Floyd Diamond Pleads Guilty in Girl's Death

Judge Accepts Youth's Second-Degree Murder Plea Today

Floyd Diamond, 16, this morning pleaded guilty to second degree murder in the brutal slaying last Feb. 17 of 9-year-old Kathleen McLaughlin.

Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland agreed to accept the plea shortly after trial proceedings began on a first-degree murder count.

A first-degree conviction would have carried a mandatory life-in-prison sentence.

Second-degree carries any number of years up to life. Diamond will be sentenced June 20, according to Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem.

The youth, of 32545 Nottingham Knoll, Farmington Twp., admitted stabbing and stoning Kathy to death at a pond near her home at 29430 Gilchrest and a short distance from Diamond's residence.

In this mornings proceedings, Ziem read into the record the statement Diamond made shortly after the slaying in which he confessed the crime.

State Police Det. Frank Barkman testified that Diamond made the statement.

Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore waived jurisdiction over Diamond March 2, allowing the youth to be tried as an adult.

Two psychiatrists, Dr. L. Jerome Fink and Dr. Ivan A. LaCore, both termed Diamond sane at a hearing March 22 in Circuit Court at which time the trial was scheduled. The youth will await sentencing in Oakland County Jail.

Waterford Boy Drowns in Pond

Andrew Miceli, trying out an aqua-lung for the first time, drowned in the Waterford Mill Pond where he was swimming with two other youths.

The victim, of 4175 Rural Dr., apparently panicked when water got into the air mouthpiece of the diving unit, authorities theorized.

His two companions, both unidentified by authorities, said they noticed the youth was in trouble after he called to them. They went to his aid but couldn't bring him up, they stated.

BODY RECOVERED

The body was recovered in about 15 feet of water by Lee Hargreaves, 18, an aqua-lung club member and experienced underwater swimmer. Hargreaves was summoned after dragging operations and other recovery attempts failed.

Miceli was pronounced dead at 4:52 p.m. after revival attempts by Waterford firemen were unsuccessful.

Hargreaves said he checked the equipment after the recovery and found it to be in perfect working order.

The trio went to the pond after school with the rented equipment and had been swimming only a few minutes when Miceli disappeared.

Funeral service for the victim, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Miceli, was scheduled tentatively for 10 a.m. Friday. Rosary will be recited at 9 p.m. Thursday. The body is at Coats Funeral Home in Drayton Plains.

GM, UAW Plan Day-Long Talks

Both Sides Refuse to Comment on Progress in GAW Negotiations

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors and CIO United Auto Workers scheduled full day contract talks today for the first time since negotiations opened April 7.

The UAW and GM extended yesterday's session past 6 p.m. (EST) but neither side would comment on what headway is being made on the union's guaranteed annual wage proposal.

Similar talks with Ford were scheduled for today.

Walter P. Reuther, president of both the CIO and the UAW, sat in on the Ford session yesterday morning and on GM conferences in the afternoon.

He planned a similar schedule today.

GM also resumes new contract talks with the CIO International Union of Electrical Workers (IUE) today.

Meanwhile, the union said yesterday that 103 of 107 GM locals have voted 126,559 to 8,955 in favor of a walkout should new contract talks fail. The other four locals were unreported.

The vote carried by the necessary two-thirds majority not only as a whole but in each local, the union said.

Brownell Voices Hope for Cut in Income Tax

DETROIT (AP)—Attorney General Brownell says he is "hopeful there will be another slice off federal income taxes."

The cabinet member told an Economic Club audience yesterday that a "substantial reduction in taxes" is keyed to defense needs.

Fleet Down to Two

More Much-Needed Rain Falls on Dry Pontiac Area

Accompanied by giant claps of thunder and brilliant flashes of lightning, another quarter-inch of much-needed rain fell on thirsty Oakland County soil early today.

More than an inch of rain has fallen here since Sunday afternoon, boosting the hopes of farmers who feared for their crops. No rain of any consequence had fallen since April 24.

The forecast is for possible showers tonight and cloudy and cool tomorrow. Low tonight is expected to be 53-57 and high tomorrow 70-74. Tomorrow night's low will be near 50.

Yesterday's high was 80 degrees, low 66.

At 8 a. m. today, the mercury in downtown Pontiac stood at 68 degrees, rising rapidly to 84 at 2 p. m.

Lightning which struck power lines in Bloomfield Township cut off service to about 400 homes. But a Detroit Edison Co. spokesman said service was restored before most families knew it had been off.

Reward Posted for Dog Lost in Fatal Crash

A reward has been offered for information as to the whereabouts of "Ginger," a female Airedale lost from the car of Mrs. Genevieve Skinner last Wednesday when she was killed in a two-car collision at E. South boulevard and Crooks road.

The reward is offered by the executors of Mrs. Skinner's estate. The dog was thrown from Mrs. Skinner's car in the collision and was last seen on Coolidge highway near South boulevard.

The dog, about four years old, was a constant companion of a French poodle at the Vincent Kennels, 5401 Livernois Rd.

Anyone who has information about the dog may call the kennels or the Michigan Animal Rescue League, FE 5-9290.

Cruelty Charge Faces Mother

Milford Woman Held After Infant Admitted to Hospital Here

The infant was reported in good condition by hospital authorities.

The case was turned over to Oakland County Sheriff's deputies after the infant was brought to the hospital by his father, Kenneth, 22, a Pontiac factory employe.

In a statement Monday to Asst. Oakland County Prosecutor Edward Shigley, Mrs. Johnson admitted losing patience with the child when it would not take its bottle or go to sleep.

She said the baby had been crying all night and when she pulled him across the bed she "heard something snap."

Another child, Peggy Ann, 14 months, also was admitted with face bruises. Her condition was reported as good.

Genuine Case of Treenaping Stumps Police

NEWTON, Mass. (AP)—Mrs. Mary F. Costello returned from a shopping trip yesterday to find a gaping hole in the front lawn where a 15-foot maple had been.

A neighbor recalled seeing four men in work clothes, with a truck and all sorts of special equipment, dig up the tree and haul it away with the terse comment:

"The boss told us this was the tree, lady."

And Mrs. Costello remembered the dapper, polite man who called at her home Sunday asked all kinds of questions about the tree.

"A real nature lover," said Mrs. Costello.

Boost County's Evaluation Up $216 Million

State Hikes Figure Over Strong Protest From Oakland Official

The State Board of Equalization yesterday set a $1,395,250,000 property valuation on Oakland County on which the county must levy its 1956 property taxes.

The board made final a state equalization totaling $17,557,000,000, 52 million dollars more than the tentative recommendations issued May 9 by the State Tax Commission and 855 millions more than last year.

The Oakland figure was boosted from $795,738,489 which was set last year by the county itself before a State Supreme Court edict that the state figure for each county must be the property tax base. The state figure last year was $1,178,425,000.

Previously, as in Oakland's case, counties had been using their own equalizations, which usually were lower.

PROTEST REFUSED

The state board refused to hear a protest that the state figure is too high from Oakland equalization head Alger Zapf, of Royal Oak.

Aud. Gen. Victor Targonski, board chairman, refused to hear Oakland County's protest, declaring that Oakland had ignored a state law requiring it to complete its own equalization and report to the state in April.

Targonski told Zapf, "You have failed in the discharge of your duties. Your board of supervisors has been derelict in its duties. In the absence of a county equalization we have no basis on which to hear protests."

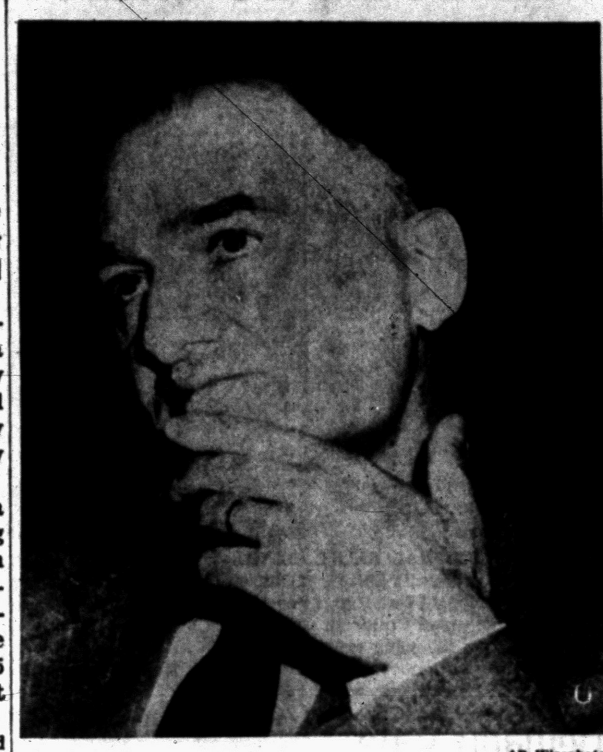

The board did, however, on the basis of corrected final reports from Oakland, trim the tentative equalization set by the State Tax Commission from $1,400,727,000 to $1,395,250,000.

Second-Round Salk Shots Will Be Given Wednesday

Second-round Salk vaccine inoculations will be given to first and second graders in four Oakland County school districts tomorrow.

Some 2,300 youngsters are eligible for shots at the clinics, a county health department spokesman said.

He said the vaccine was found available after an inventory of extra vials from last Saturday's second-round clinics in south Oakland County.

The shots will be administered at the Clarktson School for youngsters from the Clarkston-Ortonville district, the Blanche Sims School for Lake Orion-Oxford-Addison students, the Holly Elementary School for Holly district children and Novi Elementary for Novi district pupils.

The spokesman said these districts were selected because their school year ends earlier than most.

In Washington, efforts to get the lagging anti-polio vaccination program back into full swing appeared to be nearing a decisive stage today as representatives of virtually all groups concerned assembled for a major conference here.

Authorities Hunt Kalamazoo Girl

CAP, National Guard Join Police in Search for Lame Child, 8

KALAMAZOO (AP) — The Civil Air Patrol and the National Guard joined Kalamazoo and State Police in the search today for an 8-year-old crippled schoolgirl missing all night.

Brown-haired, brown-eyed Jeannie Singleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Singleton, was last seen on her way home from school at 3:30 p.m. yesterday.

Schoolmates said they saw Jeannie, who was lame in one leg, sitting on a curb a block and a half from home resting her feet.

Her family notified police at 9:30 p.m. when she failed to return home. Mrs. Singleton said she did not give the alarm earlier because she thought Jeannie might have gone to a friend's home for dinner.

AIDED BY PLANE

Some 150 searchers, aided by a CAP plane, joined the hunt after an all-night check of family friends and schoolmates failed to disclose a trace of the girl.

Kalamazoo was hit by an electrical storm with heavy rain during the night. Jeannie when last seen had no raincoat and was wearing a pink plaid dress, multicolored sandals and white socks.

City police sent out a statewide alarm this morning with the girl's description.

Expects Course to Yield Taxes of Half Million

Detroit Syndicate Has Application for License Pending in Lansing

A Detroit syndicate has announced plans to construct a $4,000,000 horse racing track in Troy Township.

This was revealed at the meeting of the Troy Township board of trustees last night, when the board split on approving the formal application.

It is estimated that the track would bring $500,000 in taxes into the township treasury annually.

As outlined to the Troy board, the track would be used for 40 days each year. It would include parking facilities for some 8,000 cars.

SPLIT IN BOARD

The split in the board came when members Clifton Truesdell, George W. Ford and supervisor Norman R. Barnard favored tabling the application for further study.

Members Fred W. Hildebrandt, J. Wesley Smith, Lyle J. Walker and Elmer W. Lowe approved the idea, however.

"I thought we should have more time to study this move, and the problems it would create," Barnard said today.

The Michigan Thoroughbred Turf Club has an application for a license pending with the Michigan Racing Commission.

Present plans show the track as not being used for trotting or pacing races.

CONSTRUCTION PLANS SET

Construction plans are all set, an official said, and work on the project would begin as soon as the license is granted by the MRC.

The Turf Club previously sought to build the track in Clinton Township, near Mount Clemens. The move was discouraged by local residents and church groups, according to a spokesman.

Under Michigan law, four tracks are authorized for the Detroit area. Currently there are only three in operation.

Judge Commits Pontiac Boy, 12

Terry Morgan, Charged With Beating Tot, Sent to State Hospital

Twelve-year-old Terry Allen Morgan, charged with the brutal beating of 4-year-old Cindy Lynne Montgomery last April 12, was committed to the Pontiac State Hospital today by Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore.

The action came upon recommendation of Dr. Clinton J. Mumby, Pontiac psychiatrist, who said the boy was in need of psychiatric treatment.

Judge Moore said the nature and brutality of the beating, plus the psychiatrist's examinations, calls for the boy's commitment in a mental institution.

Terry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack B. King, of 225 W. Fairmount Ave., had admitted beating the girl with a spiked board in the basement of a partly-completed home.

The girl, found with several puncture wounds in the head and body, recovered after more than a week of hospitalization and surgery.

Peltz Bloc Will Try to Wreck Senate Bill

State Road Improvement Plan May Wind Up in Ditch

LANSING (AP) — A multi-million dollar highway improvement program reached a dangerous curve today with some lawmakers predicting it will end in a ditch.

* * *

Rep. Emil Peltz (R-Rogers City), arch-foe of the Senate-approved Coleman bill, said some House members will try wrecking the bill with a series of minor amendments.

As the House began debate on the bill, there was talk that opponents of the measure would try to lengthen the list of highways singled out for aid.

"If one man can do it," Peltz said, "every member of the House will try to get highways in his district on the bill."

SENATE FORMULA

Rep. Allison Green (R-Kingston), Republican floor leader, said many of the members are unhappy with the Senate's formula for distributing a proposed one and one half cent gas tax increase.

* * *

The upper chamber wants to give three quarters of the additional money to the state for construction of interstate highways and specified state trunklines. The rest of the money would go to cities and counties.

Green said there is growing support for a 60-40 per cent break-down. Supporters of the bill, however, said they are confident they can push the measure through in its present form.

"I think we've got the votes," said Rep. Thomas M. Burns (R-Saginaw).

Burns made the same prediction only a week ago when he led a successful move to take the bill from the hands of the Roads and Bridges Committee.

COBO URGES LIMIT

Wayne County representatives received telegrams from Detroit Mayor Albert E. Cobo urging them to set a March 1, 1956, cutoff date on the Senate distribution formula.

* * *

Cobo said all bills receiving serious consideration in Congress would require the federal government to pay two-thirds of the costs of maintaining interstate highways.

"There is no reason why the Highway Department's percentage should be increased when the state's required matching percentage is being substantially decreased, the telegram said.

Besides the gas tax increase, the highway bill provides for a 10 per cent hike in truck license fees.

Under the proposal, 40 per cent of the state's share would be spent on bypasses through or around municipalities.

ROADS LISTED

State trunkline projects specified in the bill are:

U.S. 27 from Indiana to a point south of Grayling, U.S. 127 from Ohio to Lansing, U.S. 23 from Ohio to Flint, M 78 from Lansing to Flint, U.S. 31 from Indiana to St. Joseph, U.S. 31 from Holland to Ludington, M 53 from Detroit to Imlay City, M 21 from Flint to Port Huron, U.S. 131 from Indiana to Cadillac, and U.S. 223 from Ohio to U.S. 127.

Involved in the interstate system are U.S. 24 or U.S. 25 from Toledo to Detroit, U.S. 12 from Detroit to New Buffalo, U.S. 16 from Detroit to Muskegon, U.S. 10 from Detroit to Saginaw, U.S. 23 from Saginaw to Standish, M 76 from Standish to Roscommon, US 27 from Roscommon to the Straits and U.S. 2 from the Straits to Sault Ste. Marie.

Dulles Rejects Bonn Neutrality

Stand Applies to Both Western Germany and Possible United Nation

WASHINGTON (AP)— Secretary of State Dulles, with special authorization from President Eisenhower, today totally rejected any policy of neutrality for Germany.

* * *

Dulles said the stand applies to West Germany and also to a unified Germany which might some day result from bringing together the Eastern and Western zones.

Clearing up an uncertainty which resulted from Eisenhower's remarks at a news conference last week, Dulles told reporters today that the West German government has been officially informed of the U.S. view.

* * *

He stated the American position to Ambassador Heinz Krekeler last Friday, he said.

Dulles declared it is the view of the United States that a policy of neutrality has no application to a country of the character of Germany with its 70 million industrious people, strategic position and power resources.

* * *

He said he does not believe that anyone seriously thinks the German people are designed to play the role of neutrality.

Demand State Build Mansion

GOP Legislators Say Public Fund Campaign 'Shameful'

LANSING (AP)—Senate Republican leaders last night demanded that the state build a governor's mansion.

They apparently were shamed by a House bill to permit the state to solicit contributions from public-spirited groups and citizens to build the mansion. Rep. Leslie H. Hudson (D-Pontiac) started the solicitation bill after years of proposals for a state-built mansion came to nothing. He was joined by Rep. George M. Van Puersem (R-Holland).

Sen. Elmer R. Porter (R-Blissfield), the veteran chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee, demanded the House bill be delayed until this afternoon so that he could prepare an amendment to start planning the structure at state expense.

Heat, Humidity and Storms Hit Eastern U.S.

By UNITED PRESS

A muggy heat wave, sparked by savage electric storms and street-flooding rains, stretched across the nation's Eastern half today.

Downpours and ripping winds hit from Wisconsin to southern Louisiana as an advancing cool front battled with a vast blanket of hot, moist air.

The storms hit hardest at eastern Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi. Communications were washed out, city streets were flooded, and tornadic winds tore down buildings.

The humidity made the heat far worse. New York City sweltered in 91 per cent humidity, with little promise of relief, and the humidity was 75 per cent early today in Chicago.

Pontiac Policeman on U.S. Committee

Sgt. Walter A. Baerwolf, head of the Pontiac Police weights and measures bureau, was named at the 40th National Conference on Weights and Measures in Washington, D. C., to serve on the group's U. S. Committee for Education.

The appointment was made by Dr. A. V. Austin, president of the Federal Bureau of Standards.

Returning here today after the 5-day conference, Baerwolf said that 544 delegates from 36 states and Puerto Rico heard Dr. Austin's opening address and made other appointments for 1955-56.

He added that the conference emphasized "greater enforcement in the field, because an essential part of our daily lives depend on accurate weights and measures."

Kyodo News Service said Japan will receive 140,000 metric tons of Sakhalin coal in return for shipbuilding and repair services.

Or Psychology? Or Schools?

Are TV Meals to Blame for Parent-Child Friction?

Or maybe the schools need a course in how to understand parents.

On the other hand, maybe it's only because of TV tray suppers.

* * *

Mrs. Bonaro Overstreet, of Mill Valley, Calif., declared yesterday parents carry too many misconceptions of child psychology, such as permitting a child to cry itself to exhaustion.

Parents, she added, also carry over too many thinkings and ideas of their own simple pasts into the complex structure of their children's present.

Her recipe for good and wholesome family living contains four integrities for use in the home: honesty—obeying laws, telling truth and living within society's rules; work performances—to the best of one's abilities, rather than merely to get by; generous give-and-take between individuals; factual knowledge — distinguishing true facts from rumor.

Dr. Esther E. Prevey, chairman of the congress' Home and Life Committee, suggested pupils in elementary schools could be taught good group living to help solve home conflicts. Teenagers could have a course on home living.

Mrs. Lillian Evans, of Victoria, B. C., Canada, appealed for return of the family dining room and dining table.

SNACK BAR RAPPED

"Eating today is largely off the snack bar," Mrs. Evans said, "or the corner of the kitchen sink, or a TV tray, or maybe a sandwich on the run.

"At the dining table the family meets together, conversation comes naturally and each member learns to accept the opinions of others without getting upset about it."

Garment Maker Admits Payoffs of Over $6,000

WASHINGTON (AP)—A New York garment manufacturer testified today he spent $6,699.94 in cash payoffs and gifts to government employes involved in three contracts he carried out for the armed forces in 1952 and 1953.

Leon M. Levy, a partner in Bonita Originals, Inc., gave the testimony to the Senate Investigations subcommittee on the basis of notes he kept in his native Arabic language. He came to this country from Lebanon in boyhood.

Levy told the committee he knew it was wrong to make these payoffs but turned over the money to a business getter for the firm, Marvin Rubin, in the belief he would be ruined financially unless the government people were "taken care of."

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark), who contends the inquiry already has shown the existence of a "nest of small grafts" reaping profits from Pentagon contacts, said in advance he expects through Levy and the diary to bring some bigger names into the inquiry. He did not elaborate.

The dairy has been translated. Prior witneses have named Levy as a source of money they said found its way as cash and gifts to some Army quartermaster contract negotiating and enforcing employes.

* * *

Levy is treasurer and a founder of Bonita Originals, Inc., of New York City, whose contract to produce a million garrison caps for the Army is under the subcommittee's scrutiny.

An immigrant from Syria, Levy has lived in the United States for about 40 years.

Flier Dies of Burns From Livonia Crash

DETROIT (INS) — Frank Burgess, 28-year-old pilot of a light plane which crashed and burned near Mettetal Airport in Livonia last Friday, died early today in Wayne County General Hospital.

Burgess was dragged from the flaming wreckage by spectators but had suffered severe burns over most of his body.

The plane overshot the airstrip and hit a high tension wire.

head of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, listed "national and state politics" among factors he said are complicating the situation.

O'Connor also mentioned supply, demand and "economic factors of competition" as other factors. Meanwhile, he stressed his faith in the vaccine itself.

Later, O'Connor demanded that the government "release immediately" the results of its study of polio vaccine made by Cutter Laboratories, Berkeley, Calif.

Members of the National Foundation's vaccine committee were among those summoned by Schelle. Also called to today's meeting were officers of the American Medical Assn., representatives of the Association of State and Territorial Health Officers, technical specialists fro mthe six pharmaceutical firms licensed to make the vaccine, and government scientists.

This conference, coupled with yesterday's day-and-night meeting of the government's medical advisers on polio vaccine matters, indicated decisions of major importance might be in the offing.

It was said the advisory panel might have a set of recommendations ready during the day. Scheele has said he would announce his decisions, based on these recommendations, "as soon as possible."

Bermuda Shorts Too Distracting in High School

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—An Oklahoma City high school principal has ruled that Bermuda shorts are not appropriate classroom attire for young men.

"We didn't make an issue of it," Clarence Breithaupt said. "But I doubt if the boys will wear them tomorrow."

Three or four students, including a football player, reported to classes yesterday in the walking shorts. One wore a bright orange and yellow combination.

With final examinations coming up, Breithaupt said he felt the bare knees might be a distracting influence.

The Day in Birmingham

15-Point C. of C. Program Will Be Presented Tonight

BIRMINGHAM — The board of directors of the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce has called a special membership meeting tonight to present a 15-point program based on a theme to "build a beautiful and better" Birmingham.

The meeting will be held at 8 p. m. in the Baldwin Library auditorium. Chamber president Henry L. Selters said that members will be invited to comment on the proposals.

There are approximately 225 members of the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce, which covers Troy and Bloomfield Townships, Bloomfield Hills, and Franklin, in addition to this city.

Points in the tentative program will be further developed at a series of seven conferences which will be held on consecutive Tuesdays beginning next week at the Community House.

A total of 615 persons have been invited to attend the various conferences, Selters said. "Any others who desire to attend are welcome."

Each conference will be composed of persons in a particular field such as transportation, utilities, construction, manufacturing, finance, insurance, etc., he added. Arthur F. Blakeslee is chairman of the conferences.

Points included in the ambitious program to be outlined before members tonight were:

Development and promotion of Birmingham as the shopping center of the area, support of community events, studies of parking and traffic problems, review of charity solicitations, improved commuter service, beautification of city, forwarding views of chamber members to government bodies;

Provision of information and statistical service, maintaining high education, cultural and civic standards, improving recreational facilities and park areas, build greater confidence in Birmingham business; and assisting in accident and fire prevention program.

The program, which would be put into operation about the latter part of June, would not be confined to the corporate limits of Birmingham, Selters said. It will encompass the entire Birmingham retail trading area.

Other officers assisting in the program are Roland Reese, general chairman; co-chairman Richard Wilson; and Victor Koch, chairman for the board's special prospects division.

A Detroit woman, who has worked in the Birmingham area for the past two years, was sentenced to one to five years in the Detroit House of Correction yesterday by Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland.

Erma Senters, 34, of 2286 W. Grand Ave., admitted May 10 taking $1,000 worth of Dresden china from her employer, Mrs. Maude Unruh, of 587 Linden, last April 23.

Police Detective Lt. Merlin Holmquist said the china was recovered in an apartment Mrs. Senters rented in Detroit. The woman is wanted by Wayne County Recorder's Court for violation of probation resulting from a bad-check conviction, he added.

County Valuation Announced by State

ation) were continued for 1956 on the higher state valuation the result would be generally increased tax bills to property owners.

This would occur because the rate would be levied against a higher property valuation.

The Oakland Tax Allocation Board, however, is expected to set a slightly lower rate this year. Thus, property owners are expected to pay only enough more to cover the $1,763,251 boost in the county budget for 1956 over this year's budget.

ERRORS CORRECTED

The board yesterday refused to entertain other protests from Kent, Baraga, Marquette, Montcalm, Newaygo and Ogemaw counties, rejected a citizens' protest from Belding, heeded slightly a protest from Missaukee County and increased Jackson and Muskegon to correct errors.

The board, rejecting Kent County's protest, said that the county had enjoyed a "buggy ride" for 10 years at the expense of other counties.

Rejecting Marquette County's protest, the board said the county had never complied with a 10 per cent increase given it by the state in 1949 after a survey of the county. This, it said, represented the bulk of the difference between the state and the county's figures.

'STAGGERING' EQUALIZATION

Emory Blanding, chairman of the Montcalm County board of equalization, failed in his protest against what he said was a "staggering" equalization of $81,275,000 compared to the county figure of $58,600,000.

The board was told by its staff that a survey of the county completed in April showed industry in Greenville assessed at 15 per cent of value on real estate and 4.58 per cent on personal property.

Blanding asked how the board could assess the Crystal Refinery at Carson City at $160,000 when it was offered for sale recently at $157,000.

The board staff said the county had been given an opportunity in April to protest the figures but had not done so. The staff said it could not explain the refinery disparity but stood by its own figures.

Marion Marlowe Fails to Open Show in Philly

PHILADELPHIA (INS) — Singer Marion Marlowe, fired six weeks ago by Arthur Godfrey, failed to open a scheduled one-week engagement last night at Philadelphia's Latin Casino nightclub.

Club patrons were told she telephoned from New York saying she had suffered an attack of ptomaine. She is expected to open the show tonight, however.

The Seine River covers about eight miles through Paris.

Silver Dollars Reward Alert Salespersons

Clerks in Pontiac store participating in the "Fun-in-the-Sun Festival" this week are missing the bucks if they don't mention the phrase "Fun-in-the-Sun" in their sales presentation to shoppers.

The Retail Merchants Assn., which is staging the promotion, has three anonymous shoppers visiting stores.

If the salesperson waiting on them gets "Fun-in-the-Sun" into the opening conversation, he or she is handed a silver dollar. Only three dollars were distributed yesterday.

The event, with casualness as its theme, features salespeople in sportswear in most stores. Shoppers are invited to go shopping without getting "spruced up."

Luncheon Will End Fund Drive by GOP Women

Women of the Republican Party of Oakland and Wayne counties will highlight the end of their May fund drive Wednesday with a 12:30 p. m. luncheon in the ballroom of the Sheraton Cadillac Hotel.

Speaker at the luncheon will be the Hon. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, former majority leader of the House of Representatives in Washington, D. C.

Ticket donation for the luncheon is $25.

New Ordinances Slated for Study by Commission

A new ordinance designed to limit the time railroad trains can block a city street is slated for first reading at tonight's City Commission meeting.

In other business, the Commission is scheduled to consider two reports from the City Plan Commission.

The first concerns rezoning to commercial 2 classification the southeast corner of Sanford St. and Irwin Ave. The second concerns a request to rezone to manufacturing 1 lot 128 of assessor's plat 128 on the east side of Lake street.

DRAINAGE PROJECT LISTED

The Commission is also scheduled to act on a curb, gutter and drainage project on Fourth avenue from Joslyn to Fuller on which action was previously deferred.

Also to be considered are:

A request from Mary Ann Gabriel, 30 S. Saginaw St., for a change in classification of a liquor license from tavern to Class C.

A petition for curb, gutter, drainage and blacktop on West Princeton avenue from Baldwin to Stanley, and a public necessity declaration for identical work on Blaine avenue from Oakland to Montcalm.

Approval of the Eastview Subdivision No. 1 plat and a bond for improvements in the subdivision.

PUBLIC HEARINGS SET

Public hearings are set for the following:

For Fun Under the Sun

Summer Garb Flattering to Youth and Adult Alike

What a fine relief to skin out of those so-called trans-season clothes and get into honest-to-seashore summer clothes!

From the crisp petticoated dresses that twinkle on our avenues to the briefest of shorts that enhance mothers and daughters, twin-like, summer clothes this year are the most delicious ever. Aren't they always?

News in daytime wear is the passage of the gentle look from woolen overblouses to crunchy cottons.

Lines are long but not stringbeany. Waists are soft, not pinched, which makes much cooler wearing. Bosoms are high for a feminine air.

The petticoat is still among us. It moves from last summer's richly gored skirt to the shirt-waist. The smooth tucked top is a definite contrast to the skirt, held out with airy petticoats.

FOR COSTUME LOOK

This one, by Judy 'N Jill, is of coolest Avisco rayon. In light colors, it's the coolest sort of city fashion.

While we're at it, a few words on rayon. Rayon, unlike many synthetic fibers, is naturally white. No need to bleach or blue those palest of colors because they're white by nature.

TERRYCLOTH — Neatly dressed for the beach, Suzie wears a sunsuit of a new cotton knit terrycloth. It has a jacket too.

SMUDGE PROOF—Young Miss can't get her jacket really dirty, for it's been treated to ward off youngsters' mud smears.

FOR SUMMER—Dress and seven-eighths coat is good summer wear. Shed the coat for hotter days. It's a Judy 'N Jill.

For the beach, suits are the slimmest of one-piece tubes. For those with the calorie bulges, it means diet, diet, diet. Or what, you say? Not stay home from the beach, certainly.

For this year there is the most perfect blessing gals with a borning spare tire could ask. It's a Playtex panty brief without a sign of a bone, stitch or insert panel to give you away through the suit.

It can stand a thousand dips in the brine and stay shapely and white. It's perfect for undersuit wear and gals who don't take advantage of its flattery are either skinny as rails or perfect in self-confidence.

STYLE CONSCIOUS

For the younger set, practicality is the cry of mothers. Style is the cry of youngsters. Manufacturers are beginning to catch on and are producing practical style aplenty to please both generations.

For outer wear, mothers will want to look into jackets and whatnot that are Zelanized. This wonder process makes things waterproof, but it has a built-in bonus. It makes it resistant to real dirt. It just can't get ground in, thanks to DuPont lab men who whipped up this process.

5 New Charges Filed in Fraud

Veterans Land Program Chief in Texas Is Cited in Alleged Deals

AUSTIN, Tex. (UP)—Bascom Giles, father of Texas' 100-million-dollar veterans land program, today faced five news indictments growing out of his administration. They allege theft by fraud involving $33,600.

Only yesterday, Giles' trial in a bribery charge involving $30,000 in a Bexar County veterans land deal was postponed in San Antonio.

* * *

He faces a third group of indictments, charging conspiracy to commit theft of $83,500 in a Dimmit County deal.

The new charges involve a block land deal in Kinney County.

In block deals, a promoter buys a large track of land, breaks it up into small tracks, signs up veterans to buy it, then receives from the state the total amount of money the veterans have agreed to pay.

* * *

Indicted along with Giles yesterday was B. F. Sheffield, Brady land promoter. In addition, Sheffield was indicted on two charges of forgery and uttering, passing a forged document in the same land deal.

Giles, 54, refused last Jan. 1 to take office although re-elected to his 10th term. Veterans land investigations were under way then.

* * *

Under Texas' land program, veterans can buy acreage with low down payment and long-term low interest rates.

Indictments now total 285 since various state agencies and grand juries began digging into the program.

Bares Farm Pay Facts

LINCOLN, Neb. (UP) — Kris Kristjanson, agricultural economics professor at the University of Nebraska, said 18 per cent of Nebraska's farmers have a net income of less than $1,000 and 54 per cent have a net income of less than $3,000.

Michigan National Banks Lose Fight to Escape Tax

WASHINGTON (UP) — National banks in Michigan have lost their Supreme Court fight to escape paying the state's 3 per cent sales tax.

* * *

The high tribunal yesterday refused to review a decision of the State Supreme Court that Michigan may collect sales tax on articles sold by retailers to national banks.

The appeal was filed by the National Bank of Detroit in a test case begun on behalf of more than 80 national banks in Michigan.

In other actions, the Supreme Court declined to hear a new appeal which questioned the constitutionality of Michigan's grand jury law. And it took no action on a second appeal involving the same question.

TRIO APPEALED

The appeal the high court declined to hear was filed by Henry R. Pickett, Richard L. Kirby and Harold Wirsing, who were convicted by a jury on charges of conspiracy to violate the Michigan gambling law.

* * *

They were tried before Judge Herman J. Denhnke in Genesee County Circuit Court after Judge Karl K. Leibrand, sitting as a one-man grand jury, issued a warrant for their arrest.

In their appeal the three said the one-man grand jury law "creates a system very heavily laden with pressure on witnesses; and very dangerous to the liberties of the people and the fair administration of justice."

The law provides that Michigan judges may conduct one-man investigations of crime with power to issue warrants for the arrest of accused persons.

* * *

In a 6-3 decision last week the Supreme Court said a Michigan judge who sits as a one-man grand jury may not try to contempt charges he made against witnesses who appeared before him.

At that time the court said it was not passing on the validity of the one-man grand jury system.

WADES ALSO APPEAL

The second appeal was filed by Mr. and Mrs. Morrison T. Wade of Detroit. They were convicted by a jury of fraudulent solicitation of charitable contributions. The case arose from operations of the Society of Good Neighbors, of which the Wades were members of the board of trustees.

* * *

Judge Gerald Groat of the Detroit Recorder's (criminal) Court sat as a one-man grand jury and conducted a five-month investigation of the operations before ordering the arrest of the Wades.

After trial, Wade was sentenced to four years' imprisonment. His wife was put on probation for five years and fined $5,000.

The court presumably will act on the Wade appeal later this term.

In another ruling yesterday the Supreme Court decided 6-3 that workers who process cane into sugar are entitled to minimum wage benefits of the federal wage-hour law.

The tribunal held, however, that not all nonfarming workers of a sugar processing plant are entitled to the benefits. It left the status of some in doubt.

Bob Considine Says:

Professor Tests Giraffe's Blood Pressure

NEW YORK (INS) — Prof. Robert H. Goetz, surgical research, University of Cape Town, South Africa, was determined to knock out a giraffe—not kill one. Very few people since Frank Buck have wanted to do just that.

* * *

The professor, who is in this country trying to raise money for his continuing giraffe research, was looking for the answer to a problem that had concerned him for years: How can a giraffe's heart pump blood 13 feet up through a neck and force it through the brain? Can the human heart, with its much more modest chore, learn something from the blood pump of the tallest of all mammals?

The professor's master archer, Colin Adams, had failed to ground a giraffe with arrows loaded with curare, the South American drug. The professor's unusual party was in Transvaal country also populated with elephants, and prepared against them, so he rigged up elephant shells loaded with the drug and fired away.

"We got two giraffe to keel over 45 minutes after being hit," the vigorous South African was telling us at the meeting here of the American College of Cardiology. "The first died because of torn blood vessels. Most unfortunate. Hope we don't have any trouble with you Americans on that score.

TRY 2ND GIRAFE

The second animal seemed perfect for our task. We hobbled it and I put on a special mask I had constructed, in the meantime enforcing absolute silence so as not to make the animal apprehensive. You must remember it was only paralyzed, not anesthetized.

* * *

Goetz's men built a cage in the form of a giraffe around the numbed creature, who was now standing, and he prepared to go forward with his surgery instantly. But the giraffe's respiration became shallower and shallower.

An antidote, prostigmin, was injected—70 times the strength of a human dose. The giraffe died. Once again the professor, seeking information on a giraffe's circulation and blood pressures, was foiled. Worse, his party had run out of money.

Still worse, no zoo would give him a giraffe to operate on because they are expensive, he could give no positive assurance the subject would not die, and the public indignation would be great.

SUCCESS AT LAST

But Goetz wasn't licked. A year before he had arranged for the capture of two baby giraffe. By now (last year) one stood 13 feet high, seven feet short of full growth. But he proceeded with the operation, using a local anesthetic on the neck.

He made an incision at the base of the neck, and worked a rubber tube up an artery to the brain. With the aid of a microscopic bit of radioactive cobalt on the tip of the tube, and the geiger counter he passed over the giraffe's neck and head, he knew exactly when the tube reached the brain area.

The giraffe's blood pressure at heart level was 360 millimeters of mercury (human pressures seldom exceed 140.) At brain level on the giraffe the pressure was 200 mm. There were no muscular "pumping stations" here and there in the giraffe's neck, to help elevate the blood. And Prof. Goetz could detect no siphoning process by which the blood descending from the brain assisted in helping other blood up there.

It was plain to him after his work that a pilot of the jet age would never black out, when pulling out of a dive or cutting a corner too close, if his heart was as efficient as that of the muted daddy longlegs of the veld.

ANIMAL SURVIVES

I asked Prof. Goetz about the test giraffe. "Oh, I sewed up the artery and neck and the animal was quite happy," he said lightly. "He was released in the veld and probably is now telling all the others about his operation."

The Navy, which wants to learn more about pilot black outs, may give Prof. Goetz some of the money he needs to continue his work. It sent Prof. James Warren, Duke University physiologist, to Nairobi a year or so ago but the Mau Mau scowled, beat drums, and the Navy made a strategic retreat, a setback it hopes to amend the moment it can lay hand on a giraffe, 250 pounds sterling, F.O.B. Mombasa.

Canada Reports Violent Holiday

69 Lives Are Lost in First Long Weekend of Summer Season

TORONTO (AP) — Canada today counted 69 violent deaths from its first long weekend of the summer season.

A Canadian Press survey for the period between 6 p.m. Friday and last midnight showed drownings and traffic accidents each claimed 28 lives and three persons died in fires.

Miscellaneous causes were blamed for nine other deaths. A 9-month-old baby girl was beaten to death in a Montreal rooming house and a 32-year-old immigrant was held as a material witness.

Canada traditionally launches the summer season by honoring Queen Victoria on the Monday before her birthday, May 24. Patriotic and military ceremonies and fireworks displays were held in several cities yesterday.

Nationalists Warn West on Big 4 Talk

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—The Chinese Nationalists' official Central Daily News today urged the Western Powers to call off the projected Big Four top-level conference.

It said the conference is mainly a Soviet trap for the West.

The official Nationalist newspaper, the Chung Hua Daily News, took the same tack, urging the West to be on guard against a sudden Soviet military attack.

The Nationalist Interior Ministry's news agency, Tatao, said more than three divisions of Chinese Communist troops, possibly transferred from North Korea, had arrived in the coastal areas of Fukien province the past week. Fukien is directly across the Formosa Strait from this Nationalist island.

7 Koreans Drowned

PUSAN, Korea — Seven Koreans drowned yesterday when a small passenger boat sank off the south coast. Police said 11 passengers and crewmen were rescued.

Doctors believe a low fat content may reduce many current heart ailments.

House Passes 'Bait' Ad Bill

Measure Would Outlaw Phony Bargain Deals to Attract Sales

LANSING (AP) — A bill providing penalties for "bait" advertising, already passed by the Senate, received overwhelming House approval.

The measure would prohibit advertisers from offering phony bargains to attract sales. It would apply to advertisements in Michigan newspapers, radio or television stations.

Rep. George W. Sallade (R-Ann Arbor) asked the House to set up a committee to study contributions to political campaigns by unions, trade organizations or businesses.

After completion of the study, the Legislature would look into the possibility of remedial legislation to eliminate abuses, Sallade said.

POLITICAL BILL DIES

A House committee last week killed the so-called "political freedom" bill which would have prevented use of union dues in political campaigns.

* * *

A study committee to decide whether veterans who received general discharges should receive Michigan's Korean bonus was requested by the House Military Affairs Committee.

Rep. Thomas M. Burns (R-Saginaw) chairman, said there is a lot of confusion about the significance of general discharges. Veterans administration officials would be called in to explain the matter to legislators under the committee's proposal, Burns said.

Pontiac Man Held on Breakin Charge

Harold D. Miller, 23, of 193 Wolf St., was held today by Pontiac Police for investigation of nighttime breaking and entering this morning after officers found him cowering under a shelf in Richard's Tavern at 557 N. Perry St.

Four patrolmen, Orville Johnston, Albert W. Foster Jr., James Lafnear and Billy F. Jones, surrounded the building after responding to a telephone call that someone had broken into the tavern.

The officers said Miller had $8.55 in change in his possession which he admitted taking from the cash register. Miller, who police said has a record of previous breakins, was scheduled for further questioning today.

Tastier Burgers Hit Opposition in Legislature

LANSING (AP)—The House listened attentatively last night while a woman representative spoke out on a subject close to her heart—cooking.

Rep. Josephine Hunsinger (D-Detroit) rose to assail a bill which would allow packers to add monosodium glutamate to hamburgers.

"I believe as a housewife and an ardent fan of the hamburger that you should be able to buy hamburgers without having them doctored up," Mrs. Hunsinger said.

"This is just another dodge to sell poor hamburgers and make them taste better," cried Rep. John W. Fletcher (R-Centreville).

The House finally decided to delay action on the bill, which has already passed the Senate.

Tot Killed in Crash

FLINT (AP)—Earl Raymond Geister, 2½, was killed Monday night in a two-car collision at an intersection near the Flint city limits. The child's mother, Treva, 24, and his brother, Michael, 6, were injured in the accident.

Sitting Bull's Autobiography Published in Smithsonian Institution Pamphlet

By ARTHUR EDSON

WASHINGTON (AP)—Almost every warrior, from Julius Caesar to Dwight D. Eisenhower, has felt it necessary to write the history of his exploits.

And this, it turns out today, was an old Indian custom, too. The Smithsonian Institution has brought out the autobiography of Sitting Bull.

The thing that makes Sitting Bull unusual is that he couldn't write. But he could draw, and presumably he liked to brag of his accomplishments. For this is the fourth autobiography of his to turn up, which puts him three up on Eisenhower.

* * *

Sitting Bull probably is the best known of all the plains Indians, largely because he was involved in Custer's Last Stand. Actually, Dr. Matthew Stirling of the Smithsonian said, Sitting Bull wasn't even at the battle.

From the Indians' standpoint, he was too busy to be spared. He was back at headquarters making medicine, and you don't think he did a good job, remember who won the battle.

The latest autobiography was drawn while Sitting Bull was a captive at Ft. Randall in Dakota territory.

* * *

Miss Quimby died in 1947, and the Ft. Joseph Historical Assn. Museum in Niles, Mich., now has the sketches. They're described in the Smithsonian pamphlet by Alexis A. Praus of the Kalamazoo, Mich., Museum. The Publications Division of the Smithsonian, Washington 25, D. C., sells the pamphlet for 35 cents.

Dr. Stirling said the plains Indians believed bravery was the mark of a man. And a Sioux Indian, like Sitting Bull, could demonstrate that bravery either by stealing horses, or by performing a coup. This meant getting close enough to an enemy to touch him with a four foot stick or lance.

* * *

"Or if he wanted to be real brave," Dr. Stirling said, "he could touch him with his hand."

Sitting Bull doesn't show himself getting close enough for a hand touch, but in other respects he was doing splendidly.

One sketch shows Sitting Bull on a branded horse, proof that it was stolen from the U. S. Army. And in all the pictures but one—the 13th was not completed, and has only a riderless horse—Sitting Bull is mowing down his enemies as monotonously as in a cowboy movie.

An oddity: Sitting Bull undoubtedly performed, and was proud of, coups against the white man. But since he was a captive, and dealing with a white girl, Sitting Bull never mentioned this.

* * *

And so, to his other accomplishments, warrior, leader, medicine man, artist and horse thief, you can also add that he was something of a diplomat.

Charge Is Denied by Calumet Miners

The company termed the strike "illegal." Saturday it announced it had fired 1,848 strikers.

The company said the local failed to notify federal and state mediation services that a dispute existed.

The walkout shut the division's five mines.

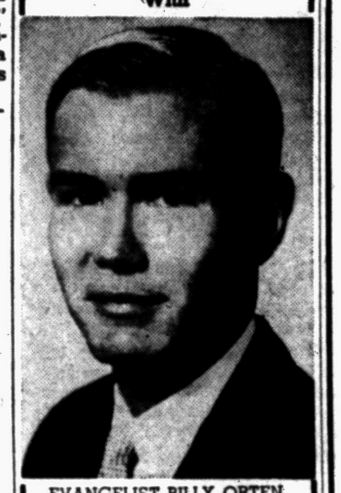

The company said 155 maintenance men and 400 salaried workers were not affected by the firing order.

The local agreed to let the maintenance men go into the mines May 5 after the company filed a $3,500,000 damage suit in Federal Court for damage to smelter furnaces and losses in production.

Thief Gets Sentence

CADILLAC (AP)—Wexford Circuit Judge Howard L. Campbell Monday sentenced Milan Briggs, 24, to "15 years and not less than 10 years" in Southern Michigan Prison for car theft. It was Briggs' third felony conviction. Briggs escaped from the Wexford County Jail Saturday but was returned to custody within 24 hours.

Charles P. Taft a Foe of High Protectionism

Far too few Americans realize how important a role CHARLES P. TAFT has played in the Reciprocal Trade Act fight.

This son of the late President WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT and brother of the late Senator ROBERT A. TAFT, is a doughty battler against high tariffs. As chairman of the Committee for a National Trade Policy he told the Nation:

"Passage of the Administration's (trade) program will signify defeat of the greatest high tariff drive in our history and show the free world we really mean what we say . . . To stand united and free, the free nations must increase their trade with each other."

★ ★ ★

TAFT, now 57, is a top honor graduate of Yale's law school. In his twenties he helped oust a corrupt administration from his home town of Cincinnati. Later he built low cost housing, helped provide relief to needy families and gave legal advice to both labor and management.

★ ★ ★

Throughout his adult life this younger brother of Ohio's famous Senator has been an outstanding churchman and advocate of political reforms. To him belongs the distinction of being the first layman to head the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ.

Red Alliance Formalized

It is important that free peoples see the hokum in the alliance with seven satellites Russia has set up at Warsaw as a counter to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

This doesn't mean that the formidable character of the arrangement should be ignored. Any agreement that unites under one command, as this does, military forces totaling 6,000,000 men, cannot be viewed lightly.

The truth is, of course, that the alliance just formalized actually has been in existence for years. Moreover, it now has the pledged support of Red China with its armies of 4,000,000 men.

This Communist maneuver brings out into the open what Moscow has tried to hide. The eight nation accord clears the way for enlargement of the satellite forces and making them more definitely a part of the Soviet military machine.

In addition it makes possible bigger and better Russian airfields closer to the Western front, stockpiling of supplies and expansion of rail facilities. It also provides a legal basis for keeping Soviet troops in Hungary and Rumania, from which they are supposed to withdraw after ratification of the Austrian treaty.

Not only that, the pact gives Russia an excuse to station Red troops in such advanced positions as Czechoslovakia and Bulgaria. Finally, the alliance gives Russia a ready means of suppressing any revolt such as occurred in East Germany.

It must be remembered that if it hadn't been for Russian aggression and threats there wouldn't have been any NATO or Allied system of bases. Moscow is making the West's defensive measures the excuse for further expansion and consolidation of Communist political and military power.

WE DON'T know what happens when an irresistible force meets with an unmovable body, but we do know what takes place when a man's inalienable right to work anywhere he pleases meets with an implacable picket line.

Taxes and Income

If you are among those who think taxes get too large a bite out of your income, be of good cheer.

Take it from the National Industrial Conference Board, things aren't as bad as they seem. Looking at the situation from the tax and income viewpoint, there actually has been some improvement in recent years.

That is the result of a too generally overlooked fact that as our economy and population both grow, there are more taxpayers and more income.

In the past seven years the number of families, including unattached individuals, with income under $4,000 declined 23 per cent. At the same time the number of families in the country increased 17 per cent.

Since 1946 the number of families with incomes over $4,000 a year increased 95 per cent. The greatest gains were shown in the $6,000 to $7,500 bracket, 145 per cent, and in the $7,500 to $9,000 bracket, 176 per cent.

Back in 1946 two-thirds or about 66 per cent of all families had incomes of less than $4,000. By 1953 this percentage had been reduced to 44.

★ ★ ★

As everybody knows taxes as well as incomes have been going up, and the dollar has lost quite a bit if its buying power. Yet after adjustments for these factors, the situation doesn't look as dark as people think. In fact the average family's income has gone up 16 per cent while the weight of the tax burden has grown only 14 per cent.

IT IS far easier to be brave in the head than in the feet.

Young Rabbits Found to Be Different From Some Folks

Life of the party: The guy that often is the death of it.

Mrs. Samuel Jharmark

in the basement of the family home at Watkins Lake. When the neighborhood hunters and dogs find a nest of young rabbits whose mother had been killed, the babies are turned over to them and fed with medicine droppers and otherwise. The feeding is kept up until they grow large enough to shift for themselves when they are turned loose. Unlike many humans who become content to live off charity, they never return for further feeding.

of Lake Orion, in telling of a turtle that was grabbing at the feet of her young ducks as they paddled around the lake. She hauled the turtle from the water with a garden rake. It was of the "snapper" variety, and held fast to the end of a stick, pulling its head from under its shell, giving Mrs. Gormley a chance to chop it off. "That's what we get for sticking out our necks," she says.

Doing Okay on the Inside Track

David Lawrence Says:

Blast in Pravda Indicates Somebody Got Red Goat

LONDON — Somebody got the Soviet government's goat last week, and maybe it was Eisenhower or maybe it was Dulles.

But the net result is an indignant editorial in Pravda, which is widely reprinted here this week, complaining that the American government isn't really sincere about the four-power conference "at the summit" because presumably irrelevant questions are being raised by the United States for discussion.

Thus, for instance, the Moscow editorial says it is absurd to introduce the matter of restoring the "old regimes" in the satellite countries or prohibiting the "progressive movement in capitalist countries." All this, the Soviets say, has "no connection with the tasks of the conference" and are merely "technical obstacles."

The Soviets, of course, would like another Yalta conference in which the world would be carved up by the major powers and there would be binding agreements made that amounted to the abandonment of the hopes and aspirations of the oppressed peoples.

SOVIET INTERFERENCE

The Moscow strategists had better watch out, because, while they accuse America of interfering in the British election campaign by saying a four-power conference is favored by the United States when really not caring for it, there is a chance the partisans here will come to the conclusion that the Russians are doing a bit of interfering, too.

For if they blast the hopes of the British stump speakers about the eventual value of the four-power conference, they will be hurting the campaign arguments of both sides here.

The Socialist Labor party folks, for example, applaud the decision to hold a four-power conference as being the result of their efforts. The Conservatives, while cautious about their predictions, are nevertheless playing the issue for all it is worth as an index of their own constructive purposes.

Harold Macmillan, foreign secretary and Conservative leader, puts it this way: "All this process of negotiation will take time. There will be disappointments as well as successes. But so long as this process is going on, it means peace and not war.

REDUCES TENSION

"The very fact of this system being effectively at work will serve to reduce tension and perhaps prevent dangerous outbreaks at this or that tender spot in international relations. To that extent, even if it does not achieve anything or everything, it will still be more than justified."

Macmillan talks in this broad and vague way to impress the electorate with the belief that something vital toward the making of peace is going on. He declares that the four powers "should not arrogate to themselves the authority to settle all the difficulties which beset all nations," but he thinks their survey should cover the globe and "should not be confined necessarily to Europe but could comprise the problems of the Far East."

The passion for peace is tremendous, but it is a serious question whether it is wise to let the people believe the chances are better than they really are. What the Conservatives are campaigning against is a program of the left-wing Socialist Labor party speakers who are saying many of the things Soviet Russia would like to see accomplished.

Aneurin Bevan, one of the Socialist Labor party leaders, argues for his party platform, which includes a ban on all nuclear bomb tests. He says:

"The H-bombs now being exploded may have appalling effects on the human species. Children may be born with all kinds of hideous formations."

COMMUNIST LINE

This is the line the Communists have been trying to put over for a long time, even in America. The British press prints charges about the fallout from nuclear tests which aren't true and have no official confirmation at all.

Alfred Robens, former minister of labor and now a candidate for Parliament on the Socialist Labor ticket, says a vote for him means "an effort to get nations to agree to stop H-bomb tests." He adds, "Certainly Eden is not as likely to stand up to the U. S. State Department as was Attlee."

Despite the claim that this election campaign is being fought on domestic issues, a lot is being said about foreign policy and it seems certain that, if the Socialist Labor party wins, Moscow will be happy — at least for a while.

For the truth is that the Socialist Labor party leaders know that friction with America would mean a short tenure for them.

It is remarkable how little intelligence the electorate is supposed to have. That's the biggest mistake the politicians make both here and back home.

Pontiac Woman Points Out Ignorance in Matters Regarding Mental Ailments

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature

It is only after reading letters like the one written by Harriet Ann Hoyt that we are shocked into the realization of how little the average person knows about mental patients and the workings of our mental hospitals.

The words pneumonia and cancer are common knowledge to all of us. But mention paranoia or schizophrenia and you draw a complete blank or get a twisted, jumbled answer that does not even faintly resemble the true meanings.

Miss Hoyt, you seem to have confused the word psychosis with neurosis. And the 'dreamers' of whom you speak are cared for in our mental hospitals only when their dreams have caused them to lose contact with reality.

You may thank God for our psychiatrists, who are helping thousands of people daily to return to normal, healthy living.

Not only do we need more mental hospitals and psychiatrists, but we need an educational program for the general public. Many are still living in the Dark Ages in regard to mental illnesses.

A dictionary will not give the answers you need to know. But a broader mind and a better understanding of your fellow man will help.

Betty Rizzuto Asks Public to Speak Up for Postmen

I think with all the run-around the postmen and Postal workers are getting, it's about time someone spoke out in their behalf. It's also time the public wakes up.

Most of the men in this city work for automobile manufacturers, and they are paid very well, from $1.99 to $2.10 per hour and even higher. Still they are about to strike for a raise, among other things.

The Post Office Department is in the red all right. The reason for that is mainly junk mail. They allow it to go through with minimum postage, and who reads it?

Everybody complains but nobody does anything about it. You and I are the government, and we are also the taxpayers.

The President said he would okay a seven and six-tenths per cent raise, but he vetoed a bill asking for only one per cent more than that. As he put it, "It would be too big a burden on the taxpayers."

It is your privilege to speak up, so unless you do, don't expect anything from your mailman.

A gentleman is one who knows . . . A lady when he sees her . . . Who never would embarrass her . . . Or ever try to tease her . . . Who is prepared to guard her and . . . To sacrifice his coat . . . Manhattan's Magic Spell Made of Youthful Dreams

NEW YORK (AP)—What is the magic of Manhattan?

Cynics have been predicting for some time that the flight to the suburbs would eventually turn this heart island of New York City into a ghost town on the Hudson—the world's largest pigeon roost. Some people, perhaps, rather hoped this would happen.

But what has really happened? No grass is growing in Wall Street yet. In the last 10 years some 21 million square feet of office space has been built or is planned in the midtown area. Luxurious new apartment buildings are still springing up like dandelions. The U. N. has lifted a towering new home of glass-enclosed hope for the future.

* * *

Commenting on this spectacular postwar growth, a real estate dealer the other day said, rather wonderingly, there seems to be "some magic in Manhattan that defies logic."

There is a magic in Manhattan, the magic of an ever-young town ceaselessly growing through 300 years of continuous change.

"The pace here is killing . . . Everybody has a dog-eat-dog attitude . . . I couldn't live here, feeling so cramped and crowded." These are typical complaints of out-of-town visitors.

"What do you really see in the place?" they ask. "Why, I wouldn't take Manhattan as a gift."

* * *

But as they leave for their home town, they wonder secretly if, after all, there isn't something here they have missed.

There is. They have missed the whole thing—the magic in Manhattan.

They have missed the glamor and excitement and power and majesty that make up the real lure of Manhattan. They have a vague dislike of Manhattan, and an active distrust of it. But they don't know enough about Manhattan either to hate it or love it. You have to marry Manhattan to do that. You have to live here.

Manhattan is a mighty melange of money, mystery and melodrama made up of many smells and sights and sounds and an infinite number of voices. Manhattan isn't America, but it is America squeezed up like an accordian—where the mountains are manmade and the prairies have a "keep off the grass" sign.

Manhattan is the true "dream city" of our country. More people travel here to make their dreams come true than to any other city in the world.

* * *

This is the talent capital of the 20th Century, the market place for every type of genius, whether your skill lies in training fleas, directing a symphony orchestra or building skyscrapers. It is the modern mecca of the writer, the salesman, the artist, the businessman, the chef, the boxer, the scholar and the con man. Whatever you can do, here is your market and your audience.

Manhattan is less lovely than Paris, less livable than London, less casually friendly than any major American metropolis. But it holds more grandeur than ancient Rome, and is gradually attaining some of the glory of old Greece.

* * *

There are a thousand accents in Manhattan, but the main accent is on youth. Youth isn't served here, but it has a chance to sell here anything it can dish up that has a new quality or a fresh excitement.

That is the real magic in Manhattan, a city that eternally renews itself by feeding on young dreams: Anything is possible here, whatever you look for you have a feeling you may find it.

Nobody owns Manhattan. It gives you a feeling of belonging to something greater than yourself. But anyone who lives here and then goes away knows in his heart that part of him will always belong to Manhattan, and that he has left something behind—usually his dreams.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Struggling Young Dentist Must Learn to Sell Himself to Prospective Patients

Dr. Julian was an "A" student in dental college but he finds that recruiting a practice is a selling job. Indeed, every successful clergyman and doctor, as well as teacher and businessman, needs to be a stellar salesman either of ideas, services or merchandise. So study this case very carefully.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case O-338: Dr. Julian K., aged 26, is a dentist who has only recently opened an office.

"Dr. Crane, what am I supposed to do now?" he asked, desperately.

"I've been in practice for four months, yet I haven't had 50 different patients.

"And I am heavily in debt for office equipment, X-ray machine, etc.

"It is against the ethics of our Dental Society for a doctor to advertise personally.

"But if more patients don't start coming to me soon, I'll be bankrupt. How will they ever find me on the 11th floor of this downtown bank building?"

A prominent Milwaukee dentist wrote a stimulating essay a few years ago in which he stated that it takes 500 different patients in a dentist's chair to furnish him enough repeat calls and referred patients to keep him fairly busy.

800 PATIENTS NEEDED

And 800 different patients are required to make him so rushed he hardly has time for lunch.

Well, how can a man get those 500 when he is debarred from advertising that he is a dentist or physician?

That has long been an acute professional problem. But a doctor of dentistry or medicine is like a lawyer or an insurance salesman in the fact he must plan on the long pull.

It takes years to build a flourishing practice or a successful sales clientele. So don't expect miracles in the first year.

One technique that young doctors can employ is to rub elbows with a lot of people socially. Become active in a Boy Scout troop, or in the YMCA and CYO.

Take an active part in church and community life. Join a men's luncheon club, such as Kiwanis, Lions, Exchange, Rotary, Optimist, Civitan, Toastmaster's, etc.

Scientists are usually rather introvertive and not inclined to smile first or start conversations.

USE SALESMANSHIP

But salesmen, whether of insurance or religious idealism, dentistry or medicine, must realize the seller is supposed to make the first move in establishing friendly relations.

So join the "Compliment Club" and look for virtues in your companions. Then pay them compliments thereon.

Smile freely. Remember that everybody bears this indelible motto figuratively tattooed on his chest:

"I Want to Feel Important".

It pays to be friendly with everybody, including the charwomen of your building, as well as the newspaper boy on the corner, for occasionally a stranger with an aching tooth will approach the latter and say:

"Buddy, I got a terrible toothache. Do you know any good dentist around this vicinity?"

Your friends' word-of-mouth talk-up are your best insurance for getting those first 5 or 10 patients.

But a charming wife or popular office assistant will likewise steer a lot of patients your way.

STAY IN ONE PLACE

Pick a good potential spot and then stay "put." If you've spent a year and have recruited 125 new patients; don't fall victim to the "distant pastures appear greener" fallacy, for when you move you must start all over again without one patient.

For further advice, send for my booklet "Modern Advertising Strategy." It's helpful to doctors as well as businessmen.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and a dime to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his psychological charts.

Throat Specialist Issues Defense of Tonsillectomy

By DR. WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

A physician who was formerly an officer of national associations or societies of ear, nose, and throat specialists submits in defense of tonsillectomy:

* * *

1. Tonsillotomy (that is, simply "clipping" or slicing off the obstructing portion of tonsil) was in common vogue with the foremost laryngologists at the turn of the century.

Since that time it has been almost entirely abandoned by all competent throat specialists as yielding far less satisfactory results than tonsillectomy (that is, radical dissection of the throat in the endeavor to remove every bit of tonsil tissue).

Either the opinion of such doctors has dependable validity, or Dr. Brady is right.

2. By far the greater number of tonsil operations are done for the removal of a source of infection, not for mechanical obstruction. Unless the entire tonsil is removed, the sources of infection would remain unreached by tonsillotomy.

NOT MINOR SURGERY

5. (In a later piece we'll print the third, fourth and sixth argument submitted by the laryngologist.) I must disagree that tonsillotomy is an "instantaneous minor operation."

Unless one wishes to revert to the pre-anaesthetic days before 1900, it, like tonsillectomy, demands, in children, a general anesthetic, and hence entails an equal, though fortunately rare, risk of occasional cardiac arrest.

* * *

If the laryngologist will consent to delete from his first argument the implication that only incompetent specialists do the minor operation, we may continue the discussion.

For a quarter of a century the trick specialists and clinic racketeers that have infested the profession have been using such tactics in the attempts to silence me—not without success in some communities.

But this laryngologist's "defense of tonsillectomy" indicates, doesn't it, that I'm still in there pitching.

The laryngologist's second argument implies that some tonsil operations are done for a purpose other than the removal of a source of infection, presumably to relieve obstruction of the breathing, obstruction of the Eustachian tubes (a common cause of impaired hearing in childhood), or obstruction of drainage from or ventilation of nasal sinuses.

BLIND DISSECTION

If this be true, why insist on blind dissection of the throat in the attempt to "get every bit of tonsil?" I say blind dissection, and I mean just that.

If any defender of tonsillectomy questions the validity of my remark, I'll cite authority, provided he or she is courteous about it.

* * *

Tonsillotomy is as nearly instantaneous as the extraction of a tooth, and involves no greater risk than does extraction of a tooth. Being so quickly over it requires only brief anesthesia, if any.

Whether the laryngologist or other advocates of tonsillectomy agree that tonsillotomy is a good alternative for the major operation or not, I beg parents or guardians of young children now under the threat of tonsillectomy to take time to think it over.

Remember, children's tonsils are usually enlarged in the spring. Leave 'em alone, and by the time school opens in the autumn, the enlarged tonsils will have shrunken to normal size, especially if the child has spent the summer playing outdoors in a minimum of clothing.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Pole-Vaulting Parson's Own Story

Teenage Trouble Doesn't Start on Corner

By THE REV. BOB RICHARDS
As Told to Jimmy Breslin

LONG BEACH, Calif. (NEA)—It takes more than a street corner to start a kid toward trouble.

You don't get the staggering figures juvenile crime is piling up just because kids are hanging around. Take 1954. Over a million youths became involved with the law. One offhand figure: they stole more than 250,000 automobiles.

Mister, that's a lot of street-corners.

WHERE IT BEGINS

And juvenile delinquency does not begin on those corners. Instead, it starts in places far away—a canvas director's chair in Hollywood, or a television studio in New York or a cheap book publisher's office.

It ends with kids all over the country — maybe in your own back yard—moving toward trouble at a four-minute mile clip.

When a movie goes into production, and, under the guise of "reality," winds up as an hour and a half reel of sex, crime and violence, it is insuring an awful lot of policemen putting in a full day's work a couple of months later.

SEX CRIMES UP

You do not have to be a church man to figure this out. The Federal Bureau of Investigation says that one out of every seven crimes committed in this country is a sex crime and that more rapes are being committed by youths in the 18 and 19-year-old class than any other age group.

* * *

It is a downright miracle that we do not have five times more juvenile sex crimes than we do today.

When the man with the beret tells his leadinglady to lift her skirt a little higher, he may be taking a partnership in a rape some teenager will commit after the picture gets around.

It seems like a simple enough project, you'd think. If these movies don't do kids any good—and you won't find a person familiar with impressionable minds who would dispute this—then cut 'em out.

Well, things are moving in the other direction—and it is this, not the present amount of juvenile crime, which should have us really worried.

SCORES 'REALISM'

While nearly everybody of stature worries about the crimes kids are committing, just about the whole country it seems to me, turns right around and gives the movie industry a solid pat on the back for a new, aggressive policy.

Our movies, we hear, are going to get more "realistic."

In the meantime, we will pour more millions into the business of stopping crime. How silly can we get?

Television is another mass medium which gets plenty of mileage out of a comedian ogling a buxom girl and drawing rave notices for his humor.

* * *

The comic book industry, once a major offender, went out and hired a New York City magistrate, Charles Murphy, to come in and clean it' up. His job is beginning to show results—but right next to these new-type comic books, you'll find a newsstand carrying some paper-backed special whose cover alone is enough to cause trouble.

SEX RESPONSIBLE

These things, more than all the tough kids street corners can hold, are directly responsible for the sickening wave of youth in trouble.

All the usual things which are harped upon — lack of parental guidance, the wars—they disappear like sugar in coffee when you stack them against a sexy film as a cause for juvenile delinquency.

The whole nation seems to be conditioned for sex. You can count box-office successes which didn't include it on your one hand. I have a good friend who is a movie star. She'll tell me about a picture she thinks is particularly interesting and the affair will drop into red ink. The kind of a movie—or TV show or book—that just doesn't make sense to you, in view of what's going on, brings in enough for somebody to retire.

JOINS COUPLE—In his church at Long Beach, Calif., the Rev. Bob Richards performs wedding for John L. Stark and Joan Tuthill just a few hours after he had set a new pole vault record in St. Louis.

MOVIES, TV AT FAULT

Kids, you see, watch television and go to movies and read books. If almost everything they get their hands on contains either sex or a gun-shooting hero, the ones at the crossroads—like that 15-year-old back in Champaign, Ill.—hardly have a chance.

I received what I feel is a clear impression of just how widely accepted these sex and violence affairs are during a State Department good-will tour of India last year.

I forget the name of the movie, but I remember there were seven people dead inside the first 45 minutes and a half-dressed girl was the heroine up to that point.

1901 Biscuit Still Around

TROY, Ala. (UP) — Wallace Moore has a 54-year-old biscuit. It was served to him at breakfast the morning before he left college in 1901 for the Christmas holidays. Although it's cracked in a few places, Moore said the biscuits still in fair condition and is easily recognizable for what it is.

Women Pastors Get Church Nod

Presbyterian Assembly OKs Feminine Clergy After Lively Debate

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Should women be ordained as preachers?

"Yes," says the 167th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. Its approval yesterday by a standing vote of about 3 or 4 to 1 now goes to the church's 265 Presbyteries or local groups. A majority must vote approval.

During lively floor debate, the Rev. Victor G. Dawe, of Framingham, Mass., declared:

"Too often when women have felt themselves called to be bishops, it has resulted in cults and heresies. Witness Mary Baker Eddy in Boston and Aimee Semple McPherson here in Los Angeles."

The Rev. LeRoy Patrick, Pittsburgh, replied:

"We sin against women when we say that cults and heresies are associated peculiarly with them. The Christian faith has been history's most potent force in elevating women. I, for one, do not fear their ordination."

A committee report urging their ordination said the Bible teaches "in Christ Jesus there is neither male nor female" and commented:

Ike Tells Party Majority Backs Thinking of GOP

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower slipped away from a White House stag dinner last night to tell a Republican audience that Democrats may outnumber them but that GOP thinking is 'majority thinking."

He said most Americans agree with the aims of his administration, which he said are based on "a very simple sort of idea." The idea:

* * *

"We take the principles of the past and apply them to the problems of the moment, and that's all there is to it."

Speaking informally at a GOP "Kickoff for 1956 Dinner," Eisenhower depicted the Republican party as a middle-of-the-road group with principles based on the moral precepts of the Founding Fathers.

Suspend 52 Students for Playing Hooky

GLOVERSVILLE, N.Y. (AP)—Fifty-two honor students at Gloversville High School, nearing the end of their senior year, played hooky last Friday afternoon for a picnic at a nearby lake. They said they figured they would be kept after school a few days.

The nine boys and 43 girls yesterday were suspended for two days. Rules "apply to all students" said William E. Male, Superintendent of schools.

Don't Attend Red Fete, Nehru's Party Advises

NEW DELHI (AP)—Indian Prime Minister Nehru's Congress party has told its members not to attend the Communist-sponsored World Festival of Youth in Warsaw, Poland, in July, it was learned today.

A circular letter from Congress headquarters also said the party's members should not associate with the Red World Federation of Democratic Youth, which is sponsoring the Warsaw meeting.

Sailors Quizzed About Carrier's 'Houseguests'

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP)—Officers are questioning sailors named "Jim" or "Joe" on the aircraft carrier USS Point Cruz to try to find out how two girls —"both blonde, both 17—managed to spend a night aboard the ship.

* * *

* * *

They had been missing from their San Pedro homes Saturday night, and returned with a tale of having been kidnaped. Later they told juvenile officers they actually spent the night aboard the Point Cruz, then tied up in San Pedro.

The girls told the officers they went aboard the ship Saturday with armed forces day visitors, were hidden away by two sailor friends they knew only as "Jim" and "Joe," and then went ashore unnoticed in the midst of Sunday's visitors.

North Church Spire Work Begins Today

BOSTON (AP)—Restoration work on the Old North Church steeple—where hung the lanterns that warned Paul Revere the British were coming—is scheduled to begin today.

The first of several white oak beams, hand hewn and 46 feet long will be set into place today with the siding, spire and weathervane scheduled to follow. Contractors expect to finish the job in August—a year after Hurricane Carol toppled the original structure.

President Sends Congratulations to Clubwomen

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—President Eisenhower today commended the General Federation of Women's Clubs for its efforts to increase international good will.

The message from the White House was sent to the opening of the organization's 64th annual convention.

Eisenhower said it is particularly impressive that through their generous contributions for overseas relief, the clubwomen have demonstrated their friendship for women of other nations.

The General Federation, the world's largest organization of women, has 11 million members, half in clubs in this country and the remainder in affiliated clubs in 33 foreign countries.

It's Time to Get Out and Find Fun Under the Sun

With bulging suitcases, bathing suits, sunglasses and peanut-butter sandwiches, more Americans will be vacationing this year than ever before.

They will be going by bus, car, train, bike foot, plane.

They will consume tons of hot dogs, hamburgers, soda, iodine, sunburn lotion and Band-Aids.

They will come back somewhat heavier, tired and happy.

And for 25 weeks they will recall their vacation. They will spend the next 25 planning next year's holiday.

Take a look at the statistics of auto travel, for example. The Bureau of Public Roads reports:

There is a total of 70 million vehicles on American roads.

There is a total o 70 million drivers. One-third of them are women.

About 35 million American families own cars.

It's a safe bet to figure that these families will be motoring to their summertime holiday because experts have found that single drivers are disappearing and family carloads are increasing.

The predictions go on:

Within the next 20 years there will be 85 million vehicles on the roads and mileage will soar upwards as travel becomes easier and more comfortable.

What does it mean today?

It means that people are learning more and more about how to relax, get away from the routines of the job, broaden their vistas with travel.

But there are problems attached to vacationing away from home. In a survey conducted by the Shell Oil Company among women planning vacation trips, these were the questions most often asked.

* * *

Where do you stay overnight? How do you know the best places and how do you plan your trip so that you can reach each place?

What are the best places to eat? If you are going to be stopping at restaurants much of the way, how can you avoid the hit-or-miss method?

What are the places to see, the points of interest? Surely there are historic and scenic spots that would make the trip as much a part of the vacation as the destination.

Is there some way of knowing about the roads you will take? What are the best ones, what are the prettiest, will there be detours?

What kind of clothes are necessary? Often you hear that packing for two weeks is the same as packing for a two-month trip. How can you avoid taking too much or too little?

Can a trip with children be planned to include all contingencies?

Is there a wrinkle-proof method of packing?

Are there rules of safety that one should know?

What kind of camping equipment—and the like—should be included?

And how can one do all these things, remember all these points, and pack all these objects and still leave time for a vacation and room for a comfortable trip?

There are several answers to each question. Experts seldom agree on anything.

In the first place, if you read your newspaper, you will find many of the questions answered.

It is a service of the paper to give you information on your daily routine, as well as on your vacation.

In the second place, chambers of commerce of most states will give you information about scenic routes and points of interest. So, too, will federal agencies.

Much of your best information, too, is available through your gas and oil companies.

Automobile associations have a lot of information at their disposal. And they will route you by any kind of road system you like.

And if you don't want to go by car, the bus companies, airlines, railroads and shiplines will supply you with any information you need.

Patron Saint to Welsh

Bevan in Midst of Fireball Campaign in Hilly Coal-Mining, Steel-Making Area

EBBW VALE, Wales, (AP) — To the rest of Britain he is Aneurin Bevan, leftwinger fireball in the campaign for Thursday's general election. Down here he's known as Nye, and regarded as a patron saint of this bleak mining and steel-making valley.

* * *

Bevan strode out of the coal mines into the political wars four decades ago. He is now an English farmer, but he still represents the Ebbw Vale district in Parliament (in Britain, candidates need not live in districts where they run.)

He is today well groomed and a man of the world, but in a sense he never has left this grimy valley.

He has made peace — for the time, at least — with the moderate leadership of the Labor Party. That's why, when you follow Bevan on a day of campaigning, he seems somewhat mild.

DRIVES OWN CAR

Bevan spoke at Chepstow and Bassaleg, for a young woman seeking a seat held by a Conservative, and in his own district of Ebbw Vale (pronounced ebb-uh). He drove his own car and covered 150 or so mkountainous miles.

* * *

He confined himself almost entirely to domestic issues, taking up the H-bomb and foreign issues only when heckled from the floor. He mentioned the Labor Party Leader, Clement Attlee, only once. That was when he told a heckler: "If it had not been for the fact that we sent Attlee to Washington to prevent the United States from dropping the atomic bomb in China, the third world war would be upon us."

Bevan, 57, may eventually succeed Attlee, 72, as party leader. He is a popular figure with the party's rank and file but is disliked by the leaders of the giant trade union, financial backbone of the party. His feuds with Attlee have led him to near expulsion several times but he has been taken back into the party each time.

The heckling came at Chepstow and Bassaleg. He loved it. His blue eyes lighted and he boomed out: "Don't be so rude. If you don't listen, you'll be just as stupid going out as you were coming in."

Yet, the hecklers always come back for more.

ENTERTAINING

Although many dislike the idea that Bevan might become prime minister, none denies his brilliance. His speeches are perhaps the best entertainment in the election campaign.

* * *

H argued that the Conservatives tricked (he has trouble with his "r's" and "trick" comes out "twick) The people by running a campaign without any issues.

Bevan's full round face turned purple.

"That's not a policy," he said. "That's a silly slogan."

He paused for the applause and then added: "I defy anyone to translate that 'opportunity state' into concrete terms. It's a trick of the Tories to disenfranchise the British electorate."

For Sir Winston Churchill, sometimes an object of strong Bevanite fury, he had only soft slaps on the wrist. He told how Churchill once said that Britons were listless under Labor after the war.

CHIDES WINNIE

"What a silly thing to say," said Bevan, and now his eyes twinkled. "All Sir Winston had to do was to go out and take a look at all the baby carriage on the streets.

* * *

"But there was one difference after the last war. There's always a high birthrate when soldiers come home. But this time we had more babies born — and we kept them alive. And we kept their parents alive too."

Bevan was health minister in the Labor government Churchill ousted in 1951.

Key Solons to Meet on School Fund Cut

LANSING (AP) — Key legislators have been invited to meet with Gov. Williams Thursday to discuss cuts in the governor's recommended capital outlay for education.

Declining to enter into a public debate on the subject, Williams asked members of the Senate Appropriations and House Ways and Means committees to discuss the subject with the heads of state colleges and universities.

Williams, disturbed that the Senate took a big slice from his proposed budget, turned down an offer to debate the subject with Sen. Creighton R. Coleman. (R-Battle Creek.)

Grand Ole Opry Hillbilly Singer Leaves Show

In a letter to John H. Dewitt Jr., president of WSM, and to Edwin Craig, chairman of the board of National Life and Accident Insurance Co. which owns WSM, Webb complained he was not given his own radio show.

Dewitt commented: "We brought the youngster here because we recognized his talent. I have nothing else to say at this time except to wish him well."

Webb said that despite being voted the "top folk singer for the past two years" WSM had not shown him "any consideration whatsoever."

Find Man, 61, Dead

ALLEGAN (AP)—The body of Newon Belden, 61, of Rt. 1, Ostego was recovered yesterday from Snauble Brook, four miles north of Allegan. An uncle, Clifford Austin, 60, said his nephew had last been seen on May 16 but had not been missed since he frequently left home for several days at a time.

Windshield Washers Required in New Bill

LANSING (AP) — The House has sent to the Senate a bill requiring motorists to equip their cars with automatic windshield washing devices.

Rep. Walter Nakkula (R-Glad win) offered the idea as an amendment to a Senate-approved bill requiring defrosters on commercial vehicles.

Nakkula said all cars sould have to be equipped with the devices after Jan. 1, 1956, if the Pontiac goes along with his proposal.

High School Girl, 17, Dies After Smashup

State Police said the girl was one of six students in a car which struck a concrete bridge abutment on M115, a mile south of Thompsonville in Manistee County. The car was driven by James Watson, 18, of McBain, police reported. They said the group was returning from a school prom.

Thai Premier on Tour

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP)—Thai Premier P. Pibunsonggram arrived today from Brussels for a two day official visit to the Netherlands. He is on a world tour.

Joe Won't Campaign for Ike Next Time

WASHINGTON (INS) — Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis) said yesterday he will not support Eisenhower for reelection unless the chief executive takes action to free Americans jailed by Red China.

McCarthy made one exception, however. He said he would feel compelled to vote for Eisenhower anyway if Adlai Stevenson is the Democratic presidential candidate again next year.

In an interview, McCarthy said that unless the President acts on the prisoner issue, "he has abandoned uniformed men to the enemy."

The senator commented: "Unless he does something about that, I could not support him for any job of any kind."

City Woman Wins Prizes in Ceramics

Mrs. Lakkari Gets Award Ribbons at Great Lakes Show

By JANET ODELL

When prizes were awarded Sunday at the annual Great Lakes Ceramics Show in Detroit's Masonic Temple, a Pontiac woman came home with two ribbons. Virginia Lakkari (Mrs. W. H. Lakkari of 215 Draper avenue) won a second place and an honorable mention for her sculpture.

* * *

Although Mrs. Lakkari has long been interested in creative arts, this was her first excursion into sculpture. Three terms of lessons at the Birmingham Community House convinced her that she liked working with clay.

"Brooding Boy" might well be the title of her prize-winning piece. This small statue of a young boy, sitting chin in hands, is an arresting study.

The item winning honorable mention is laugh provoking. It is a terra cotta clay cat about 2 feet tall. From the front, the inside of the animal is visible; there four green and one yellow ceramic fish prove the cat had a good meal!

OTHER ART WORK

The Lakkari home is filled with other examples of its mistress' artistic ability. Pen and ink sketches, pastels and oil paintings decorate the walls. Pieces of sculpture are everywhere.

* * *

Mrs. Lakkari devotes many hours each week to her art. This quiet little woman is content to express herself in pictures and clay modeling and to leave more strenuous forms of activity and recreation to others.

A group of young girls from Green Lake won prizes in the children's division of the same show. First prize went to 12-year-old Nancy McClurg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. McClurg of Commerce road, for her statue of a llama.

HONORABLE MENTION

Honorable mention went to Linda Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Warren of Willow road. Just 12 recently, Linda made a mouse sitting with a hunk of cheese in its paws. All the girls are members of a Girl Scout troop that has been working to earn the Pottery Badge.

Mrs. McCallum Heads Women's Club

Mrs. Cecil McCallum was re-elected president of the Junior Pontiac Women's Club Monday at a meeting held at Old Mill Tavern.

Mrs. Clark J. Adams, project; Mrs. Vesta Engle, news and Mrs. Albert Kohn, picnic complete the list of committee chairmen.

* * *

New members welcomed into the club Monday night were Elsie Benson, Mrs. James Clarkson and Mrs. Bradley L. Scott. Mrs. Everett Reese conducted the election of officers and Mrs. Charles Crawford installed them.

The social committee was comprised of Mrs. Ben E. Bowman, Mrs. Jack Brannack, Mrs. Edward Lauckner, Mrs. Willard Boardman and Mrs. Frank J. Moreau.

Others are Mrs. A. L. MacAdams, Mrs. Leslie Ware, Mrs. James Spark, Mrs. Margaret Hutchinson and Mrs. Jay T Ford.

Sunset Club Hears Report on Meeting

Members attending the Spring Institute sponsored by the family and Child Welfare Federation, United Community Services, May 10 in Royal Oak, reported events to the Sunset Club, following a co-operative dinner at Wilson School.

Mrs. Olive Thompson, Mrs. Blanche Ford and David Cook of Keego Harbor, were guests at the recent gathering.

Mrs. David Collison Heads Naomi Group

Mrs. David Collison was elected president of the Naomi Group of First Christian Church when members met at the Fiddle road home of Mrs. Rex Cummings.

She was assisted by Mrs. William Elam, vice president and program chairman; Mrs. Cummings, secretary and Mrs. Arthur Smith treasurer.

Mrs. Elam took charge of the program at the recent gathering, with Mrs. Arthur Smith presenting the devotional.

Clothing Students Display Styles

"Spring Song in Fashions" will be presented by the ninth grade Clothing Department of Eastern Junior High School, under the supervision of Mrs. Arthur Van Ryzin.

The fashion show will be held Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. in Eastern's auditorium at the final PTSA meeting of the year.

Diane Beach opens the program singing "It's a Lovely Day Today." Play outfits and sports wear for that picnic, sailing, swimming or tennis, as well as roller skating, cycling and all other kinds of outdoor fun, will be modeled by the girls who made them.

Diane Beach, Judy Fortin, Rose Marie Rabaja, Jo Ann White, Marie Hickey, Karen Dewey, Ellen Taylor, Sharon Freeman, Yvonne Moder and Carol Wells use gay spring colors, and the materials vary from denims to terrycloth.

Rose Willson, Myradean Kilby, Pat Bergman, Pat Graham, Sally Kiser, Laura Lee Heimbaugh, Judy Fortin, Mary Ann Leonard, Karen Dewey and Marie Hickey model the sun dresses in the colors that complement their coloring and hair, and in materials of broadcloth, gingham and everglazes.

Ila Adams, Amber Feneley, Janet Stoner, Laura Goodrich, Billie Sims, Gaynelle Burke and Joan Crites made outfits to wear in this fashion show although they are from the Foods Department and had to spend many hours outside of school to complete their separates.

VIVID COLORS—PRINTS TOO

Patsy Bradsher, Jo Ann Breeze, Barbara Chapin, Jo Ann White, Yvonne Moder, Sally Kizer, Joanna Bland, Pat Bergman and Judy Fortin mix pastels and vivid colors with prints and checks when they model the separates they have made.

A group of seventh grade sewing beginners join the fun singing "The Good Ship Lollypop" as they model the blouse and skirt, the summer cottons they made in the clothing classes.

A collection of summer cottons —crisp or soft, subtle or splashy, pastel or bold, "little girl look" or sophisticated—will be shown when Karen Burnworth, and Carol Goebbel join many of the girls in a wide assortment of summer fashons. Big and litle sister duplicates will be worn by Pat Graham and little Kathy Robinson.

* * *

Ellen Taylor, Rose Marie Rabaja, Pat Bergman and Barbara Chapin with little Carol White model attractive housecoats and dusters as they sing "Dreams." They are joined by Karen Burnworth, Carol Goebbel, Karen Green, Jo Ann Breeze, Peggy Reaver and Amber Feneley, and the entire group will close the program singing "I'll See You in My Dreams."

Narration will be done by Sandra Langeland, and the accompanist will be Julie Blank.

Assisting Mrs. Van Ryzin are Mrs. Harry Hammerbeck, Mildred Loper, Lorna MacKellar, John Sluka and Ray E. Woods.

"Let's take a hike" say these three young ladies who have made attractive costumes for just such an outing. They are (left to right) JoAnn White, Yvonne Moder and Rose Marie Rabaja. They will be seen in the fashion show at Eastern Junior High School Wednesday.

"Everyone Has Funny Half Hour Now–Then"

By MARY MARGARET McBRIDE

The knowledge he thus gained became part of his bloodstream—"It kept me from having to stop and think about certain processes," he explained.

* * *

There in a few words, it seems to me, one of the most famous professionals has illustrated the necessity for putting in dull hours of practice to make techniques automatic.

These perfected, all work will be up to a high standard—and the artist will be able to handle the occasional bad days when a combination of circumstances — weather, health, fortune—makes going difficult.

Gracie Fields, the talented British comedienne, once spoke to me admiringly of her sister, a non-professional who, she said, is "much funnier than I am."

"But I suppose," she added as an after-thought, "everybody has a funny half hour now and then."

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

Just as one swallow, proverbially speaking, doesn't add up to a summer, neither does an occasional superb photograph make a skilled photographer, nor a half-hour of being funny a comedian.

The difference between the consistent performer and the momentarily inspired is the difference between the professional and the amateur.

Most of the professional writers I know keep the regular hours of a bank. They are on the job whether or not they "feel" like writing.

I think it was Mark Twain who bitterly summed up his emotions about his profession with: "I must love my work. I spend so much time looking at it."

These professionals — whether they are painters like Michaelangelo or surgeons like the late great Harvey Cushing—approach their tasks with what Joseph Conrad described as "efficiency of a practically flawless kind," the efficiency which Steichen achieved by such slavish practices as patiently taking picture after picture of an unexciting cup and saucer.

Luckily, there come days with the bonus of just the right mood when the creative artist does everything with added grace, charm and success.

* * *

Conrad speaks of these rare and wonderful times as reaching "a higher point, a subtle and unmistakable touch of love and pride beyond mere skill."

One who has experienced even one moment of such joy is spoiled for all other delights and doomed for life to go on striving and hoping.

COLLECTING STAMPS—2

Columbus Discovers America

Soon, however, some countries honored anniversaries of famous people and events. These stamps were called commemoratives.

The first set of such stamps was issued in 1893 to honor the 400th anniversary of the discovery of the New World by Christopher Columbus. The stamps were featured at the World's Columbian Exposition in Chicago.

There were 15 stamps in the set—from one cent to $5. Shown on the stamps wasthe story of Columbus' voyages, and pictures of Columbus, Queen Isabella and King Ferdinand of Spain.

East Berlin Youngsters to Burn West's Comics

BERLIN (AP) — Schoolchildren in Communist East Berlin will gather June 1 to burn Western comic books and other "trash" literature, the East Berlin newspaper National Zeitung announced today.

The paper said the "huge" bonfire would be touched off by members of the Communist youth organization, Young Pioneers. The fire will climax a drive against Western comic books, which the Communists say are undermining East German youth.

About 4,060,000 babies were born in the U. S. in 1954.

Rainstorms, Twister Rip Through Louisiana

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — Heavy rainstorms and a small tornado battered north Louisiana yesterday. Trees in a 40-foot path were uprooted and streets in a half-dozen communities were flooded.

No injuries were reported. Water ran two feet deep in the downtown business section of Plain Dealing, about 30 miles north of Shreveport.

Residents of the Liberty community, about 45 miles southeast of Shreveport, said the twister cut a path through three miles of heavy timber.

Forest Fires Threaten Town

Damp Air Helps Bring Blazes in Nova Scotia Under Control

HALIFAX, N. S. (AP)—Forest fires crackled today at the edge of the main residential district of the Atlantic coast community of Liverpool. Another major blaze raged in the Tantallon area, 15 miles west of Halifax.

Fire fighters said damp air which moved in yesterday had helped bring all other blazes in Nova Scotia under control.

In northern Ontario dying winds and rising humidity helped slow monster fires which have blackened more than 100,000 acres of timber. Weary foresters and volunteers counted heavily on scattered showers forecast for later today.

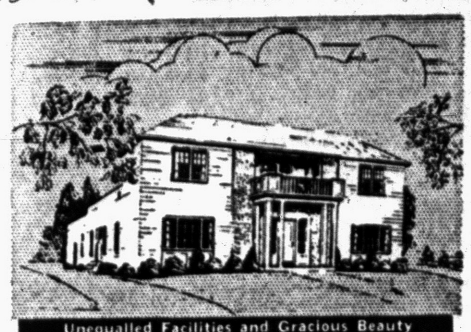

* * *

But officials said a wrongway wind—from the west—still could drive the most dangerous Nova Scotia blaze into the heart of Liverpool, a town of 3,500 persons 75 miles south of Halifax.

So far the Liverpool district had lost 80 buildings to the fire, including 28 homes, and some 6,000 acres of timber. Dozens of families were burned out and their livelihood imperiled by the loss of fishing and farming equipment.

Surgeon General L. A. Scheele

He's a Hard Man to Ruffle

WASHINGTON (AP)—If some day the roof caves in—literally—on Leonard A. Scheele, M. D., the chances are good that Scheele will pick himself up, brush himself off, reach for a hammer and start building a new roof.

He's a hard man to ruffle, is Dr. Scheele, surgeon general of the United States, head of the world's biggest health organization and central figure in the hottest politico-medical row to stir up the country in many a year.

Six-foot-two Leonard Scheele (pronounced like "Sheeley") is squarely in the middle of the controversy over Salk polio vaccine—an uproar that may or may not merit the "public hysteria" description applied to it by one of the vaccine manufacturers.

Scheele's role is twofold, under the law, as surgeon general and head of the U. S. Public Health Service, he has the responsibility of licensing vaccine for general use. Additionally, as chief health adviser to Secretary of Welfare Hobby, he makes recommendations—and they are weighty ones—on such problems as vaccine control and distribution.

It was Scheele himself who halted the nationwide program of vaccinating school children, so that the safety of the manufactured vaccine could be reassessed. It is on his orders, too, that a full resumption of the program has been postponed to await some further rechecking.

Finally it is Scheele and his Public Health Service, rather than Mrs. Hobby, who make the day-to-day announcements in the stop-and-go course of mass immunization—a course roundly praised by President Eisenhower and just as roundly raked over the coals by some Democratic lawmakers and other critics.

Leonard Andrew Scheele went straight into the health service from medical school (Wayne University, Detroit) in 1933. In World War II he directed public health work in North Africa and Italy, later was a member of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's planning staff for civil affairs and military government in Northwest Europe.

Though he now is identified with the polio program, Scheele's own field is cancer research. He was director of the Public Health Service's National Cancer Institute when, in 1948, President Truman picked him to become—at the age of 40—the youngest surgeon general in the nation's history.

Scheele was by no means a well known figure outside public health circles at that time. He recalls, in fact, that he was introduced to Truman as "Dr. Schultz." Even as surgeon general he was little known to the public until the polio story developed, for all that his honors, associations and decorations (among them the Legion of Merit and Croix de Guerre) run to 39 lines in Who's Who in America."

"I like the fact that everyone knew about this one. I wish everybody knew about all the other good things that could be done. I wish that women and men knew that they could go out and be periodically examined for cancer, and do something about cancer—and not be dying of it."

Atomic Ship Plans Past Talking Stage

AP Wirephoto Special to the Pontiac Press

Ike Will Choose One of Designs

Sketches Already Sent to White House; Firms Interested

Several designs for an atomic-powered merchant ship have been sent to the White House for President Eisenhower to choose the one he likes best.

At least two steamship companies are definitely interested in the "ship of tomorrow."

The United States Lines is considering building an atom-powered passenger ship as a sister vessel to the giant liner United States and as a replacement for its aging liner America.

Meanwhile, the Atomic Energy Commission issued its proposed rules under which American businessmen can obtain confidential or secret information needed to develop civilian uses of atomic energy. Lack of such data has held back several programs.

The shipping industry has been fired with interest by the success of the Navy's atomic-powered submarine Nautilus. This first vessel is admittedly too expensive to be a competitor of the conventional power plants for our merchant marine.

But engineers believe the expense can be cut now that the Navy has pioneered the way. They say atom-powered freighters and liners would have operational economies and advantages — more space for cargo and passengers, for one thing.

The vessel which Bethlehem Steel engineers have designed would have an over-all length of 600 feet and could transport 500 passengers around the globe without refueling.

The United States Lines is said to be well along in its planning for a ship to replace the America. The United States is 990 feet long and can carry 2,000 persons.

The Congressional Atomic Energy Committee was told that a cargo vessel around 500 feet long with a lift from 11,000 to 13,500 tons would cost 33 million dollars, with 21 million of that being for the nuclear power plant. The cost of pioneering comes high.

THESE WEREN'T FROM HEAVEN — Municipal Court Clerk Leo F. McDonald counts 1,261 of the copper coins which were brought to his office by Clarence Wiliams, 27, of 323 California St., in payment of a traffic fine. The total fine was $15. Said McDonald, shown pouring out the last of the pennies from a fruit jar in which Williams was saving them, "I'm glad the rest of the money was in nickels."

Modern Homes for Aged Are Plush

NEW YORK (UP)—The men and women who sat on the leather bar stools were white-haired and not so young as they'd like to be, but they were gay as they sipped before-dinner cocktails.

* * *

The scene was the little bar at the Mary Manning Walsh Residence for Old People in Manhattan, operated by the Catholic order of Carmelite Sisters.

All across the nation equally startling departures from rocking-chair routines can be found. Churches, lodges, labor unions, local governments and private citizens have built homes of all sizes and designs in the past 10 years.

They ranged from those free of charge or based on the ability to pay to luxurious institutions where a wealthy older person may turn over $25,000 in return for a guarantee of complete care the rest of his life.

HUGE PROBLEM

The problems of aging have become one of the nation's No. 1 concerns as the life span is lengthened by science. There are almost 15,000,000 Americans 65 or over and the rate goes up by 400,000 each year.

* * *

Most of them are in their own homes or living with children or relatives. But an ever-increasing number are living in homes for the aged that bear little resemblance to the once dreaded "poor house."

"The 'poor house' was the gateway to oblivion for old people," says Dr. Murray Federe, assistant professor at the University of Pittsburgh and a leader in planning one of the nation's most modern county homes for the aged.

It is a $20,000,000 home and hospital which will be completed next summer. The building is designed so that 1,100 of the 2,000 residents will have rooms accessible directly to ground level. Those who aren't bed patients will live in "colony" style and have a solarium, snack bar, shuffle board rooms, TV rooms, beauty parlors and an auditorium.

CHURCH HOME

That huge project contrasts with the 46 old timers living in a one-story, ultra modern building of glass and brick completed two months ago in Bensenville, Ill., by the Evangelical Reform Church.

* * *

In Portland, Ore., an eight story building containing 240 apartments was completed six months ago for tenants who average 69 in age. The first ones paid from $4,500 to $15,000 in advance for lifetime residence. They have a river view, their own theater, a library and horseshoe courts.

At the Walsh home here there is careful attention to keeping the senile or chronically ill from the active men and women who are encouraged to keep busy.

This week they gave a Gay Nineties review in their auditorium. It was written, produced and performed by the residents. They have instructors in pastel painting and needlework, a room for carpentry, looms for weaving and weekly movies.

Teamsters Prepare for Long Walkout

LOS ANGELES (INS)—The AFL Teamsters and for-hire trucking companies in 11 western states appeared girded today for a long, bitter struggle for victory in their dispute over a collective bargaining contract.

President Frank Brewster of the Western Conference of Teamsters advised members to be ready for a 60 to 90-day strike. The union has struck three of the major trucking concerns to back up demands for higher wages.

Managing Director Wade Sherrard of the California Trucking Associations declared in Los Angeles that "if we (the truckers) do not win, it will end our strength in collective bargaining negotiations."

Scores Dull Teaching in Scientist Shortage

RALEIGH, N. C. (INS) — A member of the Atomic Energy Commission said today that the teaching of mathematics and technical subjects in high schools must be improved if the nation is to overcome a dangerous shortage of engineers and scientists.

The commissioner, Dr. Williard F. Libby, also said that "uninspired teaching in the colleges and universities may have contributed to our present difficulties."

Libby, speaking at the dedication of an atomic research reactor at North Carolina State College, pointed out that half the high schools in the country offer no courses in chemistry and other basic scientific subjects.

New Fight Likely Over Receipts Tax

LANSING (AP) — A new House-Senate fight over revision of the business receipts tax shaped up today.

The Senate Taxation Committee reported out the House revision bill, but altered into the form of a former Senate bill which is buried in the House Taxation Committee.

This indicated that the bill will go to a conference committee between the two chambers and cause a late-session tangle.

The committee amended the business receipts tax to allow any business to offset the business receipts tax by the amount of its chain store tax. This virtually excuses the chain store tax.

Michigan Photographer Snaps Eaglet 80 Feet Up

NEWAYGO (UP)—It took Dick Black two days to do it, but he got a picture of a young eagle in a nest 80 feet off the ground in giant oak tree.

Black, well-known western Michigan photographer, finally got his picture by hauling a 10-foot ladder up into a nearby tree, lashing it to the top of the tree and climbing to a spot several feet higher than the next, which was about eight feet in diameter. Two assistants helped Black get into position to take the picture.

Praises Borrowers 6 to 16

Missouri Banker Loans Money to Young Farmers

STURGEON, Mo. (AP) — Johnny Sydow started out in the sheep business at the age of 8 with $53 in his pocket and good intentions.

Now, at 12, he has five ewes and a purebred sow as capital livestock, is earning profits from their offspring, and doesn't owe anyone a cent.

The man who gave Johnny—and scores of other youngsters in this area—a starting boost with a loan is C. L. Harper, president of the Sturgeon State Bank in this east-central Missouri farming community of 570 persons.

Harper says he has loaned about $6,000 in the past 10 years to youngsters from 6 of 16.

Risky you say?

"I've never turned down a youngster's application for a loan, never foreclosed on one, and never lost a cent on any loan," Harper declared proudly.

A mortgage on a boy's initial purchase of cattle, hogs or sheep is standard procedure. Interest is 6 per cent and everything is strictly business. Loans average between $100 and $200.

One boy, Harper recalls, sold a steer, repaid his loan, then deposited a $50 profit in the bank.

He came back two months later and stood around bashfully until his father said, "He won't tell you, but he wants to see his $50—he's afraid it isn't keeping all right."

Harper solemnly produced the $50, the boy counted it, and handed it back, satisfied.

Soo Bridge Bill OK'd Sent Up to Governor

LANSING (AP) — Legislation went to the governor today to clear the way for an international bridge at Sault Ste. Marie, connecting with Canada.

The Senate bill, which passed the House last night, would define rights between the State of Michigan and the Province of Ontario more clearly, would exempt the internatoinal railroad bridge from a previous law which forbade any competing bridge for the proposed new route and would permit existing ferries to operate.

Pickle Packers Pick Own National Week

CHICAGO (UP) — The National Pickle Packers Associaiton has proclaimed this National Pickle Week to make people pickle conscious.

But it seems that pickles already are at the peak of popularity.

According to Bill Moore, secretary of the pickle packers, pickle sales last year topped all other canned fruits and vegetables.

The American public consumed an all-time high of 715,200,000 jars of pickles of all varieties in 1954, and that's more than a peck of pickled peppers.

Moore said he can't quite figure out why people think pickles are funny, but they do.

Pontiac Press Photo

THROUGH THESE DOORS — Generations of Waterford Township students are destined to pass through the doors of the Isaac E. Crary Junior High School in the coming years. Parents will also be admitted, on occasions such as the dedication ceremonies slated for 8 p. m. The building was designed for 1,000 pupils, and 1,200 are currently acquiring their education in it. Indications are that there will be 2,000 on split-shifts using the building in the fall.

INTERIOR VIEW — The airy, well-lighted corridor of the building shows the design which endeavors to make the educational process as painless as possible for students. Students of the seventh and eighth grades currently have the building to themselves, but ninth graders will join them this fall. The building is named after Isaac E. Crary, congressman who pioneered education in the state.

New Junior High Houses 1,200 Students

The building, one of the largest junior highs in the area, will undergo inspection by parents and friends of its 1,200 students, beginning at 8 p. m.

Named for a pioneer in the educational development of the state, the $1,250,000 building is the first of two junior high buildings that will honor two leaders in the state's educational past.

TO HONOR PIERCE

John D. Pierce, a close friend, was given the post. Another junior high to be built at a later date will carry his name.

* * *

STUDENT TO SPEAK

A presentation entitled "Why Our School Was Named Isaac E. Crary Junior High School" will be read by student Tim Patterson. It was written by student David Wilson.

Superintendent of Schools William Shunck will present a gavel from the Marshall schools. It was at Marshall that Crary and Pierce paused beneath an oak tree in the 1830s to discuss the future education in Michigan.

School Principal James S. Fry will accept the gavel. With a closing benediction from Rev. Teeuwissen Jr., the open house portion of the program will begin.

Originally planned for 1,000 students, the building opened this fall with 1,200 in attendance. These seventh and eighth graders will be joined by ninth grade students this fall, swelling the enrollment to an expected 2,000.

Half day sessions will be necessary when this occurs.

Veto May Hold on Postal Hike

GOP Claiming Enough Votes to Choke Off Overriding Attempt

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate appeared likely today to rebuff half a milloin postal workers and give a victory to President Eisenhower by sustaining his veto of a postal pay raise.

The post office workers may still get a pay boost somewhat smaller than the one averaging over 8½ per cent which the President vetoed. Present pay scales were fixed in 1951.

Should the Senate override the veto, the House would still have to come through with the same two-thirds majority. A Senate vote to sustain the veto would make it unnecessary for the House to act.

Three hours of debate were allotted before the showdown, expected late in the afternoon.

Democratic leaders expected practically all their 49 members to be on hand and ready to vote to override. One member who has been absent throughout the session recuperating from an operation, Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass), returned to the capital yesterday.

GOP senators, it was learned, were being told they should vote to sustain the veto if they want Eisenhower to seek a second term. term.

The President said the bill he disapproved would cost too much and create new inequities without correcting old ones.

Hefty State Twins Set World Record

VICKSBURG, Mich. (INS) — Michigan's Morley twins, believed to have set the world's record for weight in a normal birth, were declared ready to go home some time this week.

The twins, Kevin (11 pounds, 4 ounces) and Karon (8 pounds, 12⅛ ounces) weighed in at 20 pounds and one-half ounce at birth last Thursday.

That's nearly double the combined weight of the famed Dionne quintuplets, who weighed a total of only 10 pounds, 1½ ounces.

The twins' mother, Mrs. Erving Morley, 31, is 5 feet 3 inches tall and weighs about 130 pounds. She has two other children.

Earlier this year, twins weighing 20 pounds, 4½ ounces were born in Cleveland, but they were delivered by Caesarean section.

Ike Signs Repeal of ACP Farm Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has signed a bill repealing a 1954 provision of the Agriculture Adjustment Act denying agriculture conservation (ACP) payments to farmers failing to comply with acreage allotments on all basic price supported crops.

The ACP eligibility provision was enacted last year to obtain greater compliance with acreage adjustment programs. It was regarded by the Agriculture Department as more likely to discourage soil conservation practices on family-type farms, which are exempt from quota controls.

Eisenhower repealed the provision yesterday.

The ACP eligibility section of the law applied only to cotton prior to 1954. It was seldom used, however, because marketing quotas as well as acreage controls prevented overplanting.

Nationalist Funds Found in Chicago

CHICAGO (INS) — Two $100,000 U.S. treasury bills purchased by a Chinese Nationalist general accused of embezzling six million dollars from his government have turned up in Chicago.

The bills were part of $2 million of such 90-day maturity bills purchased in 1951 by Lt. Gen. Pang-Tsu Mow before he fled to Mexico, where he now is in prison awaiting the results of extradition attempts by the Chinese Nationalist government.

All but $100,000 of the remainder of the bills are missing.

Two court actions have been instituted against a Chicago accountant executive, who said he purchased the bills, to recover the money for the Chinese government and require him to tell the circumstances under which he acquired the bills.

The man, William E. Decker of Decker & Co., told authorities he purchased the bills in New York City for $190,000.

Yugoslav Envoy Says Visit of Top Soviets No Sign of Change

WASHINGTON (AP) — Yugoslavia has told this country that Marshal Tito's plan to meet with top Russian leaders does not indicate any wavering from a policy of "firm independence."

Ambassador Leo Mates met with Secretary of State Dulles late yesterday and told newsmen upon emerging that "there will be no changes in our foreign policy as a result of the visit to Belgrade."

He referred to the scheduled visit to the Yugoslav capital later this month of Soviet Premier Bulganin and Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev.

There has been Western speculation that they will seek to woo tito, who broke with the late Premier Stalin in 1948, back into Moscow's orbit.

The State Department, in an announcement it conceded was unusual, said Dulles had congratulated Ambassador Mates "upon the success which has now crowned the courageous pursuit . . . of its policy of firm independence."

Romeo Council Re-Enacts 'Stopgap' Zoning Ordinance

ROMEO — The village council drafted a resolution to re-enact the 1949 zoning ordinance, following a public hearing on the issues last night.

The six-year-old ordinance had been found to be defective and was declared void last month by a Mt. Clemens Circuit Court. Village officials voted to re-enact the ordinance as a "stopgap measure" until recommendations from the nine-man village planning commission could be completed and presented for action.

A number of requests for rezoning of property from residential to business on South Main and North Bailey streets were presented during the hearing. The council said the requests would be turned over to the planning commission.

Village Attorney Jewel West added that the commission expects to have completed its examination of the whole zoning picture in the community within the next two or three weeks, and will submit recommendations to the council at that time.

TO STUDY RECOMMENDATIONS

After due consideration, village officials will act upon the recommendations and amend the old ordinance, bringing it up to date to meet present conditions.

* * *

Two local attorneys declared they would like to see the recommendation presented and the "whole picture discussed" before any ordinance is adopted.

It was pointed out, however, that during the period the commission was completing its study and the time required to advertise for changes, the village would be without a zone controlling measure.

The ordinance re-enacted last night will take effect June 13.

* * *

In other action, the council authorized the Romeo Lions Club to conduct a broom sale in the business district on June 3, and from door-to-door in the village on June 4, to raise additional funds toward the purchase of the Old Athletic Field.

Groups Mark Progress of Parent Education Plan

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — In an evaluation of the pilot study of the University of Chicago's parent education project in Waterford Township, it was found that three groups had completed the year's basic course, "Parenthood in a Free Nation." One of the groups was on the leadership level.

The project, which is under the direction of Ethel Kawin of the University of Chicago and sponsored by the Foundation, has as its objective, "the development of mature and responsible citizenship among adults as citizens of a free, democratic society."

Fifty-one groups in 18 states and two Canadian provinces began the study last fall. By year's end, approximately 160 groups had completed it.

Plans were made last night, when the leadership group met at Covert School, to expand the program throughout the township.

Representatives of the child study clubs, members of the Program Planning Committee, teachers and principals will be asked into the group.

With more leaders, the basic course will be available to more communities.

The groups from Williams Lake and Stringham PTAs are interested in the age-level courses, a new development of the study to be offered next fall.

A meeting for all PTA mental health chairmen was set for 8 p.m., June 9, at the Covert School.

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Three French industrial executives on a business trip here got to talking about food yesterday.

Why, they asked, is the salad dressing served in American restaurants labeled French dressing?

Hopes Rising in Dock Strike

Peace Moves by Rival Unions May Bring End to London Walkout

By MILTON MARMOR

LONDON (AP) — New peace moves raised guarded hopes today that rival unions soon may settle a waterfront strike crippling Britain's businest ports.

With the nation's general election only two days off, the warring organizations took steps which could lead to an end of the jurisdictional dispute. The walkout began yesterday in London, Manchester, the twin ports of Liverpool and Birkenhead, Hull and Rochester.

* * *

A government spokesman said 18,400 dockers were idle in those ports but 30,850 others were on the job as usual. The spokesman listed 83 ships idle in all the ports, 88 only partly worked and 102 being handled normally.

The strike already has caused a pileup of foodstuffs on the docks. Prime Minister Eden has said its continuation would seriously impair the nation's economy.

* * *

Prime Minister Eden's government also is faced with the threat of a nationwide strike of 70,000 railway engineers and firemen set for Saturday midnight. Labor Minister Sir Walter Monckton scheduled talks today with leaders of the associated Society of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen in a fresh effort to head off the walkout.

The strike was called to enforce demands for pay raises to maintain traditional differentials over less skilled employes on Britain's nationalized railroads.

Terrorists Kill 2, Hurt 12 in Morocco

PARIS (AP) — Three Moroccans were killed and 12 other persons, including 2 Europeans were injured in Casablanca last night in the continuing campaign of anti-French terrorism.

Guerilla bands and underground terroist organizations have been active against French residents and North African collaborators of the French in both Morocco and Algeria for months. In recent weeks their campaigns have been stepped up in both countries.

* * *

A public bath attendant was killed in Casablanca as he was leaving work yesterday afternoon.

Later another Moroccan was killed near the city fairground and a third was slain by revolver bullets in a notorious district called "Les Carrieres Centrales."

A homemade bomb exploded in another district, injuring a girl, 12. Later in the night two hand grenades were thrown into an open air movie theater. Eight Moroccans and two Europeans were wounded.

Says Seaway Will Not Make Soo Port City

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP) — The construction of the St. Lawrence Seaway probably will not make the Soo a port city, a local port expert believes.

B. L. Launstein, chairman of the Sault Ste. Marie Port Authority and vice president of the Michigan Waterways Assn., thinks the real advantages to the city would come from additional traffic on the St. Mary's River. This, he contends, could be made possible by deepening existing river channels and increasing facilities at the Soo locks.

Gen. Partridge Saying Goodbye to Nationalists

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Gen. Earle E. Partridge, outgoing commander of the U.S. Far East Air Force, is scheduled to visit Taipei Thursday to bid farewell to Nationalist China leaders.

He will be awarded the Grand Cordon of the Cloud and Banner, Nationalist China's highest decoration for foreigners.

He will go to Manila the same day, then return to Tokyo on his way to assume his new post as chief of the Continental Air Defense Command.

Area Pogo Champ Finds Stomach Just Won't Quit

DEARBORN (AP) — Ten-year-old Eddie Kozlowski, Dearborn's pogo stick jumping champion, is retiring without defending his title.

Eddie bobbed up and down 4,013 times on his pogo stick in setting a local record. But when he stopped he found his stomach continued to go up and down.

For two days he couldn't eat anything but ice cream.

Hot Sulphur Bath Leaves Her Limp

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (INS)—Ever since the vigorous days when I could outpace a kiddie car at 100 yards and pull up without wheezing, I have heard about the curious custom called "taking the baths."

* * *

It was a treatment for old people, aged 30 on, with rusty works. The only good thing about it, as I could see, was that "the baths" (as distinguished from "a bath") did not necessitate the use of soap. All you did was lie there and soak up minerals.

This seemed rather nice, if silly.

Well, the years have gone forward and I now have rusty works too. So when I checked into the plushy Greenbrier Hotel and read its brochure—"If you feel in the need of a genuine 'pick-me-up,' by all means phone the bath department; complete treatment, $8.50"—I said what the heck. After all, it isn't every day you run into, or over, a white sulphur spring.

Mrs. Jessie Bolt, a true sulphur-lover, told me to take off my clothes and put on a sheet and follow her. Through the long, warm corridor of the bath department we padded: she explaining that people have been relaxed, eased and fortified by the white sulphur spring waters here since 1778—me twitching my nose as subtly as possible in the moist, mineral-laden air so as not to offend Jessie.

ROTTON EGGS

The aroma of sulphur springs has been compared to that of rotten eggs, but it can not be as simply defined as that. There is cooked cauliflower in it somewhere, and possibly a touch of damp dog.

"Don't mind the smell. You'll get used to it," Jessie said, exaggerating. I slid into the bathtub filled with fog-colored water, and had my tense head propped on a pillow at the rear.

* * *

As I law there, Jessie recited the ingredients in the water—several sulphates, bicarbonates, oxides and phosphates and one, as I recall, silica—and I felt my sensibilities slowly slip away. Maybe it was partly boredom, as I have never been interested in chemical combinations, but principally it was minerals.

"They slip into all your pores and pull out the tightness," Jessie droned.

Fifteen minutes later, she brusquely awoke me to the world of smells and realitiy, and led her accumulated minerals to the salt-rub table. Here, the blood was put back into circulation with a coating of husky salt which bears no resemblance to the petite type that goes with pepper.

It rubs off the scales, Jessie pointed out, making me feel strangely like a finnan haddie preparing to be steamed.

And indeed, the steam came next, in a small room as hot as the tropics and as murky as an opium den (surely you know how murky that is), I "abandoned the impurities," as Jessie poetically put it. Just as I had figured out how to breathe in enough steam to sustain life, I was removed to the shower room and blasted with power sprays of tepid water.

"I'll aim the spray where it does the most good," said Jessie. And she did, making the experience of merely sitting down an interesting sensation.

Jessie then turned me over to Rosemary Pelkey, freckled-faced masseuse from England, who placed the body on a table, analyzed its problems and remarked, "You have a very nice figure."

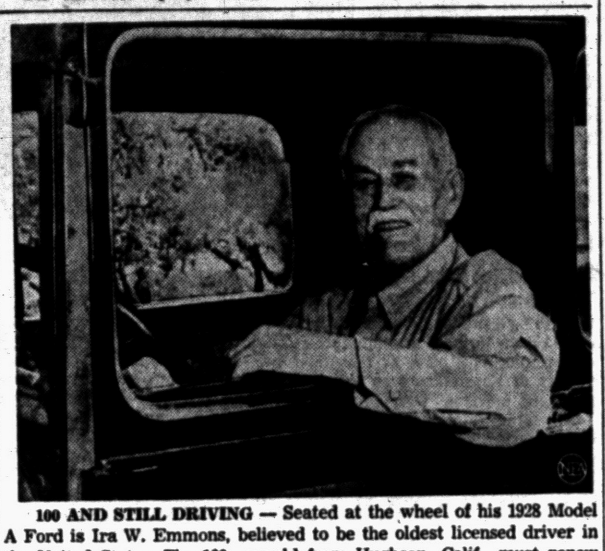

"Bet you tell that to all the girls," I said.

"Yes," she said, "I do."

Robbed of both ego and energy, there was nothing to do but lie there and pounnd out the final kinks and knots. When she was through I had virtually nothing left—no aches, no tensions, no nerves, no life—except worries. The problem, after a sulphur bath, is:

How do you get tense, taut, nervous and nuts enough to do your job again?

PICK YOUR CAR FROM THE HOTTEST-SELLING BUICKS IN HISTORY

There's a Buick to fit every purse and purpose—the bedrock-priced SPECIAL, the high-powered CENTURY, the extra-spacious SUPER (illustrated here in the Riviera model), and the custom-built ROADMASTER.

Two months ago, in the public print, we said that this looks like Buick's biggest year—and we weren't fooling.

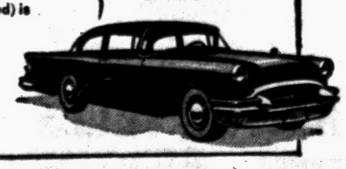

But what has happened—and continues to happen—is almost beyond belief.

People buy up these stunning new Buicks practically as fast as we get them from the factory. Buick production—already revised upward several times—keeps forging ahead to new highs every month to meet the mounting demand.

And Buick sales keep soaring higher and higher—outstripping by far the phenomenal success of last year—the success that moved Buick into the "Big Three" of America's best sellers.

Local Delivered Price of the 1955 Buick SPECIAL $2267.00

It's styling that's boldly distinctive and fresh as tomorrow. It's beauty of line and beauty of interior décor. It's a ride that's level, firm and steady. It's a new sweetness of handling. It's great power—walloping new V8 power of record might.

But above all, it's a new kind of performance, from a new kind of automatic transmission that was born of flight thinking.

It's Variable Pitch Dynaflow*—engineered from the principle of the modern plane's switch-pitch propeller—and what it brings you in the way of pure thrill, mere words can't describe.

Just you drop in on us this very week and try it. That way you can see what a terrific automobile—and a terrific buy—the hottest-selling Buick of all time really is.

Gas Tank Remedy Fatal

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) — Mrs. Sylvia Martin, 24, of Ponca City, Okla., died last night after blowing into the gas tank of her stalled car in an effort to start it. A doctor said she choked after swallowing some gasoline and inhaling fumes. The tank was full.

More than 19,000,000 of Michigan's 36,500,000 acres are classified as forest lands.

Sees Red Effort to Divide West

Senator Says Russians Will Use Big-4 Talks to Split U.S., Britain

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ) forecast today a Russian effort at the prospective top-level Big Four conference to split The United States and Britain over Formosa.

Smith, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said in an interview he believes the Soviets "will throw the Formosa matter into the conference to try to split us away from Britain."

British leaders generally have advocated a settlement under which the Chinese Nationalist-held island of Formosa would be placed under a United Nations trusteeship.

* * *

This government has taken no firm position on the eventual status of Formosa, but has a treaty with Chiang Kai-shek pledging to help defend it from any attack by the Chinese Reds.

Sen. Smith said he does not believe that at the proposed talks among President Eisenhower and the Premiers of Britain, France and Russia there can be any "bargaining" over Formosa or any other issue.

Smith voiced confidence Eisenhower "will avoid any appeasement" of Russia—a view also expressed by Sen. Duff (R-Pa) in a Philadelphia speech last night.

Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) made it clear on an MBS radio interview he thinks nothing good can come from a top-level meeting. Asked whether he would regard Eisenhower's presence at such a meeting as "an act of appeasement," he said:

"Yes, because you see, we are going there . . . not to ask for anything. We are going there not to talk about what we can get but to talk about what we will give away."

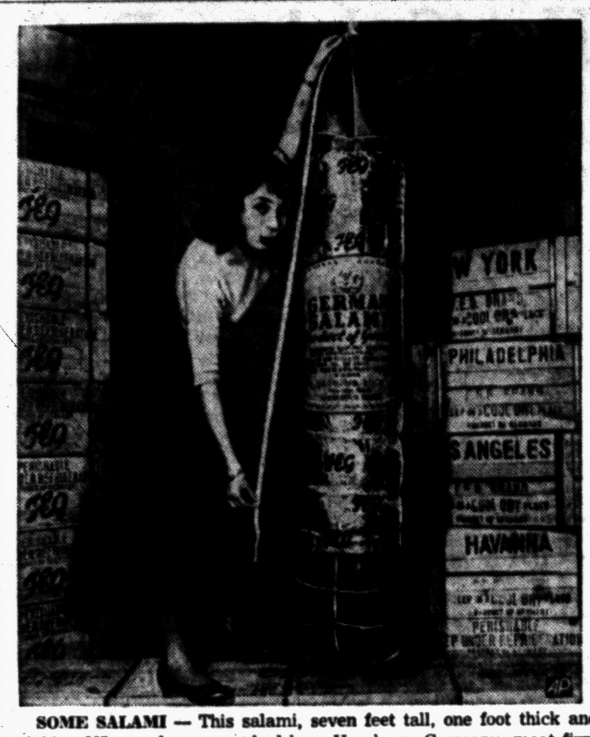

As he has before, McCarthy criticized Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, the President's brother. He described him as one of the "Republican New Dealers" and as "the unofficial president of The United States." Milton Eisenhower who has undertaken several special missions for the President, heads the Pennsylvaia State University. He could not be reached for comment. The White House said it would have no comment on McCarthy's remarks.

Florida Girls Like Boys Who Ride Bikes to Class

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (UP) —It used to be a mark of distinction for Joe College to have an automobile on campus. But girls at the University of Florida now go for the lads with bicycles.

The university has ruled that cars cannot move between classes, and if a student lives on campus he is not allowed to drive to class. If he lives off campus he may drive to class, but he must have a parking decal on his windshield. Even then, if he parks anywhere but in a designated spot his car will be towed away and it will cost him $5 to get it back.

Now the car-driving students are complaining that by the time they find a parking place their dates have lost interest and gone away with someone else.

Boy Kills Himself Over Dad's Arrest

BANNING, Calif. (AP)—Nine-year-old Roger Deason Jr., whose father is in jail awaiting sentence on a burglary charge, committed suicide last night, police reported.

Police said the child pulled the trigger of a 12-gauge shotgun with a string. His mother, who had been away, found the body in a bedroom.

Officers said they found a largely incoherent note in which the boy indicated despondence over his father's plight. Deason Sr., 27, a plasterer, was arrested last month for burglary of a market. He will be sentenced May 27.

Hollywood Headlines

Randolph Scott Rides High With Proven Film Formula

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Randolph Scott cleaned out another town this week. He brought the outlaws to justice and convinced the local citizens they had to take a stand against lawlessness.

This time he's "Marshal of Medicine Bend."

In the past he has been the "Bounty Hunter," "Fighting Man of the Plains," "Man in the Saddle," "Man Behind the Gun," "Nevadan' and "Frontier Marshal."

He has cleaned out "Abilene Town," "Badman's Territory," "Train Street," "Albuquerque," "Hills," "Santa Fe," "Fort Worth" and "Carson City."

* * *

With his "Colt .45" or while "Riding Shotgun," Scott has combatted the "Return of the Bad Men," "Doolins of Oklahoma" and "The Desperadoes."

What's more, he shows no signs of quitting.

Randolph Scott is the perfect Western hero. He is tall and lean, with a leather-faced handsomeness and an ability to command repect with his tight-mouthed orders.

He is, in fact, just about the only Western hero who can make a living—and a mighty handsome one—from making movies for theaters.

Cowpokes like Roy Rogers, Gene Autry and Bill Boyd have loped off to hunt the television gold. Only Scott remains on the movie range.

* * *

Legends have related that he is sparse of words, but actually the Virginia-born actor can wax loquacious on matters that interest him. One such is the movie business.

"There's no doubt that television has cut into our business," he said. "We used to count on a 2½ or 3 million gross domestically and 4 million or more worldwide. But you can't expect that nowadays.

"The little monster (TV) has brought a lot of changes in the picture business. A friend of mine, a big theater chain operator, told me that the chains aren't interested in run-of-the-mill pictures any more. They want attractions that will bring people away from their TV sets."

* * *

Scott has managed to continue a moneymaker because his films are several cuts above what used to be called the program Western. He does them with ample budgets, good casts and color. He shares in the proceeds with producer Harry Joe Brown.

Why hasn't Randy gone on TV?

"Because I'm tied up with film commitments for the next five years," he answered. "By that time, I'll be too broken down for TV or anything else."

Warden Plays Solomon Deciding Who Gets Deer

LEWISTON, Me. (UP) — Roy Gray, game warden supervisor, was given the opportunity to exercise the wisdom of Solomon.

Arthur C. Sprague's car hit a deer and injured it. Murray Hendsbee, another motorist, leaped from his car and hit the deer with a hammer to put it out of its misery. A third man unidentified, ran up and shot the deer.

Gray arrived on the scene and was asked who should get the venison.

He awarded the dead deer to Sprague, whose car had struck the first blow. But Sprague declined with thanks, so Gray gave the deer to Hendsbee.

Salk Shots Stolen

Maples Win Third Press Tourney Title

By JACK SAYLOR

Touring the Pontiac Municipal course in a tournament record 380 strokes, Birmingham High School's golf team walked off with the team championship in the Pontiac Press Prep tourney for the 3rd straight time Monday.

Coach Joe Borovick's sharpshooters bettered by 5 strokes the 385 team record established in the inaugural Press' tournament by Pontiac High School in 1952.

Setting the pace for the Maples was their captain, Bob Goldsmith, who took the tourney and Class A medals with a 72. The Birmingham senior, who is a member at Meadowbrook Country Club, fired a 35-37—72 against par of 34-35—69.

Birmingham's 380 was a whopping 27 strokes better than runnerup Livonia Bentley, which had 407, the best recorded by a Class B school. Waterford repeated its 1954 position in 3rd place with 411, followed by Pontiac, 412; and Shrine, 417.

Rounding out the 15-school field, in order were Southfield, Royal Oak, Bloomfield Hills (lowest of the 2 class C teams entered), Troy, Brighton, Avondale, St. Frederick, Northville, Rochester and Fitzgerald.

Brilliant over-all scoring marked the 4th annual event. A total of 15 schoolboy shotmakers scored in the 70s as compared to only 5 a year ago.

Once again a playoff was necessary to determine winner of one of the medals. Southfield's Jim Bradley and Ray Thompson tied for the runnerup spot with 73s. Bradley, a 5-4, 120-pound senior, claimed the runnerup medal by birdying the 1st extra hole.

It was consolation for Southfield, whose Bob Turner lost to Tim Baldwin of Birmingham in a playoff for the tourney medal last year. Thompson, however, was the Class B medalist.

Joining Goldsmith on the well-balanced Birmingham team were Mike Conroy (75), Baldwin and Sandy Siegel (76 each) and Pete Jackson (81). The five Maples were awarded team title medals and Birmingham gained another year's possession of the beautiful Pontiac Press trophy, as well as adding another plaque for permanent retention in the Maple trophy case.

Five records were tied or broken during the 18-hole, medal play meet including Birmingham's team total, low for the tournament and, of course, low for Class A schools.

Young Buddy Badger, 14-year-old freshman at Bloomfield Hills, shot a 77, which tied Class C record set in 1953 by former Bloomfield golfer Curt Dempster.

John Rogers and Bob Runyon of Pontiac's championship 1952 team set the tourney record for the north nine in 35 strokes. This was equalled by 3 players Monday as Goldsmith and Baldwin of Birmingham and Thompson of Bentley each carded 35s on out-going nines.

Goldsmith and Baldwin also enter the record list with Rogers and Runyon for best Class A north nine. Thompson's 35 surpassed the Class B north nine record of 36, set in 1952 by Tommy Watrous of Shrine.

While there was little doubt after 9 holes that Birmingham would retain its team title, race for individual honors was wide open. Baldwin went out in 35, but took a 7 on the par-5 5th hole on the south side and came home in 41 for a 76. His 76 last year was good enough for tournament honors following a playoff.

Jack Reynolds of Waterford, playing in the same foursome with Baldwin, went out in 36, but had the same trouble as Baldwin on the same hole and finished with 39 for 75. This was matched by Fred Howting of Shrine, who shot a steady 38-37, and Conroy.

Conroy, sophomore son of North Hills pro Leo Conroy, had a 38 on the front nine, including a 2-stroke penalty for hitting the wrong ball. He bagged 4 straight 3s on the south nine, but 3-putted the next 2 holes for a 7 and 6 and finally wound up with 37 for 75.

Siegel and Baldwin shared the 76 slot, while Badger, another tiny, but promising player, was alone at 77. Others in the sub-80 class were Walter Ickes of Bentley, Lynn Matzen of Northville and Pontiac's Tom Cross at 78; John Wettlaufer and Roger Asbury of Waterford and Troy's Jim Hawley at 79.

Goldsmith was tourney medalist with a 72.

Managerial Opinions

Cubs Massed on Mueller; Ted Williams to Aid NL, Bucky Believes

NEW YORK (AP) — Out of the mouths of major league managers and officials:

Charlie Grimm, Milwaukee Braves: "When I was managing the Chicago Cubs back in 1944, a fellow who once played ball with me in Pittsburgh brought his son to Wrigley Field for a tryout. We had the boy work out with us for four or five days. I was impressed with his hitting and suggested to the front office that he be signed. The boy's dad wanted a bonus. The Cubs refused to give him cash so Walter Mueller took his boy to the Polo Grounds and Don Mueller signed with the Giants."

* * *

Bucky Harris, Detroit Tigers: "The return of Ted Williams not only will help the Boston Red Sox and the American League but it will help the National League as well. A player, so famous, so great, so widely known to the rank and file of fandom, coming back to competition exerts impacts in every phase of baseball. It revives interest where it had lagged and sparks interest where it had not sprouted. In short, Tex Williams' rejoining the Red Sox is a great thing for baseball."

* * *

E. J. (Buzzie) Bavasi, Brooklyn Dodgers: "We signed Roberto Clemente two seasons ago fully realizing we would lose him but we did it because we wanted to keep the Giants from getting him. No other reason. We knew the Giants were after him but not as a bonus player to sit on the bench so we gave him $10,000 and it turned out to be a cheap deal for us. We got back $4,000 when Pittsburgh drafted the boy. All we lost was $6,000 but the Giants didn't get him and that was the big thing."

* * *

Charley Gehringer, Detroit Tigers: "Harvey Kuenn is a good bet to win the American League batting title. He's got one thing in his favor and that is his fine start. That's what it takes. If he can hang on at the top or near it for another month, he'll be in an excellent spot. Harvey is a real good hitter, one of the best to come along in many years. He's not homer crazy like some of the others and he is always reasonably certain to get good wood on the ball."

Holguin Paces PGA's List for Early Tourney Trials

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Less than a third of the 30 qualifying tournaments for the 2955 Professional Golfers Assn. championship remain to be played today with a 131 shot by Tony Holguin of Midlothian (Ill.) pacing about 80 entries who qualified yesterday.

* * *

Except for one or two exceptions, the qualifying competition for the July 20-26 championship match play at Detroit is to be completed by May 31. Chick Harbert of Detroit is the defending champion.

* * *

Those who qualified in eliminations across the nation yesterday were mostly club pros or golfers who only occasionally enter PGA-sponsored events. Most of the name pros are exempt from qualifying rounds

Holguin, head pro at Midlothian Country Club, covered the Glen-eagles Country Club course near Chicago in 68-63. His afternoon round of 63 broke the course record he set last fall.

* * *

PGA rules also exempt members of the 1953 Ryder Cup team, the eight quarterfinalists of last year's tournament, the 30 leading money winners in approved tourneys and the low 25 and ties in the recent Fort Wayne Open. A number of pro's elected to qualify at Fort Wayne rather than in their sectional tournaments.

3 Tie at Top for Qualifying Places in PGA

Briggs, Johnson and Talkington Fire 142s at Meadowbrook

A three-way tie developed in Monday's qualifying test for the five places Michigan professional golfers have been given in the forthcoming National PGA Tourney.

Saginaw's Eldon Briggs, Jimmy Johnson of the new Farmington Country Club and Tom Talkington of Washtenaw CC all carded 142s over the exacting Meadowbrook Country Club layout, where the National will take place July 20-26.

Fourth place on the list was grabbed by the Oakland Hills veteran, Al Watrous, with a pair of 73s for 146. Last of the qualifiers was Tam O'Shanter's Warren Orlick, who carded 148, but only after a 3-way playoff with Joe Watrous (148), younger brother of Al and Mike Dietz (148), new professional at Indianwood. Joe is a pro at Franklin Hills.

Chick Harbert, home pro at Meadowbrook, Wally Burkemo and Pete Cooper of Knollwood were exempt because of past performances. Harbert is the defending PGA champ.

WIN TOURNEY MEDALS — Here are the individual standouts from Monday's Pontiac Press Prep golf tournament at Pontiac Municipal course. In the middle is Birmingham captain Bob Goldsmith, who fired a 35-37—72 to take tourney and Class A honors as he led his mates to the team championship for the 3rd straight year. Flanking the Maple stars are Ray Thompson of Livonia Bentley (at left) and tiny Jim Bradley of Southfield (right). Each shot 73s, but the Southfield senior won a playoff for the tourney runnerup medal. Thompson was the low Class B scorer in the field for which he also received a medal.

Phillie Star Now Third Behind Mueller, Virdon; Power Leads AL

NEW YORK (AP) — Fleet Richie Ashburn, one of the few bright spots for the last-place Philadelphia Phillies, has moved into the thick of the National League batting race on the wings of a seven-game hitting streak and a better than .500 performance last week.

Ashburn, who had his consecutive game skein snapped at 731 when he missed the season's opener because of a leg injury, collected 10 hits in 19 at bats (a .526 pace) in last week's games and climbed into third place with a .365 average.

Ashburn trails New York's Don Mueller and rookie Bill Virdon of St. Louis. Mueller, at .397, dropped 18 points as a result of a 10-for-30 showing. Virdon climbed 14 points to .368 on 11 safeties in 27 trips.

In the American League, Vic Power of Kansas City opened up his lead over Harvey Kuenn and Al Kaline of Detroit.

Power is batting .389. He dropped six points, but Kuenn tailed off 15 points to .373 and Kaline 21 to .358.

Ted Kluszewski of Cincinnati hit three homers to deadlock Brooklyn's Duke Snider for the National League lead. Each has 11. Roy Campanella of the Dodgers has batted in the most runs, 39.

Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees is the American League's pace-setter in homers with 11 and RBI's with 30. He also took over the No. 4 spot in batting with .333. Hoot Evers of Baltimore is fifth in batting with .325.

Al (Red) Schoendienst of the Cards gained five points and moved into fourth place in the National League batting competition at .352. He's followed by Campanella with .349.

Don Martell, (225-583), Norm Keeley (245-634), Ted Sutton (198-561), Wayne Beals (203-540) and Bill Bull (665-235) hit the top spot last weekend with a "spot" total of 3274 (2983 actual). Tourney is conducted by the Detroit Metropolitan Area Bowling Association and 30 to 40 teams have yet to roll.

OCSC to See Films, Hear Meet Reports

May meeting of the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club scheduled for Wednesday night at the Clubhouse, Waterford, will feature a double-header program. "Trout, Ala Shoshone," a colorful movie of Rocky Mountain trout fishing, and "Semper Virens" the story of one of nature's most fantastic trees, the redwoods, will be featured.

President Bob White and 1st Vice President Lloyd Sibley will report on the recent Mid-Western Skeet Shoot at Lincoln Park Gun Club in Chicago. At that time they met with officers of the National Skeet Shooting Association to further plans for this year's nationals, scheduled for OCSC Aug. 29-Sept. 4.

White will announce delegates for the Michigan United Conservation Club convention at Escanaba June 15-19, plans for printing the National Skeet Shoot program, and other summer projects.

OCBC Sets Dates for 39th Regatta

Dates for the 39th annual powerboat regatta of Oakland County Boat Club have been set. A. N. Hickson, regatta chairman, today said the 10-race feature will be held at the club's headquarters on Sylvan Lake June 18-19.

The event is sanctioned by the American Powerboat Association and included trials for 48 hydros, 136 hydros, 135 hydros, 22 hydroplanes and 266 hydros.

Sunday's final feature will be a demonstration of water-skiing.

Clarkston Wins, Moves Closer to W-O Honors

Clarkston High moved a step closer to the Wayne-Oakland League baseball title Monday with a 6-1 victory over Northville. It gave Gus Birtsas' Wolves a 9-1 league record, while 2nd place Clarenceville, the defending champ, has an 8-2 mark.

The Clarkston "breadwinner," Bob Yahnke, was on the mound again Monday as he stopped the Northville nine with 2 hits and an unearned run. He struck out 12 and got batting support mainly from Rich Johnston who had 4 singles.

Yahnke, a 6-foot 150-pound senior, has pitched 69 innings for Clarkston and yielded 29 hits. During that stretch, Yahnke has piled up 126 strikeouts with his fast and curve ball pitching, while walking 38 batters.

In other W-O games Monday, Brighton laced West Bloomfield, 14-2, and Holly upset Milford, 3-1, with Dave Huber fanning 10 for the Broncs. Errors gave Holly the winning runs in the final frame to beat Al McFarland, who allowed only 5 hits. Jack Connor of Milford had 2 doubles in the losing cause.

Gordon's Return Could Insure Giants' Pennant

By BILL CORUM

NEW YORK (INS)—A solid man came back to the Polo Grounds in a surprise deal with the Pirates yesterday. His name is Sid Gordon. But before this season ends Giant fans may be calling him "Mr. Pennant."

Sidney is the sort of ball player to have around when a team's in trouble, and the world champion Giants plainly have been in deep fry trouble with their perennial Dodger enemies ever since the first pitch of this still young season.

But Sid's return to the Giants has even happier portents and overtones than would the acquisition of another steady, long-ball hitting veteran of comparable ability.

Because the Polo Grounds is Gordon's baseball home. He always liked it under Coogan's Bluff and owner Horace Stoneham and the fans liked him.

So to come home in the twilight of his playing career should give him a mental lift and a sharp incentive to be an important factor in what now is beginning to take shape as another dog-fight N. L. flag race.

Add to this the physical factor that left field at the P. G. always was Sid's favorite target, as he clearly demonstrated by hitting 83 home runs in his six seasons with the Giants.

Gordon, also, should strengthen the Giants in the spots where they can use some extra strength. He can be a dangerous right-hand pinch hitter. He can play left field with the knowledge of long experience in that position behind him.

Majors' Attendance Picks Up

NEW YORK (AP)—Major League baseball attendance is running ahead of last year after a slow start that had the owners wondering where the fans had gone.

An Associated Press survey of attendance figures today showed both leagues and seven teams ahead of their 1954 pace and five other clubs packing 'em in at only a slightly slower clip than they did a year ago.

This is a surprising reversal from returns earlier this season which indicated a sharp drop at the turnstiles. The latest figures reveal an increase of almost 80,000 with the American League up 74,000, thanks to Kansas City's new Athletics and the National League roughly ahead 6,000.

So far this year, the big league teams have attracted 3,623,401 customers as compared with 3,543,415 in as many games a year ago.

Kansas City's fans, acting as though they haven't had major league ball in 69 years (and they haven't), are supporting the A's—but good. With 321,157 paid—tops in the American League—the A's, in 15 home dates, already have surpassed their entire 1954 season's total in Philadelphia of 304,666.

Milwaukee, which led both leagues in attendance last season while setting a National League record of better than 2,130,000, again is setting the pace. The Braves have played before 451,524 people, a gain of more than 50,000.

Cincinnati is almost 15,000 ahead, Philadelphia almost 9,000, Pittsburgh 4,000, Baltimore 5,000 and Cleveland 9,000.

The Boston Red Sox, Chicago White Sox, St. Louis Cards and New York Giants are the teams still with attendance worries. The Red Sox are approximately 74,000 off their '54 pace, but they'll soon have the services of Ted Williams. The White Sox trail by 51,000, the Cards by 33,000 and the Giants by 28,000. The Giants, however, figure to knock off their deficit in their three-game set with Brooklyn this weekend.

* * *

Brooklyn, for example, is only 653 customers off. Washington is roughly 5,000 behind, the Chicago Cubs 11,000, Detroit 15,000 and the New York Yankees 19,000.

The season's largest crowd so far was 50,230 which paid to see Chicago at Cleveland in the opener April 12 The National League high is 43,640 for Milwaukee's opening game at home against Cincinnati.

Half Dozen Colts Readied for Big Preakness Race

BALTIMORE (AP)—Six colts being primed for Saturday's $100,000-added Preakness were lodged in the Pimlico barns today as the management prepared to check in three others, including Belair Stud's favored Nashua.

Racing Secretary Lou Pondfield said the latest word was Nashua would arrive from New York sometime tomorrow.

Also due about the same time to put the finishing touches on their preparations for the 79th running of the Preakness are Clifford Mooers' Traffic Judge, winner of the Withers Mile at Belmont last Saturday, and Clearwater Stable's Portersville, who was third in the same race.

Nance's Lad, who carried the C. J. Caithness-H. A. Dabson colors to second place in the Withers was among the half-dozen 3-year-olds already on the grounds at historic Pimlico.

W-L Ranch's Honeys Alibi, who could do no better than seventh in the Kentucky Derby while Nashua was second to Swaps, was easily the best of the small lot in the $5,000 prep.

A length and a half behind came Duntreath Farm's Fleet Path, followed by Gee M. Cohen's Chuck Thompson two lengths back and Christiana Stable's Thinking Cap, trailing by six after breaking badly.

Drug 9 Marks Up 2nd Victory

Goulet Chalks Up Win Over Day's Outfit in Township Loop

Drayton Drug registered its 2nd victory in 3 starts in Waterford Township Softball League play Monday at Drayton's Township Park. Carl Shell's Drug nine blanked Day's Sanitary Service, 10-0, as Bill Goulet and Arlo Flesher teamed up on a 5-hitter.

Goulet worked 6 innings and fanned 7, while Flesher struck out 1 in his 1-inning stint. Drug tallied a pair of markers in the 1st inning, which was enough to win, on a walk and singles by Cecil Hanes, Jerry Hesse and Paul Atkins.

Following a single run in the 2nd, Drug came up with a 4-run rally in the 3rd as Hesse's 2nd single was followed by 2 walks, Bob Trunbull's single and a 3-base error. It was the 2nd straight defeat for Day's.

Detroiters on Top in State Pin Tourney

BAY CITY (AP)—Bob Hitt, whose Detroit E. & B. Beer team finished 2nd in the actual competition among teams, was the outstanding bowler in the 1955 state men's bowling tournament which wound up a 12-weekend run here last weekend.

Hitt, a scratch bowler, won the all-events actual competition and he and Henry Gniewek, also a Detroiter, finished No. 1 in the doubles actual. Hitt was 4th in the all-events handicap division and he and Gniewek were 3rd in the handicap doubles. In addition, Hitt was eight in the actual singles.

Detroiters, as usual, dominated most divisions, the other winners:

Royalty's Derby Entry, Lady Derby's Acropolis, Accorded Favorite's Rating for Wednesday Race

LONDON (AP)—The English Derby will be run for the 176th time at Epsom Downs tomorrow and the favorite, both actual and sentimental, is Acropolis, owned by 93-year-old Alice, Lady Derby, whose family gave the turf classic its name way back in 1780.

* * *

The small bettors always back a sentimental choice. Usually its a horse owned by a member of the royal family. Last year it was Queen Elizabeth's Landau. The year before the Queen's Aureole attracted the small bets. Neither won the mile and one-half race on which an Irish Sweepstakes is based.

* * *

This year in Acropolis, a good-looking chestnut colt, they have not only a colt racing in the silks of a popular member of royalty but one that has been made the 100-30 choice by the bookies.

Lady Alice is the grandmother of the present Earl and widow of the 17th Lord Derby, racehorse owner and breeder, who died in 1948.

"Lady Alice has asked me to tell you that the horse is well," Lord Derby told a gathering of newsmen at a Derby luncheon Monday. "All things being equal I think Acropolis has a great chance of winning. I hope my grandmother may be persuaded to bring her horse in after winning Wednesday."

"If this is to be the last Derby I shall see, I want to win it," the stately old lady said.

The 17th Lord Derby won the Derby classic three times—Sansovino in 1924, Hyperion in 1933 and Watling Street in 1942.

Eaglet Frosh Take Triangular Event

St. Mary's High School (OL) freshman thinclads yesterday afternoon outdistanced Notre Dame of Detroit and Shrine school frosh athletes in a triangular meet at Orchard Lake.

Little Eaglets posted 63 points, led by double winner Pete Krystek who won the half mile (2:13.5) and broad jump (17 feet 11¼ inches). Notre Dame had 43 and Shrine only 6 points.

Ted Belts Homer in His 1st Game

BOSTON (AP)—Ted Williams, aging but still as determined as a rookie, served notice on American League pitchers today he has lost none of the tremendous power which places him among baseball's all-time hitting greats.

The 36-year-old Boston slugger, making his first competitive appearance of the season, belted a 395-foot home run deep into the right field seats last night as the Red Sox defeated the New York Giants 4-3 in an exhibition game called at the end of 6½ innings.

"It's good to get started again," said a weary Williams after retiring from the game following his towering circuit clout as leadoff man in the last of the third inning.

* * *

"My legs still feel like lead and I want to work on them for about another week, but I guess my hitting is okay," he added.

Expected to return to the lineup this weekend when the Red Sox play host to Washington, Williams refused to be pinned down. Asked if he planned to return in "a week or 10 days," he replied: "Sooner, I hope."

Williams, wearing his familiar No. 9, received a tremendous standing ovation from the crowd of 24,323 as he went to the plate in a pre-game home run-hitting contest.

Allowed five hits into fair territory, Ted failed to connect for the distance until the 15th pitch. Then he unloaded a 400-foot drive into the right field stands. With one "fair" hit left, he followed on the next pitch with a 375-foot blast into the same sector.

* * *

Williams, plagued by aches and pains and hand blisters developed in heavy workouts since he signed his 1955 contract May 13, received another tremendous ovation from the crowd when he took his position in left field for the start of the game.

On his first trip to bat as the Sox No. 3 man in the first inning, Williams took three straight outside pitches for balls from right-hander Paul Giel, the Giants' $50,000 bonus hurler from the University of Minnesota. He swung on the 3-0 pitch and popped to short.

New York Manager Leo Durocher said before the game that he thinks the return of Williams "will do the same for the Red Sox as the return of Willie Mays did for the Giants."

The Giants finished fifth, 35 games behind Brooklyn in 1953 when Mays was in the Army. Mays returned last year and the Giants won the National League pennant and then went on to defeat the Cleveland Indians in the World Series.

GMC 9 Defeats Defending 'A' Champion Jets

Coach Takes 9-5 Win in Season's Opening Game at Wisner

The Class A City League baseball season got under way at Wisner Field Monday with General Motors knocking off the defending champion Anderson Jets, 9-5, behind the 4-hit mound work of Herman Bishop.

Bishop's control was not at its best, as he walked 5 and hit 1, but the Jets could solve his offerings for only Don Russell's triple until the 6th inning.

Russell's hit and Gene Cox' sacrifice fly gave the Jets a 1-0 lead in the 1st, which GMC erased in the 3rd on Les Stone's triple and a single by Wes Roberts. The Coach nine took a commanding lead in the 4th inning with a 4-run outburst on singles by Bob Swindell and Jack Farms, doubles by Daryl McGlashen and Les Stone and an error.

GM picked up 2 more in the 5th and added another in the 6th on Ernie Zubalick's 4-bagger. A lone marker in the 7th rounded out the GM scoring. The Jets pushed over an unearned run in the 6th and rallied for 3 runs in the 7th on J. C. Jenkins' single, a walk, Jimmy Williams' triple and a sacrifice fly.

Winner of 3,000th Race to Join Club

CHICAGO (AP) — Johnny Adams, the fourth American jockey to win 3,000 races, will be welcomed to the "3,000 Club" Wednesday by two and possibly all three other members of the club.

Adams Saturday rode his 3,000th winner as Hasty House Farm's Mister Black captured the $25,000-added Continental Turf Handicap at Balmoral, tying the Washington Park track record of 1:49 for the mile and one-eighth turf course.

Boudreau Rates Bengals as Threat for AL's Flag

KANSAS CITY (AP)—At least one big league manager isn't counting the Detroit Tigers out of the American League pennant race.

Lou Boudreau of the Kansas City Athletics isn't convinced the fight will be decided between New York and Cleveland with Chicago a bothersome 3rd.

"I definitely think Detroit has a chance to win the pennant," he said yesterday. "They're still a darkhorse but don't count them out."

Manager Bucky Harris of the Tigers has said previously he would be satisfied with a 1st division finish.

Athletics open a three-game series with the Tigers tonight. Detroit has a 3-1 record against the A's and is the only team in the league to hold a shutout victory against Kansas City.

"The thing that's helped them (Detroit) most is having a set lineup," Boudreau said. "They've been able to put their kids in and let them play together and they should improve as the season goes on. A set lineup means a lot.

Good Luck Attends Canadian Fishing Trip

Two Pontiac men and another from Royal Oak returned Sunday from a week's sojourn up in the northern Ontario lake region, bring back a fine string of fish. Carl Hefner, who made the trip with Harry (Royal Oak) and Harvey Fenske, 1123 Dover, Pontiac Fenske, 1123 Dover, Pontiac (which is also the home of Hefner) reported three fine walleyes and 15 lake trout. Biggest was a 15 pound, 35 inch specimen.

"Those lakers hit anything," Hefner reported. "We used wobblers, and minnows, trolling for the big fellows.

"It was a great experience. We had planned this trip for the last 10 years.

Eaglet 9 Takes Catholic Title

Scoring Spree in 7th Beats Clements, 8-7, in Rain

Orchard Lake St. Mary captured the 1955 Suburban Catholic League baseball title by scoring four times in the last inning to nose out St. Clement of Center Line, 8-7. The game was played in rain and ankle-deep mud Sunday afternoon at Orchard Lake.

First baseman Ron Fedorowicz provided the dramatic climax by singling to drive in Jack Lenart from 3rd and Ted Kopacki from 2nd with the tying and winning runs.

Eaglets saw a 4-2 lead melt away when the visitors drove five runs home in the 7th to seemingly wrap up the win. But the Eaglets wrap up the win. But the Eaglets, far from finished, rallied with three hits ,two walks, and an enemy miscue to claim the SLC crown..

St. Mary's newly-gained championship is its 1st in baseball since 1932.

Hazel Park Time Rating Lowered

DETROIT (UP) — Hazel Park marness racing officials said today the track's time rating has been dropped from 2:05 2/5 to 2:04 by the U. S. Trotting Association because of fast times at the track in recent meetings.

Delleana Hanover broke the old time last night when she raced to victory in the featured BB Trot in 2:05 1/5.

Highley's Lady also bettered the old time in the co-featured B pace as she came home a nose ahead of Cracker Jack in 2:05.

Giants, Yanks Riding 6-Game Win Strings

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It's the end of May and most folks are getting serious about picking a spot to spend the summer. So are the New York Giants and the New York Yankees.

Both of 'em have first place in mind.

* * *

The Yanks have come up with a six-game winning streak for a down payment on the No. 1 spot in the American League. And right now, that's the best offer anybody's made.

* * *

It's all come about in the past seven days, with the New Yorks overhauling a 2½-game Cleveland lead in that time while the Indians were fumbling along losing three of five.

* * *

In the National, the Giants haven't tried on the lead for size yet, but they've won six of seven over the past week, the last six straight. That's chopped three games off Brooklyn's precocious nine-game lead. The Brooks have been playing no better than .400 ball—and they haven't been able to widen their bulge in 10 days.

* * *

With no games scheduled yesterday in either league, here's how the contenders have fared over the past week.

NATIONAL

	W	L
Brooklyn	2	3
New York	6	1
Chicago	4	1
St. Louis	4	3
Milwaukee	2	4

New York	6	0
Cleveland	2	3
Chicago	2	4
Detroit	3	3

The Clevelands ran afoul of Detroit's Tigers, a bunch of reluctant fourth-placers, and Chicago had its troubles with the Yanks and seventh-place Kansas City. After taking two from Chicago, New York completed its move from third place by swatting Baltimore in four games.

The Giants fattened up on the slumping Pittsburgh Pirates, who have lost 11 straight, and the Milwaukee Braves, who are suffering from a pitching slump and Ed Mathews' appendectomy. The Cubs got their licks in against Philadelphia and Milwaukee. St. Louis barely kept the pace, losing three of four at Cincinnati after winning five straight.

Just a year ago—over the same May 16-23 week—it was Cleveland that won six straight to grab the AL lead from Chicago. And in the National, Milwaukee zoomed from sixth to a first place with Brooklyn by winning eight of nine.

The schedule favors continued success for the Yanks. The New Yorkers, still at home, have four games ahead against fifth-place Washington, then shift for three at Baltimore and two at Washington. timore.

The Yanks get started against Washington tonight while Chicago plays at Cleveland. Detroit's at Kansas City and the Boston Red Sox, with Ted Williams still not ready for competition, are at Baltimore.

In the National, New York's at Philadelphia with the Phils' 10-23 record the only thing that's keeping Pittsburgh out of the cellar. The Bucs, who never have lost more than 11 straight are home to Brooklyn. St. Louis is at Chicago and Cincinnati at Milwaukee.

Carter Can't Defend Crown Against Smith

Champ Claims Sore Throat, IBC Looking for Sub Bout

NEW YORK (AP) — The International Boxing Club started a hurried search today for a prestige fight to substitute for the indefinitely postponed title bout between lightweight champion Jimmy Carter and Wallace (Bud) Smith.

The 15-rounder, scheduled for the Boston Garden and network television June 1, was called off last night by Manager Willie Ketchum who said the champion "is sick with a sore throat."

"The fight has been postponed indefinitely," added Ketchum. "I notified the IBC that Jimmy has a bad throat and can't fight.

"It started last Wednesday when Jimmy returned from a newspapermen's luncheon in Boston to his training camp in Summit (N.J.). He said he had a sore throat.

"I took him to a doctor (Dr. S. W. Eason) Thursday and he gave Jimmy some penicillin. He went to bed that day and stayed there on Friday when he got some more penicillin.

"He laid off Saturday but boxed Sunday and looked bad. He boxed again Monday and looked worse. I asked him what was the matter and he said 'I haven't got any strength. No power.'"

It was the second big fight to fall through for the IBC's new Wednesday fights from the CBS television network to ABC-TV.

The Carter-Smith bout was to have been followed June 8 by a "title" scrap between Mexico's Raul (Raton) Macias, NBA-recognize world bantamweight king, and Peter Keenan, the British Empire 118-pound ruler, in Los Angeles. Keenan, however, was soundly beaten in Australia and the IBC was forced to make a non-title bout between Macias and Billy Peacock.

"This happened so fast that I don't know right off what fight we'll get for Boston that night," said Harry Markson, managing director of the IBC. "We'll try and get a good a fight as possible."

Bender Gets No-Hitter, Johnson Just Misses; Harris, Grant Win

Three hurlers, all veterans of City Softball League play, came up withh fine performances Monday, while a 1st inning outburst brought victory to another team.

Glen (Wimpy) Johnson set Bicmar Inn down with a lone hit as Shaw's Jewelers carted off a 9-0 shutout triumph. Johnson carried a no-hitter into the final inning, but after retiring one man, Bicmar's Kokas singled to spoil the gem.

Johnson blazed his fast ball past 10 batters for strikeout victims and he walked 1. Stan Hester paced Shaw's 11-hit attack with a double and 2 singles.

Lynus Grant of General Motors had an easy time with Ashland Flying Octane, 13-1, as he spaced 8 hits. Jim Jenkins belted a 2-run homer for GMC in the 4th inning.

In a Girl's League game, Gerry Bender hurled no-hit ball for the 5-inning duration of giles Realty's 20-0 rout of Shaw's Girls. Liddy had 4 hits for Giles, including a home run. Bender whiffed 11 in the 5 innings.

Drive-In Cleaners came up with 7 runs in the 1st inning to sink Chuck & Loules, 10-4, as Bob Harris limited C&L to 6 hits.

Giants Reported to Have Paid $25,000 for Gordon

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The New York Giants, trying to build up their bench in a bid to close in on the Brooklyn Dodgers, have laid out a reported $25,000 to reclaim veteran slugger Sid Gordon from Pittsburgh.

* * *

The 36-year-old Gordon, who broke in with the Giants in 1941, was traded to the then Boston Braves in 1950 by New York along with Willard Marshall, Buddy Kerr and Sam Webb for Alvin Dark and Eddie Stanky. He stayed with the Braves until the winter of 1953 when he was traded to Pittsburgh in a deal that sent Danny O'Connell to Milwaukee.

Gordon, "glad to be home again," probably will be used as a pinchhitter, with possible fill-in shots at third base and the outfield. He has a .286 lifetime batting average and 195 home runs for his 14-year career.

The Giants and the Dodgers both had been after Gordon for some time, with the New York club completing the deal after a four-game series in Pittsburgh. To make room, the Giants shipped reserve infielder Foster Castleman to Minneapolis on 24-hour recall.

* * *

While building up the Giants' bench, the deal also helps the Pirates financially. Not only do the Bucs receive the $25,000, but they also are relieved of Gordon's estimated $28,000 contract.

Kuzava, the 32-year-old past hero of New York Yankee World Series victories, has a 0-1 record in relief this season. He was 2-6 for the Yanks and Baltimore last season.

His departure made room for bonus-pitcher Johnny Swango on the Orioles' roster. The Phils, in turn, released pitcher Lynn Lovenguth outright to Syracuse of the International League.

Akins Aims for Welters' Title

St. Louisan Finishes Joe Miceli in Opening Round, Monday Night

NEW YORK (AP)—Virgil Akins, a one-time in-and-out fighter, is taking dead aim at the welterweight title now that he has five straight victories, four of them knockouts.

The solidly built, 25-year old St. Louis boy stopped jolting Joey Miceli of New York in 2:41 of the first round on three knockdowns to chalk up his fourth successive knockout last night.

* * *

A left hook to the body started Miceli on the way out midway in the first round of the network television tilt at St. Nicholas Arena. The hook doubled over Joey and a jarring right and left to the jaw dropped him. He staggered up at five. After Referee Ray Miller tolled the automatic eight count, Akins stormed after Miceli and decked him again with another right and left to the jaw.

Kansas won 33 straight basketball games at home.

30 College Crews Form Record Fleet

NEW YORK (AP)—Thirty college crews, forming the largest fleet since 1950, will be out on Onondaga Lake at Syracuse, N.Y., June 18 for the 53rd Intercollegiate Rowing Assn. regatta.

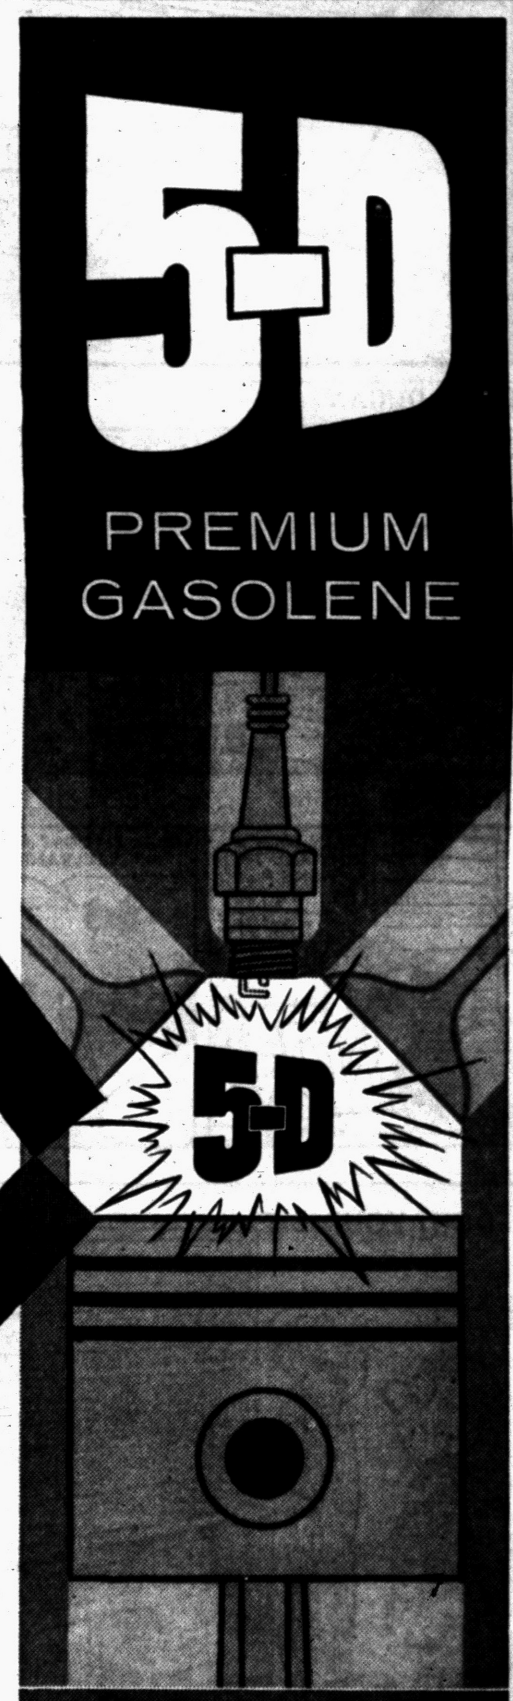

In the draw for the lanes yesterday, the association announced 12 colleges will compete in the three-mile varsity race and nine each in the junior varsity and freshman races. The field is the largest since 32 crews competed at Marietta, Ohio, five years ago.

Eric Guerin, regular jockey for Summer Tan and Social Outcast, won 17 stakes to lead in that department on New York state race tracks in 1954. Eddie Arcaro won 16 stakes.

Grains Cling to Closing Level

CHICAGO (AP)—In routine dealings grain held close to previous closing levels on the Board of Trade today. Wheat and rye were a little firmer than the rest of the list.

The market got off to a mixed start. After the first few minutes of trading a slightly easier trend developed. But there was not enough of a price change to cause any excitement.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ¼ lower to ⅛ higher, July $2.00⅞; corn unchanged to ¼ lower, July $1.46⅝; oats ⅜ to ½ lower, July 69⅜; rye unchanged to 1 cent higher, July $1.07½; soybeans ¼ to 1 cent lower July $2.45¼; and lard unchanged to 3 cents a hundred pounds lower, July $12.25.

Racket Leader Pleads Guilty

Anastasia, Said Chief of 'Murder, Inc.,' Trips on Income Tax Charge

CAMDEN, N. J. (INS)—Albert Anastasia, reputed "lord high executioner" of Murder, Inc., today faced possible deportation or up to 10 years in a federal prison and a $20,000 fine on his guilty plea to two income tax evasion charges.

The 52-year old rackets overlord who has beaten four murder raps, made his surprise confession before U. S. District Judge Thomas M. Madden who announced he will impose sentence June 3 and continued Anastasia's $10,000 bail.

The court action came less than a month after Charles Ferri, retired Fort Lee, N. J., contractor who was to have testified against the defendant, vanished from his blood-spattered Miami, Fla. home.

One of his brothers, Salvatore, wept, when Anastasia told Judge Madden "Yes, I am" in a broken voice on being asked if he was guilty of the evasion charges.

Stock Market Quietly Mixed

For a time at the opening, it looked as though the market intended to head higher, but within a short time prices began to sag a little.

Steels unchanged to lower, Motors mixed, rubbers lower, mail order issues higher, aircrafts mixed, distillers unchanged to higher, radio-televisions steady, utilities steady, coppers mixed, chemchanged to higher, oils lower, airlines steady.

Lower were Republic Steel, General Motors, U. S. Rubber, United Aircraft, RCA, and Southern Pacific.

M. E. FIELDS

Cadillac Promotes Former Pontiac Man

J. M. Roche, general sales manager, Cadillac Motor Car Division, today announced the appointment of M. E. Fields as assistant general sales manager in charge of the eastern part of the United States.

Fields succeeds R. L. Newton who held this position from 1933 until his death on May 17.

Until his present appointment, Fields held the position of merchandising manager in the factory sales organization. He joined the Cadillac Division in 1943.

Income Tax Reports Show Increase Here

Income tax reports filed this year from Jan. 1 to April 15 totaled 22,040 a 10 per cent increase over 1954, announces Lyle D. Russell, administrative supervisor of the local Internal Revenue office.

"The 10 per cent rise is probably due to various changes in the tax laws more than the extra month given taxpayers to file," Russell said.

The office, with a staff of 25 persons, handled 7,706 telephone calls during the filing period. At the present time, it is the only internal revenue field office in Michigan which has a consolidation of revenue agents, office auditors, and collection officers.

News in Brief

GM Loses Spot as Top Supplier

No Longer Even Ranks Among the First 100 on Pentagon's List

WASHINGTON (AP)—General Motors, the No. 1 supplier of the nation's military equipment during the Korean War, doesn't have that position any longer.

Although still a major defense manufacturer, GM isn't even among the first 100 in the government's military supplier list. The leaders now are mostly aviation concerns.

Cancellations and cutbacks were largely responsible for General Motors' changed position.

COVERS 18 MONTHS

The report covers the 18 months since the end of the Korean War, to last Dec. 18. GM was on top during the three years of the Korean War 1950-53.

GM dropped from high position along with such other firms as Chrysler, Du Pont and Westinghouse.

United Aircraft Corp. and Douglas Aircraft Co., each with more than one billion dollars in total orders, now are first and second, respectively, on the list.

Car Bootlegging Is Still Thriving

Dealers Assn. Claims Practice Will Flourish by Fall Cleanup Time

DETROIT (AP)—New car bootlegging is far from dead, says Automotive News.

* * *

The trade paper, reporting in its current issue on a survey, says the practice is "blooming" in nine localities; "drying up" in six sections and "unchanged" in two others.

The trade paper said many retailers are "solidly behind" the National Automobile Dealers Assn. anti-bootlegging legislation in the belief the practice "will be thriving with renewed vigor by cleanup time this fall."

NAME CHANGED

"And," it continues, "the nation's used car dealers have taken several steps indicating that they're looking for a big volume of new car business come autumn. Among these steps was changing the name of their organization from National Used Car Dealers Assn. to National Independent Automobile Dealers Assn.

"On the other hand, competitive selling—a principal factor in the current decline of bootlegging — will likely be one of the dominant features of the 1955 cleanup. So it's possible that the bootleg car sellers will find themselves no better off this fall than they are now.

"For example, a used car operator in southern California may find it possible to buy a car in Detroit this fall for $50 below invoice price, or $100 less than it costs him right now. But he'll probably find the franchised dealer in his town selling his new units to the public for near-invoice price and the used car operator will be right back where he is now."

Automotive News also reports used car stocks have reached "bountiful proportions." It says the average wholesale auction last week offered 224 units for sale. Of these, it added, there were 85 cars left unsold at the average auction.

NEW CAR TRADE-INS

The wholesale auctions handle cars offered by dealers, who acquired them as trade-ins on new car purchases.

Kay Starr Does 1 Show Alone

Gershwin's Old Tune, "I Love to Rhyme" Turns Up Again

By JACK O'BRIAN,

NEW YORK (INS)—Janet Blair had the nicest shade of Dublin green hair on Sunday night's Liebman spectacular . . . which was one of the better specs.

Kay Starr did a whole TV show within the spectacular and a mighty pleasing one, though she shouldn't drop such inside-the-trade comments as "I promised Manie I'd get this in."

Thelma Ritter was superb all through but especially during a bitter heartbreak scene played with uncommon restraint by director and camera—mostly with her back turned or in three-quarter-face but none the less powerful for the visual inhibitions.

The whole hour had a deep actually-experienced feel to it, and the fragment of a scene in which the girl (Nancy Marchant?) who couldn't afford to be matron of honor confessed her shame and heartbreak; was a perfectly played and pictured cameo of shattered pride and desperation.

The others were just as well cast: Pat Henning, a comedian realizing his finest acting hours from serious roles (he's also in the film "On the Waterfront") was a proudly pathetic picture of a failure still brave and hopeful; J. Pat O'Malley, another unfrocked comic doing better with sock than buskin, played his discerningly observed character exceptionally well.

Kathleen McGuire and Michael Higgins were the young couple whose wedding caused this cruel climax to old family problems all suddenly, nakedly in the open as if some automatic psychiatrist had unloosed everyone's tongue with rich, tough, bitter ensemble insight not often seen in dramatic form since Eugene O'Neill's active days . . . a fine TV drama.

"Leave It to the Girls" has its comeback booked.

Jackie Gleason will conduct not one, not two — but three orchestras next Saturday night, one with a 20-piece mandolin section. He'll also disinter his "Reggie Van Gleason" character which is best news of all.

American Students Found on Mountain

EDINBURGH, Scotland (AP)—The bodies of two American students missing since Sunday were found today in a snow-filled gully on Ben Nevis, Britain's highest mountain, 4,406 feet.

The climbers were Frederick C. Hadden, 21, Pasadena, Calif., and Bert Woodburn, 21, San Gabriel, Calif. Both were students at Edinburgh University.

Members of a Royal Air Force rescue squad who found them said both appeared to have died quickly from severe injuries suffered in falls.

Two Women Sentenced

Two Detroit women yesterday were sentenced to Oakland County Jail by Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland after they admitted May 3 to stealing merchandise from a Northland Center store last Sept. 24.

City Man Imprisoned

William Saunders, 27, of 140 Draper Ave., yesterday received from 3 to 15 years in Jackson state prison when he appeared before Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland.

Saunders admitted May 12 entering a building at 861 N. Pontiac Trail, Commerce Township, last Oct. 27.

Beautiful Anita Slows Traffic to a Dead Stop

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Pretending that it was for research, I assigned myself to go around town with beautiful Anita Ekberg.

"What's it like, Wilson," I said to myself, very sharply, "to be so beautiful that you stop traffic? Go find out!"

★ ★ ★ ★

"Ekberg

ANITA

★ ★ ★ ★

"You can hear their shoes grind in the sidewalk ven dey turn around to look," she said. She spoke not conceitedly but matter-of-factly.

When she posed in front of a car, a young fellow swung his car around in the middle of 59th St. and yelled, "How about posing in front of a Cadillac?"

At the Stage Barber Shop at 54th and 7th, the barbers stopped barbering and the customers stopped customering to come out and whistle. We went into the Stage Delicatessen. Joe DiMaggio happened to be lunching.

★ ★ ★ ★

Anita waved, then trotted over and said hello. She then sat down on the other side, holding her toy French poodle, Robert.

"How about some pastrami? How about some potato pancakes?" pleaded Max Asnas the boss, hovering over her. "How about some Max Asnas?"

"Professor" Irwin Corey, the comedian, a few tables away, shouted to a fellow nearby, "I'm not staring at you. I'm staring at her!"

He decided he had some important news items to tell me and rushed breathlessly over.

★ ★ ★ ★

"Happy Father's Day," a sign on it said.

"Vot a dreadful t'ing dey do!" Anita said. "Dey get $2 for my pictures and I get nudding."

Upstairs at Klein's Gymnasium some young guys shouted "Hey, Oil! Oil! Bring her up here!" Suddenlyl there were 50 or 75 people around. A cop hustled up.

★ ★ ★ ★

"Don't you know you're obstructing traffic?" he said. "Get going!" So that's what traffic-stopping beauties do. They really stop traffic.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Eddie Fisher's hunting a penthouse here—bachelor size! . . . Phil Silvers and Nancy Berg tried to play chess in Toot's, but he refused permission claiming it took time away from them spending money . . . Jackie Gleason'll conduct a 70-piece orchestra including a 30-piece mandolin section June 21.

SHELLEY

Robert Ruark's here enroute to Houston for treatment of his leg . . . Sinatra's due today . . . Harry James asked $100,000 to appear in "The Benny Goodman Story"; he probably won't appear . . . Shelley Winters' current interest is director Nick Ray.

Robert Mitchum's going to Europe by freighter because he dislikes "the creeps" on the regular liners . . . Faye Emerson was around with her ex-sis-in-law, Mrs. Anne Roosevelt . . . Huckster Alley question: Will Patti Page's TV sponsor, Oldsmobile, let her mention her recording company—Mercury?

U.S. Treasury Check Bounces—Not Signed

LOS ANGELES (AP)—It was something of a blow when the government's Treasury check bounced.

Edward Saver said he got the $37.50 check as a refund of a deposit he had made with his bid for some war surplus goods. He just sent the check to his bank to be added to his account.

But the bank promptly sent it back yesterday. Seems somebody in the Treasury Department had neglected to sign it.

Ex-Spouse Sues Multimillionaire for $15 Million

NEW YORK (AP)—The former wife of Canadian multimillionaire Vernon G. Cardy is suing him for 15 million dollars, claiming she is entitled to the money under Canada's community property law.

Mrs. Hilda Bouvier Cardy, in a State Supreme Court action made known yesterday, charges she agreed to $1,400-a-month permanent alimony at the time of their divorce in 1950 only because of Cardy's "nerve-wracking campaign of duress . . ."

* * *

She contends that Cardy, who climbed from bellhop to a hotel chain owner while still in his 30s, amassed his fortune while married to her and thus she is entitled to half. She said Cardy was worth 30 million dollars when they parted.

Most of Mrs. Cardy's 82-page complaint deals with what she calls Cardy's "notorious adulteries, his defamatory attacks upon me and economic pressure" during the last 17 years of their marriage. They were married in 1916.

Straits Boats Start Summer Schedule

LANSING (AP)—State ferries at the Straits of Mackinac have gone on their summer-fall schedule, the state Highway Department reported today.

On Friday and Saturday until Dec. 1 ferries will leave every hour on the hour from both St. Ignace and Mackinaw City.

On other days of the week, the ships will skip the 2 a.m. and 3 a.m. departures from Mackinaw City and the 1 a.m. and 2 a.m. departures from St. Igance until traffic warrants an around-the-clock schedule.

Two Crewmen Drown as Fishing Boat Sinks

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—Two crewmen were lost and eight were rescued late last night after the fishing vessel S. Gonzales sank in the Gulf of Mexico.

The two missing seamen were identified as Oscar Olsen, 65 and Raymond Sheffield, 45.

Eric Lindberg, 63-year-old skipper of the vessel, said it was "crowded into a sea buoy" by an outbound freighter which continued on its way. The freighter was not identified, he said.

Placed on Probation

Ronald A. Butler, 19, of 235 S. Jefferson, Ithaca, yesterday was placed on two-year probation and assessed $250 court costs by Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland.

Butler admitted May 9 entering a gas station Oct. 29, 1953, at 24205 Orchard Lake Rd., Farmington Twp.

Youth Dies Proving He Had Qualifications

Yesterday, a group of pals teased him about his qualifications for the service as they were crossing a Harlem River bridge.

It took an hour to recover the body.

Paper Urges Facilities for Old Folks of Town

WAYNE, Neb. (UP) — The Wayne Herald, a weekly, said a move by the town council to remodel the police station probably is a "move to provide card-playing facilities" for the town's elder citizens.

And the Herald added that it believed the city should make the move.

"We go all out for the rest of our citizens," the paper said, "Why not for the elders, too?"

"These men are valuable citizens. They have lived here a long time. They are paying taxes. They have helped make Wayne what it is today."

Detroiter Sentenced

William H. Arnold, 40, of 1323 Elliott, Detroit, yesterday was placed on two-year probation and assessed $200 court costs by Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland. Arnold admitted May 2 to negligent homicide in the death of a passenger in a car which collided with his last March 15 on West Eight Mile road.

Tallahassee, Fla., was the only Confederate state capital not captured in the Civil War.

Two Women Battling for Custody of Dog

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Lois Frederick contended in Municipal Court yesterday that Mrs. Jessie Hall gave her a 4-month-old screwtail bulldog last February. Mrs. Hall said the dog belongs to her and that she never gave permanent custody to Miss Frederick.

"This is like a child custody case in a lot of ways," Judge Mike Foster said. "I'm looking up my divorce and child custody laws to see if there is a precedent in this sort of thing which might also apply to dogs."

The women agreed to let a veterinarian keep the dog until the judge makes his decision.

Deadly Chlorine Gas Threatens Montague

No One Wants Alligator With Bad Reputation

PITTSFIELD, Mass. (AP) — Dr. Arthur M. Levy has a 20-inch alligator to give away—but so far there are no takers because of the alligator's reputation.

The alligator arrived for Dr. Levy Sunday night and promptly broke loose at the Pittsfield post office. Before it was caught, it bit clerk Fred Binder.

Rate Request Was Truly Electrifying

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) —Members of the Utah Public Service Commission may have been slightly startled by a request yesterday.

The request, by the Wendover Light and Power Co., was for permission to reduce its rates by more than 15 per cent.
