

Publisher Tells Program for New Facilities

Pontiac Press Publisher Harold A. Fitzgerald announced today a $1.5-million expansion plan for The Pontiac Press, designed to keep the newspaper growing with the expanding economy of the greater Pontiac area.

Seven Mark I Goss press units and a folder have been purchased and will be constructed and delivered by October 1963. They will be housed in a new section of The Press building adjacent to the existing north wall, running between Pine and Wayne streets.

Ground will be broken for the wing in May, it will be occupied by October, and the new presses will be in regular production by January 1964.

"Our last press equipment change was in 1948 when our circulation was 44,500," said Fitzgerald. "Now it has risen to 63,000."

The new presses, which have facilities for printing color, will produce 60,000 papers an hour.

Included in the plans for the 145-by-66-foot wing is room for further press expansion at a later date.

"This investment emphasizes our complete faith in the future of this area and its continued growth and development," the publisher said.

Included in the section will be room for plate-making in the stereotype department. The new brick and steel building was designed by Pontiac architect Howard L. Preston, AIA.

FOR MORE COLOR
The units will allow The Press to print more color, which it pioneered in Michigan, and also bring later news to its subscribers. The wing will create more space in the existing facilities, which will be expanded internally and modernized.

The modernized loading dock will continue to be on Pine street, and it will be large enough to handle eight trucks at one time.

Cost of the new presses is $900,000, with the building housing them costing $450,000 and modernization of existing building another $75,000.

Coast Guard Holds 6
for Sinking Boat

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Federal agents at the immigration detention center in suburban OpaLocka questioned six men about the sinking of an armed Cuban patrol boat today. The Coast Guard said the men made off with two wounded militiamen from the patrol boat.

The men were taken from Cay Sal, a British Isle in the Straits of Cuba, by a Coast Guard cutter last night. They had sought refuge at Cay Sal after the raid.

Immigration officials said the six would not be available to newsmen for questioning "for the present."

The Coast Guard cutter took the six to Key West last night and they were transported this morning to Miami.

Allies at Odds Over Berlin Policy

Seven Goss Press Units Similar to These Have Been Purchased

British Puzzled by U.S. Views

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES
LONDON — The western big powers appeared today to be in a new conflict over Berlin today.

The major differences involve their individual assessments of the present Berlin situation and of Soviet designs on the cold war city. The British are puzzled openly by official American suggestions that the Berlin crisis is likely to blow up next month.

British diplomats do not believe, as reports from Washington have been suggesting, that the Berlin dispute is likely to be inflated by the Kremlin to the danger point after the November elections in the United States.

British diplomats are in agreement with the United States that the Berlin situation remains very serious, but they expect Russia to launch a diplomatic offensive on Berlin rather than precipitate a showdown in the next few weeks.

In Washington, meanwhile, the United States has assured West Germany that it is determined to maintain the right of civilians as well as military access to West Berlin against any new Soviet attempt to isolate the city.

DEFINITE COMMITMENT
U. S. policy on this point is understood to have been stated emphatically to West German Foreign Minister Gerhard Schröder, who began strategy talks with Secretary of State Dean Rusk here yesterday.

Schröder will be followed by Washington Nov. 7 by West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer who wants to discuss the Berlin situation with President Kennedy in advance of a possible Kennedy meeting with Soviet Premier Khrushchev concerning Berlin.

The allies seem divided in three ways:
The United States apparently fears a sudden hardening of the Communist position, but Britain expects a fresh Soviet diplomatic offensive before any overt Moscow action.

The French and Germans appear unwilling at this point to discuss any new ideas for a Berlin settlement.

3 State GOP Senators Seek Review of Redistricting Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—Three Michigan Republican senators filed a petition in the U.S. Supreme Court today to review the decision of the Michigan Supreme Court in the State Senate reapportionment case.

The petition argued that the federal court's decision on the Tennessee case does not control the constitutional question presented in the Michigan case.

They said Michigan has established a clearly defined and workable formula for Senate districting in its constitution in an amendment approved by the voters in 1962.

Last July 18, the state court declared the 1962 reapportionment provision as unconstitutional because it violated the "equal protection under the law" provision of the federal constitution.

The suit, filed by AFL-CIO President August Scholle, contended that the Senate districts should be apportioned on a strict population basis.

In deciding in Scholle's favor, the state court ordered the legislature to reapportion the Senate on a formula outlined in the 1968 constitution, or face an at-large election.

STAY GRANTED
The three GOP senators appealed for a stay of final judgment which was granted July 27 by Justice Potter Stewart.

The Senators are Frank Beale of St. Clair, Paul Younger of Lansing and John Fitzgerald of Grand Ledge.

They declared:
"We're confident that the United States Supreme Court will rule that the equal protection clause of the federal Constitution does not require that electoral districts of both houses of a state legislature be based wholly on population."

Justice Dept. Requests
Barnett Fined $100,000

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The Justice Department asked the federal appeals court today to fine Mississippi Gov. Ross Barnett $100,000 for failing to purge himself of contempt in the James H. Meredith desegregation case.

And it asked the court to impose a daily fine of $10,000 in the future until Barnett complies fully with court orders in the case.

An attorney for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People urged the arrest of Barnett and Lt. Gov. Paul B. Johnson Jr. for contempt. The NAACP did not ask for a fine.

The suggestions of the Justice Department and the NAACP were included in briefs filed at the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals' request.

Attorneys for Barnett and Johnson also are to file briefs today.

Barnett and Johnson both were held in contempt of the court's desegregation orders for blocking the enrollment of Meredith, a 23-year-old Negro, at the all-white University of Mississippi.

But the court held off imposing any penalties, saying it would give them a chance to purge themselves.

The two should be held in the custody of the U.S. attorney general until they, among other things, notify in writing all Mississippi lawmen to maintain order around the desegregated University of Mississippi, Mrs. Motley said.

The Justice Department, in its brief, called for a fine of $10,000 against Barnett to cover the period from Oct. 2 to Oct. 13—the dates between contempt hearings.

UF Announces Division Goals

The Pontiac Area United Fund—rushing toward the 1962 campaign kickoff tomorrow—today listed the goals its corps of 4,000 volunteers will have to reach.

When the UF torch is lighted at 8:15 p.m. tomorrow at Oakland Avenue and Saginaw Streets, it will symbolize a total goal of $706,125 for 54 UF agencies.

The aim for the door-to-door women's campaign is $28,213; for the industrial division, $467,760; 410; Brandon Township, $1,700; Independence Township, $5,000; Orion Township, $4,000 and Oxford Township $6,222.

Pontiac and Waterford Townships and the city itself are covered within divisional goals.

The drive will continue through Nov. 9.

Helicopters Help Dry Grass

6th World Series Game Is On

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Commissioner Ford Frick said the sixth World Series game definitely will be played today.

The park outfield grass remained wet and helicopters were called in to try to dry it. Frick was soft in the rain-soaked turf, but Frick said it would be playable.

The game was scheduled to start at noon — 3 p.m. Pontiac Time.

At the time Frick made his inspection, the groundskeepers had not been able to mow the high grass in the outfield because of the wet conditions. By game time, the grass had to be mowed or rolled.

Frick said there probably would be no preliminary practice in the outfield.

Veteran left-handers Billy Pierce of the San Francisco Giants and Whitey Ford of the New York Yankees were picked to pitch in today's game, which starts at noon (2 p.m. EST).

The Yankees lead the autumn baseball classic, three games to two, and a victory today would bring them their 26th series title in the last 40 years.

Help 8 Escape East Germany

Two Refugees Return for Friends

BERLIN (AP) — Eight East German refugees savored their first full day of freedom in West Berlin today because two friends returned for them after making their own escape three weeks ago.

One of the four women in the group collapsed with emotion when she reached the West Sunday and was reunited with her parents. The woman had spent six months in jail for an earlier unsuccessful attempt to flee.

Names of the refugees were withheld to prevent reprisals against relatives and friends in East Germany.

The refugees told this story:
Two men, who escaped three weeks ago, decided after long discussions in a refugee center that they would try to return for their friends.

They swam a stretch of water on the border Saturday, cut through barbed wire on the east bank and went to the home of a friend. There they met three men, two girls and two married couples. All said they were willing to make the escape attempt.

One of the two leaders warned: "Whoever loses his nerve, screams or anything, we'll knock him unconscious and drag him with us. There's only one thing for us to get through."

To Hear Case on Immigration

High Court to Rule on McCarran-Walter Act

From Our News Wires
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court agreed today to hear a case challenging whether the McCarran-Walter Immigration Law unconstitutionally discriminates between naturalized and native-born citizens.

In a brief session on the third Monday of its fall term, the court decided to hear the appeal of Mrs. Angelika Schneider, who is fighting to retain status as a naturalized U.S. citizen despite extended residence in Germany.

A lower court had ruled that she must forfeit her U.S. citizenship because she has lived more than three years in Germany, her native country.

The McCarran-Walter Immigration law of 1952 holds that a naturalized citizen forfeits his citizenship if he lives for three years in the country of his birth or for five years in any other country.

Mrs. Schneider was born in Bavaria in 1904, came to this country at age 5, and became a citizen at 16 when her mother was naturalized. After graduating from Smith College in 1934, she went to Europe. In Paris, she met a German attorney, Dieter Schneider. Now married, they live in Cologne with their three children.

agreed, joint allied position on Berlin in the event Khrushchev decides to sign the new threatened peace treaty with the Communist East Germans.

The British don't think he will, at least not this fall. The Americans apparently are not sure.

One of the difficulties, according to diplomatic observers here, is the adamant stand of France which has refused to contemplate any negotiations with the Russians.

West Germany's attitude is obscured by differing pronouncements resulting from evident intergovernmental divergencies in Bonn.

The British think there must be closer allied policy coordination. The West, in London's view, should be prepared to meet the new Russian approach—whatever it is—firmly aligned.

Kennedy, Rusk and some Western leaders believe Khrushchev is planning some new action which may precipitate a fresh Berlin crisis before the end of the year.

JFK Set for 8-State Dash

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy catches his campaign breath for the next two days, then dashes off through eight states in another fire-building mission for 1962.

Kennedy landed in Washington early this morning from New York, where he had summoned U.N. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson to an hour's huddle on the international objectives, after barnstorming five states on political objectives in November congressional and state elections.

Several minutes before Kennedy's plane touched down at Washington National Airport, five fire trucks wheeled out alongside the runway.

The plane was low on hydraulic fluid used for braking, an Air Force officer said, and the pilot had radioed this information to the airport. The fire trucks were sent out "as a super-precautionary measure," the Air Force spokesman said.

Kennedy, unfrustrated as he stepped off the plane, quickly entered a limousine which took him to the White House.

Sprinting through New York, he is working for New Frontiersmen. He reckons on a 25 per cent deflection of Democrats on crucial domestic votes. In Pittsburgh, he humped conservative members of his party with Republicans as obstacles on key issues.

He's willing to endorse a Republican, as he did in Louisville. John Sherman Cooper, one of Kentucky's two GOP senators, rated a "distinguished" credit from Kennedy in the course of an attack on Sen. Thurston B. Morton, former Republican national chairman, and support for Wilton Wyatt, the Democrat-challenging Morton's bid for re-election.

Morton is up for re-election this year; Cooper's term runs through 1966.

TEAM HAPPY
Kennedy and his campaign camp were exuberant after leaving Buffalo, N.Y., Sunday. Estimates of the turnout for his appearance at the Pulaski Day celebration of Buffalo's populous Polish-American community ran over 100,000.

Kennedy told the crowd his administration holds to the goal of an independent Poland.

The West, he said, "must never recognize Soviet domination of eastern Europe as permanent." Kennedy campaigns in Connecticut on Wednesday, the western reaches over the weekend. No itinerary has been announced for Connecticut, but the remainder of the schedule goes like this:

Friday—Cleveland, Springfield, Ill., Chicago.

Saturday—Milwaukee, St. Louis, Albuquerque, N.M., Las Vegas, Nev., and Seattle.

Russ, Like U.S. to Test Tuesday

To Begin New Firings of Long-Range Rockets

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union announced today it will begin new test firings of long-range rockets into two target areas in the Central Pacific tomorrow—the same day the United States plans a new high-altitude nuclear test over the Pacific.

The official Soviet Tass news agency said the tests would consist of firing two rockets through Nov. 20 and would involve "new variations of multistage carrier rockets for cosmic objectives."

Tass said the new tests were "in conformity with the plan of scientific research and experimental designing work for further conquest of outer space."

Special Russian vessels equipped with scientific instruments will take up positions in the target areas in "two regions of the Pacific," the Tass statement said.

Tass gave coordinates for the tests which located the test area roughly 600 miles south of Johnson Island, over which the U. S. high altitude test will be conducted.

The second test area is about 800 miles north of Midway Island.

District Immigration Director Edward Ahrens said one of the two, Sgt. Filiberto Suarez Lima, 40, asked for asylum in the United States. The other man was identified as Cpl. Miguel Cao Mendina, about 30.

Ahrens said the two told immigration officers they and two other military men were on patrol duty in an 18-foot boat Friday night, off Varadero Beach, east of Havana.

Cao and Suarez said a larger boat opened fire on them, sinking their vessel and wounding Cao in the groin and Suarez in the leg. The patrol boat sank, and men on the larger boat lifted the two military men from the water. The other two men were swimming to shore when last seen, Suarez said.

The six walked off the Coast Guard boat at Key West, climbed into waiting automobiles, and were whisked off to immigration offices for preliminary questioning before being sent to Miami.

Birmingham Area News

State School Bus Law Enactment to Be Urged

BIRMINGHAM — The City Commission tonight will be urged to enact the state school bus law in Birmingham by Jervis B. McMechan, board chairman of Cranbrook's Brookside School.

The commission last month rejected adoption of the state law, which requires motorists to stop while children are alighting from a school bus.

The law is applicable only in unincorporated areas of the state and in cities which enact legislation to permit it.

After receiving complaints from Birmingham residents on their rejection of the law, commissioners ordered officials here to restudy the issue.

Commissioners had rejected the issue last month primarily because some Birmingham schools do not use properly marked school buses.

Commercial buses, used only part time for school transportation, are used by several schools in the area. These buses are not painted the yellow school bus color and they have no flashing warning signals.

Because of the unmarked buses, according to Police Chief Ralph Moxley, the law would be difficult to enforce and confining to motorists required to stop their cars 10 feet in front and behind of stopped school buses.

McMechan wrote in a letter to the commission, however, that "properly marked school buses" are "protected while they are driving outside our city limits and not while they are driving in Birmingham."

"I am sure you will recall that it was the impetus provided by two tragic accidents outside Birmingham that led to the enactment of the state school bus law," stated McMechan.

"Surely we are not going to wait until another tragic accident occurs within the city before we make this ordinance applicable to Birmingham as well," he declared.

Commissioners also will receive a communication at their 8 p.m. meeting tonight from Municipal Judge John C. Emery Jr. urging them to approve installation of a traffic light at Oak Street and Woodward Avenue.

The city administration currently is studying the feasibility of a light at that intersection.

Robert Baker, director of the School of Sacred Music at New York's Union Theological Seminary, will be the first artist in the St. James Episcopal Church Concert Series for 1962-63.

He will present an organ recital at 8:15 p.m. Oct. 30.

Others to be featured in future concerts include the Columbus Boychoir and organists David Craighead and Virgil Fox.

The first guest artist also is a teacher and designer of pipe organs. He has worked on the design of a new pipe organ in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church and one at the Lincoln Center Philharmonic Hall, both in New York.

5 Killed in Crash of Auto and Freight

STOCKTON, Calif. (AP) — An auto and a freight train collided at a railroad crossing Sunday, killing a father and four of his six children.

Samuel Deleon, 36, the father and operator of the car, may have had his vision obscured by a fence as he rounded a curve, the California Highway Patrol said.

The only occupant of the car to survive was his wife, Beatrice, 31, who was injured seriously. Two other children had remained home.

The dead children were Edward 10; Mary Ann, 8; Timothy, 4, and Theresa, 3.

African Can't Find Room Near Campus

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — Omer Ahmed, 28, a student from Somalia, Africa, has left the University of New Mexico because he couldn't find a place to stay near the campus.

He told school officials he applied at more than 50 apartments and that reasons for not renting to him ranged from thinly veiled excuses to "we don't rent to Negroes."

Four persons in the university area called Dr. Sherman Smith, director of student affairs, Sunday offering to rent an apartment to Ahmed.

Smith said finding accommodations for Negroes was not hard but that Ahmed had wanted to find something for himself.

The African student attended New Mexico last year and had lived off campus. He gave up his place to go to New York for the summer.

Bus Plunge Kills 3
IGUALADA, Spain (AP) — A passenger bus swerved to miss an oncoming bus, overturned three times and plunged into a river near the village of Toru Sunday, killing four persons and injuring 25 others. Officials said all the victims were Spanish.

'Nazis, Commies From Same Cloth'

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Rep. James E. Van Zandt compares the so-called American Nazi Party to the Communist movement. Van Zandt, the Republican nominee for U.S. Senator, said in a weekend statement:

"The cause which this swastika-bearing gang advocates is the total destruction of individual freedom and corresponds in its aims with the totalitarianism of the Communist scheme." He said members of the party should either "renounce their U.S. citizenship or submit to psychiatric examination."

'They Say, 'Hair Today.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Wig thieves, active in the metropolitan area lately, made off with another hair-raising haul yesterday.

Joseph Zito, owner of a posh hair stylist shop here, told police hairnappers had taken about 18 hair pieces which he valued at about $5,000.

Alabama normally raises one-tenth of the nation's cotton.

Adlai Optimistic for Congo Peace

NEW YORK (AP) — Adlai Stevenson, U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations, has told President Kennedy that developments of the past few days "give us some hope of a solution of the problems in the Congo."

Stevenson said Sunday night, after an hour-long conference with the President in the latter's hotel suite here, that he also spoke with Kennedy about the Cuban problem.

Asked if his report on the Communist-dominated Fidel Castro government was as optimistic as the one he made on the Congo, the ambassador replied: "On the whole, yes. I think we have a high degree of solidarity in the Western Hemisphere on the Cuban problem."

But he said he had not talked with Kennedy about attempts to negotiate the release of Cuban invasion captives because he, Stevenson, knew nothing about it.

Regarding the Congo, Stevenson indicated he expects acting U.N. Secretary-General Li Tsiang to announce soon what has been done to bring secessionist Katanga Province back into line with the central Leopoldville government.

Earlier, Stevenson told reporters at Idlewild Airport, where he met the incoming President, that he was "more hopeful than I have been in the past that we may come to some settlement in the Congo."

The situation remains unsettled and no one can determine what Katanga President Mbozi may do, he said.

But Stevenson added: "I am hopeful that something constructive is coming out of present negotiations."

He said that as far as he is concerned there is no emergency regarding the Congo.

Stevenson said he had had rather lengthy conversations with Adlai's Premier Ahmed Ben Bella, but declined to say what the talks were about.

Ben Bella was scheduled to meet with Kennedy today in Washington.

Refusing to Sing Causes 'His Death

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A street singer was killed Sunday police said, because he turned down a request for a song.

Police said Morris Davis, 24, was sitting with two other men on a bench singing when half a dozen men came up. One asked to turn up any trace of the notorious "Tiger Woman" of the 1930s who fled the Arizona State Mental Hospital a week ago.

The man, taking the refusal as an insult, struck the singer, police said. Davis collapsed, and his head struck the sidewalk. He died before reaching a hospital. Police "West" to Golas and Mato Grosso.

Police arrested William Herron, 20; Willie Kiro, 26, and James Canada, 21 and charged them with murder and robbery.

Still Seek Murderers

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI) — Escaped trunk murderers Winnie Ruth Judd remained at large today with a six-day search failing to turn up any trace of the notorious "Tiger Woman" of the 1930s who fled the Arizona State Mental Hospital a week ago.

Brazilian pioneers leave the Eastern seaboard cities and "go before reaching a hospital. Police "West" to Golas and Mato Grosso.

Stops Constipation due to "Aging Colon"

Relief, doctors say, lies in new laxative principle that re-creates 2 seconds of youthful elasticity. As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents dry out and shrink so they fail to stimulate the urge to pass. Of all leading laxatives, only new Colomaid gives you its secret. (1) Colomaid prevents the formation of dry, hardened waste for any passage without pain or strain. (2) Colomaid restores healthy colon muscles with unique relaxing action. (3) Acts gently on the nerve reflex that stimulates the "mass movement" of your large colon. Colomaid relieves even chronic constipation overnight; is so gentle it has hospital proved safe even for expectant mothers. Introductory Size 4.99.

'National Newspaper Week' Most Important to Americans

This is "National Newspaper Week."

There are more than seventy-five "weeks" that you can celebrate every year. But you have a greater stake in this than all the others combined.

"Freedom of the Press" doesn't mean just freedom for newspapers.

No. It means YOUR freedom.

The press is simply a symbol to represent everyone. As long as your newspapers are free to print all the facts, then your own private rights are also guaranteed and insured.

Dictators seize newspapers first. They're the primary target.

Unless they can hide their doings and their left-handed dealings they're absolutely whipped and frustrated. And they know it. Newspapers are the one thing of which dictators and monarchs stand in absolute fear and terror. Hence, censorship is first imposed "in a very friendly manner" but this inexorable tightness and one by one newspapers are "taken over" by the government.

A declaration by the late Colonel ROBERT MCCORMICK has become traditional and even sacred in the newspaper profession. He said:

"The newspaper is an institution developed by modern civilization to present the news of the day, to foster commerce and industry, to inform and lead public opinion, and to furnish that check upon government which no constitution has ever been able to provide."

These words arose from a shrewd and penetrating comprehension of facts and history and they stand as intensely prophetic today as they did when they were uttered.

Let's repeat that last phrase: "and to furnish that check upon government which no constitution has ever been able to provide."

Crookedness, stealing, dishonesty, bribery and autocracy fade and collapse in the face of open publicity. In this country, the Constitution guarantees the people THE RIGHT TO KNOW.

You ask: "The right to know what?"

Well, it means the right to know all that's happening to your tax dollar, and what your public servants are doing with your money in local, State and Federal circles. It means the right to know what they propose to do next. It means the right to know whether graft, corruption or bribery are afoot. The list continues indefinitely.

And so, on this occasion, The Pontiac Press again pledges to the people of Pontiac that NEVER will any government conceal its actions or hide its activities which you have a right to understand.

We say this with the Constitution, the armed forces and law and order behind us. The first amendment sets this forth unmistakably in the following words:

"Congress shall make no law respecting the establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble and petition the government for a redress of grievance."

There it is. It's that plain and that simple.

You live in the United States where you are never a pawn, a chattel or a serf. You should everlastingly glory in the right, the privilege and the blessing which so few peoples on this globe know to the thrilling extent that you do.

Romney and Swainson . . .

I was a bit intrigued by a letter in the Voice of the People signed "U.A.W. Member" in regard to the current gubernatorial campaign. It said:

"Members would do well to think before they decide between Governor SWAINSON, a friend of labor, and GEORGE ROMNEY, a friend of big business."

Indeed, they would do well to think—and think—and think. It's time Michigan threw out the party that plastered us with a national reputation for an unhealthy economic climate.

We're black-listed from coast to coast.

The Pontiac Press urges U.A.W. members to vote for a man who took a business on the verge of bankruptcy and made it strong, vigorous and healthy. That's constructive.

Employment doesn't increase with a State administration that fights employers and drives them into Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and all over the South. New businesses don't locate in a state that is smeared as hostile to business.

Face it squarely.

Think for yourself. Don't let agitators do it for you.

And in Conclusion . . .

Jottings from the well-thumbed notebook of your peripatetic reporter:

The "standard" Rolls Royce sells for something just in excess of $25,000, with a "low-priced model" that only brings $15,000. Now they're toying with the idea of adding an itty-bitty compact job to retail for a measly $7,500. . . . Overheard: "Politics is like kissing. You don't have to be good at it to enjoy it." . . . Candid Camera should be cut to 15 minutes and put in one of the hour programs. It becomes tiresome and repetitious dragged out to a half hour. . . . BARNETT's political fortunes were at a low ebb in Mississippi and some think he seized upon the current situation as a drowning man grabs the straw.

I can't prove it but I'll bet a sugar cookie you didn't know Vice President Johnson was a boot-black once. That's one of the glories of America. . . . President Kennedy's share of three trusts brings him approximately $100,000 a year after taxes. And some of us thought FDR was wealthy. . . . Specialists say that in barren marriages, the male is accountable about 40 per cent of the time, but he's always reluctant to submit to a test. . . . Someone told me there are over 400,000 licensed bears in Michigan. Can this be true?

Hollywood version: "Once upon a time there was a papa bear and a mama bear and three little baby bears—two by a previous marriage." . . . She was taking a bath when someone knocked. "Who?" she demanding. "Blind man," came the reply and puzzled, she climbed out of the tub and opened the door. Picture her consternation when he said: "OK, lady, where do you want these where blind?"

Insider's Newsletter says those Russian astronauts who crossed the U.S. so many times, photographed every single inch of territory we possess with special high-powered cameras. . . . Dept. of Cheers and Jeers: the C's—Pontiac Central football team; the J's—people that didn't register.

No Cloak and Dagger, Just a Fat Briefcase

David Lawrence Says:

'Prayer Day' Brings Dilemma

WASHINGTON—The principals and teachers in the public schools of the Nation face a strange dilemma on Wednesday of this week.

Shall they obey the Supreme Court of the United States, which has banned any prayer composed, recommended or encouraged by a governmental body for use in the schools?

Or shall they obey a proclamation, issued last Thursday by the President of the United States, fixing Oct. 17 as "The National Day of Prayer" and specifying particularly the purposes to be prayed for?

The Supreme Court did not bar voluntary prayer as such in the schools, but did rule that any prayer "composed" and recommended" or even "encouraged" by any branch of the Government for use in the classroom must be considered a violation of the Constitution.

The ruling, the court said, was based on the First Amendment, which declares that Congress "shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion."

Congress, however—ten years before the Supreme Court decision in the "school prayer" case—did pass a joint resolution on April 17, 1952, which called on the President "to set aside and proclaim" a suitable day each year "as a national day of prayer, on which the people of the United States may turn to God in prayer and meditation at churches, in groups, and as individuals."

Will classes in public schools, therefore, be legally considered as among such "groups"?

Was the President's proclamation an attempt to "influence the kinds of prayer" the American people shall use? As it is a "recommendation" was it to what the content of a prayer should be on a particular day?

The proclamation contained the following exhortations:

"On this day, let us all pray, each following the practices of his own faith. Let us pray for our nation and for other nations of the world."

Most efficient. Much as the latter is praised, it can never be as efficient as our natural system of opening and closing the sweat pores in our skin and altering the rate of blood flow through our skin.

The blood is equipped to protect its own volume by means of its ability to form a clot. It protects us also from too much or too little alkali in the system through a combination of so-called buffer salts that can swap acid or basic ions as needed.

The blood also contains substances that, when combined with certain undesirable germs and viruses, produce antibodies that put down the infection.

world. May we especially ask God's blessing upon—
FAITH IN GOD

"Our homes, that this integral unit of society may nurture our youth and give to them the needed faith in God, in our nation, and in their future."

"Our citizens, that they may increase in the desire to promote mercy and justice, peace and freedom, good will and brotherhood; that they may open new frontiers in helping to alleviate hunger, ignorance and disease."

"Our nation, that each new achievement may add to our heritage of faith;

"And our world, that this generation may experience the fruits of peace and may know the real meaning of brotherhood under God."

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed."

Could anything be more "official" than the foregoing document?

The language of the preamble of the President's proclamation, moreover, will have to be studied now to determine whether it can be regarded as a part of what the court called a "program of governmentally supported religious activity."

Dr. Wayne Brandstadt Says:

Protective Devices Guard Wonderfully Made Bodies

Whoever said that we are fearfully and wonderfully made must have been thinking of the many ways in which protective devices are built into our bodies.

We can see this even at birth in the fact that the several bones that make up the rigid skull of the adult are not yet fused in the new-born but are joined together by flexible cartilage which allows for maximum accommodation to the narrow birth canal during delivery.

Later when the baby is learning to walk and climb up on the furniture he has many a spill but, being well-padded and with the long bones of the arms and legs still less brittle than those of an adult, fractures are relatively uncommon and when they do occur they usually are not complete but resemble the acute bending of the branch of a live tree.

The surgeons refer to these as greenstick fractures. No bringing together of the broken ends is required and healing is rapid.

Our built-in heat-regulator, which during health keeps the body temperature at about 98.6 degrees despite wide ranges in the outside temperature, was invented long before air conditioning.

Most efficient. Much as the latter is praised, it can never be as efficient as our natural system of opening and closing the sweat pores in our skin and altering the rate of blood flow through our skin.

The blood is equipped to protect its own volume by means of its ability to form a clot. It protects us also from too much or too little alkali in the system through a combination of so-called buffer salts that can swap acid or basic ions as needed.

The blood also contains substances that, when combined with certain undesirable germs and viruses, produce antibodies that put down the infection.

I must praise the liver. A veritable jack of all trades, it removes many poisons from the blood and when in the process the poison kills a few liver cells there is a rapid regeneration of such cells so that, unless the damage is overwhelming, the liver remains as good as ever.

Much the same function is performed by our kidneys and by the tiny lymph nodes scattered all over our wonderful bodies.

Voice of the People:

'Let's Make Plans Now for State's Water Supply'

The editorial on water shortage in California vs. Michigan's unlimited supply could go a bit further regarding the future.

It appears inevitable that Michigan with its great fresh water shoreline will one day be one of the greatest manufacturing states. Planning should be done right now to properly divide this water into areas for manufacturing, residence and recreation.

Water has become the major natural resource in many industries. Planning will prevent the destruction of much natural beauty as well as degrading residential property.

Many areas need industry right now. With good transportation facilities and a fair tax climate, the phrase "water unlimited" will attract it.

Says Tax Too High on 'Stamp' Goods

Whoever promoted the sales tax law by which we are taxed for the merchandise we get for trading stamps, did his part to help the state's financial status.

I took 5 books for redemption—3 for a boat ladder and 2 books for an electric clock. The total cost of these two articles downtown would be less than $10. I paid the redemption store $1.20 in tax, 20 cents too much excise and 8 cents too much sales tax. This high tax causes some people to think they are getting more for their stamps.

We pay well for most of our stamps. You will see a sign for gasoline 39.9 cents with stamps and others charge 29.9 cents without stamps. The people rebelled some 30 years ago when they passed a head tax of $2 per person and it was repealed but they take this tax lying down.

Turkey

New York Post

While Britain and other NATO allies are inclined to drag their feet, Turkey has taken the lead in suspending merchant shipping to Communist Cuba. West Germany may follow suit.

The number of Turkish merchantmen which have been carrying Soviet goods to Cuba is not very large. But is not nearly as important as the principle involved.

The action announced by Turkey's Foreign Minister is more than a welcome gesture by a loyal ally. It is a recognition of the fact that the Cuban issue is not simply a matter for the United States, as the British suggest, but is also a responsibility of the NATO allies.

Britain, as the unofficial leader of the "do-nothing-about-Cuba" group within NATO, maintains that there are legal difficulties about interfering with their privately owned merchantmen in view of the fact that it continues to maintain diplomatic and trade relations with Cuba.

But Turkey also maintains such relations, and its Foreign Minister tells us that arrangements were made with Turkish shipowners to suspend the offensive shipping on a voluntary basis.

Are the British less successful than the Turks?

West Germany, one of the major shippers of Soviet goods to Cuba, is making a different arrangement. We require shippers of Communist goods to secure special permits.

Are the British less resourceful than the Germans?

We would like to believe that Britain and other NATO allies will join the present movement.

Once we have halted shipping to Cuba we could move on toward a general embargo on all trade between Cuba and the free world.

Calling All GOPs

New York News

Ever since the morning after election day, leading Republicans have been trying to figure out why Richard M. Nixon lost the Presidency by an eyelash to John F. Kennedy.

The then vice president carried 38 states, to Kennedy's 23 and Sen. Barry F. Byrd's one.

Kennedy's popular vote totaled 34,227,808, to Nixon's 34,169,348—with enough splinter votes to make Mr. Kennedy a minority President so far as the popular vote was concerned.

Why did the GOP lack the extra pound or so of steam needed to elect Nixon?

The most careful, detailed and illuminating answer came out a few days ago, in a book entitled "The Republican Opportunity," by Raymond Moley.

The noted ex-New Dealer and longtime Republican observer goes into the reasons for Nixon's defeat, and the Republicans' weaknesses and omissions.

He analyzes the Democrats' fierce appeals to all manner of special-interest groups, and gives some deadly punches at the "liberal" Democrats' belief in making the government at Washington ever more powerful than the state governments. Dr. Moley then outlines various practical methods whereby he believes the GOP can revamp itself into a strong, effective organization having a powerful appeal to the best instincts, and the real best interests, of the American people.

In the interest of keeping our enormously important two-party system alive and healthy, we hope Republicans will get hold of the book, ponder it carefully, and make haste to put most of its suggestions into practice.

Puerto Ricans Want to Show Love for Uncle Sam

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico — Bothered, badgered and battered by his Latin cousins, Uncle Sam has one big consolation: Somebody in Spanish-speaking America loves him.

Puerto Rico, tied to the mainland since 1898, wants to demonstrate to the world, and especially to Latin America, that its association with the United States is of its own free will, that there is no longer any tinge of colonialism involved.

This little island of 2.4 million people has left its behind in Latin America for behind in standard of living, distribution of wealth and social and economic development.

It no longer considers itself underdeveloped and indeed has its own program of technical aid for its Caribbean neighbors. Puerto Ricans expect to vote next March on whether they want statehood, commonwealth status or complete independence. They can have their choice.

OPPOSE INDEPENDENCE

Almost nobody wants independence. Two years ago the independentistas ran into disaster in an election, getting about 3 percent of the total votes. One guess is that if they get that much in March they can consider themselves lucky.

Puerto Rico has come a tremendous distance since World War II. Its development spurted ahead when it was given the right to elect its own governor in 1948, and another push when the United States granted the island special commonwealth status in 1952.

Its "Operation Bootstrap," a sort of do-it-yourself development, with friendly mainland help, is regarded, in fact, as something of an economic miracle.

WANT TO CHOOSE

Puerto Ricans want to nail down their relationship with the United States, to demonstrate it is their choice. The only real argument is about how close the ties shall be. The issue of statehood or commonwealth. Commonwealth probably will win by a wide margin under the leadership of Gov. Luis Munoz Marin. Gov. Munoz, architect of the economic development, says commonwealth status makes the island an "associated free state," subject voluntarily to U. S. federal laws, but with autonomous institutions with which the U. S. Congress cannot interfere.

Sentiment for statehood has grown over the years, however. Estadistas (Republicans) won only 83,000 votes in 1952, rose to 174,000 in 1956 and 252,000 in 1960.

Gov. Munoz contends statehood would bring economic disaster. From the standpoint of per capita income and distribution, Puerto Rico now is better off than any Latin American nation, but the energetic 64-year-old governor says he wants the forward surge to continue.

Because of its poverty, Puerto Rico in 1900 was made an "unincorporated territory," not subject to federal income taxes and permitted to collect its own customs.

These factors had much to do

Talk Leaves 'Em Cold? No, Just a Chilly Floor

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Part of the audience attending a church revival at the municipal auditorium Sunday night had cold feet—but it was no reflection on the sermon.

The temperature on the floor of the auditorium had been lowered from 72 degrees to 42 degrees in preparation for an ice rink.

with attracting industry and spurring growth, although that did not get under way until after World War II. In addition, it has tariff-free access to the world's greatest market, the United States.

GOVERNOR'S CLAIM

Gov. Munoz argues that under statehood, the tax and other advantages would vanish, new industry would be discouraged and economic development would be braked.

Munoz, heading the Popular Democratic party, says he is not against statehood, but that the island will be unready for such responsibilities and cannot afford the luxury until its standard of living reaches the level of that of the lowest in any mainland state. That could take as much as 20 years.

The statehood Republican party under Dr. Luis Ferre says commonwealth leaves a stigma of colonial status. The Estadistas against statehood are all economic. These will change as the island becomes progressively stronger.

They accuse him of not giving statehood a fair chance, of failing to explain what he means by "perfecting" the commonwealth status. They contend that idea was invented to offset criticism, especially from emerging nations and from Latin America.

The Republicans say they want association with the United States to be permanent and irrevocable, that commonwealth status conceivably could be revoked. Commonwealth means, they say, that Puerto Rico in reality is still just a U. S. territory. They deny that statehood would bring irreparable economic harm.

Beyond the arguments, it seems evident that some day

Puerto Rico will be a state. The only question is when. Arguments against statehood are all economic. These will change as the island becomes progressively stronger.

External propaganda coming from Fidel Castro's Cuba, blasting the United States as the island's colonial master, has virtually no audience.

Latin Being Trained

MEXICO CITY (AP)—About 9,000 Latin Americans are being trained under technical assistance programs of the Organization of American States, the United Nations, the United States and other countries of Europe and America. The figure was given in a report by OAS experts to a committee of the Inter-American Economic and Social Council.

HOPES FOR SON'S FREEDOM — Mrs. Ruth Redman (center), 64-year-old Yonkers, N.Y., widow, prepares to board plane at Idlewild Airport for Hong Kong from which point she will go to Shanghai. On hand to see her off are her daughter Mrs. Ruth Boyle and Yonkers Mayor John Flynn. Mrs. Redman's son was imprisoned 11 years ago by the Chinese Reds for espionage.

Woman on Way to Seek Son's Release by Reds

HONG KONG (AP) — Mrs. Ruth Redman of Yonkers, N.Y., arrived today en route to Red China to present a new plea for the release of her son.

Hugh F. Redmond Jr., has served 11 years of a life sentence on charges of espionage. His mother told newsmen at Hong Kong airport she has had, "no indication whatsoever" that the Chinese Communists might release her son, but she added:

"If I fail this time, I will make another plea. I have never lost hope."

The 64-year-old widow flew halfway around the world to spend her son's 43rd birthday with him and present her plea to the Chinese Communist authorities. She probably will cross the border Wednesday.

Mrs. Redmond expressed her "most sincere gratitude and thanks to the officials of the Chinese Red Cross and the Chinese government for all they have done to make this visit possible."

She also thanked the American Red Cross for help in sending packages to her son, and friends in Yonkers "whose prayers and good wishes have given me the courage I need."

Friends at home promised the $4,000 to finance her three-week trip. This is Mrs. Redmond's second visit to her prisoner son. She last visited him in 1958.

She said she is taking a sweater, shoes, socks, underwear and a wristwatch as birthday presents. She also brought vitamin pills, which her son had requested. But she said as far as she knows he is in good health.

Mrs. Redmond expressed her "most sincere gratitude and

W. Reich Ships OK Blockade of Cuba

BONN (UPI) — West German shipping companies have bowed to a government ordinance forbidding them to send their cargo vessels between Cuba and Communist bloc states, it was reported today.

The government, acting on a request from the United States, issued the ordinance Oct. 6.

It requires German shipping firms to obtain a government license before allowing their vessels to carry cargo to Cuba from Eastern bloc nations.

The government made it plain it would turn down any such license applications.

Flies to Russia to See Her Son; Parted 50 Years

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — A 74-year-old Little Rock woman left by plane for Russia Sunday to visit a son she hasn't seen in more than 50 years.

Mrs. Frank Lukly said she came to the United States in 1912 to marry Frank Lukly and left her 16-year-old son by a former marriage with her father.

Mrs. Lukly lost contact with her family in the Russian revolution and World War I. She said she learned more than a year ago through a friend's relatives that her son, Brosi Belman was a civil engineer at Odessa on the Black Sea.

Electroshock Device Saves Heart Attack Victims

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — At home one day 2 1/2 years ago, an engineer of the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine in Baltimore.

Today he is alive and well, thanks largely to an electrical heart-shocking device about the size and weight of a heavy suitcase.

The life-shock machine was described today to the American College of Surgeons at the opening of its 48th clinical congress by Dr. James R. Jude; William B. Kouwenhoven, a medical engineer, and G. Guy Knickerbocker, an engineer of the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine in Baltimore.

EXPLAINS BEAT

The human heart normally beats 68 to 90 times a minute, regulated by its own electrical current, Dr. Jude explained.

But often in heart attacks, it begins to beat so rapidly but feebly that there is no recognizable pulse. To all intents, the person is clinically dead.

Electric shocks, applied on the chest or directly to the heart after the chest has been opened, can stem the wild beating and restore normal rhythm. Many hospitals have such devices working from alternating current.

The Johns Hopkins team developed the portable machine. It weighs 45 pounds and can be charged through batteries from an automobile or by plugging the device into a wall socket.

LIMITED USE

So far, it has been used only in the hospital. But the goal is to be able to take it to the victims of heart attacks, electrocutions or drownings, Dr. Jude said.

The man who suffered his heart attack at home was 68 and it was his second attack within four minutes. A rescue team reached his house and began massaging his chest to push blood through his arteries. They kept this up during the ambulance ride to the hospital where the new device shocked his heart back to normal rhythm 23 minutes after he had been stricken.

can be fatal unless the heart is meanwhile kept going through chest massage and artificial respiration.

The portable device delivers a shock of about 2,000 volts each from two capacitors through electrodes applied to the chest.

Tokyo (AP) — Japan's Cabinet has approved an average 10 per cent fare hike for the 14 major private railways effective Nov. 1.

Pills May Replace Toothbrush

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Nero, the Roman emperor, spent up to $100,000 for roses alone at one of his famous feasts. But a guy like that probably goes around the palace after the banquet turning off lights to save money.

Toothsome rumor: It is said that a new pill to be on the market shortly will make brushing your teeth unnecessary. (You never really know freedom in life until you reach the age where you can mail your teeth to the dentist for a pain-free, semi-annual check-up.)

Speaking of dentists, the best known one in history was probably Zane Grey, who helped make the West meet the East. But when he was an unknown author first trying to peddle his cowboy stories, a publisher told him he had absolutely no talent for writing popular fiction.

GALS GET AROUND

Our girls go places. The U.S. department that knows about such things says that 55 per cent of the passports it issues go to the ladies, and 28 per cent are housewives. A woman's place is in the home—when she isn't going other places.

Our notable number: "A few people who achieve fame grow most of them well."—Woodrow Wilson.

Personal philanthropy: If you don't give at least 50 presents a year to other people, you're stingier than your average neighbor.

What has more keys than a bank? ... A piano. It looks smooth and simple, but it has 7,500 parts—more than an automobile.

LOSE LIBERTIES

Odd legislation: I hear that tying a giraffe to a street light is illegal in Atlanta, Ga. (Our liberties are gnawed away one by one.)

Forgotten heroes: Victor Orville, credited with inventing the crossword puzzle, did so to help pass the time while he was a penitentiary inmate. Beneath his name on his tombstone the diagram of a crossword is carved — to be filled out later.

Dieters beware: Don't take a bath just before a meal. It stimulates your appetite.

Psychology: Gardeners at Freedomland, New York's rival to Disneyland, have found that a sign saying "You are being watched" is more effective in stopping visitors from picking flowers than the traditional "Please do not touch."

Language lore: One of the theories of the origin of the term "okay" is that it sprang from ancient Greek merchants who used to stamp their products with the initials of the words "ola kala," signifying they were fair and right.

ROUGH PROBLEM

Problem of the week: "It's predicted that by the year 2,000 we will work only an hour a day. Will that mean the end of the coffee break?"—Arnold H. Glasow.

The fastidious East: Did you know that Hindu cooks are required to put on a fresh set of clothing whenever they enter their kitchens?

Things we hope we never have to climb to fix a burned-out light bulb: "The world's longest staircase is in the Aura power plant in Norway...Built of wood, it rises 2,650 feet and has 3,715 steps.

Tobits: Female ankies are getting bigger...Some kangaroos live in trees...Some fish build nests...Only one in eight Americans smokes—The other seven stay awake and listen.

It was Henry David Thoreau who observed, "The boy gathers materials for a temple, and then when he is 30 concludes to build a woodshed."

Paper Hits Americans

BONN (AP) — The influential West German daily business newspaper Handelsblatt chides Americans and British for not mastering foreign languages. It concluded a sarcastic editorial saying: "Buyers don't want themselves looked upon as members of a colonial people."

Sen. Hubert Humphrey Trods Michigan Campaign Trails

By The Associated Press

Minnesota Sen. Hubert Humphrey, latest in a line of national figures to trod the campaign trail in Michigan, said in Detroit this weekend that programs like medical care for the aged can win congressional approval only if more Democrats are elected.

Humphrey, majority whip in the Senate, joined Gov. Swainson at a political rally in Mount Clemens Saturday night. Together, they boosted the candidacy of Rep. James G. O'Hara, who is seeking re-election in the 7th Congressional District.

Earlier, in the day Swainson and his Republican rival, George Romney, called a "line out" in their campaigning to watch Michigan State wallop Michigan 28-0 at East Lansing.

Swainson was greeted with applause when he entered Spartan Stadium and the people around him gave him a standing ovation when he took his seat.

During halftime, Romney paraded around the edge of the stadium, shaking hands and waving to the football fans. Signs bearing "Romney for Governor" appeared in the stands and cheers — mixed with a few boos — greeted the Republican gubernatorial nominee as he passed the student section.

Before the game, Romney accused Swainson of doing "another of his flip-flops" in a speech to Republican state legislators.

Romney said Swainson has switched during the campaign from telling people what was wrong with Michigan and that the GOP-controlled legislature was to blame, to painting a rosy picture and taking credit for it.

Neither Romney nor Swainson had any comment on the Detroit News' endorsement in its Sunday edition of Romney's candidacy for governor.

The News, in its editorial, urged "Michigan citizens to vote Nov. 6 to end haggling, hate and hostility in Lansing by electing George Romney, a temperate Republican, as everybody's governor."

While Romney observed his practice of no campaigning on Sunday, Swainson and other top Democratic officials participated in Pulaski Day celebrations in the Detroit suburb of Hamtramck.

Swainson, former Gov. G. Mennen Williams and Sen. Phil

p. A. Hart rode in a parade honoring Casimir Pulaski, a Polish count who became a hero of the American revolution.

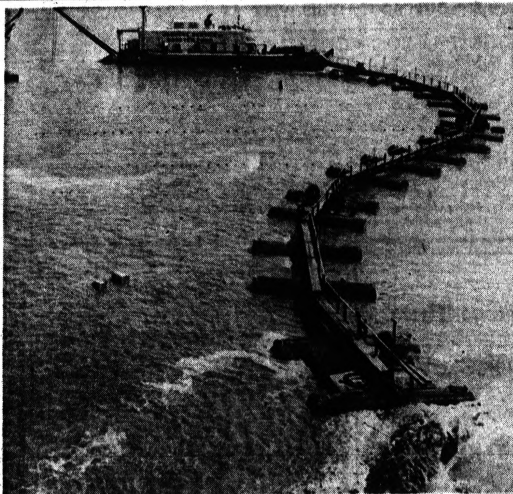

Swainson told the crowd a new American Polaris submarine will soon be built and named after Pulaski.

The governor, who lost the lower part of both legs in World War II, took time out from campaigning Sunday to talk to two little Detroit boys about conquering handicaps.

Both 10-year-olds, Pat Kroil and Larry Mitchell lost parts of both legs when they were run over by trains in separate accidents.

The governor pulled up his pants and showed his own artificial legs. "You'll never be bothered by cold feet," he said, smiling.

REMOVING SAND — A chlorine-filled barge rests at the bottom of the Mississippi River at Natchez, Miss. This is a picture of a pump mounted on a barge being used to re-

Polio Agency Termed a Must

NEW YORK (AP) — Basil O'Connor, speaking about the things that had to be done by the National Foundation to conquer polio, said today that "had we waited for government to do them, they would be undone today."

"I say this in no disparagement of the proper role of government," the foundation's president added. "Rather, it points up the proper role of a voluntary health agency like ours."

O'Connor's remarks came in a speech prepared for delivery to several hundred March of Dimes volunteers from eight northeastern states who are planning the Foundation's 25th annual fund drive.

He vowed that "the National Foundation will stand firm against any influence which it finds destructive of the attributes of the voluntary health movement."

THE 'GISSIMO
On Oct. 31, Nationalist Chinese leader Chiang Kai-shek will be 75 years old. Trusted associates say he is in fairly robust health after a long recovery from an operation last spring.

The subject is a touchy one. During the hot summer Chiang made no public appearances, although he did receive a few selected visitors in his residence from time to time.

But early this month, on Chiang's "double ten" national holiday, Chiang, his cheeks full and his uniform fitting smartly, stood on the reviewing stand for 90 minutes with no sign of fatigue.

The following day he stood through a tea party for an equal period of time.

RED CHINA TRADE
Japanese stock brokers are not impressed by all the talk of increased Japanese trade with Red China. It isn't likely to happen, they say, for a long time.

The reason: Japanese sales to the United States are booming and Prime Minister Ikeda's government is unlikely to take any steps which might endanger the U. S. market for the sake of any dubious gains which might be made in Red China.

Japan's annual sales to Red China now are just over $30 million, a drop in the bucket compared to trade with the U. S.

NATO CHANGE?

The serious illness of NATO Secretary General Dirk U. Stikker has set off talks in Paris of a possible successor.

Among names most mentioned are Norwegian Foreign Minister Halvard Lange and Italian ambassador to Paris Manlio Brosio.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Skeptical police, investigating the report of a couple of golfers at the Westborough Country Club, sure enough found an alligator in a pond near the course Sunday.

French presidents be elected by direct vote of the people.

It is opposed by the rebellious French Chamber of Deputies and the final decision could determine de Gaulle's own political future.

De Gaulle might seek to impress French voters with an announcement of a de Gaulle state visit to Washington next year.

NEW POWERS

Church sources in Vatican City say one result of the current Ecumenical Council is certain: that with Pope John's specific sanction, the 3,000 bishops attending the council will emerge with vastly increased powers, both administrative and religious.

There even is talk that they may extend the dogma of papal infallibility to their own pronouncements on faith and morals.

The last church council a century ago proclaimed the infallibility dogma for popes — that Roman pontiffs could not err when talking strictly on matters of faith and morals.

DEDICATE STATUE—A life-sized statue of St. Basil, patron saint of the priests of St. Basil, was dedicated yesterday on the lawn of St. Basil's Novitiate in Pontiac Township. Participating in the ceremony were (from left) Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Reo, donors of the statue, and Father James J. Collins, superior and master of novices. Families of the novices and priests of St. Basil's attended the ceremonies. The statue was sculpted in Italy.

Romeo Schoolteachers Get Hike in Base Pay

ROMEO—Teachers in the Romeo Community School District today received the welcome word of a $100 annual base pay increase in their salaries.

Teachers have been requesting a pay hike since last year. At that time they asked the board for a raise of $400, according to School Supt. T. C. Filippula.

The board was forced to refuse their request because of the limited budget, Filippula said.

However, he said the board did give them a $100 raise at that time.

Last spring the teachers again requested a pay boost, for another $100. The board discussed the raise in July, but no action was taken until the board's recent meeting, when it received notification of the increased state aid.

With the additional $100 tacked on to their annual salary teachers having a master's degree will receive a base pay of $5,000, progressing to $7,200 after 11 years' experience.

Those with a bachelor's degree will start at $4,700 and reach a top salary of $6,900 with 11 years seniority.

Teachers with over three years of college but no degree will receive a base rate of $4,200 and reach a peak of $6,400 after eight years.

Anyone teaching with between two and three years of college training will start at $4,100 and receive a maximum salary of $5,700 after eight years.

Church Sets Bake Sale

GROVELAND TOWNSHIP—A rummage and bake sale will be held Saturday starting at 9:30 a.m. at Mt. Bethel Methodist Church, Joosman and Bald Eagle Lake roads.

Claims Motion Will Hurt All

CHICAGO (UPI)—The head of the nation's biggest agricultural organization warned today that wheat control legislation recently passed by Congress will hurt producers, consumers, and the milling and baking industries.

Charles B. Shuman, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, urged wheat producers to reject the legislation in a referendum before the law takes effect in 1964.

The plan enacted by Congress combines the certificate approach with the tightest controls ever seriously considered for any commodity, Shuman said in an address prepared for delivery to the annual convention of the American Bakers Association.

"Both acreage allotments and marketing quotas are to be continued if producers vote in favor of the multiple-price certificate plan."

Shuman said acreage allotments and marketing quotas would have been eliminated under a plan originally "made by certain wheat-producer groups."

"Consumers," he said, "would pay higher prices for bread and other wheat flour products so that sales of wheat for livestock feed could be subsidized."

He also said a referendum such as that for wheat growers "invites propaganda campaigns which tend to conceal facts and appeal to emotion and prejudice."

After Kelsling Rites

Honeymoon in North

UNION LAKE—On a honeymoon trip to northern Michigan are Mr. and Mrs. Tony Rex Kelsling who exchanged their nuptial vows Saturday evening in Orchard Lake Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Edward D. Auchard read the service.

The bride is the former Marjorie Ann Donaldson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Donaldson, 2361 Circle Drive. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Kelsling of Berkley.

For her wedding the bride chose a white tulle gown with a Chantilly lace bodice that featured a Sabrina neckline and long pointed sleeves.

A pearl and rhinestone crown held her fingertip veil of silk illusion, and she carried a bridal bouquet of Stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Attending as maid of honor was Peggy Bensinger. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Ronald Barker, Barbara Lee and Susan Davis.

On the equine side Warren E. Boyer served as best man. The guests were seated by Charles Bruner, Edward Van Boemel and Norman Terry, cousin of the bridegroom.

A reception in the Middle Straits Lake Club House followed the rites.

Flemish, Walloons Clash in Capital of Belgium

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—Police held 40 persons today after Sunday's outbreaks that injured about 20 persons. Counterdemonstrations by Walloons continued far into the night.

CHARGE RIAS

The race-and-language rivalry goes back 125 years to the independence of Belgium.

Members of both groups were taken into custody as a result of Sunday's outbreaks that injured about 20 persons. Counterdemonstrations by Walloons continued far into the night.

BATTLE IN BRUSSELS—Demonstrators battle in front of a smashed sign as Flemish-speaking Belgians and French-speaking Walloons clashed in Brussels yesterday. The fighting was the latest outbreak in the language and race rivalry which has often threatened Belgium's unity.

Ike Marks His 72nd Birthday

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower celebrated his 72nd birthday Sunday in Gettysburg, Pa., quietly. The general attended church services in the morning, then retired with Mrs. Eisenhower to the Gettysburg home of his son, John, where the family spent the day.

Hard-y Elephant Due to Adorn Philly Zoo

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Zoo, which already has several large hippos, rhinos and elephants, is getting a 37-ton elephant.

There won't be any problem feeding it, though. It's made of granite. When it arrives from Norway, where it was sculpted under commission from the Fairmount Park Commission, it will stand on the mall outside the Zoo's entrance.

yourself and then teach them to other people," he said.

Dirk Stikker, NATO secretary-general, is making a normal recovery from an operation he underwent Oct. 8, the State Department says. It has been disclosed that the operation at Walter Reed Army Medical Center at Washington included removal of a malignancy located in the large intestine.

Jean Wallace, an American actress, is ailed in Belgrade, Yugoslavia, with an injured back. She was practicing this weekend for a riding part in the film "Lancelot and Guinevere" when her horse refused a jump. She fell and suffered a fractured sacrum which a spokesman said will keep her bedridden for the next few weeks.

Frank Decker of San Jose, Calif., turned 101 Sunday and he credited "my good wife and a can of beer" as the reasons he's lived so long. To prove it, he toasted the milestone—with a can of beer.

before they crashed into Walloon counterdemonstrators.

The crowds pelted each other with rotten eggs, tomatoes, insults and jeers. The injured were hurt by sticks, staves and thunderflashes, a kind of firecracker that can burn severely. Only two of the injured required hospitalization, however.

In the litter after the battle were the furry remains of baby chicks. Flemings had trampled the chicks as an insult to the Walloons, whose symbol is the rooster.

MARCHERS ARE YOUNG

A thousand gendarmes were reinforced by riot squads armed with tear gas and water trucks but had difficulty restoring order. Most of the Flemish marchers were young boys and girls, many from farms. They carried yellow flags stamped with the black Flanders lion.

The Walloons countered by wearing yellow buttonhole emblems imprinted with red roosters. They carried posters in Flemish which said "Hands off Brussels. Return to your village."

E. Anter, president of the Flemish Action Committee for Brussels, said there are 500,000 Flemings who at present have no representation in parliament.

'U.S. Aiming to Free Cuba'

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Vice President Lyndon Johnson told a Democratic fund-raising dinner Sunday night that the aim of this country is to "see Cuba rid of Castro and Soviet influence."

Johnson told about 600 supporters of former U.S. Sen. Claude Pepper, Democratic nominee for Congress, that "your government will do whatever needs to be done to protect our security and the security of our allies."

Walloons and that French still dominates many areas of Belgian life.

WANT EQUALITY

"We want Flemish schools for all Flemings," he said, "we also want absolute equal language facilities in Brussels—even in private shops," he added.

Leon Defoort, chairman of the Walloon Popular Movement, said the demonstration was "proof that Flemish extremists have aggressive imperialist plans against Brussels and the ... Walloons cannot remain indifferent."

At the outset of Belgian independence, French was the official language, even for judges, army officers, officials and universities in Flemish-speaking areas. But about 30 years ago, the Flemings, who make up about 60 per cent of the population, won almost complete equality. They still complain, however, that top jobs in the armed forces and diplomatic service go to the French-speaking many.

To Distribute Arms Moved From Laos

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—U.S. military equipment withdrawn from neutral Laos in compliance with the Geneva agreement will be distributed to American military installations in the Pacific within the next two months, it was learned today.

Maj. Gen. Reuben Tucker, chief of the military assistance advisory group to Laos, said the equipment—munitions and communications—was worth millions of dollars. He said a number of his personnel from Laos have been absorbed by the U.S. military advisory groups in Thailand and South Vietnam. He did not say how service go to the French-speaking many.

This man may be in the dark, but he's not keeping you in the dark!

He is Eddie Vanderworp, chief photographer of The Pontiac Press, busy selecting a negative for a picture which will appear in our newspaper—your newspaper.

From the darkroom of The Press come the pictures which highlight our coverage of the booming greater Pontiac area.

When earthmovers begin the gigantic task of carving another super highway across Oakland County, a Press photographer brings the action to you.

When an iron ball is swung into buildings of the urban renewal projects, you see it happening in the pages of The Press because our man was there.

Pictures have become an important factor in newspapers in the last decade, and The Press has been among the leaders in offering more pictorial coverage to its readers.

It's just another indication that The Press is a modern newspaper covering a modern area—we're growing together.

Political Tug of War Starts Over Record of Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—The 87th Congress gave President Kennedy part of what he asked, considerably altered some of his requests, and completely blanketed the administration on three major programs.

During its longest session since Reconstruction,

Congress supported the president on his foreign policy requests.

In addition it gave him substantially what he asked for in the Reciprocal Trade Expansion Act, aid for depressed areas, manpower retraining program, postal rate and federal employee pay increases and increased minimum wages.

His incentive tax exemption and strict farm production control programs were approved in part. But Congress turned a deaf ear to administration requests for federal aid to schools and colleges, health insurance for the aged financed through higher social security taxes and establishment of a department of urban affairs.

PRESTIGE BATTLE

The final week saw Congress trying desperately to pass a comparatively few appropriation and authorization measures in the face of a revived prestige battle between the House and Senate.

Sunday, less than 24 hours after both houses adjourned, the Republican leaders issued a statement blasting the 87th as a congress which accomplished little and mismanaged much.

In the statement Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and his House counterpart, Charles Halleck of Indiana, placed much of the blame on Kennedy.

They said Kennedy saddled Congress with too many requests, most of which were more or less "pretextual" for more money or concentrating more power in the federal government.

Whatever else may be said of the 87th, it was the third largest spending in congressional history with a total of $101.3 billion appropriated for current and future fiscal years. This was exceeded only by the wartime $147 billion of 1942 and $115 billion of 1943. Still, this year's total was about $3.8 billion less than Kennedy had asked.

Kennedy's budget message last January forecast actual expenditures this fiscal year of $92.5 billion with a surplus of $600 million.

Since then the Treasury has said a deficit is probable, possibly ranging between $4 to $6 billion.

The question of house-senate prestige was very much in evidence in the closing days.

REACHES CLIMAX

Does the House have the exclusive right to initiate appropriation measures? The House said yes, the Senate said no.

The hassle reached a climax Friday when Rep. Clarence Cannon, D-Mo., veteran House Appropriations Committee chairman, demanded a roll call in an attempt to defeat a $300,000 survey item which the Senate had tacked onto the $5-billion public works appropriation measure.

The House passed the $5-billion public works appropriation measure, but sidetracked a $650-million supplemental appropriation, which included funds for increased pensions for retired federal employees. Cannon had vowed to block the latter measure by a parliamentary maneuver.

Cannon took the floor in the closing minutes to lash Speaker John McCormack, D-Mass. Cannon called McCormack's leadership "biased and inept."

The prestige question remained unsettled. The Senate bowed to most House demands in the drive for adjournment, but served notice that it will renew its quest in the 88th Congress opens its doors next Jan. 9.

Leaders of both houses hammered out a compromise late Friday night. With enough members called back to Washington to enable the House to do business Saturday, it unfolded this way:

The House passed the $5-billion public works appropriation measure, but sidetracked a $650-million supplemental appropriation, which included funds for increased pensions for retired federal employees. Cannon had vowed to block the latter measure by a parliamentary maneuver.

Cannon took the floor in the closing minutes to lash Speaker John McCormack, D-Mass. Cannon called McCormack's leadership "biased and inept."

The prestige question remained unsettled. The Senate bowed to most House demands in the drive for adjournment, but served notice that it will renew its quest in the 88th Congress opens its doors next Jan. 9.

Weather Delays N-Test

HONOLULU (AP) — Unfavorable weather at Johnston Island forced a 24-hour postponement of the United States' high-altitude nuclear test Sunday night.

The delay was announced by Joint Task Force 8 three hours before the test shot was to be detonated. It was the first delay in this nation's efforts to resume testing since a suspension last July.

The U. S. Weather Bureau in Honolulu said heavy cloud layers carried rain squalls over the tiny atoll, 750 miles southwest of Hawaii.

The nuclear shot, equivalent in power to less than one million tons of TNT, was rescheduled to night for between 9:30 p.m. HST (2:30 a.m. EST Tuesday) and 2:30 a.m. HST Tuesday (7:30 a.m. EST).

The device, fired at an altitude between 30 and 40 miles, will be carried aloft by a Thor missile. The only successful attempt, on July 8, lighted much of the Pacific and painted the sky with a rainbow of color.

But Papa Doubts Tony, 12, to Continue

John Huston's Son Acting

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD—The theatrical tradition of the Huston family has been launched into the third generation, but it won't continue. Not if Papa John has his way.

First came Walter Huston, whom some considered the best American actor of his generation. Walter stired John, who became a fine screen writer "High Sierra," "Sergeant York" and then one of the best directors "The Treasure of Sierra Madre," "Asphalt Jungle," "African Queen."

Now there is Tony, a slender, handsome 12-year-old who is playing an important role in his father's "The List of Adrian Messenger."

John was asked if he had any advice to give his son about acting.

"No, I just gave him a kick in the pants and told him to remember not to do it again," said the director.

If the acting bug takes with Tony, his father has no one to blame but himself.

"It was all my idea," the director admitted. "Nobody connected with the picture knew Tony but me. We needed a boy who could ride well in a fox hunt sequence, and Tony rides beautifully. We shot the sequence in Ireland, and he was just great. He was on a lovely grey horse and he rode as if he were a part of the horse."

Tony plays the son of Dana Wynter in the film, and he also has some dramatic scenes to play. John reported the boy is performing ably. He has lived in Ireland most of his life, so his speech is not exactly American.

"But he has a good ear," John said. "When we are talking to an Irish country type, he'll speak to me in perfect English. Then he'll turn to the Irishman and speak the same provincial talk.

"I'm not too concerned about his becoming an actor. I think he has in mind becoming president of the United States. At least he was asking me about the professions one day and he said he would like to study law. But he didn't want to become a lawyer, he said."

After the movie, Tony will be packed off to school in England, where, his father hopes, he will forget any notions about continuing the family heritage.

John said his own father didn't introduce him to show business. John himself had a brief fling at acting, "but nothing serious." His career really went into high gear when he wrote and directed "The Maltese Falcon," still a classic in the mystery-adventure field.

"The List of Adrian Messenger" is his return to the suspense film. "It is a breeze," said Huston, who has recently directed such problem movies as "Moby Dick," "The Misfits" and "Freud." ("A $3-million breeze," observed a production aide.)

Messenger's list contains a number of people to kill. Before he can do his dirty deeds, he is blown up in an airplane crash.

Scotched by Saloon Creations

WASHINGTON (UPI) — My invitation to attend the gala opening of the new Lilly Dache salon here probably was a mistake. I know that my acceptance was. I thought it said "saloon."

"Somehow I had Lilly Dache, the famed designer, confused with Lilly Langtry, who was a Lilly of another valley. But I had a gala time anyway."

Miss Dache thought she could influence me by inviting me up to the salon, parading beautiful models before me and playing me with champagne, she was right.

MAKES PREDICTION

I'll stake my reputation as an international fashion expert that her creations will be the hit of the season.

But if other designers would like to compete for my endorsement, ment, I'm available. In other words, girls, I can be had.

One model appeared in a creation that appeared to have been created by cross-pollinating an Army pup tent with the Dalai Lama's night-shirt.

"What is that you have on, my child?" I asked when she had swished around in my vicinity.

"It's a housecoat, sir," she said.

"Does the furniture come with it?" I inquired.

She instantly evaporated and reappeared at the other end of the room.

FOR ZE RELAXATION

Later on, I asked Miss Dache what had inspired the creation.

"Eet ees for relaxation," said Miss Dache, whose French accent survived a stint as a salongirl at Macy's. "Eet ees for a woman to be herself in."

There certainly was plenty of room for a woman to be herself in. In fact, she could be three other people and still not be crowded.

A rather squatly built lady who accompanied me to the opening complained that Miss Dache's creations seemed to favor tall women. Miss Dache was quick to enter a rebuttal.

Slipping off her shoes and hat, she revealed that she herself is a towering 5-foot-2.

"You have to add a little at the bottom and a little at the top," she said, flourishing the accessories.

It was an academic issue anyway. I couldn't afford her creations if they had been designed by pygmies.

As we were leaving, I overheard two women discussing the figure of a third, who apparently was a bit on the portly side.

"With a figure like that," one of them said, "she should have her clothes designed at Vic Tanny's."

Every Brother Sick in London Hospital

LONDON (AP)—American pop singer Don Everly was reported improving today and in satisfactory condition. He was hospitalized in London Sunday for the second time in 12 hours.

The hospital refused to give the diagnosis of the 25-year-old singer's condition. His wife said she had been told he had food poisoning.

A spokesman for the singer said he appeared he would be hospitalized for a day or two more.

The Everly brothers were scheduled to open their British tour in East London Sunday night. Phil Everly went on alone.

May Form Peace Corps

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—Formation of an Israeli peace corps is being considered by the Foreign Ministry, Issachar Ben Yacov, of the ministry's internationalism.

The Everly brothers were scheduled to open their British tour in East London Sunday night. Phil Everly went on alone.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY

For some time many of our best players have reverted to the early days of contract and have been playing "limit raises."

Thus the jump raise to three of partner's bid suit shows 10 to 12 cards, possibly 13 supporting points, and while it is not a force it is a very strong invitation to a further bid.

When their hand is strong enough for a forcing raise they respond with an artificial bid of three no-trump. In duplicate they note on their convention card that the three no-trump response to a major suit opening is a strangle raise and may not be passed.

The North hand is a perfect three no-trump response for one

31 Women at Meeting

Dr. and Mrs. James R. Quinn, Mary-ellen, 13, and Jimmie, 9, of West Valley Road, were on hand bright and early Saturday morning for Pine Lake Country Club's excursion to East Lansing and the traditional University of Michigan-Michigan State clash. The Quinns were among three busloads of club members who had breakfast in the lakeside clubhouse before departing.

Also enjoying the pre-game breakfast at Pine Lake Country Club Saturday morning were Mr. and Mrs. Milo J. Cross of North Hammond Lake Drive.

Some 31 members of the Women's Society of Christian Service attended Thursday's meeting in Oakland Park Methodist Church.

A portrayal of various projects planned for the week of self-denial and prayer was presented as a shadow story by members, assisted by several children.

Mrs. Frank Martin planned the program. Refreshments were served by nonrenewal members under the direction of Mrs. John Welby.

Extension Unit Hosts Student From Germany

Gerlinde Supplitt, a German exchange student, was guest speaker at a luncheon meeting of the Pleasant Lake Extension Unit in the home of Mrs. Harold Brazell, 11111a Lakeside Road.

She attends Waterford Township High School and makes her home with the Allen Priestly family.

A program on the "Michigan Tax Dollars" with a guest speaker is set for Nov. 13 with Mrs. Harold Callahan, hostess.

Say Hello, Go Away but Return

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: Should my daughter, aged 20, be allowed to entertain her young friends at dinner alone, or must my husband and I be present? My daughter would like to invite her boy friend and another young couple to dinner this coming Saturday. She will cook and serve the dinner herself.

I suggested that my husband and I go out that evening and leave the young people alone, but he thinks it would not be proper to do this and that we should be in the house. I would like to know what you think about this?

A: It will be entirely proper for you and your husband to go out that evening if you don't leave until your daughter's guests arrive and tell them as you leave that you hope to be back home before they go to say goodnight to them.

Q: A friend and I have been discussing the use of Miss and Mrs. in connection with a return address. She adheres to the rule that one should never prefix his (or her) name with a title.

Although I realize this is not done when signing one's name, I think it is entirely correct to use a title when writing a return address. Will you please tell us who is right?

A: You are right. You never sign your name with a title but when writing a return address on the envelope, it is correct to prefix a title to your name.

Q: The question of how to eat fried shrimp has come up many times and we would appreciate your settling it. When the tails are left on the shrimp, is it proper to eat them up by the tails and eat them in the fingers, or must they be cut in half and eaten with a fork?

A: They must be eaten with a fork.

Q: Will you please tell me how my name should correctly appear on a name plate which is to be placed on my desk? In my job I come in contact with the public and a name plate is used for identification purposes. Should it be Miss Anne Smith, Miss Smith or Anne Smith?

A: Miss Anne Smith.

Writers' Confab Slated

Michigan State University Oakland's Division of Continuing Education and the Detroit Women Writers' Club will sponsor a writers' conference Saturday at MSUO.

The conference is designed to give concrete technical assistance to fledgling writers, as well as to offer established writers an opportunity to get together for shop talk and the stimulation of exchanging ideas.

At the request of the co-sponsors, Gov. John B. Swainson has proclaimed this week as Michigan Writers' Week.

Margaret Hendrix, editorial associate, Writers' Digest, will open the conference at 9:30 a. m. speaking on "The Craftsmanship of Creative Writing."

LUNCHEON SPEAKER Luncheon speaker will be Marceline Hemingway Sanford, author of "At the Hemingways: The Years of Innocence."

Round tables, proceeding concurrently, will each concentrate on one field of writing: novel, short story, poetry, light verse, nonfiction, TV and radio scripts.

Since the conference is concerned with the practical aspects of breaking into print, discussions beginning at 3 p. m. will center around the subject: "Trends, Taboos and New Freedoms in Writing."

Manuscript criticism service by the Writers' Digest will be available. Bring manuscripts to the conference, register them and pay for criticism.

Naples' 'Flags'

There is no such thing as a wash day in Naples. Women in that crowded city wash every day — and the lines of flagging laundry which stretch from building to building form a "scud" "flags" which identify the Italian city just as surely as does the sight of her famous bay.

Mother-in-Law Good Cook
Kills Him With Kindness
By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: Every summer my mother-in-law comes to visit us for two weeks. She is not hard to get along with but here is my complaint: She takes over my kitchen and makes "all the things Sam-my likes."
All year I am careful not to give Sam rich or fattening foods because he has a tendency to put on weight. (He weighs 170 now and should weigh 155.)
His mother cooks with schmaltz and makes noodle dishes until I think I will scream.
Sam put on 15 pounds in the two weeks she was here. He says he'll take it off, but I know he won't.
I can't tell his mother to stay out of my kitchen, and Sam loves to eat that stuff. What should I do?
SAM'S WIFE
DEAR WIFE: At the rate Sam is going, if he puts on 15 pounds every year, by 1970 he'll weigh 290!
Tell Sam's mother if she doesn't quit killing Sam with kindness, you'll be Sam's widow.
DEAR ABBY: How lait do you think a boy in the 6th grade should be aloud to stay up if he gets up at seven in the morning and makes strait As?
THE BOY
DEAR BOY: Until 9 p.m. But if YOU got an A in spelling, I think your teacher is staying up too late.
DEAR ABBY: I am 10 years old and want a new bike. My father says I can have it if I save up the money for it. It costs a fortune.
I get my money from my father. So why should I take the money from my father and give it to the cycle shop man? Why doesn't my father just give the money to the cycle shop man and leave me out of it?
JEFFERY M.
DEAR JEFFERY: Because your father wants to teach you to SAVE money. And when you've saved enough to buy the new bike, you'll really appreciate it.
However, if you explain it to your Dad the way you've explained it to me, you'll probably get the bike tomorrow.
DEAR ABBY: My mother is a business woman so you know she is not stupid.
She is an attractive, 48-year-old divorcee. She has permitted a young man 10 years her junior to live in her home since March.
My sixteen-year-old brother lives there, too. The whole thing is probably innocent but I don't think it looks right. She is not the type you can talk to. Should I do anything?
WORRIED
DEAR DAUGHTER: Yes. Talk to her. Maybe you have her "typed" wrong.
What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3363, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Your Man Treated as Head of House?

By RUTH MILLETT
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The man of the house isn't being treated like the head of the house if —

He hasn't his own comfortable easy chair which nobody else in the family usurps.

He isn't consulted before his wife accepts an invitation that includes them both.

He isn't told anything his wife and children think he should know.

He has to get his own breakfast morning after morning because his wife likes to sleep late.

His preferences aren't considered when the house is redecorated.

His wife has the habit of saying "my house" and "my children" instead of saying "our."

His children never go to him for permission to do anything but always go to their mother.

His wife is forever complaining about his hobbies.

His friends are never included when his wife plans a party because they won't "fit in" with her friends and their husbands.

He is frequently in the dog house for something he did or for something he neglected to do.

He is afraid not to take his wife's advice on everything because if he doesn't and things go wrong he knows he will be hearing "I told you so" for a long, long time.

He knows that his wife will always side with the children against him if he should ever dare to put his foot down.

'Teen Problem' Same in Slum as Suburb

By MURIEL LAWRENCE
Newspaper Enterprise Association

"The kids have their mothers by a ring through the nose." "Parents can't say 'No' anymore because they've identified themselves with the kids." "They won't let the kids take their own knocks."

These are a teacher, a psychiatrist and a policeman talking in a new book called "Suburbia's Coddled Kids," by Peter Wyden, a writer and editor who is fed up with what he calls the "sheltering process" by which the parents of our expensively bartered suburbs are weakening their children's moral and physical strengths.

Your pardon, Mr. Wyden. A kid doesn't have to be driven to school to put a ring through mummy's nose. Slum kids are awfully good at parental nose-against too.

If a kid from my city's East Side slums plays hockey from school, his ma will condone his behavior to the trustee officer just as defensively as your cashmere-muffled mummy falsifies Larry's absence note to teacher.

In my town's children's court, overprotective mothers glare just as balefully at the judge who tries to interpret reality to their coddled kids as suburbia's mummy glares at the principal who suggests that Larry can attend school with a sprained thumb.

Let's not get social and economic status mixed up in this universal problem of parental overindulgence — or we'll be bogged down by the fact that we're all in the same leaky boat.

And all in it for the same reason: We don't know what we want for kids anymore.

In suburbia we don't know whether we want Lois to wear a strapless gown to junior high graduation — or whether we think it's crazy. We don't know whether we want Philip to "progress at his own pace" — or push him so hard that Harvard will have to take him.

SAME IN SLUMS

In the slums, it's the same. Do we want Joe to grow up honest — or become a big shot like the bookie down the block? Do we want Conchita to get home from the movie at 11:30 — or get herself "Americanized" like the social worker says she should?

Whether we live in a tenement or a charming ranch house, we don't know what we want for the kids any more. They're aware of it — and make our decisions for us.

In this new world of terrifying possibilities and intolerable pressures, indecision has become our most popular response to it. And it is no respecter of annual income.

Prevent Snags

Whether you wash nylon and lingerie by hand or machine, cut down on snags by inserting them in a drawing bag made of heavy duty nylon mesh. A convenient size, which holds up to ten pair of hose, is also handy for machine-laundering elusive small items — such as handkerchiefs and baby socks.

Knuckle News

New conversation piece in jewelry: the knuckle ring. One designer has produced a ring to be worn on milady's fourth finger, right hand. The ring, priced at $3,000, is a high-rising mound of 14-carat antique gold set with a two-carat diamond flanked by smaller diamonds.

The Captivating Capri... Ford's dashing personal coupe from England

There are many sport coupes that cost hundreds, yes, even thousands more than the captivating Capri. But there's not a solitary one that tops Ford's most personal coupe from England for the appeal of right design.

Luxurious Comfort

It's a two seater for most of your driving but there's space for the occasional extra passenger. Upholstery is soft English leather facing over foam rubber for the contoured bucket seats. Carpeting is deep tufted, bound, and hand fitted wall to wall. You get a padded dash, too, and a car wide parcel tray plus a spacious glove locker.

Nimble Performance

Capri's engine is rally bred, 4 cylinders. Overhead valves. Zero to 60 very briskly. Disc brakes up front, same as used on expensive racing machines. They're fade free! Transmission is 4 speed, with your choice of column or floor shift.

Why not let a Capri tell you the rest of its story itself? You'll agree it's...

Handbags Hints

Handbag shapes to watch include the satchel, gathered pouch, molded hump and envelope. The satchel, gathered pouch and envelope shapes look like they sound — and hang from a strap or hard handle. The hump looks like a portable kennel for a miniature poodle. You hang onto it by clutching a firm handle.

Don't Cubbyhole Life

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

We live on a lovely lake. In fact, our lawn slopes right down to our waterfront. One day this summer I was sitting on the front porch when I heard an unfamiliar sound. I said to my daughter-in-law, "Ann, what is that noise that sounds like a duck?" She replied, "A duck."

That shows how silly we can sound, and goodness knows how silly we can act, with our preconceived ideas! I know how a duck sounds because I did not know that one of our neighbors has three I distrust myself and my ears.

RIGHT

Why in the world shouldn't a lake have ducks and ducks have a lake? I wish I had thought of it first because that "Quack, Quack" was one of the most peaceful, RIGHT back-to-nature sounds I have heard from the lake in some time. I hope they visit us often.

This experience stirred up some ideas in my little duck mind. Why must we cubbyhole life with everything where we expect it to be? Life would be pretty dull if we didn't hear an unexpected "Quack" once in a while. If we no ever startled us with unusual behavior or ideas, or if the weatherman were always correct and nature held no surprises for us.

Whether you are shocked or just plain surprised, you may find life more invigorating because of the adventure of the unusual.

Why should we always expect everyone else to act just the way we expect or want them to? Why should we be annoyed rather than delighted when someone has the originality to escape the usual mold with new facets of personality and ideas, dreams and thoughts which we had not suspected in him?

Yet many people feel that anything which is or anyone who is a bit different is subject to criticism and is outrageous instead of exciting and stimulating.

I think we are all too likely to divide life into categories and sort it into well-marked cubbyholes. I believe that life would be more adventurous and we would remain younger longer if we did not do this.

PERRY PHARMACY MEDICAL MIRROR School Problem

Q. Why can't phlebotomy control be exercised in schools? I have spent a small fortune on medication and now the doctor tells me my child is not infected again. I want to send them to school. What can I do to start a control program?

A. Recently developed drugs are highly effective and, with proper hygiene, will clear up phlebotomy infection in short order. However, reinfection can occur at any time. An outbreak among school children does present problems unless every parent is willing to cooperate. Don't become overly alarmed, but should you encounter more difficulty why not discuss the matter with the school nurse or principal? We realize that it is a delicate subject, but with a tactful approach, you may accomplish a very worthwhile educational endeavor.

Reinforcements Sent to Border

Red China, India Get Ready for Trouble

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Red China and India are reported moving reinforcements to the disputed border area on India's northeast frontier where sharp fighting erupted last Wednesday.

Sources in the Indian capital confirmed the buildup, but prospects of either side launching a major offensive soon seemed remote. Winter weather is settling over the Himalayan region.

In Colombo, Ceylon, Prime Minister Nehru yesterday declared his forces in the area "are not strong enough for a military onslaught." He called them "check posts, not military bases."

He added: "We are not interested in fighting. But the difficulty is how to halt their advance into our country. Our position is frightfully difficult. We have to defend ourselves. Otherwise they'll march on."

Nehru was commenting on Chinese charges yesterday that India is preparing a massive invasion of the area.

ORDER CITED

The Chinese cited an order by Nehru to his troops last week to clear the Chinese out of the area, India claims. The Chinese warned any move against their forces would be dealt "resolute counter-blows."

Nehru, looking weary from three days of public functions in Ceylon, reiterated at a news conference that his country is not prepared to negotiate on the border issue unless the Chinese first withdraw their forces.

He said that otherwise "while we are discussing they are advancing into our country and moving into area where historically they had not been previously."

Informants in Darjeeling, in northeast India near the trouble spot, said 300 to 500 trucks carrying Chinese Communist troops and military supplies travel daily from Lhasa, the Tibetan capital, to Tsonga, Red China's operations headquarters in southeastern Tibet.

The extent of the Indian buildup was not revealed.

Sailors Steel Fire Truck, Go Joy Riding

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—It didn't take police long to arrest two sailors who stole the city's $30,000 hook and ladder fire truck.

The truck was taken as it stood unattended outside a department store Saturday night after its crew had been called to the store to work on defective fire-fighting equipment.

Police said Joe Lee Hammond and Ashley Gordon Swain, assigned to the destroyer Hank, drove the big truck down the street with the red lights flashing.

A police car pulled in front to escort the fire truck. Then came a radio dispatch that the truck had been stolen and the officers arrested Hammond and Swain on theft charges.

Long Island Paper Backs Rockefeller

GARDEN CITY, N. J. (AP)—Newspaper endorsed Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller for reelection today on the basis of what the Long Island newspaper called his "substantial record of accomplishment" during his first term.

The politically independent daily newspaper, of which Alicia Patterson is editor and publisher, supported Democrat W. Averell Harriman in his campaign for reelection against Rockefeller in 1958.

Newspaper endorsed Republican Sen. Jacob K. Javits for reelection on his record as "one of the best in a long line of senators from New York State."

Lions Roar Statistically, but Need Plum's Toe in 13-10 Win

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

DETROIT — "It wasn't a let down, it was just one of those days," coach George Wilson said after the Lions got by with a 13-10 victory over the Los Angeles Rams.

In fact, many of the Lions' players were quite happy over the victory with the self-satisfaction that it was more one-sided than the score indicated.

Statistically this was true. The Lions had the edge in all statistical departments. Coach Wilson did admit however that "It was hard to understand why there wasn't more scoring."

PLUM'S TOE BIG

Mill Plum again had things under control, but yesterday it was his toe rather than his arm which provided the margin of victory. Plum, who had never kicked or even attempted a pro field goal before, split the uprights for a 43 yarder in the second quarter and another for 31 yards in the third period.

The Lions dominated the game throughout as indicated by the fact they had 73 plays to only 39 for the Rams and they allowed the Los Angeles visitors only 21 offensive yards in the first half.

Second year back Dick Bass had 26 yards running in the first half, but in the final two periods he stole the show with several long gainers for 114 more yards.

The Lions scored first by going 71 yards in eight plays with Danny Lewis ramming over from the two after Terry Barr was stopped at this point following a 28 yard pass play from Plum.

The Lions used a bit of trickery in their next possession series. On 4th down and five on the Rams' 26, the Lions lined up for a field goal and sent Lewis in motion.

The Rams blocked the kick and Lewis drew them offside. The penalty gave Detroit a first down on the 30.

"We deliberately put the man in motion, figuring if we didn't make the field goal we might get five yards by drawing them offside," said Wilson.

Wayne Walker however then missed his field goal try from the 26.

"We work a play like that and then we go for a scoring chance," said Wilson.

Los Angeles got into the scoring column with Danny Villanueva splitting the uprights for a 3-pointer from the 49 yard line midway in the second period.

FIRST TRY GOOD

When Walker had another field goal try blocked, Wilson decided then to put Plum in for the attempt just before half ended. He made good on his first pro try from the 43.

The Rams moved fast to start the third quarter. Bobby Smith ran back the kickoff to his own 30. Bass then raced 34 and 18 yards and on the Lions 17, Zeke Bratkowski's pass was intercepted by Gary Lowe on the two.

With Placoste as the workhorse, the Lions later moved to the Rams 34 with 57 seconds left. Plum came in and kicked his second pointer from the 31-yard line.

Helped by a 48 yard run by Bass, the Rams got to the Lions' 11-yard line in the opening minutes of the final period. Then came the "key" play of the game, according to Wilson.

On 4th down and only inches to go, the Lions' defensive line stopped the challenge of Art Perkins and took over.

On the ensuing march, Plum's pass was intercepted by Smith and ran 67 yards to the Detroit 20. On this march, the Lions used up 7 minutes but the explosive Rams needed only three plays, with a 37 yard TD pass to Carroll Dale over the head of Dick LeBeau.

For the final 3:31, the Lions controlled the ball with Plum passing for a key first down to Gail Cogdill on his own 39 yard line.

'Castoff' Leads Wings' Victory

DETROIT — Parker MacDonald has gone from retirement in anger to the Red Wings' leading scorer in less than one year.

"Good move I made coming back, wasn't it?" smiled the 28-year-old veteran and former castoff last night after he scored twice in Detroit's 3-1 victory over the Montreal Canadiens.

After three games in the new season, the Red Wings are unbeaten and in first place in the National Hockey League. Yet the Wings have scored only five goals in the three games. MacDonald has scored three of them.

Sharing the praise with MacDonald for the surprise start is goalie Terry Sawchuk. The veteran goalie, wearing a mask for the first time, has allowed just two goals in Detroit's three starts.

He foiled three Canadian breakaways last night and was unstoppable on Claude Provost's unexpected deflection in front of the cage.

MacDonald earned a reprieve from the minors with his work in coach Sid Abel's training camp. A year ago when the wings sent him to Sudbury in the Eastern League, MacDonald decided to quit. Earlier he'd been cast aside by Toronto and New York and demotion to a low minor league was just too much.

"I decided to pack it up, forget about hockey," MacDonald recalled last night. "I just went home to Nova Scotia and stayed there two weeks."

The Wings finally relented and farmed MacDonald to Hershey in the stronger American League. He was destined to remain there, at the new Pittsburgh farm, this year until he impressed Abel at training camp.

"We needed a left winger and decided to give him a chance on the first line," said Abel.

BOOKIE SCORES
MacDonald broke a scoreless tie early in the second period with a hard shot after a pass from Gordie Howe. Rookie Alex Faulkner made it 2-0 later in the period with a fluke shot from behind the goal. The puck hit goalie Cesare Manigo's skates and rolled in.

Provost cut Detroit's lead in half 45 seconds after Faulkner's goal. But MacDonald scored again midway in the third period.

The victory left Detroit with five points, one more than the Boston Bruins.

The Bruins tied the Chicago Black Hawks 2-2 on Doug Mohn's billiard-type shot. New York whipped Stanley Cup champion Toronto 5-3. Ted Hampson, Ken Schinkel, Camille Henry, Junior Langlois and Jean Ratelle scored for the Rangers.

Manigo, who had been in the lineup since he was called up from the minors, was not charged with the loss.

Manager Ralph Houk of the Yankees went with the same lineup he employed in all but the second game when first baseman Bill Skowron and catcher Ellie Howard were sidelined because of injuries. Manager Alvin Dark made one change, switching from Tom Haller to Ed Bailey behind the plate. Each is a left-handed batter.

IF NEEDED
Dark reiterated that Jack Sanford, his right-handed ace, would pitch the seventh game if one was needed. Houk and he still was undecided between Ralph Terry and Bill Stafford. Terry out-pitched Sanford in the fifth game and Stafford beat Pierce in the third. Sanford won the second from Terry.

The two teams, bored and physically ailing from the four-day inactivity, journeyed by bus Sunday to Modesto, Calif., 90 miles away and each worked out for two hours at the Web Stadium.

Modesto, a rich dairy and farm community (pop. 38,000), some-how managed to escape most of

Finally Get Word to Play 6th Game

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The

off-played sixth game of the World Series between New York and San Francisco positively was to be played at 12 noon (local time) today with the Yankees' Whitey Ford facing the Giants' Billy Pierce.

The veteran left-handers had been primed since last Friday but the worst October storm to lash the Bay Area in 15 years forced Commissioner Ford Frick to postpone the game Sunday for the third straight day.

The sun shone brightly and the skies, leaded and leaky ever since the teams returned from New York, were smiling on Candlestick Park when the commissioner came out to inspect it. But a quick check of the sudden outfield and a brief huddle with head groundskeeper Matty Schwab convinced him it would be best to wait another day.

MORE SUN
"A little more sun and some wind," said Schwab, "and the outfield turf would be 70 per cent improved and definitely playable by game time Monday."

Late Sunday night, the outfield area had dried to such an extent that the grass was cut. A chemical composition used to open pores in the hardpan sods helped, too.

A sellout crowd of some 44,000 was expected to attend what may be the World Series finale. The Yankees, leading in games, three to two, needed one more triumph to post their 20th world championship since they won their first in 1923. That was against the Giants, too.

Both pitchers were well rested. Pierce, who never has lost in Candlestick Park, winning all 12 decisions, had not pitched since he was beaten in the third series game, at Yankee Stadium, last Sunday.

FIVE STRAIGHT
Ford, winner of five straight series games, including a 6-2 triumph here in the opener, last appeared on the mound a week ago when the Giants evaded the series at two-all with a 7-3 victory. Ford tied after six innings with the score tied at 2-2 and was not charged with the loss.

Manager Ralph Houk of the Yankees went with the same lineup he employed in all but the second game when first baseman Bill Skowron and catcher Ellie Howard were sidelined because of injuries. Manager Alvin Dark made one change, switching from Tom Haller to Ed Bailey behind the plate. Each is a left-handed batter.

IF NEEDED
Dark reiterated that Jack Sanford, his right-handed ace, would pitch the seventh game if one was needed. Houk and he still was undecided between Ralph Terry and Bill Stafford. Terry out-pitched Sanford in the fifth game and Stafford beat Pierce in the third. Sanford won the second from Terry.

The two teams, bored and physically ailing from the four-day inactivity, journeyed by bus Sunday to Modesto, Calif., 90 miles away and each worked out for two hours at the Web Stadium.

Modesto, a rich dairy and farm community (pop. 38,000), some-how managed to escape most of the heavy rainfalls that drenched afterwards. "The players not only benefited by getting the kinks out of their legs and arms, but it was a great morale shot in the arm. They were so bored because of the long layoff, I was afraid it "It was wonderful," said Houk might affect their play."

The sun shone brightly and the skies, leaded and leaky ever since the teams returned from New York, were smiling on Candlestick Park when the commissioner came out to inspect it. But a quick check of the sudden outfield and a brief huddle with head groundskeeper Matty Schwab convinced him it would be best to wait another day.

MORE SUN
"A little more sun and some wind," said Schwab, "and the outfield turf would be 70 per cent improved and definitely playable by game time Monday."

Late Sunday night, the outfield area had dried to such an extent that the grass was cut. A chemical composition used to open pores in the hardpan sods helped, too.

Spoil Homecomings for Rams, St. Mike

By JERE CRAIG

Two local Northwest Parochial League schools observed homecoming Sunday, but it was the visitors' football teams that celebrated the victories.

Waterford Our Lady of the Lakes rallied for two second period touchdowns and a safety Sunday night to grab a 14-13 decision from St. Michael. Royal Oak St. Mary rudely smashed outmanned St. Frederick 41-12 in the daylight portion of the doubleheader at Visser Stadium.

The archrival contest was a close, hard hitting affair all the way. St. Mike's jumped to an early 13-0 advantage, scoring the first two times it had the football.

The Shamrocks took the opening kick off and drove 68 yards in 10 plays for a touchdown. Big plays in the drive were a 16-yard romp by fullback Dick Chastin on the first play from scrimmage and a 19-yard pass play from quarterback Larry Sonnenberg to end Don Shadrack that placed the football on the one-yard-line of WOLL.

Sonnenberg plunged for the score. The placement was muffed and it proved to be the deciding point in the contest.

Sonnenberg's passing following a fumble recovery at the Lakers' 23-yard line produced the second St. Mike touchdown. He hit junior halfback Rick Steinheiser with an 11-yard toss for a first down, and then found halfback Larry Laroussa in the clear at 10 and the receiver easily scored to complete a 26-yard play. Sonnenberg ran for the extra point.

The Lakers took the kickoff and drove 64 yards in 13 plays. The running of Dave Ottman, George Sharpe and Tim Davis carried the signal to the St. Mike 28-yard marker. With fourth down and 12 to go, quarterback Wes Borys hit Ottman on a beautiful 26-yard pass play for a first down at the two.

ONE POINT MARGIN
Ottman scored from the one two plays later, and when the PAT pass fell incomplete, St. Mike led 13-6.

WOLL received its big break in the game late in the first half. A bad pass from center on fourth down went high over the head of Shamrock punter Tim Dropps and rolled into the end zone. Right end Joe Petrucci of WOLL pushed Dropps across the back line and another two points were added to the Lakers' total on a safety.

After receiving the Shamrocks' free kick, the blue-and-white clad visitors needed only 1:38 to drive 33 yards in seven plays for the deciding six points. Borys completed back-to-back passes of 17 and 21 yards in the drive.

Borys lunged from the one for the touchdown with 29 seconds remaining in the first half. The PAT was missed and wasn't needed as the first half and ball game both ended with WOLL leading 14-13.

The second quarter of the game was high point in the season for the winless Rams. After Don Wells, son of the coach and stand-out runner and passer for the Irish, ran four yards for a touchdown by the visitors, the Chuck Lewis coached Rams moved for their first six points of the season.

St. Fred went 72 yards in four plays. Larry Walters passed to Mike Dean for a 65-yard gain that put the football on the one. Walter plunged over and the loyal Ram followers heard their happiest moments of the season.

Spurred by their newly found offensive success, the losers scored again with 13 seconds remaining in the first half. Mike Winney ran four yards off tackle for the six pointer. The visitors, however, led 29-12 at the intermission break.

The pot was put up by the Western Golf Sponsors Association as bait for the pros to play in all five tournaments on the Westgate swing—Denver, Seattle, Portland, Las Vegas and Bakersfield.

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP) — One of golf's friendliest fat men, Billy Casper Jr., headed to the bank today to deposit $9,400 and perhaps indulge in one of his favorite pastimes, flashin'.

The 31-year-old Casper, who really is more rotund than fat, literally stole the top money in the $40,000 Bakersfield Open Sunday.

He followed a spectacular third round 65 Saturday with a Sunday for a 72-hole total of 272. That was 16 shots under par for the 72 holes and four strokes in front of his nearest challenger.

The win was worth $6,400 in PGA prize money calculations. The extra $3,000 was Casper's share for placing second in the so-called $19,000 honey pot.

The pot was put up by the Western Golf Sponsors Association as bait for the pros to play in all five tournaments on the Westgate swing—Denver, Seattle, Portland, Las Vegas and Bakersfield.

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (U-P) — Hunking Junior Johnson of Ronda, N.C., grabbed the lead at the start Sunday and went on to victory in the 400-mile stock car race.

The 215-pound Johnson, who started on the outside pole position, never was out of the lead except for brief times he spent in the pits. He averaged 123.26 miles an hour in a 1962 Pontiac built by Ray Folt of Daytona Beach, Fla. Johnson picked up $10,350 first prize money.

Glenn Fireball Roberts of Daytona Beach, who started on the inside pole position, finished second, nearly a lap behind, in a 1962 Pontiac. Fred Lorenzen of Elmhurst, Ill., was third in a 1962 Ford. Roberts collected $6,315 and Lorenzen $2,350.

The race was marred by only one caution flag.

MSU Win Over 'M' Lopsided but Without Finesse

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press
EAST LANSING—The Michigan

State scale of victory was not as one-sided as the 28-0 score against each rival Michigan indicated Saturday.

On one side, the Spartans showed power and speed and on the other arm of the balance, they did not have too much finesse.

This, together with a poor Michigan showing and a record crowd of 77,381 fans from Spartan Stadium shaking their heads with displeasure over the "sleepy" 1962 edition of the neighborhood rivalry.

Spartan coach Duffy Daugherty was naturally happy with the victory, but noted "We had little finesse and made too many mistakes."

DEFEAT TOUGH

He also put a sympathetic arm on coach Bump Elliott's shoulder as they left the field and told the young Wolverine coach, "I know, this is awfully tough to take."

Michigan State did roll up an impressive total of 489 yards while Michigan was held to a net of 112 yards. Wolverine ace back Dave Ramsey could hardly get past the line of scrimmage as he managed only 25 yards, while George Salines and Dewey Leland reeled off big chunks of ground for MSU and Sherm Lewis took scoring honors with three touchdowns.

One big MSU mistake came in the second period when quarterback Pete Smith, for no apparent reason, except by accident, ran into the back of Michigan's Dick Rindius who was chasing Lincoln.

Clipping was called and it nullified a beautiful 66-yard TD run by Lincoln.

MSU FUMBLES

On top of this, MSU backs fumbled seven times with Michigan recovering five times. Even this didn't help the Wolverines get into the scoring column, and without these miscues the score might have been doubled.

One thing in State's favor was that at least the Spartans were able to capitalize on Michigan's early mistakes. The first two touchdowns came after Wolverine fumbles.

Daugherty was pleased because the Spartans showed an unexpectedly strong passing attack. Pete Smith passed seven yards to Sherman Lewis for the first touchdown on a fake kick play.

Sophomore Charlie E. Mygum also tossed a touchdown pass—an 18-yarder to end Lonnie Sanders.

Lewis carried the mail for two other touchdowns on runs of three and five yards.

Running standards Salines and Lewis picked up 98 and 139 yards respectively.

Michigan fans were shuddering today in thought about facing future opponents Purdue, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Ohio State.

Observers see Elliott possibly getting his next victory against his brother Pete at Illinois when the Illini visit Ann Arbor, Nov. 10. For Michigan State, the victory at least erased some of the embarrassment suffered in the opening day loss to Stanford and the Spartans certainly must be placed among the Big 10 contenders along with Ohio State, Northwestern, Wisconsin and Purdue.

In fact, in view of losses suffered by highly ranked Penn State and Purdue this week, the Spartans may find themselves back in the top ten of the Associated Press poll.

LOOSE BALL — Fullback Gary Oade (41) of Michigan State loses his hold on the ball as he is tackled by a host of Michigan players in Saturday's game. The Wolverines recovered the fumble but MSU won, 28-0.

Southern Illinois Beats Hillsdale

Dales Out of Unbeaten Ranks

By The Associated Press
It took a school twice its size to knock Hillsdale from the ranks of the undefeated.

The Dales, top-ranked in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics last week, bowed to stronger Southern Illinois Saturday 13-7.

Albion, meanwhile, upheld its reputation as Michigan's winningest football team by scoring its 15th straight victory and fourth triumph this season — a 34-0 pasting of Anderson (Ind.) College.

The Hillsdale-Southern Illinois game had been tied 6-6 until the final period when southern's Jerry Ferris went over from the four-yard line for the winning touchdown.

LUCADAM SCORES

The Dales' lone score came after a 48-yard punt return by Chuck

Gimgher and a 47-yard drive led by Willie Jones. John Lucadam sneaked over from the one to score.

Albion's top-sided victory over Anderson saw the Hornets do some of their finest running of the season: Albion racked up 23 first downs, 384 yards rushing and 95 passing to Anderson's 13 first downs, 121 yards rushing and 85 passing to Anderson's 13 first downs, 121 yards rushing and 102 passing.

In other games, Kalamazoo stretched its unbeaten string to eight, three of the victories coming this season, by edging Ferris Institute 9-7. A field goal by Jim Smith in the final minutes of play saved the victory. Ferris now stands at 2-3 for the season.

In an MIAA clash, Alma staged a last-minute surge that fell just one point short and the Adrian 27-26 homecoming victory.

Adrian's fleet-footed Bryce Fauble scampered to three bulldog touchdowns, and quarterback Mike Knowlton also had three TDs for the losers. Adrian now is 2-1 in the MIAA and 2-2 overall, and Alma is 0-2 in the conference and 0-4 overall.

Elsewhere in the MIAA, Olivet downed hope 19-12 on Allan Burnett's 54-yard touchdown pass to Dominic Lividoti with less than two minutes of play left. It was Olivet's first MIAA victory against one loss and its fourth triumph of the season.

NEW YORK — Shuster McCure, 127, Chicago, defeated Gusie Brown, 126, Illinois, 10-10, in the MIAA. In the MIAA, Olivet 19-12, Adrian 27-26, Alma 0-2, and Michigan 28-0.

Has Trouble Beating Weaker Teams

Is Alabama Heading for Big Crash?

By The Associated Press
Is Alabama, the proud defending national college football champion, headed for a downfall?

For two weeks now, the Crimson Tide, boasting a record of 15 consecutive victories, has had to struggle to overcome its opposition. Last Saturday, Alabama staggered past Houston, 14-3. The week before, Bear Bryant's outfit scored an unimpressive 17-7 decision over Vanderbilt — a flimsy that has managed to score just 13 points in losing all four of its regular season.

Worse yet, by comparison, Mississippi, Alabama's No. 1 rival for the tough Southeastern Conference title, clobbered Houston, 40-7, just nine days ago. Alabama and Mississippi don't meet during the regular season.

Alabama, No. 1 in the current Associated Press weekly poll, meets Tennessee this week. The Vols have lost two of their three games and on the record should present no problem.

TULANE NEXT

Mississippi, No. 5 in the country, had an open date last Saturday and this week meets Tulane, Louisiana State, No. 6, and an other threat for the SEC crown, knocked Miami from the unbeaten ranks, 17-3, and now plays Kentucky. It's just possible that the LSU-Ole Miss game on Nov. 3 could settle the league race.

Meanwhile, the run for the Eastern championship has been thrown into a state of merry confusion with Army's last ditch 9-6 victory over Penn State, ranked No. 3.

Before the game, the Nittany Lions had been all but presented the Eastern title on the strength of their impressive victories over Navy, Air Force Academy and Rice.

Time was running out in the fourth quarter and it was fourth down for Army on the Penn State 15. The Cadets were trailing, 6-3, perfect spot for a field goal try.

But Coach Paul Dietzel, in a bold gambler's choice, ordered a pass. Cammy Lewis connected with Dick Peterson on the goal-line and that was all the Cadets needed.

Army plays Virginia Tech this week in a breather, while Penn State runs up against tough Syracuse in an attempt to regain some of its lost prestige.

HORNET'S NEST

Second-ranked Texas, the favorite for the Southwest Conference champion, also could be in for trouble. The Longhorns did nothing to up their prestige in a narrow 9-6 victory over Oklahoma this week. The free-wheeling Arkansas backfields also are 4-0, and have scored 146 points along the way. They are ranked No. 8 and polished off Baylor 28-21 Saturday.

The west coast, Southern California, favorite for the Big Six title, took the day off. The Trojans are No. 4. Seventh-ranked Washington barely edged Oregon State, 14-13.

West Virginia became another giant-killer by downing Pitt, 15-8, while in the Ivy League, Columbia polished off Yale, 14-10.

Georgia Tech, nursing for a national ranking shot out Tennessee, 17-0; Duke throttled California, 21-7; Northwestern vanquished Minnesota, 34-22, and Sonny Gibbs-led Texas Christian remained in the Southwest Conference race with a 35-13 triumph over Texas Tech.

Will Power Still Prevail?

Fancy 'Cats vs. Buckeyes

By The Associated Press
Northwestern pits its fancy passing game against Ohio State's pulverizing ground attack this week and the victor could very well march towards the Big Ten football championship.

Undefeated Northwestern, averaging nearly 30 points a game, had sophomore sensation Tom Myers throwing against Minnesota Saturday and the youngster pitched four touchdown passes in a 34-22 victory.

Ohio State, trying to make up for its 9-7 loss to UCLA the previous week, unleashed its ground game against helpless Illinois in a 51-15 triumph. The Buckeyes gained 517 yards on the ground, erasing their own Big Ten record of 465 against Indiana in 1956.

SHOW OF SHOWS

While these two teams put on their show-of-shows in Columbus, Iowa will be at Wisconsin in the other meeting of rivals unbeaten in conference play. Illinois will be at Minnesota and Michigan goes to Lafayette, where the red-faced Purdue Boilermakers open their conference season after Saturday's stunning upset loss to Miami of Ohio.

Other encounters find Michigan State at Notre Dame and Indiana at Washington State in a couple of efforts to bolster sagging Big Ten prestige.

The conference suffered another black eye Saturday when Purdue, ranked 9th nationally and a top contender for the Big Ten title, fell before Miami 10-7. Coupled with Wisconsin's 17-0 victory over Notre Dame, the Big Ten now has a record of 11-4-2 against non-league foes.

Last in the shuffle of the Purdue setback, Northwestern's passing attack and Ohio State's running game were Michigan State's 29-0 triumph over Michigan and Iowa's 14-10 squeeze past Indiana. Wisconsin meanwhile, remained undefeated with its victory over Notre Dame.

NOTHING NEW

Ohio State's powerful ground game is nothing new. They won the title by sticking to the ground last year and could repeat in the same manner this season.

Northwestern's passing attack, however, has the Big Ten buzzing. In three games the Wildcats have gained 744 yards through the air. Myers, who saw limited service in the 5-0 Illinois rout, has completed 43 of 80 aerials for 634 yards and seven touchdowns.

Religion Still a Force in Russia

(Editor's Note—The Soviet government recently has been campaigning against religion, but 45 years after the Communist Revolution, churches are still active in Russia.)

MOSCOW (UP) — Religion remains a vital force in the Soviet Union 45 years after the Communist Revolution.

A continuing campaign to abolish it in the name of "scientific atheism" is still only partly successful.

Recent antireligious articles in the Soviet press, however, have reminded some observers here of the ultimate future of spiritual life in the land of "socialist realism."

According to one knowledgeable observer, churches are caught in a squeeze play between the Communist party and the Soviet government.

The government, he said, tolerates some religious organizations — notably the Russian Orthodox Church — to the degree it finds them politically useful at home and abroad.

Others — such as the pentecostal sects and Jehovah's Witnesses — are outlawed on grounds they are "antisocial."

"The tolerated churches go along with the government in the hope of being allowed to continue to exist as organizations," an observer said. "At the same time, the party is putting on pressure aimed at withering them at the grass-roots level."

Despite the antireligious drive, the official Soviet news agency Tass frequently refers to church events. It reported, for instance, a gathering of 400 delegates of the Armenian Church in Yerevan and said thousands of persons from the surrounding country also arrived for the dedication ceremony in a cathedral.

Meanwhile, most Westerners who visit churches here are impressed by the number of persons who attend them.

The recent press drive against religion was typical of an apparent two-pronged campaign against churches experts first noted last in 1959.

One aspect of it seems to be aimed at weaning away church goers through persuasion. The other apparently is aimed directly at such church institutions as the clergy.

Thus, the Communist party newspaper Pravda on Sept. 20 called for wider use of the personal touch in spreading atheistic propaganda.

HEART-TO-HEART
"Quite a number of Soviet people," it said, were still "in the fetters of religion." It called for more "friendly, heart-to-heart chats with believers" to convince them of the error of their religious ways.

Pravda emphasized atheistic propaganda must be carried out in conformity with the Communist party program — "without allowing the feelings of the believers to be insulted."

Western observers interpreted the article as an implicit admission that cruder forms of atheistic propaganda which have appeared in the Soviet Union failed and may even have backfired by building up religious fervor.

Illustrative of the other aspect of the current drive was a blast published in the government newspaper Izvestia the day before the Pravda article appeared. It accused priests of "robbing" the church and staging "orgies."

"They (priests) threaten you with heavenly punishment for free thinking and doubts while they themselves live without fear of God or the Devil," the articles inveighed.

The Soviet Press also has carried occasional articles reporting the imprisonment of clergymen on such charges as income tax evasion. A well-known example was the trial of Russian Orthodox Archbishop Iov of Kazan in 1960.

CLOSE CHURCHES
In addition to attacks on the clergy, there have been some indications that some churches and seminaries have been closed in recent years.

The Rev. Eugene Black, head of the United Presbyterian Church in the United States, visited Russian churches with an American Protestant delegation this past summer. Last month he said he had heard from Soviet officials "Some churches have been closed in recent years."

Other Western sources have placed the number as high as 500 in the case of the Russian Orthodox Church alone.

Western experts estimate the number of Russian Orthodox Seminary graduates at no more than 150 per year.

The Jewish Seminary in Moscow, the only one in the Soviet Union, was reportedly down to three students at one time this year. It currently has six attending classes.

While antireligious activity has been part of the Soviet system since its founding in 1917, veteran observers point out it currently affects only a relatively small number of Soviet citizens.

"After all, this is a materialistic society," one expert said recently. "Most Russians, especially the young ones, are much more interested in motor scooters and each other than they are in either religion or Communist propaganda."

HAVE PURPOSE
At the same time, the Soviet government takes a positive attitude toward churches for a number of political purposes such as peace movements.

In this connection, the most important religious body in the Soviet Union is the Russian Orthodox Church under the leadership of Patriarch Alexis of Moscow and all Russia.

The Russian Orthodox Church has an estimated 20 to 30 million members out of a population of about 216 million. The Moscow Patriarchate claims that 20,000 churches are in use throughout the Soviet Union.

The church reached an accommodation with the Soviet regime in 1943, when Stalin entered into an unwritten "concordat" with church leaders as a result of the churches' support of the war effort against Hitler. Officially, it is under the jurisdiction of the State Committee for the Affairs of the Russian Orthodox Church.

What the church gave in return for the right to exist without undue harassment was unofficial support for the Soviet regime in public pronouncements both at home and abroad.

Patriarch Alexis, for example, was prominently in attendance at almost all the sessions of the Communist-sponsored "World Congress for Peace and General Disarmament" in Moscow last July.

Despite apparent freedom from government interference in its affairs, the Orthodox church faces a number of problems. Among the most pressing are new members and clergymen.

It has been pointed out that Soviet law forbids organized religious instruction for persons under 18 years of age.

The ritual seems too old-fashioned to us," one young Soviet said recently in commenting on the Orthodox Church. "It is not part of our times."

Among the other denominations active in the Soviet Union, the Baptist Church has had not able successes in attracting young members, and the Baptist Church in Moscow is packed to capacity every Sunday.

The churches with the smallest number of communicants are those that have been outlawed by Soviet authorities. These include the Pentecostal Brethren, Seventh-Day Adventists, Jehovah's Witnesses and "Old Believers," a 16th Century offshoot of the Orthodox Church.

They are described as the following in the authoritative "Basic Questions of Scientific Atheism" printed in the Soviet Union:

"Up until now, individual dark personalities in some localities have tried to organize, under the banner of religion, illegal political organization in the guise of sects — for example — the Seventh Day Adventists and the Jehovahs, who carry on not religious but counter-revolutionary activities."

The chief objection on the part of the authorities to the sects is the insistence of some of them that their members refrain from such activities as joining the army.

This is described in the Soviet press as "antisocial" behavior. Despite the years of strictures and occasional periods of out-and-out persecution, the Church has survived.

The basic reason appears to be that there are considerable numbers of devout persons in the Soviet Union whose feelings the regime cannot ignore.

Publisher Tells Program for New Facilities

Pontiac Press Publisher Harold A. Fitzgerald announced today a $1.5-million expansion plan for The Pontiac Press, designed to keep the newspaper growing with the expanding economy of the greater Pontiac area.

Seven Mark I Goss press units and a folder have been purchased and will be constructed and delivered by October 1963. They will be housed in a new section of The Press building adjacent to the existing north wall, running between Pine and Wayne streets.

Ground will be broken for the wing in May, it will be occupied by October, and the new presses will be in regular production by January 1964.

Start Cleanup on West Coast

47 Die in Hurricane Winds, Downpours

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The West Coast from San Francisco to British Columbia mopped up today after hurricane winds and torrential downpours left at least 47 dead and scores homeless in one of the vast area's worst storm of the century.

Damage amounted to countless millions in northern California and western Oregon, Washington and British Columbia. Not even a rough estimate of the total loss could be tabulated.

Parts of major cities and many small towns in the 75,000-square-mile storm area still were without telephone service. Emergency phone crews were flown into the area in chartered planes to patch the lines today.

FINALLY CALM

The storm, whipped tail of two dying Pacific typhoons, struck the coast Thursday night, battering Oregon the hardest. It lost its punch Sunday as it moved inland and ran up against the Rocky Mountains.

The job ahead: Caring for the homeless, more than 150 families in Oregon alone. Restoring broken gas lines, power lines and telephone service. Clearing sewers, streets and highways of storm debris—tons of mud, windblown trees, shattered billboards and signposts. Shoring up sliding houses, shoveling sludges out of others.

$150 MILLION LOST

Oregon's Gov. Mark Hatfield estimated storm losses in his state at more than $150 million.

Property damage estimates for British Columbia ran as high as $1 million.

No tally had been made of the loss in Washington or California

British, U.S. at Odds on What K Will Do

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES

LONDON — The western big powers appeared today to be in a new conflict over Berlin policy.

The major differences involve their individual assessments of the present Berlin situation and of Soviet designs on the cold war city. The British are puzzled openly by official American suggestions that the Berlin crisis is likely to blow up next month.

British diplomats do not believe, as reports from Washington have been suggesting, that the Berlin dispute is likely to be inflamed by the Kremlin to the danger point after the November elections in the United States.

British diplomats are in agreement with the United States that the Berlin situation remains very serious, but they expect Russia to launch a diplomatic offensive on Berlin rather than precipitate a showdown in the next few weeks.

In Washington, meanwhile, the United States has assured West Germany that it is determined to maintain the right of civilian as well as military access to West Berlin against any new Soviet attempt to isolate the city.

DEFINITE COMMITMENT

U. S. policy on this point is understood to have been stated emphatically to West German Foreign Minister Gerhard Schröder, who began strategy talks with Secretary of State Dean Rusk here yesterday.

Schröder will be followed to Washington Nov. 7 by West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer who wants to discuss the Berlin situation with President Kennedy in advance of a possible Kennedy meeting with Soviet Premier Khrushchev concerning Berlin.

The allies seem divided in three ways: The United States apparently fears a sudden hardening of the Communist position, but Britain expects a fresh Soviet diplomatic offensive before any overt Moscow action.

The French and Germans appear unwilling at this point to discuss any new ideas for a Berlin settlement.

CONCERN GROWING

Concern is understood to be growing in the western capitals over the absence of a firmly agreed, joint allied position on Berlin in the event Khrushchev decides to sign the much threatened peace treaty with the Communist East Germans.

The British don't think he will, at least not this fall. The Americans apparently are not sure.

One of the difficulties, according to diplomatic observers here, is the adamant stand of France which has refused to contemplate any negotiations with the Russians.

Rain, Warmth Spell 'Uncomfortable'

Showers will be frequent in the area the next five days, says the weatherman.

Precipitation is expected to total one-half to one inch. Temperatures will average four to eight degrees above the normal high of 57 to 62 and normal low of 36 to 43.

Tonight will be mostly cloudy and mild with late showers or thunderstorms. A low of 64 is expected.

Tuesday will have showers and cooler temperatures, the predicted high being 75. The mercury measured 57 at 6 o'clock this morning, but climbed to a warm 75 by 1 p.m.

U.S. Supreme Court Gets Petition

State Redistricting Challenged

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three Michigan Republican senators filed a petition in the U.S. Supreme Court today to review the decision of the Michigan Supreme Court in the State Senate reapportionment case.

The petition argued that the federal court's decision on the Tennessee case does not control the constitutional question presented in the Michigan case.

They said Michigan has established a clearly defined and workable formula for Senate districting in its constitution in an amendment approved by the voters in 1952.

Last July 18, the state court declared the 1952 apportionment provision as unconstitutional because it violated the "equal protection under the law" provision of the federal constitution.

The suit, filed by AFL-CIO President August Scholle, contended that the Senate districts should be apportioned on a strict population basis.

In deciding in Scholle's favor, the state court ordered the legislature to reapportion the Senate on a formula outlined in the 1908 constitution, or face an at-large election.

Ghana's Nkrumah Out to Reform Government

ACCRA, Ghana (AP) — President Kwame Nkrumah today appointed a four-man committee to improve efficiency and eliminate waste in government departments.

The action was foreshadowed Oct. 2 when, opening the third session of parliament, Nkrumah said he was not satisfied that everything was being done to eliminate waste.

Rain's Gone; Series Resumes

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Commissioner Ford Frick said the sixth World Series game definitely will be played today.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The rains at long last have gone, and the weatherman promises fine baseball weather for today's sixth World Series game—which was to have been played last Friday.

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick postponed the game for the third straight day Sunday. It was an unusual postponement because the sun shone brightly, but the field was soggy and the grass too high.

By Sunday night, however, the outfield was dry enough to permit the grass to be cut, and all appeared in top shape after three days of almost steady torrential downpours. Nearly five inches fell in the city's heaviest rains in half a century.

Veteran left-handers Billy Pierce of the San Francisco Giants and Whitey Ford of the New York Yankees were picked to pitch in today's game, which starts at noon (2 p.m. EST).

baseball classic, three games to two, and a victory today would bring them their 20th series title in the last 40 years.

A seventh game would be played Tuesday, if necessary.

Gentle winds and a high temperature of 67 to 74 were forecast for today.

Both teams journeyed 90 miles to Modesto Sunday for a workout on a dry diamond there.

Pierce, who never has lost at Candlestick Park, and Ford reported they were ready to go after the layoff.

To Hear Case on Immigration

High Court to Rule on McCarran-Walter Act

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court agreed today to hear a case challenging whether the McCarran-Walter Immigration Law unconstitutionally discriminates between naturalized and native-born citizens.

In a brief session on the third Monday of this fall term, the court decided to hear the appeal of Mrs. Angelika Schneider, who is fighting to retain status as a naturalized U.S. citizen despite extended residence in Germany.

A lower court had ruled that she must forfeit her U.S. citizenship because she has lived more than three years in Germany, her native country.

The McCarran-Walter immigration law of 1952 holds that a naturalized citizen forfeits his citizenship if he lives for three years in the country of his birth or for five years in any other country.

Mrs. Schneider was born in Bavaria in 1934, came to this country at age 5, and became a citizen at 16 when her mother was naturalized. After graduating from Smith College in 1954, she went to Europe. In Paris, she met a German attorney, Dieter Schneider. Now married, they live in Cologne with their three children.

West Disagreeing Over Berlin Future

scared by differing pronouncements resulting from evident intergovernmental divergencies in Bonn.

The British think there must be closer allied policy coordination. The West, in London's view, should be prepared to meet the next Russian approach — whatever it is — firmly aligned.

Kennedy, Rusk and some Western leaders believe Khrushchev is planning some new action which may precipitate a fresh Berlin crisis before the end of the year.

American officials see a 50-50 chance that before taking any decisive step, however, the Soviet leader may come to the U.N. General Assembly meeting in New York and also confer with Kennedy in the hope of winning Western concessions on Berlin.

If the Russians do launch an intensified campaign against the Western position in Berlin, the point of attack may well be the surface and air lifeline across East Germany linking the city with West Germany.

Rivals to Meet Before UAW

Oakland County's congressional candidates, incumbent Republican William S. Broomfield and Democrat George J. Fulkerson have been invited to debate before a meeting of Pontiac area UAW-CIO members.

The invitation was sent by letter to Broomfield by Ken Morris, codirector of UAW Region One, which includes the Pontiac area.

Morris noted that Fulkerson already has said he would adjust his schedule to debate Broomfield anytime.

Broomfield recently declined Fulkerson debate challenge, saying that the late adjournment of Congress prevented him from fitting any debates into his campaign schedule.

Morris suggested a date during the week of Oct. 22 or the following week. The meeting would be held at the Pontiac Motor Division UAW Local 653 hall.

3-Car Collision in Area Hurts 2

Highland Twp. Mishap Puts Victims in Hospital

Two persons were injured yesterday evening in a three-car collision at Highland and Livingston roads in Highland Township.

Mrs. Clark Thompson, 65, of 852 N. Leroy St., Pontiac, and Jerry J. Merglewski, 32, of 4780 Lindholm Rd., Davisburg, are in satisfactory condition at Pontiac General Hospital.

Merglewski received severe cuts of the scalp, and Mrs. Thompson suffered an injury on her right shoulder.

Sheriff's deputies said the accident occurred at 6:05 p.m. when Mrs. Thompson's husband pulled out of Livingston Road in front of a car driven by Edward A. Olds, 18, of 1424 Livingston Road.

Olds told police that his brakes failed. First he hit the car in front of him, he said, then skidded into the other lane and hit the Merglewski car.

Passengers in the other cars suffered minor injuries. They were treated and released from the hospital.

Backs Work for Violators

S. Jerome Bronson, Democratic candidate for Oakland County prosecutor, today proposed a "court of good record" based on "constructive work" for youthful law violators.

Bronson called for the new concept to replace the "court of no record" set up by his opponent, incumbent Prosecutor George F. Taylor.

The "court of no record," Bronson said, is in effect a system in which young people go unpunished and their violations go unrecorded after they are given a lecture.

The system "seems to encourage continued law violation," he maintained. "Young adults know in advance that they won't be punished and consequently they lose respect for the law."

Bronson, a Madison Heights attorney, proposed "some kind of constructive work to impress them with the seriousness of their trouble."

He said useful labor would give young offenders "a feeling that they have actually achieved something while paying for their crimes."

He suggested projects in the county parks and streams.

The Quinns were among three busloads of club members who had breakfast in the lakeside clubhouse before departing.

Also enjoying the pre-game breakfast at Pine Lake Country Club Saturday morning were Mr. and Mrs. Milo J. Cross of North Hammond Lake Drive.

Some 31 members of the Women's Society of Christian Service attended Thursday's meeting in Oakland Park Methodist Church.

Say Hello, Go Away but Return

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: Should my daughter, aged 20, be allowed to entertain her young friends at dinner alone, or must my husband and I be present? My daughter would like to invite her boy friend and another young couple to dinner this coming Saturday. She will cook and serve the dinner herself.

I suggested that my husband and I go out that evening and leave the young people alone, but he thinks it would not be proper to do this and that we should be in the house. I would like to know what you think about this?

A: It will be entirely proper for you and your husband to go out that evening if you don't leave until your daughter's guests arrive and tell them as you leave that you hope to be back home before they go to say goodnight to them.

Q: A friend and I have been discussing the use of Miss and Mrs. in connection with a return address. She adheres to the rule that one should never prefix his (or her) name with a title.

Although I realize this is not done when signing one's name, I think it is entirely correct to use a title when writing a return address. Will you please tell us who is right?

A: You are right. You never sign your name with a title but when writing a return address on the envelope, it is correct to prefix a title to your name.

Q: The question of how to eat fried shrimp has come up many times and we would appreciate your settling it. When the tails are left on the shrimp, is it proper to pick them up by the tails and eat them in the fingers, or must they be cut in half and eaten with a fork?

A: They must be eaten with a fork.

Q: Will you please tell me how my name should correctly appear on a name plate which is to be placed on my desk? In my job I come in contact with the public and a name plate is used for identification purposes. Should it be Miss Anne Smith, Miss Smith or Anne Smith?

A: Miss Anne Smith.

Naples' 'Flags'

The Pontiac Press has been informed that the gourmet dinner sponsored by the Waterford Township Faculty Wives will be served Tuesday in the John D. Pierce Junior High School and not at the Isaac Cray Junior High.

There is no such thing as a wash day in Naples. Women in that crowded city wash every day — and the lines of hanging laundry which stretch from building to building form colorful "flags" which identify the Italian city just as surely as does the sight of her famous bay.

Mother-in-Law Good Cook

Kills Him With Kindness

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Every summer my mother-in-law comes to visit us for two weeks. She is not hard to get along with but here is my complaint: She takes over my kitchen and makes all the things Sam and I like.

All year I am careful not to give Sam rich or fattening foods because he has a tendency to put on weight. (He weighs 170 now and should weigh 155.)

His mother cooks with schmalz and makes noodle dishes until I think I will scream. Sam put on 15 pounds in the two weeks she was here. He says he'll take it off, but I know he won't.

I can't tell his mother to stay out of my kitchen, and Sam loves to eat that stuff. What should I do?

DEAR WIFE: At the rate Sam is going, if he puts on 15 pounds every year, by 1970 he'll weigh 290!

Tell Sam's mother if she doesn't quit killing Sam with kindness, you'll be Sam's widow.

DEAR ABBY: How lait do you think a boy in the 6th grade should be about to stay up if he gets up at seven in the morning and makes strait As?

THE BOY

DEAR BOY: Until 9 p.m. But if YOU got an A in spelling, I think your teacher is staying up too late.

DEAR ABBY: I am 10 years old and want a new bike. My father says I can have it if I save up the money for it. It costs $100.

I get my money from my father. So why should I take the money from my father and give it to the cycle shop man? Why doesn't my father just give the money to the cycle shop man and leave me out of it?

JEFFERY M. DEAR JEFFERY: Because your father wants to teach you to SAVE money. And when you've saved enough to buy the new bike, you'll really appreciate it.

However, if you explain it to your Dad the way you've explained it to me, you'll probably get the bike tomorrow.

DEAR ABBY: My mother is a business woman so you know she is not stupid. She is an attractive, 48-year-old divorcee. She has permitted a young man 10 years her junior to live in her home since March.

My sixteen-year-old brother lives there, too. The whole thing is probably innocent but I don't think it looks right. She is not the type you can talk to. Should I do anything?

WORRIED DAUGHTER DEAR DAUGHTER: Yes. Talk to her. Maybe you have her "typed" wrong.

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Women's groups of the First Congregational Church held their monthly meetings Friday.

Twenty-five members of Colonial Group met at the Dorothy Lane home of Mrs. A. C. Kirby for luncheon. Mrs. Claude Shoup, chairman of the luncheon committee, was assisted by Mrs. Philip Vierich, Mrs. F. Milton Hathaway and Mrs. Eugene Carey.

She was dressed in a gown and jewelry worn by her grandmother, Mrs. William Brewster, at the wedding of her parents, the Wilbur Rowtons in 1915. Mrs. Bigler is Mrs. Brewster's namesake.

The Pilgrim group gathered at the Salvation Army Social Service Center for luncheon. Major Alder spoke briefly on the activities of the organization and took the women on a tour of the building. Elizabeth Patton presented several musical selections.

Guests included Mrs. Mabel Todd, Mrs. Julie Kleist, Mrs. June Powell and Mrs. William Thomas.

Mrs. Kenneth A. Senior (left) and Mrs. John Gibson work on plant arrangements with Mrs. Edward Schutler and Mrs. Howard Dellaven Jr. of the Sylvan Manor Branch, Women's National Farm and Garden Association. Fill Cracks

To fill cracks around window frames, make your own papier mache insulation at minimum cost. Stir a little glue in thick hot soap or detergent suds, and add a large quantity of shredded newspaper. Squeeze out a bit of the paper at a time, working each batch into the cracks with a small screwdriver, then smoothing the edges carefully. When dry, this filler will be hard enough to paint.
