Viet Nam Split, With 13 Million Falling to Reds

Vietminh Rebels Agree to Get Out of Cambodia and Laos in 60 Days

GENEVA (AP) — France made peace with her Communist enemies in Indochina just before dawn today and a new Iron Curtain clanked down on 13 million persons in north Viet Nam.

Gen. Georges Delteil of France and Gen. Ta Quang Buu of the Vietminh rebels signed armistice agreements covering Viet Nam and Laos just 3 hours and 50 minutes after the Tuesday midnight deadline French Premier Pierre Mendes-France had set for peace or his resignation.

A truce for the third Indochina state, Cambodia, was signed later today.

Cambodia signed with the Vietminh at 12:42 p.m. Representatives of all parties to the Indochina conference gathered for the ceremony, including Lt. Col. John E. Dwan of the U.S. Army, Nihok Tiouloung, commander in chief of Cambodian forces, signed for Cambodia and Gen. Ta Quang Buu for the Vietminh.

But the big event had come nine hours earlier in the signing of the agreement on Viet Nam and Laos.

The simple signing ceremony, under a blaze of photographers' lights in the former home of the League of Nations, called a halt to an eight-year war in which 92,000 soldiers of the French Union expeditionary corps died or disappeared.

It also laid a Korea-like partition across the 42-mile waist of Viet Nam, Indochina's largest, richest and most populous state. (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

How Indochina Is Divided

EAST-WEST AGREEMENT—Agreement to end eight-year war in Indochina was reached at Geneva Tuesday with partitioning of Viet Nam along a line running about 12 miles north of Highway No. 9, leading from Quang Tri on the coastal road to Savannakhet in Laos. The cease-fire pact gives north Viet Nam to the Vietminh (shaded area). South Viet Nam goes to French-sponsored Viet Nam. The French will control Laos and Cambodia.

Last Minute Jump Saves Driver

Mervin Keiss of Durand, fireman for the railway, is cleaning off bottles of pop pushed onto the engine's "cowcatcher" by the impact.

Train Demolishes Truck as Driver Leaps to Safety

Harold B. Walter, 55, of Waterford Township, leaped to safety moments before a freight train rammed his truck stalled on a downtown Pontiac railroad crossing yesterday afternoon.

The truck, loaded with bottles of soft drinks, was ripped apart and scattered 75 feet along the tracks. Damage was estimated at $4,000 by F. H. Baker, vice president of the Coca Cola Bottling Co., Pontiac, which dispatched the truck.

Walter, who resides at 98 Calvert, was driving the truck to Waterford Township to turn it over to another driver when the vehicle stalled on the Grand Trunk Western Railroad tracks on W. Huron street just west of Cass avenue.

He was unhurt when he jumped from the truck. No one else was in the vehicle.

Harry Gregory of Durand, train conductor, said the train was leaving town at about 10 miles an hour. Engineer Joseph Stiff, also of Durand, said he saw the truck when the train was 40 feet from the crossing and "I didn't have a chance to stop."

Automobile traffic and a north-bound passenger train were halted for about 30 minutes while workmen cleared the debris from the tracks. Little damage was done to the train, according to the crew.

Baker said the load of Cokes was a total loss.

Britain Shivers This Summer as U.S. Roasts

LONDON (AP) — Britons are sleeping under blankets this summer. Plenty of blankets.

While America roasts, pretty young things in England are wearing autumn coats. Many a manly chest is encased in a woolen sweater. Landladies of seaside guest houses are going broke for want of business.

Seen in a suburban street outside London on a day the thermometer hit 111 in Kansas: An 8-year-old girl out for a stroll, bundled up in a woolen scarf and mittens.

Most of the season it's been cold, cloudy and rainy. The number of clear, warm days could be counted on the fingers of one hand. Daytime temperatures have been mostly in the low 60s. Once the thermometer slumped to 46. Once it shot up — to 75. But that was just a teaser. At night the readings have been in the low 50s.

Hospital Burns at Square Lake and Woodward

All Patients Reported Safe; Are Removed to St. Joseph Mercy

Fire swept through the Bloomfield Hospital near Pontiac this morning, but first reports indicated that all the patients were removed to safety.

At least five fire departments are fighting the blaze, believed to be confined to the top floor of the three-story frame building. Patients, carried outside while lying in their beds, were put into ambulances and shuttled to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. At least a dozen patients were lying on beds on the hospital grounds shortly after the fire broke out.

Fifteen nurses from St. Joseph Hospital were summoned to aid Bloomfield Hospital authorities by two Catholic nuns who were driving by the hospital when flames shot up from its roof.

The hospital is a private institution primarily used for convalescent cases. It is located at Woodward Ave. and Square Lake Rd.

Firemen at first believed that they would be unable to control the flames fanned by a stiff wind from the east. They were spraying water on the structure from ladders.

A gas station attendant, Ronald Walsh, 25, of 3814 Linwood, Royal Oak, said he saw the roof smoking and then burst into flames. The station is across Woodward from the hospital.

"I saw a workman on the roof of the hospital," said Walsh, "and the roof was smoking. He came down on a ladder and left. About 15 minutes later flames shot out of the roof."

Walsh said he tried to phone the Bloomfield Fire Department, but the line was busy. About five minutes later a fire truck arrived.

Firemen from Pontiac, Bloomfield, West Bloomfield Township, Troy Township and Birmingham battled the flames. Three other communities dispatched firemen to the scene, according to observers.

Clyde Marshbanks, hospital director, said all 45 patients were (Continued on Page 2, Col. 7)

Pontiac Area to Cool Tonight, Tomorrow

The Pontiac area will have fair and cooler weather tonight and Thursday, according to the U. S. Weather Bureau.

A low of 58 to 62 is forecast for tonight. The high Thursday will be 82 to 86.

In downtown Pontiac yesterday, temperatures ranged from 67 to 80. Today the reading at 8 a.m. was 64, rising to 72 at 1 p.m.

Woodard admitted stuffing blank paper in a money bag July 3 which he turned into Simms Brothers, Inc., as the day's receipts.

Arraigned before Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan yesterday on a charge of embezzlement, Woodard waived examination and was returned to Oakland County Jail when unable to post $1,000 bond. He will be arraigned in Circuit Court Monday.

He told Roberts he took a bus to New Orleans after driving from Pontiac to Detroit and leaving his car in a garage there. Woodard told of living high with trips to the best restaurants and dance halls.

Woodard said he failed to give any cash to his wife, Dolores, 21. The couple has two children and Dolores is expecting another child soon.

Woodard was discharged from the Army in 1950 with a heart condition after serving a year-and-a-half. He had worked at Simms about a year and was in line for promotion to assistant manager of the camera department, Woodard told Roberts.

Barry Confirms Van Atta Firing

Says Political Activities of Waterford Chief Necessitated Dismissal

Waterford Township Clerk Louis G. Barry today confirmed the firing of Police Chief Frank Van Atta for political activities, by resolution at the township board meeting Monday evening.

Barry prepared a statement on the firing, which said in part:

"It is axiomatic in our system of government that appointed servants of the people in government must refrain from engaging in or using their public position to abet activities in the political arena."

The police department especially must be kept free of partisanship, of political rancor and dissension, for the good police officer is the servant of the entire community. When he becomes the servant of a faction group within the community, he loses effectiveness as a police officer," the statement continued.

Barry said the statement represented the feelings of the majority of the board of trustees.

Van Atta said yesterday he had been informed of his ouster by letter from the clerk.

He added that he believed the firing was caused because he favors Frank Irons as a candidate for Oakland County Sheriff in the Aug. 3 primary.

Irons and two other candidates oppose Sheriff Clare Hubbell on the Republican ticket. Hubbell revoked Van Atta's status as an Oakland County special deputy Saturday.

Township Supervisor Lloyd Anderson said yesterday he voted against the firing of Van Atta, and "was completely satisfied with him as chief."

The statement continued, "Frank Van Atta freely chose to accept the job of police officer, subject to the conditions which necessarily attach to the circumspect performance of the duties. He later found it inconvenient or inexpedient politically to observe these conditions. He was therefore removed."

Death Following Illness Ends Political Career

Former U. S. Senator's Supporters and Opponents Are Shocked

ANN ARBOR (UP) — Michigan began a formal 30-day mourning period today for former U. S. Sen. Blair Moody who died unexpectedly Tuesday afternoon at the age of 52.

Flags flew at half mast in this quiet university town and Gov. G. Mennen Williams, who appointed Moody to succeed the late Sen. Arthur Vandenberg in 1951, said he would issue an official mourning proclamation when he arrives here later today.

Williams, who with Moody was a leader of the "Young Turks" at the 1952 Democratic National Convention, has been fishing on Northern Lake Michigan. The Coast Guard notified him of Moody's death.

Moody, who was seeking a political comeback, died at 3:55 p.m. EST. in University Hospital, shortly after awakening from a nap. Dr. Cyrus Sturgis, his physician, said death was caused by "an extensive involvement of the lungs."

Moody had been recovering from a serious attack of virulent pneumonia, suffered June 24 while he was campaigning in Hancock in Michigan's Upper Peninsula for the Democratic nomination for U. S. senator. He had been hospitalized there until last Sunday.

His wife, the former Ruth Curtis Amador, was at his bedside when he died. Also surviving are three sons, Christopher Sorenson, Robert Orton and Blair Moody Jr. The family home is in Detroit.

Announcement of his death came as a shock to his followers who had believed he was successfully recovering from his illness and soon would resume the campaign for nomination in the Aug. 3 primary. A statement to that effect had been released from his campaign headquarters.

Moody's death left Patrick V. McNamara of Detroit unopposed for the Democratic nomination to oppose Sen. Homer Ferguson in the November election.

Messages of condolence began arriving at the hospital Tuesday night.

House to Gamble With Postal Raise

WASHINGTON (AP) — In an all-or-nothing gamble, House leaders today called up a double-barrelled bill to raise both postage rates and the pay of postal workers.

GOP leaders made no predictions on the outcome, but Democratic Leader Rayburn of Texas declared the one-package measure "will be beaten."

Only property owners can vote on the bond issue. All voters can pass on the 50-cent tax. A simple majority of votes cast will carry each proposal.

The Civic Research bulletin says the 334-acre county "service center" on Telegraph and West Boulevard, where the new courthouse would be built, is easily reached by main highways from all parts of the county. It has plenty of parking space.

A courthouse there would be near the welfare divisions, infirmary, children's home, contagious hospital, and other county activities. This should make for more efficient county government, the bulletin says. A central heating plant, already operating, could be used for the new building, meaning lower construction cost.

Because of this, it's hard to arrange for office efficiency, the bulletin said. Scattering the offices all around Pontiac, it adds, hasn't helped efficiency either.

Moving the courthouse away from downtown Pontiac would mean taking prisoners for a three-mile ride to bring them to trial. The bulletin says the National Jail Assn., considering a Kent County jail site recently found nothing wrong with carrying prisoners by car for a few miles between the jail and courthouse.

Research Report Cites Need for a New Courthouse

Civic Research Inc., an independent fact-finding organization, this week issued a bulletin citing the need for a new Oakland County Courthouse.

The research organization, which is located at 503 Community National Bank Building devotes its report to material designed to acquaint voters with the proposal.

Electors in the county will be asked to pass on a $4,500,000 bond issue for a new courthouse at the Aug. 3 election.

The report calls attention to "inadequate space" in the present courthouse at Huron and Saginaw Sts. and says that remodeling it and the county office building at 1 Lafayette St. wouldn't be practical.

The county, whose offices are divided between the Huron-Saginaw courthouse, built in 1904; the courthouse annex, built in 1885; and the former Masonic Temple on Lafayette St., is asking voters to provide a new building.

On the Aug. 3 ballot will be two proposals:

1. A $4,500,000 bond issue to raise funds for the building.

2. A 20-year tax of 50 cents on each $1,000 worth of property, as

Birmingham Lioness Donates 2nd Resuscitator to Local Fire Department

From Our Birmingham Bureau
BIRMINGHAM — Struck on the side of a shiny four-foot case in a handy corner of the Birmingham Fire Station, are the words "Donated by the Birmingham Lions Club."

Inside the case is the latest model resuscitator, probably the greatest single life saving device used by fire departments and rescue squads across the country.

The machine was given to the department by the Lions Club at a formal presentation last week. It was used twice before the formal ceremony—once to save the life of an apparent would-be suicide.

The new machine, capable of service on two persons at one time, is the second donated by the Lions. The first, given in 1942, primarily to revive firemen overcome by smoke, is still in use.

Chief V. W. Griffith, seeing the value of the device, began using it to relieve persons affected by respiratory and like afflictions, plus those suffering heart attacks.

From 1942 through last March, 172 resuscitator runs were made, with the department reviving 112 persons. Twenty-three persons were dead when the squad arrived and ten died after treatment.

In the first year of operation, only four calls were made. Last year 52 first aid runs with the device were made, according to Park Smith, assistant fire chief. Smith describes the machine as a "portable iron lung."

It sends oxygen into the patient's lungs and causes them to expand and contract when they are incapable of doing so themselves, he said. Every four seconds it surges the life-giving gas into the patient.

When normal breathing starts to resume, a switch is thrown and the device becomes an inhalator, supplying only oxygen, and letting the lungs work for themselves.

The machine also has a third use. Another turn of the controls and it can be used as an aspirator—a suction pump—like apparatus for clearing congestion from lungs, chest and throat.

"Heart" conditions have become the reason for the majority of our runs in the last six or eight years," said Smith.

The machine is also used to aid those suffering from poisoning, drowning, asthma, convulsions, and other physical ailments.

No hearings are scheduled this week by the board of inquiry delving into the possibility of negligence at last month's fire in which three Birmingham residents lost their lives.

"We are going to meet by ourselves this week and try to digest what we've heard so far," chairman James Spencer said yesterday.

Spencer believes next week's hearings will wind up the interview portion of the inquiry.

With a nine-hole score of 42, Henry Morin won the first place trophy at the Toastmaster's Club recent summer golf outing at Springdale Park. President Peter Stoffel was second with 43.

Pontiac Deaths

Mrs. James Rockwell

After a prolonged illness, Mrs. James (Josephine) Rockwell, 76, of 22 N. Shirley Ave. died at her residence Tuesday morning.

Born in Owosso June 4, 1878 she was the daughter of Henry Clough and the widow of Mr. Rockwell whom she married here in 1901.

She had resided in Pontiac since that time.

Surviving are two sons, Byron of St. Clair Shores and Amos of Pontiac.

Funeral will be Friday at 1:30 p.m. from the Hutton Funeral Home. The Rev. Charles Roub, assistant minister at Marimount Baptist Church, will officiate and burial will be in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Bob Considine Says:

Young Jim Feels America
Should Take Over in Asia

NEW YORK (INS)—One of the great problems facing this country is how to win friends and influence people overseas. We spend millions each year in this pursuit. Some feel we're doing real good in this line. Some think we're preposterously inept.

Heard and watched a member of the dissent side on Ann Gillis Slocum's "Comment" show on NBC Monday night. Talented young fellow named Jim Robinson. Robinson, fresh back from Indochina, struck a realistic vein. He said:

"The Communists are on the victory march in Asia. The Communists' ultimate goal is to conquer all the Far East. They say so and they're in the process of doing it. The Communist operation in Asia is pure and simple totalitarian aggression. But it's disguised under 'national' movements, 'reform' movements and such slogans as 'Asia for the Asians.'"

"Right now," Robinson continued, "the Communists are winning vast stretches of territory and millions of people in the Far East. They're doing this easily and rapidly. Why is this happening? Simply because there's no one willing or, if willing, able to go all out and stop them."

"Certainly no Asian country has the wherewithal to halt this Red aggression. And no group of Asian countries bound together in mutual defense has the combined strength to halt it."

"Through Asian eyes, Korea was a Communist victory, and there's a similar victory now in Indochina. Always the same story—the breakdown by the free world, abandonment of millions of people to the Reds."

"The price of our constant appeasement to communism in the Orient is beyond immediate calculation, but this is what's happening in the yet free Far Eastern nations. These countries now feel they have the proof the West isn't willing to face a showdown—not willing to use force to stop force. So these countries are in the process of their agonizing reappraisal of the situation."

"Already many of these countries are frantically trying to achieve the role of neutralism. Many are casting secret feelers toward the Peiping regime. These nations want to see if a deal can be made—a deal whereby they might be able to co-exist with the Communists—or if it might be possible to retain some sort of national sovereignty if and when all Asia goes Red."

Robinson on the peace proposals: "Look what's happening in North Viet Nam. You have there millions of ardent nationalists who are anti-colonists. They are anti-Communist. Our leaders promised to save these people from communism barely two months ago. But today we seem to be joining in the nefarious act of handing these people over to the Reds. What example does this serve to the rest of Asia? What would you think if you were an Asian?"

Let's take an example of how the Communists operate in the field and how the U.S. operates. We will pick an unnamed Asian nation yet free. We want this country as an ally. The Reds want it as a satellite. We pick a nice university graduate—clean cut, intelligent, honest, with a realization that his job is to inform the people how nice democracy is and how bad communism is. But this man has never been to Asia. doesn't know the language.

"He arrives and moves into a lovely home, has servants, a car and chauffeur and an air conditioned office. Our man zealously goes to work putting out slick paper pamphlets about how nice America is and what rats the Communists are. Good stuff for readers in Kansas City, but remote to the man in the street in Asia."

"Now comes the Communist equivalent. First, he is an Asian. He speaks the local language, he lives with the people, he is one of them. But he also is highly trained, a specialist in Communist double talk. When the Mr. Wong of Asia sits down in his local tea shop he meets this ardent Communist. But Mr. Wong doesn't realize this man is an agent. For this man speaks his language, talks of all the things bothering Mr. Wong. And, of course, adds his very cleverly planted seeds of revolt... a distorted picture.

"Either we now move in and take over much of the control of Asia or the Communists will. It is as brutally simple as that. If we're not willing or able to do this then the Communists surely will rule all Asia in the years to come."

Well said, Jim Robinson.

Upper Peninsula to Be Appraised as Industrial Site

LANSING (UP)—Michigan's Upper Peninsula will be appraised by experts this week as a place for the nation's industry to locate.

Ten experienced industrial realtors from southern Michigan will fly to Marquette Thursday to start a four-day survey of the entire peninsula.

After a meeting with the board of directors of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau, the realtors will split into three committees to visit by automobile most of the 35 communities in the peninsula.

The purpose of their survey is to accumulate information on industrial possibilities of the area to be used to interest industries in locating in the Upper Peninsula.

A report on the industrial possibilities of the area will be sent to real estate men and industrial location firms throughout the nation and to about 4,000 manufacturers.

Illinois and Washington Boys Get Scholarships for Top Model Designs

DETROIT (UP)—Top prizes in the annual Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild model car contest went Tuesday night to James C. Fry of Clinton, Ill., and Gary Graham of Bellingham, Wash.

Both received $4,000 scholarships for winning in their divisions in the contest, sponsored by the Fisher Body Div. of General Motors Corp. Fry's model was judged best in the junior division and Graham's in the senior division.

Other winners:

Senior division — William C. Bailey, Kansas City, Kan., second place, $3,000; Alvin S. Reggi, Wilmington, Del., third, $2,000; Jerry Sutton, Fresno, Calif., fourth, $1,000.

Junior division — Charles Pelly, Los Angeles, Calif., second, $3,000; Stanley T. Denek, Detroit, third, $2,000; John W. Bartley, Huntingdon Valley, Pa., fourth, $1,000.

Predict Drop-Out of Cut in Foreign Profits Tax

WASHINGTON (UP)—A House-Senate conference committee probably will drop out of President Eisenhower's big tax revision program a proposal to cut taxes on income earned by United States corporations operating abroad.

Well-posted sources said today such a decision might help clear the way for a compromise on the touchy political issue of how much to cut income taxes on dividends received by stockholders.

Ike to Continue Fight

President EISENHOWER has made it clear that he intends to continue his fight for the health reinsurance program defeated in the House last week.

Besides pledging that effort, the President has sent to Congress a request for $35,356,000 supplemental appropriation for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. If granted, this would provide $25,000,000 for a Federal health reinsurance service.

When the House voted 238 to 134 to send the original measure back to committee, the Administration suffered a major setback. Seventy-five Republicans teamed with 162 Democrats and one Independent to recommit the bill. Fourteen Democrats and 120 Republicans opposed recommitment.

This bill was the heart of the EISENHOWER health program and was favored by this newspaper. Its aim was to encourage private companies to broaden their health insurance coverage by establishing a $25,000,000 reinsurance fund. From this fund, which would be increased by premiums paid by the insuring companies, 75 per cent of any "abnormal" losses they suffered would be repaid.

Undoubtedly, conflicting views and pressures killed the bill for this session. Much of the objection to it came from those who called it a step toward socialized medicine. Others said it didn't go far enough. Also, some Democrats may have voted against it so they could cite, during the campaign, the Administration's failure to put its health program into effect.

At any rate it is good news that the President is standing by his guns and will press for favorable action in the next session.

Alfred Leggett Smith

Pontiac lost a faithful public servant and a devout churchman when death called ALFRED LEGGETT SMITH.

Mr. SMITH became widely known in his posts of City and State building inspector. When he retired from the former office July 31, 1951, he had served the people of Pontiac for 14 years.

Born here on August 6, 1881, he had lived most of his 72 years in this city. A graduate of Pontiac High School, he obtained his professional education at the University of Michigan and the Michigan College of Mining and Technology.

Besides his business interests, which included mining engineering and technical work for local industries, Mr. SMITH's chief interest was All Saints Episcopal Church. Several times a member of its rotating vestry, he designed Stevens Hall and had much to do with the rebuilding of the church after it was destroyed by fire a few years ago.

ALFRED LEGGETT SMITH will be missed by a host of friends and acquaintances who will remember him as one who served his community and church with unflinching devotion.

Wise Counsel for Senate

There was urgent need for the sound advice on flexible farm price supports HOMER FERGUSON gave the Senate the other day.

It is true that the House majority recently approved the all important flexible price support feature of the Administration's farm program. But it also is true that this realistic proposal is endangered in the Senate.

One reason is the action of the Senate Agriculture Committee which has voted eight to seven for continuation of basic crop supports at 90 per cent of parity. This vote came despite the fact that under the flexible plan supports for basic crops would not fall below 82.5 per cent.

Michigan's senior Senator made the important point that continuation of surplus-breeding 90 per cent parity would be economic folly. It would be comparable, he said, to continuation of war material production at Korean War rates.

"In my own state of Michigan," he told the Senate, "the industrial cutback has been quite severe. Still, no one seriously suggested we continue the production of military equipment we do not need. We have to make the transition (from high rigid supports) sometime. The longer we wait the more difficult it will become."

There is no place in a peace time economy for rigid 90 per cent price support. That was a war time measure designed to stimulate urgently needed all out food production. The tax-eating, price-depressing surpluses thus created are the strongest arguments for adoption of flexible supports.

The Senate should reverse the action of its Agriculture Committee.

Ordinances for Posting of Election Signs Should Be Enforced on All Candidates

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature.)

It is against the City and County Ordinances to post election signs on city or county property and right of ways.

Why is it that some candidates for city and county offices can break the law and get away with it? Their signs are not taken down by the officials while other candidates try to stay within the law.

Why don't our city and county officials enforce these ordinances or don't they apply to the candidates who can get away with it?

Read Some Good Pointers
Now on Phone Manners

The telephone is a very useful instrument for both information and pleasure. How much satisfaction is derived from conversing with distant friends and relatives and carrying out our business ventures from time to time?

Perhaps we might become somewhat careless occasionally in the use of a party line for extended visitation while another may be waiting patiently to use the line in an emergency. It would seem that this would be a rather ideal instrument on which to practice the Golden Rule.

Also you should speak directly into the telephone and not make it sound to the person on the other end as though you were talking from the moon or the planet, Mars. Too, an extra two or three rings sometimes would not be amiss as the person called may be obliged to turn down the gas to save burning the meat, etc.

You don't know what they may be doing, so do not stop ringing too quickly. Give it one or two more rings or they may just hear a dial tone when they answer.

Dog Owners Should Be Glad to Give Pets Protection Via Anti-Rabies Inoculations

Many people dislike "compulsion" even as regards the vaccination of school children against smallpox or of dogs against rabies. But such medical protection is so helpful that many cities now insist on compulsory anti-rabies shots for all dogs. Here are the facts.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case L-363: Coralie G., aged 20, has a beautiful collie dog which is now almost a year old.

"Dr. Crane, there is a great deal of agitation in my community about having all dogs given anti-rabies shots," she began.

"I understand that it is compulsory in many other cities. But do you think it is necessary?"

"I keep my dog in my yard, which has a high fence around it. Besides, wouldn't the shots harm my dog?"

Medical "shots" have almost banished some of the worst "killer" diseases of children.

Thus, smallpox is now almost unknown, thanks to vaccination of children. Diphtheria is likewise an infrequent disease, due to our widespread inoculation of infants.

America requires compulsory vaccination of school children because our scientific evidence shows that such "shots" are one of modern medicine's greatest boons to mankind.

And such health aids, plus the use of penicillin and the sulfas, have now been spread to animals, too, thus lengthening their life span.

Remember, too, that dogs can contract rabies without leaving the own backyard, for a rabid squirrel may bite them.

To give you the facts on this matter of rabies, I had a conversation with Dr. A. C. Merrick, famous Chicago Veterinarian, who maintains a large hospital for various small animals, such as dogs, cats, birds, etc.

"Dr. Crane, here in our suburban city of Riverside, there has been compulsory anti-rabies inoculation of dogs for the past 16 years," Dr. Merrick told me.

"Add there hasn't been a single case of rabies in our city in all that time."

"Yet many cases have been reported in the neighboring suburbs of Brookfield, Lyons and Berwyn. 'Here at my own hospital for small animals, I have inoculated dogs for 18 years and have never seen one case of rabies develop in such an animal."

"Moreover, the dogs show no significant ill effects of the shots. And the cost is not prohibitive, for most veterinarians charge no more than $2 for this service."

"So I personally feel the owner of a dog should be glad to avail himself of this protection for his pet. Besides, it gives him far more security of mind, it case his dog should ever bite anybody else."

When a person is bitten by a dog, be sure the dog is kept under observation for 14 days afterwards. For if the dog has rabies at the time it bit the human being, the dog will either be dead or dying of rabies within those 14 days.

And there is still time to inoculate the human being adequately against rabies after those 14 days.

So never shoot the dog or let it get away, for then you will not know if it has rabies or not.

Not all people who are bitten by rabid dogs develop rabies, even if they are not given the Pasteur anti-rabies vaccinations.

But about 35 per cent do! And you never know whether you will be in the 65 per cent or the 35 per cent.

If you are in the 35 per cent, then you must be vaccinated or make your will! For without vaccination, rabies leads to death.

Tetany in Infants Is Hard to Diagnose; Elderly Persons Also Are Susceptible

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Back in the halcyon days, one ward in the county hospital was occupied by babies exclusively—about 40 of 'em from birth up to the age of 2 years.

Practically all the babies were born of illegitimate parents, many of them beautiful babies that any one could not help loving.

But only rarely did one of the illegitimate parents ever come back to see a baby.

All the babies were bottle babies, and their modified milk was fresh milk from the county's own herd. But the milk was all sterilized by boiling.

Consequently, although doctors didn't understand this at the time, scurvy occurred every now and then, and when it did the attending pediatrician prescribed for the scurvy infant (1) orange juice and (2) fresh unboiled milk for a while.

This soon cured the scurvy—the vitamin C in fresh fruit juice, and the vitamin C in fresh raw milk, especially milk from cows on pasture.

Eventually all the infants were given orange juice daily and this

James Marlowe Says:

U. S. Must Be Prepared to Fight -- or Let Asia Go

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Communists have won a clear-cut victory in Indochina. It can't be minimized. The French let them have half of Viet Nam. Now the United States faces one of the most important decisions in its history.

It is this: Will this country, to keep the rest of Indochina and Southeast Asia out of Communist hands, be willing to fight if the Communists move any further? Or will the United States just sit back and express pious hopes that the Southeast Asians won't submit to communism?

There is talk — until it becomes a reality it will remain talk — that this country will try to form a Southeast Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO) to defend the rest of Indochina and Southeast Asia against any further Communist advance.

It remains to be seen (A) whether the United States can get allies to go along with this plan and (B) whether Congress, where there has been much divided opinion, will take action which could lead to military involvement someday.

There was so much national unhappiness over the Korean War and the cost, and so much national relief and joy when the Communists agreed to a truce there, that there has been no national enthusiasm for getting involved all over again in Asian fighting.

The Communists knew of this

Baering Down

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER

(International News Service)

Democratic shillsters still insist the Republicans aren't doing a thing the Democrats hadn't planned. That's long distance dreaming with an option.

If it's true it could be the reason the Republicans are being investigated.

We know the Democrats booby-trapped the corridors of Congress with unfinished business and alphabetical bids.

The Democrats built castles in the air and the Republicans are carrying the hod.

This approximates the happy business of getting rich by renting rowboats in a storm at sea.

That one-man dynasty Franklin Delano Roosevelt figured out more schemes than a hop-head bivoacking on the elbow. There's nothing more beautiful than indoor sky writing with rose-colored fumes.

The abbreviations on 10,000 glass doors are archived in the dream wing of the Library of Congress.

The results of 20 years of unsupervised Olympics in a playpen are as far-reaching as Bikini vibrations. The seven union cards of Hercules are merely an apprenticeship to the eighth labor of stopping a merry-go-round in the middle of a tune.

It's natural in occupational hazards that some legislation should slop over into the next administration. The man who plants the tree doesn't get the fruit. Otherwise Congress would meet in a super-market armed with spray guns and insecticides.

The bones they pulled are bleaching on the hillsides. But we cannot subscribe to the claim the Republicans are heirs to the Democratic horrah. That's one job you don't sub-lease.

If the Democrats want to lay claim to the aftermath of the incredible that's okay with us. There are some capers still to be investigated.

My advice to the Democratic spiel-bunkers is to pianissimo this argument in the pre-dated campaigns. They shot off the rockets and blame the Republicans for the sticks.

Knowing, they may have gambled that this country wouldn't go to the rescue of the French in Indochina if the Reds stepped up the pressure on the French. If they did bet on that, they won.

They will probably sit quietly for a while now. They can afford to. They can sit back and watch what the Western Allies, particularly the United States, are willing to do about agreeing to draw a line in Asia beyond which they won't let the Communists move without massive war.

If the West fails to reach agreement — and any such agreement wouldn't be worth much unless the Southeast Asians were willing to be a party to it — it will be like a go-ahead light for the Communists. If there is agreement, they can still move without open aggression across a frontier.

They can use economic pressure to subvert the Southeast Asians, plus the usual political pressure and subversion. If that fails, they can start open revolt by local Communists as they did in Indochina.

But the United States has reached a point where it is going to have to be willing to fight in Asia or stop talking so tough about what lies in store for the Communists if they move one more inch.

There's been some tough talk in the past year by members of President Eisenhower's administration but when the crisis came, the United States stayed out of Indochina. This fact can hardly be lost upon the millions of Southeast Asians.

Nor can this fact: The United States held aloof from the armistice just agreed to at Geneva, in which the French let the Communists take over millions of Indochinese. The United States wouldn't approve, but it didn't do anything to stop it.

Both the Truman administration, for years, and the Eisenhower administration, for the past 18 months, had time to look at the Indochina war and see what was happening; that the French were losing. Both insisted the French would win.

Neither administration made an effort, so far as is publicly known, to form a Southeast Asia alliance to rescue the French if they got into crisis.

When the crisis did come, Secretary of State Dulles rushed to Europe to get "united action." The British balked, at least then. The United States stood back. The French, left alone, sought an armistice.

All the standard medical textbooks I have seen make a mystery of tetany.

One gets a vague notion or no practical idea of the cause of the disease or of what to do about it, because the textbook writers leave the mystery right where they found it in the textbooks of earlier authors.

It seems that some eminent authority of the glorious past conjured up the idea that the some fault of parathyroid gland function might be responsible — and this has kept the "authorities" on a wild goose chase ever since.

It certainly could do no harm to keep the tetany patient's daily intake of calcium and vitamin D.

Southfield Club Federation Holds Election Meeting

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP — The Southfield Federation association met Monday evening at the High School, with about 50 members present.

Howard Palmer was appointed chairman of the committee, composed of one representative of each member-organization.

Lawrence Fierlik, the new president, was aided by other newly elected officers, vice president Eugene Swem, secretary Carlos Danville and treasurer Urban Hart.

Needed a Drink

FLINT (UP) — It was quite a task for burglars to remove a money-less 500-pound safe from the home of Alfonso Van Walleghe. But their labor wasn't completely in vain. There were four bottles of whiskey in the safe to help them drown their disappointment.

Farewell Party Given

NEW HUDSON — Annabelle Bowers was honored with a farewell party recently given by members of the Extension Club in the home of Mrs. Charles Kidd. Miss Bowers plans to teach in Japan.

Wheat Growers to Vote Friday

Use of Quota Program Will Be Determined; 7 Polling Places Listed

Wheat growers of Oakland County will vote for or against marketing quotas for the 1955 crop. Friday at seven polling places open to voters.

The referendum will determine whether or not the quota program now in effect will continue next year, according to County Agricultural Agent Ed Alchin. Two thirds of those who vote must approve quotas before they can be put into operation.

A producer is eligible to vote if he will have more than 15 acres of wheat on his farm for harvest in 1955.

The voting places in the county will be open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. The Oxford Co-op Elevator will serve Oxford and Addison townships as a polling place, and the Oakland Township Hall will be open for voters in Goodison and Orion townships. Other places are Independence, Brandon, and Grove-Land townships in the Grange Hall, Ortonville; and the Holly, Springfield, and Rose townships at the Farm and Garden Emporium Co., Holly.

Also on the list are the Highland, Milford, and White Lake townships at the Highland Producers' elevator in Highland, and the Commerce, Lyon and Novi townships at the Lyon township hall, New Hudson.

All other townships, not listed, will vote at the Oakland County ASC office, Hubbard Building on Perry street, Pontiac.

Mayor Foresees Change if Police Quota Isn't Filled

HAZEL PARK — Mayor Zigmund J. Niparko warned today of a change in the Hazel Park Civil Service Board unless specified action is taken to fill the quota of the police department by Aug. 1.

Unless policy changes are made, and the department shortage rectified, the mayor stated that the council will fire the board.

The reorganization of the police department this spring made that section short three men. The board has delayed action pending court decision of status of officers demoted following reorganization.

MOMS Elect Delegates to National Convention

GALLOWAY LAKE — Moms of America, Unit 21, met to elect delegates to their national convention Monday. The convention will be held in October in Detroit.

Delegates are Mrs. Lee Shackelford, 93 Ardmore road and Mrs. George Schepelmann of 1265 Mt. Clemens. Mrs. William Craven of 2032 Joy Road and Mrs. William Becker of 1812 Commonwealth were elected alternates.

CATHERYN M. SULLIVAN

Mrs. Bernice Sullivan of 2329 Pine Lake Ave., Keego Harbor, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Catheryn to Olen W. Hunter, son of Mrs. Pauline Hunter, also of Keego Harbor. A September wedding is planned.

Name President of School Board

Other Officers Elected at a Special Meeting in Romeo

ROMEO — George McKeough was elected president of the Romeo Board of Education at a special meeting held yesterday evening. He had served as treasurer during the past year.

The election of officers followed the swearing in of Dr. Ralph G. Renwick as member of the board for a 3-year term. Walter Sewell, victorious with Renwick in the July 12 election, had been sworn in during a previous meeting.

Joseph C. Jelsch was re-elected secretary of the board and Dr. Renwick, treasurer.

The school board agreed to change the regular meeting date to the second Thursday in every month. The Romeo Saving Bank was designated as the official depository of school funds for the coming year.

Bids on a new 60-passenger bus were opened and the contract was awarded to Community Motor Sales, Rochester.

A motion was made to provide bus transportation for parochial students for the next school year.

Superintendent T. C. Filippula was authorized to advertise for bids on new furniture for the new elementary school additions and for certain rooms in the North grade school and the Washington School.

He was then granted the authority to make the purchase after consultation with board president and secretary. A teacher of English and French and a biology teacher, all for secondary schools, were tendered contracts, to begin teaching this fall.

Lunch Wagon Feeds Cows, Saves Grass

GRAND RAPIDS — The lunch wagon comes around to the cows on the Russell Hansen farm near Seottville in Mason County. No tramping around in the pasture for these super-contented milkers.

Hansen and his father, Charles, don't believe it pays to let their dairy cows forage for food. For one thing, the Hansens say, cows trample and spoil pasture.

The Hansen boy's chuck wagon is a homemade rack affair, with folding sides, which they haul out to the pasture, fill with chopped green feed and haul back to the barnyard. The cattle feed right from the rack.

The Hansens figure they get from one-third to one-half more eaten green feed per acre from their pasture this way, and a great deal more milk per acre of grass.

Experiments at agricultural stations with barnyard pasturing seem to bear out the Hansens' contention that it is a profitable venture.

Roseville Man Is Killed When Car Strikes Pole

LAPEER — William John Dempsey Sr., 53, of 28067 Schram St., Roseville, was killed last night when his car struck a telephone pole near M-33 five miles south of Imlay City.

Lapeer County Sheriff's officials said he apparently lost control of his car. He was alone at the time.

Your Beauty Begins With Radiant, Baby-like Skin and Graceful Posture

By ANITA COLBY

Before you begin this first day of my 4-week beauty course, just let me say that I do not expect you to spend 24 hours a day on your beauty course. I know that like millions of American women, you may have to get in your makeup lessons while the baby is asleep, the coffee's percolating, shampoo your hair when you get home from the office, or do your spot exercises the last thing at night.

Make yourself a daily schedule and if you will scrupulously follow it through the four weeks of this course, get rid of all your bad habits and replace them with good ones for these 28 days you will look like—act like—feel like—a beauty.

Clean-Up Week

Ready? Let's go—begin with your face. Clean, lubricate and stimulate your skin, every day, every single day, two or three times. Make your beauty routine constant, regular.

We are going to "peel down" and discover your true and lovely skin—skin like a baby's. It's there. It just wants out.

If you can get your skin thoroughly, pore-deep clean—and feed it from inside with thoroughly beauty-clean foods—it will renew itself all the time.

Equipment Simple

1. Clean hands. Fanatically clean. Never touch your face except with hospital-clean hands.

2. A pure, bland soap. Not necessarily expensive—no special perfumes or chemicals or added attractions. Just pure.

3. Soft water. Especially for dry skins, because hard water is drying. To soften, boil and let settle. Or use a sprinkling of household borax or tincture of benzoin in a bowl of water.

Girls who live in the rainwater—don't have to save it in a barrel like Scarlett O'Hara.

Don't use bath salts for the face. They're softening, yes—but not meant for daily facial use.

4. A set of clean, soft, fluffy washcloths, and towels. Your own. Rinse cloths in hot, hot water before using. No complexion brushes.

Some dermatologists advise only the fingertip cushions to massage soap into face. So, whether fingertips or cloth, go softly. Always dry face well.

Know Skin Type

Your skin will lie somewhere between the extremes of very oily and very dry.

You may have such a well-balanced output of oil that you can really be classified as normal, but most "normal" skins are actually a combination—oily here, dry there. Learn your skin type, its needs and how to treat it.

Normal—You have no special problem, so spend your first week in deep cleaning. Wash your face morning and night with mild bland soap and lukewarm water.

Into skin in circular, upward, outward motion. Rinse three times, last with water, or until you can feel every last trace of soap gone.

If you are a combination—oily around nose and chin, dry on cheeks and forehead, first use washcloth steaming hot on nose and chin, and gently soap-massage to clean and open these pores. Now proceed as above.

Very oily—You can test for oil by laying clean tissue on your nose. If it shows a greasy, opaque spot, you're very oily—if a slight smudge, only somewhat. Firt thing this week, however—

ANITA COLBY

A steam bath to open pores, a bowl of hottest water, your head over same, and a towel like a tent over both. Keep running in more hot water—in the warm fumes you can feel your face "open up."

Then with a soft cloth, ric sage face and neck, always in upward, outward, circular motion. Repeat around nose and chin, but tread lightly around eyes.

Rinse twice in warm, twice in cool water. Do this twice a day—if possible, three times.

Very dry—Your skin feels tight, is always flaking a little, looks dull and lifeless. This very dry skin will wrinkle early if it isn't given help—all over—take note!

By the time you reach 40, skin will lose 20 per cent of its oils. So, you wash your face with soap, too, for true cleansing, but only once a day. Either night or morning.

Use a bland soap and lukewarm water—never hot or cold; this skin can't stand drastic degrees or changes in temperature. Massage neck and face in circular, outward, upward motion, then rinse four or five times in clean, lukewarm water.

Be sure, be extra sure you get the last suspicion of soap out of your skin. Dry gently, but very thoroughly. This skin needs to make oil—water left on it does not help.

Never skip—never miss! Do your soap-and-water cleansing every day.

Your face tells the first story of "you" to the world. Take care it doesn't tell an ugly story.

People look at your face first, but right on the heels of that first impression comes the second:

Your Posture

There is a new, and to my mind mighty sensible, trend among good physical culture schools—to wit: Americans have been overdoing the bend, twist, grunt "setting up" type of exercise.

If we could just learn and keep—keep every minute—correct posture, that would be the finest physical culturing we could do.

You can learn to do this, I'm going to tell you about it...

"Animal grace" can be acquired, and kept, long after you've given up basketball. It begins—always—with carrying the body masses properly and keeping them balanced, one above the other.

Stack up your blocks, little girl—First thing, hang a weighted string down the center of the longest mirror you have.

Begin a straight body line with your feet. So—your weight's forward—your body feels poised there, lefted, alert.

This is your foundation block—On this block your aim is to keep your pelvic basin level. If it tips forward, it gives you a bulging stomach and a sway back.

Haul in hard on your lower abdomen, and watch results in your mirror. Your figure loses inches! Haul in hard on your upper abdomen, and watch results in your mirror. Your figure loses inches! With the crown of your head, so the straight line of your spine is continued straight on up through the top of your skull.

If you sag or droop here, the seven neck vertebrae will drop the weight of the head forward and make you a nice double chin. Hold your neck long and high, your chin level.

Don't Worry, Baby Will Learn to Talk

Baby probably will learn to talk somewhere between his first and second birthday, but don't allow a delay to disturb you. Many children are slower in one phase of development than in another. Baby may be concentrating so on other accomplishments that he may postpone this one for a time.

Good Budgeting
Gets Marriage
Launched Right

Getting married is like forming a corporation that will pay dividends in happiness if it is properly managed. Sure a budget is a nuisance to begin with but it won't take you long to find it's a god-send.

Advice to brides suggests that you start out on a businesslike basis. Sit down with your husband-to-be and add up your expenses. Then see how this fits your income.

Experience will show you where you have to cut, where you really have to add, but eventually after a little trial and error arithmetic, you'll arrive at something you can live with, a workable plan.

Having a budget doesn't mean rushing around with a dollar sign flitter in your eye looking for the lowest price tag. Learn how to judge values in different types of merchandise and buy the best quality possible in floor covering, furniture or equipment which you can use through a lifetime.

Women of Moose

Cool Lime Sherbet Is Delicacy

Mrs. Albright Has Easy-to-Fix Recipe for Frosty Dessert

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor—
Lime Sherbet is such a cooling dessert for hot days. Irene Albright has an excellent recipe for this delicious frozen delicacy. She says she likes best to serve it with chocolate cake.

Many Pontiac people know Mrs. Albright as the principal of Baldwin School. This pleasant woman has a number of other irons in the fire also. With her teenage son she enjoys golf. Membership in Delta Kappa Gamma, the Exchange Club and the Junior Women's Club fills other hours of her leisure time.

LIME SHERBET
By Mrs. Irene Albright
1 package lime gelatin
1 cup hot water
1 1/2 cups sugar
Juice and rind of 2 lemons
1 quart milk
Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add sugar, lemon rind and juice. Freeze to mushy consistency. Beat hard and add the quart of milk. Freeze again. Makes 10-12 servings.

Boil Tomatoes First

To save time in preparation, dip ripe tomatoes for salads in boiling water for about one minute, chill in the refrigerator, and peel when you're ready to use them.

Big and little sister like matching dresses in bright solid chambray with novelty embroidered clock-and-watch pocket design for the bodice. Riviera stripes in many colors form the full skirt and sleeves. Crisp white collar is removable for easy laundering.

Fish Killed by Alkaline in Concrete

Check Your Pool With Litmus Paper Before Stocking It

By HUBBARD COBB
Here is the sad story of a man who wanted a garden pool so he went to work and dug a big hole and lined it with concrete and ended up with a pretty fair-looking pool.

He filled it with water and then sat back to enjoy life, but he didn't get much enjoyment because the pool was taken over by a bunch of mosquitoes.

Now his problem is whether or not to buy more fish, drain the pool and give up the idea, or just get used to the mosquitoes.

The reason the fish didn't last long was because of the strong alkaline that you find in fresh concrete.

This will disappear in time but you can hasten things considerably by filling the pool, allowing the water to stand for a few days and then draining. It will also help if the inside of the pool is coated with sodium silicate.

You can find out whether a concrete pool is safe for fish by testing it with litmus paper which you can buy at drug stores.

Place pink litmus paper in the water. If the paper turns blue, the water is not safe for fish. If the paper remains pink then it's okay.

If the paper turns blue, drain the pool, refill and repeat this process at weekly intervals until the paper remains pink.

Keep Hats Secured

If the grippers of your new shallow hat do not secure it sufficiently against spring breezes, slip bobby pins through them. To prevent the pins from peeping out, use the dolls' size ones you can buy at toy counters.

Traveling Can Be Fun for Children

Sensible planning before vacation-time will make traveling with the children easier for mom and the other adults in the car. Aside from planning the wardrobe, itinerary and frequent stops, here are a few suggestions to keep in mind:

Use separate luggage. Infants' garments should be packed separately, with immediate needs on top for easy access. Tots enter into the spirit of the vacation when they are allowed to fill their own suitcases — even if mother finds them packed with unmatched shoes and toys, she can rearrange the selection later.

There are inexpensive sets of miniature luggage designed expressly for children which include little train cases, overnight bags and hatboxes; many are decorated with favorite cartoon, fairytale and television characters.

Give older children responsibilities. Allowing a boy or girl to be keeper of the extra key case (should father misplace his) gives the child a feeling of importance. Junior navigators will be thrilled to have custody of the map case with the vacation route marked in heavy crayon for easy following.

Provide extra comforts. Refreshments are best kept in one of the new "feed bag" containers which fasten over the backrest of the seat; food and liquids are kept at an even temperature, never get spread out all over the car.

Tea consumption in England averages 11 pounds per person each year.

Crow's Feet? How To Check Them!

Smooth Them Into Glamorous Accents For Your Smile

"Crow's-Feet," heretofore presumed to be an outrageous trick of Nature, may be the result of neglect. It is assumed that the most common cause of these youth-stealing lines is skin dryness; for when dryness is even partially overcome, "crow's-feet" become less noticeable and a more youthful look blooms in the face. By the new and simple process of properly handling dry skin (described below) the younger woman can help herself to iron out her "crow's feet" and make them, in fact, glamorous accents for her smile. The older woman, too, by reducing her skin dryness, can soften the appearance of her "crow's-feet," thereby defeating her age to a pleasing extent.

Understand Your "Crow's-Feet" and Dry Skin Then You Can Help Them

Skin dryness is caused, obviously, by an insufficiency of natural lubricants. And Nature has a hard time making enough of these essential lubricants to keep up with the rate at which dry atmosphere, improper cleansing and exposure take them away from your skin. "Crow's-Feet" then deepen and deepen. So you must ask these questions: How can I correct this deficiency so as to make sure that my skin will have enough of these vital substances? How can I help it to overcome its dryness? How can I help it to become more normally supple, soft and smooth, so my "crow's-feet" will show less than they do now? These questions have always been difficult to answer, until the discovery of Lanolin Plus Liquid, but now, because of Lanolin Plus Liquid, millions of women have younger-looking skins than they had prior to their use of it.

Why Lanolin Plus LIQUID Does Such Wonders for Your Skin

Lanolin Plus Liquid is not just lanolin. Instead, it is lanolin with a plus—a wonderful plus with a rich content of cholesterol, esters and other lubricants, joined by a patented process with other ingredients to give an unusual penetrating action. Consequently, Lanolin Plus Liquid is able to supply your skin with more than enough lubricants, including cholesterol and esters, to make up for those lost to improper cleansing, dry atmosphere and exposure. Only $1.00 plus tax at all cosmetic counters.

GIVE YOURSELF THIS HOME FACIAL TONIGHT—See a Difference Next Morning

1. Hold a hot washcloth to your face—particularly around your eyes—for a few seconds to open the pores. Notice how refreshed and relaxed your face feels.

2. Warm your bottle of Lanolin Plus Liquid under the hot water tap. Gently massage Lanolin Plus Liquid into your face and around your eyes until your skin begins to tingle. After a few minutes, wipe your face petal fresh and find it smoother.

3. Massage a few more drops of Lanolin Plus Liquid into your skin with emphasis around your eyes before retiring. Its gentle, penetrating action will work while you sleep... and you'll awaken next morning to find a new softness and elasticity "crow's-feet" beginning to fade.

There is no question about it. Lanolin Plus Liquid will do wonders for YOUR skin. In fact you could spend $1,000 and not get more beauty benefit than you get from a $1 bottle of Lanolin Plus Liquid. Get started tonight. Give yourself a Lanolin Plus Home facial. Check your "crow's-feet" NOW! SEE and FEEL the difference tomorrow morning. YOU WILL! (*Plus tax)

You'll Suddenly Seem to Have Grown an Entirely New and Flawless Skin!

You will be startled when you see yourself—your friends will be startled when they see YOU—and oh, how envious they will be!

And now comes a truly NEW liquid make-up that will do for you exactly what you want, done.

LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID MAKE-UP really covers the sins of your skin. Those tiny lines and imperfections you so thoroughly hate, vanish from sight. So amazing is the covering power of this heavenly liquid, you could, if you wished, use a shade lighter than your own skin and still have a perfect new-skin look. But it does two more beauty wonders for you:

1. It instantly imparts a kind of youth-giving radiance that is completely new.

That is because its five shades are the living colors of your skin. They LOOK alive. The living shade most flattering to you is easy to find, too, as you will discover when you see them all.

2. LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID MAKE-UP containing pure Lanolin in a very effective form, helps to soften and smooth your skin every minute you wear it.

Imagine a make-up that not only gives you the appearance of having instantly grown a new, flawless and younger-looking skin, but that also makes your skin, softer feeling and smoother looking. $1 plus tax at all cosmetic counters. Indeed, there is nothing in all the world like Lanolin Plus Liquid Make-Up.

Softer Hands Than He Ever Held Before

This entirely new kind of lotion does wonders for your hands

Lanolin Plus Hand Lotion actually MAKES your hands smoother by making them a truly softer. Ample rich in lanolin (yet not greasy at all), Lanolin Plus Hand Lotion performs its miracles by supplying an abundance of penetrating, lubricating cholesterol and esters to your hands. Results are unbelievable, until you see them yourself. Then, when you find he can't leave your hands alone, you'll KNOW how truly wonderful Lanolin Plus Hand Lotion really is. $1 plus tax at all cosmetic counters. Applicator pump free of extra charge is very handy. No cap to take off the bottle and put back on.

This New Liquid Cleanser Softens as It Cleanses

The fresh, clean feel of your skin after its first cleansing with this creamy liquid will make you promise yourself that you'll never again bother with other cleansing methods. For Lanolin Plus Liquid Cleanser, richly endowed with lanolin and its rich base of esters and cholesterol, penetrates your skin and softens as it cleanses. Lanolin Plus Liquid Cleanser is compounded so that there are no harsh drying effects. Instead, it offers the wonderful lubricating influence of Lanolin itself that combats drying conditions due to lack of natural oils. There's a good reason why lanolin is so beneficial to your skin. It is almost identical to the natural oils of human skin. So when Nature's own lubricants are so closely duplicated, it's no wonder that your skin responds quickly and eagerly. LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID CLEANSER should be a "must" in your daily skin care. It's amazingly effective... delightfully refreshing... and so economical! Only one dollar plus tax at all cosmetic counters.

Totally New Kind of Shampoo

Not only a perfect cleanser, but a beauty treatment for your hair, too. Fills your hair with millions of dancing highlights and puts new spring in your curls, at the same time making your hair not only beautifully manageable, but softer and more supple to the touch. Lanolin Plus Shampoo is $1 (no tax) at all cosmetic counters.

Be a Smoothie All Over From Top to Toe and Feel Better Dressed

(Your Girdle Slips on Easier, too!) Every square inch of you will feel silky-smooth when you caress yourself with this lanolin-rich body lotion—after your bath. Lanolin Plus Body Lotion imparts a softness and exquisite loveliness that is new. You'll begin by slipping into your girdle with more ease and the feeling of luxury that follows somehow makes your clothes seem smarter than before. The large 12-ounce bottle of Lanolin Plus Body Lotion is only $1.50 plus tax at all cosmetic counters.

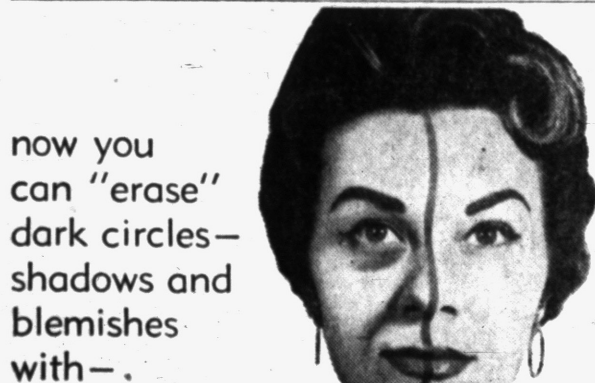

Between Shampoos Keep Your Hair Shining and Perfectly Manageable

Date tonight? No time for a shampoo? Brush a few drops of Lanolin Plus for the Hair through your crowning glory and look more than lovely. Its lanolin action, too, of course, does wonders for your hair. Before or after shampoo, it makes and keeps your hair gleaming and more easily manageable than you ever believed it could be, regardless of how much exposure it has had to sun, wind or too much dry atmosphere. Men find it a wonderful grooming aid, too. Lanolin Plus for the hair is $1 at all cosmetic counters.

Good News For You Who Prefer Cleansing Cream

Now you have a cleansing cream that replenishes your skin with a new supply of cholesterol and esters each time you use it. But this wonderful softening action is not at the expense of cleansing thoroughness. Lanolin Plus Cleansing Cream for Dry Skin seems to dig out every tiny speck of dirt. So, if you have a dry skin and you prefer a cleansing cream, this one will give you immediate and beautiful results. Lanolin Plus Cleansing Cream for Dry Skin is $1 plus tax at all cosmetic counters.

now you can "erase" dark circles—shadows and blemishes with—

HERE IS THE "MIRACLE" you've been hearing about... the secret substance Max Factor created to hide lines, shadows, blemishes from the merciless scrutiny of motion picture and television cameras. Now, this very product used day in, day out by the beauties of the glamour industries, is available to you in a form as simple to use as a lipstick.

A FEW STROKES OF ERACE and swiftly, effectively, imperfections can disappear from sight. You don't change your favorite way of applying your make-up. For ERACE is not a cosmetic. You apply ERACE before putting on your regular make-up.

EVERY WOMAN IS FACED at one time or another, with one of the problems ERACE was designed to overcome. There are teen-age blemishes. There are the dark ugly circles put under the loveliest eyes by the passing years, loss of sleep or temporary physical indisposition. The answer to these and dozens of other problems is ERACE!

PROVE IT FOR YOURSELF... in your own home and at no expense to you! Apply ERACE to a shadow under just one eye. Then look in the mirror and compare the two sides of your face. You will be thrilled at the startling comparison. You either have to agree that here is the answer to dark circles, lines, blemishes... or your money will be refunded!

ERACE comes in 6 blending tones, Fair, Natural, Medium, Deep Natural, Tan, Deep Tan, one of which will match your coloring perfectly. So get this wonder-working "cover-up" today... yours complete with instruction booklet.

Blind Workers Fight Pay Cut

Broom Makers Stage Sitdown Strike Over Piece Work Wage

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Twenty men slept fitfully in a brilliantly lighted room last night—men who "want to work and don't want charity."

The 20 are blind. They are broom makers who have lost their jobs and they're on a sitdown strike.

The men took over the cafeteria of the Pittsburgh branch of the Pennsylvania Assn. for the Blind yesterday afternoon. A few hours later, when they showed no sign of leaving, police were called.

Officers made no attempt to evict the men. A detail watched as they tried to sleep. Some of the men slept awhile, then talked of their next step. A few played cards—with a marked deck of course, marked in Braille.

The blind broom makers went on strike last March 2, protesting a pay cut. They have no union. James Leri, 29, married and the father of one child, said:

"We had been paid $1.13 a dozen to make brooms. The association tried to cut us to 78 cents a dozen and we walked off the job. But a short time ago we offered to go back to work for 90 cents a dozen."

"We decided to put on a sitdown strike and went to the cafeteria for a meeting yesterday. Some of the association officials called police and said we had to get out by 5 p.m. Well, we're still here and we are going to stay for awhile. We might try to picket the place later in the day. I don't know just what we'll do."

"We just want to go back to work and we don't want charity—that's all there is to it."

The plant operated by the association has several departments. About 100 blind, in addition to the broom makers, are employed. However, there isn't enough work to absorb the blind broom makers.

Ike and Mamie Can Sit on the Love Seat Soon

OSHKOSH, Wis. (AP)—President and Mrs. Eisenhower's love seat should be available soon.

S. T. Ginsberg, general manager of the Badger Lumber & Manufacturing Co. here, says the love seat was shipped with two sofas yesterday to the Denver store through which the President ordered them.

Truman Takes 1st Ride Since Leaving Hospital

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman took his first automobile ride yesterday since leaving Research Hospital, where he underwent surgery for removal of his gall bladder and appendix June 20.

"The trip apparently didn't tire him at all," said Mrs. Truman. "He seems to be getting stronger all the time."

Air consists of about 78 per cent of nitrogen by volume.

Aid Program Legality To Be Tested by Lee

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Gov. J. Bracken Lee said yesterday he is going to test legality of the federal government's foreign aid program by bringing action before the U.S. Supreme Court.

He asked the Utah attorney general to find what legal steps a citizen or a public official must take to prove that "it is a violation of our U. S. Constitution when our government gives our hard-earned money to foreign nations."

All-Star Gridders Prep for Battle With Lions

By TOM BRANAGAN
CHICAGO (U)—The College All-Star football squad, its roster completed last night, begins training Friday for the Aug. 13 charity game with the pro-champion Detroit Lions.

A total of 51 stars from colleges throughout the country will report to Head Coach Jim Tatum of Maryland at Purdue University.

They will have three full weeks to gear themselves for the annual Soldier Field battle with the Lions, a veteran-packed club that has won the National Football League title two years in a row.

The Lions beat a similar group of All-Stars 24-10 in last year's classic. This gave the pros their 11th victory in the series, which this year observes its 20th anniversary. The collegians have won six games and two ended in ties.

The pros undoubtedly will be favored to repeat as victors in the coming game—their experience, individually and as a unit, figuring to give the college boys too much to cope with.

However, the All-Stars will have the advantage of playing under the limited substitution rule—which means the Lions will have to play both ways, offensively and defensively, a practice they normally shun. The colleges, after a post-World War II fling with the so-called "Two Platoon" football practiced by the pros, have reverted to the old two-way game.

This issue caused some controversy a few weeks ago with Buddy

Parker, the Lions' coach, coming out strongly against subjecting his boys to the rigors of playing both offense and defense when they aren't used to it.

He was overruled after a conference between NFL Commissioner Bert Bell and Arch Ward, Sports Editor of the Chicago Tribune, which sponsors the annual grid show.

Members of the All-Star squad have been appointed over the last several weeks. The final two, half-backs Paul Cameron and Bill Stits of UCLA, were named last night.

Tatum will have the following greats of the 1953 college season available for duty against the Lions:

ENDS—Don Dohoney, Michigan State; Bill Fenton, Iowa; Gary Kneale, Colorado; John Carson, Georgia; Carlton Massey, Texas; Bob Michak, Army; Ken Hall, North Texas State; Dick Detrick, Pittsburgh; Hosea Sims, Marquette; Sam Morley, Stanford.

TACKLES—Art Hunter, Notre Dame; George Jacoby, Ohio State; Harry Jagielski, Indiana; Ed Meadows, Duke; Charles Doud, UCLA; Stan Jones and Bob Morgan, Maryland; Melvin Brown, Oklahoma; Dean Chambers, Washington; Matham Gressette, Clemson.

GUARDS—Menil Mavrides, Notre Dame; Crawford Mims, Mississippi; George Timberlake, Southern California; Morgan Williams, Texas Christian; Bob Hamilton, Kansas; Jerry Clem, Southern Methodist; Phil Branch, Texas.

CENTERS—Kim Schrader, Notre Dame; Jerry Hildenberg, Iowa; Ed Beatty, Mississippi; Bill McHenry, Washington & Lee.

QUARTERBACKS—Zeke Bratkowski, Georgia; Bob Garrett, Stanford; Lamar McHan, Arkansas; Cotton Davidson, Baylor; Vince Dooley, Auburn.

HALFBACKS—Johnny Lattner, Notre Dame; Paul Cameron, UCLA; Veryl Switzer, Kansas State; Bobby Cavez, Texas Tech; Bill Stits, UCLA; Dick Noland and Chester Hanulak, Maryland; Jerry Norton, Southern Methodist; Gene Pilipski, Villanova.

FULLBACKS—Neil Worden, Worden, Notre Dame; Stan Wallace, Illinois; Bucky McElroy, Mississippi Southern; Ralph Fenton, Maryland; Tommy Allman, West Virginia; Rick Casares, Florida.

Assisting Tatum with the coaching will be Bud Wilkinson, Oklahoma; Chuck Taylor, Stanford; Bob Voigts, Northwestern; Stu Holcomb, Purdue, and Forrest Evashevski, Iowa.

Foxy Casey Stirs Up a Win

By JOE REICHLER
NEW YORK (U)—Casey Stengel is as crazy as a fox . . . and twice as sly.

Talking to newspapermen before last night's game with Chicago, the shrewd New York Yankee manager spied Whitey Ford, his ace southpaw, sitting within earshot of his gravel-voiced.

"You want to know who is the best lefthander in the league?" he asked. "That feller (Billy) Pierce with the White Sox. He's better than my feller. Sure I picked my feller to pitch the All-Star game. But that was only because the other feller had just recovered from a sore arm. But the other feller is better."

Ford undoubtedly heard every word uttered by Casey, but he said nothing. A few moments later he arose and began throwing warmup pitches. About two and a half hours later, Ford walked off the field with a neat eight-hitter, after pitching the Yankees to a 4-1 victory over Chicago that kept the Yankees hot on the heels of the Cleveland Indians.

Reached in the clubhouse later, Ford declined to take issue with Stengel. He admitted he was determined to show his manager that he was a pretty good pitcher, too.

The 24-year-old ex-serviceman turned in one of his best efforts of the year. He struck out five and walked only two as he posted his ninth victory over the White Sox since he entered the league in 1950. He has lost only once to them.

It was Whitey's fourth straight strong performance after a poor spring. His record, which once was 2-4, is now 9-6.

"I was all mixed up early this year," Whitey explained. "My control was off, my curve ball wasn't doing a thing and I seemed to be going from bad to worse. I finally lost all confidence in myself and if it wasn't for Jim Turner (Yankee coach), I might be sitting in the bullpen now or pitching for Kansas City. He straightened me out."

Favored Entries Advance in Penn State Net Test

Coss Is Only Casualty Among Seeded Players in Tournament

PHILADELPHIA (U)—Top-seeded players entered the quarter-finals today of the 55th annual Pennsylvania State Men's Grass Court tennis championships at Merion Cricket Club in suburban Haverford.

Only break in the seeded ranks came yesterday when Tim Coss, Eastern Intercollegiate champion from Swarthmore and Washington, D.C., eliminated seventh-seeded Jack Frost, San Francisco, 6-4, 8-6.

Today's pairings pit top-seeded Vic Seixas, the nation's No. 2 player and defending champ, against Don Lesh, Los Angeles. Seixas breezed to victory 6-0, 6-2 over Fred McNair of Baltimore yesterday.

Second-seeded Art Larsen of San Leandro, Calif., meets Don Flye, Tacoma, Wash. Larsen played two matches yesterday to catch up with the field. The former U.S. champion whipped Dick Henry, Merion, 6-4, 6-3, and Richard Gains, Edgartown, Mass., 6-3, 6-3.

Straight Clark, third-seeded from Pasadena, Calif., defeated William Tully, New York State champion, 6-2, 6-2 yesterday and meets Bill Quillian, Seattle, in today's round. Fourth-seeded Ham Richardson meets Fred Hagist of San Francisco.

Other matches today pit fifth-seeded Hal Burrows, Charlottesville, Va., against Jerry De Witt of San Francisco; sixth-seeded John Shea against Allen Morris of Atlanta, Ga.; and eighth-seeded Ed-died Moylan, Trenton, N. J. against Charles Masterson of Washington, D. C.

'Honor' Caddies Get Jobs at State's Open

At this week's conference of caddy superintendents and caddy-masters of the DDGA, it was decided to send squads of 15 "honor" caddies from each of the district clubs to Lakepointe for the Michigan Open.

Play in the state's big tourney at Lakepointe begins a week from Thursday, ends Sunday of that week.

Special rates and cash mileage for trips to and from the Open will be provided the boys, says Pat Brazil, Orchard Lake caddy-master. Drawings for players will be made July 27 at Lakepointe.

Bill's on the Beam!

Bill Graham, general professional at the Bloomfield Hills Country club has played as much golf as usual this year but his last three efforts were three successive 6's. That's staying on the beam for an occasional participant.

'Hot' Yanks Still Trail

Indians Keep AL Lead by 4 Percentage Points as They Tie Bosox in 16 Innings

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sports Editor
What does a feller have to do to get into first place in this league? Casey Stengel didn't ask it in so many words but it certainly would be an appropriate question today for the resident genius of the New York Yankees.

Stengel is running the hottest ball club in the American League. Only 3½ games off the pace on July 1, the Yankees have won 17 out of 19 games since then.

And they still aren't on top. Last night they came within one putout of reaching their objective. The Yanks fought off third place Chicago handily, winning 4-1. The huge scoreboard in Yankee Stadium

ICE WATER IS WONDERFUL STUFF—National League umpire Frank Dascoli, sweating back of the plate in 110 degree field heat at Crosley Field, said: "Ice water, it's wonderful." While fans look on in the background, Frank douses his head and neck with a ice water soaked towel in the 9th inning of yesterday's 13-inning Reds-Giants game. Giants won, 2-1.

Motors 9 Gains in League Play

Adds Half-Game Edge by 6-4 Victory Over Milford Merchants

League-leading General Motors took a half-game lead over idle Stadium Inn in City Men's Softball League standings last night, winning its 13th victory in 15 starts, 6-4, over Milford Merchants.

Coaches overcame a 3-2 deficit in the 5th inning, when three runs crossed the plate on two hits, a walk and an error. GMC added an insurance run in the 6th when Jenkins singled, advanced on an error and came in on a fielder's choice play.

Birmingham Rite-way kept alive its hopes for a tie for the championship by edging CIO, 2-1. Winning run came in the last of the 7th inning, when Charles Reynolds doubled and was driven in by Jerry Wedge's single.

District's Caddies Enjoy Tourney Play in Own Loop

By H. GUY MOATS

Instituted at the start of the summer vacation, to give caddies of the Detroit District Golf Association some recreation, and experience along tournament lines, the Round Robin Caddy league has proved immensely popular. This is the word from Pat Brazil, caddy-master at Orchard Lake Country Club and "father" of the league.

"We have a dozen teams playing each week in this league," Pat reports. "There are six on the West and the same number

Big Stuff for Juniors Two More No-Hit Tilts Mark City Loop Play

By BILL MARTIN
Two no-hitters featured yesterday's 8-game City Junior Baseball League card. Neither game went the regulation seven innings.

A Class F contest was called after only two innings when Boys' Club Americans piled up a 2-1 margin over St. George. Jim Skinner held the losers hitless, struck out six and walked one. Winners had 11 hits, including a home run by Dave Simmons.

The other no-hitter, was turned in by Tom Seibst and Darrell Thorpe who combined to blank the Tigers as Avondale won a 19-0 verdict in the Knott-hole loop. The two pitchers together fanned 11 batters before the game was called at the end of four frames.

Second tie game of the season was recorded in Class D, when Griff's Grill and Don Nichol's Really battled to a 2-2 stand-off in nine innings. Each team collected six safeties.

Reds' Tebbetts Top Choice for 'Pilot of Year'

Former Tiger Catcher Has Done Sensational Job at Cincinnati

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK (U)—At the rate Birdie Tebbetts is going, there should be little difficulty in electing the Manager of the Year for 1954. With the National League race entering its second half, the freshman pilot of the Cincinnati Redlegs has turned in a job little short of sensational.

A year ago at this time the Redlegs, with almost exactly the same talent, were floundering in the second division under that hard taskmaster Rogers Hornsby. They never attained the 500 mark under the Rajah, and they were destined to wind up a bedraggled sixth, 37 games off the top.

Today the slugging Westerners, goaded and smartly directed by their new manager, are battling tooth and nail for third place behind the Giants and Brooklyn and, on their current form, must be conceded at least an outside chance of pulling one of the biggest upsets of recent baseball history. Few experts gave the club a hope of finishing any higher than it did last season. Third place would represent a genuine triumph for the popular Birdie.

Probably the only one not greatly surprised by the way the Redlegs are staying in there and slugging with the leaders, despite their uncertain pitching, is Tebbetts himself. The stocky catcher who took over after a single year of minor league managerial experience at Indianapolis never ceased to swear stoutly in the spring that he was going to climb over some clubs — "and I don't give a d—n which ones they are."

Robinson Puts Finger on Black Marketeers

PARIS (UP)—Police today said former world middleweight boxing champion Sugar Ray Robinson was the finger man in the arrest of two black market operators.

Robinson, starring in a Paris musical revue, told police he bought $700 on the black market from the men and did not find he had been fleeced until a bank teller told him the bills were counterfeit.

The boxer-dancer spotted the operators again and informed police. The operators were identified as Wacław Souhrada, 32, of Prague, and Isidore (Zizzi) Ben Ali, 33, an Algerian.

Publinx Champ Plays in National Amateur

DALLAS (U)—Champion of the National Public Links Golf tournament will play in the National Amateur Tournament at Detroit Aug. 23-28.

Gene Andrews of Pacific, Palisades, Calif., and Jack Zimmerman of Dayton, O., clash for the title today.

USGA rules make the semi-finalists of this tournament eligible to take part in sectional qualifying rounds for the Amateur and the champion goes to that tournament without qualifying.

Lyttell - Colegrove won its 5th consecutive victory in Class E, beating Boys' Club, 4-2. Orioles, 2nd place team in the Knott-hole National Division, handed the Red Sox a 16-3 shellacking. White Sox forfeited to Senators in another Knott-hole - National game.

Jets Increase City Loop Lead by Beating CIO

Now 2 Full Games in Front After 10-4 Win on Tuesday

Pontiac Jets moved two full games ahead of 2nd-place General Motors in City Class A Baseball League standings yesterday, beating 6th-place CIO, 10-4.

Jets pounded two CIO pitchers for 11 hits, including a 2-run homer by Don Russell and doubles by Russell, Eugene Cox and Judge Booker.

League leaders trailed the Unionmen 4-3 after three innings, but broke loose for four runs in the 4th and added three more in the 6th to win easily.

Jets starter Octave LeDuff gave way to Russ Lothery, who received credit for the victory, in the 4th. Lothery held the Union nine scoreless the rest of the way, fanned four and walked none.

Tennis Champion Maureen Connolly Is Seriously Injured When Horse Throws Her Against Truck

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (U)—Tennis champion Maureen Connolly—seriously injured when thrown against a moving cement truck while riding her horse—rested in a hospital here today.

"Little Mo's" injuries—a broken and severely cut right leg—will prevent her from defending her U.S. Singles title at Forest Hills, N.Y., Aug. 28. She has won the title the last three years.

Dr. Bruce Kimball who operated on her leg shortly after the accident yesterday said the fibula or small bone below the knee was fractured and that some muscles were torn but not severed. She was in surgery more than three hours.

Her leg was put in a cast and Dr. Kimball said she would be hospitalized at least a week. He said, however, that the injury would not permanently cripple her. He ordered her not to touch a tennis racket for a month, and perhaps longer.

Miss Connolly was under drugs last night and will not learn the extent of her injuries until today. She suspected the worst, however, and her last words before entering surgery were:

"How long will it be?"

The 19-year-old tennis queen was riding her thoroughbred Colonel Merry Boy yesterday, accompanied by two girl companions, when the accident occurred near Mission Valley Polo Grounds.

Before entering surgery, "Little Mo" told Nelson Fisher, San Diego Union sports writer and close friend:

"We were riding along Friar's Road. We stopped our horses as the truck approached."

"Colonel Merry Boy shied and whirled into the truck. My leg was caught between my horse and the truck."

Mrs. Kathryn F. Walker, a nurse, stopped at the accident scene and applied a tourniquet to Miss Connolly's leg to check the loss of blood.

"Little Mo's" first reaction after the accident was to inquire after Colonel Merry Boy.

"Little Mo's" heart, was given to her through a public subscription after she came home from her triumphant tennis tours two years ago.
