Vet Fund Vote Due Today in State Senate

Bill Survives Scathing Attacks by Opposition in Yesterday's Session

From Our News Wires

LANSING—A bill to give the sagging state treasury a transfusion from the veterans' trust fund was up for final vote in the Senate today after surviving an onslaught of opposition yesterday.

Backers of the plan, who put up a feeble floor fight yesterday, admitted they faced an uphill battle for passage of a bill they view as the last hope of averting fiscal collapse.

The bill advanced through preliminary debate yesterday. The first test today comes when majority Republicans caucus on the measure.

The issue was whether to sell securities in the veterans trust fund with face value of 50 million dollars for 43 millions to pump badly needed cash into the state treasury.

The so-called Beadle plan called for restoring the body of the fund over seven years, starting in 1965. It represents a Republican substitute for Gov. Williams, trust fund mortgaging plan approved March 24 by the House.

Its author, Sen. Frank D. Beadle of St. Clair, GOP majority leader, told newsmen yesterday:

"I'd say the chances of passage were about fifty-fifty. I haven't tried to count votes for it, and I won't. All I'll try to do is to sell them (majority Republicans) in caucus."

SEEK DELAY

Some Republicans said they would seek to delay the showdown vote, despite urging by Gov. Williams that the bill be on his desk for signature tomorrow.

Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson said organized veterans were yielding in their opposition.

But backers were disappointed last night when no open endorsement of the plan came from veteran leaders who staged a banquet for lawmakers.

"The only comments I heard were from those who thanked me for leading a crushing attack

1 Ballot Adds Provision to Labor Bill

Senate Votes Union Curb

WASHINGTON (AP) — Their 47-46 victory in adding a major provision to the Kennedy labor bill strengthened today the drive of senators seeking further restrictions on the power of union leaders.

By the one-vote margin, the Senate wrote into the bill a requirement that union constitutions and bylaws must contain a series of provisions designed to assure the rights of individual members.

It sets up criminal penalties for any union leader violating those rights.

The Senate takes up today an amendment by Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz) designed to assure that such labor groups as Teamsters Union conferences are covered by provisions of the bill.

The amendment adopted Wednesday was sponsored by Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark), who called it a bill of rights for labor. Among other things it would guarantee union members freedom of speech and equal voting rights, and require membership approval of any dues increase.

The vote on the amendment was a setback for Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass), who has argued from the start that any major floor change in his measure would endanger its chances of getting through Congress.

Kennedy said the amendment was poorly drawn and would mean "the federal government's reaching its hands into the internal affairs of unions in a completely unnecessary way."

But McClellan insisted his amendment would give needed protection to union members against thugs, racketeers and power-hungry leaders who, he said, were infiltrating more and more unions.

5 DEMS ABSENT

The amendment apparently would have been defeated if all of the Democratic votes had been on hand. Five senators were missing, all Democrats.

Of these, three were announced against the amendment—Paul. H. Douglas (Ill), Theodore F. Green (RI) and Hubert H. Humphrey (Minn). Only one, A. Willis Robertson (Va) was announced for it. J. Allen Frear Jr. (Del) did not list a position.

A test run to check the political temperature of the West came to an abrupt end today for Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn) as he flew to Washington.

Humphrey, a potential Democratic presidential nominee in 1960, said he was going to seek reconsideration on the Senate floor today of the bill of rights written into the labor bill.

However, any hope Humphrey may have had of reversing approval of McClellan's amendment appeared to be doomed from the start. Backers of the amendment, intending to seal the vote, used a tabling device which Senate parliamentarian Charles L. Watkins said would require suspension of the rules to upset.

A two-thirds votes is necessary to suspend the rules, and the 47-46 vote for the amendment indicated that such a margin would be impossible to attain.

As it was, a coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats put over the amendment. Voting for it were 32 Republicans and 15 Democrats, 13 of them Southerners. Opposed were 44 Democrats and 2 Republicans.

The victory was clinched with the help of Vice President Nixon. In a parliamentary maneuver to nail down the vote, the Senate tied 45-45 on a motion to table reconsideration of the 47-46 tally. Nixon broke the tie to carry the motion.

The seven rights covered in the successful amendment are: identical voting rights and equal protection of union rules, freedom of speech, freedom of assembly, freedom from arbitrary dues increases, protection of the right to sue, safeguards against improper disciplinary action, and inspection of membership lists.

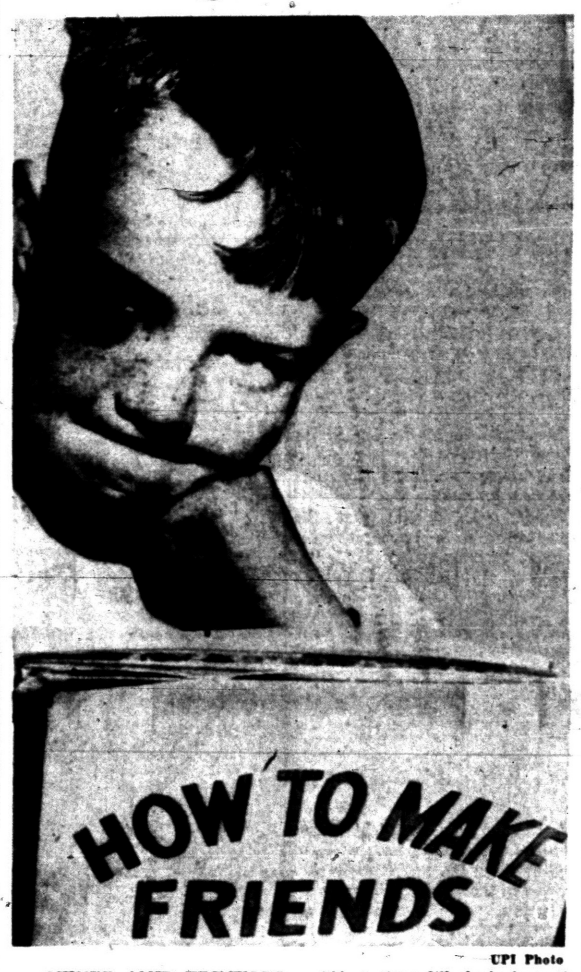

This would be enforced by criminal penalties against any union officer who sought to interfere with them. The penalties could run up to a $10,000 fine and two years in prison.

Also, the secretary of labor would be empowered to use injunctions and other lawsuits to enforce them.

State Senators Vote No

WASHINGTON (AP)—Michigan's two Democratic senators, Philip A. Hart and Pat McNamara, voted with the minority in the 47-46 roll call vote by which the Senate approved the bill-of-rights amendment by Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark) to the labor bill.

2 Dead, 5 Hurt in Kansas City Area Explosions

Smoke Blankets City as Stored Weed Killer Blows Up

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) —A chemical tank containing a weed killer exploded early today. Two men were missing and presumed to be dead. Five others, including a fireman were injured.

Great clouds of black smoke rolled from the scene near the Kansas-Missouri state line over downtown Kansas City, Mo., five miles away.

Intense heat hampered efforts to determine what set off the blasts and whether there were any casualties.

For a time the fire threatened to spread to half a dozen other tanks, but after two and one-half hours firemen reported the fire was "contained," but would have to burn itself out.

FOUR BLASTS

First reports said there were four blasts. Motorists driving to work heard one deep, thunderous explosion about 6:45 a.m.

Firefighting and other emergency equipment converged on the scene. So did hundreds of spectators.

A fire department dispatcher said that "it is a two-alarmer; that means extra equipment is needed."

One of the first newsmen at the scene said he could not get close because of the heat.

The newsmen said it appeared 10 to 12 large storage tanks were ablaze.

FEAR GAS NEXT

Police reported several tanks of kerosene had exploded. A propane gas tank had not yet exploded, but the police said it might.

The blast was felt many blocks away.

Several residences are about 200 yards distant and had not caught fire.

The explosion occurred just before the change of shifts.

Robert Thompson, president of the company, said there were five men at work on the night shift when the blast occurred. He said three had been hospitalized.

TWO MISSING

Jim Lewis and a man he could identify only as "Evans" were missing, Thompson said, and he doubted they could have survived the blast.

Cause of the explosion was not known immediately.

The fire was raging out of control and firemen were attempting to prevent its spread to other facilities of the company.

The blast leveled a block-long concrete building and toppled a tall smoke stack. At least seven chemical tanks were destroyed and another half dozen were threatened.

WINDOWS SHATTERED

Windows were shattered in a nearby flour mill, but this facility evidently was not in danger from the fire.

Firemen were concentrating on pouring water on the tanks not yet ablaze, and on the ruins of the building. They had reports that large amounts of high explosives were stored in one end of this structure which had not yet ignited.

The plant is on top of a high hill near Southwest boulevard an Greystone avenue, just across the Missouri-Kansas state line from 29th and Southwest boulevard, in Kansas City, Mo.

Five or six residences are located on Greystone avenue, the nearest about 200 yards from the chemical plant. There was no immediate information on whether anyone in this area was injured.

Police closed off a 10-square-block area as a safety precaution, including a segment of Southwest boulevard, a main traffic artery from Kansas residential areas to downtown Kansas City. Hundreds were late to work.

Concord Prisoners Hold 15 as Hostages

CONCORD, Mass. (AP)—Five convicts seized 15 hostages and staged a desperate revolt Wednesday night at Concord Reformatory housing some of Massachusetts' worst criminals.

Prison officials said the quintet could not have hoped to escape, although a leader, kidnaper Charles Bull Martin, told the prison superintendent on an institution telephone: "We want out."

For four hours, they held the hostages—13 guards and two civilians—before surrendering meekly, their eyes swollen by tear gas.

★ ★ ★

Their chances of getting out from the start were nil. Lt. Col. John C. Blake, executive officer of the state police, heading an assault force of 125 troopers, said when asked if negotiations were considered:

"I never negotiate with anyone; we were here to get them out and restore order."

The troopers swarmed in with military precision, many wearing campaign ribbons. They were steel-helmeted, carried riot guns and wore bandoleers of cartridges and tear gas charges.

The issue never was in doubt.

The troopers drove the malcontents from the first to third floor of a wing of the prison, like soldiers assaulting pill boxes. They opened steel doors with acetylene torches and finally pushed the rebels into an area from which there could be neither escape nor retreat.

Surrenders were accepted only after the prisoners stripped naked. Then they were marched to secure quarters. One trooper displayed a kitchen paring knife which he took from one of the recalcitrants.

A pistol, with which Martin subjugated the hostages and marched them to the segregation section, was not immediately found.

Guard Frederick Bobola, one of the hostages, said Martin held the gun against him and pulled the trigger. "It looked to me like the end, but the gun failed to go off," Bobola said.

The reformatory once was used for youthful offenders, but several years ago its use was turned over to hardened adult criminals, including murderers. It is 18 miles from Boston.

The revolt came during a recreation period between 4 and 5 p.m., while some of the prisoners were playing baseball.

Mrs. Lawrence Arraigned in Car

She Is So Upset That Justice Goes to Auto for Murder Charge

Choked with emotion and near collapse, Mrs. Sue Lawrence, accused of murdering the wife of her former boy friend, was arraigned by Independence Township Justice of the Peace William H. Stamp while she sat in the front seat of a sheriff deputy's car.

★ ★ ★

Justice Stamp said court was set up in the basement of the Township Hall, but Mrs. Lawrence was "so emotionally upset" she could not get out of the car and come into the hall.

So Justice Stamp went out and stood beside the car with its doors open to conduct the session.

She is charged with the fatal shooting of Mrs. Donald Crenshaw of 6230 Snow Apple Dr., Independence Township.

Mrs. Lawrence, of 2652 Oxford St., Berkley, demanded examination. It was set for May 14 by Justice Stamp.

Police Escort Workers to Mill

Henderson Plant Quiet After Clashes, Gunfire Last Night

HENDERSON, N.C. (AP) — Police and state troopers, outnumbering pickets, escorted a full shift of workers to their jobs at the Harriet-Henderson Cotton Mills today after another outbreak of violence.

The quiet scene contrasted sharply with Wednesday night when second - shift workers met small arms fire, homemade flares and firecrackers.

About 250 pickets ignored a steady drizzle at the company's two plants to jeer and shout defiance at the departing workers.

One picket was struck in the arm by a .38 caliber bullet. Officers said he received first aid treatment at a hospital and was released.

An unidentified woman reportedly suffered a slight head wound from a shot or a steel pellet hurled from a slingshot. An officer said she was treated at the South Henderson plant dispensary.

Floodlights were beamed at the pickets as the workers, most of them in autos, were escorted through the plant gates by 100 highway patrolmen.

There were a few minor incidents reported during the night.

Two persons were arrested and charged with illegal discharge of firearms, and carrying concealed weapons.

The strikers were angered at the small number of jobs left available to them after the strike apparently was settled last week.

When only 30 strikers were taken back Monday, the striking Textile Workers Union of America said it had been misled as to the number of jobs available to its members.

John Alvin suffered fang and claw wounds on the head, right ear, face and stomach.

He was rescued by George Templeton, 28, an employe of a trailer firm that owned the animal. He said he forced open the lion's jaws with his hands and kicked the lion away.

Says Event Shows Michigan Means Business

State Promotion Group Views Launching

Michigan Industrial Ambassadors, a group dedicated to stimulating and promoting the growth of Michigan industrial and business economy, watched the 438-foot missile-carrying destroyer USS Henry B. Wilson slide down the ways at Bay City yesterday.

The launching was called "an excellent reminder to the rest of the United States that Michigan means business" by Merritt D. Hill, chairman of the Ambassadors' executive committee, and general manager of Ford Motor Company's Tractor and Implement Division.

Hill, of 965 E. Glengarry Circle, Bloomfield Township, spoke at a civic luncheon arranged by the Greater Bay City Chamber of Commerce and the Bay County Industrial Association.

Following an explanation of the background of the Ambassadors Corps, Hill cited several recent examples of industrial development and action by Michigan communities to attract new industry.

"Michigan," Hill said, "is now on the move and the Ambassadors will help keep it moving in the right direction."

Emphasizing that public approval and backing of the Ambassadors already has been clearly evidenced, Hill said: "It is extremely important that the Ambassadors know they are not a small band of men hemmed in by apathy or downright antagonism."

TIME FOR FRESH START

He declared that the point has been reached in the state's life and "possibly in its fight for survival as a progressive industrialized entity" where it is time to make a fresh start, "mending our economic fences so that our industrial organizations won't want or need to slip through to 'greener' pastures."

The Ambassadors, Hill said, "believe that we can be at the spearhead of a movement to get all groups within the state re-united for the common purpose of the state's and its citizenry's good."

MERRITT D. HILL

He emphasized that the Ambassadors, as an organization composed of men from both political parties, will not be engaging in political activity but "will work to promote the state's advantages as they exist and as they can be further developed by actions of the Legislature and the other branches of State government."

The Ambssadors' program, Hill said, will focus collective attention on the need of Michigan industries to be competitive in all respects, and it will attempt to get a better understanding and degree of cooperation between government, business and industry, the labor force and all the people in the state.

"What the Ambassadors must have as salesmen for this product known as Michigan is a responsiveness on the part of government officials to the need for a progressive course of action which will interest outsiders in locating industry in Michigan and will encourage the expansion of industry now here," Hill declared.

The program also will aim at obtaining greater diversification of industry and at encouraging research activities which will help bring in some of the "exotic" new growth industries. The Ambassadors will continue to stress Michigan's advantages as a place to live and bring up a family.

Saying that there can be no room for complacency by Michigan's residents while Michigan's name is being "widely used as a synonym for 'Potter's Field'," Hill said "we have the liveliest bunch of dead men I've ever met, and the richest bunch of paupers to be found anywhere."

To Spend $2,428,141 on Oakland Roads

A $2,428,141 summer road building and maintenance program—including the construction of three bridges—has been announced by the Oakland County Road Commission.

The work, of which $1,252,586 will be paid for from the county's share of the state gas and weight tax receipts, will involve 30 projects covering some 40 miles of roads.

Robert O. Felt, commissioner, said one of the largest projects in the program will be the $77,000 widening and surfacing of Eight Mile road between Napier road to to a point in Lyon township.

"The projects are selected by traffic counts and by the condition of the roads," Felt said.

One bridge to be constructed will be on Adams road between Hamlin and Crooks roads, another on Franklin road north of 14 Mile road, and the third on East Long Lake Road east of John R road.

Residents of the Birmingham area will have to wait awhile longer, Felt said, for the paving of Quarton road between Lahser and Woodward.

HELD UP BY SEWER

"A sewer project has held us up in the past," the commissioner said, "and now we're ready at least to do a grading, ditching and an eight-inch gravel base job on the road."

Felt said he did not know if the eventual blacktopping of the Borderline road would be on the Commission's 1960 program.

In the same section, the Commission has scheduled putting in right hand turning lanes off Long Lake road by the widening of the Long Lake road-Woodward avenue intersection.

Nearly four miles of Indianwood road between Baldwin and M24 will be widened to 22 feet and receive a concrete surfacing job under this year's program, Felt said.

He said the Road Commission has been able to proceed with all its scheduled projects after it learned that costs for repairing county roads after the annual spring breakup "wasn't anywhere as bad as we thought it was going to be."

About $1,175,555 of the program is being financed through federal aid. Cities where widening projects will be completed will also pay a share of the work, Felt said.

Study Nominees for Trial Board

Expect City to Disclose Seven Appointments at Tuesday Meeting

Candidates for the city's new Trial Board were reviewed last night informally by the City Commission, including two nominees by rank-and-file members of the Police Department.

The commission's decision on the seven appointments probably will be disclosed Tuesday at the regular commission meeting, at which time the selections are scheduled to become official, said Mayor Philip E. Rowston.

At that time, it will be known whether either of the Police Department's candidates have been selected, he said.

In a department-wide vote requested by the mayor, policemen nominated Theodore Carlson and Philip R. Sauer.

Carlson, a member of the firemen's Civil Service Commission, was the police nominee on the policemen's Civil Service Commission which voters repealed April 6. Sauer is a former Pontiac mayor.

A mayor's committee charged with making the Trial Board more attractive to policemen, recommend that officers be allowed to submit names of candidates for the board.

Area Man Shoots Self Accidentally

A 35-year-old Bloomfield Township man, Donald Sheppard of 3966 Oakland Dr. accidentally shot himself in the chest at about 6 p.m. yesterday while examining an "empty" gun, township police reported today.

His condition is reported as only "fair" this morning at William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak. The bullet angled downward and ruptured Sheppard's spleen which was removed by surgery last night.

Bloomfield Township Police Chief Norman Dehnke said Sheppard had gone into his bedroom to examine his .32-caliber automatic pistol.

He had removed the elip but had neglected to eject the cartridge from the firing chamber.

Dehnke said the shot was heard by Sheppard's mother, Mrs. Earl Sheppard who was in another room. She rushed in to find her son lying on the floor and immediately called the police.

The victim will be questioned further by police today, Dehnke said.

The Day in Birmingham

City Workers' Pay Hike Included in New Budget

BIRMINGHAM — City Manager L. R. Gare's suggested budget for 1959-60 has been presented to commissioners and will be submitted for its first official discussion Monday night.

The budget totals $1,681,065, an increase of $53,547 over the year ending June 30. Gare points out that this increase includes a proposed 3 per cent salary increase for all city employes except department heads.

To meet the budget, a tax increase of two-tenths of a mill will be necessary, over the 19.4 now in effect, Gare said. The budget last year dropped from 19.6 to the present rate.

According to the city manager, budget increases over the past five years have been approximately $91,000 annually.

He explained the salary increase is not based on any rise in living costs, which have remained nearly constant here during the year.

"It is to acknowledge the excellent work being done in the various city departments and the splendid cooperation received from all employes," he said.

Commissioners will have approximately five weeks for their study of the budget. During this time they are expected to make their decision as to whether the manager's recommendations will remain stable, be increased or reduced.

Gare also said that to hold to the proposed 19.6 tax rate, it will be necessary to delete a number of worthwhile projects which department heads have recommended.

Police Lt. Robert Schaule said today that plans are being completed for an automobile safety check in Birmingham. The tentative dates selected are early in June, probably the first two weekends.

"We will not have a positive schedule until the several service clubs which have been invited to participate have been able to make their plans," Schaule concluded.

Brakes, lights, steering and other mechanical features will be tested. Windshield stickers will be placed on satisfactory vehicles.

Because of their popularity, classes on gardening and floral arrangements will be repeated by the Community House.

Miss Myra Showman, crafts and hobby director at the House, said today the first of five gardening classes will be held Monday from 9:30 to 11 a.m. at the House. Mrs. William Burlingame is the gardening teacher.

Mrs. F. B. Slawson will instruct the floral arrangement group Tuesdays from 9:30 to 11 a.m. The series of seven lessons will start May 5.

Opposition to the plan, which has qualified backing from Gov. Williams, cut across party lines.

"Statements have been made that Walter Reuther tells us (Democrats) how to vote," said Sen. Philip Rahol (D-Iron Mountain). "Walter Reuther or anyone else can't tell Phil Rahol how to vote."

Morris said that if attempted "raids" on the trust fund that started in 1948 had not been repulsed the state now would be 15 million dollars deeper in the hole, the equivalent of interest earned by the fund.

He urged the Senate against becoming "panicky" and knuckling under to current pressures.

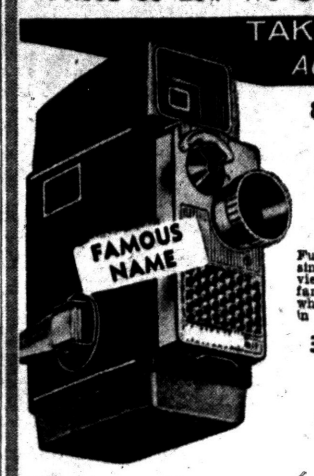

Sen. Charles O. Feenstra (R-Grand Rapids) asked: "Who's going to run this state, Walter Reuther or we?"

About two million volunteer workers are enrolled in Red Cross activities.

Chases Girl With Gun

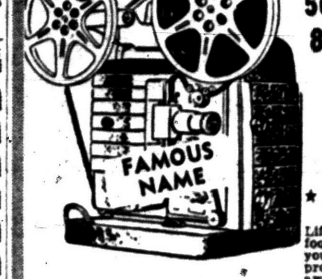

DETROIT (AP)—Frank Carr, 42, former Navy petty officer, was put on probation Wednesday for two years for chasing his girl friend with a gun. Recorder's Judge Frank G. Schemanske also ordered him not to see the girl, Mary Humphrey, any more. Carr said he was only trying to make Miss Humphrey "listen" after they had had a spat.

Power Firm Soon Can Buy State Plot

LANSING (AP) — Only Senate agreement on a minor amendment stood in the way today of final legislative action on a bill to sell a state-owned site on Lake Erie to the Detroit Edison Co.

The House approved the measure 98-0 yesterday but amended it to require that the $12,000 to be paid for the property go into the game and fish protection fund. The Senate approved version would put the money in the general fund.

The site, adjacent to the new Enrico Fermi nuclear power plant in Monroe County, is needed for a water intake channel.

Also passed were bills making minor changes in commercial fishing regulations and requiring a minimum two year jail sentence for persons convicted of committing aggravated assault during an armed robbery.

First American woman surgeon was Clemence Harned Lozier of New York. Born during the War of 1812, she was 40 when she got her medical degree.

Could Ease Property Levies

Local Income Tax Posed

LANSING (AP) — The new local income tax bill before the Legislature opens the way for city fathers to offer property tax reduction bait in exchange for authority to exercise excise taxing powers.

It could be one of the most important features of the bill introduced yesterday by Sens. Clyde H. Geerlings (R-Holland) and Lewis G. Christman (R-Ann Arbor) as an answer to city and village revenue problems.

The maximum one per cent tax provided on personal, professional and business incomes could be levied only after referendum approval of a charter amendment.

But ingeniously, the bill would allow incorporation into a single proposed amendment, to be voted on as one question, the proposition of reducing the maximum rate under the general property tax.

Often before the Legislature has rejected bids by cities for expanded local taxing powers. The Geerlings-Christman bill was offered in behalf of the Michigan Municipal League.

Geerlings is firmly opposed to a state income tax, pointing up the competitive situation presented by proposals for levies on the same revenue base at two levels of government.

Under the city tax bill, sums raised through excises could not exceed the amount produced by property taxation, effectively limiting the amount of property tax relief that could be offered voters.

Cities and villages, with voter consent, could levy on salaries, wages, commissions and other compensation and income, as well as on net profits earned by persons, firms or corporations from business, professional and other activities.

They would be allowed to levy the tax on non residents for work done or services performed or rendered within the city, thus enabling city governments to tap fringe dwellers outside the corporate limits and beyond the reach of the city's property tax.

Church Slates Health Program

St. Joseph Altar Society Plans Cancer Detection Meeting April 29

LAKE ORION—The Rosary Altar Society of St. Joseph Catholic Church will conduct the final program in its current health series at 8 p.m. April 29 at St. Joseph Parochial School.

It will be a cancer detection program to be presented through the aid of Mrs. Harry Slater, chairman of the Orion area branch of the American Cancer Society.

The local church organization has previously sponsored a polio clinic and a TB skin-testing program.

Guest narrator at the April 29 meeting will be Dr. John Marra, pathologist at Pontiac General Hospital and chairman of the Oakland County Branch of the American Cancer Society. He will answer questions concerning cancer detection after his talk.

There also will be a display of materials and supplies from the cancer office in the Orion Township Hall.

This office is open every Tuesday and is staffed by volunteer women in the community. Mrs. Harold Sitzes, service manager, will present a resume of the volunteers' work.

A business meeting will follow the cancer detection program after which refreshments will be served by St. Jude Guild members.

Corsages were presented to Mrs. Walter Stump, president, and to the four past presidents, Mrs. Raymond Kizer, Mrs. Edwin Kage, Mrs. Helen Towian and Mrs. Robert Curtis.

Mrs. John Johlgren received a corsage for being the only club member who has consistently lost weight since joining the club. Mrs. William Eckert had maintained her ideal weight for a year and also received a corsage.

Two members received corsages for attaining their ideal weight during the past year. They were Mrs. Laura Holloway and Mrs. David Cation.

James Henderson, trainer with Leader Dogs for the Blind of Rochester, showed the film, "Whither Thou Goest" followed by a question and answer period. Games were played before the close of the program.

PREPARE CAMPSITE — The installation of a new well near Tamarack Lake in the Bald Mountain Recreation Area near Lake Orion is the first step before construction of two frontier cabins in the northern section of the park. Work on the cabins which will sleep some 22 persons each in built-in bunks is scheduled to begin May 1. Cleaning up around the well are from left, Clifford C. Rathbun, Park Manager William N. Rathburg (indicating cabins site) and Bernard F. Parker.

Set for Another Season at Bald Mountain Area

By LEE WINBORN

ORION TOWNSHIP — "We're ready for another season," William N. Rathburg, manager of Bald Mountain Recreation Area, said today.

Rathburg was directing his remark to area sportsmen who are looking forward to the fishing season which opens at midnight tomorrow. He said that the three trout streams and Bald Mountain Trout Pond (for fly fishing only) are well stocked with fish and ready for eager anglers.

Each stream has been stocked with about 250 legal-size trout and the fly pond with 1,000 fish in preparation for opening day. The streams are Trout Creek, Spring Creek and Paint Creek.

There are generally two more fish plantings a year, Rathburg said. The trout are reared at the Wolf Lake Hatchery in Kalamazoo and are placed in the Bald Mountain waters by personnel from the Drayton Plains Fish Hatchery.

Bald Mountain Recreation Area covers 2,406 acres on M24, southeast of Lake Orion. It takes advantage of natural scenic features to offer picnic sites which will accommodate 200 people at most in any one location.

The picturesque lakes and streams, dense woods, open groves and hills combine to make the area attractive to all who like to drive out in the country for a picnic or camp-out.

There is no established camp site, but Rathburg said he will find places for campers upon request.

One of the facilities for rough, primitive camping is designed primarily for Scout and other youth groups who have day-camp programs.

The camp area for these units is isolated from other conflicting activities, and troops can carry on their programs without interference. It is "excellent" Rathburg said, for hiking, mapping, signaling and nature study.

A new well has just been put in near Tamarack Lake in the northern section of the park. Its installation paves the way for construction of two frontier cabins on the site.

The cabins, which will sleep about 22 in built-in bunks, will be erected by inmate labor from Camp Pontiac, where a joint corrections-conservation program is conducted. The inmate crew will begin work on the cabins about May 1.

SHOOTING OFFERED

Other facilities offered by the Park are rifle and trap-shooting ranges. Use of all firearms in any other part of the recreation area is prohibited from April 1 to Sept. 30. Last year it was closed only to rifles and pistols, but so much damage was done by shotguns, they were added to the list this season.

Rathburg said that he is anticipating the establishment of bridle trails for horsemen in the area sometime soon.

"When the money becomes available," he added, "we have a program of development planned which also will include a 50-acre lake on Trout Creek with beach, camping and additional picnic facilities."

"We aim for a neat, clean and attractive park," Rathburg said. "And right now, during the high hazard fire period, we need everyone's cooperation to see that this natural habitat for all types of wild life is not ravaged by fire."

The area manager stated that 68 varieties of trees and shrubs, 22 different species of animals and 76 of birds may be found in this rural setting.

Will Meet at Avon Park

Rochester Music Group Plans Membership Drive

ROCHESTER — The Rochester Civic Music Assn. will launch plans for a membership drive at a dessert and coffee hour to be held at 7:30 p.m. next Thursday at the pavilion in Avon Park, Robert B. Harris, campaign chairman, announced today.

At this meeting a Civic Music representative from New York City will speak to the group. He will supervise the local campaign which will include a house-to-house drive designed to see that all Rochester residents are contacted personally, Harris said.

Frank Irish, association president, said during the past season he has received a number of requests for tickets to individual performances.

★ ★ ★

He told inquirers that admittance to the concerts are by season ticket or by membership card in other Civic Music Assns. in the area only.

★ ★ ★

An exchange plan is in effect in communities with Civic Music Assns. which entitles any member of one association to attend any or all concerts in the other towns—all for the price of one membership.

The Waterford, Lapeer, Wayne and Trenton Civic Music Assns. all welcome Rochester members to their concerts.

Harris said the local association's goal for next year is to double the membership. He added that only artists of national and international reputation are engaged to appear.

Walled Lake Takes Steps Leading to Water System

The City Council is sending George Shaw, city manager, and Robert Zumstein of Civil Engineers, Inc. to Chicago in the near future to discuss financing a preliminary survey for a water system.

They will seek answers to final questions from the Housing and Home Finance Agency before submitting an application to the firm for a grant of $20,000.

The grant would be used for the preliminary survey. It would determine the actual cost of a water system and provide for maps showing the location of water mains and wells.

After the survey is completed, the council will place the facts before the residents to authorize financing the construction of a city-owned water system.

If approved at the polls, the grant for $20,000 would have to be paid under the stipulations of a Congressional Act governing such grants.

At the present time, only the Carole Acres and the Tri-A subdivisions have water systems installed. All other residents are dependent on private wells.

"The grant is being asked with the exception that as a result of the survey a water system will be established for the city," City Manager Shaw said.

Agency Forecasts 8 Pct. Decline in Farm Income

WASHINGTON (AP) — A billion-dollar decline in net farm income for 1959, amounting to 8 per cent, is being forecast by the Agricultural Marketing Service.

The agency now expects this income to total about $12,100,000,000 this year compared with $13,100,000,000 last year. Such a reduction would leave returns still considerably above the 1957 level of $10,800,000,000.

Several things are expected to help bring about such an income cutback. One was listed as a prospective increase in farm production expenses. During the first quarter of this year, costs ran at the rate of about a billion dollars above those in the first quarter last year.

Another is a reduction in government payments under the soil bank land retirement program.

The agency expects farmers to sell more products and to take in a larger volume of cash receipts. But the higher costs and lower prices would more than offset this in determining net income.

★ ★ ★

The Junior Hi group will then hold a business meeting to plan their first regular meeting on May 3 and future outings advisors for the new organization are Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Loerch and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Johns.

But He Has Been Accomplished on the Defensive

Dulles Was Unable to Grab Initiative From Reds

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
Second of Two Articles

WASHINGTON (AP) — When John Foster Dulles took office as secretary of state six years ago his avowed purpose was to "wrest the initiative" from the Soviet Union and put the United States and its allies on the offensive in the cold war. He never succeeded in achieving this major objective.

Soon after he was sworn in, he found himself caught up in a tide of crises that ran throughout his crowded years in the State Department. His major contributions to the development of U.S. foreign policy have been, with few exceptions, on the defensive side of cold war strategy.

Foremost among his accomplishments, perhaps is the vast expansion he engineered in United States alliances and military commitments over the world. He inherited the North Atlantic Alliance, which he hoped to create, from his predecessor, Dean Acheson. But building on the coalition pattern thus established, he extended U.S. commitments in the Far East, Communist Asia and the Middle East to such a degree that Soviet-Chinese communism can hardly thrust out in any direction now without risking U.S. retaliation.

In the course of making the new commitments Dulles developed a technique which solved a difficult problem in the conduct of U.S. foreign policy.

By getting advance authority from Congress, he eliminated a potential weakness which, in a moment of crisis, might have prevented the President from taking effective action.

Such a crisis arose last year when revolution overthrew the pro-Western government of Iraq. Dulles and Eisenhower feared that other friendly regimes would topple like a row of blocks, beginning with Lebanon and Jordan. Against threats of Soviet counteraction the President dispatched U.S. troops to Lebanon and British forces went into Jordan to save falling into unfriendly hands.

The Lebanese action was another in a long list of moves dramatized under Dulles' policy of "brinkmanship" which has been bitterly controversial.

Dulles was in international hot water for a time last year with his insistence on supporting Nationalist China in its defense of the Chinese coastal islands, Quemoy and Matsu, against Red attack. Britain was especially fearful that Dulles might lead the United States into an unwanted war in the Far East. He was confident, however, that if American determination was clear to the end his judgment seemed to be Chinese Reds they would not attempt to invade the islands. In the borne out by their failure to press their campaign.

To him, in this as in other crises the important thing has not been the real estate involved but the principle that it is dangerous to try to buy peace by yielding to the threats of a potential agressor.

His theory of brinkmanship holds that it is necessary for the United States again and again to face up to a Communist challenge in some vulnerable area of the non-Communist world and to go to the brink of war to defend a free country against conquest.

SUEZ CRISIS

In 1956 Dulles found himself faced with perhaps the worst and most dangerous crisis of his State Department years. It involved the seizure of the Suez Canal by Egypt.

The British and French governments then in power grew tired of what they considered his defeatist attitude on the Suez issue. They attacked Egypt, after an attack by Israel.

Dulles was caught in the dreadful dilemma, as he saw it, of having to back this country's chief allies in an adventure of which he thoroughly disapproved or having to denounce their action and see the Atlantic coalition split wide open.

He chose the latter course and was immediately put into the unenviable position of siding with the Soviet Union in the United Nations against Britian and France. It took a year to restore the friendly Allied relationship.

Possibly one of Dulles' bitterest disappointments, measured by his early purpose of taking the cold war offensive, was his inability to do anything decisive about the Hungarian revolt against communism in 1956.

Leopard Dogs Round Up Cattle

Texas Canines Known to Ranchers for Skill in Brush Country

BRYAN, Tex. (UPI)—They're called Texas cow dogs, or leopard dogs, or sometimes Catahoula hawg dawgs . . .

Under any name, the tough, glassy eyed, mean-tempered dogs that help cowboys flush cattle out of East Texas brush pastures are a breed apart.

These lean and hungry members of the American working dog fraternity came in for a bit of publicity after newspapers printed stories about the difficulties city-bred White Plains, N. Y., authorities were having in rounding up a handful of steers that had been freely roaming protected woodland near White Plains.

Mounted policemen, helicopters, and even hay doused with tranquilizer failed to corral the five steers.

Mrs. James L. Barrett of this city wrote a letter to White Plains advising them to get hold of a couple Texas leopard dogs who would round up the loose animals in a hurry. Understandably, the White Plains response was: "What in the world are leopard dogs?"

★ ★ ★

Aubrey Jones of Bryan has been breeding leopard dogs for 40 years. He travels all over Texas with them, helping ranchers reclaim cows which have strayed into brush too thick for mounted cowboys to follow. It's impossible for a man to get the cattle out on foot.

Tax Shows People Buying Bigger Cars

LANSING (UPI) — People are buying bigger and more expensive cars, Secretary of State James M. Hare said today, causing a two-million dollar increase in vehicle sales taxes for the first quarter of 1959.

Hare said collections for the first quarter of last year were about $7,656,000 compared with $9,677,000 for this year.

He said there was also a five-dollar increase in the average tax per vehicle from $46.88 to $51.88. There was also 23,216 more vehicles sold during the 1959 first quarter than a year ago.

Reds Enslaving Tibet; Chinese Whip Thousands Daily in Nation's Streets

By A. K. GUPTA

KATHMANDU, Nepal (UPI) — Communist Chinese troops have turned Tibet into a vast prison with thousands of Tibetans being whipped each day in the streets and Buddhist nuns sent to army camps for the pleasure of the troops, refugees fleeing to Nepal reported today.

They said nearly 2,500 Tibetan monasteries were damaged or destroyed by Communist artillery in the past month and nearly 8,000 monks killed, 12,000 arrested and about 800,000 Lamas forced to flee homeless and hungry into the mountains.

This correspondent traveled through the snow-covered 17,000-foot mountain passes to reach the border of Tibet and interview the refugees. At the Nepal-Tibet border a few miles north of the village of Tarke, I met some refugees who said some of 30 well-armed Chinese divisions in Tibet were led by Russians.

One English-speaking Tibetan named Thote, a 27-year-old graduate of Peiping University, said the Chinese killed 165 members of his clan in the village of Ghetumba in Kham Province. He said he saw his father machine-gunned for refusing to betray other Tibetan patriots.

Thote said that during his flight to Nepal he had passed through 65 villages that had been known as good trading centers and that every one was destroyed by the Communists with not a sign of life visible anywhere.

"Every Tibetan was a prisoner," he said. "The whole country was turned into a vast prison. Dusk to dawn curfews were imposed all over Tibet and did not allow normal living.

THOUSANDS WHIPPED

"Thousands of peaceful, innocent Tibetans were being whipped daily in open places in the course of questioning and inhumane methods were being applied for confession. Mostly the people preferred to confess as desired by the Chinese than stand tortures any longer.

"Markets are closed; essential consumer goods have disappeared; trade is finished, resulting in numberless deaths inside houses from artificial starvation caused by the Chinese. Any mention of devotion to the Dalai Lama was a serious crime and people were being forced to show their entire devotion to the Panchen Lama.

"Large numbers of nuns, who locally are called 'ennis,' have been forced to live in army camps at the pleasure of the Chinese. Several nuns reportedly committed suicide to escape Chinese brutalities," he said.

Lithon, another refugee, said 20,000 Chinese troops were searching each house and every person in search of offenders along the southwestern border of Tibet and that most of the people had fled to the barren plateaus and now were dying of hunger and cold.

"The Chinese have confiscated every ounce of corn available in the area and have scorch-earthed all the standing crops in the field, turning the entire vegetation into ashes," he said.

"Every person must beg food from the Chinese officer at the nearest camp, waiting hours in long unending lines and only those who could satisfy the Chinese of their loyalty managed to get one meal."

Anglani, who lost his wife and three children while escaping, said he saw Russians with the Chinese and believed they were helping the Communists build a big concentration camp at the 17,000-foot level at the northern base of Mt. Everest.

Despite this campaign of terror, the refugees said the Tibetans still were continuing their fight against the Communists and showing open defiance of their Red rulers.

They said lockets with the picture of the Dalai Lama were worn in spite of the fact that Chinese soldiers have orders to shoot on sight anyone wearing such a locket.

Woman Buys at Sale, Pays Later by Mail

McALESTER, Okla. (AP)—A women's hat shop here received a check in the mail with an explanatory note.

It explained that the sender, a woman, bought the hat during a sale and, unable to get a clerk to wait on her, merely walked out with the hat. It was easier that way, the note said.

2 Attendants Are Reinstated

Had Been Discharged for Abusing Patients at Lapeer State Home

LANSING (UP) — The State Civil Service Commission has ordered reinstatement and full back pay for two attendants at the Lapeer State Home and Training School discharged last fall on charges of abuse to patients.

The Commission ruled the charges were not proven. The decision overturned split decision rulings against the attendants by hearing boards.

Ordered rehired were Lucille Holman, a state employe for 23 years, discharged Oct. 27, and Russell O'Brien, a state employe for almost nine years, discharged Sept. 16.

The Commission also upheld Robert Jorgensen, a probation officer at Gladwin, who contended the Corrections Department had forced his resignation last Sept. 29 without specific charge. The Department was ordered to present specific charges at a hearing.

Taken under advisement was a request by the AFL-CIO State Employes Union that three holidays cut off this year by order of Gov. Williams be carried over until next year.

Three Houses Are Built

NORFOLK, Va. (UPI)—Builder David I. Levine constructed three new homes only to discover his carpenters had mistakenly erected them on property owned by the City of Norfolk.

The City Council came to Levine's rescue, however, by selling him the property on which he had built. It was almost identical to the lots he had purchased for the homes, but two blocks away.

Just Travel Through Michigan

Want to Take World Trip?

EAST LANSING (UP) — You can make an "around the world" tour without leaving Michigan, according to a Michigan State University sociologist.

Dr. John F. Thaden calls the Wolverine State a miniature United Nations within whose borders there are some 500 "culture islands" representing more than a score of nationalities.

"Their children and grandchildren still exemplify the language, traditions, customs and folkways of their ancestors," Thaden adds.

1. No state except New York has a larger foreign born and first generation population.

2. Up until 1880, more residents of Michigan were born in New York than all other states combined.

3. As recently as 1920, every other person in Michigan was still a foreigner or the son or daughter of one.

4. Half of the state's 20 members of Congress are natives of other states.

5. Eight of the 10 top chairmen in the Michigan Week organization were not born in Michigan.

6. During the past decade, California was the only other large state to experience a population increase topping that of Michigan.

"The large influx of people, both native-born and foreign-born, reflects Michigan's healthy industrial and economic condition since the transition from buggies to the horseless carriage," Thaden says.

Finishes Spree, Discovers $860 in Pouch Gone

A retired Pontiac worker reported to police yesterday he was robbed of $860 while on a drinking spree last weekend.

Ellis Weaver of 532 Franklin Rd. told police the money was taken sometime between 10 a.m. Sunday and 5 a.m. Monday.

Weaver said he did not know the time or place of the theft.

When he left home Sunday, he said, he was carrying $1,230 in a pouch he was wearing, but on his return he had only $370 left.

He was not able to tell police where he was, what he drank or who he was with.

CUBA WAS NEVER LIKE THIS — New York detectives make an unsympathetic audience for bearded and uniformed Pedro Garcia at Pennsylvania railroad station in New York, after he was held for questioning when found carrying a gun. Garcia, 31, is chief of security force for Cuban Premier Fidel Castro. Garcia was in a crowd waiting for Castro's arrival by train when the gun was spotted. After his identity was established, he was released.

McCarroll Cub Meeting Went 'Down on Farm'

"Down on the Farm" was the theme of Tuesday night's meeting of Cub Scout Pack 17 of McCarroll School.

A highlight of the meeting was square dancing by 4th and 5th graders. Prizes for the most original costumes went to Mr. and Mrs. Oren Clauson of 960 Spence St.

Charles Kline was awarded a wolf badge, two silver arrows and a gold arrow, and John Horton a gold arrow and a silver arrow.

Canada Sports Its Own Flavor

Money, Gas, Speech Among Items Tourists Find Different

OTTAWA (UPI) — Planning to visit Canada this summer?

If you travel by car, remember that Canada uses the "imperial gallon," which is 20 per cent bigger than the U. S. gallon.

Remember, also, that the U. S. dollar is valued at slightly less than the Canadian dollar, based on the Wall Street rate of exchange, which is determined by the law of supply and demand.

American travelers will find it convenient to obtain Canadian funds from their bank before entering Canada, thereby saving the bother of making calculations when spending money.

In Canada, only the major cities provide night club. Montreal has more nightspots in proportion to its population (1,700,000) than any other city in North America.

Don't think everyone in Canada speaks English. Residents in most of Quebec province, parts of New Brunswick and Ontario, speak French. Elsewhere, English is spoken.

The national holiday in Canada is Dominion Day, July 1. Victoria Day, May 18 this year, is another national holiday.

Because Canada, like the United States, is made up of people from many lands, festivities on special occasions range from Highland games to Ukrainian folk festivals.

American tourists will find Canada's climate similar to that in the United States. They'll also find, when shopping, familiar brand names in the stores. After all, Canada is a North American country, too.

Men to Serve Up Chicken Dinner at St. Michael's

A family-style chicken dinner will be served by St. Michael's Church Men's Club Sunday, with proceeds going to the church building fund.

Dinners will be served from noon to 6 p. m. in the church hall.

The food will be prepared and served by the men. Members in charge include Gayle Coulson, Harry Killian and Steve Turner.

Others working on the project include Harold Martin, Joe Rohrback, John Flanigan, James Campbell, John Cleaver and Dan Call.

Co-chairmen of the meal are Edwin Backus and W. F. Brown.

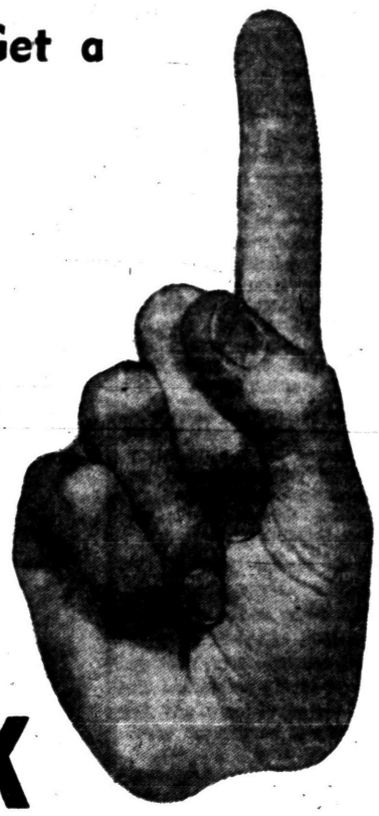

The national parks of Canada set a new attendance record during the past summer when 3,311,928 visitors entered the 18 scenic parks across Canada — 253,676 more than during the previous summer.

To touch another person's head once meant certain death among the Fiji Islanders, who are proud of their frizzy, upstanding hair. They still consider it poor taste to touch another's head.

'Country Cookbook' Will Tempt City Cooks

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Those readers who grew up on farms will find a nostalgic note when they leaf through the Farm Journal's Country Cookbook, recently published by Doubleday and Company (New York, $4.95).

This is no ordinary cookbook. Instead, it is a gathering together of the best recipes from farm kitchens across the nation and from the Farm Journal's Test Kitchens.

Even the chapter headings are different. The first one is titled, "Company Specials" and includes recipes for all parts of a meal. "Dishes to Tote" will appeal to the devotee of the potluck dinner.

FARM PRODUCTS

As you might expect from a cookbook which originated in part in country kitchens, there is an entire chapter devoted to good foods made with butter and cream and another to milk and cheese.

Not only does the Country Cookbook have recipes for large scale cooking, but it has a chapter on "Money-Maker Recipes."

If you acquired a fondness for childhood when you went to grandmother's house for Sunday night supper, this chapter will bring back all those memories, as well as the recipe for the chicken.

Pressed Chicken

3 (3½ pounds) chickens
6-8 cups hot water
8 teaspoons salt
1 carrot, quartered
1 cup celery, chopped
12 parsley sprigs
¾ teaspoon savory
1 medium onion

Cut chicken in 8 pieces. Put in large kettle and add remaining ingredients. Bring to boil; simmer until chicken is very tender.

Remove chicken from kettle and strain broth. Return broth to heat and simmer until reduced to half its measure. Remove meat from bones; leave it in small pieces.

Add chicken to cooked-down broth; simmer 5 minutes. Pour into 9x5x3 loaf pan, cover and weight down to press. Chill overnight. To serve, cut in ½-inch slices. Makes 18 slices.

Nell Nichols who edited this cookbook has spent a number of years touring the country talking with homemakers about food. A farm girl herself in her girlhood days, she recognizes the fact the both the kitchens and the food in them have changed greatly in the past few years. The Country Cookbook makes note of this change and gears its recipes to modern times.

★ ★ ★

But the old-fashioned flavor has not been lost. If you are like your reviewer, you will spend hours just reading this cookbook. It'll make your mouth water and you'll lose no time in trying out some of the recipes. How's this for a starter?

Grape-Cream Sherbet

1 cup thick sour cream
1 cup milk
1½ cups sugar
1 egg, well beaten
1 cup grape juice
¼ cup lemon juice

Combine all ingredients in bowl. Beat until sugar is dissolved.

Pour into 2 refrigerator trays and freeze nearly firm. Turn mixture into chilled bowl. Beat with chilled rotary or electric beater until fluffy smooth, but not melted.

Return to trays and freeze firm. Makes 6 servings.

Ever add a little tomato sauce and minced chives to mashed potatoes?

Honey Eggnog Does Double Duty

For a real Honey-for-Breakfast treat for the children there is nothing that provides more lasting energy for their active day, nothing that is so attractively rich and smooth as honey eggnog used to pour over their favorite cereal. Follow this simple recipe for honey eggnog.

Prepare a pitcherful in advance and store it in the refrigerator for use at breakfast on a typically busy week-day morning. You will find the youngsters asking for second helpings.

Honey Eggnog

Simply beat two eggs well, gradually add three tablespoons of honey, and two cups of milk. Blend thoroughly. Add one-half teaspoon vanilla if desired. This makes enough for four cereal bowls.

Tri Color Dessert

Make individual shells from a package of meringue mix. Just before serving fill with drained canned apricot halves and whipped cream. Top with a garnish of unsweetened chocolate curls or chocolate shot.

What Young People Think:

Woman's Place Is in Home, Say Teenagers

By EUGENE GILBERT

Get out from behind that bulldozer, Mother, your place is still in the home.

So say a majority of the teenagers we contacted in a nationwide survey on the problem of working wives.

Nearly 6 out of 10 youngsters were opposed to wives taking either full or part time jobs, and even more when there were small children at home.

Women today may be emancipated to the point where they can become captains of industry, pilot jet planes, run banks and baseball teams, but as far as most teenagers are concerned, their main career is still piloting a baby carriage.

"I feel that a woman's place is still in the home," said 15-year-old Claire Valliere of Hartford, Conn., in a statement that just about represented the majority viewpoint.

Minority spokesman Lenore Castro, a 16-year-old Flushing, N. Y., dissenter, feels that wives should be allowed to work because "when they stay home they become fat and lazy."

Significantly, however, most of those who defend working wives do so only if the money they make is needed to help the family budget.

★ ★ ★

Answers to other questions in the survey underline the teenagers' concern for what happens to children in a home where the mother has to go out to work.

MOM, STAY HOME!

For instance:

Eighty per cent of the youngsters interviewed thought it was all right for brides to work before the children came along.

Seventy per cent were opposed to wives working if there were small children at home.

Sixty-six per cent saw no objection to wives working if the children were teenaged or older, although an outspoken minority argued that teenagers needed a mother's care and attention as much, if not more, than any other group.

How long should a bride continue to work?

Again, children were the primary concern. The biggest group, 42 per cent, thought she should quit when the first baby came.

Eighteen per cent thought she should work only as long as she had to, meaning only as long as the extra money was needed.

Twelve per cent figured that, at the outside, she should work no more than three years, lest her position become subordinate to her role as wife. And only 8 per cent were willing to let her work "as long as she cared to."

Of the total group interviewed, 28 per cent said they came from a home where their mother worked either full or part time. Interestingly enough, teenagers with working mothers did not vary as a group in their opinions on the subject from other teenagers.

Most were opposed to mothers working where small children were involved, were inclined to approve if the children were teenaged and saw no objection for a newlywed to work and help out the family income.

"My mother works and things are just fine," said 16-year-old James McClurg of St. Louis.

★ ★ ★

"If the wife enjoys working part time and the family can use the money, I see no objection as long as it doesn't take her completely away from her housework," said 15-year-old Mary Ann Martin of Indianapolis, whose mother has a part-time job.

TEENS NEED MOTHER

But 15-year-old Gail Corbett of Dallas, Tex., wished that her mother didn't have to work. "Teenagers," she commented, "need their mothers even more."

Teenagers whose mothers did not work were similarly divided on whether or not wives with teenage children should go out to work.

"Yes, she should be allowed to work when the children reach their teens," insisted 16-year-old Judy Chesus of St. Louis. "She has a right to get out sometime."

"Children have to learn to be independent sometime," put in Daniel Schrader, 16, also of St. Louis.

But to 16-year-old Marcia Rives of Detroit a mother's place is definitely in the home when teenagers are about, "for these are the years when they need guidance most of all."

"Teeners are at a very impressionable age," insisted Stephen Alexander, 17, of St. Louis. "Maybe there wouldn't be an juvenile delinquency problem if there wasn't also a working wife problem."

If both a wife and a husband work, who should control the purse string?

This question caused the widest division of opinion in the whole survey:

Thirty-eight per cent figured father should control the family finances.

Twenty-nine per cent delegated this chore to mother.

Eighteen per cent answered that either they should each keep their own checks or pool them and jointly rule the family budget.

Fifteen per cent refused to be drawn into a money argument at all.

But perhaps the most plausible solution was offered by 14-year-old Gloria Girard of Hartford, Conn.: "it all depends on who is the more capable."

Getting Ready for Wedding?

As spring arrives, many Pontiac area girls are in a whirl of busy preparation for fast approaching weddings.

We of The Pontiac Press Women's Department have several suggestions for prospective brides to assure them of complete, accurate and timely wedding stories.

And these suggestions hold true whether it be a wedding in the balmy spring or snowy wintertime.

The Press has prepared wedding forms to be filled out with all the necessary information for a complete and accurate wedding story.

The forms, which may be obtained from our office or from many of the local photographers who take the wedding pictures, should be returned to the Women's Department at least two days before the wedding. It takes this amount of time to handle such detailed stories.

Wedding stories received more than three days after a wedding will necessarily be cut and will not include such details as reception and bridal costumes.

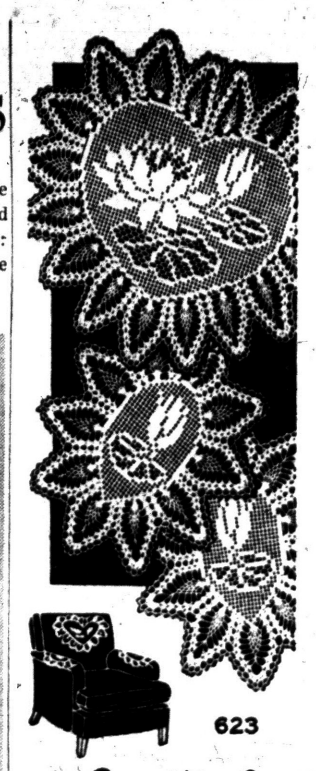

Local photographers have been most cooperative in meeting our deadlines and usually see to it that we have the pictures within the specified time.

Pictures should be black and white glossy prints, as colored or sepia or snapshot pictures do not reproduce well. Because of our limited space, we can only use pictures of the bride alone and not of the couple.

Also because of space, brides-to-be may submit only one picture (either engagement or wedding) if they are to be married within two months of the engagement announcement.

★ ★ ★

We implore, once again, as we did regarding news stories, to write all information as clearly as possible taking special care to see that names are printed and spelled properly.

Here's List of Mechanical Danger Points

Car Needs a Spring Checkup, Too

Your automobile has suffered through a long, hard and cold winter ladies, and it is, figuratively speaking, as glad as you are to see more gentle weather on its way. So when you're in the process of doing your general spring cleaning and fixing, don't neglect your automobile.

Make an appointment now with a reliable automobile mechanic to have your car prepared for the summer driving ahead. Or, if you're married and your husband takes care of such things, you might tactfully remind him that it's time to take the car in for a spring checkup.

Following is a spring check list prepared by the driver education staff of the Michigan State University Highway Traffic Safety Center. When you take the car to the garage or service station, take the list with you.

That part of the list in parentheses is for the mechanic who will do the work on your car. Ask him to check off each item as completed.

1. (Drain and flush radiator and add rust inhibitor). This is advised even if you have permanent anti-freeze, because rust may develop and could harm your cooling system.

2. (Replace winter-weight oil with summer-weight oil. Check oil filter). A light-weight oil is used for winter driving and must be replaced with a heavier oil for summer.

3. (General lubrication of vehicle, including differential, universal joint and transmission).

4. (Inspect exhaust system). The chemicals used to melt snow and ice on our streets and highways during the winter months are likely to cause rust and damage to the exhaust system. If there are leaks in your exhaust system, you may be exposed to escaping carbon monoxide, a deadly gas.

5. (Check tires for wear and wheel alignment. Adjust headlights). Your vehicle is jolted around a good bit because of the conditions of winter driving, and your wheels and headlamps may have been jarred out of proper alignment.

6. (Inspect and adjust fan belt).

7. (Check horn).

8. (Make sure there is water in the windshield washer reservoir and check wiper blades). The blades may not do the job as they should because of the type of "freezing work" they have done during the winter.

9. (Tune-up motor).

10. (Wash car thoroughly, including in and around doors and underneath the vehicle). You may want to do this yourself or have it done at the garage or service station.

Follow Beauty Routine

Spring Calls for a Lighter Make-Up

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

It is impossible to think of a SPRING MAKEOVER without thinking of makeup. While your cosmetics always should match your own skin tone, nevertheless you probably will want to change some of the colors you have been using now that spring is here and summer is within 'speaking' distance.

Many of the shades which matched and enhanced darker winter garb look too heavy and are too great a contrast to the whtites and pastels we will be wearing from now on. The cosmeticians realize this and you will find lighter shade lipsticks blooming from every cosmetic counter. As a general rule makeup also should be applied with a lighter hand in springtime.

There are several little beauty routines which seem unimportant but which add much to the charm of a woman's appearance. I am thinking of the rough heels and elbows which winter leaves behind. You are a rare woman if you do not now have this difficulty.

The use of a body lotion or a cream on the heels every night is essential. Also massage your cold cream into your elbows when you lubricate your face and neck. If you have not used an eye cream, pat one about your eyes before going to sleep each night.

Another much neglected habit is the use of a cuticle cream or oil. You can massage this into the skin about the nails of your hands with wonderfully rewarding results. As part of your SPRING MAKEOVER, adopt these measures even if only for a few weeks.

Of course figure faults are the main concern of most women who are getting ready for summer clothes. As those of you know who have been reading "Why Grow Old?" this week, I am printing my 9-Day Reducing Diet as a part of your SPRING MAKEOVER. Here are the menus for tomorrow.

Breakfast

One egg
One thin dry slice of whole wheat toast
Black coffee

LUNCHEON

Fresh fruit salad
Two tablespoons cottage cheese
One glass skimmed milk
One thin dry slice of whole wheat toast

Dinner

Baked fish, medium portion
One-half cup cabbage, lightly cooked
One-half cup, spinach or greens
One glass skimmed milk
One orange

Here is your daily exercise. Sit on the floor with your legs resting on the floor in front of you (knees stiff). Clasp your hands behind you. Roll onto the right hip and thigh, keeping knees stiff and supporting yourself some with your hands. Now roll over onto the left side.

Continue rolling from side to side as far as you can while still keeping your balance. The legs remain on the floor throughout this exercise.

If you have missed some of the menus which have been printed in your newspaper, or would like to have my 9-Day Diet in booklet form, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for it. This diet gives you a loss of from five to 10 pounds in nine day's time.

★ ★ ★

Do this exercise faithfully, along with the others that have been illustrated to insure a successful spring makeover.

A sleeveless, cape-collared dress of shades of green ushers in the spring weather. The dress is of printed raffia cotton. The cape and skirt feature soft fold-pleats.

Do You End Praise With Critical Word

By RUTH MILLETT

Some women can't say anything complimentary about another woman without adding the "but" that turns the compliment into criticism—

Yes, her hair is pretty, but it's obviously a dye job.

She's a nice person, but a little too much of a do-gooder for my taste.

I'll admit she has been a good president, buf she needn't act as though she's the only one who could have handled the job.

Her house is attractive, but it's not one I would choose for myself.

She always looks stunning, but, after all, anyone could if they had that kind of money to spend on clothes.

They seem to be happily married—but, of course, you never can tell.

It was a nice party, but she invited too many guests.

She's a popular girl, but I understand she's kind of wild.

She's young-looking, but she's not as young as she pretends to be.

She's a nice person, but she's such a poor housekeeper.

She's amusing, but don't tell her anything you don't want repeated.

She's a hard worker, but she irritates a lot of people by being so bossy.

Just listen next time you are in a group of women. If it's a group of any size there is almost sure to be one woman who turns every compliment into a criticism by adding that unkind little "but."

Better yet, listen to your own remarks about others to be sure you aren't doing it yourself.

Tell Dry Cleaners About Fabrics

Plastic foam is finding its way into quilted coat linings these days. And folks are finding that it takes special care in cleaning these garments.

Plastic foam should not be cleaned in synthetic solvents. Tell your dry cleaner what you have, and he'll use the dry cleaning solution suitable for the material.

Pillar Club Meets at Kirby Home

Mrs. Paul Taylor gave a book review at a meeting of the Pillar Club held Tuesday evening at the Cherokee road home of Mrs. Frank Kirby.

Taking part in the program were Mrs. A. L. Hulet, Mrs. W. H. Knudsen and Mrs. Fred Voelker.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Haskins.

PCH Students Present Skit

Pontiac Central High School's Radio Workshop, directed by Vera Mae Adams, presented a skit, "The Story of America," based on a brotherhood theme, at a meeting of the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Jacob Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Irving Steinman introduced the program.

Luncheonette was served under the chairmanship of Mrs. Barnard Anchor, assisted by Mrs. Charles Gersten, Mrs. Sherwin Birnkrant and Mrs. Irving Schlyfestone.

Standing committee chairmen gave annual reports at the meeting. Mrs. Irving Schlyfestone and Mrs. Harry Ackerman also participated in the afternoon's activities.

A price tag is not always indicative of quality. So don't rely on it as a sure guide when you shop for fashion. It's best to develop your own judgment.

These four friends will be hostesses the next week, inviting four more friends to their homes for coffee. This "chain reaction" will continue for four weeks, by which time more than 800 women in the Pontiac area will have made contributions to the scholarship fund.

Prism to Enable Study of Invisible Radiations

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI)—An ultraviolet prism, the first of its kind in the United States, will permit astronomers at Case Institute of Technology to analyze the invisible radiations given off by stars 6,000 times as bright as the sun.

The prism, which is two feet in diameter and weighs 72 pounds, breaks up the star's radiations into a band of rays which can be photographed. Study of the band shows astronomers the luminosity and chemical composition of these distant stars.

Northern, St. Mike and Skippers Win in Track

PCH Nine Defeats PNH

Pontiac Central added city rival Northern to its list of baseball victims gaining an 8-1 verdict in the 1st meeting between the schools in the diamond sport yesterday afternoon at Wisner Field.

Northern also bowed in golf, but it was not all gloom for Husky rooters yesterday as the track forces of Dick Marsh posted their 1st triumph 59-50 at Melvindale.

St. Michael and Waterford thinclads were also impressive. The Shamrocks beat out three schools in a meet at Detroit Cooley while Waterford was walloping Wayne.

A triple play, clutch hitting and the standout hurling of Dave Tillman featured the Chiefs 4th straight baseball triumph.

First sacker Bill Hayward started the three-out play when he speared a line drive in the 5th with two men on.

Each team had five hits but Central got them when they counted scoring all its runs in the middle frames after trailing 1-0. Bob Smith batted in the tying marker and Dave Jones' single with the bases loaded helped wrap it up as Tillman flipped shutout ball after the 1st.

Jan Lawrence won the high hurdles and took 2nds in the lows and pole vault to head PNH in track with 11 points. Mike Fedynik added 9 topped by his victory in the pole vault.

★ ★ ★

He and Dennis Vincent shared the high jump honor. Northern had four other first places.

St. Mike piled up 56½ points to 36 for Redford St. Mary, 19½ for St. Anthony and Shrine's 19 sparked by 7 winners.

George Drake took the high jump and low hurdles and Bill Flanigan won both dashes to lead the way. Mike Kesseling, Don Austreng and Chuck Steinhelper had the others.

Seven different boys won for Waterford in a 63½ to 45½ romp. The group included Barry Campbell, Mike Kaines and Mike Ewer.

Jack Newton totaled 16¼ points as West Bloomfield won a night triangular. Clarkston had 42 1-6 and Holly 25 as the host team took nine of 13 events.

In golf, Northern dropped its 2nd match in as many starts bowing to Walled Lake 335-390 at Pontiac Municipal. Bloomfield Hills drubbed Clarkston, 165-201.

All four Walled Lake boys bettered the PNH quartet paced by Bob Young with 80. Jim Miller's 93 was low for the Huskies. Bob Thompson fired 38 and Bruce Billings 40 to make it easy for Bloomfield.

Players-Owners in NFL Confab

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Some sort of pension plan appears in the wood for national football league players as they opened two days of meetings here today with pro owners.

★ ★ ★

A reliable source told the Associated Press that the talks among owners and the Players' Association, should evolve some type of plan. It won't however, be anything like the proposal presented at the league's annual meeting under which players would receive $100 a month at age 65, the source asserted.

★ ★ ★

In addition to pension problems, the owners were scheduled to take up airplane insurance plans, check over television contract language, arrange for a quick shift of any league game conflicting with baseball's world series, and consider a plea from Honolulu that the league sanction the Island's Hula Bowl game.

Pumpsie Figures He Just Didn't Make the Club

DALLAS (AP)—Jerry (Pumpsie) Green, center of a discrimination controversy involving the Boston Red Sox, said last night "I figured I just didn't make the club."

The National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People has charged bias by Boston in not keeping him on the major league club. The Red Sox have denied it.

Green said "Naturally I was disappointed when I didn't stick with the Red Sox this spring. But I figured I just didn't make the club. I'd rather be playing every day in Minneapolis than riding the bench in Boston."

Expected Northwestern Move

Rose Bowl Boss Optimistic on Contract

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Northwestern's anticipated vote against continuance of the Rose Bowl football contract after 1960 does not have Rose Bowl officials pushing the panic button.

Lanthrop Leishman, chairman of the Tournament of Roses' football committee, said Northwestern's position has not killed the contract. "It may or may not be terribly vital. We will just have to wait and see.

"But I think the Western Big Four is well enough represented and respected in intercollegiate circles to go out and get a suitable opponent to make the game a high grade affair."

"We're very optimistic that the Big Ten will choose to continue a contract with us," said Jess Hill, athletic director at the University of Southern California. "We've had a pleasant relationship so far, but we will just have to wait the outcome of the Big Ten meeting next month before making other plans."

Added Wilbur Johns, UCLA athletic director:

"I don't think the Northwestern decision is necessarily the final action of the Big Ten. It is certainly our hope that a contract will be continued with the Western Conference."

Johns said that if the Big Ten does vote against the pact which expires in 1960, "We will have to find someone who will be happy to play.

"I'm not the least bit concerned with the future of the Rose Bowl."

In Berkeley, California's athletic director, Greg Englehard, said he won't believe the Big Ten pact is dead unless the Big Ten itself votes against renewal May 23.

With the break-up of the Pacific Coast Conference, the Tournament of Roses is now discussing—and probably will sign—a new contract with the charter members of its successor—the Athletic Assn. of Western Universities—UCLA, USC, California and the University of Washington.

T. Leroy Martin, chairman of Northwestern's faculty committee, Tuesday night reaffirmed Northwestern's "long standing opposition to all postseason games, including the Rose Bowl."

The decision apparently created a 5-5 stalemate among conference members over whether they will vote to continue or end the contract with the Pacific Coast universities. A 6-4 majority must be obtained to assure continued Big Ten participation.

Michigan Golfers Bow Out

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—Michigan was without a single representative today as the North and South Amateur Golf Championship entered the quarter-final stage at Pinehurst Country Club.

The state's last two hopefuls, 18-year-old Pete Green of Birmingham and Dr. Robert Corley from Jackson, were eliminated Wednesday in the 2nd round of match play.

Green, an unheralded youngster in this tournament who fired a 71 in Monday's qualifiers to share medal honors, ran into a real "toughie" yesterday after winning his first head-to-head battle on Tuesday.

A three-year golfing whiz at Birmingham High School and last year's state Jaycee champion, Green dropped a 3-2 decision to Gene Andrews, the veteran amateur campaigner from Pacific Palisades, Calif.

Dr. Corley, the Jackson heart specialist and a seasoned tourney performer, completed Michigan's exit from this event when he lost a 6-5 match to Jack Penrose of Miami, Fla.

An intriguing age mixture ranging from a teenager to men in their 40s made up the field for today's quarterfinal round.

The two "babies" among the survivors of yesterday's double-round shelling will appear in an upper bracket match, Jack Nicklaus, a long-hitting muscular 19-year-old from Columbus, Ohio, faced 20-year-old Don Essig of Indianapolis and Baton Rouge, La.

Nicklaus will represent the U. S. on the Walker Cup team facing the British in three weeks at Muirfield, Scotland. Essig, a student at LSU, won the National Public Links title two years ago.

The winner of their match goes into tomorrow's 18-hole semifinals against the victor of a duel between two veterans whose total age span covers 84 years.

Mal Galletta, 38-year-old limousine rental service operator from Old Westbury, N.Y., and 46-year-old Bob Cochran of St. Louis met to determine the opponent for the Essig-Nicklaus winner.

Galletta won here 15 years ago and was runnerup six years ago when he beat Cochran 1-up in the semifinals.

salesman, and John Guenther, 26, of Reading, Pa., who is in the hosiery business with his father and brother, met in the first match of the lower half.

Completing the schedule, the tall, balding 44-year-old Penrose met former champion Bill Campbell, 35-year-old insurance man and former legislator from Huntington, W. Va.

Favor Littler at Las Vegas

Golf Champs Start Firing

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Las Vegas' most respected sports event, the $40,000 Tournament of Champions, gets underway today with a crack field of 26 golfers on deck for the first 18 holes of the 72-hole, seventh annual event.

The betting favorite in this betting capital was Gene Littler of San Diego, who capured the $10,000 top money on sucessive years starting in 1955.

Latest figures on Littler were 5-1, while the "morning line" on Art Wall Jr., recent Masters champion and Arnold Palmer, the 1958 Masters ruler, quoted at 6-1.

Cary Middlecoff and Billy Casper Jr. the latter runner-up here last year, were listed at 8-1, while the surprise champion of the championship field, Stan Leonard of Canda, was no better than 10-1 to repeat.

Littler's victories at the Phoenix and Tucson opens this winter qualified him for this event, while Wall, the hottest golfer in the game, won five tournaments over the past 12 months.

The tournament is played at the Desert Inn Country Club, which can stretch out to 7,073 yards and has par 36-36—72.

Paul Harney, the long hitter from Worcester, Mass., had the lowest practice round, a 66.

Prep Shooters Buck Tradition May 25 at PCC

Many Past Standouts Attain More Stardom on Higher Level

Ontstanding high school golfers and the Pontiac Press Invitational golf tournament have always gone hand in hand since the inception of the event in 1952.

Many schoolboy golfers have made glittering contributions to the one-day 18-hole medal play tourney and a few have attained additional stardom on the collegiate level as well as in other competitive endeavors.

When prep teams from the Oakland County area gather at Pontiac Country Club on Monday, May 25, to compete in the 8th annual Press tournament, they will buck a par-shooting tradition established by numerous talented teenagers.

Among the several skilled shotmakers who have graced the Press tourney are Lloyd Syron of Pontiac; Jack Reynolds and John Wettlaufer of Waterford; Pete Green, Tim Baldwin and Mike Conroy from Birmingham, and Bud Badger of Bloomfield Hills.

Syron, who played his high school golf at Shrine in Royal Oak, starred for three years on the Notre Dame squad and hit the high point of his career in 1957 by winning the Michigan Amateur title at Charlevoix. He was Press Class B medalist in 1953.

Green, Conroy and Baldwin are three big reasons why Birmingham High has won five of the seven Press tourneys to date.

Reynolds and Wettlaufer paced Waterford to the Press crown in 1956 with the latter taking medal honors. Reynolds and Baldwin, both juniors at Michigan State, are teammates on the Spartan golf squad.

Green, a freshman at the University of North Carolina, won the State Jaycee crown last summer.

Badger captured medal honors four straight years in the Press tourney. He now attends MSU on a scholarship. Wettlaufer played one season of varsity golf at Western Michigan in Kalamazoo before leaving the sport to crack the books a little harder.

Braves Take 1st as Dodgers Lose: Pirates Leave Cellar

Burdette Wins 3rd With 'At Em' Ball

By The Associated Press

Lew Burdette has found his "at 'em" ball again. He misplaced it when he was unfrocked as a Yankee killer last October.

It was the "at 'em" pitch — the pitch that made it easy on the fielders because batters hit it right at 'em—that the big right-hander credited when he won three from the New York Yankees as Milwaukee won the 1957 World Series. He still had it last season, when he became a 20-game winner for the first time.

Then he lost it in last fall's World Series, twice taking his lumps while the Yankees staged a startling comeback by winning the last three games.

This season, Burdette has picked up where he left off last year, and so have the Braves, once more leading the National League. Burdette put them a game in front last night, giving up eight hits but out-dueling Robin Roberts, who allowed only four, for a 2-0 victory over Philadelphia.

It was Burdette's third victory — and his seventh in a row, all complete games, since last September 7.

Los Angeles fell out of a virtual tie for first as San Francisco ended the Dodgers' winning string at four 6-3. Pittsburgh came from behind twice and beat Cincinnati 9-8. That sprung the Bucs from the cellar and the St. Louis Cardinals dropped in, despite an 8-2 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

The Braves were held hitless by Roberts (1-1) until the seventh when consecutive singles by Wes Covington, Frank Torre and Del Crandall, who lined one off Robin's leg, broke the shutout duel. Billy Bruton added his first homer in the eighth.

★ ★ ★

The Giants, who had lost two in a row, dropped the Dodgers with a five-run fifth against losing starter Carl Erskine (0-1). A walk, four singles and Orlando Cepeda's double did the damage. Jack Sanford (2-1) won it, but needed a clutch relief job from Sam Jones, who struck out Don Demeter and pinch-hitting Carl Furillo with two on in the ninth.

★ ★ ★

The Pirates, blanked on two hits for six innings by Joe Nuxhall, tied it in a seven-run seventh capped by Bill Virdon's three-run homer. Then, after Gus Bell gave the Reds a new lead with a solo homer in the eighth, the Bucs put it away against losing reliever Orlando Pena in the ninth on a bases-loaded walk and Rocky Nelson's single. Elroy Face (1-0) won it in relief.

★ ★ ★

Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell gave up five hits and won his second for the Cards. Alex Grammas, Gino Cimoli and Curt Flood hit homers for St. Louis. Grammas, who hadn't homered since 1955, drove in four runs. Taylor Phillips (0-2), who hasn't completed any of his last 16 starts, lost it.

Wrong Date Listed

LANSING (AP)—The printed Michigan fish law digest erred in the listing of the opening date of the trout season for Michigan-Wisconsin boundary waters, the state conservation department admitted today.

The correct date is Saturday, April 25—the same as for the general season—not April 26, as listed in the digest.

Coming into this year Michigan swimming championships and 12 had won 21 baseball titles, 17 in golf in Big 10 conference circles.

Ultimatum Issued to Clean Up Camp

WALLED LAKE—The City Council announced that it has given Mark Chessler, owner of the Willow Camp, until May 5 to clean up his property in compliance with city and county health ordinances.

"If it is not done by then, the council proposes to take legal action and have this sanitary nuisance abated," City Manager George Shaw said today.

Chessler has been under fire by the City Council for some time to take the necessary action.

He has stated his intention to clean up the property several times in the past, but the City Council has not been satisfied with his efforts and is now intent upon putting an end to the undesirable situation, Shaw concluded.

Market Eases After Record

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market continued to back away from record highs in moderately active trading early today. Selected issues gained.

Pivotal issues dropped fractions to a point or more.

American Telephone continued to decline on profit taking. It lost more than 2 while AT&T when-issued stock, based on the stock split, was off fractionally.

Colgate-Palmolive lost 3 points of yesterday's 10-point leap.

Thiokol added about 3 in a continued advance on the basis of its stock split.

★ ★ ★

American Motors was up a point to 38¼ on an opening block of 15,000 shares then erased the gain and showed a slight net loss. Earnings and dividend action are anticipated in Wall Street.

Zenith lost another 2 points. Eastman Kodak gained a point or more.

Most other changes were quite narrow. First quarter earnings reports continued favorable but the market's recent sustained upsurge was due for further correction, brokers said.

U. S. Steel was a 1-point loser. Fractional losses were taken by General Motors, Chrysler, Montgomery Ward, General Dynamics, Sperry Rand, Anaconda, General Electric, Southern Pacific, Texas Co. and Stanadard Oil of Indiana.

Tape Recording Firm at Charlotte Reopens

CHARLOTTE (AP) — Some 250 persons will go back to work here Monday when the newly organized Recordio Corp. begins operations at the old Wilcox-Gay plant.

Wilcox Gay, a pioneer in the tape recording field, closed down about four months ago because of financial dificulties.

Don Heinisch, organizer of the new firm, said it would manufacture tape recorders, phonographs and radios.

He reported an operating capital of $150,000 including about $40,000 raised by former employes of Wilcox-Gay.

There are 1,100,000 Italians in New York City.

Dedicate School Tonight

How Pierce Got Its Name

In naming new schools in Waterford Township, the Board of Education continued its policy of honoring famous early Michigan settlers when it named the John D. Pierce Junior High School.

Dedication ceremonies for the $2½ million school will get under way at 8 tonight.

The school has an enrollment of 1,200 pupils.

When Michigan was just beginning to develop in 1836, the Rev. John D. Pierce was appointed the first state superintendent of public instruction on recommendiation of his friend, State Rep. Isaac Crary. Waterford Township's first junior high school was named after Crary. It opened in 1954.

Although Pierce came to Michigan as a Congregational missionary, his interest in school systems grew and his influence in educational ideals gradually became more pronounced than his church work.

★ ★ ★

Free schools did not come all at one time, nor for many years. However, history reports that Pierce's plan was finally reached and far surpassed.

Through Crary's efforts in Washington, Congress gave the 16th section of each township to the state, rather than to the township governments, for the benefit of all schools.

Superintendents were authorized to sell these small sections and all proceeds were put into a permanent primary school fund. Interest money from this fund was distributed to the districts for school operation.

The Rev. Pierce, who graduated from Brown University, was familiar with the most advanced principals of study and his thorough program of supervision welded the existing district schools into one effective system.

The composition on Crary and Pierce, written by David Wilson for the Isaac Crary dedication five years ago, will be presented tonight by Claudia Wagner.

No one knows the silent heartache
Only those who lose can tell,
The grief we bear in silence,
For the one we loved so well.
Someday, sometime our eyes shall see,
The face we keep in memory,
And God will link the broken chain
Still closer when we meet again.
Sadly missed by his wife Mary.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR dear mother, Grace L. Osbun, who passed away April 23rd, 1950.
Peaceful be thy rest, dear mother
It is sweet to breathe thy name;
