FIREPLACE ARRIVES -

It's here at last. The fireplace has finally arrived and in case you haven't seen it, it now resides in what will be its permanent resting place in the corner of the lounge. Only one small detail clouds this hour of joy. We don't have quite enough money. The fireplace fund is currently something like $27 short. So dig into the old wallet and let's come up with those last few dollars in.

THE LAST HOUSE MEETING OF THE SEMESTER WILL BE HELD ON THURSDAY APRIL 15th AT 11:15. PUNCH AND PIZZA WILL BE SERVED TO HOUSE MEMBERS ONLY. YA'LL COME.

EDITORIAL

Although many trophies were won and a good time was had by all, the pantyraid Wednesday night cannot be considered a very big success. The lack of organization was notable. 2 or 2 fellows running down the halls at midnight does not constitute organization, it merely constitutes a couple of drunks. This organization was quite apparent in the somewhat great amount of confusion and number of stragglers. Attendance and participation also seemed rather slack and could have been improved with a little more advance planning. The campus rent a cop also helped to limit the success of the outing with his half hearted attempts to break up the festivities. If he had been a little more dynamic in his threats the raid would have been more successful. The route chosen was quite disorganized and haphazard. The mud undoubtedly put a damper on the spirits of many participants. A dryer route should have been picked. We sincerely hope the next raid will be better organized and better advance communications will be initiated.
