Kidnapers Shun Secret Meeting

Line Forms Now on Seats Aboard 'Theater Special'

"All aboard . . .!"

No ordinary conductor's call, that one.

It's an invitation to reserve the week of September 10 and book passage aboard The Pontiac Press Theater Special for a trip to New York and five excitement-packed days along Broadway.

The late-summer excursion into the heart of America's biggest city will be sponsored by The Pontiac Press as a non-profit goodwill gesture toward the first 60 readers who sign up before July 30.

Highlights of the trip will be tickets to five top Broadway shows, a tour of the United Nations Building, an after-theater party at one of the city's most famous restaurants, tickets to several television shows, a boat trip around Manhattan Island and plenty of free time to view other outstanding sights and see New York!

The cost?—A rock-bottom $140 per person.

Besides the plays and other events already mentioned, the price will cover railroad trips both ways, accommodations at one of New York's finest hotels, luncheon in the Delegates' Lounge of the UN Building, an arrival party at Greenwich Village and several "surprises."

"No Time for Sergeants," "Damn Yankees," "The Most Happy Fella," "Will Success Spoil Rock Hunter?" and "New Faces." Each has won the acclaim of leading critics and they're all yours to see as members of The Pontiac Press Theater Special.

* * *

The miles to the coastal metropolis promise to be among the most entertaining of the whole excursion, according to planners who regard the 10-or-so hours as an opportunity for fellow-Oaklandites to meet and have fun in a "traveling, musical get-together."

The cross-town trip from the train to New York's Paramount Hotel (in the center of the theater district) will be followed by an "arrival party" in Greenwich Village Monday night. And then the real part of the event will begin. . . .

Planners have purposely avoided crowding the schedule of events, so that participants can have enough free time to visit the various attractions that New York has to offer out-of-towners. Accounts of these and other highlights will be available to each traveler in a special pamphlet furnished by The Press.

* * *

The Paramount Hotel, "base of operations" during the stay, will provide comfortable, double-room lodgings within walking distance of the theaters at which the five shows will be appearing.

Because The Press wants each of its train-members to have the most carefree time possible, every effort has been made to reduce the details of traveling to

2,500 Rock 'n' Roller Riot in California; 10 Held

SAN JOSE, Calif. (INS)—San Jose Police were holding 10 teenagers today in the wake of a riot at a huge rock and roll dance.

The 10 were arrested early Sunday when some 2,500 teenagers attending the rock and roll session at Palomar Gardens in downtown San Jose engaged in a wild melee with fists and beer bottles.

It took 75 police an hour to bring the mob under control.

When the riot was over 10 persons required treatment at a nearby emergency aid station, scores more were nursing minor cuts and bruises, tables and chairs were broken and some 1,000 bottles were smashed.

The riot was touched off when someone threw a beer bottle into the middle of the packed dance floor as the teenagers gyrated to the pulsating rhythms of rock and roll artist Fats Domino.

Five auxiliary policemen on duty at the dance were unable to restore order and 16 patrol cars with 30 officers rushed to the scene.

They radioed headquarters they needed reinforcements and 40 policemen attending the annual policemen's ball nearby raced to the dance hall.

Two policemen required medical treatment after being struck in the back of the neck by a beer bottle and kicked in the head.

Death Penalty Looms for Narcotic Pushers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House voted unanimously today to allow juries to impose the death sentence on persons who sell or give heroin to anyone under the age of 18 years.

The penalty was included in a compromise narcotics control measure which now goes to the Senate for expected approval.

Tidal Waves Accompany Shocks

Quakes Kill 46 in Aegean Islands

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — Earthquakes and repeated tidal waves struck the Aegean Islands off southern Greece today. At least 46 persons were reported killed.

The brunt of the quakes was felt by the island of Thira (Santorini), where 36 persons were reported dead, and Ios, where at least 10 were said to have perished.

Local police said an unknown number of victims still lay beneath the debris on Ios, due north of Thira.

Tidal waves struck the island of Crete three times in less than half an hour. Huge waves also hit Samos and Kalimnos in the Dodecanese, and the islands of Astipalia, Paros, Amorogos and Ikaria.

VOLCANO ERUPTS

The police chief on the Aegean island of Syros telephoned that the quakes —which also shook Athens — were accompanied by an eruption of the volcano on Thira, 125 miles southeast of the Greek capital.

The government announced that most of the houses on Thira had collapsed and the rest were uninhabitable. The island has a population of nearly 10,000.

About 20 per cent of the houses on Amorgos were reported damaged and heavy property losses were listed on other islands. Coastal residents of Kalimnos were moved to the interior after a 13-foot wave swept the harbor and shores.

The onrush of water smashed 300 feet inland on Kalimnos, wrecking shops and houses. Several ships were sunk in the harbor.

DODECANESE HIT

More damage was reported on the Dodecanese Islands of Leros, Patmos and Nissyros, bringing to 11 the total number of islands known to have suffered.

In Leros, the tidal wave destroyed a power station, flooded fields and wrecked shipping. At Patmos, a tidal wave damaged the historic monastery where St. John wrote the Revelations—the last book in the New Testament.

Today's quake appeared to be the worst since August 1953, when a series of major quakes devastated the Ionian Islands off Greece's west coast. Those earth shocks killed an estimated 1,000 persons and left 130,000 homeless.

Detroit Buzzing as Shriners Open Convention

DETROIT (AP) — Fezzes are the predominant headgear in Detroit today and downtown streets look like an Oriental bazaar or a Hollywood movie set.

The nation's Shriners, more formally known as the Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, took over the city for their 82nd annual convention.

Some 50,000 Shrine delegates and their wives were on hand for the official opening of the five-day session, an occasion for fun and merriment underscored with solemnity and dedication. It's the largest convention Detroit has seen in 19 years.

One of the most colorful contingents was Murat Temple's 550 delegates from Indianapolis. Accompanied by the wail of Oriental woodwinds, they marched to hotels preceded by four matching palomino horses.

Boy, 3, Dies in Livingston

County Lakes Claim Lives of Two in Boat Tragedies

Oakland County lakes claimed two more drowning victims and a Madison Heights boy lost his life in a Livingston County lake as a trio of boating trips ended in tragedy Sunday.

Oakland County Sheriff's Department skin diver Bill Jackson recovered the body of Harold Dew, 32, of Detroit this morning at Bald Eagle Lake near Ortonville.

The other victim of a boat mishap was three-year-old Rickey Lauber, of 896 East Dallas St.

Dew went down after the boat he was riding in with two companions overturned after being swamped by a passing boat. Investigators said the men were changing places in the boat to even up the weight when the accident occurred.

Robert Young, 25, and Robert Phillips, 43, both of Detroit, were able to swim to safety. Phillips told County deputies he grabbed Dew after the swamping but could not hold him.

The drowning took place 150 feet off shore in 30 feet of water.

Boat operator Arthur R. Dailey, 53, of 4680 Auburndale, West Bloom field Township, is being held in the county jail under investigation for negligent homicide in the Lutz death.

Lutz toppled out of the speeding motor boat after standing up and losing his balance, according to Pontiac State police.

The Lauber child drowned when the boat he was fishing from with his brother, David, 5, and an uncle, John Mars, 49, of Oak Park, overturned. David and Mars were rescued but Rickey could not be found. Lauber was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Lauber.

County drownings for the season now total 16.

Foreign Aid Cut Hit by President

By ED CREAGH

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—President Eisenhower appealed today for restoration of foreign aid cuts voted by Congress, declaring the reduction would "definitely injure our efforts to help lead the world to peace based on cooperation and justice."

In a statement issued at the temporary White House here, Eisenhower declared that without such aid "we are bound to have dictatorship or foreign domination" in countries depending on U.S. assistance to give their people a chance to make a living.

Eisenhower's statement came just after the House had voted a four-billion-dollar compromise ceiling on the foreign aid program.

That figure, in an authorization bill, was sent to the Senate for action and the House moved on to the measure appropriating the actual money—in a still smaller amount.

The House Appropriations committee has recommended a cut to $3,400,000,000 from Eisenhower's original $4,900,000,000 asked.

Eisenhower did not ask for approval of the full $4,900,000,000 but asked for restoration of a "substantial" portion of the cuts. He previously has expressed willingness to settle for a $4,517,000,000 dollar ceiling.

"The Girl Scout Story"

Girl Scouts to Present Final Pageant Tonight

Tonight will see the closing pageant of the Girl Scout Roundup at Highland. At 8:30 "The Girl Scout Story," written by Dorothy Fields, will be presented for the campers and visitors.

Dorothy Fields, author of the play "Annie, Get Your Gun," arrived at the campsite on Friday to put the finishing touches on her play during last-minute rehearsals.

Like the two spectacles given last week, this one will make use of a choral reading group to narrate the story. A few of the 1,000 participants will have acting roles.

The script tells the story of Girl Scouting from its beginning in 1912 to the present day.

Nearly 5,000 visitors saw the exhibits in the Administration area and took tours of the camp on Saturday. Most of them arrived in time to witness the Americana festival, held in the outdoor arena.

They heard Governor G. Menen Williams welcome the Girl Scouts from all over the country to Michigan. Later they watched him lead off the American Girl Polka which climaxed the pageant of America on the move.

The Reverend Dr. G. Merrill Lenox, Executive Director, Michigan Council of Churches, gave the invocation before the festival. Mrs. George Dunham of New Jersey, national chairman of the Roundup, presided. The Flint Symphony orchestra furnished the music.

Monday is the last day the public will be able to take walking tours through the camp. The exhibits and the Administration area will be open on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Campers from the western states will leave on Tuesday, those from the east on Wednesday. Visitors are welcome today during the usual hours and through the arena presentation this evening.

LONDON (AP) — Torrential rainstorms swept across southern England today. Flooded roads and railway lines held up tens of thousands of commuters. Lightning struck dozens of homes and factories.

U.S. Employment Sets New Record

WASHINGTON (AP) — Employment reached an all-time high in June with 66½ million Americans holding jobs across the nation, the government reported today.

* * *

The report by the Commerce and Labor departments showed 1,055,000 more persons at work last month than in the previous record month last August, when there were 65,448,000 jobholders.

At the same time, unemployment increased by 300,000 in June to 2,900,000, or 4.2 per cent of the entire labor force.

* * *

Young summer workers getting out of school or seeking postgraduation jobs accounted for the increase both in employment and in job seekers, the two departments said.

Lt. Gov. Hart's Wife Halfway in Air Race

AMARILLO, Tex (AP)—The wife of Michigan's Lt. Gov. Philip Hart and her co-pilot took off at dawn this morning on the last half of their race for the tenth annual Powder Puff Air Derby prizes.

Mrs. Hart and Mrs. Marianna Rudolph left Amarillo at 5:43 a.m. (Central Standard Time) after spending most of yesterday and last night in town. They arrived here at 9:25 a.m. yesterday.

Warrens in Geneva

GENEVA (AP)—Chief Justice Earl Warren of the United States and Mrs. Warren arrived in Switzerland today for a vacation. They plan to spend about a month in a resort hotel at Burgenstock, near Luzern.

Last Chance to Register for Primary on August 7

If you want to vote in the coming Aug. 7 primary, you'd better be registered before 8 p.m. tonight. At that time, all registrations for the August primary election will be closed.

The City Clerk's office in the City Hall will remain open until 8 to take last minute registrations.

On Friday, 105 un-registered voters became eligible for the primary by registering while on Saturday 48 persons filed at the clerk's office. Fifty-five registered on Thursday.

Today also will mark the end of registrations which have been taken at other locations in addition to the clerk's office. Both city banks will take registrations until their 3 p.m. closing time.

The Oakland County CIO Council, 21½ E. Lawrence St., and three local union halls will take registrations up to their 5 p.m. closing times today.

Frantic Mother Waits Six Hours at Secret Place

Gotham Police Continue Questioning of Queens Trio That Made Call

WESTBURY, N.Y. (INS)—Police announced today that Mrs. Beatrice Weinberger had made a second unsuccessful effort last night to keep a rendezvous with the alleged kidnaper of her son.

The frantic, 32-year old mother returned to her home early today after a six-hour absence, and Nassau County Chief of Detectives Stuyvesant Pinnell disclosed she had been out trying to contact a man who identified himself as the kidnaper who took her son from his carriage on July 4th afternoon.

The mother made her heartbreaking trip in response to a telephone call yesterday from the man in which arrangements were made for the night meeting.

Shortly after Mrs. Weinberger's return, New York City police arrested three men in the Elmhurst section of Queens. Queens County adjoins Nassau where the Weinberger home is located in Westbury.

These three men still were being questioned today. Pinnell declined to say if there was any direct connection between Mrs. Weinberger's wasted journey and their seizure.

THIRD TELEPHONE CALL

The phone call to the Weinberger home on Sunday was the third since the month-old infant, Peter, was taken from his carriage on the Weinberger patio at about 3:20 p.m. last Wednesday.

Sunday, police discounted the first two calls as having any significance.

On Friday, also in response to a telephone call, Mrs. Weinberger made another trip and another effort to contact the purported kidnaper, without result.

In his statement on the latest fruitless contact attempt, Pinnell said:

"Contact was made last night by telephone with the Weinbergers by the alleged kidnaper. Thereupon Mrs. Weinberger went to the appointed place but there was no successful outcome."

Mrs. Weinberger, driving the family's black and cream colored sedan, left home at about 9:30 p.m. and returned after 4 a.m. today.

The three arrested men were not identified but it was reported two of them were youths about 20 years of age, and that they had been picked up after a telephone call was traced to a bar.

Two other men arrested last week for questioning were released. One was picked up when he seemed to be exceptionally interested in the Weinberger home and drove around it several times Thursday morning. The other man apparently had made a "crank" phone call.

Mrs. Weinberger made another radio-television plea to the kidnaper last night, appealing frantically to the abductor to return him to her arms.

Y Club Planning Picnic at Zoo on Wednesday

First the bears and bird-house, then peanut-butter sandwiches, and finally the elephants and monkeys.

The YMCA Summer Fun Club is making its first trip Wednesday, and 130 boys and girls are planning for a picnic visit to the Detroit Zoological Park in Royal Oak.

Ages 9-13, they have participated in activities twice a week since the club opened last Monday. From now on, a trip is scheduled every Wednesday until the club closes Aug. 10.

Children will visit Bob-Lo Island, a Detroit Tigers baseball game, Greenfild Village and the Henry Ford Museaum.

Volunteer teenage "Y" members are going along as supervisors.

Morrie Tubergen, youth director, will be in charge of the trips.

Wednesday, the youngsters will leave at 9 a.m. by chartered bus and return at 3 p.m.

State Accidents Claim 27 Victims

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

At least 21 persons were killed in Michigan traffic accidents this weekend. Four others drowned, a man was killed by lightning and a three-year-old girl was fatally injured by the flying wheel of an auto racer.

It brought the total weekend death toll in the state to 27.

The traffic victims were:

Robert J. Chiotti, 22, of Caseville.

Mrs. Everine Wurdleman, 32, of Port Hope.

Kenneth R. Rickert, 16, of Livonia.

Name Manager at Birmingham

Harold Schone to Leave Position at Oak Park to Accept Job

The new city manager of Birmingham will be Harold Schone, present city manager of Oak Park, Birmingham City Commissioners announced today.

Mayor James Allen said today that the appointment was decided upon at a committee meeting by he and other commissioners Saturday morning. The final resolution making the appointment will be passed at tonight's commission meeting, he says.

"Schone has been active in inter-municipal projects in the county," Mayor Allen says, "so it will make the transition into his new job much easier."

D. C. Egbert, retiring as city manager of Birmingham, is becoming director of two Oakland County authorities. His resignation, accepted recently, is effective August 1.

Schone is expected to submit his resignation to the Oak Park commission tonight, and will probably ask to be relieved of his duties within 30 days.

A native of Kansas City, Kans., Schone, 42, held the city manager post at Harbor Springs for 19 months before coming to Oak Park five and a half years ago.

He has been a member of the operating committee of the Garbage and Rubbish Authority, and is now chairman of the Southeastern Oakland County Managers Assn. and chairman of the legislative committee of the Board of Supervisors.

Service Station Owner Scares Off Burglar

The prompt action of an Independence Township service station owner prevented a possible burglary early Saturday, Oakland County Sheriff Department deputies said today.

* * *

Michael Gourand, who lives above his station at 5748 Clarkston Rd., told deputies he saw a man driving away from the scene after going to investigate some noise he heard.

Gourand said a large plate glass window was broken but that nothing was known to have been taken. The owner arrived before entry could be gained, according to the county officers.

OPENS NEW SYSTEM—Pontiac Mayor William Donaldson opened the new extended direct dialing system which went into effect yesterday for some 35,000 Pontiac FEderal exchange users. Ray H. Storm, district manager of Michigan Bell Telephone Co., helped the Mayor select a Detroit number to initiate the system. By first dialing "112," then the listed number, FEderal users can dial directly to Detroit, Ann Arbor, Flint and some 62 other southeastern Michigan communities.

Detroit Police Take McGinnis

Parolee, 25, Is Suspect in Armed Robberies, Officers Say

Robert McGinnis, 25, of Detroit, who shot his way out of a police ambush Thursday night only to be captured at a girl friend's home Saturday morning, today was turned over to parole officers from Detroit, Insp. Clark M. Wheaton of the Pontiac police said.

McGinnis is wanted for parole violation as well as being a suspect in serveral Detroit armed robberies.

Three men taken in the ambush Thursday night still are in custody of Detroit police as holdup suspects, Wheaton said.

They are William R. Bale, 24, of 63 Williams St.; Eugene P. Bale, 39, of 2237 Harvard Rd., Berkley and Edwin C. DeTamble, 22, of Detroit. The Bales are brothers.

McGinnis, with six official escapes to his credit, spent the weekend in an Oakland County Jail cell.

He is on parole from Ionia State Reformatory where he had been serving a term after conviction of carrying a concealed weapon.

Fire Does $150 Damage

A five-minute blaze in a Waldron Hotel room early Sunday morning caused $150 damage, Pontiac firemen estimated. A matress had caught fire, they said.

Lineups Picked for 23rd Game Between Stars

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bob Friend, Pittsburgh ace righthander and Billy Pierce, Chicago White Sox's lefthander were named today as the starting pitchers for tomorrow's 23nd annual All-Star game at Griffith Stadium.

The two All-Star managers, Casey Stengel for the American League and Walter Alston for the National League, also named their lineups.

Stengel announced that Mickey Mantle, the Yankees' young centerfield star, would definitely open for the All-Stars and would bat in the clean-up spot behind Ted Williams.

Gas Station Cash Box Rifled of $115

About $115 was taken from the cash box in a gas station at 125 Oakland Ave., sometime since July 2, according to a Pontiac police report.

The box was kept under an office desk, according to the manager. Police said there apparently was no sign the building had been forceably entered.

Commerce Boy Hurt

Robert Watson, 14, of Commerce Township, was treated by an area doctor for minor head injuries Sunday after he fell off the running board of a moving truck.

The boy was reportedly riding on the truck driven by Alfred Manshaidt when he fell off and landed on his head near 9090 Pittsfield Street.

House to Act on Aid Money

Two Separate Bills Under Consideration for Foreign Countries

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House acts today on two separate foreign aid bills, both chopped well below President Eisenhower's five-billion-dollar request.

Administration forces weighed whether to make a concerted effort in the House—or leave it to the Senate—to restore some of the $1,400,000,000 slash voted by the House Appropriations Committee last week.

There were indications from Gettysburg, Pa., that Eisenhower may make another move to support his request for more money.

Up for House action first was a House-Senate compromise authorization bill setting terms and ceilings for the aid program for the year which started July 1. House and Senate passage, as expected, would send the bill to the President.

In round figures, the authorization measure would allow a four-billion-dollar overseas assistance program for the year, compared with Eisenhower's $4,900,000,000 request. Its major reduction is 700 million dollars from the three billions Eisenhower sought for military aid to free world countries.

A bigger cut of $1,200,000,000 in arms aid is contained in the second bill, a $3,600,000,000 appropriations measure which carries the actual funds for the program.

The Day in Birmingham

12-Town Drain Finances Come Before Commission

BIRMINGHAM — A one-mill tax levy to aid in paying the city's share of the Twelve Town Drain project, for which plans are expected to be completed about August 1, is suggested in a report of City Manager D. C. Egbert in tonight's city commission agenda.

He asks that the city study other methods as well of financing the local share of the project.

Citing recent reports that plans will be delayed about a month past the expected July 1 completion date, Egbert says officials have assured him that the October 15 deadline will be met for awarding of contracts.

His report on the drain project is among several being submitted tonight. Other reports are on communications from the Oakland County Highway Department on future highway plans.

The county's offer of $35,000 for its share of the estimated cost of improvement of Southfield from Lincoln street to 14 Mile Road is noted by Egbert.

Also, he summarizes highway plans for Southfield, 14 Mile, Coolidge and urges Birmingham support.

A hearing on vacation of a walkway in Adams village subdivision is set for tonight, and a petition will be received from Shipman boulevard residents requesting a four-way stop at Southlawn.

G. R. Serenberz, city engineer, tabulated for commissioners the bids for asphaltic concrete resurfacing received July 3. Low bidder, he says, was A & A Asphalt Paving Company, who offered a price of $45,778.50 for the various paving and resurfacing jobs.

Shooting of a mad dog was deemed necessary by Birmingham police yesterday. The animal, owned by Tom Edwards, 1783 Yorkshire, tore through the yard at 1485 Yorkshire, where the frightened resident called police.

Harold J. Thompson

He was in charge from 1923 until 1939 of the electrical division of the plant engineering department for Fisher Body.

Surviving are his wife, Floris, two daughters, Mrs. Alexander Tulinsky of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mrs. Thomas A. Reaney of Colorado Springs, Colo., and two sons, George of California and Capt. W. D. Thompson in the Air Force at San Antonio, Texas.

Private services will be at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. at 3 p.m. Tuesday with burial in White Chapel Cemetery.

Mrs. John W. Moore

Service for Mrs. John W. Moore, 23, 544 DeSoto Ave., Pontiac, who lived in Birmingham until two years ago, will be at 1 p.m. Wednesday at Manley Bailey Funeral Home. Burial will be in North Farmington Cemetery.

Mrs. Moore died in an automobile accident early Saturday. She married in 1950 and the family moved to Rochester two years ago and to Pontiac last year.

Sixth-Graders Learn Languages Fast in New Approach by MSU Educator

EAST LANSING—(AP)—An educator at Michigan State University says the time to introduce foreign languages to school children is in the third grade.

But Dr. Georges J. Joyaux has something different in mind from the traditional classroom methods of teaching languages — starting out with books and grammar study.

His approach was illustrated to an experimental class of 30 East Lansing sixth graders last term.

On the first day that Dr. Joyaux appeared, after clearing the idea with the school staff, the teacher burst into the classroom repeating "Je m' appelle Georges," and gesturing vigorously in the direction of himself.

CATCH ON QUICKLY

In a few moments, the group got the idea that he was identifying himself by name in French.

Then Joyaux began asking of each pupil, "Comment vous appelez—vous?" until one replied "Je m' appelle Bob," and he knew that Bob had caught on.

In the days that followed, three times a week, the instruction continued with lots of gestures, songs, pictures, dolls and common objects.

Each became known to the class by its French name and bits of everyday conversation were woven together until the youngsters could take what they learned onto the playgrounds and into their homes.

OFFICIALS PLEASED

When one girl skipped rope to a French song, a boy was counting marbles in the new language.

School officials were pleased with the results at the end of the term.

Mrs. Florence Baker, the regular teacher of the class, said pupil interest ran high and the lessons proved challenging, stimulating alertness and concentration.

Explaining his stand for an early beginning in language instruction, Dr. Joyaux, a native of France who came to M.S.U. 10 years ago, said: "Kids at an early age are such imitators they catch on faster than adults."

He observed, too, that the children found satisfaction in being one up on their parents—through demonstration of the new language acquisition at home.

During the experimental stint, there were no textbooks and nothing was written down, he said.

He recommends that a language program be continued along conversational lines for three or four years before textbooks or written lessons are added.

5 Sabre Jets Crash

TOKYO (AP)—Fog and rain forced three U.S. Sabre Jet pilots to bail out over Japan today and caused two others to crash-land. One airman was reported missing in the series of mishaps which cost the Air Force more than a million dollars.

The two pilots who crash-landed escaped injury.

Rescue teams picked up two of the pilots who bailed out, but low visibility hampered search for the third. The Air Force withheld the announcement of his identity.

Bettor Dies at Track

PAWTUCKET, R.I. (AP)—Authorities say Christopher Magenta, 52, Thompsonville, Conn., died of a heart attack at Narragansett race track after a horse which would have paid him $740 for a $200 bet was disqualified from first place. The horse, Rags, finished first by 2½ lengths but was disqualified on a foul claim.

Postal Workers Kept Busy by Scouts at Roundup City

Eighteen postal workers have a full-time job in handling the incoming and outgoing mail for the over 6,000 Girl Scouts and leaders at the Highland Recreation Area.

There is a main post office (tent type) plus substations in each of the five sections of the camp. Each section station has a staff of three working to gather the mail and deliver it twice daily to the girls.

So far, some 33,582 letters have arrived through the Milford post office for the girls, and 1,374 packages. Outgoing mail figures show that 65,050 letters have gone out from the scouts and some 300 packages.

Director of Mail for the two week Girl Scout Camping Roundup is Martha Alice Vett of New York City.

Assisting her locally from the Milford post office are Mrs. Richard Baker and Marcia Peters. The rest of the post office staff comes from all over the country.

The biggest trouble Miss Vett reports is that much mail is returned to the Milford post office because of no address, insufficient address, or no stamps. "We've even had one film returned so far and are unable to find the girls it belongs to," she said.

THE BERRYS By Carl Grubert

'Hunting Trips' Necessary, Immigration Chief Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Immigration Commissioner Joseph M. Swing says it was "incidental" to his job that he went hunting during visits to Mexico and Canada in government planes, jeeps and airconditioned trailers.

The main purpose, Swing told a House Government Operations subcommittee recently, was to establish better working relationships" with border officials of neighboring counties, to coordinate plans with them and gather information.

And he added he plans to continue the practice unless the committee orders it stopped.

Swing defended his actions as subcommittee chairman Mollohan (D-WVA) and staff investigators questioned the retired general about what Mollohan termed "hunting trips" using government equipment.

Swing, a West Point classmate of President Eisenhower, was the target of a previous subcommittee inquiry over his appointment of two other retired generals to immigration service posts.

* * *

This time he was interrogated for two days behind closed doors before Mollohan made the hearing public.

The testimony centered on five Swing visits—three to Mexico and two to Canada—since September of last year.

TRIP TO MEXICO

As Swing outlined it, he and a half dozen or so other immigration officials did go to a camping site in Mexico about 60 miles from Brownsville, Tex., on the Mexican border.

He said the group met with Mexican Officials and that on one trip U.S. Army Col. Douglas P. Quant, whose job involved planning having a connection with immigration, also went along.

On one occasion, Swing said, he did fly to the camp site in an immigration service plane. Jeeps and "utility" immigration service trailers, with small air conditioning units for hot climates, were also used on the trips.

"I say openly I've used government equipment — jeeps, trailers, planes," Swing said. "I've gone hunting, and I have always worked on my job trying to complete and build up our relationships with our neighboring countries.

Killed by Bee Stings

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—Arthur L. Hamm, 34, of nearby North Kenova, died in a Huntington, W. Va., hospital after being stung "countless times" by honey bees. Coroner Robert S. Barrett said Hamm was attacked while transferring bees from one hive to another.

from Pontiac (FEDERAL) telephones

to 62 more communities

DIRECT DIALING of more of your own out-of-town calls opens the gateway to a new era of telephone convenience. To call your friends and relatives in any of 62 more communities, you just dial 1 1 2 and then the telephone number.

Your new brown and white DIAL DIRECT folder tells you which communities in southeastern Michigan and nearby Canada you can now dial direct from FEDERAL telephones in Pontiac.

To call Detroit and the 61 other places, you just dial three figures, 1 1 2, then dial the telephone number . . . two letters and five figures.

For example, suppose you want to call LOGAN 9-3890 in Detroit. You just dial 1 1 2, then LO 9 3890. Before ringing starts, an operator asks the number of the telephone you are using.

1. You can depend on the telephone equipment to get the number you dial. If you should happen to dial a wrong out-of-town number, however, just ask the person who answers what city and number you have reached. Then dial your operator and tell her what happened, so you won't be billed for that call.

2. It's a good idea to make sure everyone in your home is familiar with your new DIAL DIRECT folder. It's your family's Guide to speeding many of your own out-of-town calls.

Careful dialing means better service for you.

You call Birmingham, Clarkston, Commerce, Drayton Plains, Lake Orion, MAYFAIR, Oxford, Rochester and Walled Lake telephones from FEDERAL telephones by just dialing the telephone number . . . TWO LETTERS and FIVE FIGURES.

GM Bus Antitrust Suit Free Enterprise Threat

So long as certain Governmental bureaucrats regard size as a sin, General Motors can probably reconcile itself to further harassments.

Big targets are easier to hit than little ones and the Attorney General can anticipate greater applause when he trains his artillery on the Champion.

Mr. Brownell is threatening to wave his big stick directly at the bus industry, and that strikes the Pontiac area amidships.

Much is at stake.

The Government learns that GM is making 80 per cent of the nation's buses and is wondering whether that's illegal or unfair or something. Certainly it appears to be indiscreet. There's nothing wrong with these buses, you understand. GM simply makes them so well they're in high demand.

Is the United States Government trying to decide whether it's permissible for one firm to do perceptibly better than another? Buyers are still actuated by the curious and ancient motive of wanting the most for their money. Obviously, that means a lot of them will buy the same product from the same producer if they are convinced that he excels perceptibly.

In a democracy, the people are free to trade where they please. They don't have to consult Mr. Brownell, Alice in Wonderland or Williams Purple Cow. If nine out of ten happen to like a GM bus, they have the right to buy one. That was the concept on which this nation was founded. When GM has sold a certain number or a certain per cent, can the Government tell them to cease or desist?

★ ★ ★

If GM Diesel engines are better than others and GM proposes to equip only GM buses with GM Diesel engines, does the Government figure that's a sin in itself?

Would Washington compel GM to refuse to sell when buyers entered the show rooms? Would they have them tack up placards declaring:

"Closed for Two Months or Until Our Competitors Sell You Some of Their Buses Whether You Prefer Them or Not."

Ultimately, the Government would have to decide when GM competitors had sold enough trucks to allow GM to reopen—for a while.

They're going to rewrite sections of a lot of history books and re-do the definitions of "Democracy" and "Republic" if this conceit becomes a reality.

Food the Big Problem

When the protesters in Poznan rioted recently and cried for bread from their Russian rulers, many people in the Western Nations listened carefully. Food may prove to be one of the big stumbling blocks in the Communist campaign to rule the world.

While one can only speculate, and while different students of conditions behind the Iron Curtain come up with quite different opinions, some of these critics believe that an inadequate food supply even now is adding to the difficulties of the Soviet rulers.

They say that the need for more food is cutting down on the rapidity of the industrial expansion in Russia, as well as on arms production. Steel is being diverted from tanks to tractors, and other similar changes are being forced on those who provide the overall direction to the Red economy.

The Russian farmers are not producing anywhere near enough food to care for the mouths that must be fed.

Russia used to export food.

Now it must import it.

This is a sobering thought to rulers who have the urge to rule the world.

People who have not had sufficient food are going to be a dangerous factor behind the Russian lines in case of war. Just as food production now faces sabotage on the Russian farms, so will any war effort face sabotage on a large scale from people who feel they have been ill-treated and ill-fed by their rulers.

Some one asks why as a rule people are buried with their feet towards the east. As the earth rotates eastward, this is doubtless done to keep the deceased from having to ride backwards.

You don't worry about the kind of troubles the other fellow has, and he doesn't worry about the type you have, so why don't you two get together and swap troubles.

Strain on the Apron Strings

David Lawrence Says:

News Releases Tough to Regulate

WASHINGTON—Quite a tempest in a teapot has been stirred up because Attorney General Brownell chose a "sponsored" television program last week as the means of announcing a piece of nationally important news.

Every "scoop" and every "leak" of news, to be sure, favors some "sponsored" medium of information. For in a sense every publication that is dependent on advertising revenue is "sponsored" as the term is used on television.

There has always been a rivalry between the different mediums of communication and it is natural, when one of them gets a better break on the news, that the others sometimes indicate their disfavor. It's happening all the time in Washington when some news conferences are scheduled to be held at hours that favor morning newspapers over afternoon newspapers or vice versa.

TV ADVANTAGE

Reporters who don't like the fact that a particular television program was chosen for the giving out of an important piece of news have a simple remedy available. They can dig out pieces of news like that of the other evening's program and print them ahead of time. For unless a news announcement is given out with a definite release time in advance, it is open to any or all reporters to get that piece of news and print it instantaneously. A few incidents like this and the television program in question would find it advantageous for its own sake to give out the news several hours in advance without any release. This could conceivably build up the audience for the later program.

As a matter of fact, there is very little difference between the new television program "Press Conference," and "Meet the Press" or "Face the Nation" on Sundays, when national personalities are interviewed by selected reporters. There usually is news in these radio-television broadcasts and most newspapers have been printing the essentials of this news the next day.

There is altogether too much emphasis being placed nowadays on the "handout" system. A committee of Congress is actually complaining because government departments do not resort to more "handouts." This is an indirect indictment of the enterprise of the press itself. Time was when rival reporters didn't like "handouts." They preferred to get the news through their own diligent efforts and persistent search.

GATHER AND PUBLISH

There isn't any news, classified or unclassified, which a good newspaper reporter in Washington cannot ferret out. The best answer to the "suppression" tendency is to gather the information and publish it. Then an official confirmation or denial is compelled, depending on the accuracy of the first report. In the long run more news will be obtainable through a system of individual enterprise than through dependence on pooled announcements or "handouts."

So far as the attorney general or any other Cabinet officer is concerned, he may choose one medium today and another tomorrow. That's his prerogative. The press had no legitimate basis for protest the other day, for it couldn't have printed the news a moment sooner if Brownell had not appeared on the television program and had merely given it to the press in a mimeographed "handout."

It is true there would have then been no chance for questioning of Brownell by the reporters, but this was permitted after the television program anyway. All the newspapers had the news as soon as it was revealed on the television program. The only folks who really had a kick coming were the rival networks in the television business, for they were not in on it. A few moments later, on the other hand, on their regular news programs, they could have made an announcement of this item of news and still would not have been far behind.

* * *

The matter of regulating the flow of news artificially has revealed many handicaps. These will not be easily overcome, but the press need not pay too much attention to them anyhow. Good reporters covering "spot news" developments could have found out many days in advance that the attorney general was planning to file an anti-trust suit against General Motors. They probably knew all about it at the offices of General Motors anyway long before the television press conference was held.

Dr. William Brady Says:

30 Pct. of Family Doctors Are in General Practice

According to the 19th edition of the American Medical Directory (1956), published by the American Medical Assn., there are 218,061 physicians in the United States, 17,906 in Canada.

Only 30 out of each hundred physicians in the United States are in general practice. Thirty-one out of each hundred are listed as real specialists — they say they limit their practice to a specialty. Ten out of each hundred physicians give special attention to a specialty but do more or less general practice too. The remaining 11 per cent of physicians in the U. S. are serving internships or residencies, 6 per cent in other full-time hospital services, 5 per cent retired or not in practice, 4 per cent not in private practice, 3 per cent in military or other government service.

These official statistics show that most physicians now in practice are real or trick specialists—by "trick specialists," of course, I mean doctors who specialize in whatever a paying customer happens to have—and I suggest that actually there are more trick specialists than real specialists in Yankeeland.

Medical education has not just followed this trend. It takes ten years of a man's or woman's productive life to become a doctor—four years of premedical college, four years of medical school (if he or she can get into a medical school), and two years, or more, of internship or residency.

What this country needs is a four-year course in medical school, for high school graduates, on satisfactory completion of which the graduate would serve an internship of not less than one year, upon satisfactory completion of which he or she would receive a license to practice in any part of the United States, without molestation by politicians.

Such down to earth medical schools would restore to the people, the sensible people as well as those who go into debt to keep up with the Joneses, an institution that is otherwise doomed to become extinct, the family physician.

Naturally the medical educators and the trick specialists and "clinic" racketeers will brush this suggestion aside with characteristic sneers. But some medical educators are even now considering ways and means of establishing just such schools for the training of general practitioners, leaving intact enough of the present medical schools to train real specialists.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Urges More Residents to Fly American Flag

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

What is the matter with the people of America today? In driving through Pontiac on the Fourth of July, I noticed there were on the average only one or two American flags flying to every city block.

Just what is the matter? Is $2.50 too much to pay to show our freedom as a nation? So c'mon, Pontiac. Fly your flag with mine on our next holiday.

More Tornadoes? Woman Says No

People keep commenting on the fact we have more tornadoes than we used to have. I don't belief it at all. We simply have the same old number with much better reporting.

We didn't use to get all these "warnings." If the wind blew hard in Traverse City for an hour, we didn't label it a tornado and send news stories all over the middlewest. We're simply "tornado conscious." The newspapers and radio stations have made us that way.

The nation is just as safe from lethal wind storms as it ever has been. People are just more hysterical.

Nature has a way of returning the same general weather, year after year. She seldom varies very much. It rains the same number of inches and the average temperature for every month is within a degree or two of the average for the last 75 years.

Reds Warn Hungarians Against Enemies of Party

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

Red rulers in Hungary are issuing stern warnings against so-called "demagogues and enemies of the party" as a result of the Polish riots in Poznan.

This nervousness was reflected after recent unprecedented demonstrations of opposition to the government and especially to Matyas Rakosi, the Communist Party first secretary and strong man.

Hungarian workers are being warned that the danger of unrest is increasing.

Reports from behind the Iron Curtain tell of two demonstrations in the Budapest Officers Club the nights of June 18 and June 27. These lasted all night and were organized by the Petofi Club, which is a discussion forum organized by the Hungarian youth movement.

* * *

Loudspeakers relayed the speeches to thousands of people listening outside, and the speeches appear to have turned into some of the most outspoken opposition yet to Rakosi and Red rule.

HEAVY APPLAUSE

Marton Horvat, editor of Szabad Nep, the Communist Party newspaper, talked at the June 27 meeting and got heavy applause when he declared that "the application to Hungary of the 20th (Soviet Communist Party) Congress policy must be decided in Hungary, not in Moscow or Belgrade."

* * *

The meeting originally was intended to mark the "rehabilitation" of formerly discredited newspapermen. It was attended by some officers and eventually developed into open attacks on much that had been done, and not done, in Hungary since the Reds took over power in 1947.

Some speakers regarded as reliable party men endorsed much of the criticism, and police did not attempt to intervene in the meeting.

In the earlier meeting, approximately 1,000 persons, mostly older party members, discussed the treatment of the "old fighters" of the days of the Spanish Civil War. But Mrs. Laszlo Rajk, widow of the former foreign minister who was executed in 1949 as a Titoist, apparently accused Rakosi by name as being responsible for her husband's death.

HIT PRISON SYSTEM

She attacked the present prison system and said that the treatment of prisoners now is much worse than in the reign of Adm. Nicolas Horthy.

* * *

Reports leaking out of Budapest said that she and other speakers worked the session into an uproar, and one speaker even proposed that gold-toothed Rakosi "should sacrifice his political career for the good of the movement."

Other speakers told of "mistakes and illegal actions of the party during the 1949-53 period."

In reply to all of this, the Communist Central Committee finally published a statement saying that the anti-Communist riots in Poland showed that Hungarian workers should be on their guard against demagogues.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Should Teach Money Management

Lois is really a precocious young woman. Would that all brides had her gumption and past business experience! High schools might well heed her advice on how to make the curriculum more useful. Student interest always zooms when practical problems are being discussed. Too much education is still academic and farfetched.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

"Dr. Crane, they have started a course to teach kids how to drive a car safely," she began.

"I think that is very good. But why don't they give us a course in how to handle money wisely?

"Ever since I was a sophomore, I have clerked in a store on Saturdays and during vacation. And I have bought my own clothes with my own money.

"But a lot of girls have no judgment about money. Their parents gave them oodles to spend as a weekly allowance, and also furnish them all the clothes they want.

* * *

"In spite of this, the girls are usually broke and want to borrow money from me. What sort of wives will they make if they don't know how to live on a budget?"

SCHOOL IMPROVEMENTS

Money management is the blind spot of modern education, yet is is basic to successful homes.

* * *

Alas, many college graduates keep falling back on their parents for cash handouts, or move in with the in-laws from time to time when they can't support themselves.

They resent being thought immature or tied to mamma's apron strings, but they show equal junvenility by being tied to papa's purse string.

It is a helpful innovation to teach teen-agers how to drive an automobile safely. We need more of such practial inclusions in the curriculum.

STREAMLINE HIGH SCHOOL

For example, every high school ought to have a semester course on Applied Psychology. Most business and educational leaders admit that psychology counts at least 50 per cent toward future success.

Then why not start an intensely practical course on that subject in high school? It could show efficiently, How to carry on conversation.

How to win friends. How to overcome stuttering and stage fright. How to make a sale. And how to resist high pressure salesmanship, which is equally improtant.

Another equally popular and fascinating course should be entitled applied medicine. It could contain helpful advice on a wide variety of useful topics, including handling of babies, how to diet sensibly, etc.

* * *

Under this medical course could be included hygiene and sexual advice for both boys and girls entering the teens.

PRACTICAL FINANCE

A third very much needed inclusion at the high school level is a course on Money Management. It should include homework assignments in which students must operate their own home via the budget plan for 30 days.

It could stress the merits of "earned" money vs. the "allowance" (dole). Special credit could be allotted to students like Lois who work in local stores or who operate newspaper routes.

The vast majority never go on to college, even for a single semester. So let's streamline high school and give youth a dynamic curriculum that will return more good to the supporting taxpayers.

Meanwhile, send for my "Test for a Good Teacher," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents. It shows how to evaluate topnotch educators.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Crane's Son Killed

CHICAGO (AP) — Two of four Marine Cougar jet planes flying in training formation collided in flight Saturday, killing one pilot whose plane crashed in suburban Glenview.

The other flier was Major Max E. Olinger, 33, of Grand Rapids.

Crane is the son of Dr. George W. Crane, psychologist and writer whose column appears in The Pontiac Press each day.

The collision occurred at about 1,500 to 2,000 feet before the eyes of hundreds of spectators who were at the Glenview base for an open house program.

Love 'Em, Bilk 'Em and Leave 'Em

Shrewd Lotharios Victimize Good Women

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—It hardly pays these days to be a "good woman" . . . good in the warm, soft, generous, maternally minded sense.

A good woman is sniffed out immediately for a sucker. Imaginative men drain her of her last drop of the milk of human kindness. Also, frequently, her cash.

Why should this be?

* * *

Probably it traces back to the ageless story that to a woman there is nothing so great as romance; whereas men are more versatile. They like ladies, sure, but they hear also the call of the high seas, the low dives, the Lorelei and the thundering rustle-rattle of money.

CASE IN KANSAS CITY

The latest among many cases of good woman humbled by smart man occurred recently in Kansas City where a 45-year-old papa of two sons was convicted of a list of "con" crimes too numerous to mention here.

There was nothing particularly unusual in the number of women he fooled with his philandering (only 8 or 10 were taken in). But the finesse with which he conducted himself should be a lesson to the naive of the female sex.

Without batting one of his small, sad eyes, the fellow implied that he would marry each of the ladies—who ranged in age from 18 to 40.

At all times, he represented himself as a "confirmed bachelor" who was about to topple off the brink of the benedict at any moment. Why? Because for the first time, silly, he "needed" someone. For the first time he was dreaming of a honeymoon in the Ozarks.

He never mentioned children or houses or joint bank accounts. The whole thing was kept on a high ethereal plane.

DIFFERENT PROFESSIONS

With each of the women involved, the balding Lothario was in a different profession. (He picked his professions sympathetically, with the woman's personality in mind.) To an 18-year-old child with clean-cut ideals he was a hospital intern.

To a financially established woman of 40, he was a retired Army colonel doing confidential work for the government.

To a wide-eyed, middle-aged secretary he was a world traveler who never wrote but always phoned her, station-to-station of course, from European ports.

When the girls, to whom he vaguely proposed, would begin to discuss itchily the basic facts of wedding planning, our boy would never balk. He would argue about the honeymoon site—then be called away on a trip.

* * *

One woman was happily calmed, after four years of waiting, by his urging that she go out and buy wallpaper for a house he had just bought for them in Denver.

CODDLING, CUDDLING

In return for his clever conniving, Mister X has received more than 10 years worth of coddling and cuddling, and more thousands of dollars than will ever be known about.

* * *

The reason it won't be known about is that good women are not only kind and warm and generous, they are also loyal and true.

When he was picked up, finally, for his connivery, few of the women involved were bitter. And none demanded their money back. They were mainly, as the police pointed out, "disappointed."

Lover-boy's sentence was just 14 months, to be spent in the exclusive company of men. Just about enough time to relax and sharpen up his romantic technique for possible gay deceptions in the future.

* * *

There is only one moral to this story.

A good man nowadays is hard to find. But a good woman presents no problems.

But Sir, All They Did Was to Hold Hands

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (AP)—Patrolman Kay Rupert followed for several blocks when he saw two cars driving awfully close together. They were so close the man driving one car was holding hands with the girl driving the other.

Patrolman Rupert wrote out traffic tickets for Barbara Maxine Newman, 20, and Charles Dale Pike, 21.

The charge: careless driving.

Decrease Noted in Bad Drivers

Revocation of Licenses Major Factor in State's Reduction of Fatalities

LANSING (AP) — Secretary of State James M. Hare said that more bad drivers were removed from the state's highways in June than in any previous month in the department's history.

Hare said his driver improvement staff suspended or revoked 1,005 licenses during the month, many of them under a new program in which law officers cite bad drivers for re-examination.

June suspensions and revocations were up 50 per cent over the May total, Hare said, and the figure is expected to climb during the summer.

The secretary of state said that during the first six months of the year his department sent out 7,400 warning letters to bad drivers. This compares with 7,500 for all of 1955.

"The reduction in the number of deaths reported through the first six months of 1956 as compared with the same period last year indicates that we are doing a reasonably good job," Hare said.

"However, we are just coming into the months of heavy traffic during the summer and if we are to keep our traffic deaths low we must have the cooperation not only of all the governmental agencies involved but particularly this must be the everlasting concern of everyone driving on the roads."

Under a new program launched in February, police officers were supplied with special forms on which they were asked to cite drivers who they considered mentally or physically incompetent to drive, or who were nabbed for serious moving traffic violations.

RE-EXAMINED FIRST

The forms are sent to the secretary of state's office where they are reviewed. In most cases, the drivers involved are called in to be re-examined before state hearing officers.

Judge Marvin J. Salmon of Ingham County Circuit Court ruled recently that the secretary of state does not have the power to deny renewal of licenses because of bad driving records.

But his ruling did not touch on the power of the secretary of state to suspend or revoke licenses, or deny renewals, on several other grounds.

Refugee Official Dies

GENEVA (AP)— Dr. G. J. Van Heuven Goedhart, U.N. high commissioner for refugees, died last night while playing tennis at a suburban court. The Dutch-born Van Heuven Goedhart, 55, had headed the U.N. agency dealing with refugee problems since 1951. The office won the Nobel Peace Prize for 1954.

Crash Victims 'Buried' Today

67 From TWA Plane Given Services; 3 Bodies Sent to Homes

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (AP) — Sixty-seven coffins rested in rows among the pines of Flagstaff Cemetery today.

* * *

They were brought to the grassy slope to be lowered into the earth at a mass burial service for the people who lost their lives when a Trans World Airlines Super Constellation crashed in the Grand Canyon June 30.

Partial remains of only nine of the victims have been identified.

There were 70 persons aboard the plane when it collided with a United Air Lines DC7. The bodies of three TWA victims have been sent to their homes for burial. Separate services are being arranged for the 58 people killed aboard the DC7.

Of the 67 coffins that will rest in the Flagstaff plit, there is one small one. It represents a 3-week-old infant, the unnamed child of Mr. and Mrs. John Maag of Los Angeles, who also died in the crash.

* * *

There were about 250 relatives and friends of the crash victims in Flagstaff for today's services. Seventy-eight of them were flown by TWA from Kansas City, destination of more than 20 passengers aboard the Constellation.

THREE IMPORTANT QUESTIONS FOR FATHERS

. . . the answers are vital to their families

The answers to three simple questions may help show the difference which would occur in the standard of living of a family if a father were not here. These are the important questions:

Question 2. How much would the family spend if the father's expenses were eliminated?

If the answer to question 3 is subtracted from question 2, one will get the minimum amount of monthly income a father should be planning to provide to protect his family . . . and a good way to do this is through the Metropolitan Family Income Plan.

Every father should consider these important features of the Metropolitan Family Income Plan:

1. Each father can choose the amount of monthly income needed—$100 a month, $200 or more.

2. If he should die at any time within 20 years, the Metropolitan Family Income Plan will provide this income for his family each month for the remainder of the 20 years, and then a cash settlement equal to the face amount of the policy.

3. If the father should live beyond the 20 years, he and his family can have continuing insurance protection for the full face amount of his policy as long as he lives.

Here is a way a father can help solve the problems of protecting his family today. Ask your Metropolitan Representative to give you the details on the Family Income Plan. It is easy to get in touch with him, for . . .

Metropolitan service is as local as Main Street . . . as close as your phone

The Blonde Cried MURDER

By Brett Halliday

THE STORY: A frightened young woman appeared at Mike Shayne's hotel. She tells the private detective that she found her murdered brother in a room at the Hibiscus Hotel. When she left the room to call for help the body disappeared. Then she was pursued by a scar-faced man.

IX

He listened for quite a time. Finally he said, "Thanks, Ollie. Any time I can give you a hand—". He hung up and returned to his chair with a scowl.

"The house detective at the Hibiscus gives it about the way you tell it. The first part, that is. They don't know anything about you being chased out of the hotel. They had the call you say you made from 360 about a murdered man and went there first because the switchboard girl thought you must mean that room instead of 316 which she first thought you said. But they checked both rooms carefully and found no body nor any trace of murder. So they didn't report it to the police, naturally. Thinking it was a hoax."

"You think so too, don't you? That I'm just making it all up?"

He shrugged noncommittally. "Not necessarily. The man chasing you through the alley sounds real enough. Did the taxi driver happen to see him too?" he added casually.

"Yes, he did. And also the lady who was in the cab when I hailed it. You can ask them both."

"Get the number of the cab or the driver's name?"

"N-no."

"Or the name of the other passenger?"

SIT BACK DOWN!

"No. Oh, you're just as bad as I knew the police would be," she flared out, getting to her feet abruptly and swaying a little. "How can I prove it? I know my brother's been murdered. I saw him. It wasn't any hallucination."

"Sit back down," Shayne said soothingly. "I'm sure you saw something to make you believe that. I'm not denying anything. Let's see if you can figure it out. Is your brother any sort of practical joker?"

"No." She reseated herself.

"After the victim's throat has been cut?" she demanded angrily. "Mr. Shayne, I saw the gaping hole."

Shayne got up and began to stride back and forth across the room. "You didn't go in the first time. Didn't make even a cursory search?"

IN THE CLOSET?

"No. My only thought was to get to a telephone."

"So the murderer could have been in there—in the bathroom or closet?"

"I suppose so. I didn't look."

"And how long would you say you were gone to find another phone?"

"Not more than two minutes, I think. Three or four at the most. I didn't waste any time going or coming."

Shayne shrugged and said doubtfully. "If it weren't for the man chasing you, I'd think you had some sort of hallucination about seeing your brother. As it is—I still don't see what I can do, but I will go over to the Hibiscus with you and get hold of the house detective and check the whole thing a little more thoroughly than they probably did the first time."

The idea of returning to the Hibiscus appeared to frighten her all over again, and she asked despairingly, "Do I have to? Can't I just be your client, and you do the checking?" Her hands eagerly opened the black suede bag in her lap. "I've got money here. Plenty of cash. I can pay you a retainer!"

Shayne shook his head, studying her harassed features carefully. "Right now I'm not at all sure there's any case for me to take a retainer on." He didn't tell her the truth—that he didn't like crazy clients and that he was beginning to suspect she was as nutty as a fruit-cake.

But the look of utter desperation that settled over her at his words moved him to go on hastily, "Suppose I nose around and see what I can find out. If anything has happened to your brother, it'll be time enough to talk about a retainer." He stood up briskly. "I suppose I can reach you at the Roney? What's your name and room number?"

THAT AWFUL FACE

"Do I have to go back there?" She shuddered and her eyes were liquidly appealing. "Whoever did that to my brother must know where we're staying. I keep seeing that awful, scarred face in my mind. I—I—couldn't I just stay here while you go and see?"

Shayne hesitated, his angular face tightening.

Not unkindly, he said, "I don't think that would be such a good idea, but I've got a much better one." He crossed to the center table and opened a drawer to take out a sheet of his office paper. With a pen he wrote Lucy Hamilton's name and address on it, and added a brief note:

Angel:

Be just that and take care of the bearer. Put your chain on the door and don't let anyone in to her until you hear from me. She may be in great danger.

Mike.

He handed it to her to read. "My secretary," he explained. "I'll put you in a taxi for her place. No one can possibly find you there, and I'll know exactly where you are when I need you."

Suddenly he tensed, as if he thought he heard someone in the outside hallway.

Let's All Sing the 'Rock 'n' Roll Hymn'

After several starts, she would plunk her elbows down on her knees and put her head down.

"What's the matter, Donnette, don't you like to sing?" someone asked.

"Yes," came a firm answer, "but I'd rather sing 'The Rock and Roll Waltz'—I know it better."

Button Protects Cab Drivers From Bandits

MEXICO CITY (AP)—A Mexican fireman has invented a pushbutton device to subdue holdup men preying on taxi drivers.

* * *

Oscar Romer Berumen's device won't cost much to make. By simply stepping on a button on the floor, Romero says, his invention will:

1. Throw open the driver's door, permitting him to escape.
2. Lock all other doors automatically.
3. Shoot the cab full of tear gas.

* * *

Romero says this will trap the holdup man, and so incapacitate him he can't escape. He admits the same thing could happen to an innocent fare if a foot-happy driver stepped on the button accidentally. But he doesn't think this would happen often.

Japan Reports Shock Waves

Seismographs Indicate U.S. May Have Set Off Another Nuclear Blast

TOKYO (AP)—Japan's weather bureau said abnormal earth shock and atmospheric pressure waves indicate the United States may have set off another big nuclear blast today at the Bikini testing grounds.

* * *

The bureau said the shock waves were recorded by seismographs 150 miles north of Tokyo at 3 a.m. Japan time today. (2 p.m. EST, Sunday).

About three hours later weather bureau stations throughout Japan picked up unusual atmospheric pressure waves, which travel slower than the earth shocks. They came from about 2,400 miles off, in the direction of Bikini, the bureau said.

Meteorologists gauged the strength of the explosion as about equal to one they reported June 26. They also have reported indications of nuclear blasts at Bikini May 21, May 28, June 13 and July 3.

* * *

The United States has been conducting a series of nuclear tests at Bikini since early May. It set off a hydrogen bomb there May 21, but has not confirmed or denied the other Japanese explosion reports.

Huge Fire Destroys Mid-City Buildings

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—A fast-moving fire engulfed six large buildings in the business heart of Springfield early today, causing damage estimated by fire officials at "hundreds of thousands of dollars." No casualties were reported.

Firemen contained the blaze within the six-building area after it spread rapidly from a two-story brick structure housing the Eisner Food Center, headquarters of an Illinois grocery chain.

The blaze spread through walls and over rooftops, fanned by a crisp breeze. An adjoining four-story building housing a department store and several apartments was engulfed by flames, as were a restaurant, a clothing store, a bakery and a vacant building.

Big Drop in Bucket

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP)—Lee Marmon dropped in at an Albuquerque bank to make a deposit. The teller politely handed him a blank and suggested he fill it out. He did so, right at the window. She gasped. It was a deposit of $153,000. When the teller got her breath back, Marmon, treasurer of the Laguna Tribe, explained the money was from the tribal fund.

Two Groups Study School Situation in Walled Lake

LAKE ORION PICNIC—Luncheon on the shore of Lake Orion in the park which the city commissioners have just opened to other than the town's residents, are, left to right, Geraldine Case of Joslyn Road, Aaron Sanford of Mill Lake and Ronald Case of Joslyn Road. The park is on M-24. Because of limited facilities, the commission had restricted park use to Orion residents, but objections of nearby business operators swayed their decision.

Picnic Grounds at Lake Orion and New Boat Ramp Gain Favor

The council recently agreed to open the village park for use of passersby and provide extra personnel to keep it clean.

The park is open from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. only, and parking is limited to two hours. There are no places available to change for swimming.

Several months ago the park was closed to all except village residents because the state health department condemned the concession stand which provided the only attendant in the park, and it was considered impossible to care for facilities under these conditions.

The decision was reversed this week when bait sellers, boat operators and a nearby businessman presented a request to reopen the park to the public because of the extra trade, but no facilities have been opened.

A public fishing site on Indianwood road offers better facilities and a larger unlimited parking area for those who come to Orion for a longer stay or wish to fish earlier in the day.

The little village park affords an excellent view of the panorama on a larger inland lake, and an excellent place for a quiet picnic. A shuffleboard and some playground equipment will entertain the small fry.

For the new boat ramp which has been completed at the end of Lake street, a cement slab extends several feet out into the lake. It enables boat trailers to be backed easily into the water so that outboard motors may be kept on the boat as the boat is launched.

The village council stresses that there is no parking on Lake street, and the free municipal parking lot is available to all fishermen about three blocks away.

Shown in launching process is a police boat purchased by the village council to aid in summer policing to prevent reckless use of boats on the lake.

Study Flooding in Southfield

State Health Official Tours; Offers Advice but No Solution

SOUTHFIELD—No solution could be given to Southfield's flooding problem by a Michigan health department engineer who toured the affected area last week.

* * *

Engineer Maurice S. Richmond told Supervisor Eugene Swem that the department's chief concern in floods was to keep raw sewage from entering basements, and that it has "no jurisdiction" over flooding of rain water, which isn't a danger to health.

1. No additional storm capacity can be allowed into the Murray drain in an effort to relieve flooding in neighboring Oak Park.

Richmond said the size of the Murray downstream isn't large enough to take any additional load.

2. Compulsory sump pumps and backwater valves in new homes included in "critical" drainage aeras would probably keep storm water and sewage out of basements.

The plan was proposed to the township board as a means of keeping basements dry in new homes at least.

3. Storm water must be eliminated from the sewer system in Meadowvale subdivision to prevent sewage from entering basements.

But Richmond had no solution to the flooding problems in Cambridge Village and Canterbury Gardens where Southfield has banned further building.

4. Southfield can take over operation of the Cranbrook Village sewage treatment plant after it has been put on a workable basis.

* * *

Southfield, Oak Park and Berkley are seeking a temporary solution to basement flooding until the Twelve-Town drain and a system of Southfield drains westward to the Rouge river can be built.

Orion Boat Club Elects Staff; Slates Races

LAKE ORION — At a recent meeting of the Lake Orion Boat Club the following officers were elected: Elmer Ewald, reelected as commodore; John O. McComb, vice-commodore; Mike Caldwell, rear commodore; James Norton, reelected secretary-treasurer.

Plans for boat races to be held in August were discussed.

The first plans for replacement of their club house which was on the island and burned last year, indicate that it will be relocated on leased land in the Village Park.

Ducks on Highway Cause Crash, Injuries to Driver

A Flint man suffered minor lacerations in a two-car collision which was blamed on a flock of ducks crossing the road Saturday night on Telegraph Rd., Waterford Township.

* * *

David May, 28, of Flint, one of the drivers, was treated and released at Pontiac General Hospital following the accident.

The other car was driven by William C. Merz, 42, of Drayton Plains. May told investigating township police his car was struck in the rear by the Merz car when he stopped to allow a flock of ducks to cross the highway.

Miss Universe Beauties Arriving for Contest

NEW YORK (AP)—The prettiest girls in 10 countries have whirled into town on their way to the Miss Universe Beauty Pageant in California.

The shapely beauties leave Wednesday for the contest at Long Beach, Calif., July 12 to 23.

Yesterday's arrivals included the Misses Belgium, Sweden, Canada, Cuba, England, France, Germany, Italy, Turkey and Brazil.

30-Man Unit Deciding Today on Extra-Tax Vote

WALLED LAKE—A group of 30 businessmen and other prominent citizens will decide this afternoon whether or not a July 23 school election will be held to raise additional tax money for school operation.

* * *

From 1:30 until 5:30 p.m. this afternoon the group will review and analyze the school budget, enrollment and financial statistics before making a recommendation.

If the group decides that an election is necessary, the school board will probably discuss election details at its regular July meeting slated for 8 p.m. tonight in the Junior High School on the Pontiac Trail.

The board will consider bids for workmen's compensation, gasoline, fuel oil, ice cream and milk for the 1956-57 school year.

Inquest Ordered in Judge's Death

Jurist Discovered Shot in Temple; Caudle Trial Result May Be Delayed

ST. LOUIS (AP)—An inquest was scheduled today in the death of U.S. Dist. Judge Rubey M. Hulen, 61-year-old jurist who was found fatally wounded in the back yard of his suburban home.

The judge was found Saturday with a bullet wound in his right temple, at a spot in his back yard where he occasionally practiced marksmanship. He died on a hospital operating table less than four hours later.

Coroner Patrick E. Taylor said powder burns were found on the right temple. He said the bullet had passed through the right temple and emerged at the left side of the top of the head.

A 22-caliber automatic pistol, found near Judge Hulen's feet, was taken to the St. Louis police crime laboratory for analysis.

A psychiatrist said he had been treating Judge Hulen since last fall for insomnia and a nervous condition.

Judge Hulen's death raised a question whether another judge who had not heard the trial of Matthew J. Connelly and T. Lamar Caudle could pass sentence on the two men. Motions for a new trial also are scheduled to be heard July 19.

Connelly was appointments secretary to former President Truman and Caudle was former head of the Justice Department's Tax Division. They were convicted of conspiring to defraud the government by stalling the prosecution of an income tax evasion case here.

New Staff Elected by Indian Lake

They will elect the officers from this group at their first meeting.

The Association has voted to construct an entrance at Lakeview Boulevard designating it as a private road.

Plans have been made to improve the beach and docking facilities on the park which is open to area residents only.

Civil War Vet Resting

DULUTH, Minn. (AP) — Albert Woolson, 109, last survivor of the Union Army of Civil War, was reported making satisfactory recovery today from a lung congestion condition which hospitalized him about six weeks ago. The old veteran is able to be up and around his hospital room and enjoys several cigars a day.

'Save Schools' Group Forms

Pressure for 'Yes' Vote on Millage Proposal Would Be Placed

WALLED LAKE—The SOS organization, whose letters stand for "Save Our Schools," has been reactivated in Walled Lake school district.

* * *

It was instrumental in securing a favorable vote on a bond issue for a new high school after the first one was defeated, and now it will push for the passage of a two-mill levy for operating purposes when the measure comes up for a second vote on July 23.

Mrs. Kathryn Taylor invited 30 key people to her home Thursday night to reactivate the organization which will supply posters, fliers, and reminders prior to the election.

Mrs. Taylor was named president; Harold Hill, vice president; Mrs. Watson Stringer, secretary; and Mrs. Alfred Dixon, treasurer. Others are Rudolpe Glowacke, posters; Mrs. Owen Clevering, distribution of materials; and Mrs. Lloyd Tinder, publicity.

Another meeting of the board is planned for Tuesday, July 10.

Voters in the district have until July 13 to register. Those residing in the city of Walled Lake will register at the city office. All others may register with their township clerks.

Arrangements have been made to have absentee ballots available for those who will be out of town on election day. These may be applied for in the office of the superintendent of schools in Walled Lake from 8 to 4 Monday through Friday prior to the election.

County Hospital Head Attending Session on Aged

Howard B. Estes, manager, Oakland County Convalescent Hospital, is attending the University of Michigan's ninth annual Conference on Aging today through Wednesday, in Ann Arbor.

* * *

Titled "Health for the Aging," the total attendance is expected to run between 500 and 800 persons.

The meeting will be concerned with such problems as the lack of specialized medicine facilities for elderly persons, their inability to meet maojr medical expenses through income or insurance and the need to check chronic disease development by preventive care early in life.

Two Men Injured in Two-Car Crash

LAKE ORION—Robert Sanford of Orion Twp. was released yesterday afternoon from the Lapeer General Hospital after two days treatment of lacerations of the arms and a head injury following a car collision.

The cars of Sanford and Robert Schaaf of Lapeer collided at the junction of new M-24 with old M-24 Friday evening. Sanford was thrown from his vehicle.

Schaaf's car had been on the left shoulder facing south and had suddenly crossed the highway in the path of Sanford's car which was going north.

BUILDING UP FIREMEN'S FUND—Saturday and Sunday are "Car Wash Days" at the Commerce Township Fire Department Hall at 593 West Commerce Road as evidenced by the busy hands of Harold Cromes, kneeling; Jim Barber, with hose; and Clarence Kuttkuhn, with sponge. Kuttkuhn is assistant to Fire Chief Ray Price; Cromes and Barber are volunteer firemen. Both regular firemen and volunteers are donating their labor from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. each Saturday and from 9 a.m. until 1 a.m. each Sunday in an effort to build up a Volunteer Firemen's Fund. The fund, boosted from $50 to $150 thus far despite rainy weekends, should reach $1,000 before the summer is over they say. The money to be used to help the family of any volunteer fireman who is injured or killed in a fire. The 28 volunteer firemen take turns at the job of washing cars. With no set fee for a car wash, the customer makes a donation.

Lots of Changes to Make

Need New Sky Controls, Crash Prober Indicates

GRAND CANYON, Ariz. (AP) — Are the nation's air control laws outmoded?

Perhaps, say Civil Aeronautics Board officials responsible for the formulation of air traffic regulations.

* * *

But some Civil Aeronautics Administration men—the fellows who have to make the regulations work—believe a lot of changes will have to be made.

This summary shaped up today after a House Commerce subcommittee's weekend inquiry into the TWA-United Air Lines crash that cost 128 lives.

Some of the suggestions developed by the hearing include controlled airways coast to coast, more ground communications stations, electronic warning systems for airliners, and closer liaison between the CAB and CAA.

* * *

"The regulations need an overhauling," said Harris after a Las Vegas, Nev., hearing and a visit to the crash site.

"We have been working under the same rules for 12 years."

The subcommittee will not make any formal recommendations until further hearings are held in Washington. The group wants to hear from other airlines besides TWA and United.

The collision—officially verified by William K. Andrews, CAB chief investigator — occurred off CAA-controlled airways, of which there are 26. Andrews testified that TWA, which changed its flight plan after leaving Los Angeles, had full responsibility for looking out for United.

* * *

But Oscar Bakke, CAB deputy director of safety regulations, testified that United had equal responsibility for looking out for TWA. Bakke was supported by CAB Chairman James R. Durfee.

A CAA witness, John A. Garrison, agreed with Andrews. He indicated United had priority at the 21,000-foot level, where the crash presumably took place.

* * *

Witnesses testified that TWA was informed United was at that elevation, but United wasn't told that TWA was coming into its flight level.

* * *

Why? Procedures did not require it, was the answer given the subcommittee.

To Chairman Harris' suggestion that carriers be required to follow government airways on all routes, Bakke replied he didn't think that would allow pilots enough flexibility. Bakke said, however, the CAB is considering new regulations for heavy traffic areas and perhaps certain high-altitude operations.

The House group is not seeking to fix the cause of the Grand Canyon crash. That will be done by the CAB in a hearing to be called after it has completed its investigation in about two weeks.

Detroiter Succumbs Following Accident

Internal injuries suffered in what appeared to be a minor accident in Oakland County June 23 were announced as the cause of death of a Detroit man who died at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital there Sunday.

Angelo Marchiori, 56, was found to have four fractured ribs, a possible fractured trachia, and a lung injury after entering the hospital the day after the incident and was being treated for the injuries up until the time of his death, according to Waterford Township police who had handled the accident three weeks ago.

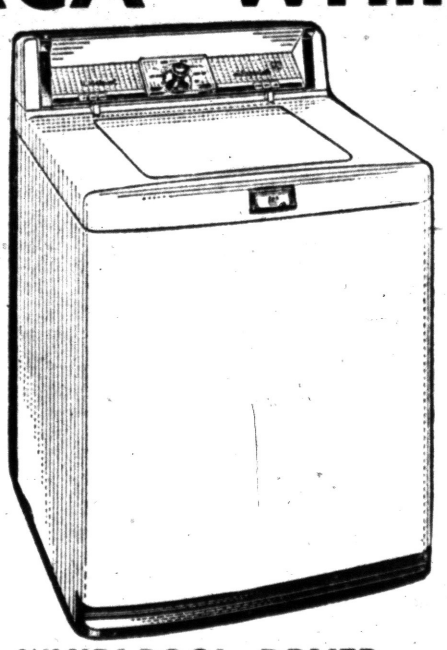

Marchiori was the driver of a car which rammed the rear of another vehicle at Dixie and Rural Roads in Waterford Township. The man appeared to have suffered only a cut lip in the crash and went home shortly after, the investigators said.

The traffic victim reportedly entered the hospital the next day after a fainting spell to be treated for a severe respiratory distress. Further examination disclosed the serious injuries.

Coats with the Empire look for fall are receiving plenty of attention in New York this week. At left is Monte-Sano and Pruzan's "purl tweed" coat. It is shaped in semi-fitted, double breasted silhouette and collared in one with its scarf. Dark gray is mixed with black in the spongy-textured fabric. At right is Claire McCardell's "Carpet Bagger" stormcoat of brownleaf printed cotton. Matching skirt is designed with a high, rib belt.

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—Fashion is returning to the good old days, it was apparent today as New York designers previewed their fall collections for the nation's press.

The 1912 look is the big news of fall fashions, expressed by a return to full-length evening dresses, softened Empire lines, greater elaboration and a return to feminine formality.

After exploring the flapper era for several seasons, designers have hit on the period preceding World War I as inspiration for fashions expressing the ladylike look of today. Sensing the fact that women are weary of careless clothes, they usher in a new mode of strictly feminine elegance, with lines clearly drawn between fashions for daytime, the cocktail hour and evening.

* * *

Although the predominant silhouette is still the sheath, it is softened and elaborated by feminine drapery, floating panels and fine details of trimming. The Empire line is important in all collections, with belts just below the bust in most cases, midriffs slim and waistlines unaccented. Shoulders are natural or sloping, skirts are narrow and hemlines unchanged except for evening gowns, which are long if they carry out the newest look.

* * *

Clothes like grandmother used to wear are present in abundance, recognized by their new air of femininity, their formality, the richness of their fabrics, their elaboration of detail and the accessories that set them off — big, important hats, big fur muffs, little pointed shoes and lacy handkerchiefs suitable for dropping.

Mannequins modeling the new fashions usually wear their hair done up in a Psyche knot or a chignon, and they have acquired a new stance — back straight, head erect, chin up, manner haughty. None of the debutante slouch, none of the loose-jointed college girl amble.

* * *

Suits for fall have short jackets which manage an Empire look by accent rather than cut. Some have little belts applied just below the the shoulder blades in back; some have tabs, seams or other detail just below the bust in front. Waistlines are unaccented, though present, and skirts are slim, sometimes with low-placed interest in back—a pleat, a slit or a detail of trimming just above the hemline.

Dresses soften the austerity of the sheath with soft drapery, asymmetric closings, floating panels or accents of feminine lace or embroidery.

* * *

Skirt fullness is limited principally to after-5 costumes, and the newest full skirts have a barrel shape, being drawn in slightly at the hemline.

Evening gowns return to full magnificence and full-length formality with the long velvet or satin sheath in top favor. Satin sheaths sometimes have a deep tailored cuff around the hemline, in the 1912 manner. Chiffon evening gowns often are slim, with elaborate drapery and floating panels at side or back. The camisole top is important for evening fashion's as is the bodice with narrow shoulder straps. Accompanying the new full-length gowns are dramatic evening coats, floor-length and made of rich brocades, velvets, lames or fur-trimmed wool.

* * *

Coats have an Empire look too, achieved by accents such as high-placed tabs or half belts. There are more fur-trimmed coats than in a number of years, and for the sports car set the hooded car coat is a new necessity.

The casual look is restricted to sportswear this season. For all town appearances, ladies will dress to the teeth.

Couple Married Saturday in Candlelight Ceremony

To reside on Murphy street are Lois Miller and Roy L. McClusky who were married at a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening at Central Methodist Church.

A gown of Chantilly lace with a neckline edged in scalloped French clipped lace was worn by the bride. Her bouffant skirt with inserts of accordion pleated nylon tulle fell from a basque waistline.

She carried a white orchid surrounded with white rosebuds and white streamers tied in lovers' knots on a white satin Bible and wore a head hugging cap of lace trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. Her imported silk illusion veil was finger tip length.

The bride is the daughter of the Emmett Millers of Prall street, and his parents are Mr. and Mrs. John McClusky of Liberty street.

WEAR NYLON SHEER

Mrs. Robert Thayer was matron of honor, and Adana McClusky, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. Their dresses were styled alike in white nylon sheer with aqua bow knots and full skirts trimmed with crystalette.

Melissa McClusky, sister of the bridegroom, wore pink organdy for her duties as flower girl. She carried a basket of pink and white rose petals.

Serving as best man was Ray Reffett of Mt. Morris. Robert McClusky, brother of the bridegroom, Mark Tharcher and Henry Freigruber of Detroit were ushers. Gary Sherwood was ring bearer.

At the reception held in the church parlors, Mrs. Miller greeted the guests wearing a pink lace sheath dress with a silk bolero and white accessories. Her corsage was of shades of pink roses.

Mrs. McClusky wore a gray sheer print with yellow accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Spotlighters Plan Dance on Saturday

Posters advertising the Mid-Summer Swirl, the dance sponsored by the Spotlighters of Birmingham, have been distributed in and around Birmingham.

The semi-formal is slated for Saturday evening at Birmingham Country Club with dancing to a local band from 9:30 p.m. to 1:30 a.m. This is the first big social activity of the season for the Spotlighters, a group of young adults from Holy Name Parish, Birmingham.

Joan Mularoni and Don Degen are handling ticket sales for the affair.

Tuxedo coat of nubby beige and brown tweed has natural lynx trim. Designed for Originala's fall and winter collection, the collar is deep and squared in back. The hat is by John Frederics.

Maureen Kelly Becomes Bride at Grace Lutheran

Baskets of white gladioli and iris decorated the altar of Grace Lutheran Church Thursday evening for the wedding of Maureen Kay Kelly and Robert L. Brennan.

The 8 o'clock service was performed by the Rev. John C. Streit of Covenant Lutheran Church, Detroit.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly of Mohawk road and Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Brennan of Elizabeth Lake road.

The ballerina-length bridal gown of white lace featured a princess-style bodice and a bouffant skirt. A tiara headpiece trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent sequins secured her fingertip veil of illusion.

ATTENDS SISTER

For the ceremony, Mrs. Kelly wore a mint green dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Brennan selected a dress of gray lace over taffeta with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The new Mrs. Brennan changed to a navy blue and white shantung dress with white accessories for traveling to northern Michigan. The white orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet completed her ensemble.

The bridegroom will leave for Germany, where he will be stationed with the U. S. Army, the latter part of July. She will join him there in September.

Miss Lanpher's Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Weston Lanpher of East Beverly avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Guyneth Ann, to Robert Barton Corbin, son of the Rev. and Mrs. A. Corbin of Washington, N. J.

Guyneth was graduated from Nyack Missionary College in New York and is doing graduate work at Oneonta State Teachers College in Oneonta, N. Y. Robert is a student at Nyack Missionary College. The couple plan a winter wedding.

Good Grooming Will Help Land That Job

There's nothing quite like talent or skill to get a gal a job. There are few substitutes.

But many highly skilled women have lost out on good jobs because of other matters. One gal lost a job when she set her coffee cup down on the floor. Another woman failed at the last minute when a rummage in her pocketbook to find a pencil exposed a good deal of senseless debris.

A job-hunting young woman should take all precautions to be sure no grooming liability will lose her a job for which she's qualified.

A dress rehearsal of the complete outfit should be held for someone, probably one's mother. A coordinated, conservative outfit should be checked in all details—sound hems, clean gloves, clean collar back, organized pocketbook, becoming hat.

USE LEMON TRICK

Anything that doesn't measure up—yellowed gloves, for instance—should be washed or repaired.

There are very few jobs for which being a raving beauty is an absolute requirement. But there are conversely mighty few jobs for which dirty skin or stringy hair is a recommendation. A good workout with a complexion brush and lots of soapsuds can give a glow of cleanliness and health, even if it won't make one a Helen of Troy. A thorough shampoo is vital.

Half a lemon will remove discolorations around fingernails, knuckles and elbows. Pay attention to the first finger's joint, if you're a smoker.

A decent breakfast will keep the knees from buckling. It will also replace the resident butterflies. Don't neglect a workout after breakfast, with the toothbrush.

If there are times when nothing you try on seems right, don't blame the new fashions. Most likely it's you.

A smoothing out of the waistline, exercises to reduce the hips, a trimming down of the upper arms and the clothes will look miraculously right again.

Suds Open Umbrella

The open umbrella should be put in the tub and swabbed thoroughly on both sides, then rinsed with the shower. It should stay open until completely dry. This stretches the fabric so that it dries smooth.

For Good Form It's Swim Suits With Built-Ins

NEW YORK (NEA) — This summer, the girl on the beach needn't have a perfect figure in order to look pretty in a swimsuit.

The built-in bra (and even the built-in girdle) are signs that designers and manufacturers realize that all girls are not endowed by nature with perfect forms. A girl may need help in fooling her public and certainly she needs it when she dons a swimsuit.

Higher neckline cuts and a generally more covered-up look are the marks of the 1956 swimsuit. Add to these the little boy shorts and sleek lines and you've a picture of smooth femininity.

Some suits even have little detachable white collars. There are many high camisole or bateau necklines, many V-necklines.

Mrs. Ella Archer Entertains Group

Mrs. Ella Archer of Adelaide street entertained 22 members of the Pontiac League of the Blind and their friends from Detroit and Saginaw, at a cooperative picnic Saturday.

Mother Should Affirm Life's Joys

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

* * *

At the one where Joe was, it sometimes rained. Then, if you stood at a window, the grayness outside could suddenly reflect the bleak, gray, unshaped future before you so that you wanted to scream, "Yeah—but when I get out of here, who, what, where, how?"

At Joe's reformatory, he washed and waxed floors on his hands and knees. The food he ate came as cheap as the chef who cooked it.

At night he slept in a room with 19 other sleepers who ground their teeth through dreams of reprisal for humiliations not disclosed by the clinic's psychological tests.

His letters, going and coming, were read by strangers' eyes.

TIME OF HIS LIFE

Yet if you ever tuned in on his mother's visiting day conversation with him, you'd have thought he was having the time of his life.

* * *

She'd say, "You think I've got it good on my feet all day at the cafeteria? You don't appreciate what you got—that's you.

"You got a landlord to come banging down your door every first of the month like me? Never knowing when your father's going to start knocking me around? You know all he ever needs is get a little liquor in hhe . . ."

* * *

Lots of us think we are very superior to her.

BUT WE AREN'T

Not all of us are. Right now, in a respectable house in some respectable, non-delinquency neighborhood in towns over this land, some woman is saying to a child:

"The trouble with you is you don't appreciate anything. If I'd been given piano lessons when I was a girl, nobody would have ever had to tell me to practice. But I wasn't given them. My parents couldn't afford to give me what you get. I got one new dress every summer . . ."

In respectable neighborhoods, there are no social workers around to scrape off the guilt smeared on children by these complaints.

This winter I heard Dr. Erich Fromm, the psychoanalytic thinker, compare motherhood to the "milk and honey" of the Bible's Promised Land.

* * *

He said: "The security a mother gives her child is the milk of the Promised Land; but the honey, the priceless sweetener of his experience, is her affirmation of the goodness of life."

Nobody can possibly affirm the goodness of life to children by degrading the life she is personally living.

Wedding Vows Repeated by Christine Agorgianitis

* * *

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Agorgianitis of Oneida road. George is the son of Mrs. George W. Gary of Wheaton, Ill., and the late Mr. Gary.

The Rev. John C. Streit of Covenant Lutheran Church, Detroit, officiated at the 7 o'clock service, which was witnessed by the immediate families.

A ballerina-length gown of silk organdy was chosen by the bride. The full skirt was accented with embroidery and rhinestones. Scattered rhinestones trimmed the bodice. A cap of white silk organdy secured her shoulder-length veil.

* * *

Mrs. George Pratt was matron of honor. She chose a ballerina-length dress of white and silver metallic organdy. A band of yellow flowers in her hair matched her bouquet of yellow roses, daisies and white carnations.

Sid Jones served as best man.

* * *

Both the newlyweds received their M. A. degrees from the University of Michigan.

MRS. GEORGE E. GARY

Coming Events

Unit Two, MOMS of America Inc. will meet Tuesday at 12:30 p.m. for a cooperative lunch and meeting at the home of Mrs. E. K. Vanderlind, 57 S. Johnson Ave.

The For-Get-Me-Not Birthday Club will meet with Mrs. Vini Barrums, 6100 Lookout Dr., Tuesday for a noon cooperative luncheon.

Norwegian Ladies Aid will meet with Mrs. Thomas Olson, 224 S. Anderson St. Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Dorcas Class members of Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church and their husbands will meet with Mrs. Edward Schultz, 10345 Rattalee Lake Rd. Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. for a cooperative supper.

Quick Sewing Circle will meet with Mrs. Ruth Green, 97 N. Anderson St. Lake Orion Wednesday at 10 a.m. with a cooperative luncheon at noon.

Shoe Tip for Children

Sneakers or playshoes are fine for short periods in the gymnasium or the playing field, but for all-day service foot doctors advise that children wear shoes with leather soles and uppers. Leather uppers give their feet support with flexibility and leather soles absorb the impact of hard concrete.

Three Kinds of Cheese Combined

Mrs. Rosso Rolls Hors d' Oeuvres in Crushed Pecans

Finger food is good summertime food. We serve a good many more cold drinks now and like to have something unusual to serve with them. Do try these Cheese Tidbits, as made by Mrs. John Rosso of Birmingham.

Mrs. Rosso is still a brand new homemaker. A nurse before her marriage, she does volunteer work with residents at the Presbyterian Village.

Cooking, knitting, reading, gardening—she's interested in all of them. She loves to sew and made some of the draperies for her new house.

CHEESE TIDBITS
By Mrs. John Rosso

3 small packages (3 ounce) cream cheese
2 glasses Old English cheese
1 glass Roquefort cheese
3 tablespoons garlic wine vinegar
Small package pecans

Mix cheeses and vinegar together. Chill. Form into balls and roll in pecans which have been crushed. Serve with crackers.

C. Yvonne Schuler Wed at Memorial Baptist

Given in marriage by her father, C. Yvonne Schuler became the bride of Donald R. Baker Friday evening at Memorial Baptist Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee F. Schuler of Bonnie Briar drive. Donald is the son of Mrs. Ocie Baker of Crooks road.

* * *

Serving as maid of honor was Deanna Schuler, sister of the bride. Mrs. Ronald Burrill and Marlene Haimes were also in the wedding party.

The bride changed to a pink linen dress with white accessories and the white orchid from her bridal bouquet for traveling. Following their honeymoon at Niagara Falls and along the eastern coast, they will make their home on Murphy street.

New Lipstick Designed to Last

Good news for the beach and pool bound (and who isn't in summer?) is a waterproof lipstick just introduced by a well-known manufacturer.

* * *

It's designed to last through drinking, eating and swimming. It is not, however, a stain lipstick.

Silicone is one ingredient that makes the lipstick resist water. Women who swear by silicone-based hand lotions for dishwashing can appreciate how the lipstick works.

* * *

Don't Overlook Plain Horse Sense

By ANNE HEYWOOD

There is so much emphasis nowadays on training, college degrees, specialization and contacts that we forget that good plain horse sense has a value, too.

* * *

For example, it was horse sense plus quick thinking and general helpfulness that got Frances a wonderful job.

"I always wanted to be a decorator," Frances writes, "but I married early and had three children. The only decorating I did was in our own house.

"I never had the time—and we didn't have the money—for any specialized training. And that's a field where you have to have it.

* * *

"When the children started going to school, Bill and I decided I should try to get a part-time job.

LEARNS TO TYPE

"I studied typing, because I knew that would help. When I applied at the employment agency, I said that if anything ever came in in the decorating line, where just typing would do, I would love it.

* * *

"A few days later, they called me on a part-time job as receptionist-typist in the showroom of a famous furniture designer. It sounded heavenly, but they warned me there would be a lot of competition.

"The job was open because the present receptionist was leaving to have a baby.

"When I got there, about 40 women were waiting, all applying for the same job.

* * *

"I nearly gave up, but then something happened. The receptionist turned very pale and looked quite sick.

"I remembered the feeling, from my own pregnancies, so I went up and asked if I could help.

SHE TAKES OVER

"She said, 'Sit here and try to get their names, and then she beat it to the ladies' room.

* * *

"It was a madhouse, but I did my best.

"I gave application cards to the newcomers and tried to find the designer—he wasn't in yet.

"When a customer came, I gave her something to read and tried to keep her until the boss came in. It was really hectic.

* * *

A LOT OF HELP

Commonsense and helpfulness may not take the place of a PH.D., but they do help a lot when you're looking for a job.

* * *

If you want a part-time job, don't deplore your lack of training. As a first step, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my pamphlet, "Pointers to Part-Time Jobs."

Comment About Food Irks Woman

Drawing Attention to Lack of Appetite Considered Rude

By EMILY POST

A wife writes: "Several days ago my husband and I had dinner with two other couples. I knew one couple well.

"As I have a rather small appetite and the portion served me was very large, I did not finish my dinner. One of the men commented on this, asking me if the food was not good.

"I thought it rather forward and improper to bring to everybody's attention what I had eaten. My husband thinks there was absolutely nothing wrong in his saying this and says I am very 'touchy.'

"Isn't it wrong, Mrs. Post, for anyone to comment on what someone else has eaten—or hasn't eaten?"

Answer: In my opinion, while not best manners on his part, his comment was not bad enough to be criticized.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I would like to give an afternoon party for my friends from 4 to 6 o'clock. I know that ordinarily at this time of day tea is served and people are invited to afternoon tea.

"However, all of my friends prefer coffee to tea and therefore I plan on serving coffee. In this case, what do I put on the invitations? I can't very well invite people to an afternoon tea when no tea will be served, can I?"

Answer: You simply invite them to "Afternoon Coffee."

"Dear Mrs. Post: When served a paper napkin, what does one do with it after one has finished eating? Is it put at the side of the plate as a linen one is, or is it crumpled together and put on the plate? I would very much appreciate an answer to this question."

Use Vinegar When Minerals Clog Steam Iron

Harriet Brigham, extension home management specialist at Texas A & M College, has these suggestions for care of the steam iron:

If minerals accumulate, put a mixture of half vinegar and half water into the reserve and heat the iron for about 30 minutes at the rayon setting. When the iron cools, flush the reservoir several times with clear water.

However if you must use hard water, fill the reservoir occasionally with distilled vinegar. Steam for 15 minutes and allow to stand overnight. In the morning, rinse the cavity thoroughly with water.

'Creeping Paralysis'

Traffic Congestion Now National Disease

(All U.S. cities, regardless of size, have a common problem: Their streets were not designed to handle the tremendous volume of traffic today. The result is a municipal disease—creeping paralysis. Among its symptoms are loss of trade, lower realty values, drops in city revenue, higher taxes. A nationwide INS survey found this problem tackled in many ways—with varying success. Here is the first of five articles on this disease, its threatened spread, and how it is being fought.)

By JACK LOTTO
INS Staff Writer

America's city streets are suffering from creeping paralysis. The wasteful multi-billion dollar disease is known as traffic congestion. No American escapes the mess.

* * *

Symptoms are everywhere: Bumper to bumper traffic crawls along in New York, Los Angeles, St. Louis, Detroit, Houston, Portland and Indianapolis.

Busy main streets are jammed with illegally parked vehicles in San Francisco, Boston, Denver, Kansas City, and Des Moines. Streets are completely obstructed by delivery trucks in Omaha, Pittsburgh, Chicago, Dallas, Miami and Harrisburg.

For the average citizen, chaotic road conditions add up to higher prices for everything he buys. The motorist pays increased costs to operate his car. The merchant pays in loss of trade and increased costs of doing business. Production schedules of industries are hampered. Municipalities lose revenue from slumping business and realty values. This means more taxes for the small homeowner, and the motorist, among others, to make up the deficiency.

WHO IS TO BLAME?

Who is to blame for coast to coast traffic jams? What is being done to relieve or solve the staggering situation?

The Institute of Traffic Engineers estimates that by 1975, there will be 120,000,000 motor vehicles on the streets and highways.

* * *

St. Louis, which has a stop sign an average of every 764 feet, is a nightmare of stop and go traffic. Dream roads are outdated by the time the first motorist gets to use them.

BUS MAY ANSWER

In 1945, all U.S. bus lines, subways, trolleys, surface and elevated railways carried 18,981,900,000 passengers. Despite the increase in the population from 132,000,000 to 162,000,000, transit riding had plummeted by 1955 to 9,172,000,000, a drop of 5 per cent.

Surveys show all the people crawling along in 40 automobiles in a crowded downtown street at the rush hour can be moved swiftly in one bus. Some cities are experimenting with methods to speed up trainsit service and encourage passenger return.

Rochester, N. Y., Denver, Colo., and Nashville, Tenn., reserve a lane on their main arteries for buses during rush hours. Chicago, Indianapolis and St. Louis plan similar steps.

Philadelphia has a multitude of traffic problems. When Penn selected his city, he nestled it between two rivers, the Delaware and Schuylkill, and laid out narrow streets.

The city grew, population crossed the Schuylkill and created need for bridges to funnel traffic in from all Western and many Northern points.

With the increase of industry and business, more and more of the city's working population was drawn from neighboring New Jersey. Traffic now is channeled across bridges spanning the Delaware River.

TRAFFIC BAN IMPOSED

Mayor Clark in 1952 ordered all car parking banned in a 112-square-block area in the heart of the city from Dec. 1, 1952 to Jan. 5, 1953.

The Philadelphia Merchants Association said business would be ruined. Stopping for passengers was prohibited. Streets adjacent to the "keep out" areas were plastered with no-stopping prohibitions during peak traffic hours.

The Chamber of Commerce reported a jump of 17 per cent in sales by department stores and a 13 per cent increase in business for women's apparel shops. The Merchants Association conceded the traffic measures had "done a world of good."

* * *

The Philadelphia Transportation Company said its surface speeds in the restricted area were increased 21.5 per cent; collisions were reduced 17.9 per cent; and delays were cut 39.5 per cent below the level existing before the parking ban.

During the last seven years, the board found, traffic volume in Philadelphia doubled, and automobile registrations increased 70 per cent.

TYPICAL DRIVER

Somehow, the board reported, the individual motorist will have to be educated to change his ways.

He is described as "a creature of deeply entrenched habit, who by the thousands, insists on bringing into the area's most crowded section a vehicle which transports him to his destination at a speed scarcely greater than a walk, and for which he has the greatest difficulty in finding a parking space once he has reached his destination."

Public transportation within the city and its nearest suburbs is handled mainly by the privately-owned Philadelphia Transportation Company. What has happened to PTC is fairly typical of companies in cities elsewhere.

In 1948, the transit company carried 1,034,829,957 passengers. In 1954, the figure had fallen to 655,030,437.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called *Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drugstores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

*Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

P.S. DOCTORS PRESCRIBE SPECIAL LAXATIVE TO EASE PAINFUL ELIMINATION WHILE SHRINKING PILES
The makers of Preparation H also make Petro-Syllium®, a special type laxative prescribed by doctors for hemorrhoid sufferers. Softens hard dry stool and assures easy elimination without pain. Ask for Petro-Syllium.

Scouts View Americana in Greenfield Village Tour

Greenfield Village and the Henry Ford Museum are two of Southern Michigan's most famous tourist attractions. Thousands and thousands of visitors from all over the country come to see them each year.

When plans for the Senior Girl Scout Roundup were first made and the Highland site definitely chosen, members of the national staff felt that all girls attending the camp should see an automobile factory.

With the Roundup located within 50 miles of the automobile center of the world, it was an opportunity not to be missed.

At the same time the staff thought the Scouts should visit Greenfield Village and Henry Ford Museum, probably the largest repository of American historical objects in the country. Since the Roundup theme is Americana, such a trip would fit in perfectly.

Arrangements were made for groups of 1,000 girls to visit Dearborn for one day of their camp stay. Buses picked up the scouts early in the morning and had them back before dinnertime at night. Each girl had a box lunch to take with her.

Today, the last group is sight-seeing in the Rouge plant and Greenfield Village and trudging through the Henry Ford Museum. Among them are Michigan girls, even Detroit girls who have never seen this tourist attraction on their door step.

Last week during the tour taken by Section B, a Pontiac Press photographer and reporter followed the girls around during the afternoon. These 500 had toured the automobile plants in the morning while the other 500 had been in the Village and Museum.

The girls rode on the Swanee River and in the pony cart. They tried to see the jewelry store when the clock struck. They bought souvenirs by the armful. They lost their purses and their hats. Their feet got tired. But they had fun and saw a great deal of American history.

V-E-R-Y FANCY—This old bicycle at Greenfield Village is a beautiful sight to behold, but will it run? Sue Kirchen, of Memphis, Tenn., and Barbara Jean Burns, of Washington, D. C., seem to doubt it as they run their hands over the beautifully carved vehicle. Pontiac Press Photos

The bike undoubtedly was the apple of some young chap's eye years ago, along with the young lady upon whom he used to call upon while ensconced on its seat.

Europe's Reigning Movie Queens: Part One

Gina No Beauty -- at First Look

This is the first of a series of six articles by Joe Hyams, Hollywood correspondent of the New York Herald Tribune, who has interviewed Europe's top feminine movie stars to find out the secret of the charm of the European woman.

By JOE HYAMS

I was disappointed in Gina Lollobrigida. She was too small; her nose too large; her figure too ordinary; legs too heavy. Only her eyes were beautiful.

* * *

So this is Gina Lollobrigida, I said to myself. Nothing. Then Gina, who had been sitting in a chair, stood up — it would be more accurate to say grew up—and walked toward me, her eyes smiling. I got the message.

Item by item Gina is no great shakes. Put the imperfect items together and you have that photogenic mystery called Gina.

Going downstairs en route to her dressing room Gina tripped and sat down hard. I rushed forward to help her, expecting to hear fluent Italian. Instead I found Gina laughing wildly.

* * *

On her feet again she dusted herself off. "It's a good thing Gina's talent is here," she said pointing to her head, "instead of here," and she continued dusting, "or it would have broken in pieces."

I found that in addition to having a ready sense of humor, Gina always speaks and thinks of herself in the third person because there are two Gina Lollobrigidas: The actress and the woman.

* * *

For example, before the interview, a photographer on Gina's current picture, "Notre Dame du Paris," told me she must approve all still pictures taken of her during the film. He said he was amazed at the cool detachment with which she examined pictures.

"I know what is best for Gina," she said and when she came to a picture which displeased her she would mark it with a huge X and say, "This is not Gina."

* * *

The approved pictures were not always the most flattering, but they had elements which Gina believed contributed to the image she is trying to build in the public mind.

'OF THE PEOPLE'

"I am of the people," she told me. "I am more near them than say, Garbo, because I am a simple country girl."

* * *

Gina has maintained the illusion of being a simple girl unaffected by success even though she is now one of the wealthiest and most popular stars in Europe.

Her income, even by American standards is high, she was paid $160,000 for her first American picture "Trapeze," of which less than $5,000 was paid in taxes.

Her fantastic rise to film success is due largely to two things: A small amount of talent coupled with proper equipment—36, 19, 35—and a large amount of publicity. Gina is not a beauty by American standards, but she has the inner drive for success usually associated with Americans.

* * *

TIRED OF FACE

"I am the expert on Lollobrigida," Gina told me. "I am tired of seeing my face very morning but I know it far better than any one else. For that reason I make up my own eyes and lips and hair before I go to the studio.

* * *

"I design my own clothes and costumes in films because who knows Gina's figure better." Gina also designs her own lingerie and brassieres.

* * *

Even Gina's quotes are well thought out. Before an interview she likes to be briefed on the type of story the newsman is seeking. Sophia Loren, her chief competition in Italian films, is dependent on some one else to speak for her.

Gina dismissed the press agent who was also to act as our interpreter and said, "Gina's English is not so good but she needs no one to speak for her."

I asked Gina if she believed she was glamorous. She asked me to define the word. "You know what I think glamour is?" she said. "Glamour is when a man knows a woman is a woman. It has nothing to do with the outside, it is something inside.

* * *

"To be natural is the important thing. To do the things we feel are natural and to appear as we are is the only thing that is right.

SELF IS BORING

"I am not beautiful for everybody but only for some. Perhaps if I became different I would appeal to the others but never to all. Sometimes I am bored with myself. I think how nice it would be to be as beautiful as some one else, but then I realize Gina can only be Gina, nothing more, and she must make the most of it."

* * *

Gina, who was wearing a low cut gypsy costume bent over in front of me to pick up something from the floor—an old Hollywood trick. "For me sex has gone far enough," she said and threw her shoulders back. "It is important now that I be considered an actress."

"What is the most important thing in your life?" I asked Gina.

"The most important thing is a good picture," she said without hesitation. "The career is something serious. Gina must always be better.

* * *

"Everytime I say to my husband, Miklo, I want a baby a good picture comes along. I am tempted, so I say I will do the picture and later we will have the baby. Gina's babies are beatiful pictures."

GINA LOLLOBRIGIDA—Her nose is too big, but "Oh My!"

PALEFACES MEET WOODEN INDIAN—This cigar store Indian is one of the exhibits at the Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn. Helen Peavy (left) of Paris, Texas; Candy Flickinger (center) of Hudson, Ohio; and July Hendrix of Des Moines, Iowa, are amused by his stolid appearance.

THE RIDE WOULD BE BREEZY—Riding in an old "Riker," without benefit of any top, would be hazardous in bad weather. Barbara Bowman of Memphis, Tenn., stands by as Marianne Ellis of Washington, D. C., and Carolyn Jacoby, also of Memphis, try out the seat and the steering gear.

Ex-Con Facing Murder Charge

Gunman Who Kidnaped Woman Held for Death of Cleveland Policeman

CLEVELAND (INS)—A murder charge was to be filed today against Norman Walker, 32-year-old ex-convict who kidnaped a waitress and killed a suburban policeman as he approached Walker's car.

Walker, of Bedford, Ohio, was captured yesterday climaxing a seven-hour manhunt in which police from the entire Cleveland area took part.

Police said Walker abducted Mrs. Rose Sustarsic, a waitress at the Inter-State Bar in Cleveland, earlier in the day and drove away in his car.

* * *

Garner Robertson, 45, a member of the suburban Valley View police force, saw the couple struggling in Walker's car and walked over to investigate.

Witnesses said that as the officer drew near the car parked in a wooded area, Walker shot him fatally with a .12-gauge shotgun.

When police closed in, Walker abondoned his car and fled into the woods. Surrounded he finally moved out of the woods with his hands over his head, the shotgun dangling from his elbow.

* * *

Police said Mrs. Sustarsic was unharmed.

* * *

During Tour of County

X-Rays Reveal 236 Cases of TB, 19 of Lung Cancer

Results of the chest X-ray mobile unit tour of Oakland County in April were revealed today by A. R. Mussen, executive secretary of the Oakland County Tuberculosis Assn.

* * *

Broken down further, suspected TB was found in 236 cases, cardiac pathology in 357, suspected cancer in 19 and others (such as cracked ribs and dextra cardia), 125.

In Pontiac alone, 8,062 X-rays were taken, 242 of which were found abnormal.

* * *

There were 1,213 X-rays taken in Birmingham, 17 of which were abnormal. In Troy 615 X-rays were taken and eight found to be abnormal and in Rochester, 2,653 X-rays were taken and 63 were found abnormal.

The report also gave information regarding work completed on the abnormal films.

Ten have been hospitalized in the county for tuberculosis. A total of 123 of the abnormal films showed negative and arrested TB.

According to Mussen, these figures are incomplete. "There will probably be more but the follow-up is not complete as yet."

The local tuberculosis association is now in the process of negotiating for the mobile unit again in the fall to cover north and west Oakland County not covered in the April tour.

Mussen said the whole program was a successful effort. "The volunteer workers we had helped bring the program the success it had," Mussen said.

The X-ray program was carried out through joint cooperation between the Oakland County Health Dept., the State Health Dept. and the Oakland County Tuberculosis Assn.

110,000 With Blue Cross in Michigan Over 65

ANN ARBOR (INS)—William S. McNary, executive vice president of Michigan Hospital Service, disclosed today that Michigan Blue Cross-Blue Shield has 110,000 members over 65 and nearly 50,000 of them have full group coverage at regular gorup rates.

* * *

McNary, speaking at the University of Michigan at the ninth annual conference on aging, pointed out that Blue Cross-Blue Shield has long been aware of the social need for providing prepaid hospital and medical care for the aged and continuing coverage for those past 65 who retire.

Baby Boy for Yvonne

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UP) — Actress Yvonne De Carlo and her seven-pound son, who wasn't expected until September, were reported in good condition today at St. John's Hospital. The baby, named Bruce Ross Morgan, was born Saturday. Miss De Carlo is married to movie stuntman Robert Morgan. It is their first child.

HOLD IT FOR A MINUTE—Dorothy Cohen, of New Brunswick, New Jersey, snaps a picture of her Girl Scout campmates as they enter Greenfield Village. Others in the group are, left to right, Barbara Leighton, Sandy Masi and Diane Dietz, all of New Brunswick; Sandy Schuler of Boston; and Kay Garlock of Alexandria, Virginia. The famous Dearborn showplace was the site of many such scenes last week as souvenir-conscious scouts unloaded cameras to shoot photographs of new friends against the historic backgrounds at the Village.

Best Prescription Yet!

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — The children who go to the office of Dr. Phil Trimmer Jr. for polio shots think it's fun. After each shot, Dr. Trimmer writes out a prescription for his patient calling for one ice cream cone at a nearby drug store.

Bob Considine Says:

To Inform People, Try the Newspapers

WASHINGTON (INS)—Through the courtesy of Corn Products, Inc., believed to be makers of corn products, Attorney General Herbert Brownell announced to the nation that the government is suing General Motors. Revenooers caught GM red-handed, making buses.

At least, it sounded something like that. I was too busy watching Martha Roundtree and her covey of rotating Washington correspondents but not one of the boys rotated.

With so many big companies going off TV for the summer, lots of top Washington officials may be at their wit's end to find some means of telling the people little dribs and drabs of information, oh, like the start of the war, the increase in tax so that we can all help Tito and good friends like that, the wreck of the Hesperus and things.

The newspapers, which were serving America before there was an office of the attorney general, and will be on hand, it is believed, even after Brownell has been wafted to his reward on a Gold (Bantam) Cloud, would be happy to pass along such big and little news until the politicians can find a proper TV spot.

* * *

Bus-building, the crime in which General Motors finds itself involved, in all probability became a felony at a point when enough Democratic orators accused the administration of tossing too many contracts in the direction of the firm once ruled by the present secretary of defense, Mr. Wilson. Something had to be done. Something was, and the Corn Products folks were good enough to put up money to let GM, Wilson and all the people know about it.

All the advance publicity on the new TV show on which Brownell announced a major Eisenhower administration policy and perhaps election year strategem told us to be on the lookout for Miss Rountree's brilliant band of "rotating correspondents."

The brethren couldn't move off a dime. They stood or sat there still as stones, to the plain disappointment and what might have been the despair of that happy, laughing girl who with another gay soul, my friend Lawrence Spivak, put across "Meet the Press" years ago.

The happiness pair fissioned with muted snarls and radioactive fallout some time back. Miss Rountree's return to the air, with dozens of Washington correspondents who may have to be taught to pirouette if "Press Conference" is going to appeal also to the children, promises to produce a lively TV vendetta in the coming months.

* * *

And such a dilemma—are there enough politicians to go around? Which of these two frankly competitive and guest devouring shows gets first dibs on the available talent? Will Brownell now be barred from "Meet the Press"? Will politicians in time be afraid to accept the Corn Products bid for fear of offending Revere Copper or Pan Am? Will they go off somewhere with their public announcements and never make them known? Can Frank Folsom invent a rotating mike for rotating questions? Will Willie Mays return to baseball?

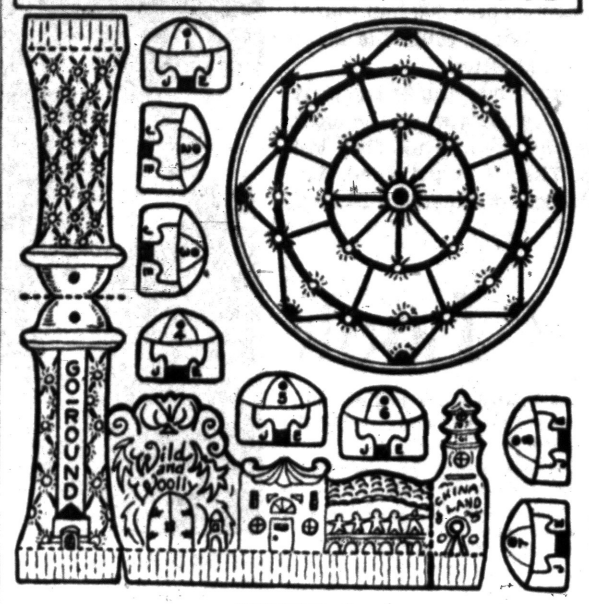

How about all those other TV political inquisitions which originate from the capital? What can they do to match Miss Rountree's presently anchored but soon-to-be-twirling newsmen? Bring in acrobats? Send for Sullivan for jokes?

Suppose Martha and Larry sign a non-aggression pact and sew up Ike's accept speech? Will songs help? Here's one I learned at my mother's knee in '16, to be given free to the first TV panel which looks up and finds the witness chair empty:

"Hooray—Hooray—for Charles Evans Huughes,
Hooray—Hooray—Great leader we did choose,
We will count his praises and his patriotism too,
While we were marching through Georgia."

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS

CARNIVAL—1

The Ferris Wheel

When the carnival comes to town most Junior Editors join in the fun. Long before reaching it they can see the Ferris Wheel standing high above the tents and booths. It has eight little cars with umbrella tops painted red, white and blue swinging from it.

At night the carnival grounds are lit up with many colored bulbs that make the place a fairyland, and the Ferris Wheel too is covered with bright lights.

Fold the tower on dotted line, and paste it back-to-back almost half way down. Fold the bases out at front and back so it will stand. Fold the end of the strip of buildings back, and the boardwalk forward.

Attach the wheel to the tower through the holes as indiacted, using a brass fastener, a bent pin or a toothpick. Tie the eight little carriages to the edges of the wheel at the indicated holes with thread. Then they will swing free as the wheel turns.

(For submitting this idea Paula Wolfe, of Johnstown, Pa., wins $10. Send in your suggestions for Junior Editors care of this newspaper. Violet Moore Higgins; AP Newsfeatures.)

Stone Age Arrows Discovered in Chile

SANTIAGO, Chile — A Belgian priest-archaeologist recently discovered Stone Age arrows, darts, and tools in northern Chile that may revise all previous theories about the occupation of South America by primitive man.

* * *

The Rev. Gustavo Le Paige made his discoveries in the desert region near Oliague. Ages ago this area was a lake. The priest says the artifacts indicate the existence of a paleolithic civilization that lived exclusively by hunting animals. Father Le Paige says vestiges of housing show marked differences from those found anywhere else in South America.

Where Wrigley's Used to Be

THE POWERHOUSE

By JIMMY POWERS

All big men should be forever grateful to the late Tiny Thornhill of Stanford. For years Tiny conducted a one-man campaign against the type-casting of 200 pounders as bullies.

Tiny prepared surveys which showed beefy tackles and guards were above-average students and not dolts "B" pictures and vaudeville sketches made them out to be.

Tiny once said: "I personally traced this libel on muscular men to early silent films. Most of the directors were themselves shrimps and probably had a subconscious prejudice against heavy men. They wished to emphasize the strength or daring of the hero so they provided a giant human punching bag for him.

"All my life I had to fight this caricature. Most big men are gentle and graceful. They don't have to demonstrate their masculinity or superiority. On the other hand, some of the meanest men—like the tiny coral snake—came in small packages, in my experience, at any rate."

GRIDDERS WANT THEIR SHARE OF SPACE

You wonder where the summer went when you read that just two weeks from today the Cleveland Browns gather at their Hiram College camp to open training.

★ ★ ★

They have only three weeks to prepare for the College All-Star game in Chicago. This overlapping of seasons and brisk competition for sports page space is another factor baseball brass ignore when they blame everyone but themselves for slowing turnstiles.

Football will begin to claim its share of space only a week after baseball's All-Star game.

The Browns, by the way, have set as their goal the winning of a third straight professional championship, a feat accomplished up to now only by one other team, Green Bay. That was in 1929-30-31 when there was considerably less to beat.

Recently announced billion-dollar program for new highways points up Frank Lane's contention baseball needs fewer—not more—minor leagues.

"Transportation has improved tremendously, yet we are geared to horse-and-buggy thinking. It is not necessary for every town, village and farm settlement to have a team playing ball every day.

"Any minor club within 75 miles of a major league city is asking for trouble. Fewer leagues, adequately financed, and geographically based, would be more desirable."

American League All-Stars Favored Over NL

WASHINGTON (AP) — The once-dominant American League was a surprising 6-5 favorite today to win the annual All-Star baseball game tomorrow from the power-laden National League, which has won five of the last six.

* * *

The expected availability of Mickey Mantle as a starter, a modest pitching edge, plus a persistant home park jinx have combined to create a feeling that the junior circuit may regain some of its prestige during this 23rd mid-summer show.

* * *

Barring a surprise move on the part of the All-Star managers, the opening pitchers figure to be Whitey Ford, New York Yankee southpaw (10-4), for the Americans against Robin Roberts, Philadelphia righthander, (8-10), for the Nationals.

* * *

Bob Friend (11-7) of the Pittsburgh Pirates, mentioned as the original choice for the Nationals, came up with a sore throat but said in New York "it's nothing that would keep me from pitching."

Both Casey Stengel, who will be directing the Americans for the sixth time, and Walter Alston, in his second venture, insisted last night they had not yet decided on their pitching plans. That's probably so since six of the 15 All-Star pitchers were used Sunday and six on Saturday. That leaves only Ford, Roberts and Warren Spahn of Milwaukee with sufficient rest.

* * *

"It could be my guy Ford, or it could be Billy Pierce of Chicago," said Stengel, "I'll have to sleep on it before I make up my mind.

A week ago Alston was certain of Friend as his starter. Last night he was wavering between the Pirate ace and Roberts.

Mantle's surprise return to the Yankee lineup for yesterday's game in Washington made his appearance tomorrow a certainty, if not as a starter, then as a pinch hitter.

The Americans seem to have an edge on the mound. Pierce, with 13 victories, leads all pitchers. Right handers Jim Wilson of Chicago, Johnny Kucks of New York and Tom Brewer of Boston have 11 each. Ford and Early Wynn of Cleveland have 10 apiece. Only Brooks Lawrence (12-0) of Cincinnati and Friend of the NL pitchers, have won more than nine games.

The American League, winner of 13 of the 22 previous clashes, has one more thing going for it. It has lost only two of the 11 games played in American League parks. The last of its triumphs was in 1954, in Cleveland.

* * *

Under the rules, the eight starters chosen by a nationwide fan poll must remain in the lineup at least three innings unless forced to retire because of injury. No pitcher may work more than three innings unless the game goes into extra innings.

An oddity is that five of the National League starters are from Cincinnati. They are second baseman Johnny Temple, shortstop Roy McMillan, outfielders Frank Robinson and Gus Bell and catcher Ed Bailey. The three remaining National Leaguers are Stan Musial and Ken Boyer of St. Louis and Dale Long of Pittsburgh.

The American League starting lineup will see Mantle, Ted Williams of Boston and Al Kaline of Detroit in the outfield, Mickey Vernon of Boston at First, Nellie Fox of Chicago at second, Harvey Kuenn of Detroit at shortstop, George Kell of Baltimore at third and Yogi Berra of New York behind the plate.

A sellout crowd of some 28,300 is expected to attend while millions all over the country will view and hear the game on television and radio. All receipts will go into the major league pool that helps finance the Players' Pension Fund.

Beat White Sox, 17-5, 8-6

It's a Fact--Tigers Win 2

CHICAGO (AP) — The Detroit Tigers, playing as if they hadn't heard about the pending sale of a certain Major League ball club, swept two games from the Chicago White Sox yesterday.

While owner Spike Briggs pondered which of several multi-million dollar offers to accept, the Bengals smothered the Sox 17-5 in an opening game and whipped them 8-6 in a nightcap.

The double kill made it three in a row over Chicago for the rebounding Tigers. They slammed out 18 hits in both games last night, for a total of 53 hits and 37 runs in the last three contests.

Detroit, along with the other Major League clubs, has a day off today prior to the All-Star game tomorrow.

Al Kaline led the Detroit bombardment against Chicago, pounding out six safeties, including his 12th homer and a triple in the opener. Paul Foytack limited the Sox to eight hits in the first game. Frank Lary won the nightcap, allowing 10 hits before giving way to Al Aber in the 9th.

Jim Wilson, the veteran right-hander who shut the Tigers out less than a week ago, was stunned when the Bengals shoved across 14 runs in the first three innings of the opener. Southpaw Billy Pierce was cut down in the second game for his third loss against 13 wins. He was blasted for 15 hits in less than six innings.

Backing up Kaline at the plate for Detroit were Bill Tuttle and Harvey Kuenn, both with four hits. Kuenn rifled four straight singles in the nightcap.

Williams Gets 1,500th RBI

Veteran Bosox Slugger Hits 399th Home Run in Twin-Bill Sweep

BOSTON (AP)—Ted Williams, still the restless perfectionist at 37, drew a bead on the American League batting championship today after reaching one of his career goals and coming within one home run of another.

* * *

The Boston Red Sox slugger, heading for the 12th All-Star game of his 14-year major league service, this spring outlined the things he wanted most to accomplish before retiring.

* * *

At the halfway mark of the 1956 campaign yesterday, the Big Thump had hammered out his 1,500th rbi and his 399th home run as the Red Sox swept a doubleheader from Baltimore 9-0 and 8-4.

Williams became the 12th major leaguer ever to reach 1,500 rbi's yesterday in the second game. He had driven in four runs in the first contest when he came up with a two-run homer, a double, a single and a bases-loaded walk.

BACK IN ACTION—New York Yankee slugger Mickey Mantle returned to the lineup yesterday after missing four games due to a strained ligament in his right knee. He got one hit against Washington yesterday and he hopes to get into the All-Star lineup for the American League tomorrow, despite a heavy brace on the knee.

Financial Rewards

$1,700 Purse for Pro-Am

By H. GUY MOATS

A half hundred two-man golf teams set out Tuesday at 7:45 a.m. from No. 1 and No. 10 tees at Tam O'Shanter Country Club, in quest of a Michigan Pro-Amateur title, and a share of the $1,700 cash awards.

The field will go 36 holes in a medal-play marathon, first time the event has been held on Tuesday. Teams play in foursomes, taking the best ball of each pair's play as the hole cards.

Last year's championship was a short affair—cut in half by a heavy storm. Winning card, fired by Bob Inman and Ben Smith of Detroit Golf Club was a 67. Pro-Am observers figure a total twice that size, or maybe a few strokes less, might be good enough to take the 1956 version of the championship.

Says Warren Orlick, Tam's genial pro and state PGA prexy, "I think we have the best field of teams ever to play in this event. The course will play easier this year than last, and that should cut down the winning figure to around 131-132. It was softened by continual rain last year and consequently played longer and harder.

"Then there is the fact that we will have two former National PGA champs (Chick Harbert, Wally Burkemo), a former Master's champ (Horton Smith) with stronger partners, and the defending state amateur titlist (Glenn Johnson) plus John Barnum, former Michigan Open king. Such a strong field is certain to make this one of the hottest, wide open pro-am tests in the event's history."

Only one change has been made in the starting lineup. Orlick says that Ed Gauntt will have Emil Gallas as his amateur partner. Gallas replaces Lou Wendrow, Lansing veteran, who figured he wouldn't have time to play both at Tam and in the state amateur event,' starting Wednesday. Both Gauntt and Gallas are from

Redlegs Pace NL

Yanks Pad AL Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The law of averages, the Detroit Tigers and Al Kaline have caught up with the Chicago White Sox and the American League pennant race is back to "normal" today, the New York Yankees lead it by 6½ games.

Chicago had closed to within 1½ games of New York just a week and a half ago, winning 12 of 14 on a homestand. But since then, the White Sox have lost eight of 14. And after what Detroit did to them this past weekend, they're only 2-4 for their current home fling.

The Yankees padded their lead with an 8-2 job on Washington that swept the three-game set. Mickey Mantle returned to the lineup and singled once in three trips.

Cleveland edged to within two percentage points of Chicago, thumping Kansas City 17-3. And Boston, with Ted Williams socking his 399th home run and gaining his 1,500th run batted in, took two from Baltimore, 9-0 and 8-4.

In the National, Cincinnati was outhit 12-4 by St. Louis, but beat the Cards 3-2. That upped the Redlegs' lead to 1½ games as Monte Irvin's ninth-inning grand-slam homer gave the Chicago Cubs a 10-6 decision over second place Milwaukee.

Brooklyn split with Philadelphia, winning 9-2 as Don Newcombe gained his 11th victory, then losing 3-2. Pittsburgh moved to within one point of fourth-place St. Louis, beating New York 5-2 in the second of two games after the Giants had belted seven home runs, one shy of the major league record, to win the opener 11-1.

Bill Skowron, Gil McDougald and Hank Bauer, who hit two, had homers for the Yankees, who now have won 12 of their last 14. All-Star right hander, Johnny Kucks won it in relief for an 11-4 record. Mantle, wearing a brace on his injured right knee, stayed around for only four innings. Chuck Stobbs lost.

Jim Busby walloped a three-run homer in the sixth for the Indians and they then packed it away with 11 runs in the seventh. Pitcher Bob Lemon hit a two-run pinch homer in the eighth, then saved Early Wynn's 10th victory.

Rusty Kelley Sweeps Honors for Speedway

Kelley turned in the fastest qualifying time with 19:36, won the four-car dash, paced the 4th heat, won the pursuit and he capped his day's work with a victory in the feature. He hit 8:35.43 for the finale to lead Ray Fraley, and Chuck Partello to the finish line.

Don Irish won the 1st heat. Second went to Jerry Lafner, who also was 2nd in the semifinals. Elmer Ferstle took the 3rd, and Jack Woodruff won the 5th heat.

Ferstle won the semifinals. Bill Zahn was 3rd.

SUNDAY'S HOME RUNS

LUNKER —A very interesting five minute scrap with the big bass Lester Lemaster is displaying above, gave the angler a real thrill early Saturday. Lemaster, 2587 Grand View, Williams Lake, took the 5-pound 7-ounce lunker on Williams Lake on a red and white daredevil lure. He was fishing from a boat near a weedbed. Accompanying him were his brother Tom, Mary Sue street, Independence Township and a neighbor, "Mac". The trio got a nice string of bass. Lemaster's big (largemouth) bass was his biggest of the season, but just an ounce too light to equal the current "big fish derby" leader.

Tops Major Sales

Tiger Price New High

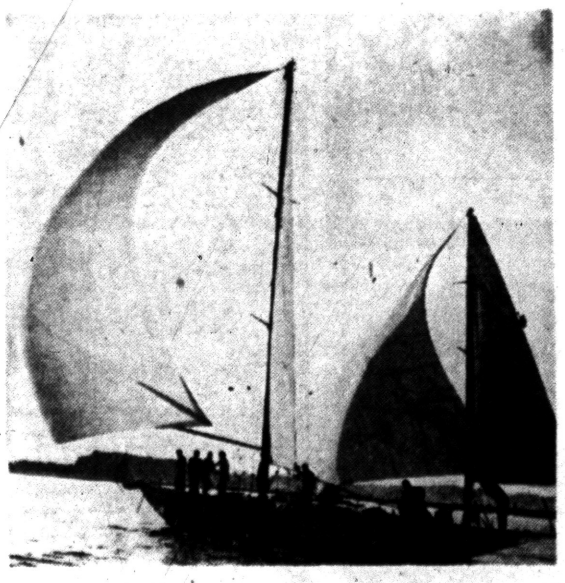

NEW YORK (AP)—If the Detroit Tigers' franchise is sold this month for $4,500,000 as reported, it will be one of the biggest baseball deals on record.

During the past decade there have been a half-dozen major league club sales. All have gone over the million-dollar figure, but none has reached the mark which is said to have influenced Walter O. Briggs Jr. and family to sell at Detroit.

Eight syndicates, according to the Detroit baseball club, have made offers to buy the Detroit franchise and Briggs stadium, with the price said to be around $4,500,000 to $5,000,000.

* * *

Kocsis Fires 77 in Publinx Tuneup

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A bulky field of 150 play-for-fun golfers, survivors from sectional qualifying fields totaling 1,917, began shooting today in the 31st Public Links championships.

* * *

These competitors from the nation's public course compete the first two days with a double purpose, to qualify for the match play field of 64 and for the city team championship with its symbolic Warren G. Harding Memorial Trophy.

* * *

Defending champion in this Publinx event is Sam D. Kocsis of Detroit, winner in 1955 at Indianapolis. Team honors last year went to Miami, Fla., and although none of that threesome has returned, the young group representing the city promise an all-out effort to retain the cup.

The cypress trees and the surrounding water make the well-groomed Harding course a tough test for the amateurs. Only three, San Francisco fireman Ovid Seyler, Portland's Air Force Lt. Dick Stearns and young Bill Lauer of Spokane, Wash., reported shooting practice rounds as low as 68.

Most of the practice firing was in the mid-70's and Kocsis had a 77 during an exhibition tour yesterday, despite his assertion the course seemed less difficult than the one on which he won his title last year. Not since 1929 has a champion successfully defended his crown.

* * *

The players will shoot medal rounds of 18 holes today and tomorrow. The low 64, and most figure it will take a score of between 152 and 154 to make the grade, will then go into match play with two 18-hole elimination rounds on Wednesday and two on Thursday. Semifinals and finals, on Friday and Saturday, are at 36 holes.

The 150th man to report in, Chester Kasper of Chicago Heights, Ill., arrived yesterday and the hopes of local alternates of getting a spot in the field ended. One of these left-outs was Gene Andrews of Los Angeles, the 1954 Publinx champ.

WARMING UP—Sam Kocsis, defending champion of the National Publinx golf tournament, sharpens his putting eye on the Harding Park course in San Francisco yesterday in preparation for the 1956 championships which start today. A prominent golfer in Detroit circles, Kocsis expressed the opinion that the Harding Park course is not as tough as is claimed.

Amateur Wins Canadian Open

Doug Sanders Defeats Finsterwald in 1-Hole Sudden Death

POINTE CLAIRE, Que. (AP) — A soft-spoken, 22-year-old amateur golfer, never before winner of an open tournament, is the new Canadian Open Golf Champion. He's the first amateur ever to capture the event.

He needed a playoff to pull it off, but Doug Sanders, a Miami Beach, Fla., insurance salesman, yesterday defeated pro swinger Dow Finsterwald of Bedford Heights, Ohio, in a one-hole showdown and took home the gold cup in the 47th annual open.

The two finished the regular 72 holes tied at 273, 15 under par. It was perhaps significant that the issue was settled at Beaconsfield's 16th hole, the scene of Sanders' best shot of the tournament. The 16th was chosen as the start of the sudden-death playoff.

Sanders chipped in a 50-footer for a birdie there in the last round. In the showdown he took a par four at the same hole to Finsterwald's five.

Boys Club Splits 2-Tilt Weekend Legion Contests

Pontiac's Boys' Club Junior American Legion baseball nine broke even in a two-game Saturday-Sunday series at Berkley. The split kept the Pontiac leaguers atop the circuit with a 6-2 mark. Berkley also remained static in 3rd place with 5-3.

The Birmingham at Rochester game was rained out Sunday, and will be played tonight. Sunday's 3rd contest in the Junior Legion loop was an unusual forfeit for Milford. Milford's club was at Waterford ready to play. Rain started to fall, and the Waterford team left the field, but when the umpire arrived shortly thereafter, and ruled field was playable, Waterford had no team on the field.

Milford therefore moves into a temporary tie with Birmingham in 4th place with 4-3. Loss was Waterford's 7th straight.

* * *

Pontiac's club dropped a good battle to the Berkley nine, under the lights, on Saturday, 5-2, then went back to Berkley Sunday afternoon to turn the tables with a 5-1 victory.

Danny Barnard gave up two hits Saturday, and got some hefty hitting to trip Pontiac. Whitey Larson allowed nine hits, with Dick Ropers' double, single and homer accounting for three.

Pontiac got nine hits off two Berkley hurlers on Sunday. Jerry Orr gave up only three in the nine-inning tilt. It was Orr's 4th league victory.

* * *

Wednesday's final tilts in the first round are set for Wednesday, with Pontiac meeting Rochester at Rochester at Washington Junior High field at 5:30 p.m. Other games include Berkley in Milford and Clawson at Birmingham. Winner of 1st round will be eligible for zone participation.

Dupas in Bid Against Lane

New Orleans Fighter Rated Top Contender Among Lightweights

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Ralph Dupas ends two months of inactivity as he bids for recognition as the lightweight division's top contender tonight against southpaw Kenny Lane.

The bout will be a rerun of the 10-rounder held here last year, when Dupas won a split decision. Lane has been angling for a rematch for months.

* * *

Dupas, 20-year-old product of the New Orleans French Quarter, has been among the top three lightweight contenders for the past year. He was ranked No. 1 before he started his long layoff after whipping Johnny Digilio at Miami Beach May 1.

* * *

Lane, a native of Muskegon, Mich., has been busy in recent months and won 11 of 12 matches after dropping the verdict to Dupas. The loss was to former champion Paddy DeMarco in October and, as with the Dupas decision, Lane wasn't in accord with the official vote.

* * *

Elizabeth Lake Yields 15-Inch Yellow Perch

Biggest yellow perch reported this year, taken from an Oakland County lake, was the 15-inch specimen landed Sunday morning by Clare Hollens. Hollens, who lives at 353 Roslyn, Elizabeth Lake, says the fish was the biggest of its kind he ever saw. It was estimated to weigh at least a pound and a quarter. Hollens also took several bass and some nice bluegills from Elizabeth Lake.

Possibility of Executive Office

Briggs May Get Post With New Owners

DETROIT (AP)—There were strong indications today that Walter O. (Spike) Briggs Jr. will be with The Detroit Tigers in an executive capacity after the new owners take over in the fall.

The young Tiger president—now in the process of selecting the new owners from eight syndicates that put up multi-million dollar bids for the club and Briggs Stadium—said he is "encouraged over the bids and very hopeful about staying on."

It is known that five of the eight syndicates have asked Briggs and Harry M. Sisson, secretary and business manager, to continue with the club. Sisson would remain in the same capacity with the new organization. Briggs, it is believed, would either be president or General manager, but nothing less.

Briggs has maintained complete silence as to how much money some of the bids involve. There have been various published reports, one that the group headed by Bill Veeck offered the highest bid of around $5,250,000. Another report was that at least two of the bids exceeded the 5 million mark and a couple of others were just short of that figure.

Before the bidding opened officially, Briggs had said he thought the franchise would bring at least $4,500,000.

"Everybody's shooting in the dark," said Briggs before leaving for Tuesday's all-star game in Washington. "A lot of people are merely guessing, and some of them aren't very close at all."

Briggs, Sisson and Charles T. Fischer Jr., all members of the six-man board of directors of the Tigers—comprise a steering committee for the bids. They have met twice to study the bids and plan at least one more get-together after Briggs returns Wednesday.

The top bids will be sent to the American League president Will Harridge and commissioner Ford Frick for approval. Then the Briggs' trustees will select the group that will assume control of the Tigers around Oct. 1. Briggs said the new owners probably will be known by the end of this month.

NL All-Star

Friend Ready to Pitch

NEW YORK (AP)—Bob Friend left for Washington today hoping a report that he was suffering from a abscessed throat won't "foul up" his status as the National League's probable starting pitcher in tomorrow's All-Star game in the nation's capital.

* * *

The young Pittsburgh right hander, looking forward to his first appearance in the mid-season classic, was disturbed by the report released by the New York Giants' team physician yesterday. During the Pirates' weekend series with the Giants, Friend had gone to see the New York medic, Dr. Anthony Palermo, about a sore throat as a precautionary measure.

* * *

"I've had a little soreness in my throat for a few days," Friend, 25, said. "But it's nothing that would keep me from pitching. I certainly have been looking forward to the All-Star game, and I wouldn't want any misunderstanding to foul things up."

* * *

Friend, with an 11-7 record, was worried that All-Star Manager Walt Alston of the world champion Brooklyn Dodgers had heard of Palermo's report.

U.S. Accuses Shell Makers of Price Fix

WASHINGTON (INS)—The justice department reportedly is taking aim today on shotgun shell manufacturers accused of price fixing.

Rep. Henry S. Reuss (D-Wis), said the department's antitrust division is reviewing information gathered by the FBI in an investigation of the small arms ammunition industry.

In a prepared statement, the congressman said he would "like to see action started before this fall's hunting season."

Reuss noted that since 1946 a series of "simultaneous price increases" for 12 gauge trap load shotgun shells had raised the cost more than 150 per cent to $85.07 a thousand.

Gilmer, Walz Sign Lions' Contracts

DETROIT (AP)—Veteran quarterback Harry Gilmer and rookie end Jarv Walz have returned their signed contracts to the Detroit Lions pro football club.

Four Schools Fined $232,000

PCC Also Bars Trojans From Rose Bowl Play

Puts 2-Year Ban on USC for Infractions of Athletic Code

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Pacific Coast Conference has boosted to $232,000 its fines against four members for infractions of the athletic code.

It climaxed 1956 levies yesterday by tagging Southern California for approximately $62,000 and California for $25,000.

Previously UCLA was stunned with a $93,000 fine and Washington $52,500.

In all cases, except California, the penalties also involved probation for athletes and suspension of schools from participation in the annual Rose Bowl football game. The bulk of the fines was loss of Rose Bowl receipts at an estimated $26,000 a year for each school.

* * *

USC also was fined $10,000 for withholding information in athletic code violations from conference Commissioner Victor O. Schmidt.

Two USC track men and 44 football players were penalized one year's eligibility for accepting payments in violation of the code.

Twenty-nine football players figured in the California case. Ironically, the tuition grants involved would have been legal under the conference code, but they were not approved by the university. Hence they were decreed to have been illegally arrangde by football coach Lynn O. Waldorf over the past three years through a booster club.

Because of that, the California fine was a direct assessment.

California was not barred from Rose Bowl participation and only a handful of Cal athletes stand to lose eligibility. On proof of repayment before Sept. 1 of the grants which were in the form of loans, the players will be returned to full eligibility.

* * *

Both institutions were placed on probation, California for one year and Southern Cal for two, but it was explained that the probations in themselves carried no penalty beyond the stigma of having been found in violation of the code.

Both Cal and USC were directed to disassociate themselves immediately from the boosters clubs which turned the funds for the illegal aid, the San Francisco Grid Club and the Southern California Educational foundation, respectively.

Doctoring Your Golf Game

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: Can't take turf

DIAGNOSIS: Ball too far forward

TREATMENT: Weak pitch iron

execution is more often the result of incorrect positioning of the ball than a flaw in the swing.

Common mistake is playing the ball too far forward, opposite the left heel. It's an easy habit to slip into, and we on the tourney trail are ever on guard against it. The ball up front is strictly for cut shot, backspin action, close to the green, when quick elevation and "bite" on the ball for stop is needed.

Average pitch shot, though, will hold nicely and is easier to make and control when the ball is played behind the center of the stance, back from the middle, as the sketch shows.

On average pitch shots, without added cut for stop, concentrate on a steady head and a firm grip with the left hand, hanging on especially with the middle, third and little fingers on the backswing and down through the ball.

Forget about body turn or pivot. Think instead of swinging the clubhead sweepingly low, straight back from the ball, and let the cock of the wrists come naturally. But do cock the wrists by all means to get the feeling of left hand security, and to be in psotion to pull the left arm down for a descending blow in order to hit the ball first and then take turf.

Shutouts Mark Softball Play

Richards Takes 6-0 Win Over Stadium; Benson Nips WL

Two shutouts, a close contest and a runaway victory marked softball exhibition games at two Pontiac fields, Sunday night.

Both blanks were administered to teams playing on he North Side diamond, with Stadium Inn taking it on the chin 6-0 from Richard's Tavern. Sam Benson barely got by Walled Lake Market in the other North site whitewash, 1-0.

Richards won their game in the 1st inning, with a 2-run count. They added four more, on a 8-hit barrage. Benson' got their lone run in the 2nd, but it was sufficient as Bidwell, Shon and Williams gave up only one hit among them the rest of the way.

Larry O'Dell and his crew sailed the Bambi Too to 1st place in Sunday's weekly race at Pontiac Yacht Club, on Cass Lake. Larry's time, 1:02:30 for the six mile course.

Windfall, skippered by Micky Goodwin was 2nd with 1:02:43 and Al Gray's Kay V was third with 1:03:19.

McKeachy's Single Wins Overtime Tilt

Dan McKeachy's single in the 8th frame of a Drayton Plains Little League softball game, Sunday gave the Tenutas a 11-10 victory over Jack's Service. Count was tied at 10-10 at regulation seven innings, with the help of several walks. Dan's blow chased in Jim Hoke with the winning counter.

Recreation Spot

New Area Has Many Uses

Not only is the new "blacktop" playfield at Crofoot School a spot where some mighty interesting and—according to Art Van Ryzin — valuable basketball activities will soon be under way, but it also has many other recreation uses as well.

Van Ryzin meets his first group of cage enthusiasts of all age levels tonight. He hopes to get organized so that active league play may begin Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. Any boy interested in the game is invited to take part, whatever his age.

The area, recently completed, is 116 x 220 feet in size. It has four regulation courts (50 x 90) ready now, with four more (40x60) to be ready soon.

There are provisions for badminton (10 courts), volleyball (8 courts), and other courts for additional games.

The area is also a parking lot for special activities at PHS.

"This is another step by the Board of Education for providing better facilities for boys and girls of Pontiac, Tom Dodson, schools athletic director pointed out. He added that contracts have been let for other areas where multi-purpose rooms will be built, and where blacktop areas will be laid down.

McCarroll, LeBaron and Crofoot will get the new rooms, and the play areas will go to the first named two schools (similar to that at Crofoot) all to be completed by February 1957.

British Boxer Gives Up Title

LONDON (INS)—British heavyweight boxing champion, Don Cockell, overweight and out of condition, quit the ring today.

The 27-year-old boxer said:

"I have been given a clean bill of health but I am still troubled by the weight problem that has burdened me throughout my career."

Tri-County Games

Clarkston Wins Twinbill

Clarkston scored a doubleheader victory in Tri-County baseball competition yesterday by dumping Hadley twice, 7-6 and 5-1 to hold second place in the league.

Pete Palashan and Fred McAndrews were the winning pitchers with Palashan aiding his own cause in the opener by collecting three hits in four trips to the plate.

Clarkston is now 6-4 in the league currently led by the Flint Indians.

First Ace for Dietz

Mike Dietz, Indianwood golf professional, has come close many times, but Sunday was the first occasion on which he has holed out a tee shot. Playing with Spike Rubelman, Bill Jones and Tony Morrose, Dietz lofted a eight-iron shot to the No. 3, 150-yard green and saw the ball hit and roll into the cup.

The ace gave Mike a hot .32 for the nine-hole round. It was the first ace on this hole this season.

Jaycee Golf Test Under Way in Rain

Michigan's Junior Chamber of Commerce golf tournament got under way at Country Club of Kalamazoo, this morning, but under difficulties. Rain was falling when the first players left the tees at 8 a.m. and was still coming down at 10 a.m. according to reports from the tourney site.

* * *

Pontiac area teams of about a dozen players went to Kalamazoo yesterday for a tuneup round. They found that most of the 150 entries had the same idea, and the layout was jammed with the "testers."

The big field of the state's best juniors (under 18) plays 18 holes today and tomorrow, with the top four at the end qualifying for the nationals at Fargo, N. D.

Ziske Scores at Syracuse

But she had gone into the third and final round with a 36-hole score of 142, four under par for the drumlins golf club course.

Year after year...Blue Sunoco First with Auto Engineers

Blue Sunoco

used by more auto engineers than all other premiums combined

The only gasoline that meets new higher premium octane standards and sells at regular gas price

43% already are users of Blue Sunoco

Of the 1,166 engineers who reported on '56 Blue Sunoco, 43% told us they were already users of our gasoline. This was a far greater number than reported using all other premium gasolines combined—perhaps the greatest testimonial any gasoline ever had!

Premium octane at regular gas price

Blue Sunoco is premium in every way, sells at regular gas price, gives many more miles per dollar. Follow the lead of auto engineers. Make your own 10-gallon test today.

COMPARISON CHART

93% say Blue Sunoco matches or excels premium-priced brands for overall performance	91% say Blue Sunoco matches or excels premium-priced brands for power and pick-up
85% say Blue Sunoco matches or excels premium-priced brands for anti-knock performance	86% say Blue Sunoco matches or excels premium-priced brands for miles per gallon

Fathers Keep Children Happy —With '21 Stutz

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—The eight children of brothers William and James Bolles of Indianapolis wanted a fire truck. So, the brothers bought them one—a real 1921 Stutz hook and ladder truck.

"There's no telling what those two will bring home next," said grandfather William R. Bolles, vice president of Hoosier Veneer Co.

Detroiter Dies at Wheel

CLEVELAND (AP) — Martin Boski, 38, of Detroit, died of a heart attack on the Ohio Turnpike Sunday night.

The State Highway Patrol said Boski became ill earlier Sunday near suburban Berea and was taken to Berea Community Hospital, where a physician told him he had suffered a slight heart attack and advised him to stop for the night.

Boski was stricken again near the Fremont-Port Clinton Interchange, but was able to pull his car off the road before collapsing. He was pronounced dead at Fre...ont Memorial Hospital.

Negroes Reject New Bus Plan

'We'll Keep Walking,' They Tell Tallahassee City Fathers

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—Tallahassee Negroes last night again rejected a compromise proposal for ending the bus boycott and reaffirmed their determination to do without public transportation until they get integrated seating.

The Tallahassee City Commission renewed an offer to permit Negroes to sit where they wish on buses except for one three-passenger seat reserved for white patrons.

* * *

The Rev. David Brooks, a leader of the Negro Inter Civic Council, reported the commission offer, which was unanimously rejected. He said he understood Negroes would not be required to stand while the white seat remained empty and that if it were occupied by Negroes before whites boarded the bus, the white passengers would have to stand.

* * *

Brooks also told some 500 Negroes attending the mass meeting the proposal was presented as a temporary solution.

There were cries that it was the same proposal already rejected by the Negroes several times since their boycott started in May as a protest against segregated seating. The boycott since has resulted in suspension of bus service here.

* * *

In addition to rejecting the seating plan, the Negroes turned down a proposal for formation of an interracial council composed of six white and six Negro members.

Several spokesmen told the crowd the City Commission is powerless under state law to grant full integration and the matter should be taken to the courts.

Balls of Fire! Lightning Scares Kentucky Family

PARIS, Ky. (AP)—"Great balls of fire" has the Prather family hopping at nearby Little Rock yesterday.

* * *

Eight persons were in the 12-room house when lightning struck.

The bolt lingered for about three minutes. Neighbors said the home appeared to be a "sheet of flame with balls of fire popping out of windows."

* * *

No one was hurt, but the house was a mess. There was no fire, and minimum damage was estimated at $1,500.

Britain's Diana Has Offers From Every Film Studio

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—With British Diana Dors the most discussed actress in Hollywood since Marilyn Monroe departed, and every studio in town bidding for her after she finishes "I Married a Woman" with George Gobel—who gets her?

Donna Reed and Tony Owen have snagged Diana for their independent company, Todon, to star in "The Long Haul" back in her home town, London. Columbia will release the picture which is a sexy drama about a girl who works in a roadside cafe and a truck driver. Know who they want for the truck driver? Marlon Brando.

Joan Crawford, who is off to New York and London Thursday, has a date Wednesday to discuss with Robert Aldrich "The Monkey Doll," Jaik Rosenstein's book.

"I haven't seen the script yet," Joan told me, "but if it's as good as it sounds I'll do it. Bob Aldrich is in New York, and I won't get a chance to talk to him until tomorrow when he returns."

The deal is very close to signing for Dean Martin to co-star in "10,000 Bedrooms" for Joe Pasternak. Years ago, Joe made the first test of Dean, before Dean and Jerry Lewis became popular comedians.

Joe, whose book "Easy the Hard Way" has been sumggled behind the Iron Curtain, has had an offer from Budapest to have it published in Hungarian, and he'll accept. He has many friends and relatives living there who will enjoy reading about the Hungarian lad who made good.

A visitor on the set of "Anastasia" in London was Yul Brynner's 17-year-old step-sister, Catherine Brynner. She has been in London majoring in languages and had never seen her brother on the stage or screen.

Her mother was Catherine Kornakova, one of the stars of the Moscow Arts Theater 15 years ago, and young Catherine will play a bit part in "Anastasia" with Yul. She admits she would like to return to Hollywood with him, and I'm told she has all of his charm and vivaciousness, plus a girlish beauty.

"And," says my correspondent, "if she gets to Hollywood she will be worth watching."

'Giveaway' Program Refuted by Seaton

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Interior Seaton says he doesn't think the Eisenhower administration has given away any natural resources, but if it has "I'm sure that was an inadvertence."

* * *

He said in a television interview that the administration has expanded the national parks and grame and wildlife preserves, and "certainly couldn't be the same administration that gave anything away."

Seaton's predecessor Douglas McKay had been the target of Democratic "giveaway" charges based on power policies, permits to drill for oil and gas on game preserves, and other actions.

Seaton conceded that in the month he has been in office he hasn't examined every public lands transaction over the last four years, but said he has found nothing to support the charges.

There are about 8,200,000 Christians in India.

About 56 per cent of the nation's families now own their own homes compared with less than 44 per cent in 1940.

Poor Ole Stork— He'll Make It Yet

WORLAND, Wyo. (AP) — Mrs. George Wood delivered a daughter in the back seat of her car 58 miles from a hospital recently while her husband was trying to convince a deputy sheriff they were in a hurry.

But Mrs. Wood is nudging a little closer to the hospital for each baby. Four years ago she delivered another daughter on a prairie road 60 miles from a Riverton, Wyo., hospital.

Stocks Continue to Move Ahead

The market seemed to be following through on its rise of last week which some brokers ascribed to fear of inflation due to expectations of another round of wage and price increases from a future steel labor settlement.

Other opening blocks included Texas Co., up ¾ at 66 on 1,300 shares, American Telephone up ⅝ at 182¼ on 1,500 and U. S. Steel up ¼ at 59 on 1,000.

Fugitive Linked to Possible Ring

Officials here believe the arrest last week of Allen E. Habedank, 24, of Mt. Morris may lead to discovery of an inter-state ring dealing in stolen construction machinery.

According to Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem, Habedank, who is being held under $1,000 bond on a fugitive warrant from Gary, Indiana, was arrested after a farmer reported Habedank tried to sell him an allegedly stolen tractor.

The tractor was found to be stolen after the farmer, Charles G. Mann of Lake Orion, attempted to finance it. An insurance company official noticed the serial numbers had been changed, Ziem said.

Habedank has demanded extradition proceedings and a hearing before Gov. G. Mennen Williams. Ziem said he is also free on $800 bond on a Genesee County charge of conspiracy to deal in stolen cars.

Ziem said he first learned of the matter when Pontiac attorney L. Harvey Lodge, acting for the insurance agent, brought it to his attention.

Rocketship to Moon Won't Have Antenna

EAST LANSING (AP) — Two college professors are working on a radio antenna suitable for man's first rocket to the moon.

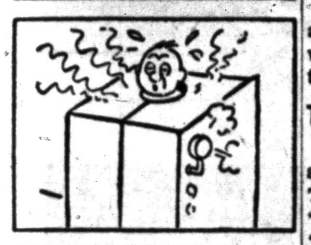

Charles P. Wells, Michigan State University mathematician, and physicist Alfred Leitner say rockets or satellites couldn't use clumsy outside antennae like the television ones that perch on roofs. That kind would slow down travel and break off.

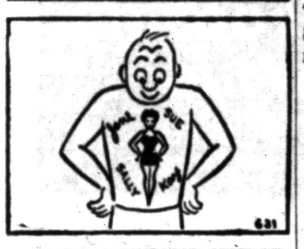

So they're experimenting with the idea of treating a rocket itself as an antenna by applying electrical charges to it. Practical applications of their ideas will be left to the U. S. Army ordnance research office which is supporting the project.

Must Be Bold, Beautiful to Make $150 an Hour

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Before I left for Moscow, I decided it wouldn't be fair to ask you to read about Russia every day—so I interviewed a lovely N. Y. gal who gets $150 an hour for modeling nude.

"I don't believe it," I said when I first heard that Miss Lee Collins of Denver and Dallas gets that terrific figure for showing her terrific figure (for commercial photographers).

"She certainly does—and she's worth it—she's a wonderful model," said several ad agency men and photographers.

One day Miss Collins dropped around to my apartment—fully dressed—and met my family. A sweet little brunette of about 25, she resembles Gene Tierney or Simone Simon. Another day I saw her — again fully dressed — with her small son who was romping around photographer Gerald Hochman's 54th St. studio.

And then one day I watched $300 worth of Miss Collins' modeling.

"She's here—she has to get here about 20 minutes early so the strap marks'll have time to come off," explained a helper of photographer Hans Van Ness.

She was doing a bathtub shot.

"Does anybody have a little iron?" she asked. "This hair ribbon ought to be pressed."

But actually I was disappointed because it wasn't a nude pose. That towel was in the way.

★ ★ ★

Once or twice in moving around she dropped the towel momentarily but everybody sort of yawned—including a woman from the ad agency.

"How do you like this work?" I asked.

"I should get $500 an hour," she said. "I hate to have women around when I work — I freeze up. Frankly, I don't like the work, but I guess I'd model nude in Times Square to be able to take care of my baby."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL IN N.Y. . . .

The Gregory Pecks were told to expect the baby on their ann'y., Jan. 1 . . . Fess Parker struck oil on his just-bought Texas acres . . . Joanne Woodward (of "A Kiss Before Dying") opens soon in "The Two Mrs. Carrolls" . . . Zachary Scott's daughter, Waverly, will be married July 15.

JOANNE WOODWARD

A famed "international playboy" is so broke he's selling some of his tailor-made $300 suits at $25 per . . . The police pulled a vice raid on one of the town's most famed cultural spots—and didn't find a thing.

EARL'S PEARLS . . .

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "Alimony," says Rob't Q. Lewis, "is like paying on a subscription to a magazine that isn't being published any more."

"Grocers will soon be stocking frozen bread," reports Charley Jones. "That means housewives will have to thaw the toast before they can burn it." That's earl, brother.

Youth Rises Up to Defend Elvis

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — There are some things to be learned from writing a column criticizing Elvis Presley, the rock 'n' roll singer.

* * *

This young man has the most vociferous following of any performer who has come down the pike since Frank Sinatra's heyday. His followers—all young, apparently — display an emotional identification with him that is of unsurpassed intensity. They feel that a critique of Presley is a critique of teen-age youth today.

* * *

Those conclusions are based on 74 letters from 16 states which I received within a few days after my unkind remarks about Elvis were published. The letters still pour in, but that's a fair sampling: 72 pro-Presley; two anti-Presley. The two who agreed with me were a woman in St. Paul, Minn., and a woman in Corpus Christi, Tex. (By the way, fans, I'm 38 years old; I'm very old indeed.)

* * *

Well, I haven't changed my opinion of rock 'n' roll rhythm and Presley's ability to entertain me. But I have revised my opinion of many of his fans. Many are articulate and most intelligent, as well as vociferous. Only two wrote obscene letters. Thus I fared better than Ben Gross of the New York Daily News, the dean of New York TV critics, who was vilified with filthy letters after he held Presley's feet to the critical fires. Nobody annoyed me.

* * *

Of the 72 anti-Mercer letters, only 16 were anonymous. That is a lower average of unsigned letters than generally prevails when adults become exercised over a subject—a heartening fact. It's good to see so many youths with the courage of their convictions to sign their names.

* * *

Of the 56 signed letters, 44 were from girls, seven from boys, and the remainder from groups. Presley's attraction to what used to be called the weaker sex in the bad old days is, of course, obvious.

* * *

But the most significant thing I found in the correspondence was the widely expressed opinion — either explicitly or by inference — that adults fail to understand the younger generation today. In effect the teen-agers said: "We want to express ourselves and Elvis Presley gives us the opportunity—and what's wrong with that?" When I criticized their current totem, Presley, they saw me as the old repressive order.

* * *

Incredible as it seems to them, I was young once too. I remember trying to express myself and I remember the repressive influences. It sometimes seems that each generation has to find its own way in its own sweet time, sorting out for itself what is worthy of expression and what is not.

St. Louis Gas Strike Enters Ninth Day

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Negotiators made another effort today to settle a nine-day old strike by employes of Laclede Gas Co. and the number of customers reported without gas service climbed to 16,000.

* * *

The 2,200 strikers have ignored a state seizure order and punitive court action imposed in an attempt to get them back to work.

Main stumbling block in the contract dispute is a proposed change in company policy under which contractors instead of Laclede employes would make connections between gas meters and appliances.

In Suburban St. Ann, the firm said, someone injected water into a gas line. Other residential sections were deprived of service when someone closed pipeline valves.

* * *

Officers of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union issued a statement saying the union is greatly disturbed and strongly opposes anything but peaceful picketing and peaceful prosecution of strikers.

India has 19 paper mills in operation at present.

Bubble Trouble

* * *

Some prankster poured a bottle of liquid detergent into the fountain beneath the huge gilt statue. In a few minutes white foam bubbled up around the statue.

Attendants shut off the fountain and washed away the foam.

GOP Releases Campaign Book Against Morse

* * *

The lithographed book is made up of statements by the senator, newspaper clippings, anti-Morse editorials, letters to the editor, excerpts from the Congressional Record and a running commentary.

* * *

"The purpose of the book," says State Chairman Wendell Wyatt in a foreword, "is to provide a reference-type fact book for the press and other political observers."

That's a Lot of Smoking

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Richmond cigarette factories produced 110,122,000,000 cigarettes in 1955 for the third highest total in the city's history. It was the 18th straight year Richmond factories have turned out more than a hundred billion cigarettes.

Apartment Collapses

Just 16 Words Can Win Prize in Pot-O-Gold!

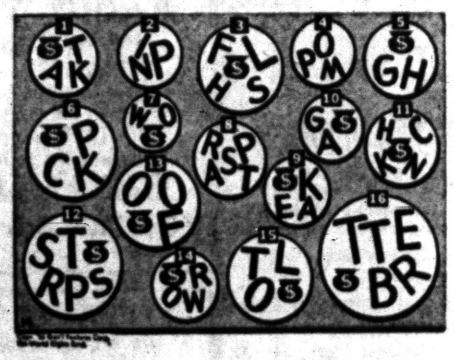

You have a chance to match your wits against those of the experts in the Press' summer word game POT-O-GOLD, the seventh of which appears below. Compiled by some of the top puzzle-makers in the country, POT-O-GOLD is a challenging contest in which words are made to fit the clues given below the blank. Read the rules, fill in the empty spaces and send us your entry by the specified deadline. Good luck on the $100 weekly prize!

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below.

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conform to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

OFFICIAL CONTEST RULES

1. Anyone is eligible to enter the POT-O-GOLD contest with the exception of Pontiac Press employes or their immediate families.

2. A contestant may submit as many entries as he or she wishes but they must be on official entry blanks printed in this newspaper.

3. To submit an entry the contestant must print his answer words in the proper spaces, cut out the area enclosed by dotted lines and attach it securely to a 2-cent postcard. No entries will be accepted if they are in envelopes. Entries for Puzzle No. 7 must bear a Tuesday, July 17, postmark (or before). No entries received after that time, whether mailed or delivered by hand, will be declared eligible. The Press is not responsible for entries lost or delayed in the mail.

4. Sorry, telephone calls or mail concerning details of the contest cannot be answered or acknowledged.

5. The Pontiac Press will award a cash prize of $100 a week to the winner of each weekly POT-O-GOLD contest. If more than one winning answer is received the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If any week or weeks should pass without any winners, the prize will be added weekly until a winning solution is submitted.

6. Winners will be awarded an extra cash bonus of $25 each if they are Pontiac Press subscribers of record on the day winners are announced. Only one such bonus can be awarded to each prize-winner, no matter how many weekly prizes may accumulate.

7. Each week's puzzle will be published Monday, Wednesday and Friday until the contest's end, Labor Day. Either or all will be considered as official entry blanks.

8. Winners and correct solutions will be announced each Friday of the week following individual contests. Official keeper of answers will be Frederick C. Ziem, prosecutor for Oakland County. Only the General Features Corp., originators of the puzzles, will know the solutions until after each contest is over. Answers will be delivered to the Press judges by Mr. Ziem after the final deadline.

9. There is only one correct solution to the POT-O-GOLD puzzle, and only that correct answer can win. The decision of the judges is final and all contestants agree to abide by the judges' decision. All entries become the property of The Pontiac Press and none can be returned.

10. Completed puzzles must be addressed to POT-O-GOLD, POST OFFICE BOX 58, Pontiac, Michigan. Winners will be notified either by telephone or in the mails.

Columnist Learns a Lot From Readers' Mail

That the American man buys less than an average of one new suit a year, has each suit dry cleaned four times year.

That Cecil B. DeMille, active in motion pictures since 1913, estimates his films have drawn 3,314,000,000 paid admissions.

That Chicago, the Windy City, is really doing something about its dust problem. The dustfall for the first quarter of 1956 averaged 56.6 tons per square mile, compared to 65.7 tons during the same period in the three previous years.

That one of the hazards of oil explorers in Libya is still-unexploded land mines laid by Field Marshal Rommel's troops in wartime, and since covered by shifting sands.

That the ancient Egyptians, even as you and I, suffered from foot corns. A papyrus dating back to 1,500 B.C. recommended as a remedy a poultice of various berries cooked in cow fat.

That when Henry David Thoreau was dying of tuberculosis and his aunt asked if he had made his peace with God, he replied, "I am not aware that we had ever quarreled."

That Italian film star Sophia Loren, who measures 38-24-38, says, "What I've got came from eating spaghetti."

That by next spring the American Bible Society, organized in 1816, will have distributed half a billion Bibles.

That the entire Bible has now been published in 207 languages and dialects and at least one book of the Bible in 1,092 different tongues.

That college and elementary school students in America have at least one thing in common. The word they both misspell most often is "their."
