City's Post Office Ordered to Close Doors on Saturday

Pity Those Poor April Flowers!

AP Wirephoto

STORM AFTERMATH — Snow and tree limbs greeted this East Cleveland auto-owner this morning as the Ohio community shared a frigid spring with other Midwest areas. Up to seven inches of heavy, wet snow snapped tree limbs and wire throughout the area. Will the same icy phenomenon strike in the Pontiac area to mar our thoughts of April flowers? The weatherman answers with a cautious yes and a dour forecast of "possible flurries."

Says House OK on Postal Funds Will Halt Cuts

Summerfield Promises Quick Return to Normal if Cash Is Approved

WASHINGTON (INS) — Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield says mail service cutbacks set for next Saturday will not last long if the House acts favorably this week on his money requests.

He expressed confidence that if the House Appropriations Committee sends the measure to the floor, the full House will approve the entire 47 million dollars he asked to run the department through June 30.

Summerfield added that he was "assured" yesterday that the Senate Appropriations Committee would then "immediately convene" and send the House-approved bill to the floor for a vote.

"So," he added, "there need be no long delay."

The House Appropriations Committee has approved only 17 million dollars of Summerfield's request. It will take up the remaining 30 millions Friday.

Republicans on the committee, who have been the principal economizers on budget requests, are battling to push Summerfield's request through the committee. But the postmaster general said even if this group does not vote the full 47 millions, the House will when the measure gets to the floor.

Meanwhile, Summerfield reiterated that he is not bluffing about cutting out Saturday deliveries, closing post office windows on Saturdays and placing an embargo on all third class mail except merchandise.

Reuther Urges Labor to Clean House

'Stiff Broom--Strong Soap'

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Walter P. Reuther says American labor must clean house with the "stiffest broom and brush and the strongest soap and disinfectant" it can find.

★ ★ ★

Otherwise, Reuther told the United Auto Workers convention yesterday, "the reactionaries will clean it for us. But they won't use a broom; they'll use an ax, and they'll try to destroy the labor movement in the process."

The UAW chief called on labor to "drive out every crook and gangster and racketeer we can find."

He drew a loud cheer from 2,300 delegates representing 1½ million UAW members by declaring, "All the corruption is not on labor's side."

He charged that "reactionary, corrupt managements would rather pay a bribe to a crooked labor leader than to pay a living wage to the workers represented by that crooked labor leader."

Reuther's re-election as president of the UAW, which he has headed since 1946, apparently was assured by an overwhelming majority in convention voting Wednesday.

WALTER REUTHER

A caucus of Reuther supporters, making up most of the delegates, voted unanimously last night to renominate Reuther and his entire administrative staff of elective officials.

The caucus, filling a hall with a 2,000 seating capacity, also pledged Reuther supporters to vote for his key proposals. These include an increase of 50 cents a month in basic union dues of $2.50 and changes in bargaining procedure to permit skilled trades groups to negotiate supplemental contracts within the industrial union's structure.

★ ★ ★

Reuther's keynote speech to the opening session of the convention that will continue through Friday touched on subjects ranging from union jurisdictional disputes to international diplomacy.

Bulletin Calls for Big Slashes in Mail Service

Congress Can't Raise Needed Cash in Time, Says Local Official

Pontiac's Post Office will definitely be closed next Saturday, Acting Postmaster Leslie Dean said today.

"I don't see how Congress can move fast enough to prevent at least this Saturday's closing," Dean said, referring to Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield's threat to lop off Saturday service unless his deparement receives $47 million in supplementary appropriations to finish out the fiscal year ending July 1.

Dean revealed he had received a special bulletin from Washington ordering drastic cuts in service. Included are:

1. Effective April 13, the post office will close Saturday and Sunday.

2. Effective April 13, no city, village or rural delivery service will be given on Saturdays except special delivery.

★ ★ ★

3. Effective April 29, no third class mail will be received by the post office except certain medical items.

4. Effective immediately, no reimbursement will be made to carriers for uniform purchases.

5. Effective April 15, window service will be limited to not more than 8½ hours a day. Pontiac presently gives service from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., or 10 hours a day.

6. Effective April 29, no first or second class post offices (Pontiac is first class) will sell money orders.

PUBLIC ATTENTION

In commenting on the new rules, Dean said he believes Postmaster Summerfield is trying to bring before the public the annual problem of supplementary appropriations.

"This happens every year," Dean said. "The Post Office has to estimate its budget a year in advance and it always underestimates."

"So for the last quarter it has to ask Congress for extra money. You can see that we can't estimate accurately because of the tremendous growth in postal service every year.

★ ★ ★

"Right here in Pontiac," Dean added, "the people know how much our service has expanded each year."

"Every few years, Congress balks at the extra appropriation and gives us a headache. Why one year recently we couldn't pay our carriers for weeks," he said.

The acting postmaster pointed

Supervisors See 10 Per Cent Hike

Proposed Budget Hits Record High

A record $10,710,920 tentative budget will be submitted to the Oakland County Board of Supervisors by the Ways and Means Committee tomorrow.

Committee chairman Fred W. Smith of Royal Oak is expected to call for a week's study, with the board approving the figures for tax allocation purposes at a special meeting next Monday.

The proposed budget is based roughly on a 10 per cent increase over last year's spending, and calls for $9,010,920 to be raised by taxation.

Final passage will take place in the fall. However, next week's action will determine what share of property taxes will be needed by the county for its operation next year.

No discussion on the final budget is expected tomorrow.

MAJOR ITEMS

Three other important items are on the agenda.

The State Highway Department hopes to report on bids opened tomorrow in Lansing for the proposed $39,000,000 extension of Northwestern highway across the western part of the county.

Supervisors must join the state in approving bids, since $1,800,000 of the cost is being borne by the county.

The state is asking bids for $25,000,000 in bonds, with the rest of the money coming from the federal government.

AID FOR CHILDREN'S HOME

The Ways and Means Committee will call for another measure improving services at the crowded Children's Home.

It will recommend a new employe be hired, mainly to locate boarding homes for wards of the court. A step-up in this program, it is believed, would help relieve crowding.

The board also will be asked to abolish the present board of appeals governing complaints over enforcement of the septic tank code.

Cyril Miller of Avon Township will ask that, as a replacement, a semi-official board be organized among the County Health Department and members of the Supervisors' Health Committee, which he heads.

The present appeal board is made up of one public member and two supervisors, not committee members.

Pontiac Hospital Suit Postponed

15-Day Delay May Give Doctors, Director Time to Settle Rules Dispute

Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty today granted a 15-day postponement in the show-cause hearing why Pontiac General Hospital Director Miss Lauretta Paul shouldn't be enjoined from enforcing some disputed surgical regulations at the city hospital.

The delay to April 23 was granted when attorney William J. Beer, representing six doctors, said his clients and the hospital were "still trying to effect an amicable disposition of the dispute."

The six doctors, all general practitioners, filed suit March 15 seeking stoppage of rules which, the suit said, "prohibited unrestricted use of their licenses."

Miss Paul, director at the hospital for the past 10 years, was named as defendant in the suit.

The doctors are Leonard Blackwell, Robert W. Albrecht, Douglass A. Haddock, Maolin Han, Rodman C. Jacobi, and Roy V. Cooley, also a city commissioner.

DISPUTE AUTHORITY

They charge that only the Michigan State Board of Registration in Medicine can regulate rights of surgeons and physicians to practice in public hospitals.

The hospital's Board of Trustees and medical staff have steadfastly supported the rules as necessary and in effect in other hospitals.

Dr. Arnold Brown, chief of staff, said there was a "definite possibility that differences will be ironed out out of court."

Loan-Aid Fund Urged by Dulles

6-Part Foreign Help Plan Given to Special Senate Committee

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles today proposed that the United States set up a special foreign aid fund from which needy countries could draw long-term easy-pay loans to develop their economies. He suggested such loans might run 750 million dollars a year.

In testimony to a special Senate committee studying foreign aid, Dulles called also for:

1. Transferring foreign military aid from the State Department appropriations request to the Defense Department bill — a bookkeeping move in line with recommendations of many members of Congress who argue that the public has been confused by lumping all foreign aid into a single appropriations bill.

Since by far the largest funds go to arming friendly allies, these members of Congress have wanted that point emphasized.

2. Continue the International Cooperation Administration as a semiautonomous agency under the State Department to administer nonmilitary aid.

CONTINUE IKE FUND

3. Continue the special presidential contingency fund, now 100 million dollars a year, to meet foreign aid emergencies.

4. Emphasize loans in foreign assistance, but continue making outright grants where loans can not do the job.

5. Maintain grant military aid at about the present level, but expect to rearm America's allies with "more modern types of weapons" while cutting back the size of local forces.

RESULT OF STUDY

Dulles' presentation was the result of months of study. It was based not only on surveys made by the State Department, but also on such inquiries as that conducted by groups headed by steel magnate Benjamin Fairless and movie czar Eric Johnston.

★ ★ ★

Dulles made it clear that the administration did not anticipate the lending of 750 million dollars

Find 20 Dead Sheep; Hearing Set May 3

KALAMAZOO (AP)—Farmer Stuart McCamley was charged today with cruelty to animals after the carcasses of 20 starved sheep were found on his farm.

The warrant was signed by Municipal Judge Clark M. Olmsted, who visited the farm after Assistant Prosecutor Douglas Cook declined to file charges for lack of evidence. A hearing was set for May 3.

Dr. Norman H. Stoner, Kalamazoo veterinarian, said, "This is the worst case I have seen in my 30 years' experience."

McCamley, supervisor of suburban Porgage Township for more than 25 years, was recently defeated for renomination to the post.

Paris Hails Visit of Queen, Duke in Gay Festival

PARIS (AP)— Queen Elizabeth II of Britain and the Duke of Edinburgh arrived in Paris today for a four-day official visit. France was determined to make her stay the most colorful pageant the republic has ever staged for a monarch.

★ ★ ★

President Rene Coty and a host of top-hatted French dignitaries beamed as the Viscount airliner landed the young Queen and her husband at flag-bedecked Orly Airfield. About 1,000 persons were in the official welcoming party.

The drive to the airport and streets on the Queen's route were jammed with crowds waving small British and French flags.

A bright sun shone and a brisk breeze was blowing from the direction of the English Channel.

The Queen stepped smiling from the four-engine plane in a beige ensemble. Prince Philip wore the uniform of a Royal Air Force marshal.

The visit is intended to strengthen ties between Britain and her closest European ally. A busy round of entertainments and sightseeing was arranged for Elizabeth's first trip to the French capital since she became queen.

It was the first state visit by a reigning British Queen since Victoria crossed the Channel in 1855, and Elizabeth's first since she visited Paris as a princess in 1948.

Engine No. 6322 Takes Last Run

Grand Trunk Western Yields to Diesel in Sad Lansing Ceremony

LANSING (AP) — The band played cheery tunes like "I've Been Working on the Railroad" but the occasion was a sad one for those assembled.

Engine No. 6322, pulling Grand Trunk Western Railway's No. 17, the Intercity Limited, was getting a sendoff on her farewell run, the last before yielding to a diesel successor.

The 335-ton steam locomotive panted at the depot Saturday for 10 minutes while the band did its stuff, Mayor Ralph Crego made a speech and some 300 passengers looked on with melancholy.

They had traveled to Bancroft, a few miles out of Durand, to take a last sentimental ride behind the retiring Iron Horse.

The 60-piece band from Walter French High School, keying its final song to the mood of the moment, tootled Auld Lang Syne, and No. 6322 chugged on down the track toward Battle Creek to complete her run from Port Huron — and out of sight for the last time.

40 Aboard Brazilian Liner

3 Plane Crashes Kill 45; B47 Hits Peak in Hawaii

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A total of 45 persons, including five Americans, died yesterday in three plane crashes in Nevada, Hawaii and Brazil.

All four crewmen were killed in Hawaii when an Air Force B47 bomber slammed into the tip of a 2,400-foot mountain above the World War II rest camp known as "Happy Valley" on northwest Oahu.

The dead were identified at their home base at Altus AFB, Okla., as Capt. Dunn N. Roges, 36, Altus, Okla.; 1st Lt. Sherman Bozeman Jr., pilot, 25, Montgomery, Ala.; 1st Lt. Frank R. Clausi, observer, Altus; and S.Sgt. Haskell E. Gray, crew chief, Altus.

In Brazil, forty persons, all believed to be Brazilians, were killed in an airliner crash.

The plane, a two-engine Varig, burst into flames shortly after taking off from Bage, in southern Brazil and crashed near the airport. The airliner, with 35 passengers and 5 crewmen, was en route from Livramento to Porto Alegre.

In Nevada, a search party is en route today to a spot in desolate desert country where a missing secret research plane and its dead pilot were located yesterday.

The flier was Robert L. Sieker, 35, Grananda Hills, Calif., a Lockheed Aircraft Corp. engineering test pilot. He and the U2 jet, a high altitude research plane, vanished last Thursday after taking off from Mercury, Nev.

Approximately 70 aircraft took part in the ensuing search in parts of Nevada, California and Utah. Yesterday the plane was spotted in the desert near Pioche in eastern Nevada.

★ ★ ★

The B47, a swept-wing, six-jet bomber was coming in for a landing at Hickam AFB, Hawaii, when it hit the peak only 40 feet from the top, broke up and burst into flames.

Land rescue teams which inched up the steep mountainside reported "nothing but pieces" was found of the wreckage.

Ann Arbor Riders Sharing Cab Seats

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Ann Arbor bus riders looked for taxicabs today, their first day without bus service.

The emergency began when Great Lakes Greyhound stopped service in the city Saturday. Newly elected Mayor Samuel Eldersveld yesterday announced five taxicab companies would pinch hit temporarily for the buses.

The cabs will pick up passengers on a share-the-ride basis.

The city council is expected to tackle the situation tonight.

It will consider a plan which would have a group headed by John W. Rae, an attorney, take over public transportation. This group proposes to purchase buses and serve as a municipal organization. A decision is expected by a week from today.

Greyhound stopped service because of failing revenue.

Scrappy Was Not

MEMO TO CAESAR

A Supper Is Planned

(Another in a Lenten Series)

Junius, the Roman agent, came in person to Pilate's palace in Jerusalem and made a report which was later transmitted to Caesar. He said. . . .

The enemies of the Nazarene are making progress. They have found one of his own apostles who is willing to betray him. The man's name is Judas Iscariot.

He came secretly to a group of the local leaders and offered to give his master up — for a price. So the conspirators got together and raised money to pay the traitor when he devises a way to betray Jesus.

At one time that betrayal would have been difficult; it will not be so hard now. Too many people have turned against the Nazarene. The leaders will figure they need only a slight excuse since their action will be popular. That always makes a difference.

★ ★ ★

But how or when this betrayal is to take place, I have been unable to learn.

I know this much. Today is the feast day of these people and the Nazarene has sent two of his men, named Peter and John, to find a place where they may mark the occasion properly.

I am having them followed.

This may all have been prearranged; I have been unable to determine this for sure. But at any rate, Peter and John were given a signal. They were to watch for a man carrying a pitcher of water and go to his house.

There, Jesus told them, they would find a large furnished upper room where they were to get ready for the supper. . . .

Hearing Junius' recital, Pilate seemed agitated.

"Go to this house at once," he said. "Keep an eye on everything that happens and let me have the news."

Junius slipped into the patched beggar's cloak which he wore as a disguise and disappeared into the night.

3rd Major Storm Lashes Plains

Snow Blankets Western States

Hits East to Tennessee With Threats of Floods; 2 Illinois Men Drown

CHICAGO (INS)—The third major spring storm in two weeks which dumped up to 18 inches of snow on parts of the Rocky Mountain and Western Plains states over the weekend struck South and East today.

The storm piled snow on Kansas and plunged temperatures below freezing in the Texas Panhandle.

It also unleashed severe thunderstorms in Eastern Oklahoma, Southern Missouri, Northern Arkansas and Western Kentucky and Tennessee and swirled clouds of dust through Southeastern New Mexico and Western Texas.

And weather forecasters predicted even worse to come. They issued tornado and thunderstorm warnings for Southern and Eastern Kentucky and Western and Central Tennessee.

Snow was expected in most of Oklahoma, the Central Plains and Missouri.

Hardest hit by the storm so far was Colorado Springs where the snowfall ranged up to 18 inches.

Heavy accumulations of snow also were reported in Utah, Wyoming and Nebraska.

Meanwhile, the possibility of more rain threatened further flooding along the Illinois-Indiana border.

Two brothers, Burt and Joe Gibson, were drowned in the swollen backwaters of the Little Muddy River near Effingham, Ill., while shooting fish from a boat Saturday.

The flooding of the Big Muddy River also forced a dozen families from their homes at Murphysboro.

Thousands of acres of lowland and bottomland were inundated along the Kaskaskia River south of Vandalia.

The Wabash and the Cache Rivers were dangerously swollen and spilling over their banks in some places.

Another flood developed in the Southeast on the Alabama River. Several thousand head of cattle were reported marooned by the high water.

However, farmers in Kansas, Colorado and the Texas and Oklahoma Panhandles, hard hit by the early spring drought, welcomed the snowstorms and heavy rains.

Agricultural experts have estimated that, along with the expected normal rainfall for the remainder of the year, the three spring snowstorms will put enough moisture into the parched soil to break the five-year drought.

Some rain mixed with snow was forecast today for the Southern Great Lakes Region and parts of the Atlantic Coast states.

But generally fair weather was expected to prevail in the Pacific Coast states, the Rockies, the Northern Plains, the Northern Great Lakes and the South Atlantic Coast states.

Aga Khan Failing, Prince Asks Visit by Rita's Child

CANNES, France (AP) — Prince Aly Khan has wired an appeal to Rita Hayworth to rush their child, Princess Yasmin, to the bedside of her gravely ill grandfather, the Aga Khan.

Prince Aly was summoned from Paris yesterday as four doctors set up an around-the-clock watch on the wealthy, 79-year-old ruler of the Ismaili Moslems.

Miss Hayworth is preparing to make a new picture in Hollywood. Studio aides could not reach her last night but said she had given no indication she planned to leave the country.

The Aga Khan has been steadily failing in recent months. A medical bulletin last night said he had a recurrence of pulmonary bronchitis but was "slightly better and his temperature has gone down slightly."

Salk Shot Clinic to Open in May

Enough Doses in Offing to Resume Inoculations for Certain Groups

County Health Commissioner Dr. John D. Monroe, said today that Oakland County Health Department's free polio vaccine clinic will not reopen until sometime in May.

★ ★ ★

However, Dr. Monroe said he thought that enough vaccine will be available by May 1, to successfully resume clinic operation.

He has received 5,000 doses of the Salk vaccine as Oakland County's share of 82,800 doses recently acquired by the State Health Department.

Dr. Monroe said, "The 5,000 doses will be used to give second shots only through the clinic which serves youngsters in the 1 to 14 age group, and pregnant women.

SECOND SHOTS

"Those eligible for second shots will be notified by mail starting next week."

Drug firms which manufacture Salk vaccine believe they will produce 33 million doses between now and July 1. According to the State Health Department, Michigan's share would be 4½ per cent for all users.

If the state legislature appropriates enough funds, Michigan should have ample vaccine to continue both private and public inoculation programs through July 1, it has been said.

HELD IN SLAYING — Donald McMann (left), of Holt, is being held for questioning today in the fatal shooting of Benjamin L. Bennett, 28, of Mason, as he said good night to McMann's former girl friend. (Story below.)

Holt Mon Kills Rival, Injures Girl

Fatal Farewell for Couple

LANSING (AP) — A 24-year-old man was shot to death last night and his 18-year-old girl friend was wounded as they said goodnight at the rear door of her Lansing home.

Capt. Sidney Hildebrandt of the Lansing police said Donald McMann, 28, of Holt told officers he fired at the pair with a .30 caliber deer rifle because the girl, Carol Silkey, had been his girlfriend.

Dead was Benjamin Bennett, 24, of Lansing. Miss Silkey was reported in fair condition at Lansing's St. Lawrence Hospital.

Bennett was struck by a ricocheting bullet and a spray of cement fragments kicked up by the bullet when it struck the pavement, Hildebrandt said. Miss Silkey was hit in the arm by another bullet.

★ ★ ★

Capt. Hildebrandt said that McMann had been keeping company with Miss Silkey until a recent breakup, after which, Hildebrandt reported, McMann had said that if he couldn't go out with her, no one else would.

Police arrested McMann at his home near Lansing, sometime after the near midnight shooting.

Hildebrandt said McMann had followed the couple after spotting them driving along a Lansing street. Then, Hildebrandt said, McMann had gone home for his rifle.

Hildebrandt said a warrant would be sought today.

Will Restore Service if Legislators Act

might be using the threat of curtailed service to push his proposed postage rate increases, he declared:

"The (cutback) order . . . is already in the hands of 38,000 postmasters all over the country. And . . . the last thing I want to do was to have to issue this order."

The postmaster general added, however, that he thought one reason House Appropriations Committee Chairman J. Vaughan Gary (D-Va.), would not approve the full 47 millions was that "he feels the American public has to be given a shock as well as the American Congress, of what would happen if we do not raise the rates."

Gary long has advocated a pay-as-you-go postal system.

Summerfield declared that public reaction to his request for increased postal rates has been "very favorable" and said he is "sure that Congress will be convinced" of the necessity for higher rates.

Pilot Uses Road to Land Safely in Snowstorm

MONROE (AP) — A two-seat plane used the Detroit-Toledo expressway for a landing field yesterday.

The single-engine aircraft, caught in a snowstorm, landed, pulled off the highway and after a two-hour wait, took off again. There was no harm to man, plane nor automobile.

Police said the pilot, John McGrath, circled the road until he spied a break in traffic. He descended after failing to find an airport in the vicinity.

McGrath taxied for three miles and then pulled off the expressway to wait for the snow to let up. Police later blocked traffic so McGrath could again take his craft aloft.

Action Planned on Sewer Issue

Waterford Board's Last Business to Deal With Farmington Interceptor

One of the last duties of the out-going Waterford Township Board at tonight's meeting will be to endeavor to put Waterford Township back in the Farmington Interceptor District for sewer service, according to acting supervisor Louis Barry.

Waterford Township was tentatively eliminated by action of the Detroit Public Works Department in December due to the establishing of an arbitrary boundary line at Twenty Mile road.

Other business at the meeting will be to approve a water system for the new Birchcrest Subdivision at Pleasant Lake. A permit has been received from the Michigan State Board of Health for the new well.

The new Waterford Township Board will be sworn in some time this week. New board members will take over the township government operation the first of next week.

Dean urged the public to write and telegraph their congressmen to give the department the $47 million it asks. "Nobody wants to see postal service cut," he said, "after all, it's our most important utility."

Michigan Roads Fatal for Seven

Car Crashes Take 5; 2 Pedestrians Killed; 1 Man Dies in Fire

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Seven persons were killed in highway accidents in Michigan over the weekend as wind, rain and snow reduced motor travel.

In addition, a River Rouge man perished as fire swept his rooming house.

James R. Hallam, 23, of Vicksburg, near Kalamazoo, died Sunday of injuries suffered when the car he was driving hit a tree. Hallam had skidded off a county road to avoid hitting a horse which was crossing the highway.

Mrs. Gertrude Ferguson, 67, of Dearborn, was killed Sunday in a three-car collision at a highway junction in Redford Township in suburban Detroit.

Lokas Angelinas, 47, of River Rouge was found dead Sunday of asphyxiation in the rooming house where he lived.

Gerald Martens, 4, of Rte. 3, Bellevue, was killed Saturday when hit by a car near his home in Eaton County.

Samuel Fallon, 55, of Detroit, was killed Saturday when hit by a taxicab as he crossed a Detroit street.

Shirley Barber, 19, of Ferndale, and Keith P. Dunlap, 20, of Ann Arbor, were killed Friday night when their car left U.S.23 and struck a tree near Brighton.

John Benson, 51, of Luna Pier was killed Sunday when his car collided with a truck on Telegraph Road, five miles north of the Ohio line.

The Day in Birmingham

Mayoral Election Tops Commission List Tonight

BIRMINGHAM—The election of the city's mayor and mayor pro-tem, the administration of oaths of office to them and new commissioners William Hutchinson and Charles Delbridge Jr. take precedence over all other items on tonight's agenda.

A hearing is scheduled on the paving of an alley on Hunter boulevard to Worth street. John M. Rosso will present a petition asking a zoning change from single family to income bungalow for property on Pierce street, between Frank and Henrietta.

Among the reports to be given by City Manager Harold K. Schone will be the parking situation as it pertains to Hunter boulevard.

Schone will suggest that a program of access drives be established immediately, to be completed within the next two years. He says the State Highway Dept. has agreed to participate, up to 50 per cent of the cost.

March building plunged downward, with a total construction cost estimated at $92,428 for 27 permits. February costs on 25 permits were estimated at $455,300.

Permit issues last month include three single-family homes, eight single-family resident alterations, one new business, one business alteration and several other items.

Young people of the Birmingham High School Commercial and Retail clubs will be hosts at the Bosses Dinner in the school's Maple Room tomorrow night.

The event is held annually to honor those men and women in the Birmingham School district who employ students as part of an educational program.

In addition to a brief program by high school students, a Birmingham and Detroit businessman will speak on the opportunities for young people in today's commercial world.

The April meeting of the Birmingham Alumni Chapter of Delta Gamma will be held at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Edward J. Schott, 7222 Ward Eagle Dr.

A sound film of Helen Keller and her story, with Katherine Cornell as narrator, will be shown. The film won the academy award in 1955 for best documentary production.

Co-hostesses of the evening are Mrs. Vincent C. Secontine, Mrs. Howard Estes Jr. and Mrs. Richard Wind.

Money Exchange Fraud Snares 2 City Merchants

The manager of one local dry-cleaning firm and the employe of another were tricked, apparently by the same man with the same method, Saturday.

James Patterson, employe of Ogg Cleaners, 430 Orchard Lake Ave. and Clyde Turner, manager of the French-Glo Cleaners, 33 S. Telegraph Rd., each told police the same story of being cheated.

In each case, a man of the same description entered the store, presented a handful of one dollar bills, and asked for a $20 bill in exchange.

When he was given a $20 bill, the subject supposedly placed it in an envelope and sealed it.

Both Patterson and Turner said they counted the dollar bills and only found 19. When the "customer" was informed of the shortage, he gave back the sealed envelope, supposedly containing the $20 bill, and took back the single dollars.

He told both men he would go to his auto and get another dollar from his wife.

The man never returned and in each case the envelope was empty.

Car Drops on Man

James Jacobs, 22, of 3355 Gidding, Orion Township, underwent surgery for a ruptured spleen in St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital early this morning after his car fell on him last night as he was making repairs on it at his home.

Sheriff's investigators learned that a suspension chain holding the car up either broke or gave way, they said.

Hope to Save Sight of Boy Hurt by Gun

An 11-year-old Orion Township boy underwent emergency surgery yesterday in an effort to save the sight of his left eye after his BB gun discharged as he was playing in a field at Hills Farm at Pine road.

Gerald R. Fosdick, 1505 Shell Rd., told Sheriff's investigators he laid the rifle down alongside a fence and started to climb over it when the gun went off. Gerald was taken to Pontiac General Hospital with the BB pellet embedded in his left eye.

★ ★ ★

Surgery removed the pellet, a spokesman said, but, "It is too soon to tell whether the sight in the eye can be saved."

Gerald said the gun had just been returned to him after it had been in the factory undergoing repairs on the trigger.

Wolfson Meets With Romney

Will Discuss Possible Expansion Plans for American Motors

DETROIT (AP)— For the second time, American Motors President George Romney and major AMC stockholder Louis E. Wolfson will meet in Detroit this week to talk over expansion plans for the auto and appliance firm.

Romney said yesterday that "My meetings with Mr. Wolfson are for the purpose of open-minded exploration, not only of basic methods for capitalizing on the company's position, but for consideration of specific suggestions."

Romney said these suggestions include specific acquisitions that Wolfson believes "would strengthen the company and accelerate its return to profitable operations."

With his wife, Wolfson owns 350,000 shares of the 5,670,430 shares outstanding, making him AMC's largest single stockholder.

In an earlier meeting in Florida, Romney and Wolfson talked over plans for widening the scope of AMC operations. In a news conference several days later, Romney said Wolfson did not propose to cut down on AMC's auto-making.

He reiterated this in his prepared statement yesterday, saying "the full strength" of AMC's auto line "can only become apparent next fall when the company introduces its first cars completely planned, styled and tooled since the formation of American Motors."

American Motors produces Hudson, Nash and Rambler autos and Kelvinator appliances.

Eden Is Rushed to U.S. Hospital

Cuts Vacation Short, Flies 11,000 Miles for Boston Examination

BOSTON (AP) — Doctors begin medical examinations today on Sir Anthony Eden, former British prime minister.

He arrived yesterday by plane after cutting short a New Zealand vacation because of failing health. He was admitted to New England Baptist Hospital.

Lady Eden accompanied her 59-year-old husband on the hurried 11,000-mile air trip.

He was reported resting comfortably at the hospital.

Eden is being attended by Dr. Richard B. Cattell of the Lahey Clinic, who four years ago operated on him for a gall bladder condition.

When the bile tract failed to heal, Dr. Cattell went to London to visit Eden and decided to order him to Boston for further treatments.

★ ★ ★

On June 10, 1953, an artificial biliary tube was inserted and Eden made a good recovery.

At the height of the Near East crisis last fall, Eden suffered from nervous exhaustion and went to Jamaica for a rest.

He resigned his post last January and went to New Zealand for a rest and vacation.

Killed by Electricity After Saving Brother

MONTROSE, Pa. (AP) — A heroic 7-year-old boy, who pulled a kite away from his younger brother as it neared a high-tension power line, was killed by electric shock yesterday.

Investigators said William Kropa, of East Lynn, was apparently aware of the danger and grabbed the kite string from his 4-year-old brother Ronald just before the kite sailed into the power line. The string contained small wire strands that transmitted the current.

SE Michigan Gets New Water Heating Service

Introduction of a new "Super Supply' hot water service plan has been announced by Jack Zeunen, Pontiac office manager of The Detroit Edison Company.

It assures the availability of large quantities of hot water twenty-four hours a day automatically, according to Zeunen.

"The new plan has been made possible because of electric heater design improvements introduced this year," he said. He pointed out that electric water heater manufacturers, working to specifications set by The Detroit Edison Company, have built new heaters which: produce more hot water from the same size heaters; do it automatically; are long lasting and the safest water heaters ever built.

Zeunen pointed out that because electric heaters are flameless and need no flues, one can be placed anywhere in the home without reference to chimney location. Insulated on top and bottom and all sides, the electric heater never has hot areas anywhere on the outer shell. Children cannot be burned by touching one—another reason why electric heaters can be placed anywhere.

The new heaters, designed to produce 160 degree water, and the new "Super Supply" service plan have been developed, in part, as the result of the tremendous increase in the use of automatic washing machines and dishwashers in the post-war years, Zeunen said.

Ability to deliver really hot water to these household appliances is significant, he added, inasmuch as the detergents used today for laundering and dishwashing operations work best when wash water is in the range of 150-160 degrees. Otherwise, detergents cannot do their job properly.

"The increased use of hot water in southeastern Michigan homes and the desire of people to Live Better Electrically has prompted our introduction of this new plan to assure an around-the-clock supply of hot water to our customers. We feel that the combination of a newly designed electric heater, and our new "Super Supply" service plan," Zeunen said, "makes this the best hot water service ever provided in Southeastern Michigan.'

Dog's Loyalty Almost Causes Master's Death

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A small boy's faithful dog who growled off would-be rescuers almost cost his master's life yesterday as the youngster lay unconscious on trolley tracks.

Patrolmen Alexander Anthony and Samuel Mostardi found 3-year-old David Hagenbuch on the tracks of the high-speed interurban trolley line.

The dog, a big German shepherd, growled as they tried to approach. The policemen turned and raced along the tracks in time to flag an approaching trolley, which reaches speeds of 80 m.p.h.

★ ★ ★

They finally got the dog to move by waving their clubs at him. The youngster was taken to a hospital for treatment of face scratches and a bump on the head suffered when he slipped and fell while walking along the tracks.

Honor Dog in Japan for Service at Fires

UEDA, Japan (AP)—A 2-year old police dog with a unique nose for fires was honored today with a service medal and a new collar.

Kuma, a female Alsatian owned by carpenter Gempei Imai, 32, was cited by the city fire department for rendering distinguished service during the past year.

★ ★ ★

Kuma — the firemen said — never failed to arouse her master, volunteer chief of the city's 4th Fire Brigade, two or three minutes before the alarms whined from the fire hall. Awakened by Kuma's insistent barks, Imai dashes to the fire hall and has the engine ready to go when the rest of the company arrives.

Right Numbers Can Make You $300 Richer

Now that you're getting accustomed to the new Pot-O-Gold set-up, the judges are expecting you to come up with more and more winning solutions. If you pick the right numbers for this one, it will be worth $300 providing there isn't a winner for last week's puzzle. Just remember to write in the numbers, not the words, and get the answers in on time and on a postcard.

The new puzzle contains a series of squares which are alphabetically lettered and a corresponding list of sentences with two clue words. Each of the words is numbered. The object is to select the word which you think best fits the clue sentence. You then place the number of that word in the square which has the same letter as the clue sentence.

In other words, you will read the clue labeled A and decide which of the two words makes the most sense in the sentence. You then write the number of that word in the puzzle square marked A.

Do the same with all other squares. Read all the clues carefully and be sure the right numbers are in the right squares.

PRESIDENT POSES WITH NEW ASSISTANT — President Eisenhower poses with Mrs. Anne Wheaton after announcing her appointment as assistant press secretary in the White House. Mrs. Wheaton, director of women's publicity in the Republican National Committee, said the appointment came as a "complete surprise." She replaces Murray Snyder, now an assistant secretary of defense.

White House Press Job Flabbergasts Mrs. Wheaton

By INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE

Mrs. Anne Wheaton, the first woman ever named to the No. 2 spot on the White House news staff, admits she is "flabbergasted" by the appointment.

But the popular and personable new aide to presidential news secretary James C. Hagerty has no qualms about accepting the post, and says:

"It's a great challenge in that I am the first woman ever to hold the job. But I feel it is a great, great tribute by the President to the part women have played both in politics and in the press."

It is in the two fields of politics and news that Mrs. Wheaton has spent most of her adult life—from the day she became the first woman political reporter in the New York state legislature to the triumphant campaigns of President Eisenhower.

MOVES TO CAPITAL

She moved to Washington from her native New York state in 1924 and has engaged in some type of public relations ever since.

Her wide experience in her field, however, did not prepare her for the dramatic timing of the announcement of her new appointment.

She relates that she was called to a telephone from a meeting of 1,500 Republican women at a Washington Hotel yesterday. Hagerty calling from the White House, told her the news.

Half an hour later, President Eisenhower addressed the convention of GOP women and confirmed the appointment, a tribute to the contributions of women to Republican campaigns. She takes office May 1.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Wheaton was first appointed to her present post—director of women's activities for the Republican National Committee—by former national chairman John Hamilton in 1939. She has held the post under 11 different chairmen since then.

★ ★ ★

She was associated with Hagerty in the 1940's when he traveled for the national committee on the two campaigns of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey. But to her mind, the greatest thrill in 30 years as a Republican political worker came in 1952 when she toured the country with Eisenhower and his campaign staff.

"Then," she says, "we were blessed with victory."

Ear to the Ground? Rumble Is a Big NO

Public officials, especially those charged with public financing might find it worth while to take a careful look at Monday's election results throughout Michigan.

Propositions which involved spending money—whether by immediate tax increase or by bond issue—were pretty generally turned down.

In Detroit voters said NO on a $33 million school building tax; a $50 million sewer bond issue also lost; Hazel Park residents don't want a $200,000 swimming pool; Harper Woods taxpayers can live without a $100,000 library and a $190,000 Community Center; Walled Lake also refused a one-mill tax for a library. ditto in Berkley. Royal Oak lowered its bonded debt limit from 10 to 5 per cent. Flint rejected a $1,950,000 bond issue for new fire stations; a big street improvement plan in Flint also was given a cold reception. Many others could be listed, with only an occasional approval.

Does Monday's decisions mean these are unworthy projects? Not necessarily. Most seem to be rather sound civic improvement goals.

But there is just a chance that the tax-paying worm is about to turn. John Q. Citizen in large numbers are giving warning that the growing tax bill must not only stop growing; it must be cut down to size.

★ ★ ★

This in no way wipes out pressing civic problems in many towns. Some border on the critical stage; they must be solved.

But in their solving, public officials and citizens alike must give serious thought to how much the public can—and will—accept in increased taxes.

There is a limit.

Democrats Hold Texas

By the election of Texas Democrat Ralph Yarborough to the Senate Republican hopes of controlling that body were shattered.

Yarborough, running against a field of 19 other Democrats as well as one unknown Republican and Thad Hutcheson, won over his nearest rival, Democrat Congressman-at-large Martin Dies by a large majority. Had Mr. Hutcheson been elected the Senate would be divided 48-48 giving Vice President Nixon the deciding vote for reorganization and GOP leadership.

★ ★ ★

The new Senator fills the unexpired term of Senator Price Daniel, now Governor of Texas, and will run for reelection November, 1958. He was a bitter critic of former Governor Shivers who led Texas into the GOP ranks in 1952 and 1956.

An Austin attorney and World War II veteran, Yarborough is identified with the liberal-loyalist (conservative) group of Texas Democrats. He is considered a moderate in the matter of racial integration.

★ ★ ★

The Administration at least can take comfort in the fact that Mr. Dies was not elected. In 1956 as Congressman-at-large he voted against most of the President's major proposals and was one of the five Texas Representatives who signed the Southern Manifesto criticizing the Supreme Court's school segregation decision.

Driver Holds Key to Traffic Safety

Michigan traffic control agencies, newspapers, and top state officials are campaigning for greater safety on the highways in 1957, after encouraging results from their efforts in 1956.

Gov. Williams, in calling for renewed efforts, points out that a careful check of the records shows that 269 Michigan lives were saved in the general traffic safety campaign last year.

★ ★ ★

State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs, addressing the Traffic Safety Committee of the Michigan Press Association revealed that:

Michigan is running 102 traffic deaths behind the number killed in the first three months last year.

This is a good start, but it must be remembered that the heavy traffic months are still ahead.

Other states are likewise attempting to cut into the traffic toll, which was 40,000 in the nation last year. Educational safety campaigns, and increased high patrols are among efforts being stressed.

Gov. William G. Stratton, of Illinois, asking for doubling of the state police force of 600, made a pertinent comment when he said:

"Our automobiles are safer, our roads are better. Unfortunately, our driving has not improved at the same pace."

In the final showdown, the driver is the key to highway safety.

The New Champion

David Lawrence Says:

Partisan Politics Cause Postal Row

WASHINGTON—What a strange travesty on government—even "modern" government—that the world is witnessing today as the news dispatches tell the people about the quarrel between the executive and legislative branches of the United States government on the subject of postal service.

A whole nation, accustomed to prompt delivery of mail, its business institutions dependent on the speedy transport of its communications every day, is threatened with a collapse of the postal system in the next three months—and mostly because the Democratic Party controls Congress and the Republicans control the White House and cabinet.

LAWRENCE

Abroad—even just across the border in Canada—the budget is a matter of party responsibility. Under their system they couldn't possibly have one party in control of the making of the budget and another party in control of the votes of the legislators who unloose the purse strings.

But in these days when much is being said about "modern" Republicans and "modern" Democrats the only things that are modern are the size and classification of the particular items in the budget. The desire to spend for the "public welfare" and to take in taxes what Peter earns and give it to Paul is in principle as old as Roman circuses and other devices by which the demagogues have stayed in power since time immemorial.

ANTIQUE SYSTEM

Under a system where politics reigns supreme and "spending" is the supposed test of "liberalism" it might be thought that the reformers who from time to time have brought forth proposals to "reorganize" Congress would be pointing with righteous indignation at an antiquated system of government which allows the expenditure of about $71 billions a year to be made the subject of political whim and selfish caprice.

In Canada, in Britain, in Australia, in New Zealand, in South Africa, in every modern government where the parliamentary system is in vogue there couldn't be a dispute over just one or two items in the budget. If a serious controversy arose, it would mean that the size and nature of the entire budget was being challenged and it would be up to the party in power to get a "vote of confidence" in the legislative body or carry the issue to the country in a general election.

This is what is known in the parlance of the political scientists as a "responsible government." This is because at all times the people can hold to strict accountability the party in power and fix the responsibility for what is being done by both the national legislature and the executive at the same time.

SPLIT CONTROL

When separate elections are held in this country, as, for example, for seats in Congress and for the presidency, it is possible because of the varied nature of local and sectional interests for one party to win the Congress and another the White House.

It is all very well for the wishful thinkers and those who wish to foster propaganda for their own party to claim that the country in the 1956 election gave the Democratic Party as such a "vote of confidence" in the national elections by permitting it to win an extra seat in the Senate or a few seats more in the House than the Republicans got.

But, by the same token, the people gave a striking "vote of confidence" to the national and international leadership of President Eisenhower. Who then really does represent the national interest now?

LI'L ONES

"I hit one a mile today. It rolled all the way to second base."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Diathermy Method Fine to Treat Enlarged Tonsils

When I first heard about the diathermy (electro - coagulation, electro - desiccation) treatment of infected tonsils, I rejected the idea arbitrarily. But when I looked at the throat of one who had received the treatment, I had to admit it looked as good or better than the throat of one who had been subjected to tonsillectomy.

DR. BRADY

I decided to call on the New York doctor who was treating infected tonsils with diathermy. I fully expected to find a quack.

What I found that red letter day made me feel ashamed of myself.

INVITED TO WATCH

With his patients' cheerful permission, the doctor invited me to watch over his shoulder while he applied the treatment in several cases.

He used no anesthetic. He worked until the patient signaled by a tap on his knee for a moment's rest. When the impulse to gag had passed, work was resumed. And so on—as a dentist works.

In the course of the afternoon, I had to admit to myself that I had known few doctors with as much skill, gentleness, kindness, and patience. I made several subsequent visits to observe the results of the treatment, and that was the way I learned about the electro-coagulation or electro-desiccation (diathermy) treatment of infected tonsils.

REMOVAL IS PARTIAL

You will notice, I hope, that, except for the reference to tonsillectomy, I have said nothing about removal of tonsils. I don't know why you should want your tonsils completely removed unless mayhap you've lost your marbles, but if that's what you want, I can't recommend diathermy.

Diathermy is rarely applicable in the case of a child under 8 or 10 years of age, because young children usually will not cooperate with the doctor—although I saw Dr. Silvers successfully treat a remarkable youngster barely five years old.

While applying diathermy or doing other nose and throat work, the doctor invariably wore a mask. It was the doctor's own invention—which explains why I call it the Silvers mask, described in the booklet "Call it CRI," for which send 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Dr. Silvers made his own mask out of a piece of washed Xray safety film or- firm cellophane, 9 by 7 inches, with corners rounded. Snap fasterners inserted near upper corners allowed the mask to be attached to the band of headlamp or head-mirror as worn by the doctor.

The mask is transparnet, washable, and prevents cough, sneeze and conversation spray.

It stands away from face so ventilation keeps the wearer comfortable; looks no more freakish than the funny spectacles affected by phony celebrities; and, most important, it is far more efficient in the prevention of infection than the swath of gauze or cheesecloth used in movie and TV dramas.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Suggests Mail Advertisers Pay Their Share of Cost

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

(Editor's Note to "Waterford Resident": All critical letters of people and institutions must be signed by the full name and address of the writer as an evidence of good faith. Other communications can run with initials or anonymous words such as "Old Resident" providing the real name is attached for our files.)

So Mr. Summerfield is going to run the Post Office like a business. If he can't get Congress to give him more money, he wants to cut mail service. Why not ban junk mail, unwanted advertising, or make advertisers pay their share of costs?

Wants to Know Who Is Fooling

I wonder if there was any significance to the fact that Mr. Kern's letter of questions appeared on April Fool's Day. If so, I wonder who is doing the fooling and who is being fooled. Mr. Kern's most serious question concerned the additional one and a half million dollars to finish the hospital. Would he have us believe the city fathers were fooled when they estimated the cost at three million, or would he have us believe that they fooled the taxpayers when they asked for only three million? I think we are all certain that the hospital planners could not miss their estimate by a third nor would they purposely ask for only two-thirds of the required amount so it might be that Mr. Kern is doing a little fooling of his own. Let someone who knows the answer speak up, for as the saying goes, "It's fun to be fooled, but it's more fun to know," and I, for one, would like to know.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God being the children of the resurrection.—Luke 20:36.

★ ★ ★

I came from God, and I'm going back to God, and I won't have any gaps of death in the middle of my life.—George MacDonald.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Bad English Can Hold You Back

Donna's dad is wrong in parading his inner thoughts in shoddy or inappropriate attire. And all parents can profitably use the booklet named below to help give their children a running head start in the use of correct English. Jesus said it is what comes out of our mouth that pollutes us, so tutor your child at home in good morals as well as good English.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case U-349: Donna D., aged 20, is an attractive college coed.

"Dr. Crane, I have a problem father," she admitted with a rueful smile.

★ ★ ★

"He is a self - made b siness leader and earns a splendid income. But he has never made any serious attempt to learn how to use good English.

CRANE

"And when I try to improve his speech, he laughs at me, saying if people can get his point, that's all that counts, anyway.

"But I truly believe he has often lost prestige and even sales by his coarse talk and errors in grammar. Don't you believe a man should try to tailor his speech to fit his position in life?"

WORDS ARE TOOLS

Words are simply tools by which we try to carve ideas. And every skilled workman knows that precise tools are the basis of our great industrial progress.

★ ★ ★

A crude flint ax and some rough knives made from bone or sea shells would never permit the marvelous factory output which typifies America.

So Donna's dad, even if self-made, should recognize that language is one of the first things people notice about their companions.

He wouldn't think of attending a Rotary luncheon dressed in greasy overalls.

And he realizes that it would not increase his popularity to drive around in a dirty automobile with a broken window and dented fenders.

★ ★ ★

In similar fashion, his rough language and excessive speech errors do not help him in business or social affairs.

Now we don't recommend an ultra elegant style. Indeed, English professors permit much more leeway nowadays in the use of our language.

It is thus entirely all right to split an infinitive. A generation ago you would have been marked off if you submitted an English theme with a split infinitive such as "to diligently work."

In those days the "to" and the verb "work" had to be adjacent, with no other word splitting them.

★ ★ ★

And we are now inclined to use punctuation for the purpose of producing a quicker, clearer understanding. Thus, you employ commas where they will simplify the meaning which you wish to convey.

A trained tongue is now regarded as one of the best advertisers for your degree of culture. Notice the "feeling tone" of the next paragraph:

★ ★ ★

"It's me. No, I ain't gonna go, even though I am anxious to meet her. I always go for dark complected dames. It sure was a swell joint we visited last night. The waitress was real sweet but her voice aggravated me. It must of been mental telapathy when she raised up the window."

How many errors can you find in that paragraph? And how far do you think such a person had advanced in our American school system?

Here's a second version. Notice how much more culture and social prestige the speaker enjoys by saying:

"It's I. No, I'm not going even though I am eager to meet her. I always go for dark complexioned girls. It certainly was an attractive place which we visited last night. The waitress was very sweet but her voice irritated me. It must have been telepathy when she raised the window."

★ ★ ★

Since language is the apparel in which our innermost thoughts parade before the public, we should never send them forth in shoddy or vulgar attire.

If you get nothing else out of your schooling, at least learn how to make change speedily and how to use your mother tongue with reasonable exactness.

To help do that, send for my booklet, "Home Tutoring," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents.

Mothers, use it to improve your children's speech.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Test Radiation's Effect on Learning Ability

MADISON, Wis. — University of Wisconsin scientists studying the effect of radiation on primates have found that learning ability and behaviour seem to be nearly unaffected by large doses of radiation.

Monkeys exposed to 100 roentgens of total body radiation every 35 days showed no decline in learning ability although they developed all the symptoms of radiation sickness and premature aging and died in little more than a year.

BIRTHSTONES

1. Garnet and Amethyst

Do you know your birthstone? This week we are going to study the 14 birthstones in general use. You can make a birthday book by cutting each picture apart and mounting the separate months on individual sheets of construction paper. Tie the pages together into a book. Then have your friends write their names and birthdays on the appropriate pages.

The birthstone for January is the garnet, a transparent stone, deep red in color. In ancient days garnets were prized highly for their brilliance, and there is a legend that Noah used them to light the Ark.

Here is a lady of the 1860's wearing a matched set of garnets — head dress, earrings, necklace, bracelets, brooch and buttons.

The amethyst is the birthstone for February. It is a transparent gem whose colors range from pale violet to deep purple. Many centuries ago some people believed the amethyst had magic powers which would protect against poison or plague. Small bottles and drinking cups of amethyst are found in ancient gem collections.

St. Valentine is said to have had an amethyst ring engraved with a head of cupid. Color both pictures and hold them for the rest of the calendar months which follow this week.

"HOW I LOST 15 POUNDS IN THREE WEEKS the CHEWING GUM WAY!"
by LAWRENCE TIBBETT
Star of the Broadway Musical Hit "FANNY"

I would never have thought it possible to lose so much weight...the chewing gum way. It may sound hard to believe, but I lost 15 pounds in 3 weeks by chewing FERGUSON'S FORMULA 71.

You see, I was asked to take the leading role in the Broadway Hit, "Fanny". But I discovered I would have to slim down before going on stage. I really had a problem! Like everyone else who has been overweight, I was anxious to lose, but I had all sorts of prejudices about how to go about it. I had ideas about reducing pills and special diets with calorie counting, that had to be watched all the time, and, personally, I don't work well when I feel hungry. I like to exercise. But when you are busy rehearsing for a play, there is no time for stringent exercise.

Then I heard of FERGUSON'S FORMULA 71... a pleasant tasting special chewing gum for reducing. It sounded impossible, reducing this chewing gum way. Still, I had to lose weight, and quickly... so I gave it a try. Surprisingly, it worked! And, fast, at that! Inside of three weeks, I had lost fifteen pounds! And the amazing part about it... I was not aware I was losing weight. I lived my normal everyday life.

This is how I went about it: Just before each meal, I would chew two pieces of FERGUSON'S FORMULA 71. When I sat down at the table a few minutes later, I had the feeling my appetite was satisfied. I enjoyed my favorite foods as much as ever... but I did not have the urge to overeat, which I usually had in the past. FERGUSON'S FORMULA 71 had curbed my appetite, yet allowed me to feel satisfied. And whenever I became hungry between meals... I would pop a piece of Formula 71 gum in my mouth to discourage snacking.

FERGUSON'S FORMULA 71 has done such a wonderful job in helping me to reduce, that I have recommended it to many friends. Believe me, FERGUSON'S FORMULA 71 is the answer for anyone and everyone with an overweight problem. I know that once you have tried it, you too, will be as pleased with its results as I am.

Bob Considine Says:

New Terminal to Ease Air Travel

NEW YORK (INS) — A fellow who made that recent Seattle to Baltimore trip in the Boeing jet in three hours and 48 minutes complained later, "It took me as long as from Chicago to Baltimore to get my suitcase off the plane after we landed."

★ ★ ★

On the trip home from the Bermuda conference, which took under three hours, I waited 40 minutes for my bag to nuzzle into the customs area at Idlewild. And when it came its lock-clasp was open.

There was open disgruntlement among other passengers who had to wait, too. Nobody is more aware of these beefs than airline operators.

Pan-American World Airways unveiled a model of its new terminal building for greater Idlewild the other day and it looks like a fine contribution to passenger-handling efficiency and creature comfort.

★ ★ ★

American, United, TWA and all the other big companies which use Idlewild are expected to build somewhat similar terminals on the huge airdrome.

DRINKING GLASS

Briefly, Pan-Am's terminal looks like a sawed-off drinking glass with a china saucer placed on top. The "glass" is a two-story building so designed that it can handle 60 to 64 cars or taxis every two minutes (1,800 an hour), and dispatch a fully loaded 160-passenger jet airliner every 15 minutes.

★ ★ ★

"Air doors" relieve Skycaps and arriving passengers of the job of pushing their way through heavy doors with luggage. Bags are taken from them within a few feet after entering the building. They board the plane from the second floor of the terminal, thus do not have to clamber over gas hoses, trucks, other craft.

They will be protected from the weather by the "saucer," a four-acre roof which juts out 110 feet around the building. The planes will be brought right up under the roof, within a few feet of the indoor lounges.

The airlines have been able to offer their patrons the finest food, finest flying, and multi-million dollar equipment for years now, but the only thing they've devised to protect a passenger who must walk to the ship in the rain is an umbrella—an invention that somewhat pre-dates the Wrights. The new terminal roof takes care of that.

★ ★ ★

As for the baggage, Harold E. Gray, who flew the first Pan-Am Clippers from Port Washington, Long Island, to Lisbon 21 years ago, and who is now executive vice president of the company's Atlantic Division, gives a bold pledge:

"When this terminal is finished we'll be able to deliver the last piece of plane baggage within one minute of the arrival in the terminal of the last passenger off the ship. From 60 to 70 per cent of all the bags will be waiting when the first passenger appears to claim his.

★ ★ ★

"We'll have a three-speed belt conveyor from the plane to the baggage pick-up point. The baggage crews, with no passengers in the way on ground level, and unhampered by having to first load the bags into trucks, will be shooting the bags into the terminal before the first passenger steps off.

SEEN AS SALESPOINT

"It's bound to be a salespoint in the years to come," the still youthful-looking pioneer said.

"The other companies will be trying hard to equal us or do better, knowing that if any of us fails we can't blame it on the New York Port Authority or anybody else except ourselves—for these terminals will be entities. Private enterprise is going to do a lot for the passenger."

It has been the complaint of some terminal builders of late that their edifices and installations are obsolete before they are finished—so swift is the progress of air travel. Pan-Am and the others have taken this into account, apparently.

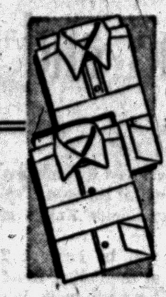

Pan-Am plans a ticket-purchase and check-in area with 48 positions. This one terminal will have 500 lounge seats, as compared to the 358 available for all the many airlines now planted at New York's LaGuardia.

The semi-ignomy of standing in "sheep runs," and the contradiction of wading through grease and slush en route to the winged pleasure domes which fly today will vanish.

Fasten seatbelts. No smoking. That will be $8,000,000 for the terminal, please.

Satellite May Hold to Orbit 5 or 6 Years

SOUTH PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—The satellite which American scientists plan to launch within the next 16 months may remain in its orbit around the earth for five or six years instead of just days or weeks, says a Massachusetts astrophysicist.

This is indicated by a reappraisal of the atmosphere's density at 300 miles, altitude of the proposed satellite's orbit, said Dr. Josef Allen Hynek.

"The atmosphere (at 300 miles) is less dense than was expected," hynek told a news conference yesterday. Information on the density was obtained through rocket tests, although the rockets did not reach that height.

The data provided by the rocket tests provided the basis for a "better educated guess" that the satellite, because of less density, may remain in its orbit far longer than was first predicted, he said.

Martyr's Tomb Found

PARIS (AP) — After 12 years of digging, the tomb of three 5th Century Christian martyrs has been found under the Church of St. Denis. Jean Jules Pierre Formige, chief architect of historic monuments, said this confirms legends about burial in a common grave of Sts. Denis, Eleuthere and Rustique.

The British Museum's original manuscripts range from the Magna Carta to Alice in Wonderland, and its library contains nearly 4,000,000 volumes.

Fund-Raising Firm Looks Forward to Banner Year for U. S. Churches

CHICAGO (AP) — "There is every indication that this will be a record-breaking year for church fund-raising — not only in the United States but throughout the world."

This is the opinion of a man who has helped churches raise more than a half-billion dollars since World War II. He is Col. Lewis G. Wells, 52, chairman of the board of Wells Organization, Inc.

In the past decade, Wells' firm has completed fund-raising canvasses for 6,000 churches.

"We reached canvassed objectives in 98 per cent of the projects,' he said.

"We not only help the church obtain its funds, we are part of the upsurge in the present wave of church building. There is an increasing pressure for churches in new communities. We are a church fund-raising counsel. The churches wanted to do it and didn't know how to do it. We showed them how."

Wells' firm employes 624 people, with 324 of them in America. There are 25 offices in the United States, 12 in Canada, 3 in New Zealand, 6 in Australia, 3 in South Africa and 1 in London.

When the Wells organization undertakes a fund-raising project, it conducts a four- to eight-week canvass for a church to determine the amount that is likely to be raised. It trains parishioners to call on fellow members of the church in a face-to-face appeal for funds.

Wells handles the firm's business on a public relations basis. It organizes committees and trains leaders. Wells says a flat fee is charged for the service — the size of the church determines the amount of the fee.

Among the 1,000 churches handled last year the average Wells' fee was $3,000. Wells figures his fees have averaged 3.6 per cent of the total funds raised. He estimates that campaigns now in progress by 200 churches will result in more than 200 million dollars.

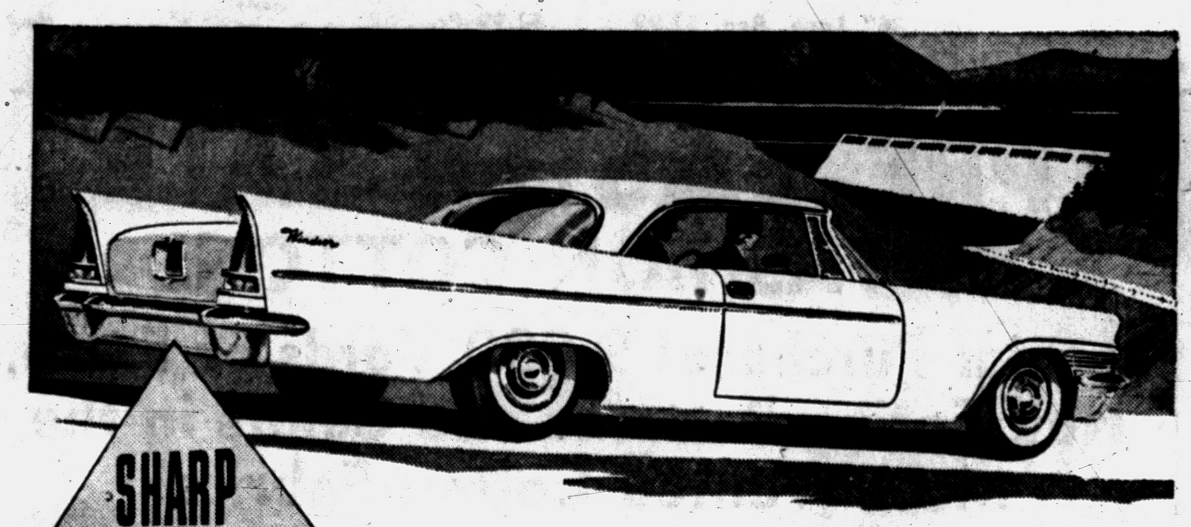

His fund-raising organization dates back to 1910. His father, the founder, Herbert Wells, now 82, remains honorary chairman of the board of directors.

Col. Wells is a Presbyterian. His father is an elder in the Presbyterian church in Steubenville, Ohio.

Politicians Shun Architect's Idea

Dislike Wright's Plan to Accommodate Birds in Arizona Capitol

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Architect Frank Lloyd Wright, who wants to design a copper-domed state capitol beneath a canopy built so "birds would fly in and out," is taking his fight to Arizona's youngsters.

★ ★ ★

As far as Arizona's politicians are concerned, the plan is for the birds.

Wright, who concedes his plans appear doomed to indifference, told newsmen he has printed 30,000 brochures or distribution to high schools in Arizona.

"Trust the judgment of our teen-agers over that of the so-called educated person," Wright said. "Take your ideas to where the minds are still fresh."

The blunt-talking, 87-year-old architect described a 20-story skyscraper capitol proposed by other architects as "a telephone pole, and a derby hat on that pole, and two wastebaskets for the Legislature."

Wright, who has a winter home in nearby Scottsdale, said his design is based on the Moorish Alhambra, a medieval fortress in Spain.

However, political columnist Bill Turnbow of the Phoenix Gazette says statehouse pundits, referring to Wright's oriental dome and spires, call it "The Teahouse of the August Moon."

Hal Boyle Says:

European Men Rule the Highways

NEW YORK (AP) — Europe is a strange continent where men are still so ruggedly independent they won't stand for backseat driving.

"A husband there would not let his wife tell him how to drive," said Gilberte Thirion, a pretty sprout from Brussels who at 29 is Europe's top feminine auto racing star.

★ ★ ★

"He is the boss—in the car, as well as in the home.

"I am amaze to see so many women behind the wheel in this country. The man sit beside her like a small babee.

"In Europe if you see a man and a woman in the car, it is almost always the man who is at the wheel. He would not trust her to drive."

★ ★ ★

Miss Thirion, who has won 20 of the 60 races she has participated in during the last five years, came here for the international races at Sebring, Fla., last month. She and her codriver, Mrs. Nadege Ferrier of Switzerland, piloted a Renault Dauphine and finished first in their small car category.

★ ★ ★

"I compete mostly against men," said the tawny-haired Belgian mademoiselle, who was named by her small nation as its top sports performer of 1956.

Trimly built—she is a meter and 70 centimeters tall and weighs about 60 kilos—she showed the stamina last year to win in her division of Italy's famed "Mille Miglia" race.

She first learned to pilot an old Army jeep and was trained in racing technique by her father, Max, a veteran racer himself. In a good year she picks up about $7,500 in prize money.

Her racing costume consists of a custom tailored jacket, men's trousers and a white crash helmet.

★ ★ ★

"My pants are blue," she says. Although European racing is notably dangerous (to spectators as well as drivers), she has been hurt only once. In 1953 she broke a wrist in Italy.

Gilberte said, however, that ordinary American traffic made her more nervous than driving in a real race.

"It is very dangerous here," she said. "The speed limits are so low in this country that everybody falls asleep at the wheels, listens to the radio or starts talking to a passenger."

In three weeks Gilberte expects to marry her fiance, a young French Alpine climber.

★ ★ ★

"He does not like too much the racing," she said, laughing. "He thinks it is too dangerous. But I tell him that I don't like it too much that he climbs the mountain. One can be hurt veree, veree bad falling from an Alp.

"I think maybe I give up the racing when I have children."

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called *Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Newest Bridal Gowns Are Romantic, Picturesque, Light as a Whisper

Chiffon, Net Add Accents of Softness

Lace Still Favorite Choice for Formal Wedding Dress

By GAILE DUGAS

NEW YORK (NEA)—The fashion trends of the season are reflected in the beautiful formal bridal gowns ready for the bride of late spring or summer.

Most significant change from the gowns of the past is that a bride can now have a romantic and picturesque gown that's a froth of lace and silk without enduring the weight and clumsiness of formal bridal gowns in past years.

The new gowns are shaped over a drift of net, organdy or the synthetics, artfully maneuvered to keep their freshness while composing a pretty picture.

All of fashion's changes are reflected. The slim sheath (belled from knee to floor for the formal line), the dome skirt, the shirtwaist dress, the outright sheath with slim train, the lacy camisole top.

CHIFFON ACCENTS

Even chiffon, the big spring fashion, is reflected in the formal bridal gown by means of the set-in cummerbund, inserts, floating scarves and pretty beaded bodices.

The uneven hemline, sometimes ending in a train, appears in the very formal gown. So does the caped shoulder, the obi sash, the covered-up look and the bateau neckline.

Favored fabric for the formal gown is, of course, lace. It's used alone or in company with pleated silk chiffon, silk - faced taffeta, organdy, batiste, or pure silk taffeta.

NEW HEADDRESS

The bridal headdress looks more like a miniature hat this year.

Big flat bows of silk and satin make lovely caps from which a veil, shoulder - length or full-length, can float.

The essential ingredient in picking the right wedding dress is, of course, planning. It's important not only to find a dress that will make you look pretty but to allow enough time for fittings, changes and adjustments.

★ ★ ★

This is the way to avoid those last-minute crises that send a bride, her whole family and some bridal consultant into a tizzy. With proper planning, a crisis is impossible—or almost impossible.

This ankle-length gown has white lace as veiling for bouffant pink petticoats. The full shirred skirt nips in at the waist with a pink cummerbund sash ending in huge streamers at the back. The headpiece is a small cap with a shoro veil.

For the young bride, the short informal gown is ideal. This one of imported lace, has cap sleeves, shallow neckline and skirt that shows flat front with fullness gathered to the sides and back. It's worn with a tiny cap.

Reception Guests Feel Neglected

Expected Relative to Introduce Them to Others

By EMILY POST

A letter tells me: "My son-in-law's aunt invited my daughter and me to a reception at her house. We went to the reception together and when we arrived we were greeted by the hostess and my daughter's mother-in-law who offered us refreshments and then hurried on to mingle with her sister's many guests.

"We knew no one at the reception and were not introduced to any of the guests. My daughter's mother-in-law didn't even return to talk with us. after a while I became very uncomfortable and decided to leave.

"As we were getting ready to go, my daughter's mother-in-law asked why we were leaving and I did not hesitate to tell her. She was very much surprised at my attitude. She felt it was her duty as the hostess' sister to mingle with the guests rather than offer special attention to us.

"I, on the other hand, expected no special attention but felt she should have had the courtesy to introduce us to a few of the guests. I would very much appreciate hearing from you on this matter."

Answer: At any reception of size the hostess does no more for any arriving guest than to introduce her to one or two nearby persons. After the sister of the hostess offered you refreshments you were supposedly competent to join others who were nearby — even though you had not been introduced to them. The roof of a friend is supposed to serve as an introduction.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is it ever proper when dining in someone's house to turn one of the hostess' plates over to see what kind of china it is? I think it is very bad manners but a friend of mine thinks it is perfectly acceptable. Will you please tell us what you think about this?"

Answer: Actually it is not rated as good manners, but when done by someone who has a special interest in china, it is excusable.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me if it is wrong to ask a bride-to-be where she and the bridegroom are going on their honeymoon? I was told that it was."

Answer: No one has the right to ask this question.

JACKIE POWELL

The engagement of their daughter, Jackie, to John Harrington is announced by Mrs. Geneva Powell of East Beverly avenue and Roy Powell of Kennett road. John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Harrington of South Telegraph road. The couple plans a June wedding.

Diane Euler, bride-elect of Lewis E. Wint, was the honoree at a tea given Saturday. The tea, the first of many pre-nuptial parties planned for Miss Euler, was given by Mrs. Elmer R. Pettengill and Mrs. John E. Windiate at the Pettengill home in Clarkston.

Silver and white tapers flanked the centerpiece, a miniature bride and groom. White roses, snapdragons, daisies and azaleas decorated the Pettengill home for the affair.

Among guests attending the tea were grandmothers of Diane and her fiance—Mrs. Charles B. Fox of Durand, Mrs. William B. Sharp of Pontiac and Mrs. Floyd Barrett of Holly.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Euler of Ottawa drive are parents of the bride-elect. Lewis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell C. Barrett of Holly and Lewis Wint of Farmington.

★ ★ ★

Plans were completed for the father and son banquet being held by Lutheran Laymans League on April 30 and for the reception being held May 5 in celebration of the fifth anniversary of the church.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. William Rahn, Mrs. Koop, Mrs. Peter Petersen and Mrs. Guy Hackett.

Installation Rite Held by Dames of Malta

Mrs. George Kayga was installed as Queen Esther at the Wednesday evening installation ceremony held by Dames of Malta 184.

Mrs. Grace Combs conducted the ceremony assisted by Mrs. William Daugherty, marshal. Refreshments were served to 100 members and guests at the close of the meeting.

Fashion Hint

Navy blue and black are equally good in the Paris spring collections but beige, mustard and cafe-au-lait are favorites, too. There are many checks and pastel tweeds in featherweights.

For the very formal spring or summer wedding, a bride might pick this magnificent dress in silk peau de soie lavishly appliqued with imported French re-embroidered Alencon lace in old ivory color. The gown has a willowy long-waisted bodice and flowing cathedral train. This bride wears a matching lace toque cap with a full-length silk illusion veil.

Sa-Shay Club Dance Held

Stop Abusing Your Most Valuable Possession

Protect the Health and Beauty of Your Eyes

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Our eyes are about our most valuable possession and yet we abuse them terribly. They also are supposed to be the windows of the soul and certainly they are expressive in revealing the inner man and woman. Not only this, but eyes can add great beauty to a face.

Today I would like to bring you some suggestions about the care of your eyes, concerning their health and their appearance.

In the first place, the state of our health is reflected in our eyes. Poor nutrition, illness, strain and fatigue reveal themselves there. Many serious diseases such as jaundice and hardening of the arteries show sumptoms in the eyes.

Therefore, for lovely eyes, check in as a habit for seven to eight hours sleep a night, eat scientifically and live generally as hygienically as possible. Fresh fruit and vegetables and milk are especially helpful.

Watch for signs of eye strain such as squinting and frowning. Do not read in dim light. Be sure that it is adequate. Reading in bed is hard on the eyes because of the angle at which you hold your book. When you are going to be in the bright sunlight wear colored glasses. The glare strains the eyes.

★ ★ ★

Your child should give his eyes periods of rest, about two minutes after every half hour of reading.

PERIODIC TESTS

You and your child should have periodic eye examinations just as you have a health checkup once or twice a year.

★ ★ ★

As my readers know, I think that eye makeup does worlds for the middle-aged woman if it is used subtly. However, if you do not use an eyebrow pencil or mascara, there is still a lot which should be done about the lashes and brows. They should be well groomed even if you do not enhance them with makeup.

Remove any stray hairs which make your brows appear fuzzy, but keep the natural brow line. Be sure also to remove any hairs which grow between the brows above the bridge of the nose. The inner end of the brows should be directly over the inner corners of the eyes.

When you pull out a hair be sure to pull it in the direction in which it is growing. Do not jerk the hair out but remove it with a steady, slow pull. There is a great difference in tweezers. Buy the kind that grips the hair firmly.

★ ★ ★

Lashes appear longer if they are curled, or sweep upward at the end. You might try an eyelash curler. You always should apply an eyelash pomade or cream before using this.

A light application of pomade or cream to the brows and lashes will make them look darker and thicker and also will give them sheen. Us this lightly and be sure that your lashes do not stick together.

MORE KNOWLEDGE NEEDED BY BRIDES

It is truly surprising when we think of it—how young women go glibly into marriage without the slightest preparation for this most important career.

★ ★ ★

They have been told the facts of life; however, most of them have been given no constructive information concerning sex, nor have they been given psychological preparation for the readjustments which any marriage demands.

They promised to love and obey the "perfect" man only to find that he is human and can be just as cross when tired, look just as unattractive when he has a cold, and is just as unreasonable, at times, as the man next door.

Actually, the mature woman does not love a man because he is a paragon of virtue, but because he has some special and highly individual qualities which draw her like a magnet, some characteristics which make him her own. She does not expect or wish for perfection.

★ ★ ★

At long last many of our schools and churches are providing courses and counseling in preparation for marriage. Now if we could go just a step further and teach the young woman how to cook! Actually, I do not think that a knowledge of cooking is nearly so important as an understanding of nutrition.

ANYONE CAN COOK

Any young wife who has a normal amount of intelligence and a good cookbook soon can become somewhat proficient in this charming art. It would be nice for her husband if she learned this before marriage, but she will of necessity learn afterwards.

★ ★ ★

This is not true in the case of nutrition. The wife may go along forever without learning much about it unless its importance is somehow brought home to her.

Yet she has the welfare of her husband and children in her hands. Without a study of nutrition, it is impossible for a woman to realize how important is the food she serves her family.

Young people today actually have the opportunity to delay physical middle age and old age for years and years if they will take advantage of what is already known about nutrition. And this knowledge is increasing dramatically and constantly. There is a tremendous amount of research and experimentation being carried on.

★ ★ ★

What we eat has been correlated with our health, life expectancy, our energy, and even with our emotions and our mental processes. It now looks as though the fountain of youth consists of scientifically sound nutrition and happy thoughts, and the ability to work with a minimum amount of tension.

I hope that soon the future bride will be given a good stiff course in nutrition along with marriage counseling.

★ ★ ★

If you would like my leaflet "Vitamins in Your Diet," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 38 to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Tomorrow: "Surveys Prove Girdle Will Lessen Fatigue."

When you pull a hair from your brows be sure to pull it in the direction in which it is growing.

She serves as adviser to councils in six states.

Prior to joining the national staff of Camp Fire, Mrs. Owens was a social worker with the Michigan Children's Aid Society. She also has served as director of the Battle Creek Volunteer Bureau.

Pampering of Delinquents Means Trouble in Future

We Should Insist Upon Punishment When Youngsters Run Wild

By RUTH MILLETT

Dinner was over and the host and hostess had led their guests into the living room when the big glass picture window facing the street suddenly shattered.

★ ★ ★

Rushing outside, the man of the house was hit by an unopened beer can thrown at him from a car full of teenage boys, who roared away leaving him with a broken nose and a deep gash in his forehead.

The police caught the boys hours later, but the man with the broken window and the broken nose decided not to prosecute.

His reason? "I've got a couple of boys of my own," he said, "and how do I know they won't get into trouble some day?"

★ ★ ★

He can't be sure they won't as long as adults go on coddling young people and protecting them from the consequences of their unlawful acts.

AN OUTRAGE!

His boys and a lot of others might have learned something worthwhile if he had stood up and said: "This is an outrage. And I'm going to bring charges."

★ ★ ★

Hard? Tough? No harder and no tougher than the world is going to be when those young hoodlums are a little older.

Why spare them now, simply because they are young? Is it just to let them grow old enough to start carrying a gun and going in for armed robbery to get their "kicks"?

Don't think that adolescents who don't have to pay for their early crimes are going to be so grateful they suddenly see the light and start behaving themselves.

★ ★ ★

Usually they just think they are smart for having broken the law and evaded punishment. And if they can get away with one thing they figure they can get away with something bigger.

The fact that we have youngsters of our own is no reason for not pressing charges when some teenager destroys our property or endangers our safety.

★ ★ ★

It is the very best reason in the world for seeing that justice is done and the crime is paid for. How else can we expect youth to learn that it must obey laws and respect the rights of others?

Problem Solved by Later Bedtime

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

At 9:15 Jimmy's father remembered the story a client had told him at lunch. It was a good one. He was about to tell it to Jimmy's mother when he suddenly realized their 9-year-old was still sprawled over the dining room table, reading a comic.

In the next moment, he realized that the voice he'd been hearing for the past 10 minutes had been his wife reminding Jimmy of bedtime.

Putting down his paper, he called, "Hey in there, come here a minute, will you?"

When Jimmy came, his father asked: "Don't you like your bedtime any more?" As he got no answer, he said: "You certainly don't act as though you liked it. Want it changed? Want it upped 15 minutes? How would you like 9:30 for a new bedtime?"

★ ★ ★

A slow grin spread across Jimmy's face. Nodding vigorously, he said, "I'd like it fine. Can I have it, Pop?"

BUT NO PRETENDING

"Take it," his father said. "But if you take it, keep it. No more of this pretending you haven't heard your mother when she tells you bedtime is coming. Is that a deal?"

It was—and Jimmy, after kissing his parents goodnight with unusual enthusiasm, made for the stairs in an eager effort to keep his part of the new bargain.

Around Jimmy's age, children may suddenly become bedtime problems again.

For no apparent reason, they will abruptly decide that they're being cheated of the respect due their advanced years. They become filled with the seething belief that we are belittling them like babies.

One of the ways they choose to express it is by resistance to their which is actually anxiety that we will refuse to expand it.

COMFORT THE ANXIETY

The solution is always comfort for the anxiety; never battle with the defiance.

Even if we only expand bedtime 15 minutes, it's usually enough to assure the child that we don't intend to shackle him forever to the old one—and with this assurance gain his grateful cooperation in place of his resistance.

★ ★ ★

Part of the problem is always our own secret resistance to a later bedtime for him. We don't wholeheartedly welcome his intrusion on evening hours we've been using for our own adult relaxation. We'd rather he'd stick to his childish bedtimes.

Batter Top for Rhubarb Is Different

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

A little tardy, perhaps, but welcome nonetheless, is a recipe from the Rhubarb Festival, Mrs. Edwin Kage of Rochester won a blue ribbon for her Rhubarb Crisp and sent us the recipe. This was her first tray at competitive baking.

Mrs. Kage is active in club work, being president now of the Metropolitan Ladies Auxiliary. Her other clubs include the Rebekahs, the Maccabees and the Blue Star Mothers. Another one of her interests is church work.

RHUBARB CRISP
By Mrs. Edwin Kage

4 cups cereal flakes
2 cups toast cubes
4 cups finely sliced rhubarb
½ cup butter or margarine
1½ cups sugar
2 eggs

Cream butter or margarine until fluffy. Gradually add ¾ cup of the sugar. Add eggs, one at a time, mixing thoroughly after each one. Combine mixture with flakes and toast.

Put half of above mixture in a 9x9 pan. Cover with rhubarb, sweetened with rest of sugar. Cover with remaining egg mixture.

Bake 40 minutes in 350-degree oven. Serve warm with ice cream, whipped cream or plain cream. Serves 8-10.

Puppet Exhibit, Workshop Set

Puppets of all kinds will be displayed at the citywide puppet workshop for Blue Bird and Camp Fire Girls' leaders and assistants being held Monday.

To be held at the Camp Fire office beginning at 7:30 p.m., the workshop will feature live stage shows by the OTYOKWA Camp Group of Wever School and TEKAKWITHA Camp Fire Group of St. Frederick School.

Plans for the puppet show are being arranged by Mrs. Hoyal Amos, Mrs. Keith Pawley and Mrs. A. E. Vaught.

Fashion Hint

Lots of gold buttons and buckles appear on Paris fashions. Gold buckles look especially good on polished leather or suede belts.

Zany High School Play Gets Laughs, Big Hand

When a conservative, socially-conscious family meets a houseful of zanies, it's bound to be interesting. Just this situation sent the audience of "You Can't Take It With You" into gales of laughter.

Presented by the Pontiac High School Speech Department through Saturday under the direction of Mary Parrish and assisted Mrs. Shirley Medrano, the production combined fast moving dialogue and superior character interpretation in all roles to make a thoroughly enjoyable comedy.

The goofy Sycamore family household included a giddy and completely oblivious mother, played capably by Donna Chilvers. Emmanuel Williams brought many laughs as a father whose main ambition was to concoct new and better fireworks —without a permit.

A would-be ballerina, daughter Essie, played by Dimitra Govenis, kept the audience howling with her most ungainly leaps and bounds around the family living room. Her likeable but totally unambitious husband, who "made $28.50 last year," was convincingly done by Alex Sekles.

★ ★ ★

Adding to the motley scene was bald Mr. DePinna (well-played by Bob Thompson) who kept things going by posing as a discus thrower in a Roman toga.

TOOK ROLE OF DONALD

Levi Williams was excellent in the role of Donald, the unemployed houseman who disliked standing in line for his relief check because "it breaks up my week." His excellent timing and professional expressions brought laughs throughout the performance.

Adding many of her own laughs was Carolyn Rush as Rheba, the girl who helped around the house by serving enormous boxes of cornflakes on a tray.

Taking this whole situation very casually as though it were the most normal family in the world was philosophical Grandpa, portrayed with experienced finesse by Don North.

PROBLEM DEVELOPED

The problem developed when Alice, the normal member of the family, became engaged to the son of a business tycoon. Bill Kath was fine for the part of the pleasant, wellbred son, and Sherry Everett was excellent as the pretty but exasperated daughter.

Ron Hart gave a fine performance as the stodgy Mr. Kirby, and Judy Levine made the character of Mrs. Kirby come to life as a beminked socialite overcome by the bizarre existence of the Sycamore family.

Sparking several scenes was Judy Lauckner, who did a polished job as the drunken actress who, of course, showed up at the worst time. Charles Williams got laugh after laugh as the exiled Russian ballet teacher, and Al Higgins presented another high spot as Henderson, the income tax collector.

★ ★ ★

Don Lucas, Dick Hathaway and Bob Skinner did justice to the roles of three very comical G-men.

Topping it all off was Judy Baker who played Olga, another exiled Russian of noble birth who was forced to sell baked beans for a living.

With the help of obvious hard work from behind-the-scenes crews, the production was exceptionally smooth.

"The entire performance was one of which all concerned can be justly proud," seemed to reflect the general opinion of the enthusiastic audience.

Don't Give Up Dressing Nicely

The mature woman who gives up all interest in clothes is depriving herself, her family and her friends of the pleasure of seeing her look attractive. This is a country which worships youth and places far too great an emphasis on it. Every age can be attractive.

Granted, it takes more effort as the years come on. Bulges develop here and there, weight creeps up and hair is neither as thick or shining as it used to be. Diet, exercise and faithful hair care are great helps with these lifelong problems.

But so is and outgoing, flexible attitude about clothes: the willingness to try out a new color, a new line, a new shoe design. Think of clothes as being fun to wear and watch your own attitude change.

ANNE FOGARTY

East and West Combine in This Graceful Design

Anne Fogarty might almost be said to be the Marco Polo of the fashion business, for her fascination with the beauties of the Orient predates by many seasons the current trend to the Eastern influences.

★ ★ ★

Holding on to her belief that American women prefer a bodice with a boom, a waistline with definition, and hip-flattering full skirts, she has cleverly translated the Eastern influence into Western ways.

The surplice bodice with its neckline crossing high over the bustline is distinctively Oriental; the horizontally tucked midriff is reminiscent of an obi.

Make it in a flowered print or a paisley—soft cotton, sheer wool or one of the new synthetics; or if you can get your hands on a sari, use it for a glamorous cocktail dress, making sure that the borders edge the surplice and outline the midriff.

Other fabric suggestions include plain or printed silks, shantung, satin, taffeta, brocade.

Teamster for 53 Years, Guards Union Finances

English Shuns Spotlight; 'Job to Do'

By International News Service

Old-timer John F. (Honest John) English, secretary-treasurer of the giant Teamsters' Union, probably feels strange sometimes in his palatial office in Washington, D. C. It is so different from the way things used to be.

The Union's swanky headquarters building, which houses his and other offices, is a far cry from the surroundings that he knew when he joined the Teamsters in 1904 at the age of 15. He was then chauffeur of a two-horse dump cart in Boston.

English has attracted nationwide attention by blocking Teamster President Dave Beck's plan for a million-dollar public relations campaign to answer charges before the Senate Rackets Committee. The charges included misappropriation of $322,000 of union funds.

Actually, English had stood up against Beck many times before. Moreover, as custodian of the Union's financial and other records, he has cooperated with the Senate committee in making such records available on request.

★ ★ ★

Union sources say he has not volunteered or "fed" things to the committee, but has simply extended the same degree of cooperation which the AFL-CIO has pledged.

WON'T TAKE TOP SPOT

English reportedly has no desire to succeed Beck as union president—in fact, will not take the job if offered him. Neither is he seeking the spotlight. His only aim, it is said, is to do his own job well.

A pal of the late Union President Daniel J. Tobin, English was appointed by Tobin as secretary-treasurer in 1946. Tobin said to him: "Here is the job. Go down there and do it." English is still carrying out those instructions.

On one occasion, English made a speech in which he said this of the old days:

"We walked around trying to organize men, and we carried the office in our pocket . . . we knew what it was to be poor and we knew what it was to be hungry. But we felt there was a job to be done."

In his official quarters, there is a sitdown shower. A mistaken impression once went out that this was a special luxury item. It is provided because English has only one leg.

★ ★ ★

Getting out of a shower once during a round-the-clock Union negotiating session that had left him groggy, he stepped on a razor blade, an infection set in and the leg was amputated below the knee.

State Electric Board to Consider Rules

LANSING (AP)—A public hearing on proposed rules and regulations to be enforced by the new State Electrical Administrative Board will be held May 10 at the Stevens T. Mason state office building in Lansing.

The Electrical Administration Act adopted by the 1956 Legislature provides for the licensing of electricians and electrical contractors and the inspection of electrical wiring in cities, villages and townships without similar regulatory ordinances.

Exempted are townships with less than 7,500 population, cities with less than 2,500 and villages with less than 5,000. These communities, however, may vote to come under terms of the act.

The act creating the board provides that new construction and installation of electrical wiring in connection with all buildings shall conform to minimum standards of safety set by the 1953 National Electrical Code.

Marilou McCully Continues Her Mission in Ecuador

A year ago last January, five American Protestant missionaries were attacked and killed by wild Auca Indians in the Ecuadorian area of the Amazonian jungles.

Mrs. T. Edward McCully Jr. whose husband was a member of the ill-fated mission party, returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Hobolth, 362 N. Johnson Ave.

On November 29, with her three small sons, she flew back to Quito, Ecuador to resume missionary work there. Presently she is managing a home for children whose missionary parents are working with Indians in the South American jungles.

The wives of the other four missionaries have been in Ecuador until recently when Mrs. Peter (Olive) Fleming returned to the United States.

Mrs. Nathaniel (Marjorie) Saint is serving in Quito as hostess of the guest house for missionary radio station HCJB, "The Voice of the Andes."

In the Ecuadorian jungles, Mrs. Roger (Barbara) Youderian continues at the outstation of Cangaine among the Jivaro headhunters.

Mrs. James (Elizabeth) Elliott serves today at Shandia, on the headwaters of the Napo River, where the only communication with the outside world is by radio and airplane.

She works alone in Bible translation, teaching and medical work at a government accredited school for boys.

This week Mrs. McCully wrote the following letter to the Pontiac Press church editor:

Dear Mrs. Anglemier:

Greetings from Quito. It's just four months since I arrived back in Ecuador. With 12 children in the house, I find it hard to get everything done that there is to do.

There have been both problems and joys in caring for the children but on the whole I am very happy here and confident that this is the Lord's place for me.

It has been interesting to hear the children's conversation at the table. A favorite topic is what each child wants to be when he grows up.

They were discussing this one day when one spoke up and said he wanted to be Nate Saint and fly the missionary airplane. Another one quickly made fun of this idea by exclaiming "Yeah, and get killed by the Aucas?"

To which my Stevie answered "I wouldn't care if I got killed by the Aucas because I'd just go to Heaven and see Jesus and my daddy."

I continue to be amazed at the simple faith of the children. Stevie still talks about Ed and sometimes feels sorry for himself because he doesn't have a daddy like the others, but he is always comforted when reminded of Heaven.

The five of us girls were together for several days in February. This will likely be the last time for quite awhile. Olive has returned to the states and although it was hard to say goodbye, we are happy that she has peace in her heart and mind that this is the Lord's will for her.

Barbara and Betty have returned to their jungle stations and Marj and I are here in Quito. It has meant so much to me to be living near Marj. She has been a real help during these months of getting settled.

It's been nice taking our children places together, shopping together and talking over our problems and encouragements.

Enclosed is a picture of my large family. The responsibility of so many children often scares me but then I remember that "My help cometh from the Lord who made Heaven and earth."

Sincerely,
Marilou McCully

Trouble Seen for Thief of Out-of-Date Coins

RACINE, Wis. (AP) — Thieves who stole $1,353 from the safe at the Spinning Wheel cafe will have trouble spending $250 of the loot.

Proprietor Charles Presta said the $250 represented old coins and old bills which are out of circulation. He said the collector's items included 50 commemorative half dollars from different states, some of them in odd shapes and sizes.

Vienna Reports Soviet Plans

Red Atomic Missiles on Hungarian Bases

BERLIN (AP) — A West Berlin newspaper says the Soviet Union, which has been warning NATO countries against permitting U. S. atomic weapons bases, plans to build launching sites for its own atomic missiles in Hungary.

The independent newspaper Telegraf, in a dispatch from Vienna, said yesterday the decision to build the bases was made during the recent visit to Moscow by a Hungarian government mission headed by Premier Janos Kadar.

The dispatch said the bases would be built near Papa, Tapolca, Hajmasker and near the uranium mining center of Pecs. All would be in the Hungarian province of Transdanubia (Dunantul), at distances ranging from 37 to 62 miles from the Austrian border. They would be equipped to fire missiles with atomic warheads, the paper said.

The East German radio claimed that West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, during his American visit in May, would sign a secret agreement giving West Germany atomic weapons. The broadcast said the agreement would cover delivery of tactical atomic weapons to the West German army and the "storing of hydrogen bombs" in the Bonn republic.

★ ★ ★

U. S. security regulations bar the government from turning over atomic explosives to other countries. However, the Pentagon has indicated it can let America's allies have weapons capable of firing the warheads at nearby American bases.

The Moscow radio, in a Greek language broadcast last night, added Greece to the number of NATO countries the Russians have warned against becoming bases for atomic weapons. The broadcast said the "United States intends to station atomic formations on Greek soil."

Catholic Priest Reaches Safety

Freed After 6 Years in Red Chinese Prison for Alleged Espionage

HONG KONG (AP) — The Rev. Fulgence Gross, Roman Catholic missionary freed after six years' detention in Red China, says he expects to be dogged by the Communists everywhere he goes.

The 53-year-old priest from Omaha, Neb., arrived last night from Shanghai aboard a British ship. He was freed 10 days ago after completing a sentence for alleged espionage. He served most of his term in a prison, being transferred to house arrest toward the end.

★ ★ ★

He was interviewed by about 40 newsmen. Asked by one whether he had confessed to the espionage charges when he was arrested March 29, 1951, he said:

"I prefer not to answer. I don't trust any of you. Some of you might be Communists. I cannot trust anyone.'

Later, when he was asked if he were guilty of the charges, he said: "Absolutely not. I could not confess to anything I did not do.'

★ ★ ★

Father Gross said he hoped to return soon to the United States and added:

"I will be dogged by their men (Communists) everywhere I go. I fully expect it."

"The Communists are after international communism," he said. "Who knows: America may be next. Let's not kid ourselves."

The priest said it is unlikely that any of the five other Americans in Shanghai will be freed before their sentences are up.

★ ★ ★

"All five are under considerable mental strain," he said. "They but the mental strain is great."

He declined to discuss his treatment in prison except to say it was "rough, that's all.' He said his trial took months.

He said he shopes to resume missionary work in Asia but that "foreign missionaries are finished" in China. He added that his observation was "there is absolutely no freedom of religion there."

Ex-Defense Official Faces House Quiz

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Military Operations subcommittee called former Asst. Secretary of Defense Robert Tripp Ross today for questioning about defense contracts awarded to a family firm.

★ ★ ★

The subcommittee said Ross' wife and her brother, H. D. (Breezy) Wynn, also have agreed to appear at the public hearing. They are officials of companies with which Ross has said he severed all connections several years ago.

★ ★ ★

Ross resigned Feb. 20 after contracts with Wynn clothing manufacturing companies became an issue before the Senate Investigations subcommittee headed by Sen. McClellan (D-Ark).

Wynn firms were reported to have received five million dollars worth of defense contract awards over a period of years until last Jan. 1.

Senate to Probe Unions, Management

Eye Construction Industry

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Rackets Committee soon will open public hearings on alleged collusion between "dishonest management and dishonest unions" in the New York area construction industry.

This word came yesterday from Sen. Mundt (R-SD), a member of the committee which has been concentrating up to now on activities of Teamsters Union officials. The committee is empowered to look into charges of racketeering by both unions and management.

The hearings are in recess while the investigators check into complaints now totaling about 20,000.

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) said Saturday, "The magnitude of this investigation is just beginning to appear."

Mundt told a television panel the hearings on the New York situation will begin soon after Easter and will have "all the facets of melodrama."

The alleged management-union collusion, he said, led to defrauding of veterans buying homes. He did not go into detail, but said "strong arm" methods figured in the situation and that these included acid throwing and "goon squads."

Mundt's reference to acid throwing recalled the blinding of New York labor columnst Victor Riesel in this manner. Riesel had written and broadcast about some unions in the construction industry before he was attacked. But Mundt did not mention Riesel in connection with the forthcoming hearings.

A key figure in the Rackets Committee's probe has been Dave Beck, head of the giant Teamsters Union. Beck refused repeatedly to answer committee questions about his finances. He invoked his Fifth Amendment privilege, contending that if he replied to those questions he might incriminate himself. Beck said he is the subject of an Internal Revenue Service investigation.

Ford Blasts 283 for Masters Title Win

His New-Found Aggressiveness Worth $8,750

Six-Under-Par Final 66 Hottest in Tourney History; Snead 2nd

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Doug Ford learned to swing on a baseball diamond, cultivated a putting touch on a billiard table and turned fighter to become the new Masters Champion and currently golf's most successful money collector.

★ ★ ★

"I didn't think I was aggressive enough, so I changed my grip this year with the idea of getting closer to the pin," the 34-year-old touring pro from Mahopac, N.Y., said today, fingering the $8,750 first prize check of the Masters.

★ ★ ★

The windfall raised Ford's golf winnings for the year to $25,684, well ahead of his competitors.

"I never was one to play it safe," he added. "I guess you'd say I'm a gambler all the way."

Ford's daredevil gambling instinct and his new-found aggressiveness carried him to the greatest finishing round in the Masters history—a 6-under-par 66 — which left favorites gaping.

Doug's total of 283 for four rounds over Augusta National's exacting course was three shots better than that of Sam Snead, the front runner for two days. Jimmy Demaret followed at 287 and Harvie Ward Jr., the brilliant national amateur champion, was another stroke back at 288.

★ ★ ★

Demaret called one hole — the 11th — a "coward's hole," and Snead, Ward and defending champion Jack Burke Jr., who shot 291, all admitted that Augusta National wasn't a course which could be attacked. It had to be "babied."

★ ★ ★

The round-faced, bull-shouldered Ford proved all these theories false as he came from three strokes back in the final round to score a spectacular triumph.

Ford blasted out of a trap and into the cup to nail a birdie 3 on the final hole but he said later the tournament was won for him on the 520-yard, par-five 15th.

★ ★ ★

"My caddy told me I should play it safe but I told him, 'This is the ball game,'" Doug said afterwards. "So I took a spoon and flew it over the pond 40 feet from the flag. I got down in 2 for a birdie 4 and I felt I had it."

Demaret shot a final 70, Snead a 72 and Ward a 73. Australia's Peter Thomson took a 71 for 289 and lame-armed Ed Furgol a 74 for 290. Dow Finsterwald and Arnold Palmer had 291.

Tribe, Reds Win; Still Face Problems

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Kerby Farrell, the Cleveland Indians' rookie manager was indeed caught in a cross-current today.

His club has won nine of its last 10 games including yesterday's 8-7 decision over the New York Giants in Dallas. His pitching staff has been coming around. And this is the first year since he has been training with the Tribe that Rocky Colavito won't require more seasoning.

★ ★ ★

Colavito has hit seven homers this spring, three of them against Giants pitching in yesterday's triumph.

That's the good news.

But "that problem," the one of finding a third baseman to replace the retired Al Rosen still is haunting Farrell.

While Farrell continues his hunt for a third baseman, Manager Birdie Tebbetts of the Cincinnati Redlegs finds himself in his usual plight of trying to get along with plenty of hitting and no pitching.

★ ★ ★

The Redlegs won it, 9-7, on home runs by Don Hoak, Ed Bailey (2), Gus Bell and Frank Robinson. But they had to come from behind. Starter Joe Nuxhall gave up five runs and eight hits before his mates found the fences.

★ ★ ★

Hard-luck Don Zimmer, the Brooklyn Dodgers' infielder and heir-apparent to PeeWee Reese's shortstop job, who already has been beaned twice, was hit on the leg by a batted ball while running the bases in the Brooks' 4-3 loss to the Milwaukee Braves.

He'll be out at least a couple of days. The Braves won the ball game when Frank Torre singled home Bill Bruton in the ninth.

★ ★ ★

Elsewhere, the Detroit Tigers edged the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-4; the New York Yankees turned back the Boston Red Sox, 3-2; the Chicago Cubs toppled the Baltimore Orioles, 8-6; the Pittsburgh Pirates halted the Kansas City A's, 6-4, and the Chicago White Sox and St. Louis split a doubleheader. The Birds won the first, 13-10, and the Pale Hose the nightcap, called after four and a half innings, 2-0.

Richard Rockets 4 Goals in 5-1 Canadien Victory

MONTREAL (AP) — Boston's Bruins, shaken by Maurice Richard's awesome fury, took a nice, peaceful workout today without having to contend with the Montreal Canadiens' old man of the ice.

Richard, going on 36, is the oldest player in the National Hockey League, but he's no sputtering Rocket. He mocked the Bruin's vaunted defense loud and clear in the opening game of the final best-of-7 Stanley Cup series Saturday night, whamming four goals into the Boston net.

★ ★ ★

And with that 5-1 victory safely tucked away, the Montreal Canadiens set out to bag No. 2 tomorrow night, again on their hot home ice.

★ ★ ★

The Rocket's four goals fell one short of his playoff record, set back in 1944 against Toronto. On March 23 of that year he did all the scoring as the Canadiens rapped the Maple Leafs 5-1.

In that game, Richard, barely out of the rookie class, scored three goals in the second period. Last Saturday night—13 years later — he did exactly the same thing.

"I don't think I've seem Richard play a better game,' said Boston Coach Milt Schmidt, who played against the Rocket many a time before retiring in the 1954-55 season.

★ ★ ★

"We made mistakes and I think our players were tired from their train trip, but I'm not trying to take anything away from the Canadiens and the Rocket. This isn't the first time we have trailed in a series. We have been able to come back and we can do it again."

Coach Toe Blake of the Canadiens, who for many years teamed as a player with Richard, said he has "never seen the Rocket go faster."

★ ★ ★

Boston goalie Don Simmons, who said Richard comes in on the goal "with his eyes popping like headlights," termed the Rocket's goal deluge "humilitating.'

"I got a piece of three of his goals—one on my left foot, one on the right foot and one on my chest,' said the 25-year-old Boston rookie.

Head North After Today's Game

Tigers Nose Out Phillies, 5-4

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — The Detroit Tigers pack up to come home tomorrow — still without a pitcher who has gone the distance and smarting from a bunch of one-run whippings that pitching could have saved.

With the American League opener just eight days away, the Tigers wind up their Grapefruit League schedule today against the Philadelphia Phillies.

Whatever happens, manager Jack Tighe's pre-season optimism has been contradicted by an 8-14 spring record. Of the 14 losses, nine have been by one run. Obviously Tighe must season his mound staff on the playing trip up north before the Tigers visit Kansas City April 16 in the league starter.

★ ★ ★

Yesterday's contest—the first half of a home and home exchange with the Phillies—was also decided by one run. This time, the Tigers came out on top, 5-4.

Tighe used his two 20-game winners from last year, Frank Lary and Billy Hoeft, to gain the narrow victory before Jim Bunning almost lost it. The trio of Detroit moundsmen limited the Quakers to five hits.

★ ★ ★

The Tigers went into the ninth with a 5-1 yead. Then Bunning had a wild streak.

He gave up two walks and a wild pitch before Detroit-reared Ted Kazanski larruped a home run for Philadelphia.

Hoeft's four-inning stint was especially pleasing to Skipper Tighe. The Wisconsin lefthander made his first appearance since March 17. He had been sidelined with an ailing shoulder.

★ ★ ★

The southpaw handcuffed the Phils on two hits, while walking two, during his turn on the hill. Lary also issued two hits in a four-inning appearance.

Lary was hit on his left arm in pre-game practice by an errant throw by Steve Gromek, but pitched anyway.

Celts Even Hoop Playoffs

ST. LOUIS (AP)—St. Louis Hawks Coach Alex Hannum said it—"rebounding will tell the story"—and that's just what put the powerful Boston Celtics all even with the Hawks in their National Basketball Assn. title playoff.

The Celtics pulled out a 123-118 victory last night after losing all but one point of an 18-point lead in the face of a big rally by the fired-up Hawks.

Boston is even at 2-2 in the best-of-7 series for a $10,000 prize, but the fact is they hold the edge because the seventh game, if needed, will be played in Boston. The fifth game will be at Boston tomorrow night and the sixth in St. Louis Thursday.

★ ★ ★

The Celtics won the rebound battle last night, 67-50, with 6-10 Olympic star Bill Russell grabbing 20 to 16 for Bob Pettit, the top man for the Hawks.

Clarkston Man Leads Qualifying

261 Qualifiers Roll in Opening of Bowlerama

Qualifying to Continue at Three Alleys Next Saturday

By CHUCK ABAIR

The 1st Pontiac Press Bowlerama got off to a roaring start over the past weekend with several outstanding scores posted during the 1st round of qualifying.

Howard Compton of Clarkston, Lee Miller of Waterford Township and Pontiac's Frank Pavlinac were the leaders among the 261 qualifiers Saturday and Sunday.

Another 229 keglers, including 107 women, will swing into action Saturday to determine the participants for the April 20 finals. The top 10 per cent of the qualifiers at each location will be eligible for the finals.

Compton, who bowls in the South Shores Sunday Mixed League at Walled Lake, posted the outstanding series of the two-day session with a 694 at Dixie Recreation. He rolled a 580 actual to go with a 114 handicap.

Pavlinac hit 683 with a 584 total and 99 handicap to pace the field at Land-O-Lakes. Miller was the standout at Auburn Lanes rolling the best actual series of 615 and topping them all with 687 in handicap.

★ ★ ★

The leading 2nd place showing of the weekend was posted by L. Smith at Dixie. He matched Pavlinac's total of 683 and fired the best actual series of the tournament thus far with a 635.

Bob Pickett ranked runnerup at Land-O-Lakes with 680, while Charles Lemke trailed Miller at Auburn with 642. Ron Rothbarth finished 15th at Land-O-Lakes but had the best actual series of 593 at the Waterford alley. All three are Pontiac residents.

There were a host of other impressive 600 series rolled at the three qualifying places with several more expected this week as some of the best in the area shoot for a chance at the finals.

Despite the impressive opening weekend scores, the leaders could very likely be changed considerably by next Monday. Final qualifiers will not be decided until all bowling is completed.

At least 13 at each qualifying house are expected to advance to the men's finals with Compton, Pavlinac and Miller the leaders in race for the Press trophies as the top qualifiers.

Women will be bowling for the same honors at all three locations on the final qualifying day. Approximately 11 women will be eligible for the championship battle.

The men's champion will receive $400 and a handsome desk calendar set and the women's victor will take home $200 in cash and a desk set. Ten other handsome prizes are guaranteed in each division.

Hanley Behind Breen

State Swimmers Do Well

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Swimmers from Michigan—though winning no championships —were in the forefront as the AAU indoor tournament closed over the weekend.

Dick Hanley of the University of Michigan, entered unattached, was second high individual point winner of the four-day meet. Hanley scored 17 points—second to George Breen of the Buffalo, N.Y., athletic club. Breen totaled 19 points.

Hanley finished second to Breen in the 440-yard free style as the New Yorker successfully defended his title in the event and cinched the meet medal for high point honors.

Paul Reinke of Michigan State, also competing unattached, was second to Olympic star Manuel Sanguily of Havana in the 100-yard breast stroke as the meet concluded.

Dupas Tilt Has Fans Guessing

Question in Tonight's Scrap Is How Fighter Weathered Charges

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Ralph Dupas, sixth-ranked lightweight boxing contender, takes on No. 6 welterweight Vince Martinez tonight in a bout that has fight fans guessing.

Dupas, a 21-year-old New Orleans veteran of 77 fights, is a fancy-moving boxer with speed to spare, while Martinez, 27-year-old Paterson, N. J., counterpuncher, has more steam in his blows.

★ ★ ★

The big question mark is how well Dupas weathered accusations last week that he was a Negro and as such barred by state law from meeting Martinez, a white fighter. The Louisiana State Athletic Commission decided after two session of hearings that there was no evidence to warrant calling off the fight. It also held, in effect, that there was no substance to claims that Dupas was a Negro.

★ ★ ★

Promoter Heard Ragas said he expected 10,000 fans and a $50,000 gate for the bout at Pelican Stadium.

Rochester Bows Out in YMCA Tournament

The Rochester Falcons, representing the Pontiac district, were eliminated in the semifinals of the state YMCA basketball tournament over the weekend.

Rochester held a 22-19 halftime lead but could not match a taller Grand Rapids contingent the rest of the way in bowing 63-50. Gordon Montross paced the locals with 19 and Bruce Ross had 18.

Idaho Punchers Win 7 Titles, Team Honor

POCATELLO, Idaho (AP) — The Idaho State College boxing team this past weekend completed the most successful season ever compiled by collegiate punchers.

The Bengals swept seven individual championships in the NCAA tournament which ended here Saturday night. And they compiled 59 points in winning the team title.

Cranes End Tour on Winning Note

Cranbrook's baseball team wound up its southern tour on a winning note Saturday with a 4-2 victory over Mercersburg Academy at Mercersburg, Pa. It was Cranbrook's lone triumph in seven games.

A four-run outburst on only one hit in the 6th inning turned the trick for the Cranes. Three walks, an error, a squeeze bunt, a wild pitch and Dave Campbell's infield single did the damage.

Campbell, the last of three Crane hurlers, was credited with the win. He also made two of Cranbrook's three hits. Bill Surener was the losing pitcher.

Ford's 66 Foils Strategy

Calculations Wrong — Snead 2nd in Masters

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Sam Snead lost his bid for a record fourth Masters golf title to the golfer Snead says is the best in the business around the greens — poker-faced Doug Ford.

Snead, like Jimmy Demaret a three-time Masters winner, finished second in the 21st staging of the prestige and money rich Masters yesterday, and he couldn't have won even if he'd shot the kind of golf in the final round he thought would win it.

"I thought a 70 would win it for me," the drawling West Virginia slammer said after it was all over and Ford had whisked in and pocketed the $8,750 first prize check.

"And I thought I could shoot a 70 because there weren't any of the par-five holes out there that I couldn't reach in two shots," Sam continued.

But Sam was wrong in his calculations. A 70 would have given him 284 for the 72 holes in this richest — $53,000 — of all Masters Ford, playing aggressive, accurate golf, whipped par by six stroke with a 66 for a 283 total—one shot under the goal Snead was seeking.

Snead, who began to gamble in an effort to hold off Ford's threat ran into trouble on the back nine and finished with a 72 and 286, good for second place and $4,375.

Sam was surprisingly affable for a fellow who had led the tournament two days and was a solid choice to pick up his fourth Masters title.

"Man, after I got that birdie on No. 7 and my par at No. 8 to stay one under par, I thought the cake was mine," Snead allowed. "I was real relaxed and thought all I had to do was finish," he said, stuffing a golf shoe into a bag, "and I'm still relaxed."

Announce Work at Niagara Falls

International Group Plans to Keep Beauty, Develop More Power

WASHINGTON (AP) — The International Joint Commission has announced remedial works at Niagara Falls, designed to preserve their beauty and permit generation of more electricity, will be completed in two or three months.

★ ★ ★

Completion will be marked by an international ceremony at the Falls in September, the commission said yesterday in summarizing its four-day semiannual meeting here. The commission deals with problems involving waters which flow across the Canada-U. S. boundary.

It said the final cost of the works, undertaken to halt erosion at the crest of the falls, will be "substantially less" than the original estimate of $17,000,000.

Field operations in the commission's investigation of the international tidal power potential of Passamaquoddy Bay, on the Maine-New Brunswick border, will begin "in earnest" in a few days and the commission itself will visit the area in June.

★ ★ ★

The technical advisory board on air pollution reported continued improvement in the smoke abatement program in the Windsor-Detroit area. The commission authorized continuation of voluntary control for the abatement of vessel smoke on the Detroit River for the 1957 navigation season.

New Red Cross Course

BATTLE CREEK (AP) — Revision of the American National Red Cross Home Nursing Course to include Civil Defense training has been announced by Federal Civil Defense Administration headquarters. FCDA said the course aims to build up a corps of nursing assistants to aid doctors and regular nurses in the event of a natural disaster or enemy attack.

Tickles Locks Open

GENOA, Italy (AP) — A thief arrested here showed police something new to them: A master key made of nylon bristles fixed to a thin metal rod. It'll tickle open almost any lock, they said after tests.

Suddenly It's Springtime in the Big City

New Yorkers Become Daffy in April

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — Spring begins to make itself felt in New York City along about Jan. 15 (you're just boarding a plane for Florida and, suddenly, the sun), but it isn't until now that everything goes crazy.

★ ★ ★

April is a season of rare delight for the wacky, and—ask anybody from Iowa—New Yorkers are the wackiest.

The crocus does not slip its perky yellow head above the earth, because we don't have much earth to allot the crocil. The robin rarely flies into New York from the South, preferring to express directly over to Boston.

It is scarcely feasible, either, for New Yorkers to observe that other certain sign of a-cumin' summer, barefoot boys sponging through the grass toward a fishing hole. (We keep our boys in shoes till it's really hot, lest they stub their little toes on a building.)

★ ★ ★

Anyway, New Yorkers have a sixth sense about spring that is surely keener than the senses of more sensible people. Comes the first good shot of sunlight, and a run of two or more hours' balmy breezes, they take to the sidewalks, dazedly aloof to robins or jobs.

NEEDS NO CALENDAR

Like the natives of primitive cultures who eat when they're hungry and sleep when they're weary, the New Yorker needs no pendulum or calendar to tell him the time for dreaming and goofing-off hath come.

★ ★ ★

The perfumed urge has wafted in through the 3 feet of concrete around his office and it has been irresistible.

Just look, on an April day, down the broad expanse of Third avenue. In March it was a busy street; now it dawdles.

Children are spread out haphazardly on the stoops of the delicatessens and saloons that have stoops. Lovers, the young ones, are dangled over refuse cans, conversing with adoring eyes as she idly pushes the "in" door and he gently stabs at the "out."

★ ★ ★

A middle-aged woman, unaccompanied except by an ice cream cone, looks in antique shop windows.

VIVID FLOWERS

Elderly men sell vivid flowers from wagons drawn by horses that suddenly have bows or rosettes on their manes. Teenage boys stand in clumps and in shirt sleeves (it's not that warm, but New York boys are manly) on street corners.

★ ★ ★

They do not only whistle at girls, they quietly discuss things among themselves. Possibly love, probably baseball, it's nobody's business anyway.

On the side of the street where there is shade, almost no one passes. The sunny side bulges with people and pigeons, the pigeons looking much more alert as they waddle with finesse past the feet of the oblivious.

It is a wonderful, zephyry day, the kind on which every lucky New Yorker will dig himself up a bunch of dafodils, a girl, an ice cream bar, or, at the very least, a lot of greenery dreams.

A week or so from now there will be complaints about the weather, for it is not normal for the New Yorker to be placid for long. Too much to do, too many competitors to beat. But everybody must rest now and then, and establish his place in the sun.

★ ★ ★

April is the time.

State Unemployment Up 6,000 March 15

DETROIT (AP) — Unemployment increased by 6,000 in Michigan between Feb. 15 and March 15, the Michigan Employment Security Commission has reported. Detroit's share of the increase was 3,000 and it brought to 6.3 the percentage of the city's work force that was idle.

Total Michigan unemployment March 15 was reported as 175,000 or 6 per cent of the work force. Statewide employment totaled 2,600,000, of which 1,423,000 were working in Detroit. The total unemployed in Detroit was figured as 96,000.

Unemployment compensation paid out in March totaled $9,500,000, and 31,530 new applications for benefits were filed.

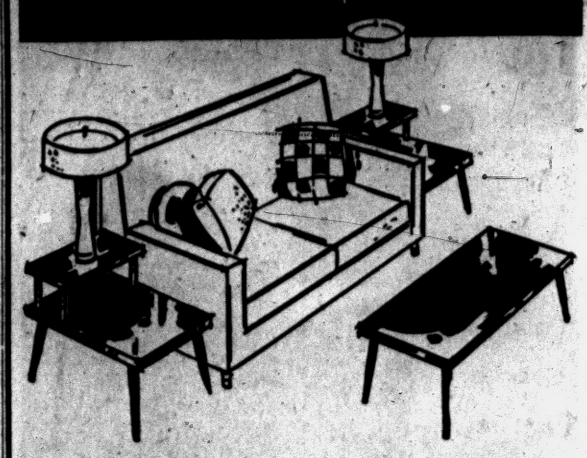

Man Refuses Pay Hike

SAGINAW (AP) — Thomas Township clerk Elmer Rusch was offered a $500 raise to boost his salary to $1,500 a year but said he only wanted $200. Explaining that he didn't feel he deserved the full increase, Rusch told the township board he sometimes had help from others with his clerical work.

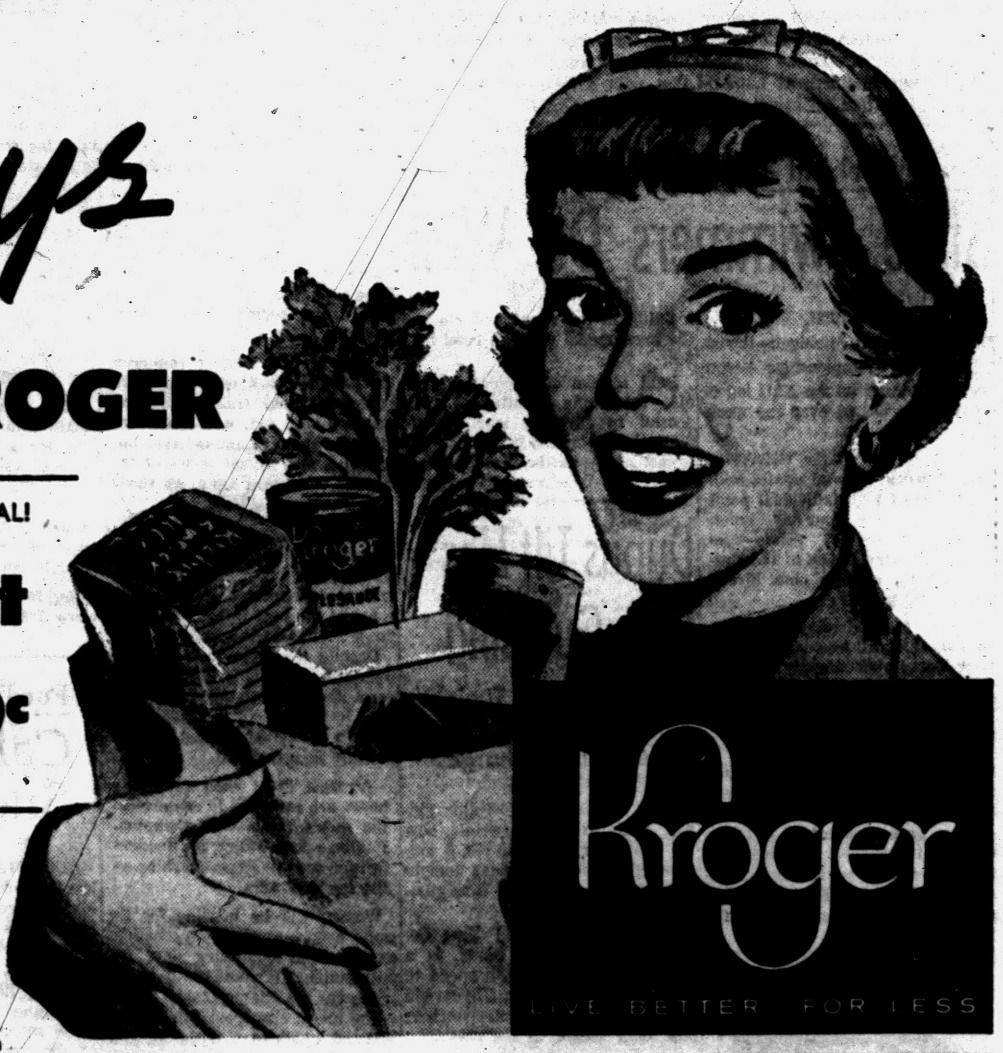

All but one per cent of India's district towns now have telegraph facilities, the Posts and Telegraphs Department announced in New Delhi.

Pan-American Tour Represents 19 Lands

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Nineteen diplomats of the Americas swung today into a "good will" tour of California.

★ ★ ★

The nineteen, including 16 ambassadors, are their countries' representatives in the Council of the Organization of American States, a sort of hemispheric United Nations.

They hope their Pan-American Week tour of California will further inter-American understanding and call greater attention to their organization.

A plane carrying 14 of the diplomats from Washington to San Francisco developed motor trouble over Nebraska yesterday and put down on snow-draped Stapleton Field in Denver.

'10 North Frederick' Film May Team Tracy, Katie

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Now that Spencer Tracy is set for "10 North Frederick" at 20th, watch for Katharine Hepburn to again be his co-star.

Spence and Katie just finished "Desk Set" at the same studio and nothing would please producer Charles Brackett nad boss Buddy Adler more than to team them again in the John O'Hara best seller.

It certainly would be a case of the right stars getting together with the right story.

Spencer is perfect for the role of the well-born man who secretly has ambitions to become the president of the United States and Katharine would be equally fine as his wife.

So eager is Buddy Adler to get this rolling that he would like to put Philip Dunne's script into production right away. But first, Tracy has some clean-up work on "The Old Man and the Sea."

Many people think that Darryl Zanuck has hold of a hot potato in "Compulsion." Meyer Levin's best seller based on the shocking Leopold and Loeb case. But hot or not, Darryl thinks he has a star in the making in putting new actor, Bob Evans, in either the Leopold or Loeb role.

Darryl is so high on this young man, who was a business executive this time last year, that he has put him under personal contract and given him the role of the bullfighter in "The Sun Also Rises."

This experience, in addition to his debut playing Irving Thalberg in "Man With 1,000 Faces," should bring young Evans up to the point of handling a featured role.

NOT A BABY DOLL

The rumor comes straight that Carroll Baker is not being a baby doll at all about playing the Diana Barrymore role in "Too Much, Too Soon" and is refusing to do the lurid story which might better have been left untold.

There are many people who won't blame Carroll for her stand. Now, if she had only been as firm about not doing the equally lurid "Baby Doll!"

If she does step out, there's talk that Natalie Wood is in line for the Diana role. But Natalie still hasn't given up hope something will happen to give her "Marjorie Morningstar," the ambition of her life right now.

Although my friend Alfred Hitchcock left Cedars of Lebanon Hospital over the weekend and is rid of yellow jaundice, I hear he may only produce and not direct "From Amongst the Dead." His doctors want Hitchy to take it easier for awhile and he should listen to them.

He still hasn't been told that Vera Miles can't play the lead because she's expecting a baby.

With this added job of finding a new leading lady and other problems which always beset a picture just going into production, it would be wise indeed if the popular little rotund director confined his activities to supervising.

ROMANCE CALLED OFF

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Virginia Grey has called off her romance with Andy McLaglen. She is up to replace Ann Sothern in "Private Secretary"—and she'd be good.

Thanks, Bob Hope, for mentioning me on your TV show. It gave me quite a chuckle.

Helene and Red Buttons, married eight years, are going to adopt a baby and are adding a nursery to their Beverly-Comstock apartment. Sometimes after an adoption a couple has a child of their own — so here's hoping.

Kitty LeRoy tells me that Jack Benny is practicing on his fiddle four hours daily to knock us cold at his symphonic concert at the Philharmonic on April 23 for the Cedars of Lebanon Hospital Fund for Free Beds. The ticket sales committee is aiming for $100,000.

Oil Jobbers to Attend Grand Rapids Meeting

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—About 400 oil jobbers of the state are expected to attend the 23rd annual convention of the Michigan Petroleum Assn. here tomorrow and Wednesday.

Opponents of the hotly contested congressional bill, identified as 811, plan to give it general discussion at the opening session. The bill is an amendment to the Robinson-Patman Act, which would require manufacturers and distributors of gasoline, appliances and similar merchandise to sell their products to all their retailers at the same price.

Last Holdout Yields

Most Stocks Nudge Higher

NEW YORK (AP) — Aircrafts rose in an irregular stock market early today.

Key stocks made gains of fractions to around a point. There was a wide assortment of fractional losers.

Trading fell off to a moderate pace after an active and slightly higher opening.

Wall Street analysts saw nothing in the weekend news to encourage great trading interest. But encouraging factors were a slowing in the decline for steel orders and a brighter outlook for employment, according to Commerce Secretary Weeks.

Douglas Aircraft, Boeing and Glenn L. Martin were all up around a point or more as aircrafts were in fairly active demand.

Some gains were posted by motors and oils, too, but in these divisions trading was not so brisk. General Motors, Chrysler and Studebaker-Packard were all steady to a bit higher. Ford eased.

Rose-Scented Stink

DETROIT (AP) — The aroma of roses may soon filter through Detroit buses. A fragrant formula devised by technicians of General Motors blends a deodorant with the unpleasant exhaust fumes which find their way into the bus cabin.

Italian Somalia is expected to depict its new coat of arms on a five-value stamp issue to be made in Mogadiscio, the capital.

Grain Futures Remain Firm

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain futures were fairly firm in most cases in early board of trade dealings today but price changes generally were small.

Corn and oats showed more strength than other grains. Buying in corn was attracted by the fact that for the second successive day there were no corn bids from exporters. Poor planting weather caused some strength in oats.

Near the end of the first hour wheat was ⅛ higher to ⅜ lower, May $2.23⅝, corn was unchanged to ⅜ higher, May $1.28⅞, oats were ⅛ to ¾ higher, May 71⅝, rye was ¼ to ¾ lower, May $1.28¾, soybeans were ¼ higher to ⅛ lower, May $2.44¾, and lard was 2 to 10 cents a hundred pounds higher, May $14.77.

Merchants Warned About Coupon Books

The Business Ethics Board of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce has issued a warning to merchants regarding promotional coupon books.

The board warned that merchants "should be careful to examine the offer of promoters before entering into any agreement."

William L. Belaney, assistant Chamber manager stressed that coupon books are not illegal but in some cases have been known to force smaller firms out of business or to retract offers.

Coupon books are a promotional idea reportedly to bring merchants, especially those dealing in services more customers by promising free merchandise or service to purchasers of the books.

"The trouble with the idea is that the promoters receive all the money by selling the books to persons, and the merchants receive little if any increased business," Belaney said.

★ ★ ★

He said this was substantiated by the National Better Business Bureau which reported that "merchants who have participated in previous plans report free service or free merchandise offers do not actually have the effect of increasing their business or bringing them new customers."

★ ★ ★

The bureau said it "doesn't appear to be wise to try to secure permanent new business from people who are seeking something for nothing."

School Boards Given Praise

State Educators Cited for Realistic Approach to Teachers' Pay

Michigan School boards have received praise for "More realistic" approach to the problem of teachers' salaries from the president of the American Federation of Teachers.

Carl J. Megel, of Chicago, addressing the federation's annual spring conference in Pontiac, Saturday, added a complete solution of the problem is "still a long way off."

Megel pointed out as one major difficulty the wide differences in the number of years it takes Michigan teachers to reach maximum salaries. He also cited the need for improved sick leave and retirement pay.

A single salary schedule starting at $5,000 and increasing to $10,000 in 10 years or less for teachers with bachelor degrees, Megel said, will be required generally to end the growing teacher shortage.

The average American Teacher makes only about $4,128, he added, while the income of nearly all other professions requiring comparable education is twice as much.

Megel said, too, lack of modern school financing in Michigan, as in other states, is resulting in "irreparable harm."

$1,000,000 Vote Due at Oak Park

April 15 Election Will Determine School Bond Issue

OAK PARK — Residents here will go to the polls April 15 to vote on a $1,000,000 bond issue for school buildings.

This will be the seventh time in seven years that residents have been asked for school building money.

Approval of a boost tax of an additional $1,000 assessed valuation will be up for balloting some time in June, said superintendent of schools, James N. Pepper.

The new bond issue will pay a 1953 debt, clearing the way legally for a millage increase, start construction on a new elementary school at North End and Park Lawn, and for salaries for some 55 teachers needed next term.

At 105,000,000 tons, the world's merchant fleet is largest in history, Paris learns.

Wiggles Won't Waggle With Waggles AWOL

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Wiggles isn't waggling any more because Waggles, a rare bird indeed, has wiggled away.

The point of the story is that an exotic bird named Waggles, a $600 Queen of Bavaria Conure or golden parrot, flew the coop last night. Wiggles, his mate, was left by herself on the perch atop the garage.

Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Hall said Waggles was last seen winging his way east. Mrs. Hall said that she would appreciate it if anyone finding Waggles would promptly wriggle over to the Hall household so Wiggles, now quite droopy, can waggle back into shape.

2 Costly Fires Hit State Hospital Here

Fires in two Pontiac State Hospital buildings totaled $4,000 in damages over the weekend, although no one was reported injured.

The first fire originated in the central warehouse about 6:15 p.m. Saturday, firemen report.

The second fire, on Sunday was in the employes' lounge, located in the basement of the administration building. Firemen attributed this $2,000 fire to a careless smoker.

The fire started in a couch, which was destroyed. Walls, ceiling and other furniture were damaged by smoke.

Smoking Causes Fire in Home; $4,000 Damage

3 Hungarians Sentenced to Die

Convicted in Conspiracy to Kill Suspected Secret Policeman

BUDAPEST (AP) — A Communist woman judge today handed down three death sentences — one against a 25-year-old woman medical student — in the first big Hungarian show trial growing out of the anti-Russian revolt.

Judge Matilde Toth sentenced eight other defendants to prison terms ranging from 6 months to 10 years.

★ ★ ★

The woman defendant, Gizella Ilona Toth, who presumably is not related to the judge, paled when she heard her death sentence. She was expected to appeal to the Presidential Council. She had confessed to injecting gasoline into the neck of a suspected secret policeman at the hospital where she worked.

★ ★ ★

More than 400 spectators crowded the big courtroom for the sentencing. They heard the verdicts quietly after Judge Toth warned that the room would be cleared at the first sign of any demonstration.

Sentenced to death with Miss Toth were Miklos Gyoengyoesi, 28, and Ferenz Goenczi, 26. They admitted helping to kill the suspected policeman.

Air Force Kept in Air by 'Cavalry' Straggler

DALLAS (AP) — A shaggy, black and white pony proved yesterday the cavalry can still gum up the Air Force.

★ ★ ★

The white-stocking steed cavorted across the flight line at Hensley Field while the Texas Air National Guard was flying practice alert missions.

★ ★ ★

The tower held traffic of the field and called air police.

"We ran him all over the place and clocked him at 40 miles an hour before catching him," grinned A.1.C. Hubert Legg after the long chase.

Stops Housebreakers by Chopping Down Tree

EXETER, R. I. — Henry E. Brown, a rural mail carrier, has come up with a novel way of trapping suspected juvenile housebreakers.

He chopped down a tree behind their getaway car on a dead-end dirt road after calling Police Saturday.

Police nabbed the two youths when they were stymied by the fallen tree.

Owners Do 53 Per Cent of House Painting Jobs

ST. LOUIS — Recent polls indicate the trend toward do-it-yourself house painting is greatest in those areas that have seen marked increases in homeownership.

The polls show that 53 per cent of the house-painting projects are being done by the owners compared with only 19 per cent in 1941.

Chemical Sales Zoom

WILMINGTON, Del. — Chemical-industry sales in the United States for 1956 are estimated at more than 24 billion dollars — an all-time record and 4 per cent above the previous year. In terms of dollar value the industry's sales have expanded more than fivefold since 1939.

After Visit Here, Ava Will Return to Spain

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Ava Garner's 12-hour-visit while her takeoff for Mexico was delayed was one of her most hectic stops anywhere. After being up 26 hours, she understandably ducked photographers, aided by dark glasses. While here she didn't mention Walter Chiari or her (still) husband Frank Sinatra, although she will visit Hollywood in a few weeks—to pick up some of her belongings to take back to Spain.

Turkish Shaveheads Suffer for Yul

ANKARA (AP)—Two young Turkish admirers of actor Yul Brynner today nursed bumps on their freshly shaved heads today.

Police said the two who shaved their pates in imitation of the bald star were set upon by a group of nonadmirers.

Police broke up the encounter.

3,000 Dentists in Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — Dentists are gathering in Detroit today for the three-day annual meeting of the Michigan State Dental Assn. More than 3,000 are expected to attend the session's post-graduate clinics and study programs.

About 84 per cent of the farms in the U. S. maintain chicken flocks.

Dancer Signed to Please Girls

Producers Afraid That Women Would Object to Undiluted Sports

By CHARLES DENTON

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Genial Gene Kelly's assignment on NBC's Satruday baseball spectacular might be called something for "les girls."

★ ★ ★

The producers of the salute to the national pastime harbor a gnawing fear that it could come out so strongly slanted toward aficionados, what with film clips of memorable diamond action and all, that distaff viewers might rebel.

Hence Mr. Kelly, owner of one of the most talented teams of toes in show business, was signed on as an emcee in the hope that his easy grin can prevent the ladies from overriding husbandly vetoes and switching to old movies.

"They asked me to do it, and it took me about three seconds to jump into their laps," Kelly admitted during a breather in rehearsals at MGM for his next feature flicker, "Les Girls."

★ ★ ★

"The fear is that women might turn the show off and go back to Laura LaPlante, or whoever else happens to be on. The problem is to make it entertaining. We don't want to present baseball for baseball fans only.

SOME VARIETY

"I won't do any dancing," he hastened to note. "There isn't time to get ready. But we'll have some variety turns in the show to keep it from being too much baseball. I'll be master of ceremonies and try to hold it all together."

★ ★ ★

For those who might think putting Kelly at the top of the show's roster is a bit of off-beat casting, we should point out that he played a mean third base in high school and later starred on a movietown softball team.

"They wanted a movie 'name' who was a baseball fan," Kelly shrugged. "I don't know if I'm a movie 'name,' but I sure am a baseball fan.

"Unfortunately," he added miserably, "I'm from Pittsburgh."

New Jet Interceptor Finishes First Test

ST. LOUIS (AP) — McDonnell Aircraft Corp. has announced development of a new supersonic jet interceptor, the F-101B Voodoo.

The plane, understood to have a speed in excess of 1,100 miles an hour, completed its first test flight March 27 at Municipal Airport here, the company said.

The craft is a two-man version of McDonnell's single seater Voodoo. The second space is for a radar observer.

Eye Treatment for A-Victims

Doctors Try to Cure Blood Disease by Using Transplanted Marrow

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Reporter

BOSTON (AP) — High hopes and stakes are riding on a new "blood factory transfusion" approach to trying to combat one of the worst hazards of atomic warfare, a nationally known blood specialist says.

★ ★ ★

Saying that serious blood diseases, including leukemia, can result from overexposure to atomic radiation, Dr. William Dameshek declared that the new still-experimental technique envisions transplanting bone marrow — nature's "blood-building factory"—from a healthy person into one affected by radiation.

★ ★ ★

Declaring that "moderately successful" results already have been obtained in animals with the new technique, the scientist said, "We are now using similar tests on selected patients in cooperation with the Atomic Energy Commission and others."

★ ★ ★

If it produces hoped-for results, he said, the method would provide an effective treatment for survivors at the "periphery" of an H-bomb or A-bomb blast.

"But even more important to our day-to-day living," he added, "we (could) perhaps look forward to cures for such ailments as the various kinds of severe anemia or even leukemia, the most deadly (blood) disease of all." He indicated that he was talking here of such blood ailments when caused by reasons other than radiation.

★ ★ ★

Dameshek, chief hematologist of the New England Medical Center, made the statements last night in accepting an award from the Massachusetts Jewish War Veterans for "outstanding service to humanity."

Clerk Increases Winnings on TV to $152,000

NEW YORK (AP) — Theodore Nadler, a $70-a-week clerk from St. Louis, became the top money winner on a single television quiz show last night when he boosted his total take to $152,000.

Nadler successfully withstood a challenge by Mrs. Lowell Thomas Jr. on the CBS-TV show The $64,000 Challenge. He added another $32,000 to the fortune he first started piling up on the program last August.

★ ★ ★

Nadler correctly gave:

1. The names of five African countries lying on the Equator — Belgian Congo, French Equatorial Africa, Kenya, Italian Somaliland, Uganda.

★ ★ ★

2. The names of three South American countries on the Equator — Brazil, Colombia and Ecuador.

3. The names of four Indonesian republic islands larger than 5,000 square miles and lying on the Equator—Sumatra, Borneo, Celebes, Halmahera.

4. Name of the country or island where the Equator crosses each of these four rivers — the Caqueta (Colombia), the Lualaba (Belgian Congo), the Kapuas (Borneo) and the Guiba (Italian Somaliland).

Japan Reports Fall of Radioactive Rain

TOKYO (AP)—Record radioactive rain this weekend was reported today from Fukuoka, northern Kyushu.

★ ★ ★

The Central Meteorological Agency said its Fukuoka weather bureau recorded 220,000 clicks per liter (33.8 ounces) per minute on a Japanese gauge.

The previous record of 130,000 also was clocked in Fukuoka, last Dec. 20.

★ ★ ★

The official said that hot rain may have been caused by a nuclear test but did not say whose test it might have been. The British Defense Ministry last week reported that Russia set off a nuclear explosion April 3.

TV Star Meets Schedule Snafu Over Marriage

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — The star of television's I Married Joan is having a bit of difficulty tying the marital knot.

Comedienne Joan Davis, 45, said yesterday that she and Budd Stock 29, a safety engineer, plan to be married "very soon."

★ ★ ★

She added that the ceremony would have taken place in Yuma, Ariz., last week except that after arriving there the couple found that the law requires a three-day waiting period.

★ ★ ★

So they returned to Palm Springs, where both have been living, and scheduled the wedding for last weekend. But then, she said, the results of their blood tests — required in California — failed to come through the mail.

Miss Davis and Si Wills were divorced more than ten years ago. Stock is a bachelor.

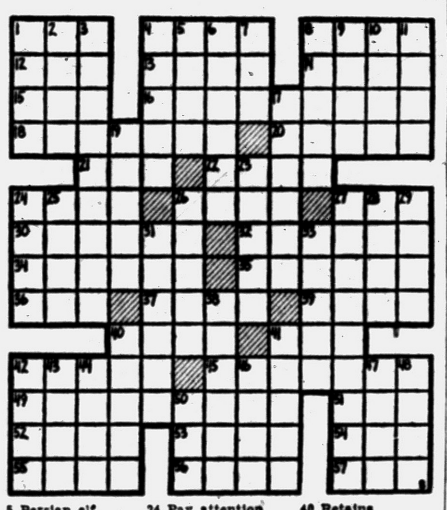

Dairy Product Booming

NEW YORK — One of the phenomena of the food industry is the tremendous growth in the past 10 years of soft-serve frozen dairy products. Some 10,000 stores now dispense $400,000,000 worth of these products annually.

Straits Bridge Cost Includes Many Factors

ST. IGNACE (AP)—Just what is the Mackinac Straits Bridge going to cost?

That all depends upon how one figures it. It will cost either $80,074,250, $99,800,000 or $212,449,837.

Most now round off the cost at 100 million dollars—which represents construction, real estate, interest, administration and preliminary costs to the driving of the last rivet between Michigan's two peninsulas.

But no tax monies are going into its construction or toward payment of the bonds issued to build it. The state, however, is committed to an outlay of $417,000 a year for maintenance, operation and repairs.

★ ★ ★

The Mackinac Bridge Authority, a public agency created by the legislature issued $79,800,000 in 4 per cent bonds, plus another 20 million dollars worth of 5¼ per cent bonds, or a total of $99,800,000 in 1953.

Of the total, $80,074,250 goes into construction, acquisition of land, administration and preliminary expenses.

The remainder of the $99,800,000 goes into bond interest, which will total $18,558,750 by July 1, 1958—some eight months after the gigantic span is opened to traffic next Nov. 1. In selling its bonds, the Authority discounted them $3,942,000.

Interest costs on the bonds amounts to around $4,242,000 a year, or almost $12,000 a day. No principal is scheduled to be paid until 1964, when $260,000 will fall due.

So if the bonds were to run their full 40 years, total cost of the bridge would be $212,449,837—not 80 million nor 100 million dollars.

But Prentiss M. Brown, authority chairman, says "nobody expects it to take that long" for the bridge to pay out.

Only tolls are pledged to payment of bonds or interest.

While the state's annual allocation of $417,000 would amount of $16,800,000 over a 40-year span, it can sell or move elsewhere a fleet of five ferries which cost $6,684,029 and which require an outlay of $140,000 a year for maintenance.

The last one acquired, the Vacationland, cost $4,800,000 in 1952. The first of the five still in use, the Straits of Mackinac, cost $367,587 in 1928.

Cost of others: The City of Cheboygan, $302,386 in 1937; City of Munising, $432,488 in 1938, and the City of Petoskey, $781,568 in 1940.

The 1956 ferry payroll was $2,431,000. The ferries employed 471 persons last September, when a two-week payroll amounted to $110,000. A low of 232 was employed last month when a two-week payroll amounted to $50,392.

The authority expects to employ 40 to 60 persons on the bridge, depending upon the season, but has not yet adopted a salary schedule or wage budget.

Against a 1956 total payroll of $2,431,000 and maintenance costs of $140,000, the ferries took in a gross of $3,331,142, hauling a total of 890,671 vehicles.

Traffic engineers for the Mackinac Bridge Authority figure 234,000 vehicles will use the bridge in the two months it is scheduled to be open this year.

★ ★ ★

The Authority's traffic experts figured that 1,927,000 would use the bridge in 1958, compared with the 890,671 which actually used the ferries last year. On an average $3.08 toll, they figured this would gross $5,935,000.

By 1993—40 years from the 1953 issuance of bonds—they figured 5,423,000 vehicles would be zooming across the Bridge annually and paying $16,703,000 at a $3.08 average toll.

Drill Instructor Does More Than Teach Drill

Marine Leaders Need Psychology

(This is the second of two articles on the approaching anniversary of the Parris Island "Death March" by a reporter who covered the court-martial of former staff sgt. Matthew McKeon.)

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN

NEW YORK (INS)—The man who defended Marine Sergeant Matthew McKeon suggested today that it might be a good idea if Marine drill instructors were given lessons in applied psychology.

Attorney Emile Zola Berman, in an interview in his New York office, declared:

"A D. I.'s job requires more than merely teaching a recruit to march and to be physically fit."

Berman speaks with deep knowledge of Marine corps training methods, knowledge which he gained in preparing his brilliant defense of McKeon at last summer's court martial at Parris Island, S. C.

★ ★ ★

Berman pointed out that many of the D. I.'s, whose duty it is to train teen-age recruits, "are fine young men, dedicated Marines and devoted to the corps." They have a difficult and complicated job.

Yet, Berman said, he believes there is "some weakness" in the special instructions drill instructors receive "in dealing with the problems involved when a platoon is either laggard or extremely slow to accept Marine Corps training methods."

Berman went on:

"What I am saying is this: A drill instructor is in effect a teacher. He's got more to do than see that recruits are physically fit and learn to march. He is required to deal with all kinds of psychological matters that rise with a recruit, or many recruits, in a platoon.

"These problems have to do with the response of the recruit to discipline as well as to the development of an esprit de corps—both of which are essential to the Marine Corps training program."

"They (the D. I.'s) are thrown on their own native abilities. They are Marine Corps-trained soldiers, not psychologists or teachers.

"So what you are left with is a drill instructor, fortified by his own experience as a Marine. No one has told this D. I. what to do. He has no training in applied psychology."

My feeling is that the drill instructors' school engages attention in military matters but very little in teaching young men—their responsibilities, how to live together, the meaning and significance of the Marine Corps service and their sense of pride in the Marine Corps."

In commenting on McKeon, who is now a private at Camp Lejeune, N. C., Berman said he is "the best known and probably the best private in the Marine Corps," and added:

"I have no doubt that with his talent, experience and devotion that he will make a career in the Marine Corps that will be a source of pleasure to him and a source of pride to the corps."

Valuable coin . . . save it!

That coin looks like an ordinary nickel—and it is:

But it can have a very special value: if all of us save just an extra nickel out of every dollar we earn, we can help keep living costs from climbing!

How? First, these extra savings will put a strong brake on one of the main causes of rising prices—overspending.

Second, these extra nickels will total billions of dollars in savings—money which is urgently needed to finance more factories, homes and schools.

And, of course, you get a personal bonus from your extra savings—the feeling of independence and security that a growing nest egg brings...the feeling that your house is in order.

As a second step to fight inflation, all of us should support every reasonable move to reduce government spending—federal, state and local.

Sure, all this means a sacrifice. But isn't it worth it, if this means continuing our prosperity—and keeping it sound?

Valuable coin . . . save it!

That coin looks like an ordinary nickel —and it is.

But it can have a very special value: if all of us save just an extra nickel out of every dollar we earn, we can help keep living costs from climbing!

How? First, these extra savings will put a strong brake on one of the main causes of rising prices—overspending.

Second, these extra nickels will total billions of dollars in savings—money which is urgently needed to finance more factories, homes and schools.

And, of course, you get a personal bonus from your extra savings—the feeling of independence and security that a growing nest egg brings...the feeling that your house is in order.

As a second step to fight inflation, all of us should support every reasonable move to reduce government spending—federal, state and local.

Sure, all this means a sacrifice. But isn't it worth it, if this means continuing our prosperity—and keeping it sound?

106 million policyholders have made life insurance America's most widely used form of thrift. In the interest of these policyholders—in the interest of all of us —the life insurance companies feel they have a duty to help preserve the purchasing power of the dollar.
