Senate Probers Still 'Interested' in Pontiac Local

Investigators in Detroit May Confer With Group Battling Hoffa

Robert F. Kennedy, chief counsel for the Senate Rackets Committee, today said his investigators "were still interested in the affairs" of Pontiac Teamsters Local 614.

"We have been looking into the affairs of the local for sometime and will continue to do so," Kennedy said.

He said he or some of his assistants, might confer with some members of an insurgent group which is seeking to end the four-year trusteeship of James R. Hoffa over Local 614.

Kennedy, in Detroit since yesterday to direct the investigation of Hoffa by the committee, said he also might talk to some officials of 614.

William Bellinger, a leader of a group seeking to end Hoffa's four-year trusteeship over Local 614, expressed confidence that Kennedy's visit might mean a further investigation here.

An investigator from the committee quizzed Bellinger and other

DR. JOHN A. HANNAH

MSU President Will Tell Clubs of Local Plans

Dr. John A. Hannah, President of Michigan State University, will be the speaker at a joint meeting of luncheon clubs in this area on Thursday, Nov. 7.

The Michigan State University Oakland County project just east of Pontiac on the former Wilson estate, has aroused universal interest. Hence, the Advisory Board feels that the community would welcome a first hand appraisal of the venture from President Hannah himself.

The head of the East Lansing institution has agreed to speak here under the auspices of the local Michigan State University Advisory Board.

All luncheon clubs in this area who wish to hold their regular meetings that week on Thursday have been invited to attend.

May Stay a Month

Ike, Mamie Off to Newport

NEWPORT, R. I. (INS)—Newport took on a holiday air today for the arrival of President and Mrs. Eisenhower for a month's vacation at Coaster's Harbor Island.

The President and first lady took off in the presidential plane, Columbine III at 9 a.m., Pontiac time.

Sailors, Marines and secret service men maintained a security watch over the 92-acre island long before the President and first lady left Washington by plane on the flight to Quonset Point Naval Air Station, where they will board the Presidential yacht Barbara Anne for the trip to Newport.

Colony House, the old state house, was the scene chosen for Newport's noon hour civic reception to the President. Ceremonies will be brief and President Eisenhower will speak a few words from a special platform in front of Colony House, where the Declaration of Independence first was read to the people of Rhode Island from a second floor balcony.

Traffic will be halted in a large section of Newport until the presidential motorcade has passed on the way to the naval base.

The Washington Square section is decked with bunting and signs welcoming the President. Merchants plan to keep their establishments open during the reception in anticipation of a financial windfall.

President Eisenhower will be presented by city officials with a silver bowl and ladle, made by Italian born silversmith, Alfred Sciarotta, a silver tray made by a Providence firm, and a replica of an antique 1720 silver cup made by a Newport firm.

Weather to Remain Cloudy and Cool

Pontiac area residents can expect cloudy and cooler weather tonight and tomorrow, says the U.S. Weather Bureau. Occasional light showers are forecast for this afternoon, with a low tonight of 54-58 expected. Tomorrow's high will be 70-74.

The lowest temperature recorded in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. today was 57. At 2 p.m. the thermometer reached 66.

Set Up Air Hunt for Family of 6 Missing in Plane

Unreported Since Flight Across Lake Michigan Against Advice Monday

LANSING (AP) — State Police set up an air search of the northern lower peninsula today for a family of six missing since Monday on a flight across Lake Michigan.

Unreported from a Labor Day weekend holiday in upper peninsula were a Lansing photographic company owner, Ray Hietikko, 40, and his wife and four children.

The last report of the six said they had taken off from Marquette in mid-afternoon on Labor Day against advice. Bad weather had been reported over Lake Michigan.

Hietikko, described as an experienced flier, had taken his family to Baraga to his parents' home to help the latter celebrate their golden wedding anniversary.

In the group were his wife, Corrine, 32, and their four children, Cameron, 9; Mark, 7; Connie, 5, and Scott, 11 months.

The family was due back home in Lansing Monday night. However, they failed to arrive. State Police were notified yesterday by relatives.

On the family's return flight Heitikko was warned at Marquette of bad weather on the lake, State Police said.

However, he was reported to have gone ahead with his flight as planned.

Friends said Hietikko usually made this flight by refueling at Pellston in the northern lower peninsula.

GAS FOR 4 HOURS

When he left Marquette he was believed to have had sufficient gasoline for four hours of flying. Normally, this would have been more than sufficient to reach Pellston.

Hietikko and his wife have been married 14 years. The General Printing and Pictures Service, Inc., of Lansing is his firm.

State Police said a check of landing fields in the northern lower peninsula and upper peninsula turned up no report of the missing plane.

Participating in the search are: the Coast Guard at Traverse City, the Civil Air Patrol from Lansing, and Air Rescue Service from Selfridge Air Force Base and two State Police planes.

Searchers plan to cover the route the family flew from Marquette over Manistique and Beaver Island to Pellston in Emmet County.

Protect Our Children!

Drive With Care Near Schools

Amidst the sound of school bells ringing anew this week, comes a somber note from the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce and law enforcement officials.

The message is largely for motorists and its essence is: Protect our children.

School days are dangerous days for children going along busy roads and streets to classes, the Chamber of Commerce safety committee pointed out today.

To cut down on the danger, here's some suggestions from Clyde R. Haskill, the committee's chairman. They were echoed by Oakland County Sheriff Frank W. Irons and Pontiac Police Chief Herbert W. Straley:

Be especially careful of the younger children. Of the 134,000 youngsters headed for school this week, about 16,000 will be kindergartners going to school for the first time. Without doubt they will be confused—and probably careless in traffic—until they get used to all the new hustle and bustle, said Haskill.

Adjust your driving, Haskill continued. Many drivers have probably been pushing their speeds "just a little heavy" during the summer, he observed. "Now it's time to cut down on the speed and add a few extra minutes to traveling time, especially when going by a school," said Haskill.

Drivers were reminded that when following school buses the law requires a complete stop when the bus stops.

Haskill urged drivers to obey the signals of school crossing guards, "who do an outstanding job of protecting our children."

Older children, and their parents, came in for some advice, too. It's the older boys and girls who sometimes act "very cocky" in traffic, Haskill stated. "Besides jay-walking, many of them ride their bikes carelessly and often taunt the safety-patrol boys who are trying to guide smaller children across busy intersections.

"Parents should caution older children about these dangerous practices," Haskill said.

He concluded with this sober reminder to drivers: "If you strike a child, your conscience will never let you forget it."

Woman Doctor in Shooting Fray

Detroit Physician Says Husband Shot Her, Then Turned Gun on Himself

DETROIT (AP) — A woman physician whose former husband was freed last November of charges of shooting her was wounded today in her offices on Detroit's northwest side. Detective Sgt. William Wrathell said her ex-husband was found in the office with a bullet wound in his head.

In critical condition is Sym J. Bloch, 50. Police said he was associated with the S. J. Bloch Publishing Co. in Detroit.

His former wife, Dr. Sadie Thumin, 55, was in serious condition with a bullet wound in the right hip.

Police were called to the scene by a neighbor who heard screams and saw Dr. Thumin run from her office building. "I've been shot," she told police. "My husband is dead in the office."

Bloch was found sitting on a chair in an examining room. A .38 caliber revolver was on the floor beside him.

Soldiers Refuse to Let Negroes Enter School

Little Rock Crowd Yells at Youngsters Trying to Pass Guardsmen

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — National Guardsmen, following orders of Gov. Orval Faubus, today forcibly prevented racial desegregation of Little Rock Central High School. The soldiers turned back a total of nine Negroes who tried to enter the 2,000-pupil all-white school.

A crowd of some 300 whites milled about in front of the school shouting such phrases as "Nigger, go back where you belong" but the whites made no attempt to harm the Negroes.

Maj. Gen. Sherman T. Clinger, Arkansas adjutant general, said the Guardsmen, all whites, were acting on the governor's orders.

"Gov. Faubus has declared Central High off limits to Negroes," Clinger told newsmen.

An unaccompanied 15-year-old Negro girl made the first attempt to cross a line of about 200 soldiers standing shoulder to shoulder. As she repeatedly attempted to pass through the formation, an armed Guardsman stepped forward and silently turned her back.

FOLLOWED BY BOY

She was followed a few minutes later by a Negro boy, also 15, who walked up to the Guardsmen but made no attempt to pass.

The crowd of whites, which doubled in size almost at the instant the Negro girl appeared, was noisy and abusive in its language compared to the quiet, orderly crowd of 500, which gathered in front of the high school yesterday.

Pontiac Leads Divisions in Boosting Production

Pontiac Motor Division continues to lead the General Motors Divisions in boosting 1956 production figures in 1957, a monthly report disclosed today.

Pontiac produced 29,129 units in August, compared to 26,084 in August, 1956. In the eight months through August, Pontiac rolled out 253,890 units, compared to 238,901 at this same time last year.

The only other car division showing an August 1957 increase over 1956 figures was Cadillac, with 13,445 units last month, compared to 13,277 a year ago.

Pontiac and Cadillac are the only two divisions showing production increase over 1956 during the first eight months of the year.

General Motors production in the United States and Canada was 283,293 passenger cars and trucks in August, and 307,926 in August, 1956. For the eight months of 1957, GM has built 2,444,728 units, and 2,656,084 in the same period of 1956.

GM Truck & Coach division marked up 5,598 units in August, compared to 7,215 in August, 1956. For the year, Truck & Coach has produced 48,583 vehicles. Some 66,961 came off the lines in the same period of 1956.

GM passenger car divisions, and their 1957 and 1956 production figures for the first eight months of the year, are: Chevrolet, 1,067,822 in '57, 1,136,749 in '56; Oldsmobile, 284,860 in '57, 318,564 in '56; Buick, 292,684 in '57, 402,310 in '56; Cadillac, 111,923 in '57, 109,450 in '56.

First Soviet Civilian Flight Due in New Jersey Tonight

Red Airliner Roars Across Ocean En Route to U.S.

LONDON (AP) —A big Russian jet airliner roared out of London airport today for the first flight to the United States by a Soviet civilian plane.

FIRST IN 20 YEARS

From Keflavik it will fly to Gander, Nfld., and then on to McGuire Air Force Base in New Jersey. It will be the first Russian plane to land in the United States in 20 years.

The 5,570-mile Moscow-to-McGuire flight was expected to take about 18 hours total flying time.

The last Russian aircraft to visit the United States — a military plane in 1937 — made a 6,200-mile flight in 62 hours, flying over the North Pole.

REPORTS CONFLICT

There were conflicting reports of the number of persons aboard the TU104. A Moscow radio broadcast said 60 passengers boarded the plane but a news dispatch from the Soviet capital said there were 19 and a crew of 12, including three Britons. A Transport Ministry official at London Airport said the plane carried 36 passengers.

Some passengers stayed aboard during the refueling stop in London, making an accurate count difficult. Most of those aboard were translators and minor officials of the Soviet delegation to the U. N. General Assembly. The McGuire base is about 60 miles from the site of U. N. headquarters in New York City.

The 1,610-mile flight from Moscow to London was made in 3 hours 46 minutes. Keflavik is 1,190 miles farther along, Gander another 1,585 miles and McGuire another 1,185.

The TU104 was expected at the New Jersey air base early tonight.

Departure of the big twin-jet from Moscow's Vnukova Airport was delayed nearly three hours because of bad weather over London.

At Gander, an American pilot and radio operator will be put aboard to guide the liner after it enters American air space.

The 12 crewmen boarding the plane in Moscow included three British Royal Air Force officers. It was their job to help navigate to London and Newfoundland.

REDS OBJECT

Top members of the delegation are tentatively scheduled to leave Moscow aboard a second TU104 Sept. 14.

The Soviet government raised a last-minute objection to landing at McGuire yesterday, but the United States refused to change the flight plan.

Russian Embassy officials in Washington complained that McGuire was 60 miles from New York, the destination of the passengers, and asked permission to land at Idlewild Airport, the usual arrival point for aircraft from overseas. Idlewild is 10 miles on the other side of U. N. headquarters.

RUSSIAN JET LEAVING FOR U. S. — The Soviet TU104 twin-jet airliner takes off from Moscow's Vnukova airfield early today for London, its first stop on a flight to the United States. Troops Use Force to Halt Integration rarily called off its Federal court-approved gradual desegregation plan which had been scheduled to become effective with school opening yesterday.

Last night, Federal Judge Ronald Davies for the second time since Friday directed the board to proceed with integration at Central High.

The Negro girl, who identified herself as Elizabeth Echford, was engulfed by whites as she attempted to pass through the Guardsmen. They shouted "Nigger go back where you belong" and "Nigger go back to Africa." One muttered, "Let her go, she's being paid for it."

There were no attempts to harm the Negro girl.

Moments later a Negro boy, who said he was Terrance Roberts, 15, walked up to the guardsmen and stood quietly, making no attempt to pass.

A white youth lunged at him and a guardsmen reacted quickly. The soldier grabbed the white youth, searched him for weapons and thrust him back into the milling crowd.

Farther down the line, seven Negro students accompanied by a few Negro adults, asked a National Guard officer to allow them in the school. Passage was again denied.

The Negro girl, who refused to answer newsmen's questions except to identify herself, sat on a bench across the street from the school. After soldiers had dispersed a crowd of 50 whites who had gathered about her, she sobbed briefly.

The crowd became aroused when a white woman approached the girl in a friendly manner. The white woman and the Negro girl boarded a bus together. The other Negroes also left about 30 minutes after they had arrived and classes, containing only white students, began inside Central High.

The Justice Department in Washington indicated it looked on the Little Rock situation as serious. Officials said the government's course of action would not be decided on until Atty. Gen. Brownell had the facts.

Here are some of the possible actions the government might take:

1. A high federal official might discuss the case with Faubus and Davies in an effort to work out a peaceful integration program acceptable to all.

2. Davies might bring about a trial for contempt of court.

3. The government might take action to declare unconstitutional the anti-integration school laws adopted recently by the Arkansas Legislature.

One point the Justice Department will scrutinize closely is whether the governor called out the guard solely to maintain order or whether it was intended as a maneuver to maintain segregation.

DENY MAGAZINE STORIES — Two well-known actresses took the stand in Los Angeles to deny truth of stories about themselves in Confidential magazine. Miss O'Hara denied that she participated in a lovemaking affair in Grauman's Chinese Theater. Dorothy Dandridge, who already has received a $10,000 out-of-court settlement from the magazine, denied a story printed about her behavior.

Actress, Singer Snap Denials on Stand in Confidential Trial

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Glamorous actress Maureen O'Hara and sultry singer Dorothy Dandridge have declared on the witness stand that Confidential magazine stories involving them in theater and woodland love-making episodes were untrue.

The two stars put glitter into the criminal libel trial of the magazine yesterday when, their eyes flashing angrily, they snapped their denials while testifying for the prosecution.

They were the first, and perhaps the last, celebrities to appear in the trial of Confidential and Whisper magazines and their Hollywood agents Fred and Marjorie Meade. The prosecution expects to complete its rebuttal testimony today.

'DIDN'T CUDDLE'

Miss O'Hara testified that the story entitled "When Maureen O'Hara Cuddled in Row 35" was completely false.

Outside the courtroom she told newsmen that she has not had an offer of work since the article appeared and that she feels the story is to blame. She has sued Confidential for five million dollars.

The red-haired Miss O'Hara came to court attired in a blue and white striped dress and white stitched hat. While on the witness stand she told the court that she was in Grauman's Chinese Theater in Hollywood only twice during 1953 and 1954, both times to attend premieres with her brothers.

Those years include the disputed periods in which, defense witnesses have testified, Miss O'Hara was seen in a rear row of the theater, embracing passionately with a Latin man.

'WOODS TALE A LIE'

Miss Dandridge, Negro singer and actress, said a story entitled "What Dorothy Dandridge Did in the Woods" was "absolutely not true." She testified she did not walk or make love in the woods with white band leader Daniel Terry while playing an engagement at Lake Tahoe, on the California-Nevada border, seven years ago.

Trim Miss Dandridge wore a beige suit and white shoes and gloves with a pearl choker and pearl earrings.

The time of Miss O'Hara's supposed torrid lovemaking in the theater had been set as November 1953 by a former Grauman's employe, James Craig. He said he supplied the information for the Confidential story. Another defense witness, Michael Casey, placed the incident in February 1954.

Miss O'Hara testified that she was in Europe making a picture from Oct. 6, 1953, to Jan. 11, 1954, and produced her passport to prove it.

The name of the man purported to be the "Latin lover" in the Confidential story was brought out by defense attorney Arthur J. Crowley on cross-examination. He elicited from Miss O'Hara the statement that she was dating a Mexican man in February 1954, and then asked her the man's name. Miss O'Hara said it was Enrique Parra.

Parra is a millionaire Mexico City businessman. Miss O'Hara's former husband, television executive Will Price, alleged in a child custody suit that Miss O'Hara and Parra were living together but later withdrew the charges and said they were not true.

Crowley later asked: "Have you ever been to Grauman's Chinese Theater with Mr. Parra?"

ANGRY DENIAL

"Never," Miss O'Hara replied.

In her brief appearance on the stand, Miss Dandridge shot an angry "no" to Dep. Dist. Atty. William Ritzi's question as to whether she had been intimate with band leader Terry.

Defendant Fred Meade had testified earlier that Terry gave him an affidavit relating his alleged tryst with Miss Dandridge on the shores of Lake Tahoe.

"Did you ever go for a ride with Mr. Terry?" Ritzi asked.

"No."

"Did you ever walk in the woods with Mr. Terry?"

"No."

"Miss Dandridge, I hope you will pardon me when I say this, but is Mr. Terry a white man or is he a colored man?"

"Mr. Terry is a white man."

On cross-examination, Crowley asked Miss Dandridge: "Did you ever walk out into the trees alone or with anyone else?"

"I wouldn't have done that alone as Lake Tahoe at that time was very prejudiced, as you know, and I don't think I would have wanted to walk around. Negroes were not permitted that kind of freedom in Lake Tahoe at the time," she replied.

Before the two stars' appearance, the jury visited Grauman's Chinese Theater to inspect the row of seats where the alleged necking party was said to have taken place.

Expect Drain Trial in Month

County Conducts Study of Apportionment, Cost in 12-Town Project

Oakland County should be ready for trial of the Twelve-Town Drain dispute next month, Drain Commissioner Daniel W. Barry said today.

Reappraisal of apportionments and costs should be ready then to meet challenges by two participating communities that they are being charged too much, Barry said.

The $39 million project, in the planning stage five years, is designed to relieve annual flooding in 13 south Oakland County communities.

Two communities, Southfield Township and Troy, brought suit last fall, but the suit has never been tried.

Early last month, the 11 other communities demanded action by the county.

Royal Oak, the largest city involved, threatened to pull out of the project Nov. 15 if steps were not taken to break the legal stalemate.

Barry said today he had conferred with Corporation Counsel Harry J. Merritt, and believed the case would be ready for Circuit Court trial Oct 21.

Teenagers Need Driver Training to Get License

Are you a youngster planning on getting a driver's license soon? State law says you have to take a driver training course first.

Aspiring drivers age 15, 16 and 17 can get their training free at Pontiac High School. If you live in the Pontiac School District you may attend the driver training course even if you are not a regular high school student.

Register as soon as possible, George Stewart, chairman of the program, advised today. There's a limited number of openings, and they will be filled on a first-come, first-serve basis, he said.

Registration hours for classes beginning this month are from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Sept. 5, 6, 9, 10 and 11 at the high school. The classes will be one hour daily until the end of the semester in January.

The law does not apply to persons 18 or older.

Saginaw Eyes New Bus Plan

May Assist Operators Stay in Business by Lease Agreement

SAGINAW—City councilmen are moving ever closer to municipal leasing of Saginaw City Lines bus system, the so-called Jackson Plan.

Mayor Harvey will invite all members of the Council to go to Jackson to see how that city's lease arrangement with City Lines is working out.

Harvey is acting on a suggestion made by City Manager Miller.

Proposing the Jackson trip, Miller said: "The only thing that seems to offer a solution (to the problem of keeping buses operating here) is the Jackson lease arrangement. The Jackson city manager says it's working out all right."

Under the lease arrangement, City Lines continues to operate its buses but escapes paying federal and state taxes, since a city is exempt from these levies. That would mean an estimated saving of some $20,000 to Saginaw City Lines, according to City Lines figures.

During a Council discussion of proposed City Lines route changes and Saturday service cuts, Mayor Harvey declared:

Pontiac Man Arraigned on Charge of Murder

Accused of second degree murder, Brozie Reed, 32, of 295 Howard McNeil St., was arraigned this morning in municipal court.

Examination was set for Sept. 18 and bond fixed at $300.

Reed is charged with the fatal stabbing of James Quiet, 27, of 241 Wilson St., during a sidewalk scuffle near Reed's home. He claims the stabbing was accidental.

Waterford OKs Zoning Changes

22 Acres of Property Are Made Available for Light Manufacturing

Waterford Township Board members approved the rezoning of 22 acres from residential to light manufacturing at last night's meeting.

The triangular-shaped property is located on Williams Lake road, near Airport road, and is bounded by the Grand Trunk Railroad on the east side.

A wholesale lumber company will be built on the site and will employ approximately 100 people, according to Donald Wilson, representing the firm.

Later, a mill workshop for making custom doors and windows will probably be constructed, Wilson said.

Two other plots in the township were also rezoned from residential to commercial.

A 2¼-acre plot located on the corner of Scott Lake and Pontiac Lake Rds. and an additional 100 feet of property on M59, extending back of the high school, were rezoned. Two hundred feet of this land had been rezoned last year.

REZONING TABLED

The rezoning from residential to commercial of the Walton boulevard property near Indian Woods Manor was tabled for further study.

Other business of the board was the approval of using a former policy to pay one-half the salary of school crossing guards. The Board of Education pays the other half.

No action has been taken to replace Trustee Richard Lamberton who has moved to California. Supervisor Elmer Johnson has asked the four remaining members to consider a replacement.

In the monthly police report submitted by Capt. Millard J. Pender there were only 12 summons issued, 11 arrests made and 451 calls answered. Accidents totaled 49, and patrolmen drove 9,585 miles during the month of August.

The board accepted Johnson's resignation from the County Recreation Board and appointed Treasurer Mrs. Dorothy Olson to represent the township. Johnson had held the position for six years.

Tot Writes 'Ben' About That Crack in Liberty Bell

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "Dear Ben Franklin," wrote an unidentified 7-year-old girl from Columbus, Ohio, a recent tourist visitor to Philadelphia.

"Thank you for the nice picture you gave me. I like you very much but I am worried about the crack in the Liberty Bell and I am writing this so you will please take care of the Liberty Bell."

The note was addressed to the Benjamin Franklin Hotel here.

The Day in Birmingham

Adams Leader Seeks Aid in School Road Blockade

BIRMINGHAM—Assistance from commissioners and Birmingham police was sought last night by Walter McPherson, 815 Oakland Ave., president of the PTA at Adams School.

McPherson asked if the blockades closing Oakland in the vicinity of the school could not be replaced.

In the past this has been done throughout the school year. Adams School has the unique situation of its playground being located across the street from the building.

Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley said the reason this had not been blocked was due to the construction on East Maple road and the fact that Oakland is one of the East-West detour streets.

Commissioners asked Moxley to confer with school officials and see what arrangements could be made to have the barricades erected from the first recess period in the morning to the last in the afternoon, including lunch hour.

It was explained that at the start of construction, the Maple Ave. completion date was set for Aug. 31. Difficulties on the job, including a ruptured sewer line, has delayed the project.

It is doubtful now that the street will be open before the end of September.

The United Church Women of Birmingham are welcoming the new women teachers in the Birmingham School District at tea tomorrow, at the home of Mrs. Earl Triplett, 480 N. Williamsbury Rd.

Building representatives of the Birmingham Education Assn., a teachers organization, have been invited to help introduce the new teachers.

Mrs. Triplett, chairman of Christian Social Relations in the United Church Women, is heading the committee in charge of plans. Assisting her are Mrs. George Burnham, Mrs. Edmund Leavenworth, and the group's president, Mrs. Fraser Pomeroy.

Action on the proposed plan to set special assessment district costs of street paving was tabled last night.

Commissioners said that they felt the city engineer had made an excellent start on the establishment of the assessment plan.

However, they feel there are a few phases such as price ratios, which must be clarified before any definite acceptance is made.

Rap Dumping in Area of City

60 Residents Complain to City Commissioners of Rat-Infested Section

Sixty members of the Woodward Estates Property Owners Assn. petitioned the City Commission last night to eliminate what they called a rat, snake and mosquito infested area in their neighborhood.

"It is a violation of the zoning code, which was brought to your attention a couple of weeks ago, with nothing being done," said Colon R. McGlown, of 208 Luther St., spokesman for the group.

The city informed the group that steps were taken immediately to correct the violation occuring in an area bounded by Earlmoor, Luther, and Howland. City officials say Pontiac contractor J. A. Fredman, 735 S. Paddock St., uses the area for dumping building materials.

A warning to correct the conditions, which officials agree are in violation of the Residential zoning, has been sent by the city attorney, commissioners told the 22 persons at last night's session.

Possible court action might result if the area is not cleared, officials promised.

After hearing two other complaints from the citizens, Mayor William W. Donaldson asked that they cooperate with the city by supplying license numbers of cars reportedly dumping garbage illegally off Bagley street.

The long silver fiberglas body is mounted over a conventional frame and engine, but convention stops there.

The Rev. Alfred Juliano has spent two years working in his spare time in a barn here to build the "Aurora," and his principal aim has been to make it as safe as possible.

The car does not resemble the new models that come out of Detroit every year. It has a huge scooped-out nose, a "reverse-slant" windshield, which doubles back on itself, an all-glass top and many other radical features.

As soon as finishing touches are completed, the car will start a tour of 120 cities.

As for cost, Father Juliano estimates it would cost $300,000 to duplicate the car in Detroit, and $15,000 to produce it on a limited basis. These prices refer to a fully equipped car, and not just the body shell.

He said it would be much cheaper over the long run than present cars.

As he puts it: "These days you drive a car three or four years, and then you have to scrap it. With the Aurora's features and design you could install a quality motor and use it without a breakdown or a major repair bill for a lifetime."

The fiberglas body will "bounce back," if dented less than four inches deep, he said. He estimated repair costs would be only one-tenth as much as steel-bodied cars.

Some of the other safety features:

Reversible seats.

Hydraulic shock absorbers for both front and rear bumpers.

Four steel roll-over bars (to support the car's roof.)

Six aviation lights mounted as headlights in the nose scoop.

Air jets to do the work of windshield wipers.

A telescopic, collapsible steering column.

No inside or outside hardware or ornaments.

Foam rubber padding throughout.

A recessed instrument panel.

Kiwanis Honors Former Official Nelse Knudsen

Members of the Downtown Pontiac Kiwanis Club turned out Tuesday to honor a former Kiwanis official and Pontiac city commissioner, Nelse Knudsen.

The "Flowers to the Living" program, a Kiwanis custom in honoring past dignitaries, was held during the regular noon luncheon at the Waldron Hotel.

Many local and district officials attended, paying tribute to the man who rose from president of the local club to the positions of lieutenant governor, district governor, and then filled a position on the international committee.

Knudsen now has a home in Hollywood, Fla. An estimated 100 members attended the program.

Kennedy to Continue Detroit Labor Probe

past and present members of 614 in July.

Back in May Kennedy told The Press that an investigation here "was still under consideration."

Bellinger, 33, of Drayton Plains, said he has not been contacted by Kennedy but he "hoped" he would.

An insurgent group, reported at one time to number 2,000, has fought from time to time since October 1953 to loosen Hoffa's trusteeship over Local 614. The trusteeship was ordered then by Teamsters President Dave Beck when two 614 officers were convicted on conspiracy to bribe charges.

The anti-Hoffa faction also seek an election of officers from the rank-and-file, which they say has been denied them since Hoffa took over.

The group was unsuccessful in June in their latest ouster attempt when some 10 pickets paraded for eight days in front of the hall at 1410 S. Telegraph Rd.

The 450 stewards representing the 14,000 members of Detroit Teamsters Local 299 gave Hoffa, its president, a vote of confidence last night.

Back in March, preceding a request for an investigation of Local 614, some 50 members here voted the same for their leader. Membership of the local, officials say, is 3,500.

Whitelaw Wins 2nd Golf Title at Orchard Lake

For the 2nd time in the last five years Pete Whitelaw has taken the top golf prize at Orchard Lake CC. Pete won the club crown in 1953, did it again first of the week. He defeated Dick Groves 7 and 6 in the 36-hole match finals.

Whitelaw never trailed and after the 1-up lead at end of nine, he turned on the heat, reaching the 7-up point at the 30th hole. He was 5-up at 18.

Phil deBeaubien won the club directors' tourney with 138 medal (net) card for the 36-hole grind. He had a net 68-70 (gross 74-76). A tie for runnerup spot at 144 between Earl Bramlett and Bill Sessions, will be played off, probably this weekend.

GUARDSMEN ENFORCE SEGREGATION — Acting on the orders of Gov. Orval Faubus, National Guard troops at Little Rock, Ark., turn back four of the nine Negro students who tried to enter all-white Central High School.

COSTS ONLY $300,000 — The creator of this car of the future, the "Aurora," is the Rev. Alfred Juliano, a Catholic priest studying and sculpturing at Yale. The car was designed primarily for safety, and he estimates it would cost about $300,000 to reproduce in Detroit. He gave the car its first public showing recently in Branford, Conn.

Integration Woe Varies by Area

Negroes Enter Some Schools Without Issue; Opposition Elsewhere

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A federal judge last night ordered school officials at Little Rock, Ark., to proceed with integration of a high school surrounded by National Guardsmen.

Gov. Orval Faubus, who called out the guardsmen, said his next order to them is a military secret.

In North Carolina, the focal point shifted from Greensboro to Charlotte. Five Negroes entered previously all - white schools at Greensboro yesterday with little fuss. One Negro pupil planned to enroll in each of four white schools at Charlotte today.

One Negro is to enter a white school at Winston-Salem, N. C. tomorrow.

Police dispersed about a dozen hecklers, mostly youths, who jeered the Negro students at Greensboro.

At Durham, the Board of Education unanimously rejected appeals by parents of nine Negro students for reassignment to the nearest nonsegregated school in their area.

Seventeen Negro pupils were ready to begin integrated classes today at Sturgis, Ky., W. W. Waller, president of the Union County Citizens Council, said the council is prepared to boycott Sturgis High if Negroes are admitted.

In North Little Rock, just across the Arkansas River, integration scheduled for Monday was postponed indefinitely.

In contrast, integration at Van Buren, in west Arkansas, began quietly. High school classes were opened yesterday to 23 Negroes and several hundred white pupils.

Pontiac City Affairs

County Moves to Improve Substandard City Housing

Oakland County informed Pontiac city commissioners that steps have been taken to improve substandard county-owned housing in the city's north end.

"We have been attempting to improve these housing facilities and shall continue to do so to the extent of money allocations," said J. A. MacDonald, chairman of the county Department of Social Welfare.

The city acted last month to correct health code violations of county-owned buildings on Stanley avenue and Kennett road and of "any other publicly owned buildings within the city."

MacDonald, in a letter to the commission, said some of the units might be razed.

The commission took no further action on the matter. "We are happy to note some improvement is being made," Mayor William W. Donaldson said.

Commissioners approved a mortgage waiver in connection with construction of a new Barber Flying Service, Inc. building at the city airport.

The Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce thanked the city for its participation during the 50th anniversary celebration of Pontiac Motor Division.

Two public improvement projects were confirmed and payments set last evening.

South Carolina Officials Seek Escapee in Hawaii

COLUMBIA, S. C. (AP) — Two South Carolina officials were due in Hawaii today to oppose George Leroy Page's fight against his return to a U. S. prison.

Page, 28, former husband of a Port Huron, Mich., girl who has promised to stand by him, is fighting extradition. He is wanted as a convicted murderer in South Carolina. He escaped from prison there in 1954. He had been sentenced in 1946 in the fatal shooting of a taxicab driver.

"Marrying that girl was as low as anything I did," Page said of his prior marriage to Betty Lou Fitzner in Port Huron.

Three Crewmen Injured as Jet Bomber Crashes

DANBURY, Tex. (AP)—A B66 jet bomber from Hurlburt Field in Florida crashed into an oil tank near Danbury last night, setting off a fire visible for miles.

The three crewmen parachuted before the crash. All three were injured, one critically, when they ejected themselves after the plane developed engine trouble.

Officials at Ellington Air Force Base at nearby Houston identified the crewmen as Capt. Arthur J. Manzo, 30; 1st Lt. David E. Moore 25; and Sgt. Albert I. Newland, 26.

Manzo was reported in critical condition with a skull fracture. Moore had a broken ankle and Newland a fractured arm.

AN OPEN LETTER TO O-JIB-WA USERS

O-JIB-WA Medicine Company

MANUFACTURERS AND DISTRIBUTORS OF O-JIB-WA MEDICINES AND HERB PRODUCTS

TELEPHONE 3-3634 2101 SOUTH SAGINAW STREET FLINT 2, MICHIGAN

AUGUST 1957

DEAR FRIENDS:

RECENTLY OUR COMPANY WAS BEEN UNDER ATTACK BY THE FTC FOR ALLEGED FALSE ADVERTISING. WE WISH TO TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO TELL OUR SIDE OF THE STORY.

FOR OVER 42 YEARS, O-JIB-WA BITTERS HAS BEEN MICHIGAN'S LEADING MEDICINE IN BRINGING RESULTS TO HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE WHO SUFFERED WITH RHEUMATISM AND ARTHRITIS. MANY PEOPLE HAVE CALLED OR WRITTEN TO US, ASKING IF THEY COULD HELP IN ANY WAY. UNFORTUNATELY, THE COMMISSION WILL RECOGNIZE TESTIMONY ONLY BY DOCTORS AND NOT BY YOU, THE SATISFIED USERS——————IS THAT FAIR?

WE DO NOT CLAIM TO CURE, OR TO EVER HELP EVERY USER OF OUR PRODUCTS, (NO DOCTOR), BUT WE HAVE AIDED A GREAT MANY SUFFERERS; MANY WHO TOOK O-JIB-WA BITTERS FOR RHEUMATISM AND ARTHRITIS AS A LAST RESORT. YOU HAVE VERY LIKELY READ THE TRUE, UNPAID FOR, TESTIMONIALS FROM SOME OF THESE SATISFIED CUSTOMERS.

THE GOVERNMENT AGREES THAT ASPIRIN WILL GIVE SOME PEOPLE TEMPORARY RELIEF OF PAIN DUE TO MANY AILMENTS, BUT WE HAVE NEVER FOUND IT AT ALL NECESSARY TO ADD A PAIN KILLER OR ANY DOPE WHATSOEVER TO OUR BITTERS TO SELL MEDICINE, AS IT SEEMS TO BRING THE RESULTS PEOPLE WANT WITHOUT.

TO OUR THOUSANDS OF GOOD CUSTOMERS, WE WISH TO ANNOUNCE THAT REGARDLESS OF THE FINAL OUTCOME OF THIS HEARING, OUR MEDICINE WILL CONTINUE TO BE AVAILABLE AT YOUR LOCAL DRUG STORE.

SINCERELY YOURS,

THE O-JIB-WA MANAGEMENT

Public to View Road Facilities

Open House Is Planned by Commission for Wednesday, Sept. 11

The Oakland County Road Commission is getting one of the most modern highway administration plants in Michigan. The public is invited to take a look at it next week.

Road Commissioners Sol D. Lomerson, Robert O. Felt and Lee O. Brooks today announced an open house from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Sept. 11 at the commission's new headquarters, 2420 Pontiac Lake Rd. in the county's service center.

On view will be the new administrative quarters, garage, maintenance offices, paint shop, electrical laboratory, carpenter and sign shops.

The $600,000-plus center occupies 68,700 square feet of floor space. It sprawls on a 22-acre site, where facilities for running the county's expanding road program have been centralized as much as possible.

The final phase of the construction program is still in the planning stage. Bids are expected to be accepted soon for another garage, to help house the commission's large fleet of rolling equipment, and for additional storage space.

But the center's major attractions are ready for next week's inspection, the commissioners said.

Refreshments, tours and an informal program will round out the open house. Visitors will be able to park in the commission's 200-stall lot.

Junior Editors HISTORY QUIZ

QUESTION: Who was the youngest American ever to command a naval ship?

ANSWER: David Farragut joined the Navy at the age of 9 and showed such aptitude that he soon became a midshipman. He was serving on the "Essex" under Capt. David Porter in the War of 1812. When the "Essex" captured a British ship off Chile, Porter had young David command it en route to port. David was then 12 years old.

Farragut moved up quickly in the Navy. He fought pirates in the West Indies, participated in the Mexican War and helped establish Mare Island Navy Yard in San Francisco. He became a Northern hero in the Civil War for his part in the capture of New Orleans and Mobile. In the latter battle he uttered his famous remark: "Damn the torpedoes. Full speed ahead!" After the fall of Mobile, Congress honored Farragut by making him America's first rear admiral.

FOR YOU TO DO: Paste this picture on cardboard, cut it out and color it.

(Robert Smith of Midwest City, Okla., won $10 for this question. Send yours to Violet Moore Higgins, AP Newsfeatures, in care of this newspaper. Tomorrow: How does a fly walk on the ceiling?)

Industry Needs Skilled Workers

Urban League Speakers Urge Negroes to Learn New Trades Now

DETROIT (AP) — Agreeing technological advances in the years ahead will require more and more skilled workers, an industrialist and a union executive today urged Negroes to increase their skills and learn new trades and techniques to share proportionately in the foreseen prosperity.

The men are Robert W. Conder, vice president-personnel of the Chrysler Corp., and Carl Huhndorff, research director of the International Assn. of Machinists. Their views came in separate speeches prepared for delivery before the National Urban League's convention.

"You can't put a man on a skilled job simply by wishing him there," said Huhndorff to the interracial group dedicated to economic and cultural equality.

"The naked truth is," Huhndorff continued "that many Negroes are not ready to take advantage of opportunities that already exist. I realize that the Negro has operated in a vicious cycle in the past.

"Because he had no job opportunities in the skilled trades, he had no reason to develop his skills. And because he had no trained skills, he could not break into the skilled trades."

Conder told the delegates:

"In my opinion the soundest way to improve the status of any major group is first to identify the areas of prime economic need that are clearly shaping up for the years immediately ahead and then to do everything possible to help prepare the members of the group to meet those needs."

Conder said that over the next 10 to 20 years, "the basic fact to keep in mind is that the country as a whole will be hard pressed to find enough people to do its work."

In the automotive field, Conder said it had been estimated at least 250,000 additional automotive mechanics will be needed by 1965.

He said enrollment in Negro colleges had increased from 27,000 in 1930 to 196,000 — a figure larger than the total college enrollment in the British Isles.

CONSTIPATED?

new laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks

without gag, bloat or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon. A "thrifty" colon is one that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

TO REGAIN NORMAL REGULARITY two things are necessary. First, the dry, shrunken contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be re-moistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to S-T-R-E-T-C-H STIMULATE it and so, excite its muscles to action; to a normal urge to purge.

ONLY A BULK LAXATIVE can 1) re-moisten this dry, shrunken waste and 2) supply vital bulk to re-create a normal urge to purge. And, of all bulk laxatives, COLONAID, the amazing new lavative discovery is so effective that it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, yet is so smooth, so gentle it has been proved safe even for women in the most critical stages of pregnancy.

SUPERIOR TO OLD STYLE bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONAID neither gags, bloats nor gripes; does not interfere with your absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; and in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other side reactions.

IT'S A PHYSIOLOGICAL FACT: Exercise tones your body! And COLONAID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Whether occasional, frequent or chronic, whatever your degree of constipation, get COLONAID, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! The price, only 98c for the economical 60 tablet package, brings you positive relief at less than 2c per tablet.

Armed Forces Welfare Chief Interest in Versatile Life of Cardinal Spellman

(This is the 3rd of 5 articles in which a famed writer describes the full, often dramatic life of Francis Cardinal Spellman, who will observe the 25th anniversary of his consecration as a bishop on Sept. 8.)

By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK (INS) — Francis Joseph Cardinal Spellman is a man of many sides. He neglects none. But one facet that is of always pressing interest to him is his role of military vicar of the armed forces.

"American soldiers have taught me better than I could have learned in any other way what America means to me," he said once before flying to Korea to spend Christmas with the troops.

Last year His Eminence visited airmen at Thule, the giant U.S. Air Force base well above the Arctic Circle in Greenland.

Thule, in the event of war with Russia, would be a foremost target of the Red Air Force and its missiles, for it stands like a sentinel against over-the-pole assault. The message Spellman took there to the men was the same, in effect, as that which Radio Free Europe broadcast for him to other American servicemen overseas:

"What man can trust another man who scorns God, whose faith is founded in forces of arms, whose creed is hate and whose law of life is lust? God intended no man to be slave to another, or that there be any master except the Divine Master; and the time will surely come when the godless guilt-ridden victors of today will be the vanquished."

Spellman comes home from such trips with his pockets stuffed with scribbled addresses, reminding him to write to parents and transmit the welcome news that he saw so and so in such and such a place and he looked fine and sends his love. It is a chore he tackles with relish, this task of bearing tidings. Sometimes, they are sad.

"Please see if Lt. Don D. Friesen of Salina, Kansas, is here," he asked a genuflecting aide as he stepped off a plane at Tokyo airport en route to Korea just before Christmas, 1955.

Friesen came forward, an orchid corsage in his hand. The flower was for the wife he was awaiting.

"Mrs. Friesen and the baby became ill in Alaska," the Cardinal said, and he could not have been more concerned if he had been transmitting some matter of grave import to the pope. "They'll be okay, don't worry. It just means a little delay. They're in good hands. She carried the baby to the ambulance. I carried the baggage."

"You have walked in the footsteps of Christ by going about doing good for the people," auxiliary bishop Joseph F. Flannelly said of him from the pulpit at St. Patrick's on his first appearance after the trip. "You are the great missionary of this century."

WORLD A VOLCANO

He does not always come home elated. A year ago, after representing the Holy Father at the Eucharistic Congress in Manila, and later visiting Okinawa and Japan, Spellman told reporters at the airport, "the entire world is a volcano. From which crater the flames of war may burst forth is unknown. The entire situation is delicate and dangerous." He calls repeatedly for a "spiritual defense" against the foes of freedom as much as a material defense. The alternative, he said in his Christmas telecast of 1954, is "more agonizing blood-letting years of war . . . any American who defies God and denies America his undivided allegiance is an enemy of our country, an enemy of liberty, and enemy of peace."

In his job of military vicar, and a principal trouble-shooter for the Pope, Spellman has taken chances on his life well beyond the call of normal duty. To make a close connection at Idlewild, on a trip to Vienna in 1953, he had to take a helicopter from a parking lot outside the Polo Grounds (where he had attended a Holy Name rally) to fly to the big international airport. On March 9, 1950, he walked out of a train wreck near Florence, Italy, a wreck which strewed its remains over a quarter of a mile of twisted track.

On March 20, 1943, just back in London after a flight from Algiers, he was thrown about when the car in which he was riding blew a tire and collided with another. In a sleet storm in Korea in '53 the jeep ahead of his toppled into a ditch. Spellman, an agile man for all his plumpness, clambered into the hole and helped pull the men to safety.

But curiously he came closest to meeting his end in the safety and comfort of New York. On July 28, 1945, a B-25 twin-engined bomber, groping its way through a heavy overcast en route to La Guardia, crashed into the 79th floor of the Empire State Building. It was a direct hit on the New York branch of the National Catholic Welfare Conference. Thirteen were killed in the office, 25 injured. Spellman, a vigorously punctual man, was scheduled to be in the offices at precisely that time. Some detail detained him. A priest at St. Patrick's identified the detail as "the grace of God."

(Tomorrow: A day in the life of Cardinal Spellman.)

We Proved That It Can Be Done

Again the Pontiac area proves that death on the highway is not a necessary adjunct of a holiday weekend.

Oakland County, with its population in excess of 600,000 and probably almost as many more visitors, did not have a fatality during the 78-hour period marked out for the Labor Day holiday.

During that time the nation exceeded its expected number.

Predominant in passing out the credit for this exceptional record is the watchful and careful work of our traffic officers.

Many of them worked overtime, others volunteered their help, and all contributed to a situation to which everybody can point with pride.

Perhaps the advance notice that everything would be done by the officers to prevent the desecration of the holiday had something to do with it.

The preliminary notices of the augmented forces of protection without doubt gave the speed specialist and careless cruiser food for sober thought.

As a result we have today untold thousands of happy homes, with no loved ones eliminated by the highway killers who had been made aware that their lawless actions would not be tolerated.

Probably no other similar area in the entire nation can show such a record. It should foster an even greater respect of our law enforcement men.

If we can do this during a period when our highways are overly congested, we surely can do it on the ordinary weekend.

We can further prove that extra travel does not necessarily mean that traffic and tragedy are synonymous. Accidents can be avoided. Our recent record over the long weekend is proof enough.

Ike Accepts Advice on Naming Judges

In the last year, says the American Bar Association's Committee on the Federal Judiciary, President EISENHOWER did not nominate a single judge without first submitting his name for that group's approval.

Further, the committee says, the Chief Executive did not in any instance ignore the advice when it was adverse. In seven cases in which it had suggested lack of adequate qualifications out of 30 submitted, none of the seven was appointed.

Congressmen and party leaders in the areas involved first suggest names of proposed appointees to the Attorney General to be passed on to the President. It is sometimes difficult to ignore such political pressures but Mr. EISENHOWER has taken the Bar Association's impartial advice and acted accordingly.

The Association reports an unfortunate stalemate in one Arkansas district judgeship which has now been vacant six months. Patronage chiefs handed in the names of three candidates but none could meet committee standards so no appointment has been made so far.

A President's judicial appointments are subject only to Senate approval and Mr. Eisenhower's willingness to give consideration to the Bar Association's impartial findings is highly commendable. Appointees so named are likely to have something more than party loyalty to recommend them.

Oakland County Man Away Ahead of Milwaukee Cops

School days: Now not entirely in accord with that old song about them.

Inventor and driver of the auto plane, recently described in these columns, of Milford, tells me that he recently was stopped by a pair of Milwaukee traffic cops who were so antiquated and fossilized that they ordered it towed out of their city of beer, bombast and baseball. They remind me of an earlier generation who considered the Wright Brothers to be crazy, as man never could fly.

Some of the friends of 92-year-old

of 748 Orchard Lake Ave., tell me that she was the first woman auto driver in Pontiac. She has a picture of the Oakland car which she drove.

I have it from none other than that the Oakland County Road Commission is to hold open house from one to five o'clock on Sept. 11, at their new headquarters at 2420 Pontiac Lake Road. He tells me that you're invited.

One of the livest men in our city of live men is of 871 North Perry St., recently spoken of in this column as "the late." We know too many other people still walking around who are more deserving of that application. But the bobble proved our wide readership, which will explain why you get the busy signal when you try to call the O'Dea home.

A native of the Pontiac area was of New York City, who died Saturday. Secretary of the American Paper & Pulp Association, he was a national leader in forestry. He was born in Fenton in 1890, son of Attorney Clarence Tinker.

When the Michigan State Fair was held in Pontiac 54 years ago, then 18 years old, won first prize on his ducks. At every State Fair ever since, including that now under way in Detroit, he has won blue ribbons. He now lives near Ypsilanti. Another first for Pontiac.

Fred Simpson,

A phone call of friendly criticism for this newspaper comes from

George Heslinger

MEMBER OF AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

—and Away They Go!

David Lawrence Says:

School Decrees Puzzle Nation

WASHINGTON — How many of the millions of Americans reading about the problems of mixed schools in the South really know what the Supreme Court of the United States decided?

LAWRENCE

How many lawyers and citizens usually well informed can say explicitly just what is the "law of the land" to which the people in Arkansas are reacting with openly expressed emotions?

NOT CLEAR

President Eisenhower at his Tuesday press conference, when asked about the Arkansas trouble, assumed that there was some specific "law" involved but wasn't clear as to which one. He said:

"Now, time and again a number of people—I, among them—have argued that you cannot change people's hearts merely by laws. Laws presumably express the conscience of a nation and its determination or will to do something.

"But the laws here are to be executed gradually, according to the dictum of the Supreme Court, and I understand that the plan worked out by the school board of Little Rock was approved by the district judge. I believe it is a 10-year plan. Now there seems to have been a road block thrown in the way of that plan, and the next decision will have to be by the lawyers and jurists."

EMOTIONS STRONG

The President went on to discuss the 1954 decision of the Supreme Court against segregation in the schools and said "there are very strong emotions on the other side, people that see a picture of a mongrelization of the race, they call it."

The first obligation that confronts a law-abiding people is to be sure everybody knows just what the law is and what it requires. This cannot be said of the present muddle on the school question. Again and again the vague and abstract discussion of sociological matters by the Supreme Court in its 1954 decision has been referred to as the "law of the land."

But the truth is that a decision by a court of two judges of the Circuit Court of Appeals and a District judge in South Carolina on July 15, 1955, is as much the "law of the land" today as is anything in the 1954 decision of the Supreme Court itself. For the district court opinion has never been reversed.

Here is the "law of the land" today about mixed schools—the most comprehensive statement made by any spokesman for the Federal judiciary since 1954:

"Whatever may have been the views of this court as to law when the case was originally before us, it is our duty now to accept the law as declared by the Supreme Court.

"Having said this, it is important that we point out exactly what the Supreme Court has decided and what it has not decided in this case.

"It has not decided that the Federal courts are to take over or regulate the public schools of the states. It has not decided that the states must mix persons of different races in the schools or must require them to attend schools or must deprive them of the right of choosing the schools they attend.

"What it has decided, and all that it has decided, is that a state may not deny to any person on account of race the right to attend any school that it maintains. This, under the direction of the Supreme Court, the state may not do directly or indirectly; but if the schools which it maintains are open to children of all races, no violation of the Constitution is involved even though the children of different races voluntarily attend different schools, as they attend different churches."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Young People Bombarded With 'Fear Psychology'

Why do so many young men and women today need psychiatric treatment? Why do their emotions destroy them?

DR. BRADY

Some crass onlookers bluster, "Aah — all he needs is a good kick in the pants and a lot more honest work to do — pampered, that's all." Maybe so.

It is our cultural misfortune that these youngsters have matured under a constant barrage of threats to their existence, from the press, radio, television, at home, in school, on the streets.

The national foundations to promote research in disease are guilty of having instilled deep fears in them, to raise money.

"Heart disease is the Number One killer!" "Cancer can strike you." "One out of 10 will end up in a mental hospital." "Will this happen to you? Your child may be the next victim of polio, multiple sclerosis, tuberculosis."

FEAR EVERYWHERE

What sort of child will this fail to affect? Fear on all sides, fear of war — the war to end all wars and polish off whole nations. Fear of death on the highway. "Speed kills!" scream the signs of every street corner as our youngsters walk to school.

And how can our sons and daughters be insulated against such a barrage? Who is to do the job?

Will it be we jittery parents, preoccupied as we are with our private fears? Fear of divorce, fear of financial insecurity when we cannot save any more, fear of obesity, fear of our leaders.

Can such parents be the solid pillars who will somehow find the wisdom to shield or insulate their children?

HELP IN PSYCHOLOGY

So all our young adults need is a good kick in the pants, heh? Maybe so. But thank heaven for the psychiatrists, the psychologists and all the trained, devoted workers in that field. For it is they who can redirect the fear emotion into useful, healthful channels.

On occasions I have perverted this column to "fear propaganda." For instance, listing the "warnings" or "danger signals" of this or that disease.

Just once to the best of my recollection has a reader reported that such warning has done good—and I'm not at all sure the reader was right. He said my warning frightened him into going at once to his doctor, who operated on him for what the doctor diagnosed as—something pretty serious.

Even if it was, and prompt surgery saved life, how many readers with minor ailments did the "danger signals" frighten into heaven knows what?

From now on, I promise, before printing anything I'll clear it with Hippocrates who, in effect, enjoined his followers:

"Do Good If You Can but Do No Harm."

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

The Country Parson

"The trouble with time is that we measure it in hours and years instead of dreams and accomplishments."

Voice of the People

Tells Reuther How to Get Large Cut in Auto Prices

Mr. Walter Reuther would prevail upon auto manufacturers to cut the price of their product $100 per unit to help ease inflation. If the fiery labor leader is sincere in his efforts, why doesn't he go to Washington and start talking to the political playboys.

Federal excise tax on a $2,000 auto is $650 and, if the car is bought in Michigan, add three per cent sales tax to that and when you drive out of the show room, you have paid the politicians $710. If you can't find a $2,000 car, you buy one for $3,000 and pay $1,065 in tax and when you drive it out, you've just started paying tax. Gas tax is 10 cents a gallon and you can go on and on.

Transportation is just as necessary as housing and fuel, but what do the political playboys care about that? Eisenhower isn't interested in reducing confiscatory taxation, but he's vitally interested in his give-away program. Since 1941, Great Britain has received 38 billion American dollars. These people must be real salesmen. How much longer will the dumb Yankees stand for this bunk?

Wants to Junk Road Scrapers

We should put on a campaign to junk all road scrapers. Perhaps then we could have some decent black top roads in Oakland County. It would save our cars from a very bad beating, because a car doesn't last very long using a gravel road every day over a 10 mile strip as I do.

It would also be a shame if Oakland County sits back and lets itself be robbed of the Northwestern Highway from Orchard Lake road to Fenton. In that case, someone should ask the powers-that-be to get out of office.

Urges Support of Humane Bill

I am writing to beg people to write to the U. S. Senators in behalf of Senate Bill 2489 to enforce use of humane traps for animals and birds. The amount of suffering inflicted upon living creatures by traps which catch and hold an animal's leg and don't kill is horrifying. Animals often gnaw off a leg to free themselves. Traps should either kill immediately an animal or bird caught or else should enclose the creature.

'Obey God's Laws for Happy Life'

Everything was created by and under God's laws, which cannot be changed as they are immutable laws. If we live according to God's laws, we can lead a happy life and enjoy ourselves, and our spiritual body will develop wings, so to speak, so that when death comes to our earthly body, our spiritual body can fly back to God and He will decide what it will do.

God is a loving God, not vindictive. He doesn't punish us; we punish ourselves when we break His laws and create hell within our own bodies. So it behooves each of us to live according to God's laws and lead a happy life.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Discusses 'Dole' vs. Earned Pay

Dr. Hanger is officially a talented clergyman but unofficially he is a deft applied psycologist. So he likes "horse sense" methods in dealing with children. In a recent Sunday night sermon he reviewed my new book that tells how to 'cash-in' on your worries. Notice the practical point that especially struck his fancy.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case V-381: Dr. John H. Hanger, aged about 45, is a famous clergyman of Jacksonville, Florida.

"Dr. Crane, I recently reviewed your new "Worry Book" in my Sunday night sermon," he began.

"And of the many helpful things described therein, the one which struck home very definitely at our house, was your suggestion about paying children for music practice.

"You had mentioned that it is not good psychology to place youngsters on an allowance, for that cultivates the "dole" frame of mind.

"So you advised that children be paid for jobs, preferably on a piecework basis.

"Well, we tried your suggestion. And it really worked;

"Now, instead of nagging them to get to the piano, we find they actually try to beat each other to the piano bench when they get home from school.

"In recent weeks I have passed along this splendid idea to other fathers, and they think it is another example of 'horse sense' applied to child rearing problems."

Dr. Hanger's experience has been duplicated in thousands of homes, including the Crane household.

And you readers can see why the pay-for-work system surpasses the old "allowance" plan.

For children should be taught to meet the problems of real life. And life makes no "allowances" for them.

So we give our youngsters a false outlook when we offer them a free gift of 50 cents or $5 per week as their allowance.

"Easy come; easy go," is the old adage that refers to this system, so they soon tend to become Prodigal Sons.

Besides, they may later gripe and figuratively bite the hand that feeds them such free cash, as when they exclaim:

"My parents are old meanies: They give me only 75 cents a week for my allowance while other kids get $1.00."

KIDS NEED CASH

Children need money as soon as they are old enought to enter school and crave ice cream cones or lollipops.

But they should learn that money stands for minted human effort. It is a symbol of sweat and calloused hands and even tears.

So set up a new system in your home and pay your child for major tasks, such as music practice, mowing lawns, raking leaves, washing windows, polishing daddy's shoes, washing the family car, etc.

"But don't children get the 'gimme' habit and expect cash for every chore?" some parents may ask.

No, they don't. And even if they did, this would be a more wholesome attitude than to have them criticizing you behind your back as an "old meanie" or tightwad because you give them 75 cents allowance when others get $1.

But children soon realize their pay tasks are special jobs, usually out of the ordinary. Reward your girls with a fair hourly wage for the week-end housecleaning or for scrubbing the basement or ironing the flatwork.

And pay as soon as the job is done, for youngsters are not motivated as strongly by long deferred rewards.

For example, use scotch tape and paste a dime beside each window to be washed, with the understanding the worker gets the dime when he cleans that window properly.

For a further list of ways by which to earn money, send for my booklet "How to Earn Spending Money," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents.

And urge your boys to become newspaper carriers, for that is the BEST training in our "free enterprise" system now available to American youth.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Called Out National Guard in Little Rock Dispute

Arkansas Governor Faubus Vowed Never to Accept Forced Integration

By DREN COOPER

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — The man who ordered the National Guard to stand watch over Little Rock's Central High School comes from deep in the Ozark Hills—a far-removed land where a man might spend a lifetime without ever seeing a Negro.

A touch of the twang of the mountains remains in the speech of Gov. Orval Faubus, but he is far different from the average hill farmer (a term he loves to use in describing himself), and he has undergone a startling change since he opened his first gubernatorial campaign in 1954.

A schoolteacher, weekly newspaper publisher and former highway director, Faubus seldom indulges in a grammatical slip but some metropolitan folk cringe at a few of his pronunciations—the same sounds that endear him to the common man in the Ozarks. He called the National Guard "the me-lish-ee" in his television speech Monday night.

His action in calling out the guard to prevent racial integration at Central High was somewhat startling to political observers since the governor seldom goes all-out in any direction. For three years, he has been parrying direct questions from newsmen with increasing skill. He has developed from a sometimes fumbling speech-reader in his 1954 darkhorse days to a pretty fair orator.

Faubus is 47, under average height with a plain face and an engaging grin that convinces voters of his sincerity. He has a reputation of retribution for his political enemies and fulfilled promises for his supporters.

He numbers among his friends influential east Arkansas businessmen and planters who are strong segregationists, but he appointed Winthrop Rockefeller to head an effective new program of industrialization—a Yankee who votes the Republican ticket and has a Negro farm manager.

He has bucked tradition by upsetting one-term Gov. Francis Cherry in 1954 although Arkansas voters usually grant a second term without protest.

He defied another tradition in 1956 when he remained only slightly above lukewarm on segregation and still won without a runoff.

During that campaign, he remained a middle-of-the-roader with this stock statement: "There will be no enforced integration in the public schools of Arkansas as long as I am your governor."

He said that integration was a problem for local school boards. (Last year, he said that he would not interfere with Little Rock's gradual integration plan.)

Faubus again seemed to have a hands-off attitude toward segregation when four anti-integration bills came up in the 1957 Legislature, but he signed them and said that they were more moderate than those passed by other Southern states. On the other hand, he waited so long to appoint the members of the State Sovereignty Commission that he was threatened with a suit.

Closely Inspects Lake, Glasses Now in River

RATON, N.M. (AP) — City Commissioner Charles Toller reported on a recent survey as to the possibility of opening Lake Dorothy to fishing.

Toller said the lake contained some nice fish, some siltation and a city commissioner's glasses.

While investigating the lake, Toller fell into the water. His glasses are somewhere at the bottom.

Hal Boyle Says:

Van Every Quits Hollywood to Write Novels

NEW YORK (AP)—Most writers dream of turning out a novel they can sell to Hollywood and become rich.

Dale Van Every, a top authority on America's early frontier, did it the other way. He quit a $75,000-a-year job in Hollywood in 1943 to become a historical novelist.

"I was making $1,500 a week—which made me a working picture writer, not a celebrity," he remarked drily. "My only regret now is that I didn't quit sooner."

Van Every, now 61, has written six novels—the most recent is "The Voyagers"—since he turned his back on Hollywood, where he worked on some 100 pictures after an earlier career as a newsman here and in Washington, D. C. The novels have sold more than two million copies.

One of the ironies of his success as a novelist is that some critics, aware of his Hollywood background, feel his books have been written with an eye for the film market. Van Every says that actually the exact opposite is true.

"None of my novels have been sold to the movies," he pointed out, "I use fiction only as a kind of sugar-coating for the facts. It is the facts that interest me.

"My pleasure in writing is the delight in recreating a lost world—the period between 1780 and 1811, when America really became a nation.

"Everyone knows about the frontier of the later West—the covered wagon, the stage coach, the cowboy and the horse Indian.

EARLIER FRONTIER

"But even the college professors don't know too much about the earlier West, the frontier east of the Mississippi—the West of the stockade, the flatboat, the long rifle, the time when the Indians outnumbered and were stronger than the white settlers and won every battle except the last one."

Van Every, whose grandfather's grandfather was a Tory fighter in the Revolution, has been interested in this little-known period since boyhood. Thanks to his profitable years in the Hollywood vineyard, he was able to assemble one of the nation's finest private historical libraries.

A methodical craftsman, he writes five drafts of each novel, sometimes spends three or four days checking to be sure he has a detail of frontier life exactly right.

"Newspaper training is the best for anyone learning to write," he said. "It teaches you a respect for facts, and how to find and use them."

As a result of his interminable research Van Every lards his novels with such interesting facts as why Indians daubed a captive's head with clay before burning him at the stake. It was to preserve the scalp! Indians rarely violated a white female captive in order to preserve their own purity.

Indians used crushed sunflower seeds for hair oil. Indians regarded as delicacies the eyeballs of the buffalo, and frogs cooked whole in cornmeal gruel.

"They also enjoyed moose snout, boiled dog's head, and turkey eggs eaten the day before they were due to hatch," added Van Every, who is a steak man himself.

The novelist recently sold his home in Santa Barbara, Calif., and plans to spend a year or two wandering the world with his wife.

"I'm too young to settle down," he said.

Powers Reds in ICBM Race

Missile Boss Respected

By INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Russia's announcement that she successfully tested the "ultimate weapon" — the intercontinental ballistic missile — gave informed Westerners new cause to respect a little-known Soviet soldier-scientist.

For the feat that swept the Russians to the fore in the crucial weapons race apparently was powered by the driving force of Lt. Gen. Anatoli A. Blagonravov, head of the Soviet Missile Development Command.

Blagonravov's activities are veiled in secrecy. But enough in all his energies on the ICBM project.

The missile chief — he is an artillery officer—is said to have fired a 1,500-mile intermediate range missile from a Russian submarine in 1955.

Techniques used in building an intercontinental missile can be applied to the construction of a space rocket and Blagonravov's group apparently already has made progress in that field.

REWARDED HANDSOMELY

An appreciative Soviet government has rewarded the 63-year-old general handsomely for this and other accomplishments. He is a member of the Supreme Soviet (parliament), is president of the Academy of Artillery Science and, a decade ago, was named to the Soviet Union's Academy of Science—top science body in the USSR.

In the course of his career, Blagonravov also picked up many medals, including at least three orders of Lenin.

He was born June 1, 1894, in the Ukrainian town of An-Zodo. He was graduated from the czarist Mikhailovskaya Artillery College before the Bolshevik revolution, but apparently switched sides when the Reds grabbed control of the country.

In 1927 the soldier-scientist was graduated from the artillery faculty of the Military Technical Academy. Then he joined the staff and worked his way up through the ranks to head the small arms faculty.

A doctor of technical sciences, Blagonravov has written 25 scientific works, mainly in the fields of small arms and aviation armament. His major book is "The Main Principals of Designing Automatic Weapons."

From 1954 to 1956 he also served as director of machine studies at the Academy of Science.

So far as is known, the only time Blagonravov left the Soviet Union was last December, when he attended a missiles congress in Paris with a group of Russian scientists.

Judy Holliday Irritable, Won't Talk

PARIS (INS) — Actress Judy Holliday, reportedly engaged to her broadway musical leading man, Sydney Chaplin, returned to Paris alone yesterday from a weekend visit with Sydney at the home of his father, Charlie Chaplin.

The two Broadway stars had gone to Vevey, Switzerland, last Saturday.

She alighted from a train wearing dark glasses and played hide and seek with waiting newsmen and photographers.

Cornered finally, Judy in a characteristic sandpaper voice said irritatedly:

"I'm on vacation. I don't want to be photographed and give interviews. I want to be free as air. I want to go around without even wearing lipstick. I may be unreasonable but this is the only time I have to myself after working throughout the year."

She was silent about any wedding plans and said she did not intend to stay in Paris but "to travel around."

3 New Polio Cases Reported This Week

Three more polio cases were added to the 1957 area list during the week which ended August 23.

Dr. John D. Monroe, director of public health, reports the two cases developed in Pontiac. In the county, Pontiac Township recorded one, bringing the total 1957 county cases of the disease to 10 compared with the 11 the same time last year.

Other communicable diseases reported during that week in the county and city include:

People who can easily pay any price say:

"Pay more...what for? Ford's the buy!"

Why? Because this 1957 Ford gives you the advanced features, the solid ride, the effortless handling that you once expected to find only in expensive cars. And when it comes to looks, where in all the world can you find fresher styling than in the sculptured-in-steel lines of this smart new Ford?

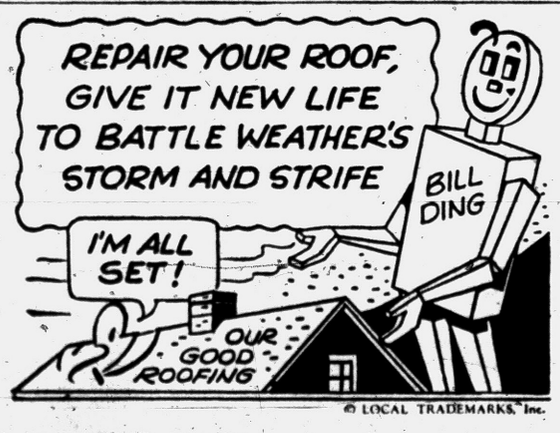

Ford's superiority is evident in many places. In the vital rear axle, the pinion gear that turns the rear wheels is straddle-mounted . . . supported between two anti-friction bearings instead of being "overhung" from a single bearing. This makes operation quieter, smoother and longer-lasting. It's a feature that Ford shares with only one other car maker—Rolls Royce.

Or consider Ford's famous V-8 engine. No other manufacturer in the industry today electronically balances every V-8 engine, while operating under its own power, the way that Ford does. This means you get a smoother-running engine—the finest V-8 in Ford's 25 years of V-8 leadership.

These are only a few of the important hidden values that are yours in Ford. But they indicate why so many people who can pay almost any price for a car—people who have driven expensive cars for years—are buying Ford today. Action Test this great performing car at your Ford Dealer's just once and you, too, will ask, "Pay more . . . what for?"

YOU CAN SPEND HUNDREDS MORE . . . BUT YOU CAN'T BUY BETTER THAN THE NEW KIND OF FORD

MR. & MRS. CHARLES WIDGER

Newlyweds to Live in Waterford

Travel to Upper Michigan

Following their honeymoon in upper Michigan, newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Widger will make their home in Waterford.

Before her marriage in Orchard Lake Church last Saturday evening, Mrs. Widger was Sharon Lynn Hogle.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hogle of 7020 Oakley Park Rd., Walled Lake. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Widger of Mt. Clemens.

The bride repeated her vows in a waltz-length taffeta gown, trimmed in lace and sequins, with full tulle skirt over taffeta. She wore matching lace gauntlets and a crown of sequins and seed pearls secured her fingertip veil. She carried a colonial arrangement of white carnations on a prayer book.

Mrs. Thomas H. Higgins Jr. of Pontiac served as matron of honor and John W. Widger, also of Pontiac, acted as best man. Groomsmen were Richard B. Bennett of Pontiac and Terry G. Hogle of Walled Lake.

A reception afterward in the home of the bride's parents was attended by 125 guests.

Lapeer Couple Reveal Daughter's Marriage

LAPEER—Dr. and Mrs. L. Paul Cote here announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Lynn, to Lawrence H. Smith of Scotia, N. Y. The rite was solemnized Saturday in the Church of Immaculate Conception.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home in Scotia, where he is studying for his master's degree. He is a graduate of the University of Detroit.

Painting Bee Sept. 7

FOUR TOWNS—A painting bee at Four Towns Methodist Church, originally scheduled to be held earlier will take place Saturday. Women of the church circle will serve refreshments afterward.

Teachers Given Degrees

MARLETTE—Mrs. Phyllis Garlick of Marlette has received a B.S. degree from Eastern Michigan College, Ypsilanti, and Mrs. Belle Broomfield was awarded a B.S. degree by Central College, Mt. Pleasant.

Both women, third grade teachers at Marlette, received life teaching certificates several years ago.

Brandon Cites Student Record

Township Youths Flock to Colleges All Over Nation

BRANDON TOWNSHIP—A record number of new graduates from Brandon Township Schools, plus students returning to complete college courses, will attend schools all over the United States this semester.

Among persons returning are Esther Ware, senior at Bob Jones University, Greenville, S. C.; Beverly Allen and Russell Bradford, second-year students at Baptist College, Johnson City, N. Y.

Lerita and Stephen Jencks are leaving for Florida—she to attend Trinity College at Clearwater, her brother to attend barber college at Platte City.

Duane Porter will be a junior at Michigan State University and Carol Gronholdt is returning to Bob Jones Academy as a senior. Alan Dickason will enroll at John Brown College, Siloam Springs, Ark.

Entering Michigan State as freshmen are Carol Burt, John Uloth, John McGinnis and Edward Hungerford.

Susan Stewart will attend Central Michigan, Mt. Pleasant; Everett Smith will be a student at Vandercook Music School, Chicago and Karen Borst will go to Elkhart, Ind.

Robert Mills will be a senior at Flint Junior College and others planning to enroll there are Lawrence Noble, Errol Solley, Sheila Durkee and Lovell Kessler.

From Holly, Virginia Kelley will enter Hillsdale College as a freshman.

Benson Discloses Attempts to Quit Ike's Cabinet

WASHINGTON (INS) — Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson has disclosed he tried to quit the Eisenhower cabinet several times but was persuaded to remain in the administration.

Benson said yesterday that he is "still on the team and I am still going to support the President and do what I can."

The cabinet official did not specify when he tried to resign or what made him change his mind, but asserted that congressional criticism had nothing to do with it.

YAM GROWS WILD — Farmer Richard Haggard of Lepanto, Ark., holds a "yam what am." The 31½-pound wild sweet potato was dug up by Haggard while hoeing cotton. The yams once were a food mainstay of Indians in the area. But farmers find them a nuisance because their vines choke cotton plants.

Almont PTA Group Appoints Chairmen

ALMONT — The Community Schools PTA, in its recent organizational meeting here, named chairmen and discussed plans for the yearly program.

Appointed were: Mrs. Paul Swayze, Mrs. Cameron Spangler, Mrs. Ernest Smith, Carljoe Marsh, Jean MacKay, Mrs. Melvin Fiebelkorn and Mrs. Leland Ives.

First meeting date for the group has been changed to Thursday evening, Sept. 12.

Set Dedication Supper Thursday at Imlay City

IMLAY CITY — An all-church supper will be held at 6:30 p.m. Thursday at the Congregational Church here. New tables and the brass offering plates will be dedicated. The articles were donated by the Mayflower Fellowship.

County Births

White Lake Township

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schultz announce the birth of a daughter, Mary Louise.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lange are the parents of a new daughter, Dawn Louise.

Almont Pair Plans Anniversary Event

ALMONT—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Anderson of 718 South Main St. here will hold open house from 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 8.

The occasion is the 50th anniversary of their marriage. They were wed on Sept. 4, 1907.

Set Goal for '57 Drive

ALMONT—The Board of Directors of the Almont Community Chest recently set up a budget of $4,000 for the 1957 drive. Money will be used for the benefit of the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, American Red Cross, Salvation Army, Polio and Cancer work; Michigan United Fund, Lapeer County United Fund and Almont Community Chest.

The fall drive will be conducted in October, running concurrently with the Torch Drive in Detroit.

Optimists to Hear 'Nuclear Navy'; Planning Picnic

SOUTHFIELD — The Optimists here will hear a talk on "Nuclear Navy," Thursday evening at Fruitridge Inn. Speaker will be Lt. Cmdr. "Bill" Clark of the Naval Reserves.

Lt. Cmdr. Clark will show slides and tell of Naval advancement in the nuclear field.

The Optimists are planning a free, fall picnic for families on Saturday, Sept. 14. The picnic, to begin at 2 p.m., will be held at Lola Valley Park, on the northwest corner of Kinloch and Bermona drives.

County Calendar

Four Towns

The Board of Education of Four Towns Methodist Church is meeting at 8 p.m. tonight, at the home of Mrs. Malvin Grile.

Life Insurance Sales Set Record in 1956

NEW YORK — American families bought more life insurance in 1956, increased their ownership of life insurance to a larger total, and received more in life insurance benefit payments than in any other year on record.

The year's purchases of new life insurance totaled $55,600,000,000, some $7,200,000,000 more than in 1955; total life insurance owned reached an estimated $415,000,000,000 and benefit payments totaled $5,830,000,000.

Five big hospitals are to be built in the most populated centers of British Guiana and those in Georgetown, the capital, will be modernized.

Called for Jury Duty, Winds Up Arresting

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP) — After getting lost on a rural road near here while serving a jury summons, Sheriff Burton Arnold stopped at a small house to ask directions.

No one answered the knock but Arnold smelled something familiar. He walked inside and saw a variety of moonshine raw materials.

Later he and state police arrested a man at the house. Then Arnold went on to serve the jury summons.

Drunkenness among women is increasing in South Africa, according to a report to the South African Temperance Alliance.

Judith's Friend Gets Warning

Has 3 Unusual Phone Calls; One Says 'You Are the Next'

CHICAGO (AP) — An 18-year-old girl told police she received a telephone threat that "you are the next one" to suffer the fate of slain and dismembered Judith Mae Andersen, 15.

The girl is Mary Ann Ferrara, who lives in the first house south of the Anderson home.

She told investigators seeking clues to the Andersen slaying that the call was made to her home yesterday by a woman who did not identify herself.

Miss Ferrara said it was the third mysterious call received at home since Saturday.

On the two previous occasions, she said, the telephone rang and when she lifted the receiver she heard heavy breathing. But the caller did not say anything.

Police, meanwhile, reported they have almost reached dead end in their search for a promising lead to the slayer or slayers who placed the Andersen girl's body in two metal drums found in Montrose Harbor.

Still being sought are the gun used to fire four bullets into the girl's head, the ax and saw used to cut up her body, her clothing, the tools used to cut down an oil drum, the one-third of the oil drum not used and the car or boat used to transport her body to the harbor.

The girl disappeared the night of Aug. 16 after spending the evening at the home of a girl friend. Parts of her body were found in the harbor Aug. 22 and 24, floating in two drums.

Get Day for Grandad

LYNWOOD, Calif. (AP) — Why shouldn't Grandfather have his day?

Mhat's what Mrs. Mary M. Bannister of Lynwood wants to know.

She's campaigning for establishment of an annual national observance of Grandfather's Day.

"We now have Mother's Day, Father's Day and Grandmother's Day," says Mrs. Bannister, "why should Grandfathers be forgotten?"

Motels Quadruple

WASHINGTON — A total of 9,364 motor courts and 3,818 hotels are listed for approval in the 1957 accommodation directories published by the American Automobile Association. Ten years ago A.A.A. directories listed 5,156 hotels and 2,403 motels.

Argentina Is Answer for Escaping Inflation

By EARL WILSON

BUENOS AIRES—Howdy to you-all from the one great steak city that rivals Chicago . . . where steaks are so cheap we start the day with a breakfast sirloin that costs all of 60c.

WILSON

We're in "L.A." now, but down here that doesn't mean Los Angeles . . . but "Latin America."

It's wintertime now—but you don't mind the topcoats and the mufflers when a filet mignon's 60c, a long cab ride 15c, a martini 20c and a very, very late Jayne Mansfield, Carroll Baker or Bob Taylor movie only 17c.

However, for a 1947 Ford—$4,000.

Argentina's a price paradise greater than Spain, due to Senor Peron having loused up the economy — providing you have the dollars.

But if you don't, you feel sorry for your fellow man.

We'd been sightseeing — curiously, around "Vincente Lopez" Placa. Vincente Lopez—same name as the band leader—was a big hero here.

If I gave the hackie a 7½c tip—the change from a 10-peso or 25c note—I would be overdoing it by Argentine standards, but I did it anyway and hoped nobody would squeal on me.

Due to Americans tossing away those crumpled, soiled little peso notes so carelessly, the cab drivers and waiters are well paid—whereas a factory worker may be living it up on a salary of $8 a week.

Detroit they practically bow down to here — a flivver you swapped in, in '50, may be chugging along quite grandly.

You see, they're imported, and steaks aren't.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . . IN NEW YORK . . .

Martha Raye's "For Amusement Only" revue—due in Oct.—has been "postponed" . . . Harry Belafonte passed up "Porgy and Bess"; Sam Goldwyn's eyeing Sidney Poitier . . . Fran Warren's new album is due out soon.

Sophia Loren rejected $100,000 for three TV appearances — a lot of money for a lot of girl. Greg Bautzer flew to N.Y. to be on hand when his wife, Dana Wynter, returns from Germany . . . Pablo Picasso, now 77, has recovered from a heart attack.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: There are two ways to avoid paying alimony. One is to stay single; the other way is to stay married. That's earl, brother.

PIN-WORMS MAYBE A FUNNY AFFAIR
Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms . . . ugly parasites that medical experts say infest one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.
To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do . . . and here's how they do it:
First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.
Don't take chances with this dangerous, highly contagious condition. At the first sign of Pin-Worms, ask your druggist for genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge . . . the small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by famous Dr. D. Jayne & Son, specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.

Get Busy Now to Win $2,400 in Pot-O-Gold

With $2,400 in the pot and one wrong answer allowed for each entry, you'd better not wait too long before you begin trying to solve this week's Pot-O-Gold puzzle. You'll want plenty of time to figure out the right answers, and you certainly don't want your entry disqualified because of tardiness.

The new puzzle contains a series of squares which are alphabetically lettered and a corresponding list of sentences with two clue words. Each of the words is numbered. The object is to select the word which you think best fits the clue sentence. You then place the number of that word in the square which has the same letter as the clue sentence.

In other words, you will read the clue labeled A and decide which of the two words makes the most sense in the sentence. You then write the number of that word in the puzzle square marked A.

Do the same with all other squares. Read all the clues carefully and be sure the right numbers are in the right squares.

4. Sorry, telephone calls or mail concerning details of the contest cannot be answered or acknowledged.

5. The Pontiac Press will award a cash prize of $100 a week to the winner of each weekly POT-O-GOLD contest. If more than one winning answer is received the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If any week or weeks should pass without any winners, the prize will be added weekly until a winning solution is submitted.

6. Winners will be awarded an extra cash bonus of $25 each if they are Pontiac Press subscribers of record on the day winners are announced. Only one such bonus can be awarded to each prize-winner no matter how many weekly prizes may accumulate.

7. Each week's puzzle will be published Monday, Wednesday and Friday until the contest's end. Either or all will be considered as official entry blanks.

8. Winners and correct solutions will be announced each Friday of the week following individual contests. Official keeper of answers will be Frederick C. Ziem, prosecutor for Oakland County. Only the General Features Corp., originators of the puzzles, will know the solutions until after each contest is over. Answers will be delivered to the Press Judges by Mr. Ziem after the final deadline.

9. There is only one correct solution to the POT-O-GOLD puzzle, and only that correct answer can win. The decision of the judges is final and all contestants agree to abide by the judges' decision. All entries becoming the property of The Pontiac Press and none can be returned.

10. Completed puzzles must be addressed to POT-O-GOLD, POST OFFICE BOX 58, Pontiac, Michigan. Winners will be notified either by telephone or in the mails.

Tiny, invisible jellyfish have attacked vacation sea swimmers around Auckland, New Zealand, causing rashes on the skin. The jellyfish can be seen only under microscopes.

Because of wild animal depredations, the Riversdale, South Africa, district has boosted bounties on leopards to $21, on lynxes to $8 and on ratels (honey badgers) to $5.60.

Fisherman Nets His Prize Catch—28-Foot Whale

LAUZON, Que. (AP)—Omer Bellerive, a fisherman, tangled with the catch of his career Sunday. With help of a truck and tractor he landed it—a 28-foot whale.

The small whale became entangled in Bellerive's nets and after several hours he was able to beach it.

It is uncommon for whales to wander this far upstream. Bellerive has not decided yet how to dispose of it.

Bob Considine Says:

Today's Schoolchild Draws Tougher Task

NEW YORK (INS) — It must be nice to be a child and afford to go to school. If I had the time, and was a bit shorter and brighter, I'd sneak back to the eighth grade — if I could make it — and thereafter for ever and ever listen to what was taught and take what was there for the asking.

I'd read all the books I should have read 30 years ago and now won't read for fear of missing what's going on this minute. Beowulf to Thomas Hardy, let's say. I'd like another stab at Algebra, from the first lesson on. I must have been absent that first day.

The American Weekly ran an 8th grade history test last Sunday, and not three adults in the set I travel in could have passed it.

For example: the Louisiana Purchase included all these present-day states except A) South Dakota; B) Mississippi; C) Louisiana and D) Iowa . . . What did the expression '50-40 or Fight' refer to? . . . The constitution of the United States, A) declares all men free and equal; B) establishes voting age at 21; C) gives each man the right to bear arms, and D) does none of these . . . in the south just before the Civil War, the percentage of people owning slaves was A) less than one quarter; B) one-half; C) three quarters, and D) all.

Back to the seventh grade would go a lot of us, I'm afraid, notably those who didn't know Mississippi wasn't included in the Purchase, 50-40 or fight concerned a line of latitude between Oregon and Canada, the constitution "gives each man the right to bear arms," and less than one quarter of the people of the south owned slaves.

TOUGHER TODAY

The school child of today has a tougher time than we had, somebody should occasionally point out in the midst of widespread condemnation of them as the inferiors of their forebears. It was the practice around our house in Washington, D.C., to study together each night after dinner, each of us helping the next youngest.

There was no TV. Radio was something you listened to occasionally with headphones, if you could find a sensitive spot on the Galena. Only one family on our block had an automobile. It was a Moon touring car owned by a family named Reavis.

A movie was a rare treat confined to a Sunday afternoon. There was no juke box at the corner, and the telephone was something to be used chiefly for emergencies, not as something to while away the hours. Our horizon was touchable by anyone with moderately long arms. Our distractions were limited.

In our block in the swampoodle section of town it would have been considered bereay to send a child to dancing school or pay out good money to teach him fiddle. So we played with the tools the city had equipped Terminal Playground with, and when it turned dark each day we studied. The child of today has a life so crowded it is a wonder he or she ever has time to crack a book.

It is a wonder, too, that the child becomes educated enough to misspell. Had a note from a young friend recently who, having weathered his high school training, and somehow survived, wrote me that he planned to go to "collich" in the fall. I've noticed, talking to our own kids and their friends, that they have little interest in achieving a position which absorbed us constantly when we were in school: coming out first.

"Pop," one of them said as he was measured for a school jacket (a bit of raiment which could have bewildered us in the past), "Don't give me that business of 'coming out first.' I don't want to come out first. I want to be like the other fellows — get by — not too good, not too bad. Just like the other fellows."

Jeeves, my slippers, and be a good sort and pull that rocking chair over here a bit.

Little Rock Calls on Guard to Halt School Integration

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Gov. Orval Faubus of Arkansas called on National Guardsmen to keep order and protect property at Little Rock's Central High School where nine Negro pupils had enrolled for opening classes today.

The guardsmen—100 strong and armed with bludgeons and carbines—were sent to the school last night. Soon afterwards the school board announced it had called off plans to integrate the 2,000-pupil school.

The school board had been ordered by a U.S. District Court to proceed with its plan of gradual integration.

Faubus himself declined to say that the Arkansas National Guardsmen had been sent to the school to prevent integration.

"That assumption might be correct," he said, but the school board at Little Rock placed an emergency evaluation on the governor's action and ordered Negroes "to stay away from white schools today."

The situation could be used as the backdrop for the first clear test of state police power in opposition to federal law.

While Arkansas thus for the moment stood front-stage in the tense drama of integration, other areas of the South moved smoothly—though spottily—toward race mixing in the lower classrooms.

In North Carolina, Negro and white children for the first time were ready to study side by side. Greensboro planned to begin its mixed classes today, Charlotte tomorrow and Winston-Salem on Thursday. Six Negro pupils are enrolled for mixed classes at Greensboro and four at Charlotte. At Winston-Salem only one Negro child has been assigned to a previously all-white school.

In Mecklenburg County near Charlotte, however, 16 Negro children denied admission to white schools voiced the possibility of a court test. In turning down the Negroes' applications for assignment to white schools, the county school board said it was aware of the U.S. Supreme Court ruling which outlawed school segregation, but added that it also was aware of the crowded condition of the schools under its jurisdiction.

For the second year at Clinton, Tenn., Negro pupils expected to take their places among white children. Last year there was violence. This year none is expected when the eight Negroes enrolled at Clinton High School report together with the 750 white pupils.

National Guardsmen were sent to Clinton last year when a dozen Negroes and about 800 white children faced integrated classes for the first time. The disorders that followed led to the widely publicized contempt of court trials at nearby Knoxville.

OPENING DELAYED — The new $438,500 elementary school now under construction in the Herrington Hills Subdivision, 510 Bay St., will open in early October, according to school officials. Students living in the new school's area will attend the Willis and Mark Twain Schools temporarily beginning Thursday until the school is ready for occupation. It will accommodate 360 students and includes a multi-purpose room, two kindergartens, and eight primary self-contained (each room has toilet and washroom facilities) classrooms.

Strike Halts Buses, Streetcars in Rome

ROME (AP)—All Rome city and suburban bus and streetcar service was stopped for four hours today by the second transit strike in a week.

Transport workers are demanding higher pay and a 48-hour week. They said they would strike again for four hours on Friday.

Tourist buses, and civilian, and army trucks were put into emergency service by the city.

Driver Fined for Lack of Speed on Highway

NEW HARTFORD, N.Y. (AP)—Arthur Markle, 66, said the reason he was driving between 5 and 10 miles an hour on Route 5, a main state highway, was because he had heard that speed causes most accidents.

A state trooper said a long line of Labor Day traffic was following him.

The peace justice said slow driving could cause accidents, too and fined Markle, of nearby Frankfort, $10.

Happy Job for Officer

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Doctors at Osteopathic Hospital congratulated Highway Patrolman George Moore for helping deliver Mrs. Raymond Wells' baby girl in his patrol car. Moore commented: "I have to cover so many accidents where people die that it's a pleasure to help bring somebody into the world."

Guest Speaker Is Psychiatrist

Will Discuss the Types of Mental Handicaps, How to Handle Them

Leon Hall, psychiatrist for the Oakland County Board of Education, will be the guest speaker tonight at an open meeting of the Association for Handicapped Children.

Hall is expected to discuss the different kinds of mentally handicapped children, their capacities and how they are best handled.

The meeting, held at the American Legion Cook-Nelson Post No. 20, 206 Auburn Ave., will begin at 8 p.m.

The association, which was organized in April, will conduct a school for county handicapped children. Classes are scheduled to begin Monday, September 9.

The group received permission from the Pontiac Board of Education to use a basement room at the Emerson School to conduct classes on a one-year trial basis.

The children range from age 6½ to 13½. They will be taught by the parents although additional women will work a few hours a week.

The purpose of the school, which will accommodate approximately 36 children, is to provide education for children who are too handicapped to be able to attend a regular public school.

THE PONTIAC PRESS

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1957 PONTIAC, MICHIGAN NINETEEN

Sue Ladd (left) of Neome drive and Shirley Arnhart of Glendale avenue may not look this happy Oct. 12 when MSU and U. of M. clash on the football field in Ann Arbor. Both girls are wearing collegiate outfits that will be seen on Midwestern campuses this fall.

Alycemae Stephens of Oneida road gets an early start on her going-away-to-school packing. She will be a freshman this fall at Eastern Michigan College in Ypsilanti.

This perky young miss, a sophomore at Ferris Institute, packs part of her collegiate wardrobe in anticipation of her return to Big Rapids. Jackie Dubay of Stanley avenue shows several basic parts of a coëd's wardrobe . . . the blazer (at right), the crew-neck sweater (in suitcase) and the bulky knit sweater (which she is holding).

Pontiac Press Photos

North meets South . . . Eric Allen (seated at piano), a student at the University of Miami, Coral Gables, Fla., models the informal outfit that most Southern collegians will be wearing. Bob VanWagoner (left) and Jim Ingram, both of Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., model the Ivy League look in crew-neck sweaters with white shirts and either khaki pants (as Bob is wearing) or Ivy-looking slacks (as Jim models). All three fellows live in Lake Orion.

Judy Levine of Ottawa drive and Judy Lauckner of South Telegraph road have even more problems packing for college than most students. Both girls, who will be freshmen at Stephens College in Columbia, Mo., must pack cotton clothes such as Miss Lauckner (right) models for the warm weather until November. Then wools such as Miss Levine is showing must also be included in their wardrobes for the less pleasant months.

Pontiac College Crowd Swings Back Into Action

By GRETTA PORTER

With the passing of Labor Day it is time for the Pontiac college set to swing into action. For those "old hands" who will be going back to college it means sorting out useable clothes, packing up books and records and catching up on what friends have done this summer.

For the college freshman it means the step into a big and new experience. This will be the time when there are many new things to fathom — the madhouse of registering for classes, buying books in jam-packed bookstores and rushing for sororities and fraternities. For many freshmen this will be the first time away from home for any length of time.

MANY CAMPUSES

Pontiac will have representatives on many campuses throughout the country. For instance, Margaret Bennett of Irvindale drive will begin studies at Albion College this fall, while Judy Levine of Ottawa drive will travel to Columbia, Mo., to study at Stephens College, as will Judy Lauckner of South Telegraph road.

A sizable group, including Donna Chilvers of Auburn Heights, Elizabeth Gregory of West Huron street, Stuart Hill of Pontiac Lake road and Jo Hurlburt of Elmhurst street, will be freshmen at Central Michigan College.

Returning as juniors are Carol Pendleton of North Eastway drive, who is studying elementary education, and Melvin Nunn of Rochester who is on a liberal arts program. Nancy Lowery of Devondale street will return to Central as a sophomore to study music and Paul Christides of Clarkston will be a sophomore speech major.

Traveling to Sterling, Kan., will be Phylliss Cotter of Second avenue who will be a sophomore at Sterling College. Going South to Murray State in Murray, Ky., will be sophomore journalism student Lila Beth Empson of Michigan avenue.

FLORIDA BOUND

Palm Beach Junior College in Lake Worth, Fla., will be the destination of Joe Fish of Elizabeth Lake Estates, who is enrolled as an engineering freshman.

Sally Joiner of Clarkston is a sophomore at Taylor University in Upland, Ind. Also at Taylor is sophomore business administration student Joyce Ann Morgan of Willett road.

Off to Minneapolis to begin airline training at Humboldt Institute will be Dottie Katchka of North Genesee avenue and her roommate, Mary Beth Shearer of Elm street.

MORE COLLEGIANS

Gordon Nesler of Auburn Heights and John Soderberg of Shoreview drive will begin studies this fall at John Carroll University in Cleveland. Gordon will be an education major and John plans to study political science.

Madonna College in Livonia will claim Mary Ann Neville of Boston avenue as a freshman. Her sister, Sharon Lee, of Oxford Dominican will practice teach in the third grade of St. Cyril school in Detroit.

East Central Junior College of Decatur, Miss., will have Larry Payne of Ostrum drive as a freshman. R. Heath Reeves of East Pike street is enrolled at University of California at Berkley for his junior year in chemical engineering.

Beginning studies at Moody Bible Institute in Chicago will be Ethan Rogers Jr. of Drayton Plains.

Good luck to all those who are beginning college for the first time this fall, as well as those who will be returning.

This by no means completes the list of Pontiac fellows and gals who are going back to college. The next installment of names will follow soon.

Personal News of Interest

Dr. and Mrs. Milton H. Bank and children, Milton Jr., Thomas, William, James and Suzanne Elaine, returned to their home on Franklin boulevard from a vacation at Lake Louise near Boyne Falls for the Saturday wedding of Ann Glover Bell and Richard C. Poole.

Dr. Bank performed the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gelston Poole on South Shore drive, Watkins Lake.

Mrs. Theodore E. Wiersema of West Iroquois road returned during the weekend from Tucson, Ariz., where she has been vacationing for five weeks with her daughter, Barbara, who was in graduate school at the University of Arizona.

They visited friends between school sessions and traveled in the Southwest and Mexico. Barbara is remaining in Tucson this year to head the drama department in Amphitheater High School.

Spending the holiday weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Harty of Dexter, Mo., was Mrs. Elsie M. Miller of West Huron street.

After arriving there, Mrs. Miller learned that Dexter had chosen her parents' attractive yard and garden as Yard of the Month. The Hartys, formerly of Pontiac, are also the parents of Mrs. Harry Williams of West Highland road.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Selfridge and family of Pomona, Calif., formerly of Pontiac, arrived here Aug. 24 after spending several days with his sister, Ada Daniels Nave of Albuquerque, N.M., who also is formerly of Pontiac.

After spending a week in Pontiac visiting Mr. Selfridge's sisters, Mrs. Ruth Ladd and Mrs. Agnes Finch, other relatives and a host of friends, they left Saturday to visit Mrs. Selfridge's mother, brother and cousins in Stockton, Calif., before returning home.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Schmidt returned to their home on Utica road after a 16-day motor trip through the Eastern states.

They spent some time in the Adirondacks and visited at the home of Mr. Schmidt's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Schneider, in New Hartford, N.Y.

Mrs. Ida Fors and daughter, Mavis, of Desiax avenue and Mrs. Paul Antella and daughter, Loraine, of Pontiac drive motored to the Stratford Shakespearean Theater in Stratford, Ont., to see the performance of the "Twelfth Night" last Saturday.

Hunt That Job With Confidence

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Almost nobody is perfectly qualified for any job. Very few have the right experience or education, the proper appearance, the correct number of birthdays, the ideal references or suitable salary range.

Most of us have some kind of skeleton-in-the-resume, some job we got fired from or some gap in time, some overqualification or underqualification.

OTHERS NOT PERFECT

When you're job-hunting, probably the other applicants seem perfect, while you're all too aware of your own limitations. Yet they may have limitations that are just as bad as yours, and maybe worse.

How do you handle them? Should you lie about them or tell the truth even when the truth is not complimentary?

First, remember that a resume is not an application blank. You don't have to tell everything you ever did, account for every minute, in a resume. Think of it as a self-promotion piece you make up to pique the employer's interest—not to tell all, but just to get him interested.

BE SELECTIVE

On a resume, you put "Position Wanted" and then you select—mind you, select!—from your past positions the jobs that qualify you for the one you're going after.

If you have "Position Wanted: Bookkeeper," you don't have to mention the time you sold cosmetics door-to-door. In fact, mentioning it might worry the employer. It may make him think you'll be unhappy at bookkeeping and long for another sales job. So just mention the jobs that are relevant.

Second, don't tell everything about yourself in a resume. Don't put the salary you want, your reason for leaving your last job or your references.

OBVIOUS HAZARDS

There are two reasons for this: first, you're apt to ask too little salary and then find that you could have asked for more; or you'll ask too high a salary and be discarded sight unseen.

Your reason for leaving is your own business. You can discuss that with the potential employer in person.

To put "desire for more advancement" as your reason for leaving might make him afraid you'll be an aggressive power-driven type when you're nothing of the sort. To put "difficult personality" is even worse. It makes you sound hard to get along with.

SKIP REFERENCES

Never put references on a resume because they are not necessary. The time to give references is when the company is considering hiring you, and not until. To put references on the resume is to protest too much.

Don't account for gaps in time on your resume. Maybe you were sick, or had a long period of unemployment or stayed home to care for ill relatives. The time to account for that is when you're talking to the employer. On a resume, it just looks like a big gap, but when you discuss it, it makes sense.

Be sure your resume is neatly typed and well set up. It is, in a way of speaking, your calling card, and you want it to represent you favorably.

For further pointers, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my list of good books on job-hunting.

Beaumont Unit Will Give Tea

Board of directors of the Women's Committee of William Beaumont Hospital will host a "get-acquainted" tea for members at Orchard Lake Country Club Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Eugene E. Land, chairman, will be aided by Mrs. Walter Gehrke, Mrs. Dale O. Miller, Mrs. Lewis Wake, Mrs. George T. Trumbull and Mrs. Walter A. Plumb.

Mrs. Edward A. Proctor of Wing Lake is president of the organization.

May Carry Poison

Dogs and cats running in woods or fields may get poison ivy on their coats. They won't suffer from ivy poisoning, but their owners may get it from handling them. To remove the poison, give your pets a bath in warm soapy water and wear rubber gloves as a precaution.

Couple Plans Sept. 28 Rite

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Ostrander of Park Way drive, Sylvan Lake, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Jane, to Gerald A. Klein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Klein of Ludington.

Dorothy attended Ferris Institute and her fiance is a student at Ferris. A Sept. 28 wedding at United Church in Big Rapids is planned.

Make It a Daily 'Must'

Beauty Routine Is Girl's Best Bet

BY JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

This week I already have called attention to the importance of exercise, being outdoors and good nutrition for the business girl or woman. Lack of these are her three greatest hazards.

She should work as much exercise and activity into her daily life as possible. She CAN have splendid nutrition but she is almost certain to be malnourished unless she gives thought to the question.

Once she plans for exercise and some outdoor life and adequate nutrition, she probably will be more relaxed and thus a fourth hurdle will be vaulted.

I have indicated that it seems evident that arising a half hour earlier in the morning would be beneficial since it gives 10 minutes for exercise and time for a leisurely and adequate breakfast.

LAZE IN BATHTUB

When we consider the professional woman's beauty and health routine in the evening, many factors enter into the picture. Great benefit can be derived by taking at least 10 minutes for exercise and then a lazy tub before the evening meal.

This is most relaxing and gives one a new outlook for the evening. Tensions and hurry and worry drop away.

However, some women prefer to wait until just before retiring. Whatever time you choose, be sure to allow at least 10 minutes for exercise and also time for a relaxing tub.

Lubricate your face and neck while you soak. Then use one of the hormone oils or at least an eye cream just before going to sleep.

It is wise to save one night a week for special grooming problems such as the removal of superfluous hair, a manicure and shampoo (if you do that yourself) and looking over clothes to see what needs cleaning or mending or pressing.

The working woman's time is at such a premium that it may be good economy to have her hair and nails done once a week at a beauty salon. This also would permit a few hours of relaxation and luxury.

If you live in a medium or large city, you will find the personal shopping service at stores a boon. You can do much of your shopping by telephone or by mail. Charge accounts are helpful in this way.

For instance, if you find a certain type brassiere you like and have had it fitted so that you know what size you require, you can order it by telephone. This goes for many items such as cosmetics and even shoes.

Living Room Now Place for Ironer

MT. CLEMENS (INS) — The automatic ironer now is attractive enough for the living room.

It has been designed into a furniture cabinet and is available in three finishes — fruitwood, limed oak or mahogany.

The new style ironer was designed following a survey which disclosed that homemakers prefer to do their ironing in the living room, dining room, den or bedroom because modern kitchen and laundry rooms are small.

The cabinet covering the ironer lifts off. The top and sides are of woodboard with a plastic, stain resistant finish. The front of the cabinet is paneled with a decorator fabric and framed in hardwood.

Always use plastic utensils to spoon food out of a vacuum insulated container. Metal objects, such as a spoon or fork, may scratch the glass lining.

Label Is Good Guide for Buyer

Maybe you don't need a guide to get around your local department store, but you do need guides to help you when you're buying clothes for your family.

Labels can act as partial guide in clothing selection; in fact, they may be your best guide. In order to know that your label-guide is telling you, you must understand its language.

Some of the terms found on coat labels, for instance, may be "new or virgin wool," "reprocessed wool," "Mitin," "Milium" and "Melton." Just what do these words mean?

When you find "new or virgin wool" on a label, you know that the garment is made of new wool, wool which has never been used before. Contrasted to this is "reprocessed wool" which has been made up into a wool product but has been reduced again to the fibrous state before it was ever used by the consumer.

"Mitin" is a mothproofing finish applied to wool; you do not have to reapply it after cleaning.

If you see "milium" on a label, it indicates that the lining of the coat has been insulated by having a metallic substance such as aluminum applied to one side of it.

"Melton" is a coating fabric. It somewhat resembles felt in that it is heavy, thick, smooth material.

Waterproof or water - repellent finishes may also be added to a garment. The label will tell you whether that finish is durable or if you must have the finish reapplied after washing or drycleaning.

Let the label be your guide to better buymanship — learn to "speak its language."

How to Get and Keep a Husband — Article II

Every Man Visualizes, Seeks the Ideal Woman to Be His Wife

(Editor's Note: — Here is the second in a series of articles condensed from the Dorrance best-seller, "How to Get and Keep a Husband." Today Kate Constance outlines 11 attributes which—with some variations to suit the individual taste—most men want their wives to possess.)

By KATE CONSTANCE

Every man has in the back of his mind a vision of the kind of woman he would like to have for a wife.

No matter what people say, men are idealistic. Each of them can imagine the girl whom he considers the Complete Woman for his particular way of living.

As a guide for single women who would like to play that role in a man's life, here are the 11 attributes which—with some variations to suit the individual taste — most men want their wives to possess.

LOVING ATTENTION

A Loving, Warm Nature — The male craves a mate who will satisfy his yearning for loving attention.

The woman who genuinely loves her husband is almost always eager to embrace him, anxious for her lips to seek his at every opportunity and always has a tender smile for him. She makes him a very part of her physical self, delighting in sharing within reason all pleasures of the flesh.

If she is married to her second husband, she avoids mention of her previous mate and she lets him know that no other love in her life has equalled or surpassed his love. She tells him that he is superlative as a lover.

Conveyance of her feelings can be in the touch of her hand, a tender and lingering kiss, a gentle clasp on his arm, a smile of deference when he speaks.

Ability to Feed His Ego — A man needs to feel that he is somebody. He hopes that someone looks upon him as strong, wonderful, handsome and smart. He eats up praise, if skillfully given, and hates to be belittled.

GOOD MANAGER

Respect for His Money — Nearly every man is looking for a woman who will be a good manager. Even millionaires look for financially discreet women.

If you want to marry, exhibit every consideration for your friend's money and forego all expensive entertainment unless it is your date's specific suggestion. Most men will bend over backward in appreciation.

When I was dating the wonderful man I later married, I insisted that we bypass the lavish night spots in our city of heavy spending. He practically popped with gratitude. He wanted to buy me everything in sight out of his moderate income, and he endeavored to drag me to the church within a few weeks.

I continue this policy of being fair with his money, asking myself every time I am tempted to be a spendthrift, "If I worked as hard as Sam for his money, would I spend it thus?"

Good Health — This is one of the most desirable assets in the eyes of a man.

Many women endanger their well-being with too little sleep, too much drink and tobacco, plus a frenzied attempt to keep up too many activities, and probably a weakening diet thrown in.

I think of a tragic romance of a business girl I know and her friend Tom. They dated for three years, then he married another girl. Why? He got tired of hearing Betsy complain of her nervous headaches and her worn-out feet and her aching side. Her constant complaining cast a shadow over his enthusiasm.

Certainly we are sympathetic when illness comes. Nobody has a certain grip on health. But every woman owes it to herself and her loved ones to do everything in her power to remain healthy.

Compatibility — Every man is not suitable for every woman. If you want to win a man, take time to discover his likes and dislikes. See if they suit your own.

And if you marry him, determine to go along with his preferences, with enthusiasm and perseverance. Just an attempt for a brief honeymoon spell is not sufficient for compatibility. Be sure beforehand that his likes are your likes, his wants your wants.

ONLY IRKS HIM

Abstinance From Nagging — Nagging seldom improves a man. It only tends to irritate and set him in the opposite direction.

I have seen innumerable romances crumble before a woman's destructive tongue. If the truth were known, it is likely that a good percentage of the great number of men who are missing each year leave home to escape a nagging wife.

Yes, you are entitled to express your opinions. But once you voice them and discuss the matter, don't go back and rehash the issue.

The desirable woman is she who abstains implicitly from nagging, approaching problems with fair and impartial discussion, being sure forever and ever to control her temper and her tongue.

Kindness and Understanding — Nearly every man dreams of the woman with whom he does not have to explain away every little fault, every little misdemeanor or action. If he is 30 minutes late for a date, brings home an old pal to dinner, or sends mother $100 in an emergency — how he longs for the cooperative agreement of the woman in his life!

You do not have to sacrifice your individuality to exercise understanding. But it is far better to give too much understanding than too little. And control that natural little streak of jealousy.

Freedom From Possessiveness — Any bond of love with friend, fiance, husband or child seems to give some women the desire to keep that person in her own little orbit without sharing a fragment of attention or affection.

The possessive heart usually is jealous, fearful and selfish. It can rob the owner of happiness and health.

How can you tell if you are too possessive? You ask prying, suspicious questions. You check up on the meaning of his words and actions. You do not like his attentions shown to anyone but you. At the slightest neglect your feelings are hurt. You often resent the demands of his work.

Hold up that mirror of questions. Do you recognize yourself?

You'll spend many serene moments in crocheting this fine handwork for the adornment of your church. The lovely filet border of circles enclosing crosses and I H S measures 12½ inches deep; the scalloped border of crosses measures 12 inches in depth.

Pattern No. 2580 contains crochet directions; filet diagrams; stitch illustrations.

Send 25c in coins, your name, address and the pattern number to Anne Cabot, The Pontiac Press, 372 W. Quincy St., Chicago 6, Ill.

It's ready. The 1957 Needlework Album—56 colorful pages showing many pretty designs; plus directions for making three crochet items and a quilt. Only 25c a copy!

Faithfulness and Spiritual Strength — A man yearns for a woman whose moral standards are beyond question. Even though he himself may try to reduce her standards, he has in his heart the earnest hope that she has been adamant to the advances of other men.

The woman of good conduct will have far more chances to marry than the woman who leads an unbecoming life.

As for spiritual strength in a woman, most men are not consciously seeking it and actually do not hope to find it. But when they do, it is a bonus for the relationship.

Physical Attractiveness — No matter how little nature has bestowed upon her, every woman can enhance her physical attractiveness. A man wants the woman in his life to be as lovely and charming as possible.

COMFORTABLE HOME

Interest and Ability as a Homemaker — Are you willing and able to make a comfortable home? You should be. To marry and foist upon a man a life of indigestible meals and an unkempt house is a fraud.

A woman owes it to her family's happiness and well-being to become as adept as possible in the maintenance of a cheerful, comfortable, livable home.

(From "How to Get and Keep a Husband," published by Dorrance & Co., Philadelphia. Distributed by Mirror Enterprises Syndicate, Los Angeles, California.)

(Tomorrow: Every woman should ask herself some frank questions, of which a fundamental one is "How do I rate in the marriage race?" in the marriage race?")

A QUIZ FOR YOU

How effective are you as a wife in making your husband happy and content? Ask yourself these questions and answer completely honestly:

1. Do you ask for your husband's advice and pay attention to it?

2. Do you praise him for the good things he does?

3. Do you refrain from criticizing him, and especially from upbraiding him in the presence of others?

4. Do you build up his ego by telling him that he is a good host, the kind of man who can make people feel at ease and enjoy being with him?

5. Do you avoid praising men who are younger, better looking, or have more money and better jobs?

6. Do you prevent your eye trailing after other men, especially in his presence?

7. Do you give him constant evidence of your love for him?

8. Do you avoid criticism of his clothes and his grammar?

9. Do you take pains to pick out something he has done and tell him how smart he is for doing it?

10. Do you ever tell him that as far as you are concerned, he is the most important, handsome and capable man in the world?

Score yourself 10 points for each "Yes" answer.

A score of 90/100 indicates that yours is a fine marriage, with good prospects of continuing and lasting happiness.

A score of 50/80 indicates grounds for improvement — and make it now!

If your score is less than 50 you should sit down and take a long hard look at yourself and your marriage.

Beauty Clinic
AUTUMN HAIR
By Edythe McCulloch
Most important in your autumn program is your hair! If yours is dry from summer sun and has lost its bounce . . . this is for you. Get a really good haircut (by this we mean a shapely cut that is attractive even with very little curl).
Undoubtedly you'll need a permanent. The cut should eliminate the dried, split, sun-bleached ends making ready for your wave.
The permnaent will enable you to take easy care of your styling between sets and make a fetching picture with new fall hats.
Restore lustre with rich shampoo and conditioner, let it act as a "filler" to add the body, giving that needed bounce and pliability.

Some Parents, Schools Force Guilt on Child

(Mrs Muriel Lawrence is on vacation. In her absence, noted psychiatrist Eric Fromm discusses six frequently asked questions on child-parent relationships. His answers are condensed from his book, "Man for Himself," published by Rinehart and Co.)

Q. How do parents unconsciously undermine their child's will?

A. The most effective method for weakening the child's will is to arouse his sense of guilt.

This is done early by making the child feel that his sexual strivings and their early manifestations are "bad." Since the child cannot help having sexual strivings, this method of arousing guilt can hardly fail.

Once parent (and society represented by them) have succeeded in making the association of sex and guilt permanent, guilt feelings are produced to the same degree, and with the same constancy, as sexual impulses occur.

In addition, other physical functions are blighted by "moral" considerations. If the child does not go to the toilet in the prescribed fashion, if he is not as clean as expected, if he does not eat what he is supposed to — he is bad.

At the age of five or six the child has acquired an all-persuasive sense of guilt because the conflict between his natural impulses and their moral evaluation by his parents constitutes a constantly generating source of guilt feelings.

'PROGRESSIVE' SYSTEMS FAIL

Liberal and "progressive" systems of education have not changed this situation as much as one would like to think. Overt authority has been replaced by anonymous authority; overt commands by "scientifically" established formulas; "don't do this" by "you will not like to do this."

In fact, in many ways this anonymous 'progressive' authority may be even more oppressive than the overt one. The child is no longer aware of being bossed (nor are the parents of giving orders), and he cannot fight back and thus develop a sense of independence.

He is coaxed and persuaded in the name of science, common sense and cooperation — and who can fight against such objective principles?

Once the will of the child has been broken, his sense of guilt is reinforced in still another way. He is dimly aware of his submission and defeat, and he must make sense of it. The fact of his loss of freedom is rationalized as proof of guilt, and this conviction increases the guilt feeling induced by the cultural and parental systems of value.

Greeting Was Met With Snub

But Insulter Only Proved Her Lack of Good Breeding

BY EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: For many years, my husband and I belonged to a card club with five other couples. Through a misunderstanding, which incidentally, I had no part in — one of the couples dropped out and the woman became very bitter, not only to the person responsible for the misunderstanding but to all the other members as well.

"Recently the only son of her sister was married and my husband and I were invited to the house to see the wedding presents. We arrived rather late and the only guests present were the immediate members of the family — some of them were from out-of-town whom we hadn't seen in a number of years.

"I started around the room to greet each one — extending my hand with a word of welcome and when I came to the woman who had dropped out of the club, I did the same. She stared at me coldly and ignored my extended hand. Under these circumstances and knowing she was angry at me, was I wrong in attempting to greet her?"

Answer: Her behavior was inexcusably rude, but if she had already cut you, or given you reason to think that she would it would have been better for you not to have greeted her.

"Dear Mrs. Post. When dining in someone's house, is it proper for a guest to ask the hostess for mustard or ketchup to put on one's food if they are not on the table?"

Answer: If you know the hostess very well you might ask her, "Oh, have you any mustard in the house?"

"Dear Mrs. Post: Whenever someone pays me a compliment I get very flustered and never know what to say. Will you please help me?"

Answer: Smile with pleasure as you say, "Thank you," and then talk about something else. Remember that looking pleased is not necessarily an act of vanity but of appreciation of the other person's kindness.

Former Resident Marries in Gaylord

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey W. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Beecher N. Rossman, Walter C. Waldie and Blanche Meidlein attended the Saturday wedding of Donna Wardella Waldie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward W. Waldie of Gaylord, formerly of Pontiac.

The bridegroom is Edward Lick Jr. The couple was married in Gaylord Methodist Church.

Scrub Both Sides

Reversible rugs often are washed only on one side. Scrub both sides for longer wear and to keep dirt from working back to the top. Dirt left in a rug will get in the fibers and is hard to remove.

Blouse Perks Spirit

A clean, fresh blouse will perk up your spirits as hot weather comes. Frequent sudsings keep them lovely looking. There's nothing that will cause spirits to droop more than a wrinkled, soiled blouse.

Hidden taxes would be all right if there were only some place for the taxpayer to hide.

Opti-Mrs. Club Holds Election of New Officers

Mrs. H. A. Miller was elected president of Pontiac Opti-Mrs. Club when the group met Tuesday at the Birmingham home of Mrs. Ronald Smith.

First vice president is Mrs. Gerard Stark and the second vice presidency is under the direction of Mrs. Harold Davis. Mrs. Smith was named secretary and Mrs. Rex Bassett, treasurer. Mrs. Tom Hruska, Mrs. Irving Gillies and Mrs. Gay Herrington were named to the board of directors.

Among the committee chairmen named were Mrs. Stark, program; Mrs. Harold Davis, ways and means; Mrs. Herrington, house; Mrs. Hruska, project; Mrs. Ray Lewis, entertainment; Mrs. Fred G. Coleman, membership; Mrs. N. T. Schooley, cards and flowers, and Mrs. Leon Bigger, publicity.

Why not try a frosted fruit sherbet? Just add a scoop of cool sherbet to any of the juices you might have on hand. Place it in a frosted glass for serving.

Airing and cleaning a rug is only part of the overall job. Don't forget to wash the floor before putting down the cleaned rug.

Person (or persons) who dumped a 10-pound snapping turtle on a State avenue sidewalk were possessed of a perverted sense of humor. Far from usual watery habitat, the reptile most certainly would have died. It tossed a bit of scare to a number of pedestrians. "That thing could have injured some curious, small child," one area resident pointed out. It was removed to a safer spot. Conservation men say, "leave these creatures where they belong, if not desired for food."

Kaline's Homer in 11th Wins for Tigers

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Al's 21st Blast Enables Tigers to Nip Sox, 3-2

Hoeft Gets 7th Victory Despite 2 Roundtrippers by Chicago

DETROIT (AP) — Al Kaline is acquiring the reputation of a late-summer hitter.

The young outfielder's second home run in two days carried the Detroit Tigers to a 3-2 triumph over the Chicago White Sox yesterday.

It was his 21st of the season and came in the 11th inning off Gerry Staley, ace White Sox reliefer who suffered his first setback of the year.

Kaline had only seven home runs through July. Since then he has cracked 14 of them, many of which have meant the difference between defeat and victory for the Tigers. It was his three-run blow on Labor Day that got the Tigers started to a 5-4 decision over Chicago.

"He's just a youngster," said Jack Tighe, "and he probably is a lot stronger at this stage of the season than most players. He's getting that bat around up there real good . . . pulling the ball a hundred per cent better than he did earlier in the season."

Kaline drove in the first Tiger run in the first inning, with a single. It scored Frank Bolling, who led off with a double and took third on an infield out.

But it was 34-year-old Ray Boone, pulled from the regular lineup several days ago because of fatigue, who kept the contest going long enough for Kaline to win it. Boone came through with a pinch single down the third base line with two out in the ninth inning. It scored Charlie Maxwell, who led off with a walk and took second on J. W. Porter's perfect sacrifice bunt.

Lefthander Billy Hoeft, an in-and-outer all season and headed for his 10th loss until the uprisings of Boone and Kaline, survived tremendous home run blasts by Larry Doby and Walt Dropo to pick up victory No. 7. Fortunately, both blows came with the bases empty.

The Tigers had two days off coming before opening a weekend series against the Cleveland Indians in Briggs Stadium Friday night.

Righthander Jim Bunning, who still has an outside chance to become the club's only 20-game winner, will open the Indian series.

Big Ten Warned About Asian Flu

CHICAGO (AP)— A recommendation went around to Big Ten schools today that they ought to immunize their football players against Asian flu.

Commissioner Kenneth L. (Tug) Wilson sent a memorandum to athletic directors suggesting they "take steps to prevent any outbreak" among the football squads.

"While cases have not been too serious, if it (the flu) ran through the squad members, it might seriously impair practice or game participation," Wilson said.

41st of Career for 'Lefty'

Spahn Shuts Out Cubs, 8-0

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wonderful Warren Spahn, the National League's all-time shutout king, has the edge for the pitcher of the year award today while righthander Jack Sanford, Philadelphia's latecomer, likely will have to be satisfied with the league's rookie citation.

Spahn, 36, master of Milwaukee's first place Braves, moved ahead of Sanford and lefthander Billy Pierce of the Chicago White Sox and pitched his 41st career shutout yesterday in an 8-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

It was Spahn's 18th victory, matching Pierce for the major league lead. The victory kept the easy-running Braves 8½-games ahead of the second place St. Louis Cardinals, who clobbered Cincinnati 14-4.

Sanford, 28, missed a big bid to keep pace in victories when he was lifted for an eighth-inning pinchhitter as the Phils took a 12-inning, 3-2 victory over Brooklyn that dropped the third place Dodgers 10 games behind.

In the American League, New York's "struggling" Yankees regained a 5½-game lead with a 2-0 victory at Baltimore while Detroit chilled the second place White Sox 3-2 in 11 innings. Those were the only AL games scheduled.

The New York Giants defeated Pittsburgh 6-5 in 12 in the other NL game.

Spahn cracked a tie with former aces Eppa Rixey and Larry French for the lefthanders' shutout record in the NL.

Spahn, whose edge for the second annual Cy Young award—Don Newcombe won the inaugural — lies in the won-lost and earned run columns, also came a step closer to his eighth season of 20 or more victories. Only one other southpaw, Bob "lefty" Grove, has ever accomplished that feat in modern major league history.

The crafty veteran, lone holdover from the Braves' last pennant in 1948, got past the pesky seventh place Cubs with a six-hitter, striking out five and walking one.

Southpaw Dick Littlefield, whose two victories are against the Braves, matched Spahn's whitewash job for six frames, then dropped his third in a five-run seventh with three of the scores unearned. Hank Aaron made it a romp with his 39th homer, good for three runs, in the eighth.

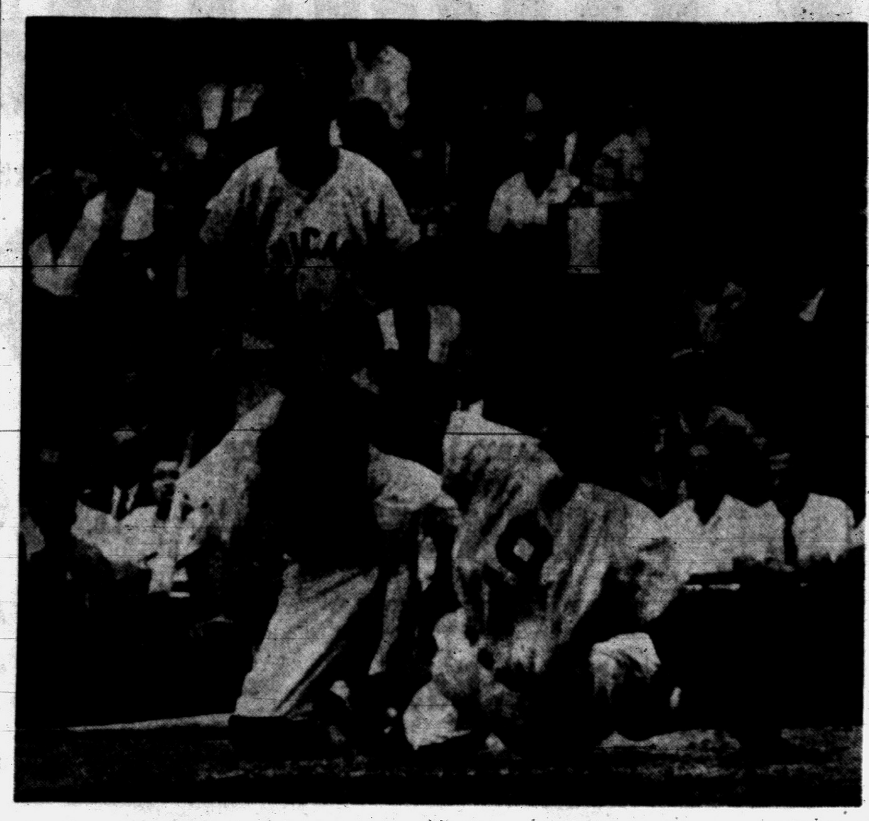

The NL record for career shutouts was set at 90 by righthander Grover Cleveland Alexander. The major league southpaw record is 70, by Eddie Plank, who piled up most of them with the Philadelphia Athletics.

Sanford was tagged for both Brooklyn runs and the three meager hits the Dodgers managed, two by Gil Hodges. Dick Farrell and Bob Miller, who pitched the 12th, no-hit the Brooks over the last five with Farrell winning his seventh.

Bill Skowron's bat did it for the Yankees. He had two of their three hits, including his 17th home run, off Billy O'Dell in the first seven frames, then singled home the other marker in the ninth off reliever Billy Loes. Tom Sturdivant won his 13th, but needed relief from Sal Maglie, who retired the side in the ninth with two on in his Yankee debut.

OUT AT THE PLATE — Minnie Minoso, Chicago White Sox outfielder, is out at the plate as he tried to score from second on Lary Doby's single in the 6th inning at Briggs Stadium yesterday. J. W. Porter, Tiger catcher, makes the tag. Walt Dropo next batter is in the background.

4 Players Pared From Roster

Lions Work on Ground Game

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Satisfied with the plan of alternating quarterbacks Bobby Layne and Tobin Rote and the aerial attack which has guided the Detroit Lions to three straight pre-season games, coach George Wilson is now planning to brush up on the team's running attack which has been used only to minimum advantages thus far.

The fact that the Lions gained only 26 yards rushing against the Redskins last Saturday night in Birmingham, Ala., was not considered to be a problem by Wilson.

"Our running game hasn't been impressive to date, but that's because we haven't worked with many plays," he said.

"When you carry too many players it is difficult for a coach to give everyone enough attention, especially when working on plays, he said, "but after we cut our roster a little more we will work on plays and give our running unit more time," he added.

The Lions did some cutting yesterday by putting three players on waivers and another on the reserve list. Halfbacks Dick Kercher and Don Daly were dropped from the roster along with linebacker Hillmer Olson.

Dick Marazza a 230 pound offensive tackle from Clemson decided to leave camp to return to school. The Lions put him on the reserve list with the intention of bringing him back to camp in another year.

Kercher, who returned from the service this year, is a product of Tulsa University. He and Daly, handsome little runner from Eastern Kentucky, both saw limited action against the Skins Saturday.

The Lions only had to cut two to be within the 43 limit by yesterday, but Wilson indicated earlier that more would be cut so as to give the running attack more attention. The roster is now down to 41, leaving six more to be cut, and a 7th when Lew Carpenter returns from the service in three weeks.

A big factor in the poor ground game in Birmingham was the absence of fullbacks John Henry Johnson and Tom Tracy. Johnson was unable to play because of the city's segregation laws. The Lions agreed to play in Birmingham before Johnson was added to the roster via a trade, but Lions' officials have indicated that they would boycott Southern cities with such laws in the future.

Tracy, still recuperating after an operation, was working lightly in camp but it was doubtful whether he would be ready for the game against the Pittsburgh Steelers next Sunday in Buffalo.

Gene Gedman was thereby in the fullback's role last weekend. He will return to halfback with Johnson back in the lineup.

"Regardless of strength of our passing game, in this league you have to have a running attack or you're in trouble," Wilson noted. He was also aware of the fact that the Lions would have to put forth a new strategy of plays against former coach Buddy Parker who saw his team score its first win over the Eagles Labor Day.

Soup Foils Channel Bid

Cramp Halts Chadwick Try

PORT PATRICK, Scotland (INS) —A few sips of hot soup beat Florence Chadwick in her bid to swim across the Irish Channel from Northern Ireland to Scotland.

Her coach, Mrs. Kay Law, explained that Florence requested the soup when she hit a bitterly cold patch of water.

"It must have given her a cramp," said Mrs. Law because she soon showed signs of distress and "I ordered the lifeguard to fetch her out of the water."

The lifeguard, Dan Gilbert, said "it wasn't easy, she even pushed me under when I tried to get hold of her . . . it was not the push of an exhausted woman."

Miss Chadwick, who was trying to set a new record, was in the water more than 12 hours.

At one time, she was within 2½ miles of the Scottish coast but was forced back by the tide. When she was picked up, she was five miles from Port Patrick.

DEATH TAKES HOLIDAY — Charles Musselman, Collegeville, Pa., miraculously escaped death at Langhorne Speedway in Pennsylvania over the holiday weekend when his sprint car rolled over and threw him high into the air. The racer was demolished but the driver only bruised.

Wolverines, MSU Plan 1st Scrimmages

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

The first scrimmage sessions of the approaching 1957 football season were scheduled today for the University of Michigan and Michigan State University football squads.

Benny Osterbaan planned to separate the men from the boys by sending his Michigan gridders through their initial scrimmage.

"One thing is sure," said the Wolverine head coach, "it'll be ragged, but I expect that so early in the practice season."

Osterbaan, however, obviously feels his squad is progressing according to schedule.

Opening day he said Michigan would not scrimmage until it was ready. He hoped it would discard the off-season cobwebs and regain its precision by today. It apparently has.

Nyren was expected to see limited action in the scrimmage. He is suffering from a pulled leg muscle that kept his running at half speed.

After two days of drawing up battle lines, Coach Duffy Daugherty planned the first scrimmage session for his Michigan State Spartans.

"We'll hit a little bit in the morning and a little bit more in the afternoon," Daugherty said.

"Then we plan on stepping up the tempo each day."

The emphasis has all been on speed and conditioning in the early workouts.

"Hurry up" has been the cue word in the morning and afternoon practices. Players are scarcely allowed to get back in position after one play before being sent sprinting to another.

Coaches have been shuffling four alternate backfields in the drills. All the candidates will be given a chance to show their stuff in line with Daugherty's declaration that no starter can be sure of his position.

"This squad has been remarkable so far for its tremendous spirit," Daugherty commented. "We want a wide-open contest for every position."

Judge Stands Firm, IBC Appeal Likely

NEW YORK (AP)—The International Boxing Club was expected today to appeal to the Supreme Court in Washington the refusal of Federal District Judge Sylvester J. Ryan to reverse his ruling that the IBC operated a monopoly in promotion of championship boxing bouts.

"We'll have to meet with counsel and see what the next move will be" said Harry Markson, managing director of the IBC of New York after Judge Ryan denied a motion to reverse his March 8 ruling.

Judge Ryan ordered dissolution of the IBC of New York and the IBC of Illinois in a decision June 24. He directed James D. Norris, president of the New York IBC, and Arthur M. Wirtz of Chicago, head of the Illinois IBC, dispose of all their stock in Madison Square Garden.

THE POWERHOUSE

By Jimmy Powers

I can't see how the Braves can miss setting a new attendance record, well past the 2,131,388 high of 1954. They say cold weather and rain or sleet might interfere, but I doubt it. There will no slackening off in anticipation of a heavier ticket investment in the World Series because there is no guarantee tickets will be available.

You are going to hear the loudest wails from their local boosters when they learn the facts of World Series' life. Milwaukeeans assume their season seats will be available to them, but New Yorkers, experienced and a bit blase about years of Series' allotments, can tell them a tremendous percentage of good seats must go to officials of the seven other clubs, commissioner's office, minor league brass, BBWA, players, scouts, and other equally high priority persons. Then, and only then, does Milwaukee's John Q. Fan step up and get what's left in the rack.

"The record very likely will be broken by 160,000. By the end of this season, they will easily pass the 10,000,000 total in home attendance in five years, says Brave writer Red Thisted.

And to think that in 1952, the last year in Boston, the Braves drew 281,000!

But, Thisted cautions, Los Angeles and San Francisco are not Milwaukee. "Towns have personalities just like humans. All sorts of factors enter the case, traffic, social habits of the citizens, their exposure to other entertainment. And most important of all is that indefinable thing called civic spirit.

THEY GET THEIR KICKS FROM BIG CROWDS

"A Milwaukee, or more accurately, a Wisconsin fan, takes keen delight in sitting in a crowded stand, looking about him with awe and applauding madly when the public address system gives the attendance.

"A New Yorker, banged about in a subway crush all his life, isn't so starry eyed about crowds. He isn't even thrilled to contemplate the fact that the population of his city is more than 8,000,000. His attitude, brought on by weariness of living in crowded streets, restaurants, elevators and highways is, 'So what? I wish 7,000,000 of 'em would drop dead!'

"A big crowd is a big thrill in one part of our nation. It is a distinct pain in the neck in another. Also, there are sections of our country where food tastes differ just as do sports enthusiasms. Some areas will support racing, others will not. Some sections are hotbeds of golf, others go for boxing in a comparatively bigger way. There's a Scotch belt and a bourbon belt. You can't pour everyone into the same mold. Milwaukee just happens to be a wild-eyed, hysterically happy, baseball metropolis, the greatest this nation has ever seen.

"And the Braves are making the league rich. They gave a check to the Cards for $35,842 for their last series there. The Dodgers picked up $35,287 for a three-day weekend. Even the humdrum Redlegs, in the middle of the week, banked a take-home pay of $35,821.

"Yes, sir, a Yankee-Brave World Series can't miss being a big hit of the century!"

Tale of 2 Managers

Casey Unafraid of Sox

BALTIMORE (AP) — Manager Casey Stengel's biggest worry about whether the New York Yankees can hold their 5½ game lead in the American League seems to stem from injuries to his team.

"If that fella is all right, well —, if he isn't we're in a bad plight."

The "fella" he pointed to in the batting practice cage was Mickey Mantle and he exemplified Stengel's mental crossing of his fingers on the injury jinx.

Mantle isn't "all right" and it's showing in the Yankee performance. The great hitting outfielder has been suffering with aching shins since a series in Kansas City Aug. 20-22. The Yankees have lost seven of their last 13 games, although no ground to the Chicago White Sox.

Manager Stengel, in his hop scotch way of talking, has no fear of the Sox head to head. Even with Mantle ailing the Yanks beat them three straight games about a week ago.

"They beat me one series by pitty-patting the ball around the infield," he said. "They have nothing much except speed. It seems every time you look up they have a man going from first to third. They beat us one game this season by just hitting the ball in front of the plate."

Stengel figures he has some speed, too. "If I can play Tony Kubek in left, Mantle in center and Hank Bauer in right, we're pretty fast, too, aren't we?"

Bauer is another of the injured Yankee players. Bauer has a fractured thumb and may be out for another week.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Al Lopez Still Has Hope

DETROIT (AP) — Al Lopez, who should be accustomed by now to finishing second to the New York Yankees, stubbornly maintains his Chicago White Sox still can catch the league leaders — "with a little luck."

Lopez finished second to the Yankees five times in his six years as manager of the Cleveland Indians, and barring a miracle of sorts, he will do it again in his first year at the White Sox helm.

"We're not dead yet," said the affable senor yesterday after his club lost another game to the Detroit Tigers and vital ground to Casey Stengel's Yankees. "We're only five games behind in the loss column and we have 22 games to play. So we're still in there."

The White Sox dropped two out of three to the Tigers and remained 5½ games behind the Yankees, who suffered a similar fate against Baltimore.

The Sox carried a 2-1 lead into the bottom of the ninth inning yesterday before pinchhitter Ray Boone batted in the tying run with a single. Al Kaline homered to win it in the 11th, 3-2.

"We had a nine-game winning streak going once, you know," Lopez reminded. "All we need right now is another streak — and some help from those clubs who are going to be playing the Yankees. I still think we could do it, and the players haven't quit hustling — not for one minute."

Jack Tighe, whose Tigers have divided 20 decisions with the Yankees while losing 11 of 20 to the White Sox, was not as optimistic about Chicago's chances.

Sampson Hot Rod Champ

OKLAHOMA CITY —(AP)— What goes into the making of the national hot rod champion?

Bud Sampson, 23, Phoenix, Ariz. racer who won the title here during the Labor Day holiday meet of the National Drag Race Assn., is quick to assure you it's a hobby that goes far beyond the glamor of roaring down the quarter-mile drag strip.

Behind each driver is a top-notch crw of mechanics, the love of engines and tinkering, virtually every penny they make, every spare minute, and lots of engeniity.

The winning car is a low-slung, yellow dragster with a square nose and wire wheels in front. In winning the title, Sampson drove his dragster at 141.50 miles an hour in the final eliminations.

Sampson, who runs his family's implement business, is one member of a three-man team that has worked for years to get just what they want in speed.

Detroiter Bags Ace

When Cass (Casimer) Hejka, 7421 Warwick, Detroit, banged a 9-iron shot from No. 7 tee at Morey's golf course, first of the week, he didn't figure it would wind up in the cup. But it did, for Hejka's first golf ace.

The Detroiter had an odd round, winding up with 41, after an 8 (double par) on No. 1, an eagle on par 5 No. 2 where he sunk a long putt, and the ace on the 135-yard No. 7.

His partner, Joe Hosta and Pat Cleary, who lives just off the No. 7 green, witnessed the ace, 2nd of the season at the course and 16th since 1948.

The Braves have been in Milwaukee since 1953.

U.S.-Aussie Netters Battle in Quarter-Finals at Forest Hills

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. (INS)— Dick Savitt, Vic Seixas and Herb Flam battle a trio of Australians today for the right to join two other Americans, Budge Patty and giant-killer Lt. Clifton Mayne, in the quarter-finals of the National Tennis Championships.

Savitt, second-seeded former Wimbledon champion from South Orange, N. J., Faces Australia's third-ranking Malcolm Anderson in a featured stadium match at Forest Hills' West Side Tennis Club.

Fourth-seeded Seixas, 34-year-old former champion competing in his 18th nationals, plays Aussie whiz kid Roy Emerson, and the eighth-seeded Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., takes on the sixth-ranking amateur down under, Bob Howe.

The sevents-seeded Patty, 33-year-old campaigner from Los Angeles and Paris, gained a quarter-final meeting with top-seeded Ashley Cooper of Melbourne yesterday when he defeated Canada's third-ranked Donald Fontana, 6-4, 6-2, 9-7.

The 20-year-old Australian champion made the round of eight with a 6-3, 6-2, 6-2 victory over 30-year-old Tony Vincent of Elmhurst, N.Y.

Mayne, the "unknown" soldier from Fort Monmouth who upset fifth-seeded Neale Fraser of Australia, was the first man to enter the quarter-finals when he beat another soldier, Pvt. Donald Thompson of Jackson Heights, N. Y., 7-5, 6-3, 6-4.

Mayne meets the winner of the Sven Davidson-Bob Wilson match. The third-seeded Davidson, Sweden's top-ranked amateur, won a fourth-round match from 19-year-old Yale sophomore, Donald Dell, 6-4, 6-2, 6-2.

Wilson completed a match that was halted by darkness in the fourth set Monday, eliminating young Davis Cup hopeful Barry Mackay of Dayton, 7-5, 10-12, 6-3, 12-10.

Five seeded women battled for quarter-finals positions and all but 16-year-old Christine Truman (6) made it.

Wimbledon queen Althea Gibson of New York, top-seeded in this, her eighth straight crack at her first U.S. title, straight-seeded 18-year-old Sheila Armstrong of England, 6-2, 6-1. Miss Gibson next meets eighth-seeded Mrs. Mary Hawton of Australia, who eliminated Mrs. Patricia Canning Todd of La Jolla, Calif., 6-4, 6-1.

Louise Brough, four-time Wimbledon champion from Beverly Hills, Calif., who is seeded right behind Althea, drew a quarter-final match with the winner of today's Ann Haydon-Sally Moore match when she defeated Loran Raymond of Covina, Calif., 6-0, 7-5.

Cincinnati Sues Ezzard Charles

Claims Ex-Champ Failed to Pay Income Tax on $55,000 Earnings

CINCINNATI, Ohio (INS) — The city of Cincinnati has sued former heavyweight boxing champion Ezzard Charles, charging he failed to pay one per cent city income tax on earnings of more than $55,000 in 1954 and 1955.

The suit, filed yesterday in Hamilton County common pleas court, claims Charles, 36, and now retired, owes $1,279 in taxes and penalties. It alleged that the boxer did not pay income taxes of $35,393 between April 1 and Oct. 31 in 1954 and $30,088 from March to November in 1955.

During that time Charles fought and lost two heavyweight title bouts to former champion Rocky Marciano, now also retired from the ring.

Hank Spiro's Shot Closest to Hole

Taking part in the first hole-in-one event as part of the first nationally backed PGA "ace" tourney, Hank Spiro, 20, a MSU student, won the test at Tam O'Shanter CC, Monday. Hank's tee shot on the selected hole, No. 2, was four feet six inches from the cup, and it won him a trophy and other awards.

About 200 Tam members took part in the event.

Bowman Placed on Waivers by San Francisco

The trade the Detroit Lions made with the San Francisco 49ers during the summer now looks pretty good.

Bill Bowman, who along with Bill Stits was given to Frisco for John Henry Johnson, was released on waivers by the 49ers.

San Francisco also dropped center Ed Beatty of Mississippi and Merle Flattley of San Jose State.

Fullmer and Vejar Meet in TV Fight

WEST JORDAN, Utah (AP)—Gene Fullmer of West Jordan and Chico Vejar of Stamford, Conn., meet tonight in a 10-round nationally televised (ABC) fight which each hopes might put him in line for a title shot.

Fullmer, the pressing, windmill type mauler who won the 160-pound title from Sugar Ray Robinson last January only to lose it in a return-bout knockout four months later, was favored 3-1. The No. 1 challenger hoped an impressive win would get him another title shot at the winner of the Robinson-Carmen Basilio fight later this month.

The fight was scheduled for 9 p.m. EST.

Zatkoff Traded, Deal Canceled in Seven Hours

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A trade of linebacker Roger Zatkoff of the Cleveland Browns for quarterback Rudy Bukich of the Los Angeles Rams was made and canceled in a space of seven hours.

The reason was Zatkoff's assertion last night that he would go home to Detroit rather than report to the Rams. He said he wants to stay with a Midwest team so he can be with his family more than if he switched to the Rams. He and Mrs. Zatkoff have three daughters and are expecting a fourth child.

General Manager Pete Rozelle of the Rams said he and Coach Paul Brown of Cleveland called off the deal last night.

Record Bass Heads Press Fishing Champs

By H. GUY MOATS

It's all over now, except for the congratulations—and the receipt of those very acceptable $50 U.S. Savings Bonds.

The 1957 Pontiac Press "big fish derby" wound up a record-breaking summer-long competition, Labor Day, with a "last minute" entry upsetting the late bluegill leader. John Nemyer, landscape architect of 3815 Sandcraft, Rt. 2, Orchard Lake, just got under the wire Tuesday with his one-pound, two-and-a-half ounce bluegill.

Nemyer's fish bumped Loren K. Wilson of Pontiac, right off the divisional championship by one-and-a-half ounces.

Andy Simko, 48, retired auto worker, didn't have any competition for the black bass bond. That is, after he walked in The Press' sports department on July 29, lugging a 7-pound, 15½-ounce largemouth. No one even came close, despite the fact that six-pounders were more numerous than ever before in this contest.

About the same time, Matt Grahek, Pontiac angler, brought in a 9-pound, 8-ounce northern pike that has withstood all comers to wind up as top fish in that division.

Contest closed Monday night, but fishermen were given until Tuesday noon to get in entries. Nemyer brought his winning 'gill in at 9:30 a.m. He took the fat fish from Brendel lake, near Holly, on Sunday, while fishing with his usual partner, his wife Phyllis. A night-crawler harness was the lure, fished in deep water, trolling for "calicos". The entry was 11 inches long.

Bonds for the champions will be mailed within a few days.

Simko's fish came from Big Fish lake, near the western border of the county, near Rose Center. It was the largest in the contest history, which has in the past boasted several seven-pound-plus specimens. It is also believed to be a record bass for Oakland county. It was two feet long.

Grahek's winning pike was taken from Crescent lake, a body of water more noted for its panfish and bass than for big pike.

2 Pontiac Dogs Win Top Spots

Mitzi, Blaze Best of Breed and Match in Macomb Event

Two Pontiac dogs were awarded top places at a sanctioned match and obedience match sponsored by the Macomb County Kennel Club first of the week.

Mitzi of Judan, a golden retriever owned by John Eicher of Homestead drive, scored 198½ x 200 points, which made her the highest scoring dog in the obedience match. Mitzi also received best of breed in golden retriever competition.

Best in match went to Blaze Von Jay-Jax, a German shorthaired pointer owned by Reginald Armstrong of Woodale Road. Blaze was handled by the owner's nine year old daughter, Linda. Blaze scored 190 x 200 in obedience competition.

Eicher and Armstrong are members of the Southern Michigan Obedience Training Club. S.M.O.T.C., of which Mr. Eicher is director of training, regularly sponsors obedience training classes at the Daniel Whitfield School on Orchard Lake Road. This fall's class will commence with a public demonstration on Sept. 19 at 8 p.m.

Woodcock Season Oct. 1 to Nov. 9

Woodcock hunting season in the Upper Peninsula this fall will be Oct. 1-Nov. 9. An error in previous announcements on this game bird listed the season as Oct. 1-Nov. 1 in the Upper Peninsula.

In Zone 2 (Lower Peninsula north of highway M-20), the woodcock season also will be Oct. 1-Nov. 9. The birds will be legal game in Zone 3 (Lower Peninsula south of highway M-20) during an Oct. 21-Nov. 9 season.

In Zones 2 and 3, hunting is not permitted on Oct. 21 before 10 a.m.

Celts Sign Hemric

BOSTON (AP) — Dick Hemric, rugged forward, has signed for his third season with the world champion Boston Celtics of the National Basketball Assn.

The 6-6, 240-pounder appeared in 67 games last winter and scored 364 points for a 5.4 game average.

Bluegills 'Tear Up' Lake

Big Ones Active, Shaw Says

By JACK PATTERSON

Bill Shaw called the other day and said big bluegills were tearing up the water in Upper Straits Lake and maybe we ought to go out and do something about it. We couldn't at the moment because we had some unfinished business in the north that required immediate attention. Now, however, we can see no good reason not to take Bill up on his offer and one of these evenings soon we'll have a go at it. Anyone interested in some fast and furious bluegill fishing is welcome to go along.

PATTERSON

One item on the northern agenda was a probable last time this season workout on the North Branch. We weren't primarily concerned with catching fish but more interested, really, in seeing how the fish were spending their time on a warm, overcast last day of August. A good many small fish were rising and a grasshopper imitation got some but not very much interest from them.

Some quiet gumshoeing around revealed fish feeding actively under water, and a wet coachman got enough response to indicate that the serious fisherman would be better off working below the surface.

We broke off the only good fish of the day because he grabbed onto us in a shallow run where no good fish ought to have been. Took us completely by surprise and the 5X leader was no match for our startled reaction. A heavier leader or more disciplined reflex would cure this occasional cloddishness which costs us, on an average, half a dozen good fish a season.

There seems to be a good supply of deer around this year. For some reason the percentage of bucks in our own hunting area, anyway, appears to be much higher than in the past few years. This is an encouraging trend and we noted more decent racks and fewer scrawny spikes than we've seen in some time.

This is a very pleasant time of year to fool around in the woods. There's enough of summer left so that heavy work details usually die aborning but the nights are crisp and good for sleeping.

One working party did get beyond the committee stage. Some insomniac turned us out at 10 a.m. with the announcement that it would be a splendid morning to build a new bridge.

The job called for some tree felling and we were stymied for a bit for the want of a left-handed axeman. Dr. George Petroff magically appeared out of the woods and took care of that detail.

The writer took an unscheduled swim as a reward for his timely, helpful advice on how the other fellows were lousing up the job. But we've got a new bridge, using the phrase in its broadest sense. Anybody with the agility of a mountain goat should have a sporting chance of getting across it dry shod.

Outlook Bright for Fall Hunting

ALL OUTDOORS (INS) — Excitement brought on by the coming hunting seasons in Michigan is rising and with this come predictions of "excellent" sports afield this season.

National conservation surveys conducted by Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation showed that Michigan will have much better small game hunting this season while dear and bear hunting will be as good or better than in 1956.

Primary grouse states of Michigan, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Maine and New York reported "a good indication that the trend in this species is on the upswing." Southern states such as Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia and North Carolina reported grouse populations "The same as or lower than 1956."

Although the national picture shows ringneck pheasants as only "slightly increased," a spokesman for the conservation department said good weather has greatly improved the Michigan pheasant hunting outlook.

California was the only state reporting a decrease in the number of deer. The report listed Michigan's deer herd as "equal to 1956."

Just in case you are interested, Alaska hunting prospects are excellent for deer, elk, caribou and mountain sheep.

Ontario conservation officials said moose are especially numerous even though there was a big kill last season.

Canadian regulations, including those on migratory game birds, are more liberal than ever in an effort to attract more non-resident hunters.

Police Marksmen Win Team Places

Two Pontiac police pistol experts have won places on a 10-man southeastern Michigan pistol team for the big Sept. 5 match at Jackson. The Jackson affair is under the auspices of the Police Chiefs association, and four state area teams are involved.

Lieut. Harry Nye and special officer Ted Villella won their team places by firing scores of 550x600 and 549x600, respectively, in the recent SE Police Chiefs elimination matches at Rouge Park. The officers fired their rounds with the .38 caliber special police weapon.

Michigan Squirrels 'Emigrate' to Canada

LANSING (AP) — Thirty-one Michigan fox squirrels have "emigrated" to Canada under a cooperative game program between conservation departments in Michigan and Ontario.

The squirrels, live - trapped on woodlots at Michigan State University, were released at Port Franks, near Sarnia, where Ontario game specialists hope to establish squirrel populations.

State Offering Millions of Trees

Michigan Conservation Department placed 22,500,000 seedling and transplant trees on sale last week and orders are being taken for the fall planting season.

Red pine seedlings and transplants, jack pine seedlings and white pine transplants are available for reforestation and Christmas tree production only, not for ornamental plantings.

Trees will be shipped to landowners from the Department's three state nurseries in time for fall planting. Shipments usually take place between Sept. 15 and Nov. 1, but may vary somewhat with weather conditions.

A post card to the department's Forestry Division, Lansing 26, will bring full details and order blanks.

Top Field in $100,000 U.N. Handicap Sept. 14

The Associated Press

The $100,000 United Nations Handicap at Atlantic City Sept. 14 could well be the race of the year with Round Table and Gallant Man, leading candidates for the 3-year-old title, matching strides against a hand-picked field of older horses.

LANSING — Three years of dredging and fill work at Sterling state park, on Lake Erie south of Detroit, was completed recently.

The popular park nearly washed away during a terrific Lake Erie storm several years ago. It has now been rebuilt to the extent of legislative appropriations.

During the three years, 2,500,000 cubic yards of earth were dredged up to form 140 acres of park lagoons and 240 acres of upland.

Teachers Take Vacations at Conservation 'School'

LANSING — While summer means "vacation" for most people, it often is a time for schoolwork for thousands of Michigan teachers.

Many teachers take part in conservation education classes at the Michigan Conservation Department's Higgins Lake Training School.

The teacher training program conducted by the department each year provides basic education in principles and practices pertaining to the the conservation and management of natural resources.

Numerous Michigan teachers have received their initial conservation training at Higgins Lake. Subject matter presented is not highly technical, but instead is aimed at creating interest in wise resource use, and in developing an understanding of how natural resource management affects the economic and social standards of individuals and communities.

Several teachers attend the school under scholarships sponsored annualily by garden clubs, sportsmen's clubs and other organizations.

Solunar Tables

Devised for this particular area, the following solunar tables were prepared to lend a hand to anglers seeking the best times in which to ply their sport. John Alden Knight is the source of the data, which shows major periods lasting from one and a half hours to two hours. Minor periods are of shorter duration.

Forest Service Man Heads U.S. Group

LANSING — Charles W. Mattison, of the U.S. Forest Service information and education office in Washington, D.C., was elected president of the Conservation Education Association. He was named at the national group's recent meeting at Higgins Lake.

Some 120 educators attended the meeting at the Michigan Conservation Department's training school and discussed "development of leadership in conservation education."

One of the highlights of the program was an address by Gov. G. Mennen Williams on "Michigan Resource Use Problems."

Other officers elected by the association included Edward M. Ray of the Michigan Conservation Department, first vice president; Dr. Stanley Mullak, University of Utah, second vice president; and Dr. Wilson Clark, Eastern Montana College of Education, secretary.

Bill Stieger, a football end for Washington State, is also a leading birler in northwest circles.

Payments of Bounties Hit $9,390 in July

LANSING (AP)—Hunters and trappers collected $9,390 in state bounty payments during July, the State Conservation Department reported today.

Payments included $6,390 for 1,278 foxes; $2,745 for 160 coyotes, and $225 for 51 bobcats.

All the bobcats and all but nine of the coyotes were taken in the Upper Peninsula.

Bounties paid out for the first seven months of the year total more than $123,000, the department said.

Top Pacers in Big Stake

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Nine of the nation's top 2-year-old pacers were ready to go for a record $42,131 purse in the Fox Stake at the Indiana State Fairgrounds today.

Sharpshooter, owned by Arden Homestead Stable of Goshen, N.Y. and driven by Harry Pownall, won the $37,112 Horseman Strike for 2-year-old trotters yesterday in a raceoff with Gang Awa.

EDUCATION AFIELD — Hundreds of Michigan school teachers take a busman's holiday each summer and attend classes in conservation education at the Conservation Department's Higgins Lake training school. These teachers take part in field trips, lectures and outdoor classroom work to gain knowledge useful in teaching conservation in Michigan schools.

Accuse Three Filipinos of Looting Plane Debric

MANILA (AP) — The Philippine constabulary today said three Filipino men will be charged with looting the wreckage of the plane in which President Ramon Magsaysay crashed to his death on Cebu Island March 17.

Officials said they were checking reports the President was carrying 25,000 pesos ($12,500). They said the three men would be charged at least with taking guns from the burning wreckage.

The three men were not identified.

U.S. Seeking to End Brutality in Hungary

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The United States is rallying support for a resolution to renew U.N. efforts to end Communist repression in Hungary.

Informed sources say backing for the proposal is spreading.

No one expressed opposition to the plan as a whole when Chief U.S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge outlined it at two private conferences attended by more than 60 delegations yesterday, an unofficial report said.

The United States expects to submit the resolution next week to the General Assembly special session on Hungary. Britain supports the measure.

The resolution calls on Russia and the Hungarian regime of Premier Janos Kadar "to desist from repressive measures against the Hungarian people" and to cease defying the General Assembly.

George, Gracie's Son Found Guilty of Speeding

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — The 22-year-old son of George Burns and Gracie Allen has been fined $50 and sentenced to spend a week end in jail for speeding. But the sentence has been vacated, temporarily.

Ronnie Burns' attorney asked that the delay be granted pending a probation report. Probation hearing and sentence was set for Sept. 24.

Young Burns was haled into Beverly Hills Municipal Court yesterday on a charge that he sped 85 m.p.h. in a 25 m.p.h. zone on Beverly Drive in Beverly Hills.

Look Ma! It's No Chore to Clean Venetian Blinds

NEW YORK (AP) — The chore of cleaning Venetian blinds is lightened by a new vacuum cleaner attachment called "V-Vac" which cleans both sides of the slats at the same time.

Among new products this week, "V-Vac" — because it's V-shaped to sort of bite over the slats — is made by W. & W. Manufacturing Co., Grandview, Mo. The mouth of the "V" has removable dusters of soft dynel fabric to pick up the dust which is sucked into the vacuum hose. When soiled, the dynel dusters can be washed without their getting matted or stiff.

Lakewood Farms Lights Installed Mite Too Fast

Some Waterford Township residents are "beginning to see the light"—and that's not legal, according to Supervisor Elmer Johnson at last night's township board meeting.

Through some misunderstanding, Lakewood Farms property owners are enjoying 11 street lights, installed in the subdivision by the Detroit Edison before they had agreed to pay for the service.

In May, Johnson informed the electric company that the township would proceed with a special assessment district to finance the lights as soon as it received the company's approval.

Before township officials knew what was happening, the lights had been installed and now there must be a public hearing to determine whether the property owners want them or not.

A hearing date has been set for Sept. 16, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., and must be advertised five days prior to the hearing.

"We sure appreciate the prompt service," commented Johnson, "but we still have to observe the legal formalities."

News in Brief

A fire which broke out yesterday morning is still being fought at Boice Bros., 545 S. Telegraph Rd., today. The blaze is outdoors in a huge pile of cinders used by the firm to manufacture cinder blocks.

Ellen Miller, of 1 Maynard Ct., told Pontiac police yesterday that someone stole $480 from desk in the dining room of her home either Sunday or Monday.

Lynn's Jewelry Store, 1 S. Saginaw St., was burglarized Monday night or Tuesday and 24 small radios stolen along with some luggage.

Houghton Mining Operations May End

HOUGHTON (AP) — Because of the copper price slump, Calumet & Hecla Inc. faces a threat of having to close down its mining operations.

The copper-mining company's Calumet division said in a formal statement yesterday that a shutdown may be necessary unless economies can be found.

Copper's price is now 27 cents a pound. A little more than a year ago — in July of 1956 — copper sold for 46 cents a pound.

A. S. Kromer, vice president and general manager of Calumet Division, said all operations are being studied in an effort to arrive at economies.

Kromer said no decisions have yet been made. He said "high cost of activities will have to be curtailed or eliminated." A complete shutdown might be necessary, he said.

In the statement he did not identify the "high cost activities."

The firm's Calumet Division, employing 2,400 men, is vital to the Houghton area's economy.

4 Teenagers Hurt as Car Rolls Over

Four teenagers were injured when their car rolled over on Commerce road about half a mile north of Duck Lake road, in Milford Township, yesterday, according to Oakland County sheriff's reports.

The driver, Norma J. Brandeberry, 16, of 10086 Elizabeth Lake Rd., White Lake Township, told Oakland County sheriff's deputies that she lost control of the car while trying to avoid hitting a car that made a left turn in front of her.

She was treated at Pontiac General Hospital for minor injuries, and released. Also treated and released were Andre Lavoy, 16, of 525 W. Commerce Rd., Milford, and Phyllis Haddrill, 16, of 514 General Motors Rd., Milford.

Admitted with a concussion was William C. Kelly, 18, of 7500 Hickory Ridge Rd., Holly. He is reported in satisfactory condition today.

Two Teenagers Injured When Car Strikes Tree

A teenage brother and sister we injured Tuesday when the car they were in left Interlaken St. just north of W. Long Lake Road, in Bloomfield Township, hitting a tree, said state police.

Judy Ann Bassett, 16, and her brother, Reginald, 15, of 2286 Middlebelt Rd., West Bloomfield Township are in satisfactory condition today at Pontiac General Hospital, according to a hospital spokesman. Judy has a possible concussion while her brother suffered a broken arm.

She told troopers that the car hit a hole in the road and she lost control of it, striking the tree.

Market Activity Stays Sluggish

NEW YORK (AP)—Prices were mixed as stock market activity remained sluggish early today. There was a tendency to the downside.

Key issues fluctuated from fractions to around a point.

Oils showed an easier tone after their advance of yesterday. Major steels and motors tended to back away despite reports of slightly rising steel production and of a pickup in steel buying for the new auto models.

Losses of around a point were taken by Douglas Aircraft and International Nickel. International Harvester, Caterpillar, Westinghouse Electric and Sinclair made small gains.

Bethlehem Steel, American Cyanamid, Illinois Central and Pennsylvania Railroad were firm. Small losses were taken by Ford, Boeing, Loew's and United Aircraft.

The opening was moderately active, then trading slowed. Among the initial blocks were Sears Roebuck off ⅛ at 25¾ on 2,600 shares; Sperry Rand up ⅛ at 22 on 1,000; and Standard Oil (New Jersey) off ½ at 63⅝ on 1,000.

Too Early to Tell Effect of Bond Issue on Taxes

It's too early to tell whether the forthcoming Pontiac General Hospital bond issue will mean an increase in city taxes, City Manager Walter K. Willman said last night.

City Commissioners will discuss the possibilities at the private informal meeting Sept. 12. Last night the commission approved an ordinance calling for issuance of $950,000 in general obligation bonds, which will be voted on by property owners Oct. 28. The bond issue would furnish the new wing to the hospital.

The juke-box era has arrived in Northern Ireland, Belfast reports. More than 50 have been sold recently at $1,700 each.

Wheat Shows Fractional Gain

CHICAGO (AP) — Wheat futures advanced fractionally on the board of trade today after commission house selling had weakened the bread grain at the start of trading.

There was very little flour business to influence wheat and buying was largely by local traders. Deliveries of the September contract appeared well taken by elevator interests and this tended to firm the market.

A private crop forecast by C. M. Galvin of Francis I. Dupont & Co., estimated the spring wheat crop at 229,438,000 bushels. This is about three million bushels less than Galvin estimated Aug. 1 and around five million less than the government's forecast.

Corn advanced on scattered buying, influenced by reports the government had sold only 370,000 bushels from Commodity Credit Corp. inventories overnight.

Soybeans again declined, prompted by continued favorable crop weather and an easier tone in soy oils and meals.

Near the end of the first hour, new style wheat opened ⅛ to ⅝ higher, Sept. $2.17¾; corn was ⅝ to ⅞ higher, Sept. $1.23¾; oats were ⅛ to ¼ higher, Sept. 66¼; rye was ¼ to 1 cent higher, Sept. $1.31½; soybeans were unchanged to ⅞ lower, Sept. $2.37½; and lard was 5 to 13 cents a hundred pounds higher, Sept. $12.42.

Ford Names Miller to Managerial Post

Appointment of R. J. Miller as chief engineer, Tractor and Implement Division, Ford Motor Company, is announced by Merritt D. Hill, general manager of the division.

MILLER

In his new position, Miller will be responsible for all engineering operations of the Division and will be in charge of the company's Farm Machinery Research and Engineering Center in Troy.

Since joining Ford in August, 1953, Miller has served as manager, General Engineering and Research Department, Tractor and Implement Division. Prior to that time, he served for four years as manager of the Research Engineering Department of Dearborn Motors Corporation. He formerly was chief engineer and assistant director of research for Bendix Aviation Corp, Research Laboratories, Detroit, and prior to that time was chief engineer of the torque converter division of Bendix Hydraulic Brake Co.

Car, Scooter Collision Sends Boys to Hospital

A collision of a car and motor scooter on Auburn and Devondale roads, in Avon Township, Tuesday evening, sent two Avon Township brothers to Pontiac General Hospital, according to Oakland County Sheriff's reports.

John D. Tolbert, 14, who was driving the scooter, and his brother, Terry W., 12, of 2397 Devondale Rd., are listed in fair condition today with back and head injuries.

The car was driven by Wilfred F. Hefferman, 54, of 49 Carter St.

As 1957 Model Year Nears End

Auto Industry Building Up Hefty Dealer Inventory

By DAVID J. WILKIE
AP Automotive Editor

DETROIT (AP) — With a production of more than half a million passenger cars in August the auto industry is building up another hefty dealer inventory as the 1957 model year nears its end.

Most cars in inventory, of course, are outgoing models, including Fords, Chevrolets and Plymouths. Most recent estimates put the inventory total at something in excess of 750,000 units.

NOT UNWIELDY

Probably with nearly two months of low level production coming up the inventories are not unwieldy. The total represents about six weeks' requirements at the retail level. With the price concessions car buyers generally have come to expect most of the outgoing models undoubtedly will be sold before the 1958 models are all on sale.

The new models, especially those in the more popular lower price field, will pour from the assembly lines in large volume once the model changeovers have been accomplished. This will be part of the battle by Ford, Chevrolet and Plymouth for bigger shares of the car market.

Right now Ford has a lead of around 40,000 units over Chevrolet in the race for car sales leadership. In factory output the Ford lead is much smaller, having dropped to below 5,000 units. Chevrolet may overtake Ford in factory assemblies but its chances in the sales race are not so promising.

Registration figures prove that Ford did not make all its gain at Chevrolet's expense in this year's sales fight. Currently Ford is nearly 100,000 units ahead of its sales volume for the comparable 1956 period; Plymouth is some 60,000 units ahead, while Chevrolet is running about 85,000 cars behind its volume for the like 1956 period.

Over-all sales of the industry are running behind last year's total. That obviously means some of the Ford gain—and Plymouth's—came from makers in the low medium price field.

Although some industry sources have been saying an expansion of the medium price field lies ahead that bracket has lost substantially in this year's sales effort. Buick has been running nearly 78,000 units behind last year and Oldsmobile about 40,000.

GET NEW BODIES

Both these companies have new body shells for 1958 and have made other styling and design changes. Chevrolet meanwhile has an entirely new model and Ford has made changes broader than usually are made in an "off year." Ford has reported the changes involved an outlay of more than 185 million dollars.

Ford's new Edsel line went on dealer display today. It undoubtedly will have a significant effect upon the medium price car field. Being entirely new, it should offer interesting competition for all makes in the lower and top segments of the medium price bracket.

A comment heard at the Edsel press previews was that the various models looked much more impressive "in the flesh than in the promotional photographs."

A feature that attracted considerable comment was the self-adjusting brake installation. The adjustment is made whenever the car is backed up. Company engineers said the normal backing in parking the car takes care of the adjustment.

Ford '57 Output Soars Compared to '56 Period

DEARBORN (INS) — Ford Motor Co. reports it has produced 1,578,087 cars and trucks in the first eight months of 1957.

The company said the figure compared with 1,310,397 completions in the same period last year.

August 1957 output, according to Ford, amounted to 193,908 units compared with 110,085 in the same 1956 month.

Hekman Biscuit Head to Lead Michigan Week

LANSING (AP) — Edward J. Hekman, Grand Rapids businessman, will serve as chairman of the 1958 Michigan Week next May 4-10.

His selection to supervise the fifth annual celebration was announced yesterday by Dan F. Gerber, chairman of the Michigan Economic Development Commission, and Greater Michigan, Inc., sponsors of the event.

Hekman, 42, is president and general manager of the Hekman Biscuit Co. He served as regional chairman for West Central Michigan during this year's Michigan Week observance.

Gerber said Hekman will select nine regional chairmen, who in turn will choose county chairmen for the 1958 celebration.

Asking $65,000 to Control Pontiac Lake

County Loan Needed for Dam

Drain Commissioner Daniel W. Barry will ask the county tomorrow to loan $65,000 for construction of a new dam and levees on Pontiac Lake.

Financing of the long-stalled project is going to have to be switched to a cash basis, Barry believed after turning down bids yesterday for the second time since June.

Barry will ask approval of the appropriation at a meeting of the Ways and Means and Drain Committees. The money would be paid back by a five-year special assessment of the Pontiac Lake district, he said.

The Drain Commissioner said he has abandoned trying to finance the project by means of drain orders, marketable upon his signature at discounts pro-rated over the five-yaer assessment.

WOULD SAVE $8,000

This is the usual method of financing county drains, but apparently is not fitted to the dam project, Barry admitted today. Financing on a cash basis should save about $8,000 in discounts, he added.

Barry had advertised for bids in June and in August, with the stipulation the project would be financed through drain orders. One contractor responded at the first letting and two contractors at the second. All the bids, however, contained qualifications on the financing.

After a week's study of the latest bids, Barry conceded the law does not provide financing lake level projects by means of drain orders.

In spite of delays, Barry still hopes to have the project completed in time to prevent flooding during the 1958 spring thaw.

"On a cash basis, we should have a great number of bidders. With a loan from the county, we should be able to have another letting next month," he added.

A man-made lake, created as a subdivision project in 1921, Pontiac Lake has threatened to flood its banks for several years. At present, the Drain Commission is keeping its level a foot lower than the legal level in order to reduce pressure on the crumbling dykes and dam.

23 Are Slated for Fall, Winter

Variety Programs and Situation Comedy Rate as Runners-Up

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — The chronic complainers about television — who have been blaming the medium for everything from juvenile delinquency to bad eyesight—are in for a tough season.

Crime and detective shows, their favorite targets, are on the wane, and the Western and adventure show is king of the networks, with variety programs and "situation comedy" runners-up.

Just about the only things these can be accused of is murdering the English language, which, undoubtedly, they will.

A casual—if somewhat arbitrary—breakdown of the forthcoming fall and winter programs on the three networks indicate there will be at least 23 Western and/or adventure shows, all on film. There will also be some 20 musical or variety shows, and the same number of situation comedies. Crime and mystery shows have dropped down into fourth place — 13 of them. And, while it may seem like more, there will be only 11 quiz or panel shows. There will also be 11 dramatic shows, the vast majority on film and only three regularly produced live.

The rarest bird on television will be the stand-up-and-deliver live comedian: just one, Red Skelton. Jack Benny and George Gobel will turn up biweekly; Bob Hope even less frequently.

While the ratings battle between Ed Sullivan and Steve Allen enlivened last season's television scene, ABC hopes to make it a three-cornered battle for the Sunday evening viewing crowd.

Its entry is an hourlong oat-burner, Maverick, which will be slipped into the TV stream at 7:30 p.m. (EST). By 8 p.m. (EST) with the advent of the Sullivan's and Allen's expensive talent, ABC viewers will be so intent on the story they will neglect to flip that channel selector—or at least that's what the programing brains are hoping.

ABC, as a matter of fact, seems to be staking a lot on the Westerns. It has blocked them solid for two hours on Tuesday nights. Their two prize acquisitions for the season, however, are Frank Sinatra, whose 30-minute variety show will be on at 9 p.m. (EST) Fridays and Walter Winchell as a reporter in a newspaper adventure series on Wednesdays at 9:30 p.m. (EST).

CBS, having junked Jackie Gleason's Saturday night hour, has an hourlong filmed crime detection show starting at 7:30 p.m. (EST). It is called the Perry Mason Show, which might well confound any number of Perry Como fans, accustomed to picking up their hero a half-hour later on the rival network.

CBS is also doing loud drumbeating on such new shows as Eve Arden's new series about a lady lecturer, the hour-long Patti Page variety show on Wednesdays, and a Britain-made comedy series called Dick and the Duchess.

NBC's schedule seems full of new offerings—Dinah Shore's Sunday night show and the Gobel-Eddie Fisher shows (with the stars alternating Tuesday nights), a frontier saga called Wagon Train, a remake of the popular old Thin Man movies for TV, Gisele MacKenzie's new variety show, Manhunt (a sort of Chicago Dragnet), and Dean Martin's new variety show.

Cooler Weather Chills Midwest, Northern U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A touch of autumn weather chilled the northern Midwest and cooler air spread across the northeast quarter of the country today.

As the cool Canadian air moved into the Northeast, temperatures dropped into the 60s in most areas from Kansas through the Ohio Valley to the Atlantic Coast and northward through New England. Light rain fell in scattered areas along the Appalachians.

Lower temperatures and scattered light showers were reported from the Dakotas through most of the Great Lakes region.

Thunderstorms rumbled across areas in Texas, Oklahoma and eastern Colorado during the night. Most severe storm was reported at Eldorado, Tex., which was lashed by winds of 75 m.p.h. and heavy rain. The city was drenched with nearly 3 inches of rain in one hour.

Safe Robbers Get Lift

RENO, Nev. (AP)—Oilman Wayne Hinckley figured that if he posted the combination on the outside of his safe, thieves wouldn't damage it. He was so right. Burglars used the combination to get at $276 in cash and $3,881 in checks.

Rosanno Brazzi Boxer in 'The Orchid Man'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Somehow, I can't associate Rosanno Brazzi with Georges Carpentier, the French fighter, they seem so different. So I was surprised when I heard that Brazzi had bought "The Orchid Man," the Carpentier life story.

Then I was told that the handsome Brazzi, who does one fight scene, is a one-time amateur Italian and European boxing champion, who won all 13 of his fights — 12 by knockouts and one on a decision by points.

I had a letter from Kauai in Hawaii where Brazzi is appearing with Mitzi Gaynor in "South Pacific." He will probably do "A Certain Smile" for 20th before he starts "The Orchid Man." He also has two commitments for U-I, but they have no script ready.

Ready for release, Brazzi has "Interlude" with June Allyson; "The Golden Virgin" (formerly "The Story of Esther Costello") with Joan Crawford, and "Legend of the Lost" with John Wayne and Sophia Loren.

Princess Grace and Prince Rainier have telephoned Rupert Allen from Switzerland to come to Monaco on a very special assignment. Their press attache is very sick and Rupert will instruct the assistant in handling palace publicity.

Rupert, former writer on "Look" magazine and in charge of all press releases for Monaco in the U.S.A., tells me that the prince and princess are very happy in Switzerland and that all rumors of quarreling are untrue.

They return to Monaco Sept. 20 and although they said nothing to Rupert about the stork rumors, I wouldn't be too surprised if he sets the stage for the announcement. Rainier said any and all announcements of this kind must be made from the palace.

With the race on by world powers to tie up the oil fields of the world there's particular interest in Paramount's purchase of "Maracaibo," a thriller based on the oil fields, or I should say, the oil of Lake Maracaibo in Venezuela.

This story has been handed on a silver platter to Cornel Wilde. Not only will he star in it, but will also produce and direct.

This vote of confidence from his bosses came after Cornel turned in his first independent "Devil's Hair Pin," a sportscar racing opus.

I might add, that Wilde gets a nice trip thrown in as much of the picture will be filmed in Venezuela.

The letter former President Harry S. Truman wrote to Norman Panama and Melvin Frank shows that the ex-president hasn't lost his flair for writing letters. He was asked if he would act as historical adviser on Panama and Frank's picture "The Jay Hawkers."

After an exchange of several letters, Mr. Truman finally wrote — "I am sorry I will have to pass up your kind offer but will have nothing to do with 'Jay Hawkers' and when I see you will tell you why."

This so aroused the curiosity of Melvin Frank, he is personally flying to Independence, Mo. to interview Mr. Truman and see what he means, also to try a final pitch for the ex-president's services.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Garbo has been visiting on Onassis' fabulous yacht, touring the Riviera.

Twenty million dollars is a lot of money, but that's what Paramount expects C. B. de Mille's "Ten Commandments" will earn by Jan. 1.

Dorothy Collins, who had never before been on the legitimate stage, received great notices in St. Louis where she did "Wizard of Oz" in summer stock. She's also been signed to do "Show Boat."

Those two undying favorite singers of love songs, Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy, will be reunited on Patti Page's TV show Sept. 25.

Dave Ketchum, NBC comedian, was quietly married last week to Louise Bryant, pretty entertainer who has accompanied him on several USO tours.

Bury 80 Victims of Jamaica Disaster

KINGSTON, Jamaica (AP)—Eighty more victims of one of history's worst railroad disasters will be buried in private funerals in Kingston today.

A special train brought their bodies to this Caribbean capital city yesterday as 80 others were being covered with rain-drenched red earth at a mass grave near the train's wreckage, 60 miles from here.

The unofficial count of those killed Sunday night, when a holiday excursion train broke apart on a steep curve, has risen to 183. Other bodies are believed to remain in the wreckage at Kendal station, five miles from the mountain mining village of Mandeville.

Driving tropical rains hampered the burials and the search of the wreckage.

Some 500 persons were injured. A government investigation will begin soon. The uncoupling of the overcrowded train, which sent nine of the 12 wooden coaches smashing down a 100-foot embankment, has not been explained.

To Ask Annexation

LAPEER — Following the extra millage election scheduled for Sept. 16 here, the Metamora School Board will ask for a vote on its district annexation to the Lapeer school district.

U.S. Mideast Envoy to Report to Dulles

WASHINGTON (AP)—Loy Henderson, Mideast trouble shooter, returns today to report to Secretary of State Dulles on possible measures to counter Syria's pro-Soviet ties.

Advance reports said Henderson had encountered new pressures for the United States to become a full member of the anti-Communist Baghdad Pact because of the Syrian situation.

These reports from diplomatic sources also said officials of Jordan and Lebanon had told Henderson they would like some fresh demonstration of United States support for them.

Henderson went to the Middle East about two weeks ago. In Turkey he conferred with government officials and leaders of Iraq and Jordan who were visiting in that country at the time. He then spent a few days in Lebanon before beginning his return journey.

Tot Hit by Father's Car in Satisfactory Condition

A 16-month-old boy is in satisfactory condition today at Pontiac General Hospital after being struck yesterday by his father's car.

Johnnie H. Pack, 28, of 246 State St., told police he was backing his car up in a lot behind his house in order to wash it when he heard a thud.

Getting out he discovered he had hit his son Terry who was playing behind the car. The boy is suffering from multiple bruises.

Ike Personally Avoids Integration

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has been something less than vigorous in supporting federal judges who ordered public school integration in the South and then ran into opposition. Patience has been his motto.

Patience, in fact, has been one of his most persistent policies toward problems at home and abroad. He's been using it for all it's worth toward the problems arising from attempts at integration.

Eisenhower, who carefully avoids saying anything to offend Southerners, except for criticizing "extremists on both sides," has never yet said publicly he approves the Supreme Court's ban on public school segregation.

"I am for moderation," he has said, "but I am for progress." And there has been progress toward integration. Whether there would be much more if he spoke out forcefully for integration is so far one of the unknowns of history.

He used his patience again yesterday when Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus blocked a federal court order to integrate Little Rock's Central High School by ringing it with National Guardsmen.

Faubus denied he was defying the court and said he called out the troops to keep peace and order. But he also said his action could possibly develop into a "Southwide test."

But the school board — which had been ordered by Federal Dist. Judge Ronald N. Davies to integrate the school—interpreted Faubus's use of troops as an effort to prevent integration and ordered would-be Negro students to stay away.

Only a week ago Faubus had asked a state judge to prevent integration at Central High.

Eisenhower was asked about all this at his news conference yesterday. He said the Justice Department was investigating and "the next decision will have to be by the lawyers and jurists."

Thus Eisenhower once again avoided becoming personally involved although this may have been cold comfort for Judge Davies, who had to stand by and see his integration order stymied.

But the judge appeared capable of standing on his own two feet. Since the school board, because of the troops, had stopped integration it faced the possibility of being found in contempt of the court's order to integrate.

So the board appealed to the judge last night. The judge promptly called the governor's hand—by ordering the board to go ahead and register the Negroes.

This left the next move up to the governor who now, if the troops in any way prevented Negro registration, could find himself in defiance of the federal government and possibly in contempt of court.

What would Eisenhower do in a case like that? He wasn't asked about it yesterday. But a year ago he went as far as he has ever gone in explaining what he would do if a court were defied.

He didn't actually explain what he'd do. He simply said U.S. marshals could serve warrants. But how the marshals could serve a governor surrounded by troops—or force him to appear in court—is a problem Eisenhower hasn't had to face yet.

Can One Missile Hit Another One in Flight?

By DOUGLAS LARSEN

WASHINGTON (NEA) — "It's like trying to design a bullet that will hit another bullet in flight."

That's how missile scientists describe the problem of developing the anti-missile missile that will kill either the Intercontinental Ballistic Missile, which Russia claims to have tested, or the Intermediate Range Ballistic Missile.

The ICBM presents a dismayingly difficult target. Until recently, many qualified scientists believed defense against it was impossible. Now they are optimistic.

The ICBM will travel about 25 times the speed of sound—about 15,000 miles an hour—almost 30 times faster than the manned bomber aircraft operational today. This speed would take it from Siberia to Seattle in about 10 minutes, from New York to Washington in about one minute.

Once launched, it will be immune to radar "jamming" and similar counter-measures. It will reach heights of perhaps 1,000 miles, and spend most of its brief flight-time in the icy vacuum of outer space.

As it re-enters the atmosphere, it will crash down on its target like a shooting star.

The Intermediate Range Missile will present much the same problems as a target—except that its speed will be only about 10,000 miles an hour, and its peak altitude only several hundred miles. But since its flight time is even shorter than the ICBM's, there is less warning time to deal with it.

NIKE-HERCULES: Its job: to find and kill the enemy in the air.

MAN-MADE?

Both ICBM and IRBM are difficult objects for radar to recognize because of their low reflectance of radio waves. In addition, a way must be found for radar to distinguish between man-made missiles and the larger of the natural meteorites which plunge into our atmosphere by the thousands every 24 hours.

An anti-missile missile must be able to detonate harmlessly in empty space the thermonuclear warhead of an ICBM or IRBM — or to neutralize the warhead so that it won't explode at all.

All these requirements will push to the limit the scientific imagination and engineering genius of the anti-missile missile designers. The best way to understand their problem is to assume an actual combat situation.

An ICBM leaps from its lair near Leningrad—target: Chicago. In about 20 minutes, the Loop will be vaporized, and the area for miles around will be flattened—unless the ICBM is stopped.

JUST 20 MINUTES

There will be less than 20 minutes to confirm that an ICBM is on the way over the top of the world, and operational use some time in the early 1960s.

They feel that their missile will be simply an extension and development of their existing Nike system.

A recent unclassified Army directive included a name for a new and not further identified member of the Nike family—Nike Zeus—which may be the anti-missile missile developing out of Nike Ajax and Nike Hercules, the present anti-aircraft missiles.

There is only one element of the anti-missile missile problem that worries Army missilemen — and that is the "Roles and Missions" directive issued by Defense Secretary Wilson on Nov. 26, 1956.

It limits the Army to a horizontal range of 100 nautical miles in its surface-to-air missile defense systems.

Until now, this has been considered to apply only to defense against planes. Whether new Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy will apply it also to defense against missiles is still not known.

Next: How far should the Army fire its missiles?

to plot its course and to launch an anti-missile missile. Every second the ICBM races four miles closer.

There is no time to waste on slow and inexact human reactions. The entire defense system will be a marvel of automation, with the human supervisors exercising only veto power—power to halt the launching.

In 20 minutes, or less, the duel is over. Either the ICBM is destroyed—or Chicago is.

The three "radar fences" protecting the polar approaches to America against aircraft can be adapted to gear into such an anti-missile missile system.

TIME PRECIOUS

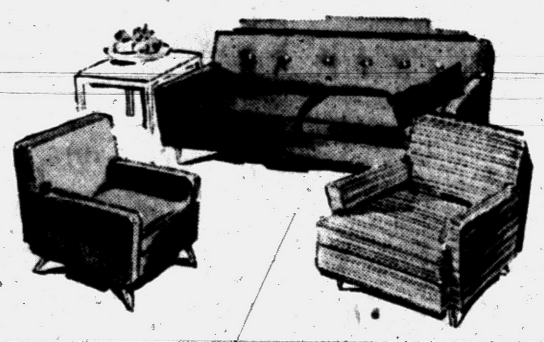

These, the Pinetree Line, Mid-Canada Line and Dew Line (Distant Early Warning Line), can save precious minutes in launching the anti-missile missile.

Army missile scientists who have been working on the problem for several years are confident they missile by the time the Russians can get their ICBM into production
