What Would You Ask Khrushchev? People Speak Up

By HARVEY ZUCKERBERG

"If Soviet Premier Khrushchev confronted you during a visit to Pontiac and you had the opportunity to put one question or one statement to him, what would it be?"

Here's a sampling of replies to The Pontiac Press reporter who posed this question to people at random on downtown streets:

One man said he would encourage the Red leader to continue his quest for peace. A second man retorted to the reporter's question with one of his own.

"I wonder what Little Red Riding Hood's grandmother thought after she let the wolf into the house?"

Harold Chapman, a merchant who lives at 290 Tilden, said he would ask Khrushchev how he likes our way of life in the United States.

Graves

"But, Chapman added, "I don't think we can expect too much cooperation. Khrushchev is extremely stubborn. We can show him how it is over here, but I don't think it will accomplish anything."

(Chapman is costumed, complete with an arrow through the head, for his part in Pontiac's Festival Days.)

A retired worker, C. V. Graves, 101 Mechanic, said he would really like to know what progress the Russians are making in various fields.

"For example," said Graves, "I'd ask Khrushchev if the rocket really went up to the moon. That's assuming that I'd get a truthful answer."

Mrs. Daisy Ferguson, 3766 Auburn Rd., Utica, was indecisive at first.

Mrs. Ferguson

Miss Cates

"I'd ask him what he's doing doing over here," the housewife said. "This visit won't come of any good."

And then on second thought, "It's hard to tell. It might make for more friendship."

A student at Pontiac Central High School, Margaret Cates, 19 S. Edith, said Khrushchev is discussed a great deal in her International Relations class.

"I would ask him what is intentions are in Germany," she said, "and also, how he is going to go about getting a peaceful settlement over there.

"Actually, I think our difference is in ideologies. I think he wants peace just as much as we do."

A worker at Pontiac Motor Division, Clyde K. Young, 178 Augusta Ave., said:

"Above all else, I think people should show Khrushchev a good, courteous welcome here. But I wouldn't know whether he would answer me honestly, so what good would a question be?

"Maybe I'd ask him if he would

3 Children Die in Blast at Home

Explosion, Fire Rips Detroit Residence as They Clean Basement

DETROIT (AP)— Three children cleaning the basement of their grandparents' home died today in a flash fire that broke out in the two-story frame building on Detroit's west side.

Their grandfather said he had barely time to save his wife and was unable to get to the children.

Killed were 3-year-old Denise Dutton and her two brothers, Steven, 5, and James, 7. Their parents, James and Jane Dutton, were at work when the blaze broke out and the children were being cared for by their grandparents.

Cause of the fire was not determined immediately.

The grandfather, Harry Smith, 66, suffered minor burns. Both he and his wife Marie, 65, were hospitalized.

Police Sgt. Marvin Raetzel said that Smith told him Mrs. Smith was in the living room ironing a shirt for her husband and that the children were cleaning the basement of the two-story frame home, where both the Duttons and Smiths live.

" 'Suddenly there was a flash of fire all through the house,' " Raetzel said Smith told him. " 'It was all I could do to get my wife out. There was no time to save the children.' "

★ ★ ★

Firemen, who had to break down a door to get into the smoke-filled home, said the bodies of the children were found huddled in a corner of the basement.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Automobile manufacturers have been warned that a Taft-Hartley injunction halting the 67-day-old steel strike may cause an auto workers slowdown in new car production. Emil Mazey, United Automobile Workers Secretary-treasurer, Friday called on all AFL-CIO unions to give like warnings to their managements.

Board to Start Final Action on County Budget

Supervisors to Meet Monday; Questions Could Delay Okay

Next year's Oakland County $12,626,784 budget —slashed and fattened here and there since presented in April—gets what the Board of Supervisors hopes will be its final going over Monday.

A forced economy drive in the county has focused more attention on the budget this year than in the past several years.

In addition, some of the 16 first-year supervisors on the 83-member county governing body have shown they don't intend to take the budget at face value and plan to question certain items.

One question that might be raised revolves around the $5,432,751 employes salary schedule, which includes $223,203 in recommended pay raises for 1,198 employes.

Sydney Frid, Northville supervisor who questioned the raises last week, has spent some time since in Personnel Director John Witherup's office examining the schedule.

Auditors say it has been some years since supervisors have not adopted the budget on the scheduled day. If they don't Monday, they would have to continue meeting until they do.

Since the budget was routinely approved in April for tax allocation purposes, $1,279,800 has been chopped out by auditors and the Ways and Means Committee.

This was necessary because the Tax Allocation Board declared a freeze on all tax rates, leaving the county with the 1958 rate of $5.62 per each $1,000 of equalized valuation instead of the $6.47 on which the preliminary budget was based.

The largest item in the budget—social welfare—had to be cut $608,700.

Waning Days of Summer to Be Warm

The waning days of summer will see temperatures a little warmer in the Pontiac area, the weatherman promised.

Tomorrow's high will be 75, with the weather continuing mild through Monday. Low tonight will be between 44 and 54.

Summer officially will bow out at 2:09 p.m. Wednesday. This is the time the sun crosses the equator on its way south, arriving at the autumnal equinox.

Daylight hours, however, will exceed those of darkness by as much as nine minutes and the actual equal length of day and night will not come until Sept. 26.

Winds southerly at two miles an hour at 1:15 p.m. will become light easterly tonight and southerly at 10-18 miles an hour tomorrow.

The lowest temperature preceding 8 a.m. in downtown Pontiac was 44 degrees. At 2 p.m. the mercury had climbed to 68.

Flood Mine to End Fire; 47 Trapped

From Our News Wires

CHRYSTON, Scotland — Officials today began flooding the Auchengeich Coal Mine, ending the last hope of relatives of 47 miners trapped since yesterday in the "pure hell" of fire and deadly fumes a mile underground.

★ ★ ★

Daring rescue crews brought six other men to the surface alive and one dead before being forced to end operations because deadly carbon monoxide gas began filling the shafts.

The death toll of 48 made the disaster the worst in Scottish mine history of the century.

Only a three-day strike which ended Thursday probably prevented a greater tragedy. The mine, 10 miles from Glasgow, employed 800 men. Most had stayed home and planned to resume work Monday.

A short circuit in a ventilating fan touched off the explosion at 7:30 a.m. yesterday while the day shift was moving through the shaft to the coal face.

For 18 hours, rescue teams braved death in the attempts to reach the 47 entombed men. When the deadly fire damp made further rescue attempts impossible, officials abandoned hope and announced the pit would be flooded to put out the underground blaze.

"This decision has had to be taken to avoid the risk of further loss of life," said R. W. Parker, a National Coal Board spokesman.

Anxious relatives maintained a vigil at the pithead until the early hours of this morning. Wives, children, parents and sweethearts heard the announcement last night that the mine would be flooded to put out the fire.

But they stood there patiently until Able Moffat, president of the Scottish Miners Union, told them there was no purpose in waiting and to go home.

★ ★ ★

They went reluctantly. They were fully aware that any of the men who might have survived the fire and fumes were doomed when the water began pouring in.

Clamp Down on Red Refugees

PICKETS GET UNRULY — An officer leaps the fence surrounding the U.N. building in New York as policemen tried to keep an emotional crowd under control during Khrushchev's address to the world body. Two men were arrested as the crowd had to be dispersed when the Soviet boss left. The pickets made up of refugees from Red satellite countries were on the verge of rioting.

Nikita Flies Over U.S. to West Coast

From Our News Wires

EN ROUTE WITH KHRUSHCHEV — Nikita S. Khrushchev flew today to the booming West Coast of America while statesmen across the world pondered his proposal to scrap all arms and weapons in the next four years.

Related Stories on Pages 3, 13

Before ending his 45-hour visit to New York, he apologized for not having "closer contacts" with the "working people" of the city. He thanked the "many millions" who "took up a friendly attitude."

Khrushchev said his New York visit convinced him "the leaders of this city and especially its people do not want war."

The Soviet premier left New York's Idlewild Airport at 8:42 a.m. (EST) en route to Los Angeles, first stop on a six-day trans-America tour before he resumes Big Two talks with President Eisenhower. He was due at Los Angeles at noon Pacific Daylight Time (2 p.m. Pontiac time).

HARLEM QUIET

Much had been made of Khrushchev's plans to visit Harlem, one of the world's best known Negro communities.

The Communists often have pointed accusingly at this country's Negro policies, and Henry Cabot Lodge, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations and Khrushchev's guide on this trip, said in a speech Thursday that the country still has far to go.

But today's trip made no more of a stir than it would through any other part of the city so early in the morning.

Trucks had washed down the streets before Khrushchev went by, cleaning up the place a bit. Only several hundred persons were out when Khrushchev went by. A few waved.

Khrushchev made total global disarmament the keynote when he proposed before the United Nations General Assembly yesterday that in four years "land armies, navies and air forces shall cease to exist" and "all nuclear weapons shall be destroyed."

Was it a sincere proposal or a grand - stand propaganda play? From the Little White House at Gettysburg, Pa. to chancelleries across the world statesmen were asking this question as Khrushchev flew to the Hollywood reception by top figures of filmdom.

In Washington, U.S. officials wanted to know today whether Khrushchev would accept full inspection and control as ingredients of his sweeping formula for total world disarmament.

The plane flying Khrushchev and his party to Los Angeles for lunch in Hollywood with movie stars, a tour of Disneyland, if time is available, and an inspection of a housing development, is a VC137, military version of the Boeing 707.

He's 'Very Able Man'

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES

NEW YORK — Nikita Khrushchev doesn't think consorting with a Rockefeller will do him any political harm back home. So reported Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller Friday after a 22-minute talk with the Soviet Premier in the latter's suite in the Waldorf Towers.

Rockefeller gave reporters a studied, serious description of his meeting with the Soviet leader, which he described as cordial, not "chilly." The governor said he was offered a choice of three drinks, and chose a non-alcoholic one described as "some new root drink from Siberia," which he found "not bad."

Rockefeller said he sized Khrushchev up as a "very able" man, adding: "He is serious, then he is gay, but always with a very keen look coming out of his eyes."

The Soviet radio jammers are back at work again, but now they're being selective. The United Nations speech by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev was okay — that went through without jamming on the Voice of America.

But Secretary of State Christian A. Herter's speech to the same body? Nothing doing. Soviet jam-jamming trans-

Sec. Mitchell Demands Names From Teamsters

From Our News Wires

SAN FRANCISCO—Labor Sec. James P. Mitchell told the AFL-CIO convention Friday the government is cracking down swiftly against racketeers and subversives in union leadership under the new labor control law.

Mitchell disclosed he wired a demand to Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa that he produce within 10 days a list of all Teamsters Union officers or employes with criminal or Communist records.

The Landrum-Griffin labor law, which President Eisenhower signed last Monday, bans anyone convicted of certain crimes or a Communist party member from serving as a union official for five years after such conviction or membership.

Mitchell also demanded that Hoffa advise "what action your organization is taking regarding these individuals."

A union knowingly employing a criminal offender violates the new law's provisions as does the official himself.

Hoffa said in Detroit he would turn Mitchell's telegram over to his lawyers for study "if and when I receive it."

He indicated he was familiar with the contents of the telegram but declined comment.

OTHER MESSAGES

The labor secretary said he sent similar messages to officials of some other unions, too. He did not name them.

The shouting, stamping AFL-CIO stood ready for all-out battle to support steel workers faced with possible injunction against their strike.

"We are going to back the steelworkers until they win," cried Walter Reuther, head of the auto workers.

The injunction threat came yesterday from Mitchell.

He said that under the Taft-Hart-

2 County Men Die in Smashups

Car Runs Off Road in Springfield Twp.; Auto Hits Truck

A Bloomfield Township business executive, Allen E. Gedelman, 55, was one of the two men killed on Oakland County highways Friday afternoon in a span of about 30 minutes, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies and state police.

Gedelman, of 4540 Cherokee Rd., Bloomfield Township, was treasurer of the Jam Handy Organization, Detroit.

The other accident victim was Arnold B. Greer, 47, of 1000 Davisburg Rd., Springfield Township.

Gedelman was dead on arrival at McPherson Hospital in Howell, at 3:30. His auto smashed into the rear of a tractor-trailer truck on the eastbound U.S. 16 expressway west of Milford road Brighton State Police reported.

Gedelman suffered skull and chest injuries. His body was taken to the Phillips Funeral Home in South Lyon.

The accident took place on an upgrade where two other similar fatal smashups have occurred this summer, according to State Police.

Greer died 10 minutes after being admitted to Pontiac General Hospital with multiple chest injuries. Sheriff's deputies said his car ran off a curve on Davisburg road less than a mile from his home and smashed into a tree.

They were unable to take a statement from him. The accident occurred shortly before 4 p.m.

Chrysler Displays Last of 'Little Three' – Valiant

By HARRY REED
Managing Editor, Pontiac Press

MIAMI—The last of the big three's "Little Three" was displayed to newsmen Friday when Chrysler Corporation introduced its economy car, the Valiant.

It followed earlier showings of the Ford Falcon and the Chevrolet Corvair. All three six-passenger cars are in production and scheduled for public display shortly.

Weight, horsepower of the 6 cylinder engine and selling price were not released.

Chrysler Executive Vice President William C. Newberg said the horsepower "will be fully competitive, and then some, with the horsepower of the other economy cars being introduced by our major competitors."

"The Valiant will get 30 miles to the gallon of gasoline in highway driving, and even better when the factors of speed, driver skill, temperature and road surface are favorable," Newberg said.

The Valiant will be offered in two series — the V-100 and V-200. Each series will include a four door sedan, a four-door, 2-seat station wagon, and a four-door, 3-seat station wagon.

Sedans will be produced initially, but station wagons will be

Football Season Is Under Way

High school stadiums, large and small, were filled as Oakland County area teams got the 1959 season under way last night.

The largest crowd was at Birmingham where 6,000 saw the Maples spank Cranbrook, 26-0.

Pontiac Northern's first varsity football team made a successful debut in beating Lake Orion, 13-6, before filled house of 2,800.

Area teams were victorious in most cases as Avondale, Walled Lake, Bloomfield Hills and Oxford scored wins.

Wants Money for Unredeemed Trading Stamps

LANSING (UPI) — A House study committee may seek legislation requiring trading stamp companies to give money for unredeemed stamps to the state, a committee member said today.

"We're not out to run the stamp industry out of Michigan or arouse the ire of the housewife —we just want some dough for the state," said Rep. John T. Bowman (D-Roseville), sponsor of the resolution that created the committee.

Bowman said about 40 per cent of the stamps issued are never redeemed by consumers "resulting in extraordinary profits to the issuing companies."

'Wild Bill' Heth Dies at 80, Was Pioneer in Aviation

BIRMINGHAM — Eugene Heth, a retired Birmingham farmer, painter and pioneer in American aviation, died Thursday at Tampa, Fla. He was 80.

"Wild Bill," as he was called, was an Earlybird, one of the first half hundred men to make frequent flights with heavier than air machines, when aviation was in its infancy.

He once said that he was thankful he came through that period with his life and body intact. Many contemporaries, he said, ended their careers suddenly because of "slight miscalculations."

Heth purchased his first airplane for $5,000 and paid an additional $500 for his flying lessons. The average flight on exhibitions around the country lasted approximately 15 minutes.

His first flight was made June 27, 1911, near Boston. From that summer on for many years, "Wild Bill" Heth toured the country, under various backers and managers, flying at fairs, carnivals and similar public celebrations.

Aviators in those days often resorted to makeshift arrangements to complete their equipment, Heth once reported.

"The finest compass I ever had was a piece of string tied to one of the front struts," he had said.

STRING SHOWS WAY

"When I was in the air that string blew out straight. If it blew level, I knew I was flying level; if it was slanting up or down, I knew I was going up or down and if it blew to either side I was not going in a straight line.

"That was a fine compass and the only trouble was that someone around the plane on the ground was forever thinking that loose string was something we had forgotten and kept pulling it off as often as I put it on."

Heth said he never had a license and never had an accident.

Funeral service will be held 3 p.m. Monday at the Manley Bailey Funeral Home in Birmingham, followed by burial in Greenwood Cemetery.

Born in Birmingham, Heth moved to Florida eight years ago.

$600,000 Increase in Two Years

Waterford Twp. School Evaluation Up

The valuation of Waterford Township school buildings has increased $600,000 during the past two years, according to an insurance report by Howard Huttenlocher to the Board of Education.

The report was made after the 23 school, maintenance, and Board of Education offices had been reappraised, and the depreciation determined.

At the present time value of buildings in the school district totals some $8½ million. By the end of next year it is expected this figure will be increased to $9,800,000 due to the new school building program in progress.

A report on part of that program was presented at last night's regular meeting by the building site committee, and involved an offer by the Board to purchase an elementary school site in the Waterford Center attendance area.

Contracts for an addition to the Schoolcraft elementary school, and a site on W. Walton Blvd. for a second senior high school have been finalized.

The National Bank of Detroit was named paying agent for the Braun Bosworth Bonding Co. which has purchased Waterford Township's $2½ million building and site bonds. This is one-half of the $5 million school bond approved by voters last spring.

The adult education program will continue in Waterford Township despite the elimination of state aid funds to school districts this year. Rather than discontinue the program, Board members decided to increase the tuition from $6 to $7 for each of the 15-week semesters.

There were 232 people enrolled in the program last year, which cost $4,303. State aid totaled only $205, and the Board of Education paid the balance of $1,705 from the general fund.

"We feel that if more than 200 people in the township wish to take advantage of improving themselves in this program, it should be continued," Assistant Superintendent James DenHerder said.

The Board approved some $400 as its one-third share for the installation of a traffic light on Williams Lake road for Schoolcraft children crossing at Rowley street. The township and the school PTA has agreed to pay the balance.

Further study of exterior lighting for the Cooley Elementary School is necessary before a decision has been made. Board members felt that the architect's fee of $8,000 for the installation was too high, and are considering several other methods for lighting the new school's parking ground.

One of the eight new teachers awarded contracts last night is Edward Hessel, who comes from Hessel.

The girl driver backed up, ramming the Mobury car. Then she turned around and sideswiped Mobury's car and drove off.

FLINT (AP)—Dr. Max R. Burnell, who retired as medical director of General Motors Corp. last year, died today of cancer. He was 65.

Dr. Burnell headed the GM medical department from 1949 to 1958 and had been in industrial medicine since he organized the medical department of GM's AC Sparkplug Division here in 1931.

He won the William S. Knudsen Award for outstanding contribution to industrial medicine in 1952.

Dr. Burnell was a 1918 graduate of the University of Michigan Medical School and began his Flint practice in 1921 as an obstetrician and gynecologist.

Two Teenagers Survive Crash on Telegraph

The pert star of the Cole Porter musical "Can Can" was going to her dressing room outside the main tent after her performance at Music Fair, in suburban Dixie, when the accident happened.

Genevieve's manager, John Trelfall, said she had stood on the rope and flipped over. Her right leg buckled under her.

Authorities at Queensway General Hospital said Genevieve may be hospitalized from six to eight months and probably will not be able to walk for at least a year.

She was given emergency treatment at the theater, then placed under sedation in the hospital. She was reported resting comfortably early today.

Tonight's show is the last of the season.

The dead youth was identified as John Kellner, 17, Audubon, N.J.

Taken to St. Vincent's Hospital for treatment for a fall was John Hall, 19, also of Audubon.

Hall gave this account to police:

He and Kellner had driven to the city. When they decided to return home, about 4 a.m., the car, belonging to Hall's father, wouldn't start. Neither boy had any money, so they went to the station.

They spotted the New Haven railroad's "Federal Express" as it entered the station, en route from Boston to Washington, D.C. When no one was watching they climbed atop one of the cars.

Hall said Kellner accidentally touched the overhead power wire 18 inches above the top of the car. "I just froze," Hall told police, "then I screamed to trainmen to 'save my buddy!' "

The trainmen shouted at the Hall boy to lie perfectly flat and roll toward the station platform. He followed instructions and was injured in the drop to the concrete.

Kellner was pronounced dead at the scene.

Final Budget Action Set for Monday

ing hearings produced some hot words between freshman Supervisor Robert J. Huber of Troy and several veteran supervisors. Huber might have more questions Monday.

Supervisors are going into Monday's special 10 a.m. session conscious of a recent independent budget study which said they need more information to intelligently evaluate record-high expenditures.

Monday, too, supervisors are expected to approve the 1959 levy of $221,363 in assessments for various existing drains in the county. This is an annual order of business.

Mechanics for the sale of some 15 more county-owned properties, being disposed of at a rapid rate to raise funds for a new courthouse, will be worked out also.

Woman Injured in Avon Twp. Auto Collision

A Rochester woman was injured Friday when her auto collided with another car at Rochester and Hamlin roads in Avon Township, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Beverly E. Reeser, 38, of 585 Willard Rd., was treated for shoulder, back, and chest injuries at Pontiac General Hospital and released.

The other driver, Roman A. Garwood, 45, of 550 Hamlin Rd., Avon Township, was uninjured, deputies said.

ley law the administration would have no alternative but to ask a court to order the men back to work.

Mitchell told the union leaders that the intent of the act would require the action if the steel strike developed into a national emergency. This might happen in October, he indicated.

In Philadelphia, a grand jury has returned last minute indictments against seven men, including the two top officers of one of the largest Teamsters locals in the country.

The indictments charge forgery, conspiracy and misappropriation of funds from Local 107, which has more than 1,000 members. Records of the Senate probers were examined by the jurors.

The jury deliberated only five minutes Friday night before returning the indictments, and it heard only two days of testimony.

The seven men are Joseph Grace, president; Raymond Cohen, secretary - treasurer; Benjamin Lapensohn, who was hired by the union to work on a year book; Abraham D. Berman and Edward F. Walker, business agents; Joseph E. Hartsough, Cohen's secretary, and John J. Elco, a member.

Grace and Cohen had been questioned by the Senate committee, but had pleaded the Fifth Amendment in refusing to answer most questions.

Plane Crippled but Lands Safely

SHANNON AIRPORT, Ireland (AP) —A crippled airliner with 21 persons aboard landed safely at Shannon Airport today amid the biggest air-sea safety operation ever staged off the Irish coast.

The plane—an Air France Super Constellation—was flying from New York to Paris. It carried 12 passengers and 9 crew members and made the landing using only the two port engines. No one was hurt.

About 400 miles off the Irish coast the propeller broke away from a starboard engine after the other had been feathered for mechanical trouble.

The plane lost height and at one time was skimming the waves, with spray rushing in through broken windows.

"This was a terrible experience," he said.

Football Coach Hurt as Bomb Explodes

FLINT (UPI)—Charles Sell, football coach at nearby Mt. Morris High School, was reported in fair condition at Flint Osteopathic Hospital today with burns and other injuries received when an aerial bomb exploded in his face.

The bomb was part of a promotion gimmick the school was using to publicize the opening of its football season last night.

Sell, who is also athletic director at the suburban school, was to set off the first of a series of aerial bombs to be set off every hour on the hour prior to last night's game.

Police said he had set the fuse to the bomb and was just starting to leave when the bomb exploded.

"I don't see how it can be so after Red tanks and troops slaughtered the freedom fighters."

A high school print shop teacher, Ted Carlson, 86 S. Marshal, said:

"I would tell Khrushchev that capitalism and free enterprise will prevail. I do think that he is pretty sincere.

"Khrushchev knows that the Russians need peace more than we do. We boom during war time, We are stronger than they are, and Khrushchev knows it. All their 40 years of communism would go down the drain. I think he is really trying for peace."

twist into the answers received.

"I think Mrs. Khrushchev stays in the background quite a bit," said Mrs. Wethington, "but I'll bet she has a little influence over her husband.

"I would like to ask them what they think of our country and our way of life. I hope the impression we make will do some good."

"I'd ask Khrushchev to come into our store and try our products," said Donna. He would be impressed by our shops and it would show him something.

mitters thoroughly garbled that one for most Soviet receivers, U.S. officials said Friday night.

As one farmer to another, Roswell Garst of Coon Rapids, Iowa, hopes that his guest, Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will get up early next Wednesday morning.

"My best judgment tells me that Mr. Khrushchev will be a farmer for the day—and like a farmer, he may get a pretty early start in the morning," said Garst, whose big agricultural layout in Iowa will be visited by the Soviet leader.

Garst wants to show Khrushchev some farms in the Bagley-Scranton-Bayard area, also to have him see some Charalais cattle on farms operated by the Garst associates, Charles Thomas and Charles Moore. A tour of the Garst farm itself will follow a picnic served in the yard from noon to 1:30 p.m.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev surprised everyone within earshot yesterday by suddenly blurting out an exclamation in English—capitalist English at that. Khrushchev, who until now on his U.S. visit has limited his English to "Okay," was introduced to Henry Morgenthau Jr., secretary of the treasury in President Franklin D. Roosevelt's cabinet.

The Russian visitor smiled and then exclaimed: "Ah, finance'." He then lapsed back into Russian.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev's son, Sergei, has about 100 free butterflies, thanks to a Brooklyn lepidopterist.

Sergei, 24, made a surprise visit Friday to the shop of Aminadov Glanz. The premier's son, an avid butterfly collector, had heard about Glanz' shop during a visit Thursday to the Museum of Natural History.

★ ★ ★

Motor Scooter Spill Hurts Rochester Boy

Delmas Riker, 13, of 391 Shadywood St., Rochester, was treated for cuts and bruises at Avon Medical Center yesterday after a motor scooter on which he was riding tipped over.

John E. Wieczored, 14, of 125 Nawakwa Rd., Avon Township, told Oakland County sheriff's deputies a dog ran into his path causing him to lose control of the scooter.

The accident happened on Nawakwa several blocks from the driver's home.

Nikita's Lieutenants Called U. S. Weak

Heads Will Roll in the Kremlin

Did some of Nikita Khrushchev's buddies goof in the descriptions they gave him of the United States? Press columnist Earl Wilson thinks so and in this special article predicts a dire fate for them.

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Mr. K is going to chop off a few prominent heads after he jets back to the Kremlin.

★ ★ ★

Siberia will be calling for Deputies Mikoyan and Kozlov, and Ambassador-to-the-U. S. Menshikov, in a shakeup that'll be reminiscent of the dractic days of Stalin.

Their offenses were that they allowed Mr. K to believe that America is a weak, torn, divided land that would be a pushover for Soviet Russia.

They were "Da-men" (or "Yes-men") when they should have been "Nyet-men."

It was fine for them to be Yes-men, telling the boss what he wanted to hear (that the U.S. was an easy mark)—until the boss decided to come over and case the place for himself.

SOLD UP CREEK

By the time the boss got to the top of the Empire State Building and gazed down upon a sea of skyscrapers, each of them taller than anything in Moscow, he was convinced that he'd been sold up the creek by his trusted advisers.

That's when the head-rolling on the Kremlin lawn was born.

Vice President Richard Nixon is never going to be saying so for publication, but he is among those who has sized it up this way.

The talk of a wholesale firing of Mr. K's aides when he gets home is rampant among insiders who have learned that Premier Khrushchev was dumbfounded, first, when he beheld the beautifully-kept up homes and offices of Washington, and, second, when he saw in New York the thousands and thousands of luxuriously-built and up-to-the-minute "pleasure cars" driven by the common man—and woman. That "Detroit-touch" made an impression.

"I have it on good authority that he's so mad already that he's going home and clean house completely," declared Congressman William H. Ayres (R.) of Akron, O.

"His advisers have been lying to him—that's the truth of it," said Ayres, a Congressman since 1950 and member of the Veterans, Labor and Education Committees.

"Menshikov won't be Ambassador six months," he predicted.

"Each one has tried to salve his ego by telling him that America wasn't strong. America was in a decline. They've been feeding him what they thought he wanted to hear—and he's smarter than they are . . . he checks up on them."

And the Congressman added, "If he hadn't come here, let's face it, he wouldn't have known the truth about this country, and there'd have been war!"

Khrushchev has added another to his many distinctions: he's "political poison" to many people on the way up.

Instead of scrambling to get into photographs with Mr. K, as is the usual custom with a visiting King or Queen or other VIP, people have been scrambling to get out of photographs with him—lest they be too closely associated with a commodity that is highly unpopular.

Congressman Ayres told of seeing a well-known woman official in Government encountering Khrushchev accidentally in his trip to the Capitol and being tempted to run over and talk with him which she could have done in her position.

"She thought better of it and kept away," Ayres said.

The Congressman added that he will be meeting Mr. K along with other Congressmen next week in Washington.

"He will then have been in the country several days," Ayres said. "I'm going to look him in the eye and say 'Now do you think America is divided?'"

State Tourist Trade 'Terrific' This Summer

LANSING (AP)—Tourist business ranged from "good" to "terrific" in Michigan during the summer, a spot check of industry sources across the state showed today.

★ ★ ★

By the end of the year, the tourist trade should gross about 650 million dollars, a 25 million dollar increase over record 1955. Summer travel, however, was down slightly from 1955, said Robert J. Furlong, executive secretary of the Michigan Tourist Council.

★ ★ ★

A rise in employment, improved business conditions and generally good weather throughout the summer all contributed to a bright picture in the industry, which ranks with agriculture as the state's second biggest.

★ ★ ★

The number of 1959 tourists is expected to hit 10 million for the first time, with about half coming from outside the state. Michigan stands behind New York, California and Florida as the fourth most popular tourist state.

Opening of Seaway Ups Cargo Tonnage

OTTAWA, (AP) — Opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway earlier this year more than doubled the cargo tonnage carried through some sections of the waterway.

The St. Lawrence Seaway Authority reported Friday that in the period April-August, 11,214,000 tons of bulk and general cargo passed through the St. Lawrence section, an increase of 59.5 per cent from the comparable period a year ago.

China Shakeup Means Trouble

Experts Say Purge May Follow on Bigger Scale Over Communes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The convulsive shakeup in the top echelons of the Red Chinese regime may turn into a sweeping purge, State Department experts say.

The department's experts on China say the violent reshuffle on the eve of Communist China's 10th anniversary of power can mean only one thing: Deep trouble over the commune system set up a year ago, a system that tried to organize the Chinese peasantry into semi-military production units.

At least four members of the powerful Communist Central Committee have been thrown out with no announcement that they will be assigned to other jobs.

These are Chang Wen-t'ien and Wang Chia-hsiang, vice ministers of foreign affairs, Marshal Peng Teh-huai, minister of defense, and Gen. Huang Ko-cheng, former army chief of staff.

These names mean nothing to most Americans. But put it in American terms: Suppose the secretary of state's two top deputies, the secretary of defense and a top army adviser all were suddenly fired out of hand by President Eisenhower.

That gives a rough equivalent to the upheaval that is going on in Mao Tse-tung's China.

On top of that, a long list of Second and third rank Chinese officials also are getting the gate.

Prudential Says Dispute With Employes Settled

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — The Prudential Insurance Co. Friday announced the settlement of a three-month contract dispute with its sales employes.

Members of the Insurance Workers International Union (AFL-CIO), representing 17,200 Prudential district agents in 34 states, voted to accept the two-year contract offered by the company.

★ ★ ★

The new contract provides for increased vacation and allowable absence benefits and revises the commissions formula slightly. The company said agents earn an average of $141.79 a week.

Cool Reception for Nikita Warms Mrs. McCarthy

NEW YORK (UPI)—The widow of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy told a cheering crowd of nearly 2,500 at an anti-Khrushchev rally that it "warmed my heart" to see the cool reception given the Soviet Premier in New York and Washington.

Mrs. Jean Kerr McCarthy was one of seven speakers at a rally in New York's Carnegie Hall protesting the invitation and visit to the United States of Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev.

The rally was called in protest of the Russian leader's visit, but the speakers spent a good part of the two hours and 40 minutes criticizing President Eisenhower and the government for inviting him.

Fire Damages Yacht

HALIFAX, N.S. (AP)—Fire below decks severely damaged the Royal Canadian Sailing Assn. yacht, Pickel Friday. Cause of the blaze has not been determined. The Pickle used as a sail training ship, was obtained by Canada from Germany as a war prize after World War II.

These Precautions May Help You Avoid Fakers!

1. Deal only with firms whose dependability can be established by intelligent inquiry.
2. Be sure the salesman represents the company he claims to represent.
3. Don't sign papers before you understand the terms and conditions of the sale.
4. Before you sign, be sure that the name and address of the firm is printed on the contract.
5. If promises are made verbally, be sure that they are presented in substance in the contract.
6. Retain a copy of the contract.
7. When you are satisfied that the job is completed, only then should you sign a completion certificate.
8. Pay your bill by check or money order made out to firm. Don't pay cash to a salesman unless you get a bonafide receipt bearing the name of the company he represents.
9. Compare price quotations with those of other firms.
10. Beware of inferences that because a loan is insured by a Government agency the agency guarantees material and workmanship.

Small Cars Change Little

Obsolescence Theory to Be Tested

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Automotive Writer

DETROIT (AP) — One of the chief jobs of Detroit auto stylists has been to try to make you dissatisfied with last year's car. The new compact models by Ford, Chevrolet and Chrysler may change this.

"New" is probably the most overworked word in the automobile industry. Every year everything has had to be "all new." Maybe you couldn't see much difference but advertising has been pitched to persuade you that such is the case.

Changes have been made for change's sake — to deliberately brand your car as old or outdated if it isn't a current year's model.

This is planned obsolescence.

Many industry executives and some independent observers feel such an operation is necessary to keep the auto business booming. And since one of every seven employed persons in the United is directly allied with the auto business, a healthy auto economy is important to the country.

One executive asked recently: "How could you expect to sell six million or more cars every year if you didn't make these styling changes?"

Indications are that the compact cars may provide a good test for this theory.

American Motors, which has been in the compact car business longer than any U.S. manufacturer, has been booming right along with a minimum of styling changes. In particular the Rambler American has undergone few noticeable exterior changes since it was first introduced by Nash years ago.

"We promised our customers a continuity of design that would not outmode their purchases or cause rapid depreciation," says SP president Harold Churchill. "This mad race to make changes every year is ridiculous."

SMALL SEGMENT

Studebaker and American are a relatively small segment of the industry and there would be no special reason for the Big Three builders to follow their pattern.

★ ★ ★

But the Big Three have come up with compact cars this fall and now they, too, are talking about "continuity of design."

James Wright, general manager of Ford division, said Ford expects to make fewer annual changes in its new Falcon than in the coventional-sized cars.

SEEKS CONTINUITY

Ed Cole, Chevrolet general manager, says it may prove possible to continue the styling lines of the new little Covair longer than has been Chevrolet's practice in the past.

George Romney, president of American Motors, said the statements by Wright and Cole show "the Big Three have repented of their philosophy of making only bigger, hungrier and annually more drastically changed cars for the American people. Undoubtedly this is good for all car buyers and must make industry pioneers happy."

Churchill says he believes the Big Three will learn that changes do not have to be made so frequently.

"I honestly think the styling cycle will be stretched out in all lines," he declared.

The standard design pattern is best illustrated by Volkswagen, biggest seller in the growing import market. The Volkswagen has undergone only infinitesimal changes since it was first built in the '30s.

★ ★ ★

Foreign cars never have followed the American practice of annual styling changes. It was five years after World War II before the English Ford brought out new models. And one Fiat official in Milan said he believed Fiat owners would rise up in arms if his company introduced marked changes in design.

American manufacturers can't expect to get the answers on planned obsolescence vs. standard design this year, or probably even next year.

The coming year could find many buyers turned to the new compact styles for the novelty appeal, especially in the case of the rearengined Covair.

The true tests probably will come in the used car resale and trade-in values of the 1960 compacts and in whether their share of the overall market continues to expand.

Seaway Narrow and Too Shallow, Japanese Claim

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A delegation of Japanese port officials said Friday the St. Lawrence Seaway should have been dug deeper than 27 feet and its locks built wider than 80 feet.

As it is, said Hisashi Azuma of Kobe, only about 20 per cent of Japan's merchant fleet can get through the Seaway. He declined to suggest just how deep the Seaway should be, saying that was a matter for the U.S. and Canadian Governments.

Azuma said Japanese shipping lines are studying "very hard" the possibilities of using the Seaway to come into the Great Lakes. He predicted that some Japanese cargo now entering this country through New York will shift to Great Lakes ports.

Red China Expects Bolshoi Ballet Tour

TOKYO (UPI) — The Communist New China News Agency today reported that the famed Bolshoi ballet will begin a tour of Communist China with a performance in Peiping on Sept. 29.

The agency said prima ballerina Galina Ulanova will head the troupe which will make the tour in connection with the 10th anniversary of the founding of Communist China.

Report 120 Killed in Korean Typhoon

SEOUL, Korea (UPI — National police reported today that at least 120 persons were killed early yesterday when Typhoon Sarah tore across the southern part of the Republic of Korea.

The official toll stood at 120 dead, 322 injured, and 192 missing. A total of 54,000 persons were reported homeless and 40,000 houses destroyed or damaged.

Police feared the casualty figures would be even higher once the communications network is put back in full operation. The raging storm knocked out much of the system and casualty reports have been fragmentary.

Comic Bob Hope Has Partial Loss of Vision

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Comic Bob Hope has suffered partial loss of vision in his left eye because of overwork.

But it hasn't affected him. As he puts it: "It's not bothering my golf and I had a 73 last week."

Hope says his doctor tells him that ultimately nature will balance the vision. Hope suffered a blood clot behind the eye last Christmas, when he made a 16,000-mile tour of U.S. military bases in Europe and Africa.

13 New Polio Cases Reported

State Total Reaches 70, Compared With 293 in Like Period Last Year

LANSING (AP)—Thirteen cases of paralytic polio were reported to the state health department during the week ending Friday, the most for any week this year.

New cases brought the total since Jan. 1 to 70, compared with 293 in the like period last year.

Six paralytic cases were reported in Wayne County in the last week. Ingham and Macomb Counties reported two each and Oakland, St. Clair and Tuscola counties one each.

Nationwide, paralytic polio cases decreased again last week, for the second successive week.

The 273 paralytic cases reported by the states for last week compared with 291 listed in the week ended Sept. 5. The year's peak thus far was reached at 334 cases in the week ended Aug. 29.

States that had been reporting relatively large numbers of cases but had sizable decreases last week were Massachusetts, Connecticut, Ohio, Missouri, North Carolina, Alabama, Washington, Oregon and Texas. Texas, which had a total of 240 paralytic cases in the preceding 35 weeks, listed none last week but had nine non-paralytic polio cases.

Through last Saturday, 3,084 paralytic cases had been reported. This compared with 1,397 at the same time in 1958.

There were 508 cases of polio of all types reported last week, down from the 536 in the preceding week and 534 in the week ended Aug. 29.

Ike to Mix Golf, Study of K. Plan

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—President Eisenhower arranged today for a mixture of golf and work on world and domestic issues.

The President, spending the weekend at his farm, had plans fo another morning round of golf at the Gettysburg Country Club course.

On the work side afterward, Eisenhower booked further study of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's proposal for total disarmament—abolition during the next four years of all things military.

The President also intends to complete work on a statement evaluating the first session record of the 86th Congress, controlled by the Democrats. The statement probably will be made public over the weekend.

Staebler Warns Dems They Must Plan, Coordinate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats must improve their coordination in the 1960 campaign if they expect to recapture the presidency, Neil Staebler of Michigan told party state chairmen and vice chairmen yesterday.

The group is holding three days of closed sessions. Staebler, Michigan state chairman and head of an advisory committee on political organization to the national committee, talked with reporters after a workshop meeting.

"Politics has moved from the dispersed kind of operation to a new type of presidential campaigning where there is a high degree of planning and coordination," Staebler said.

Algerian Rebels Hit French Near Tunisia

ALGIERS (AP) — Algerian rebels based in Tunisia attacked French positions on the Tunisia-Algerian frontier today and attempted to cross into Algeria at two points, the French army said.

Rebel commandos sabotaged an electrified and mined barrier built across eastern Algeria while automatic weapons fired on French troops in the Munier region, the Army said.

Rebel units, whose strength was not determined by the French, attempted to cross into Algeria south and north of Lamy but were thrown back.

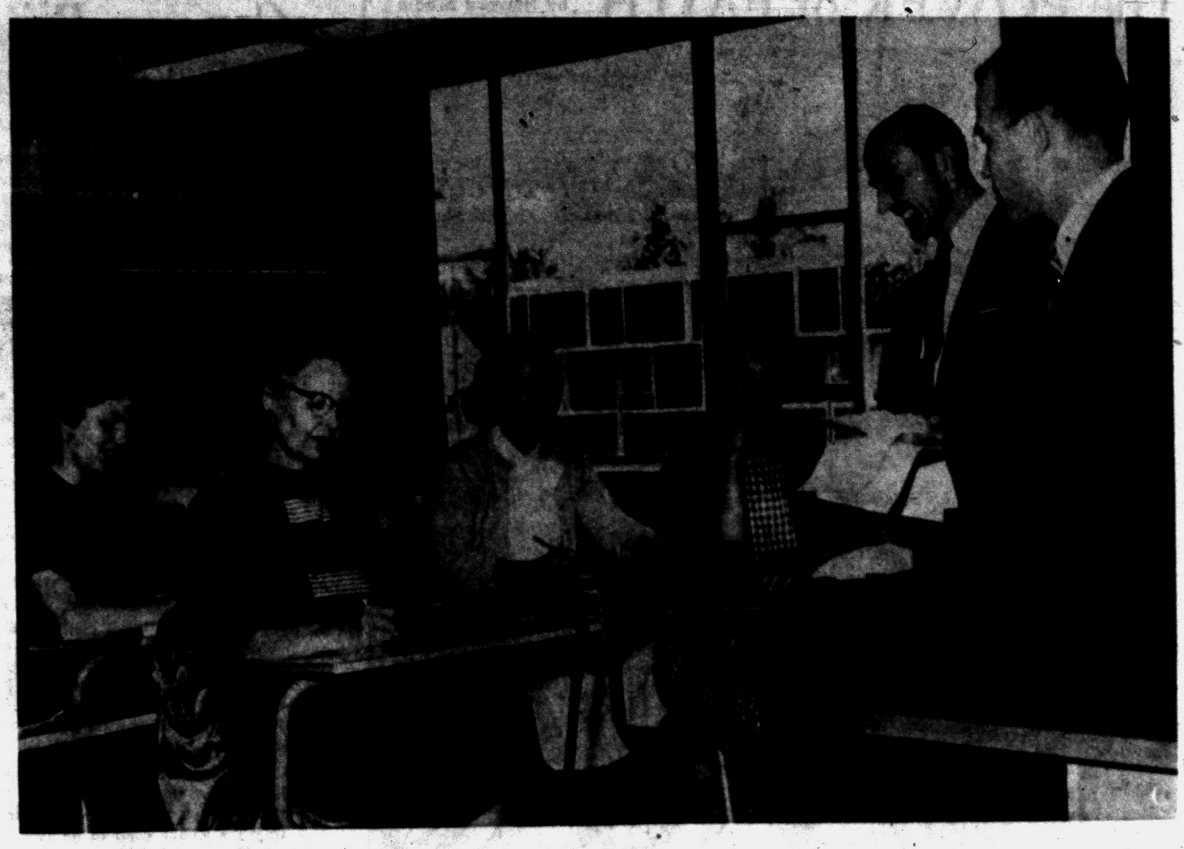

Claim He Frightened Woman to Death in Theft

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — A 17-year-old Negro youth was indicted Friday on charges of frightening a woman to death.

James Martin was accused of obtaining entrance to the home of Mary Dixon by asking for a drink of water, then pulling a knife in an attempt to rob her.

On seeing the knife, police said, the 86-year-old Negro woman suffered a heart attack and died later in a hospital.

18-Year-Old Debutante, Lord, 54, Are in Love

LONDON (AP) — Lord Beatty, who is 54, today denied he was engaged to an 18-year-old debutante — but admitted he was thinking about it.

Back from a Mediterranean cruise on Lord Beatty's yacht, Sea Huntress, they both talked to reporters.

Lord Beatty is the son of Britain's admiral of the fleet in World War I.

He has had three wives, all Americans. Each of his previous marriages ended in divorce.

Has Long Way to Go

KNARESBOROUGH, England (UPI)—Terry Gargon, 14, ran away from home, leaving this note to his parents: "Don't call police. I'll be the first man on the moon." Police found Gargon about 45 miles from home, 238,857 miles short of his destination.

3,400 Freshmen Due at MSU Campus Soon

EAST LANSING (UPI)—An estimated 3,400 freshmen, an 11 per cent increase over last year's class are expected to enroll at Michigan State University this fall, Dean Gordon A. Sabine, director of the office of admissions and scholarships said Friday.

The new students will begin checking in on campus Sunday. President John A. Hannah will address the parents of new students at a convocation Sunday afternoon.

It Seems to Me . . . .

Nikita's Talk on Disarmament Leaves Much to Be Desired

It was a masterful stroke for Russia.

KHRUSHCHEV'S announcement on disarmament is just about the smartest psychological move of the current decade. Standing against the greatest backdrop of his entire career — he poured it on.

★ ★ ★

On the surface, this is one of the most magnificent declarations in all history. And yet, just what is it worth? Who believes it all? Who believes some? Who believes none at all?

★ ★ ★

Every important nation on the globe is highly suspicious. The greatest international butchers and the greatest international liars of all time are sponsoring a heaven-sent program that could really be the epitome of all global relations — if it's on the up-and-up.

The idea is so intriguing that no one can write it off without profound contemplation and study. If it only be true in part, it's a thrilling thought.

Total disarmament!

World peace!

What greater gift could man wish — now or ever? And the proposal comes from the most disturbing and the most war-like administration on the globe.

To ignore this idea would constitute one of the greatest travesties in all history if the Russians are sincere — or partly sincere. On the other hand, falling for KHRUSHCHEV'S blandishments and disarming the world while he secretly added to his own arsenal could result in world imprisonment and absolute world enslavery.

The negative results can be about as totally disasterous for the worse as the positive can for the better. Hence, this is a momentous occasion. No nation will seize the thing lightly and make a precipitate move.

Everyone wants to study the offer and consider the possibilities of just how Russia could cheat the whole wide world and emerge on top alone. Russians have said that any means justify the end when the glory of Russia is concerned.

★ ★ ★

Authorities say the world is spending one hundred billion dollars a year in the arms struggle. Suppose half of this were turned to education or to better homes for the marginal people — or just plain rebated in taxes.

★ ★ ★

Krushchev himself declared that one modern bomb has greater killing potential than ALL THE BOMBS EXPLODED IN ALL THE WARS IN HISTORY. This is too terrible to picture. The mind can't grasp it in all its enormity.

★ ★ ★

Some of our most astute global figures heard the Russian thought, waved a deprecatory hand and said: "Nuts."

They disbelieve completely.

★ ★ ★

But there are two sides. Even though the Russians aren't completely honest, if they're partly so, the idea deserves complete investigation. The matter will be studied carefully, and searching and penetrating questions will be asked.

★ ★ ★

In the meantime, old man K. can sit back and hide a smile. He has tossed the world into a tizzy.

And in Conclusion . . . .

An AP photo of Mrs. EISENHOWER watching the President's plane take off for Europe with her husband and only son aboard, received national acclaim and has been nominated for a 1959 award . . . . . Overheard in the City Club: "A fool and his money—receive many invitations" . . . . . Bumped into HARRY WISMER in the New York Athletic Club last week and my guess is that he'll be tied in with the new football or baseball league . . . . . DEBBIE REYNOLDS just sent two autographed photographs (by request) to Vice President NIXON'S daughters . . . . . The whole West Coast is ga-ga over the San Francisco and Los Angeles baseball teams.

★ ★ ★

Personal note to Hayes Jones: Lee Calhoun, your greatest rival in the high hurdles, was just whipped in Europe by this German, Lauer. Maybe you better worry a little about HIM as well as Calhoun . . . . . Purely personal nomination for an especially delightful new arrival: Sister Xavier, of St. Joe's, who called on me last week. And another especially good looking new resident is Margaret Hoopes (MSUO), who hasn't called on me—but should. . . . . Sign in front of the Wilmington Manor volunteer fire department: "You slow down. WE'LL go to the fire." . . . . . Out of 100,000 men, ten will live to 96; and 17 women will make it.

Lady to little guest: "Can you cut your meat yourself?" L.g. "Sure. We often have it this tough at home." . . . . . New York will see a new skyscraper for the first time in 25 years. Chase Manhattan Bank is building 60 stories—887 feet . . . . . TONY ROMEO, Florida State's great end, teaches a Sunday school class at the Baptist Church . . . . . In my occasional flitting about, I find Pan American very reliable on schedules while their service is ne plus ultra. And their hostesses are especially good to look upon . . . . . Senator JAVITS (N.Y.) proposes a special tax to finance the fight against the city's teenage criminals. The cheapest deterrents would be a dozen old fashioned horsewhips.

Dept. of Cheers and Jeers: the C's — NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV; the J's — NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV.

—HAROLD A. FITZGERALD

"A GEORGIA judge rules a man has the legal right to protect his home, even if it be against the jealous husband of a woman who is the lone guest in his home."—News item. It's a right that only a foolhardy man would attempt to exercise.

"MIKOYAN reported to KHRUSHCHEV that the common people of the U.S. want peace." — Radio commentator. It must have greatly surprised KHRUSHCHEV to learn that we prefer living to being blasted to bits by missiles and H-bombs.

IT IS rather strange that some politicians evidently assume that the best way to arrive at the White House is to begin the trip via Moscow.

"THE U. S. should export brainpower to help people in under-developed areas of the world," says a congressman. Maybe so, but we should go exceedingly slow in exporting one of our scarcest commodities.

MANY Louisianians must be getting rather tired of the shortcomings and Long-goings of their governor.

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

On weekdays Frank Swaim captains an airliner. On Sundays he preaches from the pulpit of the Church of Christ in Denver where he is an ordained minister. In his spare time, he and his wife, at his expense, offer a non-sectarian Bible correspondence course, teaching 208 students, 8 to 87 years of age across the country. Forty-two of them are convicts in the Colorado State Penitentiary, one, a former murderer, who became a Christian.

"I'm just an ordinary married man with a wonderful wife and two boys, and a keen desire to encourage the study of God's word," Frank told me recently. "I feel that many of our social problems could be eliminated or at least minimized if all men knew more of the Bible."

Born to a poor, railroad worker in a remote Wyoming village and on his own from the age of 12, he credits faith for his full life: "Faith has strengthened me in many situations . . . it has helped me to assume responsibilities and make decisions that would otherwise have been impossible and it has helped me do things for other people that I could not have done physically or financially."

Jesus Selected a Social Outcast

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

Not much is known about the apostle St. Matthew, so there isn't much to tell about him; but every two or three years we call attention to St. Matthew's Day (Monday), just because an apostle is too important to be ignored.

Everyone who has read the New Testament knows that when the Lord called Matthew to be one of His holy inner circle He showed both insight and complete disregard of public opinion for Matthew belonged to that outcast species known as publicans, from whom no ordinary person would expect any good.

Frequently nowadays one hears the word publican used, or misused, to mean saloonkeeper, probably because saloons are known in some places as pubs, but this is entirely wrong.

A publican was a tax collector, and there was nobody more unpopular. No Jew would marry into a family that had a publican in it. They were barred from public worship. In short, they were generally shunned.

Yet Jesus found this rejected man, sized him up for his true worth as only Jesus could and made a saint of him. Not only that, Jesus went home with him to dinner, which greatly scandalized the Pharisees and other good people of the community, for obviously all the other guests must have been publicans, too, or worse.

Matthew couldn't have invited any other sort of people—he would not have known any. (See Matthew, chapter 9, verses 10 to 13.) This was really a shocker, something like hearing that your minister had attended a bookmakers' picnic.

The publican's name was Levi. It was not until after his call that he took, or was given, the name Matthew, which means "gift of Jehovah."

One thing we thought we knew about Matthew was that he wrote the Gospel. This was the Gospel according to Matthew. It has always been said that he put together this brief history of the Lord's life and teachings at the request of Jewish converts, who wanted this kind of record in their own Aramaic language. Now the scholars tell us Matthew probably did not write the Gospel as we have it in the New Testament, but rather simply arranged a set of "saying," which perhaps became the basis for the Gospel.

Dr. Brady's Mail Bag:

I'll Send You a Booklet on Almost Anything

For years I have been miserable with hay fever from early spring, when the oaks and poplars bloomed until after frost in the fall. But I supplemented my diet all winter with calcium and vitamin D and have spent a comfortable season so far. (Mrs. C.J.K.)

Answer — Pamphlet on Hay Fever available on request if you provide stamped, self addressed envelope.

DR. BRADY

The doctor said it would require $15 shots every day and $10 pills and maybe then he could not cure him. The trouble, the doctor said, is a bad case of eczema. Do you have a pamphlet on eczema? (Mrs. S. C.)

Answer—Yes. For a copy send envelope.

Twenty years ago I asked you what would rid our premises of roaches. You advised sprinkling a white powder around corners and crevices where they may run. We did this and in jig time we were rid of the roaches. Now again we would like to have the recipe. (Mrs. G. P.)

Answer—Send me 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope for Unbidden Guests. I have become timid about trying to print recipes or formulas.

Son, 17, embarrassed when all of a sudden his lip swells to three times its size when he is out . . . (C. M.)

Answer—Hives. Perhaps a side effect of some medicament he takes or uses or handles, or perhaps he is allergic to orris root or other toilet or cosmetic chemical. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for pamphlet Relief For Allegy.

Electric blankets are lightweight cover and comfortable in cold weather, but do they stimulate circulation or do they cause excessive drying of the skin? (Mrs. W. M.)

Answer—If you find the use of an electric blanket gives comfort, use it. Comfort and health are compatible.

What do you think of the practice of fasting? I mean taking no food at all, only water, and maybe a few liquids? (H.J.S.)

Answer—I think it is unwise, unless under your physician's supervision. It might do many overfed, underworked persons a lot of good to take a walk instead of a midday meal.

HUH?

You have me confused . . . One day I read your column and think you must be a crackpot. The next day your article on "Rheumatiz" convinces me . . .(M. B.)

Answer—It would be more helpful if you would specify which article made you think I'm a crackpot, and send along a clipping of the article so I may know whether what I wrote was printed. For the pamphlet Calcium and Rheumatiz, send stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Offers Praise for Sports Writers

Al Warden is really the Dean of Sports Writers in the Rocky Mountain area. And he bubbles over with fascinating "behind the scenes" tales of sports champions, like the one about Jack Dempsey. Al Warden symbolizes all our fine sports writers and coaches, who rank side by side with YMCA and CYO leaders in combating delinquency. See below.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

★ ★ ★

He can keep you wide awake all night with his fascinating tales of "behind the scenes" episodes in the lives of sports greats.

DR. CRANE

But before I tell it, let me remind you listeners that sports serve as one of the greatest preventives of juvenile delinquency. For when teenagers learn to indulge in the teamwork required by athletics, and to undergo the rigorous training to make the varsity, they seldom become lawbreakers thereafter.

Juvenile delinquents are usually lone wolves or show-off grandstanders. They are definitely not team players! So they are not ex-athletes or ex-newspaper carriers.

Thus sports writers, plus the thousands of high school and college coaches, rate side by side with YMCA, CYO, Boy Scout and Camp Fire Girl leaders, in stabilizing youth and combating delinquency.

Now for Al's story about Jack Dempsey. He and Jack were once visiting Jack's mother on the latter's farm. Mrs. Dempsey was a wiry little lady, weighing not much over 90 lbs

She had been out in the barn milking cows and came in with two pails full of foaming milk.

"Jack" she said to her famous son, "will you please go out and milk that last cow.

★ ★ ★

"She's the one at the far end of the stalls. You better fasten that rope to her right hind foot, for she kicks a little. But after you hobble her with the rope, she will be as good as pie."

JACK'S LOSING BATTLE

Jack gladly assented and picked up the empty milk pail. It was warm weather so he doffed his shirt and headed for the barn.

Al Warden stayed in the house to visit with Mrs. Dempsey. After half an hour had passed, and Jack still hadn't returned, his mother suggested that Al go out and see what was keeping Jack.

But just as Al opened the door, in strode Jack Dempsey, sweaty, streaked with dirt and limping badly on his left leg.

"Mother," he greeted them, "that ornery old cow has kicked me till I can hardly walk.

So Al Warden agreed to go out and help Jack hobble the cow, but before he did so, he helped massage Jack's sore leg.

As they both drew deep breaths and finally started out the kitchen door, in walked Jack's mother with a pail almost full of fresh milk.

"Relax," she said. "I went out and milked her myself. I might just as well have done it in the first place."

Al Warden laughed when he told me about the ludicrous nature of the situation. Here was a big, 200-pound world boxing champ who was beaten by his 90-pound little mother, at hobbling a jittery cow.

Next week I'll give you another dandy story about Jack Dempsey and his mother, which Al told me when he and his charming wife, Melba, entertained me recently on my visit to Ogden for the Weber College Lecture Series.

Meanwhile, please offer a long overdue compliment to your loyal sports writers and coaches for their faithful efforts in combatting delinquency.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People

Concern With Ex-Convicts but No Solution Offered

This is to all those persons who are so concerned about convicts and mental patients being put into circulation again. What do they suggest we do with them? Keep them locked up? Are they willing to pay the extra taxes which would be necessary to build more prisons, hire more staff, etc. It costs about $10,000 per cell for a prison like Jackson.

The public becomes aware of the problem just because one ex-convict commits a vicious crime, but are they willing to provide an adequate social climate for ex-convicts and mental patients?

No! Employers will not hire them and the general public still refers to a person with a mental illness as a "nut." You should examine the conditions which spawn these criminals then ask yourself how much do we really help these individuals who are released from prison. In most cases, they continue paying in ways which are worse than actual imprisonment. I wonder how all of these indignant citizens would feel if one of their own made a mistake?

'Treat Mr. K Well to Help Avoid War'

In 1939, there were seven great powers. Today there are only two, Russia and the United States. Germany, Italy and Japan lost in World War II, England and France are not the great powers they were before the war.

So since Mr. K and his group have been invited over here, I think we should treat them the way we would wish to be treated. It is much better to try to get along with them than to try and force them to live under our rule. Let them live like they wish and we can tend to our own business and avoid a war.

Let's be friendly instead of trying to destroy them. There is room in this world for two great powers so let us try and get along with all of our neighbors so they will be friends and live in peace. Otherwise we will all perish together as there are enough bombs and powers to destroy the whole universe.

'Waterford Needs a Better Library'

In Sept. 11's paper, there were two citizens who wrote that our schools have libraries in them so why should we build a library in Waterford Township. I would like to tell them why.

An example is that Waterford Township High School has some 1600 students. When they have reports to do it generally requires outside work. The only place much of this work can be done is in a larger library.

Believe me, you have no idea until you try using these libraries yourself, how hard it is (practically impossible) to complete a report in our inadequate school libraries.

Waterford High School Student

I voted for Waterford Library project the first time, and I'll vote for it again in October. I'll be happy to pay the price of a small rolled rump roast every year for the chance to have a modern library and cultural center in our community.

The Library committee members are parents just like you and me, but have worked hard and given much time for this project. This is a situation where opportunity knocks just one more time.

We don't have to pay for the land. There comes a time in every community when it can move forward or keep its ordinary mediocre status.

For parents that complain that their children can't or don't like to read, gazing slack jawed at the villain being headed off the pass is their idea of mental stimulation. Using a library can be contagious. "Boy a library would be neat!" is how the children feel.

Everywhere you read that it's the apathy and indifference of citizens that makes a community what it is. Waterford is new and growing, let's get off to a good start.

Waterford Mother

Students Want New Library

To the lady who opposed the new library in Waterford in Friday's paper: It is true we have libraries in schools, but we also have 1,720 students in Waterford High School. For book reports and in numerous other subjects we must get our information from the library.

You have no idea, until you have tried it yourself, what a problem it is (practically impossible) for so many students to get all the required information for their reports in our inadequate school libraries, and the results? Lower marks.

Therefore I and a lot of other students believe that we should have a library in Waterford township.

A student from Waterford High School.

'Senator Kennedy Committed Suicide'

It sure looks like Senator Kennedy messed up his chances with the recent labor bill. How can he expect our support when he lets a bill pass that curbs labor but does nothing to management? Maybe he just has too much money himself so as not to appreciate how a worker feels. We want Soapy for President and he'll take care of us.

Shop Worker

Expresses Thanks for New Benches

I want to voice my appreciation to the Merchants Assn. of Pontiac for being so thoughtful in placing benches on the streets for shoppers to sit and rest on. Especially good are the ones in front of the courthouse when one has just missed a bus and has to wait for the next one.

It certainly is a relief to have a place to rest after shopping and I hope they will be there for a long time and I hope they will not be misused. Thanks again.

Ask Van Cliburn to Reception for Khrushchev

NEW YORK (AP) — Van Cliburn, who became internationally famous at a Moscow piano concert, will attend a Soviet Embassy reception in Washington for Premier Nikita Khrushchev next Thursday.

★ ★ ★

A spokesman for the young Kilgore, Tex., pianist said the invitation, which did not specify attire, was received at his office last Monday. It was telephoned to Cliburn in Kilgore and he accepted.

★ ★ ★

The reception at the embassy will run from 6:30 to 8 p.m. There was no suggestion on the invitation that Cliburn would be asked to exhibit any of his technique which won him the Tschaikovsky international piano festival in Moscow last April.

Cliburn leaves New York by air four days after the reception to give a private recital for the royal family of Belgium and perform at a heart benefit in Brussels Oct. 5.

North Dakota Immigrants to Picnic Near Rochester

ROCHESTER—The committee in charge of the North Dakota Picnic has set 1 p.m. Sunday as the time for the annual event to be held at Avalon Park Pavilion here.

The picnic is staged yearly for those who have moved into the Rochester area from North Dakota to make new friends from their home state and to renew old acquaintances.

Those attending are asked to bring their own table service to the dinner which will be potluck. Coffee cream, milk and ice cream will be furnished.

State Frees Millions for School Districts

LANSING (UPI)—A record high 1959-60 school aid measure was signed into law Friday, immediately freeing about 30 million dollars to Michigan's financially tender school districts.

★ ★ ★

The bill, fresh from the printers, was signed by Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson in the absence of Gov. G. Mennen Williams who was in Washington for a Democratic meeting.

The law provided about $325,950,000 for schools, more than $30,000,000 more than last year's assistance level, primarily because of an increased state aid formula.

Doesn't Want to Guard Nikita in Des Moines

Mihalovich, born in Yugoslavia, said he requested that he not be assigned the guard detail because some of his friends from Slavic nations "just wouldn't understand" if he were to do so.

Tony twice has been cited by the community for his friendliness.

Replica of Liberty Bell, in Pearls, Gems, on Tour

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A replica of the American Liberty Bell—made of 11,759 pearls and 636 diamonds—started a 10-month tour of this country Friday.

★ ★ ★

It was unveiled here in connection with the opening today of the Pacific Festival. The bell, one third the size of the original, was built and is owned by the Mikimoto Pearl Co. of Japan.

It will be displayed in New York and other American cities.

U. S. Firms Set Profit Record

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — U.S. corporations piled up record profits ands sales in the second quarter of 1959.

The government reported profits per sales dollar rose to 5.5 cents, a three-year high. The first-quarter rate was 4.7 cents.

Profits after taxes totaled $4,900,000,000, an increase of $1,100,000,000 from the first quarter and of $2,100,000,000 from the rather low level a year earlier. The previous record for profits was $4,300,000,000 posted in the fourth quarter of 1956.

A joint report by the Securities & Exchange Commission and Federal Trade Commission also said that corporate sales rose to $88,400,000,000, also a new high, and a gain of $7,700,000,000 over the first quarter of the year.

Pontiac Symphony to Present Varied Program

EMMA ENDRES-KOUNTZ

CELIA MERRILL TURNER

JOHN DALLEY

An unusually varied program of five evening concerts will be presented by the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra during the 1959-60 season. The high caliber of the guest artists who will perform with the Pontiac orchestra attests to the growing musical reputation this community organization enjoys.

Francesco DiBlasi, who has guided the orchestra for six seasons, will again conduct and will be aided by the associate conductor, Celia Merrill Turner. They will bring to Oakland County the fine music this community has learned to expect. All concerts will be held in the spacious Pontiac Northern High School auditorium which proved a worthy setting last spring, both acoustically and artistically.

★ ★ ★

Opening night, Oct. 13, the complete second act of the opera "Tosca" will be presented with outstanding soloists from the Michigan Opera Company. Maria Roumell, as Tosca, Jonathan Swift as Cavaradossi and Nicholas Billardello as Baron Scarpia, will repeat their recent performance at the Ford Auditorium in Detroit which was acclaimed by the critics. The full orchestra, an off-stage chorus, the costumed cast and authentic stage settings promise a memorable evening.

SLATE PIANIST

On Dec. 1, one of America's finest pianists, Emma Endres-Kountz, will perform Rachmaninoff's Concerto No. 2 with the orchestra.

On Jan. 26, an interesting all orchestral program is planned with the well known Celia Merrill Turner sharing the conducting honors with Francesco Di Blasi. Members of the Pontiac High School Band have been invited to participate in a portion of this program.

On March 8, Phillip Steinhaus will play Handel's concerto for organ, opus No. 4. Mr. Steinhaus, who is organist at All Saints Episcopal Church in Pontiac, is a recording artist for Boston Records and has attained wide popularity as a concert organist.

★ ★ ★

On April 19, John Dalley, a violinist who has appeared with many leading orchestras in this country, will be the guest soloist. He is presently on the faculty of the Oberlin Conservatory.

AMATEUR ALSO

Pontiac area residents are becoming increasingly aware of their good fortune in being able to enjoy fine music in their own community. The orchestra also provides a unique opportunity for talented amateur musicians in this locality to share with professionals in producing music of high artistic merit.

The group of people who make this cultural venture possible welcome those who are interested to join them as members of the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra, Inc.

Requests for active or patron memberships should be directed to Mrs. Aleck Capsalis, Mrs. Charles Uligian or Richard Poole.

Season tickets, single tickets and student tickets are also available.

The well-lighted parking lot at Pontiac Northern High School provides ample parking space. Curtain time for all concerts is 8:30 p.m.

Take His Gun Away

Misguided Motherly Love Raising Problem for Society

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My son is 15. My neighbors have complained that he and his pals have been shooting at robins' nests with their BB guns. Abby, I had nothing to do with my son's buying a BB gun. He bought it with money saved from his allowance, so I can't take the fun away from him.

ABBY

The neighbors say that my son killed a few baby robins. But what are a few baby robins compared with a son's love for his mother? I don't want to risk losing my son's love by doing anything that might turn him against me. And I don't want the boy's father to hear of this because he has a terrible temper. What can I do? MOM

DEAR MOM: A boy who uses a BB gun to kill robins should have his gun confiscated, no matter who paid for it. If he saved his money and bought marijuana, would you let him smoke it because he bought it with his own allowance?

Your definition of "love" baffles me. A mother who truly loves her son does not withhold punishment when he needs it. Better to let his ill-tempered father deal with him now than to cry useless tears later. You are raising a problem for society.

DEAR ABBY: Four years ago, when I married Jim (not his real name), his sister, Mary, (not her real name) let me know that I was not welcome in their family. (My "crime" was being older than Jim.) Mary is the bossy sister and she runs his whole family.

I was excluded from all family gatherings. I felt bad, but I never made an issue of it.

Now, Mary's daughter (whom I haven't seen in four years) is being married. Mary telephoned me that "Aunties" were expected to give showers, and when am I going to give mine?

I don't care to give this bride a shower because I feel that I am being used. My husband says I should give one anyway. What do you say?

BETTY (not my real name)

DEAR BETTY: I say, if you give a shower, you are the biggest drip of all.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: A few days ago I found a piece of paper with a girl's name and phone number on it in my husband's wallet. When I questioned him about it, he said he got it from a bartender, but he hasn't called the girl and doesn't intend to. He says I should forget it. Is it possible to trust him after this? Should I believe him and forget it? I don't want anything to happen to our marriage.

MOTHER OF TWO

DEAR MOTHER: Since your husband told you frankly how he came by the name and number I think you can believe him and forget it. If he (1) didn't know how it got into his wallet, (2) claimed he was getting it for a friend, (3) said he'd been carrying it for years and forgot to throw it away . . . then, you'd have had something to worry about.

CONFIDENTIAL TO B: If your arm has gone bad, tell her. She'll probably confess that she couldn't catch fastball pitching any more either.

★ ★ ★

What's your problem? For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Mother's Feelings Come First

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: My mother and father will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary next month. My sister and I have made plans for a reception at one of the hotels. My mother's sister died three weeks ago and she thinks it would be improper to give the party now as people would think us heartless.

"I don't want to seem uncaring, but a golden wedding anniversary is such a rare occasion and we don't want to see it go by without some sort of celebration, if possible. Under the circumstances, would it be permissible to go ahead with the party as planned?"

Answer: Your mother's feelings come first and as she thinks as she does, you should not go ahead with the reception. I would suggest that you explain the situation to those you were planning to invite and ask them if they would send cards to your parents on the day of their anniversary. Later on you could give a belated party for them in their golden anniversary year.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Isn't it completely old-fashioned and uncalled for in the present day, for a young man to make a special point of asking a girl's parents if he may marry her? They know of the young people's serious intentions and have never shown any disapproval. Just the same they feel that the young man should pay them this respect."

Answer: While it is old-fashioned and unnecessary in the present day to ask permission to marry, it is nevertheless courteous for the young man after having been accepted by the girl to explain their plans to her father and ask for his approval.

Now's the Time

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Today let me give you a few hints which will help you get yourself and your wardrobe in order for early fall weather. If you haven't already done so, get your clothes out of storage or mothballs, unless you live in a very hot climate.

Many of us put our fall and winter things away hurriedly at the first flutter of a moth. Now these garments may need some special attention. What about hemlines? They are even shorter than they were a year ago.

Do any of your clothes need mending or repairing of any sort?

Look your wardrobe over carefully to see what is needed. Is there some fundamental costume or item missing? Do you need new accessories for any of the clothes you have? These can make a last year's costume seem and look new or new clothing look old, depending on the condition of the accessories.

Correlate your accessories and your outfits so that you can use the same bag and shoes and ornaments with several costumes. In this way you can spend more for your suits and dresses. Many women who dress very smartly have to take care because of the budget.

Two and three piece garments are most versatile. You can use the skirt with different tops and vice versa.

Don't forget to look over your gloves carefully. Do they need mending Do they need cleaning or do you need new ones?

So much for your clothes! What about you and your figure? These are very effective tricks in minimizing defects in the ratio of measurements. If you are small busted and have large hips, wear contrasting, light or bright colored tops and dark or black skirts.

If you are short and stout, wear solid colors with buttons, tucking or design, going up and down. If you are long and lanky do just the opposite, use large prints and around and around decorations.

★ ★ ★

Take your measurements and be faithful to figure molding exercises in order to make any desirable improvements. The real winter season will be here before we know it!

Mrs. Kohn Presides at Sylvan Lake

Garden Group Is Shown Pictures of Africa Trip

The new president, Mrs. Albert E. Kohn, presided over the first fall meeting of the Sylvan Lake Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association at the home of Mrs. Willis M. Brewer on North Parke street Thursday afternoon.

Over 50 members attended the meeting to see the pictures taken by Mrs. Harold A. Fitzgerald on her trip to Africa last year.

Proposed amendments to the bylaws were read, and these revisions will be voted upon at the October meeting. Plans for the Christmas Fair Dec. 3 were discussed and co-chairmen Mrs. O. S. Tripp and Mrs. Howard White appointed committees to assist in the project.

FOR SCHOLARSHIPS

Proceeds from the fair will go toward scholarships and village playground improvements.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Brewer was assisted by Mrs. Stanley J. Filkins, Mrs. C. W. Doerr, Mrs. Thurman Holloway and Mrs. Edith Thomas. Mrs. Kohn and Mrs. R. Dale Aumaugher presided at the tea table.

Dem Women Plan Christmas Program

A full line of Christmas cards, wrapping paper, novelties and all occasion cards will be featured.

The public is invited; refreshments will be served and a program is planned.

Linen Shower Given in Honor of Miss Haaseth

Showe guests were Mrs. Einar Haaseth, the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. J. B. Harrison, Mrs. Arthur Radke, Carolyn Radke and Mrs. Ronald Allcorn.

Others were Mrs. Elizabeth Randall, Mrs. Eric Janson, Mrs. William Franklin, Mrs. Charles Green and Mrs. Harry Lundberg.

Alpha Chapter Gives Dinner

A cooperative dinner was given by members of the Alpha Chapter of Beta Theta Sorority Tuesday evening. The group met at the home of Mrs. Leslie Cross on Lexington street.

Chairmen named by Mrs. Glen Grim, president, were Mrs. Russell Beam and Mrs. Frank Coad, advisory board; Helen Turek and Marie Schimmel, ways and means; Mrs. Leslie Cross and Mrs. Floyd Oswald, telephone, and Mrs. Jack Greathouse, program.

Others were Mrs. Charles Irish, parliamentarian; Mrs. N. C. Meeker, publicity and scrap book; and Mrs. Emil Mallahn, cards and flowers.

Mrs. L Z Monroe will be hostess at the next spring meeting.

Introduce Members at Altar Guild Tea

New members were introduced to the annual membership tea given Tuesday by the Altar Guild of St. Hugo of the Hills Catholic Church. Mrs. Joseph F. Flaherty was hostess for the tea at her home on Pon Valley road in Bloomfield Hills.

Mrs. Luke A. Terhaar was chairman for the day. She was assisted by Mrs. Frank Pawlus, Mrs. Carl Qualman, Mrs. James Purdy, Mrs. Robert Dunlay, Mrs. James Shannon Jr., Mrs. John Mahony, Mrs. William Crook, and Mrs. Robert Johnson.

'What's My Line?'

Act Out Panel Show

"What's My Line?" was the theme of the Evangelical United Brethren Church Women's Society of World Service meeting held Tuesday at the Florence avenue home of Mrs. Barbour Williams.

Following a business meeting the program was presented in the form of a radio broadcast. Mrs. Brady Adams acted as moderator with Mrs. George Hollis, Mrs. William Gaddes, Mrs. Harold Pearsall, Mrs. Lewis Ball and Mrs. Mary Spragg participating.

Other speakers were Mrs. Albert Lovse, Mrs. P. J. Waldie, Mrs. Myron Everett, Mrs. Leslie Bell, and Mrs. Grant Burlison.

Mrs. Kenneth Walker presented two silver serving trays to the society as a gift from the Eunice Circle.

Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Jerry Frederiksen, Mrs. Harold Bell, and Mrs. Kenneth Walker.

★ ★ ★

Addresses Parents

Flo Gould, who is affiliated with the Merrill Palmer School in Detroit, spoke to parents of children attending All Saints Episcopal Church Nursery School last Tuesday evening. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Jack Kirksey of Littletell drive.

TO DEDICATE EDUCATIONAL UNIT — The congregation of the First United Missionary Church will dedicate the educational unit of the new church at 2:30 p. m. Sunday. Located at 149 N. East Blvd., the building is of modern design with masonry construction throughout. The roof structure is made of laminated beams with exposed natural wood ceiling and decorated slag block walls. Flexicore floors are covered with vinyl-asbestos tile and carpet. The building was built at a cost of $114,549. The land was purchased for $10,[illegible] was designed and constructed by John E. Roth & Sons of Birmingham. The sanctuary will be constructed when the congregation outgrows the [illegible]

First Unit to Be Dedicated

The new educational unit of the First United Missionary Church at 149 N. East Blvd. will be dedicated at 2:30 p.m. Sunday by the Rev. B. W. Pearson of Yale, district superintendent for the state of Michigan.

Coming from Elkhart, Ind. to preach the sermon will be the Rev. K. E. Geiger, general superintendent of the denomination.

The Rev. G. D. Murphy of Kalamazoo will give the opening prayer and Mayor Philip A. Rowston will present greetings.

A former pastor, the Rev. H. C. Eagle, will pronounce the benediction.

According to the Rev. O. P. Eastman, pastor, the unit will serve as sanctuary and activity building until the church is completed.

The main floor seating 350 with an overflow room seating an additional 200 provides a temporary sanctuary. Walls are sea[illegible] as well as rest rooms, furnace room and the gas-hot water heating plant.

Space is provided for a choir of 26 voices, a well-equipped nursery for parents with children, pastor's and superintendent's offices, and a narthex running from the front entrance to the rear and parking lot. The south entrance is on floor level.

The basement is designed to function on two levels, on the west to parking lot and on the east at the drive level. It provides space for primary, junior, high and senior high young people as well as rest rooms, furnace room and the gas-hot water heating plant.

Christ Lutheran Given Library

Young People Begin Fall Activities; Canoe Trip Sunday, Rally Sept. 27

The library established at Christ Lutheran Church for members and friends will be available following worship services at 8 and 11 a. m. each Sunday in Fellowship Hall.

The project is sponsored by men of the church with Robert Becker, chairman.

Activities of young people started last Sunday when members met for the Youth Choir rehearsal under the direction of Mrs. John Wiley.

A four-hour canoe trip is planned for tomorrow and on Sept. 27 more than 30 young people expect to attend the Eastern Michigan District Luther League Rally at Flint.

Counsellors for the group are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Majeur, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Blasey, and Pastor Arvid E. Anderson. Susan Elliott is president of the local League.

The fall series of Adult Inquiry and Discussion Classes will begin at 8:30 p. m. on Oct. 6. The series will run for about eight weeks.

Throughout the month of September worship services will continue to be held at 8 and 11 a. m., the pastor said.

Evangelist Preaching at Christian Temple

Services are held every night at 7:30 and at 9:45 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. on Sunday. The Rev. Lola Marion is pastor.

Formosa Missionary Comes to Free Methodist

REV. JAMES H. TAYLOR

Guest speaker at the Frist Free Methodist Church, 501 Mt. Clemens St., at 3 p.m. Sunday will be the Rev. James H. Taylor, superintendent of the denomination's mission work in Formosa.

After serving for 20 years as a missionary to mainland China, he returned to the United States in 1946. He went to Formosa in 1953 shortly after other transfer missionaries from China began work there.

An educational missionary, the Rev. Mr. Taylor served in China as principal of Kaifeng Bible School, Honan Province and as principal of the Northwest Bible Institute in Fengsiang, Shensi Province.

His son, the Rev. James H. Taylor Jr., now teaching at the Institute in Kachsiung, represents the fourth generation of the family of Hudson Taylor, founder of the China Inland Mission.

Observing the first quarterly meeting of the newly formed Pontiac District, the Rev. Edward C. John, district superintendent, will speak at the 11 a.m. service Sunday.

* * *

At 7 p.m. the Rev. Edwin T. Courser, pastor of the Free Methodist Church in Hamburg, will preach.

The Rev. Harlow Hoyt, pastor of the Oxford Free Methodist Church, will speak at the youth rally at 7:30 tonight. The Rev. Lyal H. Howison, pastor, said services are open to the public.

Christ Church Rector Chosen

Rev. Robert L. De Witt President of Society Assisting College Youth

"The University—The Church's Prodigal Son," will be the subject of a talk by the Rev. Robert L. DeWitt at the Tuesday luncheon meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of Christ Church Cranbrook.

* * *

Rector of Christ Church, the Rev. Mr. DeWitt was recently elected president of the Church Society for College Work.

To assist the church in the program, the society conducts pioneer, experimental and research projects on a national scale.

* * *

Facing ever increasing numbers of young people going to college, the society emphasizes in its work annual church fellowship; the conducting of faculty summer schools in theology and religion, and supporting chaplaincies.

Other areas include ministering to students in the commuter colleges, conferences on the relationship of Christianity and Jurisprudence, and assisting in the development of a lay ministry in colleges and universities.

* * *

A panel discussion on "Church and our Teenage Children" is slated for the morning meeting.

"I SAT STUNNED!"
These were the words of a former pastor of the Moody Memorial Church after hearing the message by Dr. Don R. Falkenberg at a summer conference. This is one of the most revealing of messages as the plot is unfolded of the Communist plans to capture control of India, Africa, South America, Central America, and then the United States and Canada.
The Communist boast concerning the United States is: "We will not have to attack. She will fall like an overripe fruit into our hands." They refer to our indifference! Do they refer to you?
Tell your friends. Bring them to hear this message which is stirring the nation.

Presbyterians Join Program

Church School Staff to Attend Curriculum Preview Dinner

The First Presbyterian Church Session recently voted to cooperate with 300 other churches in the three-year development program of the Presbyterian Church in Michigan.

The projects include national missions, camps and conferences, campus ministry, Alma College and Presbyterian Village with a goal of $5,365,000.

"Giving Attention to Truth" will be the theme of Dr. William H. Marbach's sermon when he preaches at the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services Sunday.

Under the auspices of the Detroit Presbyterian Church School Assn., teachers of the local church school will attend the curriculum preview dinner at the First Presbyteria Church in Birmingham Monday.

A call for good, clean used clothing for needy people overseas comes from the Board of Deacons. They will meet at the church on Dec. 22 to sort and pack for mailing.

Church of Brethren Schedules Services

The First Church of the Brethren will begin an evangelistic campaign at 7:15 p.m. Monday with the Rev. Ralph W. Wagoner of Lima, Ohio, the speaker.

The evangelistic has chosen to include the following topics for sermons, "Attributes of Christ," "Pentecost," "Instruction of Christ," "The Great Invitation," and "Excuses."

Council of Men at Orchard Lake to Hear Varner

Durward B. Varner, chancellor of Michigan State University Oakland, will be guest speaker at the Council of Men meeting of Orchard Lake Community Church (Presbyterian) following the 6:30 dinner Wednesday evening.

Officers of the Grandale Presbyterian Church of Detroit will hold the annual retreat Sunday afternoon at the Orchard Lake Church. Women of the Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian Church of Livonia will gather at the church for a planning conference Wednesday.

The Rev. Edward D. Auchard, pastor, will preach on "To Whom the Earth Belongs" at both the 9 and 11 a. m. services Sunday.

At the early hour Mrs. Jean Carpenter will be soloist. At 11 a. m. the Chancel Choir will sing with Mrs. Alice Smith at the organ.

CONCERNED ABOUT you

"COMMON RELIGIOUS TEACHINGS NOT ENDORSED BY THE BIBLE"

Roosevelt Wells

Last week I asked the question, "Is Baptism essential to Salvation?" I also asked several important questions pertaining to the subject that I felt were essentially connected therewith. In this article I would like to present two arguments from Acts 2:38 that should prove to the honest seeker of truth that BAPTISM IS ESSENTIAL TO SALVATION. The statement in Acts 2:38 reads: then Peter said unto them, repent and be baptized everyone of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. According to this passage BAPTISM IS FOR THE REMISSION OF SINS. The American Standard Version reads, "unto the remission of sins". This should make it evident to anyone whose heart is not filled with prejudice or whose mind has not been blinded by the god of this world or whose conscience has not been seared, that baptism IS ESSENTIAL TO SALVATION.

Our first argument shall be from a scholarly point of view. "It is feared that if we give EIS (for in Acts 2:38) its NATURAL and OBVIOUS meaning, undue importance will be ascribed to baptism, the atonement will be undervalued and the work of the holy spirit disparaged. We are gravely told that if we render EIS in Acts 2:38 in order to, we give up the battle — whereas if we translate it, on account of, or in token of, it will yet be possible for us to remain Baptist, SUCH METHODS OF INTERPRETATIONS ARE UNWORTHY OF CHRISTIAN SCHOLARS. It is our business simply and honestly, to ascertain the exact meaning of the inspired originals, as the Sacred penman intended ... convey it to the mind of the contemporary reader. Away with the question — "What ought Peter to have said in the interest of Orthodoxy?" the real question is, "What did Peter say, and what did he mean when he spoke on the Day of Pentecost under the inspiration of the Holy Ghost. Shall we never learn that TRUTH HAS NOTHING TO FEAR FROM A TRUE INTERPRETATION OF ANY PART OF GOD'S WORD AND NOTHING TO GAIN FROM A FALSE ONE. The TRUTH WILL SUFFER NOTHING by giving to EIS its TRUE SIGNIFICATION. WHEN CAMPBELLITES TRANSLATE IN ORDER TO IN ACTS 2:38 THEY TRANSLATE CORRECTLY. Willmarth (Handbook on Baptism, Bapt. and remission, in Bapt. Quarterly, July, 1877 pp 304, 305) (caps and ((mine. R. W.))

Yes, Peter preached Baptism for the remission of sins. "What have you been taught?" Be honest with yourself, for remember Peter said, 'Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost" Acts 2:38. BELIEVETH THOU THIS?

Detroit Firm Seeks to Sell Federal Plant

WASHINGTON (UP)—H. M. Seldon Co., Detroit, has been awarded a one-year contract to try to sell the government's $9,200,000 industrial plant in Center Line, Mich.

The general services administration said Brown & Storch, Inc., Chicago, and Joseph J. & Reynold H. Greenberg, Inc., Philadelphia, will assist the Detroit firm.

★ ★ ★

State Officials Eye Small Cars for Employes

LANSING (UP) — State officials are eying with interest the new compact cars rolling off the Detroit assembly lines.

There isn't money in the state treasury right now to add to or replace the 2,354 passenger cars in the state motor pool.

"But we're definitely interested," said James W. Miller, state controller. "We're reviewing the possibilities of the compact cars. We think they could be the answer to some of our problems."

Miller said the state is interested in the small cars because of their lower original cost and economy of operation.

"I can see a lot of places where a fleet of compact cars could fit into our motor pool operation," he said. "There's no reason why state employes — right up to department heads — couldn't use the smaller cars. All they need for a lot of their business is wheels under them."

First Meeting Slated by Glengary's PTA

WALLED LAKE — The Glengary School PTA will have its first meeting of the current school year Monday at 7:30 p.m.

There will be a short business meeting at the school with an open house following.

The entire program is based on a "School Days" theme. A concentrated drive for new members will be launched.

Detroit Doctor Heads State Medical Society

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI) — A 63-year-old Detroit doctor-dentist will become president of the Michigan State Medical Society during the group's 94th annual convention here Sept. 27-Oct. 2, it was announced Friday.

The society's new president will be Dr. Milton A. Darling, who has delivered thousands of babies since establishing an obstetrics practice in Detroit in 1916.

Darling, a native of Batavia in Branch County, received a doctor's degree in dental surgury from the University of Michigan in 1911 and then continued his studies for three years to earn his medical degree in 1914.

'Send Me to London,' Pleads Pat Suzuki

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—

"Dear Mr. Rodgers and Hammerstein, please
List to this tale of a sad Japanese,
Starring in 'Drum Song' and surely no kooky
She weeps that you no longer love Pat Suzuki."

WILSON

She was staring moodily at a piggy bank she'd bought out on 8th Av. when I was late to meet her.

"I want to save up to buy a Chanel suit," she frowned. "I hear they cost hundreds . . . JUST HUNDREDS."

"What do you want a Chanel suit for?" I asked. (I thought she said Channel.")

Pat put a $10 bill in the bank. "To wear in London when R.&H. let me play in the London company. Only R.&H. won't let me play in the London company," she moaned.

Pat tried to snatch the $10 bill back from the bank. "I'd hate to get stuck with a Chanel suit if I'm not going to London," she gloomed. "Maybe I'll buy a painting instead."

"You can't wear a painting," I said.

"Yeah, but I could sell it. Make a big profit . . . capital gains deal! There I am in London in my Chanel suit . . . we'd have a small manse over on the Italian Riviera for weekends . . . Naturally we'll have to show up Monday nights in London to do the show."

PAT

Pat bit the cocktail stirrer, petulantly. "Only I'm not going to do the London show. Earl, you've got to do something!"

"We could send R.&H. a letter," I suggested.

"Let's just send them a bomb!"

"Maybe you could have a baby." (I was just trying to be helpful.)

"No, you can't work any Acts of God stuff with R.&H." Pat gave up eating the stirrer and began chewing her thumb. "It's got to be real legal."

I thought it was strange that Pat, a big name only since Bing Crosby discovered her less than two years ago, would already be thinking of leaving Broadway, which she crashed just last fall.

"I'm not tired of it—this week I am!" Pat said, fingering the hair which she admits she cuts sometimes with a rusty razor blade.

"It's not the show I'm tired of—but I want to see the world . . . and R.&H. think I should stay in this company."

"A great compliment to you," I mentioned.

"Yeah," Pat nodded. "When I started I was an unconvincing actress. Now I feel more sympathetic toward myself. In other words, I'm getting to be a ham."

Robert Q. Lewis heard of the commuter who has such a great time in the bar car of the train that he's moving to the end of the line . . . That's earl, brother.

Holland Voters to Ballot on Obligation Bond Issue

HOLLAND (UPI) — Holland voters will ballot Oct. 20 on a $2,900,000 general obligation bond issue to finance a new sewage treatment plant to replace the present plant which was built in 1927.

The bond issue also would be used to construct additional sewage lines to serve areas recently annexed by Holland.

Nikita in 'Star Billing' Today at Movie Fete

By JOE FINNIGAN
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD — Nikita Khrushchev gets "star billing" today, dining with hundreds of top Hollywood personalities, including Eddie Fisher and Elizabeth Taylor in their return to filmland as man and wife.

No "near greats" were invited.

In fact there was such a demand for invitations to break bread with the Russian leader that officials putting on the affair had to exclude the wives of most stars.

Only spouses who are filmites in their own right, like Janet Leigh, Mrs. Tony Curtis in private life, and Dick Powell's wife, June Allyson, were among the invited.

The last minute announcement of the arrival of Eddie and Liz caused some lawyers to ask if the couple could legally live together in California since Fisher's divorce from Debbie Reynolds, another luncheon guest, won't be final until 1960.

It appears, however, that everything will run smoothly for the couple.

Khrushchev and his party will sit there as the picture's stars, Frank Sinatra, Shirley MacLaine, Maurice Chevalier, Louis Jourdan and Juliet Prowse, go through their paces.

Sinatra will sing and also introduce the performers to the Russian leader and his group.

Sinatra's role in the affair caused one Hollywood wag to say, "If Frank uses some of his 'way out' phrases like "gasser', 'Clyde' and 'dad,' that Russian's interpretor will need an assistant imported from the Sunset Strip."

At the luncheon, there will be 405 guests in the comissary but another 400 will dine in one of the huge stage sets nearby. TV monitors operating on a closed circuit will bring them the activities from the cafe."

Khrushchev will arrive at the studio about 12:30 p.m. and go directly to the commissary where he'll be met by Fox president Spyros Skouras, studio production head Buddy Adler and Eric Johnson, president of Motion Pictures Association of America.

Between courses, Johnston and Skouras are expected to give short speeches. When the lunch ends, Henry Cabot Lodge, U.S. delegate to the United Nations, will introduce Khrushchev who will give a short talk.

The Russian's schedule calls for him to spend approximately two hours on the lot.

Not all the Hollywood stars clamored to attend the banquet however. Ward Bond and Ronald Reagen were among those who refused to attend.

Officials warned those stars who accepted their inivtations that they'd better amble promptly or face the prospect of missing the meal.

Bad Fireplace Starts Blaze in Oxford Twp.

OXFORD TOWNSHIP—A defective fireplace was blamed as the cause of a $15,000 fire which partially destroyed the upstairs and damaged the rest of the Fabian L. Comeau home at 293 N. Lapeer Rd. yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Comeau were vacationing in Minneapolis, and the only one in the house at the time the fire started was their son, Charles, who was roused by the smoke and fled the burning building.

The blaze spread up the inside wall to the bedrooms upstairs and through parts of the roof. It was brought under control by the Oxford Fire Department assisted by the Lake Orion firefighters. They were on the scene for about three hours.

The lower floor was damaged extensively by smoke and water, firemen said.

Chrysler Sues for Tax

DETROIT (AP)—Chrysler Corp. has sued the federal government in an attempt to collect $2,139,810.75 in a tax refund.

The company's complaint filed in U.S. District Court yesterday said this represented overpayment of manufacturer's excise taxes in 1956.

The company said it paid its dealers $23,703,838.98 in 1956 for material and labor in replacing defective parts. It claimed this should have been credited against the money paid to the government in manufacturer's excise taxes.

The Internal Revenue Service ignored the claim, the company said.

First Baptists to Break Ground

Auditorium Seating 350 Planned at 6 Acre Site at Wixom

Ground breaking ceremonies for Wixom's only church will get under way at 3 p.m. Sunday when members of the First Baptist Church gather at the six acre site on Wixom and W. Maple roads.

The Kruger Construction Co. of Wayne will build the first unit, which will cost $100,000. Expansion plans call for two educational room wings, offices and additional nursery facilities.

The first phase will have an auditorium seating 350, and will be of Gothic design to blend with with the open countryside of Michigan's newest little city. Chris Stekete of Grand Rapids is the architect.

Officiating at the ceremonies, besides Pastor Edmund Caes will be Wixom City officials, headed by Mayor Joseph Stadnik

Construction is slated to begin by the end of September, with a deadline for completion in late April.

The church has been financed through a bond program, headed by Joseph Porter, chairman of the building board.

Emmanuel Baptist Sponsors Contest

Emmanuel Baptist Church is sponsoring a Sunday School Contest starting at 10 a.m. Sunday and continuing through Nov. 8.

Five Different Players Score TDs for Chiefs

By BILL CORNWELL

Waterford High School had the first laugh, but Pontiac Central laughed the loudest and longest in their football struggle Friday night at Pontia's Wisner Stadium.

Upwards of 5,000 spectators filed into the Wisner arena for the opening game of the 1959 season and quickly had visions of a ding-dong battle after watching the Skippers tally the first time they got their hands on the ball.

But their visions were like a mirage on the desert. The Chiefs bounced back with a vengeance to pile up a 19-6 halftime advantage and coast through a sloppy 2nd half for a 31-6 victory.

Central struck four times on the ground and once through the air with five different players accounting for the touchdowns. Two of Central's tallies were set up by the recovery of Skipper fumbles.

Halfback Dick McCauley, fullback Joe McCauley, halfback Isaac Jones, halfback Allen Howze and guard Charley Brown scored the Central TD's, in that order.

Quarterback Bill Bryce, a tower of strength for Waterford and the game's top individual star, tallied the loser's lone TD on a five-yard smash through the middle of the line.

Waterford failed to capitalize on three other scoring chances. An intercepted pass stopped one bid and the clock ran out in the 2nd quarter to stall another threat on the Pontiac three yards line. In the 3rd stanza the Skippers lost the ball on downs on the PCH 12.

The Skippers marched 47 yards for a TD following a Central punt. Mike Kaines reeled off 19 yards at one whack and a five-yard offside penalty against the Chiefs made it 1st-and-goal on the five. Then Bryce bulled into pay dirt.

Central wasted no time rebounding. The Chiefs took the ensuing kickoff and drove 62 yards in nine plays with Dick McCauley plowing over from two yards out. Ken Dextrom kicked the extra point and PCH had a lead it never relinquished.

Midway through the 2nd period Elick Shorter recovered a bobble on the Waterford 49. Two plays later Joe McCauley broke over the right side and outraced everybody for a 36-yard TD jaunt.

A little more than two minutes later Joe McCauley pounced on a fumble on the Pontiac 47. On the 2nd play Jones knifed across the left side and ran 46 yards for a stand-up six-pointer.

In the 3rd stanza the Chiefs halted a Waterford drive on their own 12 and promptly pushed the remaining distance for a TD with quarterback Fred Staley passing to the fleet Howze for the final 14 yards.

Brown broke into the scoring column late in the 4th period. Jim Hoke, standing in punt formation, bobbled the pass from center. Brown hit Hoke, jarred the ball away from him and rescued it for a 21-yard scoot to the goal line.

Graves and Hertel Touchdown Scorers in 1st Game

By CHUCK ABAIR

The terrific spirit which became a trademark of Pontiac Northern teams in their 1st competitive season a year ago carried right on into football last night.

Lacking experience and size, the Huskies began a new era in local sports by chalking up a 13-0 victory at Lake Orion.

It was the kind of contest where lack of know-how might have meant the difference. The hard-working Huskies made plenty of mistakes as expected but never lost their determination.

A good example was right at the start when a fumble on the 2nd play gave the home team possession at the PNH 35. The Dragons moved the ball all the way to the three with a good chance to score a quick one and calm down the Red and White upstarts.

But three hard-hitting Northerners belted the ball-carrier on the next play and jarred the pigskin away.

Jan Lawrence, who will be heard from more before the season is too far along, went 34 yards on the 2nd play to get the visitors out of a hole and post the school's initial 1st down in varsity play.

The drive began sputtering but was started all over again when Orion receiver Gary Hunter fumbled the ball away on a punt.

Taking over again at the LO 35, PNH drove to the 18 in four plays featuring a nine-yarder by Bob Hocking. A penalty moved the ball to the eight from where Lawrence dashed to the two and rugged George Graves bulled over. Jerry Mineweaser toed the extra point.

More stout-hearted defensive play stopped another Orion threat at the eight in the 2nd quarter after a 77-yard drive.

Pontiac followed with a march of its own sparked by a 44-yard Bruce Norton-to-Mineweaser pass but an interception halted that threat at the LO 11. Northern was back to the home 37 when the half ended at 7-0.

Numerous fumbles and a pass interception prevented the Dragons from ever getting started in the 3rd quarter.

The stolen pass set up the other TD. Little Stan Hertel, the team handyman on both offense and defense, grabbed off a Carlos Williams aerial at the Orion 32 and raced back to the 25. Hocking gained nine between two losses.

With 4th and seven to go at the 12, Norton hit Hertel with a quick pass. The little Pontiac Central transfer sidestepped a would-be tackler and skipped into the end zone. Hertel was downed for a loss trying to run the extra point on a fake kick.

★ ★ ★

Heikkinen and aides John Backman and Arnie Wilson were a "satisfied" trio when it was all over. They had praise for the work of quarterbacks Norton and Steve Thompson as well as Hocking, Lawrence and end Dave Fox on offense. Backs Graves, Larry Bland and tackle Dick Harmon were lauded for their defensive work. Hertel drew kind words for top notch play both ways.

Orion coach Frank Kownacki paid high tribute to his conquerors in defeat, "They had great spirit. They had lots of fire and outfought us all the way," he said.

Birmingham Sails to 26-0 Victory

Cranes Never Advance Ball Beyond Enemy 30 in Series Finale

The historic Birmingham - Cranbrook football rivalry came to an end last night on the Birmingham gridiron and the Cranbrook forces are probably glad of it.

Cranbrook's outmanned gridders never moved the pigskin beyond the Maple 30 yard line and Birmingham completely dominated the statistics while sailing to a 26-0 triumph in the 1959 season opener for both schools.

The Birmingham - Cranbrook series will not be resumed next year and last night's loss climaxed a long period of frustration for the Cranes. It was their 9th straight defeat at the hands of the Maples.

All Maple TDs came on sustained drives, two of them following the recovery of Cranbrook fumbles. They had a 14-0 lead after the 1st quarter and a 20-0 edge at halftime.

Then Jacobson clicked for the 1st time as he hauled in a pass from quarterback George Forrest for a touchdown play covering 15 yards. Isbell again kicked the point from placement.

The Maples tallied their final TD in the 3rd quarter on a 22-yard scamper by Jacobson. They coasted the rest of the way and failed to capitalize on a least two other scoring opportunities.

18 Points for Krause

Transfer Paces Barons

A transfer student from Walled Lake brought Bloomfield Hills to life after a dismal 1st quarter and the Barons went on to trip Oak Park 18-6 yesterday afternoon at the Bloomfield Hills field.

Little Joe Krause wound up with all the winners' points going over the goal line once in each of the last three quarters.

Oak Park had countered in the opening session on a 12-yard jaunt by fullback Steve Wolf before Krause got rolling.

Coach Don Hoff, who had seen his charges fumble the pigskin away the 1st two times they had it, finally got things settled down.

Krause knotted the score in the 2nd period going 30 on a reverse. His other point-makers were on runs of 10 and 45 after taking pitch-outs.

The Barons piled up 256 net yards but were hindered by penalties. Bloomfield had finished the 1958 season by defeating the Parkers.

OLSM Swamped by Hamtramck

It was just too much Dewey Lincoln for Orchard Lake St. Mary's gridders, last night, as the Eaglets dropped their season's opening game at Hamtramck, 39-13.

Lincoln, speedy Cosmos halfback, romped to three TDs, including a 68-yard, 15-yard and five-yard drives. The Cosmos other tallies were made by Frank Siskoski on a 66-yard jaunt and a 25-yard pass play in the final seconds.

Eaglets started OK, with a TD on the opening kickoff, recovering a Cosmos fumble on the 40 and driving all the way. Glenn Hass went in from the five. Lincoln went into action after that and scored from the 15.

Cosmos also counted twice in the 2nd period, once in the 3rd and twice more in the finals. OLSM's Ted Barszczewski drove four yards for his team's 2nd tally following a 70-yard march opening the 2nd half.

Pistons Prep at West Branch

WEST BRANCH (AP)—The Detroit Pistons moved into the Michigan north country today to get ready for the pro basketball season.

Coach Red Rocha scheduled drills twice a day next week at West Branch High School gymnasium. The team will return to Detroit for final practice sessions at University of Detroit Memorial.

General Manager W. Nick Kerbawy said two members of last year's squad have retired. They are guard Dick Farley, who is in the insurance business in Fort Wayne, Ind., and forward Joe Holup, who has a job as salesman in Washington.

Rochester, Romeo Victorious

Konley Gets 100th

He had some anxious moments in the first half but today Rochester football coach Gene Konley is the proud possessor of 100 victories.

The Falcons had trailed 7-0 and then 7-6 well into the 2nd quarter before turning on the steam to drub annual opening rival Davison, 26-14.

Over 2,000 fans were on hand to help the veteran coach celebrate the occasion. All but eight of the triumphs have been at RHS.

Two of Rochester's Tri-County rivals — Romeo and L'Anse Creuse—had successful lidlifters while defending champion Lapeer was suffering a 60-0 humiliation at Bay City Central.

Davison made an early TD and extra point by Ralph Palmer stood up until Dan Lickert intercepted a pass and streaked 80 yards to provide Rochester an advantage it never relinquished.

It was no contest after Reggie Dixon reached paydirt from the 18 and 6 in the 3rd canto.

For Romeo, it was a case of score early and hold on at Richmond.

Tom Meyer went 75 yards and Bob Galan 1 to reach the end zone in the very first quarter.

Richmond did have a short-lived lead of 7-0 on an early fumble recovery. Meyer's gallop a minute later got the Bulldogs even again. The losers rang the bell again in the 2nd half.

Bill Reidel dashed into the end zone from the 10 in the 3rd to snap a tie and provide L'Anse Creuse a 12-6 decision over Fraser. Reidel scored the other TD and had a 60-yard scamper to paydirt ruined by a penalty.

★ ★ ★

Avondale Defeats Milford, Oxford Edges Clarkston

Wolves' Rally in Fourth Falls Short of Mark

Extra Point by Brady Ruins Taylor's Debut as Coach

Living up to pre-season notices in impressive style, host Oxford last night hung a 13-12 defeat on Clarkston in a hard-fought opening game which left an estimated 1,500 fans limp at the final whistle.

An off tackle slant by hustling Jim Brady for an extra point proved the difference as Oxford's big Doug Stott and Clarkston end Dick Caverly accounted for the four touchdowns.

Caverly gave the visitors their only lead of the night in the 1st period taking a 26-yard TD aerial from Bob Porritt.

Stott went over from the five in the 2nd quarter to tie the issue 6-6 at halftime.

* * *

His 34-yard scamper to paydirt in the 3rd preceded Brady's clincher which hardly seemed enough to win at the time.

Clarkston battled back and rung up its other TD just as it had the first. This time Porritt hit Caverly from 34 yards out.

In a game final bid, Clarkston had reached the Oxford 25 when time ran out.

* * *

"I won't forget that game for a long time," was the comment of former Little All-American Tom Taylor in losing his 1st outing as a head coach. His charges had a 14-9 edge on first downs.

Walled Lake Routs Union

Halfback Bob Christian was a one-man scoring show last night at Detroit as Walled Lake got off to an impressive start in the 1959 football season with a 26-0 triumph over Redford Union.

The speedy Viking ball carrier scored all but one of his team's points as he crossed the goal line once in each quarter and converted after the 1st touchdown.

While Christian was running wild for Walled Lake, Inter-Lakes champion Farmington was demonstrating its readiness to defend its crown by shutting out Livonia Bentley, 12-0, on the Farmington gridiron.

* * *

Ferndale spotted Berkley a 6-0 first quarter lead, then came roaring back for a 19-12 victory at Berkley and Royal Oak Dondero handed East Detroit an 18-0 white washing at Royal Oak.

Utica took a 6-0 edge over Warren Lincoln but couldn't hold it and dropped a 14-6 decision to the ABES. Warren Fitzgerald, down at halftime by a 14-12 count, shifted into high gear after intermission to conquer Hazel Park, 33-20.

* * *

In games involving Saginaw Valley Conference teams Friday night, Flint Central lost a 12-6 contest to Midland, Bay City Central dished out a 60-0 pasting to Lapeer and Saginaw High and Alpena fought to an unusual 2-2 tie.

* * *

Christian went six yards for Walled Lake's 1st TD, climaxing a 74-yard drive, and he also converted on a run.

* * *

The Vikings drove 50 yards for their next tally with Christian hitting pay dirt from the three. Bill Carter's pass interception paved th way for the final touchdown with Christian scoring from the Salo tallied the 26th point on a run.

Farmington stopped Bentley on the four-yard line early in the game and squelched the Bulldogs on other occasions in the 2nd half.

After a scoreless 1st half, the Falcons pushed 50 yards to score in the 3rd period with Russ Hoffmeyer plunged over from one yard out.

* * *

Harvey Chapman put his throwing arm to work in the 4th quarter, passing 32 yards to Larry Hawkins to set up the 2nd TD, then hitting Hawkins again for a 25-yard rally. Chapman completed three of four aerials for 61 yards and personally rushed for 87 yards in 14 attempts.

Bill Smarsty, Jim Vinton and Hayward Sharpley scored Ferndale's TDs while Keith Elliott and Ron Strittmatter tallied for Berkley. Sharpley accounted for the game's lone extra point.

Bob LeZotte scored twice on runs of 15 and four yards and John Meadows hit pay dirt on a 12-yard pass from Howard Bryant as Dondero blanked East Detroit.

* * *

Tony Palise, Frank Stagg and Frank Smothermon each hit pay dirt in defeat for Hazel Park with Bob Fulcher converting twice from placement. A 15-yard pass from Ed Malinek to Jim Roney accounted for Utica's only touchdown.

Holly and Ortonville Take Beatings

Ray Figg at Holly joined the ranks of new coaches taking it on the chin first time out when his Broncos dropped a 33-13 verdict at Grand Blanc last night.

The victors turned three early Holly fumbles into touchdowns and were in command the rest of the night.

Ortonville failed to show much on offense in a 12-0 blanking by Goodrich, Clawson downed Center Line, 13-6, Madison romped 20-0 over traditional rival Royal Oak St. Mary, Brighton and South Lyon finished 6-6 in another meeting, North Branch walloped Marlette 41-6 and Millington blew a 12-0 lead bowing to Vassar, 13-12, in some of Friday's other openers.

But the home team promptly turned another fumble into a six-pointer to lead 20-6 at halftime.

A large Holly following among 4,000 onlookers got a chance to cheer again in the last half when Allen Moody garnered the other touchdown from the five and Jim Howard ran for the extra point.

Dick Howell passed for both Goodrich TDs in the first half. Andy Bentley took the 1st covering 10 yards. Bob Andrews grabbed a 45-yard pass later.

After a scoreless initial stanza, LeRoy Hill passed for two Madison tallies in the 2nd period and another in the 4th and converted twice on plunges. The touchdown makers were Dennis Hepp, Terry Stamper and John Killian.

Each team scored at the opposite end of the game at South Lyon. Brighton turned the trick the 1st time it got the ball with Earl Clark crashing over from the three. The Lions got the equalizer with 30 seconds to play on a Milan Obrenovich-to-Dave Wren pass. A dive play failed in the point after touchdown attempt.

* * *

Jim Scrimger chalked up two six-pointers and four others had one apiece for North Branch. They were John Clothier, who also passed to Bill Fricke for one, Leroy Mayberry and Gene Curtis. Ted Dziduch, a 223-pounder, kicked five PATs and starred on defense.

It took Vassar just one quarter to win. Millington had dominated the 1st three featuring touchdowns by Jerry Kolaja and Dave Cobb, who ran 60 yards after picking off a fumble in the air.

A statue of liberty play on 4th down with 30 seconds left deadlocked the issue and a running play wrapped it up. A penalty had nullified an early MHS conversion.

Game Tonight at Wisner

Mikes-W. Bloomfield Play

The second renewal of an interesting area prep football rivalry and the firset encounter between another city club and a Detroit eleven, marks weekend action on the parochial grid front.

* * *

St. Michael and West Bloomfield (Keego Harbor) collide on Wisner Stadium turf at 8 p.m. today in what has the earmarks of one of the area's hottest opening contests. Both clubs have big lines and fast backs. It should be quite an argument.

Sunday afternoon's scrap (2:30 p.m.) also at Wisner Stadium, is rated pretty even, by most observers. It pits St. Frederick against strong Parochial West St. Alphonsus. The Alphs come here for a first-time tilt with the Rams. Former Ram star, Dave Kline, is the Alphs' coach.

Coach Jim Niebauer, Shamrock mentor, would like to win tonight's test, not only to get his favored SCL club off to a good start, but also to wipe out that licking of last fall. Jim had just taken over the squad for his first head coach job.

On the other side, Art Paddy who guides the Lakers, expects his eleven to come through with a repeat. "We hope to win," says Paddy, but added "You never can tell about these games; it may be the breaks that will decide it."

Both schools boast hefty lines, with three of last years "busters" back at Keego, and the North Siders presenting an equally husky front wall, led by 265-pound Fred Lauinger. Mikemen remember 227 pound Gerry McLennan who stole the ball and rumbled 65 yards for a Laker TD.

* * *

Shamrocks will have to stop West Bloomfield's state-ranked sprinter, Jack Newton, junior halfback, while the North Siders can worry their foes with speddy Bill Flanigan.

One change has been affected in the Rams' starting roster against St. Alphonsus. Coach Tom Kennedy said today that Phil Bieri, a fine, speedy halfback prospect, had been dropped from the squad. The move was made for disciplinary reasons, Kennedy said.

Jackson Track Aims for Mark

JACKSON — Jackson Harness Raceway opens the final phase of the 1959 Michigan sulky season here Monday night, determinedly shooting for an all-time record in attendance and wagering.

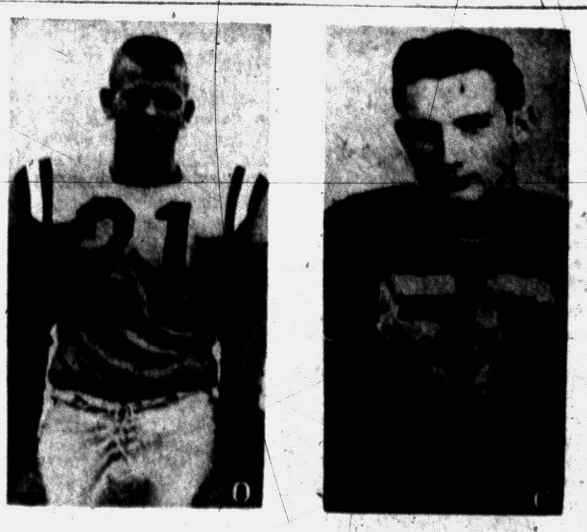

Like the song of the same name, Leon A. Slavin's trim halfmiler west of Detroit has high hopes of eclipsing the $4,096,040 which was pushed through the mutuel windows by a record 78,239 patrons in 1956.

Jackson Harness Raceway again has 36 nights of racing through Oct. 31 and it marks the first time since that banner year of '56 the track has enjoyed more dates.

Suggs Crowds Hanson for Lead at Atlanta

ATLANTA (AP)—Louise Suggs has her putting touch back and is taking aim at leader Beverly Hanson in the $7,500 Atlanta Women's Open Golf Tournament.

Miss Hanson, of Indio, Calif., held a one stroke lead over Miss Suggs, of Sea Island, Ga., going into today's third round. Miss Hanson had a 71-72—143 to the Georgian's 74-70—144.

FAST STARTERS — Bob Christian, left, of Walled Lake, and Avondale's Herb Harris got off to fast starts in the Oakland County individual scoring race last night as another football season began. Christian tallied 25 points and Harris, an end, scored 19 — each one short of his team's game total. Joe Krause got all 18 for Bloomfield Hills.

Harris Scores 19 in 20-7 Win Over Redskins

Yellowjackets Show Same Last Half Drive as 1958

Avondale picked up right where it left off last year as a last-half ball club by whipping Milford 20-7 last night.

* * *

Herb Harris, one of the key factors in the Yellowjackets' drive to the Oakland B championship in 1958, led the way at Milford as he scored 19 of the points from his end position.

Two of his three touchdowns were on passes of 25 and 30 yards from veteran quarterback Dick Smith. The same pair clicked for an extra point.

The senior flanker put the game on ice in the final quarter when he intercepted a pass by Milford flipper Jerry Reis and ran it back 30 yards to paydirt.

* * *

Milford took a 7-6 lead into the 3rd period. Harris had opened the scoring in the 1st quarter but the Redskins evened the count when speedy Gene Schuett tallied from the give to complete a 70-yard drive. Schuett's long run set up the six-pointer.

The Smith-Harris combination, which is likely to give Avon foes nightmares throughout the fall, garnered its second score in the 3rd period when Harris got away from everyone to easily take an aerial and put the visitors ahead to stay.

* * *

Jim McDonald was the only Avondale boy to score besides Harris. He ran for the extra point following the second six-pointer.

* * *

It was the 6th straight triumph since Frank Crowell got his charges rolling in high gear last fall and a rough debut for new MHS skipper Jerry Ganzel.

Imlay City Beats Almont, Dryden Disposes of Peck

Imlay City's football team continues to hold its jinx over Almont. Imlay stopped the Raiders in their tracks last night at Almont and rolled to a 19-7 victory in the 1959 season opener for both schools.

Imlay completely outplayed Almont. The Spartans collected 15 first downs to Almont's one and amassed 245 yards rushing to a skimpy 18 for the Raiders. Aside from the lone touchdown, Almont never moved the ball past midfield.

The Spartans scored first on a three-yard run by Dick McKee, then Almont bounced back to take a 7-6 lead on Don Eschenberg's 37-yard pass to Dick Howe and Neil Pittinger's extra point from placement.

* * *

Imlay went ahead to stay in the 2nd period on a 16-yard sprint by McKee and the scoring was completed in the 3rd stanza on a three-yard plunge by quarterback Roger Lomerson. Lomerson kicked the bonus point.

After a scoreless 1st half, Ron Dittman dashed 15 yards for a touchdown in the 3rd quarter and Leo Andea booted the PAT to bring Dryden a 7-0 advantage.

Peck stormed back for two TDs to take a 12-7 lead. Dryden rebounded in the final seven minutes to win the decision.

* * *

2 Share Top Spot in El Paso's Open

EL PASO (AP)—Bob Goetz, a young sharpshooter from Tulsa, Okla., and hometown pro Iverson Martin were tied at 135 for a one stroke lead going into today's third round of the 72-hole, $20,000 El Paso Open Golf Tournament.

Goetz, 23, climbed to the top from a nine-way tie for 12th in the opening round. He carded eagles on the way to an eight under par 64. His Thursday score was 71.

Doug Ford of Crystal River, Fla., had a double bogey on the 13th and soared to a 71, dropping from first to third with a 136.

The field was cut to 61 pros and six amateurs for the final 36 holes. The cutoff point was 151.

MAPLE — Speedy Steve Jacobsen, Birmingham halfback, hit pay dirt twice as the Maples routed Cranbrook 26-0 before 6,000 fans on the Birmingham gridiron last night.

Podoley Ready to Go Against Detroit Tonight

Ex-Central Michigan Gridder Has Been Out With Injuries

The Detroit Lions wind up their pre-season exhibition schedule tonight with a contest against the Washington Redskins, led by quarterback Eddie LeBaron and former Central Michigan star Jim Podoley.

* * *

The Lions, who open their National Football League season a week from Sunday against the defending champion Baltimore Colts, will be minus a few of their first-stringers for tonight's game.

Yale Lary pulled a hamstring muscle in his leg against the Cleveland Browns last week, and he will be absent from his customary spot in the defensive backfield.

Linebacker Joe Schmidt is still recovering from a shoulder injury and he will probably be used only part time. Guard Harley Sewell and end Jim Doran are also recovering from injuries.

* * *

Podoley, however, has recovered from injuries which hampered him in earlier exhibition games and he will be set to go for the Redskins.

The starting quarterback for Detroit will again be Tobin Rote who was signal caller in the Lions' last two games, both of which were victories.

Laker Harriers Win

Orchard Lake St. Mary cross-country squad entertained neighboring West Bloomfield High harriers yesterday and the visitors won 28-31. Meet was the season's first for both squads.

Ervin Jaskolski (OL) was winner at 12:14, with Lakers' Herremen, runnerup, close behind. Eaglets had five in the top 10, but Lakers' Koppela (3rd), Pitzer (4th) and Kobash (5th) made the difference.

All NFL Teams to Play Final Exhibition Tilts

By The Associated Press

* * *

The two clubs kick off the NFL's 40th campaign next Saturday at Los Angeles with the other 10 teams opening a day later.

* * *

The Giants, 2-3 in pre-season play, meet the San Francisco 49ers (2-3) at Salt Lake City in their windup. The Rams (2-2-1) will be home to Philadelphia (2-3) in their final prep.

* * *

Chicago's Bears hope to close out their pre-season sked with a clean slate. They go after their sixth in a row at Cleveland (1-4) in a game that will be nationally televised (ABC) at 10 p.m. EST.

* * *

Tomorrow, the NFL champion Baltimore Colts (4-1) tackle Chicago's Cardinals (4-2) at Louisville and Green Bay (3-2) meets Pittsburgh (2-3) at Minneapolis. The Colt-Cardinal contest will be on TV (CBS) at 2 p.m.

Titan Triumph Sharp; Purdue-UCLA Tie, 0-0

By The Associated Press

One victory does not make a successful season, but University of Detroit's new coach Jim Miller got his foot off the ground as the Titans smashed George Washington, 38-6 before 19,609 enthusiastic fans.

The Titans also showed that Bruce Maher won't have to be "Mr. Everything" this fall. Help has arrived.

Maher did his share of the damage as Detroit rolled up 325 yards rushing, but the player who has the fans buzzing today is a 150 pound junior quarterback who passed for two touchdowns, set up two others and scored once himself on a sneak.

Tony Hanley an import from Palo Alto, Calif., moved the Titans 60 and 70 yards for scores in the first quarter climaxed by a 13 yard pass to end Tom Chapman and 16 yard dash by halfback Ray Davis.

* * *

Just before the half ended he passed 25 yards to halfback Jim and in the first minute of the third period he hit Post again with a 43 yard TD pass.

The visitors scored early in the first quarter after a 40 yard pass interference penalty gave them the ball on the 17.

The Titans were sharp and the backfield displayed a versatile varied attack. The massive Detroit line gave up only 21 yards on the ground, which is a familiar slant to Miller's coaching. Miller built some of the Big Ten's strongest lines while at Purdue.

* * *

The score could have been higher, but Detroit booted a couple chances and Miller elected to keep the score down in the second half by playing the reserves most of the way and also punting on second and third downs.

In the other top game Friday night Purdue was held to a scoreless tie and outplayed by UCLA.

The Boilermakers, a 12 point favorite, could not score even when guard Fred Brandel recovered a UCLA fumble on the 7 yard line. Bernie Allen's field goal try from the 11 was partially bocked.

* * *

UCLA also tired a field goal in the late stages from the 15 and missed.

In the Southlands, Florida opened with a 30-0 victory over Tulane behind the passing arm of quarterback Jack Jones and the toe of Bobby Joe Green.

Denver earned boos from 16,000 home fans in losing 14-13 to San Jose State. Denver elected to try for a placement kick for the point to settle for a tie instead of trying for two points by running or passing.

Time for Challengers

Bowlerama Champ Entered

1st Qualifying Deadline Only 2 Weeks Away

Bowlers for Oct. 4th Opening Date Must Be Entered Sept. 30th

The 1958 men's champion is back and several new challengers are already signed up with the start of the 3rd annual Pontiac Press Bowlerama tournament just a little over two weeks away.

All men wanting to compete on that date must turn their entries in to The Press or to any alley in Oakland County by midnight of Sept. 30.

Other qualifying dates for men are Oct. 11 and Oct. 18 with the deadline for entries in each case being the preceeding Wednesday. All women will qualify Oct. 18.

Cork will be shooting for a new guaranteed high prize of $500. A league contestant at Montcalm Centre, he rolled 615 to go with a 58 handicap for 673 last year.

Rochester, Holly, Novi, Madison Heights, Ortonville and Royal Oak are some of the outside communities showing new interest in the big event this year.

Rochester Lanes will be a qualifying site along with Lakewood Lanes and Westside Recreation in Pontiac and Walled Lake's Maple Lanes.

Mike Figa, who recently rolled an "open" 300 at Westside, is among the top city stars expected to take part as all local alleys are likely to be well represented.

Arnold Luther of Holly and Royal Snow of Novi were among the first to enter from outside Pontiac. Snow finished last season with a 176 average at Northville Lanes. Luther wound up with a 159 mark at Fenton.

Women will be battling for a $300 top award with $150 going for 2nd place and $100 for 3rd.

Trophies for the winners and high qualifiers and many other awards will be presented following the four weeks of action.

Maverick Challenged by Eastern Entries

WASHINGTON (AP)—For the first time in years, two Eastern entries were among the well regarded challengers today for the President's Cup—main prize of Washington's annual speedboat classic.

Maverick, owned by Bill Waggoner of Phoenix, Ariz., was the favorite on the basis of its triumphant regatta circuit this summer.

But among the contenders were Hawaii Kai III, now owned by Joe Mascari of New York, and Nitrogen, the property of Samuel du Pont of Wilmington, Del.

This Could Be Chisox 'Dream Day'

Shaw Gains 1-0 Win as Sherm Lollar Homers

Big National League Game Is Rained Out on Coast

By United Press International

Ever since the pennant-winning White Sox of 1919 became known as the "Black Sox" because they were charged with "throwing" the world series against Cincinnati, Chicago fans have dreamed of another title team that would help to erase that unhappy memory.

Chicago can clinch at least a tie for the American League pennant by beating Detroit in an afternoon game. Then the White Sox would become the league champions if second-place Cleveland loses its night game against Kansas City.

The White Sox moved to the threshhold of the title Friday night by scoring a typical 1-0 triumph over Detroit on a home run by Sherman Lollar and the five-hit pitching of Bob Shaw.

Cleveland kept its all-but-gone hopes "alive" by whipping Kansas City, 11-2, behind the pitching of Jim Perry. But the Tribe remained 5½ games behind Chicago and the end is in sight.

In other A.L. games, the Boston Red Sox downed New York, 6-4, and Washington edged Baltimore, The big National League showdown betwen Los Angeles and San Francisco was rained out, and a doubleheader was scheduled for Saturday. In the only N.L. action, the Chicago Cubs downed Philadelphia, 5-4, in 13 innings.

Shaw allowed only one baserunner to reach third in gaining his 17th win of the year. Jim Rivera gave him fielding support with a ninth inning catch at the right field wall that robbed Gail Harris of a home run. Lollar provided the game's only run when he slammed his 21st homer of the year off loser Jim Bunning in the fifth inning.

Bud Daley of Kansas City held Cleveland hitless and had a 1-0 lead until two out in the sixth inning of their game when Jim Piersall homered to tie the score. Daley then departed during a six-run rally by the Indians in the seventh inning and the Tribe added four more in the ninth. Piersall and Minnie Minoso led the Indians' attack with three hits each.

The Red Sox, who routed Duke Maas in a five-run first-inning rally, carried a 6-0 lead into the last of the ninth inning against the Yankees. But then lefty Frank Baumann weakened and the Yankees scored four runs before Bobby Richardson fouled out with the bases loaded to end the game. The Yank rally featured Hec Lopez' 21st homer.

Bill Fischer pitched a five-hitter for the Senators in their win over Baltimore while Jim Lemon led his support with his 33rd homer. It was Lemon's fifth homer in the last eight games.

The Cubs beat the Phillies in the 13th inning when Tony Taylor walked, moved to second on George Anderson's error, and scored on Irv Noren's single. Gene Freese and Wally Post of the Phils and Sam Taylor of the Cubs hit homers.

The N.L. rainout in San Francisco left the Giants leading the league by two games over both the Dodgers and the Braves.

Durocher, Lane Hold Talk

KANSAS CITY (AP)—General Manager Frank Lane was to decide today who is to manage the Cleveland Indians for the rest of this season now that Joe Gordon has resigned. Chances are he's already picked his man for next season—Leo Durocher.

★ ★ ★

Gordon, pestered in public print by Lane for a fortnight, called it quits yesterday before his second place Indians opened a three-game series with the Kansas City A's.

He was in the dugout as Cleveland whipped the A's 11-2 last night to keep their dim American League pennant hopes flickering, but whether he finishes the season, Gordon said, is up to Lane.

While Gordon was writing out his resignation, Lane and club vice

ONCE A SHELL — This trim white house with the blue roof and blue garage doors was once just a shell. The Alfredo Arces added the garage and a big bedroom to the starter home before they did the finish work. The exterior is cement block.

Pontiac Press Photos by Tom Gerlo

A fiberglas roof covers the front porch which has a pink tile floor. This tile was brought all the way from Mexico. The Arce home is on Maplecrest drive.

Background for LIVING

Your Neighbor's House

Arces Added Garage, Bedroom to Shell

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

How many people do you know with a bathroom and a front porch imported from Mexico? Mr. and Mrs. Alfredo S. Arce of Maplecrest drive have both.

Their house, when they bought it, was just a shell. Before finishing the interior, they added a garage and a huge bedroom. It was during this time that they took a pleasure trip to Mexico and brought back all the pink tile they later used in the bathroom and on the porch floor.

One of the neighbors told us about the Arce home. She told about the great improvement in the property after the Arces took over. After we had paid a visit, we could see what she meant.

Mrs. Arce is a small jolly person. With her own family grown, she has taken on the rewarding job of being a foster mother under the supervision of the local court. When we saw her this summer, she had three delightful charges, plus a niece who makes her home there, plus two visiting granddaughters from Georgia.

Quite a houseful. But everyone was happy. Harried mothers of two or three youngsters will appreciate the fact that the six children were all under the age of ten!

There is a real front hallway in this house, one where you come in and take off your coat. It's papered in pink with a leafy design on the paper.

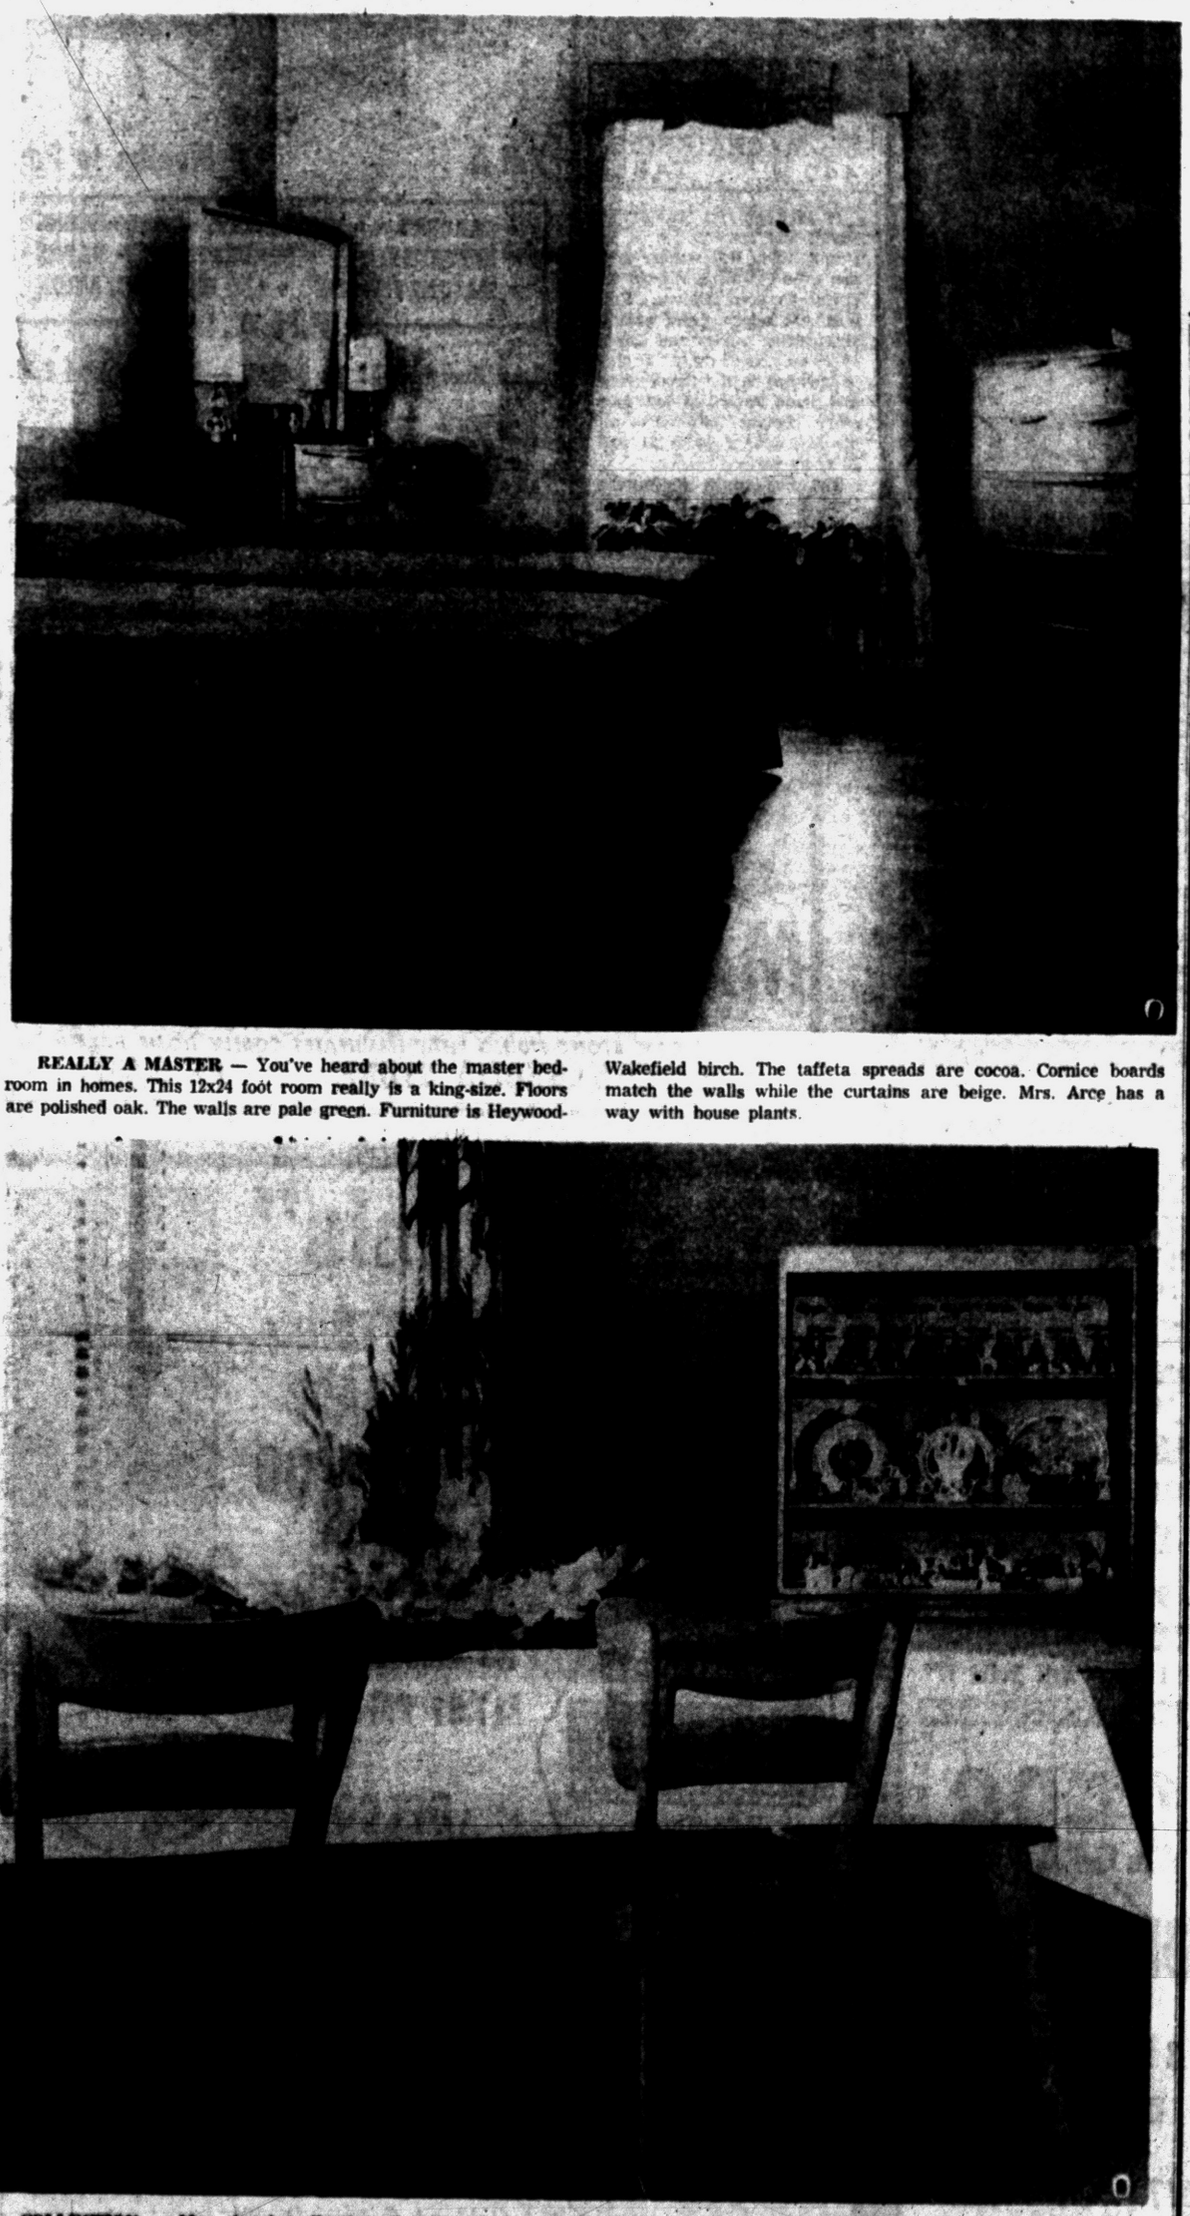

Through the living room, hallway and dining room there is beige and green tweed carpeting. Walls are cocoa and the ceiling shrimp (it looked pale pink to us). Figured draperies are beige with cocoa, chocolate, melon and chartreuse in the pattern. These same draperies serve in lieu of a door between living room and bedroom.

All the furniture is blonde Heywood - Wakefield. There is a sectional avocado sofa and a platform rocker in green. A round barrel chair is upholstered in green, black and gold. Mr. Arce's lounge chair is red leather.

REALLY A MASTER — You've heard about the master bedroom in homes. This 12x24 foot room really is a king-size. Floors are polished oak. The walls are pale green. Furniture is Heywood-Wakefield birch. The taffeta spreads are cocoa. Cornice boards match the walls while the curtains are beige. Mrs. Arce has a way with house plants.

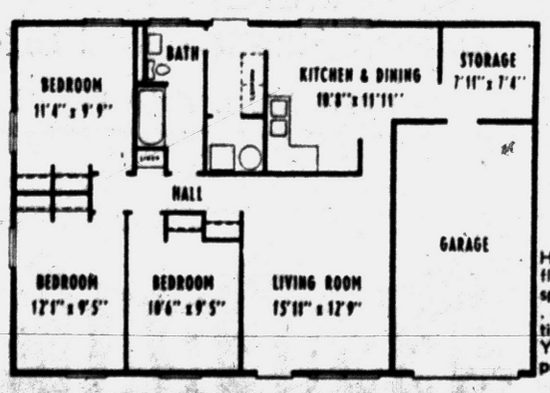

COLLECTION — Mrs. Arce's collection of salt and pepper shakers, gathered all over the world, holds the place of honor in the china cupboard at the right. The color scheme in the dining room is the same as in the living room — cocoa and green. Chairs are upholstered in avocado. Those flowers are from the Arce garden.

Lots of Good Reasons to Weatherstrip

★ ★ ★

Reason? According to the Weatherstrip Research Institute, there are several. Metal weatherstripping only costs about $100 to install in the average home and it effectively cuts fuel bills to make up that investment in about three years. And metal weatherstripping lasts for a long time. In fact, many 35 to 40-year-old buildings still have their original weatherstripping and it's working just as effectively.

★ ★ ★

Other reasons for the growing use of metal weatherstripping: it reduces annoying drafts; keeps out dirt, sand, soot, smoke, rain and snow; deadens street noises; and stops window rattling. For free folder on weatherstripping, write to L. G. Klee, Executive Secretary, Weatherstrip Research Institute, P.O. Box 128, Riverside, Ill.

Survey Made on Reasons People Move

In the last year, 36 million persons in the United States have moved to new locations. And housing studies show that another 36 million wanted to move but did not do so for one reason or another.

Why do people move? A home improvement authority, David Kennedy, has analyzed current migration trends and has come up with these seven prime reasons:

—Substandard housing.
—Overcrowded urban and suburban areas.
—Increased family income.
—Demolition, disaster or abandonment of existing dwellings.
—Retirement.

Those who move each year are about equally divided between those who settle within the same state and those who go to other states.

A notable characteristic of the migration picture is the tendency of people to live only on the average of six or seven years in the same home.

Put Washroom in Basement

A basement washroom? Why not? With the increasing use of the basement for recreation purposes, a washroom is a very practical idea.

A basement washroom is popular not only with the home hobbist, the man with a workshop, but is also used by the home gardener and is a convenience for the entire family coming back from the beach.

The basement washroom also serves as a mud room when there are small children in the family. It's a handy place for youngsters to wash up and change clothes.

The basement washroom should have a shower bath in addition to a water closet and lavatory. A medicine cabinet should be provided over the lavatory for the storage of soaps, brushes and shaving articles.

The walls and door should be painted a bright, cheerful color in a good washable paint. It is a good idea to apply a ring of dark-colored paint about the door knob. This will not show up dirty fingerprints like a lighter tone.

Usually specially selected old towels and wash cloths are reserved for use in the basement bathroom. A towel cupboard should be built for these.

Careful Consideration Precedes Home Deal

It also can be a top-notch investment. Government figures show that today a house kept in good condition actually increases in value year after year.

Here are some "do's" and "don't" to help house-hunting families in the purchase of a home that will give them years of comfort, pride, and satisfaction:

DO look the house over carefully from roof to foundation and inquire about the quality of building materials. If it has a roof of asphalt shingles, for example, you can be sure it will give good, long-lasting service.

DO be wary of sloppy construction. Chances are you won't be able to see much of the framework, but a careless plastering or masonry job often indicates poor quality of work throughout the house.

DO make sure the house is well insulated. Insufficient insulation or none at all will mean the loss of many heating dollars annually. Thick mineral wool insulation — at least 4 inches thick in the ceiling and 3 inches thick in walls—saves as much as 40 per cent a year in heating costs.

DO look carefully at wiring, plumbing, and heating equipment. These are the vital organs of any home, and a poor or inadequate installation can mean costly repairs, replacements, and additions.

DON'T neglect such important features as windows and doors. Not only are these vital to appearance inside and out, but can cause heat loss in winter if they are of poor quality. Quality windows of ponderosa pine add to good appearance and are weatherstripped to keep heat in and dust out. Wood sash and frames also contribute to heat savings.

Throw Out Old Shellac

Always use fresh shellac when coating with this material. It should never be stored longer than 4 months, and then stored only in a glass container in a cool, dark place. If its age is questionable, test it before using for clarity, luster, and drying time. Old shellac may cause discoloration of the surface to which it is applied.

GAS RESEARCH HOUSE — This model home, two years in the planning stage, is the result of research among prospective home buyers in the $40,000 class. The house is completely equipped with the newest gas heating, range, water heater, washer-dryer, refrigerator and incinerator. Built on several levels, the upper part contains a completely separate retirement apartment. In addition there are three more bedrooms. Participants in this Gas Research Home Presentation are Consumers Power Company, the Frankel Brothers and the American Gas Association. The model, open daily from 1 to 7, is located in Franklin Woods. Drive down Franklin road, ½ mile south of Maple to Pickering road. Turn left and follow the signs.

Carpet of Comfort

Pink, green, maroon and chartreuse confetti dots on the linoleum make it attractive and in keeping with the rest of the pink kitchen. Splash backs and counter tops are pink linen weave Formica. The sheer ruffled curtains are white with pink and green flowers.

As mentioned above, there is a large screened porch for the children at the back. The Arces have a flourishing garden that supplied them with fresh vegetables all summer. The chidren share two bedrooms.

The master bedroom should be called king-size. Closets extend all around one corner. There are drawers below and cupboards above. It's a dream room for any woman who has ever had to share a tiny closet with some one else.

In here the floors are polished oak. Sheer curtains are beige. The walls and valance boards are green. Cocoa quilted taffeta spreads cover the twin beds. Here, as elsewhere in the house, is a profusion of plants.

★ ★ ★

The exterior of the house is cement block, painted white. The roof and garage doors are blue. Mrs. Arce said that color was chosen for the garage because it matched their car. The front porch has a fibreglas roof over it. A strong, childproof fence surrounds the property. This gives Mrs. Arce peace of mind when the children are out playing.

Give Children Good Study Area

NEW YORK (UPI)—Desk tops for home study should be at least two feet by four feet in area and 25 to 30 inches from the floor, depending on the child's size.

The chair, straight-backed, should be high enough to bring the eyes 14 inches above the desk top. Lamps should be about two feet high with semi-direct lighting, a high-wattage bulb and a good-size shade.

Every part of your air conditioner has been covered with a chemical coating which protects it from moisture and consequent rust. Expert chemists in the paint, varnish and lacquer industry work constantly to perfect and improve coatings needed for practically everything we use in our daily lives.

Lots of Questions to Ask About Roofs

Many families who plan to build or buy a home fail to realize the importance of the roof to their comfort and security, as well as to the appearance and life of the house.

* * *

If you and your family are preparing to make an investment in a home, here are some questions to ask yourself (and your architect or builder) about the roof:

1. Does it have sufficient pitch to provide extra living space when you need it, or at least to provide space for storage or a future air conditioning system?

2. Is the roofing material a top quality type, such as asphalt shingles, that will insure years of trouble-free protection from all kinds of harsh weather?

3. Does the roof have a rich, textured appearance without harsh, annoying glare?

4. If the house is located in an area that is subject to high winds, does it have the new, specially wind-resistant asphalt shingles—the kind that stay in place during wind storms of even hurricane velocity?

5. Does the roof have a wide overhang to shade windows and side walls from hot summer sun, and to protect windows from rain and dirt?

6. Does it have color, such as one of the many shades of pastels and deep tones, that adds distinction to the entire house and provides a "key" color for sidewalls, trim, and other exterior features?

7. Was it properly applied? Does the roofing material lie flat and even, without ripples? Are hips, valleys, and ridges properly sealed to keep out moisture?

* * *

When you ask these questions, keep in mind that the roof takes more punishment from sun, wind, and weather than any other component. It has to be tough to give good protection. It also must look good, since the roof often is the widest visible area on a house.

* * *

DON'T forget to investigate taxes. If they seem low, it may be that a future need for schools, sewers, and other improvements may send taxes skyrocketing.

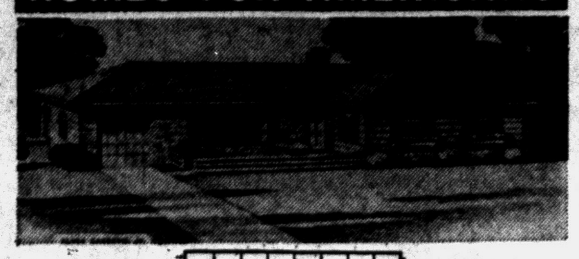

DON'T hesitate to look for a lower mortgage rate. Even ¼ per cent less interest adds up to hundreds of dollars saved over the yaars before a mortgage is paid off.

Investment in Insulation Gives Good Returns

Like to make a blue-chip investment that will bring a cash return of at least 14 per cent year after year?

Suppose your new home will have about 1,500 square feet of living space, and you decide to save money by skipping or skimping on insulation. If your house is in a central climate zone it will cost you about $30 per month to heat it during the five-month heating season — more in colder areas.

On the other hand, suppose you decide to install thick mineral wool — at least 4 inches in the ceiling and 3 inches in walls. Based on average national prices, it would cost about $350 to do this in your house.

Studies have shown that these thicknesses of mineral wool can cut your fuel bills by 30 to 40 per cent. This would amount to a reduction in your heating costs of between $9 and $12 per month. Using a conservative figure of $10 per month, this adds up to a savings of $50 per year —an annual return on your $350 investment of 14 per cent.

This continues as long as you live in the house, because mineral wool never wears out or needs maintenance. Meanwhile, the original investment stays in the house, increasing its resale value by at least $350.

A bonus is the fact that thick insulation provides more comfort, in winter, by helping to keep room temperatures even and stop cold drafts. In summer, it helps keep heat outside.

Owners of existing homes can take advantage of this same sort of investment by having mineral wool blown into walls and ceilings by a professional insulation contractor.

Putty Needs Replacing

It's good economy to periodically inspect all areas, especially around windows, where putty is used. Replacing portions that are loose or that have separated from the glass will forestall complete replacement and will guard against rust in metal or rot in wood sashes. A priming coat of paint should be applied to all places that are to be re-puttied.

Advertising Their Product

A big-as-life example of the advantages that double-pane insulating windows provide over single glazing in controlling indoor climate is being built in Toledo, O., for Libbey - Owens - Ford Glass Company.

It is the company's own 15-story office building which will will contain the largest units of Thermopane ever used for the entirety of a commercial building, according to Skidmore, Owings & Merrill, architects. Each window will be 6 by 10 feet, reaching from floor to ceiling.

The big window walls will compose the four sides of the skyscraper, affording daylighting advantages to all office workers. Although the building is being erected primarily for L-O-F administrative offices, five floors will be rented to outside tenants.

The one-inch Thermopane windows will provide insulation equal to an eight-inch concrete wall against winter's cold and summer's heat. Outer panes will consist of Parallel-O-Grey, a twin-ground plate glass of neutral color, that reduces solar glare and heat energy input. Parallel-O-Plate, regarded as "the hi-fi of plate glass," will compose the inner panes.

In designing homes, architects generally figure that by using Thermopane they can double the size of windows without adding to the heating or air conitioning loads. Like advantages are said to apply to commercial buildings.

Baseboard Heating Keeps Floors Warmer

Modern hot water baseboard heating panels have proved especially effective in warming cold floors and keeping them comfortable even during the most severe weather, a home heating research report from the University of Illinois has disclosed.

Baseboard panels distribute heat along the entire length of a wall at floor level rather than concentrate heat at one spot, notes the Better Heating-Cooling Council. Tests indicated this was a major factor in the baseboard panel's high "floor comfort rating."

RURAL CHARM — A covered front porch and garage set at an interesting angle, permitting drive to cross front entrance, are features of this eight-room farm-type ranch. It has four bedrooms, three baths and offers 1,867 square feet of habitable space.

FLOOR PLAN — Living and dining rooms in X-76 are in the center of the house but completely out of routine traffic paths. Note also the abundance of closets.

This Spacious Home Worth Budgeting For

This house is for people who have been scrimping along with less space than they need, knowing what they want in a home but not being able to find it.

It's not an economy model. But if the budget can be stretched to meet the building bill this is certain: you will have a home offering comfort, convenience and glamour.

The house has eight rooms, with three or four bedrooms, three baths, sunken living room, breezeway and covered porches in front and rear.

The plan, X-76 in the House of the Week series of distinguished homes, was designed by Architect Rudolph A. Matern to bring graceful rural charm to a wide lot in the suburbs or an even larger piece of property in the country.

TRAFFIC-FREE LIVING ROOM

A big wide foyer at the front entrance and an open plan kitchen and family room in the service area are the keys to excellent circulation. The living room, one step down from the rest of the house and running front to rear instead of side to side, is in the center of everything but wonderfully isolated from idle traffic.

X-76 has a fireplace centered on a long wood paneled wall, a wide window overlooking a porch and the rear yard. A Japanese wood grille and stylish roped planter add a dramatic touch.

Three bedrooms in the left wing are zoned for complete privacy but are easily accessible through the wide foyer hall. There are two baths in this section, one luxuriously large with wrap-around vanity top and dual lavatories.

The master bedroom is oversize and has a private bath. It's closet hall can double as a dressing room. A door leads from the bedroom to the rear porch.

A fourth bedroom is available if the small room at the other end of the house is not used as den or office. The bath near the two side entrances would serve this bedroom.

The large family room at the front of the house connects directly to the kitchen across the breakfast and lunch bar. Large closets provide plenty of storage for toys and games.

Relation of kitchen, family room and dining room bears close examination. There's perfect visibility from kitchen to family room so mother can easily supervise children's activities.

A solid wall shields the kitchen from the adjoining formal dining room, however, so that the work area can be completely closed off when guests are being entertained.

A utility room leads from the efficient kitchen to the basement stairs and doors to both side and back of the house. There's space for washer, dryer and storage.

An added feature in this rear corner of the house, if desired, is a hothouse. Homeowners without green thumbs could eliminate the space by extending the rear porch.

One of the special features is the attractively angled garage wing, which gives an interesting shape to the breezeway and makes possible a driveway passing the front entrance. Breezeway roof is pierced to allow a shaft of sunlight or moonlight to illuminate garden plot below.

There are 18 closets and cabinets in the house, not counting kitchen storage, and more storage space in the garage.

The architect calls for stone veneer on the exterior of the bedroom wing and hand-split wood shakes on the balance.

The habitable area of X-76 is 1,867 square feet excluding hothouse and garage. Overall length is 94'7" and depth is 42'9". The design would require a lot of approximately 115 by 100.

Must Allow Moisture to Escape From House

Everytime you turn on a water faucet or gas under a coffee pot you release moisture into the air. In fact, with every breathe you take, a small amount of vapor is sent out into the space you occupy. Moisture can ruin even the most expensive paint jobs, but with a little thoughtfulness, you can do much toward its control.

★ ★ ★

Check radiators for leaks, install vents over gas appliances, repair all leaky plumbing, make sure there is adequate ventilation in areas that are exposed to moisture, and make sure moisture has a way to escape in rooms used for drying laundry and the like.

Bathroom Laundry Can Be Convenient

A half-bath off the kitchen is a convenient spot for a washer and dryer. This location is close to the kitchen, but still in a separate area.

The walls of the half-bath should be paneled with a moisture-resistant paneling to withstand the high-humidity conditions that are common to laundry areas. Plastic-surfaced hardboard, which is available at lumber dealers in a variety of pleasant colors and patterns, can be damp-wiped clean. It never requires painting or refinishing.

File Will Do Job

When scraping softened paint from a wooden surface, you will have the problem of keeping your scraping tool clean. Force a file into a hole drilled into the side of a ladder and use this to scrape off excess paint from your tool.

And like any job, making a success of it takes all the concentration you can give. In driving, a one-track mind pays big dividends. When your troubles get the upper hand, you're heading for an accident! Last year, 37,000 people died in traffic accidents. Many were killed by drivers who let their minds wander from the business at hand. Distraction can lead to destruction—for yourself or others. Stay alert and you'll stay alive!

Manslaughter Count Looms After Hazing

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Some Kappa Sigma fraternity members may be charged with manslaughter in the death of a University of Southern California student who choked to death during initiation.

This was announced Friday by Dist. Atty. William B. McKesson.

An inquest into the death of Richard Swanson, 21, will be held Tuesday.

Top-Killer Intersection Will Get a Face Lifting

LANSING (AP) — For safety's sake, Michigan's "No. 1 killer" intersection will get a complete facelifting, the state highway department said today.

Bids will be taken Oct. 7 on a half-million-dollar interchange of partial cloverleaf design to be built at the junction of U.S. 112 and M60 bypass southeast of Niles.

The top-killer tag was hung on the intersection when a highway department survey showed three persons were killed and 77 injured in traffic accidents there in 1957 and 1958. It was rated the most dangerous on the state's 9,300 miles of trunklines.

Completion of the project is scheduled for Oct. 31, 1960.

Rep. Griffin to Speak to Tourist Association

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Rep. Robert P. Griffin (R-Mich) is scheduled as principal speaker Oct. 8 in Grand Rapids at the annual banquet of the West Michigan Tourist Assn.

"A New Era in Labor-Management Relations" is the topic chosen by the Traverse City lawmaker who is co-sponsor of the Landrum-Griffin Labor Bill.

Parking on Routes Will Soon Be Rare

SAULT STE. MARIE (UPI) — On-street parking on state trunklines in major cities "will soon be as rare as wooden Indians, high-button shoes, and the five-cent cigar," Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said Friday.

Mackie said the merchant "is far less dependent on the parking spaces outside his front door than he realizes."

The highway chief, in remarks prepared for delivery before the Michigan Society of Planning Officials, said removal of parked cars from streets will increase the street's capacity and facilitate traffic flow, along with eliminating a major traffic hazard.

Rebels in Laos Still Attacking

Loyal Troops Said to Have Repulsed Reds but Details Scanty

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI)—Communist rebel forces threw new punches at government positions in one area of Northern Laos but slackened off pressure in another, chief of staff Gen. Ouane Rathikone said today.

Rathikone said the rebels hit at the town of Phongsaly and the villages of Muong Nogi and Muong Ek, in Phongsaly Province about 30 miles from the border with Communist North Vietnam and southwest of Dienbienphu.

All attacks were believed to have been repulsed by the loyal garrisons, he said. The actions occurred within the past two days, Rathikone added but precise dates and other details were unavailable because of poor communications.

The reported stepup in Communist activities in Phongsaly Province coincided with reports of a relaxation of Red pressure on the fortress town of Sam Teu in Samneua Province. Government troops using jungle-style tactics have been waging a see-saw battle for the town for a week. The latest reports indicated that the loyal forces were holding firm.

The four-man United Nations fact-finders spent yesterday studying maps and military reports on attacks which the Laotian government contends involved North Viet Namese troops.

Construction Outlay Half That Needed

LANSING (UP)—Less than half of the money needed has been appropriated for 170 million dollars in new state constructon approved by the legislature, James W. Miller state controller, reported today.

In a semi-annual report on the status of major capital outlay projects, Miller said $81,500,000 has been authorized for a start on a total of 224 projects. Almost $88,500,000 more needs to be appropriated to complete the projects, he said.

In addition, he said, $385,000 has been appropriated for planning of seven other projects which would cost a total of 30 million dollars.

Eddie, Liz Happy on Return to Hollywood

They will go soon to Las Vegas, Nev., where Fisher has a singing engagement. They were married there last May 13.

Higbie Firm President Reports Big Sales Hike

Carlton M. Higbie Jr., president of the Higbie Manufacturing Company in Rochester, reports a better than one million dollar increase in net sales this year over last. Net sales for the 1958 fiscal year were $6,015,917.

Net sales for the 1959 fiscal year totaled $7,747,724. Net earnings more than doubled from $592,689 in '59 over $261,411 last year.

Sues 2 in Track Theft

MONTREAL (AP) — Canadian National Railways are seeking $30,265 from two men involved in stealing two miles of track. Jean Paul Boisjoly, convicted of stealing a spur line, and Xavier Lange, 35, a scrap dealer who bought it, were named in the damages suit filed by the railroad Friday in Superior Court.

A graveside military service will be held for the World War I veteran at the Mt. Avon Cemetery.

Sheet Metal Day Shift Wins

GMC Firefighters Vie

If you work on the day shift at the GMC Truck and Coach Sheet Metal Plant, your chances of ever seeing a fire in the plant are very slim.

★ ★ ★

This was proven by the day shift fire brigade from Sheet Metal at the Truck and Coach Annual Fire Brigade Contest Thursday at the GMC Athletic Field on Opdyke road.

The brigade rolled up 31 points and a victory in both firefighting and the water battle for the second straight year.

It was the third time the sheet metal brigade had won first place. In second place was the Coach Department day shift team.

Third place went to West Side Plant day shift. Fourth and fifth respectively were teams from the Truck Department day shift and Sheet Mtal Plant second shift.

There were seven events using soda & acid extinguishers, water type, five-pound and twenty-pound carbon dioxide, four-pound and 20-pound dry chemical, and foam type extinguishers.

The annual contests are designed to stimulate team spirit, individual initiative, competition between the brigades and thus increase and maintain a high level of fire safety and firefighting efficiency at GMC Truck and Coach.

Pontiac Truck Driver Cited for Safe Record

Joseph S. Dentici, 46, of 2205 Kohler St., was presented a $50 check, shoulder patch and billfold cards from MTA and a certificate of achievement from American Trucking Associations, Inc.

★ ★ ★

Dentici is employed by the F. J. Boutell Driveway Co., Inc., Flint, an automobile transporter. He has driven safely, except for one minor, non-chargeable accident, more than 492,220 miles in 12 and a half years. He is married and has two children.

Business Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Annett and the following representatives of Roy Annett, Inc., local Realtors, are attending the Michigan Real Estate Convention at Mackinaw Island: Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Knechtel, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenn Loomis. Mr. Annett is appearing on one of the panels at the convention.

Every state in the Union will be represented at the convention, with Canada and a number of foreign countries in addition.

Pohl is also chairman of a committee on the General Agents and Managers Study Course. This course has been conducted in 25 states and shortly will include all of the states in the United States.

County to Teach Communism?

Supervisors to Hear Explanation of Civil Defense Course

Nikita Khrushchev's communism —and whether it should be taught in a civil defense training course in Oakland County—might stir some comments among the Board of Supervisors Monday.

They'll learn then why a two-hour psychological warfare course in communism has been made a part of a 12-week medical emergency course being carried on now in nine cities. It is under the direction of the Civil Defense and Health Departments.

The explanation is forthcoming after Southfield Supervisor Donald L. Swanson in May criticized the appearance of former Congressman Kit Clardy, who served on the communist-hunting Un-American Activities Committee to kickoff for the course.

Swanson, a Democrat, accused Clardy of being "the epitome of McCarthyism," with reference to the late Wisconsin senator's anti-Red crusades. He was afraid communism was about to be taught in Oakland County under the auspices of a county department.

Mrs. Marie L. Rodriguez, training director for the Health Department who has prepared an outline on the purpose of the communism course, said it was by pure coincidence that a report is being made during Khrushchev's visit to the United States.

In a letter to all supervisors, Mrs. Rodriguez said, "We must guard against subversion, but encourage rather than discourage contacts with the Soviet Union and its satellites . . . remembering that our faith in the exchange of ideas is our strength."

Justice Reduces Loitering Fines in Gambling Raid

The Oakland County Sheriff's Dept. announced today that the 30 persons arrested Aug. 30 in a gambling raid on an alleged gambling establishment, Green Acres Farm, 13269 Dixie Hwy., Groveland Township, said they will not carry an appeal to Oakland County Circuit Court of a previous $40 fine.

When arraigned before Stamp on Aug. 31 the group of 33 pleaded guilty and then 30 appealed the $40 fine plus $10 costs. Stamp has agreed to lower the fine to $25 plus $10 costs, according to deputies working on the case.

They will have until Sept. 28 to pay or be jailed for 10 days. Most of them were Flint residents. There were no Pontiac people involved.

4 Sue Flint Hospital for 'Burning' Children

FLINT (AP)—A half-million dollars in damage suits have been filed against St. Joseph Hospital by two couples who claim their children suffered burns during treatment.

The suits, each totaling $250,000 were filed Thursday by Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Perkins and Mr. and Mrs. Burt Miller, both of Flint.

For Good Education

American Textbooks Best in the World... Use Them

By DR. BENJAMIN FINE and LILLIAN FINE

Thus does Young America often inscribe its textbooks. Except for textbook salesmen and editors, it is hard to find anyone who has a good word for textbooks.

Yet thousands of classes the textbook is the heart of the course. It helps many a bright youngster learn in spite of incompetent teachers.

It provides continuity when instruction is interrupted by changes in teachers or emergency closing of schools. It gives form and meaning to many vague, rather disorganized courses.

GET OUT OF DATE

Schools cannot and will not pay high prices for textbooks. Only about two cents out of every dollar spent for education goes for textbooks and printed teaching materials!

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

They deal with school boards and school officials who are likewise cautious and conservative. For this and other reasons, textbooks tend to be conservative and to change slowly. This point is stressed because of recent attacks on textbooks by superpatriotic groups.

Not that American textbooks are perfect or anywhere near it. They tend to go out of date faster than they can profitably be written and manufactured.

When a publisher gets a book or series selling well, he seems reluctant to make changes. This is not true of all publishers, of course. On the high school and college levels, mistakes are likely to bring a good many letters from teachers and even students, so the publisher usually tries to "plate patch" or correct minor mistakes in the next printing.

Some of the most widely used high school textbooks today contain misinterpetations that were exposed more than 30 years ago. In the social studies particularly we cannot afford to let children go on using textbooks 10 or more years old.

Do your children have access to supplementary books? Do they have a well - stocked school library? It is hard to get money for these items in many localities. Parental pressure can be helpful in persuading a board of education to grant money for them.

No parent or parents' group is qualified to choose or reject textbooks. This is a job for educators and subject-matter experts. They should choose textbooks after considerable thought and discussion and a thorough examination of competing books. In many states, a state commission chooses three or four textbooks, any one of which is acceptable for use.

Most of these state commissions do a thorough, conscientious job, but there is often a possibility of undue influence being brought to bear on individual members of the commission.

School boards and administrators have a favorite "economy" they are seldom willing to provide money for additional teaching materials to supplement textbooks.

Most publishers provide one or more forms of an objective test to be used with a textbook. They usually offer attractive workbooks. The quality of these tests and workbooks varies, but on the whole the material is much superior to the average teacher-made assignments.

Some publishers prepare a set of films to accompany a textbook, or suggest recordings to be used in connection with the teaching of certain units. Where the teaching staff is inexperienced or changing frequently, the combination of a text-book and workbook can give a student a grasp of a subject's essentials.

How many teachers use these modern aids? The volume of sales and inquiries indicates the number is very few. In fact, many teachers seem completely unaware that such teaching aids exist.

TEACHERS NEED HELP

How can instructors be ignorant of the wealth of teaching aids prepared for them my master teachers and available at small cost? Few people realize how isolated the average teacher is in her classroom.

Textbook salesmen are often not permitted to visit her except after school. She has little chance to talk shop with anybody except the teachers in her own school or with her supervisor.

School boards are often willing to appropriate money for administrators to attend educational conferences but seldom will grant classroom teachers the privilege.

In a few communities, parent organizations have financed "scholarships" to permit classroom teachers to attend educational conferences. Sometimes teachers are asked to tell a service club of PTA what new developments they learned about at a conference or summer session. These are all effective ways of encouraging teachers to be active in professional organizations.

Anything a community or a parent can do to upgrade teaching, and ecourage professional interest seems worth doing. In the long run it is the children who will benefit from the teachers' increased knowledge and improved techniques.

You can help your children by showing an interest in their textbooks and going through a book with them page by page. Encourage them to read the introduction to a chapter and to watch for side heads.

The chapter and unit summaries are another feature that boys and girls are likely to overlook unless someone shows them how helpfully they review and condense the material.
