Ike Sends Forces to Aid Latin Lands

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower has ordered U.S. Navy warships and air units to help Guatemala and Nicaragua "seek out and prevent" any Communist-directed attack on these countries if it becomes necessary.

The White House reported the warships, including an aircraft carrier, are "now on the high seas" to carry out this mission.

Eisenhower acted, the White House said, in answer to written requests from the Guatemalan and Nicaraguan governments for such American help.

In the past few days Guatemala and Nicaragua have fought off what they claim are anti-government revolts directed by supporters of Cuba's Fidel Castro.

Nikita May Turn Out 'Friend,' Says Expert

By HARRY I. REED
Managing Editor, The Pontiac Press

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. — Despite his shoe-thumping antics in the United Nations, Nikita Khrushchev may be one of this nation's "friends" in the long run, an Associated Press foreign specialist told assembled managing editors of the nation's newspapers yesterday.

For if Nikita loses his constant battle with the Chinese Reds to achieve world domination for communism by peaceful methods, instead of the violent way the Chinese prefer, the third and final World War may be much closer.

AP writer William L. Ryan spoke on "Russian Tactics: From Cuba to the U.N.," as part of a report on Communist world pressure.

Ryan said Khrushchev was arguing the philosophy of domination with the Chinese leaders all the time, and any possible change in leadership in the Kremlin would probably be for the worst.

"The Chinese say the formula for conquest is violence, and the methods are not weapons, but maneuver," Ryan said. "They are based on the premise that a revolution must have violence, and they have sorely complained to the Russians about missing opportunities to create violence, Ryan said."

Far-ranging reporter Ryan said the Reds, passing up chances for trouble, as they did when they took the Communist party in Iraq to back off in 1959, rather than risk starting a war in the Middle East, may be damaging to Nikita and his supporters.

"Old guard Stalinists, and there are still some around in Russia, may get back into power if Khrushchev, and it would be worse for us if they did," he added.

The foreign-affairs expert who has covered the world's trouble spots for the AP said that Khrushchev will seek a summit session with Kennedy, and may precipitate a crisis (possibly over Berlin) to bring about the meeting.

This is to show the Chinese that he can achieve their common goal with his method.

Ryan warned that hoping the split between the Russians and the Chinese would help us a great deal is probably wishful thinking, and it would be foolish to bank on it too much.

'Greatest' Actor in Film World 59 Years Old

Idol of Women Made 90 Pictures, Was Soon to Be Father

By JAMES BACON
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The king is dead!

Clark Gable, greatest star of them all, dropped his head back on a pillow late Wednesday night and died of a heart attack.

The end came so fast that his doctor said there was no pain—just a few gasps. A few seconds before he had been asleep. A nurse in his room heard the gasps and shouted across the hall to Mrs. Gable who had moved into Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital when Gable, 59, was taken there after his first heart attack Nov. 6.

Ironically, death came after his best day since that first attack. He had eaten heartily at dinner, took a little movie afterwards and then chatted happily with his wife. He had even been shaved.

When Kay, his fifth wife, noticed him dozing again, she retired to her room across the hall. She was barely settled when she heard the nurse cry: "Come quick!"

California Vote Goes to Nixon

Victory From Absentee Ballots Stirrs Rumors of Governorship Hopes

WASHINGTON—Army Sec. Wilber M. Brucker promised today to do everything in his power to prevent President Eisenhower's order limiting the number of American military families overseas from hurting Army combat morale and effectiveness.

Brucker's statement was made at Ft. Benning, Ga., and released by Army headquarters here. Officials said it was not cleared with the Defense Department.

"I recognize the directive as orders," Brucker said. However, I intend to look into the details of the directive from the Department of Defense to see what I can do to ameliorate the situation and lessen the impact on the families of our Army."

The Pentagon indicated few of the dependents now overseas will be brought home ahead of time. The primary reliance will be on simply sending few new families abroad.

The cut is to be made at the rate of 15,000 a month. That is about the average rate at which dependents now return.

The Pentagon said the plan is to bring most dependents home about the time the servicemen's tour of duty overseas expires. In most cases the families will accompany the servicemen back home in what the Pentagon calls the "concurrent travel" procedure.

Each of the services was instructed to draw up its own specific plans to carry out the reduction, expected to be accomplished in about a year and a half.

The new government - led drive to bolster American gold and dollar resources seemed likely to dominate the President's conference with 14 of the administration's financial, military and foreign policy chiefs today.

Eisenhower served notice he expects major assistance from wealthy European allies in helping the United States halt flow of gold and dollars to overseas markets.

To underscore the seriousness of the financial situation, Eisenhower to bring home some 284,000 dependents of U. S. military forces

Asks Integration Be Suspended

New Orleans School Board Protests Being Used as Battleground

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The New Orleans School Board today asked U. S. District Judge J. Skelly Wright to suspend his order directing integration in the city's elementary public schools until federal and state differences can be solved.

Attorney Samuel Rosenberg filed the action asking that the board be permitted to operate segregated schools in the city.

School Board President Lloyd Rittiner said "this action should in no way be construed by Gov. (Jimmie H.) Davis, Mr. Jackson (state education superintendent) or any member of the state legislature as an abdication of our stand for a continuance of our public education system."

Rosenberg, referring to Wednesday's demonstrations by 1,000 white teenagers, said "The public school system has been made a battleground for the fight between state and federal rights."

Today's action, Rittiner said, is a move by the board "to remove public schools from this position."

The white boycott of one of the city's two newly integrated public schools appeared today today with only three Negro first graders turning out for classes.

The Negro girls entered McDonogh No. 19 at 8:44 a.m., accompanied by six federal marshals. No white students entered the school today.

A handful of white spectators jeered when they arrived, but the number was far smaller than was present during the first three days of integration.

The Negro girl attending the William Frantz School arrived at 9:15 a.m., accompanied by six federal marshals. Only a handful of spectators were on hand to jeer.

News Flash

DETROIT (AP) — Three children were burned fatally today in a fire in a near-downtown mansion converted into an apartment building.

The children were left alone briefly by their mother, Mrs. Marion Turner, while she went to a nearby store. Three other children and three women fled unharmed from the old building at 1221 Lyander.

The Turner children, Jerome, 5, Michael, 4, and Helen, 3, died two hours after they were taken from a bed in their second-floor flat by firemen.

Light Showers to Fall—so Will the Temperature

A few light showers and continued cool temperatures are forecast for tonight and Friday in the Pontiac area.

Temperatures will drop to 34 - 40 tonight and rise to 40 - 46 tomorrow.

Partly cloudy with little change in temperature is the outlook for Saturday.

Morning southerly winds at 15 - 25 miles per hour will diminish tonight.

The lowest reading in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 37 degrees. The temperature at 2 p.m. was 47.

Violators Beware

By DICK SAUNDERS

The judge had no gavel, but he had the biggest jury in any Pontiac courtroom this year.

That was the situation as the Oakland County Teen-age Traffic Court began its third year of operation yesterday.

The courtroom was that of Municipal Court Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

The "judge" was Ralph Lane, 17, of 117 Silver Circle, Waterford Township, a senior at St. Michael's High School.

The jury numbered about 60 students from Pontiac High Schools.

Carole Hoyt, 17, a senior at St. Frederick High School, was the jury foreman.

Martie Sosanias, 17, a Pontiac Northern High School senior, held forth as court recorder.

FIVE VIOLATORS A MONTH

One by one, each violator explained his case to the roomful of jurors.

Five violators are brought before the court at each monthly session. Each has been thoroughly screened by Oakland County Juvenile Court officials.

All are facing their first traffic violation and may refuse to appear before the traffic court pre-

Hunters Finally Run Down Their Elusive Quarry

Two Detroiters on route home from an unsuccessful deer hunting expedition today weren't expecting to find their silver lining.

For three days they'd tracked their prey. But Donald Silvi and Joseph L. Huffmaster Jr., both 29, didn't see a deer. They didn't smell a deer.

At 1 a.m. today they were driving south on U.S. 10 in Springfield Township—empty-handed. Across the road and into the path of their car ran a six-point buck.

The pair tagged the deer and called the Oakland County Sheriff's Department.

Deputy Dale Hassenzahl ruled it a "legal killing."

Both squads are presented with full Pontiac Press color pictures. Central in Orange and Black and Northern in its Red and White.

Summerfield Will Give Address in City Dec. 21

Announcement was made today by the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce that Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield will speak here Dec. 21.

The luncheon meeting has been scheduled at the Elks and Pontiac area luncheon clubs have agreed to make this their official meeting for the week. A limited number of tickets will be placed on sale a few days prior to the luncheon.

"When they finish their story, the jury goes into action. Some of the questions are very revealing.

"What was your speed? Was the pavement dry? How many car lengths ahead was the other car? How many were in your car? Was your date with you? Did you have both hands on the wheel?"

"The questions come fast and often, and the violators often do not disclose violations other than the one the defendant is charged with."

"Then, the jury deliberates, returns its verdict and imposes sentence. Violators are sentenced to attend a special driving safety clinic sponsored by the Pontiac Exchange Club two consecutive Monday nights each month."

"Many violators are also sentenced to write a letter of apology to the victim, and to pay a fine of $10.00."

"If the violator is considered safe, the jury may recommend that the violator be released from the clinic."

...ed. Here I'm a new grande and you're about to become a papa for the first time."

"I always was a late starter," he laughed. Then he turned serious. "This is a dividend that has come to me late in life. When I wind up this picture, I'm taking off until the baby is born in March. I want to be there when it happens—and I want to be there a good many months afterward."

"This is my 50th picture, and it's been a tough one. I'm not doing any more for a long while."

"I never could see myself in that part," he once said. His portrayal in the movie of the famed best seller was a screen classic, but it was not his favorite.

"His all-time favorite was the one that won him an Oscar in 1934—the wisecracking newspaperman of 'It Happened One Night.'"

"I was having a beef with Metro in those days," he once said. "I was sick—even went to a hospital—but they threatened me with suspension. To get even, they exiled me via a loanout to Columbia."

"It Happened One Night" gave me a chance to play comedy and from then on, I was never typecast."

Gable, a better actor than most screen heroes, never took himself too seriously. A few years ago, he asked him if he intended to take directing as had some of his fellow stars.

"Direct? Hell! I haven't even learned how to act yet."

In a way, that quote summed up Gable—a big star who never got the big head—even though he had the ears for it.

Gable was married five times and seemingly only found happiness in two of them—his third with Carole Lombard and his last to the former Kay Williams. She died in 1955, then a 37-year-old divorced wife of sugar heir Adolph S. S. S.

"I took one look at him and said, 'Buddy, your ears are too big. You'll never make it.' Zanuck called. Whenever my publicity department would call me a genius, I'd always remind them of the time I let Gable go. It kept me from getting too big a head."

The depressed end of the era of the patent-haired lovers of the screen and spawned the Gable era. His old friend, Lionel Barrymore, suggested to Louis B. Mayer that Gable would be ideal for the gangster role in "A Free Soul," starring Barrymore and Norma Shearer.

"The reaction was astounding," said an MGM executive. "Instead of the letters of protest we expected, women by the thousands came to see the picture."

Highland Driver Killed in Crash

Raymond Kelly, 63, Dies as Auto Leaves Road and Hits Tree

A 63-year-old Highland Township man was killed yesterday afternoon in a two-car crash when his car went off the road and struck a tree.

The victim was Raymond Kelly, 63, of 1800 Duff Lake Road.

The accident occurred shortly after 4 p.m. on Elizabeth Lake Road, a half-mile south of M39.

A witness driving behind Kelly's car, Madeline Wilson of 1197 Lakeland Road, Highland Township, told White Lake Township police that Kelly's car just veered to the right, went off the road and hit the tree.

She said he was not going fast when the accident happened.

Authorities were to check with Kelly's family today to learn whether he had a history of heart trouble.

Police said he was returning home from work and had just dropped off a passenger.

Elizabeth Taylor Leaves Hospital, Returns to Hotel

LONDON (AP) — Movie actress Elizabeth Taylor tonight left a hospital where she had been under treatment, and returned to her hotel.

The actress was taken to the London clinic last Sunday night for the second time since she arrived here early in September to star in the movie "Cleopatra."

Her physicians finally diagnosed her illness as meningitis, an inflammation of the outer lining of the spinal cord and brain, and decided it probably was caused by bad teeth.

Her American doctor, Dr. Rex Kenner, said she has had "full dental review," but explained it was up to her doctor to say whether any more of her teeth would be extracted. One tooth found to be abscessed, has already been taken out.

The Day in Birmingham

Eton ice Skating Rink Expected to Open Soon

BIRMINGHAM — The Municipal Ice Skating Rink at Eton Park is expected to open on or about Thanksgiving Day, according to Birmingham Recreation Director Donald Martin.

He said the actual date will depend on the weather.

Registrations, he added, now are being accepted for children's learn-to-skate and figure skating classes, which are scheduled to begin the week following the opening of the rink.

Parents may register children 6 years of age and older for six lessons at a cost of $4.50. The classes for beginners will be held one hour a week on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 4 p.m. and 5 p.m.

Figure skating classes will be held on Tuesdays from 6 to 7 p.m. Registrations can be made at the rink office, Eton and Lincoln Roads.

Martin said there are several openings for rentals of the ice rink for the coming season.

Any organization, group, individual or team may rent the facility for parties or hockey practices for a fee of $15 an hour, Martin said. Reservations can be made by contacting the Municipal Skating Rink, 2100 E. Lincoln Road.

The Birmingham Senior Mens Club will meet jointly tomorrow with the Ladies of the Red Cross and the wives of club members to hear Dr. Bruce Pierce of the Metropolitan Church discuss "The World is a Stage."

The meeting will be held in the auditorium of the Community House at 10 a.m.

Leonard S. House Service for Leonard S. House, 74 of 582 Puritan St., will be at the City Council Wednesday that the mall have hurt business.

The council voted, 5-4, to end the project after Thanksgiving, thus closing a two-year experiment in use of shopping malls as a means of rejuvenating business in center city.

Several streets had been closed to traffic and filled with pools, swings, slides, grass and shrubbery for the past two summers. The first temporary mall opened Aug. 4, 1959, and lasted until last winter. On July 11 of this year, the mall was reestablished, even more fancy than the first, in a second trial.

Shoppers malls were a good idea, Louis Osterman, president of Downtown Toledo Associates, said, but they had the effect of putting the cart before the horse. The business group, along with the city, looked the bill for the experiments.

Osterman said a better system of thoroughways in and out of the downtown sections and a parking garage on the outskirts of the business district were needed first.

Mississippi rolled up 109,400 votes. Most minor party votes still are not counted, but incomplete returns from six states show a total of about 72,000.

Unofficial returns in California from all but 30,000 of 230,000 absentee ballots counted eight days after the polls closed gave the Republican presidential nominee a lead of 15,160.

He had trailed Kennedy throughout the regular count, but the senate tally was: Nixon 132,188; Kennedy 84,538.

Proposes Presidents of Americas Meet

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mexico Wednesday proposed a meeting of Presidents of the 21 American republics to discuss strengthening of the inter-American system.

The suggestion was made by Mexican Ambassador Vicente Sanchez Gavito, in a speech before the council of the organization of American States.

Sanchez Gavito, the outgoing president of the Council of the Organization of American States, suggested that the president meet prior to the 11th Inter-American conference, scheduled to start March 1, 1961 in Quito, Ecuador.

Pakistan, India Ratify Indus Water Basin Pact

RAWALPINDI, Pakistan (AP)—Pakistan Wednesday announced ratification of the Indus Basin water treaty, signed in Karachi by Indian Premier Nehru and Pakistani President Ayub Khan Sept. 18.

The treaty covering allocation of the river's waters settled one long standing dispute between the two nations.

Looks Like Good Use for Our Vacant Land

Christmas tree farming has some profitable possibilities in our rural sections.

This has already been proven in a somewhat limited way.

But the Oakland County area still has considerable dormant land that is quite well adapted to that purpose.

Unlike all other farm crops, the trees are not destined to success or failure by the whims of the weather.

Neither do they require any attention during their growth. This makes their propagation more desirable than cultivated crops in an area of high cost labor.

Farsighted residents of the Pontiac area now are reaping the dividends of their pioneer work in planting Christmas trees.

The finger length seedlings which they planted only a dozen years ago now are being harvested and bring top prices.

Most of them have been grown on land that is of a hilly nature and would not have been used in growing any other crop.

The initial cost of the seedlings is no more than the cost of the seed for any other farm crop—and the ultimate result is assured, and with little or no attention.

Christmas trees are among the hardest of the members of the tree kingdom. It has been found that less than one per cent of the plantings fail to grow to maturity.

Their start requires no breaking up, plowing or cultivation of the ground. It simply is necessary only to drive a shovel, spade or spike into the sod for a few inches, then drop in the seedling, and nature does the rest.

It's something like adding to your financial estate by taking out life insurance. But it requires no further payment.

And you've added Christmas joy to some households, even after you may not be here to bask in its reflection.

Transporting Missiles Is Big Problem Today

Times change in a hurry and rockets have a lot to do with it. From the days of the nose horse and buggy Nazi surplus V-2's, we've moved to rockets so huge that they can't be transported to the launching sites in one piece on either railroads or highways.

One aircraft company has proposed building huge gliders with wingspans of over 200 feet and payload capacities of 110,000 pounds. The gliders with missiles in their middle would be towed by cargo planes.

This might be termed spanning the gap.

Government Secrecy Bars $97 Million Audit

The 1921 Federal Budget and Accounting Act charges the comptroller general with auditing of finances and administration practices of all executive agencies and reporting the result to Congress.

However, Comptroller General JOSEPH CAMPBELL has told Congress that he has been unable to audit expenditures of approximately $97 million under direct control of President EISENHOWER. These funds include White House office expenses, executive mansion and grounds, special projects, the budget bureau, the Committee of Economic Advisers, National Security Council and the President's advisory committee on government re-organization.

According to the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, Mr. CAMPBELL complains that access to records and information necessary for a thorough audit has been denied him by the White House and the budget bureau on the grounds that it would violate the principle of separation of powers.

Apart from the few instances where national safety is involved, and the necessity for secrecy understood, the public should have the right to know how tax money is being spent. Under the law it is Mr. Campbell's duty to see whether money is being spent for the purposes for which it was appropriated.

To argue that disclosure of this information to the comptroller general would violate the principle of separation of powers is a bit far-fetched.

The Man About Town

Grabbing Chances

Not Allowing Opportunity to Escape for Four Years

Christmas buying: What seems to get earlier every year.

Leap year, the time when it's said the proposal may come from the feminine side, is drawing to a close, and

Josephine Caswell, in charge of issuing marriage licenses at the office of County Clerk

Daniel T. Murphy Jr., tells me that the number is running over 250 ahead of last year. Keep up the good work, gals—we've got the schoolhouses.

Finding that the trigger happy boys are again on the loose, three deer in a big woods out Joslyn Road have taken refuge in the barnyard of a farm occupied by Henry Rasch, who phones that he likes them so well that he hopes their visit will be extended beyond the duration.

This column is looking for a man who worked on the first automobiles made in Pontiac. Send in your nominations.

Another Pontiac area product broke into the big news recently. He is "Kelly," a German shepherd dog, graduate of Leader Dogs for the Blind at Rochester. He saved the life of his owner, a Lansing woman who is totally blind and also afflicted with muscular dystrophy, when he led her out of her burning home. Executive Secretary of the Rochester school, Harold Focklington, tells me that the dog finished his course with flying colors, and was turned over to the Lansing woman in September, 1959.

Recently rounding the three-quarter century mark are twin sisters, both natives of Oakland County, born at Rochester. They are Mrs. Ella Furman, who still lives at Rochester, and Mrs. Emma Shoemith, now a resident of Detroit.

Moving from Fraser, just over the Oakland-Macomb county line, to about the same distance from Pontiac in the other direction is Irving E. Myers of 12865 Holly Road, to set up a new tool and die plant, with 2,000 square feet of shop space and 30 pieces of equipment.

But the whole question is well summed up by

Mrs. Anna Arnew of Rochester, who says the professional politicians are campaigning on all of the 140 days (and as many nights) between presidential elections.

A communication that rings the bell for brutal contempt comes from Perry Fieldham of Auburn Heights. He encloses a clipping from a magazine which says, "We don't know what lies ahead of TV," to which Perry adds, "Too many lies lie behind it."

David Lawrence Says:

Rights Cause Doesn't Sway Negro

WASHINGTON—Perhaps the biggest myth in present-day politics—the theory that the Negro vote can be won solely by espousing the civil rights cause—has been shattered for the most part by the presidential election results.

The Republicans have been playing up the Negro vote ever since the war between the states. For decades it was rare occurrence when any Negro voted the Democratic ticket.

Then came the depression of the 1930s, and it was a Democratic administration which, through the WPA (Works Progress Administration), had an opportunity to hand out relief funds by "leaf-raking" and other work schemes which poured money into the low-income groups.

Thereafter, in election after election, almost all of the Negroes have stayed on the Democratic side.

The Republicans, however, saw a way to get back the Negro vote when the Supreme Court of the United States issued its historic "desegregation" decision in 1954.

Ignoring their chance among those whites who had been edging away from the Democratic party because of a fear of socialism and the radical policies of centralized government, the Republicans began to champion vigorously the cause of "desegregation."

Despite the dramatic deployment of federal troops at Little Rock by the Republican administration, the Democrats of the North cried out that there wasn't enough "executive leadership" in this field.

NO DEFECTION

Yet in the last campaign the Southern Democrats didn't seem to note such trends.

Instead, large numbers of them backed Sen. Lyndon Johnson, even though he had swallowed the Democratic national platform with its demand for "equal access for all Americans to all areas of community life," including presumably all private clubs, private schools and other private institutions.

The Republicans were so sure that the Negro vote in the North was on their side this time that Henry Cabot Lodge, the vice presidential nominee, boldly promised that, if his party were victorious, he would influence the next administration to appoint a Negro to the Cabinet. While this cost the Republicans some votes in the South, it didn't seem to result in any gain for them in the North.

Incidentally, Sen. Kennedy indicated publicly his sympathy with the Rev. Martin Luther King in the latter's difficulties with the court authorities in Georgia. But even this didn't alienate the Democratic politicians of the South.

The Country Parson

"I suppose there is nothing wrong with wanting the best for our own folk—it this doesn't involve leaving the worst for others."

It is true that the Republicans rolled up a relatively big vote in some of the southern states, but it is reported that those Negroes who are qualified to vote in the South stayed for the most part with the Democratic party.

The following table shows what happened in this year's election in some of the northern areas where for almost solidly Negro—the rise in the percentage of the vote for Kennedy in 1960 over the vote for Stevenson in 1956:

|                                           | 1956 | 1960 |
|-------------------------------------------|------|------|
| Gary, 36 precincts, working class         | 60.4 | 81.9 |
| Cleveland, 10 wards, mostly working class | 57.9 | 77.5 |
| Los Angeles, 5 precincts, lower income    | 75.7 | 86.6 |
| Chicago, 4 wards, mostly lower income     | 61.3 | 77.7 |
| Detroit, 4 wards, working class           | 51.8 | 89.9 |
| Philadelphia, 20 divisions, middle class  | 68.5 | 77.1 |

Dr. William Brady Says:

Thousands Have Broken the Constipation Habit

"Years ago, I was a young fellow with a three-day case of constipation, just about to take another cathartic when I happened to notice your column which discussed such trouble as mine that day.

"Well, sir, I remember it seemed a wretched risk to take, and all my family seemed against it. But I followed your advice and haven't had any trouble since."

"From experience I have learned to trust your advice, and suggest that all good medical practitioners respect you highly, whether they dare to say so or not."

In Little Lesson 25, "Constipation, Habit and Colon Hygiene," I say:

"Thousands in this predicament have stuck it out and won. Do not imagine you are trying a new and desperate experiment, abjuring all physics. Thousands have stuck it out for three, four or five days and won."

If the quacks and nostrum vendors and the health food peddlers have you thoroughly briefed on "autointoxication," my teaching is for you. You will probably feel that you know more about this than any ordinary doctor does.

But I repeat, thousands of victims of the stupid habit have broken the habit.

For the benefit of readers who are still teachable let me repeat:

1. Howell's Textbook of Physiology, standard in colleges, says, "In the large intestine protein putrefaction is a constant and normal occurrence."
2. Movements of the bowel are under the control of the automatic nervous system, which controls the heart action and the breathing. So the bowel, like the heart and lungs, functions best when not interfered with.
3. Wrote J. H. Kellogg, M. D., LL.D., the sage of Battle Creek, on the subject of "autointoxication," "The fact that the symptoms of toxemia do not occur in every case is no evidence that they are not present."
4. There's no scientific evidence to support the morbid notion of autointoxication. The headache and other discomforts of poor souls whose bowels are not as regular or active as they think they should be, are caused by anxiety or worry, not by "autointoxication."
5. A great many persons whose bowels move once in two, three or four days enjoy excellent health and attain longevity.

New York City, 4 assembly districts, mixed classes 66.7 78.3

What does all this mean for the future? Will the Republicans now go over to states rights as a fundamental philosophy and try to win the South?

Or will they sit on the sidelines and criticize the Democrats as lacking in "executive leadership" if they don't also send troops into the South to enforce "desegregation"?

Certainly the civil rights issue looks less and less influential politically.

Signaled letters, not more than one letter of 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, sent to "HAROLD," or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, M.D., in the "Country Parson" column in The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan. (Copyright 1960)

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Baby Sitters Often Begrudged Fee

Husbands, have at least one date per week with your wife. She deserves the change of scenery. Allow for this as an essential item in your family budget. And include adequate wages for your reliable baby sitter, too. Don't squander money on liquor at night clubs and then gripe about a modest fee for the sitter.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case C-428, Janet J., aged 37, is a widow who operates a "baby sitting" service.

"Dr. Crane," she began, "I have an active register of 30 well qualified women and a clientele of about 60 fairly regular patrons for these baby sitters."

"Most of my clients are very nice. But a certain percentage are a pain in the neck."

"For example, they will go out on the town and DR. CRANE maybe squander $25 on a liquor party, yet seem to begrudge our sitters a mere 65 cents to 75 cents per hour!"

"Why, some of these clients will actually shake pennies out of their baby's bank to make even change of 85 cents instead of handing over $1 and letting the sitter keep the extra dime!"

"Meanwhile, they always are very demanding of cultured, educated women as sitters, and want women agile enough to chase a live wire 3-year-old Dennis."

"They often get the idea that a sitter does nothing but SIT in front of TV."

Voice of People

Reader Expresses 'Dislike' of Hollywood Movie Ads

In spite of my having enjoyed your newspaper immensely, it will have to cease, when our subscription runs out we shall not renew.

It has nothing to do with the news coming from the pens of your local writers. My Saturday nights won't have the zip to 'em anymore when I won't be enjoying those honest editorials.

Just blame those Hollywood ads. Our decision to cancel rests on a two page spread Nov. 11—too many "sex kittens," too much "plectrol sadism."

What good are prayers, church life and morals being taught if we allow such ads?

Mrs. R. E. Vogt
Birmingham
(Editor's Note: Contritely, we agree the advertisements in question exercised bad taste.)

'State Judgship' Didn't Go His Way

I see the voters have silenced the self-announced and self-appointed "voice of Oakland County."

After observing his performance during the past four years as one of the "22 surly old dogs" so aptly named by Supreme Court Justice Black, where he, aided by his other 22 GOP counterparts and the Michigan daily newspapers (including The Pontiac Press), did a "hatchet job" on the State of Michigan for the obvious reason that they "hated Gov. Soapy Williams" more than they loved Michigan.

I read at the time Gov. Williams created this second press judgship, that Mr. Lodge had said that this was the only thing Gov. Williams had done in the past two years that he agreed upon with the governor.

Of course, he thought the mere presence of a common man like himself to fall into, because it was non-partisan and, like all Republicans, he figured the voters had short memories and he was assured of The Pontiac Press free editorial endorsement, which he got.

I doubt if the governor has much to worry about as to his future, but I do think the GOP state and national has plenty to worry about, because they have just been given a vote of "no confidence."

Richard Nixon was more dynamic in defeat than he ever was while a candidate and I would not be surprised that President-Elect Kennedy will offer him a post.

The voters proved they are smarter than they are used to be.

"While that is, sometimes true, a lot of these younger mothers leave chores to be done, including changing diapers, as well as feeding the baby at 10 p.m."

"Night watchmen likewise draw their full salary for what is chiefly 'sitting.'"

MORE MOTHER'S DAYS

On the "Tests for Husbands" mentioned below, the successful modern male is supposed to take his wife out on a date a minimum of once per week!

Some thoughtful in-laws at Christmas now offer your parents a monthly check to pay for the "baby sitter." That's a clever idea.

If young couples are on a rigid budget, they should realize that the average mother burns up over $2 per week via her cigarette, and even a milk drinker squanders $3 weekly on liquor.

If you young couples are smart, you will cut out all such unnecessary expenditures. Instead, invest in all-family fun, such as a movie, or a bowling game, a night ball game, or a picnic.

The very smartest folks use their churches as the hub of their recreational life, as well as their spiritual nurture.

Sunday School class parties offer a lot of fun at very little price. Small languages and other competitive recreation are also happily with church recreation.

Mrs. Crane and I get plenty of fun and entertainment out of church parties, and always have.

Gives Explanation of 'Negro Vote'

While there remains controversy over the election, I wish to let the public know the so-called "Negro Vote" did not elect Kennedy and certainly not Lyndon Johnson.

There are thousands of Negroes who still think to the contrary's American right to vote, have voted against such pressure groups, which have literally "jumped on the freedom bandwagon."

This election does not bespeak the desires of all American Negroes; however, it does represent those who are coerced, misled, "Uncle Tomsed" into believing that they are going to lose their jobs, or that they will receive "good" jobs; that freedom is right around the corner i. e., Martin Luther King's, "march" phase from jail and the five girls who are free to go to school in Florida, etc. All Negroes, both intelligent and ignorant alike, know what "Uncle Tomsed" means. There is much to know about the "Negro Vote" that we Americans are not fully aware of.

Negroes are sick and tired of being used. We are not looking to John Kennedy nor the group he represents to give us a "hand out." We have the same rights to our benefits as Mr. Kennedy and every other person. We Negroes, who have voted our honest conviction will not stand by and let our rights, as well as the rights of all other free-thinking Americans be taken away from us as has been demonstrated by some during the campaigning and on election day Nov. 8, 1960.

No, I am not a "dichard." I am an American who believes in rights.

If you are smart young married folks, then develop happy mutual recreation that isn't too costly.

Baby sitters are a great boon to millions of young married folks, so be grateful if you have access to

John Daly Resigns Post

Hagerty Silent on Job as Head of ABC News

NEW YORK (U) — White House indicated his job as ABC vice president James C. Hagerty earned him around $50,000 annually.

He will take over as vice president in charge of the American Broadcasting Company's news and public affairs department.

Veteran broadcaster John Daly resigned the post Wednesday, and his resignation was promptly accepted by ABC.

Officially, ABC would make no comment on reports that Hagerty would take over Daly's position after his duties with the Eisenhower administration.

At President Eisenhower's vacation headquarters in Augusta, Ga., Hagerty said only: "When I have any announcement about my future plans, I'll let you know."

Daly, a top executive with ABC the past seven years, submitted his resignation to be effective in one month. His role as moderator of the Columbia Broadcasting System's "What's My Line?" will not be affected.

Daly said he was quitting ABC because of a "fundamental difference on policy" with ABC President Leonard Goldenson.

ABC said only that Daly's resignation has been accepted and announced the temporary appointment of Thomas Volotta, vice president in charge of special affairs for the ABC news and public affairs department.

Daly was said to have opposed the showing by ABC of a "Bugs Bunny" film and "The Rifleman" early on election night while other networks were concentrating on election returns.

He reportedly submitted his resignation after the network had revealed plans to show a program on Cuba Dec. 7 in its "Closeup" series, a program produced by Robert Drew, a producer of film for the broadcast division of Time, Inc.

Daly was said to have felt strongly that all programs in the news and public affairs area should be under the control of the network's own employees.

ABC said the idea for the program on Cuba, to be called "Yanqui No," was entirely its own and from the outset ABC has had complete creative and editorial control over the production of this program. ABC plans similar creative and editorial control over every element of every show in this series.

Daly's yearly income from all his broadcasting activities has been estimated in industry circles at about $250,000. The same sources

Margaret Being Sent to Boudouin's Wedding

LONDON (UPI) — Princess Margaret will represent Queen Elizabeth at the wedding next month of King Baudouin of Belgium, and Dona Fabiola de la Mora of Spain, it was officially announced.

Princess Margaret's husband, commoner Antony Armstrong-Jones, will accompany her to the wedding.

Opera Singer Collapses

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Opera singer Eileen Farrell collapsed Tuesday in her hotel room after a performance here, but said Wednesday she was "just fine."

Her manager said Miss Farrell suffered an attack of gastritis or a virus.

21 Russian Tourists Disapprove of Vote

CHICAGO (UPI) — Victor Kostyuchenko and 20 other Russian tourists watched voters cast their ballots Tuesday in Chicago's City Hall. They didn't altogether approve of what they saw.

"We have only party because a party represents a kind of people," Kostyuchenko said. "In Russia we have only one kind, the working class."

Shaves Off Mustache to Give Him Disguise

LONDON (AP) — President-elect Janio Quadros of Brazil shaved off his mustache today. He hopes it will give him a little privacy around here.

Pictures in the papers showing him with the mustache made him so widely known that crowds followed him everywhere. He said he hopes now he can make so much public attention.

One-fourth the area of Colorado may be underlain with coal reserves.

Irish TV Chief Will Avoid U.S. Commercial Clip

DUBLIN (UPI) — Ireland's new television chief said Wednesday he hopes to avoid the mistakes of American television when he launches the republic's own TV service next year.

James Edward Roth, 28-year-old Irish-American appointed director general of the television authority, told a news conference that "over-commercialization" was the biggest fault of U.S. television.

"In the United States, the sponsors exercise a tremendous influence on the programs," he said, "and we don't intend that that should happen here."

Roth said current plans call for at least six hours a day on the air by next November. He added that he was "very optimistic" about the future of Irish television and predicted that the new Irish service would win over at least 60 per cent of the British Broadcasting Corporation's Irish viewers "within two or three months."

Space Rays Test Cells Before Men

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Human cells, along with bacteria and plant spores, were aboard the capsule blasted into space Monday by Discoverer XVII.

The cells, grown from a culture taken from a human arm, were sent aloft in an attempt to learn what effects man may suffer when he ventures into the hands of radiation which surround the earth in space, an Air Force spokesman announced Wednesday.

This likewise was the purpose of including spores and bacteria in the capsule.

U. of M. Eyes Installment Plan to Pay Tuition

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—Tuition payments on the installment plan are under consideration at the University of Michigan for possible introduction next year.

Edward G. Groesbeck, director of registration and records, said prospective students could reserve their enrollment by registering either in person or by mail, and then would receive statements of their tuition.

Obviously students could then pay their tuition one-half at a time or in a single lump sum.

Groesbeck said the plan eventually could be expanded to include other costs, such as room and board, and laboratory fees.

Whoopie! Whooping Cranes Hit Record Total

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The Whooping Crane population has reached a record high.

A count late Tuesday showed 36 in wildlife refuges. Six more were in zoos.

The interior department reported Wednesday that the new census of the once nearly extinct Whooping Crane disclosed that 25 adults and Isaac Hawkins in Philadelphia in 1938. The previous record was 34 observed in 1949.

National Wildlife Refuge near Austin, well along the Texas Gulf coast. Five adults and one juvenile were observed on nearby Matagorda and St. Joseph Islands.

This, the department said, is the highest number reported since systematic counts were started in 1938. The previous record was 34 observed in 1949.

The first American-made up-the-ones nearly extinct Whooping Crane was built by John H. Hawkins in Philadelphia in 1938. The previous record was 34 observed in 1949.

Bottle Beats Shotgun

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla.—A duel between a customer with a shotgun and bartender Cecil Devally with a beer bottle ended with the bartender the winner. The man with the gun missed, police reported, and Devally tossed his bottle, beating the gunman between the eyes.

Many Idaho Spuds Come to Cook Peeled

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (UPI) — fields into the packing sheds and processing plants early in October, is estimated at 3.8 billion pounds.

As a result, marketing of Idaho's famed Russet spuds is being revolutionized. And this year, for the first time, more than half of the state's potato crop will go to market without the skins.

Instead of being sold raw in sacks, the potatoes will head for the table in boxes and cans in processed form — frozen or dehydrated.

The 1960 Idaho potato crop, which started heading from the "opportunity early" and have kept ahead through "extremely aggressive marketing and far-sighted research."

The fresh-frozen plants aim their products almost entirely at retail outlets — so American housewives, without having to peel the spuds, can slip a package of French fries out of the freezer, into the pan and right to the table with a minimum of fuss and muss.

Dehydrators process for three markets — retail, institutional, and chiney that daily during the bulk with the ingredients used for commercial stews, hash and packed, frozen dinners.

Idaho plants now handle 75 to 80 per cent of the frozen potatoes. Their machine capacity for dehydrating represents 90 per cent of the nationwide industry's facilities for turning out "pieces" for stews and at least half of the capacity for "flakes" to make mashed potatoes.

One plant in Idaho Falls proves that processing is a big business. This complex of multi-storied buildings and sheds houses machinery that daily during the processing season — October to June or July — handles 13,000 sacks of 100 pounds each.

It's a continuous process. 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, with the potatoes rarely stopping from the time they're swept from the storage sheds until they're in packages. Fire hoses are used to move the stacked spuds out of the cellars into flumes that carry them through pre-coolers and steam peelers into the processing lines.

The flakes, for mashed potatoes, are formed in huge machines where rollers press the mush-like mass into thin sheets that break into bits as they dry.

Eight pounds of potatoes that start down the dehydration lines end up as one pound in market form. In freezing, two-and-one-half pounds of raw spuds end as one pound in the boxes.

TOBACCO AND CIGARETTES

THE MAKING — Although production of cigarettes continues to climb steeply, quantity of tobacco used does not. U. S. Department of Agriculture estimates some $12 billion cigarettes will be made in 1960—24 per cent above 1955. Tobacco used for cigarettes will be about 1.3 billion pounds, only 7 per cent above 1955. This is due to newer methods of processing and the smaller tobacco column in filter tips.

Dog Bests Auto in Highway Battle

PAGELAND, S.C. (AP) — Miss Mickey Yount of Charlotte, N.C., and three girl friends were headed east in her small-foreign car when a black and white hound walked into the highway.

The little car hit the dog, flipped over into a ditch and came to rest with windows broken, windshield out and chassis buckled beyond repair. The girls crawled out, unhurt. "The dog?"

"I think his tail was broken," said Miss Yount. "It seemed a little bent as he trotted away."

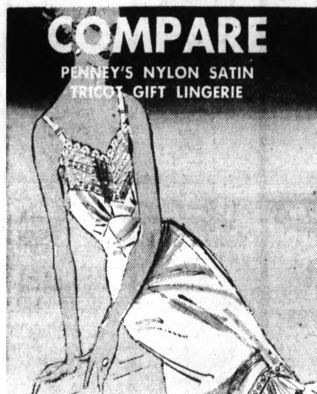

The average American consumes 12 pounds of salt a year.

Says Campaign Much Too Long

U. of M. Man Thinks Period Between Vote, Inauguration Needs Ax

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — George Peek, a political scientist at the University of Michigan, said today he believes presidential campaigns and the period between the election and inauguration of a new president are too long.

Peek said campaigns should last no longer than a month.

He also said the present period of about 90 days between the election and inauguration of a President creates problems in the field of international relations.

Peek said he believed it would be an improvement if the "electors" chosen for the electoral college were eliminated since they are "free agents" and conceivably could cast a state's votes in contradiction of the popular vote in their state.

One possibility for changing the system, he said, might be to distribute the state's electoral votes according to the same percentages won by the candidates in a state's popular vote.

Stolen Pineapple Not Big Enough for Conviction

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The U.S. government has failed in an attempt to prosecute a longshoreman on charges he pilfered a $7-cent pineapple.

Wiley Nispy, 46, was accused of taking the pineapple while working on the waterfront. In an effort to convict him, the government called in the FBI and seven witnesses during the two-day trial.

U.S. Commissioner Joseph Karsch Tuesday said the evidence was not sufficient to meet the high standards required for a conviction and ordered the defendant acquitted.

The government had said it was pressing the case as an example to other would-be pilferers among the waterfront workers.

Nispy, who had faced a possible six-month jail sentence, claimed that the pineapple was given him by a sailor named "Jones."

Upon his acquittal his only comment was "They spoiled my pineapple."

State Counselors Elect Grand Rapids President

EAST LANSING (AP) — Donald Fink of Grand Rapids was elected president of the Michigan Counselors Association at its annual meeting of high school counselors and college counselors and guidance directors at Michigan State University.

He succeeds Kenneth Parker of Clawson, Marshall Moser of Grosse Pointe Woods was named president-elect.

Special Day Marked Here by League

The Urban League of Pontiac is observing Saturday as "Equal Opportunity Day."

Mayor Philip E. Rowston signed a proclamation for the league because of Lincoln's close association with the cause of freedom for all.

It is the fifth year the Urban League of the United States is marking the observance, said Arnold M. Dorcas, Pontiac director.

HOT COLLAR — Edith Rose-nau ends a pain in the neck with this new electric-heat collar in Chicago. It holds the neck while administering therapeutic heat to relieve pain of arthritis, strained or dislocated vertebrae and neck tension from headaches.

U.S. Ambassador Stoned in Bolivia

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP) — U.S. Ambassador Carl Strom and his party are reported to have been jeered at, insulted and stoned in the City of Cochabamba Sunday night.

The newspaper Presencia said Strom went to Cochabamba in Central Bolivia to lecture at San Simon State University but never made the talk because leftists threw tear gas bombs into the auditorium. Leftists had spent the day whipping up anti-American feeling in the city.

The Presencia Dispatch said a Bolivian was injured when the crowd threw stones at the ambassador's party, and the diplomats were pursued with stones for one-quarter of a mile after having been denied taxi service.

Reds Visiting Mexico

LONDON (AP) — A delegation of the Supreme Soviet left Moscow Wednesday to visit Mexico, Moscow radio reported.

Post Office Jobs for Yule Season Already Filled

If you've been thinking about applying for a job during the Christmas rush at the Pontiac Post Office, you might as well forget it.

According to Pontiac Postmaster William W. Donaldson, the 500 application cards issued this month were gone in "a few days."

"Of the 500 applicants, we will probably hire about 225," he explained.

First choice goes to persons on the Civil Service register, then veterans.

Jobs will run roughly from Dec. 12 to 24, Donaldson said.

"The clerks will start work a few days before the carriers and will be through a few days before Christmas. Carriers will probably work right up to Dec. 24," the postmaster explained.

Three per cent of American families have an annual income of $500 or less.

IT'S A DOOR — Two upended cars on a single base formed the revolving door into the Renault French auto exhibit at an exposition in Johannesburg, South Africa.

Claims U.S. Wastes $1 Billion to Get Info

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The United States spends $1 billion a year on research for scientific and technological information that is already available, a specialist claims.

William G. Alexander, president of Ryan Transdata, Inc., a subsidiary of Ryan Aeronautical Co., proposed in his talk to a meeting of the Armed Forces Communication Electronics association that information centers be established.

He said that now much data is out of reach to scientists generally, or becomes lost, and the result is costly duplication of technical research and development.

If this duplication could be eliminated, Alexander declared, it would add 50,000 experienced man-years to the U.S. technological effort.

Russia, the speaker said, has a global network that feeds data to headquarters in Moscow.

Tax Returns Go Into Computer

Bureau to Try Out New Machine for Processing Income Reports

ATLANTA (UPI)—The Internal Revenue Bureau plans to substitute magnetic tape for a lot of the work in its year-end job of processing income tax returns in the Southeastern part of the country.

The Southeast will be the first section of the country in which the federal government will try its new system — which seems likely to be good for some taxpayers and bad for others.

Barton M. Graham, acting southeastern regional commissioner of the Internal Revenue Service, announced that headquarters for the nation's first automatic data processing center will be in Atlanta.

Beginning its full-scale operations in January 1962, the center will collect all federal income tax returns from Georgia, North and South Carolina, Alabama, Tennessee, Florida and Mississippi.

Modern electronic equipment will gather information from each return and process it onto magnetic tapes. The tapes will be relayed to a national computing center at Martinsburg, W. Va., where a computer will pass judgment on each taxpayer.

REFUNDS FASTER
Graham called it "impossible" to determine how much time the magnetic tape system will save compared to the present, semi-manual setup.

However, he added: "For those getting refunds, there'll be a sizeable cutdown in the time it usually takes to get them . . . we'll also find out a lot quicker whether or not you filed a return in the first place."

Between 1,000 and 1,200 persons will be employed in the Atlanta service center — first of nine to eventually be established throughout the nation. All are expected to be operative by 1969.

U.S. Bishops Get Latin Bureau News

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Catholic bishops of the United States, assembled here for their annual meeting, heard a report on the activities of their newly established Latin American bureau.

The bureau was set up in response to an urgent plea from Pope John XXIII for aid to non-Catholic countries of Latin America which are suffering an acute shortage of priests and large-scale defections from the church.

Archbishop Karl J. Alter of Cincinnati, chairman of the administration board of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, said the establishment of the Latin American Bureau, under direction of Fr. John J. Considine, was "the most significant development of the past year."

He said the bureau has already made 416 grants for the education of Latin American candidates for the priesthood.

A native of New Orleans, Jahnske was named a commodore by Hoover in 1931 and in 1953, was named rear admiral in the Naval Reserve.

Fly in the Ointment
CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo. (AP) — A 10-minute rain fell on this old gold mining town. The town's rain gauge measured a quarter of an inch. However, reexamination disclosed a dead fly in the gauge. Correction was made to show the official rainfall was only one-eighth of an inch.

Plan Atomic-Age Hospital

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI)—A unique hospital featuring wired patients, bedside operating tables and disposable bathunits may be on the verge of becoming a reality in this Deep South city.

A group which calls itself "Atomedics" is planning the hospital to utilize atomic age gadgetry which would shatter the imagination of a science fiction writer.

The City Chamber of Commerce already has pledged a 200-acre site for the project, and the legislature has agreed to set aside all conventional building restrictions for it.

The hospital would consist of a circular, plastic outer shell covering rows after rows of individual rooms, each of which is a hospital in itself.

The rooms would be wired for "physiological transducers," small sensing and measuring devices. The patient in each room also would be wired to free doctors and nurses from the routine chores of logging his temperature, pulse rate, blood pressure and brain waves.

The standard operating room would be replaced by a sterile polyethylene operating bag carried to each patient's room. Beside the operating bag would be a television camera piped into a color network through which medical students throughout the nation could follow new operating techniques.

Central computers are planned to serve all hospital beds in the city. The computers could store latest information on medical research so that a doctor could brush up on the latest information in a matter of minutes.

Disposable linens would replace bedsheet and towels; precooked, frozen foods would be served with the need for kitchen; showers are built into the rooms; and pillow-top disposable bathunits would replace the traditional metal tub.

Other shortcuts to healing and medical knowledge are under consideration.

Representatives of 30 of the nation's largest corporations met here this week to discuss the plan. Dr. Hugh MacGuire, pediatric surgeon who acts as spokesman for Atomedics, said he believes the start of construction may not be too far away.

State Takes Back Vacationland Boat

DETROIT (U-P) — The Vacationland, once a Mackinac Straits ferry boat, was reclaimed by the state Wednesday night because its purchaser failed to meet payments.

The boat was moored in the Detroit River when it was seized by government officials on a writ of attachment and seizure issued by U.S. District Judge John Feikens.

The Vacationland, a 346-foot diesel-operated ship, and four other Straits ferries were sold by the state as surplus property after the Mackinac Bridge opened in November 1957.

The Vacationland was sold to the Detroit Atlantic Navigation Co. of New York for $150,000 down and a $1 million mortgage. She was used to carry freight between Detroit and Cleveland but had not operated since last July.

The state said it decided to reclaim the craft when the purchaser failed to meet two payments of $37,500 each.

School Bus Policy in Bad Weather Told to Students

A memorandum explaining school bus operation in bad weather has been sent to all student riders in Waterford Township.

School Supt. William A. Shunck says the memorandum points out that if school officials anticipate questionable driving conditions on a particular day, Asst. Supt. James Denfelder, advisory assistant John Hills and himself will personally check various types of roads at 4:30 a.m.

They will also check with the U.S. Weather Bureau, the Oakland County Road Commission, the local police and the sheriff's department.

The three men then will meet and decide prior to 6 a.m. whether or not the buses will run.

Shunck added that very seldom are school buildings closed entirely as most of the township pupils walk to school.

REA, Greyhound Drop United Parcel Protest

LANSING (UPI) — Railway Express Agency and Greyhound Bus Lines have abandoned a three-year fight against the United Parcel Service getting exemption from truck minimum rates on overnight deliveries of interstate packages in Michigan.

United Parcel Service had been granted the right by the Interstate Commerce Commission to make overnight deliveries from Chicago to southwestern counties of Michigan in the same trucks in which it delivered packages between Michigan points.

Limestone Carrier Calcite Begins Final Voyage

ROGERS CITY (U-P) — The limestone carrier Calcite — on which three generations of Rogers City men have served — leaves here today on her final voyage.

The Calcite will be retired after she drops her load of dolomite limestone from the Rogers City quarry at Cornsaut, Ohio. The vessel was built in 1912 and has been hauling limestone from the Rogers City quarry all her life as a member of the Bradley Transportation Co. fleet.

Company officials said the Calcite would be replaced next season by the William G. Clyde, a newer and bigger vessel.

Few Will Buy This Propaganda

New Ruble Is Said Worth $1.11 but...

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—The Soviet Union is devaluing its ruble in terms of its theoretical gold content. This is bringing it close to what the rest of the world has thought it was worth—about one-fourth of what the Kremlin has pretended it was worth.

Since the Soviet Union conducts most of its trade with the non-Communist nations in the form of barter anyway, the changeover to the new "heavy ruble" Jan. 1 will be largely one of bookkeeping without much apparent practical effect.

In international politics, the U.S.S.R. is hoping to make the world think that its new ruble is worth more than the American dollar. Few businessmen—whether American or foreigners—will buy that propaganda.

ONE FOR TEN
The can't take rubles out of the Soviet Union. They can't convert them into gold—whether they be the present rubles or the new ones which strictly at home will be worth 10 of the old rubles. Businessmen aren't allowed to convert rubles freely into the currency of their own lands.

Business transactions of the Soviet Union with the Western world will still be strictly on a barter basis. Example: The U.S.S.R. trades Cuba so much oil and machinery in exchange for so much sugar. And if the U.S.S.R. grants ruble credits to nations in Africa and Asia they must use the rubles to buy Soviet machinery or technical aid.

In gold, the new Soviet move-means simply that the heavy ruble is said to be worth some four times as much as the present one—that is, 0.93 grams of gold for the new one against 0.22 grams for the old. Only, just try to get the gold.

Stripped of the usual Communist hocus-pocus, this is devaluation. It is like the talk of the devaluation of the dollar which stirred Europe a few weeks back to pay premium prices for gold. The United States was supposed to cut the value of the dollar by raising the price of gold, now $35 an ounce. The United States didn't and no one seriously expects it to. If it ever should it would be devaluing the dollar.

UPS GOLD PRICE
The U.S.S.R. is raising its price for gold—thus doing the devaluation of the ruble, while the United States isn't devaluing the dollar.

In the Soviet Union itself, the changeover simply means that a Russian can turn in 10 of his old rubles and get a single new one. That's roughly similar to what France did a while back when it wanted to lose some of the top-heavy zeros off its paper francs.

The Kremlin has been pretending that the present ruble is worth 25 American cents. No one—even most Russians—thought it was, in international deals, bartering has been done on the more realistic basis that what the U.S.S.R. was selling was worth so much in local currency—dollars or pounds or pesos—rather than on the Kremlin's evaluation.

At home, Russians have had to admit their evaluation was nonsense by offering the American tourist 10 rubles for his U.S. dollar instead of the official four. Whether he'll still be favored over the official 'exchange in the new rubles, the Soviet Union hasn't said.

For propaganda purposes the Soviet Union is saying that the new ruble will be worth $1.11. International traders will come to their own conclusions as to what it is really worth. What the American tourist will get depends on further word from the Kremlin.

Suggest Good Breakfast for School-Age Children
EAST LANSING (UPI)—Breakfast-eating children are likely to do better in school than those who skip the early morning meal before going to school.

Home economists at Michigan State University say children who do not eat breakfast often are less interested in their studies and learn less easily than when they eat a good breakfast.

West Germany Hungry for Factory Workers

FRANKFURT, Germany (UPI)—West Germany's labor-hungry factories are reaching out for more foreign workers, while taking steps to see that the ones they have don't go home.

With unemployment under 1 percent, 276,000 foreign workers have been brought in for work in factories and on construction projects.

The largest number—121,000—are Italians, but there are 33,000 from the Netherlands, 21,000 from Austria, 4,500 from Spain and 3,500 from Greece.

Employers have found food and language the toughest adjustment problems for their new workers.

They haven't been able to do much about the food, but the National Employers' Federation has advised them to sponsor language courses to teach the most essential phrases for work and daily life off the job.

The federation also has recommended that recreation rooms be supplied with records and magazines in the workers' native languages.

West Germany has 123,000 more foreign workers this year than last, but the labor gap still is far from filled.

There are still five job openings for every unemployed person, the Federal Labor Office said recently.

Many of those still jobless are suspected of simply being what the Germans call "arbeitscheu"—work-shy. A proposed law would put many of them on work gangs.

During the first seven months of the year, the number of unemployed fell to 113,100, while job vacancies rose by 12,200 to 537,878.

The disparity is expected to continue for at least several more months.

The worker shortage is felt most severely in construction work, and the production of steel, other metals and electrical equipment.

Women workers are especially in demand in the textile, food and luxury industries.

The drive to keep the workers once they get to Germany seems to be succeeding.

According to the employment office, many of them stay longer than their contracts call for, and some are back with their employers this year for the third season.

The drive to keep the workers once they get to Germany seems to be succeeding.

According to the employment office, many of them stay longer than their contracts call for, and some are back with their employers this year for the third season.

Which of these two whiskies is insured for One Million Dollars?

SOLID-GOLD BARS courtesy Handy & Harman, a U. S. Treasury Department Licensee

Answer:

The whiskey in the bottle on the left, drawn from Calvert Reserve's precious "Standard of Excellence." This whiskey, used for quality control is never sold, and is insured by a world famous insurance company for one million dollars.

The Calvert Reserve on the right, and every bottle you buy must match this "Standard" for superb flavor, aroma and smoothness.

Superb quality like this is achieved by combining at least 18 great straight whiskies with rare grain neutral spirits. The reason: All straight whiskies vary with each new distillation. They are never the same.

Thanks to this one million dollar "Standard," you are assured that Calvert Reserve's magnificent taste and character never vary from bottle to bottle. That's why your first sip will say...

Tackle Redevelopment of Royal Oak Township

AIR ENTHUSIAST — Because of her love of airplanes, any size, any shape, any speed, eighteen-year-old Christine Dybowski of 9063 Oakwood drive, White Lake Township, has been given a flight scholarship entitling her to take more flying lessons. Builder of model planes, too, Chris also is an officer in the Walled Lake squadron of Civil Air Patrol cadets.

Active White Lake Gal Wins Flight Scholarship

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

A pretty White Lake Township teenager who builds model airplanes, is a qualified sharpshooter, and is a second lieutenant in a group of 40 Civil Air Patrol cadets, has just been awarded a flight scholarship for her versatility.

The wild blonde youth holds only fraction for 18-year-old Christine Dybowski of 9063 Oakwood Drive.

Her new scholarship will entitle Chris to nine more lessons in flying a real plane.

The soft-spoken girl currently has seven hours of instruction and eight in observation detail and looks forward to an early solo flight if Pontiac Municipal Airport instructor Robert Greenough gives his okay.

ADMITTEDLY 'TOM BOY'
Christine, a natural sportswoman and admittedly a tom boy, became interested in the Civil Air Patrol three years ago.

Friends urged her to join the Walled Lake squadron, and since that time the girl has built two model airplanes and entered them in CAP-sponsored national contests.

Her first plane was a replica of the Army L24. She placed third in the state contest two years ago with this model.

This year, in the Lansing contest with a newer L16 Bird Dog Army-type plane, Chris was navigating her aircraft on a 36-foot control line when the wind suddenly caught the five-ounce model and flipped it over.

She didn't realize that flying upside down, the plane's controls were automatically reversed.

She quickly put the manual controls into an "up" position and the tiny plane went crashing down.

REPEAT EFFORT FAILS
Chris tried hard to patch the motor and repair the plane, as she only had two more laps to go to qualify.

However, the landing gear buckled and the craft went into a dying nose-dive, she recalled.

Since that time Chris has entered Pontiac Business Institute in hopes of becoming a secretary—to earn more money to fly.

The new scholarship, sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Pugliese of Waterford Township, will provide necessary funds for her to continue flying lessons.

In the meantime, Chris, who loves water skiing, swimming, skating, tennis and basketball, is getting set to go north with her dad tomorrow — by automobile.

The young sports enthusiast has another idea, too: "Someday, wouldn't it be fun to bring back a deer tied on the top of my own airplane?" she mused.

Form Committee to Cope With Economic Problems

By DON FERMOYLE

OAK PARK — A committee of Oakland County's top government officials and business and labor leaders was formed here last night to tackle the problem of economic redevelopment of Royal Oak Township.

Named as temporary chairman of the group was State Sen. L. Harvey Lodge, R-Oakland County, who called the meeting at the suggestion of defeated GOP gubernatorial candidate Paul D. Bagwell.

The new committee was informed that several other groups are attempting to aid development of the all-Negro township. But members of these other committees who were in attendance urged the civic leaders to go ahead with plans for the new committee.

Township Attorney Lynn V. Hooe Jr. said a township coordinating committee had been established four months ago. However, Hooe said, most of the members of this committee were private citizens.

He voiced the opinion of many when he suggested that the legislators and officials join in the effort for economic redevelopment because of their background and experience, which would be invaluable in aiding the township.

Fred V. Haggard, president of the Oakland County AFL-CIO Council, submitted the motion formulating the committee and appointing Lodge as the chairman.

In order to avoid duplication or conflict with citizen committees already formed, the economic redevelopment group appointed a subcommittee to meet with the township coordinating committee.

The two groups will meet at 8 p.m. Monday in Royal Oak Township Justice Court.

Appointed to the subcommittee were David R. Calhoun, Huntingwood, Woods mayor; Howard Tuttle, Ford Tractor and Implement Division; Al Waxman, United Foundation; James E. Roberts, assistant Oakland County prosecutor; Roy Hatcher, Royal Oak Township housing manager.

NEW LIBRARIAN AT WORK — Edward J. Melanson Jr., newly appointed head librarian of the West Bloomfield Township Library, discusses new books with Patricia Briggs, library assistant.

Melanson took over the top library post on the retirement of Stella Travis. He was formerly with the Flint and Detroit public libraries.

For West Bloomfield Township Head Librarian Is Appointed

By JIM LONG

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — A former staff member of the Detroit Public Library has been named head librarian of the West Bloomfield Township Library. It was announced today.

Taking over the post vacated last month by Mrs. Stella Travis is Edward J. Melanson Jr., 32. At his appointment Melanson was first assistant in the Business and Industry Department of the Flint Public Library.

Prior to that post which he held 1948, and is a member of the Detroit Public Library staff, a position in which he served for six years.

The young bachelor is currently commuting every day from Flint, where he lives, to his new job. His daily commuting is only temporary until he finds an apartment in the area, he said.

Melanson received a master's degree in library science from the Simmons School of Library Science in Boston in 1963 after graduating from Tufts College in Medford, Mass., where he was born.

He served in the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers from 1946 to 1948, and is a member of the American Library and Michigan Library associations.

but expects to move into new facilities in February when the West Bloomfield Township Library on Orchard Lake Road is completed.

The appointment was made after several applications were received and a panel of three librarians from the Detroit area interviewed each candidate.

Making up the panel were Robert Orr, head librarian of the Grosse Pointe Library; Jeanne Lloyd, head librarian of the Baldwin Public Library in Birmingham; and Walter Kaiser, head librarian of the Wayne County Public Library.

Will Better Phone Service

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — Residents living in the west section of the township can expect a new telephone service to the township hall and fire department within three weeks.

The Township Board has approved the installation of a General Telephone Co. hook-up in the town hall as a service to those area residents using the General Telephone system.

Supervisor Edward Cheys said that more than 500 persons will be able to take advantage of the new phone service.

He said that at present those on the General system wanting to call the town hall have to call long distance.

"There have been some cases where it would have been cheaper for a resident to get in his car and drive several miles to the town hall than get information over the phone," Cheys said.

Couple to Be Feted on 50th Anniversary

INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP — Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Wallace of 6058 Pine Knob Road will be feted at an open house from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday in honor of their 50th wedding anniversary which is next Wednesday.

The golden wedding anniversary celebration will take place at the home of their daughter, Mrs. William J. Summers at 1665 N. Stirling St., Pontiac Township.

The Wallaces also have a son, six grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Troy Couple Celebrates Golden Anniversary

TROY — Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Foss of 6870 Doenges Road celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Saturday with a special Mass at St. Andrew Catholic Church in Rochester.

Following the 10 a.m. Mass an open house for friends and relatives was held at the home of their son, Daniel P. Foss of 6901 Doenges Road. The Fosses have two other sons and four daughters.

To Better Intersection

ROYAL OAK — The contract for an intersection betterment job at M19 and 13 Mile Road has been awarded to the Thompson & McCully Asphalt Paving Co. of Plymouth, the State Highway Department announced today.

The firm's low bid was $3,303.

Water Drag for Planes in Experimental Stage

CHANDLER, Ariz. (UPI) — Government scientists have been experimenting with plastic-covered waves to prevent aircraft disasters off the end of runways.

This was disclosed today in a paper presented at the International Air Safety Seminar here by George P. Bates Jr. and Mason T. Charak of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA).

"To slow down and stop an airplane safely during a landing or takeoff emergency on available runway lengths is becoming a serious problem," they said.

At the request of the Federal Aviation Agency (FAA), NASA tested the feasibility of using water ponds to arrest airplanes in danger of rolling past the end of the runway.

The tests were conducted at NASA's Langley Research Center in Virginia with model planes in a tank simulating a pond 150 feet wide, 1,000 feet long, and varying in depth up to three feet.

Models were sent through the pond at speeds up to 115 miles an hour. The water produced sufficient drag to stop the plane but did some damage to landing gear and flaps.

The experimenters then covered the pond with a sheet of mylar plastic. The landing wheels did not touch the water. Instead, they depressed the sheet to the bottom of the pond and pushed a plastic-covered wave ahead of the craft.

"In general," Bates and Charak said, "the plastic-covered pond served to stop the vehicle quicker than did the open water pond."

There was no water damage to the model, but at high speeds the drag force of the mylar-sheathed wave caused the landing gear to fail. Further research, the NASA officials said, may show ways of reducing the damage.

Brazil's Quadros Reverses Invitation

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (U.P.)—President-Elect Janio Quadros has turned down John F. Kennedy's suggestion that they meet in the United States, and he proposed that the American president-elect come to Brazil to meet him next month, can president-elect to meet Janio the newspaper Diario de Noticias said Wednesday.

In a dispatch from London, where Quadros now is touring, the newspaper reported that Quadros had met with a top aide, Jose Dantas, who was sent to meet Kennedy last week at Palm Beach, Fla. Dantas is also an official of Diario de Noticias.

The dispatch said: "Despite the strong desire of the North American president-elect to meet Janio Quadros anywhere in the United States, the president-elect of Brazil (Quadros) decided not to include the United States on the itinerary of his present voyage, and suggested that the meeting could take place next month 'anywhere in Brazil'."

Kennedy has already indicated he has no plans to travel outside the United States.

New South Wales is a state in Australia.

U.S. Copper Stocks Reach 2-Year High

NEW YORK (U.P.)—Stocks of copper held by U.S. producers have soared to the highest level in two years during October, the Copper Institute reports.

By the end of the month stocks stood at 113,417 tons, a gain of 29,101 tons, and were at the highest level since October 1958, when they were 128,490 tons. The increase reflects the condition of the copper market, which saw a drop from 33 to 30 cents a pound for the U.S. producers' price for the metal during October.

The gain in stocks stemmed from a decline in shipments of refined metal to consumers to 93,431 tons (down 27,314 tons) while mine production was rising to 101,977 from 86,503 tons in September. Foreign producer shipments also were dropped sharply last month, but this was largely offset by a strike at the Apacunda Co.'s Chuquibambilla mine in Chile. The walkout ran from Oct. 1 to Nov. 13.

Called 'Jazz on the Ribs'

Reds Selling Bootleg Records

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Soviet Union is waging war against "jazz on the ribs," according to reports reaching here.

The information comes from anonymous Washington officials who make a habit of reading the back pages of the Soviet press. Their latest now-and-then unofficial report on what they found is devoted to consumer shortages and black marketeering inside Russia.

Western jazz records, according to the Jan. 13, 1960 issue of Sovetskaya Kultura, are scarce as carcases in Russia, and black market operators have begun selling bootleg copies recorded on discs cut from used X-ray film.

In the Feb. 17 Komsomolskaya Pravda describes a snow-covered vacant lot in L'vov as a "black market department store" where they sell things in a whisper, with many careful glances around.

"A sloppily dressed man in a beret busies himself over a rusty phonograph," Komsomolskaya continued. "He puts on a disc cut from an X-ray film with traces of someone's cervical vertebrae. The hoarse voice of a jazz singer comes out of the horn."

Sovetskaya Kultura called these renditions "outrageous trash on the ribs." The X-ray records also are called "on the bones."

"How and by what route did the leathery music penetrate into our country?" Sovetskaya asked. It then told the story of case No. 3127, involving a woman who went to a Moscow music counter but could find nothing "worthwhile."

"She turned regretfully toward the exit," the article said, "but a black fellow in tight-fitting trousers stopped her. After a furtive glance around him, he quietly said:

"We have some rock and boogie, sweetheart."

"For 20 rubles," the article continued, "Kuznetsova (the woman) bought two 'backs on the bones.' It added, "She was this chance acquaintance who kindly under-

Hickenlooper Starts Latin America Tour

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper, R-Iowa, set out Wednesday on a mission for the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to check the pulse and revolutions of Latin America.

Hickenlooper's first scheduled stop was Guatemala, where a revolt was crushed only two days ago after bitter and bloody fighting.

His five-week survey of political and economic conditions in 11 countries also will take Hickenlooper to Nicaragua which just beat down an invasion by armed guerrilla bands.

Hickenlooper, top Republican member of the Senate Inter-American Affairs subcommittee, said he would seek to find out what part Communist agitators played in the revolts and report back to Congress.

2 Brothers Have Their Own Clan, Need Foreign Aid

LAKE MOHAWK, N.J. (AP)—Tommy Sheridan, 11, and his brother Eddie, 6, two ardent supporters of President-Elect John F. Kennedy, have named their new-arrived litter of pups, John, Fitzgerald, Kennedy, Jackie, Caroline and Lyndon.

Mrs. Thomas F. Sheridan, the boys' mother, isn't sure the army of pups can live on the current budget. She plans to keep the brood six weeks and then seek "foreign" aid.

The Bering Sea between Alaska and Siberia is made to order for Communist agitators played in the revolts and report back to Congress.

Senators Plan Rights Laws

Case Says Bipartisan Group to Start Work 1st Day of Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., said today a bipartisan Senate group will start maneuvering the first day of the new Congress to enact civil rights legislation.

Case told reporters he and other Republicans who want broader federal laws to protect rights of Negroes and other minorities will develop their strategy in meetings here next month. He said they also planned to reach an alliance with Northern Democratic Senators sharing their views.

The first move, he said, will be to challenge as soon as Congress convenes Jan. 3 a Senate rule adopted early in 1958. It provides that a time limit on Senate debate — death knell to a filibuster — can be imposed by not less than two-thirds of those present and voting.

Win or lose on that issue, Case said, the group will press later for legislation to fulfill civil rights campaign pledges in the Republican and Democratic platforms.

Case expressed confidence President-elect John F. Kennedy will throw his weight behind the drive for more civil rights legislation. "I would be surprised and deeply disappointed if he did not," the Senator said.

The provision under which a two-thirds vote is needed to limit debate also declares that all Senate rules remain in effect from session to session unless changed by two-thirds vote.

Case said he and others will argue that the Senate rules expire with each Congress, just as the House rules do. He claimed the Senate has an inherent right to adopt new rules by majority vote at the start of each Congress session. This would make it easier to write a rule less stringent than the provision for a two-thirds majority now required to limit debates.

Yule Log Tradition

In the earliest days of Yule log fires, the new log was always lit with the charred remains of the log from the previous year. Thus good luck was carried over to the new.

Red China 3rd in Submarines

20 Russian Craft Put Ally Ahead of England, Says U.S. Admiral

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — With more than 20 modern submarines transferred from the Soviet Union, Communist China now has the third largest undersea fighting force in the world, says the commander of U.S. antisub forces in the Pacific.

"And China is starting to build its own submarines," said Vice Adm. John S. Thach to a news conference. He is here to address the Naval Reserve Association convention.

Both Chinese and Soviet subs operate out of mainland Chinese bases, he said.

He listed the Soviet Union as first in submarine strength with 60. The United States is second, he said, but gave no overall figures. Red China's submarine force is stronger than Britain's, he asserted. When reporters asked him to clarify this, citing Jane's Fighting Ships which lists the royal navy with 50 subs, Thach merely repeated: "China is stronger than Britain in subs."

11 States to Hold Key to Elections

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The reapportionment of House seats gives 11 states power to elect a president in 1964, no matter how the other 39 vote.

The next election will be the first since 1880 which could be won by carrying fewer than a dozen states. A minimum of 11 states was needed to get together the winning majority of electoral votes in last Tuesday's election.

House seats were reallocated among the states this week to reflect population changes since the last census was taken 10 years ago. Nine states gained and 16 lost in the reshuffle.

This affected the 1964 presidential contest because the states get one electoral vote for each House member and senator.

Had the reshuffle been made in advance of last Tuesday's presidential balloting, it would not have changed the result except to make the margin a little closer.

Here are the 11 states and their 1964 electoral votes which total 368, a bare majority of the 535 that will be needed to win.

New York, 45; California, 40;

Pennsylvania, 26; Illinois, 26; Ohio, 26; Texas, 25; Michigan, 21; New Jersey, 17; Massachusetts and Florida, 14; and either Indiana or North Carolina, 13.

OUTRAGED — U.S. Sen. Russell Long of Louisiana told the state legislature Wednesday he would be willing "to impeach the entire U.S. Supreme Court if my vote would do it." The legislature is meeting in special session seeking to block the court-ordered school integration which began in New Orleans Monday.

Dismisses Case Charging Fraud

Judge Says Evidence Lacking That Contractor Swindled City Firm

Charges that a Farmington Township contractor swindled a Pontiac firm out of $100,000 by altering invoices on an addition to the Veterans Administration Hospital in Dearborn were dismissed yesterday in Municipal Court.

Judge Maurice E. Finnegan, in dismissing the two-count warrant against William McCracken, 33, of 25331 Powers St., ruled there was not sufficient evidence that McCracken had altered invoices submitted to J. A. Friedman Co., the main contractor.

McCracken is owner and president of the United Heat Engineering Co., Inc., of Detroit. McCracken was heating and air-conditioning subcontractor on the two-million dollar addition to the hospital.

The warrant had accused McCracken of uttering and publishing a false invoice and executing a fraudulent warehouse receipt. He was arrested in September.

Jack, LB Go Hunting

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson took time out from charting the course of their new administration today to go hunting for white-tailed deer.

Offer Tests for Diabetes This Week

Many Pontiac area doctors are offering free diabetes tests in offices through Saturday to all adult patients.

The local doctors are joining with some 5,200 physicians throughout the state in marking annual Diabetes Week.

The detection drive, and the week, is sponsored by the Michigan Diabetes Association and the Diabetes Committee of the Michigan State Medical Society.

Why is the test so important? Because it is estimated by medical authorities that there are 1 million unknown diabetics in the nation.

The association, a United Fund Agency, also distributes free diabetes detection kits.

Those not tested by their doctors may obtain by mail free test kits by request from the Oakland County Department of Health, 1070 N. Telegraph Road, Waterford Township.

Test results will be mailed back to the individual and also to his physician if they are positive.

N.Y. to Rebate Tax

ALBANY, N. Y. (UPI) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller Wednesday promised New York State's 6.5 million taxpayers a 10 per cent rebate on income taxes withheld on present earnings.

James W. Marshall, who discovered gold in California, profited little from his strike. He died in poverty.

2 Area Deer Hunters Wounded First Day

Two area hunters were shot and wounded while deer hunting in Michigan the first day out.

They are William Fergie, 34, of 1048 Chopin St., Troy, and Henry Stryzski, 36, of Imlay City.

Fergie was shot in the left thigh while hunting in Rapid River Township of Kalamazoo County. Stryzski was shot while hunting in Cheboygan County.

Fergie was shot by Douglas Stroeder of Flint and Stryzski was shot by Stanley Vincent of Port Huron. Both men said they fired after seeing what they thought was a deer. They were not held.

'Look, No Door' at Fraternity — Pledge Prank?

EAST LANSING (AP) — "Look, fellows, no door," cautioned the first student to wake up this morning in Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity.

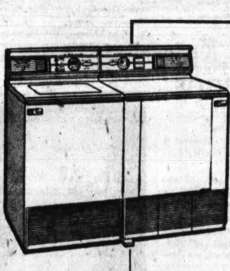

Members of the Michigan State University fraternity found their front door had been walled up head-high with cement blocks and mortar overnight. A prank by pledges was suspected.

The only person really disturbed by the prank was the local fire marshal, who termed the lack of an exit a fire hazard.

Four More Than Last Season

Pontiac Plans 25 Rinks for Skating This Winter

The Department of Parks and Recreation is planning for 25 ice skating rinks this winter, according to David R. Ewalt, director.

This is four more than last year, he said.

Skating rinks plus hockey rinks with boundary boards will be located, Ewalt said, at Northside Field, Washington and Eastern Junior High Schools and Weaver School.

Skating rinks plus hockey rinks without the board will be operated at Oriole and Wimmer fields and LeBaron School, he added.

Other skating rinks will be located, Ewalt said in these areas: Webster, Owen, Emerson, Crofoot.

UNDER HOUSE ARREST — Herman the cat seems to voice his disapproval at being kept in the house at the Russell Bowler home in Alameda, Calif., Wednesday. The Bowlers are defendants in a suit brought by the Howard Cooks, who raise Siamese cats, and claim Herman is a nuisance to their felines. The Cooks want $3,500 damages and surgery that will help keep Herman home. The Bowlers, in denying the Cook charges, claim that the Siamese cats won't leave poor Herman alone. Herman, they say, is just a "red-blooded American tomcat, with the manly attributes and instincts of a tomcat of any nationality."

Reds Say Wall Street Corrupts Boy Scouts

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (UPI) — The Russians are accusing Wall Street of turning boy scouts into spies and girl scouts into unpaid "cookie vendors," a former Maine governor and U.S. senator reports.

Owen Brewster, speaking at a meeting of some 300 Onondaga County Boy Scout leaders, quoted the charges in a recent editorial by the official Soviet news organ Pravda.

The editorial said boy scouts were rewarded for learning swimming, chemistry and path-finding which were actually training for underwater demoltion, germ and poison warfare and counter-espionage.

"Scout czars have set up a sister organization called the Girl Scouts which turns young girls into unpaid door-to-door cookie vendors, the proceeds of which go directly to the Wall Street masterminds of the entire plot."

"Eight and nine-year-old American boys are forcibly herded into the Cub Scouts where they are forced to worship the wolf, the most vicious and uncivilized of predatory animals," it said.

Johnson to Go to NATO Talks

Conference Has Extra Interest Because of U.S. Gold Problem

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, vice president-elect, will lead the big U.S. delegation flying out of Washington Saturday to attend the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) Parliamentary conference in Paris.

Unusual American interest attaches to the meeting of parliament members from the 15 NATO countries because of the flight of gold from the United States.

The U.S. delegation is expected to discuss a variety of steps for correcting this country's unfavorable trade balance and shrinkage of its gold reserve.

The NATO parliamentary meetings do not bind their members to any action, but present a sounding board for exchanges of views. The Americans have indicated they want other NATO countries to shoulder a bigger part of the expense of aid to underdeveloped countries and the maintenance of NATO forces, which have been costly to American gold resources.

This will be the first time a vice president or a vice president-elect has been eligible to attend the meeting because delegations can include only Congressmen and their staffs.

Vice presidents are members of the executive branch, but Johnson has not yet given up his seat as senator from Texas.

Wives of most of the big delegation's members will accompany their husbands in the government jet plane for the Paris trip.

The separate Senate and House groups each is allowed a maximum of $15,000 for expenses. The sessions are to extend from Monday through Friday.

MSUO Man Writes Biography of Author

A biography of Richard Henry Dana, author of "Two Years Before the Mast," by Dr. Samuel Shapiro of Michigan State University, will be published shortly by the MSU Press, East Lansing.

The book, a revision of Shapiro's doctoral dissertation at Columbia University, emphasizes the political career of Dana, who is better known as an author of books on merchant sailing in the 1800s.

Luxury Model Out Today

New Lincoln Continental Aims at Cadillac

By BEN FLEIGER
AP Automotive Writer

DETROIT — A new car with a familiar name comes to market today aimed at the luxury trade. And in the automotive world, there is little doubt the luxury trade means Cadillac buyers and owners.

The new car is the 1961 Lincoln Continental — not just Lincoln and not just Continental, as in past years, but Lincoln Continental.

The luxury car of the Ford Motor Co. has undergone its most drastic changes since the days of the Lincoln Zephyr.

First of all, the car is a lot smaller on the outside. It's 15 inches shorter than 1960 models of Lincoln and Continental, 3 inches lower and almost 2 inches narrower.

Inside dimensions remain almost the same.

A second major change is a sharp reduction in the number of models—12 a year ago; two for 1961.

These are a four-door sedan and America's only four-door convertible. Exterior styling is completely redesigned.

And a third change is in manufacturing. Every pitch for the new car emphasizes quality and the manufacturing program has been geared to produce it.

Every other 1961 model car carries a warranty for 12 months or 12,000 miles. The Lincoln Continental warranty is for 24 months or 24,000 miles.

Each engine is run for three hours, then torn apart, inspected and rebuilt.

Every electrical system is checked by an electronic computer, sensitive enough — the company claims — to detect potential as well as actual defects.

Every completed car is road tested. "Obviously these things take time," says one L-M official. "They couldn't be done on high volume production."

Ben Mills, general manager of Lincoln-Mercury Division, estimates only about 2,500 of his new cars will be in dealers' hands by today.

"We set production schedules," Mills said, "but we also told our people we wanted quality, not quantity."

"We are insistent on this. We don't want anything wrong and we are willing to wait until we get it right."

Not car — one the public will want," Mills said in an interview.

"Our dealers have had some advance orders but we will have to wait to get the general reaction. It's no secret that we hope some of the Thunderbird magic rubs off on us."

The Lincoln Continental has copied the highly successful Thunderbird formula in several areas. Styling is somewhat similar.

The model assortment is the same except that both T-Birds have two doors, both new Lincolns have four doors.

There is little doubt L-M hopes some Thunderbird owners will step up to the new car.

Figures show that if Ford hoped for any kind of real success in the luxury market it was going to have to come up with something new.

In 1957, the record year for top price cars, Lincoln and Continental got only 18 per cent of the market.

Imperial, in its best-ever performance, got 15 per cent. Cadillac took the other 67 per cent.

Lincoln's best year was 1956 with 24 per cent. The same year Cadillac got 71 per cent. This year so far it's Cadillac 86 per cent; Lincoln 13 and Imperial 8 per cent.

"Cadillac's a fine car," Mills said in honest admiration. "I think ours is, too. For 1961 I know there wasn't that much better, if it was any better."

The four-door Lincoln Continental sedan will cost $6,067 including federal tax and dealer preparation charges, plus transportation and local tax.

The four-door convertible carries a $6,713 price tag.

Cadillac, with 10 regular models and two limousines, ranges in price from $3,089 to $6,223 among its regular models. Imperial ranges from $3,109 to $6,626.

Fish Don't Impress as Fast Swimmers

BOOTHBAY HARBOR, Maine (UPI)—Scientists at the Boothbay Harbor Laboratories say fish swim a lot slower than most people think. They have learned that sailfin swimming under controlled conditions can attain a maximum speed of up to 3 miles an hour.

They say the fastest known fish is the barracuda, which can only do 20 miles an hour.

Tests conducted by marine biologists in Scotland and Canada show maximum speeds of 4.7 miles an hour for cod and haddock, and 6.7 miles for 12-inch mackerel.

Tiny Wasp Helps Cut Alfalfa Pest

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (UPI)—A tiny wasp from India is reducing the numbers of one of California's major alfalfa insects, the pea aphid.

University of California scientists praise the wasp for cutting not only the numbers of pea aphids in alfalfa fields, but also reducing the necessity of using chemical pesticides on the crop.

Chemicals on alfalfa have been a major problem of California dairymen, who use alfalfa as a main component of dairy feed rations.

The office of Lieutenant governor in Arkansas was created by referendum in 1914, but it was not until 1927 that the first lieutenant governor took office.

Pleads Not Guilty to Coors Murder

GOLDEN, Colo., (AP) — Joseph Corbett Jr. was formally accused Tuesday of murdering wealthy Adolph Coors III and ordered held without bond.

Corbett, 32, listened impassively as Dist. Atty. Barney O'Kane read at long information charging he "feloniously, willfully and (with) premeditated malice aforethought" abducted and killed the millionaire brewer and industrialist.

When O'Kane said: "Mr. Corbett, that's a charge of murder. How do you plead?"

"I plead not guilty," the defendant replied firmly.

Corbett's arrest Oct. 29 in Vancouver, B.C., climaxed a nine-month search that spanned two countries.

FBI agents had sought him since shortly after Coors was abducted and slain while driving to work from his foothills home west of Denver the morning of Feb. 9.

Young Spring & Wire Declares 5 Pct. Dividend

DETROIT (AP)—L. A. Young Spring & Wire Corp. declared a 5 per cent stock dividend Wednesday.

The company reported earnings of $198,000 for the fiscal year ended Oct. 31, equal to 48 cents a share, compared to a loss of $551,000 for the same quarter last year.

There were 128 successful bank robberies that netted a total of $482,967 in the six months that ended Feb. 29, 1960, compared with 112 holdups and a take of $734,748 in the same period of the previous year.

See Increased Labor Influence

New Administration's Attitude Stirs Optimism Toward Stock Market

NEW YORK (UPI) — Labor may have more influence in the new administration, according to Alan C. Pote of Hemphill, Noyes & Co.

Higher labor costs will affect profit margins, he says, especially in heavy industry and steel, and auto shares should suffer accordingly.

This suggests a stepped-up industry program to automate operations indicating that investors may purchase machine tool companies that have made technical advances in their products as well as some of the better office equipment stocks.

Pooler says undoubtedly a drive will be launched for a shorter work week which should benefit the leisure-time stocks.

Goodbody & Co. says the aggressive intentions of the new administration encourages the belief that the market may be even now forming a base from which an important advance may take place next year.

On the whole, the intermediate trend appears to be an upward one with the constructive forces currently setting the price pattern, according to Martin Gilbert of Van Alstyne, Noel & Co.

Platinum wire so fine that it can't be seen except under magnification is used to make the crosshairs in some microscopes and telescopes. Diameters range downward to some four hundred thousandths of an inch.

TEENS ON THE MARCH — This group of New Orleans teen-agers joins a crowd of segregation marchers Wednesday protesting the integration of two schools there. The number of smiling faces may indicate that to many this was more a chance for some excitement than the great civil upheaval it could appear to be.

Splinter Parties Could Rob Kennedy of Vote Majority

WASHINGTON (AP) — It may be weeks before it is known for certain whether Sen. John F. Kennedy received a majority of all the votes cast for president in the Nov. 8 election.

But, with only fragmentary reports so far on the vote for presidential candidates, it appears that Kennedy's vote may be less than 50 per cent of the total.

With 1,587 of the nation's 166,065 voting precincts still unreported, the Democratic presidential elector Wednesday had a lead of 229,321 votes over Republican candidate Richard M. Nixon.

Kennedy's total vote was 33,796,373 or 50.18 per cent of the votes cast for the major candidates; Nixon's was 33,577,024 or 49.82 per cent.

Though it hasn't yet been counted, the total vote for minor party candidates quite probably was greater than Kennedy's margin over Nixon. In 1956, minor party candidates received 41,713 votes.

Candidates have won the presidency on other occasions without a majority of the total vote. The last time was in 1948 when Harry S. Truman defeated Thomas E. Dewey. In 1916 Woodrow Wilson also won without a majority, defeating Charles Evans Hughes.

In some states where minor party candidates appeared on the ballot this year—Michigan, Illinois, New Jersey and Minnesota among them—there has been no count. Decker got 22,221 votes in California.

With the vote counting incomplete, Washington gave Eric Hase of New York, Socialist-Labor party candidate, 10,665 votes; Merritt B. Curtis, National Constitution party, 1,211 and Farrell Dobbs, Farmer-Labor party, 601.

Decker and Hase got 90 and 150 votes, respectively, in New Mexico on the basis of partial returns. An official count in Indiana gave Decker 6,746 votes and Hase 1,136 votes.

Dobbs got a handful of votes (107) in Utah.

Alabama, with most of the minor party vote still to be counted, gave a total of 6,552 votes to Prohibition, National States Rights and Afro-American party candidates, whatever as yet of the minor party vote. Other states have reported only partial returns.

PUT OFF COUNT
In some cases, the minor party vote will not be tabulated until December; in others, within a week or so.

Since splinter party votes play no part in deciding who's to be president, election officials generally take it slow and easy in counting them. Some states pay no attention at all to them until the official canvass.

By far the biggest single block of votes that didn't go either to Kennedy or Nixon was cast in Mississippi. Electors pledged to neither candidate won with about 100,400 votes.

Six states which have reported incomplete returns on minor party candidates gave them about 70,400. Wyoming, which has no minor party on the ballot, reported write-in votes for Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., 3; Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., 2; and Adlai E. Stevenson, I. Presumably the official canvass will turn up many more write-in votes in other states.

Texas had the largest splinter party vote so far reported—22,131. Charles L. Sullivan, Constitution party of Texas, received 18,275 of these votes and Dr. R. L. Decker, running on the Prohibition ticket, the remaining 3,856.

A year is actually 365,242.22 days in length. The extra time is taken up each four years by a leap year which adds one day for a total of 366.

Reds to Seek U.S. Help, Foreign Expert Predicts

By MAX E. SIMON

The day will come when Russia once again seeks lend-lease aid from America, a veteran foreign correspondent told Michigan State University Oakland students yesterday.

Speaking on the university's lecture-recital series, John Scott of Time Magazine said the Soviets would make such a move after splitting with Communist China.

"Such a split is inevitable," Scott declared.

"When it happens, it would be no surprise if the United States happily came to Russia's aid," Scott added.

Scott, who has spent a large part of the past three years in the Soviet Union, returned to predict just when such a break between the two most powerful Communist nations would occur.

"Reports that they're on the brink of conflict are exaggerated," Scott said. "There are less differences between Russia and China today than there were between Berlin, France and the United States at the time of the Suez crisis."

Scott also predicted that a new generation of Soviet students would produce sweeping changes in Russian society.

"They think in critical terms. Among them, there is freedom of conversation. In their groups, they criticize the credulities of their government. They resent that they cannot go to Paris, they resent being prevented access to literature such as 'Dr. Zhivago.'"

"They think in terms of more liberty, more democracy, more freedom," Scott said.

In the past, Scott said, many Russian experts quoted fondly the statement that "The Revolution will devour its children."

"The truth now seems to be that the grandchildren will devour the Revolution," Scott said.

He said students in Russian universities complain strongly about the mandatory courses in political science.

"All these classes are justifications for the policies of the Communist leaders," Scott said, "and the students find them dull and uninteresting."

He stated that there was a "vast reservoir of goodwill" toward the United States among the Soviet people.

"My generation remembers the aid of the Hoover committee in the 1920s. They remember the aid sent during World War II."

Scott said that many Russians who had their first contact with the western world during World War II were skeptical of much of the information they received through the Soviet press and radio.

"They had been told they were better off than anyone else — and they learned that it just wasn't so."

Many Russians, Scott said, have reached the point where they believe nothing they're told.

He told of being confronted by a German Communist leader in East Berlin about a lynching in Georgia.

"It was the truth, and I was very embarrassed," Scott recalled.

"When the German walked away, a Red Army colonel came over, winked and said: 'Never mind the hogwash that fellow handed you. I know it must have come from the propaganda office in Moscow.'"

Scott said a lack of leadership in foreign policy and limps in the nation's economic growth has resulted in a lowering of U.S. prestige throughout the world.

He had sharp words for the nation's policy on Communist China, calling it "defensive" and "uncreative."

"It is extremely unwise to prevent debate on the admittance of Communist China in the United Nations General Assembly," Scott said. "The realities must be faced."

Scott worked for five years as a welder in Russian industrial plants during the 1930s. As a special assistant to "Time" publisher Henry Luce, his reports cover the political-social-economic climate of nations he visits.

Stalled Car Hit; Waterford Man Goes to Hospital

A Waterford Township man was in Pontiac General Hospital today with a possible concussion as a result of an accident at 7:30 a.m. today.

Harry E. Wilson, 34, of 2800 Barton Road, told police his car had stalled and he was trying to push it off Elizabeth Lake road when another car slammed into his stalled vehicle.

Gerald F. Kolbers, 26, of 184 S. Hospital Road, said he didn't see Wilson's car until it was too late to avoid the accident.

A passenger in Kolbers' car, Mollin Blumerich, 22, of 135 Lochaven Road, was thrown against the windshield and taken to the hospital. He was in satisfactory condition.

WILLIAM B. TAYLOR

Re-Elect Mayor in Sylvan Lake

William B. Taylor Gets Nod of Council to Start Third Year in Post

At its reorganization meeting last night the Sylvan Lake City Council re-elected William B. Taylor mayor.

G. Richard Jarvis was re-elected mayor pro-tem and Edwin F. Taylor, Jr. was sworn in as councilman.

Taylor, of 1335 Warwick Ave., was first elected to the council in 1956.

He will be starting his third year as mayor of Sylvan Lake, Taylor, 31, is in the accounting department at Pontiac Motor Division, where he has been employed for 11 years.

Jarvis, of 2228 Pontiac Drive, will be starting his first full year as mayor pro-tem although he has filled the position for the past 10 months.

He was elected to the post last January when former mayor pro-tem Anthony Kreps resigned to become Sylvan Lake justice of the peace.

Jarvis is currently serving his third year as a councilman.

The council also reappointed Donald R. MacDonell as Sylvan Lake representative on the Oakland County Board of Supervisors.

More Police Protection Asked at Metro Airport

DETROIT (AP) — The Wayne County Road Commission has asked the sheriff and state police for increased protection at Detroit Metropolitan Airport because of outbreaks of violence. The commission operates the airport.

Joseph Gross, commission administrator, asked for increased protection Wednesday.

Sylvan Blacktopping Enters Second Stage

The Sylvan Lake City Council last night announced plans for the second stage in a three-year blacktopping program.

Action was also taken in a move to clamp down on speeding motorists who are taking advantage of already blacktopped streets.

Plans for 1961 include the blacktopping of six streets with the possibility that three more may be added to the list.

Those that definitely will be resurfaced are Garland, Greer, Maplewood, Benvenue, Oakwood and Pontiac Drive.

ALARMING REPORTS

When actual costs have been estimated and assessment rolls determined, it may be possible to finance blacktopping of Central Parkway and Chesham streets, according to City Manager Marshall Woodburn.

Alarmed by increasing reports of cars speeding on James K. Boulevard, councilmen moved to install a stop sign on James K. at Pioneer Drive.

A "pedestrian crosswalk" will be painted on the street at the intersection and the present speed limit of 15 miles per hour will be raised to 25.

Police Chief George McTavish warned that he will increase patrol of the area in an effort to clamp down on the violators.

Councilmen also passed a resolution approving purchase of a parcel of land between the lake and Telegraph Road from Garland Street to the Grand Truck Western Railway tracks.

The land was offered the city by

Submit Park Site Inventory

State Hospital Grounds Mentioned in Listing of Five Possible Areas

A 66-page inventory of Pontiac's recreational sites has been submitted to the City Commission by David R. Ewalt, director of Parks and Recreation, as part of the increased emphasis on recreational planning.

Ewalt said the inventory supplements the department's list of 2.3 million in possible developments, submitted to the commission last month as an appendix to City Manager Walter K. William's proposed capital improvement budget for the next five years.

Almost all of Ewalt's suggested expenditures would have to be financed through sources other than the current capital improvement millage, among commissioners overhauling William's five-year plan to give more priority to recreation.

In the inventory, Ewalt listed details about the 1,078 acres in Pontiac that are now used for recreational purposes. He said 724 acres were parks, 315 acres school grounds and 19 acres miscellaneous parcels which the city uses for recreation.

Among five possible new sites for parks, Ewalt mentioned as the biggest the Pontiac State Hospital grounds.

The city has been eyeing this area ever since the state indicated it might part with some of the land. No price has ever been set.

About 92 acres along Elizabeth Lake and Telegraph roads might be usable for a park, said Ewalt.

The chapel, an animal closely related to the giraffe, washes its eyes with its tongue.

Taking Red Oil to Cuba

BERLIN (AP) — East German tankers are carrying Soviet oil to Cuba.

The official Communist newspaper Neues Deutschland said today that two 7,940 ton tankers, Leuna I and Leuna II, are running a shuttle service between Havana and Odessa, the Soviet Black Sea port.

Transportation of oil is presumably part of the economic aid promised to Fidel Castro's regime by East Germany last July.

School Experts Propose an Overhaul of Education

SANTA FE, N.M. (U-P) — A drastic overhaul of public education, designed to raise the quality and eliminate the frills, was proposed today by a group of education experts.

They outlined suggested programs in mathematics, chemistry, English, social studies, foreign languages, biology and economics.

Some of the beefed-up courses are being taught in a few schools, others are in the planning stage.

The proposals were made during the annual meeting of the Council of Chief State School Officers, an association of state commissioners and superintendents of schools.

GIVE HIGHLIGHTS

Highlights of the prepared statements:

G. Bailey Price, executive secretary of the Conference Board of the Mathematical Sciences, told of a Yale experiment in which the fourth grade is introduced in the fourth grade, vectors in the eleventh grade, and matrix algebra and probability and statistical inference in the twelfth grade.

"Many schools now start algebra in the eighth grade instead of the ninth," he said. "Previously much time has been lost in the seventh and eighth grades in review and on too much drill on trivial social application of arithmetic."

Floyd Rinker of the College Entrance Examination Board's Commission on English said the problem in his field is to bridge the gap between what is taught in high school and what is required in college.

EXPERIMENT PROGRAMS

Robert E. Henze of the American Chemical Society told of two experimental programs being taught to a small number of high school students. In one there is emphasis on "atomic and molecular structures of substances and the nature of chemical bonding between atoms."

George E. Smith of the Indiana State Department of Public Instruction called for a 10-year course in modern foreign languages, starting with all third grade pupils. Those who show aptitude and ability would continue the language through the twelfth grade.

Roy E. Simpson, superintendent of public instruction for California, reported on a survey of the social sciences program in that state. He said the committee agreed that nonacademic subjects attached to the social studies, such as driver education and instruction in the ill effects of alcohol and narcotics, be removed. Some school officials believe driver education should be part of the civics course because it teaches respect for the law.

Simpson also said he was agreed that the eight academic disciplines which should make up the social studies program are geography, history, political science, economics, anthropology, psychology, sociology and philosophy.

Plan Civil Rights Hearings in Detroit

DETROIT (U-P) — Members of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights were meeting here today with the commission's state advisory committee to plan for hearings in Detroit Dec. 14-15.

Gordon Tiffany, executive secretary of the six-man commission, said the hearings next month would deal with discrimination in the areas of education, housing, government employment and administration of justice in Michigan.

John Hanah, president of Michigan State University, is chairman of the national body. Charles E. Wilson, retired president of General Motors Corp., heads the state advisory group.

The family-owned company is now operating seven stores in the Detroit area and plans three more in the next five months.

It'll Cover Variety of Situations Telephone of Future a Marvel

WHIPPANY, N.J. (AP) — Today, in some homes in Morris, Ill., a mom can dial on the telephone, hang up, and ring every extension phone in the house to tell the family to dinner.

And tonight, if she and dad are going visiting, they can dial a simple series of numbers, and from that moment on every call coming to their home phone will be routed to the house they will visit.

These are just two of the wonders of a telephone system of the future, installed today for trial in 30 homes and offices in Morris by the Bell Telephone System.

Other innovations:

If dad or junior comes home early to find mom gone, they can track her down by dialing their own number on their own phone and thereby ring the telephone where mom is visiting, and where she directed all home calls.

SIMPLE DIAL CODE

Or, dad, leaving his office, can dial simple code and immediately transfer all of his office calls to his home telephone.

In homes where there are extension phones, they can be used as an intercom system.

By 1963, Bell Laboratories officials expect to have the system in production for national use. Eventually 600 Morris users will give this vanguard system its customer trial. Other serves to be added at Morris or eventually to the national system.

A third party, and perhaps others, will be able to dial into an existing telephone conversation.

Of special interest in homes where teen-agers monopolize the telephone, the system will hold incoming calls with a recorded "please wait" announcement, ringing the busy phone as soon as it is hung up.

You would be able to use your phone as an alarm clock, simply giving the telephone central office the hour you want to be awakened by your bedside telephone.

HANDLES EVERYTHING

Bell officials say the new system can handle any new service that can be logically described. All of these wonders are handled by a new, super-circuit central office that replaces mechanical devices with thousands of transistors and monolithic tubes, and a photographic electronic memory.

The new central office makes its moves in a matter of micro-seconds, or millionths of a second, or a second in one minute as there are minutes in about 107 years.

Even after performing all of its duties, the new central office has time left over. So Bell designers at this laboratory in Whippany, N.J., have set the system to constantly rechecking itself, testing its thousands of switches, connections and wires. The central office, finding a bad switch or connection, can often repair itself, removing the defective part from operation, and substituting a duplicate which is built in as a safeguard.

Develop Shell Casing That Disintegrates

CHICAGO (U-P) — Researchers say they have made a major advance in ammunition design by developing a light, inexpensive shell casing which completely burns inside the gun when fired.

Ultimately, they say, their development — the result of five years of research — may do away completely with heavy, expensive brass shell cases.

But, Armour Research Foundation scientists said Wednesday night, they developed the casing primarily for use in tank guns.

Two problems of tank fighting, they said, have been the noxious gases released inside the turret after each firing and the hot spent cases which littered the tank's interior.

The new casing completely disintegrates inside the gun chamber and releases no gases, they said, and is 10 times lighter than brass. Composition of the new casing, developed under Army contract is secret.

Labor Press Meeting

DETROIT (U-P) — The International Labor Press Association today opened a three-day convention in Detroit. The ILPA represents 125 international union newspapers and 225 other publications put out by the various AFL-CIO organizations.

Churchill Happy Despite His Pain

After Breaking Back Bone in Fall, He Is Now Resting in Bed

LONDON (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill, usually a grumpy patient, was reported "quite cheerful" despite the pain from a broken bone in his back.

Queen Elizabeth led the nation in wishing the old statesman — only 13 days away from his 86th birthday — a speedy recovery.

Three doctors who examined the World War II prime minister assured an anxious nation his injury from a bedroom fall Tuesday night was "nothing serious."

His wife Clementine spent hours at his bedside and word Wednesday night was that his indomitable spirit was high.

The bone damage nevertheless was causing him pain and he has been advised to lie as still as possible.

Prof. H. J. Seddon, a specialist on spinal injuries who examined Churchill, said: "There is nothing to worry about."

"Sir Winston may be in bed for a few weeks, or perhaps only a few days. Great care must be taken when people of his age are injured."

State Can't Certify Election by Deadline

LANSING (AP) — The State Elections Division advises official certification of Michigan's election returns cannot be expected before the Nov. 28 deadline for a meeting of the State Board of Canvassers.

Robert Montgomery, state election director, said only 50 of 83 counties had returned their certified returns at the last count.

Many of these had to be sent back for correction of minor clerical errors, Montgomery said.

"The first 50 or 60 counties come in with a rush," Montgomery said, "then we have to wait out the rest."

She Leaves $50,000 to Aid Missionaries

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — A woman thwarted in her ambition to be a missionary has left her entire $50,000 estate so that, as she said in a letter, God's call for missionaries could be answered.

Over 50 years ago Miss Anna H. Fox felt that God had called her to be a missionary. But she stayed home to take care of her mother who was ill.

She taught school in Tennessee and Georgia all of her life and on Nov. 8 died at the age of 80.

Her will for probate Wednesday directed that her real and personal property be set up to the Anna H. Fox Foreign Mission Trust Fund.

Hunting Toll 5 After 2 Days

Four Are Heart Cases, One Woman Is Shot; Injuries Reported

By The Associated Press

Five hunters were dead and numerous others wounded as the 15-day Michigan deer hunting season entered its third day today.

The only gunshot victim was a woman, Mrs. Marjorie Beebe, 28, of Charlotte. All the others were victims of heart attacks.

Mrs. Beebe was shot and killed Tuesday as she hunted in Clare County with her husband. State Police said they had not yet been able to find her slayer.

The heart victims were Forrest Potter, 55, of Galesburg; Leonard Storey, 64, of rural Belding; John Fenske, 76, of Channing; and Ernest Shumacher, 56, of Detroit.

Stray was stricken Wednesday in Ontonagon County and Potter the same day in Baraga County. The others died Tuesday.

A Detroit man was taken to the Kalamazoo County Jail Wednesday and held on an open charge in connection with the gunshot wounding of three Grand Rapids deer hunters.

Floyd M. Parker, 55, was surrounded by state police at Grayling and returned to his home. Sheriff Earl Woodman said Parker told of seeing a movement along the road and fired three shots from his rifle at what he thought was a deer.

The wounded hunters were Robert R. Martin, 38, J. B. Ward, 45, and his son, Ronald, 16. All were treated at a hospital and released.

A fourth member of their party called for help and reported the license number of a car which he said sped from the scene after the shooting along a road about 11 miles east of Kalamazoo.

Coffee May Not Save a Motorist From the Coffin

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — "If you want one for the road" after a party stay away from coffee as well as liquor, a laboratory expert on drunkenness advises.

Prof. Robert F. Borkenstein of Indiana University's police administration department said the danger is that coffee will give the motorist a feeling of false security.

"Coffee is a mild stimulant," he said. "It has a very fleeting effect against alcohol, a violent depressant."

The best solution, he told a traffic court conference Wednesday, is for the party host to control the flow of liquor.

Judge Explains Plea for Murderer's Death

LOS ANGELES (AP) — After a jury voted life imprisonment for sex murderer Raymond Clemmons, the court told seven women on the panel: "I can only hope that he will not meet any of you ladies some night in a dark place."

Several of the women left the jury box Wednesday weeping. Superior Court Judge William E. Fox termed it "an extremely bad verdict."

He said 12 years was the average time served by life-termers.

The jury foreman said the panel wasn't convinced the slaying was deliberate. Clemmons admitted abducting and murdering Nina T. Thoren, 19, daughter of screen writer Robert T. Thoren, from a street near Los Angeles City College last July 12. She was strangled with her hairpins.

Meets With Macmillan Today

British Cabinet Expected to OK Ford Stock Bid

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Macmillan was expected to confer with his cabinet today about the American Ford Motor Co. bid to buy up all the shares of British Ford.

There were signs the cabinet will approve the bid. Fears expressed immediately on both sides of the political fence have given way to some second thoughts as the advantages to Britain became more evident.

The influential industrialist Sir Miles Thomas, a former director of Morris Motors Ltd., came out strongly in favor of the Ford offer, calling it "a great compliment... to the international standing of British industry."

In the House of Commons Conservative members, who joined in the cry of protest when the offer of Henry Ford II first became known were silent Wednesday when opposition Laborites pressed for a full-fledged debate on the matter.

Ford representatives were reported preparing the application for treasury approval and plan to submit it today to Chancellor of the Exchequer Selwyn Lloyd if possible.

Lloyd's approval, backed up by the cabinet but not necessarily by the prior consent of the House of Commons, would give Ford the green light.

Ford of Detroit has proposed to buy the 46 per cent of the shares of the British firm which it does not already own.

Most of the minority shareholders are British. The Ford purchase would boost British dollar reserves by $81,200,000 at one stroke.

"For an American company to invest something like $300 million in Britain today is no small matter," Sir Miles Thomas wrote to the Times. "Especially as a considerable portion of the sum is sheer dollar profit to this country in the form of share price appreciation."

More Cars Are Sold, Sales Tax Tab Dips

LANSING (AP) — Despite an increase in the number of cars sold, sales taxes on vehicles sold in Michigan lag behind last year's collections by nearly $3.5 million.

The secretary of state's office announced Wednesday that total income from sales taxes so far in 1960 is $29,864,037.26, compared with $33,360,087.08 for last year at this time.

It said the drop resulted from the high production of lower cost compact cars, deep slashes in the prices of the large used inventories of larger 1960 cars, increasing popularity of lighter and less expensive trucks and a sharp drop in the value of many used cars.

Average retail price of all vehicles this year was $1,630. This was $144 less than last year's average.

Pumpkin Pie Changes With Time

Pioneer Press Home Editor

Time marches on and brings in eatable changes, even to such conventional food as pumpkin pie. There are die-hards who consider tampering with traditional recipes treachery. Other cooks like to try new ways of presenting old favorite foods. Which are you?

***

You may hold out for the regular custard-like pumpkin filling. Perhaps you will experiment with the crust and make it different with a bit of ginger. If you go all the way with this recipe, you'll make the filling a chiffon one.

PUMPKIN CHIFFON PIE WITH GINGER CRUST

Ginger Crust

1 cup sifted enriched flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon ginger
1/2 cup shortening
2 to 3 tablespoons cold water

Sift together flour, salt, ginger and nutmeg. Cut or rub in shortening until mixture is crumbly. Sprinkle with water, mixing lightly until dough begins to stick together. Turn out on floured board or pastry cloth and press dough together.

***

Roll dough to circle about 1/4 inch thick and fit into 9-inch pie pan. Trim and flute edge. Prick with fork. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees) 10 to 12 minutes, or until lightly browned. Cool while preparing Pumpkin Chiffon Filling.

Pumpkin Chiffon Filling

1 envelope unflavored gelatin (1 tablespoon)
1/2 cup cold water
1/2 cup unsweetened evaporated milk
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup pumpkin
1/2 cup cooked pumpkin

Soften gelatin in water. Beat egg yolks. Mix together milk, brown sugar, salt, pumpkin, cinnamon and ginger. Cook in top of double boiler over boiling water about 15 minutes, stirring constantly. Immediately blend in softened gelatin. Cool. Set in refrigerator to chill for about 1 hour.

Beat egg whites until foamy. Gradually add sugar and continue beating until egg whites are stiff and glossy. Carefully fold egg whites into pumpkin mixture. Turn into cooled pie shell and chill until firm (at least 2 hours). Makes one 9-inch pie.

Are you a brand new cook, scared to death of making a pumpkin pie? Take heart; here's a filling recipe that doesn't even require cooking. You use instant pudding and dessert topping mixes for a creamy pie.

Instant Dream Pumpkin Pie

1 package dessert topping mix
1/2 cup cold milk
1/2 cup pumpkin
1/2 cup instant pudding mix
1/2 cup evaporated milk
1/2 cup pumpkin
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup pumpkin
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup pumpkin
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup pumpkin

Prepare dessert topping with 1/2 cup milk and the vanilla as directed on the package. Then combine 1 cup of the prepared dessert topping with the pudding mix, pumpkin, 1/2 cup milk, and the spices in a bowl. Beat slowly with an egg beater just until well mixed, about 1 minute. Pour into pie shell.

Chill until set, about 2 hours. Garnish with remaining topping, crystallized ginger and a sprig of nutmeg. Makes 8 servings.

A third version of this pumpkin dessert is a Pumpkin Chiffon Torte with a cereal crust. If you don't have a spring form (a pan with removable sides), use a regular pie pan or a deep layer cake pan with removable base.

***

Should you be a real individualist, you'll probably read all these recipes and then come up with something entirely original in the way of a pumpkin pie. If you do, please send us the recipe.

PUMPKIN CHIFFON TORTE WITH GINGER CEREAL CRUST

Crust

2 cups oven-toasted rice cereal
1/2 cup thinly sliced or silvered blanched almonds
1/2 cup finely chopped preserved ginger
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup water
2 tablespoons light corn syrup
2 tablespoons 27-30 grain preserved ginger

Filling

2 envelopes plain gelatin
1/2 cup cold water
1/2 cup pumpkin
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup pumpkin
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup pumpkin
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup pumpkin
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup pumpkin

Combine oven-toasted rice cereal, almonds and ginger in a large buttered bowl. Combine sugar, water and syrup in saucepan. Cook slowly until syrup reaches the hard ball stage (250 degrees). Pour syrup over cereal in a fine stream. Toss lightly to coat cereal evenly with syrup mixture; press evenly over bottom and sides of buttered 10-inch spring-form pan. Chill thoroughly.

Prepare filling. Add gelatin to cold water; stir and let stand 5 minutes. Combine egg yolks and milk, beat until well mixed. Stir in 1 cup sugar and salt. Heat slowly to simmering stage, stirring frequently. Add gelatin and stir until dissolved.

Combine pumpkin and spices; mix well. Stir in hot milk mixture. Chill until set 1/2 way in from edge of bowl.

Beat egg whites until they form soft peaks. Add remaining 1/2 cup sugar gradually and continue beating until egg whites are stiff and glossy. Whip pumpkin mixture until smooth; fold in egg whites and then whipped cream.

Four into crust and chill until firm. Serve plain or topped with whipped cream and chopped preserved ginger or toasted almonds. Yield: 8 to 10 servings.

Any Fish Tastes Good in Salad

Pleasant for lunch.
Cream of Tomato Soup
Fish and Celery Salad
Beverage

Fish and Celery Salad

3 cups flaked cooked white-fleshed fish
2 cups diced celery
1/2 cup minced green pepper
1/2 cup minced green onion
1/2 cup minced green bean
1/2 cup minced green pea
1/2 cup minced green lentil
1/2 cup minced green chickpea

Mix fish, celery and green pepper with enough mayonnaise to moisten and give good flavor. Arrange on salad greens. Garnish with pimiento and egg. Makes 6 servings.

Fruit Yams and Meat Make Hurry-Up Dish

Take a can of fruit cocktail, one of luncheon meat and another of sweet potatoes, or yams and put them together for a hurry-up whole meal casserole. Drain syrup from fruit cocktail and add 3 tablespoons brown sugar, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard and dash cloves. Arrange alternate layers of sliced meat, potatoes and fruit cocktail in baking dish or pan. Spoon on syrup mixture and bake in moderate oven about 30 minutes. Slip a pan of corn bread into the oven to bake along with the casserole. Toss green salad with zesty dressing, and dinner is ready.

Your Own Soup Hits the Spot

The soup course is being put back on the dinner menu in more and more homes. The reason is that the trend toward creative cookery is causing a renewed interest in — and appetite for — home-made soups.

Homemade soups allow for all sorts of tasty combinations. The variety is almost endless.

Here's a beef bouillon that is easy to make, yet brimming with a delightful blend of appetizing flavors. It makes a delicious hot entrée for a light meal or a wonderful pre-dinner feature. Try it on your family and friends. You will find that they will rush to the table when you announce "Soup's on!"

Homemade Beef Bouillon

3 pounds lean beef
2 carrots, chopped
2 stalks celery and parsnips, chopped
1 small onion, sliced
1 small green pepper, chopped
1 whole clove
1 teaspoon whole peppercorns
1/2 cup vinegar
Salt and pepper
Parsley, chopped

Cut beef — shank, neck, or other inexpensive cut — into small pieces, cover with water, and simmer covered for 2 1/2 to 3 hours. Then add coiled tomatoes, chopped carrots, chopped celery and leaves, sliced onion, chopped green pepper, clove, and peppercorns. Simmer for 1 1/2 hours.

Strain through a thick layer of cheesecloth. Add vinegar and then salt and pepper to taste. Reheat and serve hot. Sprinkle chopped parsley in each bowl or cup of bouillon. Yield: About 8 servings.

Coffee Walnut Pie Will Be Memorable Dessert

A beautiful walnut pie and cups of fragrant coffee — this is the perfect way to end a memorable Thanksgiving dinner.

The walnut pie is a marvelous, rich confection that captures all the flavor and tang associated with the autumn celebration. Made with brown sugar, coffee and a generous filling of walnuts, it's bound to be the main attraction of your meal. The best part about it is that it's prepared so easily the day before Thanksgiving, then served up with a flourish.

Of course, there should be plenty of freshly-brewed hot coffee to go with Thanksgiving dessert and, like the rest of the meal, it should be made with care. After all, it's the coffee that makes the final impression — an impression that should last until next Thanksgiving comes around!

Kids Sure to Love Animal Pancakes

Start the family out in the morning with a special treat that will own sleepy eyes. Animal Griddlecakes are no extra trouble and are a good enticement to skippy breakfast eaters.

To prepare, sift together 1 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour, 1 tablespoon baking powder, 3/4 teaspoon salt and 2 tablespoons sugar. Combine 1 beaten egg and 1-1/3 cups milk. Add to flour mixture, stirring until mixture is smooth. Add 3 tablespoons melted shortening and blend well.

Working quickly, form animals by spooning batter onto hot griddle in animal shapes. For a tortoise, spoon on body first then add small amounts of batter to form head, legs and tail. For a bunny, spoon on batter for body and head, then add long ears and a puff tail. Use your imagination for other animal shapes.

Turn griddlecakes carefully when they become puffy and form bubbles in each bowl or cup of bouillon. They should be turned only once. Makes about 12 griddlecakes.

Onions Are Terrific

French fried onion rings like this idea for a quick lunch: Heat 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) chicken a la king. Warm 1/4 cup onion rings in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for a few minutes. Top with a king for 2 generous servings.

COFFEE WALNUT PIE — Pecan pie is a dessert often served. But if you want something really different, try a pie made with walnuts in a coffee flavored filling. Rich and wonderful, it should become one of your cherished party recipes.

Zesty Sauces Call for Olives

Even in ancient, biblical times, olives were considered a most important part of the diet. Today, ripe olives are a staple on the pantry shelf because of the variety of ways it's possible to use them. For the holidays, ripe olives are wonderful for hors d'oeuvres, relish trays, salads, stuffings and in unusual vegetable dishes, such as "Zesty Cauliflower."

Zesty Cauliflower

1 small head cauliflower
1 cup ripe olives
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons white flour
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons dry mustard
1 cup milk
1/2 cup cubes
1/2 cup prepared horse-radish

Separate cauliflower into flowerettes and cook in boiling, salted water until tender. Meanwhile, cut olives into large pieces. Melt butter and blend in flour, salt and mustard. Add milk and bouillon cubes, and cook and stir until thickened.

Blend in horse-radish and olives and heat thoroughly. Spoon over drained cauliflower. Makes about 4 servings.

In the top of a double boiler mix together the rice, milk, sugar, salt and nutmeg. Cover and cook over boiling water until rice absorbs milk and is soft - about 2 hours. If necessary, replenish boiling water in lower part of double boiler during cooking. Serve warm or chilled. Makes 6 servings.

Fancy Fruit Sauce Wonderful on Ice Cream

Ice cream, delicious any season of the year, is especially good now with this Holiday Topping: Pour boiling water over 1 cup dates, sliced crosswise in small pieces. Let stand 3 minutes to soften; drain. Combine with 1 cup halved Maraschino cherries, 1/4 cup cherry syrup, halved green cherries as desired, 1 cup drained canned figs cut in small pieces, 1 cup canned pineapple cut in bits.

Nice for brunch: Heat canned apricot halves and serve with Canadian bacon and scrambled eggs.

Michigan Sausage Laws Are Strictest in Nation

While Michigan's laws regarding ground meats, which includes sausage, is regarded as the strictest in the nation, the state is reported by meat packers to have the country's highest per capita consumption of these products. All sausage sold in Michigan must be grade 1, said Director G. S. McIntyre, of the Michigan Department of Agriculture. This agency has responsibility for enforcement of laws regarding sausage and all comminuted meats, as well as all other food laws.

So exacting are Michigan's standards that some large packers doing a national business use a special formula for shipment into this state. Only skeletal meat must be used. No meat from other parts of an animal may be used. An exception is liver sausage, blood sausage, or tongue sausage. The protein content also must meet a minimum standard. Sausage standards include frankfurters, bolognas, polish sausage, salami, kieftana and similar products.

This same law defines hamburger as ground beef with not to exceed 30 per cent fat, a requirement identical to the U. S. government standard. It cannot contain hearts, livers, lungs or similar meats. Neither may it contain any color, preservative, cereals, bread crumbs or similar extenders.

The law defines comminuted meat as meat that has been reduced to fine particles. In addition to hamburger and all kinds of sausage it even includes meat loafs and chili con carne. Specific standards have been established for all these products with the law spelling out what ingredients may be used.

Mr. Littlefield said the law provides penalties for violators, providing for hearings before the Director of Agriculture to consider license revocation or suspension after three convictions in one license year.

Canned Foods Excellent for Quick Casseroles

Stretch food dollars by using hearty whole-sal casseroles. Make one with tender green beans, egg and luncheon meat. Arrange alternate layers of drained canned green beans, sliced hard-cooked egg and diced luncheon meat in casserole.

TV munchers who like popcorn will love it even more when you add chopped fresh dates to the hot buttered popcorn. Bits of date add wonderful flavor and chewiness to old fashioned popcorn balls too!

When you are making a meat/tomato/potato/chili sausage, dry mix... Some cooks like to mix lemon and use as the base for a molded loaf; try basting with a mixture of hard and brown sugar.

A fitting complement to the best meal of the Year..!

When the big turkey is ready for the table and dinner is about to begin, the finest salad you can prepare needs the finest, most delicious salad dressing you can serve. That's SHEDD'S SALAD DRESSING - a flavor-balanced salad dressing with just the right amount of selected salad oil, vinegar and spices to give your salad the perfect, tangy richness you want. SHEDD'S SALAD DRESSING is the perfect complement to the best meal of the year.

Mushrooms No Longer Just Luxury

How's your mushroom I.Q.? What do you know about the little vegetable with the big flavor?

Do you know that fresh cultivated mushrooms have two seasons in Michigan? Mushrooms grow best at about 55 degrees and since only 15 to 20 percent of the growing houses are air-conditioned, more fresh mushrooms are marketed in the fall and spring. The Marketing Information Agent reports that about 70,000 pounds of mushrooms are harvested each week in southeastern Michigan during October, November and the first three weeks in December.

Mushrooms are no longer expensive and rare, but they are still a gourmet food that lends rich flavor and goodness to many favorite dishes. How long has it been since you used fresh mushrooms?

If you decide to use fresh mushrooms, this is the way to prepare them for cooking. Wash the fresh mushrooms in cold water and trim the ends of the stems. It is not necessary to peel mushrooms, advises the Marketing Information Agent.

You can cook mushrooms whole, sliced or chopped. A few sautéed make any meat a glamorous dish. A few in vegetables add new flavor and texture.

For All the Family

Combine a can of frozen condensed, old-fashioned vegetable with beef soup and a soup can of water. Heat just to boiling, stirring now and then. Mix in 2 tablespoons packaged pre-cooked rice. Cover; remove from heat and let stand for 5 minutes. Just before serving, stir in ¼ cup shredded mild process cheese. Will serve 2.

What? Potatoes in a Dessert?

Here is a dessert that is simple enough for a young child's supper, pretty enough for a party buffet, and good enough to become a family favorite. It is made from New Jersey sweet potatoes in an interesting combination with orange-flavored gelatin dessert.

Jersey sweet potatoes have the skin of a dark, sun-tan color; the flesh is a bright orange and moist and sweet.

Orange Glow Dessert
1 package orange flavored gelatin dessert
1 cup water
1 cup cooked, mashed Jersey sweet potatoes
½ cup brown sugar
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
1 egg
½ cup evaporated milk
Few grains salt

Prepare gelatin dessert according to instructions on package. Chill. Combine sweet potato with sugar, nutmeg, salt, egg, and evaporated milk. Cook over low flame until it comes just to a boil, stirring constantly. Rub through a sieve. Cool to lukewarm.

Combine Jersey sweet mixture with gelatin dessert mixture. If desired, pour into molds. Chill until set. Serve plain or with light cream.

Amber Apple Salad

Dissolve one package apple-flavored gelatin in 2 cups hot apple juice. When partially set, add two Washington Golden Delicious apples, (pared, cored and cubed) and fill crown mold. Chill until firm; unmold and ring with clusters of frosted grapes. Serve with dollop of whipped cream, tinted light green.

Larger Turkeys Give More Meat for Money

It's not too early to "talk turkey" for a week from today you may be celebrating with a Thanksgiving turkey. You'll find plenty of the large size turkeys and at a few cents per pound less than you'll pay for small size turkeys. The supply of large size birds is greater than in 1959 and there are fewer small size turkeys than there were last fall.

A larger size turkey will give the most for the money, states the Marketing Information Agent, Mrs. Josephine Lawler. First, because it does cost less per pound. Second, because it has more meat in proportion to bone.

The approximate yield from a 25-pound turkey is as follows: boneless breast 7½ pounds; thighs 4 pounds; drumsticks 2½ pounds; wings 2½ pounds; boneless meat from the rib section 2½ pounds; back, strip 2½ pounds; neck 1 pound; heart and gizzard ½ pound; liver ¼ pound, soup bones 2½ pounds.

Of course you'll consider the number of people to be served and whether second servings or leftovers are intended. It's a good idea to allow ½ pound, ready-to-cook weight, per person. If your family is too small to use a large turkey at one time, why not ask the butcher to slice it in half. With one slice of the same you can have a half turkey to use now and a half turkey to store in the freezer for another time. (Be sure to use freezer wrap for the half that goes into the freezer!)

If you buy a frozen unstuffed turkey, it's best to thaw it (in its original wrap) in the refrigerator. This takes 3 to 4 days for a 10 to 12 pound turkey; 2 to 3 days for a 12 to 16 pound and 3 to 4 days for a 20 to 24 pound bird.

If you must thaw it more quickly, other recommended method is in its original wrap, under running cold water. This method takes 2 to 6 hours depending upon the size. (If you buy a frozen stuffed turkey, follow the label directions. These are not thawed before cooking.)

BE CAREFUL!
You are flirting with food poisoning unless you follow these rules.

1. Stuff just before the turkey goes into the oven. 2. Remove the remainder of the dressing from the turkey as soon as the meal is finished. Refrigerate the dressing in a covered dish immediately. Cover the meat to keep it from drying and store it in the refrigerator immediately.

3. Try to use the meat and dressing within 1 or 2 days after cooking. 4. If you buy a frozen stuffed turkey, follow the directions on the label exactly. 5. Never freeze a stuffed, cooked turkey at home.

Turkey will get the vote of many, but other meats will compete for your interest. There are very liberal supplies of beef, pork, lamb and fowl at this time. To compare costs of several roasts, this guide will help: 3 servings per pound (rolled rump of beef, pork Boston butt, rolled lamb shoulder); 2½ servings per pound (regular ham, leg of veal or lamb, pork loin); 2 servings per pound (standing rib of beef, beef chuck roast).

Cranberries are a natural for the shopping list this week. All are pure, wholesome and safe. The freshest berries are always dry, shiny and bright. Color may vary from light red to dark bluish-red depending upon variety.

Michigan's jellied cherry sauce will serve the same purpose as cranberry sauce. It is a bright cherry-pink color; has a slightly tart taste. It too can be sliced and used as it comes from the can for salads or to go with the meat.

November is the big month for sweet potatoes with 16 per cent of the crop marketed at this time. Sliced cooked sweet potatoes and sliced apples are a real flavor treat when cooked in a shallow buttered pan with sprinkles of sugar, cinnamon, butter and orange juice.

Other vegetables rich in color and in good supply now include squash, carrots, cabbage, broccoli. This is also the season to use rutabagas and parsnips.

Grape Relish Is Like Chutney

The beautiful Flame Tokay grapes, now in good supply in our markets, add filly to appetizers, salads and desserts; and they're so good, too, for just plain out-of-hand eating. Send them to school in lunch boxes; serve them with your favorite cheeses for a continental-style dessert; or bring them to the table as a superb, chutney-like meat accompaniment, as in "Spicy Tokay Relish."

Spicy Tokay Relish
1½ cups Tokay grapes
¾ cup apple cider
1 cup sugar
1 tablespoon cornstarch
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon chopped preserved ginger
1 cup light or dark raisins
1 tablespoon lemon juice

Halve Tokays and remove seeds. Combine cider, sugar, cornstarch and salt; cook and stir until mixture boils. Add ginger and raisins and simmer 2 or 3 minutes. Remove from heat and blend in lemon juice. Cool and add grapes. Makes about 2½ cups.

Brighten Coleslaw

Mix Friends and Cards for Afternoon Recipe

Drive were Birminghamites Mrs. C. S. Maxwell of Hylane Drive, Mrs. J. S. Granger of Glenway Drive, and Mrs. D. H. King of Westbourne Drive.

Mrs. C. S. Suwayze of Erie Drive, Orchard Lake (at left) entertained her friends, Mrs. M. D. Van Wagoner of Oakland Drive, Birmingham; and Mrs. John DeLind Jr. of Clarkston. Filling out the foursome which enjoyed luncheon at the club as well as cards was Mrs. Suwayze's sister, Mrs. LeRoy Addis of Clarkston. The social afternoon was the first of its kind of the season at the club and was planned and executed by the women's social committee.

Colleen Wheeler Is Bride

Chimes Mark Nuptials

The noon Angelus chimes Saturday at St. Michael Church marked the nuptials of Colleen Mae Wheeler and Walter G. Stonehouse before the Rev. Charles E. Cushing.

A purple-throated white orchid and feathered white carnations were mounted on the white prayer-book held by the daughter of the Kennoff Wheelers of Waverly Road, Drayton Plains.

Her bridal gown of white Chantilly lace and organza featured chignon shirring on the elongated bodice and chignon panels on the bouffant skirt which fell into a chapel train. Fingertip veiling of silk illusion was caught by a Swedish crown of seed pearls and sequins.

Honor maid Sandra Gregory and bridesmaids Nancy Ray of Drayton Plains and Marietta Hendry were identical gowns of deep lavender silk organza and matching satin headpieces. Their round bouquets included lavender pompons and feathered white carnations.

Kim Tunney, wearing floor-length white organza with a deep lavender cummerbund, carried lavender and white daisy chrysanthemums in a white wicker basket. Daniel Malone, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring-bearer.

Son of the Harry Stonehouses of Exmore Drive, Waterford Township, the bridegroom had Charles Crowley for best man. Seating some 200 guests were Roger Moore and James Owens.

After a brief honeymoon in Canada, the newlyweds are at home in Pontiac. The bridegroom is a graduate of Lawrence Institute of Technology.

A floor-length light gown of white Chantilly lace over satin featured a fitted bodice and tiered skirt of deep bands of the lace.

Waist-length veiling of silk illusion fell from a petal headband of tear-drop pearls. A cascade of white roses and lilies of the valley rested on the bride's white Bible.

Honor matron Mrs. Harold Reeves appeared in ballerina-length deep aqua taffeta with lighter aqua sash and matching feathered headpiece.

She held a white lace fan topped with gold roses and white chrysanthemums. Donna Denis and Irene Wilson, bridesmaids, wore light aqua with deeper aqua sashes. White chrysanthemums and yellow roses rested on their fans.

Parker-Hewitt Nuptials Solemnized in Church

The Rev. Lawrence A. Kline officiated at the Saturday nuptials of Karen Ann Hewitt and John W. Parker in St. Matthew Lutheran Church, Walled Lake.

White roses and chrysanthemums in gold vases adorned the altar. The Kilmer R. Hewitts of Oregon Drive, Waterford Township, were hosts at their daughter's reception in the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall, Keego Harbor.

MRS. HAROLD W. PARKER

the bride's brother Gary seated some 150 guests. Leaving for a honeymoon in Northern Michigan, the new Mrs. Parker was wearing a gray sheer wool suit and black accessories.

A shoulder corsage of deep red roses accented Mrs. Hewitt's jacket dress of beige wool jersey. The mother of the bridegroom, in an avocado green knit suit, wore gold and red roses.

Parents OK Chaperon for Friend

By KAY SKEERWOOD

Question: My brother is going to be married next year some time. His fiancée whose home town is over a hundred miles from here, has taken a job in this city. She has been living at a woman's hotel but it is very expensive and takes practically everything she earns.

I have recently married and no longer live with my parents and so they have an extra room in their apartment doing nothing. We were wondering if it would be proper for my brother's fiancée to move in with them.

Answer: It would be a big help to her but we would like to know if it could possibly cause gossip if they lived together under the same roof before they are married, even though my parents will be living there too. We would appreciate hearing from you on this matter.

Answer: There is absolutely no question about the propriety of her living with your parents. She couldn't possibly be more perfectly chaperoned.

Question: Between my husband and myself we have four grandchildren. When I give gifts to my grandchildren, and he to his, should the card enclosed be signed with both our names, or just with the name of the particular godparent?

Answer: It is usually signed with the name of the particular godparent but there is no reason why both names could not be included if you would like to do so.

Question: Will you please tell me the proper closing of a letter to a social acquaintance? Some of my friends say, "Very truly yours," or "Yours very truly," is correct. I do not agree and think that "Sincerely yours," or "Sincerely," is the proper close. Will you please settle this?

Answer: Either "Sincerely," or "Sincerely yours," or "Very sincerely" is correct for social usage.

Question: Five of our friends have served as references for us in the adoption of a baby. I have thanked each of them personally, but feel that this is not enough. Would it be proper to send each one a small gift as a token of appreciation?

Answer: I think your thanks are sufficient, and later on there may be something that you, in turn, may be able to do for these kind friends.

Dear Mrs. Post: My sister and her husband have separated after a brief marriage. Her mother-in-law is insisting that she return all the wedding presents that were sent by her relatives and friends. Is she obliged to return these presents to her?

Answer: Having actually been married, all of these gifts are hers to keep. Certainly they do not belong to her mother-in-law. If her husband asks her for the return of wedding presents given by his family or friends, it would be no more than fair to let him have them — even though they were addressed to her and quite definitely belong to her.

Young Horsewoman Finds Out

Animal Fine Companion for Child

A lonely girl can find great companionship in the friendship of an animal, says Meg Hausman of Kings Point, Long Island.

Meg had no close girl or boy friends and her sister and brother were much older, so she fell in love with a horse when she was 9 years old.

"A horse is a wonderful friend. When I got this pony Cinnamon Sugar she was just to be a companion, but I learned to ride well enough to go into some horse shows, and she has become more than a friend.

She had made me a good rider," says Meg, who becomes a teen-ager on her next birthday.

For the third year Meg has participated in the National Horse Show in New York. She has won more than 200 ribbons, 11 championships and 10 services.

She won the large pony championship with another pony she owns, Serendipity. She rides him in winter, and the smaller pony, her roan mare, Cinnamon Sugar, stays home.

Serendipity boards out, so Meg doesn't assist with those chores. But she helps a good deal with Cinnamon Sugar. Her dad gives her a hand with the water pails she can't lift.

Neatness Is Akin to Comfort

By KAY SKEERWOOD

NEA Feature

Are neat housekeepers born or made? Certainly neatness seems to come more naturally to some than to others.

Drop into the naturally neat housekeeper's home any time any day and you won't surprise her with the beds unmade, papers scattered over the floor and dirty dishes on the table.

When she says "the house is a mess," she means the room is disarranged for a thorough weekly cleaning.

For others of us, a neat home comes as a result of more obvious effort.

My Monday morning survey of the backwash of weekend clutter has led me time and again to vow reform. In the autumn when we socialize more at home, I try harder to emulate the smoothly neat homemaker.

Analyzing the routine of a neat housekeeper — and I know such admirable women — you see at once that they do have a daily routine. Everyday chores are completed automatically and with little deviation in time.

Beds, for example, are aired and made in early morning. Dishes are cleared from the table immediately after each meal.

Newspapers and magazines are culled regularly and only the most recent ones stay in the racks.

There is no squirreling away an untidy pile of old papers and magazines marked "to read when you have time." In a neat home back copies of such material are filed in orderly binders.

PLAN IN ADVANCE

Parties, little or big, are planned in advance and few arrangements are left until the last minute. You won't find a naturally neat housekeeper polishing the silver late in the afternoon of her dinner. Nor will she remember too late she forgot to make coffee or to put the pie in the oven.

Although such organizations may be known, in many cases the secret of this smooth efficiency is a lengthy list which is referred to often and items checked off as completed.

Another lesson to learn from the efficient homemaker is never to put off until tomorrow what can be worked in today.

After a late evening of cards or conversation, the temptation is strong to leave the dishes, ashtrays and crumbs where they lie until tomorrow.

In a few minutes time, however, those crumbs can be swept up, ashtrays emptied and dishes scraped and stacked, leaving the living room neat for the next morning.

Because she takes pride in neatness and places a premium on it, her children will be encouraged, reminded or nagged into a respect for order. Neat homemakers I've known do put up with a certain amount of youthful messiness when it's confined to children's rooms.

But living areas of the house are for all to enjoy. Toys are picked up after play and stored in boxes or cartons; books are put back in place in the bookcase.

Her good example and the consistent encouragement to be neat does help to ingrain the habit in her offspring.

Abby Counsels Wife of 'Brain'

High IQ Acts Pretty Stupid

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: The company psychologist told my husband that he has an IQ bordering on "genius." Consequently, no one can live with him any more. Everyone else, in his opinion, is now "stupid," "infantile,"

"I am me-brained." (I am included.) He belittles me in front of the children. Ninety per cent of the time he is a wonderful husband and loving father. He has a brilliant future with a well-known company and we have all the material things I could hope for, but his mental "superiority" is causing me heartaches.

CAN'T SIGN MY NAME

DEAR CANT: A person's "IQ" (intelligence quotient) alone will not carry him safely through the rough waters of day-to-day living. If he's as smart as he thinks he is, he'll forget his "IQ" and concentrate on his "CS" (common sense).

DEAR ABBY: I made a bet with a guy but we didn't shake on it. If I lose, do I have to pay?

BRUNO

DEAR BRUNO: You do. Your word should be as good as your grip.

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem. I am known to all my friends as "DEAR ABBY" because I am able to solve all their problems. But when it comes to my own, I draw a blank.

Abby, I like a boy who is in my study hall. I am a junior and he is a senior. He smiles at me, but that is all. How can I get him to notice me?

DEAR ABBY NO. 2:

DEAR "DEAR ABBY NO. 2": You've been helping your friends with their problems, now turn to one of them for help with yours. That "smiling senior" must have a buddy. Have one of your friends "buddy up" to his buddy, and gently hint that you have noticed the smiling senior. Then he will really notice you. All some boys need is a little encouragement. (P.S. Better case the situation first. He might have a girl.)

DEAR ABBY: I disagree with your statement that "it is not the custom anywhere for an overnight guest to bring his own bed linen."

In Sweden it is considered quite proper. Considerate guests frequently carry their own linen on trips. They don't want to give the hostess extra trouble with laundry, which is a bigger problem in Sweden than in your country.

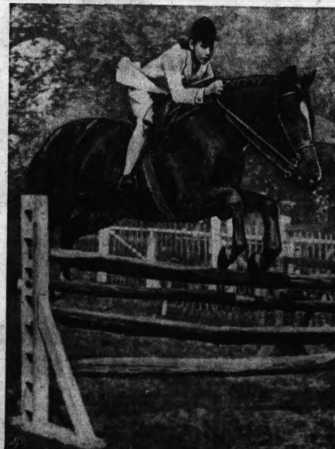

Sincerely,
SWEDISH IMMIGRANT.

For Abby's pamphlet, "What Teen-agers Want To Know," send 2 cents and a large self-addressed, stamped envelope in care of this paper.

If you want a personal reply from Abby, write to her in care of this paper and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. She answers all letters.

fully, applaud when others win, and has developed a sense of fair play and self sufficiency."

Horsemanship is good too, she says, to help you develop poise and a good carriage.

Fashions Bowling Over Women Keglers

The rhythmic swing of the fashionable coral wool jersey by Tina Leser (at left) is as good looking on the lanes as it is for dinner-afterwards. Its eased skirt unbusts to reveal matching pants. Designer Estevez tailors a culotte dress (at right) in creamy beige and brown silk linen, smartly belted in persimmon.

The wrap-around skirt of Vera Maxwell's red two-tone wool tweed suit spills open to reveal knee-flicking pants. It's topped with a cardigan jacket (not shown) that's lined with the same silk print as the blouse and pants.

Who's for bowling? Such prompts as Princess Grace, Mrs. Anthony Drexel Duke and world-figure skating champion Carol Heiss Jenkins, to name a few. All over America, an estimated 12 million women are aiming for strikes and angling for spares.

***

The inevitable result:

This year for the first time, five leading designers — Oleg Cassini, Estevez, Tina Leser, Marquise and Vera Maxwell — have included costumes especially for bowling in their fall line.

Functional features of these high fashions: culotte skirts, easy sleeves for an easy swing, eased skirts unbustling to reveal "chic" coats for free hand-bends. Stunning fashion features: lovely colors and fabrics, ready to go on to smart restaurants and other parties from the bowling center.

These days bowling centers themselves are enough to inspire high fashion. The countless modern centers which are springing up throughout the country are complete with luxurious restaurants and cocktail lounges, and fully equipped nurseries. Some feature dancing on weekends.

Even bowling balls that were once classic black now come in lively navies and print effects, and can be personalized with a 14-carat gold name. Bowling shoes and hat-box-type bags to carry them in are equally chic. It seems the bowling center may become the fashion center of the community.

A bateau-necked sleeveless overblouse tops a gracefully gored skirt for brilliant fashion scoring when you're bowling. Of lightweight navy and white wool check, this extra-eased dress was designed by Marquise.

Deborahs Eye Name as Theme

"Take the Name of Jesus With You" was the program theme for a meeting of Deborah Circle of Oakland Park Methodist Church Wednesday.

Mrs. Joe Wagley of Hammond Street was hostess. Mrs. James Wellington and Mrs. Albert Barker directed the program.

Mrs. Eldon Sweazy, chairman, announced a Dec. 8 Woman's Society of Christian Service meeting at 7:30 p.m. in the church.

Guests were Mrs. James Deng, Mrs. Clayton Gillies and Mrs. Charles MacIntosh.

The Dec. 14 circle meeting will be a 9 a.m. breakfast at the Oxley Drive home of Mrs. Bert Weddle.

Deny Discharge of Saint-Laurent

PARIS (AP) — The French Defense Ministry today denied a report that fashion designer Yves Mathieu Saint-Laurent has been given a medical discharge from the army.

Saint-Laurent, who replaced the late Christian Dior, was drafted last fall. He has since spent most of his time in hospital under observation for a nervous breakdown. "He is still under observation, and hence has not been discharged," the ministry spokesman said.

Henry Will Talk

City commissioner and attorney Milton R. Henry will speak at a public meeting of the Woodward Estate Property Sunday in St. John's Methodist Church.

Soak in Softener

(NEA) — A little water softener added to soapy water is a great help in cleaning white gloves. Dirt will float out if you soak gloves for 20 minutes.

Church Group Plans Play Film

Plans to view films of Europe and the passion play at Oberammergau Dec. 6 were made by the January-March Group of First Presbyterian Church Tuesday at the home of Mrs. John R. Peterson of West Walton Boulevard. Mrs. H. E. McCulloch and Mrs. L. V. McCann were cohostesses. Mrs. Smith Falconer presented the social education and action study. A talk, "Town and Country Missions" was given by Mrs. Philip Messadern. Mrs. McCann reviewed the Bible study on the Book of Psalms.

Friendship Club Sews Dressings

Members of the Friendship Club met for an afternoon of sewing on cancer dressings Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Virgil Allison on Oliver Street.

Mrs. James Keiso was a guest. Reward pins for 100 hours of service were presented to Mrs. Sewell Reynolds, Mrs. George Mellonian, Mrs. Rolland Polley, Mrs. Arthur Jepson and Mrs. Allison.

***

Mrs. Raymond Ellsworth of Seneca Street will be hostess to club members in December following presentation of gifts to patients at the Oakland County Medical Care Facility.

On the average, each American mother has 2.2 children, statisticians at the Institute of Life Insurance report.

Perfect for Kids

(UPI) — A new type of finish for children's wear, rainwear and outerwear makes fashion fabrics permanently waterproof yet breathable and comfortable to wear, Women's Wear Daily reports.

The finish is completely washable, dry-cleanable and durable for the life of the garment, the manufacturer reports.

A one-piece dress with a three-piece look gives beautiful release when you're bowling and is so chic when the party goes on! Designed by Oleg Cassini, the lacy knitted wool top is the color of woodland violets and the bib is sheer white wool to match the pleated skirt.

Mrs. Russell Ream of Birmingham will be hostess for the annual Christmas party Dec. 20. Mrs. Walter Teuwissen Jr. will narrate the Christmas tale "Howe and the Manger Scene."

How Do You Stand?

For Best Health, Be Erect

If women realized what a tremendous difference posture can make in their appearance and health, they would take it more seriously.

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
How do you stand? The way you stand has a definite effect on your health, your energy and your figure. When you slump, your breathing is shallow and your internal organs are crowded. Muscles and ligaments are thrown out of their correct alignment. This places a strain on them and brings you aches and fatigue. When you stand properly, your lungs and heart are not crowded and your abdominal muscles give inner support which is needed.

Actually, the correct posture should be a part of every receding routine since it accumulates over lax or lax muscles. Also good posture makes a great difference in your measurements.

A poor carriage not only leads to round shoulders but to protruding abdomen, a double chin and a dowager's hump at the base of the neck.

First, straighten your spine all the way. This is your main supporting structure and you must pin your hopes for a lovely figure on it. If the spine is straight, everything else falls into correct position. If not, strains occur.

If you should your body weight to fall over your heels? You should feel that you can, with ease, lift your heels from the floor at a moment's notice. This does not mean that you should lean forward.

Now lift your chest or rib cage and pull your abdominal muscles in and you automatically will tuck your hips under.

There are three crucial points in posture which flash lots of women do not know or forget.

1. Do not pull your shoulders back. The shoulders should be relaxed. If not your head probably will thrust forward.

2. Do not duck your head or thrust your chin forward. Push toward the ceiling with the top of your head. You will experience a feeling of lightness and lack of tension at the back of the neck if you do this.

3. The knees must also be relaxed. By this I do not mean that they should be bent, but if they are hyperextended when standing or with each step, your hips will not be tucked under.

Rise Above Fads, Says Decorator

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Planning a new home, or getting ready to remodel your present one? Here are a few "do's and don'ts" from a leading interior decorator.

Harvey L. Ackerman, vice president of the Southern California chapter of the American Institute of Decorators, said that home decor should transcend "fads, furbelows and finicky fashion."

"Homes should not be created for effect but for convenience," Ackerman said. "Rooms should have an easy maintenance standard, eye-pleasing, facility for everyday living and the important occasional large party."

Most important, he said, is the fact that every member of the family be reflected in the manner of furnishings. But he disagreed with a New York designer who recently decreed that television could be a charming addition to the bathroom.

Ackerman also spoke out against the recent introduction of perfumes dispensed through the air conditioning systems.

POOR FRIENDS "Stick a gimmet," he said, "jokes family and any unlucky friend subject to an aroma chosen by the home-maker or decorator."

The decorator said interiors "should have a timeless quality that should make a 1960 room still livable in 1980."

"And that," he concluded, "leaves out the obvious fads of the 'fashionable decorator' who wants a bathroom TV, perfume vents, grotesque furniture, black ceilings or trampoline walls."

Most Teen-Agers Would Restrict the Privilege

Rate Free Speech Behind National Interest

By EUGENE GILBERT
President of the Gilbert Youth Research Co.
With Khruushchev, founding the taboo only recently at the United Nations, the time seems ripe for finding out what the nation's teen-agers think of the whole subject of free speech.

As a broad generalization, one can say that by no means do they give it unanimous or unqualified support—something that Gilbert and the half of old time theo-reticians on democracy.

The United Nations, of course, prescribes its own rules of behavior, but how about the United States?

Should we allow the constitutional guarantee of free speech contained in the First Amendment to intrude on our patience and perhaps even our national security?

To determine how far teenagers would be willing to go in extending free speech to various pressure groups and unpopular shades of opinion our interviewers across the country asked five key questions.

Do you think the Communists should be allowed free speech?
Do you think the Nazis should be allowed free speech?
Do you think the Socialists should be allowed free speech?

Should anyone be allowed to advocate peaceful revolution?
Should anyone be allowed to advocate armed revolution?

DON'T LIKE SOCIALISTS
The answers were as surprising as they were revealing.

More youngsters today (69 per cent) would deny free speech to Socialists than would to Nazis (54 per cent). And more would deny it to Nazis than they would to Communists (47 per cent).

Except where the Socialists were concerned, girls turned out to be far more tolerant than boys in allowing free speech.

For instance, 61 per cent of the girls would allow the Communists free speech, compared with 42 per cent of the boys.

Female tolerance slipped to 42 per cent where the Nazis were concerned, but male tolerance dropped all the way to 24 per cent.
And both boys (68 per cent) and girls (70 per cent) were pretty emphatic about not allowing free speech to Socialists.

Most of them in favor of granting free speech privileges to Communists, Nazis and Socialists cited pretty much the same reason, best summed up by 14-year-old Carol Baldwin of King of Prussia, Pa.:

"If we want a free world we must have free speech."
These on Carol's side of the argument cited the First Amendment, insisted that free speech no matter how unpopular was essential to a democracy and warned of the dangers of tampering with the ideals that underlie the founding of our country.

Those opposed varied in opinion, depending on which group—Communists, Nazis or Socialists—they were discussing.

REPLIES
Here are some typical replies:
On denying Communists Free Speech—
"Freedom is not license. It doesn't allow traitorism."—Lee Superstein, Elmhurst, N.Y.
"They're capable of changing public opinion by twisting meanings."—Jay Green, 16, Indians-ville.

"They fill people's heads with lies."—Jon Aldrich, 14, La Crosse, Wis.

On Denying Nazis Free Speech—
"It could incite riots."—David Lazer 17, New York.

"They preach hatred and destruction."—Dan Nusbaum, 16, Hancock, N.Y.

"They aren't idealists, they're murdering psychos."—Abigail Quart, Bayville, N.Y.
On Denying Socialists Free
Speech—

"America is fine just the way it is."—Joan Desposito, Brooklyn, N.Y.
"They just don't know what they're doing. No responsibility."

Slippy Kemmerer, 17, New York City.

When it came to allowing people and groups to advocate peaceful revolution a tight majority (52 per cent) of the teenagers were willing to go along with the girls swinging the balance against the boys.

If we don't allow people to advocate peaceful revolution, warned 17-year-old Constance Pryde of Verona, N.J., "there would only be the remnants of a democracy left." Her remark pretty much summed up for the majority.

OPPOSITION SPEAKS
Speaking with the opposition,
13-year-old Holly Williams of Clark's Green, Pa., observed that most revolutions have a habit of "turning out to be not so peaceful."

An overwhelming majority of boys (86 per cent) and girls (75 per cent) turned thumbs down on armed revolution.

"This automatically implies force and persecution," commented Estella Spear, 18, of Verona, N.J. "It is per se a violation of our beliefs in freedom."

"You can't have both democracy and anarchy," added 17-year-old David Lazer of New York City.

In the same general area of how far speech should be allowed to go, we asked teen-agers a pair of questions that were undoubtedly closer to home, especially at election time:

After an election should political opponents be allowed to make personal attacks on a president? Should they be allowed to attack his official acts and policies?

Seven out of 10 teen-agers interviewed were against personal attacks on a President, and exactly the same proportion were in favor of allowing unlimited criticism of his acts and policies.

"His private life should be his own," said 16-year-old Abigail Quart of Bayville, N.Y. "His public performance is everyone's business."

Sue Yates, 16, of Clark's Green, Pa., termed personal attacks on a president "poor sportsmanship."
But 13-year-old Jerry Nusbaum of Island Park, N.Y., would allow "everything this side of libel and calumny."

As for attacking the President's official acts and policies, most teen-agers seemed to agree with 18-year-old Barbara Betke of Verona, N.J. that "citizens won't have the type of government they want unless they freely air their views."

Tot's Room Needs No Enlivening

Neutral or Quiet Colors Make Best Wall Background

CHICAGO (UPI)—The child's room is his living room, where he receives his friends, studies and plays games.

"So restrain that urge to paint it in cute colors," said Color Stylist Margaret Hutchison.

She contends that bright "children's" colors and busy designs have a chaotic effect when combined with toys, books, sporting equipment and other juvenile possessions.

KEEP IT QUIET
"Neutral or quiet wall colors make the best background for a child's cluttered room," Miss Hutchison said.

To keep a child's room tidy, Miss Hutchison advises fitting it with storage and display shelves for toys, books, sporting goods, and so on. "Children don't really like to keep these items underfoot," she says.

GUARD WALLS
She suggests that counters, a low table for games and private tea parties and a desk all be placed along the walls in a child's room. The idea is to cover most of the wall area in the "finger-marking" range.

"Use any left-over 'child's height' wall space for blackboards and bulletin boards," Miss Hutchison said.

She likes to see all shelves, cabinets, tables and so on in a child's room painted the same neutral color as the walls, using a washable semigloss color.

For lighting the child's room, Miss Hutchison advises pin-up fixtures over desks, work areas and reading areas.

She doesn't believe in decorating the room much. Dolls, colorful toys, books, and so on, arranged in open bookshelves, are decoration enough," she said.

For the boy's room, she suggests using tennis rackets, bats, masks, gloves and baseball equipment, along with mounted collections of stamps, rocks or arrowheads as wall accessories.

Teen-Age Gals 'Split Hairs' to Gain a Casual Permanent Air

One basic style becomes a "turnabout hairdo" in these three casual teen-age coiffures by a popular home permanent company's reference service. Above is a clean swept-back look for fall outdoor activities. The smooth front crown lifts slightly to give height to the face and is pinned back at the nape of the neck. A cluster of underturned curls fans out into a soft bun effect.

All "tressed up," our sophisticated junior miss is ready for her first prom. The hair is parted at the side and the crown, lifted and swirled into four springy bun-like twists. The back is twisted into a French roll and the sides brushed back into the twist. Lengthier hair that falls just below the chin—almost brushing the shoulder — forms the "turnabout" hairdo.

It's classy for classes! The new convertible coiffure will take a young lady to the "head of the class" when styled casually as above. The crown hair, enhanced by fringed bangs, is lifted for height to offset roundness of face. Side waves nip in at the temple to create an illusion of narrowness across the forehead. The ends are turned into a loose page boy.

Wives, Mothers Go to Work

Women Bolster Business

CHICAGO—How do you picture the average American working woman—prim, businesslike and somewhat spinsterish? Your image is common, but not correct.

See that woman across the street—35 years old, married and the mother of two sons in school. Statistics show that she is typical of the working woman. Chances are she has a high school education and works at a clerical job. She probably worked for a few years after graduation, withdrew to her home to have a family and returned to the labor force when her children reached school age.

The role of women in a world of work is presented in the October guidance newsletter published this month by Science Research Associates, Inc. The newsletter is distributed to guidance service subscribers in 6,500 libraries, colleges, elementary and high schools and youth serving organizations across the country.

"Social attitudes toward working women have changed tremendously since the turn of the century. Around 1900, if a woman worked, she was probably either poor, unmarried or both."

"Today one out of every three workers is a woman. Altogether over 22 million women are holding jobs outside the home. About half of these women are married."

Even so, the report points out, women still represent a vast reservoir of energy and talent that as yet has remained largely untapped. More than half of our working-age population is female, but only a third of the women have jobs outside the home.

How do we get more women to divide their time between the typewriter and the teapot.

Her Scream Does Job of Baseball Bat

HAMILTON, Ont. (UPI)—Mrs. Alice Arbour, an 84-year-old widow, forgot to take her baseball bat to bed with her for the first time in four years.

But she found some burglars scare just as easy with a scream.

Mrs. Arbour said she woke up to find an intruder in her bedroom shining a light in her face. She reached for her trusty bat, but it wasn't there.

"So," she said, "I just let out a couple of screams and he ran like a deer."

Mrs. Arbour was perturbed at her lost chance to use the baseball bat, but she said, "I'm glad it went off."

"I never had a chance to use it until today," she said, "then I blew it all."

Discipline Children, Says Speaker

Dr. Dorothy Perry, administrator of the West District of the Detroit public schools, was guest speaker at Junior Child Study Club's Tuesday meeting in the Cherokee Road home of Mrs. Harold Kendrick.

Dr. Perry who has been in the education field for 26 years received her doctorate at Wayne State University where she is an instructor. Speaking on the topic "What's Wrong with Today's Children?" Dr. Perry emphasized that lack of proper discipline most often results in problem youngsters.

"Don't be afraid to discipline the small child," she said, "It's far better to punish him in the privacy of your home where he's loved and understood, than to let him go forth to be punished by society."

She advised choosing disciplinary action fit the misbehavior, adding, "Don't let the child continue to feel guilty, but punish him at the time of the offense and then forget it."

Mrs. Orrin Hutton Jr. was co-hostess, assisted by Mrs. Allen Campbell, Mrs. Frank Antrobus, Mrs. Julius Koprince and Mrs. Robert O'Connor. Mrs. Howard O. Powers also participated in the program.

Check for Effect
(NEA)—Earrings are fine fashion accessories, but choose them for YOUR ears. Small ears and large earrings, for example, create an incongruous effect.

Ike's Director of Youth Fitness Hails the Scouts
BAL HARBOUR, Fla. (UPI)—Dr. Shane MacCarthy Wednesday hailed the Boy Scout and Girl Scout organizations as powerful forces for advancing the president's youth fitness program.

MacCarthy, executive director of the fitness program, presented $2,500 scholarships awards by the Roller Skating Foundation of America to the two youth groups. The foundation had singled out the boy scouts as a symbolic "man of the year" in the youth training field. The girl scouts were selected for 1960-61 induction into the roller skate hall of fame.

Kind Word Given to Poor Suburbia

By RUTH MILLETT
Parents, it often seems, just can't win for losing. No matter how hard we try to do what is right and best for our children, the "experts" get busy and start finding fault.

Now they are throwing rocks through the picture windows of suburbia. If you want to know what's wrong with suburbia pick up almost any magazine on the newsstands.

Look through the picture windows with the experts and all you see is disenchantment. Pop, worn out by commuting and trying to meet the monthly bills, is a grouchy who is only a "phantom father" to his children.

Mom, under constant pressure to keep up with the Joneses, is "rusted and insecure."

The children, overprotected and overindulged, and associating only with children whose parents are in about the same financial bracket as their own, are growing up with a false idea of what life is really like.

In short, they are little snobs, brought up under such hothouse conditions that they will probably never be able to face up to hardships or disappointments or do battle against adversity.

Now that millions of American families have finally realized their dream of owning (or rather paying on) a home in the suburbs that's the picture the "experts" are painting.

The big question is, what are we parents supposed to do? Crowd back into the cities so that our children can have the broadening experience of playing in the streets, dodging switch blade knives and learning first hand that everybody doesn't make as much money as daddy does?

Or should our "phantom fathers" give up their city jobs and

Don't Need a Lot of Time or Equipment

Needlework: Tailor-made Hobby for Women

French needlepoint worked with meticulous care, is a rewarding hobby. The floral this homemaker is working will be framed for hanging in a room.

By VIVIAN BROWN
NEA Newsfeature Writer

Would you like to have a creative hobby which could be pursued during the scraps of leisure left after church, school and community have made their claim?

Then take another close look at the womanly art of needlework.

Many women today are rediscovering the pleasures and disciplines of "sewing a fine seam" which our colonial ancestors knew so well.

It has much to recommend it as a rewarding hobby. You don't need a lot of equipment, nor a separate studio, nor several hours of uninterrupted time.

Needlework can be tailored to any taste or time and you can't say that for a lot of the hobbies being pushed on the homemaker. A very persuasive friend of mine almost had me talked into taking up sandscaping as a hobby!

I had to remind her that I can't cut up with several hundred pounds of sand and concrete while I listen to a child read his lessons.

Although there have been devoted needleworkers in every generation, interest among a wider group of homemakers is on the increase.

GUILDS POPULAR

Sewing guilds (those that specialize in fancy work) report more requests for membership.

Lessons in the skills are taught in guild or school. Some stores offer instruction, too.

Needlepoint designs on canvas or linen are not limited to standard and traditional subjects. Custom designers who will paint a special motif on canvas or linen are catering to a growing list of clients.

Like the colonial home, modern homes are boasting more fabric pictures. But there is a difference.

A charming sampler or embroidered picture in colonial times was visual proof that the young girl had learned her lessons in the gentle art of sewing.

Today, subject matter is wider, and colors are, or may be, wilder.

COPY OR INVENT

In addition to the needlepoint floral so well suited to traditional interiors, you'll see delightful abstract appliques in a mélange of colors and textures for modern rooms. These could be copied or invented to suit your taste.

Imaginative designs cross-stitched on linen fit into casual backgrounds with graceful charm.

Although there are plenty of printed ready-made cross-stitched patterns, I know from experience you can work out your own pattern or colors or both on graph paper. Scrim basted to the fabric you want to work guides the stitches. The scrim is removed later.

OES Installs Officers at Luncheon

Officers for Group 3, Order of the Eastern Star, were installed following a cooperative luncheon Wednesday in the Masonic Temple on Lawrence Street.

Mrs. Meta McIlroy is incoming president; Mrs. Harvey May, vice president; Mrs. James Gilles, secretary and treasurer.

Installing officers were Mrs. Howard Robbins and Mrs. Grace Soover.

Hostesses were Mrs. Myrtle Kath and Mrs. May.

A Christmas party is set Dec. 20 at the temple.

Garden Club Hears Talk on Decorations

A talk on Christmas decorations by John Moss highlighted a meeting of the Little Garden Club of Birmingham Monday at the home of Mrs. Dwight Ensign on Franklin Court, Franklin Village. Mrs. Bernard Magruder was cohostess.

Mrs. Frank Boyer was program chairman for the meeting, designated as Guest Day.

Mrs. Moss' talk prepared members for a Christmas workshop Dec. 7 at the home of Mrs. Dufield S. H. at 1000 on Bennington Road, Bloomfield Hills.

Sylvan Shores Club Slates Yule Party

Cancer dressings were made when the Sylvan Shores Women's Club met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Sam Hoffman on Sylvan Shores Drive.

The annual Christmas party Dec. 21 at the home of Mrs. Byron Cole was discussed.

Assisting the hostess with refreshments were Mrs. W. D. Moll, Mrs. Robert Gibbons, Mrs. Douglas Squires and Mrs. R. J. Evans.

Don't let your clothes overpower you. People should remember if chosen with care. Don't buy you — not your clothes. Knit dresses are flatterers only if chosen with care. Don't buy them too clingy.

Winner of 1st PCH-PNH Grid Clash Will Have Successful Year

Chiefs Can Top .500 Mark With Victory Friday

Huskies Need Triumph to Break Even in '60

By BILL CORNWELL

The win-loss record won't show it, but the winners of Friday night's first annual Pontiac Central-Pontiac Northern football game will consider the 1960 season a success.

Paul Dellerba's Chiefs and the Huskies of Ed Heikkinen initiate the intracity feud tomorrow evening at Wmner Stadium at 8 o'clock with a respectable record for the year hanging in the balance.

PCH can post a winning mark for the 2nd consecutive year by conquering the Huskies in the inaugural contest of what promises to be a long and red-hot series.

Last year when Jesse MacKay, the Chiefs compiled a 6-3 mark for their first winning season in seven years. Now, under new head coach Dellerba, they have an excellent chance to finish on the winning side of the ledger again.

They will enter the game with a slate of three wins, three losses and two ties, which means that a winning or losing campaign will hinge on the outcome.

PNH must beat the Huron Street gridders to break even for the year. The Huskies go into the contest with a mark of three victories, four defeats and one tie so they need a win over their crosstown rivals to enjoy a .500 season.

One of Northern's setbacks was a forfeit to Lake Orion, which wound up sharing the Oakland B League title with Fitzgerald.

The Huskies scored a 12-7 triumph over Orion in the opening game of the season, but they had to forfeit the decision when it was discovered that they used an ineligible player.

Central tied Arthur Hill for 4th place in the Saginaw Valley Conference with a 3-3-1 record. Northern and Waterford ended in a tie for 2nd place in the Inter-Lakes circuit with 2-2-4 marks.

It is generally conceded that PCH should win this game—that the Chiefs are the logical favorites by virtue of stiffer competition during the year plus more impressive performances.

But if the Huskies are conceding them anything at all, that is the only thing, and the northsiders aren't even sure they're willing to string along there.

"My boys know they're probably the underdogs," Heikkinen said, "but they'll be working and playing to win."

"Central's boys will have ours badly outweighed," Heikkinen continued, "and they're also a lot faster, especially in the backfield where they have ball carriers like Dick McCauley, Roy Couser, Andy Roach and Elbert Hall."

"We'll just have to give it everything we've got for 48 minutes and hope for the best," Heikkinen said. Dellerba has really been harping away at his charges this week in practice sessions, trying to spur them into an all-out effort after last Friday's dismal showing against Flint Central.

Dellerba, who missed that game because of a death in the family, has not let up on his players one minute in daily drills at Wmner.

"I told my kids that Northern's kids are really going to be fired up for this one. They'll be working hard and doing the best they can every second and we can't afford a bad letdown like the one we had a week ago," Dellerba declared.

As far as the 1960 season is concerned, Northern's line is very much used to being outweighed. The Huskies have been outweighed up front by virtually every opponent they've faced this fall.

With beefy performers like 235-pound Bill Pritchett and 220-pound Tom Elchorn on the opposite side of the line tomorrow, Northern's weight disadvantage in the forward wall will become even greater.

This is actually Northern's 2nd year of competitive football, but the two city boys could not get together on the gridiron last fall due to previous schedule commitments.

The Huskies had a remarkably successful debut in 1959, winning five out of nine games overall and posting a 3-2 record for a 2nd-place tie with Farmington.

They also had a chance to share the 14 title, but lost to champion Walled Lake in a late-season showdown.

Northern was idle last week and the Huskies are well rested for the crosstown showdown with PCH. They'll be rarin' to go.

One word best describes the week-to-week performances of the 1960 Pontiac Central and Pontiac Northern football teams—inconsistency.

Inconsistency has been the trademark of the Chiefs and the Huskies this year on the eve of their first annual intracity grid battle Friday night at Wmner Stadium.

Both teams sincerely hope to be at their best tomorrow night when they line up for the 8 o'clock kickoff in the first game of the season for each school.

The Chiefs and the Huskies have really had their ups and downs this fall.

They've been good one week, had the next and somewhere in between the two next week-factors that can in most cases be traced to the heavy use of inexperienced personnel.

The two teams have perhaps played a little better brand of football than their win-loss records would indicate, 3-3-2 for PCH and 3-4-1 for PNH, but it's that won-loss column that most everybody reads.

Central was very unimpressive in its season opener at Waterford and Paul Dellerba's grid-ders were lucky to escape with a 13-4 win over the Skippers.

They did a complete about-face the following week as they routed Wyandotte, 47-0. Admittedly, the Dotes were weak this year, but the Chief's over-all performance was still extremely sharp, especially on downfield blocking.

It was against Northern's Vikings that the Chiefs probably made their top showing of the campaign. They dropped a hard-luck 35-21 decision to the Vikings, who now are only one step removed from the Valley title, and had a fine opportunity to beat them.

With 4½ minutes of game time remaining, the Chiefs recovered a fumble on the Flint 27 and had a great chance to score and take the lead. But they fumbled the ball back to Northern three plays later and never got another good opportunity to roll.

A 7-7 deadlock with underdog Flint Southwestern appeared to take some starch out of the Chiefs and the following week they went to Bay City Central where the Wolves converted three fumbles and a pass interception into four touchdowns for a 24-13 victory.

The Chiefs played their poorest game of the year last Friday when they took a 48-13 licking from speedy Flint Central. They hope to bounce back with a vengeance against PNH tomorrow.

The use of an ineligible player forced PNH to forfeit its season opener to Lake Orion after the Huskies had defeated the Dragons, 13-7, Hazel Park, which posted an impressive 7-1-1 record this fall, had to go all out to beat the lighter Huskies, 7-0, one week later.

Northern put up a whale of a fight against Inter-Lakes co-champion Walled Lake and stayed in contention until the 3rd quarter when the Vikings, who were at peak form then, turned on the steam for a 33-14 verdict.

PNH finally broke into the victory column the next week with a 25-13 conquest of winless Farmington.

Wmner Stadium was the scene of action for the PNH-Waterford outing and the Huskies and the Skippers struggled to a hectic 20-20 tie. When the Inter-Lakes race ended, they were tied for 2nd place.

Victory No. 2 came at the expense of Berkley, 20-7, and in some ways the Huskies were very fortunate to win in a sub-par showing.

The low point of the season for the Huskies happened at Southfield where the Bluejays, hotter than a Fourth of July firecracker, handed the Huskies a whopping 52-13 pasting.

To again illustrate the inconsistency, the Huskies rebounded strongly for a convincing 32-7 rout of Rochester. Coach E. Heikkinen's return to the sidelines after recovering from surgery for a ruptured disc, may have fanned the psychological flames for PNH.

Heikkinen suffered heavy graduation losses this season and it's been a rebuilding year at PNH, the same holds true at PCH where Dellerba has been playing a large number of sophomores and juniors and the Chiefs have done much better this fall than many observers expected.

Quarterback Bruce Norton, a holdover from the 1959 team, is the slick field general who runs the PNH attack. At least seven different backs have shared ball-carrying duties for the Huskies this season, but their steadiest ground gainer has been Dave Moczarski, a 140-pound senior.

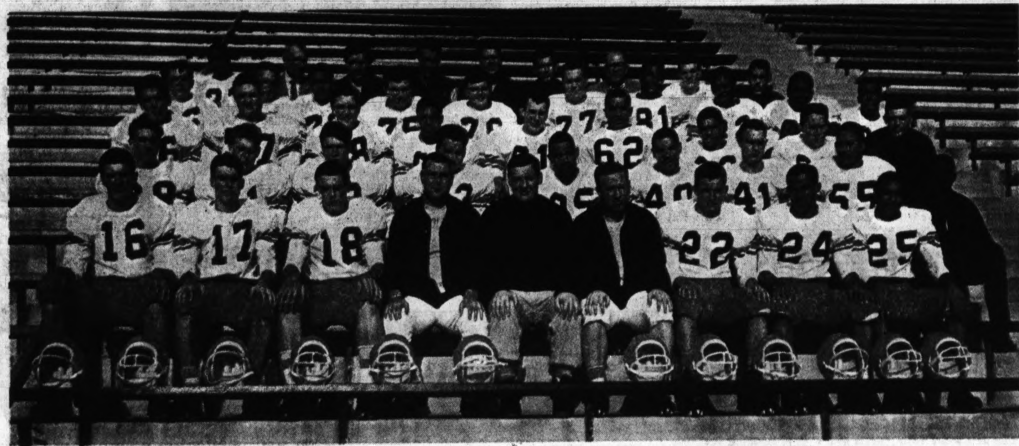

Ends Steve Thompson and Jerry Minevasser and tackle Winfred Miracle are steady performers in the PNH line.

Fight Card Completed

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Light-heavyweight Hector Flemons of Midlothian, Tex., will meet George Johnson of Oklahoma City in the second 10-round feature of a fight card here Nov. 28. Archie Moore and Buddy Turman signed earlier for a 10-round bout.

Bob Grive is in his 15th season as Syracuse University cross-country coach.

Say, this battle for the 1960 Grapevine picking title is getting closer than airdines packed tightly into a can.

With the race now nearing an end, Swami Cornwell is still clinging to the lead, but his margin has been sliced to one game by Swami Abair. Such a slim edge is anything but comfortable.

All four swamis took a look into the crystal ball this week and then unanimously picked PCH to beat PNH in their last meeting.

A brief gaffe into the magic glass also convinced the swamis that MSU and Ohio State would handle U-D and Michigan, respectively. In fact, the swamis agreed on 27 of this week's 35 games.

St. Louis Group Buys A's

CHICAGO (AP)—Target date is Monday for approval by Judge Robert J. Dunne of probate court of a final contract that would ratify the sale of the Kansas City baseball club to a St. Louis syndicate.

An order for sale of 52 per cent of the A's stock owned by the late Arnold Johnson was signed by Judge Dunne Wednesday. It was with the understanding that the St. Louis group, headed by stockbroker Elliott Stein, will arrange to acquire the other 48 per cent over the weekend.

The reported price for Johnson's 52 per cent was $1.82 million. The entire sale amounts to $3.5 million.

At St. Louis, a spokesman for the Stein group said "the obligation is on the seller (the estate)"

Michigan State Will Be Heavily Favored in Saturday Tilt

EAST LANSING (UPI) — Little David is leading his slingshot and, with the Irish courage of the fleagling growing a new set of muscles, goes out to stalk Goliath again Saturday.

David, in this re-run of the classic struggle, happens to be the University of Detroit football team which is waging war against the proud and mighty Spartans of Michigan State in a season finale here.

Unfortunately for Detroit, this time Goliath has been warmed and is anticipating trouble. The original giant, you may recall, was caught unaware.

The two teams are meeting for the first time since 1934 and in the intervening years Michigan State has grown into a football corporation of the first magnitude.

The Titans, on the other hand, have only recently begun to develop their plans for national recognition and they still have a long way to go.

On paper, where football games are seldom won, the contest strongly resembles the slaughter of the innocent. In pre-season estimates, the match was looked upon as somewhat of a joke and the general opinion was that the Spartans could chase Detroit right out of the stadium if they so desired.

But the Titans have been full of surprises all year and have compiled a remarkable record.

With an inexperienced line, a patched-up backfield and absolutely no depth, it was decided that Detroit would be lucky to play 500. The team was certainly not as good as the 1959 group which finished with a 6-4 record.

But coach Jim Miller found himself surrounded by a "bunch of kids who simply can't stand to lose" and after dropping the opener to Iowa State, they proceeded to rack up seven straight victories.

That winning streak is the longest for the Titans since 1938 when All-American Lloyd Brubaker led Detroit to its last unbeaten season. And no matter what happens here Saturday, the Titans are already assured of their finest record in two decades.

The boy wonder on the Detroit campus is a talented sophomore from Bay City, Mich., named Jerry Gross. Gross assumed the starting quarterback chores at mid-season when a knee injury knocked senior Bob Lusk out of action and he has sparked the team to its last four triumphs.

Gross' specialty is passing but, if necessary, he could also earn his keep as a runner. The 20-year-old sophomore, who saw only limited action in the first four Titan games, has compiled an offensive total of 1,104 yards, becoming the first Detroit player to gain more than 1,000 yards since Ted Marchbanks turned the trick in 1952.

But all this arithmetic hardly adds up to a victory over Michigan State which is, as usual, one of the powers of the Midwest. The Spartans enter the game with a 5-2-1 record and have lost only to powerful Ohio State and Iowa.

Furthermore, Coach Duffy Daugherty has his Goliath on game and ready for the attack.

But there is always the possibility that David could sneak a deadly pellet or two through the defense and fell the big giant.

"DAVID AND GOLIATH" — Little Jerry Gross will be in the "David and Goliath" role when he leads the University of Detroit against Michigan State Saturday at East Lansing. Gross who has started only three games since the injury to first stringer Bob Lusk, already has accumulated 1,104 yards passing and rushing and has moved Detroit to 6th place nationally in passing.

AFL Reveals Draft Plans

DALLAS (AP) — Commissioner Joe Foss announced Wednesday the American Football League will conduct a six-round player draft by telephone late this week. The remainder of the selections will be held sometime in December.

The partial draft will be conducted through league headquarters here and will be completed during the weekend. Results will be announced Monday.

Order of selection by the eight teams will follow the last-team-first system. Buffalo thus gets the first pick, followed by New York, Boston and Denver, tied with 4-5 records, will alternate at the next selection, with Oakland and Dallas to follow. Los Angeles and Houston, the leaders with 6-3 marks, will alternate in the seventh and eighth spots.

Foss said he had informed NCAA officials of the AFL's draft plans.

The commissioner said the six-

Fighters Slip Into Seclusion

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Eder Jofre of Brazil and Eloy Sanchez of Mexico slipped into semi-seclusion today to await their 15-round bantamweight title fight in the Olympic Auditorium Friday night.

The 24-year-old boxers meet for the world title as recognized by the National Boxing Association. The winner is slated to fight Alphonse Halimi of French Algeria, the European-recognized champion.

The title was vacated by Mexico's Jose Becerra last summer after Sanchez, then relatively unknown outside of Mexico, knocked him out in eight rounds in a non-title match.

Jofre, rated the No. 1 contender, figures to be about a 10-7 favorite. But Sanchez, because of his devastating knockout over Becerra will have strong support from thousands of his fellow Latinos.

SYDNEY (AP) — America's hopes of regaining the Davis Cup from Australia suffered a severe jolt Wednesday when both U.S. doubles teams were beaten in the semifinals of the New South Wales Tennis Championships, their first test of the Australian season. Barry Mackay of Dayton, Ohio, 6-4, 6-4.

and Earl Buchholz of St. Louis, considered the best American pair, took a 6-3, 6-4, 6-4 drubbing from the Australian champions, Rod Laver and Bob Marks. Australia's Neale Fraser and Roy Emerson, who hold the U.S. doubles title, thrashed Chuck McKinley of St. Louis and Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., 7-5, 2-6, 6-4, 6-4.

Wings Come From Behind to Tie, 3-3

Detroit Gains One Point on NHL Leaders

Godfrey's Goal Brings Deadlock in 3rd Period Against Maple Leafs

TORONTO (AP) — The Detroit Red Wings are creeping up on the National Hockey League leading Montreal Canadiens.

The second-place Red Wings collected another point last night — by bringing their total to 22 — by coming from behind in the third period for a 3-3 tie with the Toronto Maple Leafs.

Front — running Montreal has 23 points and a 10-33 record. Detroit is 9-8-4.

The tie put the Maple Leafs into a third place tie with the Chicago Black Hawks, who, like Montreal, were idle last night. The Leafs and Hawks each have 20 points.

Although the Red Wings out-shot and out-skated the Maple Leafs for most of the 60 minutes, they had to come from behind with a third period goal to get the draw.

Detroit's superiority was shown in the number of shots stopped. Toronto's Johnny Bower got in front of 36 as against only 22 for Hank Bassen in the Red Wing nets.

Bert Olmstead was the big man for Toronto, knocking in one goal in the first period and another in the second. Red Kelly, a former Red Wing, got the third for the Maple Leafs.

Murray Oliver collected Detroit's first tally in the first period and Norm Ullman got the second in the second stanza. The tying tally was driven in the third by Warren Godfrey.

The Red Wings swing back into action Saturday when they go to Boston for a game with the Bruins.

Hail To Reason, now retired due to a leg injury, earned $80,925 in winning the Sapling at Monmouth Park.

Pistons Snap Another Jinx

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Pistons have snapped two jinxes in two days, each by a slim one-point margin.

The Pistons edged the Boston Celtics 115-114 in an overtime game Tuesday night to collect their first victory over the Celtics in 18 games.

Last night, the Pistons eased past the Philadelphia Warriors 118-116 in a National Basketball Association game at the University of Detroit Memorial Stadium. The Warriors had found the U-D arena to their liking last season, winning both of their starts there.

The victory last night stretched Detroit's winning streak to four — they started it with two straight over the Cincinnati Royals. The loss was the third in a row for the Warriors — the Eastern Division leaders — who had launched their season in style by winning nine straight.

The Pistons held the lead for the first three periods but wilted in the fourth and fell behind when Walt (the Slim) Chamberlain hit on three baskets and a free throw to give the Warriors a 101-98 edge.

But Bailey Howell and Chuck Noble hit to put Detroit back in front and Gene Shue took over with three baskets and a foul shot in succession to lead the Pistons to victory.

Howell paced the Pistons with 30 points. Shue got 26. Chamberlain led the losers with 41 points.

The Pistons, who lost five of their first seven games, now stand 6-5 and are in second place in the Western Division, a game and a half behind St. Louis.

The Pistons and Hawks meet tonight at Philadelphia.

The pride of the Hub Bob Cousy not only contributed a game high of 30 points as Boston whipped the St. Louis Hawks, 124-106, Wednesday night, but he also stepped in to coach the Celtics for the final 18 minutes of the game.

Cousy was called on to perform this unusual task — even for him — when regular coach Red Auerbach was evicted in the third period for arguing too vehemently with referee Dick Powers.

The Celtics, who were trailing at this point, came on under Cousy's direction to take an 89-82 lead at the end of the third quarter and roll it up in the final period.

Elsewhere in the NBA, the Syracuse Nationals romped past the Cincinnati Royals, 124-97.

The Syracuse margin of victory (37 points) was the second greatest in the team's history, and it was marked by Dolph Schayes reaching the 16,000-point mark in his professional career.

One Second Left — Rangers Score Winning Goal, 4-3

By United Press International

How does a hockey player feel when he scores the winning goal with only one second to play?

That's what Dean Prentice did Wednesday night for the New York Rangers in a 4-3 victory over the Boston Bruins and it left him "all shook up."

Prentice took a lead pass from Ken Schinkel at the blue line skated to within 30 feet of the Boston cage and fired. It was a job shot that appeared to be sinking easily just as it flew past the outstretched glove of Boston goalie Don Simmons.

The New York left wing buried his stick high in the air and glanced up at the Madison Square Garden clock. It read: 15:59.

"I thought there were about 10 seconds left when I shot," Prentice said, "but I was so pooped when I took Schinkel's pass that I couldn't go any further so I just let it fly. Boy I'm all shook up over that one."

The Rangers were trailing, 2-1, at the start of the third period when Prentice yelled at linemate Johnny Wilson, "you get the tying goal and I'll get the winner."

However, Bronco Horvath's second goal of the game put the Bruins ahead 3-1 early in the final session and the Rangers appeared headed toward their sixth straight defeat.

But Camille Henry tipped in a drive by Andy Huberton at 4:03 and Schinkel tied the score with a rebound shot at 7:17 to set the stage for Prentice's winning goal.

NEW-SIZE YOU-SIZE SIXTY-ONEDERFUL CHEVY

No needless bulk or overhang here. This '61 Chevy is built on the principle that the place you want space is inside. We put it there, too. Actually trimmed the outer size to give you extra inches of clearance for parking and maneuvering, and still worked wonders with inner space. Door openings are as much as 6 inches wider. Seats are as much as 14% higher. We've thought of everything. Increased rear foot room by slenderizing the driveshaft tunnel. Worked in sensible new ideas all the way back through that huge bin of a baggage compartment. See how thoughtful this one is! Full of good new things. Full of good old things, too, like Chevy's well-known thrift and dependability. The new '61's at your Chevrolet dealer's right now.

'M' Must Overcome OSU's Mighty 1-2 Combination

Duke Draws Biggest Crowd of Year

Attendance 7-Year Low at 'M'

ANN ARBOR 10—Total football attendance at the University of Michigan this year was the lowest in seven seasons, but there is little concern over its effect on the athletic future.

University officials say the attendance drop will not have serious impact unless it continues over several seasons, and plans to prevent that have already been laid.

Pending the final audit, 376,861 persons—an average of 61,800 each weekend—attended the six home games. One must go back to 1953 to find the last season in which the turnstiles clicked less than 400,000 times.

The largest crowd, 77,183, saw Duke, a non-conference foe; the smallest was 51,336 for the Indiana game.

It was a far cry from 1959, when, with a boost from the all-time record crowd of 103,234 that saw the Michigan State game, the Wolverines attracted some 458,000 fans.

Yet U-M Athletic Director Fritz Crier says the 1960 figures are about what he expected when he set up the 1960-61 budgets.

"Projected figures indicated we might collect some $20,000 less than last year," he said, "but even with the attendance off we appear to be slightly ahead of that schedule."

"A lot of schools have similar cash problems. The economies we make now are just good business. They don't mean we are in dire financial straits."

A university's success at the gate is directly proportional to its success on the field, and U-M officials believe lean years have contributed to a slackening of fans' interest.

Over a period of several seasons it could have drastic effect on the athletic program, which is financed almost entirely by football receipts and loses money on most other sports.

This year's decline also was traceable to the fact that the MSU and Ohio State games, traditionally the biggest drawing cards, were not played at Ann-Arbor.

With a winning record, the 1960 team has buoyed hopes that Michigan is on the comeback road, to football prominence—and the surest road to financial success.

U-M officials believe, with good reason, that the attendance will improve in 1961. Michigan plays seven home games against some highly interesting opponents—UCLA, Army, MSU, Purdue, Duke, Iowa, and Ohio State.

Buckeyes Fear Michigan Hex in Annual Tilt

Matte-Ferguson Punch is Leading Offensive Pair of Big Ten

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Can the "Michigan hex" overcome Ohio State's mighty fullback-quarterback combination?

The combination of Bob Ferguson and fullback Tom Matte has rolled up plenty of statistical evidence of OSU's power.

The pair has made OSU the Big Ten's top offensive team. Ferguson, the 220-pound dreadnought, leads the conference with 480 yards rushing and has scored seven touchdowns.

Matte, the master of the option, is second in rushing with 430 yards, holds a .517 pass completion average and a 6.1 total offense record, the Big Ten's best.

But Michigan coach Bump Elliott will have the hex on his side when the Wolverines face the Buckeyes before 80,000 fans Saturday.

Michigan holds a 35-17 edge in the series and time and again a heavily favored Ohio State team has lost to an underdog Michigan. Last year, for instance, Michigan won 23-14. Wolverine faithful like to think it will happen again this year.

USC President Fears Saturation of LA by Pros

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The president of the University of Southern California says he fears for the future of collegiate athletics in Los Angeles because of the saturation of the area by professional teams.

Dr. Norman Topping pointed out that New York once had an abundance of sports attractions "and all they did was kill off each other."

"Los Angeles is going the way of New York," said the educator Wednesday. "We should take a page from history and learn."

"I am going to appeal to the Coleman Commission to extend a reduction in rental rates, starting next year."

The Trojans and UCLA pay 10 per cent for use of the Coliseum, the same as the pro teams—the Chargers, Rams, Dodgers and the proposed new American League team.

Topping says he is opposed to establishment of an American League team in Los Angeles.

Calumet Farm Winners Still Shy of Million

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—C. V. Whitney is still $339 shy of a horse racing goal reached only by the Calumet Farm.

Horses from the Calumet Farm have won more than a million dollars six separate years with a top of $1,402,436 in 1947. Whitney retired four times Wednesday at Churchill Downs to reach the coveted mark but the best he could do was $360 picked up by Tongan for finishing second. That boosted earnings of his horses for 1960 to $906,601.

Lions Back in Underdog Role Again

DETROIT (AP)—A glance at the record book shows why the odds-makers have made the Detroit Lions 6½-point underdogs in Sunday's game with the Bears at Chicago.

In 24 previous Lion-Bear meetings in Chicago, Detroit has won only six times and most of those victories were by close margins, such as 13-7 in 1958 and 20-16 in 1959.

They ever ran up was the 41-23 drubbing they gave the Bears in 1961. But that was long ago and the last time the Lions whipped the Bears was in 1957 when they took it 21-12.

DETROIT 24-14 in a battle at Briggs Stadium and 25-14 in Chicago.

4th Bowlerama Try Is for 'Big' Money

The law of averages could catch up with Pontiac Press Bowlerama veteran Frank Pavline this year.

He will be making his 4th try at winning one of the big awards as one of the early entries in the singles handicap tournament which will be held Dec. 4, 11 and 18.

Pavline, also an avid golfer who got a hole in one during the past season, has been hot each time in the early rounds. He even won a high qualifier trophy in one tourney.

"I've won my entry fee back and more each time but this time I am going for the big money," said the city post office worker today.

He has signed up to compete the opening week at Howe's Lanes figuring he can try again the following Sunday at Monticarm Centre and Sylvan Lanes. Several others have a similar plan.

Frank will head the list of several previous Bowlerama performers returning for another try. Some of those already entered are Ford Newcomb, Bill O'Brien, Terry Cantrell, Irvin Gray, Ben Gorman, Bill DeBate, Wilson Knapp and Norm Andrews.

Bob Gorman and Jay Lovett, 1-2 finishers in the actual division a year ago, will lead an expected large delegation from the Two Bowling Club.

The local group of elite fighters is aiding The Press in promoting the tournament.

ABC sanctioned bowlers throughout Oakland County are eligible to compete for the many cash prizes and trophies to be presented following the finals at Lakewood Lanes.

The top five prizes are guaranteed. They are, in order, $500, $250, $150, $125 and $100. All qualifiers for the finals will share in the purse.

U.S. Grand Prix Drivers Assemble

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP)—A score of world famous drivers led by Britain's Stirling Moss, began to assemble here today for the Grand Prix of the United States. The classic race for formula one cars will be raced at the Riverside Raceway Sunday.

A long range weather forecast gave a hint of possible rain over the weekend.

Pre-race favorite is Moss, who has already clinched the world championship.

The course measures 3.275 miles, and the race Sunday over the twisting, rather hazardous strip will consist of 75 laps.

Paret Is Ordered to Fight Jordan

NEW YORK (AP)—A U. S. District Court judge has granted an injunction ordering world welterweight champion Benny (Kid) Paret of Cuba to defend his title next against former champion Don Jordan.

What affect the order will have on the scheduled title bout between Paret and Argentina's Federico Thompson at Madison Square Garden Dec. 10 was not known immediately.

Madison Square Garden Boxing Inc., promoters of the bout, said Paret's attorney and legal counsel for the Garden planned a meeting to consider the order.

The order enjoining Paret from any fight until he meets Jordan was granted Tuesday by Judge Alexander Elicks.

Paret won the title by outpointing Jordan, of Los Angeles, in 15 rounds at Las Vegas, May 27, 1960.

Missouri, Kansas Collide
COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) — If it goes and has 25 conversions for 34 points. That's third in point-making for the Jayhawks and seventh in the conference. Suder's seven field goals for three seasons is a Kansas school record.
Both Tobin, of Maryville, Mo., and Suder, of Cincinnati, are good marksmen from as far away as 35 yards. Each has missed only three points after touchdowns this season.
While Suder began the season with the skill of an old pro, Tobin came along rapidly under the schooling of assistant coach Charlie Rash, who set a Missouri record of 50 conversions out of 55 pried from 1956 through 1958. Tobin has a string of 21 working.
The last Tiger-Jayhawk game settled by a field goal was in 1957 when Kansas' Ed Barnes split the crossbar with a short kick for a 7-0 decision.
The game will decide the Big Eight Conference championship and a Missouri victory would assure the Tigers, top-ranked in the nation, of a repeat trip to the Orange Bowl. It more than likely would also clinch the national title for them.
Missouri has won all nine of its games this season. Kansas has won six, tied one and been beaten only by Syracuse, No. 2 nationally at the time, and Iowa, then No. 1.

74 Ski Areas: New Record for State

Alpine Valley Near Pontiac New Addition

M-59 Site Becomes 7th Major Skiing Area to Go Up Near City
LANSING—Michigan will have a record 74 ski areas in operation when the first enthusiasts hit the slopes this winter, the State Tourist Council says. The total represents an increase of three over last season.
The first time anybody checked here, the council said, Michigan had the largest number of ski areas of any state east of the Rocky Mountains.
The 74 centers, listed in the council's winter vacation guide, will provide facilities for an estimated 165,000 fans who are expected to make an average of three trips each this winter and spend an estimated $17.5, exclusive of equipment.
The new areas are:
Alpine Valley, on M-59, 10 miles west of Pontiac. Plans call for four slopes up to 1,300 feet long; two T-bar lifts and six rope tows, a snow-making machine and night skiing.
Grandview Orchards, four miles north of Fenton on Fenton Road. Plans include five rope tows, a lodge, a snow-making machine and skating.
Birch Hills, six miles north of Big Rapids. Plans call for seven slopes, rope tows and a warming shelter.
The tourist council has announced improved facilities at many areas.
The growth of ski sites in the Pontiac area has boomed in the last five years. Alpine Valley becomes the seventh major skiing area near the city.
Teepie Hill in the Highland Recreation area has been in operation the longest. Of the resort type slopes however, Mt. Holly started five years ago on Dixie Highway, north of the city.
Soon, Grampan Mt. and Mt. Christie near Oxford followed, along with Summit Ski Area, between Holly and Fenton, and the Dryden Ski Area.
Snow machines will help extend the season at 12 areas. Thirty-two centers offer night skiing, the council reported.
The council said it will mail free copies of the vacation guide after Nov. 25 to those writing to its Lansing headquarters, and requesting the guide.

Cut Down Westside Classic Has 41 200s

Despite the fact four teams did not bowl this week there were 19 series over 600 and 41 games over 200 in the Westside Classic.
West Side Mobil retained its 4 point lead by winning 2 games from West Side Lanes while Blue Cleaners was winning 2 from Coca Cola. Sparks Griffin moved to 3rd place by winning 2 games from Lake Center Drugs and the Drugists dropped into a tie with Pasquale's, Biquar Inn and Coca Cola for fifth place.
Finishing the lineup this week are Oakland Coin 8th, Calbi Music, Triple X Lunch, and Tony's Rental tied for 9th place, West Side Lanes in 12th, Slaters Concrete 13th, Judah Lake Mart 14th and Hazelton Lettering and Pizzuti's tied for last spot.

Permanent Post for Michelosen

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Johnny Michelosen, head football coach at the University of Pittsburgh for almost six years, Wednesday got a permanent job at his alma mater and a salary hike, too.
"His job is just as permanent as mine," said Chancellor Edward Litchfield, referring to the indefinite, unwritten agreement between Michelosen and the university.
Litchfield added at a news conference:
"We like his (Michelosen's) loyalty to Pitt. What's more, we like him personally and so do the boys with whom he has worked. First, we're giving him an increase in pay, and second, he will no longer have to worry about contract renewals."
"He will continue to work here on the same basis as all of our other staff members, and the only bond to which he will be held is our good faith in him and his in us. And, if he ever decides to quit coaching, it will give him an opportunity for reassignment to some other university area."

Groat Is Senior Loop's MVP by Landslide Vote

BOSTON (AP) — Dick Groat, was named on 21 ballots and was captain and shortstop of the world's hard-hitting shortstop, was day was selected the National League's Most Valuable Player for 1960, ending the two-year domination of Chicago's Ernie Banks.
Groat, who led the Pirates to their first pennant in 33 years, won in a landslide.
He was named first on 16 of the 22 ballots cast by a special committee of the Baseball Writers' Association of America, was listed on every ballot. He picked up 276 points in the voting, far ahead of teammate Don Hoak, who was second with 162.
"It's a wonderful thrill, of course," the Pirates' field leader said from his home in Pittsburgh, where he quickly gave credit to the team.
"I honestly feel it wouldn't have been possible without the fabulous year enjoyed by the Pirates. Just to play on the club was great, just great. It was a wonderful team effort and it was just a part of it."
He was the first Pirate named to the coveted award since the writers took over the selection in 1931. And his teammates drew all the other first place votes. Hoak getting five and strong-armed outfielder Roberto Clemente one. Clemente finished eighth in the voting.

M-59 Site Becomes 7th Major Skiing Area to Go Up Near City
LANSING—Michigan will have a record 74 ski areas in operation when the first enthusiasts hit the slopes this winter, the State Tourist Council says. The total represents an increase of three over last season.
The first time anybody checked here, the council said, Michigan had the largest number of ski areas of any state east of the Rocky Mountains.
The 74 centers, listed in the council's winter vacation guide, will provide facilities for an estimated 165,000 fans who are expected to make an average of three trips each this winter and spend an estimated $17.5, exclusive of equipment.
The new areas are:
Alpine Valley, on M-59, 10 miles west of Pontiac. Plans call for four slopes up to 1,300 feet long; two T-bar lifts and six rope tows, a snow-making machine and night skiing.
Grandview Orchards, four miles north of Fenton on Fenton Road. Plans include five rope tows, a lodge, a snow-making machine and skating.
Birch Hills, six miles north of Big Rapids. Plans call for seven slopes, rope tows and a warming shelter.
The tourist council has announced improved facilities at many areas.
The growth of ski sites in the Pontiac area has boomed in the last five years. Alpine Valley becomes the seventh major skiing area near the city.
Teepie Hill in the Highland Recreation area has been in operation the longest. Of the resort type slopes however, Mt. Holly started five years ago on Dixie Highway, north of the city.
Soon, Grampan Mt. and Mt. Christie near Oxford followed, along with Summit Ski Area, between Holly and Fenton, and the Dryden Ski Area.
Snow machines will help extend the season at 12 areas. Thirty-two centers offer night skiing, the council reported.
The council said it will mail free copies of the vacation guide after Nov. 25 to those writing to its Lansing headquarters, and requesting the guide.

Cut Down Westside Classic Has 41 200s

Despite the fact four teams did not bowl this week there were 19 series over 600 and 41 games over 200 in the Westside Classic.
West Side Mobil retained its 4 point lead by winning 2 games from West Side Lanes while Blue Cleaners was winning 2 from Coca Cola. Sparks Griffin moved to 3rd place by winning 2 games from Lake Center Drugs and the Drugists dropped into a tie with Pasquale's, Biquar Inn and Coca Cola for fifth place.
Finishing the lineup this week are Oakland Coin 8th, Calbi Music, Triple X Lunch, and Tony's Rental tied for 9th place, West Side Lanes in 12th, Slaters Concrete 13th, Judah Lake Mart 14th and Hazelton Lettering and Pizzuti's tied for last spot.

LAFAYETTE, La. (AP) — Billy Casper of Apple Valley, Calif., ruled as the favorite as play started today in the $15,000 Cajun Classic golf tournament here. Casper, the 1959 U.S. Open winner, won here last year. He has won the last three tournaments he has entered, the Portland, Ore., Open, the Hesperia, Calif., Open and the Orange County, Calif., Open.
Casper faces a tough field including the two hometown favorites, Lionel and Jay Hebert. Other leading contenders include Doug Sanders of Ojai, Calif.; Pete Cooper of Dorado Beach, P.R.; Marty Furgol of Ojai, Calif.; and Frank Wharton of Dallas, who shot a 65 Wednesday to win a one-day pro-amateur competition here.
Par on the 6,531-yard Oakbourne Country Club course is 71.

Develop Skills While in Prison

Jail Job Training Aids Parolees

LANSING (UPI)—Going to jail gets a better job for many Michigan convicts.

In fact, employers sometimes come looking for inmates with special skills they have learned or developed while in prison. William F. Eardley, director of pardons and paroles for the Corrections Department, said some of the men stop out of prison into very good jobs.

"Even when times are rough, we can generally find some kind of job for a man to do," Eardley said.

A grass-roots sales pitch by parole officers in the field is the best tool the department has for men about to be paroled—and even for those finishing up a maximum sentence with no time off for good behavior.

"Every parole officer is interested in this because we often have virtually homeless men who have to find a place in society," Eardley said.

"We keep our hands on the employment pulse, so to speak," he said. "Part of our sales pitch is that when a man comes out of prison and gets a job, the employer knows exactly what his background is."

"That's not always true with a man coming in off the street," Eardley said.

CONTROL PAROLEE

The control exercised by the Corrections Department over a man on parole is often a selling point to a prospective employer, Eardley said. If a man doesn't show up for work, chances are his parole officer can locate him.

"And we never misrepresent a man. If he's a bad actor, we say so," Eardley said. "But we also point out what the man can do and any special skills he has."

The training and placement work like this:

When a man is sent to prison, he is assigned to a counselor. This official, and others like him, work with the inmate right up to his discharge day, the inmate is encouraged to keep in contact with the outside world.

Particularly, he is helped to keep in touch with any job contracts he might have.

In prison, he's given a job that suits his special skills, if he has any and if it's possible, and if not, he's trained in one of the prison industries or some other kind of training program.

About 90 days before the inmate is scheduled to go before the parole board, the man is "pushed" to further job contracts, Eardley said.

A job offer is helpful—but not essential—when the parole board studies the man's case. If no offer can be obtained, but a parole is arranged anyway, the man goes to a parole camp near the prison to await placement.

TRAINED FOR FUTURE

"The idea of prison industries is to train inmates so they can get an honest-to-gosh job on the outside," a corrections official said.

The Michigan State Employment Service, and private employment agencies, cooperate with the Corrections Department in helping

Water-Loving Chap Moves From Canoe to Excursion Boat

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI)—Tom Meanley, a lover of water sports, has moved from a lowly canoe to owner of the Memphis Queen, a 256-passenger Mississippi River excursion boat.

Ever since Meanley moved South from the West Coast, he has had his heart set on a big boat. But he didn't have the money then.

Meanley, a reporter, tells it in simple words:

"I tried to get rich farming. I lost money farming, but every time I'd sold out, I'd make money on the land because I never bought anything but cheap land."

Meanley is the grandson of E. W. Scripps, the founder of Scripps-Howard newspapers. He worked as a copy boy on the San Diego Star in 1937, and later joined the editorial staff of the El Paso Herald-Post, moving to the Memphis Press-Scimitar here in 1940.

BOUGHT LAND

Editor Edward J. Meeman assigned Meanley to the farming beat, and he became absorbed in his work that he bought land to do his own farming while not writing news stories.

Meanley spent his early years on a cattle ranch in the San Diego River Valley, which he owned frequently, he said. Then, he had his first taste of water sports.

When he came here, Meanley bought a canoe to explore all the little streams around Memphis.

Writing water sport stories, he campaigned for a boat ramp for small boats in the city's new industrial harbor, and the ramp was built.

"So I had to buy a bigger boat, an outboard motor boat," he said, "to take advantage of all the work I put into getting that boat ramp built."

Then, Meanley's river exploring got ambitious. He and his wife Card made a 500-mile trip down the Tennessee, Ohio and Mississippi Rivers. The next year the Meanleys negotiated a 1,600 mile trip from Memphis to Clearwater, Fla.

"The boat was not very comfortable," Meanley said, "so early this year we bought a bigger outboard boat—and tried to do the Bahamas."

Meanley's navigation wasn't good. He missed his first island by 12 miles and had to radio the Coast Guard for directions.

In covering water sports, Meanley became friends with Capt. Ed Langford of the Memphis Queen, which has a dummy paddlerhead that looks like the real thing.

It was on Labor Day that Meanley dropped in on Langford at his boat on the Mississippi. As usual, Meanley says Langford was full of news, "but he was looking pretty bad."

"This is strictly off the record," the captain told Meanley. "I'll tell you if you'll promise to keep it to yourself. I'm going to the hospital for an operation. The doctor says if I come through all right, I'll still have to take it easy for a long time. I'm going to sell the Memphis Queen."

Meanley's first thought was to try to find some Memphis interests who would buy the boat and keep it going because the boat was too valuable to the city four-tourist to lose.

It took Meanley 30-days to get the necessary cash to buy the boat, and in early October, Meanley wrote the story for his newspaper that he was now the owner of the Memphis Queen.

Meanley's project right now, is to learn how to pilot the big boat and get his license.

He's holding on to his newspaper on weekends.

"If you ask me, the question is not where civilization began, but when will it."

Bob Hope's Ex-Partner From Vaudeville Dies

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Funeral service was conducted today for Charles Cooley, 87, former vaudeville partner and lifelong friend of Bob Hope.

Cooley, who died Monday, attended grammar school with Hope in Cleveland and later they formed a vaudeville act.

When Hope signed a Hollywood contract, Cooley became his secretary and adviser.

PET DOCTOR

By A. W. Moller, D.V.M.

Q. My 9-month-old poodle has developed a mean streak. Can this be corrected? —Mrs. Bergman, St. Louis.

A. Although physical and mental factors could be involved, I'm hesitant to advise you without seeing your dog. We used to believe in the old cliché "there's no such thing as a mean dog"; the master stood solely responsible for his dog's behavior.

It's my belief that as certain breeds become fads, some breeders literally run "puppy factories" to keep up with popular demand and there is little regard for inbreeding or culling out the undesirable.

Your poodle's ancestors are known to be among the most friendly, lovable dogs, but as with people, there are natural outlaws and incorrigibles.

Discuss your problem with a veterinarian or recognized dog trainer. There may be a simple remedy, or the streak could be hopelessly ingrained. In the latter case, I'm afraid the dog should be separated from human companionship.

Battle Creek Takes In Suburb, Hires Police

BATTLE CREEK (U)—Suburban Springfield has been rubbed off the map by annexation and most of its former six-man police force was sworn in Wednesday as a new group of Battle Creek officers.

Five officers took the oath at Battle Creek as probationary city employees. A sixth was absent because of illness.

The action followed a Battle Creek City Commission meeting at which a resolution was adopted by the city to appoint all the former suburb's police and firemen on a probationary basis.

Mayor Raymond Turner also explained that the city filed papers with the secretary of state's office completing the annexation of Springfield to Battle Creek as a result of the Nov. 8 elections.

Battle Creek's action assumes all assets and liabilities of the former suburb of 4,600 persons in an area of about 2½ square miles. The proposal was passed by a large majority of voters in both cities.

Springfield city attorney Joseph V. Wilcox claims the action is invalid.

He argues that the election was void on grounds that there is no authority in state law for one city to annex another. Wilcox contends one city may consolidate with another after abolishing their separate entities to form a new unit. He said, however, he has been given no authority to pursue his objections.

Put the Fat Man in Aid Parade

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—It is time the federal government did something to help the fat man.

As it is now, nobody does much for the fat man except jeer him.

"Hi, Tubby," they say, poking him in the stomach. "Aren't you putting on a little weight?"

Yet fat people are vital to the American economy. Since we have some 25 to 30 million overweight people, they outnumber farmers or manufacturers by a large margin.

PERIODIC WARNING ONLY AID

Congress regularly rushes to the rescue of the farmer with crop benefit payments and to the aid of the manufacturer with protective tariffs.

But the only government help fat people get is a periodic warning from the U.S. Public Health Service that if they don't lose weight they probably won't live as long.

This is not enough. If fat people are a great natural resource and they are—they should be treated as such. The government should encourage them to reduce by offering them solid inducements, just as it helps the farmer and the manufacturer and the oil well owners.

For example, why not a fat depletion allowance on your income tax?

Under this plan your doctor would indicate how much overweight you were, and give you a diet.

Then when you went to pay your income tax, the collector would give you a 1% reduction for each pound you have lost, in recognition of your valiant and patriotic effort to save a worthwhile part of America—namely yourself.

OTHER INDUCEMENTS

Other inducements, of course are possible. Since obesity has been medically found to be harder to cure over a period of years than cancer, any fat man

Nikita May Turn Out 'Friend,' Says Expert

By HARRY J. REED
Managing Editor, The Pontiac Press

WILLIAMSBURG, Va.—Despite his shot-thumping antics in the United Nations, Nikita Khrushchev may be one of this nation's "friends" in the long run, an Associated Press foreign specialist told assembled managing editors of the nation's newspapers yesterday.

For if Nikita loses his constant battle with the Chinese Reds to achieve world domination for communism by peaceful methods, instead of the violent way the Chinese prefer, the third and final World War may be much closer.

AP writer William L. Ryan spoke on "Russian Tactics: From Cuba to the UN" as part of a report on Communist world pressure.

Ryan said Khrushchev was arguing the philosophy of domination with the Chinese leaders all the time, and any possible change in leadership in the Kremlin would probably be for the worst.

"The Chinese say the formula for conquest is violence, and the methods are not weapons, but manpower. Their creed is based on the premise that a revolution must have violence, and they have surely complained to the Russians about missing opportunities to create violence," Ryan said.

Far-ranging reporter Ryan said the Reds, passing up chances for peace, as they did when they told the Communist party in Iraq to back off in 1949, rather than risk starting a war in the Middle East, may be damaging to Nikita and his supporters.

"Old guard Stalinists, and there are still some around in Russia, may get back into power if Khrushchev falls, and it would be worse for us if they did," he added.

The foreign-affairs expert who has covered the world's trouble spots for the AP said that Khrushchev will seek a summit session with Kennedy, and may precipitate a crisis (possibly over Berlin) to bring about the meeting.

This is to show the Chinese that he can achieve their common goal with his method.

Ryan warned that hoping the split between the Russians and the Chinese would help us a great deal is probably wishful thinking.

Absentee Votes Win It for Nixon in California

Victory Stirs Rumors That He May Campaign for Governor's Seat

SAN FRANCISCO (U)—Absentee ballots spelled victory for Richard M. Nixon today in the tight race for California's 32 electoral votes, and heightened the vice president's prestige in his home state.

Switching the statewide unofficial count from the Democratic column did not alter the election of Democratic Sen. John F. Kennedy. But it choked off opposition gibes that Nixon couldn't even carry his native area.

Edging out the victory means that, although Nixon may have lost the big one, he has never been beaten in his home state.

Political experts already have predicted he might run against Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown in 1968. Nixon has said nothing of his future plans, but Brown declared that if such a prediction were correct, the vice president would be a formidable opponent.

Kennedy's nationwide popular vote lead has now been shaved to less than 200,000.

But even without Nixon's home state, Kennedy still is assured of 306 electoral votes, 31 more than the minimum needed for election.

Nixon also picked up votes Wednesday in official canvasses in Florida and North Carolina. Kennedy gained some in an official count in Indiana. These changes affected only the nationwide popular vote count.

The count this way today: Kennedy, 33,671,479; Nixon, 33,674,382.

Kennedy's margin at this point was 197,097 votes out of more than 67 1/2 million counted so far. His plurality figured at $6.19 per vote or 49.45 for Nixon.

Only 1,549 of the nation's voting precincts are still untabulated. Kennedy could well wind up with less than a majority of all votes cast Nov. 4, counting minor party votes, even if he still led Nixon by a paper-thin margin.

A state of unpledged electors in Mississippi rolled up 109,400 votes. Most minor party votes still are not tabulated, but incomplete returns from six states show a total of about 72,000.

Unofficial returns in California from all but 10,000 of 225,000 absentee ballots counted eight days after the polls closed gave the Republican presidential nominee a lead of 15,100.

He had trailed Kennedy throughout the regular count, but the absentee tally was: Nixon 132,186; Kennedy 94,458.

These gave Nixon a total of 3,229,211 to 3,208,631 for Kennedy. The uncounted 20,000 were mainly in Republican strongholds of San Diego and Orange Counties.

Called Greatest Movie Actor; Was Only 59

Suffered Heart Attack; Best Known as 'Rebel' in Gone With Wind

By JAMES BACON
HOLLYWOOD (U)—The king is dead!

Clark Gable, greatest star of them all, dropped his head back on a pillow late Wednesday night and died of a heart attack.

The end came so fast that his doctor said there was no pain—just a few gasps. A few seconds before he had been asleep. A nurse in his room heard the gasps and shouted across the hall to Mrs. Gable who had moved into Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital when Gable, 59, was taken there after his first heart attack Nov. 6.

Irretrievably, death came after his best day since that first attack. He had eaten heartily of dinner, took a little snooze afterwards and then chatted happily with his wife. He had even been shaved.

When Kay, his fifth wife, noticed him dozing again, she retired to her room across the hall. She was barely settled when she heard the nurse cry: "Come quick!"

TIE KING IS DEAD
Thus ended the 30-year reign of the king of Hollywood. Sadly, he never will see his first child due in March.

His impending fatherhood was the topic of his last conversation with his wife—and many earlier talks with her and others.

"He was more concerned about the effect of his illness on me and the baby than he was about himself," Kay said.

Gable had no previous history of heart trouble when the coronary thrombosis hit him at his 20-acre Encino ranch that Sunday morning 11 days ago.

The thrombosis, under heavy sedation, was bearing up as well as could be expected under the shock. A nurse and her brother took her home in the middle of the night.

I was the last newspaperman to talk to him. It was Friday, Nov. 4. He had just one more scene to shoot in a station wagon with Marilyn Monroe for "The Misfit."

"How ya, grandpa?" he grinned at me. I kidded him back: "What's that? I need to be a fan of yours when I went to high school?"

Whites Boycott Mixed Schools

Hogarty Tells Newsman No Plan to Send In Federal Troops

NEW ORLEANS (U)—The white boycott of one of the city's two newly integrated public schools appeared total today when only three Negro first graders turning out for classes.

The Negro girls entered McDonogh No. 19 at 8:44 a.m., accompanied by six federal marshals. No white students entered the school today.

A handful of white spectators jeered when they arrived, but the number was far smaller than was present during the first three days of integration.

The Negro girls attending the William Frantz School arrived at 8:15 a.m., accompanied by six federal marshals. Only a handful of spectators were on hand to jeer.

Only three white children attended Frantz today. The city remained tense after Wednesday's demonstrations by 1,000 or more truant teenagers.

At Augusta, Ga., a White House spokesman said today it has no knowledge of any plans to send federal troops to New Orleans to help control demonstrators protesting school desegregation.

Press secretary James C. Hogarty emphasized this in answer to a reporter who told him there were growing rumors that troops might intervene.

Hogarty said "The President is keeping in close touch with the situation, and that is all I have to say."

Hawaii to Nixon by 141

HONOLULU (UP)—Richard M. Nixon Wednesday was officially declared the winner of Hawaii's first presidential election by a scant 141 votes. Both parties have agreed to a recount, however, which could change the tally in either direction.

Ike to Confer on Recall of Overseas Dependents

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower arranged to meet with his top National Security Council today as a follow-up to emergency moves to cut spending overseas by a billion dollars a year.

The new government - led drive to bolster American gold and dollar resources seemed likely to dominate the President's conference with 14 of the administration's financial, military and foreign policy chiefs.

But a global foreign policy review also was reported on the confidential agenda, with accord on developments in Algeria and the Cuban area.

Eisenhower served notice he expects major assistance from wealthy European allies in helping the United States halt flow of gold and dollars to overseas markets.

To underscore the seriousness of the financial situation, Eisenhower ordered the Defense Department to bring home some 250,000 dependents of U. S. military forces around the world starting Jan. 1.

The President's drastic move seemed aimed at jolting European allies into action within the next few months.

The President coupled this with a strong hint that sometime in the future Western European troops would have to replace the six divisions of American troops that have remained in Europe since the end of World War II.

"I think we should never want to reduce our forces so far that people would think we had abandoned the area, or we had lowered our flag in that area—not at all," the President said. "But I do think that the time is coming when all of us will have to study very carefully what should be our proper portion of the load."

American troops and wives—in Britain, Germany and elsewhere, moaned today over the news.

At least part of the reduction will be obtained by cutting down on the number of dependents sent with new men replacing those rotated home.

"I don't like it at all if it's just dependents. That's me going back by myself with five kids," said the wife of an army warrant officer at Hanau, Germany.

Another mother said "sure it costs more to send dependents over here but few of us have permanent homes in the United States. It would be an undue hardship on us to make us stay there when our husbands are abroad."

He also ordered all government agencies to cut down overseas spending.

Violators Beware

Teen Court's in Session

By DICK SAUNDERS
The judge had no gavel, but he had the biggest jury in any Pontiac courtroom this year.

That was the situation as the Oakland County Teen-Age Traffic Court began its third year of operation yesterday.

The courtroom was that of Municipal Court Judge Maurice E. Flanagan.

The judge was Ralph Lane, 18, of 3415 Silver Creek, Waterford Township, a senior at St. Michael's High School.

The jury numbered about 60 students from Pontiac High Schools.

Carole Hoyt, 17, a senior at St. Frederick High School, was the jury foreman.

Martin Soudanis, 17, a Pontiac Northern High School senior, held forth as court recorder.

His Deer's a Dear, He Lets It Go

By DON VOGLER
Outdoor Writer, Pontiac Press

HALE—Michael Kimmerer got his first deer Wednesday afternoon, but he couldn't keep it.

The 14-year-old Drayton Plains boy was on his first deer hunt with his father Melvin C. Kimmerer of 3949 Barkman St., and his brother Melvin Jr. were driving through a cedar swamp near Sage Lake, seven miles southwest of Hale in Ogemaw County.

"This little fawn jumped out of the trees in front of us," said Mike. "It couldn't run very well and we had no trouble catching it after a little way."

When the Kimmerers examined the fawn, they found it had a broken front leg. They turned it loose. "I doubt if the fawn will get through the winter," said Mike. "We thought about taking it with us, but changed our minds."

Some members in the group had killed a deer, but the fawn could have been legally killed.

"That fawn was the only deer we saw today," the father said. "My brother Cliff missed a nice specimen this morning."

"No one has connected in our party," he said.

The story is about the same through the St. Helen-Wood Branch area.

John Daly Resigns Post*Hagerty Silent on Job as Head of ABC News

NEW YORK (U) — White House indicated his job as ABC vice president Secretary James C. Hagerty earned him around $50,000 annually.

Hagerty would take over as vice president in charge of the American Broadcasting Company's news and public affairs department.

Veteran broadcaster John Daly resigned the post Wednesday, and his resignation was promptly accepted by ABC.

Officially, ABC would make no comment on reports that Hagerty would take over Daly's position after his duties ended with the Eisenhower administration.

At President Eisenhower's vacation headquarters in Augusta, Ga., Hagerty said only, "When I have any announcement about my future plans, I'll let you know."

Daly, a top executive with ABC the past seven years, submitted his resignation to be effective in one month. His role as moderator of the Columbia Broadcasting System's "What's My Line?" will not be affected.

Daly said he was quitting ABC because of a "fundamental difference on policy" with ABC President Leonard Goldenson.

ABC said only that Daly's resignation had been accepted and announced the temporary appointment of Thomas Yelton, vice president in charge of special affairs for the ABC news and public affairs department.

Daly was said to have opposed the showing by ABC of a "Bugs Bunny" film and "The Rifleman" early on election night while other networks were concentrating on election returns.

He reportedly submitted his resignation after the network had revealed plans to show a program on Cuba Dec. 7 in its "Crosby" series, a program produced by Robert Drew, a producer of film for the broadcast division of Time, Inc.

Daly was said to have felt strongly that all programs in the news and public affairs area should be under the control of the network's own employees.

ABC said the idea for the program on Cuba, to be called "Yanqui, No," was entirely its own and from the outset ABC has had complete creative and editorial control over the production of this program. ABC plans similar creative and editorial control over every element of every show in this series.

Daly's yearly income from all his broadcasting activities has been estimated in industry circles at about $50,000. The same sources

Irish TV Chief Will Avoid U. S. Commercial Clip

DUBLIN (UPI) — Ireland's new television chief said Wednesday he hopes to avoid the mistakes of American television when he launches the republic's own TV service next year.

James Edward Roth, 38-year-old Irish-American appointed director general of the television authority, told a news conference that "over-commercialization" was the biggest fault of U.S. television.

"In the United States, the sponsors exercise a tremendous influence on the program," he said. "And we don't intend that that should happen here."

Roth said current plans call for at least six hours a day on the air by next November. He added that he was "very optimistic" about the future of Irish television and predicted that the new Irish service would win over at least 60 per cent of the British Broadcasting Corporation's Irish viewers "within two or three months."

Says Campaign Much Too Long

U. of M. Man Thinks Period Between Vote, Inauguration Needs Ax

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — George Peek, a political scientist at the University of Michigan, said today he believes presidential campaigns and the period between the election and inauguration of a new president are too long.

Peek said campaigns should last no longer than a month.

He also said the present period of about 45 days between the election and inauguration of a President creates problems in the field of international relations.

Peek said he believed it would be an improvement if the "electors" chosen for the electoral college were eliminated since they are "free agents" and conceivably could cast a state's votes in contradiction of the popular vote in that state.

One possibility for changing the system, he said, might be to distribute the state's electoral votes according to the same percentages won by the candidates in a state's popular vote.

Stolen Pineapple Not Big Enough for Conviction

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The U.S. government has failed in an attempt to prosecute a longshoreman on charges he pilfered a 57-cent pineapple.

Wiley Nispy, 46, was accused of taking the pineapple while working on the waterfront. In an effort to convict him, the government called in the FBI and seven witnesses during the two-day trial.

U.S. Commissioner Joseph Karson Tuesday said the evidence was not sufficient to meet the high standards required for a conviction and ordered the defendant acquitted.

The government had said it was pressing the case as an example to other would-be pilferers among the waterfront workers.

Nispy, who had faced a possible six-month jail sentence, claimed that the pineapple was given him by a sailor named "Jiggs." Upon his acquittal his only comment was "They spoiled my pineapple."

State Counselors Elect Grand Rapids President

EAST LANSING (AP) — Donald Fink of Grand Rapids was elected president of the Michigan Counselors Association at the annual meeting of high school counselors and college counselors and guidance directors at Michigan State University.

He succeeds Kenneth Parker of Clawson. Marshall Moser of Grosse Pointe Woods was named president-elect.

Special Day Marked Here by League

The Urban League of Pontiac is observing Saturday as "Equal Opportunity Day."

Mayor Philip E. Rowston signed a proclamation for the league, urging citizens to note the national observance.

Marking the 97th anniversary of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, Nov. 19 was chosen by the league because of Lincoln's close association with the cause of freedom for all.

It is the fifth year the Urban League of the United States is marking the observance, said Arnold M. Dorcas, Pontiac director.

NOT COLLAR — Edith Rose ends a pain in the neck with this new electric heat collar in Chicago. It holds the neck while administering therapeutic heat to relieve pain of arthritis, strained or dislocated vertebrae and neck tension from headache.

U.S. Ambassador Stoned in Bolivia

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP) — U. S. Ambassador Carl Strom and his party are reported to have been stoned at, insulted and stoned in the City of Cochabamba Sunday night.

The newspaper Presencia said Strom went to Cochabamba in Central Bolivia to lecture at San Simon State University but never made the talk because leftists threw tear gas bombs into the auditorium. Leftists had spent the day whipping up anti-American feeling in the city.

The Presencia Dispatch said a Bolivian was injured when the crowd threw stones at the ambassador's party, and the diplomats were pursued with stones for one-quarter of a mile after having been denied taxi service.

Post Office Jobs for Yule Season Already Filled

If you've been thinking about applying for a job during the Christmas rush at the Pontiac Post Office, you might as well forget it.

According to Pontiac Postmaster William W. Donaldson, the 500 application cards issued this month were gone in "a few days."

"Of the 500 applicants, we will probably hire about 250," he explained.

First choice goes to persons on the Civil Service register, then veterans.

Jobs will run roughly from Dec. 12 to 24, Donaldson said.

The clerks will start work a few days before the carriers and will be through a few days before Christmas. Carriers will probably work right up to Dec. 24, the postmaster explained.

Three per cent of American families have an annual income of $500 or less.

ators Plan ights Laws

Case Says Bipartisan Group to Start Work
1st Day of Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., said today a bipartisan Senate group will start maneuvering the first day of the new Congress to enact civil rights legislation.

Case told reporters he and other Republicans who want broader federal laws to protect rights of Negroes and other minorities will develop their strategy in meetings here next month. He said they are planned to reach an alliance with Northern Democratic Senators sharing their views.

The first move, he said, will be to challenge as soon as Congress convenes Jan. 3 a Senate rule adopted early in 1958. It provides that a time limit on Senate debate — death knell to a filibuster — can be imposed by not less than two-thirds of those present and voting.

Win or lose on that issue, Case said, the group will press later for legislation to fulfill civil rights campaign pledges in the Republican and Democratic platforms.

Case expressed confidence President-elect John F. Kennedy will throw his weight behind the drive for more civil rights legislation. "I would be surprised and deeply disappointed if he did not," the Senator said.

The provision under which a two-thirds vote is needed to limit debate also declares that all Senate rules remain in effect from session to session unless changed by two-thirds vote.

Case said he and others will argue that the Senate rules expire with each Congress, just as the House rules do. He claimed the Senate has an inherent right to adopt new rules by majority vote at the start of each Congress session. This would make it easier to write a rule less stringent than the provision for a two-thirds majority now required to limit debates.

Yule Log Tradition

In the earliest days of Yule log fires, the new log was always lit with the charred remains of the log from the previous year. Thus good luck was carried over to the new.

engrossed in some of the lighter phases of American reading. The boys are members of the Digidal Sakyapa family, Tibet refugees brought to Seattle from Calcutta, India, to aid the university in a 3-year project to set up a Tibetan language culture course.

Red China 3rd in Submarines

20 Russian Craft Put Ally Ahead of England,
Says U.S. Admiral

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — With more than 20 modern submarines transferred from the Soviet Union, Communist China now has the third largest undersea fighting force in the world, says the commander of U.S. antisub forces in the Pacific.

"And China is starting to build its own submarines," said Vice Adm. John S. Thach, Jr. at a news conference. He is here to address the Naval Reserve Association convention.

Both Chinese and Soviet subs operate out of mainland Chinese bases, he said. He listed the Soviet Union as first in submarine strength with 450. The United States is second, he said, but gave no overall figures.

Red China's submarine force is stronger than Britain's, he asserted. When reporters asked him to clarify this, citing Jane's Fighting Ships which lists the royal navy with 50 subs, Thach merely repeated: "China is stronger than Britain in subs."

11 States to Hold Key to Elections

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The reapportionment of House seats gives 11 states power to elect a president in 1964, no matter how the other 39 vote.

The next election will be the first since 1890 which could be won by carrying fewer than a dozen states. A minimum of 12 states was needed to put together the winning majority of electoral votes in last Tuesday's election.

House seats were reallocated among the states this week to reflect population changes since the last census was taken 10 years ago. Nine states gained and 16 lost in the reshuffle.

This affected the 1964 presidential contest because the states get one electoral vote for each House member and senator.

Had the revisions been made in advance of last Tuesday's presidential balloting, it would not have changed the result except to make the margin a little closer.

Here are the 11 states and their 1964 electoral votes which total 268, a bare majority of the 535 that will be needed to win.

New York, 33; California, 40;

Pennsylvania, 20; Illinois, 26; Ohio, 26; Texas, 25; Michigan, 21; New Jersey, 17; Massachusetts and Florida, 14; and either Indiana or North Carolina, 13.

OUTRAGED — U.S. Sen. Russell Long of Louisiana told the state legislature Wednesday he would be willing "to impeach the entire U.S. Supreme Court if my vote would do it." The legislature is meeting in special session seeking to block the court-ordered school integration which began in New Orleans Monday.

Plans to Introduce Bill for School Aid

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. Frank Thompson Jr., D-N.J., said Wednesday he would introduce a school-aid bill carrying out recommendations of the Democratic platform and President-Elect John F. Kennedy when Congress reconvenes on Jan. 3.

Thompson said he would work with Sen. E. Lee Metcalf, D-Mont., in drafting the bill and expected Metcalf to offer it in the Senate on the opening day of the new session.

The bill will call for federal aid to the states for both school construction and teachers' salaries. Although Thompson has set no price tag on the measure, the cost was expected to run at least one billion dollars per year.

Both Thompson and Metcalf, now a House member, have been leaders in the fight for federal school aid legislation.

Music on Tap Strikes Sour Note in Bathtub

MIDLAND, Tex. (UPI) — Mrs. Virginia Kimmey was so startled when music started coming out of the hot water tap, she didn't flush her bath.

It happened Tuesday while she was hasty scrubbing away in the solitude of her bathroom.

Suddenly, from the faucet came the faint but distinct sound of music from a Midland radio station.

Engineers at the station said a freak signal was caused the metal faucet to pick up the music.

CHICAGO (UPI) — Recorded crime in Chicago has increased 83.7 per cent in the first 10 months of 1960, police statistics indicated Wednesday.

Officials refused to guess how much the increase was due to a higher crime rate and how much to improved police record-keeping.

Malcolm Dizer a Knowing Collector

He's an Expert on U. N. Stamps

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—Malcolm Dizer travels far and wide on a postage stamp. Very often it is a United Nations one.

A 73 years old, he rises early in his small room high up in New York's Tudor City and tackles his project. He works uninterrupted into midafternoon, when he pauses to a leisurely home-cooked steak preceded by one cocktail. Then he goes back to work.

Sometimes one of Malcolm Dizer's friends telephones and asks, "Malcolm, which life are you in these days?"

It has gotten to be a joke between them, because Malcolm Dizer already has retired from one long life as a businessman, a second as a seafaring man, and is now well into his third as a philatelist.

Or perhaps his fourth, since collecting and selling stamps has made it possible for him to travel abroad with Billy Graham on some of his crusades. He is a great admirer of Billy Graham and accompanied him on his Australian and African tours.

Living next door to the U.N., Dizer has meticulously collected and studied all of the more than 80 postage stamps which the United Nations has issued since the start of its postal administration in 1961 — the first postal service ever set up by an international organization.

From a philatelist's viewpoint, Dizer says, U.N. stamps are among the most artistically designed and expertly printed in the world. A few of the commemorative U.N. stamps are highly prized by collectors and have interesting stories behind them.

RIGHTS STAMP VALUED
The most valuable of them, in Dizer's estimation, is one which was issued by the U.N. to honor Human Rights Day on Dec. 10, 1954, in denominations of three and eight cents. It portrays a woman with bent head, clasping a child to her bosom.

Shortly after the U.N.'s supply of the three-cent denomination was exhausted (a one-million printing), this stamp's retail dealer price rose unusually until in 1963 it was listed in the Scott catalog at $12.

Several years ago, a wealthy but ailing New York man gave his nurse 100 sheets of 50 each of the mother and child stamp. The nurse, knowing nothing about the value of stamps, tucked them away in her apartment. One day she turned in to a television program on rare stamps which mentioned the mother and child stamps. She took her 100 sheets to a dealer who offered her $40,000 for them.

Dizer thinks one reason why this human rights stamp became so popular is that many people associated its picture with the madonna and Christ-child, although it was not intended to represent them, and bought it in preference to other U.N. stamps.

When collectors began to seek it, dealers had very few in their possession.

U.N. stamp designs are selected through worldwide competitions, in which artists of many nationalities have won prizes. Good designs are difficult to achieve because they must include around the border as many of the five official U.N. languages (English, French, Russian, Spanish and Chinese) as can be fitted in.

Also, the judges have to consider the political and religious implications of every design submitted, so as not to favor any one culture, religion or race. The dove, for example, would never appear on a U.N. stamp as a symbol of peace, since it is not everywhere accepted as such.

Congress to Act on VIP Funds

New York City After Cash to Defray Costs of U.N. Visitors

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The next Congress will be asked to provide money to pay part of New York City's big overtime police bill for guarding world leaders who attended United Nations meeting this fall, a State Department official said.

The decision to seek funds to help New York pay for the huge security job it faced during the September visit of Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev, Cuban Premier Fidel Castro and others was disclosed in a letter to Sen. Kenneth B. Keating. (R-NY).

Assistant Secretary of State William B. Macomber Jr., wrote Keating that President Eisenhower has ordered the budget bureau to prepare the necessary legislation for inclusion in the next budget.

He did not say how much of New York's costs would be covered by the proposed federal donation.

"I regret to say that at the present time there is no money available within the federal government which could be used without the specific authority of law for the purpose of making (A) Payment to the City of New York partially to compensate for the additional duties performed by the police department," Macomber wrote.

Macomber emphasized that the government does not propose to pay for guarding all foreign visitors to the U. N. in the future.

"This decision relates only to the situation which arose during the early weeks of the current session of the General Assembly and does not carry with it any intention of establishing a precedent," he said.

He added, it was impossible to know "to what extent the commercial institutions profited by reason of the great influx of travelers from all over the world," and the city government should be prepared to assume responsibility for paying part of the cost of the overtime work."

A PERSONAL MESSAGE TO ALL TURKEY BUYERS!

The only guarantee of quality you have is this seal: U.S.D.A. Gov't Grade "A".

Be sure of a perfect Thanksgiving dinner! Shop at Food Town and People's Supermarkets where this seal of quality is on every turkey!

Your Own Soup Hits the Spot

The soup course is being put back on the dinner menu in more and more homes. The reason is that the trend toward creative cookery is causing a renewed interest in — and appetite for — home-made soups.

Homemade soups allow for all sorts of tasty combinations. The variety is almost endless. Here's a beef bouillon that is easy to make, yet brimming with a delightful blend of appetizing flavors. It makes a delicious hot entrée for a light meal or a wonderful pre-dinner treat. Try it on your family and friends. You will find that they will rush to the table when you announce "soup's on!"

Homemade Beef Bouillon

1 pound beef
1 quart water
1 cup onion, sliced
1 cup celery, sliced
1 cup carrot, sliced
1 cup green pepper, sliced
1 cup tomato, sliced
1 cup mushroom, sliced
1 cup parsley, sliced

Cut beef — shank, neck, or other inexpensive cut — into small pieces, cover with water, and simmer covered for 2 1/2 to 3 hours. Then add cooked tomatoes, chopped carrots, chopped celery and leaves, sliced onion, chopped green pepper, cloves, and peppercorns. Simmer for 1/2 hour.

Strain through a thick layer of cheesecloth. Add vinegar and salt and pepper to taste. Reheat and serve hot. Sprinkle chopped parsley in each bowl or cup of bouillon. Yield: About 8 servings.

Coffee Walnut Pie Will Be Memorable Dessert

A beautiful walnut pie and cups of fragrant coffee — this is the perfect way to end a memorable Thanksgiving dinner.

The walnut pie is a marvelous, rich confection that captures all the flavor and tang associated with the autumn celebration. Made with brown sugar, coffee and a generous filling of walnuts, it's bound to be the main attraction of your meal. The best part about it is that it's prepared so easily the day before Thanksgiving, then served up with a flourish.

Of course, there should be plenty of freshly-brewed hot coffee to go with Thanksgiving dessert and, like the rest of the meal, it should be made with care. After all, it's the coffee that makes the final impression — an impression that should last until next Thanksgiving comes around!

Coffee Walnut Pie
1 cup finely packed light brown sugar
1/2 cup soft butter or margarine
1/2 cup granulated sugar
1 egg
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup heavy cream
1 cup strong coffee
1 cup coarsely chopped walnut meats
1/2 cup broken walnut meats
1/2 cup unbleached pie shell

Cream brown sugar and butter until well-blended. Add granulated sugar and mix well. Add eggs, beating well after each. Add salt, cream and coffee and mix well. Cook over boiling water, stirring for 5 minutes. Remove from water and stir in 1/2 cup walnuts and vanilla. Pour carefully into pie shell. Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees 1 hour. Scatter broken walnuts on top and bake 5 minutes longer. Cool. (Note: pie will puff during baking and shrink slightly as it cools.)

Onions Are Terrific
French fried onion ring fans like this idea for a quick lunch: Heat 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) chicken a la king. Warm 1/2 cup onion rings in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for a few minutes. Top with a la king for 2 generous servings.

COFFEE WALNUT PIE — Pecan pie is a dessert often served. But if you want something really different, try a pie made with walnuts in a coffee flavored filling. Rich and wonderful, it should become one of your cherished party recipes.

Zesty Sauces Call for Olives

Even in ancient, biblical times, olives were considered a most important part of the diet. Today, ripe olives are a staple on the pantry shelf because of the variety of ways it's possible to use them. For the holidays, ripe olives are wonderful for hors d'oeuvres, relish trays, salads, stuffings and in unusual vegetable dishes, such as "Zesty Cauliflower."

Zesty Cauliflower
1 small head cauliflower
1 cup ripe olives
1/2 cup olive oil
1 tablespoon salt
1/2 cup dry mustard
1/2 cup dry mustard
1/2 cup dry mustard
1/2 cup dry mustard

Separate cauliflower into flowerettes and cook in boiling salted water until tender. Meanwhile, cut olives into large pieces. Melt butter and blend in flour, salt and mustard. Add milk and bouillon cubes, and cook and stir until thickened.

Blend in pureed olives and heat thoroughly. Spoon over drained cauliflower. Makes about 4 servings.

Mrs. C. S. Swanzye of Erie Drive, Orchard Hill (at left) entertained her friends, Mrs. M. D. Van Wagoner of Oakland Drive, Birmingham; and Mrs. John DeLind Jr. of Clarkston. Filling out the foursome which enjoyed luncheon at the club as well as

Colleen Wheeler Is Bride

Chimes Mark Nuptials

The noon Angelus chimes Saturday at St. Michael Church marked the nuptials of Colleen Mae Wheeler and Walter G. Stonehouse before the Rev. Charles E. Cushing.

A purple-throated white orchid and feathered white carnations were mounted on the white prayer book held by the daughter of the Knoff Wheelers of Waverly Road, Drayton Plains.

Her bridal gown of white Chantilly lace and organza featured chiffon shirring on the bodice and a fitted skirt which fell into a chapel train. Fingertip veiling of silk illusion was caught by a Swedish crown of seed pearls and sequins.

Honor maid Sandra Gregory and bridesmaids Nancy Itay of Drayton Plains and Marjorie Hendry wore identical gowns of deep lavender silk organza and matching satin headpieces. Their round bouquets included lavender posies and feathered white carnations.

Kim Tunney, wearing floor-length white organza with a deep lavender cummerbund, carried lavender and white daisy chrysanthemums in a white wicker basket. Daniel Malone, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring-bearer.

Son of the Harry Stonehouses of Exmore Drive, Waterford Township, the bridegroom had Charles Crowley for best man. Seating some 200 guests were Roger Moore and James Owens.

After a brief honeymoon in Canada, the newlyweds are at home in Pontiac. The bridegroom is a graduate of Lawrence Institute of Technology.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wheeler chose beige lace over taffeta with brown accessories. Mrs. Stonehouse wore attire in periwinkle blue lace over taffeta. Both mothers wore white cymindian orchids.

Parker-Hewitt Nuptials Solemnized in Church

The Rev. Lawrence A. Kime officiated at the Saturday vespers of Karen Ann Hewitt and John W. Parker in St. Matthew Lutheran Church, Walled Lake.

While roses and chrysanthemums in gold vases adorned the altar. The Klimer R. Hewitts of Oregon Drive, Waterford Township, were hosts at their daughter's reception in the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall, Kego Harbor.

A floor-length bridal gown of white Chantilly lace over satin featured a fitted bodice and tiered skirt of finely-pleated tulle with deep bands of the lace. Waist-length veiling of silk illusion fell from a petal headband of tear-drop pearls. A cascade of white roses and lilies of the valley rested on the bride's white Bible.

Honor matron Mrs. Harold Reeves appeared in ballerina-length deep aqua taffeta with lighter aqua sash and matching feathered headpiece.

She held a white lace fan topped with gold roses and white chrysanthemums. Donna Denito and Jeanne Wilson, bridesmaids, wore light aqua with deeper aqua sashes. While chrysanthemums and yellow roses rested on their fans.

The bridegroom, son of the Harold W. Parkers of Durham Drive, Waterford Township, had Cory Vanhook as best man. Harold Reeves and the bride's brother Gary seated some 150 guests. Leaving for a honeymoon in Northern Michigan, the new Mrs. Parker was wearing a gray sheer suit and black accessories.

Parents OK Chaperon for Friend

By EMILY POST

Question: My brother is going to be married next year some time. His fiancée whose home town is over a hundred miles from here, has taken a job in this city. She has been living at a woman's hotel but it is very expensive and takes practically everything she earns.

I have recently married and no longer live with my parents and so to have an extra room in their apartment doing nothing. We were wondering if it would be proper for my brother's fiancée to move in with them.

It would be a big help to her but we would like to know if it could possibly cause gossip if they lived together under the same roof before they are married, even though my parents will be living there too. We would appreciate hearing from you on this matter.

Answer: There is absolutely no question about the propriety of her living with your parents. She couldn't possibly be more perfectly chaperoned.

Question: Between my husband and myself we have four godchildren. When I give gifts to my godchildren, and he is his, should the card enclosed be signed with both our names, or just with the name of the particular godparent?

Answer: It is usually signed with the name of the particular godparent but there is no reason why both names could not be included if you would like to do so.

Question: Will you please tell me the proper closing of a letter to a social acquaintance? Some of my friends say, "Very truly yours," or "Yours very truly." Is correct. I do not agree and think that "Sincerely yours," or "Sincerely" is the proper close. Will you please settle this?

Answer: Either "Sincerely," or "Sincerely yours" or "Very sincerely" is correct for social usage.

Question: Five of my friends have served as references for me in the adoption of a baby. I have thanked each of them personally, but feel that this is not enough. Would it be proper to send each one a small gift as a token of appreciation?

Answer: I think your thanks are sufficient, and later on there may be something that you, in turn, may be able to do for these kind friends.

Dear Mrs. Post: My sister and her husband have separated after a brief marriage. Her mother-in-law is insisting that she return all the wedding presents that were sent by her relatives and friends. Is she obliged to return these presents to her?

Answer: Having actually been married, all of these gifts are hers to keep. Certainly they do not belong to her ex-mother-in-law. If her husband asks her for the return of wedding presents given by his family or friends, it would be no more than fair to let him have them, even though they were definitely belong to her.

Young Horsewoman Finds Out

Animal Fine Companion for Child

A lonely girl can find great companionship in the friendship of an animal, says Meg Hausman of Kings Point, Long Island.

Meg had no close girl or boy friend, and her sister and brother were much older, so she felt in love with a horse when she was 9 years old.

"A horse is a wonderful friend. When I got this pony Cinnamon Sugar she was just to be a companion, but I learned to ride well enough to go into some horse shows, and she has become more than a friend.

She had made me a good rider," says Meg, who becomes a teen-ager on her next birthday.

For the third year Meg has participated in the National Horse Show in New York. She has won more than 200 ribbons, 11 championships and 18 reserves.

She won the large pony championship with another pony she owns, Seaside. She rides him in winter, and the smaller pony, her roan mare, Cinnamon Sugar stays home.

Serendipity boards out, so Meg doesn't assist with those chores. But she helps a good deal with Cinnamon Sugar. Her dad gives her a hand with the water pails she can't lift.

Neatness Is Akin to Comfort

By KAY SHERWOOD

NEA Feature

Are neat housekeepers born or made? Certainly neatness seems to come more naturally to some than to others.

Drop into the naturally neat housekeeper's home any time any day and you won't surprise her with the beds unmade, papers scattered over the floor and dirty dishes on the table.

When she says "the house is a mess," she means the room is disarranged for a thorough weekly cleaning.

For others of us, a neat home comes as a result of more obvious effort.

My Monday morning survey of the backwash of weekend clutter has led me time and again to vow reform. In the autumn when we socialize more at home, I try harder to emulate the smoothly neat homemaker.

Analyzing the routine of a neat housekeeper—and I know such admirable women—you see at once that they do have a daily routine. Everyday chores are completed automatically and with little deviation in time.

Beds, for example, are aired and made in early morning. Dishes are cleared from the table immediately after each meal.

Newspapers and magazines are culled regularly and only the most recent ones stay in the racks.

There is no squirreling away an untidy pile of old papers and magazines marked "to read when you have time." In a neat home back copies of such material are filed in orderly binders.

PLAN IN ADVANCE

Parties, little or big, are planned in advance and few arrangements are left until the last minute. You won't find a "naturally neat housekeeper" polishing the silver late in the afternoon of her dinner. Nor will she remember too late she forgot to make coffee or to put the pie in the oven.

Although such organizations may be inborn, in many cases the secret of this smooth efficiency is a lengthy list which is referred to often and items checked off as completed.

Another lesson to learn from the efficient homemaker is never to put off until tomorrow what can be done today.

After a late evening of cards or conversation, the temptation is strong to leave the dishes, ashtrays and crumbs where they lie until tomorrow.

In a few minutes time, however, those crumbs can be swept up, ashtrays emptied and dishes scraped and stacked, leaving the living room neat for the next morning.

Because she takes pride in neatness and places a premium on it, her children will be encouraged, reminded or nagged into a respect for order. Neat homemakers I've known do put up with a certain amount of youthful messiness when it's confined to children's rooms.

But living areas of the house are for all to enjoy. Toys are picked up after play and stored in boxes or cartons; books are put back in place in the bookcase.

Her good example and the consistent encouragement to be neat does help to ingrain the habit in her offspring.

Abby Counsels Wife of 'Brain'

High IQ Acts Pretty Stupid

ANIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: The company psychologist told my husband that he has an IQ bordering on "genius." Consequently, no one can live with him any more. Everyone else, in his opinion, is now "stupid," "infantile" or "I am e-brained." (I am included.) He belittles me in front of the children.

Winsty per cent of the time he is a wonderful husband and loving father. He has a brilliant future with a well-known company and we have all the material things I could hope for, but his mental "superiority" is causing me heartaches.

CAN'T SIGN MY NAME

DEAR ABBY: A person's "IQ" (intelligence quotient) alone will not carry him safely through the rough waters of day-to-day living. If he's as smart as he thinks he is, he'll forget his "IQ" and concentrate on his "CS" (common sense).

DEAR ABBY: I made a bet with a guy but we didn't shake on it. If I lose, do I have to pay?

BRUNO
DEAR BRUNO: You do. Your word should be as good as your grip.

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem. I am known to all my friends as "DEAR ABBY" because I am able to solve all their problems. But when it comes to my own, I draw a blank.

Abby, I like a boy who is in my study hall. I am a junior and he is a senior. He smiles at me, but that is all. How can I get him to notice me?

DEAR ABBY NO. 2:

DEAR "DEAR ABBY NO. 2": You've been helping your friends with their problems, now turn to one of them for help with yours. That "smiling senior" must have a buddy. Have one of your friends "buddy up" to his buddy, and getty hint that you have noticed the smiling senior. Then he will really notice you. All some boys need is a little encouragement. (P.S. Better case the situation first. He might have a girl.)

DEAR ABBY: I disagree with your statement that "it is not the custom anywhere for an overnight guest to bring his own bed linen."

In Sweden it is considered quite proper. Considerate guests frequently carry their own linen on trips. They don't want to give the hostess extra trouble with laundry, which is a bigger problem in Sweden than in your country.

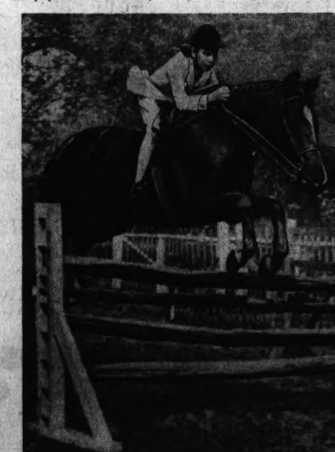

SWEDISH IMMIGRANT

Tot's Room Needs No Enlivening

Neutral or Quiet Colors Make Best Wall Background

CHICAGO (UPI)—The child's room is his living room, where he receives his friends, studies and plays games.

"So restrain that urge to paint it in cute colors," said Color Stylist Margaret Hutchison.

She contends that bright "children's" colors and busy designs have a chaotic effect when combined with toys, books, sporting equipment and other juvenile possessions.

KEEP IT QUIET

"Neutral or quiet wall colors make the best background for a child's cluttered room," Miss Hutchison said. For the room that needs extra color, she recommends using it on floor and ceiling rather than walls.

With off-white walls, for example, she suggests a flame-red carpet, linoleum or painted floor and matching accent for the ceiling.

To keep a child's room tidy, Miss Hutchison advises fitting it with storage and display shelves for toys, books, sporting goods, and so on. "Children don't really like to keep these items underfoot," she says.

GUARD WALLS

She suggests that counters, a low table for games and private tea parties and a desk all be placed along the walls in a child's room. The idea is to cover most of the wall area in the "finger-marking" range.

"Use any left-over 'child's height' wall space for blackboards and bulletin boards," Miss Hutchison said.

She likes to see all shelves, cabinets, tables and so on in a child's room painted the same neutral color as the walls, using a washable semi-gloss color.

For lighting the child's room, Miss Hutchison advises pin-up fixtures over desks, work areas and reading areas.

She doesn't believe in decorating the room much. "Dolls, colorful toys, books, and so on, arranged in open bookshelves, are decoration enough," she said.

For the boy's room, she suggests using tennis rackets, bats, masks, gloves and baseball equipment, along with mounted collections of stamps, rocks or arrowheads as wall accessories.

Teen-Age Gals 'Split Hairs' to Gain a Casual Permanent Air

One basic style becomes a "turnabout hairdo" in these three casual teen-age coiffures by a popular home permanent company's reference service. Above is a clean swept-back look for fall outdoor activities. The smooth front crown lifts slightly to give height to the face and is pinned back at the nape of the neck. A cluster of underturned curls fans out into a soft bun effect.

All "tressed up," our sophisticated junior miss is ready for her first prom. The hair is parted at the side and the crown, lifted and swirled into four springy bun-like twists. The back is twirled into a French roll and the sides brushed back into the twist. Lengthier hair that falls just below the chin—almost brushing the shoulder — forms the "turnabout" hairdo.

It's classy for classes! The new convertible coiffure will take a young lady to the "head of the class" when styled casually as above. The crown hair, enhanced by fringed bangs, is lifted for height to offset roundness of face. Side waves nip in at the temple to create an illusion of narrowness across the forehead. The ends are turned into a loose page boy.

Wives, Mothers Go to Work

Women Bolster Business

CHICAGO—How do you picture the average American working woman—prim, businesslike and somewhat spinsterish? Your image is common, but not correct.

See that woman across the street—35 years old, married and the mother of two sons in school. Statistics show that she is typical of the working woman. Chances are she has a high school education and works at a clerical job. She probably worked for a few years after graduation, withdrew to her home to have a family and returned to the labor force when her children reached school age.

The role of women in a world of work is presented in the October guidance newsletter published this month by Science Research Associates, Inc. The newsletter is distributed to 6,500 libraries, colleges, elementary and high schools and youth serving organizations across the country.

Kind Work Given to Poor Suburbia

By RUTH MILLETT

Parents, it often seems, just can't win for losing. No matter how hard we try to do what is right and best for our children, the "experts" get busy and start finding fault.

Now they are throwing rocks through the picture windows of suburbia. If you want to know what's wrong with suburbia pick up almost any magazine on the newsstands.

Her Scream Does Job of Baseball Bat

HAMILTON, Ont. (UPI)—Mrs. Alice Arbour, an 84-year-old widow, forgot to take her baseball bat to bed with her for the first time in four years.

"Today one out of every three workers is a woman. Altogether over 22 million women are holding jobs outside the home. About half of these women are married."

Even so, the report points out, women still represent a vast reservoir of energy and talent that as yet has remained largely untapped. More than half of our working-age population is female, but only a third of the women have jobs outside the home.

Look through the picture windows with the experts and all you see is disenchantment. Pop, worn out by commuting and trying to meet the monthly bills, is a grown man who is only a "phantom father" to his children.

Mom, under constant pressure to keep up with the Joneses, is frustrated and insecure.

Mrs. Arbour said she woke up to find an intruder in her bedroom and his hand on her neck. She reached for her trusty bat, but it wasn't there. "I just let out a couple of screams and he ran like a deer."

Mrs. Arbour was perturbed at her best chance to use the baseball bat.

"I never had a chance to use it until today," she said, "then I blew it all."

Ike's Director of Youth Fitness Hails the Scouts

BAL HARBOUR, Fla. (UPI)—Dr. Shane MacCarthy Wednesday hailed the Boy Scout and Girl Scout organizations as powerful forces for advancing the president's youth fitness program.

The children, overprotected and overindulged, and associating only with children whose parents are in about the same financial bracket as their own, are growing up with a false idea of what life is really like.

In short, they are little snobs, brought up under such hothouse conditions that they will probably never be able to face up to hardships or disappointments or do battle against adversity.

Don't Need a Lot of Time or Experiment

Needlework: Tailor-made Hobby for Women

French needlepoint worked with meticulous care is a rewarding hobby. The floral this homemaker is working will be framed for hanging in a room.

The colors repeat the soft French blue of the leather chair and the duobonnet and beige shades of the rug.

By VIVIAN BROWN
NEA Needlework Writer

Would you like to have a creative hobby which could be pursued during the scraps of leisure left after church, school and community have made their claim?

Then take another close look at the womanly art of needlework. Many women today are rediscovering the pleasures and disciplines of "sewing a fine seam" which our colonial ancestors knew so well.

It has much to recommend it as a rewarding hobby. You don't need a lot of equipment, nor a separate studio, nor several hours of uninterrupted time.

Needlework can be tailored to any taste or time and you can't say that for a lot of the hobbies being pushed on the homemaker. A very persuasive friend of mine almost had me talked into taking up sandcasting as a hobby!

I had to remind her that I can't curl up with several hundred pounds of sand and concrete while I listen to a child read his lessons.

Although there have been devoted needlework fanciers in every generation, interest among a wider group of homemakers is on the increase.

GUILDS POPULAR

Sewing guilds (those that specialize in fancy work) report more requests for membership. Lessons in the skills are taught in guild or school. Some stores offer instruction, too.

Needlepoint designs on canvas or linen are not limited to standard traditional subjects. Quilt designers who will paint a special motif on canvas or linen are catering to a growing list of clients.

Like the colonial home, modern homes are boasting more fabric pictures. But there is a difference.

A charming sampler or embroidered picture in colonial times was visual proof that the young girl had learned her lessons in the gentle art of sewing.

Today, subject matter is wider, and colors are, or may be, wilder.

COPY OR INVENT

In addition to the needlepoint floral so well suited to traditional interiors, you'll see delightful abstract appliques in a mélange of colors and textures for modern rooms. These could be copied or invented to suit your taste.

Imaginative designs cross-stitched on linen fit into casual backgrounds with graceful charm.

Although there are plenty of printed ready-made cross-stitch patterns, I know from experience you can work out your own pattern or colors or both on graph paper. Scrim basted to the fabric you want to work guides the stitches. The scrim is removed later.

OES Installs Officers at Luncheon

Officers for Group 3, Order of the Eastern Star, were installed following a cooperative luncheon Wednesday in the Masonic Temple on Lawrence Street.

Mrs. Meta McIlroy is incoming president; Mrs. Harvey May, vice president; Mrs. James Gilko, secretary and treasurer.

Moms Set Smorgasbord

Members of Unit 2, MOMS of America, Inc., were guests of Mrs. Worth Eastman of Pinegrove Avenue Tuesday for a school girl luncheon.

The Hazel Park MOMS will sponsor a public smorgasbord dinner in the Masonic Temple on Stephenson Highway from 4 to 8 p.m. Saturday.

Unit members are invited to American Gold Star Mothers, Chapter 34, installation Monday evening at Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Building.

The Past President's Club, Zone 8, will sponsor a breakfast on Dec. 1 at the Squirrel Court residence of Mrs. Frank Polasek in Auburn Heights. Proceeds will benefit the future nurses' fund which was established by the Past President's State Board.

The Christmas party is set for Dec. 9 at Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Building. Mrs. Edgar

Thomas is accepting reservations.

A donation was approved for the Michigan MOMS State Board, for the hospitalized veterans Christmas fund. Members of Unit 2 will present gifts to veterans at the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium.
