House Panel Hears Pros and Cons on a Lottery for Michigan

LANSING (AP) — A state lottery would "reduce taxes and eliminate the need for new taxes" a legislative committee was told yesterday.

The argument for a state lottery was presented to the House Committee on Revision and Amendment of the Constitution by Mrs. Helen Klovski of Dearborn Heights, president of the Citizens Sweepstakes Association.

The group proposes that the voters be allowed to vote to amend the constitution and decide if they want a state-run lottery, similar to those in New York and New Hampshire.

Mrs. Klovski said the association already has collected 200,000 signatures on petitions and needs 200,000 more to put the issue on the ballot.

Rep. Alfred Sheridan, D-Taylor, supported the state lottery idea, suggesting the money could be earmarked for education.

LEGAL OPPOSITION

State Solicitor General Robert Derengoski opposed the proposal on legal grounds.

The Michigan Temperance Association expressed its opposition on moral grounds.

Derengoski said the attorney general's office was opposed to a change in the constitution to legalize a lottery because "it would pave the way for other games of chance."

★ ★ ★

Legislatures in New Hampshire and New York, he said, have "been led down the primrose path" in their approval of lotteries.

'GREAT EXPECTATIONS'

Derengoski said New Hampshire expected $4 million from its lottery but the take was $2.8 million in 1964, $2.4 million in 1965 and $1.8 million in 1966.

In New York, he said, it is costing 50 cents of every dollar for collection fees and prizes.

"I urge you to turn it down," he told Rep. J. Harold Stevens, D-Detroit, committee chairman.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Klovski said many Michigan residents are buying New Hampshire and New York lottery tickets as well as Irish Sweepstakes tickets.

'KEEP MONEY IN STATE'

"This would keep the money from going out of the state," she said.

"This is like saying if you can't abolish murder you should legalize it," Derengoski countered.

Rev. Allen Rice II, president of the Michigan Temperance Foundation, said his group was opposed to a lottery and felt gambling had no logical place in the normal function of living.

★ ★ ★

"Experience has shown a lottery is expensive to administer and its revenue is unpredictable," he said. "The greatest burden of support for a lottery would fall on those least able to pay."

Riot Issues Face State Legislators

LANSING (AP) — Michigan legislators returned to their desks today to seek a way to help meet the cost of last week's riots which left 41 persons dead in Detroit and to coordinate riot investigations.

A move was expected in the Senate for passage of a House-approved three-cent cigarette tax boost to make up for an anticipated depletion in the state general fund surplus as a result of the rioting.

Senate Majority Leader Emil Lockwood, R-St. Louis, and House Speaker Robert Waldron, R-Grosse Pointe, said yesterday that two concurrent resolutions were ready for introduction, dealing with the rioting which centered in Detroit and spread outstate.

A Senate resolution would show legislative intent to make supplemental appropriations to state agencies as needed because of increased costs brought about by the riots, Lockwood said.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, a House resolution would set up a joint, six-member committee to coordinate and direct activities by legislative committees seeking the causes and results of the rioting, Waldron said.

DEMS VOW SUPPORT

The resolutions would have to be approved by both Houses.

House Democratic leaders have promised to support GOP plans to authorize agencies to spend what is needed for riot relief.

Lockwood said he planned to go before the GOP caucus to urge passage of the cigarette tax bill which would boost the state levy from 7 cents a package to 10 cents, effective Oct. 1.

The bill passed the House earlier in the session, but met resistance in the Senate where the GOP majority felt it should be held in reserve to meet unexpected emergencies.

★ ★ ★

School officials had sought passage of the tax boost to meet increased education costs — particularly teacher salary increases.

ANTIRIOT LEGISLATION?

Both GOP leaders said they knew of no moves to introduce antiriot legislation before final adjournment set for Thursday.

3 Indicted in 'Largest' Robbery

BOSTON (AP) — A major break has occurred in the great Plymouth mail truck robbery with the arrest of a woman and two men in the $1,551,277 cash haul.

★ ★ ★

The woman, mother of four children, and the two men are accused of committing with "other persons unknown" what is believed to be the largest cash robbery in the nation's history.

A federal grand jury charged the three with the 1962 robbery in indictments returned yesterday — two weeks before the five-year statute of limitations runs out for the federal government to prosecute.

Named in the indictments were Thomas R. Richards, 42, of Weymouth, an electrician for New England Power Co.; John J. Kelley, 51, of Watertown, unemployed; and Patricia Diaferio, 32, of Boston.

Richards was arrested at his home by U.S. marshals. The other two surrendered by arrangements made through their attorneys.

RELEASED ON BAIL

The men, both represented by noted criminal lawyer F. Lee Bailey, were released on bail of $25,000 set by U.S. Commissioner Francis H. Farrell.

Mrs. Diaferio, represented by attorney Joseph Bailliro, was freed after posting $5,000 bail.

The indictments charge that the three, and others unknown, robbed two postal workers of the money in Canadian and U.S. currency.

★ ★ ★

It also charges them with putting the lives of postal employes in jeopardy.

MINIMUM SENTENCE

Conviction would carry a minimum sentence of 25 years in prison.

Two months after it occurred, about 30 U.S. marshals and post office inspectors tore Richards' $18,000 home apart.

They ripped out ceilings and walls, pried up floor boards and took panels off outside walls and eaves.

A search warrant said they sought $1 million of the mail loot.

Clark Answers Romney

Riot 'Politics' Rued

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark said today Michigan's Gov. Romney—who accused President Johnson of playing politics during Detroit's racial rioting—"expressed his gratitude to me several times" for federal action in the troubled city.

"I never detected anything but cordiality in all of our conversations," Clark told the Associated Press. "I regret that politics has been injected into it."

It was the first direct response by a top official of the Johnson administration to Republican Romney's charge of politics.

Clark declined to comment in detail on the Romney assertion, saying he had not had an opportunity to review thoroughly the sequence of events during the hours before the commitment of federal troops to help quell the Detroit riots.

★ ★ ★

Romney told a news conference yesterday he believed political considerations were behind what he said was Clark's insistence that the governor certify that Detroit was in a state of uncontrollable insurrection in advance of the commitment of federal forces.

ASKED ABOUT CHARGE

Clark was asked about the Romney charge as he prepared to testify before a Senate Judiciary subcommittee on President Johnson's civil rights bill.

He told the panel that violence and rioting had become the greatest barriers to the fulfillment of civil rights in America.

Earlier, Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield of Montana rebuked Romney, saying political statements about rioting were "demeaning and utterly useless."

Romney asserted yesterday that President Johnson "played politics" when rioters took to the streets in Detroit and the governor sought federal troops to deal with them.

Mansfield countered, "I think both sides are guilty of playing politics with an issue that is too explosive to handle in that manner. The playing of politics should not be tolerated and will not be appreciated by the American people."

In Detroit, Romney said former Assistant Secretary of Defense Cyrus R. Vance had been quoted by the White House as indicating Romney agreed with him in delaying the commitment of federal troops to Detroit.

Severe Storm Pelts Pontiac

Severe thunderstorms late yesterday afternoon brought a downpour of heavy rainfall and, in some sections of the city, marble-sized hailstones. Rain measured seven-tenths of an inch in downtown Pontiac.

When the storm left, the sun came out and the rest of the evening was pleasant.

Tonight will be partly cloudy with a low of 58 to 64.

The weatherman predicts cloudiness with a chance of showers tomorrow with a high in the low 80s.

★ ★ ★

The outlook for Thursday is mostly sunny and a little cooler.

Light variable morning winds at 7 to 14 miles per hour will continue tonight.

PONTIAC LOW

The low in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. was 58. The mercury reached 81 by 2 p.m.

Precipitation probabilities in per cent are: today near zero, tonight 20, tomorrow 50.

4-H Fair to Select Royalty

Two featured events top the opening night's program for the Oakland County 4-H Fair, which opened officially at 10 a.m. today at the fairgrounds, Perry and Walton.

★ ★ ★

The annual Pontiac Press freckle contest and selection of a Fair king and queen highlight tonight's 7:30 program.

Six finalists, three boys and three girls, for king and queen honors were among the participants yesterday afternoon in the annual parade through downtown Pontiac.

Some 18 4-H entries took part in the parade. First place float honors and a trophy were awarded to the Gingelville 4-H Club.

★ ★ ★

Second place was awarded the Cloverleaf 4-H Club. Other ribbons went to the Bloomfield, Rip and Tear, Seymour Lake and Straw Hat 4-H clubs.

WALKING UNITS

Horse units winning ribbons were from the Gingelville, Wolverine and Ro-Hi 4-H clubs, while walking units earning ribbons were from the Oakland County K-9, Bloomfield and White Lake 4-H clubs.

The fair runs through Saturday.

Bonds Lowered for 25 in Jail

Bonds were substantially reduced in all but one case yesterday for persons arrested and charged with felonies during last week's civil unrest in Pontiac.

Originally set at $20,000 by Pontiac Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum, the release bonds were lowered to $1,000 for 19 persons during afternoon hearings in court.

None of the 19 had any past criminal record, according to Oakland County Prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson.

Bonds of $5,000 were set for six who had prior criminal records.

★ ★ ★

The only bond that remained the same was that for Larry Adams, charged with assault with intent to murder a Pontiac policeman, Santiago Serna, during the disturbance early Tuesday.

HELD IN JAIL

Adams is held in the Oakland County Jail in lieu of a $30,000 bond.

Bronson, represented in court by Asst. Prosecutor Ronald Covault, chief of court operations, said his office acted on a petition to lower bonds filed by Pontiac attorney Wallace McLay.

McLay contended that the bonds were excessive and in violation of the State Constitution.

In recommending that the bonds be reduced, Bronson explained that his office had compiled information on all those arrested for felonies last week..

Troops Pull Out; Romney Lifts Most Controls

DETROIT (AP) — Federal officials today airlifted four battalions of U. S. troops homeward, ending their role in helping to quell the worst riot in recent American history.

Their departure cut the number of federal troops in the Detroit area to about 3,000.

The 2,000 troops from the 101st Airborne Division boarded giant C130 transport planes and headed back to Ft. Campbell, Ky., as Detroit remained quiet after the eight-day siege of sniping, burning and looting.

Gov. George Romney today lifted nearly all restrictions clamped on the nation's fifth largest city during the outbreak.

He wiped out an emergency curfew today after earlier allowing sale of alcoholic beverages Monday for the first time in a week. The governor also allowed groups to assemble freely and unrestricted sale of gasoline beginning today.

WEAPON SALES

But Romney said emergency bans against sale of weapons and explosives would continue indefinitely.

Cyrus Vance, special assistant to Defense Secretary Robert McNamara, told a news conference today that three battalions of the 82nd Airborne Division were being moved from the rubbled city to Selfridge Air Force Base, 20 miles northeast. It was from this base that the 101st troops flew out.

UAW, GM Optimistic

Canadian Car-Pact Talks Open

TORONTO (UPI) — General Motors and the United Auto Workers Union opened up negotiations for new contracts covering Canadian workers on an optimistic note yesterday.

Both sides expressed the wish a settlement, which could have a profound effect on negotiations in the United States, could be reached without a strike.

The UAW moved over to Ford today to open negotiations and plan to begin with Chrysler tomorrow in Windsor. In all, about 50,000 workers are employed by the "Big Three" in Canada.

The chief aim of the Canadian UAW negotiators is wage parity between Canadian and American workers. The Canadian workers presently receive an average of 41 cents an hour less than their U.S. counterparts.

★ ★ ★

Parity has become the main objective of the union and UAW President Walter Reuther has threatened the U.S. auto companies, currently negotiating with the UAW, with a strike unless it is achieved.

EXPIRATION DATES

Contracts with the U.S. companies expire Sept. 6 while contracts end with General Motors of Canada Oct. 31, Ford of Canada Dec. 1, and Chrysler Canada Nov. 15.

The Canadian negotiators will also seek to have their new contracts end on a common day with U.S. contracts.

The union also hopes to achieve the right to strike on speed up during the life of the contract. Ontario provincial labor laws forbid a strike during the life of the contract for any reason.

★ ★ ★

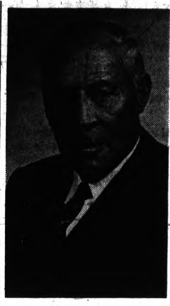
Other issues of specific Canadian interest were pensions, survivor benefits, introduction of automation and injunctions.

OPTIMISM

"If restraint and wisdom prevail, we can hold fast to what we have gained and continue to make sound progress," said chairman of the GM negotiating party, Arnold G. Stapleton.

"As we start these negotiations, GM employes are already in a most favorable economic position, among the best paid in all of Canada," he said.

He said the cost of living allowance which increased wages 22 cents an hour during the present contract, contributed to the GM workers' favorable position.



H. HOWARD FLINT

Death Takes Area Founder of Ink Firm

The founder of one of the major world printing ink companies, H. Howard Flint, died Sunday. He was 82.

Flint, of 4760 Quarton, Bloomfield Hills, was founder and chairman of the board of the Flint Ink Corp. of Redford, which has factories in 18 major U.S. cities. He founded the firm in 1920.

Service will be at 2 p.m. tomorrow at Kirk in the Hills Church, Bloomfield Hills, with burial in Woodlawn cemetery, Detroit, by Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co., Birmingham.

Surviving are two sons, Edgar B. and Robert H.; five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Flint was a director and past president of the National Association of Printing Ink Manufacturers and he was co-founder, director and past-president of the National Printing Ink Research Institute at Lehigh University. He was an original director of City National Bank of Detroit, and served until his retirement in 1966.

Flint was a life member of Palestine Lodge 357 F. and A.M., the Detroit Moslem Shrine and the Detroit Valley Scottish Rites Bodies. He was a life member of Bloomfield Hills Country Club and the Detroit Athletic Club, and a member of the Jonathan Club, Los Angeles, Calif. Donations may be made to the Salvation Army Building Fund.

AAUW Book Roundup Is On

BIRMINGHAM — Two garages and a basement are already full of old books and the AAUW annual book sale collection is well under way.

Mrs. Thomas Mitzelfield, chairman of the transportation portion of the university women' annual drive, said donations are coming along well.

Books are being collected at various businesses which cooperate in establishing drop-off points.

But a big find for the sale, to be held Sept. 18-22 this year, is when someone moves. "They tell us to come and get 'em," she said.

★ ★ ★

This year is the 40th annual event. Proceeds go for summer grants to local female teachers and the National American Association of University Women Fellowship Fund for Advanced Study.

LAST YEAR'S RESULTS

Last year, $6,000 was raised. "It was amazing," said Mrs. Mitzelfield. "Some people bought $25 or $30 worth."

That would be a lot of books because most of them are sold for bargain prices of 15 and 25 cents.

There seems to be little trouble getting rid of the books as all sorts of collectors show up at the sale, she said.

★ ★ ★

For donations, the group is interested in almost all types — novels, histories, children's books, reference, encyclopedias and books on crafts, hobbies, art, etc.

PAPERBACKS WELCOME

Paperbacks are welcome as are National Geographic magazines, a favorite. Also desired are sheet music and recordings.

★ ★ ★

De Gaulle Vows Aid for a Canadian Split

OTTAWA (AP) — Many in Canada today rejected President Charles de Gaulle's pledge of France's help in the "liberation" of French Canadians from domination by the English-speaking provinces. But the separatist minority was overjoyed.

Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson and his aides had no comment while they studied the statement issued in Paris on de Gaulle's behalf after the president reported to his Cabinet Monday on his controversial visit to Canada last week and his cancellation of his visit to Ottawa.

★ ★ ★

The statement said de Gaulle "recognized among the French Canadians the unanimous conviction that after the century of oppression which followed British conquest, the second century under the system defined by the 'British North American Act' of 1867 had not assured them, in their own country, liberty, equality and fraternity."

★ ★ ★

He said he sensed the French Canadians' will "to be masters of themselves in all respects and especially to become masters of their own progress."

NLRB Rejects Union for Skilled

DETROIT (AP)—The International Society of Skilled Trades was rejected today as a bargaining agent for skilled tradesmen in the auto industry in a ruling handed down by Jerome Brooks, regional National Labor Relations Board director.

★ ★ ★

The Society of Skilled Trades has been attempting to win bargaining rights for skilled tradesmen now included in the United Auto Workers union, which holds industrywide contracts to represent the skilled semiskilled and unskilled in auto plants.

Policeman, Guardsman Called Killers

DETROIT (AP) — An unnamed National Guard warrant officer and an unidentified policeman were the focal points today of an investigation into the slaying of three Negroes, earlier thought to have died as snipers during Detroit's rioting.

The warrant officer was named as the killer of two of the Negroes by a witness who claimed to have been present when 16 to 17 policemen and National Guardsmen crashed into a motel annex on the fringe of the main West Side riot area.

★ ★ ★

Another witness said he thought the killer of at least one of the Negroes was a police officer.

None of the witnesses said they actually saw anybody kill someone, however.

The killings occurred early Wednesday morning as sniper activity, that replaced the burning and looting of Sunday and Monday, reached a peak in the worst racial explosion in recent U.S. history.

ONE ARREST

Only one arrest has been reported relating to incidents at the motel — the Algiers — that night.

"We have a very active investigation going," said Wayne County Prosecutor William Cahalan.

But he added: "We're going to play it cozy. We don't want anything to happen to this one."

U.S. Is Moving on Carmichael

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department is moving to revoke the passport of Stokely Carmichael but the Justice Department says only that it is investigating activities of the militant Black Power advocate.

Carmichael recently went to Cuba via London and Prague and was quoted from that Communist country as saying, "We are preparing groups of urban guerrillas for our defense in the cities."

He also predicted a "fight to the death."

Carmichael, 26, has been cited by some congressmen as the object of a House-approved bill which would ban movement across state lines to incite riot.

The Associated Press asked the State and Justice departments about Carmichael. The Justice Department would say only that Carmichael's "activities are under investigation. The department does not make public details of pending investigations."

The State Department was asked: Has the State Department decided to revoke Carmichael's passport?

A. Yes. There is an established procedure for taking this action. Taking the action will depend on the timing of his return to the United States.

★ ★ ★

Q. On what ground is his passport to be withdrawn?

A. The basis of action is his failure to obtain validation of his passport to go into the prohibited area—Cuba.

Senate Leader Raps Romney for 'Politics'

"Nothing could be further from the truth," Romney said.

★ ★ ★

The governor said he requested federal troops at 3 a.m. July 24, but they did not arrive in the Detroit area until 4 p.m. and were not sent into the riot zones until about 3 a.m. the following day.

★ ★ ★

Romney said he began to believe politcs was a factor "when the attorney general began to insist on this certification that we had an insurrection that was, out of control and didn't seem to be particularly impressed by the fact that we needed the troops to keep the situation from getting out of control."

Sen. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., said Romney was not alone in his belief that Johnson acted politically. "A lot of people who listened to the President's speech think so, too."

Griffin said there is nothing in the law requiring that a state of insurrection be declared in advance of the commitment of federal troops.

At a news conference, Johnson avoided challenging Romney, saying "I don't think anything is to be gained by trying to justify or explain" his troop decisions. White House Press Secretary George Christian said the President has no intention of criticizing Romney.

ATTORNEY GENERAL

Clark, an administration contact man with Romney during events preceding troop deployment, declined comment on the governor's charges.

He was due to testify today at a Senate Judiciary subcommittee hearing on the Johnson civil rights bill. Riots and their aftermath are likely to come up.

Defending Romney's actions during the Detroit rioting, Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., rejected as did Mansfield political argument about racial disorder.

★ ★ ★

"I don't think we're going to get anywhere through political recriminations," Scott said.

'ACTED PROPERLY'

When the Detroit riots began, "Gov. Romney acted properly and decisively," said Scott, "He did not play politics."

★ ★ ★

"President Johnson either made a mistake in judgment or deliberately delayed sending federal troops into Detroit's riot-torn areas," said House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan. He said swift federal intervention could have saved lives.

Chamber Sets Plan of Action

A Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce program responding to problems largely rising from last week's civil strife was outlined by the Chamber board to city officials yesterday.

Strong support of the city's handling of the situation was also voiced to Mayor William H. Taylor Jr., City Manager Joseph A. Warren, and City Attorney Sherwin M. Birnkrant.

The city was offered all Chamber services to help create and maintain good relations among all concerned.

The board announced efforts to help Versa Tube Corp., destroyed by fire, to resume operations so that the 60 employes could return to work as soon as possible.

While the main plant is being rebuilt, space is being sought where temporary operations can be maintained.

Arrangements with the Red Cross to supply food for employes until they return to their jobs have been made by the Chamber.

State Rep. Arthur J. Law has been contacted and offered assistance in relocating or selling his super market at 200 Earlmoor if he should desire, according to a Chamber spokesman.

"The Chamber works to protect free enterprise and the rights of an individual to operate a business," he emphasized.

25 Felony Suspects Given Lower Bonds

He said his office was in a position to make recommendations on each individual as to what the amount of the surety bonds should be in order to guarantee the appearance of the defendents at their preliminary examinations.

"This information supplied by the police department and defense counsel enabled us to arrive at a legally firm but fair judgement under the circumstances," said Bronson.

The hearings were held before Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

No Meeting Here Tonight

The Pontiac City Commission will not hold a regular meeting tonight due to the absence of six commissioners.

Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. was scheduled to attend the convention but changed his plans because of recent disturbances in Pontiac.

July Sunshine Plentiful, but Temperatures Low

Area residents could easily powder their faces with sunshine as Ol' Sol favored the weather scene with 24 days of gleaming skies during July.

Cloud cover marred picnickers' pleasure on only seven days.

Measurable rainfall totaled 2.35 inches, just short of an inch less than last July's 3.34 inches.

The high of 91 was reached on July 9, making it the coolest July in two years. In July 1966, the monthly high was a steaming 100, in July 1965, 95.

★ ★ ★

Temperatures hit above 90 degrees on only four days during the month. There were 15 days when the mercury bobbed in the 80s.

IT WAS CHILLY

A monthly low of 51 on July 14 caused residents to shove up their furnace thermostats or start a fire in the fireplace to take the chill off of the house. It compared to last year's low of 55.

The mean temperature for the month was a balmy 70.58 degrees, 4.42 degrees cooler than the previous July.

Hunt Continues for 4 Killers

West Bloomfield Township police report they have not given up the hunt for the four killers of Township Trustee Edward Emmett DeConick.

DeConick, 63, was slain July 3 by the group who broke into his home at 5847 W. Maple. He was beaten and killed and his sister, Kathleen DeConick, 73, was shot in the left eye and left for dead.

She is recovering from her injuries, however.

A $6,600 reward including $1,000 from The Pontiac Press remains to be collected by anyone supplying information leading to the arrest and conviction of the killers.

Township police have been aided by state, county and federal authorities in their investigation.

Clinton River Claims Tot

A 20-month-old Pontiac boy fell into the Clinton River off Chapman and drowned shortly before 3 p.m. yesterday.

City police identified the victim as Thomas E. Munson, son of Joyce A. Munson of 26 Esther.

The spot where the boy fell into the water at 59 Chapman is five feet deep, according to police.

The body was recovered by city firemen about 800 feet downstream, 20 minutes after the mishap.

Thomas was dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital.

VP to Deliver Major Policy Talk in Detroit

DETROIT (UPI) — A spokesman for Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey said yesterday that Humphrey would deliver a "major policy address on crisis in our cities" at the close of the National Association of Counties convention here tomorrow.

The spokesman said Humphrey considers "Detroit an appropriate place to deliver such an address" in the wake of six days of rioting that killed 40 and destroyed parts of the nation's fifth largest city.

Humphrey was scheduled to arrive in Detroit tomorrow evening to address the 3,000 delegates at the convention.

It was thought the vice president might tour devastated parts of Detroit, but the spokesman would not confirm this.

The spokesman said Humphrey's plans were not complete on his Detroit visit.

Voice on Foreign Policy Target of Senate Move

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bid by Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., to gain for the Senate more muscle in the foreign policy field has won praise from his colleagues.

But even some of those who supported the Arkansas Democrat's goal blamed the Senate for its loss of a voice in foreign policy.

★ ★ ★

Fulbright introduced a resolution Monday that would require a joint congressional-presidential declaration to seal any national commitment abroad.

The President could not make commitments to foreign nations without the Senate's consent.

★ ★ ★

While the Constitution requires Senate ratification of formal treaties, many pacts between the United States and foreign countries are never so formalized. Constitutional scholars say the President thus can control foreign policy totally if he so desires.

Fulbright, perhaps the Senate's most persistent critic of President Johnson's Vietnam policies, told his colleagues the resolution was aimed at no "current crisis abroad, and it is not a measure directed against any single administration in this century—or against anyone at all."

Despite the disclaimer, the resolution appeared likely to arouse still another congressional debate on Vietnam. Critics of the war say President Johnson has continued to escalate the U.S. commitment there without consulting Congress.

And Fulbright said he hoped the resolution would lead to a sweeping study by the foreign relations committee, which he heads, of U.S. overseas commitments. Much of the congressional debate surrounding Vietnam has centered in that committee.

Michigan's Public Health Chief Quits

LANSING (AP) — Dr. Albert E. Heustis has resigned as director of the State Department of Public Health—a job he held for 19 years—to head the Michigan Association of Regional Medical Programs.

Heustis, whose resignation was accepted "with great regret" Monday by Gov. George Romney, will direct efforts to coordinate the cancer - heart disease-stroke activities of several universities, state, professional and voluntary agencies.

★ ★ ★

"In his 19 years as state health director, he has earned distinction not only for himself but for the State of Michigan," Romney commented.

"Although his vigorous and committed leadership will be sorely missed, I am pleased that he will be able to continue to serve the people of Michigan in his new capacity," Romney added.

'WONDERFUL YEARS'

"They have been 19 very interesting and wonderful years," said Heustis, looking back to 1948 when Gov. Kim Sigler named him to head the department — the fourth man to take over the post within a one year period.

He has served under four governors, two Republicans and two Democrats.

City Water Fluoridated; 'Ordinance Not Violated'

Odorless, colorless, tasteless fluoride began flowing today into the Detroit water system, which serves 60 suburban communities, including Pontiac.

Pontiac residents will consume the fluoride in their water glasses despite a city ordinance against it.

Actually, according to city officials, Pontiac is not violating its own ordinance.

City Manager Joseph A. Warren explained that the ordinance prohibits any Pontiac official from adding fluoride to the water furnished city residents. And this is still the case. Detroit is adding the fluoride.

In 1955, voters approved the ordinance, 5,775 to 4,311. The object was to exclude sodium fluorides. However, since then Pontiac has abandoned its well water system and become a water customer of Detroit.

COST PROHIBITIVE

Previously, city officials have indicated the cost is prohibitive to extract the fluorides from the water provided by Detroit.

In addition to receiving fluoridated water, which a majority of local residents did not want, at least in 1955, the price of water may go up.

Warren said the city has received no notice of the increased costs, but members of the Detroit Water Board yesterday announced a $2.50 annual price hike for the 3.5 million people in 67 southeastern Michigan communities served by Detroit water.

The price hike is effective Nov. 1.

DETROIT APPROVAL

Detroit residents first approved fluoridation of water in November 1965, and again in November 1966 after opponents had forced a second vote.

The city estimates fluoridation will cost $425,000 a year. A $550,000 fluoridation plant was recently built.

The controversy over fluoridated water centered around the contention that fluoride was injurious to health. Most experts reject that argument, and many dental and medical men say it will cut tooth decay.

★ ★ ★

Fluoridation affects the water supply of Wayne County, southwestern Oakland County and western Macomb County.

EXEMPT AREAS

Communities that will not receive fluoridated water include Grosse Ile, Gibraltar, Riverview, Trenton and Brownstown Township.

Highland Park, which has its own water filtration plant, has had fluoridated water for a number of years.

Board Acts to Ease Bee Problem

Perseverance has paid off in the case of the alleged menacing bees of North Winding and vicinity.

The Waterford Township Board, which July 24 voted to take no immediate action against a bee farm despite a businessman's complaints, passed a resolution last night to take necessary measures to alleviate the problem.

Township attorneys ruled July 24, on the basis of the limited facts presented, that the nuisance, if any, was private in nature.

The deciding factor leading to last night's reversal was the appearance and subsequent testimony of neighbors who convinced board members that a nuisance does exist and affects more than a few persons.

James Howlett, attorney for Stachler's Trailer Sales, 3771 W. Huron, said beekeeping may have been appropriate when the township was an agricultural community, but is not a proper activity in today's developed residential parts of the township.

He said a civil suit is not the answer to the problem because of the time and expense involved.

Some residents said their children have been stung by the bees. A few testified that the bees swarm in their yards, forcing them to keep their children indoors and restricting their activities.

Howlett said one girl in the neighborhood has to carry medicine around her neck 24 hours a day because she is allergic to insects.

One resident said his dog was stung by a bee and that the bees "get in our hair."

A petition signed by residents in opposition to the bee farm was presented to the board last night.

The original complaints were lodged in behalf of Stachler's Trailer Sales where the bees allegedly sting customers and damage vehicles with their droppings.

Police, Firemen Draw Praise

Cited for Assistance in Pontiac Disorder

The Waterford Township police and fire departments received praise from Township Board members last night for a job well done in helping Pontiac cope with last week's disturbances in the city.

★ ★ ★

For eight days, from July 24 when violence erupted until yesterday morning, township police provided Pontiac law enforcement personnel with able and valuable assistance, according to township officials.

Township fire fighters also provided a helping hand, voluntarily battling some of the scores of fires which broke out in Pontiac July 24 and 25.

Following a motion by Trustee E. Frank Richardson, the board by unanimous vote, directed township attorneys to draw up a resolution, authorizing "a day off with pay" for participating policemen and firemen "in recognition of their outstanding contributions."

★ ★ ★

Trustee Herbert C. Cooley, a sergeant with the Pontiac Police Department, was highly complimentary of the effort put forth by township police.

★ ★ ★

"The township of Waterford should be very impressed with its police department," said Cooley. "They were very effective.

★ ★ ★

"If the township police department continues to grow and maintain its stature, it is going to be a department the township of Waterford can really be proud of."

Auto Parts Yard Loses

A rezoning request for an auto parts yard on Warren Drive near Dixie Highway was rejected 6-0 last night by the Waterford Township Board, which also voted to make arrangements with a Pontiac firm for disposal and storage of junk cars.

The township would have to pay towing costs for transporting the cars to Sam Allen and Son, Inc., and would be required to process the titles of the junk vehicles.

It was not immediately determined what township department would assume responsibility for the added chores.

Police Chief William Stokes said his department is not well-enough equipped to handle the problem. "We need more personnel," he asserted.

★ ★ ★

Supervisor Elmer R. Johnson said, "It is something that would have to be worked out."

George Beechum had requested the Township Board to rezone the Warren Drive property from light industrial to general industrial for relocation of a junk car business he now operates on Dixie Highway.

STIFF RESISTANCE

The proposed move, however, met stiff resistance from residents and members of a church located adjacent to the proposed auto parts yard.

At the board's July 24 meeting, the objectors presented a petition bearing signatures of 100 persons.

In other action last night, the board approved the final plat for Huntoon Shores No. 3 Subdivision, a 51-lot residential development located off Airport Road near Williams Lake Road.

Similar approval previously had been recommended by the Township Planning Department.

PRICE RANGE

Homes in the subdivision, including lots, will range in price from $19,500 to $23,500.

Altogether, Huntoon Shores consists of three subdivisions with 105 lots.

Also last night, a resident of Donelson Park No. 1 Subdivision inquired about the subdivision's chances of acquiring legal title to a lot bordering on M59.

★ ★ ★

According to township officials, the land originally was deeded in trust to the township for the use of subdivision residents.

LEGAL PROBLEMS

Legal problems have been encountered on whether the township has the right to deed the property to anyone else.

Steps are being taken by township attorneys to settle the issue.

Johnson said he feels the board is 100 per cent in favor of relinquishing the title to the subdivision.

★ ★ ★

Approved by the board was a resolution concerning the dissolution of the now defunct North Oakland County Library Contract System.

PROVIDES SERVICES

The township now has an agreement with the Wayne County Library which provides services to the local library.

★ ★ ★

In still other business, a lot split request by Ray Bush, 1394 Airway, was denied 6-0, as presented, and a request for a club license and dance permit for VFW Post 1008 was tabled one week.

Body Recovered

GRANDVILLE (AP) — The body of Manley Stegeman, 76, of Hudsonville, was recovered from he Grand River Monday not far from where his car was found parked on shore. Grandville police said. Members of a State Conservation Department crew making a survey found the body about 5 feet from shore. Medical examiner Dr. Fernley Stoneman of Grandville, said a ruling on the cause of death would await an autopsy.

School Taxes for Rochester Go Up One Mill

ROCHESTER — School district residents will be paying $1 more $1,000 assessed valuation this December as a result of action taken by the board of education last night.

The tax rate was raised from 29.6 mills to 30.6 mills in line with an increased allocation from the county.

Supt. of School Douglas Lund said, "The board thought it was necessary for the responsible operation of the schools."

In other business, Mrs. Edward N. Bowen, 1555 Hampstead, Avon Township, was named the new principal of Brooklands Elementary School.

Assessments OK'd at Paving Hearing

WOLVERINE LAKE — About a quarter of the residents on four streets to be paved here approved last night the special assessments to pay for the blacktopping.

This was the result of the first public hearing on the paving of Wolverine Drive, Paulette, Ventura and Solano streets.

Some 25 residents present approved an estimated paving cost of $1.45 per front foot, making a total of $16,215. The estimate was based on the bid from Cadillac Asphalt, Southfield.

The village will now accept more bids for the paving work.

A second public hearing will determine final costs. It will be held Aug. 14 at 7:30 p.m. at the Village Hall.

272 Seek Job Benefits

DETROIT (AP) — The Michigan Employment Security Commission says 272 persons have filed for benefits at Detroit branch offices, claiming they were unemployed because of the city's racial eruption.

70 in Independence Twp. Attend Hearing on Proposed Zone Code

INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP — The Township planning commission went into almost all aspects of its proposed new zoning ordinance at last night's public hearing.

About 70 residents showed up to fire questions, and as a result some revisions were made and others are to be studied.

The proposed ordinance, as amended, will be sent to the Oakland County planning board for approval, then to the Township Board for further hearings and final passage.

When completed, it will serve as a land-use guide for the township and control future growth and development.

The proposed ordinance was formulated from the "master plan" for the township's development prepared by Driker Associates, Inc., of Birmingham, for a fee of $21,000, two-thirds paid for by a government grant.

★ ★ ★

The various zoning represents the manner in which the firm feels the land would be best used, incorporating present zoning and trends.

At the hearing, residents made several objections and some corrections are to be made.

OBJECTS TO RULE

One resident objected to a prohibition on more than three cars. He said he had a large family and more than three cars were in use.

Other residents said their families had a hobby of restoring antique cars. The planners agreed to reevaluate this rule.

Another proposed law called for prohibiting parking or storing of recreation vechicles such as campers or trailers anywhere but in the rear of a residence.

It was pointed out that on many lots the home ran very near to the back property line. Those objecting were agreeable to parking such vehicles at the side of the house, behind the forward point of the dwelling.

★ ★ ★

Other residents objected to their property being placed in new zoning, especially those formerly in a farming zone that would change to suburban farms or residential.

GARDENS ALLOWED

Still other residents felt they would not be allowed to carry on their gardening or animal raising. The planners pointed out rezoning of their areas could not stop present uses and such activities could be carried on as a "nonconforming use," according to laws.

An aspect important to holders of large parcels was pointed out by Robert C. Dieball, from the planning consultant firm.

He said that as the township experiences further growth, land would become more and more expensive. Thus, the value per acre and resulting higher taxation would make farming or holding of large lots an expensive proposition.

Planners pointed out what could be done if residents objected to the proposed township zoning ordinance.

15 PER CENT

A petition signed by 15 per cent of property owners could be drafted and turned over to the township, which would then call an election.

A majority of voting property owners would then decide the issue.

Also, action by the zoning appeal board could handle special cases of land use.

Some residents asked for a provision, not in the proposed ordinance, for an area between agricultural and suburban farms.

They wished to allow for noncommercial raising of animals, such as for 4-H projects, and similar uses. Planners asked that those interested draw up their ideas and present them in the future.

It was also pointed out the township zoning plan does not include the village of Clarkston.

However, the village is in the process of studying its zoning and a hearing has been set for 7 p.m., Aug. 14 at the Village Hall on such plans.

Rochester Attorney, 67, Can't Retire

By JEAN SAILE

ROCHESTER — The man who once hired a whole train to keep his teen-age daughter from driving the family car to a football game can't retire.

Wilson Severance, 67, of 364 Charles, allows the laugh lines to crinkle about his pale blue eyes when he says "My wife won't let me."

Anyone knowing the Rochester attorney discounts the story, Severance would be bored silly without his finger in a pie — preferably Republican — and the tougher the crust, the better.

As a train entrepreneur, he wound up selling tickets to fill 12 passenger coaches for the 1948 Tri-County Championship game at Lapeer between Rochester and Lapeer.

★ ★ ★

"She (his daughter) could drive all right," he recalls. "She just couldn't turn corners."

ELECTION CREDIT

It was incidental that the publicity garnered from the train ride was credited with helping to elect that fall's Republican candidate.

Born on Main Street about a half a block from where his office is located, Severance is a living history of the area.

He is the son of a man who at the turn of the century was Rochester's superintendent of schools, then gave up the $1,000-a-year job to buy the town's small electrical company and, in turn, sold that and became an undertaker.

★ ★ ★

The father's early death put young Severance on the street corner at an early age as a newspaper boy. From that, he went into a four-month stint with the Army during World War I in which he tried to volunteer for the Balloon Corps.

Then it was the University of Detroit Law School, and when the depression hit, it was the job of "striper" at the Dodge Brothers plant.

"They were just changing from wooden to metal bodies on the cars," Severance recalls, "and they needed somebody to paint stripes on the body."

"I've always bought Chrysler products, because I figure I still owe them money," he opined. "Two men would carry the body to a position in front of me. I'd paint the stripe. They'd move it away, and for that I got $2 an hour."

★ ★ ★

He credits the invention of a striping machine with sending him back to the practice of law and a one-year job as assistant prosecutor in Oakland County.

KEEPING COUNTY DRY

"My job — it was during Prohibition — was to keep the county, with the exception of Pontiac, Royal Oak and Ferndale, dry. You can say I wasn't too successful," he mused.

Though offered a continuing chance at the job, Severance went into his own law office. That first office was located in the same National Bank of Detroit Building where he now is.

"There weren't many people up here then," he remembered. "They gave me the office over the vault, because they thought I might be able to prevent a possible burglary."

★ ★ ★

Looking back over the years, Severance thinks that one of his main accomplishments was the drafting of a model ordinance that became the state's prototype, enabling many home owners to save their property during the depression.

2 New Reservoirs Improve Water Service From Detroit

Detroit's capacity for meeting hot-weather demands in many northern suburbs has been increased "substantially" by the opening of two filtered-water reservoirs, a city official said today.

The new reservoirs, each with a capacity of 10 million gallons, will serve communities in Oakland, southwestern Macomb and northwestern Wayne counties, according to Gerald J. Remus, general manager of the Detroit Department of Water Supply (DWS).

The new reservoirs will substantially improve our hot-weather service to these areas by providing greater pressure and reliability in hours of peak demand," Remus said.

One of the new reservoirs is located at the DWS West Service Center, Shiawassee north of Eight Mile, Southfield. It was completed at a cost of $1,725,986, and went into operation last month.

★ ★ ★

The other, at the DWS North Service Center, Dequindre and Twenty Mile, Troy, opened last March. Cost of this reservoir was $934,000.

WATER CAPACITY

The new facility raised the DWS total water storage capacity to 275.4 million gallons. Detroit now supplies water to 65 communities in a service area of nearly 600 square miles.

The two reservoirs were financed entirely by revenues from the DWS water supply system (the department also operates a water pollution control system), Remus noted.

Cost of the new facilities are part of the $27 million in construction contracts awarded by DWS last year for system improvements.

Contracts valued at another $11.6 million were to be awarded this year in DWS' "continuing attempt to meet the goals" outlined in its 15-year, $475 million program of water supply development for southeastern Michigan, Remus added.

3 Found in Station; Youth, 18, Charged

WALLED LAKE — Gary Benedict, 18, of 5605 Pelham, Birmingham, was arraigned yesterday before Walled Lake Municipal Judge Gene Schnelz on charge of breaking and entering an area filling station.

He was released on $1,000 personal bond. His examination is set for Aug. 16 at 10:30 a.m. at the Walled Lake Municipal Court.

★ ★ ★

Benedict and two juveniles were found by Walled Lake police in Cesaro's Mobile Station, 1715 N. Pontiac Trail, early Sunday morning. They had $10 on them, said Sgt. Wilford Hook.

The two juveniles were taken to the Oakland County Children's Center.

Rezoning Favored for 2 Milford Lots

MILFORD — Residents of two of three lots in property to be rezoned from single family to multiple dwelling expressed favorable opinions at a public hearing held last night by the Village Council.

The two property owners approving of the rezoning felt that the change would not affect them, explained Village Clerk Norma Melzer.

Mr. and Mrs. David Young, 525 W. Commerce, opposed the rezoning, indicating they opposed the multiple dwelling usage.

These three lots were added by the planning commission to some three acres also considered for rezoning for multiple dwelling use. The commission requested the additional rezoning in order to avoid spot zoning and make the area an "asset in later years," said the clerk.

★ ★ ★

Calvin Lawrence is requesting the rezoning of the three-acre parcel. He plans to construct a two-family flat on the land. His acreage is on the north side of Peters Road and southwest of the Benson subdivision.

The Village Council will decide on the rezoning at its regular meeting August 14.

Urban Rioting Stirs Citizens to Write Their Congressmen

WASHINGTON (AP) — Obviously disturbed and concerned by urban rioting and looting, citizens by the thousands are expressing their views to senators and representatives.

Most congressional offices report their riot mail as moderate to heavy in volume.

* * *

There isn't a great deal in the way of proposed solutions or constructive suggestions, congressional offices say. Most people simply express their thoughts and feeling, often with strong emotion.

To sum it up, several members of Congress said, "The folks are against riots."

SOUTHERN POSTMARKS

Most of the letters appear to be from whites, particularly those with Southern postmarks. But there are some from Negroes.

Mail from the South generally is heavy with criticism of President Johnson and with something of an "I told you so" and "You brought it on yourself" point of view.

* * *

Numerous letter writers called for something to be done about such militantly outspoken Negro leaders as Stokely Carmichael and H. Rap Brown. Many others suggested that money required for the Vietnam war might better be spent in the United States.

Most members of Congress decline to permit their correspondents to be quoted by name but do permit quotations from letters as long as the writer is not identified.

SAMPLE LETTERS

On that basis, the Associated Press obtained many of the riot letters. Here are samples of what Mr. and Mrs. America are writing their senators and representatives about the matter:

From Tennessee—"I am not a racist. Neither are the people for whom I speak, Negro as well as white. We are outraged and frightened parents who believe the time has come for firm, startling and immediate action by the government. A stop has to be put to rioting and pillaging, flagrant disrespect of our country, our flag, our rights, our lives."

* * *

Seattle—"These rioters act like mad dogs. If people act like that, the police should be allowed to use machine guns on them."

Seattle—"I wish to add my protest to others who feel these devastating race riots would not have occurred had Congress been thinking of the welfare of the American people."

Spokane—"All looters and snipers should be shot on sight when caught in the act. These people have no right to trial. Either you people in Congress take immediate steps or we the people will do the job. We have guns, we have ammo and we have the will."

Mississippi—"Send them all back to Africa and give them 160 acres and a tractor."

Michigan (a Negro) — "My people are not responsible for this. We believe in law and order and we are just as heartsick about it as you are."

Louisiana — "Do we need these people who only want to advocate the overthrow of our government and divide the country, such as Carmichael, Brown and King? No, we don't need them. Are we getting too weak and backboneless that we have to sit back and let this cancer grow without treatment?"

Santa Ana, Calif.—"Let's take all the money and resources that we are devoting to that idiotic war in Vietnam and lay it on our own underprivileged people. I know this is an impossible solution but whatever is done must be that dramatic."

De Gaulle Galls His Hosts

It's one thing for CHARLES DE GAULLE to attempt to boot American influence out of Europe, or to block the entrance of the Anglo-Saxons into the Common Market.

After all, he has a vested interest in his continent and a voice—in his case, a loud and continuous one—in matters affecting it.

However, it's quite something else for him to come to a sovereign nation, Canada, as the guest of its government and people and plant verbal land mines in what has literally been an explosive situation in the past.

DE GAULLE'S impassioned cry "Vive le Quebec libre!" before crowds in Montreal was bad enough as a breach of diplomatic protocol, which in this case means simple good manners.

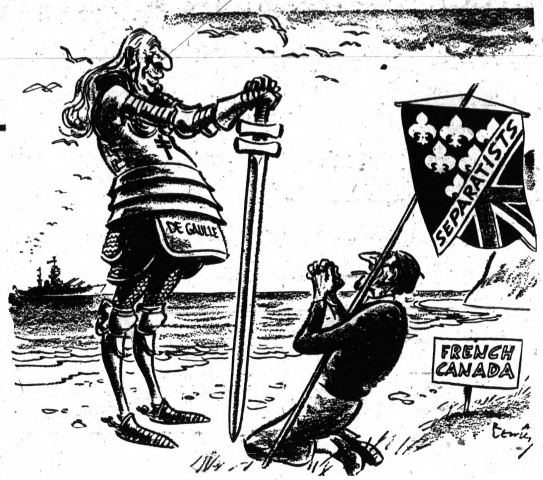
But it's not impossible his words could inspire a few crazy zealots to start planting bombs in mail boxes again to blow people to bits in the name of liberty, equality and an independent Quebec.

Any lesser personage than the president of France would have been arrested as a provocateur and hustled out of the country.

★ ★ ★

Actually, it was the French Canadians themselves who were most embarrassed by DE GAULLES' behavior. The separatist movement enlists the sympathies of only a tiny minority of the people. Most of them are more interested in building a greater Canada, one nation from sea to sea, than they are in trying to reverse WOLFE'S defeat of MONTCALM 200 years ago.

So what's next on your schedule, Charlie? A visit to New Orleans to renege on the Louisiana Purchase?



'I, Joan Of Arc, Greet You Before I Must Fly Back To Your Motherland.'

U.S. Seen Front Runner in Pan American Games

JIM RYUN, of Wichita, Kans., would rather work than play. The world's fastest miler (3:51.3) has ignored entreaties to compete in the Fifth Pan American Games 1,500-meter race at Winnipeg, Manitoba, Friday. Instead RYUN will continue in his summer job as a photographer for the Topeka Capital-Journal.

TOMMIE SMITH and CHARLIE GREENE, two of America's finest sprinters, also have turned down invitations to compete in the all-hemisphere olympics. Canadians naturally are disappointed that three of the world's best runners are absent from Winnipeg.

On the other hand, they can take pride in the fact that the current edition of the Pan American Games is the biggest to date. Some 3,500 athletes from 30 countries are competing.

A number of existing Pan American records almost certainly will fall at Winnipeg. On July 15, record times were surpassed at the Pan American trials for U.S. competitors at Minneapolis.

It is equally certain that the United States will sweep the competition. At the last games, in 1963, this country took 193 medals, as compared to runner-up Canada's 62. The outcome is expected to be pretty much the same this year.

Don't Look Now, But Someone Is Watching You!

So you think things are tough?

Console yourself by taking a peek at what's ahead — in, say, the year 2000.

● Privacy may be practically passe.

Through the cunning of tiny microphones, closed television circuits and other supersnoopers, any or all of us could be under constant surveillance without suspecting it.

Every act could be detected, the contents of our personal mail revealed.

Life could, as one friendly forecaster put it, be "as private as an army barracks."

● Space will be so scarce that park and recreational areas may have to be rationed. (What fun to reserve a seat on a park bench for next Tuesday!)

● And, of course, pure air and water will be as hard to get as rest and relaxation.

Predictions of some nut or killjoy?

No, sir. Educated guesses by experts as expressed in Daedalus, the journal of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

So breathe and live it up a little while you can, folks. Bad as we may think it has been, the best is just behind you.

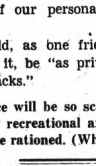
If, that is, the experts are right. They have, bless them, been known to be wrong.

We can always wish them failure.

Middle-Class Negro Accepting Riots

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON — H. Rap Brown, Negro leader charged with inciting a riot in Maryland, was in a fashionable restaurant over the weekend having lunch with his lawyer, a newspaperman, and others.



MARLOW

This time he was all dressed up, quite a difference from his usual attire of tight pants and blue denim jacket in which he harangues Negro groups about violence.

His picture, showing him shouting and performing, had been in the newspapers for days. Only two days before this luncheon he had urged a Negro audience to shoot and loot. But in the restaurant he practiced some self-restraint.

Brown is chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee. When he started out of the restaurant, said the Washington Evening Star reporter who was with him, well-dressed Negro men and women "stopped him repeatedly and shook his hand and said, 'We're with you, Rap' or, 'Keep it up, Rap.' "

If this seems surprising to those who may have thought the rioting was supported only by impoverished Negroes in the ghetto, it nevertheless bore out the findings of some sociologists from the University of California who made a long study of the 1965 riot in the Watts section of Los Angeles.

MODERATING INFLUENCE

They said: "We suspect that many white persons have viewed the middle-class Negro group as a moderating influence in the racial struggle. The 'better element,' it is often argued, will be responsible and orderly and understand the necessity for a gradualist solution of the Negro problem."

"We find little room for such optimistic appraisal. If our analysis is correct, the problems of urban life for the Negro, even in the palmlined spaciousness of Los Angeles, have grown acute and a significant number of Negroes, successful or unsuccessful, are emotionally prepared for violence as a strategy or solution to end the problems of segregation, exploitation and subordination."

The sociologists' report on Watts will probably have a sharp pertinence to the investigations made into the Detroit riots by congressional committees, the President's special commission, or any other group.

★ ★ ★

But there was nothing in the study to show what triggered the riot in Watts, how much of a role was played by criminals who saw a grand chance to get loose in a mob, or whether outside instigators were involved.

NO. 1 GRIPE

The sociologists found the No. 1 gripe of the Watts Negroes was about the poor neighborhood they live in, meaning things like dirty streets and dilapidated housing.

Next in order of discontent were:

● Mistreatment by whites—discrimination and rough police tactics.

● Economic conditions — low pay, high prices, high rent, lack of jobs.

● Lack of public facilities—transportation, schools, shopping facilities, parks.

★ ★ ★

Employed persons felt more discriminated against than the unemployed. And those with only a grade school education were less favorable to the riot than those on any other educational level.

What About Negro Separatism?

WASHINGTON — Black Muslims and other black power advocates who favor splitting the United States into two nations might be taking for their slogan the old Arab proverb: "Allah is great, but juxtaposition is greater."

Ruth Montgomery

Juxtaposition (placing side-by-side) has been an abysmal failure in North Africa, where Arabs for a quarter-century have refused to live peaceably with their fellow-Semite neighbors, the Israelis.

It has been considerably less than a success here in the U. S., as anyone who has visited an Indian reservation can attest. But, on the other hand, we have lived amicably alongside Mexico for a half-century and Canada for a considerably longer period.

What if we decided to give it a try? What would happen if we ceded a portion of America to our disgruntled Negro friends, in exchange for properties that they hold elsewhere in the nation?

★ ★ ★

The first step in making the partition would be to select a geographical area which would produce the least refugees, by displacing them from their homes.

Many Indians on reservations would undoubtedly be glad to swap places with American Negroes, but since the latter would not want an enclave totally surrounded by the U.S.A., the site would have to have a seacoast, or be contiguous with Mexico or Canada.

Several suitable areas immediately come to mind. One could embrace sparsely settled lower California, southern Arizona and New Mexico, and West Texas. Hollywood could be thrown in for good measure, in order to lure Adam Clayton Powell; and with this setup the Negroes might become a nation of ranchers and oil and movie tycoons.

After choosing the area for their new nation, the next step for black power leaders would be to recruit settlers willing to give up their U. S. citizenship, subsidized housing, food stamps, school buses, unemployment compensation, government jobs and job security.

With their own seat in the United Nations, the new country would obviously vote against us in every crisis, but we are becoming inured to that.

Its government would, of course, appeal to us for foreign aid, but we are so accustomed to feeding the mouth that bites us that one more such nation could be taken in stride.

Their greatest income could probably derive from tourism — if they granted whites a visa.

But even that might vanish the first time that young hotheads set a torch to tourist hotels, and tossed Molotov cocktails through U. S. embassy windows.

★ ★ ★

By that time, cooler heads among them might change the old proverb to "Allah is great, but integration is greater." And petition the U. S. for statehood!

Bob Considine Says:

Anecdote on 'Dirty Mick' Is Recalled With Pride

NEW YORK — Meeting overseas relatives or persons with the same name can be an interesting experience.

CONSIDINE

"When I was in jail with De Valera (Ireland's president)," Brendan Considine tends to say, with great pride, as he begins an anecdote — I noticed on a recent trip to Dublin.

Anybody who wasn't in jail after the Eastern Rebellion or during the fights against the Black and Tans lacked proper credentials to advance in the Ireland that rose from those troubles.

Mick Considine, a member of the Clare County Council, told me at the Old Ground hotel in Ennis that he was proud — and I SHOULD BE PROUD, TOO — of Dirty Mick Considine.

Why?

Well, it seems that the original Mick Considine was a compatriot of Daniel O'Connell, Ireland's first great Catholic political leader, born a year before our Declaration of Independence.

O'Connell, a man of great courage and sterling gift of speech, brought about the Emancipation Act in 1829, through which the British Parliament grudgingly returned citizenship rights to Ireland's Catholics. Such rights had been denied them since the time of Elizabeth I.

Once the act passed, O'Connell became the first Catholic to sit in the British House of Commons since 1688.

During the first blush of success, O'Connell returned to Ennis where in 1828, after winning his seat in Parliament, he had refused to take the oath abjuring his religion, which was required by the House of Commons.

There was a big celebration surrounding his triumphant return in 1829, of course. In the midst of his speech he spotted his pal, Mick Considine.

Stopping everything, he went over to Mick, embraced him, kissed him, and gave him his dark green cloak (now carefully preserved in the Ennis Museum.)

Mick swore then and there that he'd never wash off that kiss.

Kept his word.

In Washington:

Gravest Civil Strife Since 1865

By BRUCE BIOSSAT

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Negro warfare on the streets of American cities, compounded now in its fourth straight summer, has plunged this country into its gravest internal crisis since the Civil War. U. S. society is endangered by at least partial breakdowns in many areas.

BIOSSAT

On one incredible night, the roster of this horror embraced Detroit, Grand Rapids, Flint, Pontiac, Toledo and Cambridge, Md. Still vivid in the recent background was the combat in Newark, Cincinnati, Minneapolis, Hartford and other cities.

When the reality is this raw and ugly, the comment needs to be no less brutal.

The properly harsh thing to say about this crisis is that neither the most alert white leaders or the most militant Negro spokesmen are facing the American racial problem in the full scope of its staggering magnitude.

The answer the militant Negro wants is the nearly total, instant remaking of U. S. society to provide, overnight, the jobs, schools, housing and other fundamentals the enlarging Negro community requires.

Even with almost unlimited amounts of money and energy, it is impossible in the short range. The gaps and the lacks, the cruel results of past error and neglect, are too great. The sudden miracle is not going to happen — not with white power, black power or any other kind.

★ ★ ★

Nor is the white community going to have merely bearable, painless, uncostly, unembarrassing change as it deals with millions of frustrated, embittered, poverty-ridden Negroes in a context of rising affluence visible to all Americans.

Amid the good times in the neatly clipped world of white suburbia, the sharp sting of real urgency is going to have to be felt.

The white separatism of American suburbia is no more a practical response to our crushing dilemma than is the black separatism with violence preached insanely by some black power advocates in conference at Newark.

That conference yielded the wildest, most self-destructive distortions of reality heard in this country in decades. They represented a prescription for suicidal war and crippling isolation. If they were not so tragic when set against the gravity of the problem, they could be dismissed as silly.

Even as the misguided militants tried to tell millions of unhappy Negroes that they should prepare for war and for living in a black "nation" within the nation, in Detroit animal fury — underscored as elsewhere by open criminal intent — turned another city into a place of terror.

At this stage, neither the rioters nor their inflammatory leaders pay any attention to lectures from the white community on law and order. Yet, while granting the transitory "affluence" of the looter who walks away with a sofa on his back, it is a fact that impoverished Negroes cannot hope to bomb, burn and shoot their way to a decent level of living.

★ ★ ★

Of course, riots rivet attention on the Negro. But there is no persuasive evidence — in Watts or Cleveland or Harlem or Chicago — that riot produces more than fragmentary, token relief of the poor Negro's desperate economic plight.

If the extremity of street warfare yields no more than this, then what comes next? What is to follow the riot as a means of deeper persuasion? The total disruption of American society?

The truth is, most of the Negroes conferring at Newark, like the rioters they condone, have no real program for Negro betterment. They were simply redefining their own death wish. In Detroit, the rioters were acting it out.

Genuine Negro betterment has to lie in other directions, away from isolation and warfare, toward enduring, fruitful links with the white community. — with its overwhelming preponderance of numbers and its near-monopoly on the immense resources required to perform an immense task.

Costs of U. S. Foreign Aid Policies Noted

The end of our $2.5 billion a month no-win-war is not in sight; cost of our welfare state is astronomical; a movement exists to lift gold cover on the dollar; after Vietnam, HHH envisages "foreign aid — twice our present level"; new foreign aid requests are on the order of $10 billion; our public and private debt is $1.5 trillion ($1,529,700,000,000); for fiscal '68 a $20 to $30 billion deficit has been predicted; unbridled inflation threatens.

Comments on Pontiac Township's 'Future'

My family has been on our farm in Pontiac Township over 100 years. I thank you, Mr. Wahl, for calling us "stable working people . . . solid citizens." I'm glad you realize we like rural life.

When you give population statistics, why don't you also give the estimate of the jumping crime rate? I invite you to drive along many of our township's roads and see the trash. We have everything — including the kitchen sink! What have you done about this?

You predict sewers will make our area "one of the best potential sites for industry in the Pontiac area." Industries will take away the farms and destroy the beautiful wooded areas. Your "solid citizens" will leave. The bright future you envision will discourage them from staying.

Seven 'Mississippi Dems' Running for Governor

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — The men campaigning for governor of Mississippi stand on decorated flat-bed trucks in courthouse squares from Sullivan's Hollow to Piney Ridge and call each other names—"liberals" "Kennedy men" and "Washington pawns."

These are Democrats, striving to win nomination in the party's Aug. 8 primary. The Republicans already have their candidate for the November election, and interest now centers entirely on the "Mississippi Democrats."

★ ★ ★

"You sure better not label me as a plain Democrat," one candidate warned a newsman. "I'm a Southern or Mississippi Democrat, and you better spell it right."

Despite 185,000 registered Negroes among the 700,000 voters the candidates are not openly soliciting Negro support. Civil rights organizations are concentrating on county and district races in selected areas.

SEVEN CANDIDATES

There are seven gubernatorial candidates wearing the "Mississippi Democrat" label: ex-Gov. Ross R. Barnett, Rep. John Bell Williams, State Treasurer William Winter, Bill Waller, Jimmy Swan, Vernon Brown and C.L. McKinley.

The winner will face Rubel Philipps, a Jackson attorney who won 38 per cent of the vote in 1963 as Republican candidate against Democrat Paul B. Johnson Jr., who is now ineligible by law to succeed himself.

★ ★ ★

Ross Barnett was governor from 1960 to 1964 and made national news in 1962 when James H. Meredith, a Negro, was enrolled in the University of Mississippi.

Opponents are using the incident against Barnett, 69. John Bell Williams calls Barnett the "secret-deal candidate," claiming he agreed with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy to allow Meredith to enter school if Kennedy would have federal officers make a show of force.

DENIES CHARGE

Barnett has denied the charge, but Kennedy on a recent trip to the state said such a deal was made.

Barnett is also on the defensive beeause of his age.

★ ★ ★

"We should elevate 'Ole Ross' to the post of senior statesman or governor-emeritus," gibes Williams.

The congressman stings Barnett with charges of being "a silk-stocking man who, if elected, would have to move into the governor's mansion, and that would mean moving into a smaller house."

Barnett is campaigning on a platform of states' rights, support of ex-Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama for president, and increased state welfare benefits for the aged and disabled. He has promised a $75-a-month old, age pension, now $50 a month.

★ ★ ★

"I'd rather see the elderly people of Mississippi get 80 per cent of the federal money rather than the Head Start and the Great Society programs," he says.

★ ★ ★

Barnett attacks his opponents as "liberals and middle-of-the-roaders."

He implies that funds raised by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., for the Young Democrats of Mississippi are being funneled into William Winter's campaign.

'RUNNING AROUND'

"He's been running around with Hodding Carter III (Greenville newspaper editor and co-chairman of the Young Democrats) and a Negro boy in the Young Democrats," Barnett charges.

"When this summer is over, Winter will be gone," says Barnett, "and I think we'll just send Johnny Bell Williams back up there to Congress."

Williams has served 21 years in Congress and says, "That's enough time for any man to have to live in Washington. I want to come back to the Bible Belt which the liberals make so much fun of."

He says he stands for states' rights and law and order and never fails to remind listeners that it was he who lost his party seniority in the House for supporting Republican Barry Goldwater against President Johnson in the 1964 election.

'GIVE 'EM HELL'

"They offered me that seniority back last year," Williams says, "with the only condition that I support Lyndon Johnson or any other candidate they might select and endorse the national platform, whatever that might be."

His stump crowds bellow: "Give 'em hell, John Bell!"

★ ★ ★

Winter, 44, a lawyer from Grenada, served in the Legislature and was state tax collector before winning election as treasurer.

Williams and Barnett both charge that Winter is a liberal. Winter says he is a "responsible conservative" and accused the other candidates of "spouting claptrap."

BLIND ALLEYS

"Mississippi simply cannot endure leadership that carries us into blind alleys and confuses and disillusions our people," Winter says. "I offer a simple choice of responsible conservatism versus reckless reaction, of good government versus second-rate politics."

Business and industrial leaders have rallied behind Winter with large sums of money, and most political observers think he's the leading candidate.

★ ★ ★

Jimmy Swan, a Hattiesburg radio executive, has the state's ultraconservative vote. Robed Ku Klux Klansmen have, on occasion, appeared at highway intersections handing out his campaign literature.

★ ★ ★

Swan advocates a "free, private school system" for every white child in the state.

"In this school system," Swan said, "not only will our children receive a better education and have Bible reading and prayer, but our teachers will teach in the high moral and segregated atmosphere that befits the character of true Southern womanhood."

★ ★ ★

Bill Waller is the district attorney who twice tried, but failed, to convict Byron De La Beckwith of the sniper murder of civil rights leader Medgar W. Evers.

Beckwith is a candidate for lieutenant governor, but the trial is not a campaign issue.

Waller bills himself as "a true conservative" and advocates lower taxes and "more for your dollar."

Vernon Brown, 66, is running his first statewide race after 28 years in county government. He admits he has few financial backers, and his campaign lacks news releases or advertisements.

C.L. McKinley is an employe of a shipyard on the Gulf Coast. He has yet to appear at a major political rally.

Lawyer Willed Estate to Jayne

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A will of lawyer Samuel S. Brody, killed with actress Jayne Mansfield a month ago in an automobile accident, disinherits his wife and their two children and leaves the entire estate to the late blonde performer.

★ ★ ★

The will, handwritten and dated 18 days before Brody and Miss Mansfield died on a New Orleans, La., highway, was filed Monday by Matt Cimber, third husband of the actress.

★ ★ ★

"I hereby bequeath and give all my estate, whether personal or otherwise, to the only person in the world I love, Jayne Mansfield," the will states. It was found in Miss Mansfield's safe deposit box.

A 1958 will, filed by Mrs. Brody, leaves the entire estate, about $185,000, to Mrs. Brody.

Brody, 40, and his wife were estranged at the time of his death, June 29.

Former Model, Queen's Cousin Are Wed at Last

NEW CANAAN, Conn. (AP) — Lord Harewood, Queen Elizabeth's cousin, has wed former model Patricia Tuckwell on a 440-acre private estate.

★ ★ ★

The marriage between the divorced member of the British royal family and Miss Tuckwell, who is the mother of his three-year-old son Mark, was approved earlier this month by the queen.

Harewood is 17th in line for the British crown, and he was required under Britain's Royal Marriages Act to have her permission to marry. So far as was known no one so close in line to the sovereign has been divorced.

GARDEN VOWS

A justice of the peace performed the ceremony Monday in the garden beside a lily pond at the mansion of Ruth Lapham Lloyd.

Among those in attendance were the bride's brother, Barry, a musician with the London Symphony Orchestra, and Nancy Norman LaSalle of Southampton, N.Y. The wedding couple had spent the weekend in Southampton before coming to New Canaan for the ceremony.

Justice of the peace Allen Saaf was uncertain how to address Lord Harewood.

★ ★ ★

"By all means, call me George," Harewood said.

It was also the second marriage for the 38-year-old Australian bride, who has a 17-year-old son by her first husband, Athol Smith. Smith remarried in Melbourne last month.

Harewood has three children by his first marriage, to Marion Stein, daughter of a Viennese pianist.

"They were very, very happy," the justice of the peace said.

Mrs. Lloyd, a Texaco heiress, gave the couple an oil painting of the wedding site which they happened to notice on the wall in her home as preparations were being made, Saaf said.

★ ★ ★

The justice of the peace said when he learned he would perform the wedding, "Of course I was very surprised. I had been reading the papers," he said.

"They were very charming, very wonderful people."

"I don't know what it is about you people," the young mother giggled, "but every time he sees you, he goes to sleep." Luci and husband Pat and little "Lyn" are staying at the White House this week.

Ugly Rumors Are Good Enough if Reason Is Needed to Cool Friendship

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

ABBY

DEAR ABBY: I am a single girl, recently employed by a large firm. Since coming to work here, a coworker and I have become very good friends during office hours. He is a happily married man and the father of two, and I am engaged.

Because of the way we have hit it off together, we've been getting the cold shoulder from many of our coworkers, and I understand some ugly talk has developed about us.

I don't believe in breaking up an innocent friendship for no good reason at all, but I would like your opinion on this matter.

CHICKY

★ ★ ★

DEAR CHICKY: I don't believe in breaking up an innocent friendship "for no good reason at all" either, but if ugly talk has developed, perhaps that's good enough reason to pay a little attention to the false impression you are creating.

If only to spare his wife needless humiliation about how well her husband has "hit it off" with the new girl down at the office, the advice from here is to cool it.

DEAR ABBY: I read your column. The question of whether or not the minister's wife should receive an invitation to the weddings at which her husband officiates interested me since I am a minister.

Just as the doctor's wife is not invited to the operation, nor the lawyer's wife invited to the trial, a minister's wife is not of necessity invited to each wedding at which her husband officiates. The minister is there in his official capacity, not as a guest.

Very truly yours,
W.A.H., Sao Paulo, Brazil

DEAR REV. H.: "Muchas gracias por su carta. Es verdad!

DEAR ABBY: My husband has been running around with a 16-year-old girl. I have had this kind of trouble with him before but never with anybody so young. Is there anything I can do because of this girl's age? I know there is a law against fooling around with minors.

HIS WIFE

DEAR WIFE: There is plenty you can do, and I suggest you ask your lawyer how to do it. I don't know what you mean by "running around," but if it can be proved that your husband has had relations with this girl, he can be locked up.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: We have recently become friendly with a couple who are strict vegetarians. They are very quiet about it, and don't try to talk other people into it, which we respect and admire.

When we entertain at home and include our vegetarian friends, we always have plenty of vegetables and fruits along with meat and fish for those who are not vegetarians. We've never made an issue of it, but this is the way our vegetarian friends seem more comfortable.

Well, we came in for a great deal of criticism from a CLERGYMAN, mind you. He said when vegetarians are guests, the host should serve NO meat or fish as vegetarians would be offended at the sight of others eating it. Are we wrong?

WILLING TO LEARN

DEAR WILLING: After checking this out with the authorities (some of my best friends are vegetarians) they unanimously agree that they PREFER their hosts to serve normally, and let each guest select what he wishes.

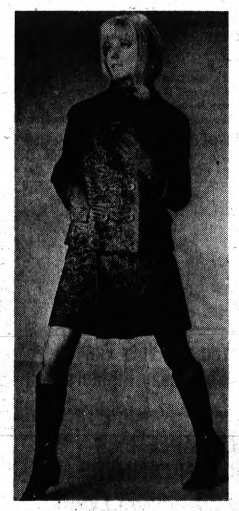
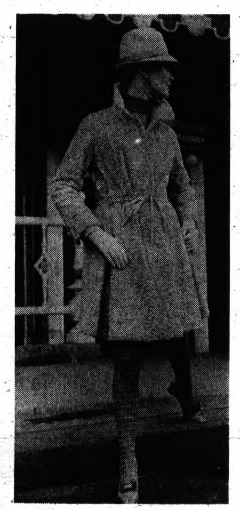
There's a Bit of the Tiger in These New Persian Lambs

The divided stance is cleverly concealed in this glistening black Persian lamb suit with culotte skirt, designed by Samuel Braun. The little riding jacket has double button closing in front and vents at each side of the back.



Rich, natural iridescent brown Persian lamb is worked into a glowing greatcoat of casual elegance by Schlussman and Gutman, makers.



Casual styling in a moonlit violet Persian lamb coat hides pockets in two flaring inverted pleats in front. A brass and white vinyl link belt ties smartly at the natural waistline. By H.B.A.

Joseph Husereau Nuptials

Wed in a recent double ring ceremony in St. Vincent De Paul Church were Diane Lynn Williamson and Joseph Husereau.

The bride chose a gown of white lace with satin accents and wrist point sleeves. She wore a shoulder length veil trimmed with seed pearls.

Cheryl Taylor was maid of honor and Vicki Lang served as flower girl.

* * *

Parents of the bridal couple are Mr. and Mrs. Alva Williamson of Argyle Road and the Alphonse Husereaus of Park Place.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bridegroom's parents, after which the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in northern Michigan.

Shut Out Those Voices That Decry Failings

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Once upon a time there was a proud Persian prince who set out to seek the Water of Life which flowed from a spring on top of a mountain. The mountain was haunted by voices which reminded you of every bad thing you had ever done in your life.

When the prince reached the foot of the mountain, a wise old dervish stopped him and said, "Here's some cotton. Put it in your ears or you won't get to the top of this mountain." But the proud prince wouldn't listen and started climbing. Almost immediately the accusing voices began to list all the bad things he had ever done.

They got too much for him and turning around to answer them, he was turned into a black stone.

The same thing then happened to his brother. He, too, refused to stuff his ears with cotton and was turned into a black stone. But the youngest prince wasn't quite so proud. He realized that the temptation to respond to the accusing voices might be too much to handle.

So he took the dervish's advice, stuffed cotton in his ears and reached the top of the mountain where he filled his flask with the water of life.

Nice tale, isn't it? It's not just nice but important to a reader who writes:

"My two boys, 12 and 13, use filthy language when they fight. A neighbor recently said their brawling in the yard was making them a public nuisance.

I should tell you that I have been hospitalized for mental illness, received shock treatment and that my psychiatrist says the boys' dirty talk is just mischief. And my husband, who is a kind man, says that it's a stage they will outgrow. But I know what frustration and anxiety my hospitalization cost the children and that this filthy talk . . ."

You know what the wise old dervish would tell you to do, don't you? So go to the drugstore and buy yourself some ear plugs. And when these bratlings' foul talk accuses you of imposing too much anxiety and frustration on them, put the plugs in your ears so you can't hear it.

You'll hear it anyway because, of course, the accusing, haunted mountain is our own merciless conscience. But the ear plugs are at least an effort to shut it up.

They are at least the beginning of resistance to its passion to tell us how bad we are, how mean we were to afflict our children by falling mentally ill and what a generally disappointing creature we are. So begin, my dear. Begin with the ear plugs.

SEW SIMPLE

Once again I'm in New York for the press showings of the top American designers. Since each of us are also planning and designing our own clothes so that we can have that custom look you find in the costume room, I shall be giving you new hints and informatioin each week.

Also, each week I will try to give you a little tip on how you can use the clothes you now have, add a little something here or there and come up with the brand new look of fall 1967.

Throughout the collections we find the return to the romantic or medieval era which means a look that is utterly feminine. Your basic wool dresses can be revitalized by adding a small satin collar and cuffs. We find satin used extensively throughout the collections.

Complete the collar and cuffs, bind the edges and slip stitch to the neckline of your dress.

Dear Eunice Farmer,

I am making a satin wedding gown for my daughter and wonder if you have any hints on handling this fabric. I have never worked with satin before. Mrs. B. P.

Dear Mrs. B. P.

Yes, there are techniques that must be followed closely when working with satin. Not only for weddings, but today satin is used for every possible type of garment, therefore your question is a very timely one.

The machine stitching marks are very difficult to remove, in fact, impossible. If you have any doubt of the fitting or style, you will have to make your garment out of muslin before cutting the satin and make any fitting changes on the muslin.

You may also need to underline your garment depending on the weight of the satin as well as the line of the design. Satin is a very elegant fabric that can easily be ruined and look cheap if you are not careful with the pressing. Never press satin with a press cloth or moisture and never press it on the right side.

* * *

All edges such as the hem should have a rolled look which means that you must not turn up only one layer of fabric. If you haven't underlined the garment, add a bias strip of interfacing fabric at the hem for that padded or rolled look.

TAILOR TRIX WINNER

Mrs. Paul Klewer, Detroit, Mich., is this week's Tailor Trix pressing board winner for her following suggestion.

Here's a tip that will help many of you gals when you begin pepping up your homes for fall! This is a nifty way to make dusters for fall. Place a sheet (an old one will work) between the spring and mattress. Measure and cut off any excess beyond the edge of the mattress and hem cut edges. Measure the length of the finished ruffle, pleats, or whatever and hem the lower edge and also finish the edge at the top of your duster.

* * *

Purchase snap-tape by the yard in the drapery department of your department store and apply half to the flat sheet and the other half to the ruffle. It's so simple to remove when the duster needs to be washed and also simple to remove if you should decide to make another set for a change of season.

Dear Eunice Farmer,

I'm asking this question because I think every woman in the country is in a complete dilemma about the length of skirts for fall. Should we make deep hems in order to be prepared? Mrs. S. J. H.

Dear Mrs. S. J. H.

The picture for fall is much the same as spring. Hems on practically all the dresses and suits are to be worn slightly above the knees. (This could vary according to the age of the gal as well as the community where you live.) Almost every designer showed at least one mid-calf length skirt but as we all know, they must do something different to be noticed.

The public simply isn't ready to accept a longer skirt at this time. This is one of the great advantages of making your own clothes. It really isn't such a tragedy if we have to make something new. (That's the fun of sewing for fashion!)

* * *

Dear Eunice Farmer,

Is it necessary to make the small darts on the backs of dresses at the shoulder? With some materials, they seem to pucker and make a round shouldered effect. I am a dressmaker and would like to convince my customers one way or the other. Mrs. A. S. B.

Dear Mrs. A. S. B.:

Possibly the darts were too wide and cannot be tappered fine enough at the end to avoid a puckered look. I would suggest making the darts no wider than ⅛ inch at the shoulder and ease in the excess fabric to fit the shoulder front.

In some fabrics that aren't too stiff, it is possible to eliminate the darts altogether and ease in all the excess. However, with firm fabrics this would not ease in smoothly.

Mr. and Mrs. Merl Crisman of West Howard Street, will observe their golden wedding anniversary Friday. They were married Aug. 4, 1917 at Rodman, N. Y. and they moved to Pontiac over thirty years ago. An open house, hosted by their children, will be held Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Paul Gigilo, from 2 to 4 p.m. Sons Austin, Allen and Elmer of Pontiac, and Clifford of Oxford, and another daughter, Mrs. Gene Dennis will help welcome guests. Mrs. Crisman's sister and brother, Mrs. Madison Kenfield and Loved Reed, and their respective spouses, all of Watertown, N.Y. are expected. There are 30 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Evening Rite Unites Couple

Tamara Lee Barnett spoke vows Saturday evening in Orchard Lake Community Church with Michael Leonard Bodin.

★ ★ ★

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Barnett of Orchard Lake chose a gown of rochelle lace over taffeta with modified Sabrina neckline, tapered wrist length sleeves and fitted bodice.

A Watteau train and shoulder bouffant veil with crystal and pearl cap completed her ensemble.

She carried a bouquet of white roses and chrysanthemums.

Mrs. David Montreil was matron of honor for her cousin with attendants Diana Bodin, the bridegroom's sister, and Brenda Grubaugh.

Best man was Carl Fink. James Wilson and James Barrett ushered.

A honeymoon in Florida followed a reception in the home of the bride's parents.

★ ★ ★

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs Lee Bodin of Meadow Ridge Drive, Commerce Township, and the late Mr. Bodin.

Scuffs Featured for Formal Wear

New for evening wear are fur scuffs, shaped much like the scuffs for the boudoir.

The firm of Tiffeau & Busch showed them in sable worn with a long white wool formal with sable-cuffed sleeves.

Wed in Afternoon Rite

Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Oxford, was the setting Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Susan Elizabeth Hall and Lawrence C. Hornbeck.

The bride was atlired in white A-line embroidered organza over taffeta with matching coat and train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was secured with a cap of organza rosebuds.

She carried a bouquet of white roses.

★ ★ ★

The bride's cousin, Mrs. Robert Van Dierendonck, was matron of honor with attendants Mrs. Gary Atwell and Mrs. Richard Grzebyk.

The bridegroom's brother, Gerald V. Hornbeck was best man. Ushers were Stephen H. Hall and Robert Van Dierendonck.

A reception in Goodison Township Hall, Rochester, followed the rite. An August honeymoon in Colorado is planned.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Hall of Pawnee Path, Orion Township, and the Maywood P. Hornbecks of East Clarkston Road, also Orion Township.

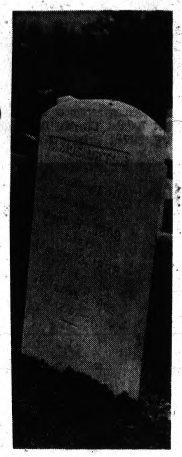
Village Boasts an 'Undiscovered' Charm

Grass Is Greener in Scenic Ortonville



HERE LIES AMOS ORTON —The grave of the early settler for whom the village was named is in Ortonville Cemetery, west of the village.

PICTORIAL STORY
By ED BLUNDEN

Trees are taller, hills are hillier and the grass is greener — this is Ortonville, a scenic 20 miles north of Pontiac in rolling lake country.

BLUNDEN

Relatively "undiscovered," this small village of 800 persons is one square mile of charm, attractiveness and friendliness. It is located in the west central portion of Brandon Township.

Mostly Ortonville is quiet, tree-lined residential streets.

Residents of Ortonville and environs are primarily employes from either the Pontiac or Flint area. Other factions include long-time families and retirees.

★ ★ ★

Village President Charles Sherman claims there is a definite trend for more retirees seeking the quiet atmosphere. Along this line, the Ortonville Nursing Home plans to add 50 more beds to its facilities.

VILLAGE BOOSTER

Sherman, understandably a village booster, says of his community, "We have everything."

He points out in spite of its small area and population, the village has enough facilities to be almost "self-contained."

As a governmental official he points out the importance of the police, fire and school systems.

★ ★ ★

Township and village government is largely a combined operation with offices in the same building within the village.

RECENT INNOVATION

The combined office is a recent innovation. "It puts everything in the same place for the convenience of residents," Sherman said.

A source of pride to the area is the Brandon school system which serves most of the township and some neighboring township areas.

Though the district has only about 1,600 students, Dr. Henry Versnick, schools superintendent, says it is highly rated.

★ ★ ★

A specialty of the schools is "outdoor education," with many lakes, parks and open land nearby, ideal for nature study, swimming, camping, and related study.

TEACHER RECRUITMENT

Compared to other school districts, Brandon's problem with teacher recruitment is not large, local schoolmen claim.

"Teachers like it here and tend to settle down.

"We can't pay as much as some districts in the county, but that doesn't seem to matter," Versnick, said.

★ ★ ★

The Ortonville area has not yet experienced the surging growth that has come to many areas in the county. Last year the school district's enrollment went up only about 60 pupils.

20 MINUTES NORTH

Ortonville is off the beaten track — about 20 minutes north of Pontiac on M15 which begins at Dixie near Clarkston.

Getting there is a scenic drive through hilly lake country with big trees and rolling farmland on all sides.

Starting at the north border of Ortonville is a 25,000-acre state park with a forest of pines.

★ ★ ★

The soil around Ortonville is for the most part sandy, not as rich as the darker soil elsewhere in the county, but there are fewer marshes and the lake and stream water is clear.

LOTS OF ROOM

The Ortonville area seems to attract a certain kind of family — those that like a lot of room.

Charles Pangus, a real estate agent, reports most families look for home sites with five to 10 acres of land.

"We get the kind of people who would like enough land to perhaps keep a horse or to have a nice, large garden," said Pangus.

★ ★ ★

Homes have individual septic systems and water supplies. The water supply is good enough to be boasted of by residents, with many artesian wells.

NO INDUSTRY

Taxes in the village and township are slightly high, according to officials. This is because there is no industry to speak of and the approximately 3,500 township residents must pay for all their services and schools, it was pointed out.

★ ★ ★

The township is being reassessed to conform to state laws so exact figures are not yet certain. But the average home owner paid between $300 to $400 last year with taxes in the village about 10 per cent higher than those in the township.

Taxes are a small detraction, however, when the grass is greener.

Boy Fishes In Clear Trout Stream That Runs Through Town

Sign Greets Travelers On M15 Northbound From Clarkston

Orton Had Unfulfilled Dream

ORTONVILLE — This village was named after Amos Orton, an early settler who later suffered a great disappointment and left the area.

His body was brought back, however. He rests in the Ortonville Cemetery next to his wife.

According to an Oakland County History and information gathered by Ortonville Women's Club, Amos Orton built a dam and mill at the village site in 1848.

This was used in sawing pinewood. In 1856, he built the three-story mill structure which still stands.

Orton also owned a store, was postmaster in 1855, and ran a stage line.

Orton was active in business and politics of the area and foresaw great things for the town if only the railroad would come through.

The rail line was built to run elsewhere, however, and Orton, in disappointment, moved away to an area near East Lansing, where he died.

Ortonville became a village in 1902 and though there never was a railroad through the town, still in the memory of many residents is the old Detroit-to-Flint electrical trolley.

This quaint "Toonerville" vehicle ran from 1900 until after 1930. In some places the tracks can still be traced.

Also dear to the memory of older residents is Dr. M. J. Uloth who died in 1955 after serving the community for over 50 years, many of them as the village's only doctor.

His house at 92 South is one of the oldest and best-preserved homes in the village.

The first settler in Brandon Township came in 1833. He was John G. Perry (Perry Lake) of New Jersey. His family became ill, however; and he left.

A few years later more-permanent residents followed including John B. Seymour (Seymour Lake).

A great many Indians lived in the area at the time, with Bald Eagle Lake, two miles south of Ortonville, their favorite camping ground.

Agriculture in the early days was mostly devoted to orchards and sheep.

The Oakland history tells of the first barn-raising in 1837 on the farm of George P. Thurston.

"It was a good frame, 26 by 36 feet, and was raised without liquor . . . the men appearing so heartily in response to the invitation speaks well for the temperance sentiment which then existed, while this raising was unquestionably the first temperance meeting held in the township," the book states.

MILL STILL STANDS — No longer in use, this mill on Kearsly Creek was built over 100 years ago by Amos Orton. History books date the three-story building as being constructed in 1856. It replaced a smaller structure.

HOLLYWOOD — "They're changing heads of studios so fast," sighed a harassed agent, "that I don't know whom to be nice to any more."

That was one reaction to the game of musical chairs that has been going on at the major studios. Almost every big company has had a change of production chief within the past two years. Last week three of the studios acquired new bosses.

* * *

In a surprise move, MGM President Robert H. O'Brien appointed Clark G. Ramsay as vice president in charge of the studio. Ramsay had been a publicist at Universal before switching to MGM, where he became assistant to O'Brien.

Robert Wietman, who had held the production reins at MGM since 1960, had resigned in January to become vice president in charge of production at Columbia. The present head of the Columbia Studio, Mike Frankovich, is quitting to become an independent producer.

'LAST TYCOON'

The Warner Bros.-Seven Arts amalgamation last Friday meant that Jack L. Warner, the so-called "Last Tycoon," would be leaving his long-time post as studio head. Supplanting him is Kenneth Hyman, son of Seven Arts founder Eliot Hyman.

Paramount studio is now being headed by its third boss in three years, former actor Robert Evans. Richard Zanuck took over direction of the 20th Century-Fox studio in 1964 after his father, Darryl Zanuck, returned to leadership of the corporation. The Disney studio is being operated by a committee under the supervision of Roy Disney, after the death last December of Walt.

* * *

The only studio to maintain the same leadership is Universal, where Edward E. Muhl has been vice president in charge of production since 1953. He survived the M.C.A. take-over in 1962.

All the changes reflect the ferment that has been going on in the film industry. Business is good. Most movie stocks are riding high, reflecting the optimism of investors. The outlook for the future was never better.

Reds Blame Financiers, LBJ in Detroit Riot

DETROIT (UPI) — The Communist party of Michigan yesterday pinned the blame for the "Detroit upheaval" on the area's leading financial interests and on the Johnson administration, which it said "killed the anti-poverty program."

The party said these two "main forces" in Detroit and American life bear the "main responsibility for flagrant and widespread flaunting of the constitutional rights of Negro Americans."

* * *

In a release issued from a Highland Park post office box, the Michigan Communists said the "major banking, financial and industrial trusts of our area set the employment patterns, housing and realty practices. They encourage and finance the racists and segregationsts of our city."

Fair Exhibits Due

DETROIT (AP)—Cass J. Wasung, general manager of the Michigan State Fair, reminded exhibitors Monday that all livestock, horse show, agricultural and community arts entries are due by Friday. A record $142,000 in prizes will be awarded at the fair, which runs from Aug. 25 through Sept. 4.

NASA Studies Continent Drift

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U.S. and French space agencies have started a series of spacecraft experiments with lasers to study the drift of continents and the bulge and sag of oceans.

* * *

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) said the tests will help locate points on the earth's surface with an error of no more than four inches.

Before the era of orbiting spacecraft, such measurements often were miles wide of the mark.

A laser is an electronic device for creating and transmitting to great distances an extremely tight beam of light which can be used as a measuring device far more accurately than the quickly spreading beams of ordinary light.

* * *

The new measurements are being carried out by NASA and the Center National des Etudes Spatiales (CNES) of France. They were started in April from stations in Europe, North Africa and the United States.

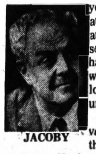
By OSWALD and JAMES JACOBY

If you want to finesse for the sheer joy of finessing, go ahead and finesse. If you want to win at bridge, look around first and see what you have to gain with success or lose with failure.



JACOBY

South is in a very normal three no-trump contract. He has 14 high card points and his partner 12. It is a rather natural play to pull out the deuce of spades from dummy and try the spade finesse.

If it works you can wind up with three spades, three hearts and four or five clubs. In fact, if both the spade and club finesse work you may even make 12 tricks by some chance or other.

An intriguing prospect but if you are out to win, you will look on the dark side. What happens if the spade finesse loses? Nothing much if East returns a spade but there is no law that requires him to lead back a spade. East just might shift to a diamond. This wouldn't worry you if the club finesse were going to be working for you but suppose it doesn't work? You may lose your game and rubber.

★ ★ ★

Suppose you don't finesse the spade and lose the club finesse. What happens to you in that case? You are still going to make your contract. You will have the ace of spades in and will have no trouble making three hearts and four clubs. In addition you will surely make either a second spade trick or a diamond trick.

A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush. You refuse the spade finesse and win the rubber.

Of course, a diamond lead would have beaten you, but you didn't get a diamond lead. You got a spade lead which gave you a sure thing.

CARD Sense

Q—The bidding has been:

Pass	2 ♦	2 ♠	?

You, South, hold:
♠K 10 2 ♥5 4 ♦Q 5 4 ♣K 9 7 6 5
What do you do now?

A—Bid three diamonds. Your king of spades appears to be as good as an ace and your doubleton heart may represent ruffing power.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of bidding two diamonds your partner has passed your one no-trump. East bids two spades. What do you do now?

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR
For Wednesday

"The wise man controls his destiny... Astrology points the way."

ARIES (Mar. 21-Apr. 19): Slow pace. Examine various factors. Throw off tendency to be needlessly suspicious. Confusion today is replaced by security. Conditions at home will improve.

TAURUS (Apr. 20-May 20): You learn through misfortune of another individual. Means this is day to gain through observation, experience. Way to advance, make major end becomes clear by tonight.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Favorable day for studying income potential. Take advantage of opportunities. Finish current project. Take view that encompasses future possibilities. Think big.

CANCER (June 21 - July 22): Break through to new horizons. If you are fearful, there is delay and loss. But if confident, events prove favorable. Know this — act accordingly. Tear away red tape.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Some friends express financial worry. You serve best purpose by being sympathetic—without becoming involved. Utilize intuitive intellect. Follow through on hunch.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): You could receive news affecting your professional standing. Be versatile, alert. Some changes due. Ride with the tide. Be determined without being stubborn.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Some restrictions could prove irritating. But these are overcome if you are persistent. Accent today on news from a distance. You can get what you need, but with variations.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Obtain hint from LIBRA message. Be perceptive. Analyze bits of information. If you piece them together you obtain what is required. Relief of some financial pressure is shown.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Emphasis on legal matters. Be sure you work within rules, regulations. Check sources. Consult expert. Leave nothing to chance. Improve relations with mate, partner.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Concentrate on work, service, basic affairs. Don't veer too far from familiar course. Keynote is moderation. Avoid extremes. One close to you may be confused. Encourage confidence.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Costs resulting from recent "spree" come to fore. Be calm. Look at positive side. Brooding, resentment do absolutely no good. Cement relationships with associates, co-workers.

PISCES (Feb. 19-Mar. 20): Relax without becoming careless. Evening favors entertainment, romance. Keep promises made to children. Be generous. Display best side of your nature. Stimulating day.

★

IF TOMORROW IS YOUR BIRTHDAY you are receptive to moods of others. Artistic ability is evident, especially where music is concerned. You are anything but petty. Instead you are giving, big in every sense. Try to avoid tendency to attract those who use you without giving anything in return.

★ ★ ★

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Cycle high for GEMINI, CANCER, LEO. Special word to AQUARIUS: whatever you do tonight, remember you must face yourself in morning.

2 Said Missing in Forrestal Fire

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department has listed two Michigan men as missing in the explosion and fire that gutted the aircraft carrier Forrestal Saturday.

They are Airman Apprentice Edward Wessels, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wessels of Wyoming, and Parachute Rigger Apprentice Daniel G. Cavazos of Detroit.

Germs that can make other germs resistant to several drugs at once appear to be increasing, scientists believe.

Windsor Hotel Closes Doors

WINDSOR, Ont. (AP) — The Prince Edward Hotel, Windsor's largest hotel, closed its doors Monday because it was unable to pay a $3,000 debt to the Windsor Utilities Commission.

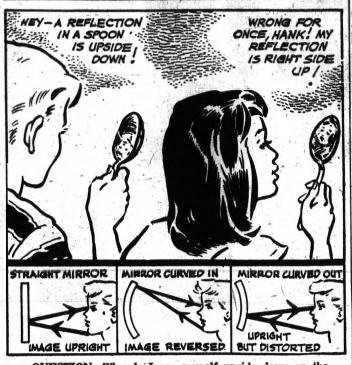
★ ★ ★

The 45-year-old hotel, built in 1922 by subscription of Windsor residents, has had four owners, including Sam Sokol of New York since 1960. He reportedly was some $990,000 in debt, including $750,000 in back mortgage payments to the Sun Life Insurance Co. of Canada and $156,000 in back taxes.

Riot Area Repairs

DETROIT (AP) — The Michigan Bell Telephone Co. said it would complete repairs to damaged facilities in the riot areas by today. The company said it had made emergency repairs on 16,000 lines by Monday afternoon, and only about 1,000 lines remained to be fixed.

Junior Editors Quiz on REFLECTIONS



QUESTION: Why do I see myself upside down on the inside of a spoon?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Light rays stream away from objects in all directions. They are absorbed by many surfaces, but when they hit a smooth, hard shiny material like glass or metal they are suddenly bounced back.

They hit such a surface at a certain angle, even if in a different direction.

Think of light rays coming off from the boy's chin in lower left. The ray in black is hitting the mirror so that as it bounces off, it just comes to the boy's eye. Result, the boys sees his chin below the mirror's center and his head appears upright.

But now curve the mirror (lower middle). In this case the black chin ray coming from the top of the mirror is the only one it is possible for his eye to pick up. Result, the boy sees his chin on top. In the same way, he sees the top of his head on the bottom, so the image looks upside down.

When you look inside a curved spoon, it's just the same as a curved mirror. Looking at the back of the spoon the situation is like a straight mirror, but the outward curve makes the image look distorted.

Cofounder of Red Army Returns to Mao's Fold

TOKYO (AP) — Marshal Chu Teh belatedly tottered onto Mao Tse-tung's shaky bandwagon Monday night after being humiliated, criticized and then apparently making his peace with Mao.

The 81-year-old marshal, a cofounder with Mao of the Chinese Red Army, appeared with his former colleagues at a reception in Peking honoring the army's 40th anniversary. It was his first appearance at a major event in eight months.

★ ★ ★

Chu's evident conversion to Mao's side in the power struggle with President Liu Shao-chi gave the 73-year-old party chairman a 7-3 margin in China's top Communist power organ, the Politburo's standing committee. But the massive absence of distant military chiefs from the Peking reception— only four of the 13 area commanders attended — indicated the army remains divided and uncertain.

LIU THREATENED

The most immediate fruit Mao may be able to harvest from Chu's return to his fold could be the convening of the National People's Congress to oust Liu from the presidency. Chu, as chairman of the standing committee of the Congress, reportedly blocked all attempts to call it into session.

★ ★ ★

Though he is considered nearly senile, Chu's name in China and in the 2.5-million-man army is nearly as well known as Mao's. A onetime warlord and opium addict who joined the Communist revolution late in life, he is said by some authorities to have been superior to Mao in guerrilla warfare.

★ ★ ★

Premier Chou En-lai and other early revolutionaries were present for the army day celebration. But Marshal Ho Lung, another cofounder of the army, was absent, presumably still unforgiven for anti-Maoist sins.

Cavanagh Is Assailed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. George Mahon, D-Tex., charged yesterday that Mayor Jerome Cavanagh helped cause Detroit's riots.

Mahon accused Cavanagh of trying to cover up for his own failures by blaming Congress.

Mahon defended Congress against Cavanagh's claim that, until Congress began to deal realistically with problems in the city, the nation would experience more riots and "things far, far worse."

"It was not money, it was lack of leadership . . . that caused disorders in Detroit," Mahon told the House.

At another point Mahon described Cavanagh, a fellow Democrat, as "this arrogant man who failed to do the job in the city he represents."

Mahon ticked off figures describing the billions Congress has appropriated aimed at the poor and the cities.

He accused Cavanagh of not knowing what he was talking about, and said Detroit alone had received $100 million since 1960 in urban renewal funds.

"And yet the mayor of Detroit has tried to make a whipping boy out of Congress," Mahon declared.

DOLL CITY

Delicate brush handwork modifies eyebrows of doll named "Shoki".

Iwatsuki City is a small town big in dolls. It produces 50 to 60 per cent of all the dolls made in Japan. About 10 per cent of the 40,000 residents are engaged in the industry. Doll manufacturing started in the area in the early 17th century and has continued from generation to generation.

Most of the dolls made today are of dancing figures based on the classical Kabuki characters. A very popular doll for displaying in the homes during the time of the Festival for Boys is one named "Shoki", agreat samurai god, who, according to the legends, beats devils. Even in this modern age of automation, work on the dolls still depends on hands and fingers. Meticulous handwork holds down production but the doll makers say doll parts made by machines are inferior.

Rock's Homer Wins for Chisox

Cleveland's Fact Book on Ex-Teammate Out of Date

By The Associated Press

Luis Tiant figured he knew how to pitch to Rocky Colavito. Colavito figured the same. They both figured wrong.

Still wrinkling up his brand new Chicago White Sox uniform, Rocky delivered his first hit for the Sox Monday night and he made it a good one: a two-run homer in the 10th inning that beat Cleveland 4-2.

Before the game, Tiant was saying how he knew which pitches to throw to Colavito, who was traded by the Indians Saturday.

"I would imagine he would," said the Rock. "After all, we played on the same team for three years. He was throwing me all kinds of stuff all night. Finally, I hit his fast ball. I knew it was gone immediately."

In the only other American League games Tuesday, Boston blanked Minnesota 4-0 and Kansas City upended New York 8-6. California, Detroit, Baltimore and Washington were not scheduled.

Their victory proved the White Sox are developing a talent for making trades. Trailing 2-1 with two out in the ninth, they stayed alive when Ken Boyer, recently acquired from the New York Mets, delivered a run-scoring single to tie it.

Then Wayne Causey led off the 10th with a single and, after Tom McCraw bunted into a force play, Colavito hit his sixth homer. Until the ninth, Tiant gave up just four hits as Cleveland took the lead on a homer by Vern Fuller and a run-scoring single by Leon Wagner.

DREAM ENDED

Lee Stange pitched masterfully for the Red Sox, retiring the first 20 batters to face him before Harmon Killebrew ended his no-hitter dreams with a two-out single in the seventh. In all, Stange gave up three hits and didn't give up a walk while striking out three.

Carl Yastrzemski provided most of the Boston power, hitting a three-run homer in the third. Stange himself accounted for the other Boston run with a sacrifice fly in the fourth.

Stange needed only 94 pitches—64 of them for strikes—in fashioning his fourth straight victory and second shutout of the season. He fired 56 fast balls, 30 sliders and eight curves.

"I go with the fast ball and slider most of the time," he said. "I throw the curve intending only to keep the ball down, even in the dirt. I use the curve only to give batters something to think about."

Charlie Smith turned from hero to goat for the Yankees, first hitting a homer that tied the game 6-6 in the eighth, then fumbling a grounded in the ninth that paved the way to Kansas City's winning runs.

ROCKY'S REVENGE — Rocky Colavito got some revenge against the Cleveland Indians who traded him to Chicago the past weekend. Rocky slammed a two-run homer off Luis Tiant in the 10th inning last night to give the Chicago White Sox a 4-2 victory over the Indians.

Publinx Champion Tries for 3

Wayne Kramer of Flint Holds 1965-66 Crowns

Few expected a Flint dentist to successfully defend his Michigan Publinx Golf championship last year, and even fewer give him any chance at all this year as he guns for a third straight title.

The champion is Dr. Wayne Kramer, 26, who'll start defense of his title Thursday at Swan Valley Golf Club in Saginaw.

A field of nearly 200 is slated to tee off tomorrow in the qualifying round at Swan Valley and the low 63 scorers will join Dr. Kramer for match play starting Thursday. Finals are slated for Saturday.

The champion has a 9:30 a.m. date on the tee tomorrow along with Stephen Butash, George Blake and Joe Peak.

★ ★ ★

Tom Balliet and son, Gary, of Pontiac are in the lineup and both have the equipment needed for the title.

AMONG FAVORITES

Among the other local golfers who are on the list of favorites are Roy Iceberg of Southfield and Gus Kranites of Union Lake.

★ ★ ★

Francis Bertram, who teamed with Feather Frechette two weeks ago in winning the Pontiac Mixed Two-Ball, is also in the field.

Another of Oakland County's top amateurs in the running is William Curtis of Farmington, the MPGA's medal play champion.

Tournament director Tex Ellison said post entries would be accepted.

Union Lake Gal Takes on Ohio Golfing Foe

LAKE FOREST, Ill. (AP) — Bonnie Lauer of Union Lake takes on Gail Gingert of Newton Falls, Ohio, today in the first round of the 41st annual Women's Western Junior Golf amateur tourney.

Marsha Houghton, 17, of Modesto, Calif., fired a three-under-women's-par 74 Monday and took medalist honors in the qualifying round.

Miss Houghton became a medalist for the third time in the last four years over the 6,122-yard Knollwood course.

Although Miss Houghton was medalist in 1964 and again in 1966, she never survived the quarter round of match play.

Tigers Need to Make Haste in American League Chase

BALTIMORE (UPI) — Two months to go and four games to make up. That's the situation the Detroit Tigers face in their pursuit of the American League lead.

The Tigers stuck close to the league-leading Chicago White Sox over the weekend by splitting a four-game series with the Sox but a split didn't bring them any closer.

The Tigers begin the last two months of the season tonight with a single game against the Baltimore Orioles, sending Earl Wilson, 13-8, against Tom Phoebus, 8-6.

But although the Tigers haven't picked up any ground on the White Sox during the past month, there is something to be said for the way they remained close and the way they have picked up strength for the stretch drive.

The Tigers managed to saty within three-and-one-half games off the pace without the aid of their top hitters — Al Kaline and Willie Horton.

But Kaline is back in the lineup, apparently well-rested, after sitting out nearly a month with a broken finger. And Horton is now able to play almost regularly since his sore heel is on the mend.

Horton has been finding the home run range and Kaline is still enjoying one of his best years in several seasons, hitting .325 with 15 home runs.

★ ★ ★

But besides Horton and Kaline the Tigers are getting Dick McAuliffe's best home run production in his career. He has 19 round-trippers so far, with 47 runs batted in. Norm Cash appears to be starting his yearly second-half power surge and his bat could make the difference between first and second place in the race.

If the pitching, the big question mark all season, can pick up the Tigers may be well-set for the final two months of the year.

Seeded Net Players Still Stay Intact

KALAMAZOO (AP) — The National Junior and Boys Tennis Championships entered the second round of singles today with its collection of seeded players still intact.

Only second-ranked Richard Stockton of Garden City, N. Y., was extended in the opening round Monday.

Stockton defeated stubborn Scott Zuelke of Elm Grove, Wis., 7-5, 4-6, 6-2.

In Junior singles, favorite Zan Guerry of Lookout Mountain, Tenn., dispatched Tom Snyder of Northbrook, Ill., 6-1, 6-1.

Bronco Linebacker

Cookie Plugs Gap

By United Press International

Cookie Gilchrist can make amends for any arguments he ever had with coach Lou Saban if he can adapt his muscles to plugging the middle linebacker gap in the Denver Bronco defense.

Gilchrist and Saban had their run-ins when they were with the Buffalo Bills. They've expressed satisfaction at the reunion in Denver and Saban believes Gilchrist could be the power-driver in the Broncos' bid to gain some of the American Football League honors which have been denied them so long.

"Gilchrist is a strong, vicious tackler, and he might add to his football longevity a little more as a linebacker than as a fullback," Saban said happily. "We might use him some both ways. It's a possibility, at least."

Denver faces the Detroit Lions Saturday night in the first exhibition encounter between American and National Football League teams.

Atlanta lost an experienced right linebacker when Larry Morris announced his retirement after 11 NFL seasons.

Morris' leaving caught the Falcons by surprise. The team lost another linebacker last week when 1966 defensive captain Bill Jobko was sidelined by the medics.

The St. Louis Cardinals also had defensive problems enlarged when it was learned safetyman Jerry Stovall would be out two weeks with a shoulder separation. Guard Ken Gray suffered a bruised knee in weekend scrimmage and will miss several practice sessions.

The New York Jets let go 10 players, including defensive back Earl Christy and defensive end Arnie Simkus from the 1966 squad.

Short Career at Farmington

Coach Joe Lineman's career as head man of Farmington High School's basketball team came to a close before it started yesterday.

Lineman, former head coach at South Haven High, signed a contract with Farmington back in May, but he decided to pass up the prep post by taking the basketball coaching post at Detroit College of Business.

At Detroit College of Business, he will replace Tom Villemure, who resigned to accept an assistant coaching job at the University of Detroit

Teen Tankers Lead Assault on Pool Marks.

WINNIPEG (AP) — The Star Spangled Banner will be heard over and over again today as the teen-age swim whizzes from below the border wind up their record spree and the track and field athletes resume their gold medal collecting.

Mark Spitz and Claudia Kolb, a pair of 17-year-old aquatic aces from Santa Clara, Calif., and 14-year-old Catie Ball of Jacksonville, Fla., led the United States to two more world records and four of the five gold medals at stake Monday night in the Pan-American pool.

★ ★ ★

Spitz, a slender whirlwind in the water, has four gold medals already and was rated a cinch to bag his fifth in the 400-meter medley relay tonight, one of the five final titles at stake. The Yankees were favored to take all five and boost their record haul to 28 titles in 33 events.

Thirteen world records have been bettered in the pool, 11 of them by the Yanks.

The U.S. track and fielders winners of 10 of the first 11 events, resumed operations after a day off and were favored to sweep all four finals—and possibly in 1-2 fashion.

Overall the United States won 10 of the 16 gold medals awarded Monday for an overwhelming collection of 76 and a grand harvest of 147 medals 76-42-29 in all. Cnanda is next with seven golds and 56 (7-24-25) altogether. Brazil has five golds (5-1-2-8) while Argentina has a total of 19 (4-7-8). Cuba 24 (3-7-14) and Mexico 24 (3-10-11.

ADD MORE GOLD

In addition to the swimming Monday, the Americans picked up two more golds in weight-lifting, two in Equestrian, one in judo, and one in tennis.

Spitz, aiming for a showdown with teammate and Olympic champion Don Schollander for the premier role in the U.S. Nationals at Chicago, Aug. 11-13, captured his third gold in the first event Monday with a :56.3 time in the 100-meter butterfly that equalled his pending record.

Then the 5-foot-11, 150-pounder with the long, scooplike hands, closed out the night by anchoring the 800-meter freestyle relay quartet to a Pan-American record of 8:00.5. He swam behind Schollander of Saratoga, Calif., Charles Hickcox of Phoenix, Ariz., and Greg Charlton of Arcadia, Calif.

Miss Ball hauled away her third gold medal by breaking the world record in the women's 100-meter breaststroke in 1:14.8, snapping the mark she held jointly with Russia's Galina Prozumenshikova.

Miss Kolb earned her second gold medal in the 200-meter butterfly with a 2:25.5 time that was only two-tenths of a second off the world mark. Two bad turns hurt her chances for the mark.

Canada's Ralph Hutton, winner of three silver medals at the time, finally broke his and the Yankee streak by edging Hickcox, the 100-meter backstroke Pan-Am champion, in the 200-meter backstroke.

St. Louis Extends Margin

Cardinals Stacking Cards in N.L. Race

CHICAGO (AP) — The guy with a crew cut, stripped except for his bright red undershirt, sat back on a stack of foot lockers completely relaxed.

Roger Maris' keen, grey eyes glanced from Curt Flood to Lou Brock to Orlando Cepeda.

Flood was talking about his four straight hits and how good it was to be back in the lineup after an extended layoff because of an injury. Brock talked about his first homer in nearly two months and Cepada about how happy he is to be a member of the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Cardinals had won their sixth straight game in a 9-2 romp over the Chicago Cubs Monday and extended their lead to 4½ games, the biggest margin in the National League since June 6 when Cincinnati held the same advantage over the Cardinals.

They sang in the showers. They led cheers in a boistrous dressing room. And whenever they explained their success, the name of Roger Maris was whispered.

Manager Red Schoendienst, explaining the recent Cardinal success against left-handers, said, "Earlier in the season he (Maris) had a bad foot and I kept him out against lefthanders and rested him in doubleheaders.

"Recently we haven't had too many doubleheaders and I've kept Roger in against everyone. He's done a great job. But then they all have."

ADDITIONAL PRAISE

Brock calls Maris "the pulse we didn't have last year. He's not the Roger Maris I had read about. That Roger Maris doesn't exist. This guy is great. He gives us another big bat but he makes the big plays in the field. If you need a single, he gets it. If you need a sacrifice fly, he gets it. He's wonderful."

Cepeda, the big charge in the Cardinal attack, is concerned only with happiness. "This is a great club and Maris is a great guy. More important, Maris is happy here. That's what counts. I know. And he's doing a big job. One hundred per cent all the time."

Maris, the guy who hit 61 home runs for the New York Yankees in 1961 and then came close to quitting baseball, came out of the shower smiling.

"What a great bunch of guys," he said. "Listen to 'em. We have comedians, singers, cheerleaders but they all can play ball. This club has everything a team needs to win a pennant.

"Sure, we can win the pennant," continued Maris.

"There's enough hitting, enough pitching and plenty of speed. But don't forget, to win a pennant you need the breaks.

Jackson to Defend GAM Title

Tournament Bout Saturday

Cities Seek 'Ring Capital' Title

HOUSTON (AP) — The action accelerated today in fight-happy Houston, with four pretenders to the heavyweight crown punishing sparmates while Texas champ Dave Zyglewicz stood ready for tonight's scrap with Willie Besmanoff.

Roy Hofheinz, impresario at the Astrodome, called a news conference Monday night to say that the real fight this week is between the Astrodome and Madison Square Garden, and the title of "fight capital of the world" is at stake.

★ ★ ★

Hofheinz said he had nothing against "weekday night" boxing, a reference to the Zyglewicz-Besmanoff bout, but he sensed that the Garden was behind the addition of No. 2 heavyweight Joe Frazier to tonight's Zyglewicz fight card.

Frazier, who has shunned the World Boxing Association title elimination series, will fight Chuck Leslie in a three-round exhibition in tonight's Coliseum card.

Hofheinz said television rights to Saturday's WBA quarter-finals in the Dome have been sold in Japan, Mexico, Latin America and Great Britain, and that negotiations are in progress for European live coverage via satellite.

The Dome boss denied that the Zyglewicz fight had cut into advance sales for Saturday's bouts but said he had no idea how sales for the Astrodome tournament have gone.

Ernie Terrell meets Thad Spencer in one of the 12-rounders, and Leotis Martin fights Jimmy Ellis in the other.

The man who made this situation possible, heavyweight champion Cassius Clay, was supposed to have returned to federal court today with his plea for permission to fight in Japan.

He was sentenced in June to five years in prison for refusing to be drafted, but the sentence is under appeal.

Clay, who claims he is bound by contract to fight in Tokyo before he can box elsewhere, first made his plea July 5. U.S. Dist. Judge Joe Ingraham recessed the hearing until today so that the government could investigate Clay's activities since his conviction.

The fighter testifed in July that he signed autographs at a Los Angeles peace rally, and that "two of them happened to be draft cards."

Golf Trickster in Exhibition

Trick - shot golf artist Paul Hahn will make a brief stop on Pontiac tomorrow night.

Hahn brings his bagful of tricks to Pontiac for a one-hour show at Carl's Golfland on Telegraph sponsored by the Optimist Club. Proceeds from the show will be used in financing the many charitable activities in which the Optmists take part.

The show is slated to get under way at 8:30.

Hahn turned to his trick-shot approach to golf after he found it difficult to make a living on the pro tour in 1948. The switch to the new career came in 1950 and he was an instant success.

He has a collection of funny-looking clubs and he'll put them all in play tomorrow night.

GOLF TRICKERY—Paul Hahn, famous trick shot artist of golf will appear at Carl's Golfland Wednesday night for an exhibition at 8:30 p.m. Hahn began his trick golf career in 1950 and has appeared in 41 countries .

Match Play Thursday at Blythefield

The biggest surprise in last year's Golf Association of Michigan tournament was Pete Jackson of Birmingham.

The 29-year-old former Seaholm High School player won the event which was no suprise.

The shocker was who he beat.

To win the title, Jackson had to dispose of long-hitting Melvin (Bud) Stevens of Livonia, who had taken the crown a year earlier and was favored to put it in his trophy case again.

And he tumbled Stevens, 2 and 1, and in doing so became a marked man.

The champion is always the guy everyone shoots for and that's what will happen when Jackson and the remainder of the 99-man field open play Thursday in this year's 46th annual GAM championship at Blythefield Country Club near Belmont.

★ ★ ★

Jackson is slated to tee off Thursday along with Mike Smith of Owosso and Roger Bonahoom of Lockmoor Club at 10:04 a.m.

TEE DATE

Stevens has a 9:52 a.m. date on the tee with James Glerum of Kent Country Club and Fred Zinn of Red Run.

Hanging onto the title won't be an easy chore for Jackson.

Among those expected to pose the biggest threat to his insecure position on the throne are James St. Germain of Northville, Pete Green of Orchard Lake, Fred Ewald of Birmingham, Joe Grace Jr. and John Grace of Detroit, Gene Eyler of Oakland Hills and Cliff Taylor of Spring Lake Country Club.

And a few who can't be counted out are Gene Woodard of Lochmoor, Glenn Johnson of Grosse Ile, Bill Albright of Detroit GC and Tom Draper of Red Run.

Stevens has won the title three times, Draper twice, while Johnson and Woodard own a championship apiece.

The field opens match play on Thursday and the tourney finals are slated for Sunday.

Junior Hurlers Dominate in Rec Playoffs

The pitchers held the upper hand in the opening round of playoffs yesterday in Class F city junior baseball.

In the American League, Jon Johnson flipped a five-hitter as the Auburn Heights Pioneers downed Talbott Construction, 5-1, and the F.O.P. Pirates used a five-hitter by Jerry Cox in downing Lakeland, 3-2. Cox fanned 13. The winners meet tomorrow at 11 a.m. in the second round.

In the International loop, a four-hitter by Frank Stieve sparked the Auburn Heights Chiefs to a 10-4 verdict over the Hustlers, while Mike Spellman fashioned a two-hitter as the Auburn Heights Braves turned back St. George, 6-2. The winners meet at 11 a.m. tomorrow.

In Widget American League play, Auburn Heights Sportsmen nipped Malkin Cubs, 8-7, and Yellow Cab rolled to a 16-4 win over Optimist No. 1.

In Widget-National, Uncle Charles Pet Shop downed the Auburn Heights Yankees, 5-4, and Optimist-2 trimmed Columbia Avenue RA, 9-5.

Celebration Plans Go Awry in Softball Loop

The arrangements were made. Guests were invited. An evening of celebration was planned, but nine guys in uniform spoiled it.

St. Paul Methodist's softball squad had an 8-1 record early yesterday and anticipated another win last night that would give the squad a 9-1 record and the championship in the Waterford Township Church League.

The St. Paul nine was slated to play Christ Lutheran. It was in the bag, thought the Methodist crew, since their foe was considered an easy mark. So they made plans for a celebration.

Even the best of plans sometimes go awry, and that's what happened to St. Paul last night so the team will have to delay its victory celebration a few more days.

Bob Moore tossed a three-hitter and Bill Hoke stroked a three-run homer in the sixth to pace Christ Lutheran to a 7-5 upset win over St. Paul Methodist, and that left the losers in a tie for first along with Union Lake Baptist, a 6-5 winner over Our Lady of Lakes.

The Rev. Harv jones knocked in three runs with a double for Union Lake to tie the game at 5-5 in the fourth, and winning pitcher Dwight Butler doubled home the winning run in the eighth.

St. Paul and Union Lake meet Thursday night for the championship. Plans for a victory celebration are incomplete.

City Playoffs Continue

Loose Play Aids Softball Win

Loose fielding by the opposition enabled Timberlanes No. 2 to advance to the second round of the city's National League softball playoffs last night.

Aided by three Timberlane-1 errors, the Timberlanes-2 rolled to an 8-4 verdict and will now take on J. A. Fredman Thursday at 8:30 at Northside Park. A game tonight finds Huron Bowl and L&S Standard taking the field at Beaudette at 8:30.

The losers scored three times in the second to take a 3-2 lead, but the winners came back to score four in the third on one hit and a pair of errors. Two more runs came home in the sixth on a couple of hits and an error.

The losers outhit Timberlanes-2, 8-6, with Gene Coons, Bill Carie and Connie Fields collecting two apiece.

In International Slow-Pitch, MGM-Shalea made it 3-0 in the second round with a 9-5 decision over Artco, while Wagon Wheel downed Sportsmen, 11-4, and the Pontiac Press edged Chalet Inn, 6-5.

CLOUTS HOMER

Bill Waun belted a three-run home run and teammate Ed Freeman added a solo blast for MGM in the first inning, and the cleaner team pushed across two more in the third and closed it with three in the sixth.

Harry Bartkowiak and Harry Hart hit back-to-back homers in the top of the first to give Sportsmen a 2-0 lead, but Larry Olson clouted a three-run blow in the bottom of the same frame to give Wagon Wheel a 3-2 lead and start the team toward victory.

Jack Courtney added a solo homer for Wagon Wheel in the sixth.

A two-run inside-the-park homer in the top of the seventh by catcher Jim Jackson gave the Pressmen their come-from-behind victory.

Shortstop Leonard Cote turned in a sparkling job in the field for the Pressmen, who came up with three double plays. Jere Craig collected three hits for the winners, while Phil Patton picked up a two-run homer and a single for the losers.

★ ★ ★

Other games tonight have Local No. 596 playing Sport-O-Rama at 7 at Beaudette Park, while at Northside, Bob's Bar meets Local 594 in an American League playoff game at 7 and Ron's Roost takes on Town & Country in an exhibition match at 8:30.

Top Rated Duo Are Opponents

Billie Jean King Faces Miss Casals

SOUTH ORANGE, N.J. (UPI) — Shades of Wimbledon came early to today's second round women's play in the 41st annual Eastern Grass Court championships at the Orange Lawn Tennis Club.

Mrs. Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., the Wimbledon champion, and Rosemary Casals of San Francisco, the young darling at the All-England tourney before her elimination in the semifinal round, were opponents today.

Mrs. King is top seeded and Miss Casals is ranked No. 2.

Victories in the opening of men's singles' play Monday were turned in by Charley Pasarell, a Puerto Rican, and Clark Graebner of Beachwood, Ohio, the top seeds with the withdrawal of Arthur Ashe, the No. 1 ranking American because rain delayed his match in the Pan-American Games.

Pasarell, playing behind a powerful serve, eliminated Big Ten champion Dan Bleckinger of Oshkosh, Wis., 6-0, 6-3. Graebner, scoring heavily on slices and drop shots, defeated Robert Siska of San Francisco, 6-2, 10-8.

McCormick 'Ticks' for Giants

By the Associated Press

Clock-fancier Mike McCormick isn't missing a tick in his second time around for the San Francisco Giants.

Bo Belinsky, never much of a clock-watcher, finally is making time for the Houston Astros . . . and they figure it's better late than never.

McCormick, who shifted his collection of antique timepieces from Washington to San Francisco when the Giants reacquired him in a winter trade, became the National League's first 14-game winner Monday when Jack Hiatt's grand slam pinch homer gave him an 8-4 victory over Pittsburgh.

Belinsky, whose watch stopped several times in Los Angeles, Philadelphia and Houston when the midnight curfew was at hand, held the New York Mets to two singles and beat them 3-2 Monday night with ninth inning help from Larry Sherry as the Astros stretched their season-high winning streak to seven games.

The St. Louis Cardinals, meanwhile, ran their league lead to 4½ games by drubbing the Chicago Cubs 9-2; Atlanta trimmed Cincinnati 5-2 and Philadelphia downed Los Angeles 4-2 in 11 innings.

McCormick, who started with the Giants in New York 11 years ago at the age of 18 and made his way back into their starting rotation after stopovers in Baltimore and Washington and a long bout with arm trouble, fought the Pirates to a 4-4 standstill through eight innings.

In the bottom of the eighth Hiatt pinch hit for McCormick and cleared the bases with his homer off reliever Elroy Face.

McCormick, 14-5 is tied for the major league victory lead with Jim Lonborg of the Red Sox.

Women's Finals at Pine Lake

Finals in the Director's Cup women's golf tournament at Pine Lake Country Club are slated for Thursday.

Missing from the field is Mrs. Phyllis Mehas, who is on vacation. One of those remaining in the running for the cup is 1965 champion Mrs. Lou Moore.

The first tournament in the cup series was played in 1927.

76ers Set Home Slate

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The champion Philadelphia 76ers of the National Basketball Association announced Monday they will play 35 of next season's 82 games at home.

Rain Dampens Softball Slate in Waterford

Rain washed out all action last night on the Waterford Township recreation softball slate. The games will be made up tonight.

Clarkston Appliance takes on Day's Sanitary Service at 6:30 with Day's leading 7-3 in the sixth inning. The game was halted by rain last week.

At 7 p.m., Waterford Merchants take on Clyde's Wheel & Frame in a lower bracket game, and at 8:30, an upper bracket contest finds Spencer Floor meeting Midget Bar.

Local Nators Take River Swim Honors

Local swimmers took top honors over the weekend in the annual cross river swim at Port Huron.

Kurt Pfister of Lathrup Village paced the men's amateur division, Bruce Featherstone of Rochester won the junior boy's title and Linda Ebbert, also of Rochester, led the junior women's class.

Kathy Ebbert, Linda's sister, paced the women's division, and Robert Lorenz of Pontiac led the men's open division for the third time. He set the record of 15:06 in 1964. Steve Yedlin and John Mason were two-three in the junior men's class and Carol Kalzian was second in the junior women.

Pontiac Press Hole-in-One Club Admits

Joseph J. Gebhard

for acing the 165-yard No. 7 hole at Morey's Golf Club. He used a 3-iron and carded an 86 for the round.

Advance Is Widespread

Rails Pace Stock Mart Rally

NEW YORK (AP) — Rails paced a stock market rally early Tuesday afternoon following news that the government had granted a freight rate increase.

The advance was general, with gains outnumbering losses by about 3 to 2.

★ ★ ★

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 5.61 at 909.85.

This topped — at least on an interim basis — the 1967 closing high of 909.63 made May 8.

Once again, as on previous occasions, the question was whether the average could hold its gains long enough to post a new closing high.

GAINS OF POINT

Rails rallied on a broad front. Many of the carriers showed gains of a point or so in early trading but later many of these gains were trimmed. Meanwhile, the Dow Jones rail average touched new high ground.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 1.9 at 340.5 with industrials up 1.6, rails up 2.3 and utilities up .6.

The rails advanced on news that the Interstate Commerce commission had granted the rails a $300-million annual increase in freight rates — the first in seven years. The 3 per cent boost was almost as much as the industry had sought.

Chesapeake & Ohio held a gain of about a point were shown by Southern Pacific, New York Central and Pennsylvania Railroad.

Gunmen Take 2 Gold Bars

NEW YORK (AP) — Two gunmen forced their way into the KLM Royal Dutch Airlines cargo office at John F. Kennedy International Airport early today and, firing a shot into the ceiling, stole two gold bars valued at $23,376.30, police said.

The theft was the second to hit KLM this year. In April, a 40-pound gold bar worth $40,000 vanished after it was said to have been placed on board a flight from Kennedy to the West Indies island of Aruba.

★ ★ ★

Police said the two bandits burst into KLM's export office in Kennedy's cargo loading area and announced, "This is a stickup."

Clerk John Parker laughed at one of the men's long-barreled revolvers and replied, "Quit kidding." His remark drew quick shot into the ceiling.

★ ★ ★

At that moment, according to detectives, manager Earl Erickson saw Parker, clerk Hans Brinkhouse and the gunmen and ran to a car where he said he knew there was a hunting rifle.

One of the gunmen reportedly cried out, "We're spotted, let's hurry," and using a auto jack handle, ripped open a gate to a 4 x 4 foot cubicle where the gold was stored.

News in Brief

Mrs. June Blackwell of 5215 Duck Lake, Highland Township, reported to sheriff's deputies yesterday the larceny of a western-type saddle valued at $75 from her car parked at her home.

1968 GTOs Will Sport First-of-Its-Kind Bumper

Pontiac Motor Division announced today that the front bumper on all 1968 GTO models will be made of a revolutionary new chemical compound that will absorb energy on impact.

Under development for the past three years, the bumper, called Endura, is a combination of a special synthetic compound backed with a heavy-gauge steel reinforcement that functions as an energy-absorbing system, replacing the conventional rigid all-steel bumper.

It is a Pontiac exclusive and the first of its kind in the industry.

In announcing the details, John Z. DeLorean, a General Motors vice president and Pontiac's general manager said the new bumper is functionally superior to any metal bumper now being used.

★ ★ ★

The synthetic front cushion is mar-resistant. When the bumper is hit under most circumstances it will depress and then return to its original form almost immediately.

EASILY REPAIRED

If the bumper is damaged during a severe enough impact to leave a dent or mark in most cases the damaged area can easily be repaired by any Pontiac dealer.

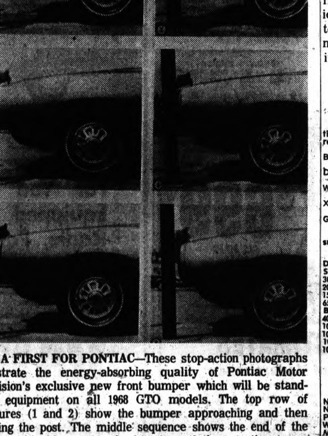
Another unique feature of the new bumper is that it is painted the same color as the exterior of the car, thus giving an extended and integrated appearance.

"This bumper allows a new and unique design approach that has unlimited possibilities for future styling," DeLorean pointed out.

★ ★ ★

In addition to its functional superiority, the new bumper also marks a major breakthrough for front end styling concepts.

The bumper is cast by a molding process and therefore can be formed to any shape, lending itself to unlimited possibilities for the stylists of the future.



A FIRST FOR PONTIAC—These stop-action photographs illustrate the energy-absorbing quality of Pontiac Motor Division's exclusive new front bumper which will be standard equipment on all 1968 GTO models. The top row of pictures (1 and 2) show the bumper approaching and then hitting the post. The middle sequence shows the end of the bumper crushing under the impact and then starting to rebound. In the bottom row the car has bounced away from the pole and the bumper is undamaged.

Banks, Insurers Rank 2nd

IRS: No. 1 on Windfalls

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK — There are few financial pleasures in the world greater than receiving money unexpectedly.

CUNNIFF

Among those who will testify to this are 300,000 taxpayers who last year shared $381 million returned by the Internal Revenue Service because of accidental overpayment.

A distant second to the IRS in dispensing this pleasure are banks and insurance companies, which often spend years tracking down forgetful owners of passbooks or unsuspecting insurance beneficiaries.

★ ★ ★

Public awareness of these searches often is limited to the sight of an infrequent advertisement listing unclaimed bank deposits or a tiny ad in the personal columns seeking the whereabouts of a missing heir.

But in many institutions, the search for beneficiaries is the full-time job of special departments.

VISITED CEMETERIES

Aetna Life & Casualty submits this example:

"A Baltimore claim representative found himself visiting cemeteries, a long-shot last chance in a heretofore vain effort.

"The claim man meticulously scanned hundreds of headstones and finally found the one he was looking for. The policyholder had been dead 20 years.

"The next step was to locate the next of kin, to whom the money belonged. This appeared hopeless because there was no record of any relatives, and the cemetery attendant said no one ever visited the grave."

As you might suspect, this story has a happy ending.

"Two weeks later," the insurance man continued, "the attendant telephoned excitedly. A Georgia woman had just been at the cemetery, identifying herself as the policyholder's daughter.

"The company verified her story and paid her."

★ ★ ★

Not all companies search so hard for heirs, and not all strive to go beyond the letter of the law in fulfilling their contractual agreements. But the efforts aren't entirely selfless.

"You have no idea how much our locating missing beneficiares and policyholders enhances our image and public relations," said a man from the claim department of Equitable Life Assurance.

STATE IS CUSTODIAN

Many companies also would prefer to deliver the money to their customer than to have it come under the escheat laws, which in about 30 states call for the state to become custodian of unclaimed funds.

How does this happen? Most people who need every dollar bill they can find wonder how money can be lost in savings accounts and insurance policies.

★ ★ ★

The answers sometimes are difficult to believe. Some people simply forget old passbooks, especially if they move frequently. Others, recluses sometimes, leave bankbooks in old trunks when they are removed to nursing homes.

Auto Output Is at Low Ebb This Week

DETROIT (AP) — With only a handful of 1968 models being produced, auto production is expected to dwindle to its lowest level of the year this week.

Chrysler Corp. had six plants in operation last week with a seventh scheduled to start rolling the 1968s this week.

Ford Motor Co. scheduled 1968 production at a suburban Detroit location.

Disturbances in Detroit and Pontiac helped cut production last week to 45,032. This compared with 80,884 the previous week and 66,723 in the same week one year ago.

Ford Motor Co. planned to phase out 1967 production this week and Chevrolet will shut down its Atlanta plant.

The rioting last week cost the industry more than 2,000 units.

Operations at Chrysler Corp., Ford Motor Co., and Pontiac Division of General Motors Corp. all were affected.

Ford had planned to finish its 1967 run at Dearborn Aug. 11 and start rolling the 1968s Aug. 14, but now may have to extend production a day or two. The interruption cost an estimated 1,600 Mustangs and Cougars.

Railroads Granted Freight Rate Hike

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Interstate Commerce Commission granted the nation's railroads today a $300-million annual increase in freight rates — the first in seven years.

★ ★

The action came despite Johnson administration requests to hold the line on rate hikes because of their possible inflationary effects on the economy.

The ICC said the present level of rates "is clearly inadequate to provide the carriers with sufficient revenues, under economical and efficient management, to meet the needs of the commerce of the United States and its national defense."

He was formerly a scheduling section supervisor for the production programming department at the division's worldwide headquarters in Birmingham.

18 Calls Keep Firemen Busy

Several Local Homes Damaged by Blazes

Pontiac firemen were kept busy yesterday as they responded to 18 calls, including eight actual fires, investigations and rescue runs.

An estimated $2,000 damage struck the roof of the Alex Sheriff home at 1010 Durand shortly after 5 p.m. Fire fighters remained at the scene for one hour and 45 minutes.

Damage to the one-story frame home was listed at $1,500 to the building and $500 to the contents.

The most costly fire yesterday occurred at a one-story frame home at 199 W. Princeton, according to firemen, who estimated damage at $5,000 to the building and $400 to the contents.

★ ★ ★

Owned and occupied by Tulli Bedsole, the home was valued at $13,600. Firemen answered the alarm at 5:46 a.m. and remained at the scene until 8.

MOTORCYCLE IGNITED

A water heater ignited a motorcycle starting a fire in a utility room at 348 W. Columbia, resulting in $2,300 damage to a one-story frame home owned and occupied by Gary Robertson.

Firemen fought the fire from 10:22 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. Damage was listed at $2,000 to the contents, $500 to the motorcycle and $300 to the building.

Another fire at the Park Inn Restaurant, 975 Orchard Lake, which broke out at 5:20 a.m., caused an estimated $1,000 damage to the contents and $500 to the building.

★ ★

An employe at the restaurant discovered the fire when she reported to work.

The fire originated in a deep fryer, firemen said.

Melee Flares in Washington

Oregon, Milwaukee Violence Subsiding

By the Associated Press

The fires and thrown rocks and bottles of racial violence struck Washington, D.C., today in a two and a half-hour long disturbance that brought roaming bands of Negroes to within a mile of the White House.

A police charge and a heavy rainfall broke up the groups who had surged north and northwest of the White House, Capitol and other landmarks, least one case, looting a liquor store.

★ ★ ★

A brick heaved through the windshield of a car seven blocks from the White House caused minor injuries to a fireman. There were reports of gunfire, but police later attributed the blasts to firecrackers exploding in garbage cans.

The Washington outbreak came as violence in Milwaukee and Portland, Ore., subsided.

MILWAUKEE QUIET

In Milwaukee, some 4,000 National Guardsmen appeared to have a firm rein on the disturbances that brought two shooting deaths and more than 100 injuries and 260 arrests Sunday and Monday.

An alleged sniper was arrested Monday night and a 34-year-old Negro woman appeared to suffer a heart attack as she fled from a fire-bombed building.

★ ★ ★

A curfew on the city was lifted temporarily but will be restored tonight.

Police in Portland, where the worst racial disturbance in Oregon's history blazed Sunday and Monday, reported the streets quiet. Negroes were ordered off corners by a loudspeaker truck and they complied within moments.

Some 30 arrests were made in Washington. Most of the violence was concentrated in a predominantly Negro district.

★ ★ ★

Other incidents hit Providence, R.I. and Erie, Pa. where racial disturbances flared two weeks ago.

In Providence, a man was shot and another stabbed but not seriously injured before a Negro section was closed off during a series of rock and bottle-throwing incidents. No arrests were made and police reported the disturbance "pretty well broken up" by midnight.

Benefits Bill Draft Nears House Unit Completion

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Ways and Means Committee hoped to finish drafting this week a scaled-down version of President Johnson's bill to increase Social Security benefits for 23 million Americans.

When the committee finishes, the bill will have cleared its most formidable hurdle on its trip through Congress.

Still, it is expected to undergo considerable change before final approval in the House and Senate, probably this fall.

The committee tentatively has decided on higher benefits amounting to a minimum of about 13 per cent. The lowest monthly payment anyone would get under the proposal would be $60 instead of the present $44 a month.

Johnson's 164-page bill, submitted Feb. 20, called for a minimum 15 per cent increase, an average hike of about 20 per cent for everyone. The minimum monthly payment would jump from $44 to $70 under his plan.

16 PCT. AVERAGE

The ways and means committee is heading toward average higher benefits of about 16 per cent, according to some bill-writers.

To pay for the benefits, all workers will pay more taxes. The increased payroll tax, shared by employes and employers, is necessary because of the soaring hospital costs of the Medicare program for people over 65.

As a result of these higher costs, the committee as scaled down the administration's request to cover all disabled workers under the age of 65 in the Medicare program.

★ ★ ★

Instead, the committee plans to include only workers over 50 disabled for two or more years.

ACCOMPANYING BOOSTS

The increased Social Security benefits will be accompanied by increases in the payroll tax, now 4.4 per cent of the first $6,600 of a worker's salary.

Both the employer and employe pay this rate, amounting to $290 each for a worker making $6,600 annually. This includes the tax for the Medicare program.

The committee has adopted informally a proposed three-step tax boost schedule that would begin next year on the first $7,800 of a worker's salary.

★ ★ ★

Both worker and employer would pay 4.6 per cent in 1968, 4.6 per cent in 1969 and 5.2 per cent in 1970.

★ ★ ★

In annual taxes, this means a payroll tax of $358 in 1968, $374 in 1969, and $406 in 1970 for workers making at least $7,800 in wages.

Hoffa Hearing Put to Aug. 14

CHICAGO (AP)—A hearing to determine whether government evidence obtained by wiretapping aided in the 1964 conviction of James R. Hoffa was continued Monday to Aug. 14.

Judge Richard B. Austin of U.S. District Court continued the proceedings after hearing testimony from heart specialists on the condition of S. George Burris, a codefendant of the imprisoned Teamsters union president.

★ ★ ★

Burris, 66, of New York was admitted to a hospital July 23 and was reported to be suffering from a heart ailment.

Hoffa was convicted in 1964 of fraud and conspiracy involving the multimillion - dollar Teamsters Union Pension Fund. He was sentenced to five years in prison and fined $10,000.

Focus Attack on Slums, Noted Americans Urge

WASHINGTON (AP) — A group of prominent Americans says the U.S. must revise its goals in order to concentrate the attack on slum elimination.

The 22 leaders from business, labor, city government, churches and the civil rights movement urged Congress to reexamine national priorities "with a commitment of national resources equal to the dimensions of the problems we face."

★ ★ ★

"This crisis requires a full new dimension in both the public and private sectors, working together for jobs, housing, education and the other needs of our cities," they said in a statement released by Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York.

Lindsay was instrumental in forming the group, which said the riots in American cities were part of an atmosphere in which "millions of Americans are forming attitudes that could mean disaster to our social structure."

While the group condemned the lawlessness of rioting, it said the actions of a "small fraction" of the ghettos should not "blind us to the absolute necessity of moving dramatically and immediately to correct the desperate condition of our urban centers."

The group said an urban coalition emergency convocation will be held in Washington in late August, with 1,000 leading citizens discussing the crisis of the cities.

★ ★ ★

In addition to Lindsay, those signing the statement included banker David Rockefeller, President I. W. Abel of the Steelworkers Union, Whitney M. Young Jr. of the Urban League, Arthur S. Flemming, president of the National Council of Churches; the Most Rev. Paul Tanner of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops; and Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers.

Observe Vote, S. Viet Urges

SAIGON (AP) — In another move to open South Vietnam's national elections to world inspection, the government announced today it had invited 36 nations with which it has diplomatic relations to send observers.

South Vietnam already had issued an invitation to the non-Communist world press to send additional newsmen to cover the Sept. 3 election for president, vice president and a 60-member Senate, and the Oct. 22 election for a 122 member House of Representatives.

★ ★ ★

South Vietnam formally asked the United Nations July 22 to send observers, but U.N. Secretary-General U Thant rejected the request.

Largest Sweep in Delta

Allied Assault Kills 350 VC

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. and South Vietnamese forces have killed 350 Vietcong in the largest allied assault of the war in the Mekong Delta, field commanders in the operation reported today.

The U.S. Command in Saigon announced the massive ground and river operation by an estimated 10,000 troops was launched last Friday to clear out Vietcong whose mining of the main highway from the delta has raised food prices in Saigon. The announcement of the operation was withheld for five days for security reasons.

The U.S. Command said it had reports of 200 Vietcong killed and that U.S. casualties were 16 dead and 59 wounded. Unofficial reports from the field said 28 South Vietnamese troops had been killed and 50 wounded.

Elsewhere in South Vietnam, only light ground action was reported.

The air war in North Vietnam jumped back to normal scale Monday as the weather cleared and Navy fliers resumed full operations after the disruption caused by the fire aboard the carrier Forrestal.

U.S. fliers flew a total of 136 missions, 46 more than the 90 flown Sunday. Many of their targets were in the Hanoi-Haiphong area which had been protected by bad weather in recent weeks.

★ ★ ★

Two more American warplanes were lost, raising to 627 the number of U.S. combat planes reported lost over North Vietnam. Three crewmen were listed as missing.

Two U.S. Army helicopters also were destroyed in a collision which killed eight men near the coastal city of Tuy Hoa, 250 miles northeast of Saigon.

TROOPS IN SWEEP

Troops of the U.S. 9th and 25th Infantry divisions, South Vietnamese rangers and Marines and a U.S. Navy task force were taking part in the big delta sweep centered about 14 miles west of My Tho, one of the largest cities in the rich rice - producing area.

Lt. Gen. Fred C. Weyand, commander of Field Force II, said the force is trying to root out Vietcong who have been mining Highway 4, the main road over which rice and other farm products move to Saigon.

★ ★ ★

In the past 10 days, Weyand said, the Vietcong cut the road eight times, raising food prices in Saigon.

Troops of the South Vietnamese 7th Division began a reconnaissance of Route 4 last Wednesday. Two days later U.S. Navy barracks ships pushed up the My Tho River to land a brigade from the U.S. 9th Division in the flooded rice paddies south of the highway.

ENCIRCLED VC

The U.S. troops began closing in on elements of three hard-core Vietcong battalions. Two battalions of Vietnamese marines joined the sweep Sunday and "landed right on top of a Vietcong battalion," Weyand said.

He reported the Marines virtualy wiped out the 263rd Vietcong battalion and captured the deputy commander.

★ ★ ★

The assault, Operation Coronado II is a continuation of Coronado I, an all-American operation centered three miles north of My Tho that ended July 25. In Coronado I, the U.S. Command reported 478 Vietcong were killed and 57 weapons captured with 40 U.S. dead and 173 wounded.

On the demilitarized zone front, Communist gunners poured 40 rounds of mortar fire on a battalion command post of the 9th Marine Regiment just below the zone and wounded nine Marines.

AIR TARGETS

In the air attacks on North Vietnam Monday, key targets included the railroads on which Communist military supplies are shipped from Red China, fuel storage areas and SAM missile sites.

Pilots from the carrier Intrepid, which replaced the fire-ravaged Forrestal in the Gulf of Tonkin, reported destroying a boat yard near the city of Vinh, in the lower part of North Vietnam.

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney today announced he is calling a meeting in his office this afternoon In an effort to avert possible teacher problems this fall.

★ ★ ★

"Teacher contract settlements for September still have not been reached in over 300 Michigan school districts," Romney said. "I have called this meeting for two purposes:

★ ★ ★

"First, to direct the attention of the parties involved, the Legislature and the public at large to this potentially serious situation.

"Second, to do everything I can to assure that there will be no interruption or delay in the education of Michigan children."

★ ★ ★

Invited to the meeting are representatives of teacher organizations, school boards and administrators, State Board of Education, Detroit Board of Education and State Labor Mediation Board as well as members of the Legislature.

A total of 667,592 degrees were earned by American college and university students in the 1964-65 academic year, a 12.4 per cent increase over the preceding year.

7 Area Boy Scouts Attending Jamboree

Seven area Boy Scouts and a scoutmaster are attending the 12th World Scout Jamboree at Farragut State Park, Idaho, today through Aug. 9.

The area representatives arrived yesterday in time for a special show and campfire program to welcome the 14,000 scouts and leaders expected to attend.

Participating from the local Clinton Valley Council are Scouts Lawrence Bacow of 34 Cherokee; Tim Huemiller of 3499 Baldwin, Pontiac Township; James Wagner Jr., of 4619 Hedgewood, Bloomfield Township; Gary Edwards of 2825 Otsego and Steve Newton of 2925 Woodbine, both of Waterford Township; Daniel Arnold of 340 Riviera; and Matthew Norman of 8623 War-Bonnet, Commerce Township.

Also attending as scoutmaster of region seven Jamboree troop 32 is Dr. Forrest D. Hunt of 7176 Holcomb, Clarkston.

★ ★ ★

Local scouts left July 24 for a pre-jamboree training camp at Yorksville Scout Camp near Chicago. The boys lived in tents and worked on scouting skills in preparation for Jamboree experiences.

SIGHTSEEING

The rest of the week was spent sightseeing by train through Seattle, Wash., and Victoria, British Columbia. On the way home after the Jamboree, the boys will visit Glacier National Park, Mont.

★ ★ ★

The Jamboree celebrates World Scouting's 60th anniversary. Programs will include hiking, sports, skills demonstrations, an adventure trail, and exchange programs with scouts from some of the 100 countries expected to be represented.

The local scouts are due home about Aug. 12.

Picketing Ends

PETOSKEY (AP) — Workers returned to their jobs at two construction sites Monday following settlement of a dispute between Laborers Union Local 1247 and Barnes Construction Company, Inc., of Grand Rapids. Union members set up picket lines Monday morning at Little Traverse Hospital and North Central Michigan College in a dispute over wage differentials.

Only Death, It Seems, Will Part 'I Do' Stars

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — There are all sorts of deals going on which would split up Mary Martin and Robert Preston so that one would remain in the Broadway company of "I Do, I Do!" and the other would start eventually in a road company — but Robert Preston assures me that as far as he can control it, they're not going to be split.

WILSON

"Professionally, Mary and Bob are married," says a friend.

"Whatever Mary does, I do!" Preston told me. "Mary and I are crazy about each other. We breathe together. It's a tough show to go, but doing it with Mary, it's not as tough as it would be with somebody else."

Mary's year's contract is up in December, and she then is entitled to a three-month vacation. Gordon MacRae's chums say he's in the picture. Producer David Merrick scoffs. Would Preston go on the road tour if Mary does? Well, whatever Mary wants . . . "It just wouldn't work if the two of us weren't together," says Bob.

Our campaign to kill off standing ovations in nightclubs is gaining. Michele Lee, the recording star and movie personality in "How to Succeed," was a smash success at the Plaza Persian Room—pretty, good sense of humor, delightful voice—but nobody hopped to his feet afterward, hooray. Her husband Jimmy Farentino, also a movie star, was introduced, and Michele forecast to me that he will be a bigger personality after "Rosie," soon to play the Music Hall.

Over the years, I've collected time-savings devices. Now Lotte Lenya of "Cabaret" offers the gimmick of a friend who takes left-over hot coffee from dinner, puts it in a thermos, and has it at breakfast next morning without brewing a new pot.

The man who shaves while taking a shower, at the same time listening to a learn-a-language record, and using the steam from the shower to refresh the crease in his suits, is the champion time-saver in my memory. Do you know anybody who's better?

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Pretty Anita Gillette of "Don't Drink the Water" got the divorce . . . Mike Douglas decided not to feature a young film star on his TV'er; the guy's outspoken on the subject of LSD, "and I tell it like it is, man" . . . Omar Sharif has an ulcer — and he hasn't even begun to film "Funny Girl" . . . Alan King racked up a $91,685 gross in eight performances at Westbury.

Secret Stuff: A famed entertainer may be quizzed by the FBI in a west coast probe . . . Juanita Hall, the original "Bloody Mary," is seriously ill at the Sanger Nursing Home, 500 W. 57th St. . . . The Burtons' salaries and guarantees on "The Comedians" will bring 'em $3,000,000.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Bob Orben's opinion of rock 'n' roll music: "If Van Gogh were alive today, he'd cut off both ears!"

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "Why worry about the future? The present is more than most of us can manage."—Coco Chanel, 84, in McCall's.

EARL'S PEARLS: Women's fashion news for '68: "Hems will be lowered . . . prices will be raised."

Phyllis Diller will be remembered as one of the great beauties of this era, says Jerry Ossip of the Canterbury—"and you know how awful everything is in this era." That's earl, brother.

Author-Playwright Dies in England

ADDERBURY, England (AP) — Margaret Kennedy, author of "The Constant Nymph" and other successful novels and plays, died Monday in Adderbury, Oxfordshire. She was in her early 70s.

★ ★ ★

Her first book, "A Century of Revolution," was published in 1922. Her last work, "Not in the Calendar," came out in 1964. In between she wrote 20 books and four plays, including a biography of Jane Austen, a textbook on modern European history and a critiacl study of the art of fiction "The Outlook of Parnassus."

★ ★ ★

"The Constant Nymph," published in 1924, became a worldwide success and in 1926 she and Basil Dean made it into a hit play for Elizabeth Bergner. It had long runs in Britain and America and also was a successful movie.

CHARLES L. COUSINS

Exec Named to UF Post

A Commerce Township man, Charles L. Cousins of 4815 Sundew, has been named display chairman of the 1967 Pontiac Area United Fund Campaign, publicity chairman William L. Belaney announced today.

He will coordinate outdoor advertising, special promotional displays in area stores.

Cousins is promotion supervisor of Pontiac Motor Division.

He held the display post last year and in 1964. In 1963 he was an industrial division and advance gifts solicitor.

He is currently on the Oakland Child Guidance Clinic Board—a UF agency—and is a vice chairman of the 1966 Boy Scout Lost Lake Camp Development Fund.

Car Mishap Injures Pontiac Doctor, 69

A Pontiac physician was injured about 1 p.m. yesterday when his can went out of control on a turn and struck a building on West Lawrence.

Listed in satisfactory condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital is Dr. Francis J. Fitzpatrick, 69, of 92 Spokane.

City police said Dr. Fitzpatrick was attempting a turn from Williams onto Lawrence when he lost control of his car.

DeGaulle Takes August Holiday

PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle left Paris Monday for a holiday at his country home at Colombey-les-Deux-Eglises.

He will be gone from Paris most of August, but will return to preside over cabinet meetings Aug. 9 and Aug. 23. On Aug. 10 he will make a television address to the nation.

Women on Force

HANCOCK (AP)— The Upper Peninsula city of Hancock has added two women to its police force. One, Elma Heicka, of Hubbell, is the city's first meter maid. The other, Bonnie Forsman, of Hancock, will do clerical work at police headquarters. The women, both in their 20s, were hired to free patrolmen for other law enforcement duties.

Man, 22, Drowns

ADRIAN (AP)—A 22-year-old Tecumseh man drowned Monday in Iron Lake in northwestern Lenawee ontuy. Sheriff's deputies said Larry W. Bemis was fishing when he suffered a seizure. His boat tipped over and he became entangled in fishing nets, they said. Bemis' body was recovered from 12 feet of water.

Crash Kills One

ST. IGNACE (AP) — Collins Belford, 19, of Boyne City, was killed Monday when a car he was riding in left I-75 at the Pine River bridge north of St. Ignace and crashed. The driver, Patrick Barnum, 20, of Boyne City, was critically injured.

Reagan Plans 3 Weeks of Rest After Operation

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — California's Gov Ronald Reagan, resting after surgery for removal of a constriction and stones from his bladder, plans a week-long stay in the hospital —and a longer stay away from Sacramento.

The governor's communications director, Lyn Nofziger, when asked Monday how Reagan felt, replied: "I've seen him sharper."

★ ★ ★

Nofziger said doctors were "pleased with the results of the operation."

Reagan, 56, indicated earlier he plans to stay at St. John's Hospital through at least next Saturday, then rest for two more weeks at his home in nearby Pacific Palisades.

Man Shoots, Kills Wife and Self

TEKONSHA (AP)— Harry B. Adams, 59, of Tekonsha apparently shot and killed his wife Mabel, 58, with a 22-caliber rifle and then took his own life, State Police said Monday.

Dr. F. J. Chase, a Calhoun County medical examiner, said the deaths occurred late Sunday or early Monday. The bodies were found Monday morning by one of their sons, Noel Adams of Battle Creek. State police at the Tekonsha post said papers had been drawn up to commit Adams to a mental hospital within a week.

Earthquake Jolts Peru; No Injuries

LIMA, Peru (AP) — An earthquake shook the Lima area for a few seconds Monday night, but there were no injuries or serious damage reported.

It was the strongest tremor in Lima since Oct. 17 last year when a quake killed 104 persons.

Baby Abandoned

HIGHLAND PARK (AP)—Authorities in this Detroit suburb are trying to identify a baby, about 7 months old, found abandoned in the cab of a truck Sunday evening. Doctors at Highland Park General Hospital said the infant was suffering from malnutrition.

Last Lunar Orbiter Set for Launch Today

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — America's fifth and last Lunar Orbiter was readied for launch on a wrap-up moon-scouting mission today despite a threat of afternoon thunderstorms.

The twin-eyed spacecraft was scheduled to leave earth at 4:09 p.m. EDT on the nose of an Atlas-Agena rocket and swing into its picture-taking orbit around the moon Saturday.

Launch chief Robert H. Gray said weather was the only problem. The afternoon thunderstorms that are common at this time of year were expected again today, and Gray said winds or lightning could cause a delay.

"We'll just have to wait and see how the weather develops," Gray said in a briefing before the countdown started. "If it's not too bad, we'll make it. It it's bad, we'll have to delay some or if it's too bad, there's a possibility we may not get off at all."

★ ★ ★

The Lunar Orbiter 5 launch deadline was 8 p.m. EDT. If that target were missed, the shot would be delayed until tomorrow afternoon.

CONSEQUENCES OF DELAY

A day's delay would mean the 830-pound camera craft would miss part of the back side of the moon it is supposed to photograph, including a fascinating basin observed for the first time in detail by Lunar Orbiter 4.

The mission is designed to do as much as possible to help Project Apollo engineers plan astronaut landings and to give scientists a detailed look at 37 intriguing craters and other lunar landscape features.

"For No. 5, it being the last one, we've attempted to carve out the most meaningful mission we possibly could," said program manager Lee R. Scheerer.

★ ★ ★

A. Thomas Young, Orbiter mission manager, said 20 per cent of Lunar Orbiter 5 film will be devoted to photographing five of the most promising Apollo astronaut landing sites.

TELEPHOTO COVERAGE

Apollo planners want stereoscopic telephoto coverage and side views of the landing zones to help them measure the slopes and ridges that Apollo astronauts will have to fly over on their final landing approach.

Toll in Venezuela Quakes at 120; Hundreds Missing

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — The toll from earthquakes that rocked Caracas and northwest Venezuela rose to 120 known dead today with thousands injured and 100 to 300 estimated missing.

Eight of the approximately 15,000 Americans living in Venezuela were killed in the devastating quake Saturday, the U.S. Embassy said. A minor quake struck battered Caracas Monday but the only death reported was that of a man who leaped in panic from his third-floor apartment.

Tired rescue workers kept sifting through the rubble of buildings that crumpled Saturday, searching for victims. Damage was estimated at $100 million.

The earthquake Monday knocked down a garment factory and 10 persons were trapped in the wreckage. Panic spread temporarily among some of the 1.7 million Caracas residents, but the tremor was not felt in some sections of the city.

AMERICANS LISTED

The U.S. Embassy said American citizens killed included Ronald Regis Zediak, 26, of McKeesport, Pa., a representative of the U.S. National Catholic Welfare Conference; Bonnie Spiller, 26, and her mother, Mrs. Tania Braun, 47, both of Houston, Tex.; and Emilia Cabrera, a Cuban-born pianist.

Four other Americans whose home towns were not known were Keith, Lyn and Alida Kaplan and Eduardo Parra Neff.

U.S. military forces in Panama flew 11,000 pounds of relief supplies to Caracas.

The big quake hit Caracas Saturday night during a whirl of parties and celebrations of the city's 400th anniversary.

One man was saved, a rescuer reported, because he left his apartment just before the quake to buy a pack of cigarettes. His wife and six children were trapped when the building collapsed.

LIFTED FIVE

Bulldozers and cranes swung into service in the search through the beris and partly demolished buildings for victims and survivors. Firemen working a telescopic boom lifted three children and their parents from one building still partly intact.

Hart Scorns Antiriot Laws

BAY CITY (AP) — U.S. Sen. Philip A. Hart, D - Mich., Monday scorned the effectiveness of proposed national antiriot laws.

"If there had been 10 antiriot bills, there still would have been riots in Detroit and Newark," Hart said.

★ ★ ★

"It's a matter of deciding how we want to spend our money," he said. "One-half-billion dollars to clean up after a four - day riot in Detroit or on programs designed to prevent such riots."

Hart called for more money for housing, education, slum clearance and programs to increase communication between Negro and white communities.

NECESSARY GOALS

President Johnson's newly appointed commission to study urban disturbances will have to make two things clear to be worthwhile, Hart said.

"First," he said, "no one has the constitutional right to throw a bomb, and second, we must dedicate a massive amount of resources into the business of eliminating ghettoes filled with people who feel they are at a dead end."

'Instant Noncom' Classes to Be Launched Sept. 5

FT. BENNING, Ga. (AP) — Stripes on the sleeve, instead of bars on the shoulder, will mark the "90-day wonder" of the Vietnam war.

A new term, "Instant NCO," will be the nickname for noncommissioned officers trained through 12-week classes at Ft. Benning under a program designed to produce thousands of new noncoms to lead fire teams and rifle squads.

★ ★ ★

The program is patterned after the "90-day wonder" course which filled a shortage of officers in World War II.

Officially titled the NCO Candidate Course, the new program is expected to turn out about 8,000 noncommissioned officers in 41 classes within a year.

Officials at Ft. Benning's Army Infantry Center said the first class of 200 men will start Sept. 5. Members will be outstanding soldiers who have completed Vietnam-oriented infantry training.

★ ★ ★

The officials said the course was devised in view of reports that 200 replacement sergeants are needed weekly in Vietnam.

Lawmaker Asks Forrestal Probe

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. Fred B. Rooney, D-Pa., wants Congress to investigate the disastrous fire aboard the Carrier USS Forrestal and other incidents in which sophisticated military equipment has malfunctioned.

He introduced a resolution yesterday to direct the House Armed Services Committee to conduct an inquiry. He said it should determine whether the United States "has developed precautionary measures to guard against incidents at a pace equal to the refinement and sophistication of our weaponry and equipment."

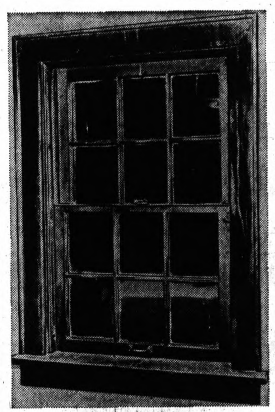
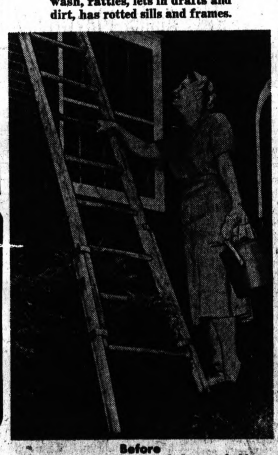
End Window Problems
Convert Old-Fashioned, Drafty, Hard-To-Wash House Windows Easily and Economically With New Nu-Sash
Unique new replacement windows give home modern appearance, saves work, yearly maintenance, stops heat loss
Repairing old troublesome, rotted and rattling windows has always been a problem to homeowners and property owners who want to modernize. However, a handsome unique aluminum replacement window now provides a simple and economical solution.
This revolutionary product — Nu-Sash® — is a window specifically designed to replace old outdated deteriorated windows. The cost — including installations — is nearly 40% less than other methods of renovating or remodeling old windows.
With Nu-Sash, there is no costly remodeling of inside walls; no messy or dirty construction work. Old windows are removed and expert installation men install Nu-Sash in a matter of hours without touching inside plaster or disturbing the present woodwork around windows.
Nu-Sash is designed to replace all types of windows: double-hung, double or triple units, casements, inswinging French type, or sliding windows. Even picture windows are easily replaced. Over the past year, thousands of homeowners, apartment owners, owners of factory and commercial buildings, and schools have applauded Nu-Sash installations.
Nu-Sash has been tested under rigid laboratory conditions. Results show the window superior to recommended standards set up by FHA for new construction requirements.
Savings in heat and air conditioning bills alone pay for a Nu-Sash conversion. However, the real advantages and savings of new Nu-Sash windows are greatly realized when the outstanding features are tested and compared against ordinary windows.
Nu-Sash features greatly reduce overall maintenance costs and extra work necessary with property upkeep. Yet the extra comfort, eye-appeal, and the convenience of workable windows are added features that make Nu-Sash a sound and profitable investment.
The Nu-Sash window has appeared in newspapers and publications all around the country. The window recently appeared in recent issues of Better Homes & Gardens magazines.
As an important and permanent addition to the home or building, Nu-Sash qualify for low interest home improvement loans. Modest monthly payments are available.
For additional free literature, price samples, details and drawings, and names and addresses of Nu-Sash installations in the area are available by a phone request or by mailing the coupon.


Before
Old window is unsightly, hard to wash, rattles, lets in drafts and dirt, has rotted sills and frames.

After
New Nu-Sash windows slide easily, have double locks, seal tight and fit snug, takes 30 years age off home appearance.


Before
Washing old windows on shaky step ladders is dangerous and makes twice as much work.

After
This Nu-Sash window tilts-in for cleaning, cuts washing time in half, makes work safe.

House Panel Hears Pros and Cons on a Lottery for Michigan

LANSING (AP) — A state lottery would "reduce taxes and eliminate the need for new taxes" a legislative committee was told yesterday.

The argument for a state lottery was presented to the House Committee on Revision and Amendment of the Constitution by Mrs. Helen Klovski of Dearborn Heights, president of the Citizens Sweepstakes Association.

The group proposes that the voters be allowed to vote to amend the constitution and decide if they want a state-run lottery, similar to those in New York and New Hampshire.

Mrs. Klovski said the association already has collected 200,000 signatures on petitions and needs 200,000 more to put the issue on the ballot.

Rep. Alfred Sheridan, D-Taylor, supported the state lottery idea, suggesting the money could be earmarked for education.

LEGAL OPPOSITION

State Solicitor General Robert Derengoski opposed the proposal on legal grounds.

The Michigan Temperance Association expressed its opposition on moral grounds.

Derengoski said the attorney general's office was opposed to a change in the constitution to legalize a lottery because "it would pave the way for other games of chance."

★ ★ ★

Legislatures in New Hampshire and New York, he said, have "been led down the primrose path" in their approval of lotteries.

'GREAT EXPECTATIONS'

Derengoski said New Hampshire expected $4 million from its lottery but the take was $2.8 million in 1964, $2.4 million in 1965 and $1.8 million in 1966.

In New York, he said, it is costing 50 cents of every dollar for collection fees and prizes.

"I urge you to turn it down," he told Rep. J. Harold Stevens, D-Detroit, committee chairman.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Klovski said many Michigan residents are buying New Hampshire and New York lottery tickets as well as Irish Sweepstakes tickets.

'KEEP MONEY IN STATE'

"This would keep the money from going out of the state," she said.

"This is like saying if you can't abolish murder you should legalize it," Derengoski countered.

Rev. Allen Rice II, president of the Michigan Temperance Foundation, said his group was opposed to a lottery and felt gambling had no logical place in the normal function of living.

★ ★ ★

"Experience has shown a lottery is expensive to administer and its revenue is unpredictable," he said. "The greatest burden of support for a lottery would fall on those least able to pay."

Riot Issues Face State Legislators

LANSING (AP) — Michigan legislators returned to their desks today to seek a way to help meet the cost of last week's riots which left 41 persons dead in Detroit and to coordinate riot investigations.

A move was expected in the Senate for passage of a House-approved three-cent cigarette tax boost to make up for an anticipated depletion in the state general fund surplus as a result of the rioting.

Senate Majority Leader Emil Lockwood, R-St. Louis, and House Speaker Robert Waldron, R-Grosse Pointe, said yesterday that two concurrent resolutions were ready for introduction, dealing with the rioting which centered in Detroit and spread outstate.

A Senate resolution would show legislative intent to make supplemental appropriations to state agencies as needed because of increased costs brought about by the riots, Lockwood said.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, a House resolution would set up a joint, six-member committee to coordinate and direct activities by legislative committees seeking the causes and results of the rioting, Waldron said.

DEMS VOW SUPPORT

The resolutions would have to be approved by both Houses.

House Democratic leaders have promised to support GOP plans to authorize agencies to spend what is needed for riot relief.

Lockwood said he planned to go before the GOP caucus to urge passage of the cigarette tax bill which would boost the state levy from 7 cents a package to 10 cents, effective Oct. 1.

The bill passed the House earlier in the session, but met resistance in the Senate where the GOP majority felt it should be held in reserve to meet unexpected emergencies.

★ ★ ★

School officials had sought passage of the tax boost to meet increased education costs — particularly teacher salary increases.

ANTIRIOT LEGISLATION?

Both GOP leaders said they knew of no moves to introduce antiriot legislation before final adjournment set for Thursday.

25 Get Lower Bonds

Bonds were substantially reduced in all but one case yesterday for persons arrested and charged with felonies during last week's civil unrest in Pontiac.

Originally set at $30,000 by Pontiac Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum, the release bonds were lowered to $1,000 for 19 persons during afternoon hearings in court.

None of the 19 had any past criminal record, according to Oakland County Prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson.

Bonds of $5,000 were set for six who had prior criminal records.

★ ★ ★

The only bond that remained the same was that for Larry Adams, charged with assulat with intent to murder a Pontiac policeman, Santiago Serna, during the disturbance early Tuesday.

HELD IN JAIL

Adams is held in the Oakland County Jail in lieu of a $30,000 bond.

Bronson, represented in court by Asst. Prosecutor Ronald Covault, chief of court operations, said his office acted on a petition to lower bonds filed by Pontiac attorney Wallace McLay.

McLay contended that the bonds were excessive and in violation of the State Constitution.

★ ★ ★

In recommending that the bonds be reduced, Bronson explained that his office had compiled information on all those arrested for felonies last week..

Severe Storm Pelts Pontiac

Severe thunderstorms late yesterday afternoon brought a downpour of heavy rainfall and, in some sections of the city, marble-sized hailstones. Rain measured seven-tenths of an inch in downtown Pontiac.

When the storm left, the sun came out and the rest of the evening was pleasant.

Tonight will be partly cloudy with a low of 58 to 64.

The weatherman predicts cloudiness with a chance of showers tomorrow with a high in the low 80s.

★ ★ ★

The outlook for Thursday is mostly sunny and a little cooler.

Light variable morning winds at 7 to 14 miles per hour will continue tonight.

PONTIAC LOW

The low in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. was 58. The mercury reached 79 by 1 p.m.

Precipitation probabilities in per cent are: today near zero, tonight 20, tomorrow 50.

City police identified the victim as Thomas E. Munson, son of Joyce A. Munson of 26 Esther.

The spot where the boy fell into the water at 59 Chapman is five feet deep, according to police.

The body was recovered by city firemen about 800 feet downstream, 20 minutes after the mishap.

Thomas was dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital.

4-H King, Queen Selection, Freckle Fete Highlight Fair

Two featured events top the opening night's program for the Oakland County 4-H Fair, which opened officially at 10 a.m. today at the fairgrounds, Perry and Walton.

★ ★ ★

The annual Pontiac Press freckle contest and selection of a Fair king and queen highlight tonight's 7:30 program.

Six finalists, three boys and three girls, for king and queen honors were among the participants yesterday afternoon in the annual parade through downtown Pontiac.

Some 18 4-H entries took part in the parade. First place float honors and a trophy were awarded to the Gingelville 4-H Club.

★ ★ ★

Second place was awarded the Cloverleaf 4-H Club. Other ribbons went to Bloomfield, Rip and Tear, Seymour Lake and Straw Hat 4-H clubs.

WALKING UNITS

Horse units winning ribbons were from the Gingelville, Wolverine and Ro-Hi 4-H clubs, while walking units earning ribbons were from the Oakland County K-9, Bloomfield and White Lake 4-H clubs.

The fair runs through Saturday.

Mansfield Says Romney Guilty of Political Play

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield rebuked Michigan's Republican Gov. George Romney, saying political statements about rioting are "demeaning and utterly useless."

★ ★ ★

Romney asserted yesterday that President Johnson "played politics" when rioters took to the streets in Detroit and the governor sought federal troops to deal with them.

Neither Johnson, the White House or Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark would comment directly on the Romney accusation. Thus, Mansfield became the top-ranking Democrat to counterattack Romney but he did not absolve his own party as he urged an end to political talk about cities in turmoil.

"I think both sides are guilty of playing politics with an issue that is too explosive to handle in that manner," Mansfield said in an interview. "The playing of politics should not be tolerated and will not be appreciated by the American people."

★ ★ ★

In Detroit, Romney said former Assistant Secretary of Defense Cyrus R. Vance had been quoted by the White House as indicating Romney agreed with him in delaying the commitment of federal troops to Detroit.

3 Arrests in $1.5-Million '62 Holdup

BOSTON (AP) — A major break has occurred in the great Plymouth mail truck robbery with the arrest of a woman and two men in the $1,551,277 cash haul.

★ ★ ★

The woman, mother of four children, and the two men are accused of committing with "other persons unknown" what is believed to be the largest cash robbery in the nation's history.

A federal grand jury charged the three with the 1962 robbery in indictments returned yesterday — two weeks before the five-year statute of limitations runs out for the federal government to prosecute.

Named in the indictments were Thomas R. Richards, 42, of Weymouth, an electrician for New England Power Co.; John J. Kelley, 51, of Watertown, unemployed; and Patricia Diaferio, 32, of Boston.

★ ★ ★

Richards was arrested at his home by U.S. marshals. The other two surrendered by arrangements made through their attorneys.

RELEASED ON BAIL

The men, both represented by noted criminal lawyer F. Lee Bailey, were released on bail of $25,000 set by U.S. Commissioner Francis H. Farrell.

Mrs. Diaferio, represented by attorney Joseph Baillirc, was freed after posting $5,000 bail.

The indictments charge that the three, and others unknown, robbed two postal workers of the money in Canadian and U.S. currency.

★ ★ ★

It also charges them with putting the lives of postal employes in jeopardy.

MINIMUM SENTENCE

Conviction would carry a minimum sentence of 25 years in prison.

Two months after it occurred, about 30 U.S. marshals and post office inspectors tore Richards' $18,000 home apart.

They ripped out ceilings and walls, pried up floor boards and took panels off outside walls and eaves.

★ ★ ★

A search warrant said they sought $1 million of the mail loot.

FOUND SHOTGUN

The searchers said they found a shotgun and a .45-caliber pistol, two bullet-proof vests and two belts of the type worn by policemen.

The mail truck was en route to the Federal Reserve Bank in Boston with shipments of cash from Cape Cod banks.

As the truck entered a lonely stretch of Route 3 in Plymouth, a man in what looked like a policeman's uniform set up highway construction cones on the limited access road, detouring traffic behind it.

★ ★ ★

Then the gang of robbers held up the truck, unobserved by any other traffic.

★ ★ ★

The bandits took over the truck, tossing the trussed mailmen into the rear, finally abandoning the emptied truck in Randolph.

UAW, GM Optimistic

Canadian Car-Pact Talks Open

TORONTO (UPI) — General Motors and the United Auto Workers Union opened up negotiations for new contracts covering Canadian workers on an optimistic note yesterday.

Both sides expressed the wish a settlement, which could have a profound effect on negotiations in the United States, could be reached without a strike.

The UAW moved over to Ford today to open negotiations and plan to begin with Chrysler tomorrow in Windsor. In all, about 50,000 workers are employed by the "Big Three" in Canada.

The chief aim of the Canadian UAW negotiators is wage parity between Canadian and American workers. The Canadian workers presently receive an average of 41 cents an hour less than their U.S. counterparts.

★ ★ ★

Parity has become the main objective of the union and UAW President Walter Reuther has threatened the U.S. auto companies, currently negotiating with the UAW, with a strike unless it is achieved.

EXPIRATION DATES

Contracts with the U.S. companies expire Sept. 6 while contracts end with General Motors of Canada Oct. 31, Ford of Canada Dec. 1, and Chrysler Canada Nov. 15.

The Canadian negotiators will also seek to have their new contracts end on a common day with U.S. contracts.

The union also hopes to achieve the right to strike on speed up during the life of the contract. Ontario provincial labor laws forbid a strike during the life of the contract for any reason.

★ ★ ★

Other issues of specific Canadian interest were pensions, survivor benefits, introduction of automation and injunctions.

OPTIMISM

"If restraint and wisdom prevail, we can hold fast to what we have gained and continue to make sound progress," said chairman of the GM negotiating party, Arnold G. Stapleton.

"As we start these negotiations, GM employes are already in a most favorable economic position, among the best paid in all of Canada," he said.

He said the cost of living allowance which increased wages 22 cents an hour during the present contract, contributed to the GM workers' favorable position.

De Gaulle Vows Aid for a Canadian Split

OTTAWA (AP) — Many in Canada today rejected President Charles de Gaulle's pledge of France's help in the "liberation" of French Canadians from domination by the English-speaking provinces. But the separatist minority was overjoyed.

Prime Minister Lester B Pearson and his aides had no comment while they studied the statement issued in Paris on De Gaulle's behalf after the president reported to his Cabinet Monday on his controversial visit to Canada last week and his cancellation of his visit to Ottawa.

★ ★ ★

The statement said De Gaulle "recognized among the French Canadians the unanimous conviction that after the century of oppression which followed British conquest, the second century under the system defined by the 'British North American Act' of 1867 had not assured them, in their own country, liberty, equality and fraternity."

He said he sensed the French Canadians' will "to be masters of themselves in all respects and especially to become masters of their own progress."

AID PROMISED

France, he declared, means to aid the French Canadians "to reach their objectives of liberation which they themselves have fixed." However, he added that "France has no designs of direction over, or even more so of sovereignty over, all or part of the Canada of today."

★ ★ ★

In Montreal, Pierre Bourgault, president of the separatist Rassemblement Pour l'Independence Nationale, acclaimed De Gaulle's statement as an "example for all Quebecers" of "a sovereign government which stands up and which goes to the very bottom of things which it has started."

July Sunshine Plentiful, but Temperatures Low

Area residents could easily powder their faces with sunshine as Ol' Sol favored the weather scene with 24 days of gleaming skies during July.

Cloud cover marred picnickers' pleasure on only seven days.

Measurable rainfall totaled 2.35 inches, just short of an inch less than last July's 3.34 inches.

The high of 91 was reached on July 9, making it the coolest July in two years. In July 1966, the monthly high was a steaming 100, in July 1965, 95.

★ ★ ★

Temperatures hit above 90 degrees on only four days during the month. There were 15 days when the mercury bobbed in the 80s.

IT WAS CHILLY

A monthly low of 51 on July 14 caused residents to shove up their furnace thermostats or start a fire in the fireplace to take the chill off of the house. It compared to last year's low of 55.

The mean temperature for the month was a balmy 70.58 degrees, 4.42 degrees cooler than the previous July.

H. HOWARD FLINT

Death Takes Area Founder of Ink Firm

The founder of one of the major world printing ink companies, H. Howard Flint, died Sunday. He was 82.

Flint, of 4760 Quarton, Bloomfield Hills, was founder and chairman of the board of the Flint Ink Corp. of Redford, which has factories in 18 major U.S. cities. He founded the firm in 1920.

Service will be at 2 p.m. tomorrow at Kirk of the Hills Church, Bloomfield Hills, with burial in Woodlawn cemetery, Detroit, by Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co., Birmingham.

Surviving are two sons, Edgar B. and Robert H.; five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

★ ★ ★

Flint was a director and past president of the National Association of Printing Ink Manufacturers and he was co-founder, director and past-president of the National Printing Ink Research Institute at Lehigh University. He was an original director of City National Bank of Detroit, and served until his retirement in 1966.

Flint was a life member of Palestine Lodge 357 F. and A.M., the Detroit Moslem Shrine and the Detroit Valley Scottish Rites Bodies. He was a life member of Bloomfield Hills Country Club and the Detroit Athletic Club, and a member of the Jonathan Club, Los Angeles, Calif. Donations may be made to the Salvation Army Building Fund.

Policeman, Guardsman Called Killers

DETROIT (AP) — An unnamed National Guard warrant officer and an unidentified policeman were the focal points today of an investigation into the slaying of three Negroes, earlier thought to have died as snipers during Detroit's rioting.

The warrant officer was named as the killer of two of the Negroes by a witness who claimed to have been present when 16 to 17 policemen and National Guardsmen crashed into a motel annex on the fringe of the main West Side riot area.

★ ★ ★

Another witness said he thought the killer of at least one of the Negroes was a police officer.

None of the witnesses said they actually saw anybody kill someone, however.

The killings occurred early Wednesday morning as sniper activity, that replaced the burning and looting of Sunday and Monday, reached a peak in the worst racial explosion in recent U.S. history.

ONE ARREST

Only one arrest has been reported relating to incidents at the motel — the Algiers — that night.

"We have a very active investigation going," said Wayne County Prosecutor William Cahalan.

But he added: "We're going to play it cozy. We don't want anything to happen to this one."

U.S. Is Moving on Carmichael

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department is moving to revoke the passport of Stokely Carmichael but the Justice Department says only that it is investigating activities of the militant Black Power advocate.

Carmichael recently went to Cuba via London and Prague and was quoted from that Communist country as saying, "We are preparing groups of urban guerrillas for our defense in the cities."

He also predicted a "fight to the death."

Carmichael, 26, has been cited by some congressmen as the object of a House-approved bill which would ban movement across state lines to incite riot.

The Associated Press asked the State and Justice departments about Carmichael. The Justice Department would say only that Carmichael's "activities are under investigation. The department does not make public details of pending investigations."

The State Department was asked: Has the State Department decided to revoke Carmichael's passport?

A. Yes. There is an established procedure for taking this action. Taking the action will depend on the timing of his return to the United States.

★

Q. On what ground is his passport to be withdrawn?

A. The basis of action is his failure to obtain validation of his passport to go into the prohibited area—Cuba.

Detroit Curfew Is Lifted

DETROIT (AP) — Gov. George Romney today ended the curfew which had been in effect in Detroit and some of its suburbs since riots erupted in Detroit July 23.

Romney also terminated emergency restrictions which had been put into effect on the sale of liquor, gasoline and on public assemblies.

★ ★ ★

He said that restrictions on sale of weapons and explosives would still remain in effect, as would special regulations put into effect for traffic control in riot areas.

Romney's move meant that no Michigan community was left with a curfew. The curfew hours originally were 9 p.m. - 5:30 a.m., but were revised twice thereafter to midnight - 5:30 a.m.

The governor said the state of emergency proclamation still remained in effect, giving him latitude to make quick moves in the event of further troubles.

Hunt Continues for 4 Killers

West Bloomfield Township police report they have not given up the hunt for the four killers of Township Trustee Edward Emmett DeConick.

DeConick, 63, was slain July 3 by the group who broke into his home at 5847 W. Maple. He was beaten and killed and his sister, Kathleen DeConick, 73, was shot in the left eye and left for dead.

She is recovering from her injuries, however.

A $6,600 reward including $1,000 from The Pontiac Press remains to be collected by anyone supplying information leading to the arrest and conviction of the killers.

Township police have been aided by state, county and federal authorities in their investigation.

Foreign Policy Role Is Target

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bid by Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D—Ark., to gain for the Senate more muscle in the foreign policy field has won praise from his colleagues.

But even some of those who supported the Arkansas Democrat's goal blamed the Senate for its loss of a voice in foreign policy.

★ ★ ★

Fulbright introduced a resolution Monday that would require a joint congressional-presidential declaration to seal any national commitment abroad.

The President could not make commitments to foreign nations without the Senate's consent.

RATIFIES TREATIES

While the Constitution requires Senate ratification of formal treaties, many pacts between the United States and foreign countries are never so formalized. Constitutional scholars say the President thus can control foreign policy totally if he so desires.

Fulbright, perhaps the Senate's most persistent critic of President Johnson's Vietnam policies, told his colleagues the resolution was aimed at no "current crisis abroad, and it is not a measure directed against any single administration in this century—or against anyone at all."

★ ★ ★

Despite the disclaimer, the resolution appeared likely to arouse still another congressional debate on Vietnam. Critics of the war say President Johnson has continued to escalate the U.S. commitment there without consulting Congress.

And Fulbright said he hoped the resolution would lead to a sweeping study by the foreign relations committee, which he heads, of U.S. overseas commitments. Much of the congressional debate surrounding Vietnam has centered in that committee.

Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said the issue raised by Fulbright "is something the Senate will have to face up to." But he blamed Senate complacency for letting slip some of its control in the foreign policy field.

Before Fulbright spoke, Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., said the United States government had not decided, and had not told the public, whether the nation's interests required bases in Asia.

U.S. foreign aid chief William S. Gaud expressed confidence that some of the money lopped from the administration's foreign-aid bill by Fulbright's committee would be restored before the measure finally clears Congress.

Gaud, administrator of the U.S. Agency for International Development, declined in an interview to speculate on what the final figure might be.

But he recalled that in the past, the Senate frequently had made sizable reductions in the bill, only to have the House restore funds to near the original amount requested.

AAUW Book Roundup Is On

BIRMINGHAM — Two garages and a basement are already full of old books and the AAUW annual book sale collection is well under way.

Mrs. Thomas Mitzelfield, chairman of the transportation portion of the university women' annual drive, said donations are coming along well.

Books are being collected at various businesses which cooperate in establishing drop-off points.

But a big find for the sale, to be held Sept. 18-22 this year, is when someone moves. "They tell us to come and get 'em," she said.

★ ★ ★

This year is the 40th annual event. Proceeds go for summer grants to local female teachers and the National American Association of University Women Fellowship Fund for Advanced Study.

LAST YEAR'S RESULTS

Last year, $6,000 was raised. "It was amazing," said Mrs. Mitzelfield. "Some people bought $25 or $30 worth."

That would be a lot of books because most of them are sold for bargain prices of 15 and 25 cents.

There seems to be little trouble getting rid of the books as all sorts of collectors show up at the sale, she said.

★ ★ ★

For donations, the group is interested in almost all types — novels, histories, children's books, reference, encyclopedias and books on crafts, hobbies, art, etc.

PAPERBACKS WELCOME

Paperbacks are welcome as are National Geographic magazines, a favorite. Also desired are sheet music and recordings.

★ ★ ★

Reminders of the coming sale are being distributed by way of book markers given out at the Baldwin Library in Birmingham and the Bloomfield Township Library.

Senate Leader Raps Romney for 'Politics'

"Nothing could be further from the truth," Romney said.

★ ★ ★

The governor said he requested federal troops at 3 a.m. July 24, but they did not arrive in the Detroit area until 4 p.m. and were not sent into the riot zones until about 3 a.m. the following day.

★ ★ ★

Romney said he began to believe politcs was a factor "when the attorney general began to insist on this certification that we had an insurrection that was, out of control and didn't seem to be particularly impressed by the fact that we needed the troops to keep the situation from getting out of control."

Sen. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., said Romney was not alone in his belief that Johnson acted politically. "A lot of people who listened to the President's speech think so, too."

Griffin said there is nothing in the law requiring that a state of insurrection be declared in advance of the commitment of federal troops.

At a news conference, Johnson avoided challenging Romney, saying "I don't think anything is to be gained by trying to justify or explain" his troop decisions. White House Press Secretary George Christian said the President has no intention of criticizing Romney.

ATTORNEY GENERAL

Clark, an administration contact man with Romney during events preceding troop deployment, declined comment on the governor's charges.

He was due to testify today at a Senate Judiciary subcommittee hearing on the Johnson civil rights bill. Riots and their aftermath are likely to come up.

Defending Romney's actions during the Detroit rioting, Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., rejected as did Mansfield political argument about racial disorder.

★ ★ ★

"I don't think we're going to get anywhere through political recriminations," Scott said.

'ACTED PROPERLY'

When the Detroit riots began, "Gov. Romney acted properly and decisively," said Scott, "He did not play politics."

★ ★ ★

"President Johnson either made a mistake in judgment or deliberately delayed sending federal troops into Detroit's riot-torn areas," said House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan. He said swift federal intervention could have saved lives.

He said his office was in a position to make recommendations on each individual as to what the amount of the surety bonds should be in order to guarantee the appearance of the defendents at their preliminary examinations.

Chamber Sets Plan of Action

A Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce program responding to problems largely rising from last week's civil strife was outlined by the Chamber board to city officials yesterday.

Strong support of the city's handling of the situation was also voiced to Mayor William H. Taylor Jr., City Manager Joseph A. Warren, and City Attorney Sherwin M. Birnkrant.

The city was offered all Chamber services to help create and maintain good relations among all concerned.

The board announced efforts to help Versa Tube Corp., destroyed by fire, to resume operations so that the 60 employes could return to work as soon as possible.

While the main plant is being rebuilt, space is being sought where temporary operations can be maintained.

Arrangements with the Red Cross to supply food for employes until they return to their jobs have been made by the Chamber.

State Rep. Arthur J. Law has been contacted and offered assistance in relocating or selling his super market at 200 Earlmoor if he should desire, according to a Chamber spokesman.

"The Chamber works to protect free enterprise and the rights of an individual to operate a business," he emphasized.

No Meeting Here Tonight

The Pontiac City Commission will not hold a regular meeting tonight due to the absence of six commissioners.

The commissioners are attending a National Congress of Cities convention in Boston.

Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. was scheduled to attend the convention but changed his plans because of recent disturbances in Pontiac.

Michigan's Public Health Chief Quits

LANSING (AP) — Dr. Albert E. Heustis has resigned as director of the State Department of Public Health—a job he held for 19 years—to head the Michigan Association of Regional Medical Programs.

Heustis, whose resignation was accepted "with great regret" Monday by Gov. George Romney, will direct efforts to coordinate the cancer - heart disease-stroke activities of several universities, state, professional and voluntary agencies.

★ ★ ★

"In his 19 years as state health director, he has earned distinction not only for himself but for the State of Michigan," Romney commented.

"Although his vigorous and committed leadership will be sorely missed, I am pleased that he will be able to continue to serve the people of Michigan in his new capacity," Romney added.

'WONDERFUL YEARS'

"They have been 19 very interesting and wonderful years," said Heustis, looking back to 1948 when Gov. Kim Sigler named him to head the department — the fourth man to take over the post within a one year period.

He has served under four governors, two Republicans and two Democrats.

City Water Fluoridated; 'Ordinance Not Violated'

Odorless, colorless, tasteless fluoride began flowing today into the Detroit water system, which serves 60 suburban communities, including Pontiac.

Pontiac residents will consume the fluoride in their water glasses despite a city ordinance against it.

Actually, according to city officials, Pontiac is not violating its own ordinance.

City Manager Joseph A. Warren explained that the ordinance prohibits any Pontiac official from adding fluoride to the water furnished city residents. And this is still the case. Detroit is adding the fluoride.

In 1955, voters approved the ordinance, 5,775 to 4,311. The object was to exclude sodium fluorides. However, since then Pontiac has abandoned its well water system and become a water customer of Detroit.

COST PROHIBITIVE

Previously, city officials have indicated the cost is prohibitive to extract the fluorides from the water provided by Detroit.

In addition to receiving fluoridated water, which a majority of local residents did not want, at least in 1955, the price of water may go up.

Warren said the city has received no notice of the increased costs, but members of the Detroit Water Board yesterday announced a $2.50 annual price hike for the 3.5 million people in 67 southeastern Michigan communities served by Detroit water.

The price hike is effective Nov. 1.

DETROIT APPROVAL

Detroit residents first approved fluoridation of water in November 1965, and again in November 1966 after opponents had forced a second vote.

The city estimates fluoridation will cost $425,000 a year. A $550,000 fluoridation plant was recently built.

The controversy over fluoridated water centered around the contention that fluoride was injurious to health. Most experts reject that argument, and many dental and medical men say it will cut tooth decay.

★ ★ ★

Fluoridation affects the water supply of Wayne County, southwestern Oakland County and western Macomb County.

EXEMPT AREAS

Communities that will not receive fluoridated water include Grosse Ile, Gibraltar, Riverview, Trenton and Brownstown Township.

Highland Park, which has its own water filtration plant, has had fluoridated water for a number of years.

For Viet, Domestic Projects

'U.S. Can Afford Programs'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson says Americans can afford both the Vietnam war and domestic programs aimed at heading off further slum uprisings.

He told a news conference Monday he hoped "not many people would feel that because we have a problem at home is any indication that we would ignore or surrender our interests abroad."

The President suggested the nation's prosperity was such that "Our country will be able to do whatever is necessary to do."

That came in response to a query about possibly asking Congress for more antipoverty funds if new or expanded programs were recommended by the President's Advisory Commission on Racial Disorders.

COMPARES TAX RATES

Johnson claimed that if the nation had the same income-tax rates in force this year as when he became President, "we would be receiving in the Treasury $23 billion more than we will receive."

He earlier said "there will be some adjustments" to his proposal for a six per cent surcharge on individual and corporate income taxes. But he declined to discuss specifics.

★ ★ ★

The President appeared cool toward two proposals made in the wake of the Detroit riot, most costly in the nation's history.

★ ★ ★

One, by Sen. Thruston B. Morton, R—Ky., would make immediately available for special projects in slum areas about $1 billion from long-range urban spending programs.

Gunmen Take 2 Gold Bars

NEW YORK (AP) — Two gunmen forced their way into the KLM Royal Dutch Airlines cargo office at John F. Kennedy International Airport early today and, firing a shot into the ceiling, stole two gold bars valued at $23,376.30, police said.

The theft was the second to hit KLM this year. In April, a 40-pound gold bar worth $40,000 vanished after it was said to have been placed on board a flight from Kennedy to the West Indies island of Aruba.

★ ★ ★

Police said the two bandits burst into KLM's export office in Kennedy's cargo loading area and announced, "This is a stickup."

Clerk John Parker laughed at one of the men's long-barreled revolvers and replied, "Quit kidding." His remark drew quick shot into the ceiling.

★ ★ ★

At that moment, according to detectives, manager Earl Erickson saw Parker, clerk Hans Brinkhouse and the gunmen and ran to a car where he said he knew there was a hunting rifle.

One of the gunmen reportedly cried out, "We're spotted, let's hurry," and using a auto jack handle, ripped open a gate to a 4 x 4 foot cubicle where the gold was stored.

Auto Output Is at Low Ebb This Week

DETROIT (AP) — With only a handful of 1968 models being produced, auto production is expected to dwindle to its lowest level of the year this week.

Chrysler Corp. had six plants in operation last week with a seventh scheduled to start rolling the 1968s this week.

Ford Motor Co. scheduled 1968 production at a suburban Detroit location.

Disturbances in Detroit and Pontiac helped cut production last week to 45,032. This compared with 80,884 the previous week and 66,723 in the same week one year ago.

Ford Motor Co. planned to phase out 1967 production this week and Chevrolet will shut down its Atlanta plant.

The rioting last week cost the industry more than 2,000 units.

Operations at Chrysler Corp., Ford Motor Co., and Pontiac Division of General Motors Corp. all were affected.

Ford had planned to finish its 1967 run at Dearborn Aug. 11 and start rolling the 1968s Aug. 14, but now may have to extend production a day or two. The interruption cost an estimated 1,600 Mustangs and Cougars.

★ ★ ★

Chrysler Corp. lost only an estimated 200 to 300 cars, but it lost time in setting up 1968 production.

2 DAYS LATE

Pontiac lost production at its home plant last Tuesday and Wednesday and didn't close out 1967 production until Friday, two days later than planned.

Eleven plants closed out 1967 production last week, with 1967 production completed on Falcon, Fairlane, Ford, Comet, Buick Special, Camaro, F85, Pontiac and Tempest.

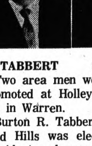
Through last week, industry production of 1967 models reached 7,631,325, compared with 8,590,238 at the same date one year earlier.

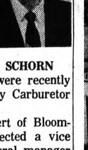
Business Notes

GIBBONS

Martin J. Gibbons has been promoted to the newly created position of regional sales manager of F. Jos. Lamb Co.

Gibbons of 6884 Halyard, Bloomfield Township, was formerly a sales engineer. He joined Lamb six years ago.





TABBERT SCHORN

Two area men were recently promoted at Holley Carburetor Co. in Warren.

Burton R. Tabbert of Bloomfield Hills was elected a vice president and general manager of the automotive division in charge of all automotive sales, engineering and manufacturing activities. He was formerly general sales manager of that division.

Carl F. Schorn of Troy was elected a vice president and general manager of the aircraft division in charge of all aircraft sales, engineering and manufacturing activities. He has been chief engineer of that division since 1952.

Robert H. Liebold of 1689 Norfolk, Birmingham, was recently appointed production planning and control manager for Ford Tractor Division's Highland Park plant.

He was formerly a scheduling section supervisor for the production programming department at the division's worldwide headquarters in Birmingham.

Banks, Insurers Rank 2nd

IRS: No. 1 on Windfalls

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK — There are few financial pleasures in the world greater than receiving money unexpectedly.

CUNNIFF

Among those who will testify to this are 300,000 taxpayers who last year shared $381 million returned by the Internal Revenue Service because of accidental overpayment.

A distant second to the IRS in dispensing this pleasure are banks and insurance companies, which often spend years tracking down forgetful owners of passbooks or unsuspecting insurance beneficiaries.

★ ★ ★

Public awareness of these searches often is limited to the sight of an infrequent advertisement listing unclaimed bank deposits or a tiny ad in the personal columns seeking the whereabouts of a missing heir.

But in many institutions, the search for beneficiaries is the full-time job of special departments.

VISITED CEMETERIES

Aetna Life & Casualty submits this example:

"A Baltimore claim representative found himself visiting cemeteries, a long-shot last chance in a heretofore vain effort.

★ ★ ★

"The claim man meticulously scanned hundreds of headstones and finally found the one he was looking for. The policyholder had been dead 20 years.

"The next step was to locate the next of kin, to whom the money belonged. This appeared hopeless because there was no record of any relatives, and the cemetery attendant said no one ever visited the grave."

As you might suspect, this story has a happy ending.

"Two weeks later," the insurance man continued, "the attendant telephoned excitedly. A Georgia woman had just been at the cemetery, identifying herself as the policyholder's daughter.

"The company verified her story and paid her."

★ ★ ★

Not all companies search so hard for heirs, and not all strive to go beyond the letter of the law in fulfilling their contractual agreements. But the efforts aren't entirely selfless.

★ ★ ★

"You have no idea how much our locating missing beneficiares and policyholders enhances our image and public relations," said a man from the claim department of Equitable Life Assurance.

STATE IS CUSTODIAN

Many companies also would prefer to deliver the money to their customer than to have it come under the escheat laws, which in about 30 states call for the state to become custodian of unclaimed funds.

★ ★ ★

How does this happen? Most people who need every dollar bill they can find wonder how money can be lost in savings accounts and insurance policies.

★ ★ ★

The answers sometimes are difficult to believe. Some people simply forget old passbooks, especially if they move frequently. Others, recluses sometimes, leave bankbooks in old trunks when they are removed to nursing homes.

News in Brief

Mrs. June Blackwell of 5215 Duck Lake, Highland Township, reported to sheriff's deputies yesterday the larceny of a western-type saddle valued at $75 from her car parked at her home.

1968 GTOs Will Sport First-of-Its-Kind Bumper

Pontiac Motor Division announced today that the front bumper on all 1968 GTO models will be made of a revolutionary new chemical compound that will absorb energy on impact.

Under development for the past three years, the bumper, called Endura, is a combination of a special synthetic compound backed with a heavy-gauge steel reinforcement that functions as an energy-absorbing system, replacing the conventional rigid all-steel bumper.

It is a Pontiac exclusive and the first of its kind in the industry.

In announcing the details, John Z. DeLorean, a General Motors vice president and Pontiac's general manager said the new bumper is functionally superior to any metal bumper now being used.

★ ★ ★

The synthetic front cushion is mar-resistant. When the bumper is hit under most circumstances it will depress and then return to its original form almost immediately.

EASILY REPAIRED

If the bumper is damaged during a severe enough impact to leave a dent or mark in most cases the damaged area can easily be repaired by any Pontiac dealer.

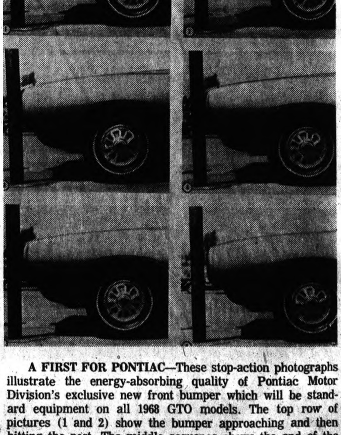
Another unique feature of the new bumper is that it is painted the same color as the exterior of the car, thus giving an extended and integrated appearance.

"This bumper allows a new and unique design approach that has unlimited possibilities for future styling," DeLorean pointed out.

★ ★ ★

In addition to its functional superiority, the new bumper also marks a major breakthrough for front end styling concepts.

The bumper is cast by a molding process and therefore can be formed to any shape, lending itself to unlimited possibilities for the stylists of the future.



A FIRST FOR PONTIAC—These stop-action photographs illustrate the energy-absorbing quality of Pontiac Motor Division's exclusive new front bumper which will be standard equipment on all 1968 GTO models. The top row of pictures (1 and 2) show the bumper approaching and then hitting the post. The middle sequence shows the end of the bumper crushing under the impact and then starting to rebound. In the bottom row the car has bounced away from the pole and the bumper is undamaged.

Loose fi... tion en... to ...everal Local Homes Damaged by Blazes

Pontiac firemen were kept busy yesterday as they responded to 18 calls, including eight actual fires, investigations and rescue runs.

An estimated $2,000 damage struck the roof of the Alex Sheriff home at 1010 Durand shortly after 5 p.m. Fire fighters remained at the scene for one hour and 45 minutes.

Damage to the one-story frame home was listed at $1,500 to the building and $500 to the contents.

The most costly fire yesterday occurred at a one-story frame home at 199 W. Princeton, according to firemen, who estimated damage at $5,000 to the building and $400 to the contents.

★ ★ ★

Owned and occupied by Tulli Bedsole, the home was valued at $13,600. Firemen answered the alarm at 5:46 a.m. and remained at the scene until 8.

MOTORCYCLE IGNITED

A water heater ignited a motorcycle starting a fire in a utility room at 348 W. Columbia, resulting in $2,300 damage to a one-story frame home owned and occupied by Gary Robertson.

Firemen fought the fire from 10:22 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. Damage was listed at $2,000 to the contents, $500 to the motorcycle and $300 to the building.

Another fire at the Park Inn Restaurant, 975 Orchard Lake, which broke out at 5:20 a.m., caused an estimated $1,000 damage to the contents and $500 to the building.

★ ★

An employe at the restaurant discovered the fire when she reported to work.

The fire originated in a deep fryer, firemen said.

SWIM BREAK — Steve Moore, physical activities director of the Pontiac Boys' Club, teaches Donald Johnson of 252 S. Sanford to float while Eric Light of 104 W. Rutgers looks on. Three times a week some 100 Boys' Club members are bused to the Oakland University pool for two hours of swimming, sponsored by the Downtown Kiwanis Club. Club members take turns so each boy is eligible to swim during the summer-long program. The program covers the club at 530 E. Pike and the extension at 124 W. Columbia.

Melee Flares in Washington

Oregon, Milwaukee Violence Subsiding

By the Associated Press

The fires and thrown rocks and bottles of racial violence struck Washington, D.C., today in a two and a half-hour long disturbance that brought roaming bands of Negroes to within a mile of the White House.

A police charge and a heavy rainfall broke up the groups who had surged north and northwest of the White House, Capitol and other landmarks, least one case, looting a liquor store.

★ ★ ★

A brick heaved through the windshield of a car seven blocks from the White House caused minor injuries to a fireman. There were reports of gunfire, but police later attributed the blasts to firecrackers exploding in garbage cans.

The Washington outbreak came as violence in Milwaukee and Portland, Ore., subsided.

MILWAUKEE QUIET

In Milwaukee, some 4,000 National Guardsmen appeared to have a firm rein on the disturbances that brought two shooting deaths and more than 100 injuries and 260 arrests Sunday and Monday.

An alleged sniper was arrested Monday night and a 34-year-old Negro woman appeared to suffer a heart attack as she fled from a fire-bombed building.

★ ★ ★

A curfew on the city was lifted temporarily but will be restored tonight.

Police in Portland, where the worst racial disturbance in Oregon's history blazed Sunday and Monday, reported the streets quiet. Negroes were ordered off corners by a loudspeaker truck and they complied within moments.

Some 30 arrests were made in Washington. Most of the violence was concentrated in a predominantly Negro district.

★ ★ ★

Other incidents hit Providence, R.I. and Erie, Pa. where racial disturbances flared two weeks ago.

In Providence, a man was shot and another stabbed but not seriously injured before a Negro section was closed off during a series of rock and bottle-throwing incidents. No arrests were made and police reported the disturbance "pretty well broken up" by midnight.

Largest Sweep in Delta

Allied Assault Kills 350 VC

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. and South Vietnamese forces have killed 350 Vietcong in the largest allied assault of the war in the Mekong Delta, field commanders in the operation reported today.

The U.S. Command in Saigon announced the massive ground and river operation by an estimated 10,000 troops was launched last Friday to clear out Vietcong whose mining of the main highway from the delta has raised food prices in Saigon. The announcement of the operation was withheld for five days for security reasons.

The U.S. Command said it had reports of 200 Vietcong killed and that U.S. casualties were 16 dead and 59 wounded. Unofficial reports from the field said 28 South Vietnamese troops had been killed and 50 wounded.

Elsewhere in South Vietnam, only light ground action was reported.

The air war in North Vietnam jumped back to normal scale Monday as the weather cleared and Navy fliers resumed full operations after the disruption caused by the fire aboard the carrier Forrestal.

U.S. fliers flew a total of 136 missions, 46 more than the 90 flown Sunday. Many of their targets were in the Hanoi-Haiphong area which had been protected by bad weather in recent weeks.

★ ★ ★

Two more American warplanes were lost, raising to 627 the number of U.S. combat planes reported lost over North Vietnam. Three crewmen were listed as missing.

Two U.S. Army helicopters also were destroyed in a collision which killed eight men near the coastal city of Tuy Hoa, 250 miles northeast of Saigon.

TROOPS IN SWEEP

Troops of the U.S. 9th and 25th Infantry divisions, South Vietnamese rangers and Marines and a U.S. Navy task force were taking part in the big delta sweep centered about 14 miles west of My Tho, one of the largest cities in the rich rice-producing area.

Lt. Gen. Fred C. Weyand, commander of Field Force II, said the force is trying to root out Vietcong who have been mining Highway 4, the main road over which rice and other farm products move to Saigon.

★ ★ ★

In the past 10 days, Weyand said, the Vietcong cut the road eight times, raising food prices in Saigon.

Troops of the South Vietnamese 7th Division began a reconnaissance of Route 4 last Wednesday. Two days later U.S. Navy barracks ships pushed up the My Tho River to land a brigade from the U.S. 9th Division in the flooded rice paddies south of the highway.

ENCIRCLED VC

The U.S. troops began closing in on elements of three hard-core Vietcong battalions. Two battalions of Vietnamese marines joined the sweep Sunday and "landed right on top of a Vietcong battalion," Weyand said.

He reported the Marines virtualy wiped out the 263rd Vietcong battalion and captured the deputy commander.

★ ★ ★

The assault, Operation Coronado II is a continuation of Coronado I, an all-American operation centered three miles north of My Tho that ended July 25. In Coronado I, the U.S. Command reported 478 Vietcong were killed and 57 weapons captured with 40 U.S. dead and 173 wounded.

On the demilitarized zone front, Communist gunners poured 40 rounds of mortar fire on a battalion command post of the 9th Marine Regiment just below the zone and wounded nine Marines.

AIR TARGETS

In the air attacks on North Vietnam Monday, key targets included the railroads on which Communist military supplies are shipped from Red China, fuel storage areas and SAM missile sites.

Pilots from the carrier Intrepid, which replaced the fire-ravaged Forrestal in the Gulf of Tonkin, reported destroying a boat yard near the city of Vinh, in the lower part of North Vietnam.

Benefits Bill Draft Nears House Unit Completion

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Ways and Means Committee hoped to finish drafting this week a scaled-down version of President Johnson's bill to increase Social Security benefits for 23 million Americans.

When the committee finishes, the bill will have cleared its most formidable hurdle on its trip through Congress.

Still, it is expected to undergo considerable change before final approval in the House and Senate, probably this fall.

The committee tentatively has decided on higher benefits amounting to a minimum of about 13 per cent. The lowest monthly payment anyone would get under the proposal would be $60 instead of the present $44 a month.

Johnson's 164-page bill, submitted Feb. 20, called for a minimum 15 per cent increase, an average hike of about 20 per cent for everyone. The minimum monthly payment would jump from $44 to $70 under his plan.

16 PCT. AVERAGE

The ways and means committee is heading toward average higher benefits of about 16 per cent, according to some bill-writers.

To pay for the benefits, all workers will pay more taxes. The increased payroll tax, shared by employes and employers, is necessary because of the soaring hospital costs of the Medicare program for people over 65.

As a result of these higher costs, the committee as scaled down the administration's request to cover all disabled workers under the age of 65 in the Medicare program.

★ ★ ★

Instead, the committee plans to include only workers over 50 disabled for two or more years.

ACCOMPANYING BOOSTS

The increased Social Security benefits will be accompanied by increases in the payroll tax, now 4.4 per cent of the first $6,600 of a worker's salary.

Both the employer and employe pay this rate, amounting to $290 each for a worker making $6,600 annually. This includes the tax for the Medicare program.

The committee has adopted informally a proposed three-step tax boost schedule that would begin next year on the first $7,800 of a worker's salary.

★ ★ ★

Both worker and employer would pay 4.6 per cent in 1968, 4.6 per cent in 1969 and 5.2 per cent in 1970.

★ ★ ★

In annual taxes, this means a payroll tax of $358 in 1968, $374 in 1969, and $406 in 1970 for workers making at least $7,800 in wages.

Hoffa Hearing Put to Aug. 14

CHICAGO (AP)—A hearing to determine whether government evidence obtained by wiretapping aided in the 1964 conviction of James R. Hoffa was continued Monday to Aug. 14.

Focus Attack on Slums, Noted Americans Urge

WASHINGTON (AP) — A group of prominent Americans says the U.S. must revise its goals in order to concentrate the attack on slum elimination.

The 22 leaders from business, labor, city government, churches and the civil rights movement urged Congress to reexamine national priorities "with a commitment of national resources equal to the dimensions of the problems we face."

★ ★ ★

"This crisis requires a full new dimension in both the public and private sectors, working together for jobs, housing, education and the other needs of our cities," they said in a statement released by Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York.

Lindsay was instrumental in forming the group, which said the riots in American cities were part of an atmosphere in which "millions of Americans are forming attitudes that could mean disaster to our social structure."

While the group condemned the lawlessness of rioting, it said the actions of a "small fraction" of the ghettos should not "blind us to the absolute necessity of moving dramatically and immediately to correct the desperate condition of our urban centers."

The group said an urban coalition emergency convocation will be held in Washington in late August, with 1,000 leading citizens discussing the crisis of the cities.

In addition to Lindsay, those signing the statement included banker David Rockefeller, President I. W. Abel of the Steelworkers Union, Whitney M. Young Jr. of the Urban League, Arthur S. Flemming, president of the National Council of Churches; the Most Rev. Paul Tanner of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops; and Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers.
