of "frank and complete talks" with Khrushchev.

NO ONE CONVINCED

"I had yesterday a very constructive and full discussion on some of the problems we have between our two countries," Nixon said.

"I can say that we had some differences with Chairman Khrushchev on points of issue. I would say it was not a case of his convincing me or my convincing him.

"But there is a point on which we did agree—that differences between nations must be settled at the conference table and not on the battlefield."

Spiridonov told Nixon in his welcoming speech that "our people want to live in peace and friendship with all peoples, especially Americans."

"I hope your visit will serve for better understanding between Russia and the American people, which we all ardently desire," Spiridonov said. "From the bottom of my heart, welcome."

It was a far bigger and warmer welcome than Nixon received on his arrival in Moscow. In the crowd were two American tourists who held up placards reading "Nixon welcome."

The Kozlovs were added starters on the trip to Leningrad. They turned up at the airport, gave newsmen a jovial good morning and announced to the newsmen they were making the trip too.

The Nixons paid an overnight visit to the Khrushchevs' big cream-colored country home, or dacha, in a wooded park about 20 miles outside Moscow. Nixon returned to the U.S. Embassy residence Sunday night and drafted a detailed report on the conversation for President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Christian A. Herter.

Herbert G. Klein, Nixon's press aide, hinted the talk did little to solve any of the major differences dividing the United States and the Soviet Union.

"There naturally were major differences of opinion," he said, "but the discussions at all times were calm."

★ ★ ★

The meeting, sixth between Khrushchev and Nixon since the vice president arrived last Thursday, may be their last. Klein said, however, a farewell meeting was not ruled out when Nixon returns from a five-day visit to Leningrad and Siberia.

The two leaders talked during a long Sunday dinner on a grassy, tree-shaded knoll overlooking the Moscow River. First Deputy Premiers Anastas I. Mikoyan and Frol R. Kozlov and their wives, and U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson and President Eisenhower's brother, Dr. Milton Eisenhower, also were at the table. Aides said they sat silently as the vice president and the premier did the talking.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. Khrushchev did not arrive at the dacha until shortly after noon. A U.S. reporter and photographer and a Soviet reporter were admitted to report the preliminaries.

The two leaders agreed that their rough and tumble debate at the American Exposition Friday had not offended either.

The exchange, they said, was hard hitting and frank — but not belligerent. Turning to Nixon, Khrushchev asked, "Were you offended?"

"Never," replied Nixon. "Mr. Khrushchev and I have some real and honest differences but we are alike in this respect: we both came from humble families and both have a practice of speaking directly and not beating around the bush."

"I agree," Khrushchev said.

Before lunch Khrushchev and Nixon went for a motorboat ride on the river, stopping eight times to shake hands and talk with bathers.

"Captive people?" Khrushchev would say in a reference to the U.S. proclamation of a special week of prayer for those in Communist countries.

Pair Admits $368 Theft From Waterford Dairy Store Safe

A Madison Heights policeman alone on routine duty surprised and captured two burglars within hours after they admittedly took $368 from a Waterford Township store yesterday.

Arrested in the safe burglary of Richardson's Farm Dairy at 7350 Highland Rd. were William D. O'Guian, 35, of 327 W. Otis St., Hazel Park, and J. F. Crampton, 32, of 32328 Brush St., Madison Heights.

On patrol duty at 5:30 a.m. yesterday, Sgt. Hauston Cod said he noticed a car parked back of a dirt stockpile on 13 Mile road between John R. and Dequindre.

Cod said he found the two men removing coins from paper wrappings and putting them in cloth bags. The officer ordered the men from the car and called for another car.

The men, wanted in four communities on charges of breaking and entering, admitted the Waterford burglary, police said. They were turned over to Waterford police and held for investigation of burglary.

Police said entrance to the dairy was made by prying open the back door of the building. The safe in a rear office was opened with a cutting torch. A sledge hammer and crow bar were also found on the floor.

Police said more than $1500 in change in a box in the rear of the safe was overlooked by the burglars.

Mitchell Hopeful of Steel Accord

ation Service, reiterated his warning that no early or easy settlement of the 13-day-old strike appears likely.

Finnegan, who arranged the joint talks last week, said on his arrival from Washington Sunday night: "They can't settle this strike by not talking."

He said he received no indication during the weekend that either side had changed its position. Finnegan had held separate meetings with union and industry representatives since the strike began.

Heading the negotiating teams for today's talks are David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers of America, and R. Conrad Cooper, executive vice president of the United States Steel Corp.

The strike of 500,000 members of the United Steelworkers has shut down plants that produced almost 90 per cent of the nation's steel. The stoppage has idled an estimated 78,000 employes in other industries, with railroads the hardest hit.

The union's demands include a 15-cent-an-hour package increase in each year of a new contract, plus fringe benefits. The industry, rejecting the demands, contends that an increase in labor costs would force a rise in steel prices and thus help spur inflation. The union contends that industry profits and increased productivity make a wage rise possible without a price increase. Prestrike wages averaged $3.10 an hour.

Rebuild Clinton High

CLINTON, Tenn. (AP) — A $662,000 construction job has been started to rebuild Clinton High School, dynamited last October after being racially integrated. Pupils have been going to school at nearby Oak Ridge.

Religious Bias in U.S. Colleges Shows Decline

NEW YORK (UPI) — Religious discrimination has declined in American college admissions policies to the point where "no significant evidence" of bias exists, the American Jewish Congress reported yesterday.

★ ★ ★

The report, based on a questionnaire filled out by more than 1,200 high-ranking high schools seniors in the state, said there was a "marked decline" in discrimination since similar surveys in 1949 and 1952.

★ ★ ★

It said not enough replies were received from Negroes to determine whether racial prejudice exists in college admissions offices.

Lions Trade Ken Russell to Green Bay for Spencer

DETROIT (UPI) — The Detroit Lions today traded defensive tackle Ken Russell to Green Bay for tackle Oliver Spencer in a straight player deal.

★ ★ ★

Coach George Wilson said there was no cash involved in the trade.

★ ★ ★

Both players are 6 feet, 2 inches tall and both weigh about 250 pounds.

The Day in Birmingham

Bloomfield Police Charge 5 With Reckless Driving

BIRMINGHAM — Despite warnings of a crackdown last week by Capt. Walter Sluiter of the Bloomfield Hills Police Dept., five drivers were charged with reckless driving on Woodward avenue in Bloomfield Hills during the weekend.

Picked up for reckless driving Saturday at 1 p.m. were Gerald A. Friedman, 22, of Detroit and a juvenile from Troy unidentified by police.

The two had engaged in a race on Woodward avenue near Lone Pine road. Freidman was fined $50 before Justice of the Peace A. J. Richardson and the juvenile was referred to the Oakland County Juvenile Court.

At 10:15 p.m. Saturday, Bertrum Green, 20, of Lake drive, Waterford Township, was arrested on charges of reckless driving which involved cutting in and out of traffic on Woodward avenue near Opdyke road.

Green supplied personal bond and will appear this week in the Bloomfield Hills Justice Court.

A second pair of racers were nabbed Sunday at 2:15 a.m. on Woodward avenue near Long Lake road. James M. Howard, 18, of 3643 Rockingham St., Royal Oak, and John W. MacIver, 18, of 24935 Waycross Ct., Pontiac, were both released on personal bond to appear today in Justice Court.

Birmingham Police have reported receiving complaints — five during the weekend — of raccoons tipping over garbage pails on N. Woodward avenue near the city limits.

So far, police have been unable to catch any of the culprits.

Harold C. Holden

Rosary service for Harold C. Holden, 68, of 683 Emmons Ave., Birmingham, will be held at 9 p.m. tonight at the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co.

Requiem Mass will be at 10 a.m. tomorrow at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Catholic Church in Southfield. Burial will follow in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Southfield.

Mr. Holden died Saturday at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, after a long illness.

He was employed by the Michigan Livestock Exchange and was a member of the Senior Mens Club of Birmingham, American Legion and was a World War I veteran of the U.S. Marine Corps.

Surviving are his wife, Rose, two sons, Dr. Harold J., of 1001 Worthington Rd., Birmingham, and James K., of 3545 Forman Rd., Birmingham, a brother, Kenneth, of 1700 Maryland Ave., Birmingham, and eight grandchildren.

Gladys M. Kandt

Service for Gladys M. Kandt, 44, of 2279 Pembroke St., Birmingham will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday at the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. Burial will follow in Roseland Park Cemetery, Royal Oak.

Mrs. Kandt died Saturday in an automobile accident near Otisville.

She was supervisor of the Bagley street AAA office in Detroit, a member of the Birmingham Garden Club and of the Redford Presbyterian Church.

Surviving are her husband, Ralph, her mother, Mrs. Mary McSween of Detroit, and two sisters, both of Detroit.

Bloomfield Woman Succumbs in East

The Rosary will be recited for Patricia Ann Power, 23, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Power of 420 Dunstan Rd., Bloomfield Hills, at 8 p.m. tomorrow at her home.

★ ★ ★

Requiem Mass at 10 a.m. Wednesday in Holy Name Catholic Church, Birmingham, will be said by her uncle, the Rev. John Power of Springfield, Mass. Burial will follow in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Miss Powers died Saturday night at Cape Cod Hospital, Hyanis, Mass., after a long illness.

She had been taken to the hospital from the Power's summer home at Dennisport, Mass. Her father is assistant general counsel for the General Motors Corp.

★ ★ ★

Surviving besides her parents are a sister, Mary Eleanor, and a brother, John.

Her body will be at her Bloomfield Hills home this evening.

Hoffa Plans to Sue Kennedy for Libel

Senate rackets committee during its investigation of labor and management corruption.

★ ★ ★

Hoffa maintained in his television appearance that the picture is not as black as has been charged.

He conceded there are "some problems" in his union. But he said union officers accused of corruption would be "taken care of" after the rackets committee expires this year.

★ ★ ★

He said 14 Teamster officials accused of corruption remain in office and will be accorded due process of law with the right of cross-examination in their hearings before international union officers.

JP Makes Profitable Protest

Serves 159 Blue Law Notices

BRISTOL, Pa. (AP) — "There's more than one way to skin a cat," figured Justice of the Peace Earl B. Dougherty. That, he said, is the theory he applied Sunday to Pennsylvania's Sunday blue laws.

★ ★ ★

Daugherty spent the day driving through Bucks County, just north of Philadelphia, handing out 159 conviction-on-sight notices. The recipients included actress Peggy Cass, two toll booth collectors, a radio announcer, numerous plant guards, a druggist, a newspaper editor, and the reporters and photographers followed him.

"I'm actually against the Sunday blue laws," Dougherty said. "They're chaotic and outmoded and if they were strictly enforced would strangle Pennsylvania's entire economy.

"I'm a justice of the peace and it's my duty to enforce the law. So I did."

He reached the Bristol Playhouse, a summer theater, during the first act intermission and asked to see Miss Cass.

"Are you worldly employed?" he asked, after introducing himself.

"Yes," said Miss Cass.

"Are you being paid?"

"Yes."

"I hereby convict you on view for violation of the Sunday blue laws." He handed her a notice.

"Why I've never won a thing, and I'd rather not win this," the actress joked.

But, like the others, she must, according to the notice, appear today before Dougherty and pay a $4 fine plus $9 costs.

★ ★ ★

The same thing happened at the Levittown Times, where employes were working on the weekly paper, and at WBCB, Levittown, where announcer Mike Mayo allowed him to state his question on the air.

Then there was a taxicab driver, a Bell Telephone Co. maintenance man, bowling alley and golf driving range operators, and guards at a half-dozen factories, including a Radio Corp. of America plant and the struck Fairless works of U.S. Steel Corp.

Dougherty said he wanted to serve the workers in some of the plants, but he couldnt get by the guards.

★ ★ ★

Two toll collectors at an interchange of the Pennsylvania Turnpike referred the notices to higher-ups. A spokesman said the Turnpike Commission's legal department was studying the case, but the commission felt the turnpike is a necessary function.

"The toll collectors are being paid, aren't they?" said Dougherty. "They're worldly employed, and that is prohibited by the blue laws."

★ ★ ★

Dougherty's tour came at a time when the State House is considering a Senate-passed bill increasing the fine for violating the 1794 blue laws to $100 for the first offense and $200 for each subsequent offense. The purpose is to discourage merchants who consider the $4 fine a business expense.

★ ★ ★

For years, the blue laws were almost never enforced, but two years ago a department store objected to a nearby discount house doing business on Sunday. Since then arrests have been made throughout the state.

Many Abstain From Tax Vote

State Lawmakers Send Levy Bill to Senate Over Silent Protests

LANSING (UPI) — Many lawmakers declined to vote Friday when the House passed two major tax plans.

The 77-16 tally on a bill for a 2 per cent corporation profits tax was the key vote in a three bill package that included a penny boost in the sales tax. Fifteen failed to vote.

All voted for the bill except:

Democrats against — William Copeland, Lapeer; Edgar Currie, Detroit; Einar Erlandsen, Escanaba; J. J. Fitzpatrick, Detroit; Mrs. Josephine Hunsinger, Detroit; Dominic Jacobetti, Negaunee; Arthur Law, Pontiac; Mrs. Lucille McCollough, Dearborn; Ernest Murphy, Detroit; Andrew Wisti, Hancock; Gilbert Wales, Stambaugh; Hugh Smale, Detroit; William Thorne, Dearborn, and William Romano, Warren.

★ ★ ★

Republicans against—Roy Brigham, Battle Creek and George Sallade, Ann Arbor.

Republicans not voting—Wilfred Bassett, Jackson; Adolph Blanchard, Bay City; Rollo Conlin, Tipton; James Folks, Horton; Harold Hungerford, Lansing; Frederic Marshall, Allen, and James Mielock, Whittemore.

Democrats not voting — Harvey Beadle, Detroit; Joseph Giachino, Iron Mountain; Robert Mahoney, Detroit; Louis Mezzano, Wakefield; Michael Novak, Detroit; Frank O'Brien, Detroit; Joseph O'Connor, Detroit, and Mrs. Charlene White, Detroit.

The vote on increasing the use (sales) tax to 5 per cent and exempting food was 66-22 with 20 members not voting.

Republicans against — Louis Cramton, Lapeer; George Dunn, Pigeon; Emil Peltz, Rogers City; George Sallade, Ann Arbor, and Raymond Wurzel, Port Huron.

Democrats against—Edgar Currie, Detroit; Einar Erlandsen, Escanaba; E. A. Fitzpatrick, Detroit; Josephine Hunsinger, Detroit; Dominic Jacobetti, Negaunee; Arthur Law, Pontiac; Lucille McCollough, Dearborn; Ernest Murphy, Detroit; Charles Raap, Twin Lake; William Romano, Warren; Hugh Smale, Detroit; William Thorne, Detroit; Roger Townsend, Flint; Gilbert Wales, Stambaugh; Charlene White, Detroit; Frank Williams, Detroit, and Andrew Wisti, Hancock.

Republicans not voting — Adolph Blanchard, Bay City; Rollo Conlin, Tipton; Harry Emmons, Byron Center; Arnell Engstrom, Traverse City; John Kilborn, Petoskey; Ben Lohman, Hamilton; Frederic Marshall, Allen; James Mielock, Whittemore; Hans Rasmussen, Ludington; C. H. Root, Kalamazoo; Riemer Van Til, Holland, and Floyd Wagner, Cassopolis.

Democrats not voting — George Edwards, Detroit; Joseph Giachino, Iron Mountain; Robert Mahoney, Detroit; Louis Mezzano, Wakefield; Frank J. O'Brien, Detroit; Joseph O'Connor, Detroit; Paul Parker, Flint, and Fred Yates, Detroit.

These Food Items Would Be Exempt

LANSING (AP)—Here are the food items which would be exempt from taxation under a bill passed Friday by the House to raise the use (sales) tax to five cents:

Cereals, milk, oleomargine, meat, fish, eggs, vegetables, fruit, spices and salt, sugar, coffee and coffee substitutes, tea and cocoa.

Any products of the above items would also be exempt except for candy and confectionery.

The exemption would not apply to liquor, beer, wine, soft drinks, sodas, medicines, tonics, vitamins and other dietary supplements, various forms of treated water, and meals and drinks served on or off the premises of a retailer.

Vets Object to Bridge Being Named for Editor

BAY CITY (UPI) — Veterans groups in the city were up in arms today about a Senate resolution to rename a bridge in memory of the late Glenn MacDonald, editor of the Bay City Times for a quarter of a century.

The bridge, which was originally dedicated as a memorial bridge for area war dead, was the object last week of a resolution in Lansing authorizing the city to erect a marker naming the bridge as the Glenn MacDonald Memorial Bridge.

The bridge is on U.S. 23 across the Saginaw River. A veterans memorial park adjoins the highway near the bridge.

Soviet Censors Still Plague U. S. Newsmen

MOSCOW (AP) — Russia has hit on a neat system of applying its censorship to resident foreign correspondents covering the Nixon visit but extending complete freedom to file to those who came over with the vice president's party.

★ ★ ★

Just why such a twist in censorship seemed logical to the Russians was hard to understand by either group of correspondents. Here is how it works:

A newsman coming from Washington with Nixon could put in a telephone call, dictate his story, or file in by telegraph, without passing it through the censors.

But not, so far, the resident American correspondent who covers Moscow on a day-to-day basis, even though he might write an almost identical story.

The censor often cuts great chunks out of the story and almmost always delays its movement by 30 minutes to more than three hours. Protests were ignored.

Sees Big Difference in Russia, Poland

TRENTON, N.J. (UPI) — Gov. Robert B. Meyner said on his return from behind the Iron Curtain that the difference between Poland and Russia was "like day and night."

★ ★ ★

Meyner, who recently visited both countries, said that while the Russians appeared "thoroughly indoctrinated," the Poles seemed "more prone to criticize and have not accepted the same extremes of communism."

★ ★ ★

Meyner, who toured Russia with seven other governors, said he found the Russian people did not "have a clear conception" of the United States, but that "they had a great deal of respect for us."

Life Sentences Go to Child-Stranglers

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Mrs. Wanda Brogdon and her former lover, Archie Merriam, were sentenced to life imprisonment for strangling her two young sons.

The Rockford, Ill. couple were convicted of first-degree murder last Thursday. The same jury fixed their punishment Sunday.

Merriam admitted he strangled Virgil Brodgon Jr., 5, and David, 3, last May 2, but said he did so at their mother's instigation. She denied it.

The prosecution sought death for both Mrs. Brogdon and Merriam.

"I had expected to die," Mrs Brogdon said. "I wanted to be with the boys."

Indians Would Never Beat Custer This Way

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Warners Studio today sent archery expert Arnie Williams to Monument Valley, Utah, at the urgent request of director John Ford.

Ford wired the studio Williams was needed to give bow-and-arrow lessons to Indians hired for the director's "Captain Buffalo," on location in Utah.

Ford said most of the redmen have never pulled a bow.

Fire Hits Home of Promoter

Jackie Leonard Puts Out Blaze, Calls Arson Squad Probers

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A flash fire broke out late Sunday night in the home of boxing promoter Jackie Leonard, who on June 3 said he was beaten after receiving threats from underworld figures trying to muscle into boxing.

Leonard said he and his wife, Jeanne, and two women visitors were watching television when the fire started in a front bedroom.

He said the wire screen covering of the bedroom window had been torn open.

★ ★ ★

"I called the fire department and arson squad investigators," Leonard said. "I threw several pans of water on the fire and was able to get it out before they arrived."

Leonard said this was the second incident at his home in the last two weeks. On July 12, he said, a gallon can half full of gasoline was found on the front porch of his home. He said gasoline had been splashed on the window sill and side of the house.

Leonard was found unconscious in his garage last June 3. He said two men had attacked him. After an investigation, police expressed the opinion Leonard had blacked out and injured himself in a fall.

Earlier, Leonard had told the California Athletic Commission that underworld figures Frankie Carbo and Frank (Blinky) Palermo had threatened him in an attempt to get a part of the contract of world welterweight champion Don Jordan.

Nixon-Nikita Tiff Said Likely to Discourage Ike

LONDON (AP)—The rough and tumble word exchange between Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and Vice President Richard M. Nixon is likely to increase President Eisenhower's reluctance to go to a summit conference, the daily telegraph said today.

★ ★ ★

The Daily Express described the exchange between the two leaders as a "disgraceful performance."

"Two public men engage in bickering in public," the Express said, "they make offensive remarks to one another. They disclose a lack of restraint which is completely deplorable."

The Telegraph which supports Prime Minister Harold Macmillans government, said the tussle "raises fresh doubts whether a high-level visit does not sometimes do more harm than good."

Huge Grass Fire Perils Idaho National Forest

BOISE, Idaho (AP)—Forest and range agencies joined today in a struggle to tame a new 10,000-acre grass fire racing toward southwest Idaho's Boise National Forest.

Another fire, which covered 20,000 acres, was under control after burning to within three miles of this Idaho capital city over the weekend. No one was hurt and no buildings were destroyed.

The flames raging out of control were in the Ditto Creek area near Mayfield about 25 miles southeast of here.

Would Avert Deadlock

Johnson Hints Willingness to Compromise in Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bills Congress will pass before adjournment will do all that a majority of its members and the President will agree can be done now, says Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson.

Hinting strongly at a willingness to compromise, the Senate Democratic leader said he must see that the Democratic - controlled Senate avoids a legislative deadlock with the Republican Administration.

★ ★ ★

Congress must do something, Johnson maintained in a radio-TV interview, even if "we won't do everything that I would like to do."

"I think the people sent us here to do our job rather than to make issues or to play politics," he said.

Johnson said he feels that "the majority leader of the Senate must, in effect, try to be a leader of the Senate, not just the Democratic Party."

★ ★ ★

Johnson expressed his views during a radio-TV program with Sen. Leverett Saltonstall (R-Mass) recorded for Massachusetts and Texas stations.

What does Johnson think about these important issues still before Congress?

Labor regulation: He predicted passage of a good bill.

Housing: He said he expects Democrats to find some area of agreement with President Eisenhower. He made no mention of a possible attempt to override Eisenhower's housing bill veto.

Civil rights: He said he hopes Congress will pass a civil rights measure this session, adding "I think it's very important that we have understanding and we have tolerance, but that we make progress."

Wheat and tobacco: The Senate will not hesitate to take another look at wheat and tobacco control legislation, he said, if Democrats can find common ground with the Republicans on measures to replace the vetoed wheat and tobacco bills.

★ ★ ★

Veterans' benefits: He predicted eventual approval of a bill the Senate already has passed providing educational and other benefits for veterans who served after the Korean war. The measure in its present form is likely to be vetoed.

Civilian Conservation Corps: He expects action on the Administration - opposed measure which comes before the Senate early this week.

Handicapped Boy Shoots His Parents

TUCUMCARI, N.M. (AP) — A handicapped 13-year-old boy was held for psychiatric examination today after he shot his father and mother with a high-powered rifle.

Gordon Ellis, a hare-lipped cripple with a cleft palate, told officers he used a 30-30 rifle on his sleeping parents because:

His father had "bawled him out" for failing to run an errand,

His parents had refused to buy him a motor scooter, and

They wouldn't let him go to his grandmother's home to watch television.

His father, Ted Ellis, and mother, Charlotte, lay in Tucumcari General Hospital in serious condition. The father was shot in the cheek and left shoulder, Mrs. Ellis in the right shoulder and hip.

Population of Greater Tokyo has now been estimated at more than 8 million.

Other Nations Question Castro's Know-How

As The Sunday Graphic says in England:

"The art of governing is rather more difficult than the art of growing a beard. Fidel Castro has made this discovery — but too late in the day for the health of Cuba."

★ ★ ★

Well, CASTRO may not be quite that far gone, but he's on the skids. They're greased, too—and lightning fast.

His resignation was purely an act to impress the world and it probably did. The demand for his return may have been synthetic in part but he still has an immense following in Cuba and his loyal supporters were found on every hand. They answered the call.

★ ★ ★

CASTRO was a dashing world figure when he visited this country at the invitation of the American Society of Newspaper Editors. He was wined, dined and the red carpets ran in all directions.

★ ★ ★

That was three short months ago and in the meantime he has discovered that speaking in faltering, broken English and "meeting a payroll" are light years apart. Cuban economy has been belted amidships. CASTRO's world standing has been greatly impaired as he has played footsy with the Commies — or as his aides have. He himself may stand relatively clear, but he breathes an unhealthy atmosphere.

★ ★ ★

Great nations are losing faith. He must bring about a sound economy in his country irrespective of his grand flourishes and his political pyrotechnics. Speeches and histrionics won't cut the mustard any more. It's time for constructive action and sound thinking. Are these within Castro's ken? They have evaded him so far. Time is running short and now he must produce. His great belief in himself, his popularity at home and his "way with the people" are all interesting, but there are other attributes and characteristics that finally creep ahead.

★ ★ ★

In the end, we must have first things first. CASTRO, the curtain has fallen on the sword waving, and the old order changeth.

Home Rule for Capital Given Senate Approval

For the fifth time the Senate has voted to give home rule to the District of Columbia, that is the City of Washington. The bill provides for an elected mayor, a nine member city council and a non-voting delegate to the House of Representatives.

★ ★ ★

For the past 85 years the District has had no voice in its own affairs and its people no electoral vote of any kind. They can vote only for delegates to the Republican and Democratic National Conventions, for the party national committeemen and for members of the local party committees. The new measure would give them about the same rights as Alaska and Hawaii had under territorial rule.

★ ★ ★

As things stand now the three commissioners who administer the District government are appointed by the President. Congress does all the legislating even to discussion of the price of dog licenses. Home rule advocates contend that this is ridiculously petty work for a national legislature. More important local problems also are neglected because House and Senate cannot take enough time from national affairs to act as a city council.

★ ★ ★

The injustice of the situation has long been recognized. President Eisenhower has repeatedly requested remedial action. It is to be hoped, therefore, that the House will pass the bill and that Congress at long last will give up its control of the people of the District and grant them some of the privileges enjoyed by other citizens.

David Lawrence Says:

Union Lock-in Tactics Rights Blow

WASHINGTON — The biggest scandal in local government in America today isn't attracting much attention. Is it generally accepted that American citizens can be denied police protection when they are prevented forcibly—upon the orders of a labor union—from working at their jobs?

LAWRENCE

This would seem to be a violation of the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees the "privileges and immunities" of all citizens.

Two big steel companies have been told that their supervisory personnel would not be permitted to enter and leave the plants without the consent of certain labor unions.

Thus are "civil rights" lost. If the right of entry were denied at a Little Rock School, there would be demands for a return of federal troops.

But in northern states today the local authorities which are supposed to preserve law and order and punish anyone who intimidates another citizen or threatens bodily violence, look the other way and let organizations continue their threatening and intimidating tactics.

Last week news dispatches telling of what was happening in the plants of two large steel companies were transmitted throughout the country by the press associations.

But not a single protest has come from Congress or its Civil Rights Commission, nor has any public official of the states or counties where all this has been happening explained to the American people why they ignore the loss of "civil rights" in their respective localities.

TRAGIC STORY

Here are extracts from two news dispatches from the United Press International that tell the tragic story of how American citizens are deprived of their right to work. One is from East Chicago, Illinois, dated July 24, and says:

"A dispute over an 'open gate' policy at the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co.'s Indiana Harbor Works seemed likely to delay the issuance of pay checks to striking united steelworkers there today. About 600 members of the United Steelworkers Local 1011 voted last night not to allow non-union personnel to enter and leave the plant."

It so happens that pay checks for a period just before the nationwide steel strike began are due now. The Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co. has several hundred supervisory employee, who are not unionized, and they are locked up voluntarily in the plant because, once they leave, they would not be allowed back into the office building by the union pickets.

★ ★ ★

The unions had proposed that some union personnel needed for the issuance of the pay checks could go back into the building long enough to write the checks, but immediately after this task was finished, they would not be allowed to return, and the supervisors also would be locked out once they left the plant. The company refused to make such an agreement.

ANOTHER CASE

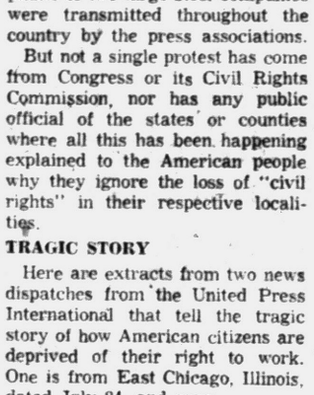

Another dispatch on the same kind of dispute came from Pittsburgh on July 21. It said that an agreement was reached to allow the free passage of personnel to and from the Pittsburgh and nearby Aliquippa Works of the Jones & Laughlin Corp.

But the agreement was made only after the company had applied for an injunction in the local county courts. The joint statement of the union and the company read as follows:

"The union and the corporation have agreed that all supervisory and salaried employees in the corporation having business in the Pittsburgh and Aliquippa Works will pass freely in and out of the Works.

"The corporation will promptly discontinue the injunction proceedings which it commenced against the union in the courts of common pleas of Allegheny and Beaver Counties."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Avoid German Measles, Expectant Mothers Told

In 694 cases of rubella (German measles) during the first 16 weeks of pregnancy, reports Dr. Julia Bell in British Medical Journal, 412 of the women bore defective children, some of the children having more than one defect.

DR. BRADY

Cataract was noted in 491 of the children, deafness in 263, congenital heart defect in 210. In many cases the defect became apparent only when the children were five or six years old or older. In most of these cases of congenital defect, the mother had rubella in the early months of pregnancy.

Formerly doctors regarded German measles as a mild ailment of no particular significance. Prior to 1940 standard medical textbooks said nothing about the effects of German measles in pregnancy.

I can't believe the doctors of yesteryear were so unobservant that they failed to notice the association of German measles in early pregnancy with the birth of defective children. However, I am not at present prepared to advance a plausible theory to explain the apparent discrepancy.

I suspect there's some error—it doesn't seem reasonable that such a mild illness as German measles in the expectant mother can so gravely mar the development of her baby. This doubt has made me reluctant to say anything about the effect of maternal rubella on the unborn child.

I know of no evidence to support the theory that injection of serum from rubella convalescents is advisable to immunize the pregnant woman against German measles or to minimize the effect on the unborn child if the expectant mother has German measles. But it may well be that this treatment or something like it has merit.

Anyway, it is well to remember that rubella is a respiratory infection, which, like measles, diphtheria, whooping cough, poliomyelitis, chicken-pox, small-pox, scarlet fever, meningitis and the other respiratory infections, spreads via the moisture spray given off from nose and mouth when the one who has or is coming down with the disease coughs, sneezes or talks.

The germs or virus of the disease are in the droplets—visible and palpable or invisible and impalpable droplets of moisture in the spray. Therefore no one purports to have a "cold" should be permitted to get closer than five feet to an expectant mother.

Mutual Destruction Likely if Big Nations Test Might

By ELTON C. FAY
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON — Back of the sharp exchanges between Premier Nikita Khrushchev and Vice President Richard M. Nixon and the calmer but deadly serious diplomatic discussions in Geneva is the belief held by each nation that it is dealing from military superiority.

There can be pitfalls in following this philosophy. One of them could be wrong. Or worse, both could be almost right. Mutual destruction of both nations could be the result.

★ ★ ★

When Khrushchev says Russian rockets are better than American weapons and Nixon says the United States has good ones too, each is relying on what his military scientists and strategists tell him.

Neither Khrushchev nor Nixon is a military professional. Khrushchev was a political general in World War II, Nixon a reserve commander in the Navy.

In their "my-brother-can-lick-your-brother" arguments they must depend on the evalutions of their respective military professionals. And the enthusiasm of military men for things they create or plans they devise can overreach actual attainment.

NEVER TRIED

The two men tossed words about their missiles at each other. But except for the primitive, short-range weapons used in the closing days of World War II, ballistic missiles never have been tried in actual combat.

And the V2 missiles used then were German, not Russian or American.

There is considerable difference between launching a ballistic missile under the carefully arranged conditions of a test and firing one in the frantic atmosphere of war. An enemy wouldn't wait for long countdowns.

★ ★ ★

Nor, at this present stage of the art of missiles, is launching reliability the only problem. There is the matter of hitting what you aim at.

American experts express belief that while Russia may at the moment be ahead in propulsion, it trails in the field of guidance. Again, this is the opinion of one group of military men.

This may explain, in part, Khrushchev's loud demand for removal of U.S. bases in Europe. The importance of accuracy in guidance lessens as the range shortens; it is easier to aim an intermediate range ballistic missile (IRBM) than to hope to hit a target at 5,500 miles with an intercontinental ballistic missile (ICBM).

FEW IRBM UNITS

But Khrushchev's concern over American bases in Europe obviously isn't confined to missile launching pads. The United States is only beginning to deploy a comparatively few IRBM missile units abroad.

What also concerns the Soviet Premier is the presence of medium range bombers and shorter range light bombers and fighter-bombers, each capable of toting nuclear destruction, on airdromes in England and on the Continent, rimming Russia.

These aircraft would work with the long-range B52 bombers, and probably would be called upon to make the first retaliatory strikes before the B52s could reach Russian target areas.

★ ★ ★

To the long-range and medium bombers must be added the nuclear weapon planes of the U.S. Navy, with carriers in the Mediterranean and Eastern Atlantic.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Marriage Helps Men Live Longer

Men notoriously tease their wives about being a "ball and chain", but this is malarky: As soon as a husband becomes a widower, he is usually eager to marry again, for marriage is wonderful. It actually adds years to your lifespan, lessens your chances of peptic ulcer and heart trouble, and even puts more zest in the taste of food. See the proof below.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE C-401: Hank G., aged 39, is a bachelor industrialist.

★ ★ ★

DR. CRANE

"Dr. Crane, I suppose I ought to get married," he admitted, "for I lead a lonely life, especially after I quit work at 5 p. m.

"And I notice that my married friends seem to be less tense. Few of them have ulcers. And I seldom hear of a married man with excessively high blood pressure.

"But several of my bachelor friends at the Club are constantly nursing ulcers or taking pills for high blood pressure.

★ ★ ★

"So please send me an Application Blank for your Scientific Marriage Foundation."

HUSBANDS ARE HEALTHIER

Happy marriage is a wonderful aid to a man's morale and also is good insurance for longer life.

You can always make your matriage happy, too, if you'll just follow the simple but basic rules outlined in this column from week to week.

"But, Dr. Crane," you may demand, "I know the insurance figures prove that married men live longer than bachelors. So please explain just why this is true."

★ ★ ★

First, married men can unload their troubles verbally when they get home.

And this act of exploding, relieves inner tension; hence, the married man is less likely to have a peptic ulcer or continue an elevated blood pressure.

Second, the married man eats regularly and better balanced meals. And his appetite is improved, for eating is a sociable event, starting when the baby is first able to sit in a high chair at tthe family dinner table.

★ ★ ★

As a result, in later adulthood, a vital part of the dinner situation is lacking when a person must dine alone. We subconsciously crave human companionship with our meals, and married men have this.

WIFELY NURSES

Third, a married man is coddled and nursed by his wife when he has the flu or any other malady.

Even though males are regarded as the strong, superior sex from the physical angle, men still relax more completely when they know they have a dutiful wife to serve as nurse.

Millions of bachelors and spinsters become "worry warts" over their health after they pass 40. For they conjure up all sorts of dire situations that might occur when they are all alone.

★ ★ ★

"Suppose I had a heart attack," they imagine, "and were all alone in the house! Why, I might die and never be missed for several days!"

But married folks realize their partner will call a doctor and look after them, which is a very consoling feeling.

Married people likewise keep more regular hours and thus get more sleep.

And their love for each other is a wholesome extrovertive force that takes their attention off their own epidermis and their "innards."

Unmarried people tend to fret more about their inside organs and thus worry unduly about heart or cancer, gall bladder and constipation.

If you bachelors or widowers sincerely want to be introduced to congenial, charming women of good looks, high morals and jolly dispositions, then send for an Application Blank for tthe Scientific Marriage Foundation, enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit).

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Congressmen Praise Nixon

Both Sides' Members Feel Vice President Is Matching Red Boss

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon is proving himself a match for Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, in the opinion of several Congress members.

Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, the assistant Democratic leader, said Nixon is "making the best of a very difficult and delicate situation" during his visit to Moscow.

★ ★ ★

"He is rolling with the punches thrown at him by Khrushchev," Mansfield said. "He is also sending back some good punches."

Sen. John Sherman Cooper (R-Ky), a former ambassador, said in a separate interview he thinks Nixon has matched Khrushchev in "directness and toughness" in their informal, caustic exchanges.

"Nixon is doing exactly what is needed," Cooper said. "He's talking the only kind of language Khrushchev can understand."

Rep. Richard M. Simpson (R-Pa) said in a statement that Nixon's verbal encounter with Khrushchev was "a superb example of courage and intelligence."

Odd-Named Kids Have Troubles

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — Top psychiatrists at Harvard have discovered that children with unusual first names are likely to: 1) be more neurotic than kids with "ordinary" names, and 2) flunk out of college more readily than the "Bills" and "Marys."

★ ★ ★

Well, professor, it makes you think, doesn't it? It makes you quiver anew about the dangers of being a free-thinker, a nonconformist, an individualist.

You want your child to be just a little different from the average, just a little more distinctive. So you name him "Quentin," perhaps. . .or "Westbrook". . .or "Grover". . .or "Rock". . .and what have you got? A potential problem, Harvard says.

The possible reason for the tendency for unusually-named kids to be neurotic, the thinking goes, is that parents who dream up offbeat names are likely to be neurotic themselves. And neurotic people raise neurotic offspring.

DANGER OF RIDICULE

Even more logical, it seems to me, is that the child with a new name in the neighborhood is in danger of being ridiculed in the early years of his life when he is incapable of laughing, or fighting, back.

I'll never forget a girl in third grade name Salome. No matter how you sliced it, she was eaten alive.

I also remember the poetically-named sufferers. Ruby the booby, Rob the slob, Phyl the pill, Hope the dope, and Maggie who was many things—none of them flattering.

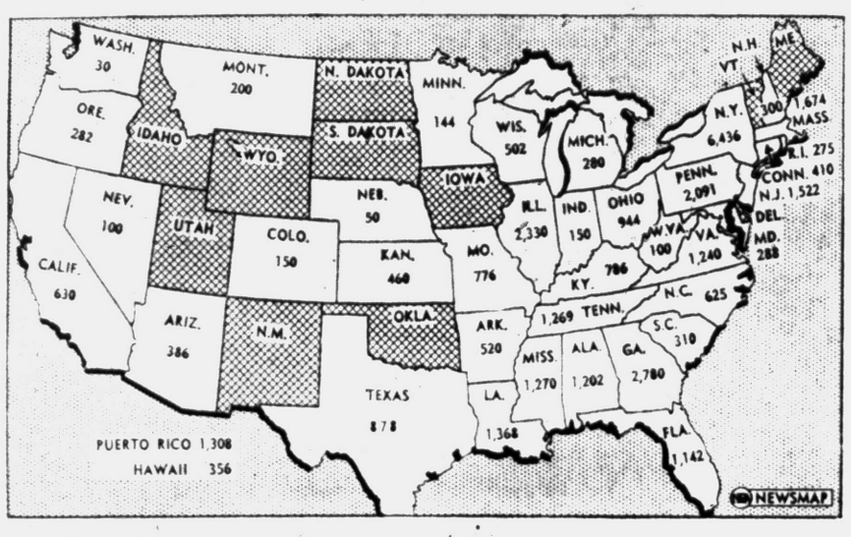

★ ★ ★

I would not think to question so great an institution as Harvard on this matter, but their newest revelation is something parents should not stew (as in stupid Stuart) about.

Offspring have put up with offensive parent-issued labels for lo, these many centuries, and if they've got any red blood, usually they come out of it by the time they're on a board of directors somewhere.

So forget it, especially if the die is cast.

And try to remember that if you kid has an off-beat name—say like "Elvis," or "Fabian"—he may not finish college, but so what? There are other ways to make a reasonable living.

PUBLIC HOUSING PICTURE — Newsmap shows breakdown by participating states and Puerto Rica for contracts for financial assistance between the Public Housing Administration and 294 local housing authorities which were entered into during the 11-month period ending June 30, 1959. Of the total 35,564 units, 564 were left from 578 remaining from the total of 45,000 authorized in 1955 and unused at that time. The balance of 35,000 were all that could be written under the last contractual authorization received from Congress and which expired June 30, 1959.

The American Medical Assn. reports that a can of tomatoes or a box of crackers, turned upside down, might save your life.

clear attack. The emergecy rations in the housewife's cupboard should, in such a dire instance, never be opened from the end which was exposed to the air. "Radio-active fallout material is just like dust," it is reported.

"To keep fallout from getting into your stomach, always open the end of a box or can which has been in contact with the shelf, rather than the air.

Lt. Col. Ingalls H. Simmons of the Army Medical Corps lists the following as essential emergency rations every home should have on hand:

Water in bottles in the refrigerator, canned fruit, juices, vegetables, meats, soups, powdered milk, baby food, raisins, packaged cereals and a small battery radio which can be tuned to CONELRAD stations in an emergency.

Polio Shot Lack Labelled Ironic

DETROIT (AP)—"This is ironic," said Dr. Joseph G. Molner, Detroit-Wayne County Health Commissioner, when told of the Salk polio vaccine shortage "because last year we had it coming out of our ears." Molner blamed the shortage on an increase in paralytic polio cases and stepped up vaccination drives in many communities.

★ ★ ★

A spokesman for Parke, Davis & Co., said his company is making every effort to meet demands.

Eli Lilly and Co. of Indianapolis said the pharmaceutical industry was so overloaded with the vaccine last year at this time it had to destroy 12 million doses.

Both firms said they believed the shortage was temporary and the demand would be met shortly.

Out of each consumer dollar spent for pork, about 25 cents goes for fat cuts, meat packers estimate.

Typewriter Built Due to Cramp

John J. Pratt Invented It in 1860, but Device Didn't Sell Until 1873

CENTRE, Ala. (UPI) — Probably not one secretary in a hundred could tell you who invented the first practical typewriter. He is an American better known in England than in his own country.

★ ★ ★

While the first commercially-successful typewriter was turned out in 1873, John J. Pratt was using one in his newspaper office here in 1860. He was registrar in chancery for this northeast Alabama section, a lawyer and part-owner and editor of a newspaper.

All that writing began cramping his fingers and Pratt began to think about a machine which would put letters on paper with the touch of a finger.

He took his ideas to printer John Neely who manufactured some type he thought might work while Pratt built the frame and working parts.

The device worked and Pratt began using it for his court chores along with writing editorials for The National Democrat, a well-known newspaper of the day.

★ ★ ★

But in 1860, when the Civil War was approaching, he decided to go to England. He obtained patents on the typewriter there and in France.

An article about his machine appeared in The Scientific American in the United States and, two years later, a patent was issued for the typewriter to Glidden and Sholes in this country.

Glidden and Sholes took their machine to E. Remington & Sons, then well-known manufacturers of guns and sewing machines. The first commercially-useful typewriter resulted, 13 years after Pratt had his in use.

But Pratt, who is buried in this Cherokee County town, wasn't entirely forgotten.

He was pensioned by the firm which patented the typewriter in the United States and a marker over his grave describes him as "inventor of the typewriter."

The main street of Helena, Mont. was once named "Last Chance Gulch" by four discouraged prospectors. They decided to give up prospecting if they didn't find gold there. They found one of the big gest gold strikes in history.

Revolution in Just 4 Years

Health of Indians Changes Quickly

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Public Health Service doctors call it "one of the most dramatic health stories of our time."

★ ★ ★

It's the story of what has been accomplished, in just four years, by bringing modern medical care to a desperately underprivileged people.

The underprivileged people in this case don't live far away in Asia or Africa. They live right here in America. They are the 400,000 American Indians who are wards of the U. S. government.

A shocking report on Indian health four years ago prompted Congress to enact legislation transferring responsibility for Indian medical care from the Interior Department's Bureau of Indian Affairs to the U. S. Public Health Service.

ADDITIONAL FUNDS

Congress also loosened the purse strings and voted additional funds for hospitals, clinics and doctors on Indian reservations. Total appropriations for this purpose have risen from $22,000,000 in 1954 to nearly double that figure this year.

Here are a few of the results:

—The death rate from tuberculosis has dropped sharply. In 1954, the TB death rate among Indians was ten times the national average. Today it is still much too high—but it is down to four times the national average.

—The death rate from diseases of the stomach and intestines—almost as rife as TB on Indian reservations—has been reduced by 26 per cent.

—The infant death rate is down 12 per cent.

While the Public Health Service is justifiably proud of these figures, its officials are quick to point out that much more remains to be done to bring Indian health standards up to par.

★ ★ ★

Even at the present reduced level, the infant death rate among Indians is more than twice that of the general population. The incidence of measles, scarlet fever and other childhood diseases is four to five times as great among Indians as among other Americans.

The infectious eye disease trachoma, now rarely found elsewhere in America, is still a common affliction among Indians. An Indian's chance of living to be 65 years old is less than half that of the average American.

The Public Health Service is committed to the goal of bringing Indian health standards up to the level of all other Americans. But there are serious obstacles.

LOW ECONOMY LEVEL

The biggest, undoubtedly, is the extremely low economic level at which most Indians exist.

★ ★ ★

Indian poverty is reflected in rickety, overcrowded housing, in the lack of safe water supplies and a general failure of sanitation, in woefully inadequate diets. All of these factors are "allies of excessive disease rates," according to the Public Health Service.

Legislation has been introduced in Congress annually for several years to authorize a "domestic point four program" to raise living standards on Indian reservations. But no action has been taken.

New Runway Planned for Frankfort Airport

FRANKFORT (UPI) — Construction of a 2,750-foot asphalt runway at the Frankfort airport is expected to start within 60 days, Frankfort officials report.

Final plans for the runway have been sent to the Michigan Department of Aeronautics and work will start as soon as they are approved. The runway is scheduled to be completed before the 1960 resort season.

Educational Secretaries Plan Annual Workshop

BIG RAPIDS (UPI)—The third annual workshop for educational secretaries will be held Aug. 4-6 at Ferris Institute.

The conference is sponsored by Ferris in cooperation with the Michigan Assn. of Educational Secretaries.

Treaty May Curb Strife in Americas

WASHINGTON (AP)—An existing inter-American treaty — said to be capable of curbing Caribbean tension — seems sure to occupy a top place in the Aug. 12 meeting of Western Hemisphere foreign ministers.

Member governments have been asked to make a careful study of the treaty, the 1928 Havana Convention on the rights and duties of states in the event of civil strife.

★ ★ ★

The suggestion came Friday from El Salvador's Ambassador Hector David Castro as the Council of the Organization of American States formally set Aug. 12 as the date for the Santiago, Chile, meeting.

The meeting, which could last from 8 to 10 days, will discuss means of easing tensions in the Caribbean.

State's Rebel Dems Planning to Act Again

DETROIT (UPI) — The State Democratic Club of Michigan—rebel organization opposed to the state's party leadership, announced today it would again oppose regular party candidates in the next election.

★ ★ ★

Norton N. Wisok, president of the club, said "We will have candidates for state and congressional offices in the next election. At the proper time our organization and all of our affiliates will also declare support to a preferred presidential aspirant."

Wisok and other officials of the club said the movement has gained strength during the past year.

Russian Books at Exhibition Are Encased in Glass

NEW YORK (AP) — Books on display at the Russian exhibition here have been encased in glass on the ground that excessive thumbing through them by visitors is wearing them out.

★ ★ ★

This developed at about the time the Russians in Moscow obtained the removal from the United States exhibition there of books containing ideas unpalatable to them.

There was no indication that United States officials had requested removal of any books from the Russian exhibit.

A spokesman for the Russian exhibition said the books shown here were not intended for reading by visitors but simply were displayed as samples of what the Russians are producing.

Translation Mixup Gets Nixon in Dutch

MOSCOW (AP) — The trade union newspaper Trud said Saturday one of Richard M. Nixon's aides insulted a Soviet worker by trying to tip him 100 rubles when the Vice President visited a food market.

The newspaper carried a letter from the workman, V. I. Smachtin, saying "this American handout incensed me."

★ ★ ★

"I asked that the Vice President be told I didn't need his money and that I found it rude and that I found it disrespectful; and if the Vice President wanted anything, I myself could give him money. Here you are, I said, and handed him some big money bills."

Herbert G. Kline, Nixon's press attache, said this was what happened:

A group of workers gathered around the Vice President and asked for help in getting tickets for the U. S. exhibition. They said they could not get any. Nixon misunderstood the translation and asked an aide to offer them 100 rubles ($10 at the tourist exchange rate of 10 to 1).

It was explained by the workers that they did not need money for the tickets. They just needed help in buying them. The tickets are hard to get.

Nixon assured the workers he would get them 200 tickets. They will cost $20. Kline said Nixon will have to pay the $20 out of his own pocket because "we are having trouble getting tickets."

Birthplace of Model T Coming Down

DETROIT (AP) — Wreckers have begun tearing down a Motor City landmark—the five tall smokestacks at the Ford Motor Co. plant where the modern assembly line was born.

★ ★ ★

The 155-foot stacks were at the powerhouse of Fords Highland Park Plant, the world's largest automobile plant when it was built 44 years ago.

The factory is being razed in a $6,700,000 company expansion program to make room for a new tractor production plant and boiler house.

It was at Highland Park that the Model T was produced on the first moving assembly line and there that Ford jumped wages from $2.50 to $5 a day in a revolutionary move.

At one time plant payrolls ranged from 60,000 to 70,000 and in 1913 production averaged 640 cars a day.

Ford car assembly ended at the factory in 1917 when the Model T was discontinued and Ford production was concentrated at the giant Rouge Plant in suburban Dearborn.

There were only a few spectators on hand as the first stack was dismantled. But wreckers said veteran retired workers of the plant have been coming around for weeks, asking for bricks and pieces of metal as souvenirs of the place that marked the heyday of tin lizzie production.

Mary Ure, who played the leading role in the Broadway drama hit, "Look Back In Anger," once played in Moscow. "The Russians don't laugh much," was her comment about Moscow audiences.

Was Large Coal Dealer

WASHINGTON — Prior to World War II Germany ranked as the second largest coal exporter in the world, her volume of trade exceeded only by that of the U. S. in an average year.

The United States has about one telephone for every three persons of population.

The U.S. has about 3.3 million miles of public roads.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fezzey of Sylvan Lake enjoyed the 43rd annual regatta ball, too. Mr. Fezzey, a past commodore and the oldest living member of the club, still enjoys dancing.

Boat Club Holds Regatta Ball

The Oakland County Boat Club held its 43rd annual regatta ball at its Sylvan Lake club house Saturday evening. There were 200 members and guests present for dinner and approximately 350 attended the dance later.

Commodore of the club is John A. Benson of South Tilden avenue. Cochairmen for the affair were Donald J. Kelly of Club drive in Bloomfield Hills and Maurice Wilcox of Williams Lake road.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stieve, left, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Kelly at the Oakland County Boat Club dance. Mr. Kelly is a member of the board of directors of the club, and served as program co-chairman for the evening with Maurice Wilcox.

Bare Toes Are Taboo in Office

BY EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is it bad taste for young women to go without stockings to a business office when the legs are deeply tanned? Does it matter that the toes show through the shoes — which in fact would be the only giveaway that stockings are missing. I am not comfortable in close-toed shoes, particular in hot weather."

Answer: If you wear open-toed shoes, you very certainly must wear stockings. With close-toed shoes and deeply tanned legs, lack of stockings would not be noticed and therefore is permissable.

"Dear Mrs. Post: How should one address a wedding gift before the wedding day? And how should the card be signed by a husband and wife: Mary and John Blank or Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Blank?"

Answer: A wedding gift should be sent to Miss Mary Maidenname, and if you have a Mrs. and Mrs. visiting card you enclose it or write "Mr. and" before the engraving on your own card.

As a rule, "Best wishes" is written across the top of the card. If you have to use a plain card, then merely the name Mr. and Mrs. John Blank should be written on it or else, "With all best wishes from Mary and John Blank."

"Dear Mrs. Post: I gave a surprise shower for a friend of mine who is soon to be married. I did not invite the bridegroom's mother to the shower and have been severely criticized for not doing so. I have been told that both mothers are always invited to a shower. Will you please tell me if I was wrong?"

Answer: If the shower was limited to the bride-to-be's own young friends, it was certainly not necessary to invite the bridegroom's mother. But if other older people were invited she should have been too.

Honeymoon in Miami After Evening Ceremony

Baskets of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and carnations with palms banked the altar of Lake Orion Methodist Church for the Saturday evening wedding of Mary Elizabeth Hunt and Richard Lee Scribner.

The Rev. John H. Hall of Central Methodist Church, Pontiac, officiated at the double ring candlelight ceremony before 300 guests.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Hunt of Lake Orion and Mrs. Nellie H. Scribner of Baldwin avenue and the late William E. Scribner.

The bride's gown of embroidered English organdy over satin featured a Sabrina neckline accented with sequins and seed pearls. The bouffant floor-length skirt of four tiers of ruffles formed a chapel sweep. Her fingertip veil of pure silk illusion was held in place by a lace cap trimmed with pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink rosettes, white roses and stephanotis on a Rainbow Bible.

★ ★ ★

Susan Kay Hunt was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Jean Huggins, the bridegroom's sister; Ann Tallman and Bobbe Chambers of Lake Orion.

They wore identical ballerina length gowns of velva ray over aqua taffeta trimmed with aqua cummerbunds and matching hats. They carried cascade bouquets of pink roses, carnations and white pom pons.

Flower girl Janet Felkins wore a short white nylon dress with a pink rosette headpiece and carried a basket of pink rose petals.

Frank Gingell was best man. Ushers were Dick Chambers, James Arnold, Larry Miller, Raymond Parker and Keith Spear.

A reception was held at Gingellville Community Hall.

Before leaving for a honeymoon to Miami Beach, Fla., the bride changed to a black sheath dress with white accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

The couple will live in Lake Orion.

Mrs. Hunt wore a dress of beige shantung with matching accessories and a cymbidium orchid corsage for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Scribner was dressed in beige lace with matching accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Closeup Peek at Skies Offered by Cranbrook

James A. Fowler, curator of education at Cranbrook Institute of Science, has announced a series of observatory demonstrations for Wednesday evening, Aug. 12, when the skies may be viewed through a six-inch refractor telescope.

★ ★ ★

Demonstrations are offered to Institute members, as well as the public, and will be scheduled at half-hour intervals from 8 to 10 p.m.

Bookings are made by appointment only and are limited to 15 people per half hour period. Members will be admitted free.

Calls concerning cancellations, should overcast skies develop, will be received at the Institute.

★ ★ ★

Additional public planetarium demonstrations are scheduled for July and August as follows: Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 3 p.m. Wednesday at 4 p.m.; Saturday and Sunday at 2:30 and 3:30 p.m.

Velvet Cover-Up

The little black velvet jacket is the ideal cover-up for sheath dresses from now into autumn. It looks best with darkened blues, olive greens and copper.

Citizenship Group Has Dinner

Forty-five members and guests of Janice Antona's citizenship group who went with her to Washington, D.C. in June met for dinner Saturday evening at Devon Gables.

★ ★ ★

Slides and movies of the trip to Gettysburg, Yorktown, Jamestown, Williamsburg and Washington, D.C. were shown by members of the group.

★ ★ ★

Honored guests were tour leaders Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Lindstrom.

Trays in Various Sizes Are Handy

Trays of various sizes can serve many an unexpected use. A large tray can be useful near the ironing board, to hold small laundered items such as socks, handkerchiefs, napkins, or dishtowels.

These can then be carried en masse to drawers or shelves, in one easy trip—exemplifying the modern homemaker's way of making the washing-ironing cycle quite painless!

KAY OBERLEE

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Oberlee of Lansdowne street, Drayton Plains announce the engagemet of their daughter, Kay, to Robert E. Shell. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elden Shell of Cutler street, Drayton Plains. No wedding date has been set.

Fun Together

Start 'Why Grow Old' Class

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

There are many, many "Why Grow Old?" clubs over the country and every once in a while I receive a letter telling me about one and asking for some leaflets. I thought you would be interested in this one.

"Dear Mrs. Lowman: All this past winter we have had a 'Why Grow Old?' exercise class in our neighborhood. We gave it this name because we use your exercises. There are eight of us. We take turns keeping the children so that each of us misses one meeting every eight weeks. Otherwise you would be surprised how regular our attendance has been.

"We were all about 15 or 20 pounds overweight and we lost all we wanted to. We also lost many inches where we wished to lose. However, I believe that the best part was the fun we had together and the fact that we all feel so much better. I never laughed more than when we had our classes. We did the exercises to records.

"I do not think any of us would have stuck to dieting and exercising like we did had we not had company. Each of us would really be ashamed to renege on our calorie counting. Nobody wanted to be the only one who was not dropping pounds. Thanks a lot for helping us get started."

IT'S FUN

I hope that more of my readers will start these classes. It is fun to compare notes and it does take the drudgery out of exercise when you do it with others. Even a weekly meeting stimulates one to persevere.

This is an especially fine idea for young mothers who cannot leave their children. A neighborhood class provides healthful and beautifying activity and also a social occasion for the tied down mother.

If you would like to form a club in your block, send 25 cents to cover the cost and I will send you a bunch of leaflets which will help you. Address Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Tomorrow: "Think of What You Wear Under What You Wear."

Cotton fabrics with special finishes scorch more easily than other types. However, the special-finished fabrics can be ironed more quickly.

Crumb Mixture Strikes New Note in Peach Pie

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Each fruit as it appears seems better than the ones before. Now that peaches are in season, they make wonderful eating. Mrs. Gerald McAdams of Highland shares with us her recipe for a peach pie.

★ ★ ★

The McAdams' have three children. Mrs. McAdams is active in her church group and is on the local community chest board.

PEACH PRALINE PIE
By Mrs. Gerald McAdams

4 cups fresh peaches, cut up
½ cup granulated sugar
2 tablespoons quick tapioca
1 teaspoon lemon juice
⅓ cup sifted flour
¼ cup brown sugar
½ cup chopped nuts
¼ cup butter or margarine
pastry for 1 crust

Let peaches stand in bowl 15 minutes with granulated sugar, tapioca and lemon juice. Combine rest of ingredients, except pastry, until crumbly.

Sprinkle 1/3 of crumbly mixture over pastry in pie tin. Add peach mixture and cover with rest of crumbs. Bake 10 minutes at 450 degrees and 20 minutes at 350 degrees.

Switch Your Slips

You'll feel cooler and therefore look cooler if you replace your full-length slips with half-slips in summer weather. Have them in dark colors as well as white.

Twins' Moms Gather

Twins' Mothers Club met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Walters of Oxford. Mrs. J. B. Cleary of Lake Orion was welcomed as a new member.

★ ★ ★

Items of twin clothing and furniture were exchanged and sold.

The next meeting will include a talk on "Developmental Aspects of Multiple Births," by Mrs. Theodore Stickney of Chippewa road and her identical twin Mrs. James Dearing of Drayton Plains.

Mrs. Stickney is a graduate of University of Detroit with a major in child psychology. An open discussion will follow.

Guests will be welcome. The meeting will be held 8 p.m. Sept. 3 at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Acheson of Oxford. For reservations, call Mrs. Robert Green of Lake Orion.

Midday Make-Up Repairs

Busy career women can keep themselves looking fresh and glamorous all day by making a few simple mid-day make-up repairs, says a noted master of make-up artistry.

Take time during your lunch period to remove makeup from your forehead, nose, mouth, and chin with cleansing cream without damaging the remainder, and then freshen the area with skin freshener.

Apply new foundation make-up to these areas and feather it into the make-up which is still intact.

Then, puff on an all-in-one creamy-base powder make-up, apply new lipstick, and touch-up your eye make-up. You'll feel renewed and glamorous the rest of the day.

Cedar Chest Old?

If your cedar chest is several years old, take the same precautions in storing woolens as you would with any other container, suggest home economists at Michigan State University. Cedar-oil vapor from the wood loses its protective strength after a few years.

Fun at a country fair includes eating hot dogs, of course. These youngsters and their mother are ordering a couple with mustard at the fair Saturday at St. Mary's in the Hills church in Lake Orion.

Bouffant Bangs Can Be Easy

Perhaps you would like a new hairdo but with the least fuss. How about bouffant bangs? Roll a plump strip of cotton batting into a kerchief and tie it across your forehead.

Comb your banks over this pad and then set them with a hairspray. Let the spray dry, remove the pad and comb lightly. It takes about ten minutes.

New necklaces shown in Paris combine lovely colors. For instance: olive green and violet or beaver, smoked topaz and beige.

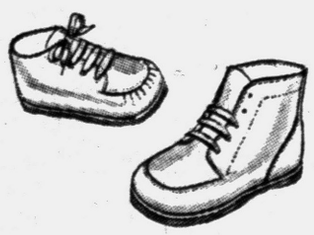

For Small Rooms

Decorate the small room in your home to look as spacious as possible. Home furnishings specialists suggest background areas be done in the same or blending colors. These colors should be light and soft. Use bright colors in smaller amounts for accent.

See Protection From Sun Rays in Make Up

While lounging around the swimming pool or at your favorite beach, with your face getting the brunt of the sun's rays, be sure and wear all your make-up, advises a famous master of make-up artistry.

By doing so you will not only enhance your beauty, but you will be protecting your face for dress-up time in the evening.

Creme-type requisites give the best results because they will not only add color and beauty to your appearance, but will give your skin needed moisture and protection as well. Furthermore, when you decide to take a dip, the water will run off and the color and protection will remain.

Don't Burn Her Up . . . Abby

Ease Up on the Lady, Inspector

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Sometimes I wonder if maybe I am crazy for putting up with this man of mine. Everything has to be spic and span! He goes on an "inspection tour" — looks in all the corners and criticizes my housekeeping, but he never turns a hand to help me.

ABBY

The other night he looked in my oven with a flashlight!

He yelled and stormed because he found a little grease on the broiler. He made me scrub it at eleven o'clock at night.

Now he looks in the oven with a flashlight every day to make sure I cleaned it. What do you do with a nut like that? NUT'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Let him know that a little "light" on the subject is all right, but you can do without the "heat."

Clean your oven after each use and do the best job of housekeeping your time and energy will allow. If your husband still finds fault but refuses to turn a hand — you turn a deaf ear.

DEAR ABBY: Will you please tell me what I can do to keep my children from fighting all the time? They are 8, 6, 5 and 4. They get up at 6:30 a.m. and they are fighting by 6:35. They tease and pester each other until bedtime. I have my work to do and can't keep running to settle their fights. Please tell me what to do. NERVOUS WRECK

DEAR WRECK: Let them play together until you get the distress signal. Don't bother to listen to the complaints. Separate them all until they get good and lonesome for each other, then expose them to one another again. Repeat the process for several weeks.

DEAR ABBY: I was the girlfriend on the side for 14 years. He told me he was treated rotten at home (it was a lie) so like a fool I gave up seeing everybody but him. His wife died. I thought at last he would marry me. But do you know what he said? He said I proved to him that I didn't have enough character to be respectable, and he could never trust me behind his back!

On June 12th he married a girl he knew only five weeks. This lesson cost me 14 of the best years of my life. Please print this for the benefit of all the girls who are waiting for a married man's wife to drop dead. "EXPERIENCED"

DEAR ABBY: How many times does a woman have to turn a man down before he realizes that she wants nothing to do with him?

I am a widow, 56, but don't look it. He is a bachelor, 72, and looks it. This old geezer has told everybody in town that he is going to marry me. I can't go downtown any more without hearing it.

He has money but has a reputation for being very stingy. I know for a fact that he has relatives on the other side of the track who are starving to death.

He sends me store flowers and calls every day asking me to go out with him. I have run out of excuses. How can I get him to leave me alone? PESTERED

DEAR PESTERED: Quit giving him "excuses" and give him reasons. Tell him, frankly, that he is wasting his time pursuing you because you do not intend to go out with him. If he calls you again, repeat it.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: What do you do with an eight-year-old child who is money crazy? He begs for money, offers to work for it and expects to get paid for everything he does. He saves every penny he gets his hands on, which is a good trait, but he is too money-crazy for his own good. I am in business and count my money at home before taking it to the bank. He stands over me and looks at the money like a real little miser. Can you tell me how to get him over this terrible complex? It keeps getting worse. TROUBLED

DEAR TROUBLED: Your son no doubt has developed this "complex" about money at home. His ideas need to be reshaped, and you'd be wise to consult professional help while he's still young enough to mold.

★ ★ ★

To get ABBY'S booklet, "What Every Teenager Wants to Know," send 25 cents and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY in care of this newspaper.

See Relaxed Silhouette and Ostrich Feathers

By NADEANE WALKER

PARIS (AP)—The fall and winter parade of Paris fashions officially begins today with showings by Gres, Patou and Cardin. But two houses outside the French fashion syndicate, Bugnand and Manguin, lured press and buyers to early openings Sunday night.

What they saw were slightly longer hemlines — a few inches below the knee — and normal waistlines. Sober colors range from brown and biege to gray and black for day wear.

Bob Bugnand, who makes clothes in France for sale in America only, plunged necklines and laid the luxury on thick. An example was a black taffetta cocktail number with reckless neckline. Title: the adultress.

Bugnand's day dresses and suits are slim but not slinky. Unpressed skirt folds, caught in by a wide belt, provide plenty of room for walking. Capes staged a comeback over dresses and as a substitute for suit jackets.

★ ★ ★

Sable collars, mink bosoms, panther-lined sleeves, gold and silver embroidery, lame, jet beading and even feathered hemlines added to the swank.

Typical of the super-luxury air was a sable-collared gold lame raincoat over a gold sheath. A blonde velvet sheath sported a big pastel mink collar all-over gold and silver embroidery. A jet-embroidered black tulle dance dress flunced an ostrich feather hem.

By comparison, Mme. Manguin was quiet as a mouse, with classic tailored suits, and coats with shirtwaist dresses.

Manguin featured a bow and arrow line with wide, sloping shoulders and batwing sleeves making the bow. The silhouette was drawn down to a narrow hem. Skirts fell about three inches below the knee. Favorite colors included somber brown, grays and beiges.

Manguin's suits featured mid-hip jackets and semi-fitted waists with false vest fronts that gave a two-tiered effect.

Whenever you appear in public, come clean.

WAS IT LIKE THIS? — The old swimming hole isn't what it used to be, but these youngsters don't seem to mind the mud bath in Munich, Germany. Seeking relief from a heat wave, the lads found all the swimming areas jammed to capacity. Nothing daunted, they took the plunge, finding the muddy pond better than nothing. Of course, they'll need another bath when they get home.

Rickover Talks to People

Knocks on Russian Doors

MOSCOW (AP) — U. S. Adm. Hyman Rickover, in civies but keeping a taut ship, has been cruising all over Moscow, poking into how Muscovites live.

The father of the atomic submarine has declined to talk about his experiences since he arrived in Moscow with Vice President Nixon. But it is known that he showed up bright and early at the U. S. Embassy and got all naval officers assigned to it on deck.

"Let's take a walk," he suggested.

Out they paraded, strolling along the Moscow River embankment. Suddenly Rickover pointed to an apartment house.

"Let's go over there," he said. They went,

Rickover knocked on doors throughout the apartment house, identified himself through a Russian speaking officer, then asked questions about how people lived, what they did, how much they earned, and what they wanted out of life.

★ ★ ★

In one apartment house he found, for instance, 26 people shared two toilets.

After their first jaunt, Rickover asked one aide:

"Did you ever do this?"

"No, sir," the aide replied.

"Why not? It's the only way to find out things," the peppery little admiral said.

"Sir, we would be stopped by the Russians," the officer explained.

He did not add that he probably would be declared "persona non grata" and booted out of the country.

Canaveral Men Resent Probe

Don't Recognize Failure

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla., (AP) —The Cape Canaveral mind is not at all happy about next week's congressional probe of recent failures in the Atlas and Polaris missile test programs.

For the Cape Canaveral mind does not, except in rare cases, recognize the word failure.

A missile may blow up in full sight of hundreds of persons. But if the rocket radios back one small scrap of information before it explodes, the men who sweated to put it up consider the launching at least partially successful.

That one tiny bit of information may prevent the same thing happening again.

The real thing to consider, they say, is that Cape Canaveral is a test center. Once a missile works perfectly it is no longer tested here.

"We are merely seeking information here," said one engineer. "If a missile blows, we want to know why it blows. From our so-called failures we learn a heck of a lot."

The House Space Committee has scheduled a public hearing into the Atlas and Polaris programs for next Wednesday and Thursday in Washington.

Committee Chairman Overton Brooks (D-La) announced several high-ranking Air Force and Navy officials will be asked to explain the lack of success in efforts to develop the two weapons into operational weapons ready for combat use.

Fort Michilmackinac Worth Over Million

MACKINAC ISLAND (AP) — Michigan will have an historical exhibit worth more than a million dollars next year when Fort Michilmackinac is restored at the Mackinaw City State Park, according to Chairman W. S. Woodfill of the Mackinac Island State Park Commission.

★ ★ ★

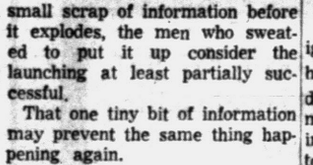

Woodfill said a $500,000 bond issue will be sold. He added the Conservation Department would furnish logs and timbers without charge, and that prison labor would be used for fabricating them.

Prisoners from the Pellston Prison Camp are working this summer under direction of archeologists to find the original foundations.

The fort was occupied by French and British garrisons for about 55 years, until it was moved to Mackinac Island about 1780.

1. Real Friendly Sport

In Japan the Art of Self Defense Is Competitive

Like It Rough, How About Judo?

(This is the first of a series of articles about activities which have moved into the realm of sports on a competitive or recreational basis. Bruno Kearns, Pontiac Press Sports Editor, consented to be a guinea pig and write about them from a subjective standpoint. How does it feel to participate in a certain sport for the first time? Kearns learns the hard way when his first encounter is with Japanese Kara-Te and Judo expert Hiroshi Orito. In Japan there is inter-club competition of Kara-Te and Judo).

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Dum, De Dum Dum. (This melody taken from Dragnut).

My name is Kearns!

I work for the Pontiac Press. I'm a sportswriter!

I just became a martyr to my profession.

My object was to prove that all sportswriters aren't fat, frustrated athletes.

★ ★ ★

The result was almost one dead sportswriter, but my assignment must be considered a success.

I found out what it feels like to be fat and frustrated.

These are the facts:

My first meeting with Hiroshi Orito in Art Mann's office at the YMCA started out with a handshake.

★ ★ ★

He was a young handsome clean cut Japanese student pursuing the delicate profession of art. His being a painter led me to believe he was just a scholar with a dainty hand for using the brush.

"Play sports," I asked.

"Yes, in Japan clubs compete in Judo and Kara-Te," he replied.

"Like to learn to compete in Japanese?" he asked.

(What can this little 130 pounder do to hurt me, I thought. Besides I must uphold the dignity of my profession and accept his challenge).

"Sure, let's go," I said.

The uniform he gave me to wear is called the Judo-Gi, a heavy garb able to withstand rough play.

★ ★ ★

He put on the Kara-Te Gi a lighter type garb used primarily for defensive maneuvers rather than throwing.

He then outfitted us with the Obi, a black belt which designated him with the Honor of the Third Degree in Kara-Te,

(I realized afterward it also must mean he was qualified to give poor suckers like me the second degree).

First came a few lessons in defensive maneuvers.

In Japan the art of self defense is the Kara-Te employing the use of punches and kicks to counter an attack to the key points of the body.

It was founded 2,000 years ago by the Chinese and today's translation is "defense without weapons."

After learning a few defensive techniques, my Japanese friend decided I was ready to "enjoy" the thrills of Judo.

Like Kara-Te, Judo depends highly on speed.

We maneuvered for a good hold on each other when suddenly the lights seem to blink on and off. There was a thud and there I was in my natural position—on my seat.

Like a sure-fire competitor, I was on my feet in two shakes of a lamb's tail.

I thought I'd be ready for him this time so, "Let's do it again," I suggested.

★ ★ ★

This time the stars came out much faster and the lamb's tail had to shake a few more times before I was able to get up.

Like a real sport I managed to smile. "Anything else?" I made the mistake of asking.

"Attack me with a knife," he said.

(I got this one all figured out I thought to myself). So, I lunged my imaginary blade toward his heart.

★ ★ ★

"This is called the Hane Goshi," said Hiroshi. It means a flip with the hip.

Well, bi-gosh! I didn't actually care what it was called because the result was the same. There I was getting up slowly and our Press photographer Tom Gerls gleefully calling for a repeat performance because he missed the picture. (He did this spitefully a half dozen times I think because he was enjoying it).

For two hours we went through some new holds and different throws.

I even learned a few new landing positions to stay off the sore spots.

It was quite an enjoyable experience. (Of course I had to say this out of courtesy).

For the next three days I was probably the only sports-writer who ever typed his stories 60 words per minute—from a standing postiion.

Now, as an experienced and well-versed student of the Japanese sport of Judo, (If the readers believe this, they're crazy) I can offer this advice to men over 30.

If you can't be an all-around athlete—don't. Be happy as a dubber in golf.

(Next article in series—skin diving—if I don't drown before I write it.).

Hiroshi Orito, the Kara-Te and Judo expert seen in these pictures, is a 24-year-old Art student from Tokyo. He had just completed studies at the Cranbrook Institute of Art and this Fall he will continue his work in New York City.

Hiroshi is from Tokyo and he received his degree from Tokyo University of Art where he organized a club in Kra-Te which now competes with other such clubs in Japan.

★ ★ ★

He has been in Pontiac since the Spring of 1958 when he arrived to enter Cranbrook.

Hiroshi's dad attended Washington University on the West Coast and today he is a publisher of books which deal primarily in American-Japanese translations.

5. Can't Fool Me

6. Is It a Bird? No, It's Kearns

3. Lookout, Big Thud Coming!

Kearns Gets Bounced

Judo Photos Don't Lie

1. Like a real gentleman, Hiroshi Orito helps Kearns with the Judo-Gi which means the Judo robe. He explains the tying of the Obi or the black belt.

★ ★ ★

2. A quick move in Kara-Te for defensing an attack of the leg against one of the vital points is explained by Hiroshi. The two vital points are the face attack including the chest and head area, and the stomach attack from the waist down.

★ ★ ★

3. Hane-Goshi which translated means "flip with the hip." That's the throw Hiroshi maneuvered to send Kearns flying toward the floor. There is a technique even in the manner of falling which Hiroshi explains to the subject before making the throw. There were no broken bones but plenty of bumps and bruises.

★ ★ ★

4. As a part of the ceremony to their match in the art of self-defense, known as Kara-Te, the opponents bow and go into the Hachi-ji Dachi or the starting stance. Hachi means "eight" and ji means "letter." Dachi is "stance." By Japanese symbols, eight is shaped like a triangle and it therefore pertains to the position of the feet in the stance.

★ ★ ★

5. Hiroshi demonstrates a defensive maneuver against an attack by hand.

★ ★ ★

6. One can anticipate the thud in picture number 6 as Hiroshi sends Kearns parallel to the floor with a quick maneuver of the knee and hands. This is the Oso To-Gari throw meaning "big outside swing."

★ ★ ★

7. It almost seems that the hip is even quicker than the eye in Judo as Hiroshi makes a fast move and puts Kearns in helpless position just before the throw.

★ ★ ★

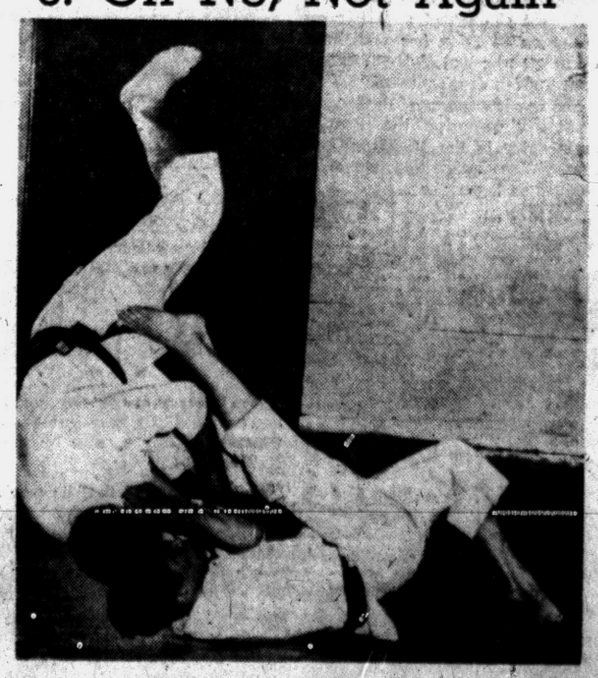

8. The Judo throw in this picture sends the assailant over the head of the defender by employing the foot just below the navel. Hiroshi used this throw when Kearus, the assailant, made a thrust with both hands for the clothing or throat of the defender.

Trail by 2 After Four Straight Wins

Braves Back in Form Again

By The Associated Press

No Milwaukee burgher is hanging Fred Haney in effigy today. Nobody is whispering that Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette are over the hill. The Braves are up and at 'em again with a four-game winning streak.

Trailing the league-leading San Francisco Giants by only two games after a sweep of Sunday's doubleheader with Pittsburgh, Milwaukee seems to have snapped out of its mid-summer slump.

★ ★ ★

Spahn's emphatic five-hitter in the 4-0 opener was the Braves' third straight shutout. It left the Pirates poised on the brink of disaster. One more shutout and they would have tied the major league record.

★ ★ ★

One unearned run in the fourth inning of the second game finally snapped a string of 30 2-3 scoreless innings for Pittsburgh but it didn't help much. They still lost 2-1 to Bob Buhl, making his first start since June 19 after a siege of arm trouble.

★ ★ ★

Spahn's 13th victory, the 259th of his career, was impressive. It may be that Buhl's performance was just as important for it meant that another experienced arm was ready to work for the Braves down the stretch. Buhl tired after seven innings and Don McMahon finished up with two hitless innings.

★ ★ ★

The Milwaukee attack still sputtered and stalled. They had only six hits in the opener while handing Bob Friend his 13th defeat. One was Johnny Logan's 12th homer. They had only five hits in the second but one was Joe Adcock's 11th homer.

★ ★ ★

Bob Anderson pulled San Francisco back a little closer to the pack as he pitched the Chicago Cubs into fourth place with a 7-3 victory. The Giants' defeat and Los Angeles' 8-2 decision over St. Louis sliced San Francisco's lead to 1½ games.

Cincinnati snapped Philadelphia's five-game winning streak in the first game 4-2 but Gene Conley got the Phils an even break with a 6-3 triumph in the second game when Richie Ashburn led a 14-hit Phil attack.

Anderson grew stronger as the game progressed at San Francisco while the Cubs knocked out Mike McCormick in the fifth. Ernie Banks' 27th homer with Art Schult on base helped Chicago get off to an early lead. Willie Mays hit No. 17 for the Giants.

Don Drysdale drove in four runs with a three-run homer and a single and held St. Louis to seven hits while winning his 13th for the Dodgers. The smallest Sunday crowd of the year at the Coliseum, 14,453, saw the Dodgers break out of a hitting slump with 15 hits including homers by Drysdale and Charlie Neal. George Crowe also hit a home run for the Cards. Dick Ricketts, chased in the third, was the loser.

Chrisley, Harris Produce Run in Lary Victory

Detroit Singles in 10th Beat Duren; Frank Now 20-5 vs. Champs

DETROIT (AP) — Another stout pitching job by Frank Lary, which was expected, and a pinch-hit single by Neil Chrisley, which was not, had Detroit Tiger hopes on the rise today.

Lary, who wouldn't be in the $20,000 salary bracket if he couldn't beat the daylights out of the New York Yankees, blanked the slumping Bombers on eight hits in 10 innings yesterday in a 1-0 Detroit triumph.

It was the Tigers' most thrilling victory of the season, one that gave them five wins in six starts and one that renewed confidence about a high first division finish.

For Lary, no better than ordinary against most of the other American League clubs, it was his 20th victory in 25 lifetime decisions against the Yankees. It was the fourth straight time he has beaten them this season and the 12th time he has downed them in the last 13 decisions.

★ ★ ★

Lary would have exited without any kind of decision were it not for Chrisley and Gail Harris.

These three sons of Dixie shared in the post-game compliments.

Chrisley and Harris, whose combined batting averages wouldn't frighten a good Little League pitcher, supplied the 10th inning hitting heroics off the Yankees' ace relief pitcher, Ryne Duren.

★ ★ ★

Harris had a .182 mark when he faced Duren leading off the 10th just after the fireballing righthander had taken over for starter Art Ditmar. Harris slashed a single to center.

Manager Jimmie Dykes let Ted Lepcio hit away, disdaining the sacrifice bunt.

"I left myself wide-open for 36,227 people to second-guess me," Dykes admitted later. "But Lepcio is a good fast ball hitter—and anyway, I had no substitutes sitting around to take over in the infield."

Lepcio struck out and Dykes then ordered the light-hitting Coot Veal to bunt. Veal sacrificed Harris to second.

With two out, Dykes called on Chrisley to pinch hit for Lary.

"I left myself open again," said Dykes. "People are bound to ask why I didn't leave Lary in there, especially since he was pitching so well."

But Chrisley, who had had only one successful pinch-hitting try in 21 previous attempts, laced a game-winning single to right field.

Chrisley had only five hits in 56 previous at-bats for a .089 batting average, and this was his first single of the year. All his other safeties went for extra-bases.

"Those guys certainly kept the second-guessers off the manager, didn't they?" Dykes asked. "If Chrisley hadn't come through, my mail would have been sky-high by Tuesday."

★ ★ ★

Not only did Chrisley win a ball game, but won himself an expensive watch. A national television network gives a watch each Sunday to the outstanding player in the weekly televised contest.

Golf – 5 Fundamentals

(With the 41st annual PGA championship taking place in Minneapolis this weekend, defending champion Dow Finsterwald will write a series of golf tips and will be used on the sports pages of The Pontiac Press in place of Cary Middlecoff this week.)

DOW FINSTERWALD

By DOW FINSTERWALD
PGA Champion

Golf isn't really a most difficult game.

Players just make it seem that way. There are just five fundamentals to be mastered. Once the player has grasped them, he can make real progress.

The fundamentals are the grip, stance, arm action, wrist action and pivot, or body action.

You don't, in fact you shouldn't, have to think of all five of these basic things while making a shot, or even spend a great deal of time thinking about them between shots.

They should be mastered through practice until they become second nature, instinctive.

Some of the fundamentals will come to you naturally. Others will seem unnatural and will require your deepest concentration in practice until you can do them subconsciously at shot time.

Title Is Second for Winner at Municipal Links

Five Low Scores Make Up Pontiac MRA Team for State Tourney

Mrs. Edith Wright became a three-time champion of the Women's Medal Play tournament at Pontiac Municipal course Saturday by firing a 46-40—86.

She edged Phyllis Boyer and Jewel Hammett, who tied for second, by one stroke. Mrs. Boyer then won the playoff for second place by taking a five on the 19th holes while Mrs. Hammett double bogied the hole.

Mrs. Wright, who has played in eight city tournaments since 1951, won the titles in 1953 with an 83 and in 1955 with an 84.

Mrs Zadah Debolt, the defending champion finished in a tie for 4th with an 88 Saturday.

★ ★ ★

The back nine score of 40 was the best of any entry for nine holes for Mrs. Wright.

She birdied the par-4 11th hole after chipping within two feet of the cup. Then she birdied the 16th hole with a birdie-4 after chipping about 60 yards to within five feet of the pin.

Mrs. Boyer, the 1957 champion, had the best front nine score with a 42 and she added a 45 coming in for an 87 tying her with Mrs. Hammett who had 43-44—87 before their sudden death playoff.

The five low scores of the tournament will comprise the Pontiac team entry in the Michigan Recreation Association tournament to be held in September.

2nd Title for Konsek

TROY, N.Y. (AP) — John Konsek, 19-year-old Big Ten champion from Purdue, Sunday won the New York State Amateur Golf Championship for the second straight year.

He defeated Walker Cup player Ward Wettlaufer, a Hamilton College graduate, 4 and 3 in the final match.

ROADBLOCK — Second baseman Bobby Richardson of the New York Yankees goes flying as he is blocked at home plate on an attempted double steal in the 7th inning against the Tigers. Catcher Lou Berberet is the obstacle. Richardson was out at the plate as Yogi Berra (8) watches the attempt. The Tigers won the game behind Frank Lary, 1-0.

Drops Bunning, Ford and Pierce

Casey Changes All-Star Pitchers

BOSTON (AP) — Pitchers Cal McLish, Billy O'Dell and Camilo Pascual have replaced three other hurlers on the American League squad for the second All-Star game, President Joe Cronin announced today.

The contest will be played at Los Angeles, Aug. 3.

Manager Casey Stengel, field boss of the defending World Champion New York Yankees, has inserted Cleveland's McLish, Baltimore's O'Dell and Washington's Pascual in place of Jim Bunning of Detroit, Whitey Ford of New York and Billy Pierce of Chicago.

The latter were on the squad for the first All Star game at Pittsburgh, July 7, won by the Nationals 5-4.

True to his word that he would shake up the team, Stengel also added three outfielders when the squad limit was raised from 25 to 28 players for the second game. The additional fly chasers include Bob Allison of Washington, Kansas City's Roger Maris and Gene Woodling of Baltimore.

The rest of the squad remains the same as it appeared in Pittsburgh including pitchers Bud Daley of Kansas City, Ryne Duren of New York, knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm of Baltimore and Chicago's veteran Early Wynn.

Boston's Ted Williams, picked for the 15th year on an All-Star squad, Rocky Colavito and Minnie Minoso of Cleveland, Mickey Mantle of New York and the Detroit tandem of Al Kaline and Harvey Kuenn complete the outfield.

★ ★ ★

The nine infielders are Luis Aparicio and Nellie Fox, Chicago; Harmon Killebrew and Roy Sievers, Washington; Vic Power, Cleveland; Frank Malzone and Pete Runnels, Boston; Gil McDougald and Bill Skowron, New York.

A replacement will be named for Skowron who has been placed on the disabled list after being injured at Detroit Saturday.

The catchers are Yogi Berra, New York; Sherm Lollar, Chicago and Gus Triandos, Baltimore.

Stengel is bringing Frank Crosetti of the Yankees and Harry Lavagetto of Washington as his new set of coaches.

The batting practice pitchers will be Truman Clevenger of Washington and Johnny Cooney of Chicago while the batting practice catcher will be New York's Ralph Houk.

Light Winds Slow WLYA Sunday Races

Plagued by light winds, Watkins Lake Yachting Assn. skippers had to do a lot of jockeying for position in Sunday's races, with highlighted brushes between snipe champ Chuck Morris and Guy Duffield marking the slow sailing. Morris won, Duffield was 2nd and Neil Wheeler 3rd.

Other winners were Don Zannoth for thistles, with Jim Parshall's Tar Baby, sailed by Harm Gillan, 2nd, Norm Ledwan 3rd; Jack Berlein was first in lightwings, with Glenn Fries 2nd after several skirkishes. They were the only lightnings to finish, under the time limit.

Bill Skowron Lost to Yanks for This Year

DETROIT (UPI) — New York Yankee pennant hopes, already badly battered, suffered another jolt today with the loss of first baseman Bill Skowron for the rest of the season.

Skowron, the team's leading runs-batted-in slugger while in action, suffered a broken left wrist Saturday when he collided with baserunner Coot Veal of Detroit. It was his first play in the field since returning from an absence caused by an injured back.

The Yankees placed Skowron on the disabled list yesterday, leaving them one man below the 25-man limit and thus giving themselves room to add one player for the now desperate struggle to save the pennant.

The Yankees made one other change yesterday — they purchased pitcher Gary Blaylock from the St. Louis Cardinals for the $20,000 waiver price and sent pitcher Jim Bronstad down to Richond of the international league. Both are righthanders.

Sno-Bol, Autos Softball Victors

Blue Star Triumphs; Pontiac Girls Bow to Midland

Sno-Bol of the American League, Autos of Europe and Blue Star Drive-In of the National were Sunday softball victors.

It took Sno-Bol only four innings to dispose of U.A.W. 594 by 10-0 with the game halted at that point. Stu Hutchinson and Thomason paced the winners with two hits apiece.

Autos of Europe had to come from behind with two in the 6th to nip the Moose 3-2 after being held hitless for 5⅓ innings. A walk, passed ball, John Park's single, two errors and a run-scoring sacrifice by Leroy Parks clinched the verdict for Ed Rondo.

Blue Star won by the same score over Arro Realty. Winning hurler Del Wheeler tripled and went on to score on an outfield error to break a 2-2 tie in the 6th. Loser Art Weiss had pitched no-hit ball before the big blow.

A Pontiac team representing the U.A.W.-C.I.O. bowed to the Midland Merchants in a girls' game Sunday at Northside Park, 4-2.

Perry, Locke, Baxes Pull Tribe Back to AL Lead

By JACK HAND
By The Associated Press

Six months ago Jim Perry and Bobby Locke were as widely unknown as Jim Baxes. To suggest that these young men would be largely responsible for boosting Cleveland into the American League lead would have been courting a trip to the booby hatch.

★ ★ ★

Perry was a good prospect who just had finished a fine season in Class A at Reading, Pa. Locke was in the Army or just getting out. Baxes, packing a little age, was just another infielder in the Los Angeles Dodgers organization.

★ ★ ★

Because Perry shut out Washington with two hits 9-0 and Baxes singled home the winning run in the 12th inning for a 4-3 victory in the second game on Sunday, the Indians are back on top in the American League. Locke pitched 11 of the 12 innings before giving way to a pinch hitter and Mudcat Grant, a 1958 rookie, picked up the decision.

★ ★ ★

Perry has all the earmarks of a real find for the Indians. Although his two-hitter was only his second start, it was his sixth victory. The fireballer from Jamesville, N.C. has been brilliant on relief. A pair of home runs by Woodie Held, who had four hits, eased his way.

★ ★ ★

Locke's effort was outstanding for a 25-year-old right-hander who was sent back to the minors from the Tucson, Ariz. spring training camp. He gave up only six hits in 11 innihgs.

Baxes, a 30-year-old "rookie," broke up that 12 inning game with a single off Pete Ramos after Minnie Minoso doubled.

★ ★ ★

Baltimore dropped Chicago a half game behind Cleveland by winning the second game 4-0 on a combination of Milt Pappas' five-hit pitching and the hitting of Gene Woodling. The veteran outfielder had a three-run homer and drove in another run with a single. Chicago won the opener on Early Wynn's two-hitter, 4-1, and Al Smith's three-run inside-the-park home run.

★ ★ ★

Kansas City ran its winning streak to seven, the longest for the club since it moved from Philadelphia, by thumping Boston 5-4. It was the Red Sox' ninth straight defeat.

★ ★ ★

The second game at Cleveland was a toughie for Ramos. The Cuban gave up a three-run homer to Rocky Colavito (No. 30) in the first and then blanked the Indians for 10 innings. Baxes' winning single came with two out in the 12th.

Andonian Wins Publinx Medal Title at Morey's

Shooting a one-under-par 213 for 54 holes, Pontiac Central teacher Mike Andonian captured the Michigan Publinx Medal Play tournament over the weekend at Morey's Golf Club.

The three-time State Publinx champion was the only entry able to break par although his three closest rivals were only a single stroke behind.

They were George Catto, the Central Michigan star who like Andonian was representing Sylvan Glen, Bob Evans of Brae Burn and Wally Smith of Sunnybrook all had 214.

Andonian had 14 birdies during the two days for scores of 105 and 108. He pulled away at the finish with two of the birdies on the last four holes.

★ ★ ★

Catto had been the opening day leader at 101. He bogied two of the last three to miss out. Smith eliminated himself by missing short putts on the final two holes. He was defending champ.

Soldier Holds Lead in Pentathlon Trials

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—A twelve hour test of stamina in epee fencing put Pvt. Paul Pesthy in first place at the National Pentathlon Championship tryouts at Fort Sam Houston Sunday.

★ ★ ★

Pesthy was high individual winner in the second day's event with 32 victories. He was awarded 1,032 points, an almost perfect score by fencing standards. The Hungarian refugee, ineligible to compete in the Pan-American Championships because he lacks U.S. citizenship, is overall individual leader at the end of two days with 2,132 points.

★ ★ ★

SP4 Les Bleamaster, winner of the riding event Saturday, dropped to second place in the overall ratings after gaining only 872 points in fencing. His points now total 2,016. He ranked fourth in the fencing event.

Title to Britisher

HAMBURG, Germany (AP)—Ken Bousfield of Britain Sunday won the 72-hole German Open Golf Championship with a 72-hole score of 271.

Edward Brently, an American serviceman stationed in Heidelberg was the best amateur, finishing in 14th place with a 282.

Russell Sent to Packers for Ollie Spencer

Oliver (Ollie) Spencer today returned to the Detroit Lions squad in a straight player deal with the Packers for Ken Russell. Both are offensive right tackles.

Spencer returns to the Lions from Green Bay to whom he was traded in 1957 after starting his pro grid career with the Lions in 1953. That deal brought Tobin Rote to the Lions.

The Detroit club also announced this morning that rookies Jerome MacArthur from Morgan State (Kentucky) and John Bradley from Lincoln University (Lincoln, Neb.) had been released.

Two Veterans Split QB Duties in Sunday Drill

Big Defensive Tackle Is Second Newcomer to Leave Camp

Detroit Lions head coach George Wilson today described as "typical" his squad's first scrimmage of the season.

The club's rookies and several veterans in camp at Cranbrook yesterday underwent an intensive scrimmage for slightly more than an hour.

"It was a typical first scrimmage," Wilson said. "There were an awful lot of rough edges."

Rookies comprised the majority of the offensive squad. The defense, which had three or four veterans, far overshadowed the of-Jerry Reichow and Earl Morrall shared quarterback duties.

★ ★ ★

Dave Holden, a six-foot, seven-inch top rated defensive tackle, became the second player to leave camp yesterday. Wilson said Holden decided to return to his home in California. Ben Donnell, Vanderbilt, left Saturday without giving any reason.

PRO CAMP NOTES:

WESTMINSTER, Md. The baltimore Colts have less than a week of 1959 training behind them, but Coach Weeb Ewbank is already hesitantly comparing rookie Jerry Richardson with all-pro end Raymond Berry.

"He is already farther advanced at this period than Berry was when he first came up here," said Ewbank yesterday after watching Richardson drill with his National Football League champions.

"Shucks," drawled the 185-pound rookie, "I'm just plain scared. Where I come from, Wofford College — we only have an enrollment of about 500 — we'd tell the quarterback, I'm going in that direction. Here I got to learn 20 routes."

★ ★ ★

LAKE FOREST, Ill. — Walter Wolfner, general manager of the Chicago Cardinals, has spiked rumors that his club is interested in quarterback George Shaw of Baltimore.

"We are not interested in Shaw," Wolfner said yesterday.

"We have six quarterbacks in our camp, including three veterans, and we think we are in pretty good shape a that spot."

★ ★ ★

RENSSELAER, Ind. — The Chicago Bears are concentrating on their running and will not begin contact work for at least another week.

★ ★ ★

CALIFORNIA, Pa. — Coach Buddy Parker trimmed seven rookies from the Pittsburgh Steeler squad Sunday at the club's training camp.

★ ★ ★

MORAGA, Calif. — A freak injury in the San Francisco 49ers first pro football training workout Sunday put rookie Bill Curtis of Texas Christian out of action for the season.

★ ★ ★

WINOOSKI, Vt. (AP)—Frank Gifford, who will make an all-out effort to win the quarterback job, and regular quarterback Charlie Conerly arrived with the rookies Sunday night as the New York Giants prepared their National Football League training camp.

MARINE HOTSHOTS — Oakland County Boat Club was the scene, Sunday, of what may have been the season's only big motorboat regatta in the Pontiac area. Above is the start of an early outboard hydro event on Sylvan Lake, with eight speedsters kicking up the spray. In the smaller photo is the hottest hotshot of them all, Sunday. Margie (S-1) was driven by Milford Harrison of Vermillion, Ohio, who won two events, the regatta's only double winner.

Outboard Fans Get Fill of Thrills in OCBC Test

Outboard motorboat racing fans converged on the Pontiac area, Sunday, with the focal point the all-outboard regatta at Oakland County Boat Club on Sylvan Lake.

Approximately 4,500 enthusiastic followers of the thrilling sport fully enjoyed the six-class regatta in which between 75-90 of the spectacular little speedsters performed.

Out of the welter of spray kicked up by the 60-80 mile-per-hour hydroplanes and runabouts emerged an Ohio pilot as the day's leading contender. He was Milford Harrison of Vermillion, who won the Class C and Class F hydro events, the regatta's only double winner.

Harrison drove his Margie (S-1) to victory in the two heat C-class, beating off hot challenges by Canadian John Dertinger of Delhi, Ont., and Dan Kirts of Elkhart, Ind. a 19-year-old pilot.

★ ★ ★

Harrison's victory in the Class F was the day's most exciting performance. He gunned his bouncing hydro up around 80 m.p.h. to take a first and a second in the two heats, with Lee Kratzer of Edwardsburg, Mich., and Bill Wells of London, Ont., chasing him all the way. Kratzer finished 2nd in the thrilling clashes, that saw John Maypole of Chicago flip over in the first heat, only to come back in the 2nd part for a 2nd place.

★ ★ ★

Maypole was tossed clear of his hydro in a spectacular upset, but was unhurt. This was his second dunking of the regatta. He went over in Class A, when caught by a cross-chop, and also came back in the event's next heat to gain a 3rd place.

The Chicagoan was one of a half dozen drivers who were spilled, none with any serious results. The only one requiring first aid was Ralph Dowling of Cleveland, who upset in a fast brush during the Class C racing runabout first heat. He had previously won the Class C service runabout event. He suffered bruises.

Paul Switch of Warren, Mich., was another who gave fans a thrill, when he was thrown out of his Class C service runabout. None of the craft was damaged beyond a thorough wetting. Choppy water was responsible for most of the spills.

The regatta was sanctioned by the Racing Outboard Drivers Association of America, whose Michigan division commodore Ken Saunders of Detroit, declared "we are coming back here next summer with an even bigger and better regatta."

A regatta ball was held Saturday night, with about 200 attending the dinner that preceded the event at OCBC.

The race results:

Class A hydros—1, Mel Kirts, Elkhart, Ind.; 2, Kay Harrison, Vermillion, O. 3, Dan Thomas, Battle Creek. Fastest heat, Kirks 67 mph.

Class B hydros—1, Bert Blaskie, Battle Creek; 2, Dan Thomas, Battle Creek 3, Walt Gabbard, Capac. Fastest heat Blaskie, 70 mph.

Class C Serv. runabouts—1, Ralph Dowling, Cleveland, O.; 2, Clyde Wiseman, Willoughby, O.; 3, Jerry Kerns West Milton, O. Fastest heat, Dowling 56 mph.

Class C hydros—1, Milford Harrison Vermilion, O.; 2, John Dertinger, Delhi Ont., 3, Dan Kirts, Elkhart, Ind. Fastest heat, Harrison, 68 mph.

Class C racing runabouts—1, Harry Demski, Midland, Mich.; 2, Ken Saunders, Detroit; 3, Fred Herbert, Tonawanda, N. Y. Fastest heat, Saunders, 7 mph.

Class F hydros—1, Milford Harrison Vermillion; 2, Lee Kratzer, Edwardsburg Mich.; 3, Bills, London, Ont. Fastest heat, Harrison, 80 mph.

New Skating Champion

BOSTON (AP)—A stocky speedster from Manasquan, N.J., today holds the 5-mile race title at the American Amateur Roller Skating Championships.

John Drewry beat defending champion Richard Edwards of Wichita, Kansas., by half a lap last night at the arena.

Drewry, 21, 5-3, was timed in 15:20 as only 7 of the 18 starters finished. He took the lead with 4 of the 70 laps to go.

87-Foot Yawl Ineligible

Sabre First at Mackinac

MACKINAC ISLAND (AP)—The speedy 87-foot yawl Sabre zipped across the finish line today to become the first craft to finish in the annual Port Huron to Mackinac Island yacht race.

The Sabre, owned by Roman Brotz of Sheboygan, Wis., toured the 235-mile course in 40 hours, 6 minutes and 34 seconds. She left Port Huron at 2:15 p.m. Saturday and arrived here at 6:21 this morning.

Although first in, the Sabre is ineligible for the championship. Both she and the Pintail are racing division craft and not eligible for the crown since all the others in the 85 boat field are cruising division vessels.

★ ★ ★

Dyna, a 58-foot yawl owned by Clayton Ewing of Green Bay, Wis., was sighted about 10 miles behind the sabre. The Dyna was favored to win the Hudson trophy.

The Kowloon, a class B boat owned by Nick Geid of the Chicago Yacht Club, was a few miles behind the Dyna. Other boats trailing close behind the Kowloon were the Gypsy, Apache, Great Lakes, Hilaria, and Tamara.

One entry, the 40-foot sloop Windquest, pulled out of the race yesterday after colliding with the Fria Via, a 39-foot sloop owned by E. J. Garmhausen of the Port Huron Yacht Club.

W. J. Hoover, owner of the Windquest, said he would file a protest with race officials. The Windquest suffered damage to her bow, but the Fria Via was not damaged seriously.

A record number of 85 boats started in the race Saturday from the Black River at Port Huron.

Free Net Clinic at PCH Courts Has Top Stars

The free tennis clinic and demonstrations sponsored by the Pontiac Press and the Board of Education featuring Mrs. Jean Hoxie and her troupe of Hamtramck stars will be held Tuesday between 2:00 and 4:00 p.m. at the Pontiac Central courts on West Huron.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Hoxie will have seven of her top junior stars for the demonstration.

Bleachers will be installed around the courts and there is no admission fee.

Persons desiring to enter the two week tennis clinic sponsored by the Recreation Department will have the opportunity to register tomorrow.

Babe Ruth District Play Starts Tuesday

The crucial part of the season starts tomorrow for Babe Ruth baseball teams in this area when district tournament play begins at Birmingham and Walled Lake.

★ ★ ★

Opening the event at 2:30 will be the Walled Lake All-Stars and the defending champion Northwest Detroit Americans at Walled Lake. A 2nd game will follow there while one game is held at Birmingham. A 4th contest is set for Birmingham Thursday.

★ ★ ★

The two semifinal games will be held at Birmingham Saturday starting at 1:30 with the title decided there Sunday. The winner will advance to state tourney play next week at Ypsilanti.

The schedule:
Tuesday—Walled Lake vs Northwest Detroit Americans at 2:30 and Southfield plays the Northwest Detroit Nationals at 5 at Walled Lake. The Birmingham Pioneers vs Northwest Detroit Internationals at 5 at Birmingham.
Thursday—Birmingham Satellite team vs Milford at Birmingham at 5.
Saturday—Birmingham victors clash at 1:30 and Walled Lake winners at 3:30 at Birmingham in semis.
Sunday—Championship game at 1:30 at Birmingham.

2 Players Hit at Havana

Play Halted by Bullets

HAVANA (AP) — The Havana Sugar Kings and the Rochester Red Wings are far from this trigger-happy city today, and the Red Wings, at least, couldn't be happier for there are no bullets flying around their ball park.

The Cubans are in Montreal and the Wings at home for the opening series tomorrow night against the Royals and Richmond Virginians, respectively. In fact the Wings have been home since yesterday.

★ ★ ★

They couldn't get out of this celebrating town fast enough following the hitting of two players by stray bullets, the calling of Saturday night's game after 11 innings with the score tied 4-4 and the cancellation of yesterday's doubleheader.

Yesterday's doubleheader was cancelled by approval of league president Frank Shaughnessy after he heard from the umpires a telephone report of Saturday night's incidents.

The Wings, whose Frank Verdi was knocked to the ground when a bullet struck his plastic protective helmet, refused to play and appealed their decision to Shaughnessy.

"I told them (Rochester) if they didn't want to play, they didn't have to. I wouldn't ask them to play under those conditions. This is the 26th of July and celebrations for Castro are still going on," Shaughnessy said yesterday.

Havana's Leo Cardenas was struck in the shoulder by a stray slug but was not injured seriously. The Havana management wanted to play yesterday's doubleheader but bowed to Shaughnessy's ruling.

★ ★ ★

Saturday night's incident was the result of the wild celebrations that rocked this country's capital as Prime Minister Fidel Castro's followers celebrated the anniversary of the beginning of the campaign to overthrow former dictator Fulgencia Batista.

★ ★ ★

Shaughnessy said he was informed that some of the fans in the stands Saturday night had tommy guns and were firing them into the air. The stadium is less than a quarter of a mile from the square where thousands of armed men from Cuba's hills were whooping and vigorously supporting Castro in a day-long celebration.

★ ★ ★

Verdi had replaced Rochester Manager Coot Deal as the team's third base coach after Deal earlier had been ejected from the game by the umpires.

"As I lay on the ground I thought I'd been hit by a thrown ball," a shaken Verdi said afterward. But he wouldn't compromise his luck:

"Look, I've a wife and four kids at home," the 33-year-old Bayshore, N.Y. player said. "As far as this town is concerned I've had it. We came here to play ball, not to be shot at."

Third League Plans Discussed Today

Special Press Confab Called by N.Y. Mayor

Baseball Group Meets to Discuss Formation of New Circuit

NEW YORK (UPI)—The formation of a third Major League is expected to be announced today at a special press conference called by William A. Shea, chairman of Mayor Robert Wagner's baseball committee.

Shea had said earlier that he would announce the make-up of the new circuit sometime this month and reiterated his belief that it would be ready to operate by 1961.

Five areas, in addition to New York, are virtually certain to be included in the new league on which Shea estimates $100,000,000 will be spent. Those areas are Toronto, Houston, Denver, Dallas-Fort Worth and Minneapolis-St. Paul.

Other cities known to be under consideration are Atlanta, Seattle, Montreal, San Diego, Buffalo and Miami.

According to Shea, Flushing Meadow in Queens, N. Y., would be home of New York's new franchise. The city is prepared to build a $12,000,000 stadium there with a seating capacity of 52,000. Samuel Lefrak, largest multiple dwelling builder in the city, also has said he is ready to build a stadium at cost "to fill the void left by the departure of the Giants and Dodgers."

Officials of the third league are expected to meet with a joint committee of the American and National leagues on Aug. 8 in either New York or Boston to discuss a formula for working together.

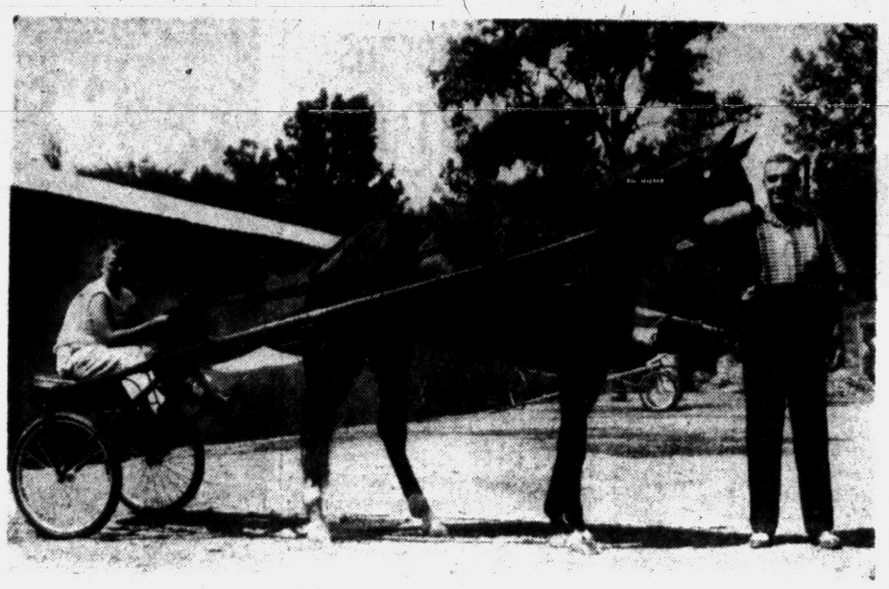

The joint committee is composed of Lou Perini of the Milwaukee Braves, Bob Carpenter of the Philadelphia Phillies, Arnold Johnson of the Kansas City Athletics and Tom Yawkey of the Boston Red Sox.

Baseball commissioner Ford Frick, National League president Warren Giles and American League President Joe Cronin also are expected to attend the Aug. 8 meeting.

Spitball Hurler Dies

BOSTON (AP) — A spitball pitcher who hurled for the Boston Red Sox world champions of 1912 had died.

Thomas J. (Buck) O'Brien, 77, died Saturday at his home in the Dorchester section of Boston. Cause of death was not given.

FAMILY MATTER — The pride and joy of the Ben Jerome Jr. family these days is the handsome pacer, St. Jeff, who is shown with Jeff Jerome in the sulky, and owner Ben holding his bridle. The speedy (2:06.4) Class C performer is the last racer of a four-horse stable, and the best, that Jerome started some years ago. St. Jeff was named for young Jeff. He has won more than $4,000 this season, has had a good year at Northville Downs, gets a trip to the West Coast in the fall.

Ben Jerome Campaigns 7-Year-Old Pacer

Horse-Racing Auto Dealer's Hobby

Earliest mode of transportation goes right along with the latest thing in getting-from-here-to-there, in the interests of Pontiac automobile dealer Ben Jerome.

His interest in campaigning a racing horse stable is reflected in the handsome new sign, on South Saginaw street, for Jerome's Cadillac-Oldsmobile sales headquarters. The sign depicts a pair of speedy harness horses in a race. Horse in foreground is St. Jeff, with Don Hall in the sulky. The driver's colors are those he wears while racing the handsome Jerome pacer.

It's the finest thing we've had along that line," observed Jerome, referring to the big board display. "We're happy, too, the way the Saint is doing. He's paying his way, this year."

The Pontiac motor dealer has been interested in racing in what he calls "a small way," since about 1952-53, when he acquired the stallion St. George. Later, he secured three other horses, one a filly. All but St. Jill, the filly, named after members of the family, were pacers. Jill was a trotter. The others were St. Jeff, now campaigning at Northville, and St. Tony.

★ ★ ★

"After a time we found all but Jeff didn't come through and we sold them," Jerome explained.

St. Jeff is a very busy racer. He has been making the state circuit, at Hazel Park, at MRA's Wolverine track, and at some fair tracks for the last five years. The Saint will again be shipped to the West Coast this fall, where he will go at Hollywood Park, Santa Anita and at Bay Meadows. "We figure to keep him busy, and this may be his last year," the owner added.

Jeff has had several wins, more than a half-dozen 2nds and a number of 3rds, this season, and has already won more than $3,400. Last year he made $25 after costs of $3,525 were paid. His best time was 2:04.8 in a 2:08 class.

★ ★ ★

St. Jeff came through Friday night with a 2:07 win in Northville's final race, a Class C pace. Hall handled the reins for a driving win.

"You know, owning a race horse is a pretty good sales plug for an auto dealer," Jerome quipped. "As a matter of fact I have sold quite a few cars as a result of persons hearing of me through my horse's racing."

The auto man is one of a number of Pontiac area horse owners who campaign around the harness circuit. Among those who are now represented at Northville are Leo Mazza; Pat Bellows; the Lobeck farm, and former member of the Pontiac Police Department, Rudy Nartker.

Tatum's Aides in Line

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP)—A successor to the late Jim Tatum as football coach of the University of North Carolina was expected to be announced here late today following a meeting of the athletic council.

Two of Tatum's assistants, Jim Hickey and Emmett Cheek, were prominently mentioned for the post, vacated by the death last Thursday of the 46-year-old Tatum who succumbed to a virus infection.

The official announcement was expected to follow a meeting of the athletic council along with University Chancellor William B. Aycock and atheletic director Charles P. Erickson.

Aycock conferred privately yesterday with each of Tatum's assistant coaches.

Southfield Team Keeps Rolling

Fresh from clinching a berth in the state Junior Legion tournament at Belle Isle, strong Southfield went back to league play Sunday and dumped Birmingham 6-5 in 11 innings.

Royal Oak came from behind to defeat Rochester 4-1 and Berkley slammed Milford 14-5 in other loop action.

Southfield was a tired club after beating Owosso for the 2nd time in three starts Saturday by 5-4 in its zone tourney final. Will Oliver's boys also eliminated Marysville in its other meet game.

Little-used lefthander Jim Jarvis was the Sunday hero. He went all the way and did not allow an earned run. He fanned 13, walked only two and gave up five hits. A walk, sacrifice, fly out and Bob Filar's single won it.

Rochester scored on a wild throw in the 2nd and that run looked like a big one but Royal Oak got to Dennis Scott for a pair in the 6th on three singles, an error and a wild pitch. Dick Widgren's 2-run homer wrapped it up in the 8th. Scott and winner John Wischman each struck out 10 and allowed seven safeties.

Berkley broke an early 1-1 tie and kept piling up its lead combining 12 hits and six Milford miscues. Mike Gutterman paced the attack with three hits.

Rochester Boy's Dog Wins SMOTC Trophy

A 14-year-old Rochester boy took his collie, which had beeno bedience-trained at Rochester's Woodward school classes, to Sunday's Southern Michigan Obedience Training Club fun trial. Tom Ludwig's pet won top honors with 195 plus points in a runoff with Fred Roux's (Pontiac) weimaraner (Brenda) which had 195. Ludwig's dog was a "student" of John McNary's classes (Tail-Waggers Kennels).

Ludwig won a handsome trophy. Trophies and ribbons went to other places including M. Marshall's German shepherd, Yale, (Pontiac), 184½, and Ray DePalma's (Ferndale) collie, 182.

Both top dogs were trained at Daniel Whitefield School of classes (Reg. Armstrong).

The trial was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Buchmann. Rudy is the 1960 SMOTC president.

Aussie, Italian Netters Advance in Cup Battles

By The Associated Press

Australia's youthful Davis Cup forces have only one more obstacle to clear before meeting Italy's tennis veterans in what could well be the stumbling block enroute to the Challenge Round against the United States.

The Aussies swept through their second American zone match over the weekend as they blanked Canada 5-0 without the loss of a set until the series had been wrapped up. At the same time Italy clinched the European zone title for the second straight year when Nicola Pietrangeli and Orlando Sirola yesterday beat Spain's Andres Gimeno and Juan Manuel Couder in the doubles 6-4, 8-6, 6-4. Pietrangeli and Sirola had won the opening singles Saturday.

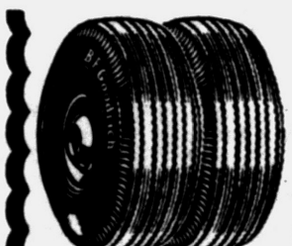

MEXICO CITY—Al Urbina, 133½, Mexico, stopped Bernabe Vazquez, 133, Mexico, 8.

Getting Cold Feet?

NEW YORK (UPI) — The number of marriages in the United States last year declined by about 4 per cent to 1,456,000, according to the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. This represented a rate of 8.4 per 1,000 population, the lowest since 1932. The biggest statewide drop, 45 per cent, was recorded in Indiana.

Up to 90 per cent of all the wool shorn in Australia is sold at public auctions.

Can't Get Away at All

NEW YORK (UPI) — Not all summer heat comes from the sun. Heat-absorbing moisture from indoor cooking, washing and bathing will send temperatures up, according to the Allied Chemical Corp.

Exhaust fans in kitchens, bathrooms and washing-machine rooms may be a good investment.

Cork trees grow to about 30 feet in height and their trunks often reach a diameter of three or more feet.

Herald Baby's Birth

GRANBY, Mass. (UPI)—A sonic boom and three ambulances accompanied the birth of a son to Mrs. George Roberts.

The boom was apparently caused by a jet bomber flying over as Mrs. Roberts called for the town ambulance. It wasn't available, so everybody pitched in to locate a substitute.

They were so successful that three ambulances rushed to the Roberts home. By that time, the baby had already been born.

Candy With a Kick

BOONTON, N. J. (UPI)—They may be changing the cocktail hour to the candy hour. That's the latest from the Ladies Auxiliary of Riverside Hospital. And if you want proof you'll find plenty of it—86 proof—in their latest candy recipe. So far, the women have sold 40 boxes of the bourbon-flavored candy.

Most of the islands of the south Pacific were formed by volcanic action.

FIRST OF HER KIND?—Things are looking up for pretty Pamela Jayson, recently selected as the ideal choice to be the first woman launched into space. A graduate psychologist, ex-registered nurse and teacher of hygiene and physical education, Miss Jayson was selected at the Aeromedic association convention in Los Angeles by a research and development organization. Determined to become the first and most qualified woman space medic, Miss Jayson is continuing her studies at UCLA. Here he's pictured with astronomer Daniel M. Hints Wedding Date Shift for 'Kidnaped' Socialite

SHORT HILLS, N.J. (AP) — A spokesman for the Ralph A. Hart family says there has been some discussion about changing the date of Jacqueline Gay Hart's wedding. It is scheduled for Aug. 29.

But the spokesman, George Gaines, did not elaborate for newsmen Sunday. He is the brother of Stanley Gaines, 25, Jacqueline's fiance.

Hart, executive vice president of the Colgate-Palmolive Co., has ruled out immediate comment about the wedding, except to say: "As far as I know, they will be married."

The blonde, 21-year-old socialite arrived home by plane Saturday from Chicago, where she turned up after vanishing from New Jersey last Tuesday.

At first, she told police she had been abducted, but later admitted the story was a hoax.

The FBI says she "sort of exploded" from the tension of elaborate wedding preparations.

Gay saw her fiance take a plane for Pittsburgh Tuesday night. Then, as she told police, she took a bus to New York and registered at a hotel there under the name of Dagmar Anderson of Allenville, Va.

She spent the night there, then took a bus to Chicago Wednesday morning. There, she heard radio reports of the furor caused by her disappearance.

FBI Chief Richard Auerbach in Chicago said Gay went to five movies on Thursday and then, "in a panic, and not quite realizing what she was doing, and being all confused, she took a cab out into the park." She walked for a while and hailed the first police car she saw."

Joseph Weldon, Newark police director, indicated no charges would be filed against the girl.

Gay herself cleared up one mystery — the disappearance of $5,000 worth of jewelry she wore when she left home.

She explained she mailed the gems from Chicago to a New York bus terminal. The FBI returned it to her Sunday.

Disc Jockey Claims Stay-Awake Record

ORLANDO, Fla. (UPI) — Disc jockey Jim Austin Saturday claimed a stay-awake record of 229 hours, four minutes and 35 seconds.

Austin was reported sleeping soundly after claiming to have set the mark yesterday. The previous record of 210 hours was set by disc jockey Stan Majors of Peoria, Ill.

Austin gave up his attempt to reach a goal of 250 hours on the advice of his doctor, who said such an effort might result in damage to Austin's heart. Austin previously had gone 203 hours without sleep.

Aluminum Firm to Shift Operations to Charlotte

EATON RAPIDS (UPI) — General Aluminum Products, Inc., is building a new plant at Charlotte and will move its operations there before the end of the year.

★ ★ ★

The company is spending $100,000 to construct a new plant with about 25,000 square feet of area on an eight-acre tract. A. J. Vomberg, vice president of the company, said the firm had outgrown its present plant and could not expand it because it is hemmed in on all sides.

★ ★ ★

The company manufactures storm windows, doors, jalousies and other products.

★ ★ ★

Vomberg said the firm's 49 employes will be given an opportunity to move with the plant.

Moscow Discourages Cigarette Throwers

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (UPI)— Moscow looks as modern as Minneapolis but it may be cleaner, according to Mrs. Ann Andersen, a journalist who recently spent 15 days in the Russian capital.

Cleaner? Yes, said Mrs. Andersen, "there's even a 16-ruble fine for throwing cigarette butts on the street."

Why is the daily newspaper like an all-around athlete?

ONE OF A SERIES

ANSWER: IT'S SO VERSATILE! Advertisers invest more money in the daily newspaper than in any other medium because it can do so many things so well. Among its many accomplishments for advertisers, the daily newspaper can announce new products, promote deals, advertise prices, challenge competition, bolster sick markets and tell a complete product story. With the newspaper advertisers can apply selling pressure whenever and wherever they wish. It's the perfect answer to their needs.

Report 2,000 Killed in Iraqi Massacres

CAIRO, U.A.R. (UPI) — The Damascus newspaper Al Jamahir reported yesterday that "about 2,000 persons" were killed in the "Kirkuk massacres" in Iraq two weeks ago when Communist elements rebelled against the government.

The newspaper said the death figure came from an "official source" and that the figure was arrived at by a commission sent to Kirkuk to study the causes of the uprising. Previous death tolls estimates ranged from 20 to 500.

Can Pick Washington, Lincoln

Reds Try Vote Machines

MOSCOW (UPI)—Russians went to the polls today to vote as Americans do — but for such candidates as Ernest Hemingway and Wall Street.

The "election" was being held at the display of voting machines at the American exhibition here.

Russian visitors to the exposition were able to enter four curtained booths and select the candidates they wish to vote for in seven "races." Then they could pull the lever which records the secret vote and keeps tally.

One question on the voting machine asks which American locale they'd like to visit; the candidates include New Orleans, San Francisco, Grand Canyon, Philadelphia, Chicago, New York, Kansas wheatfields and Washington.

Another question asks which work area they would like to visit — automobile factories in Detroit, hog farms in Iowa, timber stands in the Northwest or the Wall Street Stock Exchange.

The Russian could vote for their favorite American writers including James Fenimore Cooper, Mark Twain, Jack London, Carl Sandburg, William Faulkner or Ernest Hemingway.

They could select outstanding Americans from among George Thomas Jefferson and Abraham Lincoln.

Eight American guides were assigned to explain the American voting machines to the Russians whose own balloting is somewhat different. The Russians receive a ballot with their own name on it and drop it into a ballot box without marking it if they approve of the single slate of candidates.

Arthur Darby of New York, who heads the display, said it was similar to the setup suggested by President Eisenhower which turned out to be one of the sensations of the Brussels exhibition.

State's Personal Income Rises 16½ Pct. in May

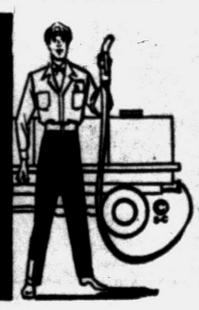

DETROIT (AP)— Total personal income in Michigan was $1,511,600 in May, up 16½ per cent from the same month a year ago. Total U. S. income jumped 9.9 per cent in the same period, according to Business Week Magazine.

The Michigan increase was second only to Indiana. Business Week attributed the increase to the pick-up in the auto and transportation industries.

Rhode Island entered the Union as a state in 1790.

Southfield at 20th Century Fox

Susan Given Screen Test

Susan Westergaard of Southfield was one of 24 Miss Universe contestants to get their first crack at movie careers today.

They were given screen tests at 20th Century Fox Studios in Hollywood after being treated to lunch by movie producer Buddy Adler. Results of the tests won't be known for a while yet.

A possible role in "The Story of Page One" awaits Susan, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bjarne Westergaard of 26060 W. Nine Mile Rd. Also tested for the movie were Miss United States, Miss Texas, Miss Maine and Miss Missouri.

The new Miss Universe, Akiko Kojima of Japan, and Miss Korea, Hyun Choo Oh, are under consideration for "Wake Me When It's Over," a story about the Korean War.

Miss Norway, Jorunn Kristiansen, who placed second in the contest, and Miss Sweden, Marie Louise Ekstrom, were tested for the film, "Salamnbo."

★ ★ ★

Other contestants were tested for roles in "Hound Dog Man," "The Story of Babe Ruth," "Cleopatra" and "Cancan."

Susan was picked from 48 aspirants to represent Michigan in Miss Universe Contest preliminaries held at Walled Lake Park July 5.

Two Accidents Claim Lives

Drayton Plains Youth Drowns; Detroiter Dies in Area Auto Mishap

An auto accident early Sunday in Farmington Township claimed the life of a Detroit youth and a Drayton Plains youth drowned in Lapeer County Sunday afternoon.

Dead are Wesley E. Smith, 12, of 2861 Deland St., Drayton Plains, and Michael T. Warden, 19, of 14932 Aubrey, Detroit.

The Smith boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Smith, drowned in Big Fish Lake just over the Lapeer-Oakland County boundary line, shortly after 3 p. m.

He was riding in a motorboat with Charles Rockwell and his son Charles Jr., 14, and Charles Christensen, 15, all of Clawson, when the boat overturned in the wake of another watercraft.

Last Year to Date: 50

The boy's body was recovered by Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies Medward Tessier and William Jackson in 60 feet of water at 5:30 p. m. They were assisting Lapeer County deputies.

Fast action of another boater, William D. Baldwin Jr., of Flint, was credited with saving the others. Deputies said Baldwin saw the accident and sped to the scene in his motorboat to pick up the three survivors.

AUTO DEATH

Warden died at William Beaumont Hospital a 4:45 a.m. His car went out of control and ran off the Grand River avenue exit of the Farmington-Brighton Expressway at 2:30 a.m.

A passenger, James L. Barber Jr., 19, of 15006 Summer, Detroit, was in fair condition at William Beaumont Hospital with face and head injuries.

Farmington Township Police said the Warden car traveled 969 feet after leaving the pavement before smashing into a ditch.

18 Arraigned in Circuit Court

Robberies and Break-Ins Are Among Charges; 3 Mute in Fishing Case

Judge William J. Beer ruled on 19 cases this morning in Oakland County Circuit Court.

★ ★ ★

Eighteen of the accused were arraigned, while one was remanded for examination before a justice of the peace.

Robert K. Smith, 9 Maynard St., stood mute on a charge of breaking and entering and safe robbery of a home in West Bloomfield Township on April 30. A plea of not guilty was entered for him by Judge Beer.

George Ziviski and Edward Budzyma, both of Detroit, stood mute on a charge of armed robbery. A plea of not guilty was entered for the men, accused of holding up a Hazel Park woman for $45 on July 10.

★ ★ ★

Three men accused of unlawfully fishing in conservation waters last week stood mute. Gerald W. Gravlin, 415½ Main, Rochester; Claude Britton, 1065 Nakomis St., and Gerald T. Janisewski, 281 Heartline, are said to have used a net to catch fish in the Drayton Plains Fish Hatchery.

A plea of not guilty was entered for four Pontiac youths who stood mute to charges of breaking into a building at 85 Bagley St. on July 2.

They were Archie Brooks, 418 Central; Charlie Jones, 557 Wyoming; John Taylor, 501 Central and Robert Taylor, 276 South Boulevard West.

Other arraignments included one for car theft, two for uttering and publishing (bad checks), three for indecent liberties and one for felonius assault.

Place Man on Probation for Breaking, Entering

William D. LaForge, 24467 Westmoreland, Farmington, was placed on two years probation today for the breaking and entering of a Farmington pizzeria.

Included in the sentence handed down by Oakland County Circuit Court Judge William J. Beer was a $100 charge for costs of 21 days imprisonment in the County Jail.

Lapeer Policemen Double As Firemen for 1st Time

LAPEER — Members of the Lapeer Police Department served as firemen for the first time under a new system yesterday when they extinguished a $2,000 blaze at the Walker & Lubin Inc., greenhouse t 323 Jefferson St.

The new plan, approved last week by the City Commission, provides that Lapeer's eight full-time policemen and 10 auxiliaries double as firemen.

This action brought the mass resignation of all but four of the 20 members of the Lapeer volunteer fire department after the plan was announced.

Fire Chief John Conner also quit. He had been head of the department for 12 years.

★ ★ ★

Conner said, "I'm not going to take the responsibility for $50,000 worth of equipment and for the lives at stake with green men operating the truck."

ONE PAID EMPLOYE

The reorganization stemmed from the request of Milton Hodgson, the fire department's only paid employe, that a replacement be named for him. Except for time off, he had been on call 24 hours a day. He lived at the firehall and worked across the sreet.

Tired of waiting for City Manager Howard Gohke to find a replacement, Hodgson had given a week's notice. He also had agreed to help train his replacement in the evenings.

Gohlke explained that under the new system, policemen would be trained to drive the truck and fight fires. He added that present auxiliary policemen will take over police duties while the fulltime officers are at a fire.

★ ★ ★

The city manage said he had talked to Conner about the proposed reorganization, and Conner suggested hiring three fulltime men to provide round-the-clock service.

Gohlke said this proposal was beyojd the city's means.

The new system, he pointed out was one that is used successfully in other suburban areas and was recently adopted in Oak Park and Huntington Woods.

Gohlke promised that a permanent training program will be developed and that policemen will not only learn to fight fires but will keep abreast of new techniques.

U. S. SKATING QUEEN — Another beauty contest has been won by an Oakland County girl with the judges' choice of pretty Nicole Hudock, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hudock, 3248 Cumberland St., Berkley, as Roller Skating Queen of America. She was picked during the American Amateur Roller Skating Championships at Boston over the weekend. The green-eyed redhead is shown here with her court.

HIDDEN TREASURE? — A familiar scene at a country auction on these warm summer nights is the crowd gathered around the bidder who is just uncovering the "loot" she has received in the carton for which she paid a quarter. This picture was taken at the L. E. Smart Sale Farm, 330 Tienken Rd., Oakland Township.

Union Lake Awaits Celebration

Gay Festival Planned

UNION LAKE — Hundreds of prizes will be given away from early morning until late at night Aug. 5 and 6 when the fourth annual Paul Bunyan Day celebration gets under way in this community.

★ ★ ★

Sponsored by the Businessmen's Assn., the entire section of Cooley Lake and Union Lake roads will be decorated, and as festivities progress, will resemble a three-ringed circus, according to General Chairman Wayne Dengate.

Various booths will feature merchandise at half prices, an exhibition tent will show new cars, household appliances, and carnival rides for the children, will be part of the activities.

Merchants have been giving tickets to customers for the past two months, in anticipation of the prize-drawings which will be going on constantly. A super prize of a registered white riding horse will climax the give-away prizes, and a real midget Model-T automobile complete with motor, will be given to some lucky ticket holder.

★ ★ ★

All types of games, concessions and refreshment booths will line the streets as a clown band circulates among the participants.

★ ★ ★

All proceeds from the carnival-like affair, will go for local charitable causes, according to president of the Businessmen's Assn., Burnell Frazier.

Mother of 2 Jumps From Detroit Bridge

MADISON HEIGHTS—A mother of two jumped from the Belle Isle Bridge in Detroit Sunday but was saved from drowning minutes later by the crew of a harbormaster's boat.

Mrs. Sophie Troth, 42, of 29060 Shirley St., Madison Heights, is reported to be in satisfactory condition today at Receiving Hospital, Detroit.

Detroit Police Officer Joseph Majur said he was driving over the bridge toward the island when a pedestrian told him that a woman had jumped over the bridge rail.

Majur said he notified, the harbormaster from his scout car radio.

Mrs. Troth told police she was despondent because she believed her husband, Andrew, was going out with another woman and she feared she had cancer.

Western clothes have been adopted by many lands, but the islanders of Yap, in the western Pacific, continue to wear loincloths and grass skirts as did their ancestors.

Unite Marilyn Ruth Glynn, Ernest Hoffman in Milford

MILFORD—Marilyn Ruth Glynn and Ernest Hoffman were united in marriage Saturday at the Milford Methodist Church before an altar banked in gladioli.

The candlelight ceremony was performed by the Rev. Priest Jetzki, of the New Apostolic Church of Pontiac.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Glynn of 3205 Grandview Dr. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. William Hoffman of 7011 Big Trail, Holly.

For her wedding, the bride chose a floor-length gown of tulle and lace with long sleeves, lace bodice and a sabrina neckline. Her fingertip veil was secured by a pearl tiara and trimmed with chantilly lace.

She carried a bouquet of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

★ ★ ★

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Nancy Priestly of Clyde. Bridesmaids were Carole Glynn of Milford, Allene Edwards of Clyde, Sue Reinrie of Milford and Louise Hoffman of Holly.

The duties of best man were performed by Karl Hoffman, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Ron Glynn of Milford, John Balon of Detroit, Larry King of Clyde and Wally Kokal of Detroit.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony.

The newlyweds are honeymooning in Northern Michigan and will reside at 2938 Lansdowne Rd., Drayton Plains, upon their return.

Request Rochester Cut Parking Fines

ROCHESTER — Included on tonight's agenda of the Rochester Village Council will be a report from a downtown businessmen's committee requesting that fines for parking meter violations be lowered.

The present fine for overtime parking is one dollar, and it is expected that the merchants' group will recommend that it be lowered to a quarter, Village Manager Paul York said today.

Other business to be handled will be acceptance of bids on workmen's compensation insurance and the okay of the salt contract for village streets next year.

Van Eycks Invented Oils

The Van Eyck brothers of the Flemish school have been generally credited with the invention, or the first practice, of painting in oils.

5 Detroiters Hurt in Shelby Crash

One Passenger Is in Critical Condition After Car Hits Tree

SHELBY TOWNSHIP — Township Police handled five accidents over the weekend, one of which resulted in five persons from Detroit being injured yesterday.

Listed in critical condition today in St. Joseph Hospital, Mount Clemens, is Roscoe Stephens, 18, who suffered contusions, cuts and bruises.

He was a passenger in the car driven by Delmer Stephens, 25, who had a cut knee and refused treatment.

Three other passengers in his car were taken to St. Joseph Hospital with cuts and bruises. They were D. L. Garrett, 33; Lillian Marcum, 22; and Geraldine Mason, 15. All were treated and released.

The driver told police he was blinded by headlights of an oncoming car. His story was contradicted by one of his passengers, officers said, who reported there was no other car on the road.

The Stephens vehicle skidded 75 feet off the road, sideswiped two trees and came to a halt in the center of the road, according to the police report.

Stephens was ticketed for speeding.

Michigan Chorale Recordings Will Tear Iron Curtain

The 100 members of the Michigan Chorale now touring Europe will make recordings for broadcast behind the Iron Curtain by Radio Free Europe, it was announced today.

★ ★ ★

Sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches in Ann Arbor, the group sang in Paris yesterday. Included are 31 teenagers from the Oakland County area.

★ ★ ★

They will go on to give performances in Berlin, Hamburg, Copenhagen and Helsinki before leaving for home Aug. 31. So far, they have visited North Ireland and Stolberg, Germany, before arriving in France.

He Timed It Beautifully

BALTIMORE (AP) — Charles A. Roeder received a first-aid kit in the mail that was damaged in transit. Opening the mangled plastic lid for inspection, he cut his finger and promptly used the bandages, tape and antiseptic inside.

3 Fishermen Escape Death as Boat Sinks

Three fishermen escaped drowning early Sunday when their 26 foot cabin cruiser sank in Lake St. Clair off Harsens Island near Algonac.

The men had been fishing all day Saturday, Robert Rudick, 33, of Detroit, owner of the boat said. They anchored the steel-hulled boat at 3 a. m. and went to sleep. Forty-five minutes later, Rudick said he was awakened by Jerome Dzienis, 39, of 417 W. Webster St., Royal Oak, whose feet already were covered by water.

Dzienis said, "We're going down."

Rudick, Dzienis, and another man, Ray Horn, 26, of 346 Fielding St., Ferndale, dived off the boat 30 seconds before it sank.

Horn narrowly missed being hit by a passing freighter. The men swam to Harsens Island and were picked up there by the U. S. Coast Guard.

They were treated for shock and released.

Rudick could give no explanation as to why the boat sank.

2 Escape Injury as Train Rams Stalled Auto

A Clarkston man and his son escaped serious injury Sunday night when their stalled car was struck by a northbound Grand Trunk Western Railway passenger train at a Springfield Township crossing.

Namon Foster, 32, of 8577 Clarridge Rd., and his son Namon Jr., 3, were treated for bruises at Pontiac General Hospital and released.

Foster told Pontiac State Police he stopped at the crossing on Big Lake road and didn't see the train. He then started up and was on the tracks when he saw the train approaching, he said.

When the car stalled he grabbed his son in his arms and fled from the vehicle, he said. The engine smashed into the car spinning it around so that a part of it struck Foster and the child, police said.

The car was a complete wreck. The engineer, Marvin W. Ferguson of Holly said he saw the car and sounded his whistle but was unable to stop before reaching the crossing.

Must Be an Exception

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Ray Trent says his duties as mayor of suburban Del City aren't wearing him down. "It's a fascinating hobby. Once you get into City Hall I don't think you can ever get it out of your system."

Gen. Twining Returns to Post After Surgery

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Nathan F. Twining returned to duty today as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

★ ★ ★

The Air Force general has been away from his desk for 11 weeks. He underwent surgery May 12 for removal of a lung cancer.

★ ★ ★

Twining told reporters who met him at his office that he felt "better than before" then quipped that "it was a hard way to get a rest."

Stay Alive Longer!

Are You a Lucrezia Borgia of the Skillet?

"WOMAN CONFESSES POISONING SEVERAL HUSBANDS!"

By LELORD KORDEL

Installment Thirteen

This was the shocking headline of a few months ago. "I gave each one of them a real nice funeral," said the widow. "I don't think they minded it so much. You see, I fixed them all tasty dinners before they went. Just sort of let them gorge themselves to death on my good cooking."

Good cooking . . . spiced with poison! But how many women who expressed their disapproval of this woman's conduct are also killing off their husbands—more slowly, more insidiously perhaps—by stuffing their bodies with the wrong foods?

Any judge would have told this modern Lucrezia Borgia that ignorance of the law is no excuse. Yet what excuse can be given by the woman who kills off her husband by overstuffing him with "good cooking?"

She has no valid excuse!

Is she ignorant of the laws of nutrition? If she values her husband, she must learn how to feed him—or she probably won't have him for long.

Today there are ten million widows in the United States, and by 1960 the excess of women over men in the nation will grow from 1,500,000 to 2,500,000. America has almost twice the number of widows that it should have.

Fifty-one is the average at which women begin their years of widowhood. That means about twenty-five years of living alone—and seldom liking it.

The older a man gets, the better quality food he needs to keep him trim and healthy. His mtabolism rate slows down, and consequently he needs less of the fuel foods. Fats, sugars, and starches clog up his arteries and make him overweight. The overweights die off twice as fast as their thin brothers.

How much nutritional knowledge has the wife who feeds her husband three-quarters of a cup of fat daily in the form of fried meats, fried eggs, French fried potatoes, doughnuts, rich desserts, and other fatty foods?

These wives are the Lucrezia Borgias of the skillet!

Some foods which your wife should never serve you are: cream soups, pork and other very fat meats, fat fish, fish eggs, oysters, excessive butter or butter substitutes, hot breads, pancakes, waffles, coffeecakes, muffins, doughnuts, creamy desserts, rich cakes or cookies, salad dressings, rich gravies, olives, nuts, or avocados. These are high-fat, high-cholesterol foods.

★ ★ ★

She still can serve you a variety of foods which will trim your waistline and discourage atherosclerosis. These include—

SOUPS. Bouillon, fat-free vegetable soups, and vegetable broths.

LEAN MEATS, FISH AND POULTRY. Broiled, roasted, baked, or boiled.

EGGS. Limit these to two a day, including those used in cooking.

MILK AND MILK PRODUCTS. One pint or more or skimmed milk or buttermilk (don't use whole milk), dry cottage cheese.

VEGETABLES. All, cooked or raw, especially the green and yellow vegetables rich in vitamin A—beet greens, chard, carrots, kale, and mustard greens.

FRUITS. All raw, cooked, dried, or canned. Use citrus fruits or tomatoes daily.

SALADS. Any fruit or vegetable salad, raw or cooked, and gelatin salads. Serve with boiled or low-fat dressings, for example, one of lemon juice, herb-vinegar, and spices. The juice from canned okra makes a satisfactory substitute for oils in salads.

CEREALS. Millet seed porridge for a cooked cereal; new protein dry cereals.

BREAD. Whole wheat, oatmeal, or rye (but only if you must).

DESSERTS. Fruits, junket puddings made with skimmed milk and without egg yolks (unless you have not had your limit of two eggs for this day), fruit whips made with skim milk powder, and gelatin desserts.

BEVERAGES. Tea, coffee, powdered skim milk, tomato juice, fruit or vegetable juices.

You see, your wife can serve you a diet that will be a pleasure to eat. By serving these foods with their plentiful proteins, vitamins, and minerals, your wife can make your meals into an adventure in good eating.

Food-skimping wives are, of course, health-foolish wives. They increase the carbohydrates in your diet and deprive you of body-building protein.

You should eat a minimum of 70 grams of protein a day, more if you're working under stress. It isn't your pocketbook that limits your daily supply. It's your wife's lack of knowledge about ways of securing this valuable food inexpensively.

By using dried skim milk powder in food preparation and as a family beverage, she could add to your regular diet a third of the 100 grams of protein that I recommend for the maintenance of your health. She needn't stint on this powdered skim milk. It is inexpensive enough to be used lavishly.

What about the cheaper cuts of meat? It's all in the cooking. They can be made tender and palatable by cooking them slowly at low temperature. Or marinate them and make use of your barbecue.

"I do the best I can," you wives may protest. "But my husband won't eat what's good for him."

Then, it's up to you to train him. Gently, persuasively, and with imagination. If he won't take care of himself, you'd better take care of him. It's part of your job! Are you women going to keep on shirking it?

★ ★ ★

"But I can't stand guard over my husband at noon," you complain, "just to see that he doesn't go on a ditchdigger's calorie spree! What do you expect me to do?"

I expect you to see that he gets a good breakfast full of protein, which will cut down on his noon hunger. And you can be sure that he gets a full quota of protective foods at his dinner table.

Company officials now make it a point to interview the wife of a prospective executive. Personnel managers are well aware of how much of an asset, or liability, a wife can be in her husband's development.

Which are you . . . an asset . . . or a liability?

Giant Rocket Holder to Rise in California

AZUSA, Calif. (AP) — The free world's biggest rocket test stand—an eight-story tower capable of holding a cluster of rockets generating six million pounds of thrust—will be built at Edwards Air Force base starting late this year.

Aerojet-General Corp. Saturday announced it had been given a contract to design the structure.

Initial plans call for a test stand that can handle two 1½ million pound thrust liquid-rocket engines, now under development for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. Later the stand will be expanded to support four of these engines.

The concrete and steel stand, perched on the side of a rocky cliff at the desert test center 100 miles north of Los Angeles, will have a 60-foot square opening for the rockets' exhaust.

The name of Kentucky means "dark and bloody ground." This derives from the many bloody wars between various Indian tribes there. They found one of the big-Union in 1792.

Furniture Is Selling

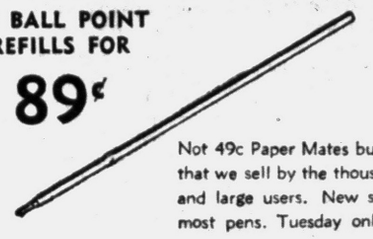

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—All phases of the furniture business last month topped June of 1958, industry accountants Seidman and Seidman report. Shipments were 17 per cent above the same month a year ago and only a bit below the all time June record set in 1956. Nev orders were up 16 per cent and the order backlog was 45 per cent higher.

Heresy in Springfield

Hits Hillbilly Music

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP)—"If you can't sing, you need a guitar to cover up the noise."

That's 23-year-old Larry Hedgepeth's opinion of hillbilly music. In Springfield, that is heresy.

Springfield, a city of 105,000 deep in the Ozark Mountains, is dedicated to perpetuating music with a twang — string and nasal. It takes pride that one of television's top hillbilly music shows—Jubilee, U.S.A. — originates here.

But Hedgepeth can state a minority opinion with impunity, being one of Springfield's newest heroes. He's the tenor for the Pitchikers, new world champions of barbershop quartet singing.

"A couple of us can do a little guitar picking but we don't do it in the quartet," said Hedgepeth.

The quartet won this year's competition at the Chicago convention of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America.

★ ★ ★

Winning the title climaxed a four-year campaign that carried the Pitchikers to a regional championship. They traveled about 100,000 miles a year to fill weekend concert engagements.

Besides Hedgepeth, the members are Keith Young, 24, Keith Keltner, 23, and Joe Delzell, 42. All live in Springfield.

You don't have to talk to them long to recognize all four as natives of the Ozarks. The vocal twang is there. When they sing, the twang dissolves into chords of harmony.

★ ★ ★

Largely responsible for the harmony is S. K. Grundy, the Pitchikers' organizer and coach.

Once a musician and arranger with Lawrence Welk's orchestra, Grundy heads the music department at Baptist Bible College here.

Grundy says his primary job is choosing the quartet's material.

To pass Grundy's test a song must have "good cadence and cordal line and a story to tell."

"That's why modern songs or rock 'n' roll are no good," he said.

"The text will kill you."

Tailors From Italy Rushed In to Fill American Need

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Immigration Service has arranged to give preferential admission to 83 Italian tailors to ease a shortage of skilled tailors in the American clothing industry.

A spokesman for the agency said the service has been considering also giving preferential admission to other tailors but the investigation is not complete.

But, he said, it has been decided to admit 83 whose eligibility for preference has been established beyond a doubt. The decision was made after the new quota for Italian immigrants became available July 1.

Under a new procedure, immigrants possessing special skills which are needed in the United States are given a priority for admission.

Set Autopsy Hearing Into Sisson Death

DETROIT (AP) — A medical examiner's hearing was scheduled today in the death of Harry M. Sisson Jr., 28, son of the executive vice president of the Detroit Tigers.

The body was found by Harry Sr., when he opened the garage of his suburban Grosse Pointe Farms home yesterday before going to church. Police said young Sisson had been dead about three or four hours.

Sisson's parents told officers he had been at a party Saturday night but his father said that his son had seemed depressed at times.

The hearing was to determine whether or not to perform an autopsy.

Somebody Stole Marine Chief's Personal Flag

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—The 1,200 leathernecks at the U.S. Marine Corps recruit depot are confined to quarters. Somebody stole the flag of Gen. Randolph McCall Pate, commandant of the Marine Corps.

Pate arrived Saturday on an inspection tour. When the color guard went to lower his personal flag—four white stars on a red field—Sunday night, it was missing.

The Marines were told to cool their heels. Pate has an idea he'll find his flag before returning to Washington.

Boy Dies in Auto Crash While Fleeing Police

MOUNT PLEASANT (AP) — One youth was killed and another critically injured early today when a stolen car in which they were riding missed a curve and overturned during a police chase, state police said.

Troopers of the Mount Pleasant post said Charles Hermansen, 15, of Brighton, was killed when the car went off the road, rolled over several times and hit a clump of trees near Rosebush, eight miles northeast of here. Edward Kryner, 16, also of Brighton, was in critical condition at a Mount Pleasant hospital, police said.

Leave closet doors and dresser drawers open occasionally to keep moisture from gathering and to stir up air already inside.

NOW THERE'S HOPE — After waiting 120 years, there's "Hope" at last in Shullsburg, Wisc. The town already had streets names Wisdom, Truth, Virtue, Peace, Judgment, Faith, and Charity — but nary a Hope until now. To show how they felt about the big event, these three lovelies ran right down to the corner of Goodness and Happy streets with the new sign for West Hope St. Left to right are Kay Morrissey, Joann Carpenter and Barbara Mullen.

VFW Seeks Action to Insure State Grants

LANSING (AP) — The Veterans of Foreign Wars said today it would seek a constitutional amendment to insure grants to veterans if the Michigan Legislature moves to liquidate the 50 million dollar veterans trust fund.

The VFW council of administration approved the move in weekend meetings here.

A budget of more than $100,000 was approved for the organization's programs. Its annual fall conference will be held in Lansing, Sept. 19-20.

To freshen plastic upholstery in cars, wipe with a mild solution of sal soda, a tablespoon per half bucket of water.

Plan Musical Comedy

NEW YORK (AP) — A musical comedy about New York's colorful mayor, the late Fiorello H. LaGuardia, is to be staged by George Abbott.

Entitled "Fiorello," the project is planned appropriately to premier on election night, Nov. 3. The producers are Robert E. Griffith and Harold S. Prince.

About 90 per cent of America's steel is produced in open hearth furnaces.

Add Overseas Phone Cables

Pair Will Handle 36 Conversations at Once Under the Sea

WASHINGTON — Giant metal threads stitch America and Europe ever closer together.

The latest addition to the growing underwater network is the pair of telephone cables being laid under the Atlantic from North America to the coast of France, the National Geographic Society says.

When it goes into use this fall, the facility will be able to speed 36 conversations under the sea at one time. One strand will carry voices eastward; the other, west.

The new link is being created because of the success of the first transatlantic telephone cable, placed in service iin 1956.

The American Telephone and Telegraph Company will own the cables jointly with the French Ministry of Posts, Telegraphs and Telephones, and the German Federal Ministry for Posts and Communications.

The western ends of the cables surface at Clarenville, Newfoundland. They will tie in to a cable that will cross Newfoundland and the waters of Sidney Strait to connect with an existing 575-mile radio relay route extending south to Portland, Maine, to join the Bell System's national network.

In Europe, the lines end at Penmarch, on the Brittany peninsula of France. Thirteen of the 36 circuits will terminate in France and 13 in Germany. Belgium and the Netherlands are alloted one apiece; Italy, Switzerland, and Spain, two each. Two spares can be used in any of the countries in the event of a circuit failure.

At present, there are one cable and nine radio telephone circuits between France and the United States, and two cable and 12 radio circuits between Germany and the United States.

Hurricane Debra Leaves a Wake of Destruction Along the Gulf Coast

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Communities in the water and debris-strewn wake of Hurricane Debra surveyed today millions of dollars in damages left by the wind, rain and inconvenience of the tropical storm.

★ ★ ★

Debra's path extended all the way from the Gulf coast chemical and fishing center of Freeport, Tex., into southeastern Oklahoma.

★ ★ ★

She left behind smashed fishing and pleasure boats, flattened and washed out crops, shattered roofs and windows, felled trees and snarled traffic.

Industrial areas, which expected to catch some of the heaviest damage, escaped destruction.

★ ★ ★

The hardest blows from the storm which burst with only a few hours warning from the ocean were delivered instead to fleets of boats along the Gulf.

Small boats were swamped, shrimpers were slammed against pilings and other boats and pleasure craft were washed ashore or banged against docks and boathouses by high and vicious tides.

★ ★ ★

Freeport apparently suffered the heaviest damage. Mayor Jim Russell said it will total 1¼ to 1½ million dollars.

The police chief at Lamarque said damage at that Gulf coast town will total one million dollars.

E. E. Ebard, Harris County deputy sheriff, said an estimated 1,000 small piers were washed away in the La Porte-Seabrook-Kemah area. Homes also suffered damage.

The 1,200,000 people in Houston saw the storm pass a few miles to the east of the South's largest city. All airline traffic was halted and train and highway travel sharply curtailed. The city escaped with minor damage.

The storm lost force as it moved inland. Up to 15 inches of rain poured down on east Texas, causing minor flooding.

GM Has Paid Employes $28 Million for Aid Hints

DETROIT—General Motors has paid its employes more than 28,000,000 for ideas leading to better manufacturing operations.

This sum was paid under the provisions of the GM suggestion plan established in 1942. It was paid for more than 500,000 ideas adopted out of a total of more than 2,000,000 submitted.

Asks Natural Gas Import to Serve Midwest States

WASHINGTON (AP) — Midwestern Gas Transmission Co. starts another turn today in its quest for authority to import natural gas from Canada for use of communities in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan and North Dakota.

The Federal Power Commission last year turned down Midwestern's application for the right to serve various Midwest states.

The commission held that Midwestern had "no assurance Canadian gas would be available to it.

Nation Needs Program

BRIGHTON (AP)—Rep. Alvin M. Bentley (R-Mich) said yesterday the United States should adopt a program of temperance, moderation and humility in its national life and foreign affairs.

Bentley was the main speaker at the 36th annual assembly of the Eastern Michigan district of the Evangelical United Brethren Church.

He said "Great international problems are caused by a lack of moderation" with nations "jumping from one extreme to another bypassing the middle course of moderation."

Williams Given Captives' Flags

Banners of 9 Nations in Europe Honor Governor on Freedom Stand

ANSING (AP)—Flags of nine European nations under Soviet domination were presented Michigan's Gov. G. Mennen Williams yesterday in recognition of his championship of self determination for small nations.

★ ★ ★

Presentation was made by Stefan Korbonski, chairman of the Assembly of Captive European Nations.

Korbonski, former chief of the Polish underground government, told the governor that Vice President Richard M. Nixon will get a tremendous reception when he visits Poland.

"Not just because he is Nixon, but because he represents America and the principle of self determination by free people," Korbonski said.

Korbonski presented Williams flags of Albania, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Estonia, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland and Romania.

He praised the governor for his blunt questioning of Soviet Deputy Premier Frol R. Kozlov when the No. 2 Russian visited Detroit recently.

Williams angered Kozlov by asking him when Russia was going to allow the captive nations self determination.

★ ★ ★

"Details of your talk with Kozlov were broadcast behind the Iron Curtain by Radio Free Europe," the governor was told by Korbonski.

Becky Collins Sets 3rd World Record

CUYAHOGA FALLS, Ohio (AP)—Becky Collins, 15-year-old swimming star from the Indianapolis Riviera Club, set her third world record in nine days Sunday night in the closing session of the Cuyahoga Falls international meet.

★ ★ ★

She was clocked in 2.38.5 in the 200-meter butterfly for senior women, breaking the record of 2:40.5 set in June, 1958, by Nancy Ramey of California.

★ ★ ★

The Riviera Club won the senior women and girls' age group titles in the three-day meet here. It rolled up 183 points for the women's title. Riviera had 102 points in the girls' bracket.

The Cleveland Swim Club won the boys' age group crown with 38 points. The Indianapolis A.C. won the senior men's title with 77 points.

Columnist Improving

RANDOLPH, N.H. (AP)—Columnist Dorothy Thomson, 65, who suffered a heart attack last week, was reported improving today at Gifford Memorial Hospital. Her physician, Dr. Elizabeth Berry, said she is "doing as well as we could ask."

200 Hoods Stir Swedes With Riots

KRISTIANSTAD, Sweden (UPI)—Two-hundred of Sweden's "wild ones" roared out of this small southern Swedish town in souped up American jalopies today to the relief of the townspeople they had terrorized in violent weekend rioting.

★ ★ ★

Behind them they left a shambles of part of the town, burned down public restrooms, broken windows, 20 persons in hospitals — and a legacy of fear.

It was the first such happening in this quiet town of 27,000 which straddles the main Stockholm-Malmoe road. Its peaceful squares, cobbled streets and trim lawns never before had been so disturbed.

The mobsters, whose idol is Marlon Brando, first hit the town early Saturday, apparently to watch the Grand Prix motorcycle races yesterday.

★ ★ ★

Within minutes their shiny motor bikes and "hot rods" were parked all over the place and their leather-jacketed figures began strutting the sidewalks.

★ ★ ★

Fights broke out when they pushed local pedestrians into the gutters. This was the signal for a mob rampage.

Bagwell Backers to Meet in Howell

HOWELL (AP)—Bagwell Boosters group made up of both Democrats and Republicans will meet in Howell Aug. 15-16.

Dr. Louis May of Howell, personal physicians to unsuccessful Republican gubernatorial candidate Paul Bagwell, said the aim of the convention was to enlist "independent amateurs" in politics.

May helped organized the group and is chairman of the executive council of the Draft Bagwell for Governor Assn.

May said the 5,000 member group was not a third party but an association of "indepdenent nonpartisans." He said about a third of the membership consisted of Democrats.

Nudists Don't Get Upset at Plane Antics

DEVORE, Calif. (UPI)—Nudists celebrating the 30th anniversary of the nudist movement in the United States say it's mighty strange how airplanes suddenly seem to lose altitude while flying over their camp.

But the nudists add they take it in stride. Any show of indignation by the evenly tanned nudists would be a show of inhibition and that's pretty hard to imagine about nudists, said Mel Hocker, manager of the nudists' Oakdale Ranch.

"If we were upset," he explained "it would mean we're inhibited and if we were inhibited we wouldn't be nudists, get it?"

'If Row You Must, Then Close the Doors'

LONDON (AP) — Two world statesmen bickering publicly over a kitchen sink provided an alarming spectacle for Western Europe, accustomed for hundreds of years to more formal brands of diplomacy.

★ ★ ★

If row you must, best to row behind closed doors. This was the lesson many Western European editors drew from Vice President Richard M. Nixon's verbal duel with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev Friday.

★ ★ ★

"The vigorous badinage need not be taken too seriously," said Britain's liberal News Chronicle.

"It was all fairly good and not too clean fun, pleasing to people who like what are rather optimistically called frank exchanges and displeasing to those who prefer more traditional forms of diplomacy."

Write a Letter to Khrushchev, Doctor Urges

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) — A Corpus Christi physician says Americans should let Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev know they saw films of his verbal battle with U.S. Vice President Richard Nixon.

Dr. Paul Goodman wrote a letter to the Russian Premier after seeing the films yesterday on television and says at least 10 million Americans ought to do the same.

"It was obvious that Khrushchev did not believe that the American people would ever see the films in their own living rooms," he said. "We should let him know that freedom really holds here."

Bob Considine Says:

Nikita Urges More Industrial Trade

MOSCOW — Premier Nikita Khrushchev liked our American exhibition in Moscow. He found it pretty, pleasant, and he liked the free Pepsi.

But — "It would be a good thing if such exhibitions were held more frequently," he said at the opening ceremony. "But displaying at them industrial products without developing trade between the countries concerned is tantamount to inviting to a restaurant someone whom his doctor has forbidden to eat meat and other kinds of delicious food.

"The man would come to the restaurant and feel the pleasant appetizing smells but would be unable to order. Now why go to a restaurant if you cannot eat the food made there?"

Well, to drink.

According to the Moscow News, the city's English language tabloid, Vice President Nixon's trip to Poland will be for nothing — If he thinks for a minute he can win friends there and influence people.

The paper's report of the homecoming of Khrushchev after his recent Polish tour, and its estimation of the Soviet-Polish ties, make Dick's jaunt sound like a waste of jet kerosene. Here's an excerpt:

"There was also complete unanimity of opinion on international questions, N. S. Khrushchev said. The sides were of the same opinion on the necessity of exercising every effort to frustrate preparations for a third world war, in which the German revanchists, with Chancellor Adenauer at their head, were playing the leading role."

This may be why the Soviets are springing forward in sports: About fifty million Russians, young and old, are now engaged in some kind of regular and regulated sports activity. In the "second tournament of the nations of the Soviet Union" which will begin Aug. 8 in Moscow there will be 9,000 athletes—about twice as many as compete in the Olympics.

In 1948 Russian athletes held 18 of the 178 registered records in track and field, sports skating, cycling, sharpshooting, swimming and weight lifting. Today they hold 81.

During the past 10 years national records have been broken 3,954 times and of these some 695 were in their times higher than the existing world record.

★ ★ ★

The Wimbledon Junior Tennis Championship fell to a Russian kid this year. Watch out for Ivan's Davis Cup team in five or six years. Matter of fact, we will have to watch out for Ivan himself until he forms a polo team. Then we can all sit back and relax.

AGREE WITH REDS

Just as the State Department's information agency cooperated with the Russians in banning more than one hundred and fifty books from the American exhibition, the American Embassy in Moscow agreed that it was proper for the Russians to refuse to permit the films of the Nixon-Khrushchev debates to be flown out.

(However, prior to this decision, one shipment of film of the Nixon - Khrushchev debate already had been allowed to leave the Soviet Union.)

It is against the law to ship film out of the Soviet Union. Tourists have no trouble with their cameras and quite frequently the newsreel law is annulled for festive occasions. But the basic law is there.

The exciting film and video tapes were safely in the hold of the Pan American World Airways 707 "Liberty Bell" ironically enough, when airport customs men approached Pan Am President Juan Trippe, who was personally going to deliver the film to New York.

Trippe was given his choice of surrendering the film or surrendering his passport. Pan Am publicist Mike Flynn lugged the cans back to press headquarters in the Ukraina Hotel and there it sat — while cameramen wept into their vodka.

Fight Exclusion of Anti-Reds

Americans Attending Soviet Youth Festival Angered by Efforts

VIENNA (UPI)—Angry Americans attending the Communist-run World Youth Festival prepared today to fight Red efforts to exclude anti-Communist members of the U.S. delegation.

At the same time, Austrian anti-reds announced that the Dalai Lama will send three representatives to the festival to tell the truth about Communist-conquered Tibet.

These were the latest developments in a determined anti-Communist campaign which probably has made the Reds regret that they decided for the first time to risk staging one of their youth conventions outside the Iron Curtain.

Organizers of the Festival used strong-arm tactics against Malcolm Rivkin, of Cambridge, Mass., who was hauled bodily off a stage here yesterday after he had been elected chairman of the U.S. delegation.

The Reds insisted that Communist and anti-Communist factions among about 400 Americans here seek accreditation separately, with separate slates of officers—and that the officers be appointed, not elected.

Laughing on the Outside, Dying . . .

Funny Men Are in Bad Shape

(Editor's note—Many of the nation's top funny men are laughing on the outside and close to dying on the inside. Ulcers, heart trouble, mental exhaustion and similar occupational hazards of top flight executives are now more the rule than the exception in the funny business. It's no laughing matter.)

By JAMES BACON
Ap Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Big business pressure, top killer of top executives, now stalks the nation's comedians.

Comics once only had to worry about making the audience laugh.

Now, with the advent of television, they worry whether the sponsor laughs, whether his wife laughs, and about such professional problems ars payrolls, ratings, market analyses, sales figures, under saturation, over saturation, no saturation. Decisions, decisions, decisions.

The funny business has become big business and, as a result, taken its toll.

Lou Costello is dead. Overwork has on occasion brought Bob Hope, Eddie Cantor, Jerry Lewis, Red Skelton and others frighteningly close to the final curtain. Both Jonathan Winters and Sid Caesar had to take bookings on a psychiatric couch, and Red Buttons turned serious actor to preserve his health and career from the perils of the funny business.

★ ★ ★

A handful of survivors from an earlier, perhaps tougher, generation remain stouthearted and ulcer-free: Jack Benny, Groucho Marx, George Burns, Jimmy Durante and Milton Berle.

But Ed Wynn, like Buttons, switched from making people laugh to making them cry.

"Me, I'm a dramatic actor," he says. "It's crazy."

It's also healthy. At 72, Wynn reports there is nothing in his medicine cabinet but a toothbrush.

World War II couldn't slow down Bob Hope, but a blood clot in the left eye did and he still can't understand why.

"I enjoy working. I enjoy hearing people laugh at my jokes. How could there be any pressure or overwork?" he asked his doctors.

They answered: "People may laugh at your jokes, but your blood vessels don't." He's lucky, they added, that the clot caused by overwork didn't develop in the brain.

★ ★ ★

Rapid Robert, 54, is more than just a comic. Eighty people depend directly on him for their livelihood. In addition to show business enterprises, he owns considerable real estate, a piece of two major league ball teams, a Denver TV station, some Texas oil fields.

Lunching with Hope, as I have done, is a nerve-wracking experience. The phone never stops ringing.

Jerry Lewis, like Eddie Cantor, is a cardiac victim. He's also big business. His personal staff of 20 has an $8,000 weekly payroll. Both figures go up five times when he does a movie or TV show. His seven-million dollar a year corporation has earned a billion laughs— and a perforated ulcer that damaged his heart.

He clowns a lot, but he's in his office at 7 a.m. every day. Aides estimate a TV show costs him 12 hours' work daily for three weeks, a movie 16 hours a day for six weeks. Along with harried executives, he takes a bloated briefcase home with him at night.

After his latest collapse, doctors ordered him to cut his activities in half. Now he tries to take Sundays off.

"But you know me," says Jerry. "I do three songs every time that light goes on when I open the refrigerator door."

Red Skelton is the only big time tank after every one of them. Skelton's an institution, a financial institution with all the pressures pertaining thereto. He's also asthmatic.

"It helps to be a little nuts too," he adds. "If CBS wasn't paying me $40,000 a week, I'd be in Camarillo (state mental hospital). But the network can't put me there because it would prove that they are crazier than I am for paying me so much."

Skelton zoomed to the top in his first TV year—1951. Then, for two years, he decided to let his advisers run the show while he concentrated on being funny. The result was so disastrous that he almost wound up emceeing dance marathons once more.

Red took the helm himself and came back strong. He still does the steering, grimly handling everything from props to script. Berle had to do the same thing, once; it's said he even arranged the chairs in the sponsors' booth.

"It has taken the advertising men a long time to realize that comics know a little bit about making people laugh," Skelton says. "That's why we have to take over the show. We have to be the boss whether we want to or not."

What's the secret of the calmer clan — Benny, Marx, Durante, Burns? Well, most of them claim, at least, that they don't care whether they work or not. So why not take it easy? says Marx:

"Actually, we're all dead but walking around. We can't help looking relaxed."

Most of them saved their money, too. As for the indestructible Durante, he says:

"I got no money, but my heart still ticks."

Auto Boat Unique Contraption

Floats Car on Water

MONROE, Mich. (AP) — Boaters who find themselves being pursued by a red Packard car on the Detroit River are advised not to get panicky.

They're merely seeing the fantastic contraption of a Cincinnati engineer who built a boat that is operated by his automobile.

The motorist by land and skipper by sea is John Brush, an employe of Proctor & Gamble.

He has rigged up two aluminum airplane pontoons in a catamaran design. With attached wheels, the pontoons are a combined boat and trailer.

To launch his brainchild, Brush puts the pontoons in the water and extends a pair of ramps on which he backs his 1953 Packard. Then he disconnects the car's drive shaft and hooks up a propeller attached to the pontoons.

A hose running to the motorblock and hitched to a water pump air cools the engine. The front wheels of the car sit on plates which are connected with cables running back to a rudder. Turn the car wheel and the rudder moves, steering the boat.

Brush, carrying his wife and 9-year-old twin sons as crew, cruises at 15 miles an hour but has gone as fast as 23 miles an hour. The whole rig is 31 feet long with a 13-foot beam. It draws 12 inches of water.

Brush conceived his autoboat while he and his wife were Japanese prisoners in World War II. They were captured in Manila where Brush was working in Proctor and Gamble's overseas engineering division.

He began his project in 1953 and took six months to complete the drawings. It took another 12 months—and an estimated $5,000—to build the autoboat.

Being an autoboater has problems, Brush admits. Insurance is a big one—car insurance doesn't cover the boat and marine insurance doesn't protect against road hazards.

Students Help Attract Firms to Puerto Rico

SAN JUAN, P. R. (AP)—The 18,000 students at the University of Puerto Rico are working to help bring needed industry to this Caribbean island.

As part of their required college curricula, the students are making econmic surveys on the profitability of industries locating in various communities. Students turning in the five best reports will win scholarships to top Unietd States universities.

The surveys, suggested by leaders in the industry-seeking Bootstrap Program, aid in attracting factories to employ 80,000 out-of-work Puerto Ricans, as well as make college students more aware of their civic responsibilities.

The Bootstrap Program's goal is to attract 2,500 factories by 1975. Since 1959, 573 United States companies have opened plants in Puerto Rico, creating 40,000 jobs.

British Asked U. S. to Summit Talks in '76

ANN ARBOR (UPI)—The University of Michigan's Clements Library has in its possession a letter — which George Washington wouldn't even accept — containing an informal British proposal for a "summit conference" to settle the American Revolution in 1776.

In the personal note to Washington, British Vice Adm. Lord Richard Howe has suggested a "dispassionate consideration of the King's benevolent intentions" toward America. But the General decided it would be improper for him even to receive the message.

About 6,500 Americans drown each year in accidents and there are six times more male victims than female.

Senate Racket Group Changes Focus

12 Called to UAW Hearings Aug. 4

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Rackets Committee reports it is subpoenaing a dozen witnesses for questioning in its forthcoming closed door hearings on the United Auto Workers union.

The hearings, originally set for this week, have been postponed to start Aug. 4. Their object is to determine whether evidence compiled by Republican committee members is sufficient to justify a public inquiry.

The UAW's president, Walter Reuther, is not a scheduled witness.

An announcement said the inquiry covers both new and old ground and will deal extensively with a new investigation of some old charges against the union's senior vice president, Richard T. Gosser, of Toledo, Ohio.

In some hot exchanges in committee hearings last year, Reuther berated Republican senators for questioning Gosser's conduct.

"He is a decent, honorable citizen and I know he would not take a dishonorable penny from anyone or any source," Reuther told the committee.

★ ★ ★

Robert F. Kennedy, committee counsel, told the senators at that hearing in March 1958 that a staff inquiry had turned up no evidence of wrongdoing by Gosser.

In question at the time were Gosser's role in a 1949 land deal with UAW Local No. 12 in Toledo, his home local, and sales by a hardware store he owned of some merchandise to the local.

Also under scrutiny in the hearings next month, Vice Chairman Karl E. Mundt (R-SD) has announced, are financial dealings of some lower echelon UAW officials, and complaints by some former UAW members that they were compelled to make hefty contributions to "flower funds" that actually were to finance the campaigns of incumbent UAW officials in union elections.

A committee spokesman said Gosser and these other witnesses have been called to testify:

★ ★ ★

Randolph Gray, former financial secretary of Local 12 who led an unsuccessful rebellion against Gosser in 1949 and 1950; and Mrs. Gray.

Harold Bilheimer of Toledo, one of Gray's insurgent group, who contends he was roughed up and expelled from the union for 99 years after opposing Gosser.

John Bolman of Toledo, who says he also was roughed up and expelled from the UAW.

John D. Dale of Redbank, N.J., head of the George Elliott Co., a firm of management consultants.

Melvin Schultz of Toledo, former president of Local 12 and a former business partner of Gosser.

Joseph F. Motsinger of Detroit, former UAW international representative who has been critical of the union's flower fund practices.

Lloyd Speidel, who runs the Mo-Del Tavern in Toledo, and Cyrus Martin of Temperance, Mich., described as former members of Gosser's local.

State Motels Don't Line Road to Riches

EAST LANSING (AP)—"No vacancy" signs to the contrary, the motel business isn't a quick way to riches, a Michigan State University researcher advises.

"Motels are not the answer to quick, easy money," said Robert W. McIntosh, tourist and resort extension specialist.

McIntosh made a study of the income from 28 Michigan motels. They showed a profit averaging $4,891 a year, he reported.

The profit figure included interest on the owner's equity in the investment and return to the owner and wife for their labor and management.

"Operating a motel is a seven-day a week, 365-day a year job," McIntosh said. "Also, hours are usually long with guests checking in late in the evening."

UAW Asks U. S. Court to Halt Atomic Plant

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The AFL-CIO United Auto Workers has asked the U.S. Court of Appeals to set aside an order of the Atomic Energy Commission authorizing construction of a 100,000-kilowatt nuclear power plant at Monroe, Mich.

No decision on the request is expected before next fall.

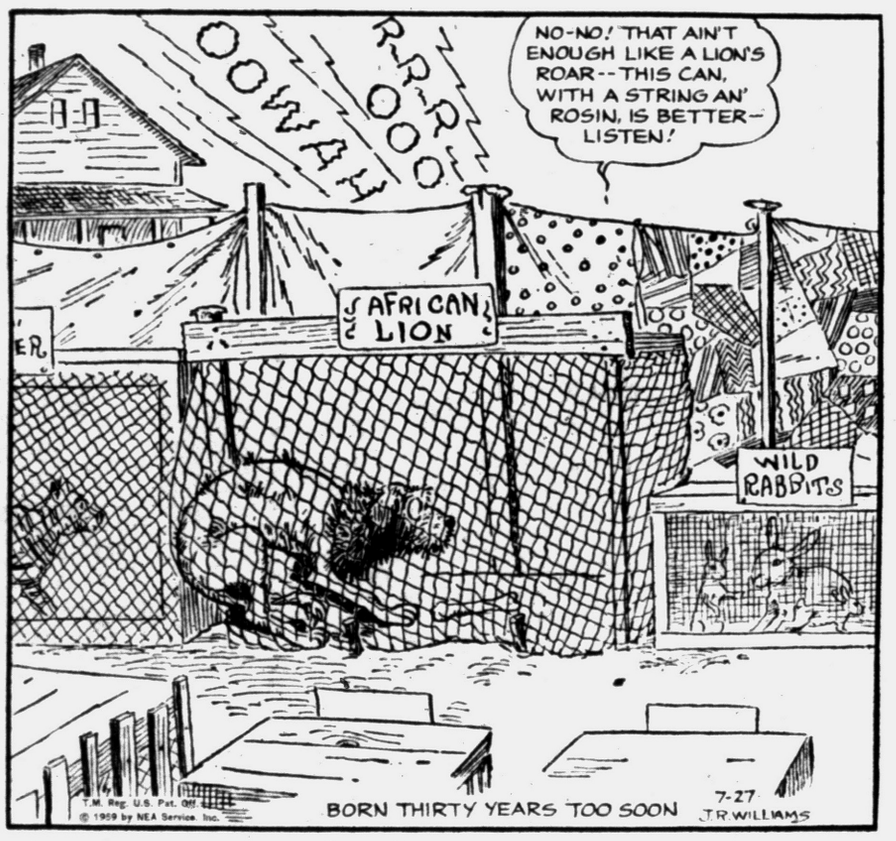

The plant is being built by an industrial group known as the Power Reactor Development Co. of Detroit. Its cost has been estimated at about 44 million dollars. Its compact fuel core is expected to start generating heat in September 1960.

The union's petition, was another in a long series since the AEC first granted a construction permit for the plant in August 1956. The UAW and two associated unions intervened to get the permit rescinded on grounds that the plant's safety had not been established.

Modest Gains Dominate Mart

NEW YORK (AP) — Most stock market prices eked out modest gains in moderate trading early today.

★ ★ ★

Advances were limited to less than a point for the most part. A number of losers dotted the list.

Prices generally hovered around opening levels. Little enthusiasm developed to push them higher.

Most steels, motors and aircrafts stepped a notch higher. Some specially situated issues ran ahead.

Youth Found Starving, Unconscious in Auto

FLINT (UPI) — Police continued an investigation today to determine what happened to a Flint college youth who was found unconscious in a car suffering malnutrition.

Vance L. Anderman, 21, was taken to Hurley Hospital when his sister, Mrs. Margaret D. Long, of it when traffic slowed near Petoskey. The auto hit an oncoming vehicle and two others crashed in to the wreckage. Four other persons, all from Ohio, were in critical condition in Little Traverse Hospital, Petoskey.

Gerhard Halseet, 54, and Otto Olson, 66, two retired mechanics from Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., were killed last night in a two-car, head-on collision on U.S. 23 east of Cheboygan. Five Persons were injured in the crash.

Another head-on collision claimed the lives of Clara A. Reinke, 68, Detroit, and Gladys Kandt, 43, Birmingham. They were killed when Mrs. Reinke tried to pass a car on M15 near Flint and struck the car in which Mrs. Kandt was riding.

Other traffic victims were:

Sandra Murkett, 16, Sumpter, was fatally injured last night in a three-car crash on Belleville road in Van Buren Township of Wayne county.

Michael T. Warden, 19, Detroit, died early yesterday when his car missed a curve on the U.S. 16 expressway near Brighton. Witnesses told police he was traveling at a high rate of speed.

Albert Lascelle, 73, Detroit, was killed Saturday night in a car-pedestrian accident on Detroit's northwest side.

Another Detroit youth, Lee Balbach, 17, was fatally injured Saturday afternoon when his car struck a parked car on a narrow street. Police said he was racing with another youth.

Lola Mayer, 24, Allenton, died Friday night when her car failed to make a curve on a rural Lapeer County road and ran into a pond.

Lawrence Nabdas, 75, Detroit, was dead on arrival at Wayne County General Hospital Friday after being struck by a car on the Ford Expressway in suburban Detroit.

Arthur M. Evans, 35, Indianapolis, Ind., died Friday night when his sports car overturned at an exit of the Willow Run Expressway in Melvindale.

Daniel W. Bisher, 38, rural Hillsdale, was killed Friday night when his car missed a curve on a rural road and struck a tree.

Drowning victims included two boys whose boats overturned. Leslie Smith Jr., 11, Drayton Plains died yesterday when his boat overturned in the wake of another motorboat on Big Fish Lake in Lapeer County.

Harold Swecker Jr., 15, Saugatuck, drowned when his boat was swamped by waves of a passing cruiser and overturned. A younger brother who was riding with him was picked up by a passing boat. Neither boy knew how to swim and only the younger boy was wearing a life preserver.

Searchers resumed dragging operations this morning for the body of 41-year-old Harold Hieber, Clinton. He was reported missing and believed drowned yesterday when his empty boat was found on Pleasant Lake in Washtenaw County. He went frog spearing on the lake 11 hours before the boat was found.

Tyson Everett, 36, Detroit, was electrocuted Friday night when a metal pipe he was leaning against came in contact with a shorted electrical cord. Everett was working in an underground tunnel with seven other men.

Grains Show Firming Trend

CHICAGO (AP) — The grain futures market was mostly steady today during the first several minutes of transactions on the Board of Trade with wheat showing a continued firming trend in all contracts.

Dealers said there appeared to be a better volume of wheat buying on flour mill account and that hedge selling was somewhat lighter than expected.

Trading was influenced somewhat on both sides of the market by the government report of last Friday showing stocks of grain in all positions as of July 1. Most interest appeared to center on the figures for corn and soybeans which some dealers said were of a slightly bullish tinge.

Wheat was ½ to ¾ cent a bushel higher than the first hour. Sept. $1.90¼; corn ⅛ to ⅜ higher, Sept. $1.20¾; oats ¼ to ⅞ higher, Sept. new type contract 68¾; rye ¼ to ⅝ higher. Sept. $1.29½; soybeans unchanged to ¾ higher. Sept. $2.20⅜.

Estranged Husband Held in Shooting

An estranged husband was held for investigation of assault with intent to commit murder after he shot a male friend of his wife in the trailer park at 229 E. Walton Blvd.

Arrested by Pontiac Police was Roy Scott, 29, of 229 E. Walton Blvd.

Police said Scott entered the trailer of Hayes D. Cornwall, 29, and found his wife there.

Cornwall pulled out a .22 caliber automatic pistol and fired two shots but missed Scott, police said.

Scott wrestled the gun away from Cornwall and shot him in the knee.

Cornwall was in satisfactory condition this morning at Pontiac General Hospital.

May Birth Rate Lower Than '58

First Time in 1959 Figure Below Same Month Last Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—Births during May dropped under those in the comparabe 1958 month, the first time this had occurred in 1959.

An estimated 338,000 live births were registered in May, 1.5 per cent less than the 343,000 in May 1958, the Public Health Service reported today.

The year's total for five months, however, was 1,709,000, up 1.8 per cent from the 1,679,000 in the similar 1958 span.

Since the nation's population increased between May 1958 and May 1959, the birth rate for the month this year was 22.6 per 1,000 population as compared with 23.3 a year earlier, a drop of 3 per cent. For the five months ir each year it was 23.5.

Marriages held steady during May with 116,000 reported in each year. For the five months they totalled 507,000, up 2.8 per cent over the 1958 figure of 493,000.

Divorces continued an upward trend first noted in July 1958. Since that month the number of divorces listed by 29 reporting areas each month has exceeded the figure for the same month in the preceding year.

The 29 areas estimated 14,800 divorces during May, which was 0.7 per cent more than the 14,698 a year earlier. For the first five months, this year the total was 72,568, or 7.2 per cent more than the 67,714 in 1958 and 1 per cent more than the 71,851 in 1957.

Soviet Union's Missiles Weak

U.S. Defense Secretary Says Russia Incapable of ICBM Offensive

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union has fewer than 10 intercontinental range missiles capable of hitting the United States, Secretary of Defense Neil H. McElroy says.

McElroy's statement Sunday contrasted with his news conference views six months ago when he said "We do not believe that Russia has an ICBM capable of operation against this country at this time."

★ ★ ★

McElroy made it clear Sunday that U.S. defense leaders believe over-all American weapons "could more than match whatever the Russians will have in intercontinental ballistic missile capability."

★ ★ ★

McElroy said during a television interview with Sen. Kenneth B. Keating (R-NY) the United States must retain an ability to destroy the Soviet Union if the Soviets should attack with large weapons.

Rep. Chet Holifield (D-Calif) said on another program that in the event of a massive surprise attack "I do not believe that we could retaliate to the extent that it would be an appreciable amount of damage to a foreign country." He is a member of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee.

Lifeguard Saves Girl at Homestead Park

An alert lifeguard at Homestead Park in Commerce Township was credited by Oakland County sheriff's deputies with saving the life of a Hazel Park teenager Sunday.

Fred Honchell, of 2836 Rowan St., Waterford Township, said he noticed Lucille Rondan, 14, of 19 Sturtevant St., floating face down in the water at a park swimming area.

He rushed to her aid and carried the unconscious girl to shore where he revived her with artificial respiration.

She told deputies she had fainted.

Red China Allows Sermons on Streets

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — A churchman just back from Communist China said today that religious literature can be distributed in the streets there provided it does not interfere with traffic.

★ ★ ★

He said also that street sermons are permitted.

The Rev. Edwin L. Williams, principal of the Churches of Christ Bible College in Melbourne, made a five-week tour of China and the Soviet Union with five other Australian church leaders of various Christian denominations.

Fifteen Die in Michigan

Weekend Highway Toll Same as Memorial Day

By United Press International

Michigan recorded its worst weekend on the highways since the first week in May this weekend when 15 persons were killed in traffic accidents.

In addition, three persons drowned and one was electrocuted in the state, for a total weekend accidental death toll of 19—the same number as was killed in all types of accidents during the Memorial Day weekend.

One traffic accident accounted for three of the victims, and two other crashes claimed two lives each.

Three out-of-state residents, Alice Kostecka, 32, Chicago; Frank Bogner, 67, and his wife, Elizabeth, 65, both of Mansfield, Ohio, were killed in an accident early Saturday on U.S. 31 in Emmet County.

State Police said the Bogner car swerved into the wrong lane to avoid hitting the car in front

'Asterisks, Asterisks, Thank You'

Censors in Field Day

By EDMOND LEBRETON

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here's a sporting tip for any Martian spies that may be lurking around:

Take a look at page 250 of "Space Propulsion," a transcript of hearings recently put out by the House Committee on Science and Astronautics.

★ ★ ★

Oh, it's censored all right; enough to be incomprehensible to mere humans. But the committee left something in—a name and three asterisks on each line, and there are lots of lines. And who knows what a cold, alien intelligence might be able to do with what's left.

Chairman Overton Brooks (D-La) starts the exchange by asking Dr. Robert I. Strough, "What is the extent of the research and development program of the United Aircraft Corp.?"

As printed, Dr. Strough's reply is "..."

★ ★ ★

The transcript continues:

"The chairman...

"Dr. Strough's..."

It goes on like that for 72 more lines.

Or you might want to tackle Dr. Strough's original prepared statement, as published by the committee:

"Statement of Dr. Robert I. Strough, project engineer, Canel, United Aircraft Corp.

"Dr. Strough...

"The chairman...

"Dr. Sheldon Charles S. Sheldon II, committee techincal director...

"Dr. Strough...

"The chairman: Thank you very much, doctor."

Slated at LeBaron School

Rodeo Time for Bicycles

Bicycle safety and fun are behind an experimental program the Department of Parks & Recreation will stage Tuesday for children in the LeBaron School area.

★ ★ ★

It's a bicycle rodeo in which skill, endurance and knowledge of safety rules will play a part, said Leonard T. Buzz, recreation director.

There are 25 youngsters entered in the contest so far and at least 50 to 70 are expected by the time the first event begins 2 p.m. Tuesday on the school playground, Buzz said.

Trick riding, an obstacle course and races will dominate the rodeo, Buzz said.

SERIOUS SIDE TOO

But there's another event in which the serious side of bicycling will be stressed, he emphasized.

Contestants will be required to demonstrate their knowledge of safety precautions, rules of the road, correct bicycle lighting and other safety measures, he explained.

"If the rodeo is successful at LeBaron, we will consider holding it at other playgrounds throughout the city next year," Buzz said.

★ ★ ★

Besides a 25-lap race and 200-yard dashes, the rodeo will have another racing event that promises amusement, Buzz said.

This is a 50-yard dash in which the slowest rider will be declared the winner.

The rodeo is open only to youngsters who have city bicycle licenses, Buzz said.

FOUR AGE BRACKETS

Boys and girls will be grouped in four age brackets for the contests: ages 6-7, 8-10, 11-12, and 13-15.

Hawaiian Voters to Elect Lawmakers

HONOLULU (UPI) — Voters will go to the polls tomorrow to elect the men who will represent Hawaii in her new role as the 50th state in the United States of America.

They will elect two senators, one member of the House of Representatives, a governor, and 62 members of the state legislature. They probably will send the first oriental to the U.S. Congress.

Of the six candidates running for the two Senate and one House seats, three are Orientals and two are heavily favored in their contests.

UAR President Tells Egypt to Walk Softly

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt (AP) — Israel will be wiped from the map if she attacks Egypt, United Arab Republic President Gamel Abdel Nasser told a cheering crowd Sunday.

He was speaking at a rally celebrating the seventh anniversary of the 1952 Egyptian revolution that toppled King Farouk.

Nasser's bristling, confident speech was prompted by a statement from Israel's former army chief, Moshe Dayan, that his country should "return hostility for hostility" with Egypt.

Determined to Pass Housing Legislation

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate housing chairman John Sparkman (D-Ala) said today congressional leaders are determined to pass housing legislation this year, either by overturning President Eisenhower's veto or by drafting a new bill.

Sparkman made the statement as his Senate housing subcommittee called Gov. David L. Lawrence of Pennsylvania and mayors Richard J. Daley of Chicago and Frank A. Sedita of Buffalo to testify on Eisenhower's veto of the big Democratic housing measure.

The subcommittee is holding hearings before deciding whether to try to override the veto or to write a less costly bill. Eisenhower vetoed the measure as "inflationary" and "extravagant."

Fowlerville Calls Queen

FOWLERVILLE (UPI) — The new Miss Michigan, Anne Marston, will be one of the celebrities appearing at the 73rd annual Fowlerville Fair, starting tomorrow and continuing through Saturday. Miss Marston will appear Saturday afternoon and evening.

The phrase "seat on the New York Stock Exchange" dates back to the days when members sat down and stocks were called out for bids and offers. Today the members stand up.

Chicago to Defend Lake Diversion Need

WASHINGTON (AP)—Officials of Chicago's Metropolitan Sanitary District defend themselves today in a running battle over the district's sewage disposal methods.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill) and four district officials were ready for resumption of hearings on a House-passed bill which would permit Chicago to take more water from Lake Michigan.

The Senate public works subcomittee hearing was called to permit Chicago to reply to charges raised earlier this month that the additional diversion is sought as a substitute for adequate treatment and disposal methods.

West at Odds About Berlin

U.S., France Hold Out Against British Effort to Ease Demands

GENEVA (AP) — The United States and France were reported holding firm today against British pressure to cut down Western terms for a Berlin agreement with the Soviet Union and clear the way for an early summit conference.

As the Big Four foreign ministers conference moved into its ninth week, U.S. and British officials sought to play down the difference and deny any threat to allied unity.

Some privately conceded, however, that the maneuvering has created an appearance of weakness under Soviet hammering on critical Berlin and German issues.

Associates said Secretary of State Christian A. Herter is still determined to try to get an agreement from the Soviets' Andrei A. Gromyko to protect West Berlin. He is reported equally determined not to accept any deal which will put a deadline on Allied rights there.

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd, who conferred with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan over the weekend, reportedly believes that limited assurances already offered by Gromyko are the best the West can hope for and should be accepted conditionally.

★ ★ ★

The condition, British informants said, is that the U.S.S.R. for the time being drop its demand for agreement on direct unification negotiations between the West German and Communist East German governments. All three Western powers were reported agreed that this price demanded by Gromyko for a stopgap Berlin settlement is completely unacceptable.

Board to Decide Zoning Proposal in Waterford

It is expected that the Waterford Township Board will take action on the proposed rezoning of five lots in the Huron-Gardens subdivision from residential to commercial when they meet at 7:30 tonight.

Located on Voorhels road, between Pioneer and Tilden streets, the request for the zoning change had been tabled for one week for Township Board inspection. It has the approval of the zoning board and the Oakland County Planning Commission.

Bids will be accepted and opened for a 300-foot water main on Elizabeth Lake road from the Pontiac Country Club property to the Stringham School property.

A change in the deadline date for accepting bids for three new police cars will be discussed, according to Township Clerk J. E. Seeterlin.

Postpone Sentencing

The sentencing of Arthur C. Mooney, Waterford Township teacher convicted of taking indecencies with one of his students, has been postponed to next week in Oakland County Circuit Court.

'Dick-Nik' Talk Program Kind to Long Remember

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI)—This is the year for so-alled "talk shows" on TV.

★ ★ ★

The three networks used some of their weekend time to run off a spectacular pilot film showing the newest talk show to bemuse their viewers.

This road version of Keep Talking featured Dick and Nik, better known as Vice President Richard Nixon and Soviet dictator Nikita Khrushchev, respectively, in 16-minutes of absorbing give-and-take that originated at the American exhibit's color TV studio in Moscow.

It wasn't exactly the Lincoln-Douglas debate, but it still was a fascinating human document.

★ ★ ★

The very thought of these two important world figures haggling and exchanging cliches about their deeply-felt convictions made for an unprecedented, unforgettable TV show.

Diplomatic and political repercussions aside, this Dick-Nik TV show was stimulating, vivid and filled to the hilt with the immediacy of today's history.

Surely Khrushchev, looking like a burlesque comic with his Panama hat and groovy hipster handshake, seemed to be having a ball during the impromptu powwow.

★ ★ ★

Nixon, apparently uncertain about the propriety of arguing in public with his host, gamely tried to get the talk back to the subject of videotape and television.

Since it appears that Khrushchev enjoys ad libbing on TV, I'd like to book him into some future Groucho Marx show and let Groucho handle him.

SHORT SHOTS: Operation Noah's Ark on NBC-TV Sunday was an exciting and beautiful photographed documentary about the rescuing of wild animals from the Zambesi River in southern Rhodesia.

When it comes to smiling, Teamster boss James Hoffa makes Arthur Murray look like a Liberace. Or so it seemed when Hoffa appeared on CBS-TV's Face the Nation.

Robert F. Kennedy, chief counsel to the Senate Rackets Committee, appearing on NBC's Meet the Press immediately following Hoffa's appearance, said he believed the CBS panel had agreed not to ask Hoffa any personal questions.

This brought from Ted Ayres, producer of the CBS-TV show, the following rejoinder: "Ridiculous; there was no such agreement."

★ ★ ★

Kennedy also was asked how he felt about Hoffa's threat to sue for libel because of Kennedy's comments on last Wednesday's Jack Paar Show.

Kennedy repeated his comments and welcomed Hoffa's law suit.

And so TV goes, weaving itself more deeply into the fabric of our life—when it feels like it.

Elks to Choose a 'Cinderella' at Record Dance

A "Cinderella Night" dance will be held by the Sylvan Lake Elks Lodge 723 from 8 to 11:30 p.m. Tuesday.

The dance will be held at the Elks Temple, 114 Orchard Lake Ave.

Highlight of the evening will be the selection of "Cinderella" — the girl whose feet will fit a pair of glass slippers and who comes close to certain specified measurements.

She and her date will be treated to dinner at a Pontiac restaurant. Dancing will be to records.

Search Grand Canyon for Priest, Youth

GRAND CANYON, Ariz. (UPI)—Searchers transported by helicopters scoured a remote area of the Grand Canyon floor today for a Roman Catholic priest and his hiking companion. A third member of the hiking group was found yesterday.

The body of Walter J. Mahany, 16, was located in the rugged heat-scorched canyon. He apparently was the victim of heat prostration and exposure, rangers reported.

Ranger Vincent Hefti said tracks were found leading away from the body and believed those of a Father Gavigan, and Manson Ownes, 16. The three hikers were believed from Savannah, Ga.

Who Has Biggest Bang? Cartoon Doesn't Care

LONDON (UPI)—The Sunday Express commented by cartoon yesterday on the public politicking of vice president Richard M. Nixon and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

The cartoon showed the two men standing on a bomb shaped to represent the earth, each hold a fuse and a lighted match. The caption: "Ha! I can blow us all to bits with a bigger bang than you can blow us all to bits with."

News in Brief

Two cartons of cigarettes and two cases of beverages were stolen by thieves who broke into Stewart's Diner, 3315 Auburn Rd., Pontiac Township, Saturday night, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

The Clarkston Food Locker, 7130 Clarkston Rd., Independence Township, was ransacked by burglars Saturday night and a flashlight and two .22 caliber rifles were stolen, according to sheriff's deputies.

Alma Himsberger, 92 Pingree St., reported to Pontiac Police over the weekend that someone stole two purses containing $6 from her home.

Vicki Davis, 114 Center St., reported to Pontiac Police Saturday someone stole her wallet containing $35 from her apartment.

GM Device Aids in Heart Surgery

Cuts Body Temperature 10 Degrees in 5 Minutes for Operation

LOCKPORT, N.Y. — An automotive-like transmission oil cooler device that can zoom a patient's body temperature down 10 degrees in as little as five minutes is now in use at the Duke University Merical Center, Durham, North Carolina.

Called a blood heat exchanger, it marks a new advance in safeguards for patients who undergo complex open heart surgery.

Formerly, patients were cooled with ice packs or refrigerated blankets. This process took an hour or longer and was hard to control in terms of desired temperatures.

Now, Dr. Wirt W. Smith of the Duke surgery staff said surgeons using the heat exchanger can lower a patient's temperature at an average rate of one degree Fahrenheit every 30 seconds raise it with almost equal speed and control it with an accuracy of one half of a degree.

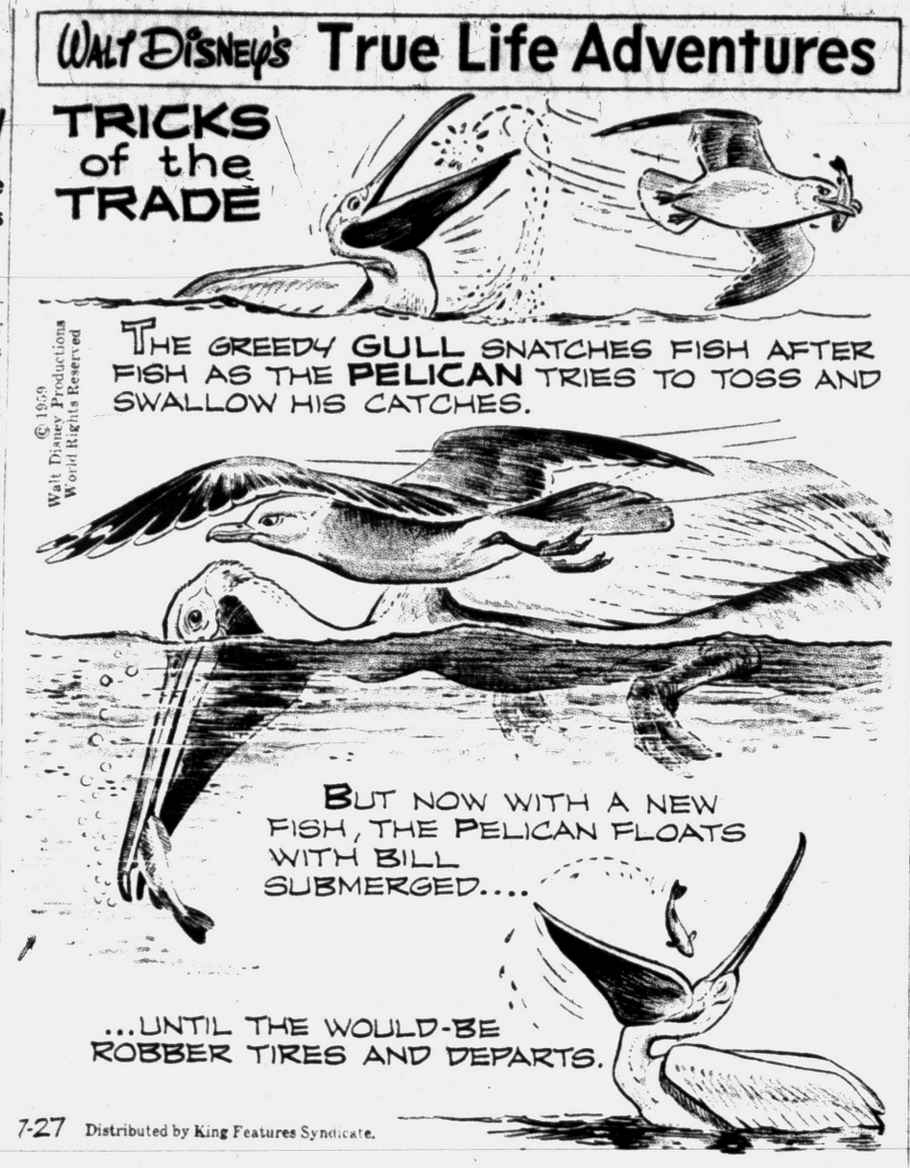

The heat exchanger was developed cooperatively by Duke medical scientists and research engineers at the Harrison Radiator Division, General Motors Corporation. It was especially designed to take into consideration the complex characteristics of human blood and to meet other safety requirements for use in surgery, the doctor pointed out.

The heat exchanger is being used at Duke in heart operations that involve an "artificial heart-lung" machine combined with hypothermia, or lowering the patient's body temperature. The heart-lung machine takes over the work of a patient's own heart and lungs. Then, surgeons can open the heart and repair congenital defects such as holes or obstructions.

Lowering the patient's temperature greatly reduces his oxygen needs and thus permits lower flow rates through the heart-lung, protecting the brain and other vital organs. Hypothermia also lessens damage to blood cells and reduces the chances of certain complications.

Basically, the heat exchanger consists of a group of slender stainless steel tubes enclosed by a specially constructed steel jacket. As blood flows through the tubes, water is circulated about them. The temperature of the circulating water is automatically regulated. The device is approximately 11 pounds in weight and about the size of a housewife's rolling pin.

Before the new heat exchanger was developed, patients were anesthetized and then cooled from a normal 98.6 degrees to around 86 degrees Fahrenheit, usually by means of ice packs or refrigerated blankets.

U.S. Guides Please Russians

Sears Catalog Star of Exhibit

By ALINE MOSBY

MOSCOW (UPI) — Two of the biggest hits at the U.S. exhibition in Moscow are the Sears Roebuck catalogue and the Russian-speaking American guides.

Russians have shown their enthusiasm for the exhibition that opened Saturday by climbing over the fence and crashing through the turnstile gate to see what the Americans have.

Bearded peasants in the traditional boue belted tunics jostled pretty girls in modern summer cotton dresses to examine electric blankets and adding machines.

But one smash success were the Sears Roebuck catalogues which were placed on reading racks and attached to the wall.

During a tour of the exhibition crowded with chattering excited Russians, three teenage girls were seen poring over the catalogue pages showing pictures of brassieres — which are not too common in Moscow stores.

The catalogues so far have outdrawn a display of arty and expensive books in the same section.

The Russians have almost a schoolboy crush on the Russian-speaking American guides in the exhibition. They are eager to make friends with the guides as well as compete with them in arguments.

Yesterday crowds of Russians were packed ten deep outside the glass pavilion hemming in an American guide who was engaged in a lively debate on eastern European politics.

Outside the controversial American exhibition home, a large crowd watched several Russian women questioning another guide about the homes of American workers, their wages and their families.

The arguments apparently were touched off by stories in the Soviet press pointing up the theme that America is not as rosy as the fair and Vice President Richard M. Nixon would have the Russians believe.

★ ★ ★

Pravda and Izvestia, the official newspapers, complained about the lack of technological progress shown. Pravda said "the thirst for knowledge of American achievements in engineering can be quenched with Pepsi Cola" which is being distributed free at the fair.

A Tass dispatch today reported tens of thousands of visitors attending the fair but it also said the U.S. guides had to admit the annual model changes constituted a plot to swell profits by the automobile corporations.

Tass also reported that one Soviet woman found the American washing machines more expensive than Russian machines.

An exhibition of abstract art at the fair has attracted great attention and at one point so many Russians crowded around an American guide to argue he had to flee to save the paintings from being crushed.

The Russians opened refrigerator doors, peered into automatic dishwashers and bounced basketballs. They ogled the modern three-room apartment where a guide was preparing dinner to the strains of "South Pacific."

Russians also mobbed the General Mills and General Foods kitchens where four American girls were busy baking cakes and cooking frozen vegetables. But a triangle-shaped purple upholstered chair and abstract sculptures brought giggles.

Russian Lessons Are No Trouble for Sullivan

By EARL WILSON

LAS VEGAS — Ed Sullivan's studying Russian here with an honest-to-goodness professor who was a little nervous about his student because he'd heard him talk about his "rrreally great shew" on TV.

WILSON

The Professor, Alexander Malbin, vacationing from the Army Language School at Monterey, Cal., teaches Ed three hours a day —not at the swimming pool but up in Ed's suite.

"I figured I ought, as a courtesy, to try to introduce my acts in Russian when our show goes to Moscow next month," Ed said.

And Ed has made such good progress that the Professor was looking for more columnists to conquer and wanted to teach me Russian.

★ ★ ★

"What do I need wth Russian? I can already talk to Max Asnas," I said, that being a weak joke about the Russian-born proprietor of the New York Stage Delicatessen whose accent is much thicker than his corned beef.

By the way, Ed," I said, contributing my solitary chunk of erudition, "do you know that the Bible spells 'show' just as you pronounce it—shew?" And I mentioned that in the Book of St. John, and also elsewhere, the old English spelling is used.

MAY

"So I'm not only Russian but Biblical," said Ed, still eying the pool.

The Prof. said Ed's rolled-R which he emphasizes when he says "rrreally great shew" is helpful in Russian, which, he insisted, is an easier language than French.

"You vill speak it like a native," the Prof. told Ed.

"Sure Professor," nodded Ed. "Like a native American," he added, as he dived in.

Total Astronomical

TV Specials Spiral

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — What's true today is not necessarily true tomorrow in television programming.

Not long ago NBC-TV announced that it will have 200 specials in the coming season. The count for CBS-TV was about 60. Now CBS has some 185 ready and may top that 200 NBC figure. And NBC says it may top 200. Somebody ought to make a count at the end of the season.

★ ★ ★

And speaking of competition in the field of specials, both networks have scheduled TV versions of Stephen Vincent Benet's "The Devil and Daniel Webster." John Houseman will produce one for "Playhouse 90" on CBS in the fall David Susskind will produce one for NBC in February.

The list of Westerns and adventures grows and grows. At the moment it appears the networks will have even more westerns this coming season than last year. Latest announcement is for 'Bronco," bowing on ABC-TV Sept. 22, to appear on alternate Tuesday evenings (7:30 p.m. EDT) with "Sugarfoot."

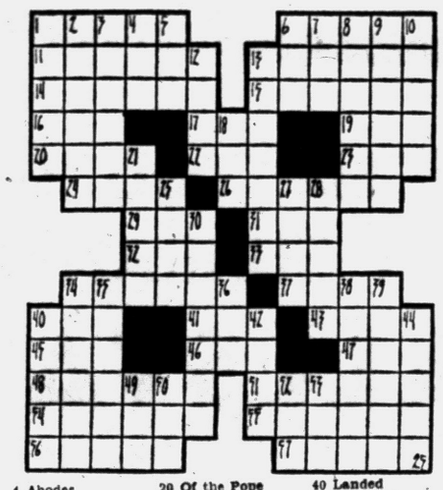

★ ★ ★

At the same hour — sometimes known as the children's hour on television—another western rides in on NBC beginning Oct. 1. It's called "Tales of the Plainsman" and stars Michael Ansara as an Indian marshal.

The impact of the steel strike on an American city, Gary, Ind., will be examined by NBC News on "Chet Huntley Reporting" Sunday, Aug. 21 (6:30 p.m., EDT).

★ ★ ★

NBC-TV to Return to Mature Dramas

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — In the coming season NBC-TV will make a strong bid to help bring mature television drama back to the status it enjoyed in times past.

"If counting heads, we know that general drama usually doesn't have as big a drawing power as Westerns and variety shows," David Levy, vice president in charge of programs, says.

★ ★ ★

"But counting heads isn't the only criterion you should use in judging a network schedule. One needs at least one home-grown and produced drama show because it's a staple of the entertainment world."

Thus there will come into being on NBC-TV the "Sunday Showcase" of dramatic specials. Scheduled for 8 p.m., it will run against two popular programs on the opposition networks: Ed Sullivan on CBS and "Maverick" on ABC.

★ ★ ★

"Sunday Showcase" is one of three weekly hours that NBC-TV will devote to a variety of special shows embracing drama, musicals, documentaries. Tuesdays at 9:30 p.m. has been purchased by the Ford Motor Co. for what network executives feel will be an outstanding series of varied entertainment. The third hour, Fridays at 8:30 p.m., will be a nesting place for other specials, dramas and news documentaries.

Ingrid Bergman has been signed to star in a drama on the Ford series. "The Best of Durante" will launch the Friday night spot on Sept. 25, to be followed a week later by the first of a half-dozen Art Carney shows.

★ ★ ★

The first "Sunday Showcase" offering on Sept. 20 probably will be an original by S. Lee Pogostin entitled "People Kill People Sometimes." It will be followed by a two-part adaptation of Budd Schulberg's "What Makes Sammy Run?"

The Sunday night program will not be confined to drama, however. Two Milton Berle specials are slated for that hour and occasionally a news documentary will be shown. The lead-in program to "Sunday Showcase" is a new adventure series, "Riverboat," from 7 to 8 p.m.

★ ★ ★

With a few exceptions, Friday night television programming has longe been mediocre to poor. Levy believes that the new show will change the reputation of Friday evenings with many viewers.

Most of the Friday night shows have been sold to sponsors and the Sunday night shows are being sold "pretty well," Levy says.

No Nepotism, Says State Solon About Job Setups

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Michigan congressman admitted today—with no prompting at all—that he's got a relative working in his office.

She's 12 years old . . . wears bangs . . . and complains about how much money she gets.

She is the daughter of Rep. Charles E. Chamberlain (R-Mich).

★ ★ ★

Chamberlain said in a letter to his constituents that with all the widespread publicity about nepotism, they should know his daughter, Ellen, is working for him part time this summer.

However, he said the youngster is not on the federal payroll. The congressman pays her out of his own pocket.

Chamberlain said Ellen does things like stuffing and sealing envelopes and running errands.

"Our employe-employer relationship was a happy one," he said, "until Ellen discovered she didn't have much money left after buying her lunch.

"Although she claims no membership in a recognized organization, she has begun to negotiate for a salary increase and fringe benefits. Her latest persuasive and successful demand was for 15 cents an hour."

WOULD YOU TRUST YOUR HEALTH TO A "QUACK"?
Of Course Not!
DOES YOUR MONEY COME EASY ENOUGH TO . . .

Trust your TV tubes to a "Do-It-Yourself" tube tester, which in many cases is not capable of properly checking many of the Multi-element tubes which are found in most TV sets. Remember, there is absolutely no regulation which requires the owner of these "tube-testers" to keep them in perfect working order. There is no standard it must meet . . . In reality, these "tube-testers" are a joke when compared to the testers which Independent Television Service Men use.

It is our belief that "Do-It-Yourself" tube checkers MAY be designed to sell tubes. We do not know of any establishment repairing TV Sets that has one of these "Do-It-Yourself" tube testers.

Try this simple comparison and find out for yourself . . . Bring any tube which has tested "Bad" on a "Do-It-Yourself" tube tester to your nearest local TV repair shop and make sure. There is no cost. This is another community service of YOUR LOCAL TELEVISION SERVICEMAN'S ASSOCIATION.

MORE AND LESS — Number of households in the U.S. has more than doubled in the past two generations—from 20.2 million in 1910 to 50.4 million in 1958. On the other hand, size of households has declined from 450 persons per 100 households to 335. Farm families now account for only 10 per cent of the total. In 1910 it was 30 per cent. But Good Politically for Both

Nixon-Khrushchev 'Battle' Just Fun

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The public argument between Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Premier Nikita Khrushchev may have given diplomats a shock but it didn't amount to much except perhaps to help both men politically at home.

They agreed Sunday their fast set-to at the American fair in Moscow Friday was just frank and hardhitting but not belligerent. It was almost like calling the whole thing good, clean fun.

All they did was hit each other over the head with propaganda where it could get the most mileage—in front of reporters and TV—since all they said to each other had been said before by themselves or their governments.

It was pretty much an old story except for the way it was done.

It didn't come any closer to settling anything—or making anything worse—between the United States and the Soviet Union than a high school debate between an all-American boy and an all-Russian boy, each sticking up for his own country.

Both men knew any real hope they might have for settling American-Soviet differences rested in their private talks, of which they have had several.

To professional diplomats, used to washing dirty international linen out of sight and with polite palaver, the spectacle of these two high government officials stepping on each other's toes may have seemed clumsy.

But the United States and the Soviet Union both have been clumsy in the way they have handled Nixon's visit. Nixon's own government put him under a handicap and left him open to abuse before he ever got to Moscow.

There is small excuse — except on the ground of thoughtlessness — for the fact that Congress and the Eisenhower administration combined to declare last week Captive Nations Week. This was a deliberate, anti-Communist slam, intended to remind the satellite peoples this county hadn't forgotten them.

★ ★ ★

What was forgotten was that last week was also the week Nixon was to arrive in the Soviet Union and that the Russians might—as they did—take out their irritation on Nixon.

But if this was clumsy, the Soviets looked ever more gawkish. They were incredibly clumsy.

They provided the world with living evidence of Nixon's suggestion to Khrushchev that the Soviets are afraid of ideas. Khrushchev's rejoinder — "we are telling you not to be afraid of ideas" —looked ridiculous in view of events.

The Soviets insisted that more than 100 books — including the World Almanac—be taken off the shelves of the American book exhibit at Moscow.

On top of this the Soviets scrambled up the news coverage of Nixon's trip with censorship — a fact that was duly noted in the American press whose dispatches from its reporters in Moscow were delayed or chopped up.

★ ★ ★

But, while ideas unquestionably have more freedom in this country, there should be a slight pause before crowing.

It was only six years ago that the State Department — under the prodding of Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis) — went in for some book-burning among volumes on the shelves of this government's overseas libraries.

Nixon's ordeal in Latin America last year — when, because of anti-American feeling, he had to endure spit and stones — did him political good. It created great sympathy for him and appreciation for sturdiness in an ordeal.

Now his slug-fest with Khrushchev should do him political good here. Many Americans, fed up with Khrushchev's bluster, can easily identify themselves with him and tell themselves: "He told off that guy."

And Khrushchev could hardly lose at home by battering on Nixon. Any Russians, more concerned about their own feeling of inferiority toward the United States than the actual content of the argument, will no doubt applaud their premier for standing up to the American.

Hope for Weekend Wind Up

State Lawmakers Return to Mop Up Tax Battle

LANSING (AP) — Serious Senate-House differences remained as Michigan lawmakers came back today for mop up chores in their long battle over taxes.

If all went well, it was possible that the history-making legislative session, now in its 124th day, would wind up by the week's end — except for a few decisions reserved for the final adjournment meeting.

Some of the big unanswered questions:

1. The size of the settlement. The House wants a tax package yield of 135 to 140 million dollars for fiscal 1959-60. Some Republican senators contend 110 or 120 millions would be enough.

2. Inclusion of a corporation profits tax. All three House-approved tax plans contain this element. The GOP Senate majority repeatedly has opposed such a levy.

3. The cash crisis and prompt use of the veterans trust fund.

On the third point, Sen. Carlton H. Morris (R-Kalamazoo), a leading GOP Senate strategist in recent months, said over the weekend, "I don't know whether it will be necessary to use it at all."

Casting a haze over all other questions was one the Supreme Court rather than the Legislature appeared destined to answer: Is the use tax increase bill constitutional?

There is some weighty opinion that it conflicts with the constitutional three per cent limitation on the sales tax. If the Supreme Court agrees, the Legislature will have to start all over again this fall.

Queen, Philip Rest Before Trip Windup

PORT HOPE, Ont. (UPI) — Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip rested at Gov. Gen. Vincent Massey's country residence today before the windup of their 45-day Canadian tour.

The royal couple will leave Massey's batterwood house tomorrow morning aboard an Air Force comet jet transport for Fredericton, N.B., where they will begin a four-day tour of the maritime provinces. Their 15,000 mile Canadian tour ends in Halifax Aug. 1.

Yesterday the Queen rested while Philip went swimming in one of the two pools with the two daughters of Lyonel Massey, the governor general's son and private secretary.

Six of the 12 tree farmer winners in the recent nation wide 4-H forestry contest were girls.

Final Loan Year for War II Vets

WASHINGTON (UPI) — World War II veterans today entered their final year of eligibility for housing, farm or business loans under the GI bill.

The Veterans Administration noted that Congress set July 25, 1960, as the expiration date in the program.

Nearly five million veterans, 35 per cent of all eligible, have taken out $39,220,608,200 in guaranteed or insured loans under the program since it began in June 1944. While applications may be accepted for just one more year, the law allows an additional year for the processing and actual closing of loans.

Korean veterans have until Jan. 31, 1965, to apply for GI bill loans.
