Nigeria Army Stages Coup

LONDON (AP)—An army coup in Nigeria overturned the federal government and resulted in the killing of two of the country's regional premiers, reports reaching London said today.

The unconfirmed reports said the Sardauna of Sokoto, premier of the Northern Region, had been assassinated with his wife, as well as chief Samuel I. Akintola, premier of the Western Region.

Sir Abubakar Tafewa Balewa, the federal prime minister, was said to be under house arrest.

The reports indicated, however, that the coup might have been only partly successful. It was not clear just how much of the army supported it. Some sections of the army were said to be in conflict.

Police were reported maintaining law and order in Lagos, the capital.

SITUATION CONFUSED

It was emphasized that the situation was extremely confused and might change from hour to hour.

A broadcast from Lagos heard in Cotonou, capital of neighboring Dahomey, said the army had seized power "to bring an end to gangsterism and disorder."

The proclamation was read on the radio by a high ranking officer whose name could not be made out. In a calm voice, he said an end must be brought to despotism and corruption in Nigeria.

GOP Leader Against Hiking Legislator Pay

His Colleagues See $20,000 to $30,000 for Full-Time Work

LANSING (AP) — A House Republican said "no thanks" to a pay raise yesterday. His colleagues, meanwhile, said it would take $20,000 to $30,000 a year to attract and hold good men on a full-time basis.

The lawmakers appeared before the Governor's Special Commission on Legislative Compensation, a group set up to study the question of salaries after an attempt last year to raise lawmakers' pay by $5,000 a year failed.

House Minority Leader Robert Waldron, R-Grosse Pointe, objected to turning the Legislature into a full-time operation and to raising compensation above its present annual level of $10,000 salary and $2,500 in expense money.

But other lawmakers, both Republicans and Democrats, painted a picture of near full-time legislative activities, weekend contact with constituents and suffering law practices or private businesses.

Waldron said the compensation should be high enough to prevent the possibility of undue influence from lobbyists and low enough to prevent legislators' gearing their inactivities to the one expedient of staying in office.

PART-TIME OPERATION

The Legislature, he said, has traditionally been a part-time operation. He added:

"This is supposed to be a group of laymen — a cross-section of the general public, a board of citizens. The Legislature is supposed to bring back to the capital the knowledge gained from living with their fellow citizens and engaging in normal day to day activities."

"We are not supposed to be experts; we are supposed to be advised by the experts and set policies with their advice as background. If the legislators ever become experts, God help us," he added.

Turning the Legislature into a full-time operation would result merely in "featherbedding committee work," he said. "It would do nothing but encourage 148 people to run around on a make-

Say Informer Killed in Plot

Kidnap Mastermind Fearful of Partner

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — A kidnap plan that wound through thickets of conspiracy, fear, betrayal and death was the master plot of a man who told police of the scheme and who died as it was being carried out.

The kidnap target: multimillionaire philanthropist Leonard K. Firestone.

The result: George H. Scalla, 28, and William C. Bailey, 44, were cut down by police shotguns Thursday night as they crossed the Firestone threshold.

Beverly Hills Police Capt. John E. Hankins said that Scalla, who had gone to police in fear for his life, had masterminded the plot and had recruited Bailey.

"Scalla and another person originally planned the kidnaping," Hankins said, "but Scalla's partner got arrested and was sent to jail. Then he went out looking for another and tied in with Bailey.

BECAME AFRAID

"He later became afraid of Bailey, and believed that, if he didn't go through with it, Bailey would kill him. He said he knew Bailey would kill him after the kidnaping to shut him up.

"It was at that time that he went to Los Angeles police and told them of the kidnaping, which the officers already knew about.

"He went on the job with the idea that in case there was shooting, he would drop to the ground and protect himself," Hankins explained.

Firestone, 58, was told of the

DEMS CONFER — Michigan Democratic leaders headed a party training conference this morning in Farmington Township. Addressing the group were (from left) U.S. Senator Philip A. Hart; State Democratic Chairman Zolton Ferency; Congressman Billy S. Farnum of the 19th District; and Neil Staebler, Democratic candidate for governor in 1964.

Hart Cautions Dems on 'Great Society'

United States Senator Philip A. Hart said today that the success of President Johnson's "Great Society" depends on the willingness of Congress to pay for it.

Hart's statement was made in a brief speech before Oakland County Democrats attending a training institute in Farmington Township sponsored by the 19th District Democratic organization.

Basically, Hart's talk was aimed at the Democrats' necessity of keeping Rep. Billy S. Farnum as congressman for the 19th District.

Noting that Farnum is a member of the important House Appropriations Committee, Hart said it would be up to the members of that committee to make the Great Society a reality.

"Too often in the past, Congress has approved programs and then failed to provide funds to carry them out," Hart said.

Hart said that "this coming fall, our Republican friends will use the two-party system to confuse the voters.

GOP PLEA

"They will come in and say to vote against Farnum for the good of the two-party system.

"To restore the two-party system, as the Republicans define it, means to defeat the Great Society.

"It would mean restoring a conservative system that would cut the Great Society so that it doesn't work.

"Success of the Great Society depends on Congress's willingness to fund it.

'FARNUM KEY'

"Billy Farnum is a key in making it a success."

Zolton Ferency, state Democratic chairman, introduced Hart.

In his opening remarks, Ferency criticized Gov. Romney's recent State of the State message.

He said that, one week prior to the speech, Romney had announced a $900 million "standstill" budget, yet seven days later, in his state speech made it a "total Michigan progress" budget.

NOTHING MORE

"Yet there is nothing more in it for schools, mental health or water pollution."

Ferency said, "We cannot raise the money we need with the tax structure we have now."

He pointed out that the last budget of then-Gov. John Swainson totaled little more than $500 million, and that Swainson was hesitant to ask for it because he would be called a "free-spender."

Bitter Words on Transit Pact

NEW YORK (AP) — Over the roar of New York's transit system, volleys of subway sharpshooting fly between Washington and City Hall.

President Johnson Thursday attacked the settlement of the 12-day bus and subway strike as inflationary. He said the terms exceeded the government's 3.2 per cent guideline on wages and prices.

Republican Mayor John V. Lindsay suggested that Johnson "was not as familiar with all the facts of this case as was Wirtz."

He was referring to W. Willard Wirtz, secretary of labor, who fired off a telegram to Lindsay last night saying Johnson's statement reflects "the facts in this case as I know them."

He added: "Your recollection

Violent Acts Linked to KKK

Beating of Klansman, Murder Described

WASHINGTON (AP) — House investigators have reported links between the Ku Klux Klan, the murders of two Mississippi Negroes and also savage night beatings of fellow Klansmen.

Centering on the Natchez, Miss., area, investigators of the House Committee on Un-American Activities said yesterday a number of Natchez policemen were Klansmen and the two sons of Mayor Nosser were identified as Klansmen by an admitted member.

The same man, James K. Greer, was quoted in reports of the Mississippi Highway Patrol and the FBI as saying a Klansman got drunk one night and shot up the Klan headquarters in Natchez at 3 a.m.

Greer refused to answer any committee questions about his statement to the authorities.

The story of the murders and floggings was told by chief investigator Donald T. Appell, relying on the highway patrol and FBI reports.

DESCRIBED BODY

Here is Appell's description of the body of Earl Hodges, who he said was a Klansman who fell out with Exalted Cyclops Clyde Seale of Meadville, Miss.:

"He had walked to a well, apparently to wash off the blood. His body was covered with welts from the bottom of his feet to the top of his head. There was a hole in the top of his head.

"His face was split from his nose to the corner of his eye and the split was so deep you could see the roof of his mouth."

Reported Aim Is to Reassure Saigon Regime

Ky Says in Speech: No Other Nation Can Decide Our Destiny

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk launched a whirlwind round of talks with South Viet Nam's top leaders today, reportedly to assure them President Johnson's peace efforts will not undercut the Saigon regime.

Rusk, accompanied by special presidential envoy W. Averell Harriman, met briefly with Chief of State Lt. Gen. Nguyen Van Thieu and then talked for an hour with Premier Nguyen Cao Ky and Foreign Minister Tran Van Do.

"We had very interesting talks. We are going to see each other again tonight," Rusk told newsmen, apparently referring to his dinner engagement with Ky.

He declined to say what subjects were discussed at the meetings, but diplomatic sources said he came here to tell Ky that Johnson's diplomatic moves on ending the war in Viet Nam would not pull the rug from under Ky's regime.

Rusk also met with U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and other American officials.

CLOSING CEREMONY

Ky, in a speech at the closing ceremony of the second Armed Forces' Day congress, warned that whatever peace moves are generated, "no other nation is qualified and able to decide our destiny, independently of our own will."

He praised the current peace offensive with a special word for Pope Paul VI, but warned all would-be peacemakers to beware of making any deals without his government's sanctions.

Ky said his government planned to create a "democracy building council" after the lunar New Year. The council will hold seminars throughout the country on a proposed new constitution.

Points raised in the seminars will be incorporated into the document and it will be put to a referendum next October, he said.

FROM TOP DOWN

Past constitutions have died with a whimper because they came from the top down, he said.

He also promised that new civilian cadres will bolster towns and villages as they are cleared of the Viet Cong. It is in these rural areas, he

Airliner Down off Colombia

10 of 61 Survive in Shark-Filled Seas

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — A Colombian airliner with 61 persons on board plunged into shark-infested waters off the coast last night. Officials reported 51 persons were killed and 10 survived.

The four-engine, propeller-driven DC4, broke in two and its rear section sank in heavy seas.

The plane crashed about five minutes after taking off from the Caribbean port of Cartagena for a 20-minute flight to Barranquilla.

Frogmen from the Cartagena naval base vainly tried to rescue an estimated 40 passengers trapped in the rear section of the plane.

About 50 Colombian navy boats, 20 fishing vessels and a U.S. amphibious plane joined the search but rescue efforts were suspended early today due to the rough seas and the danger from sharks.

The Avianca airliner carried a crew of five. Most of the passengers were Colombian, authorities said.

It was not immediately known what caused the crash.

He's No John Dillinger

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A man police said was drunk was arrested yesterday after making two unsuccessful attempts to hold up a bank in nearby Imperial.

He brought two shotguns, fired them both, but caused no injuries.

Steve Quinn, 43, staggered into the Union National Bank office and poked a shotgun through a teller's window, police said.

Margaret Smith, who knew Quinn, turned from her work at an adding machine and said: "Now get that thing out of here. I'm busy."

The gunman moved back, and started wandering around the lobby.

Another bank employe, Virginia Noble, approached him and asked, "May I help you?"

She pushed aside the gun barrel. Wham, it fired. The charge hit a wall, but no one was hurt.

Mrs. Noble and Mrs. Smith wrested the gun from Qninn's hands, police said. Quinn ran to a car outside and drove off.

Police arrived. A woman outside yelled, "He's back."

HAD ANOTHER

The police ran outside and spotted Quinn in a car near the bank entrance. He had another shotgun.

Police yanked him from the car. Wham, the shotgun went off. Again, no one was hurt.

Quinn, an unemployed laborer from Imperial, was in the Allegheny County jail today, charged with armed robbery.

Italy Vote Boosts Premier; Favors Role in Viet Peace

Speech Backs LBJ's Policy

Coalition Supports Confidence Motion

ROME (AP) — Italian Premier Aldo Moro, bolstered by a confidence vote in the Chamber of Deputies, was expected to press ahead today with efforts to help end the Viet Nam war.

Moro won the vote by 325 to 154, well above the 240 votes needed. He closed the two-day debate with a speech supporting President Johnson's diplomatic offensive to get Viet Nam peace talks started.

"We have encouraged the American government above all in that vigorous and sincere peace initiative which began with the Christmas truce and the indefinite suspension of bombing in North Viet Nam," Moro said.

THREE FRONTS

The premier added that, in "this particularly decisive moment" of the Viet Nam crisis, Italy was trying to help on three peace fronts:

— Recommending to its allies and friends patience and a will to negotiate.

— Asking nonallied nations to be "helpful mediators."

— Suggesting to Communist countries that they show interest in overcoming world tensions.

The confidence motion approved not only Moro's Viet Nam policy but also the way he took on the additional job of foreign minister.

Moro assumed the role Dec. 29 when Amintore Fanfani quit in the wake of criticism for his part in a Hanoi peace-feeler mission. Italian Communists and extreme leftists had tried to build the switchover into a crisis but the confidence vote punctured their efforts.

FOUR PARTIES

The motion supporting Moro was carried by four government coalition parties — the Christian Democrats, Socialists, Democratic Socialists and Republicans.

Moro emphasized that his government had an "understanding" for the U.S. position in Viet Nam.

Sukarno Says 87,000 Died Since Coup Try in October

SINGAPORE (UPI) — President Sukarno of Indonesia said today 87,000 persons have been killed there since the attempted Communist coup on Oct. 1, Radio Jakarta reported.

He said he was prepared to step down "if the state does not like me any more."

Sukarno, in a speech to his cabinet at Bogoro Palace, took note of the galloping inflation and the angry mood of students who have demonstrated against the government and said:

"If you don't want me any more I am ready to step down. It is not necessary for you to drop me out, I shall go if the state does not like me any more."

Then in an apparent reference to the mass student demonstrations against recent price increases he said, "Do not act wildly. This is my command."

He reminded them that he was not only the supreme commander, but also the great leader of the revolution, the great leader of the people.

Sukarno challenged his critics to bring down the prices of essential commodities within three months. He said that whoever succeeds would be made a minister, but if he fails he would be sentenced to five or 10 years jail or even shot to death.

Raising his voice, Sukarno said he disapproved "very much" of the students' actions against price boosts and their demands for a cabinet reshuffle and dissolution of the Indonesian Communist Party.

He said the estimate of 87,000 victims of the attempted coup was submitted by a fact-finding commission. It was the first official announcement of the death toll resulting from the coup.

Sukarno admitted that "our situation is really difficult, particularly with our revolution caused by the Oct. 1 movement."

Sukarno said he was ordering all his ministers to reexamine and study the monetary regulations and make all the necessary recommendations to him.

work basis to justify their full-time status."

Waldron's statement took the group by surprise. It had indicated it was thinking more in terms of how large an increase the Legislature should get rather than whether a raise should be granted at all.

The 12-member commission was set up by Gov. George Romney and the Senate Business Committee.

It is headed by James Pollock, University of Michigan professor of political science, and includes former legislators Henry Hogan, a Birmingham attorney, and Christian Matthews of Mount Clemens, immediate past president of the State Bar Association.

Others include August Scholle AFL-CIO president; James Quello, station manager for radio station WJR, Detroit; and John F. Pival, president of WXYZ, Inc.

Dem to Run for Governor

DETROIT (AP)—City Treasurer Louis H. Funk is the first announced candidate for governor of Michigan in 1966.

"I'm going to take a shot at the nomination. I'll be in there to win," said Funk, 63, a Democrat.

Referring to Zolton Ferency, Democratic state chairman who has considered seeking the nomination, Funk said:

"I wouldn't be afraid to run against Ferency. After all, I've served the taxpayers and he never has."

Funk won election as Detroit treasurer in 1964. His four-year term expires in 1968. He was elected in 1964 by 736,457 to 246,254 for his Republican opponent.

Petitions to nominate Funk were put into circulation Friday.

"With commissioners elected at large under the charter amendment, the Negro community must attain some cohesion as a voting group," Newby said.

HONOR TRUCE

The defense ministry today confirmed that it would honor a 78-hour truce during the lunar New Year — from noon Jan. 20 to 6 p.m. Jan. 23.

"During these break hours, all measures will be taken for the defense of all units to prevent any surprise attack by the enemy," a communique said.

The truce was proposed by the Viet Cong earlier this month. The Communists said they would observe it for four days.

CRASH-LANDED

Air America, the private airline under contract to the U.S. government, announced today that one of its cargo planes crash-landed after it was hit by Viet Cong ground fire and its pilot and copilot were shot to death in the plane's cabin.

John McMann, manager of Air America's Saigon office, said the C47 was hit yesterday about 80 miles southwest of Saigon while ferrying rice and other foodstuffs to the Mekong Delta.

He identified the pilot as W. R. Pruner, whose widow, Betty, lives in Oklahoma City, Okla. The copilot was Chang Yong-ho, a Vietnamese. The fate of a third crewman, Nguyen Ban Thai, also a Vietnamese, was not known, McMann said.

He said an investigation had shown that Pruner and Chang were not seriously injured in the crash-landing.

and your arithmetic are wrong. The settlement may have been necessary to relieve the city from unconscionable bondage. But it was unquestionably outside the stabilization policies."

NOT RECEIVED

A spokesman for the mayor said Lindsay had not received the telegram and would have no comment on it until he did.

The transportation crisis ended before dawn Thursday when the Transit Authority and the striking unions agreed on a settlement estimated at between $52 and $70 million over two years.

Government economists figure the wage increase in the package at 4.5 to 4.6 per cent a year, in excess of the 3.2 per cent guidelines. These guideposts — the observance of which is voluntary — reflect government estimates that a worker's productivity increases at 3.2 per cent a year.

In a news conference yesterday Lindsay said Dr. Nathan Feinsinger, chairman of the mediation panel that worked out the settlement, now feels that the agreement will represent a 3.6 per cent increase. Earlier, Feinsinger had said he did not believe it would exceed the guideposts.

NOT HIS ROLE

Lindsay said Secretary Wirtz had been helpful and was familiar with every step of the negotiations. But, he said, it was not the secretary's "role to pass judgment on the ultimate settlement."

Wirtz, in his telegram to Lindsay, said he had consistently pointed out to "you and to the panel members my view that it was most important that this case be settled with due regard to the national stabilization policies."

The secretary added that the point had been emphasized again in a news conference in Washington and in a subsequent telephone conversation with Lindsay.

Four Survive Greek Crash of U.S. Plane

ATHENS (UPI) — A U.S. Air Force C47 lost in the blizzard-swept Greek mountains on Thursday made a crash-landing on a snow-covered slope, and 4 of 10 men aboard survived, a U.S. Embassy spokesman here announced today.

Rescuers reached the wreckage of the twin-engined plane, which had been carrying nine Americans and one Italian, 6,000 feet up the eastern slope of Mt. Helmos.

There was no immediate indication which of the men survived and which were killed.

Mt. Helmos, in the northern Peloponnesus range in southern Greece, is 7,680 feet high.

The spokesman said a rescue helicopter with a doctor aboard landed on the snow a short distance from the wrecked plane and radioed back that there were four survivors. There were no further details.

ITALY DESTINATION

The C47, assigned to the southern European command of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization headquarters in Naples, Italy, went down on a flight to Naples from Cigli, Turkey.

There were indications yesterday of survivors, but this was not confirmed until today. Reports said the C47 crash-landed near a mountain refuge built for climbers.

Search planes yesterday reported "evidence to suggest there might be some survivors."

Meeting in day-long sessions, the committee will examine and evaluate the preparatory school's programs and achievements.

Dr. W. Rodman Snelling, Detroit Country Day School president, noted the study is a pioneering effort "that could have important repercussions on elementary and secondary school education."

Founded by F. Alden Shaw, the 51-year-old institution has an all-male enrollment in seventh through 12th grades, but is coeducational in kindergarten through sixth grade.

Hubert: Asian Leaders Back Johnson

CHICAGO (UPI) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey believes Asia's political leaders firmly support President Johnson's efforts to end the war in Viet Nam.

"They support it strongly," said Humphrey at a news conference here yesterday. He was to attend a political rally to urge Sen. Paul H. Douglas, D-Ill., to run for another term.

"They are as concerned about freedom as we are," he said. "And they realize they have a responsibility, too, not only to undertake their part in defending freedom, but also to support our cause in Viet nam."

At the $100-a-plate dinner for Douglas, Humphrey added that the desire of United States was for "Peace, but not appeasement" in Viet Nam.

"The U.S.A. is the strongest nation in the world," he said.

"We will use our power in defense of others. Freedom is not free, and we are the guardians of the ramparts."

Humphrey arrived here from Washington where he returned from a trip to India for the funeral of Lal Bahadur Shastri.

In New Delhi the vice president met with Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin, other Indian leaders, and Vice President Hussein Shafei of the United Arab Republic.

Romney: Alter Laws on Criminal Minors

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George Romney recommended Friday that the state accept responsibility for treatment of all lawbreakers under 21 committed by probate and circuit courts.

"These proposals mark a historic new departure in the state," Romney said.

The governor made his proposals in a talk at a meeting of the Michigan Probate-Juvenile Judges Association at Lansing.

Romney said he will recommend amendments to the present law so the State Department of Socal Services can accept all juveniles under the age of 17 committed to it.

MAKING SURE

This will make sure state facilities and services are not just "finishing schools for the so-called nice delinquents," Romney said.

The governor also said he will see to a new "alternate sentencing of minors" law.

This would give circuit judges the option of handling the offenders in the 17 to 21 bracket in "youthful offender" proceedings. Under present law, only criminal proceedings are available for handling these older minors.

Such 17 to 21 youths would be handled by the Department of Corrections, which would place them in separate "youthful offender" facilities. Romney said the Corrections Department now has suffcient facilities for such youths but might have to add more space in the future.

Romney further proposed revisions in the foster care formula to provide greater state assistance for the counties. When fully implemented, he said, this would cost the state an additional $1.7 million a year.

Private College Grants Asked

LANSING (AP) — Tuition grants by the state for students at private colleges were proposed Friday by Senate Majority Leader Raymond Dzendzel, D-Detroit.

Grants would range to $250 per semester, based on income of the student's parents. Recipients would have to have lived in Michigan for three years and be attending a school approved by the State Board of Education.

Recipients of other full scholarships would be ineligible.

Dzendzel made no mention of a minimum grade requirement, but proposed the state's Higher Education Assistance Authority set rules and administer the program.

Dzendzel said the program could affect up to 11,000 students but gave no estimate of total cost.

Killed in Car Crash

PINCKNEY (AP) — Dennis E. Hollister, 19, of Pinckney, was killed Friday when his car struck a tree two miles west of here.

Ex-Manager of Brookdale Free on Bond

DETROIT (AP) — Sydney List, former manager of Brookdale Cemetery in suburban Livonia, stood mute at his arraignment Frday on charges of fraud and obtaining money under false pretenses.

A plea of innocent was entered for him before Common Pleas Judge Joseph C. Volkes. List, a British citizen, was freed on $2,500 bond and surrender of his passport. Examination was set for Jan. 20.

The charges stem from the complaint of Howard Dowdy of Detroit. Dowdy said his brother, Robert, was buried in Brookdale on May 31, 1963. He said on June 7, 1963, he agreed to purchase six grave sites with the understanding his brother's body was to be transferred to the newly purchased family plot.

Dowdy said he became concerned when he read reports that Brookdale Cemetry was under fire for burial irregularities.

He said he had his brother's grave opened Nov. 18 and discovered it contained a box filled with dirt.

Romney State Message Outlines Sound Plans

In a State of the State message delivered to a joint session of the legislature Thursday, Gov. GEORGE ROMNEY embraces a wide range of educational, welfare and governmental issues.

ROMNEY

He declared that Michigan's booming economy with revenues higher than expected would enable the State to meet some $96 million in added expenditures over this year's $820-million general fund budget without drawing more than partially on the $136 million surplus expected by the end of the fiscal year, June 30.

Reflecting virtually bipartisan approval, the governor would initiate state programs to tackle water pollution, realistically revise veterans' homestead tax exemption, provide substantial increase in support of education, increase aid to community health facilities, liberalize aid to the aged and crippled and afflicted children, refinance the Mackinac Bridge and up salaries for top state executives.

While tacitly accepting the inadvisability of another try at this time for an income tax, ROMNEY again stressed, though briefly, the need for tax reform if Michigan is to preserve the enviable fiscal position it now enjoys.

The governor dwelt at length on the need by urban communities for financial assistance in meeting their growing problems. He would have cities granted additional taxing power, including imposition of excise taxes and a land transfer tax once the Federal levy on such transactions is removed. He also advocated home rule as a necessary step in effecting metropolitan annexation and providing regional public facilities.

ROMNEY also gave attention to the need for advanced scientific control and revised legal procedures in the State's war on crime.

As are most communications that emanate from the governor's office, the State of the State message was a well-organized, realistic and informative document. We congratulate the chief executive on the excellence of it and wish him well in guiding Michigan through another year.

A Venerable Railroad Heads for Better Days

One of the many incongruities of a bourgeoning national economy is witnessed by the trials and tribulations of the Long Island Railroad.

Although the line is a vital link in the Greater New York transportation system and daily hauls 260,000 commuters into and out of the metropolis, it has been in financial hot water as long as anyone can remember.

Built 132 years ago, it initially enjoyed a full measure of prosperity. But with changing times, the road's fortunes slowly declined and it finally sank into bankruptcy in 1954.

Following a reorganization, the Pennsylvania Railroad took over control of the L.I.R.R.

However, even this major shakeup could not put the line back on its financial tracks. Though paying no dividends and despite seven fare raises, state-granted tax relief and other concessions that failed to breathe new life into the patient, the Long Island has finally been taken over by the six-month-old Metropolitan Commuter Transportation Authority.

The Authority, a state agency, has been authorized to float a $200 million bond issue for capital improvements, high-speed engines, new cars, rehabilitated stations, a link with New York City's subway and possibly a new terminal on Manhattan's East Side.

If the state can make the railroad carry commuters quickly and comfortably at fares that will not drive them to the highways the L.I.R.R., the first railroad in the U. S. to come under state ownership, may well set a Great Society precedent for the rescue of moribund lines in other metropolitan areas of the Nation.

NEW Yorkers got a lot of practice in putting their best foot forward during the transit strike.

Budget Figures Said Attainable

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's forecast of a record $111-billion federal revenue total next year drew cries of skepticism in Congress, but economic experts said it was easily attainable.

They said the figure may well turn out to be conservative if the boom continues unabated through 1966 and into 1967 as now predicted.

The Treasury has been consistently underestimating tax yields throughout the almost five years of unprecedented economic expansion, the experts pointed out.

Johnson revealed the $111-billion estimate in his State of the Union message, forecast spending of $112.8 billion for fiscal 1967 and said the resulting $1.8 billion deficit would be the lowest in years.

If the estimates turn out to be accurate, they would mean the brightest U.S. fiscal picture since 1960, when there was a $1.2-billion surplus. That is the last time the government's accounts have been in the black.

GOP RAPPED FIGURES

Republicans jumped on Johnson's figures with both feet, particularly the revenue prediction. They said it was unrealistic, unbelievable, obviously padded.

The immediate reaction of some Democrats in Congress was to voice hope that the estimates would turn out to be correct, but to say privately they had serious doubts.

However, Democrats at the Capitol took a much more optimistic view after an analysis of the figures by top staff men on the Senate-House Economic Committee and other fiscal experts.

The analysis they offered goes like this:

The revenue figure for the current fiscal year, 1966, ending June 30, originally was estimated by Johnson at $94.4 billion.

TOTAL WAS BOOSTED

But last November the Budget Bureau announced that this had been boosted to at least $96.5 billion because of the continuing economic boom, with strong indications that it would be considerably higher. There was a feeling among many economists it might even reach $100 billion.

Assuming that the revenues for the current year total $99 billion, a $12-billion gain would be needed to attain Johnson's fiscal 1967 prediction.

But he is asking Congress for three tax law changes which would produce $4.8 billion of this.

That would mean only $7.2 billion would have to come from economic growth.

Revenue figures for the past 10 years show two occasions, in 1956 and 1960, when there was a jump of more than $7.2 billion. Both times the economy was running at high speed.

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODI ISHMAEL

". . . you would not be seeking for Me if you had not found Me."
Blaise Pascal (The Mystery of Jesus)

Shelley Mydans, wife, mother and author, spent much of her early life, as she puts it, ". . . with an almost unbelief and suffered with it." She adds, "During the seeking and worrying I have found the quote of Pascal's a great comfort."

Like most of us, Mrs. Mydans was born and raised in the church of her parents. And like many of us she felt the need for a deep personal faith. This spiritual revelation comes only through experience, meditation and searching. Mrs. Mydans knows all three. Having lived in many parts of the world her experiences have been many and varied. She was interned with her husband by the Japanese during World War II. She said, "Before we were captured I was terribly afraid of the Japanese but after capture I lost my fear and did not hate them. I learned never to be afraid of the unknown." This was a sign of the maturity of faith.

From her meditation and searching has come her writing. Her study and research on the medieval church crystallized her own need for a formal religion. From the whole has come a power of faith that is evident in her books and her personal life. She concluded: "Take time to sit and contemplate—take much time. Then go to books and people and search out the answers." The maturity of our faith comes only through much effort and work.

Finding the Way:

Get New Hold on Life From God

By RALPH W. LOEW, D.D.

The young man leaned across the table and looked at me with the large eyes of a wounded animal. He had been sharing his heartache, his homesickness and his despair. Then he asked his question, "Have you ever been in a barrel of custard?"

DR. LOEW

I'd never thought of a barrel of custard, let alone imagine being in one! "But that's what life in this job is," he said, "I'm in over my head, I can feel something all around me, and I can't get hold of anything. I'm in a barrel of custard."

The years have passed but I continue to understand that experience.

The enigmatic problem of Viet Nam is so difficult to analyze that it surrounds us, defies easy answers and has no simple handles.

Personal disasters engulf some with a quick succession of one event after another, leaving families to slog through swamps instead of standing on solid ground.

Doubts and anxieties, those formless feelings in the night and those nagging doubts at mid-day, keep a person struggling with the meaning of existence.

Boredom with the endless round of dismal trivialities and the uninteresting prospect of more and more and more of the same leaves some sinking in the insecurity of a nothingness.

Centuries ago the Psalmist laid hold of the same problem:

The sorrows of death
encompassed me;
The pangs of Sheol laid hold upon me,
I suffered distress and anguish.

However, there was a significant difference. The man who wrote these words found a place to take hold. He wasn't in a barrel of custard.

For the Psalm continues:
"Then called I upon the Lord."

The experience of despair and anxiety is common; the difference is in what a person does with it. For some it's the protest of the circumstance. For another it's organizing a group to speak out.

Some sink or go to pieces or lose themselves in self-pity or alcoholism or some other form of resignation.

But some take hold and live. Life isn't a barrel of custard, for there are places to take hold and a reason for being. There is a valid answer beyond the doubt!

We are all caught in circumstances which seem far too complicated for our individual solutions. It's an humbling business to try to come up with the answers.

Yet there are places to take hold, there are definite acts to do constructively, there is the responsibility for personal conduct and there is the challenge to do something in terms of the whole problem.

We've all experienced, "the sorrows of death encompassed me."

We all know, if we've lived at all, "I found trouble and sorrow."

We need as much to know the certainty, the vocation and the confidence that grows from "Then called I upon the Lord."

O'Brien Will Devote Time to Job

BY WASHINGTON STAFF

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Postmaster General Lawrence O'Brien, who is widely expected to continue both as President Johnson's top political strategist and a key liaison man for him with Congress, thought he ought to deal with these reports.

He took care of the matter neatly with this public utterance:

"The postmaster generalship is a full-time job, and I expect to devote much of my time to it."

No matter how big the government bureaucracy may grow, there will never be enough important government officials to fill the speakers' slots on the programs of the many annual dinners in Washington. This problem is often vexing to both parties.

Former Postmaster General Edward Day recalls that the head of a large organization once dropped by his office with a flattering plea for Day to speak at his group's yearly shindig.

The board of directors, he said, had unanimously decided that Day was the man best qualified to make the speech. They had considered many names, but his was the one they always came back to. They knew, of course, that Day would have a particularly significant message for them.

"What date did you say the dinner is to be?" interjected Day.

"October 26."

"I'm terribly sorry," Day answered after checking his calendar, "but I already have a commitment for that night."

"Gosh," sighed his visitor, "everyone we've asked has a previous commitment for that night."

One quiet afternoon after the holidays, half a dozen White House news photographers were sprawled out in various attitudes of slumber in the west lobby where the press waits for news.

An enterprising network sound man decided to record the vigorous snores of one particularly fatigued cameraman. He placed the microphone of his tape recorder under the man's nose for five minutes or more, picking up some marvelously erratic snoring variations.

By the time the network man finished, all but the snorer were awake and laughing loudly. The laughter mounted as the tape was played back. The snoring sounded like a wild July thunderstorm.

In the middle of the playback, the snorer awoke. Slowly it dawned on him what was going on. He fixed a stern gaze on the man with the tape recorder and said:

"I just want to remind you—I take pictures!"

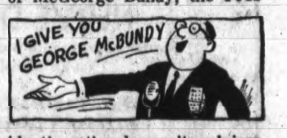
Taking note of the impending departure from the White House of McGeorge Bundy, the President's national security adviser, one Washington wag commented:



"Now that Bundy is leaving, I wonder if he'll go back to his real name—George McBundy."

Many a tangle-tongued platform performer has introduced him that way in his five years at the White House.

Voice of the People:

'Appreciate the Concern for Mental Retardation'

Recent concern and interest shown in mental retardation have enlightened me greatly. One of our children is retarded. Representative Robert Slingerland, District 63, vice chairman on a mental health committee in Michigan, helped get our child to University Hospital in Ann Arbor for tests in a few short weeks instead of the usual three to six months. They recommended an institution for the child.

Having met Mr. Slingerland and reading of all that intelligent citizens and businessmen are doing, and knowing what the special education classrooms have in mind for these youngsters has really cleared our minds. Keep up the good work. It means a lot.

GRATEFUL PARENTS

'Let's Do Something About School Gangs'

Something should be done about the brutal beatings by gangs at Isaac Crary Junior High School. Last week I saw a gang of students beating up one boy. They knocked him to the ground and two of the boys were kicking him in the head. Do they realize they could have killed or crippled him? The language they used on the man who stopped to pick the boy up isn't fit to be printed. These boys are from 12 to 15 years old. What happens when they get to high school? Unless these gangs are broken up more terrible tragedies will occur.

'President Should Uphold Oath of Office'

Mr. President, ask not what you can do for the furtherance of your own political career. Rather, ask what you can do to uphold your oath of office to protect and defend the Constitution of the United States of America.

And, ask what you can do to save the country you profess to love from socialism and the inevitably ensuing communism which will follow.

Urges Interest in '66 Memorial Day Parade

It is time to start the meetings so very necessary to organize a 1966 Memorial Day parade we can be proud of. A parade in Pontiac on Memorial Day is a morale builder. It is reassuring to the men in service, as well as all citizens, to see how many really care about our country and show sincere appreciation for the sacrifice our sons and daughters have made.

We welcome marching units, floats, cars, bands, drill teams and drum and bugle groups, and urge churches, lodges and other organizations to attend our meetings with suggestions. Monthly meetings will be held, the first to be January 20 at the National Guard Armory, 57 Water Street at 7:30 p.m.

'Politicians Can Take Hint From Reagan'

Now that ex-Democrat Reagan has been put on the spot as far as the John Birch Society is concerned, perhaps the other so-called politicians can take a hint. Mr. Reagan states that until the Birchers are officially condemned as subversive he sees no reason to hate them. I wonder what his attitude toward the Socialist A. D. A. is—the society which had Hubert Humphrey as one of its staunch directors.

The A.D.A. has invoked its desires on each presidential candidate since Roosevelt, with the exception of Mr. Goldwater. So perhaps Mr. Reagan is not only against condemning a group not yet listed as subversive, he might also be against any control by a group that has been listed as anti-United States. With more people like Reagan, maybe we can keep the United States a free republic.

Doctors Check D.C. Rifleman

Arrested After Firing Near White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — A 35-year-old Yonkers, N.Y., man whose wife says he has a history of mental hospitalization was undergoing examination today after he discharged a rifle into the air near the White House.

Raul R. Torres told police after he was arrested Friday that he fired the weapon to "attract attention." When seized, he was carrying a sign saying he disliked "illegal mental state hospitals" "illegal courtmartials" and "illegal prison terms."

Police said he was carrying a letter indicating he had appealed to President Johnson for a review of his discharge from the service. Police in Yonkers said they had been told a Secret Service warrant also had been issued against Torres accusing him of sending threatening letters to the President.

The incident took place after Torres was sighted by a Washington policeman carrying a rifle at Pennsylvania Avenue and 15th Street — about one block from the White House at 1600 Pennsylvania Ave.

OFFICER YELLS

"Hey, what are you doing with that gun?" the officer asked. Police said Torres then stepped into an alley, slipped some cartridges into the rifle, and fired it.

After a scuffle, he was seized by three policemen, charged with possession of a prohibited weapon and sent to St. Elizabeth's Hospital for examination.

Torres' wife and 8-year-old daughter were with him when the incident took place. They planned to return to Yonkers.

Mrs. Torres told police she helped her husband draw his protest sign. She said they also have a 14-year-old son.

Lake Level Rise Seen Continuing

DETROIT (AP) — The U.S. Lake Survey yesterday predicted a continued rise this spring in Great Lakes water levels. The levels had dropped to record and near-record lows in 1964.

By the end of next June, the survey said, Lakes Superior, Michigan, Huron and Ontario will be slightly higher than their 10-year averages.

The division of the Army Corps of Engineers forecast that, by midyear, Lakes St. Clair and Erie will be below, but close to, their 10-year average levels.

The predicted upswing from water levels recorded June 30, 1964, to those expected June 30 this year ranges from .09 to 2.22 feet.

IN JUNE 1964

Lakes Michigan and Huron plunged to record lows of 575.94 feet June 30, 1964. The Lake Survey predicts their level, which remains the same on both lakes, will rise 2.22 feet to 578.16 feet next June 30.

Lake St. Clair is expected to rise to 573.37 feet on June 30. This would be 1.41 feet higher than its level on the comparable date in 1964.

Lake Ontario is expected to reach 245.65 feet next June 30. This would be 1.10 feet above its level of 244.55 feet June 30, 1964.

Laker Erie, which stood at 569.57 feet in midyear 1964, is expected to rise .87 feet to 570.44 feet this coming midyear.

The smallest rise — .09 feet — is expected for Lake Superior whose level ordinarily deviates the least of the Great Lakes. Superior's level was 600.84 feet in June 1964 and is expected to rise to 600.93 feet June 30 this year.

The upswing in water levels is significant because, especially on Lakes Huron and Michigan, boaters, shippers and owners of shoreline property complained of problems caused by the 1964 low water levels.

The situation was eased somewhat last year as the lake levels moved closer to their averages for previous 10-year period.

Scout Council Plans Annual Cookie Sale

The kick-off luncheon for the Northern Oakland County Girl Scout Council's annual cookie sale was at Devon Gables Friday.

"Non-stop to the Top" is the theme for this year's sale, with a goal of 180,000 boxes of cookies to sell.

Girls and adults in the council will begin taking orders Jan. 21 through Feb. 1. Delivery and direct sales will be March 4 through 20.

Five kinds of cookies at fifty cents a box will be offered this year, according to council chairman Mrs. DuWane Jones. District chairmen are: Mrs. A. P. Glygoroff, Rochester; Mrs. Frobe Gruenberg, Clarkston, Mrs. William Graff, Pontiac; Mrs. Donald Maxwell, Union Lake; Mrs. Max Potter, Waterford; and Mrs. Frank Burrell, Orchard Lake. Mrs. R. F. Morgan is in charge of publicity.

SELLING 40 YEARS

The Girl Scouts have conducted their cookie sale annually for the past 40 years, the first being in Detroit in 1926.

Cookie profits are used primarily to support the Scouts' camping program.

Camp Sherwood, the council's resident camp near Lapeer, is maintained and developed entirely through cookie money. The exteriors of all the camp buildings were repainted this year, the caretaker's house remodeled and 65 acres added to camp property. Funds from previous sales provided the aluminum dock and a fleet of sport boats.

Last summer cookie funds provided camping scholarships for over 40 girls.

A percentage of the profits sends senior girls to regional and inter-council events throughout the year. The eight girls who attended Senior Roundup in Idaho last July were sent by cookie earnings.

"Non-stop to the Top" is the theme for Northern Oakland County Girl Scout Council's annual cookie sale, proudly displayed in banner form by district chairmen Mrs. Max Potter of Shelby Street (left) and Mrs. Frobe Gruenberg, Clarkston. The sale gets under way Jan. 21 and runs through Feb. 1.

Early October vows are planned by Ruth Ann Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. The bride-elect is enrolled in the Career Academy for Registered Medical Assistants in Milwaukee.

Now He's Exposing Mental Condition Besides His Legs

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem in decorum. My husband refuses to keep his pants on in the house.

ABBY

As soon as he gets home from work he takes them off, but leaves his shirt and tie and shorts on. He stays that way all evening, even through dinner. He won't even put on his bathrobe if I get it.

He says our apartment is too hot, so I bought him a pair of lightweight Bermuda shorts, but he refused to wear them. I hate to nag, but with a small daughter in the house a man should keep himself dressed decently.

Besides, our windows look right into those of a large motel and I'm afraid one of these days some prude will get my husband arrested for indecent exposure. Abby, I realize a man has a right to be comfortable in his own home, but mine has gone too far.

How can I get him to keep his pants on?

BARBARA

DEAR BARBARA: If your man doesn't want to wear the pants in your family — YOU wear 'em.

Tell him that heat story is silly. He could have worn the Bermuda shorts. And when a man is warm he removes his tie and shirt, NOT his pants.

Your husband could be a candidate for a psychiatrist's couch. But don't worry about his getting arrested for "indecent exposure" while going pantless in his own home.

"There's a law against window peeping."

DEAR ABBY: My niece is planning to be married soon. We have met her fiance, and he is tops.

Good family, college graduate (so is she) and he has a grand personality. Shouldn't he be told that this girl deliberately took an overdose of aspirin tablets the summer before she entered college?

Also that during her freshman year she was picked up (along with some other girls) for shoplifting? Her parents took her to a psychiatrist and he couldn't find anything wrong with her.

She never misses church and has appeared to lead a good life since then, but what if this leaks out after he marries her?

INTERESTED AUNT

DEAR AUNT: Then it will be HER problem. Since the psychiatrist could find nothing wrong with her and the girl has led a good life since, it is safe to assume that she has overcome her handicap.

If the girl, herself, wishes to reveal the foolish mistakes of her past, it's up to her. But others should keep out of it.

Troubled? Write to ABBY, in care of The Pontiac Press. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Serve Luncheon

The Esther group of the Women's Society of Bethany Baptist Church served luncheon at a recent meeting in the church.

Mrs. Edward Haapa of Ferndale was introduced by Mrs. D. R. Veazsey. She spoke on "The New Things God Is Doing."

Club Hears Talk on Home Poisons

The roll call question for the Child Culture Club, Thursday, in the home of Mrs. Andrew Kasurow on Ostrum Street was "Have you had any misfortunes with poisons?"

Mrs. Diane Place of the Detroit district, Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Food and Drug Administration, spoke on "Poison Control in the Home."

Mrs. Neil Nelson was cohostess for the evening.

Slate Installation

Blue Star Mothers members will install officers when they gather Tuesday at the YMCA, Mt. Clemens Street. The meeting begins at 1 p.m.

ORIEN DALLEY

Will Conduct Youth Event

Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Orien Dalley of the University of Michigan will guest conduct 125 junior high school students in Pontiac Northern High School.

The students will be joined by ten members of the PNHS band to produce complete orchestral sound and tonal quality.

Seventeen year old Fred Betzner of Royal Oak will be the guest artist on the cello. A harp solo will be given by Marsha Goldman, Washington Junior High School.

Instrumental teachers who are preparing students for the concert include George Eckroth, Leonard Holliday, Stephen McKenzie, J. Michael Pescor, Robert Peterson and Alonzo Seaboldt.

There is no admission charge.

She carried cascading white Shasta pompons and red roses.

Attending their sister were honor maid, Kathleen Lauinger,

MRS. R. J. MILLER

Women's

Absolutely, Accompany Her Home

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: I would like to date a girl who lives quite far from where I do. It would take me anywhere from an hour to an hour and a half to get home from her house were I to take her home.

Since public transportation is easily accessible, I was wondering if it would be permissible to escort her to her bus after a date, wait with her until it arrived and then leave her to make her own way home.

A: I'm sorry, but you must see her safely home. To take her to the bus and leave her to go home alone at night would not do at all.

My advice is to find a girl who lives nearer to you.

BUSINESS PARTY

Q: Our company is giving a large cocktail party and reception next month. It is to be a strictly business function.

Over 200 engraved invitations will be sent out. The question has come up as to whether or not it would be proper to address the invitations on the typewriter.

Some are of the opinion that since it is a business function and not a social one, it will be permissible to type the addresses.

I do not agree. May we have your opinion on this?

A: Correctly, all engraved invitations must be addressed by hand and not on the typewriter.

TITLE

Q: Will you please tell me when, if ever, is it permissible for a married woman to use the title Mrs. before her name when writing her signature?

A: The only times when a woman actually uses "Mrs." in her signature are these: in a hotel register, on a business telegram or on an order letter to a tradesman.

And then it must be "Mrs. John Smith." To a servant in her own employ she signs "Mrs. Smith."

The Emily Post Institute offers readers booklets on a variety of subjects concerning etiquette.

If you would like the booklet entitled "The Bride's Trousseau," send 10 cents in coin and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Emily Post Institute, in care of The Pontiac Press.

She is a graduate of Pontiac Business Institute and daughter of Kenneth A. Manns of Peck, Mich., and the late Mrs. Vinabell Manns. Her fiance attends Oakland Community College.

Pickets Protesting Barring of Legislator Fight Georgia Police

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Fervent supporters of a pacifist civil rights leader denied a seat in the Georgia Legislature battled police Friday, swinging picket signs, pocketbooks and umbrellas.

But the next move was uncertain in support of Rep.-elect Julian Bond, a 26-year-old Negro kept from taking his seat during the present legislative session because of his anti-Viet Nam stand.

About 1,000 marchers rallied at the state capitol Friday to demand that Bond, an officer of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, be sworn in.

The rally, led by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., erupted into violence when about 50 demonstrators suddenly rushed state patrolmen and pummeled them with signs, pockebooks and umbrellas.

RALLY UNCERTAIN

Afterward, James Forman, SNCC executive secretary, said a rally would be held at City Hall today, but another SNCC spokesman said Friday night plans for the rally were uncertain.

In a related development, U.S. District Judge Lewis R. Morgan ruled Friday Bond's case challenging the General Assembly's action would be heard by a three-judge panel.

The federal suit, however, apparently will not come before the middle of next week. Morgan said that state officials are legally allowed five days to file a reply before a hearing can be held.

Bond, an Atlanta Democrat, was refused his seat Monday because he endorsed a SNCC statement calling U.S. involvement in Viet Nam "aggression" and said he admired the courage of draft-card burners.

DRAFT ALTERNATIVE

The SNCC statement said civil rights work should be classed as a valid alternative to the draft.

The rally a the gold-domed Capitol Friday originated from two places — Dr. King's Ebenezer Baptist church and Atlanta University.

Dr. King was at the head of the three-mile march from the university, and Bond's father, Dr. Horace Mann Bond, dean of education at the university, led the march from the church.

King has not endorsed the nature of Bond's stand, but the head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference has defended Bond's right to disagree with the national administration.

Following King's remarks, and statements by others, most of the demonstrators left the area, using sidewalks and observing traffic signals.

MET BARRICADE

About 100 stayed, and followed Forman, singing and marching. It was minutes later when two small groups broke away and dashed to the steps of the capitol where they met a barricade of patrolmen.

About 50 charged into officers. They slapped patrolmen, swung umbrellas, purses and placards, hitting the officers who pushed and shoved.

After the fighting ended, the unarmed officers donned helmets and brought out nightsticks. Public Safety Director Lowell Conner said later his patrolmen would no longer police such demonstrations in dress uniforms without nightsticks.

ON CAPITAL LAWN — A large crowd assembled in front of the Capital Building in Atlanta, Ga., yesterday to protest the legislature's rejection of Rep.-elect Julian Bond. His seat was denied because Bond supported a statement opposing U.S. policy in Viet Nam.

Washington Scene

No Fast Cure for Congress Ills Likely

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the third and last in "The Image of Congress" series.)

By Esther Van Wagoner Tufty

WASHINGTON — Congress is as tired of its "image" as Madison Avenue has made most people sick of the word.

Contending the unfavorable public reflection of its accomplishments is false, the members recognize they are not telling their story adequately.

They even admit a better job could be done by Congress to meet the more complicated modern demands of the space age. It's no longer a part-time job.

To improve itself, a joint committee on organization of the Congress is hard at work to come up with recommendations for a more effective operation and somehow advertise it.

Such a search was made back in 1946 in a joint committee headed by the late Sen. Robert La Follette of Wisconsin and Congressman A. S. Mike Monroney, who moved to the Senate and is now cochairman with Ray Madison, D-Ind., on the present committee.

MICHIGAN MAN

Republican Congressman Robert Griffin of Traverse City is the only Michigan man on the committee. He is especially in favor of making the fiscal year coincide with the calendar year; installing voting by machines; giving tax credit or deductions for campaign contributions; and a summer recess.

Former GOP Congressman George Meader of Ann Arbor is the associate counsel and enjoying every minute of it. Seated at his desk in the Capitol, he has the same sweeping view of the mall he had when he was associate counsel for the old Senate Truman War Investigating Committee.

Probably despite the earnestness of the committee to better organize ("not reorganize," members stress) the Congress, it can safely be predicted that no sensational reforms will be forthcoming, certainly not out of the first meeting of the committee on Jan. 18th.

It is expected the life of the committee will be extended beyond the Jan. 31st deadline. Not all the $150,000 appropriation has been spent.

MAJOR IDEAS

Some recommendations seen as major and therefore more apt to get the nod of approval are:

- Recognize the year-long character of today's Congress and divide the session with a summer vacation. (The wives of some congressmen did some effective campaigning and the husbands got 237 signatures on a petition for a recess. That put a majority in favor on record.)
- Have fiscal year coincide with calendar year. Granted the transition would be awkward but long range benefits seen.
- Use more "gadgets": push button voting for roll calls; computers for reducing work load of members and staff.

- Give better service to congressional visitors: TV coverage of hearings only allowed now in Senate at discretion of chairman; set up a center in the capitol where visitors can be briefed on what's on the day's calendar; improve looks and manners of capitol police.
- Reduce the number of committees and subcommittees; have more joint Senate-House committees.
- More staff.

Few are hopeful that the much criticized seniority concept will be changed very much, but if there is a new curb on the power of the chairman it will not be great.

Actually, a determined membership of a committee headed by a so-called "dictator" can bypass him, as was done when former Congressman Clare Hoffman of Michigan was stripped of his powers when he was chairman of the House government operations committee.

Rio Is Recovering From Flood

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — Stricken Rio slowly returned to normal today as clearing skies reduced the danger of new floods and landslides which have left a toll of nearly 400 dead.

The city's death count climbed to 198 Friday night and another 170 were reported to have died in the surrounding area. Many more deaths were believed unreported in isolated communities.

Rio's morgue closed Friday night for the first time since the rains started Monday, and the search for more bodies in the debris was suspended for the night.

More of the dead came from the favelas — the shantytown slums on Rio's hillsides. At least 40,000 were reported homeless there. Some had to be evacuated by force. About 10,000 homeless were reported in areas surrounding the city.

HOUSING PLANS

A spokesman for Guanabara State Gov. Francisco Negrao de Lima said the government was considering long-term housing construction plans for the slum dwellers. He said all plans depend on "federal or international aid."

So far, the federal government has set up a fund to provide low-cost loans of 5 million cruzeiros or $2,250 to families who lost their homes in the floods.

The United States is providing foodstuffs and Indonesia has donated $5,000.

There was still a water shortage after a rock damaged a water main on Wednesday. The water department said repairs would be completed by Sunday.

Transportation was nearly normal but many interstate highways remained blocked.

Pedestrian Must Pay in Driver Death

LONDON (AP)—A judge convicted a pedestrian Friday of causing the death of a motor-scooter driver and ordered him to pay $5.60 per week for the next 32 years to the victim's widow and daughter.

The judge ruled that Malcolm MacDonald, 29, a sales assistant, was negligent when he stepped off the sidewalk in front of a motor scooter driven by Jeremiah Barry, 42. MacDonald was not seriously hurt but Barry died shortly after the accident.

The court awarded Barry's family damages of $9,139, but because MacDonald earns only $2,240 per year the judge ordered him to pay it in weekly installments.

Life Sentence Given Killer of Policeman

ST. JOSEPH (UPI) — Noti Perez, 43, an ex-convict from Chicago, was sentenced yesterday to life in prison for killing a deputy sheriff who surprised Perez and a partner during a bank holdup.

Perez pleaded guilty to a murder charge in connection with the fatal shooting of Berrien County Deputy Elton Stover, 55, one of two deputies who were gunned down at a Farmers and Merchants branch bank here Dec. 3.

Circuit Court Judge Phillip Hadsell pronounced the sentence on Perez today and recommended that it never be commuted.

Roy Bowen, 41, also of Chicago, Perez's alleged partner, is awaiting trial, also on a murder charge for Stover's death. The second deputy, Gary Mitchell, 28, was wounded in the shooting but has recovered.

The two deputies were sprayed with submachine gunfire when they entered the bank, answering an alarm.

The two gunmen fled but were captured later the same day in a road block near Rolling Prairie, Ind. The bank loot and submachine gun and three revolvers were found in their car.

Jacoby on Bridge

By JACOBY & SON

Here is a really controversial hand from the International team trials. Every West player opened with one club. North invariably overcalled with one heart; South tried one spade. West rebid two clubs. North raised to two spades and whether or not East bid three diamonds, South would close the bidding at four spades.

JACOBY

West always started the defense with three rounds of clubs. East ruffed the third club, whereupon South would overruff and take stock of the situation.

He would have to lose the ace of spades in any event and would need to be able to discard two diamonds on dummy's hearts.

The simple play would be to take a heart finesse. This play would succeed if West had started with either three hearts or four hearts to the king.

The complicated play would be to try to ruff out the king of hearts by playing the ace of hearts. This play would succeed if either opponent had started with three hearts to the king.

Mathematically the plays are equal. In practice the simple play worked. The complicated play failed when it turned out that West had those four hearts headed by the king.

To show how even the play was, six pairs of the nine did reach four spades and three made the hand by the simple play while three went down with the complicated play.

The other three stopped at three spades and all made exactly three. There was a good reason for this. Any declarer who lost the heart finesse would go down at three. The play of the heart ace first would ensure the part-score contract.

A—Bid six diamonds. Your partner is obviously showing the ace of spades as a belated slam suggestion. Do not try to get to seven because if your partner held two aces and the king of clubs he would almost surely have made a stronger bid than two no-trump previously.

Through Youth for Christ Clubs

Teen-Agers Tell Message of Gospel

What is Youth for Christ — what is its purpose—how does it function, and why?

These are questions young people in senior and junior high schools are asking as they hear about the organization.

According to Norman Clothier, director for Youth for Christ in Oakland County, it is an international organization dedicated to mobilizing the Chrstian teen-ager to communicate the Gospel message to his generation.

"The message of the Gospel never changes, yet to reach the changing teen-age society, methods must often change. The church is God's ordained instrument for the propagation of the Gospel, said Clothier.

STARTS IN 1944

Youth for Christ began in Chicago in 1944.

The human dilemma and almost chaotic spiritual and moral disillusionment that followed World War II, led many young Christian leaders at home and in uniform to seek a method of proclaiming that only Jesus Christ could fill the vacuum in their life, the YFC director said.

The movement began with Saturday night rallies led by Billy Graham. Today there are over 300 rally organizations in the United States. They reach over 2,000 cities and towns across North America.

Some 3,200 Campus Life clubs meet in or near junior and senior high schools. More than 10,000 young people have attended camps for delinquent youth in the past year.

The ministry of Youth for Christ reaches into 49 foreign countries.

Sixteen teams of teen-agers, four to six with adult leaders, have spent four to six months in other countries holding assemblies in high schools, meeting in churches, and on streets.

"Leaders of these countries as well as missionaries welcome the teen teams and beg them to come again," said Clothier.

"Men working with Youth for Christ are active churchmen, committed to making the outreach of the church more effective," he added.

The YFC program in the Pontiac area, known as Oakland YFC, is guided by a local board. According to the constitution and by-laws, the board is made up of not more than one man from any one church, and not more than two from any denomination.

LOCAL BOARD

The present board consists of Darrell Hawley, George Luenberger, George Granger, Ed Haskins, LeRoy Koch, Glyn Stone, Arlo McCully, Ray Terry and Floyd Evans.

The local board hires a director to implement the program.

Clothier, the present director, has worked as a member and leader of Boy Scouts, 4-H Clubs and church youth groups. He has a master's degree from the University of Michigan and is doing graduate work in teen problems.

He has worked with the YFC overseas program and as school counselor and teacher in the Pontiac area.

The club department is directed by Terry Walker of Pontiac. A graduate of Youth for Christ directors' school, he has worked two years as leader in the Clinton Valley rally program.

Part-time nonpaid help includes Ken Hodges, a senior at Waterford Township High School who works with junior high clubs, and Bill Ballard, a teacher in the Waterford Township School System.

Also helping are Bill Eastham, an insurance salesman, and Dave Brien, a student at Detroit Bible College who assists with the music.

A Bible Quiz program is part of the work. Inter-church quiz contests are held each month over the Book of Romans. There are six teams among local churches. The best quizzers form a team to represent the rally at the state contests in June.

Talent contests which include vocal and instrumental music, both solo and group as well as song leading and speaking are other areas of the work.

Clothier said the contests help develop talent and leadership.

Winners of the state contests enter the national contests at Winona Lake, Ind., in July. Often youth are chosen at Winona to record Christian music and sometimes to play parts in Christian films.

Teen conventions with youth leaders and teen specialists are sponsored during the year as a challenge.

Many young people are led into the ministry and to the mission field through the YFC program, Clothier said.

A rapidly developing program across the country is Lifeline, a ministry to delinquent teens. The director counsels with problem teens, visits them in jail or youth homes and organizes camp experiences for them.

A follow-up program for those who respond is designed to get the youngsters established in a local church and make the church group responsible to help them find new friends and activities.

A Lifeline director for Pontiac is planned for September. A 30-minute color film explaining the program is available for showing to groups and churches.

Youth for Christ is financed by interested people who give to its support, and churches help by making the group a part of their missionary budget or take up an offering for the work.

Youth for Christ is planned to be an arm of the church to assist in reaching teens. There are no dues.

Teen problem counseling of any kind and on Christian vocations is available at the YFC office, 3920 Elizabeth Lake, Waterford Township.

During the past 10 years, Rev. Mr. Rivers has served God in a unique way. He takes teams of Christian young people to Mexico to witness for Christ.

Today more than 1,500 senior high school and college youth have had this practical missionary training in Mexico.

This We Believe . . .

Years ago, it was the custom to have friends and family pay last respects to the deceased in the family "parlor" . . . today the funeral home fulfills this tradition. Gracious surroundings and a homelike atmosphere do much to comfort those who come here to tribute to the departed.

How to Save on Taxes – 12

Sales Levy Chart Now Offered

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the 12th of a 14-part series, "Cut Your Own Taxes," by tax expert Ray De Crane, designed to help readers save money on their income tax returns.)

By RAY DE CRANE
NEA Special Writer

Internal Revenue Service scored a major breakthrough this year in simplifying one aspect of the 1040 Form.

The instruction manual mailed out with the tax forms to every person who filed a tax return last year prints the sales tax allowance chart for his state and a list of the gasoline taxes in the states.

The sales tax chart for your state is based upon adjusted gross income.

That is the figure you will enter on Line 9, Page 1 of Form 1040. Your total income and the number in your family will determine your allowance.

Again this year IRS will permit taxpayers to add to the allowance on their state chart the exact amount of deductible sales tax paid on the purchase of an automobile in 1965.

FULL DEDUCTION

What if you can prove you paid more sales taxes than the chart provides for you?

By all means take the full deduction you can support. But the burden of proof is on you if you elect not to use the chart allowance.

Perhaps the major tax deduction available to home owners is the tax on their real estate. Real estate taxes are deductible in the year paid.

If your monthly mortgage payment includes a portion of your real estate taxes in addition to principal and interest payments, the amount of your real estate tax deduction is not necessarily the total of the withheld tax amounts from January through December 1965.

TAX PAYMENT

This tax payment went into a reserve account at your bank to insure the funds would be available when the taxes become due.

Most banks and savings and loan associations send you a receipt when your taxes are paid or show a notation on your monthly slip.

These actual payments are the amount you will deduct for taxes on your Form 1040.

The personal property tax levied by many states on your investments is also fully deductible on your return if you are itemizing deductions.

These are among the taxes Auto licenses, driver's license, cigarette tax, liquor tax, federal income tax, Social Security, federal estate and gift taxes, dog tags, hunting license and marriage license.

Store Ignited by Gas Truck

BROWNWOOD, Tex. (AP) — A runaway gasoline tanker hit a liquor store Friday and erupted in flames which fatally burned the driver.

Intense heat thwarted efforts by a bystander to save the screaming trucker, tentatively identified as H. C. Jackson, 40, of Abilene, Tex.

Brakes on the gasoline transport apparently failed and it struck a parked car before crashing into the store, operated by Bill Davis and his wife. The Davises and their two children fled moments before fire engulfed the building.

Flames leaped 150 feet high after one of several explosions and blazing gasoline flowed nto the street. Firemen used foam to keep adjacent stores from burning.

TRIED REVERSE

Paul Martin, whose drive-in restaurant is across the street, told of trying desperately to rescue the truck driver. Finding both doors of the cab jammed, Martin grabbed the man's arm and tugged in vain before being driven back by the heat.

Davis started operating his store Thursday. He placed his loss at more than $75,000.

There are about 500 species of frogs in the world, mostly African or Oriental, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

'Homestead' 100 Years Later

By JODY HEADLEE
Home Editor, The Pontiac Press

Dr. and Mrs. L. G. Rowley treated their century-old "Homestead" to a birthday party last May, complete with cake and callers.

Located on Williams Lake Road in Waterford Township, the spacious white frame home was originally built by the Thomas Wigg Whitfields following their marriage in 1865.

The Rowleys purchased the home from Whitfield descendents and moved in Nov. 1, 1934.

Furnishings continue the Early American theme throughout the home.

A copper teakettle, made from the weathervane that signaled wind direction atop Boston's famous Faneuil Hall from 1806 to 1898, is a conversation piece in the formal living room.

The vane was created by Paul Revere.

Wing-back chairs in the room are upholstered in a linen print of rose, mulberry and forest green on eggshell.

Flanking a round table in the corner, covered to match the room's eggshell muslin draperies trimmed in forest green ball fringe, are a walnut settee and armchair.

In the adjoining library on either side of a pie-crust edged mahogany corner table are an upholstered rocker and a tapestry sofa.

The pink, mauve, green and black on eggshell print of the tapestry complements the area's rose-beige wallpaper.

Mrs. Rowley fashioned the needlepoint on the footstool serving the cut-velvet striped chair.

Lighting the area are china and crystal table lamps. Green ball fringe adds color interest to the white silk shades.

Mrs. Rowley has turned one end of the second-floor hall into a miniature music room.

"Be sure and take note of the organ stool," said Mrs. Rowley with a smile.

"That was my one and only venture into the refinishing business."

Family pictures of the Rowleys, including their daughter, Myra, now Mrs. T. F. Gallant of Grandville, Ohio, her husband and their five children, create an interesting gallery effect on the hall's sidewalls.

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The white plank fences characteristic of Kentucky's horse country are not erected for beauty alone.

Marlite paneling has introduced a unique chantilly lace pattern that is as pretty as it is feminine.

The chantilly pattern is available in rose, gold, green and beige.

Like all plastic-finished paneling, the chantilly panels can be damp wiped clean.

In fact, that's all that's ever necessary to keep the looking new for years.

The material will blend with any decor chosen.

Paneling is available at most local lumber dealers and can be installed by any home handyman by simply following the instructions included in every package of the material.

DISTINCTIVE SPLIT LEVEL: Everything about this split level, including the attractive exterior, with its fixed windows above the regular windows, is a bit different, making it a house for a family with a liking for bold design.

Splitlevel Designed for Large Families

The beautiful splitlevel featured this week is not a home for the timid.

It is meant for those families who love contemporary and are not afraid to show it. It is, in short, boldly modern.

Design G-19 has all the inherent glamor associated with splitlevels, including the advantage of elevated bedrooms.

It has none of its disadvantages, for architect Samuel Paul has incorporated into it all the conveniences associated with fine ranch houses.

Prime example of this is the location of all the service facilities on the same level and within a few steps of the kitchen.

In this location are the service entrance, laundry room, a lavatory, storage closets and the garage.

There is also an extra room which can be used as a study or den.

From the spaciousness of the interior, it isn't hard to tell that this House of the Week is for a large family.

There are four bedrooms on the upper floor, with their two full baths and abundant closet space.

There is also provided an optional plan for the ground floor which can add a fifth bedroom and third full bath to the home if needed or desired.

And note roomy circulation foyer in the bedroom wing, the large linen closet and the dramatic, sloping, cathedral ceilings throughout the house, including the master bedroom and one other bedroom.

The living room and the dining room share a sweeping cathedral ceiling which reaches up to a height of more than 16'.

The kitchen and dinette likewise share such a ceiling (although lower): even the entrance foyer and that extra room near the service entrance have sloping ceilings.

One of the advantages of these high ceilings is the continuous band of large fixed glass windows above the regular-eight windows and extending up to the underside of the roof.

Aside from the exterior attractions of these windows, they serve to bathe the interior with an abundance of daylight.

Very wide overhangs have been incorporated into the design to eliminate the heat and glare of direct sunlight.

The formal entertainment area of the house, the combination living and dining room, encompasses an area of almost 36' across the rear.

It is surmounted by that continuous cathedral ceiling, features a lovely stone fireplace, a parquet wood floor, and sliding glass doors which lead to the rear patio.

For informal entertaining (and children's entertainment), there is a large recreation room on the ground floor, with its own sliding glass doors to the rear.

Even if the option were elected to add the fifth bedroom and extra bath, there still would be enough room for a recreation area.

The kitchen, aside from its convenient location, is attractive and efficient.

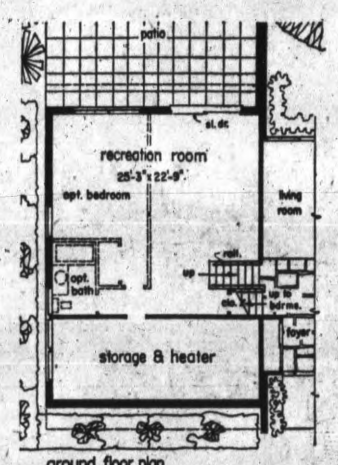
There is also an informal dinette alongside. Both have large expanses of windows.

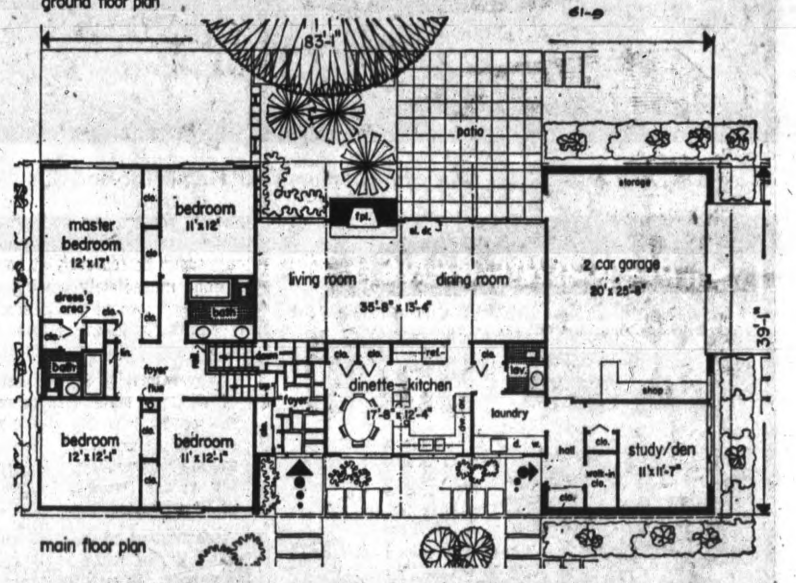
Storage has not been neglected either. There is a large storage and heater room located on the ground floor adjacent to the recreation room.

In addition, the two-car garage provides plenty of space at both sides for storage, tools, workshop, garden equipment, etc.

For the family willing to try something different, without sacrificing warmth and convenience, this house could be the answer.



ground floor plan



main floor plan

FLOOR PLANS: A large family can find a lot of living in this spacious home. There are nearly 36' of open space in the combined living and dining rooms; nearly 18' in the combined dinette-kitchen; and an immense recreation room on the ground floor.

G-19 STATISTICS

Design G-19 has a combined living room-dining room, a combined kitchen-dinette, four bedrooms, a laundry, lavatory, study and two-car garage on the main floor, with a habitable area of 1981 square feet. Counting the recreation room on the ground floor, the total living area moves up to 2872 square feet. The overall dimensions are 83'1" by 36-9". The full plans include a provision for a fifth bedroom and an extra bath on the ground floor if desired.

Indian Burial Site Found in Michigan

ST. JOHNS (AP) — Michigan State University archaeologists say a newly discovered Indian burial site near St. Johns may fill in some gaps in knowledge about Michigan Indian history.

Clyde Anderson of St. Johns, an amateur archaeologist, discovered the site.

The burial grounds are believed to date to around the early 19th Century.

Mattresses Designed for Even Support

Mattress makers try to design mattresses that will conform to the human shape, and provide even support for the entire body.

Latex foam rubber mattresses are the most satisfactory solution to the problem yet discovered.

The foam rubber yields under pressure, but will support the heaviest person easily. Having no springs it molds to the body's contours, supporting the sleeper on millions of air bubbles.

Carpet Coddling Not Needed if Fiber Man-Made

There's no need to coddle your carpet, especially if it's made with man-made fibers.

Martini spills by partying guests, popcorn and soft drinks spilled by playful youngsters can easily be removed at home if done immediately when your floors are covered with carpets of continuous filament nylon fibers.

Approximately 90 per cent of all liquid stains can be removed by following the correct procedure and cleaning the stain immediately, according to the National Institute of Rug Cleaning, Inc. (NIRC)

Information on how to cope with common in-the-home spills on carpets is available in a new 12-minute color film, "What's Now?"

Women's clubs and other groups can obtain the film on loan by writing to: NIRC, 1815 North Fort Myers Drive, Arlington, Virginia.

Time Affects House Color

When decorating your house, remember that colors have a built-in time mechanism.

They often look better at one time of day than at another.

For example, the color of a living room wall will look different in the evening, when it is exposed to artificial light, than during the day.

Color may also look different in the morning than in the afternoon. The same is true for exterior colors.

Morning light is easy on most colors, including high-intensity hues. Thus, red looks cheerful in the morning.

AFTERNOON LIGHT

But in the afternoon, when the light is lower, cooler shades are more refreshing.

For example, a house roofed with pastel green or blue asphalt shingles will be particularly pleasing to the eye at that time of day.

The location of the house in relation to the sun is also important.

Colors look different when they face north than when they face south. They also change in appearance with the seasons, as the angle and intensity of the sun's rays change.

"Dog Stopper" Discourages Dog Fights

Its makers describe it as a cross between shaving cream and whipped cream and they say it's an ideal way to discourage dog fights.

Called "Dog Stopper," it's a push button aerosol spray that releases a blast of inert white foam.

When aimed at a dog's face, it tends to do a bang up job of taking the dog's attention away from what ever excited it.

'Mona McCluskey' Is Doomed

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — This is the sorrowful season when cancellation notices begin to fall on television series.

THOMAS

Among the doomed is "Mona McCluskey." Its star, Juliet Prowse, returned from a 26,000-mile trip home for Christmas — to South Africa — to learn that NBC will pull the plug on the series after 26 segments.

Did she fret or toss a tantrum? Not in the least.

"Things generally happen for the best," she philosophizes. "I never worry about what happens in my career, because I can always do something else."

This has been going on since she started dancing professionally in Johannesburg at 14. She progressed to nightclubs in Europe, where she was discovered by Fred Astaire's longtime choreographer, Hermes Pan. He brought her to America for "Can-Can," which was notable principally for Nikita S. Khruschchev's derogatory comments.

Juliet continued at 20th Century-Fox, where her movies were "mostly pretty bad." After that, she mined the gold to be found in nightclubs and summer theaters, then was tapped for "Mona McCluskey."

The plot had Juliet, a $5,000-a-week movie star, married to a $500-a-month Air Force Sgt. Denny Miller, and it didn't strike the fancy of the critics.

"It took five or six weeks for us to shake down the show," explained Juliet. "We added Robert Strauss and Elena Verdugo as second bananas, and that was a good move. We needed someone to play the comedy off of.

COMING ALONG

"The show was coming along, but we never had a chance in the ratings. We were up against 'Peyton Place' on ABC, but our biggest competition was the CBS Thursday night movies. They threw some great pictures at us, in color, and it's awfully hard to compete."

Juliet will be finishing the 26-show season shortly and then it's back to the nightclub and theater circuit. Her next aim is a Broadway show.

"If 'Mona' has done nothing else, it has proven to some people that I can do comedy," she said. "So naturally I am grateful for that."

Elias Boudinot of Elizabeth, N. J., member of the Continental Congress, was the first president of the American Bible Society 1816-21.

Detroit Vote Voided by Teamsters Council

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Teamsters Joint Council Friday ordered a new election Jan. 30 to pick a president of Newspaper Drivers Local 372. The council voided the Dec. 12 election results because of complaints about methods used in campaigning. Edgar Schribner defeated Clare O'Conner in the voided election.

By DON VOGEL

FLINT — Pontiac Central brushed aside Flint Northern, 72-52, here last night and turned its basketball sights on Tuesday's big encounter with Saginaw.

The Chiefs and Trojans, both with 5-0 Saginaw Valley Conference and 7-0 over-all marks, clash at Saginaw.

Saginaw stayed even with PCH by rolling past winless Handy, 85-56, at Bay City last night. In other league games, Flint Southwestern upset Midland, 75-69, and Arthur Hill tripped Flint Central, 78-68.

Any fears that Coach Fred Zittel may have had about the Chiefs being overconfident against Flint Northern were evaporated in the first half.

The Chiefs took about three minutes to become acclimated to a rather warm Wildanger field house and then proceeded to take the Vikings apart at the seams for a 37-14 lead at the intermission.

"It was our best first half of the season," said Zittel who was probably hoping that the Chiefs play as well for the entire game against Saginaw.

ENOUGH FIREPOWER

Even with Jessie Evans and Jim McClenden having off-nights, the state's No. 1 rated Class A team had more than enough firepower to spoil any upset thoughts by Northern.

When McClenden drew three first-period fouls, Zittel sent Prentice Hill into action and the sharpshooting guard finished as the game's high scorer with 17 points. He canned four of six shots in the first half.

Evans was effective on defense and in the rebound department with 16, but the 6-3 senior had trouble finding the handle on the ball when on offense and his shooting was off.

He sat out almost six minutes of the first half as Ross Ludwick moved into action. Ludwick stuffed 14 points through the hoop and grabbed a career high 19 rebounds while playing until the final minutes.

The Chiefs outrebounded the taller Vikings, 59-42.

Pontiac's strong defense played havoc with the Vikings, forcing them to shoot from outside and press hard for shots. Northern hit only six of 31 shots in the first half.

They came out firing in the second half and connected on seven of their first 10 field goal attempts to cut PCH's lead to 49-33. Richard Pritchard hit three fielders and Steve Rivette two in the belated comeback.

But the Chiefs, who may have been a bit complacent because of their big halftime lead, settled down and quickly reopened a 20-point lead.

All 10 Chiefs broke into the scoring column. Although off in his shooting, Evans collected 14 points. Earl Turner scored 12 and Ed Oneal 11 for the Vikings.

The Chiefs hit on 27 of 67 field goal attempts for a 40.3 percentage. The Vikings, helped by their third-period spurt, finished with a 30.2 percentage on 22 of 70.

DON'T CROWD ME! — Pontiac Northern's Dana Coin (with ball) looks as though he may be complaining about the lack of room to maneuver in second quarter action against Waterford last night. Guarding Coin is Dave Farris (41). At left is Rick Ziem (45). No. 20 is PNH's Don Hayward and No. 33 is Waterford's Bob Adsit. Northern won, 61-48.

Groves Keeps Streak Intact

Highly - touted Birmingham Groves moved a step closer to the Northwest Suburban League basketball championship last night with a 70-63 triumph over Livonia Franklin.

The victory gave Groves, the state's No. 8 ranked Class A squad, a 4-0 league record, and the loss sent Franklin (3-1) tumbling into a tie for second with Detroit Thurston, a 94-85 winner over North Farmington last night.

In the other game on the schedule, Oak Park (1-3) dumped Wayne John Glenn (0-4), 86-75.

The victory also upped Groves' over-all season record to 8-0, while Franklin skidded to 4-3.

Groves' leading scorer, Mike Rafferty, suffering from a sore throat and cough, played only half the game but contributed 21 points.

TOP SCORER

Taking up some of the slack in Rafferty's absence was Rick Whiteman, who poured in 24 points and hauled down 23 rebounds.

Paul Katosh tossed in 18 points to pace Franklin.

Thurston rolled to a 54-35 lead at halftime and held on to trim North Farmington.

Bob Wardrop collected 24 points and teammate Randy Sanelson added 23 to spark Thurston. Rich Schultz picked up 24 for the losers.

Jeff Atkins sparked Oak Park with 27 points, with some help from teammates Walt William (22) and Ed Holloman (21.)

Huskies Lead I-L Following 61-58 Victory

2 'Old Pros' Provide PNH Spark; Ziem Hits 25 Points

By FLETCHER SPEARS

A couple of 'old pros' stole some of the glamour from the youngsters last night as Pontiac Northern edged Waterford's Skippers in a thriller, 61-58.

The 'old pros' in PNH coach Dick Hall's lineup were seniors Larry Frye, a 6-5 center, and 5-10 guard Bob Harris.

Along with those two old guys in the starting lineup were sophomores Don Hayward (6-2), Dana Coin (6-1) and Mike Clancy (5-8).

The sophs, representing the heart of Hall's youth movement, had a good night, but it was the play of Frye and Harris that turned the tide for the Huskies in the second half.

Frye scored only six points, but he pulled down 15 rebounds to help the Huskies gain a 43-34 edge in that department.

SHOOTING SPREE

And Harris, who did little in the first half, put on a dazzling display of shooting in the second half, and the little playmaker sparked on defense, holding the Skipper's hot-shooting forward Rick Ziem to nine points in the second half.

The victory pushed the Huskies (2-0) into the lead in the Inter-Lakes League while it raised their over-all record to 3-4.

Waterford (1-1), tied for the league lead going into the game, fell back into a tie with Farmington, and 86-62 winner over Walled Lake (0-2).

PNH jumped in front 16-15 after one quarter, and Waterford came back to take a 34-32 lead at halftime. The skippers held onto the lead at the three-quarter mark, 49-48, but PNH applied the pressure in the fourth and outscored the Skippers, 13-9.

SEVEN BEHIND

Waterford trailed by seven points, 58-51, with 2:40 left in the game, but rallied to trail by 59-57 and 59-58, and the Skippers had the ball with a chance to go ahead with 1:19 left but a pass sailed out of bounds and PNH took over.

The Huskies put the game on ice with two seconds remaining when Jim Hester stepped to the free throw line and canned a pair to make it 61-58.

Harris, who scored only two points in the first half, poured in 15 in the second half and wound up sharing scoring honors for PNH with Don Hayward (17).

Harris hit on six of eight shots in the second-half spurt, and he held a tight rein on Ziem, permitting him only two baskets in the final two frames.

Ziem collected 16 points in the first half and nine in the second to wind up with 25. Teammate Bob Adsit added 12.

Northern shot at a 27 per cent pace (22 of 59) while Waterford fired away at a 43 per cent clip (21 of 49).

Kettering 5 Keeps Lead

Brandon Still Step Behind Loop Leaders

Ortonville Brandon stayed a step behind the leaders in the Genesee Suburban C League last night by downing Flint Hamady, 71-64, at Ortonville.

The win was the fourth against two losses in league play for the Black Hawks who knocked Hamady out of a tie for first. Hartland and Lake Fenton lead with 5-1 records.

Brandon led 38-23 at halftime, but almost let the game get away in the last two periods. Hamady rallied to take a 57-56 lead midway in the fourth quarter.

But Barrie Hawley tossed in seven points and Merv McDowell five to pull the Hawks ahead to stay. Wayne Brosseau scored 19 points, all in the first half, to pace Brandon. He was double teamed in the last half.

STRUGGLING HUSKIE — Center Larry Frye comes down with a rebound in the first quarter against Waterford in a game on the PNH floor last night. Frye scored only six points but he helped control the backboards for PNH's Huskies.

Lapeer Stays in Contention With Victory

Lapeer stayed in contention in the Tri-County basketball race with Kettering while Romeo and Oxford were shoved deeper in the cellar last night.

The Captains with a 3-0 league mark whipped Romeo, 77-58, while Lapeer standing 2-1 was trouncing Oxford, 86-56.

L'Anse Creuse, the other member with a 1-1 mark was idle.

Kettering led 40-21 at halftime as 10 players got into the scoring column led by Dick Miceli and Bob Von Bargan with 14.

Romeo had 11 players which scored but the Bulldogs were 12 field goals shy of Kettering's total of 30. Dale Craft led with 11 for the losers.

Lapeer also had 11 players in the scoring ledger paced by Pat McKenna's 24 and followed by Dennis Sweet and Al Whitney with 17 each.

Roger Miller was Oxford top pointmaker with 20 points.

Lapeer led at halftime 36-11 and after three periods 65-30 as Oxford conceded their shooting eye and the boards to the winners.

Tie Continues in SEM Action

A few records fell by the wayside last night as Hazel Park knocked off Southfield, 84-76, to move into a tie with Ferndale for first place in the Southeastern Michigan Association.

While the Parkers were (3-1) disposing of Southfield (2-2), Ferndale (3-1) turned back Royal Oak Kimball (2-2), 73-68, and Berkley (2-2) shoved Birmingham Seaholm (0-4) a little deeper into the cellar, 71-65.

Hazel Park, running its over-all record to 5-1, cracked a pair of school scoring records, and the Parkers' John Canine poured in 42 points to erase a mark of 38 he set last fall.

The 84 points topped the mark of 77 set by East Detroit back in 1962, and the two-team total of 160 bettered the total set by East Detroit (77-42-120) and the Parkers in '62.

In his record performance, Canine connected on 17 of 37 from the floor and added eight from the charity line. Helping Canine with the scoring were Lloyd Welch (13) and Harold Reiser (12).

LEADS LOSERS

Ted Simmons paced the Southfield attack with 26 points and teammate Bill Baughman added 18.

Seaholm (2-6) trailed by only a point at halftime, 28-27, but ran into a cold streak in the third and Berkley pulled into a 51-43 lead.

Steve Cowell led a balanced Berkley scoring attack with 20 points, followed by Bob McNabb (13), Mark Tannenhaus (13), Al Hagland (11) and Jim King (10).

Leading Seaholm were Rich Slater (17), Bruce Landino (15), Phil Lyman (11) and Ron Roger (10).

Dwight Dunlap tossed in 32 points in leading Ferndale (5-1) to its fifth victory. Charles Puckett added 14 points and pulled down 17 rebounds for the winners.

Roger Peltz collected 21 points to pace Kimball.

More Troubles Ahead for Walled Lake Quintet

Walled Lake's Vikings, with eight losses behind them, find themselves in a position where it's hard to look ahead.

The squad suffered its eighth setback — second in Inter-Lakes League action — last night at the hands of Farmington's Falcons, 86-62.

And the hardest part of the Vikings' schedule is yet to come. It includes a rematch with Farmington, a pair of tilts with Waterford, one with Pontiac Northern and a scrap with the No. 3 Class A team in the state — East Detroit.

Farmington had last night's game pretty well in hand by halftime with a lead of 44-34, and the Falcons kept the pressure on in the second half.

Guard Mike Wilson was the sparkplug for the Falcons. He tossed in 12 field goals and added five free throws for 29 points. Teammate Greg Dorrow tossed in 21.

PACE VIKINGS

The Vikings wound up with three players in double figures. John Huebler, who entered the game with an average of 19.7 a game, collected 17 points, followed by Mike Harland (14) and Larry Grinnell (12).

The Vikings entertain Waterford next Friday, and Farmington will play host to Pontiac Northern.

Shrine Quint Winner of 3rd Straight Tilt

Royal Oak Shrine coach Marty Foley before the season began hoped for his best season with the Knights.

In the past eight days, they have begun to make the six-year mentor look like a wise prophet as the Knights' 75-67 win Friday over Bishop Gallagher was their third straight.

Shrine handed pace-setting Servite its first loss last week and made Bishop Gallagher — which whipped the Knights by 18 points in the season opener — its fourth victim in the last five starts.

South Lyon Record 4-2 After Route of Saline

South Lyon ran its record to 4-2 last night with an easy 71-54 victory over Saline.

Pacing the victory were Eric Liddell, with 22 points, and Mark Doepker, with 21, their best individual point performances as varsity players.

The winners fell behind after one quarter, 19-11, but poured in 21 points in the second frame to take a 32-27 lead at halftime.

Finals Slated Today

ORMOND BEACH, Fla. (AP) —Defending champion Phyllis Preuss won her semifinal match Friday and will meet Canadian junior champion Sandra Post today for the South Atlantic women's amateur golf title.

CAGE-A GO GO — This scramble of legs belongs to Pontiac Northern and Waterford basketball players, and there looks like a little toe stepping going on up front. Northern had the fanciest steps last night as the Huskies won over the Skippers, 61-58.

Brother Rice Tripped 70-59

Brother Rice's basketball woes continued last night as University of Detroit High ran up a 70-59 victory.

The winners outscored Brother Rice in the first three quarters by a 55-39 margin and coasted to the win behind the shooting of Bill Thigpen and Mark Bonzack, 17 points each, and Andy Szombati, 12.

The losing Warriors were paced by Doug Keating's 18 and Tom McAvoy's 13. But the other three starters only totaled 13 among them. It was the fifth straight loss for Brother Rice after winning two of its first three tilts.

W. Bloomfield Ties for First

Dugan Fife Hits 37 in Clarkston Win

By JERE CRAIG

Bloomfield Hills played a strong full game while West Bloomfield and Clarkston need only a good half apiece to tighten the Wayne-Oakland League cage race Friday night.

Hill's well-balanced attack upset Northville, 64-46, Holly dropped a 67-59 verdict to Clarkston's one-man gang Dugan Fife; and West Bloomfield toyed with Clarenceville, 54-48.

Brighton — off to its best start in years — may have made its last big stand with a 79-75 conquest of Milford.

Leading scorer Damon Eubank played his final game for the Bulldogs and scored 24 points. The 6-3 transfer student is returning to Indiana.

HILLS' FOES

The Barons stayed alive with their win but the immediate trail ahead leads to Brighton Tuesday and back home Friday for arch - rival West Bloomfield's invasion. Both crucial games could require efforts similar to last night.

The Barons outscored Northville in each quarter and had four players in double figures. Dave Robillard, Bret Griffin and Bruce Hall each scored 14 points.

The visiting Mustangs, 7-3 over-all, cut their 10-point halftime deficit to six only to see Hills pull away in the last period.

West Bloomfield's Lakers — facing trips to Hills and Northville next week—led by 11 at intermission and only let winless Clarenceville within six at the final horn. Ted LaPratt reached his career high with 17 points for the winners.

Milford fell behind by seven in the first period and couldn't catch Brighton. The Redskins' attack was hampered by the loss of leading scorer Don Hill who had knee surgery. Milford now has lost six straight after an opening victory.

At Clarkston, the home team trailed, 25-23, following an opening half that saw the score tied three times and the lead change hands five times.

Neither team shot well in the rough first half (23 of the 42 personal fouls were called then) with Holly having both a rebounding and shot advantage (31-27).

But Clarkston turned Fife loose in the final half. The junior sharp-shooter connected on 10 of 19 from the floor and 26 of his 37 points—one shy of the school record—in the final 16 minutes of play.

His two free throws with 38 seconds left in the final third session knotted the score for the final time. He came back 16 seconds later with a three-point play for a 42-39 Clarkston lead. It was never closer than five after that.

FLYING HIGH — Dave Robillard (44) of Bloomfield Hills goes into an unbalanced twist as he sails upward for a bucket against Northville. The Barons handed Northville its first Wayne-Oakland League loss last night, 64-46.

Dryden Waits Capac 5 Game

In a couple of weeks, Dryden will get its biggest test of the season, a test that could bring the Cardnials a piece of the Southern Thumb basketball title.

The test will be a meeting with Capac's Chiefs, and from the looks of things at the moment, Dryden will have to knock off the Chiefs to keep their championship hopes alive.

It's a big chore, but one the Cardinals are looking forward to, since it will also give them an opportunity to avenge an earlier 63-57 loss to Capac.

Capac knocked off Anchor Bay last night, 62-59, to remain atop the Thumb League with a 6-0 record, while Dryden (5-1) moved into the No. 2 spot with a 68-51 decision over Memphis.

In other games, Almont handed Brown City a 65-58 setback, and New Haven trimmed Armada, 52-47.

THE OUTLOOK

Dryden will have to win all of its remaining league games to gain at least a share of the title, and the Cardinals will take it all only if they beat Capac and another team in the loop duplicates the feat.

Against Memphis, Ken Kitchenmaster tossed in 13 points and Ken White added 12 to spark the victory. Ross Moran collected 19 for Memphis.

Nine players broke into the scoring column for Almont. Dick McEwen led the way with 17, followed by Dick Jiminez (12) and Harry Hoffner (11).

Brown City, which is leaving the Thumb loop to join the South Central League next year, was led by Mark Bechtel with 16 points.

OLSM Squad Grabs Catholic Loop Lead

It should be a downhill ride the rest of the way for Orchard Lake St. Mary's Eaglets in their bid for the Northwest Catholic League basketball championship.

Last Saturday, the Eaglets owned a 5-1 league record and were sitting two games back of the coleaders, Royal Oak St. Mary and Highland Park St. Benedict.

They journeyed to Royal Oak and handed the Irish of St. Mary a 71-68 setback Tuesday, and last night they climbed into the lead with a 66-51 victory over St. Benedict.

The win raised OLSM's record in league play to 7-1 and avenged an earlier loss to St. Benedict, 69-58, the only game the Eaglets have lost.

Remaining on the schedule are four league games with teams the Eaglets have beaten easily earlier this season, so barring misfortune or overconfidence, OLSM will take the league title.

SPARKS WIN

John Stepien sparked last night's victory as he scored 24 points and hauled down 23 rebounds.

Conrad Krogulecki added 16 for OLSM and George Sawicki contributed 13.

Stepien scored 14 of OLSM's 15 points in the first period which ended with the Eaglets trailing, 16-15.

OLSM gained the lead early in the second, 19-18, and then tossed in 11 points in a row to open up a 32-22 lead at halftime.

Mikemen Take 8th in Closing Seconds

A pair of free throws with two seconds left in the game carried St. Michael to a wild 55-54 victory over Marine City Holy Cross last night.

The free throws — tossed in by guard Tom Patch — lifted the Mikemen to victory only seconds after it looked as though they had lost the contest.

The scoreboard clock wasn't working at Kennedy Junior High School, so the time was kept at the scorer's table.

With five seconds left in the game, Holy Cross' Fred Goodell, with his team trailing 53-52, stepped to the free throw line and popped in two shots to put MC ahead 54-53.

The Mikemen took the ball out of bounds. On the toss inbounds, Patch was fouled, but in the confusion — brought about most of all because the clock wasn't working — Holy Cross, thinking time had run out, began making noises like winners do.

CHECK TIME

The officials checked the time, found that two seconds were left and sent Patch to the foul line in a one-and-one situation.

Patch tossed both through the hoop to give the league-leading Mikemen their eighth win against one loss in Macomb Catholic play.

Ray Lavoie sparked the Mikemen with 20 points, followed by Bill French (13) and Patch (10).

Goodell finished with 17 for the losers.

St. Frederick's Rams whipped winless New Baltimore St. Mary, 41-22, while Waterford Our Lady will visit St. Rose tomorrow.

St. Fred scored the first point, then saw host St. Mary go into a stall. The home team did build a three-point first-half edge, but the Rams took charge after intermission. Tony Bellisario's four baskets sparked a third-quarter surge that decided the outcome.

Walled Lake Matmen Post Third Shutout

The 1965-66 wrestling team at Walled Lake following a trail of success that future Viking squads will find hard to equal.

The Vikings won their eighth match in a row last night, a 44-0 triumph over Detroit Catholic Central.

A shutout is almost unheard of in the world of prep wrestling, but for coach Rick Schneider and the Vikings, it was their second in a row and their third of the season. The squad also captured the Oakland County championship back in December.

In other matches last night, Hazel Park ran its record to 6-0 with a 31-13 victory over Southfield, and Berkley pinned a 31-11 setback on Birmingham Seaholm.

Walled Lake registered four pins in the conquest of Catholic Central. And heavyweight Ron James, who weighs in at 210, scored his seventh pin of the season.

West Virginia Hires Carlen

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (UPI) —A "new look" for West Virginia University football was inaugurated with the hiring of Jim Carlen, a stern and spirited defensive coach from Georgia Tech.

The eight-year understudy to Bobby Dodd says the days of the lumbering "strongman" football players are over at WVU.

And after being Gene Corum's successor for less than an hour Friday he had tuned in every football ear in the Southern Conference.

"I want more speed at West Virginia, not just the big lineman. Strength isn't everything. I'll take a man who is quick on his feet before the ordinary big boy," he said.

So it begain—a new chapter in what Mountaineers hope will be a highly successful football book.

Carlen takes over a team which started last season as the nation's offensive leader and ended as one of the biggest disappointments with a 6-4 record.

Pole Costs Pennel Vault Record

Wyomia Tyus Betters Mark

Sprints 60-Yard Dash in 6.7 Seconds

DETROIT (UPI)—John Pennel cleared what would have qualified as the world record in the pole vault with a jump of 16 feet, 9¼ inches at the Motor City International indoor track meet Friday night but the attempt was marked down as miss because his pole passed under the bar instead of falling back onto the approach.

Pennel's performance nearly overshadowed the performance of Wyomia Tyus, the sprinter from Tennessee A&I who clipped a tenth of a second from the unofficial women's 60-yard dash record shared by Wilma Rudolph and Diana Wilson.

Pennel had registered his U.S. vaulting title just last Saturday with a 16-foot, 7¼ inch jump in San Francisco in the first indoor track competition of the year.

Friday night was the first time he had cleared 16-9 and it also was the first time he had faced the misfortune of seeing his pole trail him through the jump.

His momentum apparently broken, he missed the last two tries. His winning height was 16 feet.

Miss Tyus, a gold medal winner in the 1964 Olympic 100-meter dash, was clocked in a record time of 6.7 seconds in a trial heat.

She edged Willye White, of Chicago, and her own Tennessee A&I teammate, Edith McGuire in the time of 6.9 seconds in the final.

Wilt Triggers 76ers to Win Over Celtics

By The Associated Press

Who says 13 is an unlucky number?

Certainly not Dolph Schayes, coach of the Philadelphia 76ers. His number 13 is Wilt Chamberlain, and, around the National Basketball Association, that means points and rebounds and a chance for Schayes' 76ers to catch front-running Boston in the NBA's Eastern Division.

Wilt was the key Friday night against the Celtics and his long-time rival, Bill Russell. The 7-foot-1 giant scored 37 points and grabbed 42 rebounds as the 76ers moved within three games of the Celts with a 112-100 victory.

In other NBA games Friday night, Kevin Loughery dropped a pair of foul shots with eight seconds remaining as Baltimore shaded St. Louis 121-119 and Los Angeles defeated San Francisco 118-110 behind guards Jerry West and Walt Hazzard.

POLE FOILS RECORD — Pole vaulter John Pennel clears the bar at a record 16 feet 9¼ inches at Cobo Arena last night, but the attempt was declared a miss when Pennel's pole followed him into the pit. He knocked the bar off on the next two tries. Pennel won the International Indoor meet even by successfully clearing 16 feet.

All-Star Teams in Good Shape

Karras, Orr Expected to Start for West

LOS ANGELES (AP) — In the Pro Bowl — the National Football League's annual East-West post season test — it's not uncommon to be carried from the field. The question Sunday is whether the West's All-Stars plan to come in that way.

"We're all right now," reported Green Bay Packer Coach Vince Lombardi for the West on the eve of the 16th annual Classic.

He said that two starting question marks — flanker Jimmy Orr of Baltimore and defensive tackle Alex Karras of Detroit Lions had both overcome recent injuries.

Orr pulled a muscle in his left thigh during a practice Tuesday. But by Friday he was running through assignments. Karras sprained an ankle this week.

The East squad, coached by Blanton Collier of Cleveland, has had no injuries — except for tackle Dick Schafrath whose leg has not recovered from a jolt he received playing for the Cleveland Browns in the championship game against Green Bay.

The St. Louis Cardinals' Ernie McMillan will start for Schafrath.

Does Oiler Coach Want Blanda Back?

HOUSTON (UPI) — A budding feud, fed by a "chewing the fat" conversation between Houston Oilers coach Hugh (Bones) Taylor and two newsmen, today threatened to shake the newly reshuffled Oilers to the roots.

Sports writer Wells Twombly of the Houston Chronicle started it all Friday when he wrote that Taylor was laying down a "him or me" ultimatum to club owner K. S. (Bud) Adams, demanding that quarterback George Blanda not play another down for the club.

Sportscaster Chris Chandler of KPRC-TV in Houston, hearing of the article, said he was in on the conversation, and that Taylor made no such statement.

He said Taylor even discussed his future plans for the 37-year-old Blanda. Chandler said Taylor had indicated the conversation was to be "off the record."

Ron Musson Wins Award

NEW YORK (AP) — Miss Bardahl and her driver, Ron Musson, were named winners of 1965 hydroplane awards by Unlimiteds, Inc., Friday.

Miss Bardahl, owned by Ole Bardahl of Seattle, was honored as National High Point Boat and Musson, from Akron, Ohio, as National High Point Driver.

J. Lee Schoenith of Detroit, chairman of the Unlimited Commission of the American Power Boat Association, was named outstanding official of 1965. Bernie Little of Tampa, Fla., was chosen Sportsman of the Year.

Olympic Bid at Stake Today

CHICAGO (AP) — Five American cities, including Detroit — a strong, but losing bidder for the 1968 Olympic Games assigned to Mexico City — will compete Saturday for a chance to become host of the 1972 Olympiad.

Three other cities, including Lake Placid, N.Y., also-ran for the 1968 event, will bid for a shot at the 1972 Winter Olympics before a full meeting of the United States Olympic Committee here this weekend.

OTHER CITIES

Besides Detroit, certification as this country's candidate for the 1972 Summer Games will be sought by Chicago, Los Angeles, Philadelphia and St. Louis.

The other Winter Games applicants are Anchorage, Alaska and Salt Lake City.

After 45-minute presentations by each city, the 45-member Olympic group will vote on which two can make official bids for the Summer and Winter Games before the International Olympic Committee

The IOC has set a Jan. 20 international deadline for filing 1972 Olympic bids and will make final selections in an April meeting in Rome, Italy.

Montreal and Munich, Germany, are known contenders for the Summer Games and a large application is expected for the Winter Games, to be held in 1968 at Grenoble, France.

K. L. (Tug) Wilson, former USOC president and now a board member, said the bidding for Summer Games will start Saturday at 10:15 a.m., EST.

It will be done in alphabetical order, Chicago, Detroit, Los Angeles, Philadelphia and St. Louis. A maximum of six delegates, with only three allowed to talk, is allowed each city.

Mayor J.P. Cavanagh, who led an unsuccessful Detroit bid for the 1968 games before the IOC in 1963, heads the Motor City contingent.

Another mayor, Samuel W. Yorty, will press the case of Los Angeles, last American host to the Summer Olympics in 1932.

WINTER BIDS

In the Winter Games campaigning, Salt Lake City's presentation will be headed by Utah's governor, Calvin L. Rampton.

Last Winter Olympics in this country were the 1960 games at Squaw Valley on which California reportedly spent more than $15 million.

Decision on which cities will be certified for applying to the IOC will be announced at a news conference about 6 p.m., EST.

66 Ties Pair at PGA Club

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Paul Kelly missed a hole in one by four inches Friday but still shot a six-under-par 66 and tied Pete Cooper for the lead in the opening round of the PGA National Golf Club Championship.

Kelly, club pro at Scarborough, N.Y., missed the ace on the par-three 16th hole. He came down the back nine with 32, four under.

Cooper, veteran Florida pro now working at Sorento, carded rounds of 33-33.

The tournament was scheduled to open Thursday but was rained out and will go 54 holes instead of 72.

Happy Is Unhappy With Grid League

NEW YORK (AP) — Happy Chandler considers himself big league all the way. So the Continental Football League is looking for a new commissioner today.

Chandler, the controversial Kentuckian who once was baseball commissioner, resigned the job Friday after CFL brass voted to look into the possibility of latching onto players optioned out by the National and American Football Leagues.

The former U.S. Senator and Kentucky governor contends this set-up would make the CFL "minor league."

"When I took this job the owners indicated they wanted to be a major league. They can't be major league this way," Chandler said.

FIVE YEARS

He was given a five-year contract as commissioner when the CFL was formed a year ago, calling for an average of $40,000 annually, but waived any further compensation.

Sol Rosen, former general manager of the Newark club of the CFL, was named acting commissioner. The league owners will select a permanent successor to Chandler at a meeting in New York Feb. 12-13.

Crash Victim Reported Fair

A 19-year-old Pontiac youth is reported in fair condition at Pontiac General Hospital today with a concussion suffered in a head-on collision yesterday afternoon.

W. Howard Mallory of 925 Joslyn was injured when the car in which he was riding collided with one driven by Arthur A. Parent, 17, of 719 Fairledge, Orion Township.

Oakland County Sheriff's deputies said the car driven by Mallory's companion, Floyd G. Teller, 20, of 2780 Buckner, Orion Township, skidded over 400 feet on Joslyn Road before meeting Parent's vehicle.

Teller and Parent were treated at Pontiac General for injuries and released. The accident took place on Joslyn near Scripps Road in Orion Township.

Actress Rita Sues Writer on Life Story

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Rita Hayworth filed a suit seeking $400,000 damages yesterday against Hollywood writer Joe Hyams, alleging he violated an agreement for publication of her life story.

Miss Hayworth said that under the agreement, arranged in 1964, she was to have the right to approve the article and that the published story would be "By Rita Hayworth as told to Joe Hyams."

She complained, however, that Hyams caused publication of the story a year ago in a London periodical, "The People."

Although Hyam's name did not appear with the article, Miss Hayworth's suit declared, the writer did not share $20,000 he recieved from the story with her.

She also contended the story was of inferior quality but was enough to destroy the value of her life story.

Professor Arrested in Narcotics Case

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The arrest of an Ohio State University English instructor and six other persons brought a police pledge to continue their fight to stamp out narcotics activity.

The seven rounded up in a raid on a university area apartment late Friday raised to 23 the number of persons arrested recently for narcotics violations. Seventeen of the arrests were here, five in the Akron area and one in Indianapolis, Ind.

At least nine of those arrested are students or former students, including Marihelyn Briggs, 23, who identified herself as an Ohio State graduate student and freshman English instructor.

Hemingway Widow Files Suit on Book

NEW YORK (UPI) — Mrs. Ernest Hemingway asked for an injunction in state supreme court yesterday against Random House, Inc., to prevent it from publishing a biography of her late husband.

The biography, entitled "Papa Hemingway," was written by A. E. Hotchner, a friend of Hemingway's who adopted many of his stories and novels for movies and television.

Mrs. Hemingway contends the biography contains material originated by her husband and thus is her property. Random House said it would go ahead with plans to publish the biography.

Firemen Join Police in Charge Against City

The Pontiac Firefighters Association (PFA) has joined the Pontiac Police Officers Association (PPOA) in announcing it will file an unfair labor practices complaint against the city, according to Jack Douglas, president of the PFA.

Both groups have charged that city officials will not negotiate with them. They have sought longevity pay and added pay hikes of $49 per year over the $351 adopted by the city.

GUARD DUTY — Vietnamese soldiers man antiaircraft and machine guns on a truck outside offices of Premier Nguyen Cao Ky in Saigon. Informants reported 30 truckloads of South Vietnamese troops and four armored troop carriers broke through a police checkpoint on the southern edge of Saigon today and refused to stop. U. S. sources said that, if the report is true, the maneuver may signify a power play by Vietnamese generals timed to the visit of Secretary of State Dean Rusk and roving ambassador W. Averell Harriman.

Birth-Control Pill Tests Cause Rats' Breast Tissue to Grow

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Scientists reported Friday that the primary ingredient of the contraceptive pill Enovid causes breast tissue to grow when injected into rats.

What the findings may mean to millions of women using the birth control pill "is a question that cannot be answered right now," said anatomy Prof. Burton L. Baker of the University of Michigan.

Baker and Associate Prof. Raymond H. Kahn revealed their findings at a symposium of the Michigan section of the Society for Experimental Biology and Medicine, a group of basic scientists and practicing physicians.

The hormone-producing ingredient, which produced the growth change in rat breasts, is norethynodrel, the main ingredient of Enovid.

PITUITARY GLAND

The scientists said they found the substance to affect the structure of the pituitary and adrenal glands, and step up production of a hormone which causes breast tissue to grow in rats.

Baker and Kahn said they have found "extensive evidence" of changes in the rat pituitary, adrenal glands, and breast tissue.

The pituitary, at the base of the brain, has among its many functions the regulation of growth, sexual activity, and the actions of other glands. The adrenals, atop each kidney, has many vital functions, including the control of certain chemical balances.

Norethynodrel prevents ovulation. Reportedly, this results from suppression of two hormones produced by the pituitary, the fillicle-stimulating hormone (FSH) and the lutenizing hormone (LH). FSH starts the chain of physiological events which prepares a female for conception, and LH continues this preparation.

3RD HORMONE

Baker and Kahn said they have found that a third harmone, prolactin, is not suppressed but stimulated by norethynodrel. In rats, prolactin stimulates the mammary glands, causing them to grow, they said.

Norethynodrel also produced "significant structural changes" in the rats'.....adrenal gland, they said, which affect the storage and use of sugar in the blood.

Precisely how norethynodrel produces these glandular changes is not yet clear, the scientists said.

"Despite the widespread use of this drug," Kahn said, "we don't know all of its mechanisms or effects following long-term usage."

Suspect Held Without Bond in Knife Death

A 25-year-old Pontiac man was ordered held without bond yesterday after demanding examination at his Municipal Court arraignment on a charge of second-degree murder.

Judge Cecil B. McCallum set examination of Eugene W. Douglas, 24 Bloomfield, for Wednesday.

Douglas is accused in the fatal stabbing of 20-year-old Jesse Anderson, 168 Crestwood, in a reported tavern argument last Wednesday night.

Anderson died early Thursday at Pontiac General Hospital after receiving multiple knife wounds about the face, neck, chest and shoulders.

Douglas was apprehended by Pontiac police Thursday evening.

A hospital spokesman reported Mrs. Lovell, the new baby and Navy Cmdr. Lovell were "all doing fine."

Holland Fire Loss Estimated at $150,000

HOLLAND (AP) — Damage from a fire at Home Furnace Co. Friday night has been estimated at $150,000. No injuries were reported.

Arthur Becker, a company official, said the cause of the fire was not immediately determined. He said the blaze was confined to the air-conditioner assembly area of the plant.

Reflections

WORDS

Many laughed when Jules Verne said: "I'll sail my ship twenty thousand leagues under the sea . . ." in the year 1866. The submarine was perfected in 1898, and we sailed the Nautilus under Polar Ice in 1958. Patrick Henry, 1775, said, "Give me liberty or give me death!" we gave him a place in history. Words may change the course of affairs of the world.

J. L. VOORHEES

M. E. SIPLE

Man and woman declare their sacred promise ". . . to love and cherish . . ." words that hold together the most beautiful institution on earth — a marriage. We greet a friend, "Good Morning!" those two words are crammed with a promise—a good-will message. Those two words may be the vitalizing force to take him out of the doldrums. Remember, what Jules Verne and Patrick Henry said changed our world. What you say may change your immediate world.

ELIAS BROS. NEEDS A WAITRESS

She has to be big, strong and healthy. Carrying trays loaded with Big Boy's super-sized portions is no job for a wilting magnolia. She has to be fast. Folks who come to Big Boys like their food in a hurry, then take their time enjoying it. Not the other way around.

She has to like kids. We get lots because we're a family restaurant. (Four healthy appetites can eat regularly at Big Boys for less than $5). And she has to have will power. It's pretty tough to resist snitching a crispy french fry or golden-brown fried shrimp occasionally but we'd rather she didn't nibble in front of our guest.

What can we offer?

A permanent job, hourly wages plus tips, paid vacation and hospitalization in clean wholesome surroundings, nice uniforms and a lot of wonderful people to work with. You see, girls like the one's we're looking for right now are the only kind we hire.

Attorneys Okayed in Draft Case

DETROIT (AP) — The federal government agreed Friday to allow two University of Michigan students appealing draft reclassifications from deferred to immediate availability the right of counsel at a hearing Monday.

U.S. District Atty. Lawrence Gubow made the agreement with American Civil Liberties Union attorneys before U.S. District Judge Wade H. McCree Jr. The ACLU had sued in federal court to prevent suburban Royal Oak Draft Board 323 from hearing a draft reclassification appeal without allowing the appellant to have an attorney or take a record of the proceedings.

Lawyers said McCree did not issue a formal order in the case but that, after a short conference, Gubow, representing the federal government, agreed to allow counsel to be present at the hearing.

"This means the appellants would be allowed advice of counsel in answering questions during the hearing," said an ACLU attorney.

The ACLU had sought an injunction against Board 323, arguing that it had denied Ronald Miller, 19, a University of Michigan sophomore from Huntington Woods, the right of counsel or a record of the proceedings.

Miller and Robert Sklar, 19, another U-M sophomore from Huntington Woods, are scheduled for an appeal hearing at Board 323 Monday. Attorneys said that although the government agreed only to counsel for Miller, they assumed Sklar could also be represented.

Attorneys Richard Goodman and David Kline represented Miller Friday in federal court.

Miller and Sklar were convicted of trespassing during an anti-Viet Nam war demonstration Oct. 15 at the Ann Arbor Draft Board. Their reclassifications followed.

RECLASSIFIED

A total of 13 U-M students involved in the sit-in have been reclassified by local draft boards. The latest to be reclassified was John Ranor, a graduate student from Winnetka, Ill. Three of the students have been denied by local boards and have appealed their cases to the State Court of Appeals in Lansing.

Detroit Police Short 164 Men

DETROIT (AP)—Police Commissioner Ray Girardin told Detroit's Common Council Friday his department was 164 men short of its authorized strength of 4,635.

Girardin blamed the shortage on a booming economy and on the Viet Nam war.

Urging more pay and other inducements for police officers, Girardin said manpower losses far exceeded gains for the first time since 1960.

"We should plan to reduce the number of these resignations by offering a combination of better promotional opportunities and some form of early incentive pay," he said in a letter to the council.

Pay for patrolmen starts currently at $6,424 a year and reaches $7,335 after three years.

World News

Britain to Increase Rhodesia Sanctions

LONDON (AP) — British officials say they'll announce crippling new measures next week to crush the Rhodesian rebellion within six months.

They reported Friday night on plans to announce the tougher economic sanctions after Britain won Commonwealth agreement to avoid military action for at least six months.

The new penalties will step up Britain's economic attack which already includes an oil embargo, a boycott on tobacco trade and the freezing of Rhodesian currency reserves abroad.

Prime Minister Harold Wilson was reported highly pleased with the Commonwealth summit conference in Lagos, Nigeria, where he resisted efforts by some African leaders to pressure Britain into invading Rhodesia.

Britain has banked on economic sanctions to force the collapse of the white minority regime, which broke away from the mother country Nov. 11 after refusing to guarantee eventual Negro majority rule.

RAWALPINDI Pakistan (AP) — Two persons were killed and about a dozen hurt in clashes Friday between students and police in the West Pakistan capital of Lahore, a government statement said.

The students were protesting the signing of the Tashkent Declaration between India and Pakistan. All schools and colleges throughout West Pakistan were closed today "until further orders."

The mob smashed street lights and damaged buses, the statement declared. It said several persons were arrested.

LONDON (AP) — Soviet and British scientists are cooperating on a joint experiment of bouncing radio signals to each other off the planet Venus, Moscow radio reported today.

It said signals were sent for six hours on Ja. 8 and 9.

"Reflected by the surface of the planet, the signal was received by Jodrell Bank Observatory. The signal took six minutes to travel the distance of 80 million kilometers—49.7 million miles," the broadcast said.

"The first experiment of U.S.S.R-Venus-England communication is a further step in the study of planets by methods of radiolocation. The simulataneous use of Soviet and British powerful transmitters broadens considerably the opportunity for a more detailed exploration of Venus. New information may be yielded on the nature of distribution of radio waves in distant outer space."

WARSAW Poland (AP) — Communist Poland has again lashed out against Stefan Cardinal Wyszynski and other Roman Catholic officials for disagreeing with government policy.

"Let the Church conduct its activities which belong to it," Communist party Chief Wladyslaw Gomulka said Friday night, "but we demand that it maintain a loyal policy toward the state if it wants to deal in politics."

Gomulka delivered an angry, hour-long attack on the conciliaory letter sent last month to the West German Catholic bishops by the Polish bishops and Cardinal Wyszynski.

The government last weekend barred the Polish prelate from foreign travel, charging that the letter invited a discussion of the touchy Polish-German border question. Warsaw considers the frontier issue beyond discussion.

ALGIERS (AP) — "My health is excellent," says Ahmed Ben Bella, ousted Algerian president, in a letter to his niece.

Believed held prisoner in the Algiers area, Ben Bella was deposed last June by Col. Houari Boumedienne, now president.

A member of Ben Bella's family reported on the letter Friday. In it, the former guerrilla leader said he had plenty of books to read. Little has been heard about Ben Bella since he was toppled from office.

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — A Czechoslovakian literary magazine was shut down after its staff refused a government demand on the composition of its editorial board, the news agency CTK reported Friday.

CTK said the magazine Tvar, which stopped publishing Jan. 1, also rejected a $10,000 subsidy from the Communist regime as being insufficient to cover 1966 expenses.

Two other leading magazines came under sharp government criticism for telling their readers too much about the West and not enough about the East, CTK added.

Smoke Claims 7 in Rooming House Blaze

JACKSONVILLE, Ill. (AP) — Seven persons, including a mother and her four children, perished early today in a fire which swept a rooming house in the downtown district.

Fire Chief Dale Bond said the seven died of smoke inhalation in their small apartments on the third floor of a three-story stone building in the city's public square.

Bond said the fire started in the rear of the second floor. Firemen rescued five persons from the second floor. Elsie Brannan, 76, escaped from her second-floor room. One woman who was rescued, Alice Fishel, was hospitalized with burns.

Bond said the cause of the fire had not been determined. Firemen fought the blaze for nearly two hours. A drug store and a jewelry store occupy the ground floor of the building.

Coroner John Martin of Morgan County identified the family of five as Leota Mae Brown, 46; Raymond, 15; Donna, 14; Ricky, 11, and Emmy, 2. The others killed were Charles Souza, 93, and Alice Leggett, 72.

Cabbie Was Speeding

Carrying Blood Draws Fine

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — A cab driver rushing blood to a critically injured woman has been fined $45.52 for speeding after he was stopped twice by a state trooper, it was revealed yesterday. The woman died.

Cabbie Ershine Edward Cook said, "I was just trying to save a life and look what happened to me."

Cook said the incident took place about a week ago when he was to deliver blood to a Rutherford County hospital at Murfreesboro.

He said the first time he was stopped, the trooper let him go after he explained the circumstances.

But, he said, the same trooper stopped him minutes later and gave him a ticket for allegedly going 80 miles per hour in an 55 mile per hour zone.

CAN'T EXPLAIN?

Cook claimed General Sessions Court Judge Allen Cornelius refused to let him explain what happened.

Cornelius said he allowed Cook to explain.

"I definitely remember him telling me he was delivering blood," the judge said. "And I told him he could have created a bigger emergency by driving so fast. Cabs don't have the privilege of speeding."

The blood was intended for Mrs. Eleanor Hicks, 28, who died of a gunshot wound. Her doctor said he could not say if the blood would have saved her life if it had arrived earlier.

India-Pakistan Truce Soviet Achievement, but Problem Lingers

By HENRY S. BRADSHER

MOSCOW (AP) — The Tashkent Declaration is seen as a diplomatic achievement for the Soviet Union. It failed, however, to solve the basic problems which touched off the Indian-Pakistani conflict.

The declaration by President Mohammed Ayub Khan of Pakistan and the late Lal Bahadur Shastri, prime minister of India, was a commitment to clean up the aftermath of their 22-day September war.

After the death in Tashkent of Shastri, the caretaker Prime Minister Gulzari Lal Nanda, said he would carry out the Tashkent promises.

Arranging them was a major accomplishment for the host in Tashkent, Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin.

FIRST EFFORT

On his first effort at Asian peacemaking, Kosygin succeeded where countries like Britain and United States were unable to because of past involvements.

But Kosygin had no more success than the West in solving the root causes of the Indian-Pakistani conflict. Therein lies the failure, which probably was not unexpected by the Russians.

The unprecedented Soviet initiative to try to bring peace between two non-Communist nations appeared from here to have been mainly motivated by a desire to contain Red China.

The hostility between India and Pakistan, primarily over control of Kashmir State, had given the Red Chinese opportunity.

RUNNING DISPUTE

Peking has a running dispute with India over Himalayan borderlands. Pakistan has been embroiled with India over Kashmir. This gave China and Pakistan an affinity of interests.

Indians say the association has developed to the extent of Chinese weapons for Pakistan since Western supplies were cut off.

One Soviet way to counter it would have been trying to favor Pakistan more. The Kremlin moved a little way in that direction, but was hampered by its influence in India.

OPPOSITE POLICY

The effort in India, which has had some notable success, was incompatible with the kind of policy China is following in Pakistan.

So the only alternative was to try for peace between India and Pakistan in order to reduce Pakistani inclinations to look to Peking as a natural ally against India.

The Tashkent Declaration consolidated the cease-fire the United Nations had arranged in the undeclared September war. It did nothing to end the Kashmir dispute.

So long as this problem remains, Indian-Pakistani relations will be poisoned.

FORCE ABJURED

The Tashkent promise to abjure the use of force in no way decreased the possibility of an eventual renewal of conflict over Kashmir. There had been such promises before September.

Therefore, Pakistan continues to have a natural interest in an alliance with Red China — unwritten as at present. Perhaps some day it will take more specific form.

This means a situation the Kremlin deems undesirable has not been eliminated by the Tashkent Declaration.

Inmate to Face Sniper Charge

Suspect in '57 Crimes to Come From Ionia

Gary Addison Taylor, south Oakland County's alleged phantom sniper of nine years ago, will be returned from Ionia State Hospital for the Criminally Insane to face possible prosecution.

Accused of terrorzing a number of women and girls, Taylor was committed to the hospital in March 1957, on the grounds that he was unable to understand the charges against him.

He never stood trial on the charge.

Hospital authorities now say that he is capable and able to assist in his own defense.

Circuit Judge Philip Pratt has signed the order for Taylor's transfer. He had been sent to Ionia on the decision of the late Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty.

GIRL WOUNDED

Taylor was arrested in February 1957 after a Southfield teenage girl was wounded while standing in front of a window at her home.

Taylor, then 20 years old, was accused of nine separate snipings in Royal Oak, Southfield, Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills.

In 1961 Taylor was released after being transferred to the Lafayette Clinic in Detroit, but was returned to Ionia when he was accused of attacking two women with a butcher knife in Detroit.

Law Sought Forcing Safer Auto Design

LANSING (AP) — Sen. Roger Craig, D-Dearborn, said Friday he would introduce legislation this year to force auto makers to build more safety features into cars.

"It's time to stop laying all the blame for the traffic safety mess on the driver," said Craig.

He said he would seek the aid of auto manufacturers and a Senate committee studying traffic safety before drafting the proposal. However, Craig said among the things he would seek as standard are breakable steering wheels, horsepower limitations and seat belts connected to the ignition to force drivers to use them.

"Since a large part of the world's automobiles are manufactured in Michigan, we are in a unique position to force the auto industry to build safety features into cars," said Craig.

Crash Hurts 5 on Telegraph

Five persons were injured early this morning in a two-car crash on Telegraph in front of the Bloomfield Miracle Mile Shopping Center.

The 2:30 a.m. accident occurred, according to Bloomfield Township police, when a car driven by Michael Stevenson, 21, of 30 Cedarwald, Oakland Township, crossed the centerline.

The other driver, John Furton, 17, of 844 Fairfax, attempted to swerve out of the path but his car was hit broadside, police said.

Stevenson, Furton and two of his three passengers were admitted to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

They are Dennis Sage, 16, of Mid Pine Road and John Caulley, 16, of 2570 Pine Lake, both of West Bloomfield Township. John Boga, 18, of 1529 Lakeview, Waterford Township, was treated and released.

'College Night' Slated Monday at Oxford High

Parents of pupils in the Oxford High School have been invited to a "College Night" at 8 p. m. Monday at the high school.

The program is designed to acquaint parents with what is available for furthering the education of their children.

There will be representatives from Oakland University, Michigan State University, Pontiac Business Institute, Oakland Community College and De Lima College and information on technical and business education.

A question and answer session has been scheduled, and will deal with costs, courses and related subjects.

Jury 'Hung' in No Time

WASHINGTON (AP) — Moments after the jury for the Court of General Sessions case had asked for additional instructions, Judge Edmond T. Daly was told the jury was hung.

The puzzlement ended when an aide explained the jury was hung between the second and third floors in a balky elevator.

Workmen freed the jurors after 45 minutes in suspension.

State Pilot Killed

MUSKEGON (AP) — The Defense Department has notified relatives in North Muskegon of the death of Air Force Capt. Louis K. Kanaar. Officials said he was killed Sunday while taking part in an air strike in Viet Nam. Survivors include his wife, Janice, and one child.

HAVE YOU SEEN THIS?

• Hot water heat without plumbing is embodied in a new type of baseboard heating system which combines the best advantages of hydronic heat and electric heat while minimizing the disadvantages of both. It's called electro-hydronic heating. Each of the baseboard heaters is a self-contained unit. An electrical element in each unit is immersed in water which is sealed in a copper tube. As the element heats the water, it causes it to circulate through a finned part of the copper tube and back over the element. The heating effect, according to the manufacturer, International Oil Burner Co., 3800 Park Ave., St. Louis Mo. is identical to conventional hydronic systems with the extra advantages of no plumbing, furnace, chimney or annual furnace maintenance. Further, temperatures in any or every room can be precisely controlled. Field tests indicate that operating costs are considerably below other heating methods. The electro-hydronic baseboard heaters are 9½ in. high and from 30 in. to 9 ft. in length.

Rusk Talks With S. Viet Leaders

Nigeria Troops Stage Mutiny

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI) — Nigeria radio said part of the Nigerian army mutinied today and kidnapped Prime Minister Sir Abubakar Tafawa Balewa and his finance minister.

Broadcasts from Lagos heard in this nearby African nation claimed the majority of the 8,000-man army had remained loyal. The broadcasts said there were no reports of violence.

The Nigerian broadcast said the situation "will soon completely return to normal."

It did not say how many men were involved in the mutiny. The mutineers were described only as "dissident sections" of the army.

The broadcast said Balewa and Finance Minister F. S. Okotie-Eboh had been kidnaped by the mutineers and taken "to an unknown destination."

EARLY REPORTS

Earlier reports reaching Washington, London and Paris said an army coup had overthrown Balewa in a bloodless coup and placed him under house arrest.

It was the fourth African nation hit by an uprising in recent weeks.

Starting Dec. 22, military coups toppled the governments of Dahomey, the Central African Republic and Upper Volta.

Those revolts were a severe blow to Communist China in that Peking had gained a firm foothold in each.

The Nigerian revolt apparently centered only on internal political strifes brought by the more than 200 ethnic groups in the country and the friction of major Moslem and Christian blocs.

GOP Leader Against Hiking Legislator Pay

His Colleagues See $20,000 to $30,000 for Full-Time Work

LANSING (AP) — A House Republican said "no thanks" to pay raise yesterday. His colleagues, meanwhile, said it would take $20,000 to $30,000 a year to attract and hold good men on a full-time basis.

The lawmakers appeared before the Governor's Special Commission on Legislative Compensation, a group set up to study the question of salaries after an attempt last year to raise lawmakers' pay by $5,000 a year failed.

House Minority Leader Robert Waldron, R-Grosse Pointe, objected to turning the Legislature into a full-time operation and to raising compensation above its present annual level of $10,000 salary and $2,500 in expense money.

But other lawmakers, both Republicans and Democrats, painted a picture of near full-time legislative activities, weekend contact with constituents and suffering law practices or private businesses.

Waldron said the compensation should be high enough to prevent the possibility of undue influence from lobbyists and low enough to prevent legislators' gearing their inactivities to the one expedient of staying in office.

PART-TIME OPERATION

The Legislature, he said, has traditionally been a part-time operation. He added:

"This is supposed to be a group of laymen — a cross-section of the general public, a board of citizens. The Legislature is supposed to bring back to the capital the knowledge gained from living with their fellow citizens and engaging in normal day to day activities."

"We are not supposed to be experts; we are supposed to be advised by the experts and set policies with their advice as background. If the legislators ever become experts, God help us," he added.

Turning the Legislature into a full-time operation would result merely in "featherbedding committee work," he said. "It would do nothing but encourage 148 people to run around on a make-

Say Informer Killed in Plot

Fearful of Partner Kidnap Mastermind

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — A kidnap plan that wound through thickets of conspiracy, fear, betrayal and death was the master plot of a man who told police of the scheme and who died as it was being carried out.

The kidnap target: multimillionaire philanthropist Leonard K. Firestone.

The result: George H. Scalla, 28, and William C. Bailey, 44, were cut down by police shotguns Thursday night as they crossed the Firestone threshhold.

Beverly Hills Police Capt. John E. Hankins said that Scalla, who had gone to police in fear for his life, had masterminded the plot and had recruited Bailey.

"Scalla and another person originally planned the kidnaping," Hankins said, "but Scalla's partner got arrested and was sent to jail. Then he went out looking for another and tied in with Bailey.

BECAME AFRAID

"He later became afraid of Bailey, and believed that, if he didn't go through with it, Bailey would kill him. He said he knew Bailey would kill him after the kidnaping to shut him up.

"It was at that time that he went to Los Angeles police and told them of the kidnaping, which the officers already knew about.

"He went on the job with the idea that in case there was shooting, he would drop to the ground and protect himself," Hankins explained.

Firestone, 58, was told of the

Reported Aim Is to Reassure Saigon Regime

Ky Says in Speech: No Other Nation Can Decide Our Destiny

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk launched a whirlwind round of talks with South Viet Nam's top leaders today, reportedly to assure them President Johnson's peace efforts will not undercut the Saigon regime.

Rusk, accompanied by special presidential envoy W. Averell Harriman, met briefly with Chief of State Lt. Gen. Nguyen Van Thieu and then talked for an hour with Premier Nguyen Cao Ky and Foreign Minister Tran Van Do.

"We had very interesting talks. We are going to see each other again tonight," Rusk told newsmen, apparently referring to his dinner engagement with Ky.

He declined to say what subjects were discussed at the meetings, but diplomatic sources said he came here to tell Ky that Johnson's diplomatic moves on ending the war in Viet Nam would not pull the rug from under Ky's regime.

Rusk also met with U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and other American officials.

CLOSING CEREMONY

Ky, in a speech at the closing ceremony of the second Armed Forces' Day congress, warned that whatever peace moves are generated, "no other nation is qualified and able to decide our destiny, independently of our own will."

He praised the current peace offensive with a special word for Pope Paul VI, but warned all would-be peacemakers to beware of making any deals without his government's sanctions.

Ky said his government planned to create a "democracy building council" after the lunar New Year. The council will hold seminars throughout the country on a proposed new constitution.

Points raised in the seminars will be incorporated into the document and it will be put to a referendum next October, he said.

Airliner Down off Colombia

10 of 61 Survive in Shark-Filled Seas

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — A Colombian airliner with 61 persons on board plunged into shark-infested waters off the coast last night. Officials reported 51 persons were killed and 10 survived.

The four-engine, propeller-driven DC4, broke in two and its rear section sank in heavy seas.

The plane crashed about five minutes after taking off from the Caribbean port of Cartagena for a 20-minute flight to Barranquilla.

Frogmen from the Cartagena naval base vainly tried to rescue an estimated 40 passengers trapped in the rear section of the plane.

About 50 Colombian navy boats, 20 fishing vessels and a U.S. amphibious plane joined the search but rescue efforts were suspended early today due to the rough seas and the danger from sharks.

The Avianca airliner carried a crew of five. Most of the passengers were Colombian, authorities said.

It was not immediately known what caused the crash.

Hart Cautions Dems on 'Great Society'

United States Senator Philip A. Hart said today that the success of President Johnson's "Great Society" depends on the willingness of Congress to pay for it.

Hart's statement was made in a brief speech before Oakland County Democrats attending a training institute in Farmington Township sponsored by the 19th District Democratic organization.

Basically, Hart's talk was aimed at the Democrats' necessity of keeping Rep. Billy S. Farnum as congressman for the 19th District.

Noting that Farnum is a member of the important House Appropriations Committee, Hart said it would be up to the members of that committee to make the Great Society a reality.

"Too often in the past, Congress has approved programs and then failed to provide funds to carry them out," Hart said.

Hart said that "this coming fall, our Republican friends will use the two-party system to confuse the voters.

GOP PLEA

"They will come in and say to vote against Farnum for the good of the two-party system.

"To restore the two-party system, as the Republicans define it, means to defeat the Great Society.

"It would mean restoring a conservative system that would cut the Great Society so that it doesn't work.

"Success of the Great Society depends on Congress's willingness to fund it.

'FARNUM KEY'

"Billy Farnum is a key in making it a success."

Zolton Ferency, state Democratic chairman, introduced Hart.

In his opening remarks, Ferency criticized Gov. Romney's recent State of the State message.

He said that, one week prior to the speech, Romney had announced a $900 million "standstill" budget, yet seven days later, in his state speech made it a "total Michigan progress" budget.

NOTHING MORE

"Yet there is nothing more in it for schools, mental health or water pollution."

Ferency said, "We cannot raise the money we need with with the tax structure we have now."

He pointed out that the last budget of then-Gov. John Swainson totaled little more than $500 million, and that Swainson was hesitant to ask for it because he would be called a "free-spender."

Bitter Words on Transit Pact

NEW YORK (AP) — Over the roar of New York's transit system, volleys of subway sharpshooting fly between Washington and City Hall.

President Johnson Thursday attacked the settlement of the 12-day bus and subway strike as inflationary. He said the terms exceeded the government's 3.2 per cent guideline on wages and prices.

Republican Mayor John V. Lindsay suggested that Johnson "was not as familiar with all the facts of this case as was Wirtz."

He was referring to W. Willard Wirtz, secretary of labor, who fired off a telegram to Lindsay last night saying Johnson's statement reflects "the facts in this case as I know them."

He added: "Your recollection

Violent Acts Linked to KKK

Beating of Klansman, Murder Described

WASHINGTON (AP) — House investigators have reported links between the Ku Klux Klan, the murders of two Mississippi Negroes and also savage night beatings of fellow Klansmen.

Centering on the Natchez, Miss., area, investigators of the House Committee on Un-American Activities said yesterday a number of Natchez policemen were Klansmen and the two sons of Mayor Nosser were identified as Klansmen by an admitted member.

The same man, James K. Greer, was quoted in reports of the Mississippi Highway Patrol and the FBI as saying a Klansman got drunk one night and shot up the Klan headquarters in Natchez at 3 a.m.

Greer refused to answer any committee questions about his statement to the authorities.

DESCRIBED BODY

Here is Appell's description of the body of Earl Hodges, who he said was a Klansman who fell out with Exalted Cyclops Clyde Seale of Meadville, Miss.:

"He had walked to a well, apparently to wash off the blood. His body was covered with welts from the bottom of his feet to the top of his head. There was a hole in the top of his head.

"His face was split from his nose to the corner of his eye and the split was so deep you could see the roof of his mouth."

He's No John Dillinger

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A man police said was drunk was arrested yesterday after making two unsuccessful attempts to hold up a bank in nearby Imperial.

He brought two shotguns, fired them both, but caused no injuries.

Steve Quinn, 43, staggered into the Union National Bank office and poked a shotgun through a teller's window, police said.

Margaret Smith, who knew Quinn, turned from her work at an adding machine and said: "Now get that thing out of here. I'm busy."

The gunman moved back, and started wandering around the lobby.

Another bank employe, Virginia Noble, approached him and asked, "May I help you?"

She pushed aside the gun barrel. Wham, it fired. The charge hit a wall, but no one was hurt.

Mrs. Noble and Mrs. Smith wrested the gun from Qninn's hands, police said. Quinn ran to a car outside and drove off.

Police arrived. A woman outside yelled, "He's back."

HAD ANOTHER

The police ran outside and spotted Quinn in a car near the bank entrance. He had another shotgun.

Police yanked him from the car. Wham, the shotgun went off. Again, no one was hurt.

Quinn, an unemployed laborer from Imperial, was in the Allegheny County jail today, charged with armed robbery.

Italy Vote Bolsters Moro; Favors Role in Viet Peace

Speech Backs LBJ's Policy

Coalition Supports Confidence Motion

ROME (AP) — Italian Premier Aldo Moro, bolstered by a confidence vote in the Chamber of Deputies, was expected to press ahead today with efforts to help end the Viet Nam war.

Moro won the vote by 325 to 154, well above the 240 votes needed. He closed the two-day debate with a speech supporting President Johnson's diplomatic offensive to get Viet Nam peace talks started.

"We have encouraged the American government above all in that vigorous and sincere peace initiative which began with the Christmas truce and the indefinite suspension of bombing in North Viet Nam," Moro said.

THREE FRONTS

The premier added that, in "this particularly decisive moment" of the Viet Nam crisis, Italy was trying to help on three peace fronts:

— Recommending to its allies and friends patience and a will to negotiate.

— Asking nonallied nations to be "helpful mediators."

— Suggesting to Communist countries that they show interest in overcoming world tensions.

The confidence motion approved not only Moro's Viet Nam policy but also the way he took on the additional job of foreign minister.

Moro assumed the role Dec. 29 when Amintore Fanfani quit in the wake of criticism for his part in a Hanoi peace-feeler mission. Italian Communists and extreme leftists had tried to build the switchover into a crisis but the confidence vote punctured their efforts.

FOUR PARTIES

The motion supporting Moro was carried by four government coalition parties — the Christian Democrats, Socialists, Democratic Socialists and Republicans.

Moro emphasized that his government had an "understanding" for the U.S. position in Viet Nam.

Sukarno Says 87,000 Died Since Coup Try in October

SINGAPORE (UPI) — President Sukarno of Indonesia said today 87,000 persons have been killed there since the attempted Communist coup on Oct. 1, Radio Jakarta reported.

He said he was prepared to step down "if the state does not like me any more."

Sukarno, in a speech to his cabinet at Bogoro Palace, took note of the galloping inflation and the angry mood of students who have demonstrated against the government and said:

"If you don't want me any more I am ready to step down. It is not necessary for you to drop me out, I shall go if the state does not like me any more."

Then in an apparent reference to the mass student demonstrations against recent price increases he said, "Do not act wildly. This is my command."

He reminded them that he was not only the supreme commander, but also the great leader of the revolution, the great leader of the people.

Sukarno challenged his critics to bring down the prices of essential commodities within three months. He said that whoever succeeds would be made a minister, but if he fails he would be sentenced to five or 10 years jail or even shot to death.

Raising his vocie, Sukarno said he disapproved "very much" of the students' actions against price boosts and their demands for a cabinet reshuffle and dissolution of the Indonesian Communist Party.

He said the estimate of 87,000 victims of the attempted coup was submitted by a fact-finding commission. It was the first official announcement of the death toll resulting from the coup.

Sukarno admitted that "our situation is really difficult, particularly with our revolution caused by the Oct. 1 movement."

The president said he could not understand why he had been accused as being "a clandestine supporter" of the coup.

"I ask all our youths to be patient and don't accuse my ministers as fools and also make mischievous accusations about my life. . ." he appealed.

Sukarno said he was ordering all his ministers to reexamine and study the monetary regulations and make all the necessary recommendations to him.

HONOR TRUCE

The defense ministry today confirmed that it would honor a 78-hour truce during the lunar New Year — from noon Jan. 20 to 6 p.m. Jan. 23.

"During these break hours, all measures will be taken for the defense of all units to prevent any surprise attack by the enemy," a communique said.

A U.S. spokesman has said that American forces in Viet Nam would go along with any decision the Vietnamese made on the truce.

The truce was proposed by the Viet Cong earlier this month. The Communists said they would observe it for four days.

CRASH-LANDED

Air America, the private airline under contract to the U.S. government, announced today that one of its cargo planes crash-landed after it was hit by Viet Cong ground fire and its pilot and copilot were shot to death in the plane's cabin.

John McMann, manager of Air America's Saigon office, said the C47 was hit yesterday about 80 miles southwest of Saigon while ferrying rice and other foodstuffs to the Mekong Delta.

He identified the pilot as W. R. Pruner, whose widow, Betty, lives in Oklahoma City, Okla. The copilot was Chang Yong-ho, a Vietnamese. The fate of a third crewman, Nguyen Ban Thai, also a Vietnamese, was not known, McMann said.

He said an investigation had shown that Pruner and Chang were not seriously injured in the crash-landing.

4 Survivors in Plane Crash

10 on Yank Craft in Greek Mountains

ATHENS (UPI) — A U.S. Air Force C47 lost in the blizzard-swept Greek mountains on Thursday made a crash-landing on a snow-covered slope, and 4 of 10 men aboard survived, a U.S. embassy spokesman here announced today.

Rescuers reached the wreckage of the twin-engined plane, which had been carrying nine Americans and one Italian, 6,000 feet up the eastern slope of Mt. Helmos.

There was no immediate indication which of the men survived and which were killed.

Mt. Helmos, in the northern Peloponnesus range in southern Greece, is 7,680 feet high.

The spokesman said a rescue helicopter with a doctor aboard landed on the snow a short distance from the wrecked plane and radioed back that there were four survivors. There were no further details.

ITALY DESTINATION

The C47, assigned to the southern European command of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization headquarters in Naples, Italy, went down on a flight to Naples from Cigli, Turkey.

There were indications yesterday of survivors, but this was not confirmed until today. Reports said the C47 crash-landed near a mountain refuge built for climbers.

Search planes yesterday reported "evidence to suggest there might be some survivors."

HEADS COMPANY

Firestone, a son of the late Harvey S. Firestone, is president of the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. of California, a branch of the company in Akron, Ohio, founded by his father.

Bailey, father of four, lived with his family in an expensive mansion in suburban Woodland Hills.

His attorney, Albert Garber, told newsmen Bailey had "been in trouble with the police" in his youth, but had been a successful land developer and construction estimator since 1950.

Capt. Hankins said his men were investigating a chance that up to 20 persons were involved in the kidnap plot, and that the ransom might be as high as $8 million. This, he said, was disclosed by a strange note in Bailey's wallet.

CALCULATIONS

The note contained the calculations: "200,000 times 10 equals 2,000,000 and 20 times 400,000 equals 8,000,000."

There was no further speculation by police on the meaning of the note or its relations to the possibility that others were involved in the plot.

Firestone, after the shooting was over, said, "This has been a very distressing and upsetting thing to have gone through."

He said he was "disturbed and concerned" and "just made up my mind that I would try to work with the police as best I could."

Voter Drive Is Aimed at City Negroes

A "voter education" campaign aimed at greater voting unity among Pontiac Negroes is scheduled to be launched this weekend by the Progressive Action Committee for Equality (PACE).

Robert G. Newby of 244 Whittemore, spokesman for the group, said a 4 p.m. meeting would be held tomorrow at the Hayes Jones Community Center, 235 Wessen.

"We'd like to come up with two 'strong' candidates in the first and seventh districts in the city," he said.

"With commissioners elected at large under the charter amendment, the Negro community must attain some cohesion as a voting group," Newby said.

and your arithmetic are wrong. The settlement may have been necessary to relieve the city from unconscionable bondage. But it was unquestionably outside the stabilization policies."

NOT RECEIVED

A spokesman for the mayor said Lindsay had not received the telegram and would have no comment on it until he did.

The transportation crisis ended before dawn Thursday when the Transit Authority and the striking unions agreed on a settlement estimated at between $52 and $70 million over two years.

Government economists figure the wage increase in the package at 4.5 to 4.6 per cent a year, in excess of the 3.2 per cent guidelines. These guideposts — the observance of which is voluntary — reflect government estimates that a worker's productivity increases at 3.2 per cent a year.

In a news conference yesterday Lindsay said Dr. Nathan Feinsinger, chairman of the mediation panel that worked out the settlement, now feels that the agreement will represent a 3.6 per cent increase. Earlier, Feinsinger had said he did not believe it would exceed the guideposts.

NOT HIS ROLE

Lindsay said Secretary Wirtz had been helpful and was familiar with every step of the negotiations. But, he said, it was not the secretary's "role to pass judgment on the ultimate settlement."

Wirtz, in his telegram to Lindsay, said he had consistently pointed out to "you and to the panel members my view that it was most important that this case be settled with due regard to the national stabilization policies."

The secretary added that the point had been emphasized again in a news conference in Washington and in a subsequent telephone coneversation with Lindsay.

Waldron's statement took the group by surprise. It had indicated it was thinking more in terms of how large an increase the Legislature should get rather than whether a raise should be granted at all.

The 12-member commission was set up by Gov. George Romney and the Senate Business Committee.

It is headed by James Pollock, University of Michigan professor of political science, and includes former legislators Henry Hogan, a Birmingham attorney, and Christian Matthews of Mount Clemens, immediate past president of the State Bar Association.

Others include August Scholle AFL-CIO president; James Quello, station manager for radio station WJR, Detroit; and John F. Pival, president of WXYZ, Inc.

Pival said he felt lawmakers should receive $25,000 to $30,000 adding, "I wouldn't do it for less than that."

MODEST HIKE

Other legislators, meanwhile, called for a modest hike in the near future and a later $20,000-$30,000 level if lawmakers are to give up all outside employment.

Eaton was hired by a local television station to publicize the new ABC television program, "Batman."

'Leaders Favor Peace Bid'

Hubert: Asians Back LBJ

CHICAGO (UPI) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey believes Asia's political leaders firmly support President Johnson's efforts to end the war in Viet Nam.

"They support it strongly," said Humphrey at a news conference here yesterday. He was to attend a political rally to urge Sen. Paul H. Douglas, D-Ill., to run for another term.

"They are as concerned about freedom as we are," he said. "And they realize they have a responsibility, too, not only to undertake their part in defending freedom, but also to support our cause in Viet nam."

At the $100-a-plate dinner for Douglas, Humphrey added that the desire of United States was for "Peace, but not appeasement" in Viet Nam.

"The U.S.A. is the strongest nation in the world," he said.

"We will use our power in defense of others. Freedom is not free, and we are the guardians of the ramparts."

Humphrey arrived here from Washington where he returned from a trip to India for the funeral of Lal Bahadur Shastri.

FLINT — Pontiac Central brushed aside Flint Northern, 72-52, here last night and turned its basketball sights on Tuesday's big encounter with Saginaw.

The Chiefs and Trojans, both with 5-0 Saginaw Valley Conference and 7-0 over-all marks, clash at Saginaw.

Saginaw stayed even with PCH by rolling past winless Handy, 85-50, at Bay City last night. In other league games, Flint Southwestern upset Midland, 75-69, and Arthur Hill tripped Flint Central, 78-68.

Any fears that Coach Fred Zittel may have had about the Chiefs being overconfident against Flint Northern were evaporated in the first half.

The Chiefs took about three minutes to become acclimated to a rather warm Wildanger field house and then proceeded to take the Vikings apart at the seams for a 37-14 lead at the intermission.

"It was our best first half of the season," said Zittel who was probably hoping that the Chiefs play as well for the entire game against Saginaw.

ENOUGH FIREPOWER

Even with Jessie Evans and Jim McClenden having off-nights, the state's No. 1 rated Class A team had more than enough firepower to spoil any upset thoughts by Northern.

When McClenden drew three first-period fouls, Zittel sent Prentice Hill into action and the sharpshooting guard finished as the game's high scorer with 17 points. He canned four of six shots in the first half.

Evans was effective on defense and in the rebound department with 16, but the 6-3 senior had trouble finding the handle on the ball when on offense and his shooting was off.

He sat out almost six minutes of the first half as Ross Ludwick moved into action. Ludwick stuffed 14 points through the hoop and grabbed a career high 19 rebounds while playing until the final minutes.

The Chiefs outrebounded the taller Vikings, 59-42.

Pontiac's strong defense played havoc with the Vikings, forcing them to shoot from outside and press hard for shots. Northern hit only six of 31 shots in the first half.

They came out firing in the second half and connected on seven of their first 10 field goal attempts to cut PCH's lead to 49-33. Richard Pritchard hit three fielders and Steve Rivette two in the belated comeback.

But the Chiefs, who may have been a bit complacent because of their big halftime lead, settled down and quickly reopened a 20-point lead.

All 10 Chiefs broke into the scoring column. Although off in his shooting, Evans collected 14 points. Earl Turner scored 12 and Ed Oneal 11 for the Vikings.

The Chiefs hit on 27 of 67 field goal attempts for a 40.3 percentage. The Vikings, helped by their third-period spurt, finished with a 30.2 percentage on 22 of 70.

Huskies Lead I-L Following 61-58 Victory

2 'Old Pros' Provide PNH Spark; Ziem Hits 25 Points

By FLETCHER SPEARS

A couple of 'old pros' stole some of the glamour from the youngsters last night as Pontiac Northern edged Waterford's Skippers in a thriller, 61-58.

The 'old pros' in PNH coach Dick Hall's lineup were seniors Larry Frye, a 6-5 center, and 5-10 guard Bob Harris.

Along with those two old guys in the starting lineup were sophomores Don Hayward (6-2), Dana Coin (6-1) and Mike Clancy (5-8).

The sophs, representing the heart of Hall's youth movement, had a good night, but it was the play of Frye and Harris that turned the tide for the Huskies in the second half.

Frye scored only six points, but he pulled down 15 rebounds to help the Huskies gain a 43-34 edge in that department.

SHOOTING SPREE

And Harris, who did little in the first half, put on a dazzling display of shooting in the second half, and the little playmaker sparked on defense, holding the Skipper's hot-shooting forward Rick Ziem to nine points in the second half.

The victory pushed the Huskies (2-0) into the lead in the Inter-Lakes League while it raised their over-all record to 3-4.

Waterford (1-1), tied for the league lead going into the game, fell back into a tie with Farmington, and 86-62 winner over Walled Lake (0-2).

PNH jumped in front 16-15 after one quarter, and Waterford came back to take a 34-32 lead at halftime. The skippers held onto the lead at the three-quarter mark, 49-48, but PNH applied the pressure in the fourth and outscored the Skippers, 13-9.

SEVEN BEHIND

Waterford trailed by seven points, 58-51, with 2:40 left in the game, but rallied to trail by 59-57 and 59-58, and the Skippers had the ball with a chance to go ahead with 1:19 left but a pass sailed out of bounds and PNH took over.

The Huskies put the game on ice with two seconds remaining when Jim Hester stepped to the free throw line and canned a pair to make it 61-58.

Harris, who scored only two points in the first half, poured in 15 in the second half and wound up sharing scoring honors for PNH with Don Hayward (17).

Harris hit on six of eight shots in the second-half spurt, and he held a tight rein on Ziem, permitting him only two baskets in the final two frames.

Ziem collected 16 points in the first half and nine in the second to wind up with 25. Teammate Bob Adsit added 12.

Northern shot at a 27 per cent pace (22 of 59) while Waterford fired away at a 43 per cent clip (21 of 49).

Finals Slated Today

ORMOND BEACH, Fla. (AP) —Defending champion Phyllis Preuss won her semifinal match Friday and will meet Canadian junior champion Sandra Post today for the South Atlantic women's amateur golf title.

Tie Continues in SEM Action

A few records fell by the wayside last night as Hazel Park knocked off Southfield, 84-76, to move into a tie with Ferndale for first place in the Southeastern Michigan Association.

While the Parkers were (3-1) disposing of Southfield (2-2), Ferndale (3-1) turned back Royal Oak Kimball (2-2), 73-68, and Berkley (2-2) shoved Birmingham Seaholm (0-4) a little deeper into the cellar, 71-65.

Hazel Park, running its over-all record to 5-1, cracked a pair of school scoring records, and the Parkers' John Canine poured in 42 points to erase a mark of 38 he set last fall.

The 84 points topped the mark of 77 set by East Detroit back in 1962, and the two-team total of 160 bettered the total set by East Detroit (77-42-120) and the Parkers in '62.

In his record performance, Canine connected on 17 of 37 from the floor and added eight from the charity line. Helping Canine with the scoirng were Lloyd Welch (13) and Harold Reiser (12).

LEADS LOSERS

Ted Simmons paced the Southfield attack with 26 points and teammate Bill Baughman added 18.

Seaholm (2-6) trailed by only a point at halftime, 28-27, but ran into a cold streak in the third and Berkley pulled into a 51-43 lead.

Steve Cowell led a balanced Berkley scoring attack with 20 points, followed by Bob McNabb (13), Mark Tannenhaus (13), Al Hagland (11) and Jim King (10).

Leading Seaholm were Rich Slater (17), Bruce Landino (15), Phil Lyman (11) and Ron Roger (10).

Dwight Dunlap tossed in 32 points in leading Ferndale (5-1) to its fifth victory. Charles Puckett added 14 points and pulled down 17 rebounds for the winners.

Roger Peltz collected 21 points to pace Kimball.

CAGE-A GO GO — This scramble of legs belongs to Pontiac Northern and Waterford basketball players, and there looks like a little toe stepping going on up front. Northern had the fanciest steps last night as the Huskies won over the Skippers, 61-58.

Brother Rice Tripped 70-59

Brother Rice's basketball woes continued last night as University of Detroit High ran up a 70-59 victory.

The winners outscored Brother Rice in the first three quarters by a 55-39 margin and coasted to the win behind the shooting of Bill Thigpen and Mark Bonzack, 17 points each, and Andy Szombati, 12.

The losing Warriors were paced by Doug Keating's 18 and Tom McAvoy's 13. But the other three starters only totaled 13 among them. It was the fifth straight loss for Brother Rice after winning two of its first three tilts.
