Exam Delayed in Mall Killing

The Justice Court examination of admitted killers Adoise White and Charles E. Hodges has been postponed for two weeks on the request of their attorney Milton R. Henry.

The pair, charged with first degree murder in the knife slaying of Robert A. Greene, was to have appeared today before Waterford Township Justice John E. McGrath.

McGrath rescheduled the hearing for April 9 at 9:30 a.m. after Henry, a Pontiac city commissioner, informed him late yesterday that he was going to defend the two men.

The new date of the examination is tentative, according to McGrath. He added he will make an attempt to hold an earlier hearing if possible.

He said he granted the postponement because Henry is currently busy with other court cases.

Meanwhile, Brady P. Boley, charged with the fatal stabbing of Aubrey Posey March 8, was this morning bound over to Circuit Court following a preliminary examination before Justice McGrath.

Boley, 46, of 164 W. Pike St., will be arraigned April 2 at 1:30 p.m. on a charge of first degree murder. He stood mute at his arraignment in Justice Court following his arrest March 18.

Posey's body was discovered March 13 in a rear bedroom of his home at 571 Crescent Lake Road, Waterford Township.

ALLAN E. MORRISON

Man Arraigned for Bank Theft

The 27-year-old Oak Park man arrested last night by the FBI for the March 19 holdup of a Bloomfield Township branch of Manufacturer's National Bank was arraigned this morning before Judge Thaddeus M. Machrowicz in U.S. District Court.

Allan E. Morrison, 27, of 23060 Oak Crest was arrested at his home after an extensive investigation by FBI agents and members of the Detroit police holdup squad.

The Bloomfield Township branch, at 4087 W. Maple Road, was held up by a lone bandit who confronted teller Lois Steele with a fictitious deposit slip and a gun.

He ordered her to open her cash drawer and give him "all the money in large bills."

Not satisfied with the speed the bandit then reached over the cage and scooped up several packs of tens, $20's and miscellaneous bills totaling $3,173.

Judge Machrowicz set the examination date for April 25. Bail was set for $25,000.

Cool Evening of 33 Degrees Forecast Here

Tonight's weather will be a little cooler, with a low of about 33, the weatherman says.

Tomorrow will be fair and warmer. The mercury is expected to reach the mid-50s.

Morning southwesterly winds at 10 to 20 miles per hour will become northwesterly tonight and westerly tomorrow.

Fifty was the low temperature in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. The 2 p.m. reading was 52.

Coed Carried From Rescue Plane

Had Only Snow to Eat

From Our News Wires

WHITEHORSE, Yukon — An adventuresome girl from Brooklyn and a husky California mechanic related from their hospital beds today the account of 48 days spent on a frozen Yukon mountainside with only the Bible for inspiration and melted snow for subsistence.

★ ★ ★

Girl Breathes Thanks to Her Rescuer on Mount

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Charles (Chuck) Hamilton, 32, a bush pilot, was the first person to spot Helen Klaben and private pilot Ralph Flores after they had spent 48 days on a mountain.)

By CHUCK HAMILTON
As Told to United Press International

WATSON LAKE, Yukon — When I arrived at the scene, the girl said: "Thank God you've found me. I'd like to kiss you but I can't stand up."

I picked her up and she hugged me. I put her on my shoulders and began the long trek three miles down the mountain.

She must have been in great pain. Her feet were frostbitten. One was badly smashed. Her arm was broken and had set itself in a splint made by Flores.

★ ★ ★

She told me she kept a diary at the start, but didn't continue it.

★ ★ ★

She said: "Time passed quickly; at night I thought of the last thing I had eaten.

★ ★ ★

"We had heated the fruit cocktail and every night I thought about warm fruit cocktail . . . and my mother."

COURAGEOUS GIRL

Every so often we would have to stop to rest. There were many places where the snow was so deep I had to put her down and remove my snowshoes to crawl over the windfall (fallen trees).

★ ★ ★

Every so often I could feel her wince, but she didn't so much as let out a wimper. I can't describe how courageous she was.

We flew out to Aeroplane Lake, about 12 miles away.

Earlier I had seen Flores tramping his way across a meadow on a pair of home-made snowshoes. He had left the girl four days earlier to go and find help in the direction from which he had heard saw noises.

I had radioed Watson Lake to send somebody to rescue him. By the time we arrived at Aeroplane Lake, two Indians had brought him back on a dogsled.

When the two saw each other, they broke down and cried and hugged one another.

EAT, TREMBLING

We took them to a cabin. Their fingers trembled and tears rolled down their faces as they drank hot tea from cracked cups and ate a hot moosemeat sandwich — their first food in six weeks.

Flores was haggard and wore a wild, bushy beard he had grown to hide the severe scars on his face.

Both were dirty and smelled of smoke from the fire they managed to keep burning near their lean-to.

★ ★ ★

They had decided to leave the crash scene and start five miles down the mountain slope. They had to quit after dragging their gear for two miles on a crude, makeshift toboggan.

★ ★ ★

They made a new camp and Flores left Wednesday in search of help.

★ ★ ★

On Sunday, I was flying to a big-game camp.

I had flown over the area several times in the past few weeks, but had seen nothing.

Suddenly I noticed an S-O-S signal and a big arrow which had been tramped into the snow.

★ ★ ★

I followed the arrow up the mountain but didn't see anything. Then I flew back over the area and noticed a man on the ground.

He was waving his arms frantically. We circled him and yelled out the open window. He motioned up the mountain.

I flew back in the direction of the arrow and this time saw a woman. There was a lot of smoke. At first I thought it was an Indian squaw sitting by a tent and a toboggan.

★ ★ ★

I kept circling and as the smoke cleared, I could see it wasn't a toboggan beside her, but an airplane wing. I could make out the letters N-588, but that's all.

That's when I radioed Watson Lake.

"We never gave up hope. We lived from day to day, hoping someone would come," said Helen Klaben, 21.

Miss Klaben and Ralph Flores, 42, of San Bruno, Calif., disappeared Feb. 4 on a flight from Whitehorse to Seattle, Wash., aboard Flores' single-engine plane.

★ ★ ★

Two weeks ago they were given up as dead.

They said faith in God brought them through after their plane crashed Feb. 4.

★ ★ ★

Bush pilot Charles Hamilton spotted the couple's "S.O.S." scrawled in the snow as he flew over the frigid wasteland Sunday, then saw Miss Klaben frantically waving near a lean-to constructed from the small plane's wreckage.

LIVED ON SNOW

Miss Klaben and Flores, a father of six, said they survived on melted snow for the last six weeks.

★ ★ ★

"It was water for breakfast, water for lunch and water for dinner," said Miss Klaben, managing to smile for her rescuers although she had a broken gangrenous right foot and a broken left arm and was gaunt from hunger.

She lost 30 pounds — the heavily bearded Flores lost 40 —but Miss Klaben quipped: "That was one good thing about the experience. I used to be 'pleasingly plump.'"

Flores, a pilot and electrician, also is a Mormon lay preacher. The girl is Jewish.

'READ BIBLE'

"His faith set the example for me to follow all my life," said Miss Klaben.

"I am starting my adulthood with full knowledge of what I have to do. I wasn't rescued until I understood, until I realized my sins and decided to make recompense for them.

★ ★ ★

"It was Ralph's Bible. I read both the Old and New Testaments. I know what I have to do, what my work is, what faith is, faith in God."

Miss Klaben said she never lost hope, but was puzzled "why the Lord was keeping us so long."

Then she told reporters, she realized "Ralph and I both needed time to think over our lives."

During the terrifying weeks in the wilderness, Miss Klaben said she longed for her mother, Ida Klaben of Brooklyn, more than anything or anyone else.

PHONES MOTHER

Her first act after arriving at the hospital here — where Dr. Nesta James reported she and Flores were "doing as well as can be expected" — was to telephone home.

In Brooklyn, Mrs. Klaben sobbed: "I'm so wrought up I don't know what to do. The poor child, she's really suffering. I'd like to go to her. She's such a wonderful, wonderful girl."

Flores, who suffered a broken rib and frozen toes, also telephoned home when he got to the hospital.

★ ★ ★

"We were so happy and emotional we couldn't tell each other much," said his wife, Theresa. "He had tears in his eyes, I am sure, and I was the same way too."

Michigan GOP Gets Celebrezze's Reply

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES

LANSING—Republican legislators and Gov. George Romney today received Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Anthony J. Celebrezze's answer to Michigan's Aid to Dependent Children of the Unemployed legislation.

Romney had asked Celebrezze for the legal basis which the official would use in rejecting Michigan federal money for the program.

Celebrezze again said Michigan's enabling legislation did not meet federal requirements because "it is discriminatory since it limits payments to persons who worked in jobs covered under a state unemployment insurance law."

★ ★ ★

He said Michigan's outlining of restrictions in its proposed law were "not relevant to the unemployment test of an assistance program with its different financing and its design for meeting need on an individually determined basis."

★ ★ ★

Among his arguments Celebreeze used a federal appeals court ruling which said a state could not sue the federal government without the United States' permission.

GREW FROM DISPUTE

The ruling grew out of a dispute over welfare regulations in Arizona.

★ ★ ★

Arizona passed a plan for aid to needy, permanently and totally disabled persons which excluded reservation Indians.

The local federal security administrator rejected the law.

In the federal district court, the administrator's action was upheld.

Arizona took the suit to the appeals court which threw the case out.

Democrats indicated they are willing to bail out Romney in his fight with federal authorities over ADC-U legislation by amending a bill now pending in the House.

★ ★ ★

Rep. Joseph Kowalski, D-Detroit, the House minority leader, said he could promise the governor 52 Democratic votes in the House and added "I know there are 11 solid ones in the Senate."

If Romney is able to pick up added strength from his own party, Kowalski said, a revised version of the disputed federal ADC-U proposal can be put through the legislature.

"The amendment that is being offered gives the governor — and the people of Michigan — a second chance," he said. "We hope he doesn't bungle it as badly as he bungled the first one."

The amendment to be offered by Democrats would be attached to another bill, introduced with bipartisan support, to make children in foster homes eligible for ADC payments.

Romney Plans to Study Ruling

Considers Signing Bill Without U.S. OK

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George Romney said today that he and his staff would study Welfare Secretary Anthony Celebrezze's reasons for denying aid to dependent children of the unemployed (ADC-U) benefits to Michigan.

Romney said this would be done before deciding what further steps to take.

"If we conclude we do have the authority to adopt our own definition of unemployment, I'll sign the bill," he said.

★ ★ ★

The governor told newsmen that if he signs the measure he would then "put on my selling clothes" and proceed from there.

He declined to spell out what steps the state might take to try to overrule Celebrezze, but pointed out that there are three branches of government.

Romney said yesterday that unless Celebrezze's department of health, education and welfare (HEW) pinpointed its legal authority to overrule a state's right to define unemployment he will sign a bill to which Celebrezze has objected.

The measure is aimed at qualifying Michigan to share in federal aid for dependent children of jobless parents.

HEW OBJECTS

HEW has objected that it is too restrictive. Except for West Virginia's, Republican Romney says Michigan's plan is as liberal as any of 15 which have qualified with HEW for such aid.

★ ★ ★

The bill would limit the aid to children of parents who have been eligible to receive unemployment compensation since Jan. 1, 1958 and who do not work more than 32 hours in any two-week period.

Romney says this "admittedly shuts out persons who work for someone who employes three persons or less."

Only persons working for an employer who employs four or more are covered by unemployment compensation laws.

Insisting that federal law makes it "very clear that it is up to the state to define unemployment and those who are unemployed," the governor told the Economic Club of Detroit in a speech yesterday:

"The issue now is whether a federal department can flount the will and the intention of Congress to bring a state to heel in order to receive a federal handout."

Mental Health Bill Passed by Senate

LANSING — The Senate today passed a bill designed to revolutionize the state's approach to mental health by permitting local programs.

The measure, sponsored by Sen. Farrell E. Roberts, R-Oakland County, was approved by a 24-3 vote. It goes next to the House.

It would enable Oakland County to establish its own mental health board, hire a mental health director and provide for care of mental health patients through contracts with hospitals.

Success of the bill was one of the major legislative goals of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors this year.

PARKING PROBLEM? — No, they're not really stacking the cars in downtown parking lots. This unusual accident took place today when Kenneth R. Garcia of 440 Ferry St. stepped on the accelerator instead of the brake pedal in a lot behind Consumers Discount Center, 178 N. Saginaw St. His car (left) lurched forward and ended up on top of a car parked in a lot next door. The lot next door is about 10 feet lower.

Colburn Near Peace With Blue Shield

DETROIT (AP) — Insurance Commissioner Sherwood Colburn indicated last night that progress is being made towards settlement of his dispute with Michigan Blue Shield over proposed rate increases for medical and surgical benefits.

But he reported no change in his deadlock with Michigan Blue Cross over proposed rate increases for hospital care.

Colburn issued this statement:

"Recent discussions with Mr. Frank O. Starr, executive director of Blue Shield, have culminated harmoniously.

"The discussions included suggested amendments of rates as originally proposed and modifications in organizational policy as recommended by Mr. Starr."

Colburn said Starr would submit the proposals to the Blue Shield directors Wednesday and to a special meeting of the Blue Shield Corporation April 10.

FULL COOPERATION

The commissioner said if these proposals are accepted, he promised full cooperation in expediting approval of a formal filing to the Department of Insurance.

Colburn said he was extremely pleased with the proposals and added: "I anticipate that a stamp of approval will be given the entire program."

Starr was not available for comment.

★ ★ ★

Colburn said he conferred yesterday with Starr at Colburn's Lansing office.

Blue Shield has requested rate increases ranging from 13 to 68 per cent, or an average of 24 per cent. Blue Cross has sought increases of from 24 to 37 per cent, or an average of 39 per cent.

Colburn has opposed the increases, saying the services must make changes he has suggested in administration policies before any increases can be considered.

The proposed changes would include public control of the Blue Cross board and increased public representation on the Blue Shield board.

The Blue Shield board now has eight nonmedical men on its 35-member board. The Blue Cross board has 15 nonmedical men on its 42-member board.

Hospital Warns Plans Hinge on Blue Cross Hike

The William Beaumont Hospital Board of Trustees this morning warned State Insurance Commissioner Sherwin Colburn that if a Blue Cross rate hike is not approved, the hospital's $8-million building program will go out the window.

★ ★ ★

In a telegram to the commissioner, president of the board Irving B. Babcock said that any delay in approval will force cuts in patient care and the reduction in hospital jobs.

The board last night suspended action on the building program pending action by the commissioner.

Bidault, Aide Fly to Portugal

Faces Political Ban Similar to Bavaria's

LISBON, Portugal (AP)—Former French Premier Georges Bidault flew to Portugal early today after West Germany refused to let him continue his campaign to overthrow French President Charles de Gaulle, police reported.

He faces a similar ban should he try to stay in Portugal.

Bavarian Interior Minister Heinrich Junker said Bidault left voluntarily. He and an aide, Guy Ribeauld, took a Swiss airline to Zurich under the names of "Auberger" and "Offrey." There they boarded a Dutch airliner for Lisbon.

★ ★ ★

A police spokesman at Lisbon said "two men with these names arrived shortly after midnight, but we did not realize they were Bidault and his secretary." Their arrival touched off a nationwide search by officials.

Before leaving Germany, Bidault vowed to continue his campaign for the downfall of de Gaulle.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman said that "as far as we know, Bidault has not entered Portugal under his own name. We do not know whether he has used false documentation to get in and we are checking this side of the story."

The spokesman said that if Bidault is found here "he will not be allowed any political activity during his stay here."

Political and government circles speculated that Bidault may be heading for Latin America. The next plane for Latin America leaves tonight.

Session Set Tomorrow

TFX Hearing Postponed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators postponed from today to tomorrow the resumption of the TFX warplane contract inquiry which Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara says can produce "only harm."

Chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark., announced the delay shortly before his Senate Investigations subcommittee had planned to question a group of high-ranking Air Force and Navy officers about the controversial contract award.

He said he had other pressing engagements and the subcommittee's staff had informed him it could use one additional day of preparation for the hearings.

He said today's resumption never had been more than a tentative date.

The subcommittee released yesterday a transcript of testimony in which McNamara had told its members Thursday:

"There is a lot of harm that can accrue from this investigation. I cannot see any good that will accrue from it. I can see only harm."

He pegged his protest to what he called frictions between the Pentagon and the subcommittee. But he said he was not suggesting that the senators drop their inquiry into whether favoritism might have steered the fighter-bomber contract—which ultimately may be worth $6.5 billion—to the General Dynamics Corp. of Fort Worth, Tex.

McNamara swore that neither political influence nor self interest motivated his awarding the contract to General Dynamics over the Boeing Co. of Seattle, Wash. He said the fact that Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson comes from Texas — where most of the planes will be manufactured—had nothing to do with his decision.

★ ★ ★

The subcommittee summoned as witnesses today high-ranking Air Force and Navy officers. They formed a military "source evaluation board" described as having recommended in vain that a rival design by Boeing promised a better, cheaper version of the sophisticated TFX.

★ ★ ★

McNamara's protests Thursday that the probe could cause only harm appeared to differ with an evaluation given the same day by President Kennedy at a news conference

"I can see nothing wrong with Congress looking into these matters," the President said. He added, however, that "the secretary did the right thing and the investigation will bring that out."

Rehearing Set on Henry Case

Flint Municipal Court today scheduled the rehearing of a contempt of court charge against Pontiac attorney Milton R. Henry for April 18.

The hearing was scheduled to be held before Flint Municipal Judge Basil F. Baker. It stems from a recent State Supreme Court ruling on Henry's appeal of an old contempt citation.

Henry was cited for contempt in June 1961 by Flint Municipal Judge Donald R. Freeman and sentenced to five days in jail by Freeman.

★ ★ ★

Henry eventually carried an appeal of the conviction to the State Supreme Court, which remanded the case to municipal court for a second hearing.

The higher court ruled that the conviction was invalid because the charge should have been heard before a municipal judge other than the one who cited Henry.

6 Candidates for State Office Stump in Area

Six candidates nominated for state office by the Democratic party were to campaign in the Pontiac area today.

Three of them were scheduled to appear at a Democratic rally in Farmington at 8 p.m.

Supreme Court candidate Paul L. Adams and University of Michigan Board of Regents candidate Eugene Power were to tour offices at the County Service Center this morning.

★ ★ ★

They were then to attend a noon Rotary Club luncheon at Waterford Township's CAI Building.

They were to be joined in the afternoon by Lynn M. Bartlett, candidate for re - election as state superintendent of public instruction; Jan B Vanderploeg and Don Stevens, candidates for re-election to the Michigan State University Board of Trustees; and Gerald Tuchow, nominee for the State Board of Education.

Bartlett was to meet with officials of the Oakland County Board of Education this afternoon.

★ ★ ★

The candidates were scheduled to attend two informal "coffees" at Waterford Township residences at 2 and 4 p.m.

Adams, Tuchow and Stevens were slated to attend the rally at Farmington Democratic headquarters, Orchard Lake Road at 10-Mile Road.

You Think It's Cold in Michigan?

By The Associated Press

Winter is seven months long in Canada's Yukon Territory and temperatures as low as -81 have been recorded. About 8,000 rugged Canadians live in the area the size of California and New York combined.

Much of the ground stays frozen 100 feet deep all year. The brief summer brings temperatures of 50-60 for Alaska's eastern neighbor.

Gold still comes from the Yukon, scene of the Klondike gold rush in the '90s. So do furs, copper, lead and zinc.

★ ★ ★

Mountains in the territory reach 19,000 feet. Whitehorse, the capital, is on the Alaska highway running from British Columbia to Alaska.

Record Set for Suggestions

Pontiac Motor Division employes received a record $257,454 last year for suggestions on improving operations on their jobs.

T. B. Bloom, Pontiac personnel director, said this amount surpassed the previous record by nearly $100,000.

He termed this "Pontiac's best suggestion year."

More than 8,500 employes participated in the suggestion program, submitting 23,349 suggestions. This is three times the number submitted in 1961.

One maximum award of $5,000 was paid during the year as well as 29 totaling more than $1,000.

More than three-quarters of Pontiac employes participated in the program, besting the General Motors average by 2.4 per cent.

City to Name Supervisors

Slated to Appoint 4 Citizens to Board

The City Commission is scheduled to appoint Pontiac's citizen representatives on the Oakland County Board of Supervisors at tonight's regular commission meeting.

Pontiac's members on the board of supervisors consist of four citizens and three city officials.

Appointments also are slated for the City Zoning Board of Appeals.

Two terms on the seven-man board of appeals are expiring. The zoning board members serve three-year terms.

★ ★ ★

Commissioners are also slated to get a tabulation of bids received on the sale of some city-owned land on South Saginaw Street at Franklin Road.

A tabulation of bids on the final R20 urban renewal demolition contract should also be ready for presentation to commissioners. Action on both tabulations will come at a future meeting.

An amendment to the ordinance regulating and controlling the installation of utilities in the central business district will be introduced tonight and slated for public hearing at a later meeting.

Presently, the ordinance requires utilities be placed underground in about two-thirds of the area within the proposed perimeter road.

The amendment would include an area north of Huron Street not already covered by the ordinance.

An ordinance to rezone property at 867-881 Glendale Ave. from Residential-1 to R-3 for a proposed 56-unit apartment structure will also be introduced.

Commissioners will be asked to approve the proposed plat of Saltz-Eisenberg-Geer Subdivision and accept a $1,700 deposit for sidewalk construction in the subdivision.

★ ★ ★

A public hearing is slated for plans to construct a water main on Clara Avenue, and a resolution approving a change of assignment for a lease of land at Pontiac Municipal Airport will be up for action.

Birmingham Area News

Tax Fighters Banned Near Polls in City

BIRMINGHAM — To protect voters from harassment at the polls, city commissioners last night passed an ordinance which bans petitioning within 100 feet of a polling place.

This followed last week's resolution denying the Vigilance Tax Committee permission to circulate the anti-Detroit Income Tax petitions in local precincts during the biennial spring election next Monday.

Commissioners at that time agreed to adopt a policy of not permitting the VTC personnel in the polling area.

They also turned down VTC Chairman George W. Kuhn, Berkley mayor, a request by to place petitions on the counter of the clerk's office in the Municipal Building.

The Commission said they did not feel that the city should be involved in the signing and circulation of VTC petitions and that such activities within the 100 feet area and polling place take undue advantage of the voters.

★ ★ ★

"We would like to have a policy in effect where we could enforce it," Commissioner Carl F. Ingraham said, last night, "so people won't have to submit to petitions within the polling place."

SEES NO REASON

Kuhn said he could "see no reason" why the VTC couldn't "petition within the 100 feet or within the building."

"We'll probably take every opportunity to get as close to the polls as possible, whether it's 100 or 10 feet, we'll be there."

The VTC head said there have been "a lot of calls from Birmingham citizens" who are concerned over the Detroit income tax of which he claims they pay "the lion's share."

★ ★ ★

"We're not asking for trouble" he said, "but Birmingham is making it most difficult for us to communicate with its citizens.

OTHER BUSINESS

In other business, commissioners approved purchase of four Ford police cars for a total net price of $2576 after trade.

They also approved an agreement with the residents of Gordon Court for construction of a water main on that street.

Before last night's meeting, 36 students from Birmingham Seaholm High School held their own "commission meeting," winding up, the annual Civic Control Day activities.

Bob Brown acted as mayor, and Tally Adams, Tom Brooks, Lillian Jackson, Dave Kennedy, John McCullough and Tom Kennedy as commissioners.

The Bloomfield Township Board last night denied a request for a zoning change which would have permitted construction of a 72-unit motel on Telegraph Road.

Holiday Inns, Inc., appealed to the board after the request was turned down by the township planning commission three weeks ago.

Plans called for a Holiday Inn to be built on the east side of Telegraph Road south of Long Lake Road.

This would require changing the section from a local business to heavy commercial zone.

The main objection of both the commission and the board was to rezoning the small parcel of property on Long Lake Road which is included in the L-shaped site.

Authority to hire a township engineer was granted to Treasurer Homer Case. The new employe would work with the building department, interpreting and enforcing building and zoning codes.

The township last night became the 12th and last member of the Evergreen sewage disposal district to approve the addition of Franklin and Bingham Farms. The two villages will now be allowed access to the district's sewer lines leading into Detroit.

Court Adjourns Henry Case

The Circuit Court arraignment of City Commissioner Milton R. Henry on a charge of felonious assault was adjourned yesterday.

Henry's appearance was rescheduled for April 2. His arraignment had been set for yesterday before Circuit Judge William J. Beer.

Henry was unable to appear because he was defending a client in a criminal case in Detroit Recorder's Court, according to Oakland County Chief Assistant Prosecutor Robert Long.

Henry is accused of hitting patrolman Neil McCormack with his pink Cadillac after McCormack arrived at the scene of a dispute between Henry and a garage owner acting for a finance company.

Henry's examination on the charge was postponed six times in Pontiac Municipal Court, four times because Henry was defending a client in federal court in Detroit.

After the examination, Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum twice postponed his ruling on whether Henry should be bound over to Circuit Court for trial.

Judge McCallum bound the city commissioner over to Circuit Court on March 20, ruling that the question of criminal intent in Henry's action was a matter for a jury.

Oxford Man Injured in Single-Car Crash

A 23-year-old Oxford man suffered an injury to his left eye early today when his car crashed into a mail box and a sign in Oxford Township.

James B. O'Henley, 81 Pleasant St., is in fair condition at Pontiac General Hospital.

Sheriff's deputies said O'Henley apparently failed to negotiate a slight curve on M24 and skidded on the wet pavement.

The accident occurred 500 feet south of Drahner Road at 5:30 a.m.

Justice Raps Court Election Setup

Michigan Supreme Court Justice Eugene F. Black was nominated for re-election this year by the Democratic party, but he's not entirely happy about it.

★ ★ ★

It's not that Black didn't want nomination. It's just that he doesn't approve of the way State Supreme Court candidates get on the ballot.

Black, whose independence in speech and judicial action has sometimes made Democrats unhappy with him, yesterday charged the state's system of nominating high court candidates makes the Supreme Court subservient to politics and the State Legislature.

Black spoke at a luncheon meeting of the Oakland County Bar Association in Pontiac. Three other candidates for the State Supreme Court in next Monday's election also were invited but were not able to attend.

★ ★ ★

High court candidates are elected on a nonpartisan ballot but are nominated by party conventions.

"Some members of the court —of both political parties," Black said, "are sent there to do the will of their parties rather than the people."

Black said he "deplored" the justices had to depend on their parties for renomination.

He claimed the system put control of the judiciary in the hands of the State Legislature, which sets the method of nominating high court candidates.

NEW-CON NO HELP'

Black said the proposed new state constitution to face voters Monday would not do much to make the judiciary independent.

The document provides that Supreme Court candidates be nominated "in the manner prescribed by law," thus still leaving it to the legislature.

However, the new constitution does provide that incumbent justices may get on the ballot for re-election merely by filing an affidavit of candidacy.

Black said the quality of the State Supreme Court and its rulings has declined since the "half-fish, half-fowl" system of nonpartisan election and partisan nomination went into effect more than 20 years ago.

★ ★ ★

Black was elected to the State Supreme Court in 1955. He previously was a circuit judge and was state attorney general in 1947 and 1948. He is from Port Huron.

OTHER CANDIDATES

The other Democratic-nominated Supreme Court candidate, Paul L. Adams, also emphasizes his independence.

Adams lost his supreme court post in the November election. He was scheduled to campaign in the Pontiac area today.

The two Republican-nominated high court candidates — Circuit Judges Richard G. Smith of Bay City and Donald E. Holbrook of Clare — spoke before the County Bar Association two weeks ago on a day-long campaign swing through Oakland County.

★ ★ ★

They are campaigning on their records on the circuit bench and urging adoption of the proposed constitution as improving the state's judicial system.

2 Detroit Hospitals Urge Blue Cross Hike

DETROIT (AP) —Officials of Grace Hospital and Sinai Hospital telegraphed State Insurance Commissioner Sherwood Colburn Monday urging quick approval of a proposed Blue Cross health insurance rate increase.

They said further delay by the commissioner would have "dire consequences" and "dangerous and demoralizing results."

"HE GREW HAIR"

Warren Feathers, Claysburg, Penna. (near Altoona), shows he regrew hair by the Lesley Home Treatment Method. He did not have male pattern baldness.

MEN AND WOMEN

Learn if Your Hair Loss Can Be Stopped and Baldness Prevented

Mr. F. I. BRODIE, representing the Lesley Hair and Scalp Consultants, will give hair and scalp consultation to hair worried men and women at the WALDRON HOTEL in PONTIAC, MICH., WEDNESDAY, only MARCH 27, 1963 from 1:00 P.M. to 8:00 P.M.

Decide today to give proper care to that prized personal appearance asset—a good head of hair. Come in and talk with the Lesley Consultant regarding your hair and scalp problems. Learn how you can treat yourself right in the privacy of your own home. Regular checkups in your city by a Lesley Consultant assure success in the minimum period of time.

If you have dandruff, excessive hair fall, thinning hair, excessive oiliness or dryness, itchy scalp, or if your scalp is still creating hair you should take positive action at once. A little time spent now may save a great deal of regret later.

You incure absolutely no charge or obligation by coming in for the consultation. We will tell you frankly and sincerely whether or not we believe you can be helped, how long it will take and how much it will cost.

If you are accepted for treatment, you will be given a written guarantee for the length of time treatment is required, on a prorated basis. Nearly half of our clients are women. Lesley Hair and Scalp Consultants have established a very high reputation in the field for refusing any case that does not fall under the scope of its work.

While male pattern baldness is the cause of the great majority of cases of baldness and excessive hair loss, for which neither Lesley treatment nor any other treatment is effective, Lesley offers you a free examination to determine whether you are one of those who can be helped.

Can Explain Quitting of Union to Workers

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Labor Relations Board ruled yesterday it is legal for an employer to explain to employes how their labor contract permits them to quit union membership.

The unanimous ruling, by a three-man panel, came in a case in which the Perkins Machine Co., Warren, Mass., sent letters to its employes containing forms for them to sign and addressed notification envelopes to the employer and Local 223 of the AFL-CIO International Union of Electrical Workers.

The union and company had a maintenance of membership contract arrangement. Employes who were union members were given annual "escape" provisions to withdraw from the obligation of union membership and dues payments through payroll checkoff.

Landowners in Georgia Warned of Fire Threat

MACON, Ga. (AP) — Georgia landowners have been asked to hold off any burning until a state fire threat eases.

James C. Turner, fire control chief for the Georgia Forestry Commission, said Monday a combination of dry windy days and very low humidity has caused an extreme fire danger in the state. He said 767 wildfires have damaged Georgia's forest since March 21.

Meteor Plunges Toward Earth; Seen by Hundreds

WASHINGTON (AP) — A meteor plummeted toward earth over the East Coast last night, its short, fiery life in the atmosphere witnessed by hundreds.

The visitor from outer space was spotted from Norfolk, Va., to Long Island Sound shortly after 10 p.m. Phones jangled in fire stations, police stations and newspaper offices as witnesses tried to learn what the glowing object was.

"At first I thought it was a plane in trouble," related one Washington area woman. "Then it looked like a flare, or a skyrocket. It had a reddish glow to it."

★ ★ ★

Georgetown University astronomers said the object was a "fireball meteor."

Asians See Red China as Threat

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U. S. government made public today a confidential survey of six Asian capitals in which 62 per cent of the individuals polled said military aggression or subversion is likely from Communist China during the 1960s.

The survey of 500 persons listed as prominent in the capitals of the Philippines, Japan, South Viet Nam, Singapore, Burma and Thailand was made by the U. S. Information Agency in 1960 and stamped "confidential." The three-year classification rule expired yesterday.

The survey also showed:

—thirty-three per cent thought the United States was exerting "too much pressure" in Southeast Asia, while 19 per cent said the same of Communist China.

★ ★ ★

The widespread belief that the Red Chinese would move militarily in the area was born out last fall when Chinese troops crossed Indian borders.

INTERVIEWED

In response to interviews, 44 per cent foresaw increased economic penetration by Communist China and 45 per cent named it as the Asian country which would exert the greatest economic influence in Southeast Asia during the decade.

More than half of those interviewed thought the growth of communism in Asia would be "most harmful" to their country. Four of every 10 picked economic reforms as the "most beneficial' changes that could be made in Southeast Asia.

Only 2 per cent thought an increase of Communist power would be best for their area.

★ ★ ★

In comparisons between India and Communist China, 71 per cent thought India had more to offer its people than Communist China could offer the Chinese.

Ex-Gov. Knight Wants California for Rockefeller

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Former California Gov. Goodwin J. Knight says he will open a Rockefeller-for-President office here Wednesday.

Rochester Council Action

Study of 'Park' Reopening

By ROGER SRIGLEY

ROCHESTER—With the rap of the gavel by new President John Boeberitz last night, the village council reactivated its study of a proposed industrial park here.

However, Boeberitz and Councilman Dr. John Terry reaffirmed their objection to the urban renewal plan under which the park would be constructed.

Consideration of the project was brought up after the unanimous election of Boeberitz as president and new councilman Kenneth C. VanNocker as president pro tem.

Edward Hustoles, representing village planning consultants Vilican Leman & Associates, Inc., brought the new councilmen up to date on the status of the urban renewal planning.

★ ★ ★

He pointed out that a village-wide study has been completed by the Southfield consulting firm, a workable program has been submitted to the council and a project area has been determined.

★ ★ ★

The planners chose the area adjacent to Third street for the site.

Representatives of the Federal Housing Administration have visited the area, Hustoles said.

The Vilican-Leman representative stated at a previous meeting that the village would logically and legally qualify for a federal grant.

On Nov. 26, the village council voted to apply for a $62,660 federal grant to cover survey and planning costs for the project.

BIAS VOTE REVERSED

At a session three months later, the council voted 4 to 3 against addition of a nondiscrimination clause to the application for planning funds.

The Urban Renewal Administration was asking that the phrase be added to all grant applications.

Boeberitz and Dr. Terry at that time voted against addition of the clause, stating they did so as a tool to kill the urban renewal plans.

Last night the vote for addition of the clause was unanimous, although both Dr. Terry and Boeberitz said they were voting for the clause, but remained opposed to urban renewal.

The survey and planning application is now at the Chicago regional office of the Urban Renewal Administration.

The review of the project application will proceed, and upon its expected approval a detailed planning phase will be undertaken.

After the initial study or Final Project Report, is completed, it will be submitted to the Urban Renewal administrator.

Following its approval a public hearing will be conducted. Then the council must make a final decision on proceeding with execution of the project or dropping it.

Asked if the village must pay back the $62,660 used for planning, should the council decide against the project, Hustoles offered this answer.

"Technically, the village is obligated to pay back the loan—however in administrative procedure this is not done."

He said only one community had been requested to pay back the grant, and that was because the city was well into the execution stage when it decided to drop the plans.

★ ★ ★

Included in the renewal project are the straightening of Paint Creek, the elimination of Third Street and the construction of two new bridges to replace the old ones in that section of town.

It was previously estimated that the total renewal program would cost $728,000, three fourths of which would be paid by the federal government.

Farmington's School Board OKs Record Budget for '63-64

FARMINGTON — The board of education last night approved a 1963-64 school budget of $4,836,146 the largest in its history.

The budget is approximately $750,000 larger than the estimated expenditures for this year.

Supt. G. V. Harrison said the approved figure represents about a one per cent cut from the budget prepared by the administrative staff. Additional funds were requested because of an anticipated boom in enrollment, Harrison said.

The district expects to have about 800 more students next year. Additional teaching personnel, supplies and equipment will be needed for the enlarged district, Harrison said.

FOR SALARIES, TOO

"The budget also calls for some improvements in the salary schedule," he said. It is hoped that the teachers' wages can be brought more in line with those in neighboring districts.

★ ★ ★

The major portion of the $58,293 cut in the proposed budget was in eight accounts. The largest single item to be slashed was a $22,408 request for three assistant principals in the junior high schools.

★ ★ ★

The board cut some capital expenditures which were considered improvements over existing programs rather than necessary facilities for the growing district. These included funds for improvement of grounds, buildings and teaching facilities.

★ ★ ★

The budget was prepared on a state equalized valuation for the district of $100 million, which is about $2½ million higher than that set for the district last year.

School officials said they believe the estimate is conservative and the budget will require no increase in the tax rate.

★ ★ ★

Their figures are based on the assumption that the county tax allocation board will allow the school system the same levy it did last year.

3,199 Names on Petition for Oak Park Millage Hike

OAK PARK — At least 3,199 residents here are interested in voting on a proposed increase in school millage.

A petition bearing that many signatures — more than twice the number necessary — was to be presented to the board of education this morning by the Survey Our Schools (SOS) Committee.

The petition would force the board to request a 3.5-mill tax increase on the June 10 ballot.

★ ★ ★

The SOS Committee is particularly concerned with opening the new junior high school now under construction at Scotia and Nine-Mile roads.

Two recent millage increase proposals were defeated at the polls.

The necessary number of signatures, plus 1,699 extra, was collected in 10 days. The committee had been given until next Monday to present the petition for the April 4 meeting of the board.

An official statement on the intentions of the committee will accompany the petition, according to Abraham Brickner, chairman.

Truck Weight Curbs Imposed in State

LANSING (AP) — Truck weight restrictions were imposed on all highways in Michigan effective at noon yesterday by the State Highway Department.

★ ★ ★

There will be no restrictions on regular loads for highways designated as all-season routes. The restrictions are imposed during the spring thaw to prevent highway break-up.

★ ★ ★

Weight restrictions were put into effect earlier this month from the Ohio and Indiana State Lines as far north as a line from Muskegon to Port Sanilac.

33,000 Sign for Plan to Divert Grain Acreage

EAST LANSING (AP) — Signups for the 1963 U.S. feed grain program in Michigan are estimated at nearly 33,000, according to officials of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Participating growers agreed to divert an estimated 500,000 acres in 1962, 39,897 growers diverted 676,000 acres from feed-grain production under the program.

Will Describe Ideal School

Consultant to Speak in W. Bloomfield Twp.

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Dr. Russell Wilson, of the Bureau of School Services, University of Michigan, will address the West Bloomfield Schools Citizens Advisory Committee tomorrow in the high school library.

Specializing in the physical requirements of school buildings, Dr. Wilson will give a graphic description of the physical features and qualifications of the ideal high school building at the 8 p.m. session.

Having previously toured the West Bloomfield High School and the Roosevelt Elementary School, Dr. Wilson will discuss possible improvements and ultimate usage of these two buildings as a nucleus in an expanding school development plan.

Composite aerial photographs of the school district area as requested by the steering committee will not be available until next Monday, a committee spokesman said.

With the aid of township maps the group will attempt to select qualified areas for proposed schools, but specific locations will be deferred until the aerial photographs are available for study.

Although the Citizens Advisory Committee has completed a large portion of its assigned study, the meetings are still open to any area residents who wish to attend.

Juvenile Issue Headed for Court

DETROIT (AP)—Wayne County Juvenile Court Judge James H. Lincoln says he plans to ask the courts to compel the state to accept juvenile delinquents committed by his court to state institutions.

The Democratic judge, who accused Republican Gov. George Romney and the legislature of failure to provide sufficient funds for such institutions, disclosed his course of action yesterday.

Earlier in the day, Lincoln sought to dramatize the lack of facilities by dumping a busload of 20 "aggressively delinquent boys" on the Boys Training Branch at Whitmore Lake.

★ ★ ★

Officials of the state school accepted four boys under a weekly county quota system and turned 16 away, just as they had said they would.

The 16 were returned to the Wayne County Youth Home to be released to their parents.

★ ★ ★

Judge Lincoln then announced that he will try through the county prosecutor to bring a court action, probably a mandamus suit, to force the state to take custody of juvenile offenders sent from Wayne County. Lincoln said his action will have a precedent in Ohio.

SUPREME COURT UPHOLDS

The Ohio Supreme Court on Jan. 31, 1962 upheld Hamilton County Juvenile Court Judge Benjamin Schwartz of Cincinnati in his suit to break the quota system.

★ ★ ★

The quota had been set in 1961 on the Boys Industrial School at Lancaster on orders of Michael V. DiSalle, who was then governor.

DiSalle wanted the school's inmates reduced from 850 to 500 boys to give them more intensive, longer treatment.

Lincoln said Romney and the legislature should give priority to completion of Whitemore Lake buildings to house 438 more boys. He said this would mean an appropriation of $3.8 million this year as the first step instead of the $1.6 million recommended.

New Postponement of Ex-Officer's Trial?

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP — Whether the trial of former police Lt. Anniah Ruffin on six charges of bribery and extortion will begin as scheduled tomorrow in Oakland County Circuit Court was uncertain today.

★ ★ ★

Robert Long, Oakland County chief assistant prosecutor, said the trial may be postponed again because one of Ruffin's attorneys, Milton R. Henry of Pontiac, was defending a client in a criminal case in Detroit Recorder's Court.

The trial was originally set for March 13, but was rescheduled because Henry was then appearing in federal court.

Emmett J. Traylor of Pontiac also is defending Ruffin in the case.

Ruffin, 41, was arrested by state police last October in what County Prosecutor George Taylor called "an over-all clean-up of the township."

★ ★ ★

Ruffin is accused of taking bribes to permit gambling in the township. He was arrested after he met a numbers racket operator who gave him $25 in marked bills, according to police.

The numbers operator claimed he paid Ruffin $25 a month for two years, police said.

Ruffin is charged specifically with extortion, conspiracy to obstruct justice, bribery, conspiracy to violate state gambling laws, conspiracy to commit bribery and soliciting a bribe.

★ ★ ★

State police arrested Township Trustee Ernest Wilson shortly after Ruffin's arrest. Wilson is awaiting Circuit Court trial on charges of bribery and conspiracy.

Henry also is Wilson's attorney.

Village Posts to Be Retained

ROCHESTER — The village council here agreed last night to retain the present village manager, attorney and clerk in their present capacities.

When the issue came up, new trustee John O'Donnell moved to dispense with any formal action on the positions of Village Manager Paul York, Clerk Maxine Ross and Attorney Arthur Cox as not required "at this time."

In other business the council requested Cox to prepare an ordinance, for council approval, which would restrict the operating hours of drive-in restaurants in the village.

Also at last night's session a Class C Liquor License was given to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cromie, for the Paint Creek Tavern, 613 N. Main St.

Suspicious Senate Debates Purge Bill

LANSING (AP) — A bill aimed at purging extremists who capture offices in political organizations came under close scrutiny in the Senate yesterday, with both Democrats and Republicans questioning its wisdom.

The measure — sought by Gov. George Romney — would pave the way for the expulsion of officers of state central, district and county committees with a two-thirds vote of the membership.

Removal proceedings could be started by a resolution signed by 20 per cent of the members.

★ ★ ★

Action on the proposal was postponed after Sen. William Ford, D-Taylor, said it would open the door to "the same sort of thing that is done in Russia."

The bill is the outgrowth of a political struggle last year between Romney and Richard Durant, a former member of the ultra-conservative John Birch Society and chairman of the GOP's 14th District organization.

Romney failed in an effort to wrest control of the district from Durant, who said that although he had quit the Birch society he still embraced its philosophy.

★ ★ ★

In a speech to the Republican convention last August, Romney decried the absence of a law under which the parties could "expel a so-called political leader whose real allegiance may be to another organization or society."

ROMNEY VOWS ACTION

Romney pledged that as governor he would do everything he could to bring new legislation into effect to deal with such situations in the future.

He declared: "I want legislation that will make possible the prompt removal of any party officeholder who — by false allegiance, by cheap duplicity or by other political trickery — proves himself unworthy of the leadership to which he has been elected."

The bill debated in the Senate provides that the officer whose removal is sought has the right to be heard by members of the unit he heads.

One GOP lawmaker questioned the provision under which the central committee chairman or vice chairman could be removed by a two-thirds vote of the state central committee membership.

He told a reporter that this would give the committee veto power over the party's state convention, which elects the officers.

And Sen. Clyde Geerlings, R-Holland, said he felt the requirement of the number of signatures needed to get removal proceedings under way should be increased from 20 per cent to 40 per cent, or even a majority.

Firemen Plan Penny Dinner

ADDISON TOWNSHIP — The Addison Township fire department will stage its annual penny supper Saturday evening at the Leonard Elementary School.

Proceeds from the 6 p.m. event will go toward payment of the firemen's insurance policy.

Twenty members of the department and their wives are working on the dinner. The firemen will be there in uniform, many of them serving while others wait on tables.

Junior Editors Quiz on GRASS

QUESTION: How can grass keep growing when it's always being cut?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Grass is composed of millions of complete little plants such as we see in (3), with roots, leaves and flowers (we don't see the flowers if the grass has been mowed).

Grasses are the world's most important and widely distributed flowering plants. They are important because they furnish food for cattle, sheep and horses (4) and also because grasses grow thickly together into the heavy mat called sod.

This protects the soil from blowing away and helps keep moisture in the ground. Grasses can mat in this way because they not only send out long roots but also underground stems called "rhizomes." Some grasses, instead of rhizomes, send out stems which grow along the surface of the soil called "stolons" (3).

Many new plants start from the stolons and rhizomes. This means that even if the flowering part is cut off, grass sod can keep on growing and getting thicker. This is how lawns grow when the lawnmowers shave off the tops of grass plants.

FOR YOU TO DO: Explore the world inside tall grass (1) but be careful not to get lost or injure a farmer's crops. Even more interesting is to get a magnifying glass and investigate the tiny world beneath the lawn (2). All sorts of things are going on down there!

Judge Matthias Puts Lot of Meaning Into Oath

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Judge John M. Matthias used a family Bible when he took the oath of office for another six-year term on the Ohio Supreme Court. It was opened to the Book of Acts, first chapter, 26th verse:

"And they gave forth their lots, and the lot fell upon Matthias, and he was numbered with the 11 apostles."

REPORT FROM MOTOR TREND EXPERTS ON THE '63 RAMBLERS:

"prove their mettle...reliability, performance in actual testing"

1963 Rambler Classic Cross Country Station Wagon

RAMBLER 6 or V8 MOTOR TREND'S "Car of the Year"

Rattle-free, stronger Advanced Unit Construction, the years-ahead breakthrough in car building. Massive unisides replaces many small parts.

Safest stops. Double-Safety Brakes, "in effect, separate systems, one for front, one for rear wheels."

23.1 m.p.g. was averaged by the Classic 6 with E-Stick automatic clutch in 1,000-mile test.

MOTOR TREND Magazine's auto experts never handle the "Car of the Year" with kid gloves.

"We want to make sure the car is worthy of the title in performance, dependability, buyer satisfaction," they said.

They found that Rambler's Advanced Unit Construction is "so strong it'll take punishment longer . . . hold its resale value." They slammed Ramblers over back-country roads and reported, "rough roads can be stormed with confidence . . . there isn't any pitch or choppiness noticeable."

They applauded Rambler's styling, "lean, clean lines" . . . and Rambler's outstanding quality.

Of course, there were many other things they liked. They summed it up, "an even better value than before."

American Motors—Dedicated to Excellence

ONLY RAMBLER OFFERS ALL THESE EXTRA VALUES: Exclusive up-to-the-roof Deep-Dip rustproofing on all Ramblers. • Ceramic-Armored exhaust system—designed to last as long as original buyer owns the car. • Room for six 6-footers in Rambler Classic 6 or V-8 and Ambassador V-8. • Tri-Poised Power—engine is cushion-balanced to smother vibration.

Con Con to Revitalize Judiciary

The judicial branch of our State government is notably strengthened and broadened under the proposed new constitution.

Most significant of the many remedial provisions are:

● Reduction of the Supreme Court from eight to seven members.

● Establishment of an appellate court.

● Elimination of the justice of the peace and Circuit Court commissioner system.

● Freeing of incumbent judges from nominating campaigns for retention of their posts.

★ ★ ★

The first of these provisions needs little elaboration. It will preclude many of the split decisions that have occurred in the past, thus contributing to the effectiveness and finality of Supreme Court rulings.

The second authorizes establishment of an appellate court — intermediate between circuit courts and the Supreme Court.

★ ★ ★

Such a court is needed to facilitate broadened rights of appeal, elsewhere provided for.

Under the present constitution, litigants in civil suits have, except in a few special cases, automatic right of appeal; whereas in criminal cases, appeal is contingent upon "leave to appeal" by the Supreme Court.

Adoption of the appellate court into the State's judicial system would, to some extent, be related to the extension of automatic right of appeal because the number of appeals would thereby be increased.

★ ★ ★

Since the Supreme Court is unable to adequately handle its expanding docket, the new court is needed to relieve the highest tribunal from a part of the anticipated increase in the volume of appeals.

Regardless of that contingency, however, there is present need for the additional court division, rooted in simple population mathematics. The more populous the state, the more the court actions, with corresponding ratio of appeals.

★ ★ ★

Of the 13 states which have appellate courts, six have larger populations than Michigan's, seven have smaller.

The third refinement is the elimination of justices of the peace and Circuit Court commissioners and the abolition of the fee system as compensation for judges of primary courts — considered by many an archaic form of juridical administration.

This branch of the judiciary would be replaced by a system of "courts of limited jurisdiction" established by the legislature with the Supreme Court stipulating procedural rules.

★ ★ ★

Last, there is the exclusion of the present inconsistency whereby incumbent judges campaign for renomination on party lines but run for reelection as nonpartisan candidates.

★ ★ ★

This departure would further judicial and political independence for judges by enabling them to qualify for re-election by merely filing an "affidavit of candidacy."

★ ★ ★

In commending the treatment given the judicial as well as the other areas encompassed in the proposed document, we earnestly advocate its acceptance by the voters on April 1.

Government Fibbing Worse Than 'Silence'

President KENNEDY's administration has been severely criticized for "management" of news.

This is Washington-ese for lying.

Focal point of the discussion is the pap that was given out during the Cuban missile ruckus.

★ ★ ★

The American public, through newspapers and radio, were spoon-fed a pack of lies, under the guise of national security.

Beneath all the fuss and feathers, congressional hearings, charges and countercharges, there is a basic fact that everyone concerned seems to want to avoid.

★ ★ ★

If you can't tell the truth — for security or other reasons—you don't have to lie.

It's not the law of the land.

It may seem odd for a newspaper to suggest that news sources "clam up," but silence is much more palatable than falsehoods.

★ ★ ★

Such silence certainly leads to speculation, some of which may be quite erroneous and possibly damaging.

But the damage wouldn't be nearly as bad as the loss of faith by the public when the Government admits to lying.

★ ★ ★

The next step beyond this loss is a change in mental attitude from "Is the Government fibbing this time?" to "Is the Government telling the truth this time?"

Baseball Not Only in Air, It's in The Press' Mail

By HOWARD HELDENBRAND

Well! Now I know just how Santa Claus feels beginning, say, December 1 . . . lots of mail, you see.

The announcement of our baseball contest as usual made a big hit, and is off to a running start. Indications are that everyone with enough diamond savvy to know that a "single" is not just an unmarried adult, has designs on the $500 U.S. Savings Bond (double past years' award).

• • •

But for the benefit of those who came in late, all you have to do to get into the line-up is to note on a postal card (or card of similar size) your prediction of the American League batter, officially at the plate 25 times or more, who will be leading the league the evening of May 10 and his batting average at that time.

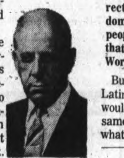
David Lawrence Says:

Oust Latin Reds; Start With Cuba

WASHINGTON — Will the United States permit a complete Communist takeover of Central and South America similar to what has already happened in Cuba?



LAWRENCE

One by one the Latin American countries are currently being subjected to the most intensive penetration by the Soviet government. What is the answer?

The problem is really nonpolitical. It is every day becoming more difficult to handle. Billions of dollars are being taken away from the taxpayers of the United States annually to support so-called foreign aid programs on all continents.

Almost everyone familiar with the situation agrees that financial aid of some kind from the United States is essential to thwart the Communist intrusions in the internal affairs of various countries to the south of us.

When the United States lends or gives money to another country, however, the Washington government cannot exercise complete control over what happens to such funds.

★ ★ ★

The spread of communism in Latin America is due largely to economic conditions that have long prevailed there. Poverty and a low standard of living provide fertile areas for Communist infiltration.

Weak governments, influenced by selfish leaders, have retarded progress. Even in a country as friendly to the United States as Brazil has been for the last 150 years or more, there is today a threat of a Communist takeover.

Guatemala is also in peril. Argentina and Chile have had their Communist troubles, too. It certainly is time for a much more forceful policy toward Communist sabotage and subversion than the United States has thus far been willing to adopt.

★ ★ ★

It will be argued, of course, that public opinion in Latin America is opposed to any armed intervention by this country, and that the Communists will capitalize on such a step.

★ ★ ★

But although the Latin countries were at first dismayed by the attempted invasion at the Bay of Pigs, many of the leaders of various governments to the south of us now have seen the light and want Cuba freed from the Communist yoke by any means possible.

The United States inevitably has to take the risk of offending the Kremlin, and can adopt the very contention that nations have put forward in the past—respect for international rights.

To protect American property by force, if necessary, is a right granted under international law. It involves a decision that has to be made sooner or later.

★ ★ ★

Under the Monroe Doctrine, the United States has maintained that no European power shall be permitted to establish a base or its "system" in this hemisphere. Historical precedent under international law therefore would justify a move to rid Cuba of Communist troops, technicians and subversive organizations as well.

What the United States does or fails to do in Cuba is directly related to the future freedom of all the Latin American peoples. The cry will be raised that intervention could bring on World War III.

But a Communist takeover of Latin America, including Mexico, would mean a world war just the same. So it's a question of not what shall be done, but when.

All signs today point to a Communist conquest of the Latin countries of this hemisphere if the United States continues to wait for the weak Organization of American States to act, or mistakenly delay action until the Communists have built another wall around all of Latin America just as they have around West Berlin.

Cuba is the natural place for an early showdown with communism in this hemisphere.

Bob Considine Says:

Gen. Clay Citizen's Hero; Asks Cut in Foreign Aid

NEW YORK—The last three administrations and the people of the U.S. owe proper gratitude to Lucius Clay.

CONSIDINE

He was enormously helpful to Harry Truman on the scene during the Berlin airlift, a member of Dwight Eisenhower's closest circle of advisers and John Kennedy's Man in Berlin during the tense days when The Wall was built.

Now Gen. Clay and his committee assigned to study foreign aid have returned a report that an overwhelming majority of U.S. taxpayers will hail.

His group sees an opportunity and, indeed, an obligation to cut $500 million from our overseas dole of $3.9 billion. The President, who appointed the committee, has asked Congress to tilt the figure to $4.9 billion for the coming fiscal year.

The President said he found "very heartening . . . the committee's expression of support for properly administered mutual defense and development programs."

CRITICAL OF PHILOSOPHY

Actually, the report was critical of the foreign aid philosophy that has built up since the Marshall Plan. It most likely will doom this administration's hope of getting more foreign aid out of a very mulish Congress. The report is laced with such barbs as these:

". . . We are trying to do too much for too many too soon . . . We are overextended in resources and undercompensated in results . . . No end of foreign aid is either in sight or mind.

". . . We cannot believe that our national interest is being served by indefinitely continuing commitments at the present rate to the 95 countries and territories which are now receiving our economic and/or military assistance.

★ ★ ★

". . . We believe the U.S. should not aid a foreign government in projects establishing government-owned industrial and commercial enterprises which compete with existing private endeavors."

The report scoffed at a hallowed cliche of all three Cold War administrations: That the emerging nations will automatically become Communist unless we ladle them great aid.

"We cannot accept this view," the blunt report to President Kennedy read. "We believe these new countries value their independence and do not wish to acquire a new master in place of the old one; there already have been instances on the African continent to corroborate this belief."

Students Suggest Support of Proposed Constitution

In the race for the University of Michigan Board of Regents, William Cudlip of Grosse Pointe and Ink White of St. Johns have made a joint plea strongly urging public approval of the proposed constitution and its education article, while both their incumbent opponents are opposed to the document.

It is difficult for us as students of the University to conceive how candidates for the post of a university policy maker can stand opposed to the public's acceptance of a constitution that contains an education article lauded by professional and prominent educators across the state, including the Michigan Education Association, MSU President Hannah, WSU President Hilberry, CMU President Emeritus Anspach and the University's own President Harlan Hatcher.

'NAACP Working for Everyone'

To "Disgusted" and "W.C.L.A." there are about 1,500 members of the Oakland County Branch of the NAACP who are trying as best they can, with what they have to work with, to better the lives of some 600,000 whites and Negroes living here. The fact that Negroes and whites still murder each other, still rob, steal, break and enter, is a tragedy with which we are greatly concerned, but one that is not limited to one race. The NAACP has never encouraged lawlessness. To the contrary, it insists upon adherence by whites and Negroes to the law of the land all over the country.

The NAACP is working to increase employment, political and other opportunities for Negroes. It is trying to give our Negro youngsters goals for their lives, to lift their sights to higher grounds. All of our critics cannot erase or minimize the contributions we have made to America.

'Why Not Close Private Schools?'

"Wondering" uses the threat to swamp the public schools with private school students. Our excellent public school system could and would absorb these students and provide them with possibly a better education than they now receive.

★ ★ ★

In our school district 25 per cent of the school - age children attend private schools. The swamping by private school students entertained by "Wondering" would increase the teacher classroom load from 25 to 32 pupils. Is this higher teacher load something to panic over?

I would welcome the private school students back to the democratically run public school systems.

Draft Act Ignores Youth Problem

BY PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Extension of the Selective Service law for another four years is breezing through Congress, but with blinders. It is a straight renewal of the act expiring June 30.

Apparently no one sat back and took a look at this as part of the whole "youth" problem. The toughest part of the nation's biggest problem — unemployment of young people and the disturbing high school and college dropout rates.

EDSON

The draft act doesn't touch these problems.

Nobody wants a Hitler Youth Corps or a Young Communist League, with every youngster registered and assigned to some service. But short of that, it may take an awful lot of good management to handle the U.S. youth problem of the late '60s.

In 1962 there were 700,000 young people out of school and out of work. The number is expected to grow to a million by 1970 unless something is done.

FAVOR YOUNGER DRAFT

American Farm Bureau Federation, carrying out a 1959 policy resolution, testified this year in favor of drafting men aged 18 to 22 instead of 23 to 26, as is now done. Matt Triggs, AFB legislative counsel, testified this change would cause less disruption.

But an amendment to do this was defeated in the House.

Selective Service now registers about 1.4 million young men a year. Only 120,000 are drafted.

The older men are taken first because the armed services don't want draftees competing with the 600,000 volunteers they recruit every year, aged 17 to 22. The draft law acts as an incentive to younger men to enlist and get their military service over.

Also, Selective Service System wants to give men up to 22 every opportunity to complete college. Deferments are given to teachers and skilled technical workers as well.

BIGGEST EMPLOYERS

U.S. armed forces are therefore the biggest employers of young men.

The five youth programs proposed by the Kennedy administration would soak up only 40,000 to 50,000 unemployed youths a year.

This won't begin to solve the problem.

The Peace Corps now has about 3,000 volunteer men and women under 25 on its rolls. The number may be 5,000 by the end of the year.

The men will have to report to their draft boards after their two years of service. Peace Corps director Sargent Shriver Jr., wanted it that way so that the organization wouldn't be a draft-dodger haven.

The manpower training and development program now has about 3,000 young people enrolled. This will grow.

Now under consideration by Congress is the Youth Conservation Corps. It would recruit 15,000 the first year.

★ ★ ★

The proposed National Service Corps — the so-called domestic Peace Corps—would recruit only 500 workers the first year, 5,000 by the end of the third year. Less than half would be young people.

This ratio also would apply to the 40,000 volunteers in the proposed Home Town Service Corps.

GOP OPPOSITION

All these programs are meeting Republican opposition. Rep. Jerry Ford of Michigan, GOP Policy Committee chairman, and Rep. Peter Freylinghuysen Jr. of New Jersey, speaking for GOP Education Committee members, oppose the Youth Corps because it would cost $100 million the first year, $260 million when in full operation.

As alternatives they propose first "a study of laws and regulations restricting youth employment." It sounds a little like seeing if child labor and minimum wage laws will stretch.

Second, they would expand the vocational education program, which already costs $54 million a year.

Third, they would expand the Manpower Retraining act to permit use of more than 5 per cent of its funds for youth.

Finally, they would expand opportunities for youth employment by the National Park Service and the U.S. Forest Service.

Details haven't been worked out very carefully. But at first glance it looks like just another formula which would cost about as much as the Youth Corps and probably not do much more good.

U.S., Russ to Try Again; Berlin Talks Start Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and the Sovie Union today resume exploratory talks on Berlin.

★ ★ ★

Only one session is definitely planned: an afternoon meeting between Soviet Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin and Secretary of State Dean Rusk. The object is to see if serious East-West negotiations on Berlin are possible.

★ ★ ★

U.S. officials firmly declined to speculate about the possible outcome of the meeting. But they said privately they expect Dobrynin to expand on Soviet Premier Khrushchev's recent suggestion that the flags of the three Western occupying powers in West Berlin be replaced by the U.N. banner.

In proposing last January that new exploratory talks be held, Moscow gave no indication it is planning to make new proposals.

OTHER ISSUES

The Soviets, it is believed here, want to keep this channel of communications open not necessarily on Berlin alone. Dobrynin, some U.S. specialists feel, might bring up other issues, such as the Kremlin's old proposal for a nonaggression pact between the Atlantic alliance and the Communist bloc.

All this, officials stress, is little more than guessing.

Probes and negotiations dating back to the end of World War II have failed to produce any Berlin solution. The last series of U.S.-Soviet talks broke down last October, just before the Cuban crisis.

Leader Taught 'Bearded One' Law

He Seeks Union of Cubans to Crush Castro

(EDITOR'S NOTE — What sort of man could unify the various anti-Castro factions in Cuba into a single force? Cuban exile spokesmen have indicated growing support from within Cuba for Dr. Carlos Marquez Sterling.)

By ANDREW MEISELS

NEW YORK (AP) — A distinguished-looking man who knew Fidel Castro as a boy and taught him law at Havana University now seeks a union of all Cubans to overthrow the Castro regime.

"Two revolutionary groups cannot overthrow Castro," said Dr. Carlos Marquez Sterling. "Certainly, five groups cannot do it. If all Cubans unite with the same leader and the same program, then the defeat of Castro will be possible—perhaps not in two or three months, but in six months or a year."

* * *

Marquez Sterling reportedly has widespread support from within Cuba to be the leader of a unified struggle against Castro, according to some exiles in this country.

He has said he would be willing to lead such a struggle—provided his countrymen want him to. "If not," he said, "I would be pleased to support any man acceptable to the Cubans. I have no political embitions after Castro is overthrown. I seek only the freedom of my country."

CALM OPPOSITION

At 60, Marquez Sterling can look back on a life of opposition to a series of Cuban governments. In 1933, he fought in the revolution that overthrew dictator Gerardo Machado. He opposed the regime of President Fulgencio Batista—"but politically, not as a revolutionary," he adds.

His opposition to Castro is just as calm and just as unswerving.

"I have nothing against Fidel personally," he said. "He was a student of mine at Havana University. He was a friend of my eldest son. But I never liked his extremely radical ideas."

* * *

A ruggedly handsome man with steel gray hair combed straight back, Marquez Sterling spoke in English with a heavy Spanish accent at an interview Monday night in his comfortable Manhattan apartment.

DR. CARLOS STERLING

"Unity among the revolutionaries in Cuba is difficult, since they are not always in communication," he said. "But recently a person came here from Cuba via Mexico and said the revolutionary groups had taken a secret poll and that I had received a majority of votes to lead the Cuban struggle.

WILL ACCEPT

"If this is truly so, I told this person, then I will accept that responsibility. I would even go back to Cuba to aid in the struggle. But I will not be the leader of just one faction."

If a unified group can be formed said Marquez Sterling, it will try for United States recognition and support.

A member of the Cuban House of Representatives from 1936 to 1944, Marquez Sterling presided over the constitutional assembly that drew up the Cuban constitution of 1940. He describes himself as a "progressive dedicated to a democratic form of government."

* * *

"I am neither a conservative nor an extreme radical," he continued. "I have always been in favor of land reform and legal protection of workers' rights. I drafted a law to give land to the peasants, and I was the author of legislation to guarantee every Cuban worker a month's vacation a year."

Marquez Sterling ran for the Cuban senate in 1952, but that election was canceled by the coup d'etat that returned Batista to power. He opposed Batista through membership in the Partido del Pueblo Cubano — Cuban Peoples' Party — of which Castro also was a member.

* * *

He ran for president in 1958 but the counting of the votes, he says kindly, "was not very well done." Shortly thereafter came the Castro revolution. Marquez Sterling took asylum in the Venezuelan Embassy and subsequently fled the country because, he said, "I knew what to expect. I know Castro very, very well."

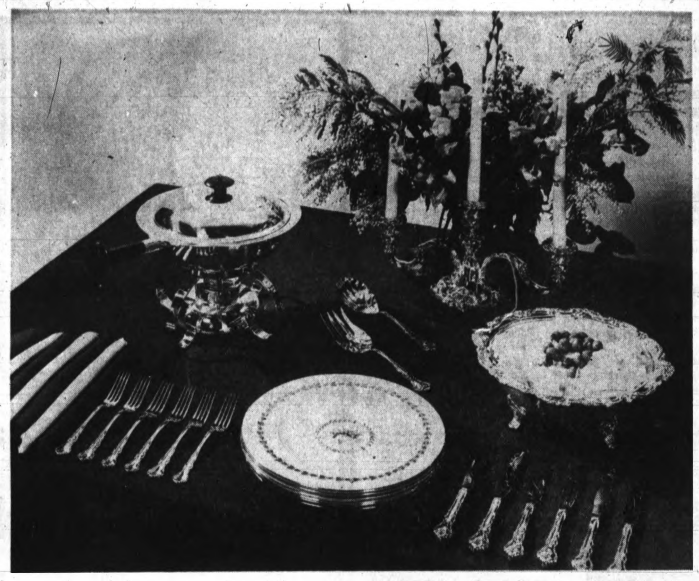
Today's Brides Aren't Hiding Traditional Wedding Silver



A silver chafing-dish and salad in a silver bowl add charm to a buffet table set with Reed and Barton's "Savannah" sterling flatware placed on either side of dinner plates. The elegant three-branch candelabrum lifts white candles against an arrangement of iris, acacia and snapdragons.

By MADELEINE DOEREN

Sterling silver has been associated with marriage and homemaking since ancient times when men paid for their wives with silver coins.

The traditional gift of sterling flatware from the bride's parents had its origin in the golden age of Greece.

In more modern times, contemporaries of Paul Revere ordered gleaming holloware to grace even the simplest of New England homes.

Many determined young brides carried a single silver teapot or brace of silver spoons through three months of "Westward Ho!" across the prairies.

A recent study by the Jewelry Industry Council shows a growing interest in beautiful table silver.

As food preparation becomes easier, demanding less time and talent, the bride turns her thoughts to her table appointments. She uses more fine silver and uses it more often, perhaps, than her mother did, the council claims.

Mixing patterns is also a growing trend. Homemakers choose what appeals to them most and may combine a Victorian silver teapot with modern china and glassware, reflecting their own taste, the council reports.

* * *

Wedding silver, or any silver for that matter, was never given to be hidden away. It should be lived with and used every day, rotating the pieces.

They grow old gracefully, acquiring a patina or mellow surface sheen that no amount of dark storage can give.

Drawers lined with tarnish-proof material and a cloth impregnated with jeweler's rouge for on-the-spot stain treatment help keep silver bright.

There are a number of liquid and paste products for more thorough cleaning. One new liquid cleans and puts a tarnish-resisting film on the silver.

TYPES OF PATTERNS

Names of silver patterns, carefully chosen like book titles, are romantic and descriptive. Reed and Barton's "Dimension," boldly plain with no laid-on ornamentation, depends entirely on shaping for its charm.

Placed flat on the table, as etiquette dictates, the handle lies upright. Looking down on it, the handsome long line of its narrower side is seen while to those seated, the wider flat side is in profile.

"Dimension" is at home with early American backgrounds or modern settings because of its simplicity and independence from period.

* * *

The one long smooth curve of 'Esprit," by Gorham suggests floral china, simple stemware on plain hemstitched linen place mats or unpatterned tablecloth.

* * *

"Savannah" with its carved floral design by Reed and Barton, makes one think southern! Use it with plain china and cut crystal stemware.

* * *

Space-age lines distinguish International's five-piece place setting titled "Vision." Handles turned at right angles are simpler to hold and give better balance and grace.

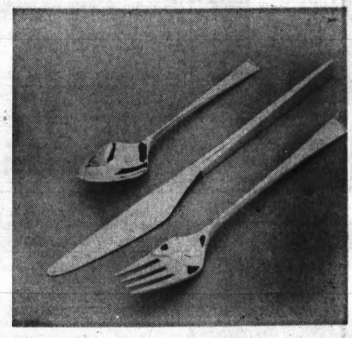
* * *

Heirloom's very latest "Belle Rose" in smooth, contemporary design softens "functional modern." Deep-carved and raised, the full-blown rose on each tapered handle brings out the pure gleam of solid silver.

* * *

The informal buffet-style luncheon or dinner simplifies entertaining when the hostess invites several guests. It also creates a real need for substantial numbers of silver pieces; hence, the growing practice of buying or giving forks, knives and spoons in units of 12.

While silver used for each course should match, dessert pieces and serving accessories can be added in a complementary pattern.



Trend-setting feature in sterling silver design is "Dimension" by Reed and Barton, plain, with handles slanted and squared at the tip. Curved, spoon and fork bowls create light and shadow patterns which add up to design drama for the hostess.

Let Friend Know She Can't Go

By the Emily Post Institute

Q: How can I tell a dear friend that she can't go along with us on a trip we are planning to take this summer? If all goes well, my husband and I are going to take a motor trip out west when he gets his vacation.

When I mentioned this to my friend, she included herself by saying, "I hope I can save enough money by then to go along with you."

This will be the first vacation my husband and I have been able to take in five years and we did want to go alone—sort of a second honeymoon.

Will you please tell me how I can handle this situation tactfully and not hurt her feelings?

* * *

A: In the first place, with no suggestion from you, she should not have invited herself to go along.

But as she has, the only thing you can do is to tell her frankly that much as you would like her to go along with you, this will be the first time in five years you and your husband have been able to take a vacation together and that John is looking forward to the trip as a sort of a second honeymoon.

Surely your friend will understand and not be hurt.

Q: We have recently moved to a new community. Several days ago a neighbor called at our house but I was not at home. She left her visiting card. I would like to know what I am supposed to do now. It is the next move up to me?

* * *

A: She has shown that she welcomes you to the community and you should now call at her house and explain how sorry you are that you were not at home when she called.

Q: Is it proper for a girl to accept jewelry from a boy to whom she is not engaged?

A: A girl may not accept jewelry of value from a boy to whom she is not engaged. Inexpensive "costume" jewelry would be acceptable.

* * *

The clothes worn by the bride and groom as well as those worn by their attendants are described in the new Emily Post Institute booklet entitled, "Clothes of the Bridal Party." To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to the Emily Post Institute, in care of The Pontiac Press.

Boy Friend's Yarn Sweater Has Knit Her Baleful Brow

DEAR ABBY: I went steady for almost a year. Around Christmas I started knitting him a sweater. I bought yarn in his favorite colors and chose a style I knew he'd like.

ABBY

Some of my friends started telling me that Harry was hanging around another girl, but he denied it.

Last Saturday night Harry called me, said he didn't feel well, and he broke our date for that night.

My brother saw him out with this girl. We had a big fight over it and broke up for good. The sweater is now finished and I was going to give it to him for his birthday, which is in two weeks. Should I give it to him anyway?

HURT

DEAR HURT: Certainly not. Keep the sweater and give him the needles.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I have a niece who is in the fifth grade. Her marks are very poor, but it doesn't seem to bother her.

She spends all her time tracing pictures. Every time I see her she shows me a stack of pictures she has traced and colored. I compliment her because she needs approval, but I feel like a hypocrite.

Tracing is not creative. It's a waste of time. I asked her what four times four was and she didn't know. I tried to stress the importance of using one's time for LEARNING things, but since she is not my child I couldn't be too firm with her.

Should I point this out to her mother (my brother's wife) or would this be meddling?

CONCERNED AUNT

DEAR AUNT: By all means talk to the child's mother. (And, if possible, be sure her father is present, too.) If no steps are taken to see that the child uses her time more constructively, you will at least know that you tried.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Tell that woman who can't watch TV during the day because her husband takes out a tube to buy a tube she can use until just before he gets home. And nuts to him. Two can play that game.

TV WATCHER

DEAR WATCHER: And what if he puts his hand on the TV set and it's still warm?

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I am in the eighth grade. It all started when I took my record player to school and a bunch of us kids started to dance at recess on the school grounds.

I don't see anything wrong with that, do you? My teacher made me take my record player home.

My mother called up the principal and asked her what was wrong with kids dancing at recess, and the principal said nothing was wrong with it but she would just rather we didn't do it.

Now some of the kids have started to bring transistor radios to school and we still dance at recess. Whose side are you on?

LOVES TO DANCE

DEAR LOVES: We all have to abide by certain rules and regulations. If there is a rule at your school against dancing at recess, I think you should obey it.

Glenna Ruth Russell Weds Allan R. Travis

Glenna Ruth Russell exchanged vows and rings with Allan R. Travis before Dr. Emil Kontz Saturday afternoon in the Bethany Baptist Church.

* * *

The Jeral L. Russells of Whitfield Street are parents of the bride who appeared in ivory taffeta styled with molded bodice and chapel train.

Her veil of net and Chantilly lace fell from a seed pearl tiara. She carried yellow roses and ivy.

* * *

Maid of honor, Jill E. Kirby and bridesmaids Catherine A. McCormick and Sandra K. Miller, Mound City, Ill., wore maize peau satin with matching crowns and shoes. Their bouquets were green-tipped white carnations and ivy.

Douglas J. Spurlock of Western Michigan University, was best man for the bridegroom, son of Mrs. Georjetta Travis of South Shirley Street and Raymond B. Travis of Union Street. The bride's brother Jeral and Jerl J. Coe Jr. ushered.

* * *

After a church reception, the couple left for a honeymoon in the Upper Peninsula. They will live in Pontiac.

Corsages of pink roses complemented Mrs. Russell's Copen blue lace-over-taffeta dress and a champagne wool jersey ensemble for the bridegroom's mother.

MRS. ALLAN R. TRAVIS

Couple Hosts Dance Club

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Underwood opened their James K Boulevard home Friday for the Elk's Sashay - Quadrille Square Dance Club. Guest caller was Cecil McCallum.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McCallum and Mrs. Helen Egerer.

Election of officers will be held at the April 5 dance meeting at the Elk's Temple.

Post-Nuptial Luncheon Set in Bloomfield Hills

The Bloomfield Hills home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sundberg was the setting for a luncheon following the Saturday marriage of their daughter Karen to Thomas Miles.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Miles of Rochester, N.Y., who attended the small family ceremony with their daughter Suzanne.

* * *

A small veiled hat and mink boa complemented the bride's suit of white boucle wool. She was attended by her sisters Mrs. Robert K. Riley and Wendy Sundberg.

On the esquire side were James White of Rochester, N.Y., and James Roberts of Boulder, Colo.

Mrs. Henry Sundberg was a guest at her granddaughter's wedding.

The couple will honeymoon on a return trip to Boulder where both attend the University of Colorado. The bride is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority and her husband is affiliated with Phi Kappa Tau fraternity.

Pair Is Host to Meeting of City GOP Club

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Murphy were hosts at the Monday meeting of the Pontiac Women's Republican Club. Speaker was Mr. Murphy who discussed the proposed new constitution and answered questions in relation to its meaning and advantages over the present document.

Mrs. Duncan McVean and Mrs. Clara Sanger poured at an informal tea following the discussion.

Mrs. J. L. Slaybaugh of Glenwood Avenue will host the next meeting.

Constitution Is Discussed

Guest speaker Richard Kuhn discussed the organizing of the new constitution and how it would make for better government at the Monday evening meeting of Alpha Sigma Nu sorority.

Assisting hosts Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kohn of Garland Avenue were Mrs. Harold Diekman, Mrs. Daniel Hackett and Mrs. Lee Kennedy.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Mountain, Harold Diekman, J. K. Helney, J. W. Rowe and William J. Christie.

Alumnae Club Hears Talk on Children

Principal Jerome J. Breen of Pontiac State Hospital Fairlawn School was guest speaker at the Monday dessert meeting of the Pontiac University of Michigan Alumnae Club.

His talk dealt with causes and treatment of emotional illness in children.

Scholarships for the coming year were discussed. Patricia Wampler received this year's scholarship.

The club will be represented April 20 at a scholarship workshop in Ann Arbor by Iama C. Hook, Mrs. George Gary and Lillian Jacobs.

Mrs. Robert Tarr and Mrs. Harry Richards will attend the spring meeting of the University of Michigan Alumnae Council May 27 in Ann Arbor. Miss Jacobs, a member of the governing board of the council also will attend.

Mrs. Tarr opened her west Iroquois Road home for the meeting with Mrs. Richards, Mrs. Earl E. Martin and Mrs. W. O. Roeser as hostesses.

Waterford High Class of 1953 Plans Reunion

Waterford Township High School, class of 1953, will hold a reunion dinner dance July 6 at 6 p.m. in the Waterford Community Center on Williams Lake Road.

Class members are urged to contact Mrs. Pat (Parmenter) Larkin, P.O. Box 2, Drayton Plains.

* * *

Officers planning this reunion are John Radenbaugh, Larry Grover, Yvonne Deni and Mitzi Schwab.

* * *

Also working on reunion plans are Garry Looney, Ty Kellogg, Jeanine Shearer, Yvonne Schwartz, Marlene McKay, Myron Monroe, Carol Crothers and Marilyn Wallace.

Concert Goers Thrilled by Warfield

By RALPH P. HUMMEL

If your ears are burning today, you've been listening to a Pontiac concert goer who heard bass-baritone William Warfield last night.

Aficionados of singer-accompanist combinations must be breathing hot and happy, judging from overwhelming applause rendered unto the extraordinary concert singer in Pontiac Northern High School's large auditorium.

And rightly so.

* * *

Warfield's musical scope is immense, his power apparently unlimited, his control as gentle as a bird's falling feather.

He can take the stance of a revivalist tent-preacher in a spiritual like "Ain't Got Time to Die" by Hall Johnson. And out of his powerful body can float the tenderness of a father crooning a lullaby, as in the spiritual "Li'l Boy."

Warfield is probably one of few singers in America who can sing "Old Man River" without becoming gruff, sweaty or melodramatic. The familiar song, heard as his third encore, last night rose into the sky like a prayer.

DRAMATIC STRENGTH

His sense for the dramatic is unfailing — whether in "It Ain't Necessarily So" from "Porgy and Bess," in which he starred as Porgy, or in the demanding German song, Schubert's difficult "Erlking."

Whether he sings in German or Italian, his rendition is enhanced by ability to be masterful in use of either language.

Miss Butts Marries in Candle Glow

The chapel of the First Presbyterian Church, Birmingham, was the setting for the marriage of Marilyn Joyce Butts to Robert Joseph McGrath, son of the M. J. McGraths of Niagara Street. Rev. Jack Angerman performed the candlelight ceremony.

Kathryn C. Butts attended her sister, and Thomas E. McGrath was his brother's best man at the March 8 nuptials.

The immediate families attended a reception in the Birmingham home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Butts.

* * *

The new Mrs. McGrath attended Ohio State and Oakland universities. Her husband holds an engineering degree from University of Michigan where he is presently doing post-graduate work in the school of business administration.

The couple took a honeymoon trip to Caberfae for a few days of skiing and are at home in Milford.

Warfield is not faultless. Last night he needed the first two numbers to warm up: the recitative, "I Feel the Deity Within," and the air, "Arm, Arm, Ye Brave," both from Handel's "Judas Maccabaeus."

* * *

But, though intonation wavered, strength was undeniable. Sensitive control emerged in Purcell's "Evening Hymn" and Viadana's motet, "Salve Corpus."

HIGH POINT

The classical high point of the evening was reached in Schubert's "Erlking," one of four German songs presented.

The work served best to show off Warfield's clean vocal power, careful control and dramatic sensitivity. It is not often that an English-speaking singer delivers the ballad in its full tragic power, as he did.

* * *

Clean and classical rendition again marked another Schubert creation, "The Gravedigger's Longing for Home."

Warfield's operatic status was well represented in the recitative and aria, "Dormiro sol nel manto mio regal" from Verdi's "Don Carlos."

* * *

Warfield has been blessed with a capable and sensitive accompanist in Willard Straight, also a New Yorker and a piano soloist who presented his own Concerto for Piano and Orchestra two years ago with the Detroit Summer Symphony.

Those Appliances Won't Last Forever!

By MARY FEELEY

Women are supposed to be the realists in this world, and men the dreamers. But the theory doesn't always hold.

MARY FEELEY

A case in point is the attitude many a woman takes toward her household equipment. She expects to live happily ever after with her new automatic washing machine, or the freezer she just bought. It just never enters her mind that even a major appliance must some day collapse from exhaustion.

This optimistic point of view can lead to a real calamity in the family — and often does. There comes a year when the automatic washer breathes its last, and there's no money in the till for a replacement. Or even worse, both the washer and the sewing machine give out simultaneously — the same season a down payment ought to go toward a new car!

Many families take advantage of a windfall — an unexpected bonus, maybe, or endowment policy paying off — to buy major household appliances, which is certainly a justifiable investment. But unless there's some plan for regular savings toward replacing these items, the budget will sooner or later come a cropper. It's one of the problems I run into often in discussing family finances.

Many things affect the service life of an appliance. True, a good piece of equipment does last a long, long time, with proper care. But you really should give a thought to the year when you will want to trade it in, sell it, or give it away before it falls apart.

AVERAGE LIFESPAN

Here are some estimates of the life expectancy of household equipment, according to a U.S. Department of Agriculture scale:

Electric washing machine, automatic and semiautomatic— 11 years.

Dryer — 14 years.

Freezer — 15 years.

Electric sewing machine — 24 years.

Vacuum cleaner, upright — 18 years.

Vacuum cleaner, tank — 15 years.

Wringer and spin-dryer washing machine — 10 years.

These statistics should be of help in predicting expenses. For if you recall the year of purchase of your various appliances, you'll have a pretty good idea how much longer you can expect them to last.

Now's the time to start building up the replacement fund — not when you're face to face with the emergency.

Dear Miss Feeley: I read your article about what's fair board for the office girl living at home. Very interesting and something so many of us mothers face.

Now — what about the boys? What should a boy, 23, making $120 take-home pay weekly, pay his parents while he's living at home?

Mrs. L., Chicago Heights, Ill.

Dear Frs. L.: On his salary, $30 a week ought to be a fair arrangement. It should cover expenses involved, and leave you a few extra blessings to count.

However, if you're really hard-pressed financially, this sum might be increased. Keep in mind that a young man normally has more expenses than a single girl has, and needs to keep a larger per cent of his income for himself.

I hope your main interest is in encouraging him to save. If he is saving and carrying life insurance while he can buy it at a low rate, and having a normal social life, you may wish to make it easy for him as you can where room and board are concerned.

P.S. And maybe you'd better stop calling that 23-year-old man a "boy," or he won't be paying any board at all. He'll be gone!

Reader Answers Plea for Lasagne Recipe

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

If readers who request recipes would provide us with either an address or a phone number, they would get faster service. We received this recipe for Lasagne shortly after it was requested. But it is not always possible to publish the recipe immediately.

Mrs. L. J. Schluchter is the helpful cook who came up with the desired recipe.

LASAGNE

By Mrs. L. J. Schluchter

1 pound ground beef
2 tablespoons olive oil
2 cloves garlic, crushed or 1 teaspoon garlic salt
1 can (8-oz.) tomato sauce
1 can (1 lb., 4 oz.) tomatoes and ¾ of liquid in can
1-½ teaspoons salt
½ teaspoon oregano
¼ teaspoon pepper
½ pound lasagne noodles
½ pound mozzarella cheese, sliced ⅛" thick
¾ pound cottage cheese
½ cup grated parmesan cheese

Brown beef in skillet with oil and garlic. Add tomato sauce, tomatoes and liquid from tomatoes, salt, oregano and pepper. Cover and simmer 2-3 hours.

Meanwhile, cook noodles in boiling salted water until tender, about 15 minutes. Drain and rinse.

Fill a rectangular casserole with alternate layers of noodles, sliced mozzarella cheese, cottage cheese, tomato-meat sauce. Top with Parmesan cheese.

Bake in 375-degree oven for 20-30 minutes, until heated through and bubbly. Makes 4-5 servings.

Bringing Up Baby.

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

Certainly babies should have some leeway in setting their own patterns in the matter of feeding and sleeping the first few months. But as baby grows toward a more settled routine, he should be gently steered toward a reasonable schedule. The baby who is guided toward good habits early, is less likely to rebel at more exacting regulations later.

High on the happy list of favorites for the little fellow on a full food schedule are combination dishes. (More ingredients, more flavor.) Gerber High Meat Dinners are bound to win any mealtime popularity contest. That's because these flavor-some casserole dishes are savory with extra meat. (3 times as much as regular vegetable and meat combinations.) Garden-good vegetables and subtle seasoning are added to the meat for truly sprightly flavor. Nutritionally, they're a good source of protein, offer significant amounts of vitamins and minerals. Strained or Junior varieties.

Toy trickery. If baby gets take-apart, put-together toys before he's manually ready to use them, let him play with the individual parts, provided they're not small enough to swallow.

Carriage cues. (1) A bright balloon or pinwheel, attached to the front of baby's carriage, will provide many happy looking moments. (2) A transistor radio, tuned sweet and low, will delight baby when he's awake . . . won't disturb him when he's a-snooze.

Mouth-watering memo. Fruits score high as baby favorites. Especially Gerber Strained and Junior Fruits. And for good reason. Gerber Fruits are cooked in a flash to preserve Mother Nature's appealing colors and sun-kissed flavors . . . and to protect precious vitamin values. Served "as is", they're scrumptious. When used as a topping for Gerber Cereals or Puddings they're super. Gerber Baby Foods, Fremont, Michigan.

Dieters, Beware

Watch Luncheon Menu

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Lunches are a source of trouble to many women who are on a diet. The usual sandwich is high in calorie count and most women who do not want a large, full meal at noon, nor can they afford one if they are reducing.

Whether you eat at home or take your lunch with you to work, build it around these foods: eggs, hard-boiled or poached; fresh fruit or water-packed canned fruit; fresh or canned tomatoes; raw carrots and celery; skimmed milk or buttermilk or powdered fat-free milk; cottage cheese; canned fish; green salads; lean meat; open-face sandwiches; cheese (not cream) and jello.

* * *

One of my favorite lunches when reducing consists of a moderate helping of red salmon, with lemon juice, sliced or canned tomatoes and jello and skim milk.

If you are having sandwiches, the trimmings are the items which count up. By this I mean mayonnaise and butter or margarine.

You can cut down on the calorie count by using just enough butter or margarine and mayonnaise to dampen the bread. Very thin pickle slices add flavor and practically no calories. Also, you can have open-face sandwiches, using only one slice of bread. Or this you can place a moderate portion of cheese, or lean meat.

Another good reducing lunch is a hard roll, a fresh fruit salad, cottage cheese and skimmed milk. Of course, you must go easy on the butter and the salad dressing unless you use one of those which is very low in calories.

Most of the items I have mentioned are always obtainable at a cafeteria or restaurant and you can get many of them at a lunch counter. Just tell them to leave off the trimmings and bring the mayonnaise on the side.

Some women in business like to use one of the liquid formulas at noon. The only trouble is that most of the women I have known have become bored with this plan before long.

Lunch time is a time to watch the calories except on special occasions.

Women Want More Choice

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (UPI) — Women who wear half size dresses have appealed to clothes makers to provide more attractive, well-fitting garments.

A Pennsylvania State University survey of women in a mid-western state showed that 70 per cent of them felt there should be more variety in half-size dresses.

Women said bodice fitting problems were a major concern. Store buyers and sales persons also indicated a need for better fitting necklines and shoulders.

More than 25 per cent of the women stated they needed shorter waist lengths and 10 per cent wanted improvements in sleeves. Some of the women asked for more ease at the hips.

The survey also showed a need for a better selection of colors and prints suited to figure size.

Club Sets Men's Night

Men's Night, an annual special for husbands and acquaintances of members of the Village Woman's Club, will be held April 3 at 6:30 p.m. at the club house.

Speaker will be Dr. Harm Jan de Blij of Michigan State University's African Studies Center. Dr. De Blij, a Dutch-born scholar, studied at the University of Johannesburg (South Africa). He was a member of that city's symphony and city council.

Dr. De Blij's recent book, "Africa South," gives an insight into problems of that country. He is a participant in the club's "History In the Making" series, now in its third year.

This Men's Night program, first in the new clubhouse, will be preceded by a dinner. Mrs. William H. Baldwin and Mrs. John C. Guenther are taking reservations.

★ ★ ★

Hostesses will be Mrs. Harry J. Altick, Mrs. James B. Bragaw, Mrs. James T. Barnard and Mrs. Floyd R. Doherty.

Junior representatives are Mrs. James W. Dodds and Mrs. F. J. Whitcroft.

★ ★ ★

Decorations will be by Mrs. LeRoy W. Dahlberg and Mrs. John W. Shenefield.

Some 125 guests and members of Pontiac Chapter No. 228, Order of the Eastern Star, honored past matrons and past patrons during a special program Monday evening.

Worthy Matron Mrs. Charles Moore introduced guests Mrs. Paul Hagle, past grand matron of the Grand Chapter of Michigan, and Mrs. Roy Wilton, past grand Martha of the Grand Chapter of Michigan.

Honored during the affair were past matrons Mrs. Joseph Minton, Mrs. Sylvan Clark, Mrs. Samuel Smith, Mrs. Floyd Levely and Mrs. Clarence Curry.

Others were Mrs. Kenneth Anthony, Mrs. Mary E. Erickson, Mrs. Walter Drake, Mrs. Blanche Woodman, Mrs. Asenath MacAdams and Mrs. Theodore Marchbank.

Concluding the list were Mrs. Earl Ross, Mrs. Wayne Reaves, Mrs. Kent Webb, Mrs. Ernest Pearson, Mrs. Clyde Fellows, E. Grace Clark and Mrs. Mable Pickford.

Also honored at the annual event were past patrons Robert Calvary, John Gibson, Wayne Scott, Kenneth Anthony and Wallace Morgan.

Eldon Sweazey, Charles Moore, Clarence Curry, Sylvan Clark, Clyde Townsend and Clayton Gillies concluded the list.

Coffee Oils Ruin Brew

A clean coffee pot is the surest way to a good cup of coffee.

Coffee oils leave an almost invisible film which quickly turns rancid and ruins the next brew.

Make it a rule to scrub your coffee pot thoroughly with hot soap or detergent suds and rinses after every use. A stiff bottlebrush will help to suds out the hollow stem and the spout.

Thursday at 1 p.m., the French Club Cercle Francais presents excerpts from the play "Knock" in the Oakland Center Gold Room.

★ ★ ★

A series of lectures and films is scheduled for Friday in the Center basement. At 1 p.m., Dr. Robert Simmons, assistant professor of German, will lecture on Germany.

LECTURE ON JAPAN

Dr. Czetong Song, assistant librarian, will lecture on Japan at 3 p.m.

★ ★ ★

A series of films on these and other countries will be shown before, between and after the lectures, from noon to 5 p.m. They will be repeated Saturday from noon to 3:30 p.m.

Displays of clothing, art and handicraft from various nations will be shown in the Oakland Center Lounge from noon to 5 p.m. Friday and 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday.

Foreign food will appear in the school cafeteria Friday.

"As Others See Us," will be the topic discussed by a panel of foreign students from other colleges in the state at 3:30 p.m. Saturday. A tea hour will follow.

★ ★ ★

The final event will be a dance with foreign night club atmosphere, "Cabaret," from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. in the Oakland Center.

Tom Dewey Law Firm in Girl Scout Squabble

NEW YORK (UPI) — The New York law firm headed by former presidential candidate Thomas E. Dewey has been retained in "big-versus-little" fight inside the Girl Scout movement.

It was learned today that the Dewey firm will help in the legal battle of town-size and village-size Girl Scout councils across the country to resist forced merger into large area groups.

At least 124 small councils have gone on record in one way or another in opposition to losing their identity by being swallowed up in the larger groups.

★ ★ ★

The small councils say the local community leaders are in the best position to decide what kind of a scouting program is best for the local girls.

They say the small councils are in the best position to line up community support, and that the all-important job of fund-raising can best be done by the local councils.

The position of the national organization is that the small councils can't afford to hire the professionals now considered essential in scouting, and that such problems as leadership training and establishing summer camps go unsolved when the movement is fragmented into small councils.

The national leadership ordered the small economic councils to merge with larger area groups by Dec. 31, 1963. When Donora, Pa. resisted an order to merge with other councils in western Pennsylvania, the squabble got into the New York State Supreme Court, because national offices are located in New York City.

The State Court upheld the national movement's amalgamation order to Donora. Dewey's firm has been bought into the case to help 73 other councils enter the case as "friends of the court" in support of Donora.

The case now is pending before the New York State Appellate Division, which probably will hold hearings in May.

Area Art in Display

The works of two Birmingham artists and one from Bloomfield Hills have been accepted in the ninth annual exhibit drawing and small sculpture at Ball State Teachers College in Muncie, Ind.

★ ★ ★

A record number of entries, 804 drawings and 238 sculptures, were submitted by artists from three countries and overseas service addresses this year, according to Dr. Alice Nichols, head of the college art department.

From this field, 183 drawings and 111 sculptures were selected by the judge, Philip Rhys Adams, director of the Cincinnati Art Museum.

★ ★ ★

Actor Vincent Price who buys all the original art for Sears, Roebuck & Co., described the show as "three times greater than anything I saw in Europe last fall."

All three area artists entered sculptured pieces in the show. From Birmingham are Roger Mack, "Untitled," cast bronze; and Frank Safranek, "Construction," bronze. Marvin Anderson of the Cranbrook Academy of Art entered "Couple" in bronze.

EXHIBIT IN STATE

Area entrance in the 67th annual fine arts exhibition of the Michigan Academy of Science, Arts and Letters which closed Saturday, were Mae Averill and Winifred Heizer, Birmingham, and Reva Shwayder, Franklin.

Representatives from the League of Women Voters, and president of the Central Labor Council of the AFL-CIO will participate in a question-and-answer period following the panel.

Line Drawer With Plastic

Quilted vinyl plastic in a pretty pastel shade is excellent for lining drawers which hold such pampered possessions as jewelry, stockings, lingerie, sweaters and gloves.

Cut the plastic several inches wider and longer than the drawer, then turn it up at the sides and corners.

To keep this lining clean, wipe it often with a sudsy sponge right in the drawer—but also remove it occasionally for more thorough washing in deep soap or detergent suds.

Never Ignore Cut

Never neglect even a tiny finger prick. If possible, squeeze to make it bleed. Wash it immediately with soap and water, then cover with a sterile bandage.

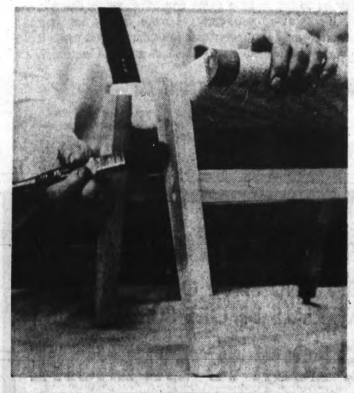
Activities Aid Troubled Minds

Hands Are Busy in Therapy Program

Creativity Is Important



Practical Aspects Are Not Neglected

Finger Painting Provides Outlet

Busy hands build happy minds. This is the key to the Pontiac State Hospital's occupational therapy program.

★ ★ ★

Patients in the program are able to find new interests, develop new skills and employ acceptable outlets for their abilities and emotions.

★ ★ ★

The department has occupational therapy centers for men and women and two shops for patients requiring continuing treatment.

Six registered therapists and five arts and crafts instructors work with more than 200 volunteers to provide a varied program for the patients.

Activities include weaving, woodwork, leather, ceramics, basketry, metal work, sewing, needlework, all art forms, copper enameling, gardening, writing and homemaking.

★ ★ ★

Recently patients with a flair for gardening were provided with a greenhouse to facilitate continuity in the horticultural therapy program.

SUITABLE SETTING

The purpose of the program, according to Mrs. Robert McCurry, director of occupational therapy, is "to provide a suitable setting where patients will have an opportunity to engage in therapeutic activities to meet varied needs."

★ ★ ★

Many indicate that they have always wanted to learn some of the crafts the program offers but have never found the time.

★ ★ ★

Classes for the patients, who must be referred by their doctors, are held five days a week.

Child Clinics Ask Boost in County Aid

Directors of the Oakland Child Guidance Clinics have asked the County Board of Supervisors for $96,804 from its budget next year.

★ ★ ★

The request for $37,304 more than the board allocated in this year's budget was presented yesterday to the ways and means committee.

Chief administrator for the three clinics, Ralph E. Walton, said the additional funds would provide a 30 per cent increase in the staff and care given mentally disturbed children in the county.

Psychiatric treatment is provided at the clinics in Pontiac, Royal Oak and Birmingham for youngsters whose parents cannot afford private care.

★ ★ ★

Walton said the need for more funds was determined by a special committee appointed by the chairman of the board of supervisors, Delos Hamlin.

Ways and means committee Chairman David Levinson said the findings of the committee didn't mean that the county should be expected to assume the additional cost.

"It's your problem to decide how big your program should be; our problem is how much can we subsidize you," Levinson stated.

EXPECTS NO BOOST

He indicated that the clinics could expect the county to continue to subsidize them in its 1964 budget at the same rate as for this year — $59,500 toward a total budget of $110,140.

Final action by the committee was withheld pending further study of the directors' request and the over-all county budget for next year.

The clinics have prepared a total departmental budget for 1964 of $145,804.

★ ★ ★

Walton said this figure would enable 18 new employes to be hired, including a full-time psychiatrist.

Besides the request for county funds, the clinics' proposed budget anticipates $49,000 in community contributions and private donations.

★ ★ ★

How much the county can contribute depends on how much money the Tax Allocation Board makes available to operate the county next year, committee member John Carey said.

'SCHOOL RESPONSIBILITY?'

Another committee member, Harry Horton voiced the opinion that the cost of operating the clinics should be the responsibility of the school boards.

"They get about two-thirds of the total allocation each year and shelve off areas of their responsibility on the county," he complained.

Committee member Clare Cummings recalled the state asked only that the county provide quarters for the clinics originally.

★ ★ ★

The county has supported the clinics since 1946. They originally were founded by private citizens in the absence of local state mental health programs.

Sen. Farrell E. Roberts, R-Oakland County, has resubmitted a bill again this year that would enable community mental health programs to affiliate with local hospitals.

The senate has attached preliminary approval to the bill, similar to one that failed to pass last year.

PCH Takes 'Music Man' to Detroit

Pontiac Central High School's production of "The Music Man" will go big time this weekend. PCH students have presented the performance locally for the past two weeks.

The high school cast, chorus and orchestra will stage the Meredith Willson musical in the Scottish Rite Cathedral at Detroit's Masonic Temple on Saturday and Sunday.

More than 100 students will take part in the production.

★ ★ ★

William W. Merrill, Scottish Rite dramatic director, said he expects this to be the first of many talent showcases giving young people opportunity to advance their careers.

"Each season, I hope to import a production of merit that will give high school students a chance to display their talents," said Merrill.

Scholarships will be awarded to the two most promising performers, who will be selected by a panel of professional theater and music critics.

★ ★ ★

"The Scottish Rite Youth Award is to be used for further artistic study and is expected to act as a great encouragement for talented youth in the community," Merrill said.

Pontiac Mayor Robert A. Landry will accept a plaque in behalf of the school for its work in presenting the musical.

Tickets for both 8:15 p.m. performances have been exhausted.

News Management? 'Hogwash'

WAHINGTON (AP)—Pentagon press chief Arthur Sylvester—described as "the villain of the piece" in a congressional inquiry into government information policies—has offered his rebuttal to charges of news management at the Defense Department: "Hogwash."

Sylvester spent three hours Monday telling a House subcommittee about the Defense Department's information program. "I am a newsman," he said, "and in the somewhat altered role of government newsman I am trying to give the American people the truth about the operation of their government."

★ ★ ★

Sylvester, a former Washington correspondent, said he didn't "sell out" the principles of the news business when he went to work for the government.

He told the subcommittee he "certainly will review" an order requiring defense officials to report all their contacts with newsmen and say what they talked about. The order came in for heavy subcommittee fire.

NO RIGHT TO LIE BUT . . .

He said the government does not have a continuing right to lie to Americans—but does have a responsibility to do whatever has to be done, "no matter how repugnant," when the nation is confronted with the threat of nuclear war.

Sylvester, chief target of news executives who complained at a hearing last Tuesday that the government has lied to the people, and Robert J. Manning, the State Department's chief public information official, testified as the subcommittee pressed its inquiry into news policies.

★ ★ ★

The next phase will come behind closed doors, in sessions expected to begin after Congress takes its Easter recess. They will deal with restrictions on newsmen covering the U.S.-backed fight against Communist guerrillas in South Viet Nam, secrecy about military missile launchings and why wartime censorship plans are being kept secret.

Sylvester gave his assessment of news management charges after Rep. George Meader, R-Mich., told him, "You, in a sense are the villain of the piece. I want you to defend yourself."

Sylvester said the only place news can be managed is in newspaper offices. "Under our free press system the decision on what is to appear what is not to appear is properly made in every editorial office," Sylvester said.

★ ★ ★

"They're in the business of managing the news and that's not what I'm talking about," Meader replied. The Michigan congressman said Sylvester and others in the administration have been accused of seeking to manage and distort the news.

"I think what you're talking about is not news management, but are we giving information, are we giving access to it, are we giving the facts as they are," Sylvester said. He said at the Pentagon, the answer is yes.

Door Requirement Questioned

Waterford Will Review Building Code

Prospects of losing a proposed apartment house development because of a building code restriction led Waterford Township Board members last night to plan a review of the code.

The eixsting code specifies both a front and rear doorway in apartment house units. Proponents of a 32-unit building at Voorheis Road and Josephine Street said one-entrance units are allowed elsewhere.

"We could put up a building anywhere in the state but Waterford Township," Ray O'Neil, an area realtor, said. O'Neil represents a group of businessmen who have an option on the proposed site.

★ ★ ★

Board members indicated a thorough investigation of the code restriction would be conducted following the April 1 election when the new township board is established.

DELAY BILLIARD CENTER

The board postponed action on granting a license for a proposed family billiard center at 3127 W. Huron St. pending receipt of further information on the nature of the business.

Trustees Byron Cole, John Coleman and Joseph McGee all reported receiving several phone calls objecting to the billiard establishment. McGee said people who called him were concerned about an added juvenile problem as a result of the billiard establishment.

In other business, the board authorized Township Supervisor Elmer Johnson to accept an offer from the township's consulting engineers to print copies of an incorporation study report for public distribution.

★ ★ ★

Johnson and Anderson, Inc., will provide use of printing facilities and the township will provide the personnel and paper.

Cole, a member of the library study committee, said a report of progress in establishing a public library in the township is being prepared for the board.

His committee and the Friends of the Library, proponents of the community library, have held a series of meetings, Cole said.

★ ★ ★

The board heard a complaint on the traffic tie-up each weekend in the vicinity of Telegraph Road and Huron Streets due to a car-wash operation and agreed to refer the matter to county authorities.

A five-member delegation of businessmen in the area told the board that the lineup of cars blocks side streets and generally slows traffic.

A motion by Coleman that letters and certificates of gratitude be issued to retiring board members Cole and McGee won unanimous approval of the board. Neither seeks re-election in the April 1 election.

Consider Food Lift to Ski Ghost Town

ZERMATT, Switzerland (UPI) — Swiss authorities today were reported considering a food lift of uncontaminated supplies into this popular ski resort which has been turned into a ghost town by a typhoid fever epidemic.

Nearly 200 persons, including at least one American tourist, have been stricken by the disease and two have died.

Mrs. Henry Safran, 25, of New York, was reported recovering in a New York hospital. She returned to the United States March 11 following a visit to Zermatt.

Authorities have been unable to trace the source of the epidemic but both the food and water supply are suspected.

MEDICS HELP

Members of a Swiss army medical detachment fighting the disease have been forbidden to eat local food or drink local water. This has led to reports that outside supplies will be brought in.

The ski season came to an abrupt halt when hotel and restaurant owners voted yesterday to shut down for the duration of the typhoid outbreak.

The decision was anticlimactic. This normally crowded Alpine resort already had taken on the aspect of a ghost town. Virtually no tourists are left.

Those who braved out the first week of the epidemic last week have gone and almost no one has arrived to replace them.

The new night clubs and bars that had remained open had only a few customers instead of the usual crowds of skiers and sightseers.

GIGANTIC LOSS

The loss to hotel owners from canceled bookings and the expected weekend shutdown figured to run into hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Swiss newspapers and the regional medical association have accused Zermatt authorities of taking inadequate steps to deal with the situaion.

The Lausanne Gazette said yesterday, "The tourist interests of the Zermatters appear to have taken precedence over public health in the early stages of the disease."

It said hotel keepers apparently were slow in warning their guests of the disease for fear of a mass exodus at the height of the ski season.

1,000 Urged to Vote 'Yes' by Romney

DETROIT (AP) — Gov. George Romney, urging a 1,000-member audience at an Economic Club of Detroit luncheon yesterday to vote "yes" Monday on the state's proposed constitution said:

"There is no chief executive in this state — just a poor fellow up there who can't do anything because he doesn't have authority.

"I'm like a quarterback all of whose players have been chosen by the other side. We have an absurd executive department situation . . . .

"I can't do the job that needs to be done without the new constitution."

★ ★ ★

Under the proposed new constitution, the governor and lieutenant governor would run as a team, winning or losing together. The offices of auditor general, state treasurer, superintendent of public instruction and highway commissioner would be filled by appointment.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has awarded a $2,017,672 contract to Chrysler Corp., for 1,311 trucks to be built at the company's Warren, Mich., plant.

Plan Parade for May 30

Plans for a full-scale Memorial Day Parade are under way here.

Promoting increased participation in the May 30 observance is the Pontiac Memorial Day Association, comprised of nearly a score of veteran, civic and community groups.

The organization, however, is seeking additional help in its effort to increase the size of the parade.

★ ★ ★

The association will will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at 199 Auburn Ave. to review its progress. The meeting is open to the public.

"The parade has improved yearly, said Mrs. Eva M. Welch, association secretary. "But more floats and marching units are needed if it is to be a success."

Apparently Dead

Community College Bill Fails

LANSING — Oakland County last night received another setback in its efforts to establish a community college system

An enabling bill introduced by Sen. Farrell E. Roberts, R-Oakland County, failed to pass the Senate and apparently was dead for this session of the legislature.

* * *

Tomorrow is the deadline for passage of bills in their house of origin.

* * *

Main opposition to the bill centered on a provision that would have authorized the existing Oakland County Board of Education to establish and operate a system of junior colleges.

Community college proponents generally favor a separate board.

The bill would have enabled the county to proceed with plans for a county wide election on establishment of a community college district.

LEGAL STALL

The county's plans were stymied last year by a state attorney general's opinion based on existing laws.

The attorney general said the county could neither exclude nor include Clarenceville School District, which lies mostly in Wayne County but partly in Oakland.

* * *

Clarenceville could not be left out because it was part of the county, according to the opinion. But it could not be included because it already was part of the Northwest Wayne County Community College District.

* * *

Roberts' bill would have enabled the county to exclude Clarenceville.

Roberts said he had included the provision for operation of a junior college system by the existing county board of education because the board had the staff and facilities to handle it.

He said the existing board would get the colleges in operation two years earlier than would be possible if a new board were required.

Exam Date Set in Murder Case

A 21-year-old Pontiac man charged with first-degree murder in a shotgun slaying Saturday night will have his Municipal Court examination April 3.

Hardy Harris Jr., 30 Iowa St., was arraigned on the charge yesterday before Judge Cecil McCallum.

Harris, being held without bond in the Oakland County jail, is accused of killing Tommie L. Holston, 32, also of 30 Iowa St.

Holston was shot in the face while standing on the front steps at 28 Iowa St., where he was attending a party.

Harris told police his gun accidentally discharged when he tripped over a pipe in the ground.

He said he had gone to the home of Elmore Williams, 38, who was celebrating his birthday to find out why Williams had chased a friend of his out of the house.

Hospital Official to Talk

Dr. Walter H. Obenauf, medical superintendent of the Pontiac State Hospital will speak on "The Treatment and Care of the Mentally Ill" at an Oakland County Citizens' Committee meeting 7 p.m. tomorrow at the Local 594 building, 525 E. Blvd. S.

House Juggles Port Proposal

LANSING (AP) — House members appeared ready today to second-guess themselves on passage of a controversial bill designed to help public port districts issue revenue bonds for expansion.

The bill — part of a three-bill package concerning port districts — won House approval 82-23, last night after being assailed for the second time by lawmakers favoring private investment for St. Lawrence Seaway ports in Michigan.

But opponents and supporters alike later challenged the bill, and one, Rep. Gail Handy, R-Eau Claire, indicated he would ask sponsors to clear up questions concerning a provision that would give a Wayne County public port power to issue $16 million in bonds a year.

★ ★ ★

"I didn't realize the bill was written this way," said Handy. "I think we should get some of the bugs out, because that is a tremendous amount of money."

Handy, chairman of a 1962 Legislative Interim Committee which studied St. Lawrence Seaway port development, was a leading supporter of the bill in floor debate.

He contended, along with Rep. Oscar Bouwsma, R-Muskegon, and lawmakers from other port cities, that public financing of facilities — to be leased to private interests — was the best way for Michigan to gain competitive footing with other seaway states.

The bill's basic provision is to reduce from 60 to 51 per cent the majority of voters needed to approve a bond issue by a port district, and it was on this point that most of the debate centered.

But Rep. William Barid, D-Detroit, who opposed the bill, later raised the question of Wayne County investment under terms of a provision permitting districts to borrow up to one-fifth of one per cent of their assessed valuation in any one year.

Baird said Wayne County, as a district unto itself with an assessed valutaion of $8 million would be able to issue $16 million in bonds in one year and up to a total of $160 million at any one time.

Rep. Carroll Newton, R-Delton, asked that the bill be reconsidered because it did not make clear whether all electors or just property owners in a district would be able to vote.

He indicated later that he was satisfied that a constitutional provision would suffice in limiting it to property owners only.

The House passed two other bills in the port package without dissent — one enabling port districts to accept gifts and loans, the other setting up so-called "foreign trade zones" for customs-free storing, remanufacturing and packing.

★ ★ ★

Also approved in the House was a proposal to reorganize the State Mental Health Department, creating a six-member bi-partisan commission in place of the current five-man commission and providing for a director to be appointed by the governor.

Similar bills were vetoed by former governors G. Mennen Williams and John Swainson, but the new version passed, 95-7, with bi-partisan support.

In all, the House passed 23 bills last night.

★ ★ ★

In the Senate, five bills were killed by sending them back to committee. Twenty - nine others were given temporary approval, but none were considered for a final vote.

Korea Shuns Warning From U. S.

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — South Korea's military regime today rebuffed a U.S. statement that prolonged military rule could threaten stable and effective government in South Korea.

A government spokesman said the "realistic inevitability of extending military rule will be independently judged by the Korean people."

The Korean people, he said "know the Korean situation better than anybody else."

★ ★ ★

He termed the statement by U.S. State Department spokesman Lincoln White "a discussion of a principle and understandable as such." He added:

"The question is whether or not it is possible to expect a birth of sound civil government which could take over from the military government.

"It is the Korean people themselves who know best that the military government today is providing a government more stable and effective than anything experienced in the past."

The United States is South Korea's financial and military mainstay. But Washington is not expected to take any decisive action to block the military's continuance in power.

★ ★ ★

The head of the military junta, Gen. Chung Hee Park, has proposed a plebiscite to approve or reject his proposal to extend military rule four years.

Previously he had promised elections this spring and the return of civilian government in August.

Four key differences between the reckless and the careful investor
(Recognize anyone?)

Here's how to tell one from the other:

Reckless: Flames into action on a tip.

Careful: Ignores the tip and settles down for a good hard look at the facts. What does the company sell? What are its prospects? What have its earnings been? What dividends has it been paying?

The careful investor has information like this before he invests a penny. Not only to help him make intelligent investments. But to help him choose securities that seem most likely to bring him to his goals. Such as a second income from dividends. Or growth in value of his stock. Or the relative stability of value and income that good bonds can provide.

Reckless: Is happily certain the price can only go up.

Careful: Knows that the prices of stocks and bonds go down as well as up. That a company may falter or fail, may not continue to pay dividends or interest. But he also knows that as America grows he may have the opportunity to grow with it through wise shareownership.

Reckless: Thinks all brokers are alike and any broker will do.

Careful: Knows that brokers differ—though none are infallible. He's aware that a Member Firm of the New York Stock Exchange is required to observe many Exchange rules. And that he will have the services there of a Registered Representative who has met the Exchange's qualifications. A Member Firm can provide him with many facts essential to farsighted selection of good stock.

Reckless: Plunges with whatever money he has, hoping for fast gains.

Careful: Watches his income like a hawk. Keeps one eye on the future. From the top he draws enough to pay normal living expenses. Next he puts aside what's necessary to provide for any major emergency. On what remains he plans his investments.

If you like the idea of investing systematically, you'll be interested in the Monthly Investment Plan. Through the Plan you can select stock from among America's greatest companies and invest with as little as $40 every three months ($3.08 a week). Send the coupon for a booklet packed with useful information—including a description of the Plan.

New-Con Road Dept. Changes Receive Mixed Reception

(EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the eighth and last in a series of articles on Michigan's proposed constitution.)

By GENE SCHROEDER

LANSING (AP)—"I can't think of another agency in state government that affects the lives and the economy of Michigan as critically as the State Highway Department.

"Michigan is the home of the automobile and as such should boast the finest highway system in the United States.

"Michigan's tourist business is rapidly becoming the life-blood of the lower and upper peninsulas and anything less than the best highway system would be a severe blow to the economy of this state."

Those are the words of the only man who ever served both as governor of Michigan and state highway commissioner, Murray Van Wagoner.

And although there might be disagreement over Democrat Van Wagoner's political views, few Michigan leaders would dispute his appraisal of the importance of the state's highways.

The Inter-University Faculty Committee on Constitutional Revision, in its study of the proposed new document, devoted a separate analysis covering the highway department.

The committee, composed of 31 professors from Michigan colleges and universities, feels its work will help the serious citizen make his decision as to the soundness of the proposed constitution "as an instrument of government for this state in the years ahead."

NO MORE COMMISSIONER

Under the revised constitution the present office of an elected state highway commissioner would be abolished. In its place would be appointed a director to head the State Highway Department and carry out policies formulated by a four-member bipartisan highway commission.

The commission members would be appointed by the governor for four-year terms with the advice and consent of the Senate.

The commission "shall administer the State Highway Department and have jurisdiction and control over all state trunkline highways and appurtenant facilities, and such other public works of the state as provided by law."

Under this provision, the faculty committee reported, the legislature may by law call upon the highway commission to handle "other public works" which do not fit into the definition of highways.

"This could turn out to be unfortunate," the committee commented. "The commission could be overloaded by the addition of nonhighway duties."

On the other hand, it added, the provision could be a gain.

"In regard to the 'other public works' the state might derive great profit from the superior experience of the highway department in construction, contracting, purchasing, evaluation of materials, etc." the educators observed.

POWER TO COMMISSION

The proposed constitution would give the real policy-determining power in the highway department to the commission, it was concluded.

"No doubt the state highway director will be an officer of considerable importance," the committee said, "but his position will in no wise approximate that of the present highway commissioner.

"He will neither be the head of the highway department nor in any sense an independent officer. He is to be distinctly subordinate to the highway commission."

Earmarking of the proceeds from gasoline and weight taxes exclusively for highway purposes as defined by law is provided in the new document.

The faculty committee noted that the addition of the words "as defined by law" renders the term "highway purposes" more flexible and gives the legislature little more latitude in determining the objects for which the highway funds are to be expended.

NOT BLACK AND WHITE

Would the adoption of the proposed constitution be a forward or a backward step for Michigan as far as the highway system is concerned?

"There is no pat answer to this question," said the committee. "Both our present basis for the highway department and that laid out in the proposed constitution leave much to be desired."

Eliminating the elective highway commissioner would shorten the ballot, which the committee regarded as a plus mark.

But this may be more than counterbalanced, the committee said, by the fact that the documen does not concentrate and clarify responsibility.

"Rather it diffuses and obscures it within an agency which may give us periods of confusion, deadlock and delay," the committee commented.

★ ★ ★

Pointing out the likelihood that the new highway commission probably would be composed of two Republicans and two Democrats, the educators declared:

"The equal division between the parties poses the distinct possibility of bitter party-line squabbles over the appointment or the removal of a state highway director or the courses to be followed by new highways, or policy to be pursued by the commission.

★ ★ ★

"There could be long periods of indecision and inaction."

During debate in the constitutional convention, suporters of the highway commission plan argued that it provided a method for eliminating undue pressure and interference in the state's roadbuilding program.

DEFENDING PROPOSAL

Defending the proposal, Gov. George Romney has said:

"It is more difficult to corrupt four men than to corrupt one."

On the subject of rigid earmarking vs. flexible earmarking, the faculty committee found what it said was a significant difference between the old and the new constitutions.

Earmarking in the present document is quite rigid, the committee said.

But under the proposed constitution, the legislature is given some discretion in the definition of highway purposes for which the earmarked money may be spent.

This provision, the educators reported, "certainly does not hand the legislature a blank check to be used for just any purpose."

Highway purposes are to be "defined by law," they explained, and all such law will be subject to judicial test.

★ ★ ★

"How much flexibility is injected into highway earmark will be determined by the interaction of the legislature, the governor, the commission, the attorney general and the courts," they added.

"We do not believe there will be a great deal of change. We think there will be little or no effect on the market for highway bonds."

The educators generally were not happy over any constitutional earmarking of funds, but conceded that a great many Michigan citizens take a different view in regard to highways.

"Their stand proceeds from no lack of intelligence or worthiness as citizens, the faculty committee observed.

"They look upon the gasoline and weight taxes as specific levies falling upon the owners and users of motor vehicles and think the proceeds should be used solely for the construction and maintenance of the highways upon which these motor vehicles are used."

In summing up, the committee reported that there were divided opinions on the choice between what were described as two very imperfect alternatives—the present election of the highway commissioner and the proposed bipartisan commission with an appointed director.

The best choice, the educators decided, will not be before the voters when they cast their ballots April 1—a highway commissioner appointed by and responsible to the governor.

Timorous Birds Strike Back in Scary New Hitchcock Film

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — "What's the matter with all the birds?" asks a character in Alfred Hitchcock's new film, "The Birds."

THOMAS

What is the matter, indeed? Sea gulls peck at boaters at Bodega Bay, Calif. Others swoop down on a children's birthday party. A flight of sparrows invades a house by the chimney. Whole henhouses refuse to eat.

★ ★ ★

Something's got to give, and it's the humans. The birds come flying at them like a plague of oversized, carnivorous locusts. Anyone who has been swooped at by a nesting mockingbird knows what terror that can hold.

Chillmaster Hitchcock plays that terror for all it's worth, and local experts estimate that to be $12 million at the box office. "The Birds" seems certain to be the most successful and most talked-about movie of the season.

★ ★ ★

Hitchcock is a master at this sort of thing. He starts the buildup in the first scene, with a flock of gulls wheeling over Union Square in San Francisco. He follows the heroine (Tippi Hedren) and hero into a bird shop for their first, antagonistic meeting. The suspense builds with errant bird calls and occasional shots of menacing crows. Then the deluge.

★ ★ ★

He spares the viewer nothing. Women and children are repeatedly attacked by the vicious birds. A chicken farmer is killed in his own bedroom, his eyes pecked out.

APPEALS TO AUDIENCE

Terror? Yes. Masochism? Perhaps. But movie audiences have a taste for this sort of thing dating back to "Frankenstein" and "Dracula" and even "Phantom of the Opera."

There is one magnificent throwback to Hitchcock's wonderful way with a camera. That is a scene from high above the seaside village, depicting fire and panic. From this bird's-eye view we see the animals as they gather and commence their attack.

Other scenes are adroitly schemed for the maximum effect of fright: the heroine trapped in a telephone booth as the birds fly at her; the mass of croaking crows perched on a playground jungle gym waiting for school to let out.

The birds, aided by some of Walt Disney's special effects magicians, perform ably. So do the humans, including Rod Taylor, Jessica Tandy and Suzanne Pleshette. Miss Hedren makes an impressive debut, but she is too young and beautiful to be shot with gauzy lenses usually reserved for over-aged film queens.

Oldtime Hitchcock fans might hope that "The Birds" will end the master's flirtation with the bizarre. While the film suceeds in scaring, it doesn't do much else.

Legislators Take Action After Moore's Death

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Talk about high school giants! Pennsylvania, which long has been a giant in prep football products, now boasts one of the most mammoth boys in its athletic history.

They call him "Big John of the Keystone State." He lives in Straw Pump, Pa., pop. 575.

His name is John Naponick and his physical statistics make the rest of us humans feel like midgets.

Big John stands 6-feet-9½ inches from head to toe. This isn't uncommon in basketball circles, but it's the kind of body and frame that encompasses the 81½ inches of a 16 year old, that moves him from the big to the giant class.

He tipped the scales at 280 during the football season, but the fast moving basketball grind which his school has, eliminated 10 pounds, bringing him down to 270. His school, Norwin High, won the class AA state championship Saturday night.

"BIG JOHN OF THE KEYSTONE STATE"

When he changed from football to basketball a problem arose. They couldn't find a pair of basketball shoes to fit him, so they removed the cleats from his size 18 football shoes and converted the soles for use on the court.

WELL COORDINATED

We had the occasion to see Big John in a televised portion of the Pennsylvania State tournament during the early stages, and any supposition that the Norwin High lad might be a hulk of uncoordinated humanity is certainly not true.

Big John isn't the slim bean pole normally seen in cagers above 6-6, and to the other extreme he doesn't carry any fatty areas at anywhere.

He moves well and handles a basketball like an over-sized grapefruit, as his fingers stretch over the center stiching of the ball.

As one Pittsburgh area writer noted recently, "I'd hate to pay his food bill . . . and he hasn't stopped growing yet."

For any college scouts who haven't joined the bandwagon, Big John is supposed to have 110 college entry forms at his disposal. This was at the last count, the majority of which came from football coaches.

There's a p.s. to this story. Big John has a younger brother, age 14, 6-feet-3 and 200 pounds.

Tigers Top League in Spring Pitching

POMPANO BEACH, Fla. (AP) — One of the rare pleasures of spring training for manager Bob Scheffing has been the Detroit Tigers' pitching.

The entire staff has been exceptionally stingy. The composite earned run average is 3.54. That's a lower figure than any American League pitching staff posted last season.

When the training grind started, Scheffing figured he had only two starting pitchers for sure, Hank Aguirre and Jim Bunning.

But now, just beyond the halfway point of the exhibition schedule, most of the doubts are over. Scheffing is pleased with the way Frank Lary's arm has responded, letting him throw loose and easily again.

And the contest for the No. 4 starting berth was pretty much solved yesterday in a 17-3 rout of the Washington Senators.

It belongs to Phil Regan unless he suffers a drastic change of form before the opening of the season two weeks from today.

★ ★ ★

Behind him is Don Mossi, unscored upon in 10 innings this spring. Mossi, whose aging arm no longer can take the strain of pitching in rotation, will be a once-a-week pitcher in Scheffing's plans.

Regan turned in his finest performance of the spring in this longest outing against Washington. He went six innings and held the Senators to two hits.

RETALIATION

The only damaging blow was a two-run homer in the fourth by Bobo Osborne, playing his first game since Detroit sold him to Washington. It followed Regan's only walk after he'd retired the first 10 Washington batters.

Regan has pitched 16 innings in four exhibition games and allowed just 16 hits and six earned runs.

The Tigers came up with their biggest hitting explosion of the spring. They pounded out 17 hits with Bubba Phillips getting five singles in six at-bats. Gus Triandos, Purnal Goldy and Frank Kostro hit homers.

★ ★ ★

Triandos had his best day in a Tiger uniform. He drove in one run in the three-run second and lined his homer with two on in the fourth. Dick McAuliffe also drove in four runs and Phillips had three RBIs.

Rookie Dick Egan, already assured of a job in the bullpen, gave up Washington's third run and three hits in the final three innings.

The Tigers play the Yankees at Fort Lauderdale today in the second game of their three-game swing into the Miami area. Scheffing intends to start Mossi.

Tigers Talking Another Deal?

Reports Say Bengals, Senators Confer

POMPANO BEACH, Fla. (AP) —The Detroit Tigers, who made two deals last week with the Washington Senators, are rumored to be negotiating another one.

Players on both clubs gossiped about the possibilities Monday when the Tigers trounced the Senators 17-3.

This time it'd be a multi-player trade, according to the rumors seeping out of both clubhouses.

Manager Bob Scheffing, who'd welcome another pitcher for the Detroit bullpen, said the rumors were baseless.

'OWE US ONE'

"We've got nothing going with Washington," said Scheffing.

"They've got nobody to give us and they already owe us a player from our last deal."

In that transaction Saturday, the Tigers sent Bobo Osborne to Washington. Earlier in the week they sold pitcher Ronnie Kline to the Senators.

Detroit Has 4-Game Streak

Red Wings Begin Cup Play in Chicago

CHICAGO (AP)—Fresh from a weekend sweep over the league champion Toronto Maple Leafs, the Detroit Red Wings open the best-of-7 semifinal Stanley Cup series against the Chicago Black Hawks tonight.

★ ★ ★

The Red Wings, who will carry a four-game winning streak into the playoff opener, will be led by scoring champion Gordie Howe and goalie Terry Sawchuk.

Chicago Coach Rudy Pilous feels Howe is the man to harness if his Hawks are to advance into the final playoffs against the Toronto-Montreal series winner.

★ ★ ★

But Red Wing Coach Sid Abel feels that Sawchuck holds the key to Detroit's chances.

"The big thing naturally, is Terry," said Abel. "He has to make the big saves. He looked a little tired late in the game Sunday against Toronto, and I was wishing I had used Hank Bassen for the second half.

STRONG EFFORT

"But I think Terry should be all right. He was outstanding over the weekend."

Abel added that since Sawchuk missed 20 games during the second half of the season, he should be more refreshed than Chicago goalie and Vezina trophy winner Glenn Hall.

The Red Wings finished in fourth place, just five points behind the Maple Leafs. Detroit held a 7-6-1 won-lost-tied record against Toronto, and was 6-5-3 with Chicago.

★ ★ ★

Each team will be minus one player in the opening game.

Detroit's Bruce MacGregor, in Edmonton for his father's funeral, will miss tonight's game, but will return for Thursday's contest.

Abel says he'll play Howie Young on MacGregor's spot on the third line.

Meanwhile, Chicago scoring star Bobby Hull said he will be sidelined because of a shoulder injury three weeks ago. The shoulder was so painful he could not play Sunday night in Boston.

Player, Palmer Top Winners on PGA Circuit

DNUEDIN, Fla. (AP) — Two members of professional golf's murderers' row, Gary Player and Arnold Palmer, are separated by less than $300 in their official winnings so far this season.

★ ★ ★

Player still tops the PGA's list of top 10 winners this week with a total of $23,502. His seventh place finish in the Doral Open at Miami last Sunday improved the figure by $1,050.

But Palmer gained a little. He finished fourth at Miami, won $1,800 and now has a total of $23,225.

Jack Nicklaus, the third member of golf's Big Three and third in winnings, got $1,400 for fifth place at Miami. His total is $16,715.

★ ★ ★

Veteran Gives Indians Power

Joe Adcock Heap Big Medicine

By The Associated Press

Joe Adcock, a slick piece of wigwam, might be just the heap big medicine man Birdie Tebbetts wanted for his Indians.

When Tebbetts came to the Cleveland reservation last winter from Milwaukee, he talked the Braves into letting Adcock go in a trade for pitcher Frank Funk and outfielder Don Dillard. Now the Indians can count on a big gun for their attack instead of a bunch of bow and arrows.

★ ★ ★

Adcock proved Monday he can supply the power that's been missing from the Cleveland attack. The 35-year-old first baseman smashed two three-run homers and singled to get another three-run uprising started as the Indians whipped Houston 11-3 in an exhibition game at Tucson.

"Adcock should hit a lot of home runs in Cleveland," said Tebbetts, who said he made the trade with the Braves because "we needed the one big guy who could hit the long ball." Adcock's batting average dipped to .248 last season, but he hit 29 homers and drove in 78 runs.

SIX-HITTER

Other outstanding individual performances were turned in by Philadelphia's Paul Brown, who pitched nine innings and shut out Minnesota 2-0 on six hits at Clearwater, and Bubba Phillips, who stroked five singles in Detroit's 17-3 belting of Washington at Pompano Beach.

★ ★ ★

In a pair of extra inning affairs, Jim Hickman's 11th inning homer gave the surprising New York Mets a 4-3 triumph over Milwaukee at St. Petersburg and Baltimore edged Pittsburgh 5-4 at Fort Myers on Mark Belanger's bases-loaded grounder in the 10th.

Elsewhere, the New York Yankees defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers 5-2 at Vero Beach.

★ ★ ★

In off the field activity, the Mets released veteran outfielder Bob Cerv, who said he would retire from the game; Cincinnati sold pitcher Johnny Klippstein to Philadelphia, and the Angels sold infielder Leo Burke to St. Louis.

While Brown, 0-6 with the Phillies last season, was going the route, his mates put together two errors by the Twins and a single by Bob Oldis for a run in the second that proved enough for the 21-year-old right-hander.

ROOKIE STARS

The American League leading Orioles used a 4-for-5 performance by rookie outfielder Bob Saverine and Belanger's key grounder to nip the Pirates. The Yankees got to Dodger ace Don Drysdale for all their runs while Bud Daley, Hec Brown and Hal Reniff pitched five-hit ball.

Frank Malzone's three-run double in the sixth inning got the job done for the Red Sox against the double by Carl Sawatski gave the Cardinals their decision over the White Sox.

George Alusik and Hector Martinez each collected four hits as the A's bopped the Reds. Ernie Banks' seventh inning homer snapped a 4-4 tie and carried the Cubs over the Angels.

Hawks, Syracuse Can End NBA Divisional Playoffs

By United Press International

The St. Louis Hawks and the Syracuse Nationals can move into the division finals of the National Basketball Association playoffs by winning tonight.

St. Louis, which holds a 2-1 lead over Detroit in the western division playoff, meets the Pistons at Detroit tonight while the Nats and the Cincinnati Royals, all even at 2-2 in the best-of-five eastern division series, play at Syracuse.

If the home court advantage holds true to form, Syracuse should advance into the eastern division finals against the Boston Celtics. In the seven first - round games so far, the home team has won each time.

The Los Angeles Lakers are awaiting the St. Louis - Detroit playoff winner.

St. Louis led 2-0 in the series before the Pistons' 107-103 victory Sunday night. If a fifth game is necessary, it will be played at St. Louis Wednesday night.

Syracuse, which finished six games ahead of the Royals during the regular - season, won the opening playoff game and the two teams have alternated winning in the next three games. Cincinnati won the last encounter Sunday, 123-118.

Farley Makes Bid in Seniors Match

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP)—C. J. Farley, of Grand Rapids, Mich., a veteran of senior golf, makes the big upset bid in the second round of the Ponce De Leon Seniors Tournament today.

★ ★ ★

Farley, in the over 70 age division, meets a youngster of 57, Francis Francis of Nassau, Bahamas, the medalist and tourney favorite.

★ ★ ★

Both played well in winning first round matches Monday. Farley was 1-over-par in beating Edward Titus of Grand Blanc, Mich., 4 and 3. Francis was 1-under-par in a 3 and 2 victory over Walter Barnes of Rockford, Ill.

Yale Expected to Take Honors in NCAA Meet

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP)—Yale is expected to grab the trophy, but Minnesota's Steve Jackman is ticketed for most of the attention here Thursday through Saturday during the 40th annual NCAA swimming meet.

Several coaches and competitors arrived Monday to practice in the new pool at North Carolina State College, site of the meet.

Most said Yale is the team to beat and praised Jackman as one of the outstanding swimmers in the country.

Several Move to Ban Boxing in Some Areas

Michigan Senate May Establish Committee to Study Sport

From Our News Wires

The death of Davey Moore from ring injuries brought mixed reaction for boxing and jolted legislative leaders into steps to further regulate or ban the sport.

★ ★ ★

Legislation was pending in a half - dozen states to outlaw boxing, and moves were being made in at least four others, including Michigan, to impose strict rules.

But former heavyweight champion Jack Sharkey said Moore's death was an "occupational hazard."

Sen. Basil Brown, D-Detroit, asked the State Senate last night to set up a special committee "to study the laws and regulations governing the sport of boxing, both professional and amateur."

Michigan boxing commissioner David Gudelsky today called Moore's death "A horrible tragedy" but said there is more precaution in boxing than in a great many other sports.

"Everyone is pointing at people in boxing like they were carrying guns. We're not. We've got some fine people in boxing," Gudelsky said in defense of the ring game.

He indicated that boxers appearing in world championship bouts in Michigan would use eight - ounce gloves instead of six, as previously allowed, and fighters in regular matches would used 10 - ounce instead of eight.

RENEWS BILL

Among the more vocal legislators was Sen. Estes Kefavuer, D-Tenn., who called for federal regulation of boxing.

Kefauver said he would re-introduce his bill — which died in committee last session — for establishing a federal boxing commission with broad authority to regulate the sport.

Kefavuer said he understands Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy has agreed to have the commission established in the Justice Department, a move which Kennedy greeted with reluctance previously.

"I don't want to outlaw boxing to clear it up," Kefauver emphasized, but then added, "either it has got to be cleaned up and boxers protected or it ought to be abolished."

In California, Connecticut, Illinois, Oregon and New Jersey — all major states where boxing has flourished in the past — officials promised to push for action against boxing.

★ ★ ★

Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown of California, where the Ramos-Moore fight was held, steadfastly held that "boxing should be abolished." He said he would ask the legislature to submit a constitutional amendment to the voters in 1964 to eliminate boxing in the state.

New Jersey State Sen. Nelson F. Stamler introduced a resolution proposing a study of the advisability of abolishing boxing.

On the other side of the argument were such men as James J. Farley, former postmaster general and onetime chairman of the New York State boxing commission and Illinois Gov. Otto Kerner.

Farley said "the percentage of fatalities in boxing is extremely low. I see no reason to outlaw the sport." Gov. Kerner called boxing "a good manly art if managed safely and above board."

In Connecticut, State Rep. Albert Webber said he would submit a bill to ban pro boxing. Such a bill died in committee at the 1961 session.

"Boxing is a seamy sport linked with hoodlums," said Illinois state Sen. Paul Simon, who already has introduced a bill to ban pro boxing in the state.

In Oregon, Sen. L. W. Newbry said the Senate health and welfare committee will hold a hearing soon on a bill to outlaw boxing.

Good Progress for Accommodations Reported

Tokyo Olympic Planners Expect Top Crowds

TOKYO (AP)—Traffic and beds, western style, still are the biggest problems facing Tokyo's Olympic Games planners.

"In general, our preparatory works are making good progress," Shigeru Yosano, secretary-general of the Tokyo Olympic Organizing Committee, said Tuesday. "Our most important problems are traffic and hotels."

★

The games set for October 1964 are expected to draw 30,000 visitors from outside Japan. Officials say hotel accommodations available can handle 20,000.

In addition, about 200,000 Japanese from outside the Tokyo area are expected to flock to the capital city at some time during the Olympic competition.

Appeals have been made to private home owners to take in Olympic visitors, but Yosano said only about 1,000 offers of such facilities have been made so far.

STRAW BEDS

"The main trouble," he said in an interview, "is in finding enough western style accommodations for foreign visitors."

For sleeping purposes, most Japanese homes make use of Futon, a quilt-like mattress that is spread on tatami or straw mat floors at night.

Yosano said there would be no difficult in handling the 7,000 athletes and 1,000 officials expected for the Games.

"The Olympic village, where the athletes will live, will be ready by the end of November," he said, and space for officials already has been obtained.

Plans also are being made to house Olympic visitors aboard ships docked in Tokyo and nearby Yokohama.

★ ★ ★

Officials hope that such schemes, along with an ambitious construction program underway in Tokyo, will help to solve the sleeping problem by Games' time.

Cautious optimism also is expressed about the traffic question in already congested Tokyo. New street, super highway, and subway projects are in full swing and today serve to help create taffic hazards and bottlenecks in almost all the busy downtown area.

KEEP MOVING

But Olympics and city officials are hoping that all major projects will be completed by the fall of 1964 and traffic will be moving.

"Parking facilities, especially in the area of the main stadium, pose another big problem," Yosano said, "but we are trying our best to find space."

★ ★ ★

The secretary-general said construction at most of the major games sites themselves is going along on schedule. Work on the main stadium, being enlarged to handle about 80,000 persons, will for the most part be completed in May, he said.

Hall Wins Vezina Trophy

Howe Takes Home NHL Bonus

MONTREAL (AP)—The 1962-63 regular National Hockey League season proved to be a profitable one for scoring champion Gordie Howe of the Detroit Red Wings and goalie Glenn Hall of the Chicago Black Hawks, the Vezina Trophy winner.

Final league statistics showed today that Howe, in winning the Art Ross Trophy for a record sixth time, collected 86 points. The veteran winger also scored the most goals, 38, and compiled 48 assists.

★ ★ ★

Howe netted $1,500 in bonus money from the league. He recieved $1,000 for being the overall leader and got $500 for leading in the second half of the season.

Hall, in gaining his first Vezina award, allowed 178 goals. The trophy goes to the goaltenders who plays the most games for the team with the fewest goals against it. He had a two-goal margin over Toronto's Johnny Bower, who received $500 as runner-up.

★ ★ ★

Hall pocketed $2,000. Being the over-all Vezina winner, he earned $1,000. He also collected $500 for being the leading goalie at the halfway mark of the season and another $500 for leading in the second half.

Andy Bathgate of the New York Rangers was second to Howe in the scoring race with 81 points on 35 goals and 46 assists. His bonus prize amounted to $1,250. He got $500 for winding up second in the over-all standings, another $500 as the midway mark leader and an additional $250 as runner-up in the second half.

★ ★ ★

Chicago's Stan Mikita placed third in scoring with 76 points. Toronto's Frank Mahovlich and Montreal's Henri Richard tied for fourth with 73 each. Richard was tops in assists with 50.

Howie Young of Detroit set a record for most minutes served in penalties during a season, 273. The Red Wings were the highest penalized team with 913 minutes.

The final scoring leaders:

Player, Team	G	A	Pts.
1. Howe, Detroit	38	48	86
2. Bathgate, New York	35	46	81

IT'S THAT TIME — Off go the cowboy boots and on go the baseball shoes. Kenny Thompson, 5 year old, watched older boys practicing for Little League play in Lexington, Ky., and decided he was ready to put on a pair of oversized shoes and get into spring baseball training, as youngsters across the country are now doing.

Veteran Michigan Nine Rated No. 1

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—The University of Michigan, which won the NCAA baseball championship as well as the international collegiate title last season, is starting at the top again this year.

Michigan's Wolverines were ranked No. 1 nationally in the tionally distributed newspaper, Collegiate Baseball.

Michigan, with most of its top performers returning, barely edged out Missouri in the season's initial poll.

Third and fourth places in the extremely close balloting went to rivals Florida State and Florida. Oregon State was fifth.

Rounding out the top ten were Arizona State University, Santa Clara, Minnesota, Ohio State and Texas.

The close balloting hinted the race for top national honors this season may be the toughest in college baseball history.

Although No. 1, Michigan faces a dogfight in its own conference. The Wolverines, who beat the Japanes college champions after winning the NCAA tourney at Omaha last year, face bitter opposition from several clubs including Minnesota, Ohio State and Illinois.

★ ★ ★

Similiar intense rivalry is expected throughout the nation.

Second-ranked Missouri faces resistance in its own district from such toughies as Oklahoma State, Bradley and Kansas.

Florida State and Florida figure to participate in a rugged battle to determine the district 3 representative to the NCAA championships in June.

★ ★ ★

If either falters, there are at least six others, all loaded with veteran players, that could rise to the top. These include West Virginia, Duke, North Carolina, Clemson, Mississippi State and Wake Forest.

Ford Backs '500' Cars

DETROIT (UPI) — The Ford Motor Co. confirmed yesterday it will have a hand in three cars built for the Indianapolis 500 mile race.

The cars, built by Colin Chapman, designer of the famed Lotus grand prix racers, are powered by a new Ford aluminum V-8 engine.

A Ford spokesman said the engine was developed and built by the firm's engine engineering group.

Chapman began a series of tests on the prototype of the car, fashioned along Lotus lines, at Indy today.

After the three-day Indianapolis test runs are completed, the car will be flown back to England and used as the prototype for two cars that will be entered in the mid-May qualifying trials for the 1963 500 mile race.

Jim Clark of Scotland, runner-up for the 1962 world grand prix drivers championship, and Dan Gurney of Cotsa Mesa, Calif., who drove for Porsche last year, will drive the cars.

The Indy car, of Monocoque design, features a rear-mounted engine. The wheelbase is 96 inches and the over-all length 150 inches.

The body is 28 inches wide and the width at the wheels is 65 inches. The car, including oil and water, weighs 1130 pounds.

With a displacement of 256 inches, the engine is expected to generate 350-plus horsepower.

Sugar Ramos Breaks Down

Moore's Brain Damage 3 Times as Serious

From Our News Wires

LOS ANGELES — A coroner's autopsy shows that Davey Moore suffered three times the amount of brain damage originally indicated by an encephalogram after his fatal fight against Sugar Ramos.

★ ★ ★

Moore's backward plunge onto the lower strand of the ropes is believed by autopsy surgeons to have caused the massive damage that resulted in his death Monday.

The scores of jolting lefts that Ramos rained to the head and jaw of the featherweight champion were described as contributing factors.

Coroner Theodore J. Curphey, reporting the findings of a two-hour autopsy, said there were small hemorrhages and edema of the structures of the brain stem and also "large contusions in the midline of the cerebral hemisphere which were probably one of the major factors in bringing about this man's demise."

In retreating from Ramos' savage attack in the 10th round, Moore plunged backward into the ropes. The back of his neck struck the lower strand near the turnbuckle and his head snapped sharply toward his chest as he bounced onto the canvas.

This fall into the ropes, Curphey said, caused extensive brain damage, but he said blows to the jaw could have been contributing factors.

★ ★ ★

A small hemorrhage was found inside the fighter's lips, and minimum hemorrhages were on the skin of the right temple and around the joint of the right jawbone.

LOST MOUTHPIECE

Curphey declined to be drawn into a discussion whether boxing should be outlawed in California. Moore lost his mouth-piece early in the fight, and although it was restored at the end of the round, Curphey said "I think the rules should require mouthpieces be placed back at once."

★ ★ ★

He said the absence of the mouthpiece may have intensified the effects of the facial blows that caused hemorrhaging in the region of the temple.

Moore's wife, who was told of her husband's death while in the same hospital for treatment of shock and fatigue, said "It was God's will."

"Davey had planned to quit this year and go into some kind of business," she said, "but we had no definite plans. This would have been his last year."

She refused to condemn boxing although she said she would discourage her sons from following in their father's footsteps. Asked about Ramos, Mrs. Moore said, "I don't blame him. Accidents can happen in anything. It was unavoidable."

★ ★ ★

Ramos, weeping silently, was hardly able to answer reporters' questions, but said he didn't know if he would fight again.

It was the second time a boxer had died after a fight with Ramos. Jose (Tiger) Blanco, a lightweight, died in 1958 in Havana of injuries received the day before.

"It was one of my first fights," Ramos, a Cuban now living in Mexico, said in Spanish. "Destiny hasn't treated me too well. I know it's not my fault — but that doesn't make me feel better."

★ ★ ★

He said he felt the fight with Moore should have been stopped.

"I think maybe it should have been stopped in the eighth. His (Moore's) legs were wobbling."

4 Winners in 'Y' Meet

Pontiac YMCA has four double winners in the Northeastern Saturday at Flint Durham Pool.

Ross Coppersmith won the breaststroke and individual medley in the junior division; John Mason won the 100 freestyle and backstroke in the prep division; Steve Yedlin won the 50 freestyle and 100 individual medley in the prep division and Carl Hiller won the diving in the prep event.

Coppersmith's times were two records, 1:11.5 in the individual and 33.2 in the breaststroke. Mason's times were records in the freestyle in 59.1 and butterfly in 28.6 as was Yedlin's individual medley in 1:15.6.

Hiller and Marcel St. Amour took first and third respectively in the diving event to make them both eligible for the state championship to be held at Hunt Junior High in Jackson, April 6th.

The Prep finished second in their division while the Pontiac midget team took 4th in the district as Jeff Klann took second in the individual medley in 1:30, for best showing.

Yanks, Mets Claim Dodgers' Duke Snider

VERO BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The New York Yankees and the New York Mets claimed Duke Snider of the Dodgers as General Manager Buzzie Bavasi placed the veteran outfielders on Waivers Monday.

Bavasi said he would deal only with the Mets, however. He can withdraw Snider's name within 48 hours and then try to negotiate with the Mets for more than the waiver price, which is $20,000.

The Dodgers hope to double that for the 36-year-old slugger.

FORD SCORES TRIPLE SUCCESS OVER COMPETITION IN TOTAL PERFORMANCE TESTS!

The true measure of total performance is not just speed. It's a feeling of complete ease behind the wheel. A feeling of reserve power when you step on the gas . . . of safety when you step on the brake . . . of security in the way a car grips the road, takes to corners, responds to steering. It's a feeling of comfort in the way you sit and see with instruments in easy view and controls in easy reach. Total performance is the mark of engineering excellence that makes every trip on any road a driving pleasure.

1 Riverside, Calif. January 20

A Super Torque Ford bested a field of 44 U.S. production cars in the first big performance and durability test of '63 at Riverside. This was not a "private" test arranged by one manufacturer, but an official NASCAR 500-mile event witnessed by some 50,000 people. The results prove the '63½ Super Torque Ford can take plenty of punishment without punishing the driver. Braking . . . steering . . . cornering . . . Ford delivers total performance!

2 Daytona, Fla. January 27

A Super Torque Ford piled up winning points in economy, acceleration and braking tests to claim first place over all competition in Class I and II (for high-performance V-8's) at the Pure Oil Performance Trials in Daytona. This event is open to all U.S. production cars. The trials duplicate normal driving conditions as nearly as possible . . . and put dramatic emphasis on the practical side of Ford's total performance story.

3 Daytona, Fla. February 24

Super Torque Fords finished 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and 5th in the annual Daytona "500," outperforming a field of 50 cars. Again in open competition, over 70,000 spectators saw dramatic proof of the stamina and durability built into the '63½ Super Torque Ford. Never before has one make dominated so completely a major U.S. 500-mile track event. Ford's 5-in-a-line victory stands as a spectacular demonstration of total performance!

Mart Generally Higher

Savings-Loans Continue Strong

NEW YORK (AP) — Savings-and-loans continued strong in a generally higher stock market early this afternoon. Trading was fairly active.

The savings-and-loan holding companies resumed their rally of yesterday which was based on favorable comment and other developments including good prospects for home building.

★ ★ ★

Autos, oils, mail order-retails and selected stocks in other groups helped give the market a definitely higher trend, although there were ragged spots among and nonferrous metals.

★ ★ ★

Trading moved along at a brisk pace and large blocks were traded in the favored issues.

REPEATER AHEAD?

It looked as if Sunray DX Oil and San Diego Imperial would repeat their roles of yesterday as the first and second most active stocks. Both were traded on a succession of large blocks.

Chrysler, up more than a point, was the biggest gainer in its group. General Motors, touching another new high, gained fractionally as did Ford. American Motor was steady, Studebaker about unchanged.

American Stock Exchange prices were generally higher in moderate trading. Fractional gains were made by San Carlos Milling, North Rankin Nickel Mines, Consolidated Sun Ray, Shawiningan, Noma, Screen Gems and British Petroleum. Among losers were Chromalloy, Brazilian Traction, Reinsurance Investment and Menasco.

U.S. Bond Prices Edge Lower

NEW YORK (AP) — U.S. government bond prices edged lower at the opening today. Corporates were mixed in trading on the New York Stock Exchange.

Over the counter dealers in treasury securities quoted long maturities off about 2-32 and intermediates down 1-32 or 2-32 in moderately active trading.

The trend was downward for more than a week, mostly due to a lack of retail buying interest, bond specialists believe.

Mob of Britons Riots in Streets

Storms Parliament Demanding Work

LONDON (AP) — Hundreds of demonstrators, shouting against unemployment, clashed with police outside the House of Commons today.

★ ★ ★

Cries of "Macmillan Must Go" and "Conservatives Out" rose from the crowd as it surged against a human barrier formed by the police to protect the main entrance to Parliament.

The demonstrators, numbering about 3,000 men and women, were part of a group of 7,000 trade union members who poured into London from various parts of the country earlier in the day.

Several members of the surging mob were arrested. Men and women fainted in the crush. A number of policemen were knocked down and their helmets trampled.

FIGHT WITH POLICE

A dozen mounted police rode up to attempt to restore order but fighting between the demonstrators and constables on foot broke out at several points in the crowd.

The demonstrators set up a chant of "Give Us a Job and We'll Go."

★ ★ ★

Several members of Parliament went to windows overlooking the entrance to appeal to the crowd but were unable to make themselves heard.

Demonstrators made repeated rushes at the entrance and wrestled with policemen who sought to stop them.

One man climbed a column and yelled: "We will get nowhere if we don't get organized." The crowd howled him down.

Three women were carried away unconscious.

Processions and other demonstrations in the vicinity of Parliament are banned while Parliament is in session.

Buyers Are Scarce in Grain Futures

CHICAGO (AP)—Buyers were scarce in the grain futures market during early transactions today on the board of trade and all contracts turned easier.

Brokers said there did not appear to be any significant selling pressure although losses ran to major fractions in all commodities during the first several minutes.

The conclusion was that the absence of more than scattered demand may have encouraged a little more short selling.

Union Weighs Wagner Terms of Contract

NEW YORK (AP)—Striking photoengravers weighed proposed contract terms today amid indications the 109-day shutdown of eight New York newspapers would continue at least until Thursday.

Mayor Robert F. Wagner in a role of umpire offered a proposal accepted by publishers negotiating with the photoengravers.

It was essentially the same as the one accepted Sunday by printers, who initiated the shutdown by striking Dec. 8.

Leaders of the photoengravers put off an immediate decision on acceptance pending a meeting among themselves this afternoon.

Even should they accept, they said, a ratification meeting by the membership would not be held until tomorrow.

The photoengravers have been insistent on a reduction in the 36¼ work week to 35 hours.

Under Wagner's proposal, as in the case of the printers, they would get a 35-hour week, but not until the second year of a two-year contract.

The key question appeared to be whether the photoengravers would be willing to wait a year or continue to press for the shorter week this year.

★ ★ ★

Four unions joined in the strike. Besides the printers, striking mailers and stereotypers have agreed to terms, leaving the photoengravers as the last to act on the mayor's proposal.

Wagner announced the publishers' acceptance of the proposal for a settlement with the photoengravers.

Meanwhile, the leader of striking printers in Cleveland, Ohio, predicted that two dailies which have been closed there eight days longer than those in New York possibly would resume publication early next week.

NO DEADLINE SET

Wagner, who made his announcement at 4 a.m. after negotiations through the night, set no deadline for the union to accept or reject his recommendations.

But he stated flatly he saw "no purpose in further negotiations" between both sides.

In fact, Wagner said, he was "closing shop" for good at the Hotel Commodore, where he has spent several weeks mediating and umpiring contract disputes between publishers and the city's newspaper unions.

★ ★ ★

Other than the photoengravers and two nonstriking unions which will negotiate new pacts after publication is resumed, the other seven unions have come to tentative or firm agreements with publishers.

Reds Face Jail Threat in Brazil

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—Organizers of an anti-American, pro-Castro congress face the threat of jail if they open the Brazilian section of the rally in Rio de Janeiro today as scheduled.

★ ★ ★

Anti-Communist Gov. Carlos Lacerda of Guanabara State, which includes Rio, made the threat of arrest Monday in a move to bar the congress, which has aroused adverse comment in the U. S. Congress.

NO AUTHORITY

Lacerda has no authority, however, in Sao Paulo, where the major international section of the so-called Cuba Solidarity Congress opens Thursday. The congress is neither supported nor condemned by the administration of President Joao Goulart, which got a pledge of $398.5 million in low interest loans in Washington Monday.

★ ★ ★

The head of the congress organizing committee, retired Gen. Luis Gonzaga Leite, said earlier the Brazilian rally would not move to Sao Paulo. He could not be reached for comment after the arrest warning.

'ORDER THREATENED'

Lacerda said "public order, social peace and democratic liberties" were threatened by "subversive action of an organized minority."

Authority for his decision, he said, could be found in the state constitution and laws which "prohibit propaganda for war, class struggle and violent methods to subvert constitutional order and perturb public order."

★ ★ ★

The governor charged that the organizers had invited "foreign agents" and that the congress manifesto described the meeting as "the vanguard of Latin-American revolution." He said it called for "delivering the arms of the people to the people."

Governor OKs Olympic Bills

LANSING (AP) — Bills setting up financing machinery through which the City of Detroit hopes to land the 1968 Olympic Games were signed today by Gov. George Romney.

One bill provides for creation of a state recreation and exhibits building authority to erect a $25-million, 100,000-seat stadium in Detroit.

The other will provide for an increase of 1 to 2 per cent on horse race par-mutuel taxes, furnishing some $1.6 million per year to the state's general fund as a guarantee, if needed, to help pay off the stadium bonds.

Both bills were passed under a "top-priority" schedule after Detroit's designation as U.S. bidder for the 1968 games was reconsidered by the U.S. Olympics Committee.

Strike Losses at $178,850,000

NY Press Shutdown Hits Other Areas, Too

NEW YORK (AP) —. Publishers estimate the known over-all losses caused by the city's 15-week-old newspaper shutdown total $178,850,000.

But the publishers pointed out Sunday, in releasing figures from a survey of leading business organizations, that there are no accurate figures on total retail sales losses that resulted from lack of advertising to attract customers.

★ ★ ★

Because of this, the known loss figure would be quite a bit lower than the actual loss, which various sources say could be safely estimated in excess of $200 million.

Of the known loss, the Publishers Association of New York City said, the city's economy alone suffered in the amount of $139,150,000.

Added to this, the association said, was a $28.7 million loss by the Canadian newsprint industry, which supplies much of the paper on which the New York dailies are printed.

The Canadian newsprint industry estimated it lost the sale of 214,000 tons of newsprint at $314 a ton, due to the blackout here, the association said.

Also figuring in the known loss, according to an association spokesman, was $11 million in state and federal taxes.

★ ★ ★

The city loss, combined with the Canadian loss and the tax loss, gave the association its $178.8 million over-all known loss figure.

The spokesman broke down the city loss this way:

Newspapers $101,250,000; news dealers $11 million; department stores $6.5 million; restaurants $16 million; railroads $2.4 million on newsprint haulage; hotels $2 million.

All-Time High

Pontiac Sales Set Record

Pontiac Motor Division today reported that mid-March sales of Pontiacs and Tempests set an all-time divisional record for the period.

There were 18,811 units sold from March 11-20, an increase of 24 per cent over sales a year ago. The previous divisional sales record was 16,832 established in mid-March 1955.

"This marked the 13th record sales period for Pontiac since introduction of the 1963 models," said Frank V. Bridge, general sales manager.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac's sales percentage increase was even higher than Chevrolet Division, which led the mid-March sales pace in the auto industry.

Chevrolet reported deliveries of 85,153 cars and trucks during the period, a 20.5 per cent increase over the same period last year.

For the entire auto industry, however, the biggest increase in sales was reported by Chrysler Corp.

★ ★ ★

Chrysler reported an increase of 70 per cent in sales.

Chrysler sold 29,129 units during the second 10 days of March. Dodge reported sales of 10,710 cars compared with 5,614 last year.

Dodge General Manager Byron J. Nichols said the sales for the period were 91 per cent higher than the same period in 1962.

ANOTHER MARK

Cadillac reported sales of 5,187 during the mid-March period, an all-time high surpassing the former high in 1959.

Ford Division of Ford Motor Co. reported that sales during mid-March were up 30 per cent over the first 10 days of the month. Ford Division car sales totaled 48,824 for the period while 11,288 trucks were sold.

Compared to last year during the second 10 days of March, Ford car sales were up 11 per cent and truck sales were 25 per cent higher.

★ ★ ★

Ward's Automotive Reports said sales of domestic new cars averaged 24,790 units a day during the mid-March 10-day period, an increase of 21.3 per cent from the March 1-10 period.

GMC Dealers Confer With Division Execs

Dealers from GMC Truck and Coach's Detroit sales zone heard a report this morning on the business outlook for this area coupled with a discussion of prospective sales and product plans.

★ ★ ★

They met with a group of division executives headed by General Manager Calvin J. Werner, who reported on the progress toward improved service to truck operators.

★ ★ ★

All phases of the trucking business were discussed with emphasis on field sales, service and parts activities.

This morning's session at the division offices was part of a nationwide series of dealer-organization meetings to be held in all 19 divisional sales zones prior to the end of April.

Diet Results in Fainting for 2nd Time

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—A housewife who locked herself in a hotel room to starve off some of her 244 pounds has suffered her second fainting spell in a week, her doctor reports.

★ ★ ★

This time it took three hours for Mary Ferguson to recover Sunday night, the physician said. She fainted last week but recovered in a few minutes.

★ ★ ★

Her doctor said the second attack wasn't serious and that she can continue the diet. She has been taking only coffee, tea, bouillon soup and vitamin pills. Her aim is to diet down from a size 24½ dress to a 20½—in time for Easter.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY

JACOBY

In the original form of Stayman, responder showed a spade, heart or diamond bust by bidding two of his suit to an opening no trump while jumps to three were always forcing bids. He would show a club bust by first responding with two clubs and then rebidding to three clubs.

The first change was to use two clubs followed by three clubs as a strong bid and the immediate jump to three clubs as a bad hand. Then it appeared good policy to use the three-diamond jump as a bad hand also.

South certainly doesn't want to let his partner play one no-trump and if he merely bids two diamonds West won't be shut out. Even a three-diamond bid might not shut out West, but this one did.

South played three diamonds and made it since he had to lose only one trick in each suit. East and West can make three hearts so this three diamond bid worked well for South.

When do you use a bust two-diamond response instead of three diamonds? When you don't feel like risking a three diamond bid.

Thus, when I play straight Stayman my immediate responses of two diamonds, hearts and spades and three clubs and diamonds are all bad hands.

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR
For Wednesday

"The wise man controls his destiny . . . Astrology points the way."

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): Stimulus provided where potential possessions, and possibility of greater gain are concerned. Means be alert for hints, openings. Move quickly when opportunity shows.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20): Best to take a chance rather than sink into oblivion for would-be security. What seems secure today may not be tomorrow. Move ahead, Taurus! Go after your heart's desire.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): Many distractions. Up to you to clear way of debris, both actual and emotional. Don't be afraid of the unknown. You have much on your side. Influence others by your clarion call to constructive action.

CANCER—(June 22 to July 21): Find point between intentions and duties. Do what you know is necessary. But state intentions in form of ideals. Means let key persons know you are working toward specific goal.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21): Day which demands self-expression. Say what you think. You'll feel better. Not good idea to bottle up emotions. You are true to honest ideals. Others will recognize that fact.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22): Stress original approach. Strive for freedom of thought, action. Throw off burdens, real and imagined. Be true to your own beliefs. Your critical faculty serves you well.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): Don't be so concerned with finances that your actual possessions cause brooding. Instead, appreciate what you have . . . realize future offers chance for more. Day to take stock, look around.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Highlight on harmony means work together, not against. Cycle is such that arguments drain you of vital energies. Stress humor at business meetings. You can win friends if you are relaxed.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Attend to details in efficient manner. Stress economy. Don't scatter influence. Concentrate on one project at a time. Important day for making known, your assets, capabilities.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Spotlight on progress, relations with "special" people. Put across ideas. Write, read, telephone, communicate. Don't bury yourself in emotional shell. Come out and be seen, heard.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Important that you solve domestic problems. They are not as complicated as they appear. Frank talk with family member helps. Be understanding, sympathetic. You'll be amazed at positive results!

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Little extra effort could turn big tide in your favor. Means don't give up. Push ahead, especially where new ideas are concerned. Read between the lines of written word, understand real meaning.

IF WEDNESDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY . . . you are giving, generous individual, but you cannot abide "phonies!" You are a realist.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR son and brother Clayton Ballard who passed away March 26, 1956: Pleasant thoughts of one so dear. Often bring a silent tear. Thoughts return to scenes long past Time rolls on but memories last. —Sadly missed by mother, stepfather, brothers and sisters.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF EUGENE Kirchmeyer, who passed away March 26, 1959. Till memory fades and life departs You live forever in our hearts. Wife June and Mother.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF DON Cummings, who passed away March 26, 1959. Many a day we speak his name Many hours he is in our thoughts. A link in the family chain is broken. He is gone from our home but not our hearts. Wife Kaye and children, Mom, Dad, and sister.

Oyez, Oyez, Oyez! (Now for Some Oil)

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Britain's champion town crier today foresaw little future for his art in this country.

BOYLE

"Everything in America is far more mechanized than in England," said Herbert Waldron.

"That's a big wound to us town criers - mechanization. It has virtually destroyed us."

Bert, an elfin-faced little man of 59 who is known as "Whisper," is official town crier of Great Torrington, a Devonshire textile center. He came here for a two-week visit to demonstrate his skill at a Paramus, N.J., shopping center.

EVIL TIMES

Looking somewhat like a cross between a robin and a blackbird in his 17th century costume—crimson vest, black top hat, black gloves, black frock coat—Waldron said the medieval glory of the town crier has fallen upon evil times.

★ ★ ★

"There are only about 100 of us left in all England and Wales," he remarked, "and it's now only a part-time job."

★ ★ ★

Bert works as a machinist in a glove factory. The Town Council provides him with his uniform and pays him $2.80 a week to go about the town making municpail announcements. Serving also as a kind of strolling television commercial, he picks up a few extra pennies shouting business messages and news of bingo parties.

As Bert has the loudest voice and biggest town crier's bell in England—it weighs 7½ pounds—is also in seasonal demand by neighboring farmers who employ him to scare away crows.

CHAMP CRIER

Five times, Bert has won the British town crier championship held annually at Hastings, where William the Conqueror landed in 1066. Each victory brought him $140.

"The big problem is competition from the wind, the waves and the traffic," he said.

"The judges are hidden. They judge you on diction, tone, volume, and—above all—on correct English. No mumbling. It simply won't do.

★ ★ ★

"The letter aitch plays a big part. If you drop too many aitches, you lose points. I'm very bad there. But there's always more than one way of taking a pig to market."

OYZER, HEAR YE

Bert says the biggest public misconception about the town crier is that he begins his cry by saying, "Hear ye, hear ye, hear ye!" Actually he calls out "Oyez, oyez, oyez!" an old French demand for silence.

★ ★ ★

It takes Bert about two hours to make the four-mile tour of his home town during which he makes his cry some 50 times. Naturally, that is mighty throaty work.

"But you can stop and wet your whistle at the nearest pub," said Bert. "That's the tradition of a crier—he must be able to oil his throat.

★ ★ ★

"I oil my throat with beer. The custom is one pint at a time.

"I'm not the greatest in that direction. Some put down half a dozen pints before they feel their throat is proper oiled."

Waldron is also mace bearer for the Town Council and, carrying his great silver mace, precedes the mayor at official functions.

"I don't get paid for that," he volunteered. "It's complimentary. But the beer's stronger that day."

★ ★ ★

As a continuing link with Britain's crowded, colorful past, Bert takes a large but quiet pride in carrying on its ancient customs.

"I'm nearly 60 years of age, but I feel like I've lived a thoubeen a good life. I feel so happy about it."

Whazzat??? U.S. Tank at Soviet Office?

NEW YORK (AP) — A U.S. Army tank left overnight to dry (Honest!) excited a number of people today.

Reason: The tank stood opposite the new headquarters of the Soviet United Nations mission.

Hey, what about this, police were asked. Here's the explanation:

The old 7th Regiment Armory of the National Guard occupies the entire block from Lexington to Park avenues between 66th and 67th streets.

The new Soviet mission is on 67th St., between Lexington and 3rd avenues.

Also on one side of 67th is a friendly fire company, which lets the Guardsmen bring up their equipment and hose it down.

When this particular tank was laundered, it wouldn't go. Wet wiring. So there it sat, to dry out —its 105mm gun, even under wraps, kind of ominous aimed at the Soviet mission.

They finally got the tank going and it clanked to the armory.

Vaudevillian, 72, Succumbs to Cancer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Oldtime vaudevillian Felix Adler, 72, who became a comedy writer when Mack Sennett hired him in the 1920s to write titles for silent pictures, died of cancer Monday at the Motion Picture Country Home.

★ ★ ★

Adler stayed in the comedy writing business for more than three decades, writing for such comics as Will Rogers, Harold Lloyd, Laurel and Hardy, Abbott and Costello and the three Stooges.

Paris Outskirts New York; Lights Blink Out at Airport

By EARL WILSON

PARIS-to-NEW YORK—It's a crazy, crazy world we're revolving in this second.

The B.W. and I rushed out to Orly Field ahead of time to catch our El Al plane because an "electric strike" was starting in Paris at 2 p.m. The Paris traffic lights would quit functioning—and there would be a traffic jam in a city that has a perpetual traffic jam.

WILSON

Arriving at the El Al counter, we were told there was some "minor" crew strike and we would now be switched to TWA, leaving an hour later.

A bouncy TWA stewardess led us to the "Ambassadors' Lounge." Suddenly the escalators stopped running. The lights went out. The hostess in the lounge lit candles and we strike-sufferers sat in the half-darkness while the hostess groped to serve us a drink. The "electric clock" was on.

Laurence Harvey, who figures in that nude scene with Kim Novak in "Of Human Bondage," which is already nicknamed "Of Human Bandage," also has something to do with another nude scene—that of 20-eyar-old Sarah Miles in "The Ceremony."

Her English family's livid; her boy friend wants to punch Harvey (producer and director) in the snout. Harvey asked her six times to do the undressing scene. The seventh time she said yes.

REGARDING THE NEW SUNDAY CLOSING LAW, EFFECTIVE MARCH 28th . . .

This law was passed so most people could have their weekends off from work. Pontiac and Detroit passed laws, but the Discount Stores opened up just outside the city limits. This new State Law applies to them also. The law says that if two-thirds of the supervisors of a county vote to void the law for their county, they can do so. In Oakland County, 80% of the supervisors are from the cities, and the cities are against Sunday openings.

The church women were largely instrumental in keeping most grocery chain stores from being open Sundays.

Tell your city officials and supervisors that you want the new law to stay in effect. ACT NOW, BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE!

Couple Tells of 48 Days Lost in Yukon

From Our News Wires

WHITEHORSE, Yukon — An adventuresome girl from Brooklyn and a husky California mechanic related from their hospital beds today the incredible account of 48 days spent on a frozen Yukon mountainside with only the Bible for inspiration and melted snow for subsistence.

"We never gave up hope. We lived from day to day, hoping someone would come," said Helen Klaben, 21.

Miss Klaben and Ralph Flores, 42, of San Bruno, Calif., disappeared Feb. 4 on a flight from Whitehorse to Seattle, Wash., aboard Flores' single-engine plane.

★ ★ ★

Two weeks ago they were given up as dead.

★ ★ ★

They said faith in God brought them through after their plane crashed Feb. 4.

Bush pilot Charles Hamilton spotted the couple's "S.O.S." scrawled in the snow as he flew over the frigid wasteland Sunday, then saw Miss Klaben frantically waving near a lean-to constructed from the small plane's wreckage.

LIVED ON SNOW

Miss Klaben and Flores, a father of six, said they survived on melted snow for the last six weeks.

"It was water for breakfast, water for lunch and water for dinner," said Miss Klaben, managing to smile for her rescuers although she had a broken, gangrenous right foot and a broken left arm and was gaunt from hunger.

She lost 30 pounds — the heavily bearded Flores lost 40 —but Miss Klaben quipped: "That was one good thing about the experience. I used to be 'pleasingly plump.'"

Flores, a pilot and electrician, also is a Mormon lay preacher.

'READ BIBLE'

"His faith set the example for me to follow all my life," said Miss Klaben.

"I am starting my adulthood with full knowledge of what I have to do. I wasn't rescued until I understood, until I realized my sins and decided to make recompense for them.

★ ★ ★

"It was Ralph's Bible. I read both the Old and New Testaments. I know what I have to do, what my work is, what faith is, faith in God."

Miss Klaben said she never lost hope, but was puzzled "why the Lord was keeping us so long."

The, she told reporters, she realized "Ralph [illegible] ed time to think over ou[illegible]

During the terrifying weeks in the wilderness, Miss Klaben said she longed for her mother, Ida Klaben of Brooklyn, more than anything or anyone else.

PHONES MOTHER

Her first act after arriving at the hospital here — where Dr. Nesta James reported she and Flores were "doing as well as can be expected" — was to telephone home.

In Brooklyn, Mrs. Klaben sobbed: "I'm so wrought up I don't know what to do. The poor child, she's really suffering. I'd like to go to her. She's such a wonderful, wonderful girl."

Flores, who suffered a broken rib and frozen toes, also telephoned home when he got to the hospital.

"We were so happy and emotional we couldn't tell each other much," said his wife, Theresa. 'He had tears in his eyes, I am sure, and I was the same way too."

Sheryl Floers, 14, talked to her father. Tears streaming down her [illegible] she kept repeating: "When are [illegible] coming home?"

Flores told reporters he expects to be released from the hospital in about five days.

BLOWN OFF COURSE

He said his light plane was blown off course in a snowstorm and crashed on a heavily timbered mountain as he and Miss Klaben flew from Fairbanks, Alaska, to Seattle, Wash.

Miss Klaben flew with Flores "because it was only $75 for the trip and it's $150 on a commercial airliner," her brother, Edward, said in Cincinnati, Ohio.

★ ★ ★

Miss Klaben was finishing a five-month stint as a draftsman with the U.S. Bureau of Land Management.

She said she was heading for California en route to Hong Kong on the first leg of a round-the-world tour. First reports said she was on the way back to New York to continue engineering studies.

★ ★ ★

Flores, an electrician on the U.S. Dewline distant early warning radar network, had completed his contract and was flying home in his $7,000 private plane.

SOS in Snow Took 3 Days to Walk Out, Led to Rescue

'Picked Her Up, She Hugged Me'

(EDITOR'S NOTE—Charles (Chuck) Hamilton, 32, a bush pilot, was the first person to spot Helen Klaben and private pilot Ralph Flores after they had spent 48 days on a mountain.)

By CHUCK HAMILTON

As Told To UPI

WATSON LAKE, Yukon—When I arrived at the scene, the girl said: "Thank God you've found me. I'd like to kiss you but I can't stand up."

I picked her up and she hugged me. I put her on my shoulders and began the long trek three miles down the mountain.

She must have been in great pain. Her feet were frostbitten. One was badly smashed. Her arm was broken and had set itself in a splint made by Flores.

She told me she kept a diary at the start, but didn't continue it.

She said: "Time passed quickly; at night I thought of the last thing I had eaten.

"We had heated the fruit cocktail and every night I thought about warm fruit cocktail . . . and my mother."

COURAGEOUS GIRL

Every so often we would have to stop to rest. There were many places where the snow was so deep I had to put her down and remove my snowshopes to crawl over the windfall (fallen trees).

★ ★ ★

Every so often I could feel her wince, but she didn't so much as let out a wimper. I can't describe how courageous she was.

We flew out to Aeroplane Lake, about 12 miles away.

Earlier I had seen Flores tramping his way across a meadow on a pair of homemade snowshoes. He had left the girl four days earlier to go and find help in the direction from which he had heard saw noises.

I had radioed Watson Lake to send somebody to rescue him. By the time we arrived at Aeroplane Lake, two Indians had brought him back on a dogsled.

When the two saw each other, they broke down and cried and hugged one another.

EAT, TREMBLING

We took them to a cabin. Their fingers trembled and tears rolled down their faces as they drank hot tea from cracked cups and ate a hot moosemeat sandwich — their first food in six weeks.

Flores was haggard and wore a wild, bushy beard he had grown to hide the severe scars on his face.

Both were dirty and smelled of smoke from the fire they managed to keep burning near their lean-to.

★ ★ ★

They had decided to leave the crash scene and start five miles down the mountain slope. They had to quit after dragging their gear for two miles on a crude, makeshift toboggan.

They made a new camp and Flores left Wednesday in search of help.

On Sunday, I was flying to a big-game camp.

I had flown over the area several times in the past few weeks, but had seen nothing.

Suddenly I noticed an S-O-S signal and a big arrow which had been tramped into the snow.

I followed the arrow up the mountain but didn't see anything.

Then I flew back over the area and noticed a man on the ground.

He was waving his arms frantically. We circled him and yelled out the open window. He motioned up the mountain.

I flew back in the direction of the arrow and this time saw a woman. There was a lot of smoke. At first I thought it was an Indian squaw sitting by a tent and a toboggan.

★ ★ ★

I kept circling and as the smoke cleared, I could see it wasn't a toboggan beside her, but an airplane wing. I could make out the letters N-588, but that's all.

That's when I radioed Watson Lake.

Michigan Gets ADC-U Reply

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES

LANSING—Republican legislators and Gov. George Romney today received Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Anthony J. Celebreeze's answer to Michigan's Aid to Dependent Children of the Unemployed legislation.

Romney had asked Celebrezze for the legal basis which the official would use in rejecting Michigan federal money for the program.

Celebrezze again said Michigan's enabling legislation did not meet federal requirements because "it is discriminatory since it limits payments to persons who worked in jobs covered under a state unemployment insurance law."

He said Michigan's outlining of restrictions in its proposed law were "not relevant to the unemployment test of an assistance program with its different financing and its design for meeting need on an individually determined basis."

★ ★ ★

Among his arguments Celebrezze used a federal appeals court ruling which said a state could not sue the federal government without the United States' permission.

GREW FROM DISPUTE

The ruling grew out of a dispute over welfare regulations in Arizona.

★ ★ ★

Arizona passed a plan for aid to needy, permanently and totally disabled persons which excluded reservation Indians.

The local federal security administrator rejected the law.

In the federal district court, the administrator's action was upheld.

Arizona took the suit to the appeals court which threw the case out.

Democrats indicated they are willing to bail out Romney in his fight with federal authorities over ADC-U legislation by amending a bill now pending in the House.

★ ★ ★

Rep. Joseph Kowalski, D-Detroit, the House minority leader, said he could promise the governor 52 Democratic votes in the House and added "I know there are 11 solid ones in the Senate."

If Romney is able to pick up added strength from his own party, Kowalski said, a revised version of the disputed federal ADC-U proposal can be put through the legislature.

"The amendment that is being offered gives the governor — and the people of Michigan — a second chance," he said. "We hope he doesn't bungle it as badly as he bungled the first one."

The amendment to be offered by Democrats would be attached to another bill, introduced with bipartisan support, to make children in foster homes eligible for ADC payments.

Romney Plans to Study Ruling

Considers Signing Bill Without U.S. OK

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George Romney said today that he and his staff would study Welfare Secretary Anthony Celebrezze's reasons for denying aid to dependent children of the unemployed (ADC-U) benefits to Michigan.

Romney said this would be done before deciding what further steps to take.

"If we conclude we do have the authority to adopt our own definition of unemployment, I'll sign the bill," he said.

★ ★ ★

The governor told newsmen that if he signs the measure he would then "put on my selling clothes" and proceed from there.

He declined to spell out what steps the state might take to try to overrule Celebrezze, but pointed out that there are three branches of government.

Romney said yesterday that unless Celebrezze's department of health, education and welfare (HEW) pinpointed its legal authority to overrule a state's right to define unemployment he will sign a bill to which Celebrezze has objected.

The measure is aimed at qualifying Michigan to share in federal aid for dependent children of jobless parents.

HEW OBJECTS

HEW has objected that it is too restrictive. Except for West Virginia's, Republican Romney says Michigan's plan is as liberal as any of 15 which have qualified with HEW for such aid.

★ ★ ★

The bill would limit the aid to children of parents who have been eligible to receive unemployment compensation since Jan. 1, 1958 and who do not work more than 32 hours in any two-week period.

Romney says this "admittedly shuts out persons who work

Grant 2-Week Delay in Mall Kililng Exam

The Justice Court examination of admitted killers Adoise White and Charles E. Hodges has been postponed for two weeks on the request of their attorney Milton R. Henry.

The pair, charged with first degree murder in the knife slaying of Robert A. Greene, was to have appeared today before Waterford Township Justice John E. McGrath.

McGrath rescheduled the hearing for April 9 at 9:30 a.m. after Henry, a Pontiac city commissioner, informed him late yesterday that he was going to defend the two men.

The new date of the examination is tentative, according to McGrath. He added he will make an attempt to hold an earlier hearing if possible.

He said he granted the postponement because Henry is currently busy with other court cases.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, Brady P. Boley, charged with the fatal stabbing of Aubrey Posey March 8 was scheduled for a preliminary examination today before Justice McGrath.

Boley, 46, of 164 W. Pike St., a self-employed odd-job contractor, admitted stabbing Posey at Posey's house, 571 Crescent Lake Road, Waterford Township, after Posey refused to drive Boley home.

★ ★ ★

Greene, 22 of 122 Summit St., assistant manager of the Kroger super market at the Pontiac Mall shopping center, was slain at the store March 16.

White, 22, of 79½ Wall St., a stockboy at the store, was taken into custody the following Monday morning as he was about to leave work.

Hodges, 22, of 174 Prospect St., a nephew of White, told police his uncle planned the robbery, which netted them about $1,500.

★ ★ ★

White told Oakland County sheriff detectives that Greene was killed because he threatened to expose them to police.

Police are still searching for a boning knife and a gun believed used in the killing-robbery. White said the weapons were tossed in a drainage ditch somewhere on the west side of Pontiac.

Arrest Suspect of Bank Holdup

A 27-year old Oak Park man was arrested last night by the FBI for the March 19 holdup of a Bloomfield Township branch of Manufacturer's National Bank.

Allan E. Morrison, 27, of 23060 Oak Crest was arrested at his home after an extensive investigation by FBI agents and members of the Detroit police holdup squad.

The Bloomfield Township branch, at 4057 W. Maple Road, was held up by a lone bandit who confronted teller Lois Steele with a fictitious deposit slip and a gun.

He ordered her to open her cash drawer and give him "all the money in large bills."

Not satisfied with the speed the bandit then reached over the cage and scooped up several packs of tens, $20's and miscellaneous bills totaling $3,173.

Arraignment on charges of bank robbery has been set for 11 a.m. today in U.S. District Court.

Colburn Near Peace With Blue Shield

DETROIT (AP) — Insurance Commissioner Sherwood Colburn indicated last night that progress is being made towards settlement of his dispute with Michigan Blue Shield over proposed rate increases for medical and surgical benefits.

But he reported no change in his deadlock with Michigan Blue Cross over proposed rate increases for hospital care.

Colburn issued this statement: "Recent discussions with Mr. Frank O. Starr, executive director of Blue Shield, have culminated harmoniously.

"The discussions included suggested amendments of rates as originally proposed and modifications in organizational policy as recommedned by Mr. Starr."

Colburn said Starr would submit the proposals to the Blue Shield directors Wednesday and to a special meeting of the Blue Shield Corporation April 10.

FULL COOPERATION

The commissioner said if these proposals are accepted, he promised full cooperation in expediting approval of a formal filing to the Department of Insurance.

Colburn said he was extremely pleased with the proposals and added: "I anticipate that a stamp of approval will be given the entire program."

Starr was not available for comment.

★ ★ ★

Colburn said he conferred yesterday with Starr at Colburn's Lansing office.

Blue Shield has requested rate increases ranging from 13 to 68 per cent, or an average of 24 per cent. Blue Cross has sought increases of from 24 to 37 per cent, or an average of 39 per cent.

Colburn has opposed the increases, saying the services must make changes he has suggested in administration policies before any increases can be considered.

The proposed changes would include public control of the Blue Cross board and increased public representation on the Blue Shield board.

The Blue Shield board now has eight nonmedical men on its 35-member board. The Blue Cross board has 15 nonmedical men on its 42-member board.

Bidault, Aide Fly to Portugal

Faces Political Ban Similar to Bavaria's

LISBON, Portugal (AP)—Former French Premier Georges Bidault flew to Portugal early today after West Germany refused to let him continue his campaign to overthrow French President Charles de Gaulle, police reported.

He faces a similar ban should he try to stay in Portugal.

Bavarian Interior Minister Heinrich Junker said Bidault left voluntarily. He and an aide, Guy Ribeauld, took a Swiss airline to Zurich under the names of "Auberger" and "Offrey." There they boarded a Dutch airliner for Lisbon.

★ ★ ★

A police spokesman at Lisbon said "two men with these names arrived shortly after midnight, but we did not realize they were Bidault and his secretary." Their arrival touched off a nationwide search by officials.

Before leaving Germany, Bidault vowed to continue his campaign for the downfall of de Gaulle.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman said that "as far as we know, Bidault has not entered Portugal under his own name. We do not know whether he has used false documentation to get in and we are checking this side of the story."

The spokesman said that if Bidault is found here "he will not be allowed any political activity during his stay here."

Political and government circles speculated that Bidault may be heading for Latin America. The next plane for Latin America leaves tonight.

Hospital Warns Plans Hinge on Blue Cross Hike

The William Beaumont Hospital Board of Trustees this morning warned State Insurance Commissioner Sherwin Colburn that if a Blue Cross rate hike is not approved, the hospital's $8-million building program will go out the window.

★ ★ ★

In a telegram to the commissioner, president of the board Irving B. Babcock said that any delay in approval will force cuts in patient care and the reduction in hospital jobs.

The board last night suspended action on the building program pending action by the commissioner.

Session Set Tomorrow

TFX Hearing Postponed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators postponed from today to tomorrow the resumption of the TFX warplane contract inquiry which Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara says can produce "only harm."

Chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark., announced the delay shortly before his Senate Investigations subcommittee had planned to question a group of high-ranking Air Force and Navy officers about the controversial contract award.

He said he had other pressing engagements and the subcommittee's staff had informed him it could use one additional day of preparation for the hearings.

★ ★ ★

He said today's resumption never had been more than a tentative date.

The subcommittee released yesterday a transcript of testimony in which McNamara had told its members Thursday:

"There is a lot of harm that can accrue from this investigation. I cannot see any good that will accrue from it. I can see only harm."

He pegged his protest to what he called frictions between the Pentagon and the subcommittee. But he said he was not suggesting that the senators drop their inquiry into whether favoritism might have steered the fighter-bomber contract—which ultimately may be worth $6.5 billion—to the General Dynamics Corp. of Fort Worth, Tex.

DENIES FAVORITES

McNamara swore that neither political influence nor self interest motivated his awarding the contract to General Dynamics over the Boeing Co. of Seattle, Wash. He said the fact that Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson comes from Texas — where most of the planes will be manufactured—had nothing to do with his decision.

★ ★ ★

The subcommittee summoned as witnesses today high-ranking Air Force and Navy officers. They formed a military "source evaluation board" described as having recommended in vain that a rival design by Boeing promised a better, cheaper version of the sophisticated TFX.

★ ★ ★

McNamara's protests Thursday that the probe could cause only harm appeared to differ with an evaluation given the same day by President Kennedy at a news conference.

"I can see nothing wrong with Congress looking into these matters," the President said. He added, however, that "the secretary did the right thing and the investigation will bring that out."

You Think It's Cold in Michigan?

By The Associated Press

Winter is seven months long in Canada's Yukon Territory and temperatures as low as -81 have been recorded. About 8,000 rugged Canadians live in the area the size of California and New York combined.

Much of the ground stays frozen 100 feet deep all year. The brief summer brings temperatures of 50-60 for Alaska's eastern neighbor.

Gold still comes from the Yukon, scene of the Klondike gold rush in the '90s. So do furs, copper, lead and zinc.

Mountains in the territory reach 19,000 feet. Whitehorse, the capital, is on the Alaska highway running from British Columbia to Alaska.

2 Navy Negroes in Select Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy for the first time has picked Negro officers to attend the Naval War College, it was learned today.

★ ★ ★

They are Cmdr. Samuel L. Gravely Jr., 40, a native of Richmond, Va., and Lt. Cmdr. George I. Thompson of Los Angeles.

Gravely, the highest ranking Negro in the regular Navy, was the first of his race to graduate from a midshipman's school. That was in December 1944.

The Navy chooses its most promising officers to attend the war college at Newport, R.I. This normally marks them for more responsible duties.

The names of Gravely and Thompson appeared on a list of officers tapped for classes convening this fall.

6 Candidates for State Office Stump in Area

Six candidates nominated for state office by the Democratic party were to campaign in the Pontiac area today.

Three of them were scheduled to appear at a Democratic rally in Farmington at 8 p.m.

Supreme Court candidate Paul L. Adams and University of Michigan Board of Regents candidate Eugene Power were to tour offices at the County Service Center this morning.

★ ★ ★

They were then to attend a noon Rotary Club luncheon at Waterford Township's CAI Building.

They were to be joined in the afternoon by Lynn M. Bartlett, candidate for re - election as state superintendent of public instruction; Jan B Vanderploeg and Don Stevens, candidates for re-election to the Michigan State University Board of Trustees; and Gerald Tuchow, nominee for the State Board of Education.

Bartlett was to meet with officials of the Oakland County Board of Education this afternoon.

★ ★ ★

The candidates were scheduled to attend two informal "coffees" at Waterford Township residences at 2 and 4 p.m.

Adams, Tuchow and Stevens were slated to attend the rally at Farmington Democratic headquarters, Orchard Lake Road at 10-Mile Road.

City to Name Supervisors

Slated to Appoint 4 Citizens to Board

The City Commission is scheduled to appoint Pontiac's citizen representatives on the Oakland County Board of Supervisors at tonight's regular commission meeting.

Pontiac's members on the board of supervisors consist of four citizens and three city officials.

Appointments also are slated for the City Zoning Board of Appeals.

Two terms on the seven-man board of appeals are expiring. The zoning board members serve three-year terms.

★ ★ ★

Commissioners are also slated to get a tabulation of bids received on the sale of some city-owned land on South Saginaw Street at Franklin Road.

A tabulation of bids on the final R20 urban renewal demolition contract should also be ready for presentation to commissioners. Action on both tabulations will come at a future meeting.

An amendment to the ordinance regulating and controlling the installation of utilities in the central business district will be introduced tonight and slated for public hearing at a later meeting.

Presently, the ordinance requires utilities be placed underground in about two-thirds of the area within the proposed perimeter road.

The amendment would include an area north of Huron Street not already covered by the ordinance.

★ ★ ★

An ordinance to rezone property at 867-881 Glendale Ave. from Residential-1 to R-3 for a proposed 58-unit apartment structure will also be introduced.

Commissioners will be asked to approve the proposed plat of Saltz-Eisenberg-Geer Subdivision and accept a $1,700 deposit for sidewalk construction in the subdivision.

Birmingham Area News

Tax Fighters Banned Near Polls in City

BIRMINGHAM — To protect voters from harassment at the polls, city commissioners last night passed an ordinance which bans petitioning within 100 feet of a polling place.

This followed last week's resolution denying the Vigilance Tax Committee permission to circulate the anti-Detroit Income Tax petitions in local precincts during the biennial spring election next Monday.

Commissioners at that time agreed to adopt a policy of not permitting the VTC personnel in the polling area.

They alsoturned down VTC Chairman George W. Khun, Berkley mayor, a request by to place petitions on the counter of the clerk's office in the Municipal Building.

The Commission said they did not feel that the city should be involved in the signing and circulation of VTC petitions and that such activities within the 100 feet area and polling place take undue advantage of the voters

★ ★ ★

"We would like to have a policy in effect where we could enforce it," Commissioner Carl F. Ingrahm said, last night, "so people won't have to submit to petitions within the polling place."

SEES NO REASON

Kuhn said he could "see no reason" why the VTC couldn't "petition within the 100 feet or within the building."

"We'll probably take every opportunity to get as close to the potls as possible, whether it's 100 or 10 feet, we'll be there."

The VTC head said there have been "a lot of calls from Birmingham citizens" who are concerned over the Detroit income tax of which they claim they pay "the lion's share."

★ ★ ★

"We're not asking for troubel" he said, "but Birmingham is making it most difficult for us to communicate with its citizens.

OTHER BUSINESS

In other business, commissioners approved purchase of four Ford polcie cars for a total net price of $2576 after trade.

They also approved an agreement with the residents of Gordon Court for construction of a water main on that street.

Before last night's meeting, 36 students from Birmingham Seaholm High School held their winding up the annual Civic Control Day activities.

Bob Brown acted as mayor, and Tally Adams, Tom Brooks, Lillian Jackson, Dave Kennedy, John McCullough and Tom Kennedy as commissioners.

Board last night denied a request fora zoning change which would have permitted construction of a 72-unit motel on Telegraph Road.

Holiday Inns, Inc., appealed to the board after the request was turned down by the township planning commission three weeks agol

Plans called for a Holiday Inn to be built on the east side of Telegraph Road south ofLong Lake Road.

This would require changing the section from a local business to heavy commercial zone.

The main objection of both the commission and the board was to rezoning the small parcel of property on Long Lake Road which is included in the L-shaped site.

Suthority tohire a township engineer was granted to Treasurer Homer Case. The new employe would work with the building department, interpreting and enforcing building and zoning codes.

The township last night became the 12th and last member of the Evergreen sewage disposal district to approve the addition of Franklin and Bingham Farms. The two villages will now be allowed access to the district's sewer lines leading into Detroit.

Court Adjourns Henry Case

The Circuit Court arraignment of City Commissioner Milton R. Henry on a charge of felonious assault was adjourned yesterday.

Henry's appearance was rescheduled for April 2. His arraignment had been set for yesterday before Circuit Judge William J. Beer.

Henry was unable to appear because he was defending a client in a criminal case in Detroit Recorder's Court, according to Oakland County Chief Assistant Prosecutor Robert Long.

★ ★ ★

Henry is accused of hitting patrolman Neil McCormack with his pink Cadillac after McCormack arrived at the scene of a dispute between Henry and a garage owner acting for a finance company.

Henry's examination on the charge was postponed six times in Pontiac Municipal Court, four times because Henry was defending a client in federal court in Detroit.

After the examination, Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum twice postponed his ruling on whether Henry should be bound over to Circuit Court for trial.

★ ★ ★

Judge McCallum bound the city commissioner over to Circuit Court on March 20, ruling that the question of criminal intent in Henry's action was a matter for a jury.

Justice Raps Court Election Setup

Michigan Supreme Court Justice Eugene F. Black was nominated for re-election this year by the Democratic party, but he's not entirely happy about it.

★ ★ ★

It's not that Black didn't want nominaion. It's just that he doesn't approve of the way State Supreme Court candidates get on the ballot.

Black, whose independence in speech and judicial action has sometimes made Democrats unhappy with him, yesterday charged the state's system of nominating high court candidates makes the Supreme Court subservient to politics and the State Legislature.

Black spoke at a luncheon meeting of the Oakland County Bar Association in Pontiac. Three other candidates for the State Supreme Court in next Monday's election also were invited but were not able to attend.

★ ★ ★

High court candidates are elected on a nonpartisan ballot but are nominated by party conventions.

"Some members of the court —of both political parties," Black said, "are sent there to do the will of their parties rather than the people."

Black said he "deplored" the system because Supreme Court justices had to depend on their parties for renomination.

He claimed the system put control of the judiciary in the hands of the State Legislature, which sets the method of nominating high court candidates.

NEW-CON NO HELP'

Black said the proposed new state constitution to face voters Monday would not do much to make the judiciary independent.

The document provides that Supreme Court candidates be nominated "in the manner prescribed by law," thus still leaving it to the legislature.

However, the new constitution does 'provide that incumbent justices may get on the ballot for re-election merely by filing an affidavit of candidacy.

Black said the quality of the State Supreme Court and its rulings has declined since the "half-fish, half-fowl" system of nonpartisan election and partisan nomination went into effect more than 20 years ago.

★ ★ ★

Black was elected to the State Supreme Court in 1955. He previously was a circuit judge and was state attorney general in 1947 and 1948. He is from Port Huron.

OTHE RCANDIDATES

The other Democratic-nominated Supreme Court candidate, Paul L. Adams, also emphasizes his independence.

Adams lost his supreme court post in the November election. He was scheduled to campaign in the Pontiac area today.

The two Republican-nominated high court candidates — Circuit Judges Richard G. Smith of Bay City and Donald E. Holbrook of Clare — spoke before the County Bar Association two weeks ago on a day-long campaign swing through Oakland County.

★ ★ ★

They are campaigning on their records on the circuit bench and urging adoption of the proposed constitution as improving the state's judicial system.

Rochester-Council Action

Study of 'Park' Reopened

By ROGER SRIGLEY

ROCHESTER—With the rap of the gavel by new President John Boeberitz last night, the village council reactivated its study of a proposed industrial park here.

However, Boeberitz and Councilman Dr. John Terry reaffirmed their objection to the urban renewal plan under which the park would be constructed.

Consideration of the project was brought up after the unanimous election of Boeberitz as president and new councilman Kenneth C. VanNocker as president pro tem.

Edward Hustolez, representing village planning consultants Vilican Leman & Associates, Inc., brought the new councilmen up to date on the status of the urban renewal planning.

* * *

He pointed out that a village-wide study has been completed by the Southfield consulting firm, a workable program has been submitted to the council and a project area has been determined.

* * *

The planners chose the area adjacent to Third street for the site.

Representatives of the Federal Housing Administration have visited the area, Hustoles said.

The Vilican-Leman representative stated at a previous meeting that the village would logically and legally qualify for a federal grant.

On Nov. 26, the village council voted to apply for a $62,660 federal grant to cover survey and planning costs for the project.

BIAS VOTE REVERSED

At a session three months later, the council voted 4 to 3 against addition of a nondiscrimination clause to the application for planning funds.

The Urban Renewal Administration was asking that the phrase be added to all grant applications.

Boeberitz and Dr. Terry at that time voted against addition of the clause, stating they did so as a tool to kill the urban renewal plans.

Last night the vote for addition of the clause was unanimous, although both Dr. Terry and Boeberitz said they were voting for the clause, but remained opposed to urban renewal.

The survey and planning application is now at the Chicago regional office of the Urban Renewal Administration.

The review of the project application will proceed, and upon its expected approval a detailed planning phase will be undertaken.

After the initial study or Final Project Report, is completed, it will be the Urban Renewal administrator.

Following its approval a public hearing will be conducted. Then the council must make a final decision on proceeding with execution of the project or dropping it.

Asked if the village must pay back the $62,660 used for planning, should the council decide against the project, Hustoles offered this answer.

"Technically, the village is obligated to pay back the loan—however in administrative procedure this is not done."

He said only one community had been requested to pay back the grant, and that was because the city was well into the execution stage when it decided to drop the plans.

* * *

Included in the renewal project are the straightening of Paint Creek, the elimination of Third Street and the construction of two new bridges to replace the old ones in that section of town.

It was previously estimated that the total renewal program would cost $728,000, three fourths of which would be paid by the federal government.

33,000 Sign for Plan to Divert Grain Acreage

EAST LANSING (AP) — Signups for the 1963 U.S. feed grain program in Michigan are estimated at nearly 33,000, according to officials of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Participating growers agreed to divert an estimated 500,000 acres in 1962, 39,897 growers diverted 676,000 acres from feed-grain production under the program.

Will Describe Ideal School

Consultant to Speak in W. Bloomfield Twp.

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Dr. Russell Wilson, of the Bureau of School Services, University of Michigan, will address the West Bloomfield Schools Citizens Advisory Committee tomorrow in the high school library.

Specializing in the physical requirements of school buildings, Dr. Wilson will give a graphic description of the physical features and qualifications of the ideal high school building at the 8 p.m. session.

Having previously toured the West Bloomfield High School and the Roosevelt Elementary School, Dr. Wilson will discuss possible improvements and ultimate usage of these two buildings as a nucleus in an expanding school development plan.

Composite aerial photographs of the school district area as requested by the steering committee will not be available until next Monday, a committee spokesman said.

With the aid of township maps the group will attempt to select qualified areas for proposed schools, but specific locations will be deferred until the aerial photographs are available for study.

Although the Citizens Advisory Committee has completed a large portion of its assigned study, the meetings are still open to any area residents who wish to attend.

New Postponement of Ex-Officer's Trial?

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP — Whether the trial of former police Lt. Anniah Ruffin on six charges of bribery and extortion will begin as scheduled tomorrow in Oakland County Circuit Court was uncertain today.

Robert Long, Oakland County chief assistant prosecutor, said the trial may be postponed again because one of Ruffin's attorneys, Milton R. Henry of Pontiac, was defending a client in a criminal case in Detroit Recorder's Court.

The trial was originally set for March 13, but was rescheduled because Henry was then appearing in federal court.

Emmett J. Traylor of Pontiac also is defending Ruffin in the case.

Ruffin, 41, was arrested by state police last October in what County Prosecutor George Taylor called "an over-all clean-up of the township."

* * *

Ruffin is accused of taking bribes to permit gambling in the township. He was arrested after he met a numbers racket operator who gave him $25 in marked bills, according to police.

The numbers operator claimed he paid Ruffin $25 a month for two years, police said.

Ruffin is charged specifically with extortion, conspiracy to obstruct justice, bribery, conspiracy to violate state gambling laws, conspiracy to commit bribery and soliciting a bribe.

* * *

State police arrested Township Trustee Ernest Wilson shortly after Ruffin's arrest. Wilson is awaiting Circuit Court trial on charges of bribery and conspiracy.

Henry also is Wilson's attorney.

Juvenile Issue Headed for Court

DETROIT (AP)—Wayne County Juvenile Court Judge James H. Lincoln says he plans to ask the courts to compel the state to accept juvenile delinquents committed by his court to state institutions.

The Democratic judge, who accused Republican Gov. George Romney and the legislature of failure to provide sufficient funds for such institutions, disclosed his course of action yesterday.

Earlier in the day, Lincoln sought to dramatize the lack of facilities by dumping a busload of 20 "aggressively delinquent boys" on the Boys Training Branch at Whitmore Lake.

* * *

Officials of the state school accepted four boys under a weekly county quota system and turned 16 away, just as they had said they would.

The 16 were returned to the Wayne County Youth Home to be released to their parents.

* * *

Judge Lincoln then announced that he will try through the county prosecutor to bring a court action, probably a mandamus suit, to force the state to take custody of juvenile offenders sent from Wayne County. Lincoln said his action will have a precedent in Ohio.

SUPREME COURT UPHOLDS

The Ohio Supreme Court on Jan. 31, 1962 upheld Hamilton County Juvenile Court Judge Benjamin Schwartz of Cincinnati in his suit to break the quota system.

* * *

The quota had been set in 1961 on the Boys Industrial School at Lancaster on orders of Michael V. DiSalle, who was then governor.

DiSalle wanted the school's inmates reduced from 850 to 500 boys to give them more intensive, longer treatment.

Lincoln said Romney and the legislature should give priority to completion of Whitemore Lake buildings to house 438 more boys. He said this would mean an appropriation of $3.8 million this year as the first step instead of the $1.6 million recommended.

In a speech to the Economic Club of Detroit yesterday, Romney said he was just as concerned about the problem as anyone in the state.

* * *

But, the governor added, "I am not going to let threats and stunts stampede me into a crash program that ignores the interest of all the citizens of the state."

Farmington's School Board OKs Record Budget for '63-64

FARMINGTON — The board of education last night approved a 1963-64 school budget of $4,836,146 the largest in its history.

The budget is approximately $750,000 larger than the estimated expenditures for this year.

Supt. G. V. Harrison said the approved figure represents about a one per cent cut from the budget prepared by the administrative staff. Additional funds were requested because of an anticipated boom in enrollment, Harrison said.

The district expects to have about 800 more students next year. Additional teaching personnel, supplies and equipment will be needed for the enlarged district, Harrison said.

FOR SALARIES, TOO

"The budget also calls for some improvements in the salary schedule," he said. It is hoped that the teachers' wages can be brought more in line with those in neighboring districts.

* * *

The major portion of the $58,293 cut in the proposed budget was in eight accounts. The largest single item to be slashed was a $22,406 request for three assistant principals in the junior high schools.

The board cut some capital expenditures which were considered improvements over existing programs rather than necessary facilities for the growing district. These included funds for improvement of grounds, buildings and teaching facilities.

The budget was prepared on a state equalized valuation for the district of $100 million, which is about $2½ million higher than that set for the district last year.

School officials said they believe the estimate is conservative and the budget will require no increase in the tax rate.

Their figures are based on the assumption that the county tax allocation board will allow the school system the same levy it did last year.

Village Posts to Be Retained

ROCHESTER — The village council here agreed last night to retain the present village manager, attorney and clerk in their present capacities.

When the issue came up, new trustee John O'Donnell moved to dispense with any formal action on the positions of Village Manager Paul York, Clerk Maxine Ross and Attorney Arthur Cox as not required "at this time."

In other business the council requested Cox to prepare an ordinance, for council approval, which would restrict the operating hours of drive-in restaurants in the village.

* * *

Also at last night's session a Class C Liquor License was given to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cromie, for the Paint Creek Tavern, 613 N. Main St.

3,199 Names on Petition for Oak Park Millage Hike

OAK PARK — At least 3,199 residents here are interested in voting on a proposed increase in school millage.

A petition bearing that many signatures — more than twice the number necessary — was to be presented to the board of education this morning by the Survey Our Schools (SOS) Committee.

The petition would force the board to request a 3.5-mill tax increase on the June 10 ballot.

* * *

The SOS Committee is particularly concerned with opening the new junior high school now under construction at Scotia and Nine-Mile roads.

Two recent millage increase proposals were defeated at the polls.

The necessary number of signatures, plus 1,699 extra, was collected in 10 days. The committee had been given until next Monday to present the petition for the April 4 meeting of the board.

An official statement on the intentions of the committee will accompany the petition, according to Abraham Brickner, chairman.

Firemen Plan Penny Dinner

ADDISON TOWNSHIP — The Addison Township fire department will stage its annual penny supper Saturday evening at the Leonard Elementary School.

Proceeds from the 6 p.m. event will go toward payment of the firemen's insurance policy.

Twenty members of the department and their wives are working on the dinner. The firemen will be there in uniform, many of them serving while others wait on tables.

Four key differences between the reckless and the careful investor
(Recognize anyone?)
Here's how to tell one from the other:
Reckless: Flames into action on a tip.
Careful: Ignores the tip and settles down for a good hard look at the facts. What does the company sell? What are its prospects? What have its earnings been? What dividends has it been paying?
The careful investor has information like this before he invests a penny. Not only to help him make intelligent investments. But to help him choose securities that seem most likely to bring him to his goals. Such as a second income from dividends. Or growth in value of his stock. Or the relative stability of value and income that good bonds can provide.
Reckless: Is happily certain the price can only go up.
Careful: Knows that the prices of stocks and bonds go down as well as up. That a company may falter or fail, may not continue to pay dividends or interest. But he also knows that as America grows he may have the opportunity to grow with it through wise shareownership.
Reckless: Thinks all brokers are alike and any broker will do.
Careful: Knows that brokers differ—though none are infallible. He's aware that a Member Firm of the New York Stock Exchange is required to observe many Exchange rules. And that he will have the services there of a Registered Representative who has met the Exchange's qualifications. A Member Firm can provide him with many facts essential to farsighted selection of good stock.
Reckless: Plunges with whatever money he has, hoping for fast gains.
Careful: Watches his income like a hawk. Keeps one eye on the future. From the top he draws enough to pay normal living expenses. Next he puts aside what's necessary to provide for any major emergency. On what remains he plans his investments.
If you like the idea of investing systematically, you'll be interested in the Monthly Investment Plan. Through the Plan you can select stock from among America's greatest companies and invest with as little as $40 every three months ($3.08 a week). Send the coupon for a booklet packed with useful information—including a description of the Plan.

Activities Aid Troubled Minds

Hands Are Busy in Therapy Program

Busy hands build happy minds. This is the key to the Pontiac State Hospital's occupational therapy program.

★ ★ ★

Patients in the program are able to find new interests, develop new skills and employ acceptable outlets for their abilities and emotions.

★ ★ ★

The department has occupational therapy centers for men and women and two shops for patients requiring continuing treatment.

Six registered therapists and five arts and crafts instructors work with more than 200 volunteers to provide a varied program for the patients.

Activities include weaving, woodwork, leather, ceramics, basketry, metal work, sewing, needlework, all art forms, copper enameling, gardening, writing and homemaking.

★ ★ ★

Recently patients with a flair for gardening were provided with a greenhouse to facilitate continuity in the horticultural therapy program.

SUITABLE SETTING

The purpose of the program, according to Mrs. Robert McCurry, director of occupational therapy, is "to provide a suitable setting where patients will have an opportunity to engage in therapeutic activities to meet varied needs."

★ ★ ★

Many indicate that they have always wanted to learn some of the crafts the program offers but have never found the time.

★ ★ ★

Classes for the patients, who must be referred by their doctors, are held five days a week.

Child Clinics Ask Boost in County Aid

Directors of the Oakland Child Guidance Clinics have asked the County Board of Supervisors for $96,804 from its budget next year.

★ ★ ★

The request for $37,304 more than the board allocated in this year's budget was presented yesterday to the ways and means committee.

Chief administrator for the three clinics, Ralph E. Walton, said the additional funds would provide a 20 per cent increase in the staff and care given mentally disturbed children in the county.

Psychiatric treatment is provided at the clinics in Pontiac, Royal Oak and Birmingham for youngsters whose parents cannot afford private care.

★ ★ ★

Walton said the need for more funds was determined by a special committee appointed by the chairman of the board of supervisors, Delos Hamlin.

Ways and means committee Chairman David Levinson said the findings of the committee didn't mean that the county should be expected to assume the additional cost.

"It's your problem to decide how big your program should be; our problem is how much can we subsidize you," Levinson stated.

EXPECTS NO BOOST

He indicated that the clinics could expect the county to continue to subsidize them in its 1964 budget at the same rate as for this year — $59,500 toward a total budget of $110,140.

Final action by the committee was withheld pending further study of the directors' request and the over-all county budget for next year.

The clinics have prepared a total departmental budget for 1964 of $145,804.

★ ★ ★

Walton said this figure would enable 18 new employes to be hired, including a full-time psychiatrist.

Besides the request for county funds, the clinics' proposed budget anticipates $49,000 in community contributions and private donations.

★ ★ ★

How much the county can contribute depends on how much money the Tax Allocation Board makes available to operate the county next year, committee member John Carey said.

'SCHOOL RESPONSIBILITY?'

Another committee member, Harry Horton voiced the opinion that the cost of operating the clinics should be the responsibility of the school boards.

"They get about two-thirds of the total allocation each year and shelve off areas of their responsibility on the county," he complained.

Committee member Clare Cummings recalled the state asked only that the county provide quarters for the clinics originally.

★ ★ ★

The county has supported the clinics since 1946. They originally were founded by private citizens in the absence of local state mental health programs.

Sen. Farrell E. Roberts, R-Oakland County, has resubmitted a bill again this year that would enable community mental health programs to affiliate with local hospitals.

The senate has attached preliminary approval to the bill, similar to one that failed to pass last year.

News Management? 'Hogwash'

WAHINGTON (AP)—Pentagon press chief Arthur Sylvester—described as "the villain of the piece" in a congressional inquiry into government information policies—has offered his rebuttal to charges of news management at the Defense Department: "Hogwash."

Sylvester spent three hours Monday telling a House subcommittee about the Defense Department's information program. "I am a newsman," he said, 'and in the somewhat altered role of government, newsman I am trying to give the American people the truth about the operation of their government."

★ ★ ★

Sylvester, a former Washington correspondent, said he didn't "sell out" the principles of the news business when he went to work for the government.

He told the subcommittee he "certainly will review" an order requiring defense officials to report all their contacts with newsmen and say what they talked about. The order came in for heavy subcommittee fire.

NO RIGHT TO LIE BUT . . .

He said the government does not have a continuing right to lie to Americans—but does have a responsibility to do whatever has to be done, "no matter how repugnant," when the nation is confronted with the threat of nuclear war.

Sylvester, chief target of news executives who complained at a hearing last Tuesday that the government has lied to the people, and Robert J. Manning, the State Department's chief public information official, testified as the subcommittee pressed its inquiry into news policies.

★ ★ ★

The next phase will come behind closed doors, in sessions expected to begin after Congress takes its Easter recess. They will deal with restrictions on newsmen covering the U.S.-backed fight against Communist guerrillas in South Viet Nam, secrecy about military missile launchings and why wartime censorship plans are being kept secret.

Sylvester gave his assessment of news management charges after Rep. George Meader, R-Mich., told him, "You, in a sense are the villain of the piece. I want you to defend yourself."

Sylvester, said the only place news can be managed is in newspaper offices. "Under our free press system the decision on what is to appear what is not to appear is properly made in every editorial office," Sylvester said.

★ ★ ★

"They're in the business of managing the news and that's not what I'm talking about," Meader replied. The Michigan congressman said Sylvester and others in the administration have been accused of seeking to manage and distort the news.

"I think what you're talking about is not news management, but are we giving information, are we giving access to it, are we giving the facts as they are," Sylvester said. He said at the Pentagon, the answer is yes.

Door Requirement Questioned

Waterford Will Review Building Code

Prospects of losing a proposed apartment house development because of a building code restriction led Waterford Township Board members last night to plan a review of the code.

cause of a building code restriction led Waterford Township Board members last night to plan a review of the code.

The eixsting code specifies both a front and rear doorway in apartment house units. Proponents of a 32-unit building at Voorheis Road and Josephine Street said one-entrance units are allowed elsewhere.

"We could put up a building anywhere in the state but Waterford Township," Ray O'Neil, an area realtor, said. O'Neil represents a group of businessmen who have an option on the proposed site.

★ ★ ★

Board members indicated a thorough investigation of the code restriction would be conducted following the April 1 election when the new township board is established.

DELAY BILLIARD CENTER

The board postponed action on granting a license for a proposed family billiard center at 3127 W. Huron St. pending receipt of further information on the nature of the business.

Trustees Byron Cole, John Coleman and Joseph McGee all reported receiving several phone calls objecting to the billiard establishment. McGee said people who called him were concerned about an added juvenile problem as a result of the billiard establishment.

In other business, the board authorized Township Supervisor Elmer Johnson to accept an offer from the township's consulting engineers to print copies of an incorporation study report for public distribution.

★ ★ ★

Johnson and Anderson, Inc., will provide use of printing facilities and the township will provide the personnel and paper.

Cole, a member of the library study committee, said a report of progress in establishing a public library in the township is being prepared for the board.

His committee and the Friends of the Library, proponents of the community library, have held a series of meetings, Cole said.

★ ★ ★

The board heard a complaint on the traffic tie-up each weekend in the vicinity of Telegraph Road and Huron Streets due to a car-wash operation and agreed to refer the matter to county authorities.

A five-member delegation of businessmen in the area told the board that the lineup of cars "blocks side streets and generally slows traffic.

A motion by Coleman that letters and certificates of gratitude be issued to retiring board members Cole and McGee won unanimous approval of the board. Neither seeks re-election in the April 1 election.

Consider Food Lift to Ski Ghost Town

ZERMATT, Switzerland (UPI) — Swiss authorities today were reported considering a food lift of uncontaminated supplies into this popular ski resort which has been turned into a ghost town by a typhoid fever epidemic.

Nearly 200 persons, including at least one American tourist, have been stricken by the disease and two have died.

Mrs. Henry Safran, 25, of New York, was reported recovering in a New York hospital. She returned to the United States March 11 following a visit to Zermatt.

Authorities have been unable to trace the source of the epidemic but both the food and water supply are suspected.

MEDICS HELP

Members of a Swiss army medical detachment fighting the disease have been forbidden to eat local food or drink local water. This has led to reports that outside supplies will be brought in.

The ski season came to an abrupt halt when hotel and restaurant owners voted yesterday to shut down for the duration of the typhoid outbreak.

The decision was anticlimactic. This normally crowded Alpine resort already had taken on the aspect of a ghost town. Virtually no tourists are left.

Those who braved out the first week of the epidemic last week have gone and almost no one has arrived to replace them.

The new night clubs and bars that had remained open had only a few customers instead of the usual crowds of skiers and sightseers.

GIGANTIC LOSS

The loss to hotel owners from canceled bookings and the expected weekend shutdown figured to run into hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Swiss newspapers and the regional medical association have accused Zermatt authorities of taking inadequate steps to deal with the situaion.

The Lausanne Gazette said yesterday, "The tourist interests of the Zermatters appear to have taken precedence over public health in the early stages of the disease."

It said hotel keepers apparently were slow in warning their guests of the disease for fear of a mass exodus at the height of the ski season.

1,000 Urged to Vote 'Yes' by Romney

DETROIT (AP) — Gov. George Romney, urging a 1,000-member audience at an Economic Club of Detroit luncheon yesterday to vote "yes" Monday on the state's proposed constitution said:

"There is no chief executive in this state — just a poor fellow up there who can't do anything because he doesn't have authority.

"I'm like a quarterback all of whose players have been chosen by the other side. We have an absurd executive department situation . . .

"I can't do the job that needs to be done without the new constitution."

★ ★ ★

Under the proposed new constitution, the governor and lieutenant governor would run as a team, winning or losing together. The offices of auditor general, state treasurer, superintendent of public instruction and highway commissioner would be filled by appointment.

Chrysler Gets Army Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has awarded a $2,017,672 contract to Chrysler Corp., for 1,311 trucks to be built at the company's Warren, Mich., plant.

PCH Takes 'Music Man' to Detroit

Pontiac Central High School's production of "The Music Man" will go big time this weekend. PCH students have presented the performance locally for the past two weeks.

The high school cast, chorus and orchestra will stage the Meredith Willson musical in the Scottish Rite Cathedral at Detroit's Masonic Temple on Saturday and Sunday.

More than 100 students will take part in the production.

★ ★ ★

William W. Merrill, Scottish Rite dramatic director, said he expects this to be the first of many talent showcases giving young people opportunity to advance their careers.

"Each season, I hope to import a production of merit that will give high school students a chance to display their talents," said Merrill.

Scholarships will be awarded to the two most promising performers, who will be selected by a panel of professional theater and music critics.

★ ★ ★

"The Scottish Rite Youth Award is to be used for further artistic study and is expected to act as a great encouragement for talented youth in the community," Merrill said.

Pontiac Mayor Robert A. Landry will accept a plaque in behalf of the school for its work in presenting the musical.

Tickets for both 8:15 p.m. performances have been exhausted.

Plan Parade for May 30

Plans for a full-scale Memorial Day Parade are under way here.

Promoting increased participation in the May 30 observance is the Pontiac Memorial Day Association, comprised of nearly a score of veteran, civic and community groups.

The organization, however, is seeking additional help in its effort to increase the size of the parade.

★ ★ ★

The association will will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at 199 Auburn Ave. to review its progress. The meeting is open to the public.

"The parade has improved yearly, said Mrs. Eva M. Welch, association secretary. "But more floats and marching units are needed if it is to be a success."

Apparently Dead

Community College Bill Fails

LANSING — Oakland County last night received another setback in its efforts to establish a community college system

An enabling bill introduced by Sen. Farrell E. Roberts, R-Oakland County, failed to pass the Senate and apparently was dead for this session of the legislature.

* * *

Tomorrow is the deadline for passage of bills in their house of origin.

* * *

Main opposition to the bill centered on a provision that would have authorized the existing Oakland County Board of Education to establish and operate a system of junior colleges.

Community college proponents generally favor a separate board.

The bill would have enabled the county to proceed with plans for a county wide election on establishment of a community college district.

LEGAL STALL

The county's plans were stymied last year by a state attorney general's opinion based on existing laws.

The attorney general said the county could neither exclude nor include Clarenceville School District, which lies mostly in Wayne County but partly in Oakland.

* * *

Clarenceville could not be left out because it was part of the county, according to the opinion. But it could not be included because it already was part of the Northwest Wayne County Community College District.

* * *

Roberts' bill would have enabled the county to exclude Clarenceville.

Roberts said he had included the provision for operation of a junior college system by the existing county board of education because the board had the staff and facilities to handle it.

He said the existing board would get the colleges in operation two years earlier than would be possible if a new board were required.

Exam Date Set in Murder Case

A 21-year-old Pontiac man charged with first-degree murder in a shotgun slaying Saturday night will have his Municipal Court examination April 3.

Hardy Harris Jr., 30 Iowa St., was arraigned on the charge yesterday before Judge Cecil McCallum.

Harris, being held without bond in the Oakland County jail, is accused of killing Tommie L. Holston, 32, also of 30 Iowa St.

Holston was shot in the face while standing on the front steps at 28 Iowa St., where he was attending a party.

Harris told police his gun accidently discharged when he tripped over a pipe in the ground.

He said he had gone to the home of Elmore Williams, 38, who was celebrating his birthday to find out why Williams had chased a friend of his out of the house.

Political Double-Take

House Juggles Port Proposal

LANSING (AP) — House members appeared ready today to second-guess themselves on passage of a controversial bill designed to help public port districts issue revenue bonds for expansion.

The bill — part of a three-bill package concerning port districts — won House approval 82-23, last night after being assailed for the second time by lawmakers favoring private investment for St. Lawrence Seaway ports in Michigan.

But opponents and supporters alike later challenged the bill, and one, Rep. Gail Handy, R-Eau Claire, indicated he would ask sponsors to clear up questions concerning a provision that would give a Wayne County public port power to issue $16 million in bonds a year.

★ ★ ★

"I didn't realize the bill was written this way," said Handy. "I think we should get some of the bugs out, because that is a tremendous amount of money."

Handy, chairman of a 1962 Legislative Interim Committee which studied St. Lawrence Seaway port development, was a leading supporter of the bill in floor debate.

He contended, along with Rep. Oscar Bouwsma, R-Muskegon, and lawmakers from other port cities, that public financing of facilities — to be leased to private interests — was the best way for Michigan to gain competitive footing with other seaway states.

The bill's basic provision is to reduce from 60 to 51 per cent the majority of voters needed to approve a bond issue by a port district, and it was on this point that most of the debate centered.

But Rep. William Barid, D-Detroit, who opposed the bill, later raised the question of Wayne County investment under terms of a provision permitting districts to borrow up to one-fifth of one per cent of their assessed valuation in any one year.

Baird said Wayne County, as a district unto itself with an assessed valutation of $8 million would be able to issue $16 million in bonds in one year and up to a total of $160 million at any one time.

Rep. Carroll Newton, R-Delton, asked that the bill be reconsidered because it did not make clear whether all electors or just property owners in a district would be able to vote.

★ ★ ★

He indicated later that he was satisfied that a constitutional provision would suffice in limiting it to property owners only.

The House passed two other bills in the port package without dissent — one enabling port districts to accept gifts and loans, the other setting up so-called "foreign trade zones" for customs-free storing, remanufacturing and packing.

★ ★ ★

Also approved in the House was a proposal to reorganize the State Mental Health Department, creating a six-member bi-partisan commission in place of the current five-man commission and providing for a director to be appointed by the governor.

Similar bills were vetoed by former governors G. Mennen Williams and John Swainson, but the new version passed, 95-7, with bi-partisan support.

In all, the House passed 23 bills last night.

★ ★ ★

In the Senate, five bills were killed by sending them back to committee. Twenty - nine others were given temporary approval, but none were considered for a final vote.

Suspicious Senate Debates Purge Bill

LANSING (AP) — A bill aimed at purging extremists who capture offices in political organizations came under close scrutiny in the Senate yesterday, with both Democrats and Republicans questioning its wisdom.

The measure — sought by Gov. George Romney — would pave the way for the expulsion of officers of state central, district and county committees with a two-thirds vote of the membership.

Removal proceedings could be started by a resolution signed by 20 per cent of the members.

★ ★ ★

Action on the proposal was postponed after Sen. William Ford, D-Taylor, said it would open the door to "the same sort of thing that is done in Russia."

The bill is the outgrowth of a political struggle last year between Romney and Richard Durant, a former member of the ultra-conservative John Birch Society and chairman of the GOP's 14th District organization.

Romney failed in an effort to wrest control of the district from Durant, who said that although he had quit the Birch society he still embraced its philosophy.

★ ★ ★

In a speech to the Republican convention last August, Romney decried the absence of a law under which the parties could "expel a so-called political leader whose real allegiance may be to another organization or society."

ROMNEY VOWS ACTION

Romney pledged that as governor he would do everything he could to bring new legislation into effect to deal with such situations in the future.

He declared: "I want legislation that will make possible the prompt removal of any party officeholder who — by false allegiance, by cheap duplicity or by other political trickery — proves himself unworthy of the leadership to which he has been elected."

The bill debated in the Senate provides that the officer whose removal is sought has the right to be heard by members of the unit he heads.

★ ★ ★

One GOP lawmaker questioned the provision under which the central committee chairman or vice chairman could be removed by a two-thirds vote of the state central committee membership.

He told a reporter that this would give the committee veto power over the party's state convention, which elects the officers.

And Sen. Clyde Geerlings, R-Holland, said he felt the requirement of the number of signatures needed to get removal proceedings under way should be increased from 20 per cent to 40 per cent, or even a majority.

Korea Shuns Warning From U. S.

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — South Korea's military regime today rebuffed a U.S. statement that prolonged military rule could threaten stable and effective government in South Korea.

A government spokesman said the "realistic inevitability of extending military rule will be independently judged by the Korean people."

The Korean people, he said "know the Korean situation better than anybody else."

★ ★ ★

He termed the statement by U.S. State Department spokesman Lincoln White "a discussion of a principle and understandable as such." He added:

"The question is whether or not it is possible to expect a birth of sound civil government which could take over from the military government.

"It is the Korean people themselves who know best that the military government today is providing a government more stable and effective than anything experienced in the past."

The United States is South Korea's financial and military mainstay. But Washington is not expected to take any decisive action to block the military's continuance in power.

★ ★ ★

The head of the military junta, Gen. Chung Hee Park, has proposed a plebiscite to approve or reject his proposal to extend military rule four years.

Previously he had promised elections this spring and the return of civilian government in August.

Trading Moderately Active

Mart Moves Unevenly Higher

NEW YORK (AP) — Savings-and-loans continued strong as the stock market moved unevenly highe raer lydtoay. Trading was moderately active.

★ ★ ★

Gains of most key stocks were fractional.

The stocks of savings-and-loan holding companies continued their rally of yesterday.

Fractional gains were made by San Diego Imperial, Great Western Financial, United Financial of California, and California Financial.

San Diego Imperial opened unchanged at 11¾ on a block of 7,000 shares, edging higher in later dealings.

It looked as if San Diego and Sunray DX Oil would repeat their roles of yesterday as the volume leaders.

Sunray rose ⅛ to 29¾ on an opener of 7,500 shares and improved its gain in active trading.

The rest of the stock list was up irregularly at best.

Despite the eighth successive weekly rise in steel production, the major steelmakers were unchanged to easy.

The leading motors did virtually nothing, General Motors easing from its latest historic high, Chrysler trading about unchanges, and American Motors losing a fraction.

Losses of about a point were taken by American Zinc and Superior Oil.

Ahead fractionally were Royal Dutch, Pan American World Airways, American Tobacco, Johns-Manville, Merck, General Electric, Union Carbide, Eastman Kodak, Douglas Aircraft, and Radio Corp.

U.S. Smelting gained nearly a point.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange were irregular. Changes were narrow. Gainers included Aurora Plastics, General Plywood, Louisiana Land,and Kirby Petroleum.

Among losers were Barnes Engineering, Mead Johnson, Occidental Petroleum and General Development.

Romney Sees Fiscal Surplus

Predicts $34 Million on Top by June 30

DETROIT (AP) — Gov. George Romney predicts Michigan will end its fiscal year on June 30 with a $34-million surplus for those 12 months. He estimates his first full-year budget will create an additional $13.6 million surplus by June 30, 1964.

★ ★ ★

This would mean the state's $85.6-million deficit would be cut to $51.6 million by June 30 and to $38 million by mid-1964.

As recently as mid-1959 when the deficit was nearing $110 million, the state temporarily was unable to meet its 23,000-employe payroll.

The state's first Republican governor in 14 years, Romney declared in a speech before the Economic Club of Detroit yesterday that "Michigan has had too much of socialogical and political programs which ignore the basic necessity of maintaining the state's economic health.

★ ★ ★

At the time, he was defending his 1963-64 budget. Critics have accused Romney of failing to provide sufficiently for higher education, mental health programs and treatment of juvenile delinquents, among other things, Romney has defended his budget as "prudent and progressive."

Romney agreed at a news conference, in which he complained he had inherited a housing problem for juvenile delinquents, that he also would inherit the $34 million budget surplus.

★ ★ ★

He said the anticipated surplus next June 30 could be credited to the 1961-62 legislature, controlled, as is the present one, by Republicans.

Aid Message Slated

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy will send a foreign aid message to Congress next Tuesday, congressional Democratic leaders reported after their weekly White House breakfast today.

Union Weighs Wagner Terms of Contract

NEW YORK (AP) —Striking photoengravers weighed proposed contract terms today amid indications the 109-day shutdown of eight New York newspapers would continue at least until Thursday.

Mayor Robert F. Wagner in a role of umpire offered a proposal accepted by publishers negotiating with the photoengravers.

It was essentially the same as the one accepted Sunday by printers, who initiated the shutdown by striking Dec. 8.

Leaders of the photoengravers put off an immediate decision on acceptance pending a meeting among themselves this afternoon. Even should they accept, they said, a ratification meeting by the membership would not be held until tomorrow.

The photoengravers have been insistent on a reduction in the 36¼ work week to 35 hours.

Under Wagner's proposal, as in the case of the printers, they would get a 35-hour week, but not until the second year of a two-year contract.

The key question appeared to be whether the photoengravers would be willing to wait a year or continue to press for the shorter week this year.

★ ★ ★

Four unions joined in the strike. Besides the printers, striking mailers and stereotypers have agreed to terms, leaving the photoengravers as the last to act on the mayor's proposal.

Wagner announced the publishers' acceptance of the proposal for a settlement with the photoengravers.

Meanwhile, the leader of striking printers in Cleveland, Ohio, predicted that two dailies which have been closed there eight days longer than those in New York possibly would resume publication early next week.

NO DEADLINE SET

Wagner, who made his announcement at 4 a.m. after negotiations through the night, set no deadline for the union to accept or reject his recommendations.

But he stated flatly he saw "no purpose in further negotiations" between both sides.

In fact, Wagner said, he was "closing shop" for good at the Hotel Commodore, where he has spent several weeks mediating and umpiring contract disputes between publishers and the city's newspaper unions.

★ ★ ★

Other than the photoengravers and two nonstriking unions which will negotiate new pacts after publication is resumed, the other seven unions have come to tentative or firm agreements with publishers.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. "I have been reading your columns on tax - exempt bonds. Where can I get more information on their reliability? I think I would like to invest in some of these bonds." J.B.

A. I think you would be very wise to do so, providing your are in a relatively high tax bracket.

In addition to state and municipal bonds, our present laws provide complete exemption from Federal income tax for a lot of public authority, electric, housing and other revenue bonds. There is no question as to the reliability of direct state and municipal obligations, which rank second only to governments as regards security.

When we get into the field of speculative revnue bonds — many of which are not backed by the cities' full taxing power — we need advice. I should consult my banker before dong any buying. He can either help you or send you to someone who can.

★ ★ ★

Q. "My husband was retired recently. We have a reasonable pension and $30,000 in savings banks, but we can use additional income. Should we invest part of our savings in the stock market? If so, what do you suggest?" J.P.B.

A. I am very happy for you that your retirement appears to be a comfortable one — without undue financial worries.

In my opinion, over a period of time, a substantial part of your savings should be invested in stocks — not simply for income gain — but to protect you against inflation, which can cut down the purchasing power of your dollars.

Because the market is at a relatively high level, I suggest that you shift $10,000 at this time. Investment of a further sum should be deferred until the market stabilizes, perhaps at a lower level.

At present, I would put equal amounts in General Motors, Norfolk & Western, and Niagara Mohawk Power, which would bring you an average yield of about 5 per cent.

Record Set for Suggestions

Pontiac Motor Division employes received a record $257,454 last year for suggestions on improving operations on their jobs.

T. B. Bloom, Pontiac personnel director, said this amount surpassed the previous record by nearly $100,000.

He termed this "Pontiac's best suggestion year."

More than 8,500 employes participated in the suggestion program, submitting 23,349 suggestions. This is three times the number submitted in 1961.

One maximum award of $5,000 was paid during the year as well as 29 totaling more than $1,000.

More than three-quarters of Pontiac employes participated in the program, besting the General Motors average by 2.4 per cent.

Strike Losses at $178,850,000

NY Press Shutdown Hits Other Areas, Too

NEW YORK (AP) — Publishers estimate the known over-all losses caused by the city's 15-week-old newspaper shutdown total $178,850,000.

But the publishers pointed out Sunday, in releasing figures from a survey of leading business organizations, that there are no accurate figures on total retail sales losses that resulted from lack od advertising to attract customers.

Because of this, the known loss figure would be quite a bit lower than the actual loss, which various sources say could be safely estimated in excess of $200 million.

Of the known loss, the Publishers Association of New York City said, the city's economy alone suffered in the amount of $139,150,000.

Added to this, the association said, was a $28.7 million loss by the Canadian newsprint industry, which supplies much of the paper on which the New York dailies are printed.

The Canadian newsprint industry estimated it lost the sale of 214,000 tons of newsprint at $314 a ton, due to the blackout here, the association said.

Also figuring in the known loss, according to an association spokesman, was $11 million in state and federal taxes.

The city loss, combined with the Canadian loss and the tax loss, gave the association its $178.8 million over-all known loss figure.

The spokesman broke down the city loss this way:

Newspapers $101,250,000; news dealers $11 million; department stores $6.5 million; restaurants $16 million; railroads $2.4 million on newsprint haulage; hotels $2 million.

Governor OKs Olympic Bills

LANSING (AP) — Bills setting up financing machinery through which the City of Detroit hopes to land the 1968 Olympic Games were signed today by Gov. George Romney.

One bill provides for creation of a state recreation and exhibits building authority to erect a $25-million, 100,000-seat stadium in Detroit.

The other will provide for an increase of 1 to 2 per cent on horse race par-mutuel taxes, furnishing some $1.6 million per year to the state's general fund as a guarantee, if needed, to help pay off the stadium bonds.

★ ★ ★

Both bills were passed under a "top-priority" schedule after Detroit's designation as U.S. bidder for the 1968 games was reconsidered by the U.S. Olympics Committee.

Kennedy Approves Cutting Air Route

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy has approved a Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) decision eliminating one of the two routes of North Central Airlines to Port Arthur-Fort William, Ont.

Kennedy yesterday endorsed a CAB order of Jan. 23 deleting North Central's route between the Canadian city and Hancock-Houghton, Mich., but continuing its authority to operate between Port Arthur-Fort William and Duluth, Minn.-Superior, Wis.

The order will become effective May 22.

Business Notes

Edward J. Vogel, of 843 Arlington Road, Birmingham, has been named executive vice president of A & P Food Stores' midwestern division.

Prior to this appointment, he served as head of A & P's Detroit unit.

Replacing him will be former Detroit resident Philip Nyquist.

In his new assignment, Nyquist will be in charge of store operations in eastern Michigan, including stores in Detroit, Pontiac and Birmingham.

All-Time High

Pontiac Sales Set Record

Pontiac Motor Division today reported that mid-March sales of Pontiacs and Tempests set an all-time divisional record for the period.

There were 18,811 units sold from March 11-20, an increase of 24 per cent over sales a year ago. The previous divisional sales record was 16,832 established in mid-March 1955.

"This marked the 13th record sales period for Pontiac since introduction of the 1963 models," said Frank V. Bridge, general sales manager.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac's sales percentage increase was even higher than Chevrolet Division, which led the mid-March sales pace in the auto industry.

Chevrolet reported deliveries of 85,153 cars and trucks during the period, a 20.5 per cent increase over the same period last year.

For the entire auto industry, however, the biggest increase in sales was reported by Chrysler Corp.

★ ★ ★

Chrysler reported an increase of 70 per cent in sales.

Chrysler sold 29,129 units during the second 10 days of March. Dodge reported sales of 10,710 cars compared with 5,614 last year.

Dodge General Manager Byron J. Nichols said the sales for the period were 91 per cent higher than the same period in 1962.

ANOTHER MARK

Cadillac reported sales of 5,187 during the mid-March period, an all-time high surpassing the former high in 1959.

Ford Division of Ford Motor Co. reported that sales during mid-March were up 30 per cent over the first 10 days of the month. Ford Division car sales totaled 48,824 for the period while 11,288 trucks were sold.

Compared to last year during the second 10 days of March, Ford car sales were up 11 per cent and truck sales were 25 per cent higher.

★ ★ ★

Ward's Automotive Reports said sales of domestic new cars averaged 24,790 units a day during the mid-March 10-day period, an increase of 21.3 per cent from the March 1-10 period.

GMC Dealers Confer With Division Execs

Dealers from GMC Truck and Coach's Detroit sales zone heard a report this morning on the business outlook for this area coupled with a discussion of prospective sales and product plans.

★ ★ ★

They met with a group of division executives headed by General Manager Calvin J. Werner, who reported on the progress toward improved service to truck operators.

★ ★ ★

All phases of the trucking business were discussed with emphasis on field sales, service and parts activities.

This morning's session at the division offices was part of a nationwide series of dealer-organization meetings to be held in all 19 divisional sales zones prior to the end of April.
