'Free' Army Invades Red-Backed Guatemala

Good Luck Gift for Father's Day

Baby Shoes Kept Faith Alive Through War and Prison

By LULA B. OGDEN

Charles E. Bondy got his father's day gift—a pair of baby's shoes—10 years ago and they have grown more important to him with each passing year.

They show that faith and love will shine through the darkest clouds of despair. Even if the clouds are war clouds.

Bondy's story starts in January 1944 when he kissed his young wife, Bernice, and his 13-month-old baby, Juanita, goodbye and went off to war.

As a memento, he took with him Juanita's first pair of baby shoes. He kept them in barracks bags and foot lockers in the United States.

Then Bondy—Pvt. Bondy then—went overseas. The shoes became more meaningful. They were his only contact with home.

The private, who now lives at 210 Earlmore Blvd., carried them through Iceland, Scotland, England, France, Belgium and Luxemburg.

He cherished them even more deeply when he became a combat, company aidman in the Medical Corps of the 1st Army.

It was in Luxemburg that he first feared that the shoes would be taken from him.

Bondy and 35 men holed up in a farmhouse.

Enemy troops set fire to the building. Medical supplies had run out and some of the men were seriously wounded.

They were forced to surrender.

For a short time Bondy was in a German prison transit camp at Geraldston, Germany, where all his possessions were taken away — all except the booties which the guard allowed him to keep.

From this camp he was taken to Camp 11-B at Hanover where he was imprisoned three and one-half months. During this time he carried the booties around his neck night and day. Surrounding them always was the prayer that time would not run out before he might return to his home and baby.

The feeling of the booties nestling near his heart gave him strength during the long hard days of labor at railroad construction, and they comforted him when gangrene attacked his frostbitten toes.

These same booties kept hope alive when the war ended and when he was repatriated before the poison spread farther. They flew with him for an overnight stop at a hospital in England where he was treated, and were fastened to his bed while he was hospitalized in Scotland.

After a month there the booties were on the wing again. This time their destination was Percy Jones Hospital where they brought hope and cheer until he was able to return home to get acquainted with his little daughter who was then nearly three years old.

During Bondy's imprisonment a "missing in action" message was sent to his wife, on Jan. 2, 1945.

All the time Juanita would affirm "Daddy will come home," even when the rest of the family was beginning to fear that he was lost.

It was not until Bondy called from Percy Jones Hospital that the family knew he was alive.

After months of medical treatment, Bondy's toes were amputated. Now he wears a special pair of shoes and works in an automobile factory.

Few would suspect the hardships that Bondy has survived—with the constant help from two tiny baby shoes.

Since 1945 the shoes have hung on the mirrors in each of Bondy's seven cars.

Bondy says they are his good luck charms. They are all of that and more.

WHAT'S IN A SHOE—Juanita Bondy, 11, of 210 Earlmore Blvd., gazes at her first pair of baby shoes held by her father, Charles E. Bondy. To Juanita, the booties are simply a pair of shoes. To her father they are a symbol of love and faith that guided him through the dark days of World War II.

George Higgins Quits in GOP Governor Race

State Senator's Move Reduces List to Four Candidates

LANSING (AP) — State Sen. George N. Higgins of Ferndale rocked the political world back on its heels Friday by withdrawing from the race for the Republican nomination as governor.

"I am just taking one good man out of the race to let the people decide the Republican nomination for governor from the other four. I have great faith in the people."

For weeks Higgins had been staunchly denying persistent rumors that he would withdraw.

On his withdrawal, he avoided reporters, but he said he would not endorse any of the other candidates. He did not rule out the possibility, however, of running for another state office nomination in the Republican convention.

By pulling out, Higgins leaves the race to State Treasurer D. Hale Brake, Secy. of State Owen J. Cleary, former Lieut. Gov. Eugene C. Keyes and Donald S. Leonard, former Detroit Police commissioner.

Gov. Williams is unopposed for the Democratic nomination.

Sen. Lester Hunt Dies of Wound

Wyoming Dem Found in Office, .22 Caliber Rifle Beside Him

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Lester C. Hunt (D-Wyo), former governor now completing his first Senate term, died at 11:21 (EST) today of a bullet wound which Capitol police said apparently was self-inflicted.

The senator was found by his administrative assistant and was taken to casualty hospital for emergency surgery at 9:15 a.m. (EDT). He had announced recently that he would not seek re-election to the senate because of ill health.

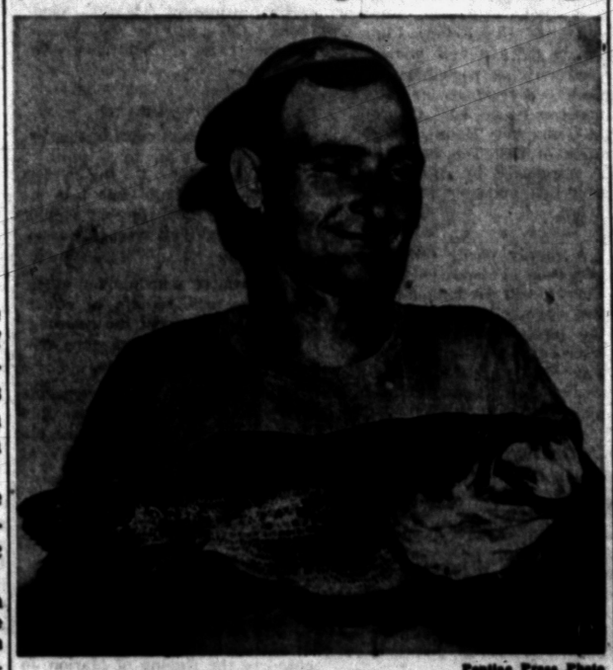

Hunt was still in the operating room more than an hour after surgery began and attendants described his condition as critical.

A spokesman for Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis), said that Hunt was not the senator that McCarthy had in mind when he disclosed yesterday that he was looking into "very serious charges" of "alleged graft and fixing" of an unidentified Democratic senator.

The senator's death leaves the senate divided 47 Republicans and 47 Democrats, plus independent senator Wayne Morse of Oregon.

Bass Season Opens Today

Pontiac Press Photo

EARLY CATCH—Edward E. Patterson of 3039 Kendrick street, Keego Harbor, landed the husky largemouth shown above two hours after the 1954 black bass season opened. Using a "red-head" plug, Patterson caught the 5-pound 6-ounce bass in Lower Straits Lake at 2 a. m. this morning. It assumes the lead in the bass division of the Pontiac Press' Big Fish Derby.

Want Committee Overhaul

Democrats Move to Block Future McCarthy Probes

WASHINGTON (INS)—A knock-down, drag-out fight was in sight today over a move by Democrats to block further probes by Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy until his investigative staff is overhauled.

The prospect was heightened when the Wisconsin Republican came back swinging after Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark) announced the plan. Today, there were these developments:

1. McCarthy said he is looking into "very serious charges" of "alleged graft and fixing" which involve an unidentified Democrat in the Senate. He said the Democrat is not a member of his subcommittee.

2. This indicated McCarthy may charge that the Democrats on his unit are trying to halt his activities in order to protect a colleague, as well as to prevent exposure of "graft, corruption and communism" under Democratic regimes.

3. McCarthy flatly denied knowledge of "threats" which McClellan said members of the Senate Investigations subcommittee staff made against Democrats on the group.

4. Before leaving for an undisclosed vacation spot, he said that if the Democrats had evidence of such threats "they had plenty of chance" to bring it out in the marathon McCarthy-Army hearings which ended Thursday.

5. Sen. Karl E. Mundt (R-SD), a member of the subcommittee who presided over the 36-day inquiry, said he was sure McClellan "wouldn't want to defer investigations of Communists in defense plants."

6. McCarthy said this probably would be his line of investigation when he returns to Washington, but he added that he has aides "checking on (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

Land, Sea, Air Attacks Give 2 Ports to Rebels

Castillo Leads the Coup; Capital Holds Phones So Information Vague

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (AP) — Two strategic Guatemalan seaports were reported in the hands of invading anti-Communist "liberation army" forces today.

Local informants of the liberation army identified the two ports as Puerto Barrios on the Carribean and San Jose on the Pacific.

The army, under command of former Guatemalan army Lt. Col. Carlos Castillo Armas, said two inland towns also may be in control of the invaders.

These towns were identified as Zacapa, which lies near the Honduras border between Puerto Barrio and Guatemala City, and the smaller town of Retalhuleu, in the southwest corner of the country near the Mexican border.

The informants said, however, that if the Guatemalan army has sent reinforcements into San Jose and Puerto Barrios the invaders may have been pushed back from initial gains. But, they added, no setbacks thus far have been reported.

(NBC Correspondent Mac Bannell reported in a Tegucigalpa broadcast heard in New York this morning that the invaders then held about a third of Guatemala. He said two planes had machine-gunned the presidential palace in the capital.)

The invasion was the culmination of a long-standing effort to unseat the Communist-backed government of President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman.

There are reports here that Castillo Armas has been in Guatemala since the invasion began to lead his liberation army personally. But his movements have been kept secret and his headquarters twice has postponed without explanation a promised statement by the 40-year-old resistance leader.

The latest report of fighting inside Guatemala was at Quezaltenango, a good-sized city about 80 miles due west of Guatemala City.

Packard, Studebaker Ready for Merger

DETROIT (AP) — Usually well-informed sources said today that Packard Motor Car Co. and Studebaker Corp. will make an announcement in New York Tuesday regarding a contemplated merger of the two firms.

No confirmation was available from Packard or Studebaker officials.

It was learned, however, that New York investment bankers have been at work in recent weeks drawing up terms of a proposed merger which would have to receive approval from stockholders of both concerns.

If the deal goes through, it would be the third merger in the auto industry in the last couple of years. Kaiser-Frazer and Willys Overland were the first to merge, with Nash-Kelvinator and Hudson Motor Car Co. joining earlier this year in a new concern known as American Motors Corp.

Brough, Hoad Capture London Tennis Titles

LONDON (AP)—Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., whipped Shirley Fry of Akron, Ohio, 6-1, 6-4 today to win the women's singles title in the London Lawn Tennis Championships, last tune-up for Wimbledon.

Miss Brough's conclusive victory came after Lewis Hoad, 19-year-old Australian whiz, had defeated Mervyn Rose, a Davis Cup teammate, 8-6, 6-4 for the men's title.

Drayton Plains Man Killed as Car Flips

Howard E. Girst, 19, of 6143 Lannian Ave., Drayton Plains, was killed early today when his car rolled over on M-15 near Oak Hill Rd.

State Police of the Pontiac Post said Girst apparently dozed at the wheel and his car went out of control.

Girst was found critically injured about 50 feet from the car, police said. He was dead upon arrival at Pontiac General Hospital.

Flint Paratrooper Feared Captured by Indo Rebels

FLINT (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morgan of Flint, who lost a son in World War II, had word today their other son is missing in Indochina.

Defense Department officials identified Army Pfc. Donald E. Morgan, 22, as one of five American enlisted men who are missing and are feared to have strayed into the hands of the Vietminh Communists.

The Morgans had a postcard from their son May 31 and he reported "everything okay."

But they received a telegram Friday from the Army saying it was feared he had fallen into the hands of the Vietminh rebels and was being detained.

Morgan enlisted in the paratroops two years and four months ago. He has been in Indochina five weeks teaching the natives parachute rigging.

He went overseas in the spring of 1953 and first was assigned to Japan and the Philippines.

The Morgans' only other son, Robert Charles, was listed as missing in World War II after a B 24 in which he was a crewman was lost over New Britain in December 1943. Three years later he was officially listed as dead.

A defense spokesman emphasized last night that the five men "were not on any secret mission of any kind."

Information received in the United States, he said, indicates that the five men set out on a lark, using a weapons carrier, to spend the night. They apparently became confused in a locale where Communist areas are intermingled with the French-Viet Nam areas of control and may have wandered into Red hands, the spokesman said.

Length of Next War Uncertain

If It Does Come, Can't Rely Solely on Atom Weapons

QUANTICO, Va. (AP)—Adm. Arthur Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, said today America's military planners cannot be certain when "the next war might come—or if it does, whether it would be short and "violently destructive" or a "long drawn-out affair."

Radford was scheduled to lay this and other military planning problems on the line before the nation's defense leaders in a secret session of the Defense Secretaries' Annual Conference here.

In excerpts from his prepared remarks that were made public, Radford made clear he believes the uncertainties of the world situation put this country in a position "where we have to place greater reliance on combat-ready forces in being." He also said atomic power by itself is not enough.

The closed meeting of 100 top members of the Defense Department, Armed Forces and other high government officials was scheduled to get under way in advance of a visit today by President Eisenhower to this Marine base.

Summer Arrives Officially Monday

By PATRICIA A. WOOD

Keep cool, heat - happy citizens, while we hand you the anti-climax of 1954: Summer's coming.

The steam - and - sizzle season starts — officially — at 5:55 p.m. Monday. The past week's heat wave that filled local parks with toasting hot dogs and roasting sunbathers was just a show-off Spring trying to prove that she, too, can sling a mean sunbeam.

And it was just about time.

The past week's humid 90-degree temperatures (it went to 92 last Saturday and Tuesday) climaxed an unusually dry Spring which packed some mighty chilly May weather.

Heavy snows and rains in March dumped 3.87 inches of water on Pontiac — almost an inch and a half above the normal March rainfall of 2.53.

But the city dried out in the next two months.

Rain in April totaled 2.71 inches below the 2.91 norm. May was truly dry, with just 1.39 inches of rain —less than half the normal May rainfall of 3.61 inches.

June's been pretty normal, so far.

We're a bit more than halfway through the month and we've had two inches of rain. Normal for the whole month is 2.90.

The season kept the mercury bouncing from one end of the scale to the other as hot waves and cold waves washed over a highly confused city.

The gal gave Pontiac a cold shoulder right from the start as she skidded over the hill March 20 with mercury in the wintry 20's. Two weeks later, temperatures were soaring into the 70's in one of the sunniest, warmest Aprils in the last 10 years.

The mercury hit 80 degrees April 7 and 81 degrees April 21. Temperatures were over 65 on 13 of the month's 30 days and didn't fall far below freezing all month.

April carried two tornado alerts within 48 hours, April 6 and 7. Twisters spun through Swartz Creek and Battle Creek June 7, but Pontiac got off with only a thunderstorm.

May was this spring's "let's frighten the farmers" month.

The weather turned around and headed back towards winter as May started cool and grew colder. The thermometer sank to 31 degrees May 4, as frost and a trace of snow threatened to damage sprouting crops. The first two weeks of May had an average temperature of 50 degrees, four degrees under the 54-degree average for the last 14 days of April.

Farmers were in for more worry as a three - week drought set in. Only a few showers, too light to lay the dust, fell between May 8 and May 31 — the month's first really warm day.

The temperature soared to 84 degrees that day as city folks spent a sunny afternoon at parks and beaches, but the worst storm of the season roared in to pull the rug out from under rising mercury.

Violent thunderstorms rode 50-mile-an-hour winds across Oakland County, shutting off lights in 700 homes and blocking streets and roads with falling trees. An inch of rain soaked thirsty crops, homebound vacationers and light-and-power crews struggling to repair wires.

For three days (June 2, 3 and 4) weather that didn't get above 56 degrees raised goosebumps on the skin of early sun-tan seekers. Then thermometers began to climb.

Temperatures hit 90 June 10 for the first time in 1954—and stuck. The mercury reached 90 — or almost did — every day until Thursday and Friday. Readings of 92 were reported twice — once last Saturday, just before a vicious-looking thunderstorm cooled things down (knocking out power to 300 homes in the process) and again on Tuesday.

The U. S. Weather Bureau says temperatures are going up again.

Recreation Board Plans Plenty of Summer Activity for Birmingham Youths

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM — Vacationing youngsters need have no fear of how to while away the long summer days here, for the summer activities schedule set up by the Recreation Board gets under way Monday.

The Barnum School swimming pool opens on that day with its progressive swimming classes for boys and girls. The pool will be open weekdays with instruction given. A time schedule for swimming periods may be obtained through the Board of Education.

Registration and a fee are required of children participating in radio dramatics at Birmingham High School. Programs will be produced and performed over local radio stations, with most meetings held in the morning.

Something new is a junior sports program being offered week day mornings from 9 until noon at the high school gymnasium.

It is open to boys and girls in the fourth grade and above. No registration is necessary to take part in activities such as basketball, archery, roller skating, gymnastics. These will be conducted in supervised groups.

Free golf lessons and play will be available for 10 to 17-year-olds on Mondays and Thursdays before 1 p.m. at Springdale Park.

Facilities at the city's nine baseball diamonds may be utilized for free play in the mornings and afternoons, with organized league play in the evenings.

Craft-sponsored and supervised programs for boys and girls at least six-years old will be held week days at Quarton, Pierce and Adams School playgrounds from 9 a.m. to noon; Barnum School from 1 to 5:15 p.m.; Torry School from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Open to all non-players who can read directions and to other players, is an instrumental music program at Baldwin School. Expert instruction will be provided in classes arranged according to abilities and individual interests. Registration is necessary and a fee is charged.

All age groups may use the tennis courts at Eton Park, which will be reserved for children in the mornings and afternoons, teenagers and adults in the evenings.

Outings for youngsters eight years and older have been planned in the form of a day camp program at Springdale Park. Daily registration is necessary.

Opening Tuesday and ending July 30 is the rifle shooting program at the police range. Firearm safety and marksmanship will be stressed by the instructor. Open to boys and girls nine years or older, the program will be conducted from 9 a.m. to noon on week days.

Additional information on the general program may be obtained through Frank Whitney, city recreation director, MI 4-9300.

City and Country School's annual fair, with the theme "A Carnival in the Sky," will be held on the school grounds from 1 to 5:30 p.m. Sunday.

The father's day fair will feature several television stars and the famed John F. Ivory Pony Cart, drawn by six matched ponies. A real, red fire engine will carry passengers about the grounds.

Prominent in the more than a dozen fun and sales booths will be an old - fashioned country store, tended by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Serota of Birmingham. Proceeds from the fair will go to the school's scholarship fund.

Children's Sunday will be observed at the 11 a.m. Congregational Church service tomorrow, with all church school classes participating in the worship service. The Junior Choir, directed by Mrs. Earl Vigstedt, will sing for the first time.

* * *

Celebrating its second birthday in the new building on Lincoln avenue, the local YMCA will hold an open house for members and friends Monday. Paul Heins, new program secretary for Y youth activities, will be introduced to those attending.

Regular sessions of the 9:30 and 11 a.m. church schools at St. James Episcopal Church will close for the summer starting Sunday. An accommodation class for pre-school children will begin July 4 at 10:30 a.m.

* * *

A potluck luncheon will highlight the Rotary Anns final meeting of the season at 1 p.m. Monday at the Riverside drive home of Mrs. William Braley. Mrs. Robert Peck, chairman for the day, will be assisted by Mrs. Victor Peck, Mrs. Chester McCormick and Mrs. Clarence Vliet.

Men of the Rotary Club will hear a talk on new advances in electronics as pertaining to telephone conversations, at their noon luncheon to be held that day in the Community House. A representative of Bell Telephone Co. will be introduced by Albert Warner, local Bell manager who is a Rotarian.

* * *

A family picnic for the congregation of Ascension Lutheran Church will be held Sunday at the recently - opened Rochester-the picnickers will leave right after the church service, the Rev. Paul Shippert has suggested they wear their picnic clothes to church.

* * *

"The Church" is to be the theme of the vacation church school starting Monday at the Embury Methodist Church. Children four years old and up through those who are finishing sixth grade are invited to attend the 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. classes, which will end July 1.

Serving on the directing committee are Mrs. Reginald Becker, Mrs. Richard Sauerbrun, and Mrs. Fred Aldred.

August Joseph Arens

The Rosary will be said for August Joseph Arens, 56, of 1356 Bennaville, at 8 p.m. Sunday at the Manley Bailey Funeral Home. Funeral service will be held at 10 a.m. Monday at St. Columban Church, with burial in Roseland Park Cemetery.

Mr. Arens died Friday night after a long illness. He had been a driver with the Birmingham Cab Co.

Survivors include his widow, Esther Irene, one son, Richard F. of Clarkston, and two sisters, Mrs. Reed Powers of Birmingham, and Mrs. Helen Wright of Detroit.

Pair Steal $35 From Woodward Station

John Whitehorn, 35, only attendant on duty, told police two young men went into the rest room of the station, and when they came out one held him at bay with a .45 automatic revolver, demanding money.

Whitehorn gave them the station money which he kept in one of hispockets. The thieves missed over $80 Whitehorn had in another pocket. Police were unable to find any trace of the two men who, according to Whitehorn, ran east on Chapin street.

464 Youngsters in YMCA Course

Free Swim Instructions Sponsored by Pontiac Rotary Club

The YMCA Learn-to-Swim program started today with 464 boys and girls responding to the annual two-week swimming course, announced T. N. Slosson, YMCA executive secretary.

The swimming classes, sponsored financially by the Pontiac Rotary Club, are held each year free of charge, said Slosson, for the purpose of aiding youngsters from possible drowning.

The classes are conducted every day from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Beginning July 6, the YMCA Summer Fun Club will last six weeks. The program will include outings, handicraft classes, games, and swimming.

The winter schedule for other activities will remain in effect until July 6, except the morning and noon classes which were discontinued after June 19.

The summer swimming schedule for men and women begins July 6. Further information can be obtained by calling the YMCA at FEderal 5-6116.

Boy-Murderer Sane to Stand Adult Trial

DETROIT (UP) — Terrance DeMoss, 15, high school student accused of the slaying of Marion Jo Zobrovitz, 4, in May, has been found sane and ordered to stand trial for first degree murder.

A Recorder's Court sanity commission found him legally sane and Judge Frank G. Schemanske ordered the case set for early trial. Schemanske said the finding doesn't block the boy's right to plead temporary insanity at the time of the slaying.

Convicted Red Quits Detroit Council Race

DETROIT (UP)—Just after he was given legal permission to run, Communist Billy Allan withdrew from the Detroit Common Council race.

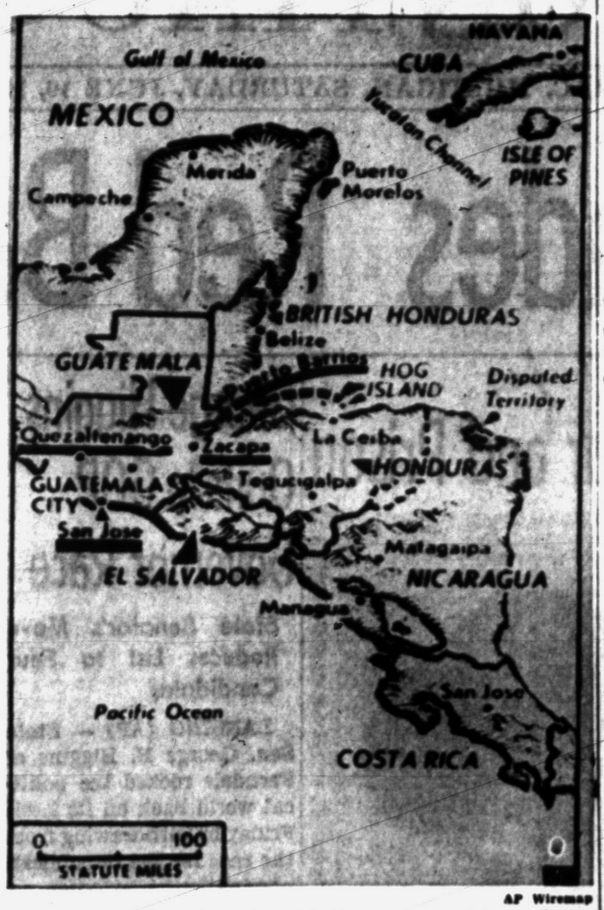

Allan, Detroit correspondent for the Daily Worker, was convicted in the Federal Smith Act trial of six top Michigan Communists. This raised the question as to his eligibility to run for public office.

He was told yesterday that he could run. A short time later he withdrew, saying there "are enough liberal candidates running."

Motor Vehicle Makers Step Up Pace Slightly

DETROIT (UP)—Motor vehicle output this week will be up slightly but the industry is about to level off its production volume.

Ward's Automotive Reports today estimated the week's assemblies at 115,465 cars and 20,190 trucks. Last week U. S. factories built 113,568 cars and 20,136 trucks and in the comparable 1953 week 141,460 cars and 17,278 trucks were built.

GUATEMALA ATTACK POINTS—Guatemalan resistance forces attacking "by land, sea and air" and led by Col. Carlos Castillo Armas announced tonight they had struck at four points in Guatemala. Included were San Jose, Puerto Barrios, Zacapa, along with uprisings that reportedly occurred at Quezaltenango (all underlined). Guatemala City was under air attack. Heavily armed forces are reported advancing on Puerto Barrios from Hog Island off the northern coast of Honduras.

Commerce Aerialist Plans Fathers Day Jump Sunday

He's going to make a parachute jump into Walled Lake.

Only a few years ago, he was a steeplejack for the Detroit Board of Education. For 20 years he painted flagpoles, chimneys and tall steeples no one else would undertake.

Jack retired from his work as age began to creep up on him. Now he's a maintenance man for the school system.

As a youth, Jack was a stunt man who thrilled fair crowds with his aerial stunts. Free-fall parachute drops from balloons, hanging head-down on ladders suspended from airplanes and other hair-raising acts were all part of his life.

He was well known in the business too. In 1926, he performed at the Canadian National Exposition at Toronto.

He plans to take off from Pontiac Municipal Airport at 2 p.m. in a Civil Air Patrol plane piloted by Capt. Richard Seraphino. He's arranged with boat operators to pick him up.

Bennett R. Hall Dies In Philippines

Word has been received here of the death Thursday in Manila, Philippine Islands, of Bennett R. Hall, S. N. He died of multiple injuries received on board the USS Philippines.

Born in Pontiac April 5, 1934, he was the son of Ira E. and Velma Morgan Hall. He attended Pontiac High School and was a member of the Joslyn Avenue United Presbyterian Church. He was employed at the C. F. Smith store on Joslyn avenue before enlisting in the Navy three years ago.

Besides his parents he is survived by four brothers and two sisters, Ernest and Norman of Pontiac, Gerald, Kenneth and Shirley at home, and Mrs. Barbara Gough of Pontiac.

The body will be brought to the Huntoon Funeral Home.

Mundt, whose special subcommittee must recommend steps to be taken as a result of the hearings, said he was unaware of any threats against Democrats on the panel.

He said that all he knew about it was that the issue came up in an exchange of hot words last Friday by Chief Counsel Roy M. Cohn and Minority Counsel Robert F. Kennedy.

Kennedy said Cohn threatened to "get" Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash) a member of the subcommittee who had ridiculed a psychological warfare blueprint drawn up by Pvt. G. David Schine, former subcommittee consultant.

Friday, McClellan said the Cohn-Kennedy incident was one incident but "not by any means" the only one. He said the Democrats will block McCarthy's plans to renew investigations until the alleged threats have been investigated and the subcommittee staff "housecleaned."

McCarthy shot back that this was "a deliberate attack on the staff to immobilize the committee." He said: "It is clever, dishonest, extremely dangerous to the country."

He was employed at Pontiac Motor Division.

Besides his widow he is survived by a son, Carlyle of Pontiac and two granddaughters, two brothers Thomas and Eugene, and two sisters, Mrs. Rose Dean and Mrs. Mary H. Maxwell, all of Pontiac.

Prowler Sought for Beating Girl

Entered House, Struck Her With Hammer, Victim Says

Police are investigating today the report of a 21-year-old girl who claims she was beaten on the head by a hammer-wielding prowler early Friday morning.

The girl was identified as Miss Joan Beattie of 3211 Dixie Hwy. She is reported in satisfactory condition today at Pontiac General Hospital with a skull fracture and cuts.

Pontiac State Police Detective Charles Leaf and Waterford Township Policeman Millard Pender said Miss Beattie claimed she was ironing when the man invaded the house and struck her with the hammer.

She told the officers she managed to break away and fled to the home of a neighbor, Donald Hart, 3191 Dixie Hwy. Hart summond police.

Miss Beattie, a stenographer who lives with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell Beattie, said she was alone at the time and heard suspicious noises outside before the prowler entered the house through an unlocked front door.

Sen. Hunt Dies With Head Wound

would have a clear numerical majority in the upper house. Vice President Nixon could cast a vote to break any possible tie if the full chamber voted on a major issue.

Dr. George Calver issued this statement:

"Senator Lester C. Hunt was taken to Casualty Hospital about 9:15 a.m., suffering from a wound from a 22-caliber rifle over the right temple.

"The senator was alone in his office and his condition was discovered by his administrative assistant."

The statement was signed by Calver as Capitol physician.

The 62-year-old Democrat, twice elected governor of Wyoming, was elected to the senate on November 2, 1948, for the term ending next January 3.

A dentist by profession, Hunt is married and has a son and married daughter.

Hunt only recently announced that because of poor health he would not seek renomination in Wyoming this year.

The senator told a reporter that he had "a condition" which he thought he could best meet by withdrawing from the fast pace of official Washington and that his doctors had so recommended. He said he had some small business interests in Wyoming which he believed would be ample to keep him occupied after retiring from politics.

Assessors Group Elects Its Officers

Berkley City Assessor Merle St. Amour is president; with Avon Township Supervisor Cyril Miller, vice president; Oak Park City Assessor George Kostishak, secretary; and Sylvan Lake City Assessor Ted Koella, treasurer.

Named to the executive board were Troy Township Supervisor Norman Barnard, Novi Township Supervisor Frazer Staman, and city administrator of the City of Lathrup Village, Leonard Watchkowski.

Hospital Treats Woman for Accident Injuries

Mrs. Maude Foss, 50, of 2958 W. Huron, Waterford Township, was treated at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital yesterday for abdominal injuries suffered in a two-car collision on U.S. 10 at Williams Lake Rd.

Youth's Dash of Joy Ends in Death by Car

Daniel P. Flynn, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel F. Flynn, died last night in a hospital after fighting for life for more than 10 hours.

Danny was rushing home from his kindergarten class clutching a handmade card for his father when he was struck by an automobile.

Police said they found the card on the bumper of the car. It read: "I love you, daddy."

'Liberation' Army Invades Guatemala

and air yesterday, were reported locked in bloody combat with defending forces at four important cities. There also were reports of internal uprisings throughout the embattled country.

* * *

A Guatemalan delegate to the United Nations announced in New York last night his government had protested to the Security Council against the "criminal invasion of my country." The delegate, Eduardo Castillo Arriola, said the protest had been sent to Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., of the United States, Council president.

The State Department in Washington said it has received reports of serious uprisings in Puerto Barrios, Zacapa and Quezaltenango, 70 miles west of Guatemala City.

* * *

The rebel invading force reportedly numbers about 5,000 men. The Guatemalan Army is about 6,000 strong, but many of the officers are believed disgruntled by the leftist trend of the government. U.S. officials have expressed fears the Arbenz regime was creating a Communist beachhead within short range of the Panama Canal.

* * *

First word of the fighting was announced here by rebel spokesmen after several days of open mobilization of Col. Castillo's troops throughout Honduras.

In Guatemala, Foreign Minister Guillermo Toriello told a news conference "the battle for Guatemala" had begun. The only fighting he reported, however, was the bombing of San Jose. He said the planes were of unidentified nationality.

* * *

Toriello accused Nicaragua of supporting the rebel forces which, he said, included nationals of Cuba, the Dominican Republic and other Central American nationalities, as well as Guatemalan exiles. He declared "Guatemala will stand as one man against this criminal invasion."

* * *

There was no indication how many planes took part in the rebel bomb attacks. There also was no report from insurgent forces as to their effectiveness, although Castillo's spokesman said fire bombs were dropped on the San Jose gasoline depot.

Amadeo Chinchilla, Guatemalan ambassador to Honduras, said he heard bombs smashed three important Army centers in Guatemala City, including the presidential guard barracks and Army headquarters, itself. This report was denied, however, by Roberto Alvarado Fuentes, Guatemalan ambassador in Mexico City.

Communications with Guatemala City were hampered by a suspension of all foreign commercial telephone calls to the capital. The International Telephone and Telegraph Co. announced in New York last night the Arbenz government had taken over the service.

Crash in Rose Township Injures 2 Holly Youths

Two Holly youths were injured when their cars collided early today at Milford and Davisburg Rds. in Rose Township, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Edward E. Senter, 19, of 837 Maple St., was admitted to Pontiac General Hospital for concussion and is reported in fair condition today. Also treated was Ronald Nash, 16, of 304 Cogshall St., for arm and leg bruises.

Nash, drivng west on Davisburg road, told deputies that he did not see Milford road in time to stop and ran into Senter's southbound auto, which went out of control and damaged a car and garage owned by DeWayne Hallett of 10775 Milford road.

6,270 Residents Get Chest X-rays

Mobile Units to Remain in City for One More Week

The two mobile chest X-ray vans touring Pontiac have taken free chest photos of 6,270 Pontiac persons, but program planners hope more will turn out next week.

"We'd especially like to see families taking advantage of the unit," Mrs. C. M. Shelton, general chairman for the tuberculosis detection drive, said today.

"Only 440 people visited that unit this week. We have located it in various neighborhoods to serve people who'd find it hard to get to the unit downtown. All the stops are open to the public."

The free chest X-rays take about two minutes and call for no undressing.

The X-ray unit on West Huron street near Saginaw Street will stay there Monday and Tuesday, taking X-rays from noon until 8 p.m. It will make a one-day stop at North Perry St. and Glenwood Ave. next Friday, June 25.

The "touring" unit will spend Monday at Pontiac Motor Local 653, UAW-CIO hall at 386 E. Kennett Rd.; Tuesday and Wednesday, Yellow Cab Local 594, UAW-CIO, hall at 90 E. Mt. Clemens St.; and Thursday and Friday, at Pontiac's Naval Reserve Armory, 469 East Blvd.

Next Monday, June 28 will find the unit at Emmanuel Baptist Church, Telegraph and Orchard Lake Rds.; and June 29, Lakeside Homes Housing Project.

Hours are noon until 8 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. on Friday.

Rev. Fred R. Tiffany Plans Vacation Trip

Guest speaker Sunday morning in Bethany Baptist Church will be the Rev. Ralph Karney, formerly of Howell, where he was pastor for 18 years. He is now directing town and country work for the Michigan Baptist Convention.

Guest ministers will occupy the pulpit for two weeks while the Rev. Fred R. Tiffany, Mrs. Tiffany and daughter, Ellen, spend two weeks visiting in New York and Connecticut.

They will visit the Rev. Mr. Tiffany's former pastorates at Richmond Hills in New York City and at Watertown, N. Y., and will spend some time visiting relatives in the area.

Willing Witness Verifies Defendant's Sociability

The last of many character witnesses was asked whether she had known him socially.

70-Foot Redwood Cross Going Up at Indian River

By WILMA GREENWAY

Two mammoth timbers, hewn from giant California redwoods and transported across a continent, reached their Michigan destination this week.

Their significance matches their size.

They may well make Michigan the focal point for the eyes of the world, a center for pilgrimages from every corner of the earth.

The huge beams rest at the Indian River Catholic Shrine in Northern Michigan and there they will be erected this month to form the cross of what is expected to be the largest Crucifixion grouping in the world. The cross itself weighs 15 tons. Its impressive main spar will dominate the skyline, towering 70 feet above the ground.

The Crucifixion group will form the 13th station of the cross in a woodland shrine dedicated to the only American Indian proposed for sainthood, Kateri Tekakwitha, the "Lily of the Mohawks." Not yet canonized, she has been pronounced "venerable" by Pope Pius XII.

Internationally known Bloomfield Hills sculptor Marshall Fredericks designed the cross. He is now working on drawings for the figure of the crucified Christ, scaled to a height of 30 feet, and the sculptures of the Apostle John, Mary Magdalene and the Virgin which will comprise the grouping at the base.

Fredericks also has been commissioned to create the remaining 12 stations of the cross, of normal size. These will be mounted in rustic shelters and secreted in grottoes throughout the 14-acre shrine.

Over 3,000 cubic feet of concrete forms the 16-foot tall base on which the cross will rest. The vertical beam is 28 inches square and 55 feet long; the crossbar measures 22 feet.

An outsize mobile derrick with a 100-foot boom will be used to hoist the big timbers. Erection of the cross is scheduled tentatively for the end of next week or the beginning of the week following.

In order to maintain the natural harmony of wood and terrain, the concrete foundation has been covered with earth to form a mound, and planted with purple blooming myrtle.

The cross will stand in an open area between the church and Burt Lake, atop a cliff overlooking the lake, and will be visible from the interior of the church. An outdoor altar will provide facilities for open-air services.

The idea of a shrine to an Indian saint located in the midst of Michigan's Indian country sprang up less than eight years ago. At that time the Indian River parish was so small that church people traveled eight miles to the Afton Mission to hear Mass. But the people wanted their own church.

Protestants and Catholics, tourists and local people all contributed money and work for the church and shrine. By 1948 a 14-acre site in Burt Lake State Park had been acquired and the cornerstone for the church laid.

The church itself is the work of one of America's foremost architects, Alden Dow of Midland. Facing the lake and the site of the Crucifixion scene, one whole side of the church is glass.

When will the shrine be completed?

"As soon as God wills it," says Father Ralph J. Kelly, pastor.

The church, the acreage and the cross are a reality. But many donations must be received before the figures can be completed, cast in iron and mounted.

When that happens, a simple Indian girl may have been pronounced a saint. And Michigan may have gained new, worldwide recognition.

Laos, Cambodia Center of Talks

Geneva Conferees Turn to Study Future Status of Kingdoms

GENEVA (AP)—Western and Communist negotiators sought today to gauge what common ground they have for deciding the future status of the disputed Indochinese kingdoms of Laos and Cambodia.

The nine Indochina conference participants planned to examine various proposals already submitted by the Laotian, Cambodian and Red Chinese diplomats to see how much they have in common.

Meanwhile, representatives of Red China, the Communist-led Vietminh Viet Nam, Laos, and Cambodia scheduled another get-together to continue their effort at settling the conflict in the French Union states.

* * *

Laos and Cambodia contend they have been invaded by foreign troops of Ho Chi Minh and call for their immediate withdrawal.

Red China's Premier-Foreign Minister Chou En-lai declared earlier this week "foreign troops" should leave the two small kingdoms. But both Chou and Vietminh Foreign Minister Pham Van Dong made clear yesterday this meant they wanted French troops to get out.

They claimed any opposition movement in the countries came from local resistance governments. Van Dong admitted there might be some "volunteers" from the Vietminh helping the resistance forces, but he said they were being pulled out.

* * *

The French have labeled the so-called resistance regimes phantom governments existing only in the minds of the Communists. The Laotian-Cambodian proposals call for regrouping French troops in the two states, but not necessarily for their departure. But the Communists have declared they would not accept the idea of any foreign troop bases on Indochinese soil.

Bottled Skunk Gets Bright, New Collar

IPSWICH, Mass. (AP) — There's a skunk wandering around the Ipswich woods wearing a glass collar. The animal stuck its head into a bottle and couldn't get it out. A woman—standing well off from her target—broke the bottle with a well aimed rock.

Mendes-France Is An Enigma

U. S. Diplomats Only Know Indochina Peace Looms Nearer

By PRESTON GROVER

PARIS (AP)—Pierre Mendes-France came into office as premier to the great surprise of Americans here, and they don't know quite what to make of him.

Almost none of the top figures in the American embassy had ever talked seriously to him. They knew about him at second hand, as did many French and American businessmen here. But until he actually was voted in as premier yesterday few could believe it was going to happen.

The surprise has called for a "reappraisal."

"We may find it is a good thing, after all," one American diplomat said.

* * *

The explanation is this: Mendes-France promised in winning Assembly support he would get a cease-fire in Indochina by July 20 or get out of office. That puts a big burden on him and his new team in negotiating with the Communists in Geneva. It has one disadvantage. The Communists may try to hold off until the end of the month's time the premier allowed, in the hope that he will accept poor terms just to stay in office.

But one American diplomat saw another prospect. He thought it possible the Communists might choose to give him and his team better terms just to keep him in office. By keeping him in power they have gained one round in their battle against the European Defense Treaty—the European Army pact. Mendes-France has promised he will begin negotiating for compromise arrangements on this treaty. That might throw the whole thing into the soup. The four nations including Germany which already have ratified it may choose to scuttle it rather than to try to jig it into shape to please France.

All these things are for the future. The immediate prospect is for a peace in Indochina and the American diplomat's view was that Mendes-France is in an especially good position to negotiate on that.

Sues for $20,000 but Winds Up Paying Out $84

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — A. N. Thompson demanded $20,000 damages from the Air Force in a Federal Court suit — but wound up having to pay the air force $84, instead.

Judge M. S. Boyd ruled yesterday that the Memphis man's suit—claiming personal injuries after his car collided with an Air Force truck — was without merit and showed Thompson guilty of gross negligence.

So the judge ordered Thompson to pay for damages to the Air Force truck in addition to court costs.

Dems to Fight for Income Tax Cuts

Would Include Them in Revision Bill Headed for Senate Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. George (D-Ga) said today Democrats would fight in the Senate to write new income tax cuts into a general tax revision bill that already provides nearly 1½ billion dollars in tax relief for corporations and individuals.

The bill was headed for possible Senate debate next week after the Senate Finance Committee yesterday formally approved the 875-page House-passed measure that would overhaul the nation's tax laws for the first time in 70 years.

* * *

The Democrats on the committee had talked of trying to include new income tax reduction provisions, but they apparently made no move to do so.

However, George — the committee's senior Democrat — said in an interview Democratic strategists have settled on two alternate proposals for full Senate consideration:

1. To reduce personal income taxes $2,400,000,000 annually by a $100 increase in personal exemptions.

* * *

2. To give each taxpayer a $20 annual income tax credit. It was estimated this plan would mean a $1,250,000,000 annual tax cut.

Chairman Millikin (R-Colo) of the Finance Committee would not comment on proposed amendments but he predicted the Senate would accept the bill about as it came from his group.

* * *

The Eisenhower administration has come out in outright opposition to any new general income tax reduction, contending the government cannot stand the added revenue loss.

However, the administration has backed revenue-losing provisions in the tax revision bill on grounds they would correct long-standing inequities and encourage business expansion and investment.

UAW Supports GM in Firing of Two

FLINT (INS) — The CIO-United Auto Workers yesterday supported General Motors in the firing of two employes for falsifying job applications.

The company discharged Howard Falk and Marvin Engels for failure to state on their applications in 1949 that they were college graduates.

In upholding the corporation's action the international union and locals 599 and 659 withdrew two of four grievances it had filed with GM.

The fired workers were balky witnesses before the House Un-American Activities Committee last month.

Michigan Polio Leads 1952-53

Health Commissioner Says It's Too Early to Assume Bad Year

LANSING (AP) — Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner, reported today that infantile paralysis cases are running ahead of the last two years but cautioned against assuming this will be a bad year for the disease.

Fourteen new cases were reported this week, he said, to bring the total cases so far this year to 125.

In the same week last year, that year's total to 105 at the time and in the same week in 1952, three cases were reported to bring the total to 48.

Dr. Heustis said that 1952, though behind 1953 at this point, went on to be the worst polio year on record in Michigan with 3,912 cases. In 1953, polio cases totaled 2,346.

Of this week's 14 cases, six were in counties participating in the Salk polio vaccine test, but none of the victims had participated in the test, Dr. Heustis said. Two cases were reported in Detroit and in Eaton, Macomb and Oakland counties and one each in Calhoun, Kent, Ingham, Washtenaw, Wexford and Wayne County, outside Detroit.

Quite a Fishing Rod!

CHESTER, Calif. (AP) — Workmen at a sawmill cut into a hugh rotted log and out poured about 1,500 live fish from 1 to 8 inches long. The fish probably were trapped inside the log while it floated in the mill pond, sawmill men said.

Postmaster Set to Retire July 1

Bert Hobolth to Replace Peter Quinlan at Office in Keego Harbor

KEEGO HARBOR — Peter P. Quinlan, who will complete 20 years service as postmaster of Keego Harbor July 1, has announced his retirement after that date.

Quinlan will be succeeded by Bert Hobolth who has been appointed acting postmaster according to a letter from Rep. George A. Dondero.

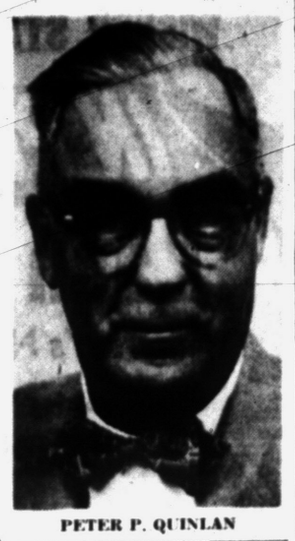

Quinlan received his appointment July 1, 1934 when the post office was located at 2935 Orchard Lake Rd. It has since been moved to its present location in the Vogtman Building.

Twenty years ago the post office was third class with 200 lock boxes. Some 300 persons were receiving mail by general delivery, and stamp sales totaled $4,000, according to Quinlan.

Last year stamps sold amounted to $48,000. There were over 700 lock boxes and an additional 700 families redied their mail from the general delivery window.

Another milestone will be reached July 1 when the post office becomes first class, Quinlan said.

Acting Postmaster Hobolth has served as clerk in the post office for five years. He has been a Keego Harbor resident since 1945.

Bountiful Grain Harvest Seen

Warm Weather, Sun Help to Advance Crops Throughout East

WASHINGTON (INS) — A bountiful harvest of grain and other crops appears in store for the United States this summer unless a bad drought sets in.

A nationwide survey of crops shows that the development of small grains over the eastern two-thirds of the nation advanced last week under warm weather and sunshine.

In addition, eastern areas that suffered drought conditions earlier this month have received much-needed rain in the past week, although cool temperatures in some areas have not been conducive to development of corn and other crops.

Winter wheat now is heading in the far northern areas of the nation—including the Dakotas and Michigan. It also was ripening last week as far north as southern Nebraska, southern Illinois and Maryland.

Wheat harvesting has moved northward into southern parts of Kansas, Missouri and southeastern Virginia.

Continued good growing weather probably will result in increased estimates of this year's winter and spring wheat crops. Earlier this month, the Agriculture Department forecast a winter wheat crop of 740 million bushels and a spring crop of more than 259½ million bushels.

'Beautiful Saviour' Theme of Classes

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — A vacation Bible school for children 3-14 will be conducted at Christ Lutheran Church, Airport and Williams Lake Rds., for two weeks, beginning Monday.

A staff of 15 teachers and workers, under the direction of the Rev. Arvid E. Anderson, will conduct the school.

"Beautiful Saviour" is the school's theme. Classes will meet from 9-11:45 a.m. and all children in the community are welcome. Further information may be obtained by calling OR 3-1811.

Cattle Sale at Fisher Farm in Romeo to Disperse 600-Head Hereford Herd

By BURDETTE B. ASHLEY
Associated Press Farm Writer

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—A dispersal sale Oct. 7-9 will break up Michigan's largest herd of registered purebred beef cattle — the more than 600 Herefords on the 2,500-acre Hi-Point Farm of industrialist E. F. Fisher at Romeo.

Hi-Point cattle have been consistent winners in state and international competition but their importance to Michigan has far exceeded the honors and fame they have brought to the state.

Hi-Point's purchase of the great T. Royal Rupert, the 15th, bull some 14 years ago, is considered to have done much to raise the beef caliber of Michigan herds. A number of Michigan's outstanding Hereford herds are daughters and granddaughters of Rupert.

Farm Manager Allen Rush at Hi-Point took a big gamble when he bought Rupert at an auction in Oklahoma. He had been authorized by Fisher to pay $7,500 for Rupert.

But there was competition, and Rush stayed with it until he bought the bull—for $10,100. Fisher paid, and later told Rush it was the best investment he ever made in cattle.

Michigan storage apple men think they could sell more apples if out-of-state truckers knew exactly where to go to find apples when they want them.

So, the Apples Storage Assn., Belding, plans to issue a special map showing the location of members' farms and storage warehouses.

The association will send copies of the map to some 5,000 persons on its list of apples truckers. Michigan is believed to have the largest number of grower-owned small apple storages in the nation.

Peach growers apparently have little thinning to do this year, and as a result, face prospects of a light crop. Reports indicate the June drop has been heavy.

This was the case in reports from South Haven on the situation in the Southwestern Michigan peach growing counties, and from the peach ridge section of Kent-Ottawa-Muskegon counties.

Earl House of Rossbush, and George Jane of Clare, "saddled up" House's stake truck, and with Jane riding a fender and swinging a lasso, staged a successful roundup.

The wayward bull missed the auction, but was later sold to Kenneth Ray of Carney in Menominee County, for $300.

With so many city youngsters these days participating in 4-H Club work it probably isn't surprising that a city-bred youth—Detroit at that—should become a 4-H Club agent.

Well, one has. He is James Willoughby who was born in Highland Park, reared in Detroit, and now has been named Van Buren County's first full-time 4-H Club agent.

Willoughby himself isn't too surprised. He remembers as a boy spending several summers on a farm and deciding then that the big city was not for him.

At Michigan State College Willoughby took an animal husbandry course because of his love of animals acquired during those early summers in the country. He continued his summer work on farms.

After a 21-month tour of duty with the Army and some youth work in Germany he discovered he also liked working with young people.

That paved the way for his ready acceptance from Michigan State College Extension Service of an offer to "try-out" as a 4-H agent-at-large in Lenawee County.

The Van Buren County appointment followed. Willoughby is making his home in Paw Paw. He will have some 700 boys and girls to work with in the Van bBuren County 4-H Club program.

Where, Oh Where, Is My Picture?
While consumers don't sing it, we hear a refrain these days from those who have ordered pictures (usually of children) from itinerant photographers and are anticipating early delivery. Some will report that they thought there was a local studio — until they tried to find it. And others will express disappointment in the work and state that the photograph delivered is not like the sample. Satisfaction in photographs depends upon the skill of the operators — and you leave a lot to chance when money is handed out to a floater — before you see the finished work. INVESTIGATE BEFORE YOU INVEST — and don't make advance deposits on orders to unknown people.

Discipline at Drive-In Causes 40 to Walk Off

CINCINNATI (AP)—Non-union carhops walked off their jobs at a ddrive-in last night in protest against pending discipline of an employe who allowed workers to bring pork chops to work and cook them on the restaurant's stoves.

About 40 workers, including waitresses and kitchen help, quit their posts. They said an assistant manager was to be suspended from his job for a week because he permitted some women to eat pork chops they brought from home.

McCarthy Not Issue in Maine

Margaret Chase Smith Opponent Makes Few References to Prober

PORTLAND, Maine (AP)—Despite the advance ballyhoo, it looked today — 48 hours before Monday's Maine primary — as if Sen. McCarthy might not have much impact after all on a contest in this state for the Republican nomination to the Senate.

• • •

McCarthy looked like a potential issue when Jones at the outset of his campaign praised the Wisconsin Republican's concepts of Americanism. But as the campaign progressed, Jones made few references to McCarthy.

Mrs. Smith did not refer at all to the Wisconsin senator by name. She criticized conditions making for discord in government.

Up to now the campaign has produced only one major issue — the 56-year-old woman senator's Senate record.

Jones called his opponent a "do nothing, say nothing senator." Mrs. Smith campaigned without referring by name to her 34-year-old Biddeford rival. She changed her 1948 slogan of "don't trade a record for a promise" to "don't trade a record for a smear."

Rep. Robert Hale, 64, seeking a seventh successive term as representative from Maine's Frist District, was opposed for Republican renomination by Portland Lawyer Ray W. Stetson, 39, and Maine Executive Councilor J. Horace McClure, 56, of Bath. There were no contests for GOP renomination of Maine's other two representatives and Gov. Burton M. Cross.

James C. Oliver, 58, a former Republican congressman, vied with Eli Gaudet, 28, a Rumford newsman, for the Democratic nomination to the House in the First District. Theirs was the only Democratic contest.

May Bar TV in Future Hearings

Both Parties Back Bill Introduced by Bennett of Utah

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the wake of the widely televised McCarthy-Army investigation, 37 Republican and Democratic senators have moved to bar commercial sponsorship of TV coverage of future Senate hearings.

Sen. Bennett (R-Utah) announced introduction of the resolution in a Senate speech yesterday — the day after the close of the hearings into the dispute between Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) and top Army officials.

Limited commercials were allowed on broadcasts and telecasts of those proceedings, which ran 36 days. None of the eight senators who took part in the big investigation were among sponsors of Bennett's resolution.

The Utah Republican said in a speech that "what could and should have been done in 10 or 15 days" took 36 in part because "the unseen but very real demands of the vast audience . . . forced participants to answer every innuendo and counterattack with the introduction of many irrelevant but newsy side issues . . ."

Bennett said he feels the televising of hearings takes away their fact-finding value and that "protracted hearings would place a premium of demagoguery and reward brashness."

Ice Cream Luxury Enjoyed by Korean

BELOIT, Wis. (UP) — It's ice cream "all year round" for a young Korean wartimeinterpreter who is studying at Beloit College for a career in international law.

Whal Min Kim, 22, lived under both the Japanese and Communist domination of North Korea, his home. He witnessed refugee flights, "brainwashings" and "liberations" by the Japanese, Russians and Red Chinese.

He and his family fled from Pyongyang to South Korea before the fighting began, and later he became a field interpreter for U. N. forces.

Reflections
Father's Day, June 20th
By J. Lee Voorhees
J. L. VOORHEES
Dad doesn't want a crown of kingship, even for a day; unostentatious loyalty is far more important. An arm around his stooping shoulder, a tiny hand in his calloused one has more value than the Kohinoor diamond. He doesn't demand obeisance but he does enjoy the comradeship of those who call him Dad.
His working hours are filled with plans, labor, for things he wants for his family but at home he asks for no more than to be one with them. He smashes head-long into obstacles, overcomes them with a smile but the one time his head is bowed is when a child is ill. His greatest pride and joy is reflected in achievement rewards of his children.
Give "DAD" this day to revel in his riches; gather up your smiles and achievement awards and pile them in his lap, slip an arm around his shoulder or put your hand into his and above all tell him what a wonderful dad he is.

Boston Sits Taught but Explosion Flops

BOSTON (AP) — An experiment Boston went awry in the four-story Boston University Science Building caused fears of a disastrous explosion last night on heavily-traveled Commonwealth Avenue.

Firefighters and police, joined by hundreds of spectators, waited tensely for 90 minutes for a blast which did not materialize.

BU researchers called for aid when a glass tubing containing diborane, described as a "highly volatile" substance with full potential unknown, burst and the liquid began to vaporize. It was feared the chemical might cause an explosion when it vaporized.

More than 29 families living in nearby apartments were ordered from their homes. Traffic was diverted. Fire apparatus and ambulances stood by as much of the area was roped off.

The crisis finally was reported passed, but college officials planned an all-night watch to prevent any further trouble.

Airman Fighting Murder Charge

Supreme Court Asked to Overturn Decision of Lower Chamber

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former airman Robert W. Toth has carried to the Supreme Court his fight against standing trial before an Air Force court-martial in connection with the 1952 slaying of a South Korean civilian.

Toth's lawyers yesterday asked the high court to overturn a U. S. Court of Appeals decision that he may be court-martialed. The attorneys said the Toth case goes into the question of "whether and to what extent . . . Congress can convert our democratic civil government into a military oligarchy."

The appeals court decision upheld the constitutionality of a section of the uniform code of military justice applicable in Toth's case.

Toth, a steel worker following his honorable discharge in December 1952, was arrested by military police in Pittsburgh May 13 last year. He was flown to Korea for court-martial, but later was returned without standing trial. His lawyers then started a legal test of the validity of the Air Force's action.

GOP Senators Complain About Slow Patronage

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican senators have aired patronage gripes to Atty. Gen. Brownell and he is said to have promised to speed clearance of nominees for such posts as federal judges, attorneys and marshals.

Brownell and William P. Rogers, his top deputy, met yesterday with Republican senators behind closed doors. Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich) said later the patronage situation was discussed because some senators had complained that action on their recommendations was "slow in coming up.

Vegetable Oils May Prevent Heart Attacks

Associated Press Science Reporter

SAN FRANCISC On—Vegetable oils and fats may offer hopes of preventing or treating heart diseases caused by fat-clogged arteries.

The possibility is raised in new studies of a fat-like material, cholesterol, in human blood. The studies were described today to the American Periatrics Society by Dr. Gilbert C. Cochrane of Oakland, Calif.

He finds that the amount of cholesterol in the blood is sharply reduced when people eat diets containing only vegetable fats, and no animal fats. That means such vegetable products as peanut oil, corn or cottonseed oils.

When the vegetable fats in their diets were replaced with animal fats, there was a prompt rise in the amount of cholesterol.

Cholesterol is blamed by some medical experts as the cause of thickening and narrowing of human arteries, from accumulations of the fatty stuff on the inner walls of the blood vessels.

Heart attacks come when blood clots get stuck in the narrowed arteries, and bring a rise in blood pressure—the heart has to work harder to pump the blood through.

About 75 million acres in the U. S. are desert, swamp, rocky or barren land.

Warning to France

There was sharp warning to France when our State Department asked Congress to cut off aid to France and Italy unless they ratify the European Defense Community treaties.

There was even sharper warning in the action of the House Foreign Affairs Committee approving this request. Members of the committee obviously acted on the belief that such use of our bargaining power is long overdue, an opinion we share.

There never has been any doubt about the right of the United States to exert such pressure. But there is a considerable body of opinion that it might not be wise to exercise it.

Pentagon and State Department impatience with French stalling on the European Defense treaties is understandable. It even has led to suggestions for an EDC without France.

As for the French politicians, they have insisted all along that we have been bluffing. Pointing to the map, they say France is essential to the defense of the West and that if war came we would need the use of French bases, ports, transportation lines and communications.

Nothing in their argument, however, alters the fact that as long as they block EDC, they are weakening Europe and their own position in it and aiding Russia.

Indonesia Drifting Left

The latest report from Indonesia indicates that this biggest country in Southeast Asia is continuing its leftward drift.

Occupying a South Sea area 3,000 miles across, it includes the islands of Sumatra, Borneo, Java, Celebes, Bali and many others. The 80,000,000 people of these islands produce great riches in rubber, oil and strategic minerals.

These resources, and the government's tolerance of Communist activities, make Indonesia a tempting prize for Peiping and Moscow. That the young republic's government wants no part of collective security plays right into the hands of the Reds.

"Here," points out U. S. News & World Report, "are the seeds of civil war, the weakness on which Communism thrives, the ignorance of Communist methods which make for easy conquest."

The Communist Party is the best organized in the country. Its dues paying membership is estimated variously from 10,000 to 50,000. Its tireless organizers have set up countless front organizations. It dominates the Council of Trade Unions with a membership of between one and 2.5 million.

All this seems to mean that in the foreseeable future there is no sign that Indonesia will be ready to play a part in the defense of Southeast Asia against Communism.

Britons' Visit Welcome

Just about the best foreign policy news of recent months is the White House announcement of the impending Churchill-Eden visit.

In commenting on the Britons' arrival scheduled for June 25, President Eisenhower told his press conference that the trip was suggested by Mr. Churchill. The President added that he agreed with the British leader that the informal conversations should put an end to talk of a rift in U. S.-British relations.

It is not to be wondered at that such talk developed. In fact recent events not only made it natural but created compelling need for discussions and decisions proving continued U. S.-British amity and co-operation.

Now, it has become clear that differences between the two countries at Geneva were due to misunderstanding. Mr. Eden, who wanted to await the outcome of the conference there, misunderstood what Secretary Dulles meant by "united action" in Southeast Asia. Similarly Mr. Dulles appears to have misunderstood Mr. Eden's reservations to that plan.

Out of this has come criticism in both countries. There even was talk in London of issuing a white paper explaining Britain's Indochina attitude. This has led to a suggestion here that a joint white paper issued after the Washington conversations, could do much to clear the air.

★ ★ ★

Certainly no one in either country should be allowed to forget two vital facts:

1. That continuation of the U. S.-British alliance is all important to the free world.

2. That disruption of this alliance is a paramount goal of Molotov policy.

According to Gen. Curtis LeMay, the U. S. Air Force has achieved the ultimate in preparedness to retaliate in case of attack. He says it can do so "instantly." (The dictionary says an instant is a period of time too short to be evaluated.)

"The Income Tax: The Root of All Evil," is the title of a recently published book, written by a person who probably loves money.

Politicos Ponder Public's Election Year Attitude

By JACK L. GREEN

LANSING (AP) — Politicians are wondering whether there is a restlessness among the voters this year which may cause some upsets.

They are having trouble putting their finger on what's happening—if anything—but things are not running quite true to form and that always bothers the boys whose livelihood and sport comes from guessing what the public is thinking.

Politicos are almost unanimous in reporting they find very little interest in the 1954 campaign yet. They say you can walk the length of Main street or tour a whole rural route and find most people unaware there will be elections this year or unaware of who is running.

And yet, both Republicans and Democrats report better than average attendance at their little local rallies. In fact, some speakers who slip out from the Capitol after 5 o'clock to address a little Grange meeting, or a little social club, find the place packed with folks asking questions.

Again, the vote in primary elections in most of the states counted until this month was phenomenally light. Yet, in California and South Dakota, reportedly, the Democratic vote was far heavier than expected.

Right here in our own state, both Republicans and Democrats turned up a surprising number of candidates for legislative and congressional offices.

Democrats say jubilantly that they have more candidates in the field and better men than they ever had before. And the Republicans are looking with some puzzlement at the rash of Republicans who have entered the primary against veteran Republican office-holders.

What's going on?

Are the people unhappy with the first Republican regime in two decades? Has the McCarthy-Army hearing disgusted the voters to the point they went a new slate of officials? Do Democrats scent a Williams sweep this year and want to ride his coattails?

Are Republicans tired of the same old faces in public life? Has the increased salary for state legislators attracted more candidates? Is there a political rebellion brewing? Or are the politicians seeing spooks again?

Campaign speakers, not the candidates themselves, report a questioning mood among the people they see. Many of them admit it, but their interpretations differ and many of them have a kind of puzzled air when they try to explain.

There seems to be no doubt but that Michigan Democrats are cockier than at any time in years.

The governor's men say that in previous years they had trouble lining up likely candidates for states offices. This year, they say, they are being hounded by "top notch" men who want to get on the ticket.

In fact, the cockiness has gotten to the point that some administration strategists are becoming concerned. Nothing, they know, loses like overconfidence.

Republican leaders, on the contrary, are not cocky. They have a grim awareness that they have a fight on their hands for both state and national offices. Thus, they are in a better psychological mood for the campaign. If they lose, it won't be for not trying.

But both parties could plan their campaigns and their strategy a lot better if they could figure out what is eating the dear people.

Taxpayer Disgusted With City's Tactics Regarding Old Adage 'Eye for an Eye'

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature.)

I would like to let people know about some of the fine treatment taxpayers get in this town. Last year we were assessed for a curb and sidewalk for which we had to pay in 20 days. Later, while cutting down trees, they tore up our sidewalk and said they would replace it. They still haven't replaced it. Why?

Also they make property owners have sidewalks but in front of the City property they just have dirt. It would cost a little out of the City's fund to put in a sidewalk.

We pay a lot of taxes and they want to raise them all the time yet give us nothing for our money.

Drive down and look Douglas Street over and see the way the engineers layed out a project for us to pay for but they only did half the project.

Native Is Proud of County for Helping Handicapped

I have been educated in and outside many Oakland County schools for more than 37 years. Also part of my education was received in more than two of our hospitals and I was taught by very efficient local doctors, as well as teachers, children and adults.

I am proud to be a native of a county and state that looks to the future of its handicapped.

I am wondering what the initials A. J. S. stand for, but if I ever wrote such a 'gripe' letter, I would also be ashamed to sign my real name.

I know for a fact it must be very difficult to find teachers, especially for the handicapped and if I ever get a degree, I intend to major in Special Education and teach some people that we all live and learn by doing but we have to pay our taxes just like everyone and help others do the same.

Young Marrieds Warned About Pitfalls of Future Years of Happiness Together

Lucile wants to know a sure way to keep her husband devoted to her forever. The solution is contained in the rules listed below. Paste these in your scrapbook so you can offer them to all new brides in the years ahead. Divorce is a sign of poor psychology by husband or wife.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

"Dr. Crane, we want you to address our annual banquet," she said over the long distance telephone.

"And we'd like to have you tell us wives the most dangerous things to guard against in our marriages.

"We wish to avoid divorce and remain happily married all of our lives."

That is the laudable aim of all young couples on the wedding day. But many of them start feuding and calling each other vile names within a few months or years. Why?

Partly because they haven't been forewarned about the pitfalls to happy marriage. For it takes brain and hard work, as well as love, to build a happy home that will endure.

First, become ACTIVE together in a local church! And stay that way!

Second, a wife must realize that the "butterflies . . . in . . . the stomach" type of romance is not to be confused with real love.

Those "butterflies" simply indicate stagefright. You can get them by making your first speech in public or by singing your first solo. They just denote novelty. Any strange male of reasonable charm can give them to you in the years ahead.

So never make the mistake of growing infatuated with the strang-

In happy marriages, husband and wife level off into a comfortable, affectionate stage much like that of brother and sister, at least 6 days out of 7.

But that 7th night you should revive your courtship emotions by having an outside date with your husband and going through your courtship motions, for the proper motions lead to corresponding emotions.

Third, most husbands resent indifference to their affection. And men are neither as poetic nor as deft as women regarding love.

They want the food on the table, as well as their kisses, on a moment's notice, without undue folderol and delay. This may seem blunt and unromantic to you wives, but it's the nature of the brute.

Fourth, beware of creating the impression that you are a medical "specimen" when you are expecting your first baby. I gave you a Case Record about this hazard within the last few weeks.

For many young husbands are rendered impotent by the solicitude and anxiety attaching to their wife as she keeps visiting the doctor's office for regular check-ups.

Women were apparently created to be maternal creatures primarily and only secondarily interested in males.

After her children arrive, a mother is thus so preoccupied with their feeding and health and welfare that she may neglect to date her husband at least once per week and revive their romantic emotions.

Some wives even leave these courtship emotions in cold storage for 15 or 20 years, and then wonder why their husbands go emotionally berserk when some young siren thaws out those emotions at a night club.

Send for my "Tests for Husbands and Wives," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus a dime. They offer 200 more items on which to rate yourself.

Days of All Faiths

Fathers Day Committee Is Organized in New York

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

Father's Day, which began in 1909, has achieved an importance almost equal to that of Mother's Day. There is now a national Father's Day committee, with headquarters in New York City, which sponsors the day and tries to put into it a deeper meaning than a mere annual pat on the back for Dad.

For example, the Committee adopts a theme each year and promotes this theme throughout the month of June. The entire month is known as Father - Child month, with Father's Day as its climax. The 1954 theme, "Good Citizenship Begins at Home," will emphasize the value of paternal influence in the development of good young Americans.

Father's Day is not an official Church day, any more than Mother's Day is. But one great evidence of the essentialily religious character of our country is the fact that American family celebrations seem quite naturally to lead the family to church. Many a happy Dad will sit in church Sunday morning with Mother and the youngsters, bursting with pride and trying to appear casual about it.

June 24 is a day that tried to replace an old pagan festival and almost got lost in the process. St. John the Baptist's Day was placed on June 24 when Christmas was set as December 25, because according to the New Testament (St. Luke, chapter I, verse 36) John was just six months older than Jesus.

But June 24 had long been Midsummer's Eve, and a whole set of pagan customs and ceremonies had been developing for centuries around the time of year when the sun reaches its most northerly point and the days reach their greatest length. It was difficult for a Christian day to make any headway against this ancient celebration.

The pagans, in their worship of the sun, had developed many of their superstitious Midsummer's practices around the building of bonfires, with the bonfires, of course, symbolizing the sun. Dancing around these fires, leaping through them, or saving their ashes were considered charms against disease, witchcraft, and misfortune.

The Church had no chance of doing away with the bonfires, so it tried to take them over. The Lord had once called John the Baptist "a burning and a shining light," (St. John, chapter 5, verse 35) and the Church insisted that this was the real symbolism of the fires.

June 24, incidentally, celebrates St. John's birth rather than, as is usual with saints' days, the anniversary of his death.

It is amazing but absolutely true that June 25 is St. Pontius Pilate's Day — in the Coptic (Egypt) and Abyssinian churches. And the idea of Pilate as a saint does make a certain weird kind of sense.

It is based on the notion that he was only doing his part in the great drama of Salvation, which God had planned from eternity. Someone had to take this role, and Pilate was appointed. Not many Christians would look at it this way, but a few do.

A further reason for making Pilate a saint is the legend that he became a Christian and was martyred for the Faith. No one actually knows what happened to him. The last authentic information is that he was called back to Rome about six years after the Crucifixion. From there on, legend takes over.

It is not entirely beyond the actual possibilities to believe that Pilate might have ended as a follower of the Man he condemned to the Cross.

Our old pal Churchill has been playing footsies. And wearing red-topped Russian boots under the table.

We suspected a year ago that Doctor Dulles was writing prescriptions he couldn't fill.

Dulles seemed possessed of the same exhibitory mania that makes a pawnbroker pnt everything in the store in the window.

We have dumped money, men and arms in isolated parks and stretched parallels to the breaking point. But neither England nor France agree that the whiskers on the barbershop floor belong to the man in the chair.

Churchill is as practical as a fireman wearing two hard hats. He runs with the hares and barks with the hounds. And never notices that grandma has big teeth.

That's what they call practical politics. You play both ends against the middle like an idiot on a flute.

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

THE MAIL BOX

Eating Starch

He eats a box of laundry starch a day. How to break the habit? Ashamed to tell doctor about it in hospital . . . (R. S.)

Answer — Laundry starch, like corn starch used as food, is harmless to eat, but an excess of it only slightly more objectionable than an excess of sugar, potato, or bread and other things made of refined white flour. Try eating raw wheat, instead — whole or cracked. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask in writing for pamphlet Wheat to Eat. It would supply vitamins and minerals which the starch eater needs.

Name Your Pollen

Doctors say I haven't hay fever but that I'm allergic to tree pollens . . . sneezing, clogged nasal passages and other discomforts . . . (Mrs. C. H.)

Answer — Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for pamphlet Relief for Allergy. Inclose 10 cents in addition if you want also a pamphlet on Hay Fever. Perhaps the doctors meant that your sensitivity is not to hay, ragweed or other pollens ordinarily concerned.

Yankee Beriberi

I had never heard of Yankee beriberi until I visited Miami and read about it—I, too, am unable to rise from squatting position without using my hands. Please send me the Wheat pamphlet. (Mrs. E. P.)

Answer—The pamphlet Wheat to Eat is available to anyone who asks for it in writing and provides stamped, self-addressed envelope. Wheat is the best food source of vitamin B1 (thiamin) which prevents and cures beriberi. Every adult who can't rise from squatting position without using hands ought to restore the staff of life to his everyday diet.

How To Breathe

I am 69, widow, working for my keep. I am doing the breathing exercises regularly and deriving great benefit from it . . . only want to do one thing, grow old and keep sweet . . . God bless you for all you have done for me. (Mrs. W. M.)

Answer—God bless you for all you have done for me. I was heavy-hearted and your letter restored my spirit. Please accept with my compliments the full set of Little Lessons coming to you by separate mail.

Headaches

Suffered from migraine for years, but since I have done a dozen somersaults a day I seldom have headaches any more, and when I do they are not so severe . . . (Mrs. S. L.) But I have aching, swollen joints in fingers . . .

Answer—Send stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask for pamphlet Why Have Headache?

Inclose 10 cents in addition if you want also the pamphlet Calcium and Rheumatiz.

Hyperacidity

I am miserable with hyperacidity, but the doctor says I have no ulcer . . . (R. E. P.)

Answer — Send stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask in writing for pamphlet Yankee Stomach.

Fresh Milk

In argument with my dad—he claims sour milk, buttermilk, yogurt, cottage cheese and such is superior to plain fresh milk, but he can't tell why. (H. H.)

Answer—All the milk products your dad prefers are excellent foods, but none is superior to plain fresh milk. So far as health is concerned, every one to his own taste.

Here We Go

You say one day rheumatiz is caused by lack of calcium and the next day it is caused by wet and exposure . . . (Mrs. R.S.E.)

Answer—I said nothing of the sort. Only complaint caused by wet and exposure, I believe, is discomfort.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.

Dad's Always a Prince, but Sunday He'll Be King

Family Has 7 Reasons to Celebrate

Sons, Daughters, Grandson to Honor Kenneth Sanderson

Maybe Kenneth Sanderson of Winterberry drive, Westacres, isn't a typical modern father. He seems to spend more time with his children than modern fathers are supposed to have. Maybe fathers should ask him how he does it, for he has six children.

Besides his 4-year-old twins, Roy and Don, who share in some outdoor cooking in the picture, four other Sandersons will help Dad celebrate Father's Day with a big family frolic.

The twins, and daughters, Louise, 18, Marie, 14, and baby June 8 months will greet big brother Richard and his wife Barbara and son Ricky on Sunday. On top of everything that makes Kenneth Sanderson a grandfather!

One of the day's activities that is a "must" is an archery match between Richard and his father for both are very enthusiastic about the sport. The Sandersons have their own archery range and both Riebard and his father play in different leagues where they are employed.

Family activities around the Sanderson home are almost too numerous to mention. Mr. Sanderson, 32-year veteran in Boy Scouting, has shared many of these years with Richard.

Both father and son were Eagle Scouts and both have been counselors at Camp Agawam. At present Mr. Sanderson is district chairman of the Ottawa District of the Clinton Valley Council.

Fun with the canoe is a joy to the whole family. Last year the twins and daughter Marie accompanied their father on a Huron River canoe trip.

Mrs. Sanderson says that the twins first word was "cardinal." Perhaps the family's membership in the Detroit Audubon Society had something to do with that.

The twins had a bird feeding station outside their nursery window when they were babies, and now they enjoy bird walks with their father in the summer, lectures at the Rackham Building in Detroit in the winter, and building birdbaths and bird feeders all year around.

Mr. Sanderson says that you have to have a big family to develop into a real father — and he's an only child!

Couple Will Honeymoon in Havana

Dorothy Kraus and James L. Madden United in Marriage

After a wedding trip to New Orleans and Havana, Cuba, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Madden will fly back to make their new home in Rochester.

They were married this morning in a 10 o'clock ceremony at St. Vincent de Paul Church performed by the Rev. William J. Rademacher.

The bride, Dorothy Louise Kraus, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Kraus of Franklin boulevard, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Madden of Rochester.

A tiara of lace and pearls held her French illusion veil and a cathedral arrangement of white carnations, stephanotis and trailing ivy formed her bouquet. The bridegroom's gift of imported pearls was her only jewelry.

Carolyn Kraus, the bride's sister from San Francisco, was honor maid in a gown of aqua nylon tulle fashioned with a cummerbund of silk shantung. She carried a bouquet of aqua and yellow carnations in a colonial arrangement.

Paler aqua was worn by attendants Maureen Porter and Mrs. Thomas Madden, who also carried colonial arrangements of yellow carnations.

Best man was the bridegroom's brother, Thomas Madden, and seating the guests were another brother, George Madden, and the bride's brother, James Kraus.

Blue lace with a corsage of pink rosebuds and white shattered carnations was worn by Mrs. Kraus as she received 200 guests at Hotel Waldron after the ceremony. Mrs. Madden wore a beige silk dress with a pink corsage of rosebuds and shattered carnations.

For the wedding trip the new Mrs. Madden changed to a shell pink summer suit with white accessories and an orchid corsage. The bridegroom is a student at the University of Detroit.

MRS. JAMES L. MADDEN

To reside in Rochester are Mr. and Mrs. James L. Madden who were married this morning at St. Vincent de Paul Church. The John A. Krauses of Franklin boulevard and the Charles E. Maddens of Rochester are their parents. The bride is the former Dorothy Kraus.

Geraldine C. Martus Wed

Geraldine C. Martus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Martus of O'Riley street, became the bride of Frederick J. Bourdeau this morning in St. Vincent de Paul Church. Frederick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ephrem Bourdeau of Cheboygan.

For the 9 o'clock ceremony, the bride wore a floor-length gown of nylon net over satin. The bodice was designed with a high neckline. The sleeves, pointed at the wrists, were made of hand-run Alencon lace.

Joan Bourdeau of Cheboygan was the maid of honor wearing a gown of blue nylon over taffeta. The other attendants were Maryanne Georgeff wearing a gown of dusty rose and carrying a carnation bouquet and Dona Fenly wearing a gown of yellow nylon net over taffeta. She also carried carnations.

Best man was Richard Martus of Cheyenne, Wyoming. Seating the guests, were Gerald Bourdeau of Boston and Alex Maxwell of Detroit.

A navy blue dress with white accessories was chosen by the bride for her traveling costume.

MRS. FREDERICK BOURDEAU

Dinner Honors Willis Teachers

Mrs. Marvin Vincent gave the invocation when Willis PTA held a cooperative dinner in honor of the teachers Thursday at noon.

Each teacher was presented with a corsage and Mrs. Reon Baldwin presented a gift to Mrs. Jean James who has been on the staff at Willis longer than any other teacher.

The dinner committee included Mrs. Elmer Williamson, Mrs. Lloyd Ludy, Mrs. Bernard Giroux, Mrs. Floyd Parker and Mrs. William Hilderly.

Charlotte Collins Repeats Her Vows

Vases of summer flowers graced the altar of St. Benedict Church today when Charlotte Louise Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred L. Collins of Wolfe street, spoke her marriage vows to John David DeShetler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold DeShetler of West Iroquois road.

Charlotte approached the altar wearing a floor - length gown of white Rose Pointe lace over satin. The gown was fashioned with long sleeves ending in points over her wrists and a mandarin collar trimmed with iridescent sequins.

A tiara trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent sequins held the fingertip veil and the bride carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and ivy.

Mrs. Collins chose a pink suit with white accessories and a corsage of rubrum lilies for the occasion and Mrs. DeShetler wore a pink-nylon lace dress with blue accessories and a corsage of rubrum lilies.

Mrs. Louis DeShetler, grandmother of the bridegroom, wore a pink silk dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

MRS. JOHN DAVID DeSHETLER

A Florida wedding trip is planned by the John D. DeShetlers who were married today in St. Benedict Church. She is the former Charlotte Collins, daughter of the Alfred Collins' of Wolfe street, and his parents are the Harold DeShetlers of Iroquois road.

Miss Fenton Becomes Bride Today

Janice Lee Fenton spoke her wedding vows this afternoon with Daniel Frederick Bishop in Orchard Lake Community Church.

Janice, daughter of Mrs. Grace Fenton of Lower Straits Lake and Dr. Russell Fenton of Birmingham, was attended by her sister, Mrs. Robert Kendall of Birmingham. Daniel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bishop of Cooley Lake road.

The bride wore a dress of champagne-colored lace and carried a mixed summer bouquet. Mrs. Kendall carried a pink bouquet to match her pink dress.

The bride's brother, Richard Fenton of Detroit, was best man. Seating the guests were James Huntley of Ohio and Mr. Kendall.

Wiersemas Are Honored

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Wiersema were honored by the teachers of Crofoot School at a dinner Thursday evening at Rotunda Inn.

Mr. Wiersema is leaving Crofoot School to become principal of Jefferson Junior High School. He was presented with a gift from the group.

Mrs. Wiersema and Mrs. Ralph Dawe showed pictures depicting Mr. Wiersema's life from boyhood until the present. Guests included Mrs. Sidney Geal, Mrs. Clarence Baker, Mrs. Lawrence McIntosh, Mrs. Ivan Clark, Mrs. Fred Steinbaugh and Mrs. Claire Hinckley.

Mrs. Ralph Dawe, Ethelyn Ashley, Margaret Scott, Mrs. Robert McManus, Mrs. Wade Griffith, Mrs. Guy Parks, Maude Spears and Mrs. George Gary completed the list.

Senior Citizens to Be Discussed

Guest speaker Thursday at Franklin Community Church will be Dr. Wilma Donahue of the Gerontology Department of the University of Michigan.

Dr. Donahue, expert in the study of the problems of the aged, will discuss new methods of housing older people, the importance of planning for retirement years to make them useful and healthful, the causes of breakdown in this age group.

There is one person in every 12 who is over 65 years of age, and in 10 years there will be 20 million people in this group, announced Dr. Donahue.

The importance of planning for the care and protection of senior citizens is second only in national importance to the prevention of war. Dr. Donahue, sponsored by the women's circles of the church, will speak at 8 o'clock.

Past Presidents Are the Guests of Owen PTA

Past presidents of Owen PTA were guests Wednesday evening when the group rounded up the season's activities with a cooperative dinner at the school.

Mrs. Hazel Gessingher conducted community singing. Dance numbers were given by Judy Saxton, with Patricia Eaton playing the accordion.

On the dinner committee for the occasion were Mrs. Ford Drumm, Mrs. Dewey Dean, Mrs. Charles Wheeler, Mrs. Elmer Fauble, Mrs. Gale Hogan, Mrs. John Stanberry, Mrs. Charles Popps, Mrs. Ralph Batchelor and Mrs. Harry Eaton.

On Wednesday afternoon Owen School graduates were honored at a tea with fifth graders and parents as guests.

Bobby Dean welcomed the group and Mary Ellen Oltesvig entertained with piano solos. Other entertainment was presented by Marilyn Scarborugy, Marilyn Drumm and Cynthia Sach.

MOMS Unit Meets

Mrs. Chester Brown opened her Wards Point home to members of MOMS of America, Inc., Unit Two recently for a cooperative luncheon and social gathering.

Sisterhood Holds Temple Meeting

The final meeting of the season was held by Corinne Sisterhood 184, Dames of Malta Wednesday evening at Malta Tample.

Following a cooperative dinner which honored birthdays of members, Mrs. William Vandecar presided at the meeting. A cooking school to be held in September was announced by Mrs. James Schram who also will host a party in her home.

Psi Chapter Holds Cooperative Dinner

The Albert Games home on Dover road was the setting for a cooperative dinner of Psi Chapter of Sigma Beta sorority on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Wallace Williams, outgoing president, was presented with a gift from the group. Recently elected officers were installed at this meeting. The group's next event will be a party for the husbands to be held in July.

Nation Owes Fathers Day to the Thoughtfulness, Graditude of a Mother

'Plain' Jobs Are Often Rewarding

Homemaker Loves Bookkeeping on a Part-Time Basis

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"You always talk about unusual and off-the-beaten-track careers," a woman writes me, "but I think sometimes the down-to-earth ones are better.

"Take my part-time job, for instance. Nothing spectacular about it, but my friends all envy me, and of course I'm happy as can be."

She went on to say that she is 33, mother of two school children, and wife of a struggling young professional man.

"Money was plenty tight," she told me, "so I knew darn well I would have to get a part-time job. But it was difficult to arrange the hours because I have important committee meetings two days a week, plus volunteer work which I cannot give up.

"So what I wanted was something that I could take on for three days a week — three full days.

"It would have been impossible if I hadn't had a certain amount of training as a bookkeeper. know bookkeeping is not considered exciting, but it surely did enable me to work out just what I wanted.

"First," she continued, "I took a brush-up course to get my knowledge up-to-date. Then I approached a few firms that we already deal with — the big garage and parking lot where John leaves the car, my beauty shop, the nursery school where the children used to go, and so forth.

"I asked their advice: Where did they think I could get a part-time bookkeeping job, helping out in a place too small to need full-time bookkeeping?

"They were very helpful. The garage needed someone right then and took me on for one day a week.

The beauty shop didn't need anyone but they sent me to a restaurant run by a friend of the beauty shop owner, and I got a day a week there.

"Now I'm engaged in trying to find one more establishment which will need one day a week.

"It's such fun, and there's variety, and I make out well financially, too. And just with plain old bookkeeping!"

Originator's Own Dad Inspired Idea

First Celebrated in 1910, Was Decreed Nationally in 1924

The idea came to Mrs. John B. Dodd of Spokane, Wash., one day in 1909, as she was washing dishes and keeping a careful eye on young John Bruce Dodd Jr. as he gurgled happily beside her in his highchair.

Recalling how her father had raised her and her five motherless brothers on an eastern Washington farm, it occurred to Mrs. Dodd that a day set aside for fathers would be the perfect way to show her devotion and gratitude for all her dad had done.

For others, a Fathers day would offer an opportunity to call attention to dad's important place in the home, training the children, safeguarding the marriage ties, protecting womanhood and childhood.

Mrs. Dodd wasted no time. She presented her idea to her minister and then to the Spokane Ministerial Association.

The idea was so favorably received that William Jennings Bryan said, "Too much emphasis cannot be placed upon the relation between parent and child" and at the same time he complimented Mrs. Dodd on her inspiration.

In 1916 President Woodrow Wilson had a Fathers Day button "pressed" in the White House. And in 1924 President Calvin Coolidge formally recommended that Fathers Day become a regular national observance.

Mrs. Dodd originally wanted Fathers day to be held on her father's birthday, June 5. But there wasn't time for the ministers to prepare sermons.

The third Sunday in June was substituted and has remained the official Fathers Day date since 1910.

William Smart, Mrs. Dodd's Civil War veteran father, lived to see Fathers Day become a wonderful reality throughout the country. He died in 1919.

Mrs. Dodd, who is now retired, was an active businesswoman in her home city of Spokane, where she still lives. Her husband, a life insurance employe, died nine years ago.

Waiter Rude in Belittling Size of Tip

But Man's Actions Are Also Deemed Bad Manners

By EMILY POST

A man writes me: "The other evening my wife and I had dinner in a restaurant, and after we had finished eating the waiter brought me the check. I paid it, leaving a certain amount on the plate for a tip.

"The waiter looked at the tip and said it was not enough. Whereupon I took the money and said if he wasn't satisfied with that, he would get nothing, and I walked off without leaving a tip. In my estimation the tip was a good one.

"Of course, my wife was embarrassed and thought I should have added to the tip. I thought I was perfectly justified in what I did.

"It's time someone took a stand against these increasing tipping demands. I would very much like to have your opinion on this."

Answer: I have never in my life heard of a waiter making any comment further than "thank you" for a tip, whether he was pleased with it or not. I have no idea whether you left a tip much less than the average, but even if you did it was inexcusably rude of him to make the comment he did.

On the other hand, no matter how ill-mannered you thought the waiter, to pick up the money and walk off without leaving anything was not good manners either.

Dear Mrs. Post: When walking down the aisle in a theater, or entering a restaurant, should a man who is out with his mother and his wife walk with his mother or his wife? This presupposes that the aisle is wide enough for two but not for three to walk together.

Answer: Although there is no rule, usually the two women follow the usher, or waiter, and the man follows them.

Dear Mrs. Post: In the case of a death in the family of either husband or wife, should a sympathy card be addressed to both husband and wife, or to only the one whose immediate relative has passed on?

For instance, if the husband's father has passed away, to whom should the card be sent?

Answer: It is sent to the immediate relative—in this case, to the husband.

When Girls Discover Romance First, They Must Wait for Boys to Catch Up

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

Girls go romantic earlier than boys do. And the very creatures who monopolize their daydreams aren't even aware of it — or of them. Young girls watch older girls buzzing around on dates, having a beautiful time, and they want the same sort of fun for themselves.

The trouble is that the boys their age are thinking about something else. Some of them can be persuaded to slick up and come to a party now and then, but such social mixing is usually forced upon them. And they wouldn't dream of lifting a finger to see a girl alone.

Such a helpless churning as goes on while the girls wait for the boys to wake up and grow up!

Here's one who's sure that she'll die an old maid, that there is something radically wrong with her—and she's just 14! She writes:

"Dear Miss Woodward: All the boys I've ever gone out with have said that they like me very much—as a good friend. They think of me as a 'girl friend' for about two weeks, then they stop coming around.

"Now please don't think I'm boy crazy! I don't want boys in general—I just want at least one boy to stick to me.

"My friends say boys don't stay long with me because I never find fault with them, never hold grudges, or fight because they go out with other girls.

"I figure it isn't any of my business to boss them around. The boys love me like a sister—but I want more than that!"

You're frantically impatient to have one of these unromantically inclined friends of yours stargazing at you—and it may be that the time isn't ripe.

There's nothing wrong with you; it's just that the psychological moment hasn't come for any of the boys that you know to consider your charms glamorous. That's not your fault—nor theirs, either. Change the time to a year from now—they may see you quite differently then.

You don't seem to lack dates, you have plenty of boy friends, and they all like you. Seems to me a fine state of affairs. Why not patiently give romance time to happen?

Here's a girl that would like to put a speed bomb under the boy she likes—and a different sort of bomb under his dad! She writes:

"Dear Miss Woodward: He's wonderful and I like him so very much. My girl friend told me he'd probably like to like me but his father stands in his way. His father is stubborn and very disagreeable and doesn't like me too much because so many girls chase his son.

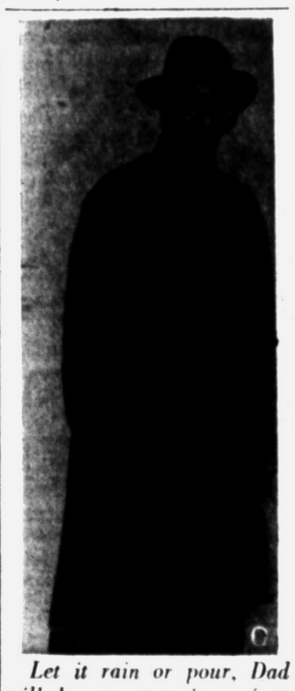

"I don't understand why he takes it out on me. Please help me find out if my boy friend does like me, and please suggest how I can make him do something about it."

You seem to have tumbled for boy whose father won't have him thinking about girls—at least, for the present. To this father, apparently, all girls are a waste of time. He's not singling you out in particular.

It's tough for a girl to try to break through a pattern that's firmly set in a boy's home. His dad is the kind who is annoyed by girls' phone calls, keeps son's nose to the grindstone, deals out no money for dates, won't listen to talk about girls, wants son to keep his mind on his work.

Son knows he has to have a little cooperation from home in order to take any girl seriously. Liking you wouldn't be convenient for him at the moment. It would be awkward and complicating.

When he can like any girl with a free and open heart, he will. And should the girl be you, he'll let you know.

Let it rain or pour, Dad will be smart and comfortable in his Fathers Day gift raincoat. This year-around model folds into its own compact kit.

Sheets Versatile

Many homemakers are beginning to use the attractive pastel-colored sheets for such things as curtains, draperies, flounces, tablecloths and bedspreads. Make sure the colored sheets you buy are sunfast and colorfast. Look for the sheets whose label certifies washability and colorfastness.

Don't Be Slave to Deficient Diet on Warm Days

Sun and surf combine to do much for the beauty-seeking teenager. And since days at the beach are likely to be fun-filled, few teen-agers have to be coaxed to get their share of the treatment.

The crowd gathers on the sands after breakfast and remains there until dinner time, lunching on whatever can be bought at nearby food stands.

But a daily diet of hot dogs soaked in spices, soda pop, candy bars, ices and other novelty foods is certain to counteract the beauty benefits of sunning and swimming.

So, if you're lucky enough to spend your summer at a beach resort, resolve now to eat a wholesome lunch every day. Don't let the crowd sway you into forming figure and complexion-ruining eating habits.

If you make up your mind ahead of time, you'll find it easier to stick to your decision. And don't attempt to compromise, for compromising nearly always is the beginning of defat.

If wholesome foods are not available at the foods stands (and most of the time they are), pack a sandwich and some fresh fruit for lunch.

And be sure to drink your regular quota of milk. Treat yourself to soda pop after you've had the milk.

In 1900, about 200 children out of every 1,000 live births died before they were 1 year old, compared to today's rate of around 20 per 1,000 in several countries.

Easy to Make, Easy to Wear

'Popover' Ideal for Play

Claire McCardell calls this favorite design of hers a "popover." This easy-to-make day-in, day-out dress can be drawn as tightly around the waist as you want.

The bodice is cut on the bias with an opening that artfully drapes into the side seam, and the skirt is cut on the straight of material for fullness.

No matter how far your imagination carries you, this little dress fills the order, depending on the material you select. Claire McCardell cut her "popover" from a plaid gingham cotton and it made it a perfect sun and play dress.

We suggest silks too—even silk jersey.

Coral Makes News

Coral is making fashion news in jewelry this season. Sometimes it's coupled with white pieces, other times set on gold chains, occasionally spiked with rhinestones. However it's designed, it sets off city cottons beautifully.

Be Cautious in Acquiring Fast Sun Tan

In an over-anxious way, many people try to make up for the long, cold winter by giving themselves too much exposure to the sun. In stead of a good tan, which can be gotton easily with gradual exposure, they end up with a bad burn.

Recently scientists in Holland discovered that two different layers of skin burn under two different wave lenghts of invisible ultra-violet rays.

Generally, however, blondes burn faster than brunettes, children more quickly than adults and dry-skinned persons more easily than people with oily skin.

The average brunette can stand about two 15-to-20 minute stretches of strong sunlight the first day, double that the second day and gradual increases thereafter. Blondes and redheads should cut that shcedule in half. Once tanned, you can stay out in the sun longer because one layer of skin thickens and the pigment developes, resulting in the "tan" color.

Don't be fooled on an overcast day, for clouds do not necessarily remove ultra-violet rays, and reflections from sand and water produce greater exposure.

All doctors agree that it's a good idea to use protective clothing and creams, lotions or oils. Many preparations contain compounds that filter out most of the ultra-violet rays and permit gradual fanning at the same time.

Vacation athletes who exercise under the hot sun may suffer sudden attack of heat exhaustion or the more serious sunstroke. To help prevent both conditions, avoid overexertion, and long exposure under the sun's rays.

It is also necessary to replace the salt that the body loses in perspiration and to wear light, loose, protective clothing.

Lovely for Moms

To reside in Flint after a wedding trip to northern Michigan are Mr. and Mrs. Allen Robbins. She is the former Patricia Ann Hadden. The Louis C. Haddens of Wisner street and Mrs. Mildred Robbins of Flint are the couple's parents.

MRS. 'ALLEN ROBBINS

Couple to Reside in Flint

The Central Christian Church was the setting Friday evening for the wedding of Patricia Ann Hadden, daughter of the Louis C. Haddens of Wisner street, and Allen Robbins, son of Mrs. Mildred Robbins of Flint.

The Rev. Charles Race performed the 8 o'clock ceremony before 75 guests. The altar was decorated with palms, white flowers and candelabra.

Patricia approached the altar wearing a waltz-length gown of lace and net over satin. The gown was fashioned with a lace bodice ending in scallops, a full net skirt and long sleeves ending in points at the wrists.

Mrs. Ralph Mitchell of Flint was Patricia's only attendant wearing a pale green waltz-length gown of net over taffeta with a matching tiara. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses.

Mr. Mitchell was best man and James Laing of Detroit seated the guests.

Mrs. Hadden chose a rose lace dress over taffeta with white accessories and a corsage of rubrum lilies. Mrs. Robbins wore a green nylon print dress with white accessories and a corsage of rubrum lilies.

Following a reception in the home of the bride's parents, the new Mrs. Robbins changed to a white linen suit with white accessories and an orchid corsage. The couple will reside in Flint after a wedding trip to northern Michigan.

Career Girl Can Enjoy Picnicking

Choose Campfire Cookery or Food That's All Fixed

Summer was made for picnics and working women have plenty of weekend opportunity to prepare and enjoy them all summer long. Decide whether your picnic will be a cooking one or ready to eat, and take it from there.

For cooking picnics, unless you're absolutely certain you can buy charcoal and kindling, be sure to take these with you. You will also need knives, a big fork, salt and pepper, and asbestos gloves or potholders.

Suggestions include skewering a shishkebab of lamb, little white onions, mushrooms, tomato and green pepper before you leave. Cook over hot coals until done to your taste, and serve with crusty Armenian or French bread, watercress and fruit.

If you're having steak, take along a long-handled grill to hold and turn it with. For a good black outside and bright red inside, rub it with salt, pepper and a cut garlic clove — then cook a 2-inch one seven minutes on each side over very hot, not flaming, coals. Serve with corn which has been wet thoroughly in salt water while unhusked and then placed on the coals to cook. Turn frequently.

Bring along your favorite relishes, catsup and rolls if you will have hamburgers. Prepare the patties before you leave the house, then place them on a tray, separating layers and covering the whole with waxed paper. Use a long-handled grill for broiling the meat, and toast the rolls over the coals.

For a sandwich picnic, you need little besides the inevitable salt and pepper, napkins, paper plates. Wrap each one separately or slip it into its own sandwich bag You might take raisin bread and cream cheese sandwiches with deviled eggs, scallions, cucumber sticks, cookies and pears.

Try ham sandwiches, cream cheese and olive; cold fried chicken with cucumber or current jelly sandwiches and honeydew, or fruit salad, date-nut bread sandwiches, and cheese. Any kind of cheese that eats well from the hand or on crackers makes a marvelous dessert. Or, with crusty bread, a bottle of wine and fruit, it makes a whole picnic of the finest kind.

But the best thing about picnics is there are no rules; what tastes best to you is what makes the picnic a success.

Piano Recital Held at Church

Appearing on the program were Kathy Jackson, Colene Brewer, Carolyn Brewer, Richard Foster, Nancy Jackson, Beatrice Schnorkian, Janet Foster, Dorothy Bishop, Sally Fitzwater John Brown and Dimitra Govenis.

Patrons Named for 'Kanehula' Dance Tonight

Included are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard T. Lewis, the John Cowes, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Cross, the J. Edward DeGroots, Mr. and Mrs. George Panks and Dr. and Mrs. I. E. Gordon.

Others are Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Fox, the Cecil Newsteads and the Earl Linds.

Pre-dance cocktail parties will be hosted by Mr. and Mrs. William Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nouse and the Frank Oosterhofs.

The Dick avenue home of the James Hurseys will be open for a cocktail party, and other guests will gather at the Robert Miller home on Berwick boulevard and the James Jenkins home on Spokane drive, before heading for Old Mill Tavern in Waterford where the dance will be held.

Arizona Guest Gives Devotions

Mrs. Thelma Bates of Bowie, Ariz., gave devotions Thursday when Anna Gordon Unit, WCTU, met with Mrs. Icie Clemens of North Marshall street.

Mrs. Bates also told of camp meetings among Arizona cowboys and she gave a reading. Mrs. Orla Masson and Elva Ashley sang a duet and Mrs. John Little and Anna Bothwell served at the tea table.

The next meeting was announced for July, a picnic at the Pontiac Lake home of Mrs. Joseph Green. After the meeting members delivered flowers to the homes of the sick.

Newlyweds Will Travel to Cape Cod

Alice D. Davis and William Stamm to Reside in Ohio

Planning a Cape Cod honeymoon are Mr. and Mrs. William Stamm who were married this noon in St. Hugo of the Hills Church. The newlyweds will reside in Cleveland, Ohio.

The bride, Alice Dorothy Davis, is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harold D. Davis of Alice avenue, and the Merrill Stamms of Mentor, Ohio, are the bridegroom's parents.

For the service Alice chose a ballerina - length wedding gown of white silk net appliqued with Swiss embroidery at the illusion neckline and in panels down the skirt. A pearl tiara held her fingertip veil and she carried cymbidium orchids and stephanotis in her bouquet.

Thomas Simcox of Cleveland was best man and Nick Fatica and Del Pacholke, both of Mentor, were ushers.

Switch Sheet Hems

Since sheets wear out first in those sections where head, shoulders and hips rub against them, put the bottom hem of the sheet at the top of the bed sometimes and thus equalize the wear.

Alice D. Davis became the bride of William Stamm this noon at St. Hugo of the Hills Church. The Merrill Stamms of Mentor, Ohio, and Dr. and Mrs. Harold D. Davis of Alice avenue are their parents.

A Mackinac Island honeymoon is planned by Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Saunders who were married this afternoon in Birmingham. The bride, Phyllis A. Cox, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Beltrum M. Cox of Birmingham, and the Fred A. Saunders' of Addison are the bridegroom's parents.

MRS. RICHARD J. SAUNDERS

Phyllis Ann Cox Married

An afternoon ceremony in First Methodist Church of Birmingham united Phyllis Ann Cox and Richard James Saunders today.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Beltrum M. Cox of Birmingham, and the Fred A. Saunders' of Addison are the bridegroom's parents. The Rev. Harry Martin performed the 3 o'clock service.

Embroidered lace flowers ornamented the floor - length skirt of Phyllis's wedding gown, which was fashioned with a lace bodice, long tapered sleeves, and panels of lace down the tulle skirt.

Mrs. John E. Michale of Royal Oak, the bride's sister, was matron of honor and another sister, Diann Cox, was junior bridesmaid.

The honor attendant's gown was ballerina - length blue nylon tulle with a sweetheart neckline, and she carried pink carnations. Rose tulle was worn by the junior maid, who carried a bouquet of yellow carnations.

The bridegroom's brother, Dean Saunders, was best man. Ushers were Jack Kelly of Sandusky, William Rose and Richard Jackson, both of Detroit.

Guests were received in the church parlor by the bride's mother wearing blue embroidered nylon with a corsage of salmon-colored glamellias. Pink linen with a corsage of rose glamellias was worn by the bridegroom's mother.

The newlyweds will spend the summer at Devil's Lake, and in the fall they will make their new home in Ypsilanti where both are students at Michigan State Normal College.

John R. Masons Will Honeymoon in Canada, East

White peonies and white carnations decorated the altar of St. Michael Church this afternoon when Julia Pope, daughter of the James Popes of Lowell street, spoke her marriage vows with John Robert Mason.

A floor - length gown of white slipper satin was worn by the bride. The bodice featured a portrait neckline and the skirt fell into a cathedral - length train. Her crown of seed pearls and rhinestones held an imported French illusion fingertip veil which was appliqued with rose petals.

The bride's only jewelry was a pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom, and she carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Dan Strango of Highland Park was matron of honor wearing a costume of pink taffeta. The floor - length skirt featured two tiers of white nylon net and was finished with nylon lace panels.

Blue taffeta gowns made identical to the honor matron's were worn by bridesmaids Mary Ann Keko and Mary Miska of Detroit and Frances Ford. The matron of honor carried a cascade bouquet of Hibbard roses and the bridesmaids' flowers were pink sweetheart roses and variegated carnations arranged in cascade bouquets.

Mr. Strango was best man, and seating the guests were Dale Slahta and Louis Vido of Detroit and George Chora of Dearborn.

Greeting guests at the evening reception held in the UAW - CIO Hall on Kennett road, Mrs. Pope will wear a rose - colored street length dress with white accessories and a corsage of white orchids and shattered carnations.

A red linen suit with white accessories and a white orchid will be the traveling costume for the new Mrs. Mason when the couple leaves for a northern Canada honeymoon. They will also travel to Maine and down the East Coast to Washington, D. C.

Upon their return they will reside on Jessie street.

Married this afternoon in St. Michael Church were Julia Pope, daughter of the James Popes of Lowell street, and John R. Mason. He is the son of the James Masons of Beach street.

The engagement of Pauline Betker to Cpl. Robert J. Keller has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Betker of Ferndale. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Keller of Parkdale avenue. An Aug. 14 wedding is planned.

Past Presidents Planning Picnic

The MOMS of America, Inc., Past Presidents Club met at the home of Mrs. Charles O'Brien of South East boulevard Thursday evening.

Mrs. Joan Huller of Ann Arbor, state president of the organization, told the group about the nurse the Past Presidents Club is sponsoring, and a number of the members reported on helping at the mobile X-ray station. Devotions were given by Lena Vanderlind, chaplain, from the 33rd Psalm.

The group will meet for a picnic in July.

Mrs. Tedcastle received a gavel pin from the past president, Mrs. Ralph Bergemann, and appointed committee chairmen for the ensuing year.

Mrs. Zannoth will have charge of programs; Mrs. Jack Sinclair, ways and means, and Mrs. Joseph Burgdorf, cards and gifts.

Heading the publicity department is Mrs. Mack, with Mrs. Walter Terry on charity; Mrs. Hutchinson and Mrs. Madsen on house and calling; Mrs. Corwin Woodard, budget, and Mrs. John Allen, auditor.

Mrs. Ida Mae Hiltz and Mrs. Duane Hamilton will be on the advisory board, with Mrs. Worster heading the dance committee and Mrs. Ward Ross, the banquet committee.

The group made plans for a fall fashion show under the chairmanship of Mrs. Norman Haldane and Mrs. Hamilton.

Mrs. Fred Russel of Royal Oak and Mrs. Samuel Pill were honored guests for the occasion. Secret pals were revealed and gifts exchanged.

Pioneer Sisters Hold Picnic

Mrs. E. J. Sutton's Lake Angelus road home was the setting for a picnic when members of Pioneer Sisters met there Thursday.

Mrs. Philip L. Lake was named sunshine chairman by the new president, Mrs. Ella Sandison. On the calling committee are Mrs. Sutton and Mrs. Thomas Bartle. Guests for the day included Mrs. L. A. Maze of Morenci and Mrs. Nettie Hull of Adrian.

Club Members See Ann Arbor Gardens

Members of Better Homes and Garden Club motored to Ann Arbor Thursday to tour the James Ingles gardens and for luncheon at Cedarbend Park. Mrs. Albert Kohn conducted the business meeting in the absence of Mrs. Fred Bohlman.

The group also toured the peony gardens in the arboretum. Dr. H. O. Whittemore, an instructor and chairman of the landscape architecture department of the university, was the leader.

Pontiac to Send 250 Delegates

Jehovah Witness Meet Will Be in Cincinnati Starting June 24

Pontiac will be represented by a delegation of 250 at the District Convention of Jehovah's Witnesses, Cincinnati Gardens, Cincinnati, Ohio.

W. P. Strong, presiding minister here and head of the delegation, announced today that the group will go to Cincinnati to join some 15,000 other witnesses of Jehovah in their 4-day convention opening June 24.

Strong pointed out that Jehovah's Witnesses are coming from 20 states including New York, Texas and Florida to participate in one of the largest religious conventions ever to be held in Cincinnati.

At the present time there are over 520,000 such active ministers throughout the world, which is an increase of 65,000 over the preceding year.

The witnesses also hold national meetings. The Nation's eyes were focused on them in July last year when upward of 165,000 gathered in New York's Yankee Stadium. This was the largest religious convention ever to be held in the United States," Strong stated.

Langer Bill Gets Mass Support From Churches

By Religious News Service

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — Congregations of twelve Protestant churches here joined together in mass support of the proposed Langer bill to prohibit interstate advertising of alcoholic beverages by press, radio and television.

More than 2,000 postal cards signed by the church members were sent to Sen. John W. Bricker of Ohio, chairman of the interstate and foreign commerce committee.

Hearings on the bill in the Senate committee will begin June 21.

Methodist Pastors Receive New Posts

At the annual conference of the Methodist Church held in Dearborn last week, Pontiac pastors were all reappointed.

Some of the changes made in this area include: the Rev. Herbert Hausser of Lake Orion to St. James Church in Detroit. Coming to Lake Orion will be the Rev. Mont C. Oliver of First Church, Ferndale.

Going to First Church, Ferndale is the Rev. John W. Parrish from St. James in Detroit.

Free Methodists to Begin Building Fund Campaign

Sunday will mark the formal opening of the building fund campaign at First Free Methodist Church.

The building fund committee will be consecrated to its task during the 11 a. m. worship service by the Rev. E. A. Cutler. The Rev. Mr. Cutler is serving his second term as conference superintendent.

Monday, teams will begin solicitation for pledges from members and constituents of the church. When $75,000 has been secured in cash and substantial pledges, the building will be started.

The church will be erected on Elizabeth Lake Avenue at Murphy St.

For many years the old church, built in 1911-12, has seemed inadequate for the growing church and Sunday school. Therefore, there has been a growing desire on the part of the members to do something about the crowded conditions.

An increase of 107 per cent in attendance has been made in the Sunday school during the past two years, with a corresponding increase in church attendance.

Sunday, Leonard Phipps, general chairman of the campaign, will address his committee and will introduce the guest speaker.

With reference to the campaign Mr. Phipps said, "We have approximately $24,000 in pledges at the present time and I am very pleased with the way the executive committee and the church in general has accepted the challenge of the campaign."

The Holy House of Ephesus in Turkey where the Blessed Virgin is traditionally believed to have lived for a time, will be the terminus of a torch-bearing pilgrimage starting at the Marian shrine of Lourdes in August.

Sunday Sermonette

LIMELIGHTERS

By DON D. TULLIS

The companions of our youth stand out vividly in after years. One of our gang was weak of mind but strong of purpose. He had a mania for having his picture taken. When he saw anyone with a camera he would rush up and say "Me wants me picture tuck." That's why we named him Tuck.

Now Tuck has a host of disciples who also want their "pictures tuck." They are not so bold as he, but they do dodge before every camera that points their way and they usually get there before the "click."

One day, standing before the cathedral in Pisa, we saw many tourists "shooting" the leaning tower from every angle. A few limelighters were rushing here and there to get in every picture.

A man standing nearby remarked "Look at those lens lice." Not a dignified cognomen but highly descriptive to say the least. They were swarming before the lenses, if not like insects, at least like bees about a beebalm bush.

The story is told of a famous American that he died and went to heaven. Peter opened the gate and bade him enter. After an hour the old fisherman returned to find the man still standing outside. "Why don't you come in?" he asked. The man replied "I am waiting for the photographers."

Such characters are described by George Eliot's Mrs. Poyser, "He welly like a cock as thinks the sun's rose 'o purpose to hear him crow."

Vanity of vanity, but all is not vanity. There are untold multitudes of humble folk who never seek the limelight or try to usurp undue power over their fellows. They are the leaven that will eventually leaven the lump.

The greatest Man of all time was the humblest. He turned his pockets inside out and emptied himself of all pride.

He gives us the yardstick with which to measure ourselves, "Be not wise in your own conceits, and let no man think of himself more highly than he ought to think." He put these words in the mouth of Paul.

Hear heaven's proclamation of this peculiar paradox, "The proud shall stumble and fall, but the meek shall inherit the earth."

Senate Bill Proposes Clergy Social Security

By Religious News Service

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Social security coverage of clergymen on a purely voluntary basis is provided in a bill introduced in the Senate here by five Democratic Senators from the South.

The plan it proposes is similar to that recommended by representatives of the Southern Baptist Convention at a recent hearing by the House Ways and Means Committee.

Says Too Much Money Stress

Many of Our Churches Long to Be Successful Financially

TORONTO — A yearning among churches in North America for financial success is playing into the hands of professional fund-raisers and posing a soul damaging evil, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada was told here.

Dr. A. Neill Miller, secretary of the denomination's stewardship and budget committe, said that profit-making fund promoters were shaping the church's moral and spiritual life.

He said it "was much easier to add 100 per cent to the revenue of a church than to add five per cent to its membership. . . or even to the frequency of attendance of its members."

Dr. Miller called token-giving by members "an easy escape for the uneasy conscience," and voiced misgivings about the evasion of greater responsibilities.

He warned that professional fund-raising must be kept under the closest scrutiny and judgment of the church presbyteries and congregations.

"It is a tragic thing that in so many of our churches giving is regarded as no more than a necessary evil related to the paying of bills."

Bible society representatives from all over the world gathered in London for the British and Foreign Bible Society's 150th anniversary. They were greeted by the Queen Mother who made a special trip to Bible House in honor of the sesquicentennial celebration.

Family Chain of Prayer Saved Eisenhower's Leg

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

A cousin of President Eisenhower, Mrs. Lydia Ann Eichelberger, of Tabor, Iowa, recently told reporters that a chain of family prayers saved the President from a leg amputation when he was a boy.

DR. PEALE

A victim of blood poisoning, young Ike was informed that his leg would have to be amputated. He refused to permit it. His family supported this refusal and began to pray continuously.

Certain members of the family were assigned prayer periods, forming what they called a "chain of prayer." After several days both the swelling and fever subsided and the leg was saved.

In a similar situation, Mickey Mantle, one of the greatest baseball players of our time, avoided an amputation while a victim of osteomyelitis, by combining faith and science. He is quoted as saying that "prayer and penicillin" saved his leg.

And, not long ago, I was told of a vice admiral in the United States Navy who sent off forty planes from a carrier during maneuvers at sea. While they were out a sudden fog closed in.

The planes began to run low on gas and those on board the ship began to fear they would have to be ditched with resulting danger of loss at sea of the men in them.

The admiral studied the fog, then told some of his officers to follow him, and went down to his cabin. He turned to them and said, "Gentlemen, let us pray."

"What are we going to pray about?" they asked.

"We are going to ask the Lord to lift this fog," he replied.

I am sure that some of these bright young officers, trained in materialistic science, but not in the science of spiritual forces, said, if not out loud, at least to themselves, "Fog is the result of atmospheric conditions over which no amount of prayer can exercise control."

But the admiral was a strong simple soul, somewhat old-fashioned in his ways. On his knees he prayed, "Lord, we ask Thee to part that fog and bring those boys in."

And the fog parted long enough for every plane to get down safely. Then it closed in again.

When fog closes in around your own life, what do you do? Do you negatively say, "I can't pray to be relieved of this?" Why can't you?

You want things to be set straight. You believe that God can do it for you. Then think and pray with positive faith.

Don't be afraid to ask for what you want. You may not always get it. But you will get what you need. Dr. John Ellis Large, in his recent book, "Think On These Things," quotes a prayer written by an anonymous Confederate soldier almost one hundred years ago:

"I asked God for strength, that I might achieve — I was made weak, that I might learn humbly to obey . . .

"I asked for health, that I might do greater things—I was given infirmity, that I might do better things . . .

"I asked for riches, that I might be happy — I was given poverty, that I might be wise . . .

"I asked for power, that I might have the praise of men — I was given weakness, that I might feel the need of God . . .

"I asked for all things, that I might enjoy life — I was given life, that I might enjoy all things . . .

"I got nothing that I asked for—but everything I had hoped for . . .

"Almost despite myself, my unspoken prayers were answered. I am, among all men, most richly blessed!"

Churches Unite on Father's Day

Oakland Park, Baldwin Youngsters to Combine Their Talents

The Young people from Oakland Park Methodist Church will unite with the young people from Baldwin Avenue EUB Church Sunday at 7:30 to present a Father's Day program at the Baldwin Avenue Church.

They will hold a recreational and fellowship period at 5 p. m. under the direction of Paul Spragg, counselor for the youth of the host church.

The poem "What Are Fathers Made Of" will be read and musical numbers will include a vocal and cornet solos by Phyllis Smith and Jerry Fredericksen; the quintet from Pontiac High School composed of Cecil Reeves, Bobby Witclif, Kenneth and Clifford Dixon and Jim Stevens. Duets will be played by Mary Mapley and Kathleen Hertel; Vicky Everett and Bonnie Allen.

Accompanists will be Bob Stasiuk, organist; Shirley VerStrate and Beverly Bell, pianists.

The opening and offertory prayers will be given by Helen Ritter and Charlene Deeg, while Bill Hertel will read the Scripture lesson.

"Our Father, God" is the title of the sermon by the Rev. Herbert E. Ryan of the host church.

REV. P. A. THOMAS

Ordained Elder by Methodists

Commerce Methodist Pastor Also Receives Degree, Class Award

The Rev. Perry A. Thomas of Commerce was ordained an elder at the annual conference of the Methodist Church at Dearborn Sunday. On Monday he received his Bachelor of Divinity degree from the Graduate School of Theology, Oberlin College.

At this time he also received an award for the best preaching in his class. Candidates for the award are voted upon by the Homiletical Society. Dean Leonard Stidley made the presentation.

Born in Pontiac, the Rev. Mr. Thomas was graduated from Pontiac High School in 1943 and attended First Methodist Church where he was active in the young people's work. After two years in the U. S. Army he entered Asbury College, graduating in 1949.

In November of that year he became pastor at Commerce Methodist Church where he is still serving. He is married and has two children.

Plan Baptismal Service

A baptismal service is being scheduled for Sunday at 10:45 at Providence Baptist Church on Bagley St. The Rev. T. Walter Harris is pastor.

City Churches Planning Children's Bible Schools

With the closing of the public schools of the city, plans begin to materialize for vacation Bible schools in many of the churches of the city.

These schools provide an easy let-down for the summer vacation for many children who find it difficult to turn from an all-day schedule to "nothing to do but play."

Most of the Bible schools are planned for half-day sessions, and are so interspersed with recreation and handwork that it is surprising to many to realize how many Bible verses, stories and songs are learned in the short period.

June 21 through July 2

Baldwin Avenue EUB 9-11:30, Mrs. Earl Metz; Baldwin Ave. Methodist, 9-11:30, Mrs. Virginia Laur; Calvary EUB, 9-11:30, Mrs. Arthur Warrilow; Central Methodist, 9:30 to 12, Mrs. Marvin Andrews and Christian and Missionary Alliance, 9-11:30, Mrs. Chester Vaught.

Others include: Christian Temple, 9-12, Mrs. Leland Marion; Covert Methodist, 9-10:30, Mrs. Charles Laidler; First Christian, 9-11:30, Mrs. Harold Brown, First Church of the Nazarene, 9-12, Mrs. James Gee and First Methodist, 9-12, Mrs. Paul Kratt.

Still others are: First Presbyterian, 9-12, Dr. W. H. Marbach; Grace Lutheran, 9:30 to 12, Robert Schapler; Joslyn Avenue United Presbyterian, 9-11:30, Rev. Edmond Watkins; Marimont Baptist, 9:30 to 12, Rev. and Mrs. Patrick Clifford of Plymouth, and Oakland Park Methodist, 9-12, Mrs. John Ostrander.

Concluding the list are Perry Park Baptist, 9:30-11:30, Miss Pearl Griffith Providence Missionary Baptist, 10-1 p.m., Mrs. Louise Edwards; and Wilson Ave. Methodist, 9:30-12, Mrs. Orville Thompson.

June 21 to 25

June 28 to July 9

Parkdale Church of the Nazarene, 9:30 to 12, Mrs. Carl Sharp; Trinity Baptist, 9-12, Mrs. Verda Billings.

The Salvation Army school started Friday and will continue through June 24, 9:30-2:30 with William Cunningham as director.

Zion Church of the Nazarene has selected July 26-30 for its school with Mrs. W. E. Varian as director.

To Pray for Those Dominated by Reds

Sunday St. Trinity Lutheran Church of Pontiac will offer special prayers for all behind the Iron Curtain. The occasion is the first anniversary of the Berlin uprising against communism.

All fellow citizens are invited to pray:

"O Lord God, Who art Love and seest all the suffering, injustice and misery in this world, have pity, we implore Thee, on our fellowmen now dwelling under the pall om communism.

"Grant that those who died in heroic resistance against this godlessness may not have suffered in vain; but that the cause of justice and freedom, peace and truth may prevail; that everywhere the happiness, joy and security of godliness may abound as Christians bear witness to the Gospel of Thy Son Jesus Christ. In Whom there is salvation, life and resurrection, by Whom we are redeemed and set at liberty. Amen."

Detroit Woman Chosen as Scholarship Winner

By Religious News Service

NEW YORK — Mrs. Faye Kaplan of Detroit and Mrs. Girdie H. Ware of Stillwater, Okla., are the 1954 winners of two national scholarships awarded annually to teachers by the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

The scholarships, made possible largely through a grant to the National Conference from the Loyal Order of Moose, Supreme Lodge of the World, will enable the two women to attend the Summer Institute for Family and Community Living to be held at Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 30-July 28.

Lackawanna Minister to Talk to Young People

The young people of Trinity Baptist Church will sponsor the Sunday services at which time the Rev. Charles L. Sanders of Lackawanna, N. Y., will be guest speaker at the 11 a. m. service.

At 4 p. m. the Lackawanna Youth Choir will present a concert in the church. The Rev. Richard H. Dixon Jr. is pastor.

MISS JEAN HILTON

Bethany Member Wins Scholarship

Announcement was made Sunday morning in Bethany Baptist Church that Miss Jean Hilton, a 1954 graduate of Pontiac High School, has won a scholarship and will enter Kalamazoo College in September.

Miss Hilton is immediate past president of the Youth Fellowship at the church, a member of the choir and represents the young people on the official board of the church. She also is an officer in the Michigan Baptist Convention and on the cabinet of Wayne Association.

She was soloist with the A Cappella Choir and Junior and Senior Girls Ensembles in high school, a member of the Quiver staff and Quill and Scroll. She is also a member of the National Honor Society.

Pleads for Cooperation With Relief Programs

By Religious News Service

ELKHART, Ind. — Directors of the Heifer Project, gathered here to celebrate the 10th anniversary of the interdenominational relief and rehabilitation agency, heard an appeal for church cooperation in meeting the needs of people in war-devastated countries.

The Rev. M. R. Zigler, director of Church of the Brethren activities in Europe and the denomination's representative at World Council of Churches headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland, told the agency's directors and some 100 of its well-wishers that unless needs are met Europe will not only turn Communist but non-Christian.

John Wesley Film Slated 2 Days at Pontiac High

The premier showing of "John Wesley" will take place Sunday and Monday evenings at 8 p. m. in Pontiac High School.

The film production is being given under the auspices of the Men's Club at Central Methodist Church, and tickets may be purchased at the office of the church or from officers of the club. Richard Poole is chairman of the event, and George Yansen is president of the club.

The movie was produced by the Radio and Film Commission of the Methodist Church and the picture was filmed in England for the American church by the J. Arthur Rank organization.

A special arrangement brought the film to the Methodist Church before being made available to Hollywood producers.

Wesley was the founder of the evangelical movement which grew into a family of Methodist Churches in the world, one of which comprises America's largest Protestant denomination.

Some historians credit his movement with creating such a transformation in the life of 18th century England that the country escaped an experience of violence similar to the French Revolution.

Unseen Buddies Meet After Writing 15 Years

UTICA, N. Y. (UP) — Pen pals an ocean apart met here for the first time recently after they had spent 15 years getting acquainted by mail.

Correspondence between John Grier, local public relations executive, and Tony Newlands, British actor, started when they were 13-year old Boy Scouts.

They have corresponded regularly, even while both served in World War II, since the first letters were exchanged in 1939.

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Lets take a look at some of the current and forthcoming movies

"Demetrius and the Gladiators" is a clear and unabashed attempt to cash in on the popularity of "The Robe." Using some of the same sets and actors plus a fragment of the original theme, the sequel tosses in a large supply of sex and violence for good measure. The result is entertaining if not very uplifting.

* * *

"Living It Up" is perhaps the best of the Martin and Lewis romps. For once, they have a substantial vehicle — taken from the Broadway show "Hazel Flagg," which was taken from the movie "Nothing Sacred." When th efilm sticks to the whimsy of the plot, it's wonderful. It is not so good when it relies on the standard Martin and Lewis routines.

"Magnificent Obsession" is a pleasant dose of message and sentiment. The old Robert Taylor-Irene Dunne movie has been remade with Rock Hudson, Jane Wyman and color. The story seems ol-fashioned, but the message is as important today as ever.

* * *

"The Student Prince" is yet another remake. During the early moments, you wonder: Why did they drag out this old piece of claptrap? But then you get into the swing of it and you see how these old operettas charmed an earlier generation.

"The Caine Mutiny" measures up to the bigness of its story.

"About Mrs. Leslie" rambles on in the manner of a serial in a woman's magazine. In plodding style, it tells the story of a mature woman who spends six weeks each year as the companion to a married public figure. What brings the tale alive is the glowing personality of Shirley Booth.

"Seven Brides for Seven Brothers" is one of those rare musicals that discard formula for originality. This handsome folklore tells how seven brothers won their wives in frontier days.

Foreign Correspondent Complains About Laws

NEW YORK (AP)—Alex Faulkner, New York Correspondent for the London Daily Telegraph says that when he took a vacation fishing trip to Massachusetts:

"I was told that foreigners who have not been domiciled there for a year or more are not even eligible for nonresident fishing licenses."

Faulkner says a check shows that Delaware, Kansas, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Virginia also forbid fishing by foreigners and hunting by foreigners is forbidden in these six states plus Connecticut, Illinois, Nebraska, New Jersey, New Mexico, North Dakota and Utah.

What—No Marines?

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ross, neighbors, seven police squad cars, civilian defense volunteers and a tracking dog were unable to find Thimothy Ross, 5, and his brother, Terrence, 6, after they left home to play. The boys returned nonchalantly the next morning after falling asleep in a shed a half block from home.

Communist Pole Dies; Was Bitter U. S. Critic

LONDON (AP)—The death of Zygmunt Modzelewski, who played a major role in turning Poland into a Communist country was announced today by Warsaw Radio.

He had been in failing health for some time with a heart ailment and resigned as foreign minister in 1951.

NLRB Counsel Dies From Heart Attack

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Robert N. Denham, 68, general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board from 1947 to 1950, died at Barnes Hospital last night, apparently of a heart attack.

Denham quit the NLRB at former President Truman's request, climaxing a running fight between the general counsel's office and the five-man NLRB board over jurisdiction and administration of the Taft-Hartley law.

Denham entered the hospital about four hours before he died.

Denham was born in St. Louis Oct. 23, 1885. He received a bachelor of law degree from the University of Missouri in 1907 and a master of law degree from the University of Michigan in 1908.

Sickness Halts Truman's Act

Has Indigestion Attack; Was to Walk on Stage in 'Call Me Madam'

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Illness prevented Harry S. Truman from filling a guest spot in the musical show "Call Me Madam" last night but the former president was reported feeling better today.

Attending an opening night performance at Kansas City's Starlight Theater, Truman complained of feeling weak and of a sharp pain in the side. He left the theater before the end of the first act and was driven home by Mrs. Truman. Later, Mrs. Truman said her husband had suffered a severe attack of indigestion.

"He is feeling much better now and is sitting in his room," she said. "Probably part of the trouble was brought on by the heat."

The former chief executive's name is mentioned often in the Irving Berlin musical based on the career of Perle Mesta, famed Washington hostess and former ambassador to Luxembourg.

Truman had agreed to appear on stage near the end of the final act. Usually an actor who resembles the former president walks on stage for about 15 seconds.

The scheduled appearance of the former president was to have been a surprise to the audience. He had agreed to the role for the opening night performance only on the condition that no announcement of it was to be made in advance.

The former president was 70 years old May 8. He has seldom been ill and his health after seven years in the White House was termed surprisingly good.

Stengel Frets Over Surge of Cleveland Nine

Tribe Keeps Winning While Yanks, Chisox Beat Each Other

By TOM BRANAGAN

CHICAGO (AP) — The way Casey Stengel sees it, the New York Yankees and the Chicago White Sox are going to "keep beatin' each others brains out" this week end while the Cleveland Indians waltz away from both of them.

* * *

The Yankees' manager made the statement before his club beat the Sox 7-6 last night.

Meantime, the Indians were beating Boston 2-0 to take a four-game edge over both the Sox and Yanks for the American League lead.

* * *

"It's kinda silly, ain't it?" asked Casey. "Here we are beatin' each others brains out and what's Al Lopez doing over there against Boston? Winning his how-many-is-it straight?

"Nine? and how many has he lost? Seventeen?

"Well, now, we've beat them four times and they've beat us four times. You fellows (the Sox) have beat them five times and they beat you three times.

* * *

"I know they've lost 17 games—haven't they? That means the two of us have had to win more than half the games those guys have lost doesn't it?

"I'm wondering where we're going to get some help."

DICK GETS REWARD—Dick Chapman, Pinehurst, N. C., amateur, grins as he is bussed by his wife Friday after he made a hole-in-one and racked up a low 2nd-round score of 67 in the National Open golf championship. Chapman holed out on the 204-yard, par-3 9th hole, using a No. 3 iron. His 1st-day round was 77, which gave him 144 for the two days.

MSC Honors Britishers

EAST LANSING (UP) — Two British subjects have been awarded top honors on the Michigan State college track team, athletic director Ralph H. Young announced today.

Kevan Gosper, ace quartermiler from Newcastle, Australia, was named 1955 captain and miler John Cook, London, Ontario, was given the annual M. M. Knappen merit award for his "hard, honest effort and team value."

Ben Close as Littler Takes Open Lead

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

SPRINGFIELD, N.J. (AP) — Not since Bobby Jones' "Grand Slam" year of 1930 has one player been able to win both the Open and Amateur golf championships of the United States within the span of less than a year.

* * *

Gene Littler could be the next one to do it and today will tell whether the trim, silent Californian has the stuff that makes a Jones—or a Ben Hogan—or whether he's just another promising young golfer.

Littler won the Amateur title at Oklahoma City last September while he still was in the Navy. Now, a civilian and a professional for less than six months, he's showing the way in the 72-hole Open championship at the halfway point with a 70-69—139.

And today he'll learn what pressure is like—the pressure of playing for $6,000 prize money and a title that is worth infinitely more.

Going into today's final 36 holes, with just 50 players left out of nearly 2,000 who originally entered and 162 who started play here Thursday, Littler had a two-stroke margin over defending champion Ben Hogan and lame-armed Ed Furgol, tied at 141.

* * *

That margin means little when you're up against a player like Hogan, who has won the Open four times—coming from behind and running in front—and who plays every shot as if his livelihood depended on it.

* * *

A dozen other players were within striking distance. Two former champions—Lloyd Mangrum and Cary Middlecoff—and two brash, skilled young pros—Dick Mayer and Al Mengert—were only four strokes behind at 143.

Bobby Locke, Tommy Bolt, Bob Toski and Dick Chapman, who shot the lowest 18-hole score of the tournament, had 144's. Sam Snead and the sensational first-day leader, Billy Joe Patton, had 145's and Jack Burke and Freddie Haas 146's. Any one of these could pick up six or seven strokes on Littler in 36 holes if Gene should falter.

The Open-Amateur "double" is about the toughest golf combination to put together. Jones did it within three months in 1930 after winning the 1925 Amateur and the 1926 Open about 10 months apart.

* * *

It took Johnny Goodman four years after his 1933 Open victory to take the Amateur title and Lawson Little, who won the 1934 and 1935 Amateur championships, didn't win the Open until 1940, when he was a seasoned pro.

* * *

Littler, however, has been hailed by the top pros as the greatest "comer" to turn up in years. He showed it when he was the only player in the 1954 Open to break Baltusrol's tough 34-36—70 par for two rounds. He did it with an even 70 the first day and a superlatively steady 69 yesterday.

Patton had a 69 Thursday to lead the first round. Paul McGuire, an obscure young pro from Wichita, Kans., matched it early yesterday and Chapman, the veteran Amateur, fired the lowest round of the tournament—a 67, yesterday. They couldn't stay under par for two rounds, however.

* * *

Chapman's round was a rare one. He had a hole-in-one on the ninth and he blasted into the hole from a trap on the sixth.

Fall Bout Seen

By JACK HAND

Charles insists "I'll be ready in 10 days" after getting a medical green light from the New York State Athletic Commission. The 32-year-old Cincinnati Negro still is puffed around the face and lips and wears a patch of tape over the right eye.

How about a September match with Charles?

"He's the match if we go over here," said Weill. "We had all intentions of going to London to box Don Cockell until Charles made his real stand.

The IBC still was counting cash yesterday, coming up with a gross gate of $543,092.24, not counting $35,000 from radio and an estimated $122,500 from theater television. The movies were reported doing fine business. No final reports were available for the theater-TV but it was estimated that about 100,000 theater seats were sold and about 30,000 more at drive-in locations. The promoters get $1 from each theater seat and 75 cents from the drive-ins with the fighters taking their usual split. Marciano got 40 per cent, Charles 20 per cent.

Pending a final accounting of the theater-TV and movies, no exact purse figures were available. On the basis of the figures known and an estimate of the theater-TV, Marciano will get about $247,136 and Charles $123,568.

LA Real Threat to New York AC in Track Meet

By SKIPPER PATRICK

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Los Angeles Athletic Club appeared a good beat to unseat the New York AC as team champion in the windup of the 66th National AAU Track and Field championships tonight.

* * *

The Los Angeles club, powered by stars of Southern California's National Collegiate champions, goes into the finals with 54 points compared to 49 for New York AC. Five meet records were bettered in last night's opening session.

Sparked by James Lea of Southern Cal, who won his qualifying heat in the 440-yard dash at 47.4 seconds, the Los Angeles club is loaded with athletes capable of piling up more points tonight.

* * *

Records bettered last night before an estimated 9,000 fans that poured into Public School Stadium in sweltering 90-degree-plus heat were:

440-yard hurdles—Josh Culbreath, Morgan State, :52.

* * *

At least two stars said they were disappointed with their performances last night but there were no alibis. Ernie Shelton, of Los Angeles AC, failed again in his crack for the 7-foot high jump, but won in commendable height of 6 feet, 9¾ inches. He almost had the miracle height on his second jump.

* * *

Josy Barthel, the 1,500 meter Olympic champion from Luxembourg, was an also-ran in the mile, won by Fred Dwyer of New York AC in 4:09.5.

Jaycee Golf Test Monday

Waterford Group Holds 18-Hole Medal Tourney at Pontiac CC

Junior golf tournament sponsored by the new Waterford Junior Chamber of Commerce chapter, will be held Monday over the Pontiac Country Club course starting at 9 a.m.

Post entries will be accepted up to 9 o'clock Monday morning. The low 5 scorers in the 18-hole medal play event will qualify for the state Jaycee meet at Jackson in July.

Entries must not reach the age of 18 years by Aug. 15 of this year under the U.S. JCC rules. National tournament is scheduled for Albuquerque, N.M., in August. Winners in the Waterford test will receive trophies (top three) and medals (next two).

Among the entries will be Arsen's entire Waterford High School squad, which posted a fine record this season. Entries will be accepted by phone and further information concerning the tournament can be had by calling Arsen at OR 3-7206.

Pontiac's Jaycee tourney was to be held Tuesday, but chairman Bud Misfield said Friday that the affair probably would be postponed a week.

One State Man Left in Open

Evans Posts 150 Card; Windsor's Rudy Horvath Also in Running

SPRINGFIELD, N. J., June 19 (AP)—Only two Michigan district qualifiers were left in the running today in the United States open golf championship.

They were Rudy Howath of Windsor, Ont., who added a 72 yesterday to his previous day's 75 for 147, and Max Evans, with a 76-74—150. Bill Markham of Detroit missed the top 50 by one stroke with 79-74—153.

Then came Jimmy Johnson of Detroit with 82-78—160; Eldon Briggs of Saginaw with 83-79—162; Joe Belfore of Detroit with 86-82—168, and amateur Jack McGivern, who withdrew after turning in an 84 the 1st day.

Tight Squeeze for PL Titlists

By H. GUY MOATS

The breaks decided the day's top match yesterday in Pine Lake Country Club's Fifth Annual Invitational Best Ball tournament, which Sunday reaches its finale.

Defending titlists Tom Draper and Bob Whiting of Red Run had a close call at the hands of their stubborn opponents, Randy Ahern and Don Dawson. A missed four foot putt on the short 17th hole really did the trick to give the Draper, Whiting combination a one-up victory.

Defending champions took a 1-up edge on the 13th after a tight battle all through the first round. They held it briefly, however, when a three-putt green on the 14th squared the match. On the 16th the 1953 titlists lost a chance to regain the lead when Whiting's tee shot went out of bounds.

But on the short 17th Ahern left a four foot putt for his partner. Dawson missed the try for a par. Draper sunk his try for a 3 to go 1 up. Both teams wound up with pars on the 18th.

Draper and Whiting collide today with former champions Blaine Eynon (Pine Lake) and Pat Sawyer (St. Paul, Minn.) who won the first Pine Lake Invitational five years ago. Eynon and Sawyer disposed of Roy Burgin and Tom Newhall, in Friday's round.

One of the day's surprises was the elimination of co-medalists Tommy Watrous and Bob McMasters, a pair of teen-agers who shared the qualifying round medal at 69 with Bob Babbish and Bill O'Brien. The Babbish, O'Brien team is still in the running, however, eliminating Ralph Elistrom and Dave McHarg, 2 and 1.

Watrous and McMasters lost on the final green where they took three putts. Bill Nettle and Bill Pettibone of Pine Lake administered the defeat, 1 up. The Pine Lake pair grabbed an early 3-hole lead, but going down the back stretch the youngsters squared the match and held on until the last hole.

Hottest round of the day, Friday, was that turned in by Tony Skover of Meadowbrook and Dick Whiting of Red Run. They carded a 2-under-par 70, disposing of Tom Lowery and Harry Martin, 4 and 3.

One championship flight match went 19 holes, and several other extra-hole matches were played in other flights. Arte Thorner and Jack Nederlander birdied the first hole of the playoff to beat Ray Conlon and Tom Chisholm.

John Griffin and Joe Watson of Country Club of Lansing eliminated Ned Holland and George Gagnier; George Hain and Bob Billig defeated Ernie Cole and Bob Nonamaker 2 and 1.

Rookie Portocarrero Takes Revenge on Bengals, 2-1

By JOE FALLS

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Tigers found out, rather sadly, that Portocarrero is as difficult to hit as it is to pronounce.

Arnold Portocarrero, the tongue-twisting rookie of the Philadelphia A's, twisted the Tiger tails with a strong four-hitter last night in Briggs Stadium. It gave Philadelphia the opeing game of a four-game series, 2-1.

The Detroiters appeared as though they were ready to pour it on again. Ray Boone hit a towering home run in the 1st inning and it looked as though Portocarrero was ready to be carried out.

But the 6-foot-3 youngster settled himself and permitted only three harmless hits the rest of the way. A home run by Bill Renna tied the score in the 2nd for the A's, who then won it in the 7th on Renna's double and Gus Zernial's single.

The loser, as might be expected, was Billy Hoeft. The Tiger southpaw has lost four times in Briggs Stadium this season.

"I'll bet I haven't won four games before the home folks," Billy the Kid said after the game.

"That makes two one-run losses in a row," Hoeft continued. "Last Sunday these guys (the A's) scored two runs after two were out in the 9th to beat me. It's tough."

Portocarrero also has six losses but has one more victory than Hoeft, four.

Cuban Zulueta Beats Gonsalves in TV Bout

Zulueta won a unanimous decision over Gonsalves in 10 rounds in the stillness of Madison Square Garden. The International Boxing Club didn't announce any attendance figures but there couldn't have been more than 1,500 people.

Nobody got hurt, no knockdowns, no solid punching but a fine display of boxing skill and defensive work. Zulueta remained the No. 2 lightweight contender and Gonsalves probably lost his No. 5 rating by the defeat.

Stock Car Title Race Sunday at Speedway

One of the leading favorites will be Pontiac's Joy Fair, top driver at the M-59 oval to date this year. Title test is a 50-lapper and all other races with exception of the trophy dash have been extended. Time trials are at 5:30 p. m., with the 1st race at 7 o'clock.

Rocky Offered $275,000

Longshot Produces for Big Daily Double

DETROIT (AP) — Mr. Skeeter, a 77-1 shot that had shown nothing previously, was responsible for a $1,614.20 daily double at the Detroit Race Course yesterday.

GMC Retains 1st-Place Tie

Nine Starts in City Softball Play

General Motors remained in a 4-way tie for 1st place in City Men's Softball League standings last night by winning its 7th victory in nine starts, 13-5, over Louie's Tavern.

Four players—Ed Goodel, J. C. Jenkins, Fay Douglas and Grant—collected two hits apiece to pace GMC's 12-hit barrage. Coach five clinched its victory with a 9-run 1st-inning outburst.

Knights of Columbus downed Forster Tool, 4-3, despite home runs by Forster's Bill York and Bob McManus. Dick MacIntosh scored the winning run in the 7th, when he singled, advanced on an error and scored on a fielder's choice play.

Haddix Wins 11th on 3rd Straight Shutout, Newcombe Finally a Victor

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sportswriter

If some of the major league's best pitchers turned up with aching backs today they had a good excuse.

* * *

They've been busy taking bows for last night's games. In every active park in the two circuits there was at least one hurler who had covered himself with glory.

At the Polo Grounds it was Harvey Haddix of the St. Louis Cardinals. The pint-sized lefthander snapped the New York Giants' six-game winning streak with his third straight shutout 5-0. In winning his ninth consecutive game Haddix ran his string of scoreless innings to 32, longest in the majors this season. He also increased his top-ranking strikeout total by seven. He now has 86 and his overall record is 11-3. Nobody else in the majors has won as many as 10. Stan Musial hit his 22nd home run, tops in both leagues.

At Forbes Field Vern Law, one of the National League's brightest rookies, allowed Milwaukee only three singles and won the game 2-1 for Pittsburgh with a bases-loaded single in the last of the ninth.

Corky Valentine, another rookie, outduelled Curt Simmons as Cincinnati shaded Philadelphia 2-1. Wally Post collected four hits and drove in both runs for the Redlegs as Valentine carefully spaced seven safeties.

The joy in Flatbush came from Don Newcombe's first complete game since May 7. The big right-hander turned back Chicago 6-3 as the Dodgers chipped the Giants' league-lead to a single game. Newcombe struck out eight, all in the last six innings. Gil Hodges homered twice.

In the American League Cleveland beat Boston 2-0, New York shaded Chicago 7-6, Philadelphia edged Detroit 2-1 and Washington outlasted Baltimore 7-5 in 13 innings.

Mike Garcia, the Big Bear of the Indians, turned back the Red Sox on four singles for his ninth victory, his club's ninth straight triumph and the Indians' ninth success in nine meetings with Boston this year.

At Comiskey Park in Chicago a pitcher starred in a different role. Bob Grim, called in as a relief man in the fifth, won the game with his hitting. He singled home two Yankee runs in the sixth and hit his first major league home run with one aboard in the eighth.

And in Baltimore Bob Porterfield of the Senators stayed 13 innings for his eighth victory. The Orioles battered him for 16 hits but he remained in control. Jim Busby singled home the two winning runs in the 13th. Mickey Vernon hit safely his first five times at bat.

Rally in 5th Inning Wins for Drug Nine

A 4-run 5th inning, sparked by Marshall Rose's 2-run triple gave Drayton Drug an 8-3 victory over Gidley Electric in a Waterford Township Softball League game at Drayton Plains.

Bill Goulet's three singles led Drug and he picked up his 2nd pitching verdict. In a Little League game, Del's Service edged Drug, 14-13, on the strength of a 10-run rally in the 4th inning.

Drayton Drug's seniors play an exhibition double-header Sunday at Drayton, meeting Louie's Tavern and Birmingham Riteway of the Pontiac league. First game is at 6:30 p.m.

Shades of Blue Spotlighted in Boss Home

By HAZEL A. TRUMBLE

* * *

"My favorite hue," says Mrs. Boss who believes that a ranch style house with its simplicity of line can derive its beauty from color and material.

The exterior of the Boss' eight room and two bathroom home at 3393 Erie Dr., West Bloomfield Township, is of antique red brick. Contrast at the entranceway is provided by a Briaircliff stone planter.

By skilled integration of the floor plan, all the rooms in the Boss home give the appearance of blending into the next without any marked dividing partitions—although the full partitions are there.

* * *

Entering from the Cass Lake side of the home, the front hallway's polished slate floor produces the first "blue note." Walls are covered in a pale lavender and silver tweed paper. Planters, used as partial dividers, are filled with luxuriant green plants.

* * *

* * *

The kitchen has been planned for the maximum of beauty and convenience with the minimum number of steps required for working. Blue and yellow are color teammates with a small, yellow, printed paper covering the soffit and a lighter shade of blue than the living room coloring the kitchen walls.

A combination kitchen and dining area, the kitchen proper has white metal cupboards with doors of natural birch. The tile floor is a pattern in blue and white vinyl. By forming a central bar-top unit, the dining area can be reached without carrying food through to the other room.

* * *

The favorite family room is the activity room with its one fireplace wall of varied-width Briarcliff stone. Pickled birch panels one wall with another devoted to windows and the fourth wall to a built-in bar facility.

The conversation piece of this room is the large, cylindrical, glass-based lamp table which is actually a lighted aquarium. The glass top is circular with an opening in the middle.

The bedroom wing of the house has a master bathroom in blue and yellow tile with the upper portion papered in a deep rose print. A built-in full-wall dressing table is in the same colors.

* * *

Chartreuse and soft purple provide the color scheme for the master bedroom. The king-sized bed is covered in chartreuse silk with purple for the bed skirt. A draped cornice is also of chartreuse silk and the traverse curtains are in purple. Gray and white are used for the slipper chair.

The other bedrooms are in yellow, beige and brown, and gray and blue.

Adjacent to the 2½ car garage, is a utility room and another bathroom, with a spacious covered patio area accessible from both the kitchen and the garage.

* * *

Mrs. Boss, after living for years in a traditional styled home of several different levels, says that the one-story ranch design is ideal for easy upkeep.

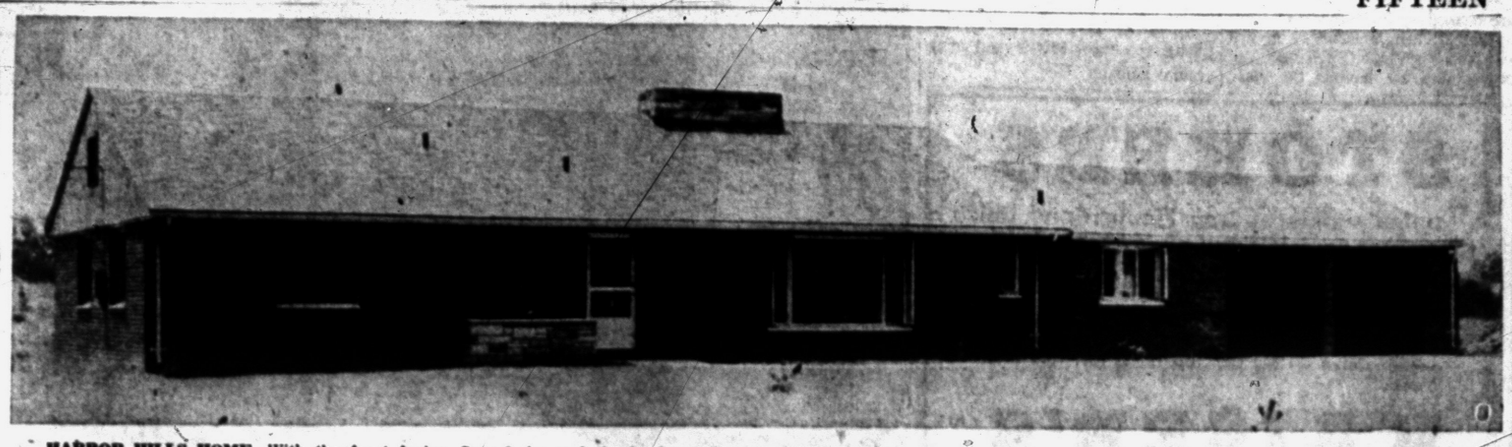

* * *

Unlike many contemporary ranch homes where a concrete floor is poured directly on top of the ground, the Boss home has a four-foot crawl space beneath the house. This, besides providing entrance for plumbing and heating repairs, allows them to have a wood floor. The furnace is forced hot air.

* * *

There are 2,200 square feet of living space in the Boss' home. It was built by Ernest Boldt of Pontiac.

BRIARCLIFF STONE — One wall of the activity room is built of Briarcliff stone cut in varied widths to give an interesting line effect. Sons Bob and Herbert Boss are shown with the family dog, Pam, in the room they claim to be the family favorite. One wall is paneled in pickled birch, another is a full window section and a third has a built-in bar opening into the kitchen.

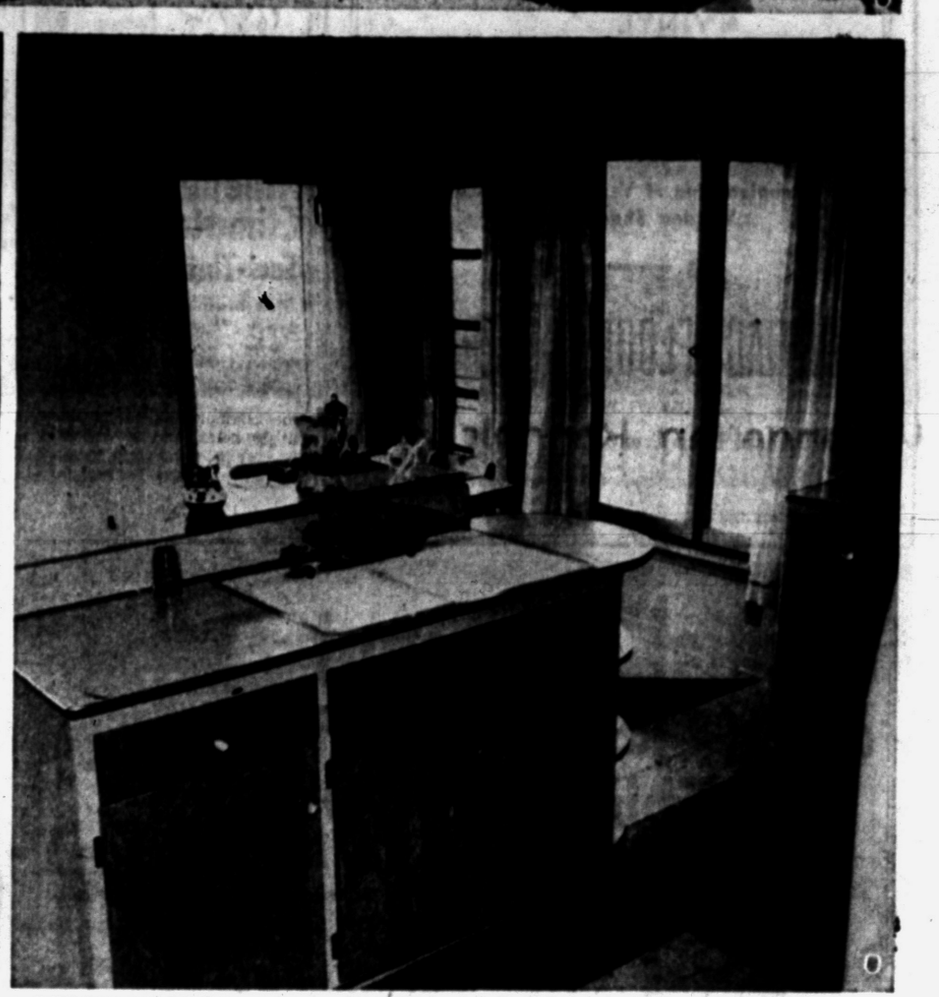

HARBOR HILLS HOME—With the front facing Cass Lake and the back windows overlooking Commerce road, the Harold Boss family built their new home at 3393 Erie Dr. in West Bloomfield Township. An eight room, two bathroom, conservative ranch style home, it also has a 2½ car garage and a covered patio. The exterior is of antique red brick. Briarcliff stone forms the walls of a front entrance planter. Several different types of planters are used inside for decorative notes.

DINETTE FEATURES VERTICAL WINDOWS—Long vertical windows that open like doors give the maximum of natural lighting to this blue and yellow room and offer an abundance of fresh air during the summer months. Mrs. Boss selected yellow curtains bound in rows of blue rick rack for these windows.

DESIGNED FOR MINIMUM STEPS — A U-shaped working unit, the Boss kitchen is arranged to place all facilities within a few steps of each other. The cupboards are white metal with doors of natural birch. This room carries out the blue scheme of the house with yellow added for contrast. The soffit is papered in a small blue and yellow print with yellow used in the adjoining dining area. Blue and white tile covers the floors.

Pontiac Press Photos

Watch Out for Spills

Half of all fatal home accidents are caused by falls, many of them in the kitchen because of grease and water spillage. Such falls are preventable by having the floor made of material from which spills can be wiped dry easily.

Children Enjoy Furniture Made Especially for Them

By STEVE ELLINGSON

IN THE HOME WORKSHOP

This is a junior edition of a grown-up's model and youngsters never tire of it. They love to use it at mealtime and for parties.

The table may be made longer to accommodate many children, and, of course, you may build as many chairs as are required.

Building this set is easy with the full-size pattern. All that's necessary is to trace the pattern on wood, then saw it out and finally put it together.

The required materials are listed on each pattern along with directions. Elaborate tools are not required. The pattern is designed for the most inexperienced amateur.

To obtain the full-size child's dining set pattern No. 103, send 50c in coin to Steve Ellingson, The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

LAWN SWING PATTERN 305

This familiar old swing is popular with both old and young. It is easy to make when using a pattern and ordinary household tools. All friction parts are of metal and are available in hardware stores. The pattern calls for lock nuts both inside and out which make the finished product worth far more than cheap models that rack from side to side and become loose at the joints. This swing pattern is 25c. It will be included in the Lawn Furniture Packet for making a child's chair and a set of single and double adult size chairs for the outdoor living room. Also a barbecue table and benches. Five full-size patterns in the packet at $1, postpaid. Write to Workshop, Pontiac Press.

Nearly one third of the population of Canada is of French descent.

New Gimmick Gives Added Shelf Space

NEW YORK (UP) — Too little shelf space in your medicine chest? You can add more with a small device which makes use of the waste space between the shelves.

It's a tier of four 3½ inch ledges which can be clamped to one of the existing shelves to hold such small items as toothbrush, shaving brush and dentifrice. It's made of white enameled aluminum. (Crown Craft, 246 Fifth Ave., New York).

Don't Broadcast Nobody's Home

Burglars Notice Signs Such as Newspapers, Milk Bottles, Mail

Most folks don't go that far, but care should be taken to give a home that lived-in look while they are away.

A house that is dark night after night indicates that the family is on vacation. If possible have a neighbor put on a light or two in different rooms to hint that someone is home.

If this is impossible leave a light burning. The cost is negligible compared with the risk run without it. The light will not be noticed by day and might be a safety measure at night.

For many years it has been understood that the family is away when mail remains in the box or when newspapers collect on the porch.

Drawn curtains or grass that becomes too high are other sure signs no one is home.

Dowels Recommended to Strengthen Screens

Two ways to strengthen a wobbly, old screen frame are to use either angle irons or wood dowel pins in each of the corners.

Dowels, however, do a better and neater job. Just set the screen on edge and drill a ¼-inch hole down through the corner. Swab the hole liberally with waterproof glue, then drive in a ¼-inch dowl and cut it off flush with the edge of the screen.

LARGE ROOM DESIGN—Spacious, this house is planned for expansive living. All rooms are oversize. The study provides for a third bedroom until children grow up, then can revert to a library, music room or hobby room. The garage is readily expansible to two-car capacity with porch enlarged accordingly. This is plan DA-1 designed by David J. Abrahams for the Architects' Home Plan Bureau, Box 141, Bethlehem, Conn. The house covers 1,945 square feet without garage and porch. (Further information and blueprints available from architect).

Survey Discloses Where Hot Water Goes Every Day

The average American family uses about 22,000 gallons of hot water a year, and it takes the man of the house 3½ gallons per shave.

For the last eight months a research program has come up with these and many other answers to the old family question, "Where does all the hot water go?"

With three active children, hand- and face-washing at the lavatory took about 7.5 gallons of hot water a day. An amazing 3.5 gallons was used per shave. A shampoo at the lavatory, as well as under the shower, took 5 gallons.

The Ohio family proved it took more hot water for showers than for tub baths — an average of 15.2 gallons for showers; 11.4 for tubs.

Comparisons of hand and automatic dishwashing were surprising. It took almost twice as much hot water to wash a day's dishes by hand — 16.1 gallons versus 8.7 for the dishwasher.

Quality Marks of Unpainted Furniture Listed

Overlapping drawer fronts for dustproofing.

Dovetail comers in drawers.

Drawers should slide easily. Doors on cabinets should hang straight without drooping. Back panels on cabinets and chests of drawers should be a good grade of plywood.

If the furniture is stamped or tagged "solid mahogany" or "solid walnut" that means all exposed surfaces are of that material.

The Federal Trade Commission requires this. If the tag reads "genuine" mahogany, etc., it means that the legs, posts and other members of the frame are solid, while the larger areas, side panels and top, may be veneers of that wood.

Veneers can be very beautiful, matching grain patterns that would not be possible in the solid wood. In making some of the veneers, the thin slices of the wood are opened book fashion to create a pattern that never appeared in the tree.

Don't Employ Solvent to Clean Cork Floors

To keep new cork floors looking nice, finish them with a penetrating floor seal and polish at regular intervals with a good wax which doesn't contain a solvent such as turpentine or mineral spirits.

Liquid water-emulsion wax is recommended. After a couple of coats are applied, the floor can be kept sparkling by regular buffing with a floor polisher.

The curious insect known as the walking stick looks so much like a twig that it is all but invisible against a tree. Wingless, with thin, sticklike legs, it fools its enemies by merging with the color of its background, whether the green of spring or the brown of autumn.

Sequoia (redwood) forests which once spanned the globe are again spreading around the world through shipments from California, with plantings in Wales, Hawaii, New Zealand, Japan, India, Alaska, South Africa, Germany and the U. S. East Coast.

New Coat of Paint Helps Rejuvenate Shabby Furniture

If your outdoor furniture looks shabby and sad after a winter in the basement, and your budget won't stretch to replacing it, there's no reason to despair. A couple of coats of paint will make it look good as new.

While paint is the obvious overall answer, it isn't the whole answer. Before you start to paint, make certain the surface is smooth, clean and dry.

If arms or legs are wobbly, strengthen them with screws. Countersink the screw heads in holes about 3-16 inch deep so they won't show up under the paint. Use plastic wood to fill the holes.

Always fill any depression slightly over-full, and sand down after the filler has hardened.

The screws you need, sandpaper, a paint scraper, paint remover and plastic wood can be bought at any hardware store.

Don't make the mistake of slapping on any kind of paint with any brush you happen to pick up. Talk over your project with your paint dealer, and let him recommend a good quality paint and the right brush or brushes for the job.

Inferior paint won't stand up under outdoor weather conditions. A cheap brush is likely to shed its bristles and is fine for driving any painter mad.

For every gallon of gasoline consumed by an automobile, more than one gallon of water is produced, chemists have found. The water in the form of vapor is disposed of by the exhaust.

Patch Masonry, Concrete Cracks by Enlarging First

Concrete and masonry exposed to seasonal temperature changes are likely to be the worse for weather wear. Cracking and crumbling are common problems. Stains often appear. So—don't put off masonry maintenance another year. Do it this spring.

Cracks are best patched by first enlarging them. Then undercut (makes cracks wider at the bottom than on the surface) with hammer and cold chisel. Brush out dirt and concrete "crumbs" with a stiff whisk broom or wire brush.

Moisten the crack and surface in its immediate area with water. If the crack is large, brush a thin coating of grout (Portland cent and water mixed to a creamy consistency) over sides and bottom of crack. Follow this with patching mortar made of one part cement, three parts sand, and water to make a stiff paste.

Trowel patching cement into crack, building it up slightly higher than surface. After allowing patch to set for a few hours, tamp it level with surface.

Much the same procedure is followed in repairing crumbling concrete. Crimbling mortar in masonry work calls for tuck pointing, which you can easily do yourself if the damage isn't too extensive. Frequently, defects in masonry are not noticeable on a casual check, but are uncovered on closer examination.

Probe mortar joints with a cold-chisel, chipping out loose mortar, then use a wire brush. Where a brick is loose, chip out surrounding mortar until brick comes out. Remove old mortar, wet brick thoroughly, coat it with mortar and press it back into its niche.

When all joints have been scraped and cleaned, wet down masonry with water from garden hose, and trowel 3-1 mortar mixture into joints. Finish joints by tooling with a short length of half-inch pipe.

Pay particular attention to chimneys and chimney caps. Water can leak into attics through cracks in chimney caps and brickwork.

To clean light smoke and soot stains from chimneys and other masonry, scrub the discolored areas with a solution made of one-half pound of trisodium phosphate in a gallon of water. Rinse heavily, using a garden hose This treatment will improve even heavily stained areas.

Often masonry becomes coated with a white, powdery substance called efflorescence. The stain can be removed with a solution of one part of hydrochloric acid added to 10 parts of water, scrubbed over surface with fiber brush. Wear rubber gloves and goggles. Don't use solution in metal container. Again, rinse the surface heavily, or acid will attack motor joints.

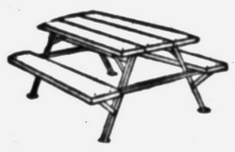

To remove fresh paint stains from brick or concrete, use commercial paint remover. When paint is softened, scrape it up with putty knife, then wire brush the area. Wash with turpentine or water. Older paint stains may not succumb to this treatment, and if not, wire brush, scraper and elbow grease are called for.

In any case, it pays to attack cracks and stains in and on masonry when they first appear—to keep them from spreading and to simplify repair or removal.

Plan Kitchens Carefully

Homemakers walk about five miles daily in the kitchen area. If they want to save both time and energy, their kitchens should have: 1. Refrigerator, range and sink forming a compact work-unit. 2. Easily-cleaned counters and splash-backs. 3. Plenty of storage space.

Poor Lighting Responsible for Falls, Spills on Stairs

One of the most accident inviting areas in the modern home is the stairway, according to insurance company records. In many instances, poor lighting is responsible by causing falls and spills down long flights of stairs. When buying a home, be sure and check the efficiency of fighting fixtures protecting these areas. If you now own a home with one of the exposed bulb makeshift fixtures in the stairway area, it is good accident insurance policy for the entire family to replace it with one specifically designed to light the stairway adequately.

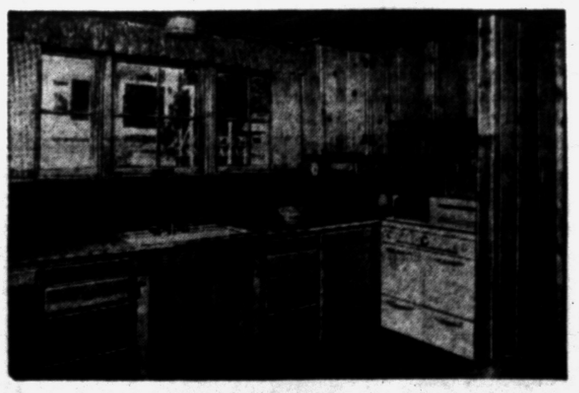

Although the equestrian statue of Gen. Andrew Jackson in Washington, D. C., is the oldest in the United States, it was not the first such statue. A gilded lead statue of King George III was dedicated at Fort George, N. Y., in 1770, but was torn down in 1776 by a mob of patriots. Later the statue was melted into bullets for the Revolutionary Army.

Eroded Concrete Easy to Repair if Base Is Solid

It's fairly easy to resurface a concrete walk that has chipped and eroded badly — if the base is sound.

Here's how to go about it.

Cut out the worn spots to a depth of one inch and saturate the slab with water overnight. Then brush on a heavy-cream-like coat of cement and water. Don't put on too much; just enough to cover the chipped surface completely.

Mix 1 part cement, 1 part sand and 1½ parts coarse aggregate consisting of pebbles not more than ⅜-inch in diameter. Add just enough water to make the mixture workable. Then trowel it onto the wet slush coat.

Compact the concrete thoroughly, but do not work it so much that water comes to the surface. Let it set until just before it is too hard to trowel, then smooth off. Keep the concrete covered with wet burlap for several days.

No Basement, No Radiators, Only Comfort

That's the easiest way to describe a new kind of home that's gone through a two-year experimental living test to check the efficiency of a gas-operated heating system imbedded in the floor. It's been tested in more than 150 homes.

The secret lies in steel tube radiant panels in a concret floor slab. A compact boiler, tucked away in a closet, forces hot water to circulate through the tubes, maintaining whatever thermostatically controlled temperature is desired.

The system can be installed in six hours by one workman at a saving of from $100 to $150 because storage tank, piping, fittings and extra labor are not needed.

In addition to heating the home, the boiler is equipped with a water heater which furnishes an adequate supply of hot water for bathroom, kitchen and laundry.

Food Lack Ages Folks Prematurely

DURHAM, N. H. (UP) — Lack of the proper food may make you old before your time, according to a University of New Hampshire extension professor.

Elizabeth E. Ellis says extention service studies show poor nourishment is often the reasons "for complaints which drag an older person down.

"A chronic tired feeling, a gloomy outlook on life, anxiety over small things, loss of sleep, and even too much weight may be the result of improper food," she said.

She said older persons, because they are less active, need fewer starchy foods and more proteins, minerals and vitamins.

LEATHER TRIANGLES in a new decorating kit come in three colors to form a mosaic type design. Adhesive is applied to the work surface in four-inch squares, as shown here. After this has dried about five minutes the leather is pressed into place with edges and corners firmly glued.

AN OLD CARD TABLE is rejuvenated with a smart inlaid leather top. The colors used for this project were white, saddle and black. Cabinet door panels, valances and lamp shades are among other places for this decoration.

Do-It-Yourself Leather Kit Is Among Easiest to Use

Good news for the do-it-yourself devotees is that kits and directions are getting simpler all the time. These days a real amateur will not be dumfounded when he attempts to piece together the jigsaw puzzle that comes under the heading of a project "that any smart handyman can cope with." Actually that seldom has been the case.

Tasks that are pictured as very simple for neophytes turn out to be difficult even for experienced home craftsmen, in many instances. Sometimes the manufacturer even suggests that the housewife can perform miracles with a "simple set of instructions." Sometimes she can. More often she can't. And even her husband has difficulty interpreting the directions.

One new kit, typical of those that are within the scope of tyros, contains leather and equipment for covering table tops, valances, headboards, lamps and other decorative objects.

The kit available in three sizes includes leather squares and triangles, that are pre-cut to form four by four inch squares. There is a specially prepared adhesive, especially for use on leather. Color schemes are available in two sets — black, saddle and white or a combination of emerald, turquoise and green.

Old pieces of furniture such as chests may be decorated with these pieces of leather in an attractive design that may make the piece useful again. Doors may be removed from chests, decorated with leather and replaced when the job is complete. Bridge table tops may be rejuvenated with an interesting pattern. Some home decorators will enjoy a leather design on a window valance.

The kit is easy to use. The adhesive is applied, leather is pressed carefully into place so that edges and corners are firmly glued. Excess adhesive may be wiped off the leather with a damp cloth.

Kits have been made available by upholstery leather group members in three sizes — three, six and nine square feet.

NEW YORK (INS) — Does your fountain pen seem to clog just when you need it most? It won't if you keep the pen clean and free from dried-up ink particles. "Bathing" a fountain pen is easy. Just immerse the pen point in a bowl of warm soapsuds draw the suds in and squirt them out again until there's no trace of ink color.

Then repeat the process with clear rinsing water and wipe with disposable tissues. For a final touch, dip the cap in and out of suds and rinse, then swab it out with dry cotton wrapped around a pipe cleaner or pencil.

Air Filters Need Regular Change

Filtered Dust, Pollen Tend to Clog Passages, Spoil Effectiveness

Air filters have become very important items of equipment in modern homes.

They are more important than window screens in houses that are air conditioned. They save a lot on housework and add a lot of comfort in homes with circulating warm air heat.

They strain dust, dirt and pollen out of the air, but they have to be renewed for maximum efficiency.

Replacing an air filter in a warm air heating plant or air conditioner is about as simple as putting a new bag in the garbage can.

And most filters are cheap, costing about the same as a carton of cigarettes. The reason you have to change them is that less and less air will pass through them as they trap dust and dirt.

So this is a good season to put in new filters. The smart man has his heating plant cleaned and readdied for fall as soon as the heating season has ended. This minimizes corrosion from accumulated soot. And with several million room air conditioners now in use, it's wise to keep them at top efficiency.

There are at least five manufacturers of this type, so they are easy to find. Then there are two or three makes of paper filters. All you have to do to determine your type and size is to look at it and read the label.

Between 85 and 90 per cent of all filters in use are disposable.

When a salesman says that air conditioning will help to relieve hay fever and other respiratory troubles, he's talking about the constant air filtering that takes place. Yet few owners of air conditioning units realize this. Even one - room window type air conditioners contain filters.

Incidentally, if the sale of window and console type air conditioners increases this year only at the same rate that it has in the past several years, more than a million and a half units will be added in homes before Christmas. Sales grew from less than 30,000 in 1946 to 1,075,000 last year.

PROPOSED FREE METHODIST CHURCH — An artist's conception of the proposed First Free Methodist Church, to be located at Elizabeth Lake Rd. and Murphy Ave., is shown here. To cost approximately $125,000, the building will be of cinder block and tinted limestone. The main auditorium will seat 450 with folding partitions to free space for 300 more. Balcony area will be used for Sunday school classrooms, as will the full basement.

Don't Tear Down Walls to Hang Sliding Doors

Don't tear out a wall to hang a sliding door. Install the door in front of the wall.

The track should be hung just far enough out from the face of the wall so that the door will slide easily but will not leave a wide crack between the door and wall when closed. To conceal the track, install a 6-inch valance board in front.

1st Free Methodists Plan $125,000 Church Building

Members of the First Free Methodist Church are planning a new building to be located at the corner of Elizabeth Lake Rd. and Murphy Ave.

Rev. Howard C. Artz, pastor of the church, said that an expanding congregation has made a larger building necessary, and emphasis will be placed on the Christian education program.

The new church will be 110 feet in length and 60 feet in width with the main entrance on Elizabeth Lake Rd. A parking lot for 150 automobiles is planned.

Exterior construction is to be of cinder block with tinted limestone. The main auditorium will seat 450 and an interior feature will be laminated overhead beams.

Space for Sunday school classrooms will be provided in the balcony, separated by folding partitions, with church offices and foyer on the main floor. Seating can be provided for 300 more by dropping these partitions back.

The present church is located at 87 Lafayette Street.

Paint Screens With DDT to Combat Mosquitoes

EAST LANSING — While putting up the door and window screens give mosquitoes a real cold shoulder with a paint brush dipped in a five per cent DDT and kerosene solution. A bar for children to push or pull when opening the screen door will help make this painted-on mosquito discourager last into the height of the pest season, Michigan State College entomologists suggest.

Free Painted Windows

After painting a window sash, give the paint a few hours to set and then move the sash up and down a few times. This will break up any accumulations of paint that might have seeped into the seams and which, if allowed to dry hard, would cause the sash to stick.

Don't Thin Paints by Adding More Oil

Because the ingredients are balanced carefully thinning house paint with oil is inadvisable. A small amount of turpentine may be added, however, if thinner has been lost through evaporation, or if cold weather thickened the paint.

Air Cooler Precaution

Avoid using a window air conditioner when the outside temperature is below 60 degrees or so. When run at low outside temperatures, some conditioners frost up like refrigerators.

Easy Check List Helps to Ready Summer Homes

1. Inspect the roof. Winter storms may have damaged shingles or other roofing material. Making needed repairs now insures against damage and annoying leaks when the vacation season is on.

2. Make bathroom and kitchen more comfortable and efficient by installing easily cleaned and durable floor surfaces.

3. Check the screening of the porch and windows to make sure that the house can be kept comfortably airy and insect-proof.

4. Inspect plumbing lines to make sure that no rusted or corroded areas need flushing or replacement. Make sure that gutters and downspouts are free from debris.

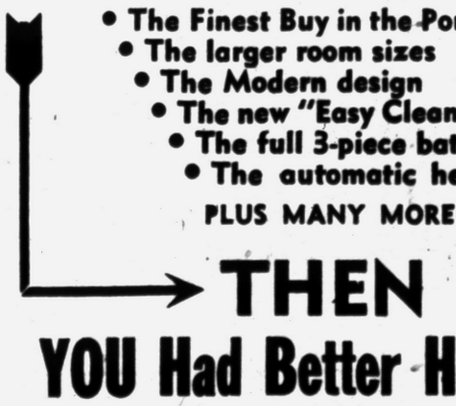

5. For fire protection, inspect fireplace flues and electrical wiring. A length of garden hose wound on a reel and permanently attached to an outside faucet is good fire insurance, especially in rural areas.

6. Check foundations for any openings where rodents or other creatures could enter. Check the ground around the foundation for evidence of ant hills or other insect infestation, and destroy them with recommended spray or powder insecticides.

7. If the water supply is a spring or a well that has not been used recently, have an analysis of the water made.

Woman Works on Big Projects

Oversees Construction of Airports, Tunnels and Roads

By JOHN M. BERNIER

FRESNO, Calif. (UP) — The world of pots and pans is a foreign one to Mrs. Mary B. Ritchie, a young matron who prefers bigger tools. She operates bulldozers and steam shovels.

The slightly-built, dark-haired woman, the only one in California with a class-A general engineering license, supervises construction of roads, airports, dams and tunnels. She believes she is the nation's only woman engaged in large scale construction work.

Mrs. Ritchie, whose husband, Mart, also is a contractor, said her interest in building things started when she was a girl making mud pies.

"It's quite a jump from mud pies to airports," she said, "but I say that both take skill."

Mrs. Ritchie got her first job shortly after graduation from Pennsylvania State College, where at the time she was the only woman studying engineering. The job was to grade a country road.

"I've had some really big jobs since then," she said, "but I'll always remember that one. From the first day, I had no doubts about what I wanted to do the rest of my life."

As for the masculine reaction to her invasion of their domain, Mrs. Ritchie said, "There's no trouble as long as I show them I know what I'm doing. I never get any back talk from the men I supervise — I guess they know better."

After a short hitch in the WAC in World War II, Mrs. Ritchie started the construction business with her husband.

When she has a few days off she doesn't settle down to the household chores.

"I don't like housekeeping and I guess I never will," she said. "I'd rather work with steam shovels than pots and pans."

On vacation she heads for North American big game country. Recently she bagged an 850 pound bull elk, and is leaving soon on another trip. She hopes to better her own record.

Hal Boyle Says:

West Germany Dynamic While France Stands Still

PARIS (AP)—What is the difference between France and Western Germany today?

Nine years after the end of the last war the average American soldier abroad prefers to be stationed in Germany, the old enemy, rather than in France, the old ally.

Why?

* * *

Both soldier and tourist, if pressed for a one-sentence answer, probably would reply "It's more like home."

The phrase "more like home" covers more than the superiority of German over French plumbing. Some Frenchmen feel Americans would prefer hades over heaven if the devil would just put in more bathrooms. But the impression Western Germany makes on a U.S. visitor can't be dismissed or explained merely as a psychopathic admiration of better plumbing.

There is a great difference in spirit between the two lands. The visiting American today finds few scars of war left on the face of France but detects many scars in the Frenchman's heart.

* * *

The war scars still stand on every hand in Germany—although rebuilding is going on everywhere—but the German keeps whatever post-war bitterness he has pretty much to himself.

The French give an impression of being tired and resentful and envious, like an old beauty who can't quite forgive time for taking away the empire of her charms.

The visitor gets a feeling the Germans know where they are going, the French wistfully and fearfully are trying to hold on to something they are losing.

The most striking difference between Germany and France is the difference between this atmosphere of self-confident purpose and this miasma of painful self-doubt. The French still yearn for glory, and demand it on the basis of past performance, and the Germans are back on their feet reaching for power.

* * *

In a recent talk to a group of former war correspondents, Dr. Ludgwig Erhard, German economics minister, spoke of his hope for a unified Europe that would submerge old rivalries and added:

"It has often been said that Germany is the most American country in Europe. There may be something in that and, if there is, it lies in a mutual dynamic expansive spirit that can lead us to better times."

That, I suppose, sums up the real reason visiting Americans feel more at home in Germany. They feel the pulsing dynamic growth about them; in France they sense an uneasy static condition of the mind and heart.

* * *

Americans still like to go ahead, they hate standing still. In Germany they hear the sound of busy hammers, in France they too often only aware of an anvil chorus of complaint.

Nine years after the war this is the difference an ordinary American visitor feels between Germany and France. Unfortunately, it is a difference that does not make him feel too happy about the future of politics in a world divided.

This Baby Chick Got Bum Deal From Life

BRIDGEWATER, S. D. — (UP) A chick that belonged to Meint Hisman near here led a brief crazy, mixed-up life.

The chick was hatched by a pigeon that thought the egg was one of her own. The actual mother apparently had selected the upper confines of a hog hause to lay the egg, and the pigeon took over from there.

So Huisman placed the chick in a box with a baby pig to keep the chick warm until it could be moved elsewhere.

Man, 31, Critical Was Hit by Taxi

Elmer Bryant Walking Across Saginaw St. at Time of Accident

Elmer Bryant, 31, no known address, is reported in critical condition at Pontiac General Hospital today after he was struck by a taxi at S. Saginaw and Wesson Sts., this morning.

Pontiac Police quoted the driver, Harold G. Hale, 47, of 5052 Lamont St., Drayton Plains, as saying he didn't see the pedestrian crossing until the impact.

Hale, scheduled to make a statement to Oakland County prosecutor today, said the impact carried Bryant about 100 feet. Police said they measured 74 feet of skid marks at the scene.

One witness told police Bryant was crossing from east to west on Saginaw at rapid pace.

Skull Fracture Causes Death

No Negligence Found After Truck Strikes Pedestrian Here

An autopsy report on Louis M. McConnell, 29, of 273 N. Saginaw St., struck by an auto Wednesday, disclosed the victim died of a skull fracture, according to Pontiac General Hospital.

Oakland County Assistant Prosecutor Arthur W. Kollin quoted two witnesses' statements as saying McConnell didn't want to go to the hospital following the accident because he "felt all right."

McConnell was taken to the hospital where he was treated for cuts and bruises and released. He was returned Thursday to the hospital and died that afternoon.

"Judging from the facts of this matter," said Kollin, "no inquest will be necessary."

Kollin said one more witness, Stanley J. Tillson, 49, of 230 N. Saginaw St., crossing the street with McConnell, will be questioned Monday.

Lonnie S. Cunningham, of 49 Baldwin Ave., who had just left Tillson and McConnell, said he returned to the scene upon noticing the accident. He told Kollin that McConnell said he didn't believe he needed medical treatment after the accident.

McConnell finally agreed to go to the hospital at the insistence of the driver, Elmer A. Quine, 67, of 88 Osceola Dr., his friends and police. The hospital said there was no indication of serious injury at the time McConnell came to the hospital.

No criminal negligence, according to Kollin, has been indicated against Quine, who said he hit the pedestrian while going around a curve in front of 75 Clark St.

Kollin said the 45-degree curve normally would obscure the vision of approaching motorists. Quine's vision was further impeded by a parked car, according to the patrolmen.

Kollin referred to the curve as a possible threat to other pedestrians crossing there in the future.

Navy Waiting List Dwindles in Pontiac

The Navy's waiting list has been drastically reduced during the past few weeks, it was announced today by Chief Alan D. Simonson, recruiter in charge of the Navy Recruiting Substation in Pontiac.

Until recently, due to quota limitations, enlistees had to wait three to six months before they could be accepted, Chief Simonson said.

Information is available at the Navy Recruiting Substation, Post Office Building, Pontiac, or by calling FE 4-2391.

GM Cancels Journal Ads

Firm Showing Anger at Wall Street Paper's Scoop on '55 Cars

NEW YORK (UP) — The publisher of the Wall Street Journal says General Motors Corp. apparently has cancelled all advertising in the business daily due to a story forecasting 1955 automobile models.

The article also included a sketch of the hood and grill of the 1955 Ford "based upon information and sketches from several informed industry sources."

Bernard Kilgore, president and publisher of the newspaper, said: "It appears to be true that General Motors has withdrawn all advertising from the Wall Street Journal. These things happened just after the Journal published a story on the plans of several automobile makers for 1955 models.

General Motors stated Friday night that it had no objection to the article "to the extent that this was a reporting of news derived from sources free to divulge the information . . .even though such information, published many months in advance of the introduction of new models, may interfere with and prejudice the sale of our current products."

The statement added:

"We do, however, object to the publication of statements, and particularly sketches which have as their sources confidential relationship and in violation of our property rights.

The advertising publication, Advertising Age, also reported that GM has stricken the Wall Street Journal bureau offices across the country from press mailing lists.

Teachers Hold Farewell Party for Ex-Principal

Hartman has resigned as Jefferson principal to teach at Pontiac High School next year.

James E. Jones, Mrs. William Hill, and Mrs. Lamar People were luncheon committeemen. John Andrews and Mrs. Jessie White picked the farewell gift, a briefcase and wallet, presented to Hartman by Mrs. White.

Hartman came to Pontiac in 1927 as a PHS physical education teacher, coaching football and other sports. He was named Whittier principal in 1942, served as principal of both Whittier elementary and junior high grades from 1946 until this year, when the wholly separate Jefferson unit was created.

Owner Carries Sign to Let Pickets Rest

NEWARK, N.J. (UP) — The boss showed 'em he was a real regular guy—he carried the picket sign while the striking employes rested.

"My boys have been striking for two weeks, and they're tired," George Schanerman, owner of the Academy Auto Laundry said yesterday. "What the heck, I'm a regular guy!"

Feed and labor account for 70 to 80 per cent of the cost of producing milk.

CELEBRITY ON 'TOAST'—One of the highlights of the "Toast of the Town" program was the appearance of Margaret Truman. Ed Sullivan reveals that he wored an entire year before the President's daughter agreed to appear. The popular TV program celebrates its sixth anniversary tomorrow night. It is carried on channel 2 at 7 p. m. in this area.

'Toast of the Town' Marks Sixth Anniversary Sunday

One of the popular Sunday night TV programs will celebrate its sixth anniversary tomorrow night. It is Ed Sullivan's CBS "Toast of the Town," on channel 2, at 7 p.m. in this area.

And the night Margaret Truman, daughter of the President, made her first appearance. Sullivan revealed a year of invitations and negotiations were required before she consented to appear.

Then she asked timidly at a luncheon "Could I sing on your show?" Ed, restraining his enthusiam, agreed that she could. TV audiences know the rest of that story.

She was to receive $2,000 for each of two appearances, but so well was she received that the fee was voluntarily upped to $3,000 for the second.

Most astounding incident recalled by Sullivan was when Actress Bette Davis accepted an offer to appear on "Toast" for $10,000. for a single appearance.

But she didn't like the part assigned her. She was told it had to be that part of nothing. Unmoved by the $10,000 offer, she took nothing!

Scheduled for the anniversary program tomorrow night are Jackie Gleason and Art Carney. "Met" star Rise Stevens, dancing stars Darvas and Julia, songwriter Harold Arlen, tap dancers, Hal LeRoy and Peg Leg Bates, and Rocky Marciano who Thursday night successfully defended his heavyweight boxing title.

Omaha Churches Holding Services in Unusual Places

OMAHA (UP)—Omaha churches are holding services in a ballroom, cafe and night club.

Clergy to Pay Half Fares

BOSTON (UP)—New England railroads will let clergymen travel for half fare beginning July 1. The only requirement is that they apply for a certificate showing they are clergymen entitled to the half rate. The plan was announced yesterday by nine of the region's railroads.

Revival Preacher Feuds With Drive-In Restaurant

RALEIGH, N.C. (UP)—A musical feud between a revival preacher and the operator of a drive-in restaurant broke out here again last night.

Campaign Is Cheap

Mail Comes Late

ALDEN CENTER, N. Y. (UP)—A postcard for Donald Donnelly, of Alden Center, from his mother arrived two years after she died. The card was sent from Washington July 13, 1948 while Mrs. Esther Donnelly was escorting a 4-H tour. Mrs. Donnelly died in 1951 and the postcard arrived early this year.
