Bidault Asks End of War Before Arms Talks

Eleven Students Barred From Sports

State Declares Youths Ineligible Until March 15

Waterford Junior High Students Penalized for Accepting Jackets

By HAZEL A. TRUMBLE

Eleven Waterford Township Junior High School boys will not participate in interscholastic sports until March 15 under a decision made this morning by Dr. Clair Taylor, state superintendent of public instruction, in Lansing.

Dr. Taylor's new eligibility ruling went into effect Dec. 1, 1953.

The Waterford boys accepted sports jackets from their summertime baseball club sponsor. They received the jackets Dec. 15, 1953.

The hearing, held yesterday in Lansing before the committee of the Michigan High School Athletic Association, reviewed the case with parents of the boys present as well as Waterford school authorities.

Dr. Taylor was requested to be present inasmuch as he had drafted the new ruling under which eligibility was judged.

Testifying in behalf of the boys was their sponsor, Lawrence McCullough of Pontiac. He said he never was aware of the eligibility rule prohibiting boys participating in interscholastic sports from accepting any merchandise or any trophy or award worth in excess of $3. McCullough asked that he be penalized instead of the boys.

"Unfortunately, we cannot do things that way," said Charles A. Semler from Benton Harbor. He is president of the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations.

Roy Larmee, Waterford Township High School principal, reviewed the method the school uses in informing the boys of the eligibility rules.

"Each fall we have mimeographed sheets prepared for all home room teachers and athletic coaches. They go over this with all new students. Our handbook, given to all new students, covers the eligibility rules," he said.

For years, the rule read that boys were suspended for one year for infringement of these rule. Classes were handled exclusively by the High School Athletic Association.

A case last summer touched off controversy across the state. Due to pressures from several groups, the Administrative Rules Committee of the State Legislature and Dr. Taylor rescinded the old rule.

New rule calls for a minimum term of three months' suspension or a maximum of one year.

Semler said for the "first time since an attempt was made to control high school athletics in

Susbtitute Plan on Bricker Bill Set for Senate

Treaty-Control Proposal to Be Introduced Today Will Get Dem Backing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Knowland of California, the Republican floor leader, announced today that a substitute for the Bricker treaty-power amendment will be introduced in the Senate today "with substantial" Democratic support.

Knowland declined at a news conference to say whether Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio), whose proposed constitutional amendment has aroused vigorous opposition from President Eisenhower, would join in offering the proposal. Other Senators said this seemed unlikely.

"It is now my belief that an amendment will be offered today with substantial bipartisan support—it will be introduced before the Senate adjourns," Knowland said.

The Californian said that "substantial progress" had been made overnight in attempting to find language on which influential Republicans and Democrats could agree.

He declined to say, however,

Plan Counters Molotov Ideas for Disarming

Cessation of Hostilities in Indochina Sought by French Minister

BERLIN (AP) — French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault called today for a United Nations disarmament conference provided all hostilities such as the Indochina war are first ended and aggression outlawed.

The French minister introduced a resolution to that effect in the fifth session of the Big Four Berlin conference. His proposal countered a disarmament conference proposition made yesterday by Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov.

Molotov asked the Big Four to sponsor a worldwide disarmament meeting which would include Red China and other states that are not now members of the United Nations.

Raising of the disarmament question apparently stymied for the moment a concerted Western plan to force Russia into considering German unification now. The West, with Secretary Dulles in the chair, had intended to bring up the German question immediately after the session opened.

Word from behind the closed doors of the conference hall, however, was that Molotov immediately took the floor and upset the apple cart. Thereupon, Bidault offered his resolution, calling for an end of hostilities and for condemnation of any encouragement or support of aggression. It presumably was aimed at putting new pressure on the Communist world to end the war in Indochina.

Bidault did not suggest a date or period of time for the conference. Molotov had proposed that a disarmament meeting be held this year.

The French resolution did specify that the conference should conform to the U.N. General Assembly resolution of Jan. 11, 1952, thus making the U.N. the actual sponsor. That resolution directed the U. N. Disarmament Commission to continue its work on conventional arms and atomic weapons in accordance with previous Assembly decisions.

One of the key sections of Bidault's resolution would put the Big Four on record as "proclaim-

Car Not 'Copped' Just Borrowed by Policeman

Medford E. Pittman, 26, of 1023 Stanley Ave. was in an unusual hurry yesterday.

Already late, Pittman grabbed his car keys at work last night, hopped in an auto and scurried home where his wife, Wilma, was waiting to go out with her husband.

"Why this car has two more doors on it than our car, dear," Mrs. Pitman said after dinner. "You've taken the wrong car again and you'd better call the police before they arrest you for taking it."

Pittman did, and the desk officer at the police station told him that car was reported stolen about 15 minutes earlier by Richard L. Gibson, 25, of B-61 N. Park St.

Pittman's red face was understandable when he returned the car to the police station. He has been on the police force for five years.

More People Read Daily Newspapers

NEW YORK (AP)—Editor and Publisher, newspaper trade publication, said daily newspaper circulation in this country reached an all-time high in 1953—almost 54½ million.

The year's end found 1,785 dailies in the United States— a decline of one from the previous year.

An increase of 521,671 in the number of copies sold daily by newspapers set a new high of 54,472,286 net paid copies.

Wilson Sees More Defense Spending Cuts Next Year

WASHINGTON (UP) — Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson said Thursday night further cuts will be made in military spending in the defense budget that will go to Congress next year.

The proposed economies would be on top of the $4,000,000,000 cut in defense spending outlined in President Eisenhower's budget for the new fiscal year beginning July 1.

Wilson also indicated the number of men in uniform will be reduced below the projected level of about 3,000,000 by the middle of 1955.

In a speech to the Women's Forum on National Security, he said manpower and spending cuts are being made possible by capitalizing on new weapons and techniques and an increasing reliance on "ready reserves."

He said economies are being achieved in three ways:

1. The Joint Chiefs of Staff have adopted a strategy which emphasizes forces and weapons providing "greatest combat effectiveness" at lowest cost in manpower and resources.

2. Production, training of men, construction of bases and activation of new military units are being kept in "proper balance."

3. With the "cooperation of hundreds of thousands of men and women in the services," economies are being achieved in actual military operations.

"There is no fallacy in the idea of more defense for less money," Wilson said. "It is being achieved and much more can and will be accomplished."

Wilson said the review of military strategy which produced the "new look" and its greater reliance on airpower and atomic weapons would have taken place regardless of who was serving on the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

He noted that the shooting stopped in Korea last July and that both U. S. and Western European treaty forces are now substantially stronger.

Wife Is Guilty of Manslaughter

Mrs. Cartrette Awaits Sentence on Feb. 8; Free on Bond

Mrs. Lucy Mae Cartrette, 33, is free on $5,000 bond while awaiting sentence Feb. 8 for manslaughter in the slaying of her husband last Aug. 29.

She was found guilty by an Oakland County Circuit Court jury which deliberated five-and-a-half hours before returning the verdict to Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland. She had been tried on a second degree murder charge.

Her husband, Scarborough, 32, was shot to death last Aug. 29 while visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dean Wright at 105 Judson St. after an all night party with his "girl friend."

Wright told the court he grabbed Mrs. Cartrette and told her to go home after the shooting. He said she acted as if she was "in a sort of a daze" and turned the .32 caliber pistol in her hand over to Mrs. Wright before she left.

Dr. L. Jerome Fink testified during the five-day trial that Mrs. Cartrette was suffering from amnesia before and during the shooting.

Temporary amnesia was claimed by her attorneys as a defense but Judge Holland ruled it out in his one-hour charge to the jury yesterday.

Mrs. Cartrette told the jury she was ready to leave her husband because of his infidelity and that she didn't remember shooting him.

Willys Reveals New '54 Models

Cars Feature Engines With 115-Horsepower; Have New Styling

TOLEDO, O. (UP)—New models with "more horsepower per pound" than any other 1954 car in the same price class were announced today by Willys Motors Division of Kaiser Corp.

Roy Abernathy, vice president and general sales manager, said both the Eagle and Ace lines have six-cylinder, 115 horsepower engines with double barreled carburetors. The Lark series has a 90-horsepower engine.

The Eagle and Ace lines have new ornamental molding on the front grille assembly. All models have new bumper guards, steering wheels, aluminum scuff plate tail assemblies and chrome wheel discs.

An exclusive safety feature, Abernathy said, is a new windshield wiper action in which the center sweep patterns of the blades overlap, clearing an uninterrupted area across the one-piece windshield.

(Engine blocks and other castings for the Willys cars are made by Wilson Foundry & Machine Company here, a subsidiary of Willys Motors.)

Jenner Looks Into 1944 Order

White House Gets Blamed for Spy Files Destruction

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Jenner (R-Ind) said today the Senate internal security subcommittee will try to fix responsibility for an order which, he said, the White House issued in 1944 for destruction of some naval intelligence files on Communist activities.

This new turn in the Communist-hunting sub-committee's probes was the aftermath of Jenner's account of the episode to a dinner gathering here last night attended by Vice President Nixon and some 400 other guests.

This is how Jenner, the sub-committee chairman, related the story of the files:

They had been built up by a Navy counter-intelligence unit in New York which had an undercover contact in the Communist organization, he said, and "had the basic information on Communists in the maritime units, Communists on the waterfront and Communists in the convoys that went to Russia itself."

Robert Morris, who later became counsel to the internal security subcommittee, in early 1944 was a naval lieutenant attached to the New York counter-intelligence unit.

Victor Kravchenko, an official of the Soviet purchasing commission who broke with his Communist government, sought out Morris to give him information, Jenner said.

However, after one contact, he added, Washington sent orders to "let Kravchenko alone."

Continuing, Jenner said word reached New York that the counter-intelligence unit was to be broken up. Morris went to Washington to protest but, Jenner went on, "within a few days" the members of the unit were scattered "to the four corners of the earth," and the files were ordered destroyed.

Morris was transferred to the

Snow, Warmer Is Prediction for Pontiac Area

Pontiac whitened under a fresh snowfall today as milder weather from the south pushed local thermometers to slightly warmer temperatures.

The U. S. Weather Bureau predicts tonight's low will be 26-30, with snow flurries and a high of 30 to 34 degrees Saturday.

The weather bureau said temperatures will turn colder Saturday, warmer Monday and colder again Tuesday.

Temperatures climbed from a frigid five-above-zero low Thursday to a high of 26 degrees. The night's low of 18 degrees came just about midnight. The mercury then started climbing steadily passing the 24-degree mark at 8 a. m. to hit 31 at 2 p.m. today.

Today's snowfall, starting about 3 a.m., had sifted one inch of snow onto Pontiac by 2 p.m.

Oakland County Road Commission crews were called out about 4 a.m. to man 10 salt trucks. Pontiac Department of Public Works already had a standby night crew on the streets.

Last of Snowbound Children Are Home

PINNEBOG (INS) — Huron County snow plows last night cleared sideroads to permit the of 40 marooned school children to reach home.

Deep snow marooned the children in a Huron County school Wednesday night and most of Thursday. They were preparing to board a school bus when authorities ordered them to return to school where cots were set up for the night.

At PHS Commencement

Speaker Urges Seniors to Live, Work for Others

By GOLDIE STAMAS

Dr. Warner R. Cole, pastor of the Covenant Baptist Church in Detroit, last night urged Pontiac High School's graduating seniors to make the best possible use of their personalities, intelligence and talents as "raw materials" in building their lives.

Approximately 800 persons heard the pastor outline "A Formula for Life" at commencement exercises for the school's 131 January graduates in the PHS boys' gymnasium.

Dr. Cole exhorted seniors to "become part of a team, working for, not against, each other in the "assembly line" of life.

Enthusiasm, he said, has overcome seemingly insurmountable obstacles. Vision, definite goals and a dedication of purpose help make the formula almost complete, even without great talent, Dr. Cole pointed out.

He added that the most important part of his formula for success is a humble and unfailing faith in God.

"Make God your partner in life," he concluded, "and you will find that real happiness and a true sense of fulfillment will be yours."

Glenn H. Griffin, president of the Board of Education, presided over the ceremony.

The Pontiac High School Band, under the direction of Dale C. Harris, presented the "Processional" by Savino, and selections from "Me and Juliet" by Rogers.

The band also played theme music from the TV show, "Mr. Peepers," and closed the program with the recessional "University Grand March" by Goldman.

Thomas Metzdorf, class president, expressed the gratitude of his classmates to the Board of Education, the teachers and espe-

8,000 Left Homeless in 2nd Pusan Fire

PUSAN, Korea (AP)—Wind-fanned flames charred a three-quarter-mile stretch of hillside homes and shanties today in Pusan's second disasterous fire in three months.

City officials said four persons might have been killed. More than 8,000 were left homeless and 1,500 houses were destroyed.

Many were one-room shacks or jerry-built wooden crate additions to Korean houses.

U.S. Army relief supplies were immediately made available. Part of the supplies came from stocks being unloaded to care for the refugees created by the November fire which left 35,000 homeless.

Civics Students Studying Government First-Hand at Birmingham Meetings

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM — "It's a treat to have high-rate citizens visit us, instead of the usual irate ones," Mayor Ralph Main has said of the groups of high school students attending the city commission meetings regularly.

The city's seven lawmakers have been a little nonplused lately to have 10 or 12 teen-age boys and girls watching their governing actions each Monday night.

The visitors have not been shy about making their opinions known, even rising to their feet to take issue with commissioners, city department heads, and residents attending the session.

The young-but-interested citizens are high school seniors of teacher George Miller's civics class. They are required to attend at least one commission meeting during their semester of civics, and about 20 met the requirement this week as the semester end neared.

"They take it very well," Miller says, "and I believe that just sitting and talking about city organization and problems is not meaningful unless the students get it first hand."

Miller added that the teenagers haven't been encouraged to participate, but he feels it's their privilege to add their opinion if they think it worthwhile.

The students who attend Monday night meetings report what happened to their Tuesday civics class, and discuss the action.

Since few commission sessions end before 10:30 p. m., some of the students leave in mid-session, but a few interested ones have sat through the entire meeting.

"There are many subjects which they are not 'up on'," Miller admits, "but the commission attending is all part of the experience which may help them participate in city government later."

Edward E. Rothman, spokesman for property owners in the southwest quadrant of the city, will be asked to submit a plan regarding the provision of off-street parking for that area, before meeting with the City Commission.

This will give commissioners time to study any such proposals before setting a meeting date. Rothman had asked for a joint meeting between Jan. 25 and Feb. 1.

Quarton Lake Called Unsafe

Officials Warn Against Dangerous Condition of Ice for Skaters

BIRMINGHAM—"Quarton Lake is unsafe for skating at any time," says the City Commission and the Recreation Board, yet hundreds of people continue its use every day of the week.

Policing the area is a nearly impossible task, City Recreation Director Frank Whitney said last week. A one or two man supervision job would be to no avail, he feels, since he has already seen the ice there take on a sway-back look. This means an entire span of ice will give way, taking perhaps hundreds of people into the icy waters with it, he said.

And as many adults use the lake, as do children, Whitney said, so they can't be looked to for much cooperation.

"There must be something about a covering across the lake that seems to offer protection," Mrs. William Jackson, chairman of the Recreation Board, said. "Let those same parents see their child a few feet out in the water in the summer, and they can't get them out quickly enough."

Plans call for a lighted rink at Quarton School when adequate space is provided. Until then, parents were urged to cooperate with the city in using the rinks at Poppleton, Eton, Pembroke, St. James or Booth Parks.

headquarters of Adm. Chester Nimitz, commander of the Pacific Fleet.

Jenner said Morris told Nimitz about the breaking up of the intelligence unit and Nimitz took up the matter with Adm. Ernest J. King, then chief of naval operations, when King came to the Pacific on a visit a little later.

Jenner said he got the rest of the story recently from an officer whom he would not name but who was on Nimitz' staff. Jenner contued:

"Nimitz told King what Bob Morris had told him and asked if it could possibly be true that such an incredible order could have been issued. Adm. King replied that it was true.

" 'But who, demanded Adm. Nimitz, 'could possibly have given such an order?' Adm. King replied, "The White House.' "

However, last night Adm. Nimitz said by telephone from his Berkeley, Calif., home, "I have no recollection of the incident at all."

Morris said in an interview he had not previously known of the Nimitz-King conversation described by Jenner. He said the officer who told of it is now an admiral.

The $7.50-a-plate dinner was held in honor of Morris, who resigned as the subcommittee's counsel last December to take office as a New York City municipal judge.

Innocent Victim Is 'Little Scandal' in Area Comedy

BIRMINGHAM — The "Little Scandal" in the play of the same title to be presented by Village Players turns out to be the innocent victim in a black market-in-babies operation.

Invitational performances of the three-act comedy by Florence Ryerson and Alice D. G. Miller and directed by Mrs. R. F. Tillotson, will be given at 9 tonight and tomorrow night. Though humorous, the plot points up the tragedy of such illegal dealings.

Assisting Mrs. Tillotson is Mrs. William E. Kegel.

2,000 Petitions Seek Bingo OK

County Groups Drive to Legalize Game Only for Non-Profit Purposes

Number of petitions being circulated in Oakland County by individuals and groups has reached 2,000 in the drive to okay charitable non-profit bingo by amending the State Constitution.

Robert C. White, chairman of the Oakland County division of the Michigan Assn. of Non-Profit Charitable Organizations, said petitions containing 750 signatures representing the first week's effort were received last night.

The group has rented the Knights of Pythias Hall at 962 Voorheis Rd., for a meeting every Thursday at 8 p. m. to accept new members and receive and circulate petitions, White said.

The 11-county group is attempting to get the over 263,000 signatures needed to put their amendment on next November's state election ballot.

White said the project was organized last summer with intent of getting a definite decision on the bingo question. It is represented by legal counsel, he said, and stood ready to take any steps needed to assure legality.

"We want the amendment," White explained, "because bingo is the sole support of many charitable activities in the state.

"Our amendment would enable the state to legislate in any way it deems necessary to keep gamblers out of bingo. The Amvets, VFW and 20 other county organizations have officially recognized both our local group and the state organization and are lending their aid," White added.

Draft Substitute Plan for Bricker Proposal

whether Sen. George (D-Ga) was joining in offering the new version.

George previously had proposed an amendment of his own which Bricker found unsatisfactory although adminnistration leaders gave it a generally favorable reception.

Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) himself said yesterday the differences with the administration on his proposal "grow out a fundamentally different philosophy of government."

Even if an agreement can be reached which provides a middle ground for many senators, the big question seemed to be—

Can Senate leaders muster the necessary two-thirds vote required for a proposal to change the Constitution?

Or will those taking extreme positions on both sides join forces to prevent enactment of a compromise?

Some sponsors of the original Bricker amendment already were conceding privately it could not pass.

Apparently the substance of George's proposal was acceptable to the administration, since Knowland and other GOP leaders talked to the President at the White House yesterday, then returned to the Capitol to push ahead with their substitute.

The first section of George's proposal states that any treaty or international agreement in conflict with the Constitution shall not have any effect. This is substantially the same as the first clause in Bricker's amendment; Eisenhower does not object to it.

The second section would provide that agreements other than treaties can become effective as internal law only by act of Congress. Such agreements, unlike treaties, do not require Senate ratification.

The proposal thus avoids the requirement of the Bricker amendment that treaties themselves can become internal law only "by legislation which would be valid in the absence of treaty." Critics say the effect of this would be to require state action to implement some treaties.

Idle at 2.3 Million; 60 Million Employed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Census Bureau said today unemployment rose by half a million between December and January to an estimated total of 2,360,000 jobless this month.

As of Jan. 9, the bureau said, 59,800,000 were employed in the nation.

The bureau said the total decline in employment was not greater than the December-January drop in most other recent years, but affected some industries which are not usually subject to the seasonal change.

About 3.8 per cent of civilian workers are unemployed, as against 3 per cent last year, the figures showed.

The resolution then would have the four "commit themselves to join their efforts, in the Disarmament Commission of the United Nations, with the aim of reaching . . . substantial agreements which will permit calling a general disarmament conference under conditions favorable to success."

There was no official word of what Molotov had said to shift the parley onto the subject of disarmament but there was considerable speculation that he may have brought up his own plan to spike the warring world's guns.

After Bidault spoke, Britain's Foreign Secretary Eden took the floor indicating that whether the West like it or not the conference faced a full scale debate on a topic that wasn't even on the agenda.

11 Waterford Boys Ineligible for Sports

1895, we now have a rule which is not the result of the action or recommendations of regularly elected representatives of the high schools of the state."

William Shunck, superintendent of Waterford schools, made a plea for equity and fairness in the Waterford boys' case.

"It is important that we all learn to live by the rules. But those same rules must apply to everyone. Public schools were founded on the premise of equal opportunity; it is only good education policy when that equality carries over into the punishment area.

"If last summer's case could not be decided under the old rule because pressures were brought to bear, that same thinking should be fair in this case," said Shunk.

Dr. Taylor said this morning the decision was based on the fact he believed these boys "to be just as guilty as, but no more guilty than" others in previous cases. They also were suspended from athletic competition for three months.

He commended the Waterford school for the fine method it had used in informing its students of the rules.

Richard C. Jerome Heads County 'Y'

Richard C. Jerome of Rochester was elected president of the Oakland County Town & Country Y. M. C. A. at its annual meeting at Hotel Waldron Thursday evening. Jerome succeeds John P. Niggeman who has served for the past two years.

Other officers are Clarke Kimball, first vice president; D. B. Eames, second vice president; Marshall E. Smith, secretary; Ottis R. Briney Jr., treasurer.

Jerome, Kimball, Briney and Dr. F. Milton Hathaway were re-elected directors and John Riley and Dr. George Petroff were added to the board.

Annual report by Camp Director S. N. Geal showed Camp Mahn-go-tah-see at Loon Lake, near Hale, had its most successful season last summer and that registrations for next summer already are a month ahead of last year and coming in rapidly.

Capital improvements during the year included construction of the first wing of the new social hall, a building to house waterfront equipment, and an addition to the health center.

Examination Postponed in Death of 3-Year-Old

Royal Oak Municipal Judge John E. Brondige today postponed until Feb. 19 the examination of Mrs. Lois Cottrell, 22, on a first degree murder charge.

Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem said the examination was postponed because Mrs. Cottrell is expecting a baby.

Mrs. Cottrell, 823 Etowah, Royal Oak, is being held in Oakland County Jail in connection with the fatal beating of her three-year-old daughter, Lois Ann.

Complete List Given for Club Auxiliary 62

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — The name of Mrs. Leonard Nelson was omitted from a list of officers of Metropolitan Club Auxiliary 62 announced Wednesday in the Pontiac Press.

New officers installed by the auxiliary are Mrs. Maurice Bradley, president; Mrs. Edward Smith, vice president; Mrs. Nelson, recording secretary; Mrs. Leland Barker, financial secretary; Mrs. Kenneth Sutton, treasurer; and Mrs. Earl Wilcox, sergeant-at-arms.

Court Bill Would Relieve Dockets

Proposal to Increase Municipal Jurisdictions Introduced

A bill to increase jurisdiction of Pontiac and Royal Oak municipal courts has been introduced in the Michigan Legislature by Rep. William S. Broomfield.

Broomfield said the bill calls for increasing municipal court jurisdiction from $500 to $1,000.

"Introduction of this bill is an attempt to relieve overcrowded court dockets in Oakland County," Broomfield said.

Under the present code, municipal courts have jurisdiction in cases involving suits up to $500.

With the jurisdiction increased to $1,000, cases now on jammed Circuit Court dockets could be heard in municipal courts, he explained.

If the bill wins Legislature approval, it will be placed before the electorate in the two cities in the form of charter amendments.

Submitted in conjunction with this bill, Broomfield said, will be a proposal to recodify present municipal court regulations.

Pontiac Deaths

Miss Catherine Halfpenny

After an illness of two weeks, Miss Catherine Halfpenny, 75, of 223 S. Parke St. died in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital at 8:30 p.m. Thursday.

Born in Pontiac Nov. 25, 1878, she was the daughter of Martin and Brigid Crotty Halfpenny. She attended Pontiac Schools and was a member of St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church, the Altar Society and the League of Catholic Women.

Her only survivor is a sister, Miss Elizabeth Halfpenny of Pontiac.

Rosary service will be Sunday at 8 p. m. in Brace Funeral Home. Funeral will be Monday at 10 a.m. in St. Vincent Church. Burial will be in Mt. Hope Cemetery.

Kim H. Hays

Funeral for Kim H. Hays, 7-months-old son of Harold and Jennie Dorey Hays of 405 Sardenia, Royal Oak, will be Saturday at 1:30 in the Huntoon Funeral Home. Dr. H. H. Savage, pastor of First Baptist Church, will officiate and burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

The baby died Thursday morning at his home.

Alberto Lopez

Prayer service for Alberto Lopez, infant son of Jose and Margarita Mendez Lopez of 91 Calvert St., will be Saturday at 9 a.m. in St. Benedict Catholic Church. Burial will follow in Mt. Hope Cemetery.

The baby was dead at birth Thursday in Pontiac General Hospital.

Besides his parents he is survived by a twin brother, Roberto, and another brother and a sister, Jose Jr., and Elva, at home.

The body is at the Voorhees-Siple Funeral Home.

Two More Michigan GIs Now 'Presumed Dead'

WASHINGTON (UP)—Two more Michigan men, missing in action for more than a year in Korea, were listed as "presumed dead" by the Army today.

They were Cpl. Frederick E. Schroen, son of Raymond J. Schroen, Base Line, and Pfc. Harry L. Walega, son of Leon Walega, Detroit.

Court Adjourns City's Land Suit

Compromise Settlement Hinted in Parking Lot Condemnation Action

Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick yesterday adjourned the city's condemnation suit of property at 11-49 Parke St. until Feb. 3.

At that time another juror will be added to the 11 chosen Wednesday and testimony can get under way, Judge Hartrick said.

The city is seeking to condemn the property so that it may use the land plus city-owned adjoining property for a 200-car metered parking lot. It is reported that the adjournment was taken to provide time during which a compromise between the city and the Jack Habel Auto Co., present owner, can be worked out.

The land in question is bounded on the east by Parke, west by the Clinton River, north by Slater apartments and on the south by the city owned land.

City Attorney William A. Ewart filed a condemnation petition last August.

O'Brien May Delay Renda Examination

DETROIT (AP) — Carl Renda, accused by Donald J. Ritchie as the payoff man in the Walter Reuther shooting, faced a second examination in Recorder's Court today.

However Wayne County Prosecutor Gerald K. O'Brien planned to ask for another adjournment possibly for four weeks.

Ritchie, held in a Windsor jail, has repudiated statements on which the warrant was based charging Renda and three others with conspiracy and assault with intent to kill.

Two weeks ago O'Brien obtained an adjournment to give him time to try to extradite Ritchie from Canada. An extradition hearing is set for Feb. 16.

Renda has denied any knowledge of the attempt to kill the UAW-CIO president in April, 1948.

Fireman Quits as Head of Group Backing Bingo

LANSING (AP)—John W. Courtney, Detroit fireman, resigned last night as president of the Michigan Association of Non-profit Organizations, the group trying to legalize charity bingo.

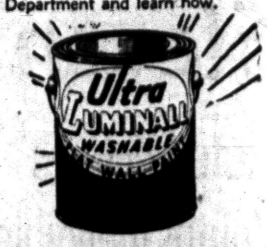

Courtney said he was asked to resign by Chief Edward J. Blohm of the Detroit Fire Department and by the Detroit Fire Department Fund. Courtney told the bingo backers he would remain active with the group although he was no longer president.

Thrift Education Includes Starting Savings Accounts

Editor's Note: The Birmingham High School column is prepared by members of the high school journalism class under the direction of Miss Vida McGiffen. This week's contributors are Martin Aubrecht, Martha Nelson, John Hobart, Carol Klein and Donna Bolleau.

A new program of learning thrift education by actual experience was started recently at Birmingham High School by the Birmingham National Bank in cooperation with the Board of Education and the PTA.

The plan allows students to make deposits at the high school in the same procedure followed at banks. Although the program is meant to teach younger children the value of saving, it is considered a service to high school students who otherwise couldn't get to the bank.

Washington, here we come! Enthusiastic seniors adopted this as their motto and in their enthusiasm responded quickly to the suggestion by the school to sell Christmas and all occasion cards.

With the help of Miss Gladys Holloway, adviser, and Roger Johnson, student chairman, seniors went all out to sell cards to neighbors and relatives to earn money for senior expenses.

Those doing an especially fine job were Mary Bachman whose credit amounts to $48, Joan Polhemus $47, Joe Archer $43.50, John Shaffer $34, Mike Groves $33.50 and Karen Gavic $32.

The total student credit made in the high school was $663 and the total homeroom credit was $204.

An audio visual club was started recently by Mrs. Monzelle Clark and Mr. H. Ross Scrimgeour for the purpose of learning how to operate equipment such as projectors, tape recorders and the public address system.

Anyone may join who has a free period, but no student will be excused from classes.

Equipment will not be sent out without a member along to run it. Each member must pass a test on the equipment before it can be sent out.

Meetings are every other Wednesday alternating with Proscenium Club meetings.

Orders Autopsy on Shot Boy, 12

Washtenaw Prosecutor Quizzes Friend; Death Believed Accidental

ANN ARBOR (AP)—An autopsy was ordered performed today on the body of a 12-year-old boy found shot to death in his home near Ann Arbor.

Police said the youngster, Harold E. Sage, apparently died of an accidental, self-inflicted head wound yesterday.

Police called to the scene found Harold still holding a German .25 caliber revolver in his left hand.

The house was in disarray, police said. The playmate said the two had been playing a game with kitchen knives and also had been pointing the gun at each other.

The young companion said the boys had been playing mumbly-peg against doors.

Washtenaw County Prosecutor Edmond F. De Vine said the 13-year-old told him he tired of the knife game and was reading comics when the gun went off.

De Vine said the shooting apparently was accidental. Nevertheless, he ordered the autopsy and a lie detector test today.

The boys were alone in the house at the time.

Harold lived with his divorced mother, Mrs. Erma Sage, four miles southeast of Ann Arbor at the intersection of Packard road and U.S. 23.

3 Women Named by Mrs. Roosevelt

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—The wife of James Roosevelt, eldest son of the late President, has filed a suit for separate maintenance in which she names three other women as co-respondents.

The suit, filed by Romelle Schneider Roosevelt in Superior Court yesterday, asks $2,000 a month support and an additional $1,500 for support of their three children.

Her complaint named as co-respondents Gladys Irene Owens, also known as Irene Owens, June Nelson, also known as June Jordan, and Elaine Hilton. The three were not otherwise identified.

Last Jan. 18 Roosevelt filed his own suit for separate maintenance asking that his wife be compelled to give him certain personal articles, including a cigarette holder he said belonged to his father. He asserted she had caused him "mental and physical anguish and distress."

Mrs. Roosevelt's complaint said she and her husband had an agreement under which he promised to give her 50 per cent "of my separate property as well as your share of our community property."

She asked the court to issue an order for Roosevelt to carry out this agreement.

The Roosevelts were married in 1941.

The name "weakfish" comes from no lack of gameness or stamina, but because the bony portions of the mouth of this fish are soft and tender, thereby causing them to tear out when a fisherman's hook is jerked too suddenly.

Abstract Object Baffles Police, but Not Milady

DETROIT (AP)—A contraption that looks like an inverted wire waste-paper basket stuck on the end of a hat rack flabbergasted police and scientific experts.

Police found it lying in a street Tuesday night. Could it have been something from a strange planet perhaps?

"The Thing," the police called it. And for two days top sleuths were baffled by its identity.

Engineers and electronics experts were called on for an explanation. They failed to come up with an answer.

Then, Bruce Watson, a Singer Sewing Machine Co. salesman, solved the case last night.

He identified the device as a standard on which a moulded plastic dress form is erected. For women, of course. As simple as that.

The dress form is slipped over the top of the basket-like affair and may be raised and lowered to fit milady's wardrobe to the current style length.

2 Ponies Flee Into Hills, Curtail Mine Operations

MT. STORM, W. Va. (AP)—Operations at the Kuhn Deep Mine were curtailed sharply yesterday when two ponies used to pull mine cars escaped from their drivers.

West Virginia state police reported about a dozen miners were kept away from their jobs much of the day before they captured the animals on a mountain side.

Youths on Trial for Assaulting Basketball Star

DETROIT (AP) — A quiet courtroom heard initial testimony yesterday in the assault and battery case against four teenagers.

Particularly intent were six women. The motherly-looking women are the jurors. They must decide guilt or innocence.

On trial in Recorder's (criminal) Court are Rex Durham and Leslie Wakefield, both 17, and Donald Coleman and Alonzo Edwards, both 18.

The four are accused in the gang attack on 17-year-old Ross DeBoskey, high school basketball player, after a game the night of Jan. 15.

DeBoskey almost lost his life. He was stabbed with an ice-pick. A lung was pierced.

Pale and apparently weak, DeBoskey appeared on the witness stand wearing his eyeglasses to tell of being set upon and beaten and being saved from further harm by a girl's intervention.

"There was a group of 10 guys. Someone told me to take off my glasses. Somebody else grabbed my coat," he said.

It was too dark for him to be able to identify any of his attackers, however.

A fifth youth, 16, has admitted stabbing DeBoskey. The state wants to prosecute him on a charge of assault with intent to kill. Juvenile authorities have not decided whether to waive jurisdiction.

Father of 11 Loves Large Family Life

CHICAGO (AP)—A Wisconsin farmer, father of 11 young sons, says he and his wife have "no real problems with all these boys."

"They discipline themselves," said Matthew Wagner, 43, who operates a 40-acre farm near Manitowac. "If one shirks his chores, the others enforce extra duty on him."

"I love the give and take of a large family," said his wife, Julitta, 39. "Work is living for me."

The Wagners and their 11 children came to Chicago yesterday to appear on a television program. Their children range in age from 14 years to 6 months.

Tito to Continue Current Policy

Declares Yugoslavia to Pursue Independent Path in Foreign Affairs

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—President Tito declared today Yugoslavia will pursue an independent path in foreign policy regardless of friendly moves on the part of the Soviet Union and its satellites in the past year.

He referred to what he termed "some malicious guessing" in the West that Yugoslavia might return to the Soviet camp despite the break with the Cominform in 1948. He called such allegations "false."

Tito, who will be re-elected president of the nation today or tomorrow, voiced his views in an 80,000-word state of the nation address to Parliament in which he discussed the country's domestic and foreign problems.

"I think our future foreign policy should be conducted on the same basis as it has been in recent years, because it produced useful results in preserving our independence, integrity and in defying an economic blockade," he said.

Then, referring to Yugoslavia's relations with the West, he said:

"We have no reason or need for changing our full cooperation with those who up until now cooperated with us without meddling in our internal affairs."

But at the same time he expressed hope for the "normalization" of relations between Yugoslavia and its Communist East European neighbors.

science now helps you take off your fat while you eat the foods you choose

Do you like sweets, candy, cake and are you a real glutton when it comes to butter, gravy, potatoes? Have you tried one thing after another to reduce, spent dollar after dollar for pills and tablets and in spite of everything you've tried you're still too fat? Well, be as skeptical as you like, but NOW, right NOW, there's a wonderful new kind of capsule that helps you take off pounds and inches of ugly fat safely, quickly and so much easier you hardly know what's happening. You don't suffer starvation dieting hunger, you take no drugs, you don't exercise. In fact, you don't even diet one bit more than you want to, because you automatically eat less and here's why...

Just recently a well known scientist perfected a new tiny capsule that combines not one but ALL THE RECOGNIZED proven aids to reducing he found in all the advertised products offered today. It contains the concentrated proteins you've read and heard about. It combines the vitamins and minerals often lost when cutting off fattening foods containing these needed vitamins and minerals. It combines the vegetable cellulose that has no calories yet expands when it absorbs water thereby helping to give the feeling of a full contented stomach. Yet these tiny new capsules contain not just one but ALL the drugless reducing aids he found to be needed to actually automatically make you eat less without conscious effort and like it! In fact these tiny capsules are so packed with vitamins and minerals, protein and non-caloric filling food, they actually equal and exceed many a meal.

fat goes fast

You'll be surprised at the fat you lose the first week, the inches that disappear the first month. No hunger, no strict dieting, no drugs, no exercise. And the cost is absolutely nothing unless you grow slim, more youthful looking, more active and enjoy better health.

Woman loses 70 pounds!

"Thanks to your plan I lost 70 pounds and I honestly feel lots better. You can really lose weight with them."
Mrs. A. L. C., St. Paul, Minnesota

"Ate anything I wanted"

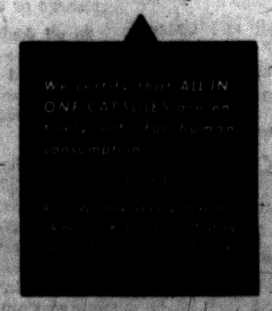

"I lost 7 pounds quickly and I ate anything I wanted. In only a few weeks I went from 204 pounds to 190. I think they are grand and they really do what they claim to do. You can actually eat anything and not be hungry."
Mrs. D. M., Pine Bluff, Arkansas

Reducing plan certainly is easy

"I have enjoyed your Reducing Plan, and it certainly is easy. I have gone from a size 18 to a size 14, and my husband thinks I look like the girl he first married."
Mrs. D. R., Black River, N. Y.

Can now wear attractive clothes

"I have lost 24 pounds and I am feeling fine. I feel so much better and can wear the attractive clothes I have wanted to for so long."

Ike Backs Postage Raise

In his State of the Union message President Eisenhower asked Congress to do what it refused to do last session — raise postage rates.

The bill Postmaster General Summerfield wanted passed last session called for increases totaling $241,000,000 a year. These would have raised the letter mail rate from three to four cents, air mail from six to seven or eight, and third class rates by about one-third. These are the increases the President wants approved this session.

The department in 1953 did manage to cut its deficit appreciably. Higher parcel post rates approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission are expected to save $160,000,000 a year.

Eighty million was gained when air mail subsidies were debited against the Civil Aeronautics Board and $35,000,000 was saved when the department was relieved of the bookkeeping costs of handling franked mail. A few millions more was gained from increases in regular mail and parcel post for abroad.

All this, however, only cut the postal deficit for the last half of 1953 to $220,000,000. The President is right in backing the additional increases that would come close to letting the Post Office Department pay its own way.

West Firm on EDC

Within recent days there have been two reassuring developments affecting the European Defense Community.

Latest of these is the indication that Russia's renewed effort to divide the West on this issue at the Big Four conference in Berlin has failed. The other is completion by the Dutch Parliament of EDC's formal ratification.

Last July the lower house approved EDC. When the matter came up in the Senate recently, the favorable vote was 36 to four. Thus Holland became the first country to complete an unchallengeable ratification, West Germany's earlier approval being subject to a constitutional test in its supreme court.

In this action Holland has set a fine example for France, Italy and Belgium. Despite the three years they have had to study the plan so vital to continental defense and future federation, these powers still are stalling on the issue.

At Berlin, however, where Russia's Molotov demanded abandonment of the EDC plan, there was no evidence of a Western split on the matter. Britain's Eden and France's Bidault both stood pat and the latter had the backing of his country's Cabinet.

Secretary Dulles then made it clear that our Government has no intention of dropping EDC. In the absence of an alternative plan for European defense, there is little likelihood of a change in the U. S. position.

A Friendly Suggestion

Many a Michigan motorist will endorse a resolution introduced in the Legislature by Deckerville's State Representative Clements.

In it the lawmaker from the Thumb urges that National Guard convoys be kept off our State trunkline highways during the next Fourth of July weekend.

Rep. Clements' proposal shouldn't be viewed by the National Guard as criticism or lack of appreciation of the patriotic service rendered. Instead, it is a friendly suggestion which, if it can be followed, would avert repetition of the troubles experienced last year.

At that time many motorists protested the fact that Guardsmen's trips to and from Camp Grayling began and ended on weekends. The inevitable result was that our State highways already overloaded with peak holiday traffic, were jammed further with long lines of military vehicles.

In the interest of greater highway safety it is to be hoped that the National Guard will be able to start this year's training trips in midweek. Certainly it should be far easier and safer to do that than to make these long trips in virtually bumper to bumper traffic. The National Guard must be as jealous of its own good will as any other organization and criticism was widespread before.

Announcement that the Guard's regular training period has been set for Aug. 7-21 this year indicates that the Fourth of July weekend is being avoided but that present plans still apparently call for week-end travel on the highways.

Says Some Know They Are Doing Wrong and Still Are Unable to Control Actions

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature.)

As I understand it this sexual psychopath amendment to the Goodrich Bill formulated by Prosecutor Fred Ziem and Atty. Gillespie and which is going to be supported by Rep. Broomfield of Royal Oak, Rep. Fred Beardsley of Oxford, Rep. Leaun Harrelson of Pontiac and Rep. Walter McMahon, will make it lawful, in cases of murder, to return for trial anyone who has previously been declared a criminal sexual psychopath.

Psychiatrists have repeatedly demonstrated that a person may be unable to control his actions and at the same time be aware that he is doing wrong.

The basis for legal acceptance of responsibility as a gauge of sanity was established as far back as 1843 (the McNaghten case) in which a defendant was acquitted of a murder charge on the grounds he was unable to control his actions.

Assuming the mind is a product of society, these acts are as much a symptom of basic disturbances in our social structure as is fever an index of something wrong in the human mechanism.

Says He Knows Where Name of Novi Originated

I have the day book of a Novi store for the year of 1834, just 120 years ago.

Wood was evidently more plentiful than paper, as it has a wooden cover. A goodly part of the store business is covered up with newspaper clippings and a number of pages covered by curlicue writing in effect when I came along some years later.

It was probably a store owned by either one Benjamin Brown or Asaple C. Smith, both coming there just previous to 1830. Blanchard's Tavern was opened by Brown and previous to Smith.

There was no toll gate there then, or any other time; as to name, I think I have solved the mystery and challenge anyone to disprove it.

In going over early Michigan history I find that one of the leading physicians at that time (1836) was a Dr. Novy. The name Novi was suggested by Dr. Emery, so with a short name demanded, it would come naturally to suggest the name "Novy" be changed to Novi for easier and quicker writing.

A Dr. Novy, professor at the University of Michigan for years, has recently resigned, and I have written him as to the possibility of his being a relative of the original Dr. Novy.

Lawrence Applauds GOP for Its Policy to Fire Security Risks, Do No Smearing

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — The Eisenhower administration is 100 per cent right in resisting the campaign undertaken by some Trumanite newspaper writers to force a public disclosure of the nature of the 2,200 cases involving employes who in the last 12 months have been separated from government service for security reasons.

The attempt is significant because it comes from the so-called "liberal" group which is usually the first to denounce "smearing" tactics and "character assassination."

Originally, the Truman administration set up a loyalty and security program in two categories — those employes who for loyalty reasons would be declared ineligible to remain in government service and those who for reasons of security would be allowed to resign or be discharged.

Many of the cases in the "loyalty" class got into the newspapers despite efforts to keep such procedures confidential but initially there was no publicity given out about individual security cases.

It was generally conceded that, if a man was dismissed for "loyalty" or "security" reasons and his name was revealed, his reputation for life would be injured.

When the Eisenhower administration came into power it decided to try to avoid such a formal characterization as "disloyalty" except in cases involving actual espionage or treason.

So all doubtful cases were ordered to be investigated under one general heading — "security." The broad term was to be used to cover all types of security risks.

This method was designed to protect the individual especially since it was frankly announced that "security" includes those who habitually are indiscreet in their conversations outside of the government offices — drunkards, and those who are found to have such abnormal personal habits as to make such employes subject to blackmail by enemy agents.

Not satisfied with this generous treatment of all security risks in an omnibus classification, some of the newspaper critics now have set out to compel disclosure of a "breakdown."

They claim that only a small per cent of the cases involved so-called "loyalty" matters and that a misleading impression is given by the 2,200 figure. That's a customary maneuver here to force information into the open.

It was, for example, the Democratic majority leader in the Senate who first goaded Sen. McCarthy on the floor of the Senate in 1950 to name names when the Wisconsin senator introduced his charges about the State Department on a statistical basis.

Concentrating their fire on Attorney General Brownell, the Trumanites resent the accusation that there were 2,200 security risks left in the government when the last administration ended its term.

At last week's press conference, one newspaperman implied by his question that the attorney general was violating President Eisenhower's order about "freedom of information" in the government because Brownell wouldn't make public a classification of each type of security risk uncovered in the last 12 months.

But the plot is plain to see. If the Department of Justice or any other department gives out figures showing how many employes were fired in any of the eight categories covered by the "security" order issued by the White House several months ago, the next demand will be for the names or the facts.

If these are refused, then will come leaks as to their identity or the nature of a few individual cases and the administration will promptly be accused of "character assassination."

Better for Harry to Die Happy Than to Live Sad

If one of your loved ones has recently died, then you may be doubly interested in my advice to Harry's mother. She felt disconsolate till I showed her that she was a wonderful mother who had helped Harry leave his constructive imprint upon the lives of his high school classmates.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case K-311: Harry F., aged 15, was a happy high schooler who relished playing basketball on his Hi-Y team.

"But, oh, Dr. Crane, I should never have let him do it," his mother wept in my office.

"For he was knocked down on the hard floor of the gym and suffered a skull fracture.

"He never regained consciousness. Two days later he was dead. And now I feel guilty for ever having given him my consent, for I signed a release which is required of all parents before the school will let its pupils engage in athletics.

"Will I ever be able to regain peace of mind again?"

In modern medicine we are beginning to subscribe to the phsychological slogan that "It's better to die happy than live sad."

Harry was a typical high schooler who enjoyed sports. It would have been cruel to have deprived him of that wholesome fun.

True enough, at infrequent intervals an accident does happen, even in the best regulated games. Fortunately, such tragedies aren't frequent but we must always face the possibility.

And you parents who have lost your children in their normal participation in sports and other legitimate good times, can console yourselves by knowing you did the right thing.

Harry's mother thus made her son happy by letting him engage in basketball. She would have caused him untold unhappiness had she refused.

God's divine plan for this world does not consist in isolating children in a sterile, germ-less environment where no pain or injury can ever befall them, and where they can try to exceed Methuselah's 969 years.

Life should never be measured just by its length: Accomplishment is the proper yardstick.

"It's better to live one day like a lion than 100 years like a sheep," is a familiar slogan in this regard.

Jesus spent only 33 years on this earth and many of our greatest human beings have died young.

So America must quit worshiping at the shine of our lengthening lifespan.

Nowadays we boast about having an average longevity of 69 years. But years are secondary. What's the good of 69 years if we don't do anything constructive?

Harry led a full and happy life, though he died at 15. He was a good student and president of his Hi-Y Club in high school.

He set a good example before his classmates. He was a fine type of modern teen-ager.

So he accomplished far more good in his brief 15 years than a lot of people do who reach now 75 years of age.

On an old tombstone I once saw this inscription: "Born 1796 — Died 1859", and nothing more:

That person's 63 years were indicated by a "hyphen." Just a dash line.

Harry's full life of 15 years was far more productive. He has left his constructive personality print, like fingerprints, upon the teen-agers with whom he lived.

You bereaved parents should try to "adopt" a Sunday school class or a Scout Troop and continue weaving into their developing lives the good habits and idealism which typified your own departed loved ones.

Baering Down

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER
International News Service

Democrats are claiming everything good in this administration is democratic. If they had knocked off the 1952 election they would have changed the monogram on White House silverware.

Trying to prove partisan claims is as silly a job as a posse of barbers chasing the Headless Hossman.

Probably the Democrats are correct on various points. But they seem to be unduly optimistic about a 1954 recession

They actually seem to be looking forward to a happy slump. This is the first time I've mentioned the matter. To me depression is a dirty word.

A recession is a memo to a depression. Something like having sore gums without the toothache.

We listened to Ike's speech on the first Monday in January. He potted that old recession plant. He said there was no more reason for a busteroo than there was for rocks in your pillow.

We concede Ike portaged over old age insurance, job security, better roads, quicker schools and compulsory health from the democratic administrations. But Roosevelt didn't start that anymore than he invented fish-hooks.

Only Ninnyhammers Would Be Guilty of Eating Ultra-Refined Rice and Wheat

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

From the third edition of Foods and Their Adulteration by the late great Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, published by Blakiston's in 1917, I quote facts about a food which is not for ninnyhammers:

Maize Flour (Corn Meal).—Formerly the maize kernel was ground between stones, bolted to remove the bran, and the maize flour or corn meal thus produced used directly as a human food.

"Modern milling operations have changed the method of producing maize flour so that not only is the outer bran removed but also, to a large extent, the germ itself, thus diminishing the quantity of fat in the prepared meal.

"This is notably true of the maize flour which is prepared for exportation. Leaving in the flour such a large quantity of fat tends to produce rancidity during shipment.

"To avoid any change of a deleterious nature which the flour may undergo during shipment, it is also frequently kiln dried before being sent to foreign shores and even when intended for domestic consumption at points remote from the mill.

"While this preparation of maize flour is doubtless important for transportation purposes, it impairs the palatibility and nutritive value of the product. It is advisable to continue to have maize flour prepared in the old fashioned way and sent directly into consumption."

This 3rd edition of Dr. Wiley's book (1917) includes a chapter on Vitamins, in which the crusader for pure food pointed out that "in cereals the vitamin is found particularly in the bran, that is, the outside covering, and in the germ." This is true of rice, corn and wheat.

Dr. Wiley stated that young fowls fed exclusively on polished rice, refined white flour and-or commercial corn meal, (all of which cheat-foods are preferred by ninnyhammers) in the course of three weeks develop a kind of neuritis (weakness, paralysis) which in seven weeks ends fatally.

Young fowls thrive on wild or brown (unmilled, unpolished) rice; plain wheat whether entire or cracked or ground to meal from which nothing is removed; or even on corn or corn meal from which nothing is removed, (if the fowls get a little animal protein to supplement the incomplete zien of corn with amino-acid essential for growth).

Both corn meal and wheat flour are more refined today than they were in Dr. Wiley's day, and most ninnyhammers whose daily calories are derived chiefly from the cheat-foods—white flour and white sugar—are no more aware of what ails 'em than the young fowls that languish on polished rice, refined corn meal or refined white flour.

The pamphlet Wheat to Eat tells how to combat this popular malnutrition.

Ask for the pamphlet in writing—a clipping will bring no answer—and inclose stamped, self-addressd envelope.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.

March 15 Is Nearer Than You Think

Do You Have Any Interest or Dividends? Most Are Taxable but Some Are Not

By RICHARD A. MULLENS
Article 5

Americans are great ones for saving money and putting those savings to work by investing in stocks, bonds, and othe places that pay for the use of the savings.

This article tells how to report the dividends and interest you have received for the use of your savings. It also tells how to report income from a business or profession.

Most dividends and interest are taxable and have to be reported as income. Some, however, are not taxed and do not have to be reported.

Here are payments you may receive as a stockholder which DO NOT have to be reported as income:

A return of capital invested in the company.

Payments from earnings accumulated prior to March 1, 1913.

Stock dividends or stock rights which do not change the stockholder's proportionate share in the corporation.

When a corporation makes any of the above distributions to its stockholders, it will generally include a statement telling stockholders that the distribution is non-taxable.

Most dividend payments are made out of a corporation's earnings and must be reported as income on line 3 of Form 1040A or on Schedule A of Form 1040. Additional information is found on page 6 of the official instructions.

All taxable interest received by you must be reported in Schedule B of Form 1040 or on line 3 of Form 1040A. Most interest in taxable.

However, if you own any bonds or securities issued by a city or state, the interest on these is not taxed. The interest on many United States bonds issued prior to March 1, 1941, is wholly or partially tax-exempt.

If you have any such bonds, read the section under "Interest" on page 6 of the official instructions.

You must report interest on savings and deposit accounts when it is credited to your account even though it has not been entered in your bank book.

Interest represented by a bond coupon should be reported in the year when the coupon is due and payable even though you don't clip and cash it.

You can report the interest on Defense, War and Savings bonds in either of two ways.

First way: Ignore the interest until you cash them, and then report as interest the entire difference between what you get and what you paid. This is the easiest way.

Second way: Report the interest each year as it accrues. The amount of accrued interest can be determined from the table on the back of the bond.

It is the difference between what you paid and what you could cash the bond for on Dec. 31, 1953. Substract from this any interest you reported from these bonds on previous returns, and report the rest this year.

Once you start using this method, you cannot change without first getting permission from your District Director of Internal Revenue.

Income from a business or profession is reported on a separate Schedule C which is filed with Form 1040. Schedule C also has the self-employment tax which went nto effect Jan. 1, 1951.

The next article of the Primer will tell you how to fill out the section on self-employment tax.

Only persons in business by themselves should use Schedule C. This means the man who owns his own shop or practices a profession by himself. Do not use Schedule C to report income from a partnership or any payments received as an employe.

Even though you are an employe, you may also operate a separate business on the side. In that case, report your employe income on page 1 of Form 1040 and your business income and expenses on Schedule C.

If you have to use Schedule C, read over the information on page 7 of the official instructions under "Business or Profession." Then refer to a copy of Schedule C as you read the following helpful tips:

Line 1 calls for your total receipts. This is largely a matter of keeping adequate records throughout the year. If you made any allowances for returned goods, rebates, or discounts, subtract such amounts from your total receipts before entering the amount on line 1.

If you produce, buy or sell merchandise, use lines 2 to 10 to compute and deduct the cost of the goods sold.

The important thing in this computation is to show the correct amount of inventory on hand at Jan. 1, 1953, on line 2, and the inventory on hand at Dec. 31, 1953, on line 8. The official instructions tell how to figure inventory.

The main problem in filling out schedule C is in determining which expenses you may deduct on the various lines provided. Deductions must meet the following three requirements:

1. Expense must be incurred in your trade or business.

2. Expense must not be for a capital item. This means that if you buy something which would ordinarily last more than one year or if you improve your property, such an expenditure is not deductible except through depreciation spread over the life of the property.

3. The expense must be ordinary and necessary in the carrying on of your busines.

Do not deduct expenditures from your business for your own personal or family comfort.

Deductions are allowed to professional and business men for business conventions.

However, if you take your wife or family along as part of a vacation, their expenses cannot be deducted.

If it turns out that your deductible expenses exceed your business income, you will end up with a net loss on line 23 of Schedule C. This loss can be deducted from your other income reported on Form 1040.

If the loss exceeds your other income, you have a net operating loss which can be used to offset income in other years.

Grave Problem

TYLER, Tex. (AP)—Police here are looking for the owner of a tombstone that vandals left on the doorstep of a local resident. The only inscription on the headpiece is the name "Lenora E." and the dates 1843-1899.

Whalebone whales have enormous tongues compared with those of toothed whales.

Taxis Join Hot Chase for Hit-Run Driver

DETROIT (AP)—The pursued man hardly had a chance in this race.

Not only were radio-alerted police cars chasing him last night but so were 11 taxicabs.

Cab driver Paul J. Chappus, 29, said he saw a car run a red light and strike 9-year-old George Van Havel. The boy wasn't badly hurt.

Chappus radioed his dispatcher. The dispatcher notified police. He also notified other cabs.

After a mile-long chase, the car was overtaken—by Chappus and two other cabs and a police car. The driver, Eddie Herzman, 32, was booked for allegedly leaving the scene of an accident.

Dealer Offers Free Car With $600 Pound Coffee

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — A used car dealer bid for attention and business with this ad in the Florida Times-Union today:

"Coffee has gone so high, we have decided to go into the coffee business. We are offering the very best grade of coffee at $600 a pound. As a special inducement we will give an automobile absolutely free of charge with every pound of coffee sold at this price. We will even finance the coffee (and the car) for 24 months."

Parents of Sergeant Depki Get 'Killed in Action' Word

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Depki of Orchard Lake received a Defense Department letter recently informing them that the body of their son, Stanley, would be returned from Korea soon for burial.

SGT. DEPKI

Sgt. Depki, 26, was reported missing in action on Jan. 3, 1951, but this letter informed the parents his body was identified and he is now listed as "killed in action."

The Depkis, of 4750 Arline Dr., said Stanley enlisted in the army in Detroit in February, 1949, and was sent almost immediately to Japan where he spent about a year before being sent to Korea.

In a letter written his parents only days before his disappearance, Sgt. Depki told his family he was eligible for rotation but that most of his company had been wiped out in the early days of the war and company records were scrambled.

Sgt. Depki had been listed late last year as being "presumed dead" by Defense Department officials after being missing more than a year in the Korean fighting.

Up to the time of the latest department communique, the parents had held hope "that he might possibly be alive."

He had served with the 19th Infantry Regiment, 24th Division, and was awarded the Bronze Star for heroism in the early days of fighting.

City Pays Off Last Bond

ST. JOSEPH (AP)—The city has authorized payment of the last bond of $118,000 debt incurred in 1924 when a bond issue was floated for public improvements.

Man Holds Up Tavern to Settle His Bar Bill

BALTIMORE (AP) — George R. Steele was sentenced yesterday to 10 years in the Maryland Penitentiary for the armed robbery of a West Baltimore tavern. He pleaded no contest.

He said he used some of the $172 he got from the robbery to pay groceries and other bills, including one he had run up at the tavern he robbed.

Fire Hoses Wash $3,500 in Jewels Off Bench

SAN MATEO, Calif. (AP)—Jeweler Earl Randolph was pleased with the way firemen put out a $10,000, two-alarm fire in his shop yesterday.

But he thinks the firemen might have been a little careless with their hoses. Missing from a work bench swept clean by the water were gold, platinum and four unset diamonds valued at $3,500, Randolph said.

Report Cocoa, Tea Sales Up as Coffee Price Rises

CINCINNATI (AP)—Merchants in the Greater Cincinnati area report sales of cocoa and tea booming as a result of the high price of coffee.

An executive for a supermarket company reported tea sales up 20 per cent in some stores.

Marty Freeman, part owner of Freeman Foods, a chain, said cocoa sales have tripled since the first of the month.

Chief Jimmie, Mayor Jimmie in Sitter Snafu

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Both the mayor and police chief are named Jimmie Hicks, no relation. Garden Young phoned Mayor Jimmie to confirm a date to baby-sit for the March of Dimes campaign.

Young asked the voice on the other end to appear on a radio program "while your services are being auctioned."

"My services?"

"Yes. Your services as a baby sitter which you donated to the March of Dimes."

"A BABY sitter?"

"Is this Mayor Jimmie Hicks?"

"No, this is Police Chief Jimmie Hicks."

DAR Group to Observe 19th Birthday

Piety Hill Chapter to Gather Feb. 9 in Community House

The 19th birthday of Piety Hill Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will be observed Feb. 9 with a luncheon at Birmingham Community House.

The chapter has grown from a small beginning of 12 members to its present membership of 97, who are actively associated with civic affairs.

Dr. Harry A. Pearse, head of obstetrics at Florence Crittendon Hospital, will speak on "Pivotal Points in History." Dr. Pearse is a fellow of the American College of Surgeons and the International College of Surgeons and a diplomate of the American Board of Obstetrics and Diseases of Women.

Dr. Pearse is widely traveled; he has visited Canada, Central and South America and parts of Europe. He has made a special study of Indian archeology.

Hostess committee for the luncheon is directed by Mrs. Harold R. Chapel. Assisting her will be Mrs. Robert F. Watt, Mrs. Roland V. Hutchinson, Mrs. Donald R. Hirschman, Mrs. Newell Allen and Mrs. F. R. Seghers.

Seated at the speaker's table will be the regents of 11 DAR chapters from surrounding areas.

Other special guests will include the five Piety Hill DAR Good Citizens, girls who have been picked from their respective high schools to wear the DAR award pin and to go to the state conference at Battle Creek in March.

Mrs. Robert F. Kohr, chairman of the DAR Good Citizen Committee, will introduce the girls and their mothers, who will also be guests.

Book Reviewed for Zonta Club

A review of a current biography, "Seven Steeples," was given by Adah Shelly when members of Zonta Club met for luncheon Thursday in Hotel Waldron.

According to the speaker, "Seven Steeples" is a narrative of a modern circuit rider, Margaret Henrickson, whose parish includes seven small churches in Maine. Miss Shelly brought out the struggles and successes of this woman in a man's profession.

The club voted a gift to the Rev. Cecilia Learn, a former member of Zonta, whose church in Owosso was recently damaged by fire.

At last week's program the club heard F. R. Wollager, clinical psychologist of the Pontiac Child Guidance Clinic, tell the history of the clinic. He described the clinic's function in treating problems in children in order to prevent major personality problems in adult life.

Dance Scheduled

Several Schools Hold Exercises

City Students Graduate

Several schools held graduation exercises Thursday for students who are entering junior high schools and Pontiac High School.

Baldwin

Baldwin School's mid-year 6A students and their parents were honored by the PTA at a reception and tea in the school.

Mrs. Paul Arndt, PTA president, introduced Philip Wargelin, principal of Lincoln Junior High School, who welcomed the new students to the junior high schools and explained the policies and procedures used there.

A program was presented by the class of 22 students, pupils of Mrs. A. J. Cadieux. Stephen Spratt was master of ceremonies.

Piano solos were presented by Mary Bitterling, who played "Black Hawk Waltz"; Edward Santala, who played "Scarf Dance" and "Minute Waltz," and Tommy Dean, who played "Off to Camp."

Jerry Butler tap danced, accompanied at the piano by Betty Schield Dobyns.

All of the 6A group, accompanied and directed by Mrs. Harold Northon, sang a group of songs. A boys' quartet, composed of Jerry Butler, Edward Santala, Henry Galpin and Tommy Dean, sang.

Members of the Honor Choir in the class, Daria Wittington, Jerry Butler, Edward Santala, Henry Galpin, Carol Tatu and Dorothy Townes, with Tommy Dean and Judith McKinney, sang "Seeing Nellie Home."

Each member of the class participated in the skit "I Remember Baldwin," relating some interesting or humorous episode of his or her experience as a Baldwin student.

Diane Asher made the presentation of flowers to Mrs. Cadieux. Each member of the class received a corsage or boutonniere from the PTA as a parting remembrance.

Refreshments were served from a lace-covered table decorated in the school colors of blue and gold.

Mrs. Herbert Ruggles was chairman, assisted by Mrs. John Heck, Mrs. Daniel Peterson and Mrs. Lyle Dusenbury.

LeBaron

The mid-term group of LeBaron School students who are leaving the school to enter Lincoln Junior High School were honored with a farewell luncheon.

Martha Beauchene, David Bennett, Gerald Bunch, Thanna Carnes, Joanne Dembinski, Charlene Dortch, Rhoda Garrison, Glenda Wagner, Jimmy Henderson, Lenore Hoganson, Gary Sallee, Charles Hawkins, Larry Sapelak, Ruth Snover, Sandra Tinson and George Toth were those honored.

A program of piano solos, singing and magic tricks was presented by the children.

Mrs. Wayne Weaver, Mrs. Walter Mann, Mrs. Russell Marshall and Mrs. Charles Kath were on the refreshment committee.

Eastern Junior High

"The new semester will be a second chance to make a new beginning," said Gerald Hunt, counselor of Pontiac High School, to the graduating class at Eastern Junior High School Thursday morning.

Mr. Hunt and Elma Waterman will be the high school counselors for the 9A class. Mr. Hunt was introduced by Joyce Horton.

The welcoming address was made by Marjorie Robertson to the parents and friends of the 78 members of this graduation class.

Marcelene Dennis reminisced on "Our Days at Eastern," reviewing the activities of the past three years.

Francis Staley, principal, expressed regrets at parting, and a great deal of pride in the students' growth and development, and confidence in their continuing accomplishments.

A class gift of record albums was presented by Ronald Cochrane, and accepted for the school by Sharon Wall.

The 9A Treble Clef Girls, directed by Connie Kolb, sang "Bless the Lord, Oh My Soul" and "I Believe."

The Boys Glee Club directed by Henry Elling, sang "Dance My Comrades."

A duet, "You Alone," was sung by Nancy Ohanesian and Margaret Liddy.

"A Farewell to Eastern" was given by Jane Millard, and the program concluded with the entire audience joining in the "Loyalty Song."

White kid-skin turban (above) is being cleaned with thick soapsuds. A towel stuffed inside keeps solution from seeping through the leather.

Coming Events

Women's Literary Club will hold a silver tea Monday at 2 p.m. in the YWCA with Jean B. Chamberlain of Mayor Cobo's Detroit Narcotics Committee as guest speaker.

Pontiac City Panhellenic will meet Monday at 8 p.m. with Mrs. Maxwell Doerr on Ottawa drive for election of officers. Annual reports will be given.

Queen Mary Group Gathers Thursday

Mrs. Andrew McKerrow opened her Monroe street home Thursday when the Queen Mary Section of the Needlework Guild met. Mrs. John Newton conducted the business meeting.

Members spent the afternoon sewing and knitting. Letters of thanks were read from families who have received garments. The next meeting will be with Mrs. John Gemmell in her Pingree avenue home on Feb. 11.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Michigan State College and her fiance is a graduate of General Motors Institute of Technology.

JEANETTE VIER

With Fluffy Organdy Yokes

Sweaters Gently Demure

NEW YORK (INS)—Lana Turner's sweaters were never like this spring's—gently demure, with fluff organdy yokes.

That's the newest gimmick in sweaters, which have been trimmed in recent years with everything from diamonds to watermelon seeds.

Designer Rosanna today introduced the innovation: An orlon sweater knitted to look like a blouse, with an inset yoke of nylon organdy.

The new "little girl look" sweater, which is just as dunkable and fast-drying as the more conservative synthetics, comes in the form of a short-sleeved pullover. Some versions of the sweater have embroidered organdy yokes with Peter Pan collars. Others have tucked yokes with jewel necklines.

They make interesting combinations of knit and naivete. And any girl who wears them will be more of a Gibson girl than a sweater girl in the eyes of admirers.

Patrons Announced for Feb. 6 'Sno-Ball'

Names of patrons for the "Sno-Ball" dance sponsored by Alpha Omega Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority have been announced by the patrons committee.

Among those attending the dance will be Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Calbi, Mr. and Mrs. John Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Howard O. Powers.

Others are the Harold Jacobsens, the Donald O. Newmans, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Barnett, the Bradley D. Scotts and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hopkins.

Do-C-Do Guesses Names of Dances

Members had to guess the dances represented by the diagrams on the wall when members of Do-C-Do Dance Club met Thursday evening in Webster School.

An extra feature of the evening was three mystery callers in black hoods. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sears, who came with the Les Krumweidies, and Bonnie Manning and Roland Harkless, guests of Dr. and Mrs. George Harkless.

Refreshments were planned by Mr. and Mrs. Roland Gegoux and Mr. and Mrs. John Kinzler.

Missionary Group Gathers at Church

The Missionary Group of Women's Guild of Bethel Evangelical and Reformed Church met Thursday evening at the church for a program on "Our Neighbors on Wheels." Mrs. Ethel Holdridge had charge of the program, and the Rev. M. G. Oesterle spoke briefly.

Mrs. William Galbraith was hostess for the evening.

Ruth Society Meets With Mrs. Lunsford

Mrs. F. B. VanWoert, president of the Ruth Missionary Society of the Joslyn Avenue United Presbyterian Church, opened the Thursday meeting with prayer. Mrs. W. H. Lunsford was hostess in her home on Giddings road.

Mrs. Lyle Cox gave devotions and Mrs. Francis Oaks gave a talk on the prayer cycle. "Missionaries in Egypt" was the title of the program planned by Mrs. Floyd Miller. Mrs. Eugene Hoisington closed the meeting with prayer.

VFW Group Meets

Members of VFW Auxiliary 1006 met Monday evening in the American Legion Home on Auburn avenue. Chairman reports were heard and a Valentine party was planned for Feb. 2.

HAZEL JOYCE WHEELER

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Wheeler of Green Street are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Hazel Joyce, to Gordon M. Davis, son of the George M. Davises of Romeo. The couple is planning an April wedding.

Culture Club Presents Dad's Night

Talk on 'Belonging' Given Thursday by T. N. Slosson

T. N. Slosson of the YMCA spoke on "Belonging" when members of the Child Culture Club held their annual Dad's Night dinner Thursday evening in the YMCA.

Mr. Slosson stressed that it should be a pleasure for our children to belong to and be a part of our homes and organizations. He said that fathers should take a definite interest in the very young child so that by the time high school age is reached, father and son will be real pals.

"We must not wait until it is too late to become acquainted, to give love and affection," he continued.

Mrs. Charles Bowers, Mrs. Dale Swanson, Mrs. Ralph Harrison and Mrs. Robert Benedict planned the table decorations which were carried out in western style.

Program chairman was Mrs. James MacDonald. Social committee members, Mrs. Randolph Burns, Mrs. Hilman Fortney and Mrs. Floyd Crump, planned an evening of dancing.

The club's next meeting will be a revelation dinner to be held in the Mansfield avenue home of Mrs. Harrison

Extension Group Holds Luncheon

Mrs. Harold R. Grogg, Mrs. Leon R. Grogg and Mrs. Glen H. Arthur assisted Mrs. Charles A. Hudson when members of the West Side Extension Group met Wednesday in the Hudson home on Liberty street.

A cooperative luncheon was served and the menu was taken from a previous lesson on "Oven and Broiler Meals."

At the business meeting, plans were made to send Mrs. Harold Grogg and Mrs. D. C. Milbourn to the Feb. 23 meeting on "Up-to-Date Meal Planning." The lesson for the day, Color Harmony, was presented by Mrs. Glen Arthur with discussion following.

The next meeting will be held in Mrs. Milbourn's home on the State Hospital Grounds.

Bridal Party Given for Sandra Willson

Sandra Willson, bride-elect of Cecil Heaslip, was honored with a recent miscellaneous shower in the home of Mrs. W. O. Roesser on Neome drive.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart E. Willson of Lakeland avenue and his parents are the Cecil Heaslips of Commerce Lake. They will speak their vows Saturday.

Calkins WCTU Has Schoolgirl Lunch

Mrs. Laura Gorthy gave devotions from the 27th Psalm when Emor L. Calkins Unit, WCTU, met recently at First Baptist Church for a schoolgirl luncheon.

Mrs. Eleah Patten, state director, reported on citizenship and Mrs. A. D. Steimer, federation president, gave a talk on the Youth Temperance Council. A general discussion followed.

Mrs. Archie Karr accompanied the group singing and Mrs. Gorthy gave the closing prayer.

Parents Should Stand Up for Their Right to Make Errors in Judgment

Otherwise, They'll Be Intimidated

Youngsters Sense Weakness, Pounce On It Wolfishly

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Several months ago, Ann Chapin's mother made a mistake in judgment. Believing some gossip she'd heard about Ann's friend Molly, she told Ann she could not welcome into her home a 16-year-old girl who was seen arriving home with a young man at 5 a.m.

Respecting her mother, Ann accepted her judgment.

Then one day at school, Molly mentioned her cousin Bill. He was, she said, her "ideal" man.

"He was visiting us one weekend when mother got sick," Molly told Ann, "Though it was 3 o'clock in the morning, he got up and drove me around until we found a drugstore that would fill mother's prescription. It was 5 o'clock before we got home. Bill just never gets discouraged. . . ."

Since Mrs. Chapin learned how she had misjudged Molly, life with Ann has been very difficult. She contradicts her mother continually and is impatient with any judgment she makes.

Last week, Mr. Chapin had to be called in to arbitrate an argument. His assistance has not restored Ann's respect for her mother. If anything, she is more impatient and defiant than ever.

So I wish Mrs. Chapin would stop feeling guilty over her mistaken judgment of Molly and realize that as a flesh-and-blood creature, she is entitled to be wrong once in a while.

It's her own acceptance of her weakness as a judge that accounts for Ann's attitude. Mrs. Chapin is making the terrible mistake of permitting all her judgments to be discounted because one turned out to be wrong.

We can't offer anybody perfect judgment, so we are under no moral obligation whatever to behave apologetically if we make an imperfect one.

People, including children, can make us quite unhappy if we don't know how to stand for our right to make occasional mistakes.

Their disparaging attitude can so affect us with uncertainty that we make more mistakes—even the big one of pleading for comfort and "understanding" from the very person who is silently accusing us of weakness.

Rarely do we get the reassurance. For in our daughter, as in you and me, there is an awareness of another's moral weakness as keen as any wolf's scent for spilled blood.

And when we unknowingly allow self-trust to seep from us in guilt over a mistake, the wolf in our human child may pursue us to destroy the rest of our self-trust.

If some romantic person thinks this an extreme comparison, I remind him that it's not mine. It was Jesus who said, "I send you forth as lambs among wolves."

Ann should be warned of this wolfish tendency to exploit our mistake. And be lovingly rebuked for confusing her human parent with God.

It's an encouraging experience to see how much better your complexion looks after you have used a cleanser with a lanolin base which keeps the skin moist, refreshed and thoroughly clean.

Spruce Up Inexpensive Shower Gift

Present for Bride Used as Basis for Pretty Centerpiece

By KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

Put yourself in solid with the bride-to-be and her friends by planning a shower that will be festive but easy on the pocket-book.

You know as well as I do that buying gifts for a round of showers plus the wedding gift is an expensive proposition. But no one likes to spoil the excitement of wedding parties by bringing up this practical detail.

One way to solve the problem tactfully is to have the guests chip in to buy one gift and to use a little showmanship in its presentation.

For example, at one party recently a ribbed glass punch bowl set was the gift presented as a clever springtime centerpiece. The set, which includes bowl, tray and cups, costs about $5.

To duplicate the presentation, all you have to do is to invert the punch bowl on its tray, which should be covered with a lace paper doily.

Take a strip of crepe paper (pale green is pretty), fold in half lengthwise and snip out a double row of petals.

Tie the petal collar around the stem end of the bowl. On top in the hollow base, perch a pastel nosegay for the bride.

Ring the bowl with the cups, set on crepe paper petal-trimmed circles, and plant a dripless candle in each cup.

Well-designed, inexpensive glassware which you see in department and variety stores suggests equally showy centerpiece gifts. Use a big round salad bowl inverted as the base for bride and groom dolls wired or taped to the center of a satin bow.

Narrow ribbons cascade from the bow over the sides of the bowl. Use squat, clear or striped, juice glasses as candleholders.

Rectangular opaque or colored glass casseroles, with or without a metal frame, can be tricked up as kitchen "planters."

Fill with tiny pots of herbs — chives, mint and parsley are usually available — and fragrant spice geraniums ready for a new kitchen window sill.

Spiral-wrap multi-colored crepe paper streamers or ribbons around a tall, slender-necked coffee carafe and let the long ends loop down maypole fashion to the bow-tied handles of coffee cups ringing the carafe.

Corsage for the guest of honor can sprout from the top of the decanter, and the centerpiece can be wreathed with greenery laid flat on the table.

St. Luke painted the first Madonna picture, according to legend.

A charming centerpiece, gaily displayed, serves as a delightful shower gift for the bride-to-be from her hostesses.

Sweet Rolls Can Be Put in Freezer

Mrs. Bennett Says They're Delicious With Any Meal

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Because Mrs. Gordon Bennett makes such excellent use of her freezer, we are glad that she gave us a recipe for sweet rolls that can be frozen. They are delicious to serve for any meal or for a late-evening snack.

Although Mrs. Bennett has a large home and five children to care for, she manages a business career also.

(Right now the household includes three dogs, one goat and 12 chickens!)

Mrs. Bennett is a member of a child study group, the PTA and the Newcomers Club. She knits and sews, doing exquisite smocking on little girl's dresses.

CINNAMON ROLLS
By Mrs. Gordon Bennett

2 cups lukewarm milk
½ cup sugar
2 teaspoons salt
2 cakes yeast
2 eggs
½ cup soft shortening
7 to 7½ cups flour

Mix milk, sugar and salt together and crumble in yeast. Stir in the eggs. Add shortening and flour. Knead the dough until firm and elastic to touch.

Let rise until double. Press down dough and let rise again. Turn out on floured board, divide into two parts and let rest 15 minutes.

Roll each piece of dough into an oblong. Spread with 2 tablespoons soft butter and sprinkle with ½ cup sugar and 2 teaspoons cinnamon. Roll up like a jelly roll.

Slice in 1-inch slices and place in greased baking pan. Let rise 35-40 minutes. Bake in a 375-degree oven 25 to 30 minutes. Makes two pans of 18 rolls each.

Mary Margaret McBride Says:

Pets Aren't Objectionable ---Minus Doting Owners

If there's a rumor going around that I don't like animals, I want to scotch it right now. I am very fond of dogs, cats, rabbits, marmosets, even skunks when descented. What I don't like is the way a good many of the people who have these animals for pets behave.

Mind you, there are exceptions, but most of these men and women act as if nobody had any rights except their animals. They force their pets on you. They even judge your character by the depth of their cat or dog's regard for you.

MISS McBRIDE

I know very well that I'm forever in the black books of one former friend who suddenly became enamored of a small fox terrier. Little Hildebrand, on meeting me, promptly began to chew off my right arm.

Almost automatically, for that's the way self-defense works, I tried to remove my arm from his jaw. In the little tussle that followed, Hildebrand's owner was so completely on his side that she pushed me and I nearly fell down.

"I have never seen him dislike one of my friends before," she commented sternly, eyeing me suspiciously. And that has remained her attitude to this very day.

Another friend whose pet is a cat of doubtful lineage invited me for a suburban weekend. She prefaced the invitation by a pronouncement.

"My house is also the home of my cat," she pointed out. "I will not have her inconvenienced or shut up in the cellar just because there are fussy people about.

"If they don't like Toni they can darned well keep out of my house."

It was a difficult decision to make, but I thought I'd already gone too far to back out then. So Toni and I met. I was friendly, she seemed completely indifferent. That is, she did until I lay down on the couch in the living room for a restful little nap.

My hostess had disappeared on some hospitable errand, and Toni and I were alone. She seemed to be occupied with her own affairs and I went quite peacefully to sleep.

How long my slumber lasted I have no way of knowing, but I suddenly awoke to find myself staring into two enormous green eyes that to my fevered imagination seemed to belong to a wild, ferocious beast. My screams brought my "friend" on the run. She took in the situation at a glance and laughed heartily.

"Toni was interested in seeing what that great lump on the sofa was," she explained with more truth than tact.

I wish I could report that moved by my shattered state, for this once she locked Toni in the cellar. But no, she locked me in my room and Toni had the run of the house as usual.

I wonder if it wouldn't be a good idea to send the owners instead of the animals to training school for manners.

Blames Mail Thefts on Racetrack Debts

HAZEL PARK—A postal clerk who claimed he was driven to stealing from the mails to cover horse bet losses today awaited sentence after pleading guilty before Federal Judge Arthur Lederle in Detroit.

The clerk, 29-year-old Paul S. Bemus of Ferndale, admitted he lost the family savings and went heavily in debt while working at the Hazel Park Post Office near the track.

Ironically, he stole $750 from registered letters that cautious winners at the track mailed from the post office to their homes. He also stole seven winning mutuels tickets being mailed to the track by bettors after the close of the season, netting him $85.

Lapeer Proudly Acclaims Its New General Hospital

By ARNOLD S. HIRSCH

LAPEER — With the snipping of the ribbon across the entrance of the Lapeer County General Hospital this morning, Lapeer now has ready for operation what experts have hailed as "one of the finest small hospitals in the state."

Although the hospital was officially dedicated today, it won't be open for its first patients until Thursday.

Yesterday, medical personnel, hospital officials and newspapermen were given a preview of the glistening, 54-bed hospital. An open house for the general public will continue today through Sunday.

Served only by a small, private hospital set-up in a remodeled house in the city of Lapeer, area residents have been forced to travel 20 miles to Flint for treatment for any major illness or for surgery.

With the new hospital and its staff of 70—including 24 doctors — county citizens will now be able to receive treatment right in their own area.

Two large operating rooms and two delivery rooms dominate the surgical wing of the low-lying hospital.

Doctors already have seven patients scheduled for surgery on opening day, according to C. Theron Van Dusen, secretary of the hospital board of trustees.

Asked how long the trustees thought the hospital as it now stands would be sufficient to satisfy the needs of the community, Van Dusen said, "We won't know until we've been in operation for a few months."

But the trustees were certain some future expansion would be necessary when they mapped original plans for the $970,000 structure.

Van Dusen said utility lines run to the extremes of the Y-shaped building, so more rooms can be added at minimum expense.

He said the building will be added to horizontally when the time comes; no upper floors will be erected.

"We now have basic facilities for a 100-bed hospital," Van Dusen stated. That is, the kitchen, laundry, storage facilities and other sections, in addition to the surgical and treatment areas, were laid out to handle 46 more patients.

Besides the 27 semi-private, two-bedrooms, two nurseries provide 18 bassinets for newborn babies.

Van Dusen said hospital authorities have cited the modern, fireproof structure as one of Michigan's finest.

Sunday night's meeting will feature a recital by Mrs. Alice Smith, versatile organist of Commerce Methodist Church, who will take her listeners on a musical "Trip Around the World." Assisting will be Miss Joanne Reichardt and Mrs. Helen Tinder.

Burns Prove Fatal to 13-Year-Old Girl

WASHINGTON — Caroline Howell, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howell, died yesterday at Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit, of burns she suffered when her Halloween costume caught fire last October.

Funeral service will be held at 2 p. m. tomorrow at Roth's Home for Funeals, Romeo. Burial arrangements are pending.

Surviving her besides her parents are two sisters, two brothers.

New Officers Elected

DRYDEN — Newly elected officers for St. John's Episcopal Guild include Vera Blair, president; Maxine Davis, vice president; Ethel Dockham, secretary, and Mable Hall, treasurer.

Victim of Fumes Falls in Fire

Rescuer Also Burned; Hospital Reports Men in Good Condition

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP — Two employes of a Royal Oak construction firm are in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, today undergoing treatment for burns suffered in a freak accident yesterday.

LeRoy Willis, 38, of Pontiac Township was cleaning the inside of an undercoating tank at the Broshma Construction Co. salvage yard on 14-Mile Rd. when he was apparently overcome by fumes, township firemen said.

He fell out through a hole cut in the side of the tank and into a fire in which waste undercoating was being burned.

Fire officials said the other employe, Kenneth Exelby, 30, of 923 Maple rushed to pull Willis from the fire. In the meantime, flames crept to the tank and ignited the outside of the 5-by-20-foot cylinder.

Willis suffered second and third degree burns on his body and is reported in fair condition. Exelby received first and second degree burns on his face and forehead and is in good condition.

Church Has Installation

ALMONT—An installation service for First Congregational Church officers, board of deacons, board of deaconesses, Sunday school superintendent and committee chairman was held during Sunday worship service. The Rev. Daniel Boxwell conducted the installations.

School for Blind Gets Twist Drill Stock as Bequest

ROCHESTER — The Michigan School for the Blind at Lansing has been bequeathed 1,697 shares of stock in the National Twist Drill and Tool Company.

The will of the late Elizabeth Rinehart, Detroit, directs that the school is to receive stock held by her late husband, Otto Rinehart, who was one of the original stockholders in this company. The company's plant and offices are in Rochester.

Wilbur DeYoung, assistant state attorney general, said the school should realize a total of $83,000 from the estate. He said he recommended that the school sell its gift of 1,663 shares of common and 34 shares of preferred stock.

This is believed to be the largest bequest ever received by the Lansing school.

Sports Car Driver Convicted in Death

HUNTINGTON WOODS—Richard E. Harms, 24-year-old Huntington Woods driver, Thursday was convicted of negligent homicide in the death of a passenger who was killed when Harms' $5,000 sports car went out of control.

Killed was Frederick M. Allmendinger, 35-year-old Royal Oak teacher.

Sentencing of Harms was set by Detroit Traffic Judge George T. Murphy for March 2.

Juniors to Hold Dance

KEEGO HARBOR — Roosevelt High School juniors will sponsor a record dance in the gymnasium Saturday night from 8:30 to 11:30. Senior class members will be special guests.

Notices Go Out After Deadline

Attorney Finds Legality Question on Dates for Candidates, Press

ROMEO — Because of irregularities in official notices of election and in the petitions circulated by candidates, Romeo citizens today faced the possibility of no primary election and a blank ballot in the April 5 general election.

Village Attorney Percy G. Horler said today that the decision was made after the discovery Wednesday that the notice of election had not been published 30 days prior to the Feb. 15 election date, as required by State law.

"You cannot have a primary election unless you take the legal steps necessary to bring it into being," Horler declared. "This has not been done."

Candidates never were officially notified of the Village Council vacancies until after the filing deadline of Tuesday. The legal notices appeared in yesterday's Observer-Press.

It was also reported that several candidates circulated the nonpartisan ballots issued by the Village clerk and later changed them to party petitions when it was found that such a designation was necessary under State regulations.

Romeo's village elections are partisan and party name must be listed in the petition heading.

Other candidates, learning such designation was necessary, made the change before or during the circulation of the petitions.

Since it cannot be determined if signatures had been obtained before of after the headings were changed, they must be discounted, Horler said.

According to Village Clerk Conrad Turrell, 11 petitions were filed for the four vacant Council seats, 10 of them Republican and one Democrat. Five petitions were received for the president's office.

Horler said the only solution will be to run a sticker election in April, with voters pasting in their candidate's name on the blank ballot.

He plans to go to Lansing early next week to consult with both the secretary of state and attorney general's offices.

Pilgrim Club Sponsors Fish Supper Today

METAMORA—Pilgrim Club will sponsor a fish supper today at 5:30 p.m. with the public being invited.

The club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Andison. Next meeting will be in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Lyle Allen. Mrs. Paul Horton will be leader. Her topic will be "The Educated Consumer Knows How to Buy."

Constance Ford Plays the Lead

Star Often on Screen; 'Woman With Past' Is Name of Drama

NEW YORK — Constance Ford plays the title role, Lynn Sherwood, in television's new daytime dramatic serial, "Woman With A Past," which makes its debut next Monday.

Born in the Bronx, N. Y., Miss Ford attended St. Barnabas High School, then entered Hunter College where she majored in speech and drama.

After graduation, she was a Conover model until she got her first theater job in 1946 in summer stock at Ivoryton, Conn. There she met and married Shelley Hull, son of actor Henry Hull.

On Broadway, she has appeared in "Death of a Salesman" and "See the Jaguar." She toured the country in "The Late George Apley," "John Loves Mary" and "Golden Boy," with the late John Garfield.

On television, she has been seen on a number of top shows, including "Suspense," "The Web," "Danger," "The Red Buttons Show," "Philip Morris Playhouse" and "Studio One."

Connie is blonde, 5 feet 4 inches tall, weighs 120 pounds, has changeable eyes (blue-gray-green). She lives in Greenwich Village, likes its informality. Her home is furnished with an eye for comfort.

She likes reading (mostly poetry and plays) and listening to classical music. She loves the beach and some day would like to build a house at the shore. She hates to cook.

R. S. Morris to Run for City Commission

Raymond S. Morris, 40, of 137 W. Brooklyn Ave. is third to file a nominating petition indicating intention to run for city commissioner from District 4.

Pontiac Mayor Arthur J. Law is current District 4 commissioner and announced his candidacy for re-election earlier. Victor L. Smothers has filed as candidate in District 7.

Morris, who filed yesterday, has been a Pontiac resident for the past 18 years. He works at Pontiac Motor Division and also operates a hardware store. He is married, with three school-age children.

Primary election is March 1.

Government Investigating Newspapers, Advertising

NEW YORK (AP)—Asst. U. S. Atty. Gen. Stanley M. Barnes says the Justice Department is conducting twin probes of advertising and newspaper publishing associations.

Barnes, chief of the department's Antitrust Division, spoke yesterday at the 77th annual meetig of the New York State Bar Assn. Afterwards, he told a newsman in answer to a question:

"There is an investigation on that which has to do with certain aspects of newspaper publishing," Barnes said, adding:

"It has not yet progressed into a full-scale investigation and there has not yet been any determination or any grand jury action I can't say what is about, except to say that it exists."

The average American uses the output of about 7.4 acres to supply his needs compared with less than a quarter acre of a typical Japanese.

For the Record

Big 3 Skepticism of Russia Happy Note in Big 4 Talks

By EUGENE LYONS

Mr. Lyons, a former Moscow correspondent, is now a senior editor of The Reader's Digest. His newly published book, "Our Secret Allies, the Peoples of Russia," warns against the delusions of so-called containment and co-existence.

Again the big three of the free world are negotiating with the Soviet dictators. But the atmosphere is not as charged with eager hopes as were similar high-level talks some years ago. The edge of pessimism around the current engagement in Berlin, indeed, is the only optimistic feature of the event.

This time the American people are watching the proceedings with a distinct sense of discomfort. There have been too many episodes of frustration, and much of their past gullibility has been washed out in blood in Korea.

This time they recall that the conferences with Communists in which we lost our shirt, not to mention our national honor, were precisely those hailed at the time as "successful," such as Yalta and Potsdam. The only talks in which we did not surrender something vital were those that broke up, those that "failed."

As a nation we have come to feel, if not quite to understand, that in negotiations the Kremlin has great advantages. One is the advantage always enjoyed by the gangster bargaining with an honest citizen. The honest citizen is compelled by his very nature to live up to the resulting undertakings, whereas the gangster will abide by them only as long as it suits his own convenience.

But the Kremlin holds a larger and more basic advantage. If it is more generally understood, we shall be in less danger of being duped in these conferences.

I refer to the fact that to the Communists' negotiations are never more than tactical moves. Their long-term strategy—aiming at the complete defeat of the free world—is not affected. Even a retreat, if made necessary by circumstances, is just a maneuver, to enable them to regroup their forces for the next offensive.

For Moscow, the conference table is merely a means to some limited end: To make propaganda, or win time, or divide their enemies, as the case may be. Whether they score further gains or make a few concessions, one thing is sure: They will not be carried away by a tide of wishful thinking and begin to dismantle their military power or disband their fifth columns.

The democracies, alas, have no such fixed and immutable purpose to guide them or guard them. For them negotiations are not a means but an end. They can be easily diverted and confused because they do not, in the final analysis, know where they are going. Every conference fertilizes new illusions about some enduring compromise, some magical "settlement" that will freeze the status quo of a divided world and allow them to relax.

Consequently the conference room is for the free world a place of deadly danger. Any losses registered will be real and permanent. But any gains will be tentative and may even hold the seeds of weakness, confusion, and dissension in their ranks. The greatest catastrophe of all would be unexpected and dramatic "successes," since they would breed a new complacency.

We shall be able to engage in negotiations on equal terms with the enemy only when the free world, too, has a clear and firm objective. It must be an objective to match the Kremlin's—namely, the overthrow of the Soviet regime and the liberation of mankind from the threat of communism.

Within the framework of such a decision, we would be able to confer or not to confer in accordance with tactical expediency. We would no longer be in danger of shabby and self-deluding deals garnished with rhetoric about containment and co-existence. We would be forced to recognize that the cold war cannot be compromised: It can only be won or lost. Our failures and successes alike, even as those of the Kremlin, would then make sense in terms of a fixed goal.

But that commitment to a goal has not yet been made. The uneasiness and fear with which the American people observe the doings in Berlin are fully justified.

Rear Admiral Old to Retire on Feb. 1

Rear Adm. Francis P. Old, commandant of the Ninth Naval District, will retire Feb. 1.

Lt. James G. McShane, commander of the training center of Pontiac's Reserve Division 9-104, said the division recently received a letter from Admiral Old expressing appreciation for receptions given him during two visits to Pontiac.

The admiral was in Pontiac in August 1952 and 1953 to present "general excellence" plaques to the local naval reserve for being the outstanding group in 13 states covered by the Ninth Naval District.

Old will be executive director of the Illinois Toll Road Commission after his retirement from service.

Man Suffers Fracture in Collision at Crossing

A Milford man suffered a leg fracture and scalp cuts in a two-car collision early today on Commerce road at Union lake road.

Charles L. Crandell, 45, of 220 Bobolink Dr., was treated at Pontiac General Hospital for injuries suffered when his car struck another auto, driven by Mrs. Laura Feole, 26, of 33234 Fourteen Mile Rd., Farmington.

According to Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies Steve Hawlik nd Earl Madary, Mrs. Feole's car was halted at Union Lake road when Crandell's car skidded into the side of her auto. Both motorists were eastbound on Commerce road.

Slasher Prowls, Montreal Panics

Two More Women Cut in Latest Leg Attacks; Schools Close Early

MONTREAL (AP) — Two more women were attacked last night in a series of razor-slashing incidents that have given Canada's biggest city the jitters.

In the past week, 13 women have been injured. One required 21 stitches. Most of the wounds were minor, however—chiefly cuts on the leg.

Last night's attacks were at opposite ends of the city, at close to the same time. Police speculate there might be two razor wielders at work. Descriptions of the attacker also varied widely.

Fear spread through the city of a million persons. Several schools closed early so children could be home before dusk rush hour. Police got 2,000 phone calls during a three-hour period last night from persons who thought they had seen the slasher.

At least one suspect had been arrested, but police said preliminary questioning indicated he was not the wanted man. They questioned dozens of persons but so far appeared to have no real leads.

A new twist was added last night to the phantom attacks. The man laughed in his victim's face.

Mae Meikle, 21, told police that a man accosted her as she walked along a secluded avenue and told her, "There's blood on your leg."

She said he stood with her a short time, expressing concern, then threw back his head, laughed and ran.

The girl said she thought the man had cut her as she was riding the escalator at a nearby subway station and then followed her into the street.

Usually, however, the slasher has made his attack during a rush hour, then faded away into the crowd or the darkness.

In last night's other attack, a man clamped his hand over the mouth of Marcelle Cusson, 24, as she walked home from work. He gashed her leg, then ran without a word. Ten stitches were required to close the wound.

Gardner Named by Supervisors

Elected Vice President of Michigan Association at Lansing Meeting

Oakland County's James L. Gardner was named first vice-president of Michigan Association of Supervisors as its three-day meeting in Lansing closed Thursday.

Gardner, Commerce Township supervisor, was formerly second vice-president. New president is Fred Wanger of Lapeer.

Oakland County's Board of Supervisors' 25-man delegation—the largest present—suggested two proposals, one of which won the association's approval.

The association passed a resolution urging Michigan's Legislature to amend Act 246 of 1945 so that townships which have their own police departments can keep the fines, penalties and costs they collect. Such fines now go into the state library fund.

A second Oakland county suggestion, urging that Michigan take a census every 10 years midway between federal censuses, was tabled over protest from local delegates.

Oakland County argued that Michigan's population grows heavily — and unevenly — between the 10-year federal census counts. But the money returned to counties from state gas and weight, intangibles and other tax returns is divided according to the last official census figures.

Elmer W. Haack of Birmingham, chairman of the Oakland board of supervisors' equalization committee, led by a panel discussion Wednesday on how the county improved its system of setting values on local property. Panelists were William Grabendike, Herman Stephens and Edwin Sage, staff director, auditor and statistical engineer for the county committee.

Lewis Rejects Ike's Vote Plan

Labor Leader Refuses to Testify on Changes in T-H Law

WASHINGTON (INS) — United Mine Workers President John L. Lewis declined to testify today on the administration's Taft-Hartley amendments and instead fired a blast at what he called President Eisenhower's "pale palliatives."

The outspoken labor leader, in a letter to Chairman Alexander Smith (R-NJ) of the Senate Labor Committee, called again for repeal "in toto" of the Taft-Hartley Act.

He refused Smith's invitation to appear before the committee in person and then went on to denounce the present law and the President's suggested modifications.

In a slap at Eisenhower, he wrote: "A far cry, these amendments, from the utterances of the presidential candidate in the summer and fall of 1952 when, for political favors sought, genuine relief was promised. It is not to be found in the current proposals or in S. 2650 (Smith's own bill)."

Lewis specifically rejected the administration suggestion for a government-conducted strike ballot.

He charged that the President "proposes to rivet around a labor organization and its members a double iron band of restraint and oppression, apparently returning in his thinking to the long discredited doctrine that human labor is a commodity or article of commerce."

Administration informants already have made it clear that the strike vote proposal is one they will not "bleed and die" for.

3 Escape as Auto, Tank Truck Collide

OWOSSO (UP) — Three persons had a narrow escape Thursday when a tank truck carrying nearly 4,000 gallons of fuel oil collided with a car west of here.

Paul Sischo, 42, Alma, said his truck jack-knifed when he tried to avoid ramming a car driven by Mrs. William R. Wilson, 45, Owosso. He said Mrs. Wilson turned into his path.

The truck toppled over on the car and partially crushed it but the fuel oil did not burn. Mrs. Wilson, Sischo and his son Garland, 15, all escaped injury.

Treat Youngsters' Teeth at Hawthorne and Owen

Pontiac Public Schools' fluoride treatment center will move to Owen School Feb. 8 to treat the teeth of second-grade students in Hawthorne and Owen schools.

Miss Josephine Seeley, the school system's health services coordinator, says 57 children have paid for the $4 decay-preventing treatment. The school program is co-sponsored by Michigan and Oakland County Dental Societies and Pontiac and Oakland County health departments.

Want to Lose Weight . . . Easy Like?

Elmer Starts on His Diet; ...Oh! Scales Are Wrong

By ELMER WHEELER

Chapter 3

"Hold on to your hats, boys — here we go again!"

That's what I shoud have said to myself. There I was, all ready to start dieting again, just like I'd done three times a year ever since I first noticed that I couldn't stand up straight and still see my feet.

Dieting again, just as I'd done dozens of times before. I was an old hand at it now. I knew all the angles.

I dug out my old diet books. Brushed up on my calorie charts Put a digest of what to eat and what not to eat in my vest pocket, and I was on my merry way.

I never bothered with seeing a doctor or a diet expert. I already had all the answers, so why spend money to have someone else repeat them to me?

No need to see a doctor, I told myself. All I had to do was cut out sugars and starches, as the books say, and do push-ups.

Best exercise in the world, pushing yourself up from the table.

All I was eating was one real meal a day now. How could anyone get fat on just one meal a day?

Why, I was eating like a bird. Couldn't help but lose weight. It was plain and simple logic.

I cut all salt out of my diet.

My breakfast now was merely a double orange juice (a fellow's system needs fruit, of course), three slices of rye bread (nothing fattening if it isn't white I figured), some peanut butter, jam and black coffee. No cream or sugar.

Still the typical dieting fatty, who makes a profession of it, I didn't eat a single thing for lunch. Well, that is, nothing heavy.

Just a large bowl of split pea or cream of chicken. A handful of crackers.

Then a sandwich. Nothing heavy about that, certainly. A glass of milk — it's all liquid, isn't it? No pies. Not me.

Somehow I managed to get through the days. Each night I would rush home, fall weakly on the divan, and wait for dinner.

Brother, how I ate! But why not? One meal a day couldn't hurt a fellow, could it?

My diet spree was in full swing now.

Never let up. One meal a day, no heavy meals till night.

No sugars, no starches.

Years ago I had learned you should never weigh yourself every day, because if you found you hadn't lost five more pounds every time you stepped on the scales you felt disappointed.

So I waited to weigh myself at the end of three full weeks, when the results would really show.

It isn't until you're down 10 or 15, maybe 20 pounds, that you really begin to feel you're accomplishing something.

The three weeks were up. Elmer's hour of triumph was at hand. So was the whole family.

They all gathered around for the important announcement, the special bulletin from the front.

I stripped to my drawers. Stood on the scales. Held my breath. Smiled smartly at the little gathering around me.

Then I gasped. My family gasped. The scales gasped.

Something must be wrong, I figured.

I was four pounds heavier than when I started my "dieting" three weeks ago!

No sugars — no starches — black coffee — one meal a day, and I'd gained instead of lost weight!

Injured Royal Oak Man Listed in Good Condition

A 34-year-old Royal Oak man hit last night by a car at Washington and Kenilworth in Royal Oak is reported in good condition today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Jack Smith of 323 W. Kenilworth, suffered a compound fracture of his right leg and arm injuries when he was struck by a car driven by Lawrence P. Tierney, 19, of 23313 Carlisle, Hazel Park.

Tierney told Royal Oak police that he did not see Smith standing in the center of the northbound lane on Washington until he was 10 feet from him. Tierney applied his brakes, he said, but skidded into Smith. He was not held.

Local Communities to Continue Couzens' Aid Program

The late Sen. James Couzens' Children's Fund of Michigan gave Oakland County some $365,000 to help local youngsters during the past 25 years.

The fund, set up by Couzens with a $10,000,000 grant in 1929, will expire in April.

But the Senator's help will go on—for local communities have seen the value of Children's Fund programs and are willing to pay the costs themselves.

Sen. Couzens, an organizer of Ford Motor Co. in 1903, resigned as its vice-president and treasurer in 1916. He served as Detroit Police Commissioner, Mayor and was appointed U. S. Senator in 1922 to fill a vacancy. Voters re-elected him twice, and he served from 1922 until 1937. His late years were spent at his home in Bloomfield Hills.

Through his Children's Fund, Couzens tried to give local youngsters healthier teeth, a "second chance" when they'd run afoul of the law, and recreation they could not have paid for.

The most extensive local program, probably was the year-round dental clinic, which cost about $200,000 over the past 23 years.

The fund kept a full-time dentist in South Oakland County from 1930 until this year for youngsters who needed work on their teeth but couldn't pay. A second dentist visited north Oakland county schools, working off and on for a dozen years.

These two men filled 127,077 teeth, pulled 59,100 others and protected 2,496 youngsters against tooth decay with sodium fluoride.

The $200,000 also helped set up 12-week summer "fluoride treatment" clinics. For four summers, from 1949-52, dental students moved from school to school, treating children's teeth.

Dr. John D. Monroe, director of the Oakland County Health Department, says the department will take on the year-round dental program "as soon as we can get a dentist to do it." Many communities, he said, are taking on the fluoride treatment jobs themselves.

Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore says Children's Fund money showed county officials that living in a boarding home, instead of an institution, could be better for delinquent children as well as orphaned youngsters.

The fund poured $44,500 from 1940-48 to pay expenses for five to 15 so-called "bad" youngsters to stay in homes. The county saw that the program worked, took it over, and expanded it.

Pontiac Boys' Club got $25,000 from the Children's Fund for its new building, where boys now gather every night.

St. Joseph Mercy Hospital got $10,000 to enlarge its children's clinic.

Pontiac's Visiting Nurse Association, which helps households get healthier and stay that way, got $68,750 in steady grants from 1934 until 1952.

Oakland County Town and County YMCA got a $1,000 grant in 1948; South Oakland County Girl Scouts got $4,600 in 1947-48; and Royal Oak Township's Recreation Committee got $6,950 for its children's camping program between 1929-31.

Another $3,100 went to the Oakland County Friend of the Court in 1930-32 to help children in divorce-broken homes.

Judge Holds Sentence to Study Man's Report

ADRIAN (UP)—Circuit Judge Rex Martin deferred sentencing of Charles Herd, 39, an Adrian factory worker convicted of assault and battery in the beating of his 10-year-old daughter last November.

Authorities said Herd struck the child in complaints over a meal she had served him. Judge Martin said he wanted to see a probation report before sentencing the man.

Bill Would Aid Handicapped

Rep. Broomfield Offers Tax-Supported Plan for Educational Care

A bill which would enable voters in Oakland and Wayne Counties to establish a tax-supported program for handicapped children has been reported out of committee today in the House of Representatives at Lansing.

The bill is sponsored by Rep. William S. Broomfield, of Royal Oak.

It would authorize county school superintendents of the two counties to formulate such a program and go before the voters with a request for a special tax levy for its support.

"There are some 300 handicapped children in Oakland County alone who now receive little or no educational care and are home-bound by their afflictions," Broomfield told the Press.

Under the proposed legislation any plan developed by the school people would require approval of the electorate for financing.

Famed Falls to Have Face Lifted

The United States and Canada have started the largest plastic surgery job in history.

A $17½ million face-lifting of Niagara Falls is underway.

In order to prevent further erosion (some sections have lost 900 feet in the past 250 years) the roaring Niagara River will be diverted temporarily.

Two sections of the Horseshoe (Canadian) Falls must be laid bare, filled like giant teeth and treated to keep them from further crumbling.

In addition, a grated control structure will be erected in the river about a mile above the falls, extending 1,500 feet from the Canadian side.

By controlling water through the control's tunnels, it is hoped that enough water will flow for scenic purposes, but not enough to cause further erosion.

The International Board of Control says work must be completed by July, 1957.

Pitching Horseshoes

Rose Says It's Wise to Give a Man Time

By BILLY ROSE

Here's an answer to an Indignant Housewife who wants me to go after Robert Moses, our park commissioner. Bob is a bit of a problem child. What's more, I have the scars to prove it. Back in 1939, I locked horns and tempers with him over the size of my "Aquacade" sign at the New York World's Fair.

BILLY ROSE

In the end, I got most of my sign, but I've always thought that Bob was out of line when he insisted that I conform to public park standards on a neon-cluttered midway.

Now, play a game with me . . . close your eyes and imagine a man with a small body, big head and an ornery face. This chap believed that, because of his talents, the world owed him a living. All his life he borrowed from anyone within earshot.

To sum up: His only preoccupation was himself, believing he was a great musical genius.

This rapscallion died about 70 years ago, and the joke is that he was dead right on all scores. He really was a genius; and the world did owe him a living.

The pain he gave his friends during his life was a flyspeck compared to the pleasure he has given the world since.

His name, as you have guessed, was Richard Wagner, and the 13 great music dramas he wrote will be performed as long as there are voices to sing them. . .

Now, I'm not comparing Bob Moses with Richard Wagner. For one thing, the commissioner's morals and honesty are, as they say, above reproach. For another, his obsession is beautiful concrete, not beautiful music.

But I submit that Moses is something of a genius himself in the civic-planning field, and that the parks, parkways and slum-clearance projects he has dreamed up and built will be around long after his unhappy gift for words has been forgotten.

So I say, dear lady, disagree with Bob when he's wrong, shout him down if necessary, but never, never make him mad enough to quit.

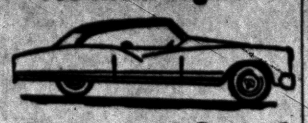

On account of because there are plenty of other cities which would be delighted to avail themselves of his services.

Mattson Widow Will Be Quizzed

Police Seek New Lead in Slaying of Romantic Steel Executive

DETROIT (UP)—Police planned to question the widow of slain steel company executive John W. Mattson today in hopes of turning up new leads in the search for his mysterious slayer.

Homicide Inspector Edward Reilly said police delayed questioning the woman, Sylvia Mattson, 51, until after services were held for her husband Thursday afternoon.

Mattson, 53, traffic manager for the Atlas Steel Corp., was shot through the head with a high-powered deer rifle Monday night while working at his desk.

Several clues have collapsed but police said they still believed the shooting was an outgrowth of Mattson's passion for courting other women.

Reilly said he hoped Mrs. Mattson would be able "to give us a new approach to the case." He also said detectives were checking into Mattson's past business affairs in search of other leads.

The investigation has drawn at least three "other women" into the case. They are a Milwaukee, Wis., divorcee with whom Mattson spent holidays and vacations during the past five years, a Detroit woman who told police she spent last Saturday night in a hotel with Mattson and a drugstore waitress with whom Matson exchanged "puppy love" notes.

The Milwaukee woman, 40-year-old Mrs. Marilyn Monfrey, said she never suspected Mattson was married during the five years he was courting her.

"He never mentioned a word that he was married and even suggested that we get married on one of our trips to California," she said.

C. of C. Committee Heads Hold Year's First Meet

Pontiac Chamber of Commerce 1954 committee chairmen met yesterday at the Hotel Waldron to discuss a work program for the coming year, according to Robert J. St. Clair, C. of C. manager.

The first official meeting was called by Milo J. Cross chamber president for 1954.

Committee heads attending were Richard W. Fisher, civic affairs; Dr. Leonard Klausmeyer, education; Harvey Johns, fire prevention; William Kalwitz, governmental affairs; Edward L. Kar-Kau, industrial affairs and Curtiss Patton, membership.

Others were, John C. Cowe, Pontiac Foundation; John Stefanski, Better Business Board; Clyde Haskill, safety committee; and Maurice Barnett, transportation.

Detectives Nab Youthful Trio of Burglars in Bar

HOUSTON (UP)—Three burglars captured inside the Joy Bar yesterday trembled nervously as arresting detectives entered the place with drawn guns.

Earlier, polic said, the trio had sawed the hinges off a poultry store's safe in a vain attempt at entry.

But police thought the trembling trio shouldn't have been so embarrassed at their amateurish methods. After all, they explained, the bar was just their third job.

Detectives also pointed to the ages of the captives: 10, 11 and 13.

Detroiter's Will Calls for Drawing to Allot Effects

DETROIT (UP)—Carl F. Clarke's extraordinary will now has court approval.

So, at a date to be specified, 51 friends will sit down to dinner at a hotel and draw lots for his personal effects.

Clarke, 79, a business executive, died Nov. 16, leaving a $150,000 estate. His will provided for the dinner and lot-drawing. The will was admitted to probate yesterday.

Two nieces, Mrs. Leola C. Greer of Magnolia, Ohio, and Mrs. Frances Hamblen of Portland, Ore., are bequeathed $1,000 each. Clarke also gave 100 items of art work to museums and friends.

Marine Pfc. Is Acquitted in Dec. 2 Shotgun Killing

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UP)—A general court-martial acquitted Marine Pfc. L. C. Kemp, 23, of San Angelo, Tex., yesterday of murder in the shotgun slaying of a civilian gardener here Dec. 2.

Kemp admitted he shot the gardener, Irving V. LeFever, 27, at the San Diego Marine Corps Recruit Depot after a dispute over respect to the morning raising of the national colors.

The Marine was guarding brig prisoners with the shotgun the morning of the shooting. He testified that LeFever threatened the security of his prisoners.

Watch Zaroubin Gouzenko Says

Ex-Soviet Code Clerk Warns U. S. of Russian Envoy in Washington

WASHINGTON (INS) — Igor Gouzenko, former Soviet code clerk in Canada, said today that Georgi N. Zaroubin, Russian ambassador to the U. S., should be kept under constant surveillance.

Zaroubin was Soviet envoy to Canada when Gouzenko, now a ward of the Ottawa government, fled the Russian Embassy with 109 documents which were used to break a sizable Communist atomic spy ring.

Gouzenko, in a prepared television interview with commentator Drew Pearson, said Zaroubin "knew about the general set-up," but not the details.

He said Zaroubin was instructed to help Col. Zabotin, military attache for the Soviet Embassy in Ottawa, and others in an effort "to make their work go harmoniously."

Gouzenko was asked: "Would you consider him (Zaroubin) a dangerous man to have in Washington, especially one to carry on conversations regarding the future of atomic energy?"

He replied: "I would suggest to watch him, to be careful."

Zaroubin recently conducted preliminary talks with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles on Russia's agreement to discuss President Eisenhower's peacetime atomic pool proposal.

Gouzenko also said he did not find the name of the late Harry Dexter White, former assistant secretary of the Treasury, in the documents he turned over to the Canadian government.

PERCHING PARTRIDGE—A partridge, befriended by Robert A. Haskins of Savoy, Mass., perches atop his cap as it responds to Haskins' call in the woods high in the Berkshires.

11 State Legislators Vote to Back Seaway

WASHINGTON (UP) — Eleven of Michigan's 13 Republican House members voted unanimously Thursday to support eforts for joint U.S.-Canadian construction of the St. Lawrence Seaway.

Rep. George A. Dondero said the two who did not attend the meetings, Reps. Clare E. Hoffman and John B. Bennett, sent word of their approval.

Dondero said the meeting to discuss the seaway was called by Rep. Jesse P. Wolcott, dean of the Michigan delegation.

Chrysler Slashes Prices on Power Steering Units

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. has cut from $5 to $35 off factory retail prices of its power steering.

Power steering units on DeSoto, Chrysler and Chrysler Imperial models have been reduced $35. The new price, announced Thursday is now $130 on these models.

A $15 cut was announced on the unit in Dodge cars, making the price $125. Plymouth also came in for a $5 reduction on its power steering. The new price is $125, same as that of the Dodge unit.

Labor Outlook Bright for Flint

State Employment Men Estimate 3,000 to Be Hired in Next 2 Months

FLINT (INS) — Employment counselors at industrial Flint disclosed record employment today and estimated that an additional 3,000 workers will be needed in the next two months.

Representatives of the Michigan Employment Security Commission counted total Flint employment at 127,300, chiefly in automobile plants, said a shortage of workers is near in construction, utilities and allied industries.

R. C. Atkins, MESC branch manager at Flint, said joblessness currently totals about 3,700 workers, slightly higher than last month. But Atkins said many of that number will be absorbed into the work force within the next 60 days.

The remainder, according to Atkins, are such "special" cases as crippled and aged workers.

The Flint disclosure appeared as a bright spot in an otherwise gloomy employment outlook for the state of Michigan and elsewhere. Unemployment currently is estimated at between 130,000 and 150,000 persons throughout the state with more than 100,000 idle in the Detroit area alone.

County Officials Cleared of Ballot Fraud Charge

BATTLE CREEK (INS) — Probate Judge Edmund R. Blaske and Calhoun County Clerk Edward J. Morse stood cleared today of charges they authorized excessive costs for printing election ballots.

The two were indicted in warrants authorized by one-man grand juror Raymond W. Fox of Kalamazoo.

In dismissing the charges Circuit Judge Eugene S. Huff of Saginaw said the two were "charged with wilful neglect to perform a duty which the law imposed upon others and not upon them."

New Plan May Reopen Talks

Dulles Expected to OK Scheme for Renewing Korean Negotiations

WASHINGTON (INS)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles now in Berlin for a Big Four foreign ministers conference was asked today to approve a draft of a new formula for resumption of preliminary peace talks in Korea.

Dulles is expected to agree to the proposed answer to Communist China's demand for prompt renewal of the talks and it may be forwarded to the Reds this weekend.

The compromise approach to the stalemated Panmunjom talks renewed hopes in diplomatic circles that the deadlock soon will be broken.

The tentative plan for resumption of the talks has been approved by the U. S. representatives in Washington and delegates of the other 15 U. N. nations who fought in Korea.

The plan is understood to be two-fold:

1. The U. S. would suggest a conference between the Communist representatives in Panmunjom and Deputy Kenneth Young to determine if there is a logical basis for resumption of talks.

2. The U. S. would agree to put aside—for the time being—its previous demand that the Communists withdraw their "perfidy" charge, so that Ambassador Arthur H. Dean could return to Panmunjom to represent the U. N. in preliminary negotiations.

Boning Up for Role as 'Woman Driver'?

BATON ROUGE, La. (INS) — Chivalrous Louisiana police took no action today against a Baton Rouge "lady" motorist who drove a car through half a grocery store causing $400 damage.

Barbara Leonard watched her mother step into the store to shop and apparently decided to follow her. The car plunged through the window when the two-year-old girl turned the self-starter key.

Colombia Restricts Non-Catholic Aliens

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—Roman Catholic Colombia's government has issued orders reminding public officials that non-Catholic foreigners in Colombia must not engage in religious activity outside their church or chapel premises.

The orders were contained in a circular from Interior Minister Lucio Pabon Nunez. It cited a number of religious acts prohibited to non-Catholic foreigners under the constitution and an agreement with the Holy See.

It added that Protestants may not carry out public missionary work or educational work, except that they may teach children of non-Catholic foreigners.

City Employe Hit by Car

A city employe, Roman Dailey, 50, of 3406 Joslyn Rd. escaped injury when he was struck by an auto on Wyoming street near Franklin Rd. Thursday afternoon, according to Pontiac Police. Dailey was hit by a car being pushed by another car, police said.

Protests Removing Tax Exemptions on City Bonds

BENTON HARBOR (AP)—The City Commission is protesting to Congress a move to remove the tax exemption from interest on municipal housing bonds and municipal bonds issued for industrial development purposes.

The protest is based on the feeling such a move would be an opening wedge in destroying tax exemptions of all state, school and municipal bonds.

Both Gibraltar, Morocco Giving Spain a Headache

By PHIL NEWSOM
United Press Foreign News Editor

Long-smouldering Spanish annoyances and aspirations found violent expression this week.

Spanish university students marched against the British embassy in Madrid, consulates and scattered other British institutions in Spain, in protest against Queen Elizabeth's scheduled visit to Gibraltar.

And when Spanish police turned them back, their anger turned against the police.

The student demonstrations were the physical evidences of one of two quarrels in which Spain suddenly found herself embroiled last week.

One was her 250-year-old quarrel with Britain over possession of Gibraltar.

The other involved her with France over Morocco.

On the one hand, these quarrels recall the swashbuckling days when Britain and Spain fought for control of the seas and a vast, new colonial empire.

On the other, they involve a modern-day cloak and dagger thriller as good as any on the book shelves.

And they also denote a growing Spanish determination to win a place among the world powers.

Neither France nor Britain ever has been overly friendly with the Franco regime of Spain, and they are inclined now to blame some of Spain's new confidence on the recently concluded United States deal for Spanish bases.

A great deal of Spanish pride is involved in the Gibraltar issue but it is a relatively simple one, based on the fact that the British have held "The Rock" most of the time since 1704 and the Spaniards want it back.

The Moroccan question is more involved and more interesting.

Morocco is a sultanate, part of which is under Spanish jurisdiction and the remainder under French. French Morocco comprises an area of 153,870 square miles and 8,540,000 people, as opposed to Spanish Morocco's 18,000 square miles and 1,062,000 people.

Of the two areas, French Morocco represents by far the greatest investment and is by far the most advanced.

But the same sultan theoretically rules over both and the Spanish were irritated when the French, without consulting them, arbitrarily removed Sultan Sidi Mohammed Ben Youssef and replaced him with aging Sultan Ben Moulay Arafa—whom the Spanish refer to contemptuously as a "French poodle."

Last week, with what seemed to be Spanish permission and encouragement, Moroccan tribesmen and religious leaders met in the Spanish Morocco capital of Tetouan, defied the rule of the new French-supported sultan and demanded separation from French Morocco.

The French hit the ceiling and officially protested to Spain.

Also nervous was the United States. It is a signatory to the Algeciras Treaty which assures the unity of Morocco. Russia also is a signer and the U.S. feared the Reds might seize upon the situation to attack U.S. bases in Morocco.

Meanwhile, the French uncovered a "kidnap plot" against the deposed sultan and packed him, his wives and his concubines off to a still undisclosed new site of exile.

Mentioned as a key figure in the "plot" has been the scar-faced Nazi adventurer, Col. Otto Skorzeny, who successfully kidnaped Premier Benito Mussolini after Italy's surrender to the Allies.

State Man on Nautilus

EATON RAPIDS (AP) — Thirty-one-year old J. J. (Johnny) Krawczyk of Eaton Rapids, who attended high school here, was aboard the Nautilus, America's first atomic submarine, as fire controlman first class when the vessel was launched last week.

Americans consume around 60 billion eggs a year.

Rabbits should not be lifted by the ears. The best way is by the loose skin at the back of the neck, at the same time supporting the hind part of the animal by placing one hand under the hind feet.

Economic Plans Divide Solons

Dems Find Program Ineffective; GOP Lauds President's Request

WASHINGTON (AP)—Key congressional Democrats declared today President Eisenhower's economic program falls far short of effective action to meet a current business dip—while Republicans strongly backed the White House.

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala), senior Democrat on the Senate-House Economic Committee, said the President offered "noble generalities." He added:

"I don't think the measures he has proposed hold much hope of a greater prosperity. The danger signs are out. He is not meeting them. He has the tools but he is not using them."

And Rep. Bolling (D-Mo), another committee member, said:

"The President seems to think our economy will be affected by pious exhortations. I think we need to move faster and harder. We need more action and fewer words."

On the other hand, Sen. Watkins (R-Utah), second-ranking GOP committee member, declared the President was "dead right" in his appraisal that the present downturn is a moderate inventory adjustment and that the economy should turn upward again in a few months.

Watkins said the President offered a "very sound program" to meet the situation. "A short time ago," he said, "everybody was screaming to stop inflation. Now we've stopped it, and of course there are bound to be some adjustments. We are stablizing the economy. Does anybody want to start prices zooming again?"

These and similar conflicting views by other members were expressed in separate interviews as the committee scheduled a closed session to get further word from Dr. Arthur Burns, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers.

Burns led a procession of Cabinet members, economists, business and labor leaders who will testify in the next few weeks on the President's economic report to Congress, delivered yesterday. The committee is due to report its reaction by March 1.

Collect Information for Michigan Probe

FLINT (UP)—Two congressional investigators were in Flint today collecting information for the House Un-American Activities Committee which opens hearing in Michigan next month.

The investigators, Donald Appell and W. Jackson Jones, said the committee expected to start hearings here in March.

Rep. Kit Clardy (R-Mich), a member of the committee, said in Washington Thursday that hearings would start in Detroit Feb. 22, then move on to Flint and Lansing.

CIO to Meet City Council to Discuss Unemployment

DETROIT (INS) — The Wayne County CIO Council today said it will meet Feb. 11 with the Detroit Common Council in an effort to help resolve what it called "Detroit's employment situation."

A letter to councilmen said the CIO group was prepared to make "concrete and specific" recommendations on steps to curb growing industrial unemployment.

The origin of bread making antedates recorded history.

Williams Wire Hits Bricker Amendment

LANSING (INS) — Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan indicated his opposition today to the proposed Bricker amendment to the U. S. Constitution limiting executive treaty-making powers.

In a telegram to Sen. Styles Bridges (R-N H) president pro tem of the Senate, Williams, a Democrat, declared:

"Convinced that adoption of the Bricker amendment would weaken seriously the effective leadership of this country at a time when we stand between the free world and the domination of an atheistic power, I urge the rejection of the Bricker amendment."

Neighborly Chat Quieted Quickly by Irate Judge

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A 61-year-old mother of 14 children who "hardly talked at all" served a six-hour jail sentence yesterday for violating a judge's new rule of silence.

Mrs. Catherine Purtiler said, "You'd think I was a criminal or something," as she sat in jail following the sentence imposed by Municipal Judge Peter B. Muir.

Mrs. Purtiler, grandmother of 31 children, and Mrs. Dorothy Long, 27, each were charged with contempt of court for talking during the session. The judge had just announced that violators of his new no-talking-or-whispering rule would be fined or jailed.

Mrs. Long paid the fine. Mrs. Purtiler chose the sentence because "I needed the money for the rent tomorrow."

Said Mrs. Purtiler: "Why, it's the most natural thing in the world for two women to talk to each other when they are sitting side by side. I just can't believe I'm here."

Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia combined to form the Confederate States of America in 1861.

Chief Quits Joint Boundary Board

WASHINGTON (AP) — A. O. Stanley, chairman of the United States section of the International Joint Commission, announced today he is resigning effective Feb. 1.

Stanley, a Democrat who has resisted efforts of the Eisenhower administration to make him yield the $10,600 a year post, told a reporter that "the administration is hard up for jobs." Presumably, he was referring to administration attempts to put Republicans in top government positions.

The Joint Commission regulates the use of United States-Canadian boundary waters. Its membership is equally divided between Americans and Canadians.

Stanley has been a member of the commission since 1930 and its chairman for virtually all that time. He is a former governor of Kentucky, a former senator from that state and also a former member of the House.

Hal Boyle Says:

Younger Set Is Missing the Thrill of Growing Up

NEW YORK (AP)—Sometimes I feel sorry for the younger generation.

They have so many things to entertain them they often don't know how to enjoy themselves. It is so frighteningly easy for them to get lost today in a wilderness of pleasures that can harm them as much as help them.

To grow up in any period of the earth's past has always been a stern and lonely task. Many people who manage to grow up physically never do so emotionally. And mentally they merely gradually merge from first childhood into second childhood. All they have learned from living they could write on a postcard.

A child should walk the world in wonder. Maybe I am getting to be a middle-aged fuddy-duddy, but it seems to me that our complex civilization today does as much to blunt a child's natural sense of wonder as it does to perpetuate it.

Many children today learn from television the proper way to hold a gat before they learn the alphabet. Isn't it too fast a step to go directly from "mother goose" to "Dragnet?" Shouldn't there be something in between?

Many a person at 40 can still remember the tremendous thrill of finding an orange in his stocking on Christmas morning. A whole orange for himself! And what a terrible problem it brought: Would the delicious ecstasy of eating it balance the sadness of knowing it was all gone?

Naturally a child today could hardly be expected to show awe over the gift of an orange. Oranges are commonplace. They are taken for granted. But what would awe many of today's pre-teen-age sophisticates, so used to miracles they don't know what a miracle is? If Santa Claus left them a slice of moon cheese, wouldn't they take that for granted, too?

Children used to entertain themselves. Many modern mothers now complain to their husbands at nightfall, "I'm all worn out trying to think up things to keep the children entertained." But why should any healthy child ever have to be entertained by its parents, except perhaps on rainy days or periods of illness?

Simple joys are better for young minds than complex pleasures—and for older minds, too, for that matter. In the present jukebox age how many of our children still know the delight of simple things, how many lose the path in a mechanical jungle? Isn't it more fun for a kid to throw a rock at a tincan on a fence than to mow down dear old grandma with a toy atom ray gun?

But the thing I pity the youngsters most for now is their dwindling interest in reading. A book is the pening portal to the vast hall of the human spirit; libraries are the shrines of the mind. No canned music, no flickering pictures on a movie or video screen can truly stir the imagination of a child as well as a book.

Somerset Maugham, who turned 80 this week, once wrote:

"Intelligent people, after the age of 30, read nothing at all."

It isn't quite that bad. But it certainly is true that most people do most of their reading when young, and gain the ideas they spend the rest of their lives exploring.

Many a high school by now can discuss the asmosphere on Mars or the problems of tailoring a space suit. But has he walked the streets of old London with David Copperfield, or floated down the Missis- Probably not, unless his teacher led him on a conducted tour.

There is no doubt children today are smarter in many ways, know more facts about more things, than any previous kid crop, but they are an old-young generation. I think they mature too fast, dull the edge of wonder too soon, and miss the joy of being young in a simpler time.

Aren't you glad you were born when you were?

Actor Has Office in White House

WASHINGTON (AP)—A onetime union official and Franklin D. Roosevelt admirer has moved into the White House.

He's been a Republican for years, however, and he's on the employer side of the bargaining table these days. Most people know him best as an actor and television producer. His name is Robert Montgomery.

Reporters noticed the handsome, strikingly well-dressed Montgomery had been around the executive offices quite a bit lately. Yesterday they asked how come and got the answer: he has been given a White House office—but no salary—so he'll be handy to advise President Eisenhower on radio and television techniques.

The Montgomery-to-Washington move didn't surprise the former Hollywood star's friends. Montgomery has been keenly interested in politics for a long time, and was a likely candidate for assistant secretary of the Navy if Thomas E. Dewey had been elected president in 1948.

The new semiofficial job of radio-TV adviser is only part-time for Montgomery. He's continuing to produce his Monday night television drama show "Robert Montgomery Presents." But he spends a lot of time at the White House—Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday this week, for example, even though no major presidential speech is scheduled in the immediate future.

He has advised the President from time to time before this, beginning with his Christmas Eve message to the nation. He directed, in effect, Eisenhower's television chat with the public early this month, and made suggestions for improving delivery of the State of the Union address.

One idea that paid off: raising the President's reading stand a few inches so Eisenhower could see better and the television cameras would pick up more of his face than of his not-very-well-thatched head.

Few people know it but this isn't Montgomery's first White House stint. In 1942, when in the Navy, he supervised installation of a wartime operations room there, and developed a warm admiration for Franklin D. Roosevelt.

In his Hollywood days, Montgomery was a leading figure in the AFL Screen Actors Guild and became its president.

He is a native of Beacon, N. Y.

Circus Parade Coming Back, Says Beatty

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Clyde Beatty is bringing back a venerable but faded American institution — the Circus parade.

Many Americans can remember the thrill of sitting on a curb and watching the wonderland of the circus march down the main street of town. In the past decade or two, that experience has been denied youngsters.

"We haven't had a parade for 12 years," said Beatty, circus operator and greatest of the wild animal trainers. "But this year we're going to try it. I got the idea when we staged a parade while we were filming 'Ring of Fear' in Tucson. The people seemed to live it.

"I've got some old circus wagons at our winter quarters in Deming, N. M., and I'm getting them out and painting them. We'll pull them with our jeeps or arrange for trucks in each town. The rest of the show is well equipped for a parade. We have a calliope and the animal cages have rubber wheels.

"Adding the parade will cost around $500 a day, but I figure it will be worth it. The publicity will certainly help, and it's an excuse to let the kids out of school early in the afternoon. Merchants of the towns we play are eager for it, because it brings in business. In fact, some towns in California won't grant us a permit to play unless we put on a parade."

The Beatty circus will move out of winter quarters March 20 for another season of thrilling children of all ages. Beatty didn't say whether it would be his last year before the big cats, but he did admit he was thinking about retiring. Although he looks much younger, he is 51 and says that it will soon be time to quit.

"I'm not as fast as I used to be," he admitted. "My wife has been putting the pressure on for me to get out of the ring. She'd like me to quit right now."

The trouble is in finding a successor. Many brave souls have applied for the job, but none seems to qualify.

"Most of them want to get right in the cage and go to work," Beatty said. "You can never handle the animals that way. You have to work around them for a long time and get to know what they're like. Each animal is different, just like humans; you must get to know their temperament and habits.

"I was a cage boy for two years before I ever got to handle the animals. But kids today don't want to bother with all that work. They want to be stars right away."

Fight Breaks Out at Assault Trial

LAWRENCEVILLE, Ill. (AP)—The aggravated assault case against Robert Worstel was continued for 10 days yesterday after his attorney and the state's attorney exchanged blows in county court.

Judge Richard Simpson fined each $50 for contempt and reprimanded them.

The ruckus started after Worstel's attorney, Philip Benefiel, was told to "shut up" by State's Atty. Roscoe D. Cunningham. The fight was stopped by a deputy sheriff.

Ike Asks GOP Unity on Policy

President's Plea Made in Lincoln Day Message Last Night

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower says the Republican party must be united on broad political policy and realize—as Abraham Lincoln advised—that "the dogmas of the quiet past are inadequate to the stormy present."

In a Lincoln Day message made public by the White House last night, the President appealed for unity at a time when some GOP Congress members are murmuring that certain phases of the Eisenhower program are too much like the New Deal of the preceding Democratic administrations.

He spoke out at a time, when Senate Republicans are split over basic constitutional policy as pointed up by the controversy over the Bricker amendment on treaty-making powers.

"It is . . . essential," Eisenhower declared, "that the members of a political party—if the party is to be effective—join together to reach a common goal. Unless there is unified support of broad political policy, there is no true political party."

There must be political unity, he added, if our party—the Republican party—is successfully to meet the responsibilities of national leadership with which it has been charged by our people."

In talking of his administration's program, he touched obliquely on aspects of it which have brought some criticism within the party ranks—those phases dealing with the government's role in such fields as housing, social security and health.

He said the "mandate" of the people in the 1952 election "requires that we share Lincoln's concern for the proper role of government in helping and protecting all our citizens," and added:

"It was in such concern that there was recently placed before the Congress this administration's program for consideration and translation into law.

"Through our unified action, that program will secure our country against the threats of our time and will be doing for our people those things they cannot well do for themselves."

The Eisenhower Lincoln Day message is in the form of a film recording being made available for party dinners around the country during the next few weeks.

TONIGHT'S GAMES—Flint Northern in Pontiac; Bay City Central at Owosso.

TUESDAY (Feb. 2) GAME—Arthur Hill at Saginaw Eastern; (only game).

By H. GUY MOATS

Saginaw Valley Conference spotlight tonight will be turned full on an important clash in PHS gymnasium. The game pits Coach Art Van Ryzin's "reorganized" Chiefs and Carl Stelter's Flint Northern Vikings.

Encounter on the Chiefs' big floor is the only Valley game of the night. Bay City Central, at Owosso, is the only other SVC quintet in action on any front. Arthur Hill, last week's upset winners over Pontiac, Flint Central's Indians and Saginaw Trojans are idle.

Van Ryzin's club tonight essays the roll of "spoiler" against the unbeaten Vikings. And the PHS mentor thinks his charges have a chance to turn in the top upset of the league season. Northern has rolled over five Valley opponents, including Pontiac. It has averaged better than 60 points per SVC game for a 328 total against 259 for opponents. PHS slid back into the red ink last week and needs a win to square its balance.

"I'm not too sure about this one," Stelter said Thursday. "We've lost Chuck Teaberry and Bob Jobe by graduation. I had to shuffle the team around, too, because Jim Brumbeck is ineligible, and Frank Manley, our center, hasn't been feeling so good. We have used Manley only sparingly in the last few games, and it is questionable whether or not he'll be ready now."

It seems that Brumbeck failed to get his eligibility card signed by teachers, as required by the regulations. "And he's a good student, too," Stelter said ruefully.

Stelter outlined his plans, based on conditions Thursday afternoon:

First, he'll send in Bob Krason to team with Bob Failing at the guards.

Then he plans to use the Valley's 2nd biggest player, Clarence Elliott, 6-5, at the pivot in case Manley is not fit. Elliott is a sophomore and Stelter is already figuring on him as an important cog next year.

His forwards are set: The tall veteran, Art Johnson, and Jim Johnston will handle those jobs, with improving Steve Boros in reserve. Other replacements include Bob Brumbeck, brother of the ineligible Jim and Milton Wright, brought up from the reserves.

Little Chiefs meet junior Vikings in the preliminary.

Pontiac's fine school band will be heard during the evening in a number of lively selections.

Stanky's Playing Days Ended

By BEN OLAN

NEW YORK (AP)—Eddie Stanky added his name today to the list of stars who recently have decided to end their major league playing careers.

Stanky, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, said yesterday he would go off the Redbirds' active player roster to make room for right-handed pitcher Jim Walsh, conditionally purchased from Hollywood. Walsh won 16 games and dropped nine last season.

"I played in only 17 games last year," Stanky declared. "I feel that Walsh can help our club either as a starter or in relief."

In recent months, Johnny Mize and Johnny Sain of the New York Yankees, Dutch Leonard of the Chicago Cubs, Bill Nicholson of the Philadelphia Phillies, Walt Masterson of Washington and Bobo Newsom (for the umpteenth time) announced their retirements. The Yankees still are trying to get Sain to change his mind.

Stanky, who began his big league sojourn with the Chicago Cubs in 1943, subsequently played for the Brooklyn Dodgers, Boston Braves and New York Giants before he became player-manager of the Cards in 1952.

He calls it "quits" with a lifetime major league average of .268. Although he went to bat only 40 times last season, Eddie still showed his penchant for getting on base, getting eight hits, six bases on balls, three sacrifices and was once hit by a pitch.

Eddie Miksis, who often played shortstop alongside Stanky with the Dodgers from 1945 through '47, yesterday returned his signed contract to the Chicago Cubs.

Others to sign were: third baseman Bobby Adams of the Cincinnati Redlegs, pitcher Alex Kellner and catchers Wilmer Shantz (Bobby's brother) and Harry Minor of the Philadelphia Athletics, outfielders Elston Howard and Bill Virdon and first baseman-catcher Gus Triandos of the New York Yankees and pitchers Charley Fowler, Pete Modica, John McCall and Mario Picone of the New York Giants.

Tebbets Is Not Optimistic About Chances of Redlegs

By BIRDIE TEBBETS

NASHUA, N. H., (AP)—Cincinnati Redlegs have finished sixth for four consecutive years.

That would indicate that with the yearly changes that have taken place it would be unfair to say that there was a main weakness which caused the Reds to finish sixth so consistently.

Pitching ran into difficulties and there seemed to be too great an accent on power and not enough on a balanced attack. We have added many new faces, especially righthanded pitching.

Undoubtedly, we have a lot of bridges to cross in attempting to make winning team of the reds. That doesn't promise to be easy. No team which finished 37 games back of the pennant winners can be overloaded with the sort of talent required to make a winning club.

The Reds not only finished 37 games back of the Dodgers but also were 24 games behind the 2nd place Milwaukee Braves and 15 behind the Cardinals and Phillies.

Our club will improve, though. Established ball players have not yet reached their peak. They have enough experience to help the young ball players and I look for our pitching to show natural improvement.

Not having seen the rest of the league I am unable to offer an appraisal and certainly am not going to credit any team with any position until they have earned it.

Mickey Wright Tests Champion

Coast Girl to Play Miss Faulk Today in Doherty Tourney

MIAMI, Fla. (INS) — Defending champion Mary Lena Faulk of Thomasville, Ga., battles Mickey Wright of San Diego, Calif., today in the 2nd round of the Helen Lee Doherty amateur golf tournament at Miami.

Miss Faulk, National Amateur queen, defeated veteran Polly Riley of Fort Worth, Tex., 4 and 3, while Miss Wright beat Mrs. J. A. Labinsky, 7 and 5, in the 1st round of match play yesterday.

Other feature matches pit comedalist Grace Demoss Smith of Coral Gables, Fla., against Edean Anderson of Helena, Mont., and Cookie Swift of Great Neck, L. I., who tied Mrs. Smith for qualifying honors, against Mrs. John Derr of Upper Montclair, N. J.

Johnson Favored to Get Shot at Title

NEW YORK (AP)—If Harold Johnson doesn't trip over Jimmy Slade tonight at St. Nicholas Arena, he may finally get his title shot at Archie Moore, the light heavyweight champ.

Philadelphia is the likely site some balmy night next July, provided promoter Herman Taylor offers enough cash to convince Charlie Johnston, Archie's proprietor.

The odds of 4-1 favoring Johnson give Slade little chance but the 27-year-old New Yorker can be a very rough character when in the mood. They say he has been in the gym for a month getting ready for this one.

The bout will be on radio (ABC) and television (NBC) starting at 10 p.m., EST.

BONUS BEAUTY — Bobby Garrett, above, star passer and quarterback of the 1953 Stanford University football team was the "bonus" choice of the Cleveland Browns in the National Football League draft at Philadelphia.

Furtney's Gain on Leaders in Table Net Play

Furtney Drugs tightened up the standings in the Pontiac Table Tennis League Thursday by spilling the 1st place Capitol Barbers, 4-2, to draw within two points of the lead.

Barbers now have 38 points to 36 for Furtney's. Typhoon Steel defeated Newberry Market, 5-1, and hold 3rd place with 25 points. Dick & Wes, which downed Pontiac Cigarette Service, 4-2, is 4th with 20 points.

Newberry follows with 19, Pontiac Varnish, Stewart Construction, and Cigarette Service, 17 each. In Thursday's other match, Stewart beat Varnish, 5-1.

Highlight of the action was an upset by Carol Ryan and Jerry Saunders of Furtney's. They downed Mary Jacober and Perc Secord of Capitols, 21-18, 21-18.

In other interesting matches, Gloria Rose of Newberry defeated Mrs. Alvin Foon of Typhoon Steel, 19-21, 21-19, 21-19. Dick Kuhn and Sid Barnfather of Dick & Wes downed Bob Kent and Dick Eginton of PCS, 19-21, 21-18, 21-18.

Crimmins Won't Leave Indiana Coaching Job

CHICAGO (AP) — Bernie Crimmins says he's happy at Indiana University and will stay there as football coach.

Crimmins, in Chicago last night to appear on a television show, said he went to College Station, Tex., Wednesday for an interview on the vacant Texas A & M. coaching job.

"They invited me for discussion and I went down as a courtesy," he said. "I had an interview and as far as I'm concerned the incident is closed. I'm happy at Indiana."

The 1954 roster of the Brooklyn Dodgers lists 21 pitchers, 4 catchers, 10 infielders and 11 outfielders.

Revives Grid Game

LOS ANGELES (AP)—University of Santa Clara is coming back to the football wars, but the date is indefinite.

Rev. Raymond Copeland, S. J., director of development, told a group of 150 at a dinner last night that Santa Clara would field a football team as soon as the institution is financially secure. He said the Broncos would not be back on a small time basis but would book major opponents as it did before it gave up the game in 1952.

Spectacular 61 Gives Wininger Tourney Lead

But Harrison and Hogan Loom Close Behind in Thunderbird Test

By BOB MYERS

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Oklahoma's handsome Bo Wininger is regarded as one of professional golf's budding young stars and his spectacular 11 under par 61 led the field in the 1st round of the $15,000 Thunderbird Invitational tournament.

Today, the newcomer to tournament fame, fully aware that one round doesn't win an event, was faced with the problem of hanging on to his two-stroke lead and holding off such seasoned threats as Ben Hogan, E. J. (Dutch) Harrison and others in the select field of 36 pros.

Wininger, whose best in a major torunament was 2nd to Lloyd Mangrum in the Phoenix Open last year, set a new record for the par 36-36 —72, 6,314-yard Thunderbird Country club. Veteran amateur star, Johnny Dawson, one of the founders of Thunderbird, held the old mark at 64.

Harrison, hottest thing on the winter trail — leading pro in the Bing Crosby and San Diego tournaments — shot a 63 yesterday. Wininger did it with 33-28 —61 and Harrison scored 33-30 —63.

Hogan, winter pro at the neighboring Tamarisk Country Club toured the course in 31-34 —65. Three birdies and two eagles decorated his card but he found he was tied in 3rd place with three others.

They were Freddie Haas Jr. 32-33; Cahandler Harper,, 37-28 and Peter Thomson, Australian open champion, 32-33.

Bill Proposes Fish License for Women, Too

LANSING (UP)—A public hearing will be held in the House of Representatives Feb. 9 on two bills designed to require every fisherman to have a fishing license regardless of sex or where he or she fishes.

Chairman Hugo A. Nelson (R-Indian River) of the House fish and fisheries committee said bills to require all women anglers to purchase a license and to require Great Lakes fishermen to buy a permit will be aired at the hearing.

Women now may fish on their husband's license and fishing licenses are not required to fish in the Great Lakes or connecting waters.

Briggs, Furgol Trail Top Scorer in Brawley Open

BRAWLEY, Calif. (AP) — Chicago pro Bob Rosburg held a one-stroke lead starting the 2nd round today in the 72-hole $5,000 Brawley Open golf tournament. He shot a 7 under par 31-32 —63 yesterday.

Lionel Herbert of Erie, Pa., had 32-32 —64. Following Herbert were Eldon Briggs of Saginaw, Mich., and Joe Brown of Des Moines, each with 66. Ed Furgol, St. Louis and Ed Kringle of Jersey City, N. J., were tied at 67.

Addition of Straight Face Raises Interest in Rich Santa Anita Maturity; Well-Matched Field Seen

By GRANTLAND RICE

ARCADIA, Calif.—The big show is about due. Saturday at Santa Anita the $160,000 Maturity for 4-year-olds swings under way with promise of a well-matched field, if not a great one. There will be no longer a Mark-Ye-Well carrying Calumet to an almost certain victory.

Arrival of Greentree Stable's Straight aFce added considerable excitement to the big race. Straight Face should have the call if he has been here long enough to handle Santa Anita's heavy track.

Eddie Lasker has a good-looking prospect in By Zeus that won handily from a strong field a few days back. By Zeus will be one of the favored over a track that may possibly be somewhat slow. When it rains her now, the track is slow for some days.

Mrs. Ada Rice's Cerise Reine will also be one of the top choices. Eddie Arcaro will be up on Correspondent. This means he has a good chance. Correspondent was the horse that broke the track record at Keeneland last spring and was 2nd choice in the Kentucky Derby. Lately he hasn't been running any too well, but he is improving.

Ben Jones is in a most unusual spot. He lost his title to Alfred Vanderbilt last year. Here, with Jimmy Jones, the Calumet trainer, he has had in the past such big horses as Whirlaway, Citation, Armed, Coaltown, Ponder, Mark-Ye-Well and other stars.

But he was fading a trifle last season, although Calumet was the leading money winner here with a total of $417,600 in purses.

Ben and Jimmy Jones were cheered up a day or two ago when Walter Marty picked Calumet's Fleet Bird to win the $100,000 Santa Anita Handicap. Fleet Bird opened at 7-1 and may be driven lower if Mark-Ye-Well and Find don't look better. It might be noted that Jackie Westrope will ride By Zeus and Johnny Longden is up on Ali's Gem.

* * *

Andy Crevolin may have something to say about the Maturity with Insensation, although his best horse wasn't entered from Kentucky. So far the Vanderbilt stable has also been shy on winners. Find ran next to last in his first test and his best bet, Native Dancer, isn't running in the Maturity.

Little League Baseball Doing Great Job Helping Fight Juvenile Delinquency

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UP) — Big league baseball is collecting its usual reams of free newspaper space these days with carefully-spaced announcements about the contract signings of its stars while a far more important game quietly goes its way without much recognition.

The game is Little League baseball and it seems about time everybody jumped on the bandwagon and started pitching for the kids.

They need it. There is much head-shaking and moaning in these times about juvenile delinquency. All too little is done to combat it. The upshot is such frightening incidents as the recent basketball stabbings in Detroit.

The Little League program is a great weapon against delinquency as it teaches the truths of American sportsmanship and fair competition. Already it has done a terrific job.

Last season there were 2,826 leagues in 46 states, Alaska, Hawaii, Canada, the Canal Zone, the Philippines and even in Korea. Making up these leagues were 11,837 teams — and a total of 178,000 youngsters between the ages of eight and 12.

Little League idea was conceived in 1939 by Carl E. Stotz of Williamsport, Pa. Stotz had been one of those youngsters who sat disconsolately on the sidelines because he was too young and too small.

One of the heartbroken as a boy, he did something about it as a man by founding Little League baseball.

Cost for a 60-boy Little League is estimated at about $1,000 for the 1st year and, aided by carry-over equipment, at about $219 for both the 2nd and 3rd year. This totals about $1,350 to keep 180 boys off the streets for three years and to train and guide them in better Americanism.

Frank Selvy Is Nearing Point-Scoring Record

By BEN PHLEGAR

NEW YORK (AP)—Fabulous Frank Selvy from Furman University figures to break basketball's all-time individual scoring for a three-year major college career record sometime within the next 10 days.

If he can keep up his most recent pace he will do it before the week is over.

Selvy is a scoring marvel, the likes of which never before has been seen on a basketball court. After 2½ seasons of play with the Greenville, S. C. school, he has scored 1,803 points. He needs just 86 more to pass Kansas' Clyde Lovellette's record and he has 15 regular-season games to play.

Last night against Presbyterian, he scored 48 points, the eighth time in 12 games this season that he's hit 40 or more and the fifth time he's been above 45. His average for the dozen contests is 39.5, exactly 10 points above the single-season record he set a season ago.

He has played twice since he paused for midterm exams. The first game after his rest he scored 45 points. Tonight he goes against Newberry and tomorrow against Clemson. Those 86 points may come in the two games. If they don't he's got two more games coming up next week — against Manhattan College in Madison Square Garden Thursday and against La Salle in Philadelphia Saturday.

Selvy's show last night helped Furman overpower Presbyterian 109-79 and bring their season's mark up to 6-6.

U. S. Sledder Rated Darkhorse

Arthur Tyler Takes 3rd Place in Borrowed Sled, Pickup Crew

CORTINA D'AMPEZZO, Italy (AP) — A 38-year-old physicist from Rochester, N. Y., emerged today as an American dark horse in the world four-man bobsled championship scheduled for Saturday and Sunday.

He's Arthur Tyler, who got into the trials for the title by chance and astounded both friends and opponents yesterday by driving a rattling 26-year-old borrowed Italian sled at lightning speed with a pickup crew to 3rd place in a preliminary race.

Veteran Swiss driver Frits Feirabend won the tuneup down Cortina's icy bobslide and set a course record in doing it. An old German hand, Hans Rosch, also edged out the Americans by a narrow margin.

Sarazen Shoots 67 to Lead Al Watrous

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP) — Gene Sarazen right now happens to be playing the kind of golf he did 20 and 30 years ago.

He shot a 5-under-par 67 yesterday to take the lead in the annual Senior PGA tournament which is for golfers 50 years old and older. The twice National Open champion was great all the way.

Al Watrous of Birmingham, Mich., and Reggie Myles of East Lansing, Mich., were good, too. Al shot 70 and Myles 71 to place among the leaders.

Rose, Hartwig Capture Aussie Doubles Title

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—Melvyn Rose and Rex Hartwig added the Australian national doubles title to their U. S. doubles crown by beating Clive Wilderspin and Neale Fraser 6-3, 6-4, 6-2 in the final today of the Aussie national tourney.

Tomorrow in the singles semi-finals Rose meets Ken Rosewall and Hartwig is pitted against veteran John Bromwich who eliminated Tony Trabert in a major upset on Tuesday.

It's Time Out!

U. S. Star Would Like Date of Aussies' Title Matches Changed

By GORDON TAIT

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—American tennis star Tony Trabert left for home today saying he's keeping his chapter and verse report on his grievances during nearly three months of tennis in Australia until he talks with the United States Lawn Tennis Assn.

"I'm going to put my recommendations and suggestions to the association in New York," Tony told The Associated Press as he boarded a plane with his wife and two Davis Cup teammates, Bob Perry of Los Angeles and Ham Richardson of Baton Rouge, La.

* * *

Among his suggestions, he said, would be one that the Australians either change the date of their national championships or that the American team should not be forced to remain for the tournament.

"Australian's don't do anything but play," he said. "We have to go to college."

Blind MSC Matman Meets OSU Captain

EAST LANSING (UP)—Ted Lennox, totally blind Michigan State wrestler who relies solely on sound and touch to keep contact with an opponent, bids for his first collegiate win Saturday against an undefeated Ohio State wrestler who outweighs him by 20 pounds.

Spartans meet Ohio State Saturday at 3 p.m. in Jenison Fieldhouse.

Chips, Hurons Faring Badly in IIAC Race

By The Associated Press

Michigan's two entries in the IIAC Basketball Conference — Michigan Central and Michigan Normal — are among the "have nots."

Central Michigan is in 5th place with a 2-2 record while Normal, winless in four starts, is dead last. This is a complete turnabout from last fall's football standings, when Central and Normal dominated the loop.

This Saturday Michigan Normal journeys to Eastern Illinois and Cntral Michigan to Southern Illinois.

Freds Topple St. James in Overtime Tilt

Talbot Outfit Edges 'Dales, 51-48; Nosek, Reaver Set Pace

St. Frederick's basketball was primed for its return engagement with St. Michael's today after a thrilling overtime victory over St. James on the Ferndale team's floor Thursday night.

Roger Nosek and Ted Reaver teamed to overcome a one-man show by Joe Mullen and edge the 'Dales, 51-48.

Chuck Talbot's red-hot Rams now have won three of their last four games, losing only to the undefeated Suburban Catholic League leader, St. Benedict. Revenge will be a motto Tuesday for the Rams fell to St. Mikes, 30-28, in the season's 1st meeting of the intra-city parochial rivals.

Thursday's loss was particularly frustating for St. James. Just Tuesday the 'Dales dropped a double overtime decision to RO St. Mary.

Nosek and Reaver tallied 18 and 15 points, respectively, to offset the 29-point assault by Mullen. However, it was Dick Doyon that provided the overtime edge.

He dropped one of two free throws, which was followed by a Nosek basket. Mullen matched Nosek's shot, but Doyon came through with a fielder to settle the issue. Score had been tied at 46-all after regulation. Halftime score was 27-27.

Bevo Leads Parade

NEW YORK (AP) — When Bevo Francis scores less than 47 points, he's having a bad night and the Rio Grande (Ohio) hot shot has been having very few of them this season.

Latest small-college basketball figures released by the NCAA Service Bureau show the elongated center has tossed in 759 points in the 16 games he's played for a healthy average of 47.4 points per tilt.

Pro Drafters Shy Away From All-America Players

By RALPH BERNSTEIN

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Most National Football League coaches said that thanks to college football's one platoon system they felt as if they were selecting pigs in a poke at the annual pro player draft.

A poll of coaches and officials of various NFL teams brought the general opinion that quality was below par. Lack of specialization cut the list of good pro prospects, they said.

Coaches Buck Shaw of San Francisco, Jim Trimble, of Philadelphia, Curly Lambeau of Washington, Russ Thomas of Detroit, Joe Stydahar of the Chicago Cardinals and vice president Tex Schramm of Los Angeles all agreed that research for this year's draft meeting was twice as tough as any previous year.

Trimble and Shaw set the general pace when they told how they had to dig up 1952 college rosters to find out which players play defense and which played offense during two platoon days.

"If we didn't," said Shaw "we'd miss out on some good defensive boys who sat out most of last season because he couldn't play on offense. The same goes in reverse."

The 12 NFL teams drafted 360 players at yesterday's 14-hour draft session. Each club picked 30 players. All college gridders whose original class graduates in 1954, were eligible for selection, even if they have varsity eligibility remaining. Some of those picked matriculated in college but never played, leaving for military duty or for other reasons.

Cleveland Browns, Eastern Division champions, got things started by walking off with the annual "bonus" draw. Coach Paul Brown immediately grabbed the nation's top passer, Stanford's Bobby Garrett.

Several coaches and owners were mumbling something about the rich getting richer after Brown added Garrett to his quarterbacking staff of Otto Graham and George Ratterman. Brown said he wanted Garrett in case Graham decided to retire, or as trade bait.

The nation's two top ranking college teams, national champion Maryland and runnerup Notre Dame, contributed heavily to the pro ranks. Seven Maryland players were taken and 10 members of the 1953 fighting Irish can have a chance to play the game for money.

In general, selectors shied away from All-America players in their only choices. John Lattner of Notre Dame was the only all-star to go in the 1st round, Pittsburgh grabbed him.

Rest of the 1953 All-America team was chosen starting with Michigan State's end, Don Dohoney, in round five and ending with Penn's Jack Shanafelt, a tackle, as the 277th pick in the 23rd round. Paul Giel of Minnesota went to the Bears in round nine; Paul Cameron, UCLA back joined Lattner with the Steelers in round eight although he has said he prefers baseball to football.

Kosse Johnson, Rice back was grabbed by Green Bay in the 14th round, while Oklahoma's J. D. Roberts was a 17th Packer choice.

Guard Crawford Mims of Mississippi went to the New York Giants in the 18th round and Sam Morley, Stanford end to Washington as a 20th choice. Stan Jones, Maryland tackle was a 1953 Bears pick, while All-America center Larry Morris wasn't eligible for this year's draft.

Club owners meet again today to take up such problems as rule changes, schedules, the Canadian player problem and constitutional amendments.

'MOST COURAGEOUS'—Walter (Buddy) Davis (left), a polio victim for six years, poses with his "most courageous" athlete award after it was presented to him by Ed Pollock, president of the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association, during that group's recent dinner. Davis is the world's high jump record holder (6-11½) and a 1952 Olympic champion. He now is a member of the Philadelphia Warriors pro basketball team. Davis and Babe Zaharias shared the honors.

Lions Get Neal for Pivot Spot; Draft 13 Backs

Spartan Star to Fill in For Retired Vince Banonis

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A Michigan State College center may be the keystone in the Detroit Lions offensive forward wall next year.

Although Lions went "back happy" at the annual National Football League player draft in Philadelphia yesterday, their 2nd choice was Jim Neal, Michigan State's 6-foot-4, 215-pound center.

Neal, a Biggie Munn product, centered the Spartans to a co-championship in their 1st year in the Big Ten last season. He was also the middle man when State won the Rose Bowl game against highly-touted UCLA.

Coach Buddy Parker went to the meeting with the expressed purpose of picking up a good center to replace retired veteran Vince Banonis and a fullback capable of stepping into the shoes of ailing Pat Harder.

Lions selected Neal and two other centers, Richard Rzeszut of St. Benedict and Mel Berprand of Idaho.

But it was backfield men that Parker bagged in a big way. He chose 15 of them, including Bill Bowman, speedy William and Mary fullback. Bowman was 3rd choice.

The No. 4 choice was Howard McCants, a 6-foot-9 Negro high jumper who played end for Washington State.

First choice by the NFL champions was a comparatively unknown tackle, Dick Chapman of Rice. Chapman is a 6-foot-6, 245 pounder.

Besides Chapman, Lions drafted eight other tackles.

McCants was 1st of three ends chosen.

Detroit selected but two guards. But with Joe Schmidt, Dick Stanfel, Jim Martin, Les Bingaman and Harley Sewell, Lions already have five of the best guards in the business.

No "name" players came Detroit's way. Being champions of the league, they had to settle for last choice in each of the 30 draws.

But despite the last draw, Parker was far from displeased.

Legal Method Discovered to Deduct Fishing Expense

By JAMES A. O. CROWE
Associated Press Outdoor Writer

LANSING (AP) — Trust an attorney. One of them has figured out how to deduct some of his fishing expenses from his federal income tax.

With the March 15 payment deadline rushing upon us, now is a good time to let you in on it. Probably you won't be able, however, to actually cash in until next year.

The twist was figured out by Sherman R. Barnett, a Chicago attorney, he has a letter from the U. S. Treasury Department confirming that it is strictly legal.

Barnett is president of the Fish Taggers' Assn. This is a group of fishermen who get their sport, not from keeping their fish, but from clipping their personal tag to the fish and releasing it.

The organization doesn't blow its own horn much, but it has grown tremendously since its organization a few years ago. It has more than 300 members in 33 states and a few members in Mexico and Venezuela.

The pay-off is when another angler catches the fish and following instructions on the tag, writes the details of the catch to the original tagger.

Now Barnett has come up with the income tax twist, which cinches the matter for this fisherman, at least. He figured that when he is engaged in fish tagging, even though it is entertaining, the activity is also conservation work.

Membership and expenses incurred in this kind of conservation work, Barnett said, are deductible from the gross income, under the present income tax law.

So he wrote the Treasury Department and put the proposition to the experts there. He has a letter from them confirming that he is right.

Scheduled This Weekend

Selection of Ice Queen, Skating Club Exhibition and Races Feature Carnival

Once again the girl who is crowned Pontiac's Ice Queen will be sent to the Grayling winter ice carnival for statewide competition this year.

Selection of "Miss Pontiac" is a highlight of the annual City Ice Carnival scheduled this weekend at the North Side skating rink.

Program is co-sponsored by the North Side Community Club and the Pontiac Parks and Recreation department.

Any girl between the ages of 16-25 who lives in Oakland County and is able to skate is eligible to enter the Ice Queen contest.

Another feature of the show is an exhibition by Peggy Bowman's Pontiac Skating Club. One of Peggy's ex-pupils is June Sapelak, now a member of Barbara Ann Scott's Ice Review, coming to Olympia next month.

Carnival starts Saturday at 1:30 p. m. with a series of boys and girls' races.

A hockey game is scheduled at 3 p. m. with qualifying for the Silver Skates Derby at 7 p. m. followed by girls' figure skating competition. Boys races are one lap (under 7 years), one lap (7-10), 2 laps (10-12), 5 laps (12-14), 10 laps (14-18), one lap backwards (10-12, two laps backwards (12-14) and 2-lap boys relay for 12-14 year olds.

Girls races included are one lap (under 7), one lap (7-10), and two laps for 10-12 and 12-15 years.

Finals in all races as well as a 5-lap old timers race for men over 35 begins Sunday at 1:30. Silver Skates Derby (20 laps for boys over 15) is at 3 p. m. followed by figure skating finals.

Ice Queen contestants will appear at 4 p. m. and the crowning ceremonies are slated at 8 p. m. Public skating follows both day's programs.

CASE—Too Much Speed.

Harmful If Forced—Top bowlers who fought their way up through hard practice and experimentation always are wary of two things: Failure to break at the waist during the backswing of the ball, and forcing the ball in trying to get unnatural speed on a "run" alley—an alley that breaks quickly and sharply from right to left. An example of sound, graceful form, with power is Detroit's Buzz Fazio. He proves you don't need height and bulging muscles to generate speed. His push-away regulates the backswing. Longer push-away, longer arc, more speed. As simple as that. To increase the arc he merely holds the ball high—chest high. He does this on a slow alley. On a slick surface the push-away starts waist high, or even lower, as sketch shows, reducing the speed. It's all swing with Fazio. Break at the waist with the push-away, and you will stay down all the way. That is good.

Wolverine Sports Activity Revives After Long Rest

ANN ARBOR (AP) — University of Michigan athletics moves into high gear over the weekend.

Wolverine basketball team goes back into action after a two-week layoff. It will host Washington University of St. Louis Saturday night in a non-conference game.

Michigan swimmers have already hit the road for a week-long series of meets and exhibitions.

Wrestlers and gymnasts also will play visiting roles over the weekend.

And the track squad goes back into action Monday night.

Michigan's cagers defeated Washington last year 74-56 and could repeat this year.

The swimmers visit Iowa State Saturday and Oklahoma Tuesday for dual meets with exhibitions also scheduled for Tulsa and the Kansas City AC.

Wolverine mat men face Hofstra College wrestlers at Long Island, N. Y. Saturday, followed by a Monday meeting with Syracuse.

Gymnasts visit Illionois Saturday and Iowa Monday.

Good Weekend Seen for Winter Sports Addicts

Skiing Good at Teeple Hill, Nearly All Resort Areas Upstate

Michigan's winter sports enthusiasts are looking forward to one of the best weekends of the winter. Wednesday's heavy snowfall and Thursday's low temperatures have combined to make skiing at nearly all the state's resorts excellent.

Teeple Hill Recreation area, near Pontiac, reports a 4 to 5-inch base with one inch of granular snow. Skiing good.

Pioneer Hills, near Roscommon, is holding its annual winter carnival this weekend. Skiing conditions are excellent. Others reported the best of conditions are Snow Snake Mountain, Skyline, Sheridan Valley, Grayling Winter Sports park, Ogemaw Hills, Snow Valley, Waters Ski Village and Otsego Ski Club.

Conditions are also excellent at Au Sable Ski Bowl, Griswold Mountain, Boyne Mountain, Caberfae and Missaukee Mountain.

There is no skiing, but tobogganing and ice skating are good at Silver Valley, near the Tawases, and Echo Valley, near Kalamazoo.

Hustling Helps Red Wings Gain Tie With NY

Pavelich's Quick Play Brings Detroit From 3-1 Deficit in 3rd Period

By JOE FALLS

DETROIT (AP)—Marty Pavelich, a seven-year veteran, has the hustle of a raw rookie, and his tactics make him one of the most important players on the Detroit Red Wings.

A defensive, back-checking forward, Pavelich isn't paid to score goals. He plays on the Red Wings' defensive line, along with Glen Skov and Tony Leswick, and their job is to keep the opponents' top line from scoring.

Any scoring done by this trio is considered gravy. Pavelich's tireless hustle ladled out some of this gravy last night—and it pulled the Red Wings to a vital 3-3 tie with the New York Rangers.

At the time, the Rangers led 3-1 and seemed headed for a simple victory over the Red Wings, who stormed the New York net but couldn't dent goalie Johnny Bower.

That's when Pavelich's hustle injected life into the Red Wings.

With this jump, Pavelich zoomed in the Ranger zone, took a pass from Gordie Howe and beat Bower with a blazing 10-footer.

This made the score 3-2 and fired the Red Wings. Just 113 seconds later, at 13:42, they tied the score when Marcel Pronovost split the New York defense and converted a neat pass from Johnny Wilson.

So the Wings came to life in time to earn the tie and increase their league lead over the idle Montreal Canadiens to four points.

Pavelich's goal was his 8th of the season, that's a small number for most forwards but not for Pavelich. In 412 games with the Red Wings dating back to the 1947-48 season, he has scored only 69 times—or about once every six games.

Newcombe Eyes Dodger Raise

Brooklyn Is Expected to Up Salary of Mound Ace $5,000

By United Press

Big Don Newcombe, eager "to make up for lost time," learned today that he is in line for a salary raise from the Brooklyn Dodgers but he won't be able to sign his 1954 contract until Feb. 8.

The 27-year-old Newcombe, who will be discharged from the army at Fort Sam Houston in San Antonio, Tex., Feb. 8, paid a visit to the Dodger office and was assured by vice president Buzzy Bavasi that Brooklyn intends to pay him more than the $90 a month he receives from Uncle Sam currently.

It is believed that Newcombe, who won 20 games for the Dodgers in 1951 before leaving for service, will receive a $5,000 raise for 1954, bringing his salary to about $22,000.

Immediately following his discussion with Bavasi, there were reports that Newcombe agreed to terms but Bavasi denied it.

10-Game Schedule Faces Ex-MSC Coach

RALEIGH, N. C. (AP)—North Carolina State College has announced a 10-game 1954 football schedule, its first under Earle L. Edwards. Earlier this week he was given a three-year contract as head coach.

The schedule shows four games with teams in the Atlantic Coast Conference, of which North Carolina State is a member, five against Southern Conference clubs and a meeting with Florida State University.

Sept. 18—Virginia Tech at Richmond; 25—at North Carolina. Oct. 2—at Wake Forest; 9—at William and Mary; 16—Florida State (night); 23—Duke (night); 30—Furman (night). Nov. 6—at Maryland; 13—Richmond; 20—at West Virginia.

99 Pound Sturgeon Speared in Black Lake

CHEBOYGAN (AP) — Those sturgeons do come big in these parts.

Boyd Christ of Black Lake speared a 74-incher weighing 99 pounds in Black Lake yesterday.

Only a day earlier Chris Beard of Indian River speared one of 84 inches and 157 pounds.

Top Amateur 5s Clash Saturday at Clarkston

Two of the area's best amateur basketball teams hook up in an interesting exhibition game Saturday night in the Clarkston High School gymnasium.

Clarkston's Merchants of the Waterford Township Recreation League entertains Shaw's Jewelers of the Pontiac Class A City League for benefit of the CHS lighted athletic field project.

Clarkston-Shaw game is slated for 8:30 p.m. preceded at 7:30 by a contest between the Clarkston High women faculty members and the school's girls' team.

Shaw's is considered one of the state's outstanding amateur clubs and the Merchants are undefeated in eight games this year. Last season they won 21 of 22 games.

Outfielder Dick Sinovic, who will receive a spring trial with the Braves, led the Southern Association in runs batted in, hits and total bases during the 1953 season.

Several Area 5's Suffer Mid-Year Losses

By JACK SAYLOR

With the end of the 1st semester of the school year, a number of Oakland County and area prep basketball teams face a job of replacing departing players.

EGRES

Pontiac High faces Saginaw Valley - leading Flint Northern tonight, having already bid adieu to top scorer Dick Ayling, center Le-Roy Moore and reserve Bill Rose.

Rex Egres, Waterford's three year veteran, plays his last game for the Blue and Gold tonight at Van Dyke. The 5-10 Egres completes eight semesters of eligibility. While not a potent scorer, his rebounding strength, floor work and experience will be missed.

The Skippers' foes also suffer a big loss. Van Dyke's great John Malone ends his fabulous prep career tonight, along with teammate Ron Bachorski.

An all-stater in football and an outstanding pitcher in baseball in addition to his cage ability, he is one of Michigan's most sought after athletes. At last report, he was thought to be eyeing Indiana University.

Eastern Michigan league teams have been hit hard by mid-year graduation. Hazel Park loses regulars Darwyn Hepler and Jay McTeer and reserve Bob Staley. Tom O'Hara and Bruce Kherer are through at East Detroit and Port Huron loses Dick Daley and Ray Wilkins. Eli Rutledge, Bill Hillman and Bill Whitsitt finish up at Mt. Clemens.

Royal Oak's only loss is Jack Drawbaugh.

While losing Egres, Waterford gains the use of Ed Witt, a 6-2 sophomore transfer student from Chattanooga, Tenn. Bob Beedle, 6-foot senior who has shown some scoring potential recently, will inherit Egres' starting job, but Witt aso is slated for some action.

Cranbrook also looks for help from a pair of new students, John Kirk and Jim Knapp, who become eligible.

Ortonville recently regained the services of John Cook, 5-11 senior guard who missed the early part of the season with a football injury. Rochester had hoped Bob Missel would be back, but the broken leg he received in football has been re-injured and it is unlikely he'll return before tournament time.

Oxford's Bill Jarrett, 6-foot forward who was injured recently in a game at Rochester, apparently is through for the season.

A 26-game schedule, highlighted by league games, is on tap tonight. Rochester faces its stiffest test at Romeo in a Tri-County game. Romeo has won six in a row since bowing by seven points at Rochester.

Inter-Lakes leader Farmington may have its hands full at Southfield, and Troy, the Oakland-B pacesetter is at Clawson. Co-leaders Milford and Northville of the Wayne-Oakland play Holly and Brighton, respectively.

Other games in the county send Walled Lake to Berkley, Lake Orion to Oxford, Keego Harbor to Clarenceville and Imlay City to Ortonville.

Flint Northern at Pontiac; St. Michael's at St. Rita; Waterford at Van Dyke; Walled Lake at Berkley; Farmington at Southfield; Rochester at Romeo; Lake Orion at Oxford; Keego Harbor at Clarenceville; Holly at Milford; Northville at Brighton; Avondale at Roseville; Troy at Clawson; Fitzgerald at Madison; Birmingham at East Detroit; Port Huron at Mt. Clemens; Imlay City at Ortonville; Mayville at North Branch; MSD at Millington; Lake Shore at Utica; Eastland at Warren; Center Line at South Lake; Almont at Memphis; Dryden at Armada; Capac at New Haven; St. Gregory at Shrine; St. Benedict at RO St. Mary.

Boat Builders Vision Big Year

Will Be Even Better This Season; '53 Was Biggest So Far

NEW YORK (AP)—The 16 million Americans who spend their leisure time in 5 million assorted craft want more and more boats and they're going to get them, officials at the golden jubilee edition of the National Motor Boat show indicated recently.

"Last year was the biggest in boating from both the viewpoint of the sport and trade," said John W. Mulford, president of the National Association of Engine and Boat Manufacturers, which sponsored the show.

"Even more important, it looks like 1954 is going to surpass last year by more than one third. We think the coming year will be the greatest in boating's half-century."

It was just 50 years ago that the naphtha launch called the Lillian Russell, which decorated the entrance to the show, was built. That and the steam yachts were the only craft you could buy and they were considered unsafe.

Now the sportsmen and women want everything that floats. The most expensive yacht in the show was worth $100,000 and you could buy a kit for $40. These kits, by the way, were introduced only four years ago, but they've caught on like wildfire since they cost only about one-third to one-half as much as a ready-built boat.

CARDS BUY PCC STAR—Tom Alston, 6-5 Negro 1st baseman, stands by as President August A. Busch Jr. (left) bought him for the St. Louis Cardinals from the San Diego Padres of the Pacific Coast League. Cards paid "in excess of $100,000" and four players for Alston. He batted .297 and hit 23 home runs, while driving in 101 runs for San Diego last year. Lefty O'Doul describes him as "the best fielding 1st baseman in baseball." He is the 1st Negro on the Card roster.

A's Prefer Athletics

PHILADELPHIA (UP) — In an effort to get away from the nickname "A's," Philadelphia American League club has announced changes in the team's uniforms for 1954, to a move designed to emphasize the name "Athletics" which it prefers. The full legend "Athletics" in script will replace the classic Gothic "A" on the shirtfronts.

Hunting Card Rule Has Stiff Penalties

Hunters will leave themselves wide open for fines and jail sentences if they fail to report their hunting success before Feb. 15, conservation department emphasizes.

Part of the responsibility hunters assume when they purchase a hunting license is reporting whether or not they hunted, where they hunted and how much game, if any, they bagged.

Hunters who fail to respond commit a misdemeanor and may be faced with up to $100 in fines and 60 days in jail.

Hunters who have lost their card may obtain duplicates by dropping a note to the department's license section at Lansing 26.

Conley League Leader in Nine Departments

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Gene Conley, number one minor league pitching prospect for the Braves, had a sensational season in 1953 with Toledo. The 6-8 righthander led the American Association in nine departments. He had the most wins (23-9), best percentage (.719), best earned run average (2.90), most strikeouts (211), most shutouts (4) faced the most batters (944), made the most starts (32), completed the most games (24), and appeared in the most innings (261).

Twin Cagers on Opposing Teams Cause Trouble

BALTIMORE (AP)—There was a case of double trouble when John Hopkins University and Rutgers clashed on the basketball court here.

Rutgers won, 83-50, but that's insignificant.

Trouble arose when a set of identical twins—the Haberman brothers—played in the game. It isn't so unusual to see a set of twins playing basketball, but it is somewhat of an oddity when they perform for opposing teams.

Norman is a Rutgers forward, while twin brother Edward performs at a guard spot for John juniors, 20 years old, and stand 6-2.

Winter Sports Queen

ROSCOMMON (UP) — Charlotte Martzowka has been chosen Roscommon's 1954 winter sports queen, it was announced today.

She will be crowned by Secretary of State Owen J. Cleary at a Saturday night coronation ball at the Pioneer Hills Winter Sports Park near here.

Seven Big 10 Teams Slated for Cage Action

MSC Plays on Gophers' Court, OSU at Purdue in League Games

CHICAGO (UP)—Big Ten basketball action warms up again this weekend after a semester break for some clubs with seven teams slated for competition, four of them in league games.

Conference scraps will be Michigan State at Minnesota and Ohio State at Purdue.

Non-league battles open Friday night, when Northwestern plays at Butler, while other Saturday clashes will be Washington U. of St. Louis at Michigan and Illinois vs De Paul in the feature of a college doubleheader in the Chicago stadium.

Home teams were the favorites in all but two encounters. Illinois, coming back for its 1st gameJan. 18 when it lost to Iowa, was a two point choice over De Paul. Both teams have won nine and lost four games.

Minnesota, in 3rd place in the Big Ten and beaten only once in five games, was 10 point favorite over the Spartans, tied for 6th place.

Ohio State and Purdue will be playing to get out of the league basement. Each has won only once in six games and shared the cellar with Northwestern. Purdue was a two point choice.

Northwestern was a six point favorite over Butler, although playing on the Butler floor, while Michigan was a one-sided 18-point choice over the Missouri five.

Senators Hit 10 Homers

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—Washington Senators hit only 10 home runs at their home park, Griffith Stadium, during the 1953 season. First baseman Mickey Vernon, who led the American League in batting, hit three homers. Outfielder Clyde Vollmer smacked four.

10 Michigan College Grid Stars Are Drafted by Pros

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The "play-for pay" football teams snagged 10 football players from Michigan colleges in the annual National Football League player draft in Philadelphia yesterday.

First state player to be selected was Jim Neal, MSC's center. He was drafted by the Lions in the 2nd round. Don Dohoney, Michigan State's All-America end was drafted by the Chicago Cardinals in the 5th round.

Spartan halfback Billy Wells went to the Washington Redskins in another 5th round selection.

Denny McCotter, rugged University of Detroit tackle, was picked by the Baltimore Colts, also in the 5th round.

Detroit tackle Cas Krol and end Jack Flanagan were picked by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Flanagan still has two years of college eligibility.

A 4th Titan, Ray Zambiasi, went to the Philadelphia Eagles.

Green Bay Packers nabbed Michigan's Gene Knutson and his teammate Bob Topp was snared by the New York Giants. Giants also grabbed Spartan halfback Rex Corless.

Jim Neal, Michigan State center, went to the Detroit Lions.

A Shoe Switch

MIAMI (AP) — The English horse Olympic, now racing at Hialeah, has had his shoes switched. The ones that normally go on the hind feet are on the forefeet. Trainer Ivan Parke believes the slightest heel on the rear shoes gives the horse the traction needed for grass racing.

Bob Considine Says:

Development of A-Battery Makes Nautilus Obsolete

NEW YORK (INS) — Nautilus, lying in her "wet-dock" at General Dynamic's electric boatyard in Groton, Conn., and Sea Wolf, another atomic submarine that won't be launched until next year, were rendered semi-obsolete Tuesday afternoon by the Radio Corporation of America.

RCA produced, in a crude stage, the ultimate dream of those who tinker with the atom with peaceful intentions in mind: A tiny atomic battery which gives off electric current. There was only one millionth of a watt, but Edison's first incandescent wasn't exactly blinding, either.

RCA's battery, the size of a pencil eraser, eliminates the furnace, reactor, boiler, water, steam, turbine and other devices familiar since the time of Watt.

Brig. Gen. David Sarnoff, Frank Folsom and the scientists of RCA say ten of the diminutive A-batteries will run a portable radio 20 years without replacement, and eventually will sell five for a nickel.

Many arrests have followed in the wake of the tremendous train wreck in Czechoslovakia last Christmas Eve. Reports of deaths from it were stopped at 103.

The Prague-Bratislava Express ran into a local passenger train on the same track just a week after the official Communist newspaper Rude Pravo and the controlled radio blared that Czechoslovakia's great good friend, Russia, had installed automatic safety equipment on the line "which eliminates the possibility of a locomotive entering a track already in use and considerably increases the capacity of rail lines. This modern equipment is supplied to us by the Soviet Union."

Refugees say the Soviet safety equipment failed. The arrests continue.

Would Cancel Book Gift to Help State Budget

LANSING (INS) — Rep. Adrian Deboom (R-Owosso) said today he is the sponsor of a bill to end the custom of equipping legislators with a free $60 set of law books each term.

Deboom promised annual savings to the state of $10,000 if the practice is ended.

Detroit Man Is Held on Car-Burning Charge

A Detroiter who admitted to police that he burned an automobile he was buying from a friend to lessen his debts, waived examination yesterday on arson charges and was bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court.

Donald F. Lydick, 39, of 4131 Roosevelt, was taken to Oakland County Jail after he failed to meet $2,000 bond set by Royal Oak Judge John E. Brondige. Lydick will appear in Circuit Court Feb. 1.

According to Royal Oak Detectives Virgil Scott and George Tedder, Lydick was arrested early Sunday following a fire which destroyed a car owned by George Richardson, same address as Lydick. Richardson told the detectives that Lydick was renting, not buying, his auto.

Turk Lauds U. N. in Talk to Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Bayar of Turkey cautioned Congress today that "new fires may break out" in the world and named the United Nations and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization as the best defenses against them.

In his brief address prepared for a special joint meeting of the two houses, Bayar pointed out that Turkey has also sought "to fill in the gaps . . . in the peace front "by singing the tripartite Balkan pact with Greece and Yugoslavia. He said:

"The friendship established between Greece and Turkey is the best example of how two countries who mistakenly mistrusted each other for centuries have agreed upon a close and loyal collaboration as a result of recognition of the realities of life."

Technical progress has made the world smaller, he said, and danger to one country is danger to all. That is why Turkey supports collective security.

Grain Market Relatively Quiet

CHICAGO (AP)—Most grains eased in relatively quiet dealings on the Board of Trade today.

The bullish enthusiasm which was pronounced earlier in the week seems to be on the wane. This was the last trading session in January and grainmen have not forgotten that February has on several occasions produced some wide price breaks in these postwar years.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅝ to ⅞ cent lower, March $2.12⅛, corn unchanged to ¼ lower, March $1.52⅝, oats unchanged to ¼ lower, March 79¼, rye unchanged to ⅛ lower, March $1.25, soybeans unchanged to one cent higher, March $3.12, and lard 10 to 18 cents a hundred pounds higher, March $16.35.

NOTICE OF SALE
$800,000
WALLED LAKE CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL DISTRICT
OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHIGAN
BUILDING AND SITE BONDS, SERIES 2

Sealed bids for the purchase of Building and Site Bonds, Series 2, to be issued by Walled Lake Consolidated School District, Oakland County, Michigan, of the par value of $800,000 will be received by the undersigned, at the high school building in said school district (Post office address: Walled Lake, Michigan), until 8:00 o'clock p.m., Eastern Standard Time, on Wednesday, the 10th day of February, 1954, at which time and place said bids will be publicly opened and read.

Said bonds will be dated March 1, 1954, will be coupon bonds in the denomination of $1,000 each, will be numbered consecutively in the direct order of their maturities from 1 to 800, both inclusive, and will bear interest from their date at a rate or rates not exceeding 4% per annum, payable on May 1, 1954 and thereafter semi-annually on May 1 and November 1. Each bid shall state the annual interest rate or rates upon which it is submitted, expressed in multiples of ¼ of 1%. The interest rate for each coupon period on any one bond shall be at one rate only. Accrued interest to date of delivery of such bonds must be paid by the purchaser at the time of delivery.

Said bonds will mature serially on the 1st day of May in each year as follows: $40,000 in each year from 1955 to 1956, $45,000 in the year 1957, $50,000 in each year from 1958 to 1961, $55,000 in the year 1962, $60,000 in each year from 1963 to 1964, $65,000 in each year from 1965 to 1967, $70,000 in the year 1968, and $35,000 in the year 1969, all years inclusive. Bonds Nos. 501 to 800, both inclusive, maturing in the years 1965 to 1969, both inclusive, are subject to redemption by the school district prior to maturity, in inverse numerical order, on any one or more interest payment dates on and after May 1, 1956, at par and accrued interest plus a premium on each bond in accordance with the following schedule:

$30 if called to be redeemed on or after May 1, 1956 but prior to May 1, 1958

$25 if called to be redeemed on or after May 1, 1958 but prior to May 1, 1960.

$20 if called to be redeemed on or after May 1, 1960 but prior to May 1, 1962.

$15 if called to be redeemed on or after May 1, 1962 but prior to May 1, 1964.

$10 if called to be redeemed on or after May 1, 1964 but prior to May 1, 1966.

$5 if called to be redeemed on or after May 1, 1966.

Notice of redemption shall be published not less than 30 days prior to the date fixed for redemption, at least once in a newspaper or publication circulated in the City of Detroit, Michigan, which carries as a part of its regular service, notices of the sale of municipal bonds. The remaining bonds will not be subject to redemption prior to maturity. Both principal and interest will be payable at the Detroit Trust Company, Detroit, Michigan.

The bonds are to be a part of a total issue of $1,300,000 voted for the purpose of defraying the cost of erecting and furnishing a new senior high school building and a new elementary school building in said school district and acquiring a site for said new elementary school building, and will be the general obligations of the school district which is authorized and required by law to levy upon all the taxable property therein such ad valorem taxes as may be necessary to pay said bonds and the interest thereon, subject to such limitations upon the said taxing power as may result from the provisions of Section 21 of Article X of the Michigan Constitution and the Michigan Property Tax Limitation Act. The electors of said school district at an election held on May 4, 1953, increased the tax limitation by 10½ mills for the years 1953 to 1972, both inclusive, for the payment of principal and interest on said total issue of $1,300,000, including the establishment of a reserve therefor.

For the purpose of awarding the bonds, the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the bonds from March 1, 1954 to their respective maturities and deducting therefrom any premium. The bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the school district. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the bonds or at a price less than their par value, will be considered.

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of $16,000 drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the Treasurer of the school district must accompany each bid as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder, to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid be accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds. No interest shall be allowed on the good faith checks and checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned to each bidder's representative or by registered mail.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Berry, Stevens & Moorman, attorneys, Detroit, Michigan, approving the legality of the bonds. The cost of said legal opinion and of the printing of the bonds will be paid by the school district. Bonds will be delivered at Detroit, Michigan.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Steels Hold Up Market Today

NEW YORK (AP)—The Stock Market started higher with a rush today and then turned quiet.

Prices moved major fractions in either direction, but the gainers had the upper hand all the way.

Bethlehem Steel delayed its appearance on the tape until well after the opening. The company after the close yesterday declared a dividend of $2 as compared with $1 previously paid at quarterly intervals.

The steel division of the market was higher all around. Among other major divisions going up were farm implements, coppers, chemicals, railroads, and oils. The motors were somewhat backward while utilities and air lines were steady and the aircrafts were mixed.

The market yesterday was lower on average, but there was an almost even balance between gainers and losers. In final phases of trading, the market advanced, and that strength appeared to be carried over into today's market.

Among higher stocks were U. S. Steel, Republic Steel, International Harvester, Kennecott Copper, Allied Chemical, American Tobacco, Santa Fe, Southern Pacific and Sinclair Oil.

Speed Limit Bill Killed in House

Representatives Study Suggestions Offered by Safety Seminar

LANSING (AP)—Any chance of imposing a speed limit on Michigan highways this year appeared dead today.

The House Public Safety Committee killed a bill which would have set a 65-mile limit during the day and 50 miles at night. A similar bill is in the Senate, but if it ever reaches the House committee the same fate can be expected for it.

Rep. Clyde E. Cooper (R-White Cloud) did not announce the committee vote which was taken in closed session.

He indicated, however, that the committee was impressed with the recommendation of the second annual Michigan highway safety seminar against speed limits earlier this week.

State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs was called before the committee, Cooper said, but made no recommendation.

In today's session, the Senate scheduled a vote on a bill releasing public school pupils from classes to take religious training in their churches.

The House at the same time scheduled debate on a bill requiring the removal of doors and lids from abandoned refrigerators and freezers. This bill was inspired by last summer's rash of child deaths in refrigerators.

House debate on a bill to abolish Michigan's 1,900-man naval militia was set over to Tuesday.

The measure, recommended by the "Little Hoover" committee on State government reorganization is sponsored by Rep. Gerald W. Graves (R-Alpena).

GM Plans to Increase Transmission Capacity

FLINT (AP) — Buick's share of the billion dollar General Motors expansion program will run into millions of dollars and permit addition of about 150,000 square feet of new construction.

It also will bring an increase of nearly 500 units daily in Buick's automatic transmission output, more than double capacity of the foundry and also increase production of axles and expand the capacity of the forge shop.

Ivan L. Wiles, general manager, said the larger part of the expansion for Buick will include purchase of new machinery to be installed in the former straight eight engine plant and into the area made vacant by termination of the CD850 tank transmission contract.

GM Keeps Hands Off in Augusta Price War

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors today continued its "hands-off" policy in a running price war between Augusta, Ga. new car dealers and used car dealers.

The dealer, Henry Darling, charged that used car lots in Augusta were undercutting him in prices on 1954 Chevrolets. He said he had acted to meet the "price war."

GM yesterday denied it was helping Darling, or any other dealer, meet price cuts by lowering the price on its cars sold to dealers.

Darling, informed of the denial, said GM had misunderstood his statement. He said a conference of South Carolina Chevrolet dealers did not claim that GM had entered the price war.

News in Brief

Hollie King, 35, of 4707 Joslyn Rd., pleaded guilty to a drunk driving charge Thursday when he appeared before Pontiac Judge Maurice E. Finnegan. He was ordered to pay a $75 fine and was sentenced to three days in Oakland County Jail.

'53 Auto Production Exceeds '52 Mark

DETROIT (AP) — The auto industry shipped nearly two million more vehicles in 1953 than it did in the previous year when production was limited by government restrictions.

The Automobile Manufacturers Association said yesterday in its final report of the year's production that factories shipped 7,328,040 vehicles in 1953. Of this total, 6,121,787 were passenger cars. The rest were trucks and coaches.

The 1953 total compared with 5,538,959 vehicles constructed in 1952, the association said.

Last year's production total was second only to that of the record year, 1950, when more than eight million factory shipments were made, the association added.

The duff of a forest is the layer of partly decayed vegetable matter on the forest floor.

Wool Weatherstripping Available for Homes

NEW YORK (UP) — Wool pile weatherstripping—the fuzzy material placed around the edges of car windows to keep rain out—now is available for the home handyman.

The soft pile is attached to plastic strips to simplify handling. It can be cut with a pair of scissors and held down with tacks.

A special feature of the wool-like material is that it forms a seal, yet allows windows to slide easily.

Exams, Graduation Over, Local High Schoolers Do 'In-Between' Work Now

The "in-between" week that occurs during every school year has arrived for Pontiac high schoolers.

At Pontiac High, Seniors graduated Thursday and embarked on their careers in the "outside world."

Parochial schools breathed a sigh of relief as mid-term exams were completed and activities seemed to be returning to normal.

ST. FREDERICK

Mary Drake, school correspondent, writes that the sigh of relief breathed by weary classmen could be heard throughout the school.

MARY

Mid term exams were "all cleaned up" yesterday. Today's free day officially marks the end of the first semester.

Seniors celebrated the respite with a skating party scheduled this noon at the home of Marlene Daly on Loon Lake.

Monday, John Russell, one of of Pontiac's Junior Achievement members was guest of the Detroit Economics Club. He attended a luncheon held at the Sheraton-Cadillac hotel.

ST. MICHAEL

This week the big news at St. Michael was the distribution of the school paper "The Michaelite."

MARGARET

Newshound Margaret Martin states that members of the Michaelite staff were treated to a dinner Monday by their director.

Parties also stole the spotlight as junior Mareee Hill hosted a coke party at her home Saturday and Mike Lauinger opened his home recently for a going-away party in honor of service bound classmates.

The Girl's Basketball Team chalked up another resounding victory over St. James High School, Ferndale.

PONTIAC HIGH

With the seniors gone and a new batch of upperclassmen eager to take their places, PHS students found time to relax for a few days between semesters.

VICKY

Scribe Vicky Micu relates that exams were completed by underclassmen the early part of this week.

Some chiefs, however had to report to the old brick teepee Thursday (a day off for most) to take make up exams and seventh hour tests.

Junior High graduates who will invade the high school Monday took a tour of their future home Thursday. All students will receive new schedules for next semester Monday.

Striking Workers to Vote on Back-to-Work Idea

DETROIT (INS)—Striking Nash-Kelvinator workers today called a mass meeting for 11 a.m. Saturday to ballot on a back-to-work motion.

The strikers, 2,500 of them, are members of the Independent Mechanics Education Society. They walked out Monday in sympathy protest over the disciplining of two workers for loafing.

The vote will be held in Detroit's Mackenzie High School.

St. Michael Retreat Is Set for Feb. 2-4

St. Frederick High School students are setting aside Feb. 2, 3 and 4 for the annual high school retreat.

The Rev. John A. Trese of the Catholic Family Center will guide the high school students through those three days of prayer and spiritual inventory.

'33 Prices Prevail as Restaurant Marks 20th Year

VANCOUVER, Wash. (AP)—Twenty years ago Steve LeRouge went into the restaurant business. Next Tuesday, at his restaurant at Dollar's Corner, about 16 miles northeast of here, he will observe the anniversary by following his original menu—prices included.

And so those who crowd into his establishment—he can seat perhaps 30 or so—can choose among these: T-bone, 40 cents; roast beef, roast pork or pork chops, 35 cents; hamburgers, 10 cents; coffee, 5 cents; and a great big banana split with three scoops of ice cream for a quarter.

Flying-Saucer Suit

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (UP)— Mrs. Florence Cohen is suing a department store here for $1,000. Claims she was struck by a "flying saucer" set in motion by a store employe.

Parking Ticket and Theft Give Driver Rough Day

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—It was a rough day for Byron Arnold when he paid a brief visit to downtown Phoenix.

He received a ticket for overparking in a 24-minute meter zone.

But later somebody picked the lock on his car and went off with an expensive pair of shoes. Police weren't around when the theft occurred.
