Viet Fighting Fierce

Red Unit Faces Annihilation

SAIGON (AP) — After retreating under relentless pursuit, a battalion of North Vietnamese and Viet Cong turned and made a stand today in a central Vietnamese village.

It was immediately caught in a storm of bombs, rockets, napalm and machine-gun fire after losing 141 killed, by U. S. count.

Encircling troops of the U. S. 1st Air Cavalry Division and the Vietnamese army hoped to complete a battle of annihilation against the 300 to 400 enemy troops within 24 hours, a field dispatch said.

The battle, the sharpest ground fighting in three weeks, raged throughout the day at the village 280 miles northeast of Saigon, then began to sputter out at nightfall.

★ ★ ★

In the air war, U.S. planes yesterday attacked a highway 15 miles northeast of Hanoi, as close as they have ever come to the North Vietnamese capital, a U.S. spokesman reported.

Two Navy planes and a U.S. Air Force plane were shot down. One pilot parachuted into the Gulf of Tonkin and was rescued.

The other two pilots ejected but rescue helicopters were driven off by antiaircraft fire.

For the sixth day in a row, B52 heavy bombers from Guam blasted the Viet Cong War Zone C stronghold near the Cambodian border 75 miles northeast of Saigon.

The fighting in the central highlands centered in the village of Than Son.

REMEMBER HIM?—Making a rare political appearance, Thomas E. Dewey, twice-defeated GOP presidential candidate and former governor of New York, spoke at a fund-raising dinner before the Republicans of Southeastern Michigan at St. Clair, yesterday. Dewey, a native of Owosso, Mich., criticized Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., for attacking U.S. policy in Viet Nam.

Nixon Sees Big Gains for GOP

Lauds Candidates, Party's Spirit of Unity

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon predicted today that Republicans this November will make their biggest gains in any off-year election in 20 years.

Nixon, speaking by telephone to the Republican Women's Conference here, said the party has the best candidates and the greatest spirit of unity he has seen in his political career. He spoke from Newark, N. J.

Nixon said the Democrats, on the other hand, "are divided all over the country" over such issues as Viet Nam and what he called "heir apparency."

One group is led by Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., and the other by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

★ ★ ★

Nixon declared that in the world abroad, "the prestige of America has never been lower." He said the people of the United States need new leadership to handle both international and domestic problems.

FEDERALIZATION

He said that if the election in November produces "another one-party Congress, it will mean the complete federalization of health, housing, and education."

He said that whereas the Democrats want bigger government, the Republicans want "better government with more freedom for 190 million Americans."

OCC Set to OK Big Contract

Trustees of Oakland Community College will award a $9,277,700 contract for OCC's Orchard Ridge Campus pending state approval of a proposed bond issue to finance the project.

The contract is nearly $1 million above the project's estimated cost.

Trustees last night approved a declaration of intent to award the contract to the lowest of three bidders. The contract covers the second phase of construction on the campus.

Final approval of the low bid must be withheld until the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission approves the $9 million bond issue.

"Hopefully, approval for the bond sale will be granted next Tuesday," said OCC President John E. Tirrell.

Construction is expected to begin as soon as the bond sale is completed, providing building tradesmen have then settled contracts.

Dr. Tirrell said the bond issue will require no increase this year in the one mill countywide tax voted for OCC and that it was likely no additional tax levy will be necessary next year — or possibly several years.

He based this theory on prospects of increased state and federal aid coupled with a continuing substantial increase in Oakland County's equalized valuation.

The bond issue will span 30 years.

Construction of the second and final phase of the Farmington Township campus is scheduled for completion in early 1968, providing facilities for an ultimate 5,000 enrollment.

It will include an administration and science building, music and arts building, instructional resources building and a commons building housing assembly halls, dining roms, kitchen, book store and snack bar.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's unemployment rate dropped in April to 3.7 per cent for the second time this year. That rate is the lowest in more than 12 years.

DONALD J. MILLAR

UF Board Adds Director's Aide

A veteran Red Cross official has been named to an executive post with the Pontiac Area United Fund.

Donald J. Millar, manager of the Oakland County regional office for the Southeastern Chapter of the American Red Cross, has been appointed associate executive director of the United Fund.

Millar's resignation, effective May 31, climaxes 28 years' service with the Red Cross.

He assumes his new post June 1. His primary job will be as campaign director.

★ ★ ★

No salary was disclosed.

The appointment was announced today by Bruce J. Annett, president of the UF Board of Trustees, and Donald J. Frey, executive director.

Millar, of 2961 Huntington Park, Waterford Township, succeeds Wendell Asplin, former Pontiac UF assistant director who now is director of the United Fund of Greater Lafayette, Ind.

Millar has participated in past UF campaigns in Detroit and Pontiac. During the past three years, he has been a campaign staff adviser for business team units and a solicitor for professional units.

GM Puts Brakes on Factories

DETROIT (UPI) — General Motors closed a third Corvair operation today and put three parts plants on short workweeks as effects of the industry giant's first big cutback since 1961 spread.

But the publication considered the bible on industry operations, Ward's Automotive Reports, cautioned that the cutbacks should not be interpreted as an indication of an industry slump although 165,000 cars are being sliced from original industry production schedules for May through July.

GM's new curtailments brought to eight the number of its factories operating on short workweeks to slice inventories. More than 13,000 workers are affected.

Ford, Chrysler and American Motors maintained regular schedules, but Ward's said Chrysler was paring 17,000 cars from its original May-June-July schedules.

★ ★ ★

The only clear trend from the cutback was that the Corvair, the model which author Ralph Nader tabbed as the most dangerous U. S.-made car, was slumping badly.

Rep. Law Blasts Handling of Detroit School Boycott

Detroit School Supt. Samuel Brownell came under fire yesterday from State Rep. Arthur J. Law of Pontiac for his handling of recent trouble at Detroit's Northern High School.

The Democratic legislator was not alone in his criticism, voiced before the House passed a resolution 88-4 paying tribute to Brownell who will retire Aug. 31.

ARTHUR J. LAW

"He did a great disservice to Detroit and Michigan when he succumbed to student pressure," Law said.

"He was sowing the seeds of chaos."

Law also complained that seven out of 10 illiterates in Michigan penal institutions are natives of the state — "and a great many of these are from Detroit."

★ ★

Rep. E. D. O'Brien, D-Detroit, was the only member to criticize Brownell personally, saying "the only good thing about him is that he is retiring." Brownell, he said, has failed to raise the standards of education in Detroit.

DEPLORABLE CONDITIONS

Rep. David Holmes, D-Detroit, said he was "not voting against the man as an educator — but against the deplorable conditions in Detroit schools and the policies of the board of education. The high schools are still running out graduates who can't read or write."

Rep. Albert Sheridan, D-Taylor also objected to Brownell's treatment of the Northern issue.

Students boycotted the school for four days in protest over what they said was poor quality education.

★ ★ ★

They also demanded removal of principal Arthur Carty.

Brownell ended the boycott by taking Carty out of the building while allowing him to retain the title of principal.

Brownell, who has served in his present position for the past 10 years, was defended by Republicans and Democrats.

"This Northern incident just happened within the past few weeks; it doesn't destroy the man's record over a long career," said minority leader Robert Waldron, R - Grosse Pointe.

★ ★ ★

George F. Montgomery, D-Detroit, a former schoolteacher and one of the sponsors of the resolution, urged Detroit Democrats to skip a Monday caucus to stay in their districts to "get out the vote for the millage issue in Detroit.

8.7 Million Cars Called Back in 60s

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Abraham Ribicoff reported today that in the last six years 8,700,225 automobiles have been called back due to some defect.

★ ★ ★

In a statement prior to making public information from the American auto industry on defects in their cars over the last six years, the Connecticut Democrat said the total auto production for that period was slightly more than 47 million according to industry statistics. He added:

"Thus in the past six years 18.5 per cent of the cars produced by the four major auto companies have been defective in some respect."

He noted however, that "It should be made clear many of these defects were not safety related."

★ ★ ★

Ribicoff as chairman of a Senate subcommittee investigating highway safety had asked Detroit's big four to provide him with information on their recall campaigns involving certain auto defects and deficiencies.

★ ★ ★

Temperature Hits 80-Degree Mark for Season's High

Temperatures soaring to 80 at 3 p.m. yesterday hit a new high for the season.

Tonight and tomorrow will be somewhat cooler, the low falling to 36 to 42, the high climbing to 52 to 60.

Skies will be partly overcast over the weekend with temperatures continuing mild.

West to northwesterly morning winds at 10 to 18 miles per hour will become northerly and diminish tonight.

Forty-six was the low thermometer reading prior to 8 a.m. The Mercury had climbed to 63 by 2 p.m.

Pair Convicted, Given Life for Moors Murders

CHESTER, England (AP) — Ian Brady was convicted of triple murder tonight in Britain's "bodies on the moors" trial. Brady's mistress, Myra Hindley, was found guilty of two murders.

The all-male jury found Brady, 28-year-old stock clerk, guilty of slaying Lesley Ann Downey, 10, John Kilbride, 12, and Edward Evans, 17. Brady was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Miss Hindley, 23, was also jailed for life for taking part in the killing of Evans and the Downey girl.

She was found guilty of being an accessory to the murder of the Kilbride boy.

'This Baby Has Been Hurt'

By DAVID J. COOK

"Chronic malnutrition, extremely anemic, covered with multiple body bruises and contusions . . . The baby shows no natural physical or emotional responses . . ."

These are excerpts from an official Pontiac Police Department report of several months ago.

This case and countless others of a similar nature prompted a "Battered Child" conference attended yesterday by some 200 Pontiac area physicians, lawyers, social workers, policemen, and Oakland County officials.

The three-hour meeting was held at the Kingsley Inn, Woodward and West Long Lake, Bloomfield Township.

CONFAB FOCUS

The focus of the conference was what featured speaker Dr. Paul V. Woolley Jr., medical director of The Children's Hospital of Michigan, terms the "battered child syndrome."

Two of the chief ingredients are the child's father and mother, one or both of whom, according to Woolley, are immature, emotionally unstable, possibly alcoholic, and quite likely psychotic.

In all probability, Woolley told his listeners, the parents themselves were the subjects of abuse when they were children.

OLD WOUNDS

X rays reveal old fractures in addition to new broken bones which brought about the visit to the doctor.

The child is suspicious and frequently frightened of adults, and the circumstances of the injury as related by the parents do not account for the injury.

"Whatever you do," Woolley said, "don't let that child get out of your custody.

"If you're suspicious and still take the parents' word that the child will not be abused, you'll be sorry.

ONLY ONCE

"I've only done that once—when a boy with a minor fracture was sent home, only to return one week later, dead on arrival."

Woolley recalled that in the days when the battered child syndrome had not been fully recognized, he often used heavy bone casts as a means of keeping children within the protection of the hospital.

"Now we don't need to resort to subterfuge," he noted.

Public Act 98 passed in 1964 by the Michigan Legislature lays down strict requirements for reporting of injuries inflicted on children and in turn protects physicians from any civil or criminal liability.

Reports from across the state indicate the statute is badly

Defense Chief Tells of Air Alert Decline

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has ordered a reduction in the continuous airborne alert of B52 bombers, it was disclosed today.

★ ★ ★

He told the House Appropriations Committee the constant bomber alert aloft, conducted for more than five years, no longer is needed because:

★ ★ ★

Of "the declining importance of bombers in relations to missiles."

No indication of the extent of the reduction was available.

McNamara's testimony, given in secret earlier this year, seemed certain to arouse new criticism from advocates of the bomber and from those who question reliance on missiles.

★ ★ ★

The defense secretary's published words gave the impression that the airborne alert will be ended entirely.

But the Defense Department said this is not so — that there will continue to be an airborne alert, although reduced in size.

OPPOSED MOVE

McNamara indicated the Joint Chiefs of Staff opposed his cutdown move.

"I think the chiefs objected to eliminating all of the air alert," the Pentagon chief said. He added:

★ ★ ★

"I replied that they could carry on whatever airborne alert was consistent with the regular training program and would not require additional funds."

Defense sources said a portion of the bomber force will remain ready to take up a broader airborne alert, if this becomes necessary in an emergency.

HELD ON ALERT

They also said that 50 per cent of the fleet of about 600 B52 bombers will continue to be held on strict alert, ready to take off on 15 minutes' warning. This is well within the maximum 30 minutes of warning that radar installations could provide in event of a Soviet intercontinental ballistic missile assault.

★ ★ ★

The airborne alert was put into effect in January 1961. This was the time when concern over a possible Russian missile attack was running high.

★ ★ ★

At that point, U.S. strategic nuclear striking strength was bound up almost wholly in the bomber force. And the radar warning system was not as highly developed as it is now.

Latin Study Scholarship Deadlines Set

The Inter-American Press Association Scholarship Fund announced today that it will award next October at least five scholarships to North American newspapermen and journalism graduates or students for a year of study in Latin America.

★ ★ ★

The president of the fund, Harold A. Fitzgerald of The Pontiac Press, said that the deadline for the reception of applications will be Sept. 1.

The scholarship awards committee will consider the applications sometime in September and will make recommendations to the fund's board of directors, which will award the scholarships at its meeting in Lima, Peru, Oct. 24.

Requests for information and application forms may be addressed to Carlos A. Jimenez, Secretary, IAPA Scholarship Fund, 667 Madison Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10021.

★ ★ ★

Applicants should have a working knowledge of Spanish or, if they plan to study in Brazil, Portuguese.

EXPERIENCE

Preference will be given to those with some experience as working newspapermen.

Since the start of its program in 1955, the fund has awarded 111 scholarships to students and journalists from practically all the countries in the Americas, including 45 to North Americans.

Tulip Time Festival Scheduled May 11-14

HOLLAND (UPI) — The 37th annual Tulip Time Festival will be held here May 11-14, Bill Vande Water, festival manager, announced today.

Vande Water said festival officials had been concerned by the inclement weather and slow-blooming tulips but have been assured the flowers will be in full color next week.

needed and can be a useful tool for protection of young children.

The Pontiac police report cited earlier reads like a case illustration of the battered child syndrome as described by physicians and psychiatrists.

"The baby has not learned to use his legs because of the pain it causes him.

"Approached by nurses at the hospital, he screams and cries in terror.

CAN'T EAT

"He could not use his tongue when food was introduced and does not know how to eat (at the age nine months)."

Investigation by juvenile officials revealed that the father was retarded and unable to comprehend the severity of his child's problems.

The mother admitted she lost her temper on occasion and beat the infant about the head and body.

★ ★ ★

"This trend can be understood as an attempt to cope with the psychological distress occasioned in the parent by the child," a Boston doctor commented recently in the American Journal of Psychiatry.

BAD PERCEPTION

"These parents perceive the child they assault as a hostile, persecutory adult," he observed.

★ ★ ★

Protecting the child from the parent under the state law is, in Oakland County, a joint effort by police agencies, juvenile authorities, and the Probate Court.

★ ★ ★

"A practical solution, at least with every verified complaint," Woolley said, "would be to force parents to undergo psychiatric examination and if necessary supervision."

★ ★ ★

With persistent efforts by these officials along with case workers and physicians, he concluded, "perhaps ultimately parents and child can be reunited."

Incumbent Seeks 1 of 2 School Board Posts

Incumbent Norman L. Cheal filed nominating petitions last night for the Waterford Township Board of Education election June 13.

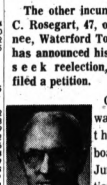
In doing so, Cheal, 46, of 2751 North Lake, Waterford Township, became the first candidate to toss his hat in the ring for the two school board posts up for election.

The other incumbent, Eldon C. Rosegart, 47, of 2983 Shawnee, Waterford Township, also has announced his intention to seek reelection, but hasn't filed a petition.



Cheal first was elected to the school board in the June 1962 election, polling 906 votes compared with Rosegart's front - running 941.

CHEAL He heads the experimental department of the Pontiac Motor Division engineering department.

MSU GRADUATE

Married and the father of six children, Cheal is a 1937 graduate of Lansing Eastern High School and a 1941 graduate of Michigan State University. He holds a B.S. degree in chemical engineering.

Both seats to be decided in June's election are for four-year terms.

'Berkeley Is Haven for Reds, Deviates'

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — A California Senate committee today charged that under University of California President Clark Kerr the Berkeley campus has turned into a Communist haven and a center of sexual deviation.

The Committee on Un-American Activities said Kerr was instrumental in rehiring a teacher who, the committee said, lied about former Communist connections when he took the state's loyalty oath.

★ ★ ★

Calling the Berkeley campus the "pivotal base" for the anti-Viet Nam war movement in the United States, the committee said Communists or Red sympathizers who first gained power in the "free speech" uprisings of 1964 had grabbed control of the antiwar Vietnam Day Committee.

★ ★ ★

The report also criticizes Kerr for allowing students and non-students to make use of university facilities to support off-campus political causes.

COMMENT DUE

A spokesman for Kerr's office on the Berkeley campus said Kerr and Chancellor Roger Heyns were expected to make comments on the report later today.

★ ★ ★

Much of the report is an answer to Kerr's charges that a 1965 report — which said Communists controlled the "free speech" revolt — was largely inaccurate and based on "half-truths" and "distortions."

The committee accused Kerr of harboring a "hostile attitude" toward its activities.

★ ★ ★

The committee cited reports of widespread student homosexuality, dances with lewd themes and the presentation of "disgusting, debased spectacles" on campus in concluding that under Kerr, the campus "sank to a new low."

Ruling Made by Kelley on Judgeships

LANSING (AP) — Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley spelled out the law for circuit judges today.

Kelley answered a query from Secretary of State James Hare, who sought to prevent possible misunderstandings about Circuit Court races — which could be a little confusing this year.

Kelley ruled that although there will be elections to new eight - and 10-year terms, a candidate or an incumbent judge may run for only one term at a time. By running for two terms in the primary, for instance, he could increase his chances of appearing somewhere on the general election ballot.

★ ★ ★

An incumbent judge is entitled to that designation on the ballot whether he's running to succeed himself for a regular six-year term or seeking one of the new longer terms, Kelley said.

COMPLICATED

The election of judges is complicated this year by a constitutional requirement that in multijudge circuits, the six-year terms be staggered from now on. This requires electing some of the judges to the longer terms to set up the stagger.

In addition, the Legislature has created new judgeships across the state — to be filled for the first time this year.

Wants Staff Included in Merit System

Oakland County Prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson yesterday decided to include the entire staff of the prosecuting attorney's office in the county's recently adopted merit system.

Bronson had requested exclusion of his professional staff several months ago when the merit system was being drafted.

His reason at the time was both the then unknown provisions of the merit sytem and the fact that staff members performed duties apart from those of other county departments.

Bronson indicated that the main reason for seeking merit system inclusion now is to provide job tenure for staff members regardless of who is prosecuting attorney.

★ ★ ★

Bronson is a candidate for the Circuit Court bench.

'A BEGINNING'

Though he termed the county's merit system as not completely satisfactory, Bronson said it was the beginning of a sound approach to employe retention.

The decision for inclusion in the merit system was explained in a letter Bronson sent yesterday to Curtis Hall, chairman of the personnel policies board which administers the merit system.

The board must approve the change.

Manzella, 28, Is Bound Over

Arraignment May 19 in Bar Beating Case

Angelo Manzella, 28, of 2356 Middle Belt, West Bloomfield Township, was bound over to Circuit Court yesterday following a nine-hour pretrial examination before Independence Township Justice Robert Carr.

Charged with assault with intent to do great bodily harm, Manzella allegedly was involved in the beating of John Adams, 35, of 6501 Maybee, Independence Township, March 19.

The incident occurred at a bar at 7504 Dixie, owned by Manzella's brother, Nicholas Manzella, 37, of the Dixie address.

Angelo Manzella will be arraigned in Circuit Court at 9 a.m. May 19 before Judge Arthur Moore.

Because of the length of testimony in the Angelo Manzella examination, Nicholas Manzella's Justice Court trial was adjourned to 9:30 a.m. May 19.

Klan Figure Sought in Shooting of Wife

ATHENS, Ga. (AP) — A Ku Klux Klansman who police say shot his estranged wife remained at large today.

Authorities said that Joseph Howard Sims, a 43-year-old Klansman acquitted of murder in the 1964 slaying of a Negro educator, has not been spotted since fleeing Athens in his 1948 model car.

Meanwhile, Sims' 35-year old wife, Betty, a mother of eight, is reported in fair condition with a bullet lodged in her cheek.

Authorities said Mrs. Sims, a nurse's aide, was shot Thursday at the Athens General Hospital nursery in front of several witnesses.

Suggests Tentative Area for the Proposed Library

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—John D. Rumsey, president of the Bloomfield Township Library Board, said in a statement this week that the area between Maple and Long Lake between Woodward and Telegraph would be the most appropriate for a proposed township library.

The statement came as a result of residents' questions and information gathered at some 25 meetings held in the township over the past two months to discuss a $1,160,000 bond issue proposal which will go before township voters Tuesday.

If approved, the proposal will permit a levy of just under one-half mill to finance construction.

Residents have indicated they would also like to include a multipurpose room, an auditorium and an extension of services for junior high school students in the project if the proposal is approved.

The library board has stated that the millage would be insufficient to provide the auditorium.

BIRMINGHAM — After a three-year lull, the Birmingham Arts Festival is scheduled for revival this fall.

Bloomfield Art Association President Paul Neal said the association will sponsor Festival 10 Sept. 30 through Oct. 8 at the Bloomfield Art Association, 1516 Cranbrook.

General chairmen of the event are Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Bender of 800 Covington, Bloomfield Township.

On the festival steering committee will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Thom, 6160 W. Surrey, Birmingham; and Mr. and Mrs. William C. Newberg, 1411 Kirkway, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy E. Keifer, 720 Kennebec, Mr. and Mrs. Paul N. Averill, 1497 Lochridge, and Mr. and Mrs. John S. Coppin, 4301 Echo Road, all of Bloomfield Hills.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — The annual dessert-bridge party for the benefit of Brownson Guild's scholarship fund is scheduled for Saturday, May 14, at the Convent of the Sacred Heart, 1250 Kensington.

Eva O'Hara is chairman of the activities. Dessert and bake sale will be at 1 p.m. in the dining hall and card playing will begin at 2 in the auditorium.

Reds Launch Satellite

MOSCOW (AP) — Cosmos 117 was launched today, the latest in a series of Soviet satellites designed to study outer space, Tass News Agency reported. It was in an orbit of from 128 to 190 miles above the earth.

Ship bells ring every half-hour. This stems from old sailing days when helmsmen were changed at this interval and the bells were rung to call the new man to duty.

Senate Kills Pay Hike Bill

Comments on Action Are Varied in County

Action yesterday by the State Senate killing a pay raise bill for court stenographers and assistant prosecutors drew a variety of comment from local officials.

★ ★ ★

Daniel T. Murphy, chairman of the County Board of Auditors, hailed the defeat of the measure.

Murphy had been critical of the proposed legislative move to set higher salaries for county employes while putting the burden on the county to pay the increase.

The bill proposed a boost of $2,500 for court stenographers, from $8,500 to $11,000, and specified a salary floor of $12,000 for assistant prosecutors.

Oakland County Prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson said he felt the $12,000 base for assistant prosecutors was unrealistic but he saw a lesson in the fact that the measure was even considered in Lansing.

MUST MEET NEEDS

"When local governments meet the needs of the community, problems such as this won't crop up at the state level," he said.

★ ★ ★

Assistant prosecutors average about $8,000. With a staff of 15 by next January and nine court stenographers by then, the bill would have forced Oakland County to pay an additional $82,500 in salaries.

★ ★ ★

Court stenographers expressed both disappointment and surprise that the measure failed.

construction will be an amphitheater and parking areas.

The initial phase of the project began last fall and is scheduled for completion in August, 1967. It will accommodate 3,000 students.

Only three firms bid on the second phase of the Farmington Township campus, with the R. E. Dailey Co. of Southfield submitting the low proposal.

The other bids were $9,463,000 and $9,586,000.

Little Judy Can Run and Play

FLINT (AP) — The cute little brown-eyed blonde ran up to an ice cream wagon.

"I'm Judy Lynn Funsch—and I've had heart surgery," she exclaimed.

The ice cream man was so impressed he gave the 5-year-old tyke a snow cone and a bag of popcorn both for the price of one.

Tiny Judy, who underwent a rare and dangerous five-hour operation at the University of Michigan Hospital, has been home for a month now. She is still under doctor's orders not to play with the neighborhood children until she gains strength.

★ ★ ★

When that will be is still a question.

TIRES EASILY

Although Judy occasionally plays on the back yard swing and goes for rides in the family car, she tires easily. Her weight remains about 28 pounds.

"She's not eating well," said Judy's mother, Mrs. Clarence Funsch. "I'll prepare anything she asks for, but after a couple of nibbles she loses her appetite."

Just then, Judy decided she was hungry for one of her favorite foods — a frozen fruit stick. Her mother hurried to the freezer to bring one back, and Judy resumed playing in the kitchen with the miniature toy poodle her parents gave her for Easter.

★ ★ ★

The front door banged open as Judy's 11-year-old sister, Debbie, came home from school, excited about a class play. A few minutes later, 9-year-old Jimmy also came in. Both of them hugged Judy.

Then Funsch arrived from his job at the Ternstedt plant in nearby Flint, poured himself some coffee and joined the conversation.

"I'll feel better about Judy after she's had some followup tests at the hospital. She looks kinda pale, but there's a sparkle in her eyes that wasn't there before," he said hopefully.

The big event Judy looks forward to each day is the mailman's visit. Usually it means more letters and packages to add to the more than 2,000 that well-wishers have sent.

★ ★ ★

"Yesterday there was nothing in the mail for Judy," Mrs. Funsch recalled. "When I told her she couldn't expect letters to keep coming forever, she cried."

★ ★ ★

The mailman arrived, later than usual, and Judy was not disappointed this time.

There was a package from Montclair, N.J., Judy insisted on opening it herself under the watchful eye of her big brother. It contained a tiny Roman Catholic religious medal.

★ ★ ★

For Judy's parents, the mailman brought an eight-page itemized hospital statement totaling several thousand dollars. Most of the amount is covered by their hospitalization insurance.

★ ★ ★

Ten specialists were on the surgical team that removed an obstruction from a pulmonary vein bringing oxygenated blood from a lung to Judy's heart last March 10. Without the operation, she was given only a few years to live.

Hospital Week Events Slated

Observance of National Hospital Week at three Pontiac hospitals will be centered around Medicare, the national health insurance program for the elderly.

Gilbert Gallivan, assistant manager of the Pontiac district office of the Social Security Administration, will give six talks next week on Medicare.

Gallivan will speak at 1 and 5 p.m. at Pontiac General Hospital on Monday at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital on Wednesday and St. Joseph Mercy Hospital on Friday.

He will give a 30-minute description of the health program, which begins July 1 for all persons 65 or older, and answer questions.

* * *

TOURS, OPEN HOUSE

On Monday, Pontiac General will host Gallivan and offer tours and open house for interested groups.

Pontiac General will honor candy stripe volunteers on Tuesday with an afternoon party.

Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital will demonstrate special hospital equipment in the hospital lobby each day at 2 p.m.

* * *

Tours of the hospital will begin each day at 3 p.m.

Mrs. Frank Burrell, a Pontiac General volunteer, will be honored Wednesday as Volunteer of the Week with an afternoon luncheon in the hospital auditorium.

A fire extinguisher demonstration will be held Thursday in the doctor's parking lot at Pontiac General at 9 a.m. and 2 and 4 p.m.

St. Joseph Mercy Hospital will honor its employes at the hospital's annual award dinner Thursday. Some 200 employes are to receive awards.

Five awards will be given for 20 years of service.

TO HOST GALLIVAN

St. Joseph Mercy will host Gallivan on Friday.

Pontiac General will climax the week with an employe tea from 2 to 5 p.m. Friday, sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary.

Police Hunt Dog That Bit Boy, 2

A large black dog, believed to be part Husky, is being hunted by Waterford Township Police after attacking a 2-year-old boy in front of his home.

The youngster, Sean O'Brien, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth O'Brien, 7704 Tull, was bitten on the face, hands, arms, legs and feet by the dog April 23.

He is scheduled to receive shots, but authorities hope to find the dog before he completes the series of shots.

The dog is described as having a white spot on the back of the neck, some white markings on the paws. It has no collar.

Picketers Protest 'Lousy' Condition

CLINTONDALE (AP) — A four-week epidemic of head lice at Clintondale High School caused picketing by some 40 anxious mothers and pupils Thursday.

They demonstrated at offices of the Clintondale School District, demanding something be done to wipe out the head lice.

Macomb County health officials have told the parents the only way to control the outbreak is to fumigate every student's house. But officials said the county does not have funds to do this.

U.S., Panama Negotiating New Treaty

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

Since last September the United States and Panama quietly have been negotiating terms of a new Panama Canal treaty. At the same time, the United States has been examining sites for a new, sea-level canal.

NEWSOM

Unfortunately, emotions and the volatile nature of Panamanian politics are playing almost as important a role as sober reasoning.

* * *

For the Panamanian living living along Fourth of July Avenue, dividing the U. S.-controlled zone from Panama City proper, the trim lawns and the manicured shrubbery of the zone provide sharp contrast to his own frequently dingy surroundings and a constant reminder of "North American imperialism."

Urged on by leftist agitators, he and others like him reacted violently in December 1964, to enforce demands that the Panamanian flag fly beside the American inside the zone.

4 FRIGHTENING DAYS

Those four frightening days hastened the day of negotiations to replace the old treaty signed in 1903, but did nothing to ease them.

The American - controlled canal is the overriding issue of Panama's political life, the favorite scapegoat of politicians who use it to turn attention away from social and economic ills having nothing to do with the canal itself.

Arrayed in bitter opposition are Panama's President Marco Aurelio Robles who governs with a six-party coalition, and a man who earlier served twice as president, Arnulfo Arias. Arias charges that Robles won office by fraud.

* * *

Arias has said he would accept a Robles-negotiated treaty—if it were "very, very, very good, and if they gave us a little piece of New York along with the canal."

GOOD POSITION

For suspicious and nationalistic Panamanians, it is a good position to take.

Panama's terms for a new agreement already are stiff.

The United States currently pays Panama an annuity of $1.9 million for the canal zone. Panama also is estimated to benefit by as much as $100 million in wages and purchases.

For the future, Panama is demanding both an increase in canal toll rates and participation in the profits.

Most sensitive point in the negotiations is the location of the new sea-level canal. Panamanians regard any discussion of sites in Colombia or Nicaragua simply as a smoke-screen to improve the U. S. bargaining position.

University to Abolish Campus Curfew Law

AMHERST, Mass. (AP) — Officials at the University of Massachusetts have agreed to abolish a campus "blue law" which has irked students for years.

Beginning with the next term, student curfews will be out. The curfews varied with classes, but generally were 11 p.m. weekdays, 1 a.m. Saturday night and midnight on Sunday.

Alabama Votes for Petticoat Rule

A reverse twist was given the old homily that "Behind every good man stands a woman," when Alabama Democrats overwhelmingly voted the nomination of Mrs. GEORGE WALLACE behind whom stood her husband, the incumbent governor.

★ ★ ★

The circumstances leading to LURLEEN WALLACE'S victory are unique in American history. Although she would be the third woman to serve as governor of a state, never before has a governor, ineligible to succeed himself, campaigned for his wife on the flat declaration that if she were elected he would carry on in the office as her executive alter ego.

★ ★ ★

Civil Rightists suffered a severe setback in the Alabama primary. Although the state may be said to have accepted legal desegregation, the voting indicated little acceptance of it in the minds of the white population.

Negroes salvaged a shred of satisfaction from the showing of one of their race that put him in a runoff to decide the Democratic nominee for the state's House of Representatives, the first to gain such status since Reconstruction. And a Negro candidate for county sheriff finished ahead in a four-man race.

But the big winner of the election was the concept of democratic free elections and the cause of law and order. Although the voting was extremely heavy by both Negroes and whites and the lines long at polling places, there was virtually no disorder nor overt display of racial antagonism.

Despite the prospect of a phantom George Wallace in the statehouse, Alabama seems finally to have joined the community of states.

U.S. Meat Inspection Bills Bring Industry Beefs

The meat industry is the target of a number of proposed Federal laws which, for good reasons, have created industry solidarity on unparalleled scale. And significantly, the industry's opposition is supported by numerous producers and agriculture groups including the National Association of State Departments of Agriculture, the American Farm Bureau Federation and the National Grange.

One of these laws would extend Federal meat inspection to intrastate, no less than interstate, operations. Another would shift the costs of Federal meat inspection from the Government to the meat industry.

As of now, about 85 per cent of all commercial meat slaughter is Federally inspected, and the remainder is subject to state and local inspection requirements. There can be no question of the wholesomeness of our meat supply or of the public's well-justified confidence in it.

As for the costs of meat inspection, these are plainly the responsibility of the Government. Inspection is for the benefit of consumers — rather than for the benefit of processors or producers. It is a public health service, pure and simple. And public confidence in meat inspection would surely lessen if those whose products are being inspected are to pay the salaries of the inspectors.

Robot Students Seen Product of Robot Teachers

The director of educational research for the U. S. government sees the day—and possibly within 10 or 15 years—when classrooms will be completely computerized, with each pupil sitting in front of an individual computer, soaking up knowledge.

The teacher, this gentleman believes, should never actually have to present information to the student, since the machine can do it better.

Before we start trading in teachers for computers, it might be well to listen to what else Dr. Richard Louis Bright has to say.

He concedes that a machine could never teach a pupil "to speak confidently to other people, to express ideas lucidly, to handle the criticism of his peers, or to apply knowledge to a new situation."

Teachers would still be useful, that is, to add the touch that would make it possible to tell a student from a machine.

Please stick around, teachers. It looks as though you'll be needed if this isn't to become a weird, weird world.

Viet Exile Urges U.S. to Ask Peace

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Tran Van Huu, a premier of South Viet Nam in the days of Emperor Bao Dai, suggests that the first move toward peace there must come from the United States.

Huu, 70, has lived in Paris the last 11 years. Winding up a month's visit to the United States, he told an interviewer this week:

"I am sure that if the Americans stopped the war, the others would too. The call to a truce can come only from the mightiest, the smallest cannot call for a truce. But if the mightiest called for a truce, the others would follow.

"They would have to accept because if they were to carry on the war, they wouldn't have the approbation of the population. We have been running for peace for 25 years."

★ ★ ★

Huu said he spoke to Washington officials last week about a possible truce "but there haven't been any echo."

BURNED TO ASHES

"I have the impression that peace is not for tomorrow," he added wryly. "When we will have burned Viet Nam to ashes, there will not be any conflict."

Huu said hostilities should be stopped to prepare a climate for negotiations and the United States should negotiate with the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front. "In a case as hard as this," he explained, "we must talk to the worst enemies."

But he said he found that while some in Washington wanted negotiations, they did not want to hear about North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh; and while they wanted peace in the South, they did not want to hear about the National Liberation Front.

★ ★ ★

He said he got the impression Washington did not favor having self-exiled Vietnamese like himself return for South Viet Nam's projected national election. He commented: "This is extremely serious, because the majority of the elite is outside."

VISAS REFUSED

He said the self-exiled Vietnamese had been refused South Vietnamese visas so many times they had quit asking for them.

Huu called the coming election "a kind of diversion" anyhow because in South Viet Nam "it is not possible for people today to express their will freely."

He remarked with a smile that he himself was responsible for Nguyen Cao Ky, South Viet Nam's present premier, because in 1951 he founded the military school that graduated Ky.

★ ★ ★

COALITION REGIME

He contended in the interview that a coalition government should be formed in South Viet Nam including three groups that arose in 1955 in opposition to the authoritarian regime of President Ngo Dinh Diem — those that went abroad, those that became political prisoners, and those that went underground to form the Viet Cong.

'You've Got To Learn To Stand On Your Own Two Feet'

David Lawrence Says:

French Hand Soviets a Victory

WASHINGTON — The biggest victory the Soviet Union has won in the "cold war" has just been made possible by President de Gaulle of France with the announcement which means, in effect, that the entire plan for the defense of western Europe by the United States and its allies now must be discarded.

LAWRENCE

It could conceivably forecast a victory, too, for the aggressors someday in a "hot war" in which nuclear weapons are not used but land armies once more overrun western Europe.

The French government's order declaring that the United States and its allies will not be permitted hereafter to count on a continuing right to fly military planes over French territory will certainly disrupt existing plans for the defense of the continent.

Strangely enough, although Gen. de Gaulle has violated the North Atlantic Treaty, no word of disapproval on that point has been uttered here. Yet the treaty carries an explicit agreement that the United States shall come instantly to the defense of France if the latter is attacked.

★ ★ ★

But with no American troops in France and an inability to rely on the French army or navy or air force in any integrated plan for the defense of Europe, retaliatory action cannot be effectively carried out at once against an aggressor, as was contemplated by the original treaty.

PLANNING VISIT

Gen. de Gaulle is planning to visit Moscow on June 20. He has served notice already that he will not allow NATO forces to use any military bases in France. This undoubtedly was received with rejoicing inside the Kremlin, for it clearly means that the entire concept of allied defense in Europe is no longer suitable.

Gen. de Gaulle's policy has not been formulated suddenly. Ever since 1959 he has been hinting at a gradual withdrawal from the Western alliance. But the assumption has been that he really would never go that far.

He now is coming close to a breakup, and the realistic fact is that the United States must undergo what has often been called an "agonizing reappraisal."

★ ★ ★

It must decide whether Europe can best be defended by assisting West Germany to become a greater military power or whether America should abstain and let Europe run the risk of being overrun someday by the Communists.

NATURAL HESITATION

American business and economic affairs are so closely intertwined with Europe's that there is a natural hesitation to cause any schisms among Western European governments. But Gen. de Gaulle has brought about a crisis.

★ ★ ★

It must soon be determined exactly how Europe can really be defended in the future and whether the United States is to be prevented by France's obstructive policies from coming to the aid of European countries in time to save them from another holocaust.

Capitol Letter:

Presidential Demands Leave Aides Burned Out

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON — President Johnson is dispensing many millions of dollars to prolong the life span and improve the health of mankind here and abroad.

Ruth Montgomery

Paradoxically he is burning out his top officials at an alarming rate, by his incredible demands on their time and energy.

★ ★ ★

It takes longer to produce people than dollars, and only a relatively few of these people rise to the top echelon through a happy combination of education, training and leadership qualities.

These rare individuals should be nurtured and protected against overexhaustion, so that their minds are fresh and alert to cope with the overburdening problems of the space age.

★ ★ ★

Instead they are pressured, harassed and overworked to such an extent that those who manage to survive the Washington rat race for an extended period usually do so with impaired health and befogged gray matter.

★ ★ ★

President Johnson has driven himself relentlessly since college days, in his determined drive toward the top. Having arrived at the pinnacle of power, he owes it to himself and his country to taper off.

HOURS STRETCH OUT

Unfortunately, his normal 18-hour day sometimes stretches to 19 or 20. Perhaps the President's superthyroid metabolism can take it.

Most men are simply not built for such a frenetic pace; yet LBJ expects his underlings and Cabinet to drive themselves as hard as he does.

Thomas Mann, undersecretary of state for economic affairs, is resigning June 1 because of exhaustion, and Undersecretary George Ball's resignation, for the same reason, is imminent.

★ ★ ★

Five years of heavy responsibility in the jet-geared Kennedy and Johnson administrations are taking their toll of government officials, and the exodus is on.

Because the boss works seven days a week, lesser officials are afraid not to show up at their desks.

Surely all of us would profit from a more relaxed officialdom. The President talks a good game of economy in government, but the profligate spending of men's energies is as wasteful as similar spending of money.

Voice of the People:

Administration's Actions Defined by Press Reader

The following definitions apply to current political actions of various members of the present administration, Supreme Court, Congress and others. A "conservative" is one who conserves the laws of nature and nature's God; also, one who believes in conserving the original fundamental intent of America's Declaration of Independence and United States Constitution. A "liberal" is one who takes the liberty or license to change what is fundamental. An "extremist" is one who advocates an extreme change from the fundamental — the fundamental being in America's trust in God, Declaration of Independence, and United States Constitution.

★ ★ ★

A liberal is an extremist to the degree he deviates from the fundamental. An example of extremism? The Supreme Court's prayer ban decision wherein it deviated from the fundamental, the fundamental being the First Amendment to the United States Constitution. What has the present liberal administration done about this act of extremism? Nothing! What has the Democratic controlled Congress done? Nothing!

★ ★ ★

The result is the gradual development of a godless nation with complete control over public education coming direct from a centralized government in Washington which will dictate the textbook material to be used in public schools, and making sure that America's eager young minds are kept ignorant of God's moral and economic laws—laws that have given America its individual freedom and strength to advance to the highest material wealth the world has ever known—a wealth that is now being squandered away by liberals.

Views Vary on Recent Press Editorials

If the editorial writer for The Pontiac Press would open his eyes he would find it impossible "to picture the United States sinking so low that a step like that is necessary." Re the editorial "Senator Dirksen Proposes to Return Prayer to Schools" via a proposed Constitutional amendment, prayer itself was never eliminated. Silent prayers are still permissible. The Court ruled against prewritten prayers for the voluntary elements of each in his own way and words were completely eliminated.

★ ★ ★

In the Reader's Digest appears an article entitled "Is Religion Banned From Our Schools" in which it has a criticizing quote on the Court's decree by Erwin N. Griswold who said, "This is a Christian country in origin, history and tradition. It was out of Christian doctrine that it developed its notion of toleration. The Muslim may worship as he pleases, and hold public office without discrimination. But why should it follow that he can require others to give up their Christian tradition merely because he is tolerated?"

★ ★ ★

Then Mr. Hall asks: "How are we to restore to our schools — and to all public life — the recognition of religion's place?" The answer comes from Associate Justice Tom C. Clark, "Education is not complete without a study of comparative religion. The Bible is worthy of study for its literary and historic qualities. Nothing indicates that such study when presented objectively may not be effected consistent with the First Amendment." Dr. Archibald B. Shaw says: "If school people are up to its implied challenge, the Supreme Court's decisions may have done more for education and religion than legislative hearings and church pressures. We can work at building a curriculum that will lead our young people to a steadily broadening understanding." The encouragement offered by The Press editorial, "More power to Senator Dirksen," is unnecessary. You pray your way and I'll pray my way, or not at all, as the case may be.

A. R. STAHL
BLOOMFIELD HILLS

I have read many editorials in The Pontiac Press condemning the writings of teen-agers pertaining to respect for government and authority. I thought The Press was attempting to correct the thinking of the younger generation. However, after reading the editorial May 2, I think the younger generation is following in the footsteps of The Press editorial writers. I refer to: "however, that's precisely where our dog-eared Supreme Court placed us with its inexplicable ruling that caused consternation from coast to coast and left the world flabbergasted." This was in reference to Senator Dirksen's proposed Constitutional Amendment on prayers in school.

★ ★ ★

A second editorial the same day refers to Senator Fulbright as "Senator Halfbright" and was in reference to the Senator's position regarding our involvement in Viet Nam.

★ ★ ★

When the paper has so little respect for the Supreme Court of U. S. and refers to a Senator with the ability of Senator Fulbright in such a manner, I believe there is room for education among the editorial staff of The Pontiac Press itself. Senator Dirksen's statement, "I am not going to let nine men say to 190 million people, including children, when and where they can utter their prayers," is somewhat frivolous. His filibuster prevented the Senate from voting on Repeal of Section 814 of the Labor Management Act.

Romney: U. S. System Periled

WASHINGTON (AP) — "The unique sources of America's greatness are in gravest jeopardy," Gov. George Romney of Michigan said Thursday.

"I do not believe that there is an assurance any longer that this nation will remain a nation where the people rule," Romney told the 14th annual Republican Women's Conference here.

The Republican governor said that under the Democratic administration, "we have seen politically motivated, inflationary federal economic policies put an ever-tighter squeeze on the people's pocketbook — through both taxes and inflation."

Republicans, Romney said, understand that progress demands "on the progress and greatness of the people."

Showers Hit Coastal Areas

By the Associated Press

Showers fell on scattered sections of both coasts today, but otherwise pleasant, springlike weather prevailed over the country.

Temperatures were mostly seasonal, except in the Far West where a heat wave persisted during Thursday, but cooled off at night.

★ ★ ★

Rain fell in varying amounts over portions of the Gulf Coast from Texas to Florida. A few thundershowers fell over the Pacific Northwest, and showers moved eastward in the North Atlantic states region.

The lowest reading in the early morning was 37 degrees at Houghton, Mich. Needles, Calif., had the highest reading, 84 degrees.

Seek Grant for Recreation Land Deal

The Waterford Township Board of Education last night authorized the administration to apply for a $26,000 Open Space Land Grant from the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development toward purchase of 27.2 acres of land for recreational purposes.

★ ★ ★

In purchasing land for recreational purposes, school districts are eligible to receive 50 per cent federal aid.

Estimated cost of the 27.2 acres is $52,000, according to school officials.

The proposed property acquisitions consist of 14 acres on Lochaven between Elizabeth Lake and Cooley Lake Roads, 8.2 acres at Hospital and Pontiac Lake Roads and 5 acres on Sunnybeach in White Lake Township.

★ ★ ★

The Lochaven and Sunnybeach sites are for future elementary schools, while the other location is a future junior high school site.

OWNS 30 ACRES

The school district already owns 30 acres at Hospital and Pontiac Lake.

In other business, the board approved establishment of one administrative internship for the 1966-67 school year as a means of providing administrative experience for one or more district teachers.

Under the program, teachers will be given trials as administrative assistants on the secondary level on an experimental basis.

★ ★ ★

Also last night, the board approved a recreation department request to use school property this summer for the learn-to-swim program.

BY LOON LAKE

Located behind Mason Junior High School, the beach property is adjacent to Loon Lake.

Recreation department director Thomas Simons pointed out that increasing membership in the program has resulted in crowded conditions at existing beach sites.

He estimated that 800 children participated in a self-sustaining program last summer.

Waterford School Affairs

In still other business, the board agreed to delete the proposed purchase of a 5.3-acre recreational site near Monteith School from an Open Space Land Grant application made Feb. 11.

'INCONSISTENT'

The township planning commission previously called the proposed acquisition inconsistent with the township's comprehensive development plan since the land has been designated for a proposed township civic center.

Twenty teaching contracts were approved by the board for the 1966-67 school year, while two leaves of absence and a resignation were accepted.

Ask Machines for School Vote

Would Be Used in the June 13 Election

Voting machines may be used for the first time in a Waterford Township School District election.

Last night, the Board of Education authorized the administration to make a request to the Township Board for use of the machines in the June 13 election.

Sixteen machines — two at each of the eight precincts — would be needed, according to school officials.

The size of this year's election package prompted school officials to consider use of the time-saving voting machines.

★ ★ ★

To be decided in the election are four bonding proposals totaling $11.8 million, a millage question, two board of education posts and six trusteeships for Oakland Community College.

One-Fourth of Mankind

(17) China a la Mode

by Don Oakley and John Lane

For arts and manner of government I think noe Kingdome in the world comparable to it. —Peter Mundy, first Englishman to visit China.

Two and three centuries after Columbus, Europe finally began discovering China.

Distance lent enchantment, but so did the many products merchants were bringing back — wallpaper, lacquered furniture, tea, objets-d'art and, especially, porcelain — "china." Chinese themes — "chinoiserie" — influenced Rococco architecture and gardens.

Reading the glowing accounts sent by the Jesuits, men like Voltaire and Leibnitz praised China's government as the best ever conceived, one in which philosophers, if they were not kings, were at least the king's officials.

Rationalists saw in Confucianist China proof that morality needed no priests or dogmas.

While is lasted, Sinophilism provided a cultural and humanistic impetus in Europe. When it ended, it was replaced by growing contempt for the "heathen Chinese."

CHINESE CONTEMPT

In the beginning, though, contempt was a monopoly of China. Unfortunately, the behavior of some of those who went there did little to dispel Chinese xenophobia.

The Portuguese had been granted a concession at Macao in 1557. They were followed in the next century by the rival Dutch and English.

By the 18th century, the latter had attained a monopoly of the China trade. The first American ship arrived in 1784.

Unable to keep the "foreign devils" out entirely, the Chinese tried their time-honored tactic of playing one barbarian off against another.

TRADE RESTRICTED

Trade was restricted to the port of Canton and all dealings had to be handled through the Co-hong, a monopolistic association of merchants, who occupied nearly the bottom of the Chinese social scale. Government officials all along the line extracted their "squeeze" from the profits.

In 1792, Britian sent Lord Macartney as head of its first diplomatic mission to China. After much dispute over the question of kowtowing — literally knocking one's head against the floor nine times before the emperor — he was permitted to present his request.

In his answer to George III, the Emperor Ch'ien Lung noted the king's "humble desire to partake of the benefits of our civilization" but that "our Celestial Empire informed him nevertheless possess all things in prolific abundance . . . (We) have no need for your country's merchandise."

It was not a reply calculated to win friends and influence monarchs.

'Iron Age' Inscriptions Discovered

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Discovery of what may be the oldest Arabic inscriptions known to date was reported Thursday by a University of Michigan professor in Jordan.

The unusual find was made by George Mendenhall, professor of Near Eastern studies, cooperating with the Trans-Jordan Department of Antiquities.

In his report to the university, Mendenhall said the inscriptions probably dated back to the 7th century B.C., during the Iron Age. They were found in a cistern at a little village near Yajuz, not far from Amman.

The cistern, almost 110 feet long, was accessible by a stairway of 23 steps from the ground level, according to Mendenhall. It was the main water supply for the estate of an Arab nobleman who lived in a small nearby fortress built of massive stone blocks.

'M' Reports Theft of Burmese Harp

ANN ARBOR (AP)—A rare Burmese harp valued at $500 has been stolen from the Stearns Collection of Musical Instruments, the University of Michigan reported Thursday.

Prof. Robert Warner, curator of the collection established by the late Detroit druggist Frederick Stearns, said the 19th century instrument was taken wrom his office while he was away during the past few days. The harp, restored to playable condition, was decorated with semi-precious stones.

Senate Unit Will Explore Mart 'Move'

LANSING (AP) — Is there a chance of the New York Stock Exchange moving to Michigan?

The Senate thinks its worth spending $2,500 to find out.

A resolution creating a special committee "to seek the relocation of the New York Stock Exchange in Michigan" passed the Senate Thursday on a voice vote.

The Senate Business Committee set a $2,500 ceiling on expenses of committee members, yet to be appointed.

THE SPONSOR

Sen. Haskell Nichols, R - Jackson, sponsored the resolution.

His resolution noted the stock exchange is seeking a new location "and is reported to be considering locating outside of New York City."

"Michigan is a logical site for the exchange," said the resolution, "being the home state of many corporations whose securities are traded on the exchange."

The resolution further noted that such a move "would be of great value to the economy of the state."

The stock exchange is thinking of moving because New York City is considering a tax on stock transactions.

French-in the Country Manner by Drexel

Where could you find a warmer, more romantic expression of your mood than in this new collection with its stately armoires, its bed that might have come straight from a Normandy villa? Where could you find a more eloquent statement of your taste than in these authentically soft but substantial lines, and surfaces that seem caressed by time? Persimmon veneers on solid mahogany and pecan woods are finished in rich Deep Umber or a lighter, weathered Rustique for the old French fruitwood look. Accent pieces are yours to choose in bright brick-toned Rouge Ancien.

Morse Blasts MSU on Center

University Role in Foreign Policy Hit

DETROIT (UPI) — Oregon Sen. Wayne Morse said yesterday, "The desire of educational institutions to become operating arms of foreign policy is leading to bad practicies and bad results."

Morse, chairman of the labor and public welfare committee's subcommittee on education, had heavy criticism for use of educational facilities by the nation's foreign investigative departments in a speech at Wayne State University here.

The senator, an outspoken critic of the United States' foreign policy, mentioned the recently publicized disclosure that Michigan State University had been used by the CIA in its intelligence work in Viet Nam.

"It is a matter of increasing concern that the Michigan State administrators seem to view the role of their Center for International Programs not as an educational program but as an operations arm of national foreign policy agencies," Morse said.

He said that because of recent disclosures that educational facilities are being used for foreign intelligence work he is leery of the administration's proposed International Education Act, which his subcommittee is scheduled to discuss.

'CAREFUL DRAFTING'

Morse said, "The bill will have to be much more carefully drafted than it is now" if aid to education through the Office of Education is to be "sufficiently divorced from special purposes and sufficiently free from ties to a particular policy to be worthwhile."

The Oregon Democrat said the bill, whose title is "To provide for the strengthening of American educational resources for international studies and research," has a state purpose of providing federal assistance to institutions of higher education to strengthen their international studies programs at the graduate level.

Short Senate Term Spurs Petition Drive

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's three leading U. S. Senate candidates said Thursday they plan to gather twice as many petition signatures as they needed before the death of Sen Patrick V. McNamara.

Because McNamara died of a stroke last Saturday, state voters will choose in November a man to fill his seat from Dec. 1 until next Jan. 3. At the same time, they'll elect a six-term senator to take office Jan. 3.

★ ★ ★

Spokesmen for U. S. Rep. Robert Griffin, R-Mich., and Democrats G. Mennen Williams and Jerome P. Cavanagh all said they expected to gather the signatures before the June 14 filing deadline.

Williams and Cavanagh probably will gather at least 25,000 signatures on each of the two sets of petitions. Griffin probably will gather about 15,000 on each.

MORE VOTES

Democratic candidates need more to qualify under state law because their secretary of state candidate got more votes in in 1964.

Two less-known candidates, Detroit Democrat James L. Elsman and Grand Rapids Republican Deane Baker, said they would not try to petition for the one-month term.

★ ★ ★

"This will be a tremendous job," said Secretary of State James Hare. "Some voters, and I suppose some workers, will be confused by having two nominating petitions handed to them."

Gov. George Romney is empowered to appoint a successor to McNamara to serve until Dec. 1. He is expected to name Griffin.

Cuba Said Aiding Congo Guerrillas

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — An anti-Castro organization says Cuba has sent 700 military advisers to the Congo to train Communist guerrilla forces.

The report, by the Citizens Committee for a Free Cuba, an American group, said "the principal task of the Cubans is to train Congolese recruits in guerrilla warfare and terrorist activities. The ratio of Cuban cadres to recruits is established at two Cubans to each 50 Congolese. These would bring Congolese terrorist forces to roughly 27,500."

★ ★ ★

The committee said an agreement to dispatch the Cubans was ratified at the tricontinental conference of revolutionaries in Havana last January.

Viet Sin City's Future Bleak Without GI Cash

DA NANG, Viet Nam (UPI) — Sin City East is dead.

The garish neon lights no longer pierce the darkness of the narrow sidestreets of Da Nang, which once boasted wall-to-wall bars with wall-to-wall girls.

The blaring juke boxes are silenced and the only music you hear is the high-pitched calls of the rag pickers and fish peddlers.

Da Nang's hundreds of lovely Vietnamese bar girls who made an art of chiseling a river of colored water out of lonely GIs and Marines at $1.50 a glass have faded away.

Like moths they follow the bright lights and most of them have fled to Saigon and other cities in Viet Nam which still swing.

Da Nang doesn't swing anymore.

Odds are that it never will swing again.

The hordes of U.S. Marines that once were anxious to plunk down fistfuls of cash to wash the dust of a hundred hot marches out of their parched throats don't come to Sin City East anymore.

They stopped coming on March 10, the day that Da Nang's restless students took to the streets to denounce anyone and everyone who got in their way — and that included the Americans.

One veteran mama-san stood in the door of her garishly painted bar this week and looked down the study, deserted streets.

"Maybe they come back next week," she said.

One U.S. Marine officer figured differently. "Maybe Da Nang liberty will be restored on the 12th of never," he said.

* * *

A massive American recreation area is being built out at the base area and the word is that Marines will never get liberty in Da Nang again.

Birth Cost Rises $123 in a Decade

By Science Service

CHICAGO — A baby cost $193 in 1953 but Papa had to pay $316 a decade later. A survey by the Health Information Foundation and the National Opinion Research Center, University of Chicago, attributes the increased cost of bringing people into the world to the fact that mothers sought medical care early in pregnancy and more physicians' services were required than in the past.

The percentage of births occurring in hospitals had risen to 98.7 per cent in 1963.

Honor Society Induction Held

43 WTHS Students Feted at Reception

By JEAN PRIESTLEY

Forty-three new members were inducted into the Waterford Township High School chapter of National Honor Society at a recent reception given by the faculty.

Louis Best, NHS president, was master of ceremonies with remarks made by Richard Powell, counselor and sponsor, and Dr. G. E. Megiveron, principal.

Senior members took part in the ceremony, pinning the inductees.

New members are seniors Julie Appel, Margaret Bachelor, Cathy Bauguess, Pam Bedford, Tom Bills, Gwen Coppinger, Sandy Elliott, Steve Fettinger, Joyce Galloway, Roger Gettig and Carolyn Gustafson.

Other seniors are Barbara Hammond, Jeanette Howey, Karin Hunt, Dave Joann, Jan Johnston, Janet Madole, Gayanne Mansfield, Barbara Meacham, Carol Petar, Jean Priestley, Kathy Stratton and Nancy Hunt.

JUNIOR NAMES

Juniors pinned were Jana Ballard, Brent Barnes, Diane Bowren, Fern Davis, Steve Day, Joann Field, Willis Flood, Bill Hill, Mary Krug, Marilee Mason and John Mercer.

Others were Gretchen Platz, Mary Poole, Randy Rieth, Mary Rocheleau, Janice Sharrard, Bob Slating, Betty Wheeler, Pete Worden and Linda Yonke.

Last year's members participating were Sandy Armstrong, Louis Best, Mary Burrell, Dale Epker, Martha Forbes, Tom McCulloch, Dru Neal, Carol Nye, Mary Ott, Janet Pascoe, Jean Priestley, Regan Rieth, Al Roth, Kay Sirlin, Marysue Trerice and Kathy Waara.

Al Dohner and Mark Jablonski were unable to attend.

Walled Lake Reception Is Set

By RON MOORHEAD

The junior class of Walled Lake High School has started the ball rolling for the annual junior-senior reception.

The reception will be held May 13 from 7:30 to 11 p.m.

Reception entertainment will begin at 8. Juniors refuse to comment on the show because, according to tradition, the theme and all related items are kept secret.

The dance will be held from 9-11 and refreshments served. Sophomores are welcome to attend the dance, but not the show. Dress clothes are appropriate.

A new addition to the Co-op system, Health Operations, will be inaugurated next year.

Twenty-two students have already enrolled for the class in nursing training.

Out of the six high schools offering this course in Michigan, Walled Lake is the only school that will have a registered nurse as the instructor.

The program will be coordinated by Mrs. John Ashby. Mrs. Ashby is a registered nurse and has worked with students at the Proud Lake Camp since 1959.

Students who take an active part in the new program will be able to work 15 to 20 hours per week in nursing homes in the area or selected area hospitals.

According to Lester Carlson, Walled Lake vocational director, the nursing program has three main purposes. It offers vocational training, provides exploratory experience for careers in nursing, and gives students insight into career opportunities.

BHHS to Give Variety Show

By LINDA McNEILL

Bloomfield Hills High School presents its annual Variety Show May 12, 13, and 14 in the high school Little Theatre.

Performances will be held at 8 p.m. featuring the Rogues, the Four-Fifths, the Jacks, and the Jills as well as other student performers.

The show is sponsored by the Executive Club with Lynn Skinner as student chairman.

"Carousel," the theme for this year's prom will be presented by the junior class of BHHS. It will be held in the Golden Room of Oakland University on May 28, at 9 p.m.

The Shield, BHHS newspaper, will sponsor its second car wash Saturday, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Tonight from 7:30 to 10 the Girl's Athletic Association presents its seventh annual Spring Carnival.

Oxford Seniors

Honor Students Listed

By ANN ASHLEY

This week, Oxford Area Community High School Principal H. B. Johnson announced senior class honors.

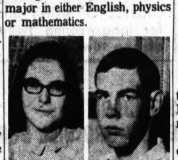
Heading the list was Charlotte Schmidt, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Schmidt, 1905 Davison Lake.

A "B" received in her junior year of chemistry was her only mark below an "A". It gave her 3.97 points out of a possible 4.0.

Charlotte's activities in high school include French Club, Student Council, National Honor Society, Choralaires and choir.

★ ★ ★

Next fall, she plans to enter Michigan State University and major in either English, physics or mathematics.



C. SCHMIDT R. FOX

SECOND HIGHEST

Richard Fox earned second highest honors.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Fox, 45 Mack, Leonard.

Richard received 3.81 points.

At the annual Dad's-All-Sports Banquet, he also received the athletic-scholar award given to the boy who was judged most outstanding in sports and studies.

★ ★ ★

Richard played football, basketball, baseball and track.

CLUB ACTIVITIES

He was in the Varsity O Club, and class vice president in both his freshman and sophomore years.

Richard was also a member of the French Club, Student Council and National Honor Society.

He is senior class president and Varsity Club president this year.

★ ★ ★

His future plans include Western Michigan University where he will major in mathematics.

HIGH AVERAGES

Pontiac Northern Juniors Await 'Magic Town' Prom

By DEBBIE KILLEN

Pontiac Northern's juniors will hold their prom entitled "Magic Town" tomorrow night in the school cafeteria.

The cafeteria will be transformed into a town of the 1890 era with buildings, trees and a town square.

★ ★ ★

Mammy Balos and his band will play at the dance, from 8:30 to midnight.

A fictitious town newspaper, consisting of stories and names of all couples attending, will be distributed by newsboys Jim and Jeff Dauw.

Paul Olson spearheaded the decoration committee, creating the town setting.

★ ★ ★

General chairmen of the dance were Nancy Watkins and Scott Hudson.

OTHER HEADS

Other committee heads were Kathy Fournier and Debbie Killen, decorations; Sandy Caldwell, publicity; Mike Sneed, band and equipment; and Nancy Sumpter and Randy Eldridge, finance.

Others were Robert Stoneburg and James Overton, tickets and door prizes; Michael Davis, chaperones; Barbara Whisman, refreshments; and Doris Losey and Bill Davis, favors.

The cleanup committee will be members of the senior prom committee.

★ ★ ★

PNH band will present its annual spring concert Wednesday at 8 p.m. in Northern's auditorium.

TRUMPET SECTION

The program will consist of selections by the full band, one featuring the trumpet section and a solo featuring Don McGeen on the bass clarinet with piano accompaniment by Susan Eckley.

A. Roger Welton will conduct all numbers except two. These two will be directed by Robert B. Schadel, a graduating senior from Michigan State University.

He is currently student teaching under Welton.

★ ★ ★

Tickets for the concert may be purchased from any band member.

WATER SHOW

Next week, the Catalinas will hold their annual water show. This year's theme is "The Circus."

The club, under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Thomas, has worked since February to produce this extravaganza.

Forty-four Catalinas and seven boys from Northern's swim team will be in the cast.

Performances will run May 12, 13 and 14.

Tickets may be purchased from any Catalina member.

Thespian Society to Induct 20 at Groves Saturday

Twenty members will be inducted into the National Thespian Society tomorrow at Groves High School.

The society is devoted to the advancement of dramatic arts in high schools.

The Thespian Society is named after a Greek called Thespis who was the first actor in ancient times.

Students and their guests will attend the awards banquet in the cafeteria at 6:30 p.m.

★ ★ ★

Following will be the formal induction of new members at 8:15 in Groves' Little Theater.

Seniors inducted will be John Lyons, Elliot Shifman, Patti Harling, Vicki Detleffs, Judy Hickok, Cathy Sarkesian, Bruce Callner and Candy Spriggel.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Clarkston Seniors on Class Trip

By CATHY RICHARDSON

After years of dreaming, plotting and working, Clarkston High School's Class of 1966 has reached its senior trip goal.

During their high school years class members earned points through working on magazine sales, dances, floats, the concession stand, and other class events.

Now 108 seniors, along with their chaperones, have used the points and headed for Washington, D.C. and New York City.

Chaperones for the expedition are Robert Casteel, social studies teacher; Lawrence Thibault, mechanical drawing instructor; Harry McGrath, counselor, and their wives.

At 5 a.m. Wednesday, the seniors left the high school parking lot on buses for Detroit Metropolitan Airport. From there, they flew to Washington, D.C.

BIG DEAL—Michael Madison of 6637 Roselawn, Independence Township is all set to buy the Brooklyn Bridge during Clarkston High School's senior trip to New York City and Washington, D.C. Chaperoning the excursion are faculty members, Robert Casteel, Lawrence Thibault, Harry McGrath and their wives.

After lunch yesterday they were bused to New York City, via turnpikes.

A recently released motion picture and the famous stage show of the Rockettes at Radio City Music Hall completed the events of the day.

The United Nations Headquarters and Rockefeller Center were visited today.

★ ★ ★

FREE TO TOUR

Tomorrow morning is free for the students to explore the city.

★ ★ ★

One student group will leave New York City from Newark Airport early tomorrow evening to arrive in Clarkston at 7:30 p.m.

The remaining members of the trip will leave via Kennedy Airport, and will return to Clarkston at 9:30 p.m.

★ ★ ★

Seniors not going on the trip are enjoying a three-day vacation.

STUDENTS CAMPAIGN

Clarkston's juniors, sophomores, and freshmen are listening to students campaigning for next year's Student Government offices.

At the campaign convention held earlier this week, candidates were introduced and speeches and skits presented.

When the underclassmen vote on Monday and Tuesday, they will choose between Caroline Giles and Neil Stalker for president.

★ ★ ★

Dawn Evely and Bob Nicoson are competing for the office of vice-president. Joette Schultz and Sue Bennett are lone candidates running for secretary and treasurer, respectively.

S. Viet Nationalist Leader Says Present Conditions Not Right for Country's Elections

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A leader of one of South Viet Nam's major nationalist parties said today elections in the country will have no meaning unless two thirds of the people are able to vote freely.

He estimated that only about one fifth could do this at present.

Ha Thuc Ky, secretary-general of a faction of the Dai Viet party and no relation to Premier Nguyen Cao Ky, said that the elections promised by the military government could be held only in cities and towns under present conditions.

"The peasants and farmers could not vote," Ky said in an interview. "These would not be true elections. They would be a fake.

"The Viet Cong are cunning and might even stop fighting in some areas to make them appear secure, then infiltrate for the voting."

SIX MONTHS

He suggested at least six months for organizing elections and an interim civilian government to serve during the period.

As now planned by the government, Ky said, the elections "will only be a show to satisfy the foreigners. It will not be representative of the people."

Ky, 47, a forestry engineer who served briefly as interior minister in 1964, also predicted that the voting promised by the military junta in the fall would produce a Buddhist-controlled National Assembly.

"The Buddhists want to oust the Americans and leave this country to neutralism," he said.

Ky spent five years in prison for political activity under the regime of the late President Ngo Dinh Diem. He said the Dai Viet party is not organized on regional or religious lines, and added:

"The Dai Viet feels it is necessary for the United States to stay and help in the fight against the Communists. We are grateful for U.S. help. Viet Nam cannot survive without this help."

But he said it would be a mistake to blame all anti-Americanism on Communist agitation. "Nationalists also express their views because of the U.S. support of the military government," he said.

He said the Dai Viet party was awaiting formulation of the election law before deciding whether to enter candidates. He declined to estimate his party's strength, declaring it received little protection from the government against Viet Cong threats.

Ky charged that "minority groups" had fattened themselves on American money. "The peasants have received only drops of U.S. aid," he said.

MUCH TO DO

He said the Viet Cong could be defeated militarily but much more had to be done in the countryside for a political victory.

"You can beat a basin of water," he said, "but the water remains."

List Buildup for Artillery

4 Battalions Added Since Start of '66

WASHINGTON (AP) — Four artillery battalions have been added to the U.S. forces in Viet Nam since January in a further strengthening of the Army's ground firepower, Defense Department spokesmen said today.

These additions bring the total artillery battalions now stationed in the Southeast Asian country to about 21, comprising about 10,000 men and some 250 heavy duty cannons.

★ ★ ★

This level is described as sufficient to meet present needs, although the United States can order another dozen artillery battalions to duty if necessary in the coming months.

★ ★ ★

The ground artillery operations were pointed up with first official disclosure that U.S. troops had blasted across the Cambodian border at Communist forces.

LIGHT CANNON

It was learned that 105mm howitzers were used to bombard Communist positions in that attack. This light cannon has a range of about 10 miles.

Other heavy duty weaponry spread among the artillery battalions include the 155mm and 175mm howitzers and 8-inch cannons with about 18-mile ranges.

★ ★ ★

The feasibility of putting more ground artillery into Viet Nam has been under study for some months.

Chemical warfare is believed to have first been attempted during the wars of the Athenians and Spartans between 431 and 404 B.C.

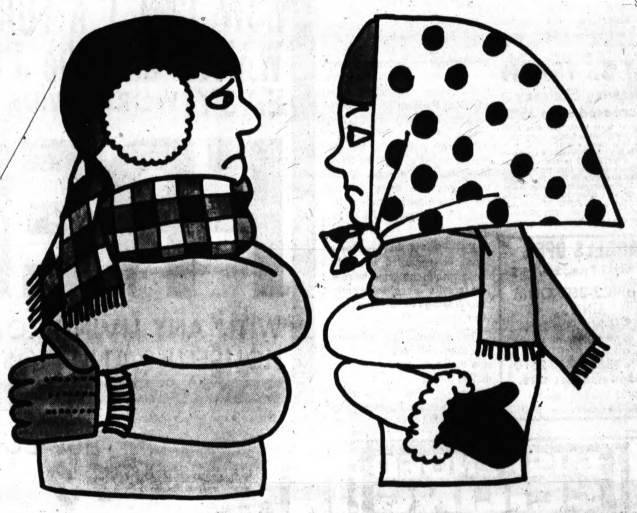
Why do people with hard-to-heat rooms turn to electric heat?



It's pure and simple

Electric heat is the clean, modern heat—no flame, no fumes. It's a snap to install—costs less, too—because it's more compact and needs no flue. And only electric heat is 100% efficient; the heat is created right where it's used.

It's also economical. You can buy an attractive, low-operating-cost unit for as little as $35-$40 (plus thermostat and installation). And we're talking about a unit that can turn a 12' x 20' polar region into a tropical delight. Just dial the exact warmth you want, and you get it. Comfortable heat from head to feet.

So why shiver your timbers in a chilly bedroom, den, or basement any longer? There's a low-cost electric heating unit for every situation, including yours. Give us a call. We'll send an Edison Heating Specialist to discuss equipment, installation, and operating cost with you. There's no obligation, of course.

Purge May Follow

Rift Inside China Widens

TOKYO (AP) — Peking is stepping up a campaign against "antiparty" elements which the Red regime admits are threatening its existence.

In an extraordinary move, the Chinese government has disclosed that rebellious groups which seek its overthrow now exist, not only among intellectuals, but in youth groups, the Army and even in the Communist party itself.

The existence of these wayward elements was made clear this week in a series of officially approved articles, editorials and directives.

The Red Chinese leaders admit that the enemies of the 17-year- old regime "are generally 'authorities' and enjoy a certain 'reputation' " — a sign that they may include high-ranking Communists.

MAKES CONFESSION

The disclosures of these opponents came after the publication of an abject confession by Kuo Mo-jo, winner of a Lenin prize and the acknowledged leader of the country's culture.

The unusual admissions could be the prelude to a purge of "rightists" far deeper than that of 1957. The Liberation Army Daily, Red China's Army paper, said on Wednesday: "The current great struggle is being carried to greater depths."

★ ★ ★

The army's involvement in the campaign was emphasized today in an army directive mentioning the "struggle between the two lines of army building."

★ ★ ★

It called on officers and soldiers to use the writings of Party Chairman Mao Tze-tung to combat "imperialism, modern revisionism, reactionaries of all countries and every kind of monsters and freaks."

GIVES WARNING

The army newspaper Wednesday cautioned readers to remember the rebellious elements in Hungary that led to the 1956 uprising.

The newspaper said that "every counter-revolutionary movement starts in the realm of the mind," seeking to win over public opinion by subverting ideology, the ruling group, theoretical and academic work, literature and art.

In attacking wayward Chinese intellectuals, the leadership said "criminal" or "antiparty" activities were uncovered in academic work, art, literature, education, history, philosophy and journalism. It said the culprits were linked with "right-wing opportunists within the party."

The material published in the past few days makes clear that there are two struggles — one a "life and death" fight against enemies of the party, the other a campaign to win back elements which have strayed in their devotion to Mao's teachings.

SECOND GROUP

A paragraph in the army daily suggested that Kuo Mo-jo may be in the second group.

"As for those who have written a number of bad works but who are one with the party and socialism," it said, "their shortcomings and errors can be rectified in the course of practice. There should be strict differentiation of those comrades from the handful of antiparty, antisocialist elements."

Guevara Said to Be in Peru

ROME (AP) — An Italian journalist claims he interviewed long-missing Cuban guerrilla leader Ernesto Guevara two weeks ago in a Peruvian mountain hideout.

Paolo Senise, 42, correspondent for the weekly Le Ore, said Thursday the interview convinced him that Guevara was using his remote headquarters to direct guerrilla campaigns in Venezuela, Bolivia, Ecuador, Colombia and Peru.

Guevara, once second in command to Fidel Castro, disappeared from Cuba in March 1965.

In Lima, Peru's director of police denied that Guevara was in the country. "It appears more likely that he is dead," he said.

Until 1918, passports for foreign travel were required only in the time of war.

Laser Energy, Radiation Join to Treat Cancer

By Science Service

PHOENIX, Ariz. — The combined use of radiation and laser energy shows promise as a future cancer treatment, the American Radium Society meeting here was told.

★ ★ ★

Only one patient so far has been reported getting the treatment, but the success of the test confirmed more detailed studies on tissue samples, Dr. James T. Helsper of Pasadena, Calif., said.

He cautioned that his report must be regarded as early and experimental, but he said the results were sufficiently encouraging to deserve further study.

The patient had extensive reticulum cell sarcoma of the skin that was controlled by radiation therapy, but which was causing a drop in the white blood cell count because of the extent of the disease.

ELEPHANTS LOOSE—Three huge elephants, riding in a tractor-trailer truck of the Christiani Brothers and Wallace Circus, were freed yesterday when the truck ran off a road and plunged down a 20-foot embankment near Reading, Pa. One elephant (foreground) suffered a broken left hind leg. The truck driver suffered a broken arm but rounded up the elephants and chained them to a tree.

'Be Firm With Indifferent Pupil'

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed.D.

Dear Dr. Nason: My grandson, a lovable, kind, fourth-grader is doing poorly in school. He just doesn't care. His mother has seen his teacher a number of times, but the boy still has an attitude of complete indifference. We don't know what to do.

Could you give us any suggestions?

Mrs. L. W., Hibbing, Minn.

DR. NASON

It is unfortunate this boy has been allowed to drift along doing unsatisfactory work until he now shows "complete indifference." His indifference should have been recognized and remedied at the first sign.

I assume he is now indifferent to learning his multiplication tables, learning to write, to read, preparing his homework, reciting in class and each of the other things concerned with success in school.

His father and mother should select one area and, with the teacher's cooperation, insist that he make progress in that area. Effort on his part will bring some success and make it much easier to get results in other areas.

It is ridiculous that parents should stand idly by and wait for a boy in the fourth grade to take interest rather than to see to it that he does his work.

Dear Dr. Nason: The "classroom drifter" is a common sight in one of the clinics for which I do therapy. Half of the teenage boys in a current group have reading and writing disabilities. Typically, they are referred to the clinic because of "emotional blocks."

They are of average or better IQ's. I find the school has put the cart before the horse. The acquisition of reading and writing skills is not basically psychogenic. These boys are very unhappy having to survive against the hard wall of four years of English and to cope with written examinations.

I propose that schools eliminate regular English requirements for these students. Four years of intensive remedial reading and writing should be substituted. Oral examinations could replace written ones in the other subjects until a minimal competence is reached.

F.D.A., East Rockaway, N.Y.

I agree in part with your recommendation. The regular English courses are impossible barriers to the student with disabilities in reading and writing. Removal of the barriers would facilitate their progress.

Oral reports and examinations would give them an opportunity for immediate successes. However, students faced with four years of remedial work would soon become disinterested and bored.

Masked Gunman Ruins City's Holdup Record

MARTHA'S VINEYARD, Mass. (AP) — A masked gunman who held up a bartender here and escaped with $226 last week ended a long and proud record of this island resort community.

★ ★ ★

Notable's Widow Dies

MERION, Pa. (AP) — Mrs. Albert C. Barnes, widow of the patent medicine manufacturer and art collector, died last Friday at the age of 92.

600-Mile Hikers at Reed City

REED CITY (AP) — Five men on a 600-mile hike from Sault Ste. Marie to Richmond, Ind., reached Reed City Thursday. They were some 20 miles off their announced timetable.

Bad weather earlier this week slowed the group by forcing them to don all available clothing and use socks as gloves to ward off the cold.

They began the hike April 27.

Leading the group is 66-year-old Marion Pearson of Grand Rapids, known for his long distance hikes. He and Wyoming Lions Club President Duane Smith, at last report, had not eaten since the hike began.

Pearson is trying to cover the entire distance without food. Smith seeks to match the effort. The Air Force reportedly is interested in the results.

Hearing Draws No Citizen Participation

OCC Board OKs $4.78-Million Budget for '66-67

Oakland Community College's Board of Trustees last night approved a 1966-67 budget of $4,786,843.

A public hearing on the budget was scheduled in conjunction with the board's regular meeting but it drew no citizen participation.

Chief source of income in the new budget will be an estimated $2,546,965 from the 1 mill voted local tax. State aid is expected to yield $1.1-million in revenue and $821,375 is anticipated in tuition and fees.

Other income sources include state reimbursement programs, earned interest and repayment of building and site money to the operating fund.

The two major expenditures in the balanced budget are $1,674,928 earmarked for the Highland Lakes Campus and $1,352,230 for college administration and services.

EXPENDITURES

Included in the Highland Lakes expenditures are $1,412,395 for operating, $154,433 for equipment and furniture and $108,100 for building improvements.

A total of $1,025,021 of the college administration and services appropriation is for operating, with $242,800 slated for building expenditures and $85,200 for equipment and furniture.

The budget calls for expenditures of $908,444 for the Auburn Hills Campus and $632,241 for the Orchard Ridge Campus.

Other expenditures include $65,000 for the student activities program, $59,000 for auxiliary services, $75,000 for the President's Growth Fund and $20,000 as the college's share of loan funds and federal programs.

★ ★ ★

A year ago at this time, the board approved a 1965-66 budget of $2.6 million.

4 Named as Canvassers for June 13 Trustee Vote

Two Democrats and two Republicans were named last night to serve as a board of canvassers to canvass the June 13 Oakland Community College election.

Appointed by the OCC Board of Trustees were Republicans Mrs. Donald E. White and Charles L. Lyle and Democrats John W. Brook and Helen M. Gillmore.

All six seats on the board of trustees will be at stake in the election.

In other business last night, the board received proposed faculty and administrative salary schedules for the coming year, reflecting increases of about 5 per cent.

★ ★

Board members will study the proposed wage packages and probably act on the measures the latter part of this month.

AUTHORIZE HIRING

Also last night, the board authorized hiring of eight faculty members and three non-instructional personnel.

★ ★ ★

Included in the new faculty appointees was an associate professor in English, Dr. Edwin E. Ellert who has been at Colorado State University since 1962.

★ ★ ★

Board members also designated the Seed-Roberts Agency as the agent of record for the college's group insurance program.

Architects' Campus Plan Is Accepted

Architects received concurrence last night from the Oakland Community College Board of Trustees on a partially completed master plan for the proposed Auburn Hills Campus.

Building placement and architectural style calling for flat-roofed buildings of varying heights have been determined to date in the plan being prepared by Caudill, Howlett and Scott of Houston, Tex.

Detroit architects, Giffels and Rossetti, will begin preparing working drawings July 1 on the first stage of construction of the Pontiac Township campus.

This phase of work is slated for completion in July 1968 for accommodation of 3,000 students.

Troopers Plan Open House

Sgt. Karl Lutz, commanding officer of the Pontiac Post of the Michigan State Police, today issued a reminder that open house will be held at the post May 20 — "Hospitality Day" of Michigan Week.

Visiting hours will be from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The post is located at 1295 N. Telegraph, Waterford Township.

"Everyone is invited and we hope there will be a good turnout," Lutz said.

"This is a special opportunity to see how a post operates and the services performed. Officers will act as guides and answer questions or supply any information desired."

In addition to the reception, there will be an exhibit, according to Lutz.

Similar programs will be held at all other Michigan State Police posts the same day.

At State Hospital

Study Asks Rebuilding

A group of University of Detroit architectural students is scheduled to make a presentation tonight calling for complete reconstruction of Pontiac State Hospital to enhance mental therapy.

The four students who participated in the 80-page study will present it to a panel of architectural school faculty members at the U. of D. student union.

Paul Mirski, one of the four students, said that his group decided on a study of Pontiac State Hospital because it was one of the more important state hospitals and represented a typical institution.

Mirski added that all U. of D. architectural students are required to select what they consider an architectural problem and develop a study aimed at solving it.

★ ★ ★

In their study, the students proposed that all existing buildings be torn down and replaced with modern facilities which, in themselves, would be of therapeutic value. Plans are included in the study.

'HOME' IMAGE

The new buildings would be designed to provide a "home" atmosphere rather than the institutional image of the present facilities.

Most patients would have private sleeping quarters, Mirski said.

Extensive landscaping features would contribute further to mental therapy, he added.

Mirski said the new facility could be erected on 20 per cent of the hospital's property and that funds from sale of the remaining land could be applied toward construction costs.

NO ESTIMATES

He said no cost estimates were made on the proposed new hospital complex.

Mirski is from New Hampshire. His associates in the study were Thomas Anglewicz, Kenneth Mitchell and Charles VanSlambrook, all from Detroit.

Skin Divers Find Body of Middleville Girl, 4

MIDDLEVILLE (AP) — Skin divers today recovered the body of 4-year-old Susan Assfy from the Thornapple River under a bridge less than a block from the parents' bakery in Middleville.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zaid Assfy disappeared shortly before noon Thursday while at play.

Tell Boyfriend Everything

Time for Truth Is Now

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I did a terrible thing. I told my boyfriend my parents were dead and I was living with my aunt. You see, we live in a dump in a poor neighborhood, and I was ashamed to have him see my house, so I've been having him pick me up at my girlfriend's house.

ABBY

Not only that, but I was ashamed to introduce him to my parents because they're foreigners and don't speak English very well.

He's getting serious, Abby, and I don't know what to do. If I tell him the truth now, he'll never believe another word I say. And he probably won't ever want to see me again. I love him very much, and I'm all torn up inside about what I've done. How can I make things right without losing him?

TORN UP

DEAR TORN UP: Tell him the truth and accept the consequences. If he forgives you, consider yourself lucky and vow never to lie again. And don't ever be ashamed of your parents because they're "foreigners." We all have our roots in a foreign country. Unless we happen to be American Indians, that is.

DEAR ABBY: Recently we introduced our very good friends to these people I'll call the "Joneses." Our very good friends invited the Joneses and us out to dinner. The Joneses ordered the best of everything and more than they could eat. I was so shocked and ashamed. Abby, my mother taught me never to eat too much at somebody else's house, and not to order the most expensive meal at somebody else's expense.

I wish you would put some rules down for people like the Joneses. They sure need it. Not only that, but my husband had to tell the Joneses to thank our friends for the nice dinner.

ASHAMED

DEAR ASHAMED: If it was just a spur-of-the-moment dinner party, and the Joneses were included only because they were with you, you owe your "very good friends" an apology. But if your friends merely met the Joneses through you, and sought to entertain them, you needn't feel ashamed.

Circumstances sometimes require introducing acquaintances to friends, but an introduction isn't necessarily a recommendation.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "CAN'T GO ON" IN DEL MAR: YOU CAN go on. And you MUST. "Anyone can carry his burden, however hard, until nightfall. Anyone can live sweetly, patiently lovingly, purely, 'til the sun goes down. And this is all that life really means." (Robert Louis Stevenson.)

League Elects Area Woman to Board

Mrs. Thomas Snelham of Birmingham was elected to the board of directors of the League of Women Voters of the United States at the 27th Convention of the League of Women Voters this week in Denver, Colo.

President of the Birmingham Bloomfield League from 1957-59, Mrs. Snelham later served two terms as president of the Michigan LWV.

Elected to the Board of the League of Women Voters of Michigan in 1959, she was field service chairman for two years. During this time six new leagues were organized.

"It was about here when I had to discontinue other activities," says Mrs. Snelham.

BUSY HOMEMAKER

"Other activities" included serving PTA boards and the PTA Council; being a Girl Scout Leader and den mother; the Needlework Guild and the Junior League.

Mrs. Snelham has an A.B. degree from Vassar, and attended Katherine Gibbs Secretarial School.

The Snelhams have three children.

The 1966-68 program adopted by convention delegates adds the study of a new issue — an evaluation of U. S. relations with the Peoples Republic of China — to the foreign policy section of the League's program.

MRS. SNELHAM

As cochairmen of the annual geranium sale by the Women's Association of the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra, these women do a little work ahead of time. Mrs. Ted Koella, Sylvan Lake, gets a spot in her garden ready for the plants she has chosen. Mrs. William Furlong, Silver Sands Drive, displayed her flowers at the recent card party of the City Federation of Women's Club. Geraniums may be ordered from any member of the women's association to be picked up next Friday between 8:30 a.m. and 7 p.m. at the Ottawa Drive home of Mrs. Maxwell Shadley.

Learns Job as Horse Trainer 'Behooves' Kentucky Grandma

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — At first glance, the trainer of Kentucky Derby hopeful Sean E. Indian is downright unbelievable.

Perhaps it's because of the boxes of geraniums around her stable, or the yellow curtains in the stable office.

Maybe it's the full-length mink coat and bright yellow slacks she wears as she instructs the exercise boy. It could be the mint green golf cart she uses around the Churchill Downs barn area.

Or her admonition to her frisky colt.

But despite the trappings, the gray-haired Mary Keim is a full-time trainer and quite serious about the business.

"I started her 10 years ago," her husband, Paul, a retired contractor from Evanston, Ill., said today. "I gave her a horse — half a horse really. I owned him with another man in Chicago."

The Kentucky-born Mrs. Keim was a conventional horse owner for about eight years, hiring regular trainers.

"I became a trainer just two years ago," she said. "We had a trainer who didn't show up for two weeks. I took over and had so much fun that I told him I didn't need him any more."

The Jockey Club issued her a license May 13, 1964, and she became the third official woman trainer.

Already, she holds a modest record. The first horse she saddled for a stakes race won. No other trainer, man or woman, has done that.

One of her horses, Indian Maid, won 24 races and placed in 36 others — out of the money in only four — with lifetime earnings of $303,357.

DERBY ENTRY

Her first entry in the Kentucky Derby, Mr. Pak, finished sixth last year, but she quickly pointed out he was only four lengths behind.

Becoming a horse trainer long after she became a grandmother was difficult, but, "I've had a lot of help," she said. "The late Jim Fitzsimmons was wonderful. I was a registered nurse, and I've found horses are very similar to people."

Admittedly, Sean E. Indian isn't given much of a chance to bring home the roses Saturday.

"I wouldn't have entered him if Graustark had been in, but now . . ."

Eastern Junior's Bellringers

This Unusual Sound Rings a Bell

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Women's Editor

Of all the musical groups in Pontiac, few are as unusual as the bellringers at Eastern Junior High School.

These 18 students, under the direction of William Coffing, have a repertoire of classical, semi-classical and folk music. By the time school is out in June, they will have given 28 performances this past year.

Coffing started the group almost accidentally. He had heard bellringers, but had never participated in a group himself. Then he received an advertisement in the mail offering a set of hand bells.

At first, the set at Eastern included only 25 bells; now there are 37 which give a range of three octaves.

DO-IT-YOURSELF

Along with the bells, Coffing ordered an instruction book and some music. Now, two and a half years later, he does some of his own arranging.

Last summer he attended a conference in Washington and found that there are about as many methods of handling bellringer groups as there are groups.

The bells vary in size from a couple of inches across to one nearly a foot in diameter. They are made by a company in Pennsylvania of 80 per cent copper and 20 per cent tin.

The clappers are plastic-covered metal. In England, the clapper is usually a ball of metal with a wooden pin stuck through it.

To be a member of Eastern's bellringer group a student must have good music ability, be a good citizen and be compatible with the other members.

HONOR STUDENTS

All are honor students, says Coffing. Practice is before and after school, but the students are sometimes out of classes to put on programs and cannot fall behind in their work.

★ ★ ★

Members of the bellringer group are Debbie Bradley, Alicia Thompson, Ann Pullis, Anthony Thomas, Jay Farr, Bill Katip, Douglas Harris, Grigor Hasted and Clinton Schoonover.

Others are Marianne Newman, Janice Marsh, Beth Stickney, Andrea Jackson, Lana Coleman, Michelle Dumbrigue, Debbie Martinson, Lois Haskins and Ernest Quin.

In June half the group will graduate. Next fall another nine eighth and ninth graders will take their place.

NEXT PROGRAM

Next Tuesday, Coffing and his students will perform for Pontiac Tuesday Musicale at the annual luncheon of the club.

★ ★ ★

Also performing at the Devon Gables event will be Nancy Puskas, soprano soloist.

She is currently studying with Alice Engram at Oakland University and is soloist at Central Methodist Church. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Walter Schmitz.

Pontiac Press Photo

Eastern Junior High School Bellringers will present a program at Devon Gables Tuesday noon for members of Tuesday Musicale at the annual May luncheon. From the left are Michelle Dumbrigue, Phillips Street; Debbie Martinson, North East Boulevard; Lois Haskins, Russell Street and Ernest Quin, Whittemore Street.

Wins Grant From ABWA

Members of Tipacon charter chapter, American Business Women's Association, awarded Nancy Leo a scholarship to Oakland University at the Wednesday evening meeting in Bedell's.

The group also voted a donation to the Pontiac Cultural Arts Center.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Lucinda Wyckoff talked on refinishing and antiquing furniture and Mrs. Cyril Borst spoke of continuing education courses.

★ ★ ★

Guests present were Mrs. James Patterson, Mrs. Floy Stocker, Sue Didier, Patricia Marquette, Mrs. P. M. Sinclair, Mrs. Vina Davison, Mrs. Grace Whitehead, Susan Craft, Mrs. Edith Phillips, Mrs. Ward O'Brien, June Star, Quanita Belding, Jane Keller, Marie Larson.

Nursery Schools to Send Delegates to Conference

Several area cooperative nursery schools, all members of the Michigan Council of Cooperative Nurseries, (MCCN) will be sending representatives to the state conference Monday and Tuesday at Kellogg Center on the Michigan State University campus, East Lansing.

Among those from the area expected to participate are Temple Beth Jacob, Central Methodist, North Oakland Association for Retarded Children, and Tiny Tot.

★ ★ ★

BIG CONFERENCE

More than 600 parents and teachers from cooperative nurseries throughout the state will attend the 55 workshop and discussion groups.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Donald N. Michael, resident fellow at the Institute for Policy Research, Washington, D. C., and author of the book, "The Next Generation" will speak at the Monday dinner on "Tomorrow's World."

★ ★ ★

On Tuesday, Dr. J. Clayton Lafferty, Detroit consulting psychologist, will talk at a luncheon on "Today's Child — Values That Defeat Learning".

★ ★ ★

Other highlights of the conference will be displays of school materials and equipment, films and open houses at three Lansing nurseries.

★ ★ ★

The two-day conference is jointly sponsored by the MCCN and the university.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

In case you missed the columns last week in which I reported an interview with Joyce Lee concerning her famous facial exercises, let me tell you that she has her own private salon in Beverly Hills, Calif., where she works miracles with many of the world's famous.

Today I want to bring you some of her general advice and then an exercise or two. Miss Lee contends that much damage is done by sleeping on conventional pillows. The face should never touch the mattress or be mashed into a pillow, thus pressing wrinkles in night after night. The original purpose of the hard wooden blocks used as pillows by the Japanese was supposed to be to keep the women's faces unlined. The small neck-rests found in most stores may be used as a pillow to support only the head or forehead.

More hints: Don't raise the eyebrows when applying mascara. Tilt the head backward and keep the forehead smooth. Don't wrinkle your nose when smiling or laughing. Never rest your face against your hands. Avoid pursing the lips or clenching the teeth. This makes lines on the upper lip. Try to eat, smoke, drink, talk, think and gargle, without pursing the lips. It can be done with a little practice.

This is an exercise for building up a scrawny, crepey, or flabby neck. Stand sideways in a doorway, about 10 inches away from the door jamb, with feet about 10 inches apart. Place a smooth folded towel on the door jamb and lean your forehead against the towel, holding the edge of the door jamb with the fingers, about waist high. Push your head forward against the cloth while pulling backward with hands, at the same time, on a one-to-10 count. Relax muscles slowly while counting to 10.

* * *

For the back of the neck, the same exercise but with the back of the head against the towel and the arms backward to hold to the jamb. Repeat three times daily six days a week. Always apply cream to the neck before doing this exercise.

Here is an exercise to lift drooping eyelids. First place strips of cellophane tape across the width of the forehead to resist wrinkles. Hold a mirror level in front of you and stare straight into your own eyes.

Open eyes more widely, slowly, in tiny movements, counting from one to six. At count six open your eyes wide, without raising the eyebrows or blinking. Release slowly, relax, and blink a few times. Repeat five times, two or three times a day.

Ikebana Slates Flower Program

The Detroit chapter of Ikebana International will present a demonstration of Japanese flower arranging at 12:30 p.m., Wednesday, in the lecture hall of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Mrs. Arthur F. Striker of Washington, D.C. who holds the rare honor of teacher certification in five of the leading schools of flower arranging in Japan, will speak on "Ikebana, from Ancient to Abstract."

On Thursday, she will conduct a workshop in the Birmingham Federal Savings and Loan Building, Lahser at Maple Roads.

Contact Mrs. P. N. Askounes or Mrs. C. E. Nickel, evenings, for reservations.

HURON at TELEGRAPH

On-Loan Films Available

A brand new slide filmstrip, "Hands of Hope — The Kenny Story," narrated by WJR disc jockey, J. P. McCarthy, is available to club groups.

The 13-minute presentation starts with album photos of the late Sister Kenny and her fight against polio. Then it shows how her work has been extended to help those disabled by other diseases and by injuries.

Picturing Kenny scholarship winners, research work, care and educational projects, the film features centers of activity such as Pontiac General Hospital, Rehabilitation Insitute and Wayne State University. The slidefilm also demonstrates the urgent needs in the area of rehabilitation.

To present "Hands of Hope" before a group, or to arrange to view it individually, call or write The Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation of Michigan, 261 Mack Boulevard, Detroit, Michigan 48201.

MENOPAUSE

National magazines and newspapers have recently called attention to new medical attitudes toward the female menopause. Now, an authoritative motion picture, "A Changing View of the Change of Life," is available on a free loan basis to women's organizations, industries, schools and clubs.

The 28-minute color film is presented as a public service of the Wilson Reasearch Foundation and distributed by Association Films, Inc.

Its purpose is to inform women that the menopause is not "inevitable" but a recognizable deficiency disease brought about by an imbalance in hormone production.

The film was produced by Dynamic Films, Inc. and is based entirely on information reported in leading medical journals.

In simple non-medical terms, using animation for greater clarity and understanding, the film explains the biological causes of menopause and the symptoms they produce. It emphasizes that physical effects of menopause should not be ignored, but discussed with the family physician.

★ ★ ★

The Wilson Research Foundation provides copies of a free booklet, "Feminine . . . For Life," to all organizations ordering the film.

Prints of "A Changing View of the Change of Life" may be ordered, on organization letterhead from Association Films, Inc. 561 Hillgrove Avenue, La Grange, Ill.

Showers Honor Girl to Become Bride Saturday

Scarlet Ann Rutherford who will become Mrs. Albert Henry Ericksen II, Saturday, in All Saints Episcopal Church, has been honored at four recent showers.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Richard Briggs of Marquette Street gave a linen and pantry shower with Mrs. Bob Dement cohostess. Mrs. Leslie Miller of Hathon Street and Mrs. Gerald Utt of Edmore Street also chose the evening hours for their shower.

★ ★ ★

Assisting Mrs. Edward McArthur at a recent shower in her Williams Lake home were Mrs. Gary Richmond and Mrs. Neil McClellan.

★ ★ ★

Parents of the honoree and her fiance are the Charles Rutherfords of Oliver Street and the Albert H. Ericksens of Berwick Drive.

Miss Parrott Is Wed

The Central Methodist Church, East Lansing, was the setting for the recent marriage of Patricia Ann Parrott to Douglas John Cook, followed by a church reception.

Their parents are the Eldon Parrotts of Rutherford Road and the Clare Cooks of Detroit.

★ ★ ★

Toni McCarthy and Donald Frye attended the couple who will reside in East Lansing. He is an alumnus of Michigan State University where he is continuing his studies. His bride is a sophomore at the university.

Niblick Club Starts Season

Members of the Niblick Club will open their golf season Tuesday.

The group welcomed new members Mrs. John Scriven and Mrs. Norman Underwood at a recent breakfast in the Pontiac Country Club.

A luncheon Wednesday at Devon Gables closed the club's bowling season.

Officers were elected for the 1966-'67 season. They are: Mrs. Donald Long, president; Mrs. Clare Scriven, vice president; Mrs. Kenneth Sprung, secretary; Mrs. James W. Hunt, treasurer; and Mrs. Peter Hoogerhyde, sergeant-at-arms.

Several Solutions Remove Pot Stain

NEW YORK (UPI) — High mineral content in water can cause discoloration of utensils during cooking.

With aluminum cookware, these stains can be removed by boiling a solution of vinegar or cream of tartar and water, or by simply cooking acid-content foods such as tomatoes or sauerkraut.

Polly's Pointers

Make Crystal Sparkle

DEAR POLLY — I often buy clear glass or etched crystal candleholders, candy dishes, ash trays, vases and so on for very reasonable prices. I paint these with light oak or mahogany varnish stain. The light oak makes the glass a beautiful light amber color and the mahogany dries to a ruby red. Always do this varnishing on the OUTSIDE only. Designed glass is beautiful when so treated. — ANNA.

GIRLS — I found a slightly dampened sponge (just enough to make the sponge soft and pliable) was wonderful for applying the varnish stain to the glass. Be careful to wipe out any heavy spots so there is a nice, even look to the newly applied color. — POLLY

DEAR POLLY — Each day I sit for a few minutes in a lawn chaise in reverse position, with my legs elevated, and find this most relaxing.

When typing at home, a music stand will hold in place the material being copied and at a good height and angle. Such a stand is also valuable for holding a mirror when putting up your hair or giving yourself a home permanent. — DORIS

GIRLS — I can imagine you all running out to the second-hand shops to find music stands if you have none catching dust around the house. — POLLY

DEAR POLLY — My 80-year-old father dreamed up a way to keep my dresses from sliding together and bunching up on the clothes pole in my closet. He spiral-wound plastic-coated wire (clothesline would do) around the pole with about one-inch between each spiral.

To hold this in place he repeated the process by spiraling a layer of friction tape on top of the wire. The pole now has a slight ridge every inch and my dresses hang exactly where I put them. — AILEEN

DEAR POLLY — Knitting or crocheting will go faster with clean needles. Whether they are bone, steel or plastic, it is safe to dip them up and down in hot, soapy water to wash away all traces of sticky or perspiring fingers. Be sure to dry them thoroughly. — SYLVIA

DEAR POLLY — Those who like the wide margins when they use the typewriter may have a problem keeping one at the bottom of a page.

First of all, use carbon paper. Cut a notch in the carbon, slightly less than 1½ inches from the top and another slightly lower than that. Both should be on the left-hand side of the paper. Do this at the bottom, too. Insert your paper with the carbon showing a fraction of an inch on your left.

Women Writers to Meet

Area members of the Detroit Women Writers will attend the annual luncheon Tuesday in the Ontario Room of the Hotel Pontchartrain, Detroit.

Dr. John W. Schmittroth, director of creative writing, University of Detroit will speak on "A Glimpse of Pathos; Raw Material of the Story."

Mrs. Joseph E. Smith Jr. of Bloomfield Village will serve a second term as president along with Mrs. George Lyman, Wedgwood Drive, vice president; Mrs. Michael Jones, Dearborn, recording secretary, Mrs. Dwight L. Dickinson Jr., both of Birmingham, will share the duties of corresponding secretary.

The May 17 board meeting and poetry workshop will be in the home of the president and not at the Wing Lake residence of Mrs. L. S. Martz as previously scheduled.

Mrs. Otis Winn will be chairman for a combined workshop, May 24, in the Women's City Club, Detroit.

Sorority Bestows Its Annual Award

Xi Gamma Alpha chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority presented the chapter's Girl-of-the-Year award to Mrs. Russell Perkins, Wednesday, in the home of Mrs. Robert Schmidt on Steephollow Drive, White Lake Township.

On May 18, the members will honor the chapter officers at a dinner in the home of Mrs. Michael Gollogly, Ellingrove Drive, White Lake Township.

Check This Guide to See if You're Losing Rat Race of Living

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Hal Boyle told earlier how to tell whether you are forging ahead in life's rat race. Today he presents the other half of the picture—a guidebook for losers.)

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Are you losing in the rat race of living?

One would think there wouldn't be much doubt in one's mind about that, but there is.

BOYLE

Many a fellow with a mouth full of gravel kicked up by guys ahead of him still labors under the delusion he is gaining when, as a matter of fact, he has already been lapped twice and is falling steadily farther behind the other runners.

If you are going to go on competing in the rat race, it's as important to know when you are losing as when you're winning.

HELPFUL GUIDE

Here is a helpful guide list to tip you off as to whether you have fallen behind the rest of the pack. You'd better start brushing up on your Horatio Alger if—

Your wife is taking in laundry so your daughter can afford to attend ballet or karate classes.

★ ★ ★

The guy next door asks for his lawnmower back the day after he lends it to you.

The collars on more than half your shirts are frayed.

RETURNS 15 CENTS

When you give a panhandling bum two bits, he feels so sorry for you he hands you back 15 cents change.

The fenders of your car are so dented that rainwater collects in them in pools.

You have more photos of your family in your wallet than credit cards.

When you tell the office supply clerk that the cushion on your swivel chair is shabby, he replies, "So what? I'm busy."

The boss crisply calls you by your last name, because he never can remember your first name.

No matter what new brand of toothpaste, hair tonic or deodorant you buy, you never have to beat the girls off with a baseball bat.

★ ★ ★

At a cocktail party, the other guests keep holding their empty glasses out to you, because they mistake you for the waiter.

At your bank, the teller won't even let you deposit your paycheck until you give proper identification.

DEWEY BUTTON

You haven't had a merit raise since you last wore a Vote for Tom Dewey campaign button.

When the income tax collector calls you down to explain your return, he takes one glance at you and lets you off scot-free — figuring you are too dumb to cheat the government.

★ ★ ★

You get a wonderful idea on how your firm can make more money, but you drop it shyly into the suggestion box because you don't feel you know one of the top executives well enough to take it to him personally.

When you get back from a vacation, nobody asks you where you've been.

'Fewer Doctors Smoking Now'

Aware of Peril, Says Ex-Surgeon General

By Science Service

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — Today fewer than 30 per cent of physicians are smoking because they have become aware of the health hazards, Dr. Luther L. Terry, former surgeon general of the U. S. Public Health Service, said here.

"In the 1950s more than 60 per cent of the nation's physicians smoked," Dr. Terry, who is now vice president for medical affairs at the University of Pennsylvania, told the National Interagency Conference on Smoking and Health meeting at the University of Maryland.

Individuals and organizations must take the place of financial resources, which are small among the opponents of cigarette smoking, Dr. Terry said.

Balanced against the $200-million a year spent by the tobacco industry to advertise cigarettes, are the $2-million budget of the Public Health Service's National Clearinghouse for Smoking and Health and the $3,000 that the National Interagency Council has in the bank, the speaker pointed out.

★ ★ ★

The enactment of the law requiring health warning on cigarette packages was a step forward, but more research and education are needed.

MUST BE WARY

Warning that "we must be wary of gimmicks and flashy stunts of doubtful value," Dr. Terry said that to achieve any measure of success, smoking and health programs must be based on well-designed behavioral studies.

★ ★ ★

One constructive step for smokers would be to have consideration for nonsmokers at lunch counters or in other poorly ventilated places. Some people are made physically ill by exposure to exhaled smoke.

★ ★ ★

If smokers show restraint on behalf of others, Dr. Terry suggested, they might find the confidence to refrain from smoking in all situations.

Firm Seeks Injunction to End Soo Lock Strike

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—McNamara Construction Co. Thursday sought a Circuit Court injunction to force striking equipment operators and engineers to return to work on the new Soo Lock.

Hearing on the request was scheduled for Monday. The workers walked off their jobs last Monday, halting construction on the $40 million project. McNamara is general contractor of the work.

Thief Dogtrots Away

FONTANA, Calif. (UPI) — Vicki Boul, 16, told the police she was the victim of a purse snatcher. Miss Boul said when she opened the door of her parked car a small dog jumped in, growled at her, and then ran off with her purse.

Anticipate Purse of $164,000 for 92nd Race

'Shoe' Aboard Favorite in Bid for 2nd Straight Derby Win

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Bill Shoemaker, trying to become the first jockey in 64 years to ride two Kentucky Derby winners in a row, climbs aboard the pre-race favorite, Abe's Hope in Saturday's 92nd Derby.

Abe's Hope, from the Grand Prix Stable of Joe Bartell and Robert Byfield, was made a 5-2 favorite by the Churchill Downs handicapper. Racing fans who start their Derby betting this afternoon could change the picture.

A field of 16, including two questionable starters, were entered Thursday, each adding $500 to the Derby pot. If all start, the 1¼-mile classic will gross $164,000. If any drop out, its starting fee of $1,000 will be subtracted from the total.

SECOND CHOICE

Second choice at 7-2 before the betting starts was shared by Mrs. H. C. Phipps' Stupendous, carrying the colors of the Wheatley Stable, and Kauai King, oned by Michael J. Ford of Omaha.

★ ★ ★

Reginald Webster's Amberoid, the winner of the Wood Memorial, was next at 6-1.

Shoemaker, beginning to grey a little at 34, will be starting in his 15th Derby, more than any other active rider. The retired Eddie Arcaro holds the all-time record with 21 appearances and six winners.

Shoemaker has won three times, including last year with Lucky Debonair. Just being in the race, he says, still is the biggest thrill in his life.

★ ★ ★

The last jockey to ride consecutive Derby winners was Jimmy Wingfield in 1901-02.

Still in doubt as Derby starters are Sean E Indian, with a bothersome leg scratch, and Blue Skyer.

Padgett, sounding very doubtful, said Ray Broussard will be his jockey "if we really start."

Sean E Indian may not go because of a slight leg injury.

Amberoid, due his final pre-Derby track appearance in a blowout today, drew the inside post position for the Derby.

Blue Skyer, named with Rehabilitate, Dominar, Beau Sub and Sean E Indian as the mutuel betting field, drew the No. 2 spot.

YET TO WIN

Stupendous goes from No. 3. Rehabilitate from No. 4 and Advocator, still to win a race in seven starts this season, starts from the fifth slot.

Dominar, Fleet Shoe and Exhibitionist will be in the sixth, seventh and eighth gates.

Beau Sub goes from No. 9, Sky Guy from No. 10 and Tragniew from No. 11.

Kauai King starts in the 12th gate, next to Abe's Hope in No. 13. Abe's Hope also happened to be the 13th horse officially entered in the race Thursday.

Sean E Indian, in No. 14, Quinta in No. 15 and Williamston Kid on the outside complete the field.

Saturday's Derby Field

LOUISVILLE, KY. (AP)—The field for Saturday's $125,000 added Kentucky Derby, 1¼ miles, at Churchill Downs, with track handicapper's odds:

PP Horse	Jockey	Prob. Odds
1—Amberoid	Boland	6-1
f2—Blue Skyer	Broussard	20-1
3—Stupendous	Baeza	7-2

Montreal Wins on 'Fluke' Goal

AP Photofax

HANDLE WITH CARE—The jubilant Montreal Canadiens try to get a hand on the Stanley Cup and coach Toe Blake as they rejoice after handing Detroit a 3-2 setback last night to capture their second straight Stanley Cup Championship. Montreal took the series, 4 to 2.

Wings Outplay Canadiens but Defeated, 3-2

Henri Richard Scores Winning Marker in Sudden Death

DETROIT (AP) — Montreal Canadiens coach Toe Blake jubilantly proclaimed Thursday night . . . "They outplayed us and we still won . . . it's the shots that count."

Blake, center of a horde of players, newsmen and cameramen in the Canadiens dressing room, said he had been confident the Canadiens would take the Red Wings after the Canadiens, down the first two games, surged back to get the No. 3 game of the Stanley Cup final.

"Jean Beliveau was the big guy for us that night and he has been one of our joys ever since," Blake said.

ABEL AGREES

Detroit coach Sid Abel agreed that his Wings had outplayed the Canadiens but added sadly, "It was just one of those nights."

Henri Richard tipped in the game winning goal at 2:20 of the sudden death overtime, on a pass from Dave Balon. The 3-2 decision gave Montreal the best four-of-seven series.

★ ★ ★

"He tipped it in with his hand as he was flat on the ice," Roger Crozier said. He was so hot under the collar that he had a hard time smiling for cameramen who wanted him to pose alongside the big trophy.

"I protested to referee Frank Udvari but he said the puck was in and that was that," Crozier added.

★ ★ ★

Detroit coach Abel said his main regret was that the series had not been decided on a clean, hard shot goal, rather than a fluky one.

Richard described the winning goal as a pass from the corner that hit him a glancing blow on the leg and skittered behind goalie Crozier.

"Dave Balon shot the puck to me and someone grabbed my stick and it went in," he added. "But don't get me wrong. I am glad it did."

Takes MVP Award

Crozier Loses, Wins

DETROIT (AP) — In somewhat of a surprise, Detroit goalie Roger Crozier was named the Most Valuable Player in the Stanley Cup playoffs.

Crozier won the Conn Smythe Trophy after Montreal defeated the Red Wings 3-2 on Henri Richard's overtime goal, giving the Canadiens their second straight Stanley Cup Thursday night, four games to two.

Besides the trophy, Crozier received $1,000 and a 1966 automobile. The award was given after balloting by the National Hockey League's board of governors. Montreal's Jean Beliveau won the first award last year.

★ ★ ★

Crozier was injured in the fifth game of the final series Sunday when Montreal's Bobby Rousseau crashed into him before the game was six minutes old. Crozier suffered a sprained knee and twisted ankle on his left leg.

He returned to action Tuesday and played the entire game Thursday night. He allowed the Canadiens 16 goals in the six games.

★ ★ ★

In accepting the award, Crozier, in a brief speech, said he was sorely disappointed that the Red Wings did not win the Cup, but that being named Most Valuable Player "will take some of the sting out of my disappointment."

Brother Rice Victor

Brother Rice boosted its golf record to 4-1 for the season by defeating Detroit Salesian, 171-221 at Forest Lake yesterday. Medal honors went to Marlan Sigitich with a 41 for Brother Rice.

Business Keg Circuit Competes Here Today

The Michigan Business School Association's final stop on its state bowling circuit is West Side Lanes this afternoon.

Seven schools representing Port Huron, Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo, Battle Creek, Lansing, Muskegon and host Pontiac are competing for the final points in the standings at 5:30 p. m.

Southfield Thinclads Defeat Walled Lake

Walled Lake trackmen won only two events as Southfield rolled up an 80-29 victory yesterday.

In another track meet North Branch whipped Imlay City, 82-28.

John Hogan led North Branch by winning the long jump, 100 dash and low hurdles plus running leg in 880 relay. He tied the school mark with a 10.4 in the 100.

Yanks Blanked by Sub Hurler

By the Associated Press

Remember the days when the New York Yankees could always count on facing the opposition's best pitcher?

It's not happening now. Why waste an ace on a ninth place ball club?

NEEDS HELP

The results showed up the Yanks' weakened state. O'Donoghue managed only seven shutout innings, and needed help from Bob Allen, but the Indians scored a 4-0 victory that left the once-feared Yankees with one run in three games against the Cleveland staff.

Tebbetts, whose Indians lead the American League with 14 victories in 15 games, sends McDowell against second place Baltimore tonight. McDowell, with one-hitters in each of his last two starts, has won four games and leads the Indian staff, which shows a collective earned run average of 1.29.

Fred Newman and Bob Lee combined on a four-hitter and Norm Siebern drove in the game's only run as California handed Kansas City its 14 loss in 17 games.

Outboard Race at Belle Isle

Powerboats Slated on Detroit River

The fifth annual Belle Isle Outboard Marathon, largest powerboat event scheduled on the Detroit River this season, will be run on Sunday, May 22.

Race fans will be able to view all the action on the course and in the pits from the Belle Isle shores. The start and finish of the marathon, and the nine closed course events for utility and hydroplane racers, will be located directly in front of the Belle Isle bathing beach.

More than 200 boats are expected to compete.

Boats racing in the 50 mile marathon, scheduled to start at 10 a.m., will circle Belle Isle seven times in a grueling test of boat and driver. The closed course race is scheduled to begin at 1 p.m.

Stevens After Third Crown

Melvin 'Bud' Stevens will be looking for his third title in a row when he tees off in the Michigan Medal Play May 20-22 at Grosse Ile Golf and Country Club.

★ ★ ★

A field of some 40 amateurs will play 36 holes on the opening day and wind it up with 18-hole rounds on the final two days.

★ ★ ★

Chuck Kocsis, six-time winner of the event, will also be on hand when the firing starts.

Township Softball League to Start

Waterford's eight-team Men's Softball League will open the 1966 campaign Monday under the lights at Drayton Plains Park.

Two games are on the Monday schedule — Richardson Dairy meeting Lakeland Pharmacy at 7 p. m., and Day's Sanitary Service dueling Hillcrest Nazarene at 8:30.

The other four teams will play openers on Tuesday. McAnnally's Motor Sales takes on Midget Bar in the first game at 7 p. m., followed by the Buckner Finance-Dixie Tool & Stamping tilt at 8:30.

Golf Win Gains Kettering Award

Kettering assured itself of retaining the All-Sports Trophy with rival Waterford by defeating the Skippers in golf yesterday, 171-172, at Pontiac Country Club.

★ ★ ★

The one stroke victory was worth 50 points for the Captains and even if Waterford should win all remaining sports events on the spring calendar, it would mean a tie at 500 points each, thus enabling Kettering to keep the award.

Medalist Ousted in Quarter-Finals of Women's Golf

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — "I guess I'd better cancel my plane reservation," said Judy Eller Street following her rout of medalist Mary Ann Villegas Rathmell in the quarter-finals of the Women's Southern Amateur Golf Tournament.

Mrs. Street's 6 and 5 triumph moved her into today's semifinals. She played Maureen Crum in one match while Nancy Roth Syms met Rhonda Glenn, who turned 20 today, in the other.

14 Olympians in Action

QUANTICO, Va. (AP) — It looked almost like the Penn Relays all over again today as a field of 1,700 — including 14 Olympians of 1964 — began an assault for championships in the 10th annual Quantico Relays.

Judge Softens Financial Blow

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Fines of $5,000 have been assessed against the 10 teams in the National League in the official judgement of the Wisconsin antitrust case but the league itself escaped with a light assessment after a change of heart by Judge Elmer Roller.

Judge Roller signed the judgement of the antitrust case filed Thursday in Circuit Court.

The National League, along with its member teams, was found guilty April 1 of violating Wisconsin antitrust law in connection with the move of the Braves from Milwaukee to Atlanta.

The Braves were assessed statutory court costs of $458.35 and the other nine teams costs of $358.35 each.

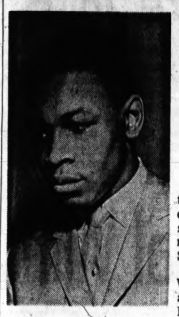
Benefit Bouts Saturday Night

Boys' Club to Merit Gate Proceeds



HEDGEMAN LEWIS

Some of the state's finest amateur boxing talent will be on display when the benefit boxing show gets under way Saturday night at Pontiac Central High School.

Sponsoring the show is the West Bloomfield Optimist Club, and proceeds will go to the West Bloomfield Boys Club.

Tickets for the show, which starts at 8 p.m., are on sale at Don Frayer Furniture and Appliance, West Huron; Fortino's Steakhouse, Wide Track Drive; and Tony's Barbershop on Perry.

Heading a list of champions on the 14-bout card is Detroiter Hedgeman Lewis, 1966 national Golden Gloves welterweight champion.

Lewis will take on Paul Jiminez, runner-up in the AAU 147-pound finals.

Bill Hollis of Pontiac, Michigan's 160-pound champion, is slated to meet Flint champion Rick Farmer, and Pontiac heavyweight Sven Svele will duel Ed Stacey of Grand Blanc.

Another Pontiac heavyweight, Morris Davis, will take on James Start of Detroit.

Among the other pairings are Gordon Brayley of Saginaw and Robert Jenkins of Flint in a lightweight match; John Cromer of Detroit and Dan Matthews of Flint in a lightweight match; and Kenneth Rouser of Pontiac and Roger Kelly of Grand Blanc in a lightweight match.

Directing the show is former Pontiac boxer Harold Duggan, who is now supervisor of child care facilities at Oakland County Children's Center.

Another ex-professional boxer, Gene Linscott, will referee the bouts, while Chuck Speiser and Dick LaForge, also former boxers, will join Ray Gray as judges.

The West Bloomfield Optimists distributed 100 tickets to the show — 50 to the Pontiac Boys Club and 50 to the Northside Boys Club — at a downtown Pontiac Optimist Club meeting yesterday.

Record Field Files Entry for USGA

NEW YORK (AP) — A record field of approximately 2,500 has filed entry for the U. S. Open Golf Championship June 16-19 at the Olympic Country Club in San Francisco, the U. S. Golf Association announced Thursday.

Joe Day, executive director of the USGA, said 2,577 entries actually had been received but that late filing and wrong handicaps had reduced the list to 2,500.

★ ★ ★

Withdrawals are expected to reduce this to 2,480, but the number still would exceed the record 2,474 set in 1962. There were 2,271 entries last year.

The entries are headed by Gary Player of South Africa, the defending champion.

Local qualifying will be staged at 61 centers May 23-24 and regional playoffs at 13 cities June 6-7. These tests are to determine the 124 players who will join 27 others exempt from all qualifying.

Grosse Ile Country Club will be the site of the local qualifying, May 23, and the Country Club of Detroit will host the sectional qualifying June 7.

Union Lake Takes Boys' Registration

Union Lake Junior Athletic Association is having registration for boys 8-15 desiring to participate in the summer baseball program.

★ ★ ★

All prospective enrollees should report 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Saturday at Dublin School. A $6 per family registration fee is due at the sign-in.

★ ★ ★

All players should be accompanied by a parent. Three leagues will be established. Deadline for all registrants is 6 p.m.; additional information is available by contacting Merle Brazelle at EM 3-6674.

Evening Loop for Archers

An evening league for archers is scheduled to start next Tuesday at the Multi-Lakes Conservation Club on Newton Road near Commerce.

Archers will shoot Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday each week, starting at 8 p.m., according to Charles Bays of Orchard Lake, chairman of the club's archery committee.

The club has 16 lighted targets spread over a six-acre area.

Persons interested in the night archery league may obtain further information by contacting Bays at 363-4496.

530 Sloops in Yacht Race

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Some 530 skippers and their crews will set sail on boats ranging from 24 feet to 10-meter sloops Saturday in the annual Newport Beach-to-Ensenada Mex. yacht race.

★ ★ ★

The race, known locally as the Tequila Derby, attracts all types — from weekend sailors to dedicated yachtsmen — with all given about an equal chance because of the tricky winds around the Coronados Islands 30 miles out to sea. The revelry after the race is as much a goal as getting across the finish line.

Trouble-free with a capital "T"!

CLIPPINGS BAG. It clamps on with one hand. It's big, and it has a heavy-duty bottom so it'll last. This bag plus "Wind-Tunnel"* housing also adds up to a fine lawn vacuum cleaner for leaves and litter. And, it's standard equipment. No strings or clips, no zippers to clog.

SAFETY SPIN-START. You wind up the "impulse" starter, step behind the mower handle, for safety and push the lever to "start" position. Chokes automatically.

MAGNESIUM HOUSING. It's the same lighter-than-aluminum stuff they use in airplanes.

FRONTWHEEL "POW-R-DRIVE."† That's for safety and better control. (Ever try to maneuver a rear-wheel-drive mower in a tight spot? Usually it's in control.)

"S"-SHAPED CUTTING BLADE. Creates a powerful suction under the housing that pulls the grass up for a more even cut. Disperses clippings, evenly, too.

"AUTO-OILER."† This is visual oil filler. Push the button and you're sure the crankcase is full. No funnels, no oily fingers.

3 OR 3½ HP, FOUR-CYCLE ENGINE. Starts easily, runs more smoothly than cheaper 2-cycle engines. No mixing of gas and oil, either.

CLEAN-OUT PORT. When you're through mowing, let the engine idle and run a little water into the clean-out port. The blade splashes it all around under the housing and washes it out like new.

"TRIMIT."† You know that grass along the sidewalk that won't stand up? This little device props it up and the blade clips it off crisply and neatly.

HEIGHT ADJUSTMENT. Hook your thumbs in the grooves and set the cutting height at any of six settings from ½" to 3". No tools needed.

Kettering took over sole possession of the Tri-County League baseball race by handing Romeo its first loss 12-7 yesterday.

Lapeer meanwhile whipped Oxford 15-1 while L'Anse remained idle.

The Captains had a 12-2 lead after five innings before Romeo crossed the plate with five runs in the final inning.

Jim Starnes had three hits for Kettering, including a double in the big 5th inning which started the outburst. Bruce Mihalek had a triple and Jay Nash a double in the stanza.

Mihalek and Nash also had singles in the game.

Romeo's Mike Pakorney and Standfest each had two singles.

Lapeer received strong hitting from Olin Bates and Pat McKenna each with three hits and three rbi's.

Avondale pulled a triple play, had eight extra base hits, in a 17-hit attack and defeated Troy by scoring in every inning, 20-4 in an Oakland-A game yesterday.

In another slugfast Madison trimmed Cousino, 13-1, while Rochester went into 11 innings to lose to Clawson, 3-2 and Orion edged Fitzgerald in eight innings, 3-2.

Avondale's triple play came in the second inning. With men on second and third, pitcher Bill threw to first for a put out, first baseman Lee Sanders, shortstop Bartkowiak and catcher Bob Burt combined to trap the runners on base.

Burt tagged the runner coming home an Bartkowiak got the runner trying to get back to second.

Dave Armstrong collected four hits, scored 4 and drove in five with a homer which was measured at 350 feet and a pair of doubles.

Sanders, had 3 for 4 and 3 rbi's and Burt 2 for 3 and 4 rbi's.

Rochester couldn't score the clutch run on four different occasions with runners on third as Randy Hines struck out 13 and allowed only one in seven innings before faltering.

PITCHER HITS

Hines had triple and double, Dave Merideth had three singles in the loss.

Winner Tim Robinson struck out 12 for Clawson and Dillon drove in Babich the winning run in the 11th for the victory.

Bill Petrosky had eight runs batted in for Madison with two doubles and a pair of sacrifice hits, and winning pitcher Carl Olsen doubled with the bases loaded.

Gordie Tebo, with single, double and triple led Cousino.

Rookie Umpire Stays Unruffled

By The Associated Press

What's an umpire to do?

Take Chris Pelekoudas, a rookie official. He had his problems Thursday night during Houston's 4-3, 13-inning victory over the Chicago Cubs.

First, Chicago starter Bill Faul took time out to protest the electronic applauding hands on the Astrodome's scoreboard, then Houston catcher John Bateman took time out to portest a decision in his favor.

Pelekoudas, however, solved the problems simply. He refused to let Faul get his goat, and he gave Bateman his thumb.

Faul, who used to undergo hypnosis before he pitched, found himself captivated by the Houston scoreboard in the fifth inning when the two hands were flashed on the electonic marvel and began to lead the crowd in rhythmic applause.

He turned his back to the plate, staring at the hands. Pelekoudas came out, and suggested Faul use his — to pitch. Faul suggested Pelekoudas give a signal with his — to stop the scoreboard. Pelekoudas said pitch, or watch the scoreboard show a guy taking a shower.

★ ★ ★

Faul pitched, Lee Maye hit a double for a 3-2 Houston lead, and the scoreboard showed a guy taking a shower as Faul left.

Bateman was catching in the seventh when Dick Farrell fired a strike over the plate. Pelekoudas so signaled. Bateman said why didn't you do that in the sixth when Farrell threw one to the same place. So Pelekoudas signaled again, only this time with his thumb, and Bateman left.

They played baseball elsewhere in the National League, with San Francisco outlasting the Los Angeles Dodgers 9-8 in 10 innings, Atlanta edging Philadelphia 4-3 and Cincinnati walloping Pittsburgh 10-6.

The Giants chased Sandy Koufax and built a 7-0 lead in the second inning but the Dodgers played a convincing game of catch-up with Wes Parker, Ron Fairly and Lou Johnson hitting homers.

The Reds outslugged the Pirates with Don Pavletich and Pete Rose hammering homers and Leo Cardenas driving in three runs with a pair of singles. Joey Jay, tagged for homers by Roberto Clemente, Jim Pagliaroni and Jesse Gonder, got credit for the victory and became Cincinnati's first two-game winner.

Rain Slowing Golf Tourney

HOUSTON (AP) — The rain-delayed $117,000 Champions International Golf Tournament makes a second attempt to get under way today but the weatherman gave no promise of a change in the weather.

The forecast called for 95 per cent probability of more of the steady rain that washed out the first round Thursday.

★ ★ ★

PGA tournament supervisor Jack Tuthill ordered the postponement before any of the star-studded field had started play on the 7,118-yard, par 36-35—71 Cypress Creek layout of the swank Champions course.

★ ★ ★

Barring further delays the final round of the 72-hole tournament will be played Monday. If more than one-day delay is necessary, it is likely two rounds would be played on the final day to wind it up.

Hills Netters Win, 5-0

Tribe Shortstop Brown Remains on Critical List

NEW YORK (AP) — Cleveland shortstop Larry Brown, who suffered multiple fractures of the skull in a collision with teammate Leon Wagner Wednesday night, remained in serious condition today at Lenox Hill Hospital.

Two neuro-surgeons were called in Thursday but no surgery was performed.

Brown's wife flew in Thursday from Cleveland to be with her husband and Manager Birdie Tebbetts stayed in New York until today although the remainder of the team left for Baltimore, where the Indians open a series with the Orioles Friday night.

TEEING OFF

By FLETCHER SPEARS

One of the area's newest golfers took a somewhat unorthodox path in discovering he liked the game.

Normally, you'd invest a few bucks in a set of clubs and go looking for a club to try your luck.

Approaching the game a little differently, however, is Nevin B. Hummon, an affable 56-year-old resident of Woodcreek Farms near Farmington.

Although Hummon owns a golf course, he can count the times he's played the game on two fingers and the clubs he owns have never touched a blade of grass.

* * *

He hasn't played enough to know whether he likes the game, but Hummon is in the business to stay as owner of the new Arrowhead Golf Course just off Walton on the north side of Pontiac.

Along with Arrowhead, he runs the N. B. Hummon Landscape Contracting Company, operating offices at the golf course and home.

HUMMON

Hummon started building the 18-hole, 6,518-yard Arrowhead course back in 1962, and he started getting a little money back late last summer. The course is in full swing now.

* * *

While his approach to the golf game was unlike that of most golfers, his reasons for getting into the game are not at all complicated.

PLAYED 2 ROUNDS

"I was in Florida about six years ago and I played a couple of rounds with some friends—the only rounds I've ever played.

* * *

"I recognized golf as a going thing, and since my business (landscaping) was associated with it, I thought why not buy the land as an investment and collect green fees on it."

Those thoughts put him in the golfing business.

His search for property ended with the purchase of 187 acres from three owners during 1961-62, and to date, Hummon has something in the neighborhood of $500,000 tied up in the land and course.

* * *

There's still some landscaping to finish around the clubhouse, a parking lot and road into the course to pave plus a few other odds and ends that will dress up the course.

NAMES COURSE

Building the Arrowhead — the course gets its name from the land which is shaped like an arrow — opened up a new avenue of work for Hummon — building golf courses.

* * *

Hummon bid on a course-building job in Bay County recently and got it. He's now building an 18-hole layout just outside Bay City and the course'll be finished in August.

Tokyo to Host Golf Tourney November 10-13

TOKYO (AP) — Golfers from 36 countries will vie for the 1966 International Trophy and Canada Cup on Tokyo's Yomiuri Country Club course in November, the Japan Professional Golf Association announced Thursday.

The association said it expects several more countries will enter the four-day world tournament on the par 72, 6,962 yard layout Nov. 10-13.

It will be Japan's second international golf competition. She hosted the fifth Canada Cup match in 1957, which was won by Torakichi Pete Nakamura and Koichi Ono of Japan.

LPGA Field Ready

HOUSTON (AP) — Donald W. Doc Giffin, 37, resigned Thursday as the PGA golf tour press secretary to become personal assistant to Arnold Palmer, golf's all-time leading money winner.

Giffin has been press secretary since 1962. The resignation is effective at the end of the July 21-24 Professional Golfers Association championship tournament at Akron, Ohio.

PNH Track Ace Wins Four Events

Melvin Cole won four events yesterday in leading Pontiac Northern's track squad to a 60-49 victory over Farmington.

He cracked his own record in the high hurdles with a time of 15.0 and he added victories in the long jump (19-8), high jump (6-2) and low hurdles (20.0).

Cole's leap in the high jump equalled the PNH field record and he also equalled the field mark in the low hurdles.

In another meet, Waterford's Skippers won every evnet in swamping Livonia Stevenson, 96-13, as three members of the team won two events apiece.

Dick McDowell won the long jump (20-3¾) and the 880-yard run (2:14); Dave Farris took the shot put (49-11) and high jump (5-6); and Dave Kline captured the 100-yard dash (10.5) and low hurdles (21.1).

In Rochester Schools

New Reading System Is Praised

By JANICE KLOUSER

ROCHESTER — For almost a year 217 first graders here have been learning to read with the new Initial Teaching Alphabet. Their teachers are applauding the results.

Youngsters who would normally be doing well to read at the first grade level are now reading at levels ranging from second to fourth grade, according to Mrs. Lois Thompson, instructional supervisor for the Rochester schools.

"I don't know when we've had a program that has met with so much enthusiasm from both teachers and pupils," she said.

Even teachers who were dubious at first are now strong supporters of the method, Mrs. Thompson noted.

★ ★ ★

She is careful to point out that there is still much to learn about the program but says that at this point it appears to be very successful.

44 SYMBOLS

Instead of the traditional 26 letters which often have several sounds, ITA employs 44 phonetic symbols each with only one sound. It reduces the phonic code symbols from more than 2,000 to about 65.

According to educators who advocate the system, the conventional alphabet and code for spoken English is too complex and irregular for beginners.

The basic idea of ITA is to teach the fundamentals of the reading process with ease, according to Dr. Philip G. Hilaire, reading consultant for Oakland Schools. Dr. Hilaire, who learned the system in England, is largely responsible for introducing it to America.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Hilaire feels that after a child becomes confident and fluent in reading ITA books, he can transfer his skill to reading books printed in the traditional alphabet.

PROVED THEORY

Rochester youngsters have apparently proved his theory.

Mrs. Thompson says there have been five basic results of the method:

- All the children are reading and enjoying it.
- They are not afraid to attempt big words.
- They have learned to work independently.
- They are much more self-confident.
- Their auditory discrimination has been helped.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Thompson said the children's vocabulary is much greater and they can speak and write more fluently.

Area News

The ITA books contain 1,347 words while the traditional series contains only 879.

The reading improvement also shows up in other work, according to Mrs. Thompson. She said that reading is usually the cause of a child's trouble with other subjects.

To test one teacher's claim that her pupils were improving in math because of ITA, Mrs. Thompson tested them. She found that not one child was doing work below the second grade level.

AT ALL LEVELS

She said the reading level for even those at the bottom of the class is better than it would be in the traditional system.

"Those at the bottom level usually drag their feet and for them reading is painful," she said. "Now they may still be slower than others but at least they are enjoying their reading."

The children do a great deal of creative writing with ITA. "It is amazing the thoughts they can express with the method," Mrs. Thompson said.

★ ★ ★

The program also appears to have helped at least four children who last year appeared headed for the special education class for mentally retarded children.

HAVE LEARNED

"We were sure they were nonreaders," said Mrs. Thompson, "but they were so intrigued with ITA that they have learned to read. We feel maybe we really have something here."

The method has also been tried in fourth, fifth, and sixth grade remedial reading classes. Tests show that those previously reading at a third grade level are now reading at fourth and fifth grade levels.

Mrs. Thompson attributes much of the success of the program to the fact that the child learns to read early and is encouraged to go on.

★ ★ ★

She said the children are reading such stories as "Hansel and Gretel" and "Jack and the Beanstalk' which at this age would normally have to be read to them.

MAKE TRANSITION

Most of the children, she said, make the transition from ITA to traditional reading sometime during the first grade, although some don't progress until the second grade.

The board of education recently approved conducting the program for at least two more years.

Eight groups of children participated in the plan this year and eight more groups will be added next year.

★ ★ ★

"There is only one question in our minds," said Mrs. Thompson, "and that is how this will affect their spelling.

"We're not anticipating any trouble though. In other districts where the method has been in use longer there has apparently been no problem."

ACCIDENT SCENE — Four men were injured yesterday morning when the elevator cage they were riding fell nearly 50 feet to the ground from the top of the steel tower shown here. They were working on the new St. Patrick's Church, 9086 Hutchins, White Lake Township.

1 of 4 Hurt in Church Accident Released

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — Three of four construction workers injured in a 50-foot fall yesterday are in fair condition today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac. The fourth has been discharged.

★ ★ ★

Involved in the accident at St. Patrick's Catholic Church were Walter Newman, Dearborn Heights; Homer Mullins, Carl Bardon and Edward Lillja, all of Detroit. Bardon has been released from the hospital.

The accident occurred when the elevator operator, attempting to avoid a falling beam, momentarily released the elevator brake, letting the cage containing the men fall 50 feet to the ground.

The men were working for Lutz Brothers Construction Co. of Walled Lake, which began work on the new $550,000 church last November.

The church is located at 9086 Hutchins.

Boys' Club Board

Officers Are Elected

New officers have been elected by the board of directors of the Boys' Club of Auburn Heights.

Harold R. Davis, 3530 Auburn, Pontiac Township, was chosen president.

Elected to serve with him was Jesse H. Holmes, 6839 Dublin Fair, Troy, vice president and finance committee chairman.

Other officers are John Eldon Jr., 3084 E. South Blvd., Troy, treasurer; Benjamin Douglas, 2449 Candlewick, Orion Township, recording secretary and program chairman; Leland J. Wheaton, 651 Provincetown, Pontiac Township, second vice president and personnel committee chairman; and Joseph P. Evangelista, 199 Brown, Birmingham, building and grounds chairman.

In other business at this week's board meeting, members made final plans on the proposed building program.

This summer, the club plans to build a $185,000 addition to the present building which will serve as a community center.

★ ★ ★

It will contain a gymnasium, community meeting rooms, arts and crafts rooms, senior and junior games rooms, a room for choir practice and small group meetings and a snack bar.

Teachers Reject Lake Orion Offer

LAKE ORION — The Lake Orion Education Association, bargaining agent for the district's teachers, yesterday rejected a contract proposal by the board of education.

★ ★ ★

A member of the organization said the teachers felt that the proposal is a "slap in the face" to them as professional people.

★ ★ ★

No details of the offer were available today. A new negotiating committee is apparently going to be appointed.

Allotment Up 15 Pct.

Johnson OKs Hike in Wheat Production

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson, moving to meet a growing demand from abroad, reversed a 5-year-old policy yesterday and gave American wheat farmers authority to increase their production by 15 per cent in the next year.

It was the first increase in the wheat allotment since the Kennedy administration acted in 1961 to divert land from wheat planting in an effort to deal with the huge surpluses of the postwar years.

In the last four years the surplus has diminished, and the demand for American wheat is growing rapidly. In addition Johnson is acting to ship wheat to India to help ease the near-famine there caused by crop failures.

The White House said Johnson acted after extensive conferences with Agriculture Secretary Orville L. Freeman.

The President ordered 7.7 million acres of land to be put back into wheat production. This affects the government-controlled allotment of what U.S. farmers may produce under protection of the price support program.

ORDER FOR 1967

The order is for the 1967 crop year, which starts July 1.

A total of 51.6 million acres are allotted to wheat planting this year. The allotment will jump to 59.3 million acres next year, the largest acreage in six years.

Estimated wheat production for 1966 is about 1.4 billion bushels. Agriculture Department experts estimated that the 1967 crop, with the increased allotments, would run from 1.5 billion to 1.6 billion bushels.

★ ★ ★

The current market price of wheat in middle western markets is running about $1.40 a bushel. The government support price is pegged at $1.25 a bushel.

STRONG DEMAND

The White House said the increased acreage was made possible by "the strong demand for wheat exports and the cooperation of farmers with the voluntary wheat program and sharply reduced reserves."

The voluntary program involved diverting wheat-growing land to other uses.

As a result of the policy of the past five years, reserves are now down. White House Press Secretary Bill D. Moyers said that for the first time in 13 years, the June 30 "carryover" of available wheat stocks would be under 600 million bushels.

This is about the amount required for one year of domestic food consumption and seed.

QUICK ENDORSEMENT

Since the increase in the allotments will mean increased income for farmers, the President's action won quick endorsement from both congressional Republicans and Democrats.

★ ★ ★

Wheat state Republican Sens. Frank Carlson, Kans., and Milton Young, N.D., said the decision would help the U.S. program to prevent world hunger.

★ ★ ★

Johnson, in a statement accompanying his action, said the increased acreage would result in a "substantial rise in farm income" next year, well above what the administration claimed was a record high for the previous crop year.

Church to Hold Annual Mother-Daughter Event

WALLED LAKE — St. William's Catholic Church will hold its annual Mother-Daughter breakfast Sunday.

★ ★ ★

The breakfast is sponsored by the St. William's Men's Club. Serving will start after the 9 a. m. Mass for mothers and daughters of the parish.

Inspector Named by W. Bloomfield

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Paul Snover of 160 W. Huron, Pontiac, has been named chief building inspector by the township board.

Snover, 55, has served the township as outside building inspector and trouble shooter for the past year.

He replaces Kenneth Delbridge, who resigned this week, effective May 13.

Snover served 10 years as a supervisor in his father's construction business before his father acquired a Pontiac funeral home.

★ ★ ★

Supervisor John C. Rehard indicated Delbridge resigned because he had been offered a better job.

Confirmation Slated at Episcopal Church

LAKE ORION — The Rt. Rev. C. Kilmer Myers, Suffragan Bishop of Michigan, will confirm a class of 15 young people at St. Mary's-in-the-Hills Episcopal Church at 5 p.m. Sunday.

The Rev. John E. Lee, rector of St. Mary's will assist at the confirmation.

Annual Book Mart Near in Rochester

ROCHESTER — The Rochester Junior Woman's Club will hold its 11th annual Book Mart Wednesday through May 14 at the Greenhouse of Hobbies on Main.

The hours of the Book Mart are from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Wednesday and May 14 and from 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. Thursday and May 13.

★ ★ ★

Cochairmen of the event are Mrs. Arthur Brennan, 674 W. Hamlin, Avon Township and Mrs. Wilfred Kehren, 205 Williams.

PLUCKED FROM SEA—A Navy rescue plane pulls a man from a raft in the Pacific yesterday in a test of a "hitchhiker-rescue" system. The plane snagged a long line leading from a balloon the man released and pulled him from the sea in a flyby. The Navy plans to begin use of the system soon to rescue downed pilots.

Battle Still Rages Over Discard of Used Military Equipment

WASHINGTON (AP) — Shunned as junk by the Pentagon, discarded military equipment has been repaired and put to work around the world by the U.S. Foreign Aid Agency.

"It might have been junk when we got it," an official of the Agency for International Development (AID) said today, "but it wasn't junk when we supplied it to other countries."

★ ★ ★

Under Pentagon fire, a Senate subcommittee on foreign aid expenditures resumes today its public inquiry into the discard of used military equipment overseas.

Sen. Ernest Gruening, D-Alaska, the chairman, contends the Defense Department is giving away used but serviceable equipment — like cranes, tractors and bulldozers — desperately needed by American forces in South Viet Nam.

$300 MILLION

The foreign aid agency reported it has obtained military equipment which cost the government $300 million, repaired it and put it into service. That account covers a six-year period.

Joseph Lippman, the subcommittee's chief investigator, said the armed forces systematically inflate the estimated cost of repairing used equipment, then discard it as not worth the money.

★ ★ ★

Gruening said Tuesday that amounted to fraud.

The Pentagon replied that Gruening "apparently wants the American soldiers in Viet Nam to fight with junk." Its statement said Gruening's fraud charge was irresponsible.

AID has told Congress it is "beating swords into plowshares" by reclaiming the military gear.

Scientists Discover Hormone That Determines Human Size

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — A group of University of California scientists has discovered the chemical makeup of a complicated body fluid that regulates body growth in humans.

The fluid, known as the human growth hormone (HGH), was analyzed at the hormone research laboratory in Berkeley. Since 1956 it has been used in the treatment of dwarfism.

The chemical structure of the hormone was disclosed in a report written for the Journal of the American Chemical Society.

The authors are Drs. C. H. Li, director of the lab; Wan-Kyng Liu, now with the Children's Cancer Research Foundation at Harvard Medical Center; and Jonathan S. Dixon, an assistant research biochemist.

★ ★ ★

The hormone is secreted by the pea-sized pituitary gland at the base of the brain.

OTHER EFFECTS

Beside stimulating growth, the hormone assists in the formation of breast and milk production, causes the release of fats and increases the effect of both male and female sex hormones.

A spokesman at the university said the hormone is the largest molecule that has been completely analyzed chemically. Li said it is a double loop formed by 188 units of various amino acids.

Li said synthesis of the complex molecule would be exceedingly difficult at present. But he said certain fragments of the molecule might be man-made.

★ ★ ★

These fragments, Li said, may act in specific ways on human cells to cause growth, secretion of milk or other effects. The synthesis of these fragments could then be used medically to stimulate the effects in humans.

★ ★ ★

Li said a knowledge of the effects of the hormone on natural body growth may increase science's knowledge of the abnormal bodily growth of cells — cancer.

Dearborn GI Dead

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department said Thursday that Army Pfc. Rudolph Jackymack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Jackymack of Dearborn, died of nonhostile causes in Viet Nam.

Three states outrank Kentucky in bluegrass seed production — South Dakota, Iowa and Missouri.

Trace Nutrients Are Important to Fescues

Research by Rutgers University specialists indicates that the best lawngrasses, such as the Kentucky bluegrasses and fine fescues, seldom suffer for lack of trace nutrients.

Most lawn soils contain sufficient of the minor elements to take care of grass needs.

Grapefruit seeds if planted thickly in rich earth about an inch thick and kept well watered, will sprout into a beautiful green centerpiece in about two weeks.

Nature Hike to Be Held Next Week

Men's Garden club of Rochester will sponsor its annual nature hike in Maynard W. Remer's woods May 14 at 2 p.m.

Hikers will assemble at Remer's, 50321 Shelby, Shelby Township.

Over 60 varieties of wildflowers will be on display as well as many native trees. Acting as tour guide, Remer will elaborate on ideal growing conditions for the specific varieties.

Program chairman for the event is John Cochran of 867 Peach Tree, Avon Township.

* * *

"Wear clothes suitable for hiking and woods walking," advises Cochran.

Following the walk an outdoor steak fry will be served.

During the evening program Russell Snow of Mount Clemens will demonstrate insect trapping equipment designed to forecast the presence and number of potential night-flying, crop-destroying pests.

* * *

Reservations from members and nonmembers are to be made by May 12 through Kurt Stubenvoll of 5685 Cobb Creek, Oakland Township.

Fine-Textured Grasses Are Quality Species

A labeling system has been agreed upon for lawn seed, whereby the grasses are grouped either as "fine-textured," or "coarse-kinds." The fine-textured grasses are the quality species.

Think of the fine-textured grasses as "lawn" species, coarse-kinds as "pasture or hay" species.

Home Gardeners Beware of the 'Ides of Spring'

It's spring and home gardeners across the country are once more enjoying the fresh air, sunshine and good exercise this activity affords.

Gardening is good for both body and mind, doctors tell us. But, they warn, it's easy to get carried away and overdo.

Here are some suggestions to help keep gardening safe and rewarding:

Work at a pace that isn't too tiring, especially for the first few sessions. Take frequent rests.

Check up on your tetanus immunization. You may need a booster shot. Tetanus germs lurk in the soil.

BE CAREFUL

Pay attention to cuts and scratches, even if they seem minor, because surface infections may curtail your gardening activity. Antibacterial liquids used with water are excellent skin cleansers to help prevent infections. Cover cuts and scratches with a light bandage.

Also, since soil is dirt, if you garden barehanded you will welcome the ability of the same skin cleanser to clean up your hands no matter how engrained with loam they may get.

Keep in mind that power mowers are hazardous. If you leave the machine or have to refuel it, be sure to turn off the engine. Never try to adjust or clean the blades while the motor is idling. And don't use electric-powered machines in wet grass.

* * *

Above all, read with care the safety instructions that come with all power tools.

Remember that pesticides must be handled carefully. Useful as they are in controlling plant - devouring insects, they can also be harmful to humans.

Store them carefully, away from children's reach. Read the directions and warnings on the package.

Watch out for poison ivy, sumac and oak. If you're not sure how to spot them, get an illustrated handbook. Dig these plants out, roots and all, but avoid touching them.

TAKE PRECAUTIONS

Afterward, if you must burn them, keep out of the smoke, which will hold vaporized particles of the poison.

If case you do find yourself with a rash, see your doctor for soothing medications.

So put on your work clothes and get outdoors.

* * *

Make the most of what gardening has to offer, but observe these precautions for fun without regrets.

Finance Your Landscaping

Anyone who owns a home can finance landscaping of the grounds by applying for a loan at a bank.

Under Title I, of the Federal Housing Act, government-insured loans can be made up to $3,500 for landscaping.

Most large nurserymen will arrange for financing at local banks if the home owner desires it.

The best procedure is to find out how much the cost of landscaping will be from a nurseryman or landscaped architect, then apply to a bank for a loan.

It is preferable to have a plan for the landscaping, if any considerable sum is to be spent.

As a rule of thumb, a first-rate landscaping job should not cost less than five per cent of the value of the home.

Landscaping costs can be added to a mortgage in many cases if the same bank handles both the loan and the mortgage.

Cleanliness Vital to Plant Health

Cleanliness is vital because plants breathe through tiny pores which lace their leaves.

If these become clogged, plants wither and die.

★ ★ ★

Thus dust and soot should be removed, and the easiest and best method is to wash the leaves gently with soap and water.

★ ★ ★

This helps a plant to maintain both its health and luster.

5th Annual Set for May 19-21

Clara B. Ford Garden Forum

The fifth annual Clara B. Ford Garden Forum sponsored by the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village will be held May 19-21.

A special highlight of the Forum will be the showing of 80 original watercolor paintings of fruits, flowers and vegetables by the late Elsie Bostelmann.

★ ★ ★

These original paintings have been loaned to the Henry Ford Museum by the National Geographic Society in Washington, D.C., for special showing at the Clara B. Ford Garden Forum.

An outstanding program of illustrated lectures by prominent authorities will be presented in the Museum theater during the three-day Forum.

★ ★ ★

The opening session on Thursday morning will be by Dr. Donald Wyman, horticulturist, Arnold Arboretum, Harvard University. His topic is "Low Maintenance Gardening." Roy J. Kersey, Devon, Pa., horticulturist, will present a two-part program on "Plant Propagation."

FRIDAY

Friday morning, M. Graham Netting, director of the Carnegie Museum, Pittsburgh, Pa., will discuss "Getting Close to Nature," based on the Powdermill Nature Reserve at Llgonier, Pa. Frederick W. Case, II, of Saginaw, Mich., will present an illustrated lecture on "Hunting and Taming American Alpine and Rock Plants."

During the afternoon session, Elizabeth Scholtz, of the Brooklyn Botanic Garden in New York, will discuss and exhibit "The 'Hows' and 'Whys' of Vegetable Dyeing."

"Bulldozed, America" and "Time to Begin," two documented films on the thoughtless destruction of our landscape, will also be shown during the afternoon.

★ ★ ★

A special Forum program will be presented on Friday evening in conjunction with the Henry Ford Museum Antiques Lectures Series.

John Pearce, curator, department of properties, The National Trust for Historic Preservation, Washington, D. C., will talk about "Lyndhurst on the Hudson: A.J. Davis' Great Gothic Mansion at Tarrytown, N. Y."

James A. Fowler, director of education for the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village, will lead a nature walk through the Village early Saturday morning.

A demonstration of planting period gardens in the Village will be presented and the Garden Forum will be concluded with a special film, "The Colonial Naturalist," the story of the American experiences of the English botanist, Mark Catesby, who came to Williamsburg, Va., in 1712.

Registration information for the Garden Forum may be had by contacting Henry Ford Museum or Greenfield Village.

Winter Tip for Next Year

Your lawns and plants will be safer if you use sand rather than salt to overcome the ice problems on your sidewalk or driveway.

Investigation showed that excessive use of salt (sodium chloride) caused serious injury or death to trees in a highway drainage area.

Purple Martins Are Insect Devourers

If you love summer, but hate the inevitable mosquitoes, flies, etc., that come with the season, prepare now to fight them off.

Recommended ammunition: a castle and some Purple Martins. One bird eats 2,000 mosquitoes every day — or at least his own weight in flying insects.

To lure the Purple Martins to your yard and to reward them for coming, all you need is a deluxe Martin castle.

American Machinist tells us that the castles are now made of nonrotting reflective aluminum and come with 24 compartments or 36 compartments. It may be less costly and more interesting than screening-in the back porch.

Raddishes are ready for harvesting three to four weeks after planting.

Knotweed's New Control

The Lawn Institute reports excellent success with a new weed-killing ingredient, Dicamba, for the control of creeping knotweed.

Knotweed characteristically shows up on compacted soils that are hot and dry in summer. Where bluegrass is flourishing there will be little knotweed in the lawn.

★ ★ ★

But it is apt to be prevalent along paths, in unpaved drives or where the turf is mowed too closely.

A spray containing Dicamba effectively eliminates the knotweed, but should not be used near ornamentals such as yews.

Home gardeners should not allow water from higher ground to flood their plots. Diversion drains are recommended.

It is far easier to write about slams and games than about lowly part scores but some of the best played hands occur at lowly contracts.

JACOBY

South was not happy with his hand at any time but he did not like to let West play one no - trump doubled, so ran out into his only four-card suit.

West opened his king of clubs and South was even more unhappy when he saw the dummy. Then he proceeded to make the contract by a series of magnificent plays.

He won the first trick with dummy's ace of clubs and returned the suit. East won with the ten and promptly led back the three of trumps. South payed low. West cashed his ace and king of trumps and got out with a diamond, won by dummy's ace.

South led dummy's queen of spades. West refused to take his king and a second spade was led from dummy. This time, South played his nine and West had to take his king. A second diamond went to dummy's king and South was able to get to his hand with the jack of spades, in order to lead and ruff his last club.

This made six tricks. He had taken two spades, two diamonds and one club and one club ruff. He led dummy's ace of spades and east had no way to keep South from making two of the last three tricks.

Quite a series of plays by South. However, West must be given some credit for making the play possible. Had he opened his ace and king of trumps and then shifted to a low club, South would have had no way to keep East from getting in to lead a third trump and the contract could not have been made.

CARD Sense

Q—The bidding has been:

What do you do?

A—If you have any faith in your partner bid four spades. He should have a lot of black cards and your ace of hearts should be worth its weight in gold.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of bidding three clubs West bids three hearts. Your partner jumps to four spades. East bids five hearts. What do you do?

Two Flint Men Saved After Boat Sinks in Ocean

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Two Flint, Mich., men were rescued by the Coast Guard Thursday after their rented boat sank on a trip to Chub Cay in the Bahamas.

The men, identified as Henry Blackman and John Russell, were wet but uninjured when a Coast Guard flying boat returned them to short.

When the Coast Guard arrived, the two were setting on the bow, only portion of the 32-foot boat remaining above the water. The sinking occurred 80 miles east-southeast of Miami.

They were vacationing at a Fort Lauderdale motel.

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR
For Saturday

"The wise man controls his destiny . . . Astrology points the way."

ARIES (Mar. 21 - Apr. 19): Indirect methods approach advocated. Day when confrontation could lead to embarrassment, resentment. Be diplomatic. Study material at hand. Take time to ANALYZE.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 - May 20): Study ARIES message. Realize over-aggressiveness could lead to permanent separation. Instead, try maturity . . . understanding. Then day produces solid advancement, satisfaction.

GEMINI (May 21 - June 20): Emphasis on agreements which relate to home, security. Take new road. Realize younger persons may have valid suggestions. Keep mind open . . . BE RECEPTIVE.

CANCER (June 21 - July 22): Intuitive intellect at work. You have hunch which is valid. Follow through. Does no good to argue with relatives, neighbors. Make concession. Give in for greater HARMONY.

LEO (July 23 - Aug. 22): Avoid taking chances with money, possessions, in plain words . . . not wise to gamble with assets. Avoid carelessness, extravagance. Romantic pursuits stressed . . . but permit logic to rule.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 - Sept. 22): Tendency is to act on impulse where home affairs are concerned. Check with expert. Applies especially where real estate enters picture. Surprise due. Be ready!

LIBRA (Sept. 23 - Oct. 22): You could be upset by discoveries relating to those close at hand. Means you may be disillusioned. Best course is a wait-and-see attitude. Don't jump to conclusions!

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 - Nov. 21): Take care with appearance. Fine for getting surroundings in order . . . for visiting, helping those confined. Be thoughtful. Accent consideration. Shine.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 - Dec. 21): You can realize goals — obtain sense of emotional direction. Cycle high. Many outside pressures are evident. Guard reputation — and credit. Be aware of current responsibilities.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 19): Organize forces. Bring out into open your desires, goals. Some affairs require attention. Seek beyond the obvious. This can be a POWER DAY — featuring ACCOMPLISHMENT!

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18): Get rid of self-imposed restrictions. Be generous. Don't be impatient with views of others. Emphasize the positive where wishes, friends are concerned.

PISCES (Feb. 19 - Mar. 20): Good for starting project, making contemplated change. Enhance prestige by taking positive action. Fine for socializing with one in authority. Be gracious. Maintain poise.

Defense Dept. to Call 26,500 in July Draft

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department has called for the induction of 26,500 men in July. This is 11,500 above the June quota, but about 8,000 below the number being inducted in May.

All the July draftees will serve in the Army. The Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force did not draw on the draft for July manpower requirements.

Protestant 'Union' Is Slated for 1970s

DALLAS (UPI) — Millions of Protestants in all parts of America will be enlisted during the coming year in the task of planning a new church.

The new church, which thus far has no name, is scheduled to come into being sometime during the 1970s. It will be a union of eight existing denominations and will be by far the largest Protestant body in the world.

Leaders of the eight denominations — meeting in a body known as the Consultation of Church Union (COCU) — reached agreement in Dallas this week on some of the basic principles to be followed in establishing the united church.

They found themselves in accord on doctrine, sacraments, worship practices and the ministry.

★ ★ ★

But they were not able to agree on how the united church should be organized and governed — specifically, how much power should be vested in the bishops and how much reserved for representative councils like presbyteries and local congregations.

UNITED GROUP

Denominations involved are the Methodist Church, the Episcopal Church, United Presbyterian Church, United Church of Christ, Disciples of Christ, African Methodist Episcopal Church, Southern Presbyterian Church and Evangelical United Brethren.

Sewer Project Loan

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Department of Housing and Urban Development Thursday announced an $11,050 loan to North Branch, Mich., to plan a sewerage project which will cost an estimated $270,000.

Doctor's Diary on Churchill Kicking Up Storm of Controversy

By TOM A. CULLEN

LONDON (NEA) — "I suffer from dyspepsia, and this is the treatment," Winston Churchill told his doctor at their first meeting in May, 1940.

Churchill, who had just been appointed prime minister at the age of 65, then got out of bed and proceeded to do breathing exercises, his great white belly moving up and down.

This slightly bullying attitude dominated Churchill's relationship with Lord Moran, his personal physician, over the next 25 years.

Now it is set forth for the whole world to see in Lord Moran's diaries, which are being serialized here and in America prior to publication in book form.

★ ★ ★

The diaries have kicked up a storm of controversy involving the Churchill family, the medical profession and sundry other characters.

ACCUSATIONS

"Outrageous," "Unethical," "Breach of confidence"—these are some of the accusations leveled at Lord Moran, who is 84.

Publication of his diaries has raised ethical questions which will be hotly disputed here for many months.

Should a doctor tell? Is he ever justified in disclosing information obtained by virtue of his confidential relationship to a patient?

★ ★ ★

What recourse have the relatives of a dead patient against such disclosure? These are only a few of the issues raised.

AGAINST WISH

One thing appears certain: the diaries were published against the wishes of Lady Churchill.

"While my father was still alive," Randolph Churchill wrote to the London Times, "she (Lady Churchill) told Lord Moran that she would rather he did not write about Sir Winston."

The late Sir Winston's daughter, Mrs. Mary Soames, is even more outspoken in her criticism of the physician.

"Lord Moran has done an outrageous thing in complete breach of a doctor's ethics," says Mrs. Soames. "We are all so surprised and bitterly upset by it."

In criticizing Lord Moran, Lancet, the influential medical journal, says that he should never have published the clinical details of Churchill's illnesses. Such publication sets a bad precedent, Lancet maintains.

The British Medical Association has gone further, and has drawn up a new ethical rule for doctors, warning them that they risk censure if they disclose anything about a patient, living or dead, without the consent of close relatives.

In self-defense, Lord Moran claims that Churchill's illnesses during the early part of the war were described at length in the American press, and that he is concerned primarily with correcting the inaccuracies of these reports.

Furthermore, he claims that he was urged to publish the diaries by historian G. M. Trevelyan, who told him: "It is inevitable that everything about this man will be known in time — let us have the truth."

It is when he scampers into the briar patch of politics that Lord Moran gets caught up on thorns, in the opinion of observers.

Scooter Colors Give False Impression

BOSTON (AP) — Patrolman Joseph Ford thinks his red and white scooter is great for keeping track of law and order in Boston Common, but says it could use a different set of colors.

"Everyone thinks that a red and white scooter is a toy," he said, "and that I'm just having fun."

Wreckers Solve Wallet Mystery

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—The mystery of the vanishing wallets at the Piedmont Hotel has been solved — at last.

★ ★ ★

A crew tearing down the 64-year-old building found nine or 10 wallets and purses in an acoustical ceiling. They contained no money.

★ ★ ★

"We figure they were hidden there by thieves," said R. L. Atiken of the salvage company. "All they had to do was push up a tile in the ceiling, throw in the wallet and let the tile back down."

Scattered Issues on Rebound

Mart Sliding in Heavy Trade

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market continued to slide early this afternoon in heavy trading.

General Motors, which triggered yesterday's shakeout, continued weak, making a succession of new lows.

The ticker tape ran as much as nine minutes late but was cutting the delay as the session wore on.

Scattered issues rebounded throughout the list.

Motorola, a 20-point loser yesterday, snapped back 5 points or so.

Volume was running ahead of yesterday whose total topped 10 million shares as the list took its worst pounding since the Kennedy assassination on Nov. 22, 1963.

The market was groping for support, brokers said, and had reached a level in the averages where chartists said it would either hold and rally, or break down and go considerably lower.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off 1.9 at 330.2 with industrials off 3.1, rails off 1.3 and utilities off .2.

DOW JONES

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off 4.01 at 895.6. This average had theoretical "support" around 890-895.

Corporate and U.S. Treasury bonds were mostly unchanged in quiet trading.

Calls Saigon U.S. Brothel

Sen. Fulbright Blames Impact of America

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ignoring Barry Goldwater's demand that he step down as chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Sen. J. W. Fulbright has challenged new controversy by calling Saigon "an American brothel."

★ ★ ★

The outspoken Arkansas senator said what is happening to the capital of South Viet Nam is the result of the "fatal impact" that a rich strong civilization—"even when acting with the best of intentions" — can have on a poor weak one.

Fulbright, concluding last night his series of lectures at Johns Hopkins University's School of Advanced International Studies, said published reports of the impact of Americans and American money on Saigon show:

- "That it is not unusual to hear a report that a Vietnamese soldier has committed suicide out of shame because his wife has been working as a bar girl.
- "That as a result of the American influx, bar girls, prostitutes, pimps, bar owners and taxi drivers have risen to the higher levels of the economic pyramid;
- "That middle-class Vietnamese families have difficulties renting homes because Americans have driven up the rent beyond their reach and some Vietnamese families have actually been evicted from houses and apartments by landlords who prefer to rent to the affluent Americans . . ."

"Both literally and figuratively, Saigon has become an American brothel," Fulbright said.

Dividend Increase Reported by Firm

DETROIT (AP)—Fruehauf Corp. management announced yesterday a five-cent increase in the quarterly dividend, to 4½ cents a share.

The dividend is payable Aug. 1 to shareholders of record July 1.

President William E. Grace told the annual meeting the firm's backlog of orders is at a record high, second quarter production is sold out, and "every indication today is that 1966 will be another good year for the company."

Fruehauf manufacturers a number of items, including trailers and metal containers.

Business Notes

Harry A. Sanders, 780 E. Square Lake, Bloomfield Township, has been elected president of the Detroit and Toledo Shore Line Railroad Co.

The freight service line is jointly owned by the Grand Trunk Western and Norfolk and Western railroads.

A former Pontiac resident, Van R. Peters has been named executive assistant to the general sales manager at Oldsmobile Division in Lansing. Since 1962 Peters has been manager of Oldsmobile's Cleveland zone.

The Mutual Finance Corp. has opened a branch office in the Glenwood Shopping Center and assigned William Denyo of Madison Heights as office manager.

The firm also has offices in Detroit, Livonia and Madison Heights.

Tax Question Splits Experts of Economy

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK—To tax or not to tax is the question now openly splitting the ranks of the official chartists of the nation's monetary, fiscal and economic policies.

DAWSON

The ultimate policy maker, President Johnson, is holding to a wait-and-see course. He wants to know for sure that inflationary dangers are growing so fast that only an increase in personal and corporate income taxes can cool down the booming economy.

★ ★ ★

But his closest advisers, both present and in the recent past, are splitting openly on whether a tax increase is needed — and when.

William McChesney Martin Jr., chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, which shapes monetary policies, says "the only logical way" to deal with inflation is a "simple, clean-cut, across-the-board increase in taxes."

URGES DELAY

Gardner Ackley, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, says the question can be held up for a while to see if monetary and fiscal restraints already prescribed will curb the inflationary trend. Ackley also firmly supports the President's policy of using persuasion on business and labor leaders to get them to hold down on price and wage increases.

Henry H. Fowler, secretary of the treasury, warns that a tax increase now might be effective only late in the year when the economic pace could be weakening of itself. Such a tax boost could turn the economy into a downward spin next year and do harm rather than good. Instead, Fowler urges bankers to help curb inflation by weeding out "the speculative loans."

But Walter Heller, who was chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers under Presidents Kennedy and Johnson, before Ackley took over, says this is the time to increase taxes. He contends that inflation must be halted now before it can send the economy into a boom that could lead only to a bust.

Heller was the architect of the U.S. fiscal policy, which has now come to be known as the New Economics. He advised spending measures that would increase employment even though the federal budget would continue to operate in the red. One of his proposals was the cut in personal and corporate income taxes that helped send the economy on the upsurge that is now bothering the monetary and fiscal managers.

INTEREST RATES

Martin and his Federal Reserve Board took an anti-inflation step on its own last December by starting the rise in interest rates which the administration at first opposed. Now Martin is suggesting the Fed's monetary measures should be joined by administration fiscal measures — that is, higher interest rates aren't enough by themselves without higher taxes to curb spending and discourage speculation.

A member of Martin's board, James L. Robertson, who voted against the December interest hike, is now telling bankers "we need to restrain investment, which is running ahead at an excessive rate." He adds: "No longer do we need to accelerate growth in our national income."

President Johnson has called a panel of top business and labor officials to come up with plans for maintaining prosperity while achieving economic stability. His revived Labor-Managemen Advisory Committee is being asked to give its views on tax and monetary policies.

The battle also is spreading to Congress. House members who want to raise appropriations for educational and welfare projects are being warned that this might trigger a tax increase demand. But many of them doubt this, saying that the real threat of higher taxes lies in the chance of a sharp increase in spending for the Viet Nam War.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "I am a widow, 65 years old, and my only source of income is Social Security and 96 shares of Sears, Roebuck. I have been getting along by selling some shares of Sears. With the market as it has been recently, I did not want to sell Sears and have been borrowing from my sister. I don't want to make a habit of this procedure. If Sears stock goes higher, should I sell and put the proceeds in the bank at 4½ per cent interest, so that I will not again be dependent on the stock market?" W. J.

A) I like Sears, Roebuck, but in your straightened position, the stock appears to be too rich for you, selling to yield less than two per cent.

I believe you should sell Sears when and if it reaches 60 and put $3,000 of the proceeds into a straight life annuity and $2,700 into savings. The combination would increase your income by about $10 a month and leave you safe from the vagaries of the market.

Q) "I have low-coupon, long-term Treasuries. If I sell at present, I would take a big loss. Should I switch into Federal National Mortgage Association 5.30s due May 10, 1967?" L. C.

A) There are no indications that money will soon ease and I would consider it reasonable to sell long-term treasuries that carry low coupon rates—1½ or 2½ per cent. Although the yield to maturity on these bonds is good, the current return is low and they are fully subject to federal income taxes.

Fanny Mae obligations are well secured and your suggested switch would certainly improve your income, short term. You might also consider Series E savings bonds, now yielding 4.15 per cent—on which federal income tax can be deferred until maturity or redemption.

No Progress in Press Strike

NEW YORK (UPI) — Representatives of the New York Newspaper Guild and the World Journal Tribune met yesterday for several hours, but no progress was reported in attempts to settle the Guild's 12-day-old strike against the yet-to-publish newspapers.

The Guild and management disagree on how to select 900 of 1,800 editorial and clerical workers to be retained from the three newspapers consolidated in the merger.

★ ★ ★

Nine craft unions supporting the strike have also failed to reach agreement with the new corporation.

The World Journal Tribune was formed by merger of the New York Herald Tribune, the World Telegram and the Sun, and the New York Journal-American.

Would-Be Robber in Hasty Retreat

A holdup man apparently lost his nerve in the midst of an attempted robbery yesterday afternoon at the cashier's office at Pontiac General Hospital.

Hospital employe Joanne Pearson, 32, of 5009 Waterford, Independence Township, told police the man approached the desk shortly after noon, demanding money.

Apparently brandishing a weapon beneath his sweater, the man said 'Give me all your money,' she said.

Admittedly frightened, the Pearson woman turned and ran into a back room. When she glanced back, the man had vanished.

Agency Lists Two Area Men for Promotions

Two Pontiac area men have been named company vice presidents by the board of directors of MacManus, John & Adams, Inc.

Richard C. Candor of 2651 Douglas, Bloomfield Township, the agency's creative director, and Robert B. Latimer of 15654 Birwood, Birmingham, executive director of copy, are both attached to the agency's Bloomfield Hills office.

CANDOR LATIMER

They will be among four men at MJ&A responsible for the company's creative products, according to president Ernest A. Jones.

Candor joined the agency last year, while Latimer has been with the firm since 1959.

Gross, Profit Firm Record

Manpower Inc., which has a Pontiac branch office at 1338 W. Wide Track, today announced record net earnings and gross revenue for the nine months ended March 31 of this year.

Gross revenues for the period were $43,816,400, up 30.2 per cent from the $33,645,700 for the comparable nine months in the previous fiscal year.

Net earnings reached $1,719,500, or $1.21 per share, up 21.3 per cent from $1,417,300, for the same period in 1965.

The local announcement was made by Pontiac branch manager A. E. Little, who predicted that Manpower would soon be the first firm in the temporary help industry to pass the $100 million mark in annual sales.

Nine-month sales for the company were $87,652,800.

Sophomore Jinx Is Behind Sweepstakes

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — Sweepstakes! It smacks of "a lot for a little," brings out the gambling urge and shapes a little man's dream of sudden fortune.

New Hampshire's two-year experience with the pioneering, state-sponsored sweepstakes program of the 20th century included a period when critics contended the legal lottery produced a lot of ballyhoo and too little revenue. But tickets kept selling, opposition kept fading.

★ ★ ★

Supporters now are convinced that New Hampshire eventually stands to make a substantial gain on the sweepstakes. They believe the state's dream of big financial profits can become a reality if legal blocks to state and national sales expansion are removed.

"The year of the sophomore slump" is the way 1965 is described by the Sweepstakes Commission chairman, Howell F. Shepard. He predicts that 1966 sales — already running about 24 per cent ahead of 1965 — will reflect solid public support for the program.

COUNT ON TOURIST

"We have to count a lot on the tourist," he added. In 1965, an estimated 85 per cent of the tickets sold went to out-of-state residents who visited New Hampshire.

Mailing of information on lotteries is prohibited by federal law. Congressmen from New Hampshire are seeking a change in federal postal regulations.

A proposal to expand ticket sales sites in the state passed the House of Representatives in the 1965 New Hampshire legislative session but failed to survive in the Senate.

A substitute measure became law, adding the Sweepstakes Commission office and branch offices at the Hooksett and Hampton toll stations on the state turnpike system. Original legislation established state liquor stores and the three race tracks as sales sites.

The commission has undertaken a program of bolstering interest in the sweepstakes program through development of a "holiday bonus" project, creation of business leaders' seminars and promotion of "sweepstakes clubs," more than 700 of which already have been organized.

Shepard said studies of New Hampshire's sweepstakes operation, or at least inquiries, have been made by representatives of New York, New Jersey, Kentucky, Vermont, Massachusetts, Oregon and Michigan.

In New Hampshire — which has no broad-based state income or sales tax — the revenue from the sweepstakes is returned to the cities and towns for school purposes, on a flat grant per pupil basis.

Of the 237 cities and towns in the state, only 12 small towns voted against the sweepstakes program in 1964. This November, local option votes will again be taken on the sale of sweepstakes tickets in cities and towns.

Shooting Not Tied to Politics

CHICAGO (AP) — Fred D. Hubbard, 36, a challenger of Rep. William L. Dawson, D-Ill., who was shot and wounded by a mystery gunman, says he does not attribute the shooting to opposition forces.

Hubbard made the statement Thursday at the hospital where he was taken after the shooting.

★ ★ ★

"Even in the heat of this kind of political battle," he said, "I'm sure that the other forces would have nothing to do with a shooting."

Hubbard said the gunman entered his office shortly after a campaign aide had gone out for coffee. He heard a noise, Hubbard said, looked up and saw the silhouette of a man with a gun.

"I saw a gun in his hand, saw a flash and felt a stinging in my left shoulder," he said.

He returned the fire with a gun he had confiscated from a juvenile gang member some time ago, Hubbard said.

Dawson, 78, whom Hubbard is opposing in the 1st Congressional District Democratic primary, is often referred to as one of the most powerful Negro political figures in the United States.

NY Hospital Lists Thomas as Satisfactory

NEW YORK (AP) — Norman Thomas, six-time Socialist party candidate for president, was reported in satisfactory condition today in Beth Israel Hospital after a freak accident.

Hospitalization of the 81-year-old Thomas was disclosed Thursday.

He was injured Monday when his raincoat caught in the door of a taxi as it pulled away. Thomas, thrown to the ground and dragged, suffered cuts and bruises.

"I wanted to dust myself off and forget it," said the Socialist leader, "but we saw blood and the driver said he'd have to take me to a hospital."

City Decides Goats Cut Grass Cheaper

Judges Steal Cannes Show

CANNES, France (UPI)—The judges are causing more of a stir at the Cannes Film Festival this year then the entries.

★ ★ ★

Sophia Loren, president of the festival's jury, caused a near riot last night when she showed up, squired by husband Carlo Ponti for a showing of "Ashes," Poland's entry.

Police struggled with hundreds of photographers and spectators trying to catch a glimpse of the bejeweled actress as she swept into Festival Palace, overlooking the moonlight Mediterranean.

Stars such as Kirk Douglas slipped in almost unnoticed.

Real Thing for Jeanne

Serenity Far From an Illusion

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — In her film performances, Jeanne Crain has long presented a portrait of serenity. It is no illusion.

Could there be any doubt that she is just as serene in real life? Not when you consider how she manages an acting career and a family of seven children, ranging from a collegiate to a 10-month old.

★ ★ ★

How does she do it?

"I have no system," she said. "The only way I operate is to take one thing at a time. I never worry about things until they happen."

SEEMS TO AGREE

Whatever her method, it seems to agree with her. She has reached the age when life is supposed to begin, yet she retains the fresh beauty she exhibited in "Margie," "Centennial Summer," "Letter to Three Wives," "Pinky" and other memorable films of her 20th Century-Fox career.

Now she has joined with another Fox graduate, Dana Andrews, in a new film, "52 Miles to Terror." It is being made at MGM as a two-hour movie for television, although it may be released in theaters first.

★ ★ ★

"It feels good to be working again," she said in her dressing room. "This is the first picture I've done since I had Christopher. He was our afterthought."

Christopher last year joined the family which already included: Paul Jr., 19 and a student at Loyola University (Los Angeles); Mike, 17; Tim, 15; Jeanine, 14; Betsy, 8; and Mia, 6. Father is Paul Brinkman.

HAVE IT EASIER

Admittedly, the Brinkmans have it easier than most large families, since they employ a gem of a couple who have helped manage the household for 10 years.

"They've been with us since before the three youngest children were born," said Jeanne, "so they're really a part of the family. Also, the older children take care of the younger ones, and two of the boys can drive, so it's no problem for Paul and me to get away."

★ ★ ★

That can happen, since much of her film-making in recent years has been in Europe. Her last one was a German-Italian-Yugoslavian production.

Jeanne will be stationed here in the future, since she is embarking on her first television series next fall. She has been cast with Howard Duff in "Men Against Evil," which will be made at her old alma mater, 20th Century-Fox.

THE 'ACCENT'

"It's a kind of 'Dragnet' or 'Naked City' with the accent on what happens to the policemen after they finish their daily routine," she said. "That's where I fit in; I play Howard's wife."

In case the series and the children don't keep her busy enough, she has her studies at UCLA.

"We moved to a house across the street from the campus," she said, "and it seemed a shame to let the opportunity pass. Especially since I never went beyond high school on the Fox lot."

(Editor's Note—Starting next Monday, Bob Thomas will be reporting the movie scene from film locations in Europe.)

No Agreement by Dissenters

Views Wide-Ranging at Freedom Forum

ALBION (AP) — Put a right-to-left spectrum of national organization leaders into a college chapel, tell them to talk about "Dissent in Democracy" and you get nine hours of the broadest dissent imaginable.

From leading American Communist spokesman Gus Hall to a John Birch Society leader, the participants in Albion College's Freedom Forum could not even agree who had the right to dissent, much less what to dissent about.

The comments from such men as National Selective Service Director Lt. Gen. Lewis Hershey, "new left" student leader Carl Oglesby and the other five weren't surprising.

But simply gathering this much articulate opposition into one room for a day of statements and cross-questioning ga meaning to the remarks of keynoting Michigan Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley that "free speech on the campus is one of the most reliable antidotes to confirmity."

The audience of up to 1,400 at the 1,550 - student Methodist-affiliated school had healthy applause for everyone, an ample dose of barbed questions—and not a single untoward incident, once early-week bomb threats were disposed of.

Every speaker was surrounded for informal discussion after his appearance.

Junior Editors Quiz on HYENAS

QUESTION: Do laughing hyenas really laugh?

ANSWER: The hyena is such an awkward, unlovable-looking brute that one would imagine he'd have little to laugh about — or we might think that, since he's so unpopular, it's a good thing he has a sense of humor to fall back on.

The truth is, however, that the hyena doesn't laugh; he has a kind of shrieking howl which is frightening to hear and is often described as being what one might imagine the laughter of a demon would be like.

This strange sound has given him the nickname of laughing hyena.

Hyenas prowl and hunt at night, and quite possibly their crazy laughing howl may scare away other predatory animals who have killed game, which is just what the hyena wants, as he prefers to eat food which has been killed by other animals.

Although so clumsy in appearance, hyenas have exceedingly strong jaws and one would think would be well able to catch their own food.

But they have a skulking, cowardly streak and prefer to leave the hard work of hunting to some other animal.

There are three kinds. The striped hyena is found in Asia Minor, India, Persia and parts of Africa, and the brown hyena in South Africa. The spotted hyena, which we illustrate, also comes from Africa.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Color the upper picture so it looks like moonlight. The hyena should be a deep greenish brown and the sky behind a grayish blue; but leave the moon pure white. Put some spooky color on ground and mushrooms.

CONWAY J. BOLEN

Word has been received of the death of former Pontiac resident Conway J. Bolen of Denver, Colo. He died there April 2.

Mr. Bolen was affiliated with General Motors Corp. when in Pontiac from 1920 to 1941.

Surviving are his wife, Nelle M.; a daughter, Mrs. Rilla M. Knutson of Denver; and two granddaughters.

MRS. EMMA M. SEDDON

Service for Mrs. Emma M. Seddon, 52, of 325 E. Sheffield will be 1 p.m. Monday at Donelson-Johns Funeral Home.

Mrs. Seddon, an accountant for Don Thomas Sporthaus, died yesterday after a four-day illness. She was a member of the American Business Women's Association.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Joanne Ritchie of Toledo, Ohio; two granddaughters and a sister.

SABRA A. STINE

Prayers will be offered for Sabra A. Stine, four-year-old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Mires Stine of 2932 Edgefield, Waterford Township, at 1:30 p.m. Monday in Ascension Lutheran Church where her father is pastor.

Her body will be taken to Wheeling, W. Va. for burial by the Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home.

The girl died today after a short illness.

Surviving are her parents; a sister, Julie, at home; and grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gonter of Wheeling and Mr. and Mrs. Mires Stine of Cincinnati, Ohio.

MRS. LEROY GRAVES

OXFORD — Service for former resident Mrs. LeRoy (Dorothy) Graves, 49, of Warren will be 2 p.m. Monday at the First Baptist Church of Oxford. Burial will be in Lakeville Cemetery by Bossardet Funeral Home.

Mrs. Graves died yesterday ffter a long illness.

Surviving besides her husband are her father, Elmer Holloway of Warren; three daughters, Mrs. Mary Lou Sherman of Fairview, Ill., Mrs. Betty Schultz of Rock Island, Ill., and Vera at home; a son, James Calvin at home; two sisters; and three brothers.

MRS. RUSSELL R. PETERS

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—Service for Mrs. Russell (Dorothy N.) Peters, 71, of 6400 Thurber will be 10 a.m. tomorrow at the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. Burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy.

Mrs. Peters died yesterday after a short illness. She was a member of the Women's City Club of Detroit.

Surviving besides her husband are two sons, Thomas R. of Birmingham and Frank R. of Detroit; one brother; and eight grandchildren.

MRS. JACK WEIR

HIGHLAND — Service for Mrs. Jack (Geneva) Weir, 45, of 3185 Beaumont will be 1 p.m. tomorrow at the Hopcroft Funeral Home, Hazel Park. Burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy.

Mrs. Weir died Wednesday after a short illness.

Surviving besides her husband are her mother, Mrs. Cora Grady of Hazel Park; a sister; and a brother.

Gunman Slain in Detroit Bar

DETROIT (UPI) — A would-be bandit was shot to death by a customer in a Detroit bar last night after he shot and critically wounded the bartender.

Police said the dead man, Jasper Howard, 34, whose last address was a cheap Detroit hotel, followed the bartender of the Chene Trombly Bar into a room in the back of the building when he went to get a case of beer from a cooler.

A shot rang out and the bartender, Gerry Ruhman, 40, of Detroit, who was working an extra shift to get money for his coming marriage this summer, fell with a bullet wound in his neck.

Officers said two of the three customers in the bar, John P. Klotz, 26, and Edward Terlecki, 51, both of Detroit, attacked Howard as he tried to open the bar cash register.

City Teen Arrested on Burglary Charge

A 17-year-old Pontiac youth was arrested this morning by city police for questioning with an alleged burglary at Mack's Recreation, 326 E. Wilson.

Arrested wes Jerry Branner of 147 Raeburn. Police were alerted by a nearby resident who heard noise in the building.

According to police, two pool table coin boxes and a jukebox, containing about $27 in change, had been broken into.

The suspect reportedly was found hiding behind a pool table.

Would You Believe a Tiny Toad?

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — When Herman M. Nelson of Austin, Tex., received a parking ticket while visiting in Beaumont recently, he sat down and wrote a letter to the police.

Nelson told Beaumont Police Chief Willie Bauer that the parking meter he parked in front of had a green tree frog sitting on the coin slot.

"He would budge no more than a property owner who had decided not to be evicted," Nelson's letter read.

"Since I had no desire to maim, mangle, or murder this independent individual — or to get warts — I let him remain," said Nelson.

★ ★ ★

The Beaumont police chief replied: "Such a refreshing letter from a visitor to our town is worth a dollar of anybody's money, so I paid your fine out of my pocket. Please come back and bring your humor with you."

Commerce Twp. Boy Hit by Car, in Poor Condition

Listed in poor condition in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital is William Linseman, son of Mrs. Dorothy L. Linseman, 4890 Broadway.

The driver of the car, Donald H. Ray, 16, of 314 Charlevoix, Commerce Township, told sheriff's deputies the boy ran into the path of his car.

He was not held.

Await Final Draft

PFA, City Reach Agreement

Jack Douglas, president of the Pontiac Firefighters Association (PFA), announced yesterday that his group had agreed to final terms in the wage dispute with the city.

Earlier it had been announced that the city and the PFA had reached tentative agreement.

Final terms were worked out yesterday in a nearly all-day meeting with PFA representatives and City Manager Joseph A. Warren, according to Douglas.

Douglas said the final agreement still needs ratification by the City Commission.

★ ★ ★

Warren said a final draft of the agreement would have to be made and another meeting held to finalize its terms.

★ ★ ★

An unfair labor practice charge against the city, filed by the PFA, is still pending. A hearing has been set for May 18 before the State Labor Mediation Board.

Charlotte Ford Awaiting Delivery of Her New Ford

By EARL WILSON

Stavros Niarichos is arriving from Honolulu to join his expectant wife Charlotte Ford. They'll await the baby on Sutton Pl. S. . . . Haynes Johnson, the Wash'n Star Pulitzer Prize reporter, is the son of Malcolm Johnson, now of Hill and Knowlton, who used to cover the Saloon Beat for the old NY Sun, and 17 yrs. ago won the Pulitzer for his waterfront expose.

WILSON

The Supremes were served with a $100,000 lawsuit at the Ed Sullivan show by attorneys for Keith Fowler, Winston - Salem promoter who charged them with nonappearance.

We helicoptered out to the Golden Door at Kennedy for a scotch party (even those who didn't take the helicopter out were soon flying)...then to Chauveron for a feast arranged by winning chefs of Mobil Travel Guide, which (remarkably) chose two Cincinnati restaurants among the nation's 8 best. (In Cincinnati: Maisonette and Pigall's).

Chef of the latter, Maurice Gorodesky, has been rumored in line to run Le Pavillon. Only NY restaurants on the 5-star list this year: "21" and The Chauveron.

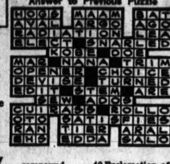
Answer to Previous Puzzle



Slum Project Report Ready

WASHINGTON (AP) — The first official evaluation of the government's big push to enrich the education of some 7 million slum children is on President Johnson's desk and may be released this weekend.

The report is by a special advisory council named by the President to keep tabs on the billion-dollar program. The 12-member council is composed largely of top ranking education experts from outside the government, but include a labor leader and others.

Sources in the U.S. Office of Education, which administers the program for disadvantaged children, said they expect the report to generally endorse what has been done since it got under way last fall. This is what has been done:

Nearly 18,500 individual projects in every state have been approved. Price tag: $927,334,821. In addition, 3,480 more projects still are being processed and if approved will bring the total cost to more than $1 billion. The cutoff date for submitting the projects to the Office of Education was last Monday.

★ ★ ★

The projects are initiated by local educational agencies under Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965, by far the biggest part of the broad-ranging act.

220 Hospitals in State Qualify Under Medicare

CHICAGO (AP) — Some 220 Michigan hospitals have been judged in compliance with the 1964 Civil Rights Act and are eligible to participate in the Medicare program, the government said Thursday.

Melville H. Hosch, regional director of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, said questionnaires were sent to 314 hospitals in the state. He said 62 did not answer and 32 gave incomplete replies.

Federal representatives are visiting hospitals that gave incomplete responses, Hosch said.

Lahr to Star June 29 in Ypsilanti Theater

YPSILANTI (AP)—Comedian Bert Lahr will star June 29 in the Ypsilanti Greek Theatre's production of "The Birds," a spoof on Greek mythology written over 2,300 years ago by the Athenian dramatist Aristophanes.

The 70-year-old comedian will play the role of Pisthetairos, who tires of high prices and taxes in war-exhausted Athens, and seeks peace in the domain of the birds.

'GOP Could Win Control of the House'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—House Republican Whip Leslie C. Arends said today the GOP could win virtual control of the House legislative program next year even without winning an actual majority in the November elections.

The Illinois lawmakers said control of the legislative program could be won of the GOP picked up 60 seats Nov. 8. He said that even lesser gains would enable the Republican minority to make trouble for President Johnson and his Great Society programs.

Arends conceded that the 77-seat gain needed to put the House under absolute GOP control was improbable, but he said it was still a possibility.

He made the comments in a speech prepared for the second session of the three-day 14th annual Republican Women's Conference.

The conference, which has attracted 3,000 GOP women from throughout the country opened yesterday with speeches by the party's 1964 presidential nominee, Barry M. Goldwater, and Michigan Gov. George W. Romney, a potential 1968 nominee. Both were given warm receptions.

Rice U. Coeds OK Liquor in Rooms

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The coeds at Rice University's Brown College have approved by a two-thirds majority a referendum which would permit alcoholic beverages in their rooms on a trial basis next fall.

Students at the men's colleges already are allowed such privilege with women students delegeses. The other university colcided to let the antiliquor rule stand.

Information Role Stressed

Chrysler President Sees Global Benefit

DETROIT (UPI)—Mass communication may in the long run be equally as important to the development of the underdeveloped third of the world as industry and capital investment, Lynn A. Townsend, president of Chrysler Corp. said today.

In an address before the annual convention of American Women in Radio and Television, Townsend said the combination of mass communication and mass production are largely responsible for the recent growth of the world's economy.

"We all agree that economic development is just as much a matter of attitude and motivation and education in the primary skills as it is of acquiring tangible resources," the auto executive said.

"People must know the importance of creating banking systems and schools and courts before they can begin to build the kind of society that can make satisfactory economic progress and attract foreign investment in substantial amounts."

★ ★ ★

Townsend said it now seems possible, with the rapid growth in the ownership of radios and television sets and with the help of such new technical developments as relay satellites, microwaves and lasers, the world may have been provided with a technical shortcut to mass education.

CONTINUANCE

"By continuing to remind our own people of the kind of life they can have through hard work and imagination — and by using the fruits of science and technology to create new goods and services ever more efficiently — we can build the kind of improving and growing economy on this continent that will be a source of capital investment and economic improvement for other parts of the wordl," Townsend added.

LBJ at Ranch for Weekend

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson hoped today for a turn for better weather in this water-logged central Texas hill country as he swung into a long weekend at his ranch.

Johnson, who flew to Texas Thursday from Washington with wife Lady Bird, announced before he came that he wanted some sunshine.

However, it has been a soggy spring for this sometimes-parched territory. And a light drizzle fell as he arrived by jet and transferred to a smaller jet-powered plane for the 60-mile hop northward to the LBJ Ranch near Johnson City.

Johnson is expected to announce a number of appointments to top government posts while in Texas. He has mentioned the possible selection of at least one woman ambassador, without revealing her identity or the country in which she will serve.

Red Rift on German Talks Eyed

BERLIN (AP) — An announcement that East German Communist party chief Walter Ulbricht has gone on vacation is arousing speculation that the party leadership is split over the proposed public debate with the West German Socialists on German reunification.

There are even reports that Ulbricht is losing his grip and may retire on his 73rd birthday June 30.

But diplomatic sources in West Berlin said the announcement Wednesday of Ulbricht's departure from Berlin may have been only a sign to the West Germans not to expect the deadlock over the debate to be resolved in the immediate future. The talks are stalled over their timing.

The West German Socialist party wants the initial dialogue to be held in East Germany this month, followed by another in West Germany in June or July. The East German Communist party wants the debate to start in July.

The speculation about Ulbricht was heightened by the disclosure that Erich Honecker, an opponent of the debates who has long been regarded as a heir to Ulbricht, told the West German Socialists this week that the East Germans would not budge from their position.

Until then, Ulbricht had handled all communications concerning the debates. He initiated the idea in an open letter in the Communist party newspaper Neues Deutschland.

Prior to Ulbricht's departure, the East German regime announced April 25 that Premier Willi Stoph, an Ulbricht man, had left the capital for a rest of several weeks.

Another indication of inter-party strife came with the confirmation today that Sigbert Loeschau, 37, had been dismissed as minister for chemical industries. Informed sources said he had been censured for a strong appeal for a quick agreement on the debate issue.

Some observers in West Berlin were skeptical of the speculation that Ulbricht had lost out to hard-liners in his party.

Red Cross 'Helpless' in Viet

GENEVA (AP) — The International Red Cross Committee told the United States today there is little it can do at present to protect American prisoners in the Viet Nam war.

In a 45-minute talk with Red Cross President Samuel Gonard, U.S. roving ambassador W. Averell Harriman was told the all-Swiss, neutral committee is helpless to overcome the political complications of the bloody conflict.

★ ★ ★

Informed sources said Gonard told Harriman that Communist North Viet Nam, a member of the Red Cross, refuses to cooperate on the grounds that American prisoners belong to the Viet Cong and are not its responsibility.

Harriman told newsmen latest figures indicate that there are 227 U.S. service personnel missing or detained in Viet Nam. Thirty-three of these are known to be prisoners, he said.

NO RECOGNITION

The Viet Cong guerrillas refuse to recognize the Geneva conventions. Because of the refusal of North Viet Nam to take any responsibility for U.S. captives, the International Red Cross has thus far failed even to get a list of Americans held.

There is no guarantee that prisoners although Harriman said there is evidence that there are "intermittent deliveries."

★ ★ ★

He admitted that at present there is no possibility of the Red Cross arranging an exchange of prisoners. Since the start of the war, Red Cross representatives have been refused access to North Viet Nam or territory controlled by the Viet Cong.

REMEMBER HIM?—Making a rare political appearance, Thomas E. Dewey, twice-defeated GOP presidential candidate and former governor of New York, spoke at a fund-raising dinner before the Republicans of Southeastern Michigan at St. Clair, yesterday. Dewey, a native of Owosso, Mich., criticized Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., for attacking U.S. policy in Viet Nam.

Tax Hike Murmurs Jar Market

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market skidded sharply yesterday and brokers blamed the decline on hints by government officials of a need for income tax increases to combat inflationary pressures.

An auto production cutback announcement by General Motors Corp. also contributed to the drop, the brokers said.

The market took one of its worst one-day beatings in recent years yesterday as two waves of selling — one shortly before and after noon and the other near the close—battered down prices.

Most prominent among the antiinflation statements was a proposal by William McChesney Martin, Federal Reserve Board chairman, that a "simple, clean-cut, across-the-board increase in taxes" was in order.

Martin's statement was made Wednesday, shortly after Gardner Ackley, the administration's chief economic adviser, told business its profits might be too high for a healthy economy.

SHARP LOSS

The Dow Jones industrial average dropped 15.09 to 899.77, its sharpest loss since Nov. 22, 1963, the day of President Kennedy's assassination, when it dropped 21.16.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell 4.4 to a new 1966 low of 332.1, and the Standard & Poor's 500-stock index lost 1.46 at 87.93.

The latter, which represents about 85 per cent of the total value of stocks on the big board, remained above its lowest of the year.

Losses yesterday included General Motors by $1 at $88, a low for the year; Chicago North Western Railroad by $13.75, Admiral by $16.25, Motorola by $20.50, Braniff Airways by $7.25 and International Business Machines Corp. by $10.50.

DONALD J. MILLAR

UF Board Adds Director's Aide

A veteran Red Cross official has been named to an executive post with the Pontiac Area United Fund.

Donald J. Millar, manager of the Oakland County regional office for the Southeastern Chapter of the American Red Cross, has been appointed associate executive director of the United Fund.

Millar's resignation, effective May 31, climaxes 20 years' service with the Red Cross.

He assumes his new post June 1. His primary job will be as campaign director.

No salary was disclosed.

★ ★ ★

The appointment was announced today by Bruce J. Annett, president of the UF Board of Trustees, and Donald J. Frey, executive director.

Millar, of 2961 Huntington Park, Waterford Township, succeeds Wendell Asplin, former Pontiac UF assistant director who now is director of the United Fund of Greater Lafayette, Ind.

Declare Intent on OCC Work

Trustees of Oakland Community College last night declared intent to award a contract for construction of the second phase of the Orchard Ridge Campus at nearly $1 million over the estimated $8.3 million cost.

Final approval of the $9,227,700 low bid was withheld because an application by the college to sell $9 million in bonds for the project has not yet been approved by the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission.

"Hopefully, approval for the bond sale will be granted next Tuesday," said OCC President John E. Tirrell.

Construction is expected to begin as soon as the bond sale is completed, providing building tradesmen have then settled contracts.

Dr. Tirrell said the bond issue will require no increase this year in the one mill countywide tax voted for OCC and that it was likely no additional tax levy will be necessary next year — or possibly several years.

He based this theory on prospects of increased state and federal aid coupled with a continuing substantial increase in Oakland County's equalized valuation.

The bond issue will span 30 years.

Construction of the second and final phase of the Farmington Township campus is scheduled for completion in early 1968, providing facilities for an ultimate 5,000 enrollment.

It will include an administration and science building, music and arts building, instructional resources building and a commons building housing assembly halls, dining rooms, kitchen, book store and snack bar.

More Layoffs to Come in GM Cutback

DETROIT (AP) — Several hundred auto production workers have been laid off and hundreds more face furloughs because General Motors Corp. is cutting back production for the first time in five years.

GM, the world's largest auto maker, said yesterday the cutbacks were to "get production schedules in line with current stocks in the field."

GM was the only one of the big auto firms to announce cutbacks.

At the same time, Ford scheduled 10 of its assembly plants on overtime operations tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

Chrysler and American Motors were on regular five-day weeks.

REPORT DUE

All the companies were expected to be mentioned today in Sen. Abraham Ribicoff's report on auto defects.

The Connecticut Democrat, head of a Senate subcommittee probing auto safety, recently asked the four major U.S. auto firms to list all manufacturing and design defects found in cars since 1960.

GM, Ford, Chrysler and AMC sent their lists to Washington yesterday.

They are due to make them public in Detroit at exactly the hour that Ribicoff begins a Washington news conference today (2 p.m. EDT).

REDUCE TOLL

The newest development in the government's efforts to reduce highway fatalities came as GM revealed the production cutback.

GM made no announcement of the cutbacks, but in answer to newsmen's queries, said Chevrolet lines in Ypsilanti, Mich., and Van Nuys, Calif. and GM assembly units in Atlanta and South Gate, Calif., were on short work time this week.

Later in the day, the list was expanded to include four New York plants.

Fierce Battle Is Raging in Central Viet

Air Cavalry Unit Is Moving In on Foe; 3 Planes Shot Down

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Fierce fighting raged today in central Viet Nam as American air cavalrymen closed in on a trapped Communist battalion. A U.S. spokesman said 141 Viet Cong had been killed in 24 hours, 30 captured and 307 suspects rounded up.

The U.S. command said elements of the 1st Air Cavalry, Airmobile, Division exchanged heavy fire throughout the day with about 300 Viet Cong troops and that at last reports the action — called Operation Davy Crockett — was continuing.

The battle — largest ground fighting in recent weeks — erupted yesterday about 10 miles north of Bong Son, near the China Sea and about 280 miles northeast of Saigon.

In the air war, the U.S. command announced the loss of two Navy planes Thursday in addition to an Air Force plane announced earlier.

U.S. Corrupts Saigon, Says Sen. Fulbright

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ignoring Barry Goldwater's demand that he step down as chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Sen. J. W. Fulbright has challenged new controversy by calling Saigon "an American brothel."

The outspoken Arkansas senator said what is happening to the capital of South Viet Nam is the result of the "fatal impact" that a rich strong civilization—"even when acting with the best of intentions" — can have on a poor weak one.

Fulbright, concluding last night his series of lectures at Johns Hopkins University's School of Advanced International Studies, said published reports of the impact of Americans and American money on Saigon show:

- "That it is not unusual to hear a report that a Vietnamese soldier has committed suicide out of shame because his wife has been working as a bar girl.
- "That as a result of the American influx, bar girls, prostitutes, pimps, bar owners and taxi drivers have risen to the higher levels of the economic pyramid;
- "That middle-class Vietnamese families have difficulties renting homes because Americans have driven up the rent beyond their reach and some Vietnamese families have actually been evicted from houses and apartments by landlords who prefer to rent to the affluent Americans . . ."

★ ★ ★

"Both literally and figuratively, Saigon has become an American brothel," Fulbright said.

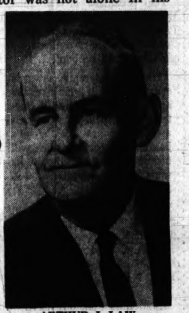
Rep. Law Blasts Handling of Detroit School Boycott

Detroit School Supt. Samuel Brownell came under fire yesterday from State Rep. Arthur J. Law of Pontiac for his handling of recent trouble at Detroit's Northern High School.

The Democratic legislator was not alone in his criticism, voiced before the House passed a resolution 88-4 paying tribute to Brownell who will retire Aug. 31.



ARTHUR J. LAW

"He did a great disservice to Detroit and Michigan when he succumed to student pressure," Law said.

"He was sowing the seeds of chaos."

Law also complained that seven out of 10 illiterates in Michigan penal institutions are natives of the state — "and a great many of these are from Detroit."

★ ★

Rep. E. D. O'Brien, D-Detroit, was the only member to criticize Brownell personally, saying "the only good thing about him is that he is retiring." Brownell, he said, has failed to raise the standards of education in Detroit.

DEPLORABLE CONDITIONS

Rep. David Holmes, D-Detroit, said he was "not voting against the man as an educator — but against the deplorable conditions in Detroit schools and the policies of the board of education. The high schools are still running out graduates who can't read or write."

Rep. Albert Sheridan, D-Taylor also objected to Brownell's treatment of the Northern issue.

Students boycotted the school for four days in protest over what they said was poor quality education.

★ ★ ★

They also demanded removal of principal Arthur Carty.

Brownell ended the boycott by taking Carty out of the building while allowing him to retain the title of principal.

Brownell, who has served in his present position for the past 10 years, was defended by Republicans and Democrats.

"This Northern incident just happened within the past few weeks; it doesn't destroy the man's record over a long career," said minority leader Robert Waldron, R - Grosse Pointe.

★ ★ ★

Temperature Hits 80-Degree Mark for Season's High

Temperatures soaring to 80 at 3 p.m. yesterday hit a new high for the season.

Tonight and tomorrow will be somewhat cooler, the low falling to 36 to 42, the high climbing to 52 to 60.

Skies will be partly overcast over the weekend with temperatures continuing mild.

West to northwesterly morning winds at 10 to 18 miles per hour will become northerly and diminish tonight.

Forty-six was the low thermometer reading prior to 8 a.m. The mercury had climbed to 71 by 1 p.m.

'This Baby Has Been Hurt'

By DAVID J. COOK

"The baby shows no natural physical or emotional responses . . .

". . . chronic malnutrition, extremely anemic, covered with multiple body bruises and contusions."

These are excerpts from an official Pontiac Police Department report of several months ago.

This case and countless others of a similar nature prompted a "Battered Child" conference attended yesterday by some 200 Pontiac area physicians, lawyers, social workers, policemen, and Oakland County officials.

★ ★ ★

The three-hour meeting was held at the Kingsley Inn, Woodward and W. Long Lake, Bloomfield Township.

CONFAB FOCUS

The focus of the conference was what featured speaker Dr. Paul V. Woolley Jr., medical director of The Children's Hospital of Michigan, terms the "battered child syndrome."

Two of the chief ingredients are the child's father and mother, one or both of whom, according to Woolley, are immature, emotionally unstable, possibly alcoholic, and quite likely psychotic.

In all probability, Woolley told his listeners, the parents themselves were the subjects of abuse when they were children.

The third ingredient—an innocent youngster—can usually be recognized upon hospital examination.

OLD WOUNDS

X rays reveal old fractures in addition to new broken bones which brought about the visit to the doctor.

The child is suspicious and frequently frightened of adults, and the circumstances of the injury as related by the parents do not account for the injury.

"Whatever you do," Woolley said, "don't let that child get out of your custody.

★ ★ ★

"If you're suspicious and still take the parents' word that the child will not be abused, you'll be sorry."

ONLY ONCE

"I've only done that once—when a boy with a minor fracture was sent home, only to return one week later, dead on arrival."

Woolley recalled that in the days when the battered child syndrome had not been fully recognized, he often used heavy bone casts as a means of keeping children within the protection of the hospital.

"Now we don't need to resort to subterfuge," he noted.

Defense Chief Tells of Air Alert Decline

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has ordered a reduction in the continuous airborne alert of B52 bombers, it was disclosed today.

★ ★ ★

He told the House Appropriations Committee the constant bomber alert aloft, conducted for more than five years, no longer is needed because:

★ ★ ★

Of "the declining importance of bombers in relations to missiles."

No indication of the extent of the reduction was available.

McNamara's testimony, given in secret earlier this year, seemed certain to arouse new criticism from advocates of the bomber and from those who question reliance on missiles.

★ ★ ★

The defense secretary's published words gave the impression that the airborne alert will be ended entirely.

But the Defense Department said this is not so — that there will continue to be an airborne alert, although reduced in size.

OPPOSED MOVE

McNamara indicated the Joint Chiefs of Staff opposed his cutdown move.

"I think the chiefs objected to eliminating all of the air alert," the Pentagon chief said. He added:

★ ★ ★

"I replied that they could carry on whatever airborne alert was consistent with the regular training program and would not require additiotal funds."

Defense sources said a portion of the bomber force will remain ready to take up a broader airborne alert, if this becomes necessary in an emergency.

HELD ON ALERT

They also said that 50 per cent of the fleet of about 600 B52 bombers will continue to be held on strict alert, ready to take off on 15 minutes' warning. This is well within the maximum 30 minutes of warning that radar installations could provide in event of a Soviet intercontinental ballistic missile assault.

★ ★ ★

The airborne alert was put into effect in January 1961. This was the time when concern over a possible Russian missile attack was running high.

★ ★ ★

At that point, U.S. strategic nuclear striking strength was bound up almost wholly in the bomber force. And the radar warning system was not as highly developed as it is now.

In those days, the United States had only half a dozen intercontinental missiles and three Polaris missile-firing submarines in commission.

900 MISSILES

But now, this country has about 900 intercontinental ballistic missiles in firing position, all of them in protected underground launch sites. It also has 36 Polaris subs in commission, mounting a total of more than 575 missiles capable of striking at Russia or Red China from beneath the sea.

'This Baby Has Been Battered'

tects physicians from any civil or criminal liability.

USEFUL TOOL

Reports from across the state indicate the statute is badly needed and can be a useful tool for protection of young children.

The Pontiac police report cited earlier reads like a case illustration of the battered child syndrome as described by physicians and psychiatrists.

"The baby has not learned to use his legs because of the pain it causes him.

★ ★ ★

"Approached by nurses at the hospital, he screams and cries in terror.

CAN'T EAT

"He could not use his tongue when food was introduced and does not know how to eat (at the age nine months)."

Investigation by juvenile officials revealed that the father was retarded and unable to comprehend the severity of his child's problems.

The mother admitted she lost her temper on occasion and beat the infant about the head and body.

★ ★ ★

"This trend can be understood as an attempt to cope with the psychological distress occasioned in the parent by the child," a Boston docotor commented recently in the American Journal of Psychiatry.

BAD PERCEPTION

"These parents perceive the child they assault as a hostile, persecutory adult," he observed.

Protecting the child from the parent under the state law is in Oakland County, a joint effort by police agencies, juvenile authorities, and the Probate Court.

"A practical solution, at least with every verified complaint," Woolley said, "would be to force parents to undergo psychiatric examination and if necessary supervision."

With persistent efforts by these officials along with case workers and physicians, he concluded, "perhaps ultimately parents and child can be reunited."

COPTER SHOT DOWN — An armed U.S. helicopter burns in a rice paddy 25 miles northwest of Saigon yesterday after being shot down by a Viet Cong sniper. The copter was firing at a Cong force opposing paratroops. The crew escaped with minor injuries.

Klan Figure Sought in Shooting of Wife

Authorities said that Joseph Howard Sims, a 43-year-old Klansman acquitted of murder in the 1964 slaying of a Negro educator, has not been spotted since fleeing Athens in his 1948 model car.

HEAVILY ARMED

Police Chief E. E. Hardy said Sims had been separated from his wife for about two weeks. He quoted hospital employes as saying Sims came to the hospital nursery and asked his wife to come out and talk to him, but she refused.

Sims then pulled a pistol and fired two shots, Hardy said. "One hit her in the cheek and the other went into a wall." Sims escaped.

Sims, an unemployed machinist, was one of three men arrested in the 1964 slaying of Lemuel Penn, a 49-year-old Washington, D.C., educator. Penn was killed by a shotgun blast while driving with two other Negro men about 23 miles north of Athens.

Manzella, 28, Is Bound Over

Arraignment May 19 in Bar Beating Case

Angelo Manzella, 28, of 2356 Middle Belt, West Bloomfield Township, was bound over to Circuit Court yesterday following a nine-hour pretrial examination before Independence Township Justice Robert Carr.

Charged with assault with intent to do great bodily harm, Manzella allegedly was involved in the beating of John Adams, 35, of 6501 Maybee, Independence Township, March 19.

The incident occurred at a bar at 7504 Dixie, owned by Manzella's brother, Nicholas Manzella, 37, of the Dixie address.

Angelo Manzella will be arraigned in Circuit Court at 9 a.m. May 19 before Judge Arthur Moore.

★ ★ ★

Becuase of the length of testimony in the Angelo Manzella examination, Nicholas Manzella's Justice Court trial was adjourned to 9:30 a.m. May 19.

Latin Study Scholarship Deadlines Set

The Inter-American Press Association Scholarship Fund announced today that it will award next October at least five scholarships to North American newspapermen and journalism graduates or students for a year of study in Latin America.

The president of the fund, Harold A. Fitzgerald of The Pontiac Press, said that the deadline for the reception of applications will be Sept. 1.

The scholarship awards committee will consider the applications sometime in September and will make recommendations to the fund's board of directors, which will award the scholarships at its meeting in Lima, Peru, Oct. 24.

Requests for information and application forms may be addressed to Carlos A. Jimenez, Secretary, IAPA Scholarship Fund, 667 Madison Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10021.

★ ★ ★

Applicants should have a working knowledge of Spanish or, if they plan to study in Brazil, Portuguese.

EXPERIENCE

Preference will be given to those with some experience as working newspapermen.

Since the start of its program in 1955, the fund has awarded 111 scholarships to students and journalists from practically all the countries in the Americas, including 45 to North Americans.

Wants Staff Included in Merit System

Oakland County Prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson yesterday decided to include the entire staff of the prosecuting attorney's office in the county's recently adopted merit system.

Bronson had requested exclusion of his professional staff several months ago when the merit system was being drafted.

His reason at the time was both the then unknown provisions of the merit sytem and the fact that staff members performed duties apart from those of other county departments.

Bronson indicated that the main reason for seeking merit system inclusion now is to provide job tenure for staff members regardless of who is prosecuting attorney.

★ ★ ★

Bronson is a candidate for the Circuit Court bench.

'A BEGINNING'

Though he termed the county's merit system as not completely satisfactory, Bronson said it was the beginning of a sound approach to employe retention.

The decision for inclusion in the merit system was explained in a letter Bronson sent yesterday to Curtis Hall, chairman of the personnel policies board which administers the merit system.

The board must approve the change.

Jewelry Theft Is Reported by Mrs. Henry Ford

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. Henry Ford II reported to police Thursday $40,000 to $50,000 worth of jewelry had been stolen from her penthouse suite in Park Avenue's Regency Hotel.

★ ★ ★

She said a four - strand pearl necklace, a bracelet and a pair of earrings were taken from a leather case in a bedroom. Also missing was $75 in cash.

★ ★ ★

Files Petitions in Waterford

Incumbent Seeks 1 of 2 School Board Posts

Incumbent Norman L. Cheal filed nominating petitions last night for the Waterford Township Board of Education election June 13.

In doing so, Cheal, 46, of 2751 Northlake, Waterford Township, became the first candidate to toss his hat in the ring for the two school board posts up for election.

The other incumbent, Eldon C. Rosegart, 47, of 2983 Shawnee, Waterford Township, also has announced his intention to seek reelection, but hasn't filed a petition.

Cheal first was elected to the school board in the June 1962 election, polling 906 votes compared with Rosegart's front - running 941.

CHEAL He heads the experimental department of the Pontiac Motor Division engineering department.

MSU GRADUATE

Married and the father of six children, Cheal is a 1937 graduate of Lansing Eastern High School and a 1941 graduate of Michigan State University. He holds a B.S. degree in chemical engineering.

Both seats to be decided in June's election are for four-year terms.

Deadline for filing nominating petitions at the board of education offices at 3101 W. Walton is 4 p.m. May 14.

★ ★ ★

231 PLANES

A total of 231 planes now have been reported lost over the North.

The raiders came within 15 miles of Hanoi yesterday, a spokesman said, and attacked a road segment northeast of the North Vietnamese capital. Only once before in the war have American planes come that close to Hanoi.

That was on April 17, when Air Force planes pounded missile sites 15 and 17 miles south and southwest of the capital.

★ ★ ★

The spokesman said Air Force and Navy planes flew a total of 48 missions in the North yesterday after a two-day lull due to bad weather. They also hit trucks 20 miles from Hanoi, railroad yards 35 miles north of it, and communication targets around Dien Bien Phu and Dong Hoi.

BIG PLANES ATTACK

The Strategic Air Command's B52 Stratoforts came in from Guam today to attack the Communist C zone near the Cambodian frontier for the eighth time in nine days. The U. S. 1st Infantry Division continued Operation Birmingham in the area some 75 miles northwest of Saigon.

★ ★ ★

U. S. fighter-bombers flew 313 sorties against suspected Communist targets in South Viet Nam Thursday with the airmen reporting many buildings destroyed or damaged, eight sampans demolished and seven Viet Cong killed.

Birmingham Area News

Tentative Site Selected for the Proposed Library

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—John D. Rumsey, president of the Bloomfield Township Library Board, said in a statement this week that the area between Maple and Long Lake between Woodward and Telegraph would be the most appropriate site for a proposed township library.

The statement came as a result of residents' questions and information gathered at some 25 meetings held in the township over the past two months to discuss a $1,160,000 bond issue proposal which will go before township voters Tuesday.

If approved, the proposal will permit a levy of just under one-half mill to finance construction.

Residents have indicated they would also like to include a multipurpose room, an auditorium and an extension of services for junior high school students in the project if the proposal is approved.

★ ★ ★

The library board has stated that the millage would be insufficient to provide the auditorium.

BIRMINGHAM — After a three-year lull, the Birmingham Arts Festival is scheduled for revival this fall.

Bloomfield Art Association President Paul Neal said the association will sponsor Festival 10 Sept. 30 through Oct. 8 at the Bloomfield Art Association, 1516 Cranbrook.

General chairmen of the event are Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Bender of 800 Covington, Bloomfield Township.

On the festival steering committee will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Thom, 6160 W. Surrey, Birmingham; and Mr. and Mrs. William C. Newberg, 1411 Kirkway, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy E. Keifer, 720 Kennebec, Mr. and Mrs. Paul N. Averill, 1497 Lochridge, and Mr. and Mrs. John S. Coppin, 4301 Echo Road, all of Bloomfield Hills.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — The annual dessert-bridge party for the benefit of Brownson Guild's scholarship fund is scheduled for Saturday, May 14, at the Convent of the Sacred Heart, 1250 Kensington.

Eva O'Hara is chairman of the activities. Dessert and bake sale will be at 1 p.m. in the dining hall and card playing will begin at 2 in the auditorium.

Red Cross Exec Appointed Aide to UF Director

The 48-year-old Millar joined the National Red Cross staff as assistant director of veterans' claims in 1946. He subsequently held positions with the Detroit chapter as blood program administrator and deputy manager.

In 1961, he accepted the post of executive director of the former Oakland County Red Cross Chapter and served in this capacity until the chapter merged with the Detroit and Macomb County chapters last year.

Senate Kills Pay Hike Bill

Comments on Action Are Varied in County

Action yesterday by the State Senate killing a pay raise bill for court stenographers and assistant prosecutors drew a variety of comment from local officials.

★ ★ ★

Daniel T. Murphy, chairman of the County Board of Auditors, hailed the defeat of the measure.

Murphy had been critical of the proposed legislative move to set higher salaries for county employes while putting the burden on the county to pay the increase.

The bill proposed a boost of $2,500 for court stenographers, from $8,500 to $11,000, and specified a salary floor of $12,000 for assistant prosecutors.

Oakland County Prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson said he felt the $12,000 base for assistant prosecutors was unrealistic but he saw a lesson in the fact that the measure was even considered in Lansing.

MUST MEET NEEDS

"When local governments meet the needs of the community, problems such as this won't crop up at the state level," he said.

★ ★ ★

Assistant prosecutors average about $8,000. With a staff of 15 by next January and nine court stenographers by then, the bill would have forced Oakland County to pay an additional $82,500 in salaries.

★ ★ ★

Court stenographers expressed both disappointment and surprise that the measure failed.

Would-Be Robber in Hasty Retreat

★ ★ ★

Hospital employe Joanne Pearson, 32, of 5009 Waterford, Independence Township, told police the man approached the desk shortly after noon, demanding money.

★ ★ ★

Apparently brandishing a weapon beneath his sweater, the man said 'Give me all your money,' she said.

Admittedly frightened, the Pearson woman turned and ran into a back room. When she glanced back, the man had vanished.

Little Judy Can Run and Play

FLINT (AP) — The cute little brown-eyed blonde ran up to an ice cream wagon.

"I'm Judy Lynn Funsch—and I've had heart surgery," she exclaimed.

The ice cream man was so impressed he gave the 5-year-old tyke a snow cone and a bag of popcorn both for the price of one.

Tiny Judy, who underwent a rare and dangerous five-hour operation at the University of Michigan Hospital, has been home for a month now. She is still under doctor's orders not to play with the neighborhood children until she gains strength.

★ ★ ★

When that will be is still a question.

TIRES EASILY

Although Judy occasionally plays on the back yard swing and goes for rides in the family car, she tires easily. Her weight remains about 28 pounds.

"She's not eating well," said Judy's mother, Mrs. Clarence Funsch. "I'll prepare anything she asks for, but after a couple of nibbles she loses her appetite."

Just then, Judy decided she was hungry for one of her favorite foods — a frozen fruit stick. Her mother hurried to the freezer to bring one back, and Judy resumed playing in the kitchen with the miniature toy poodle her parents gave her for Easter.

★ ★ ★

The front door banged open as Judy's 11-year-old sister, Debbie, came home from school, excited about a class play. A few minutes later, 9-year-old Jimmy also came in. Both of them hugged Judy.

Then Funsch arrived from his job at the Ternstedt plant in nearby Flint, poured himself some coffee and joined the conversation.

"I'll feel better about Judy after she's had some followup tests at the hospital. She looks kinda pale, but there's a sparkle in her eyes that wasn't there before," he said hopefully.

The big event Judy looks forward to each day is the mailman's visit. Usually, it means more letters and packages to add to the more than 2,000 that well-wishers have sent.

★ ★ ★

"Yesterday there was nothing in the mail for Judy," Mrs. Funsch recalled. "When I told her she couldn't expect letters to keep coming forever, she cried."

★ ★ ★

The mailman arrived, later than usual, and Judy was not disappointed this time.

There was a package from Montclair, N.J., Judy insisted on opening it herself under the watchful eye of her big brother. It contained a tiny Roman Catholic religious medal.

★ ★ ★

For Judy's parents, the mailman brought an eight-page itemized hospital statement totaling several thousand dollars. Most of the amount is covered by their hospitalization insurance.

★ ★ ★

Ten specialists were on the surgical team that removed an obstruction from a pulmonary vein bringing oxygenated blood from a lung to Judy's heart last March 10. Without the operation, she was given only a few years to live.

Honor Society Induction Held

43 WTHS Students Feted at Reception

By JEAN PRIESTLEY

Forty-three new members were inducted into the Waterford Township High School chapter of National Honor Society at a recent reception given by the faculty.

Louis Best, NHS president, was master of ceremonies with remarks made by Richard Powell, counselor and sponsor, and Dr. G. E. Megiveron, principal.

Senior members took part in the ceremony, pinning the inductees.

New members are seniors Julie Appel, Margaret Bachelor, Cathy Bauguess, Pam Bedford, Tom Bills, Gwen Coppinger, Sandy Elliott, Steve Fettinger, Joyce Galloway, Roger Gettig and Carolyn Gustafson.

* * *

JUNIOR NAMES

Juniors pinned were Jana Ballard, Brent Barnes, Diane Bowren, Fern Davis, Steve Day, Joann Field, Willis Flood, Bill Hill, Mary Krug, Marilee Mason and John Mercer.

Others were Gretchen Platz, Mary Poole, Randy Rieth, Mary Rocheleau, Janice Sharrard, Bob Slating, Betty Wheeler, Pete Worden and Linda Yonke.

Last year's members participating were Sandy Armstrong, Louis Best, Mary Burrell, Dale Epker, Martha Forbes, Tom McCulloch, Dru Neal, Carol Nye, Mary Ott, Janet Pascoe, Jean Priestley, Regan Rieth, Al Roth, Kay Sirlin, Marysue Trerice and Kathy Waara.

Al Dohner and Mark Jablonski were unable to attend.

Walled Lake Reception Is Set

By RON MOORHEAD

The junior class of Walled Lake High School has started the ball rolling for the annual junior-senior reception.

* * *

The reception will be held May 13 from 7:30 to 11 p.m.

Reception entertainment will begin at 8. Juniors refuse to comment on the show because, according to tradition, the theme and all related items are kept secret.

The dance will be held from 9-11 and refreshments served. Sophomores are welcome to attend the dance, but not the show. Dress clothes are appropriate.

A new addition to the Co-op system, Health Operations, will be inaugurated next year.

Twenty-two students have already enrolled for the class in nursing training.

Out of the six high schools offering this course in Michigan, Walled Lake is the only school that will have a registered nurse as the instructor.

The program will be coordinated by Mrs. John Ashby. Mrs. Ashby is a registered nurse and has worked with students at the Proud Lake Camp since 1959.

Students who take an active part in the new program will be able to work 15 to 20 hours per week in nursing homes in the area or selected area hospitals.

According to Lester Carlson, Walled Lake vocational director, the nursing program has three main purposes. It offers vocational training, provides exploratory experience for careers in nursing, and gives students insight into career opportunities.

BHHS to Give Variety Show

By LINDA McNEILL

2 Girls Win High Honors

By BONNIE RIDLEY

The two chosen to receive Holly High School's high honors awards this year are Cynthia Boncher and Linda Schultz.

* * *

To maintain the scholastic attainment necessary to be highest in your class requires a lot of perseverance.

Hours of dedicated study and intelligent use of time are needed to earn this award. These two people have both ability and potential.

High honors bespeak not only all innate ability but also consistent self-discipline . . . time budgeted . . . effort expanded over and beyond the line of duty.

* * *

Students receiving honors are Sandra Beadle, Maureen Cobb, Judy Eastridge, Frances Elliott, Suzanne Foran, Therese Gillespie, Linda Gregerson, and Lowell Hine.

Others are Sylvia Hitchcock, Gloria Horton, Joe Irvin, Kathy Lamberton, Ronnie Laughter, Carol Lee, Linda Longstreth, and Sandra Merrill Kohler.

Still others are Ruth Nelson Linda Pitman, Jerry Sura, David Tinsman, Bill Taylor, Carol Matera, Gayle Oldaugh, and Barbara Walz.

These students have also worked hard and long to attain this award.

* * *

Wednesday there will be a Faculty Awards Assembly. The students above will receive their awards at this time. Other students will receive recognition also.

* * *

The government classes are planning a field trip to the Michigan legislature. The psychology classes are planning a field trip to Pontiac State Hospital and one to Lapeer State Hospital. Future Business Leaders of America are going to Oakland Community College.

Mrs. Romney at Lake Orion School Event

By MICKI WOLF

Mrs. George Romney was the honored guest at the National Honor Society induction at Lake Orion High School recently.

* * *

Afterward, she was presented with a dozen roses. The Oxford National Honor Society also attended.

Students selected were Barb Clay, Pat Cadwallader, Rhoda Creamer, Louise Dodge, Alyse Doty, Pam Hards, Debbie Hotra, Rick Kalso, Sharon Gentile, Rachel Motdock, Mary Thorpe and Laura Upton.

Honorees were selected on leadership, character, service and scholarship. A dinner honoring the new members is to be held Monday.

* * *

Among the selections are "Parade of the Charioteers" from "Ben Hur," "Fitzwilliam Suite," and "Hello Dolly."

GOOD JOB, WELL DONE—Frank Yeolin of 229 E. Walton tips his bowler in praise of Pontiac Northern High School juniors' staging efforts for this year's junior prom, "Magic Town." The gala affair will be held in the school cafeteria tomorrow night.

Pontiac Northern Juniors Await 'Magic Town' Prom

By DEBBIE KILLEN

Pontiac Northern's juniors will hold their prom entitled "Magic Town" tomorrow night in the school cafeteria.

The cafeteria will be transformed into a town of the 1890 era with buildings, trees and a town square.

* * *

Mammy Balos and his band will play at the dance, from 8:30 to midnight.

A fictitious town newspaper, consisting of stories and names of all couples attending, will be distributed by newsboys Jim and Jeff Dauw.

Paul Olson spearheaded the decoration committee, creating the town setting.

* * *

General chairmen of the dance were Nancy Watkins and Scott Hudson.

OTHER HEADS

Other committee heads were Kathy Fournier and Debbie Killen, decorations; Sandy Caldwell, publicity; Mike Sneed, band and equipment; and Nancy Sumpter and Randy Eldridge, finance.

Others were Robert Stoneburg and James Overton, tickets and door prizes; Michael Davis, chaperones; Barbara Whisman, refreshments; and Doris Losey and Bill Davis, favors.

The cleanup committee will be members of the senior prom committee.

* * *

PNH band will present its annual spring concert Wednesday at 8 p.m. in Northern's auditorium.

TRUMPET SECTION

The program will consist of selections by the full band, one featuring the trumpet section and a solo featuring Don McGeen on the bass clarinet with piano accompaniment by Susana Eckley.

A. Roger Welton will conduct all numbers except two. These two will be directed by Robert B. Schadel, a graduating senior from Michigan State University.

He is currently student teaching under Welton.

* * *

Tickets for the concert may be purchased from any band member.

WATER SHOW

Next week, the Catalinas will hold their annual water show. This year's theme is "The Circus."

The club, under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Thomas, has worked since February to produce this extravaganza.

Forty-four Catalinas and seven boys from Northern's swim team will be in the cast.

Performances will run May 12, 13 and 14.

Thespian Society to Induct 20 at Groves Saturday

By CANDY SPRIGGEL

Twenty members will be inducted into the National Thespian Society tomorrow at Groves High School.

The society is devoted to the advancement of dramatic arts in high schools.

* * *

The Thespian Society is named after a Greek called Thespis who was the first actor in ancient times.

Students and their guests will attend the awards banquet in the cafeteria at 6:30 p.m.

* * *

Following will be the formal induction of new members at 8:15 in Groves' Little Theater.

Seniors inducted will be John Lyons, Elliot Shifman, Patti Harling, Vicki Detleffs, Judy Hickok, Cathy Sarkesian, Bruce Callner and Candy Spriggel.

* * *

Junior members will be Tom Sapanero, Mary Vasi, Donna Van Every, Alan Prystowsky, Chip Gerden and Leslie Shilts.

* * *

* * *

Oxford Seniors

Honor Students Listed

By ANN ASHLEY

This week, Oxford Area Community High School Principal H. B. Johnson announced senior class honors.

Heading the list was Charlotte Schmidt, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Schmidt, 1905 Davison Lake.

A "B" received in her junior year of chemistry was her only mark below an "A". It gave her 3.97 points out of a possible 4.0.

Charlotte's activities in high school include French Club, Student Council, National Honor Society, Choralaires and choir.

* * *

Next fall, she plans to enter Michigan State University and major in either English, physics or mathematics.

C. SCHMIDT

R. FOX

SECOND HIGHEST

Richard Fox earned second highest honors.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Fox, 45 Mack, Leonard.

Richard received 3.81 points.

At the annual Dad's All-Sports Banquet, he also received the athletic-scholar award given to the boy who was judged most outstanding in sports and studies.

* * *

Richard played football, basketball, baseball and track.

CLUB ACTIVITIES

He was in the Varsity O Club, and class vice president in both his freshman and sophomore years.

Richard was also a member of the French Club, Student Council and National Honor Society.

He is senior class president and Varsity Club president this year.

* * *

His future plans include Western Michigan University where he will major in mathematics.

Student director is Alice Torrey.

* * *

Margaret Braid, English department, is director and sponsor of the play.

Tickets for a matinee performance will be sold today.

Adult tickets will also be available at the door.

Clarkston Seniors on Class Trip

By CATHY RICHARDSON

After years of dreaming, plotting and working, Clarkston High School's Class of 1966 has reached its senior trip goal.

During their high school years class members earned points through working on magazine sales, dances, floats, the concession stand, and other class events.

Now 108 seniors, along with their chaperones, have used the points and headed for Washington, D.C. and New York City.

Chaperones for the expedition are Robert Casteel, social studies teacher; Lawrence Thibault, mechanical drawing instructor; Harry McGrath, counselor, and their wives.

* * *

At 5 a.m. Wednesday, the seniors left the high school parking lot on buses for Detroit Metropolitan Airport. From there, they flew to Washington, D.C.

BIG DEAL—Michael Madison of 6637 Roselawn, Independence Township is all set to buy the Brooklyn Bridge during Clarkston High School's senior trip to New York City and Washington, D.C. Chaperoning the excursion are faculty members, Robert Casteel, Lawrence Thibault, Harry McGrath and their wives.

After lunch yesterday they were bused to New York City, via turnpikes.

The United Nations Headquarters and Rockefeller Center were visited today.

* * *

FREE TO TOUR

Tomorrow morning is free for the students to explore the city.

* * *

One student group will leave New York City from Newark Airport early tomorrow evening to arrive in Clarkston at 7:30 p.m.

The remaining members of the trip will leave via Kennedy Airport, and will return to Clarkston at 9:30 p.m.

* * *

Seniors not going on the trip are enjoying a three-day vacation.

STUDENTS CAMPAIGN

At the campaign convention held earlier this week, candidates were introduced and speeches and skits presented.

When the underclassmen vote on Monday and Tuesday, they will choose between Caroline Giles and Neil Stalker for president.

* * *

Dawn Evely and Bob Nicoson are competing for the office of vice-president. Joette Schultz and Sue Bennett are lone candidates running for secretary and treasurer, respectively.

Tape Running Late

Market Still Taking a Slide

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market prices continued to slide early today following Thursday's shake-out, the worst since the Kennedy assassination. Trading was heavy.

The ticker tape ran late as key stocks throughout the list took losses of fractions to a point or so. Higher-priced, more volatile issues fell several points.

★ ★ ★

As the market groped for support, scattered issues resisted further decline and, in some cases, recovered smartly as bargain-seekers combed the list.

General Motors sank to another new low as it fell a point to 87 on an opening block of 13,700 shares.

American Telephone held unchanged 56⅛ on an initial block of 15,000 shares.

Motorola rebounded 4½ to 200 on 4,200 shares; Admiral 3½ to 105 on 14,000; and Eastern Air Lines 1 to 104 on 17,000.

Boeing, Zenith and Homestake gained about 1 each.

★ ★ ★

Losses of a point or so were taken by International Telephone, American Airlines, Pan American World Airways, General Electric, Raytheon and U.S. Rubber.

LBJ Forecast Conservative?

Recent Moves May Up Budget by $3 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's prediction that Congress might boost his budget to the tune of $3 billion appears conservative in the light of recent developments on Capitol Hill.

During the week ending today, Congress or its committees have approved legislation calling for outlays of around $2.15-billion more than the President requested for the fiscal year starting next July 1.

Over-all, the election-year Congress has tentatively added an estimated $2.8 billion to Johnson's requests since the session started in January. And the session is not yet at the half-way mark, according to the congressional adjournment timetable.

In some of the budget-busting moves, the few leaders in the campaign to slash federal spending have gone along with the increases. In others, they have offered only token opposition in the face of certain defeat.

EDUCATION BILL

The House started off the week's spending spree by passing without an audible dissenting vote a $2.95 billion higher education bill which rejected the President's plan to save about $160 million by shifting much of the student loan financing from public to private lenders. The authorization bill still must be considered by the Senate and financed later.

The House followed that action Thursday by sending to the Senate a bill to appropriate $10.5-billion to finance the Labor Department and the Department of Health, Education and Welfare for the year starting July 1.

The bill included $489.2 million more than the President sought, much of the extra money being for payments to school districts in an estimated 350 congressional districts. The budget-cutters tried to reduce the school payments by $232.8-million but lost by a standing vote of 132 to 25.

Tax Question Splits Experts of Economy

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK—To tax or not to tax is the question now openly splitting the ranks of the official chartists of the nation's monetary, fiscal and economic policies.

DAWSON

The ultimate policy maker, President Johnson, is holding to a wait-and-see course. He wants to know for sure that inflationary dangers are growing so fast that only an increase in personal and corporate income taxes can cool down the booming economy.

★ ★ ★

But his closest advisers, both present and in the recent past, are splitting openly on whether a tax increase is needed — and when.

William McChesney Martin Jr., chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, which shapes monetary policies, says "the only logical way" to deal with inflation is a "simple, clean-cut, across-the-board increase in taxes."

URGES DELAY

Gardner Ackley, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, says the question can be held up for a while to see if monetary and fiscal restraints already prescribed will curb the inflationary trend. Ackley also firmly supports the President's policy of using persuasion on business and labor leaders to get them to hold down on price and wage increases.

Henry H. Fowler, secretary of the treasury, warns that a tax increase now might be effective only late in the year when the economic pace could be weakening of itself. Such a tax boost could turn the economy into a downward spin next year and do harm rather than good. Instead, Fowler urges bankers to help curb inflation by weeding out "the speculative loans."

But Walter Heller, who was chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers under Presidents Kennedy and Johnson, before Ackley took over, says this is the time to increase taxes. He contends that inflation must be halted now before it can send the economy into a boom that could lead only to a bust.

Heller was the architect of the U.S. fiscal policy, which has now come to be known as the New Economics. He advised spending measures that would increase employment even though the federal budget would continue to operate in the red. One of his proposals was the cut in personal and corporate income taxes that helped send the economy on the upsurge that is now bothering the monetary and fiscal managers.

INTEREST RATES

Martin and his Federal Reserve Board took an anti-inflation step on its own last December by starting the rise in interest rates which the administration at first opposed. Now Martin is suggesting the Fed's monetary measures should be joined by administration fiscal measures — that is, higher interest rates aren't enough by themselves without higher taxes to curb spending and discourage speculation.

A member of Martin's board, James L. Robertson, who voted against the December interest hike, is now telling bankers "we need to restrain investment, which is running ahead at an excessive rate." He adds: "No longer do we need to accelerate growth in our national income."

President Johnson has called a panel of top business and labor officials to come up with plans for maintaining prosperity while achieving economic stability. His revived Labor-Managemen Advisory Committee is being asked to give its views on tax and monetary policies.

The battle also is spreading to Congress. House members who want to raise appropriations for educational and welfare projects are being warned that this might trigger a tax increase demand. But many of them doubt this, saying that the real threat of higher taxes lies in the chance of a sharp increase in spending for the Viet Nam War.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "I am a widow, 65 years old, and my only source of income is Social Security and 96 shares of Sears, Roebuck. I have been getting along by selling some shares of Sears. With the market as it has been recently, I did not want to sell Sears and have been borrowing from my sister. I don't want to make a habit of this procedure. If Sears stock goes higher, should I sell and put the proceeds in the bank at 4½ per cent interest, so that I will not again be dependent on the stock market?" W. J.

A) I like Sears, Roebuck, but in your straightened position, the stock appears to be too rich for you, selling to yield less than two per cent.

I believe you should sell Sears when and if it reaches 60 and put $3,000 of the proceeds into a straight life annuity and $2,700 into savings. The combination would increase your income by about $10 a month and leave you safe from the vagaries of the market.

Q) "I have low-coupon, long-term Treasuries. If I sell at present, I would take a big loss. Should I switch into Federal National Mortgage Association 5.30s due May 10, 1967?" L. C.

A) There are no indications that money will soon ease and I would consider it reasonable to sell long-term treasuries that carry low coupon rates—1½ or 2½ per cent. Although the yield to maturity on these bonds is good, the current return is low and they are fully subject to federal income taxes.

Fanny Mae obligations are well secured and your suggested switch would certainly improve your income, short term. You might also consider Series E savings bonds, now yielding 4.15 per cent—on which federal income tax can be deferred until maturity or redemption.

Agency Lists Two Area Men for Promotions

Two Pontiac area men have been named company vice presidents by the board of directors of MacManus, John & Adams, Inc.

CANDOR LATIMER

They will be among four men at MJ&A responsible for the company's creative products, according to president Ernest A. Jones.

Candor joined the agency last year, while Latimer has been with the firm since 1959.

Dividend Increase Reported by Firm

DETROIT (AP)—Fruehauf Corp. management announced yesterday a five-cent increase in the quarterly dividend, to 4½ cents a share.

The dividend is payable Aug. 1 to shareholders of record July 1.

President William E. Grace told the annual meeting the firm's backlog of orders is at a record high, second quarter production is sold out, and "every indication today is that 1966 will be another good year for the company."

Fruehauf manufacturers a number of items, including trailers and metal containers.

No Progress in Press Strike

NEW YORK (UPI) — Representatives of the New York Newspaper Guild and the World Journal Tribune met yesterday for several hours, but no progress was reported in attempts to settle the Guild's 12-day-old strike against the yet-to-publish newspapers.

The Guild and management disagree on how to select 900 of 1,800 editorial and clerical workers to be retained from the three newspapers consolidated in the merger.

★ ★ ★

Nine craft unions supporting the strike have also failed to reach agreement with the new corporation.

Say Negroes Disqualified Improperly

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — The Justice Department has charged that nearly 1,700 Negro voters were disqualified improperly in Tuesday's Democratic primary to assure a victory for Sheriff James G. Clark, in Dallas County.

In a suit filed in U.S. District Court at Mobile Thursday, the federal government asks that Clark's opponent, Wilson Baker, be declared the winner.

Baker, the city's public safety director, is a racial moderate while Clark is known for his segregationist views.

The government suit seeks to overturn the action of the county's Democratic Election Committee, which supports Clark's contention that ballots in six of the county's 80 voting precincts were handled improperly. It asks for a preliminary injunction to prevent the disputed ballots from being destroyed.

WOULD WIN

★ ★ ★

In stepping into the dispute, the Justice Department used authority under the 1965 voting rights act which itself stemmed from last year's violent demonstrations here.

Gross, Profit Firm Record

Manpower Inc., which has a Pontiac branch office at 1338 W. Wide Track, today announced record net earnings and gross revenue for the nine months ended March 31 of this year.

Gross revenues for the period were $43,816,400, up 30.2 per cent from the $33,645,700 for the comparable nine months in the previous fiscal year.

Net earnings reached $1,719,500, or $1.21 per share, up 21.3 per cent from $1,417,300, for the same period in 1965.

The local announcement was made by Pontiac branch manager A. E. Little, who predicted that Manpower would soon be the first firm in the temporary help industry to pass the $100 million mark in annual sales.

Nine-month sales for the company were $87,652,800.
