Romney, Staebler Trade Word Blows

DETROIT (AP)—Gov. George Romney and U.S. Rep. Neil Staebler reiterated familiar points, traded distortion charges and both said they were happy with the results Monday night of their third joint appearance of the Michigan gubernatorial campaign.

The exchanges were lively but not new as Republican Romney and Democrat Staebler squared off before about 2,300 persons at a dinner of the Economic Club of Detroit.

As he has done throughout the campaign, Staebler ripped at what he called Romney's record of failures in Michigan and he tried to link the governor with Republican presidential candidate Barry Goldwater.

★ ★ ★

Romney, per formula, recited actions of his 21-month administration, interspersed them with his slogan, "That's Michigan Progress," and insisted the election should be fought on state, not national, issues. Romney has not endorsed Goldwater.

He accused Staebler several times of using "his old technique—quoting out of context and misquoting" and declared, "there is simply not enough time to deal with all those distortions."

Staebler, asked after the debate if he thought Romney distorted any Staebler positions, said, "Oh, sure. It's hard to look objectively at your opponent, and he (Romney) is absolutely incapable of recognizing a difference of opinion."

Each candidate opened with a 10-minute general statement, alternated segments of five minutes each on economic growth, federal-state relationships and health-education-welfare, and each closed the broadcast and televised program with a five-minute summation.

Point by point they said:

GENERAL

Romney—"My campaign for reelection can be summarized in a single sentence:

"In just 21 months, Michigan has made more progress, solved more problems and made preparation for more future progress than any other state in the nation.

"Our objective of paying our bills and living within our income has been achieved...We operate on the premise that you can't help the people of Michigan if you're broke...

"Which of two men will be a better governor for the people of the State of Michigan? That is the only issue in electing a governor."

Staebler—"He (Romney) is a political showman ... George Romney, despite his equivocation, supports Barry Goldwater

. . . If there is any coolness between Goldwater and Romney, it is because they both have the same goal — the White House. Goldwater is after it this year. Romney is looking ahead to 1968 . . .

"The Republican governor's record of action is one of election - year showmanship only. This is not progress."

ECONOMIC GROWTH

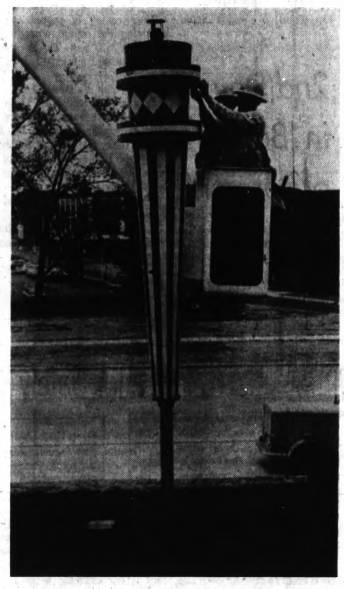

Romney—"If the argument is sound that national policy and trends control Michigan's economy and state conditions are not significant, then why did Michigan fail to keep pace with the nation in the '50s?...

"In the 1950s, Michigan's percentage of unemployment was consistently greater than the national average. Since early 1963, Michigan's percentage of unemployment has been consistently below the national average . . ."

Industrial plant expansion so far this year is almost five times that for all of 1962. Michigan's improvement in personal income has jumped from 47th place among all states to first place."

Staebler—"It is ridiculous to

Appointment of Hanger Ruled Illegal by Judge

Pontiac Acting Police Chief William K. Hanger lost his rank of inspector as a result of an Oakland County Circuit Court ruling today.

Judge William J. Beer, in a written opinion, stated that the appointment of Hanger to the rank, second only to that of chief, is "void and of no legal significance."

The ruling did not have any affect on Hanger's position as acting chief. Hanger said no decision has been made to appeal the ruling.

Hanger's appointment was questioned in a lawsuit filed last June by three fellow police officers, Lt. Raymond E. Meggitt, Capt. Donny Ashley and Capt. George T. Scott.

They claimed that competitive examinations for the inspector's job were not offered and that this was in violation of city personnel rules.

★ ★ ★

This, however, did not have any bearing on the case, according to Beer.

NOT BINDING

He said that the personnel rules have not been adopted by the City Commission and "the mere use of the personnel rules as guides by department heads . . . does not make them have binding legal effect to control employment.

"But even if the personnel

Latin Terrorists Free Abducted U.S. Officer

Released Unharmed on Street Corner in Caracas Last Night

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Communist terrorists released U.S. Air Force Lt. Col. Michael Smolen unharmed last night after two of the five-man gang that abducted him Friday were arrested.

Smolen, blindfolded, was put out of a car about 11 p.m. on a street corner in eastern Caracas.

A passing police car spotted him almost immediately and took him to a police station.

He arrived at the U.S. Embassy early today, said he felt fine and reported he had been treated well.

★ ★ ★

Interior Minister Gonzalo Barrios said the two terrorists seized in a downtown Caracas apartment early yesterday were Spanish-born members of the Red underground called the Armed Forces of National Liberation (FALN).

Reliable sources said nine other suspected terrorists were picked up later.

Smolen told newsmen his abductors said they kidnaped him to make propaganda for their underground war against Venezuela's democratic government.

The 45-year-old officer from Chandler, Ariz., said his abductors never mentioned any plan to trade him for political prisoners in Venezuela or for a condemned Communist Viet Cong terrorist in South Viet Nam.

Various anonymous telephone callers had reported such proposals.

STILL SCHEDULED

South Viet Nam police sources reported that the execution of the terrorist mentioned in connection with the Smolen abduction, Nguyen Van Troi, 19, still was scheduled for Thursday.

Smolen was the second American officer to be abducted and then released unharmed by Red terrorists.

Last November, U.S. Army Col. James Chenault was held for eight days.

UAW, AMC Split as Strike Looms

Profit-Sharing Key in Car Talks

DETROIT (AP) — Negotiations between American Motors Corp. and the United Auto Workers union came down to one simple question today:

Does the sole profit-sharing contract in the automotive industry survive or does it die?

Working against a Thursday deadline, the company said, in effect, let it die.

The union, on the other hand, said let's keep it alive.

This, however, was not the only trouble spot in the automotive industry.

STILL STRIKEBOUND

General Motors Corp., kingpin of the auto makers, still was strikebound.

Only 47 of the 130 at-the-plant settlements required to supplement the previously negotiated national contract had been reached. That left 85 to go.

Ford, which also had agreed on a national contract and had settled on most at-the-plant supplements with the UAW, got a strike call from an unexpected source, the Pattern Makers League of North American (AFL-CIO).

★ ★ ★

Both company and pattern-maker sources agreed that a prolonged strike by this tiny union — with a membership of less than 700 within Ford's 160,000 hourly rated employes — could take Ford out of 1965 model production.

ISSUES IN DISPUTE

Wages, seniority and job security, above levels of the Ford-UAW contract, were at issue.

★ ★ ★

There appeared little chance the Sept. 25th GM walkout would be ended before next week.

Stalemate continued on the American Motors front. The company said the union was asking the same settlement it reached with the big three plus profit sharing.

The UAW denied this. It said it was willing to give up the equivalent it agreed to forego in 1961 to win profit sharing.

Episcopalians Blast Barry for 'Exploiting Racism'

ST. LOUIS (AP) — More than 700 Episcopalians, including 10 bishops, today accused the Republican presidential candidate and his running mate of a "transparent exploitation of racism among white citizens."

The statement was issued here concurrent with the triennial general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

It accused Sen. Barry Goldwater, the GOP nominee, and the party's vice presidential candidate, U.S. Rep. William Miller, of "manipulation of racism among white citizens."

★ ★ ★

Goldwater himself is an Episcopalian; Miller is a Roman Catholic. The statement said:

★ ★ ★

"They have sought to frighten citizens by equating the Negro struggle for freedom with crime and violence in the streets, while at the same time encouraging disrespect for law and order by their own expressed contempt for the federal judiciary, especially for the U.S. Supreme Court."

PROMINENT LAYMAN

The so-called "statement of conscience on racism in the presidential campaign" was issued here by William A. Stringfellow, a white New York City attorney and prominent Episcopal layman, who has been active in church service projects in Harlem.

He said that the statement was distributed to 1,100 Episcopal clergymen and laymen whom he felt "might share my concern about the racial crisis."

So far, Stringfellow said, 726 had signed the statement and returned it to him.

★ ★ ★

Many of them are among the approximately 8,000 Episcopalians here from across the country for the church's legislative convention. However, the document was not a part of official convention business.

Pontiac Area Warming Up

A welcome warming trend has come to the area, with lows expected tonight from 34 to 40 and highs tomorrow from 67 to 72. Mild temperatures are also forecast for Thursday.

And what will skies be like? Generally fair, says the weatherman.

★ ★ ★

Today in Pontiac and surrounding areas, winds are west to southwesterly at six to 12 miles per hour.

Forty-two was the low mercury reading this morning. The temperature at 2 p.m. was a pleasant 65.

Historic Flight Lasts 16 Orbits, Over 24 Hours

3 Men Said Feeling Well After Making Record-Breaking Trip

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union's three-man spaceship, the world's first to carry more than one astronaut in orbit, landed safely today after completing 16 trips around the earth in 24 hours and 17 minutes, an official announcement said.

The program of scientific research, designed for 24 hours of flight, was accomplished in full, said the official announcement.

It added that the doctor, scientist and engineer aboard the space ship Voskhod—Sunrise — conducted observations "directly in outer space."

The Soviet news agency Tass said all three men "are feeling well."

★ ★ ★

The world's first capsule to carry more than one person into space had completed 16 circles of the earth when its commander, Col. Vladimir Komarov, was ordered to switch on braking devices, Tass reported.

PLANNED FLIGHT

Tass emphasized that only a 24-hour flight had been planned, but other indications caused speculation that the trip had ended far short of the originally scheduled time.

Tass reported "from the space flight control post" that the space ship descended through dense clouds when it plunged out of orbit. Planes and helicopters circled in the landing area.

At 10:57 a.m. Moscow time, 2:57 a.m. EST, 10 minutes after landing, pilots reported: "The object is visible on the ground, well visible, and the cosmonauts, three, beside it. They are walking about, walking briskly."

★ ★ ★

Scientists, engineers and cosmonauts at the control post embraced and congratulated each other, Tass said.

STUDY EFFECTS

The announcement of the space ship's purpose, made after it was launched yesterday from a "cosmodrome" 1,250 miles southeast of Moscow, said it would study medical reactions during "a long flight." How long was never stated.

The traditional Soviet silence on what the Russians are planning to do in space—contrasted with volumes of prepared information poured forth as soon as something is done—hid an answer to questions whether Voskhod had made as long a flight as originally planned.

Informed sources had pointed out the highly eliptical orbit of the craft —ranging from 110 to 255 miles above the earth — as indicating it could not stay up too long.

★ ★ ★

The record for a single-man space-ship, set by Lt. Col. Valery F. Bykovsky of the Soviet Union in June 1963, is five days and 81 orbits.

GIANT NEW STEP

Western sources here generally agreed that the Soviet Union had achieved a giant new step into space.

The only competitor, the United States, hopes to launch a two-man capsule to begin

Commission to Air City Income Tax

A city income tax similar to those of other Michigan cities may be in the offing for Pontiac residents and workers.

Faced with an expected austerity budget for 1965, City Commissioners are slated to consider introducing an income tax ordinance at their regular meeting at 9 tonight.

The ordinance, if eventually enacted, would provide:

- A one per cent tax on the income of Pontiac residents and corporations.
- A ½ per cent levy on the income of nonresidents working in the city.
- A similar ½ per cent on the income of Pontiac residents working in another city, like Detroit, with an income tax already.

Tonight's agenda will include a public statement by Mayor William H. Taylor, Jr., on the commission's action toward an income tax.

★ ★ ★

The state law on the subject will also be explained.

CAN'T ADOPT

The measure cannot be officially adopted until next week's meeting.

The commission meeting began an hour later than usual because of Pontiac Area United Fund kickoff ceremonies.

Almost since taking office last April, the seven City Commissioners have publicly and privately expressed concern for the city's financial state, citing the "critical need for added revenue."

★ ★ ★

In order to enact a Pontiac City income tax for 1965, the commission must pass the necessary ordinance by Nov. 1, according to state law.

CHANCE TO PETITION

Then, city residents have until Dec. 15 to petition for a referendum on the question. Petitions must be signed by 10 per cent of the total vote in the immediate past municipal election.

★ ★ ★

Without a call for an election, the income tax would take effect Jan. 1.

★ ★ ★

If petitions are filed for a referendum, the commission must set a date between Feb. 1 and March 20 for a special election.

If the tax goes to a public vote and is approved, the effective date would be July 1.

City Commissioners informally have directed the city manager to prepare figures on the city's financial condition by Oct. 30, the last date the commission could repeal the ordinance.

In other business on tonight's agenda, a proposal by Sheldon Goldman for a second housing project in urban renewal R20 will be up for approval.

★ ★ ★

The commission also will give formal consideration to an extension of an agreement with Pontiac Transit Corp. for bus service in the city through Dec. 31.

Romney, Staebler Trade Word Blows

claim we manufacture our own prosperity. Michigan's prosperity comes from national prosperity...The health of our national economy directly determines the health of our Michigan economy.

"It is true that state revenues have shown in the last few years a gain of $142 million. This improvement in our state treasury came from a package of Republican nuisance taxes which took effect five months before Romney took office...It has yielded $77 million per year, producing more than $150 million.

PUBLIC FINANCING

Romney—"We have under way a $200 million building program for necessary buildings at our schools, hospitals and other state activities—and all on a straight pay-as-we-grow basis which is saving us $130 million in interest..I don't know of any company that borrows when it has a surplus."

Staebler—"In government, as in business, the prudent use of credit—the "pay as you use" policy — to finance long-range improvements is good business ...If we do not build the facilities to meet our pressing needs we will compound our already serious problems among our young people."

FEDERAL — STATE RELATIONSHIPS

Romney—"While I oppose the tendency to rely upon the federal government for all financing and solutions to all state problems, I have vigorously supported Michigan participation in federal programs once established."

Staebler—"I am not afraid of the federal government...George Romney's cooperation has been limited to these few weeks of this year's election campaign He is a leap year liberal."

EDUCATION

Romney—"We have increased state support for local school budgets by $52 million and reversed the declining percentage of state aid."

* * *

Staebler—"Among the top eight industrial states, only Illinois last year had a poorer record of per pupil support for higher education than Michigan. When we have money as we do now, this is failure."

WELFARE

Romney—"Government exists to help people in those areas where they cannot help themselves individually or through cooperation and private enterprise."

* * *

Staebler—"Both Romney and Goldwater resist the idea that government has a responsibility to care for those who cannot care for themselves."

* * *

Meanwhile, the GOP released a tentative schedule for a two-day visit to Michigan by former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Nixon will arrive Thursday night at Benton Harbor, but will not begin campaigning until Friday morning at a GOP finance breakfast in Stevensville.

From there, he will fly to Lansing for a news conference and fund-raising luncheon, then go to Negaunee and Ishpeming.

* * *

At Negaunee, Nixon is scheduled to hold another news conference and at Ishpeming he will attend a reception and dinner at the National Guard Armory. Later that night he will fly to Detroit, but no appearances are scheduled.

Appointment Ruled Illegal

rules had been adopted by the City Commission, in their present form thty would have no effect whatsoever upon appointments and promotions to and in the police department," Judge Beer noted.

The City Charter, according to Beer, reads that "all appointments and promotions to and in the police department shall be made by the chief of police and with the advice and written certification of the city manager."

* * *

Testimony during the trial which ended more than a week ago, revealed that Hanger was promoted from lieutenant to inspector Dec. 4, 1963, by former City Manager Robert A. Carter and Hanger himself, Beer said.

* * *

"Does this mean Hanger as acting chief, with the advice of the city manager, could legally appoint himself as inspector?" Beer asked in his ruling.

"No," said Beer. "Such an appointment is illegal. The law is clear. A public official under the circumstances in this case may not elevate or appoint himself to a higher rank."

Beer pointed out that the charter clearly states that there should be three persons involved in appointments and promotions in the police department: first a chief of police, next the city manager and the third, the candidate for the job.

"When Hanger appointed himself inspector there were only two persons making the appointment, himself and the city manager," said Beer.

Pontiac State Bank Opens New Branch

A new branch office of Pontiac State Bank, at 2205 S. Telegraph, near Bloomfield Miracle Mile Shopping Center was officially opened yesterday.

* * *

This is the fourth new office of Pontiac State Bank to be opened since May 4 of this year, according to Milo J. Cross, president. There are now a total of eight branches in operation, Cross added.

Participating in the brief ribbon-cutting ceremonies were township officials, business leaders and bank officers.

All four of the new offices are of Early American design and offer complete banking service.

* * *

The new Bloomfield Miracle Mile office has new hours, opening from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, and from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Wednesday and Saturday.

TWO WINDOWS

Cross also explained that there are two drive-in windows at the new office.

Larry Bowman, 1331 Jeffwood Waterford Township, is manager of the new office. He has been with the bank in managerial capacities for several years.

* * *

Pontiac State has had a branch office in the rear area of the Bloomfield Miracle Mile since 1957, and moved to the new office on Telegraph to obtain more free parking area and easier accessibility for customers.

Revenue Loss Faces Guard

Tightening Liquor Law Could Affect Armories

Strict enforcement of a 1948 law banning the sale or consumption of alcoholic beverages in Michigan National Guard armories could reduce armory rental revenues in some cities, including Pontiac.

The liquor law was brought into the public eye last week when Gov. Romney fired three top guard officials for administrative irregularities, including the failure to enforce the 16-year-old-ruling.

At the Pontiac National Guard Armory, an armory which does a large rental business, strict enforcement of the law might produce a revenue loss, according to Capt. Robert Garland of Mount Clemens, commanding officer of the local guard unit.

The officer said that although the law prohibits consumption on the premises, the ruling was difficult to police.

It is hard to stop renters or guests from bringing alcoholic beverages into the armory in concealed containers, he said.

On a statewide basis the effects of strict enforcement could be far-reaching.

In 1961-62, the last year for which figures were readily available, guard armories took in $207,000 in rentals to help meet slightly more than $1 million in operating expenses.

Loss in revenues could force armories to request more state assistance in paying their bills.

Surpluses left from armory funds, after expenses are met, go mainly for armory improvements. These expenses first must be approved by the state's military board.

CLOSED CLUBS

In addition to the possible effect on rental revenues, enforcement of the liquor law has closed officers' and enlisted men's clubs in guard armories across Michigan.

The bar in the club at the Pontiac Armory was closed tight as men of Company A reported for drill last night, Capt. Garland said.

LBJ Sticks to Torrid Pace; Barry Hits 'Lag in Space'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, elated over the results of his first full-scale campaign trip, says he will maintain a torrid pace until the Nov. 3 election.

* * *

It's not that Johnson fears defeat. But he makes clear he doesn't want to leave anything to chance — and big crowds prove a powerful lure for him.

The President returned to Washington early today from Boise, Idaho, last stop in a six-day, 10,000-mile campaign trip through 15 states from shore to shore.

* * *

He will be hitting the trail again Wednesday for two days in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and New York.

* * *

After that he'll be off for Ohio, then, Texas and, very likely, other western states.

AIMED AT BARRY

Stumping through the Rocky Mountain states Monday, Johnson took direct aim at Barry Goldwater, the Ku Klux Klan and the John Birch Society.

* * *

Goldwater was a target in every appearance, but never by name; he was "our opponent" or "one candidate."

TOPEKA, Kan. (UPI) — Sen. Barry M. Goldwater today demanded "a major redirection" of U.S. space efforts in light of what he called "the shocking news" about a multipassenger Soviet orbital flight.

* * *

The Republican presidential candidate said this in leveling a broad scale attack on President Johnson as "a part-time President" who is out politicking while "major crises . . . are burning."

Goldwater accused Johnson of activities ranging from "a political travesty of the Lord's Day" to giving a short 10-minute shrift to Philippines President Diosdado Macapagal in San Francisco Sunday.

* * *

"Because of his full-time politicking, we now have a part-time President," Goldwater declared. "We have a part-time President when we are faced with full-time and full-scale problems."

* * *

Goldwater's remarks were in a speech prepared for delivery at a rally in front of the State House at Topeka, Kan.

* * *

It was the first of three stops by Goldwater today, launching a five-day tour with emphasis on winning back defectors from Republican ranks in the heartland farm areas.

* * *

Goldwater also had speeches scheduled today in Des Moines, Iowa, and Milwaukee, Wis.

Russell Hobbs, 20, 8238 Fish Lake, was hurt when his car collided head-on with a vehicle driven by Sharon A. Horton, 17, 569 Broadway, Davisburg.

Miss Horton, who was treated and released from the hospital, told deputies she was traveling east on Highland road when she saw Hobbs' car which was heading west, cross the center line into the east bound lane.

Penny J. Eldred, 19, 358 Broadway, Davisburg, a passenger in Miss Horton's car, is in satisfactory condition with a broken leg at General Hospital.

Deputies said Hobbs drivers' license had been revoked, and the car he was driving had no license plates.

Woman Artist Shot, Robbed; Suspect Held

WASHINGTON (AP)—Georgetown artist Mary Pinchot Meyer was shot to death yesterday as she took a sunny afternoon walk along the path of an old canal where she often had strolled with Mrs. John F. Kennedy.

Mrs. Meyer, who would have been 44 tomorrow, was a niece of Gifford Pinchot, two-term governor of Pennsylvania, and the daughter of Amos Pinchot, a founder of the Bull Moose party.

Robbery apparently was the motive, police said.

Within an hour, Raymond Crump Jr., a 25-year-old Washington laborer recently released from a 60-day term for petty larceny, was arrested and charged with the slaying. A father of five, he denied the shooting.

Police found no purse or wallet and did not know if the victim, dressed casually in slacks and sneakers was carrying one.

Scuba divers searched the C&O Canal and the nearby Potomac River for the murder weapon.

HEARD SCREAM

Henry Wiggins, 24, told police he was driving his tow truck along the canal when he heard a scream and saw a woman struggling with a man. As Wiggins got out of his truck he heard two shots. When he reached the retaining wall above the canal he saw a man on the other side leaning over the woman.

The man stuffed something into his pocket, looked up at Wiggins and fled toward the river.

Police later found Crump, shivering and coatless, in the woods along the river side of the canal.

Police said they found a white jacket in the water near the slaying. A member of Crump's family later identified the jacket as belonging to him, police said. Wiggins picked Crump out of a lineup.

Schedule Exam in City Slaying

Examination has been scheduled Oct. 21 for Leroy Brutton, 30, of 301 S. Jessie, who was arraigned yesterday in Circuit Court on a charge of murder.

Brutton is accused of killing Ernest Whisenton, 41, of 15 Beaudette.

Whisenton was found Friday night by Pontiac Police in an alley between 88 and 92 Bagley. He had been beaten and was unconscious. He died Saturday in Pontiac General Hospital from head injuries.

Police said witnesses told them that Brutton threw a brick which struck Whisenton in the back of the head.

Brutton was arrested at 5:30 p. m. Saturday.

The motive for the slaying is not known at this time, Detective Sergeant John E. DePauw said.

City Gambling $1,000 Before Big Sewer Work

BIRMINGHAM — City commissioners last night decided to gamble $1,000 before considering a proposed $180,000 relief sewer project for the Chester-Wallace area.

A hearing of necessity on the drain had been scheduled before the commission on the request of Henry Fenske, owner of a four-family apartment at Brown and Chester, who complained of flooded basements in the building.

Before the hearing began, however, Commissioner Carl Ingraham suggested that Fenske undertake on his own one of several recommendations of the city engineering department to alleviate the problem.

According to City Engineer William Killeen, the flooding might be eliminated by connecting the building service to a nearby sanitary sewer. He could offer no guarantee that this would work.

* * *

If it fails to solve the problem, commissioners agreed that the city would reimburse Fenske the estimated $700-1,000 he would have to spend for the tap-in.

PLEASED HOMEOWNERS

The tentative solution apparently was acceptable to home owners of the area who crowded the commission chambers to protest the relief sewer project. No opposition was voiced.

The proposed project had been before the commission previously and in June, 1962, it declared there was no necessity at the time for constructing the sewer.

The sewer, according to the engineering department, eventually will be needed to serve the area generally bounded by Southfield, Lincoln, Pierce and Merrill.

* * *

Based on a postcard survey in 1962, only 40 of the 331 property owners responding reported basement flooding.

COST $250 - $315

At that time the average cost to a home owner was estimated at $250 to $315, depending on whether the city would assume 20 per cent of the total cost as was done in the Purdy Relief and Cherry Court sewers.

The Birmingham Lions Club will present "Curtain Time with Don Baker" tonight in the auditorium of Wylie E. Groves High School.

The evening of popular and semiclassical organ music will begin at 8:30 p.m. Tickets can be purchased from local Lions.

Joseph F. Dworski

Service for Joseph F. Dworski, 52, of 3311 Dogwood, Bloomfield Township, was to be 3 p. m. today at Manley Bailey Funeral Home, Birmingham, with burial following in Greenwood Cemetery.

Mr. Dworski died unexpectedly Sunday.

A Birmingham architect, he was a member of the American Institute of Architects.

Surviving are his wife, Dorothy, and a brother.

2nd Day in 'Battle of Bargain'

GLENS FALLS, N.Y. (AP) — Two determined, young mothers battling over an English-made bicycle on sale for $10 planted their feet on the bike today for a second day of their "tug-of-war."

Mrs. Roger Edwards and Mrs. Merwyn Pasco, who both like to ride, held onto the bright blue racer for 12 hours yesterday and declared they would do the same today, if necessary, "as a matter of principle."

Today, store manager Melvin Smith made them comfortable in lawn chairs in a corner of his store and supplied newspapers and coffee. Mrs. Pasco propped her legs on the rear wheel, and Mrs. Edwards put her feet on the front wheel.

"We feel he (Smith) should be man enough to give us each one, in view of the publicity," Mrs. Pasco told a reporter.

* * *

"I never interfere with two women shoppers," said Smith grinning.

SOME INDICATION

There were indications he might give them bikes eventually, however.

Mrs. Edwards, mother of four and wife of an assistant master mechanic at a paper mill, told a reporter:

"There's no quarrel actually, but being a woman, I'm very stubborn."

* * *

Both women are in their 30s.

And how do their husbands feel? Impartial, said Mrs. Pasco. Said Mrs. Edwards:

* * *

"They took one look last night and walked off and left us. Like most husbands, I guess."

Space Crew Lands Safely

its Gemini series early next year.

The U.S. Air Force was ordered last Dec. 10 to begin developing a manned orbiting laboratory that apparently would more nearly compare with Voskhod than the smaller Gemini series. But that laboratory is not expected to go into orbit until late 1967 or early 1968.

* * *

Explorers of space in both the Soviet Union and the United States have realized the importance of obtaining further knowledge about effects of prolonged space flight of human beings. One-man trips have shown problems such as low blood pressure and temporary instability.

FLIGHT PURPOSE

Purposes of the Voskhod flight were announced as checking the new spaceship and the way the three men worked together, investigating scientific and physical conditions of space flight, and:

"To continue the study of the effects of different factors of space flight on man's organism and to carry out extended medicobiological research in the conditions of a long flight."

Riding with Komarov were scientist Konstantin Feoktistov and Dr. Boris Yegorov.

The Russians announced the landing at "a preassigned spot" in the Soviet Union 75 minutes after the ship had returned to earth.

MEDICAL RESEARCH

Aside from the announced general purposes of the flight — to test a multiseat spacecraft and conduct further medical research — only skimpy details were disclosed.

The Russians said a powerful new rocket launched the craft, but did not elaborate.

* * *

They gave no indication of the size of the capsule, although it apparently was larger and more advanced than anything the United States has fired aloft.

* * *

Soviet Premier Khrushchev promised the three cosmonauts a boisterous Moscow reception.

"Be ready for the overloading which we'll arrange for you after you come back to earth," the premier said.

Episcopalians Hear King Rap Rights Violence

ST. LOUIS AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., has denounced violence in the civil rights movement, saying it is both impractical and immoral.

Dr. King, a Negro, made an unscheduled appearance yesterday before the House of Delegates of the 61st general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

"If the Negro uses violence, the future will be endless panorama of chaos," he said.

But a white sociologist said there may be a reason for the violence.

SEEKS DIRECTION

"The poverty revolution is upon us and is crying out for intelligent direction," said Dr. Charles V. Willie, associate professor of sociology and anthropology at Syracuse University. He spoke to the meeting of the Women of the Episcopal Church.

Willie said that to ignore the background of poverty which he said resulted in race riots in northern cities "is putting one's head into the sand."

★ ★ ★

The two speeches came at different meetings during the convention at which the church is expected to take stands one way or the other on Episcopal involvement in civil rights.

The diocese of Louisiana at its convention voted to present a resolution to the general convention which states: "this body — the diocese of Louisiana — believes that, in working for those paramount human rights to which all men are entitled under God, property rights must also receive due consideration."

LESS ACTIVE

Resolutions from the dioceses of South Carolina, Mississippi and Alabama also would provide for less active involvement by the Episcopal Church in the civil rights movements.

Several other dioceses have taken action for involvement in civil rights but only one, the diocese of Iowa, has presented a resolution to be offered at the triennial general convention.

★ ★ ★

Several other resolutions on race are expected to be introduced on the floor of the House of Deputies and the House of Bishops.

One would seek the separation of the Episcopal Church from the National Council of Churches "because of the National Council's involvement in civil rights movements."

★ ★ ★

Speaking in the halls of Kiel Auditorium between meetings, a respected church leader, the Rev. Canon Theodore O. Wedel of New York City, said: "I think there are more Negro Episcopalians in Africa than there are white Episcopalians in the United States. We'd better join the human race, and the sooner the better."

But Subway Strike May Cut Into Labor Gains

Tories Lose More Ground in the Polls

LONDON (UPI) — Britain's ruling Conservative party lost more ground today in public opinion polls. But the opposition Labor party's chances in Thursday's parliamentary election were hurt by a wildcat subway strike in London.

The Conservatives, seeking to avoid defeat after 13 years in power, drafted 38 Cabinet ministers to campaign full-time up and down the country in the final two days of the campaign.

Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home was scheduled to make a personal appeal for support to the nation tonight in television and radio broadcasts.

The London Daily Express popularity-poll published this morning gave the Conservatives a slim 0.9 per cent edge over labor, compared to 3.2 per cent a week ago. The Daily Mail's popularity poll yesterday put the margin at 0.1 per cent. The Sunday Telegraph last Sunday gave labor a 6 per cent lead.

★ ★ ★

Publication of the findings of the various popularity polls, however, did not take into account the wildcat subway strike.

The strike, political observers believe, could reverse or halt the downward trend of the Conservative party edge.

CLOSE LINK

The Labor party, closely linked with Britain's trade unions, was damaged by the subway strike that has left tens of thousands of commuters without their usual transport.

Union leaders appealed last night to the strikers to return to work, but subway officials said they saw no immediate chance of this.

The strike was called yesterday in protest against new winter working schedules which had been accepted by union leaders.

★ ★ ★

More than half the 450 subway motormen walked off their jobs halting subway service on some lines and seriously disrupting it on others.

SPELLS DISASTER

Douglas-Home charged that Labor's economic and financial program would mean disaster for the country.

"Every time there has been a Labor government in Britain," Douglas - Home said, "it has ended in financial and economic disaster. It would happen again if they got the chance, for their policies are the same as they always have been."

Labor party leader Harold Wilson, taking note of the Conservatives' all - out drive for votes, commented:

★ ★ ★

"They are like a brokendown washing machine company, who instead of improving its discredited project, concentrates on knocking its competitors."

AF Contract in State

GRAND RAPIDS AP) — A $1.8-million Air Force contract to produce flight director indicators for B52 jet bombers was announced Monday by Lear Segler, Inc., instrument division here.

Pilot Confident of New Plane

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — Test Pilot Al White is confident the XB70A bomber can reach its maximum speed of 2,000 miles an hour.

White put the giant supersonic plane through its paces here yesterday, hitting speeds in excess of 700 miles-per-hour and an altitude of 35,000 feet. It was the third test for the trouble-plagued controversial ship.

White said the plane went supersonic three times for a total of 20 minutes.

He told newsmen he was sure the 185-foot-long bomber will reach its designed maximum altitude of 80,000 feet and top speed of 2,000 m.p.h.

★ ★ ★

Yesterday's test was the highest and fastest of the three flights.

Rochester Renewal Faces Election Hurdle Dec. 8

ROCHESTER — Two proposals necessary for the village to proceed with the rehabilitation of the blighted East Third Street area of town as an industrial park will be on a special election ballot Dec. 8.

The first will ask property owners for permission to borrow a sum not to exceed $190,000 and issue general obligation bonds to pay the village's share of the $709,000 project.

The village's share is now estimated at $177,000 with the added $13,000 needed for contingencies, attorney, bonding and consulting fees.

The Urban Renewal Administration has set aside $535,928 for the project to cover 75 per cent of the total cost.

★ ★ ★

A three-fifths majority vote is needed to pass the first proposition.

AMEND CHARTER

The second requests voter approval to amend the village charter to permit sale of property in the urban renewal area without a vote of the village.

A simple majority will be needed to pass this measure.

The village wants to sell $12,000 worth of land in the project area, which would exceed the $2 per capita maximum specified in the charter.

The exact method of financing the development program in the 33-acre section is yet to be determined, but the council has made it clear that no additional taxes will be required.

When setting the election last night the council cited the village's solvency over the past 10 years as proof that it was "on safe ground" in moving ahead with the project at no additional cost to the taxpayers.

The money can be set aside each year out of village funds, and as the property is developed the bonds can be retired —probably in 7½ years.

This is a far shorter time than the 40 years the village will have to complete the project.

The area slated for renewal is now characterized by substandard dwellings.

IMPROVEMENTS

Improvements under the project would include regrading of the area, extension of Second Street, relocation and straightening of Paint Creek, new utilities, a new bridge over the creek and a new railroad bridge on Baldwin.

The next move will be to send the election proposals to Gov. Romney and Secretary of State James M. Hare for approval.

Village attorney Arthur Cox was named deputy clerk to conduct the election to be held in the municipal offices.

★ ★ ★

In other business, Manager Richard Don explained the need for a full-time village engineer to work with him on all the improvement programs in town.

★ ★ ★

Previously consultants have been called in on a per diem basis to help with the planning and carrying out of sewer, storm drain, street paving and water programs.

★ ★ ★

Don already has advertised for the full-time staff member and has had one applicant to date.

NEWS OF THE AREA

Three Proposals on Utica School Ballot Dec. 12

UTICA — Voters in the Utica Community School District will be asked to approve two millage proposals and an $8.5-million bond issue proposition in a special election Dec. 12.

The school board set that date at their regular meeting last night and spelled out the needs which would be met if the millage and bond issue proposals pass.

The board has proposed bond issues three times since June 1963 and they were defeated each time.

Detroit bonding attorney Stratton Brown of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone advised the school board in August that the district could support a $10-million bond issue without an additional debt levy.

One millage proposal will ask for a renewal of the present 5-mill levy for 1966 and 1967.

The other will ask for an additional 6 mills for 1965, 1966 and 1967.

OPERATING FUNDS

Schools Supt. Fred Atkinson said that the millage proposals are for operating funds only, and that future building needs would be covered by the bond issue.

On the elementary level, the bond issue would provide 10 classroom additions, including library materials centers at Sweitzer and Flickinger schools.

Also included would be four new elementary schools, each with a capacity of 22 classrooms.

A new senior high school would be covered by the bond issue, but would not have a swimming pool, auditorium or lighted athletic field.

LIBRARY FACILITY

The present senior high school would gain a new library facility and other remodeling with these funds.

Atkinson stressed this morning that all items included under the bond issue building funds are "first - priority items" which match the recommendations of a Citizen's Committee study.

"On the bond issue," said Atkinson, "we are asking for funds to meet top-priority building needs to get our classes back on full-day sessions.

"Our millage request will fulfill minimum needs for full-time teachers," he continued, "and full-day sessions when new buildings are built.

"The millage will allow us to adjust teacher salaries and will also provide transportation in hazardous areas."

★ ★ ★

Atkinson said that hazardous area would be pinpointed by representatives of the police department and the AAA Safety Bureau.

Adult Classes Are Still Open

Lake Orion Schedule Begins on Monday

LAKE ORION—Adults who want to try their hands at charcoal drawing or china painting still have a chance to take a full course in either art during the 1964-65 adult education program here.

According to Adult Education Director George D. Perry, openings for these courses and a number of others still remain to be filled before the program starts Monday.

Perry listed the following classes which have openings for adult learners:

Mondays—Charcoal drawing, typing, cake decorating I and driver training.

★ ★ ★

Tuesdays — Square dancing, slimnastics, flower arranging, china painting, modern math and contract bridge.

Wednesdays — Upholstery.

Thursdays — Modern dancing and cake decorating II.

The modern math class has changed its meeting night from Monday to Tuesday, as has the slimnastics class.

Additional classes such as skiing and interior decorating and design will be initiated later in the year.

★ ★ ★

Those who wish to register for openings in any of the classes listed can contact Perry, who lives at 1318 Maple Point, any weekday after 5:30 p.m.

Report Set on Rochester '65 Festival

ROCHESTER—A progress report on the Art 'n' Apples Festival, set for September 1965 will highlight the Oct. 22 meeting of the festival commission.

The session will be held at 8 p.m. in the council chambers of the Rochester Municipal Building.

Dr. John Solverson, general chairman of the festival, will outline steps taken during the summer on financing, patronage and physical planning.

The response of local organizations and groups interested in participating in the festival, which will encompass many aspects of fine arts, theatrical arts and handicraft, has been described by Dr. Solverson as "most encouraging."

★ ★ ★

Clubs and churches are invited to send representatives to the Oct. 22 meeting which also is open to individuals of the greater Rochester community who want to share in the ambitious artistic undertaking.

Square Dance Club Still Has Openings

MILFORD — Now seven squares strong, the newly organized Aces and Eights Club still is holding the door open to intermediate square dancers in the area.

Club members welcome anyone interested in joining their programs at the Lutheran Activity Building, 620 General Motors.

Dances are held from 8 to 11 p.m. the second and fourth Saturdays of every month and workshops from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. the first and third Mondays. There also is a beginners' class consisting of 10 squares.

Holly District Meeting Set on School Building Plan

HOLLY — The board of education has set Nov. 9 as the date for a public informational meeting on its proposed elementary building program.

At the session, board members will explain their position and attempt to gain support for the proposition to appear on the Dec. 14 ballot.

The amount of funds necessary to construct additions at Davisburg and Patterson elementary schools has not yet been determined.

The board plans to meet with architect Keith Wieland of Ann Arbor and schools attorney John Thomas of Flint next Monday in an attempt to pare tentative cost figures.

Wieland has estimated elementary classrooms will cost $17 a square foot. The comparable figure for Patterson, which opened last January, was $13.50.

EXPECT FIGURE

A specific figure for the bond issue is expected in the near future as the board holds weekly meetings in preparation for the election.

Trustees last night outlined plans for the public program at which they will explain their conclusions and recommendations.

The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. in the student center of Holly High School.

★ ★ ★

General format for the presentation is still to be developed.

WHEN, NOT WHAT

"There's not a whole lot of latitude," Schools Supt. George Garver said. "The question is when, not what."

★ ★ ★

The district now is operating with a four-classroom shortage in its elementary program, a position it was not expected to encounter for another year.

To Vote on Fire Protection in Washington Township

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP — Voters in the northern half of the township will be asked to decide in the Nov. 3 general election whether to have separate fire protection and whether to pay for it by assessment.

The Township Board has approved a proposal for the creation of a fire protection district for the north half, bounded by 29 Mile on the south, 32 Mile on the north, Dequindre Road on the west and the Ray Township line on the east.

The basic cost of protection, specifically the expense of fire runs to the north area, would be borne by an assessment of about 1 mill or $1 per $1,000 of assessed valuation.

This is considerably less than the $3.25 per $1,000 now being paid by residents in the south half of the township for fire protection.

Currently, the cost of fire runs to the north half is met through the use of the township's general fund, to which residents of the south half contribute in addition to the millage for their own fire protection.

The proposal will take the form of a single proposition on the November ballot, and will not include the Village of Romeo.

Michigan's population of 8.2 million people provides a ready market for a large share of the state's production of fruits, vegetables, dairy, poultry and other farm products.

Boulevard From Maple to Derby

Troy Signs Coolidge Contract

TROY — The last hurdle in the construction of a boulevard on Coolidge Road from Maple (15 Mile) to Derby was crossed today.

★ ★ ★

City officials signed a contract with the developer whose plans in the area initiated the project.

The City Commission last night authorized City Manager Paul York and Clerk J. Lawson Lockhart to sign a contract with Biltmore Development Co., Oak Park.

The contract, outlining the responsibility of Biltmore to pay about 70 per cent of the total cost of the project, including a 20 per cent contingency cost, is expected to be signed today.

★ ★ ★

Biltmore's share of the cost, some $61,485, will be paid to the city today.

OTHER CONTRACT

The commission also awarded a contract for construction of the boulevard to Ministrelli Construction Co., Livonia, low bidder at $74,283.

Construction is expected to start immediately.

The boulevard is tied in with a $50 million apartment house development to be constructed by Biltmore in Troy.

★ ★ ★

The Biltmore payment is Troy's share of the cost. Birmingham has already given its approval to the Ministrelli bid and will be responsible for 30 per cent of the cost.

SPECIAL ASSESSMENT

Of this, the City of Birmingham will pay 25 per cent, with home owners affected by the improvement paying the remainder through a special assessment district.

In other action last night, the commission cleared the way for construction of an office building by architect Minoru Yarasaki of Troy.

A rezoning petition was unanimously approved as recommended by the planning commission, changing the classification of the 4.6-acre-site next to the planned new civic center from residential to commercial office building status.

★ ★ ★

The commission also awarded a $35,890 contract to low bidder Mole Construction Co. of Detroit for construction of the first laterals on the new sanitary sewer trunk system.

The laterals will be laid in the Troy Meadows section.

★ ★ ★

In other action, Richard Graham, who has served as Civil Engineer II for Troy since March, was appointed City Engineer with the complete approval of the commission.

Troy Diagnosis Shows It's Economically Well

TROY — The city has been given a clean bill of financial health for the fiscal year ended June 30.

An auditor's report made public last night after a week's delay for study indicated that Troy wound up the fiscal year in the black, and with no potential problems meriting serious attention.

"One recommendation made by Touche, Ross, Bailey & Smart, certified public accountants, was that the city revise purchase order procedures.

Troy has been issuing purchase orders after vendors' invoices are received, thus losing desirable control features in purchasing.

After closely questioning the Touche, Ross, Bailey & Smart representatives at the commission meeting, Mayor Robert J. Huber concluded that "you can certainly see that we've had a good year, and that's what we're concerned about."

THINGS IMPROVED

Asked to compare this year's audit to last year's Duane Gildespie of Detroit accounting firm said that "it is our general opinion that things have improved considerably."

State Hospital Escapee Found Asleep in Car

IONIA (AP) — Wallace Rogers, 52, of Detroit, an Ionia State Hospital trusty who fled the institution last Thursday night, was captured Sunday by State Police who found him asleep in a car along M66. Rogers had telephoned a brother from a nearby home to report that he had car trouble and the brother relayed word to police.

Junior Editors Quiz on ATOMIC ENERGY

QUESTION: How can atomic energy improve our world?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: When a minute particle called a neutron crashes into another particle or atom of a certain element like uranium, it can split the atom and release heat and energy.

When this splitting process goes on from atom to atom, it can make a "chain reaction," (upper left), releasing enormous amounts of heat and energy, as in the explosion of an atomic bomb.

But when this reaction takes place inside a "reactor" it can be slowed down and brought under control by rods inserted in the reactor, which absorbs some of the energy. Controlled in this way, atomic energy can work for all of us and help us to build a better world.

An atomic reactor is a kind of furnace, giving off heat which can produce steam, this in turn driving turbines which turn generators to make electricity.

The electricity produced can serve us in countless ways, heating and lighting towns and houses, and running factories. Entire nuclear power plants have been installed in ships and may be used in planes and rockets.

The atomic reactor uses fuel, such as uranium, but needs an extremely small amount — a bit of uranium the size of a golf ball gives as much power as that supplied by 2,300,000 pounds of coal.

W. A. P. John

One of the most lovable souls in the area has passed to his final reward in the death of W. A. P. JOHN.

"WAP," as he was familiarly known to hundreds of people all over the country, was blessed with an especially engaging personality. Some 30 years ago, two associates and Mr. JOHN formed an advertising agency with nothing but six bare hands — and a bushel of intelligence. Today the annual billings run around $70 million.

JOHN

Mr. JOHN possessed an unusually keen sense of humor in addition to his splendid business judgment. Wherever he was at the moment the sunshine was a bit brighter and a tiny segment of the world was a happier place. His existence here was a boon to mankind.

God rest his friendly soul.

A Big Need Is Heard for a New 'Big' Word

Someone is going to have to invent a bigger and better word for "big."

The teensiest tube of toothpaste or box of cereal or soap flakes on the market today is designated by the manufacturer as the "large" size.

Then comes a modest package proudly labeled as "giant." After that is the thrift "economy" size and finally, for the really big spender, the awesome "family" size.

★ ★ ★

Among the drive-in set, only a square is innocent of the fact that a plain, ordinary hamburger is strictly for the birds or for very young children just off formula.

The "jumbo" hamburger is a bit more sizable. The "super-dooper" hunk of heaven is something to behold, yielding in volume and weight only to the colossal "king" size—the granddaddy of them all.

★ ★ ★

Somewhere along the line the word "big" has been downgraded to something relatively runty and miserable.

Please, somebody, give us a really BIG word for "big." Something outerspace size.

Local Transportation a Vexatious Problem

It is a safe generalization to say that urban public transportation in America is in a sad state.

As conceptural and technological progress has propelled national and global transportation to heights of development and prosperity undreamed of a couple of decades ago, local transportation has steadily deteriorated.

★ ★ ★

Today, with few exceptions, city transit systems suffer from the blight of obsolescence and economic strangulation and have become a burden on the back of taxpayers. Pontiac's own bus system is being operated on a month-to-month basis, subsidized by the city's tax dollars.

★ ★ ★

Responsibility for the critical situation cannot be laid at any one door. One basic cause, however—a paradox—is the prosperity of Americans translated into production and ownership of automobiles at a 7-plus million annual rate and resultant diminishing need for public transportation.

Yet communities, large or small, could scarcely function without some form of mass transportation.

★ ★ ★

In an effort to spur development initiative and relieve pressing economic woes of the country's urban transportation, the Federal government recently enacted the Mass Transit Act, implemented by a $375-million appropriation.

★ ★ ★

But if the money is to be used merely to prolong the life of dying transit systems, it might as well be poured down a convenient rat hole.

★ ★ ★

What is needed, and where the Act's funds had better be channeled, is into new concepts of local passenger movement and enticement to public use of them that, once established, can stand on their own wheels and free taxpayers of the weight of support.

★ ★ ★

All this presents a challenge to the ingenuity and resourcefulness of the country's engineering and promotional community that has become world-renowned for cracking tough nuts.

ONE impression we get from the close-up pictures of the moon is that Luna is far from being photogenic.

Press Grid Game a Third Played

Fortune of 1,119 Players in Hands of Pigskin Foes

The grid clock that ran time out at East Lansing Saturday to give Michigan a 17-to-10 win over MSU turned it back for an older generation of Maize and Blue supporters.

It reflected the spirit and win-or-nothing competitive style of the teams that two decades ago made the Wolverines not only the champions of the West but the Champions of America.

★ ★ ★

For 1,119 entrants in the Annual Press Football Contest, the last-minute victory was good news. But those who had seen the Spartans in the victor's role and the 35 who figured the result would put another tie in the record books, had their hopes dashed of fondling the winning award of a $500 U. S. Savings Bond.

Michigan's pigskin triumph proved an occult sweep for the Press' Society of Soothsayers. The entire panel of sports department swamis called it right, while the omniscient Major Hoople harrumphed agreement by a 14-to-12 score.

★ ★ ★

The upcoming sixth game of the Contest schedule brings Syracuse (3-1) and Penn State (1-3) into contention for a Saturday matinee. Syracuse is a favorite with 673 contestants committed to them, while 421 figure the Nittany Lions will devour the Orangemen. Twenty-five saw a no-decision finish in their crystal balls, and are supplicating the gods of football to be neutral.

Regardless of the outcome of the tilt, our contestants stand to gain great psychological knowledge. They'll have first-hand insight into comparable emotional state of their gridiron counterparts as game-time approaches.

★ ★ ★

Nuts, you say—you'd rather have first-hand insight into emotional state of winners of bonds? Well then, pray that the players of the team of your choice are of the stuff of which heroes are made and that they will take you a game nearer to the stuff for which bonds are made.

David Lawrence Says:

Cairo Conference Defeat for U.S.

WASHINGTON — American influence in the world suffered humiliating defeat and Soviet imperialism got a big boost as the heads of 47 governments in Asia, Africa and the Middle East demanded by formal resolution, adopted at a "summit conference" in Cairo over the weekend, that the United States give up its naval base in Cuba and lift its economic blockade of that country.

LAWRENCE

These 47 nations call themselves "nonaligned," but this is an obvious misnomer as the strongest of the group have received large amounts of military aid from the Soviet Union.

The United States has extended "foreign aid" and some military help to many of these same nations, especially Indonesia, but this didn't seem to sway the participants in the Cairo meeting. For the declaration adopted was plainly anti-Western and is so characterized in the news dispatches.

A long resolution covering many points bearing on the ideological struggle between Red China and the Soviet government was approved, and it used the phrases often proclaimed by Moscow.

★ ★ ★

Plenty of words of denunciation were uttered against colonialism but not a word was spoken on the subject of totalitarianism. Yet many of the newly organized governments in Africa, as well as the government of Indonesia, rule with the same iron hand of dictatorship that is condemned in theory but accepted in practice.

BIGGEST FARCE

The biggest farce is the use of the term "nonaligned." It is like the word "neutralist," which today means aiding the Soviets to carry on their intrigues against the West.

Nor does the formula of neutralism any longer cover merely the interests of the individual countries which participated in last week's conference at Cairo.

For these same governments now do not hesitate to become involved in Cuba, which is far distant from their territories. The only object this can have is either to show hostility to America or to scare the Washington government into offering more and more bribes in the form of foreign aid.

★ ★ ★

The Cairo conference extolled self-determination and professed to be interested only in peaceful coexistence.

WON APPROVAL

Indonesia, moreover, sponsored and won approval for a resolution which said: "Peaceful coexistence cannot fully materialize through the world without the abolition of imperialism, colonialism and neocolonialism."

★ ★ ★

But when it came to dealing with the spread of nuclear weapons, the group led by Indonesia was able to defeat a proposal by India that a mission be sent to Peking to persuade the Chinese Communist regime not to develop or test nuclear weapons.

★ ★ ★

Some day, perhaps when the presidential campaign in the United States is over, there may develop in Congress a determination to investigate the whole foreign aid business and let the American people know the facts about their involvement inside the so-called nonaligned countries which somehow always become aligned with the Communists whenever Moscow or Peking pulls the strings.

Bob Considine Says:

Dan Parker Sport Stories Are Missing From Series

NEW YORK—Mel Allen cried all the way to the bank, the day he learned that he would not broadcast the World Series.

CONSIDINE

We miss Mel's forthright cliches. But, even more, we miss the series stories of Dan Parker.

Dan was covering World Series when stars were still falling on Mel in Alabama.

Dan got an offer recently to write the life story of Al "Weskit" Weill, the man who used to wind up Rocky Marciano and aim him at people. Let Dan tell it:

"'Tell me, foist of all,' Al said, 'are you don' any writin' these days or just lying doormat?'

"'Doormat? It all depends on whether the welcome sign is on it,' I said.

"'Well, listen,' he said. 'I got a wonderful idea. Remember that story about me you wrote for Collier's magazine with a pitcher of me wearing that red and yellow striped vest?'

"I should, I told him. Looking at that photo was what made me color blind.

'Anyhall,' Al went on, 'I was sitting here in an easy chair up here in Miami having a nice referee.'

"'Not Arthur Donovan?' I asked.

★ ★ ★

"'Naw. This is the kind of referee you have when you're dozin' and get tinkin'—you know, like the night Vic Marsillo, may he rest in peace, was on TV over in Newark interviewing me and he said, Al, whaddy ye say if we reminisce a little bit about tomorror night's fight? We don't need no scripture.'"

Dan told Al that a book like that would depend a lot on anecdotes.

"'I can give you all kinds of anny coats,' Al replied. 'I got a million of them—the line Jimmy Durante stoled on me! We'll have the idea copywritten so nobody will try to puerlern it away from us and we'll have a hit movie for Hollywood. And one more thing, Dan, I don't want all the dough. Just 95 per cent."

The American language, a vital tongue, has been enriched over the years by Dan's keen ear for it. It was Dan who heard Joe Jacobs growl, at a very cold World Series game in Chicago a generation ago, "I shoulda stood in bed."

Voice of the People:

'Preserve Our Heritage With Leadership Change'

A Republican victory is the obligation of the American people to preserve their heritage of freedom in government and private enterprise. Socialism and federal bureaucracy are destroying the United States and unless leadership in Washington is changed there will be an end to the two-party system of government under which this nation has become strong economically and defensively.

★ ★ ★

Today, even Democrats of Jefferson and Jackson philosophy no longer speak in their own party councils. These people must be encouraged to save the historic two-party system and we must provide them a place in which to fight for salvation.

★ ★ ★

Politics now is a matter of patriotism in defense against the militant program of radical elements determined to entrench in Washington and bring about full socialism of the Americas. I am convinced that this nation needs a victory for the Republicans.

A 'Switch Voter' Questions Goldwater

I have been reading The Pontiac Press for 30 years. I read all the silly complaints about the hand that feeds them and bragging up Goldwater. They seem to think they know it all but, like Goldwater, they don't tell how or what he is going to do.

Gives Goldwater's Approach to Crime

Goldwater blames Supreme Court for the rising tide of crime, saying the court has stretched the meaning of the fourteenth amendment to deny states the power to punish crime.

Police are bound by restrictions that make law enforcement ridiculous and difficult. Goldwater promises to appoint Federal judges who would "redress constitutional interpretations in favor of the public."

More Women Seeking Office All Over U.S.

NEW YORK (AP) — A number of women holding high state and national offices are bidding for reelection this year, and a great many more have jumped into the political fray for the first time.

A few of the newcomers could make political history in their respective states if they win.

In general, the lady candidates tend to voice the belief that they can do just as good a job — and maybe even better — than the menfolk.

★ ★ ★

Some unusual situations have developed as the distaff division doffed aprons to battle for ballots.

In several major races it's a woman vs. woman showdown.

NINTH TERM

A 74-year-old woman is seeking a ninth term in the Massachusetts State Senate.

Men have plumb given up trying for the office of secretary of state in New Mexico.

An Iowa woman has a chance to become the first Negro to serve in her state's legislature.

★ ★ ★

In California, a Negro woman is contesting for the state Assembly seat now held by a Negro man.

A Kentucky woman is seeking to be the first of her sex to represent the Democratic party of her state in Congress.

FIRST HAWAIIAN

In Hawaii, the first woman of Japanese ancestry to be licensed to practice law there is making a strong bid for the U.S. House of Representatives.

In several states there isn't a single woman running for statewide or congressional office.

★ ★ ★

Among those seeking reelection are several veteran congresswomen.

★ ★ ★

One of the most prominent is Rep. Frances P. Bolton, Ohio Republican who has served since 1939. She was the first woman elected to Congress in Ohio.

Others include Reps. Katharine St. George, New York Republican first elected in 1946; Edna F. Kelly, New York Democrat who has served since 1949; Leonor K. Sullivan, Missouri Democrat who became the state's first congresswoman in 1952, and Florence P. Dwyer, New Jersey Republican first elected in 1956.

WASHINGTON STATE

Still others are Washington state's two women representatives, Catherine May, a Republican first elected in 1958, and Julia Hansen, a Democrat who has served since 1960.

A woman candidate for the U.S. Senate this year is Genevieve Blatt, 50-year-old Pennsylvania state secretary of internal affairs and the first woman ever to hold state office in Pennsylvania. She was elected to the state office in 1954 and has been reelected twice.

★ ★

Miss Blatt, a Democrat, is running against Republican Sen. Hugh Scott. The race is expected to be close.

Another senatorial candidate is Mrs. Elly Peterson, a Republican and the first woman nominated by a major party for the post in Michigan. Her opponent is Democratic Sen. Philip Hart.

ILLINOIS FIGHT

In Illinois, the fight for the 13th District congressional seat pits a woman against another woman. Republican Rep. Charlotte Reid, a 51-year-old widow who won the seat in 1962, is being opposed by Mrs. Poppy X. Mitchell, 46, a housewife making her first try for political office.

In Kentucky, the only woman running for a major office is Mrs. Frances Mills, 43-year-old Democratic nominee for Congress in the 5th district.

★ ★ ★

If elected she would be the first woman ever to represent the Democratic party as a Kentucky congresswoman. She also would be the second woman in Kentucky history to represent the state in Congress.

In Hawaii, State Sen. Patsy Mink, 36, the first woman of Japanese ancestry to be licensed to practice law there and the first to serve in the state legislature, is a Democratic candidate for congress.

GEORGIA GRANDMA

Already assured of a seat in Congress is a 55-year-old Georgia grandmother, Mrs. Janet Merritt of Americus, a Democrat. She has no Republican opponent.

The first Negro to serve in the Iowa legislature may be a woman, Mrs. Willie Stevenson Glanton, a Des Moines attorney and wife of Municipal Judge Luther Glanton. She was the first woman prosecutor in Des Moines municipal courts.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Glanton, seeking a seat in the Iowa House of Representatives, has made plain during her campaign that she wasn't running merely for the sake of proving that a Negro could be elected.

In the race for the state assembly in California's 53rd District, the incumbent, Mervyn M. Dymally, a Negro and a Democrat, is being opposed by Mrs. Donna M. Hunt, a Negro and a Republican. The area is a Negro district in Los Angeles.

WOMAN'S WORLD

The office of secretary of state in New Mexico has been a woman's world since 1922 and it's going to stay that way at least for two more years. The current officeholder, Mrs. Alberta Miller, a Democrat, has for her opponent Miss B. Lyman, a Republican.

The candidates for the same office in South Dakota are Miss Alma Larson, 32, a Republican, and Mrs. Travis Lewis, a Democrat.

★ ★ ★

In Arizona, Mrs. Jewel Jordan, a Democrat, is running for an eighth term as state auditor with Republican Robert Hubbard as her opponent, and Mrs. Sarah Eolsom, a Republican, is seeking to unseat Democrat W. W. Dick as state superintendent of public instruction.

Montana's only general election candidate for state-level office this year is Miss Harriet Miller, superintendent of public instruction since 1957. Early this year she quit the Republican party and filed as a Democrat.

MAN OPPONENT

Her opponent is Republican C. R. Anderson, Helena schools superintendent.

In Delaware, Mrs. Belle Everett, a Democrat, is seeking election to her fourth two-year term as state treasurer.

★ ★ ★

In Wisconsin, Mrs. Dena A. Smith, a Republican, is going after a third two-year term in the same office, and in Arkansas Mrs. C. G. Hall, a Democrat, is unopposed as the Democratic candidate for a second term as state treasurer.

★ ★ ★

The current state treasurer of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Grace M. Sloan, a Democrat, is trying for the state auditor general's office. State law prevents her from running again for her present post.

Mrs. Sloan was the first woman to serve as Pennsylvania treasurer.

Says Asia Seeking Peace, Freedom

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — President Diosdado Macapagal of the Philippines last night pictured his country as a peace-maker and a mediator, but also as a stout defender of freedom.

★ ★ ★

Winding up a 12-day state visit with his wife and 17-year-old daughter, Macapagal said the twin aspirations of Asia today are for peace and for "a decent life in dignity and freedom."

★ ★ ★

Before his speech, some 400 guests at a World Affairs Council dinner drank a toast to the 54-year-old Philippine leader, who in turn proposed a toast to President Lyndon B. Johnson. The Philippine leader met twice with Johnson during his U.S. tour.

Voters Remain Stable

YPSILANTI (AP)—The number of Ypsilanti residents registered for the Nov. 3 general election is exactly the same as the number registered for the November 1962 general election: 9,234.

The population of the U.S. increased six times between 1850 and 1950 — from 23 million to more than 151 million.

Governors Write Resolutions

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Southern governors, who so far have paid more attention to presidential politics than the agenda, reached the resolution-writing stage today.

Several resolution targets are north of the Mason-Dixon Line.

Three of the chief executives most outspoken in political statements at this 30th annual Southern Governors' Conference will consider proposed resolutions at a closed luncheon meeting today. Full conference action by the 17 chief executives is not scheduled until the final session Wednesday morning.

Chairman of the resolutions committee is Georgia Gov. Carl E. Sanders, who told a news conference Monday that Barry Goldwater is slipping in Gebrgia because Southerners no longer consider him a segregationist.

Another committee member is Mississippi Gov. Paul B. Johnson, who said that Goldwater has as much chance against President Johnson in the Nov. 3 election as the Oklahoma football team had against Texas. Texas beat Oklahoma 28-7 Saturday.

Johnson said some of Goldwater's southern supporters have switched to Johnson because they think Goldwater is "crawfishing," or backtracking, on key issues of states rights and constitutional government.

★ ★ ★

The third member of the resolutions committee, Kentucky Gov. Edward T. Breathitt, told a news conference that civil rights is a dead issue. Breathitt also said he is opposed to a resolution suggested by Alabama Gov. George Wallace that would bar federal intervention in public school affairs.

★ ★ ★

Wallace said in a preconvention news conference that he had little chance of getting the unanimous approval needed for adoption of his resolution.

DISTRICTING QUESTION

Another resolution aimed at Washington appears to have a good chance of approval. This one, offered by the Mississippi governor, asks the conference to urge Congress or state legislatures to submit an amendment to the U.S. Constitution that would let one state legislative house be apportioned on a basis other than population.

The second resolution offered by Johnson, along with Virginia Gov. Albertis S. Harrison and North Carolina Gov. Terry Sanford, asks for a more equitable distribution of federal funds for research purposes. The resolution says most federal research money goes to 25 universities, of which only three are in the South.

★ ★ ★

Other proposed resolutions include one that would extend the cotton subsidy plan and another to set up an interstate compact commission on surface mining.

Sanders said he did not object to the Wallace resolution on federal intervention in school affairs but he saw no reason to put it up for a vote if one governor, Breathitt, already had opposed it.

★ ★ ★

Sanders predicted the Democrats would carry Georgia.

He also predicted, as did the Mississippi governor earlier, that the Republican party would "come up in 1968 with a very liberal program."

Liz, Debbie Don't Talk About Eddie

LONDON (AP) — Elizabeth Taylor and Debbie Reynolds — former wives of Eddie Fisher — sailed the Atlantic together and never mentioned the name of their former spouse.

"It just didn't come up," said Debbie today. "If you don't forget what's in the past, how can you look forward to the future?

"My life is so happy now that nothing can spoil it. If I was going to be angry about what happened over Eddie then I would have been angry a long, long time ago."

After the death of Miss Taylor's third husband, Michael Todd, Fisher left Debbie and became Liz's fourth husband. Debbie married American shoe magnate Harry Karl.

★ ★ ★

After Liz divorced Eddie, she married British actor Richard Burton.

SAME CORRIDOR

Last week, by coincidence, the Burtons and the Karls sailed to Europe on the Queen Mary. They had suites on the same corridor, but 10 suites apart, and they all ate in the super-tariff Veranda Grill.

"I sent a note to the Burtons inviting them to join us for cocktails," said Debbie. "And do you know what? The Burtons had the very same idea. The stewards actually crossed in the corridors with our notes."

★ ★ ★

After cocktails, the couples dined together. On the last night aboard, they had dinner together again and didn't part until near dawn.

Last year 503,733 tobacco farms harvested 1,151,529 acres and the farm market value of the crop was estimated at $1 billion. The manufactured value was more than $8 billion.

Connolly's Jewelers

Dear Mr. Fox:

As you will no doubt remember I was in yesterday and purchased a 40-piece set of Stainless in the Frostfire pattern. No, this is not a complaint, but rather the opposite.

I had never been in your Birmingham store before, but ever since I was a little girl, and that has been a long time, I have heard nothing but "Connolly's" for jewelry. In fact the Pontiac store, as far back as when it was Schaeffer's was my parents favorite store. The Roy Connollys' were personal friends of my parents, as were the Harold Hacketts'.

Now, that has no bearing on the case, so to speak, but I just want to tell you that I appreciate being treated royally, as I was yesterday. I realize that the purchase that I made was not an expensive one, but my husband and I are celebrating our Silver Wedding Anniversary tomorrow, and that was the exact gift that I wanted, everyday silverware. The lady at the counter was the perfect hostess, and was so very sweet. She showed me patterns of sterling that I was interested in seeing, while you wrapped my package, and she was so gracious. I dare say she does look familiar to me, perhaps she used to be at the Pontiac store many years ago.

I just want to say thank you for the hospitality, and tell you that it is very rare that you are treated royally in any store anymore, and I appreciate your kindness.

Sincerely,
Patricia Hill

ONE HOUR'S PAY PER MONTH WORKS MANY WONDERS

Everyone 'Owns' United Fund

The following is a statement by Bruce J. Annett general chairman of the 1964 Pontiac Area United Fund Drive.

Once a year every member of our community is asked to contribute to the Pontiac Area United Fund.

One sometimes hears the remark, "Why should I give to their United Fund? What do I get out of it?"

Many people seem to have the impression that the United Fund belongs to some select group. The truth if the matter is that it is "owned" by every citizen in the area. We all have a stake in it . . . EVERYONE benefits from it in many ways.

The Pontiac - Detroit areas organized the First United Funds in the World.

They were not organized by one person, but by a representative group of citizens who recognized the multitude of drives coming to our doors and offices almost every week of the year.

VOLUNTARY GROUP

The Pontiac Area United Fund is run by a voluntary group of citizens representing labor, business, industry and the general public.

The Pontiac Area United Fund Campaign incorporates the fund drives of 55 health, welfare and youth-serving agencies into one campaign.

Citizens from the Pontiac area and surrounding townships can and do use these agency services.

Last year more than 28,000 area families directly benefited from United Fund agency services.

In other words, three out of every five persons were involved in some phase of an agency program.

If you are one of the few persons not receiving a direct service from a United Fund agency, you can be assured that by supporting the United Fund you ARE benefiting by making our area a better place to live, work and raise a family.

Our 1964 goal is $815,500, the largest in our history. Weighed against its humanitarian purpose, it is the best buy anyone can make. Your contributions will be turned into a helping hand to the sick, the aging, the young, the handicapped, and the emotionally disturbed citizens in our area.

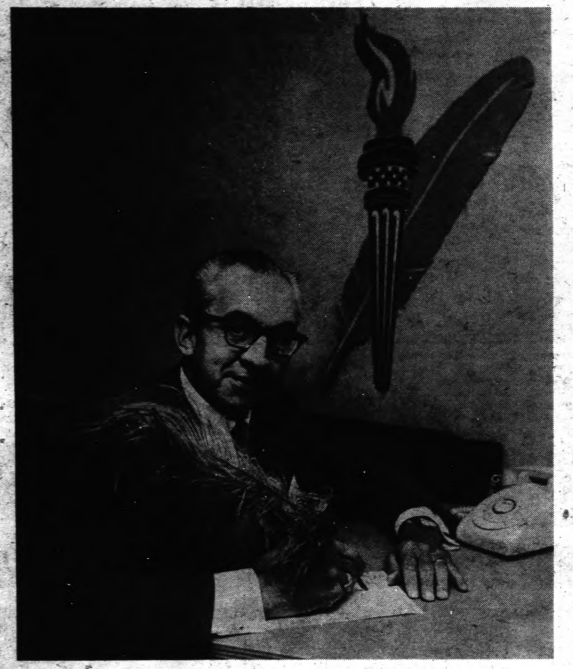

We all have a big job to do to insure that this, our area's largest civic and charitable event of the year, is successful. The part that each of us plays, added together, total's the tremendous job accomplished through our 55 member agencies.

LOOK TO YOU

Your contributions in past have been appreciated more than you will ever know. Those in need look to YOU to provide them with the necessities they cannot themselves provide.

It has been repeatedly proven that united giving is the most efficient method for helping each other is now.

By surpassing our all-time goal by Nov. 6, we will again demonstrate that we do care, and we are ready to give help when help is needed."

Many Contributors Wonder

How Are Pontiac Area UF Contributions Spent?

A question asked by many contributors to the Pontiac Area United Fund each year, say UF officials, is: How are my United Fund dollars spent?

* * *

UF officials are quick to answer.

Some 85 per cent of the monies collected locally are applied directly to local service, according to officials.

The remaining 15 per cent goes toward service and research by national organizations, aiding, for example, in medical research directed at discovering cures for many crippling diseases.

In spite of the amount raised locally, only some of the 55 agencies of the UF derive 100 per cent of their working budget from the fund. In some cases only 20 to 50 per cent of their operating budget comes form the UF.

SPECIALIZED TRAINING

The funds spent locally are used to pay all or part of the operating expenses of the 55 UF agencies and the salaries of 118 full time employees. Many of these have received specialized psychiatric and nursing care, family counseling, child guidance and others.

Their training insures that those seeking counsel from the UF will receive the finest assistance available.

These full time employes are aided by over 10,000 volunteers from our community, many of whom may be friends or members of your own family. Together, they served over 28,000 individuals last year involving hundreds of thousands of work hours.

The services provided by the UF are entirely separate from those provided by city, county or state welfare agencies.

They give assistance in many areas not covered by these organizations.

Red Cross Touches Millions of Lives

Directly or indirectly, the American National Red Cross touches the lives of millions of American families each year.

In an average twelve-month period, one out of every three U. S. military families receives Red Cross service.

One out of every eight persons in the United States receives some form of Red Cross service, and one out of every four persons in the United States provides some form of service to others through the Red Cross.

In Oakland County, during the past year, 25,653 county residents learned mouth-to-mouth artificial respiration on the training doll "Resusci-Anne," taught by trained instructors from the Oakland County Red Cross Chapter, a United Fund agency.

There were 7,806 residents who successfully completed their swimming classes and were awarded water safety certificates.

An expansion of water safety training is planned by Carleton C. Patterson Jr., chairman of the county chapter, who points out that the increase in swimming pools, farm pools, and reclamation lakes, is creating more potential water hazards.

First Aid classes resulted in another 3,367 persons being awarded certificates. They were taught by the chapter's 156 volunteer instructors.

Another Red Cross function which touches the lives of a large number of county residents is the service to military personnel, both here and abroad.

In its 80 years, the American Red Cross has carried out almost 8,000 relief operations at a cost of $350,000,000 — all of which was contributed, not supplied by the government.

In Oakland County hospitals alone, the Red Cross Gray Lady Service contributed 52,950 hours of service to patients.

Family Service Helps Troubled Couples

Family Service of Oakland County, a United Fund agency, works with hundreds of couples each year who are having marriage troubles.

Should they get a divorce? Is it worth it to carry on? What happens to the children?

These are all natural questions which some couples must answer. Many of them find the answers through the counseling help of this agency.

The professionally trained staff seeks to find the reason for a couple's personal failure in human relations, and then bring out a knowledge of themselves which will result in reconciliation.

Last year, Family Service counseled 1011 different families through the Pontiac office. Some 4 per cent had marital problems affecting an estimated 700 children.

This is an increase of 30 per cent over the number of families served in 1960. Yet during that time, only one full-time caseworker, and one part-time counselor have been added to the staff.

UF SUPPORT

With the continued strong UF support, Robert J. Janes, executive director, states that families are being served as soon as possible in the Pontiac area.

The slogan of Family Service is "Strengthen to Families Under Stress." This means the total family, not just husband and wife.

Consequently many types of problems are brought to the agency.

Trouble with behavior problems of children (which are a reaction to family turmoil) represents 20 per cent of the new families served.

Due to the adolescent population growth, and the rising concern over troubled youth, there has been an increase in the number of both parents and adolescents seeking help.

They bring such problems as school adjustment, inability to accept parental discipline, loss of control (hitting out at society in temper outbursts), sex delinquency, drinking and glue sniffing.

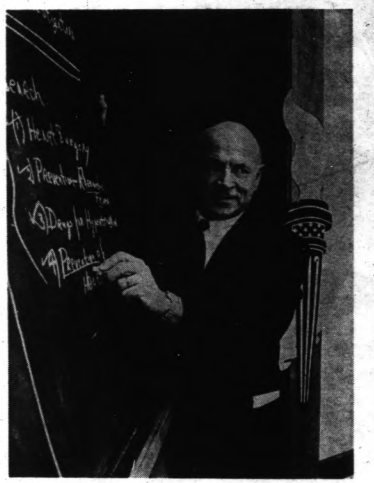

All of these are representative of a breakdown in relationship and communication between the adolescent and parents or other segments of society.

In the past three years, the agency has developed a specialty in counseling the aged.

An especially trained caseworker worked with 127 elderly individuals with problems in housing and health in which they needed guidance.

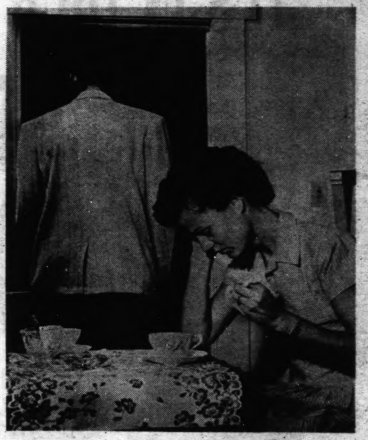

Unsatisfactory relationships with their own children, husbands or others in their social environment also were problems.

The help of this agency is available to anyone in the county having inter-personal relationship difficulty affecting social adjustment at home, on the job or in the community.

GUARD YOUR HEART—An active participant in the year-long activities of the Michigan Heart Association, Dr. John S. Marra, medical director at Pontiac General Hospital, is a strong advocate of prevention through knowledge. He is typical of the professional volunteers who carry on the work, to reduce heart ailments and deaths. Dr. Marra is shown here at one of this UF agency's many public educational sessions.

Family Service Helps Prevent This

Children's Aid Society Emphasizes Unity, Love

Michigan Children's Aid Society of Oakland County places emphasis on keeping children with their families.

The agency, which is largely supported by the Pontiac Area United Fund, feels that happiness and a sense of security in children is instilled through parental understanding, love and continuous care.

However the needs of certain children cannot be fulfilled by their families alone because of parental separation, divorce, desertion, death, physical or mental illness and birth out of wedlock.

As long as these domestic ills exist, some children must be taken care of by adoption or in foster homes.

* * *

Nothing seems as helpless as a homeless, unwanted waif. And nothing is as satisfying as seeing a couple taking one of these children into their hearts and homes.

DAYS OF CARE

Cold statistics can't tell the story of this agency, but they do show the extent of this agency's work. For example, total days of care will run around 43,000 for the current year.

In 1963 these were 118 children in foster care, using 32 foster homes. A total of 93 children were placed for adoption, in and outside of Oakland County.

A total of 231 unmarried mothers were cared for last year, and 102 adoptive homes were studied.

* * *

There were many other activities carried out by this agency, including medical care, group meetings for adoptive parents, supervision of children in foster homes and children cared for in their own homes.

DEVOTED SERVICE

Hours of devoted service, both for paid staff and volunteers, goes into this work.

Your Pontiac Area United Fund contribution helps support this worthwhile cause.

Pontiac Press Photo

HI KATIE! — That's what caseworker Nancy Vots (right) seems to be saying as she visits 16-month-old Kathleen and her adoptive parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Tademy, 251 S. Anderson. They are one of the 186 adoptive families served last year through the Michigan Children's Aid Society. Much of the society's work is made possible by local contributions to the Pontiac Area United Fund.

BE BRAVE — Mrs. Bonnie Berden, of the Pontiac Visiting Nurse Association, a UF supported agency, administers to Swanola James (8), while three-year-old sister Picella consoles by holding her sister's hands. This is one of thousands of visits made in the Pontiac area by visiting nurses.

Care for Ill at Home

Visiting Nurses Satisfy Need

A need for bedside nursing care of persons who are ill at home gave birth to the Pontiac Visiting Nurse Association.

★ ★ ★

In this sense the association bears a common bond with its 54 companion United Fund agencies. It was created to satisfy a human need in the community.

Visiting nurse service is an organized community service given in the home by registered, professional nurses to individuals and families.

The aims of the service are:

- To provide, on a part-time basis, skilled nursing care.
- To give treatment under medical direction.

★ ★ ★

- To demonstrate, teach, and supervise the nursing care that families or other workers may assume safely in the absence of the nurse.

★ ★ ★

The association is supported by the Pontiac Area United Fund, supplemented by fees from patients which are based on the actual cost of a visit.

NO RESTRICTIONS

There are no economic restrictions.

★ ★ ★

People who can pay the fee are expected to do so; others according to their ability to pay.

During 1963, 10,654 home visits were made to give nursing care. The nurses do not make more than one home visit unless a patient is under the care of a physician.

The number of visits made depends upon the type of illness, the family situation and the physician's orders.

★ ★ ★

Patients may be referred by families, friends, physicians, hospitals or other social agencies.

MANY JOBS

On her day's rounds the visiting nurse does many jobs. She is both nurse and teacher.

Of the visits made each day some may be to young mothers, teaching them to care for their new baby; others to homes of elderly people where one or both may be incapacitated.

She may visit the home of a severely handicapped patient who is able to live a more normal life because there is a program for nursing care available to him.

★ ★ ★

Still other visits may be to teach a diabetic to take his own insulin; to do dressings or give hypodermic medications or any of the nursing procedures which may be carried out safely in the home.

BETWEEN VISITS

The nurse also teaches members of the family to care for the patient between her visits.

When they have mastered these techniques their confidence increases and this creates an atmosphere more conducive to the patient's recovery.

Eight visiting nurses work in the area served by the Pontiac Visiting Nurse Association. This area is City of Pontiac, Waterford, West Bloomfield, Avon, Orion, Oakland, and Independence townships.

Every hour of the day the Pontiac Visiting Nurses Association is caring for the sick, aged and infirm.

★ ★ ★

These may be the people you often wish you might help. A contribution to the Pontiac area United Fund does that for you.

Girl Scouting Is Many Things

Meaning Different for Every Age Group

What is Girl Scouting?

Each girl scout has her own answer to the query concerning this United Fund agency, and the answers usually vary with age.

To a seven-year-old brownie it means wearing her uniform proudly for the first time; playing a singing game at troop meeting with her friends; or making a party salad for mother.

To a junior girl scout it could mean learning to lay a trail; saying "Hello" in French, Spanish, German and Japanese; helping to runthetroopthrough helping to run the troop through the patrol system; or visiting the shut-in next door.

Girl Scouting to a Cadette Girl Scout means being prepared for emergencies indoors and out; camping in the woods with her troop, helping in the community where she is needed.

WIDER OPPORTUNITIES

To the senior girl scout the program means all of these things and more. Her scouting world offers wider opportunities.

There are senior encampments in other councils, senior conferences on vocations or international friendship, and perhaps senior roundup with girl scouts from all over the world.

Girl scouting also means interested adults. Volunteer leaders, committee members and special consultants are essential ingredients of girl scouting.

Leadership, by informed and interested adults, makes girl scouting the quality program it is intended to be.

Few Citizens Realize the Extent of Salvation Army's Many Activities

Next year will be the 100th anniversary of the Salvation Army.

Many are aware of the existence of this great organization and the wonderful work they have done, but few people realize the extent of their activities.

The Salvation Army has programs for children, adults, families, and the Golden Age program for senior citizens.

A United Fund participating agency, the Salvation Army provides clothing, medication, furniture and counseling to needy families.

★ ★ ★

Their programs of meals and lodging for homeless transients, and their emergency and disaster services are traditional.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

There are educational and craft programs for boys and girls which include scouting, music, and summer camps for all ages.

The Army also is operating a missing persons bureau, service to unwed mothers, and visits to hospital patients.

In a busy world where few people have the time to interest themselves in other people's problems to any great extent, the Salvation Army takes on these problems and solves them.

HELPING—Commanding officer Gary Crowell counsels with one of the area's troubled persons seeking assistance at the Salvation Army's Pontiac Citadel daily.

UF Helps War Against Crime

Juvenile delinquents, crime, assaults, property destruction!

Why doesn't somebody do something to stop all this?

Someone is . . . You.

More than one third of your gift to the United Fund goes to a number of agencies working to build character and morals among our youth today.

★ ★

Boy Scouting isn't just learning to tie knots or pitch a tent to camp out. It's more than these things.

It is teaching the youth of today how to get along with each other, to work and play together, preparing them to take their places in the world of tomorrow.

SOMEWHERE TO GO

Boys' clubs, in addition to teaching them to work with their hands and with tools, provide "somewhere to go," and "something to do," for the boys who might otherwise be forming gangs and getting into trouble.

Girl Scouts learn to cook and sew and associate with others. The Young Women's Christian Association and Young Men's Christian Association provide outlets for physical energy and the basis for moral and christian character-building.

Sure, there are frills and candy-coating. There has to be to attract and interest these young people.

★ ★ ★

Then why is it that crime and muggings are increasing?

Population increases and poor home atmosphere are other factors.

made on the problem and contributions to the United Fund are helping to continue and expand these efforts.

ANSWERING THE CALL — Citizens from all walks of life form the Pontiac Area United Fund team that each year responds to the call for help from those less fortunate. For Glenn H. Griffin (above), the months of planning are about to bear the fruits of human kindness. He pauses in front of the Community Services Bldg., 132 Franklin Boulevard, United Fund headquarters. Griffin will have a busy schedule of meetings during the coming weeks. Getting a head start on the campaign (below), a United Fund solicitor, Gail Wheeler (right), gas crew foreman for Consumers Power Company obtains advance pledges from Claude Richardson (left), a pipefitter, and LeRoy Warnock, gas lineman. It is this volunteer service and spirit of giving which make the Pontiac Area United Fund a dedicated community effort.

Fund Provides Major Support to Cancer Unit

The Michigan Cancer Foundation, a non-profit voluntary agency dedicated to the prevention and control of cancer, gets its chief financial support from annual allocations by United Fund agencies.

Through the efforts of many volunteers a year-round program of research, education, and service is carried out in the Pontiac area with headquarters at 64 West Lawrence.

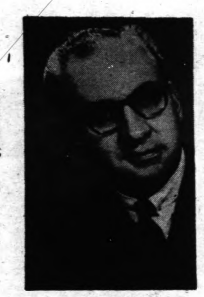

The prime purpose of the Michigan Cancer Foundation is to save lives from cancer.

To accomplish this purpose the Michigan Cancer Foundation is dedicated to three principal activities.

It provides substantial financial aid for cancer research. It seeks to inform the public of the "seven warning signs" of cancer and the importance of regular and thorough medical check-ups.

It offers to those already afflicted with cancer, free services and materials ranging from dressings and sickroom supplies to transportation for outpatient treatment in local hospitals.

Dem Education Board Slate Appears Tomorrow

County School Chiefs Set Meet-Candidates Sessions

School superintendents in the county will move into a new role in the next two weeks.

The school chiefs will sponsor a pair of meetings tomorrow and Oct. 27 for State Board of Education candidates.

Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, Pontiac schools superintendent and president of the Oakland County Association of School Superintendents, announced today that the Democratic slate of eight candidates will appear tomorrow at 8 p.m. at Pontiac Northern High School.

Republican candidates will be presented on Oct. 27.

★ ★ ★

At each of candidates' meetings, each candidate will be alloted five to eight minutes for discussion of his views on the role of the new State Board of Education.

QUESTION-ANSWER

A question and answer session will follow the candidates' presentations.

The new constitution grants the state board leadership and general supervision over all public education, except institutions which grant degrees.

Previously, the board had authority only over teacher-training institutions.

★ ★ ★

The new state board will also serve as a general planning and coordinating body for all public education, including higher education.

ADVISE LEGISLATURE

The state board in addition will advise the legislature on the financial needs of public school institutions, according to the constitution.

The board also will appoint the state superintendent of public instruction. This post formerly was filled through election.

Democratic nominees to appear tomorrow include Thomas J. Brennan, Dr. Leon Fill, Marilyn Jean Kelly, the Rev. Charles E. Morton, Dr. Edwin L. Novak, Dr. Peter Oppewall and Donald M. D. Thurber.

★ ★ ★

The Republican meeting Oct. 27 is also slated for Pontiac Northern with an 8 p.m. starting time.

★ ★ ★

GOP nominees are Alvin M. Bentley, James F. O'Neil, Robert Briggs, John Kreger, Bourke Lodewyk, Mrs. Julian Hatton, Miss Ellen Solomonson and Mrs. James Parker.

Bad Seat for Series

LYNCHBURG, Va. (AP) — Mrs. Hazel Glass Dunford, 70, was watching the World Series on television yesterday when she heard a strange noise across the street.

★ ★ ★

She got up to look out the window just as a tractor-trailer slammed into her home. The right front wheel crushed the chair in which she had been sitting.

★ ★ ★

Authorities said a brake failure allowed the truck to coast away from a loading ramp across the street.

80th Met Opener Is Glittering Success

NEW YORK (AP) — Australia's Joan Sutherland performed gloriously and the audience was glittering and glamorous as the Metropolitan Opera opened its 80th season Monday night.

The annual event at the old Broadway opera house also was a 15th anniversary celebration for general manager Rudolf Bing.

★ ★ ★

He served coffee to shivering opera-lovers waiting for standing-room tickets, donned a white tie to usher his handsome wife through the carriage trade entrance and, finally, posed in a happy embrace with the triumphant Miss Sutherland.

The Met will move after one more season to a huge new opera house in Lincoln Center.

WELL-KNOWN ROLE

It was no debut for Miss Sutherland, well-entrenched in the role of "Lucia di Lemmermoor." The opera was first heard at the Met, with Marcella Sembrich, during its first season and has been played more than 200 times since.

Performing ably with Miss Sutherland were Sandor Konya as Edgardo and Robert Merrill as Ashton.

★ ★ ★

The new production, produced by Margherita Wallmann and designed by Attilio Colonello, brought distinctly European effects onto the old stage.

Miss Sutherland, according to Associated Press Arts Editor Miles A. Smith, turned in a virtuoso performance in the famous "mad scene" and displayed well her brilliant coloratura.

4 CURTAIN CALLS

The applause was a steady roar for four curtain calls.

The opening of the Met, as always, inspired many ladies to new heights of fashion.

One of the peaks was Mrs. Leonard Holtzer's white fox coat, a pillar of eight tiers from neck to ankle. Another was the Paris costume of Mrs. Gabrielle Lagerwall, who wore a chinchilla coat of fingertip length (when most of the chinchilla fanciers wore only a little cape or a stole) plus a big band of chinchilla around the skirt of her midnight blue velvet gown and chinchilla cuffs.

STAR'S WIFE

Mrs. Johnny Carson, whose husband appears on television late in the evening, wore a coat-of-mail costume glittering over the bodice of a slim white dress. She was escorted by Alan Jay Lerner, Broadway lyricist.

On Lerner's other arm was the working baritone's wife, Mrs. Robert E. Merrill, wearing a white velvet gown covered with gold beads.

Editor Predicts Johnson Will Take State

Picturesque Oregon Town Reflects Indecisiveness

(Editor's Note — A report by a UPI correspondent who is touring the nation by bus to sample the moods and talks of people during this election year.)

BY LOWRY BOWMAN

GRANTS PASS, Ore. (UPI)— Ben Hilton leaned back in his chair and put the politicians' dilemma into salty, frontier language.

"It's a nickel against hell who'll carry this county in November," he said.

On the surface, that might seem to be a safe prediction. But Hilton has been in this picturesque lumber town (pop, 11,400) on the Rogue River since 1909, and during that time it has been almost as predictably Republican as Maine and Vermont.

Last spring, when Oregon Republicans confounded the experts by giving Nelson Rockefeller an unexpected victory in the presidential primary, Grants Pass was solidly for Barry M. Goldwater. Chances are it will be for Goldwater in November against President Johnson, but the bets are now being hedged.

What is sure is that Grant's Pass is blessed by magnificent scenery. It is nestled in a valley between the Cascade Mountains to the east, the coast range to the west and the Siskiyou Mountains to the south. Two major highways from California meet here for the run north to Portland.

★ ★ ★

Just three years ago it was classed as a depressed area. There was high unemployment. The lumber business on which its long-time residents have depended, was in the doldrums.

FULL-TIME

Now, suddenly, the six plywood mills are going again full-time. Logging trucks piled high with monstrous Douglas Fir from the mountains rumbled through town constantly.

During the first three weeks of September, three major business expansions were announced, including new shopping centers. The banks all have expanded. Fashionable motels are springing up. Land values are rising.

Hilton, a real estate agent, explained it this way:

★ ★ ★

"All of a sudden, a lot of people are moving up here from California. They want to get away from the cities. We've got everything they want."

BIG VS. SMALL

Harry L. Elliott, editor of the daily Grants Pass Courier, said the only campaign issue that has aroused much discussion in this town of 11,400 is that of big government versus small government.

★ ★ ★

He said Grants Pass is for small government despite an increasing number of retired persons on Social Security who are locating here because of the scenery and the outdoor recreational opportunities.

On the basis of voting in the May primary, Elliott's guess is that "Goldwater will take Josephine County by a slight edge. The state, I guess, would have to go to Johnson."

County assessor Donald E. Jones is finishing his first two-year term and running for another. Jones describes himself as the first "real Democrat" ever to hold the office here.

★ ★ ★

He has begun a property reevaluation program that would take two more years to complete, and that is an issue that touches the voter's pocketbook.

CHANGE NOTED

"There has been a change in this country since John F. Kennedy's assassination," Jones said. "We don't want to go back."

Jones, a Freemason, said he had not voted for Kennedy because of his religion.

"But people know a man when they see one," he said, "and Kennedy began to make us all feel like men again."

★ ★ ★

Jones also is distressed by what he called a willingness on the part of voters to believe the worst about all persons in government. He blamed the nation's newspapers, in part.

STORIES CONFLICT

"How can the voters appreciate what political leaders are doing on the real basic level of government — like property evaluation, for instance — when all they read in the papers is sensational stories that conflict from one paper to another?" he said.

"You get that situation," he said, "and you can't much blame people for asking any politician what he can do for me instead of what he can do for my city or my country."

CLOSE SUPPORT — A Vietnamese troop helicopter skims overhead on the lookout. The reconnaissance unit walks hip-deep in water, looking for Viet Cong guerrillas, while a U.S. copter-troop team is operating in the Mekong River Delta, hoping to halt disastrous ambushes of government forces.

3rd Helicopter Unit Added in Viet Delta

CAO LANH, Viet Nam (AP)— The U.S. Army has set up a third helicopter company in the largely Viet Cong - controlled Delta region in hopes of cutting a number of disastrous ambushes against government ground forces.

However, a recent operation on the edge of the Plain of Reeds showed that it may take more than added choppers to gain the initiative for government forces in the Delta rice bowl.

Units from the new company and an older unit took part in an eagle flight to lift 60 government troops into an area 80 miles southwest of Saigon.

Government forces hit ground only 30 minutes after 300 Viet Cong were spotted in the area. While helicopters provided air support, troops jumped out of the choppers to find themselves in near-neck deep water. Reeds were well over their heads.

★ ★ ★

Although there was sporadic shooting, neither force saw the other and the helicopters were unable to pinpoint enemy units which escaped. The Delta region is only dry about four months out of a year.

3 COMPANIES

Three companies in the Fourth Army Corps are responsible for virtually all of Viet Nam south of Saigon. They can be beefed up with additional helicopter units from Saigon and Bien Hoa for major operations.

★ ★ ★

Helicopter companies normally include about 35 armed and troop - carrying choppers and 250 men.

500 Teachers Still on Strike

Out Six Days in R. I., They Ask Higher Pay

PAWTUCKET, R.I. (AP) — School teachers in this industrial city were expected to stay away from classrooms again today as their strike entered its sixth day.

About 500 teachers in 17 public schools are demanding higher pay scales and a new contract.

★ ★ ★

Court order last week directed them to end the strike, but teachers have stayed away.

Negotiations between city and and school officials and representatives of the Pawtucket Teachers Alliance broke up late Monday night in "complete disagreement," a teachers' spokesman said.

BACK TO START

"We are back where we started last Saturday," said James F. Munday, director of organization for the American Federation of Teachers. "No meetings are scheduled for Tuesday. I hope some public official will step forward. Both sides need help at this point."

A wealthy supermarket owner offered Monday to advance the city $90,000 interest free to pay for the requested salary hikes. But it appeared the city would not be able to accept.

★ ★ ★

Paul E. Bassett, Pawtucket finance director, said there would be legal obstacles to such a move and it "would not be good financial practice" for the city to borrow money from a private citizen.

Samuel Leviten, president of the Big G-Supermarkets, made the offer saying:

"A lot of innocent kids are taking a beating because of the strike. I don't know who's right or wrong, but I know the children are not wrong."

11,000 STUDENTS

There are about 11,000 children in the city's schools.

Teachers receive $4,800 starting salary and go to $7,100 after 30 years. They want a new salary scale of $7,300 after 10 years and $7,500 after 25 years.

★ ★ ★

The $90,000 offered by Leviten would be the cost to the city this year under the proposed salary scale. The school committee says the $90,000 is not available.

Industry, Government, Universities in Confab

TARANTO, Italy (AP) — Doctors finished treating two patients in the first aid room of a Taranto hospital and thought that was all.

Then they noticed a dog waiting next in line. He howled for attention. The doctors found a deep cut on one leg and treated it. The bandaged dog wagged his tail and walked on out.

SEATO Help for Viet War?

Other Nations May Be Asked for Troops

SAIGON, Viet Nam (UPI) — Premier Nguyen Khanh is considering a proposal to ask the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO) countries for combat troops to help fight the anti-Communist war, Air Commodore Nguyen Cao Ky disclosed today.

Ky is commander of the Vietnamese Air Force and the acknowledged leader of the "young Turk" generals who are Khanh's chief backers at present. Commodore Ky said he himself made the SEATO proposal to Khanh after discussing it with other generals.

If the SEATO countries accepted the proposal, the Vietnamese war effort would be more broadly based. But it is doubtful they would accept it.

The SEATO countries are Thailand, the Philippines and Pakistan in Asia; Australia and New Zealand, and France, Great Britain and the United States.

★ ★ ★

The SEATO countries that would be likely to help the war effort already are doing so.

ONLY NATION

The United States is the only SEATO country with a large number of combat troops — and officially, they are simply "advisers." Australia has a small unit of such "advisers," and the Philippines has expressed willingness to send them.

New Zealand probably also would be willing. Great Britain has extended some technical, noncombat aid.

But it is out of the question for Pakistan and France to support a joint SEATO effort in South Viet Nam at this time.

★ ★ ★

Pakistan has drawn closer to Communist China recently; their common enemy being India.

President Charles de Gaulle of France insists that neutralization is the only answer for South Viet Nam; he has no interest in helping the United States fight Communists there.

Dems Can't Find Foe on Ballot Issue

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan Democrats are trying to pick a fight over an election issue. But they can't find opponents.

The scrap they want is over the so-called Massachusetts Ballot.

★ ★ ★

This is the ballot form that lists candidates by office instead of party and which voters will rule on Nov. 3. The Democrats made it a statewide issue with their successful referendum drive after the legislature passed the ballot form with Republican backing and the bill was signed by Gov. George Romney.

Sherwood Colburn, special projects director of the Michigan Democratic party, said today he has been frustrated constantly in getting leading Republicans to debate the issue.

NO POSITION

Colburn, chairman of a Democratic group called Citizens for a Free Choice Ballot, said he finds it difficult to get Republicans to say the ballot is their creation.

GOP State Chairman Arthur Elliott Jr. "contends that the GOP has not taken a position on the question and will not send out anyone to debate the subject," Colburn said.

In debating or speaking on the ballot 35 or 40 times recently, Colburn said he has faced major Republican figures only twice. These were former Congressman Alvin Bentley, now a candidate for State Board of Education, and Richard Van Dusen, former legal advisor to Romney.

"Otherwise, when they've responded at all, they've sent out a local candidate just to give him the exposure," he said. "And every one of them has said something like 'I'm speaking for myself — not for the party.'"

One scheduled debate ended up a monologue by Colburn when his Republican adversary failed to show. Republican State headquarters said it was the result of a mixup.

Romney praised the ballot bill when it was passed, "now the Republicans are trying to pretend it never happened," Colburn said.

Romney said the Massachusetts Ballot is not a major issue.

"But it is; the Governor cannot play at the heart of the Democratic process and then claim it's not an issue," Colburn said.

PUBLIC VOTE

Romney has said he is happy the matter is coming to a public vote.

"He doesn't mean it," Colburn said. "If he did, he wouldn't have handled it the way he did. People couldn't even testify against it in legislative hearings."

The real purpose of the ballot, Colburn said, was "to save Romney from the onus of Barry Goldwater," Republican presidential candidate. Romney has denied this.

Mars May Be Next Target for Russia

By JOHN BARBOUR

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. space agency — never really ahead in the race to the moon — has new clues to just how far behind it is. It may trail the Russians by some two years.

The Soviets pointed this out yesterday by launching a big new satellite called Sunrise with a big new space rocket — and complicated things by not saying how big either of them were.

★ ★ ★

They did say, however, that Sunrise carried three men — a pilot, a doctor and a scientist — in a shirtsleeve environment, unencumbered by bulky space suits.

It will be some two years before the U.S. space program duplicates the feat — but the U.S. effort is not designed along parallel lines with the Soviet schedule.

2-MAN FLIGHTS

Early next year, the U.S. schedule calls for the first of 10 two-man Gemini flights, culminating in two-week missions for some astronaut teams, and two-day missions for others in which the goal will be rendezvous, docking and maneuver with other space bodies.

Early this year, it seemed that the United States was catching up with the Soviet Union at last. The Soviets had been using rockets with the power of some 800,000 pounds of thrust to put into earth orbits spacecraft weighing about 15,000 pounds.

★ ★ ★

Then in January, the United States fired off Saturn 1 — with 1.5 million pounds of thrust. It put a dummy satellite weighing better than 37,000 pounds into orbit, the world's greatest known weight-lifting feat until then, perhaps even now.

That was when Wernher Von Braun, who heads Saturn development, said: "we are now ahead of the Russians in cargo carrying ability."

LONG-RANGE GOAL

The entire Saturn program has a long-range goal — the Saturn 5. This monster will develop 7.5 million pounds of thrust and is scheduled to hurl a three-man Apollo spaceship around the moon by 1968, and toward a moon landing by 1969.

The Soviet shot yesterday was embarrassing to U.S. space planners, just when their critics at home are loudest, perhaps six months before U.S. astronauts begin the Gemini program with some chance of building up public enthusiasm again.

A stern election-year congress has already tightened the purse strings for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration — which had to trim its lunar program to accommodate.

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Mars may be the next space target for the Soviet Union, successful with manned and unmanned earth orbit flights but frustrated with unmanned lunar and planetary missions.

Authoritative American sources report the Soviets have failed 17 straight times to launch probes to Mars, Venus and the moon.

For most of November Mars will be in a position to receive a rocket-launched explorer from earth, a position it reaches once every 25 months.

The United States plans to launch two Project Mariner craft on intended eighth-month voyages to Mars in this period.

★ ★ ★

U.S. experts believe the Russians may launch three Mars probes, following a three-shot pattern used previously when Venus and Mars were in proper position.

POWERFUL ROCKET

If the Russians employ the powerful new rocket used Monday to launch their three-man craft, rocket specialists here estimated they may be able to land as much as 10,000 pounds on Mars to make extensive scientific studies.

The U.S. Mariner craft, launched by smaller Atlas - Agena rockets, each will weigh 570 pounds. Each will carry a television camera to take 20 pictures and scientific instruments. All information is to be gathered in 30-minute periods when the vehicles fly close to Mars.

★ ★ ★

Both the United States and Russia would be seeking clues to the possibility of life on the red planet. With larger spacecraft, Russia would be better able to collect such data.

Mariner 3 is scheduled for launching from Cape Kennedy Nov. 4. Mariner 4 could be launched as early as Nov. 6. Each would require about 250 days to reach the vicinity of Mars, 66 million miles away.

MISSED SUCCESS

Russia has not had a deep space launching success since Lunik 3 photographed the back side of the moon in 1959. The Soviets admitted losing radio contact with their Mars 1 probe in 1962, but said nothing about other failures. Two other Mars shots reportedly fizzled.

American tracking radars, primarily in Turkey, have recorded a number of failures that intelligence sources reported were bound for the moon, Mars and Venus. The National Aeronautics and Space Administration has announced some of them, but for security reasons does not reveal all that this nation knows about Soviet space shots.

★ ★ ★

Most recent Russian failures, according to informed sources, were three probes launched toward Venus last Feb. 26, March 4 and April 2.

Other Nations Hail New Orbital Flight

LONDON (AP)—The Soviet Union's orbital flight of three men in one space ship was generally praised in Britain today as a feat that put the Russians ahead of the Americans in the space race.

By contrast, Communist China and others aligned with Peking ignored the space flight.

Even in Japan, reports of the flight pushed accounts of Japan's first gold medalist in the Olympics to second spot.

Japanese newsmen based in Peking reported that throughout the 24-hour and 17-minute flight, all newspapers and radio stations in Communist China made no mention of space ship "Sunrise."

★ ★ ★

The London Daily Telegraph science staff said the launching "has put the Russians ahead of the Americans, whose first three-man space ship is at least two years away from the launching pad."

COLOSSAL AFFAIR

The paper said the "Soviet rocket which put the three-man vehicle into orbit must have been a colossal affair. It was probably bigger than the new American Saturn rocket being developed for the American man-on-the-moon program."

The London Times science correspondent said "information about radiation hazards, and the extent of protection needed, can be obtained as well with instruments, and much is known already."

He said that "the check necessary for safety (from weightlessness) can be made only in a satellite — and a team consisting of pilot, scientist and doctor . . . is obviously a good way to go about it."

The Guardian said: "It now seems certain that the Russians will get to the moon before the Americans . . . the (Soviet s . . . will probably know enough about the behavior of the human body in a weightless condition (and perhaps also in an artificial atmosphere containing helium instead of nitrogen) to predict with something approaching certainty a date when prolonged space travel will be feasible.

TRIUMPH OF MAN

"All men in all countries will accept the Russians' achievements for what they are — a triumph not just for Communists but for questing mankind."

The London Mail science writer said Soviet scientists have proved that "within three years they can send a space crew into a lasso orbit around the moon."

Toy-Makers Ring In Early Christmas

NEW YORK (AP) — Thirty-three Navy children had a few hours of Christmas on Columbus Day, previewing toys that manufacturers will offer to the public this year.

"This was the happiest day of my life!" said Eddie Yuste, a 9-year-old who spent much of the day assembling a plastic clock.

★ ★ ★

The children, picked from Navy families in Brooklyn, were the guests of the nation's toy industry at the annual fall show sponsored by the Toy Manufacturers Association of the U.S.A., Inc. They had the run of about 500 toys made by more than 100 manufacturers, and each got to take home his favorite.

★ ★ ★

There were racing-car kits, gas pumps that rang up the number of gallons, monsters that walked, printing presses, botany kits, families of dolls and even penthouse-style apartments for dolls.

SO MANY

"There are so many toys you don't know what to play with," said Turina Hunter, 9, clapping her hands. She chose an electric oven that really bakes.

★ ★ ★

The association, which stages the exhibit as toy factories across the country start peak production for pre-Christmas shipping, said auto racing kits, monsters and educational toys were among the most popular items.

★ ★ ★

Educational toy makers seem to have been fascinated by anatomy. Among the items scanned by 8-year-old Cheryl White were a transparent model of a breathing man and assembly kits for skeletons of frogs, fish and the human hand.

"I hate science," frowned Cheryl, "but I like dolls."

The association, which predicts record sales at the factory level of $1.17 billion this year, says dolls remain the biggest single category of toys, as they have been for many years.

★ ★ ★

"It's practically impossible to think of a revolutionary toy idea," said Frank Gavitt, an association official, as he dodged 10-year-old Thomas Balbena on a tractor-tricycle. association official, as he dodged 10-year-old Thomas Balbuena on a tractor-tricycle.

"What adults use and do has always been the model for toys," Gavitt said.

The day was happy but long for Willie Ruff, 10. After two hours with the toys, he wanted to know what time it was.

"I think," said Willie, "that it is time for lunch."

Hubert: Barry Campaign Uses Desperation Policies

NORTHAMPTON, Mass (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, barnstorming in New England, said today, the campaign of Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater "is built around the policies of desperation."

Humphrey, Democratic candidate for vice president, told a gathering of students at Smith College that "the acts of choice before us have a range which can be exhilarating — or terrifying."

* * *

Some persons are stimulated "by the great challenge that faces us," he said. "Others, living in self-imposed mental exile from modern life, picture the typical American as old, tired, bitter and defeated.

* * *

"This is the real issue in this campaign. The whole Goldwater attack is built around the policies of desperation."

BUSY SCHEDULE

Humphrey steered his campaign through New England with stops in Massachusetts, Vermont, New Hampshire, Maine and Connecticut after doing about everything a candidate can do on Columbus Day.

He rode in the Newark, N.J., parade, reviewed New York's parade in nonpartisan style with Republicans Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, and then took in the fifth game of the World Series.

* *

Later, he joined Robert F. Kenendy, Democratic senatorial candidate in New York, for a rally in White Plains, where both were cheered by a crowd of more than 5,000.

The session today was organized by collegiate Young Democrats.

'CULTIVATES CATASTROPHE'

Humphrey declared: "In every area of foreign and domestic policy the Goldwater faction cultivates catastrophe.

"At a time when we have never been stronger, and the Communists' world system is coming apart at the seams, the Goldwaterites see us sliding down the slope to defeat.

* * *

"At a time when we have reached a breakthrough in the struggle against our ancient curse of race prejudice, they talk of nothing but race riots and street violence.

"At a time when human survival depends upon the exercise of restrained, responsible power, they encourage nuclear adventurism and shooting from the hip."

On Hollywood Boulevard

Detectives Unlike TV's Private Eyes

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — This is the boulevard —

* * *

Hollywood has its private eyes, as do television and the paperbacks. But alas, there isn't much similarity between the real kind and the Philip Marlowes and the Sam Spades.

THOMAS

Take the gentlemen who run the imposing-sounding Central Bureau of Investigation, oldest detective agency on Hollywood Boulevard. Founded 35 years ago, it was recently sold by Chris Gugas, who became director of public safety for Omaha.

* * *

The new owners are Russell Jones and Bud Meyerkamp, who previously had operated the local office of a national detective agency. They discussed their work in their neat, second-floor office, filled with electronic gear, tools of the modern private investigator.

* * *

"Much of our work is giving polygraph tests," said Russell, a dark-haired, well-spoken man.

LIE-DETECTOR TESTS

"We give lie-detector tests for smaller police departments which don't have their own equipment, for employment screening in bonded jobs such as delivering wholesale jewelry, for attorneys who want to find out if their clients are telling the truth, and for companies seeking to solve pilferage."

* *

"The rest of our work consists of industrial undercover work and civil and domestic investigations," said Meyerkamp, stocky and blond. "We employ seven full-time help and several part-time."

Both smiled when asked how their work compares to their fictional counterparts.

* * *

"I'm afraid we don't encounter much of the Peter Gunn-77 Sunset Strip stuff," said Jones. "About the only real danger we might face is from irate husbands.

SOMETIMES APPREHENSIVE

"Oh, there may be times when you're making an arrest of a couple of big bruisers in a lonely spot at 2 in the morning; then you might feel a bit apprehensive. We make arrests just as anyone else can: a citizen's arrest. We don't carry guns since everyone is forbidden to carry concealed weapons, and we'd feel pretty silly with a pistol strapped outside our coats.

"Once in a while, when we're checking on a bail bond case, we might carry a pistol in the car. But we never have to use it."

* * *

"Danger?" added Meyerkamp. "This may sound incongruous, but the greatest danger we face is in the Los Angeles traffic. When you're tailing another car you've got to stay right with them. Let three cars intervene, and you have to scramble to catch up. That can be quite hazardous."

The Central Bureau of Investigation once operated a school for detectives, but the new owners intend to let it go defunct.

WANT TO BE DETECTIVES

"We still get calls from all kinds of people who want to learn detective work," said Jones. "They all have romantic ideas and are unsuited to be investigators. What we need are people who are fairly intelligent, learn easily and are steady workers."

* * *

And what of the legendary blondes who throw themselves at private eyes?

Meyerkamp shook his head sadly.

"Most of those who can afford to hire a private investigator are mature and not highly attractive," he said.

CAMPAIGNS FOR SON — Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy addresses an audience in Lawrence, Mass., Central Catholic High School, campaigning for one of two Senate candidate sons, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., who is running for a full term in the seat once held by her third son, the late president, John F. Kennedy. Mrs. Kennedy joined the senator's wife, Joan, for the rally, attended by more than 1,000 persons, most of them women.

Rose Kennedy, 74, Back on Political Trail for Sons

LAWRENCE, Mass. (AP) — Of regal bearing and patrician beauty, the lady in the white mink hat strode purposefully to the microphone. She dug into her handbag, fished out a pair of horn-rimmed glasses and a crumpled piece of paper, and smiled at the audience.

"I've come to tell you my version of my son, Ted," she said, blue eyes glittering with maternal pride, "and why I think you should return him to the United States Senate."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy was on the firing line again. The 74-year-old mother of the late president, better known throughout Massachusetts simply as Rose Kennedy, was staging another whirlwind stand in behalf of her fiercely competitive children.

The setting was the auditorium of Central Catholic High School in Lawrence, on a podium just under the basketball scoreboard. But it could just as well have been a National Guard Armory across the line in New York or a television studio in a border city that could beam its shows into both states.

BACK AND FORTH

The only woman in United States history ever to be the daughter of a congressman, the wife of an ambassador and the mother, simultaneously, of the President, a cabinet member and a senator, was busy ducking back and forth across the Massachusetts-New York border in high hopes of becoming the mother of two U.S. senators. She's also working for her son Robert, former attorney general who is in the Senate race in New York.

★ ★ ★

Edward Kennedy is opposed by Republican Howard Whitmore Jr. Robert Kennedy's opponent is Sen. Kenneth B. Keating.

Mrs. Kennedy has a speaking date in Worcester next Sunday and will talk in Boston on Oct. 25.

BIG TURNOUT

Much to the amazement of the local politicians, who had predicted a disaster, an overflow crowd of more than 1,000 turned out Sunday to hear her, despite the World Series, pro football and a sunlit afternoon.

Her voice was firm and clear, except when it came to that fateful day in November.

★ ★ ★

"You all know about Jack, our second son, and how he was inaugurated in Washington and the plans he made for world peace. But Jack is no longer with us. . . ."

The words trailed off, and a sob caught in her throat. But she gripped the rostrum and quickly regained control.

WONDERFUL LEGA CY

"He has left us," she continued, "a wonderful legacy of purpose and courage. We still have Ted, in whom he confided his heartfelt wishes. I am sure he will be worthy of your trust."

Then she launched into a warm account of the Kennedy children.

★ ★ ★

"We always told them," she said, "that their time and their talents were not to be devoted to self-aggrandizement or self-amusement but to the services of others. It was only natural that they should choose a political career."

This wife and mother, who had lost three children by violent deaths, who had had another born retarded, whose husband had suffered a paralyzing stroke three years ago, and who now was speaking in behalf of Ted Kennedy, flat on his back from an airplane crash last June, could still swallow her grief and leave her audience laughing.

"I have one final request of all you women here and it is a very selfish one," she said. "I'm asking you all to get out and vote. Since the women had the vote, the Kennedys have never lost an election. In 1914, Teddy's grandfather ran for senator against Henry Cabot Lodge and lost. But that was before we women had the vote."

What is a newspaper?

A newspaper is many things to many people.

To some, it is reality — a living record of each passing day of history; to others, it is escape — a refuge of entertainment and relaxation after the day's chores.

To the housewife, it is ideas for new recipes and new clothes.

To the mother, suggestions for raising the youngsters.

To the teacher, a homework assignment on current events; to schoolchildren a notebook item.

To the lonely diner, a companion; around the family supper table, a topic of conversation.

To sports and theater lovers, news of who is playing, when, where and in what.

To athletes and actors, scrapbook materials.

To an unknown, it brings fame; to the well known, further fame.

To the seller, it means quick response; to the buyer, many selections.

To some, it brings good news; to others, sad tidings.

To friends and neighbors, it tells about job promotions, school graduations, who got married, who was born, who died.

To the voter, it is guidance; to a politician, a channel to the voter.

To front-stoop sitters, it describes life beyond the horizon.

To the living, it is the freedom to know and understand the world.

To the dead, a tribute to their lives.

To all in America it means uncensored news and opinion; in other parts of the world, the deadening hand of censored propaganda.

What else costs so little, is so useful, and adds so much to our lives?

GOP 'Eagle-Eyes' to Watch for Vote Fraud

CHICAGO (AP) — Operation Eagle-Eye, a Republican volunteer poll-watching program designed for Cook County-Chicago has been building strength throughout the nation.

The program now includes 100,000 volunteers in 35 major cities, Charles R. Barr, 47, national director of Eagle-Eye, said today. Their job, Barr said, "will be to make sure that people who aren't eligible to vote are successfully challenged on election day."

* * *

In each city, volunteer organizations have been set up and programs of indoctrination for potential "eagle-eyes" are under way, Barr said.

Workers are divided into teams of five and assigned to specific precincts.

KNOW PRECINCT

"They hit the precincts that have a history of many vote-irregularity charges," he said. "The goal is for the team to go into their precincts and become as familiar with it as if they lived there. They've got to observe what buildings are being torn down, find out where the vacant lots are, and even learn where to find a pay telephone. They have to know everything so they can be effective challengers on election day."

The operation was formed in the aftermath of the 1960 elections in predominantly Democratic Cook County, which helped President John F. Kennedy carry Illinois by a slim 8,858 votes.

Republicans accused more than 650 election officials of misconduct and carried their protest to the state election board. The claims were dismissed for lack of evidence.

REACHED INTO SKY

After the election, Barr, an attorney, was asked by local GOP leaders to head an anti-vote-fraud organization in Chicago. "I just reached into the sky for a name —and got 'eagle-eye'," he said.

In the 1962 Cook County elections, a Republican sheriff and county judge were elected along with six countywide GOP officials.

* * *

"Eagle-eye was a definite factor there," Barr said, "and there were no vote fraud charges to give the city of Chicago a black eye."

Barr estimated that in the 1962 election his force of 2,500 workers discouraged or successfully challenged 50,000 illegally registered voters in Chicago.

He said the program attracted GOP officials in Washington, including Sen. Barry Goldwater. "I met with Goldwater and his staff and was handed a list of 26 other areas where vote fraud was prevalent," Barr recalled. "Now we're up to 35."

* * *

Other cities in the eagle-eye program include, Barr said, Newark and Jersey City, N.J.; Pittsburgh; St. Louis; Kansas City; Indianapolis; Gary, Ind.; Los Angeles; San Francisco; Milwaukee and Butte, Mont.

Woman in Denver Gets Kin's Kidney

DENVER (AP)—Mrs. Gerald B. Menkveld, 35, of Tucson, Ariz., received a kidney Monday in a transplant from her sister, Mrs. Martha Bestman, 41, of Grand Rapids, Mich.

The operation performed in Colorado General Hospital brought to 76 the number of such transplants. Of the recipients, 38 are living.

Mrs. Menkveld and Mrs. Bestman were reported in satisfactory condition.

Bert Lahr Hospitalized by Influenza Attack

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Bert Lahr is in Cedars of Lebanon Hospital with what hospital aides said was influenza. They said the 69-year - old comedian's condition was good.

He entered the hospital Sunday. Eddie Bracken replaced Lahr in a production of "Damn Yankees" at a theater in suburban Anaheim.

Pope Facing Rift at Vatican

Must Decide Soon on Intervention Request

VATICAN CITY (AP) —Pope Paul VI was faced today with deciding whether to intervene in the most critical struggle so far between progressives and conservatives in the Vatican Ecumenical Council.

Fifteen prominent cardinals asked the pontiff to act personally to prevent conservatives on top council commissions from sabotaging the desires of the council majority on key issues.

* * *

There was speculation that the Pope had invited the petition from the progressives.

The European, American and Latin American cardinals petitioned the Pope Sunday night after they met a review what they called "the gravest crisis" of the entire council.

EXPRESS FEAR

They expressed fear that the coordinating commission and the council presidency, largely staffed by conservative church administrators from the Vatican curia, plan to alter council action already taken on religious liberty, the Jews and the sharing of papal-episcopal power.

They also said "traditionalist elements" want to end the council quickly so as to leave undebated a schema on such modern world problems as overpopulation and birth control.

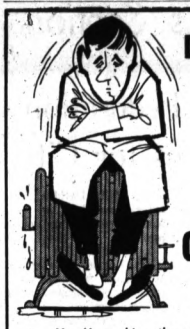

* * *

Pope John XIII had faced a basic progressive- conservative clash from the very first week of the council in 1962. Joseph Cardinal Frings of West Germany was one of the progressive leaders then who insisted that the 12 council commissions be filled by a vote of all 2,500 council members, rejecting a slate packed with conservatives that the council directorate tried to rush into office.

Campaigning in the Lake Angelus area can be a pleasure when you can walk the shaded roads.

Mrs. Walter High, Gallogly Road, starts on her rounds as the United Fund drive opens today.

Women Start UF Campaigning

Brought together for a common cause, the Pontiac Area United Fund, women volunteers from Pontiac, Auburn Heights and Pontiac Township, Lake Angelus, Waterford Village, Drayton Plains and Waterford Township, Clarkston and Independence Township, and most recently, Lake Orion and Orion Township will be contacting residences and small businesses in their respective areas in an attempt to raise $31,69.83 for the women's division campaign.

★ ★ ★

The volunteers in the Pontiac area will be attempting to reach a goal of $10,476.40. Those in the Waterford area will be trying for $10,473.93, and the volunteers in Independence Township, $4,018.58.

★ ★ ★

Lake Angelus women seek to raise $3,914 and those in Orion Township are striving for $2,815.92.

Area chairmen, district chairmen and solicitors hope to reach and possibly go over their goals in only a 10 day period. The drive ends Oct. 23.

Mrs. Merrill D. Petrie is women's campaign committee chairman. Directly assisting her are Mrs. David Saks for Pontiac, Mrs. Adrian Ish for Waterford, Mrs. James Cowen for Independence, Mrs. Floyd H. Foren for Lake Angelus, and Mrs. Martin B. Parker for Lake Orion.

Husbands and sons pitch in to help when the lady of the house goes campaigning for the Pontiac Area United Fund. Mrs. John Mil-leur, Independence district No. 6 chairman living on Frankwill Street, shows her appreciation with a kiss as son Charles carefully wipes a cup.

Knows Cost of Everything, but the 'Value' of Nothing

DEAR ABBY: My husband is a very good provider, but he has made money his god. He thinks he can do no wrong as long as he isn't taking the bread out of his family's mouth.

ABBY

I caught him with another woman, and he said, "So what? I've never spent a dollar on her. She pays for everything!"

When he drinks, he thinks it is all right because he has an expense account and can drink on company money.

He has never denied me anything I wanted, I will say that for him.

But I wish I could get it through his head that I would rather have more of HIM and less of his money.

BIG SHOT'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Since he has never denied you anything, ask him for one more personal favor.

Ask him to lay out $25 an hour for a psychiatrist's explanation of why he thinks a fat bank account buys him immunity from decent behavior.

In this way his "god" could really help him.

———

DEAR ABBY: When a fellow asks a girl for a date, is it all right for the girl to ask him where they are going?

Also when a girl and her date go to different schools and their schools play each other in basketball or football, whose side do they sit on?

Please put your answers in the paper as I am having a big argument with somebody over the answers.

O. O.

DEAR O. O.: Yes, it is proper for a girl to ask the boy where they are going.

How else would she know whether to dress for a movie or a wiener roast?

They sit on the boy's side. He's the host — unless, of course, she has come up with the tickets.

———

DEAR ABBY: How can you tell someone that he eats like it is his last meal on earth?

Abby, I am so embarrassed when we have company, or when we are invited to someone's house for a meal.

★ ★ ★

The noise that is made by that man when he is chewing and swallowing is just terrible.

He sounds like an animal. I can't tell him because he is my father.

EMBARRASSED

★ ★ ★

DEAR EMBARRASSED: You are right. You can't. But your mother can.

Why don't you tell her to tell him? It is a perfectly legitimate complaint.

Set YW Open House

The Beaudette home on the corner of West Huron Street and Franklin Boulevard will be opened to YWCA members and other interested Pontiac residents Wednesday at 2:30 p.m.

The Pontiac YWCA which hopes to buy the house for its new quarters is sponsoring the event.

Mrs. Donald Porritt, membership chairman, and Miss Alice Serrell, campaign chairman, along with YW officers, will conduct a tour of the four floors of usable space in the mansion.

Tom Aston, director of theater at Oakland University, and a group of students will present a program of folk songs.

Refreshments will be served in the Y's present building.

Honeymoon in the North Follows Rite

The Thomas Clark Davises (Betty Lynn Hamelback) left for a northern trip after their recent vows and reception in St. Paul's Methodist Church, Rochester.

Rev. Douglas Parker used a ring worn by the bride's late grandmother, Mrs. C. J. Jones, in the evening ceremony.

White silk bombazine and Chantilly lace fashioned a bouffant gown and Watteau train for the daughter of the Greig Hamelbacks of Mt. Vernon Road, Washington Township.

White orchids and Stephanotis rested on her grandmother's white Bible and a Swedish tiara held the bridal veil of illusion.

With Dianne Schell, honor maid, were bridesmaids Mrs. Tom Powell, Linda Jones, Mrs. Richard Bearss and Michelle Matthews, junior maid.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Morse of Rochester, had Richard Bearss for best man. Ushers were Tom Powell, Robert Newton and Lee Smith.

Name Pair Chairmen for LBJ

Mrs. William T. Gossett of Birmingham and Mrs. Ben Mills of Bloomfield Hills will serve as cochairmen of the "Women For Johnson" of Oakland County.

★ ★ ★

As a daughter of Charles Evans Hughes, (Republican presidential nominee in 1916, U.S. Secretary of State, 1921-25; and Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, 1930-41), Elizabeth Hughes Gossett is well acquainted with political activities.

Mrs. Ben Mills, wife of a Ford vice president, has spent much time working for the Merrill Palmer Institute and Camp Oakland.

Officers for the "Women for Johnson" are at 144 West Maple, Birmingham in the Quarton Building.

MRS. H. WILTFANG JR.

Margaret Brewer Weds Henry J. Wiltfang Jr.

The Drayton Plains United Presbyterian Church was the setting for the recent marriage of Margaret Ann Brewer to Henry J. Wiltfang Jr.

PARENTS OF COUPLE

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Elbertine Brewer of Flemings Lake Road, Independence Township, Dillard Brewer of Flint, and the Henry J. Wiltfangs of Midland Street.

Sequined English lace combined with tiered white silk organza over taffeta fashioned a bouffant gown and train for the bride whose illusion veil was fingertip length.

* * *

Red roses centered her bouquet of white carnations and cascading Stephanotis.

With maid of honor, Mrs. Thomas Cox, were bridesmaids Faye Bolyea, Pauline Brewer and Linda Wiltfang. Sharon Brewer and Billy Wiltfang were flower girl and ring-bearer.

ESQUIRE SIDE

On the esquire side were Thomas Cox, best man, and ushers Robert Brewer, Charles Blandy and Walter Forbes.

Artists Plan Autumn Show

Plans were completed for a juried art show and artists market to be held Nov. 5, 6, and 7 in the Pontiac City Library at a Friday meeting of the Pontiac Society of Artists.

Following the business session Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Simper conducted the program in which their oil and water color paintings were displayed and discussed.

Five of Mr. Simpers paintings are part of the permanent collection in the Detroit Art Museum and his work has been consistently accepted in the Michigan Artists Show over the past 20 years.

Family Growing

A son, David Francis, was born Oct. 7 to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Swanson of Utica. Grandparents are the Frank Trudells of Marlborough Drive and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Swanson, Exmoore Street.

Carol Hefferon Dons Empire Bridal Dress

A nuptial high Mass Saturday in St. Vincent de Paul Church marked the vows of Carol Ann Hefferon and Joseph Ramirez.

An Empire gown of white brocade for the daughter of the Vincent C. Hefferons of Lakeview Street featured sculptured sleeves and a Watteau panel falling from a Dior bow.

* * *

Her bubble veil fell from a rose headpiece. Stephanotis with white and yellow roses topped her lace-covered prayer-book.

* * *

Mrs. Jesse Ramirez Jr. attended the bride as honor matron and Mrs. Alfred Martin was bridesmaid.

BROTHER SERVED

The bridegroom asked his brother Jesse to be best man. They are the sons of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Ramirez. Alfred Martin ushered.

A midafternoon luncheon at Sharpe's followed the rite performed by Rev. Thomas E. McGrath. The evening reception was held in the LaBarge home on Cottage Street.

* * *

The couple will be at home on North Perry Street.

The George Hoffmans of Newman Road, Orion Township, announce the engagement of their daughter, Judy Ann to Bo H. Lee of Cottage Street. A June wedding is planned.

Gardeners Go Oriental for Party

Plans for the annual card party of the Sylvan Manor branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association were finalized at a Thursday meeting of the group.

* * *

Mrs. Albert Hulsman is chairman of the affair, scheduled for Oct. 22 in the First Federal Savings of Oakland civic room.

* * *

Speaker on Japanese floral arrangements will be Mrs. Glenn Bedell. The Japanese theme will be carried throughout with all committee chairmen coordinating their activities.

TO USE FIGURINES

Table prizes have been prepared by the members with an assist by two guests, Mrs. Ted Carlson and Mrs. Victor Sutt, who have done all the glazing and firing of Japanese figurines to be used in the arrangements.

Mrs. Wayne Felbarth is ticket chairman.

* * *

Mrs. Russell Baffett opened her home on St. Joseph Road for Thursday's meeting with Mrs. Felbarth assisting.

Workers Feted at Luncheon

A combined kickoff-training luncheon meeting held Monday at Pine Knob officially opened the Independence Township women's division campaign of the 1964 Pontiac Area United Fund drive.

* * *

Mrs. James Cowen, Independence chairman, launched the event before 145 volunteer workers and announced a total goal for the women's division of $4,018.58. With a goal of $967 set for the business teams, she reported that already 124 per cent of that has been collected.

* * *

Presenting the program for the kickoff event were Bruce J. Annett, general campaign chairman; Mrs. Merrill D. Petrie, women's campaign committee chairman; Donald J. Frey, executive director of the Pontiac Area United Fund; Mrs. Robert C. Anderson, women's division speaker's bureau chairman, and Virginia Loveland, women's division director.

* * *

Women who will be assisting Mrs. Cowen in the campaign and in attendance at the event were Mrs. Richard Johnston and Mrs. Harry Horsch, Area I; Mrs. Philip Stomberg, Area II; Mrs. Glenn C. Benor, Area III, and Mrs. James Hart, women's business chairman.

* * *

They will be working with 33 district chairmen and some 125 silicitors, all of whom will be making reports on Oct. 16, 21, 23 and 26. The drive officially ends Oct. 23 and a Victory luncheon, slated for Oct. 28, will be held at the Elks Temple in Pontiac.

* * *

Sponsors of the luncheon were Clarkston Jaycees, Clarkston State Bank, Clarkston Rotary Club and Pine Knob resort. Assisting was Waterford Hill Greenhouse.

Pontiac Press Photo

With a hand like this Mrs. Roy D. Hecox (right) of Thorpe Street should win at just about any card game. Her opponent is Mrs. Earle V. Hoskins of Ogemaw Road, general chairman of the luncheon, card party, and fashion show to be sponsored Friday at Devon Gables by the Pontiac Woman's Club. Other chairmen are Mrs. E. M. Rose, Mrs. H. T. Rombough, Mrs. H. M. Anderson, Mrs. F. A. Parks, Mrs. Hecox, Mrs. Henry Simpson, Mrs. Royal Pazik and Mrs. F. M. White.

Now Touring Michigan

United in Catholic Rite

Touring Upper Michigan on their honeymoon are the Richard Harold Pattersons (Valerie Ann Blair) who were wed recently in St. William's Catholic Church, Walled Lake.

BRIDAL GOWN

Seed pearls accented a gown and train of white peau de soie and Chantilly lace for the daughter of the Thomas M. Blairs of Brisbane Road, Commerce Township. A matching circlet secured her French illusion veil.

Covering her white prayerbook were white orchids, ivy and Stephanotis.

* * *

With honor maid, Viola Benyo, were bridesmaids, Nancy Schooltz and Linda Board. Patricia Vasko and Beverly Blair were junior attendants.

Robert Patterson assisted his brother as best man. They are the sons of the Harold Pattersons of Berkley.

Ushering at the five o'clock ceremony performed by Rev. Raphael Dakoske were Thomas L. and Robert Blair; Richard Martin, Berkley; and James Davy.

Some 250 guests attended the reception in Roma Hall.

MRS. R. H. PATTERSON

Beta Chi Unit Has Tea and Pledging

Beta Chi chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority held its annual tea Sunday in the Schoolhouse Drive home of Mrs. James Vincent.

* * *

The candlelight pledge pin ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Lafrence Hartman, ESA Michigan state president.

* * *

Pledge pins were received by Mrs. Joseph Orosey Jr., Mrs. Dorsey Underwood, Mrs. Jerry Donaldson and Mrs. Robert Bolt.

* * *

Mrs. Lacey Schiefler gave a short history of the aims and purposes of the sorority.

Mrs. Hartman and Mrs. Leulla Ervin, one of the chapter sponsors, presided at the tea table.

Local Women in Garden Show

Mrs. Wallace M. Morgan of Oneida Road and Mrs. Chester Dlugoszewski of Morningside Drive and Mrs. James Sweeney of Cimarron Street, Bloomfield Township, will take an active part in the Federated Garden club show Wednesday through Friday.

* * *

They will be exhibitors or hostesses in this 10th annual table setting and flower arrangement exhibition.

The exhibit, which is open from 9:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. daily, is under the sponsorship of Charles W. Warren and Company in Warren's Detroit Galleries on Washington Boulevard.

Area Couple Is Married

Mrs. Anne Robinson of Genella Street and Roy Spencer were married in a recent ceremony in the Oakland Avenue Presbyterian Church.

* * *

Attending the couple at the ceremony performed by Rev. Theodore Allebach were the bride's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Robinson.

Arts Institute to Show Film of Exploration

One of the world's greatest stories of exploration will be shown in The Detroit Institute of Arts auditorium Saturday at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

"Scott's Journey" documents the voyage to the South Pole of Captain Robert F. Scott and four companions during 1910-12.

Their ship brought the explorers to a barren, unknown continent of snow and ice, where the clear, cold air permitted photography of extraordinary clarity with the photographic equipment of the period.

* * *

This British documentary was chosen for the "Great Stories in Film" series by the museum's Theatre Arts Department because of its appeal to young people.

These films are open to the public without charge.

Sisterhood Has Guests

Guests from four states attended the opening meeting of chapter CL, PEO Sisterhood Monday afternoon. Mrs. H. M. O'Toole was hostess in her Pontiac Lake Road home, assisted by Mrs. Charles Matson.

Mrs. Nelda Sink Guhse, Wantagh, New York, and Mrs. L. V. Ostrander, Longwood, Fla., former members of the chapter, were present. Other guests were Mrs. W. A. McHenry, Nelson, Neb. and Mrs. H. W. Coddington, Moline, Ill.

Give Shower for Dona

Dona Jeanne Sharette was honored Saturday at a bridal shower in the home of Mrs. Donald Viau on Hilberg Road, Oxford Township. Cohostesses were Mrs. Albert Weckle and Mrs. Jesse Bradburn.

* * *

Parents of the Nov. 20 bride-elect are the Donald J. Sharettes of Liberty Street. Her fiance, Paul Edward Liford, is the son of Albert Liford of Tazewell, Tenn.

The Buford D. Harts of Scott Lake Road announce the engagement of their daughter, Carol Marie to F. Monty Lyon, son of the Albert Lyons of Sandybeach Drive. She is a senior at Eastern Michigan University.

Needlework Kit

Two Pillow Designs

By DORCHEN COLLINS

Crewel embroidery is enjoying a well earned revival, and no wonder. It's an easy way to create rich, colorful designs in double-quick time. The big, bold stitching goes amazingly fast.

Used on pillows, the most highly desired single decorative accessory, it gives you a lot of effect for little effort and money. The two pillows pictured here are particularly pleasing.

Of the two Kit 25A is traditional. It features a bold floral design stamped on ecru imported linen. It is to be embroidered with wool yarn in shades of gold, blue, brown and green with decorative style-conscious green cording for welting.

TWO DESIGNS

The second design, Kit 26A, to contemporary. Its delightful mushrooms are stamped on imported ecru linen. Wool yarns are used in shades of gold, brown, blue, red and green. Selfwelting provides it with a neat edging.

Each pillow is a generous 14-inch square with a 2-inch boxing. Kits include zippers for easy removal. (Pillow forms are not included.)

★ ★ ★

Why not think about these for Christmas giving, for they would make possible, impressive gifts at a nominal cost. They are remarkable values at $3.99 each.

To obtain needlework kits No. 25A and No. 26A fill out coupon below and send it with check or money order for each kit desired to Needlework Kit Service at address given.

Brushes and Bows

Cotton velveteen bows add a feminine touch to the handles of new bath brushes, which are made of lucite and come in an assortment of bright colors.

MRS. D. E. HOPKINS

Lutheran Rite Unites Couple From the Area

Mrs. Gail Barr Kassis of Allendale Road, West Bloomfield Township, and William G. Laflure of Hartung Court, were wed recently in St. Mark's Lutheran Church on Commerce Road.

★ ★ ★

Their parents are the Broox M. Barrs of Greer Road, West Bloomfield Township and the Gerald Laflures of Midland.

Attending the couple at the ceremony performed by Rev. William Grafe were Mrs. Russell Thayer and Gerry R. Wright.

★ ★ ★

After a reception in the Barr home, the couple left for a brief wedding-trip to Midland.

Get Hang of It

Take care in putting away your summer clothes, especially suits. Avoid misshapen coats next spring by hanging them on wooden or suit hangers.

Make Wall Safer

To avoid unsightly marks on wallpaper or walls caused by chairs and toys rubbing against them, paste a piece of felt on the backs of chairs, and along the sides of wagons and baby buggies.

Sports-Minded Fur

Sports minded furs for campus wear include calfskins — in black, palomino, and natural shades.

★ ★ ★

They are smartly styled in current campus favorite battle jackets, three - quarter length coats and walking wear jackets.

Japan Aids Pakistan for $108-Million Total

RAWALPINDI, Pakistan (AP) — Japanese financial aid to Pakistan has reached $108 million in the past decade, according to newly released government figures.

Japanese aid included $75 million in development loans and a $33 million credit for textile machinery.

Others Mostly Steady

'Hot' Issues Hike Mart Level

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market nudged irregularly higher early this afternoon in moderately active trading.

Most of the excitement was over recent speculative favorities while the market wheelhorses showed minor changes for the most part.

* * *

A slightly higher trend prevailed among airlines, aerospace issues, rails and chemicals.

Polaroid's 4-for-1 split proposal was the sensation of the day. The stock surged ahead more than 5 points, then clipped back its gain to about 3. The company also raised its dividend.

STEELS LOWER

Steels were a little lower on balance and motors were scrambled as the General Motors strike dragged on.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .3 at 329.6, a little above its record closing high of yesterday. Industrials rose .4, rails .2 and utilities .2.

* * *

GM was off a fraction and American Motors eased. Ford was unchanged. Chrysler and Studebaker were firm.

Among speculative issues, Erie-Lackawanna, yesterday's second most active stock, was up a full point, making another new high.

AMERICAN EXCHANGE

Prices rose in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange. Salem-Brosius was heavily traded again and rose more than a point.

Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. Government bonds were steady in light dealings over the counter.

Board Concerned About 2 Intersections

To Check Accident Areas in Waterford

Waterford Township Board members last night asked for a reevaluation of traffic engineering at the two highest accident intersections in the township.

★ ★ ★

At the suggestion of Trustee Loren Anderson, the board will petition the Oakland County Road Commission to study the possibility of an improved signal system at Cass Lake and Elizabeth Lake roads.

It also will seek the State Highway Department's cooperation in placing a more effective signal at Telegraph and Dixie.

Anderson called the traffic signals at both intersections ineffective.

He said that positive action must be taken if the growing number of accidents in the township is to be curbed and insurance rates kept from rising further.

TOP ACCIDENT AREA

The Cass Lake - Elizabeth Lake intersection has been the the township's top accident area and the Dixie-Telegraph intersection rates second.

In other business last night, board members unanimously rejected a proposal for the sale of liquor in the concourse of Airway Lanes.

The board previously had rejected similar requests from four other bowling establishments.

★ ★ ★

Also last night the board rezoned a 6-lot parcel on Sashabaw and Seeden from commercial and single residential to multiple dwelling.

APARTMENT PLANNED

A one-story apartment building is planned for the site.

In other action the board approved the preliminary plan for the 124-lot Lake Angelus Lakeview Estates subdivision. The development is located north of Morgan Lake.

The board gave final approval to the 25-lot Westridge No. 3 subdivision near Our Lady of the Lakes Church.

In other business the board opened five bids for a car for the Water department and referred them to the clerk for study and a report at next Monday's meeting.

Also last night, the first notice of proposed rezoning from Commercial 1 to Commercial 2 was read for a parcel on Elizabeth Lake Road near Cooley Lake Road. A plumbing business is planned on the site.

Action on the rezoning will be taken by the board next Monday.

Seek to Uphold '61 Convictions

Dixie Lawyers Testify in Rights Appeals

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Attorneys for the states of Alabama and Mississippi argued before the Supreme Court today to uphold convictions that could put several civil rights leaders behind bars.

The Alabama attorneys were defending the convictions of 11 persons, including four top aides of the Rev. Martin Luther King, for sitting at a traditionally all-white lunch counter in a Montgomery bus terminal during the 1961 "freedom rider" campaign.

Mississippi was asking the high court to uphold the conviction and six - month sentence given Aaron Henry, state president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), on a morals charge.

Louis. H. Pollak, attorney for the Alabama defendants, opened his presentation yesterday.

★ ★ ★

He told of how they were arrested after being accompanied to the terminal by National Guard troops.

IMPLIED DUTY

Justice Potter Stewart asked if, under the circumstances, they had an "implied duty to conform with the request of the military."

Pollak said they were arrested without being asked to leave the lunch counter.

Justice Arthur Goldberg commented that, had there been such a request, "this would have been a different case."

Urges Plan to Aid Victims of Uninsured

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — Michigan needs a program to protect traffic accident victims against uninsured motorists, Secretary of State James Hare said Monday.

Devising a workable program, though, is a complex problem, Hare told a regional safety conference.

★ ★ ★

Four states have unsatisfied judgment funds, Hare said, but the only successful one is in New Jersey, where uninsured motorists are charged a $15 fee a year.

"Here in Michigan," he said, "the motorist has an option when buying his insurance of paying $3 or $4 and getting an uninsured motorists protection rider."

MANDATORY PROGRAMS

Hare said 14 states have set up mandatory programs, some based on protection from private companies.

Another serious problem, Hare said, is insurance companies going out of business.

A law which went into effect Aug. 28, he said, permits the secretary of state to lift suspensions imposed against motorists as a result of unsatisfied judgments in cases where the judgment was not satisfied because an insurance company became insolvent.

Responsibilities of West Cited

Color Seen as Key Issue in World Split

By PHIL NEWSOM

UPI Foreign News Analyst

WISTON HOUSE, Sussex, England—In the unlikely setting of a country manor house in the rolling hills of Sussex, now yellow-green in the early fall, two Asians and two Africans discussed whether the color of men's skins eventually would divide the world.

The question arose because Red China has launched just such a campaign now that it split with the Soviet Union has shed the trappings of an ideological dispute and emerged as an open struggle for world power.

NEWSOM

It should be emphasized that this was not soap box oratory but rather a discussion among men whose positions in government or elsewhere made it possible for them both to assess or mould public opinion within their own countries.

Among the four from Nigeria, Uganda, Pakistan and Malaysia there was agreement that in a simple choice of communism, the Chinese stood the better chance of success among colored nations.

★ ★

In the Nigerial view, color ranked above communism as a world problem.

DON'T KNOW

"There is no use even tying it to communism," he said, "because many don't even know what communism is."

And he asked bluntly: "If Red China is a threat, what is the West going to do?"

The discussion ranged beyond color. For, while it is a fact that most of the new nations are brown, yellow or black, their frustrations arise from a belief that the wealthy Western nations exploit them for their raw materials, and their own impatience to bridge a gap of centuries in their industrial development.

And this Red China seeks to exploit.

The discussion arose as part of the Wilton Park Conferences held on this ancient estate whose land titles go back to William the Conqueror.

The objective of the conferences, sponsored by the British Foreign Office with some outside support from the Ford Foundation, is greater understanding of world events.

ACCEPT CHARGE

Rightly or wrongly, the underdeveloped nations have accepted wholeheartedly the Soviet charge that GATT, the General Agreement on Tariff and Trade, is a rich man's club.

Said the Uganda speaker, "The rich get richer and the poor get poorer. It was not exactly a new concept but it was echoed in more concrete terms by the Pakistani.

The fall in the price of raw materials, he maintained, has cost the underdeveloped nations more than all they have received in loans and that, unless world raw material prices are stabilized, "You will have Cubas all over the place."

★ ★ ★

The Africans saw little danger in the world population explosion but exhibited a dreamlike quality in how their own peoples should be fed.

It is this attitude which refuses to accept step-by-step developments and which leads them to demand industry and mechanization before being able to manage the tools.

But there is nothing dreamlike in the implicit threat that if communism takes over the new nations, it will be because the West failed to meet what they believe is its responsibilities.

New Chorus Chief Is Clarkston Man

Rawley Hallman, 6101 Ortonville, Clarkston — well-known in state barber-shop quartet singing circles — has been named director of the Pontiac Revelaires chorus.

A pharmacist, Hallman has been a member of the Pontiac chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Inc., for 23 years.

★ ★ ★

He directed the local chapter chorus in 1961 and was leader of the Milford chorus this past summer. Hallman also is a member of the Resonaires quartet.

The Pontiac chapter is currently preparing for its annual Parade of Harmony which is scheduled in January at Pontiac Northern High School.

Hearing on Wolverine Lake

A report on a report will top the agenda tomorrow night at a public hearing on the proposed rehabilitation of Wolverine Lake.

★ ★ ★

In charge of the hearing, which will begin at 7:30 at the Courthouse Auditorium, will be Oakland County Drain Commissioner Daniel W. Barry.

Attending will be othe county drain committee, members of the Wolverine Lake Rehabilitation Association and representatives of the two engineering firms which have made studies of the lake.

Like most uncontrolled lakes in Oakland County, the 272-acre Commerce Township lake is suffering from lack of water. Its shoreline has receded several feet and its average depth, according to engineers, is around 3½ feet.

★ ★ ★

At the request of lakeside property owners, the drain commission ordered an engineering study of the lake early in 1963 to determine the feasibility of dredging it.

RULES ON FEASIBILITY

The engineers, Hubbell, Roth & Clark, Inc., of Birmingham, reported that the project would cost $995,000 and dry the lake up completely before it was one-quarter finished.

Commissioner Barry then ruled that the project was economically unfeasible.

The report was immediately challenged by Dr. John R. Snell, president of a Lansing engineering firm which engineered a similar project on Long Lake in Commerce Township.

★ ★ ★

In June of this year, Snell's firm presented a report to the association which estimated the cost of dredging some six feet of muck from the lake at $530,000.

SNELL REPORT

The Snell report was then delivered to Commissioner Barry, who turned it over to Hubbell, Roth & Clark for study.

The Birmingham engineering firm will present its conclusions on the Snell report at tomorrow night's hearing.

Thus far the drain commission has acted only in an advisory capacity in the matter.

The Wolverine Lake Village Council put up $1,800 for the first report. The association financed the Snell report at a cost of $2,500.

Crews Start Cleanup of Train Wreck

MORAN, Kan. (AP) — Workmen faced a massive cleanup job today at the scene of a flame-swept train wreck near Moran.

Sixty-four cars of a 119-car Katy freight train left the tracks Monday and most of them caught fire.

★ ★ ★

Six of seven tank cars carrying liquefied petroleum gas blew up. Fragments of the shattered cars were hurled around.

There were no injuries in the wreck, but three men standing more than 200 yards away suffered minor flash burns. The paint was seared off an automobile parked more than 100 yards from the wreckage. Ten acres of grass burned.

The freight was en route from Parsons, Kan., to Kansas City.

Cause of the wreck, which tore up a mile of main line track, was undetermined.

Police Probing Break-In Series in City and Area

Sheriff's deputies and Pontiac Police are investigating a series of break-ins which occurred early this morning in the city and Avon and Pontiac Townships.

Three service stations, a beauty shop and a dairy bar, all located either on or near Auburn road, were broken into.

The service stations were located at 3010 Auburn, 991 Auburn, and 201 N. Paddock. The beauty shop and dairy bar adjoin one another at 3455 Auburn.

In at least four cases the thieves broke a window to gain entry. A minor fire was also started in one service station.

★ ★ ★

First reports indicate that the thieves stole very little, if any, during the five break-ins. A 1964 convertible is missing from one station, however.

Would you make these 5 common mistakes in investing?

Mistake #1: Shoot for the moon. The down-to-earth investor takes a practical view of what he hopes his investment will achieve. His goal may be a second income or growth in the value of his stock as the years fly by. Perhaps he invests for the protection of principal and relative stability of income that bonds often offer. One of the most important first steps you can take is to fix your goal clearly in mind.

Mistake #2: Invest every cent you can lay your hands on. A wise investment program can brighten your financial future, but of course first things come first. Today's living expenses and a reserve for emergencies have first call on your money. Generally speaking, it's a good rule to consider investing only funds that you don't expect to need in the near future.

Mistake #3: Put your money on a "can't miss" stock. There's no such thing. It's true that many stocks have grown in value over the years, and more than 500 stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange have paid cash dividends for 25 years or more. But it's a wise investor who considers that stock prices change, for many reasons. Dividends can change, and at times companies may even stop paying them. That's why your cool evaluation of both the risks and rewards can be so important.

Mistake #4: Leap before you look. If you've worked up a good head of steam about a stock, ease up. Before you invest your money, invest your time in getting facts. One good place to look for information is in a Member Firm of the New York Stock Exchange. Ask about a company's earnings, dividends, plans that it has announced—and for an opinion about its competitive position and its prospects. Then see what you think. Facts and judgment are the best cure for a heady urge to plunge.

Mistake #5: Tell yourself any brokerage firm will do. The fact is, you should give thoughtful consideration to your selection. Make sure you feel comfortable with the firm and have confidence in it. Member Firms of the New York Stock Exchange have their own characteristics but all are expected to follow Exchange regulations. And Registered Representatives had to meet Exchange requirements for knowledge of their business when they became brokers in Member Firms. They're not infallible. Who is? But they can help you reach important investment decisions and will welcome you.

N.C. Residents Refuse to Retreat Before Neuse River Until Last Moment

KINSTON, N.C. (AP) — The retreat before the flooding Neuse River has been slow and painful and only the sight of silt-laden water seeping through the floorboards has driven some persons to higher ground.

"Some of these people have stayed until the water runs into their homes through the floor," said Kinston Civil Defense Director Lloyd Barnett. "I wouldn't want to publicize the word stubborn. They just want to wait as long as they can."

The Neuse already has forced 2,800 persons from their homes, and damage has been estimated at more than $10 million.

Barnett said early today that the river had reached 23 feet at Kinston, nine feet over bankfull, and coulr rise another inch.

About 1,600 persons have been evacuated in Kinston and other parts of Lenoir County. Upstream, in Wayne County, where the crest has passed, about 800 of the 2,000 driven from their homes have been able to return.

Barnett, who cruised the flooded area in an amphibious jeep, said he reasoned and pleaded unsuccessfully with some flood victims.

* * *

"We insisted that they leave and tried to show them it would be safer and more profitable if they leave," he said, "but if they insisted on staying, there was nothing we could do but leave them."

"One man was a bedridden invalid," he recalled. "I tried to get him to leave, but he wouldn't. The next time I went back, the water was running through his house. That time he was gone."

National Guard Sgt. Charles Fowler, who took part in rescue operations said, "We ran across a couple of people with water up to their porch. They said as long as they could find a dry board to stand on they were going to stay."

Flooding of the usually peaceful Neuse was not sudden. Swollen by torrential rains early last week, it has been inching over its banks for a week.

'Alter Policy in Viet or Be Kicked Out'

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon claims that if the United States "doesn't get a new policy in Viet Nam, we will be kicked out in less than a year."

"We'll lose all of Southeast Asia in three years and we'll end up in a major war to defend the Phillipines," Nixon said yesterday.

He said that throughout the world the United States had been "blackmailed, pushed and kicked" by the Communists for the past four years.

"This is the kind of softness and weakness that can lead to war," he warned.

* * *

In a news conference here, the former vice president charged that President Johnson had not recommended "one single program" to change the tide of fighting in Viet Nam.

STAND FIRM

"If we just stand firm and take no risk as the Johnson administration is doing — then we will let Viet Nam go down the drain and we will end up fighting the third world war when the Communists take over all of Asia."

Earlier in the day, however, Nixon told newsmen in San Francisco he expected that regardless of who wins the election next month, U.S. policy in Viet Nam would change drastically.

* * *

The former vice president's comments came during a one-day California trip in support of Republican senatorial candidate George Murphy. Murphy is opposed by former White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger, now the Democratic senator from California.

Clock Collector Praises Budman Workmanship

Morley Witmer, shown above with Mrs. Witmer, is an antique clock collector. He is a member of the National Clock and Watch Collector's Association. He spent hours repairing and restoring old time pieces and his home at 9461 McKinney, Detroit is literally dedicated to "time". But when it comes to sash for his home — Mr. Witmer goes modern — he likes Budman all-new combination storm and aluminum windows and doors. He says, "I appreciate the precision workmanship and maintenance-free aluminum that go into making these products. Heavens knows, my clocks take up all my spare time. I wouldn't want to go back to painting wood sash and climbing ladders to change storms to screens again."

Leave it to coach Buddy Parker to do the impossible.

The 23-7 victory by the Pittsburgh Steelers over the Cleveland Browns before 80,000 fans in Cleveland was called the "shock" of the year in the NFL.

★ ★ ★

Officials and coaches of the Lions and Vikings in Minnesota over the weekend expressed disbelief when they heard the score last Saturday night, but many people in the NFL also feel that the Browns are at the start of a serious morale problem.

The Steelers are not such a bad ball club that beating the Browns should come as such a shock. But the Pittsburgh club under Parker went into the game with only one healthy linebacker, Bill Saul.

MAKESHIFT DEFENSE

As result, Parker used five defensive linemen, Saul, and five defensive backs to stop the Browns, and with John Henry Johnson having one of the most fantastic running days of his career, the Steelers walloped the Clevelanders from start to finish.

Now, the morale problem that is causing concern in Cleveland involves none other than Jimmy Brown, the recent author of several publication articles endorsing the Black Muslims.

"All those stories about and by Brown are going to wreck that ball club," said one person in NFL ranks, "and if Collier (Cleveland coach) wants to save the team, he would get rid of him right now."

In one part among Brown's printed statements, he claims there are at least 20 players in the NFL associated with the extremist Muslims.

Several members of the Lions scoffed at this. "He doesn't know what he is saying, he's just making rash statements," they said.

It certainly is a shame that a player like Brown, one of the greatest names in pro football and in sports, should allow himself to be put in such a dissentious position.

DITTOS FROM THE PRESS BOX

The Lions were more elated after winning the Viking game Sunday than after any other game this season.

The over-all health of the ball club is better than it has been at any time in the past three years, the morale is up, and they now have the confidence that they can really win it this year.

★ ★ ★

The next two weeks the Lions meet the Bears and the Colts, a pair of teams that whipped them in a total of four games last year, and next Sunday can't come around soon enough for some of them waiting to get even for 1963.

Sam Williams, who has forgotten his rift with the club, is now playing the best football of his career.

"If I don't get to Tarkenton at least five times, I'll take you to lunch," Williams said to us last week. We agreed to be luncheon host if he did throw Tarkenton at least five times.

Well, tomorrow Sam is the luncheon guest of this writer.

Very few teams have been able to catch Tarkenton five times in his own backfield, let alone one defensive player, but Williams and Roger Brown both did it five times Sunday.

★ ★ ★

Altogether Tarkenton and two Viking backs were pinned in their own backfield 17 times with the rest of the defensive unit enjoying themselves in the same manner.

Next week in Chicago, Billy Wade will be the target that may help the luncheon appetite of some defensive Lion, and the following week the great Johnny Unitas will be in Detroit.

That game, incidentally, may break that record crowd of 59,203 who witnessed the Monday night contest with the Packers couple weeks ago.

The Colt-Lions games have always produced more thrills than any series of Detroit opponents in the last 10 years.

But as coach Wilson says, "let's take them one at a time," even though it's so easy to peek ahead.

Redbirds Take 3-2 Game Lead

Odds Now Change in Favor of St. Louis

ST. LOUIS (AP) — For the first time since the start of hostilities, the St. Louis Cardinals found themselves World Series favorites over the New York Yankees today.

Odds-makers made the high-flying Redbirds a strong 2-1 choice following their 5-2 triumph Monday that gave them a 3-2 edge in the best-of-seven Series.

★ ★ ★

Everything appears to be stacked in favor of the Cards. First, they will be back home for the sixth game Wednesday after taking two out of three in New York.

Second, their pitching, thanks to today's respite because of travel, is in tip-top shape with veteran Curt Simmons primed for his return engagement with young Jim Bouton of the Yankees.

Third, Cardinal Manager Johnny Keane thinks there is a strong possibility that Julian Javier, the convalescing second baseman, will be ready to make his first start.

Finally, the Cards have won all four full-length World Series in which they have participated. They defeated the Yankees in seven games in 1926, the Philadelphia Athletics in 1931, the Detroit Tigers in 1934 and the Boston Red Sox in 1946.

★ ★ ★

Should the Cardinals lose the sixth game, they will still have the home edge in the finale with ace Bob Gibson a strong possibility to make his third start in the Series. Whitey Ford, currently nursing a tender right heel, would be Gibson's probable opponent.

★ ★ ★

The closeness of the Series fails to tell by how wide a margin the Cardinals have outplayed the Yankees in the first five games. The Yankees hold a slight edge in over-all batting, but the Cards lead in everything else. They have outrun, outfielded, outpitched and outmaneuvered the Yankees.

Monday's game, won in 10 innings by the Cardinals on catcher Timmy McCarver's three-run homer, was a typical example. The Cardinals, except for shortstop Dick Groat's error in the ninth which paved the way for Tommy Tresh's game-tying homer, sparkled in the field.

FIELDING PROBLEM

In contrast, the Yankees' defensive play, as in the first four games, was sloppy and uncertain. New York was guilty of its sixth and seventh errors of the Series. An error by catcher Ellie Howard on an interference play helped the Cards fill the bases in the first inning, but young Mel Stottlemyre pitched his way out of the jam without any damage.

Stottlemyre was betrayed again in the fifth. This time he couldn't escape. After pitcher Bob Gibson had singled with one out, Curt Flood hit a double play ball directly at Bobby Richardson. The usually dependable second baseman bobbled the ball and all hands were safe. A single by Lou Brock and a force play, that would have been a double play were it not for shortstop Phil Linz' poor relay, resulted in a 2-0 Cardinal lead.

★ ★ ★

Gibson, beaten in the second game, had a shutout going into the ninth. But Groat bobbled Mickey Mantle's grounder and, after two out, one of which was Gibson's 12th strikeout, Tresh slammed his dramatic game-tying homer that sent the crowd of 65,633 into a frenzy.

Then came the stormy 10th in which the Yankees looked their worst. Pete Mikkelson, third Yankee pitcher, walked Bill White to open the inning. Ken Boyer ordered to sacrifice, bunted to the right of the mound. Mikkelsen neglected to field the ball and it went for a single.

MISSED ATTEMPT

The sacrifice play was still on with Groat at bat, but Dick missed the bunt attempt and White was trapped off second. Howard fired to the bag but White turned and dashed toward third, sliding in safely when Pedro Gonzalez failed to hang on to Phil Linz' low throw.

★ ★ ★

Groat failed to bring White home, bouncing out into a force play, but McCarver settled the issue with a 3-2 clout into the right field stands.

"I'd have to say things look better now," said Keane in what could be the understatement of the Series. "We go back to our own park with a game lead."

McCarver, who had also hit a home run in the Cardinals' pennant clincher last Sunday, acknowledged this one "was the biggest one of my life although all I wanted was a little single or a fly ball to the outfield."

"The homer will have a good effect on Timmy," said Keane. "And it probably will have something to do with my future."

★ ★ ★

Keane obviously was referring to his relations with the club's front office. He had been offered a new contract the last week of the season after speculations that he would be fired. He begged off discussing next year's pact until after the Series.

Despite the defeat, Yankee Manager Yogi Berra remained unperturbed, at least outwardly.

"We're not too badly off," said Yogi. "They still have to beat us.

"We've won two games in a row before in a Series. We were worse off back in 1958. Milwaukee had us beat three games to one. We won three from them just like that."

UP AND OVER — Lou Brock of the Cardinals slides under then stands up and flips Phil Linz over in an attempted double play at Yankee Stadium yesterday where the Cardinals took the World Series lead by one game, three games to two.

SPORTS

Baltimore Frolics

Colts Trample St. Louis

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore Colts demolished the St. Louis Cardinals, last undefeated team in the National Football League, 47-27, Monday night with its high octane running attack turned off voluntarily after an 80-yard touchdown run by Tom Matte.

Quarterback John Unitas, who threw one touchdown pass and ran for another six-pointer, turned the offense over to substitutes after Matte's romp with 14 minutes left in the last quarter. The Cards scored two touchdowns on the defensive reserves.

The fourth straight victory after an opening loss put the high stepping Colts back in sole possession of first place in the Western Conference.

DROPPED BACK

Their first setback dropped the Cardinals back to a first place tie with Cleveland in the Eastern standings. St. Louis and Cleveland tied in an earlier clash.

The Colts, who earlier swamped the Chicago Bears 52-0, scored the most points against the Cardinals since they moved from Chicago to St. Louis in 1960.

★ ★ ★

The new Colt blend of running with the passing of Unitas started like a house afire, running up a 20-0 lead the first four times Baltimore had the ball. The score rolled up to 47-13 before Coach Don Shula let subs on both offense and defense play out the contest before a Baltimore record capacity throng of 60,213.

When the Colt attack did sputter, Lou Michaels kicked four field goals, the shortest 35 yards.

SHORT SPURTS

Lenny Moore, Tony Lorick and Jerry Hill took turns slashing the Cardinals on the ground for two first period touchdowns. Moore finished off one drive on a five-yard spurt and Lorick burst 10 for another.

A 25-yard run on a fake field goal attempt by Bob Boyd set the Colts up for another touchdown in the second quarter. Unitas passed six yards to end Raymond Berry for the score.

The Cards got on the scoreboard with the help of a 40-yard pass interference penalty, giving them the ball on the Colt seven. John David Crow plunged a yard for the touchdown which left the Cards trailing 27-7 at the half.

They made a pass at a rally on two field goals by Jim Bakken early in the third quarter, but Unitas opened up his passing throttle a bit. After moving the Colts 60 yards quickly, Unitas ran the last six himself on a rollout.

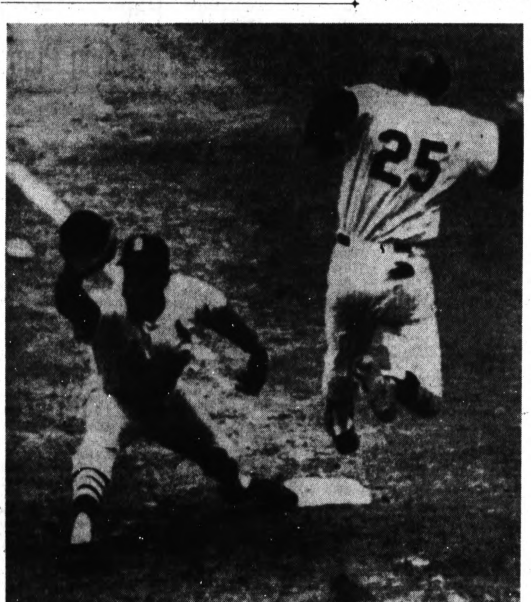

Michaels booted the score to 37-13 and Matte polished off the job with his long range dash on a draw play.

Unitas turned the ball loose only 17 times, completing eight for 117 yards. Johnson tried 30 pitches, hitting on 15 for 109.

CLOSE BUT OUT — First baseman Bill White of the St. Louis Cards waits for the ball coming at him while Joe Pepitone makes a high jump for the bag. Umpire Al Smith called Pepitone out. It was a very important play because Tom Tresh, the next man up hit a homer with Mickey Mantle aboard to tie the score 2-2 at the bottom of the ninth. The Cards won the game 5-3 in the top of the 10th.

Cards Hear 'Cow Bells'

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A cheering, cow bell ringing crowd of about 10,000 persons greeted a weary, grim looking team of St. Louis Cardinals Monday night on the Redbirds' victorious return from New York.

The Cardinals landed, fresh from a 5-2 victory over the New York Yankees which gave them a 3-2 edge in the World Series, right on time at 8:20 p.m., CDT.

The fans — chanting "we want McCarver, we want McCarver" — were held back by a tall woven wire fence behind which they crowded 10 deep. They carried signs and placards reading — Oh, You Cardinals, We Love You, and Go, Go, Go Cardinals.

ROARING FANS

As the Cardinals' jet touched down, the crowd roared.

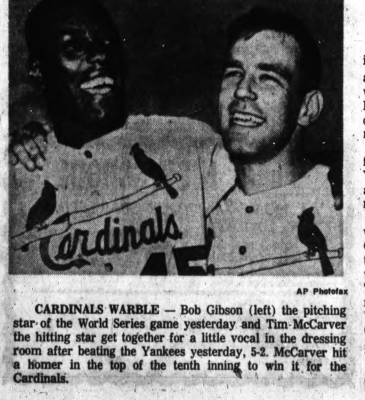

But, as the players and wives, led by Tim McCarver, the man who hit the 10th inning home run to give St. Louis the win Monday filed off the plane they looked weary and there were few smiles.

The team, led by Manager Johnny Keane marched to a platform where they were greeted by Acting St. Louis Mayor Donald Gunn and St. Louis County Supervisor Lawrence Roos.

"I can't tell how proud we are of you (Keane) and all the St. Louis Cardinals we are," Gunn said. "We welcome you home with the deepest affection."

The crowd screamed wildly and called for McCarver.

"We were very successful today," the bonus boy from Memphis, Tenn. said. "But the job is just half done."

GOLD MEDAL LIFT — Japanese featherweight Yshoinobu Miyake lifts the barbell to win Japan's first '64 Olympic gold medal. His combined lift of 874.5 pounds was a new Olympic record.

Rich Medal Harvest Target for Russians

TOKYO (AP) — The secret is out — the Russians are aiming for 110 medals at the Tokyo Olympics, seven more than they won and 39 more than the Americans won in Rome four years ago.

At least the secret was out briefly Monday morning. By Monday afternoon it was a deep dark secret again.

A billboard went up under the hammer and sickle flag over the Russian headquarters at the Olympic Village Monday morning, charting in Russian the Soviet Union's medal scores for the last three Olympics and their target for the 18th Olympiad.

SECRET NOTES

The billboard was removed Monday afternoon, after a Russian-speaking American reporter was seen jotting down the top secret statistics.

And a Russian spokesman, asked about the missing billboard, said with a blank look, "What billboard?"

Even outspoken Russians — and there are one or two — had refrained until Monday from making any flat prediction on the Russian performance at the current Olympics.

"We hope to do at least as well as we did in Rome," was the standard official prognostication.

"We will do our best," was the usual unofficial, "just-between-us" comment.

To be fair, American officials are just as loathe to make any flat prediction about U.S. medal hopes this year. But with the Russians it's a fetish.

★ ★ ★

So when the billboard went up American eyes popped.

The Russians, according to their briefly exposed secret, are aiming for 45 gold medals this year, two more than in Rome, 33 silver medals, four more than in Rome, and 32 bronze medals, one above the Rome figure. That's a total of 110.

The Russians took 67 medals, 22 of them of the golden variety, in Helsinki in 1952. The score jumped to 98, including 37 gold medals, in Melbourne four years later, and 103, including 43 gold medals in Rome in 1960.

The United States won 71 medals in Rome, 34 gold, 21 silver and 16 bronze.

American officials sound like Russians when you ask them how many medals they may win this year.

But non-officials — sports bugs: inside and outside the American camp — are saying the United States may come up with as many as 97 medals this year, most of them in the bronze category.

41st Straight for Cage Team

U. S. Whips Peru, 60-45, in 3rd Tilt

TOKYO (AP) — The United States has only won 41 straight Olympic basketball games without loss. So maybe it's understandable why Coach Henry Iba is worried.

★ ★ ★

In fact, he's so concerned he managed to get his Japanese slipper on the wrong feet while the United States was routing Peru 60-45 Tuesday for its third straight victory of the Olympic games.

And then he rushed the team off for a practice session.

It's all because of pressure, which Iba says is getting to the team.

"Sure it it," the Oklahoma State athletic director said. "But we don't want to talk about it. It's an awful load to carry. It's like winning 35 or 40 straight in college. The pressure is on you real togh."

★ ★ ★

The United States next plays Uruguay, 73-55 victors over Finland Tuesday. The Americans defeated the same Finnish team 77-51.

Electric Timers Rid Olympics of Guesswork

TOKYO (AP) — Gone are the days when the eye had to decide a hairline finish in Olympic events. Now electric timing, down to hundredths of a second does the trick. And there's no argument about the result.

Look at that close finish in the rowing Sunday between France and Russia. The electric timing system gave France the victory by one-hundredth of a second over Russia in the pairs with cox.

Track Events Ready to Go

TOKYO (AP) — The United States, crippled by the ailing ankle of young Gerry Lindgren, opens its Olympic track and field competition Wednesday with Russia, as usual, the big competition.

★ ★ ★

A variety of ills and ailments have beset the U.S. track team since its arrival in Japan, but the twisted ankle suffered by the 18-year-old Spokane, Wash. distance runner appears to be the most serious.

The javelin, the women's broad jump and the 10,000 meter run are the first finals on the program, all Wednesday. Also scheduled are heats in the 100 meters, 400-meter hurdles and 800 meters.

Lindgren, the reed-slim lad just out of high school who captured the track fancy of a nation, is the top U.S. hope in the 10,000.

And Lindgren is limping.

He twisted an ankle just 48 hours before the race was due.

"We are worried about it," assistant coach Payton Jordan said. "He's limping on it. Gerry is not a cry baby. But he is disturbed about it. He needs to be at his best to run against the veterans."

OUT OF CLASS

If he is unable to run, Marine Billy Mills ranks as the U.S. most likely threat but he may be out of his class against the field that includes world record holder Ron Clarke of Australia.

Clarke will attempt an unprecedented sweep of the three long ones, the 5,000, 10,000 and marathon and, of course, ranks as the favorite in the 10,000-meter going in fresh. His record of 28:15.6 was approved earlier this week.

Several of the world's top 5,000-meter men are moving up in distance to challenge him, including Murray Halberg of New Zealand, the 1960 5,000-meter gold medalist.

Other top threats include Bill Baillie and Barry McGee of New Zealand; Russia's Piotr Bolotnikov, Nikolay Dutov and Leonid Ivanov; Gaston Roelants of Belgium; Ron Hill of England and Josef Thomas of Czechoslovakia.

Norway's Terje Pedersen, who holds the world record of 300 feet 11 inches, is a solid favorite in the javelin, an event in which the U.S. is very weak.

★ ★ ★

In the women's broad jump another world record holder has the inside track for the gold medal. Tatyana Schelkanova of Russia. Her chief rivals are expected to be Mary Rand of Britain and Willye White of Chicago. America will also be represented by Martha Watson of Long Beach, Calif.

U.S. Coach Bob Giegengack was pleased with the draws for heats in the 100-meter, 400-meter hurdles and the 800-meter.

"It's a very fair draw. All we have to do is keep ourselves alive for the next round in these events," said Giegengack.

Princeton Ace Is Gold Medal Swim Winner

Jed Graef Smashes World Mark for U. S. in Olympics

TOKYO (AP) — Towering Jed Graef, a 22-year-old Princeton student, smashed the world record with a 2:10.3 effort Tuesday and led an American 1-2-3 sweep of medals in the men's 200-meter backstroke championship in the Olympic Games.

★ ★ ★

Garry Dilley of Huntington, Ind., was second and Bob Bennett of Long Beach, Calif. third in the American sweep that pushed the Yankee harvest of Olympic medals to 10—two gold, five silver and three bronze.

Graef, a lanky, 6-foot-6, 22-year-old from Verona, N.J., trimmed six-tenths of a second off the old world mark of 2:10.9 set by America's Tom Stock in 1962.

UNDER RECORD

Dilley also was under the old mark with a time of 2:10.5, losing to Graef by fingernail in a photo finish. Bennett was caught in 2:13.1.

Moments earlier, Australia's tall, strapping Dawn Fraser won an unprecedented third gold medal in the women's 100-meter freestyle in Games record time of 59.5 seconds.

★ ★ ★

Sharon Stouder of Glendora, Calif., was second and became the only other woman in the world to break the minute barrier in the event. The 15-year-old girl was timed in 59.9.

Kathy Ellis of Indianapolis added a bronze medal to the growing U.S. collection with a time of 1:00.8.

POLISH WINNER

The only other gold medal awarded on the third day of the Olympic Games went to Poland's, Waledmar Baszanowski, who won the lightweight class in weight-lifting with a total hoist of 951.5 pounds, a world record.

The United States was blanked in this event, while Russia's Vladimer Kaplunov won the silver medal with the same weight. His second place gave Russia four medals —two gold, one silver and one bronze.

★ ★ ★

The American sweep of the backstroke and Miss Fraser's outstanding effort highlighted a day in which the United States put together a strong possibility of a sweep in springboard diving, advanced a maximum three swimmers in two separate events and lost another argument at the conference table.

Navy Lt. Frank Gorman of Queens Village, N.Y., led the divers after seven events with 105.99 points, followed in order by Larry Andreason of Los Alamitos, Calif., with 101,31 and Ken Sitzberger of River Forest, Ill., with 98.66. The finals will be held Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

Moving into the semis of the men's 200-meter breaststroke were Tom Tretheney of Pittsburgh, Chet Jastremski of Toledo, and Wayne Anderson of Santa Clara, Calif.

Germany's Igon Henninger led all qualifiers with Olympic record 2:30.1 time, the 10th world or Olympic record in as many swimming events so far in the Games.

Cardinals 5-7 to Take Wednesday's Game

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Odds of 5-7 favoring the St. Louis Cardinals were posted by gambling interests here for Wednesday's World Series game against the New York Yankees.

Odds on the Yankees were 6-5.

Bookies, however, refused to take money on the outcome of the Series because the end is so near.

Soccer Tilt a Sell-Out

TOKYO (AP)—Biggest surprise so far in the Olympics has been the sell-out crowd of 80,000 for the soccer match between Hungary and Morocco.

Many experts had predicted the stadiums would be only half full for soccer. But the fans poured in and soccer experts from Europe and South America were left gasping in surprise at their enthusiasm.

Confusion Reigned at Diving Boards

TOKYO (AP) — Talk about your Chinese fire drills. The Shanghai smoke eaters in their most confused days could never have equalled the scene at the diving pool at the Tokyo Olympics. Now there was a merry international mess.

It all started when the Russian girl did the wrong dive. At first nobody noticed, possibly because of the language barrier When you say "two and a half, layaway tuck with pike" in Japanese, anything may come out.

Eventually, everybody was arguing with the umpire.

Meanwhile, the American judge was running around insisting he hadn't meant what he said when he insulted the Russian judge.

CROWD PLEASER

And the Japanese crowd clapped in unison.

The curtain went up on all this aquatic confusion Monday, where it was discovered that there were nine divers on a springboard built for eight.

It was the women's springboard event, and the big computer in the corner had digested the results of the earlier dives and come up with the names of the eight girls who advanced to the finals. There was no room for one Elena Anohkna, a trim Russian blonde in a tight black bathing suit.

She was the girl who back flipped when she should have front flopped, or something.

At first, nobody noticed, but when it was discovered that Elena had ad-libbed, the judges marked her down for straying from the program.

That put Elena down to ninth, just behind Kumiko Watanabe of Japan.

MISUNDERSTOOD

The Russians protested that it was all a misunderstanding, and Elena should be given another chance.

The brass of the diving world put their heads together, and voted 4-3 to let Elena do the right dive this time.

She warmed up with a few ballet steps, ran her hands through her short-cropped blonde hair, climbed the ladder, bounded a couple of times to test the board, and then did a beauty.

★ ★ ★

The judges smiled on her effort, and now Elena was in eight place.

And Kumiko was out.

The Japanese rushed up to protest.

The brass put its heads together again.

The crowd began to clap in unison, telling the boys in charge to get the show on the water.

Meanwhile, an American judge took this opportunity to tell the Russian judge that he didn't mean it when he had said that the Russian judge seemed to find more fault with the American divers than with her own.

The crowd clapped on, and the divers huddled in their towels and stood around back stage by the heaters.

Palmer Makes Building Plans

VIRGINIA WATER, England (AP) — Arnold Palmer said today he intends to borrow some of the old Burma Road when he builds his own golf course, and that will be soon.

★ ★ ★

The American Masters' champion, first holder of the new unofficial World Match Play championship, said his triumph Sunday over Wentworth's 6,936-yard layout has given him some new ideas. The course is known to British golfers as the Burma Road — a name given to it by Army officers who served in the Far East.

★ ★ ★

Palmer defeated Britain's Neil Coles 2 and 1 in the 36-hole final and added another $14,000 to his year's winnings which now total $124,000.

The Latrobe Pa., professional is toying with the idea of building his own course, as Bobby Jones did when he created the Augusta, Ga., course where the Masters is played.

Two U. S. Boxers Win First Fights

TOKYO (AP) — Featherweight Charlie Brown of Cincinnati and light middleweight Toby Gibson of Spokane, Wash., won their first bouts Tuesday in the Olympic boxing tournament.

★ ★ ★

Brown opened the day's schedule with a unanimous decision over Randall Hope of Australia. The 25-year-old Brown, using his right to great advantage, battered Hope but didn't escape a beating himself. At the finish, Brown was bleeding rather badly with a nasty gash above his right eye.

Bill Farrah Tells Why You Get The Best Value At Village Rambler

It is a basic fact of American business that volume sales mean lower costs, which, in turn, mean lower prices.

As Oakland county's largest Rambler dealer we do such a volume of business. That enables us to give you lower prices, better deals. Apart from that, you pay less for a Rambler than for any other U.S. built car. And on top of that you get higher mileage with a Rambler as proved by all the official economy runs such as the Mobilgas and Pure Oil tests.

So, come in. Test drive a Rambler, new or used. Then let us show how much more car you get for so much less money here at . . .

Wolverines Healthy; MSU Nursing Wounds

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan coach Bump Elliott reported no serious injuries Monday praised the Wolverines defense in the wake of Michigan's 17-10 victory over Michigan State Saturday.

★ ★ ★

Right halfback Carl Ward bruised his hand and did not practice but was expected to be ready for Saturday's game with Purdue.

"The defense gets so much credit for the game," Elliott said. "Three times the offensive team gave up the ball in a spot. We would have had no chance to come back had not the defense played well."

FIRST STRINGER

End John Henderson, who caught Michigan's last minute touchdown pass against State, practiced with the first string after a two-week stint with the second string.

★ ★ ★

Elliott said he will alternate Henderson with Craig Kirby, possibly starting Henderson against Purdue.

WOUNDED SPARTANS

EAST LANSING (AP) — Coaches were shuffling positions at Michigan State today following a rash of injuries in the 17-10 loss to Michigan.

End Doug Roberts is expected to be out for two weeks and guard Ed Macuga was a doubtful starter against Indiana—the next opponent. Both have knee injuries.

★ ★ ★

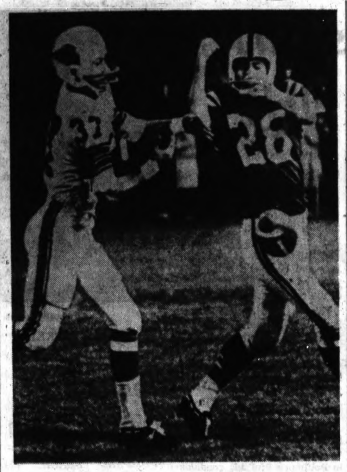

Still sub-par physically, although both played against the Wolverines, were guard Ron Goovert and tackle Don Bierowicz.

Guard Rahn Bentley was being switched from offense to defense to help plug up one hole. Sophomore Jerry West is being moved up; Tackle Jerry Rush is being asked to play some defense as well as his regular offensive slot.

Coach Duffy Daugherty wasn't under-rating Indiana although the Hoosiers are three-time losers, to Northwestern, Ohio State and Iowa.

★ ★ ★

The workout was heavier than usual Monday. The first and second offenses were run against a reserve team using Indiana defenses.

MUSCLED DOWN — Baltimore Colt halfback Jimmy Orr (right) and defensive halfback Pat Fisher fight for a pass which falls incomplete at the St. Louis 30 yard line in their game last night in Baltimore. The Colts whipped the Cardinals, 47-27 to keep first place in the Western Division.

McCarver Overshadows Gibson

Slugger Always in Hero's Role

NEW YORK (AP) — The slugger gets the nod every time. Which is another way of saying that catcher Tim McCarver, who walloped a game-winning three-run homer in the 10th inning for the St. Louis Cardinals, was the hero of Monday's fifth World Series game instead of pitcher Bob Gibson.

★ ★

Forgotten was the fact that Gibson shut out the Yankees for eight innings, struck out 13, scored the first Cardinal run and made a great fielding play in the ninth after McCarver belted his homer with two on for the 5-2 victory and a 3-2 lead in the Series.

McCarver, a 22-year-old, 195-pounder from Memphis, struck out with the bases loaded in the first inning and tapped weakly back to the pitcher in the fourth inning. He singled in the sixth and singled again in the eighth.

DIDN'T SINK

So when he came up in the 10th with men on first and third and one out, reliever Pete Mikkelsen worked on him carefully. The count went to 3-2 then Tim belted a sinker that didn't sink into the right field seats.

"We want McCarver, we want McCarver," chanted the crowd at the airport that welcomed the Cardinals back to St. Louis Monday night.

★ ★ ★

There was no mention of Gibson, the fire-balling right-hander, who should have had a 2-0 shutout except that Dick Groat's error on Mickey Mantle's grounder leading off the Yankee ninth opened the gates to two unearned runs and a tie score.

Gibson fanned Elston Howard with Mantle on first, them made a great play on Joe Pepitone's line drive back to the box. The ball hit Gibson on the hip and bounded toward the third base foul line.

HALF STEP

A former basketball player, the Omaha, Neb., 28-year-old raced towards the ball, picked it up, whirling as he did so and threw to first base to get Pepitone by a half step.

That brought up Tom Tresh and he whacked Gibson's first pitch into the center field bleachers at the 407-foot mark for a homer that tied the score.

"It was a fast ball down the middle," said Gibson, offering no excuse.

★ ★ ★

He had struck out Tresh with a fast ball in the seventh. Only, Tresh said, "That fast ball wasn't down the middle."

Never mind that McCarver never would have come to bat in the 10th except for Gibson's great play on Pepitone in the ninth. McCarver was the slugger who won the game and the hero's role.

Win Rates Smiles, Too

Statistics Please Denver End

By The Associated Press

A funny thing happened in the American Football League Sunday — the Denver Broncos won their first victory in 15 games.

But pass catcher supreme Lionel Taylor has something else to smile about. He is back on top in AFL pass-receiving statistics, according to league figures released today.

Taylor, who has led the AFL in passes caught every one of the league's four years, snared nine passes in Denver's 33-27 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs, giving him a season total of 33 for five games. This put him two receptions ahead of Charley Hennigan of the Houston Oilers. In his career, Taylor has caught 380 passes for 4,879 yards —only 401 yards short of three miles.

KICK RETURNS

Two other members of the Bronco cast — Odell Barry and Jim Fraser — continued to pace the league in kickoff returns and punting, respectively.

Barry, a rookie, has averaged 38 yards on nine returns. Fraser, the league's punting champion the past two years, has booted 24 times for a 46.9 average.

★ ★ ★

Cookie Gilchrist of Buffalo has bulged his lead to almost 100 yards in the rushing department. He has picked up 408 yards compared to 310 run up by rookies Did Blanks of Houston and Matt Snell of New York.

Victory for Vanderbilt

Tackle's Toe Triumphs

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — The Vanderbilt Commodores, who had won only twice in 25 starts, badly needed a shot in the arm. What they got instead was a foot in the air that gave them their first football victory of the season.

★ ★ ★

Dick Lemay, a 220-pound defensive tackle from Columbia, Tenn., kicked three field goals last Saturday against Wake Forest — the last one with five seconds left to break a 6-6 deadlock.

He is the team's leading scorer and now is the Vandy record-holder for the most field goals in one game.

The story behind those kicks of 45, 39 and 26 yards began two years ago when Lemay began kicking because he was doing little else in practice.

JUST TIME

"I played just about everywhere but on the varsity my sophomore year," he said. "I had nothing but time on my hands, so I started doing some place-kicking. I had never done any in high school."

Lemay appeared to have "latent leg power," but no consistency, so Coach Jack Green suggested that he work on his kicking all summer.

★ ★ ★

Lemay took Green's suggestion and worked daily. His first chance came against Alabama, but the kick was short from 35 yards out. Then, he booted three against Wake Forest.

Vanderbilt hasn't scored a touchdown this fall, but a safety and Lemay's three field goals are on the books.

Three Unbeaten Teams in City Midget Play

Only three unbeaten teams remain in the city's midget football program following Saturday morning's action at Jaycee Park.

Two lightweight elevens, Wilson No. 1 and Bagley, kept their records spotless, and one heavyweight squad, Bagley-Bethune.

Rangers Lift Lid on NHL

BOSTON (AP) — "We capitalized on their penalties and got real fine goaltending," said Coach Red Sullivan after his Rangers blasted Boston 6-2 in the opening game of the National Hockey League season Monday.

When New York's Don Marshall slapped home the first goal of the campaign, a second balcony occupant — toughened by four straight cellar finishes by the Bruins — hollered:

"Wait 'till next year —You bums."

MAY BE LONG

The Bruins won't comment about the next one but this season could be long, indeed.

As if to prove they had read their "call 'em closer" edict well, the officials whistled 50 minutes in penalties, 30 minors and a 10-minute misconduct. The Bruins drew 13 of the minors and had seven men go to penalty box to New York's three in the runaway third period.

The first two of four Ranger goals in the finale came when Boston was shorthanded. They turned a 2-1 game into a 4-1 route after goalie Marcel Paille had held the Bruins effectively in check.

HOME DEBUT

Paille, called up only last week from Vancouver, B.C. when Jacques Plante was sent to Baltimore "for his conditioning," will make his season's home debut tonight at Madison Square Garden against Montreal.

"Up to now our power play has not worked so well," Sullivan said.

★ ★ ★

"Our boys worked hard," he added. "It was a team effort. We've still got a long way to go. I'm not predicting playoffs or anything for us. We'll play them one at a time, keep our fingers crossed and hope for the best."

JAMES B. DICKEY

Tennis Boss Dies in South

POMPANO BEACH, Fla. (AP) — James B. Dickey, president of the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association, died Monday after 42 years of activity in a sport he took up because "I didn't have time for golf." He was 72.

★ ★ ★

Dickey, who was elected USLTA president last February, was regarded as a moderate on the issue of whether to let amateurs compete with professionals.

★ ★ ★

"No one can say whether it will help or hurt the game," he said.

Dickey retired in 1960 as vice president of Tiffany's & Co., New York City jewelers.

★ ★ ★

He leaves his widow and a brother, Paul, of Atlanta.

Pike Memorial Trophy Awarded to Don Sackett

"When a guy gives his life for you, you should be willing to do something for him as long as you can."

★ ★ ★

With these words reflecting the theme, the Billy Pike Memorial group held its annual meeting Saturday night at the Waldron Hotel to honor two of the area's outstanding baseball players.

Don Sackett of the city's Class A Huron-Airway team won the 19th annual Pike Memorial Trophy, emblematic of the superior performance in the adult league.

Sackett previously had won the most valuable player trophy presented by The Pontiac Press, an honor determined by a recreation department poll of players, managers and loop officials.

The Pike memorial gathering also honored Roger Hayward, ace pitcher for the state Class D championship nine of the Auburn Heights Boys' Club.

SECOND TIME

He received the Duke Greenway Memorial plaque for the second straight year. The award reflects outstanding performance in the city's top teenage baseball league.

The latter award was not originated by the Pike group, but was reactivated by it after several years of dormancy.

★ ★ ★

Billy Pike was a standout second baseman in the city Class A League before entering the armed forces during the second World War. He was killed in France during the last months of the war.

A group of 10 admirers organized themselves as a memorial association and have gathered at least once a year since then in memory of him.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Pike, his parents, missed their first gathering in the 19 years Saturday night. They presently are in Florida.

The Duke Greenway plaque was started to honor another outstanding city baseball infielder who was killed in an automobile accident several years ago.

U-M's Strack Top Speaker at Area Clinic

Uniersity of Michigan basketball coach Dave Strack will headline a talented lineup of speakers Friday morning in a coaches' clinic at Birmingham Groves High School.

The public and all area high school coaches are invited to attend the sessions beginning at 9 a.m. The gathering is sponsored by the Michigan Education Association.

★ ★ ★

Coffee will be served at 9 a.m., followed by a talk by Bob James, president of the Michigan High School coaches Association and athletic director of the Warren school system.

The group then will divide into various interest groups to hear the featured speakers starting at 10:20 a.m.

Strack will talk to those interested in basketball; U. of M. line coach Bob Hollway will talk football; assistant coach Jim Gibbard of Michigan State will discuss track; and Bowling Green coaches Bruce Bellard and Tom Stubbs will have wrestling and swimming conferences, respectively.

Several Falls in College Poll

Texas Stays on Top While MSU Tumbles

By The Associated Press

That blur that flew past the other teams in The Associated Press' college football poll this week was Illinois but the flight was a bumpy one and worse than that, it was in the wrong direction.

★ ★ ★

The Illini, ranked No. 2 in last week's AP poll of sports writers and broadcasters, took on fourth-ranked Ohio State last Saturday and came out on the short end of a 26-0 score.

The impressive victory moved the Buckeyes into the No. 2 slot and dropped Illinois right out of the Top Ten. But the Illini slide off the poll wasn't a lonely one. Kentucky and Michigan State, both thumped on Saturday, also dipped out of sight.

RANKED NO. 1

Texas continued to top the poll with 30 first place votes of the 40 ballots cast and 387 points. Ohio State had seven first place ballots and 344 points in the voting which awards 10 points for first, nine for second, etc.

The top ten teams with first place votes in parentheses, won-lost records and points on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

1. Texas (30) (4-0)	387
2. Ohio State (7) (3-0)	344
3. Alabama (2) (4-0)	307
4. Notre Dame (1) (3-0)	281
5. Michigan (3-0)	223
6. Nebraska (4-0)	142
7. Syracuse (3-1)	89
8. Arkansas (4-0)	86
9. Louisiana State (3-0)	59
10. Florida State (4-0)	56

Others receiving votes, in alphabetical order: Auburn, Duke, Florida, Georgia Tech, Illinois, Iowa, Kentucky, Michigan State, Minnesota, Mississippi, Oregon, Oregon State, Southern California, UCLA, Utah State, Wyoming.

Dryden Reaches Gridiron Top Ten

Dryden cracked the top ten for the first time in the Associated Press' weekly prep football poll giving added glamor to this week's Southern Thumb showdown with New Haven.

The Cardinals reached the No. 10 spot but will be hard pressed to remain ranked when they visit third-rated New Haven Friday night. Both teams have 4-0 logs.

Two unbeaten teams assumed the No. 1 positions in shakeups of the lower classes this week.

Kingsford (6-0) took over first place in Class B, ending the two-week reign of Hillsdale which dropped to second.

Akron-Fairgrove (4-0) took the lead in Class C-D. A wholesale shuffling in C-D followed the loss by St. Charles last week. Portland took second in close balloting by the AP's statewide panel of sports writers and sportscasters.

★ ★ ★

Bay City Central (4-0) again ruled in Class A, but East Lansing closed to within 19 points of the lead.

There was only one change among the state's largest schools. Midland dropped out of the top ten and was replaced by Grand Rapids Catholic which placed tenth. All of the other teams, from fifth place through the No. 9 position, advanced one notch.

It took a perfect record to make the top ten in Class B.

Battle Creek Central is the only team with a loss in Class A, while St. Joseph Catholic is 3-1 and Galesburg-Augusta is 3-0-1 in C-D.

IHL Board Adds Fines to Penalties

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — The International Hockey League's board of governors met Monday and added a fine to the spearing penalty during the coming season.

Commissioner Andy Mulligan said the board also decided not to negotiate further on a television contract with WKBD in Detroit until permission is received for the telecasts from the Detroit Red Wings. Detroit has a contract with the station for their National Hockey League games.

★ ★ ★

Mulligan said WKBD is an ultra high frequency station which is not yet in operation.

A $10 fine was set up for minor spearing—poking an opposing player with the blade of the hockey stick—and a $25 fine for major spearing.

PLAYOFF SET

The board approved a playoff plan involving four of the six teams in the league. The first-place team plays the third-place team and the second place team would play the fourth place team. The winners then would play each other. All of the series would be the best four out of seven games.

Approval was given for three teams to play against a touring Russian team. The Soviets will play Dec. 15 in Toledo, Dec. 16 in Muskegon, Mich., and Dec. 18 in Port Huron, Mich.

A preseason game scheduled for Oct. 27 at Dayton's new arena between the new Dayton entry and the Toledo Blades was approved.

A proposal to increase death insurance benefits to be handled by Canada Life Insurance Co. was tabled for further study.

PPK Finals Set Tonight

Youth Grid Program at Wisner Stadium

The local finals of the annual Punt, Pass and Kick contest in conjunction with the National Football League and Ford auto dealers will be held tonight at 6:30 at Wisner Stadium.

A total of 578 boys from eight to 13 started competition in the contest last weekend. Tonight 280 boys will compete in the local finals.

Winners will go into district competition and from there to regional competition in the Stadiums of NFL teams across the country.

★ ★ ★

The top six from each division of the NFL will receive a trip to Florida with their parents for the annual "NFL Runnerup Bowl" in Miami.

The 14 NFL teams have stimulated interest in the PPK event which has become the largest football youth program in the country.

John McAuliffe dealership and the Optimist Club sponsor the local competition under the direction of Tom Kennedy.

A Little League football game will also be held after competition tonight.

Iowa Halfback in Sole Lead of Point Race

CHICAGO (AP) — Sophomore halfback Dalton Kimble of Iowa took sole possession of the Big Ten all games football scoring lead this week, breaking a tie with sophomore quarterback Bob Griese of Purdue.

Kimble scored a touchdown against Wisconsin to boost his point total to 30 for the season while Griese managed but four extra points and fell two points behind Kimble.

The Leaders:	TD	PAT	FG	Pts.

Pistons Bring Team Down to Required 11

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Pistons released a rookie guard Monday, putting the National Basketball Association squad at its assigned limit of 11 players.

Jerry Jackson, former Ohio University player, was released.

The Pistons play their first regular season game Friday night with the Philadelphia 76ers in Philadelphia.

In Midget Action

2 Elevens Post Sweeps

Three game sweeps were posted by the Lakeland Lakers and Walled Lake Blue Devils over the weekend in Suburban Midget Conference grid action.

★ ★ ★

The Blue Devils posted three shutouts at the expense of Royal Oak's Rebel Raiders — varsity, 13-0; junior varsity, 7-0; freshmen, 14-0.

Lakeland took Troy three times: 19-6, varsity; 26-6, junior varsity; and 25-13, freshmen.

Walled Lake's Red Devils had less luck against the Royal Oak Yankee Warriors. The RO squad took 19-13 (varsity) and 13-6 (junior varsity) wins while the plebe teams tied,0-0.

The RO Yankee Marauders split evenly with Madison Height' Wolverines, winning the junior varsity game, 6-0; losing the varsity tilt, 13-6; and tying the freshmen, 6-6.

LOSE

The RO Rebel Rangers took it on the chin from the MH Spartans, losing 7-6 (varsity) and 14-0 (plebe); and tying 0-0 (jayvee).

In the Lakeland varsity victory, Ed Holsworth (two) and Randy Shane scored the six-pointers while Jay Hedges sparked the plebes with a 62-yard run.

★ ★ ★

Gary Falwell ran 37 yards and Mitch Hansen scored on a 58-yard pass play from Bob Serra to pace the Walled Lake Blue Devils' varsity win.

Memory Is Life's Most Constant Friend

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Money may vanish, love may fly, but memory always remains.

It never deserts you. It never goes bankrupt. It is life's most constant friend.

BOYLE

And you've known a lot of living if you can look back and remember when—

You had to have a button hook to put on a pair of shoes.

Al Jolson was more popular than any three entertainers you can think of today.

ENVIED ILL ONE

Everybody in the gang envied you when you came down with a case of measles, and could have ice cream whenever you liked.

You could impress a girl by taking her for a trolley ride out to the end of the line and back.

* * *

Most butcher shops and saloons had sawdust on the floor. But you could always tell a butcher on the job from a bartender — because the butcher wore a straw hat and had a pencil behind his ear.

Only little old ladies preferred closed coupes. Most families owned big open touring cars.

A mother worried that her son had fallen into the clutches of the devil if a neighbor reported he had seen the lad pitching pennies at a sidewalk crack on Sundays after church.

SATURDAY NIGHT OUT

America was strictly a "Saturday Night" land. Only the rich or the uncaring poor ever went out on the town any other night of the week.

If you wanted ice, you put up a sign on a front porch pillar so the iceman would know.

ROMEO CALLED SHEIK

A romeo was called "a sheik." A "cakeater" was a young fellow who wore a pork pie hat, sideburns, a tight jacket, and wide-bottomed trousers.

Old maids felt skittish about taking a trip by Pullman car, because they would have to sleep in a car with strange men.

* * *

Every porter was called "George" because that was the first name of the man who founded the Pullman company.

A hostess considered her dinner a failure if her guests didn't consume at least three big bowls of thick gravy.

READ LATIN, GREEK

A man who couldn't read at least some Latin and Greek was hardly considered educated.

When farmers decided they needed a stronger pair of glasses, they went to the dime store and fitted themselves.

No one thought of throwing away a pair of shoes unless they had been half-soled at least twice.

Half the men in America had never tasted lipstick and were against women wearing it.

MOTHER PREFERRED CHEWING

The average mother would rather catch her son chewing tobacco than smoking a cigarette.

A family was coming up in the world if it could afford a genuine brass bed.

Those were the days. Remember?

Jacoby on Bridge

By OSWALD JACOBY

A good rule for a bridge player to follow is to try to think like his opponent. If he does this he will frequently be able to foil his opponent's plans.

JACOBY

The North-South bidding was rather aggressive and a six club contract was not the kind that mother used to bid.

South won the first trick with dummy's ace of spades. He looked over the dummy carefully and didn't like what he saw. He surely had to lose the ace of trumps, and there appeared to be a heart loser also. Perhaps he could do something about the heart loser. At least there was no harm trying.

At trick two South cashed dummy's ace of diamonds. He led a heart to his ace. His next play was to discard dummy's seven of spades on the king of diamonds. He ruffed his last diamond with dummy's jack of trumps and cashed dummy's king of hearts.

Opening lead—♠3

All these plays had stripped his own hand and dummy of spades and diamonds and one opponent of hearts.

Now he led the ten of clubs from dummy. If East happened to hold the singleton ace of clubs, he would have been stuck in the lead and forced to play either a diamond or a spade. Unfortunately for South, East had both clubs and could have beaten the hand by going right up with the ace of clubs and leading back his small trump.

However, things turned out all right anyway. East had been following suit mechanically without paying any attention to what South was trying to do. East played his low club, dummy's ten held the trick and the second club lead end-played poor East.

CARD Sense

Q—The bidding has been:

North	East	South	West
1 ♣	Pass	1 ♦	Pass
1 ♠	Pass	2 ♣	Pass
3 ♣	Pass	?

You South, hold: ♠8 5 3 2 ♥9 6 4 3 ♦A K J ♣3 2. What do you do?

A—Pass. You have made all the bids your hand warrants.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of going to three spades, your partner passes and East bids three hearts. What do you do now?

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR

For Wednesday

"The wise man controls his destiny . . . Astrology points the way."

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): Full Moon stresses money affairs, possible partnership disputes. Try to remain in background. Time to absorb knowledge. Be a keen observer. What you now learn can aid in future.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20): You find spotlight turned in YOUR DIRECTION. Be aware of personal appearance. Realize statements made may be used out of context. Be wary about confiding valuable information.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20): One who asks help may merely be seeking sympathy. Help only those willing to aid themselves. Better for finishing than for beginning projects. Shake off recent lethargy.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22): Full Moon stresses business and domestic argos. There is some conflict, but it can be resolved. This is done by taking the initiative. Be a leader. State case. Then follow through.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22): Head counsel of those who have proven loyalty in past. Realize all cannot agree with your views. But approach with humility. Show there are no hard feelings. Be gracious.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22): Favorable lunar aspect highlights journeys, plans for future. Give of yourself. Day to pursue creative endeavor. Show . . . put thoughts on paper. Spread influence. Display VERSATILITY.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): Full Moon stresses finances, investments . . . your willingness to be patient. Act in haste . . . and results will be worse. Survey various possibilities. Obtain hint from ARIES message.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): You may be at cross-purposes with yourself. Review goals . . . find out where CONSTRUCTIVE CHANGES can be made. Travel favored. So is romance. Exciting, challenging.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Before casting any stones . . . be sure your own house is in order. Full Moon points to unsettled debts, collections. Catch up on details. Build a stronger financial structure.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19): Full Moon position highlights verification of beliefs. Can now move ahead with greater confidence. Important gain indicated through written word. Fine for writing, publishing.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18): Key is accepting FAMILY RESPONSIBILITY. When asked . . . you should offer helping hand. Don't turn back on loved ones. The more you give today . . . the more you ultimately receive.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to Mar. 20): Take care during travel. Be sure communication is "through." Avoid trap of trying to do too much at once. Settle into groove of achievement. Sense of humor helps avoid tense situation.

IF WEDNESDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY . . . you are artistic — but never satisfied with the status quo. You are a pioneer in creating your own style, your own way of presenting material.

* * *

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Cycle high for TAURUS, GEMINI, CANCER. Special word to SCORPIO. Full Moon coincides with contradictions in your life. Be prepared for surprises!

Crash Hospitalizes Waterford Driver

James Ostrander, 48, of 6432 Elmwood, Waterford Township, is in fair condition at Pontiac General Hospital with injuries suffered in a traffic accident at 12:15 a. m. today in Waterford Township.

Ostrander's car, traveling east on Williams Lake Road, collided with a tractor trailer driven by Harry Whiteman, 57, of Flint at the intersection of Dixie and Williams Lake Road.

★ ★ ★

Whiteman told police he was driving southeast on Dixie when the car struck the rear wheel of his trailer. Whiteman said he had the green light.

Suffers Minor Injuries in Crash Into Building

A Waterford Township man drove his car into the side of a vacant cement block building at 3866 Elizabeth Lake at 2:23 a.m. today and escaped with only minor injuries.

★ ★ ★

The car driven by Maynard Holmes, 31, of 4052 Elmhurst, was damaged beyond repair, according to police. Damage to the building is undetermined.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OSCAR E. Slaybaugh who passed away a year ago.
His memory is a heartache,
Which will never part.
Tho' God has him in his keeping,
We still have him in our hearts.
Sadly missed by grandchildren, sons and daughters.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF ANNA Reggs who passed away October 13, 1963.
Just a thought of sweet remembrance,
Just a memory sad and true,
Just the love and sweet devotion
Of one who thinks of you.
Sadly missed by daughter Marguerite, family and grandchildren.

Eddie Cantor Laid to Rest at Private Service

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Eddie Cantor lay entombed today with his wife of 48 years, Ida, and one of their five daughters.

★ ★ ★

Private funeral services for the 72-year-old entertainer were held yesterday at Groman Mortuary.

Only the immediate family and Cantor's long-time friend, George Jessel, were in attendance.

Cantor died of a coronary occlusion Saturday. He had suffered from a heart ailment for nearly 11 years.

Trying to Crack Show Biz, Says She's Fitly Cracked

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — A "Choimun gull"—blonde, beautiful Louise Meyer, from Hamboig, Choimunny—is trying to get on the "Chonny Carson Show," claiming she's as big a screwball as Johnny's other screwballs . . . for example, she's a great cook and can cook anything as long as it's eggs.

WILSON

"I already been interviewed for the Chonny Carson Show," Louise pouted, with real sauerbraten in her voice, "and do you know wat dey said? Dey said 'Nein,' No.

"But dey will change when they hear mein story.

"My friends say I am a little nuts, little crazy . . ." said Louise. "I live in East Choimunny . . . my mother throw me out . . . I went to the west . . . I studied law two years . . . I got adventuress and wound up in this country as a Playboy Bunny . . ."

"How old do you say you are?"

"Oil, I was just been born! . . ."

"How many times have you been married?"

★ ★ ★

"I haven't been! As they say so nicely in this country, why make one man happy when you can make so many men unhappy? And I don't get engaged. I am afraid the future husband will see how crazy I am, and back out."

"And your cooking?"

"Mein Gott! I can only cook eggs and zauzage. That's all I got in my izebox — eggs. Sometimes I want them fried and they wound up scrambled."

★ ★ ★

Louise, who's now modeling and studying to be a new Marlene Dietrich with a sexy singing act ("I can learn to zing later") spreads gladness around town by pub-crawling with mature men ("I love men about 50"). Yet she doesn't always go out with interesting men.

"Chust to see the Beatles one night, I went with a man I couldn't stand him!"

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Lewis' Copa closing was attended by 150 of his fellow Friars, and Joe E. saluted them: "I'd like to drink to your health —one of you at a time!" . . . Bob Hope will visit the GIs in Viet Nam this Christmas; Raymond Burr will head a troupe in Korea . . . Pianist Teddy Wilson's attracting the carriage trade to the Five Spot Cafe.

Singer Kay Starr told her Persian Room audience she's from Dougherty, Okla. (pop. 341): "They only have Western music — they still don't know what I do for a living" . . . Roberto Yanes sold a race horse to his Chateau Madrid boss, Angel Lopez . . . Producer Lester Osterman and director Jule Styne have promised Philadelphia playgoers they'll like the show "Something More!" — or have $2 of their ticket price refunded.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Some baseball teams take flu shots during the season, but Taffy Tuttle figures it's unnecessary with the Mets. After all, how often do they catch anything?

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "Nobody plans to fail. They just fail to plan." —Anon.

EARL'S PEARLS: It's not necessary to have a minimum age requirement for presidents. If a man's young, the job will age him overnight. Arnold Glasow.

Maestro Vincent Lopez was asked why he doesn't wear fancy jackets like Liberace's. "They cost him $1,000 a piece," Lopez explained, "and anybody who pays more than $750 for a dinner jacket is a showoff." . . . That's earl, brother.

N-Test Due Wednesday

BATERVILLE, Miss. (AP) — A frequently postponed underground nuclear test blast is set for Wednesday.

The blast, when it comes, will equal about one-fourth the power of the atom bomb dropped on Hiroshima in World War II. It will be detonated 2,700 feet below the surface in the Tatum salt dome.

★ ★ ★

It is designed to test underground explosion detecting devices.

The Atomic Energy Commission pays an average of $10 a day to people, who, as a precaution, must leave the area when the blast is scheduled.

★ ★ ★

About 150 persons left the area Monday before the 13th postponement.

Jackie to Be Guest at Hospital Benefit

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy will be guest of honor Dec. 2 at a fund-raising dinner for the Cedars-Sinai Medical Center, a hospital spokesman announced yesterday.

A John Fitzgerald Kennedy pavilion will be dedicated within the $30-million medical pavilion when it is completed. Samuel J. Birskin, president of Cedars of Lebanon and Mt. Sinai hospitals, said Mrs. Kennedy had accepted the invitation.

Miller Is in Pennsylvania, but Scranton Not Around

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP) — GOP vice presidential nominee William E. Miller swings through Pennsylvania today but the state's No. 1 Republican, Gov. William W. Scranton, won't be around to greet him.

Scranton's office said the governor had previous commitments and he had designated Lt. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer to welcome Miller. Scranton had engagements elsewhere in the state.

The Pennsylvania governor, who lost the Republican nomination to Sen. Barry Goldwater after a bitter convention battle, has campaigned for the Goldwater- Miller ticket in various parts of the country.

Miller spent the weekend in bed with a heavy cold that forced him from the campaign trails Saturday. He canceled the final stop on a visit to Ohio and returned to Washington ahead of schedule, going directly to his home in suburban Bethesda.

CONDITION IMPROVED

The candidate's condition was improved, Miller aides reported today as he prepared to embark on the trip which later will take him to Indiana, Illinois, Minnesota, Wisconsin and California this week.

He will spend the weekend in San Diego, visit northern California on Monday and Tuesday, then fly back East, visiting cities in Ohio, returning to Pennsylvania and campaigning in New Jersey and New York.

The states on the itinerary for the current swing are among the richest in electoral votes — a total of 216 among them. Two hundred and seventy are needed for election.

Debutante Craze Hits Germany

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP) — The debutante craze has hit prosperous West Germany.

Sixty girls, 17 to 20 years old were introduced to society Monday night by Prince Von Metternich at West Germany's first debutant ball. Admission was $12.50 per person. The profits, swelled by contributions from the debs' fathers, go to the United Nations' Children Fund.

The event was a duplicate of coming out parties held annually in Paris, Vienna and London. An added attraction was a midnight style show by the House of Dior.

The 600 invited guests included 15 princes and princesses, 26 counts and countesses and 19 barons and baronesses. There also were more than 500 commoners whose names are connected with high finance, steel mills, breweries, department stores, sausage factories and other enterprises riding the crest of West Germany's booming economy.

BALL REQUIREMENTS

Baron Von Curland, an Austrian Prince who had charge of the arrangements, sent invitations to ball candidates saying they must have:

"A long, white debutante gown with three-quarter length, white gloves, white shoes, light colored stockings and proof from a school of dancing that the Viennese waltz, in its accustomed manner, has been mastered."

A 20-year-old debutante said the main qualification "was a famous name or money, lots of it."

U.S. Won't Yield Berlin Rights, Says State Dept.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The State Department says that the United States has "no intention of giving up our right of access" to Communist-controlled East Berlin.

"We are continuing on a daily basis to exercise our rights of that access and have no intention of altering or giving up this practice," department Press Officer Robert J. McCloskey said yesterday.

He was responding to a question based on a statement retired U.S. diplomat Robert D. Murphy was reported to have made in Berlin. Murphy was quoted as saying it seemd to him the United States was ready to agree to being denied such access.

Burglars After Loot and Knowledge, Too?

CARLSBAD, N.M. (AP) — Police said burglars entered the Carlsbad school system administrative offices Monday and made off with typewriters, adding machines and other office equipment valued at $1,216.

They apparently had a thirst for knowledge, too.

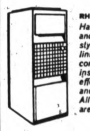

A copy of Webster's dictionary was taken.

Romney, Staebler Trade Word Blows

DETROIT (AP)—Gov. George Romney and U.S. Rep. Neil Staebler reiterated familiar points, traded distortion charges and both said they were happy with the results Monday night of their third joint appearance of the Michigan gubernatorial campaign.

The exchanges were lively but not new as Republican Romney and Democrat Staebler squared off before about 2,300 persons at a dinner of the Economic Club of Detroit.

As he has done throughout the campaign, Staebler ripped at what he called Romney's record of failures in Michigan and he tried to link the governor with Republican presidential candidate Barry Goldwater.

★ ★ ★

Romney, per formula, recited actions of his 21-month administration, interspersed them with his slogan, "That's Michigan Progress," and insisted the election should be fought on state, not national, issues. Romney has not endorsed Goldwater.

He accused Staebler several times of using "his old technique—quoting out of context and misquoting" and declared, "there is simply not enough time to deal with all those distortions."

Staebler, asked after the debate if he thought Romney distorted any Staebler positions, said, "Oh, sure. It's hard to look objectively at your opponent, and he (Romney) is absolutely incapable of recognizing a difference of opinion."

Each candidate opened with a 10-minute general statement, alternated segments of five minutes each on economic growth, federal-state relationships and health-education-welfare, and each closed the broadcast and televised program with a five-minute summation.

★ ★ ★

Point by point they said:

GENERAL

Romney—"My campaign for reelection can be summarized in a single sentence:

"In just 21 months, Michigan has made more progress, solved more problems and made preparation for more future progress than any other state in the nation.

"Our objective of paying our bills and living within our income has been achieved...We operate on the premise that you can't help the people of Michigan if you're broke...

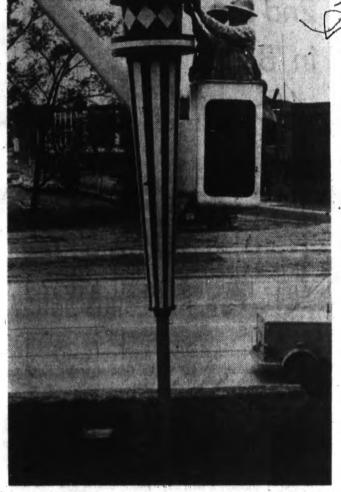

"Which of two men will be a better governor for the people of the state of Michigan? That is the only issue in electing a governor."

Staebler—"He (Romney) is a political showman ... George Romney, despite his equivocation, supports Barry Goldwater

. . . If there is any coolness between Goldwater and Romney, it is because they both have the same goal — the White House. Goldwater is after it this year. Romney is looking ahead to 1968 . . .

"The Republican governor's

Latin Terrorists Free Abducted U.S. Officer

Released Unharmed on Street Corner in Caracas Last Night

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Communist terrorists released U.S. Air Force Lt. Col. Michael Smolen unharmed last night after two of the five-man gang that abducted him Friday were arrested.

Smolen, blindfolded, was put out of a car about 11 p.m. on a street corner in eastern Caracas.

A passing police car spotted him almost immediately and took him to a police station.

He arrived at the U.S. Embassy early today, said he felt fine and reported he had been treated well.

★ ★ ★

Interior Minister Gonzalo Barrios said the two terrorists seized in a downtown Caracas apartment early yesterday were Spanish-born members of the Red underground called the Armed Forces of National Liberation (FALN).

Reliable sources said nine other suspected terrorists were picked up later.

Smolen told newsmen his abductors said they kidnaped him to make propaganda for their underground war against Venezuela's democratic government.

The 45-year-old officer from Chandler, Ariz., said his abductors never mentioned any plan to trade him for political prisoners in Venezuela or for a condemned Communist Viet Cong terrorists in South Viet Nam.

Various anonymous telephone callers had reported such proposals.

STILL SCHEDULED

South Viet Nam police sources reported that the execution of the terrorist mentioned in connection with the Smolen abduction, Nguyen Van Troi, 19, still was scheduled for Thursday.

Smolen was the second American officer to be abducted and then released unharmed by Red terrorists.

Last November, U.S. Army Col. James Chenault was held for eight days.

SPACE TRIO — The three-man crew sent into orbit in the latest Soviet space feat are shown during training for their flight in a photo released by Tass, Russian news agency. They are (from left) Col. Vladimir Komarov, the pilot; Dr. Boris Yegorov; and scientist Konstantine Feoktistov. The flight went for 16 orbits in just over 24 hours and landed.

Historic Flight Lasts 16 Orbits, Over 24 Hours

3 Men Said Feeling Well After Making Record-Breaking Trip

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union's three-man spaceship, the world's first to carry more than one astronaut in orbit, landed safely today after completing 16 trips around the earth in 24 hours and 17 minutes, an official announcement said.

The program of scientific research, designed for 24 hours of flight, was accomplished in full, said the official announcement.

It added that the doctor, scientist and engineer aboard the space ship Voskhod—Sunrise — conducted observations "directly in outer space."

The Soviet news agency Tass said all three men "are feeling well."

★ ★ ★

The world's first capsule to carry more than one person into space had completed 16 circles of the earth when its commander, Col. Vladimir Komarov, was ordered to switch on braking devices, Tass reported.

PLANNED FLIGHT

Tass emphasized that only a 24-hour flight had been planned, but other indications caused speculation that the trip had ended far short of the originally scheduled time.

Tass reported "from the space flight control post" that the space ship descended through dense clouds when it plunged out of orbit. Planes and helicopters circled in the landing area.

At 10:57 a.m. Moscow time, 2:57 a.m. EST, 10 minutes after landing, pilots reported: "The object is visible on the ground, well visible, and the cosmonauts, three, beside it. They are walking about, walking briskly."

★ ★ ★

Scientists, engineers and cosmonauts at the control post embraced and congratulated each other, Tass said.

STUDY EFFECTS

The announcement of the space ship's purpose, made after it was launched yesterday from a "cosmodrome" 1,250 miles southeast of Moscow, said it would study medical reactions during "a long flight." How long was never stated.

The traditional Soviet silence on what the Russians are planning to do in space—contrasted with volumes of prepared information poured forth as soon as something is done—bid an answer to questions whether Voskhod had made as long a flight as originally planned.

Informed sources had pointed out the highly eliptical orbit of the craft —ranging from 110 to 255 miles above the earth — as indicating it could not stay up too long.

★ ★ ★

The record for a single-man space-ship, set by Lt. Col. Valery F. Bykovsky of the Soviet Union in June 1963, is five days and 81 orbits.

GIANT NEW STEP

Western sources here generally agreed that the Soviet Union had achieved a giant new step into space.

UAW, AMC Split as Strike Looms

Profit-Sharing Key in Car Talks

DETROIT (AP) — Negotiations between American Motors Corp. and the United Auto Workers union came down to one simple question today:

Does the sole profit-sharing contract in the automotive industry survive or does it die?

Working against a Thursday deadline, the company said, in effect, let it die.

The union, on the other hand, said let's keep it alive.

This, however, was not the only trouble spot in the automotive industry.

STILL STRIKEBOUND

General Motors Corp., kingpin of the auto makers, still was strikebound.

Only 45 of the 130 at-the-plant settlements required to supplement the previously negotiated national contract had been reached. That left 85 to go.

Ford, which also had agreed on a national contract and had settled on most at-the-plant supplements with the UAW, got a strike call from an unexpected source, the Pattern Makers League of North American (AFL-CIO).

★ ★ ★

Both company and pattern-maker sources agreed that a prolonged strike by this tiny union — with a membership of less than 700 within Ford's 160,000 hourly rated employes — could take Ford out of 1965 model production.

ISSUES IN DISPUTE

Wages, seniority and job security, above levels of the Ford-UAW contract, were at issue.

★ ★ ★

There appeared little chance the Sept. 25th GM walkout would be ended before next week.

Stalemate continued on the American Motors front. The company said the union was asking the same settlement it reached with the big three plus profit sharing.

The UAW denied this. It said it was willing to give up the equivalent it agreed to forego in 1961 to win profit sharing.

LBJ Sticking to Torrid Pace

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, elated over the results of his first full-scale campaign trip, says he will maintain a torrid pace until the Nov. 3 election.

★ ★ ★

It's not that Johnson fears defeat. But he makes clear he doesn't want to leave anything to chance — and big crowds prove a powerful lure for him.

The President returned to Washington early today from Boise, Idaho, last stop in a six-day, 10,000-mile campaign trip through 15 states from shore to shore.

He will be hitting the trail again Wednesday for two days in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and New York.

★ ★ ★

After that he'll be off for Ohio, then, Texas and, very likely, other western states.

AIMED AT BARRY

Stumping through the Rocky Mountain states Monday, Johnson took direct aim at Barry Goldwater, the Ku Klux Klan and the John Birch Society.

★ ★ ★

Goldwater was a target in every appearance, but never by name; he was "our opponent" or "one candidate."

Barry Raps Johnson on 'Space Lag'

TOPEKA, Kan. (UPI) — Sen. Barry M. Goldwater today demanded "a major redirection" of U.S. space efforts in light of what he called "the shocking news" about a multipassenger Soviet orbital flight.

★ ★ ★

The Republican presidential candidate said this in leveling a broad scale attack on President Johnson as "a part-time President" who is out politicking while "major crises . . . are burning."

Goldwater accused Johnson of activities ranging from "a political travesty of the Lord's Day" to giving a short 10-minute shrift to Philippines President Diosdado Macapagal in San Francisco Sunday.

"Because of his full-time politicking, we now have a part-time President," Goldwater declared. "We have a part-time President when we are faced with full-time and full-scale problems."

★ ★ ★

Goldwater's remarks were in a speech prepared for delivery at a rally in front of the State House at Topeka, Kan.

Mild Temperatures for Next Few Days

A welcome warming trend has come to the area, with lows expected tonight from 42 to 47 and highs tomorrow from 67 to 72. Mild temperatures are also forecast for Thursday.

And what will skies be like? Generally fair, says the weatherman.

★ ★ ★

Today in Pontiac and surrounding areas, winds are west to southwesterly at six to 12 miles per hour.

Forty-two was the low mercury reading this morning. The temperature at 1 p.m. was a pleasant 61.

Judge Beer Voids Hanger Promotion

Circuit Court Judge William J. Beer ruled today that the appointment of Pontiac Acting Police Chief William K. Hanger as inspector "is void and of no legal significance."

Three Pontiac police officers filed a lawsuit against Hanger in June, six months after he was named inspector —a rank second only to that of chief.

Beer based his ruling on the City Charter which states that three persons must be involved in appointments and promotions in the police department. He said that only Hanger and the city manager were involved.

Press Section Features United Fund Activities

In recognition of tonight's kickoff of the 1964 Pontiac Area United Fund campaign, readers will find a special section in today's Press devoted to UF activities.

Included in the section are articles on several agencies supported by United Fund contributions and a campaign-opening statement by Bruce J. Annett, general chairman of this year's drive.

Artist Friend of Jackie Slain on Afternoon Stroll

WASHINGTON (AP) — Georgetown artist Mary Pinchot Meyer was shot to death yesterday as she took a sunny afternoon walk along the path of an old canal where she often had strolled with Mrs. John F. Kennedy.

Mrs. Meyer, who would have been 44 tomorrow, was a niece of Gifford Pinchot, two-term governor of Pennsylvania, and the daughter of Amos Pinchot, a founder of the Bull Moose party.

Robbery apparently was the motive, police said.

Within an hour, Raymond Crump Jr., a 25-year-old Washington laborer recently released from a 60-day term for petty larceny, was arrested and charged with the slaying. A father of five, he denied the shooting.

Police found no purse or wallet and did not know if the victim, dressed casually in slacks and sneakers was carrying one.

★ ★ ★

Scuba divers searched the C&O Canal and the nearby Potomac River for the murder weapon.

HEARD SCREAM

Henry Wiggins, 24, told police he was driving his tow truck along the canal when he heard a scream and saw a woman struggling with a man. As Wiggins got out of his truck he heard two shots. When he reached the retaining wall above the canal he saw a man on the other side leaning over the woman.

Commission to Air City Income Tax

A city income tax similar to those of other Michigan cities may be in the offering for Pontiac residents and workers.

Faced with an expected austerity budget for 1965, City Commissioners are slated to consider introducing an income tax ordinance at their regular meeting at 9 tonight.

The ordinance, if eventually enacted, would provide:

- A one per cent tax on the income of Pontiac residents and corporations.
- A ½ per cent levy on the income of nonresidents working in the city.
- A similar ½ per cent on the income of Pontiac residents working in another city, like Detroit, with an income tax already.

Tonight's agenda will include a public statement by Mayor William H. Taylor, Jr., on the commission's action toward an income tax.

★ ★ ★

The state law on the subject will also be explained.

CAN'T ADOPT

The measure cannot be officially adopted until next week's meeting.

The commission meeting begins an hour later than usual because of Pontiac Area United Fund kickoff ceremonies.

Almost since taking office last April, the seven City Commissioners have publicly and privately expressed concern for the city's financial state, citing the "critical need for added revenue."

★ ★ ★

In order to enact a Pontiac City income tax for 1965, the commission must pass the necessary ordinance by Nov. 1, according to state law.

CHANCE TO PETITION

Then, city residents have until Dec. 15 to petition for a referendum on the question. Petitions must be signed by 10 per cent of the total vote in the immediate past municipal election.

★ ★ ★

Without a call for an election, the income tax would take effect Jan. 1.

★ ★ ★

If petitions are filed for a referendum, the commission must set a date between Feb. 1 and March 20 for a special election.

If the tax goes to a public vote and is approved, the effective date would be July 1.

City Commissioners informally have directed the city manager to prepare figures on the city's financial condition by Oct. 30, the last date the commission could repeal the ordinance.

In other business on tonight's agenda, a proposal by Sheldon Goldman for a second housing project in urban renewal R20 will be up for approval.

★ ★ ★

The commission also will give formal consideration to an extension of an agreement with Pontiac Transit Corp. for bus service in the city through Dec. 31.

Romney, Staebler Trade Word Blows

record of action is one of election - year showmanship only. This is not progress."

ECONOMIC GROWTH

Romney—"If the argument is sound that national policy and trends control Michigan's economy and state conditions are not significant, then why did Michigan fail to keep pace with the nation in the '50s?...

"In the 1950s, Michigan's percentage of unemployment was consistently greater than the national average. Since early 1963, Michigan's percentage of unemployment has been consistently below the national average . . ."

Industrial plant expansion so far this year is almost five times that for all of 1962. Michigan's improvement in personal income has jumped from 47th place among all states to first place."

* * *

Staebler—"It is ridiculous to claim we manufacture our own prosperity. Michigan's prosperity comes from national prosperity...The health of our national economy directly determines the health of our Michigan economy.

* * *

"It is true that state revenues have shown in the last few years a gain of $142 million.. This improvement in our state treasury came from a package of Republican nuisance taxes which took effect five months before Romney took office...It has yielded $77 million per year, producing more than $150 million.

PUBLIC FINANCING

Romney—"We have under way a $200 million building program for necessary buildings at our schools, hospitals and other state activities—and all on a straight pay-as-we-grow basis which is saving us $130 million in interest..I don't know of any company that borrows when it has a surplus."

* * *

Staebler—"In government, as in business, the prudent use of credit—the "pay as you use" policy — to finance long-range improvements is good business ...If we do not build the facilities to meet our pressing needs we will compound our already serious problems among our young people."

FEDERAL — STATE RELATIONSHIPS

Romney—"While I oppose the tendency to rely upon the federal government for all financing and solutions to all state problems, I have vigorously supported Michigan participation in federal programs once established."

* * *

Staebler—"I am not afraid of the federal government...George Romney's cooperation has been limited to these few weeks of this year's election campaign. He is a leap year liberal."

EDUCATION

Romney—"We have increased state support for local school budgets by $52 million and reversed the declining percentage of state aid."

* * *

Staebler—"Among the top eight industrial states, only Illinois last year had a poorer record of per pupil support for higher education than Michigan. When we have money as we do now, this is failure."

WELFARE

Romney—"Government exists to help people in those areas where they cannot help themselves individually or through cooperation and private enterprise."

Staebler—"Both Romney and Goldwater resist the idea that government has a responsibility to care for those who cannot care for themselves."

Meanwhile, the GOP released a tentative schedule for a two-day visit to Michigan by former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Nixon will arrive Thursday night at Benton Harbor, but will not begin campaigning until Friday morning at a GOP finance breakfast in Stevensville.

From there, he will fly to Lansing for a news conference and fund-raising luncheon, then go to Negaunee and Ishpeming.

At Negaunee, Nixon is scheduled to hold another news conference and at Ishpeming he will attend a reception and dinner at the National Guard Armory. Later that night he will fly to Detroit, but no appearances are scheduled.

POUNDING AWAY

In the senatorial campaign, Sen. Philip Hart continued to pound away at GOP Presidential candidate Barry Goldwater, rather than his opponent, Mrs. Elly Peterson.

Speaking to the 18th District Democrats in the Detroit suburb of Berkley, Hart said putting Goldwater in charge of our international relations would be like sending Billy the Kid in to negotiate a cattleman's dispute.

"A peaceful solution would appear unlikely," he said.

Mrs. Peterson told a luncheon of the Military Order of World Wars in Detroit that winning the war against the Communist guerrillas requires the placing of seasoned officers from the SEATO nations in command of Vietnamese strike forces.

She said the Vietnamese army is not fighting because too many of its officers "are politicians who would rather stay where it is safe and jockey for power than root out the Communists."

BANK OPENING — Participating in the opening of the new Pontiac State Bank branch at 2205 S. Telegraph, yesterday were, Homer Case, Bloomfield Township supervisor; Milo J. Cross, president, Pontiac State Bank; Arno L. Hulet, Bloomfield Township treasurer, and Marvin Talan, manager of the Lion store.

Pontiac State Bank Opens New Branch

A new branch office of Pontiac State Bank, at 2205 S. Telegraph, near Bloomfield Miracle Mile Shopping Center was officially opened yesterday.

* * *

This is the fourth new office of Pontiac State Bank to be opened since May 4 of this year, according to Milo J. Cross, president. There are now a total of eight branches in operation, Cross added.

Participating in the brief ribbon-cutting ceremonies were township officials, business leaders and bank officers.

All four of the new offices are of Early American design and offer complete banking service.

* * *

The new Bloomfield Miracle Mile office has new hours, opening from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, and from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Wednesday and Saturday.

TWO WINDOWS

Cross also explained that there are two drive-in windows at the new office.

Larry Bowman, 1331 Jeffwood Waterford Township, is manager of the new office. He has been with the bank in managerial capacities for several years.

* * *

Pontiac State has had a branch office in the rear area of the Bloomfield Miracle Mile since 1957, and moved to the new office on Telegraph to obtain more free parking area and easier accessibility for customers.

Rough Seas in Florida Gulf

Coast Guard Busy as Storm Effect Felt

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Rough seas churned by tropical storm Isbell kept the Coast Guard on the run today, dropping pumps to leaky fishing boats off the Florida Gulf Coast.

"A lot of boats are getting banged around and springing leaks," said a Coast Guard spokesman at St. Petersburg. "We dropped so many pumps, we ran out. Since then, it's been a race getting a pump back from one vessel in time to get it to another one."

A conflict between Isbell and a cold front stalled over the Florida Straits brought the worsening weather over Florida.

As the warm air of the tropical storm encountered the cool front, it was forced upward to condense into rain. A deluge hit South Florida yesterday and heavy rain was falling today in the Florida Keys.

* * *

As the seas roughened with the slow advance of the storm up from the Caribbean Sea, small craft sailors south of Tampa Bay and Cape Kennedy were warned to stick close to port.

GALE WINDS

A slow increase in intensity was forecast as Isbell moves across Cuba's extreme western province of Pinar del Rio into the Florida Straits.

Gale winds, high tides, rough seas and heavy rain were predicted for the province.

Winds in the Florida Keys will begin building up this afternoon or tonight, the Weather Bureau said.

Highest winds were estimated at 50 miles an hour in squalls around the poorly defined eye of the storm. It was moving on a north-northeast course at five miles an hour.

Recommend Selling County TB Hospital

A recommendation to sell the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium was adopted yesterday by the ways and means committee of the Board of Supervisors.

* * *

The recommendation was included in a lengthy report submitted by a special committee consisting of Daniel T. Murphy, chairman of the County Board of Auditors; Dr. Bernard D. Berman, county health director; and George H. Williams, social welfare director.

* * *

The committee's recommendation was based on a study of the costs of converting the TB sanatorium into a facility for the care of nontubercular patients.

The sanatorium has operated at a loss in recent years because of a decline in the number of TB patients.

Converting the sanatorium to a subacute hospital, without emergency, surgery or obstetrical facilities, has been considered because of a steadily increasing caseload of aging and chronically ill patients who are being cared for at county expense.

* * *

Seven alternatives were considered by the special committee, six of which included various types of remodeling of the 160-bed main building, nurses' home and boiler house.

COSTS RANGE

Costs ranged from a high of $789,040, which would have brought all three buildings up to state and federal standards for a subacute hospital and increased the capacity to 200 beds, to a low of $310,000, which would have improved the main building only and decreased capacity to 150 beds.

* * *

The seventh alternative, and final recommendation of the committee, was to "phase out" current operation of the sanatorium, disposing of it when feasible, and convert the proceeds of the sale to construction of a new medical care facility in the County Service Center.

The ways and means committee will ask the buildings and grounds committee to obtain an appraisal of the 80-acre site, which is located at 7350 Cooley Lake, in Waterford Township.

* * *

The State of Michigan offered $1,750,000 for the facility in 1956 when it was being considered for use as a children's mental hospital.

Man Is Hurt Critically in 2-Car Crash

A Rose Township man is in critical condition with internal injuries at Pontiac General Hospital following an auto accident last night in Highland Township.

* * *

Russell Hobbs, 20, 8238 Fish Lake, was hurt when his car collided head-on with a vehicle driven by Sharon A. Horton, 17, 569 Broadway, Davisburg.

Miss Horton, who was treated and released from the hospital, told deputies she was traveling east on Highland road when she saw Hobbs' car which was heading west, cross the center line into the east bound lane.

Penny J. Eldred, 19, 358 Broadway, Davisburg, a passenger in Miss Horton's car, is in satisfactory condition with a broken leg at General Hospital.

* * *

Deputies said Hobbs drivers' license had been revoked, and the car he was driving had no license plates.

20 Search in Ontario for Michigan Hunter

WHITE RIVER, Ont. (AP) — About 20 men searched near a lake 15 miles north of here Monday for Bernard Tillman, 36, of Grand Rapids, Mich., who disappeared last Wednesday on a moose hunting expedition with James Tietema, 36, also of Grand Rapids.

Two bloodhounds owned by Tom Murphy of Kingston arrived Sunday night but were unable to join the search because of four inches of wet snow. Snow also canceled out a planned search by plane.

Queen Closes Canada Visit

Returns to England, Philip Goes Hunting

OTTAWA (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II, booed by separatists in French-speaking Quebec but warmly welcomed by Ottawans, ended her eight-day visit to Canada today and left for Britain.

* * *

The queen was aboard an Air Canada DC8 jetliner, which took off at 9:18 a.m.

Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson and a crowd of about 1,400 cheering persons turned out at the airport in the rain to bid farewell to the monarch.

Pearson said the queen "thanked us for inviting her and said she greatly enjoyed the trip."

* * *

A reporter asked Pearson to comment on the queen's visit. Obviously referring to the booing she received from French separatists in Quebec, Pearson replied:

A GREAT QUEEN

"She behaved magnificently. She's a great queen."

Prince Philip left first. The queen's husband took off to spend the day hunting snow geese on a privately owned island off Ile D'Orleans in the St. Lawrence River.

Then he will board the royal yacht Britannia for a tour of the Caribbean.

* * *

Three members of the Royal Canadian Air Force guard of honor fainted while awaiting the arrival of the queen at the airport.

She reached the airfield about 20 minutes behind schedule. Her car had slowed on the way so that she could acknowledge the cheers of thousands of persons lining the departure route.

Schedule Exam in City Slaying

Examination has been scheduled Oct. 21 for Leroy Brutton, 30, of 301 S. Jessie, who was arraigned yesterday in Circuit Court on a charge of murder.

Brutton is accused of killing Ernest Whisenton, 41, of 15 Beaudette.

Whisenton was found Friday night by Pontiac Police in an alley between 88 and 92 Bagley. He had been beaten and was unconscious. He died Saturday in Pontiac General Hospital from head injuries.

Police said witnesses told them that Brutton threw a brick which struck Whisenton in the back of the head.

* * *

Brutton was arrested at 5:30 p. m. Saturday.

The motive for the slaying is not known at this time, Detective Sergeant John E. DePauw said.

City Gambling $1,000 Before Big Sewer Work

BIRMINGHAM —City commissioners last night decided to gamble $1,000 before considering a proposed $180,000 relief sewer project for the Chester-Wallace area.

A hearing of necessity on the drain had been scheduled before the commission on the request of Henry Fenske, owner of a four-family apartment at Brown and Chester, who complained of flooded basements in the building.

Before the hearing began, however, Commissioner Carl Ingraham suggested that Fenske undertake on his own one of several recommendations of the city engineering department to alleviate the problem.

According to City Engineer William Killeen, the flooding might be eliminated by connecting the building service to a nearby sanitary sewer. He could offer no guarantee that this would work.

* * *

If it fails to solve the problem, commissioners agreed that the city would reimburse Fenske the estimated $700 - 1,000 he would have to spend for the tap-in.

PLEASED HOMEOWNERS

The tentative solution apparently was acceptable to home owners of the area who crowded the commission chambers to protest the relief sewer project. No opposition was voiced.

The proposed project had been before the commission previously and in June, 1962, it declared there was no necessity at the time for constructing the sewer.

The sewer, according to the engineering department, eventually will be needed to serve the area generally bounded by Southfield, Lincoln, Pierce and Merrill.

* * *

Based on a postcard survey in 1962, only 40 of the 331 property owners responding reported basement flooding.

COST $250 - $315

At that time the average cost to a home owner was estimated at $250 to $315, depending on whether the city would assume 20 per cent of the total cost as was done in the Purdy Relief and Cherry Court sewers.

The Birmingham Lions Club will present "Curtain Time with Don Baker" tonight in the auditorium of Wylie E. Groves High School.

* * *

The evening of popular and semiclassical organ music will begin at 8:30 p.m. Tickets can be purchased from local Lions.

Joseph F. Dworski

Service for Joseph F. Dworski, 52, of 3311 Dogwood, Bloomfield Township, was to be 3 p. m. today at Manley Bailey Funeral Home, Birmingham, with burial following in Greenwood Cemetery.

Mr. Dworski died unexpectedly Sunday.

A Birmingham architect, he was a member of the American Institute of Architects.

Surviving are his wife, Dorothy, and a brother.

2nd Day in 'Battle of Bargain'

GLENS FALLS, N.Y. (AP) — Two determined, young mothers battling over an English-made bicycle on sale for $10 planted their feet on the bike today for a second day of their "tug-of-war."

Mrs. Roger Edwards and Mrs. Merwyn Pasco, who both like to ride, held onto the bright blue racer for 12 hours yesterday and declared they would do the same today, if necessary, "as a matter of principle."

Today, store manager Melvin Smith made them comfortable in lawn chairs in a corner of his store and supplied newspapers and coffee. Mrs. Pasco propped her legs on the rear wheel, and Mrs. Edwards put her feet on the front wheel.

"We feel he (Smith) should be man enough to give us each one, in view of the publicity," Mrs. Pasco told a reporter.

* * *

"I never interfere with two women shoppers," said Smith, grinning.

SOME INDICATION

There were indications he might give them bikes eventually, however.

Mrs. Edwards, mother of four and wife of an assistant master mechanic at a paper mill, told a reporter:

"There's no quarrel actually, but being a woman, I'm very stubborn."

* * *

Both women are in their 30s.

And how do their husbands feel? Impartial, said Mrs. Pasco. Said Mrs. Edwards:

* * *

"They took one look last night and walked off and left us. Like most husbands, I guess."

Space Crew Lands Safely

its Gemini series early next year.

The U.S. Air Force was ordered last Dec. 10 to begin developing a manned orbiting laboratory that apparently would more nearly compare with Voskhod than the smaller Gemini series. But that laboratory is not expected to go into orbit until late 1967 or early 1968.

* * *

Explorers of space in both the Soviet Union and the United States have realized the importance of obtaining further knowledge about effects of prolonged space flight of human beings. One-man trips have shown problems such as low blood pressure and temporary instability.

FLIGHT PURPOSE

Purposes of the Voskhod flight were announced as checking the new spaceship and the way the three men worked together, investigating scientific and physical conditions of space flight, and:

"To continue the study of the effects of different factors of space flight on man's organism and to carry out extended medicobiological research in the conditions of a long flight."

Riding with Komarov were scientist Konstantin Feoktistov and Dr. Boris Yegorov.

The Russians announced the landing at "a preassigned spot" in the Soviet Union 75 minutes after the ship had returned to earth.

MEDICAL RESEARCH

Aside from the announced general purposes of the flight — to test a multiseat spacecraft and conduct further medical research — only skimpy details were disclosed.

The Russians said a powerful new rocket launched the craft, but did not elaborate.

* * *

They gave no indication of the size of the capsule, although it apparently was larger and more advanced than anything the United States has fired aloft.

* * *

Soviet Premier Khrushchev promised the three cosmonauts a boisterous Moscow reception.

"Be ready for the overloading which we'll arrange for you after you come back to earth," the premier said.

Mrs. Walter High, Gallogly Road, starts on her rounds as the United Fund drive opens today.

Women Start UF Campaigning

Brought together for a common cause, the Pontiac Area United Fund, women volunteers from Pontiac, Auburn Heights and Pontiac Township, Lake Angeius, Waterford Village, Drayton Plains and Waterford Township, Clarkston and Independence Township, and most recently, Lake Orion and Orion Township will be contacting residences and small businesses in their respective areas in an attempt to raise $31,69.83 for the women's division campaign.

★ ★ ★

The volunteers in the Pontiac area will be attempting to reach a goal of $10,476.40. Those in the Waterford area will be trying for $10,473.93, and the volunteers in Independence Township, $4,018.58.

★ ★ ★

Lake Angelus women seek to raise $3,914 and those in Orion Township are striving for $2,815.92.

Area chairmen, district chairmen and solicitors hope to reach and possibly go over their goals in only a 10 day period. The drive ends Oct. 23.

Mrs. Merrill D. Petrie is women's campaign committee chairman. Directly assisting her are Mrs. David Saks for Pontiac, Mrs. Adrian Ish for Waterford, Mrs. James Cowen for Independence, Mrs. Floyd H. Foren for Lake Angelus, and Mrs. Martin L. Parker for Lake Orion.

Husbands and sons pitch in to help when the lady of the house goes campaigning for the Pontiac Area United Fund. Mrs. John Milleur, Independence district No. 6 chairman living on Frankwill Street, shows her appreciation with a kiss as son Charles carefully wipes a cup.

Knows Cost of Everything, but the 'Value' of Nothing

DEAR ABBY: My husband is a very good provider, but he has made money his god. He thinks he can do no wrong as long as he isn't taking the bread out of his family's mouth.

ABBY

I caught him with another woman, and he said, "So what? I've never spent a dollar on her. She pays for everything!"

When he drinks, he thinks it is all right because he has an expense account and can drink on company money.

He has never denied me anything I want, I will say that for him.

But I wish I could get it through his head that I would rather have more of HIM and less of his money.

BIG SHOT'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Since he has never denied you anything, ask him for one more personal favor.

Ask him to lay out $25 an hour for a psychiatrist's explanation of why he thinks a fat bank account buys him immunity from decent behavior.

In this way his "god" could really help him.

———

DEAR ABBY: When a fellow asks a girl for a date, is it all right for the girl to ask him where they are going?

Also when a girl and her date go to different schools and their schools play each other in basketball or football, whose side do they sit on?

Please put your answers in the paper as I am having a big argument with somebody over the answers.

O. O.

DEAR O. O.: Yes, it is proper for a girl to ask the boy where they are going.

How else would she know whether to dress for a movie or a wiener roast?

They sit on the boy's side. He's the host — unless, of course, she has come up with the tickets.

———

DEAR ABBY: How can you tell someone that he eats like it is his last meal on earth?

Abby, I am so embarrassed when we have company, or when we are invited to someone's house for a meal.

★ ★ ★

The noise that is made by that man when he is chewing and swallowing is just terrible.

He sounds like an animal. I can't tell him because he is my father.

★ ★ ★

DEAR EMBARRASSED: You are right. You can't. But your mother can.

Why don't you tell her to tell him? It is a perfectly legitimate complaint.

City Women's Club Meets

Junior Pontiac Women's Club met for dinner Monday at Holiday Inn. Mrs. Noel Swindler of Commerce, a member of the National Story League, provided the evening's program.

★ ★ ★

The social committee consisted of Mrs. Frank Williamson, Mrs. Leland Martin, Mrs. Ralph Derragon, and Mrs. Bradley Scott.

★ ★ ★

Others were Mrs. Charles Ball, Mrs. George Waters and Mrs. Albert Games.

Squirrels in Coats

Squirrel, in horizontally worked jackets, petite coats, great coats, some in the new amber shades, are beautiful and bargains besides for the woman who wants a fashionable yet comfortable cold-weather wrap.

Four From Area at Class Reunion

Attending the Nazareth College reunion Saturday in Kalamazoo were Mr. and Mrs. James F. Peters of Maiden Road and Mrs. Charles Stark of Lake Orion.

★ ★ ★

Highlight of the festivities was the appearance of Hollywood star, Agnes Moorehead, as guest speaker.

Set YW Open House

The Beaudette home on the corner of West Huron Street and Franklin Boulevard will be opened to YWCA members and other interested Pontiac residents Wednesday at 2:30 p.m.

The Pontiac YWCA which hopes to buy the house for its new quarters is sponsoring the event.

Mrs. Donald Porritt, membership chairman, and Miss Alice Serrell, campaign chairman, along with YW officers, will conduct a tour of the four floors of usable space in the mansion.

Tom Aston, director of theater at Oakland University, and a group of students will present a program of folk songs.

Refreshments will be served in the Y's present building.

Name Pair Chairmen for LBJ

Mrs. William T. Gossett of Birmingham and Mrs. Ben Mills of Bloomfield Hills will serve as cochairmen of the "Women For Johnson" of Oakland County.

★ ★ ★

As a daughter of Charles Evans Hughes, (Republican presidential nominee in 1916, U.S. Secretary of State, 1921-25; and Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, 1930-41), Elizabeth Hughes Gossett is well acquainted with political activities.

Mrs. Ben Mills, wife of a Ford vice president, has spent much time working for the Merrill Palmer Institute and Camp Oakland.

Officers for the "Women for Johnson" are at 144 West Maple, Birmingham in the Quarton Building.

Lace for the Bath

Elegance for the bathroom comes in a white Chantilly lace shower curtain with a scalloped edge and ruffled valance. Its vinyl liner is in a choice of pastels.

Honeymoon in the North Follows Rite

The Thomas Clark Davises (Betty Lynn Hamelback) left for a northern trip after their recent vows and reception in St. Paul's Methodist Church, Rochester.

Rev. Douglas Parker used a ring worn by the bride's late grandmother, Mrs. C. J. Jones, in the evening ceremony.

White silk bombazine and Chantilly lace fashioned a bouffant gown and Watteau train for the daughter of the Grela Hamelbacks of Mt. Vernon Road, Washington Township.

White orchids and Stephanotis rested on her grandmother's white Bible and a Swedish tiara held the bridal veil of illusion.

With Dianne Schell, honor maid, were bridesmaids Mrs. Tom Powell, Linda Jones, Mrs. Richard Bearss and Michelle Matthews, junior maid.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Morse of Rochester, had Richard Bearss for best man. Ushers were Tom Powell, Robert Newton and Lee Smith.

Mart Moves Irregularly

Selected Issues in Demand

NEW YORK (AP) — Selected issues were in demand as the stock market moved irregularly early today. Trading was moderate.

★ ★ ★

General Motors was off a fraction as the GM strike continued. Chrysler also lost a fraction. Other motors were mixed. Steels also were scrambled, Jones & Laughlin picking up nearly a point while U. S. Steel eased.

SMALL GAINS

A string of small gains was displayed by most nonferrous metals, airlines and aerospace stocks.

Opening blocks included: Studebaker, up ¾ at 7¾ on 7,000 shares.

Monday the Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose .1 to 329.3, a new high.

Wolverines Healthy; MSU Nursing Wounds

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan coach Bump Elliott reported no serious injuries Monday praised the Wolverines defense in the wake of Michigan's 17-10 victory over Michigan State Saturday.

★ ★ ★

Right halfback Carl Ward bruised his hand and did not practice but was expected to be ready for Saturday's game with Purdue.

"The defense gets so much credit for the game," Elliott said. "Three times the offensive team gave up the ball in a spot. We would have had no chance to come back had not the defense played well."

FIRST STRINGER

End John Henderson, who caught Michigan's last minute touchdown pass against State, practiced with the first string after a two-week stint with the second string.

★ ★ ★

Elliott said he will alternate Henderson with Craig Kirby, possibly starting Henderson against Purdue.

WOUNDED SPARTANS

EAST LANSING (AP) — Coaches were shuffling positions at Michigan State today following a rash of injuries in the 17-10 loss to Michigan.

End Doug Roberts is expected to be out for two weeks and guard Ed Macuga was a doubtful starter against Indiana—the next opponent. Both have knee injuries.

★ ★ ★

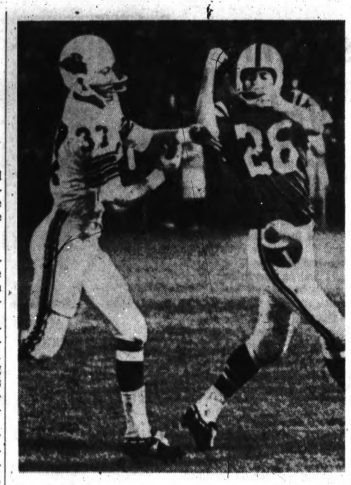

Still sub-par physically, although both played against the Wolverines, were guard Ron Goovert and tackle Don Bierowicz.

Guard Rahn Bentley was being switched from offense to defense to help plug up one hole. Sophomore Jerry West is being moved up. Tackle Jerry Rush is being asked to play some defense as well as his regular offensive slot.

Coach Duffy Daugherty wasn't under-rating Indiana although the Hoosiers are three-time losers, to Northwestern, Ohio State and Iowa.

★ ★ ★

The workout was heavier than usual Monday. The first and second offenses were run against a reserve team using Indiana defenses.

MUSCLED DOWN — Baltimore Colt halfback Jimmy Orr (right) and defensive halfback Pat Fisher fight for a pass which falls incomplete at the St. Louis 30 yard line in their game last night in Baltimore. The Colts whipped the Cardinals, 47-27 to keep first place in the Western Division.

McCarver Overshadows Gibson

Slugger Always in Hero's Role

NEW YORK (AP) — The slugger gets the nod every time. Which is another way of saying that catcher Tim McCarver, who walloped a game-winning three-run homer in the 10th inning for the St. Louis Cardinals, was the hero of Monday's fifth World Series game instead of pitcher Bob Gibson.

★ ★ ★

Forgotten was the fact that Gibson shut out the Yankees for eight innings, struck out 13, scored the first Cardinal run and made a great fielding play in the ninth after McCarver belted his homer with two on for the 5-2 victory and a 3-2 lead in the Series.

McCarver, a 22-year-old, 195-pounder from Memphis, struck out with the bases loaded in the first inning and tapped weakly back to the pitcher in the fourth inning. He singled in the sixth and singled again in the eighth.

DIDN'T SINK

So when he came up in the 10th with men on first and third and one out, reliever Pete Mikkelsen worked on him carefully. The count went to 3-2 then Tim belted a sinker that didn't sink into the right field seats.

"We want McCarver, we want McCarver," chanted the crowd at the airport that welcomed the Cardinals back to St. Louis Monday night.

★ ★ ★

There was no mention of Gibson, the fire-balling right-hander, who should have had a 2-0 shutout except that Dick Groat's error on Mickey Mantle's grounder leading off the Yankee ninth opened the gates to two unearned runs and a tie score.

Gibson fanned Elston Howard with Mantle on first, then made a great play on Joe Pepitone's line drive back to the box. The ball hit Gibson on the hip and bounded toward the third base foul line.

HALF STEP

A former basketball player, the Omaha, Neb., 28-year-old raced towards the ball, picked it up, whirling as he did so and threw to first base to get Pepitone by a half step.

That brought up Tom Tresh and he whacked Gibson's first pitch into the center field bleachers at the 407-foot mark for a homer that tied the score.

"It was a fast ball down the middle," said Gibson, offering no excuse.

★ ★ ★

He had struck out Tresh with a fast ball in the seventh. Only, Tresh said, "That fast ball wasn't down the middle."

Never mind that McCarver never would have come to bat in the 10th except for Gibson's great play on Pepitone in the ninth. McCarver was the slugger who won the game and the hero's role.

Victory for Vanderbilt

Tackle's Toe Triumphs

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — The Vanderbilt Commodores, who had won only twice in 25 starts, badly needed a shot in the arm. What they got instead was a foot in the air that gave them their first football victory of the season.

★ ★ ★

Dick Lemay, a 220-pound defensive tackle from Columbia, Tenn., kicked three field goals last Saturday against Wake Forest — the last one with five seconds left to break a 6-6 deadlock.

He is the team's leading scorer and now is the Vandy record-holder for the most field goals in one game.

The story behind those kicks of 45, 39 and 26 yards began two years ago when Lemay began kicking because he was doing little else in practice.

JUST TIME

"I played just about everywhere but on the varsity my sophomore year," he said. "I had nothing but time on my hands, so I started doing some place-kicking. I had never done any in high school."

Lemay appeared to have "latent leg power," but no consistency, so Coach Jack Green suggested that he work on his kicking all summer.

★ ★ ★

Lemay took Green's suggestion and worked daily. His first chance came against Alabama, but the kick was short from 35 yards out. Then, he booted three against Wake Forest.

Vanderbilt hasn't scored a touchdown this fall, but a safety and Lemay's three field goals are on the books.

Three Unbeaten Teams in City Midget Play

Only three unbeaten teams remain in the city's midget football program following Saturday morning's action at Jaycee Park.

Two lightweight elevens, Wilson No. 1 and Bagley, kept their records spotless, and one heavyweight squad, Bagley-Bethune.

A total of 13 games were played The scores:

Win Rates Smiles, Too

Statistics Please Denver End

By The Associated Press

A funny thing happened in the American Football League Sunday — the Denver Broncos won their first victory in 15 games.

But pass catcher supreme Lionel Taylor has something else to smile about. He is back on top in AFL pass-receiving statistics, according to league figures released today.

Taylor, who has led the AFL in passes caught every one of the league's four years, snared nine passes in Denver's 33-27 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs, giving him a season total of 33 for five games. This put him two receptions ahead of Charley Hennigan of the Houston Oilers. In his career, Taylor has caught 380 passes for 4,879 yards —only 401 yards short of three miles.

KICK RETURNS

Two other members of the Bronco cast — Odell Barry and Jim Fraser — continued to pace the league in kickoff returns and punting, respectively.

Barry, a rookie, has averaged 38 yards on nine returns. Fraser, the league's punting champion the past two years, has booted 24 times for a 46.9 average.

★ ★ ★

Cookie Gilchrist of Buffalo has bulged his lead to almost 100 yards in the rushing department. He has picked up 408 yards compared to 310 run up by rookies Did Blanks of Houston and Matt Snell of New York.

Club 99, Pine Knob Lead Table Netters

Club 99 and Pine Knob have grabbed an early lead in the Pontiac Table Tennis league.

In opening matches last week, Pine Knob knocked off Harvey's Colonial House, 5-1, and Club 99 turned in a similar triumph over Clark's Drive-In.

★ ★ ★

In other matches, Kennerly defeated Anita Lettering, 4-2, and Crocker Candy downed Buettner Cleaners, 4-2.

Three pairings ended in deadlocks — Seaman Manufacturing and Doris Realty; A & W and Francis Field; and Pepsi Cola and Frostop.

Four Pontiac Cyclists Post Scramble Wins

Four Pontiac cyclists scored victories in motorcycle scramble races Sunday at Richmond.

★ ★ ★

Bob Spangler topped the field in the heavyweight expert class; Art Bentley led the heavyweight amateur division; Robert Wilson paced the amateur lightweight; and Thil White came home first in the extra lightweight class.

Waterford Driver 2nd in Marine City Race

Waterford's Sandra Lane finished second Sunday in the A Standard Class at the Marine City Go-Kart Track.

Mrs. Lane was a distant second to Lakeville's Lois Boylan in their class.

The Super Class saw Clarkston's John Keating finish second and Rochester's John Tessmer take third place.
