GM Heralds an Important Milestone: Hits 100,000,000 Diesel Horsepower

CHICAGO — General Motors today signalized an important milestone in the history of America's industrial economy — the production by GM of 100 Million Diesel Horsepower.

GM President Harlow H. Curtice hailed the event as a "modern industrial miracle."

"In the short period of little more than 20 years," he said, "General Motors has built enough Diesel engines to give the country more new power capacity than all of the nation's privately-owned steam generating plants."

General Motors unveiled its first modern lightweight two-cycle Diesel engine at the Century of Progress exhibition here in 1933. This was the beginning of an amazing industrial revolution that has changed the lives of all Americans.

To observe the milestone General Motors on Wednesday will open the Powerama, its giant "World's fair of power," on one million square feet of Chicago lakefront. The spectacular exhibition will dramatize the scores of industrial achievements made possible by Diesel and gas turbine engines.

Curtice told a news conference at the Blackstone hotel today that it took General Motors 22 years to produce its first 100 Million Diesel Horsepower.

Today's milestone of 100 Million Diesel horsepower is only the beginning of America's progress in the Diesel and gas turbine engine field, Curtice said. Looking into the future, he forecast:

1. "A further acceleration of the present rapid growth of the market for Diesel horsepower," which will result in the production by General Motors of the second 100 million Diesel horsepower by 1965.

2. Many new developments in the Diesel field, including "substantial increases in horsepower per unit of weight together with improvement in fuel economy."

3. New applications of power plants which GM's Electro-Motive Division now builds into locomotives. Two that hold "tremendous promise" are for oil drilling rigs

A pair of 98x100 scores were out in front of the Preliminary Day Gun handicap at 1 p.m. today in the opening feature of the 1955 National Skeet Shooting Assn. Championship.

The event is under way at Oakland County Sportsmen Club at Waterford.

During the morning round, less than a score of squads had reached the firing ranges.

Leaders of the 100 target event for which the Pontiac Press presents a sterling silver trophy included among the early finishers Robert L. Robbins, of Aurora, Colo. (25-24-24-25—98) and Franklin Hollinger, of Harrisburg, Pa. (24-25-24-25—98).

At 97 were three shooters. They were Ray D. Delk, Lowrie Air Force Base, Bernard Phom of Honolulu, Hawaii, and Charles B. Irwin of Rocky River, Ohio. Phom was one of two Hawaiians shooting in today's opening event. The other was Mee Tai Chang, who had 94.

One shooter was at the 95 level. He was W. H. Smith, of Lowrie Air Force Base.

Other 94 shooters included Kirk McGeede of Palm City, California, W. H. Holladay of Denver, Colo., and Chang.

Dusty winds blowing in from the east were affecting the early cards. But otherwise the weather was perfect for the start of the nation's biggest skeet event.

The nationals will run throughout the entire week, with some 600 or more shotgun experts expected to participate.

See Cloudy, Cooler Weather Tomorrow

The mercury returned to the 90s today after a nine-day respite from one of the hottest summers on record.

After climbing steadily all morning, the temperature pushed past the 90-degree mark at 1 p.m.

Scattered showers and thunderstorms tonight are expected to bring some relief. Forecast for tomorrow is for partly cloudy skies and cooler temperatures, with a high of 80-84 predicted.

Saturday, the mercury hit a high of 80 degrees, dipping to a low of 67. Sunday's high was 78, low 67. Thermometer reading was 72 at 8 a. m. today and 91 at 2 p.m.

Pontiac School District Named in Court Suit

Taxpayer Charges City Board Failed to Award Low Bid Contract

A suit which could halt construction of the Linda Vista elementary school has been filed in Circuit Court by a Ponitac School District taxpayer and his wife.

The suit, filed by James and Margaret Fettinger, of 115 N. Tasmania, is directed at the Pontiac School District. It asks the court to issue an injunction restraining the school board from awarding contracts for construction of the new school "to other than the lowest responsible bidder."

It asks also that the court order that construction contracts be awarded the lowest bidders.

The suit charges that the school board on Aug. 19 "after considerable discussion . . . and having been advised by the architect . . . that the (general construction) contract should be awarded the lowest bidder . . . failed and refused to award to the low bidder.

The board also failed to award the electrical contract to the lowest bidder, the suit states.

"The only reason advanced," the bill of complaint continues, "was that said persons to whom contracts were awarded were local contractors."

HEARING SET

A hearing has been set for Sept. 6.

Fettinger is a construction superintendent for a Royal Oak firm which also bid on the project. A spokesman for the firm, Pulte-Strang, Inc., said his company's bid was $600 less than that of the Bundy Construction Co., of Pontiac, which won the general contract.

The general contract was for $305,000. Ballard Electric Co., of Pontiac, was awarded the electrical trades contract with a bid of $23,300.

Contacted by telephone, Fettinger said:

"I think they should take the low bidders. After all, it's the people's money they are throwing away."

The Fettingers have two boys, one in school and the other set to start next year.

Fenton Attorney to Face Charge

Warrant Will Depend on Recovery of Farmer Shot Friday

Although authorities continued to withhold issuance of a warrant against a Fenton village official who allegedly shot a tenant farmer Friday night, the prosecutor's office said a charge definitely will be lodged late today or tomorrow.

Clifford Dye, 53-year-old Fenton village attorney, will be charged with either first-degree murder or assault with intent to kill, depending on whether the farmer survives, said George F. Taylor, chief assistant Oakland County Prosecutor.

The wounded man, William C. Clark, 27, was reported in fair condition today at Hurley Hospital, Flint.

Taylor said a neighboring farmer stated that Dye, who is being held at the Oakland County Jail, told him recently "the only way to deal with Clark is with a gun."

Apparently no argument precipitated the shooting, Taylor said, although Dye and Clark had been feuding for some time. Dye has been seeking a Circuit Court injunction breaking Clark's lease to operate three farms owned by Dye's sister, who lives in Louisville, Ky.

Press Camera Follows Reservists in Training

The 703rd Army Reserve Tank Battalion, made up mostly of Oakland County men, is at Ft. Knox, Ky., engaged in an intensive 2-week summer training program.

Each year these citizen-soldiers train at a Regular Army base in an effort to keep abreast of latest techniques. Photos showing the unit in action appear on page 19 of today's Press.

Gunman Loses Battle With Police

DYING GUNMAN'S LAST RITES — A Catholic priest administers last rites to Charles Luther Rollins, 44, of Leoma, Tenn., as he writhes in pain from 29 police bullets. He was cut down when he attempted to shoot his way out of a burning, tear-gas filled Detroit house last night. Rollins held off 200 police in a four-hour gun battle before he charged out with a blazing shotgun in an escape try.

POLICE ATTACK MOVES IN — Two Detroit policemen lay a steady field of fire at beseiged house as a third (dark uniform) moves up to shoot tear gas through the window where Charles Luther Rollins staged a four-hour gun battle with 200 police. Rollins was riddled with bullets when he attempted escape a few minutes later.

Janitor Wages Four-Hour Fight With 200 Cops

Bullet Fusillade Meets Madman as He Charges Lawmen in Escape Try

DETROIT (INS) — A trigger-happy madman, barricaded in the home of a gun collector and unaffected by clouds of tear gas, wounded four persons in a four-hour battle with 300 Detroit police last night before he sallied out to his death in a hail of bullets.

Dropped by 29 bullets and shotgun pellets was 44-year-old Charles Luther Rollins, a janitor at the Ford Motor Co. He emerged firing a shotgun, wearing a bandolier of ammunition like a belt.

The end came in the glare of squad car and fire truck spotlights that attracted a crowd of 5,000 curious, almost foolhardy spectators.

Although riddled with shots fired by 10 policemen, Rollins lived for a time after he fell on his back in the mud and water. The Rev. Brian Mahevy was summoned to administer the last rites.

Police were forced to withhold their fire much of the time to avoid hitting bystanders. They did not use a machinegun for that reason. Residents in surrounding homes were told to douse all lights. Many mothers hid their children under beds. On the other hand, other women squatted on the curbside, children in their laps, to get a front row seat.

Most seriously wounded was Senior Inspector Walter Wyrod, who led a three-man charge into the house midway in the siege. He was struck in the hand by a shotgun blast that drove the officers off.

HEROIC FIREMEN

Even more heroic were firemen who ignored the fusillade and moved up to the home to extinguish fires set by the tear gas.

Although 150 tear gas shells and bombs were lobbed into the small frame home on Detroit's northwest side, Rollins was seen moving from room to room, smoking a cigarette.

He fired an estimated 100 shots during the battle, wounding two neighbors slightly with shotgun pellets and a patrolman during his final charge.

The home is owned by Bernard Smith, a nurseryman and gun collector at the moment en route home from a vacation in Tennessee.

Rollins is Mrs. Smith's uncle. He was told to move out last spring because he had set fire to a davenport. A week ago, after the Smith family had departed, he gained access through a window.

MENACED NEIGHBORS

Since then, he had startled neighbors by fondling guns in the backyard and menacing all who approached.

Once when Mrs. Mary Mardis remonstrated him for knocking over one of the Smith beehives in the backyard, Rollins snarled:

"If you don't get off this porch I'll bash your head in."

The issue was joined, however, when Rollins pointed a rifle through the window at Patricia Ann Wright, 19, in the home next door. Mrs. Wright's husband called police and the four officers who responded were met by three shots.

Two .20-caliber rifles, a .30 caliber deer rifle and a.12 gauge shotgun were found in the home. Shells and bullets had been placed at convenient places throughout the house.

It was found that Rollins had previously been rooming in Dearborn. He was a native of Tennessee.

Red Farming—One Man's Opinion

Russians Taking Terrific Risk in Western Siberia

By DR. W. V. LAMBERT

The Soviet Union is taking the biggest gamble in agricultural history, plunging billions of rubles into an attempt to transform the treeless prairies of Western Siberia and Norther Kazakhstan into a national granery.

After flying over this vast area, I am convinced that the Soviets will be able to produce substantial quantities of grain here.

But whether the grain can be produced economically without serious damage from wind erosion only time will tell.

These so-called "virgin lands" cover 200,000 square miles — an area nearly as large as Nebraska, Iowa and Missouri together.

The soil is good—a dark silt loam. The growing season is short, but productive—when it gets enough moisture.

With an average rainfall the same as our dust bowl region, wind erosion, it seems to me, is an enormous hazard. Temperatures range from 80 to 95 degrees during the May 1 to Aug. 30 growing season. Fall comes early. They had frost during our visit. They have 40-below zero winters.

The Communist Party announced its decision to plow the prairie for wheat in 1954. The program began immediately — under the supervision of Nikita Khrushchev, Communist party first secretary.

MOVE BREADBASKET

The Soviets hope to boost food production sharply by moving the traditional breadbasket from the Ukraine to the new lands. Then the Ukraine will be able to produce corn and fodder crops needed to step up livestock production.

More than 50 million acres of the virgin steppe were plowed and planted in 1954 and 1955. The plan calls for plowing another 25 million acres next year.

To cultivate these tremendous areas, huge fleets of tractors, implements and combines are needed. Officials in Akmolensk, report 95 per cent of the farming in their area is already mechanized. Frontier farms are large: Akmolensk collectives average 22,100 acres (about 35 square miles), state farms 26,600 acres. Unless the land is carefully managed and provision made to check Siberian winds, this area could quickly become a vast dust bowl.

Russian agricultural officials outline a crop rotation program of four years of grain, four of grasses and two of fallow every 10 years. I told them that we find it necessary to leave the land uncropped every other year in dryland areas to expect a reasonable crop. They may have to learn this the hard way.

Seriousdu st problems are almost certain unless they take steps to protect the plowed soil in winter and spring.

HOUSING PROBLEM

Housing and other services for the virgin land pioneers have been a gigantic problem, but authorities hope to have permanent homes for most by next winter.

The government is spending large sums on grain storage facilities. Two hundred and eighty million rubles ($70 million) are being spent in Akmolensk to build 382 storehouses with a capacity of 3,200 tons each.

The government stakes each new state farm to 4 million rubles a year for the first five years to help finance construction, road-building and other services. Half of the farm profits go back to the government and half are used for improvements on the farm.

Considering the problems and hazards involved, it seems to me that the project could run into serious difficulties. It was launched from the top like so many Soviet agricultural projects—and without adequate experimental information. If they can hold down the topsoil, good years should bring in substantial quantities of grain.

The Soviet agriculturists are undertaking a colossal program of "shelter-belt" tree planting which I believe American foresters should watch and could benefit from.

KEEPS SNOW EVEN

In Russia, the shelter-belts are as important in preventing snow from drifting as in reducing wind velocity. By keeping snow evenly spread over the fields, you can insure each section of cultivated land with equaf amounts of moisture when the snow melts. In Rus-

Shell Blast Kills Three, Hurts 10

Picnicking Children Die After Missile Explosion in Texas Yard

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—Three small children lost their lives last night in what one official called "one of the worst disasters the city has ever seen" when a 90 mm. shell exploded over a picnic fire.

Ten others were injured, one critically.

Asst. Fire Chief W. E. Wood said, "There was food, toys, chairs and clothing scattered all over the place. This is one of the worst disasters the city has ever suffered.

"One boy was blown right out of his shoes."

The explosion ripped through an apartment house yard, killing 4-year-old Velma Morales instantly. George Valdez, 6, was dead on arrival at the El Paso General Hospital and Ricoardo Lujan, 10, died a short time later at the hospital.

Tiny Hector Ramirez, 4, is in critical condition. Both his legs were amputated.

One of the first to arrive on the scene, Raymundo Santos, a scoutmaster, said it was "one of the most horrible things I've ever seen."

Police said Santos helped carry the bodies out and administered first aid.

Most of the injured suffered either shrapnel wounds or serious flash burns.

Police said Carlos Valdez, father of George Valdez, told them he had built the fire in the yard and the children were roasting corn when the blast occurred.

Valdez told police the shell had been lying around for some time and that everybody thought it was a dud. He said he thought the shell might have been picked up when the family had a picnic a couple of months ago near the Casner range of Ft. Bliss.

Pontiac Woman Hurt in Auto Accident

One Pontiac woman suffered minor injuries when the car in which she was a passenger was involved in an accident last night at Madison and Joslyn Avenues.

Mrs. Bentley J. Dalton, 25, of 500½ S. Paddock St. was a passenger in a car driven by her husband, Bentley, 23, along with their month-old daughter, Laynette. Mr. Dalton and the infant were not injured.

Another passenger, Arlena L. Begley, 63, of Talbott, Tenn., also escaped injury.

Dalton told police officers he was about to pass another car stopped for a left turn at the intersection when his car was struck by one driven by Joel E. Clark, 68, of 41 Moreland Ave.

Clark told police he did not see the Dalton vehicle because of the third car.

Moors Offered New Type Rule

France Decides to Try Forming Representative Government

PARIS (AP)—The French government decided today to try and form a new and representative Moroccan government through negotiations with Moroccan Nationalist leaders.

Premier Edgar Faure's government will strive to do this before Sept. 12 in its effort to bring peace to French Morocco, scene of bloody violence in the past two weeks.

Pierre July, minister for Tunisian and Moroccan affairs, told a news conference at the end of a Cabinet meeting today that the government had completed its examination of reports submitted by the "Committee of Five" on Moroccan affairs.

The reports were drafted on the basis of talks last week in Aix les Bains with Moroccan leaders.

July said that the Cabinet members had unanimously endorsed the general Moroccan policy and authorized Premier Faure and himself to continue negotiations with the Nationalists.

Asked if the new Moroccan government would include members of the Istiqlal (Independence) party, July replied:

U.S.-Japan Talks to Cover Defense Plans in Far East

WASHINGTON (AP)—Japan's Foreign Minister Mamoru Shigemitsu opened a three-day official visit with key American officials today, hopeful that out of the talks will come "a forward step" in freeing Japan's defense and economic relations with the United States.

Shigemitsu was scheduled to meet with Secretary of State Dulles this afternoon after attending a formal luncheon given in his honor by Undersecretary of State Robert Murphy.

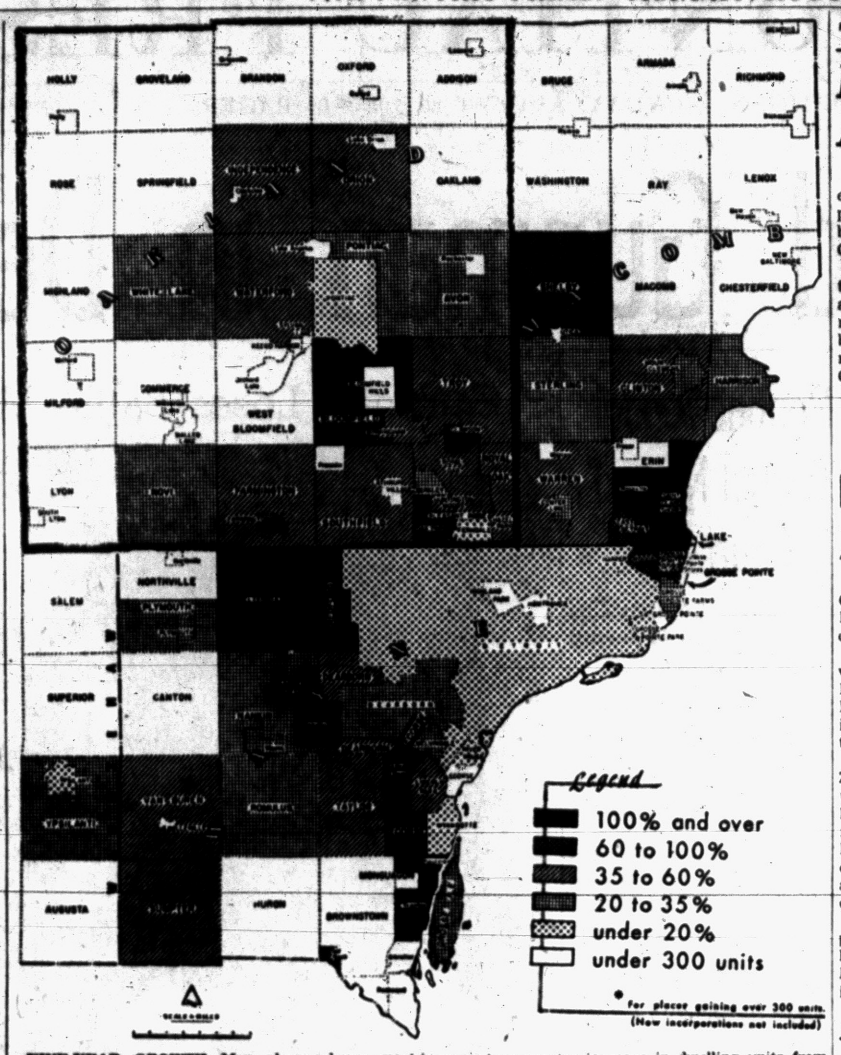

The 68-year-old Japanese foreign minister has advocated a freer hand for Japan in determining what its defense policies will be and in relaxing trade restrictions with Communist China. But he does not want to strain ties with the United States in accomplishing this.

So far, U.S. officials have been noncommittal on his pleas.

Shigemitsu returned last night from a weekend at Hot Springs, Va. He was described by an embassy spokesman as "looking forward to his talks with a feeling of hope and confidence that Japanese-American understanding and cooperation will make a forward step."

It was prepared by the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission. Black areas are those which had 100 per cent or greater increase in dwelling units from 1950 through July of 1955. Oakland County added about 47,000 dwelling units in the period. Oak Park was the fastest growing community.

Indict Officer on 8 Charges

Claim Attorney Offered False Testimony During Probe of War Death

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former Army Lt. Aldo L. Icardi was indicted today on eight charges of falsely denying any part in the cloak and dagger World War II slaying of Maj. William Holohan.

The indictment was returned by a federal grand jury which has been investigating the Holohan slaying for several weeks.

The indictment alleges that Icardi, now a Pittsburgh attorney, gave false testimony in eight instances when he testified before a House Armed Services subcommittee in March, 1953.

Holohan was slain in northern Italy in 1944 while leading a group which parachuted behind Axis lines. Icardi and Carl Lo Dolce of Rochester, N. Y., were members of the secret mission.

Icardi, who was second in command to Holohan, and Lo Dolce were tried in absentia by an Italian court and convicted of slaying Holohan. They could not be extradited, however, to serve the sentences—life for Icardi and 23 years for Lo Dolce.

Lo Dolce did not testify before the House subcommittee which investigated the slaying.

Lo Dolce was not involved in this particular grand jury probe.

Builder Asks Court to Halt Picketing

The builder of a new drive-in restaurant in Drayton Plains is seeking a Circuit Court injunction to halt pickets from blocking construction of the structure, which he values at $130,000.

Leonard Olshansky has filed suit for an injunction to prevent picketing by Local 594, Hotel & Restaurant Employe's International Alliance & Bartenders' International League.

Olshansky says the union threw up a picket line at 4920 Dixie Hwy. preventing completion of work on the restaurant after demanding that he negotiate a contract.

East Receives All-Clear as Hurricane Edith Fades

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The all-clear was sounded today for the entire east coast and probably for Bermuda as far as Hurricane Edith is concerned.

The Atlantic storm has made its predicted turn to a north-northeasterly course and will keep its 80 to 85 mile winds over the open sea, said Gordon Dunn, chief storm forecaster here.

"The entire east coast is in the clear now, and the island of Bermuda probably will not experience hurricane winds," Dunn reported.

"There is a wide open path for the hurricane to swing around to the northeast and keep going over water, a menace only to shipping."

The tropical storm maintained a forward pace of only eight miles an hour but was expected to pick up forward speed late today or tonight.

Wiffi Smith Posts Record 76 in WDGA

Wiffi Smith, 18-year-old Michigan amateur champion, set a new course record today in the 18-hole qualifying round of the Women's District Golf Association championship at Birmingham Country Club.

Wiffi, a last-minute entry in the tourney, fired a 37-39—76, one under women's par of 39-38—77. Defending champion Pat Devany was exempt from qualifying.

Other scores among the starting field of 84 were Mrs. Ryima Marquardt, 81; Mrs. Don Weiss, 85; Mrs. Jane Israel and Irene Bretzlaff, 86; and Pine Lake's Sally Sharp, 89.

Mobile Blood Test Unit Stops Announced in City

With nearly 600 persons receiving free examinations this month, future stops for the mobile blood testing unit were announced today by Dr. John D. Monroe, County health director.

Persons 14 years or older are eligible for the tests, which are given to detect unknown or inadequately treated cases of syphilis.

Tomorow and Wednesday, the trailer will work the Saginaw St.-Orchard Lake Avenue area, while Thursday through Saturday tests will be taken in the Saginaw-Huron street area.

Scheduled hours for the examinations are from noon to 5:30 p.m., Dr. Monroe said. In testing for blood abnormalities, all positive results will be mailed to those individuals concerned in strict confidence, recommending they consult a doctor, Dr. Monroe explained.

If no word is received about two weeks after the blood examination, persons may conclude that no abnormalities are present, Dr. Monroe said.

The blood testing unit is not concerned with blood typing. It is staffed by one technician and a clerk, while blood samples are sent to Lansing for examination.

The first program of its kind in Pontiac, mobile unit operations are sponsored by the City Health Dept. the Michigan Dept. of Health, and the U. S. Health Service.

Russians Taking Risks in Siberia

sia's farmlands — many of which receive comparatively little rain—it is important to use the winter snow moisture.

In the Kuibeshev area, ten per cent of the land will be shelter-belts.

Throughout the Ukraine, we saw shelter-belts everywhere; and in the Kuban region five to six per cent of the land area is shelter-belted with various kinds of trees. ple, box elder, chinese elm, black locust; but I saw no evergreen trees.

Here is one field in which an immediate exchange of scientific workers would benefit us. In turn our foresters could undoubtedly make significant contributions to the Russian program.

If the Russians find out which is the best distance between belts and which methods are best for managing such belts, then we could save money by benefiting from their experiences.

4. Development by GM's Electro-Motive and Frigidaire Divisions of a new mechanical refrigerator car which will revolutionize the transportation of perishables. This new car, Mr. Curtice said, will make the old-style refrigerator car "as obsolete as the steam engine."

5. A great expansion in the road machinery industry "both because of market potential and because of forward strikes in product development.

"Application of the torque converter transmission, a General Motors development, to off-the-road vehicles represents a tremendous advance in the effective use of available horsepower," Curtice said.

6. In the field of air power, Curtice said GM's Allison Division has under way a 75 million dollar program for facilities for forward development work to provide engines "for military and commercial purposes based on our estimates of future needs.

"In a very few years," he said, "you will be able to ride in many American-built planes powered by American-built turboprop engines — Allison engines. Flight records will fall and new standards of comfort will be set."

Curtice said all of the non-automotive fields in which General Motors power is applied "hold tremendous promise for the future."

Drunk Driving Charge Faces Waterford Man

Jack M. Hancock, 33, of Waterford Township, was arrested Saturday night by Pontiac Police on a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor.

Officers said Hancock was driving over the center line, weaving from the center of the street back to the curb, was traveling at a high rate of speed and was endangering the lives of pedestrians and other motorists.

Milk Clerk Is Slugged in Detroit Depot Holdup

DETROIT (INS)—An 18-year-old Detroit milk depot clerk was in serious condition today with head wounds inflicted by a holdup man who took $14 from a cash register.

The Day in Birmingham

Parking Area Owners Asked to Attend Meeting

BIRMINGHAM — Property owners in the area of a third proposed municipal parking lot have been invited to attend tonight's City Commission meeting.

Plans will again be aired for two suggested lots on Hamilton avenue to serve the northeast business section. One would be located between Ferndale and Park street, north of Hamilton and south of Oakland.

The other, and the most controversial, would be on the south side of Hamilton, extending east from the alley behind Birmingham National Bank.

Financial problems with the Eton Park skating rink will be another item for discussion. Costs are over the $125,000 bond issue which voters approved for the rink, without even considering parking facilities. $15,000 of the bond issue was to have been used for parking improvements.

TO PRESENT AMENDMENT

City Attorney Forbes Hascall will present an amendment to the city's "nuisance ordinance," which would prohibit the keeping of all animals not classified as household pets, and not even those if they are considered offensive.

Already in progress are Newcomers Club plans for annual sponsorship of the Red Cross Blood Bank. New officers and board members have set the date for Nov. 1 with Mrs. Richard Haviland, president, and Mrs. Harold Bickner, vice president, as cochairmen.

Other new officers include Mrs. John Joyner, acting past president; Mrs. John Miller, secretary and Mrs. Ross Williams, treasurer.

Mrs. Frank Fennell, Mrs. William Forsythe, Mrs. Walter Riley, Mrs. Harry Wilbur, Mrs. R. H. Butler, Mrs. James Stewart Jr., Mrs. John F. Green, Mrs. Theodore Gobeske, Mrs. John Philpott, Mrs. William Cooper and Mrs. Donald Kogge will serve as board members.

Still others will be Mrs. E. J. Danziger, Mrs. Paul Lenahan and Mrs. John Schumann.

Police have sent out a missing report on Dennis Welch, 17, of 1439 Ruffner St. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence R. Welch, told police the youth has not returned home since leaving at 6 p.m. Thursday.

He was described as having a slim build, weighs 135 pounds and is five feet, eight inches tall. His hair and eyes are brown. When last seen, he was wearing blue jeans and a faded gray shirt, and was driving a 1951 dark green Ford with license No. GV 39 46.

While the attendant was working on a car repair, a thief took $211.59 from the cash register at the Al Lalla Service Station, 1911 South Woodward Ave., this morning. Attendant Orvel L. Van Sickle of Royal Oak, told police he went outside about 6:15 a.m. to aid a customer and discovered the theft when he rang up the sale at 6:30.

New Polio Cases Noted in County

9 Incidents Reported; None of Victims Were Inoculated

Nine new cases of polio were reported last week in Oakland County, three of which were paralytic, according to Dr. John D. Monroe, County health director.

None of the nine cases were inoculated with Salk vaccine, he added. No new cases were reported in Pontiac.

With 66 polio victims stricken since Jan. 1, the total of cases this year is running 13 per cent under figures for 1954.

Meanwhile, attendance at the two makeup shot clinics showed a marked increase Friday, as 119 children were treated, 74 in Pontiac and 45 at the Health ter in Royal Oak.

The clinics swing into their fourth week of operation today, but Dr. Monroe warned this may be the last week for the free booster and second shots.

Doctors continue to chip away at the number of children yet to be inoculated. As of Friday, 2,361 youngsters have been vaccinated.

When the regular program closed earlier this month, some 12,746 first and second graders remained to be treated. A termination date for the makeup program will be announced by Dr. Monroe at a later date.

Vaccine shots will be given daily through Friday this week in the Pontiac clinic, at 15 W. Huron St., and the Royal Oak Health Center, at 12401 E. Fourth St.

Clinics will be open from 9 to 11:30 a.m. and from 1 to 4 p.m. at both locations.

Wants Federal Insurance Setup

Senator Says Program Would Cope With Big National Disasters

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Lehman (D-NY) says he'll ask Congress to set up a federal risk insurance plan as part of a permanent program to cope with major disasters like the Northeast floods.

Lehman said he would have a proposal ready for Congress early next year so "in the future, Americans will not need to live in the fear that all their possessions, savings and hopes may vanish in a single catastrophic blast."

The senator's proposal, announced by his office Saturday, also would call for broadening the operations of the civil defense administration to include any national disaster, in addition to possible enemy attack.

In Denver, President Eisenhower yesterday studied a Red Cross report on flood relief.

E. Roland Harriman, national Red Cross chairman, reported his organization already has raised $3,866,000 in flood relief funds. The goal is eight million dollars.

The Red Cross announced in New York that its latest survey showed 35,661 families in the six-state flood area had suffered material losses. It said 13,480 families have indicated they'll register for Red Cross rehabilitation assistance.

Chigger When Adult Won't Feed on Man

ST. LOUIS — Chiggers are the young of a mite. A chigger does not burrow into the skin, as some persons believe, but attaches itself to the skin at the base of a hair. Probably the only ill effect that can result from a chigger bite is a secondary infection from scratching the bite.

When the chigger reaches the adult stage it is an eight-legged mite and does not feed on man, but on other arthropods and their eggs. Contrary to common belief, chiggers are more closely associated with the ground than with weeds and brush. They are active both day and night.

PANAMA CITY—A weird little "time bird" lives in the forest depths of Barro Colorado Island, the Smithsonian Institution's jungle wildlife preserve in the Canal Zone.

The bird, the rufous motmot, swings its elongated tail regularly from side to side with an almost precise interval per swing of a little more than one second.

OK Slum Clearance

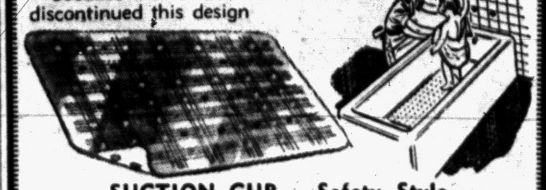

DETROIT (AP)—The City Council Friday approved a $200,968 appropriation to draft plans for cleaning up skid row in the near downtown area. The money will be spent by the Detroit Housing Commission and City Planning Commission in preparing plans to qualify the area for rehabilitation federal aid under the 1954 Housing Act. Officials said two-thirds of the planning cost eventually could be regained from the federal government.

Cobo in Detroit at 11 a.m., and in the evening she will appear on the "Guest House" radio program.

One of her final appearances before the festival will be at Briggs Stadium in Detroit at 1 p.m. Wednesday.

She will reign over the festival at Romeo Sept. 3-5.

Announce Payment Plan for Excess Diverted From Regular Channels

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department announced it will make benefit payments for potatoes diverted from regular commercial channels because of prospects of a big crop this year.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson told a news conference the potato industry "is in difficulty" because a crop of 400 million bushels is indicated this year. "That is more than we normally consume," Benson said.

The surplus would be diverted to manufacture of starch, livestock feed and flour, Benson said. Benefit payments for potatoes so diverted would be 50 cents per 100 pounds up to Dec. 31, then drop to 40 cents until March 31, 1956, and afterward to 30 cents until June 30, 1956.

It probably will be Sept. 26 before the plan can be put into operation, he said, and the department will help out only in states or areas where the "industry develops and operates an approved plan."

The diversion program, he added, "will be an industry responsibility."

Primary Schools at Holly Busy Enrolling Pupils

HOLLY—Grade school teachers in the Holly Area Schools are registering new pupils every day this week between the hours of 9 and 4 o'clock. Children are requested to register in the school nearest their home.

With the roster of teachers completed, Supt. C. G. Coggins announces that the schools will open on Sept. 8, with the exception of kindergarten where the opening date is Sept. 12.

Teachers will report for preliminary work on Sept. 6. Pupils who attended the Holly Area Schools the past year need not register before the opening day of school.

Arrest Area Youths at Gang Fight Scene

Fourteen teenage youths armed with everything from pocket knives to wrenches, were held today after police broke up an impending gang fight near Palmer Park in Detroit.

Booked for investigation of felonious assault were Larry Soper, 17, of Hazel Park; Lester Vineyard, 18, of Ferndale; Jerry Owens, 18, of Clawson, and James Rohling, 17, of Highland Park.

The others were juveniles.

The arrests were made after Highland Park authorities heard the fight was to be staged in the rear of a supermarket Saturday night. The youths were rounded up as they assembled.

2 Girls Killed in Romeo Crash

Both Cars Demolished in Collision; Second Driver Unharmed

ROMEO — Two teenagers were killed early last night in a two-car crash at the intersection of Camp ground and 31-Mile road one mile south of Romeo.

Mary Giannola, 16, of East Detroit, was killed instantly and her passenger, Linda Troutman, 13, also of East Detroit, died en route to St. Joseph Hospital, Mt. Clemens.

They were passengers in a car driven by Robert S. Mayer, 17, of East Detroit, which collided with another driven by Vincent Umphrey, 26, of Romeo, at the intersection.

Neither driver was seriously hurt in the smashup, which demolished the two cars.

State police of Romeo covered the accident. The drivers were scheduled to make statements to the Macomb County prosecutor today.

Area Students Returning After Season in Germany

WALLED LAKE — An experiment in international understanding ends today with the return of 30 Michigan students, including three from the Walled Lake area, who have spent the summer as guests of German families.

The trio, Bill Duckwitz, Mary Roach and Shirley Wooden arrived at New York today after a flight from Luxemburg via Icelandic Airlines. They are spending the day sightseeing in New York, including a tour of the United Nations with the rest of their group.

Mr. and Mrs. William Duckwtiz of Westacres and Mr. and Mrs. Royal Wooden of Twin Beach will meet their children at Willow Run this evening. The Dick Roaches of Pontiac Trail drove to New York to meet their daughter, Mary.

June 18 the group parted company in Hamburg to spend the summer with their various hosts. They were not together again until last Monday when the Michigan group met in Dusseldorf to entrain for Paris and three days of sightseeing in the French capitol.

Bill spent the summer in Peine, near Hanover in the British zone. He enjoyed many side trips including one to Cologne, Bonn, a steamer trip on the Rhine, visits to many towns in the Hanover-Brunswick area as guests of the German Rotary club, and one to Frankfort where his host was participating in races with his athletic team.

His letters tell of the exceptional friendliness of the boys and girls and the efforts of his hosts to make him happy.

Mary's hosts were a Darmstadt businessman, his wife and son. She visited the Black Forest, towns in the American zone, and also was able to get to Berlin. Her letters also reflect the enthusiastic reception she received.

Shirley was the guest of two women social workers in Lubeck in far northern Germany. Three others of the Michigan group were also in Lubeck and they did considerable sightseeing in the area. One of the highlights of her summer was a three-day trip to Denmark.

Shirley was impressed by the appearance of prosperity and the cleanliness of the people and the places she visited.

The program named "Youth for Understanding" by the Michigan Council of Churches was the first of its kind. In previous years the council has placed German students in Michigan homes for their senior year. The German parents and their friends proposed the summer for Michigan students to show their gratitude.

MEMBER OF AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

MONDAY, AUGUST 29, 1955

Back to School Parade Scheduled for Sept. 8

Each passing day brings nearer a most important event, the reopening of Pontiac's public and parochial schools September 8.

For a fortnight or more mothers have been alternately welcoming and dreading the day when little Johnnies and Susies make their first real break away from home to enter kindergarten. For equally as long a period mothers have been refurbishing the wardrobes of older children for their return to the classroom.

Thanks to the vision of our Board of Education and taxpayers, Pontiac's public school plant is in good shape to care for the ever growing enrollment. Despite progress being made in the 10 year building program, however, some half day sessions still are necessary.

This applies only to the Emerson School. In addition, classes in the Hawthorne and Owen Schools will operate at above normal capacity. Both arrangements will continue until the new Linda Vista elementary school and the new junior high school on North Perry street are completed.

Return of these thousands of children to their classrooms should remind motorists of the need for extra caution in all school neighborhoods. This extra care is a small price to pay for avoidance of a lifetime of regret over injury or death of a child.

Over the years there has been a too little noticed but nonetheless welcome change in the attitude of school children toward the end of their summer vacation. No longer is it the fashion among them to bemoan the reopening of school.

Today most youngsters look forward eagerly to the resumption of the educational routine.

How U.S. Corporations Help Other Countries

An encouraging fact of international life is the slow and sure retreat abroad of the idea that foreign capital, especially American, means exploitation and is dangerous.

The facts, of course, are just the reverse. A New York Times survey reveals that more than 2,000 U.S. corporations conduct businesses worth $16 billion in foreign countries.

Probably best known among these firms are United Fruit, the Grace Line and Arabian-American Oil Co. What, unfortunately, is too little known about them and others like them is that they employ, almost exclusively, natives of the countries in which they operate. By so doing they have raised the standard of living and the level of technical skills in those lands.

In many cases the American companies have built much better homes for their foreign employes than the workers themselves could afford, as well as hospitals and schools. In most cases also the wages paid and working conditions are above local standards.

Such facts emphasize that the profit motive spurring these operations is tempered by the American spirit of fair play and respect for the individual. At the same time even in the countries of Western Europe, U.S. firms stimulate progress by pioneering new methods and practices developed in this country.

Today the attitude abroad toward foreign capital is changing. More and more political leaders have come to realize the benefits that can result to their countries from enterprises financed by such capital.

Good News for Britons

Announcement that there will be relaxation of newsprint rationing next year is good news for British newspapers and newspaper readers.

For 15 years rationing has limited the number of columns of news and advertising British papers could print. This has created many problems for a press serving a population which reads newspapers even more avidly than Americans.

One result has been that British reporters and editors have been forced to do an excellent job of saying a great deal in fewer and clearer words. Today, as one writer just back from England put it, Britain has some of the world's best as well as the worst newspapers.

An indication of the demand for printed news can be found in the circulation figures of outstanding dailies and weeklies. While both the Manchester Guardian and London Times have small class circulations, London's Daily Mirror and Daily Express are pushing toward the 5,000,000 mark. Among the weeklies are the extremes of The Observer with 500,000 and the Sunday News of the World with 8,140,000.

Increased supplies of newsprint can't guarantee that all newspapers will be good but it obviously can improve a situation which has existed in Britain since early in World War II.

The Man About Town

A Prolific Growth

Pontiac Area Has Many Odd and Quite Unusual Reports

Pluck: What's needed in any endeavor, but especially in playing the harp.

In spite of the hot weather and frequent lack of moisture, Mother Nature is smiling generously on all vegetation in the Pontiac area. Five large ears of sweet corn on a single stalk are reported by of Pontiac Lake. Gladioli six feet tall and with 40 blossoms on some stems are growing in the garden of

Mrs. Ransom Merriweather

of Auburn Heights. Peonies are blooming for a second time for

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Holdsworth

of Birmingham. Chinese asters ten inches across are spreading glory for

Mrs. Byron Wheaton

in Huron Gardens. A sunflower with 36 blossoms is reported by

Courtland Guntherman,

out Baldwin Ave. Tomato plants nine feet tall are producing for

Mr. and Mrs. Herman E. Keel

of 877 Spence St., who also have canna plants of the same height. A pumpkin vine in the garden of

Mrs. Maryann Cochrane

of Walled Lake, now is 28 feet long, growing at the rate of a foot every day, and trespassing on her neighbor's property. The tall corn honors are creeping skyward, now resting with of Waterford—15 feet and still growing. AND, with a desire to experiment a little, of Keego Harbor, planted an aspirin tablet with each kernel of sweet corn, and says the product is "simply delicious."

Claude Youngblood

Somebody now has discovered that among Michigan's 83 counties there is only one, Sanilac, that does not have a lake. Our own Oakland has over 400, the most of any county in the southern peninsula.

The first Santa Claus letter of the year always comes from who now writes that she is seven years old and "still lives on Iroquois Road in the brick house." This time her requests are few, but she adds that she doesn't want any of "this Davy Crockett stuff."

The Canadian version of an old traffic sign is

"Sane?? Stay in Your Lane."

In response to several inquiries as to just when is my encyclopedia says it is the full moon nearest the autumnal equinox which this year is on Sept. 23. The nearest full moon to that date is on Oct. 1.

Showing Who's Still Boss

David Lawrence Says:

'Fund for the Republic' Gives Reds Big Propaganda Break in U. S.

WASHINGTON—The Communist cause in America has had a lucky break. Though not so intended, of course it turns out that $15,000,000 originally derived from the free-enterprise system through the diligent and inventive efforts of the late Henry Ford is now going to be used to help persuade the people of the United States that Communist activity in America has been insignificant and unimportant.

Yet one of the main objectives of the Communists has been and is to destroy the system of private capitalism in our own country and to subvert the government of the United States and its institutions.

To be able to mobilize $15,000,000 to carry on a political propaganda and to put it in a fund which is exempt from paying income taxes is quite an achievement for any cause however well intentioned, especially since up to now philanthropic foundations have not engaged openly in propaganda on political issues nor have they boldly announced that they are going to do so.

Legally they have the right to espouse almost any cause and it certainly would seem logical that $15,000,000 of private funds would be forthcoming from somewhere else soon to uphold the cause of relentless opposition to the growth and spread of communism inside this country.

BIASED REPORT

The Ford Foundation gave $15,000,000 to the so-called "Fund for the Republic" and the first available report on what's going on, recently issued by the head of the fund, does not hesitate to exude a political flavor and to reveal the biased program of objectives in the various studies being financed.

This particular project thus far has been awarded about $285,000 but the Congress of the United States and the Federal Bureau of Investigation have spent many millions of dollars on that subject already. It takes, however, only a small amount of money to issue and get publicity for a report that seeks to discredit the anti-Communist inquiries and findings of the past by Congress. The "Fund for the Republic" report says:

"The accepted view of Communist activity in the United States rests in large part on evidence given in various contexts by a small number of witnesses. There has never been a sustained and rigorous analysis of the sum total of this material. . ."

Yet committees of Congress and the reports of the director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on this very subject have been issued yearly for more than two decades. Only last year the Senate Foreign Relations Committee issued a document giving a digest of all the laws and regulations governing the internal security program.

CONDEMENED PARTY

Rejecting the theory that the quantity of members of the Communist Party or the number of witnesses before committees is a measure of the extent of the reason that the Communists encourage, the Congress of the United States just a year ago by overwhelming vote of both Democrats and Republicans wrote into the laws of the land the following declaration:

"The Congress hereby finds and declares that the Communist Party of the United States, although purportedly a political party, is in fact an instrumentality of a conspiracy to overthrow the government of the United States. It constitutes an authoritarian dictatorship within the republic, demanding for itself the rights and privileges accorded to political parties, but denying to all others the liberties guaranteed by the Constitution. . .

"The Communist party is relatively small numerically and gives scant indication of capacity ever to attain its end by lawful political means. The peril inherent in its operations arises not from its numbers, but from its failure to acknowledge any limitation as to the nature of its activities, and its dedication to the proposition that the present constitutional government of the United States ultimately must be brought to ruin by any available means, including resort to force and violence.

"Holding that doctrine, its role as the agency of the hostile foreign power renders its existence a clear and present and continuing danger to the security of the United States. It is the means whereby individuals are seduced into the service of the world Communist movement, trained to do its bidding, and directed and controlled in the conspiratorial performance of their revolutionary services. Therefore the Communist Party should be outlawed."

But the so-called "Fund for the Republic" with its $15,000,000 apparently is to try to prove by its studies that the American people are "remarkably intolerant of minority views" and that "a political party" in this country has merely been "identified with the 'Enemy.'"

The word "Enemy" is given in quotation marks in the report. Nowhere in it is there any statement that incontrovertible evidence has been presented to Congress and the courts showing how a conspiracy, financed and directed by a foreign government, has set up a political party as a front in America which has actually been used for treasonable purposes.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Thoughtful Justice of the Peace Steers Young Couples Into Church Weddings

Chuck Merritt is wise in steering young couples into churches for their weddings. For true marriage is a spiritual event that should have sacred surroundings, instead of a cuspidor, cigar butts and stale smoke for its incense. When you cheapen weddings, you also cheapen love and marriage, too. Beware!

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case P-325: Chuck Merritt, age about 35, is a justice of the peace at Forrest, Ill.

Earlier this year I was speaking at his town and the Rev. Leland Walls briefed me about Chuck.

"He's a wonderful man," said this clergyman, "and a livewire member of my church.

"He is a natural salesman in the business world, but he carries over that same talent in his devotion to the church.

"Dr. Crane, here is another thing about Chuck which may interest you. Although he is a justice of the peace, he refuses to marry young couples.

"For he says we have four churches in our town and a marriage should be a religious ceremony."

BRAVO TO CHUCK

Chuck certainly deserves a compliment for thus helping to start marriages in the right manner.

I don't wish to appear unsympathetic to justices of the peace, but a wedding should be a hallowed event that occurs in a more sacred locale than a semi-political office where a cuspidor sits in the corner and a half chewed ciagr butt is layed aside for the intoning of the questions put to the young couple.

Every wedding should be performed by a clergyman and preferably before the altar or at least in a parsonage.

Too much stress is placed on elaborate church weddings which are unduly costly and fatiguing to bride and bridegroom.

A wedding should not be a "show-off" of papa's money or mama's social standing.

The ideal type of wedding consists of a small group of friends and relatives seated down front in a church where a clergyman presides at the marriage rites.

RELIGION FIRST

The religious significance is more vital than the showy wedding gown. Actually, the more elaborate the ceremony, the less spiritual significance often attaches to the event.

Doting papa might better sink the price of the ultra elaborate church wedding in a down-payment on a cottage for the newlyweds.

For homeownership helps stabilize a young couple more than a $5,000 show-off wedding.

Marriage is a unique type of "adoption" in which two people of the opposite sex, who are usually of no blood kinship whatsoever, decide to belong to each other forever because they love one another.

Thereafter, they feel closer akin than they do to their own flesh-and-blood brothers and sisters.

Not only does marriage require no actual blood kinship, but neither does real brotherhood nor does true parent-child devotion depend upon blood relationship.

ERRONEOUS IDEA

So banish once and for all, the erroneous idea that blood is thicker than water.

In the first pair of brothers mentioned in the Bible, Cain killed Abel. And Jacob cheated Esau.

David's son Amnon assaulted his sister Tamar; then was killed by his brother Absalom.

So blood kinship doesn't mean a thing unless you have a meeting of minds and hear's. And if you have the latter, blood kinship is entirely unnecesary.

Use this analogy when you inform foster children of their adoption and salute men like Chuck Merritt who steer couples into churches for their weddings.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and a dime to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his psychological charts.

Voice of the People

Mission Makes Request for Musical Instruments

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer name, address and telephone number of its nature

Knowing that our Pontiac folks are a generous people, I am encouraged to copy some of a letter from Rev. and Mrs. Garnett Townsend of the World Gospel Mission.

"The little band at Cobija Mission marches right along with the musical instruments you so kindly sent us in answer to our appeal a year ago. Six boys are playing cornets and helping especially in the open air meetings. Seven Bible students and a few other young people unable to attend the school but who come from a distance for church on Sunday are at various stages of progress on one or another instrument.

"We have more students than instruments, so again we appeal for help."

If you have an instrument that you would like used for the Lord, we would be deeply grateful to receive it.

Any of the following are especially desirable: cornets, baritones, alto horns, guitars, banjos, mandolins, folding organs, accordians, saxophones, clarinets, etc. Please have them put in playing order as it is practically impossible to get repairs here.

Send them to World Gospel Mission, Box 826, Marion, Indiana. One of our missionary families is now home on deputation work and will be returning to Santa Cruz, Bolivia, this fall. The instruments will go with them if received at the Indiana address by September 15.

Thanking friends and strangers in advance.

Mother Allen Prayer Band

More Interested Reader? Plugging for Boys' Club

I have watched with interest the many fine letters recently published in the Press regarding a Boys' Club in the northern part of Pontiac.

Surely such a program is desirable for the boys of our community and should be encouraged and supported willingly by all.

Volunteer leadership in youth groups, such as Boy Scouts, etc., is posing a greater problem year by year and it would seem that paid leaders is the only answer.

Interested Father

We are surprised that more people haven't shown more concern in the matter of a Boys' Club in the north end of Pontiac.

We know the Wever-Owen-Hawthorne Community Club has asked and pleaded for funds to start one. The time to help youngsters is when they come to you and ask for help and for things to occupy their time, not after they've gotten into trouble.

We realize discipline and love have to come from the home, but boys need other things, too. They like to work with their hands and love to play games. They also like the supervision that goes with it.

Since many families can't or don't want to take an interest in them, the Boys' Club would be an ideal place for them to go. There they would be wanted.

The success of the Boys' Club on the East side should prove our point more than anything else we could say.

Smiles

If we all could do just as we please during summertime think how little would be done.

Some folks really ought to diet if it would keep them from being so full of themselves.

It's hard to find your place in the sun when you stay out all night and sleep all day.

A decorator says painting around the house is just horseplay with most husbands. Dobbin', so to speak.

Sometimes it seems that kids never should be told that it's human to be perfect.

Why don't guests offer to help the hostess carry dishes and silverware back to where she borrowed them?

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.—Acts 5:14.

It is cynicism and fear that freeze life; it is faith that thaws it out, releases it, sets it free. —Harry Emerson Fosdick.

Says Small Sugar Amount Won't Cause Tooth Decay

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

From all the scientific evidence I have studied, I infer that the use of a reasonable amount of sugar in the diet and the presence of particles of sugar in the mouth, on the teeth, between the teeth or in the spaces between edges of the gums and the teeth is not cause of decay of the teeth.

At the same time I believe the excessive consumption of sugar in America, especially by growing children is the chief cause of the malnutrition that is becoming increasingly evident in many parts of the country.

Malnutrition doesn't necessarily mean famished or starved. Nor that the victim doesn't have enough to eat. Indeed most victims of malnutrition eat too much, too much refined food.

Thus millions of well-to-do persons with Yankee beriberi habitually eat too much refined white flour and too much sugar. Not that pure carbohydrate is harmful in itself, but when such food yields most of the calories required daily the individual doesn't want and will not eat enough natural food to supply his or her minimum daily requirement of vitamins and minerals.

That's what malnutrition means, and for goodness sake, don't show your ignorance by associating it with poverty or deprivation.

I say victims of Yankee beriberi eat too much refined white flour and too much sugar. Most of the sugar is refined white sugar.

Even if one used crude "raw" sugar, maple syrup, honey, fruit sugar and other natural (unrefined) sugars instead of refined white sugar the effect on nutrition would not be impressive so long as refined white flour continued to supply most of the daily calories.

WELL FED FAMILY

On the other hand, as a good many well-fed American families have learned that when plain wheat (freshly ground) flour is used instead of refined white flour, the effect on nutrition is soon shown and felt by every member of the family, for wheat is still the staff of life, while refined white flour is what I call cheat-food.

Insufficient space available to go into greater detail here — send stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask for pamphlet Wheat to Eat.

For that matter, it is difficult to teach the simplest little lesson in the ways of health in the limited space, if any, available from day to day, so I have been compelled to saddle myself with what has become an unmitigated nuisance, writing, revising, printing, and distributing pamphlets and booklets on questions of health betterment which I cannot leave to editorial whims.

If you are interested in how to prevent tooth decay—few Americans are, until it is too late—it will do you no harm, as a good many readers assure me, to slip me a quarter in negotiable condition, that is, in condition to spend without laundering or dry-cleaning, and a stamped, self-addressed envelope for No. 1 Little Lesson in the Ways of Health, Save Your Teeth.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

U. S. Supreme Court's Dissents Showing Drop

WASHINGTON — Dissents in the United States Supreme Court were fewer in the term ended in June than at any other time in recent years.

Only 45 opinions dissenting from the majority findings were filed in the 78 opinions issued. This was about 58 per cent, a sharp decline from the 83 per cent and 87 per cent of the two previous years.

Discover Less Thievery in Self-Serve Practice

NEW YORK — Chain-store druggists have found that less merchandise is stolen when shoppers wait on themselves than when a salesman is in attendance.

There are more than 650 self-service drugstores at present among the 47,000 chain drug-stores from coast to coast, and it is predicted there will be 5,000 to 6,000 of this type by 1960.

Post Office Ranks 3rd as Rails' Best Customer

WASHINGTON — The third best customer in 1954 of all American Class I railroads — those receiving more than $1,000,000 from transportation—was the Post Office Department.

Out of 262 classes of commodities reported, only two — bituminous coal and lumber — exceeded the $307,500,000 the 36 Class I railroads received during the year for carrying the mail.

Mobile Purifier Device Ends Stuffiness in Air

LONDON — A British concern has developed a portable device to eliminate stuffiness in board and conference rooms. It also will be of bennefit to asthma sufferers.

The portable air purifier, which stands about 3 feet high and is 18 inches square, is sadi to cost about as much as an electric refrigerator. Its manufacturer says that in tests the device absorbed the fumes from a smoke bomb in less than a minute.

THE BERRYS

By Carl Grubert

Subpoena Mother Who Cost Son Rank

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mrs. Deborah Landy, whose former Communist activities once cost her son a Naval Reserve commission, was called under subpoena for questioning today by the House Un-American Activities Committee.

Mrs. Landy, a Bradley Beach, N.J., widow, is the mother of 21-year-old Eugene Landy, who graduated as an honor student this month from the Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, N.Y. The Navy denied him a commission on grounds his mother had been a Communist, but now has a special three-man board reconsidering the case.

Mrs. Landy, 54, has admitted she was a Communist from 1937 to 1947. She told newsmen she quit the party at her son's urging.

Committee sources said they wanted to quiz Mrs. Landy not because of her son's case, but to find out what information about Red activities she might have that is not already in the committee's files.

Delay Pilot Press Talks

TOKY (AP)—The U.S. Air Force today postponed until Wednesday or Thursday a press conference by Lt. Guy H. Bumpass of Jackson, Miss., whose plane was shot down by Communist gunners near the Korean truce line. The delay from Tuesday was "due to the physical condition" of Bumpass, who suffered a fractured skull in the crash, the Air Force said.

Bishops Visit Troops

HEIDELBERG (AP)—Three Methodist bishops are coming from the United States next month to conduct a religious retreat for Methodist chaplains of the U.S. Army. They are Bishops G. Bromley Oxnam, Washington, D.C.; Gerald H. Kennedy, Los Angeles; and Hazen G. Werner, Ohio. The retreat will be Sept. 12-16 at Berchtesgaden.

Polio Victim, 10, Finally Walks to Meet Parents

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Dickie Joe Ladner, 10-year-old son of a Mississippi carpenter, walked from his plane to meet his parents yesterday.

It was more than a family reunion, because Dickie hadn't walked unaided for almost nine years, since he became a polio victim.

Dickie went to Dover, N.J., a year ago for a series of operations. The Dover Police Department "adopted" him when policemen learned he was lonely. They arranged for doctors and nurses and took care of the bills.

Dickie even lived with one of them, Patrolman Anthony Mackron, when he wasn't in the hospital.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Levan J. Ladner, Saucier, Miss.

Moose Makes a Mistake: It Costs Him His Life

NEWCASTLE, N.B. (AP)—A high-jumping moose lost his life yesterday when he failed to clear a Newcastle driver's car.

The moose came belting out of the woods near here just as Gerry Donahue and a friend came driving by. The animal took off majestically — and crashed through the car roof.

Donahue and a passenger escaped injury. The car was badly damaged. The moose broke his leg and a mounted police constable shot him.

Cowboy Policeman Nabs Runaway Calf by Tail

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Patrolman Gilbert Kennedy decided that an hour-long pursuit of a runaway calf on the express highway yesterday had gone far enough.

Kennedy didn't need a horse. He leaned out the window of a moving patrol car and grabbed the calf by its tail.

Then he held on until police and a group of would-be cowboys brought the animal to earth and tied it up.

20 Children Drown in Chinese Flood

HONG KONG (AP)—The known death toll from a flash flood that swept over a group of picnicking Chinese schoolchildren rose to 24 today. Some unofficial reports said 20 more were missing.

The children were on an outing yesterday in a narow canyon near the New Territories village of Taipokow. A cloudburst sent a nine-foot wall of water raging through the area.

Rescue workers recovered 21 bodies yesterday. Three more were found this morning. The total number of children on the picnic was not known and there was no official count of the number missing.

Many of the victims were dashed against rocks and drowned. It was feared others were swept out to sea.

MGM Chief's Daughter Engaged to Serviceman

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Dore Schary, production chief at MGM studio, has announced the engagement of his 19-year-old daughter, Jill, to Navy Lt. John Courrier Zimmer, 25, of Los Angeles.

The announcement was made at a premature birthday party for Schary, attended by Celeste Holm, Danny Kaye, and other friends. The party was held last Saturday night although Schary's 50th birthday is Wednesday.

Miss Schary is a sophomore at Stanford University. Zimmer is the son of Mrs. Morris A. Zimmer. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mired Plane Hangar Snarls Air Traffic

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Startled airplane pilots saw a 200-ton hangar squatting on Love Field's best runway yesterday.

The hangar was being moved across the airfield as part of an expansion program. But rain had softened the ground and when the hangar was pulled off a taxi strip it bogged down. Tractors, cranes and trucks couldn't move the huge building. Its 88 dollies were firmly stuck in the mud.

The edge of the hangar blocked the runway and planes were shifted to a shorter strip.

After about 10 hours metal plates were placed on the ground and the hangar was moved out of the way.

Hal Boyle Says:

Toy Maker Pays Tribute to Blind Workers

NEW YORK (AP)—It is hard to get some employers to hire handicapped people. Often when they do, they have a feeling they are doing the handicapped a favor.

Joe Heller is a different kind of employer. He prefers to hire blind people because he has found they do a better job than workers who can see.

"And I mean they do a better job in every way," said Heller, who operates a $2,000,000-a-year wholesale toy manufacturing firm in Chicago. Only 2 per cent of his employes have normal vision. Ninety-six per cent are totally blind, the other 2 per cent partially blind.

Heller's original interest in the blind was sentimental.

"When I was a boy of 7," he recalled, "my best friend fell into a trough of lime while playing on the site of a construction project. His eyes were burned out.

"I was very close to him. In those days there wasn't so much known about how to help the blind adjust themselves to their condition. My friend grew up and died, but he never learned to adjust himself. He was never able to work. He was afraid to try to get around by himself.

"It hurt me over the years to see him so helpless."

In 1949 Heller, who had been active in the toy field, decided to go into business for himself. With two partners he founded the Skil-Craft Corp., which markets "Handy Andy" juvenile tool sets.

The idea came to him that perhaps some of the routine factory tasks could be performed by the blind, that in this way he could save some of them from the dreary loneliness of his dead childhood friend. He went to the Chicago Lighthouse for the Blind for help in setting up a training program.

The program worked out better than anyone's expectations. The blind proved amazingly able to perform any task assigned to them.

Today Heller has a reservoir of 500 skilled blind workers to draw on, employs from 100 to 150, depending on seasonal fluctuations in the toy industry. He avoids any sentiment in discussing them. He is a hardheaded realist, credits their efficiency largely for the fact his business has grown from $300,000 to $2,000,000 annually in six years, now is the top producer in the field.

Some of the blind do office work. Some assemble and pack the tool kits. When the firm added a line of chemistry sets, microscopes and juvenile mechanical drawing kits, the blind learned the necessary new skills quickly and easily.

"In all sincerity," said Heller, "I would stack them up against the best group of sighted people. Our people would do their jobs better—and get them done faster. They develop a marvelous sense of touch that compensates for their loss of sight."

Do they have any other advantages?

"Many," said Heller crisply. "They don't argue or quibble or loaf on the job. If they get paid on a Friday, they don't go on a spree till the next Wednesday.

"There is little absenteeism. A blind man has to be really sick before he'll miss work. Once we have trained a blind worker we've never had to let one go—not a single one—because he let down on the job.

"They are happier working than many people who can see. We have music for them, and often they break out singing.

"They are also more careful. Our safety record is perfect. We have never had an accident."

The blind are paid during a four-week training period. They then receive the same wage scale—up to $2 an hour—as workers in other Chicago toy factories, plus extra money if their output is above the average.

"They come from all walks of life," said Heller. "One of our superintendents was the personnel director of a large corporation before he lost his sight. Another was a contractor.

"About 35 per cent of our blind are women. They do as well as the men—and some things better. But they're all good."

All his blind employes come to work and go home by themselves. A few have Seeing Eye dogs. But most pride themselves on the fact they can get along with nothing but a white cane.

An example of their ability to grow on a job: A group of six workers who packed 800 sets of toys in a given period when they first started on the job three years ago can now pack 4,000 sets in the same time—a production increase of 500 per cent.

"More employers ought to go to the nearest agency for the blind," said Heller, "and really find out for themselves what the blind can do. They'll find them to be, man for man, a greater asset than many of the people they have on their payroll now."

Young Teens Throw 8-Year-Old in Fire

NEW YORK (AP)—Eight-year-old Joseph Bolero of Queens suffered first-degree burns of the face and body last night when three older boys grabbed him in a Queens park and threw him into a rubbish fire.

Joseph told police he did not know the older boys but they seemed to be 10 or 12 years old.

The boy's tormenters fled immediately after tossing him head first into the flames. Joseph quickly got up and ran to a park washroom to douse the fire. A park attendant took him to a hospital.

Joseph's foster mother Mrs. Mary Conroy of Woodhaven said she knew no reason why anyone would want to hurt him.

Truman Blasts Republicans

Ex-President at Dem Conference Attacks Big Business Power

MACKINAC ISLAND (AP)—Harry S. Truman fired the first salvo of a three-day Michigan Democratic conference yesterday by accusing the Republican administration of falling "100 per cent under the domination of big business."

Truman, scheduled for a speech here tonight, told a news conference that this domination "started in Michigan."

The former President said he did not want to discuss personalities, and he did not mention by name Secretary of Defense Wilson, former General Motors president, and other Michigan businessmen in the Eisenhower administration.

Commenting on Democratic chances in 1956, Truman said it was not inevitable that Republicans would win if President Eisenhower is nominated.

"I think the man who will win the election is the one who has the best platform," he said.

He reaffirmed his support of Adlai Stevenson and at the same time made it clear that he himself would not be a candidate.

Truman steered clear of any comment on Michigan's Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams' recent remark that Eisenhower is an old man who might die in office.

Meanwhile, in Washington Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall declared in a statement that Truman's current speechmaking "sounded like a bitter, frustrated man."

Truman dropped plans for two speeches in California in mid-September. He said he will return to his Independence, Mo., home after speeches at Mackinac Island tonight and Detroit Sept. 5 to continue work on his memoirs.

Boy Scouts Will Launch Four-Year Program Jan. 1

A four-year program known as "Onward for God and My Country" will be launched Jan. 1, 1956, by the Boy Scouts of America, announced Edward H. Leland, Clinton Valley Council executive.

"The purpose of the campaign is to help prepare America's boyhood to live properly in today's world, and to enable them to carry their full share in the days ahead," Leland explained.

He and his 3-man administrative staff will leave Sept. 1 for the week-long 10th National Training Conference of nearly 3,000 Scout executives and leaders at the University of Michigan.

"Scout executives throughout the nation have been evaluating successful methods and techniques to make this four-year program effective," Leland said.

Attending with Leland are Robert F. Bennett, Macomb district executive; Van R. Braidwood, Pontiac district executive, and Willard H. Wells, Ottawa executive.

The conference in Ann Arbor will deal mainly with six major study areas in the fields of administration, program enrichment, financial support, membership, manpower, planning and use of tools. Each subject has been developed by 90 local Boy Scout Councils scattered across the nation.

Elective subjects, along with discussion groups, guest speakers, exhibits, and special programs will be included in the conference.

Opening the first formal session Friday evening in Hill Auditorium will be Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, chief scout executive of the Boy Scouts of America, and conference chairman.

An international brotherhood night will highlight the Sunday program, with representatives of 50 nations attending.

Harold E. Stassen, special assistant to President Eisenhower, will speak Monday night on "youth in A Free World." The conference will close Friday, Sept. 9, with a tableau entitled "Onward for God and My Country."

Charge 2 Contributed to Minors' Delinquency

Pontiac Police arrested two men Sunday morning on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of minors.

Arested were Horace F. Shaw, 38, of 1745 N. Telegraph Rd. and Leslie Hale, 44, of Detroit. Police said the two had bought wine for juveniles.

Police Charge Man Left Accident Scene

A warrant was signed this morning in Municipal Court charging James T. Connor Sr., 40, of 32 Utica Rd., with leaving the scene of a personal injury accident.

It was signed by Mrs. John A. Dellapost, 26, of Cincinnati, Ohio, who suffered a sprained right ankle when struck yesterday by Connor's car, police said.

Mrs. Dellapost's husband, John, told Pontiac Police that he and his wife and David W. Keck, 27, of Utica, had just stepped from their parked auto and were waiting for traffic to clear on Johnson St. in order to cross when struck by Connor's car.

Keck received lacerations and bruises to the left knee and hand injuries. Dellapost was not injured.

Two Juveniles Arrested in Breakin Investigation

Two juveniles who were apprehended by Pontiac Police inside the Acme Auto Parts yard at 979 N. Perry St. last night were arrested for investigation of breaking and entering of a Pontiac seat cover store.

William Heltsley, manager of the Seat Cover Mart at 136 S. Saginaw St. reported to police that sometime over the weekend someone broke into his shop. Entrance was gained by breaking a window pane and unlocking the window from inside.

An amount of money estimated from $300 to $500 by police was stolen from the store's filing cabinet by prying it open with a screw driver, police said.

Swedish Captain Says Mutiny Report Untrue

STOCKHOLM (AP)—Capt. J. A. Bolenius of the 3,300-ton Swedish freighter Dorotea has messaged his ship's owner that he has "no mutiny aboard."

A radio call for help, purporting to come from the Dorotea's radio operator, was picked up by various ships and stations Saturday. The message said crew members had rebelled and locked the captain in his cabin.

The ship's owner Erik Hogberg said Bolenius' radiogram gave no further details but "when the ship arrives at Capetown Sept. 6, we will know what happened."

Sight Soviet Ships

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Nationalist China's official Central News Agency reported from Hong Kong that eight Soviet Russian warships had been sighted off the Chinese mainland coast 120 miles south of Shanghai. The agency said the force consisted of light cruisers and destroyers, and it was probable that they were on a convoy mission.

Security Case Inquiry Opens

Senate Draws Detroit GI 'Risk' as Starter in GOP Handling Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate investigators drew on the case of a Detroit Army veteran and his wife to open a four-day inquiry into the Eisenhower administration's handling of security risks.

Chairman Johnston (D-SC) of an investigating Senate Civil Service subcommittee listed the treatment of Sanford Waxer and his wife Eleanor as the first 2 of 11 cases to be given a public airing.

Mrs. Waxer, a civilian Army employe at Ft. Knox while her husband was stationed in the Army there, was suspended from her job as a security risk. The subcommittee said she never had been able to get details of the charges against her.

Meanwhile, her 27-year-old husband was given a less than honorable discharge from the Army on grounds he was friendly with known Communist party members and sympathizers before he was drafted in June 1953.

When Waxer demanded a bill of particulars, the Army accused him among other things of getting a character reference from Dr. Alfred H. Kelly, head of the history department at Wayne University, Detroit. Waxer had studied under Kelly at the school.

The Army described Dr. Kelly as a "contributor to and supporter of" American Youth for Democracy (AYD), an organization listed as a Communist front by the U.S. attorney general.

The professor declared that he had investigated the AYD unit on the Wayne campus, recognized it as a Communist outfit, and recommended that it be banned. He was backed up in this account by Dr. Arthur Neef, vice president of the university.

Waxer, still fighting his case with the Army, is slated to go before an Army hearing board in Detroit Sept. 6.

Actress' Daughter Melinda Markey in Suicide Try

NEW YORK (AP)—Actress Melinda Markey, daughter of movie star Joan Bennett, stayed in seclusion today after recovering from what police said was an overdose of sleeping pills.

The pretty, 21-year-old brunette was discharged from Bellevue Hospital yesterday and quietly slipped away with her husband, Donald Hayden. It could not be learned where the couple went.

Shortly before her departure became known, the hospital had reported she was in critical condition and still in a semicomatose state. After her discharge, the hospital declined to give further details.

Miss Markey was found unconscious in a friend's apartment Saturday afternoon. Her husband told police he and his wife had quarreled.

Slick Robber Apologizes —Then Escapes Scene

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A burglar made a quick exit from the home of actor Charles Coburn after telling the housekeeper he had the wrong house.

Mrs. Rosa Parks told police Saturday she found the intruder on the stairs in Coburn's home. She said the stranger exclaimed, "I thought this was an apartment house," and fled.

The house had been ransacked but the housekeepr said she wasn't able to determine if anything had been taken. Coburn is out of town, she said.

Famous Sax Player Dies in Auto Crash

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Jazz saxophone player Robert Gordon, 24, has been killed in an automobile accident.

The musician from nearby Van Nuys was driving yesterday with trumpeter Earl McCrea to play in a San Diego jazz concert. Police said his car colided at an intersection with one driven by Emmett R. York, 22, who was booked on suspicion of manslaughter. McCrea complained of neck injuries but refused medical aid.

Gordon, named "baritone saxophone player of the year" by Downbeat Magazine, is survived by his widow, Sue, former singer, and two children, Steven, 3, and Stacey, 9 months.

Champion Speller Hasn't Decided Whether to Go On

UNION, W.Va. (AP) — Gloria Lockerman, the 12-year-old Baltimore school girl who has spelled her way to $16,000 on a television show, has not yet decided whether she will try for $32,000.

Gloria's aunt, Mrs. Maude Dunlap, said she would like to see her niece try for the $32,000 on "The $64,000 Question," Tuesday night, but added that the girl and her grandparents with whom she lives had made no decision as yet.

The little Negro girl came to nearby Gap Mills last Thursday with her grandparents, the Rev. and Mrs. Vivian Key of Baltimore, to spend a few days at the home of her grand mother's sister, Mrs. Fay Trust.

Yesterday, Gloria ate fried chicken and enjoyed herself at a Dunlap-Lockerman - Trust reunion along with other members of the family. Friday and Saturday, she was a guest at the West Virginia state fair.

The girl and her grandparents are expected to return to Baltimore by car today.

Refinery Blaze Under Control

Whiting Explosion Area Still in 'Danger' From Potential Blasts

WHITING, Ind. (AP)—The multi-million-dollar fire which erupted at the huge Standard Oil (Indiana) refinery Saturday was dwindling today.

Danger of new explosions of petroleum products, however, will continue until the last flame has been squelched. Company officials hoped this would be about noon today.

Already fire loss is estimated by Standard Oil at 10 million dollars. Two persons have died and 45 have been injured, three seriously.

Dog-tired fire-fighters continued to make progress against the flames—now confined to two storage tanks—as big clouds of dark gray smoke billowed into the illuminated sky through the night.

They had brought the fire under control at noon yesterday, 30 hours after a tremendous explosion of undetermined cause.

Some 950 families evacuated from large areas near the refinery Saturday were kept away from their homes again last night. National Guardsmen patrolled the danger area.

Standard Oil Chairman Robert E. Wilson said it is hoped that most of the refinery will be back in operation in about two weeks.

Meanwhile, he said that the company, despite heavy fire loss, has sufficient gasoline and other products to meet demands in the Midwest.

Wife of CIO Official Issues Strike Ultimatum

CHICAGO (AP) — The wife of a striking CIO United Auto Worker official says she will allow her husband back in the house only after she sees men returning to work today at the plant where her husband works.

* * *

Mrs. Esther Quigley evicted her husband Andrew, a 220-pound union steward, when she opposed a strike his union called at the Harrison Sheet Steel Co.

Union and company negotiators reached a settlement Saturday and the strikers will vote on a new contract today.

Mrs. Quigley, 35, said she doesn't care much whether her husband comes home, and she added: "I'm tired of cooking. Let him cook for himself."

She is the mother of four.

Boy, 15, Kills Father After Being Whipped

PINEVILLE, W.Va. (AP)—A 15-year-old Ravencliff youth shot and killed his father late yesterday after being whipped for playing a radio too loudly, Wyoming County Sheriff Paul Goode reported.

The youth, James Albert Hart, was lodged in the county jail pending a hearing today before Circuit Judge Robert M. Worrell. No formal charge was filed against him immediately.

Goode said his investigation showed that the boy's father, James Roscoe Hart, 46, had whipped the youth with a heavy miner's belt. The youngster grabbed a 12-gauge shotgun from another room in the home and shot his father between the eyes as the older Hart stood on the back porch.

Local Children Enjoy Roles in Make-Believe World

The bell on the fire engine which belongs to Christopher Lewis clangs loudly as he roars down the sidewalk to a possible fire. His sister, Patricia, knows that speed is essential so she hangs on tightly. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lewis of Elizabeth Lake road.

When Douglas Ritter has an expression like this there's no doubt as to whether or not he's enjoying a ride on his buckin' bronco, "Buttermilk." The young rider seems to control his horse with a hearty "giddap or whoa." He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Ritter of Auburn avenue.

Daniel Schlyfestone, son of the Irving A. Schlyfestones of West Iroquois road, was anxious to prove to the photographer that being a make-believe policeman can be rough work. Even bandages are necessary after he makes a few calls in his bright blue police car.

Woman Told Not to Act So Sensitive

She Resents Being Left Out of Mutual Friends' Party

By EMILY POST

An unusual question is asked today: "We had a couple in for dinner the other evening and later on intimate friends of ours dropped in unexpectedly to see us. They were unknown to the first couple but they took to each other almost immediately and we spent a very pleasant evening together.

"A short time later I heard that our friends had invited the first couple to their house for dinner but did not include us in their invitation.

"I felt very hurt over this and thought that since we introduced them we should have been invited too. Will you please give me your opinion?"

Answer: I think you are supersensitive. There is no reason why they can't invite them without you. If they go on inviting them and never invite you, then resentment would be in order.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My engagement was announced recently and I have received many personal notes as well as printed cards from friends and relatives giving me their good wishes. Should these notes and cards be acknowledged, and if so, must it be by personal note?"

Answer: No acknowledgement is necessary except a verbal one as you meet the different senders. If they are far away you should answer them and you should send written thanks to an especially long letter or affectionate note.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me if it is proper to take a box of candy to one's hostess when invited to her house for dinner? I have always followed this practice but was told recently that it is not done by people of best taste and makes the hostess feel that it is payment for the meal."

Answer: This is more popularly done in some communities than in others, but while never necessary, it is certainly not in bad taste. I can't imagine that any hostess would be critical of this courtesy.

New Leather Requires Only Soap and Water

SAN FRANCISCO (INS) —Leather has long been known as the most durable of finishes but proud possessors of a new leather chair are inclined to pamper it.

They should, instead, be pleasantly surprised by the really little care the new leathers need—a simple soap and water treatment for soil is all that is required to keep them gleaming richly.

No wax, no polish, no oil is necessary and the manufacturers definitely discourage anything except the mildest soap and lukewarm water.

The reason behind this is simple—leather must "breathe" to stay in good condition.

Even alcohol is not harmful to leather finishes if wiped off immediately with a dry cloth and water.

Acids take a bit more doing, as do perspiration stains—wipe them off with a rag dipped in a mixture of one teaspoon of baking soda to a glass of water and then sponge with soap and water.

Fall Jumper Variety Gives Buyer Choice

There's a greater variety this year in jumper styling with interest centered around new necklines and a choice of skirts—either wide, slim or with a long torso line. Many of the jumpers are designed to be worn alone or with blouses.

The suspender jumper with a sleek princess fit is office-perfect in blackened-brown cotton tweed. A dark paisley blouse with push-up sleeves gives it daytime versatility.

Now You Can Make Edible Crockett Hat

Here's how to make an edible coonskin cap for the young Davy Crocketts in your life.

The idea came from the homemaking department of a shortening factory at Sherman, Tex., just a short way from the town of Honey Grove, where the "king of the wild frontier" is supposed to have killed his last bear on the way to the Alamo.

Start with a two-layer cake (the cap itself) and six cup cakes (the tail.) Cut a half-inch slice from the side of each cup cake and place them in a curved row, cut side down, alongside the layers.

Ice all with chocolate frosting, and cover the sides of the layers with toasted coconut and make stripes across the top with the coconut. Stripe the cupcakes crosswise with coconut.

To toast coconut, place it in a thin layer on a baking sheet in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for 15 or 20 minutes.

A few plastic Indians and horses around the cake add to the frontier atmosphere.

Late-day dresses this autumn are simple in cut but elegant of fabric. Necklines are higher, shoulders are covered.

Pair Speaks Nuptial Vows

In the presence of the immediate families, Betty Harnack and Erwin W. Newman exchanged nuptial vows Saturday evening at Central Methodist Church. The Rev. J. W. Mulder performed the 7:30 ceremony.

* * *

Serving his brother as best man was Wesley Newman and seating the guests were Ward Newman Jr. and Lyle Satim.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the parlors of the church.

For her honeymoon in northern Michigan, the new Mrs. Newman was wearing a pink cord suit with which she wore white accessories.

The couple will make their home in Pontiac.

New Depilatories Melt Facial Hair Troubles

Hair on the face is a source of embarrassment to any woman. Even fine down around the lips can ruin a perfect makeup. And, of course, it may cause an inferiority complex.

One psychiatrist points out that a large percentage of his patients are frustrated by facial defects, particularly skin blemishes and hair.

Until the advent of new facial hair removers, any woman with a heavy down on her face lived in the shadow of her beauty. Heavy makeup couldn't conceal it, the razor only threatened with a stubbly regrowth and the average depilatory wasn't considered safe to use on the face.

Some women laboriously removed each hair with tweezers. Mishaps frequently occurred as the result of tampering with this hair.

New hair removers deter fuzz around lips as well as remove real hair growth. They may be used as part of the regular home beauty routine.

One new odorless white cream contains lanolin, a carefully-controlled formula that is completely effective and kind to the skin. Just put it on and zip the cream off with a cloth, removing the hair with it. It shouldn't leave a burning or tingling sensation.

It is better to do a job of this sort before bedtime, so that in the morning after a good smooth creaming of the face, foundation and powder may be applied immediately.

This doesn't mean, however, that if hairs reappear and are noticed before an evening date, the cream hair remover may not be used.

But use it as soon as possible so as to create a lapse between its application, removal and your makeup.

Vaughn Kay Moriarty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin J. Moriarty of Keego Harbor, is recuperating at Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit, after recent surgery.

Helpful Hints to Save Time Washing Dishes

CARBONDALE, Ill. (INS) — A home economist at Southern Illinois University claims the average housewife spends six and one-half years of her life washing dishes.

"In today's fast-paced economy, that's a lot of wasted time" according to Mrs. Agnes Ridley who has worked out a system to whittle dishwashing time down and "still do a first-rate job."

Mrs. Ridley recommends clearing the table by stacking dishes on a tray in groups so they can be transported to the extreme right of the sink, rinsed, and placed in washing order. Silver is placed in a glass of warm water to remove food particles.

Too much suds results in a search for dishes and too little makes cloudy dishes, says Mrs. Ridley.

Glasses should be washed first. The left hand holds the glass while the right grasps a brush and washes with circular motions.

Coming Events

The Mother Allen Prayer Band will meet at the home of Mrs. Pauline Fairchild, 480 S. Paddock St., Tuesday at 1 p.m.

Suit Fashions Feature Slim, Long Lines

NEW YORK (NEA)—The longer suit jacket makes fashion news this fall. It's really a long jacket, sometimes tunic length and usually with easy, fitted lines.

It's sometimes difficult to tell where the suit ends and the ensemble begins. Many designers are doing jackets, skirt and blouse in related colors that might be termed "ensemble" but might also be termed "suit."

Easy lines mean that even the unfitted suit curves softly to the body contour. Pockets, placed low, emphasize the long-torso look.

The A-line suit with long jacket, the long line tunic and the cutaway are three new suit versions for fall. And all three have one common denominator: the longer jacket, whether curved to the body or not. But there are no exaggerated curves.

LONG LINES

Long line suits are shown this year for late day wear, too, in satin or textured wools collared in mink or ermine.

The box jacket is back but it's a shaped jacket now. The straight, really boxy look of the past is gone.

Tweeds are important, rich in color and elegant in quality. And tweed is given a soft, gentle handling in chiffon weights and in the heavier weights, too.

Greens, soft shades of rose, elegant black, blackened tones, blue (particularly a darkened royal blue) and some gray are the colors that repeat in suit showings.

The skirt line all the way through is generally a narrow one but some eased skirts are shown just as there are some shorter, fitted jackets for the woman who feels that her strong point is a pretty waistline.

Wall-to-wall cotton-tufted rugs shrink if they have not been preshrunk. It is wise to check the label before buying.

MRS. ROBERT W. WARRILOW

Tine Charlotte DeWilde and Robert W. Warrilow were married Sunday afternoon at First Methodist Church of Ferndale. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andries C. DeWilde of Pleasant Ridge, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Warrilow of East Berkshire road.

Robert Warrilows Leave for European Honeymoon

While honeymooning for six months in Europe Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Warrilow will visit relatives in The Hague, Netherlands and England.

The bride is the former Tine Charlotte DeWilde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andries C. DeWilde of Pleasant Ridge. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Warrilow of Berkshire road.

First Methodist Church of Ferndale was the setting for the three o'clock ceremony Sunday afternoon. The Rev. John W. Parrish read the service in the presence of 175 guests.

The bride's gown was fashioned of rose pointe lace set in nylon tulle over nylon satin. Her fingertip length veil of silk tulle was secured by a lace Juliet cap. She carried a cascade bouquet of white glamellias and roses centered with a white orchid.

Caroline DeWilde was her sister's maid of honor. With her lavender crystalline and nylon tulle dress, she wore a purple velvet headpiece and carried a cascade bouquet of yellow glamellias.

Mrs. Jack Winfield, Kathryn Nagel and Petra Kaphanke, the bride's other attendants, wore yellow gowns fashioned like the honor attendant's. Their matching headpieces were of purple velvet and they carried cascade bouquets of lavender glamellias.

William T. Hopf served as best man and seating the guests were David Warrilow, Kees DeWilde, Robert Walker and William Alli.

A reception was held in the garden of the bride's home following the ceremony.

Interview Check List Suggested

Faced with an interview with a college admissions officer just in town for the day, or a trip to a nearby city for a job interview, a tenager may be tempted to chafe at this calender-run life.

It would be easy to be self-possessed and beautiful if one could pick the day, after arising and seeing how one feels. But the day is picked a long time in advance, and whether one feels miserable or pimply, it's still the day

Clothes, you remember, should be picked and laid out in advance. But what else should one carry?

A mental list of points you want to bring up or questions you have to ask is important. If you're not much on mentals lists, make a short notation on a clean card.

There is nothing wrong with saying, "I have a few things I wanted to remember to ask you" and whisking out the card. Don't keep staring at it while your questions are being answered by the interviewer.

You'll probably need a pen, so put that in your pocketbook, well-filled. If your pen tends to be cranky, take a ball point. Check over things you'll need. Your driver's license, your social security number, any high school records that haven't been mailed.

If you have any evidence you want to take along, keep it minimal. For some jobs, a resume is asked. Type it out on one sheet of white paper.

If you have records, testimonials, articles in the school or local paper you think may bear on the interview, take them folded neatly in a notebook.

Don't drag out your heavy artillery unless it's asked for or you feel it fits in to the conversation. If asked about extra-curricular work, you may have an opportunity to show a review of the school play or other material.

And don't forget you're looking over the job or school as much as they're looking you over. Ask what you want to know. You want to be sure, too.

Keep Traveling Equipment Handy

A smart mother keeps baby's traveling equipment handy and intact, to prevent last minute fluster.

His carry-all, "visiting" toys, washcloth, bib, extra diapers, soap —all should be kept together neatly for unexpected outings. To keep this paraphernalia clean and ready for instant use, store things in plastic bags.

Tie or seal the bags and, for extra protection, keep them sanitary with occasional soap-and-water washings.

She Makes Colors Her Business

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"I find colors simply fascinating," women will frequently tell me, "and I have a marvelous color sense. But of course I never studied color psychology, so there's no earthly way that I can use this talent."

* * *

But June R., who recently wrote me her story, is proof that it can be done, if only in a small way. Here is her letter:

"I have an interesting hobby which brings in a little pin money and which I thought might interest other women.

"I have always loved colors, particularly in costumes. I know exactly which colors do the most for me and can always tell what colors other women should wear.

"But of course, I figured there was no way I could capitalize on this skill, except in helping friends to select a new outfit.

"But then my husband became ill and I found it necessary to earn some money.

DOES ALTERATIONS

"I am a pretty good seamstress," she continued, "so I decided to do alterations and some dressmaking in my home. Fortunately, there is a great need for this in our community.

"I was able to get work from some of the local tailors and professional dressmakers and I advertised in the paper that I would do alterations.

"In a short time, I had a steady stream of customers. I did the work adequately and received fair renumeration.

"But it broke my heart to see some of the dresses the women had bought and were having altered.

"The colors were frequently perfectly terrible—the last thing in the world that a particular woman should wear. Little by little, I started advising them. I'd suggest a peach-colored collar, a bunch of pale blue flowers, some bit of color to be worn near the face, to relieve the dreary colors of dresses that made their complexions look so muddy.

"Pretty soon my customers were asking my advice before buying a dress.

BRILLIANT IDEA

"And then one day I got a brilliant idea. I bought large swatches—a yard or two—of material in every conceivable color. I'd drape them around a customer's shoulders to show her which color did the most for her particular type. She could see it in a minute and found it very helpful.

"That was just the beginning. My husband is well again and I've given up sewing entirely. But now I have a color service.

"I charge five dollars for a color analysis. I show my customer just what shades she should wear and give her a color chart with samples and recommendations.

"I've found a way to use my talents—one that keeps me busy, too.

Hadley's new round-the-clock dressmaker of pure cashmere is a convertible style to be worn buttoned high or open to a plunging neckline. It has hand crocheted button loops and new white four-hole pearl buttons. The flattering, pointed collar is ribbed to match the turned back cuffs.

Consider Quality in Buying Carpet

When buying a carpet, consider its quality. The strength of a rug or carpet lies in the density of its weave, as well as the fibers used and method of construction.

This evaluation takes professional knowledge, which is why it is always wise to talk to a reputable dealer in an established store. But for a quick guide to density, observe the closeness of woven or tufted rows.

If there is a lot of yarn per square inch, there is more "goods," more wear resistance, and thus a longer life over which to amortize the original cost. The best carpet possible is the best buy.

You get what you pay for. Sheer weight is not a true guide. Some of the lighter yarns, like nylon or saran cannot be evaluated on the basis of weight alone.

Sofa-Beds Help Make Home Living Carefree

Unfolding new features, dual-purpose sofa-beds promise to make the home more carefree, comfortable and hospitable.

This should be a cheering thought for the hostess who can see the next influx of visitors steaming up the street.

New models in convertible sofa-beds have tapered down in bulk, thanks to redesigned inner mechanisms, and they're also stepped up in style.

One important improvement, I think, is the greater sitting comfort they offer. This is achieved through employment of pillow backs, pitched seats, softer cushions and spring edges.

If yours is a house like mine, full of children and minor crises, you may be as enthusiastic as I am about the upholstery fabric used on one medium-priced combination. This fabric (which is a textured weave in a good color range) is treated with a new silicone finish.

STAINS LEAVE

This sylmer finish is applied to woven fabrics by licensed textile companies. Spills such as coffee, soft drinks or water roll around on the surface in tiny beads and can be blotted up with tissue or towel. Oily stains are erased with a solvent, but no white ring is left to mark the spot.

The sofa-bed which will carry this invisible armor against common stains is in a modern styling, with loose pillow back and tailored lines. It opens up to double-bed size.

It's worth noting, too, that some of the volume furniture manufacturers are using silicone-finished fabric on chairs and sofas this fall.

Curving sectionals with round or bumper ends successfully conceal twin-size beds. In this coordinated group there is a matching, curved corner unit with which you could work out several arrangements.

The bed-sofa sectional pivots on a caster so that the mattress can be unfolded without interfering with other units.

Early American influence is seen in another new bed-and-sofa combination. This has a high wing back and a foam mattress. The covering is a splashy provincial print.

Day beds, too, are enjoying renewed popularity. These may combine an exposed wood or metal frame with a foam rubber mattress, handsomely upholstered and braced by removable back bolsters.

For simpler quarters, inexpensive studio couches, or sofettes, have been restyled. These are slimmer lined and neater looking. They can be used for sitting, for double beds or as twin beds.

Lamps in a room should be approximately the same distance from the floor—about 50 inches.

Boy Finds It Difficult to Express Affection

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

Dear Miss Woodward: I've had quite a few dates with Joan and she's a wonderful girl. My trouble is that I'm shy and find it very difficult to tell her how much I really think of her.

"During our dates it's sometimes hard to think of enough conversation, and it's even worse when it's time to say goodnight. How can I express myself the way I'd like to, without making it sound like flattery?"

Answer: Letting a girl know that you like her just fine is not just a matter of compliments and pretty speeches. It's the way you look at her, the little things you do, the teasing, and the pride you show when you're with her.

And none of that need be too serious, too dignfied, or laid on too thick.

"You're a doll" said in any number of tones of voice can express any number of degrees of approval. It can mean that she looks pretty, or she's sweet and thoughtful, or she's brilliant as well as being pretty.

It can mean that you love being with her, that you've had a wonderful evening, that she's just your dish of tea. It can say everything you have in mind, without taxing your vocabulary too heavily.

A useful cover-all phrase can take care of the fancy words for you. A cozy squeeze of the hand will say a lot more.

Your repeated invitations will add a lot of weight. She'll know that you like her. And once you know that she knows (and is pleased) you won't find it hard to go into details.

Saying goodnight needn't be the dreaded last whistle it seems to you now. As you approach her door, start making plans for your next date together. What will you do? What time? Which evenings?

Get those details settled between you, add a few very enthusiastic words about the evening you've just shared, let her get in her thanks, then "see you Friday night!" and off you go.

Drag the goodnight out, and you'll find yourself repeating yourself, sinking into long silences, running out of words. Make it snappy and brief — then it's easy.

"Dear Miss Woodward: Mother's having a fit because he calls me every night and she thinks we talk too long over the phone. What do you think my limit should be?"

Obviously, your phone calls are replacing dates (which apparently don't happen too often). But such phone conversations shouldn't last as long as a real date would.

You don't have to discuss every single thing that has happened during the day; you don't have to tell everything you know. It could be over in 15 minutes. Then the line would be free for someone else to use.

And if he wants to talk to you longer than that, let him make a real date to share hours of your time.

Gayola Lee Coomer Weds

Gayola Lee Coomer became the bride of Lester Hart Saturday evening at Argo Nazarene Church, Argo, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Coy Coomer of Argo, Ill. are the parents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hart of Stanley street are the parents of the bridegroom.

The bride's gown of Chantilly lace over satin featured long sleeves pointed at the wrist and pearled sequins at the neckline. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of pearled sequins. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Kathryn Hart wore a yellow gown for her duties as maid of honor. The crystallette gown featured an embroidered bodice with a round neckline and short sleeves. Gloria BeBoer of Chicago and Pat McGuire wore gowns identical to the maid of honor's in a baby blue color.

The best man, John Hay of New Castle, Ind., was assisted by ushers Everett Combs of Marseilles, Ill., and James Calveret of Columbus, Ohio.

For the reception held immediately after the ceremony for 250 guests, the bride's mother wore a dusty pink dress with black accessories. Mrs. Hart wore a navy blue dress with white accessories.

The bride changed to a charcoal dress with red accessories for their honeymoon. They will reside on the campus of Olivet College where the bridegroom will complete his studies.

One Recipe to Make 2 Desserts

Mrs. Bondurant's Pie Filling Doubles as Cherry Custard

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

If you have a family of pie lovers, make this Creamy Cherry pie; if you don't want a pastry dessert, use the filling as a custard. Mrs. Cecil Bondurant says this is an old German recipe.

As a busy church secretary, Mrs. Bondurant has to fit her homemaking into her evenings and Saturdays. She is an active member of the Plymouth group, also belongs to the Eastern Star. Her many friends know what a considerate person she is.

CREAMY CHERRY PIE OR CUSTARD
By Mrs. Cecil Bondurant

1 unbaked pie shell
1 cup granulated sugar
1 cup coffee cream
1 cup sour red cherries, drained
1 heaping tablespoon flour
2 eggs

If you are making the pie, use all ingredients except the eggs. Mix together the sugar, cream, cherries and flour and pour into the unbaked crust. Bake at 450 degrees for 10 minutes. Reduce heat to 350 and bake 20 minutes longer.

For custard, beat eggs slightly, add rest of ingredients. Pour into buttered baking dish, set in a pan of hot water and bake at 350 degrees until firm.

It is absolutely essential that the nail surface be clean before you put on polish. Any soap, oil, moisture, etc., will interfere with your manicure.

Dance Dresses Will Sparkle

All that glitters is not gold, for the newly shaped dance dresses glisten in embroidered corduroys, jewel-toned velveteens, and lustrous cotton satins, reports the National Cotton Council.

For the girl that likes to sparkle, there's no color quite like spotlight red, and no fabric quite like embroidered corduroy.

Casting a spell is the one-shouldered blouse and full skirt that's covered with gold embroidery for oriental splendor.

Also in date tempo are the tailored dresses made in luxurious cottons. A shirtdress in creme corduroy glistens with gold embroidered panels and scattered paisley motifs.

A long-sleeved coat dress in beige velveteen features an eastern pattern in western colors.

A date-time celebrity is printed corduroy. What could be prettier than a full skirt, wide collar, and bare armed dancing dress?

Bullet-Ridden Car Simply False Alarm

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Police thought they had a hot one yesterday. They found what they thought was an abandoned car. It had six fresh bullet holes in it.

They took it to headquarters to examine it for possible connection with any crimes. A short time later the car's owner Daniel Daily, 25, of Bronxville, showed up.

Daily explained that he was staying with friends on a farm near here and that yesterday they used the car for target practice. He said he was going to junk it when he returned home.

"It was just about shot anyway," he said.

Pontiac Reservists Undergo Field Training at Ft. Knox

Pontiac Press Photos by Eddie Vanderworp

The group of civilians at left are members of a home-town inspection team that observed operations of the unit for three days last week.

MAIL CALL — Capt. Bruce Thornton, left, of Clawson, beams as he sees a letter from home on top of a stack of mail being checked by Pfc. Joseph Singleton, seated, of 357 W. South Blvd., the 703rd's personnel clerk. Capt. Don Kaiser, of 1039 Berwick Blvd., vocational arts teacher at Pontiac High School, awaits his turn. Thornton is supply officer for the battalion and Kaiser is communications officer.

DIRECT HIT — Crewmen observe the results of their firepower after scoring a hit on an assigned target area during practice firing. The men are, left to right, Pfc. Harry Peckum, of Holly, M.Sgt. Homer Howard, of 455 E. Walton Blvd.; Cpl. Gerald Joyce, of 584 East Blvd.; and Capt. John Reagan, of Waterford Township.

MAP TRAINING PLANS — Maj. F. D. Thompson, right, of 967 Berwick Blvd., and Maj. Stephen Edeling, Regular Army observer, check training schedules for the battalion. Maj. Thompson is executive officer for the unit which is under the command of Lt. Col. Lloyd A. Gabler, of Royal Oak.

ON THE LINE — Gunners prepare to unleash a blast at moving targets as observers (on top of tanks) check for corrections. The gunners must traverse the turrets, keep the gun on target and fire at the same time.

MAINTENANCE — M.Sgt. Bernell Vollmer, left, of Utica, Sgt.1.C. Thomas Pappas, of 401 E. Third St.; and Cpl. Donald Thompson, of Royal Oak, check a balky tank engine in the 703rd's maintenance area. The trio has a full-time job keeping tanks assigned to the unit in good running order. Vollmer is motor sergeant for the battalion.

MENU CHECK — Sgt.1.C. Frank Newman, of Berkley, battalion mess sergeant, checks over bills of fare for the day. Sgt. Newman found himself to be one of the busiest men in the battalion as rigorous daily field training served to whet men's appetites.

CLOSE-UP — Pvt. Donald Dening, of Lapeer, answers questions from Ralph T. Norvell, Pontiac Chamber of Commerce president, and George M. Watson, personnel director for Pontiac Motor Division. Looking on at the right is Sgt. Mike Furillo. Norvell and Watson were among 18 civilian observers who spent three days at the base to observe training operations of the 703rd.

GIVES HIS OK to training schedule set up by Capt. Paul Phillips, of Lincoln Park, commander of Co. B, one of two Detroit units in the battalion. Col. Gabler is commanding officer of the 703rd, located at 37 W. Lawrence St., here.

PRACTICE RANGE — A Regular Army range officer directs fire for gunners on a Fort Knox practice range. The men use .30-caliber guns to fire at close-up targets to familiarize themselves with hitting moving targets. The .30-calibers are mounted alongside the heavier 90mm's and often are used to find ranges during actual battle.

ON TARGET — Pfc. Richard Loundgren, of 82 Moreland Ave., looks at a target through the range finder on his M48 tank preparatory to triggering the 90mm gun mounted in the tank's turret. The range finder, located alongside of the gun, tells crewmen when their weapon is on target.

U.S. Firms in Korea Protest High Taxes

SEOUL (AP)—Some 50 American business firms in Seoul closed shop today in a protest against what they call "exhorbitant taxes" levied by the South Korean government.

Government officials denied the taxes are exorbitant.

The American Chamber of Commerce in Korea complained one U.S. businessman was refused an exit permit on the ground that he had not paid $1,180 in taxes.

A chamber spokesman had said South Korea is not taxing on profits but on volume of business.

Ever Try Tartar Steak? Pat Marshall Loves It

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—"Is that raw meat you're eating?" I asked Miss Pat Marshall, the beautiful successor to Janis Paige in "The Pajama Game," when we had dinner at Sardi's.

"Sure. Would you like a taste?" She held out a forkful.

"Ugh! No, thanks!" I pushed it back at her.

But since more and more glamour gals seem to be becoming raw meat-eaters, I questioned Miss Marshall, formerly of Minnesota and Hollywood, about "tartar steak," as it is politely called.

"You ought to see me shopping," she said. "I say to the butcher, 'Would you give me a taste of that, please?'

"He says, 'A taste of what?'

"'The meat.'

"He says, 'You want to eat the raw meat, lady?'

"'That's right!' I say, indignantly. Oh, the faces they make!

"They try to discourage me. They say it's not good for you. Didn't you ever eat raw cookie dough when you were a kid? Kids love it."

PAT MARSHALL

As a matter of fact, I did eat raw cookie dough when I was a kid out in God's country (Ohio!).

"As far as it not being healthy, well . . . I have three children, I'm working, I'm flying out to California next week to see my husband and put my children in school. You sure you wouldn't like a taste?"

I was firm and asked, "What's in it?"

"Raw meat, capers, egg, onion, anchovies, and Worcestershire sauce."

"When a girl eats raw meat, does she still have admirers?" I asked her.

"Certainly!"

"Masculine, I mean."

"I meant masculine. I don't know any woman who have women admirers, do you?"

"Is your husband a raw meat-eater, too?"

"Oh, no, he thinks I'm nuts! I started eating raw meat when I started cooking after we got married. He'd never have looked my way if I'd eaten raw meat before. He only eats meat well done."

I asked Miss Marshall whether she would advise a girl trying to get a husband to eat raw meat when on a date with her intended victim.

"Not only should she not eat raw meat, she should not eat any meat at all . . . at today's prices," said Miss Marshall.

Liz Taylor Gets New Role Offer

Actress Will Play Lead Part in 'Raintree County' Film Adaptation

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — The Ross Franklin Lockridge, Jr. novel, "Raintree County," which MGM bought seven years ago, now goes to Elizabeth Taylor after she finishes "Giant."

Remember the drama in connection with the Lockridge novel? After working for years on his book about a fictional county in Indiana, Lockridge finally hit the jackpot—but too late. He died before fame came to him.

Of course, Liz will have a rest before she makes the picture. She is getting better after that troublesome pain in her leg that has bothered her.

She's very pleased over getting this chance to play a spirited Southern belle, which David Lewis has had his heart set on her doing for some time. Liz says never in her life has she been happier. That new baby of hers is the cutest, cuddliest thing she has ever seen—I suppose with the exception of her other baby.

Jeanne Crain, who left no one in doubt of what a good actress she is after "Gentlemen Marry Brunettes," is again being paged by Mary Anita Loos and Richard Sale.

The writing, traveling Sales have bought "Hugger, Mugger and the Louvre" by Elliott Paul. They'll make it in Paris and, it won't be surprising if Jeanne consents to star in the picture because she has never been as good in her life as she was in the "Brunettes" epic.

Clifton Webb, both Sales feel, is perfect for the male star role, and they are trying to borrow him from 20th.

Kim Novak tells me she was very pleased when Jane Russell popped her head in Kim's dressing room door and said "Hi" to her.

"What Jane didn't know," said Kim, "is that I played a non-talking bit role more than two years ago in 'French Line.' I wore a pink dress and walked on.

"I've always admired Jane, and I want to know her better. I am sure she didn't recognize me," said Kim, who is now playing in "The Eddy Duchin Story," while Jane is in "Tambourine."

"Are you marrying Mack Krim?" I asked Kim, getting right to the point.

She said, "I am serious about Mack, but I'm following the advice of my studio and waiting until my career is better established."

Helen Grayco was so excited when she telephoned me from Las Vegas I could hardly understand her. She said she goes back September 7th to Las Vegas to do a solo show at El Fancho Vegas. She and Spike Jones are now at the Riviera.

"I couldn't be happier," she said. "Beldon Katleman saw me, liked me, and came backstage and asked if I would go on for his new show. I haven't worked without Spike since our marriage because I've always thought I had to depend on his help. So you can imagine what a thrill it is too be offered a job by myself."

Spike came on the phone, too, and you can bet he will be right there to applaud his wife when she goes on her own.

Snaps: Rhonda Fleming may not be ready to admit it but she has reconciled with Dr. Lew Morrill.

Jack Ellison, long time writer-director of Jimmy Durante's show, will be a father in February.

May Wynn is free lancing. She obtained her release from Columbia after making three pictures there. She should do very well too.

New Indian Money

NEW DELHI (AP)—Under a new law India will have cents and other decimal fraction coins instead of annas, pice and pies for pocket money. The basic unit is the rupee. There are 16 annas in a rupee, 4 pice in an anna and 3 pies in a pice. In other words, save up 192 pies and you've got a rupee —21.02 cents U.S.

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS

DENMARK—1
The Palace Sentry

Junior Editors are on tour this week in Denmark, a small kingdom so democratic that it's possible to see the king and his family riding bicycles on the street.

About as big as Vermont and New Hampshire together, Denmark has five times as many people. Unlike those states it is mostly flat farmland, with brown cattle grazing in green fields around neat white buildings.

In Copenhagen, the capital city, there's a fine amusement park called the Tivoli that has a boy's band and guard just like the king's guard at Amalienborg palace.

To start a picture collection on Denmark, color the guardsmen's coats dark blue, leaving the belts white and fur hats black. The flag has a white cross on a red background. Paste down the pictures on thin cardboard and cut them out along the dark lines. Fold the bottom and side portions back along the dotted lines and the figures will stand up. If you will cut out the flag and push a tootpick through the slits on one edge, you can stick it on top of the sentry box.

Tomorrow: The chimney sweep.

Automatic Recorder to Help Make Flying Safer

MINNEAPOLIS — An automatic flight recorder now being produced by a Minneapolis firm may help make flying safer through the accumulation of information. It measures an aircraft's indicated air speed, static pressure, vertical acceleration, compass reading, and time.

Designed to resist the impact of a crash and the heat of a fuel fire, the instrument is expected to provide a reliable means of analyzing and studying aircraft failures.

'Green Kingdom' Prescribed for Serenity

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — To many restless individuals in this restless world, the only balm is to get their hands on some of that long green—and that does not mean scallions or kohlrabi.

Harry Litwin wags his head slowly at the tragedy of that.

"Money you must have to live," he says, in a serene, thick-accented voice. "But nature you must have in order to care if you live."

For all troubles from upset stomach to overturned apple carts, this gentle, white-haired man prescribes a walk through what he calls "the green kingdom." In a small apartment, it can be only a small green kingdom made up of one philodenron plant.

"It will be the same, small or big," he says. "Lay your hand on chief forester for Nicholas II, and what Harry knew was how to make seedling grow.

How to make money grow was a vague, mysterious, not very absorbing miracle, and as a clerk young Mr. Litwin was a parody.

"Of God's creations since time began," he wrote one night, "the only one I fear is man."

Sadness, homesickness had made him a poet, and like most immortal artists, he became sick, something that nature made and, if you care about it, then the trouble that man has made will leave you. You will be calm."

NATURE EVANGELIST

Litwin, who might be called the evangelist of the florabund, was a troubled boy of 15 when he first came to the United States from the Ukraine forests before World War I. His father had been the

In upstate New York, recuperating in a hospital, Litwin rediscovered nature. When he was well again, he smuggled a few rhododenron cuttings in a sack back to the "furnace," which is what he dubbed New York City.

Through those rhododenrons, he claims, he discovered a great truth—that "where there is a bathtub, there can also be the peace of nature. Even in a furnace."

SPIRITUAL PEACE

Litwin went back to his office work but he grew his spiritual peace in the bathtub at night. Gradually he saved enough money to move to Melville, Long Island, and plant his "tublings" in rich ground and now he has changed his name to "Woodbourne," because it is more earthy, somehow.

"At my nurseries," he says, softly, "you wander through 100,000 rhododendrons." And 25,000 hemlocks, 200,000 yews, 40,000 azelas, pines, junipers, spruce, everything green.

"I live," he says with a sympathetic smile, "as you and everyone should live. Where I can reach out and touch peace."

It is difficult to get Harry down to the rudiments of living, especially for one who is dwelling in the furnace, because he is still a poet. He just wrote a book about his "green kingdom" which is scattered with equal parts of instructions for planting and odes to the plant-to-be-planted.

But the gist of his message is that everyone should have "a piece of acre" in natural green which he owns and tends and takes peace from.

MORE SATISFYING

To get your hand on a green leaf is more satisfying than to get your hand on a green souvenir of Ft. Knox, if your heart is sore.

If your landlord is sore, it's another thing again. But I didn't bring it up because Harry Litwin Woodbourne didn't have so much as a pepper leaf with him to handle unexpected problems.

Power Projects for Inland Lake

Famed Titicaca Provides Water Supply Needed for Electrification

WASHINGTON — Past, present and future merge gracefully along the shores of South America's Lake Titicaca, the earth's highest steam-navigated body of water.

Out of the past rise ruins of fortresses, palaces and temples harking back to civilizations that may have antedated the Incas. The present lives in the barren beauty of distant, snow-capped peaks and the deep blue, eternally cold waters of the inland sea that knows no outlet to the ocean. The future holds promise of vast water power and irrigation projects that could enrich neighboring Peru, Bolivia and Chile.

At 12,506 feet above sea level, Lake Titicaca is more than 1,250 feet higher than the crest of Mt. Hood, Oregon, says the National Geographic Society. Astride the Peru-Bolivia border, it sprawls out a maximum 130 miles and reaches a width of 35 miles and a depth of 1,000 feet.

For centuries the Indians perpetuated legends telling how their ancestors deposited treasures in Titicaca to propitiate the Sun God or later to hide them from the conquering Spaniards.

Water commerce has distinctive features. Titicaca's stiff breezes blow unsinkable bulrush crafts called Balsas. The Indians build these boats of dried rushes bound with grass twine into a hull that curves upward into prows resembling the heads of snails.

More modern are the small steamers that ply the lake with passengers and freight between the ports of Puno in Peru and Guaqui in Bolivia, both railroad terminals.

Greater impetus will stem from a hydroelectric and irrigation project proposed by Chile. Under the plan the now landlocked waters would tumble into the Amazon basin or toward the Pacific Ocean, moistening on their way some 380,000 acres in three countries and producing 17 billion kilowatt-hours a year.

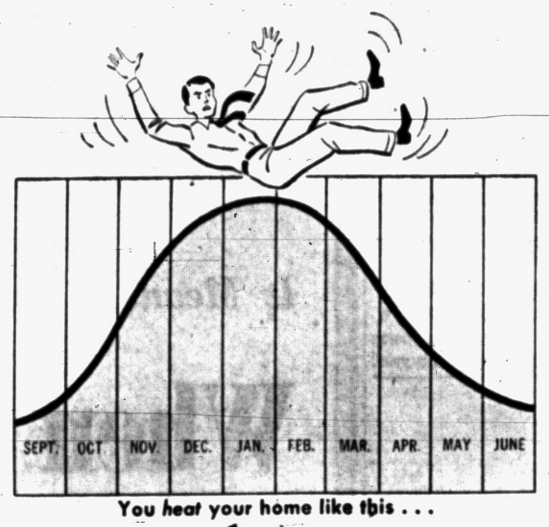

Mechanical Cow to Tell Italians About Milking

WASHINGTON (AP)—An American mechanical "cow" is going to tell Italians how to improve milk production.

Mechanical chickens will report on how to increase egg production. This will occur at the World Trade Fair, to be held in Bari, Italy, Sept. 9-27, the Department of Commerce disclosed.

It said that larger than life models of a chicken and a cow "both perfroming their natural functions and each wired for sound" will be a part of the U.S. presentation at the fair.

Nation's Top 'Skeeters' Converge on Pontiac

By H. GUY MOATS

Oakland County Sportsmen's Club this week is the Mecca for what is generally regarded as the finest field of shotgunners in the country devoted to the sport of skeet shooting.

More than 600 were expected, and during the weekend several hundred already were on hand.

Following a continuous round of early practice shooting over the club's practice fields, an exhibition of trick and fancy shooting was held Sunday afternoon. Ken Beegle and his wife, Blanche, presented some remarkable feats with shotguns and rifles of all gauges before an audience that included many of the skeeters and a large number of area enthusiasts. Rain Sunday morning kept the crowd down, but it grew rapidly early in the afternoon.

Early arrivals were lined up today in the opening barrage.

Shooting began officially in the Preliminary Gun Handicap, for which the Pontiac Press will award a fine sterling silver tray to the high gun. This event will be under way all day.

Indications were that fewer entries would be coming in from the Far West and from the recently hurricane-rain area of the East. However, greater numbers were expected from the East, generally, and from the Midwest this year.

Besides the 6-man San Juan, Puerto Rico, team that arrived late Friday night by plane, many of the contestants now on hand flew in from various points of the compass. These included a man from Nova Scotia, a man and wife, who first flew in from Honolulu, Hawaii, to compete in the Grand American trapshoot at Vandalia, Ohio, and the National Rifle Matches at Camp Perry, Ohio. They then flew to Detroit to make the connections here. This couple came from the longest distance.

All National Skeet Shooting Assn. officials are here, Howard Shelley, OCSC Club official reported this morning. "They all expressed full and hearty approval of the OCSC setup for the championships," Shelley added.

Size of the field will increase each day until the start of the 3-day National All-Gauge Championship, on Friday. A new champion will be determined in this all-important competition. Last year's champion, who early in the season had expected to return here, is now in Europe. Col. Salvador T. Roig, the colorful, icy-nerved leader of the Puerto Rican team, is on an official mission, and his place is filled by Inspector Gen. Julio Vigoreaux of the island constabulary. Vigoreaux is considered a very fine "skeeter."

A glittering display of trophies—some $15,000 worth of sterling silver—is on display in the OCSC clubhouse. This collection is said by NSSA officials to be the biggest in the association's history.

Two championships were on the boards for Tuesday. The National Sub-Small Gauge (410) will start the day off. National Sub-Junior and Women's Junior will be fired also during the day.

U. S. Loses Cup to Aussies

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—The road back to supremacy in the Davis Cup will be a long one for the United States unless Lewis Hoad and Ken Rosewall succumb to the lure of a pot of professional gold.

Australia's 20-year-old "Whiz Kids" showed themselves masters of Tony Trabert, Vic Seixas and Ham Richardson, America's top players, when they won the challenge round by a crushing 5-0 count.

Even after they had won the cup by sweeping past Seixas and Trabert in the singles and doubles for an insurmountable 3-0 lead, they continued to apply relentless pressure in the final two singles yesterday. The results were a 7-9, 6-1, 6-4, 6-4 victory by Hoad over Seixas and a 6-4, 3-6, 6-1, 6-4 triumph by Rosewall over Richardson.

Where to now?

No one really knows. Seixas, at 32, is out of the picture. When the 1956 challenge round is played Down Under, he'll be 33. He no longer has the equipment to cope with the Aussies and probably will retire to his Philadelphia plumbing business.

Trabert remains the one big hope of the United States. Tony is a better player than he showed in the challenge round, and on any given day has at least a 50-50 chance against either Hoad or Rosewall.

"Yes," admitted U.S. Cup Capt. Bill Talbert today as he mused over the weekend catastrophe, "we certainly face a problem. If we are to win next year, we must find a player who can cope with Hoad and Rosewall and team him with Tony."

Talbert wistfully mentioned the names of Sam Giammalva of Houston and Barry McKay of Indianapolis as the two most promising youngsters in the country.

But Giammalva has been on the threshhold of stardom for three years now and still hasn't proved he has enough for fast inter-national competition. In fact, both he and McKay, a 20-year-old who is reputed to have a mighty service, were knocked out in the first round of the national championships last year.

Psychology— or Jinx?

If Indians Fail They Can Blame Senators

CLEVEAND (AP)—Maybe it's a jinx and maybe it's psychology, but if the Cleveland Indians fail to repeat as American League champs, they can blame the lowly Washington Nationals.

The seventh-place Nats dumped the Indians out of a tie for first place yesterday by sweeping a doubleheader 8-2 and 13-4. They now have beaten the Indians five times in a row, seven out of the last eight, and 12-7 for the season.

If it's a jinx it's a new one, because the Indians beat Washington 18 games to 4 as they swept to the pennant last year.

Recently they can't beat the Nats no matter what they do.

In the last eight games against Cleveland, Washington has averaged 10½ hits and 7½ runs a game. They've beaten most of Cleveland's pitching aces — Bob Lemon, Early Wynn, Mike Garcia, Art Houtteman and Sal Maglie, and they've beaten Houtteman and Wynn twice.

The only Cleveland victory in those eight games went to reliefer Ray Narleski, who pitched the ninth inning on July 21 when the Tribe scored a run to win 4-3. Yesterday Washington batters unloaded on Narleski for seven hits in one inning.

Manager Al Lopez, who can't explain it, wasn't around in gloomy Lakefront Stadium to see the end of yesterday's debacle. He was ejected in the sixth inning of the nightcap for debating a decision at home plate.

'Prof' Stengel Still Sure His Yanks Will Win Title

CHICAGO (AP) —"I've said all aong we're going to win this thing and I'm not going to change now."

Professor Casey Stengel was holding class in the New York Yankee dugout before the doubleheader between the Yankees and Chicago White Sox yesterday.

The Yanks won the opener, 6-1, but the Sox took the nightcap, 3-2, leaving the Bombers ½ game ahead of the second-place Sox in the American League pennant race.

"We're the fastest club in the league and best defensively," said Casey. "Give us a little pitching and some good hitting and who can beat us?"

"Our hitting is getting better and that Don Larsen has been a big help in pitching. And, remember, Bob Grmi is back working for us. You know, it's tough for Grim. He was a big winner last year and had a sore arm most of this year. He's got it now but when he's in there and gets in a little trouble he worries."

Casey was questioned about Larsen's attitude and the winking Yankee pilot laughed:

"Attitude, Bahh," said Case. "The guy had a sore arm and couldn't pitch for Baltimore last year. He's okay now."

Stengel was in a good mood and had little praise for his opponents.

"Cleveland has pitching," he continued, "otherwise how could those guys win games. They get ahead of you and you see their bullpen, brother, it's rough, I know."

Nashua, Swaps $100,000 Match Set Wednesday

126 Pounds Scheduled for Both 3-Year-Olds at Washington Park

CHICAGO (AP)—With both Nashua and Swaps considered in peak form, track experts look for Wednesday's $100,000 match race at Washington Park to be one of the greatest of all time.

Everything will be even, except, perhaps, the odds. The latest on the Caliente Book lists Swaps at 2-5 and Nashua 9-5.

Both brilliant 3-year-olds will carry 126 pounds for the mile and a quarter. This is the same import and distance as for the Kentucky Derby, when Swaps handed Nashua his only setback of the year with a length and a half victory in 2:01 4-5.

Both colts will be ridden by about the best jockeys in the business, Eddie Arcaro up on the East's Nashua and Willie Shoemaker aboard the West's Swaps.

And there will be no room for alibis, as in the case of a crowded field, for only two horses will be out on the finely conditioned dirt oval, which has the longest homestretch in the world—1,531 feet.

Comparative times may or may not be too important in a race of this kind, but they are certain to be significant.

With the exception of the Kentucky Derby, each colt has run the mile and a quarter only once. Swaps won the Westerner at Hollywood Park July 9, by 6 lengths in 2:00 3-5.

Nashua took the Dwyer at Aqueduct July 2 by the same margin in 2:03 4-5.

SUNDAY'S STARS

BATTING — Eddie Joost, Red Sox, hit a pair of three-run homers as Boston trounced the Kansas City Athletics 14-2.

PITCHING — Vernon Law, Pirates, tamed the Milwaukee Braves with four scattered hits in the second game as Pittsburgh downed the Milwaukee Braves 5-3 and 2-0.

Lombardo Wins Silver Cup in New Tempo VII

DETROIT (AP) — The sweet music in the ears of Guy Lombardo today is not that of an orchestra. It's the throbbing, bass note roar of his Allison-powered Tempo VII.

With Danny Foster at the helm, Lombardo's new, powerful hydroplane won the Silver Cup Saturday on the Detroit River, piling up 1,100 points in the final standings. Thirteen of the racing giants were entered.

Tempo captured the 6th and deciding heat by a slim 100 feet from Gale V, winner of the Gold Cup at Seattle earlier this month, averaging 94.732 mph.

Miss Pepsi and Gale VI wound up tied for the runnerup spot with 869 points apiece.

'Not Interested'

Offer of Westerners to Purchase Pirates Turned Down by President Galbreath

PITTSBURGH (AP) — President John Galbreath of the Pittsburgh Pirates says he has been approached with propositions to sell the last-place National League club but "I'm not interested."

Galbreath, Columbus, Ohio, millionaire, said yesterday he'd been approached by a group interested in taking the Pirate franchise to the West Coast and by "another man" interested in continuing the club in Pittsburgh.

He did not identify either party.

Galbreath told newsmen the club will lose about a half-million dollars this year, and added:

"We could sell and get all of our money out of a sale, but that's not in the mind of either Tom (Tom Johnson, vice president and secretary) or myself."

Commenting on statements by Pirate General Manager Branch Rickey that he (Rickey) will remain with the club after his five-year contract expires this November, Galbreath said:

"We are obligated under the contract for five more years to Mr. Rickey, but it doesn't mean we can't make a change if we see that is the proper thing to do."

The Pirate president said Rickey's 1950 contract called for him to remain as general manager for five years and in an advisory capacity for another five years.

Galbreath said he is disappointed with the Pirate showing under Rickey's five-year program "but not discouraged. I thought we would be further along after five years than we are right now. And I believe Rickey is disappointed.

"Until this season has ended and the owners have an opportunity to study the situation thoroughly, there will be no word that Rickey will or will not return in 1956."

The Pirates finished seventh in 1951 — the first year of Rickey's program—and last the next three years. They currently are five games behind the seventh-place St. Louis Cardinals and 33 games in back of the first-place Brooklyn Dodgers.

Cardinals Nose Out Lions in 17-16 Exhibition Tilt

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The improved Chicago Cardinals edged the Detroit Lions 17-16 in a National Football League exhibition game last night.

With only 18 seconds to go, Pat Summerall kicked a 27-yard field goal for the Cardinals.

The Lions, defending Western Division champions, scored only one touchdown, a two-yard plunge that put Detroit on top at halftime, 10-7.

Long runs by Ollie Matson and Dave Mann in the second and third quarters jolted the Lions, while Doak Walker booted three field goals to add to Lew Carpenter's short plunge over.

Mann scored for Chicago with a 100-yard kickoff runback, and Matson rolled up 77 yards in his pay-dirt romp.

In other National Football League exhibition action, the San Francisco 49'ers fought off a desperate two-touchdown final quarter rally by the Cleveland Browns, to take a 17-14 victory at San Francisco.

The Los Angeles Rams nipped the New York Giants, 23-17 in an overtime game at Portland, Ore. The Pittsburgh Steelers squeezed by the Green Bay Packers, 16-14, at Green Bay.

Marion Booed for 1st Time by Sox Fans

Removal of Pierce Is Signal for Outburst of Disapproval

CHICAGO (AP) — Chicago White Sox Manager Marty Marion was booed for the first time this year by White Sox followers at Comiskey Park yesterday.

Marion got the boos from a crowd of more than 50,000 in the seventh inning of the second game when he went out to the mound and signalled for Dixie Howell to relieve starter Billy Pirce.

The strategy proved effective when Howell stopped the Yanks and preserved a 3-2 victory for relieve starter Billy Pierce.

Marilyn Smith Nets First Pro Golf Win

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Marilynn Smith evidently likes to play golf in her own backyard

The former national intercollegiate women's golf champion from the nearby University of Kansas won her first professional tournament of the year yesterday in a sudden-death playoff with Mrs. Alice Bauer Hagge of Sarasota, Fla.

By dropping a 3-foot putt for a bridie on the fourth hole of their playoff, the Wichita gal won a $900 cash prize in the first annual $5,000 Women's Heart of America Invitational Open. Mrs. Hagge got $630.

Catching Bass Easier Than Keeping It

Garry Lee, 12 year old angler, and his pal, Garry Medcalf; also 12, last weekend had a more difficult time keping the 3-pound bass they hooked, than they did catching it.

The bass hit Garry Lee's battered plug in midair, Garry reports. Garry "horsed" it into the boat, but then the acrobatic bass fell off the hook just as it cleared the gunwale, bounced against the inside of the boat and began flopping. Both boys pushed the fish under a seat and then made it secure.

The boys were fishing off Pickle Point on Cass Lake.

Swaps, Nashua Represent Wide Range of Difference

CHICAGO (AP) — The difference in horses—as well as the difference in the opinions of bettors—figures in the Swaps-Nashua race.

The meeting of the twain at Washington Park Wednesday will match the East (Nashua) against the West (Swaps).

They brought Nashua to town from New York state and Swaps from California.

But they represent a difference in temperament as well as points of origin.

Swaps is portrayed as a very business-like animal, Dave Erb, a jockey who rode him to victory in June, terms Swaps "the smoothest piece of machinery I've ever ridden."

Nashua, you will remember, finished 2nd behind Swaps in the 1955 Kentucky Derby. But he went on from Louisville to win four major stakes—Preakness, Belmont, Dwyer and the Arlington Classic.

Nashua came by his traits naturally. His sire, Nasrullah, was known, back in 1943, as "the fastest, handsomest and orneriest 3-year-old in England."

The Aga Khan, who once owned Nasrullah, said he had "the disposition of a paranoid mule."

Big 10 Football Practice Work Begins Thursday

Repeat of Buckeye Win Seen as Rugged Role; 9 Starters Missing

CHICAGO (AP)—Football practice for Big Ten schools opens Thursday and only one thing is sure before the season gets underway:

It'll be mighty rough for Ohio State's Buckeyes to repeat as champions.

Although Ohio State's football supply seems inexhaustible, the Buckeyes have lost nine of last year's 11 starters including quarterback Dave Leggett, halfback Bobby Watkins, fullback Hubert Bobo and the core of one of the nation's toughest lines.

On the positive side, Ohio State could cash in again with a team rebuilt around halfback Howard Cassady, tackle Frank Machinsky, center Ken Vargo and guard Jim Parker.

Ohio State, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa seem to comprise Big Ten power but not necessarily in that order. Purdue could pass itself into contention and Minnesota and Michigan State cannot be overlooked.

Illinois, Northwestern and Indiana appear the weakest team.

Michigan is blessed with a pair of great ends in Ron Kramer and Tom Maentz. They'll flank a strong line.

Wisconsin must replace Alan Ameche but the Badgers have a veteran team headed by veteran quarterbacks Jim Miller and Jim Haluska.

Iowa has 18 returning lettermen. Quarterback Len Dawson and ends Lamar Lunday and Bob Khoenle comprise most of Purdue's offense but Coach Stu Holcomb is not without a ground attack headed by fullback Bill Murakowski.

Michigan State pins its hopes on a shifty backfield which includes Earl Morrall, Clarence Peaks, Gerry Musetti and Gerry Planutis.

Illinois' big problem is rebuilding a shattered line. Despite the loss of J. C. Caroline because of scholastic ineligibility, the Illini are not hurting in the backfield.

Top Salary for Howe

DETROIT (AP) — Gordie Howe signed his contract for the coming season with the Detroit Red Wings over the weekend for an estimated $15,000, making him one of the highest paid players in the National Hockey League.

Nats Spoil Tribe's Hopes for AL's First Place; Yanks, Hose Leave Gate Open in Sunday's Split

You can't blame the Cleveland Indians for being puzzled today. They would like to know why the Washington Senators are anchored in seventh place in the American League.

Nothing the Senators showed in yesterday's doubleheader and, for that matter all season long against Cleveland, indicated that the Nats belong deep in the second division, nearly 30 games back of the league-leading New York Yankees.

The Indians were all set to move into first place yesterday if the Yankees and Chicago White Sox should split, which they did before a crowd of 50,990. But the Tribe ran smack into the red-hot Senators, who had just finished polishing off the White Sox in two out of three games. When the twin bill was over, the Indians found themselves on the short end of 8-2 and 13-4 scores and in third place, a game back of the Yanks with whom they were tied when the day started. Its been like that most of the season with the Senators. They hold a 12-7 edge over Cleveland.

The Yankees beat Chicago 6-1 in the opener on the strength of home runs by Mickey Mantle and Yogi Berra, but the White Sox came back to take the second 3-2 as Bob Kennedy drove in all of their runs with a first-inning homer. The split moved the Sox into second place, a half-game back.

Meanwhile, the Boston Red Sox took advantage of the top teams' failure to gain ground and edged back into the pennant picture with a 14-2 decision over Kansas City.

The surging Philadelphia Phillies made it nine victories in their last 10 outings as they solidified their third-place spot with 7-6 and 8-2 victories over the Cincinnati Redlegs. Chicago shut out New York 3-0 in the other league game.

Tiger Relief Hurler Problem Remains

DETROIT (AP) — The persistent problem of relief pitching remains unsolved as the Detroit Tigers head into their final 26 games of the season.

Tigers are scheduled to meet the Baltimore Orioles today in a doubleheader following a washout of Sunday's single game.

To be sure, the day of rest was appreciated by all the Tigers—especially since it followed a siege of 23 consecutive games against the four 1st-division teams—but it did nothing to solve manager Bucky Harris' nagging bullpen problem.

The lack of relief pitching perplexed Harris on the very 1st day of spring training. Now, six months later, it still plagues him.

The ineffectiveness of his bullpen has left Harris open to considerable criticism this season. Essentially, his problem is this:

When his starting pitcher begins to weaken in the later innings, should he stick with him or bring in a relief pitcher of questionable quality? The tendency has been to stick with the starting hurler.

If Harris had a sound fireman to call on, it's conceivable that Detroit could be a contending position, instead of a hopeless 12½ games out of 1st place.

There have been at least 10 games this season which the Tigers have blown in the final inning—games, if won, could have put them into the thick of the pennant race.

It is interesting to note that the 1st division teams, at one time or another, have had brilliant relief pitching.

The New York Yankees used effective bullpen work by Tom Morgan and Jim Konstanty to build a solid five-game lead by mid-season. But when both slumped, so did the Yankees.

Manager Al Lopez readily admits that relief pitchers Ray Narleski and Don Mossi have kept the Cleveland Indians in the pennant fight.

Skipper Marty Marion of the White Sox candidly says "I'm a good manager when my relief pitching comes through." Marion has called on Millard (Dixie) Howell with satisfying results.

And Boston's Pinky Higgins has nothing but praise for his crew of firemen—Tom Hurd, Elis Kinder, Lee Kiley and Dick Brodowski.

Detroit's bullpen consist of Al Aber (5-3), Joe Coleman (2-2), Leo Cristante (0-1) and Paul Foytack (o-o). Their earned run averages are hardly impressive: Aber 3.23, Coleman 6.68, Cristante 3.18 and Foytack 5.25.

"Give us a guy like Narleski and we'd win this thing'," said one of the Tigers. "Somebody who could get the big outs in the last two innings.

"Yep, give us a guy like that and we'll give 'em all trouble."

Racer Al Herman Burned in Explosion

MILWAUKEE (INS) — Al Herman, race car driver from Allentown, Pa. critically burned yesterday when his car exploded, was reported in "poor condition today at Milwaukee County General Hospital.

Three other persons were injured in the accident but all were treated for burns and released by the hospital.

The accident occurred during the 250-mile national championship race at the Milwaukee State Fair. Herman had stopped to refuel when the exhaust ignited gasoline fumes and flames flared up.

The race was won by Pat Flaherty of Chicago, who led from pole to pole without a pit stop and averaged better than 95 miles an hour.

Riley Likes Football

DETROIT — Lee Riley, Detroit Lions halfback from the University of Detroit, turned his attention to football in college despite the fact that his father managed pro baseball teams in the Philadelphia Phillies and St. Louis Cardinals baseball system for 23 years.

Pontiac Anglers Enjoy Good Luck on 6-Day Trip

Wayne Francisco and Paul Lampkin, both of Pontiac, have returned after a highly profitable six-day fishing adventure in Fletcher's Backwater at Lewiston.

It was an adventure for Lampkin, since it marked his initiation into angling. Francisco, a veteran fisherman, served as instructor to keep in practice for September when he resumes teaching at Bloomfield Hills High School.

Lewiston, Francisco's boyhood home, proved very rewarding. Fifty fish were caught — 23 pike, 23 trout, three bass and a lone perch, the lafter hooked with a daredevil plug.

Five were brown trout, the rest brookies. A brown trout was the largest, scaling 2½ pounds, measuring 17 inches long. Biggest pike was a four-pounder measuring 27 inches. Top bass was a 4½-pound smallmouth while the perch was a foot long.

Francisco - Lampkin party did some observing in Michigan's northland and spotted 52 deer. Francisco also reported that wild ducks were numerous in the Lewiston area.

LA Rams Drop Giants, 23-17

Playoff in Overtime Breaks Up 17-17 Game in Portland

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—The Los Angeles Rams defeated the New York Giants 23-17 here Sunday night in a National Football League exhibition game that went 3½ minutes overtime.

The score was tied 17-17 at the end of regulation play. Under a pre-game agreement, play resumed until the victory was decided.

The Rams won the toss for possession of the ball for the overtime session and advanced 70 yards in eight plays with Tank Younger plunging over untouched from the 2. No conversion attempt was necessary.

The sudden death playoff was one of two innovations at the game. The other was the marking of the field from 0 to 100, rather than from 0 to 50 and back to 0, to aid spectators in following the game.

Kramer Becomes Trout Fan During Vacation

ANN ARBOR — Ron Kramer, Michigan football end, who spent the summer as a counsellor at Hockey Coach Vic Heyliger's boys camp in Wyoming, is an ardent trout fisherman after catching a five pounder in a Montana mountain stream near the camp. "You hardly mention catching a three or four pounder out there," claims Kramer, who is back in his East Detroit home weighing a fit and lean 220 pounds.

BIRD THROWER — Representatives of the makers install a clay target automatic throwing machine at OCSC's skeet range (above). The new machines replace boys who operated the hand-powered gadgets last year at the big National Skeet Shooting Association's championships. The bird throwers are fully automatic, except for the need to keep the magazines (within the circular space enclosed by the upright rods) filled. All 20 fields at OCSC will operate automatically (push button), during the 1955 NSSA meet, starting today and running through Sept. 4.

Poirer Rated Over Dane in Eastern TV Contest

Gene Poirier, an exciting welterweight prospect from Niagara Falls, N.Y., is a slight favorite to beat Denmark's Chris Christensen in a televised 10-rounder (DuMont-Tv, 9 p.m., EST) at New York's St. Nicholas Arena tonight.

A good puncher with either hand, Poirier, an ex-platoon sergeant in Korea, is credited with a 13-2-2 record in the books although he says he has chalked up six more victories. He is 23.

Christensen, a stand-up fighter with an effective left hand, has a 26-6-2 record. He is 29.

Ezzard Charles, the former heavyweight king, and freakish Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson of New York, clash in a return 10-rounder (ABC-TV, radio, 9 p.m., EST) at Cleveland Wednesday night. If Charles loses again, he'll have no excuses.

Carmelo (Chubby) Costa, a slick boxer from Brooklyn, risks a possible title shot with featherweight champion Sandy Saddler when he meets Bobby Bell at New York's Madison Square Garden Friday night (NBC-TV and radio, 9 p.m., EST).

Waterford Leagues Wind Up Schedules

Waterford Township's Junior and Little League softball teams wound up their schedules in weekend play at Drayton Plains and the Junior loop began its playoffs.

In Little League play, champion Jack's Service crushed Maceday Gardens, 14-5, as Vic Rigotti collected three singles and a triple. Puertas Service edged Waterford Village, 9-8 and Pete's Service downed Union Lake Lumber, 11-8, with Bob Diamond and Bruce Hempton hitting home runs for the losers.

White Brothers trimmed Fillmore Hardware, 9-6, in the Junior League finale. In the 1st game of the playoffs, White's nosed out Keego Hardware, 12-11. The winners capitalized on nine bases on balls and six enemy errors.

Nevada Swimmer Claims 25-Miles World Mark

BOULDER CITY, Nev. (INS) — Distance swimmer Roy Sutter today claimed a world speed record for a 25-mile swim in a lake.

Sutter, 40-year-old aircraft company shipping and receiving clerk, swam the 25 miles over the measured course on Lake Mead yesterday.

He started at 4:48 p.m. Saturday and finished at 7:21 a.m. Sunday, a time of 14 hours and 33 minutes.

First Twin Lakes Ace

First ace of the season at Twin Lakes Golf Club was recorded Saturday. Ermal (Red) Fender, Airport road, Pontiac, fired a six-iron shot at the flag on the No. 4 green, 165 yards away. The ball hit and rolled straight into the cup for Fender's 2nd ace. He had a 35 for the round, playing with Lyle Liscombe of Pontiac and Norman Thompson of Clarkston.

Johnny McCall, lefthanded pitcher for the New York Giants, was nicknamed "Windy" by Ted Williams of the Red Sox. The name has remained with him.

Pat Lesser Wins Amateur Title by 7-6 Margin

22-Year-Old Routs Jane Nelson to Top Field of Women

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — "Pearl Harbor was exciting to me but this is a different kind of excitement!"

The comparison was made by Patricia Ann (Pat) Lesser, the new women's National Amateur golf champion.

The 22-year-old bespectacled Seattle girl with the deep tan and friendly smile described Saturday's 7 and 6 finals rout of Jane Nelson, the 27-year-old Indianapolis grammar school history teacher as "the greatest thing that has ever happened to me."

Pat was at Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941, the day the Japs attacked. Her father, now a retired Army colonel, was stationed there. She was 8 at the time, but recalls that enemy planes "flew right over us; we didn't know what to do except what Daddy told us. That was exciting, but winning this championship is also exciting, in a different way."

Her head was in the clouds, but her feet were very much on the ground as she declared:

1. "Daddy told me three years ago if I won the National he'd buy me a new car. I'm not holding him to that promise, My 1939 model gets me around and besides, he's spent a lot on my golf as it is.

2. "Daddy also told me that if I won the title I wouldn't have to finish school (Seattle University) if I didn't care to. But I certainly want to finish. I'll start my senior year next month. It will mean no winter golf in Florida where I made the circuit the last two winters, but I do want to graduate.

3. "No pro golf for me." (This emphatically.)

4. "If I am selected for the U.S. Curtis Cup team to play in Britain next spring, (a classic understatement), Daddy and Mother will make the trip with me. If I am chosen (she was on last year's team) I hope the good padres at the university will allow me to leave a few weeks before graduation to play abroad."

Vacancies for Bowlers

Vacancies exist for several bowlers in the Ladies Afternoon Classic League, which begins its season Thursday, September 8. The league bowls every Thursday at the Huron Bowl Recreation at 1 p.m. Applications for membership can be made to the league secretary, Marcella Fortier, by calling FEderal 5-0955.

Last major leaguer to hit four doubles in one game was Al Zarilla of the Boston Red Sox on June 8, 1950.

Inman-Smith Take State Pro-Am Title

By BILL CORNWELL

Bob Inamn and Ben Smith, who play their golf out of Detroit Golf Club, combined forces Sunday at Tam O'Shanter Country Club to win the Michigan State Professional-Amateur championship.

Inman and Smith fired a four-under-par 67 in the annual best-ball event to shade Plum Hollow's team of professional E. B. McElmurry and Jim Funston by one stroke. Inman and Smith posted cards of 34-33 over Tam's 35-36—71 layout while the McElmurry-Funston duo shot 33-35—68.

Pro-Am tournament was originally scheduled for a 36-hole distance, but was cut to 18 by decision of the tourney committee. Sunday's field started play in heavy rain, which slowed action considerably, and officials felt that the 59-team entry could not be adequately handled over 36 holes.

Inman, assistant pro to Horton Smith at DGC, pocketed $250 as the winning professional and runner-up McElmurry took home $200. Remainder of the $1500 purse was split among the next 15 pros, which included eight teams tied for 3rd at 69 and seven tandems deadlocked for 4th at 70. Seven teams tied for 5th with par 71's to finish out of the money.

Defending champion team of pro Al Watrous and Tom Sheehan did not play in the best-ball tournament. Watrous became ill Sunday, forcing last year's winners at Battle Creek to withdraw from the field. Watrous and Sheehan have won the Pro-Am three times.

Among the headliners at 69 were the Kocsis brothers, Al and Sam, Jimmy and Glenn Johnson, Bob Gajda and Blaine Eynon, Mike Dietz and Leo Diegle and Pete Cooper and Milt Elson.

Heading the 70 shooters was the team of Walter Burkemo and Harvey Hubar. Burkemo carded a 70, an admirable figure under adverse weather conditions, to match the best-ball total.

Also shooting 70's were Horton Smith and Bob Babbish and John Barnum and Harold Brink.

Watch your address and follow-through naturally, don't hurry on an uphill lie hillside shot.

The easiest of the various types of hilside shots is the one from an uphill lie. It should offer you no physical or psychological stymies.

Take your normal stance with the ball in about the same position with respect to your feet as you would play it with the same club—whether it be a wood or an iron—on a level lie.

But bend your left knee somewhat more than usual in order to keep your shoulders and hips level and in the same relative position as they would be if you were standing on flat ground.

All you have to do then is take a normal, natural swing, being sure to stay down and follow through. Don't hurry the shot as is often the tendency when in an abnormal position.

If the slope is pronounced the chances are you will get a much higher shot than usual . It's a good idea to use a somewhat straighter-faced club than you ordinarily would to minimize the loft and compensate for the decreased distance.

BIG FISH, HUSKY ANGLER — A smallmouth bass that tangled with husky 12-year-old Garry Lee, Scotch school pupil, West Bloomfield Township, came out 2nd best, as the photograph above proves. Garry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Verlin Lee, 4892 Mapleview was casting with a plug near the shoreline of Cass lake when he boated the 18-inch, 3-pounder.

ANN ARBOR — University of Michigan athletic teams during 1954-55 won five championships, including an NCAA hockey crown, and Big Ten titles in indoor and outdoor track, wrestling and tennis.

Kelly Wins 50-Lap Title Race at M59

Rusty Kelly won the 50-lap club championship race Saturday night at Pontiac Speedway in the time of 17:13. Kelly was chased across the finish line by Chuck Partello and Chuck Powers.

Ross Heichel captured the semi feature, with Harry Saltzman and Jack Harvey taking 2nd and 3rd places respectively.

Carm Regatz raced to victory in the pursuit and popular Mickey Katlin won the dash. Heat winners were Milt Salisbury, Jerry Laffner, Bill Dillard, Ralph Pooley and D. Zanoni.

Riverama Meet Honors Close Club Activities

Williams Lake Swim Club concluded its most successful season in history by giving a creditable performance in the Detroit Riverama Meet.

Ed Kummert placed 2nd in both the 25-meter freestyle and 25-meter backstroke. Mike Harrington placed 3rd in the 25-meter breaststroke, Ronald Sias took 3rd in both the 50-meter breaststroke and 50-meter butterfly, and Gail Lapucki took 2nd in the 50-meter butterfly.

Glenda Roberts and Kathy Kantarian, competing with swimmers three to four years above their age group, also did well in the state AAU swimming championships. The two Williams Lake girls swam the 50-meter freestyle.

Biggest pari-mutuel payoff at Hialeah was not for win but for place. Baal returned 484-1 for finishing 2nd on Feb. 4, 1932.

Meads Third Guard to Lead Michigan

ANN ARBOR — Linemen have led Michigan football teams during all but one season in the past decade. Captain Ed Meads of Oxford, a guard and this year's leader, is the 3rd guard to lead the Wolverines into action since 1946. He succeeded Ted Cachey, last year's leader. Dominic Tomasi in 1948 was the other guard captain. The list includes also three tackles, two ends and one quarterback. The lone backfield leader since 1946 was Bill Putich in 1951.

Most Thrilling Moment

DETROIT — A recovered fumble and a 25-yard return for a touchdown against the Chicago Cardinals is Detroit Lion guard Jim Ricca's most thrilling play in four years of pro football. He was playing for the Washington Redskins at the time.

E. O. Franzen of Minneapolis shot a record 391 from the prone position to break the old record of 387, set by August Westergaard of Whiting, Iowa, last year. His total score of 758 puts him second.

Since 1927, a total of 7,981,573 spectators have attended the 169 games played in the University of Michigan football stadium.

Littler Wins Canada Test With Sensational Finish

MONTREAL (AP)—A routine par by Gene Littler, 25-year-old Californian, snuffed out Vancouver's Stan Leonard in a sensational extra-hole finish to win the $26,800 Montreal Open Golf Tournament.

Leonard's bid yesterday fell short because of a blooping chip shot. Nine holes back, Littler holed out a 25-foot chip—"the shot that really won for me"—and the two eventually went into sudden-death play.

The pair had finished the 72-hole tournament tied with eight-under-par 272s, galloping past Doug Ford, 33-year-old links veteran from Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., who started the final 18 with 203, one stroke up on Littler and four ahead of Leonard.

Ford, who took over the lead with a 68 Saturday soared to a last-round 72 and a third-place finish at 275 with a couple of old pros—39-year-old Ed (Porky) Oliver of Lemont, Ill., and Sam Snead, 43-year-old West Virginian from White Sulphur Springs.

On the first extra hole, both players had good drives, Leonard ahead by 15 yards. Littler put his second on the apron of the green. Leonard hooked his second shot and the ball was headed out of bounds when it struck the fence and bounced back to the side of the green.

Stan chipped. It was his blooper, the ball landing 10 feet in front of him and still just short of the green. Another chip left him 7 feet short of the cup.

Littler, chipping from the apron, sent his ball 8 feet past the cup. His putt was 5 inches short. Leonard, going for the par 5 that would keep the sudden-death play going, was short a foot. He walked over and shook hands with Littler, conceding the victory.

New Hose Carries Strong Acids Longer

AKRON — A new acid-handling hose has been developed by an Akron rubber company to handle heavy concentrations of three highly corrosive acids that destroy conventional acid hoses in a few hours.

The hose is said to be able to conduct sulfuric acid of up to 96 per cent concentration, nitric acid up to 70 per cent concentration, and chromic acid up to 100 per cent concentration.

Tests show, the company says, that the hose's work life in handling these acids is measured in months.

Corn, Soybeans Fail in Comeback

CHICAGO (AP) — A forecast of scattered showers in most of the midwest prompted some hasty selling in corn and soybeans, the two dry weather favorites, on the Board of Trade today.

In active dealings these two grains sank a couple of cents at one time. They showed no important rallying capacity. Other cereals followed the lead of corn and soybeans, heading downward at a more leisurely pace.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅜ to ¾ lower, September $1.91⅝; corn 1¼ to 1¾ lower, September $1.27¼; oats unchanged to ⅝ lower, September 56⅝; rye ¾ to 1 cent lower, September 95¼; soybeans 1½ to 2¼ lower, September $2.25 and lard unchanged to 20 cents a hundred pounds lower, September $10.90.

SALZBURG, Austria (AP) — A Romanian boxing team's entry in an amateur contest here ended suddenly over the weekend when the visiting Communists charged they were being threatened by refugees.

On Friday night, the Romanian team spent an evening in an inn with Romanian refugees living in Salzburg.

Shortly before midnight, police said, the Romanian diplomats called police for protection, saying the refuges were threatening the boxers. Police supplied two officers for the hotel. The following morning the diplomats said their team wanted to leave. Police escorted them to a Vienna-bound train, and the match was canceled. In Vienna, the team was reported on its way back to Buchárest.

Suspect Couple in Murder Case

Pair Arrested at Border After Story Concerning Death of Californian

KINGMAN, Ariz. (AP)—Property which police say was stolen from the home of a city official in Palm Springs, Calif., today figured in the questioning of a couple charged with his death.

Police Chief August G. Kettman of Palm Springs said that Robert Kenneth Miers, 30, a bakery employe from Baldwin Park, near Los Angeles, and his 28-year-old wife Elizabeth have changed their stories under questioning about the death of Donald E. Graham, 60.

Graham, a building inspector, was found dead Friday at his home in the fashionable California resort town. Deputy Coroner Robert Drak said the victim had been beaten severly on the head and was soffocated by his own blood.

The Miers couple, accompanied by their four children, were arrested at a border checking station near here Saturday night on California murder warrants. They waived extradition and Kettman said they would return to Palm Springs with him sometime today.

Sheriff Frank Porter of Mohave County said Miers first told him he punched Graham in the face and wrestled with him because the widower made advances toward Mrs. Miers.

The victim was to have been married this week to Mrs. Marie Everett, 47, formerly of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Tucson, Ariz. She was flying west from New York to meet him when the body was found.

Women's and men's clothing, a watch, a diamond ring, some books of "green stamps" and a vacuum cleaner were taken from Graham's home, the chief said. Porter said Miers earlier admitted taking $20 and $1 bills from Graham's wallet. The man had $50.32 and his wife $180.52 when they were arrested.

Chrysler Planning Dealership Changes

DETROIT (INS) — Plans for gradual separation of tie-in dealerships between Plymouth and the other three lines of Chrysler Corp. cars were announced today.

Chrysler President L. L. Colbert said the change was being made because "the point is now being reached . . . when deeper market penetration for each of the company's car lines can best be achieved in many areas through divisional-line dealerships."

The present system of selling Plymouths through dealers handling either Dodge, DeSoto or Chrysler lines was inaugurated in 1930, a move that overnight gave the new Plymouth car a nationwide dealer organization.

Colbert told Chrysler's 10,500 dealers that the change will be made "wherever local conditions make it practicable, but only after a careful dealer-by-dealer check is made."

Newspaper Story Reunites Mother and 'Lost' Daughter

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—A newspaper led to a reunion of a mother and daughter separated for nearly a quarter of a century and there was no doubt of the kinship.

The story began early in the depression when Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Underwood of Nashville were separated and Mrs. Underwood was unable to support her daughters, Erlene, 11, and Pauline, 3.

In 1930 she placed the children in a children's home in Memphis. Later they were adopted and the mother said Welfare Department regulations prevented her from finding them when better times came.

Pauline was placed in the care of Mrs. C. G. Truitt of Memphis and lived with her until her marriage in 1946 to Arnold Eddins, now a sergeant at Ft. Campbell, Ky.

In 1945, Pauline learned her father's name and former address when she obtained birth certificate. She evidently wrote to all the Underwoods in the Nashville telephone directory in an effort to locate them.

Finally she told her story to the Nashville Tennessan Saturday.

The Tennessean printed Mrs. Eddin's picture with her three children, Paulette, 8, Ginger, 6, and Steven, 5, in its Sunday edition.

Her mother, now Mrs. Ethel Underwood Covington, 48, saw the picture and hardly needed to read the caption to know it was her daughter and grandchildren. The similarity to herself was obvious.

A telephone call to Ft. Campbell resulted in the family reunion at Mrs. Covington's farm home near here yesterday afternoon.

Both are now hoping to find sister Erlene, whom they believe to have been placed with a Chattanooga couple in 1930.

Russia Takes Note of Song Shortages

LONDON (INS)—There is a song shortage in Russia.

This sad state of affairs was revealed in the Soviet publication "Literary Gazette" which lately arrived in London.

The Gazette said smartly dressed young men are selling the words of the latest movie hit tunes in the streets of Moscow without paying copyright dues.

The magazine said the blame for this should not be placed on the young men but with state music publishing firms.

* * *

Russian people love songs, the Gazette added, but too few are published so bright young fellows with typewriters are able to earn small fortunes at the expense of the songwriters.

Report Aerial Clash of Egypt and Israel

CAIRO, Egypt (AP) — The first aerial clash was reported today in renewed fighting along the tense Gaza Strip frontier between Egypt and Israel where six were killed yesterday.

A reliable source in Israel-controlled Jerusalem said the encounter between planes of the two countries began when four Egyptian jets of the British Vampire type flew over Israeli territory east of Rafa, near the juncture of the Gaza Strip and the Sinai Peninsula.

One Egyptian plane was hit by gunfire from two pursuing Israeli planes, this source said. An Israeli army spokesman in Jerusalem reported only that Egyptian planes which penetrated over Israeli territory had been driven back to their own area.

Tourists Watch Suicide Jump at Niagara Falls

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. (AP)—Robert H. Persons, 58, last night leaped into the Niagara River and was swept over the American Falls as dozens of tourists watched. Five hours later he was seen crawling on a ledge 35 feet below the falls. He was rescued but died later in a hospital.

Police said Persons jumped a guard rail just above Prospect Point. Tourists were too far away to stop him.

LAND CONTRACT INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITY

6% land contracts on Flint Area Property During the next six months, I will have available to investors over $400,000 worth of 6% land contracts on new, modern homes. The balance due on each contract is $6,100 payable at $61.00 per month. These homes have a bank mortgage appraisal value, established by a licensed appraiser, of $5,250.00. The cost of the contract to you is $4,880.00, $1,220.00 (bonus to you) less than the contract balance, and $370.00 less than the appraised valuation.

When this contract is paid in full it will have earned $2,379.00 in interest. This amount, together with your bonus (or discount) of $1,220.00, means that your original investment of $4,880.00 earned a total of $3,599.00 — a nearly unbelievable increase in capital of about 74%—an overall return of $8,479.00. Where can this be equaled?

Any person or company buying one of these contracts will be furnished the following items:

1. A credit report from the Retailers' Credit Bureau on the person buying the home.
2. An up-to-date abstract of title showing clear title and tax history.
3. A warranty deed and assignment of contract.

We recommend that you have your attorney examine all papers.

If you have never purchased LAND CONTRACTS FOR INVESTMENTS before, we will gladly have an agent call to answer your questions and explain the value and simplicity in obtaining one or more of these sound contracts, at no obligation to you. Make an investigation; there will be no high pressure sales talk, only an explanation of the facts.

If you have bought contracts before you will recognize the fairness of the offer made here and will no doubt agree that as this County, and especially the Flint area, continues to develop, land has become about the most sound investment. Partial proof of this statement is the millions of dollars worth of land contracts purchased in Flint each year by people from all walks of life. However the building in Flint has now become so tremendous that it is going to become necessary to obtain outside investment money. Therefore WE are now offering the people of Pontiac the above opportunity.

$500,000 worth of these contracts sold by myself in Flint each year for the past several years.

WE BACK THESE CONTRACTS WITH OUR EXPERIENCE AND INTEGRITY

Attention, Attorneys and Brokers - - - A closing fee will be paid to you if one of your clients purchases a contract.

DEVELOPS CENTRY-OLD FISH STICK — Sven Anderson of Hermansville, Mich., is pictured with some of his Saga fish sticks which he manufactures and with the special spoons used with the sticks. The fish stick is made of kiln dried white birch. Popular in the Scandinavian countries, it is said to be ideal for trolling and "drift" fishing.

New Ship Fins End 'Sickness'

'Mal De Mer' Eliminated by Sperry Stabilizers on Matson Liners

SAN FRANCISCO (INS)—Matson Navigation Company today came up with some good news for ocean voyagers that will be bad news for the seasick tablet industry.

Two new passenger liners under construction at Portland, Ore., Matson said, will be equipped with twin stabilizing fins expected to reduce rolling as much as 90 per cent.

The stabilizers, to be built by the Sperry Gyroscope Co. for $800,000, won't affect pitching—rise and fall of the bow and stern.

But experts on seasickness claim the worst of a vessel's motion is the wallowing sideways roll that makes many passengers wish they had eaten a lighter lunch.

Dr. Joseph Chadwick, project engineer for Sperry, said:

"Tests have shown the fins consistently cut heavy 20 degree rolls to less than two degrees."

Controls for the fins are to be mounted on the bridge. In smooth weather they fold back into the hull. When the seas get rough and are coming abeam, the mechanism automatically sets the fin angle to counteract the force of the seas.

Japan Might Close Poisoned Milk Plant

TOKYO (AP) — Welfare Minister Hideji Kawasaki said today the Japanese government might close a giant milk company, maker of a powdered milk which has killed 44 children and affected almost 5,000 others.

Police questioned executives of the Tokushima plant of the Morinaga Milk Co., which had said traces of arsenic were found in sodium phosphate used as a stabilizer in manufacture of the milk.

The investigation centered on whether Morinaga had adequately checked the purity of its sodium phosphate.

In Osaka, a chemical firm said it sold sodium phosphate to Morinaga of ordinary industrial quality, not the purity standard for food manufacturing.

Civil Liberties Union Studies New Blackouts

NEW YORK (AP) — The American Civil Liberties Union is sponsoring a study of government news policies where the press and other mass media reportedly have been denied proper access to information.

The study is being made by Allen Raymond, author and former foreign correspondent of the New York Times, the New York Herald-Tribune and other publications.

The ACLU plans to make Raymond's report public and to refer it to Congress and government officials.

Reports Window Broken

Ray Gentry of 9241 Elizabeth Lake Rd. reported to Pontiac Police Saturday that someone threw a bottle through a plate glass window at Automobile Equipment Co., 172 S. Saginaw St.

Gentry said the window was broken sometime Saturday morning. Damage was estimated at $150.

Fete Suffragettes at Amendment's 35th Anniversary

WASHINGTON (AP)—A dozen or so suffragettes of the early part of this century were guests of honor yesterday at a conference marking the 35th anniversary of the constitutional amendment which gave women the right to vote.

Talk of past triumphs shared the agenda with discussion of a new goal — adoption of a constitutional amendment that would state simply:

"Equality under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex."

The meeting was attended by some 40 representatives of various women's groups which have been urging action on the "equal rights" amendment, first proposed in 1923.

Police Capture Jailbreak Killer

Trigger Burke Wanted in Gotham and Boston for Murder and Theft

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP)—Elmer Francis (Trigger) Burke, 37, was held here today for a New York City slaying and a Boston jailbreak after his capture at a nearby resort.

FBI agents seized him at Folly Beach Saturday night. He did not resist.

Authorities in both New York and Boston said they wanted him returned for trial and sent representatives here. Burke was held in county jail for a preliminary hearing Friday in bond of $100,000 on each of two charges.

In Boston, Dist. Atty. Garrett H. Byrne said he wants Burke back for trial on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon on a prison guard during a break from the Suffolk County Jail at Boston a year ago yesterday.

In New York, Acting Dist. Atty. Alfred J. Scotti said, "We intend to make every effort to bring Burke back to this jurisdiction and face this first-degree murder indictment" in the slaying July 24, 1952, of Edward Walsh after an argument in a bar.

Two prisoners obtained guard uniforms and helped Burke get away from the Boston jail after he had been arrested June 17, 1954, for possession of a submachine-gun. Officers said they believe the gun was used in the ambush of Joseph J. (Specs) O'Keefe, once a prime suspect in the $1,219,000 Brink's holdup of 1950. Boston police theorized that Burke had been sent from New York to kill O'Keefe, who was wounded but recovered.

O'Keefe is now held in jail in Springfield, Mass., for parole violation.

Police Throw Cordon After Rebel Attack

EDINBURGH, Scotland (AP)—Security police threw a cordon around the Redford army barracks here today following a midnight attack on an artillery sergeant.

A warning siren installed since the recent Irish nationalist raids on British armories, was sounded after the attack, but no arms were reported missing.

Camp officers declined to comment on the attack.

Edinburgh police said they were looking for two men who assaulted a sentry when he found them hiding among parked vehicles.

The men knocked the sentry unconscious before they fled.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF Edward Thrasher, who passed away the 29th of August, 1943.
Lost my soul companion
A life linked with my own
And day by day I miss happiness
As I walk through life alone
Sadly missed by Mrs. Thrasher and Family.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF DAVID W. JONES
It is lonesome here without you,
And sad and weary the way;
Life has not been the same
Since you were called away.
The Family.

IN MEMORY OF CARLTON UTley, died Aug. 29, 1933 and Carl Utley, died Aug. 29, 1946.
As Angels keep their watch up there,
Please, God just let them know
That we down here will not forget.
We love and miss them so.

Auto Radio That Uses Transistors Developed

PRINCETON, N.J.—A Princeton radio-research laboratory has developed an experimental automobile radio that uses transistors instead of vacuum tubes and operates from a 6-volt battery.

It needs only about one-tenth the power used by conventional car radios, the researchers report. The set uses nine transistors and is said to give performance equal to that of standard car radios.

First Record Broadcast

NEW YORK — In 1907 the first record to be broadcast was transmitted 12 miles. The following year a recording of the "Anvil Chorus" from "Il Trovatore" was broadcast in a United States Signal Corps broadcast. In 1909 Marguerite Mazarin sang an aria from "Carmen" in the first live musical program, broadcast from New York.

Classic Stories Will Be Popular

New Shows to Include 'Answer,' 'Cavalcade' & World-Wide 'Medic'

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — As fall approaches, the air is full of television program plans.

"Medic," which has been showing re-runs all summer, starts its new season on NBC-TV Sept. 5 with a dramatized story of a woman school teacher who suffers from melancholia, which in turn causes a serious disease of the digestive tract. Other medical problems "Medic" will dramatize in later programs include sterility, menopause, plastic surgery, unethical medical practice, acne, leprosy, obesity.

For the first time the program will be shot on location around the world.

"Our plans are to shoot a yellow fever episode in New Orleans, a leprosy program in Hawaii, a story of cerebral palsy in Ireland and an aviation medicine story in Cleveland," says James Moser, writer-creator of the program.

Classic stories by famous authors will be seen in a series of "theatricals" on a new dramatic series over NBC-TV on alternate Tuesdays starting Oct. 4. "The program will have bigger production and more scope than almost anything yet done on television," says Proucer Fred Coe. An interesting commentary on the program's hoped for audience appeal is the fact it will be spotted against CBS-TV's popular "The $64,000 Question." In fact, before long an original drama by David Shaw will satirize "The $64,000 Question."

The kick-off show will be a dramatization of "The Answer" by Philip Wylie. The accent of the program will be on writing, says Coe. "We have Ernest Hemingway's 'The Battler' and 'The Sound and the Fury' by William Faulkner . . . We will use stars or not, according to the story we're doing. If we can get a top star who fits the role, we'll do it. If not, we'll simply use the most talented actor we can get . . ."

Another new dramatic show opening Sept. 25 on CBS-TV will place a heavy accent on acting, both big names and new talent, according to those on the inside. The title of the opening show apparently is still a secret.

Early in October—with the date yet to be firmed up—20th Century Fox will present over CBS-TV a new drama program entitled "Cavalcade" on alternate Wednesdays. The first show will be a dramatization of "The Ox Bow Incident," by Walter Van Tilburg Clarke, one of the few good novels written about the west.

"Father Knows Best," which critics rated as about the best family comedy on television last year, returns to NBC-TV next Wednesday, Aug. 31.

To Provide Litter Bags for Careless Motorists

MADISON, Wis.—In an effort to reduce highway litter, the statewide distribution of 50,000 trash bags to Wisconsin motorists has been arranged through service stations, travel bureaus, and offices of the American Automobile Assn.

Motorists are to use the bags to dispose of chewing-gum and candy wrappers, cigarette packages, soft-drink containers, and the like instead of spreading them along the roads. Once filled, the waterproof bags will be collected and disposed of by gas-station attendants.

Detroit Free From British

Eyewitness Reports of Liberation Spark State History Accounts

(Editor's Note: Michigan's history is rich and alive, but too often it is lost in the dullness of school time lessons. In an effort to bring some of these moments to life, the following story was compiled from eyewitness accounts on file in the Michigan historical collections at the University of Michigan).

DETROIT, Sept. 29, 1813 (AP) — American troops liberated Detroit today after more than a year of British occupation. The citizens in Detroit greeted the stars and stripes with great rejoicing.

Many who lined the streets wept.

The city had fallen to the British Aug. 16, 1812. Now, American troops, under Gen. William Henry Harrison crossed the Detroit river while the main body of American forces pursued the British across Canada.

General Harrison himself continued with his troops after the British. He apppointed Brig. Gen. Duncan MacArthur to take a detachment into Detroit.

The American troops began clean-up operations in the city against marauding Indians who were pillaging the town. Only two days ago, the British troops burned the citadel and the fort, leaving only the barren earthworks as a defense.

General Harrison, with Perry's defeat of British Naval forces behind him, ordered American troops to advance from their base at Sandusky Bay. The English General, Henry Procter, saw his position was untenable with control of the upper lakes gone and withdrew from his western Canadian bases.

He is believed to be retreating with the main British forces toward Fort Erie at Niagara Falls or toward York.

The British abandoned Detroit and nearby Fort Malden at Amherstburg after Perry's Lake Erie Victory.

Real Coal Gifts

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—Gov. William C. Marland, courting new industries for the state, passes out small gifts to industrialists. They're cuff links manufactured by inmates of the Federal Women's Refromatory, centered with a dime-sized piece of coal. Coal is West Virginia's leading industry.
