Senate Condemns McCarthy, 67-22

Brother Slams State Testimony Pointing to Sam

Dr. Steve Contradicts 20 Assertions Made by Prosecution

CLEVELAND (INS)—The defense chipped away at the foundation of the state's case against Dr. Sam Sheppard today in an effort to make it fall apart.

The accused wife-killer's attorneys hoped to use as the chief "wrecker," Dr. Sam's older brother, Dr. Stephen Sheppard.

Stephen contradicted flatly yesterday 20 points made by the prosecution witnesses in testimony by which the state seeks to send the osteopath to the electric chair for murdering his wife, Marilyn.

The first witness for the defense, he took the stand after it lost a bid for dismissal of the indictment against Dr. Sam for the Fourth of July bludgeon slaying.

Dr. Steve disputed the state's medical expert on the extent of his brother's injuries. He hit at testimony by a fingerprint authority. He differed with police on the position of the body, and contended his brother's jacket was on the floor and not neatly folded, as the state claims.

In effect, he called certain prosecution witnesses liars on key points, and insinuated that his younger brother was being framed by false and distorted testimony and evidence.

Chief Defense Counsel William J. Corrigan called Dr. Steve a major witness who would get extensive questioning in an effort to "show the inconsistencies, the weaknesses and the holes in the prosecution case."

The most important testimony given by the 34-year-old general surgeon was that his brother had suffered a brain and neck injury in a struggle with the killer and was "not his normal self" on the day he gave conflicting statements to police.

Here are the highlights of Dr.

Highway Program Boosted by Dondero

DETROIT (INS) — Rep. George A. Dondero (R-Mich) today called on the state's rural population to back the multi-million dollar road - building program now being mapped.

The Royal Oak Republican told the closing session of the Michigan Road Builders Association that the current federal highway aid program places major emphasis on highway needs of cities where the most serious traffic problems exist.

Dondero said this was in contrast to the emphasis of the past which concentrated road construction in rural areas where fewer traffic problems are encountered.

U.S. Asks U.N. to Help Free 11

Lodge, Allies Discuss Way to Secure Release of China Captives

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United States pressed today for U.N. action to free 11 American airmen jailed by Red China on spy charges. The move brought quick response from 15 U.S. Allies who fought in the Korean War.

U.S. Chief Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., after a high-level meeting in Washington, called the Allies into emergency session last night to discuss the speediest course of action. He voiced confidence the U.N. would support any move the Americans might decide upon.

President Eisenhower told newsmen in Washington yesterday he did not see "how the United Nations can possibly disabuse itself of a feeling of responsibility in this matter, and retain its self-respect." Similar views have been expressed by congressmen. The airmen flew under U.N. colors.

Informed sources said Eisenhower may underscore his interest in the case by sending Secretary of State Dulles here to take a personal hand.

After meeting with the Allies, Lodge told newsmen: "We are going to act to do everything we can to keep faith with these men. They are U.N. men as well as U.S. men. This organization can't go on if it does not stand by people who go to bat for it when it gets into trouble."

Slaying Witness Knifed to Death

Phenix City Man Killed Shortly After Testifying on Patterson Murder

PHENIX CITY, Ala. (AP)—A witness who may have seen A. L. Patterson's killer was knifed to death here last night after making urgent telephone calls to the sheriff and the newly elected attorney general, Patterson's son.

Johnnie F. Griffin, 35-year-old Phenix City cafe employe, was stabbed in the throat 24 hours or more after he had testified before an emergency grand jury which is considering murder indictments in the Patterson killing.

National Guardsmen still patrolling the city five months after Patterson's death arrested a 16-year-old youth and said he admitted the stabbing, blaming the other man for provoking a fight.

Col. James N. Brown, military chief of police, said there appeared to be no connection between Griffin's death and his appearance before the grand jury Wednesday.

Another officer, Lt. Charles Cook, quoted the youth, Jerry C. Washington, as saying Griffin hit him during an argument on the street and that he slashed back with a knife. Washington was taken into custody four hours later at his home.

But John Patterson, who becomes attorney general of Alabama next Jan. 17 in place of his crusading father who had been nominated to the office before his murder, said he wanted to "look into" the Griffin stabbing thoroughly.

Young Patterson called the witness' death "a tough break" for the investigation of his father's slaying.

Ziegenhardts Pay Judgment

Lapeer Pair Surrender in Long Battle Over Insurance Levy

Two aged Lapeer farmers surrendered yesterday.

Chris and Paul Ziegenhardt gave up on a principle which has carried their case to the State Supreme Court several times, and had them evicted from their homestead more than once in stormy sessions with the Lapeer sheriff and State Police.

They deposited with Lapeer County clerk's office $1,400, to satisfy a judgment against a 160 acre farm they own adjoining their former homesite.

It was their refusal to pay a $280 assessment after the failure of a mutual fire insurance company in 1935 that touched off the long and colorful proceedings which brought national attention to the pair and their plight.

Two years ago, Mrs. Grace White won a $3,750 judgment from the Ziegenhardts, for rent during the period she owned the farm and it was occupied by the defiant pair.

She had purchased the farm at a tax sale when the Ziegenhardts failed to pay the insurance assessment.

When the brothers were finally evicted, Mrs. White levied on their livestock and equipment in order to collect the rent judgment. Sold at auction, the equipment fell $1,400 short of the judgment, and led Mrs. White to seek sale of the adjoining 160 acres of farmland owned by the brothers.

A sheriff's sale had been scheduled, before the money was deposited. Mrs. White will get the money if the judgment of the Lapeer Circuit Court is upheld by the Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court is scheduled to review the case in January.

Coldest Day Hits Pontiac Area Today

The coldest day of the season hit Pontiac this morning as the mercury fell to 78 degrees between 5 and 6 a. m. The previous low was recorded Nov. 23.

Michigan was one of the coldest spots in the nation last night, with a low of zero reported at Cadillac and only 8 above at Pellston. Other lows were at Flint, with 14; Houghton, 10; Gladwin, 12; Marquette, 16; and Escanaba, 17.

The forecast for tomorrow is not much change in temperature with a few snow flurries likely tonight. The U. S. Weather Bureau says the low tonight in the Pontiac area will be 21 to 25 with a high Saturday of 33-37. Tomorrow night will be slightly warmer with an expected low of near 25.

Yesterday's high was 29 degrees with a trace of snow recorded.

This morning in downtown Pontiac, the thermometer registered 20 degrees at 8 o'clock, rising to 28 by 1 p.m.

Vatican Reports Pope Improved, but Still Ailing

Inflammation of Stomac Membrane Blamed for Sudden Seizure

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius XII, gravely ill with a "peritonital irritation attended by abdominal tension," has improved this morning and his condition is "satisfactory."

Dr. Riccardo Galeazzi-Lisi, the Pope's personal physician, announced this in a special bulletin.

The doctor's announcement came after an anxious night during which grave fears were felt for the life of the 78-year-old head of the Roman Catholic Church.

The peritoneum is the smooth, transparent membrane that lines the cavity of the abdomen and is reflected inward over the abdominal and pelvic viscera.

The statement referred only to an inflammation and not to peritonitis.

The bulletin, read to newsmen assembled in the Vatican Press Office, said:

"Yesterday afternoon, Dec. 2, the condition of the Holy Father suddenly worsened because of a peritonital irritation accompanied by abdominal tension.

"Clinical examination and X-rays, made immediately, did not show anything alarming.

"We immediately began necessary therapeutical treatment.

"The night has passed relatively tranquilly.

"The general condition of the Pope can be said to be satisfactory."

However, Vatican sources made it known he is still gravely ill.

The bulletin made no mention of a heart attack which the Pope reportedly suffered yesterday. A Vatican press spokesman, in the first report given out yesterday on the pontiff's condition, said that

Nominees Win OK in Senate

Flock of Appointments Approved Before Close of Special Session

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate confirmed a flock of President Eisenhower's noncontroversial nominations last night before quitting work until next month.

But Sen. Langer (R-ND) announced he would fight the nomination to the Supreme Court of U. S. Circuit Judge John Marshall Harlan of New York next year. Langer, now chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee will become ranking Republican member of that group when the Democrats take over in January.

One of the Senate's last acts of the session was confirmation of a host of ambassadors, federal judges, attorneys and marshals. It approved more than 10,000 promotions in the armed services and hundreds of similar upgradings in the public health and foreign services.

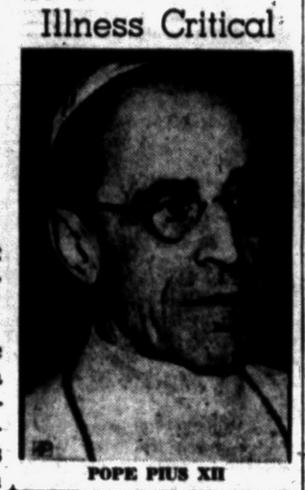

Major nominations confirmed included that of Dr. Willard F. Libby, a University of Chicago scientist, as a member of the Atomic Energy Commission. Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) announced he was dropping his opposition and confirmation followed.

Russia Blasts Paris Accords

Says West Must Drop Pacts to Negotiate on Germany, Security

MOSCOW (AP) — With agreement for setting up an eight-nation Communist defense system signed and sealed, the Soviet Union stressed today if the West wants to negotiate on Germany and European security it must abandon the Paris pacts to rearm West Germany.

A declaration on integrating the armed forces of seven European Communist nations — including East Germany—with those of the Soviet Union under a single command was signed last night in the Kremlin after a four-day Soviet-sponsored security conference here. The declaration said these plans will be put into effect at a later meeting if the West proceeds with ratification of the Paris agreements.

The Communist party newspaper Pravda said:

"The ruling circles of the United States, Britain and France keep on repeating that they intend to revive militarism in West Germany and only then discuss the German question at a four-power conference.

"But from representatives of the peaceful states at the Moscow conference they have received once more a clear answer: Agreement on the German question is quite possible but only in case that plans for revival of German militarism are abandoned.

"If the Paris agreements are ratified the peaceful states will take practical steps ensuring their own security."

Zwicker Count Dropped Before Final Balloting

Wisconsin Republican Is First Solon Rebuked Since 1929

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) stood condemned for his conduct today by a 67-22 vote of his Senate colleagues.

The judgment of the Senate was handed down late yesterday and after the vote was in McCarthy told newsmen he was "very happy to get this circus over with."

The vote adopting a resolution condemning McCarthy's conduct on two counts capped an extraordinary session of the Senate, begun Nov. 8, that became increasingly tense and bitter.

On the final vote Republican senators divided evenly, 22-22. A solid lineup of 44 Democrats voted for passage of the resolution. So did Sen. Morse of Oregon, the Senate's lone Independent.

Thus McCarthy became the first senator since 1929 to suffer an official rebuke from his colleagues for his actions, and the fourth in Senate history.

Despite the sharp Republican split on the issue, some GOP senators said they did not believe it would leave lasting scars within the party.

Sen. Bennett (R-Utah), author of one of the counts adopted by the Senate, said in an interview that "I don't think the apparent rift will be too great or too permanent.

Sen. Carlson (R-Kan), a member of the special committee which recommended censure against McCarthy, said he believes the Republicans will "pull together" once the next session starts, adding it would be "more necessary because then we will be the minority party."

McCarthy, asked if there were any basis to reports he might break away from the Republican party to form a new party, replied "there's nothing to it."

"I am a Republican and intend to remain a Republican," he said. "And I will do my work within the Republican party because that's the best place."

The Republican leadership in the Senate divided on the resolution of condemnation. Voting against it were Sens. Knowland (Calif), the majority leader, Bridges (NH), the temporary president of the Senate, and Millikin (Colo), chairman of the conference of all Republican senators. Voting for it were Sens. Ferguson (Mich), chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, and Saltonstall (Mass), the assistant GOP floor leader.

Knowland said he regarded the issue as a matter to be deter-

No Deaths Dec. 15 Is Aim

Seek Support of Motorists, Pedestrians for Safety Day

By JOSEPH K. SFAIR

With S-D Day only 12 days away, authorities are encouraging serious preparation by motorists and pedestrians. An added appeal also was made by the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce and municipal judges for personal support of the national event Dec. 15.

While every community in the U. S. is getting set for the presidentially proclaimed Safe Driving Day, Pontiac area officials are urging even greater efforts to meet the worthy purpose of this dramatic event.

Clyle R. Haskill, county chairman of S-D Day committee, praised the reaction of groups and motorists so far to appeals supporting the event, which call for a 24-hour period without one single traffic accident throughout the country.

"We know that on Dec. 15, Oakland County residents will be standing shoulder to shoulder with every American to accomplish the purpose of the "Safe Driving Day," said Haskill.

Alarmed by the fact that Michigan had 1,263 persons killed here in the first nine months of this year, MMilo J. Cross, president of the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce noted:

"The real cost of traffic accidents is the most precious thing we own—that's human life and it may be yours."

He further referred to the cahmber's Safety Committee which has long spearheaded traffic-safety efforts by sooperating with all phases of safety programs.

The state accident report also includes 39,772 persons injured in 131,115 auto mishaps for the first nine months of 1954.

Municipal Judges Maurice E. Finnegan and Cecil McCallum's joint appeal was incited by five deaths, 495 injured and 1,172 auto accidents in Pontiac so far this year.

Judge Finds No Monopoly

Dismisses Antitrust Case Against Du Pont and GM

CHICAGO (AP)—U. S. Dist. Judge Walter J. Labuy today dismissed the government's civil antitrust suit against the Du Pont interests, General Motors Corp. and the United States Rubber Co.

Judge Labuy held that the government had "failed to prove conspiracy, monopolization, a restraint of trade, or any reasonable probability of a restraint."

"The essence of the conspiracy and restraint which the government charged and sought to prove in this case," he said, "is the alleged limitation on General Motors' ability to deal as it pleased with competitors of Du Pont and United States Rubber."

Labuy's opinion said "the court finds that there has not been, nor is there at present, a conspiracy to restrain or to monopolize trade, and no limitation or restraint upon General Motors' freedom to deal freely and fully with competitors of Du Pont and United States Rubber."

He continued "there is no limitation or restraint upon the freedom of General Motors to deal with its chemical discoveries, no restraint or monopolization of the General Motors market, and no restraint or monopolization of the trade and commerce between Du Pont and United States Rubber."

The government has described the action as the biggest antitrust case in U.S. history.

Post Office Set to Handle Rush of Christmas Mail

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM — Wheels of activity are humming more than full time at the Post Office and Acting Postmaster Ronald W. Reese is asking that residents spare no delay in mailing their Christmas packages.

An added innovation to facilitate customer services this year will be the use of the former Wilson Pontiac-Cadillac agency at 275 N. Woodward for incoming parcel post. Necessary equipment will be set up there in a few days, Reese said.

He stressed wrapping and tying packages securely, particularly breakables and reminded that they should be legibly addressed.

As the season progresses post offices throughout the country will become more and more bogged down, but this package mailing schedule can be followed now, said Reese:

Allow 6 to 7 days for gifts sent to the West Coast or Pacific Northwest; 4 to 5 days to the South; and 3 days to the East except for larger cities.

Starting Dec. 10 the post office will operate from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. and, if necessary, will be open one or two Sundays before Christmas.

Those mailing Christmas cards will now find two letter boxes directly in front of the building, one for out-of-town letters, the other for local. Cards in unsealed envelopes and with no handwritten message other than the sender's name inside, may be mailed for 2 cents.

Reese recommended building the cards into these two categories and labeling them. He added that after Dec. 10 a special table will be set up inside the building, with someone to take cards for mailing.

Other clowns will be driving a "two-faced" car, which has two front-ends, and a bucking auto, which behaves like a wild rodeo bronc.

Sprinkled throughout the line-of-march will be the Oxford, Avondale, Waterford, Lake Orion and Walled Lake High School bands, plus a massed band of Pontiac junior high school musicians.

Another musical feature sure to attract youngsters' attention will be the Detroit Edison Co.'s calliope.

The 24 religious floats depicting the Christmas story will be presented in two sections.

Floats will represent the Annunciation, the Nativity Scene, the three wise men, angels and shepherds among other Christmas scenes.

Santa Claus and a brace of Alaskan reindeer will wind up the parade. And after the march, Santa and his team will be stationed next to the Oakland County courthouse so youngsters can talk to him and pet the animals.

Assisting the Pontiac Police Dept. along the parade route (S. Saginaw and Franklin, out Oakland to Sanderson) will be the Pontiac Naval Reserve Unit.

"A tremendous amount of work has been done by the churches, schools, bands, parade committees and staff," said John A. Riley, parade marshal. "I know we are going to give a wonderful show."

Riley reminded parents to bundle up the youngsters against the December chill. The parade is expected to last 45 minutes.

He also suggested that mothers and dads review some of the stories which will be depicted by the toyland floats.

These include "The Shoemaker and the Elves," "Robinhood," "Alice in Wonderland," "Mrs. Santa, Hard Rock, Coco and Joe," "The Old Woman in the Shoe" and "'Twas the Night Before Christmas."

Groups participating in the toyland float section are Wever Junior High School, LeBaron School, Pontiac High School, Baldwin School PTA, Wilson School, Lincoln Junior High School, Webster School, Hawthorne School, Eastern Junior High School, Willis School PTA, Boys' Club of Pontiac and the Oakland County Children's Home.

Religious organizations taking part are First Baptist Church, Women's Christian Temperance Union, Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church, Free Methodist Church and New Bethel Missionary Baptist Church.

Others are First Presbyterian Church, Baldwin Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church, Grace Lutheran Church, First Methodist Church, First Congregational Church, United Missionary Church and St. John's Lutheran Church.

Floats were also constructed by Bethany Baptist Church, All Saints Episcopal Church, Catholic Churches of Pontiac, First Church of God, Baldwin Avenue Methodist Church, Macedonia Baptist Church, Greek Orthodox Church and Trinity Baptist Church.

Completing the religious section are First Church of the Nazarene, St. Trinity Lutheran Church, Central Methodist Church and the Pontiac Knights of Columbus Council.

Gunmen Tie Up, Rob Attendant

Youthful Trio Threaten to Return to Gas Station at Maple, Telegraph

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP —After telling Wayne Taylor, 28, lone gas station attendant at Reeves Standard Service, Maple and Telegraph Rds., this morning, to "Behave yourself or you'll get killed," three youthful gunmen tied him with friction tape and robbed the cash register and open safe of $713.

Taylor worked himself loose sufficiently to dial the telephone operator, who dispatched police to the scene.

Taylor said two of the men held .38 caliber revolvers on him and bragged that they would be back every week.

But not for a repeat performance on Taylor, who told police he was quitting his job.

The attendant said the three drove off in a 1946 maroon Plymouth. He described his assailants as from 18 to 21, one about 5 feet 7 inches with brown hair and a small moustache, wearing blue jeans.

Another youth was described as 5 feet 8 inches tall with dark hair and sideburns, slim build, and wearing a dark jacket; while a third was short and was wearing a sport jacket.

mined by each senator on the basis of his own convictions, rather than as a party question. A similar view was expressed throughout by the Democratic leader, Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas.

* * *

President Eisenhower declined comment on the Senate's action at his news conference yesterday. He said it was a matter of the Senate determining what is required in preserving its dignity. No one else is in it, he said.

The resolution, as adopted by the Senate in its final form, condemned McCarthy's conduct on these two counts:

1. That he had obstructed "the constitutional processes of the Senate" by failing to cooperate with and by repeatedly abusing a Senate elections subcommittee and its members in their investigation of his financial affairs in 1951-52.

2. That he "acted contrary to senatorial ethics and tended to bring the Senate into dishonor and disrepute" by his attacks on the special committee that recommended his censure and by calling the Senate's special session, among other things, "a lynch party."

* * *

The second count, offered by Bennett, was adopted in place of a count recommended by the special committee to condemn McCarthy for "intemperate abuse" of Brig. Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker.

The count based on McCarthy's treatment of Zwicker at a closed-door hearing in New York City last Feb. 18 was never brought to a vote after strong opposition to it became evident in the debate. Bennett's count was substituted instead by a 64-23 vote, and then approved 64-24.

Reminded of his earlier characterization of the session as a "lynch party," McCarthy was asked if he felt like he had been lynched.

"No," he replied smilingly. "But I am disappointed with my Democratic colleagues. The Democrats went down the line in voting for censure although they said it would be a judicial proceeding."

But he said he has "no personal feeling against anyone who voted on this matter." He himself voted "present" on the final roll call.

McCarthy referred to the Senate's action as "censure" more than once in talking to newsmen, despite some controversy in the Senate itself as to whether he had been censured.

* * *

Sen. Watkins, chairman of the special committee, said he considered "condemn" an even stronger word. So did Sen. Stennis (D-Miss), another member of the special committee.

But Sen. Case (R-SD), a third member of the committee, said he thought "censure" was stronger than "condemn."

The vote to condemn McCarthy's conduct did not strip him of any of his rights and privileges as a senator. Nor did it deprive him of his chairmanships of the Senate Government Operations Committee and its investigations subcommittee, although he stands to lose these when the Democrats organize the Senate in January.

Pope Pius Improved, Vatican Announces

his heart had been affected. Later the Vatican omitted any further references to the condition of the heart.

There were also unconfirmed reports he had a second, lighter attack last night.

At 8 a.m. today a Vatican spokesman announced that the pontiff was "now resting" after a "difficult night."

Msgr. Angelo dell'Acqua, substitute secretary of state, said shortly afterwards:

"The Holy Father's condition is still grave. During the night he was able to rest for some time."

The Pope continued to suffer from intense gastritis, nausea and hiccups for which he has been under treatment. There were indications that a gastric ulcer might be aggragating his condition.

Msgr. dell'Acqua said no operation had been performed and there was no need for one. Emergency X-rays were made yesterday and a surgeon called in to see if an operation might ease the weakened pontiff's condition.

Celemente Cardinal Micara, the Pope's vicar general for the city of Rome, called on the more than 400 million Catholics everywhere to pray for the pontiff's recovery. Special prayers were said in all Rome churches.

Brother Contradicts State's Testimony

Steve's answers from the witness box and the statements made by state's witnesses before the "life or death" jury:

1. He swore Dr. Sam had brain and spinal cord injuries, and all the teeth in his upper jaw were knocked loose.

Dr. Richard Hexter, a medical expert for the state, said his examination disclosed no abrasians, concussions or swelling in the back of his neck.

3. Dr. Steve asserted the osteopath's tan corduroy jacket was lying on the floor and he stepped on it when he arrived shortly after the murder was reported.

Prosecution witnesses in the house before Dr. Steve came in have testified the jacket was folded neatly across the end of the couch on which Dr. Sam was sleeping before the murder.

3. Dr. Hexter "did not remove the (osteopathic) collar" around Dr. Sam's neck at the Bay View Hospital the afternoon of July 4th when he examined the accused killer.

The veteran physician told the jury of seven men and five women on Monday he removed the collar and "made a careful examination of the neck."

4. The first defense witness contended his brother's medical kit found overturned in the living room had a "smooth surface."

Detective Michael Grabowski, a fingerprint expert, swore the bag was a "pebbly" one and recognizable prints could not be "lifted."

5. In a further effort to back the defense contention of police blundering, Dr. Steve said the "pebbly" or "Rough"-surfaced medical kit was in the jeep in the garage of the Sheppard Bay Village home.

6. He claimed that the murder victim was lying in a "spreading pool of blood when he saw her body.

Coroner Samuel R. Gerber asserted the blood had "completely dried" when he examined Marilyn's body.

Dr. Sam was shocked and dazed — " punchy and incoherent"—when he was taken to the hospital.

Several prosecution witnesses — police and neighbors—asserted the defendant was coherent and did not appear to be in any difficulty.

8. Dr. Steve swore his brother was so badly injured he had to be "dragged" by two physicians into a car to be taken to the hospital.

Police at the scene said he walked to the "ambulance-auto" without any difficulty.

9. He found Marilyn Sheppard with her hands outstretched and indicated the body was moved.

SANTA AND THE MARS KING

Chapter One
SANTA AND THE KINGS OF MARS

Once upon a time there lived a little boy named Tom. He was a very curious child. He always wanted to know things. He was always asking questions.

One night a strange thing happened in the town where Tom lived. A farmer was worried about a sick calf. He got out of bed and started toward the barn where the animal lay.

As the farmer, carrying a lantern, crossed his yard, a sudden breeze snuffed out the flame. At the same time a mysterious light filled the whole yard and the farmer heard a whirring sound as if a giant top was spinning.

The farmer was very frightened. He threw himself on the ground and buried his head in his arms. When finally he dared to look the light was gone, the whirring sound had stopped. All the farmer could see was a speck of light disappearing over the top of the barn.

The farmer raced into his house. He called the police and the firemen and all his neighbors and friends and relations.

"A flying saucer!" he screamed. "I've seen a flying saucer!"

Most everyone in the town heard about the thing one way or another and went out to the farm to hear the strange story of the farmer's flying saucer.

Tom went too. He was just about popping with excitement. Of course he'd heard about flying saucers and read about them. But this was the first time he'd ever known someone who really had seen one.

"What could it be? What could it be?" he went around asking everybody who would listen to him.

But no one had the answer. Some said it was a rocket from a foreign country. Some said it was light reflections. Some said the farmer was silly and hadn't seen anything at all.

For three or four weeks people talked about the thing. Then, gradually, they forgot about it because they couldn't figure out what it was.

But Tom couldn't forget it. In fact, he thought of nothing else.

"Oh, if I'd been there!" he thought. "If I'd only seen it myself!"

He used to slip out of his house at night after everyone had gone to sleep. He would walk out to the country where the farmer lived and lie in a field and wait and wait and hope the saucer would come back.

But it never did.

Tom had a friend. He was a smiley little elf who stood in the center of the fountain in the city park. He was made of stone and he had posed in the fountain for many years, long before Tom was born.

Tom called the elf Handsome because he was so ugly that Tom felt sorry for him. For as long as Tom could remember he had gone to the park when he was lonely or worried. He would sit there on the steps of the fountain and tell Handsome what was on his mind.

Of course Handsome never answered. How could he? He was made of stone. But he always listened and that was the important thing.

Since the farmer's strange sight, Tom went at least once a day to the park to tell the elf of his great curiosity about the flying saucer.

"I've just got to know what it was," he would say. "I just can't stand not knowing." And he would recite over and over all the things it might be and all the things it couldn't be.

This went on for a long time. And then one day the unexpected happened. Not only did Handsome listen—Handsome spoke.

"Tom," he said, "if I wanted to know something as badly as you do, I'd find someone who flies and get the answer from him. Maybe even someone like Santa Claus."

Police 'Steal' Car Keys

NORTHAMPTON, Mass. (UP)—Despite threats of court action by citizens, police are carrying out orders to remove keys from unattended automobiles to discourage car thefts. The police department would welcome a test case to determine whether such action constitutes a legitimate duty or an act of larceny.

Port Research Set by Students

Collegians to Undertake Detailed Examination of Buffalo Facilities

BUFFALO, N.Y. (UP)—Under a new program, college students will help to shape the future of Buffalo's Lake Erie port.

Students from the University of Buffalo, Canisius College and Buffalo State Teachers College will do research on the port as part of their school work and as research trainees with the Division of Port.

Dr. Marvin A. Rapp, consultant to the division who organized the program, says the students will do primary research on any aspect of the port they choose.

Their studies may range from the history of the port to a survey of the impact of the St. Lawrence Seaway on the Niagara Frontier.

"The future of the port rests in the hands of our younger citizens," Rapp points out. "It is important that we have a number of young persons trained to help guide future decisions and policies for the port.

"The program also will be of value to the students. It will enable them to learn about the mechanics of city government. And, their studies should gear in closely with their schoolwork because the port has implications in many fields—economics, sociology, geography, engineering and history."

Rapp explains that the program will have immediate value to the city, which, he said, could never afford to hire researchers to do the amount of work the students will do over the years.

Say Tobacco Chewers Preferred in Woodland

SALEM, Ore. (UP)—"What we need," said James Walker, chief of Oregon's forest protection division, "are more tobacco chewers and fewer careless cigarette flippers. I am certain our forests would be much safer."

Carelessly tossed cigarettes are the greatest source of man-caused fires.

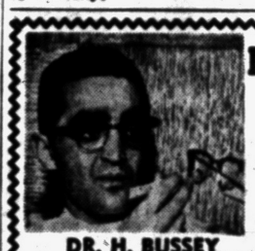

The refinements of civilization have added to the fire hazard. In the days when "roll your own" smokes were the rule, the timberlands were safer, foresters said, because such a cigarette usually went out as soon as you stopped puffing. The "tailor-mades" can smoulder to the tip end.

Unhappy Vacation

SOUTH ROYALTON, Vt. (UP)—It was a short vacation of Dr. Colin M. Robertson and his family this past summer. His son, Malcom, developed an ear infection, son Jimmy stepped on a broken bottle and he himself suffered a recurrence of a throat infection. The family returned home after a one-day camping trip near Sherbrooke, Que.

Thief Gets Cold Cash

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (UP)—Elizabeth Wetmore discovered her refrigerator wasn't burglar-proof. She told police someone stole $100 in cash she had been keeping cool along with her milk and fruit.

Christmas Charities and Social Events Fill High Schools' Pre-Holiday Weeks

Christmas activities seem to be taking up most of the high school students' time these days, as Marlene, Vicky and Marcee report many charitable and social events taking place at their respective schools.

St. Michael

Michaelites were busy this week as the annual Christmas play was uppermost in their minds. The patron drive for the play is in full swing with classes and individuals competing with one another. Leading the line of patron solicitors is Mary Hubarth, a junior. Also keeping with the spirit of Christmas is a float prepared by Mr. Rohrback and featuring "cherubs." Joann Rohrback, Yvonne Koprince, Rose Weishaar and Janice Pacquette.

Michaelite CYO'ers have been kept busy by Father Immel, dihelped him sort and box clothes for Korea. They will be sent to orphans and needy children overseas.

MARCEE

Senior classmen enjoyed the Wednesday morning visit of Dr. Maurice Thome, chiropodist, who spoke on the advantages, qualifications, scholastic requirements and opportunities for advancement in the field of chiropody. Dr. Thome followed this with a question and answer period.

The spiritual side of the ledger was balanced by the Novena, starting nine days before the feast of the Immaculate Conception, Dec. 8, in which all high school students are participating. All the girls of the Children of Mary Society voted Wednesday for the girl who will crown the Virgin's statue on the closing of the Novena.

Socially, Michaelites haven't been dormant either. The Crock-a-dolls are busily wielding paint brushes, needles and thread to repair discarded toys to donate to a charitable foundation for Christmas. At their last meeting, they decided upon Monday as their group Communion day. Social-minded seniors, Joan Dark, Marlene Cook, Pat Kucera, Honor Duross, Ella Powers, Janet Fenlon, and Marge Hensel enjoyed an evening at the home of classmate, Dorothy Burch, last Saturday. An evening of records and TV was enjoyed by the group and refreshments were served.

The Sodality seems to have unending energy, as Sodalists embarked on a charity crusade this week. Twelve members mailed their applications to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital here to help out when they are needed.

Classrooms are preparing for Christmas by organizing projects for the needy. Freshmen are sponsoring a cupcake sale to benefit the missions. Sophomores are packing a box of food, candy and toys to send to a needy family. Juniors are sending bundles to their adopted missionary as are seniors, who have just sent their box to Brother Joseph in India.

Seniors were recently given the assignment to write an essay on the advantage of attending a Catholic college, as opposed to a secular institution. The top essays, those chosen to be printed in the school paper, were those written by Georgianna Bunnerson and Daye Smith.

Michaelite reporters Loretta Lauinger, Mary Singles and Elizabeth Klinck, plan to attend a Teen Reporter Field Trip to the Clinton Woolen Mills, Clinton, Mich. This is sponsored by the Archdiocesan Parochial School Office on Dec. 10.

St. Frederick

"Standing Room Only" was the space available in Church this week as the annual Dec. 8 Novena which started Tuesday brought everyone to Mass and Communion. The entire school has joined in the Novena, which is a bigger success than it has been in years. The students of St. Fred's are making this last tribute to Our Blessed Mother the best for the close of her Marian Year.

Coach Hulslander's freshman science class boarded two buses last week and visited the Cranbrook Museum. Just how much was learned on the jaunt the coach will find out by quizzing his scientific - minded students the next few days.

MARLENE

The cheerleaders were taken to the cleaners this week . . .that is, their uniforms were.

The seniors are finding those white sweaters hard to keep spotless, and their skirts are a little muddy from cheering on rainy nights. But the girls say the uniforms will be clean and fresh for the first basketball game with St. Rita's on Dec. 10.

Mother Anna Marie, the General Superior of the Immaculate Heart of Mary nuns, visited St. Fred's this week, and from what we hear, enjoyed her visit very much.

When Sister Berchmans announced that she would hold Christmas play rehearsals during the last two hours in the afternoon, which are both English class periods, the seniors went into hysterics at the thought of no classes for three weeks.

But when Mother Christine entered the room carrying English books in her hand, the silence and sadness that spread over the room was unbearable.

"I knew we would never get a three week vacation from English," chorused several of the seniors.

Seniors have decided on the class play, but the name and the type of drama is being kept a secret. The only thing the seniors will tell is that rehearsals will begin in a few weeks.

The choral members walked down the halls this wkeek with their shoulders thrown back and chests greatly expanded, and rightly so, as the Pontiac State Bank has asked for a return visit to sing Christmas carols for a radio broadcast.

It seems if we can't be known for sports, we are getting to be known for our wonderful Choral Club. Over this last comment, basketball captain, Jerry Bradley, is making an awful face, so before I'm pounced on, that's all for this week.

Pontiac High

PHS students are looking forward to the forthcoming all-school band program which will be presented next Thursday, and are talking about the play, "On Borrowed Time," which was presented Wednesday and Thursday with one more performance tonight. Seniors are brushing up on what they've covered this semester as they prepare for final exams.

Clubs have been preparing for the Christmas season with increased activity and plans for parties. The Retailing and Office Club had two representatives from Michigan Bell Telephone at a meeting Thursday and are completing plans for the State Retailing convention Jan. 7.

The Future Nurses Club recently held a Mother's Tea, with Grace B. Wolf, founder of the Future Nurses Club of America, as their guest speaker. The debate squad placed third in their second Saginaw Valley Conference tournament.

Members of Quill and Scroll Society, honorary journalism organizations, have elected officers. New president is Beverly Barkley, assisted by vice president, Mary Mapley. Sharon Hubbell is secretary and John Moreau is treasurer. Initiation of new members has been decided for the last week in February.

The Linnean Society, PHS biology club, has recently elected officers, too! Dick Barger is president, Irene Kamanchas is vice president, and Barb Kenny, secretary. Treasurer is Mary Kennedy, and sergeant-at-arms is Dick Cotterman. The club plans to attend open house at the Botanical Gardens in Ann Arbor Dec. 12. Friends and parents are invited to attend. Project for the semester is taking inventory of the PHS biology department. At a meeting Thursday, plans for a Christmas party were made.

VICKI

Last Monday, Pontiac High girls attended the opening session of city league basketball. Teams are to be organized, and inter-team competition will continue throughout the season.

Visitors have been seen throughout the halls this week, as a number of dogs took a fancy to the brick tepee. Despite their being put out, they were seen again late in the week.

Wednesday, Student Union members were treated to an assembly by pianist, Frederick Sjobian.

Radio Workshop is planning to give a Christmas basket to a needy family this year.

JoAnn VanTassel, Marlene Crocker and Jerry Young will make a list of articles that the basket will be comprised of, and Workshoppers will donate them. A Christmas party is planned for Dec. 18 at the home of Barbara Hess, Vera Mae Adams, club advisor, announced.

G.A.A. (Girl's Athletic Association) has planned to hold its initiations at their Christmas party, the date of which is still undecided. This semester's officers are president, Jackie Thraser; vice president, Kathie McClelland; treasurer, Cecille Dumbrigue; and JoAnn VanTassel handles miscellaneous duties.

Wants 'Cold War' Term Changed to 'Cold Peace'

NEW YORK (AP)—Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery says "cold peace" would be a better name than "cold war" for the West's relations with Russia.

"Our object is peace. This cannot be stated too clearly or too often," the deputy supreme commander of Allied forces in Europe, told members of the English-speaking Union and the Foreign Policy Assn. in a speech last night.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTATION—In costume for the Christmas presentation of the sacred play, "And the Name of the Virgin Was Mary," are Patricia Sears as the Blessed Virgin, left; Mary Walsh as Mary Magdalen, center; and Ronald Mead as St. Joseph. The play will be given in the St. Michael Parish Hall Dec. 12 and 13.

St. Mike's Gives Christmas Play Honoring Virgin

St. Michael actors and actresses are appropriately closing the Marian Year of 1954 with a Christmas presentation of the sacred play, "And the Name of the Virgin Was Mary."

The thematic music of this drama about the Blessed Virgin was composed by Rev. Michael J. O'Reilly. It will be presented in the Parish Hall on Dec. 12 and 13.

The cast is as follows:

Amos	Alex Kroeplin
Joseph	Charles Schwartz
Innkeeper	James Ebert
Cure	Robert Mineweaser

Hal Boyle Says:

Trying to Live 100 Years Waste of Valuable Time

NEW YORK (AP)—Reflections of a Pavement Plato:

There is a sudden new surge of interest in America in how one can live to be 100 years old.

The gland meddlers and the nostrum peddlers are pumping up the idea now that the average man should breeze through an entire century before the wheezing breath of the whispers into his dulling ear, "Tag, boy, you've had it."

They hold out the golden hope they can stay the steady onset of age, keep a man young and energetic years beyond the prime his grandfather knew, and win him the joys of a supple centenarian.

* * *

To these pseudo-medical dreams of a boyish or girlish antiquity for all, I cry rubbish. Who yearns for a world in which the ordinary guy is born with the depressing prospect he will live to be 100 years old, whether he needs them all or not?

I remember years ago reading with strong distaste the desperate grasp on life by the elder John D. Rockefeller, one of the richest men of his day. He lived well into his nineties, became a shrivelled husk of a man huddled in a blanket as he sat on an automatic turntable geared to give him the benefit of the moving sun.

* * *

The man enriched medicine and mankind with his philanthropic millions. But the best doctors dollars could rent weren't able to keep him alive to blow out the candles on the 100th anniversary of his birth. It is unnecessary to point out that a number of obscure men and women of his generation who never went to a doctor outlived him.

The big new idea now is that with proper nutrition and fresh forms of abracadabra — including a wary avoidance of chicken pox while young—a man cannot only expect to live to be 100 but he hale and happy right up to the end. Presumably he then will just fall apart all at once, worn out smoothly and equally in all parts, like the wnderful one hoss shay that lived 100 years and a day.

* * *

The guy who wrote about the one hoss shay was a doctor, and a wise man, and had a son who was wise, too, and lived into his nineties—but neither father nor son made it to 100.

There seems historically to be built into every species of animal life an interior pattern that determines how long the individuals of that species will endure. Man has one of the longest of all life patterns. But is there any particular reason for trying to stretch this pattern so that most people will live to be 100 or older?

For the life of me I can't see why. To most of us, since we cannot live forever, it is more important to use our time on earth well rather than to cheapen one golden days by stretching them into a longer pewter string.

* * *

Here are some suggestions on how to get more out of life by trying to keep from living to be 100 years old:

1. The human heart has only about 2 billion—or is it 3 billion?—beats built into it. Wear it out by making it beat a bit faster for something you believe in besides yourself.

2. Count no day lost on which you fail to get your proper dose of vitamins but are surprised by fun.

3. Don't miss the pleasure of wandering in today's fog by staying in bed to save your strength for tomorrow's sunshine.

* * *

4. It is better to explore life half-sick afoot than it is to lie on your back reading a book on how to be healthy.

5. Remember that time isn't a calendar on a wall but a clock that ticks within you, that moments of flooding joy are better than barren years, and a crowded hour that measures your mettle as a man will make you a wider life than the pointless, purposeless endurance of an empty century.

Life becomes a form of death when fierceness dies in the purpose of the heart; the turning pages of the calendar cease to be a chronicle and are a daily epitaph of one who has put mere existence above the art of living.

Bees From California Aid Cabbage Growers

RACINE, Wis. (UP)—California bees can help raise better cabbage, the National Kraut Packers Association learned at its meeting here.

A manual prepared by the association said bees are an integral part of a five-year plan of the NKPA to produce a strain of seed that should yield cabbages of higher vitamin C than the heads now used for kraut.

The bees, a special breed from California, were selected because they have been found to be more active in the colder months. These bees the manual states, are turned loose in experimental hothouses to pollinate the cabbage plants when they blossom.

The mink is a semiaquatic animal, commonly at home where water is found. It not only swims and dives, but can remain long underwater, and pursues and catches fish.

Farmers Produce Set for Morning Selling in Waterford Township

Everything was set for the grand opening tomorrow morning of Oakland County's newest farmers' market, as workmen today completed last-minute preparations at the site on Pontiac Lake road between M59 and Telegraph, Waterford Township.

The market, which introduces a revolutionary new design in market buildings, will open promptly at 8 a.m., with a colorful array of farm vegetables, fruits and flowers, as well as eggs, poultry and honey placed on sale.

Because of its multi-door drive-up design, believed to be unique in this country, customers will be able to drive right up to the stalls and load their bushel purchases directly into their cars.

After tomorrow, the market will be open for business from 7 a.m. until 1 p.m. Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. Wholesale selling will be conducted from 7-8 a.m.

Officiating at the opening ceremonies will be Floyd Andrews, chairman of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors, County Supervisors Harry W. Horton and Norman R. Barnard, and Emmett DeConick, chairman of the Producers Committee.

Doughnuts, cider and coffee will be served to all who visit the market on opening day.

Funds from the Rochester sale will provide a happy Christmas for more than 200 youngsters at a Dec. 18 party in the high school cafeteria. It will last from 1:30 to 5 p.m.

Currents in Lake Huron Favoring Canadian Fish

By JOHN BARBOUR

ANN ARBOR (AP)—A Cornell University professor told today for the first time how the waters of Lake Huron sweep the Michigan shore clean and carry plant food to Canadian fish.

Associate Professor John C. Ayers, oceanographer at Cornell, gave the results of the University of Michigan's Great Lakes research institute study which he headed. It was the first comprehensive survey of any of the Great Lakes.

Because of the water currents, Ayers said, fish on the Canadian side of the Lake Huron are better fed than those on the Michigan side.

"Lake Huron, we found, has deep waters which trap decayed plant life," Ayers said. "Things which die seem to go to the deep areas."

He explained it was nature's own fertilizer program, "too big for man to fool with."

In an interview before a speech tonight, Ayers said: "Besides having a mechanism to trap these potential plant nutrients, the lake also has a mechanism for distributing them."

"The dead matter," he said, "is picked up by water currents that run deep toward the Michigan shore. Here they meet the surface current, bound for Canada. This current is blown eastward by winds that prevail in the Great Lakes area.

"The sun beats down on these fertile waters," Ayers explained, "growing small plants which finally settle on the Canadian side."

He added:

"So, we can guess that fisheries on the Canadian shore hold up better than fisheries on the American shore."

Dr. David Anderson, of the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests, Toronto, said the westward winds also blow pollution from the Michigan side toward the Canadian side, but it "is merely more plant food by the time it reaches Canada."

Ayers said that the Huron currents travel too slowly to carry sediment and deposit. He said the currents traveled at about three one-hundredths of a mile per hour. At the widest point of the lake, he said, it would take six months to a year to get across.

Ayers' study took place this summer when nearly 2,000 test bottles were released at various points across the lake. In each battle was a post card which the finder returned after noting where the bottle was found.

Ayers said that barely 200 bottles were returned. However, they were sufficient to give an idea of how the lake's water currents ran.

"Lake Michigan waters follow the Michigan shore line after entering Lake Huron," Ayers said. "However near Alpena the waters split and the current swings mostly toward the Canadian shore."

Ayers said that this current and the Lake Superior current which flowed roughly in the same pattern were interrupted at Alpena by a long sand spit that runs nearly half way across the lake.

Ayers said the Alpena sand spit extends to the southeast from the Michigan shore and nearly meets another sand spit which runs from the Canadian shore at Point Clark, northwestward.

"There are only about five miles between," Ayers said, "and if they were extended they would divide Lake Huron into two deep basins."

Ayers said that Michigan cities, short of drinking waters, have plenty within their reach. He said a trough of water running through the center of the lake was drinkable and pure. "All they have to do is find a way to get it," he said.

Detroit Doctor in Group Studying Health Plans

MIAMI (UP) — A 13-member committee, which included a Detroit doctor, was named by the American Medical Association yesterday to investigate various types of plans through which an estimated 90,000,000 Americans receive medical services.

Dr. Dwight H. Murray of Napa, Calif., chairman of the AMA's board of trustees, said the results of a year's study by the committee would have a "direct bearing on the improvement of health benefit plans now offered to the American people."

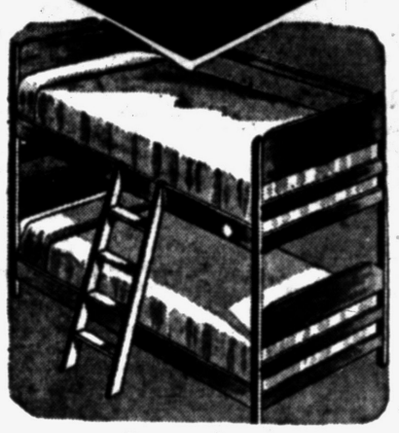

The Detroit doctor named to the committee was Dr. Jay Ketchum.

In Teaching Good Health Habits

Copy Cat Stage Pays Off

A lovely playful little girl suddenly becomes a very stubborn piece of merchandise when a parent tries to bully her into good habits.

Pressure about brushing the teeth ends with the toothbrush going out the window or down the toilet. Pressure about eating more rapidly; dinner lasts for three hours. Pressure about keeping clean; the palms of the hands, only, touch the bar of soap.

Of course, a child ought to have good eatih habits. Wise parents and pediatricians have found that the earliest time to introduce these is during the copycat stage, at whatever age that may be in an individual child.

Wise mothers move quickly when first they find a daughter digging in the prized lipstick and filling the air with precious face powder. Out come juvenile cosmetics — some just for fun, some with an earnest purpose.

If a mother can't seem to buy any of these fancied-up products, she can make do with her own. The lipsticks for chapped lips may be inserted in empty adult lipstick tubes.

Baby powder, which is safe, may be put in a pretty box with a lavish-looking puff. And, of course, the pill hidden under all the ruffles is soap.

One of the easiest ways to entice a suddenly lead-footed child into the tub is with a bubble bath. There is a special children's bubble both with a matching cake of soap that ought to satisfy any tiny lady's desire for splendor in the bath.

'Kard Kapers' Held by Soroptimists

Mrs. Clifford Todd and Mrs. Richard Paschke were general chairmen of "Kard Kapers" the annual card party of Soroptimist Club held Wednesday evening in Roosevelt Temple.

Others working on committees for the event were Mrs. John Bieschke, Mrs. Raymond Swackhammer, Mrs. Leon Glenn, Alice Kimball, Mrs. Robert Wright and Mrs. Roy Maxwell.

Mrs. Guy Caswell Heads Aid Society

Mrs. Guy Caswell was elected president of Ladies Aid Society of Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church at the Thursday meeting held at the church.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Edith Hillman, vice president; Mrs. Foster Berdan, recording secretary; Mrs. Lenord Vanderkoog, treasurer and Mrs. Charles Rowston, corresponding secretary and reporter.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Berdan and Mrs. Lester Bebee. Mrs. Ralph Osborn gave devotions and a letter was read from Mrs. Andrew S. Creswell who is spending the winter in Florida. Christmas baskets will be sent to several families by the group.

Styles Fit Fireside

The term fireside clothes covers fashions for the home of the most livable sort. This means wide-skirted dresses, slim-fitting pants in brilliant colors, separates in gay plaids and even elegant short dresses with fur banding.

A nice touch for dressy wear, late afternoon or evening, is the small, close-fitting feather cap. Nice in brilliant colors as a foil for black or dark colors.

Pontiac Groups Gather

Approaching holidays offer a theme for meetings of various groups. Zonta Club members are planning a Christmas party to be held on Dec. 16 in the Linden road home of Mrs. M. A. Calbi.

A floral demonstration on Christmas decorations for the home was given by Mrs. Dorothy Brooks, a club member, when the group held a luncheon meeting Thursday in Hotel Waldron.

Special decor for holiday centerpieces, mantle trim and door greetings were demonstrated by Mrs. Brooks who showed how to arrange greens, candles and flowers with modern day media and methods.

Chapter Plans Affair to Honor Husbands

Psi Chapter of Sigma Beta sorority gathered Thursday evening at the Ottawa drive home of Jean Sheridan to make final plans for a dinner party to be held Saturday, honoring husbands of the members.

Talmadge Delays Youth's Execution

ATLANTA (AP)—Gov. Herman Talmadge has ordered a stay of execution for James Willie Morgan, 18, who was scheduled to die in the electric chair today.

Responding to a last-minute appeal by the youth's attorney Archie Gleason, the governor last night agreed to a 15-day delay to permit a sanity hearing and examination by psychiatrists.

Morgan was sentenced to death for fatally shooting Eugene Talmadge Bryant, young Augusta taxi driver, during a robbery. He would have been the seventh teen-ager executed in Georgia this year.

Before the governor acted, the youth's mother, Mrs. Ruby P. Anderson, issued a desperate plea for his life from a cell in the same prison. She is serving two to four years for slipping a gun to her son after he was jailed.

Television's Ann Baker Is Spying on Teenagers

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — I'm now at the dangerous age.

Yes, my son is turning 12 . . . and I'm told that can be very dangerous for parents.

So I went to see Ann Baker . . . who spies on teenagers.

Ann, now 22, drives around sneaking peaks or even eavesdropping on them.

ANN BAKER

Playing teenage "Corliss Archer" on TV, she, like Peter Lorre, has "gotta have the information." Sometimes she spies near Magnolia High in North Hollywood. Sometimes the little boys she's spying on whistle.

★ ★ ★

"I wondered how the girls got those bluejeans to fit that way," Ann told me, in Sardi's, while visiting New York.

"They put on a new pair and jump in a swimming pool. They let the jeans dry on them, first fitting them to their legs."

"How do they feel after that?" I asked. "Very wet?"

"Very tight!" replied Miss Baker.

"A bathtub wouldn't work. It would be too dull," she added.

★ ★ ★

It's only four years since Ann was "Miss Jeans Queen" of Sedalia, Mo., home town also of Jack Oakie. But spying on the teeners, she's amazed how swiftly their fads change.

"Holy Cow," "My gollieeze," "Jeeze" and "Golly Mum" are still common teen terms. Lately everything is "very rank"—it smells.

"At a party, I heard one teenager say 'That's real J. Arthur.'

"You know . . . real rank . . . real J. Arthur Rank'."

★ ★ ★ ★

Miss Baker is now growing up—and out, too—and some people wonder if she won't outgrow the pony-tailed, saddle-shoed teenager she's playing.

However, her disguise as a teenager seems to be working still. For at a recent kids' party she dropped in on, a boy about 12 sat down beside her and started snuggling.

"What grade are you in?" he finally asked . . . and Ann knew she was still O. K.

MICKEY KNIGHT

Hospitalized Red Buttons said, "I still have trouble with writers—I looked at my hospital chart and made the doctor rewrite it three times." . . . Mickey Knight, an El Rancho Vegas showgirl, will be coached by Lili St. Cyr in the fine art of stripping.

Earl's Pearls . . .

A local toy counter, according to Bob Olin, sports a sign, "Toys so simple even a parent can understand them."

No Damages Awarded for Improper Cooking

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) —Three persons complained that they had contracted trichinosis from a pork roast cut. They sued the sellers, but the Connecticut Supreme court threw the case out on the grounds that the pork had not been properly cooked. Said the court: "Many foods cannot be eaten in the state in which they are bought.

"One could not expect to recover . . . for the distressing effects which would follow eating pineapples without peeling them, or of a partially cooked chicken which had not been drawn."

Feminine Attire Fits All Budgets

For Yuletide, Surprise Her With Glamorous Wearing Apparel

The route of the heart of a man may detour around through his stomach, but the path to the heart of his lady is always in open view.

On Christmas Day and every day, she's sure to fall every time for lovely—and practical—things to wear.

The woman who can't be thrilled by glamorous gifts of clothing probably doesn't exist. And now, more than ever before, the thrill is easier to give—for there's glamor to fit every budget.

Handsome, luxurious garments, such as petticoats, night gowns, peignoirs, pajamas, blouses and skirts, range the scale of prices from five-figure numbers to one or two dollars.

What once only queens and nobles could afford now is available to all.

If the woman on your list likes dress-up occasions, she'll appreciate a glamorous blouse. This year's new formal blouse styles feature dozens of opulent fabrics.

Avisco rayon mat jersey, the popular fabric which has long been a favorite in sophisticated separates costumes, is one of the newer fashion leaders.

With its stark simplicity and richness of texture, the mat jersey blouse makes an elegant foil for sparkling jewelry and colorful scarves.

Color ranges are extensive. Often, one blouse style can be had in as many as 14 different colors. Most popular hues for winter are the beige and sand tones, coffee, brown and black.

Another gift favorite is sleepwear, with cozy, pretty pajamas and softly elegant gowns offering two extremes. One has old-fashioned comfort, while the other appeals to every woman's sense of femininity.

While gowns are favored for grownups, cute styles like short bloomer pajamas are right for teenagers.

The list of other favorites — sweaters, stoles, hats, suits, stockings, raincoats, weskits and so forth—is too long to well describe, and long enough to fit any gift-giving problem. But before you choose, a word of advaice:

In buying women's clothing, stay away from the type of item that requires a definite measurement, unless you know the measurement exactly.

If you don't and can't find out, many stores have gift certificates which enable the woman to choose for herself, after you've paid for the item.

In the field of accessory items, the list is headed, as usual, by the always-needed handbag. The currently popular tote bag style can be found in all types of leather, from cowhide to suede to kid, and in all popular colors.

The choice of belts is equally wide. You'll see them in the new softened calf leather, so supple that it is draped, pleated and shirred for the cummerbund look.

The wrapped look is also developed in smooth leather belts that give the effect of a wide midriff with a curved shaping.

The idea that a gift of gloves is practical but unimaginative doesn't hold true this Christmas. A myriad of colors and textures from the finest soft doeskins and glace kid leathers to pigskins and capeskins is available in gloves for every occasion. And the styling is true high-fashion.

In the at-home glamor shoe department, there are many novelties to choose from in sandals, wedges and mules, some of them jeweled and embroidered. Most are brilliant in color.

What About the Days When He's Off Work?

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—C. C. Riddick, a janitor at a bank here, likes to be on time for his work and he likes pigeons. As he leaves his home for work he throws grain or bread crumbs to pigeons who have learned to know him, and who wait for him in a nearby churchyard.

If he is late the pigeons go to his doorstep across the street and their cooing informs him that the clock is ticking past their breakfast time.

Iron Works to Expand

EAST JORDAN (AP)—East Jordan Iron Works, one of the north's oldest industrial firms, has announced a $40,000 expansion program. The firm has produced street castings and fire hydrants since 1883. Officials said the expansion will include a modern sand conditioning and storage center.

$10,000 Savings Win Acquittal in $5 Theft

BALTIMORE (AP) — A 55-year-old factory worker with a $10,000 bank account was acquitted yesterday of a charge he stole $5 from a man in a supermarket.

Emile P. Gow was arrested Wednesday after a customer in the store accused Gow of scooping up a $5 bill he had dropped on the floor. When searched by police, Gow was found to be carrying $495 in cash, an uncashed check for $42 and five bank books with deposits totaling $10,000.

Magistrate William F. Laukaitis acquitted Gow with the observation that a man with Gow's wealth would hardly resort to a $5 theft.

School Thieves Leave Big Bass Drum, Tuba

EMERYVILLE, Calif (AP)—Emery High School's band won't go root-e-toot-tot for a while.

British Actress Asks Residency in United States

LOS ANGELES (AP)—British actress Simone Silva has informed immigration officials she wants to become a permanent resident of the United States.

Miss Silva, who kicked up a storm of controversy when she posed seminude with actor Robert Mitchum on the Riviera, may have to return to Europe after Feb. 3, 1955, when her present temporary work permit becomes void.

Immigration officials now must decide whether the actress' services are "urgently needed by the United States, due to her exceptional ability," and whether her presence would be "beneficial to the economic and cultural interests of the United States." These are clauses in the law governing Miss Silva's application.

She told newsmen yesterday she is anxious to become a permanent resident so she can accept a singing engagement at Miami Beach, Fla.

British Actor Not Interested in U.S. Dollars

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — American dollars apparently mean very little to British actor Laurence Harvey. Since he came here to make "King Richard and the Crusaders" at Warners he has had all kinds of offers which he has turned down.

Now I'm told that Terence Young, attractive British producer who is visiting here, has Harvey tied up for "Four Feathers," which will make its reappearance as "Drums Along the Nile." This is the old A. E. W. Mason story that's been filmed several times.

Harvey is now working in the movie version of "I Am a Camera" in London with Julie Harris and Shelley Winters.

This is Audie's old combat unit and while serving under the 3rd banner he became our most decorated soldier, even to winning the Congressional Medal.

Tomorrow Murphy takes off with Commanding General Haydon L. Boatner for Ft. Benning, Ga., home of the division, to discuss with the general an ending for "Hell and Back" U-I's movie about the 3rd Division.

It isn't until a baby you know is involved that you realize how this fog and smog affects little children. Mrs. Robert Cobb's beautiful grandson, Robert Walsh, age two-and-a-half, was stricken about ten days ago. For a time it seemed as if they would have to operate on his throat because he couldn't breathe, but today he was taken home from Children's Hospital in good health.

The only thing that helps these babies is a croupette, which costs $100, and the hospital is so filled with sick children that they haven't enough croupettes to take care of them all.

Dore Schary told me he believes a motion picture committee should be formed to pressure the authorities to take steps to save our beautiful city from being almost blacked out by this menace.

There's a wonderful bond between Frank Sinatra and his three children. Nancy Jr. is ecstatically happy because her father has asked her to go with him to Australia when he leaves Jan. 14 on a personal appearance.

Little Frankie leaves the day after Christmas to spend part of his vacation in New York with Frank, who will be singing at the Copacabana.

The wonderful thing about Nancy Sr., is that she's encouraged this closeness between Frank and the children.

The actress whom Mickey Spillane called the sexiest girl in Hollywood is Marian Carr, who was chosen by Robert Aldrich to play opposite Ralph Meeker in "Kiss Me Deadly." Marian was with Mickey on "Ring of Fear."

Another actress who will be in "Kiss Me Deadly" is Gilda Gray. She'll teach four actresses the shimmy — and Gilda's the girl who knows how. She created the wiggly dance.

Fabulous Hollywood Even Paints Flowers

Creating the fabulous Hollywood stage set which served as a background for much of the action of "Brigadoon" called forth both skill and ingenuity. The low-lying mists on the moor were produced with dry ice; the effect of fog was gained by vaporizing oil.

Endless Variety in Holiday Cards

Almost 2 Billion Sent Each Christmas; Huge New Ones Take Boxes

If the mailman staggers up to your house in the Christmas season, it's because of the cards. For, according to Stephen Q. Shannon, president of the National Association of Greeting Card Publishers, U. S. postmen totter under a mountain-high load of one and three-quarter billion cards every Christmas.

That means that the man who doesn't send or receive a Christmas card is either a troll who lives under a bridge or a bartender in a ghost town.

Among the kinds of cards that may catch your eye when you go out to select this winter, Mr. Shannon points out, are many cards that were considered odd items not long ago.

In this category are the deluxe cards—big things with pins or necklaces or real Christmas corsages on them. These cards, which have to be mailed in a box, now sell from 20 to 50 thousand copies per card.

Religious cards now sell five times more than they did ten years ago, Mr. Shannon said. Also coming up are the giant cards for kids and the studio cards—sophisticated line sketches with waggist greetings.

Ways of buying your cards are also increasing. You may pick them out one by one as always, but you can also buy inexpensive boxes of one design or boxes with twelve cards on one theme. Plus the possibility of ordering in advance from a catalog the exact number you wish, names printed on.

But, while the five most popular designs may switch positions with each other from year to year, they always remain the top five. This means that when you go to select, you'll probably be most charmed by a floral design; candles; Santa Claus; a winter scene or bells. It's in the cards.

Sorority Eleven Challenges Frat to Gridiron Test

NORMAN, Okla., (AP)—The girls of Chi Omega sorority at the University of Oklahoma have challenged Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity to a campus football match.

In accepting, the boys could only utter, "Wow!"

"We're not even going to warm up," fraternity coach Mike Raia said.

Of course, as girls will, they've rewritten the rule book. The boys must walk, not run, toward the ball carrier; they must count to 10 before rushing the passer; a five-yard penalty will be assessed for hugging — the girls can do all they want; and all fraternity passes (with the ball) must be made with the left hand and caught in one hand.

One thing the girls forgot — there's no penalty against offensive holding.

At the fraternity, everybody but the housemother has signed up for the team.

Oases in the Sahara Desert result from springs, underground streams, or the nearness of the mountains, which are sufficiently high to cause moisture in the air to condense and rain to fall.

Two Jurors Ousted to Break Deadlock

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—It's not easy to get a verdict out of a jury that is hopelessly deadlocked, but Judge David J. Hefferman did it in Civil Court of Record.

Admitting that he had never heard of it being done, the judge discharged the two jurors who couldn't agree, and got attorneys for both sides to accept the verdict of the other four yesterday.

Neither side knew which way the four jurors had decided, Hefferman said, so they agreed to accept the majority verdict.

The suit was by Supreme Distributors, Inc., claiming $175.61 due on a $200 advance for a cigarette vending machine.

Tips for Christmas Phone Calls Listed

One of the best Christmas presents in the book is a telephone call to relatives or friends who live at long distances. And if you follow the advice of the phone company, you'll save yourself time, money and trouble.

According to communications men, Dec. 25 is the busiest day at central switchboards. So they advise that you place your calls before or after Christmas Day itself.

Telephone rates are reduced at night and all day Sunday, so take advantage of this economy.

In addition, you should call your destination by number because it's faster. And be sure to jot down a list of things to talk about so that you're not tongue-tied to the state of the weather or "how-are-you" over and over again.

Defensive Play Marks Top State Prep Team

By JOE FALLS

Detroit (AP)—The art of defense—some call it a lost art—is the feature of the Associated Press Class A all-state high school football team, announced today.

The 11 players selected by coaches and sports writers gained recognition—and respect—with brilliant defensive work, combined with powerful offensive play.

Backfield players, in particular, drew attention with their defensive exploits. The unit is composed of Dick Green of Grand Rapids Union, Dick Williams of Ann Arbor, Don Eugenio of Groose Pointe and Howard Rodgers of Benton Harbor.

Green, a 160-pound fullback, gained 1,396 yards rushing this season, yet his coach talks of his defensive ability.

"He is the finest defensive back I have ever coached," says Milo Sukup of Grand Rapids Union.

Hank Fonde, Ann Arbor coach, says the same of Williams, who also ran from the fullback position.

Williams, who missed Ann Arbor's last two games because of a shoulder separation, has been considered for two years as the premier Class A line-backer in the state.

Eugenio and Rodgers are the two lightweights in the backfield, each at 150 pounds. Weight was no obstacle to these players, however.

Eugenio, key to Groose Pointe's perfect season, was rated the team's strongest defensive back.

The "dream" line in front of these players is composed of ends Mike Lodish, University of Detroit High, and Joe Quarles, Flint Central; tackles Ernie Dijack, Saginaw Arthur Hill, and Harold Leigeb, Midland, Guards Jim Holds, Battle Creek Central, and Lavere Roseberry, Bay City Central, and Center John Wilks, Grand Rapids Catholic Central.

The 2nd team is only a little less effective. It boasts a high-scoring set of backs in Dick Adams, Arthur Hill, Dick Donnell, Battle Creek Central, Charles Thrash, Flint Central and Walt Johnson, Dearborn. The line includes ends Bob Anderson of Alpena, Dick Hinkle of Jackson; tackles, Jim Rapphun, Arthur Hill, Ed Draves U of D high; guards Stan Larmee of Ann Arbor, Eric Sundeck, Saginaw; center, Ed Wright, Bay City Handy.

Oakland county area and Saginaw Valley players were on honorable mention list as follows: Bill Petro, Plymouth end; tackles Ed Bartz, Royal Oak; Bruce Dollohan, Berkley; centers Jim Arnold, Plymouth; Tom Husband, Bay City Central; Bob Miller, Arthur Hill; Ed Warner, Saginaw; backs Tony Burton, Flint Northern, Lee Juve, Plymouth; Roy Boldan, Royal Oak; Jim Chesney, Bay City Central, George Stevenson, Bay City Central.

Lew Hoad's Performance Blasted by Aussie Press

By WILL GRIMSLEY

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — Lewis Hoad, once Australia's tennis hero, was criticized in Melbourne newspapers Friday as an "irritating and half-hearted" player whose career has been irreparably damaged by an "outrageous performance" in the ictorian championships.

* * *

Alan Trengove in the Daily Argus said "Hoad can give up any hope of turning professional in the near future."

Frank Bird in the Sun said Hoad, in losing to America's Vic Seixas, gave the "worst demonstration of bad court manners since Art Larsen was here four years ago." Seixas beat Hoad in straight sets in the semifinals Thursday.

Seixas had been scheduled to play in the doubles finals Friday with Tony Trabert against Rex Hartwig and Mervyn Rose, the Australian champs, but rain washed out the match. It was rescheduled for Monday in deference to Seixas who meets Ken Rosewall for the singles title Saturday.

* * *

Bird added that hundreds of spectators left the court when Hoad smashed a ball into the backstop and another high into the grandstand.

Jack Harper in The Age wrote Hoad must improve 50 per cent to rate selection on the Davis Cup team.

In a special press interview, Hoad explained the reason for his tantrums with "I am sick of everyone getting on my back."

3-Way Battle in PCC

TCU, Southern Cal, Utah, Idaho State, Texas Tech Best of Western Quintets

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP)—Texas Christian University looks like a cinch to capture the Southwest Confefence championship and Southern California should win the Pacific Coast title after a three-way struggle with UCLA and Stanford.

* * *

Utah figures to finish on top of the Skyline eight after a stiff fight from Wyoming. Idaho State should win the Rocky Mountain Conference crown for the third straight year.

Texas Tech is the team to beat in the Border Conference and Santa Clara and San Francisco probably will battle it out for the California Basketball Assn. championship.

This is the year for which Coach Jack Gardner of Utah has been waiting. The former Kansas State coach has the entire 1954 team back minus one reserve.

* * *

Only Wyoming can match Utah's height, even if it can't match the Ute's experience. Behind the two leaders are Brigham Young and the defending champs, Colorado A. & M. Denver has big men but it lacks experience.

TCU lost Hank Ohlen, its 6-7 center and captain who was far and away the team's top scorer. All the other regulars are back.

Eleven of USC's top 12 men who won the PCC are back and they again will be led by 6-5½ Roy Irvin, a reliable workhorse at center. The lad to watch, however, is sophomore Jim Kaufman who is being called the best player ever developed at Los Angeles High.

* * *

UCLA has Don Brag and Don Moore, a veteran duo who head one of the strongest Bruin teams in years. Stanford has a pair of great scorers in Russ Lawler and George Selleck.

Pete Newell, new coach at California, inherits an excellent big man in Bob McKeen and little else.

Coon Hunters Plan Banquet, Annual Confab

Pioneer Coon Hunters association has arranged for its annual banquet and conference at Bald Eagle Lake inn, Dec. 11. Always an interesting affair, this year's PCHA gathering will offer a program of African big game movies, election of officers and a banquet at which the "top of the men" will be 'coon.

There may also be some discussion of proposed legislation, and the annual report on the year's take of raccoons in this area.

A limited number of tickets are still available for the party, according to Lewis M. Wrenn. They may be had from Wrenn, or other PCHA members.

Backs Swap Fumbles on 2 Successive Plays

ORANGEBURG, S.C. (AP) — Turn about is fair play, even in football.

In the third period of The Citadel - Wofford game, Citadel halfback Budgie Broome fumbled on his 13 and Wofford halfback B. B. Stevens recovered.

On the next play, however, Stevens fumbled and Broome recovered on The Citadel 9.

The 22-year-old New Yorker will get the second big test of his budding career tonight when he faces 26-year-old Orlando Zulueta in Madison Square Garden.

Little All-America Star Backs Small College Game

By HAROLD CLAASEN

NEW YORK (AP) — Is football on the small college level worth while to the players?

You will get a quick, firm "yes" from William (Bill) McKenna of Brandeis, who was named an end on the Associated Press' Little All-America team today.

McKenna arrived at the Waltham, Mass., college, one of the country's youngest colleges, four years ago from Salem, Mass. He stretched two inches over six feet and weighed 165 pounds. Bennie Friedman, the one-time Michigan star, couldn't find a spot for McKenna on the offensive platoon.

So McKenna played defense. Between football seasons he either wrestled, did weight lifting or road work every day with the result that he now is a strapping 6-4 and 210 pounds of muscles.

He also developed in football. Unable to make the offense platoon in 1951, he was the team's leading scorer in two of his final three years.

Sharing the 1954 Little All-America honors with McKenna are stars from 10 other colleges. The other end is R. C. (Overdrive) Owens of the College of Idaho, the only junior on the first team.

Tackles are Joe Veto of Juniata and Larry Paradis of Whitworth. Stokeley Fulton, Hampden Sydney's inspiration, is at center, flanked by guards Robert Patterson of Memphis State and Gene Nei of Gustavus Adolphus.

Backfield includes Richard Young, Chattanooga, Alvin Beal of Texas Trinity, Don Miller of Delaware and Leo Lewis of Lincoln University. Lewis is the only repeater from the 1953 team.

Quack-Quack!

World Duck Calling Test Under Way Today

STUTTGART, Ark. (AP) — There may be a lot of going on in the world today, but people in this little south Arkansas town will know only that the World Duck Calling Championship is under way.

* * *

Upwards of 5,000 festival seekers, duck hunters and duck callers are expected to jam this duck capital of the world for the contest that will decide which caller is best in the world at talking to ducks.

* * *

State champions from a dozen states, spread from California to Illinois, are scheduled to compete.

The only entries in the world contest who aren't state champions are the winner of the International Duck Calling contest at Crowley, La., the Pacific Flyways champion and last year's world champ.

Several celebrated outdoorsmen are expected to attend and take an active part in the contest. Herb Parsons of Somerville, Tenn., noted shotgun marksman, will be master of ceremonies. Howard Hill, famed master of the bow and arrow, already is in Stuttgart and will help Parsons.

* * *

First prize for the world's contest now is a $1,000 U.S. Savings Bond, plus a trophy. Sporting goods manufacturers from all over the world pile on other prizes.

Tempers Flare and Fists Fly as Wings Lose

Both Clubs Are Sent to Dressing Room to Cool Off After Tiff

DETROIT (AP) — With three losses in their last four games, Detroit Red Wings have fallen eight points out of 1st place.

Now the question is: Can they bounce back and win their 7th straight National Hockey League title?

The Red Wings were soundly whipped 4-1 by the Montreal Canadiens in Olympia Stadium last night. The victory by the Frenchmen was their 4th over Detroit this season and moved them far ahead of the wobbling Wings in the league race.

Canadiens have 35 points in the standings, compared to 27 for 3rd-place Detroit. Toronto is in 2nd with 28.

Red Wings, returning from a rugged three-game road trip, gave a lack-luster performance last night in a wild game which saw each team draw 10 penalties.

Dickie Moore, Bert Olmstead, and Kenny Mosdell shot Montreal into a 3-0 lead before Dutch Reibel found the range for Detroit early in the 3rd period. But that was the Red Wings' only scoring gesture. Five minutes later Maurice Richard, offset Reibel's tally with a low 20-footer.

It was Richard's 14th of the season and 298th of his career. He is seeking to become the 1st player to score 400 goals.

Busiest man on Olympia ice was referee Bill Chadwick, who dealt out an even hour of penalties. The big flare-up came late in the 1st period when a free-for-all broke out in front of the Detroit bench.

After several players engaged in some lively fisticuffs, both teams were sent to their dressing rooms to cool off.

LON ANGELES (AP) — The high scoring gridders of UCLA, Pacific Coast Conference champions, scored four touchdowns by blocked punts this season. This is a conference record. Two of the blocked punts were by substitute end Clarence Norris.

Horrors—KC Ball Park on Brooklyn Ave.

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Chuck Comiskey vice president of the Chicago White Sox, visited the American League's newest baseball park here Thursday and was outraged.

"What do you mean, Brooklyn?" He stormed when he was driven up Brooklyn Avenue to the baseball park at the intersection of 22nd street.

"What kind of city fathers od you have here? Brooklyn is in the National League. And we American Leaguers don't want anything to suggest the National League—not since the last World Series. That street's name should be changed fast."

"It was all right riding out on Truman road but when he turned into Brooklyn Avenue that was too much," said the grinning White Sox official.

'Little Mo' Will Be Ready for Net Action

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Little Maureen Connolly promises that she'll be fit and ready when she returns to the tennis courts for international competition next spring.

Little Mo, thrown from a horse in a tangle with a cement mixer truck, is enjoying her first rest from tennis in nine years, but she is substituting ballet for her practice on the courts.

Drew Bounced, 'Bama Names J. B. Whitworth

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP)—J. B. (Ears) Whitworth, former Alabama guard and Oklahoma A&M head coach, was named head football coach at the University of Alabama Thursday to replace Harold (Red) Drew.

Removal of Drew had been speculated for some time. He had been under fire by the alumni for several years, even though he produced an eight-year record of 53 victories, 26 losses and 7 ties, and took the Crimson Tide to three major bowl games.

Dancer Wins Honor as Top Thoroughbred

This Deaf Mute Does 'Talking' With His Feet

Kent State Relies on Little Fullback Against Delaware Sunday

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (AP)—A little deaf mute who talks with pounding feet will test one of the nation's most rugged defenses Sunday in the seventh annual Refrigerator Bowl football game.

* * *

Lou Mariano, Kent State University's 5-foot-7 fullback, has averaged 115 yards per game by rushing. He'll be running Sunday against a University of Delaware team that limited nine opponents to an average of less than 80 yards on the ground.

Mariano's performance this fall for the Ohio school included 14 touchdowns and two conversions. He broke away for a 99-yard sprint against Western Reserve, a Mid-American Conference record.

In that Western Reserve game Lou gained 226 yards all by himself and carried the ball only 10 times. He weighs 162 pounds.

Pontiac High's basketball team goes to Royal Oak tonight to raise the curtain on what could be the Chiefs' brightest season in several years.

On paper, at least, Coach Art Van Ryzin's outfit shapes up as a potential powerhouse. The veteran-studded PHS squad appears to have everything—size, experience and depth.

Van Ryzin's starting lineup tonight will be the same crew that started the majority of contests in the last half of the 1953-54 season. Two juniors, James and King, and three seniors, Johnston, Poe and Blacklaw, comprise the lineup.

Another senior, 6-foot 2-inch Marv Caswell, is slated to see action at both forward and center positions. Caswell, a mid-year graduate, is playing his 3rd year of varsity ball.

Rounding out the PHS varsity are Bob Casteel and Charlie Johnson, who saw limited varsity play last year, ex-jayvees Bill Mountain, Clay Williams, Rod Treais, Jim Jones and John Bersche, and sophomores Jimmy "Red" Taylor and Freeman Watkins.

Only two starters are back from the Royal Oak team that bowed to Pontiac, 50-35, in last season's opener. They are Capt. Roger Sides and guard Bob Grundeman.

Three other lettermen, including 6-foot 4-inch pivotman Bob Kelley, complete the Acrons' starting five.

Browns, Lions Are Picked to Win Sunday Contests

By HARRY WISMER

(Copyright, 1954, by INS)

Professional football finally grabs the spotlight away from the collegiate game this weekend.

There's still a chance—remote though it may be—for the New York Giants to tie the Browns and the Chicago Bears to deadlock the world champion Lions in their respective conferences.

However, we are reading the Bears out of the race for this year by picking their crosstown rivals, the Chicago Cardinals, to salvage a tough year Sunday and beat the Halasmen by three points in a tough game.

At the same time, we look for the Browns to wrap up the Eastern Division championship with a 28-point margin over the Washington Redskins.

Giants, hobbled by the loss of injured star quarterback Chuck Conerly and ace halfback Frank Gifford, also should see their chances for this year go by the boards against Pittsburgh. Steelers, reinforced by the return of Lynn Chandnois, appear to have a 7-point edge.

Lions should clinch the Western Conference crown with a 14-point win over the Philadelphia Eagles and set themselves up for a shot at their 3rd straight world title.

Green Bay can beat the tottering San Francisco 49ers by 10 and in Saturday night's lone contest the undermanned Baltimore Colts are due for a 3-touchdown setback at the hands of Los Angeles.

Colts Threaten Rams

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—The Los Angeles Rams are favored, but the Baltimore Colts pose a decided threat, when the two National League Football teams pile into each other Saturday afternoon in Memorial Coliseum.

Dodgers May Sell Billy Cox to Orioles or Tribe; Omaha Expected in American Association Today

By JOE REICHLER

HOUSTON (AP) — Omaha, Neb., was expected to officially become a member of the American Assn. today as the mnior league convention comes to a close.

Another development will be the naming of the five-man arbitration board by Minor League President George Trautman to settle damages due the Western League for draft of its Denver territory by the association.

* * *

On the player end, The Associated Press learned that the Brooklyn Dodgers are set to sell veteran third baseman Billy Cox for $50,000 to one of two American League clubs — Baltimore or Cleveland. E. J. (Buzzie) Bavasi, Dodger vice president, also has asked for a couple of minor league farmhands.

* * *

The inter-league transaction, in all likelihood, will be consummated at the major league meetings in New York next week. The only current hitch is Brooklyn's inability to get waivers on Cox. It is believed, however, that because of the fancy figure, the Dodgers will receive "gentleman waivers" on the player.

The Dodgers and Cincinnati Reds also were getting closer to completing a player trade that would involve outfielder Jimmy Greengrass or Wally Post and catcher E. C. Bailey of the Reds and second baseman Junior Gilliam and a second-line pitcher from the Dodgers.

Only a matter of $25,000 stood between the Western League and the St.Louis Cardinals from concluding a pact that would transfer the Redbirds' Columbus American Assn. franchise to Omaha.

In a secret meeting with St.Louis representatives Thursday, the Western League reduced its demand for damages on the release of Omaha from $100,000 to $60,000. The Cards countered with an offer of $35,000.

The most important piece of legislation passed Thursday was the amendment to ban commercial broadcasts and telecasts of baseball games on stations outside a club's home territory. This, of course, was subject to approval by the majors.

Hilltoppers, Aggies, Niagara, Illini 5, Win

By ORLO ROBERTSON
The Associated Press

Names familiar to college basketball fans when tournament picking time rolls around appeared prominently on the winning side of the scores Thursday.

* * *

There was Western Kentucky, the nation's eighth-ranked team last year, champions of the Ohio Valley and fourth in the National Invitation Tournament. Also 10th-ranked Oklahoma Aggies, kingpin of the Missouri Valley and Niagara's Purple Eagles, third in the NIT.

* * *

Alongside them were such annually potent powers as Illinois and DePaul.

* * *

All won with comparative ease. Western Kentucky downed Gustavus Adolphus 90-79, Oklahoma Aggies turned back Howard Payne 81-44 with second-stringers playing much of the game. Niagara had no trouble with Buffalo State, winning 81-60 while DePaul romped over Kalamazoo 98-46 and Illinois did the same against Butler, 88-34.

* * *

For Western Kentucky it was the Hilltoppers 62nd consecutive home-court victory. Lynn Cole, one of the two holdovers from last year's frontline crew, averaged better than a point a minute as he scored 31 points in 28 minutes after sitting on the bench for the first 10 minutes.

* * *

Coach Hank Iba used 14 men, with 12 breaking into the scoring column as the highly regarded Cowboys of Oklahoma A&M took a 44-22 lead against Howard Payne and then coasted home.

* * *

Niagara, rated highly again this season, started slowly against Buffalo State but by the end of the first half had the game under control by a 34-21 score.

* * *

DePaul's victory over Kalamazoo was the 96th straight on its home court. Coach Ray Meyer used all 14 members of his Blue Demon squad with Ron Sobieszczyk topping the scorers with 16 points.

Joining the name teams in the victory column Thursday night were such title contenders as Baylor, South Carolina, Wake Forest, Tulsa, Houston and Arizona.

'Davids' Entertain Fans at Avondale

House of David's basketball team and Pontiac's Shaw's Jewelers meet Saturday night in a return engagement in Avondale High School at Auburn Heights with proceeds going to the school's lighted athletic field fund.

Game will be at 8 p.m. in the Avondale High gymnasium following a preliminary at 7 between the Avondale faculty and a Pontiac team. The teams met at Ortonville High last night and the bearded House of David quintet clowned its way to a 82-54 victory.

Fans Bombard Saxton, Fuentes

By BOB MYERS

LOS ANGELES (AP)—It isn't fair to knock two guys who tried to make something out of nothing for 10 rounds, but the fact remains that the non-title welterweight match between the champion, Johnny Saxton, and the No. 3 challenger, Ramon Fuentes, Thursday night was honestly fought, close and filled with unexcitement.

* * *

* * *

It also eliminated any public clamor for a return match for the title, for at the finish both guys were in danger of getting hit with wadded up paper cups sent flying by an impatient gallery.

Tug of Peace?

The boxing bout was a tug of war, without much war. There were no knockdowns. But somehow or other Saxton wound up with his right eye swollen the size of a walnut — Texas nut, that is — and Fuentes, the local ex-grave-digger, nursed a split at his riht eye.

Defending State Champions Set Sights on 2nd Victory

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Muskegon Heights, defending Class A champion, shoots for its 2nd straight victory tonight as Michigan's high school basketball season gains momentum.

The Heights, which opened Tuesday with a 51-27 romp over Grand Rapids Central, meets Muskegon Catholic Central.

A new Class A school, Muskegon Catholic Central dropped its opener Tuesday to Muskegon, 53-38.

Muskegon Heights boasts the nucleus of the squad which swept 20 of 21 games last season. Heading the returnees are M. C. Burton, a gifted center, and Len Hartman and Jim McMurray.

Meanwhile, Class B champion—River Rouge—gets a key test right off the bat, meeting formidable Highland Park. Last year, Highland Park rolled undefeated through the regular season and moved into the semifinals of the state tournament, where the Parkers lost to Muskegon Heights.

In another top game, Jackson visits Lansing Sexton, a six-A league power which has won 44 of its last 47 games. Jackson, however, has proved to be a stumbling block for Sexton.

Ann Arbor and Kalamazoo—both in the rebuilding state—meet in another Six-A League game. Coach Ed Klum of Ann Arbor says he is "reasonably satisfied" with the progress of his team, but fears it may lack depth. Similarily, Kalamazoo will floor a less experienced team than usual.

It's Time Out!

"Remember, he's scored first round knockouts in every one of his fights, so don't worry about his having had much experience!"

Market Reflects Wheat Stability

CHICAGO (AP)—Firmness in wheat found relection in a steady tone in other pits on the Board of Trade today. Dealings were again fairly active.

Prospects of additional export business and continued dry weather in the Southwest combined to encourage demand for wheat. Corn lagged in early dealings as cash corn receipts expanded to 245 cars.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅜ to ⅝ higher, December $2.27⅞; corn ⅛ olwer to ¼ higher, December 1.56⅞; oats ¼ lower to ⅛ higher, December 82½; rye ½ lower to ¾ higher, December 1.23½; soybeans ½ to 1½ higher, January 2.81¾; lard 15 to 32 cents a hundred pounds higher, December 14.52.

Tripled Output Eyed by Firm

Studebaker - Packard Reveals New Models at Press Showing

DETROIT (AP) — The Studebaker - Packard Corp. plans to build and sell 300,000 passenger cars in 1955.

James J. Nance, corporation president, told a news conference yesterday at a preview of the 1955 Packards that production plans call for 200,000 Studebaker and 100,000 Packard models.

Nance predicted the auto industry would build 5,600,000 cars next year.

The 1955 Studebaker models were introduced several weeks ago. The Packards will be presented Jan. 5.

So far this year the combined output of Studebaker and Packard passenger cars comes to some 105,000 units.

Nance said Packard will have the most powerful engine with the highest compression ratio in the industry for 1955. He declined to say, however, what the ratings are.

New in the 1955 Packard line, Nance said, will be:

Entirely new V-8 engines; new twin Ultramatic transmission; new torsion bar suspension and new styling inside and out.

Nance was optimistic about the corporation's 1955 prospects. He said the consolidation of the two old line companies last Oct. 1, provided a car maker with a full line of cars in four price lines — low, low-medium, medium and high price.

It also gave the company a total of more than 4,000 dealer outlets he said.

Old Brewery Suggested as Center for Alcoholics

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — An advisory committee has recommended the city set up a 15-bed alcoholic rehabilitation center in buildings once used as a brewery.

The committee recommended that some of the buildings purchased recently from the Peter Fox Brewing Co. of Chicago be fitted out for the treatment of alcoholics.

The group also proposed a 5-bed ward in one of the city's general hospitals for acute alcoholic csaes.

The cost of the whole program was estimated at $51,000.

Municipal Group Seeks Opinion From Millard After Tax Decision

LANSING (AP)—The State Municipal Finance Commission asked Atty. Gen. Frank G. Millard today to clarify the effect on local bonding procedures of the State Supreme Court's recent decision requiring use of the state equalized valuation for property tax purposes.

Secretary Lottie C. Many asked these questions:

1—Whether the state equalized valuation must be used in determining the debt limits for local governmental units.

2—Whether use of the state values is required in applying the pledged millage for bonds now outstanding.

3—Whether the state equalization must be used in applying the pledged millage in bond issues aproved from now on.

4—Whether the state equalization is to be used in applying the millage to be spread on next year's roll where the local unit proposes to borrow in anticipation of a tax and where the unit has voted a building and site sinking fund and an increase in its tax limitation rate.

Manufacturers Pick President

New Jersey Executive to Head National Group Next Year

NEW YORK (AP) — A tall, soft spoken New Jersey industrialist who began his business career in a brokerage house at the age of 16 is the new president of the National Assn. of Manufacturers.

Henry G. Riter III, 62, president of Thomas A. Edison, Inc. West Orange, N. J., was chosen at the NAM's annual convention last night to succeed H. C. McClellan, president of Old Colony Paint & Chemical Co., Los Angeles, Calif.

McClellan, in a speech prepared for delivery before 3,000 industrialists at a closing day session, issued a call for a "new approach to peace, based on practical, helpful cooperation with other countries through human contact."

Reviewing his travels as NAM president both in the United States and abroad, McClellan reported: "I have yet to find one person who did not abhor the very thought of another war . . . Military aims in every one of the countries I have visited were spoken of only in terms of defense, and even then, only as a necessary evil."

The three-day convention ends tonight with an address by Clarence B. Randall, special consultant to the president on foreign economic policy, at the annual dinner.

The new NAM president has been prominently identified with industry and investment banking for many years.

Four years ago he became president of Thomas A. Edison, Inc. a firm organized years before to produce Edison's inventions. The company, with 3,400 employes, makes a variety of products from electronic test equipment to juvenile furniture.
