TWISTER ON RAMPAGE — A pile of shattered wood and household effects attests to the fury of a tornado which swooped down on this house near Roseboro, N. C., killing a woman and her four-year-old son this week.

SNOW SCENE — More fitting for December than April is this glimpse of a countryside near Cleveland, Ohio. After days of shoveling from under similar deluges, area residents might be forgiven if they raised their eyebrows over a recent U. S. Weather Bureau statement that "this year's spring weather rampage of snow ... is unusual, but not startling."

Fear Dems May Dump Key Bills

Party Heads Advise Ike to Fight for His Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower reportedly has been advised by Republican congressional leaders to make a personal fight for his legislative program, now bogged down in Congress.

The President was said to have been told at a conference with the leaders yesterday that unless White House pressure is exerted to speed up action, many of his proposals may be dumped by the Democratic-controlled session.

One of the conferees said Eisenhower himself has put off until after Easter recess any final shaping of his $4,400,000,000 foreign aid program. It faces a tough fight.

With more than three months of the session gone, only two major bills have been enacted: The Middle East resolution and the measure continuing high business taxes until June 30, 1958.

The theory is that if a civil rights bill is passed by Congress, no successful attempt will be made to attach to the school bill an amendment — such as that which killed it last year — to bar U. S. aid to segregated districts.

The school bill calls for an outlay of 185 million dollars in the fiscal year beginning July. It has

Advise Change in Suez Talks

British Reportedly Ask U. S. to Toss Problem Back to U. N.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Britain is reported to be advising the United States to toss back into the United Nations Security Council the dispute with Egypt over future operation of the Suez Canal.

Several Allied countries, including Britain, are said to feel that direct American negotiations are making no progress toward getting any major concessions in Egypt's new operating plan.

U. S. Ambassador Raymond A. Hare met for an hour yesterday in Cairo with Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzi in a resumption of the negotiations which had been reported deadlocked after four sessions last week.

If the U. S.-Egyptian talks collapse, raising the problem anew in the Security Council would keep the argument going in the hope that eventually some better protection for users of the waterway might be achieved.

In Cairo, irate Arab states are reported thinking of protesting to Washington because an American tanker sailed through the disputed Gulf of Aqaba with oil for Israel. The semi-official Middle East News Agency said the anti-Israeli nations felt the United States had violated Arab territory by permitting the tanker Kern Hills to pass through the disputed Tiran Strait en route to the southern Israeli port of Eilat.

The State Department denied it sent out the tanker to demonstrate U. S. belief in all nations' right of free passage through the strait. But a department spokesman acknowledged the United States could have stopped the Kern Hills had it wanted to.

The 10,441-ton tanker — under charter to Israel — went through the Gulf of Aqaba Saturday to deliver 16,500 tons of crude oil and fuel to Eilat. It was the first cargo of oil ever brought to the Jewish nation through the gulf.

Reuther Victory Sure in UAW Voting Today

Affects Land Only, Not Buildings

Saginaw Street Assessment Cut

Land assessments in Pontiac's Saginaw central business row were sliced down $337,960 for 1957 due to weakening business conditions, City Assessor William R. Ransom announced today.

The major cutbacks in 94 pieces of property were generally on the west side of Saginaw from the Stewart-Glenn Co. 92 S. Saginaw north to the county office building, and on the east side from Auburn avenue north through Robert Hall Clothiers, 200 N. Saginaw St.

Ransom emphasized that the cuts were on land assessments only, and did not include buildings (personal property).

The total $337,960 consisted of a cutback of $200,260 by Ransom and a decrease of $137,700 by the city's Board of Tax Review.

Harold L. Blackwood, Pontiac real estate executive, in February recommended to the City Commission reductions in this area from 10 to 50 per cent. He declared that high taxes were causing "progressive deterioration" of the area.

Ransom yesterday announced that Pontiac's 1957 assessment would total $254,146,600. This is an increase of $14,660,325 over the 1956 total.

Property owners will vote on three proposals $1,500,000 for completing and equipping the new hospital wing; $380,000 for a 300-unit hospital parking lot; and $2,700,000 for the sewage plant.

Each issue must be approved by 60 per cent of those voting to pass. However, in order to finance the bonds, the city voters must ok by a majority of those balloting a one mill increase to the city's tax structure.

The increase was broken down into .35 mill for the hospital and .65 mill for the plant.

If passed, taxes probably will go up 1.5 mills, through the levying of another half-mill increase approved for the hospital in 1954. It has never been levied.

This would mean a total increase of $1.50 to Pontiac's present $13.76 tax rate for every $1,000 in assessed valuations.

If the plant bonds pass, the city plans to issue another $391,000 in revenue bonds to complete new construction, add improvements to the present plant and connect the two.

A maximum interest rate on the obligation bonds was set at six per cent. Other terms of the bonds, however, will remain flexible at the time of voting.

This is because the proposals are in the form of city charter amendments instead of resolutions, that would have to spell out details in advance, explained City Manager Walter K. Willman.

Mother to Appeal for New Trial in Custody of Baby

A British-born mother will return to circuit court Monday to continue her fight for custody of a 21-month-old child she has never seen.

Mrs. Nona Hill, 33, will appeal for a new trial that might reverse the decision that little Lauren Rae Lewis stay with the Berkley couple that adopted her.

The hearing to consider her petition will be held by Judge H. Russell Holland, who last month ruled that the mother had legally consented to the adoption at the time of the child's birth.

Mrs. Hill, a New York City resident, contends, however, that doctors and social workers persuaded her under duress at a time she was in poor mental and physical condition in Detroit's Woman's Hospital.

Judge Holland's ruling concluded a three-day trial in which an advisory jury, most of them parents, was unable to decide how to award the child.

The mother, whose husband was dead at the time of the child's birth, had appealed a Probate Court ruling against her.

State GOP Veterans Cool to Enthusiasm of Freshmen

A move yesterday by freshmen GOP members of the State House of Representatives to revitalize the headless Republican party in Michigan was received with little apparent enthusiasm today by veteran legislators.

Included in the 16 new members who voiced pleas for vigorous leadership of the party were Lloyd L. Anderson of Waterford Township, Donald A. Brown of Royal Oak, and Farrell E. Roberts of West Bloomfield Township.

Crash Kills Wife of Retired GM Man

The wife of a retired General Motors executive yesterday died in Marietta, Ga., of injuries she received in a two-car collision there last week as the Birmingham couple were returning from a month's vacation in Florida.

Dead is Mrs. Helen F. Kleist, 63, of 2010 Redding Rd.

Her husband, Clarence, 64, retired regional manager for General Motors, received fractured ribs in the crash and is still hospitalized. Mrs. Kleist is survived also by two daughters, Mrs. Hubert Kendall of Detroit, and Mrs. John Vass of Birmingham.

Dems Oppose More Mail Funds

GOP Helps Summerfield

WASHINGTON (AP)—Postmaster General Summerfield has picked up new Republican support in his demand for another 47 million dollars from Congress for current postal operations.

But vocal Democratic opposition to the request continued. Rep. Cannon (D-Mo) urged the House yesterday not to be "stampeded," and Rep. Porter (D-Ore) demanded that the postal chief resign.

Summerfield has ordered a drastic reduction in postal services beginning Saturday unless Congress indicates the additional money is forthcoming for postal operations from now until the end of the fiscal year June 30.

MEMO TO CAESAR

2 Swords Are Enough

(Another in a Lenten Series)

When Pilate had finished speaking, Junius resumed his report on events at the supper . . . As the conversation continued around the table, the apostles began to argue over who should be leader of the band after the Nazarene's death.

You see, they took his prophecy literally.

Jesus listened to their quibbling and jealousy for a time and then stopped all the noise with a statement that seemed to stun them . . .

He said that whereas kings exercise authority and are called benefactors, it would not be so with the greatest among his followers. He commanded that the greatest act as if he were the youngest — the most in need of training and direction, I suppose he meant — and that the chief apostle should be as a servant to the others.

He looked from one to the other of his abashed followers until he came to Simon who is also called Peter and who seems to be the most aggressive and daring among them.

With a kindly smile, Jesus warned Simon Peter that he would be an easy prey to temptation. He added that he had prayed for the former fisherman, asking that his faith fail not. Then he said gently: "When thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren."

At this, Simon Peter fairly bristled. He said: "Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison and to death."

Patience Jesus replied: "The cock shall not crow this day before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me."

Then he urged his men to arm themselves. "Here are two swords," one of them said. "It is enough," he answered . . .

Pilate turned to his agent. "Two swords!" He exploded. "What can they do with two swords against the rabble and the authorities? Go out and keep watch."

With that he sent orders to alert his own soldiers.

Union President Wins Dues Hike Despite Stellato

Monthly Assessments Will Be Increased to $3 Next June

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J.—The United Auto Workers were ready to re-elect Walter P. Reuther today as president of the million-member union.

Any possibility of a challenger vanished last night in a smashing victory by Reuther forces over a minority faction that opposed a 50-cent monthly dues increase to $3 next June.

The opposition faction was led by Carl Stellato, president of the 44,000-member Ford River Rouge plant local.

The Stellato faction claimed the union's administration had enough money for operating expenses and salaries and that any increase should be earmarked entirely for the UAW's 23-million-dollar strike fund.

Stellato urged the union leadership to work on a plan for a combined AFL-CIO strike fund of from 100 to 300 million dollars.

Secretary-Treasurer Emil Mazey said operating costs had gone up since the last dues increase six years ago.

He told the delegates that most UAW members had received an increase of 71 cents an hour in economic benefits since 1951.

He added that on June 1 about a million members will get a 6-cent hourly "improvement factor" increase under current contracts and at the same time probably get a two-cent cost-of-living increase.

FIRM CONTROL
Reuther, as presiding officer, kept firm control of the 3,200 delegates during the dues debate.

At one time when booing broke out he warned, "I will not tolerate booing at this convention. If anyone has such a feeling of contempt for another delegate's opinion, let him keep it inside him."

The opposition faded to less than 200 delegates when it came to a showdown on a demand for a roll call vote. The rules required 800 to support a roll call.

The standing vote was overwhelmingly in favor of the increase.

Delegates yesterday approved a resolution making "a shorter work week with more take-home pay" (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

Like's Program Endangered Unless He Takes Command

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analysis

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's program might have a better chance in Congress if he stuck out his jaw more. Unless he asserts strong leadership in his second term, he's apt to be run over.

Congress is in a whittling, independent mood. Further, as a last-term president, Eisenhower naturally stands to lose some influence with Congress, even among his own Republicans.

But, so far as can be seen, he's doing pretty much what he did at the beginning of his first term. Then he seemed to think — and was criticized for it — that his job was simply to make recommendations to Congress without any, hard follow-through.

This year he offered programs in keeping with what he called the New Republicanism. At his Nov. 14 news conference, the first after his re-election, he was asked how he intended to assert leadership for his modern Republicans.

He replied:

"I am not one of the desk-pounding type that likes to stick out his jaw and look like he is bossing the show. I would rather try to persuade a man to go along."

But some of his most important programs now either are under attack, even by Republicans, or appear to be headed nowhere. There even appears to be lack of coordination — or leadership — within his own administration.

For example: The confusion over his budget. At first he seemed to be inviting Congress to reduce it. They got this straightened out and Eisenhower got firmer on his figures.

Then Sen. Knowland of California, the Senate Republican leader, talked of cutting the budget three billion dollars. Last week Eisenhower came out against a cut of as much as two billion. And on the same day Treasury Undersecretary Randolph Burgess said he thought it would be fine if the budget could be cut two to three billion dollars.

There's hardly any doubt the budget will be slashed, with Eisenhower's Republicans joining Democrats to do it. And his four-billion-dollar foreign aid program, one of his most important, seems headed for some of the heaviest axing.

Eisenhower asked for money for federal aid to education. Its chances now look slim. And his civil rights program doesn't look like a good bet to pass either.

The President called in congressional leaders to suggest a constitutional amendment for clarifying the take-over by a vice president when a president is disabled. That one is dead already.

About the only two important things Eisenhower has won from Congress so far are approval for his Middle East program — after many weeks of delay — and continuation of the excise and corporation taxes at their higher Korean War levels.

Eisenhower may not want to stick his chin out, but Congress this year shows a willingness to belt it even when he keeps it close to his chest.

BIRTHSTONES

3. Emerald and Pearl

The green, transparent emerald is the birthstone for May. In beauty and value it is a close rival of the diamond.

Ancient emeralds came from "Cleopatra's Mines" in Egypt. All most all of the emeralds mined today are from the Colombian Andes in South America.

Emeralds were worn by ancient Egyptians in rings or amulets to ward off evil and illness. Here is a picture of Cleopatra, the famous Egyptian queen, looking at her emerald ring.

The pearl is the birthstone for June. It is made up of deposits formed on the lining of certain shell fish, the best coming from pearl oysters. Today some pearls are cultivated by inserting a tiny bit of stone or shell into an oyster. Layers of pearl grow over this bit to form a cultivated stone.

The best natural pearls come from the Orient, where they are obtained by pearl divers like the one shown here. The diver carries a "sink stone" to help keep him under water and a basket in which to put oysters. He remains under water 50 to 80 seconds at a time and picks up oysters from the sea bed.

Hal Boyle Says:

One-Armed Vet Tackles Anything

INDEPENDENCE, Kan. — When Dick Oliver has a job he wants to finish in a real hurry, the first thing he does is take off his left arm.

Although Dick is grateful to the government for buying him the arm, he explained:

"I can work faster without it." He can, too. The one-armed, 38-year-old Navy veteran has just completed building his third home.

Dick, a construction clerk here for the Universal Atlas Cement Co., a subsidiary of U. S. Steel, can also answer the phone, type 65 words a minute. He drives his own car, buttons his clothing, ties his shoes and neckties, and is an expert marksman with either rifle or shotgun.

The story of Dick Oliver is the story of a man who refused to be handicapped. In 1939 while on leave from the naval base at Pearl Harbor he was playfully jostling with some buddies on a railway platform at Topeka. He slipped, fell, and a passing train cut off his left arm above the elbow.

"It was on my 21st birthday—and some present," he recalled. "At first I felt lost and useless to myself. But after the first shock wore off I realized I was no different from anyone else. I still had a living to make."

Dick finished high school, and perfected his skill at typing with only one hand. But felt an odd compulsion to prove that he could do anything he turned his mind to. He went to the Pacific Northwest and became a lumberman, felling the big trees. He worked in the farm equipment field, with an auto supply firm, even did a turn at radio announcing.

"Oh, I've done just about everything," he said. "Once I find I can do a thing well I get restless. I want to move on and try something new.

"Right now I'm studying civil engineering, and I think I'll stay with it. Engineering is something that has a changing problem every day."

Dick, happily settled in his new home with his pretty wife, Lorene, is now teaching his 10-year-old son, Gregg, how to be a baseball catcher.

"It isn't a joke to lose an arm or leg, but if anyone who does will get over his sensitivity and learn to treat it as a joke, he'll get along better," Dick says. "People should soft-pedal sympathy and never offer help to a handicapped person except when he actually needs it."

"I don't know of anything a fellow can't do — if he really wants to.

"The main thing is for an employer to give a man a little time to work out his own technique of handling a job. Then it will work out all right."

"But it is the employer — the man who gives the handicapped fellow a chance to show what he can do—who deserves all the credit."

Dick, who built his $22,000 three-bedroom, two-bath home in about a year, figures he saved about $3.00 in labor costs by doing his own work.

In one way he feels having only one arm speeded up the job.

"I never had to worry about smashing a finger driving nails," he said, grinning.

Right Numbers Can Make You $300 Richer

Now that you're getting accustomed to the new Pot-O-Gold set-up, the judges are expecting you to come up with more and more winning solutions. If you pick the right numbers for this one, it will be worth $300 providing there isn't a winner for last week's puzzle. Just remember to write in the numbers, not the words, and get the answers in on time and on a postcard.

The new puzzle contains a series of squares which are alphabetically lettered and a corresponding list of sentences with two clue words. Each of the words is numbered. The object is to select the word which you think best fits the clue sentence. You then place the number of that word in the square which has the same letter as the clue sentence.

In other words, you will read the clue labeled A and decide which of the two words makes the most sense in the sentence. You then write the number of that word in the puzzle square marked A.

Do the same with all other squares. Read all the clues carefully and be sure the right numbers are in the right squares.

Hollywood Headlines

Dana Andrews Returning to Two-Fisted Character

BY LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — When May 6th comes around, the starting date of "Zero Hour," the first Bartlett-Champion movie, Dana Andrews will answer the roll call. He's the very first star cast in this very new company, and his role returns him to the hard-driving, two-fisted character which won him his place in the movie sun.

Rita Moreno is back on the 20th Century-Fox lot with a new contract in her hand and an invitation to stay at home a while. She hasn't made a picture at 20th since "The King and I," but she hasn't been exactly idle.

Now Jerry Wald wants her for "Holiday in Monaco" and she'll unpack her suitcase and go to work. "Holiday in Monaco" is a comedy with accent on music. Rita, by the way, has been doing a lot of TV and during the past few months she made a trip to Japan where she saw her one-time boy friend Marlon Brando. Now Buddy Bregman puts Marlon in the second choice category.

DATE WITH STORK

A happy Richard Burton sends word that after eight years of marriage he and Sybil have dated the stork for July. He doesn't care whether it's a boy or girl, just so it's a healthy baby.

He'd announced earlier that he is going to live in Switzerland, so I assume that the Burton heir will be born there.

Richard, who was under contract to 20th for sometime, made a number of friends while he was in Hollywood. A son of a Welsh miner, he has had a fantastic career and has come up the hard way.

Jimmy Stewart called from New Orleans and said: "This is the first decent weather we've run into since we started barnstorming for 'Spirit of St. Louis.' It's been awful, everything from blizzards to tornadoes."

"We've been doing something a little different on this trip," he went on. "We go into a town about a week before the picture opens instead of the opening week. We have covered 18 towns in 18 days in spite of the weather."

Although the trip has been hard because of the assorted bad weather, Jimmy and his entourage have been traveling in great style. They are flying in the private plane of the president of United Airlines, and it is a sister ship to President Eisenhower's famed Columbine.

TEXAS HEIRESS — Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: The attractive redhead with Jack Dempsey at the Merry-Go-Round Cafe was heiress Marilyn Lindsay of Texas, where the oil flows.

Left Erickson has entered Good Samaritan Hospital for his second hospitalization since the first of the year. He picked up a bug while on location in France making "Vintage."

Sylvia Rampanini, Italian star, will marry Rome reporter Vittorio Foshini in June. The romance started when he went to Capri to interview her.

Pretty Carole Michelson, chosen "Miss National Press Photographer of 1957," will test at Columbia. She was at the Sands in Las Vegas with her mother and father, who look like teenagers themselves.

Any day, Jean Pierre Aumont and Marisa Pavan return from Europe. Marisa will stay here until her baby is born in August.

Alan Lerner leaves tomorrow for London to confer with Leslie Caron and Cecil Beaton on "Gigi." Beaton, who designed the costumes for "My Fair Lady," will also do them for "Gigi."

Tranquilizing Drugs Give Notable Results

KALAMAZOO (U) — The use of tranquilizing drugs has had "notable results" in cutting operating costs at Kalamazoo State Hospital. Dr. Clarence M. Schrier, medical superintendent, reports. Dr. Schrier said "disturbed" wards have become quieter with a resulting reduction of window breakage and plumbing damage. Electro-shock treatments have been cut down from 140 a month to about 30, he said, and prefrontal lobotomies, surgery on the brain, all but eliminated. Patients once regarded as hopeless have recovered, Dr. Schrier said. However, he added, an increase in admissions just about balances the gain in releases.

Michigan Is 6th Best COLUMBUS, Ohio (U) — Michigan is the sixth-ranking state in the production of harness horse foals. Michigan produced 195 in 1956 to rate behind Ohio's 670, Illinois, New York, Pennsylvania and Indiana.

THE POWERHOUSE

Ken Bartholomew, speed skating champ who has shattered more records in 26 years of competition than any other male American skater, has had it... "Under our unrealistic amateur rules, harsher than any other nations, I'd starve to death. I can't put any more money into the sport or take any more time off from work. Avery Brundage would not be so much against expense payments for amateurs if he had to live on the paychecks we receive and support a wife and five daughters!" Bartholomew is a telephone lineman at Minneapolis.

Skiers are holding raffles to aid Jack Bye in a Burlington, Vt., hospital, paralyzed from the neck down after a Stowe accident.

Cal Keyler at Brown, Bill Lenskold at Manhattan, Len Dramis at Syracuse, and Tom Moritz at Cornell, have been starring on the winter boards and have made their old coach, Pete Wilson, very proud. At one time the quartet was rated No. 2 in the scholastic nationals.

Best way to get a Hot Stove debate rolling is to ask: Were the hitters of '29 better than they are today? In '29 the Cubs had Rogers Hornsby hitting .380, Riggs Stephenson, .362; Kiki Cuyler, .360, and Hack Wilson, .345. They were only four of 34 National Leaguers who batted over .300 in 100 games or more. Hank Aaron won the 1956 batting championship with .328. In 1929, 17 players hit more than .328!

FRISCH INDORSES NEW UNIFORMS

Frank Frisch says so far as he personally is concerned the greatest improvement in baseball is not the air conditioned dugouts and streamlined equipment, but the new lightweight uniforms scientifically tailored... "When I was playing we wore heavy flannel that was usually weighed down with dirt and mud from sliding. Why if I hadn't had to carry around those heavily embroidered redbirds on my heavy suits with the Cards when I was a young squirt, I'd have stolen 80 bases a season!"

Green Bay Coach Says Big Trade Is in Wind

MILWAUKEE (U) — Lisle "Liz" Blackburn, coach of the Green Bay Packers, said last night there is a trade in the wind "probably as sensational as any ever completed in the National Football League."

He told more than 200 members of "Second Guessers, Inc.," a men's group, that the deal may have been all but completed by now. The coach said he expected an announcement would be made in about two weeks.

He declined to reveal any of the players involved, but it was learned that two Packers, line-backer Roger Zatkoff and quarterback Bobby Garrett, probably figured in the trade.

Zatkoff, former University of Michigan player, who has "retired" and now is working in Detroit, is said to be interested in playing for the Lions. Garrett is one of four quarterbacks available to the Packers this year and could be used as trading material.

Blackburn denied printed reports that the Cleveland Browns have made an offer for Tobin Rote, the Packers veteran signal caller, who has said that he is retiring, but is having trouble convincing the Packers that he means it.

"There is no deal underway at the present time involving Rote," Blackburn said.

If the Packers do make a deal it will be to strengthen their defensive platoon.

Old MSU Stars in Grid Classic

Pro Talent, Spartans Collide on May 4 at Macklin Stadium

EAST LANSING (U) — Some of the State's football past will make a playing appearance again the first Saturday in May.

The occasion will be the 1st annual old timers classic scheduled for Macklin Stadium on May 4.

Michigan State's top varsity talent, hardened and sharpened by four weeks of spring drills, will go against a squad of former Spartan players, including many big-money pro stars.

Some of the pro players already signed up include Al Dorow, quarterback for the Washington Redskins; Earl Morrill, quarterback for the San Francisco 49ers; Lynn Chandois, halfback with the Pittsburgh Steelers, and Dorne Dibble, Detroit Lions end.

One of the first worries for promoters was insuring the several hundred thousand dollars worth of talent that will be appearing.

Lloyd's of London, the outfit that will gamble on almost anything, finally agreed to underwrite the insurance. So if a pro passer breaks his arm or an out-of-shape old timer gets knocked into a wheel chair, the hospital bills will be paid.

Lions Schedule Cleveland Game for Exhibition

DETROIT (U) — The Detroit Lions, runners-up in the Western Conference of the National Football League last season, will play the Cleveland Browns in a pre-season game at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium Sept. 14.

The Lions have won 10 of their 12 contests played with the Browns, who have finished out of the champion's circle only once, since joining the NFL.

Gen. Mgr. Nick Kerbawy said the Lions' pre-season date with Washington at Birmingham has been changed from Sunday, Sept. 1, to Saturday night, Aug. 31.

Sparrow Seeks Position on U.S. Cage Team

Guy Sparrow of Pontiac is one of the 22 outstanding ex-college players who is a candidate for a position with the Army basketball team in Wiesbaden, Germany. A team will be selected to play in an Armed Forces International tournament to be held April 20-28 at Istanbul, Turkey.

Other nations participating in the tourney known as the Cansell International du Sport Militaire are Belgium, France, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Sweden, Italy, Argentina, Egypt, Greece, Turkey, Spain and Norway.

Competing for positions on the U. S. team are such names as Frank Selvy, Bob Patterson, Bill Hull, Charles Kraak, Jerry Mullen, Bill Warden and other prominent ex-collegians.

Play 5 Times on Trip North

Tigers-Pirates Begin Series

ATLANTA, Ga. (U) — The Detroit Tigers are out of Florida and playing their way north with only a few reasons for optimism about the coming American League season.

The possessors of a dismal 8-15 record in Florida, including 10 losses by one run, the Tigers swing today in a five-game series with the Pittsburgh Pirates. The first game on the trip home is scheduled for Atlanta.

The Florida phase of the Tigers' training season showed a lack of pitching strength and the inability to get the one run needed to knot up a close game.

On the brighter side was the hitting of Charley Maxwell and the pitching of Don Lee.

Maxwell, an outfielder who appeared in 141 games last year, led the Tiger hitters in spring training hitting with a .467 average. Recurring attacks of boils troubled him, however, and he appeared in only 13 of the Tigers' 23 games. He hit .326 last year.

Lee, a rookie with one year of minor league pitching behind him, looked strong in the midst of a host of pitching shortcomings. His earned run average of 2.37 during the Florida season probably was enough to sew up a berth with the Tigers.

None of the Tiger pitchers worked the full nine innings in an exhibition game. Frank Lary looked good, but that was no surprise after he was the American League's leading winner last year. Billy Hoelt saw only sparse action because of arm trouble. Paul Foytack had trouble getting opposing batters out. Jim Bunning and Duke Maas were erratic.

The Tigers' 8-15 record in Florida almost matched last spring's Florida mark of 8-16. The team went from there to a 5th-place finish in the American League after a slow start. The Tigers won seven and lost 11 in Florida in 1955.

In their 23 games the Tigers hit .279, the same figure that put them atop the American League in team batting last season.

The Tigers, with 29 players on the roster, will play the Pirates at Augusta tomorrow; at Charlotte, N.C., Friday, and at Charleston, W. Va., Saturday and Sunday.

FELLED BY PITCH — Luis Aparicio, shortstop of the Chicago White Sox, lies stunned on the ground after he was hit in the back of the neck by a pitch thrown by Sad Sam Jones of the St. Louis Cardinals. The injury was not serious. The White Sox won, 6-5.

Chance to Score Fight Tonight

MIAMI, Fla. (U) — Television viewers across the country may be able to keep an official round-by-round tab tonight on progress of the Davey Moore-Gil Cadillac featherweight bout in Miami's Biscayne Arena. The seventh-ranked Cadillac is a 9-5 favorite.

The Miami Boxing Commission said it would make round-by-round scores available to broadcasters if the International Boxing Club didn't object. IBC director Harry Markson in New York said the matter was up to the Miami board. Use of the scores, if supplied, would be optional with the broadcasters and sponsors.

The 10-round bout at 10 p.m. EST, carried over ABC television and radio networks, will be the first TV action for Moore who turned pro after winning the 1952 National AAU title and qualified for the Olympics.

Ford Tries Out Greensboro Links

GREENSBORO, N. C. (U) — Doug Ford, the new Masters champion, planned to get in a practice round here today in preparation for a stab at Sam Snead's stranglehold on the greater Greensboro open golf title.

Ford, Snead and a field of more than 100, including the nation's top pros, will start the three-day, 72-hole grind over the 6,720-yard Sedgefield Country Club course Thursday for $15,000 in prize money.

Bow-Arrow Champs

Waterford Recreation Association archers are looking forward to an active and interesting summer period, now that the indoor season has ended. Schedule will be announced soon.

Indoor champions for W.A.R. are the Sheriffs team (compiled 36 points for the 11-week campaign); Richard Bentley high for season's instinctive, with 258; William Giles top free-style with 247; high instinctive, for women, Joan Lawson, 128; Dorothy France, free-style, 156. There were 10 teams in the adult league.

Vacancies Abound as Opener Nears

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Who's going to play second base for Brooklyn? Third base for the Boston Red Sox and Cleveland Indians? First base for Detroit? Catch for the Chicago Cubs?

Probably never have so many major league clubs closed in on baseball's opening day with as many vacancies still to be filled. At least 10 managers will have to come up with decisions before the wraps are taken off the 1957 campaign next week.

Junior Gilliam, Brooklyn's regular second baseman last season, is a cinch to be in the opening day line-up. But he may start at third base with Charley Neal at second and Gino Cimoli in left field.

Neal, in his second season with the Dodgers, and Neeman, the No. 1 choice on last fall's draft list, did themselves the most good in yesterday's exhibition games.

Neal slapped a two-run double off Corky Valentine with one out in the ninth inning to give the Dodgers a 5-4 victory over the Milwaukee Braves. Brooklyn went into the final frame trailing 4-1 when Gilliam and PeeWee Reese each walked. Cimoli's single loaded the bases and brought in Valentine in relief of Carlton Willey. A sacrifice fly by Carl Furillo and Roy Campanella's single sent home two runs and another base on balls was followed by Neal's winning two-bagger.

Neeman and righthanded pitcher Moe Drabowsky combined to lead the Cubs to an 8-3 triumph over Baltimore. Neeman knocked in four runs with a home run and two doubles. Drabowsky went the distance and permitted only five singles. The game was called after eight innings to allow the clubs to catch a train.

The New York Giants evened their series against Cleveland after 16 games by producing a 4-2 triumph behind the combined five-hit hurling of Allan Worthington and Je Ray Margoneiri. Indian relief ace Ray Narleski made his first appearance since breaking a finger four weeks ago and held the Giants hitless over the last two innings.

The Cincinnati Redlegs powered five home runs to down the Washington Senators 9-7. Wally Post had two of the Redlegs' circuits with Ted Kluszewski, Gus Bell and Jerry Lynch getting one apiece. Eddie Yost homered for the Senators.

Albion High Names New Football Coach

ALBION, Mich. (U) — Ellsworth Anderson, assistant coach at Albion High School since 1951, has been named head football coach.

He succeeds Dan Goldsmith, who resigned to take the job of backfield coach at Hillsdale College. Anderson, 40, is a graduate of Eastern Michigan College and coached at Scottsville, High from 1941 to 1951.

Albion high still is seeking a new head basketball coach to succeed Basil Mason, head coach since 1951. He is leaving the job to devote full time to his duties as junior high school principal.

Ortiz TKO's Filippo

HOLLYWOOD (U) — New York's Carlos Ortiz, who stopped Lou Filippo on a foul last month, scored again last night with a seventh-round technical knockout over the game Los Angeles boxer in a scheduled 10-rounder. Ortiz weighed 137½, Filippo 139.

Ford Club Joins Mat Show

There will be an extra added attraction Thursday night at Southfield High School when the touring Japanese wrestling team faces the Michigan All-Stars in a dual meet. Besides the scheduled Olympic free-style bouts between the Japanese and a handpicked group of Michigan collegians, the Japs have agreed to wrestle Greco Roman style with the powerful Ford Recreation Club of Dearborn.

The Ford grapplers won the Greco-Roman style championship last Saturday at the National AAU meet in Waynesburg, Pa.

John Holman Beats Huge Heavyweight

PORTLAND, Ore. (U) — Johnny Holman found an open path to Ewart Potgieter's ample stomach and pounded out a unanimous 10-round decision over the huge South African heavyweight fighter here last night.

The 7-foot, 3-inch Potgieter weighed 325 pounds. Holman, who fights out of Chicago, tipped the scales at 203.

There were no knockdowns, but Holman staggered Potgieter in the first round with a sharp right to the head. Potgieter stumbled backward several steps, spun to the right and half fell over the ropes. But he recovered and the two fighters clinched the rest of the round.

ANN ARBOR (U) — Vic Heyliger, 41, veteran University of Michigan hockey coach, today announced his resignation.

Heyliger said he was entering private business in Colorado Springs, Colo.

During his 13 years as hockey coach, Michigan teams participated in all 10 NCAA playoffs, winning the NCAA title six times.

'M' Hockey Coach Quits

MICHIGAN finished second in this year's tournament and second in the 1956-57 Western Intercollegiate Hockey League race.

Heyliger won three letters in collegiate hockey at Michigan in 1935-36-37. He played professional hockey with the Chicago Blackhawks of the National Hockey League.

He was instrumental in the formation of the Western Intercollegiate hockey league and in the formation of the NCAA championship series.

His 2nd Period Goal Puts Habs 2-Up on Bruins

Plante Blanks Boston in Stanley Cup Feud; Bruins Try Home Ice

MONTREAL (U) — Montreal's Flying Frenchmen, defending champions, today were prohibitive favorites to capture their ninth trophy after all but crushing the Cinderella hopes of the underdog Boston Bruins.

A Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion pass, and a deceptive piece of stick work by Jean Beliveau accounted for the only goal last night as the Canadiens defeated the Bruins 1-0 to take a substantial 2-0 lead in the best-of-7 final National Hockey League playoff series.

The scene shifts to Boston Thursday for the third game with the Bruins who hope they will rebound on home ice. The fourth game also will be played in Boston Sunday.

Boston Coach Milt Schmidt stated the plight of his Bruins simply. "We lost because we couldn't get a goal," he said.

It was Montreal goalie Jacques Plante who accomplished the feat of shutting out the Bruins for the first time since Chicago managed it Oct. 30, 1956.

Plante turned aside 24 shots and Coach Toe Blake was loud in praise of his netminder, especially on a save against Cal Gardner in the third period that prevented the Bruins from tying the score. "Gardner faked to the outside about 15 feet out," said Plante. "I didn't move, then he shot from about four feet out. I got the puck with the back of my glove."

Plante said he wasn't "any more nervous towards the end of the game than I was at the start. I'll admit I was looking at the clock during stops in play. Our team usually plays offensive hockey. This time we played more defensive."

Rookie Boston goalie Don Simmons turned in a neat performance for the Bruins and forced the Canadiens to abandon their forceful offense for a deliberate defense, but Beliveau slipped through for the clincher.

Telling about the goal in the happy Montreal dressing room, the 25-year-old Beliveau said: "When I started in on the Boomer's (Geoffrion's) pass I was going to shoot. But Simmons moved out to meet me and then moved back again. I knew I had him beat. Then he moved to my right and I put the puck in on his right."

The goal came at 2:27 of the second period.
