ONE COLOR
Life Is Busy Now for Star of 'Julia'

HOLLYWOOD — At one point in the conversation, Diahann Carroll summed it all up with a good-humored twinkle: "Eat simply, live clean, drink lots of water — shut up, and do your work!"

That's how her day goes.

Diahann gets up at six and, by seven, is at the studio reporting for work on "Julia," the TV series which stars her in the title role over the NBC Television Network Tuesdays.

"We're here till seven Mondays through Fridays," she said.

EVEN LATER

"Sometimes we go even later. I try to be in bed by 10:30 but I'm one of those whose nerves affect their sleep. I can be so tired, but I may be all keyed up over something that happened that I'll lie there till past midnight. Then I say to myself, 'I think I'll organize the closet.' That's what I do. By three o'clock I'll finally fall asleep."

But Diahann isn't complaining.

"When I was approached about the role, I was asked if I had any desire or objection to working in a weekly TV series, she said. "I wanted to do something interesting. I had no objections. The biggest problem was moving from New York to California."

She enjoys "good friends, good food, good wine and lovely surroundings."

Diahann Carroll is finding that a hit television series keeps a body busy. The star of "Julia" gets up at 6 and often doesn't fall asleep until past midnight. The show, ranked No. 2 in the most recent Neilsen ratings, may prod television producers to create more series featuring black performers.

Waterford Vote Urged on School Millage, Bond Issue

By ED BLUNDEN

A Waterford Township School District citizens' committee last night recommended that the school board call a special election for a nine-mill tax increase for operating schools plus a $10.8-million bond issue for construction needs.

The school board meets to consider the recommendations at 7 p.m. Friday at the administration office, 3101 W. Walton. The board decided Oct. 17 that the election should be held on Saturday, Dec. 7. Official action is slated for Friday.

The committee asked that the nine mills be requested for two years and that during that time the district work with other state taxpayers' groups to bring about tax reforms that would solve school finance problems.

It was pointed out the nine mills would not solve all the district's financial problems in spite of the fact it would give the district the highest total millage rate of any district in the county, 41.7 mills.

RESTORE SERVICES

The part of the committee which reported on the millage needs stated it would bring the district about $2.3 million annually, raising total income to about $13.4 million. It reported the increase would allow the district to restore some service cuts initiated when a millage request failed last November.

In addition to restoring full-time programs in all school levels, the added money would provide for 18 additional teaching positions and for some remedial reading and physical education classes, it was reported. The committee said the money would also allow Mott High School to become accredited by the time of its first graduating class in June, 1970.

School officials said the entire system's accreditation is endangered because of limited programs.

The decision to request nine more mills from district taxpayers met some resistance among the committee. Objections were based not on challenging the district's need for the money but on long-range solutions based on tax reforms that would bring more funds into the system without further burdening property owners.

Leading the dissent were Bruce Annett and H. Delos Nicholie, two area real estate dealers. Annett pointed out a too-high millage rate makes the area unattractive for development. However, a poor school system also discourages buyers, he said.

Richard M. Nixon Spoke On Key Issues During Visit To Southfield

Ex-VP, Humphrey Focus on Big States

From Our News Wires

Richard M. Nixon and Hubert H. Humphrey campaigned for big-state votes today.

Humphrey claimed Nixon has never done anything for the poor; Nixon said a vote for Humphrey was a vote for "anarchy."

★ ★ ★

In Detroit last night, third-party candidate George C. Wallace's rally turned into a chair-throwing melee, and he said at one point: "If you want to stop all this nonsense, you vote for me Nov. 5 and I'll stop it."

Related Stories, Page A-5

Today, Nixon aimed at the big states of Minnesota, Illinois and Ohio while Humphrey set his sights on the big cities, including New York and Baltimore.

LOOKS TO MICHIGAN

Nixon said yesterday the election of Humphrey would mean a further drift toward "anarchy, violence and bitterness."

Wallace said yesterday that northern industrial states like Michigan will help propel him into the White House.

"I think we're going to have 177 electoral votes from the 17 southern and border states," Wallace told reporters on his arrival in Detroit. "And we'll pick up about four states like Michigan and Illinois and Indiana and Wisconsin and we can win."

Humphrey, meanwhile, continued claiming Nixon has never done anything for the working man, the black man, the poor, the aged or the ill.

In Pittsburgh yesterday, he also jubilantly welcomed the qualified endorsement of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, his fellow Minnesotan whom he defeated for the presidential nomination in Chicago two months ago. Humphrey said McCarthy's backing would have a "decidedly good" effect on his campaign.

McCarthy's statement left his own political future unclear.

The senator said he would not seek Senate reelection "as a member of my party" in 1970 and would not be a Democratic presidential contender in 1972. But he told questioning newsmen later he had not said he intends to leave the Democratic party and had not said he would not run for the Senate or presidency again.

In other political developments:

● Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, the Democratic vice presidential candidate, said in Amarillo, Texas, that Nixon wasn't "good enough" for voters in 1960 and 1962 elections and added: "Well, why in 1968 should we regard him as good enough for the tough problems which face the country?"

★ ★ ★

● Curtis E. LeMay, the American Independent vice presidential candidate, said Hanoi won't negotiate "until we twist their arms a little more." He said renewed bombing of North Vietnam and closing of the Port of Haiphong are two steps that could be taken. LeMay also attacked administration of the Social Security system.

● Poll — The Sindlinger Poll, a national telephone sample, said yesterday the gap between Humphrey and Nixon had narrowed to almost 3 percentage points. The poll gave Nixon 36.8 per cent of the expected vote, Humphrey 33.6 per cent and Wallace 12.3 per cent.

● A Nixon spokesman said the television commercial showing Humphrey laughing amid scenes of rioting, war and poverty had been withdrawn. But the Democratic National Committee complained last night that the GOP commercial was shown in Kansas City after the announcement it had been withdrawn.

Hare Sees Some Vote-Day Strife

LANSING (AP) — Secretary of State James M. Hare said today he anticipates "disruptive incidents" that may include use of bombs and Molotov cocktails at some Michigan polling places on election day.

"Potentially explosive areas," Hare told a news conference, "include some voting places around our major colleges and universities which have chapters of Students for a Democratic Society."

★ ★ ★

The major trouble area will be Washtenaw County, site of the University of Michigan, Hare said. Other areas he named include: Ypsilanti, home of Eastern Michigan University; Ingham County, location of Michigan State University, and possibly Detroit.

Hare said all police leaves in potential trouble spots have been canceled for election day and that Michigan State Police will be "operative in a mobile manner" so they can move into trouble spots quickly.

"In 99 per cent of all our precincts, we expect peaceful, orderly smooth-running elections as usual . . . without incident," Hare said. "I don't think we can anticipate anything less than a dozen incidents."

U.S. Again Offers to Quit S. Viet if Hanoi Pulls Out

PARIS (AP) — The United States offered again today to quit South Vietnam if North Vietnamese forces pull out in a phased program toward peace.

Ambassador W. Averell Harriman told the 28th session of the Paris talks with North Vietnam also that a political settlement should be based on the 1954 Geneva agreements that ended France's Indochina war.

★ ★ ★

Harriman called for urgent joint American-North Vietnamese action to cut back the fighting. He repeated President Johnson's promise of new American aid for the economic recovery of all Vietnam.

"Both of our countries need their young men at home," Harriman told North Vietnamese Ambassador Xuan Thuy. "Continued war benefits no one. I can assure you my countrymen know well the importance of peace. Peace will open to the people of North Vietnam as well as the people of South Vietnam the chance for a prosperity and economic self-sufficiency such as Vietnam has never known throughout its long history.

★ ★ ★

"Consistent with the accords of 1954 we have said that we seek ways to bring about the removal from South Vietnam of all armed forces except those of the South Vietnamese," Harriman said.

Mercury to Climb Into 60s Thursday

Indian summer will linger a little longer in the Pontiac area with the mercury climbing into the 60s tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

The temperature dipped to 28 last night, a record low for the season. Temperatures are expected to be a bit warmer tonight with a low of 30 to 36.

Fair and mostly sunny is the forecast for tomorrow and cloudy and mild is the outlook for Friday. No rain is forecast.

Today's sunshine moved the mercury to 50 by 2 p.m.

GOP Candidate Makes Last Bid for Metro Vote

By JIM LONG

Making his last campaign swing through the Detroit area, Republican presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon said yesterday in Southfield that only he has the experience and abilility to win and keep the peace.

Answering a charge made the day earlier by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey that Nixon could not be trusted to lead the county, Nixon said, "I trained for eight years under Gen. Eisenhower, and he (Humphrey) only four under Johnson."

"We had peace during those years," asserted Nixon. "They have had only war."

Related Pictures, Page A-4

Nixon spoke before an audience of several thousand jammed into the Raleigh House in Southfield. The crowd in and outside was estimated by officials at between 4,000 and 6,000 persons.

★ ★ ★

Promising a new leadership if elected to the White House, Nixon said, "Looking back over the last four years, we have had the longest war, more crimes and highest taxes.

"And now they come along and say give us four more years. I say no. We cannot continue to stumble and bungle," the former vice president said.

Congressman William S. Broomfield of the 18th district introduced Nixon as "the one we need to rebuild this country. We need a man of peace who can lead this country out of turmoil. Nixon is a leader we can trust."

Accompanying Nixon were his wife, Pat, and Gov. and Mrs. George Romney.

SAME BASIC SPEECH

Giving basically the same speech that he had made at several stops during his tour of the metropolitan area, Nixon urged party workers to get him an extra half-vote a precinct because "it could make the difference."

Admitting that Michigan is a swing state, he pointed out that in 1960 the difference amounted to only 1 per cent. Twenty-one electoral votes are at stake in Michigan.

One of the biggest ovations Nixon received was when he referred to the City to Captain Its Renewal?

By BOB WISLER

The course of Pontiac's downtown urban renewal program may take a new tack in the next few weeks.

City planners and architects of the Pontiac Plan for redeveloping the city's 27 acres of urban renewal land have met with officials of the Department of Housing and Urban development to explore the possibility of the city taking a stronger role in its urban renewal.

★ ★ ★

The concept calls for the city to become the prime controlling agent in the renewal project, thus taking over the job usually performed by a big developer.

City Planning Director James L. Bates and Budd Findlay, Land Development Coordinator, also have made preliminary recommendations to the Pontiac City Commission calling for the new concept in the downtown development.

CAPTAIN OF ITS SHIP

Thus the city may wind up being captain of the ship instead of allowing one big developer to guide the project.

Bates said officials of HUD, which is paying for three-fourths of the cost of planning, land acquisition and demolition, have received the basic approach and are enthusiastic.

★ ★ ★

Bates said the approach is very logical. He said it would enable the city to get the project completed faster, realize a greater return on the sale of the land, and control construction factors to ensure a better development.

The developer of record in all public discussion of the Pontiac plan so far has been the business firm of Michael and Herbert Chernick of Detroit.

DRAWBACKS DISCUSSED

But, recent discussion among the planners and architects have focused on several drawbacks to the idea of one developer having control of the project. Officials said it is possible that the city can take a new approach to the development problem with the Chernicks, only with the Chernicks having less control and less responsibility in the matter.

★ ★ ★

Marvin D. Skelton, financial spokesman for the developer, said the Chernicks still want to see the project through but he said they would be satisfied with an arrangement which calls for the city to become the prime controlling agent.

U. S. Viet Commander, Johnson Meet Secretly

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Creighton W. Abrams Jr., U.S. commander in Vietnam, has paid a supersecret call on the White House in the midst of stepped up efforts to de-escalate the war. But a White House spokesman says the visit does not mean there has been a breakthrough toward peace.

News Secretary George Christian would not go beyond saying that Abrams's session with President Johnson, which wasn't announced until after the general had left to return to Vietnam yesterday, was a "general military review."

However, sources in Saigon said Abrams had been ordered to Washington to give the President his views on what effect a bombing halt of North Vietnam would have on the war situation.

Abrams' visit, his first known return to the United States since just before he took command last March, sparked immediate speculation of some new development in Johnson's current peace drive.

LULL DISCUSSED

Christian could not comment further than the military review statement, and the word went out from the White House to the Pentagon to say nothing.

It was certain, however, that Johnson and Abrams talked about the lull in the Vietnam fighting and its possible significance beyond the usual enemy pattern of avoiding combat and withdrawing to sanctuaries periodically to refit.

* * *

U.S. military authorities have reported recent intelligence suggesting the enemy may be preparing for another winter offensive.

According to professional military judgment here, the North Vietnamese and Vietcong attempted—and failed—to mount major offensives in May and again in August and September.

The U.S. military view is that the North Vietnamese and Vietcong have lost the ability to sustain anything like last January's Tet offensive, which had a nearly disastrous impact on the allied war effort.

* * *

Like other senior U.S. military men, Abrams has been opposed to any bombing halt unless there are assurances the North Vietnamese would not use a halt to achieve a battlefield advantage over American and South Vietnamese forces.

Bombing Continues, Speculation Grows

SAIGON (AP) — American fighter-bombers kept up their heavy raids across North Vietnam's southern panhandle today amid growing speculation that President Johnson's peace offensive is approaching some sort of climax.

Unconfirmed reports circulated that U.S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker and President Nguyen Van Thieu were preparing a joint statement in which the South Vietnamese government would at least accept a halt in the bombing of North Vietnam. There also were reports of more talks between Thieu and Bunker and rumors that Thieu planned a nationwide television address on the bombing halt.

* * *

Despite the reports and speculation, senior U.S. officers said they had no indication that an immediate bombing halt might be in the works.

While U.S. jets were striking North Vietnamese supply routes, Thieu told newsmen in Saigon that Hanoi so far has proved unbending in its response to President Johnson's new peace offensive.

NO LETUP IN SIGHT

Military sources said more air strikes against North Vietnam were being planned for tomorrow and there was no indication of any kind of letup.

U. S. pilots flew 134 missions against North Vietnam yesterday.

U. S. headquarters said an Air Force F4 photo-reconnaissance plane failed to return from a mission over the panhandle Monday and is "presumed down to enemy groundfire." The two crewmen are missing. It was the 914th American warplane reported down in combat over the North.

While enemy ground forces generally continued to lie low, a task force of U.S. boats and South Vietnamese planes raided Vietcong positions along the 32 miles of a river complex near the southernmost tip of the country. A U.S. navy spokesman said 242 enemy sampans and other water craft were smashed and 167 bunkers and other structures were destroyed.

At the other end of the country yesterday, the battleship New Jersey bombarded targets in the northern half of the demilitarized zone.

Jr. Miss Entry Deadline Friday

The deadline for application for the Pontiac Junior Miss Pageant is Friday. The forms may be obtained at the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce office in the Riker Building.

All senior girls attending high school in the greater Pontiac Area are eligible to compete for the Junior Miss title. The pageant is sponsored by the Pontiac Jaycees. The winner will receive $250 in scholarships and a chance to compete in the Michigan Junior Miss Pageant.

* * *

Judges for the pageant which will be Nov. 9 at Pontiac Northern High School will be Mrs. Delores Donahue, manager of J. L. Hudson's beauty salon in Pontiac; Fred Beaudoen, teacher at West Bloomfield High School; and Lew Wint of Wint Funeral Home. Wint is past national director of the United States Jaycees.

Judging is based on scholastic achievement, poise and appearance, physical fitness and creative and performing arts.

Buick Strike Settled; 21,000 Return to Work

FLINT (UPI) — Some 21,000 workers were returning to their jobs today following settlement of a 14-day strike at Buick Division facilities here.

General Motors Corp. officials said two outstanding production standard grievances had been smoothed out last night, signaling striking United Auto Workers Local 599's call to end the walkout which began Oct. 16.

The strike was triggered when the union charged Buick was speeding up work along the assembly line.

U.S. Scientists Nobel Winners

STOCKHOLM (AP) — The 1968 Nobel prizes in chemistry and physics went to two Americans today, the chemistry prize to Lars Onsager of Yale University and the physics award to Luis W. Alvarez of the University of California at Berkeley.

It was a clean sweep of the Nobel scientific awards for the United States. Three American professors who deciphered the genetic code shared the prize for medicine and physiology announced earlier.

* * *

The 1968 peace prize has been awarded to Prof. Rene Cassin, an 81-year-old Frenchman, while a Japanese novelist, Yasunari Kawabata, 69, was the winner of the prize for literature.

The awards are worth $70,000 each this year, a record.

* * *

Onsager, 64, won his prize for the discovery of the Onsager reciprocal relations, "which are fundamental for the thermodynamics of irreversible processes," the award committee said. A native of Norway, he came to the United States in 1928 and was naturalized in 1945.

Alvarez, 57, was honored for his "decisive contributions to elementary particle physics." The award committee cited in particular his discovery of "a large number of resonance states, made possible through his development of the technique of using hydrogen bubble chamber and data analysis." He is a native of San Francisco.

Red Spaceman, Ship Land Softly

MOSCOW (AP) — Cosmonaut Georgy Beregovoy and the Soviet spaceship Soyuz 3 returned to earth today after nearly four days in orbit during which they set no records and apparently scored no breakthroughs for the Soviet space program.

Tass said the spaceship made a soft landing where it was supposed to in the Soviet Union but did not give the exact location.

* * *

Beregovoy "feels well," said the Soviet news agency, and was met by "friends and correspondents in the area where he landed."

"Cosmonaut Georgy Beregovoy successfully completed the program of scientific and technical research," Tass said.

4-DAY PROBE

The 47-year-old cosmonaut's flight was the first manned flight in 18 months for the Soviet Union.

Beregovoy was launched into space last Saturday morning and began a tandem flight around the earth in the wake of the unmanned spacecraft Soyuz 2, which had been launched the day before.

* * *

Before Soyuz 2 was brought down for a soft landing on Monday, Beregovoy made two approaches to the unmanned craft, but if he tried to link up, this was not announced.

A Soviet scientist writing in Pravda Monday, said the purpose of Beregovoy's flight was to develop docking systems essential to the Soviet program.

Birmingham Area Board Okays Water, Sewer Bond Sales

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — The Township Board has passed a resolution authorizing the issuance and sale of $365,000 in water and sanitary sewer bonds for four districts.

The projects include Franklin Hickory Grove water main extension, a water main in Ward Orchards Subdivision, a sanitary sewer in Chelmsleigh Cranbrook Subdivision and a Hickory Knolls Subdivision water main extension.

* * *

The Township Board has turned down a controversial petition for improvement of 10 streets in Meadowlake Farms and Maple Meadows Subdivisions.

The denial came at the resumption of an adjourned public hearing of Oct. 14, when a number of residents voiced disapproval of the plan, even though some of them had signed a petition last spring in favor of it.

AFFECTED BY ARGUMENTS

Rejection of the $300,000 project was made by the board because of some of the arguments presented. Several persons who had signed the petition said they were not aware that they were committing themselves when they signed.

The board also passed a resolution setting a second hearing Dec. 9 to discuss the special assessment for Kirk Caldy sanitary sewer. Twenty-seven sites are involved in the approximately $74,200 project.

* * *

At another first public hearing, to consider a specially assessed water main in Lone Pine Heights Subdivision, the board set the second hearing for Dec. 9.

The petition in favor has been signed by 53.8 per cent of the 67 lot owners affected. Estimated cost of the project is $69,000.

HEARING SET

Another hearing was set for Dec. 9 to consider a $23,700 sanitary sewer project on Ranch Lane.

* * *

The board also adopted a resolution stating that the township would pay up to 50 per cent for construction of sidewalks for safety of schoolchildren.

The project would be undertaken cooperatively with the petitioning agency and each sidewalk proposal will be considered by the board on an individual basis.

An Open Letter . . .

TO THE CITIZENS OF PONTIAC FROM

ROBERT E.

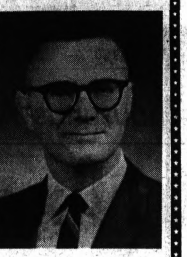
CUNNINGHAM

DISTRICT JUDGE—CANDIDATE

Dear Fellow Citizens:

I am writing you because as a resident, citizen, and taxpayer of the City of Pontiac, I believe you are as concerned as I about law, order and justice.

As a practicing attorney, I have an opportunity to observe many of my fellow citizens who have been the victims of savage beatings, stabbings, muggings, robbery and other violent crimes including murder. As an ordinary citizen, I read the daily newspaper accounts of other violence visited upon the people of Pontiac and other parts of our country. As an able bodied male American of 40 years, I know for a fact that some of the streets of Pontiac are unsafe for me after dark and most certainly unsafe for your wife and children.



As a taxpaying citizen of Pontiac, I feel that the people of the City should not be required to face the danger of crime and violence in their homes, yards and streets. I feel that the people of Pontiac pay dearly, with their tax dollars, for law, order and justice. It is inconceivable to me that the people of Pontiac will permit this situation to continue.

I believe that we must have law and order if we are to survive as a society, and I believe that we can have law and order with JUSTICE FOR ALL.

Recently I read, on the editorial page of The Pontiac Press, an article written by Dick Saunders entitled "Justice First—Then Law and Order." To that argument, I comment that no good American is advocating law and order WITHOUT justice. I do feel however that WITHOUT law and order there can be no justice because without law and order we soon retrogress to the law of the jungle in which there is no justice for anyone.

I am sincere in my pledge that I will strive for law and order based on justice for all if I am elected on November 5th to the post of District Judge for the City of Pontiac. I have taken this position publicly and consistently in all of my advertisements and circulars.

I believe I am well qualified for the position I seek and I submit the following information about myself for your consideration:

1. I am a graduate of Wayne State University, B.A., 1961
2. I am a graduate of the Detroit College of Law, LL.B., 1964
3. I am a member of the American, State and County Bar Associations
4. I am a United States Air Force veteran of World War II
5. I am a United States Air Force veteran of the Korean War
6. I was trained at a leading university as a United States Air Force Interrogation Officer.
7. I am a former member of the top secret United States Army Security Agency
8. I am an appointee of Governor Romney to the three man Oakland County Veterans Trust Fund Committee.
9. I have held management positions in private industry
10. I have been a self-employed small businessman
11. I have been a self-employed practicing attorney here in the City for almost four years.
12. I am experienced in the practice of law in all the State and Federal Courts of this area.

In closing my fellow citizens, let me say that I am asking you to vote for me on November 5th for the position of DISTRICT JUDGE for the City of Pontiac. Stated another way: I am asking you to hire me to enforce your laws. You will elect others to make your laws. If I ask you to hire me to enforce YOUR laws as made by the legislators YOU elect, surely I should pledge myself to enforce YOUR laws until such time as you see fit to change the laws through your legislature. I DO SO PLEDGE.

Sincerely yours

Robert E. Cunningham

Slovaks Duplicate Czech Anti-Soviet Protest

BRATINSLAVA, Czechoslovakia (AP)— Slovaks in Bratislava emulated Prague's Czechs Tuesday night and roamed their city's streets shouting "Russians go home" and "Brezhnev boo, boo, boo."

The anti-Soviet demonstrations erupted after 10,000 cheering, chanting Slovaks broke through police lines in a wild greeting for the nation's liberal Communist leaders, visiting the capital of Slovakia for the local celebration of Czechoslovakia's 50th anniversary.

* * *

A similar demonstration in Prague Monday night against the Soviet occupation brought a warning from Deputy Interior Minister Jan Mayer that the police were determined to "maintain public order."

But police and militiamen failed to stop the marching Slovaks shouting anti-Soviet slogans.

Led by a man carrying a sign with the French word "Liberte," the column moved through Bratislava, singing the national anthem and lighting candles as memorials at half a dozen places where Slovaks were killed during the Soviet invasion last August.

Earlier, tens of thousands of Slovaks wildly applauded the arrival of President Ludvik Svoboda and Communist party chief Alexander Dubcek, the latter a Slovak. The crowd mobbed the railroad station as their eight-car train pulled in, forcing an honor guard and a band to retreat without playing a note.

* * *

Lined 40 or 50 deep on each side of the street, Slovaks chanted "Long live Dubcek" and "Long live Svoboda" as a motorcade took the leaders to the Slovak National Council building. Dubcek and Svoboda waved briefly from a balcony when youths climbed trees around the building and yelled for them to appear.

Today Svoboda signs new charters that create autonomous Czech and Slovak states, joined in a federation.

* * *

Up to now, Russian troops camped in the countryside have not attempted to quell the anti-Soviet demonstrations accompanying the anniversary celebration.

But Czechoslovak leaders were plainly apprehensive.

The disturbances could give the Kremlin an excuse to say Dubcek and Svoboda were not in control of their people and were violating their agreement to "normalize" the situation in Czechoslovakia.

The spinning wheel is said to have been invented in 1533 by a German woodcarver named Johann Jurgen.

Orion Jaycees Fight Mailbox Directive

LAKE ORION — The Orion Area Jaycees have decided to protest a directive from the local post office calling for mailboxes 5 feet, 7 inches above the ground for all patrons receiving vehicle city delivery.

The group has sent a letter, signed by Clifton King, president, to Rep. Jack H. McDonald R-19th District, in Washington D.C.

Postmaster William L. Bonning said he had to ask for the raised mailboxes because of the government issuance of three new mail-delivery vehicles mounted considerably higher than were the old Jeeps used by the department.

"The Postal Department has issued us these vehicles. We have no say whatsoever as to the type of vehicles we want. I've been told they're parcel post vans, and they are unsuitable for the job here.

'INCONVENIENCE'

"However," he continued, "we were glad to get any new trucks. The former ones were 7 years old and constantly in need of repair."

Bonning's letter to residents noted that the new height — from ground level to the top of the box — "is an inconvenience to you, but all patrons receiving vehicle city delivery are required to comply."

He also noted that the new boxes are out of the reach of small children.

The Jaycees wrote McDonald, "We question the judgment and decisions which precipitated this situation.

"As best as we can determine at this local level, the new vehicles offer no advantages over the older models. In fact, these new trucks appear to be inferior to their predecessors in many ways, especially rear-window visibility.

"Further we have been informed that these trucks have been plagued by a series of unbelievable mechanical and design defects and omissions.

"We have been informed that the United States Post Office's initial order is for 4,200 such vehicles, vehicles which appear to be almost unserviceable."

Bonning noted that the trucks are on the road every day and therefore must not be completely unserviceable. He did agree, however, that there have been mechanical and design defects.

Nixon Far Ahead in Lapeer Straw Vote

LAPEER — Who's going to win in Tuesday's election here?

A straw vote taken by the First National Bank of Lapeer shows Richard M. Nixon will take 60 per cent of the vote, followed by George C. Wallace with 21 per cent. Hubert H. Humphrey brings up the rear with 19 per cent.

This result shows a drop of 2 per cent for Nixon since the last poll in mid-October and a corresponding gain for Humphrey, while Wallace held is own, according to W. A. Myers, senior vice president of the bank.

In the race for circuit judge, which includes both Lapeer and Tuscola counties, Norman Baguley tops the poll with 52 per cent of the vote over George Lutz.

WATER SYSTEM BALLOTS

Lutz is the present probate judge. Baguley is a Lapeer attorney and former justice of the peace.

Lapeer city voters will cast advisory ballots on the question of hooking up the city water system to the Detroit pipeline from Lake Huron. According to the bank poll, 55 per cent of the voters will vote yes.

★ ★ ★

The poll is similar to those taken by the bank in elections for the past four years. While it is by no means a professional job, the results have been within 2 to 3 per cent of the actual vote (in Lapeer), Myers said.

Rochester Firm Is Reported Sold

ROCHESTER — Lynd Gear and Tool Co., 361 South, has been sold to Condec Corp. of Old Greenwich, Conn., according to Condec President Norman I. Schafler.

No price was disclosed. The Rochester company manufactures gears for companies including General Motors, Truck & Coach, Detroit Diesel, Allis-Chalmers and Eaton Yale & Towne.

Schafler said the company will operate under the direction of its current president, Richard J. Carter, and its present management and personnel.

He said the acquisition was part of Condec's continuing effort to increase its capability in the production of transmissions, special gear drive systems and other power transmission products.

60 EMPLOYERS

Lynd Gear employs 60 persons.

For the year ended July 30, Condec reportedly achieved earnings of $2,942,000 equal to $1.70 per common share on sales of $118,457,000.

Its common stock, 5 per cent convertible subordinated debentures and 6 per cent convertible subordinated debentures are listed on the American Stock Exchange.

Extended Loans OK'd

Frank Light, chairman of the Michigan State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, announced today that Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman has authorized extended reseal loans for the 1969-70 program year.

Light added that 1964 through 1967 crops currently under extended loan will be continued in a similar status.

FARMINGTON — "I don't want to go . . ."

These words were shakily spoken by a small boy as he turned and ran down the front stairs of an old "haunted" farm house located at 36125 Grand River between Drake and Halstead roads.

★ ★ ★

It has been specially spooked by the Farmington Jaycees.

But dozens of other children and some brave adults entered the "haunted house" and, accompanied by a Jaycee, wandered through its dark rooms to see many frightening things.

The house is open to the public from 4-8 p.m. tonight and tomorrow and a good scare is promised anyone brave enough to go through.

It is stocked with plenty of Halloween ghosts, goblins and other surprises including a giant bat (below) and a coffin which has reportedly been in the house for about 75 years.

Pontiac Twp. Group Revising Zone Map

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP — An updating of the township's zoning map and land-use plan is headed for a late fall public hearing.

Planning commission members have devoted some 20 meetings to an in-depth study of zoning problems, particularly those affecting sewer construction and encroaching multiple housing, according to Claude Arnett, planning chairman.

★ ★ ★

At a recent joint meeting with the Township Board, the commission detailed its progress. Up for immediate action is a new classification of office zoning, to keep up with the rapidly developing need for such a category. Also under consideration, according to Arnett, is a recreational classification.

The planning commission has been using in its work an old regional master plan prepared for Avon Township, Rochester and Pontiac Township in the 1950s.

PLAN LONG DORMANT

Little active planning work was accomplished after the latter plan was produced, until the late Leonard Terry attempted to reactivate the planning commission some two years ago. Appointments to the unit were shot down at that time for alleged political reasons, but the commission has apparently thrived in the last year.

Members of the commission include John Cox, Wilbur Johnson, Arthur Peterson, Dr. S. L. Slowik, James Hulan and Donald Prescott. Two vacancies remain on the commission.

The Township Board at its recent meeting decided to proceed with the office zoning category. It will be advertised for public hearing soon, according to Supervisor Roy Wahl.

In other business, the Township Board passed a tax exemption ordinance which provides that a fee in lieu of taxes, but equal to their amount, be collected from federally financed housing projects.

The townhouse cooperatives on Walton had been removed from tax rolls due to action of the State Legislature.

The board voted to refund to Lester Burton, developer of Bloomfield Orchards Subdivision, some $1,400 left over after the transfer of the homes there from a well water system to the Detroit water system. Burton had paid some $50,000 for the cost of the job, Wahl said.

Teachers Reach Tentative Accord With Huron Valley

A tentative agreement has been reached by the Huron Valley Board of Education and the district's teachers on terms of a 1968-69 contract. No details are to be disclosed prior to ratification by both parties.

Mrs. Kathryn Meagher, president of the Huron Valley unit of the Michigan Education Association, said the faculty will hold a meeting tomorrow at 4:15 p.m. to discuss and ratify the entire contract.

★ ★ ★

"I am happy that a settlement may soon be reached," she added.

Assistant Supt. Gerald B. Kratz said the board of education will meet Monday to discuss ratification of the new contract.

★ ★ ★

Both parties will issue a statement after an agreement is reached, Mrs. Meagher said.

Hubert Says Next Peace Move Is Up to Hanoi

PHILDELPHIA (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey says there is a "new level of diplomatic activity" taking place over the Vietnam war—and "the next move is up to Hanoi."

★ ★ ★

The Democratic presidential candidate's cautiously-worded remarks came as Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, U.S. commander in Vietnam, flew to Washington Tuesday for a secret meeting with President Johnson and his top advisers.

★ ★ ★

But if Humphrey knew more than his questioners about the meeting, or the latest possible moves toward peace, he did not let on. Asked in a Philadelphia television interview whether a peace move might take place before Tuesday's election, he replied: "I just don't know, and I'm not really in a position to tell you if I knew."

But he said he feels the recent lull in ground fighting and the decrease in United States casualties are significant in evaluating the possibilities for peace —"and I hope they will add up to success in the Paris talks."

NEW LEVEL'

"I think there has been something going on," Humphrey said as he wound up a long day of campaigning across vote-rich Pennsylvania.

★ ★ ★

"There's been a new level of diplomatic activity. As I sense it, I think it is up to Hanoi," he said.

★ ★ ★

If the current flurry is not successful, Humphrey vowed again in Philadelphia that if elected, "I will make peace in Vietnam."

★ ★ ★

Addressing a $100-a-plate fund-raising dinner, he said he is "hopeful that that cruel war will end, and end soon—that the Paris talks will succeed. It would be imprudent to say more about them tonight. But I will say this: The man who is our president now is retiring. On Jan. 20, I will be my own president. I will make peace in Vietnam—and I will make it my own way."

CAMPAIGNING IN N. Y.

Humphrey, his spirits avowedly lifted by a late and qualified endorsement by his former rival, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, takes his campaign today to New York City.

He will address rallies in the garment district of Manhattan, suburbs of Westchester County and Jackson Heights, and the Bronx before heading on to Baltimore and a fund-raising dinner.

★ ★ ★

Humphrey has laid on a heavy schedule between now and election day, sandwiching a number of television appearances among visits to New Jersey, Michigan, Illinois, Ohio, Texas and California.

Heckling, Scuffling Mar Wallace Talk

DETROIT (AP) — Scuffling and heckling forced George C. Wallace to cut short a speech Tuesday night in which he told a capacity crowd at Cobo Arena, "If we're slipping, we're slipping right into the White House."

As the crowd left the 11,200-capacity arena, which had been filled, police and several hundred anti-Wallace demonstrators engaged in a melee in which one policeman received an eye injury reported to have been caused by a spray. He was admitted to Detroit General Hospital.

★ ★ ★

At the rally, the crowd cheered Wallace's words, often standing on their seats. His hecklers were equally persistent.

They hooted and jeered and chanted obscene phrases beginning even before he appeared and while the audience was singing "God Bless America." They continued without letup.

SPEECH CUT SHORT

The candidate came prepared to deliver a speech on the nation's economy but gave it up and made his law and order speech, cutting it by about 15 minutes when violence erupted in the audience.

The free-for-all was touched off when a man snatched from another man's head a plastic hat with a Wallace sticker on it, tore it up and threw the pieces in his face.

★ ★ ★

Wallace backers responded by hurling their chairs into the anti-Wallace crowd and the hecklers hurled them back. Police rushed into the stands and dragged off about 20 persons.

★ ★ ★

Earlier, before Wallace arrived, a ruckus erupted when a Wallace supporter grabbed an anti-Wallace placard from someone's hands, held it above his head and ripped it in pieces.

CHOKING CHEMICAL

Then another person sprayed a choking chemical at the hecklers and the fight was on. Police restored order and hauled two of the protesters out.

The candidate, speaking above the uproar through a powerful amplifier, taunted the hecklers throughout his speech.

"You came for trouble and you got it," he said during one melee, and during another he interrupted his speech to say to his supporters: "If you want to stop all this nonsense, you vote for me Nov. 5 and I'll stop it."

★ ★ ★

The unfettered emotion at Cobo Arena was in marked contrast to an earlier Wallace appearance Tuesday in Enid, Okla., before a crowd of 3,000-4,000 at the courthouse square.

POSITION PAPER

That speech came just after the third-party candidate issued a position paper outlining his stand on the oil and gas industry.

★ ★ ★

He said all coastal states, not just Florida and Texas, were entitled to own offshore oil and gas rights at least 10 miles out, and that the Federal Power Commission's powers ought to be redefined to "prohibit the usurpation of state regulatory authority."

★ ★ ★

Wallace did not mention in his policy paper his position on the 27½ per cent oil depletion allowance.

Asked about it later, he replied, "All these matters ought to be appraised and looked into and considered and we'll do that at the proper time.

★ ★ ★

Wallace steers his campaign southward today, with a noon rally in Wheeling, W.Va., and a speech at the Spectrum Arena in Philadelphia, followed by a fund-raising dinner.

Nixon Tells It Like It Isn't

WARREN (UPI) — Richard M. Nixon is trying to get to the White House, but he apparently doesn't know the address.

Nixon told a shopping center rally that a new presidential limousine had recently been delivered "to 1400 Pennsylvania Avenue." The White House, as someone in the crowd shouted out to him, is at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue.

Romney Warns of Chaos if Dem Wins

CLEVELAND (UPI) — Michigan Gov. George Romney speaking in Cleveland Tuesday warned that the nation is facing "economic chaos" if Hubert Humphrey is elected president.

"It appears that the Humphrey anticrime program is to make the dollar so worthless no one will want to steal it," he said.

★ ★ ★

Romney said Humphrey would be unable to deal with inflation because he is "indebted to the union leadership."

Romney, who is not a candidate for reelection this year, said he had not been offered a Cabinet post if Richard Nixon is elected president but did not discount the possibility he might become a member of a Nixon administration.

DEFENDS AGNEW

Romney defended Nixon's choice of Gov. Spiro Agnew as his running mate and called him a man of "honesty, decency and integrity."

★ ★ ★

Romney predicted Nixon would carry Michigan by a close margin and said he feels George Wallace is making heavy inroads into Democratic strength.

Nixon Tops Poll of Students at Oregon School

PRINEVILLE, Ore. (AP) — Students at Crook County High School favored Richard M. Nixon over Hubert H. Humphrey by 238 to 147 in the school's traditional straw poll. George C. Wallace got 34 votes.

Crook County is one of five counties in the United States which has always voted with the majority on the presidential race. The school poll has accurately reflected the county since 1952.

The county has 2,400 registered Democrats and 1,500 registered Republicans.

CANDIDATE IS QUESTIONED—Newsmen corner third-party candidate George C. Wallace at Metro Airport on his arrival in Detroit yesterday. He was forced to cut short his speech at Cobo Hall because of heckling and scuffling.

Dems, LeMay to Visit State

By the Associated Press

With the exception of Republican vice presidential nominee Spiro T. Agnew, every presidential and vice presidential candidate is stumping Michigan this week in hopes of swinging the state's 21 electoral votes into his column.

★ ★ ★

Democratic presidential candidate Hubert H. Humphrey will campaign in Battle Creek and the Detroit area Thursday and Friday. While Humphrey is in Detroit, his running mate, Edmund S. Muskie, will stump in Grand Rapids.

★ ★ ★

Curtis E. LeMay, the third party vice presidential nominee, will speak at Tri-City Airport on Thursday.

Nixon concluded his Michigan campaign Tuesday with a swing through suburban Detroit. Wallace addressed a capacity crowd that same evening in Cobo Hall.

GOP Nominee Gets Taste of 'The Sounds of Silence'

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Richard M. Nixon faced a group of student protesters, praised them for their orderliness and said he would seek a negotiated settlement of the Vietnam war —with the Soviet Union sitting at the conference table.

Nixon altered his campaign style Tuesday night, prompted by nearly 1,000 Syracuse University students in the audience of the packed, 8,000-seat Onondaga County War Memorial Auditorium.

★ ★ ★

Nixon said the students "have properly presented their case as they should."

It was a new style protest in which the students got a permit to parade to the hall, announced in advance they would serenade the Republican presidential candidate, then sat in silence and listened to his speech.

Nixon, forewarned by a news release the students distributed at his hotel, faced the demonstrators after being introduced and announced, "The floor is yours."

Then the students sang, "The Sounds of Silence" by the singing-composing duo of Simon and Garfunkel. Nixon partisans booed.

★ ★ ★

The nominee, who had retired to his seat for the serenade by the self-styled Nixon Reception Committee, returned to the rostrum and said, "Let 'em go." They went on without interruption.

When Nixon reclaimed the floor, he applauded the singers as "a very unusual group" because of their announced willingness to let him have his say without the disruptive chants associated with youthful protesters. He termed it "the very proper role of dissent."

Nixon said he wanted to respond directly to questions posed by the students in the news release.

★ ★ ★

One of those questions dealt with Vietnam, and Nixon went beyond previous pronouncements to assert:

"The Soviet Union must be brought to that conference table. Other interested nations in Asia have to be brought there, because by broadening the number of nations and the issues, we will be able to have a negotiated settlement."

In the past, Nixon had only implied that the Soviets should participate in Vietnam peace talks.

A Nixon spokesman, Ron Ziegler, said later the candidate was discussing negotiations in a general sense and was not specifically advocating that the Russians be brought into the current peace talks in Paris.

Leaders of the protest said they were pleased Nixon had responded to them. But they still argued he had not been specific enough on major issues and had failed to state his position on the question of televised debates with his Democratic rival, Hubert H. Humphrey.

For an airport rally today at Rochester, Minn., Nixon issued a statement taking new potshots at Humphrey and President Johnson.

Under Johnson, he said, imagination and fresh insights "became hearsay in an administration in which loyalty to the boss was the sole intellectual virtue."

Nixon goes to New York City tonight after another airport rally at Marion, Ill., and an indoor GOP fete at Cleveland.

Pornography a Disgrace to America

PORNOGRAPHY: Writings, Pictures, etc., intended to arouse sexual desire.

Such is the indefinite dictionary definition of a social ill becoming increasingly pervasive of the American scene.

The fronts of movie theaters lure the susceptible with lurid word and picture enticements that would have been unthinkable a decade ago. Where periodicals are sold, the shelves and racks pander in growing profusion to the appetites of those who seek salacious gratification in the pages of lewd books, disreputable "magazines" and prurient "newspapers."

★ ★ ★

The legitimate theater has to some extent gotten into the act with plays whose plots and dialogue assault decency and acceptable standards of entertainment. TV programs, while keeping pretty well within moral bounds, nonetheless spew out violence and depravity in an endless stream.

Efforts by the respectable and concerned elements of society to protect the public from the poison of pornography have met with little success. Officialdom and the courts as well are hamstrung by inability to established a concrete, enforceable definition of pornography.

At what point does "art" disappear and "pornography" appear. When does a book, replete with four-letter words, abandon its purported sociological study and become merely a parade of filth?

★ ★ ★

To argue that the mentally immature and impressionable youth are unaffected by the deluge of pornography and violence prevalent in its many forms is, of course, ridiculous. As well to say that continuous exposure of law-abiding citizens to the lawless ways of criminality would leave them unmarked.

We think that among the many erosive influences which today beset society, pornography is one of the most insidious and damnable. Those who countenance it rate low in our esteem.

Former Vietnam Hawk Lights on Dovelike Perch

When a hawk of such brilliant plumage as McGEORGE BUNDY begins molting, the new cry he makes is of more than passing ornithological interest.

BUNDY, chief foreign policy aide to Presidents KENNEDY and JOHNSON until he resigned in December, 1965, played an important supporting role in the two major decisions made about Vietnam—the commitment of American troops to combat and the program of restrained, sustained bombing attacks on North Vietnam.

Today, as president of the Ford Foundation, he still defends these decisions as the right ones, taken at a time when the Communists were close to victory in South Vietnam. Now, however, he calls for a program of de-escalation to "lift this burden from our lives."

The North Vietnamese, it seems, have crossed us up by refusing to cave in. Thus BUNDY's recommendations for a withdrawal of U.S. forces down to a level of about 100,000 troops, which he says could be achieved without insuring defeat of South Vietnam. They are not, he says, based "on moral outrage or political hostility to the objective, but rather on the simple and practical ground that escalation will not work and that continuation on our present course is unacceptable."

★ ★ ★

In other words, in "cost-effectiveness terms"—to borrow a phrase from former Defense Secretary ROBERT MCNAMARA—the Vietnam war is simply not paying off and further investment in it at the current level or at a higher level will only further unbalance the equation.

★ ★ ★

This change of heart by one prominent hawk, based "not on moral outrage or political hostility to the objective" but on a cool appraisal of the situation comes at a time when a firm U.S. decision on alternate courses in Vietnam must soon be made.

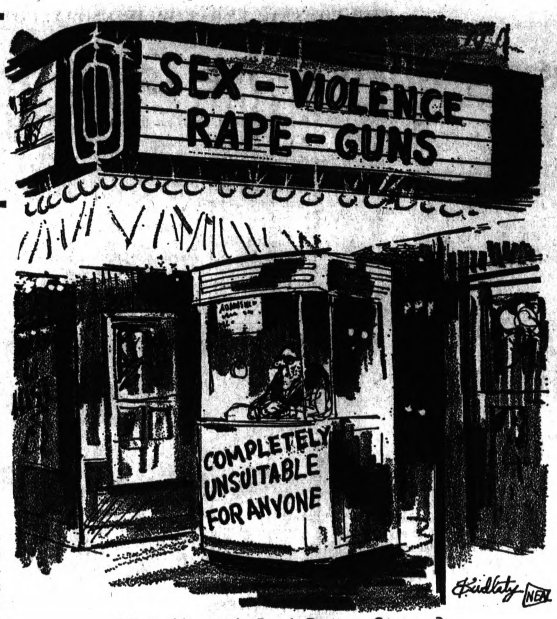
American Ideals Bar Soviet-Style Coups

We realize that the United States can't intervene Russian-style in the domestic affairs of other nations. But wouldn't it be interesting if just once, just for a change, U.S. troops moved in and zapped a bunch of non-Communists who overthrew a reasonably democratic government?

Like, say, the military clique that ousted the constitutionally elected president of Panama?

★ ★ ★

It would certainly surprise a lot of Latin Americans, who have historically suffered from dictatorships of the right, not of the left.



How About A Real Rating System?

David Lawrence Says:

Churchgoers No Longer Safe

WASHINGTON — Will churchgoers in America have to be armed in order to defend themselves as they go to and from places of worship?

LAWRENCE

The Democratic administration, which has been in power for the last eight years, has constantly emphasized that preservation of law and order is the responsibility of state and local governments.

★ ★ ★

Maintenance of order in the District of Columbia, however, is the function of the federal government, and in the capital of the United State even the churches now are the scene of attacks and vandalism.

A significant piece of news has just been announced here. The Grace Baptist Church, on Capital Hill not far from the place where Congress meets, is planning to get out of Washington and move to the suburbs.

LOOKING ELSEWHERE

The executive committee of the 75-year-old church, which has been conducting services in its present building since 1914, has decided, as its pastor describes it, to "look into what might be available elsewhere" for a new church building.

Women members of the church have been attacked twice in the last two weeks in the vicinity of the building, according to police and church officials.

One woman a few days ago, while on her way into the church, was beaten by four youths who took her purse.

A week earlier, the church secretary and three other women were standing near the church when 25 youths attacked them and tried to grab their purses. Their screams brought help from men who were inside the church.

CHURCH VANDALIZED

Three times within the last three months, the police admit, the church has been vandalized. Chairs and other equipment have been stolen, and windows were broken.

★ ★ ★

It might be expected that the capital of the United States would be a model city — an example to the nation of what the federal government means when it says that "law and order" must prevail.

But aside from appointing a commission to run the district government and allocating to it certain powers, the tendency of federal officials is to regard the District of Columbia as of secondary importance.

Bob Considine Says:

It's Difficult to Dry Up the U.S. Fighting Man

NEW YORK—It is only fitting and proper that a man named N. E. Beveridge should give us "Cups of Valor," a lively chronicle of the ingenious and even tempting drinks America's fighting men have concocted through the annals of their wars.

CONSIDINE

"History, after all, need not be dry," this delightful historian reminds us.

★ ★ ★

It certainly has not been. George Washington's men may have been motivated by more than their patriotic cries and slogans. Some form of spirits was dealt out to every man every day as part of his ration. When there wasn't any rum, or regular beer, ale or port, there was always spruce beer.

'RATHER PLEASANT'

"This beverage was made from the fresh green tips of spruce boughs," Beveridge's research revealed. "Once the drinker got used to the taste of turpentine, he found it rather pleasant."

In 1881 when President Rutherford B. Hayes ordered the U.S. Army "dry" many troopers soon discovered that a tonic named Peruna, then being sold as a palliative for everything from colic to cholera, had the kick of a mule.

★ ★ ★

Then there was the Nebraska farmer, back in 1889, who was persuaded to offer certain interesting bargains in watermelons to U.S. troops engaged in war games exercises. One type watermelon cost 10 cents, the other type a dollar. They were the same size, but the dollar watermelon contained a pint of whisky.

In bone-dry Saudi Arabia U.S. airmen and oil company people have gone to extraordinary lengths to distill intoxicants. Oil company chemists have come up with something that actually tastes like scotch.

POTENT ORANGES

When the laboratories let them down however, returnees from leave of absence tend to arrive with a case of oranges, each of which has had a hypodermic injection of vodka.

World War II produced concoctions that would have made a Borgia blanch. When the Americans and Russians met ebulliently at the Elbe, our side—which had learned to like calvados, an apple jack with muscles—found the Russians on one occasion drinking from a wash tub of schnapps mixed with the fuel that powered the German V1 buzz bombs.

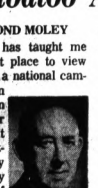
★ ★ ★

Things were tougher in the Pacific until a Marine made the discovery that if you bored a couple of holes in the top of a young coconut and added sugar and raisins to the milk inside and plugged up the holes it could become an alcoholic bomb after letting it lie in the sun for a few hours. Other Marines preferred a nice dry stimulating drink made of equal parts of rice wine and Japanese aviation fuel.

Hullabaloo About Agnew Ill-Founded

By RAYMOND MOLEY

Experience has taught me that the worst place to view the impact of a national campaign is from an office in New York or Washington. It is like attempting to enjoy the majesty and beauty of a mountain range from a cabin on the foggy bottom of a valley



MOLEY

I left New York five weeks ago and, after a motor trip of 7,000 miles, through 16 states, I returned last week.

★ ★ ★

This trip gave impressions that were sharply challenged by what comment is current here in New York.

I am concerned here only with what people think of Spiro T. Agnew as a candidate for vice president.

CENTER OF CRITICISM

Here in New York and in Washington, required reading in the morning are newspapers which have centered their criticism upon Agnew.

Nixon, who is more difficult to attack, is charged with "his greatest blunder" in choosing Agnew. This impression prevails even among Nixon supporters and workers here in New York.

He is regarded elsewhere as a good, solid American — a man who in his own state of Maryland did a good job of governing and who greets his audience with the sort of talk that people like to hear this year.

"Would Agnew make a good President?" Who knows? What we do know is that eight of our 35 Presidents have entered the White House after the death of a president. The country survived all these changes, and in the four recent instances the accidental president was subsequently elected in his own right.

LACK OF SUBSTANCE

The attacks on Agnew for two small slips show the lack of substance behind the claim that he is unworthy.

There was a hullabaloo about his calling a reporter a "Jap." That certainly couldn't offend any American voters except in Hawaii. And the Polish vote certainly is not lost by his use of the expression "Polack."

★ ★ ★

"When we win," he says, "we are just liable to bring back into American life a lot of things that the devotees of the so-called 'New Politics' consider dull. Dull things like patriotism. Dull things like incentive . . ."

Let's face it. He is what in modern, smart idiom is called a "square." But an awful lot of the people who are going to vote next week are "square" and are not ashamed of it.

★ ★ ★

They have had their fill of the smart stuff. They have come to realize that the "new economics" is just a name for living beyond our means. And they have seen that "participatory democracy" ends in anarchy.

They want some of the old verities to stabilize the momentum of a new technological age.

'State Must Take Action to Curb Water Pollution'

In a few days Michigan will decide what to do about the pollution problem of our water—one of the State's most valuable assets. Most of us are ten to 20 years behind time doing something about this atrocious situation but possibly we are now awakening. Most officials will be active in seeking better water for Michigan; some are active now, and many have sought such improvements for years.

Recently an award plaque was presented to Senator L. Harvey Lodge in appreciation for sponsoring legislation enabling creation of the Oakland County DPW, making possible many public works projects including the Clinton-Oakland Sewage Disposal System.

★ ★ ★

When interviewed about the background of such award, Senator Lodge replied in essence: What is past is history. Let's think of the present and future. We want people to think about these Clean Water and Quality Recreation bond proposals. Our second industry—tourism—which is now an annual $1 billion industry could rise to $2 billion, and instead of getting back $70 million in taxes from such industry, we could double that.

At the last of two sessions we were informed that the Township is nearly broke. Every year we are informed that the Township of Waterford is in financial trouble, yet every year our taxes are raised.

Present Township government would like to finish its term of office and show the people it was able to save this amount of money for the people. We would all liké to see money left at the end of the year, but only after we have received the services we have paid for. Need for Nixon

The San Diego Union

In stressing need for election of Richard M. Nixon as President of our United States of America, it is well to reflect upon the logic of the first President elected under the Republican Party standard.

Abraham Lincoln faced problems threatening to destroy the Republic . . . problems in many ways comparable to those of today.

★ ★ ★

We believe Mr. Nixon can, in the traditional American way, "bind up the nation's wounds." We believe that the Republican Party can administer "with malice toward none" and "with charity for all" and we believe that "with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right," Mr. Nixon's leadership will implement the intentions of the platform to "cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves and with all nation."

The Copley Newspapers recognize the urgent need for Mr. Nixon, his depth of governmental experience and strongly recommend his election in the best interests of our United States of America.

Press Readers Discuss Presidential Election

The members of the Holly Area Human Relations Council are concerned about the voter considering Wallace for president. America has many serious problems which can only be solved by understanding, patience and respect for all. There is no simple or ready solution as Wallace would seem to suggest. Our country needs a man who can reconcile the differences in America—a man who can bring the dissidents, the dissatisfied and the disorderly back into the mainstream of American life. George Wallace is not that man. Force and repression are not the answers.

611 CRESCENT LAKE RD.

Richard Nixon claims we have a security gap. Secretary of Defense Clark Clifford says it isn't so. We have 1,054 ICBMs to Russia's 720 to 900; 656 submarine-launched strategic nuclear missiles and Russia has 75 to 80; on intercontinental bombers we stand 646 to their 150 to 155. It seems as if Nixon is following in Agnew's steps in putting his foot in his mouth. Is Nixon the one? I hope not. George Wallace is talking the same way and his buddy Curtis LeMay will do very little to discourage him. Wallace couldn't even run Alabama. How is he going to run the Country? This leaves only one choice. I urge you to think rationally and objectively, then get out and vote.

ROBERT WRIGHT
14 TACOMA

When you lose law and order you have lost everything. This is why we must have a change to keep this great country from total collapse. I think Mr. Wallace should be on the ballot. The news reports try to make you believe Mr. Wallace doesn't have a chance, but everyday working people are fed up with people running wild, etc. I don't believe the unions and churches should try to tell a person how to vote. I believe that priests and preachers who lead marches that lead to disorders should have severe punishment. I think Mr. Wallace and Mr. LeMay will put the country back to respect.

WM. G. HONAKER
101 E. RUTGERS

Quite a few people in this Country do not realize that for the past eight years the leaders of the country have deliberately let our military might deteriorate. We have hardly had one new weapon in eight years in spite of the billions that have been spent. As a result of this policy Russia is either equal to us or is ahead of us in some phases. Nixon sees this dilemma and intends to build up our military. There is less chance of war if we stay strong. All HHH has to offer is more bridges to Russia and spending more money.

GLENN YUILLE
88 NEWBERRY

By chance I noticed an AFL-CIO News stuffed in a wastebasket. I would have felt better had I left it there because it carried the same old line—Republicans all bad, Democrats all heroes and good boys. Walter Reuther backs HHH because LBJ condoned the strike for higher wages. What did this gain in wages do but set off the greatest spiral of inflation ever perpetrated on the public. Wake up, union members, don't be led like sheep to follow policies which have almost wrecked the good old U.S.A. Vote for anybody but HHH. Either of the other two candidates is more acceptable than he. Let's turn out the bunglers and the Great Society.

'Urge Township to Approve Open Housing'

People of Shelby Township, let's show the Negro race we welcome them into our community. Let's prove we do believe in a truly free democracy. Let's prove we do want a better world for our children by giving them an opportunity to grow up without racial hatred. Integration is a step toward understanding. Understanding and love for our fellowman will eliminate our racial problem. Vote yes on open housing.

State's Latin Partner to Get Trucked Items

Michigan Partners of the Alliance, aimed at grass-roots diplomacy with British Honduras, is now reaching out to that tiny Central American republic from an office at Oakland University.

OU Chancellor Durward V. Varner is acting chairman of the group, which is not officially connected with the university.

★ ★ ★

Varner was named vice chairman of the group two years ago but assumed leadership from the start because of the extended illness of the chairman, Alvin M. Bentley, Owosso industrialist and former congressman.

Michigan Partners, a nonprofit, non-artisan organization, is part of the Alliance for Progress established in 1961. Thirty-seven states in this country are partners with Latin America countries.

USEFUL SHIPMENT

A convoy of six semitrailer trucks, driven by volunteer students from Lansing Community College, will rumble southward Friday and — barring breakdowns and banditos — should bounce into the capital of Belize City 4,000 miles and nine days later.

They will be carrying an assortment of outdated but usable hospital equipment, including an operating table, an X-ray machine, beds and oxygen gear. Gifts to other agencies in British Honduras include two farm tractors, two tons of fertilizer and a poultry feed mill.

The most active group within the Partners is the educational committee, which will place about 15 students from British Honduras on scholarships in about 10 Michigan colleges and universities this year. OU has one Belizian enrolled under the program.

Except for one Catholic prep school which recently began offering college credit work, Belize has no college or university.

MEXICAN NEIGHBOR

The country, part of the Yucatan Peninsula, borders Mexico on the north and Guatemala on the west and south and has a population of 112,000.

ELECT
DERRYBERRY
County Supervisor
District 23
DEMOCRAT

1968 is the year of opportunity for Oakland County—when the people take over the reins of county government.

Now that people have been made a part of Oakland County government, I feel that their role should not be limited to merely voting for a supervisor every two years.

I will encourage widespread participation of the people in the following ways:

1. Scheduling of County Board meetings at times designated to allow people to attend.
2. Scheduling of public hearings, at convenient times and places, on major issues considered by the Board and by its Committees.
3. Holding of meaningful public hearings on the annual budget.
4. Consulting the people prior to embarking on projects such as the "Orion-Oakland Airport".

I deplore the present practice of budgeting in surplusses at the expense of urgent needs; and the eventual use of the extra funds for elaborate projects instead of for services for people.

Another area of concern to us is the lack of facilities and services for the mentally retarded.

The County's road system is deteriorating at a time when transportation is a key to continued growth in Oakland County. The new County Board must give serious consideration to this problem and come up with solutions.

In order to come up with such solutions, the County Board of Supervisors must have greater jurisdiction over the County Road Commission and must use its appointive powers to bring about needed changes.

I will work for revision of road tax distribution formulas to give Oakland County its fair share of the revenues and to allocate more of these funds for the repair and maintenance of local roads—call for a thorough study of county airport needs before putting into a new facility at Orion.

I pledge to carry out a vigorous, meaningful and effective human relations program in Oakland County.

I pledge to implement those aspects of the Kerner Report that apply to Oakland County and local units of government.

GOP Senators, Postmaster to Air Charges

WASHINGTON (AP) — Michigan's Republican senator, Robert P. Griffin, is to meet with Postmaster General W. Marvin Watson to discuss charges that Griffin has abused his franking, or free mail, privileges, the Post Office Department said Tuesday.

Also attending the meeting will be Sen. Charles H. Percy, R-Ill. who is faced with the same allegations.

★ ★ ★

Both senators dispute the department's claims which involve about $4,000 for Percy and between $25,000 and $30,000 for Griffin.

The department said the Griffin case goes back two years and involves the mailing of a newsletter to constitutents. The mailing by Percy, it said, was made last January.

CLOSED MATTER

Percy said Tuesday he was told by a postal official last April that Watson considered the matter closed.

"We never heard a thing about it again until a week ago when we were contacted by a newspaperman, not the post office," a Percy aide said.

★ ★ ★

A spokesman for Watson said Percy would meet with the postmaster general early in November. Griffin and Watson also are expected to meet next month, but not until after the election.

"They both said the matter shouldn't become a political football," the spokesman said.

Claims on Griffin have been issued by the post office each October since 1966.

"In each instance," the postal official declared, "the senator has said he did not violate his franking privileges."

Facial Surgery on 'Galt' Told

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP) — An attorney says a man who gave his name as Eric Galt underwent minor plastic surgery before the assassination last April of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

The lawyer, Bennet Olan, declined Tuesday to give details of the surgery performed by Dr. Russel C. Hadley except to say it was of the type which would not greatly change his appearance.

★ ★ ★

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has reported Eric Galt was an alias used by James Earl Ray, now facing trial in Memphis, Tenn., on a charge of murdering King.

Olan said he thought the operation was performed three or four weeks before the assassination on April 4. "It may have been on the 4th or the 11th of March, I forget which," he said.

MINOR SURGERY

The surgeon referred all questions to Olan. The lawyer said it's believed Galt sought out Dr. Hadley through the Los Angeles County Medical Association. At any rate, Olan said, Galt told the doctor the association had recommended him.

Olan said the case didn't stand out in Hadley's mind, but he added: "As soon as we discovered who the patient had been, the case was reported to the FBI."

★ ★ ★

The attorney said that as far as he knew, Hadley has not been subpoenaed to testify in the Ray trial.

City Affairs

Commissioners Defer Junk-Car Control Law

Pontiac city commissioners last night deferred for another week final adoption of an ordinance designed to control junk cars.

Commissioners indicated they wanted time to work with the city attorney in making changes to the ordinance, which received first reading, or preliminary approval, two weeks ago.

* * *

In other action, the commission approved amending the city's R20 urban renewal grant to receive another $29,765 to be made available for homeowners in the area for rehabilitation purposes.

* * *

James L. Bates, director of planning and urban renewal, said several persons in the renewal area meet requirements for grants to rehabilitate their houses.

* * *

He said the 1968 Housing Act also increases the amount an individual can receive, from $1,500 to $3,000.

Commissioners also:

- Approved taking bids for a maintenance building at the site of the city's sanitary land-fill site on Collier. The land-fill site is now being prepared to be operational by January.

* * *

- Approved rezoning three lots at 371 W. South Blvd. to Residential 3 zoning.

* * *

- Referred to the director of public works a petition by persons owning property on Raeburn between South Paddock and Saginaw to remove a parkway in the center of the street to allow for a parking mall.

* * *

City Manager Joseph A. Warren said commercial buildings there front on Saginaw. He said parking is being eliminated on Saginaw, so the property owners want to create more parking on Raeburn for clients and customers.

'Dialogue' Topics

EAST LANSING (AP) — The Detroit newspaper strike, organ transplants, law and order and the next U.S. president will be among topics discussed by Michigan State University students and faculty during a four-day "Dialogue '68" conference.

Office OK Delayed for Harambee

District 1 Commissioner T. Warren Fowler Sr. last night successfully urged the City Commission to delay approval of a temporary Crystal Beach office for Harambee Inc.

Fowler, the city's only Negro commissioner, objected to apparent city administration approval which would have allowed Harambee Inc., an all-Negro, nonprofit housing firm, to utilize an abandoned unit of the Crystal Beach housing project.

* * *

He led a 4-2 commission vote to delay commission approval of a measure which would have given the corporation temporary use of the unit rent-free.

Fowler also chided City Manager Joseph A. Warren for what he said was the city manager's approval of the move.

PREMATURE APPROVAL

The commissioner insisted that any move to allow Harambee to use the Crystal Beach unit without full approval of the commission was improper.

* * *

Director of Law Sherwin M. Birnkrant indicated that allowing any organization to use city property without first having a written agreement spelling out the terms of occupancy, including payment of heat, lights, rent and insurance coverage, was premature.

* * *

Warren said he thought it was perfectly appropriate to allow the organization to use the vacated Crystal Beach unit. Warren said the arrangement would be temporary and that the unit in question would, because of its location and the condition of the building, be one of the last to be demolished in the city's takeover of Crystal Beach.

RELOCATION

The city this year purchased the 72-unit Crystal Beach project from private owners, primarily to rid the city of the slum project. Terms of the sale call for the city to relocate all tenants and raze the buildings within three years.

Fowler objected also the fact that the organization would be allowed to use the unit rent-free and questioned whether the firm would pay the utility bills.

* * *

Warren said the commission could, if it wished, charge rent on the structure and indicated that Harambee would pay the utility costs.

Fowler said he was opposed to allowing the unit to be used rent-free while the city is charging other residents of the project, in some cases ADC (Aid to Dependent Children) mothers. He said Harambee had received a grant from the Archdiocese of Detroit to pay such expenses.

RENT CONTROVERSY

Warren said the situation with Harambee is different. He indicated that the city wished to encourage the project tenants to leave Crystal Beach and it would be difficult to if it were not charging the tenants rent.

He said the office was to be used by persons doing social work for Harambee. Fowler contended that the persons were engaged in a survey which had nothing to do with social work.

* * *

District 5 Commissioner Robert F. Jackson, who along with District 4 Commission Jack Douglas, voted against the delay, said that since Harambee is a nonprofit organization it didn't seem out of line for the city to allow the unit to be used rent-free.

* * *

"This organization is starting to do something," he said. The commissioners said they would consider a temporary arrangement for the unit once a written agreement covering the terms of occupancy were prepared between the city and Harambee.

Trick-or-Treat Hour Set in Waterford Township

The Waterford Township Halloween trick-or-treat begging hour will be 6-7 p.m. tomorrow, the township recreation department announced today.

Parents are asked to turn on all porch and yard lights so the ghosts, ghouls and goblins can enter and leave safely.

* * *

Parents are also asked to turn off their lights at 7 p.m. to let the beggars know that the hour has ended.

Children in costume can then go to parties in their areas until 8:30 p.m. Parties are at Pontiac Lake School, Leggett School, Riverside School and the Community Activities Building.

* * *

Prizes will be awarded for costumes, games will be played and cartoons will be shown. Doughnuts and cider will be served.

The parties are planned by the recreation department, Waterford Volunteer Firefighters, Optimists, Rotary and the Jaycees.

Trustee Is Proposed in NY School District

NEW YORK (AP) — State Education Commissioner James E. Allen has proposed that a trustee administer Brooklyn's Ocean Hill-Brownsville school district to end the teachers walkout affecting 1.1 million public school pupils.

Acceptance or rejection hinges on the outcome of meetings by heads of the 55,000-member United Federation of Teachers, the board of education, and the suspended but active governing board of Ocean Hill, focal point in the citywide strike.

* * *

Allen announced his plan Tuesday as the deadlock continued over UFT insistence that 79 white union teachers resume teaching unmolested in the predominantly Negro and Puerto Rican district.

The commissioner did not say what he would do if his proposal was rejected. He set a noon deadline for replies.

SUSPENSION TO STAY

Under his plan, the Ocean Hill board would remain suspended, unit administrator Rhody McCoy would be reinstated if he agreed to serve under the trustee, and the eight principals of the district would remain.

A key point in the dispute has been UFT President Albert Shanker's demand that the principals be suspended or reassigned.

* * *

The Allen plan also provided for "teams of observers" in Ocean Hill classrooms to guard against harassment of the unwanted teachers. The teachers' return to the schools touched off threats of violence and resulted in several arrests.

If his plan goes through, Allen said, he would appoint as trustee Herbert F. Johnson of Delmar, N.Y., an associate commissioner of education.

Computers May Bring Future Schools Into the Home

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — The day may not be far off when junior will learn his Three Rs at home under the prodding of the electronic schoolmarm who, aslo can teach mom and dad a few things.

"The reason he'll study at home, experts told a meeting of the National Academy of Sciences this week, is that schools will have vanished—replaced by a network of computers cheaper and more efficient than present-day school systems.

★ ★ ★

Junior's teacher will be a console—one of thousands hooked up to a computer which will monitor his learning constantly, telling him instantly whether he has given the right answer. He won't have to wait hours or days for a test to be graded.

★ ★ ★

This means his learning speed will be limited only by his own ability, not that of his classmates. And he won't have to waste time going to and from school.

PICTURE OF FUTURE

Dr. John I. Goodlad, dean of the graduate school of education at the University of California at Los Angeles, drew his picture of future education at the California Institute of Technology meeting. He said parents too will benefit from an electronic teacher in the home.

"With rapid advancement and rapid outmoding of knowledge," he said, "age becomes a poor criterion for knowing or needing to know. One can envision families of many age levels learning together from computer terminals in the home."

With computerized teaching, he said, "there is no need for a common entrance age for all children, no need for a common school day, no need for an orderly progression from elementary to junior high and then to secondary schools. By substituting computer time and energy for the human teacher, these unnecessary but usually unquestioned characteristics of schooling go by the boards."

Dr. Ralph W. Gerard, dean of the graduate division of the University of California at Irvine, predicted "the impact of computers on education will be more important than was the development of printing."

Downtown Domed Stadium Scheme Surprises City Officials

City officials in Pontiac were surprised by the announcement yesterday morning that a Pontiac citizens committee was preparing a campaign to construct a domed stadium in the downtown urban renewal land.

City Manager Joseph A. Warren said he had never been approached on the subject. Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. said he was surprised by the move.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac attorney Robert Cunningham and Carl O'Brien, a former state senator from the 17th District, announced that a "Wide Track Stadium Committee" was launching a petition drive to stage a special election to pass a stadium bonding proposal.

Such an effort would not only place the city in competition with Detroit and other southeastern Michigan cities and with itself for the much-discussed stadium.

ONE PLAN ALREADY

Pontiac has made one well-received public proposal to the Metropolitan Stadium Committee, a quasi-official group which organized in an effort to influence construction of a new stadium for the Detroit Tigers and the Detroit Lions.

That proposal calls for the stadium to be constructed on a 130-acre parcel north of M59 and west of Opdyke.

★ ★ ★

Cunningham said today that the proposal envisioned by the Wide Track committee is realistic. He said the plan has been forming for some time.

★ ★ ★

Not only has the city government made a proposal for another stadium site in the city, it is deep in the process of planning construction of $80 to $100 million worth of new buildings on the downtown urban renewal land.

UNLIKELY PROSPECT

It is not very likely that the Wide Track committee's proposal could be entertained at all, unless the downtown plans now under consideration completely collapse.

In any event sale of urban renewal land for construction of the stadium would require approval of the federal government. Cunningham said legal experts in Lansing had advised the committee that such a sale was not prohibited by urban renewal regulations.

★ ★ ★

O'Brien said that the 27 acres of urban renewal land is admittedly not enough to construct a stadium and parking to support it. But, he said, property to the south of Orchard Lake Avenue out of the urban renewal area could be acquired for parking.

★ ★ ★

O'Brien said the committee is confident of getting enough signatures from Pontiac residents to call for a special election on a bonding proposal.

He said voters would then have to approve issuing about $50 million worth of bonds to finance construction of a domed stadium. Armed with this voter approval, the committee then could approach the Lions and Tigers management with a proposal to build a stadium according to the needs of the sports teams.

He said rental charges would retire the bonds over a period of years. The economic boon to the city would be substantial, O'Brien said.

★ ★ ★

He said he also believed there is a 50-50 chance of the stadium being constructed in the downtown area, an estimate which city officials think is extremely optimistic.

City May Take Prime Renewal Control

In essence, the new approach calls for the city to hang onto the entire 27 acres of downtown land, to map out 10 major parcels called for in the Pontiac plan, to authorize design plans for each parcel, and then to sell the parcels — one at a time, if necessary — to interested investors who would be required to build according to the design plans already prepared.

★ ★ ★

Under the big-developer approach, the developer is expected to purchase the urban renewal land, then can construct according to a general plan approved by the city and HUD, but following his own design plans, then sell or lease the facilities constructed.

TIME AN OBSTACLE

One of the big stumbling blocks to completion of urban renewal programs has been the time involved. Bates said once the city sells the urban renewal land it has almost no control over the project, when buildings will be constructed, for instance.

One reason that the Chernicks would be willing to go along with the new concept is that it lifts a heavy burden from the developer. As matters now stand the developer would have to pay $1.3 million or more cash on the line for the land.

This is because the urban renewal program is scheduled to be closed out in March. If the program were in or near its inception the developer would have up to seven years to pay the purchase price.

The heavy cash outlay is almost prohibitive, city planners feel. Not only does a single developer have to make a substantial outlay — which expectedly would tie up his ready cash for a long period — but he would be paying for something that may contain many dangers.

PROOF LACKING

At this point economic feasibility of the Pontiac plan is strongly suspected but definitive proof is lacking.

Bates and Findlay feel that the city can approach a new stance on the downtown situation because of the Pontiac plan. If it were not for the plan the city couldn't become the single developing agent, they say.

★ ★ ★

The plan, developed by Skelton and C. Don Davidson, architect and University of Detroit professor, can be adopted by the city officially they said, because right now it belongs only to those who developed it.

The city planners told city commissioners that if they feel the plan is desirable it could be officially adopted. The city would then spend money with recognizable economic authorities to determine definitely whether the plan is economically feasible. Findlay said there is money in the urban renewal project for such purposes but that it has not purposes but that t has not

DESIGN FUNDS AVAILABLE

Assuming that the economic feasibility is proved out, the city could then begin the job of completing design plans, again with fund projects that could be freed for this purpose.

Once design plans are completed on each major parcel the city could begin arrangements to sell the parcels. Bates said the city can sell the parcels one or more at a time.

★ ★ ★

Bates and Findlay feel that the city would not have great difficulty in securing investors who would be willing to construct buildings in the downtown area. The city has been approached by a number of firms or persons who want to handle one building at a time. This is in direct contrast with the dearth of persons willing to take on the whole project, which when completed would see the construction of about $100 million worth of new buildings.

The Pontiac Plan, as outlined by Davidson, calls for construction of three major office buildings, a convalescent home, a senior citizens housing building, high-rise apartment towers, a super motel, a number of small retail shops, a sports arena, a civic auditorium and a theater.

Quake Rocks Alaska but Damage Is Minor

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP) — A 20-second earthquake which shook stock from store shelves and sent people running into the streets jarred the Fairbanks area Tuesday.

There were no reports of injury nor major damage although the jolt knocked the needle off the University of Alaska seismograph five miles west of Fairbanks, and readings on instruments elsewhere ranged in intensity from 6.5 to 7 on the Richter scale.

By comparison, the devastating quake of 1964 in the Anchorage area registered 8.3. That one, the strongest recorded in North America, killed 113 persons and caused damage amounting to $311 million.

Mrs. John Coghill of nearby Nenana said Tuesday's quake was about as hard as the aftershock we got following the big earthquake in Anchorage in 1964."

'HIT QUITE HARD'

She said Tuesday's temblor hit Nenana "quite hard, and we had things knocked off shelves but as afr as I know, there weren't any windows broken or big damage."

★ ★ ★

Jack Townshend of the Coast and Geodetic Survey in Fairbanks, who has done research on Alaska quakes, said the lack of extensive damage from Tuesday's quake was because it was centered about 80 miles away at Baldry Mountain northwest of Fairbanks. He said the few villages nearest the quake center were at least 20 miles away.

★ ★ ★

The Alaska disaster office in Juneau said a radio check of the villages disclosed no injury nor major damage.

The Geophysical Institute at the university said the shaker struck at 12:16 p.m.—5:16 p.m. EST—and was the worst recorded in the state this year.

Area Man Dies in Auto Crash

A Highland Township man was killed early today when the car he was driving collided head-on with a tractor - trailer on M59 in White Lake Township.

Oakland County sheriff's deputies identified the victim as Dennis J. Szymanski, 23, of 3085 Cloverdale.

Investigators said he was killed instantly.

Thomas H. Snyder, 34, of New Philadelphia, Ohio, driver of the truck, said he was traveling east near Bogie Lake Road at about 50 miles per hour when Szymanski's vehicle approached.

MINOR INJURIES

Snyder was treated at Pontiac General Hospital and later released.

He is a driver for the Brada Miller Co., 124 Franklin Road.

Former Premier of Greece Is in Critical Condition

ATHENS (AP) — Former Premier George Papandreou was in critical condition today after suffering a series of intestinal hemorrhages during the night.

The veteran 80-year-old politician collapsed last Friday with hemorrhage from an ulcer. His condition improved and he was being given solid foods, but he took a turn for the worse about noon Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

A doctor at the Evengelismos Hospital said today that despite continuous blood transfusions, Papandreou remains on the critical list and his blood pressure is causing anxiety.

Papandreou and his son Andreas were the chief targets of the military coup 19 months ago. Andreas went into exile last January and his father was released from house arrest on Sept. 22

Pueblo incident. "It's time for a change when a fourth-class nation can seize a ship of ours on the high seas," he said.

Nixon concluded his speech saying, "There is nothing wrong with this nation that a good election won't cure."

ON CITY'S FRINGES

Nixon spent the earlier part of the day stumping around the fringes of Detroit. He even dropped in on hundreds of high school students in Dearborn, but had no microphone to permit him to speak.

★ ★ ★

He also visited a privately financed Negro job placement and counseling center, on the edge of the inner city hit by riots more than a year ago.

Panel Urges School Vote

The nine-mill increase would cost taxpayers $9 per $1,000 of assessed valuation annually. Cost to the average homeowner assessed at $8,000 (reportedly the average) would be $72 a year or about 20 cents a day, the committee pointed out.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Don O. Tatroe, schools superintendent, detailed some of the district's finance difficulties. For instance, the nine mills would provide only an extra $63 per pupil. However, in the neighboring Pontiac district, the same levy would bring more than twice that amount per pupil because Pontiac has $19,000 valuation for each pupil while Waterford has only $9,000.

Donald W. Porter, president of the school board, said he felt the "taxpayer revolt" of the last few years was over and expressed hope that the citizens could gain the necessary taxpayer support to put across the election. He pointed out millage requests in Avon and Pontiac districts had passed this year. Waterford's request for a millage renewal, but not an increase, passed in June.

SEPARATE ISSUE

The $10.8 million bond request would not entail a millage increase. Payment on the 30-year issue would come out of the present eight-mill debt retirement levy, it was explained.

The bonds would provide a new junior high and a new elementary school, additions to three elementaries, some remodeling and modifications, plus a storage warehouse.

There are some 230,000 beauty shops in the U.S.

Physicians estimate that each year in the United States some 60,000 children are willfully beaten, burned, smothered and starved by their parents.

The average fare on buses and subways in the U.S. was 20 cents in 1966. In 1945 it was seven cents.

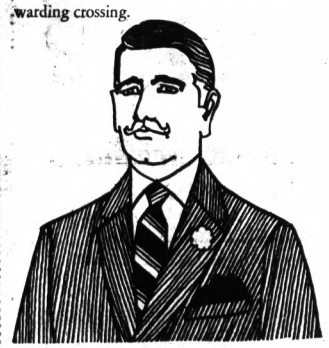
THE VERY BEST SERVICE POSSIBLE FRETTER'S

SIR ANDREW MILLINGTON-HACKETT (IMPORTS ADVISOR TO HHS) GOES TO GREAT LENGTHS TO BRING BACK THE LIVE ONES IN GREAT IDEAS FROM ABROAD.

Good Sir Andrew—crossing the great Atlantic and Pacific again and again in his never-ending quest for exciting imports. His is a job of pleasure, but it's not all that simple. For he carries with him attributes that are precious few these days: faultless taste, impeccable integrity, and a nose for value. Come journey around the page with Sir Andrew on this, his 68th rewarding crossing.



Taking a southwesterly turn from Laufenburg, Sir Andrew arrives at Berne. Here, in that cool and rainy capital, he runs into a handsome ten-rib telescopic umbrella, in black of course, at $13.

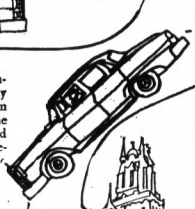
Heading east from Berne, our intrepid traveler journeys to Austria and the cultural hub of Europe—Vienna. Relaxing in his hotel with a finger of schnapps, Sir Andrew dons this Austrian terrycloth robe of pure cotton, in white or blue at $15

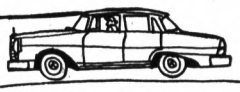
From Alt Wien, Sir Andrew travels over hill and dale (the Alps) to fun-loving Italy, for a look at an imitation ostrich billfold in a very smart slim-line design at $7.

Wending south from Munich, he comes upon one of the northernmost villages in Switzerland: Laufenburg. Strolling through Laufenburg's fine shops, he notices a cache of hand-rolled pure cotton handkerchiefs, available in three different cording designs, at three for 3.50.

Off again, and chuckling at his fortunate find, Sir Andrews stops on the way to Munich to shake the stiffness from his legs. Inspired pause, for here he spots these handsome manicure and brush sets with three useful implements, in a black or natural cowhide case, at $4.

The Italian port city of San Benedetto next beckons. Here, Sir Andrew observes Italian fishermen sporting Italian fisherman knit turtlenecks. His knowing eyes discern immediately that they are hand-knit wool, available in both turtle and mock-turtle styles, in a natural shade at $20.





First point of business abroad: renting an auto to take him about the cities, the towns, the backwoods, the byways. As always, Sir Andrew selects a simple black Mercedes 280 SE to reflect his simplicity of spirit

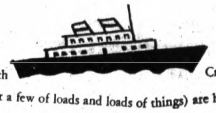
BLACK FOREST

From Italy to Spain—and its colorful capital, Madrid. Emerging from King Philip's palace, Sir Andrew catches sight of a pure wool six-button cardigan with contrasting cable trim and shirt-jack waist; in blue, gold or green at 27.50. Later, on the rainy plain, he spots this Spanish raincoat in a handsome shorter length, with leather trim and a button-out cashmere-wool lining at $65.

After a long day of traveling, Sir Andrew reaches Dortmund (home of famous Dortmunder beer) in Western Germany. He decides upon dinner at a conveniently out-of-the-way establishment, and — first stroke of luck — spots these hefty half-liter lidded steins, in regular or barrel shape, at $9 and $11

As the sun sets upon his happy journey, Sir Andrew wends his way at last to England, to see wot's woo in woolens. Holding true to tradition, the British triumph with a pure wool full-fashioned turtleneck in white, black, navy, bronze or grey, at $15 . . . and a longsleeved lambswool turtleneck with saddle shoulders, solid body and striped trim at $20

On to Zamora, close to the Portuguese border, for a brilliant encounter with a carriage coat of hefty cotton corduroy, with mouton collar, suede trim, and warming wool kicker; in a hearty brown shade; regulars at $50, longs at $55.



For Sir Andrew, the 68th Crossing has ended—but for you, it's just begun. For all the exciting things he found (what's shown here is just a few of loads and loads of things) are here now at HHS, just waiting for your discerning eye to find them.

You don't need lots of money to have a cheerful environment. The living room of the Mini-Budget Apartment, on display at the New York Coliseum, blazes with color. The hot pink of the carpet is unexpectedly combined with coral vinyl on the director's chairs and one bright yellow wall. A splashy black and white print covers the slab sofa.

Only Has Eyes for Him

Doesn't Like the Looks of Things

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a 21-year-old male and unattached, also a steady worker and mind my own business. My best friend is married, has a wife and baby and they live with HER people.

They have no transportation, so I visit them quite often. While I am there, I am in the company of her parents. Now for my problem: My friend's mother-in-law wrote to me declaring her "love" for me. Abby, I have never even looked sideways at this old lady and I don't know what gave her the idea that I could care for her.

ABBY

I hate to go to their house, again, knowing how she feels about me. But if I stay away, my buddy will wonder why.

Should I tell him about this? Or is there a better way to handle it?

INNOCENT VICTIM

DEAR VICTIM: Don't mention this to your buddy or his wife, and don't go to his house any more than is necessary. But when you do, be sure you continue to mind your own business and make sure you don't look at the old lady sideways or any other way.

If she pitches you again, tell her (quietly) to confine her "love" to her own husband.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem you wouldn't believe. I am 16 years old, and for as long as I can remember I haven't done anything without cheating. I have also stolen all my life. I started when I was little, taking small things from my friends. I have even shoplifted and stolen money just to get away with something.

★ ★ ★

I've never been caught. I guess I'm just lucky, or maybe I'm good at it from so much experience. I am also a terrible liar. I lie just to get people to listen to me. I don't have any friends, but I'd like at least one good friend. I'm always trying to impress people, but I just end up making a fool of myself.

★ ★ ★

I'd like to be a good person but I don't have the willpower. I need some help before it's too late, if it's not too late already. So, Dear Abby, what can you do for a 16-year-old failure?

A FAILURE

★ ★ ★

DEAR FAILURE: No one who knows his faults as well as you know yours can be considered a "failure." Furthermore, you are realistic enough to blame nobody but yourself for your weaknesses, smart enough to know that you lie because you want to attract attention, and sufficiently honest to admit that you want friends.

★ ★ ★

If there is a school counselor or psychologist, make tracks for that office. If not, tell your parents you'd like to see a professional about some "personal emotional" problems. If you get the help you need, I'll put my chips on you!

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I am sick to death of hearing widows complain because people call them MRS. JANE DOE instead of the more proper MRS. JOHN DOE.

I'm a widow, and I couldn't care less what people call me—as long as they CALL me. LONESOME IN L. A.

★ ★ ★

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, c/o The Pontiac Press, Dept. E-600, P.O. Box 9, Pontiac, Mich. 48056 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Picasso Friend Schedules Talk

The Bloomfield Art Association will present "An Evening With Francoise Gilot", a world famous personality, on Tuesday evening.

Madame Gilot is a painter and lithographer who spent ten formative years as a close companion of Pablo Picasso, possibly the greatest painter this era has produced, certainly the greatest innovator of the French Moderns.

The subject of Madame Gilot's talk will be "Picasso as a Teacher" describing his influence on her development as a painter.

★ ★ ★

Madame Gilot has come to America to give a talk at the opening of the major French Exhibition of paintings at the Detroit Institute of Arts, late in November.

The Bloomfield Art Association was able to arrange for this special program for its membership. However, the importance of the speaker suggested opening the 8:30 p.m. event to the public. Tickets are available at the Bloomfield Art Association at $2 for non-members.

Mrs. Richard Nixon and Mrs. George Romney listen intently to presidential candidate Richard Nixon who spoke Tuesday at the Raleigh House in Southfield. In the background is Donald E. Bishop of Rochester.

Mrs. John Lindsay, wife of the mayor of New York City, chats with a youngster in the Mini-Budget Apartment. This low-cost demonstration apartment is durable and child-proof.

Show Budget Furnishing, Design of 5-Room Interior

A five-room apartment, furnished on a budget that would barely cover the cost of a living room sofa for the affluent, was on view at the Total Home Showcase, a home furnishings and interior design exposition held recently at the New York Coliseum. Emily Malino Associates, a leading interior design firm, decorated the attractive interior for under $800.

★ ★ ★

Miss Malino's inventive use of color, combined with inexpensive, practical materials, is carried through the Mini-Budget Apartment. Her choice of vermilion Naugahyde vinyl fabric on the directors' chairs and multi-purpose storage cubes is in keeping with the budget as well as the durable, child-proof requirements of the apartment.

★ ★ ★

The Mini-Budget Apartment was "created in cooperation with the Model Cities Committee, the New York City Planning Commission and the New York Public Housing Authority.

★ ★ ★

Although the people who live in projects spend most of their time looking at the inside, public housing planners are more concerned with what the building exteriors and grounds look like, Commissioner Elinor Guggenheimer of the New York City Planning Commission has pointed out. A cheerful, comfortably furnished apartment may not be a panacea for the poor, but by adding dignity to home life, it can make their problems more bearable, the experts agree.

SPONSORS

Uniroyal, Inc., who manufactures Naugahyde and other home furnishings products, is one of the cosponsors of the Mini-Budget, (along with Bankers Trust Company, Monsanto Chemical, Pittsburgh Plate Glass, and The Crane Company). Uniroyal became interested in the project as a way to demonstrate what can be done inexpensively with available home furnishings products.

The three-bedroom Mini-Budget Apartment, designed for a family of six: parents, Gloria and Enrique Rodriguez, two young sons, Pepe 7, Juanito 5, and their two older sisters, Gloria 14, and Soledad, 12, is a typical public housing unit, copied from one in Brooklyn's Bedford-Stuyvesant area.

Working within a mere $800 budget, Emily Malino has used paint, inexpensive fabrics, low-priced but durable furniture, and some imaginative decorative effects to provide a model apartment that a disadvantaged family could take great pride and comfort in.

Miss Malino admits that it took ingenuity and hours of serious shopping to furnish the five rooms. Since the Mini-Budget Apartment is to be exhibited later in various Model Cities areas, only products nationally available in retail stores were chosen. Furniture and fabrics had to be sturdy and easy to clean as well as attractive and inexpensive.

A Real Insult to Relatives in This Case

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: I am going to have my bar mitzvah shortly. My mother sent out an invitation to my aunt and uncle who have a 14-year-old bore of a son, whom we didn't invite. On the reply card his name was included as coming.

★ ★ ★

I think this is very impolite and I would like your advice on telling my aunt she is wrong and her son is not wanted at my bar mitzvah.—Joel

★ ★ ★

Dear Joel: Although I don't approve of relatives including uninvited members of their family in acceptances, I think you are the most at fault. Whether you particularly like your cousin or not, it was a real insult to him, and to your aunt and uncle, to leave him out.

★ ★ ★

You are old enough to be able to disguise your feelings enough to maintain pleasant family relationships.

PARTIES COMBINED

Dear Mrs. Post: If my boy friend and I announce our engagement at my graduation party, would it be proper to have an engagement party some time after? I feel it might be asking too much.—Lee

★ ★ ★

Dear Lee: You're right — it would be too much. Don't announce your engagement at the graduation party; have two separate parties. Or make the graduation party a "combination" by announcing the engagement then. But don't do both.

EXPENSES

Dear Mrs. Post: As a college sophomore I have attended weekend functions and proms at other colleges with young men as my hosts. I understand the girl is expected to pay her traveling expenses and the boy the hotel, prom and other expenses. Is that correct?—Bea

★ ★ ★

Dear Bea: Yes, absolutely. You should pay all travel expenses — your date pays for everything else.

New Manager Is Busy Working at Hunt Club

By SHIRLEY GRAY

Bloomfield Open Hunt has a new manager — Richard Fellows, recently of Haverhill, Mass., where he managed the Haverhill Golf and Country Club. Here with him are his wife Sandra and their three children, aged two to nine.

The new manager, already hard at work, is an MSU graduate and has twice hosted the Boston Debutante Ball.

It was a little dinner party for six last Saturday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Warren B. Cooksey.

The four guests were Dr. and Mrs. Sylvester Trythall of Orchard Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Conder of Grosse Pointe.

After dinner, the Cookseys showed slides taken during their travels, especially from that memorable two-month trip to the Orient in March and April.

CLOSE LITTLE HOUSE

The Cookseys will go up north briefly late this week, to close the little "grandma and grandpa" house at their Au Sable tree farm. The "big house," used by the Cooksey children and grandchildren, will stay open the winter long, serving as a base for skiing and skating expeditions, per usual.

★ ★ ★

It was SRO at the Birmingham Community House last week when Mrs. Hubert Humphrey came to tea.

★ ★ ★

"We ran out of chairs, there was such a crowd," said Mrs. Homer Sington, torn between complaining and exulting.

Coral Sington, of Bloomfield Hills, is cochairman of the Oakland County committee for Humphrey-Muskie teas.

★ ★ ★

"Mrs. Humphrey is much more attractive, more youthful-appearing than she seems in her pictures," says Coral. "She was serene and unrushed, in spite of the heavy schedule she was on."

Religious Text, Topic for Great Books Club

Waterford Great Books Group will meet Friday at 8 p.m. in the CAI building on Williams Lake Road.

★ ★ ★

Wilbur Ott of Union Lake will lead the discussion of the "Bhagavad-Gita," the Song of God, sacred Hindu text, thought to have been written between the fifth and second centuries, B. C.

The meeting is open to any interested person.

SNOWBALLS

The handsome snowball shrub is of the honeysuckle family, believe it or not. The large round ball-shaped white flowers make each bush seem like something artificial.

The cultivated ones in our country bear no fruit, but the plants in their native Holland have juicy red berries, and they are known as the European cranberry bush.

We would like to take this opportunity to say to the readers of this column that we enjoy serving you. We love the florist business, or we wouldn't be in it. We take pride in our flowers, and make every effort to show our pride in the arrangements we prepare.

Case No. G-573

Your Choice Is Showing

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE G-573: Virginia S., aged 28, is irate.

"Dr. Crane," she said, "I've read your column for 10 years and have slowly built up a terrible resentment.

DR. CRANE

"In fact, I'm just plain mad at all your male - slanted wisdoms!

"Your column just makes men more egotistical and harder for us wives to live with them.

"Must a wife always be at her husband's beck and call?

"Must she run when he crooks his finger lest (horrors!) some siren may latch onto her thwarted, erotically hungry male?

"Dr. Crane, why don't you shove some of the responsibility for maintaining a happy home, upon your own sex!

"You're still in a cave!"

CAVE MAN

Virginia is a clever wife and I wish to praise both her spunk as well as her shrewd criticisms.

But, wives, regardless of whether you live in a swanky pent house, city apartment or suburban cottage, men still have the very same basic hungers as in the days of the cave men!

Jet planes, television, modern surgery and all the other miracles of recent invention still don't change a man's inner appetites!

He still wants his three square meals per day at the dinner table.

And he still craves his extra ration of erotic calories in the boudoir.

The big complicating element in modern marriage is merely the fact that monogamy now requires that you wives take the place of the four mates he could have in his prehistoric cave boudoir!

Man hasn't changed in his two basic hungers, namely, gastric and erotic, except for the demasculinizing effect of tobacco and drugs.

But you wives face a radically different 20th century marital state.

First, your meals are easy to prepare and even pre-cooked, as per the TV dinners.

That simplifies your problems greatly.

But monogamy complicates them by yoking you with a male whose primitive desire for four wives is still ever-present.

* * *

That's why we warn you repeatedly that divorces start in the bedroom, not the kitchen, living room or nursery!

Why don't you women stick together and prepare your sons for being the right kind of husband in the next generation?

Young Seamstresses Challenged

Mrs. Huntoon's district includes Lapeer, Macomb, St. Clair, Oakland, and Wayne counties.

* * *

The girls in District Five will model their wool garments at a style show, date and location to be announced later.

* * *

The junior and senior winner of each district competition in Michigan will model their garments at the State Competition on Dec. 7 at the Union Building, Michigan State University.

The State winner will travel to San Francisco, Calif., for the national finals which will be held Jan. 16.

Scholarships, savings bonds, sewing machines, luggage, electric scrissors, cosmetics, wool, wardrobes in yardage, wardrobes of gloves, accessory items, hose, jewelry, magazine subscriptions, sewing aids and sewing books are offered on the district, state, and national levels. These awards are sponsored by 33 national companies and The Michigan Sheep Breeders' Association, the Michigan Sheep Shearers' Association, the Michigan Shropshire Association and Michigan Sponsors.

Mrs. Huntoon is the contact for any girl between the ages of 10 and 21 who is interested in entering the contest.

Pop Concerts by Symphony Slated Again

Arthur Fiedler, America's "Mr. Pops," will conduct the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's Cabaret "Pops" Concerts for the third consecutive year.

Fiedler, conductor of the Boston Pops Orchestra since 1930, will conduct all eight concerts in the series, scheduled for April at the Detroit Light Guard Armory.

Music by candlelight, nightclub-style seating at tables for four, and light refreshments and cocktails are part of the informal atmosphere of the concerts.

The "Pops" programs will follow the highly successful Fiedler pattern — a selection of symphonic classics, a guest soloist, and a group of popular tunes in full symphonic arrangement. A typical program might include works by Bach and by the Beatles.

* * *

Fiedler, now 73, is a native of Boston. He joined the Boston Symphony at age 20, later organizing the Boston Sinfonetta, a chamber orchestra composed of colleagues. He launched the popular outdoor Esplanade Concerts in 1929 and was appointed conductor of the Pops Orchestra the next year.

The Cabaret concerts have been especially successful as fund-raising or entertainment projects for Detroit-area organizations and convention groups. More information is available at the Symphony office.

* * *

Dates of the performances are April 16, 17, 18, 19, 23, 24, 25, and 26. Tickets will be available for public sale on March 5, but arrangements for groups of 100 or more are being made now.

Annual Dinner

The annual harvest dinner sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Service of Trinity United Methodist Church will be held Friday at 5 p.m. in the church. This event is open to the public.

Late January vows are planned by Carrie L. Edwards and Robert A. Grayhek. Parents of the bride elect are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Edwards of Conklin Street, Orion Township. Her fiance is the son of Mrs. Donna Grayhek of Baldwin Street.

What drives me to despair is that I do not know how to effectively file all this material so that I can remember and find what I have. Please help.—GERMAINE

DEAR POLLY — Today my hot water heater went. I took my laundry to a good neighbor's house in a pillowcase. In the bottom I put the required amount of detergent and water-softening powder. Girls who go to the self-service laundries could do this and save themselves the trouble of carrying separate containers. Powdered bleach could be put in, too. Be sure to put the detergent, etc., into the pillowcase first or it will spill when you start taking the things out to put in the machine. When the pillowcase is almost empty, just dump in the rest with the powders.

OU Gallery Opens Its Door

Oakland University's Art Gallery will open its doors for the first time this year on Friday, featuring a one-man showing of the geometric sculptures and drawings of Ted Knerr, contemporary New York artist. Refreshments will be served at the 3 p.m. opening.

Knerr, who teaches sculpture at the Philadephia College of Art, holds a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Pennsylvania and a master's degree in industrial design from Pratt Institute. He studied sculpture at Temple University's Tyler School of Fine Art in Philadelphia.

★ ★ ★

Gallery hours are 12:30 to 4:30 p.m. Tuesday through Sunday (closed on Mondays). The exhibition, which will continue through Dec. 7, also will include several pieces of African art selected from the University's collection.

Eye Bath Habits

According to a national survey of homemakers and working women, over 90 per cent make it a habit to take a daily bath or shower. Fortyeight per cent prefer tub baths while 27 per cent go for a shower. The remainder enjoy both according to season — baths in winter, showers in summer.

Choose New Style Fads Wisely

It should not need saying that all new style fads aren't suited to everyone. The wise woman has the courage to try what's new and the discretion to reject it if it's not for her.

SEW SIMPLE

By Eunice Farmer

Dear Eunice Farmer,

Will you please tell your readers how to make the thick, rolled, padded hems and the rolled look repeated at the neckline on many high fashion dresses?

I have seen this look on sleeves and pockets as well. Yet, I haven't seen a single pattern with this detail.

Mrs. J. P.

Dear Mrs. J. P.:

This rolled effect is used by many designers and is often referred to as the wedding ring detail because it resembles a ring with its thick, rounded effect.

If you can't find the cording at your fabric shop, you may have to search the drapery departments. This very thick cording is used more for the corded effect in draperies and home furnishings than it is in ready-to-wear.

★ ★ ★

Cut a bias strip of your fabric, about four inches wide. Using your zipper foot, you must fold the fabric, right side out, over the cording and machine stitch as close to the cord as possible. Be sure to keep both edges of the fabric even as you stitch or you will have diagonal folds in the covered cording.

Trim the excess fabric ⅝-inch from the stitching line. Next, place the stitching line of the cording on the seam line, pin in place and stitch with the zipper foot again, exactly on the original stitching line.

Next, place the facing over this corning that has been stitched to the garment, pin firmly and restitch from the wrong side of your garment to insure stitching on the correct line.

★ ★ ★

It's not too early to start thinking about Christmas gifts especially if you are one who enjoys sewing for those you wish to remember during the holidays. I have collected some boutique gifts you can make quickly and many of these items can be made from sewing scraps.

★ ★ ★

My new booklet "Boutique Gifts" has complete directions for making a variety of gifts. Included in my booklet are directions on how to make smoke rings, a cover-up poncho, wall hangings, and a glamorous caftan. These are just a few of the gifts to make. If you would like a copy, send 25 cents and a long stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Eunice Farmer in care of this newspaper.

TAILOR TRIX WINNER

Mrs. Charles E. Bailey, Altoona, Iowa is this week's Tailor Trix pressing board winner for her following suggestion.

"I am rather new in the craft of sewing and am experimenting with new kinds of fabrics all of the time. My latest venture was the new leather-like material. After several hours of trying to get a correct stitch, my husband got into the dilemma and suggested that I place a piece of waxed paper between the material and the pressure foot. It works beautifully. The stitches are even because the material is sliding under the pressure foot.

"Just cut several strips of the regular kitchen waxed paper 2 inches wide and place them under your material with the edges even; works great!"

Consult Expert on Quantity of Paint

If you're new at home painting you can rely on the man in the paint store to tell you the right amounts of paint you will need. Make a rough sketch of the room, noting any windows, the height of the ceiling and with the measurements he will be able to tell you the correct amount of paint you will need.

'America Hurrah' at OCC

"America Hurrah," Jean-Claude van Itallie's evening of three one-act plays, will be the third attraction of Oakland Community College's Contrast Series at 8:30 p.m., Monday at Oak Park High School, Coolidge at 9½ Mile Road.

"America Hurrah" has been described by the noted Boston critic Kelvin Kelly as a "Hurricane of horror (which) satirizes contemporary society, American style, with the force of a whirlwind vision."

'INTERVIEW'

The first play, "Interview," is a bleak Kafka-esque nightmare in which anonymous persons are interviewed by an equally anonymous board seeking to determine their qualifications for various jobs.

The other two plays on the bill are entitled "TV" and "Motel" and the author, a young Belgian-born American citizen, extends his inescapable, satirical tirade into these plays as well.

OFF-BROADWAY

"America Hurrah" is one of the longest running off-Broadway productions for a non-musical play in theatrical history. It played New York's Pocket Theatre for 18 months and simultaneously in London for eight weeks.

Tickets may be obtained at J. L. Hudson's, Grinnell's, and OCC campus ticket offices.

Musicians Will Present Works by Venetian Artist

A desire to recreate the 400-year-old sounds and melodies of concerts at the Venetian Doge's Palace or entertainments at the Ca' d' Oro motivated "I Madrigalisti di Venezia."

This unique group of three singers and seven instrumentalists, directed by Gabriele Bellini, will present a program dominated by the music of Claudio Monteverdi at 8:30 p.m. Friday, in the Detroit Institute of Arts Concert Series.

★ ★ ★

Monteverdi lived and composed in Venice for much of his life (1567-1643) as chapel master of St. Mark's Basilica.

The "Madrigalisti" recreate the authentic style of presentation as well as the sound. This goal required extensive research to create instruments approximating those used in the 15th and 16th centuries, as well as study of vocal intonations, accents and phrasings from ancient manuscripts.

Some of the group's precious instruments were destroyed or damaged by the Italian floods of November, 1966. Now all the instruments have been repaired or replaced and their much coveted sound and color has been restored.

★ ★ ★

The single performance of "I Madrigalisti Di Venezia" will be in the Art Institute auditorium. Tickets for their concert are available at the Art Institute Ticket Office, Grinnell's and J. L. Hudson Ticket Services.

Jewels Need Monthly Bath

Jewelry, no matter how expensive, can lose some of its beauty if not cared for properly. Most important is keeping it clean, and the method used depends on the type of jewelry involved.

★ ★ ★

For example, a diamond that is worn every day should be cleaned once a month. To do this, fill a cup with hot water, add a half-cap of baby shampoo and a dash of ammonia.

Using an old eyebrow brush or toothbrush and a cotton swab, gently rub it clean.

★ ★ ★

This mixture can also be used for costume jewelry, but the water should be lukewarm rather than hot. This avoids the chance of breaking simulated gems, such as rhinestones.

Take care not to soak too long or settings may become loosened.

To combat dandruff, brush your hair daily, shampoo at least twice a week with a good dandruff - fighting shampoo and keep combs and brushes scrupulously clean.

Oil Minimizes Skin Tautness

One of the beauty pitfalls of mothers-to-be is the dry taut skin of the abdomen as it stretches to accommodate the tenant. Eliminating the uncomfortble itchy feeling and keeping skin soft is as easy as borrowing baby's oil.

During applications of baby oil during pregnancy and after baby arrives will soften the skin and minimize your concern about stretch marks.

Americans in Viet See No Quick Palatable Solution

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Vietnam has been the leading foreign affairs issue in the U.S. political campaign. Sometimes the flood of words has tended to submerge the situation that actually exists in Southeast Asia. This analysis is designed to bring Vietnam into focus.)

By GEORGE McARTHUR

SAIGON (AP) — If there is one agreement among American officials in Vietnam, it is that no U.S. president can quickly or neatly win the war or gain a palatable peace.

The new president will find the intricacies of Vietnam impossible of quick solution.

★ ★ ★

During the U.S. presidential campaign and negotiations in Paris, officials in Vietnam have done much soul searching.

What emerges is the feeling that the military corner has been turned. The toughest battles, paradoxically, are still to come.

A TOKEN REDUCTION?

Some see the possibility of token American troop reduction — perhaps an initial 5,000 men — early next year. But no one will name a date when the army of South Vietnam might stand alone.

Few officials hope for much from Paris in the immediate future. A bombing halt, in the opinion of many, might stiffen Hanoi's attitudes.

★ ★ ★

The U.S. commander in Vietnam, Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, works on the assumption the Communist command is planning one more big offensive. The idea that the current battlefield lull represents de-escalation by Hanoi is scoffed at — except by some European diplomats in Saigon.

A ranking general said: "We came over here to do a job and we're spending a tremendous amount of our country's wealth. My biggest concern is whether we have the patience and the perseverance to get the job done. I believe we must."

OLD PROBLEMS REMAIN

A civilian official who has never reflected Washington's frequent optimism points out that all the old problems — nepotism, corruption, inefficiency, bribery, desertions — are still here. And relative success is creating new problems as South Vietnam's fragile political structure grows. At the same time, he feels enemy strength is at low ebb, and fewer than 15 per cent of the South Vietnamese now actively support the Vietcong.

★ ★ ★

Adding these pluses and minuses is the name of the game in Vietnam. The most favorable balance sheet appears to be on the battlefield.

Allied armies are sweeping and patrolling as never before — and the enemy refuses battle. High-altitude B52s rain bombs daily on enemy sanctuaries and routes. Jets, helicopters and artillery give allied forces a battlefield punch unmatched in history.

News Analysis

Since the first of this year, U.S. figures claim 166,200 enemy have died on the battlefield — against losses of 13,000 American dead and 13,600 South Vietnamese killed.

TAKE TOLL

Most enemy losses came in successively weaker offensives of February, May and August. These losses account for the lull in the fighting, U.S. intelligence says. The enemy had to pull back and replenish his forces. U.S. military say that the fact this paralleled the Paris peace talks was coincidental.

★ ★ ★

The U.S. command is little swayed by reports the enemy has pulled five divisions — and some say seven — out of Vietnam and into Cambodia and Laos. These troops are within half a night's march of allied outposts.

Tay Ninh province northwest of Saigon and hard by Cambodia is an example. The Communist command has the 1st and 7th Division astride the border. The 5th Division is the only one of four in the area that is actually in Vietnam. But all four divisions are being prepared for another thrust at Saigon, intelligence officers claim.

MANPOWER REPLACED

The U.S. and South Vietnamese believe that infiltration — running at 30,000 monthly in August and 20,000 since then — has largely made up the enemy's manpower losses earlier in the year.

It is believed the enemy can field perhaps 220,000 men. In main force combat battalions, 75 per cent of these are North Vietnamese regulars.

★ ★ ★

Losses in enemy leadership have damaged him severely. The so-called offensive in August reflected this. Some attacks were foolish and some foolhardy.

The U.S. command believes enemy losses will be still more staggering if another offensive comes — even though it would achieve some successes.

CONFIDENCE IN ARVN

The Americans profess confidence the South Vietnamese army will stand up well to any new offensive.

Everyone seems to agree the strengthening of the army of the Republic of Vietnam — abbreviated to ARVN and pronounced Arven by the GI — is the most hopeful way to "de-Americanize" the war.

★ ★ ★

On paper, the buildup is doing well. All maneuver battalions of the regular army have new U.S. M16 rifles now being given militia forces.

The military, militia and police forces now number about 825,000 men and the goal is one million by the end of the year.

DESERTION REMAINS

The desertion rate remains a serious problem, and the actual number of men under arms is questionable. Some militia commanders sell enrollments — the recipient pays for his military status, kicks back his pay and dodges the draft.

But ARVN ills are rooted in politics. Top appointments remain political. The worst divisions are around Saigon. The best divisions are the farthest from Saigon.

★ ★ ★

Defense of Saigon, Da Nang and Hue — the nation's three biggest cities — remains largely in American hands.

★ ★ ★

However, ARVN, and particularly the militia forces, have shown increasing effectiveness in pacification of the countryside.

But critics say "This isn't pacification, it's occupation," says one. "While the troops are there, everything is fine. Pull the troops out and everything goes down the drain."

Ultimately this security must depend on the political structure of South Vietnam — a fragile thing gaining strength slowly.

★ ★ ★

The elected Senate and National Assembly have done little but junket and bicker since they took office.

American officials point out, perhaps correctly, that these things take time and outsiders are prone to judge the South Vietnamese too harshly and by the wrong standards.

Knowledgeable Vietnamese, however, judge themselves just as harshly. Looking back on the battle of Hue, one college professor noted:

★ ★ ★

"We are fighting the North Vietnamese, the Americans and ourselves. We lost mostly because we were fighting ourselves."

Hubert's Campaign Has Its Little Notes

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — In political campaigns, details are important.

The big limousine used by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey was waiting at Philadelphia's International Airport Tuesday afternoon when the Democratic presidential nominee flew in from Allentown.

★ ★ ★

On the back seat lay Humphrey's gray topcoat, neatly pressed. On the collar was pinned a sheet of paper on which was written, "There's a note inside the pocket. Mrs. H."

Detroit Living Cost Up; Still Trails Average

DETROIT (AP) — The cost of living in Detroit rose more than twice the national average in September. But despite the increase from August, living costs in Detroit still remained slightly below the national average.

The cost of living from August to September jumped 0.5 per cent in Detroit while the national average increase was 0.2 per cent.

★ ★ ★

The Labor Department said the national cost of living increase in September was the lowest for any month this year.

The department said that prices in Detroit have risen 5.1 per cent within the last year.

The big increase in Detroit was in clothing, with men's and boy's clothing increased by 2.4 per cent and women's and girls clothing up by 2.5 per cent.

★ ★ ★

Increased property taxes and repair costs were mostly responsible for a one per cent hike in housing cost.

Food prices in Detroit generally were the same. An exception was the price of eggs, from 53 cents a dozen in August to 62 cents in September.

County Call: 178 Draftees for December

Oakland County draft boards will provide 178 of Michigan's 1,331 registrants ticketed for induction into the Army and Marine Corps in December.

Of these, 87 men will come from Pontiac's three boards. Royal Oak boards will induct the remainder.

★ ★ ★

Board 331 will call 25 men; board 65, six; and board 67, 56.

The national call will be 17,500 men, including 2,500 for the Marine Corps.

CONSIDERATION

Col. Arthur A. Holmes, state Selective Service director, said that all inductions will be completed by the middle of December to avoid the holiday period.

Army draftees inducted through Dec. 10 may be offered Christmas leave following a short training period. However, registrants called into the Marine Corps will receive no Christmas leave.

'69 Chevelle SS 396 Sport Coupe

If the '69 Chevelle can't do it, don't try it.

There are mid-size cars that overwhelm you with words, then underwhelm you in performance.

Not Chevelle.

It handles precisely. Grips the road forcefully. Moves with authority.

In Chevelle's SS 396 form, you seem to move from here . . . . . to there, like that. One '69 reason is the newly available chambered pipe dual exhaust system. This low restriction system helps develop more usable power and eliminates regular type mufflers.

Couple that with other standard SS items like the exclusive Turbo-Jet 396 V8, fat F70 x 14 tires on new sport wheels with wider 7-inch rims, and power disc brakes.

Now you have the concentrated Chevrolet that some of our engineers say is the nearly perfect machine.

If you're in the mood for SS'ing there's more good news: The Chevelle SS 396 package is available on four models in 1969—convertible, two sport coupes, and a pillared coupe.

See your Chevrolet dealer. Try a Chevelle. Tackle a hill or take on some curves.

You'll be an instant believer.

Putting you first, keeps us first.

Queen's Visit to Latins Seen as Trade Aid

LONDON (AP) — Britain is sending its best salesman into the setting sun next week, westward to Latin America where some economists conclude there are many untapped wells of trade.

The "salesman" is only 5 feet 4 and is blessed with lovely gray eyes and a straight, slim figure, although slightly pigeon-toed.

She is Queen Elizabeth II.

The queen will be making a state visit to Brazil and Chile, the first time a reigning British monarch has set foot on Latin American soil.

TRADE RELATIONS

There is little doubt among British businessmen how valuable the state visit can—and probably will—be. The tycoons of trade and money are convinced that the queen will arouse Latin enthusiasm and from that will evolve the cold, beautiful facts of mutual trade.

Buckingham Palace officials say the visit is "to demonstrate the excellent relations that exist between Britain on the one hand and Brazil and Chile on the other."

* * *

Behind the pomp and ceremony, however, there is the background of a Britain struggling to put its foreign trade into the black and make sterling devaluation work.

In Brazil and Chile, excitement is mounting. Social columns there are full of news about the visit, and invitations to parties in honor of Elizabeth are the most sought-after status symbols.

PROTOCOL PROBLEMS

With a strictly limited guest list to work from, the queen's hosts have a king-sized problem on their hands. A typical predicament is that of Nilo Coelho, governor of the Brazilian state of Pernambuco. He is to be host at a reception during the queen's three-hour stopover at Recife.

Coelho noted there was room for 150 guests, including 75 members of the British colony.

* * *

"Can you imagine having to pick out 75 people out of the hundreds would would like to be invited?" he asked.

This problem also confronts the queen's hosts in Salvador, Rio de Janeiro, Sao Paulo and Brasilia, the other cities she will visit in Brazil.

BUSY WEEK

The situation is the same in Chile, where the queen will fly Nov. 11 for another seven days crammed with social engagements.

She is scheduled to arrive in Recife Nov. 1 by Royal Air Force VC10 jet. Her husband, Prince Philip, will arrive shortly before her from the Olympic Games in Mexico City.

The royal party, made up of 40 members of the court, will sail from Recife south to Rio de Janeiro on the royal yacht Britannia.

The queen is going to Chile to return a state visit to London in 1965 by President Eduardo Frei.

CAREFUL CHOICE

The choice of Brazil, however, is regarded as especially significant because no Brazilian head of state has ever visited Britain officially. The queen almost will certainly invite President Arturo Costa e Silva to come to Britain.

For several months the British press has been drawing attention to Brazil as "the awakening giant," not only of Latin America but of the world.

The Financial Times, British business daily, forecast that with all its untapped potential, Brazil may one day outstrip the United States in economic strength.

Knowledgeable British businessmen have seen this market being infiltrated by Americans, Japanese, West Germans and Italians. They are eager to get in before it is too late.

Vassar to Admit Male Students

POUGHKEEPSIE, N.Y. (AP) — Vassar College has announced plans to admit male students beginning in September 1970 with the ultimate aim of having men make up 50 per cent of its enrollment.

Alan Simpson, president of the women's college, made the disclosure Monday in a letter to some 21,000 alumnae. He said enrollment would be expanded from 1,500 to 2,400.

Mexican Food Getting Hotter in U.S.

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Just as Expo 67 made people in this country more conscious of Canada, the 1968 summer Olympic Games have heightened our awareness of Mexico.

Evidence of this can be seen in the mushrooming popularity of Mexican food.

WEST

This time last year you could have hunted all day in the suburban area where I reside without sighting a single enchilada. Now you can get your bag limit in 10 minutes.

Mexican restaurants and carry-out shops are springing up all over the neighborhood, and some of my more adventurous neighbors have started whipping up Mexican dishes at home.

NEW TYPE SNOB

Predictably, the result has been the development of a new type of snob — the Mexican food connoisseur.

Perhaps you know someone who enjoys impressing you with his knowledge of French wines. If so, you have a good idea of how Mexican food connoisseurs operate.

★ ★ ★

In my neighborhood, a Mexican food connoisseur is anyone who has eaten Mexican food twice. I'll give you an example.

Under a caption reading "Mexican cooking is in," a local kitchenware dealer recently ran an advertisement boasting that "we're first in Washington to import tortilla presses."

NEIGHBOR DISDAINFUL

I showed the ad to one of my neighbors, thinking I had hit upon a new status symbol. But he was disdainful.

"I suppose they are okay if you are in a hurry or if you really don't care what you eat," he said, "but I wouldn't dream of making tortillas with a mechanical press."

★ ★ ★

"How do you make them?" I asked, already sorry I had introduced the subject.

"I mash the juice out by stomping them with my bare feet," he said. "It's the only way to get exactly the right texture."

A few evenings later a neighboring couple invited my wife and me to their house for a Mexican dinner. When the tacos were served, I asked if they were the frozen variety.

"Frozen?" the host gasped. "Heavens no. I picked these myself not two hours ago. If tacos stand for more than two hours after they are picked, they lose 90 per cent of their flavor."

★ ★ ★

On our way home, my wife mentioned that she had borrowed the hostess' recipe for chalupas.

"What's a chalupa?" I asked.

"I don't know," she said, "but if you can trap one, I'll try to cook it."

Roads Are Busier

LANSING (AP) — Michigan motorists logged an estimated 12.61 billion vehicle miles of travel on state highways during the months of June, July and August, an increase of nearly six per cent over the same months the previous year, the State Highway Department reports. Travel in Michigan through August was up 6.6 per cent over last year.

Body Recovered

CASEVILLE (AP) — The body of 47-year-old Clarence Archambault of Saginaw washed ashore Tuesday near Caseville in Huron County. Archambault was reported missing and presumed drowned last month in Saginaw Bay.

The demand for fertilizer in the United States will not catch up with capacity until 1970.

Fall Harvest Progresses in State

LANSING (AP) — Intermittent showers failed to dampen fall crops harvest operations during the past weeks, as four days were considered suitable for field work, says the State Crop Reporting Service.

★ ★ ★

Soil moisture supplies were considered adequate to surplus through most of the state, although a few localities in the Thumb Area continued to have deficit moisture supplies.

★ ★ ★

Wet fields have hindred potato to harvest in the northern part of the state, the service reports, but some 90 per cent of the potato crop has been harvested.

Dry field bean harvest is nearly complete, and harvest of corn for grain is nearing the one-quarter mark, about nine days ahead of the 1967 mark.

SOYBEAN HARVEST

Harvest of soybeans — best since 1962—is nearing the four-fifths point, the service says, although some of the crop still has a higher moisture content than growers would like.

Sugar beet harvest is two-thirds complete, and apple harvest is nearly finished, with many growers applying a top dressing of fertilizer in their orchards.

★ ★ ★

The service reports that some silo filling continued through the week and growers also continued with fall plowing operations.

Some were planting cover crops in harvested corn fields while others were tilling fields and cleaning drainage ditches.

Bond Plan Fought

EAST LANSING (AP)—Julian Bond, leader of Georgia's Loyal Democrat delegation to the recent Democratic National Convention, is to address Michigan State University students Friday. Bond, who will appear on a student-sponsored lecture series, was elected to the Georgia House of Representatives in 1965, but was prevented from taking office by legislators who objected to his statements on the Vietnam war. The U.S. Supreme Court ruled that he should be seated.

Soup Chases Fall Chill

By JANET ODELL
Food Editor, The Pontiac Press

This is soup weather. When the children rush in at noon, give them a soup and sandwich lunch.

After a weekend morning of outdoor chores, big bowls of hot soup, the family's favorite muffins and fruit make a fine meal.

Before dinner, give everyone a cup of soup to titillate the apptetite and, at the same time, soothe the pangs of hunger.

★ ★ ★

While I am the last to ignore the great array of fine canned soups (I couldn't cook without them), I think there are times when homemade soup is called for.

QUICK-COOKING

Hunter's Hearty Soup can be ready in 35 minutes. Make enough so that you can serve it for dinner and still have plenty to reheat.

Part of what's left over can go to schiol in the lunch box. The rest gets saved for your husband's hunting trip on Saturday, again sent in a vacuum bottle.

HUNTER'S HEARTY SOUP

1 pound ground beef
1 envelope (1½-oz.) spaghetti sauce mix
1 can (6-oz.) tomato paste
6 cups water
1 cup each chopped celery and carrots
1 medium-size onion, chopped
⅓ cup mashed potato flakes

In a large saucepan brown ground beef. Add remaining ingredients except potato flakes. Bring soup to a boil and simmer 30 minutes. Stir in potato flakes and simmer an additional 5 minutes. 6 to 8 servings.

An entirely different kind of soup is a cream seafood soup. This can be made even more quickly than the first one.

SCALLOP STEW

4½ cups milk
1½ cups heavy cream
3 tablespoons butter
1½ teaspoon A.1. Sauce
2 teaspoons salt
1½ lb. sea scallops
Dash paprika
¼ cup chopped parsley

In top part of large double boiler over boiling water, heat first 5 ingredients. Dice scallops and add to milk mixture. Cook 5 to 10 minutes.

★ ★ ★

When you have more time, consider a new bean soup. It's made with Michigan beans, but the recipe comes from Hawaii. It was originated by Ann Kamoe, the chef at Buzz's on the Wharf, Maui Yacht Basin.

ANN KAMOE'S MAUI 7 BEAN SOUP

3 smoked ham hocks
1 pound soup bones
5 cups dried beans:
1 cup Michigan navies,
⅔ cup each of pinto, cranberry, kidney, black eye, garbanzo, lima
5 medium onions, chopped fine
5 medium carrots, chopped fine
5 stalks celery, chopped fine (or 1 small bunch)
1 No. 2½ size can solid pack tomatoes
1 hot Portuguese sausage (or any hot garlic sausage)

Cover hocks and bones with water; add half again as much. Simmer, covered, for 2½ hours.

During same time, simmer 7 kinds of beans in 5 quarts of water, covered, about 2 hours or till tender. If needed, add more water.

★ ★ ★

Meantime, chop vegetables. Add to meat stock after it has cooked 2½ hours. Also add cooked beans and tomatoes.

Cut Portuguese sausage in slices about ¼ inch thick and pan fry till lightly browned. Add to soup. Slowly simmer for 30 minutes.

Soup should be cooled with ventialtion under the pot. (Ann puts a knife under the pot.) Refrigerate.

Soup is cooked a day before serving and gets better as it ages. If it lasts for more than a couple days, Ann adds finely shredded cabbage or pumpkin in the last time around.

SCALLOP STEW

ANN KAMOE'S MAUI 7 BEAN SOUP

MARKET BASKET

If you want to serve cold stuffed tomatores for lunch and don't feel like scooping out the insides, just slice the tomatoes, spread with the filling and stack. One tomato to a person — on salad greens. And pass a good salad dressing.

Upside Down Test

When a recipe directs you to "whip egg whites until stiff but not dry," beat the egg whites until they stand in stiff, straight upward-pointing peaks when the beater is slowly withdrawn. If the egg whites are beaten to this stage, they will not move when the bowl is tipped.

When you are using deviled ham as a sandwich spread, you may mix the ham with chopped hard-cooked egg, sweet pickle relish, ripe chopped olives or grated cheese.

Candy Apples a Great Treat

On Monday, a reader called to ask for a caramel recipe published in The Press three years ago. She said she always uses it for candied apples at this time of year and thought other readers might like it.

So here is Mrs. George Beauchamp's famous foolproof caramel recipe.

2 cups granulated sugar
2 cups white corn syrup

Place in three-quart saucepan over high heat and cook to 248 or 250 degrees. You must use a candy thermometer.

Stir slowly as you cut in ¼ pound of margarine, pat by pat. Continue stirring until mixture reaches 280 or 290 degrees.

Very very slowly, add a 14-ounce can of evaporated milk, stirring all the time. Bring candy back to 248 degrees. Remove from heat and cool 10 minutes. Add 1 teaspoon vanilla.

★ ★ ★

Keep warm over hot water as you dip apples into caramel. If desired as candy, pour into well greased 9x13 pan. Cool several hours at room temparature.

Loosen sides of candy and turn out on cutting board. Using a sawing motion, cut into squares.

Wrap individually in waxed paper. Candy keeps indefinitely.

Cheese and Olives Do Things for Eggs

Two additions give delicious extra flavor for eggs that are scrambled.

Scrambled Eggs Plus

8 eggs
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup diced cooked ham
½ cup grated cheddar cheese
¼ cup diced pimiento-stuffed green olives
Butter

In a mixing bowl beat the eggs and salt just enough to combine yolks and whites. Add ham, cheese and olives; stir well.

In a large skillet heat 1 to 2 tablespoons butter; add egg mixture; cook gently, stirring occasionally, until eggs are set as much as you like. Serve at once. 4 to 6 servings.

Don't Waste Any Leftover Turkey

One hostess always uses leftover turkey roast to make spreads for snacks. Since the two and a half pound turkey roasts are boneless, they yield more servings than one would expect, so there are usually leftovers.

What does she do with it? She grinds it very fine. If there is just a cup, she freezes it to use in sandwiches or to combine with later leftovers to make Turkey Pate.

Pate is a French word for an appetizer meat spread. It usually has some liver in it but this particular recipe is for the liver despisers of the world.

If you have any leftover gravy, use that as a substitute for some of the mayonnaise. It will improve the flavor.

What about other tricks? Surprise Cheese Balls can be made at your leisure frozen and then baked for 8 to 10 minutes, while still frozen, in a hot oven.

Some people wrap these around small stuffed olives, cubes of cooked turkey and others just make balls of the cheese mix. Serve them with Chinese mustard, sweet-sour and curry sauces.

TURKEY PATE

2 cups cooked, finely chopped boneless turkey roast
2 tablespoons thinly sliced green onion
⅓ cup toasted ground almonds
2 hard-cooked eggs, minced
⅓ cup mayonnaise
⅛ teaspoon hickory liquid smoke
⅛ teaspoon Tabasco sauce

Combine ingredients in order given. Mix until well blended. Press into lightly oiled mold. Chill overnight or for several hours to blend flavors. Unmold to serve with crackers. Yield: 1¾ cups pate.

SURPRISE CHEESE BALLS

1 package (3 oz.) cream cheese, softened
3 tablespoons soft butter or margarine
⅔ cup sifted enriched flour
½ teaspoon paprika
½ teaspoon seasoned salt
½ teaspoon poultry seasoning
30-36 turkey cubes (½ inch)

Heat oven to 350 degrees. Mix together cream cheese and margarine. Combine flour and seasonings. Add to cheese mixture to form a smooth dough.

Make 30 to 36 small balls. Insert a turkey cube in each. Shape dough around turkey. Bake on ungreased cookie sheet 20-25 minutes or until browned on the bottom.

Serve hot as appetizers. Yield: 2½-3 dozen. Note: These can be frozen before baking. Freeze on cookie sheet. Store in plastic bag or box. Bake according to above directions.

New Ways to Enjoy Peanut Butter - Banana Combo

There are certain combinations of foods that are so linked that when one thinks of one, the other quickly comes to mind. Considered in this category are salt and pepper, ham and eggs, lettuce and tomato, peaches and cream.

A duet that is perhaps more regional than national is the classic twosome of peanut butter and bananas.

To further the merits of this twosome new recipes developed in a famous peanut butter test kitchen here are some.

Chocolate Banana Peanut Butter Cream Pie

1 unbaked (9-inch) pastry shell
⅔ cup sugar
⅓ cup corn starch
½ teaspoon salt
2½ cups milk
2 ounces unsweetened chocolate
3 eggs, separated
½ cup creamy peanut butter
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 medium size bananas
6 tablespoons sugar

Mix together ⅔ cup sugar, corn starch and salt in double boiler top. Gradually blend in milk; add unsweetened chocolate. Cook over boiling water, stirring constantly, until thickened.

* * *

Cover; cook 10 minutes longer, stirring occasionally. Do not remove from boiling water. Stir a little hot mixture into slightly beaten egg yolks, then stir all into remaining hot mixture over boiling water.

Cook 2 minutes, stirring constantly. Remove from boiling water. Stir in peanut butter and vanilla. Cool 5 minutes.

Pour half the filling into pastry shell, then slice bananas over filling. Cover with remaining filling.

MERINGUE

Beat egg whites until foamy. Add 6 tablespoons sugar, 1 tablespoon at a time, beating well after each addition. Continue beating until stiff peaks form when beater is raised.

Spread some meringue around edge of filling first, to touch crust all around; then fill in center. Bake in 350 degrees (moderate) oven 15 to 20 minutes or in 425 degrees (hot) oven about 5 minutes or until meringue is lightly browned.

Cool at room temperature away from drafts. Serve as soon as possible.

FROZEN BANANA POPS

1 (6-ounce) package butterscotch or chocolate chips
½ cup creamy peanut butter
5 to 6 firm medium bananas
10 to 12 popsicle sticks
Chopped nuts

Melt butterscotch or chocolate chips in double boiler top over boiling water. Blend in peanut butter. Remove from boiling water.

Suspend wire rack between two cups over waxed paper. Cut peeled bananas in half crosswise. Insert sticks in cut ends. Coat bananas completely with peanut butter mixture, smoothing mixture and removing excess with spatula. Sprinkle with chopped nuts.

Stand upright in wire rack. Place in refrigerator until coating begins to set, then lay flat in pan. Cover and immediately freeze until firm.

Remove from freezer 10 to 15 minutes before serving. Makes 10 to 12.

* * *

Note: Prepared bananas may be frozen before coating. When coated, peanut butter mixture will firm up quickly. Pops can be eaten immediately or returned to freezer for later use.

PEANUT BUTTER AND BANANA SALAD

4 small bananas
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Creamy or chunk style peanut butter
Salad greens
½ cup real mayonnaise
¼ teaspoon grated lemon rind

Peel bananas and cut in half lengthwise. Dip in lemon juice. Spread half of each banana with peanut butter and press other half on top. Arrange on salad greens. Blend mayonnaise and lemon rind. Serve with salad.

Getting One's Husband to Dentist Like Pulling Teeth

By JOY STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — When the calendar and a series of gentle little reminder cards indicated that it was long past the time for a confrontation between my husband and the family dentist, it fell to me to arrange the meeting faced with equal dread by both parties involve.d

With the appointment made, I had only to persuade, threaten, cajole, command, beguile, urge and insist that my unspunky spouse appear as per my promise.

* * *

All went well in this initial get-together, with the two men clapping each other on the back in comradely greeting and exchanging jokes and other pleasantires. They remained on a friendly basis throughout the encounter because the dentist on this occasion merely took X rays. The actual work would follow later — as much later as my husband could manage.

I bowed out of the picture and left them to arrange their future rendezvous. My reluctant relative decided to make the next appointment for a Thursday, planning to come home from work early.

NO PATIENT

That day arrived but the patient didn't. His secretary had telephoned to report that he was in conference and couldn't make it. Another date was set for the following Thursday.

This time I called, conveying the news that he had left the night before on a sudden trip to Washingto.n At this point I learned that a tooth extraction was in the offing and the hurry-up journey took on added significance. I ruthlessly and optimistically rescheduled the work for the following Thursday.

* * *

On this day I rushed home, ready to offer hot tea and warm sympathy to a convalescent, only to find that an important meeting had come up and he'd canceled again. Despairing of making it on a working day, he agreed to give up his Saturday in an easy chair watching football in favor of a session in the dental chair.

* * *

We had previously planned an out-of-town tirp for the weekend but in view of the pending action at the dentist's office we took an early train back Saturday.

FOILED AGAIN

The phone was ringing as we got in the house—the nurse explained that an emergency had come up and that the appointment would have to be postponed until the next Saturday. My husband nobly hid his disappointment and resigned himself to an afternoon of viewing television.

* * *

Last week we actually made connections. My brave boy refused my offer to stay and hold his hand so I nervously waited in the outer office listening for sounds of struggle in the inner sanctum.

* * *

He emerged with a relieved look and a sheepish grin that revealed no gap. It seems that the dentist had merely filled a tooth this time and the extraction was set for the next visit.

Halloween Tip

DETROIT (AP) — The Automobile Club of Michigan has a tip for your children's safety on Halloween night. Because auto headlights are directed downward, says the Auto Club, your child should wear a costume that either exposes lots of leg or should wear light-colored stockings or tights. That way, he or she will be more visible to motorists.

Olympics Prompt Plant's Integration

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A businessman who saw Olympic boxer George Foreman wave an American flag after defeating his Russian opponent says he will now integrate his St. Louis factory.

John Ferring, president of Plaze Inc., said he talked the move over with his 20 employes after seeing Foreman, a Negro, win on television. Ferring's firm manufacturers pressurized containers.

* * *

"As a direct result of this simple Olympic ceremony," Ferring said, "our small plant has unanimously expressed a desire to integrate our present all-white work force."

Here Are Key States to Watch as Election Indicators

WASHINGTON (UPI) — On election night, park yourself in a comfortable spot, turn on your television or radio set, and be your own armchair expert.

If you know what to watch for, you may be able to predict the winner of the presidential race early in the evening. Returns from polling places on the East Coast will offer clues to how the presidential vote probably will go across the country.

★ ★ ★

These indicators are not infallible. They were notably misleading in 1948. They may be even more difficult to read this year because George C. Wallace will be cutting into the major party vote and confusing the form sheet.

But the professional experts will have to live with these hazards too — so you may still outguess them.

CONNECTICUT FIRST

First, watch Connecticut. Polls close at 7 p.m. EST and voting machines provide a fast count. Except in 1948, this state has gone with the winner in every election since it voted against its neighbor, Franklin D. Roosevelt, in 1932.

Massachusetts, where polls close at 8 p.m. EST, contributed to Dwight D. Eisenhower's two victories. Otherwise, it has voted for every Democratic presidential candidate going back to Al Smith in 1928. A victory there for Republican Richard M. Nixon would be very bad news for Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey.

★ ★ ★

Polls close at 8 p.m. EST in Pennsylvania and at 9 p.m. EST in New York, two states that are vital to Humphrey's hopes for survival.

Both are among the seven pivotal states with more than 20 electoral votes apiece. The seven have a combined electoral vote of 210 of the 270 needed to win the presidency.

IKE SWEPT ALL

Eisenhower carried all seven in both of his elections and President Johnson swept all seven in 1964. Harry S. Truman won five of the seven in 1948 when he upset Thomas E. Dewey, and the late John F. Kennedy won five when he beat Nixon by a narrow margin in 1960.

The seven are New York with 43 electoral votes, Pennsylvania (29), Ohio (26), Michigan (21), Illinois (26), Texas (25) and California (40).

Two smaller East Coast prizes are New Jersey with 17 electoral votes and Florida with 14. Humphrey is an underdog in both. In New Jersey, the polls close at 8 p.m. EST, and in Florida at 7 p.m. EST.

The East Coast below New York and Pennsylvania is supposed to be Nixon or Wallace territory. Humphrey's only hopes for victories lie in states like Maryland and North Carolina, where close three-way contests may permit him to squeak into the lead with little more than a third of the vote.

Polls close in Ohio at 6:30 p.m. EST, and Michigan at 8 p.m. EST. Humphrey needs both states to stay in contention.

Preelection surveys indicated that Humphrey was stronger in the East than in other regions and that if he could not win there, he could not win at all. His prospects are bleak in Illinois and California.

★ ★ ★

In 1948, Truman lost New York, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland but still defeated Dewey. In 1960, a Kennedy tide started in the East but broke up on the west bank of the Mississippi river.

If Humphrey's showing in the East indicates that he may run about even with Nixon nationwide, the election probably will have to be settled in the House of Representatives.

Southern electoral votes for Wallace could deny both major party candidates the needed majority of 270.

★ ★ ★

But if Nixon carries both New York and Pennsylvania, he probably will begin to think about what to say in his victory statement.

Indiana Amish Fight 'Too Gaudy' Buggy Reflectors

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Amish farmers in southern Indiana have won a temporary victory in their fight against a law requiring reflecting signs on their horse-drawn vehicles.

Acting State Police Supt. Arthur R. Raney said Tuesday the department has suspended enforcement of the law pending an investigation. "If we find the signs serve their purpose of preventing accidents, enforcement will be resumed," he said.

★ ★ ★

The plain-living Amish says the signs are too gaudy.

Raney said there has been good statewide acceptance of the triangular signs for farm implements and other slow-moving vehicles. He said Amish farmers in northern Indiana are using them.

Law Firm Sues Goulet for Fees

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Singer Robert Goulet has been sued by a law firm which says it set up a $50,000-a-week contract for the entertainer but never received its legal fees.

The firm of Wiener, Goldwater & Galatz said in a suite filed Tuesday that it arranged the contract with the Frontier Hotel for eight weeks in 1969 and 1970. The firm said Goulet failed to pay the legal fees, and it wants $60,400 damages.

Physics Lab, Observatory

U.S. to Launch Space Probes

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — The United States plans to revive its unmanned scientific exploration of space during the next two weeks by launching an interplanetary probe and the nation's heaviest and most complex orbiting observatory.

★ ★ ★

The two spacecraft will be the first NASA scientific satellites launched since last March, and the last planned for 1968.

Up first is Pioneer 9, a drum-shaped physics laboratory designed to report on the radiation that flows from the sun and to chart the interplanetary magnetic fields that channel radiation toward the earth and moon.

Pioneer 9 is scheduled to leave earth at 4:45 a.m. EST Nov. 6 on a three-stage Delta rocket. It will be fired into an orbit around the sun that will take it between the paths of earth and Venus.

LAUNCH OAO

The flight of the $15-million, 145-pound probe is scheduled to be followed on Nov. 12 by the launch of a $75-million, 4,400-pound orbiting astronomical observatory (OAO) on an Atlas-Centaur rocket.

The OAO will take 11 automated telescopes into a circular orbit 480 miles high where it will be well above the murky layer of atmosphere that obscures the view of stars from ground observatories.

OAO's significance to the science of astronomy has been described as almost as important as the invention of the telescope itself. The satellite will give astronomers a new vehicle for observing distant celestial bodies.

The OAO and Pioneer are both using rockets that failed on their last launch attempts from Cape Kennedy. Project officials have traced the problems, however, and are confident both will be eliminated from future boosters.

TRAINING TARGET

Pioneer 9 will be accompanied into space by a 40-pound satellite designed to drop off in earth orbit to serve as a training target for the Apollo manned space flight tracking network.

The eight experiments aboard the Pioneer are expected to help scientists devise interplanetary "weather maps" that may give moonbound astronauts two weeks warning of onrushing radiation storms from the sun.

Besides charting radiation between the sun and earth, Pioneer 9 will measure magnetic fields, electric forces and space-dust concentrations.

The orbiting astronomical observatory will focus its attention beyond the solar system. Its main job will be to look at extremely young stars which are only tens of thousands of years old compared to about 5 billion years old for our sun.

OAO will observe the invisible ultraviolet light streaming from young stars to tell scientists more about their birth and development. This may shed some light on the past and future of earth's own system.

Since ultraviolet light never reaches ground observatories, astronomers have had to rely in the past on brief flights of sounding rockets above the atmosphere to view that portion of stellar radiation.

Junior Editors Quiz on THREADS

QUESTION: What is thread made of?

ANSWER: The Indians used thin roots of pine and spruce trees for thread, but our thread comes from various fibers, which are tiny hair-like structures.

Many fibers come from plants, such as cotton. Others come from the soft lining of the silkworm's cocoon, giving us strong and lustrous silk sewing thread. Some other fibers result from the work of chemists as they make dramatic new materials from water, air and coal, such as nylon.

Many seamstresses use thread which goes with the fabric being sewed: cotton thread for cotton, silk thread for silk.

Cotton thread goes through many processes before it is wound on a spool. First, the fibers are pulled mechanically off the cotton seeds, then cleaned, also by machine.

They are pressed into fluffy blanket rolls (1) carded and straightened to make thick rolls of yarn (2). These are drawn out, the fibers being twisted into strands (3), two or three of which are then twisted tightly together by machine to make thread. Bleached and dried, it is finally rolled onto the spool which you buy.

(You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

Dead Seal Mystifies State Game Officials

PLAINWELL (AP)—If anyone is missing a pet sea lion—or seal—the State Conservation Department district office at Plainwell has some sad news for the owner.

The exotic sea creature, a native of west coast waters, is dead.

The body caused a minor mystery when it washed ashore near St. Joseph Saturday morning.

Conservation department biologists Bill Bartels of the Plainwell office said it was identified as a species generally known as the common hair seal.

Actually, he said, it belongs to the sea lion family but not of the species that grows tusks and whiskers. The mystery sea creature is a 40-pound youngster.

"It was in good condition and there were no wounds or any apparent cause of death," Bartels said. "We are still studying it. It is similar to the common seals you see in Marinelands."

Bartel speculated it might be a pet that swam away from a boat passing through Lake Michigan or could belong to some Michigan family with a taste for exotic sea animals.

"There is no way it could have got into the Great Lakes naturally," Bartels added.

State Board to Air 3 Key School Issues

LANSING (AP) — The State Board of Education plans three public hearings in Lansing next month.

The first, dealing with proposed regulations to determine the minimum hours per day that schools must be in session to qualify for state aid payments, will be Nov. 15, in the State Capitol House chambers.

A hearing will be held Nov. 20 in the House chambers on proposed regulations to upgrade standards for public and private driver education courses.

The third hearing, Nov. 22, also in the house chambers, deals with rules covering the disbursement of $100,000 for school districts to conduct studies in extending the school year beyond the traditional September-to-June sessions.

Phone Loan OK'd

LANSING (AP) — The State Public Service Commission has authorized the Drummond Island Telephone Co. to borrow $70,000 from the Kellogg Credit Corp. to provide an up-to-date dial telephone service.

LBJ to Hold Seminars at Rice in Texas

HOUSTON (AP) — President Lyndon B. Johnson, a schoolteacher before turning to politics, will conduct several seminars at Rice University after his term in office expires in January.

Johnson has accepted an invitation to speak at the Houston school sometime in the spring.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Joseph Cooper, head of Rice's political science department, said this week that Johnson probably will discuss American politics.

"We envision the President meeting with a small group of students on some topics agreeable to him—a series of such seminars over a period of several days," Cooper said.

INFORMAL LESSONS

Johnson indicated earlier that he will teach at the University of Texas in Austin. He already has been elected a member of the Texas faculty, and is expected to participate in informal discussion groups.

★ ★ ★

Cooper said Johnson accepted in a letter stating, "At this time it is difficult to arrange a schedule and to decide on the format of my visit with you. Rest assured, however, that I gladly accept your invitation."

★ ★ ★

"There haven't been any plans made, but I would imagine President Johnson will conduct four or five seminars in a period of several days," Cooper said.

Rice, a private university with an enrollment of about 2,800 is noted for its science programs.

NOT PERMANENT

"This would not be a permanent arrangement," Cooper said. He added that Johnson's "schedule and commitments are too heavy to allow that. This would be a sort of visiting lectureship."

★ ★ ★

Soon after graduation from a teachers' college at San Marcos, Tex., Johnson began to teach in a little school at Cotulla, Tex., in 1930. The next year he became a teacher in the Houston public schools.

Reds Launch a Restaurant

MOSCOW (AP) — A new high-rise, rotating restaurant features foreign whiskies, foreign music and something unusual in Moscow — speedy service.

Seventh Heaven, as the place is called, is one of the world's highest restaurants and it has prices to match.

★ ★ ★

For a minimum of 8 rubles or $8.88 per person, the management serves a fixed menu, with no substitutions allowed. Drinks are extra.

"The only thing I didn't like about it was the price," said one Russian as he left.

BIG OPENING..

Seventh Heaven is in Moscow's new 1,722-foot central television tower, which the Soviets call the world's tallest free-standing structure. The restaurant is 1,100 feet up.

Opening night was much publicized, with radio and television stations advertising the new restaurant.

★ ★ ★

Rotating restaurants are something new to Moscow.

This one makes a rather jerky orbit every 25 minutes, offering a panoramic view of the city.

TIME LIMIT

Under house rules, each person must finisth his eating and drinking within two hours to make room for new customers. This will prove difficult for most Muscovites, accustomed to eating out only when they can make an eveling of it.

★ ★ ★

The maitre d'hotel Fyodor Parshin, a veteran of the three other Moscow restaurants keeps his staff on the run. An attractive blonde waitress named Olga, dressed in a uniform similar to that of an airline stewardess, said she had just graduated from a two-year waitress academy.

Most sea horses reach a length of five to six inches when fully grown, but the dwarf sea horse is never more than two inches long.

Big Question: Whither Goest Gerry Ford?

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI) — One of the big questions in Republican circles today, as in the past few years, is whither goest Gerald R. Ford?

Ford has been a congressman from these parts for 20 years and is fighting a grueling two-way campaign for reelection.

★ ★ ★

Ford, the House minority leader, is campaigning for Republican presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon and GOP congressional candidates around the country on an 18-hour a day schedule. But he still keeps an eye on his constituency and is hitting as many local appearances as possible.

Ford has been prominently mentioned as timber for the U.S. Senate from Michigan, or various Cabinet posts, and as a vice presidential candidate, but always says "No."

HOUSE SPEAKER?

This has been going on for several years. However, Ford figures he could become speaker of the House if he could push another 30 to 40 Republican votes into the House in next week's election.

As speaker of the House, Ford would be in the position of becoming even more powerful in Republican circles than he is now, and besides, he would remain in his own back yard, where his 20 years of experience has proved invaluable to the Republicans.

"I am happy where I am. The party comes first," he declares.

He originally was elected congressman from the Fifth District, then Kent and Ottawa counties, and the district was later changed to Kent and Ionia counties.

NOTHING FOR GRANTED

He since has survived Democratic landslides and grew in political stature in Michigan and elsewhere. But he still does not take anything for granted.

His schedule has kept him on planes for more than five weeks, which sometimes includes speeches in several cities in a day. He sleeps about four hours a night, plus what he can pick up in the way of dozes on plane flights.

"He's in remarkable shape and keeps in good physical condition despite the pressure and the lack of rest," one of the aides of the 45-year-old congressman said.

★ ★ ★

If the Republicans win the election Nov. 5, Ford can virtually write his own ticket with the party.

His opponent in the election is Democrat Lawrence Howard, a well-liked young Grand Rapids attorney who is highly regarded by fellow lawyers and Democrats.

★ ★ ★

However, Howard faces long odds against Ford who has the advantage of incumbency and the constant flow of publicity that has been attendant with his aggressive congressional service and his unflagging optimism that the Republicans acan and will return to power.

Hubert Tops Princeton Poll

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey topped presidential preference polls Tuesday of Princeton University students and faculty members.

In an undergraduate poll conducted by a student debating group, the top three were Humphrey with 39.5 per cent of 1,374 ballots cast, Richard M. Nixon 28.1 per cent and Dick Gregory 10.9 per cent. The 1,374 votes represented about 45 per cent of the undergraduates.

Humphrey won 71.4 per cent in a poll of 251 faculty members conducted by the campus newspaper, the Daily Princetonian. Gregory polled 7.5 per cent and Nixon 6.3 per cent.

Contrary to what you may have heard from your Great Aunt Minnie, Wall Street is not Las Vegas. The difference between them is simple: the Strip is for gamblers, the Street is for investors. Now that doesn't mean Wall Street offers only gilt-edged blue chips. Some stocks offer prospects for Capital gains or growth. Still others are bought for income. But whatever your investment objectives are, the name of the game on Wall Street is information: concrete facts and definite opinions. And that's where we can improve your chances. The Spanish team in the World Bridge Olympiad finished in 15th place only, but it did manage to beat the United States handily in one match.

Enterprising bidding at both tables, plus good play, managed to bring them part scores each way and a profit of six International Match Points on this hand.

The bidding in the box shows the action when Serra and Cabot of Spain sat North and South.

North's two-spade call was strictly competitive and a trifle too rich for the United States player at the other table, who merely passed.

East won the spade lead and returned the eight of hearts. South ducked and West was in with the king. If West had played a pat defense and led another spade there is an excellent chance that South would have taken two diamond finesses and gone down one, because West held both the king and queen, but West abandoned the pat defense and led his king of diamonds. Now all South had to do was to win that trick, draw trumps, lead a club to dummy's king and concede a trick to the queen of diamonds.

★ ★ ★

At the other table, after the American North failed to bid two spades, East bid three clubs anyway and everyone passed.

North led the spade jack. Dummy's ace won and a club was led. The finesse of the queen lost to the king. North played a spade and South won the second defensive trick to

Could Be Snag in Viet Peace Efforts

Almost-Forgotten War Plagues Laos

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

The almost-forgotten war next door to Vietnam, once supposedly settled by agreement with the Communist side, still goes on and can present an untidy snag in efforts toward peach by negotiation in Indochina.

That other war in Laos, in some ways more complex and confusing than the one in Vietnam, presented a sticky international crisis in 1961-62. The United States chose negotiation as the least dangerous of a set of alternatives.

* * *

Laos serves as a reminder that settlements negotiated with the Communists are not necessarily lasting.

Laos' population is only 2.5 million, but its location is strategically important to South Asia's future. The little kingdom's geography thrust it to the center of the world stage.

FULLY INDEPENDENT

France in 1953 recognized Laos as a sovereign kingdom within the French Union at a time when the French were still fighting a bitter war over their vanishing Vietnam colony next door. In 1954, when the Geneva conference terminated the French phase of the Vietnam war, Laos, fully independent, joined the United Nations.

A pro-Western regime ruled Laos until mid-1960. Then a neutralist coup seized Vientiane, the capital. To avert civil war, non-Communist elements asked neutralist Prince Souvanna Phouma to head a government. Late that year conservative Gen. Phoumi Nosavan moved against the neutralists, sent them fleeing to the northeast, and recaptured Vientiane.

News Analysis

Moscow got into the act. When Souvanna accepted an offer of Soviet aid, the Russians airlifted arms and ammunition to Communist as well as neutralist forces. North Vietnam sent in regular troops, and with their help the Communist Pathet Lao became a full-scale insurrectionist movement, seized the Plain of Jars and was in a position to take over the country.

The United States, by that time deeply involved in South Vietnam, could let Laos go to the Communists, could intervene militarily and create a perilous world crisis, or could seek peaceful negotiation. President John F. Kennedy chose the route of negotiation.

COALITION WORKED OUT

Fourteen nations, including Russia, the United States and Red China, required more than a year at Geneva to reach agreement on a coalition government for Laos of conservatives, Communists and neutrals, with the nation's neutrality guaranteed by all the conferees. It took only a few months for the Communists to show their feeling toward the agreement.

* * *

North Vietnam stepped up military infiltration in the northeast provinces held by the Communist Pathet Lao and threw out the neutralists. Today it is estimated that at least 40,000 North Vietnamese troops are in Laos, in a position some day to threaten a Communist take-over of the whole country.

Should there now be movement toward a Vietnam settlement, the United States would face another set of alternatives. It might support a return to the three-way coalition. It might seek general elections, even with Communist participation, or it could let Laos' future be settled by yet more war.

* * *

North Vietnam's Communists long have indicated they felt themselves in a commanding position regarding Laos' future. They would be unlikely to want to surrender what they consider their advantages. This would make negotiation of either of the first two alternatives extremely difficult.

But unless a peaceful solution is found, the fighting likely will continue in Laos, vastly complicating any effort to bring about a meaningful settlement for Vietnam.

EAST LANSING (AP) — The role flexible packaging may play in litter and pollution control will be discussed in an executive development seminar Nov. 14-16 at Michigan State University. Some 20 top executives from industry-related companies through the East and Midwest are expected to attend.

Three Schools Draw Probation for Cage Rules Infractions

St. Bonaventure Among Quintets Hit by NCAA

ST. LOUIS (AP) — St. Bonaventure, ranked third in the 1968 Associated Press basketball poll, LaSalle and Florida State have been placed on probation by the National Collegiate Athletic Association's policy council for rules infractions.

The probation bars them from postseason games—LaSalle for two years, Florida State and St. Bonaventure for one year.

The disciplinary action was announced Tuesday by Arthur J. Bergstrom, assistant executive director of the NCAA Council shortly after the council opened a three day meeting.

St. Bonaventure ran up a 23-game winning streak until beaten by North Carolina in the NCAA Eastern regional semifinals at Raleigh last spring.

LaSalle reached the NCAA playoffs at College Park, Md., before bowing to Columbia.

OFFICIALS QUIET

There was no immediate comment from coaches or officials of the schools involved.

However, Jim Harding, who was coach at LaSalle when some of the infractions occurred, admitted violation of rules in regard to scholarships. Harding now is with the Minnesota Pipers of the American Basketball Association.

Bergstrom said the LaSalle coaching staff was guilty of terminating an athletic scholarship for poor performance and threatening to repeat the action in other cases.

LaSalle's freshman coach also awarded token cash prizes to outstanding athletes, in contravention of NCAA rules, Bergstrom said, and it was found that several players holding down off-campus jobs were being paid for hours they did not work.

A resolution passed Tuesday by the Council said the granting of cash tokens "constituted a breach in the accepted principles of ethical conduct." It did acknowledge all irregularities came to a halt when school officials became aware of the matter.

PAID TOUR

St. Bonaventure was penalized for giving a basketball prospect an expense-paid tour to the NCAA regional tourney at Raleigh, N.C., Bergstrom said. The school also housed and fed several of the prospect's friends during the tourney.

Florida State, highly ranked in the Southeast, was found guilty of organizing and conducting early practice sessions last spring for the benefit of prospective team members.

* * *

The school's coaches also conducted out of season practices which players, according to Bergstrom, considered mandatory. The coaches further broke NCAA rules by bringing two prospects to Panama City, Fla., on a sight-seeing tour at no cost to the athletes.

Bergstrom said at least one LaSalle athlete was told to withhold information from the NCAA.

In Minneapolis, Harding told The Associated Press: "I did remove the scholarship of a boy named Fern Scott when he quit the squad. I did tell the squad after a poor game they would either have to play ball or their scholarships would go."

"But when we did find out that NCAA rules prevented this we gave Scott his scholarship back and didn't remove any of the scholarships," he added.

BLOCKING BARONS — Linemen Larry Appleby (left) and Rich Hodsdon are capable of giving opposing defenses considerable trouble on the power sweeps of Bloomfield Hills Andover. The seniors team as the offensive right end and tackle. Hodsdon, a transfer from New York, carries 220 pounds on his 6-2 frame, while end Appleby is a 6-0, 185-pounder in his third varsity season. They will have to be at their best Friday night at West Bloomfield in the Wayne-Oakland League title game.

Bulls Nip Celtics' Rally in Posting 103-97 Decision

By the Associated Press

The Boston Celtics put on one of their patented rallies and impressed the Chicago Bulls—but they didn't beat them.

* * *

Boston, trailing 60-40 at halftime, exploded to outscore Chicago 36-11 in the third period. But the Bulls fought back and won 103-97 in the second half of a National Basketball Association doubleheader Tuesday night in New York.

* * *

The New York Knickerbockers beat San Francisco 110-97 in the second game of the doubleheader. Baltimore trounced Milwaukee 129-112 and Los Angeles edged Atlanta 125-124 in the only other NBA games.

Clem Haskins and Tom Boerwinkle, 7-foot rookie center from Tennessee, led Chicago back from apparent defeat.

KEY REBOUNDS

Haskins scored four straight points to put the Bulls ahead 93-92. Then after Boston tied it, Chicago went ahead for good, 97-93, on two foul shots by Jerry Sloan and a follow-up by Boerwinkle, who grabbed some key rebounds and made a crucial interception in the final minutes.

Flynn Robinson was high for Chicago with 22 points, and Sloan got 20. Boerwinkle added 19 and snared 19 rebounds. Bill Russell led Boston with 17 points and 24 rebounds.

* * *

A balanced attack, led by Cazzie Russell and Dick Barnett, and a tough defense paced New York over San Francisco. The Knicks scored the first five points and never trailed.

Russell finished with 24 points and Barnett with 20. Rudy LaRusso scored 23 and Nate Thurmond 21 for San Francisco.

EASY DECISION

Kevin Loughery collected 29 points, Earl Monroe 25 and Ray Scott 22 for Baltimore as the Bullets breezed past Milwaukee. Fred Hetzel and Jon McGlocklin each hit 21 for Milwaukee.

Elgin Baylor's jump shot in the last second gave Los Angeles its uphill squeaker over Atlanta. The Lakers led only briefly in the opening moments of the game, and trailed by 17 points in the first half.

Baylor topped Los Angeles with 28 points but it was rookie Bill Hewitt's five baskets in the final four minutes that kept the Lakers in contention.

Zelmo Beaty was high for the Hawks with 31 points while Walt Hazzard hit on nine of 14 shots and tallied 23 points.

STILL IN CONTROL — Lanky rookie pivotman Dave Newmark (left) of the Chicago Bulls manages to keep one hand on the basketball while in an awkward position near the end line of the court last night at Madison Square Garden. Boston's Bailey Howell moves in for a shot at the ball during the second quarter action. The Bulls pulled out a 103-97 surprising victory over the defending world's champions.

Cogdill Release Cue for Eddy?

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Lions Tuesday announced they are asking waivers on veteran end Gail Cogdill to make way for the possible activation of the oft injured running back Nick Eddy, a former Notre Dame All American.

The Lions said Eddy, the club's top draft choice in 1967 while he was still a junior in college, may play against the Los Angeles Rams Sunday. The final decision will be made Thursday.

* * *

Cogdill, 31, and a veteran of nine NFL seasons, has caught 325 passes in his career for 5,220 yards and 28 touchdowns. In seven games this season, Cogdill has caught three passes for 42 yards.

"I talked with Gail Tuesday afternoon and told him of our decision," said Coach Joe Schmidt. "It was not an easy decision to pick Gail as the player to be affected but with six other receivers we are stronger at his position than at any other spot on the club.

League rules require that no club can exceed a maximum of 40 active players.

Eddy has been plagued by knee trouble ever since he joined the Lions and has not played in a regular season game.

PR Man Moves Up

NEW YORK (UPI) — Don Ruck, public relations director for the National Hockey League, today was elected to the newly created position of vice president of the NHL.

Andover vs. W. Bloomfield

Choice Tilt on Grid Platter

The league football races are finished for most Oakland County prep teams but several key contests remain on Friday's schedule.

The biggest one locally has West Bloomfield trying to accomplish what it couldn't do last fall, wrap up the Wayne-Oakland League championship against arch-rival Bloomfield Hills Andover.

The BHA Barons this time, however, will be visiting the Lakers' lair. Last November the first-place West-Bloomfield unit moved onto the Andover gridiron and was demolished, 32-0, losing the league title in the process.

The only thing at stake in that outing for Andover was its pride. Friday night the Barons can gain a share of the title by handing their host its first loop loss of the campaign.

West Bloomfield has won six straight W-O starts since dropping its nonleague opener to tough Waterford Township. The Lakers' surge has earned them the No. 6 ranking in the weekly Associated Press Class B poll.

They feature a speedy backfield spearheaded by league dash champion Terry Conley whose 14 touchdowns have boosted him into the county prep scoring lead.

It's no wonder Andover coach Bob Kefgen says the Barons' battle cry in practice this week has been, "Watch Conley."

"We gotta keep 'em from getting into the secondary," the second-year mentor advised. "It's our defense against their offense. If we can hold 'em to one touchdown, I think we can score two."

If the Lakers fleet ball carriers and pass catchers do penetrate beyond the rugged Andover front wall, they may have a weakened secondary corps at their mercy.

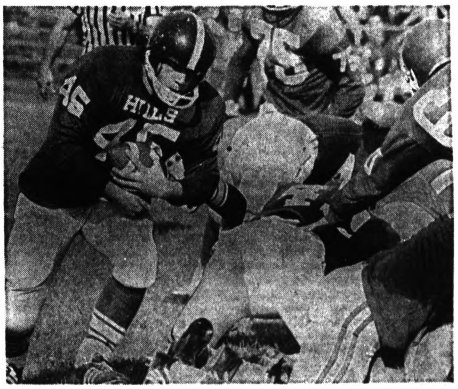
Regular defensive backs Jeff Roley, the senior captain of the Barons, and young sophomore Bob Reid haven't worked out this week due to injuries.

If they aren't available Friday defensive stalwarts Steve Vanker (the junior linebacker who is the club's leading tackler), ends Rick Stahr (a senior) and John Schmidt (junior), senior tackles Rich Hodsdon and Bryan Marsal, plus senior middle guard Greg Elliott will have added pressure on them.

Reid and Roley have been dividing the right halfback berth on offense, too. Senior Bob Westfall has moved in this week to join juniors Scott Roley, the quarterback, Howard Tryon and stocky fullback Chuck Palaian.

Two key games on the Oakland A League's final night have Utica at Rochester and Clawson entertaining Avondale. Both home teams are tied for the loop lead.

Pontiac Central can take over third place in the Saginaw Valley Conference when it invades Bay City Central with whom it shares the spot.



Pontiac Press Photo

BARONS' WORKHORSE — Fullback Chuck Palaian (45) has been one of the big guns in Bloomfield Hills Andover's 6-1 season to date. Most of Andover's ground game centers around Palaian, a stocky, 170-pound junior. He's shown here picking up yardage against Oak Park in the Barons first game of the season. The Barons meet West Bloomfield Friday night.

Coach 'Flunks' Test in Fourth Club Job

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — Dave Creighton, who wears three hats as a player, coach and general manager of the Providence Reds in the American Hockey League, happily relinquished a fourth job today.

"After less than 24 hours, it has been decided I can't make the grade as a trainer," Creighton said. "I guess it is just as well. I have too much to do now."

Creighton took over as trainer when Ernest Marconi was called to his Burlington, Ont., home Sunday.

TOP BACK — Quarterback Brooks Dawson of University of Texas-El Paso is receiving extra attention from Mrs. Dawson after being named Associated Press Back of the Week for his efforts in the Miners 31-25 win over Brigham Young Saturday. Dawson sparked the Miners to a 25-point fourth quarter in the come-from-behind win.

UTEP Passer Dawson Named Back of the Week

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — Brooks Dawson of Texas-El Paso, whose fourth-quarter performance last weekend earned him Associated Press College Football Back of the Week honors, says, "I was just fighting for myself as much as anything . . . I was trying to show that I could get my game back in shape."

The senior quarterback was on the bench for three quarters against Brigham Young last weekend. He came onto the field with his team 22 points behind and led the Miners to a 31-25 victory.

* * *

Dawson completed 17 of 24 passes for 304 yards and three touchdowns in his stranger-than-fiction performance.

Dawson said he couldn't describe what it was that made everything click so well. "When you're hitting like that, everything seems to go right," he said.

He had been benched for subpar play, but junior quarterback Bob Stewart was continually getting thrown for losses before the senior went back into the game.

SECOND STRING

Dawson played as second string quarterback at UTEP for two years in the shadow of Billy Stevens, one of the school's all-time greats.

This year, he was expected to guide the Miners to contention in the Western Athletic Conference. But three straight losses stopped those hopes and led to Dawson's benching.

* * *

The 21-year-old senior, who was married June 1, said, "It was the first time all year I felt like I was playing up to my game."

"I don't know how to explain it," he said. "Things just click, and then everybody starts doing things right. The front line was giving me time, keeping those rushers out, and they hadn't been doing that earlier in the game."

* * *

He said flankerback Volly Murphy, who caught two of his fourth-quarter touchdown passes, "is one of the best receivers in college ball."

Dawson's performance brought his record for this year to 87 completions in 193 tries for 1,275 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Touch Grid Unit Repeats as Champion

Sashabaw Products repeated as the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department's men's touch football champion with its 39-0 romp over the Latham Staillions last night at Jaycee Park.

The lopsided conquest, one of the biggest in the city mens' league this fall, was Sashabaw's seventh straight conquest.

Coupled with Club One Spot's forfeit loss to Jerry's Gulf, the unbeaten league leaders have a three-game lead with one game remaining on their schedule.

* * *

Quarterback Tom Dabbs tossed two scoring aerials each to manager Chuck Steinhelper, Chuck Graves and Jerry Carlton. The shortest was a five-yarder to Graves to open the scoring in the first period.

Dabbs' longest pass play was good for 55 yards and went to Steinhelper to begin the pointmaking in the final half. Denny Finch, Jack Magee and Carlton all took a conversion toss from the veteran passer.

Other members of the 1968 champions are Don Kah, Kip Frazer, Jack Bratun, Charlie Daul, Jim Grant, Bill Moore and Harry Repkey.

Punch Brings Heavy Fine

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Larry Regan, general manager of the Los Angeles Kings of the National Hockey League, has been socked $1,000 by league officials for punching a referee following a game.

Clarence Campbell, NHL president, who announced the fine Tuesday, said Regan admitted striking referee Bruce Hood following a Kings contest with the Oakland Seals last Oct. 13 which ended in a 4-4 tie.

Clary Named Captain

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — Anderson Clary, a 6-foot-3 senior from Newport News, Va., was named today captain of the 1968-69 Providence College basketball team.

Woody Upsets Big 10 Czar

CHICAGO (AP) — Coach Woody Hayes of the second-ranked Ohio State Buckeyes drew the ire Tuesday of Big Ten Commissioner Bill Reed.

Reed, back in his office after attending the Olympics in Mexico City, responded to Hayes' inference last week that dirty play is not being called by officials in the conference.

* * *

Hayes contended that his sophomore quarterback, Rex Kern, was being unduly knocked around. He sent a film clip to Reed of Kern being encountered by a Northwestern player and declared publicly that "the officials should take charge — a player who deliberately hits a passer after he has released the ball should be kicked out of the game."

Coach Alex Agase said Hayes' action was impulsive, unjustified and unfair.

Reed told Chicago football writers Tuesday that the film clip was received "but there was not one word from Ohio State accompanying it."

Reed said that there hasn't been much heard from Hayes in several years but now that he is winning it's different.

* * *

"It reminds me of what Winston Churchill once said about Field Marshal Montgomery," said Reed. "He is indomitable in defeat and insufferable in victory."

"There is sufficient proof that Hayes' purpose was not constructive," Reed continued. "It was altogether negative in that we have not heard one word directly from him."

Asked if he had said anything to Hayes about the matter, Reed said, "No comment."

OXFORD ACE — It's been a dismal season for Oxford's Wildcats (0-6-1), but one of the bright spots has been end Larry Rumball, a senior who goes both ways for the Wildcats. Coach Gerry Neidlinger and the Wildcats will journey to Marysville Friday.

SMU Back Tops Nation in Offense

NEW YORK (AP) — Chuck Hixson, Southern Methodist sophomore, continues to show the way in total offense and passing in the major college football statistics compiled by National Collegiate Sports Services.

Hixson's total offense yardage of 1,847 has been topped by only two major college players in history for the first six games of a season. Jerry Rhome and Bill Anderson, both of Tulsa, did better. Rhome had 1,956 in 1964 and Anderson 1,861 in 1965.

* * *

At the rate Terry Hanratty of Notre Dame is going he could reach the career total of 5,000 yards. He ranks third in the 1968 standings with 1,542 yards and has a total of 4,535 yards. The all-time leader in the category was Virgil Carter of Brigham Young, now the Chicago Bears' quarterback. Carter gained 6,354 from 1964 through 1966.

Cal Defender Stops Syracuse

Augustine Is Picked as Top Lineman

By The Associated Press

It's a long way from the Prune Bowl to the Rose Bowl, but Irby "Lucky" Augustine might just make it if he keeps up his quarterback head-hunting tactics.

Augustine, a 6-foot, 210-pound defense end, spearheaded a brilliant California defensive effort last weekend that prevented strong Syracuse from scoring a point for the first time in 33 games.

* * *

In addition to making 10 solo tackles in the 43-0 rout, the 20-year-old junior also recovered a fumble in the first quarter that led to a field goal, and in the next period, intercepted a pass and returned it 21 yards to the Orange 18, setting up a touchdown.

For that bit of work, Augustine today was named The Associated Press' college Lineman of the Week.

* * *

Augustine, a pre-dental major from Port Arthur, Tex., has been a steady performer for the Bears the past two seasons since transferring from Laney Junior College, where his most notable achievement was being voted Lineman of the Game in his team's appearance in the Prune Bowl.

He is a big reason California has yielded only 32 points in rolling up a 5-1 record this year.

Tom Hamlett Has 11 TD's

Ferris Freshman Top Scorer

By The Associated Press

An 18-year-old Ferris State freshman is the new football scoring leader among all college players in Michigan.

* * *

Halfback Tommy Hamlett picked up four touchdowns Saturday in his team's 36-16 win over Findlay of Ohio to give him 11 for the season and 66 points.

Going into the game Hamlett was the sixth leading rusher among National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics schools. Ferris State, meanwhile, was ranked sixth in team rushing performance.

Hamlett, a 5-foot-9 product of Flint Northern, has helped the Bulldogs bounce from a disastrous 0-7-1 record last year to a 5-0-1 record so far this season. They were 1-26-4 the past four seasons.

Last week's co-leaders in scoring were Lonnie Holton of Northern Michigan and Jim Bell of Albion with 48 points. Holton failed to score in Saturday's 10-7 upset to Hillsdale. Bell scored a touchdown in Albion's 24-0 win over Adrian.

STILL UNBEATEN

Meanwhile, Alma remained undefeated over the weekend with its 35-9 romp over Olivet. Ferris State is the only other undefeated team in the state.

Biggest upset of the week was Hillsdale's victory over NMU. Northern Michigan had been rated seventh in the Associated Press small college poll.

* * *

The Michigan Wolverines, meanwhile, won their fifth straight game by downing Minnesota 33-20 to move into ninth in AP national major college rankings.

MSU Upsets Ol' Swami

CHICAGO (AP) — The Ol' Swami was thrown only by Michigan State last week after sweating out some close ones. He's now 34-11—.756. After more sweating, here are some Halloween specials:

Ohio State 23, Michigan State 17 — That close call at Illinois probably did the Buckeyes a lot of good. It gives Coach Woody Hayes a strong rallying point. They will need to go all out to defeat dangerous Michigan State, revitalized after knocking off Notre Dame.

* * *

Minnesota 27, Iowa 21 — This is the toughest of all to try to figure. The Gophers' defense was shredded last week by Michigan and Iowa was ground into dust by Purdue. The nod goes to the Gophers, who will be at home.

Michigan 28, Northwestern 10 — The Wildcats finally tasted victory against Wisconsin but were pretty well banged up in the 13-10 fracas. Even if they get recharged for this homecoming affair, the onrushing Wolverines seem unstoppable at this juncture.

GAINED RESPECT

Purdue 32, Illinois 17 — The Illini won a lot of respect in making Ohio State work up a lather for a 31-24 victory. Although they deserve plaudits for fine improvement, it's doubtful they can come up with a second straight supreme effort. Mike Phipps may be ready to play for the Boilermakers. Without him, they stayed on the ground to pulverize Iowa.

Indiana 27, Wisconsin 18 — You can bet Coach John Pont will bear down this week after his Hoosiers nearly were conked by Arizona. They won, 16-13, and it was the ninth time in 15 games they overcame a deficit in the closing minutes of a game to do it. The Badgers want nothing more than a homecoming triumph that would break a 16-game winless streak.

Notre Dame 40, Navy 12 — Seems like everybody is beating Navy, the latest being Virginia 24-0.

Bengtson Doesn't Slam Doors

By MILTON RICHMAN

GREEN BAY (UPI) — Phil Bengtson, the Green Bay Packers coach, isn't the emotional type.

He doesn't slam doors and start kicking things around when he loses and he doesn't go out and do the town when he wins a big one.

Bengtson won a big one Monday night in Dallas when his Packers paddled the previously unbeaten Cowboys, 28-17, and he and his team didn't get back to Green Bay until 3 Tuesday morning. By 9 a.m., Bengtson was back at work.

"There's a whole lot to do," said the Packer coach from his desk in Green Bay. "Dallas was a must game for us but now we have Chicago coming up and we have to get ready for that one."

ENTIRE TEAM

No coach likes to single out any of his players over the others because anytime he does all the rest feel neglected. Bengtson, in that regard, is a great deal like his predecessor, Vince Lombardi, who invariably would credit the entire team following a key victory.

But there was one Green Bay player who did make the difference in Dallas Monday night, and whether Bengtson was breaking one of his rules or not, he did single him out.

"Bart Starr," said the Packer coach in response to the question of which player more than any other was responsible for Green Bay's triumph. "Having him back was a big help."

Had the Packers been beaten by the Cowboys, the season might have been all over for them. As it turned out, Starr, who had been hampered with a pulled muscle in his arm, tossed four touchdown passes and Green Bay now is tied with Detroit for the Central Division lead.

INJURED LINEMAN

The oddsmakers had made Dallas the favorite for any number of reasons in Monday night's contest. Primarily there was the question of Starr's condition. Then there was Jerry Kramer, the Packers' brilliant offensive lineman, who was in no shape to put in regular duty.

Add to that the fact the Cowboys had won six in a row, were playing in their own backyard and wanted this particular game probably more than any other one this season and you get a good idea of why Dallas was favored.

Through most of the first two quarters, the oddsmakers looked as if they knew what they were talking about. The Cowboys led, 10-0, with less than three minutes remaining before half-time. Then it happened. Starr hit Carroll Dale with a 26-yard scoring pass and the Packers went into their dressing room trailing only by three points at intermission.

"That play more than other one did it for us," Bengtson revealed. "We were back in the ball game."

The Green Bay coach didn't resort to any tirade during the 20-minute breath-catcher. There was really no need for him to do so.

"We consider it more of reorganization period," he explained. "We went over a number of things which we had worked on all week."

When the Packers went back out for the second half, the difference in them was immediately noticeable. The line blocking was far better and that a made Starr much better.

HEROINE'S WELCOME HOME — Celebrated gymnast Vera Caslavska (hatless in center) is greeted by a huge crowd at Prague Tuesday upon her arrival home from the 1968 Summer Olympic Games in Mexico City. The Czechoslovakian beauty won four gold medals and captured the hearts of her countrymen as well as the host Mexicans when she married a teammate on the final Saturday of the games. Both husband and wife chose to return to their Russian-occupied homeland as a symbol of national unity.

Spartans Meet Tough Buckeyes

EAST LANSING (AP)—Upset-minded Michigan State will face an Ohio State team already dreaming of the Rose Bowl on unfriendly ground at Columbus, Ohio, Saturday.

Ohio State crowds are traditionally noisy partisans. The game already is a sellout in the 81,455-capacity stadium, second largest only to Michigan in the Big Ten.

* * *

After beating Notre Dame 21-17, the young MSU team now knows almost anything is possible.

The Spartans will be trying for the role of a spoiler against the unbeaten Buckeyes, currently rated No. 2 in the nation.

Defeating Ohio State also could give a huge lift to Michigan's hopes for a Pasadena trip.

ONE SETBACK

The Wolverines also are unbeaten in Big Ten play although they lost their opening game to the University of California.

Michigan and Ohio State are figured as the best bets to win the Big Ten. MSU, with two losses, can be counted out of the Rose Bowl running. But the Spartans could lift themselves up in the standings while at the same time helping out a neighbor by knocking off the Buckeyes. Ohio State showed it could be vulnerable. Last week, the Buckeyes led Illinois 24-0 at th half, then had to struggle to fight off a great Illini comeback and win 31-24.

* * *

MSU has a 5-3 edge in the series with Ohio State. The then Michigan Aggies started off by beating Ohio State 35-20 in 1912.

Last year, the Bucks coasted over a weak MSU team 21-7.

Spartan sophomore quarterback Bill Triplett will be the probable starter against Rex Kern of Ohio State, also a sophomore.

* * *

Tailback Tommy Love, leading ground gainer for State with 548 yards rushing so far, was hospitalized earlier this week with tonsilitis and a fever. He is expected to recover in time to run at Columbus.

Coast Driver Guns for Auto Speed Mark

BONNEVILLE SALT FLATS, Utah (AP) — Mickey Thompson, shirking a scary moment Tuesday at more than 400 miles per hour, ordered his Ford Autolite Special towed into position before dawn today for another crack at the world speed record for wheel-driven cars.

Thompson, 39, Long Beach, Calif., and his crew had worked nearly throughout the night to make final adjustments on the handsome blue and gold vehicle, 29 feet long by only about two feet tall and wide.

* * *

Expectations had been high after Tuesday's performance, despite an incident in which the car shot several hundred yards off course during a partial skid.

Thompson blamed the slippage on a wet patch at the four-mile post of the 10-mile straightaway.

"I would have bet $1,000 the car was going to turn over," he said. "But it didn't. I can't explain it, except I know it's a tremendous automobile."

SPEED INCREASING

The most significant feature of the aborted run, he said, was that the car was moving at an unofficial 411 m.p.h. as it passed the four-mile post and was still accelerating. The record is 409 m.p.h. set by Bob and Bill Summers in 1965.

The official speed certified by the U.S. Auto Club is computed as the average of two runs—one from each direction through the fifth mile of the track.

* * *

Thompson had hoped to beat the possibility of a slippery track again by running in the early morning. Warmer temperatures cause underlying brine to rise to the salt surface.

Michigan Open Alters Format

Tourney Site Again Spring Meadows CC

The same site but a new format is on tap for the 1969 Michigan Golf Open.

In the past a three-day tournament, featuring a 36-hole windup, the Open will go to four days next year and it's scheduled for Aug. 14-17 at Spring Meadows Country Club near Linden.

It's the fourth year in a row that the Open has gone to the Linden layout.

NEW SCHEDULE

The change in format was announced today along with the 1969 schedule by Lou Powers, president of the Michigan Section PGA.

The popularity of the Open has brought a larger number of contestants and Powers said there would be three qualifying sites next year in narrowing the field to 180 for the final 72 holes.

OTHER DATES

Other dates on the schedule are:

PGA Championship, June 30, at Davison Country Club; Pro-Assistant, July 7, at Birmingham Country Club; Assistants Championship, July 14, Walnut Hills, East Lansing; State Pro-Am, July 21-22, Bay City Country Club; PGA Seniors, Aug. 4, Owosso; Michigan Open, Aug. 14-17, Spring Meadows, Linden; Pro-Pro Championship, Sept. 8, Battle Creek Country Club.

Castoff From Browns Gives Boost to 49ers

Clifton McNeil Sets Pass-Catching Pace in NFL Race

NEW YORK (AP) — Clifton McNeil, the Cleveland castoff who found a new home at San Francisco, is making a runaway of the pass catching race in the National Football League.

At the halfway mark in the race, the speedy flanker has caught 43 passes for 584 yards, an average of 13.6 and has scored four touchdowns. His closest competitor, Charley Taylor of Washington, the champ for the last two years, has caught only 31 passes.

★ ★ ★

Bart Starr's passing display against Dallas earned the Green Bay quarterback the lead in passing. Starr has a 65.5 percentage of completions, 13 touchdown passes, 6.0 percentage of interceptions and an 10.01 average gain.

Gale Sayers moved back out front in the rushing race. The Chicago Bears' halfback has run for 619 yards on 103 carries, a six-yard average.

SCORING LEADER

Bill Brown of Minnesota retained the scoring lead with 10 touchdowns for 60 points, while Billy Lothridge of Atlanta took over the No. 1 spot in punting, displacing Mike Bragg of Washington. Eddie Meador of the Los Angeles Rams moved out front with six interceptions.

Alvin Haymond of Philadelphia continued to lead the punt return men and Preston Pearson of Baltimore paced the kick-off return artists.

DeMoss Heads Team

Purdue Boss Ailing

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — The liver ailment that has sent Coach Jack Mollenkopf of No. 6 ranked Purdue to the hospital is "not a real severe case," his wife said.

Mrs. Mollenkopf said her husband, who will be 63 Nov. 24, was feeling good but was very tired.

She took Mollenkopf to Home Hospital here Tuesday after tests showed he had infectious hepatitis.

Dr. Loyal W. Combs, team physician and director of the Purdue Health Service, placed the coach in isolation and said he would not be able to resume his duties for at least three weeks.

Bob DeMoss, a Purdue quarterback star in the late 1940s and considered the mastermind of the team's high-scoring offense, was named acting head coach. DeMoss, now in his 19th season as a Purdue coach, filled that same role for two games in 1961 when Mollnekopf went to the Mayo Clinic for an operation to halt a colon infection.

PLAYERS EXEMPT

DeMoss and the eight other coaches received immuniaztion shots Tuesday but the players would not need immunization immediately because all their contact with Mollenkopf had been outside, a Purdue spokesman said.

Purdue, which was the preseason pick to win the national championship and was No. 1 until a 13-0 loss to Ohio State three weeks ago, plays Illinois, Minnesota, Michigan State and Indiana in its next four games. The Boilermakers have a 5-1 record.

"Jack just needs a lot of rest," Mrs. Mollnekopf said. "We're hoping it doesn't take too long to recover."

She said Mollenkopf woke up feeling ill the morning of the Wake Forest game two weeks ago.

"He's been dragging since," she said. "We haven't any idea how he got it."

WINNING COACH

Mollenkopf, who was a winning high school coach at Rossford and Toledo, Ohio, before going to Purdue in 1947, has had only one losing season since taking the Purdue head coaching job in 1956.

His 1966 team beat Southern California 14-13 in Purdue's only Rose Bowl appearance.

"I'm head coach in name only," DeMoss said. "We all have our jobs to do and we'll do them. We'll miss the boss."

New Orleans Avenges Loss to Oakland 5

By the Associated Press

All of a sudden, the runaway has turned into a race in the American Basketball Association's Western Division title chase.

New Orleans added a little suspense to the championship race by handing Oakland its first loss in four games Tuesday night, 124-119, despite a 39-point showing by the Oaks' fabulous Rick Barry.

★ ★ ★

The victory, avenging New Orleans' only loss in three games, put the Bucks only a half game behind Oakland.

The Oaks took an early first-period lead but couldn't stay in front, although they managed to tie the Bucs 66-all in the third quarter. New Orleans moved ahead 97-87 before Oakland cut the deficit to 119-117. But the Bucs pulled away once again.

James Jones paced New Orleans with 26 points.

PERFECT MARK

Meanwhile, Minnesota got a 34-point showing from Connie Hawkins and kept its record perfect with a 116-108 conquest of Miami and New York rallied in the last half to whip Denver 108-89 in other league activity.

Minnesota, 2-0 and leading the Eastern Division, had to stage a last half rally to hand Miami its third straight setback. The Floridians grabbed a 79-78 lead with 2:40 left in the third quarter before Minnesota outscored them 11-2 for an 89-81 lead it never relinquished.

Chico Vaughn scored 23 points for the Pipers. Willie Murrell led Miami with 24.

Here's an amazing fact about Otto Graham, who is now coach of the Washington Redskins . . . When Graham played pro football with Cleveland as their quarterback, they finished in first place EVERY season . . . That's really amazing when you consider that Graham quarterbacked Cleveland for a total of 10 years, from 1946 through 1955, and in each of those seasons they wound up in first place!

Here's a football oddity . . . In all of football history, there have been very, very few good left-handed passers . . . Isn't it strange that there haven't been more lefty throwers in football.

One of the most famous nicknames if football is Notre Dame's — the "Fighting Irish" — but, did you know Notre Dame has not always had that nickname? . . . It seems hard to believe any Notre Dame squad ever could have had a different nickname, but their original nickname was "Hoosiers" . . . "Fighting Irish" didn't come along till many years after they started playing intercollegiate football.

U.S. Rider Victorious at Capital

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U. S. equestrian team scored its second consecutive victory Tuesday night when Neal Shapiro took Trick-Track over the D.C. Armory course to win the Don McAfee and Associates Challenge Trophy.

★ ★ ★

Trick-Track, who won the coveted President's Cup here in 1966, displayed experience and finesse as he covered the twisting 12-jump course without a fault in a steady 74.2 seconds, safely under the required 78 seconds.

★ ★ ★

Shapiro, the Glen Head, N.Y., rider, was superb in handling the big chestnut who has been loaned to the U.S. team by Mrs. Whitney Stone of New York City.

★ ★ ★

In second place with three faults was New York's Danny Lopez, on Mr. and Mrs. Tuck LaFaver's Cappalla. They covered the course in better time than the winner, but a refusal at the big wall jump cost the victory.

OTHER PLACES

Third and fourth places went to other members of the U.S. team, Gay Wiles of Alexandria, Va., on The Senator, and Jared Brinsmade of Bethany, Conn., on Spindletop Act One.

★ ★ ★

Kathy Kusner, the Monkton, Md., equestrianne who has been one of the great riders in international competition in the past decade, was far off form on Aberali, and failed to place. It was a disappointing climax to a day when the 28-year-old rider was finally granted a jockey's license by the Maryland Racing Commission.

★ ★ ★

The Nede Cahaba Trophy, biggest prize offered in this section of the country to the western pleasure horses, was carried off by Kitchie Littell's Ima Red Ant.

★ ★ ★

The 3-year-old Waverly, Pa., sorrel gained the nod over Willmot Chambers' Peska Tonka, a quick-gaited entry from Branchville, N.J.

WINS COURT BATTLE — Kathy Kusner of Monkton, Md., who has ridden in many of the leading horse shows in the country including the Detroit Horse Show, Tuesday was granted a jockey's license by the Maryland Racing Commission. She is the first woman to receive a license to race horses at a major track where betting is legal; but it took a court order before she was so recognized. She has said she won't seek a mount until the Nov. 26 races at Maryland's Laurel Race Track.

'Kitten' Claws Ex-Champion

Griffith Cries Foul After Losing Decision

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Stanley "Kitten" Hayward won an upset split 10-round decision over former middleweight champion Emile Griffith Tuesday night. Griffith and his manager, Gil Clancy, screamed they were robbed and would appeal the verdict to the Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission.

★ ★ ★

Referee Zack Clayton and judge Lou Tress each scored the fight 47-46 for Hayward, of Philadelphia. Judge Jack Styles had it 47-44 for Griffith. The Associated Press had it 48-43 for Griffith, who twice has held the middleweight title and was welterweight champ.

★ ★ ★

The bone of contention was Clayton's scoring of the 10th round. He carded it 5-5 under the Pennsylvania scoring system of five points must for the winner of a round.

LAST ROUND

Griffith, however, appeared to win the final round handily. In fact, he had Hayward staggering as the bell ended the fiercely waged fight.

★ ★ ★

Hayward admitted he had conceded the last round to the bustling New Yorker.

"I was not fighting my usual fight in the 10th round," he said, "because my trainer told me I had won the first six rounds and all I had to do to win was finish."

Annual Show on Tap

Ski Buffs Getting Itchy Feet

The campaign is over, now comes the "convention" and then the arduous wait.

Michigan's snow skiing buffs will converge on Detroit's Light Guard Armory beginning Thursday for four days to relive their Help Stamp Out Summer program that began right after the end of last winter's ski season.

Anyone who has ever strapped on a pair of skis, or will be, or just wants to do so is eligible to attend the annual International Ski and Winter Sports Show festivities this weekend.

★ ★ ★

Tobogganing, skating, sledding and snowmobile enthusiasts qualify, also, with the registration fee, $2.50 per adult and $1 per children. Special rates are available to clubs, groups and associations authorized by the Metropolitan Detroit Ski Council.

HOURS

They — along with all other interested participants — must appear at the East Eight Mile armory sometime between 4-11 p.m. Thursday, 1 p.m.-midnight Friday and Saturday or 1-9 p.m. Sunday.

After that all will unite their thoughts toward an early snowfall and siege of cold weather to promote a quick beginning to the winter sports season.

The ski show activities will include new films and live demonstrations in the Ski Festival Theater which will be free admission, the continuation of the Fiat World Indoor Slalom Championships and many exhibits featuring information on most of the leading ski resorts in the Midwest.

Nationally syndicated ski columnist Frank Covino and pro skier Roger Staub are two of the personalities who will be featured during the show.

The films will include new ones on the U.S. Ski Team ("Taste of Victory"), on training and racing ("Attack"), and on a tour of the leading resorts in the world ("The Outer Limits").

Gibson Sharp With Arm, Bat in Japan

SENDAI, Japan (AP) — Bob Gibson, winner of the Cy Young Award, showed the Japanese his pitching and hitting ability Wednesday as the St. Louis Cardinals beat the Yomiuri Giants 8-1.

Gibson gave up only one hit and struck out six in five innings. He also collected two doubles in his two times at bat, knocking in one run.

His teammates gave him a quick start toward his first victory in Japan by scoring five runs in the first inning. Gibson also started the first game of the Cardinals' Japanese tour Friday but was replaced in the first inning after giving up four hits.

Broken Nose Won't Slow Cowboys' QB

DALLAS (AP) — Quarterback Don Meredith of Dallas will be able to play for the Cowboys in a National Football League game against New Orleans Sunday even though he suffered a broken nose in Monday night's 28-17 loss to Green Bay.

Protective covering—either a mask or additional bars on the face mask—will be used to protect the tender beak. The experience isn't new for Meredith because he sufferd a broken nose last season against Philadelphia.

★ ★ ★

Dallas also disclosed Tuesday that halfback Craig Baynham received a broken nose in the Packer fray. Some type of protective device will be built to allow Baynham to play against the Saints in New Orleans.

Prospect of Good Deer Season Draws Interest

Pollution Problem Handed to Voters

BY DON VOGEL

"The problem is big and big money is needed."

This statement was lifted from a Conservation Department publicity release plugging for the clean waters and quality recreation proposals (3 and 4) on the Nov. 5 ballot.

* * *

Voters will be asked to approve issuance of $335 million in bonds to fight pollution and $100 million for recreation. The only thing wrong about the department's observation is that it is too conservative.

The problem is great and a great amount of money is needed. Because of this, both proposals deserve the overwhelming support of the voters. If the rise in pollution continues at its present rate, residents will be forced to buy purified water over the counter or have it delivered at the door like milk within the not too distant future.

PRESSURE INCREASING

Pressure on outdoor recreation facilities will become greater as the population increases and more leisure time becomes available. People who have experienced sitting in a hot car while waiting in line to enter a state park or who have been turned away from campgrounds because there is no space should have more than an inkling of the problem.

Actually, the two proposals go hand in hand and should have been one on the ballot. All the clean water resulting from proper pollution control isn't going to be worth much if there isn't public access to its use.

* * *

Water is the key to all major recreational programs being undertaken by state, county and special authority agencies. If it is polluted, there is no recreation value.

Of the $100 million for recreation, $30 million will go to communities — most of them in Southern Michigan — to be matched by local and federal funds to provide parks, playgrounds, recreation centers and other similar facilities.

The remaining $70 million will be used by the Conservation Department to acquire park, hunting and lake access lands, fish hatcheries, campgrounds and hiking and bridle trails.

HATCHERIES SCHEDULED

Park development will get the biggest chunk, $40.8 million, over the proposed 10-year program. Fisheries is next with $17.7 million, but most of this will be used to build hatcheries for the salmon and trout programs. Most of the parks funds would be spent in Southern Michigan.

The $335 million Clear Water program will be part of a larger program that will draw funds from both the federal government and from local sources. It is expected that the state will invest half the cost of the total program, and that the federal government will invest another one-fourth in the program.

* * *

Local units of government — in towns, cities, townships, municipal areas — will put up the remaining one-fourth of the total cost of any Clean Water project.

This bonding program is big enough to buy 210 new water treatment plants for towns, cities and other municipalities. It will also pay for 126 improvements to existing plants, and provide new or reconstructed sewer lines for 3,500,000 people.

The two bonds issues are supposed to be paid without tapping already tax-shy John Q. Public for additional money. Two other outstanding bond issues will be liquidated by 1971 and this will release $13 million to help pay the yearly bill of $24 million. The remainder is expected to be made up from increased revenues gained through economic growth.

The legislature, however, will have the final say on how the bonds will be paid. Lawmakers also will dole out the bond revenue.

It's now or never for pollution control, and the price of recreation continues to climb each year. Both programs demand immediate attention and should have it.

Game Experts Expect Kill to Reach Last Year's 104,000

LANSING (AP) — If only the weather cooperates, Michigan deer hunters can expect a good season this year.

The hunters have about everything going for them.

* * *

There was a very mild winter last year. The spring fawn crop was good. The season starts on a Friday instead of a Saturday, as last year.

If any hunter also is a fisherman, he could take time out to catch a Coho salmon too while he is up north.

There already is an indication of strong hunter interest in the season this year.

MORE APPLICANTS

The number of applicantes for the anterless deer season was the second highest on record. The 326,000 applications this year for the some 180,000 permits compared to the record high of 359,000 in 1955.

Last year's deer kill was estimated by the State Conservation Department at 104,000. This included about 60,000 bucks and some 45,000 anterless deer.

* * *

"We expect the kill will be just as good or better this year. And that isn't bad," said Dave Arnold, department deer specialist.

The hunters will get a little jump on the season because it opens on a Friday this year instead of Saturday.

So automotive plants and others can expect a high degree of absenteesim on Nov. 15.

SICK DAYS

A lot of workers call in sick during the Nov. 15-30 gun season for deer. Personal managers know they actually have a case of "buck fever."

The favorite hunting area will be the traditionally good deer counties in the northern Lower Peninsula.

* * *

Not as many good deer as usual are expected to be taken in the Upper Peninsula.

Arnold explained that the winter before last was a long and cold one in the Upper Peninsula. Above the straits, it takes two years to grow a good-sized buck. Although the fawn crop this spring was good, these animals will not have attained much size by the time the season opens.

CHECK POINTS

The Conservation Department will have deer checking stations at the Straits of Mackinac Bridge, at Bay City, Alma, Howard City and White Cloud. Hunters are asked to check in with their deer at these stations.

The information supplied by examining the deer gives department game biologists a vaulabel indication of the size and health of the Michigan deer herd.

The deer herd in Southern Michigan is still on the increase — as evidenced by the climbing number of deer killed by cars each year.

Each succeeding year also, there are more and more stories of hunters comeing home after finding no success up north, then killing a buck near their own back yards.

These barnyard, corn-fed deer often are fatter and bigger than their country cousins up north.

Balky Salmon Pose Puzzle

Coho Won't Move Up Big Huron River

L'ANSE (AP) — Coho salmon have failed to run upstream in the Big Huron River off Lake Superior and the situation has fish biologists shaking their heads in puzzlement.

* * *

Bernard Yllkanen, fish biologist at the State Conservation Department headquarters in nearby Baraga, said that experts are searching not only for the salmon—but for a reason why they haven't started what is supposed to be their annual fall spawning run upstream.

* * *

Last year, fishermen stood almost shoulder - to - shoulder along the banks of the Big Huron as the silvery salmon surged upstream in hordes. Many fishermen were arrested for snagging salmon illegally.

This year the Big Huron River stands alone among Michigan's salmon streams. It's the only one where the spawning run has not been reported.

* * *

Throngs of fishermen have taken huge catches from other streams.

* * *

The 1967 run hit a peak around Oct. 25-26 after starting weeks earlier, Yllkanen said. Last year's run began when Coho congregated in great numbers at the mouth of the Big Huron on Lake Superior.

Dogs Improve Hunters' Success

A good dog can make or break a pheasant hunting trip in this time of a dwindling ringneck population.

There aren't too many nimrods with the necessary four-legged bird finders. At least that's the observation of Howard Greene, district game biologist for the Conservation Department's Pontiac Lake office.

* * *

"One thing that impressed me last weekend was the almost total lack of old-time pheasant hunters who are interested in top-notch dog work," said Greene who has been conducting field surveys of hunters in Southeastern Michigan.

"Most of the hunters were young fellows who would jump out of the car, charge through a field, get back in the car and head elsewhere."

Hunters getting pheasants are those with good dogs, he pointed out. All entries in The Pontiac Press Pheasant Derby have been taken by nimrods using dogs.

Current leader is a 40-incher. The second place ringneck measure 39½ inches. Bonds of $50 and $25 will be awarded for the two longest ringneck entries.

Only residents of Oakland County are eligible and the entries must be brought to The Press sports department for measuring.

* * *

Beagles are fast becoming the favorite pheasant dog. Ringnecks would rather run than fly and a smart oldster can give pointing dogs a fit and usually the slip.

Flushers, such as the spaniels and cross-breeds, have a tendency to push the bird too hard and flush it out of shotgun range. However, the slow and medium speed beagles with good noses don't lose the scent or leave the hunter in their wake.

The only problem with a beagle is that a rabbit spore holds top priority. Most hound owners don't complain about this added bonus for the bag.

Duck hunting improved at St. Clair Flats last weekend with the arrival of diving species from the north. Sneak shooters report good results on bluebills.

High winds kept most hunters in the marsh at Saginaw Bay.

Just a 'Gun' Man

Geronimo Myth Bared

By BILL CRAWFORD

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (NEA) — When most people think of a bow and arrow, they also think of Indians. They shouldn't.

Even Geronimo's grandson doesn't know which end of a bow is up. Nor, as he told me during an archery hunting expedition, did his grandfather.

This disappointing revelation came to me at the opening of the bow and arrow deer season on Sandia Mountain, a game preserve almost 11,000 feet high.

* * *

The preserve is stocked with 2,800 deer, has a hunting season of 100 days and boasts some of the most spectacular scenery outside of Switzerland. Moreover, no gun hunters are allowed. In sum, it is as close to heaven as any bowhunter could hope.

One hundred and twenty bowhunters — and perhaps 150 photographers — were on hand for the season opening. Among the group were Bob Geronimo, who provided a touch of authenticity and local color, and me, the Passionate Archer of the Press, because I do know which end of a bow is up.

RIFLE HUNTER

Quiet, mild-mannered Geronimo is a heavy equipment operator for the Bureau of Indian Affairs. He lives on New Mexico's Apache Indian Reservation and normally hunts deer and antelope there as his grandfather did — with a rifle.

History records that the grandfather hunted other things as well — people, for instance. He terrorized the inhabitants of New Mexico and Arizona last century before being forced to surrender to the U.S. Army in 1886.

Geronimo and I were taken to the happy hunting grounds on the summit of Sandia, overlooking downtown Albuquerque, via the longest aerial tramway in North America. Neither of us got a look at any of the available deer, though some other hunters were more fortunate. Game warden Jack McDowell reported five deer taken during the day-long hunt.

Despite our empty bag, however, Geronimo's grandson was clearly bitten by the archery bug. And on the way back down the mountain we agreed that if his ancestors had the precision bow equipment of today, we might all be wearing feathers.

PEACE PAN ALLEY

"When I think of a subject for a song," says Peace Corps Volunteer Jack Allison, "I borrow somebody's motorbike, ride around for a while until a tune comes to me, and then I hurry into town and hum it to the lead guitarists of the Jazz Giants combo."

In less than two years, Allison, who is stationed in the east African country of Malawi (formerly Nyasaland), has written and recorded 15 hit songs, all of them in Malawi's major indigenous language, Chinyanja.

The records, which feature Allison as the vocalist and the Jazz Giants in the background, are played up to a dozen times each day over the nationwide network, Radio Malawi. Allison is described by Marshall P. Jones, U.S. Ambassador to Malawi, as the best-known American in the country.

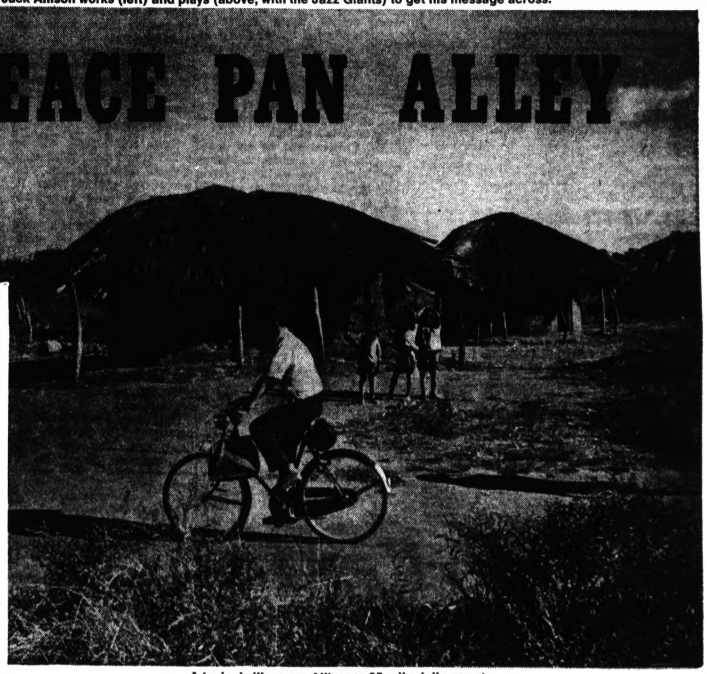
But Allison is unspoiled by success. As far as he's concerned, song-writing is just part of his Peace Corps job. A public health worker, Allison writes about eating right, keeping well, and related topics. His songs are basically an educational device.

Allison's career as a songwriter has been fostered by the Malawi Government's enthusiasm for music as a pleasant way of getting prosaic messages about self-help projects, good health and better farming out to rural areas. In almost every village of mud and thatch-roof houses there is at least one radio. Every day people gather round to listen to government-sponsored programs of advice on agriculture, the family and other educational topics.

But the major part of Allison's time is still occupied by his regular Peace Corps job—public health work in Malawi's villages. He is one of a small group of Volunteers assigned to try to correct the causes of malnutrition, which is one of Malawi's greatest health problems and a primary cause of a high infant mortality rate.

Allison lives in a small, mud-walled house in Nsiyaludzu, a village of about 1,000 people. Here he holds a child care clinic once a week. The other days of the week, Allison sets out by bicycle for villages within a 25-mile radius of Nsiyaludzu. He makes appointments with the headmen, or chiefs, of these villages to hold health demonstrations for local mothers, then calls a crowd to the town square for lectures and cooking courses based on his pet topic—adding protein to the baby's diet. "What we are doing is barely a beginning," says Allison, ". . . it's going to take a long time."

Meanwhile, Allison's lessons in music will not be lost. Nzeru Records, a local company, cut 11,000 copies of his first hit, the "Eye" song, and his royalties to date total more than $150. He plans to use the money for self-help projects in his village.



A typical village on Allison's 25-mile daily round.

A first, simple lesson—"prevention is better than cure."

It afforded highly qualified professional attention to the academic areas of reading, language arts, mathematics, science, the social studies, and as well dealt with guidance, and most extensively, with educational testing. Operations in the year to come will continue to give emphasis to these fields and their excellent orderly development throughout the district.

Attorney Withdraws as Barbara Counsel

By The Associated Press

A preliminary hearing on an extortion charge against reputed Mafia chieftain Joseph M. Barbara Jr. was adjourned yesterday because of the withdrawal of the defense attorney.

Justice Byron Walter of Farmington Township adjourned until Nov. 8 the court examination of Barbara.

The 32-year-old Fraser resident's attorney, James Daner, filed a motion Monday asking to be removed as Barbara's counsel.

Barbara said he has asked Joseph W. Louisell, well-known Detroit, lawyer, to represent him. Louisell said he was considering Barbara's request.

Barbara is charged with extorting $4,000 from Mrs. Delores Lazoros of Troy by threatening the lives of her husband, Peter, 38, and their son, John, 9, last March 27.

Barbara was identified as a Detroit-area Mafia leader in 1963 testimony before a U.S. Senate investigating committee.

Barbara is the son of Joseph Barbara who, police said, was host to an alleged meeting of underworld figures in 1957 at his estate in Apalachin, N.Y.

Recording Artists to Give Benefits for Burned Child

Buddy Sanders and his Driftwood Band, and other local recording artists, are giving two benefit shows Friday to help Annette McLean, a 5-year-old burn victim.

The benefit shows are 7 p.m. and 9 p.m. Tickets are $1 apiece if you purchase them in advance and $2 at the door. Tickets may be picked up in Union Lake at the Community National Bank branch, 1620 Union Lake, Spinal Column, 1531 United Lake; Clark and Vis Pharmacy, 1546 Union Lake; also at Jerry Yates Music Store in Pontiac at 268 N. Annette is undergoing a series of plastic surgery operations costing $20,000 to remake her face, head and chest which were badly burned three years ago.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin McLean of 1480 Hillway, White Lake Township, she fell against a hot-water tap pushing it on.

City Urges Beggars to Get Home Early

Beggars and pranksters, trick and treaters, hobgoblins and ghosts are urged to be home early from Halloween collections.

The Pontiac Department of Parks and Recreation will be calling area youngsters beginning at 9 p.m. tomorrow, hoping to give away prizes for those who are home to receive telephone calls.

* * *

The annual Mystery Treat program, sponsored by the city, the school district and Pontiac Area Jaycees, calls for prizes to be awarded to youngsters in each of three age brackets — elementary school, junior high and high school.

First, second and third place prizes will be awarded in each age bracket. To receive a prize the youngsters must answer the phone calls.

TIMES ARE SET

Grade school pupils will be called after 9 p.m., junior high students after 10:30 p.m. and senior high students after 11 p.m. First prize in each category is a wristwatch or bicycle, second prize is a radio or pen and pencil set, third prize is $5.

Officials urged that children complete their begging between 6 and 7 p.m.

* * *

Other recommendations:

Children should use makeup rather than masks, they should stay on the sidewalks, cross only at corners, carry flashlights, and beg only in their own neighborhoods.

Those under 8 years should be accompanied by an adult, officials said. They also urged that costumes should be a bright or light color to ensure that motorists will see the children.

'Viva Humphrey' Club Sets Rally

A Democratic rally sponsored by the Viva Humphrey Club will be held Saturday at 8 p.m. in the main ballroom of Cobo Hall, Detroit.

Tentatively scheduled to appear is vice presidential candidate Edmund S. Muskie, according to Tomas Chavez Jr. of Pontiac, assistant coordinator for the program.

Georgia is the largest state east of the Mississippi River.

A person's fingerprints never change.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVELY MEMORIES of my dear husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather, Glenn H. Cooper, who passed away Oct. 29, 1962, 6 years ago.
Sadly and sudden was the call.
Of one so dearly loved by all.
It was a bitter shock
A shock severe
To part with one we love so dear.
To have to hold and then to part,
You have no hold and then to part,
Is the saddest thing of the human heart.
Oh Lord keep green the grave that lies
Under the wide and starry skies
Keep sweet the sleep and dreams of rest,
Whose hands are folded over his breast.
Forgotten to the world by some you may be,
But dear to our memory you ever will be.
Sadly missed by wife, Mable, 10 children, 30 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren.

A Look at TV

Show-Business Wonders

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The rise of the Cowsills, the celebrated singing family that will have a half-hour special on NBC-TV Nov. 23, is a show business phenomenon.

But the rise of their attractive young managers, a husband-and-wife team named Leonard and Myrna Stogel, is also pretty remarkable.

Until 1965, Leonard, now 33, was in the import business in New York. Myrna has a long family background in the music business — her father being a veteran figure in the industry.

★ ★ ★

Now they have a publishing company, a record firm and a management business.

The national success of the Cowsills has taken place in just one year. The Stogels were introduced to them by a producer, saw them rehearse and thought they were impressive.

BIG INVESTMENT

Soon came an investment of about a quarter of a million dollars to impress the act on the public. This included, in addition to an exceptional promotion campaign, a 23-city tour in 30 days.

★ ★ ★

On the inside, meanwhile, in the key area of recordings, Stogel was accomplishing a major deal with MGM — at a time when a family act was going against the trend. Soon MGM was enthusiastic too, getting behind the Cowsills.

Financially speaking, a tremendous break came when a commercial arrangement with the American Dairy Association was set this year for $1 million.

★ ★ ★

Like most managers with a hot act in this town, the Stogels hope to expand into television production. And it may well be — depending on the usual factors, such as ratings and other audience reaction — the Cowsills' special could result in a series.

Is Gleason Soon to Play a Real-Life Honeymooner?

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Jackie's getting married again. (Jackie Gleason).

Gleason will definitely marry "Honey" Merrill, his executive secretary, if he succeeds in divorcing Genevieve Gleason, his wife of 33 years from whom he parted more than 25 years ago.

WILSON

This is the word from close friends of Gleason in Miami Beach. "Honey" who's in her 30s was a former dancer who applied for a job in the Gleason cast and got a secretarial job instead. The divorce action was begun so that Gleason and his secretary could marry. "Honey" will wind up giving dictation instead of taking it.

★ ★ ★

When the great insulter Don Rickles stepped onto the floor at his great Copacabana opening, ringsider Johnny Carson arose and loudly called out, "Waiter! Check, please!"

It was part of the intense kidding and reverse insulting that goes with the great success of Rickles, who had a long line waiting. I was taken to my table via the kitchen, which hasn't happened to me since the crowded days of Johnny Ray and Sammy Davis and Joe E. Lewis.

Jack Jones was among the first targets. "Here's a guy," Don told the audience, "who wakes up in the morning, looks at Jill St. John, and says 'Holy ——, she's mine!'

"Is this too fast for you, Ed?" he asked Ed Sullivan. "You have to learn to move your neck, Ed." To Johnny Carson: "Isn't this fun, John, stayin' up late?" To a guy with a hoodlum menacing look: "Is he laughin' or going for the holster?" To the president of ABC TV: "My show will go on despite you!" To his mother: "I don't care what you say, mom you're not gonna get up here. I'm puttin' you in a home."

★ ★ ★

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

A strange sidelight to Jackie Onassis marriage is that there'd been a rumor since last winter that she would get mraried this month or next and "take the election news off the front pages." On Feb. 23 we printed the rumor that Jackie'd get married "next fall, just before or right after the election" — to Lord Harlech, of course. Anyway, we had the date right.

Judy Garland wanted to fly to Munich for the opening of "Hair" but the Internal Revenue discouraged it because of her tax debt. Judy has other troubles, too. "My music is withheld from me" (in he personal squabbles) "and I can't work." Asked when she might make another personal appearance — her fans keep writing in asking that question — Judy said, "You find out for me!"

EARL'S PEARLS: Judging by the price of mink coats (sighs a husband) those little devils certainly sold their lives dearly.

Are Paul complained about a visit to a plush Manhattan restaurant: "Why'd they have to go and spoil all that good French cooking with those terrible American prices?" That's earl, brother.

SOME DUCK—Webster, a Lancaster, Pa., duck, shown with her owner, Craig Lauver, lays three eggs a day. This is quite a feat—normally, ducks lay only one a day. County farm agent Max Smith comments: "I'm not an old duck man myself, but I've never heard of any bird laying three eggs a day."

U.S. Film Makers' Romance With England Cools

By BOB THOMAS

LONDON (AP) — "The Americans will be pulling out of British film-making next year," predicts actor Michael Caine. His forecast expresses the growing fears of English film makers that their romance with U.S. movie companies is cooling.

THOMAS

Caine is a notable beneficiary of American interest in English films. From "Alfie" to his latest film, "The Italian Job," his starring movies have been backed with U.S. money. That is true of virtually all important films made in England.

★ ★ ★

"The Americans have been stung too many times," commented Caine. "They thought that all they had to do was hire directors who could present visual images. But the directors didn't know how to handle actors, and the pictures didn't turn out too well.

★ ★ ★

"Charles Bludhorn (of Paramount) was impressed when he picked up 'Alfie' for almost nothing and made a bloody fortune. But he found out that experience wasn't so easy to duplicate. After picking a number of losers, he's giving up on England."

NOT THAT DIRE

The situation isn't as dire as Caine paints it, but many American film executives, like Bludhorn, feel that it is time to retrench on English production. The reasons for the cutback:

★ ★ ★

● Pressures of Hollywood union leaders who have inveighed against "runaway production." These leaders have been vocal in the press and Congress with their efforts to stem the drain of film making overseas. They have helped to awaken film leaders to the necessity of preserving a domestic film industry.

★ ★ ★

● The rise of production costs in England. Constant pressure for better terms on the part of British film unions has narrowed the cost difference between American and English film making.

★ ★ ★

● Saturation of the American market with English film subjects. British actors, directors and writers have dominated American-backed films for five years; now the American public seems eager to embrace native actors and films. Witness the success of such films as "The Graduate," "In the Heat of the Night," "Bonnie and Clyde," "The Odd Couple" and others.

★ ★ ★

Andrew Filson, director of the Film Production Association of Great Britain, takes a cautious view of the future: "There is certain to be an increase of production in America. This is due to a real and understandable concern that the men and facilities of the American studios are not being fully used, also because such good American films have been forthcoming.

★ ★ ★

"But this increase in America does not necessarily mean a decrease in England. We feel that England still offers excellent facilities for film makers, plus a reservoir of top-notch talent in the acting, directing and writing categories. There is reason for both industries to thrive: the world needs celluloid."

ONE BIG QUESTION

There is a question as to whether England itself can support the film industry. In less than a decade, the number of movie houses has dropped from 3,000 to 1,700; the loss has been caused by television, bingo and increased real estate values that required movie houses to be converted to more productive uses.

★ ★ ★

What would happen if American financing of English-made films dropped sharply?

Without doubt, the British film industry would be in a bad way. English capital is limited. The Eady plan, by which films are financed through admission taxes, would not be sufficient to support local production. A film finance corporation, set up in 1952 to back British production, has virtually run out of money.

★ ★ ★

British film leaders are now looking to the government for a solution to the industry's problems. The entire program is being reviewed by the government with an eye toward a new film law in 1970.

Waterford Vote Urged on School Millage, Bond Issue

MAKE OVER PAGES

By ED BLUNDEN

A Waterford Township School District citizens' committee last night recommended that the school board call a special election for a nine-mill tax increase for operating schools plus a $10.9-million bond issue for construction need.

The school board meets to consider the recommendations at 7 p.m. Friday at the administration office, 3101 W. Walton. The board decided Oct. 17 that the election should be held on Saturday, Dec. 7. Official action is slated for Friday.

★ ★ ★

The committee asked that the nine mills be requested for two years and that during that time the district work with other state taxpayers' groups to bring about tax reforms that would solve school finance problems.

It was pointed out the nine mills would not solve all the district's financial problems in spite of the fact it would give the district the highest total millage rate of any district in the county, 41.7 mills.

RESTORE SERVICES

The part of the committee which reported on the millage needs stated it would bring the district about $2.3 million annually, raising total income to about $13.4 million. They reported the increase would allow the district to restore some service cuts initiated when a millage request failed last November.

In addition to restoring full-time programs in all school levels, the added money would provide for 18 additional teaching positions and for some remedial reading and physical education classes, it was reported. The committee said the money would also allow Mott High School to become accredited by the time of its first graduating class in June, 1970.

School officials said the entire system's accreditation is endangered because of limited programs.

★ ★ ★

The decision to request nine more mills from district taxpayers met some resistance among the committee. Objections were based not on challenging the district's need for the money but on long-range solutions based on tax reforms that would bring more funds into the system without further burdening property owners.

Leading the dissent were Bruce Annett and H. Delos Nicholls, two area real estate dealers. Annett pointed out a too-high millage rate makes the area unattractive for development. However, a poor school system also discourages buyers, he said.

Thousands Attend His County Rally

Nixon Vows: I'll Win and Keep the Peace

Ex-VP, Humphrey Focus on Big States

From Our News Wires

Richard M. Nixon and Hubert H. Humphrey campaigned for big-state votes today.

Humphrey claimed Nixon has never done anything for the poor; Nixon said a vote for Humphrey was a vote for "anarchy."

★ ★ ★

In Detroit last night, third-party candidate George C. Wallace's rally turned into a chair-throwing melee, and he said at one point: "If you want to stop all this nonsense, you vote for me Nov. 5 and I'll stop it."

Related Stories, Page A-5

Today, Nixon aimed at the big states of Minnesota, Illinois and Ohio while Humphrey set his sights on the big cities, including New York and Baltimore.

LOOKS TO MICHIGAN

Nixon said yesterday the election of Humphrey would mean a further drift toward "anarchy, violence and bitterness."

Wallace said yesterday that northern industrial states like Michigan will help propel him into the White House.

"I think we're going to have 177 electoral votes from the 17 southern and border states," Wallace told reporters on his arrival here. "And we'll pick up about four states like Michigan and Illinois and Indiana and Wisconsin and we can win.

Humphrey, meanwhile, continued claiming Nixon has never done anything for the working man, the black man, the poor, the aged or the ill.

In Pittsburgh yesterday, he also jubilantly welcomed the qualified endorsement of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, his fellow Minnesotan whom he defeated for the presidential nomination in Chicago two months ago. Humphrey said McCarthy's backing would have a "decidedly good" effect on his campaign.

In other political developments:

● Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, the Democratic vice presidential candidate, said in Amarillo, Texas, that Nixon wasn't "good enough" for voters in 1960 and 1962 elections and added: "Well, why in 1968 should we regard him as good enough for the tough problems which face the country?"

★ ★ ★

● Curtis E. LeMay, the American Independent vice presidential candidate, said Hanoi won't negotiate "until we twist their arms a little more." He said renewed bombing of North Vietnam and closing of the Port of Haiphong are two steps that could be taken. LeMay also attacked administration of the Social Security system.

● Poll — The Sindlinger Poll, a national telephone sample said yesterday the gap between Humphrey and Nixon had narrowed to almost 3 percentage points. The poll gave Nixon 36.8 per cent of the expected vote, Humphrey 33.6 per cent and Wallace 12.3 per cent.

★ ★ ★

● A Nixon spokesman said the television commercial showing Humphrey laughing amid scenes of rioting, war and poverty has been withdrawn.

But the Democratic National Committee complained last night that the GOP commercial was shown in Kansas City after the announcement it had been withdrawn.

Richard M. Nixon Spoke On Key Issues During Visit To Southfield

GOP Candidate Makes Last Bid for Metro Vote

By JIM LONG

Making his last campaign swing through the Detroit area, Republican presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon said yesterday in Southfield that only he has the experience and abilility to win and keep the peace.

Answering a charge made the day earlier by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey that Nixon could not be trusted to lead the county, Nixon said, "I trained for eight years under Gen. Eisenhower, and he (Humphrey) only four under Johnson."

"We had peace during those years," asserted Nixon. "They have had only war."

Related Pictures, Page A-4

Nixon spoke before an audience of several thousand jammed into the Raleigh House in Southfield. The crowd in and outside was estimated by officials at between 4,000 and 6,000 persons.

★ ★ ★

Promising a new leadership if elected to the White House, Nixon said, "Looking back over the last four years, we have had the longest war, more crimes and highest taxes.

"And now they come alone and say give up four more years. I say no. We cannot continue to stumble and bungle," the former vice president said.

Congressman William S. Broomfield of the 18th district introduced Nixon as "the one we need to rebuild this country. We need a man of peace who can lead this country out of turmoil. Nixon is a leader we can trust."

Accompanying Nixon were his wife, Pat, and Gov. and Mrs. George Romney.

SAME BASIC SPEECH

Giving basically the same speech that he had made at several stops during his tour of the metropolitan area, Nixon urged party workers to get him an extra half-vote a precinct because "it could make the difference."

Admitting that Michigan is a swing state, he pointed out that in 1960 the difference amounted to only 1 per cent. Twenty-one electoral votes are at stake in Michigan.

One of the biggest ovations Nixon received was when he referred to the

Red Spaceman, Ship Land Softly

MOSCOW (AP) — Cosmonaut Georgy Beregovoy and the Soviet spaceship Soyuz 3 returned to earth today after nearly four days in orbit during which they set no records and apparently scored no breakthroughs for the Soviet space program.

Tass said the spaceship made a soft landing where it was supposed to in the Soviet Union but did not give the exact location.

★ ★ ★

Beregovoy "feels well," said the Soviet news agency, and was met by "friends and correspondents in the area where he landed."

"Cosmonaut Georgy Beregovoy successfully completed the program of scientific and technical research," Tass said.

4-DAY PROBE

The 47-year-old cosmonaut's flight was the first manned flight in 18 months for the Soviet Union.

Beregovoy was launched into space last Saturday morning and began a tandem flight around the earth in the wake of the unmanned spacecraft Soyuz 2, which had been launched the day before.

U.S. Again Offers to Quit S. Viet if Hanoi Pulls Out

PARIS (AP) — The United States offered again today to quit South Vietnam if North Vietnamese forces pull out in a phased program toward peace.

Ambassador W. Averell Harriman told the 28th session of the Paris talks with North Vietnam also that a political settlement should be based on the 1954 Geneva agreements that ended France's Indochina war.

★ ★ ★

Harriman called for urgent joint American-North Vietnamese action to cut back the fighting. He repeated President Johnson's promise of new American aid for the economic recovery of all Vietnam.

"Both of our countries need their young men at home," Harriman told North Vietnamese Ambassador Xuan Thuy. "Continued war benefits no one. I can assure you my countrymen know well the importance of peace. Peace will open to the people of North Vietnam as well as the people of South Vietnam the chance for a prosperity and economic self-sufficiency such as Vietnam has never known throughout its long history.

★ ★ ★

"Consistent with the accords of 1954 we have said that we seek ways to bring about the removal from South Vietnam of all armed forces except those of the South Vietnamese," Harriman said.

City to Captain Its Renewal?

By BOB WISLER

The course of Pontiac's downtown urban renewal program may take a new tack in the next few weeks.

City planners and architects of the Pontiac Plan for redeveloping the city's 27 acres of urban renewal land have met with officials of the Department of Housing and Urban development to explore the possibility of the city taking a stronger role in its urban renewal.

★ ★ ★

The concept calls for the city to become the prime controlling agent in the renewal project, thus taking over the job usually performed by a big developer.

City Planning Director James L. Bates and Budd Findlay, Land Development Coordinator, also have made preliminary recommendations to the Pontiac City Commission calling for the new concept in the downtown development.

CAPTAIN OF ITS SHIP

Thus the city may wind up being captain of the ship instead of allowing one big developer to guide the project.

Bates said officials of HUD, which is paying for three-fourths of the cost of planning, land acquisition and demolition, have received the basic approach and are enthusiastic.

★ ★ ★

Bates said the approach is very logical. He said it would enable the city to get the project completed faster, realize a greater return on the sale of the land, and control construction factors to ensure a better development.

The developer of record in all public discussion of the Pontiac plan so far has been the business firm of Michael and Herbert Chernick of Detroit.

DRAWBACKS DISCUSSED

But, recent discussion among the planners and architects have focused on several drawbacks to the idea of one developer having control of the project. Officials said it is possible that the city can take a new approach to the development problem with the Chernicks, only with the Chernicks having less control and less responsibility in the matter.

★ ★ ★

Marvin D. Skelton, financial spokesman for the developer, said the Chernicks still want to see the project through but he said they would be satisfied with an arrangement which calls for the city to become the prime controlling agent.

U. S. Viet Commander, Johnson Meet Secretly

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Creighton W. Abrams Jr., U.S. commander in Vietnam, has paid a supersecret call on the White House in the midst of stepped up efforts to de-escalate the war. But a White House spokesman says the visit does not mean there has been a breakthrough toward peace.

News Secretary George Christian would not go beyond saying that Abrams's session with President Johnson, which wasn't announced until after the general had left to return to Vietnam yesterday, was a "general military review."

However, sources in Saigon said Abrams had been ordered to Washington to give the President his views on what effect a bombing halt of North Vietnam would have on the war situation.

Abrams' visit, his first known return to the United States since just before he took command last March, sparked immediate speculation of some new development in Johnson's current peace drive.

LULL DISCUSSED

Christian could not comment further than the military review statement, and the word went out from the White House to the Pentagon to say nothing.

It was certain, however, that Johnson and Abrams talked about the lull in the Vietnam fighting and its possible significance beyond the usual enemy pattern of avoiding combat and withdrawing to sanctuaries periodically to refit.

★ ★ ★

U.S. military authorities have reported recent intelligence suggesting the enemy may be preparing for another winter offensive.

According to professional military judgment here, the North Vietnamese and Vietcong attempted—and failed—to mount major offensives in May and again in August and September.

The U.S. military view is that the North Vietnamese and Vietcong have lost the ability to sustain anything like last January's Tet offensive, which had a nearly disastrous impact on the allied war effort.

★ ★ ★

Like other senior U.S. military men, Abrams has been opposed to any bombing halt unless there are assurances the North Vietnamese would not use a halt to achieve a battlefield advantage over American and South Vietnamese forces.

Bombing Continues, Speculation Grows

SAIGON (AP) — American fighter-bombers kept up their heavy raids across North Vietnam's southern panhandle today amid growing speculation that President Johnson's peace offensive is approaching some sort of climax.

Unconfirmed reports circulated that U.S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker and President Nguyen Van Thieu were preparing a joint statement in which the South Vietnamese government would at least accept a halt in the bombing of North Vietnam. There also were reports of more talks between Thieu and Bunker and rumors that Thieu planend a nationwide television address on the bombing halt.

★ ★ ★

Despite the reports and speculation, senior U.S. officers said they had no indication that an immediate bombing halt might be in the works.

While U.S. jets were striking North Vietnamese supply routes, Thieu told newsmen in Saigon that Hanoi so far has proved unbending in its response to President Johnson's new peace offensive.

NO LETUP IN SIGHT

Military sources said more air strikes against North Vietnam were being planned for tomorrow and there was no indication of any kind of letup.

U. S. pilots flew 134 missions against North Vietnam yesterday.

U. S. headquarters said an Air Force F4 photo-reconnaissance plane failed to return from a mission over the panhandle Monday and is "presumed down to enemy groundfire." The two crewmen are missing. It was the 914th American warplane reported down in combat over the North.

While enemy ground forces generally continued to lie low, a task force of U.S. boats and South Vietnamese planes raided Vietcong positions along the 32 miles of a river complex near the southermost tip of the country. A U.S. navy spokesman said 242 enemy sampans and other water craft were smashed and 167 bunkers and other structures were destroyed.

At the other end of the country yesterday, the battleship New Jersey bombarded targets in the northern half of the demilitarized zone.

Buick Strike Settled; 21,000 Return to Work

FLINT (UPI) — Some 21,000 workers were returning to their jobs today following settlement of a 14-day strike at Buick Division facilities here.

General Motors Corp. officials said two outstanding production standard grievances had been smoothed out last night, signaling striking United Auto Workers Local 599's call to end the walkout which began Oct. 16.

The strike was triggered when the union charged Buick was speeding up work along the assembly line.

U.S. Scientists Nobel Winners

STOCKHOLM (AP) — The 1968 Nobel prizes in chemistry and physics went to two Americans today, the chemistry prize to Lars Onsager of Yale University and the physics award to Luis W. Alvarez of the University of California at Berkeley.

It was a clean sweep of the Nobel scientific awards for the United States. Three American professors who deciphered the genetic code shared the prize for medicine and physiology announced earlier.

★ ★ ★

The 1968 peace prize has been awarded to Prof. Rene Cassin, an 81-year-old Frenchman, while a Japanese novelist, Yasunari Kawabata, 69, was the winner of the prize for literature.

The awards are worth $70,000 each this year, a record.

★ ★ ★

Onsager, 64, won his prize for the discovery of the Onsager reciprocal relations, "which are fundamental for the thermodynamics of irreversible processes," the award committee said. A native of Norway, he came to the United States in 1928 and was naturalized in 1945.

Alvarez, 57, was honored for his "decisive contributions to elementary particle physics." The award committee cited in particular his discovery of "a large number of resonance states, made possible through his development of the technique of using hydrogen bubble chamber and data analysis." He is a native of San Francisco.

Area Youth Faces Rape-Kidnap Trial

A Waterford Township youth was ordered yesterday to stand trial in Oakland County Circuit Court on charges of statutory rape, kidnaping and gross indecency.

★ ★ ★

Michael Lemon, 19, of 3867 Iris entered an innocent plea to the charges when he was arraigned before Circuit Judge Frederick C. Ziem.

★ ★ ★

Ziem did not schedule a trial date. Lemon was returned to the Oakland County Jail pending his hearing.

Lemon is accused of kidnaping a 15-year-old girl at gunpoint and raping her in a field near her home Oct. 8.

Area Orthodontist Faces Murder Trial

A Birmingham orthodontist yesterday was ordered to stand trial in Oakland County Circuit Court in the murder of his ex-wife and 7-year-old son earlier this month.

Standing mute at his arraignment yesterday before Circuit Judge William R. Beasley was Dr. Daniel J. Boucher, 44, of 3130 W. Long Lake, Bloomfield Township.

★ ★ ★

Boucher is accused of the Oct. 16 shotgun deaths of his former wife, Blanche, 52, and son, Daniel.

A motion by Detroit attorney Albert Summers to free his client on bond was denied by Judge Beasley.

Boucher was returned to the Oakland County Jail to await trial. No date was set.

Board Okays Water, Sewer Bond Sales

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — The Township Board has passed a resolution authorizing the issuance and sale of $365,000 in water and sanitary sewer bonds for four districts.

The projects include Franklin Hickory Grove water main extension, a water main in Ward Orchards Subdivision, a sanitary sewer in Chelmsleigh Cranbrook Subdivision and a Hickory Knolls Subdivision water main extension.

★ ★ ★

The Township Board has turned down a controversial petition for improvement of 10 streets in Meadowlake Farms and Maple Meadows Subdivisions.

The denial came at the resumption of an adjourned public hearing of Oct. 14, when a number of residents voiced disapproval of the plan, even though some of them had signed a petition last spring in favor of it.

AFFECTED BY ARGUMENTS

Rejection of the $300,000 project was made by the board because of some of the arguments presented. Several persons who had signed the petition said they were not aware that they were committing themselves when they signed.

The board also passed a resolution setting a second hearing Dec. 9 to discuss the special assessment for Kirk Caldy sanitary sewer. Twenty-seven sites are involved in the approximately $74,200 project.

★ ★ ★

At another first public hearing, to consider a specially assessed water main in Lone Pine Heights Subdivision, the board set the second hearing for Dec. 9.

The petition in favor has been signed by 53.8 per cent of the 67 lot owners affected. Estimated cost of the project is $69,000.

HEARING SET

Another hearing was set for Dec. 9 to consider a $23,700 sanitary sewer project on Ranch Lane.

★ ★ ★

The board also adopted a resolution stating that the township would pay up to 50 per cent for construction of sidewalks for safety of schoolchildren.

The project would be undertaken cooperatively with the petitioning agency and each sidewalk proposal will be considered by the board on an individual basis.

An Open Letter . . .

TO THE CITIZENS OF PONTIAC FROM

ROBERT E.

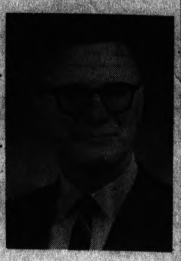
CUNNINGHAM

DISTRICT JUDGE—CANDIDATE

Dear Fellow Citizens:

I am writing you because as a resident, citizen, and taxpayer of the City of Pontiac, I believe you are as concerned as I about law, order and justice.

As a practicing attorney, I have an opportunity to observe many of my fellow citizens who have been the victims of savage beatings, stabbings, muggings, robbery and other violent crimes including murder. As an ordinary citizen, I read the daily newspaper accounts of other violence visited upon the people of Pontiac and other parts of our country. As an able bodied male American of 40 years, I know for a fact that some of the streets of Pontiac are unsafe for me after dark and most certainly unsafe for your wife and children.



As a taxpaying citizen of Pontiac, I feel that the people of the City should not be required to face the danger of crime and violence in their homes, yards and streets. I feel that the people of Pontiac pay dearly, with their tax dollars, for law, order and justice. It is inconceivable to me that the people of Pontiac will permit this situation to continue.

I believe that we must have law and order if we are to survive as a society, and I believe that we can have law and order with JUSTICE FOR ALL.

Recently I read, on the editorial page of The Pontiac Press, an article written by Dick Saunders entitled "Justice First—Then Law and Order." To that argument, I comment that no good American is advocating law and order WITHOUT justice. I do feel however that WITHOUT law and order there can be no justice because without law and order we soon retrogress to the law of the jungle in which there is no justice for anyone.

I am sincere in my pledge that I will strive for law and order based on justice for all if I am elected on November 5th to the post of District Judge for the City of Pontiac. I have taken this position publicly and consistently in all of my advertisements and circulars.

I believe I am well qualified for the position I seek and I submit the following information about myself for your consideration:

1. I am a graduate of Wayne State University, B.A., 1961
2. I am a graduate of the Detroit College of Law, LL.B., 1964
3. I am a member of the American, State and County Bar Associations
4. I am a United States Air Force veteran of World War II
5. I am a United States Air Force veteran of the Korean War
6. I was trained at a leading university as a United States Air Force Interrogation Officer.
7. I am a former member of the top secret United States Army Security Agency
8. I am an appointee of Governor Romney to the three man Oakland County Veterans Trust Fund Committee.
9. I have held management positions in private industry
10. I have been a self-employed small businessman
11. I have been a self-employed practicing attorney here in the City for almost four years.
12. I am experienced in the practice of law in all the State and Federal Courts of this area.

In closing my fellow citizens, let me say that I am asking you to vote for me on November 5th for the position of DISTRICT JUDGE for the City of Pontiac. Stated another way: I am asking you to hire me to enforce your laws. You will elect others to make your laws. If I ask you to hire me to enforce YOUR laws as made by the legislators YOU elect, surely I should pledge myself to enforce YOUR laws until such time as you see fit to change the laws through your legislature. I DO SO PLEDGE.

Sincerely yours

Robert E. Cunningham

Castoff From Browns Gives Boost to 49ers

Clifton McNeil Sets Pass-Catching Pace in NFL Race

NEW YORK (AP) — Clifton McNeil, the Cleveland castoff who found a new home at San Francisco, is making a runaway of the pass catching race in the National Football League.

At the halfway mark in the race, the speedy flanker has caught 43 passes for 584 yards, an average of 13.6 and has scored four touchdowns. His closest competitor, Charley Taylor of Washington, the champ for the last two years, has caught only 31 passes.

★ ★ ★

Bart Starr's passing display against Dallas earned the Green Bay quarterback the lead in passing. Starr has a 65.5 percentage of completions, 13 touchdown passes, 6.0 percentage of interceptions and an 10.01 average gain.

Gale Sayers moved back out front in the rushing race. The Chicago Bears' halfback has run for 619 yards on 103 carries, a six-yard average.

SCORING LEADER

Bill Brown of Minnesota retained the scoring lead with 10 touchdowns for 60 points, while Billy Lothridge of Atlanta took over the No. 1 spot in punting, displacing Mike Bragg of Washington. Eddie Meador of the Los Angeles Rams moved out front with six interceptions.

Alvin Haymond of Philadelphia continued to lead the punt return men and Preston Pearson of Baltimore paced the kick-off return artists.

DeMoss Heads Team

Purdue Boss Ailing

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — The liver ailment that has sent Coach Jack Mollenkopf of No. 6 ranked Purdue to the hospital is "not a real severe case," his wife said.

Mrs. Mollenkopf said her husband, who will be 63 Nov. 24, was feeling good but was very tired.

She took Mollenkopf to Home Hospital here Tuesday after tests showed he had infectious hepatitis.

Dr. Loyal W. Combs, team physician and director of the Purdue Health Service, placed the coach in isolation and said he would not be able to resume his duties for at least three weeks.

Bob DeMoss, a Purdue quarterback star in the late 1940s and considered the mastermind of the team's high-scoring offense, was named acting head coach. DeMoss, now in his 19th season as a Purdue coach, filled that same role for two games in 1961 when Mollnekopf went to the Mayo Clinic for an operation to halt a colon infection.

PLAYERS EXEMPT

DeMoss and the eight other coaches received immuniaztion shots Tuesday but the players would not need immunization immediately because all their contact with Mollenkopf had been outside, a Purdue spokesman said.

Purdue, which was the preseason pick to win the national championship and was No. 1 until a 13-0 loss to Ohio State three weeks ago, plays Illinois, Minnesota, Michigan State and Indiana in its next four games. The Boilermakers have a 5-1 record.

"Jack just needs a lot of rest," Mrs. Mollnekopf said. "We're hoping it doesn't take too long to recover."

She said Mollenkopf woke up feeling ill the morning of the Wake Forest game two weeks ago.

"He's been dragging since," she said. "We haven't any idea how he got it."

WINNING COACH

Mollenkopf, who was a winning high school coach at Rossford and Toledo, Ohio, before going to Purdue in 1947, has had only one losing season since taking the Purdue head coaching job in 1956.

His 1966 team beat Southern California 14-13 in Purdue's only Rose Bowl appearance.

"I'm head coach in name only," DeMoss said. "We all have our jobs to do and we'll do them. We'll miss the boss."

New Orleans Avenges Loss to Oakland 5

By the Associated Press

All of a sudden, the runaway has turned into a race in the American Basketball Association's Western Division title chase.

New Orleans added a little suspense to the championship race by handing Oakland its first loss in four games Tuesday night, 124-119, despite a 39-point showing by the Oaks' fabulous Rick Barry.

★ ★ ★

The victory, avenging New Orleans' only loss in three games, put the Bucks only a half game behind Oakland.

The Oaks took an early first-period lead but couldn't stay in front, although they managed to tie the Bucs 86-all in the third quarter. New Orleans moved ahead 97-87 before Oakland cut the deficit to 119-117. But the Bucs pulled away once again.

James Jones paced New Orleans with 26 points.

PERFECT MARK

Meanwhile, Minnesota got a 24-point showing from Connie Hawkins and kept its record perfect with a 116-108 conquest of Miami and New York rallied in the last half to whip Denver 108-89 in other league activity.

Minnesota, 2-0 and leading the Eastern Division, had to stage a last half rally to hand Miami its third straight setback. The Floridians grabbed a 79-78 lead with 2:40 left in the third quarter before Minnesota outscored them 11-2 for an 89-81 lead it never relinquished.

Chico Vaughn scored 23 points for the Pipers. Willie Murrell led Miami with 24.

Dancer's Image Heads for Farm

BOSTON (AP) — Dancer's Image, disqualified after finishing first in the Kentucky Derby, has been syndicated for $2 million and will stand in stud at Glade Valley Farms in Frederick, Md.

Owner Peter Fuller said Tuesday he will retain 20 of 32 syndicated shares, each worth $62,500.

Oxford Harriers Post 10th Win

Oxford grabbed three of the top five places yesterday in handing Kettering a 25-31 cross-country defeat.

Jim Goodfellow led the Oxford (10-1) win with a time of 10:55. Teammates Jim Acheson and Lee Royer placed fourth-fifth, Kevin Reabe (2) and Dave Meyerhofer (3) sparked Kettering (5-4).

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

By John Carter

Here's an amazing fact about Otto Graham, who is now coach of the Washington Redskins . . . When Graham played pro football with Cleveland as their quarterback, they finished in first place EVERY season . . . That's really amazing when you consider that Graham quarterbacked Cleveland for a total of 10 years, from 1946 through 1955, and in each of those seasons they wound up in first place!

★ ★ ★

Here's a football oddity . . . in all of football history, there have been very, very few good left-handed passers . . . Isn't it strange that there haven't been more lefty throwers in football.

★ ★ ★

One of the most famous nicknames if football is Notre Dame's — the "Fighting Irish" — but, did you know Notre Dame has not always had that nickname? . . . It seems hard to believe any Notre Dame squad ever could have had a different nickname, but their original nickname was "Hoosiers" . . . "Fighting Irish" didn't come along till many years after they started playing intercollegiate football.

★ ★ ★

I bet you didn't know . . . that the big reason we don't sell 2nd, 3rd and 4th line cheap tires is that they're too expensive — Too little mileage, too little safety factor, too many dissatisfied customers. We'd rather sell quality, time and again to satisfied customers.
