The Gift of the Christ

By JOHN J. STEWART

After they had partaken of the last supper, Jesus led the 11 faithful apostles out into the night, down through the valley of Cedron, and on to a favorite retreat, the Garden of Gethsemane on the Mount of Olives.

For three years Jesus of Nazareth had devoted His time and energy to the multitudes—to the sick and the poor, to the sinner and the sorrowing; healing, comforting, guiding, forgiving, teaching the words of eternal life, setting the perfect example, that men might live on a higher and nobler plane.

Now, in keeping with the will of the Father, Jesus was ready to give His greatest gift of all: the gift of His own mortal life as an atoning sacrifice for the sins of mankind, thus meeting the demand of eternal justice.

"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

DIFFICULT MISSION

But facing such a horrendous mission as this was not easy, even for the Christ. And in the Garden of Gethsemane Jesus, suffering great anguish of soul, prayed, "Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from Me." But in majestic devotion and selflessness He concluded, "Not My will, but Thine, be done."

And so Jesus, having power over life and death, humbly submitted to betrayal, false arrest, to extreme abuse and indignities, to the excruciating pain of scourging, and finally even to death by crucifixion. He descended below all things that He might rise above all things.

So great was His charity that as He languished upon the cross, Jesus looked down upon the barbaric soldiers who had driven the spikes through His hands and wrists, His feet and ankles, and He pleaded, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do."

There upon the bleak hill of Calvary, Jesus, the Lamb of God, gave unto mankind the supreme gift of His own life, and for all men the possibility of eternal life.

"I am the resurrection, and the life; he that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die."

Foreign Aid Slashed by $1.7 Billion

Cuts by House Unit Biggest in History

Vote Set for Monday

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee today slashed funds for the foreign aid program to $2.8 billion — a whopping $1.7 billion below the late President John F. Kennedy's original request.

If sustained by the House on a vote scheduled for next Monday, the cut would be one of the biggest since the aid program was launched after World War II to help foreign nations rebuild their economies.

The cut was engineered by a subcommittee headed by Rep. Otto E. Passman, D-La., an arch opponent of heavy spending abroad.

In a formal report, Passman questioned the "faith and reliance" that can be placed on some of the recipient nations and said "This program has been attempting too much for too many."

Only yesterday Congress completed action on a separate authorization bill putting a ceiling of $3,599,050,000 on aid spending. President Johnson and top state, defense and aid officials had urged Congress not to endanger the program by further cuts.

SENATE BOOSTS

Even if the House upholds the Committee — and it usually does — the aid program probably will have more money before the bill becomes law.

The Senate traditionally increases the House allotments and the two branches split the difference in a compromise measure.

Johnson and the State Department were expected to put heavy pressure on the Senate to restore some of the House cuts so a compromise bill would provide around $3.2 billion in new funds.

Passman cited statistics showing that the aid agency had $524 million in unobligated balances of previous appropriations on hand last June 30 plus about $7 million in unexpended, but obligated, money.

Agents Regain Nearly All of Ransom Loot

Break in Sensational Abduction Welcomed by Frank Senior

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The Frank Sinatra Jr. kidnapping case, first in Hollywood history, was broken today with the arrest of three men and recovery of nearly all of the $240,000 ransom money.

"Thank God, it's over," said Frank Sinatra Sr., spending his fourth night at the home of his former wife, Nancy.

The parents, knowing that a break was imminent, were reported "sweating it out" with young Frank, 19, and his sisters, Nancy Sands, 22, and Tina Sinatra, 16.

The three suspects were identified in an announcement released here and in Washington as John W. Irwin, 42, of Hollywood; Barry W. Keenan, 23, of Los Angeles; and Joseph Clyde Amisler, 23, of Playa Del Rey, Calif., a suburban beach town.

All three are charged with kidnapping.

Bail for all three suspects was set at $50,000 each today.

THINKS BAIL TOO LOW

U.S. Commissioner Theodore Hocke thought $50,000 was a little low when two of the suspects, Keenan and Amisler, were brought before him.

"In view of the ransom . . . the commissioner started to say."

"Most of it has been recovered," said Asst. U.S. Atty. Thomas Sheridan, who recommended the bail. The ransom was $240,000.

That changed the picture.

The third suspect, Irwin, arrested yesterday at Imperial Beach, Calif., was arraigned in San Diego, 120 miles south of Los Angeles. U.S. Commissioner Betty Marshall Graydon set his bail at $50,000.

Keenan, by coincidence, was graduated from University High School in the same class as the younger Sinatra's sister, Nancy.

"PROBABLY KNEW HIM"

A spokesman for the family said he wasn't sure whether Nancy knew Keenan but added "she probably did if they graduated together."

Manager Fired by Pontiac Gets Post in Troy, N. Y.

Former Pontiac City Manager Robert A. Stierer announced today he has accepted the position of manager at Troy, N.Y.

Stierer, 43, said he would begin his new duties in the 67,000 population city on Jan. 1.

Dismissed by a 5-2 vote of the city commission Sept. 17 after a lengthy hearing, Stierer had been working as a municipal consultant since.

Stierer came to Pontiac as an administrative assistant in 1956, became assistant city manager in 1960 and manager in 1961 upon the retirement of Walter K. Willman.

Formal charges made against Stierer by a city commission majority Aug. 5 were "incompetence, irresponsibility and insubordination."

Stierer had refused to replace Pontiac Police Chief Joseph Koren, who subsequently was suspended pending a survey of his department.

KOREN NAMED

Wednesday Koren was named assistant traffic engineer by Pontiac City Manager Robert A. Carter.

Voting to fire Stierer at the end of the hearings were Mayor Robert A. Landry and commissioners Winford E. Bottom, Milton R. Henry, Loy L. Ledford, and Dick M. Kirby.

Opposing them were commissioners William H. Taylor Jr. and Charles H. Harmon. Only Taylor had opposed the original suspension.

HIGHER SALARY

His salary will be $16,500. Stierer was paid $15,500 here. He was selected from a list of more than 100 applicants.

"I am very pleased to be selected for the Troy position," Stierer said. "It is an industrial city similar to Pontiac, with a urban renewal, downtown and industrial redevelopment plans."

"It has an excellent seven-man council," he added.

"We leave Pontiac with some regrets, we've made many fine friends here," Stierer said. His family will remain at their 14 Utica Street home until the completion of the school semester.

Rochester Man Dead of Injuries From Accident

A prominent executive and business associate of the Fisher brothers, Robert C. Shields, 44, died of injuries received in a three-car collision in Madison Heights yesterday.

Shields was fatally injured when a second car was thrown into his path after striking a turning truck.

The accident occurred at 4:05 p. m. on John R. at Irving, a block north of 13 Mile Road, Madison Heights.

The truck driver, Gary Ritter of Roseville, and the other car driver, Ordon Haynes of Highland Park, were to appear at the prosecutor's office today to make formal statements.

1st NATO Meeting Since JFK's Death

PARIS (AP) — The Western Big Four foreign ministers began a round of talks today prior to the first NATO conference since the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

The three-day conference of the 15-member alliance opens Monday, but Secretary of State Dean Rusk planned preliminary consultations today.

He will meet with French, British and West German counterparts on such problems as Southeast Asia, Berlin and over-all East-West relations.

U.S. informants said troubled relations between the United States and Cambodia probably would be brought up at a meeting of Rusk, Britain's Foreign Secretary Richard A. Butler, and France's Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville.

France has indicated a willingness to meet Cambodia's request for aid since the Southeast Asian country's rejection of further U.S. assistance last month.

Rusk will discuss U.S.-French relations at a "working dinner" with Couve de Murville.

Record Period for Pontiacs

5 Auto Firms Notch New Ten-Day Totals

Record new car sales for the first ten days of December were reported yesterday by Pontiac and four other automakers.

Pontiac Motor Division sales were at an all-time high for the seventh consecutive 10-day sales period and for the 20th time this year, said Frank V. Bridge, divisional sales manager.

Bridge reported more than 19,200 Pontiacs and Tempests were sold from Dec. 1-10.

Chevrolet's record delivery of 58,224 passenger cars eclipsed a 1962 mark of 52,228 for the same period.

TOP DELIVERIES

Truck deliveries of 11,490 topped the mark of 10,696 dating back to 1955, according to Chevrolet officials.

Oldsmobile and Buick deliveries of 15,480 and 14,617 respectively showed gains of 27 and 25 per cent over the same 10-day period in last year.

The 4,778 Cadillacs sold in the first ten days of December topped the previous record of 4,650 units, which had stood since 1958.

Chrysler Corp., smashing a 1958 record, sold 22,106 passenger cars in the first ten days, jumping 12 per cent over the same period in 1962.

SALES RECORD

Rambler retail sales of 10,445 topped the year-old record for American Motors by 97 units.

Pontiac's 10-day total surpassed by 26 per cent the previous record of 15,387 cars set in the same period a year ago, Bridge said.

He pointed out that in the calendar year to date, a record 579,679 Pontiacs have been sold.

Pick Jr. Miss for Waterford

Waterford Kettering senior Diane Fetter will be the township's representative in the 1964 Michigan Junior Miss Contest in Pontiac Jan. 24-25.

The 17-year-old was selected last night in competition with four other girls at the Pontiac Mail.

A 5-foot, 7-inch brunette, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Fetter, 4040 Rosemount, Waterford Township.

Runner-up in the competition was Liz Grimes, also 17, and a senior at Waterford Township High School.

A $50 savings bond to the winner and merchandise awards to all five contestants were presented by Jack Cooper, president of the Waterford Township Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Others in the contest were Carol Howland, Sheryl Maslanik and Rosemary Serra, all seniors at Kettering.

Yes Indeed, It Was Cold; More on Way

DOWNTOWN TEMPERATURES

| 10 a.m. | 4 1/2 | 2 p.m.  | 17 |

Frigid temperatures froze Pontiac at 3 1/2 above this morning, breaking the seasonal low record of 10 set yesterday.

The sudden cold wave plunged mercuries below zero in other parts of the state.

One below was reported in Jackson, while in the upper peninsula Marquette had a low of -3 and Sault Ste. Marie's mercury stood at 4.

Variable cloudiness, a few snow flurries and quite cold is the forecast tonight. A low of 5 is expected.

CLOUDY TOMORROW

Tomorrow will have, partly cloudy skies and a few snow flurries, along with a high of 20.

New Rugs: State on Its Feet

LANSING (AP)—If the rugs in the governor's office are a barometer of Michigan's financial condition—and in the past they have been—then the state's recovery from the cash crisis of 1959 is almost complete.

Controller Glenn Allen Jr. has predicted Michigan will have a net surplus of about $50 million in its treasury by the end of the current fiscal year next June.

And the state will advertise soon for bids on a new carpet to replace the foot-worn rug in Romney's outer office, the last of the rugs which became a symbol of fiscal distress.

"People have been tripping over the worn spots," said Allen. "It was getting to be a hazard."

The red rug was only a minor element in the 1959 crisis. It was a dark green one that former Gov. G. Mennen Williams decided should not be replaced, even though it was heavily-patched with tape to keep secretaries from snagging their heels.

Yule Gift No Surprise!*Radio On in Package

GREAT LAKES, ILL. (AP) — Whether Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore intended their Christmas gift to their sailor son to be a surprise, it won't be. The duly wrapped transistor radio was playing lustily when it arrived by mail at Great Lakes Naval Training Center. It still was on Friday, and sailor James Moore said he'll not open the package until Christmas. Moore's parents live in Flushing, Queens, N.Y.

The per capita income in Egypt is about $118 a year.

Nazi Convictions Over 5,000

BONN (UPI) — West German courts have convicted more than 5,000 persons of Nazi crimes, according to a summary published yesterday by the justice ministry.

The summary showed that German courts had brought charges against 12,846 persons accused of Nazi crimes; 155 were convicted of murder and 12 sentenced to death.

Three of the death sentences were carried out. The other nine were commuted to life imprisonment after the death penalty was abolished in 1949.

Johnson to Hear Problems of UP

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson will hold a meeting next Wednesday to consider economic problems of Michigan's Upper Peninsula, Wisconsin and Minnesota, a government source indicated Friday night.

Expected to be considered is a plan to create a Northern Great Lakes Regional Commission to deal with unemployment and other problems.

The source noted that the proposal had been considered under the administration of the late President John F. Kennedy. A parallel also was drawn between proposed Great Lakes Commission and the commission, already organized, to study economic problems of the Appalachian Mountain region in the south and east.

Nation Loses Pioneer in Studebaker Closing

It is sad indeed to see one of America's pioneer automobile companies phase out operations in the United States.

With discontinuance of its South Bend assembly line, Studebaker Corp. will center production of its automotive line in Hamilton, Ont.

The stunning realignment is but further evidence of the fierce competition in the automobile industry that has seen more than 2,500 nameplates pass into oblivion since the inception of the horseless carriage.

Studebaker began its long and distinguished industrial life in 1852 when two brothers by that name launched a blacksmith business.

They were joined by three more of the family, and began the production of wagons. In 1902, the wagon company, by then famous, produced its first automobile — and electric runabout. In 1904, the first gasoline-powered Studebaker was introduced.

The company's fortunes have ebbed and flowed with the passage of time and in consonance with economic tides of the Country and the relentless progress of the industry of which it was a part.

But with Studebaker's automobile operations in recent times showing steady decline and financial loss, the company turned to other products to bolster its fiscal structure. Twelve other divisions were established, all profitable. But despite this corporation as a whole lost $9.8 million in the first nine months of this year.

Strenuous efforts are being made by the U.S. Labor Department and state and local agencies to find new jobs for the 6,000 workers idled by the shutdown.

South Bend faces this loss to her industrial community with characteristic fortitude and confidence in her ability to surmount it.

Arab Political Stew Stirred by New Party

Clouding the already muddy complexion of the Middle East is the emergence of a new political force. Less than a year old, the movement known as the Baath (Renaissance) Party has leaped from inconsequential, undercover status to a dynamic power threatening GAMAL ABDEL NASSER's leadership of the Arab world.

The unification of Iraq and Syria, both of which are now under Baath control, is the first objective of the party. But it envisions addition of other Arab countries to this union — through persuasion or subversion.

A precise definition of Baath is elusive. Nasser, who a short time ago himself had Syria within his United Arab Republic setup, considers it an even greater threat than his old enemies, the Arab Monarchies, and complains that he has read every book related to the Baath philosophy and understands nothing.

A Western diplomat describes it as an "Arab Cosa Nostra." On the contrary, one astute observer thinks Baath is probably ahead of its times — reformist, progressive and secular in a world of Arabs bound by tradition, religion and narrow, personal interest.

Baath members on 50,000 party members scattered in eight-man cells throughout the Arab world. Originally, the Communists were considered foes. But recently, a party official announced that "the Red hunt is over," and Communist leaders are now joining Baath in calling for "the liquidation of feudalism," as the Baath party newspaper proclaims total hostility against capitalism.

But regardless, the United States is betting that Iraq and Syria, while anti-Western, will remain anti-Communist — and is supplying credits and loans of more than $60 million.

Johnson's Case and HST's Differ

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — One of the big differences between Presidents Johnson and Harry S. Truman in moving up from the vice presidency is time.

Truman, who had almost a full four-year term ahead of him when he succeeded President Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1945, made a lot of changes fast to get ready for the long haul.

Johnson, who had less than 14 months left from his predecessor's term when he succeeded President John F. Kennedy, probably will try to make do as best he can with some of the top men he inherited from Kennedy.

Truman, like Johnson, asked his Cabinet to MARLOW say. But within three months he had made five changes in it. By the time he was elected to his own full term in 1948, none of the Cabinet members he inherited remained.

Johnson almost certainly will seek election next year. This means, in addition to the usual problems of the presidency, that he must spend a lot of time campaigning. It probably will be to his advantage to keep the Kennedy Cabinet.

Replacements would need breaking in. This doesn't mean Johnson will simply rock steady in the Kennedy boat. He'll make changes, although maybe not at the very top. He's too restless not to.

RESPECTED MEN

Highly respected men like Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Secretary of State Dean Rusk seem sure to stay.

Johnson, who has strong opinions about people and the way to get things done, had and used the opportunity to size up Kennedy appointments, tactics and programs abroad and at home.

He said he backs the programs. But he probably will try to improve them and make changes in personnel below the very top level. He has to make his own record to run off in 1964, so he has to be a man in a hurry.

Some of his observations as vice president may be turning into action now. The administration is reportedly planning a complete reorganization and shakeup in Kennedy's Alliance For Progress program in Latin America.

NEW APPOINTMENT

As No. 2 man under Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge in Viet Nam, Johnson has just appointed David G. Nes, 46, a foreign service officer. It wouldn't be surprising to see Nes turn out to be the No. 1 man.

Lodge has been mentioned as a possible Republican presidential candidate next year, although he denies any such intention.

Meanwhile, the political armistice the Republicans declared after Kennedy's death — for a while — seems to be starting to disappear.

Rep. H. R. Gross, R-Iowa, called Thursday for an investigation of the radio and television operations of the President and Mrs. Johnson.

Kennedy sought to preserve a political tranquility, even when he was getting nowhere with Congress.

Johnson is pressed by time to make a record, for, unlike his predecessor, he was not necessarily an apostle of tranquility.

The POWER of FAITH

THE ROAD TO BETHLEHEM. III

The world learned in many ways about the birth of Christ. To some, the announcement was as silent as the appearance of a star. To the shepherds in the lonely night, it came as a shock. There was the heavenly light, the angel, and the host on high praising God. The shepherds went also to worship the baby lying in the manger. And their continuing faith even led them to become the first missionaries. We are told that "When they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child."

Days of All Faiths:

Little Known About Ember Days

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

Every one in awhile we mention the Ember Days, those groups of three fast days that turn up four times a year. They are always the Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday after (1) the first Sunday in Lent, (2) Pentecost, (3) September 14, and (4) December 13.

Nobody really knows where these Ember Days came from, but they were observed very early in Christian history. The scholars' best guess is that they were times of pagan purification rites, connected with the agricultural seasons, and that Christianity simply took them over.

For example, the pagans would have been purifying themselves at this time of year in preparation for the time of sowing next year's crops.

The name Ember is a corruption of the German quatern, which means "four." All it means is that these days came four times a year.

ST. ADAM AND ST. EVE

How far back in history can you go to find a Christian saint? Well, certainly you can't go back any farther than Adam and Eve, and that is exactly where some martyrologies go for Thursday's saints.

St. Adam died at the age of 930 years, according to Genesis 5:5. Eve's age is not recorded — not out of courtesy, but only because women were not important enough to keep statistics on.

Why these two should be saints in anyone's martyrology is very difficult to understand. One can see why Moses and some of the prophets are considered to have achieved the heavenly bliss of sainthood. They all were, more or less obviously, fore-runners of Christ and participants in God's plan of salvation.

But Adam and Eve were the ones who caused all the trouble and, indeed, made salvation necessary. If they had left that fruit alone, we would all be saints. And if this fallen couple are in heaven, then why isn't everyone else who ever lived?

UNFAIR TO ST. THOMAS

The world has been unfair in what it has picked out to remember about the Apostle Thomas. St. John's Gospel tells a number of very striking and positive things about him, but all we think of when his name is mentioned is that he refused to believe in the Lord's Resurrection unless he could have visible, tangible proof. Everyone calls him "Doubting Thomas."

You never hear about the time when all the other Apostles were trying to talk Jesus out of going to Bethany, where His friend Lazarus was lying dead. The people there told Him, but Thomas said "Let us also go, that we may die with Him."

You never hear that Thomas was a carpenter, the only Apostle who had this training and experience in common with his Lord.

You don't hear much about Thomas having gone to India and planted there a strain of

In 1919, Alabama entered the Union as the 22nd state.

FIRST CABLE

In 1902, the cableship Silver-ton set out from San Francisco to lay the first cable connecting Honolulu with the golden gate.

In 1961, 20 children were killed when a train hit a school bus near Greeley, Colo.

A thought for the day — General of the Army Douglas MacArthur said: "It is fatal to enter any war without the will to win it."

Christianity which is still strong today. Legend tells that after the Ascension the Apostles drew lots to see what part of the world each should take as his missionary territory. Thomas, at his horror, drew India, and he went there, worked devotedly and effectively, and was martyred for his efforts.

You don't hear that Thomas found the three Wise Men and baptized them and set them to work for Christ.

No. All you hear is that Thomas did not believe without proof, and was rebuked for his doubts.

Washington Notebook:

Gags Begin on President Johnson

By WASHINGTON STAFF WASHINGTON (NEA)—First Republican gag on new President Lyndon Baines Johnson:

"They're rushing to bring out a new L. B. J. doll in time for the Christmas trade. Have you heard about it?"

"No. What does the doll do?"

"You wind it up and watch it go to see how fast it dances back and forth, from North to South, across the Mason-Dixon Line."

Victor Johnston, executive director of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, did not realize until recently how far George James Rhodes of Ohio has carried his economy drive.

Visiting the governor in Columbus, Johnston got a hearty invitation to lunch. He demurred, saying he did not want to take up Rhodes' time.

"WITH ONIONS"

When the governor insisted, Johnston gave way. He turned to leave the office, sure they were heading for one of Rhodes' favorite restaurants.

Johnston was met at the door by a secretary bearing two paper sacks containing hamburgers. Said the governor:

"Come on, Vic. Let's eat at my desk."

A group of Pentagonians were

More Readers Comment on President's Death

"Accuse your opponent of the crime you have just committed yourself!" — no Communist tactic is more frequently practiced.

Minutes after the Kennedy assassination, Radio Moscow was blaming the "radical-racist right wing." A few hours later, its official New York spokesman, "The Worker," was distributing tens of thousands of one-page circulars pinning blame for the crime on J. Edgar Hoover, Alabama's Governor Wallace and Mississippi's Senator Eastland.

The assassin declared that he was "a Communist — a Marxist and proud of it."

L. F. Reardon

It is amazing that all the men who hated and maligned John F. Kennedy are now willing their sadness at such a "dastardly act." If these hypocrites really admired and loved this great man, he might be alive today. And all the bills that are blocked from passage in the House might be law today.

Hated killed President Kennedy. Let us join together and drive hatred and hypocrisy from this world.

Naugesteed Klt

Lewis McClain criticized Ann Saincome's letter comparing Mr. Kennedy with Christ. We all must compare with Christ or we shall never get to heaven.

Of course we are only human beings but we must keep striving for perfection. Christ is the Son of God and we become adopted sons of God through baptism.

Christian life requires sacrifices and self denial which is figuratively a carrying of the cross after Christ. To be truly Christian we must not only read Christ's life in the Bible but we must imitate Him as perfectly as possible.

Writes on Bill of Rights, George Mason

Dec. 15 Americans celebrate the anniversary of the ten amendments that have become more famous than the Constitution. On Dec. 15, 1791, the first ten amendments, the Bill of Rights, were declared in force.

The Bill of Rights came about because many early leaders, in and out of Congress, believed the Constitution was weak in its assurance of individual and states' rights.

George Mason, as the author of the Virginia Declaration of Rights, might be said to be the father of civil liberties. The first ten amendments were patterned after the declaration.

On Bill of Rights Day let us also recognize George Mason. Bloomfield Hills

The Better Half

"I see my uncle Frank remembered you again this year . . . He asks, 'When is that stupid husband of yours going to bring back that saw he borrowed from me?'"

D-Tex., quotes a description of how conference look in the chamber on the last day of session.

"It's right odd to look around and see the differences of faces on this occasion. Some call, thinking they have established a name in the nation and look satisfied; some quit, right glad to get home, and know they are coming back."

"Some are restless and fidgety, with a journal under their arm to take home, to prove how punctual they were; others are soberly and sadly calculating how they can travel down from their heights of political dignity to the level of their constituents. Few have got more money than they expected; many have got less."

The author of this clear picture? Rep. Pool reveals it.

It has been sent June 3 to the Cambridge, Mass., home of Harvard Prof. J. Kenneth Galbraith, then still serving as ambassador to India under President Kennedy.

Altogether the envelope bore 15 separate post office markings, including Bombay and New Delhi in India, where it just missed Galbraith.

Cravating all its travels, Goldwater workers were puzzled over the letter's long orbit stretching over six months. A bigger mystery was why it was ever sent to Galbraith in the first place.

For those congressmen who have never been through an adjournment and for those who have forgotten what adjournment is like, Rep. Joe Pool,

Plans Study for Pope Visit

JERUSALEM, Jordan Sector (AP)—Latin Patriarch Alberto Gori presided over a meeting of Roman Catholic prelates in Jordan here Friday to study detailed plans for Pope Paul VI's visit next month to the Holy Land.

A spokesman said details of the Pope's activities will be disclosed after the return here Thursday of the papal nuncio from Rome.

Patriarchate sources said the Pope will celebrate Pontifical Mass at Saint Catherine's Church in Bethlehem on Epiphany Day, Jan. 6, and will deliver his message to the world during the Mass.

Finish before 11 a.m., the hour when the Great Orthodox patriarch enters the church to celebrate Christmas Mass for Eastern churches.

U.N. Asks Youth Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. General Assembly laid the groundwork Friday for a massive program to educate youth for peace.

The 111-nation general assembly approved a resolution calling for final drafting next year of an international declaration on the subject. The vote was 91-0 with 3 abstentions.

The proposed declaration would note that young people suffer most and furnish the largest number of victims in wars. It would call for international efforts to dedicate the energies of youth to human advancement and mutual understanding between nations. Also, it would urge educational programs toward this end.

Baker Probers Want to See Tax Forms

By JOHN CHADWICK WASHINGTON (AP)—Senators investigating the business dealings of Robert G. Baker, former secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority, have requested authority to inspect his federal income tax returns.

Baker's returns can be made available by executive order of President Johnson.

Sen. B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C., chairman of the Senate Rules Committee, told reporters Friday that so far as he knows his request has not yet been granted.

A request to examine federal income tax returns in connection with the committee's investigation of any conflict-of-interest activities by Senate employees or former employees was submitted before President John F. Kennedy's assassination, Jordan said.

He said that although the request was in general terms, Baker's tax returns were "the only ones we're interested in as of now."

RESIGNED FROM POST

The investigation started on Senate orders after Baker had resigned under fire Oct. 7 from his post paying $19,600 yearly. A former Senate page boy, Baker was installed in the post while Johnson was the Democratic leader of the Senate.

Questions were raised about Baker's outside business and financial affairs after he had been named a defendant in a $300,000 damage suit charging he had used influence to have canceled a vending machine contract at a nearby electronics plant doing government defense work and have it transferred to a rival company.

FIRST HEARINGS

The Rules Committee has scheduled its first public hearing for Tuesday. The witness will be Gertrude Novak, widow of one of Baker's former business partners. She already has testified behind closed doors.

Jordan was asked Friday if the committee were going to investigate the radio and television operations of President Johnson's family, as urged by Rep. H. R. Gross, R-Iowa, in a House speech Thursday.

"We haven't seen anything that needs to be investigated," Jordan replied.

He said Gross had "published a lot of stuff that isn't true" and added the committee may want to go into it "to get the true facts out."

Later, in reply to other questions, Jordan said that "we haven't seen any slightest indication of anything wrong in any dealings he (Johnson) has had with anybody."

"He's not under investigation, anyway," Jordan said. "And I might add he won't be."

However, when asked about Gross' reference to a $300,000 life insurance policy on Johnson's life, Jordan said the committee "may explore insurance records."

There were 15,782 business failures in 1962, a reduction of light per cent from the 17,075 in 1961.

Official Indicates Possibility

Is Change Due in U.S.-China Policy?

AP News Analysis
WASHINGTON (AP)—A high State Department official has suggested the possibility of future change in the long-rigid U.S. policy of isolation toward Red China, provided the Chinese Communists first change their attitude toward the outside world.

While warning in effect that the Johnson administration will tolerate no military adventures by China's revolutionary Communist leadership, Roger Hilsman, assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern Affairs, said that this country is "determined to keep the door open to the possibility of change."

Hilsman set forth this view in a speech in San Francisco Friday. The address to the Commonwealth Club was reported to have carried White House approval and was understood to have been given careful consideration by top government officials.

In the present circumstances of Peking's belligerent hostility toward the United States and the West generally, the address strongly affirmed U.S. policy toward the Chinese Communists as it has been developed over a dozen years.

NONRECOGNITION

At its core, this policy involves nonrecognition of the Peking government and opposition to Red China's entry into the United Nations.

Hilsman ruled out any appeasement of Red China and reasserted a policy of firmness "which will make foreign adventure unprofitable."

Nevertheless, he said of the future that the United States is "determined to keep the door open to the possibility of change and not to slam it shut against any developments that might advance our national good, serve the free world, and benefit the people of China."

Hilsman's policy statement appears to have two significant aspects:

TWO ASPECTS

1. It could lead to a new round of public discussion if not sharp debate in this country on U.S. policy toward Red China. Whether any such discussion would become heated enough to influence the issues in next year's presidential election campaign is at the moment problematical.

2. It possibly may get across to any moderate elements which may exist in the lower levels of the Chinese Communist power structure in Peking that if they were ever able to make their influence felt in changing Chinese Communist attitudes, they might expect some favorable response from Washington.

There was nothing in Hilsman's speech to suggest that he has any hope of alteration in the positions long held by Red Chinese chief Mao Tse-tung and his immediate followers.

Hilsman said the United States does not intend to "betray our interests and those of our allies to appease the ambitions of Communist China's leaders."

The United States, Hilsman said, fully honors its close and friendly ties with the people and government of Nationalist China as a matter of basic principle. So long as Peking insists on the destruction of this relationship, he said, there is no prospect for an improvement in relations.

LBJ to Keep Hot Line, Add Texas Extension

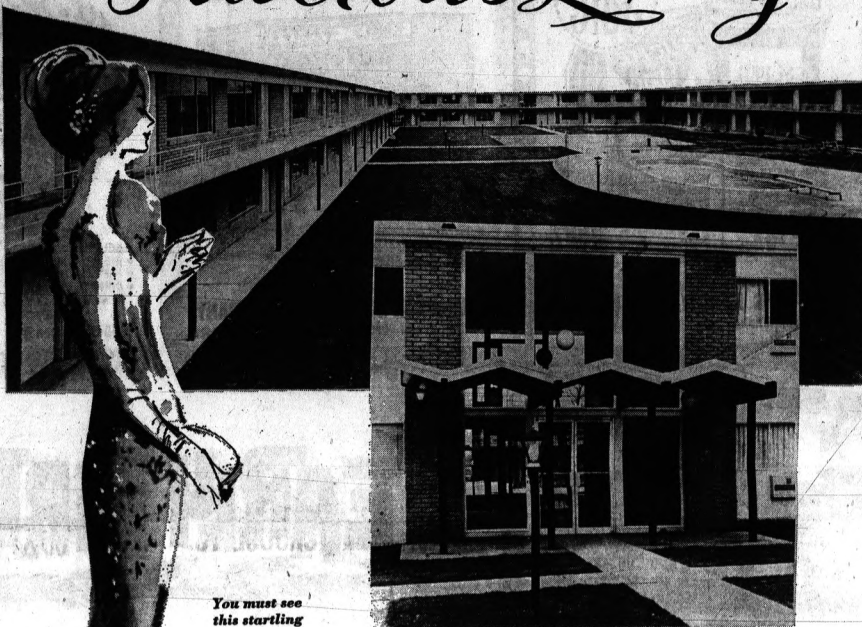

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Washington - Moscow emergency "hot line" set up in the administration of President John F. Kennedy, is being retained for President Johnson, including extension to his Texas home or wherever he may be at any time.

Circuits are linked to the main hot line whenever a president leaves Washington.

These extensions will make possible instant telegraphic printer conversation between the Soviet and U.S. chiefs of state if a war threat becomes imminent.

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — An Oklahoma City family survived the crash landing of their light plane less than a mile from the airport Friday night, then had to rush their little girl to a hospital because she may have eaten rat poison.

Mr. and Mrs. Val Jacobson of Oklahoma City took their two children into a warehouse to get out of 11-degree weather after the plane crash.

They noticed Lisa, 3, playing near poisoned grain.

She was rushed to general hospital. Attendants there said her condition was not believed serious.

Jacobson, 29, either had engine trouble or was running out of gas, police said, and set the plane down into a warehouse parking lot north of 12th Street in the Kansas City Bottoms industrial area. The spot is just across the Missouri River from the Municipal Airport.

The plane flipped over on its top after landing, striking a parked car. The family climbed out unharmed.

The Jacobson's other child is Karen, 10 months.

Dems to Pick Temporary Chiefs

Democratic precinct delegates in the new 19th Congressional Districts will meet in Pontiac Jan. 7 to elect temporary officers of the district party organization and a 15 - member district committee.

A similar meeting is scheduled for the 18th District on Jan. 9 in Royal Oak.

Among those considered as prospects for the post of Democratic chairman for the 19th are Waterford Township Supervisor James E. Seetlerin and White Lake Township Supervisor Edward Chey.

Two others are Jean Walter, chairman of the Orion Democratic Club, and Robert Jackson of Pontiac, Co-chairman of the county Democratic party's recent Dollars for Dems drive.

ANNOUNCED CANDIDATE

Mrs. Harriet Phillips of Huntington Woods, a housewife who became a leader of the liberal-labor bloc in the party, has announced her candidacy for the 18th District chairmanship and is not expected to receive opposition.

County Republicans plan a different method of setting up a temporary 19th District committee until delegates elected in next August's primary form official district organizations.

The GOP chairman of Oakland and Livingston counties are appointing a 15 - member committee (10 from Oakland) which will elect its own officers.

Rinks, Sledding Areas Expected Open by Yule

Unless the present precipitation is just a false alarm, the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department should have some ice rinks and sledding areas operating by Christmas.

There are 14 rinks scheduled for freezing in Pontiac. The sled slide and toboggan run at Murphy Park may be operating this weekend.

"With the current snowfall and our snow-making equipment, the sled slide should be ready," said David R. Ewalt, director.

"Whether we get ice on the toboggan run depends on whether or not it remains cold."

ington Park Civic Association will maintain one on Berwick.

Ewalt said that rinks may be added at other locations if there is enough demand. He also said that any civic group wishing to maintain a neighborhood rink could call the parks and recreation department.

"We'd be glad to tell you the best place here to follow in freezing and maintaining a good rink," he said.

During 1960 Canadians bought $38 million worth of merchandise through automatic vending machines.

This We Believe . . .

The visiting hours of a funeral home should be arranged so as to accommodate patrons and friends in the best and most convenient manner. Our visiting hours are from 9:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. 7 days a week. You may select a time during the day that is convenient for you.

Price Error Causes Reevaluation of Bids

Waterford Township Board members Monday night will re-evaluate bids on the purchase of five township cars due to a mistake in the proposal submitted by the low bidder.

Spartan Dodge, awarded the contract last Monday on its bid of $1,751.73 per car, later notified the township that the bid should have been $63 more per unit.

Paul Newman, general manager of the Dodge dealership, said that the price submitted was figured for the basic car only. It should have included the specified accessories.

Newman said he has offered to sell the cars with the needed accessories at his cost which he said is between his actual bid and the intended bid.

ADVERTISE FOR BIDS

In other business the board will consider authorizing the clerk to advertise for bids on a year's supply of gasoline for township vehicles.

Also slated in the reading of a first notice of transfer of a Class C and SDM license from Leo and Agnes Frankowski to Pontiac Lake Inn Inc.

Street light hearings for residents of Hatchery and Andersonville will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. in conjunction with the board meeting.

To Be Held for Sentencing

Publishing Men in Jail

GRAND RAPIDS (UP) — The owner and president of a California publishing company found guilty of distributing obscene literature in western Michigan will be held in jail here until they are sentenced in federal court.

U. S. District Judge Noel P. Fox refused to release on bond Wallace De Ortega Maxey, president of West Coast News Co., Fresno, Calif., and firm secretary and owner Sanford E. Aday.

Both officers and the company were convicted Thursday on five counts of shipping indecent books into Michigan five years ago. The three parties face maximum penalties each of $25,000 fines and 25 years in prison.

ORDERED HELD

Fox yesterday ordered the men held in jail until a presentence investigation is completed. The judge also froze the assets of the company pending sentence.

The officers and the firm were found guilty by a federal court jury which deliberated three days after a six-week trial which began Oct. 29.

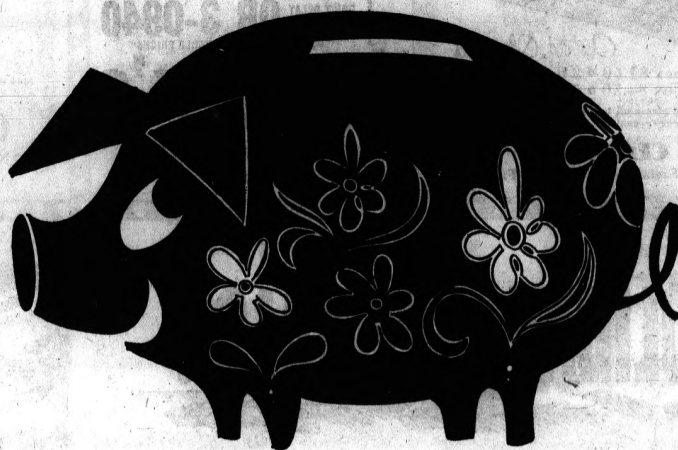

Will Open 5 1/2 Miles of the I-196 Freeway

LANSING (AP) — A stretch of 5.5 miles on I-196 between Holt and Saugatuck will be opened to traffic Monday. The freeway will replace a former two-lane highway, formerly one of the worst traffic bottlenecks in western Michigan.

ATTENTION ALL PIGGY BANKERS

This is an urgent call to put all your pennies and nickels back into circulation to help relieve a critical national shortage.

What ever happened to all the pennies and nickels, we'll never know.

The fact remains, though, two U.S. mints are working round the clock, now. They couldn't turn out anymore if they had to. Yet there's still not enough small change to go 'round, and with the holiday season upon us, it's even worse.

So round up all the small coin of the realm around your house and use it now for groceries. Or swap it for some folding money here, unless you can get to another bank faster. We won't mind — just this once.

Mammoth Sewer Projects: Indication of Oakland Growth

By DICK HANSON

The road sign is just another minor irritant to the motorist.

He moves over, probably without a thought for the sewer project alongside the road or what that project represents.

According to county public works director, R. J. Alexander, this and other projects like it are a measure of the current population explosion in Oakland County.

In an effort to meet the needs of a fast-growing area, $66 million worth of water, sewer and drainage jobs will either be launched or completed in the county next year, Alexander and County Drain Commissioner Daniel W. Barry report.

LARGEST JOB

The largest of these jobs by far is the $41 million 12-Town Storm Relief Drain for 14 communities in Southeast Oakland County.

Launched early in 1962, this mammoth drain — described by Barry as the largest of its kind in the United States — is scheduled for completion early next year.

A companion project, the $8-million Dequindre Interceptor begun the first of the year should be finished for these same communities by mid-1964, he said.

Another $11 million worth of water and sewer projects will be launched by the public works department next year, said Alexander.

MORE PROJECTS

An additional $6 million worth of projects will be completed during the same period, he added.

The $11-million figure for new construction could go much higher, said Alexander, if a number of communities decide to act now in meeting the nearly-immediate need for more and better utilities.

For instance, he said, a proposed $13-million Clinton-Oakland Sewage Disposal System to serve Avon, Pontiac, Waterford, Independence and West Bloomfield townships could be developed "quite rapidly" as soon as these communities are ready to enter an agreement with the Detroit Water Commission.

The commission has agreed to supply water and sewage treatment to the five townships, via the Dequindre Interceptor Sewer, when these communities decide they can afford the improved services.

Projects that Alexander described as certain to be launched and completed in 1964 are:

- A trunk system for Troy sewers (tying into the Dequindre) at a cost of $2.4 million. Construction is slated to begin in April and be completed by Dec. 1.

- A $7-million water system for Waterford Township. This is to be under way by March and completed in about nine months.

- Huron-Rouge Sewer System in Novi, costing $1.5 million; due to start next month and be completed in September.

- Another project Alexander said is certain to be launched next year, is the proposed $1.5-million Walnut Lake Arm of the Farmington Interceptor Sewer in West Bloomfield Township. No target dates have been set yet.

Alexander listed the following projects as already under way and due for completion next year:

- Bloomfield Water System

- A similar water system for Farmington, costing $2.6 million, also due to be finished by June 1.

- The Sylvan Manor Sewer Arm in West Bloomfield Township, $240,000, to be completed in about 30 days.

- The 13-Mile Road Arm of the Farmington Interceptor, $223,000, also due in about 30 days.

Other sewer projects which

Alexander said could possibly be started next year if the local communities are willing to act are:

- The Tarabussi Industrial Arm in Farmington Township for $280,000.

- The Walton Manor Sewer Arm immediately west of Oakland University, $200,000.

- Walled Lake Sewer Arm, $1.7 million.

- Lake Orion Sewage Disposal System, no cost estimate. (The county already has agreed at the village's request to prepare plans, specifications and cost estimates so that the village can decide whether to go ahead with the project now.)

- Southwest Avon Township Sewer Trunk Line, no cost estimate.

While the public works department (separate from the drain commission) completed only a little better than $1 million worth of projects this year, much departmental effort has been spent on planning and developing the projects slated for 1964, said Alexander.

New Bank Planned by Rochester Group

Rochester will again have a locally owned bank, according to plans revealed by a group of prominent businessmen and industrialists acting as incorporators.

The group, which received preliminary approval of the bank's charter this week from the U.S. comptroller of the currency, has scheduled its opening early next year in temporary quarters at 114 E. Fourth.

Fred D. Houghton, 21 Wimberville, will serve as bank president. He is also president of Houghton & Son, new car dealership.

Other incorporators are Norman G. Elliott, vice president, who is treasurer of Higbie Manufacturing Co.; Clarence Cadieux, assistant cashier, who is vice president in charge of finance for National Twist Drill & Tool Co.

OTHERS LISTED

Also listed are Howard L. McGregor, president of National Twist Drill; Paul Travis, president of Rochester Paper Co.; Carlton M. Higbie Jr. of Higbie Manufacturing; and Lewis Brooke, general vice president of City Bank of Detroit.

The bank is capitalized at $500,000. Some of the 20,000 shares of $10 per value stock reportedly still are available at $25 per share.

Bank officers say they hope to keep ownership and management of the bank on a local level.

Rochester National Bank, which merged with National Bank of Detroit in 1955, was the last locally owned bank in the village.

Historical Bulletin in Need of Name

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's newest historical publication needs a name.

To be published bi-monthly by the Historical Society of Michigan, the booklet now merely carries the name "H. S. M. Bulletin." The first one comes out this month.

Awaiting suggestions from society members and the public, the society's executive committee will choose a permanent name by Jan. 15.

The new publication is intended to keep up interest in the Michigan's heritage, editors said.

If Man Asks Marital Status, Then He Must Be Interested

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: What is expected of a divorcee? When a date, should she tell him she has been married and has children? I did that once and I got the third degree. "How long was I married? Where was my husband now? Why did we split up?" I don't think it's any man's business unless he is serious about me.

Please tell me, truthfully, how much should a divorced woman tell a man about herself on the first date?

DEAR ABBY: A man has a right to assume that a woman is NOT a divorcee with children unless she tells him otherwise. (This much information she owes him).

A good rule to follow is: State your marital status (and children, if any) right off the bat. And answer any other questions with complete honesty. If a man asks, it means he's interested.

DEAR ABBY: This idea that the typical housewife does nothing all day but drink coffee with her neighbors and watch TV because she is surrounded by so many push-button, labor-saving devices makes me boil.

When people first meet me and learn that I do not have a career, they say, "Oh, you don't work, do you?" I reply, "No, I just sponge off my husband."

I have yet to see a completely "automatic" washer that collects the clothes, sorts them, puts them in, starches them, sorts them again, dampens them, irons them, mends them, and puts them away, have you?

All the women I know do their own cooking and cleaning, wax their own floors and wash their own windows. And most of them take care of their own yards and gardens, too.

Everyone assured me that when my daughter married and our son went off to college "time would hang heavy." Baloney!

Sincerely yours,
MRS. R. J. H.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "IN LOVE WITH A MARRIED MAN." You were sympathetic in when you should have been indignant.

When he made his first advances to you, you should have said, "Go home, heel, and show your ailing wife a little of the 'devotion' you pretend for me."

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to Abby, in care of The Pontiac Press.

Baroque Trio to Give Program

Chamber Music Comes to OU

The Baroque Trio will present a concert at Oakland University Monday evening. From left are trio members Robert Courte, Marilyn Mason Brown, and Nelson Hauenstein.

A concert of baroque chamber music will be given at Oakland University at 8:15 p.m. Monday in the new theater in the Intramural building.

Open to the public, the concert is part of this year's concert, exhibit and lecture series presented on campus.

Members of the chamber music group, Marilyn Mason Brown, harpsichord; Robert Courte, viola; and Nelson Hauenstein, flute, are on the faculty of the University of Michigan music department.

Dr. Brown, associate professor in organ, was winner of the highest honor of the U. of M. school of music in 1946. She has studied in Paris and has played in recitals throughout the United States and Canada.

Dr. Courte, a graduate from the Royal Conservatory of Brussels, where he subsequently became professor of viola, came to the United States in 1946 upon invitation to join the renowned Paganini Quartet.

With this group he toured extensively in the United States, Europe and Canada, making numerous recordings.

He joined the U. of M. faculty in 1951 where he is associate professor in viola and chamber music.

Mr. Hauenstein, assistant professor in woodwind instruments, is one of the organizers of the Baroque Trio and U. of M. Woodwind Quintet, and has been a member of the faculty for 21 years.

Alumnae Unit to Hear Talk

Mr. Robert D. MacGregor will open her Birmingham home on Tuesday to the North Woodward Alumnae of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

"Gifts of the Bible" is the subject of a talk by Mrs. John P. Carrille of Pleasant Ridge. She has traveled through the Holy Land, furthering her studies of the Bible, its history and content.

Hostesses for the 12:30 luncheon will be Mrs. Chester Boyle, Mrs. R. C. Trees, Mrs. Richard McClellan and Mrs. Raymond Bender.

Mrs. Gordon C. Bolling will conduct the association meeting following the luncheon.

Ushers OK at Second Wedding

By The Emily Post Institute
Q: I am about to marry a girl whose first husband died eight months ago. We are going to be married in January in church.

I would like to ask two friends to be ushers. My fiancée tells me that since it is her second marriage, the attendants must be limited to a best man and maid of honor.

Although I have no intention of insisting on this and making her unhappy, I do feel a wedding is for the groom as well as the bride and since it is my first marriage, I should be allowed to have ushers. May I have your opinion?

A: A bride at her second marriage, does not have bridesmaids. She has only one attendant, a maid (or matron) of honor and the groom and best man.

As a rule, there are no ushers at a second wedding because it is usually so small that there is no need for them. However, if your wedding is to be large enough to make them necessary to help seat the guests, you may have your two friends as ushers.

Q: Several weeks ago my husband and I were invited to a dinner party at the house of a business friend. Last week I invited them along with two other couples to dinner at our house.

They were unable to come. Does that cancel our obligation to them, or must I invite them again some other time?

A: Strictly speaking, your obligation to them is canceled. However, if you found them attractive and wish to encourage their friendship, you may certainly invite them again another time.

Q: I was christened Elizabeth, but ever since I was a little girl everyone has called me Betty. Is it necessary to have Elizabeth on my wedding invitations, or may I use the name Betty?

A: Betty on formal wedding invitations would be correct.

Who pays for what at the wedding? The new Emily Post Institute booklet entitled, "Wedding Expenses" answers this question in detail.

To obtain a copy, send ten cents in coin and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to the Emily Post Institute, in care of The Pontiac Press.

The Emily Post Institute cannot answer personal mail, but all questions of general interest are answered in this column.

U. of M. Students Prepare for Holiday

By BARBARA GRIFFIN
University of Michigan students are trying to combine the spirit of Christmas with studying for final exams this week and finding that it is not an easy thing to do.

Commencement exercises for the December graduates have been set for Thursday afternoon in Hill Auditorium. W. Willard Hill, secretary of labor, will be the featured speaker. Following the ceremonies President and Mrs. Hatcher will give a tea at the League for the graduates and their families.

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT
In spite of the pressure of the forthcoming exams, students have been putting up trees in their housing units, having Christmas parties and carol sings this week. Also several Christmas concerts have been presented by various University choral groups and orchestral ensembles.

Traditionally initiating the Christmas season in Ann Arbor is the University Musical Society's presentation of Handel's "Messiah." The Choral Union, a 300-voice choir of students and Ann Arbor residents, and the University Symphony Orchestra presented this oratorio Saturday evening and Sunday afternoon under the direction of Harold Haugh.

Several Pontiac-area students sang with the Choral Union in this performance. They include Ray Hoffman of Grove Point Drive, Lynne Ashby of North Elder Drive, Dottie Duckwitz of Sweetbriar Road, Carol Wargelin of Voorheis Road and Kathy O'Brien of Pingree Street.

In the audience for the Saturday evening performance with his date was John Markley of Ridge Road. John is a sophomore in medical school and a member of Phi Chi fraternity.

SPONSOR DINNER
The Martha Cook Building, an upstairs dormitory, sponsored their annual "Messiah" dinner after the Sunday afternoon performance. Carol Wargelin was one of the hostesses for this affair, helping to entertain President and Mrs. Hatcher, the oratorio soloists, faculty members and officers of the University Musical Society.

Several fraternities and sororities have held Christmas dances and pledge formalities recently. Attending the Sigma Kappa sorority Christmas dance last Friday were Charlotte Johnson of Ogema Road and Sandy Hildreth of Joy Road. The Sigma Kappas also planned a party at a nearby convalescent home this week and took presents and refreshments to the patients.

"Twas the Night Before Christmas" was the theme of the dance at the Alpha Chi Omega house last Friday night. Attending this affair was Alpha Chi vice president Phyllis Benekke of Lakeview Court. Phyl was "Santa Claus" at the house Christmas dinner Wednesday night when the seniors traded places with the busboys and gave them Christmas gifts.

Attending the Sigma Alpha Epsilon pledge formal Saturday evening were Mary Lou McLaughlin of Mohawk Road and her plus-mate Dennis Hurd of Glenary Road.

Two Events Highlight Past Week

By SIGNE KARLSTROM

Two significant events took place this week in Detroit in connection with the arrival of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's eminent conductor Sixten Ehrling.

Mrs. Walker L. Cisar and Mrs. Gunnar Karlstrom were co-chairmen of the dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. Sixten Ehrling.

RECEPTION FOLLOWS

Immediately following Mr. Ehrling's opening concert on Thursday a reception was given by the Detroit - Swedish Council, Inc. at the Whittier Hotel honoring the Ehrlings and His Excellency, The Hon. Gunnar Jarring, Sweden's Ambassador to the U.S. who came to Detroit especially for Mr. Ehrling's concert.

Following the intermission, Ambassador Jarring spoke a few words about the friendship between the two nations and the universal language of music.

The Swedish colors, yellow and blue, were used throughout the spacious rooms at the Whittier. On each side of the receiving line stood the American and Swedish flag.

Swedish consul and Mrs. Edward Johansson, together with the chairman of Detroit - Swedish Council, Inc. Charles E. Koebel headed the receiving line.

AMONG GUESTS

There were 250 guests. Among those from this area were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Jones and his mother, Mrs. Alben Jones from Jamestown, N.Y., the Lawrence Nelsons, the David Nelsons, the LeRoy W. Dahlbergs, the Edwin Andersons, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Gunnar Aronsson, Mr. and Mrs. Gustav vonReis with their daughter Mrs. vonReis Newlander and daughter and son-in-law, the Arthur Altschuls who came from New York City.

Urban League Guild Meets for a Party

Members of the Urban League Guild of Pontiac hosted the human relations club of Washington Junior High School and the youth group of the Oakland County Children's Center at a Christmas party Friday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Turpin opened their Franklin Blvd. home for the event. Some 40 young people sang carols and exchanged gifts.

Mrs. Grace Corrothers and Mrs. Paulette Woodward assisted Mrs. Turpin. A short business meeting of the Guild followed the festivities.

Hot? Remove Coat

Crowded stores are apt to be overheated. Why not check the overcoat or carry it. Added comfort and good health note: on arrival home, bath tired feet in good quality whet hazel. It is soothing and cooling.

Luncheon Reception Follows Ceremony

Rev. Edward Dunavant officiated at the marriage of Lola Dean Oakley to Billy Earl Wallace, today in the

New Hope General Baptist Church.

A luncheon - reception in the Disabled American Veterans' Hall on Auburn Road followed the informal ceremony.

Parents of the couple are the Walter J. Oakleys of East Boulevard North and the J. P. Wallaces of West Chicago Avenue.

The bride chose a street-length gown of white chiffon over taffeta, with a lined, bodice of Chantilly lace.

An Egyptian - type head-dress held her short illusion veil. She carried a nosegay of white carnations and miniature yellow roses.

Linda Gatzynsky attended the bride and Danny Guthrey was best man.

Book Review Unit to Meet

Members of the Waterford Community Library Book Review group will meet Monday at one o'clock in the home of Mrs. Arthur W. Selden on Cooley Lake Road.

Mrs. William Vann will review the book "The South and the Southerner" by Ralph McGill.

Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. M. F. Macauley and Mrs. Ralph Eaton. Anyone who enjoys a book review is welcome to attend.

Local Unit Celebrates Christmas

A Christmas program highlighted the annual meeting of the Teachers Exchange Club Thursday in the home of Mrs. Ralph Gardner on North Lake Drive.

Mrs. Norman Fauble told the "Legend of the Black Madonna" and gave a reading by Ann Shelly.

Accompanists for seasonal group singing were Mrs. Fauble at the organ and Elizabeth Halsey on the piano.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses Mrs. Mary Wagner and Mrs. H. Erwin Gottschalk.

Following a traditional custom, the members brought Christmas gifts to be distributed to needy area families.

Unit Brings Gifts

Members of St. Anthony's Guild of St. Benedict Church brought gifts for the boys at Lapeer Home to the Starr Avenue home of Mrs. Frank G. Totte Thursday evening.

Mrs. Arthur Novotney was cohostess for the meeting and gift exchange.

Spray holiday greens with clear lacquer, so they will keep their color and needles longer.

background for LIVING

CHARMING, ROOMY—This Colonial home of the Irwin Engelgaus is right at home with the other lovely homes on Amberly in Birmingham. Rooms are spacious and expertly decorated to fit the personality of the owners. The double doors welcome guests into a wide slate-floored reception hall, then on into white and gold rooms that are a delight to everyone.

Expertly Decorated

Area Home Is Quiet Retreat

Pontiac Press Home Editor

There's an unmistakable air of quiet surrounding the Irwin Engelgaus' home on Amberly in Birmingham.

There is no excessive trim on the exterior, just simple shutters to add color and life to the big Colonial house. It reminds a viewer of long-ago days when the earliest settlers wanted no fussy porches, and square-paned windows started from the floor up.

An impressive foyer opens into a floor plan featuring the best possible traffic pattern. A large living room, formal dining room, perfect kitchen and a cozy lounging room constitute the main level.

Up the white wrought-iron stairway and into a wide hall, the visitor finds a master bedroom fit for a king and queen; further enhanced by an elegant bath and dressing area.

PROVINCIAL
Wedgewood blue paper, white louvered doors, carpeting and ceiling are perfect settings for the Provincial cherry wood furniture. An interesting double mirror over the double dresser seems to be entwined like a pair of golden wedding rings.

Because the Engelgaus love carpeting, the whole house is a sea of soft, sink-down-deep wool and nylon pile. Each room is individual in its particular color scheme, all are tied together by light fruitwood furniture and paneling that resembles mellow-toned driftwood.

The Engelgaus give all the credit of furniture arrangement, color schemes and advice to their decorator-friend John Lowery of Birmingham. He was told what the couple wanted and took over from that point.

For instance, the wood in the kitchen had been stained a very dark mahogany. Lowery found that, contrary to belief, dark woods can be made lighter. So with the help of a Grand Rapids furniture company that supplied the furnishings, cupboard doors were removed and reinstalled to match the wood coloring throughout the house.

SILK WALLPAPER
Just the right amount of lovely silk wallpaper was placed in strategic areas throughout the house. Although the dining area is rather small, a sparkling crystal chandelier was hung over the satin-finished fruitwood dining table.

In the downstairs powder room, gold and white striped wallpaper tops white ceramic tile. Upstairs, the master bath is tiled in light gray with silver gray wallpaper, and tiny white shutters close for privacy.

FORMAL YET COMFORTABLE—There's a place for everything in this end of the living room, and everything looks as though it grew there—so well are the furnishings arranged. Soft blues and greens are accentuated by white walls and draperies.

LEISURE SPOT—Every home seems to have a comfortable leisure area where low tables and ottomans invite the removal of shoes and resting of tired feet. Here, Mrs. Engelgau looks over one of her many record albums while relaxing on the colorful rattan sofa. The floor is carpeted in the new melange color, and its warm orange tones blend with the light oak paneling, the woods in the furniture and off-white curtains.

ALL GOLD AND WHITE—The blue, white, gold and green hues in the original oil painting of sailing ships near Capri were picked up as all of the other furnishings in this large living room. Before the picture was hung over the white marble fireplace, there was a heavy mantel. Decorator John Lowery suggested the change, thus giving the illusion of height, rather than length, to the room.

NEAT MIXTURE—Although it doesn't look it, this compact, round French walnut wood table can be opened to seat 16 people. Here again, a pale, dull-blue silk wallpaper is set off by stark white woodwork and wainscoting. The china cupboard of Italian decor has bronze grilles that swing out for cleaning the glass doors more easily.

ATTRACTIVE ARRANGEMENT—The old, original oil paintings over the big blue and white quilted sofa are arranged just right—not too many and not too few. The light periwinkle blue carpeting sets the theme here, with the two blue and gold table lamps a bold accent on the charming end tables. Sunlight streaming through the windows reflects the blues onto the high white ceiling.

Holiday Gaiety for Fireplace

If you own a fireplace, you'll be interested in a number of colorful ideas offered by the December issue of The American Home magazine to make your hearth the glowing center of festivity this Christmas.

The white wall over a contemporary fireside becomes a perfect background for a stylized star, centered with a cluster of brilliant Christmas balls.

Elegant yet simple, this decoration can be made to blend with the color scheme of your room.

The old brick wall of a traditional hearth can be treated to a bountiful basket brimming with holiday packages and trimmed with a cherry bow. The basket could be spray-painted and the packages wrapped to blend or contrast.

GRACEFUL MOBILE

Trimmed with spruce, holly and shiny ornaments and suspended from a ribbon, the lowly potato becomes the hub of a graceful mobile.

Some ingenuity and a few lengths of velvet ribbon can be turned into a charming bow-trimmed tree to top your mantle.

CONSTRUCT NOW—The angels pictured here with actress Cyndie Lane are not only colorful, but also appropriate. They stand over three feet tall and two feet wide. The pictures come to you printed in full color. You need only glue the pictures to plywood or hardboard, then saw them out. The colors are weather resistant and will withstand all kinds of rain, snow, sleet or sun. To obtain the colorful angel pictures number 238, send $1.00 for each by currency, check or money order to: Steve Ellington, Pontiac Press Pattern Dept., P. O. Box 2383 Van Nuys, Calif.

Get a Refrigerator to Match the Range

Here at last are refrigerators with that built-in look to match the popular built-in ranges.

The new appliance has two sets of storage compartments—a refrigerator unit and two crisper drawers above a pull-out work area, and a freezer and a second refrigerator unit below.

It is called a "food preparation center."

Ford Museum Selects Historic Glass Pattern

A major glass manufacturer has been licensed by the Henry Ford Museum to reproduce a 100-year-old glass pattern called "Argus."

The historic glassware will be made in nine sizes and in crystal, cobalt blue and olive green.

For Christmas Season

Plenty of Gifts for Home

Last minute Christmas shopping? Don't overlook a bountiful variety of products for the home.

For the busy hostess, you might consider a crystal punch bowl complete with cups in the much-loved "cabin" pattern, or a set of candles fueled with butane gas to grace her holiday table and beautify her centerpiece permanently.

How about a comfortable swivel club chair for the man of the house? A slim, brass floor lamp would make reading his evening paper pleasurable. It's also a good choice for either contemporary or traditional interiors.

MOVIE PROJECTOR

To please a whole family, there's a new movie projector complete with automatic threading and rewinding and a stereo hi-fi with a contemporary console to play and store their favorite Christmas carols.

Choosing gifts for the home can be as easy as trimming the tree, and the results will be enjoyed for many Christmases to come.

Hi-Fi Users Should Like These Gifts

You don't need a barrel full of money to make the hi-fi enthusiast on your Christmas list happy. Here's what $1.50 will buy:

- A strobe disc for checking the constancy of turn-table speed.
- A polyester phone cushion to soften the dropping of a disc from changer mechanism and to prevent record slippage.
- A clip-on record brush which attaches to the tone arm and, in advance of the needle, brushes aside any dust or grit.

Other hi-fi up-grading gadgets include antennas, stylus pressure gauges, record cleaning devices, dust covers, timer switches, remote controls, record storage racks and cases, replacement speakers and head phones.

College Room Need Fixing?

It doesn't take much study to decorate a college room and the rewards are impressive: more cheerful and individual surroundings, an upgrading of morale. How to do it?

Start with a handsome all-cotton bedcover; you'll find an amazing variety of colors, designs and textures in your price range... from tailored bedspreads in new "shock" colors to block-printed thermal blankets pretty enough to double as spreads.

Add accessories that are long on color and cleverness, short on cost. Tips to show you how to win honors as a budget decorator.

New Home Guaranteed

Easy maintenance and long-term durability are being built into exciting new vacation and retirement homes where purchasers will have the benefit of lifetime guaranteed building materials from United States Plywood Corporation.

The homes are part of a new concept in leisure-time living, "Leisuretime," the first phase of which is under way at Montauk, N. Y., where All-State Properties, Inc., is developing about 7,000 building lots for sale and rental units.

Planktex is a rugged exterior material with the texture of traditional circular rough-sawn individual boards. Planktex siding combines the strength, rigidity and dent, damage- and split-resistance of plywood with the warmth of natural wood.

Weldwood luan panels feature a fine-furniture finish. The panels are vertically grooved in random plank style for informal beauty.

Edges are beveled and tinted for perfect joints. Only an occasional waxing is necessary to maintain the finish over the years.

More than 60 per cent of all the porcelain enamel products in the United States goes into major home appliances.

HY STATISTICS

A four- or five-bedroom side-to-side split level of transitional design containing 2,280 square feet of living area on living and bedroom levels, and 737 square feet on recreation room level not including a double garage. Overall dimensions are 66 feet wide by 41 feet 4 inches deep. The architect is Rudolph A. Matern. House is Design HY in the House of the Week series.

TRANSITIONAL SPLIT—Elements of contemporary styling blend with a charming arched portico, shuttered windows and other features of proven popularity to assure top resale value for this attractive four- or five-bedroom home. A professional home builder worked with the architect to design the house for his own family.

Builder Kept Economy, Resale Value in Mind

A home builder with 20 years' experience in his craft worked closely with an architect to design this home for himself.

Their combined know-how enabled them not only to satisfy the personal needs of the immediate owner but also to produce a design with the two important ingredients amateurs in the field have little way of recognizing: economy of construction and built-in resale value.

Building economy comes primarily from selecting a type of design — side-to-side split level — with a low-cost-per-square-foot ratio.

The living and bedroom levels contain 2,280 square feet of living area, but beneath the raised bedroom level is an additional 737 square feet of fully ventilated living area which otherwise would be basement space — and this doesn't even include the built-in garage.

Less obvious to the laymen are use of standard lumber lengths, stock pieces, stacked plumbing and other cost-cutting techniques known to someone with an intimate association with the home building industry.

Resale value results chiefly from the livable and functional layout of the house, plus its durable and low-maintenance materials, and style of architecture.

EASY ACCESS

One of them has easy access to the master bedroom — ideal for a nursery during the early years of marriage, and which can be converted into a sitting room when the youngsters grow up and leave home.

Similarly, the fifth bedroom on the lower level can even become a rental apartment or professional office. It has its own private rear entrance.

Long experience taught this builder the practical value of a well designed main entry.

Not only is the front door sheltered, but it leads to a vestibule with enormous closet space so that bulky overcoats, umbrellas, galoshes and all the rest can be shed before entering the house proper.

LARGE CLOSET

If desired, the large closet could be converted into a lavatory.

The foyer thus is left free to perform its main function of funneling traffic to any section of the house — formal living room, informal house-keeping area, bedrooms, or recreation area — without any section having to be used as a passageway.

It does this so efficiently that there is no need for a single foot of hall space on the main living level.

The kitchen is ideally placed in the front corner of the house, with the service entrance off the front portico.

PRACTICAL
This is one of the most practical, step-saving features of the housekeeping area.

The ensemble of kitchen and breakfast room also is in keeping with today's informal pattern of living.

The breakfast room, since it actually is used more than the formal dining room, is large, equipped with plenty of storage space, and even has a counter top.

Work space in the kitchen also is more than ample.

NO SCRIMPING
All the bedrooms, both upstairs and down, are generously sized and there was no scrimping on the closets.

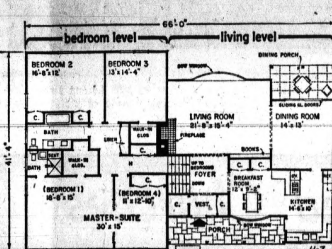

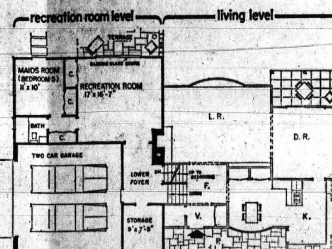

The main bedroom walk-in closet is especially nice, with provision for clothes separation.

The family bath is large, with a six-foot tub and double lavatory. The master bath has a large shower, with a seat.

And note that the downstairs bath is not just a lavatory, but is complete with a tub.

There is a basement beneath the living level for the furnace, laundry, work bench and storage, but even without it storage space is ample on the recreation room level.

The storage room adjoining the garage offers more than 60 square feet.

FLOOR PLANS—The living and bedroom levels contain 2,280 square feet of living area; the lower level 737 square feet of bonus space not including the two-car garage. Note the abundance of closet and storage space on all levels of the house.

Ivy, either variegated or green-leaved, deserves its popularity. Pinch back when young to make thicker plants.

Hanging tuberous begonias can be started now in clay pots and will grow into excellent patio decorations after a few weeks.

For bright sun, lavender trailing lantana is a must. Just give it enough water and some soluble plant food and it will bloom without letup all season.

Christmas Story in Pageant

"In the Fullness of Time," a pageant of the Christmas story by Gloria Roe, will be presented at 7 p.m. Sunday in Emmanuel Baptist Church, 645 S. Telegraph.

Mrs. Tom Malone, director, said an invitation is extended to everyone.

The evening performance begins with the account as announced by the Apostle Paul with these words, "But when the fullness of time was come, God sent forth His Son."

The entire presentation dramatizes the miracle at Bethlehem.

A six-foot hour glass containing iridescent sand against a stained glass window is the background for the portrayal of all scenes.

Angels with halos add a glowing effect as they sing "Gloria in Excelsis Deo" and colored lights highlighting the performance create a mellow Christmas atmosphere, Mrs. Malone said.

The church orchestra will accompany the 50-voice choir. The 40 characters in authentic costumes will cover a wide range of Bible figures and nationalities.

David Brooks will be narrator and Phyllis Gehman will be featured as guest soloist.

Eldon Eroh is in charge of all scenery and Clarence Smith will supervise lighting. Heading the make-up staff is Arthur Voorheis.

MARIMONT BAPTIST

The Marimont Baptist Sunday School under the direction of Mrs. Rod Attwater and Mrs. Gordon Matthews will present a Christmas program, entitled "This Shall Be a Sign" at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

All departments of the school will be represented in the program, open to the public.

The junior high Baptist Youth Fellowship with Claudette Bexell, leader, will have an evening home services Sunday afternoon. Larry McGinnis and Karen Lundeen will be leaders.

A Singing Service will be held at the close of the evening worship tomorrow night. Refreshments will be served.

Boys of the Stockade Group who have been making bird houses will have their houses judged at the church Monday evening. Everett Norris will give a talk on ways to care for birds during winter months.

The colonist group of Pioneer Girls has baked cookies and made Christmas gifts for an entire family for Christmas.

VISITS HOLY LAND — Rev. Frederick J. Delaney of Our Lady of Lakes Catholic Church shows Wes Boras of 2405 N. Lake Angelus Road and Mary LaBrie of 4028

Farmer, Waterford Township, missions and places in the Holy Land he visited this year on a trip around the world. Father Delaney is pastor of the parish.

On World Tour

Priest Visits Leprosy Colony

"Next to our visit to the Holy Land, the outstanding memory of our entire tour around the world was the trip we took by a little mail plane to the Leprosy Colony at Kalaupapa," said Rev. Frederick J. Delaney of Our Lady of the Lakes Catholic Church.

Father Delaney accompanied by Rev. Frank J. Walsh, pastor of St. Anne Parish, Warren, first visited the southern part of Ireland, including the Lakes of Killarney and Dublin on his seven-week journey.

In London and Athens the two priests toured historical places and always ancient temples, monasteries, sometimes palaces and castles, then on to Istanbul.

The Waterford Township priest said he and Father Walsh were fortunate to be in Jerusalem on Friday as there is always a public Way of the Cross each Friday.

He was privileged to say Mass at many of the Shrines.

From Aman they traveled to Bethany, the home of Mary, Martha and Lazarus and on to Cairo with tours to the Sphinx, the Citadel, McQueen, and a ride on a camel.

VISITS MARYKNOLL

Some of the long to be remembered events of Hong Kong were the visit to the Maryknoll House, overlooking the infamous prison of Stanley where so many Americans including missionaries were imprisoned during World War II, and the afternoon spent on the Prolex, a supply ship of the U.S. Navy.

From Hong Kong they went on to Tokyo, the largest city in the world.

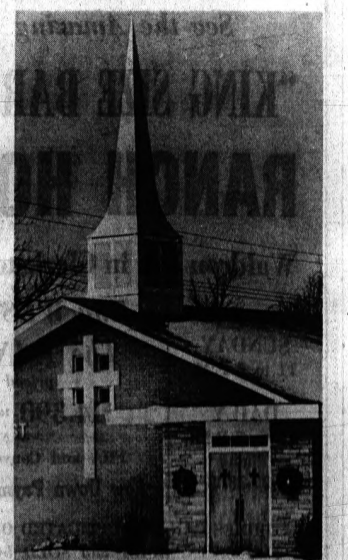

Besides the tourist's attraction the country to a small village for the priests took a trip into a visit with three Sisters, members of St. Francis Xavier Mission House of the State of Michigan, located at Fraser.

The Sisters are living at a Japanese Convent learning the language in preparation for their work in a Japanese Hospital of their Order.

Leaving Japan our next stop was Hawaii where we visited the Leprosy Colony at Kalaupapa. The friendliness and hospitality of these people who live in this little community, practically outcasts of society, will linger long in our memory, Father Delaney told us.

"The Sisters of St. Francis, Rochester, N.Y., who staff the hospital, the T.R.'s as they are known (temporarily arrested cases of leprosy), and the patients in the hospital, these form the Community of Kalaupapa. A happier community it will be hard to find," he added.

After a few days of sunshine and beach at Honolulu, the priests returned to their Michigan parishes.

For Altar Cushions

Make Needlepoint

An opportunity to add to the beauty of their church was given the Episcopal Churchwomen of Christ Church Cranbrook when the Altar Guild asked that cushions around the high altar of the church be replaced in needlepoint.

A committee composed of Mrs. Robert Flint, Mrs. Ari BeGole, Mrs. Edwin Beresford, Mrs. Luther Leader and Mrs. Charles Marsh, designed displays for the 20 pieces of the luncheon program Tuesday.

A set of 25 pieces in all is planned with the theme expressed in the five altar rail pillows. These cushions will represent the people of God who actually kneel at the rail for Communion.

All races of man in a worldwide international and ecumenical way are portrayed, and shown in the four main areas of community, family, leisure and vocation.

The center cushion expresses the two-fold movement of the call from God to be people of God, and the offering by these people of their daily lives as a response to this call.

The needlepoint will be given

'Gesu Bambino' Anthem by Pine Hill Choristers

"The Shepherds of Bethlehem" will be the theme of Rev. Harry Clark's sermon at 11 a.m. tomorrow in Pine Hill Congregational Church with services in the Pine Lake Elementary School, Orchard Lake.

In keeping with the Christmas season the choir will present "Gesu Bambino."

For some weeks the choir has been preparing a Christmas program for Dec. 22. The Sunday School will take part in this program.

Children of the Sunday School bring canned goods and a non-perishable foods each Sunday to contribute to baskets for families in need.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack C. Marshall will entertain the choir for dinner Thursday evening at their home, 5875 Westwood Lane, Birmingham. Later members will rehearse, then go Christmas caroling.

"Modern Advertising" will be the topic for discussion at 7 p.m. tomorrow when Pine Hill Youth meet for the weekly session. Ray Gardner, school psychologist for Lincoln Park, will be guest speaker.

Film at Fellowship

Every Sunday at 7 p.m. a film concerning the life of Jesus is shown at the fellowship hour in Newman A. M. E. Church. "The Baptism of Jesus" will be the title of the picture tomorrow night. Pastor A. N. Reid will preach on "Portrait of Jesus" at 11 a.m. tomorrow. The public is invited.

Churches Announce Services

ALL SAINTS EPISCOPAL

Reservations are now being taken for the high school retreat which will be held on the weekend after Christmas. Those planning to attend should notify the church office by Dec. 24.

The retreat at Camp Holiday near Orionville will begin after supper on Friday evening and will conclude after lunch on Sunday. Anyone who wants to go but does not have the money should see Rev. C. George Wildfield, the rector.

David Evans, senior seminar and a member of All Saints, will be the retreat leader. This is a convocation retreat with young people from other Oakland County churches attending.

Each young person has to furnish his own bedding and personal articles. Transportation will be provided from the church to the retreat and back to the church.

Plans for caroling Dec. 22 will be made tomorrow evening at the youth meeting. William Cavalier is the new youth advisor.

MIRACLE DELIVERANCE
Revival services will continue tonight and tomorrow at the Miracle Deliverance Church, 223 Perry with Rev. Samuel Collier of Tulane, Calif., the evangelist. Services are at 7:30 p. m.

Rev. A.M. Miller, pastor, said the meetings are interracial and non denominational.

ELIZABETH LAKE
The Christmas Cantata will be presented by the choir under the direction of Mrs. Audrey Horner at 7 p. m. tomorrow in the Elizabeth Lake Church of Christ, 183 S. Winding Drive.

ORCHARD LAKE
"Nothing to Fear" will be the theme of Rev. Edward D. Auchard's sermon tomorrow in Orchard Lake Community Church, Presbyterian.

Music for the early service will be furnished by the Westminster Choir. The Chapel Choir composed of boys and girls of the seventh, eighth and ninth grades will sing "Jesu Bambino" by Yon at the second worship hour.

At 5 p. m. the Cherub, Crusader and Choral Choirs, composed of younger children, have planned a vesper musical evening.

Dean Jagger on New Stage

Craftsman Reconciled to TV

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "Television is a new part of our business," said Dean Jagger. "It is not the craftsmanship that I had known on the stage and in films. But it is important, and that's why I wanted to be a part of it."

The actor was explaining why he accepted the role of the high school principal in the new, highly regarded series, "Mister Novak." His MGM series, "Mister Novak." His quiet authority has been a major factor in the growing success of the Tuesday night show, which also stars James Franciscus as the English teacher.

For Jagger, the adjustment to an hour-long weekly series has not been easy. Recently he collapsed and missed some filming. "I was trying to do too much," he said. "I had an illness that kept me out, and I tried to go back to work too soon."

"Then I really got hit. It was the first time in my life I didn't have complete control. It scared me. I didn't like it. And I began to wonder if I should undertake something like a series."

WORKING WELL

"But I came back and the people in charge at MGM have been wonderful. They told me they didn't want me doing too much. They want me to spare myself, and I've been trying to do just that. It seems to be working out well now."

Jagger, who won the supporting Oscar for "12 O'Clock High" in 1949, accepted "Mr. Novak" as a challenge and admitted he was amazed at the reception the show has received. Always a man who speaks his mind, he said he had some misgivings about the mode of production.

"I'm a word-polisher," he said. "That was my training in the theater and in movies, and it's hard for me to reconcile myself to the television schedule. "We could do so much better if we simply had a day's rehearsal before each show. It's impossible for any actor to come in cold and do his best work immediately before the camera—and we work with kids who haven't a great deal of training. We finish a script one night and begin the next morning on another. It's pretty tough to get much quality that way."

Rescue 2 Buried in Cave-In

SAGINAW (AP) — Fellow workers, volunteers and firemen dug feverishly Friday to rescue two Detroit-area men who were buried under an avalanche of dirt following a cave-in at a sewer excavation site.

Ralph Gustalla, 27, of Livonia, was pulled out 30 minutes, pinned him to the bottom of the 17-foot hole. Donald Ramirez, 22, of Dearborn, spent more than three hours under the dirt.

Ramirez, a bachelor, was admitted to Saginaw St. Mary's Hospital for treatment of undetermined injuries. Gustalla father of three, was treated and released.

Fellow workers said that after the cave-in, only Gustalla's face was visible. Ramirez was trapped beneath him.

Miss Keeler's affair with Profumo took place in the summer of 1961. Last June Profumo admitted he had lied in telling the House of Commons in March that there was no impropriety in his relationship with Miss Keeler.

His admission almost toppled the government.

Ward, who had introduced Miss Keeler to Profumo, died in August from a massive overdose of drugs without ever learning he had been convicted by a jury of living off the earnings of two prostitutes — Miss Keeler and blonde Marilyn (Mandy) Rice-Davies.

Miss Keeler began serving a nine-month jail sentence this past week after pleading guilty to trying to frame a discarded Jamaican lover of an assault charge.

Christine Film 'Dull, Stilted'

Critics Say Movie Avoids True Picture

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (UPI) — Danish critics today opened a film about Christine Keeler, the call girl whose affair with a cabinet minister almost toppled the British government.

Comments ranged from "Naive" to "boring and stilted."

The movie, "The Christine Keeler Affair," opened yesterday in two Copenhagen theaters. John Barrymore Jr. plays Dr. Stephen Ward, Miss Keeler's "protector," and British starlet Yvonne Buckingham plays the 21-year-old redhead.

Bjoern Rasmussen, critic for the newspaper Aktuelt, called the movie "naive, devoid of humor, but involuntarily comic when trying to describe the descent of the ruling class. He said it avoided an honest account of the romance between Miss Keeler and British War Secretary John Profumo in an "only, ingratiating, hypocritical way."

"The actors are formidably lacking in talent, ably led by Yvonne Buckingham. She is acting Christine and you will have to search far and long to find the likes of scenical helplessness," he said.

New Earth Satellite Orbiting by Soviets

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union Friday launched a new earth satellite, Kosmos 22, in its 21-month-old series of launches to study space, the Soviet news agency Tass announced.

Tass said the satellite was orbiting every 92.9 minutes 381 miles from the earth's surface at its maximum distance and 149 miles at its minimum.

The report said the instrument-laden space vehicle was transmitting information to earth on a radio frequency of 20.065 megacycles.

No Action Is Planned Against Rabbit Hunt

HARMONY, N.C. — James Yandell, an official of the American Humane Society, asked if he planned to protest the annual American Legion sticks and stones rabbit hunt.

"I plan to take no action. Quite frankly, I know of no action to take except maybe to arouse public sentiment."

PCH Tops Arthur Hill, 70-64; Huskies Keep Winning, 88-60

Chiefs Hold High Place in SVC Race

DeWalt, Henry Spark Victory; Hold Back Late AH Rally

By DON VOGEL

SAGINAW—Pontiac central's Chiefs came through in the clutch here last night to defeat Arthur Hill, 70-64, and stay in the thick of the Saginaw Valley Conference basketball race.

Two key tips by Gerald Henry and driving layups down the middle by Mel DeWalt and Al Keel in the final three minutes stayed off a strong Lumberjack comeback.

The victory gives PCH a 2-1 SVC record, one game behind unbeaten Saginaw and a half game behind Flint Central.

DeWalt and Henry were the players who baited Central out of impending danger in the fourth quarter.

Arthur Hill had taken control of the backboards in the late going and was busy cutting a PCH margin that had reached eight points.

Dave Fisher, Craig Schultz and 220-pound Paul Minnis, all 6-3, were busy turning grabbing rebounds and firing away until the ball went through the hoop.

The break came with PCH holding 60-57 lead. DeWalt held between the three lumberjacks to snare a rebound.

PRESSURE EASED

The Chiefs hustled down the floor and Henry came up with a tip to take off some of the pressure. Minnis fouled out and a minute later Henry repeated his effort to increase the margin to 64-57.

The Hillites battled back but could never get closer than four points as DeWalt and Keel put the game out of reach.

DeWalt took game scoring honors with 24 points. Henry added 14 and grabbed 15 rebounds. Bill Morgan converted 11 points and Keel 10.

Jim Johnson, who started PCH off to an 8-3 lead with two quick tips posted nine markers and snared 13 rebounds.

The Chiefs, who hit 17 of 34 field goal attempts in the first half, held margins of 10 and 11 points in the opening half, but couldn't contain the Chiefs against the rough play of the Hillites.

PCH led 37-31 at the intermission.

The Lumberjacks never let PCH get more than eight points ahead in the last two periods.

"The turning point," said coach Fred Zittle, "came when DeWalt grabbed that rebound. It was the key play."

Central could have helped its own cause at the free throw line, but made only eight of 20 tries.

"The strange part about the free throws," said Zittle, "is that we make the boys hit eight of 10 in practice before we let them leave the gym."

"They pop them in with few misses."

Lapeer Five Left Behind by Kettering's Speed, 62-52

Kettering lived up to its billing as the favorite in the Tri-County League Friday evening by stopping a strong Lapeer quintet, 62-52.

It was the league opener for the Panthers and the win boosted them into first place.

Kettering and the Panthers were pre-season picks to battle for the top crown, with the Panthers favored.

But the Panthers five turned on the speed in the third stanza and outscored the visitors, 14-7, to take a comfortable lead into the final frame. Both squads found the range in the fourth and poured in 22 markers each.

BALANCED ATTACK

Senior Bob Bogert sparked a well-rounded Panther scoring attack with 16 points. The 6-foot, four-inch forward found the key and caught eight of 10 attempts from the charity line.

Aiding Bogert with the scoring chores were Bill Graham (11), Earl Hook (12) and Rick Pankey (15).

But the Panthers five turned on the speed in the third stanza and outscored the visitors, 14-7, to take a comfortable lead into the final frame. Both squads found the range in the fourth and poured in 22 markers each.

The game was a see-saw affair during the opening half, with Kettering holding a 9-8 edge at the end of the first quarter and a 26-23 advantage at intermission.

THE CAPTAINS' SPEED WON

Lapeer's two backboard men, 6-4 center Ron Starkling and 6-3 forward Dick Fellers, were held in check by the Panthers and managed to score a combined total of 14 points.

EYING THE BALL — Kettering's Rick Pankey (25) has his eye on the ball in this successful theft against an unidentified Lapeer player Friday night. Pankey came up with the ball and Kettering came up with a victory, 62-52.

ROMEO TUNED UP — Romeo's Rick Pankey (25) has his eye on the ball in this successful theft against an unidentified Lapeer player Friday night. Pankey came up with the ball and Kettering came up with a victory, 62-52.

Romeo tuned up for its Tri-County League opener next week with an impressive 88-60 decision over visiting Chippewa Valley Friday evening.

The Bulldogs, 2-1 in non-conference competition, journey to Oxford next Friday to get the league race under way.

Romeo jumped in front 19-13 in the opening quarter and turned on the speed in the second to take a commanding 42-23 lead at intermission.

The reserves mopped up the second half, outscoring the visitors 27-25.

Eleven players dented the scoring column for the Bulldogs with Carl Kemp leading the attack with 12 markers. Benny Fayne added 11.

Vern Koski led the losers with 19 points.

Oxford's Wildcats faded in the second half Friday evening and dropped a 65-55 decision to L'Anse Creuse in a Tri-County League basketball tilt.

It was the league opener for the Wildcats and the loss dropped them into the loop basement.

Oxford took a 16-14 first quarter lead, but L'Anse rallied to tie the score at halftime, 32-32.

The winners gained a three-point edge in the third quarter, and ripped the Wildcats for 17 markers in the closing stanza to wrap up the decision.

The win broke a three-game losing streak for L'Anse and left the team with a 1-1 record in league play.

The Wildcats had three players in double figures. Russ Cook led the way with 14, followed by Dave Houch (10) and Dan VanVleet (13).

Pacing the scoring attack for L'Anse were Allan Lamb (16), Randy McConnell (11), Mike Wawyniak (13) and Bob Skrocki (12).

Although the lead saw-sawed back and forth, Farmington enjoyed its largest lead (five points) in the second quarter.

"I guess it was just one of those games where you can't break it open," commented Walled Lake coach Bob Bolton.

The Viking pilot felt his quintet almost lost the contest at the foul line. His squad hit 19 of 40 free-throw attempts.

Farmington's attack was balanced between Neil Warriner (19), Greg Wilson (15), Lloyd Nichols (11) and Dave Schlack (11).

A three-point play by Warriner worth 30 seconds left sent the contest into overtime. Both clubs had mustered 75 points at the end of regulation time.

CLOSED GAP

The Falcons rallied late in regulation time. Walled Lake had compiled a 65-58 lead midway in the fourth quarter, but Farmington closed the gap.

Key buckets by Thomas and Jim Grant prevented Farmington from winning outright.

There was no score in the first overtime, but the Falcons got the jump in the second extra period on two single foul shots.

The winning Viking basket came on a tip-in by Steve Pitcher and Gary Pachal.

The Vikings' George Bullock, 6-3, commanded the basket in the second overtime.

Southfield Finds Range

Waterford Loses, 80-66

Southfield spoiled Waterford's Inter-Lakes basketball debut Friday evening, dumping the Skippers, 80-66.

The Skippers looked sharp in the opening stanza in racing to a 14-8 lead, but the roof fell in the second quarter when the Blue Jays poured 32 points through the hoop.

Southfield went into a tight press after the Skippers moved in front, and the defensive maneuver paid off.

Waterford tossed the ball away repeatedly and Southfield took advantage of the miscues to take the lead.

The win was the first for the season for the Blue Jays against one setback, and the loss ended Waterford's record at 1-1.

Forward Ray Schlack led a well-balanced Blue Jay attack with 22 points. Other players hitting double figures were Harry Glass (16), Dennis Lamb (11) and Joe Considine and Rick Smigelski with 10 each.

Sophomore Rick Ziem led the Skipper scoring parade with 15 points. Rick Russ followed with 14 and junior Dick Miller added 11.

Coach Bob Taylor was far from disheartened with the loss. He has only one senior on the starting unit — Russ — and his reserves showed a lot of spark in the season opening win at West Bloomfield last Tuesday.

The Skippers have two more engagements before relaxing for the holidays. They will play host to Lapeer next Tuesday and Farmington moves onto the Skipper court next Friday.

The Chiefs hustled down the floor and Henry came up with a tip to take off some of the pressure. Minnis fouled out and a minute later Henry repeated his effort to increase the margin to 64-57.

The Hillites battled back but could never get closer than four points as DeWalt and Keel put the game out of reach.

DeWalt took game scoring honors with 24 points. Henry added 14 and grabbed 15 rebounds. Bill Morgan converted 11 points and Keel 10.

Jim Johnson, who started PCH off to an 8-3 lead with two quick tips posted nine markers and snared 13 rebounds.

The Chiefs, who hit 17 of 34 field goal attempts in the first half, held margins of 10 and 11 points in the opening half, but couldn't contain the Chiefs against the rough play of the Hillites.

PCH led 37-31 at the intermission.

The Lumberjacks never let PCH get more than eight points ahead in the last two periods.

"The turning point," said coach Fred Zittle, "came when DeWalt grabbed that rebound. It was the key play."

Central could have helped its own cause at the free throw line, but made only eight of 20 tries.

"The strange part about the free throws," said Zittle, "is that we make the boys hit eight of 10 in practice before we let them leave the gym."

"They pop them in with few misses."

East wins the first trick with the ace of spades and returns a trump whereupon South is able to run off the rest of the tricks.

Had East simply led the ten of spades at trick two the story would have been entirely different.

South would have had problems in every suit and would have probably wound up making either two or three hearts, but not any more, so East's lead at trick two cost his side at least three tricks.

In double dummy play declarer has the same advantage readers have. He can see all the cards! Therefore he makes plays he would not attempt in a real game.

With that advantage he wins the second trick with his king of spades, leads a diamond to dummy's queen, cashes the ace, ruffs a third diamond, fineses dummy's ten of hearts, cashes the king, and is finally ready for the key double dummy play.

He leads a fourth diamond from dummy, East's best play is to trump and South must not overruff. Instead he discards a spade from his hand. East has to lead a club whereupon South gets back in dummy, leads his last diamond to get rid of his last spade. Thus, South winds up losing one spade and two trumps and makes four odd.

The Gifts of Christmas

Last of a Series

The Gift of the Christ

By JOHN J. STEWART

After they had partaken of the last supper, Jesus led the 11 faithful apostles out into the night, down through the valley of Cedron, and on to a favorite retreat, the Garden of Gethsemane on the Mount of Olives.

For three years Jesus of Nazareth had devoted His time and energy to the multitudes—to the sick and the poor, to the sinner and the sorrowing; healing, comforting, guiding, forgiving, teaching the words of eternal life, setting the perfect example, that men might live on a higher and nobler plane.

Now, in keeping with the will of the Father, Jesus was ready to give His greatest gift of all: the gift of His own mortal life as an atoning sacrifice for the sins of mankind, thus meeting the demand of eternal justice.

"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

DIFFICULT MISSION

But facing such a horrendous mission as this was not easy, even for the Christ. And in the Garden of Gethsemane Jesus, suffering great anguish of soul, prayed, "Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from Me." But in majestic devotion and selflessness He concluded, "Not My will, but Thine, be done."

And so Jesus, having power over life and death, humbly submitted to betrayal, false arrest, to extreme abuse and indignities, to the excruciating pain of scourging, and finally even to death by crucifixion. He descended below all things that He might rise above all things.

So great was His charity that as He languished upon the barbaric soldiers who had driven the spikes through His hands and wrists, His feet and ankles, and He pleaded, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do."

There upon the bleak hill of Calvary, Jesus, the Lamb of God, gave unto mankind the supreme gift of His own life, and for all men the possibility of eternal life.

"I am the resurrection, and the life; he that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die."

Foreign Aid Slashed by $1.7 Billion

Cuts by House Unit
Biggest in History
Vote Set for Monday

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee today slashed funds for the foreign aid program to $2.8 billion — a whopping $1.7 billion below the late President John F. Kennedy's original request.

If sustained by the House on a vote scheduled for next Monday, the cut would be one of the biggest since the aid program was launched after World War II to help foreign nations rebuild their economies.

The cut was engineered by a subcommittee headed by Rep. Otis E. Passman, D-La., an arch opponent of heavy spending abroad.

In a formal report Passman questioned the "faith and reliance" that can be placed on some of the recipient nations and said "This program has been attempting too much for too many."

Only yesterday Congress completed action on a separate authorization bill putting a ceiling of $3,599,000,000 on aid spending. President Johnson and top state defense and aid officials had urged Congress not to endanger the program by further cuts.

SENATE BOOSTS

Even if the House upholds the Committee — and it usually does — the aid program probably will have more money before the bill becomes law.

The Senate traditionally increases the House allotments and the two branches split the difference in a compromise measure.

Johnson and the State Department were expected to put heavy pressure on the Senate to restore some of the House cuts so a compromise bill would provide around $3.2 billion in new funds.

Passman cited statistics showing that the aid agency had $524 million in unobligated balances of previous appropriations on hand last June 30 plus about $7 million in unexpended, but obligated, money.

Agents Regain Nearly All of Ransom Loot

Break in Sensational Abduction Welcomed by Frank Senior

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The Frank Sinatra Jr. kidnapping case, first in Hollywood history, was broken today with the arrest of three men and recovery of nearly all of the $240,000 ransom money.

"Thank God, it's over," said Frank Sinatra Sr., spending his fourth night at the home of his former wife, Nancy.

The parents, knowing that a break was imminent, were reported "sweating it out" with young Frank, 19, and his sisters, Nancy Sands, 23, and Tina Sinatra, 16.

The three suspects were identified in an announcement released here and in Washington as John W. Irwin, 42, of Hollywood; Barry W. Keenan, 23, of Los Angeles; and Joseph Clyde Amsler, 23, of Playa Del Rey, Calif., a suburban beach town.

All three are charged with kidnapping.

Ball for all three suspects was set at $50,000 each today.

THINKS BAIL TOO LOW

U.S. Commissioner Theodore Hocke thought $50,000 was a little low when two of the suspects, Keenan and Amsler, were brought before him.

"In view of the ransom . . . the commissioner started to say.

"Most of it has been recovered," said Asst. U.S. Atty. Thomas Sheridan, who recommended the bail. The ransom was $240,000.

That changed the picture. The third suspect, Irwin, arrested yesterday at Imperial Beach, Calif., was arraigned in San Diego, 120 miles south of Los Angeles, U.S. Commissioner Betty Marshall Graydon set his bail at $50,000.

Keenan, by coincidence, was graduated from University High School in the same class as the younger Sinatra's sister, Nancy.

"PROBABLY KNEW HIM" A spokesman for the family said he wasn't sure whether Nancy knew Keenan but added "she probably did if they graduated together."

Rochester Man Dead of Injuries From Accident

A prominent executive and business associate of the Fisher brothers, Robert C. Shields, 54, died of injuries received in a three-car collision in Madison Heights yesterday.

Shields was fatally injured when a second car was thrown into his path after striking a turning truck.

The accident occurred at 4:45 p. m. on John R. at Irving, a block north of 13 Mile Road, Madison Heights.

The truck driver, Gary Rittor of Roseville, and the other car driver, Ordon Haynes of Highland Park, were to appear at the prosecutor's office today to make formal statements.

1st NATO Meeting Since JFK's Death

PARIS (AP) — The Western Big Four foreign ministers began a round of talks today prior to the first NATO conference since the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

The three-day conference of the 15-member alliance opens Monday, but Secretary of State Dean Rusk planned preliminary consultations today.

He will meet with French, British and West German counterparts on such problems as Southeast Asia, Berlin and over-all East-West relations.

U.S. informants said troubled relations between the United States and Cambodia probably would be brought up at a meeting of Rusk, Britain's Foreign Secretary Richard A. Butler, and France's Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville.

France has indicated a willingness to meet Cambodia's request for aid since the Southeast Asian country's rejection of further U.S. assistance last month.

Rusk will discuss U.S.-French relations at a "working dinner" with Couve de Murville.

Pick Jr. Miss for Waterford

Waterford Kettering senior Diane Fetter will be the township's representative in the 1964 Michigan Junior Miss Contest in Pontiac Jan. 24-25.

The 17-year-old was selected last night in competition with four other girls at the Pontiac Mail.

A 5-foot, 7-inch brunet, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Fetter, 4040 Rosemount, Waterford Township.

Runner-up in the competition was Liz Grimes, also 17, and a senior at Waterford Township High School.

A $50 savings bond to the winner and merchandise awards to all five contestants were presented by Jack Cooper, president of the Waterford Township Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Russia Angers Africa

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The Soviet Union will try to calm angry African nations today by insisting that Communism is behind an unpopular Soviet stand against enlarging two U.N. councils.

Diplomatic sources said Soviet Ambassador Nikolai T. Fedorenko will tell a morning meeting of the Special Political Committee that Peking opposes enlarging the 11-member Security Council and the 18-nation Economic and Social Council unless it gets a U.N. seat.

Fedorenko indicated earlier this week that the Soviet Union intends to support the Red Chinese stand and would veto any proposals to enlarge the two councils.

African delegates, however, claim they have received official word from Peking that the Red Chinese views were being misrepresented. The Africans want greater representation on both councils and feel that the Russians are dooming their chances.

In Peking the official New China News Agency (NCNA) Friday attacked the Soviet Union and charged that Fedorenko had "painstakingly tried to create the erroneous impression" that the Chinese Reds are against enlarging the councils.

Informants said Fedorenko had read a text of the NCNA statement and claimed it said no moves toward enlargement could be taken while Peking remained outside the United Nations.

DEFEATED PROPOSAL
The United Nations last October defeated 57-41 with 12 abstentions a proposal from Communist Albania and Cambodia to seat Red China and oust Nationalist China from the world forum. It was the first time since the issue was raised 14 years ago that the Soviet Union had not sponsored the proposal.

To enlarge the councils requires an amendment to the U.N. Charter, and this calls for two-thirds assent of the General Assembly including the five permanent members of the Security Council.

Thirty-seven Asian and African nations brought in resolutions Friday night proposing that the Security Council be increased to 15 members and the Economic and Social Council to 27.

RIVAL PLAN
This rivals a Latin American proposal which would boost the Security Council to 13 and the Economic and Social Council to 24.

The assembly has been pressing to finish its business before President Johnson visits the United Nations Tuesday. The Special Political Committee is expected to meet today, and the General Assembly has scheduled a Monday night session.

The hush-hush attitude apparently was advised by Press Secretary Richard Millman, who, according to one staff member, "was afraid capital newsmen would write stories about it."

The tip-off came when workers installed a new lighting system in the office and began painting the walls a new pastel green, as part of a major refurbishing.

The new carpeting reportedly will be a darker green.

Miners Arm Stronghold in Bolivia

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP)—Communist-led tin miners began a general mobilization in their Andean mountain stronghold today, still refusing to release four Americans and other hostages after holding them for more than a week.

Bearded young admirers of Cuba's Fidel Castro guarded windproof passes in the Catavi-Siglo Veinte mining area, 150 miles southeast of La Paz, with smuggled weapons of Communist make.

The miners started the military buildup after President Victor Paz Estenssoro Friday night had rejected an offer from his leftist vice president, Juan Lechin, boss of the tin miners' union, to resign in exchange for the release of two Communist union leaders jailed by the government on criminal charges.

LECHIN RETURNS
Lechin, leader of a dissident faction in Paz Estenssoro's government, returned from Catavi Friday, Roman Catholic Archbishop Adolfo Azopardo of La Paz acted as intermediary between Lechin and the president in the negotiations.

Paz Estenssoro, who has launched a military showdown in an effort to avoid bloodshed, refused Lechin's demand for the immediate withdrawal of 3,000 government troops and police massed at Oruro, 30 miles north of the mining area. He said the troops would remain at Oruro until the captives are released.

The hostages were seized Dec. 6 after the government had arrested union leaders Federico Escobar and Irineo Pimentel on charges of murder, attempted murder, anarchy and embezzlement. The miners contended they were framed.

Escobar and Pimentel appealed to the 7,000 striking miners to release the hostages—said to number between 15 and 17—to prevent "a Red massacre."

APPEAL REFUSED
But the miners turned down the appeal in a broadcast over their radio station. They charged Escobar and Pimentel had made the request "under pressure of the government and the U.S. Embassy."

The statement by Escobar and Pimentel was the result of some personal diplomacy by Eugene Victor of Brooklyn, N.Y., brother of one of the American hostages, Bernard Rifkin, 52, a labor adviser for the U.S. Agency for International Development.

Victor, who changed his name as a youth, arrived in La Paz Thursday to appeal to the union leaders to urge release of the hostages "on humanitarian grounds." Rifkin suffers from ulcers.

Police detective William J. Chubb of the homicide squad said the bottle of pills was a prescription from a West Coast druggist. Miss Washington recently returned from a West Coast tour.

3 Are Injured in 2-Car Crash
Three men were hospitalized following a two-car crash last night at Lapeer and Oakwood roads in Oxford Township.

In satisfactory condition at Pontiac General Hospital are Lavern K. Schaul, 38, of 3875 East St., Oxford, fractured left leg; R. L. Winslow, 21, of Marlette, possible concussion; and Gerald E. Neff, 30, of Inlay City, back injury.

Schaul was the driver of one of the cars. The others were passengers in the car driven by Donald P. Miller, 29, of Vassar. He was treated and released following the 10 p.m. accident.

Miller told sheriff's deputies that Schaul pulled out of Oakwood in front of his car traveling south on Lapeer. Schaul told police he did not know what happened.

The Erwin youngsters are visiting Leonard A. Liddy, 759 Melrose, and getting their first "taste" of snow.

Shopping Is Hectic as Christmas Nears

By REBA HEINTZELMAN
With only eight shopping days left to do big or little shopping, the Christmas season is truly moving into high gear. People are rushing around faster, armloads of presents are getting heavier and crowds are getting bigger.

Something brand new in the musical line is a small transistor radio combined with a four-speed record player. The compact play-anywhere radio unit has a telescopic antenna. The photograph plays stereo records, and the case has a shoulder strap for easy carrying. The unit operates from six standard batteries. Its top serves as the speaker.

Another new gift for a wife, mother or daughter is a nicely packaged satin evening bag with matching gloves, and they are available in beige, black or white.

Heavily padded satin hangers of gaily printed satin are packaged with fragrant sachet bags. Elegant lighters now have billfolds to match, and the variety of new handbags is unlimited.

Dime stores have taken on a new look. Each store contains presents of every description and in a wide price range to accommodate every member of the family. Sets of gaily decorated plastic waste baskets, tissue dispensers, and lavatory brush-holders would spark up any bathroom.

Bulky knit sweaters, gay blouses, jewel trays, comb and brush sets from $1 to $10 are in the always-popular dime stores. Kiddies love real wrist watches which are priced from $5 to $20.

"Tugger, the Two-Headed Turtle" is an all-around family game that operates by batteries. Contestants try to get their end of the turtle down over the finish line. Push-buttons determine whether the turtle goes ahead or backs up.

An addition to last year's battery-operated road-racing game is harness races. A horse-drawn buggy about the same size as the tiny cars, is available for use on the road-racing "speedways."

Bandit Robs Area Bank
The Farmington Township branch of Manufacturers National Bank, 2015 Farmington Road, was held up by a lone bandit yesterday. An estimated $1,000 was taken.

A slender, well-dressed man with a thin mustache, pushed a note to a teller about 6 p.m. demanding money, police said. The bandit acted like he had a gun in his pocket.

Township police said the robbery occurred at closing time when the bank was crowded with customers.

The bandit who fled in a dark 1961 Ford, was described by police as about 35, 5 feet, 7 inches tall and weighing about 140 pounds.

Chief Urges 'Dry' Policy for Office Holiday Parties

BIRMINGHAM — Companies which have "dried up" their Christmas parties were praised by Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley as he looked forward with some misgivings to the season of good cheer and fellowship.

Moxley urged other offices and plants to follow the lead of those which have stopped serving intoxicants at their Yuletide gatherings.

"December historically almost always has recorded more traffic deaths than any other month," Moxley said in his monthly traffic report.

"Several factors are responsible for this," he noted. "December has the longest nights of the year, when it is more difficult to see danger."

WEATHER HAZARD
Christmas shoppers, both in cars and afoot, and winter weather with its ice, snow and sleet, aggravate the situation.

But Moxley listed as the most important factor the drinking of alcoholic beverages that rises sharply during the holiday season.

The chief noted that the mixing of drinking and driving poses a threat at all times, but is especially serious now.

"Party givers who allow a person rendered incapable by too much drinking to drive home may not be legally responsible for any ensuing trouble but, in our view, they are most certainly shirking their moral responsibilities," he concluded.

$7,000 Fire at Restaurant in Waterford
Waterford Township firemen fought an early morning blaze today at the Red Mill Restaurant, 2180 Dixie, Waterford Township.

Firemen battled the fire for nearly three hours.

A cruising state police patrol car discovered the blaze about 4:45 a.m. It broke out just inside the front door of the three-story building.

Damage was estimated at $5,000 to the building and $2,000 to contents.

In another Waterford fire a $400 garage and its contents valued at $1,000 were destroyed early last night.

WIRING TROUBLE
The fire occurred about 9 p.m. at 3340 Courtney.

Firemen said the blaze, which destroyed the garage and damaged a connecting house, started when an electric wire wrapped around a water pipe shorted out.

City Store Robbed; Clerk Is Clubbed
A lone bandit escaped with $147 from Coles Drug Store, 501 S. Saginaw, last night after hitting a woman clerk on the head with a pistol.

Margaret Beasley, 63, of 45 W. Beverly, said she was counting the day's receipts after closing hours when a man knocked on the door and asked if he could buy a pack of cigarettes. It was shortly after 11 p.m.

Entertainment will include a puppet show, visit from Santa Claus, gift exchange and refreshments.

FREE ON BAIL— Angelo Bruno, reputed head of the Philadelphia Cosa Nostra is out on $75,000 bond today after his arrest on extortion charges. Bruno, 53, was arrested by FBI agents yesterday as he got off a plane from Italy. He was charged in federal court with extortion.

Before he escaped on foot he struck her on the side of the head with a chrome plated gun. She was not seriously hurt.

ENTERS JAIL— William H. Hoskins, 32, surrenders his possessions at the Oakland County Jail. Hoskins, accused of slaying Mrs. Carroll Westerman, a Farmington Township mother of four, was arraigned before Novi Township Justice of the Peace Robert K. Anderson this morning. He demanded examination and it was set for Thursday at 10 a.m. in Novi Township. Hoskins, accused of first-degree murder, was captured in Kentucky.

New Rugs: State on Its Feet

LANSING (AP)— If the rugs in the governor's office are a barometer of Michigan's financial condition—and in the past they have been—then the state's recovery from the cash crisis of 1959 is almost complete.

Controller Glenn Allen Jr. has predicted Michigan will have a net surplus of about $50 million in its treasury by the end of the current fiscal year next June.

And the state will advertise soon for bids on a new carpet to replace the foot-worn rug in Romney's outer office, the last of the rugs which became a symbol of fiscal distress.

"People have been tripping over the worn spots," said Allen. "It was getting to be a hazard."

The red rug was only a minor element in the 1959 crisis. It was a dark green one that former Gov. G. Mennen Williams decided should not be replaced, even though it was heavily-patched with tape to keep secretaries from snagging their heels.

A new rug was installed in place, however, about the time Williams turned the reins of government over to his successor, John Swainson.

Allen said there is no provision in the 1963-64 budget for the new carpeting, and the cost will have to come from a supplemental appropriation by the Legislature.

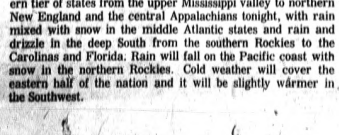

Romney's staff—conscious of the interest shown in the past in governor's rugs—has treated impending replacement of the red carpet like a military secret.

The hush-hush attitude apparently was advised by Press Secretary Richard Millman, who, according to one staff member, "was afraid capital newsmen would write stories about it."

The tip-off came when workers installed a new lighting system in the office and began painting the walls a new pastel green, as part of a major refurbishing.

Singer-Wife of Detroit Lion Found Dead

DETROIT (AP)— Blues singer Dinah Washington was found dead in her home today.

Police said cause of death was not immediately determined but that Miss Washington may have taken an overdose of a sedative. A bottle of unmarked pills was found beside her bed.

The death of Miss Washington, 37, came as she and her new husband, Detroit Lions football star Dick (Night Train) Lane, had been preparing for a family Christmas celebration.

Because of his wife's death, Lane was expected to pass up tomorrow's game at Chicago between the Lions and the Chicago Bears.

Balance in SE Asia Periled

WASHINGTON (AP)— A crackling U.S.-Cambodia dispute threatens to upset balance of power in Southeast Asia and open the way for increased pressure from Communist China.

American relations with the little neutralist monarchy, never too warm, took a dangerous skid today as both nations recalled their ambassadors.

Prince Norodom Sihanouk, Cambodia's hot-tempered ruler, is said to be so angry that he ordered his embassy here stripped of all personnel except the cultural attaché.

U.S. officials wouldn't try to predict the outcome of the row, but they stressed that if Cambodia rejects all Western aid, it could become easy pickings for Peking. And that could open the flood gates.

Will its northern neighbor Laos, Cambodia could find a corridor for Red China all the way to the South China Sea.

Recognizing the country's strategic importance, the United States has been trying to win Sihanouk's friendship since Cambodia won independence from France. It has not been an easy courtship.

Nation Loses Pioneer in Studebaker Closing

It is sad indeed to see one of America's pioneer automobile companies phase out operations in the United States.

With discontinuance of its South Bend assembly line, Studebaker Corp. will center production of its automotive line in Hamilton, Ont.

The stunning realignment is but further evidence of the fierce competition in the automobile industry that has seen more than 2,500 nameplates pass into oblivion since the inception of the horseless carriage.

Studebaker began its long and distinguished industrial life in 1852 when two brothers by that name launched a blacksmith business.

They were joined by three more of the family, and began the production of wagons. In 1902, the wagon company, by then famous, produced its first automobile — and electric runabout. In 1904, the first gasoline-powered Studebaker was introduced.

The company's fortunes have ebbed and flowed with the passage of time and in consonance with economic tides of the country and the relentless progress of the industry of which it was a part.

But with Studebaker's automobile operations in recent times showing steady decline and financial loss, the company turned to other products to bolster its fiscal structure. Twelve other divisions were established, all profitable. But despite this corporation as a whole lost $9.8 million in the first nine months of this year.

Strenuous efforts are being made by the U. S. Labor Department and state and local agencies to find new jobs for the 6,000 workers idled by the shutdown.

Arab Political Stew Stirred by New Party

Clouding the already muddy complexion of the Middle East is the emergence of a new political force. Less than a year old, the movement known as the Baath (Renaissance) Party has leaped from inconsequential, undercover status to a dynamic power threatening GAMAL ABDEL NASSER's leadership of the Arab world.

The unification of Iraq and Syria, both of which are now under Baath control, is the first objective of the party. But it envisions addition of other Arab countries to this union — through persuasion or subversion.

A precise definition of Baath is elusive. NASSER, who a short time ago himself had Syria within his United Arab Republic setup, considers it an even greater threat than his old enemies, the Arab Monarchies, and complains that he has read every book related to the Baath philosophy and understands nothing.

A Western diplomat describes it as an "Arab Cosa Nostra." On the contrary, one astute observer thinks Baath is probably ahead of its times — reformist, progressive and secular in a world of Arabs bound by tradition, religion and narrow, personal interest.

Baath depends on 50,000 party members scattered in eight-man cells throughout the Arab world. Originally, the Communists were considered foes. But recently, a party official announced that "the Red hunt is over," and Communist leaders are now joining Baath in calling for "the liquidation of feudalism," as the Baath party newspaper proclaims total hostility against capitalism.

But regardless, the United States is betting that Iraq and Syria, while anti-Western, will remain anti-Communist — and is supplying credits and loans of more than $60 million.

Johnson's Case and HST's Differ

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — One of the big differences between Presidents Johnson and Harry S. Truman in moving up from the vice presidency is time.

Truman, who had almost a full four-year term ahead of him when he succeeded President Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1945, made a lot of changes fast to get ready for the long haul.

Johnson, who had less than 14 months left from his predecessor's term when he succeeded President John F. Kennedy, probably will try to make do as best he can with some of the top men he inherited from Kennedy.

Truman, like Johnson, asked his Cabinet to MARLOW stay. But within three months he had made five changes in it. By the time he was elected to his own full term in 1948, none of the Cabinet members he inherited remained.

Johnson almost certainly will seek election next year. The means, in addition to the usual problems of the presidency, that he must spend a lot of time campaigning. It probably will be to his advantage to keep the Kennedy Cabinet.

Replacements would break breaking in. This doesn't mean Johnson will simply rock along in the Kennedy boat. He'll make changes, although maybe not at the very top. He's too restless not to.

RESPECTED MEN

Highly respected men like Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Secretary of State Dean Rusk seem sure to stay.

Johnson, who has strong opinions about people and the way to get things done, had used the opportunity to size up Kennedy appointments, tactics and programs abroad and at home.

He said he backs the programs. But he probably will try to improve them and make changes in personnel below the very top level. He has to make his own record to run on in 1964, so he has to be a man in a hurry.

Some of his observations as vice president may be turning into action now. His administration reportedly is thinking of a complete reorganization and shakeup in Kennedy's Alliance For Progress program in Latin America.

NEW APPOINTMENT

As No. 2 man under Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge in Viet Nam, Johnson has just appointed David G. Nes, 46, a foreign service officer. It wouldn't be surprising to see Nes turn out to be the No. 1 man.

Lodge has been mentioned as a possible Republican presidential candidate next year, although he denies any such intention.

Meanwhile, the political armistice the Republicans declared after Kennedy's death — just for a while — seems to be starting to disappear.

Rep. H. R. Gross, R-Iowa, called Thursday for an investigation of the radio and television operations of the President and Mrs. Johnson.

Kennedy sought to preserve a political tranquility, even when he was getting nowhere with Congress.

Johnson is pressed by time to make a record. In politics he has been considered smooth but not necessarily an apostle of tranquility.

The POWER of FAITH

THE ROAD TO BETHLEHEM. III

The world learned in many ways about the birth of Christ. To some, the announcement was as silent as the appearance of a star. To the shepherds in the lonely night, it came as a shock. There was the heavenly light, the angel, and the host on high praising God. The shepherds went also to worship the baby lying in the manger. And their continuing faith even led them to become the first missionaries. We are told that "When they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child."

Days of All Faiths:

Little Known About Ember Days

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

Every once in awhile we mention the Ember Days, those groups of three fast days that turn up four times a year. They are always the Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday after (1) the first Sunday in Lent, (2) Pentecost, (3) September 14, and (4) December 13.

Nobody really knows where these Ember Days came from, but they were observed very early in Christian history. The scholars' best guess is that they were times of pagan purification rites, connected with the agricultural seasons, and that Christianity simply took them over.

For example, the pagans would have been purifying themselves at this time of year in preparation for the time of sowing next year's crops.

The name Ember is a corruption of the German quaterni, which means "four." All it means is that these days come four times a year.

ST. ADAM AND ST. EVE

How far back in history can you go to find a Christian saint? Well, certainly you can't go back any further than Adam and Eve, and that is exactly where some martyrologies go for Thursday's saints.

St. Adam died at the age of 930 years, according to Genesis 5:5. Eve's age is not recorded — not out of courtesy, but only because women were not important enough to keep statistics on.

Why these two should be saints in anyone's martyrology is very difficult to understand. One can see why Moses and some of the prophets are considered to have achieved the heavenly bliss of sainthood. They all were, more or less obviously, forerunners of Christ and participants in God's plan of salvation.

But Adam and Eve were the ones who caused all the trouble and, indeed, made salvation necessary. If they had left that fruit alone, we would all be saints. And if this fallen couple are in heaven, then why isn't everyone else who ever lived?

UNFAIR TO ST. THOMAS

The world has been unfair in what it has picked out to remember about the Apostle Thomas. St. John's Gospel tells a number of very striking and positive things about him, but all we think of when his name is mentioned is that he refused to believe in the Lord's Resurrection unless he could have visible, tangible proof. Everyone calls him "Doubting Thomas."

You never hear about the time when all the other Apostles were trying to talk Jesus out of going to Bethany, where his friend Lazarus was lying dead. The people there will kill you, they told him. But Thomas said "Let us also go, that we may die with him."

You never hear that Thomas was a carpenter, the only Apostle who had this training and experience in common with his Lord.

No. What does the Bible do? "You wind it up and watch it dance back and forth, from North to South, across the Mason-Dixon Line."

The Almanac

Today is Saturday, Dec. 14, the 348th day of 1963 with 17 to follow.
The moon is approaching its new phase.

The evening stars are Jupiter, Saturn and Venus.

Those born today include the man who later became King George VI, in 1895.

On this day in history:

In 1799, George Washington, first president of the United States, died at Mount Vernon.

In 1819, Alabama entered the Union as the 22nd state.

FIRST CABLE

In 1902, the cableship Silverton set out from San Francisco to lay the first cable connecting Honolulu with the golden gate.

In 1961, 20 children were killed when a train hit a school bus near Greeley, Colo.

A thought for the day — General of the Army Douglas MacArthur said: "It is fatal to enter any war without the will to win it."

Christianity which is still strong today. Legend tells that after the Ascension the Apostles drew lots to see what part of the world each should take as his missionary territory. Thomas, to his horror, drew India, and he went there, worked devotedly and effectively, and was martyred for his efforts.

You don't hear that Thomas found the three Wise Men and baptized them and set them to work for Christ.

No. All you hear is that Thomas did not believe without proof, and was rebuked for his doubts. Why do we like to remember only the bad things?

Washington Notebook:

Gags Begin on President Johnson

By WASHINGTON STAFF
WASHINGTON (NEA)—First Republican gag on new President Lyndon Baines Johnson: "They're rushing to bring out a new L. B. J. doll in time for the Christmas trade. Have you heard about it?"

"No. What does the doll do?"

"You wind it up and watch it dance back and forth, from North to South, across the Mason-Dixon Line."

Victor Johnston, executive director of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, did not realize until recently how far Gov. James Rhodes of Ohio has carried his economy drive.

Visiting the governor in Columbus, Johnston got a hearty invitation to lunch. He demurred, saying he did not want to take up Rhodes' time.

When the governor insisted, Johnston gave way. He turned to leave the office, sure they were heading for one of Rhodes' favorite restaurants.

Johnston was met at the door by a secretary bearing two paper sacks containing hamburgers.

Said the governor: "Come on, Vic. Let's eat at my desk."

More Readers Comment on President's Death

"Accuse your opponent of the crime you have just committed yourself" — no Communist tactic is more frequently practiced.

Minutes after the Kennedy assassination, Radio Moscow was blaming the "radical-racist right wing." A few hours later, its official New York spokesman, "The Worker," was distributing tens of thousands of one-page circulars pinning blame for the crime on J. Edgar Hoover, Alabama's Governor Wallace and Mississippi's Senator Eastland.

The assassin declared that he was "a Communist — a Marxist and proud of it."

L. F. Reardon

It is amazing that all the men who hated and maligned John F. Kennedy are now wailing their sadness at such a "dastardly act." If these hypocrites really admired and loved this great man, he might be alive today. And all the bills that are blocked from passage in the House might be law today.

Hatred killed President Kennedy. Let us join together and drive hatred and hypocrisy from this world.

Nauseated Kid

Lewis McClain criticized Ann Saincome's letter comparing Mr. Kennedy with Christ. We all must compare with Christ or we shall never get to heaven.

Of course we are only human beings but we must keep striving for perfection. Christ is the Son of God and we become adopted sons of God through baptism.

Christian life requires sacrifices and self denial which is figuratively a carrying of the cross after Christ. To be truly Christian we must not only read Christ's life in the Bible but we must imitate Him as perfectly as possible.

Writes on Bill of Rights, George Mason

Dec. 15 Americans celebrate the anniversary of the ten amendments that have become more famous than the Constitution. On Dec. 15, 1791, the first ten amendments, the Bill of Rights, were declared in force.

The Bill of Rights came about because many early leaders, in and out of Congress, believed the Constitution was weak in its assurance of individual and states' rights.

George Mason, as the author of the Virginia Declaration of Rights, might be said to be the father of civil liberties. The first ten amendments were patterned after the Declaration.

On Bill of Rights Day let us also recognize George Mason.

The Better Half

"I see my uncle Frank remembered you again this year... He asks, 'When is that stupid husband of yours going to bring back that saw he borrowed from me?'"

D-TeX., quotes a description of how conferees look in the chamber on the last day of session.

"It's right odd to look around and see the differences of faces on this occasion. Some quit, thinking they have established a name in the nation and look satisfied; some quit, right glad to get home, and know they are coming back."

"Some are restless and fidgety, with a journal under their arm to take home, to prove how punctual they were; others are soberly and sadly calculating how they can travel down from their heights of political dignity to the level of their constituents. Few have got more honor than they expected; many have got less."

The author of this clear picture? Rep. Pool reveals it was none other than the famed frontier man, Davy Crockett who penned these words while congressman from Tennessee in 1831.

Local Unit Celebrates Christmas

A Christmas program highlighted the annual meeting of the Teachers Exchange Club Thursday in the home of Mrs. Ralph Gardner on North Lake Drive.

Mrs. Norman Fauble told the "Legend of the Black Madonna" and gave a reading by Ann Shelly.

Accompanists for seasonal group singing were Mrs. Fauble at the organ and Elizabeth Halsey on the piano.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses Mrs. Mary Wagner and Mrs. H. Erwin Gottschalk.

Following a traditional custom, the members brought Christmas gifts to be distributed to needy area families.

Unit Brings Gifts

Members of St. Anthony's Guild of St. Benedict Church brought gifts for the boys at Lapeer Home to the Starr Avenue home of Mrs. Frank G. Tote Thursday evening.

Mrs. Arthur Novotney was cohostess for the meeting and gift exchange.

Spray holiday greens with clear lacquer, so they will keep their color and needles longer.

Two Events Highlight Past Week

By SIGNE KARLSTROM

Two significant events took place this week in Detroit in connection with the arrival of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's eminent conductor Sixten Ehrling.

Mrs. Walker L. Cisler and Mrs. Gunnar Karlstrom were co-chairmen of the dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. Sixten Ehrling.

RECEPTION FOLLOWS

Immediately following Mr. Ehrling's opening concert on Thursday a reception was given by the Detroit - Swedish Council, Inc. at the Whittier Hotel honoring the Ehrlings and His Excellency, The Hon. Gunnar Jarring, Sweden's Ambassador to the U.S. who came to Detroit especially for Mr. Ehrling's concert.

Following the intermission, Ambassador Jarring spoke a few words about the friendship between the two nations and the universal language of music.

The Swedish colors, yellow and blue, were used throughout the spacious rooms at the Whittier. On each side of the receiving line stood the American and Swedish flag.

Swedish consul and Mrs. Edward Johansson, together with the chairman of Detroit-Swedish Council, Inc. Charles E. Koebel headed the receiving line.

AMONG GUESTS

There were 250 guests. Among those from this area were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Jones and his mother, Mrs. Alben Jones from Jamestown, N.Y., the Lawrence Nelsons, the David Nelsons, the LeRoy W. Dahlgrens, the Edwin Andersons, Mr. and Mrs. Karl-Gunnar Aronsson, Mr. and Mrs. Gustav vonReis with their daughter Mrs. vonReis Newlander and daughter and son - in - law, the Arthur Altschuls who came from New York City.

Urban League Guild Meets for a Party

Members of the Urban League Guild of Pontiac hosted the human relations club of Washington Junior High School and the youth group of the Oakland County Children's Center at a Christmas party Friday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Turpin opened their Franklin Blvd. home for the event. Some 40 young people sang carols and exchanged gifts.

Mrs. Grace Corrothers and Mrs. Paulette Woodward assisted Mrs. Turpin. A short business meeting of the Guild followed the festivities.

Luncheon Reception Follows Ceremony

Rev. Edward Dunavant officiated at the marriage of Lola Dean Oakley to Billy Earl Wallace, today in the

New Hope General Baptist Church.

Book Review Unit to Meet

Members of the Waterford Community Library Book Review group will meet Monday at one o'clock in the home of Mrs. Arthur W. Selden on Cooley Lake Road.

Mrs. William Vann will review the book "The South and the Southerner" by Ralph McGill.

Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. M. F. Macauley and Mrs. Ralph Eaton.

Parents of the couple are the Walter J. Oakleys of East Boulevard North and the J. P. Wallaces of West Chicago Avenue.

The bride chose a street-length gown of white chiffon over taffeta, with a lined bodice of Chantilly lace.

An Egyptian - type head-dress held her short illusion veil. She carried a nosegay of white carnations and miniature yellow roses.

Linda Gatzmyr attended the bride and Danny Guthrey was best man.

Craftsman Reconciled to TV

AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "Television is a new part of our business," said Dean Jagger. "It is not the craftsmanship that I had known of the stage and in films. But it is important, and that's why I wanted to be a part of it."

THOMAS

The actor was explaining why he accepted the role of the high school principal in the new, highly regarded series, "Mister Novak." His MGM series, "Mister Novak," a quiet authority has been a major factor in the growing success of the Tuesday night show, which also stars James Franciscus as the English teacher.

For Jagger, the adjustment to an hour-long weekly series has not been easy. Recently he collapsed and missed some filming. "I was trying to do too much," he said. "I had an illness that kept me out, and I tried to go back to work too soon. When I really got hit, it was the first time in my life I didn't have complete control. It scared me. I didn't like it. And I began to wonder if I should undertake something like a series."

WORKING WELL
"But I came back and the people in charge at MGM have been wonderful. They told me they didn't want me doing too much. They want me to spare myself, and I've been trying to do just that. It seems to be working out well now."

Jagger, who won the supporting Oscar for "12 O'Clock High" in 1949, accepted "Mr. Novak" as a challenge and admitted he was amazed at the reception the show has received. Always a man who speaks his mind, he said he had some misgivings about the mode of production.

"I'm a word-polisher," he said. "That was my training in the theater and in movies, and it's hard for me to reconcile myself to the television schedule. We could do so much better if we simply had a day's rehearsal before each show. It's impossible for any actor to come in cold and do his best work immediately before the camera—and we work with kids who haven't a great deal of training. We finish a script one night and begin the next morning on another. It's pretty tough to get much quality that way."

Rescue 2 Buried in Cave-In

SAGINAW (AP) — Fellow workers, volunteers and firemen dug feverishly Friday to rescue two Detroit-area men who were buried under an avalanche of dirt following a cave-in at a sewer excavation site.

Ralph Guastalla, 27, of Livonia, was pulled out 30 minutes after the cave-in, pinning him to the bottom of the 17-foot hole. Donald Ramirez, 22, of Dearborn, spent more than three hours under the dirt.

Ramirez, a bachelor, was admitted to Saginaw St. Mary's Hospital for treatment of undetermined injuries. Guastalla father of three, was treated and released.

Fellow workers said that after the cave-in, only Guastalla's face was visible. Ramirez was trapped beneath him.

Christine Film
'Dull, Stilted'

Critics Say Movie
Avoids True Picture

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (UPI) — Danish critics today panned a film about Christine Keeler, the call girl whose affair with a cabinet minister almost toppled the British government.

Comments ranged from "Naïve" to "boring and stilted." The movie, "The Christine Keeler Affair," opened yesterday in two Copenhagen theaters. John Barrymore Jr. plays Dr. Stephen Ward, Miss Keeler's "protector," and British starlet Yvonne Buckingham plays the 21-year-old redhead.

Bjorn Rasmussen, critic for the newspaper Aktuelt, called the movie "naïve, devoid of humor, but involuntarily comic when trying to describe the 'douce vie' of the ruling class. He said it avoided an honest account of the romance between Miss Keeler and British War Secretary John Profumo in an "only, ingratiating, hypocritical way."

"The actors are fondly lacking in talent, ably led by Yvonne Buckingham. She is acting Christine and you will have to search far and long to find the likes of scenic helplessness," he said.

Miss Keeler's affair with Profumo took place in the summer of 1961. Last June Profumo admitted he had lied in telling the House of Commons in March that there was no impropriety in his relationship with Miss Keeler.

His admission almost toppled the government. Ward, who had introduced Miss Keeler to Profumo, died in August from a massive overdose of drugs without ever learning he had been convicted by a jury of living off the earnings of two prostitutes — Miss Keeler and blonde Marilyn (Mandy) Rice-Davies.

Miss Keeler began serving a nine-month jail sentence this past week after pleading guilty to trying to frame a discarded Jamaican lover of an assault charge.

New Earth Satellite
Orbited by Soviets

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union took place in the new earth satellite, Kosmos 23, in its 21-month-old series of launches to study space, the Soviet news agency Tass announced.

Tass said the satellite was orbiting every 92.9 minutes 381 miles from the earth's surface at its maximum distance and 149 miles at its minimum.

The report said the instrument-laden space vehicle was transmitting information to earth on a radio frequency of 20.065 megacycles.

No Action Is Planned Against Rabbit Hunt

HARMONY, N.C. — James Vandell, an official of the American Humane Society, asked if he planned to protest the annual American Legion sticks and stones rabbit hunt.

"I plan to take no action. Quite frankly, I know of no action to take except maybe to arouse public sentiment."

PCH Tops Arthur Hill, 70-64; Huskies Keep Winning, 88-60

Chiefs Hold High Place in SVC Race

By DON VOGEL

SAGINAW—Pontiac central's Chiefs came through in the clutch here last night to defeat Arthur Hill, 70-64, and stay in the thick of the Saginaw Valley Conference basketball race.

Two key tips by Gerald Henry and driving layups down the middle by Mel DeWalt and Al Keel in the final three minutes staved off a strong Lumberjack comeback.

The victory gives PCH a 2-1 SVC record, one game behind unbeaten Saginaw and a half game behind Flint Central.

DeWalt and Henry were the players who baited Central out of impending danger in the fourth quarter.

Arthur Hill had taken control of the backboards in the late going and was busy cutting a PCH margin that had reached eight points.

Dave Fisher, Craig Schultz and 220-pound Paul Minnis, all 6-3, were taking turns grabbing rebounds and firing away until the ball went through the hoop. The break came with PCH holding 40-57 lead. DeWalt went high between the three lumberjacks to snare a rebound.

PRESSURE EASED

The Chiefs hustled down the floor and Henry came up with a tip to cut some of the pressure. Minnis fouled out and a minute later Henry repeated his effort to increase the margin to 40-67.

The Hillites battled back but could never get closer than four points as DeWalt and Keel put the game out of reach.

DeWalt took game scoring honors with 24 points. Henry added 14 and grabbed 15 rebounds. Bill Morgan converted 11 points and Keel 10.

Jim Johnson, who started PCH off to an 8-3 lead with two quick tips posted nine markers and snared 13 rebounds.

DeWalt took game scoring honors with 24 points. Henry added 14 and grabbed 15 rebounds. Bill Morgan converted 11 points and Keel 10.

The turning point, said coach Fred Zittle, "came when DeWalt grabbed that rebound. It was the key play."

Central could have helped its own cause at the free throw line, but made only eight of 20 tries.

"The strange part about the free throws," said Zittle, "is that we make the boys hit eight of 10 in practice before we let them leave the gym."

Lapeer Five Left Behind by Kettering's Speed, 62-52

Kettering lived up to its billing as the favorite in the Tri-County League Friday evening by stopping a strong Lapeer quiet, 62-52.

It was the league opener for the Captains and the win boosted them into first place.

Kettering and the Panthers were pre-season picks to battle for the loop crown, with the Lapeer team expected to be a fair during the opening half, with Kettering holding a 9-8 edge at the end of the first quarter and a 25-23 advantage at intermission.

The Captains' speed won.

Lapeer's two backboard men, 6-4 center Ron Starking and 6-2 forward Dick Fellers, were held in check by the Captains and managed to score a combined total of 14 points.

The game was a see-saw affair with the Kettering five turned on the speed in the third stanza and outscored the visitors, 14-7, to take a comfortable lead into the final frame. Both squads found the range in the fourth and poured in 22 markers each.

BALANCED ATTACK

Senior Bob Bogert sparked a well-rounded Captain scoring attack with 16 points. The 6-foot forward tossed in four field goals and canned eight of 10 attempts from the charity line.

Aiding Bogert with the scoring chores were Bill Graham (11), Earl Hook (12) and Rick Pankey (15).

Coach Bob Taylor was far from disheartened with the loss. He has only one senior on the starting unit—Russ—and his reserves showed a lot of spark in the season opening win at West Bloomfield last Tuesday.

The Skippers have two more engagements before relaxing for the holidays. They will play host to Lapeer next Tuesday and Farmington moves onto the Skipper court next Friday.

Scores 46 in Victory

Roosevelt Wells poured in 46 points last night as Midwestern Baptist School of Pontiac downed Great Lakes Bible College, 95-74 at Lansing. Midwestern's next home game will be Jan. 4 against Grand Rapids Baptist Bible College.

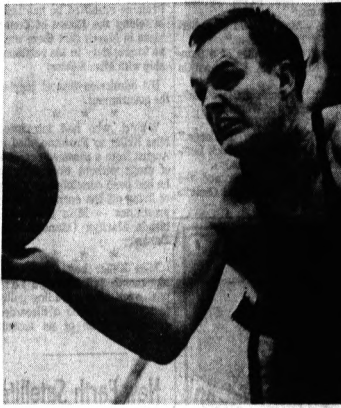

Mike Powell, the Panthers 6-1 forward, led the point producers with 15 markers with Fellers chipping in 12.

Lapeer recorded only 12 field goals but the Panthers were hot at the free throw line. They dropped in 28 of 38 while the Captains were picking up 22 of 35 attempts.

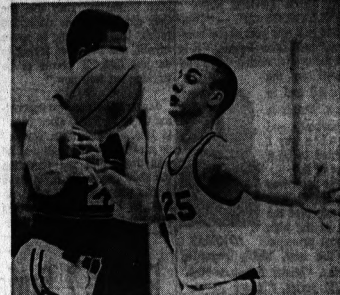

The Captains will play host to Royal Oak Dondoro next Friday in their final appearance of 1963. They will resume the Tri-County battle January 10 at Oxford.

PANTHER CORNERED — Kettering's Bob Bogert clutches a teammate's arm (at right) for support in an effort to halt a scoring attempt by Lapeer's Dick Fellers (45). The Captains held the high-scoring Lapeer forward to 12 points.

EYING THE BALL — Kettering's Rick Pankey (25) has his eye on the ball in this successful theft against an unidentified Lapeer player Friday night. Pankey came up with the ball and Kettering came up with a victory, 62-52.

Romeo Easy Winner; Oxford Falls

Romeo tuned up for its Tri-County League opener next week with an impressive 69-48 decision over visiting Chippewa Valley Friday evening.

The Bulldogs, 2-1 in non-conference competition, journey to Oxford next Friday to get the league race under way.

Romeo jumped in front 19-13 in the opening quarter and turned on the speed in the second to take a commanding 42-23 lead at intermission.

The reserves mopped up the second half, outscoring the visitors 27-25.

Eleven players dented the scoring column for the Bulldogs with Carl Kemp leading the attack with 12 markers. Benny Payne added 11.

Vern Koski led the losers with 19 points.

Oxford's Wildcats faded in the second half Friday evening and dropped a 66-55 decision to L'Anse Creuse in a Tri-County League basketball tilt.

It was the league opener for the Wildcats, and the loss dropped them into the loop basement.

Oxford took a 16-14 first quarter lead, but L'Anse rallied to tie the score at halftime, 32-32.

The winners gained a three-point edge in the third quarter, and ripped the Wildcats for 17 markers in the closing stanza to wrap up the decision.

The win broke a three-game losing streak for L'Anse and left the team with a 1-1 record in league play.

The Wildcats had three players in double figures. Buzz Crook led the way with 14, followed by Dave Houck (10) and Dan VanVleet (13).

Pacing the scoring attack for L'Anse were Allan Lamb (16), Randy McConnell (11), Mike Wawryniak (13) and Bob Skrocki (12).

Berkley Folds in 2nd Period as PNH Rolls

31-Point Spree Ends Bears Hopes of Upset in I-L Contest

By FLETCHER SPEARS

Pontiac Northern coach Dick Hall flitted with Lady Luck last night and his charm paid off. Hall, noting that it was Friday — the unlucky 13th, observed that he had brought a traveling squad of 13 Huskies to Berkley to meet the Bears in an Inter-Lakes League opener.

And the old unlucky number appeared again when the Huskies scored 13 points in the opening quarter.

But then Hall turned on the charm and lured the Fickle Lady into his corner.

The move paid off as the Huskies broke the game open with 31 points in the second quarter en route to an 88-60 triumph over the Bears.

The win was the third in succession for the Huskies and put them into a tie for first place in the I-L race along with Southfield and Walled Lake.

The Huskies were off target in the opening minutes of the game, and the Bears had a 6-0 lead before Roger Hayward dropped in two quick buckets.

IN COMMAND

Northern took the lead seconds later on baskets by Mike Burkow and Jerry Reese and stayed in command the rest of the way.

Hall used 12 of the 13 players who made the trip to Berkley. The 13th, Jim DeFioro, sat near Hall on the bench, with a broken arm in a cast.

The Burkow-Jerry Reese guard combination chilled the Bears.

The speedy front-court duet harassed the Bears continually and combined for 35 points.

Both players split the Berkley defense time-after-time with driving twisting layups.

The Huskies built up a 44-24 halftime margin before Hall turned the game over to the reserves.

Hayward sparked at his forward post. He led all scorers with 24 points, picking up 10 field goals and coming four-for-four at the free-throw line.

Aiding Ross in the scoring column were Bernard Donkerbrook (8) and Dan Kelly (13).

Hall tossed Dean Souden into action early in the contest and the big center gave the Huskies control of the backboards. Souden also contributed seven points in the Northern attack.

The 28 points against the Bears gives the Huskies 259 in three outings.

Northern journeys to Walled Lake next week to meet the Vikings before taking time out for the holidays.

Southfield Finds Range

Waterford Loses, 80-66

Southfield spoiled Waterford's Inter-Lakes basketball debut Friday evening, dumping the Skippers, 80-66.

The Skippers looked sharp in the opening stanza in racing to a 14-6 lead, but the roof fell in the second quarter when the Blue Jays poured 32 points through the hoop.

Southfield went into a tight press after the Skippers moved in front, and the defensive maneuver paid off.

Waterford tossed the ball away repeatedly and Southfield took advantage of the miscues to take the lead.

The win was the first of the season for the Blue Jays against one setback, and the loss evened Waterford's record at 1-1.

Forward Ray Schlaff led a well-balanced Blue Jay attack with 22 points. Other players hitting double figures were Harry Glass (16), Dennis Lamb (11) and Joe Considine and Rick Smigelski with 10 each.
