

Mothers' March Brings $89,000

Door to Door Canvass for Polio Campaign Lauded by Leader

Approximately $89,000 was collected in Pontiac and Oakland County last night during the one-hour Mothers' March on Polio. Some 10,000 mothers and quite a few fathers turned out throughout Pontiac and in almost every community and township in the county.

At 8:30 p.m., National Guardsmen began picking up the sacks of money from captains of Pontiac's 30 districts. The collections were taken directly to the Huron street branch of Community National Bank where tellers had volunteered to stay late to accept deposits. Junior Chamber of Commerce members helped with the collections and paraded dark areas to insure the mothers' safety.

Pontiac's total collection was $5,915. The Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills area reported $25,230.

"The mothers did a wonderful job," said Mrs. Ruth Marshall, executive secretary of the Oakland County Chapter, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. "We've topped last year's total of $64,334 for the county by $5,000, and scattered returns are still coming in." Half the money collected will be used directly to aid Oakland County polio victims, Mrs. Marshall said. The other 50 per cent will be sent to New York headquarters for research, equipment, education, aid and professional education. In the event of need, Oakland County has the right to call on the New York office for funds, she said.

Reuther Joins Hassle Over Desegregation

DETROIT (U.S.)—Walter P. Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, has asked President Eisenhower and Attorney General Brownell whether "they now have authority to deny federal funds to states or school districts which are in defiance of the Supreme Court non-segregation ruling."

"In the absence of such a clarifying statement," the union chief said, "the UAW will urge the enactment of legislation providing specific safeguards against federal funds for education being used in violation of the Supreme Court decision."

Reuther's demand was included in a statement issued in Detroit yesterday.

He said that an anti-segregation rider to a federal school aid bill pending in Congress would be unnecessary if the President and attorney general said government agencies could allocate federal funds only to states or districts that comply with the Supreme Court's non-segregation decree.

Driver Blames Brakes as Auto Rams House

A 23-year-old woman whose car struck a house at 305 N. Perry St. last night, blamed defective brakes, Pontiac Police said.

Patricia A. Girard, of 403 N. Saginaw St., said her brakes failed "completely" as she approached a red light at the corner of N. Perry and Howard Sts.

She said she swerved to avoid cars stopped at the light, crossed Perry St. against the light, went over the curb and ran into the house.

She was released after treatment for minor injuries, Pontiac General Hospital authorities said.

Newsman Reports Beck Loaning $500,000 to ILA

DETROIT (U.S.)—The Detroit Free Press, in a dispatch from Edwin A. Lahey, chief Washington correspondent for Knight Newspapers, said today "Dave Beck (AFL-CIO) teamsters Union is expected to announce soon a $500,000 loan to the independent International Longshoremen's Assn. (ILA)."

"This loan," Lahey said, "will be made through the Eastern Conference of Teamsters in New York."

He described it as "the first big step in an ambitious plan to give the teamsters control of the docks in the United States," and added:

"The power of the Teamsters now extends to the loading platforms outside the docks... if the Teamsters can extend their jurisdiction to the water's edge, an elaborate dream of Beck and his most active lieutenant, Jimmy Hoffa, of Detroit, will become a reality."

"The $500,000 loan, which has been approved but not officially announced, will raise some hackles among Dave Beck's associates on the executive council of the AFL-CIO, who are gathering for their winter meeting at Miami Beach Feb. 6."

Beck will not only be working both sides of the street, but will be betting against his own parent organization.

"The Maritime Trades Department of the AFL-CIO, with which Beck's teamsters are affiliated, plans to spend $100,000 this fall in another election campaign to destroy the ILA, which had been kicked out of the AFL as incurably corrupt."

TV Dealers, Repairmen Face Detroit Ordinance

DETROIT (U.S.)—Detroit Common Council has indicated it will approve an ordinance to regulate television dealers and repairmen.

A council resolution said regulation was necessary because of "great abuses in the selling and servicing of television sets."

Councilmen will act on the proposed ordinance Tuesday.

Say Red Letter Offers Non-War

Officials' Rumors Rise; George Thinks Soviets Don't Want to Fight

WASHINGTON (INS)—Diplomatic sources in Washington speculated today that Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin has proposed a U. S. - Russian non-aggression pact to President Eisenhower.

It was thought that either a non-aggression agreement or a less-limiting treaty of friendship was the main point in the secret message handed President Eisenhower on Wednesday by Soviet Ambassador Gorgi Zarouhin.

The sources believed the Kremlin was trying to pick up the threat of the "Spirit of Geneva" again.

The rumor took on momentum in foreign policy circles as a result of the heavy lid of secrecy clamped on the message by both the U. S. and Russian governments.

Sources pointed out, however, that the White House had said Bulganin advanced "ideas" for promoting world peace and reasoned that the next basic move agreement barring war between the U. S. and the Soviet Union.

Their logic was bolstered by Senate Foreign Relations Committee Chairman Walter G. George who commented that the letter from the Kremlin sounded like a bid for a "shooting war now."

The Georgia Democrat, who first urged last summer's Big Four talks at Geneva, said in an interview: "Russia has not changed her strategy since Geneva—she has just changed tactics. But I don't think Russia wants a shooting war now."

Ike's Companion Thornton Thinks He'll Win '56

LOS ANGELES (INS)—Dan Thornton, a golfing and fishing companion of President Eisenhower, predicts that the chief executive will run for re-election and win decisively.

Thornton, former governor of Colorado, said at a news conference in Los Angeles that it was "my personal opinion" that Eisenhower will be a candidate this year.

He also predicted that the President will be the unanimously selected Republican candidate and will win hands down, carrying two more states—in the South—than he did in 1952.

Thornton declared: "I saw the President around the holidays and he looked fine. It is my personal opinion that he will be a candidate. As a matter of fact, I think it would be bad for the President if he didn't."

"A man as active as he has been all his life can't stop. If he did, it probably would hurt him more."

Non-Medical Therapy on Mental Cases OK

LANSING (U.S.)—Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh held today that social workers, psychologists and similar technicians practicing non-medical therapy on mental patients are not violating the medical practices law.

The opinion was requested by Rep. Raymond D. Dzendzel (D-Detroit), who said that mental treatment was being handicapped by a 1933 attorney general's opinion that only physicians can practice "psychotherapeutics."

Kavanagh said that this opinion is correct insofar as it deals with one who attempts to cure physical ailments by emotional treatments.

But, he held, the practice of psychology does not conflict with the medical practice act and that any violations alleged against a psychologist would have to be determined by the facts in each individual case.

The Day in Birmingham Town Hall Speaker Tells of Famed Gump Store

BIRMINGHAM—Flexibility of craftsmen around the world can lead to beautiful, useful items for the American market, Richard Gump told his Town Hall audience yesterday and today in morning talks in the Birmingham Theater.

Some natives as those in Kashmir making papier-mache, "put all sorts of horrible things" on their product. "It's another way of thinking, of their wanting more and more design."

But good taste doesn't include such items as the intricately carved deer's head with light fixtures on its horns. Gump told how the famed Gump's store directs these craftsmen to create a modern marketable product.

Venetian glass is made in any design the firm asks rather than in limited production lines in large U.S. firms, he said.

Saris from India are made into dresses from patterns cut by Gump's head designer in high style. Elaborate gold, silver, and jeweled brocades are made into evening bags. Elegance of these items was shown in full color slides which included scenes of the lands as well as craftsmen at work.

Elton Park skating rink, expected to open soon, will be directed by Robert Fawcett, who this week released rules.

It will be open from 1:30 to 5:30 and 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. weekdays and until 10:30 p.m. Friday. Saturday hours are 9 to 11:30 a.m., 12:30 to 2:30, 3 to 5:30, 7 to 9, and 9 to 11 p.m. Sunday morning and afternoon hours are the same, with mornings reserved for organized hockey. Sunday evening the rink will be open from 6 to 8 and 8 to 10 p.m.

Children under 18 will pay 15 cents to skate before 5:30, and 25 cents evenings, Saturdays and Sundays. Adults will pay 50 cents at all times.

Bins for shoes and other wear are provided under four warming room benches, and in steel cabinets around the shelter roof walls.

A fireplace, ticket selling and concession facilities, are in the shelter room. Soft drinks, coffee, hot dogs, hot chocolate and candy will be available on opening day, with hamburgers and hot sandwiches coming later.

"Coal can be burned without being a nuisance," says Building Inspector Tom Eiken, who is warning local individuals whose chimneys emit too much smoke to comply with the city's ordinance.

He offers assistance in showing persons how to operate the furnaces, so that his tests read not more than "No. 3" on the Ringelman chart (a light shade of gray) for six minutes in any hour. A shade darker is permitted for under three minutes in a 15 minute period when the fire is being fixed.

Some of the city's worst smoke-makers have converted to gas, Brien says.

County Road Needs Above Average, Panel Discussion of Experts Reveals

A panel of experts, assembled by the Oakland County Plan Commission, has pointed out the serious situation Oakland finds itself in which threatens to deprive this area of funds needed to build adequate secondary roads.

Participating in a round table with commission members were Prof. John Kohl, chairman of the University of Michigan's Transportation Institute; Prof. H. H. Frisinger, of the University of Toledo; and Dr. Robert H. Pealy, of the U. of M.'s Institute of Public Administration.

The men reviewed the highway-financing picture at federal, state and local levels.

They discussed a highway financing plan designed for Michigan by Richard M. Zettel, an economist hired by the State Legislature.

Oakland road needs are "considerably higher" than comparable counties, said Zettel, "and because of rapidly accumulating traffic deficiencies in recent years, any formula that applies fairly well to all other counties . . . leaves Oakland with a large surplus of needs" over incoming money.

Zettel recommended a formula which would provide other counties with sufficient funds to bring roads up to standard within 15 years. However, it would leave Oakland $64,500,000 short at end of the 15-year span.

"Oakland County is caught in a box," said Commissioner Member Richard L. Ware. "Major state and federal roads are overcrowded, pushing traffic off onto local roads making them handicapped. And now we find the state's latest financing plan will leave us worse off as far as local road construction is concerned, than before."

Prof. Frisinger said the situation should be relieved slightly by forthcoming expansion of federal and state trunklines allowing them to carry some traffic now using local roads.

"But, in order to make certain Oakland doesn't lose out under the state setup I would recommend you make a special study yourself and present a plan for remedying the situation to the Legislature."

The experts suggested it would also help if some major roads now under County Road Commission jurisdiction could be reclassified as state trunklines.

"Then the state would assume the financial obligations required to see them expanded," said Prof. Kohl.

Kohl also suggested the county study ways to increase road building revenues collected and retained at the local level.

"I don't think you could obtain much more from the property tax," Dr. Pealy stated. "You probably would have to look elsewhere."

Windshield Saves Driver as Bullets Fly in Dispute

GEORGETOWN, Ky., Jan. 26 — There, but for the grace of his windshield, went William D. Clark.

Police Chief Donald Vanardall said Clark, 34, was shot at twice, but that the .25-caliber bullets spent their force going through the windshield.

One bullet hit Clark in the forehead, the other in the lip, but they only made dents.

Ernest Lee Estep, 24, was charged with shooting and wounding and carrying a concealed deadly weapon. Vanardall said Estep apparently shot at Clark after a dispute over Clark's ex-wife.

City's Growth Indicated by New High in Permits

The high rate of home building in Pontiac is evidenced by the fact that a record number of 3,116 electrical permits and inspections were recorded last year by the city electrical department.

John W. Emerson, superintendent of the department, said last year's high showed an approximate high of 2,852 set in 1934.

five traffic signals in 1935 and removed one from East Boulevard and Ferry streets. Signals were placed at Walton - Telegraph, Bagley-Orchard Lake, Columbus-University and Case and Johnson.

Fifty-five overhead residential street lights were installed in areas where considerable home construction had occurred. In addition, an experimental group of fluorescent lights were placed on Park and Pike streets bordering the City Hall site.

Last year Emerson was assigned the duty of coordinating the activity of various inspectors in dealing with substandard housing in the city and presently has 41 cases involving about 100 dwelling units in the process of correction.

In addition to the department's annual maintenance of parking meters, it completed the installation of lighting for two municipal parking lots.

Not so, a survey found, only 16 per cent of Austrians polled drank wine, while 25 per cent drank beer. The rest preferred a variety of other alcoholic or nonalcoholic beverages.

Water Tower to Rise at Milford

To Be Second for Village

350,000 Gallon Unit to Be Built Soon on South Side of Town

MILFORD — A new 350,000 gallon water tower will be built on the south side of Milford in the near future.

To be located on the west side of main street, the new tower will have an elevation of 1,022 feet, thus balancing the present 150,000 gallon tower on Summit Street.

Plans and cost of construction was estimated at $27,000 by the firm of Hubbell, Roth and Clark, who met with the Village Council recently. The company also submitted an estimate of $15,000 as the cost of an eight-inch main to connect the Huron Street line with the new reservoir.

The Company Realty Co., developing a 125-acre plot on the south side of the village, has agreed to donate the site for the tower and will stand the cost of building the eight-inch main from Main Street to the tower.

After the reservoir is built, it will be financed by the issuing of revenue bonds. All plans and final agreements on the building site will be presented at the next council meeting, according to Bart Smith, village president.

Petitions for System in Farmington Township Continues

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — A mass meeting called by the Farmington Township water development committee in the Junior High School last night brought about 150 persons to hear the committee report on petitioning in the dry areas.

Dr. Joseph Gadbaw, township health officer and chairman of the committee, opened the meeting with a statement, "We people who live in the Farmington area are lucky — lucky because we haven't had a case of typhoid or a typhoid carrier. We haven't had it yet," he said, "but we may, we're just ripe for it." He pointed out the advantages of a water system in terms of fire protection, health, convenience, lower insurance rates, etc.

He stated that there has been considerable opposition to the proposed water system because of "groundless fears" of residents in the north end of the township that they will lose their water supply when wells are drilled to supply the dry area.

Lawrence Pate, of Pate and Hinn, Detroit engineers who surveyed the area and laid out a plan for the proposed system, stated that wells are considered only a temporary supply, that it is expected that another source can be found within the next few years.

He cited proposed projects to bring water from Port Huron. "In any case," he said, "no water system will be built until a source of supply is determined, developed, assured and adequate."

Area captains reported that petitioning has gone well in most areas with several subdivisions well above the 65 per cent required signatures, others are partially complete, a few not yet started.

Dr. Gadbaw told of a proposal by Senator William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak), of a $200,000 revolving fund to help counties near Detroit build pipe lines for water supplies.

"Someone is thinking about our problem," Gadbaw said. "I want you to go home and think how you would get along without water. We give to charity, various causes and to our churches — can't we do just a little bit more for our neighbors?"

World Famous Pair to Perform Feb. 1 Concert Stars to Appear at Waterford

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Luboshutz and Nemenoff, duopianists and concert stars of three continents, will appear in concert Wednesday, at 8:15 p.m. at the Isaac E. Cray Junior High School auditorium.

Ranked among the most popular musical teams on the concert stage, Pierre Luboshutz and Genia Nemenoff represent one of the most successful musical marriages.

The vivacious Mrs. Luboshutz, who is Russian by birth, met her husband when both were building up impressive reputations as solo pianists in Paris and the pair quickly rose to fame among the musically elite on the continent in the years before World War II.

In the U. S., they have appeared as soloists with every leading American orchestra and play an average of 80 engagements annually from coast-to-coast. They are currently celebrating their twentieth year as U. S. concert figures.

Returning to Europe in 1932 after a dozen years' absence, Luboshutz and Nemenoff enjoyed a resounding success throughout the Continent.

Kim Keeps Balance in Quick Rise to Fame

NEW YORK (U-P)—Will success spoil Kim Novak? The 22-year-old blonde landed in Hollywood two years ago, months ago virtually unknown except to her family and a few close friends.

BIG BUILDUP
Since then she has been in six films. The Hollywood dambusters have given her one of the most massive buildups since Marilyn Monroe tip-toed off a calendar to fame.

But even her old Sunday school teacher could hardly complain that Kim—who combines the flawless beauty of Grace Kelly with the sultry charm of Monroe—has let her quick stardom go to her head. Miss Novak still talks with the down-to-earth common sense of the proverbial "girl next door." She looks pretty much like the girl next door, too—that is, if the girl next door rinsed her hair in a lavender tint and felt a bit crowded in a 37½-size sweater.

LIKES TO WALK
One way Kim has kept her feet on the ground is by walking.

Trucks Submits Infirmary Bill

Measure Will Authorize County Supervisors to Relocate Institutions

LANSING (U-P)—Rep. Kenneth O. Trucks (R-Baldwin) has introduced a bill which would permit county boards of supervisors to move an infirmary from one location to another without the consent of the Legislature.

The measure stems from a Mason County dispute over the location of a convalescent home there.

Trucks introduced his bill to counteract a Supreme Court decision which held that the county boards did not have this power.

"The Supreme Court opinion," Trucks said, "cited the previous law withholding from the Board of Supervisors the power to change the site of a county infirmary where such infirmary has been previously established, is based entirely on the construing of the word 'erected' as not necessarily meaning the same as 'built' or 'constructed.' To me, this is a very fine hairline distinction and one which should be broadened."

"Certainly, the County Board of Supervisors, which has the problem of financing supervising and operating our county infirmaries should be the proper authority to determine their location if we are to follow the simple precepts of good government and the democratic principle of home rule."

Put $50 Value on 250 Page Peron Memoir

PANAMA (U-P)—Ex-Argentine President Juan D. Peron's memoir "Force Is the Right of Beasts" is worth $50—for the paper and typing of one 250-page copy of the manuscript, that is.

Dist. Atty. Antonio Deleon said appraisers put that valuation on the work as part of his investigation of an embezzlement complaint involving the book.

He added that no attempt was made to place a commercial or intellectual value on the work—dealing with the ex-dictator's 10 years in office—but Peron can have that value added in by submitting any offers he's had from publishing houses.

Peron filed a complaint early this month charging that Florencio Avila Sanchez, a Mexican attorney, had embezzled a copy of the manuscript. Avila Sanchez countered that Peron had authorized him to register the book in Mexico and he had mailed it there for that purpose. Avila Sanchez also threatened to sue Peron for slander.

"I love walking," she said, during a visit here to attend the premiere of her latest opus, "Picnic," which is based on the Broadway play of the same name.

"I live only three blocks from the studio, so I walk to work. I stay in a home with 97 other girls (it's an affiliate of the YWCA) who are trying to get a break in Hollywood."

"My parents wanted me to stay there. They felt I'd be safer."

"I pay $19.50 a week for a room and two meals a day, and the room is about the size of the bathroom in the hotel suite the studio has put me up in here."

MODEL AT 15
Kim started modeling at 12 and along the way also worked in a Christmas card factory and a dime store, ran an elevator, groomed horses, and served as a dental assistant.

In her studio biography Kim recalls: "One day the dentist's wife came in the office, and the next day I lost my job. It took me a long time to figure out why."

By and large, the reasons are now clearly evident.

Kim was averaging $200 a week as a model, but quit it to start her film career at $100 because "I was tired of just posing and smiling."

FIGURE INCOME
Today her weekly income is in four figures—somewhere between $10.00 and $9,999. Her studio "loaned" her services to make a single film for an independent producer for $100,000.

"Naturally, I didn't get any of that," wistfully remarked the actress, who has just signed a new seven-year contract.

None of Hollywood's celebrated sins have caught up with Kim. She avoids the glamour circuit, likes to wear blacks and flat-heeled shoes off-screen, prefers candy to caviar—it says right here!—She doesn't smoke or drink. No, not even coffee.

BURNING EYES
"In two of my pictures I had to smoke, and I had to practice a couple of weeks each time in order to hold the cigarette right. I hated it. It made my eyes burn."

So far, so good? Yep. But what about romance?

"I'm only 22," said Kim, crisply. "They don't marry that young where I come from."

She comes from Chicago, the breezy city.

Parakeet Causes One Roaring Confusion to Those Who Call His Phone Number

CHICAGO (INS) — The sedate Chicago suburb of Riverside is the setting for the strange tale of Dr. Baumeister and Mr. Kim.

A real estate agent stumbled onto the case by accident. He had hoped to stumble onto someone interested in selling property.

With the suburban phone directory spread open, he was phoning one name after another.

He dialed the Kim listing and a dignified, masculine voice answered.

"Mr. Kim?" the agent asked. "No, Dr. Baumeister," the voice responded. Then a near-splitting squawk shook the phone.

The agent gasped: "What's that?"

"Mr. Kim," the doctor said. For a moment, no one spoke. Then the doctor asked:

"May I ask the nature of your call?"

When the agent explained, Dr. Baumeister told him:

"I'm sorry you were misled. Despite the fact Kippy Kim is listed beneath my name in the phone book, I doubt you'll want to discuss your proposition with him."

"Kippy Kim is my pet parakeet."

Dr. Carl Baumeister, laughed good-naturedly today in telling about it.

He said: "It's the darnedest thing I ever heard of. For the last four years someone has listed Kippy Kim's name under mine in the small directory we have in Riverside."

"Whoever is doing it pays the fee — but I can't find out who he is!"

The 49-year-old Baumeister specializes in internal medicine and is an assistant clinical professor at the University of Illinois medical school.

He has a German shepherd dog, a 19-year-old son, Richard, and a wife, Eleanor, who came home with Kippy Kim one day in 1952 after consulting "somebody at Brookfield Zoo."

So far as the doctor is concerned, nothing notable came of such a household until later in 1952. A calendar illustrator then painted a bigger-than-life oil portrait of the gaudily plumed parakeet. Baumeister said: "Tom Dolan of Berwyn painted it. We'd become acquainted when I was treating some of his relatives."

I was treating some of his relatives."

Like an eerie foreshadowing of events to come, Dolan's brush work made him a target of fun-poking from his friends. The artist got mail with P.F.P. after his name — standing for parakeet portrait painter.

And Dr. Baumeister began getting mail addressed to Kim besides "these darned phone calls." All he said, are generally of a fund-soliciting nature. But Dr. Baumeister takes it in stride and even enters into the spirit of things.

He says that for the last few years he has tucked a dollar into the envelope addressed to the parakeet by the Red Cross — and mailed it in from the mysterious Mr. Kim.

God Did 'Nice Job'

Boy Acquitted in Death of Stepfather During Row

HIGH POINT, N.C. — A 15-year-old boy, testified he fatally stabbed his stepfather because he struck his mother with a small baseball bat was acquitted of murder charges yesterday.

A jury deliberated nearly two hours before acquitting Mack M. Warren in the death of his stepfather, Doramus L. Williams, 55, at their home here Oct. 19.

Warren, his mother and two small sisters broke into tears at the verdict.

Warren testified that he stabbed his stepfather with a hunting knife after Williams beat his mother with a small baseball bat and threatened to hit him with an electric iron. Mrs. Williams testified she was knocked unconscious by her husband.

Social Security Bill Is Opposed

Welfare Chief Folsom Against Some Parts of New Measure

WASHINGTON — Secretary of Welfare Folsom said today he is opposed to some parts of the House-passed Social Security bill on which the Senate Finance Committee is now holding hearings.

Folsom did not say what points he is against.

But under questioning at a news conference he said the administration has not yet reached a decision on its stand as to the two principal features of the house bill, lowering the retirement benefit age for women from 65 to 62 and providing cash benefits for the totally disabled at age 50 under certain conditions.

"This is the first time Congress has considered any real basic change in Social Security without an advisory council and extensive hearings," Folsom said. "I am very glad the Senate Committee is having full hearings."

"Extensive changes were made two years ago and I feel it might be wise to wait and see their results."

Pope Urges Women to Aid Men in World

VATICAN CITY (INS) — Pope Pius XII called on the women of the world to rescue men from what he called the "world of scientific triumph" and "materialism."

The Pontiff emphasized that the role of women is a "discreet but very efficient apostolate . . . to prepare for a friendlier and more human world."

The Pope spoke to the women's section of the international institute of culture. They were led by Mrs. Teresa Dupuy, wife of the Canadian ambassador to Italy.

The Pope warned that modern "materialistic civilization," having learned to control many of nature's forces, now threatened to control man himself and stamp out his freedom.

He urged women to lead the fight against this "peril" and said they should take the Virgin Mary as their example.

Outstanding Rookies Report to Cards Next Spring

(This is the 10th of a series of articles by Associated Press baseball expert Joe Reichler on the prospects among Major League rookies. Today he assesses the St. Louis Cardinals.)

NEW YORK (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals, who appear to have a corner on the "Rookie-of-the-Year" market, should have more than one candidate for the 1956 award if the boys live up to their press notices.

In 1954 the Cards' Wally Moon was voted the National League's outstanding rookie. Last year it was Bill Virdon with his Redbird teammate Ken Boyer not far behind. Coming to the Cards' training camp in St. Petersburg, Fla., this spring will be a batch of youngsters including second baseman Don Blasingame, the American Assn.'s Rookie of the Year; outfielder Jackie Brandt, the International League's Rookie of the Year; outfielder Russell Rac, the Texas League's outstanding rookie; and outfielder Gene Green, top first-year man of the Three-Eye League. Brandt and Green are not on the Cardinal roster but will be given an opportunity to make the club.

Most of the other Cardinal newcomers have been up before although shortstop Eddie Kasko and Blazer was switched to second base by Eddie Stanky who was looking forward to the time Red Schoendienst will have to be replaced. A .303 hitter at Omaha, an excellent fielder and double play pivotman, the scrappy youngster may become a factor in the battle for third or short if, as is likely, he fails to dislodge the talented Schoendienst.

None really expects Brandt to make it this year but the Cards regard the 21-year-old flycatcher as a certain big leaguer in a year or two. General Manager Frank Lane firmly believes the 5-11, 175-pounder will end the Cards' search for a right-handed swatter. Luke Sewell who, as manager of Toronto last year, was a first-hand observer of Brandt, thinks the kid was the No. 1 major league prospect in the entire league.

Berra Top Salaried

NEW YORK (AP)—Yogi Berra of the New York Yankees, generally paired with Roy Campanella as the active catcher in the business, today took top billing as the highest priced catcher ever in major league baseball.

Guinness put the contract price at $50,000 and Berra, who became the American League's Most Valuable Player for the third time last season, said that was "close enough."

Campanella, a three-time MVP in the National League, became the highest priced Brooklyn Dodger in history 24 hours earlier, signing for a reported $42,500.

Only two other Yankees ever received more than Berra. Joe DiMaggio commanded $100,000, Babe Ruth—in his day of smaller salaries—received $80,000 tops.

Berra, who will be 31 on May 12 and who, like Campanella, has yet to take a cut in salary since coming to the majors, batted only .272.

Practically everybody who has seen Blasingame has something nice to say about the hustling 23-year-old speedster from Corinth, Miss. A former shortstop, the

Making Progress on Ambulance Plan

Pontiac Chamber of Commerce Safety Committee, planning to recommend the city require ambulance attendants be better trained in emergency medical treatment, is making "excellent" progress, said chairman Clyde R. Haskill after a committee meeting yesterday.

Work on a proposed ordinance, which the City Commission will be asked to adopt, may be completed in "two or three weeks," Haskill stated.

He said the ordinance, if passed, will call for attendants to have completed basic Red Cross first aid instruction plus additional training under supervision of doctors.
The plan is modeled to some degree on a system in effect in Flint, Haskill said, but will be fashioned to meet local needs.

Here Are a Few Smiles Sent From a Lot of Miles

By EARL WILSON
AMERICA LAUGHS!
ST. LOUIS—I'm taking time out in my traveling to pass along a few smiles from a lot of miles.
Frank Sinatra forwarded a "mother story"—his mother once phoned him in Hollywood six years ago... wanted to enter politics and run for Commissioner of Safety in Weehawken, N. J.

"You need that like another foot," Frank said. His mother wanted him to make some radio transcriptions and aid her campaign.
He gently repeated that it was unwise. Besides, just then he was too busy.

His mother indignantly retorted: "If you can take time to campaign for Franklin Roosevelt, why the h—! can't you campaign for your mother?"

Ex-Pollies star Harry Fender says a Kentuckian boasted to a Texan, "We've enough gold in Fort Knox to build a gold fence around Texas." The Texan answered: "You do that and I'll buy it."

CHARLESTON, S. C.: "I'm suing Confidential for $1,000,000. They haven't written a thing about me"—Bill Evenson, WTMA news director... Kansas City: "The honeymoon's over when a woman stops tussling a man's hair and starts pulling it."—Editor Raymond Duncan. Criticizing a guy's literary style, Al Dopkin, the AP chief here, said: "He writes too long in the same place."

BOSTON: When the Ford Foundation grants were announced, one carpenter said to another, "D'you see where Ford gave away $300,000,000?" The other grunted, "Yeah? What was the question?"—Joe Harrington, Boston Post.

SYRACUSE, N. Y.: "In a year here I met no Democrats, and asked an acquaintance if there weren't any. He said, 'Sure, a lot of 'em.' Then he named all five."—Ted Isaac.

BROADWAY: "Some suggestions for movie names to follow Rock Hudson, Tab Hunter and Race Gentry: Clod Hopper, Brick Layer, Hod Carrier and (this guy lips) Sether Pool."—Robert Lissauer, Composer-Publisher.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL...
Marion Marlowe was an overnight patient—virus... Bob Harrison of "Confidential" was mentioned in a story about a cafe fight; next day he told the writer, "You shouldn't print things like that about people!"... The touring "Damn Yankees" (with Sherry O'Neill) opened in New Haven.

Martin and Lewis are dicker for the E-way farce, "The Matchmaker"... Hal March left after the 640 Quiz for Las Vegas and Candy Tootoh... London cafe owner Siegfried Sessler flew to Kenya, S. Africa, to see his fiancée, Barbara Anderson.

The "Plain and Fancy" payroll (once heisted) is now picked up by Brink's (once heisted)... A cigar maker wants to put out a small cigar for ladies, dubbed "The Nancy Berg."

SHERRY
WISH I'D SAID THAT: Cab Calloway bought a used typewriter, formerly owned by a little old lady who never went over 30 words a minute.

An English professor told Vincent Lopez why so many college students have to take English courses: "So they'll learn a language other than their own." That's earl, brother. (Copyright 1956, the Hall Syndicate, Inc.)

Both Navy Pilots Safe After Collision of Jets

EL CENTRO, Calif. (U)—Two Navy F9F Cougar jets collided yesterday during maneuvers. One pilot bailed out safely. The other flew his crippled plane back to its base. Lt. (J.G.) William H. Beck, 26, of Cupertino, Calif., said he didn't remember ejecting himself from the jet and had only a vague recollection of hitting the ground. His plane crashed in flames.
Ens. Harry W. Erickson, 22, of Rutland, Vt., flew his plane to the Naval auxiliary air station although part of the wing had been ripped off and the tail section cracked.

Couple Weds at 74, 85

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (U)—The bride was 74, the groom 85 when childhood sweethearts were married here. United in marriage were A. G. Keener, whose first wife died in 1950, and Mrs. Ida Rovers Temple, a widow since 1940.

$22 Million in Arms Sent to Israel, Foes

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (U)—The U. N. today published a survey reporting that 10 Western nations have shipped 22 million dollars worth of arms to Israel and her Arab enemies since 1953. This survey, published in the U. N. periodical Commodity Trade Statistics, said Israel got $8,986,000 of the arms and the five Arab states of Egypt, Iraq, Lebanon, Saudi Arabia and Syria got $13,022,000 worth.

The figures, however, did not include (1) aircraft shipments, (2) subsidy to Jordan's Arab Legion and (3) any arms from France. The survey, ending with mid-1955, also made no mention of Communist Czechoslovakia's agreement to sell Egypt 50 million dollars worth of arms.

Japanese Paper Ribs Dulles in 'Brink' Cartoon

TOKYO, (U)—The newspaper Asahi, Japan's largest with more than three million circulation, today depicted U.S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles in a clown suit balancing "on the brink." The editorial cartoon shows Dulles on a shaky rope balanced over the jungle of "war." In one hand he holds an umbrella called "power diplomacy." In the other is an H-bomb. The cartoon is captioned: "A Risky Stunt."

Formosa Gets A-Books

TAIPEI, Formosa (U)—The United States today presented Nationalist China with a technical library on the peaceful uses of atomic energy as part of their atoms-for-peace agreement.

Plan Minor Changes
in GM's Aerotrains

DETROIT (AP)—General Motors is planning to make some changes in its two experimental "Aerotrains."

The trains, which have been making demonstration runs since earlier this month will be taken out of service today. An announcement by the GM Electro-Motive Division, which designed the trains, said they will be taken to the Pennsylvania and New York Central Railroad car shops for minor changes designed to deaden sound and improve riding comfort.

These were described as criticisms of the two trains during the demonstration runs. The trains, of unusually light weight, are said to provide operating economy—at least 50 per cent below that of conventional equipment in fuel savings alone.

Steady Tone
Rules Grains

CHICAGO (AP)—A steady tone ruled in grains on the Board of Trade today but only soybeans were able to make much forward progress. And gains in soybeans were limited to fractions.

Main feature in the market was a letup in the selling pressure noticeable in the previous session, particularly in soybeans. But this wasn't followed by any aggressive buying.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was unchanged to 1/4 higher, March $2.10; corn unchanged to 1/4 higher, March $1.29; oats unchanged to 1/4 lower, March 65; rye unchanged to 1/4 higher, March $1.22; soybeans 1/4 to 1/2 higher, March $2.46, and land unchanged to 5 cents a hundred pounds higher, March $11.80.
