Israel Displays Military Might in Huge Parade

Jewish Nation Marks Its Eighth Anniversary; Border Areas Uneasy

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — Israel mustered its military might today for a show-of-strength parade in a land where many fear the next shot might touch off a big war.

The show marks Israel's eighth anniversary as an independent Jewish state born in the fires of war with four Arab neighbors—Egypt, Jordan, Syria and Lebanon.

It comes on the eve of Dag Hammarskjöld's arrival on a U.N. mission to stamp out the new flames of conflict between Arab and Israel.

The border area was comparatively quiet but uneasy in the wake of the U. N. secretary general's first week of on-the-scene persuasion.

An Egyptian spokesman charged that Israel had violated Hammarskjöld's newly invoked cease-fire eight times in the past 48 hours. The spokesman said Israeli fighters fired into the Egyptian-held Gaza Strip five times yesterday and two Israeli planes had flown over the strip for five minutes Saturday.

"KEEP OUR WORD"

"We kept our word to U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld and refused to return one single shot," he said.

The big feature of Israel's military show is the unveiling of 12 French Mystere Jets. They will swoop over the northern port of Haifa as the high point of the parade.

The modern jets were brought to Israel under a cloak of secrecy to meet the threat of Egypt's MIG-15 jets and 40 Soviet Ilyushin bombers, newly acquired from Communist Czechoslovakia.

Premier David Ben-Gurion set the theme of the bomber observance in a broadcast last night to the nation. He warned that if war breaks out, "our enemies will meet the power and heroism of our defense forces which will give back to the aggressor two blows for one."

The military source who disclosed the arrival of the Mystere jets estimated that the Arab states could field 280,000 troops against Israel's army of 200,000.

In Cairo, Premier Nasser declared that Egypt is surrounded by "enemies who try to degrade our honor."

Egypt and Israel have agreed unconditionally to stop shooting except in self-defense.

Hammarskjöld left Cairo Saturday after initial talks with Nasser. He said he had accomplished what he set out to do there. He confers today with Lebanese leaders and leaves tomorrow for Israel.

Icardi on Trial for Perjury in War Slaying of Superior

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ex-army Lt. Aldo L. Icardi was called to trial today on charges of falsely denying he plotted the World War II slaying of his superior, Maj. William V. Holohan, behind enemy lines in Italy.

While the indictment charges Icardi with perjury, the effect it is to accuse him of directing the slaying of Holohan during a daring cloak-and-dagger mission.

Midnight Deadline for '55 Tax Returns

A final "day of grace" will end at midnight today for millions of taxpayers who have yet to file 1955 income tax returns, according to the Dept. of Internal Revenue.

Mail-in returns must be postmarked April 16 if senders are to escape penalties involved in late filing, district officials point out. Aid in completing forms will be available at the Pontiac office until 4:30 p.m. today.

Activity at the local office was reported "steady," although last-minute filers are expected to swell lines this afternoon. The deadline was set back a day because the usual filing date, April 15, fell on Sunday.

Today is also the final deadline for turning in first quarter reports on estimated earnings.

Ex-President Hoover to Skip Campaign Trail

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Herbert Hoover says he's too busy to take an active part in the coming presidential election campaign.

"I have a lot of other things to do," he told reporters before leaving here by plane yesterday to address the Inter-American Bar Assn. meeting at Dallas tonight.

Grace and Rainier Rehearse

MONTE CARLO (INS)—A relaxed Grace Kelly and prince Rainier III rehearsed their religious wedding ceremonies in St. Charles Cathedral today amid popping flashbulbs, hammering, and organ music.

The Princess-to-be and her Prince appeared calm as some 50 photographers worked with their flashing cameras at the cathedral where they will be wed Thursday following Wednesday's civil ceremony.

There was none of the tension that had brought boos aimed at the Prince, and perhaps at Grace, early this morning by rain-soaked, frustrated and police-pummelled photographers outside the International Sporting Club.

The couple at the cathedral seemed undisturbed by photographers, TV men hammering on a scaffolding for cameras and dragging flood lights across the church and by the organist simultaneously practicing Bach's Prelude and Fugue.

400 Persons Homeless as High Winds Swirl Around Birmingham

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—A tornado swirling and twisting through the outskirts of Birmingham killed at least 21 persons, injured more than 200 and left 400 persons homeless.

A Red Cross official said the winds yesterday destroyed more than 100 houses clustered on hills west and north of this industrial city. Hundreds of houses received lesser damage.

"We've counted 21 bodies and there may be others," said Roscoe Whatley, Red Cross director here. Most of the dead were Negroes.

Most of the dead and injured were at McDonald's Chapel, a suburb of 3,000 population just outside the northwestern city limits. Winds also felled Sandusky, New Georgia and Sayreton, other suburban areas.

Fire engines joined the confusion at McDonald's Chapel when fire broke out in some of the ruined houses.

Approximately 150 persons were admitted to Birmingham hospitals. Some were treated and released but most were confined for treatment.

Whatley said an emergency ward had been set up in a union hall in Ensley, an industrial suburb, where 30 of the less seriously injured were admitted.

The awesome roar of the approaching storm gave sufficient warning for many to take shelter before their houses were blown to splinters.

Another twister struck Huntsville in North Alabama, causing heavy damage but no known injuries.

Tuscaloosa, Anniston, Centerville, Montgomery, Dothan and Mobile also felt high winds.

A severe thunderstorm with hail and wind gusts up to 60 miles per hour pelted the devastated area last night while relief operations were in progress.

Most of the dead were found in wreckage left in the wake of the storm. Mrs. Betty Duncan, 30, lay with her 3-year-old son Rodney in her arms and Melvin Duncan, 8, sprawled nearby. All three were dead.

Broadway Producer, Wife Feared Missing in Plane

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—A far-flung search was ordered today for a plane reported missing over Lake Erie about two miles from shore.

Two persons were believed aboard the craft which lost radio contact after its pilot said he was "having difficulty" at 700 feet altitude.

The Civil Aeronautics Authority said the pilot identified himself as "G. Pollock."

The CAA and airport authorities at Detroit said the name and address given on the flight plan before the craft left for New York City checked with the New York address of Gordon W. Pollock, a Broadway producer.

His show, "Wake Up, Darling," had been trying out in New Haven, Conn., prior to a Broadway opening scheduled May 2.

Pollock's telephone did not answer at his New York apartment. Bill Doll, press agent for the show, said he did not know Pollock's whereabouts but believed Pollock's wife was with him. Doll identified her as a former ballet dancer and said she was expecting a child.

Officials of the Detroit City Airport said Pollock arrived there early Saturday night in a flight from New Haven and that he had a passenger aboard.

CAA authorities in Erie said Pollock had contacted them while on his flight to Detroit and said he was having "radio difficulty."

But they declared their last contact with him on the return flight yesterday ended without an explanation of what sort of difficulty he was experiencing.

I Didn't Look There, Says Blushing Farmer

MARQUETTE (AP)—State police had a short search for a valuable calf reported missing by Farmer Fred Desotell. They found it on the front porch as they drove up to investigate.

The embarrassed Desotell said he had been busy in the barnyard and hadn't looked around the front of the house when he found the week-old Holstein gone.

Expected to Also Vote on Water Measure

Supervisors to View Budget Hikes

Oakland County's Board of Supervisors will review three items of major importance at tomorrow's meeting in the County Office Building.

A vote will be taken on the proposed articles of incorporation with Macomb County as the Southwestern Michigan Water Authority. Royal Oak Mayor Howard K. Kelley, who presented the issue at last week's meeting, said the authority would seek a solution to water problems in both counties.

The county's tentative $9,035,485 1957 budget will be reviewed, and supervisors will view preliminary plans and drawings of the proposed new court house and service center.

The proposed budget represents an increase of 15.2 per cent over last year. Most county departments are scheduled for annual raises, ranging from $4,000 to $27,000.

Special funds are slated for the largest raises. An increase of $126,000 is contemplated for the hospitalization fund, with jumps of $100,000 each for direct relief and county roads. Supervisors may elect to spend $90,000 more for child care.

Funds for the County Health unit may be raised by $125,000.

In appropriations, the budget schedules increases of $32,000 for the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority and $25,000 for state institutions.

Departments which may be given more money next year include circuit court ($27,000), the county clerk ($12,000), drain commissioner ($15,000), dog warden ($2,000), equalization division ($20,000), friend of the court ($26,000), probate-juvenile division ($29,000), probate court ($4,000), prosecuting attorney ($8,000), planning commission ($16,000), register of deeds ($35,000), relief administration ($15,000), treasurer ($12,000), and veterans' council ($6,000).

Robert Y. Moore, chairman of the county Board of Auditors, said today he hopes increased assessment values in the county, mainly due to population growth, will cover the budget increases.

"But at most, the individual taxpayer's load won't be raised more than 10 or 12 cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation," Moore said.

Ike Will Explain Stand to Nation in Networks Talk

Latest Rumors Indicate Veto; Three Governors Visiting President

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today vetoed the farm bill.

He will go on the air at 10 p. m., EST, to explain his rejection of the measure, which becomes through his veto, a sure major issue in the election campaign.

In his veto message, Eisenhower told the lawmakers the high price support bill "would do harm to every agricultural region of the country and also to the interests of consumers."

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House announced today that President Eisenhower will go on the air tonight "to talk to the people of America on the farm bill."

It also was announced, amid strong indications of a veto, that Eisenhower would act on the controversial measure during the day.

Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty told reporters at an unusual 8 a.m. news conference "there will be a statement on the bill" some time during the day.

The announcement preceded by only an hour a session between Eisenhower and three Republican Midwestern governors, all of whom favor the farm bill as passed by Congress.

Eisenhower has described the measure, containing many price support-boosting features which he opposes, as "not a good bill."

Hagerty declined to say whether the statement he referred to would be a veto message, but other sources said they were confident it would be.

Eisenhower's broadcast will be carried live from 10 to 10:30 p.m. EST on all major radio networks: NBC, CBS, ABC and Mutual.

It also will be carried live on ABC television. NBC-TV will carry a kinescope repeat of the address at 11:30 p.m.

Fluoridation Favored by New York Group

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Academy of Medicine's committee on public health says it favors fluoridation of the city's water supply as a method of fighting tooth decay.

The committee said it had considered all available evidence and found that "it has been conclusively shown that a fluoride added to drinking water at a concentration that will effectively prevent dental care is harmless."

The committee rejected contentions that fluoridation would be wasteful because only 5 per cent of the city's water goes for drinking purposes. The group said the savings in dollars through prevention of tooth decay would be tremendous.

Truman-Daniel Wedding Press Corps Arrives

INDEPENDENCE, MO. (INS)—The first contingent of press correspondents is moving in on the hometown of Margaret Truman who will be married Saturday to New York Newspaperman Clifton Daniel Jr.

Although both the 32-year-old bride-to-be and her prospective husband from Zebulon, N.C., have maintained their marriage at Independence will be a quiet "family affair" excitement over the coming nuptials is mounting.

Tiny Trinity Episcopal Church, where former President and Mrs. Harry S. Truman were married 37 years ago, has been redecorated for their daughter's wedding, and even the service station nearby received a thorough cleaning.

Miss Truman, looking radiantly happy, arrived home by train Saturday night and was greeted by a throng of 200 persons.

After exchanging a few words with friends in the crowd, she was driven home by her parents for what Margaret described as a "week of eating and sleeping."

Probably the most distinctive part of the wedding will be Margaret's gown, which will be made of 200-year-old lace.

President to Explain Farm Bill Decision

sisting as late as yesterday that the President had not made up his mind what action to take on the farm bill.

Except for that, however, all signs had pointed to a veto. Whatever the decision, it unquestionably will have a heavy bearing on the upcoming presidential campaign.

Benson: "A BAD BILL." Secretary of Agriculture Benson and other presidential advisers conferred with Eisenhower at length Saturday in Augusta, Ga. The President returned to the capital last night from a week of golfing and work in Augusta.

Benson on leaving Augusta Saturday described as a "bad bill" the measure which would shelve for 1956 the flexible price supports he has stoutly championed. Other features of the measure also would have the effect of raising supports to levels comparable to those which Eisenhower and Benson have maintained are responsible for the present farm problem.

POLITICAL DILEMMA Benson said on leaving Georgia that Eisenhower still had not made his "very difficult" decision on whether to veto the bill, sign it or let it become law without his signature. The deadline for action is a week from tomorrow. The circumstances seemed to pose a political dilemma for Eisenhower.

His administration freely concedes that farmers are not sharing in the general prosperity, and that some new legislation is needed. If this bill dies, chances are remote that Congress will pass another.

Approval of the measure, on the other hand, would be seized upon by Democrats as at least a partial vindication of the criticism they have heaped on administration farm policy.

The Senate approved the bill 50-35 last Wednesday. A compromise of separate Senate and House bills, it had won House okay earlier the same day 237-181.

These margins were far short of the two-thirds majorities which would be needed to override a veto. Key Democrats have said a veto would mean no major farm legislation this year.

Eisenhower seemed certain, however, to accompany a possible veto with a new request to Congress to approve a soil bank program—the only major feature of the current bill which he recommended.

future princess at the rehearsal, commenting, "She looks so thin." The "loyal subjects" paid little attention to Rainier, whom they called "our little Prince," but pushed through photographers to get a close look at Grace.

Early this morning, photographers had expressed their displeasure when the Prince refused to pose or let Grace pose as they left the Sporting Club. He similarly had refused when the pair entered the swank club several hours earlier.

The arrival spectacle had been as unprecedented as the later bows. Rainier's plainclothes police had torn the soggy raincoats of photographers trying to get closer shots of the famed couple. Flashes had flown.

The battle took place as the Prince and the film star stepped out of their car to attend the swish "gala" in their honor.

Many men and uninvited reporters had stood in a solid downtown for hours noting arriving guests, including the bulky Aga Khan and multi-millionaire Aristide Onassis, who picked up the more-than-$7,000 tab for the affair.

Rainier and Grace were one hour late for the champagne dinner for the social three hundred. A palace spokesman blamed the tardiness on "one or both of the Prince's parents."

But Prince Pierre, his father, and Pierre's divorced wife, Princess Charlotte, his mother, both arrived at the sporting club not only separately but well in advance of the Prince and Grace.

The engaged couple was expected at nine o'clock but arrived at ten to find a roomful of famished and thirsty guests.

Entertainment at the "gala" included a special tribute to the pair paid in blank verse by the French poet playwright Jean Cocteau.

Expatriate American singer Eddie Constantine and his daughter presented Grace with a gold record of their famous number, "Bluebird," after singing it to her from the stage.

The Day in Birmingham

Students Will Take Turn at Governing City Tonight

BIRMINGHAM — Students will take their turn at city government tonight at 7, before the city commissioners turn to discussions of Ferndale-Park paving, the Hamilton crossover, and a bus ordinance.

Hearings for the extension and paving of Ferndale and Park streets in preparation for Parking Lot A, to be bounded by those streets and Hamilton, are coming up tonight, having been put aside at the March 19 meeting.

A letter from Newell Allen requests paving of Park street from Euclid to Hamilton, adding the block to the north to the block required for the parking lot's border.

Special assessment districts will be voted on tonight for the Ferndale-Park projects, Hamilton crossover, the 14-Mile water-main from Mansfield to Eton, and the widening of pavement on 14-Mile from Greenfield to the eastern city limit.

High school students will assume offices of city government in a practice session at 7 p.m. with the regular meeting set as usual at 8 p.m. The youth leaders met this morning with assistant city manager Dana Whitman for briefing.

Police believe the same person or persons are responsible for four filling station break-ins within the past week.

Uptown Service, 264 North Woodward, had only a bottle of liquor taken Thursday night, police say, and about $40 in change was missed the same night from Marathon Service at Hunter and Maple.

Friday night, the Petrol by Murphy station was entered; with candy the only item taken. A week ago, Tom Kaiser's station at 14 Mile Rd. and Woodward had about $50 in change stolen.

Ferndale Man Dies in Automobile Crash

A 51-year-old Ferndale resident was killed this morning when his car went off the road and into a field on the Willow Run Expressway in Allen Park.

The victim, Ammon Hutchines, reportedly lost control of his car about 1 a.m. while driving at a high rate of speed, according to Allen Park police.

Minor injuries were suffered by three passengers: Thomas Clarke and Colonel Quigley of Highland Park and Jay Blackburn of Detroit.

Mrs. Grace Vaughan Otto, 67, Hanna, died this morning at St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital after a prolonged illness. Service will be Thursday at 1 p.m. at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Company, and burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery.

MTA's Final Effort for Agreement Starts

ANN ARBOR (INS)—The Michigan Turnpike Authority today launched "one last effort" to reach agreement with communities protesting the route of its proposed Rockwood-Saginaw toll road.

Authority chairman George N. Higgins said turnpike representatives would confer again with Dearborn, Allen Park and other cities objecting to the route through their boundaries.

Higgins conceded, however, that there was little likelihood of financing the road as long as State Highway Commissioner Ziegler remains in office.

Consultants have said the $190 million bond issue necessary for the pike would be unsalable because of Ziegler's announced intention of building certain sections of free road parallel to key points of the turnpike route.

Woman, 64, Struck by Passing Truck

A 64-year-old woman was hospitalized late Saturday morning for injuries suffered when hit by a truck as she ran across Baldwin avenue to catch an approaching bus.

Mrs. Ethel Medcalf, of 94 E. Sheffield Ave. is reported in fair condition in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. She told police she was watching the southbound bus and didn't see the northbound truck driven by Donald C. Richmond, 24, of Milford.

The woman apparently was clipped by the sideview mirror on Richmond's truck, police said.

MAKE OVER PAGES Name New Supervisor

Farmington Township Appoints Ward Eagle

FARMINGTON — Ward Eagle was appointed township supervisor at a special meeting of the township board here Saturday.

He will fill the post left vacant by the death last week of Ernest V. Blanchard.

Eagle, lifelong resident of Farmington Township, has served on the board almost continuously since he was first elected in 1934.

He was born 64 years ago at 2655 14 Mile road, where he still resides. He attended local schools and graduated from Pontiac High School. He later taught at Farmington rural schools and served as director and treasurer in the local rural school district. From 1934 to 1955, he was Oakland County representative to the Michigan Milk Producers Assn.

He is a member of the Lions Club and Lodge 151, F&AM.

Of his appointment, Eagle said "It is a hard spot to fill. The rapid growth of the township is bringing up problems which didn't exist a few years ago. I hope people won't expect too much of me at first."

"Although I am familiar with the policies and operation of the board, I still must learn the mechanics of the office of supervisor."

Floyd A. Cairns, township clerk, explained that Eagle was appointed in special session because of the demand that Farmington Township have a voting representative at the meeting of the county board of supervisors next Tuesday. It is expected that the supervisors will vote on a new census for the county.

According to Cairns, a new census could mean as much as $30,000 to the township, since the rebate on sales tax is based upon population. This would also be of importance to schools and to the county road commission, as well as local government. The sales tax returned to Farmington is based upon the 1950 census as adjusted.

Annexation Election Set June 5 at Troy

TROY — Troy will hold a special election June 5 to vote on annexation of five square miles of Troy Township to the city of Troy.

Voters also will be asked to approve the annexation of two small sections of land, entirely surrounded by Birmingham, to Birmingham.

Residents also may be asked to vote on a plan to combine Troy's three sewage districts into one.

The City Commission believes that financing would be easier if the three districts—The Troy drain in the northeast, Evergreen drain in the west and Twelve-Town in the southeast—were considered as one unit.

To Summarize '3rd Revolution' for Book Club

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — "The Third Revolution" by Karl Stern will be summarized when the Book Review Club meets at 1 p.m. today at the home of Mrs. Eugene Cleland, 4474 Rural Street.

Both are students at Western Michigan College, Kalamazoo.

Bairds to Mark Golden Wedding Date Wednesday

LAPEER — Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Baird will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary with an open house Wednesday at their home at 343 Washington St. The two were married at Corunna April 18, 1906.

They came to Lapeer in 1922 when Baird began as a partner in what eventually became the Baird Funeral Home. Mrs. Baird assists her husband in the capacity of organist, singer and receptionist.

The Bairds' three children, Mrs. Robert (Ora) O'Connor of Lapeer, Mrs. Charles (Margaret) Kuhn of Detroit and Robert Baird of Lapeer will be at the party to help mark the "big day" along with their families. Altogether, there are nine grandchildren and one great-grandson.

The Bairds say this newspaper account of their golden wedding will probably get more attention than the original wedding story. On their wedding day, extras were blaring out the news of the San Francisco earthquake. Mrs. Baird said, and "nobody paid attention to our big day."

Corn Contest Slated for '56

Oakland County Office Has Entry Applications, Awards Offered

A corn contest will be held again in 1956 for Oakland County farmers.

The great interest in last year's contest has prompted the Oakland County Extension Service and the Crops Committee to sponsor a contest this year. John Trocke, assistant Oakland County Ag agent, announced.

Each entrant will grow one or more acres of corn for the contest. It may be a part of a larger field. The rules of the contest state that each entrant will have a soil test made before planting time. They may use any fertilizer, brand of seed, or practices they wish.

Entry blanks are available at the Extension Service office or from local grain elevators. Mail entries in to the Extension Service as soon as possible. Samples of the yield will be taken by members of the Crops Committee.

There will be both a junior and a senior contest. Those entrants under 21 years of age will enter the junior contest, and those entrants over 21 years of age will enter the senior contest.

Awards will be presented to the first, second and third place winners in each division. These prizes are being awarded by members of the Oakland County Crops Committee which is composed of farmers and interested seed and fertilizer dealers.

Persons wishing a free sample of a particular brand of seed corn to plant to use for planting entries may contact the Extension Office and arrangements will be made.

2 Book Depots Set by Board

WALLED LAKE — Newest developments arising from the latest meeting of the Library Planning Board held here at the Junior High School, included a change in the name of the board. Hereafter, it will be known as the Community Library Board.

Two significant business items were settled by the board. One, a decision was made to establish two book depots within the city. Two, ways and means of raising money to offset future costs were arranged.

The book depots will be located at Staman Drug, 123 East Wall Lake Dr., and at Wall Lake Pharmacy, 238 East Wall Lake Dr. Book donations from anyone will be appreciated.

Ways and means of obtaining money were discussed thoroughly. Sources chosen were a bake sale, a tag day and a silver tea.

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR: JUNIOR EDITORS

Marcellino the Clown

All winter long the circuses were busy in their southern headquarters, making new costumes and training new animals. Now, as spring arrives, they take to the road.

Marcellino the little clown, has one of his own called the Junior Circus. It is small, but has some very good acts as you will see this week. Each day we will bring you a member of Marcellino's troupe.

Here is Marcellino himself, with his pet duck named Quacky, and a dog called Barker. They wear caps and collars just like their master, and both can do clever tricks.

To start a collection of circus cutouts, color this picture brightly and paste it down on cardboard. Cut out the parts carefully. Cut the slit on the back of Marcellino's upraised hand, and in the top of the little stand. Now, by putting the tab on Quacky into either slit he will sit up.

Fold the two ends of the big picture forward on the dotted lines, and the group will stand up.

(This idea was first suggested by John Gwinn, Dayton, Ohio. If you have an idea for Junior Editors send it care of this newspaper, and it may win you $10. Violet Moore Higgins; AP Newsfeatures.)

Civic Leaders to Discuss Youth, Family at Parley

Speakers for the "Youth and Community" panel discussion program Monday Apr. 23 have chosen their discussion topics, according to Rabbi Henry Hoshander, moderator of the group.

Sponsored by the Adult Institute of Congregation B'Nai Israel, the program will be held at the synagogue at 8:30 p.m.

Dr. James McHugh, of Pontiac State Hospital; Paul Sullivan, psychologist in Pontiac Schools; William Coslacos, Pontiac Boys' Club director, and the Rev. C. George Widdfield of All Saints Episcopal Church will make up the list of panel speakers.

Dr. McHugh's topic is "Youth and the Family." His remarks will cover love in the home, parental approval and acceptance, discipline, the youth to his parents, brothers and sisters.

"Youth in the School" is Sullivan's topic. He plans to discuss students and teachers, hero worship, future avocations, the relationship of the student to his school work and his attitude toward higher education.

Widdfield will speak on "Youth and Religion" telling how a person in his youth can relate his life to religion.

Last of the panel speakers, Coslacos, plans to speak of "Youth and Youth." His talk will center around the relationships of young people to each other.

Mayor William O. Donaldson will conclude the program with remarks on "Youth and his place in the Community."

Making up the panel will be Thomas Lufkin, St. Frederick High School junior, Vicky Everett, Pontiac High School senior; Charles Williams, Pontiac High junior; David Cartier, Pontiac High junior; Le Berg, also a junior at Pontiac High and Karen Beam, a senior at Pontiac High School.

We're Non-Aligned, Nehru Tells India

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru says it is wrong to describe India as a "neutral." To do so, he says, is to denote "a state of mind which can only think in terms of war."

The Prime Minister, in a foreign affairs speech to Parliament, said India could not be called "neutral" for refusing to take sides in the cold war. Instead, he indicated India should be described as non-aligned or, preferably, "independent."

"Sometimes," he said, "people rather with some disdain refer to our neutralism. I do not think we are neutral. I hope we are not neutral about any vital matter."

Lessons in the technique of love-making for older children are suggested in Denmark by Dr. C. W. Herlitz, head of the Schools' Medical Board in Copenhagen. "We must tell our children everything," he declares.

Marine Disaster Probe Continues

Parris Island Officer Reveals Courts Martial Record of Instructors

PARRIS ISLAND, S.C. (AP)—The public information office says that nine drill sergeants have been before general courts-martial in the last 16 months at this Marine Corps training base.

Meantime, a court of inquiry today continues taking testimony about a forced night march in which six recruits drowned April 8.

NORMAL FOR PERIOD

The information office, giving its figure in reply to a newsman's question, said the number of courts-martial is normal for the period covered. Six resulted in convictions on charges of striking recruits.

The PIO said one sergeant was found guilty of hitting a recruit 19 times in the stomach on the recruit's birthday.

CAPTAIN TESTIFIES

Maj. Gen. Joseph Burger, depot commander, said the inquiry should end this week. Results will go through his hands, the Marine command and the naval advocate general's office at Washington before released.

The six men drowned on a forced march in swampy water ordered by S.Sgt. Matthew C. McKeon, 31, of Worcester, Mass.

Called before the court have been the survivors of the march and McKeon's Captain, Richard P. Grey. Grey was heard yesterday.

Bob Considine Says:

Snubbed Kelly Guests Angry at 'Protocol'

MONTE CARLO (INS)—One of these days somebody's going to put all these things into a stage play or a movie and nobody will believe it could really happen.

The saga of the incursion of the Kelly family, accompanied by seventy friends and relatives mainly from Philadelphia, would provide grist enough for any playwright's mill. The mass invasion of main liners in this atom-sized kingdom started out as enthusiastically as the pealing of another famed Philadelphia institution, the Liberty Bell, but it has developed a somewhat similar crack.

The first fly in the ointment for the voyaging wedding party was the discovery that they had to squeeze four into a cabin in some cases because of the limited space aboard the S.S. Constitution. Then, some had trouble getting hotel rooms here and at least three have been robbed, one until it hurt.

Honest John and Margaret Kelly, who came up from brick-laying to industrial nobility, assumed it would be just one jolly party and everybody would be happy as clams. They forgot to take into consideration the fact there is nothing much more helpless than an American tourist in a country where the natives are so dumb they cannot speak his language. Lots of the Kelly guests look instinctively to the father and mother of the bride to fend for them in matters as basic as sending out the laundry and reading a menu.

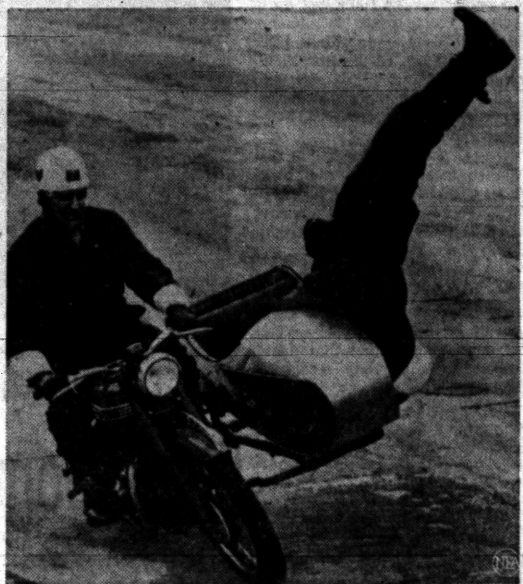

NEVER HEARD OF 'EM
But reaching Margaret and John is not as simple as it sounds, though they are as democratic as corned beef and cabbage. The Kellys must live at Prince Rainier's palace—protocol, you know—and the voice on the palace end of the already uncertain Monacan telephone wire never speaks English and has never heard of such a non-Monacasque name as K-E-L-L-Y.

"I swear to goodness, Margaret, I could get the Queen of England on the phone easier than I can get you," an old friend of Mrs. Kelly complained to her today. Many others haven't been able to get close enough to her to complain, they complain.

Only half of the big Kelly party is invited to tonight's "gala" International Sporting Club where SIDE CAR CIRCUS — Joe Acrobat on the right isn't looking for something under the sidecar. He's just showing off. These motorcycle daredevils, members of the Royal Corps of Signals, are taking their "casual" spin at the London airport, just prior to their trip to Bermuda where they will perform in a military show.

Rainier and Grace will preside in splendid array. As a result, there is grumbling in the ranks, talk of favoritism, and beefing which generally begins with "I wouldn't have paid my good money to come all this distance if, etc., etc., etc."

RAINIER TALKS TO DAD!

But the entire party made it to Mr. and Mrs. Kelly's party for the couple and the Prince's relatives at the Cabaret Monte Carlo casino last night and harmony broke out on all sides—at least for the guests. A Dixieland band, which the Kellys had brought over from the states to play, played so loud that Mrs. Kelly ordered them to pipe down and when they didn't pipe down she ordered them off the bandstand. They left in what one guest called "tears of rage."

Everything was so civil and decorum was so rife at the party, that Rainier's divorced mother and father, Prince Pierre and Princess Charlotte spoke together for one of the few times in recent years. Rainier and his father also conversed briefly—a rare occasion in itself.

Only Monacasques present paid homage to the ruler. The average Philadelphian when introduced to him, stuck out his paw and pumped his hand. One dowager saw Prince Pierre standing alone, approached him and introduced herself. The father of the groom snapped to millitary erectness, frightened her by clicking his heels and bowed. "Are you from the eastern part of your country?" he inquired. "Yes, I was born in Philadelphia," she answered.

NO HUMMING BIRDS

"Then I would like to ask you some questions," he continued. "Do you have humming birds? I am a fancier of humming birds. I traveled all the way to Los Angeles not too long ago searching for humming birds. I never found one! But I found Los Angeles and Hollywood shockingly dull."

The dazed dowager whimpered she had no humming birds. "Sorry," Prince Pierre said and dismissed her with another heel click and bow.

Auto With 'No Driver' Rolls Merrily Along

DENVER (AP)—Patrolman George Zellner jumped into his police cruiser after seeing a "driverless auto," with the headlights out, roll through a red light at a downtown intersection.

But when he overhauled the car—there was a driver in it after all.

"Where were you two minutes ago?" asked the cop. "Under the dashboard trying to fix the headlights," said the unidentified driver.

Boston Officer Fielding

1,000 Pct. in Baby League

BOSTON (AP)—Patrolman Mansell Nugent assisted yesterday in the delivery of premature twins. They gave him a record of 12 delivery assists in 12 years.

Answering an emergency call at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Savage, Nugent and Luciano Spina had the boy and girl twins ready to take to a hospital when the family physician arrived. The babies weighed 3 pounds 10½ ounces each. They were placed in incubators at St. Margaret's Hospital.
