Unmanned Capsule Soars in Perfect Shot

ONE COLOR

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The United States successfully rocketed an unmanned model of its man-in-space capsule 130 miles high today and recovered it intact from the Atlantic 235 miles down range.

The shot was an important prelude to launching an American astronaut on a similar flight planned within a few months.

The astronauts training to be the first Americans in space all were on hand to see today's shot.

The successful launching capped three disappointing ones that set the program back.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) announced 50 minutes after launch that a helicopter from the aircraft carrier USS Valley Forge took the one-ton capsule from the ocean at 11:46 a. m. EST, 31 minutes after it was launched from Cape Canaveral.

The capsule was deposited on the carrier flight deck at 12:03 p. m.

The bell-shaped capsule was sighted about 90 miles northeast of Grand Bahama Island shortly after it completed its 16-minute, 4,000-miles-an-hour flight. A fleet of ships, planes and helicopters sped immediately to the scene.

The capsule will be returned to Cape Canaveral within a few days for intensive study to determine how well it survived the jolting journey.

Dye markers, radio beacons and a flashing light were to help searchers locate the space craft.

The bell-shaped capsule was carried aloft by an 83-foot Redstone rocket that roared away from this missile test center at 11:15 a. m. EST.

It separated neatly from the booster 140 seconds later and raced to its target at speeds up to 4,000 miles an hour. It completed the trip in 16 minutes.

The space agency announced:

"Preliminary data indicates that the project Mercury space-craft apparently flew its preplanned suborbital ballistic trajectory and impacted approximately 235 statute miles downrange. All of the Mercury capsule systems appeared to operate successfully. Recovery ships are now being directed to the impact area."

The capsule was aimed at a target area whose center was 220 miles from the cape.

Main purpose of the flight was to qualify the project Mercury capsule and its many complex systems in a space environment.

14-Alarm Blaze Threatens to Sink New Carrier

CARRIER ABLAZE—Smoke pours from the new Navy aircraft carrier Constellation at Brooklyn Navy Yard after a fire broke out on the giant ship this morning. Some 4,000 workmen were aboard at the time. A number of them leaped to safety in the icy East River. Two hours after the blaze broke out, it was still raging furiously, and plates on the ship were red hot. An undetermined number of workmen were trapped somewhere on the ship as the battle against the flames continued. The Constellation was to be commissioned in March.

'Blessed Art Thou' Tells Mary's Birth

(Editor's Note: The great human love story of the Gospels is that of Joseph and Mary, the virgin chosen to bear the Son of God. But the New Testament account of their story is skimpy. Here, drawing on nonconventional accounts that circulated widely in the early church, an award-winning Associated Press religion writer recreates their story of all its warmth and glory. This is the first of five articles.)

By GEORGE CORNELL
Associated Press Religious Writer

Adoration welled in the heart of the girl's aging mother Anna, as she combed and smoothed her daughter's long, dark tresses. It was a deep-felt morning. For on third day, Mary would be espoused.

How beautiful she is, and pure of soul. Ah, beloved daughter, thou art the treasure of this house. There is no spot on thee. Thy innocence is a garden enclosed, and thou seem overyoung for witchood.

Yet Mary was 15, the proper age for taking a husband. She sat now on a stool, in dewey-eyed reverie, as Anna arrayed her for the ceremony. He braids had been loosened and flowed over the nape of her neck to her waist.

Lithe, lovely child, thy parents exult in thee, and shall miss the song of thy rising and lying down.

Anna laid the comb aside and began to weave a fillet of yellow marguerites for Mary's hair. The guests would soon be arriving, and all must be made ready.

It was a joyous, yet also heavy time. Mary was not just another daughter of Israel. She had been the sunrise of life to her elderly parents, Anna and Joachim. For 20 years of marriage they had been childless until her coming. Anna remembered how unceasingly she had prayed in those years.

"O God of my fathers," she had implored again and again, "bless me, as thou didst bless the womb of Sarah in her old age, and gavest her a son, Isaac."

Once, kneeling under a laurel tree, she noticed the young sparrows nesting above, and the grief burst from her in a wail.

"Woe unto me. I am not comparable to the very fowls of the heavens; to the very beasts of the earth, for even the beasts are fruitful before thee, O Lord."

Their lack of issue had sorely afflicted Joachim, an otherwise large-spirited and prosperous man. He owned vast numbers of sheep, the greatest herd in the Jezreel valley, and a splendid house in Nazareth.

Yet his affluence could not ease the gall of childlessness.

It was a scandal for a Jew to fail to beget children, a sign of sin and God's disfavor and, in time, the priests had come to scorn his generous festival offerings.

"It is not lawful for thee to offer thy gifts," they said, "seeing thou hast not begat any seed in Israel."

Joachim had betaken himself to the desert for long periods of fasting and prayer. And then, at last, it had come to pass. Anna sensed it, like a whisper in her soul, a stirring warmth in her flesh.

She rushed from the house in the twilight and saw Joachim coming from the fields with his shepherds and flocks. Sing, O barren, thou

Waterford Police Baffled by Deaths of Mother, Son

Waterford Township police remained baffled today by the mystery deaths of a young mother and her 3-year-old son.

All they had to go on were a few shreds of an incoherent note.

The mother, Mrs. Robert Denham, 24, of 109 Exmoor Road, died yesterday at Pontiac General Hospital of undetermined causes.

Her son Ramond was found dead in his crib Friday afternoon, near the unconscious body of his mother. The cause of his death was still unknown today.

There were no marks of violence on either body, police said. The boy was believed to have been dead at least four hours before his body was discovered.

Police were hoping that Mrs. Denham would be able to clear up the mystery of her son's death. But she never regained consciousness.

Autopsies performed on both bodies by Dr. Richard Olsen, were inconclusive, police said.

Traces of influenza and pills in the boy's stomach led doctors to believe these might have caused his death.

"If so, it's possible the shock was just too much for the mother," said Waterford Police Chief Millard Pender. She was under a doctor's care for a nervous disorder since the birth of her daughter, Lori Ann, 3½ weeks ago.

SWALLOWED PILLS

The father told police his son had swallowed an unknown number of vitamin pills he took from a kitchen cupboard earlier in the day, but had shown no immediate ill effects.

Samples from both bodies were being examined by State Health Department toxicologists at Lansing in an effort to determine the cause of death in each case.

Pender said, "We are still at a loss as to what caused the deaths." He is hoping the toxicologists will be able to solve the mystery.

Discovery by detectives of pieces of a shredded note in a wastebasket at the Denham home was revealed today by Pender.

He said that except for the first sentence, "I think I'm losing my mind," the only other words that could be deciphered were "telephone . . . jerked . . . wall."

Handwriting of the note has not been matched, Pender said. "We are uncertain that the mother wrote it."

Christmas Shoppers Can Look for Cold

Christmas shoppers better bundle up.

It'll be unusually cold until Christmas weekend, the Weather Bureau said today—about 4 to 7 degrees below normal for the next five days.

The normal high this time of year is 25, the low 23.

The Weather Bureau said there'll be occasional snow or snow flurries through Friday, about 2 or 3 tenths inches in all.

Tonight's low is expected to drop to 12, Tuesday's high is expected to reach 30, with continued cold weather and light snow.

Northwest winds at 11 miles an hour recorded at 1 p.m. this afternoon will diminish tonight.

Nineteen was the lowest recording in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. At 2 p.m. the thermometer reading was 27.

Royal Oak Pair Held in Indiana

John Pace and Wife Admit Driving Couple From Howell Jail

From Our News Wires

HOWELL — The search for a couple who pulled off a daring jail break here shifted today to Indiana with the arrest of a Royal Oak husband and wife who admitted driving the pair to Elkhart.

State police said John Pace, 27, and his wife, Vonnie, 27, of 3224 Prairie were arrested because they had been seen with a pretty 20-year-old blonde who freed her husband from jail at gunpoint.

Brenda Ann Sargent ran panting into the Livingston County Jail Sunday, drew a revolver from under her car coat, and forced a turnkey to release her husband, Thomas Sargent, 29.

Pace and his wife told officers after their arrest that they drove the Sargents to Flint and then drove them to Elkhart.

Kennedy Appears a Cinch

Name President Today

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The next president of the United States will really be elected today.

Barring some unexpected surprise, John F. Kennedy's slim popular vote victory over Vice President Richard M. Nixon in the Nov. 8 balloting will be confirmed when the 537 presidential electors meet in state capitals all over the nation to do the actual electing.

Under the frequently criticized electoral college system, written into the Constitution, the voters last month merely selected these electors. Each state is allotted a number of electors equal to the total of its senators and House members.

Until Illinois certified its 27 electors for Kennedy last week, some Republicans suggested a long-shot possibility that Nixon still might win the White House.

Kennedy's official total remained in doubt right up to today's electoral college balloting because of possible defections by individual Southern electors unhappy about his proposals.

The indicated division before the electors met was 300 votes for Kennedy and 223 for Nixon. A total of 269 was needed for election. All of Mississippi's eight electors and six from Alabama, who ran unpledged to any candidate in the Nov. 8 balloting, announced they would vote for Sen. Harry F. Byrd, a conservative Democrat from Virginia.

These unpledged Southern electors injected the element of uncertainty into the electoral college count. They unsuccessfully urged a massive vote by Dixie electors for some third candidate as a way to deny either Kennedy or Nixon a majority.

Hawaii's final vote still was being checked, with a recount scheduled to be completed today.

Because of this, both Republican and Democratic electors from the 50th state planned to cast ballots.

5 NCCC Foreign Students Stay Here

Can't Be Home for Holiday

By DON FERMOYLE

"We usually spend the Christmas season on the beach—swimming or tanning ourselves," said the 21-year-old North Central Christian College student.

This would seem a strange statement coming from most students at NCCC, but not from Monika Steinger, a sophomore whose home is in Port Elizabeth, South Africa.

Monika is one of five foreign students who add an international flavor to the Yuletide season at the college in Avon Township.

Located in the gently rolling hills just southwest of Rochester, the snow-covered campus looks like a Currier and Ives winter scene this time of year.

Inside the cheery lounge of the administration building, Monika told of the holiday season in her country where it was generally too hot on Dec. 25 to keep a Christmas tree.

"Christmas in South Africa is not celebrated the way it is here," she said.

Neither is it in the birthplace of Victor Joseph, 35, who is taking theological courses in preparation for missionary work as a minister for the Church of Christ.

However, Victor's country, although populated largely by persons of the Mohammedan and Jewish faiths, is Palestine, the country where Christianity began.

Victor lived in historic Jerusalem. As a boy he remembers walking five miles to attend Christmas services in Bethlehem.

"Christians of all denominations from all over the world would come to the services at midnight Christmas Eve at the Catholic Church in Bethlehem," he recalled.

Christmas was just another day for residents of Mogoilov, Russia, the boyhood home of Yvan Kolesnikov.

4,000 Workers Aboard at Start; at Least 5 Dead

$250-Million Ship Has 3-Degree List; Firemen May Flee

NEW YORK (AP)—A stubborn 14-alarm fire roared of control on the mammoth out of control on the mammouth aircraft Carrier Constellation today. Scores were injured and at least five dead.

The ship listed dangerously.

As tons of water were poured into the ship in a four-hour effort to stem the flames, the huge vessel listed to port at 3 degrees and threatened to force fire fighters to abandon the vessel.

Fire Commissioner Edward Cavanagh said if the tilt reached five degrees, all men would be pulled off the burning $250-million supercarrier, with the chance being she might go down.

The Navy ordered a seacock opened on the starboard side in an attempt to correct the list.

"When they go, they go fast," Cavanagh said.

Heavy snow, starting to fall early in the battle against the flames, hampered the operation.

It made the footing on decks and piers slippery, and cut visibility for fireboats and rescue craft maneuvering in the harbor.

The fire trapped 4,000 construction workers aboard the ship at the outset, forcing a massive rescue operation by crane lift and launch.

Cavanagh said five dead had been removed and the number of injured could reach "up in the hundreds."

"There is no way of determining how many men are trapped," said Fire Chief George David. "This is like fighting a fire in a big city it is so huge."

Firemen ordered the extra alarms, bringing in equipment from Manhattan, three hours after an explosion of a can of flammable liquid set ablaze the main deck of the $250-million carrier. The ship is 16 feet longer than the Queen Elizabeth, the biggest passenger liner afloat.

The department used seven alarms Friday when two airplanes collided.

The fire at one point was believed almost under control, but then it raged furiously again, spreading throughout the length of the 1,047-foot, 60,000-ton craft.

'SO MUCH WOOD'

"I never saw so much wood on a steel vessel," Cavanagh said.

He said hundreds of tons of burning timber already had been torn out of the new ship and thrown overboard, but the fire blazed on.

The emergency was increased to a 14-alarm fire, calling on aid from all boroughs and increasing the number of fire companies on the job from 65 to 95.

The word of possibly abandoning

'Blessed Art Thou, Mary'

She Awaits Her Wedding

that didst not bear, break forth into singing. At the gate of the fold, she met him, and threw her arms about his neck.

"Now I know that the Lord God hath greatly blessed us," she exclaimed. "Behold, she that was barren hath conceived!"

The tears of the aging couple, their faces pressed close, flowed together.

"As the Lord my God liveth," Anna had vowed, "whatever I bring forth, whether it be male or female, I will devote it to the Lord my God."

Jubilant and singing praises, Joachim had made a special pilgrimage to Jerusalem to offer 100 goats, 10 lambs without spot or blemish and 12 tender calves to the Lord in thanksgiving.

Anna still remembered the first words she uttered after her nine months were fulfilled and she delivered on the 15th day of the month Hathor.

"What have I brought forth?"

"A female," the midwife answered.

How swiftly the years had flown since then, and now the girl-child was to be married. Anna's fingers trembled as she placed the ringlet of flowers on the crown of Mary's dark, shining head, and then straightened the folds of her woven white gown.

SHE FELT OLD

It was a difficult time, for a mother. She stepped back to survey the girl's appearance, striving to keep the unreasoned sense of loss from her eyes.

Looking at her with an ever-sheltering love, Anna's throat filled and she felt worn and old and no more of use. The hours that bound them had passed. Come now, my daughter, and take thy bridal seat.

Anna reached out and caught her hand, pressing it, and led her slowly into the forechamber where the maid-servant, Judith, was busily decking the walls with leafy boughs and blossoms.

It was the custom to receive guests throughout the day before the signing of the betrothal agreement, and Mary would be there for all to see, her hair flowing to its full length as a sign of her maidenhood.

How strangely life unfolded. Just as the end of Mary's childhood was being marked with festivities, so was its beginning. That other, earlier celebration had scarcely faded in Anna's memory.

Mary had been a healthy, happy youngster, taking her first toddling steps at the age of nine months. When she was a year old, Joachim had made a great feast, inviting the whole village of Nazareth and even priests from Jerusalem.

In the midst of the jollity and lifting of wine cups, he had stood up, signaled for silence, and then prayed:

"O God of our fathers, bless this child, and give her a name renowned for ever among all generations."

"Amen and amen," the assemblage had cried. "So be it."

In keeping with their vow, when Mary was three years old, they had taken her to the Temple to dedicate her to the Lord's service.

They had arranged for her to study there, with other young virgins of well-to-do families, in the care of Anna's kinsman, the aged priest, Zechariel, of the division of Abijah, and his wife, Elizabeth. It was they, after the death of Joachim, who had helped Anna guide the child's upbringing.

Mary had grown radiant in spirit, rejoicing in worship, hymns and the sacred statutes, an exquisitely bright-cheeked and devout girl, with glad heart and a voice sweeter than the harps and flutes of the Levites on the Temple stairs.

Surely, Israel had never brought forth so goodly and elegant a bride. Anna moved distractedly about the room, her head swimming with recollections, hopes and fleeting anxieties, as she directed the final preparations.

Two other servants had joined Judith in decorating the house, bringing out extra ottomans and setting out trays of pickled olives, cheeses, fig cakes and other pastries for the throng of neighbors and relatives who would come in a day-long succession.

Anna's lips moved silently, as she bent to adjust a rug.

O Lord, grant that this man that thou hast chosen for her shall deal gently with her. Let him never raise his hand against her, nay speak to her harshly. She is born and nourished in thy loving kindness, O Lord, Give to to this woodcutter, Joseph, a worthy heart and good intent.

the vessel was relayed by the fire department to Adm. Schuyler S. Pyne, in command of Navy Yard.

This created new peril for any men still caught below the fire level, which centered on the main deck and spread upward through the flight deck.

Earlier, Pyne had said that anyone below unable to get out was not in severe danger so long as "they stuck it out where they are."

Teddy Munoz, a 19-year-old apprentice rigger from Astoria, Queens, said he was on the hangar deck when the fire broke out:

"We smelled smoke and began to go farther into the ship, but we found more smoke there."

He crawled out a porthole on the starboard side, 30 feet above water level.

"We were working our way down a cable when one of the fellows lost his grip and fell into the water," Munoz said. The man was rescued moments later.

Another worker, who declined to give his name, said he was working just off the flight deck when the fire broke out.

"Inside of seconds that whole deck was covered with fire and we came out a hole on the side of the ship," he said.

Firemen reported they reached 38 badly injured men trapped on the port side of the second deck, and rescue teams were leading them to safety. The firefighters cut through steel plates to free the men.

There still was the possibility that from 100 to 200 other workers might be somewhere on the ship.

Fire Chief George David said about 100 men had not been accounted for. He said they probably were below the fire line.

Some jumped into the icy East river and were rescued, as flames shot as high as 180 feet in the air at one stage.

The Navy said the fire was caused by accidental puncturing of a can of flammable liquid, which exploded as it hit hot metal. Workmen were putting finishing touches on the 250-million-dollar vessel, which was scheduled for commissioning in March.

Firemen, in near-freezing weather, poured streams of water on the ship from the docks and from fireboats on the river.

4,200 WORKMEN ABOARD

Rear Adm. Schuyler N. Pyne, commandant of the Brooklyn Naval Base, said some 4,200 civilian workmen were aboard when the fire broke out. Firemen still were laying new lines of hose as the admiral came ashore from the buring carrier.

Surprise End to Street

Woman Drives Into River

A Pontiac woman, unaware that the street she was driving on ended at the Clinton River, drove her car into its muddy waters early today.

Patricia Johnson, 21, 494 N. Johnson Ave., told Pontiac police she was driving east on Edna Street on Pontiac's westside at 5:45 a.m. Before she could stop, she told Patrolman Jack Beach, her car plunged off a four-foot slope into the river.

Police were notified of Miss Johnson's plight by a neighborhood woman, Nina Laferty, 27 Edna St. They found the unhappy driver atop the trunk of her car 25 feet from shore.

Using a rowboat to rescue her, officers brought the wet, shivering woman to shore.

She told officers when she realized the street ended at the river she was unable to stop because of icy pavement.

She was taken to Pontiac General Hospital where she was treated for shock and exposure.

The car — a 1960 model — belonged to a friend, she told officers.

Israel Corrects A-Bomb Report

But Admits Research With France for Peace Purposes Only

LONDON (AP) — The Israeli embassies in London and Paris confirmed today that France and Israel are engaged in joint atomic research but said it "is concerned only with the use of atomic power for peaceful purposes."

Both Israel's ambassador to Britain, Arthur Lourie, and the Israeli Embassy in Washington denied reports published in Washington and London that Israel is trying to build an atomic bomb. The reports said the French were helping secretly.

Information was said to have reached U.S. intelligence agencies that Israel would be capable of exploding its first nuclear device within a year. The Washington Post said Israel had developed a nuclear reactor secretly and might produce a nuclear weapon in about five years.

A New York Times dispatch from Washington said recent intelligence information in the U.S. capital was that Israel was secretly building a "fairly large atomic reactor near Beersheba."

Sargent was being held in a maximum security cell because he escaped from a southern Michigan prison farm in 1956 and slipped away again that year when being returned to Jackson, Mich., from New Orleans.

He was arrested Nov. 7 and pleaded guilty to breaking into an auto agency.

Cook, 56, said he was alone in the jail when the woman walked in sobbing. He asked her what was wrong and came around the desk to speak to her. The deputy said the woman then turned off the tears and whipped out the pistol.

The escape tarnished the reputation of the jail, which had not even had a serious escape attempt since it was built in 1950.

The Federal Bureau of Prisons recently said Michigan had six of the best-nine jails in the country and that the one at Howell topped the six.

Police said Mrs. Sargent acted as lookout during the burglary and was charged in the case, but the charge was dismissed.

The boy's death was discovered by his grandmother, Mrs. Nell Adler of 1910 Hillside Drive. She summoned a neighbor, Beecher E. Bevington, 37, of 121 Exmoor, who attempted vainly to revive Mrs. Denham with mouth-to-mouth respiration.

The boy's father was at work in Pontiac, where he is a store clerk, at the time. The couple's baby daughter was quietly nursing a bottle in her bassinet in the living room.

Mrs. Adler became suspicious when she couldn't reach her daughter by telephone, and drove to the Denham home. She reached through the milkchute to unlock the door and gain entry.

kov, 25, and his brother, Victor, 23.

Although the Kolesnikovs have lived in Canada for the past eight years, Yvan remembers only a few people celebrating during the Yule season in his homeland.

"You cannot wipe out religion entirely in a country," Yvan said. "But the official celebration of Christmas is abolished in Russia."

The opposite was true for a German coed, 20-year-old Eike Nordhausen, who recalls the gaiety and religious atmosphere of Christmases in her hometown of Berlin.

Eike, who escaped from East Germany with her mother 10 years ago, says that the season in Berlin actually begins a month before Christmas.

One of the ceremonies she told of was the lighting of one candle on each of the four Sundays preceding Christmas, which she says represented the light brought into the world with the birth of the Christ Child.

She said Saint Nicholas Day is celebrated on Dec. 6 when the German version of Santa Claus leaves nuts, cookies and sweets to children who have been good that year.

"If they have been bad," she said, "he leaves them potatoes in their shoes instead."

Eike said she gets "very homesick" this time of year when she knows she can't be home for Christmas.

Leo F. Kampsen Tries for Job of Waterford Clerk

Leo F. Kampsen, an auto salesman in Pontiac, has announced he was circulating nominating petitions for the office of Waterford Township clerk on the Republican ticket.

Kampsen, 38, of 4097 Baybrook Drive, Drayton Plains, is making his first try for public office, he said, trying to earn a spot on the Feb. 20 primary ballot in the township.

He has been a resident of the county for 34 years, attended Pontiac schools and is a veteran of World War II.

He was employed with Nye Dairy before joining Matthews-Hargreaves, Inc., three years ago. Kampsen is married and the father of four children.

ARTHUR E. SUMMERFIELD

Summerfield to Discuss Postal Career

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield will discuss his eight years in the Eisenhower administration Wednesday in Pontiac.

The only Cabinet member still serving of the original 1953 appointees, Summerfield is scheduled to address several hundred persons at a joint luncheon meeting of Pontiac service clubs at Elks Temple at 12 noon.

Some tickets are still available to the general public. They are on sale at Osmun's Men's Wear store, 51 N. Saginaw St., the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce, Community National Bank and the Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan office.

Summerfield's talk is being sponsored by the Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce. The postmaster general will be introduced by Harold A. Fitzgerald, publisher of The Pontiac Press.

Only two other postmaster generals have served as many years in the post as Summerfield. Albert S. Burleson served eight years under Wilson and James A. Farley served the first eight years of FDR's administration.

Summerfield is a former Flint automobile dealer.

To Continue Talks on Waterford Police

The Waterford Township Board will continue discussion tonight on alternate plans for job security for police department employees.

The board is also scheduled to talk about replacement of three police cars.

The question of whether civil service should be established or a police administrative board set up has been aired at recent board meetings.

The Day in Birmingham

Hills Votes Again Today on Sewer-Plan Bonds

BIRMINGHAM — Bloomfield Hills voters go to the polls today for the second time in less than three months to decide a $1.5-million bond issue to finance construction of an internal sewer system.

Property owners authorized the sale of the general bonds in a special election Oct. 3 but the vote was nullified after it was discovered an election notice failed to appear in a weekly newspaper.

In the first election the proposition carried by a 4-vote margin over the needed 60 per cent majority.

City officials explain that if the bond issue is turned down the internal sewer system will eventually be constructed as a result of a Circuit Court directive to stop pollution of the Rouge River.

If this is done the improvement would probably be financed through special assessments, costing taxpayers a higher rate than proposed with the general bonds, city officials claim.

Approval of today's bond issue would increase property taxes the first year an estimated $7.31 for each $1,000 of assessed valuation.

Taxes on each $1,000, however, could be reduced nearly a dollar if the city decides to sell the bonds in two stages. With this plan the city would only sell $1.33 million of the bonds for immediate construction of sewers in developed areas.

The remaining $170,000 in bonds would be sold at a later date when undeveloped areas begin to grow.

Both the city and a citizens' group have mailed letters to property owners urging them to approve the bond issue for the second time.

Christmas and New Year schedules at Baldwin Public Library were announced today.

The library will close Friday at 6 p.m., will remain closed through Monday, and reopen Dec. 27 at 9:30 a.m. Regular hours will be observed the remainder of that week.

In observance of the New Year's holiday the building will be closed Jan. 2 and service will resume Jan. 3 at 9:30 a.m.

Howard W. Elliott

Service and burial for Howard W. Elliott, 34, of 2373 Pembroke St. will be held Wednesday in Muncie, Ind. His body will be at the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. until 10 p.m. tomorrow.

* * *

Mr. Elliott died yesterday in Hurley Hospital, Flint, from injuries sustained in an automobile accident Saturday in Holly Township.

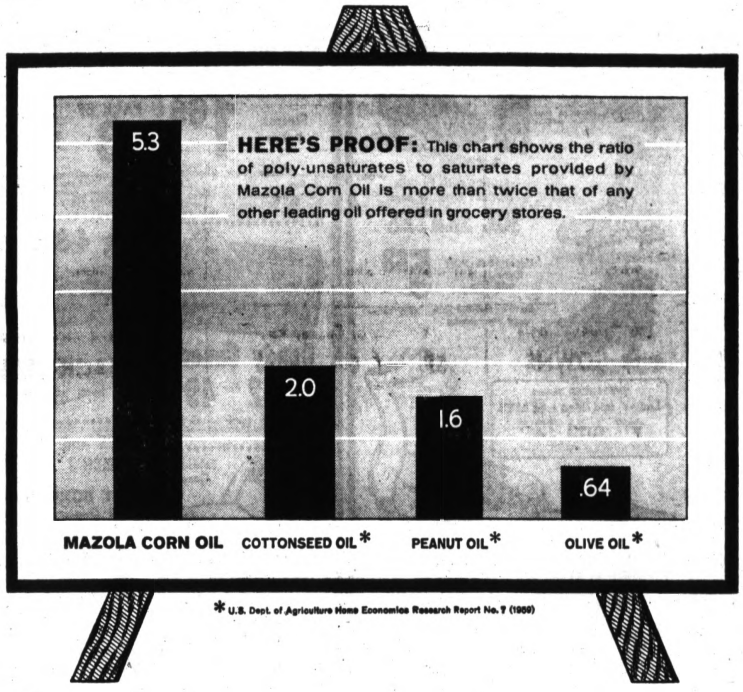
only Mazola liquid Corn Oil is both rich in poly-unsaturates and lowest in saturates



Pure liquid corn oil was used in many of the scientific studies dealing with the nutritional benefits of unsaturated fat.

Pure liquid corn oil was ideal because it has the highest ratio of poly-unsaturates to saturates present in any readily available salad and cooking oil on sale in food markets. Of all leading brands, only Mazola is pure liquid corn oil.

TODAY there is so much discussion concerning the role fats and oils play in your daily diet, that a simple explanation of the subject is both timely and important.

Basically, there are two kinds of fats—saturated and poly-unsaturated. At normal room temperature most of the saturated types are solid and the poly-unsaturated types are liquid. Most popular vegetable oils used in salads and cooking are high in the more poly-unsaturated fats.

Scientific Findings

There is considerable scientific evidence to indicate that liquid oils, high in poly-unsaturates, may be more desirable than solid fats in the diet. Certain special nutritional benefits are provided by the poly-unsaturated fats in salad and cooking oils. But, even among salad and cooking oils, there are wide differences in the ratios of poly-unsaturates to saturates.

Now, the next question . . . which salad and cooking oil should you choose . . . and why?

The Special Advantages of Pure Liquid Corn Oil

Many scientists classify the special nutritional effectiveness of different liquid oils by the ratio of poly-*un*saturates to saturates.

As you can see in the chart, Mazola liquid Corn Oil provides a ratio of poly-*un*saturates to saturates more than twice that of any other leading oil offered in grocery stores.

Daily Benefits

It is easy to provide you and your family with the benefits of pure Mazola Corn Oil. In your daily meals simply replace a portion of the hard (saturated) fats with Mazola liquid Corn Oil . . . the only oil that is both rich in poly-unsaturates and lowest in saturates.

Mazola is a delicate, golden-light oil which is superior for frying. It is exceptionally fine for making fresh salad dressings. Experienced cooks prefer Mazola for the way it makes so many delicious foods so easy to prepare.

Your Doctor Knows the Facts

Ask your doctor to explain the nutritional qualities of Mazola Corn Oil. Scientific research is continuing and findings are reported regularly to your doctor through the pages of medical publications. The role of pure liquid corn oil in good health is becoming better known as research programs go forward.

As more people learn the story of liquid corn oil nutrition . . . and how to enjoy this pure, delicious golden-light oil in daily meals . . . Mazola becomes their first choice of all salad and cooking oils.

Pontiac's Water Supply Demands Action Soon

The City of Pontiac has been sitting on the time bomb of dwindling water supply for the last few years, and to City Manager WALTER K. WILLMAN, the ticks are getting louder.

The fuse has been a long one, but he says the problem will reach its climax in five years. The water table for the wells is dropping about five feet a year, and considering the normal growth of the area as predicted for the next five years, at the end of that time, the underground supply will not be enough to serve our needs.

Earlier proposed solutions were a pipeline to Lake Huron with other communities, and also a metropolitan authority to band together several communities, and buy the water supply from Detroit.

For various reasons, these ideas were discarded. And now Detroit is looking to the future, and its water pipeline construction is coming out this way. The question we must face is, "Where is Pontiac going to get its water in the not-too-distant future?"

WILLMAN says next to sewage, and its adequate treatment, water is the most pressing problem facing the city. The state has already forced the city's hand in the sewage treatment problem.

Detroit officials say they have the capacity to serve Pontiac now, and all that is holding up Pontiac's decision is the action of the local industries. They use more than half of the water in the city, and must be considered in any future water plans for the city.

The problem is under study by the industrial giants, who, of course, are also faced with the problem of looking far ahead in problems of expansion and supply. We trust an early answer to the problem will allow Pontiac to make its committments in the near future.

UNESCO Plans Help for Illiterates of the World

The United Nations Education, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) meeting in Geneva is discussing a plan to help make the world literate. More than half of all the people on earth can neither read nor write.

There has never been any massive attempt to develop people along with their countries. The emphasis had to be first on the development of resources to provide food. As outlined, the UNESCO program has as its goal a basic education at least for millions of children within 20 years.

The U.N. agency estimates that in Arab speaking countries alone there are 10 million children not attending school. A study of 15 Asian countries reveals that 87 million children have no opportunity to learn to read and write.

At the present rate of population growth that number will reach 220 million by 1980. Through efforts now being made, however, some will have the opportunity of primary schooling.

It will take tremendous effort and an enormous amount of money over the 20 year period. UNESCO estimates that facilities will have to be provided for an additional 156 million primary school children. Over five million teachers will be required with a like number of classrooms. Estimated cost is $65 billion or about $3.2 billion a year.

This, of course, does not include central Africa where only 8 million out of 25 million children get any kind of schooling. Few of these complete primary grades and only 260,000 go on to high school.

UNESCO couldn't possibly provide the money to do the whole job. But it can help organize programs to recruit teachers, plan mass schooling and aid countries in all phases of education.

The problem is vast and difficult. But a start must be made. The literate world for its own good must help the other half of mankind.

Of What Can Be Done in Our Own Oakland County

Frugal: Economical, but not like the gal who tries to get as much as possible out of an evening gown.

Planted as a mere seedling in 1920 by

Mrs. Laura Jaenichen

of 9045 Dixie Highway, on her farm in Springfield Township, 12 miles northwest of Pontiac, it grew into the majestic Pontiac Christmas tree, now spreading holiday glory at the corner of North Saginaw and Oakland Avenue.

Never did our city have a more beautiful Christmas tree — and it was home planted and home grown. Anyway, what can't we do in Oakland County?

Mrs. Jaenichen's two sons,

Louis and Herman Jaenichen,

are still living on the farm.

It also has been the privilege of neighbor to watch the tree's growth. His observation of local events exceeds the three-quarter century mark.

Glenn Ellis

With the first complete snow coverage of the season,

Mrs. Lewis Hannawalt

of Williams Lake reports a capacity sitting at her full course bird feeding board since Friday morning. The same news is phoned in by

Mrs. Beeman Ottaway

of Lake Orion, who says their repayment in song is a big recompense, while

Mrs. Lawrence Preswell

of Birmingham asserts that it all seems to reflect the Christmas spirit.

As a souvenir of his last year in the longest occupancy of the governor's chair of any man in Michigan's history, is sending his friends a unique silver pocket piece, with each individual's initials engraved upon it.

G. Mennen Williams

Skating on most of the smaller lakes in the Pontiac area now is safe—unless they have a stream flowing through them. The safest plan is to avoid the larger lakes, some of which still have open water or treacherous ice.

Oakland County's champion letter writer among its men in military uniform in the Civil War of nearly a century ago was of Holly. The historical collection at the University of Michigan has 36 letters written home by him during that conflict between the states.

For the sixth consecutive year, the family cat of

of Rochester has given birth to a litter of four kittens a few days before Christmas. And Mr. Smith says she's not exactly idle between times.

Voice of the People:

Disappointed in Kennedy's Appointment of Stevenson

Mr. Kennedy has already made a major mistake in naming Adlai Stevenson as delegate to the U.N. In any radio or TV interview I have never heard Adlai give a straight or direct answer. How can a man like this be expected to deal with trained Red experts?

It appears that we are returning to the program of appeasement and retreat which has proven so disasterous—e.g. Roosevelt at Yalta and Truman at Potsdam. Then there is Adlai's buddy, Mrs. E. Roosevelt, who had the nerve to entertain her pink and red friends in the White House!

My recommendation to anyone who is a loyal, freedom loving American is write or telegraph Mr. Kennedy, your senator and congressman and stop this appointment. It's later than you think.

'No Need to Fear Catholic Church'

Now that we are having a president who is a member of the Roman Catholic Church many people are fearful of religious persecution. There is no need to fear from this source, as apostate Protestantism is taking care of that by trying to enforce the Sunday laws which will finally culminate in the work of the beast. (Rev. 13-17).

'Taverns Should Be Closed on Sunday'

Why not criticize the taverns for staying open on Sunday instead of the stores? The evil starts in these taverns, so what's wrong with shopping on Sunday?

There are many people like myself who enjoy shopping with their family and Sunday is the only day we have. The family that shops together shares together.

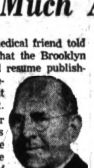
Dr. William Brady Says:

Newspaper, Rheumatiz Merit Much Attention

When an old medical friend told me a year ago that the Brooklyn Eagle soon would resume publishing I couldn't decide whether it was rumor or not.

I do remember the time, if this rumor proves true I'll borrow the first sentence of my first piece in the new Eagle from the mentor who really first put the idea of a health column in my head, Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes: "I was just going to say, when I was interrupted."



DR. BRADY

Holmes, we must remember, was not only a philosopher and poet but a physician as well, instructor in anatomy at Harvard and the author of a great medical essay, "The Contagiousness of Puerperal Fever" (childbed fever, septicemia, "blood poisoning" after childbirth).

Publication of the young whippersnapper's paper in a medical journal (he was 34 years old) in 1843 brought upon his head the satire, ridicule and invective of the preeminent obstetricians of the country—Hodge, the professor of obstetrics in University of Pennsylvania, and Meigs, the professor of obstetrics in Jefferson Medical School. I'll say this for standpatters of Holmes' day—they didn't go underground or seek the aid of the nostrum vendors and the chest-food people when they wanted to blast someone for telling the truth.

I wish I knew just what article of mine, if any, was printed in the last issue of the old Eagle. The first reader who tells me the title and date of the article will receive, with my compliments a complimentary set of the Pocket Cyclopedia of Health, 23 volumettes, boxed and delivered, regularly $7.50.

The volumettes may be carried in purse or pocketbook, to read at odd moments when there's nothing better within reach. Thus it makes a good course in how to keep well — unless you think you already know more about health than I do.

This reminds me that elderly readers of the old Eagle used to chide me for my uncompromising or harsh view of the rheumatiz. They opined that perhaps I'd feel some sympathy for victims of rheumatiz when I got older and had it myself.

They were as wrong about that as they were about the nature and cause and prevention and treatment of the rheumatiz. Formerly I merely smiled or chuckled when some poor soul tried to tell me his joint disability was due to exposure to cold and damp. Today my reaction to such an absurd statement is an unrestrained guffaw.

Perhaps I should explain that ever since the old Eagle folded I have kept right on, supplementing my everyday diet with Ca, D, I, and B-complex, rolling my somerdaults and bowling on the green. Adequate daily rations of calcium, vitamin D, iodin and vitamin B constitute the Regimen for Rheumatism, described in No. 12 Little Lesson, Chronic Joint Disability, for which send me 35 cents and a stamped envelope bearing your address.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 350 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Wife Can Help Cure Platonic Mate

Sally says her husband is platonic and treats her as unromantically as if she were his mother. Millions of married couples have this problem, so learn how to solve it quickly, for it is usually easy to remedy. Scrapbook this case and use the dieting as a Lenten project for your church.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE G-445: Sally M. aged 38, is an attractive housewife.

"But, Dr. Crane," she protested, "my husband is no longer romantically interested in me! That's a tragic fact!

"He is a platonic mate and while he still comes home for his meals, he shows no more ardor than he would toward his mother.

DR. CRANE

"Yet he is only 43, so why is he so stodgy and disinterested in affection?"

The two greatest "love killers" in modern matrimony are tobacco and obesity!

Cigaret smokers often begin to grow platonic in the late thirties. And if they are also considerably overweight, then you can be fairly sure they make indifferent husbands before they reach 50.

In counseling with thousands of such cases, I find that platonic husbands are almost invariably smoking fatties.

That was the case with Sally and her husband. For he weighed 210 and was a chain smoker.

But Sally herself had lost much of her allure by having developed a plump matronly figure.

On her wedding day, she told me she weighed 115, but now she tipped the scales at 162. Yet she was only five feet, three inches.

So I urged both of them to launch upon a diet. They followed the plan I had previously outlined.

Sally limited herself to 800 calories while he stayed on 1,200 per day.

In dieting, be sure you include plenty of protein, such as meat, cottage cheese, beans, peas, etc., for your muscles require a fresh input of protein EVERY DAY.

Your body does not store protein, though it has plenty of excess sugar and fat!

"But, Dr. Crane," her husband began, "what about my smoking? Should I give it up at the same time or try to reduce first and then cut out my tobacco later?"

In my practice, I find that patients can cut out both those nuisance habits at the same time. In fact, the fretting over lack of cigarets helps divert their minds from their stomachs.

Smokers will involuntarily reach for a smoke at 30-minute intervals, so place candy coated gum in the same pocket. Then they can lift out the package, shake out a piece of gum and thus go through some of the former tobacco habit pattern.

It is also wise to carry rubber bands or a soft rubber ball in that pocket so the nervous tension can express itself in squeezing the ball or tinkering with the rubber bands.

In dieting, too, try to have your sandwich or milk AWAY from the dining room. Eat at your office desk or before the TV so your mind is not prodded into greater hunger from viewing extra viands on the table.

For we psychologists have found that your brain will generate a greater hunger if you view a larger food supply, showing how suggestible we human beings are.

Sally and her husband prodded each other into staying on their diet. And she even enlisted many other wives in her church women's society as a means of raising money, for they contributed $3.50 apiece to the church for every pound they shed.

Send for my booklet on "How to break the liquor and tobacco habits," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non profit).

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4 cent stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

The Country Parson

"It's a tough job to teach our children not to make mistakes . . . especially the ones we want to go right on making."

David Lawrence Says:

Politics Is Behind 8 Cabinet Picks

WASHINGTON — Politics—with its subtle, and sometimes not so subtle, obligations — is responsible for the selection of eight out of 10 of the cabinet of President-Elect Kennedy. This proportion is a throwback to the days of McKinley, though every president in this century has chosen some members of his cabinet with due deference to political factors.

LAWRENCE

So far as the country is concerned, it can ask itself whether in the entire nation—or in the Democratic party itself — there wasn't someone so outstanding and experienced in his field that he might better have been picked than the announced selection for attorney general or for the post of secretary of Health, Education and Welfare or for the secretaryship of the Treasury or for postmaster general or for the top posts in the department of Labor and Commerce, respectively.

As for the departments of Agriculture and Interior, it is customary, of course, to nominate men who will satisfy political interests in the Middle West and Far West.

The public, however, has the impression when a presidential nominee promises during his campaign to select the best men in the land—a "ministry of the best available talent"—that the pledge will be kept after election.

Kennedy may not be blamed so much perhaps for following political precedent because it can be argued in justification that this is what has been done in the past.

NOT SO CONTEMPTUOUS

On that point, at least, the new "liberals" in command aren't so contemptuous of the past as they so often boasted during the recent campaign.

For the truth of the matter is that a presidential nominee does incur obligations when he seeks electoral votes, and he knows that people generally gloss over charges of "conflict of interest" afterward as he pays off his political debts at the expense of the public interest.

It isn't always a campaign contribution or a special piece of political service by a particular individual that causes politics to be given preference over efficiency and ability. Often it is the big contributors or their friends or the politicians themselves who put up names for the president-elect to choose from, and he doesn't like to turn down the loyal friends who recommend someone to him.

Sometimes a president picks a cabinet officer or two from the opposite political party. This is hailed as "bipartisan." But it is a piece of political hokum. Actually, those selected for the cabinet aren't the ones who were prominent in the defeated party —individuals who campaigned before the people and expressed themselves on current issues.

Usually men picked for the cabinet from the opposing party are of the flexible kind—they go along with the new chief executive even though sometimes incurring the hostility of members of their own party.

The idea, to be sure, in picking a couple of cabinet members from the opposite party, is to give the appearance of bipartisanship. If, indeed, there had been any real desire to retain the experience of a valuable man in a predecessor administration, it would have been better to have kept Secretary of the Treasury Anderson on the job.

Incidentally, he himself was a Democrat selected by President Eisenhower because, as a Texan of prominence, Anderson was expected get and did have the cooperation of House Speaker Sam Rayburn and Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson.

Authorities So Confused Over Children's Books

By United Press International

Do many of the classic children's books give your youngster a dangerous and distorted picture of other people in the world?

Yes, says Dean Lester Asheim, of Chicago University's graduate library school, with the backing of some educators.

"Nonsense," says a group of librarians, educators and authors.

Asheim cited two old time favorites, Little Black Sambo and Hans Brinker of the Silver Skates, as examples of books that give the kiddies a false, distorted picture of other countries.

He said Mary Maples Dodge's book on Hans Brinker gave a "stereotyped and unrealistic picture of the Dutch people that show them in a false light."

"It ill prepares children to come to an understanding of other people," he said. "Little Black Sambo has even more dubious value. If the child takes the book as a picture of the African people, he could grow up with dangerous preconceptions."

'RIDICULOUS'

Mrs. Francis Sayers, UCLA library school instructor and for 11 years head of the juvenile section of the New York Public Library, said Asheim's criticism was "utterly ridiculous."

First of all, she said Sambo was about India, not Africa. "It is a lovely story of family relations, every word is perfectly placed and it is truly a great work. What we adults do is read the current hysteria into the Great Works."

Herbert Gold, prizewinning author of "The Man Who Was Not With It," said, "It is not important if the book gives the true facts about how Hans Brinker lives in Holland, but how a boy might feel.

"The geography of a children's book is the geography of a child's mind, not of a place."

Donald J. Winslow, English professor at Boston University, said Asheim's view "is more or less nonsensical." "Some people today give too much attention to the sociological aspects of fairy tales. I trust the educational system can cope with any misconceptions that might be given."

Jean Merrill, chief children's librarian at Kansas City Public Library, said she did not see any danger in such books, although she has pulled copies of Little Black Sambo from the shelves of her library.

"But the children who love it most are the Negro children," she said.

McNutt and Council Poise for Fireworks

SOUTHFIELD — The possibility of more fireworks between administrator Robert J. McNutt and the 4-man bloc of the city council looms tonight at the regular council meeting.

This will be the last meeting for McNutt, who has resigned as city administrator, effective Thursday.

Council President C. Hugh Dohany said today that he has received a memo from McNutt stating that a "finders fee" of $2,500 is due Arthur W. Stephens, Birmingham real estate broker.

McNutt stated the money is owed Stephens for finding the property that was purchased by the city for its civic center.

The 106-acre tract at Evergreen and 10½ Mile roads was purchased in February 1959 from Mary Thompson for $447,000 over a 5-year period. The city has an option to purchase an additional 60 acres for $44,000.

Dohany said neither McNutt nor Stephens had anything to do with the transaction and that negotiations were made with Miss Thompson by himself, Mayor Donald L. Swanson and City Clerk Patrick G. Flannery.

Dohany said Miss Thompson did not want a third party involved in the transaction.

McNutt also stated in his memo that his control of the budget made it possible for the city to purchase the property. Dohany said this is not so.

The council president stated that the money was made available in the budget as a result of McNutt's predecessor handling of city funds. McNutt succeeded Eugene Swem as city administrator.

Stephens has been employed occasionally by the Southfield Parks and Recreation Department to locate land for future playground sites.

Romeo High Sets Annual Yule Concert

ROMEO — The music department of Romeo Senior High School will present its annual Christmas concert tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the high school gymnasium.

Featured will be the concert band of 78 members directed by E. C. Ojala. He will lead the musicians in a varied program of seasonal favorites including selections from Handel's "Messiah" and themes from Tschaikovsky's "Nutcracker Suite."

The Mixed Chorus wearing new choir stoles will offer a cantata, "The Shepherd's Christmas" by Luvaas and Hendricks. Maurine Doebler will accompany the group on the piano.

The cantata will be performed in the subdued lighting of individual flashlights which will have the appearance of candles.

The original painting of the Nativity scene, done on a huge sheet of plastic last year by Judith Engel, again will be used as a backdrop for the concert.

High school speech teacher Joseph Sullivan will announce the program.

Preconcert music will be played in the halls by a brass ensemble from the junior high school.

No admission will be charged but a free will offering will be taken for use by the music department.

MARY LOU CENKOVICH

The engagement of Mary Lou Cenkovich to Joseph R. Schultz is announced by her parents Mr. and Mrs. Steve Cenkovich of 7196 Biscayne Road, White Lake Township. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Schultz of St. Clair Shores. A June wedding is planned.

ARDIS V. WOODWARD

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Woodward of 28 Pearl St., Oxford, announce the engagement of their daughter Ardis V. to Wayne D Stoner, son of Clifford D. Stoner and Mrs. Frances Stoner, both of Fredericksburg, Va. The wedding will take place Feb. 18 in Oxford's First Baptist Church.

Yule Concert Is Scheduled by Smart PTA

WALLED LAKE — Music in the holiday mood will be presented Wednesday at 8 p.m. when the Clifford H. Smart Junior High School Parent-Teacher Association stages its annual public Christmas concert at the school.

The 35-member school orchestra and 50-piece band will perform under the direction of Frank Balaam. Among the instrumental renditions will be classical, modern, popular and religious selections.

The school's several vocal groups will present a program under the direction of Eugene Guettler.

Vocal offerings will include the Girls Triple Trio singing "Pat-A-Pan," and the Girls Glee Club, Boys Chorus and Boys Ensemble singing "Masters In This Hall."

The A Cappella Choir will sing "The Night Before Christmas."

Churchwomen at Troy Honor Miss Wattles, 84

TROY — The Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church of Troy is naming its first circle after one of its most faithful members, Miss Helen Mary Wattles, 84 years old.

The circle meets the third Tuesday of each month at 1 p.m. following the regular business meeting at 11 a.m. and a dessert luncheon at noon.

Circle members have picked the theme "In Him Was Life" for study during 1961. It is based on the Gospel of John. Also included will be a study of Ecumenical Mission and families.

Corn and Wheat in 1960 Down From Estimate

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Michigan's estimated 1960 production of corn and wheat showed a drop from the 1959 revised estimates according to the Agriculture Department's final production report of the year.

The drop in state production bucked the national trend which showed increases in both basic crops.

The final estimate on the Michigan corn crop for 1960 was 119,568,000 bushels compared to a revised 1959 figure of 121,240,000 bushels in 1959.

The figure was still above the 10-year-average of 85,949,000 bushels for the state, however.

The wheat estimate for 1960 was 33,926,000 bushels as compared with a revised 1959 figure of 35,904,000 bushels. The 1960 figure was just over the 10-year-average of 33,488,000 bushels.

The national crops were given in the final 1960 estimate as 4,352,668,000 bushels of corn and 1,363,433,000 bushels of wheat.

The Agriculture Department also paced the 1960 Michigan potato crop at 7,372,000 hundredweight. The national crop was placed at 256,677,000 hundredweight.

More than one million tons of crude oil and its products are moved through pipelines of the U.S. every day and the total is growing.

Bonds for New Municipal Bldg., Library

Clawson Voting on Downtown Plans

CLAWSON—The fate of a downtown redevelopment program proposed by city officials hangs in the balance as voters decide on two bond issues in a special election here today.

In order to be approved, each of the two proposals on the ballot requires a "yes" vote from at least 60 per cent of the voters.

One of the propositions is a $590,000 request to construct a municipal building to house the city offices, Municipal Court and council chambers and police and fire department headquarters.

City facilities now are in the City Hall at 35 W. 14-Mile Road and in the second story of a fire house behind the present city offices.

ON SOUTH MAIN STREET

The new municipal building would be constructed on the west side of South Main Street between Jefferson and Madison streets.

The land on which the old City Hall stands would be sold to commercial developers if the bond issue for the new building is approved.

The fire house would be removed to make way for a municipal parking lot.

This was part of a plan suggested to the mayor and City Council following a three-year study of Clawson's downtown area by professional consultants.

The other proposition on the ballot seeks voter approval of a $135,000 bond issue for construction of a new library on the site of the city's present facility at Fisher Court and North Main Street.

The city's present library, a two-story frame home built before the Civil War, is termed overcrowded by city officials.

CAN'T HANDLE POPULATION

City Manager Leonard Hendricks says the existing City Hall also is too small to handle Clawson's present population of 15,000 persons.

Polls in the city's five precincts will be open until 8 p.m.

The polls are at Kenwood School, 240 Nahma St.; Parkland School, 499 Parkland St.; McDonald School 1040 Grant St.; Paul Schalm School 940 N. Selfridge St.; and Clawson High School, 101 John M St.

Oak Park Voids Contracts of Carver District Teachers

OAK PARK — The contracts of all teachers employed by the recently dissolved Carver School District have been nullified, it was announced today by the Oak Park Board of Education.

The Oak Park School Board said in a prepared statement that teachers from the Carver district "are considered substitutes and will continue in this classification for the remainder of the current school year."

"In the meantime," the statement continued, "our administration will conduct an intensive evaluation of all teaching personnel, to be completed about Feb. 15."

"Those who are considered qualified will be offered probationary contracts for the school year 1961-62. Those who are not considered qualified will not be employed."

WILL GET TENURE

The school board's statement said teachers who receive probationary contracts will be given tenure status after a year of "satisfactory performance."

The legal order bringing about attachment of Royal Oak Township's Carver district to Oak Park did not resolve some of the problems connected with the annexation, according to the school board.

Therefore, the board of education made its own decisions regarding teacher tenure and spreading the school tax, which the board decided will be the same in Oak Park and the old Carver district.

The board said there are no provisions in the Michigan School Board which forbid Oak Park school officials from making their own decisions in these matters.

Burning With Shame, They Answer the Call

PORT MONMOUTH, N.J. (UPI) — Fire raged unnoticed for more than three hours at the most embarrassing of places—the local firehouse.

A passer-by discovered the blaze and turned in an alarm, bringing the town's red-faced volunteer firemen rushing to the scene.

The blaze, started by defective wiring in the firehouse kitchen, badly damaged the building. But the three fire engines were saved.

Eyes Revamped Pardon System

Official Calls Current Setup Hit-Miss; Backed Up by Williams

LANSING (AP) — Convicted prisoners who may have been innocent will have their cases reviewed under a more efficient system, if Gov. Williams has his way.

"Haphazard and hit-and-miss", was the description applied to the present system by Gus Harrison, Department of Corrections director, at a meeting Friday with representatives from the state bar, law schools and the attorney general's office.

Harrison said there now is no systematic way to screen the cases of prisoners who maintain their innocence.

He said that frequently it is merely the sincerity of the prisoner himself that starts the ball rolling on an investigation into his claim.

"Or it might be his family or a law enforcement officer who has doubts about the prisoner's guilt, or even the interest expressed by a judge," Harrison said.

Gov. Williams explained that the parole board is required by law to conduct the investigation and report to him on such cases.

But the board has never recommended a pardon on the grounds of innocence and only two pardons have been granted in his 12 years in office.

Williams cited the case of Walter A. Pecho as an example. He said that it came to his attention mainly through articles in a newspaper.

Pecho, a Lansing factory worker, was pardoned by Williams last June after serving six years in prison for allegedly murdering his wife, Eleanor. An investigatin convinced Williams that she had killed herself.

The U.S. bought its first military aircraft in 1909 just six years after the Wright brothers made their first historic flight on the sand dunes in North Carolina.

Irons Warns of Thin Ice, Bad Roads

December Can Be Deadly

Oakland County Sheriff Frank W. Irons today warned area residents that "The Christmas holiday can be a two-faced season of mirth and tragedy.

"December is noted for traffic deaths and drownings, as well as all the tinsel and holly," Irons said.

Last year 14 traffic deaths were recorded in Oakland County during December, making it, worst month of the year.

Already this month five traffic fatalities have occurred.

"Except for a clear December so far, we probably would have sustained more fatalities by now," the sheriff concluded, after comparing it with years past.

The 1960 highway death toll already has surpassed that for the entire year of 1959 when 91 persons were killed in traffic. This year, so far, 103 are dead.

"There probably will be a few more people killed on the road before Christmas," Irons predicted.

The other December killer in lake-dotted Oakland County is unpredictable — ice.

Already treacherous ice forming on lakes offers an invitation to death, especially for small children with their great curiosity.

A thin coat of ice has sheathed many ponds in the area and sheriff's deputies have reported seeing older youngsters testing this at risk of drowning.

A skin diver drowned in Green Lake Sunday when he became lost under ice stretching 100 yards from shore. His companion was lucky enough to escape a similar fate.

There are approximately 192,000 railroad bridges in the United States.

He Prayed Out Loud; Missed Fatal Flight

XENIA, Ohio (UPI)—"I said a prayer . . . out loud," Wilberforce University freshman Winslow Dill said, "Otherwise, I could only keep saying: How terrible! How terrible!"

Dill, 21, of Somerset, Bermuda, was the only person who failed to show up at takeoff time at Dayton Friday for Trans World Airlines' ill-fated Flight 226.

The TWA constellation and a United Air Lines jet collided over New York City and 127 persons aboard the planes were killed in the crash.

"You don't know how to describe such a feeling," he said. "I'm still shaken up.

Dill said he did not make the flight because he was unable to raise enough money to buy his ticket, though he had a reservation.

One-a-Day Diet Pill OK, Says Drug Firm

CINCINNATI, Ohio (UPI) — The William S. Merrell Co., a pharmaceutical firm, has introduced a one-a-day diet pill it claims will kill the appetite for 12 hours.

It's called tenuate dospan and is a combination of an appetite suppressant and a new and improved delaying agent, according to Dr. John B. Chewning, a company official.

He said the pill melts gradually through moisture and normal muscle action in the intestines, releasing the hunger-killing drug over a daylong period.

Once the pill is taken, the dieter is on a diet and he won't be hungry all day.

The pill will be available soon by prescription only, Chewning said.

PET DOCTOR

By A. W. Moller, D.V.M.

Q. We are raising a baby squirrel. He is very frisky but is losing his hair. What do you suggest? Bruce Shepardson, Fairpoint, N.Y.

A. Your letter said that there was no inflammation or irritation of the skin. In this case, your squirrel is merely shedding his baby hair for a thicker coat of adult fur.

This is a normal process and, if the diet is adequate, is made without difficulty. At no time is a little squirrel naked. Feed him fresh nuts, fresh greens, orange juice and a little milk.

He should also be given one or two drops of pediatric vitamins daily. A lack of fat is the most common deficiency in the diet, so be sure the nuts he eats are fresh. In my experience, walnuts have given the best results with hazelnuts running a close second.

Caution Drivers Over Christmas

National Safety Council Warns of Danger With Forecast of 510 Deaths

CHICAGO (UPI) — The National Safety Council warned today that unless motorists observe the speed laws and don't drink, deaths on the highway in the Christmas weekend may treble the number dead in Friday's air disaster in New York.

The council, in the belief that virtually all of the nation's 74 million automobiles will be on the highway at sometime during the weekend, said the 78-hour holiday period could bring at least 510 deaths in traffic — without the exercise of caution.

Between 6 p.m. Friday, Dec. 23, and midnight Monday, Dec. 26, motorists should roll up a total of some six billion miles, 200 million more than during a nonholiday period of comparable length.

Traffic deaths would number 350 on a nonholiday weekend at this time of year. There were 493 traffic deaths over the Christmas weekend last year and 609 in 1955, a record number for a three-day Christmas weekend.

The council predicted that this year's possible death toll would be substantially reduced if motorists and pedestrians exercised extra caution and refrained from speeding and drinking.

Howard Pyle, president of the council, urged drivers to:

—Pay extra attention to speed limits, traffic and weather conditions.

—Avoid drinking before driving.

—Get an extra-early start for long trips, and plan to stop driving as early as three or four in the afternoon.

—Remember courtesy on the road, exercise common sense and use seat belts.

Muskegon Budget to Aid Port Position

MUSKEGON (AP) — A budget of more than $40,000 to meet stiffening competition in foreign shipping trade has been approved for 1961 operations of the port of Muskegon.

The development announced at a meeting of the Muskegon Board of Harbor Commissioners is expected to permit greater efforts of the port to hold its position as foreign commerce center for West Michigan and remain among the top United States ports on the St. Lawrence Seaway.

Russian Nation 'Inefficient,' Says D. Urey

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI)—The Soviet Union is a dreary and inefficient country, according to Nobel prize winning scientist Dr. Harold Urey.

Urey returned to work Friday at the University of California at La Jolla after a tour of the Soviet Union.

"It is the Communist scheme of things that makes for the enormous inefficiency of things and the dreariness," said Urey, who is studying the solar system.

The scientist attended the International Astronomical Union Symposium on the moon while in Leningrad, Russia.

Only 32 Italians Now

Pope John to Raise Cardinals to 100?

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

Pope John's announcement of the appointment of four new cardinals raises the complement of the Roman Catholic Church's "senate" to 86, and church sources say he intends to raise the number to 100 or more.

Of the four new cardinals, only one was Italian. There are now 32 Italians in the college of cardinals where their numerical strength has been diminishing steadily for the last 10 years.

The question now is: Will the next Pope be a non-Italian? The last non-Italian Pope was Pope Adrian VI of Utrecht, Holland, who reigned from 1522 until 1523.

Khrushchev strategy:

NATO sources meeting in Paris believe the first international test of President-Elect John F. Kennedy's administration may come over the Berlin issue, with Nikita Khrushchev attempting either to force a new East-West summit meeting before the Kennedy regime is properly on its feet or carrying out his threat to sign a separate treaty with Communist East Germany.

The Russians might also use Berlin to divert attention from Laos where they may be on the point of deciding the future of Southeast Asia.

More Algerian troubles:

Look for more trouble from the Moslems in Algeria before the year is out.

Word is that the response of the city-based Arabs who stitched together rebel flags and demonstrated for hours under the guns of the French army, surprised even the National Liberation Front (NLF) command in Tunis, which now will try to exploit it. . .

In Paris, there is talk that President de Gaulle may have in mind some startling gesture to win back support of the mass of Moslems after the recent rioting.

One such gesture might be to declare a one-sided truce in Algeria, regardless of rebel action.

De Gaulle is reported still convinced he will win by a big majority the referendum he has called for Jan. 8 for French voters to record their approval of his plan for a semi-independent Algeria.

Communist troubles:

The Communists are worried by growing demands among East German workers for a five-day week. Brief strikes have been held at some Soviet zone factories to test the long work week.

Here's Some Help

Is That Last Gift Giving You Fits?

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Still looking for that one gift item? We are too. Let's look together.

Do you know someone who is crazy about a certain sport? Give him a brass ice bucket with a sports figure on the top; you have your choice of a number of sports.

We like the little kit that contains a roller for getting lint off clothes and several refills. Anyone could use this.

A sweet-smelling present is a plastic box holding two round packages of fancy miniature soap and one of lavender or rose petals. The soap is pine cone or strawberry shaped.

Pianos have taken on a new look. They now come in a variety of furniture styles, including French Provincial. We saw one modern one that was lower than the ordinary spinet and without any legs in the front.

Just a little gift is a fancy shopping bag that folds into a small case. The glamorous ones we mean have "pearls" on them.

There's an attractive Delft egg cup in blue and white china with the story of the Pilgrims on it.

Buy the woman smoker a smoke tote which is a little leather drawstring bag with a matching lighter attached.

We saw an interesting set of five plastic bottles to be used in kitchen, nursery or bathroom. They would be good for traveling too.

How about some flower shaped place mats backed with foam rubber. Or a terry cloth toaster cover?

Salinger Denies Jack Plans Trip to Europe

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — President-Elect John F. Kennedy's news secretary today denied published reports that Kennedy plans to make a European trip early next year.

The aide, Pierre Salinger, was asked about a report published in the Washington-Post Times Herald under a Bonn, Germany, dateline that said the West German government has been informed Kennedy is considering a fast trip to Europe shortly after his inauguration.

Avid Readers Literally Delight in New Library

The new Pontiac Public Library is all dressed up for Christmas.

The $500,000 Civic Center attraction, open to the public since early November, is wholly furnished nowadays, complete with Christmas tree.

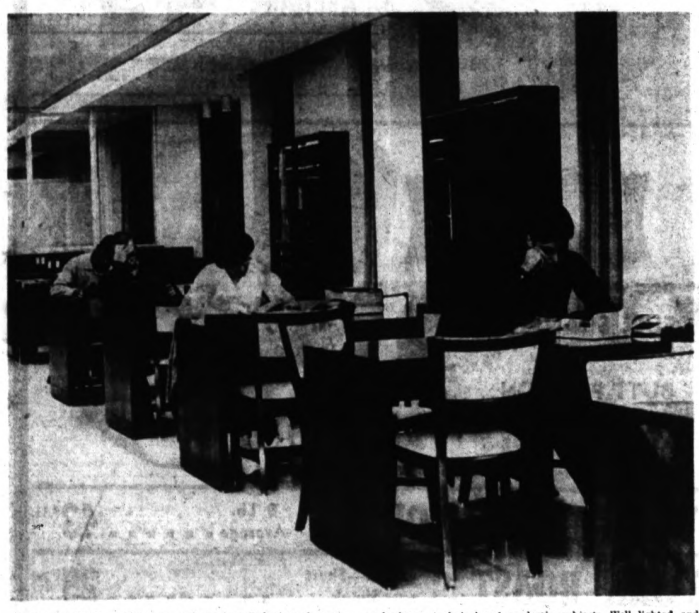
The new library is a handsome, comfortable spot with colorful, well-lighted areas designed for every type of reader, from the youngster still looking at picture books to adults browsing for pleasure or studying for special purposes.

In the first 45 days after the low-lying, glass and brick structure opened, circulation of books doubled.

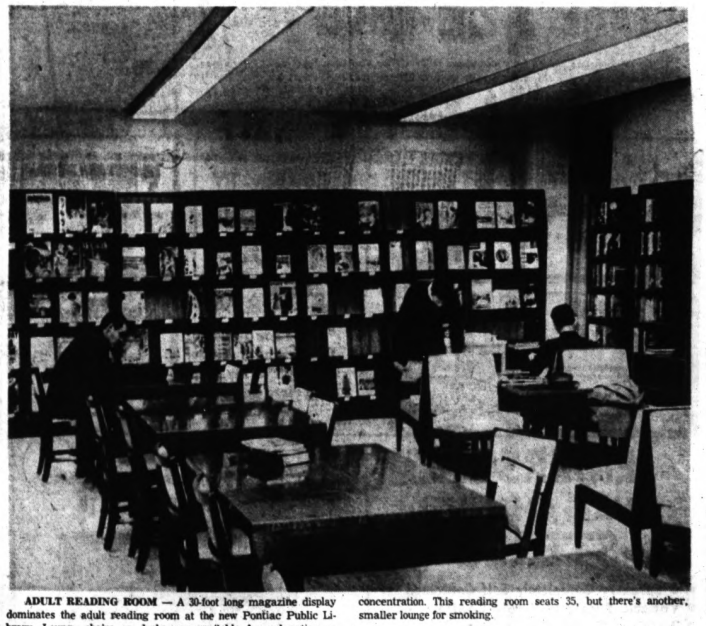
Phyllis Pope, city librarian, expects circulation to keep increasing as more and more Pontiac residents become acquainted with the new facilities.

RECORD SECTION — A music lover, Carol Malingwski, 15, of 1843 Oldtown Road, West Bloomfield Township, explores the library's collection of long-playing records. The 10th-grader at St. Frederick's High School found the new, open-shelf storage system handy for browsing.

USING THE LIBRARY — Studying transportation for his seventh grade classes at Eastern Junior High School, Douglas Cool, 13, of 22 Collingwood St., checks through the card catalogue in the lobby of the new library, looking up books on his subject. This view of the library shows the main entrance with its wide expanse of windows, showcases at the left and entrances to various reading rooms on the right.



DEEP STUDY — Afternoons and evenings finds the reference room at the library filled with high school and college students deep in study, like these above. The library has reference works on business, technical and academic subjects. Well lighted and quiet, it is an ideal studying spot for future scholars.

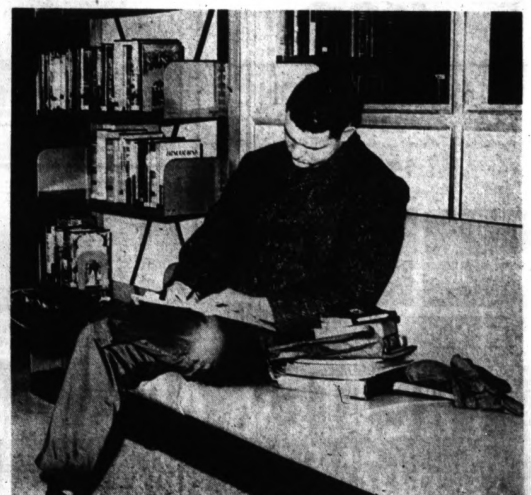


ADULT READING ROOM — A 30-foot long magazine display dominates the adult reading room at the new Pontiac Public Library. Lounge chairs or desks are available for relaxation or concentration. This reading room seats 35, but there's another, smaller lounge for smoking.

Pontiac Press Photos

CHECK-OUT BOOKS — Two Pontiac youngsters pause at the main desk as Mrs. Donald B. Montney, library aide, checks out their books. Youngsters learn library routine easily, and like the friendly, relaxed atmosphere of the new building. Librarians behind the main desk can keep a supervisory eye on the children's room across the main lobby.

YOUNG READER — A Christmas story proves amusing to Anthony Davis, 8, of 268 Paddock St. The McConnell School third grader sits in the special children's room.



COMFORTABLE SPOT — A senior at Pontiac Central High School, Edward Christie of 60 Blaine St., finds the library's lounge-style furnishings provide a comfortable setting for homework. High school and junior high school pupils find important reference books easily obtainable at the library.

Money Goes for Charity

Barber's Will Amazes Town

WAYLAND (UPI) — John E. Ward's will raised a lot of eyebrows around Wayland.

The size of his estate, about $150,000, was one of many surprises. No one guessed that Ward had amassed such a fortune in his occupation as a barber.

Ward, who died of cancer earlier this year at the age of 76, provided still another surprise by leaving the bulk of his estate to establish the John Ward Foundation, a charitable foundation in Wayland and Allegan County.

His only child, Mrs. Queenie Burkhammer, 56, Allegan, was left only $100 but Ward provided a $10,000 trust fund for the education of her two children.

Another surprise came in Ward's selection of a trustee of his estate. He named Clell Bennett, 70, former school janitor, as trustee. Bennett also was a handyman around Ward's barber shop.

Townspeople never expected Ward would establish a charitable foundation because he was anything but civic minded. He was a Democrat in a Republican community and opposed practically every community improvement project.

Most Wayland residents looked upon Ward as a man who got his greatest enjoyment from arguments. They firmly believed Ward became a Democrat so he could argue with the Republican majority.

Ward argued with politicians, customers and even his daughter.

Mrs. Burkhammer said her father all but cut her off in his will, which she is contesting, because she fell in love and married nine years ago.

Ward cornered most of the clergy trade at his barber shop. He proclaimed himself an atheist and ministers were his regular customers. They considered Ward a challenge.

It was a waste of time for a customer to tell Ward how he wanted his hair clipped.

Ward pointed to a sign on the wall which read, "The barber is not a student," and proceeded to cut the hair the way he thought it should be cut.

His barber shop was a gathering place for many of the area's retired farmers. They once backed Ward for justice of the peace and voted him into office.

He meted out fines and lectures to law violators in his barber shop "court."

Most Wayland residents hope Mrs. Burkhammer is successful in breaking Ward's will.

Trustee Bennett, for one, doesn't approve of the will.

"I would like for her (Mrs. Burkhammer) to get the money," Bennett said.

Ward was the talk of the town when he was alive. His unexpected will has kept him in the spotlight even after death.

Flint Lad, 14, to Try Second Balloon Shoot

FLINT (AP) — Gary Jedynak, 14, will try another balloon shoot Saturday.

The boy scientist launched a 10-foot-high homemade plastic balloon Saturday with photographic film suspended in a container to gather information on cosmic rays.

Gary planned to use the data in a project he is getting ready for the 1961 Flint Science Fair. He had hoped the helium-filled balloon would ascend about 65,000 feet and travel about 150 miles in an eight-hour flight.

The balloon traveled only about 11 miles. It was pulled from a tree near Atlas, by Donald Reddy, who returned it to Gary Saturday night.

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes

Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles". It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night.

No matter what you've used without results — here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids — without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In one hemorrhoid case after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of months! Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration.

The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in ointment or suppository form known as Preparation H.® Ask for Preparation H suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Absolute satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Offer Made to New Orleans

$500,000 for Integration?

NEW YORK (UPI)—A St. Louis School Board to help keep its newheiress will hold a news conferly integrated public schools open. ence today to explain why she of- Ellen Steinberg, daughter of a fered $500,000 to the New Orleans multimillionaire broker, made the offer Saturday because "people should back their beliefs with direct action."

School officials are reported to be considering the bequest. Board President Louis G. Reicke Jr., wired Miss Steinberg that "the gesture practically has taken my breath away."

The Louisiana legislature has stripped the school board of operating funds and the power to borrow money in an effort to halt integration.

The schools must have $3 million by Friday to meet salaries and bills if they are to open after the holidays.

The heiress said she was "deeply distressed over the poor image of our country being created abroad" by the school crisis.

"I hope that by making this offer I will encourage others who have been silent to fight to keep the schools open," she said.

Miss Steinberg's attorney, Joseph H. Wishod, said the money will be placed in a New York bank to be drawn on by the schools if they accept the offer.

The grant will be regarded as a loan to be paid back when the crisis is over, he said, but emphasized that the heiress was prepared to lose her money if repayment is impossible.

The philanthropist, daughter of Mark C. Steinberg who died in 1951, said she was prepared to offer similar aid to other school systems which might close because of integration.

Compact Cars Costing New York $3 Million

ALBANY, N.Y. (UPI) — The increasing popularity of compact cars among New York motorists is decreasing the state revenue by $3 million a year, the state tax commission estimates.

The state tax comission said the losses came from smaller returns from motor fuel taxes and a drop in revenue from registration fees.

Born in Pontiac on July 23, 1863, she was the daughter of Robert and Mary Dawson Castell. Oakland County pioneers who lived on a farm at Elizabeth Lake for many years.

Miss Castell had made her home in Chicago and spent her summers on Cape Cod at Woods Hole, Mass., until returning to Pontiac 11 years ago.

A member of the Church of the Redeemer in Chicago, she was the last living member of her immediate family.

A former teacher in Waterford and West Bloomfield Township schools, she was the sister of the late Mrs. E. C. Chapman and Doctors D. G. and F. C. Castell of Pontiac.

Miss Castell made her home with two nieces, Mary Chapman and Mrs. Janette Bathum. A nephew, Robert Castell, and two other nieces, Mrs. Joan Reish of Midland and Mrs. Jeanette Tyrrell of Milwaukee, also survive.

MRS. ROBERT E. DENHAM RAMOND E. DENHAM

Service for Mrs. Robert E. (Beverly Jean) Denham 24, and her 3-year-old son, Ramond E. Denham of 109 Exmoor St., Waterford Township, will be held at 11 a.m. Tuesday at the Donelson-Johns Funeral Home. Burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

A member of the Christian Alliance Church, Mrs. Denham died yesterday at Pontiac General Hospital. Her son was dead on arrival Friday at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. The cause of their deaths has not been determined.

Surviving are Ramond's father, Robert and one sister, Lori Ann.

LONZO FULLER

Service for Lonzo L. Fuller, 67, of 2580 Voorhis Road, will be held at 3 p.m. Wednesday at Sparks-Griffin Chapel. Burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Mr. Fuller died Saturday at the Veterans Hospital in Battle Creek.

A retired Pontiac postal employe, he was a member of the First Methodist Church and the Metropolitan Club.

THE REV. ROBERT HATCHETT

Service for the Rev. Robert Hatchett, 95, of 33 Earlmoor St., will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday at the First Baptist Church in Kansas City, Kan. Burial will follow in Wynedott Cemetery. His body may be viewed at 7 p.m. this evening at the Frank Carruthers Funeral Home.

The Rev. Hatchett died Saturday after an illness of five years.

A retired minister of the First Baptist Church in Kansas City, he is survived by six sons, Fred and Joel Hatchett of Pontiac; Oliver of Avuergne, Ark.; Chester of Marianna, Ark.; Arnett of Little Rock, Ark.; and Robert, Jr. of San Monita, Calif. and one daughter, Mrs. Rosie Lee of Pontiac. Two brothers also survive.

A prayer service will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the Trinity Baptist Church before the body will be taken to Kansas City.

WILLIAM H. LYONS

Service will be Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. from the Huntoon Funeral Home for William H. Lyons, 61, of 52 Center St., who died Saturday at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital after a long illness. Burial will be in Perry Mount Park Cemetery. He had been employed by the General Motors Truck and Coach Division.

Survivors include a son, Charles W. of Pontiac, three grandchildren, a sister, Mrs. Edith Lomanson of North Branch, and a brother Earl Smiley of Pontiac.

MRS. WILLIAM RUCKER

Mrs. William (Dora Davis) Rucker, 82, of 88 N. Ardmore Ave., died yesterday at Pontiac General Hospital after an illness of five days.

A member of the First Baptist Church in Winston-Salem, N. C., Mrs. Rucker has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Blanche Madar, here for the past 14 months.

Also surviving are two sons, Davis of Kingston, N. C.; and William of Portsmouth, Va.; and six daughters, Mrs. Winton Prunty of Dearborn; Mrs. Edward Madden of Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson of Winston-Salem, N. C.; and Mrs. Virginia Wetherhall of Fort Smith, Ark., Mrs. James T. Pratt of Kingston, N. C., and Mrs. Emma Zello of Las Vegas, Nev.

Nineteen grandchildren and twenty-six great-grandchildren also survive.

Service will be held at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at Farmer-Snover Funeral Home. Burial will be in Ottawa Park Cemetery.

MRS. CLAYTON THOMAS

Mrs. Clayton (Anna P.) Thomas, 75, of 13 Willard St., died yesterday following an illness of one day.

A member of the Memorial Baptist Church, Mrs. Thomas is survived by her husband and one son, D. C. Thomas of Lapeer. One brother and two sisters also survive.

The body is at the Pursley Funeral Home.

Great Baseball Lefty Art Nehf Dies at 68

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI) — Art Nehf, one of baseball's great lefthanders during sports' Golden Era of the '20s, died Sunday night at his home here. He was 68.

The former pitcher, who gained his greatest fame with the New York Giants, suffered from cancer.

Nehf's career was among the bright ones of the Golden Era.

He broke into the majors in 1915 with the Boston Braves, then moved to the Giants for their pennant years of 1921-24, and also pitched for the Cincinnati Reds and Chicago Cubs.

The first commercial sugar cane production in the New World was in San Domingo where Negro slaves were imported to cultivate the fields.

Port Keeps Growing

Early Seaway Interest Is Paying Off for Toledo

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Toledo's early enthusiasm for the St. Lawrence Seaway is paying off.

Four years before the seaway's 1959 opening, Toledo and Lucas County established an independent port authority to take advantage of an expected increase in foreign trade.

Funds for expansion and operation of the western Lake Erie port were provided by county voters, who approved $9 million in operating levies and bond issues.

Private industry, led by Toledo's extensive grain interests, committed itself to spending more than $6 million for new and improved facilities.

When the expansion started, Toledo already ranked third on the Great Lakes in total tonnage, primarily because of coal, grain and iron ore shipments.

One of the port's first big efforts for seaway trade was construction of a dock and warehouse site at Presque Isle, near the mouth of the Maumee River.

Using landfill, the port authority created a 28-acre dock site on the east bank of the Maumee, providing berthing for two ocean-going vessels.

By the spring of 1961 — the seaway's third season of operation — the Presque Isle site will have grown to 85 acres. More than a half mile of dock space will be available and capable of accommodating six ships. In addition, the site has two large warehouses, bulk storage tanks and a tanker unloading system.

Three miles downriver the privately-owned Toledo Marine Terminals, Inc., (TMT) provides dock space for five ships. Overseas tonnage at TMT increased from 30,534 tons in 1958 to 47,000 tons in 1959.

Until recently grain-rich Toledo lacked facilities to load grain into ocean-going ships. However, a $2.4 million high-speed loading elevator went into service in October. Three such elevators will be operating in 1961.

The current pride of the port is a free trade zone. The federal government granted permission Oct. 11 for operation of the zone.

The trade zone, first on the Great Lakes and fifth in the nation, will include a warehouse and 5½ acres of the Presque Isle site.

For many importers the trade zone offers a substantial savings in shipping costs and duty payments. Shippers may store, process or re-ship imported goods without paying duty. Customs payments are made only when imported goods enter interstate commerce.

Aggressive port development has resulted in a sharp increase in Toledo's overseas trade.

A sampling of cargoes shipped from Presque Isle and TMT includes Kentucky tobacco for Sweden, frozen meat for England, automotive vehicles and parts for Holland, Denmark, Greece and Turkey, flour for Egypt and grass seed for France.

London Paper Blasts U.S.

Air Crash 'Had to Happen'

LONDON (UPI)—The Daily Express said today the congestion of America's airlanes made Friday's tragic collision over New York "the disaster that had to happen."

The Express said the crash underlined once more "the hard fact . . . that today the skies are getting as crowded as the streets."

"Today it is America's problem," the paper said. "Inevitably it will be everybody's problem tomorrow."

"Airborne over New York every aircraft captain, with a hundred instruments to check and cross check, has one awful lingering doubt. The skies around him are packed. Is the other guy too close? It is a fear that pilots lie awake with at night."

The Express noted that improvements in air traffic are being planned but criticized American authorities "because political and economic pressures were allowed to overrule both pilots and technical experts" in getting a British radar navigator rejected for use in the New York area.

Production of sweet potatoes decreased from 61 million bushels in 1946 to 28 million bushels in 1952. In addition to food values, they are a source of commercial starch.

New Election Strategy:

How Many Female Relatives?

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON — Post mortems on the close presidential election will continue to fascinate amateur strategists for decades to come.

For that reason it is important to focus the spotlight on one little-noted facet that may easily have made the difference between defeat and victory.

Campaign Chairman Bobby Kennedy is convinced that a major factor in his brother's victory was that the Kennedy-Johnson ticket used female relatives to much shrewder advantage than did the Nixon-Lodge slate.

Astute 35-year-old Bobby will agree with President Eisenhower that the calls he and Jack made in behalf of Martin Luther King, the jailed Negro leader in Georgia, helped to swing the Negro vote to Kennedy.

He will also agree that the widely known Vice President Richard M. Nixon, committed a near-fatal faux pas by letting the little-known challenger box him into a series of TV "Great Debates."

The real key to the election box may lie, however, in the grand strategy by which manager Bobby dispersed his feminine lieutenants to the battle staging areas.

Says Bobby: "Since Jackie was unable to travel with Jack, we started out by sending one of our sisters along to try to counteract Pat Nixon. This didn't work. We soon discovered that we were simply wasting the girls, because with Jack in the limelight they were getting us very little extra publicity and exposure."

The same discovery was simultaneously being made in the camp of vice presidential contender Lyndon B. Johnson. Wherever the dynamic Texan appeared he stole the show. Lady Bird seemed meanerly to be along for the ride.

The strategists went into a huddle and decided that, since Kennedy and Johnson were far less known to the American public than Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge, the pressing need was for widespread publicity.

This led to the revolutionary political plan by which Lady Bird ganged up in relays with Kennedy's 70-year-old mother Rose; his sisters, Pat Lawford, Jean Smith and Eunice Shriver; and his sisters-in-law Ethel and Joan Kennedy.

By threes and fours the intrepid ladies invaded the hustings in their own chartered airplane. An airport welcoming committee rounded up by party faithful insured front page coverage of their arrival.

EXTRA PUBLICITY

Next they went to a downtown department store where crowds guarantted them another spread of pictures on the woman's page.

While the Kennedy-Johnson women were blanketing the hometown papers wherever they went, the Republican ticket was sticking to traditional use of its feminine assets.

Wherever Dick Nixon went, Pat Nixon was at his side, smiling prettily for the photographers, listening to her husband's oft-repeated speeches with rapt adoration, and being her charming self.

Emily Lodge was performing the same stint for Cabot, with equal finesse, but politicians of the future may wonder whether the Grand Old Party might have been better advised to separate its assets, and quadruple the public exposure.

If so, political parties hereafter may hesitate to nominate orphans, as well as bachelors. After researching the Kennedy performance, the stock question at any nominating convention could become: "How many female relatives has he got?"

Republican Could Clash With Kennedy

Dillon May Find He Sits on a Gold Tack

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON (UPI) — There just could be a tack in the chair when Secretary-Designate C. Douglas Dillon sits down next month in the Treasury Department.

Dillon is to be the No. 1 money man in an administration whose money policies as of now are more vague than definite.

Perhaps Dillon obtained from President-Elect John F. Kennedy a firm money policy statement before accepting the Treasury.

If so, Dillon knows much more than do the voters about Kennedy's fiscal intentions.

The voters do not know, for example, whether Kennedy will conduct the nation's money business in a manner to protect the U.S. dollar from further rotting inflation or permit that destructive process to resume.

Such a tack in his chair probably would drive Dillon out of it.

Dillon is billed as and qualifies as a Republican. He is not, however, and never was an organization party man.

More precisely, Dillon should be described as a banker, international and domestic.

His position in the Cabinet could become uncomfortable if Kennedy's proves to be a soft money administration.

No president, of course, deliberately would adopt policies destructive of the nation's money.

Franklin D. Roosevelt was a hard-money man who entered the White House pledged to reduce government expenses by 25 per cent.

Events overwhelmed FDR of whom it has been said he didn't quite understand the theory of money, anyway.

Roosevelt's economy program faded away by the third month of his first term and before that term ended, he had taken the United States off the gold standard.

HE MAY CHANGE

Whatever Kennedy's fiscal ideas may be as of now, events and pressures may change them.

He will be a labor-oriented president committed basically to the have-nots and, further, committed by the Democratic platform to big-time spending.

The most numerous have-not element in the United States is composed of Negroes. The most effective big time spending pressure is generated by Big Labor.

Kennedy is heavily mortgaged to big labor and to Negroes. They put much of the muscle into his bid for the White House.

Perhaps Dillon asked Kennedy whether he would attempt to influence the Federal Reserve Board (FRB) to reduce interest rates, or for any other purpose.

Kennedy was asked that (by the Scripps-Howard newspapers) during the campaign. His answer seemed to add up to: Maybe.

Harry S. Truman tried that. HST was a soft money man; had an "easy money bias;" the FRB beat down and condemned Truman's move as an effort to make the reserve system a dollar-destructive engine of inflation.

Pilot Breaks the Law

MONROE, N.Y. (UPI) — William E. Rhode Jr. was forced to land on a highway near here when the gas line on his light plane froze, and he immediately was hauled before a justice of the peace on charges of violating a "general business law" which makes such landings illegal.

Jack Sold Her Land Royalties

Hostess-Secretary on Kennedy Family Plane Paid $2,400 for Rights

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The hostess-secretary on President-Elect John F. Kennedy's private plane paid him $2,400 for certain Louisiana land royalty rights more than a year ago, according to press secretary Pierre Salinger.

Salinger disclosed this Saturday night in reply to dispatches from Jennings, La., which said Kennedy Friday had transferred 75 per cent of his mineral and oil royalty rights on eight tracts of land in Southern Louisiana to Janet Desrosiers.

Kennedy on Dec. 15, 1952, acquired 4 per cent of the oil, gas and mineral rights in 1,600 acres located about five miles from the Lake Arthur oil and gas field, largest in Jefferson Davis Parish.

Salinger said Kennedy sold 75 per cent of his rights to the attractive, auburn-haired Miss Desrosiers last year because the land was yielding only about $350 annually and this was being received in dribbles with checks as small as 30 cents each. He indicated the bookkeeping was not worth the time and trouble. Salinger could not say why the president-elect retained a 25 per cent interest in the royalty rights.

Miss Desrosiers, a New York City girl in her late twenties, worked for the president-elect's father, Joseph P. Kennedy, for seven years before becoming hostess-secretary aboard the Kenaire, the plane owned by the Kennedy family corporation.

There's Iron in His Diet

TRIESTE, Italy (UPI) — Hospital authorities said Imre Woeroes, 22, a naval officer, would recover from swallowing some nails which "fell by mistake" into his soup aboard the Swedish ship Zetos Sunday.

The Pan-American highway from the U.S.-Mexican border is nearing completion and is expected to be ready for use in a year or so.

Report Possibility of Dividend Cuts for 1961; Other Issues to Move

NEW YORK (UPI) — Earnings of the steel companies may be expected to rise a bit next year but the results will still make poor reading, according to the Value Line Investment Survey.

With the March quarter seen as next year's low, the survey says, a number of dividend cuts may be announced as 1961 opens.

Cyclical issues are unlikely to participate in the hoped-for year-end rally, Shearson, Hammill says. Good action, however, can be expected from amusement issues, convenience foods, discount chain stores, electric utilities, finance companies, savings and loan, insurance, meat packers, domestic oil refiners, gas transmissions companies, publishers and car leasers.

B. K. Thurlow of Winslow, Cohu & Stetson believes the buying in gold stocks has fairly sophisticated sources and that these issues, following recent profit-taking, are now attractive for speculative purchase.

Chevrolet Pays for Band Trip

U. of M. Regents Get $6,946 Gift to Cover Wisconsin Game

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — Chevrolet Division of General Motors paid for the University of Michigan band's trip to the Michigan - Wisconsin football game at Madison, Wis., this past season.

This was disclosed Friday when the university's board of regents accepted a gift of $6,946 from Chevrolet to cover the expenses of the 110-member band during its trip to Madison Oct. 29.

The Chevrolet gift was among grants and bequests totaling $418,088 accepted by the regents during their regular December meeting.

The largest sum accepted by the regents was $180,797, representing additions to 48 existing funds during the last six months. More than $125,400 of the amount represented contributions to the Michigan alumni funds.

The regents also accepted two grants totaling $127,800 from the Carnegie Corp., New York. Of the total, $85,800 represented the fourth payment toward support of the center for the study of higher education and $42,000 was the second payment for development of an undergraduate course in Asian studies.

Brian Dunns Honeymoon in East

Tiffany baskets of white gladioli and pompons graced the chancel of the Community United Presbyterian Church in Drayton Plains for the Saturday evening vows of Myrna Louise Frizzle and Brian C. Dunn of Norwood, Mass.

The Rev. Walter Teeuwissen read the candlelight ceremony in the presence of some 200 guests.

Parents of the couple are the Arthur J. Frizzles of Walton Boulevard, Drayton Plains, and the William J. Dunns of Norwood, Mass.

Alencon lace, re-embroidered with pearls, accented the lavaliere neckline of the princess-line bridal gown of white silk organza over taffeta. The bouffant skirt featured a bustle bow and chapel train.

Fingertip veiling fell from a tiara of pearls. The bride wore long white French kid gloves and held a semicascade of pink roses, white carnations and ivy.

Mrs. Theodore Luzenske of Flint was honor matron. Mrs. Francis Comstock of Drayton Plains attended her sister as bridesmaid with Kathy Parker of Palo Alto, Calif. and Mrs. Vincent Alonzi of Pontiac.

Wearing identical street-length frocks of purple taffeta styled with scoop necklines and bell skirts, they carried white carnations with purple bows.

MRS. BRIAN C. DUNN

Brenda and Brian Comstock of Drayton Plains were flower-girl and ringbearer at their aunt's wedding.

The bridegroom had Joseph Graff of Mt. Clemens for best man. John Malone of Ypsilanti, Francis Comstock and Vincent Alonzi ushered.

Before leaving for the reception in the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall, Keego Harbor, the bride greeted her first-grade pupils of Waterford Township School at a special reception in the church lounge.

Returning from a honeymoon trip to Montreal, Quebec and the New England states, the couple will live in Drayton Plains. The bride is an alumna of Eastern Michigan University where her husband will receive his degree in January. His fraternity if Phi Sigma Epsilon.

Dark violet accessories complemented the orchid sheath dress of sheer wool jersey with satin cummerbund, chosen by Mrs. Frizzle for the ceremony. The mother of the bridegroom appeared in a sheath dress of pink lace over taffeta. Both mothers wore orchids.

University of Michigan Students Eye Holidays

By SHARON WARREN

University of Michigan students are laying plans for a mass exodus from Ann Arbor during Christmas vacation, which begins officially Dec. 17. Classes resume Jan. 3.

Students have shingled campus bulletin boards with white rows of notes seeking driving companions or rides to homes and vacation spots from California to New York and most states between.

But before some of the students leave for their vacation of holiday fun, they remember others. The University of Michigan fraternity and sorority members were early Santas for about 250 of the area underprivileged and hospitalized children.

They gave Christmas parties Dec. 7, 9 and 10. The parties featured refreshments, cartoons, skits and gifts distributed by a student Santa Claus. Students from the Pontiac area were engrossed in the activity.

From Pontiac Richard Parr of St. Joseph Street, a member of the Theta Delta Chi fraternity, and Stan Walker of James K Boulevard, a member of Tau Epsilon Phi, gave their time to the project.

Delta Delta Delta's Jane Caris from Haverhill Street in Bloomfield Hills did her share for the children from Perry Nursery School.

The list of Santa's helpers from Birmingham included Susan Boynton of South Clunbury Street and Mynra Moxley of Bates Street. Both girls are members of Alpha Delta Pi sorority.

Three Delta Delta Delta girls, Barbara Falconer of Jackson Park Drive, Kathy Koenig of Mayfair Lane and Nancy Maxwell of Mohegan Street, participated. David Griffith, a Phi Gamma Delt from Witherbee Street, and Bill Mikulas, a Theta Delta Chi from Woodbank Drive, conclude the list.

New Gym to Host Pageant

The new gymnasium of Emmanuel Christian High School will be the setting for the annual Christmas pageant presented at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow. Elementary grade children will appear in the special program for the school's Parent-Teacher Fellowship.

"Out of the Ivory Palaces" is the title selected for the pageant, a Christmas fantasy depicting the birth of Christ and based on the second chapter of St. Luke's Gospel.

Mrs. Marie Harned will direct the 60 children participating. More than 50 of the youngsters will sing in two choruses.

Appearing as Mary and Joseph will be Susan Whitfield and Scott Pursley. The three angels will be portrayed by Nancy Wade, James Girdley and Deanna Bishop.

Third and sixth grade children's parents will serve refreshments after the program to which members and friends of the PTF have been invited.

Separation Notice Is Never Sent

Good Taste Today

By The Emily Post Institute

Question: After 15 years of marriage I have obtained a legal separation from my husband. During our marriage, we moved around the country a good deal because of his business, and as a result acquired many friends. Our separation is known only to those living here.

I receive quite a lot of mail addressed to both my husband and me, such as wedding invitations and announcements, greeting cards, notes, etc.

Will you please tell me if there is a notice of some kind that I could have printed notifying these friends that my husband and I have separated?

Answer: I'm sorry, but you cannot have a notice of your separation printed. You can, however, write to these friends saying that you are sorry to tell them that John and you have separated. Each of these will undoubtedly tell others and in this way you will find that your news will spread rapidly.

Question: Do you think it is right for a person who has brought a birthday cake to someone's house for a surprise birthday party, to take back the leftover cake? I think it should be left for the guest of honor and yet I have seen it happen more than once where the leftover cake was taken home by the giver.

Answer: Most certainly not. The whole cake was a gift and none of it may be taken back.

Question: My son has just recently become engaged to the daughter of friends of ours. I know that after the engagement has been announced the men's family is supposed to go and call on the girl's family. However, this seems rather silly as we have been friends for years and visit each other frequently. Does the convention still hold in this situation?

Answer: As the girl's parents are old friends of yours, it would really be silly to call formally on them.

Secretaries on Postman's Holiday

Answer Letters for Dr. Tom Dooley

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI) — This is the story of 23 secretaries and their humanitarian project bridging the distance from Manhattan to the jungles of South Asia.

The 23 give their spare hours to answering the hundreds of letters which each month are written to Dr. Tom Dooley, the 33-year-old founder of MEDICO, a nonprofit agency to establish hospitals and send volunteer physicians and medical aid to underdeveloped countries.

This handling of correspondence for a "boss" half a world away takes some mechanical doing, because the secretaries all hold regular office jobs in New York.

Teresa Gallagher, a secretary at Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., and the originator of the project, explained in an interview how it is done. The "disc girls," as the volunteers call themselves, first cull the mail when it comes to MEDICO offices in New York.

Some volunteers are assigned to decide which letters to mail on to Dooley in Laos for personal reply, and which can be handled in New York without further demands on the doctor's time.

The former group always includes the "God Bless" letters, Miss Gallagher said, "because they're important to his morale."

The latter may include fan letters, requests for autographs or "project" letters — "What does Dr. Dooley need?," "What can I do to help?"

Dooley does his answering by dictating to a battery-operated recording machine. It is transcribed on small discs which he mails to New York.

For letters not sent on to Laos, the girls have worked out a standard answer to the effect that, "We are a group of volunteers trying to handle Dr. Dooley's mail . . . We hope you won't be too disappointed in receiving an answer from us instead of Dr. Tom, who is busy setting up medical programs . . ."

Miss Gallagher's interest in Dooley's work began when she read his book about aid for the 600,000 Vietnamese refugees who fled from the Communist rule in the north to the south. She wrote him a letter of appreciation.

ALWAYS WRITING

"I'm the type always writing my senator or congressman," she said. "I have a deep sense of patriotism, and love for my country, and I hate to see us getting a black eye overseas. And there are so few like Dr. Dooley who stand up . . ."

When President Eisenhower launched his "People to People" program, Miss Gallagher, a secretary for 13 years, started Dooley aid clubs in the Metropolitan Life offices — with volunteers collecting nickels, dimes and quarters, books, pill boxes—"anything Dooley needed," she said. Their contributions now also pay the postage bill.

She began rounding up secretarial help after Dooley's operation last summer in New York. It was for cancer, and she said that the surgery involved removal of some muscle of his right arm, which made it difficult and painful for the physician to answer his own mail.

Miss Gallagher figured that she and the other "disc girls" — and one male volunteer, who is a linguist and can help them translate letters from foreign countries—have given close to 5,000 hours to their project and answered letters in the thousands. "Sometimes Dr. Dooley will send back 100 at a clip," she said. "We have had more than 2,000 letters here in New York since he returned to Laos last summer."

Miss Gallagher said she had had letters from secretaries elsewhere asking how they can be of help. "We can always find some project," she said. "One secretary in California rounded up 400 pounds of those tiny tailored bandages.

Abby Answers Adam and Eve

Start Being Respectable

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: There are two men in my life. One I love very much and the other I like only as a friend. My problem is this — the one I like only as a friend is my husband. The one I love is my husband's brother.

ABBY

I know my feeling for my brother-in-law is a sin, but I can't help it. I didn't meet him until after I was married, but the first time we laid eyes on each other we knew we couldn't stay apart.

I have no children, but he has. His wife doesn't suspect anything and neither does my husband. We've been going behind their backs to be together in the daytime, but we don't want to keep our love a secret any more. We want to bring everything out in the open and get divorces so we can be married and live like respectable people. Are we wrong?

Sign us "Adam and Eve"

DEAR "ADAM AND EVE": How appropriate . . . you act as though you are the only two people on earth. If you can't stay away from each other, one of you should move out of town. My advice is to start living like respectable people right now. Break up the romance before you break up two families and several hearts.

DEAR ABBY: Recently a person told me that it is not correct to smoke a pipe at social gatherings, such as wedding receptions and banquets, but cigarettes and cigars are permissible. Is this true and, if so, why?

MICHAEL R.

DEAR MICHAEL R.: If you want to be technical, you may smoke a pipe anywhere a cigarette or cigar is permitted. But for my part, smokers are the most selfish people in the world. They will smoke what they like, and where they like, and nobody is going to stop them.

DEAR ABBY: I just learned that my "mother" is my aunt, and my "aunt" is my real mother. In other words, my mother gave me to her sister to raise. I am 19 and am broken-hearted to think that almost everyone in my family has known this all along and I had to hear it from a stranger.

Bearing a child doesn't make a woman a mother. Raising a child does. Please, Abby, tell people who think they can keep this kind of secret buried that they are making a serious mistake.

WISH I HAD KNOWN

DEAR ABBY: A letter appeared in your column, and I pray your advice will be followed, because I witnessed such a "problem" many years ago.

A friend of mine confided that she was expecting a child that was not her husband's. They were having marital difficulties at the time and were temporarily separated.

It was then that she had a short-lived romance with another man. Her husband (who may have had a few things on his own conscience) acted wisely and maturely. He forgave her and made the best of it.

He raised the handsome little boy with the same love as their other three children. They are now a happy, closely-knit family. The boy, who might have been rejected, is an outstanding student today.

The man had two choices: Acting the part of the "outraged" husband, and destroying his family to satisfy his pride. Or the choice he made. I admire him beyond words. Through your column I can tell the world that "Forgiveness works."

Fun at Christmastime

Small Trees Are Intriguing

Innovations with Christmas trees are fun! For the dining room, a small white tree is decorated with red roses. You can buy inexpensive imitation roses at the dime store and treat them to a glitter dusting.

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Edythe Halvorson has some fascinating ideas about the use and decoration of small Christmas trees which fit into an office, a small apartment or into various rooms in the house.

She should be an expert about the small tree because she and her husband have cut and shipped 30 million of these 3-foot trees during the past 30 years. This year they will ship more than a million and a half throughout the United States and the world.

Being accustomed to the traditional one large tree, I was intrigued with her conception of the use of the small tree, and especially by her clever ideas about decorating them for different rooms.

Edythe Halvorson suggests that the Christmas tree need not be confined to the living room nor need it be hung with the customary tinsel and colored balls. Before these ornaments came into use Mrs. Halvorson recalls that cookies, candy, popcorn and ribbon were used.

Today I am going to give you her directions for decorating a small tree for the dining room and the kitchen. The one for the dining room would make a wonderful table decoration for a party during the holiday season.

DINING ROOM. A white tree decorated with red roses! The roses can be a "do it yourself" job, made in two sizes of flame proof crepe paper, with the edges lightly touched with colorless nail polish and then sprinkled with silver glitter. Or, you can buy inexpensive imitation roses at the dime store and treat them to a similar glitter dusting.

THE KITCHEN. Since the kitchen brings to mind all sorts of good things to eat this tree can be resplendent with Christmas goodies. These are happily available at the super markets.

You can slip packaged cookies which have a hole in the center over the green branches of the table tree and then garland the tree with chains of cellophane-wrapped hard candies. For silver baubles you can use foil-wrapped little chocolate candies. Mrs. Halvorson says that your grandchildren will love this tree, and she should know since she has six herself.

Many Lonely Hearts Need Togetherness

It is somewhat startling to read that there are more than 18 million unmarried men in the country, including bachelors, widowers and the divorced. And there are even more unmarried women, almost three and a half million more.

Surely among all of those unattached men and women there are a great many who would prefer marriage to living alone.

Why is it then, that the marriage-minded don't get together?

The reason could be that married women, traditional matchmakers, are failing down on their job of playing Cupid.

Time was when Mrs. Smith, hearing there was a new, unattached man in her husband's office, got busy and saw to it that he met every lonely woman of her acquaintance — one after the other.

And with every other wife who knew about the eligible newcomer doing the same thing, he had to be a pretty wily bachelor to escape the designs of the matchmakers.

But married women today, busy with their own outside interests, don't spend as much time and effort on matchmaking as they used to. They don't seem to feel responsible for finding a husband for that nice unmarried school teacher or that lonely widower down the block.

Without married women busily and happily engaged in matchmaking, unattached men and women don't have the opportunities to meet each other they once had.

It's a pity, too, for what is so satisfying to the heart of a happily married woman than getting an invitation to the wedding of a couple who met under her own roof and through her own contriving?

Don't Mistake Convenience for Morality

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Dear Mrs. Lawrence:

Should a child of 14 months know right from wrong? When my little boy gets into things or throws them on the floor, my husband's parents say that his hands should be slapped until he cries.

My mother-in-law says that if he doesn't learn the difference between right and wrong now, he may become a juvenile delinquent. Though this is an adopted child, I love him and do not like to slap him.

ANSWER: Do not slap the baby's hands. When he gets into grandma's pocketbook or throws his plastic mug on the floor, remove them from him.

Remove them gently, happily without any fear whatever that you are committing him to a reformatory. Trust yourself and your tenderness for him.

Do not trust your mother-in-law. It is dangerous to trust her because her moral perception is retarded. It is neither "wrong" nor "right" for your little boy to throw his mug on the floor.

We can't apply the heavy moral artillery of these words to his action. It is merely inconvenient — an action that gives us the trouble of picking up his mug and placing it in the sink for washing.

By declaring it "wrong," your mother-in-law tells us that she has confused morality with her convenience — and disqualifies herself as a judge of "right" and "wrong."

People like this cause much sorrow in this world.

Self-centered as they are, they hate being inconvenienced. So they intensely resent a little child's curiosity about what's in their pocketbooks or what's happened to that mug just thrown on the floor.

To justify their wish to squash his inconvenient curiosity, they call his behavior "wrong" or "bad." They demand that we inflict pain and tears on the child, not because they give a whoop about "right" and "wrong" but because he's dared to invade their sense of personal comfort.

Such people are dangerous to children because children sometimes come to trust their judgments of "right" and "wrong."

Like your little boy, they may lose touch with the innocent fact that they've thrown a mug on the floor to see what will happen to it, and begin instead to imagine themselves guilty of "wrong." Thus, their ability to make real judgments between right and wrong can be crippled.

Blue Star Will Send Gifts to Vets

Members of the Blue Star Mothers, Chapter 4, were guests of Mrs. Frank Schmidt at a Christmas luncheon. Thursday in her home on Fairmount Avenue. Gifts were exchanged.

Plans were completed at the Tuesday evening meeting at Pontiac Young Men's Christian Association Building to send gifts to the veterans at the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium and veterans at Pontiac State Hospital.

Baskets are being prepared for distribution to needy families of veterans at Christmas.

Stop Water Spots

(UPI) — If windows sweat during cold weather, water stains on the window sills can be avoided. One way is to wax the painted surface with any good furniture wax. A second way is to coat painted sills with spar varnish. If the sills were painted originally with a gloss enamel, water spotting should be no problem.

Carol Singing, Turkey Mark Annual Dinner

Alpha Sigma Nu Sorority members observed their annual Christmas party at a turkey dinner in Stephens Hall Wednesday. Guild 8 of All Saints Episcopal Church served.

Mrs. Albert Kohn led carol singing, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. John Levandoski. Mrs. J. K. Helvey accompanied by Mrs. Walter A. Schmitz, sang "Star Lullaby," a Polish folk song, "O Holy Night," and "Ave Maria."

Following tap dancing and a baton twirling exhibition by the Jackie Rae dancers, white elephant gifts were distributed by Albert Kohn acting as Santa Claus.

As a Christmas project members have donated a wheel chair to the Oakland County Society for Crippled Children.

Gets 'Em Part-Time Jobs

One Man Bosses 70,000 Females

NEW YORK (UPI) — Any time the man of the house complains that he'll never understand women, tell him about the plight of Tom Graham.

Graham's job is trying to understand, to encourage, supervise, and often act as father-confessor to not one woman, but 70,000 females.

The jovial Mr. G, a married man in his 40s, isn't sure how well he understands them yet, but he has survived eight years of being surrounded by women in his role as vice president of the Kelly Girl Service, Inc., specialists in providing white collar help on a temporary basis.

"Sometimes," said Graham in an interview, "I just take the advice of one of my regional managers. He said watch for problems during the full of the moon."

His firm, with headquarters in Detroit, is one of several organizations in the fairly new field of providing temporary workers for business and industry. Kelly is the largest all-girl organization, he said, with 70,000 women on its payroll.

PART-TIME PERMANENT

Temporary help differs from part-time help, Graham explained, because a woman can be on a temporary assignment from one week to several months, and then take as much time at home as she wants before she reports ready for another job. Part-time is a permanent arrangement.

(The U.S. Labor Department estimates that women make up 60 per cent of the nation's part-time labor force.)

Graham said it was hard to estimate the number of women temporaries, but the supply certainly grows each year as housewives especially find they can pick their jobs and work at their convenience.

Most employers find temporary help fully productive, he said, "because they don't stay around long enough to pick up the bad habits of the regular office force . . . the long coffee break . . . the hours using the telephone for personal calls."

But he conceded some women were not cut out for the type of job. "The woman has to be able to adapt quickly to moving from one assignment to another," said Graham. "If she's the type who wants to do everything her way, she will have trouble."

The average woman with his organization is 37½ years old, is married, has two children, and may work at 10 different jobs during a year.

The age range is from 18 to 75, with quite a few women over 65 enrolled. "We judge on ability and personality," said Graham, "not on age."

Graham said the most frequent customers for temporary white collar help are insurance, automotive, petroleum, food and drug, and banking businesses. But his firm has supplied help to U.N. missions, to the U.S. government, and to numerous celebrities ranging from Elsa Maxwell to Tennessee Williams.

An assignment at the home of actress Jeannette MacDonald led to a movie contract for Susan Kelly, 22, of Seminole, Okla. She originally had moved to Los Angeles to become a teacher, but through Miss MacDonald met a director who gave her a screen test, put her in a television series, and now has cast her in a movie role.

"We also seem to run a regular matrimonial bureau," said Graham. "Most of our women are already married, but those single ones . . . well you know how it is around an office. The new girl is the one the men look over. We've had a few who nabbed the boss's son, and I don't know how many babies are named for us."

Circle Members Served Luncheon

Members of the Mary Martha Circle of Oakland Park Methodist Church, meeting Wednesday at the church, were served a Christmas luncheon by Mrs. Rowley Chase and her committee.

Mrs. Irl Williams gave devotions.

Guests were Mrs. James Deeg, Mrs. James Householder and Mrs. Glayton Gillies.

Toys were given to The Salvation Army for distribution at Christmas.

Have You Tried This?

Guests Will Ooh and Aah Over Flaming Duck Dish

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Have you decided to be different and have duck for Christmas instead of turkey or ham? Mrs. F. T. Simancek has an interesting recipe for duckling.

The Simancek's youngest daughter is an ice skater; her mother spends a good many hours taking her to and from lessons and making her costumes.

FLAMING DUCK
By Mrs. F. T. Simancek

2 ducklings
1 onion, sliced
2 lemons
1 can black cherries
2 cups chicken bouillon
2 tablespoons gin
2 tablespoons cornstarch
½ cup water
¼ cup gin

Place half an onion and the rind of 1 lemon inside each duck. Put birds in pan. Pour over them the juice of 1 lemon and the juice drained from the cherries. Season with salt and pepper.

Roast at 400 degrees for 20 to 25 minutes, basting often. Remove to a chafing dish.

Pour off fat from roasting pan. Leave the dried drippings. Add bouillon and bring to a boil. Stir down browned bits from sides of pan. Add juice from second lemon, the 2 tablespoons of gin, cornstarch and water mixed together. Boil and stir 1 minute.

Add cherries to ducks in chafing dish. Strain sauce over this and let heat through.

Warm the one-fourth cup of gin. Light it and pour it flaming over the ducks. Spoon cherries and sauce over ducks for a few minutes to blend flavors. Makes 4 servings.

Laud Miss Thoe

Bride-elect Joyce Thoe was honored at a shower Tuesday evening by Mrs. Raymond Jacobson and daughter Judy of Williams Lake Road. Twenty-five guests were present.

She is the daughter of the Fremont Thoes of Dorchester Road. Mr. and Mrs. Newt Kilgore of Hammond Lake Road are parents of her fiance, Ronnie Kilgore.

St. John Lutheran Church has been reserved for the Friday wedding.

Luncheon Served in Church Parlors

The Christmas luncheon for the Ruth Unit of the Augustana Lutheran Church Women of St. John Lutheran Church was served Thursday in the church parlors.

Hostesses were Mrs. H. Francis McClellan, Mrs. Caroline Williamson and Mrs. Oscar Blomquist.

Richard Meiers, choir director of Waterford High School was accompanist for vocal selections by Donald Wennsten and Steven Wagner.

Christmas carols were sung and gifts exchanged. Presents were wrapped for senior citizens at the Oakland County Medical Care Facility and baskets for needy area families are being prepared.

Wilson Has Last Laugh on 'Papa' Halas, 36-0

Lions Eligible for 2nd Place Bowl in Miami

Old Rival Cleveland to Meet Detroit in Battle of Runnerups

DETROIT — Detroit Lions' football coach George Wilson had the last laugh yesterday.

He could laugh at his old teacher George 'Papa' Halas after the Lions routed the Bears, 36-0 yesterday. Earlier in the season the Lions played their worst game when they were whipped by Chicago.

Another laugh for Wilson is the fact that he now has a two year contract to show his early season critics who were after his scalp.

It was the Lions' seventh victory in the last nine games and gave them a 7-5 record for the season. The seven victories equal the total number of victories the Lions had during the 1958 and 1959 seasons combined.

The Lions will meet the Cleveland Browns in the NFL's first Runnerup Bowl in the Orange Bowl. The Browns wrapped up second place in the Eastern Division yesterday by beating the New York Giant 48-34.

"I said when we were 0-3 that this club was better than the 1957 team," Wilson reminded. "We just got to know one another. Now, I can say for sure that we're the most improved team in the league —and I think we're as good as any."

Wilson did not try to hide the fact that he'd like to play at least part of the season over again. "I'd like to have another shot at Green Bay and Philadelphia," he said.

Wilson believes the Lions now have molded themselves into a solid football team, and he thinks the club can be a contender for the championship next year or in 1962.

This was Detroit's second shutout of the season, and it came against a Chicago club that Papa Halas called "the worst looking Bear team I've ever seen."

Halas, who has been with the Bears since 1920, offered no explanation for the Bears' poor showing. His club, which has scored only seven points while yielding 119 in its last three games, took its worst beating in the long series with the Lions.

"I've never seen a Bear team look so poor," he said. "What else can I say?"

Halas saved his other comments to praise his coaching opponent.

"If there have been any thoughts of getting rid of Wilson, it would have been the greatest mistake in pro football," Halas said. "Men of his ability and integrity come along once in a great while. If the Detroit directors made a mistake, it was in giving him only a two-year contract. It should have been for five."

It was the first time Wilson had beaten his old teacher. The Lions beat the Bears the last time in 1957, but Paddy Driscoll was coaching the Chicago club then.

NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle also called his congratulations to Wilson.

There was no general rowdyism in this clash, as there was in Chicago a few weeks ago when the Bears mauled the Lions 28-7.

The Lions dominated the game so completely that the Bears never crossed midfield until the last four minutes. The Lions scored four touchdowns in the first half, and a safety.

Earl Morrall, quarterbacking the Lions most of the way, raced 15 yards on a bootleg play to climax a 66-yard drive.

Later in the period he flipped an 8-yard scoring pass to Terry Barr.

Wayne Walker tackled Bear fullback John Adams in the end zone for two more points early in the second quarter. Joe Schmidt picked up a fumble and raced 14 yards for another score and Nick Pietrosante bolted 31 yards for a fourth touchdown.

Pietrosante's 31-yard run put him over the hump for a new all-time Detroit rushing record. The big fullback from Notre Dame finished with 104 yards and a total of 872 for the season. The old record of 827 yards was established by Ace Gutowsky in 1956.

Pietrosante got the only score of the drab second half. It was set up by Barr's 39-yard return of a Chicago punt. Pietrosante shot up the middle for four yards after the Lions had the ball, first and 10, at the Bears' 18. Morrall hit Steve Junker with a 14-yard pass before Pietrosante banged across the goal.

WINNING CMOBO — Fullback Nick Pietrosante (33) and quarterback Earl Morrall, of the Detroit Lions, were a happy pair in the locker room yesterday after they teamed to form the offensive punch which beat the Chicago Bears, 36-0. Pietrosante set a new rushing record and Morrall started his second straight game for the Lions.

LARY INTERCEPTS — Detroit's Yale Lary (28) snares a pass intended for a Chicago Bear receiver and not for him in yesterday's game at Briggs Stadium. Back Bruce Maher (21) also tried for the interception. No. 46 is Angelo Coia of the Bears.

One Week to Wait

Packertown Convinced Team Will Beat Eagles

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Packertown settled down today to a week of waiting — and bragging — before its Western Conference champs play for the National Football League title.

There is no doubt in the minds of most of the rabid fans of this sports-minded community of 60,000 that the Green Bay Packers will beat the Philadelphia Eagles, Eastern champs, and take the title next Monday.

At least 11,000 cheering fans greeted their heroes when they came home by chartered airplane Sunday night after winning the Western crown by beating Los Angeles 35-21 Saturday.

They made it plain to Coach Vince Lombardi and his players that they think they will take it all and give Green Bay its first National Football League title in 16 years.

"I'm glad we could win for you and I just hope we can bring you the league championship next week," Lombardi told the cheering crowd that braved 15 degree weather to greet him and the players.

"All we want is one more victory—I hope we can get it."

"Don't worry, you'll get it," fans shouted in unison as they waved banners, blew horns and cheered.

Mrs. Lombardi, who greeted her husband with a hug and a kiss, also was convinced the Packers would win.

"I know we'll beat the Eagles for the championship," she said.

The Green Bay fans had much to brag and cheer about. Their team swept to convincing victories in its last three games after apparently being out of the running.

The Packers had won six NFL league championships, the last in 1944, before they fell to the bottom of the league in 1958 with a record of 1-10-1.

Lombardi, former offensive coach of the New York Giants, was signed in 1959 and the Packers came to life, finishing with a 7-5 record. This year they took the Western crown with an 8-4 record.

"This is a very, very happy day for me, the coaches and the players, and most certainly for the wonderful fans of Green Bay," Lombardi said.

All of the players, coaches and trainers were given engraved wallets at the airport. Each wallet contained a $50 bill. The money was raised by voluntary subscription.

Head trainer Bud Jorgenson was one of those who received a wallet. He has been with the team for 37 years and is the only member of the club who was with the 1929 Packers who brought Green Bay its first NFL title.

The players were taken by buses to downtown Green Bay on a route that took them past the city stadium where they play their home games before sellout crowds.

A huge fireworks display erupted from the stadium as the caravan of buses and cars passed the field.

The players were met at a hotel by hundreds of other fans and the celebrations continued well into the night.

Redskins Fire Coach; Final Griffith Game

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mike Nixon has been fired as head coach of the Washington Redskins. Assistant Coach Bill McPeak probably will succeed him.

That was the situation today after the Redskins closed an era at Griffith Stadium with their worst record in history—one victory, nine defeats and two ties.

The Philadelphia Eagles, the National Football League's Eastern champions, bombed the 'Skins 38-28 Sunday on the passing of Norm Van Brocklin and Sonny Jurgensen. Since the Redskins are moving into Washington's new 50,000 seat stadium next fall, it was the last pro game for ancient Griffith Stadium. It also was the Redskins' best showing of the year at home.

NFL's Smallest City Wins Division Crown

Eagles Next for Packers in Big Game

Green Bay Rolls Past Rams With Ease; Bowl Game Set

By The Associated Press

The Green Bay Packers, representing the smallest city in the National Football League, today held one of the circuit's biggest prizes after grabbing the elusive Western Conference crown for the first time since 1944.

The Packers ended the multi-team struggle for honors in the Western sector Saturday by riding Bart Starr's pinpoint passing to a 35-21 victory over Los Angeles that sends them into the championship game against Philadelphia's Eastern titlists next Monday.

The Green Bay triumph also dethroned Baltimore's two-time champion Colts, brought the Packers' record to 8-4 and completed an amazing flip flop under Coach Vince Lombardi's guidance for the club that finished the 1958 campaign with the worst mark in the league.

Meanwhile, the Eagles wound up the season Sunday with a 10-2 record by whipping Washington 38-28 in Mike Nixon's final game as Redskin coach, and Cleveland and Detroit earned the right to meet in the NFL's Runner-Up Bowl in Miami, Jan. 7.

The Browns, beaten six consecutive times by New York, came from behind and defeated the Giants 48-34 on a 27-point explosion in the final period that settled the head-on clash for second place in the Eastern Division.

Detroit and the 49ers finished in a tie for second place in the West with 7-5 records when San Francisco knocked off the Colts 34-10 and pushed them into fourth. St. Louis took fourth place in the East with a 38-7 win over Pittsburgh.

The Packers wrapped up their first title in 16 years when Paul Hornung hit Max McGee with a 40-yard touchdown pass for a 28-7 halftime lead the Rams (4-7-1) were never able to overcome. Hornung also scored once on a short plunge and kicked five conversions, raising his NFL total point record to 176.

Los Angeles took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a 40-yard TD toss from Billy Wade to Tom Wilson before the Green Bay onslaught began. Starr heaved scoring aerials of 57 and 91 yards to McGee and Boyd Dowler, respectively, then Paul Winslow recovered a blocked punt in the end zone for another touchdown and Hornung connected with McGee.

At Washington, Nixon was notified his contract was not being renewed after the Redskins (1-9-2) lost to the Eagles on two touchdown passes each by Norm Van Brocklin and sub quarterback Sonny Jurgensen. Van Brocklin pitched 52 and 64-yarders to Tommy McDonald while Jurgensen hit Tim Brown, who scored the clinching touchdown on a five-yard run, with a 34-yard flip and threw a 57-yarder to Pete Retzlaff.

Paul Wiggin's 20-yard interception return for a touchdown and Sam Baker's conversion put the Browns (8-3-1) ahead 35-34 and started their last quarter outburst against the New Yorkers (6-4-2). Milt Plum, who passed for four touchdowns and Jimmy Brown, who scored twice, made it a sad farewell for Giants' Coach Jim Lee Howell, retiring after bringing New York two successive Eastern titles.

Lenny Lyles raced 97 yards with a kickoff for the go-ahead touchdown San Francisco handed the Colts 16-6) their fourth loss in a row. Johnny Unitas, blanked last week, threw one touchdown pass for Baltimore and brought his aerial yardage to 3,099—a league record.

John Crow rambled 203 yards, best one-game mark this season, and set a Cardinal (6-5-1) ground gaining record of 1,071 yards while Johnny Roach pitched three TD strikes to Sonny Randle in the romp over the Steelers (5-6-1).

They Still Want 'Pop'

REGINA, Sask. (AP)—The Saskatchewan Roughriders still are hopeful of acquiring the services of Frank (Pop) Ivy as head coach of the Western Interprovincial Football Union team.

AWAIT THEIR HEROES — More than 5,000 Packer fans in the little city of Green Bay, Wisconsin, braved freezing temperatures Saturday night to welcome home their Eastern Division Champions after scoring a 35-21 victory over the Los Angeles Rams. The Packers and Eagles now meet for the pro title, December 26th. It was the first pro divisional title in 14 years for Green Bay, who finished with a 7-4 record. Green Bay is the smallest city which supports a pro football team. The population is less than 75,000, yet the 32,000-seat stadium has been a sellout for every game.

Pietrosante Big Factor in Late Surge

Did Season End Too Soon for Lions?

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Did the season end too soon for the Detroit Lions?

Edwin J. Anderson, president of the Lions thinks so.

"This team could beat anyone right now," said Anderson, "It's too bad the season had to end this week."

Coach George Wilson agreed. "We are as good as any team in the league right now," he said.

Of course Wilson reminded everyone that when the Lions had a 0-3 record at the start of the season, he said, "This team is better than the 1957 outfit which won the championship."

Everyone scoffed at the statement. Wilson now has some impressive facts to back up his claim.

The Lions won seven of the last nine and six of the last seven including four straight.

This was similar to the 1957 team which had a 3-3 mark in the first six games.

Then came the fantastic victory over the Baltimore Colts that year in which Bobby Layne passed for two touchdowns in the final minute and a half of play for a 31-27 victory.

The Lions gained momentum after that and went on to beat San Francisco 31-27 in a playoff and the Browns, 59-14 in the title game.

The story this year was somewhat similar, except the Lions' beat the Colts twice this season and in the final games it was Earl Morrall who sparked Detroit. In 1957 after Layne was hurt in Chicago, it was Tobin Rote who guided the last three victories and the playoff win.

The one game which hurt the Lions this year was the 14-10 loss in the last second to the 49ers at Briggs Stadium.

The Lions led, 10-0, with less than three minutes to play and John Brodie hit R. C. Owens for the TD with no time on the clock.

Of course, Wilson commented, that "the Colts would also like to have the game back which they lost to us on the last play, so we're even in that department."

The big man in the surge was actually Nick Pietrosante the big fullback whose running in the final stage of the season was a big factor.

Pietrosante set a new rushing record this year. He went 104 yards against the Bears to bring his season total to 872, easily surpassing the old record of 827 set by Ace Gutowski in 1956.

Last week he was picked by his teammates as the "most valuable player."

Three Heavyweight Bouts Set Before Yule Holidays

NEW YORK (UPI) — Three heavyweight fights will command attention during this light pre-holiday boxing week, following a fortnight of concentration on the welterweights.

Tom McNeeley, unbeaten heavyweight of Arlington, Mass., fights George Logan of Boise, Idaho, for the third time Tuesday night at Boston. Although McNeeley won decisions over Logan on Jan. 1 and Nov. 15, there was so much dispute over the verdicts that Tuesday's 10-rounder shapes up as a "grudge fight."

Eddie Machen of Portland, Ore., third-ranking heavyweight contender, engages veteran Wayne Bethea of New York at Portland tonight and is heavily favored.

Roland La Starza of New York, ex-heavyweight challenger, will have a comeback fight against Ike Thomas of New York at Patterson, N.J., Wednesday night.

A special yuletide program replaces the regular Saturday night TV fight this week.

Matchmaker Teddy Brenner of Madison Square Garden opens negotiations today for young Emile Griffith of New York to get a March shot at the welterweight crown because of his upset victory over top contender Luis Rodriguez of Cuba last Saturday night.

Griffith, a 9-5 underdog, handed Rodriguez his first defeat in 36 professional fights. Emile's left hooks and straight rights earned a split decision over lanky Luis, 5-4-1, 6-4, 4-3-1.

Griffith weighed 147¾ pounds; Rodriguez, 148.

Benny (Kid) Paret of Cuba defended his world welterweight crown in the same Garden ring on the previous Saturday by outpointing Frederico Thompson of Argentina. Despite the prowess Paret displayed against Thompson, matchmaker Brenner believes Cuban Benny would be taking a genuine risk against Griffith in March.

ONE FOR JOE — Linebacker Joe Schmidt, who waited seven years in pro ball before scoring a touchdown for the Lions earlier this season, scored one more yesterday after he picked up a fumble by Willie Galimore of the Bears and then raced 14 yards into the end zone. Defensive back Yale Lary (28) comes in to give Schmidt a hand.

George Fires 674 for Actual Tourney Honors

Egerer, Bull in Second Place Roles; Award Prizes Tuesday

By CHUCK ABAIR

Ken Leece is the champion of the 4th annual Pontiac Press Bowlerama which concluded Sunday afternoon at Lakewood Lanes.

He bowled 633 to go with a 92 handicap for a 725 total to take top honors easily.

Frank Egerer was runnerup with 702 nipping Tom Augello by a single pin.

The big actual invitational, held for the 2nd year in conjunction with the handicap finals, was taken by Paul George in impressive fashion.

He fired a 674 to overtake early leader Bill Bull, who had rolled 637 on the 1st of two squads. Lou Koprince followed at 610.

Led by Leece, all the handicap finalists and top three in actual will be awarded prize money and trophies tomorrow at 6 p.m. at the 300 Lounge on Elizabeth Lake Rd.

Leece really did well. He had already won $10 arid a trophy for being high qualifier at Howe's Lanes Dec. 4 with 703. The title brought another $525 and a trophy for a total of $535 and a pair of handsome souvenirs.

Egerer earned $275 and a trophy and Augello $150. The remaining prizes guaranteed by The Press were $125 to Vic Stoddard and $100 to Don Pennell. Stoddard had 694 for 4th and Pennell 692.

The other prizes are in accordance with the total entries headed by 6th place Maurice Yarnold at 682. Al Mills, Franklin Miller and Irv Gray tied at 671.

A booming 276 middle game sparked another big performance by Leece. After starting with a 166, he really got hot. A 191 final put it on ice for the Hickory Lane resident.

Egerer, of Drayton Plains, rolled 201-182-223 and Augello 191-210-231.

George gave a hint that he might be hot in the actual after finishing strong in the last handicap group with 192 and 209 after a 147 beginning.

He fired 192 and then 235 in the acutal but still trailed Bull by three pins going into the deciding 3rd game. The little cleaning man really did some mopping up then hitting 247 to romp.

Bull had fired 217-307-213. Koprince had 181-171 and then 258 beating out Joe Foster for the No. 3 position. Foster had 607.

George will receive a $50 bond and trophy. Bull earned a $35 bond and trophy and Koprince $10.

Harold Law, John Whitehead, Loren Kay, Al Urbaniak, Dr. E. E. Ludwig, Gary Greene, Bob Kuklinski and Bill DeBats are others who won from $15 to $25.

Montcalm high qualifier and actual leader at that house Bob Hanson added $10 to $20 and a trophy clinched last Sunday. Tom Shara, the big gun at Sylvan, did the same. Bob Lawson added $10 to $10 assured for being actual leader at Howe's.

Ohio State and Bradley Meet Stiffest Challenge

By The Associated Press

Ohio State and Bradley, the 1-2 punch in college basketball, will find out this week if they've really learned the art of self defense when they face their sternest challenges yet.

Both are undefeated but that hasn't been a shield for some of the big boys through the first two and a half weeks of the season.

The Buckeyes, defending NCAA champions, play Loyola of Chicago tonight and then go for victory No. 6 Thursday night against Detroit (4-1). Ohio State was rated first in last week's Associated Press poll and the Titans were third.

Both were victorious over the weekend, Ohio State winning over tough little Wichita 93-82 and Detroit beating Nebraska 71-62.

Bradley, second ranked, plays Gonzaga tonight, then tries to settle an old score with Missouri Valley foe Cincinnati. The Braves have been runnerup to Cincy in the MVC for the past three years—when Oscar Robertson led the Bearcats.

Now Robertson is gone, Cincy is just another ball club, having a 4-2 mark. Bradley is 6-0 and ran its winning streak over the past two seasons to 12 straight with an 88-66 victory Saturday night over Wisconsin.

With the Christmas recess in progress or about to begin, the program is just the calm before the tournament storm which will burst forth in every corner of the country next week.

Most of the nation's top teams play only one game this week, with three others, in addition to Ohio State, Bradley and Detroit, in action tonight. Fifth-ranked North Carolina (3-2) meets Creighton. St. Bonaventure (6-0) plays Western Ontario and Duke (5-0) goes against Georgia Tech. North Carolina and St. Bonaventure take the rest of the week off after tonight.

Fourth ranked Indiana (4-1) plays Notre Dame Tuesday night in its only action this week while ninth-rated Louisville and 10th-ranked North Carolina State also have a light schedule. The Cardinals Wednesday, St. John's, ranked 7th with a 4-0 mark, takes on Pitt and Gonzaga this week, while Duke (No. 8), pits its 5-0 mark against Georgia Tech and Florida. The Johnnies and Duke were idle over the weekend.

Indiana won over Nevada 80-52, North Carolina beat Kansas 78-70, and St. Bonaventure easily handled Morehead 106-88 to make it a clean sweep for the top ranked clubs.

Auburn tabbed itself as the team to beat for the Southeastern Conference crown, beating Alabama 74-62 for the Birmingham Classic title, making its record 5-0 this year and ran its winning streak to 14. Duquesne's 80-66 victory over hometown foe Pitt gave it the Steel Bowl title 80-66 while Portland beat Gonzaga 73-54 for the City of Roses tournament title at Portland, Ore.

Wake Forest moved to the top of the Atlantic Coast Conference race with a 72-60 upset of Maryland, coming on the heels of last week's upset of North Carolina State. Temple handed Kentucky its second loss, 66-58. The Wildcats play host to the Kentucky Classic, beginning Wednesday at Lexington, Ky.

Kentucky will play Illinois, a 96-87 loser to Marquette while California meets St. Louis in the other pairing.

Oklahoma City and Tulane each tasted defeat for the first time. Houston's late rally cut down Oklahoma City 78-65 and SMU belted the Greenies 83-67. Drake surprised Dayton 73-62.

UCLA defeated Butler 73-61 and Southern Cal won over Notre Dame 93-63 and Memphis State beat Montana State 77-50 in some Far West intersectional jousts. In return, St. Mary's (Calif.) won over Minnesota 54-52 but Purdue beat Washington State 71-46 and Iowa State defeated Washington 69-50 in Midwest intersectional contests.

1-2 PUNCH — The big guns of the 2nd annual Pontiac Press Invitational Actual tournament Sunday afternoon were a pair of familiar names in local bowling circles. Bill Bull points to the Lakewood Lanes scoreboard which shows Paul George, right, beat him out 674 to 637.

Warriors Stay Close to Celts

Wilt and Rodgers Pace Philly to 128-112 Win Over Royals

By The Associated Press

The Philadelphia Warriors still are dogging the trail of the league-leading Boston Celtics in the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division, but had to come from behind Sunday night to overcome the Royals at Cincinnati.

Thanks to Wilt Chamberlain and Guy Rodgers, Philadelphia, stepped up the pace in the second half after trailing 59-58, and defeated the Royals 127-112.

Chamberlain scored 32 points and grabbed 38 rebounds, a Cincinnati Garden record. Rodgers came up with 20 points, and had 16 assists, also a Garden record. Oscar Robertson scored 31 points for Cincinnati, 22 in the first half.

In the only other game, the St. Louis Hawks snatched victory in the last 26 seconds when Bob Bob Pettit made two free throws to edge the Syracuse Nationals 104-103.

Pettit scored 36 points and Cliff Hagan 20 for the Hawks, leaders in the Western Division. Dave Gambee, John Kerr and Dolph Schayes each tallied 18 for Syracuse.

On Saturday, Boston downed Los Angeles 140-112, while St. Louis defeated New York 116-103.

Reah Hits 687 for Huron High

Arnie Reah, lead-off man for the Pfeiffer's Beer team in the Huron Bowl Classic, turned in the loop's highest three game series with a 242-233-212—687 to pace his mates' three game sweep over Pasquale's Pizzeria. Reah's total topped a 685 by Bill Bull, the year's previous high. Paul Karas had a 237 and 203 in a 602 set for the losers.

Sylvan Center boosted its league lead to four points with a shutout of Colbert Lanes with Wally Johnson best at 612. Calbi Music Company took advantage of 626 and 606 series by Ron Rothbarth and George Chicovsky to take two games from Westside Mobil.

Auburn Lanes followed a 211-213-208—632 set by Brooks Roberson to a sweep over Mel Eller Builders that enabled the Auburn five to capture third place in the standings.

Odie Miller offered 620 as his Montcalm Centre teammates also won every game of their match with Mazza's Market, while Ray Keith's 619 was tops for Sno-Bol in a two game win over O-Kland Tom Bulth's 625 for the Commen.

Police Cuddly Market continued its hot streak by winning two from O'Neal Mill Supply as Max Bottom turned in 197-211-225—541. Stroh's Beer also scored a double win over Double Cola behind a fine 643 by Gene Podgorske, who put together games of 221-222-200.

Tigers Schedule 81 Home Games for '61 Season

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Tigers will play 81 home games for the first time in history next year. The schedule, also for the first time, contains twi-light doubleheaders.

Detroit has played twi-night doubleheaders at home before, but only as makeups of postponed games. However, three of them are on the 1961 schedule announced over the weekend.

The Bengals will play their first game at home April 11 against the Cleveland Indians. A total of 24 night games are on tap — the first on April 25 against New York.

Besides the twi-lighters, the Tigers also will play seven doubleheaders on Sundays and another on Memorial Day.

The Tigers will play host to the Los Angeles Angels for the first time April 21. The new Washington Senators will be here May 9, while the Minneapolis-St. Paul Twins won't make their first visit to renamed Tiger Stadium until June 2.

Last-Minute Gift Idea: $50,000 Coffeemaker!

NEW YORK (UPI)—A jeweler advertised a Christmas gift for "the woman who has everything" —a 14-carat gold electric coffeemaker set with 250 diamonds and 150 rubies.

Price: $50,000. That's worth 500,000 cups of coffee at 10 cents a cup.

U-D Home, Michigan Away Tonight

Lost Weekend for MSU Cagers

From Our Wire Services

It was a lost weekend for Michigan State's basketball team and Dave DeBusschere, University of Detroit's All-America player.

The Spartans were clobbered twice in the Sunflower Cage Classic, falling to Kansas State 104-82 Saturday night after losing 93-69 the night before to Kansas.

For DeBusschere, the Titan's 72-41 win over Nebraska was hardly an individual effort. Big Dave had the poorest scoring night of his collegiate career as he collected only eight points.

He helped the cause on the boards, however, as he grabbed 23 rebounds. The records show Dave made only 4 baskets out of 23 day night shots, however, the fact remains that he took only nine shots from the floor. The other attempts were lost tips which he pushed up but failed to connect.

The question from the Ohio State scout in the press box was, "Is DeBusschere sandbagging?" He passed off several occasions to shoot.

The third-ranked Titans meet first-ranked OSU at Columbus Thursday night.

Tonight, however, U. of D. must be on guard against a tall Gonzaga quintet which boasts an All-America candidate in Frank Burgess.

The West Coast team has foreign imports George Trontzas of Greece who stands 7-1, and Hans Albertson of Sweden who stands 6-8.

The Titans had a cold first half although they led 36-31 at halftime, but they pushed ahead by 13 points right at the start of the second half and never were in trouble.

Pontiac's Harrison Munson played a key role. He hit his first shot from the floor. Charley North led the scoring with 19.

Kansas State wasted no time against the outclassed Spartans. They led by 17 early in the first half and the 104 points was a field-house scoring record for the winners.

Michigan's basketball team opens a two-game road trip in Wichita tonight against the University of Wichita.

The Wolverines, idle over the weekend, then wind up their pre-holiday season at Denver Wednesday.

In their last start, coach Dave Strack's cagers downed Idaho 73-57 in Ann Arbor.

Birmingham Swimmer Helps Set New Record

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — A 400-yard medley relay team from Indiana University, including two Michigan swimmers, is claiming a new national collegiate and American record of 4:40.5.

The quartet includes Frank McKinney, backstroke; Chet Jastremski, Toledo, Ohio, breast stroke; Terry Laberdie, Battle Creek, butterfly, and Pete Sintz of Birmingham, freestyle.

The time Saturday as three-tenths of a second under the mark set last year by another Hoosier squad.

It Was Probably the Only Ground Cleveland Lost

NEW YORK (AP)—The Cleveland Browns won the football game from the New York Giants Sunday, but before it even started Jimmy Brown and six hefty Cleveland teammates lost six stories—rushing.

The seven players, including the 228-pound fullback, and a bellboy entered an elevator at the sixth floor of a hotel near Yankee Stadium. The car immediately took off and didn't stop until it hit the basement.

No one was hurt in the sudden drop and the players walked to the Stadium, where Brown gained 110 yards in the Browns' 83-34 victory.

A hotel spokesman said the elevator probably had slipped a cable because of overloading.

Petersen Leaders Change

CHICAGO (AP) — Four Milwaukee bowlers climbed among the leaders tonight in the $327,808 Petersen bowling classic which carries a top prize of $27,500.

Richard Liesiecki of Milwaukee took over second place with a 1586 total for eight games. He fell five pins short of Charles Garrison, Kalamazoo, Mich., who took the lead last weekend when the classic began.

Others moving into the top 10 were Don Geresy, St. Joseph, Mich., 1547; Ken Mack, Milwaukee, 1546; Robert Niewicki, Milwaukee, 1521, and Roland Geiger, Milwaukee, 1519.

The tournament runs through June 25 and is expected to attract 13,000 bowlers.

Gophers Plan to Prove Two Things in Rose Bowl Game

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI) — Coach Murray Warmath and members of his Minnesota football team accepted the bid to meet Washington in the Rose Bowl Jan. 2 for two good reasons.

First, the Golden Gophers want to prove that they fully deserved their designation as the nation's No. 1 college football team for the 1960 season.

And, secondly, they are anxious to restore the prestige of the Big Ten Conference, which was badly weakened when virtually the same Washington team shocked Wisconsin, 44-8, in the Rose Bowl last New Year's Day.

Warmath and his young ginats believe that they can accomplish both aims if they win impressively at Pasadena.

When the Gophers left Minneapolis for California last Saturday, Warmath was especially happy that fullback Tom Robbins had fully recovered from an early-season knee injury and was able to join the traveling squad.

Robbins last season was the Big Ten's leading punter and much of Minnesota's strategy is centered on kicking.

Minnesota is so strong defensively the Gophers often have kicked on third down simply to place the opponent in a hole.

And, should Minnesota win the pre-game coin toss in the Rose Bowl game, the Gophers probably will elect to kick as they have done all season.

Plays such as these have dismayed some writers who like to describe wide open plays and thrilling gambles. But the fan who enjoys superb defensive football will find Minnesota a dream team.

With All-America guard Tom Brown leading the way, the Minnesota line is the strongest in the nation. Brown weighs 243 pounds and tackle Frank Brixious scales 250.

The starting line averages 220 and the backfield, quarterbacked by junior Sandy Stephens, 202 pounds.

Minnesota opponents this season lost the ball a total of 16 times on fumbles and 18 times on pass intereceptions to the hard-hitting, alert Gophers.

With the Gophers gaining the ball deep in enemy territory on opponent miscues countless times this season, it hasn't been necessary for Minnesota to grind out long yardage for touchdowns.

In almost every instance when Minnesota got the ball on the foe's 20 yard line, the Gophers managed to score.

The longest scoring play for Minnesota this season was a 42-yard scamper by fullback Roger Hagberg against Iowa. Hagberg, Stephens, Judge Dickson and Mill Munsey are all consistent runners who can pick up needed yardage at vital moments.

The Washington players probably won't see many Minnesota passes thrown at them unless the game is close. Minnesota's passing attack has been just so-so this season.

Stephens has completed only 20 of 52 attempts and accounted for two touchdowns through the air.

At least 20,000 Minnesota rooters are expected for the game, including the Minnesota basketball team.

By a rare stroke of good fortune Minnesota last year entered its team in the Big Los Angeles College Basketball Tourney immediately preceding the Rose Bowl game.

And the basketball players will be guests at the Rose Bowl.

Pistons Seeking Wins on Coast

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — The Detroit Pistons will try to break out of the cellar in the National Basketball Association's western division when they tackle the Los Angeles Lakers back-to-back tonight and tomorrow night here.

A pair of victories would lift the unpredictable Pistons past the Lakers and Cincinnati Royals and into second place in the western division chase.

Detroit is winless against the Lakers in three starts this season.

Hurlers Didn't Aid Bucs According to Statistics

CINCINNATI (UPI)—Pitching is supposed to be 75 per cent of baseball, but the Pittsburgh Pirates won the National League pennant practically on hitting alone.

That's what the official batting averages, released at league headquarters here, indicated today, anyway.

Led by shortstop Dick Groat, who won the league's batting crown with a .325 average, the Pirates swept virtually every title in the hitting department.

They paced the league in team batting with .276 as compared with .265 compiled by the runner-up Milwaukee Braves, and also led in runs batted in (689); hits (1,493); total bases (2,201); doubles (236), and runs scored (734).

The only important department in which the Pirates were not first was home runs. The Braves were high with 170. The Pirates hit 120.

Groat, who barely edged out Norm Larker of Los Angeles for the individual batting title by two points, was the first N.L. shortstop to win the crown in 25 years. The last one before him was Arky Vaughan, also of the Pirates, in 1935.

Outside of Groat and Larker, only three other regulars managed to hit .300. Willie Mays of San Francisco was third with .319, Roberto Clemente of the Pirates fourth with .314 and Ken Boyer of St. Louis fifth with .304.

Shortstop Ernie Banks of Chicago led in home runs with 41, and Hank Aaron of Milwaukee drove in the most runs, 126, and hit for the most total bases, 334. It was the fourth straight year that Aaron finished first in total bases.

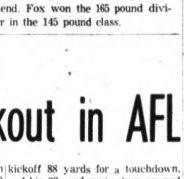
Two Huskies Gain Wrestling Titles

Pontiac Northern won two titles, Waterford and Walled Lake one each in the 1st big Oakland County Wrestling Tournament held over the weekend at Norup Junior High in Berkley.

Seven other Huskies finished 2nd, 3rd or 4th in an outstanding team performance.



MAT CHAMPS — Dave Fox and Winfred Miracle, Pontiac Northern wrestlers took first places in the Oakland County Wrestling tournament over the weekend. Fox won the 165 pound division and Miracle was the winner in the 145 pound class.

Winfred Miracle sparked PNH with a 2-0 triumph in the 145 final. Dave Fox nipped Hazel Park football ace Frank Smotherman on riding time as they each scored two points in 165.

Jim Cook was the Waterford champ taking the 95-pound crown. John Shiker of Walled Lake won a pin in 180.

Hazel Park dominated the other 1st places taking six. Frank Stagg, Bill Kettlewell, Carson Smith, Jerry Cunningham, T. Duncan and Gary Burger.

Stan Ellis won for Berkley as did George Blackwood for Dondero.

Art Fowlkes, veteran 112-pound entry, was the top Pontiac Central grappler. He bowed by a fall in the title match to Burger.

Officials were pleased with the operation of the 1st such tournament for the county as another step towards improving and expanding the mat sport in this area.

Other schools taking part were Warren Fitzgerald, Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows, Lake Orion, Oak Park, Southfield, Van Dyke and L'Anse Creuse.

Medals were won by all champions. Ribbons went to all others in the top four in each division. There were no team scores kept and no awards on that basis.

The top finishers:
95—Cook, Rolfe (HP), Black (HP), Whittaker (PC).
103—Ellis, Chancey (PN), McIlroy (PN), Janeta (ROD).
112—Burger, Fowlkes, Steeh (HP), Mikus (WF).

Chargers, Oilers Combine for 87 Points

Scoreboard Gets Workout in AFL

By The Associated Press

The Los Angeles Chargers and Houston Oilers, two high scoring outfits which closed out the regular 14-game schedule with an adding machine total of 87 points Sunday, will meet for the American Football League title Jan. 1.

It will be the rubber game between the Chargers and Oilers, and the Texas homefolks should see pigskins flying all over the premises. Earlier in the season, Houston beat Los Angeles 38-28, but several weeks ago the Chargers won 24-21.

With Houston wrapping up the Eastern Division crown and Los Angeles the Western title a week ago, Sunday's final games were meaningless as far as the standings went.

Los Angeles ripped across 17 points in the fourth quarter to rock the New York Titans 50-43. Houston also got 17 points to come from behind in the last period and blast the Boston Patriots 37-21. In one other Sunday game, the Dallas Texans downed the Buffalo Bills 24-7. Saturday the Oakland Raiders overpowered the Denver Broncos 48-10.

The 93 total for Los Angeles and New York cracked the AFL record of 80 when the Chargers beat Oakland 52-28 three weeks ago.

The National Football League completed its 12-game schedule, but the Green Bay Packers had clinched the Western Conference crown by beating the Los Angeles Rams Saturday 35-21. They meet the Eagles, Eastern Conference champs, in the title game at Philadelphia Dec. 26. In other final NFL games, Detroit whipped Chicago 36-0, Cleveland pulled out a 48-34 thriller over New York, St. Louis beat Pittsburgh 38-7, Philadelphia outscored the Washington 38-28, and the dethroned champion Baltimore Colts were beaten 34-10 by the San Francisco 49ers.

Jack Kemp, former Occidental College star, threw three touchdown passes and scored one himself for Los Angeles but a 41-year-old teammate, Ben Agajanian, chipped in with three field goals and five conversions to gain top scoring honors with 14 points. Al Dorow tossed three TD passes for New York, which led 21-16 at halftime.

It was 43-33 New York when Kemp flipped an 11-yard scoring pass to Blanche Martin. Kemp then scored on a 5-yard run and Agajanian iced the works with his third field goal from 27 yards out.

Billy Cannon, former Louisiana State All-America, returned a kickoff 88 yards for a touchdown, and his 38-yard punt return opened the gates for the 17 points Houston rolled up in the final period burst against Boston.

Boston's Ed Songin had completed five passes in 4 minutes, 43 seconds of the third quarter to give Boston a 21-20 lead.

Cannon's punt return set up a third field goal for George Blanda, and put Houston in front to stay. Rookie Jackie Lee of Cincinnati then directed two quick touchdown drives to turn the game into a rout.

Jack Spikes scored one TD for Dallas, kicked a field goal and threw extra points and teammate Cotton Davidson tossed two touchdown passes to lead the Texans over Buffalo.

Northern, Central Matmen Tangle Tomorrow, 7:30

The first of two big city wrestling battles comes up Tuesday night when Pontiac Central invades the Northern gym for a 7:30 match.

PNH rates a slight edge on the basis of a much better showing the 1st Oakland County meet over the weekend but that should mean little when the action starts.

Central has whipped Waterford and Fitzgerald in two outings while Northern took its only start at Royal Oak Dondero.

Montreal Is Hard to Stop

Geoffrion Scores Three Times as Canadiens Win Pair Over Weekend

By The Associated Press

Apparently there's no stopping Boom Boom Geoffrion and the Montreal Canadiens in the National Hockey League.

The 29-year-old winger smashed home three goals over the week-end in pacing the league-leading Canucks to two victories and a six point spread over the runner-up Toronto Maple Leafs.

Boom Boom scored both goals in Montreal's 2-0 victory over the New York Rangers Saturday and one—the winning marker—in a 4-2 win over Boston on Bruin ice Sunday.

Geoffrion has scored 11 in eight games and his scoring string for the eight games is just one short of the NHL record held by Maurice Richard of the Canadiens.

The Canadiens have swept 10 of their last 11 games.

It must be awfully discouraging for the Maple Leafs. They tied Boston 3-3 Saturday and beat the Rangers at New York Sunday, 3-2, but lost ground anyway. The Leafs are unbeaten in their last five, four of them victories.

Frank Mahovlich extended his scoring streak to five games in leading Toronto to victory over the Rangers. He scored his 29th goal in 31 games in the second period. That made the score 3-0 and proved to be the winner as the Rangers rallied to make it close.

Howe, Sawchuk Are Latest Red Wing Heroes

One Team to Join Win List Tuesday

The list of Oakland County's winless basketball teams will be reduced by one Tuesday night when Birmingham Seaholm plays at Southfield.

The Maples have lost both their starts and Southfield has failed three times.

Avondale hopes to remain unbeaten and regain a tie for first place in the Oakland B League at Fitzgerald's expense. Holly travels to Brighton for a Wayne-Oakland contest.

There is a full slate of games in the Southern Thumb Conference.

Seaholm came close to pulling out a victory Friday night but the Maples fell three points short against Hazel Park. Southfield, which has been having its troubles, must defense 6-7 Harry Dunne.

Avondale's re-scheduled game at Fitzgerald should be a good one. The home team has a 2-1 record. The Yellow Jackets have won their only two games by a total of four points.

Coach Dick Bye's cagers need a victory to overtake Oak Park, 3-0.

Holly managed to escape last Friday's W-O schedule in first place. But Milford, Brighton and Clarkston tasted defeat for the first time. Milford lost to Holly and the other two leaders were upset.

Ron Morlan appears to have found the range and this gives Holly a definite edge.

Memphis goes to New Haven in a game which will be the home team's toughest test in the Southern Thumb. New Haven is co-leader with Brown City which is hosting Armada. Almont can expect plenty of trouble at Capac, loser only to Brown City. Dryden is at Anchor Bay in the other contest.

Unbeaten Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows entertains Utica St. Lawrence. Birmingham Groves is at Clawson and Lutheran East at Madison in other area contests.

Bloomfield Hills travels to Milford Wednesday for a W-O game.

BIG PAIR — Two of pro basketball's most heralded players, Wilt Chamberlain and Oscar Robertson battled yesterday when their respective teams, the Warriors and Royals met. Wilt (left) got 32 points and 38 rebounds while Oscar got 31 points and 14 rebounds. Philadelphia won, 128-112.

Gordie Scores Twice to Beat Chicago, 3-2

His 2nd Counter Wins Game; Terry Kicks Out 48 Shots

CHICAGO (UPI) — Gordie Howe and Terry Sawchuck, two veterans who have been hampered by slow starts this season, were the Red Wing heroes last night.

Howe's goals powered Detroit to a 3-2 victory over the Chicago Black Hawks while the temperamental Sawchuk, apparently undisturbed by a recent row with the Red Wing front office, performed brilliantly in the nets, kicking aside 48 shots.

The goals were Howe's 9th and 10th of the National Hockey League season. Furthermore, the veteran right-winger — in the midst of a hot streak after his most listless start in many years —has now scored five times in the last four games and is seemingly hitting the stride that makes him one of the game's most feared goal producers.

Sawchuk, who has been splitting the goal-tending duties with rookie Hank Bassen, created a controversy last week when he announced over a Canadian radio network that he wanted to play regularly or be traded.

Red Wing coach Sid Abel, irked by Sawchuk's mediocre efforts at the outset of the season, installed Bassen in the nets and the rookie came through with a string of fine performances.

But Bassen faltered in last weekend's series with Montreal, when he was riddled for 11 goals in two games, and Sawchuk manned the cage during the 1-1 tie with New York last Thursday.

Abel went with Sawchuk again last night and the veteran goaltender responded with a rash of spectacular saves, especially during the third period when the Black Hawks bombarded the Detroit net. Sawchuk made 22 saves in the final 20 minutes.

But despite such superior net-minding, the Red Wings would have been forced to settle for a tie if Howe had not slammed home the winning goal at 17:59 of the final period.

Howie Glover gave Detroit a 1-0 lead at 12:41 of the opening period. Glover pushed the puck into the net through a confusing swarm at the goalmouth.

Then Howe's first goal, a sharply angled backhander from 30 feet out in the fourth minute of the second period, gave the Red Wings a two-goal bulge.

Red Hay's marker at 10:56 of the middle period made it 2-1 and Ted Sloan's goal, a short tip-in of a pass from Dollard St. Laurent, tied the score at 11:30 of the third session.

The game was subjected to several delays in the first period. The first came when a fan tossed a dead rabbit onto the ice and the other shortly afterward when another customer threw a string of exploding firecrackers onto the playing area.

In the second period the game was stopped for five minutes while players from both teams looked for a pair of contact lenses lost by Red Wing rookie Ed Diachuk. The lenses were not found and Diachuk resumed play without them.

The victory enabled the third-place Wings to keep pace with the league-leading Montreal Canadiens, who defeated Boston, and the second-place Toronto Maple Leafs, who turned back New York.

Detroit trails Montreal by 10 points and Toronto by four. The Red Wings are idle until Saturday when they play at Toronto.

Adrian, Calvin Post Victories

Ferris Dumped From Unbeaten Ranks

By United Press International

The list of unbeaten schools on the state's small college cage front dwindled to three over the weekend.

Ferris Institute, winner of its first four games, became the latest quintet to topple from the undefeated ranks. The Bulldogs were upended by Wabash of Indiana, 80-63, Saturday night.

That leaves Adrian, Calvin and Aquinas as the only teams left to boast of perfect records.

Adrian won its fourth game Saturday, whipping Defiance of Ohio, 75-57, while Calvin racked up victory number five with an 87-60 thrashing of Central State of Ohio. Aquinas, which was idle over the weekend, was a 7-0 record.

Adrian and Calvin are assured of heading into the new year with unbeaten slates but Aquinas faces a stiff challenge at the Flint Christmas tourney later in the week.

In other action Saturday, Western Reserve handed Wayne State its third defeat, 72-62, Northern Michigan won its fifth in six outings, downing St. Cloud, 75-72, Albion made it two in a row with an 84-59 drubbing of Alma and Lawrence Tech dumped Otterbein, 75-70 for its fifth win in six games.

Eastern Michigan lost its second straight Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference tussle, dropping a 97-74 verdict to Eastern Illinois and Central second IAIC defeat in a row, losing to Southern Illinois, 65-60. Western Michigan scored its first victory in the Mid-American Conference, outclassing Miami, 79-59.

The action throughout the coming week is sparse. North Central plays at Lawrence Tech in tonight's only contest while the two-day Christmas tourney at Flint will be held Wednesday and Thursday. Along with Aquinas, Hillsdale, Eastern Michigan and Ferris Institute will participate.

Carl De Kuipier's 20-point scoring spree paved the way for Calvin which shot into a 52-35 edge at halftime and was never threatened thereafter.

Adrian was scarcely troubled by Defiance which carried a five-game winning skein into the contest. The Bulldogs, led by Vince Giles with 22 points, enjoyed a 39-26 lead at the half.

Charley Bowerman's 28 points sparked Wabash. Ferris trailed by 10 points at the half and although Mike Bohnet pumped in 21 of his 26 points during the second half, Wabash's balance proved too much for the Bulldogs.

Penn State Gets Help From Coach in Victory

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Coach Rip Engle took a leaf from the book of pro coach Paul Brown in helping his Penn State team whip Oregon 41-12 in the second annual Liberty Bowl game here Saturday.

Leading 14-6 with a few minutes left to play in the first half, Engle did something he rarely does. He called the plays from the bench.

The Penn State quarterbacks shuttled in and out of the game with strategy much the same as Brown sends in plays for his Cleveland Browns via a pair of guards.

"I don't like to call the plays," said Engle. "I like to let the boys play it. But there wasn't much time and I thought I had the plays for another score."

He did. State scored and left the field leading 21-6. The touchdown loomed even bigger when Oregon tallied the only touchdown of the third period. What could have been a 14-13 game was 21-12. State scored three times in the final period to complete a rout.

* * *

Engel credited his team's second straight Liberty Bowl victory to his superior numbers. He was able to alternate two complete units against the thinner Oregon forces.

"We tried to make them play two games," the State coach explained. He referred to the use of his "22 man first team" which forced Oregon to battle two teams instead of one.

Dick Hoak, senior quarterback from Jeannette, Pa., was voted the game's most valuable player. Hoak scored two touchdowns, passed for another and set up the first state TD with a 15-yard pass to the Oregon 7. In addition he intercepted two passes in the Lion's rousing fourth quarter finish, each leading to a touchdown. Other state scores were by Dick Jonas, Al Gursky, Ed Caye and Dick Pae.

Oregon Coach Len Casanova said his team simply made too many errors to beat a good team such as Penn State.

Oregon touchdowns were scored by quarterback Dave Grosz from the one in the first period and halfback Dave Grayson on a 10-yard run in the third. Grosz with 9 pass completions in 15 throws for 178 yards, and Grayson gaining 95-yards on 16 carries, starred for the losing webfoots.

* * *

A crowd of 16,624 sat in subfreezing weather to see this second annual bowl game at the Philadelphia Stadium. Although it was a artistic success—an interesting game despite the score—the promoters took a financial bath. They're as hardy, however, as the fans who braved the elements, saying they'll be back at the same old stand in 1961.

Lame-Duck Solon Getting Nowhere

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The honor of being the lamest duck in the current congressional flock undoubtedly goes to Rep. Ward M. Miller, who just barely got off the ground.

Miller, a pleasant, rather portly Republican who represents Ohio's Sixth District, is, as far as I could determine, the only congressman in history to be elected for an eight-week term.

His entire career as a lawmaker runs from last Nov. 3, which brought his first triumph at the polls, until next Jan. 3, when the new Congress convenes.

Thus, he will bow out without ever having had an opportunity to cast a vote or attend a committee meeting.

In fact, congress hasn't even been in session during his term.

But Miller is taking his iterim duties seriously. At a time when most House members are off on adjournment junkets, or relaxing at home, he is on the job in his Capitol office every day.

His unusual situation resulted from the death of Rep. James G. Polk, D-Ohio, in April 1959, and the refusal of Ohio Gov. Mike DiSalle to call a special election to fill the vacancy.

In the recent general election, Miller ran for the unexpired portion of Polk's term and defeated his Democratic opponent by about 15,000 votes. At the same time, William H. Harsha Jr., also a Republican, was elected for a new two-year term beginning in January.

I thought it might be interesting to see how Miller was bearing up under the stress of his two-month term, So I called him for an appointment. This took a bit of doing.

His name, naturally, was not listed in the Capitol directory and the switchboard operator claimed never to have heard of him. I finally got his telephone and room numbers from the House clerk's office.

The clerk, however, gave me the wrong room number and I wound up in the office of Rep. Chester Bowles (D-Conn.). So I had to go through the involved process of tracking Miller down again by telephone.

USED EMPTY OFFICE

When we finally got together, Miller told me that he arrived in Washington on Nov. 20 and spent the next 10 days working in an empty office. He answered his mail on a portable typewriter. But now he is pretty well set up for business.

He has hired a secretary and an office boy for the month of December and has obtained some stationery with his own letterhead.

He said his duties thus far have consisted mainly of sorting out requests for appointments to the military academies and sending government literature to school children back home.

Miller, who has a real estate business in Portsmouth, Ohio, had never been in politics before. I asked him why he decided to seek this brief stint of public service.

"I thought it would be educational," he said. "Passing through life is an educational matter anyway."

Sensing that his motives might not be all philosophical, I inquired whether he had any political ambitions for the future. Miller begged off answering, but I thought I detected that certain gleam in his eye.

Santa and the Boy Fish

by Lucrece Hudgins Beale

SYNOPSIS: Michael has found the wrecked ship carrying the black pearl. He returns to the surface of the water to find the Monster of the Deep holding Costenbricker prisoner in a trunk. The Monster, who claims to own the pearl, hurls the trunk into the sea.

CHAPTER 13

Michael watched in horror as the chest with Costenbricker in it went over the cliff. He ran to the edge and watched it hurtling down and into the sea.

"He'll die down there!" he cried. "Even if he gets out of the chest, he can't swim and he'll drown!"

"True," said the Monster. He grinned through his red whiskers and took a step towards the boy.

Michael stood petrified. The Monster took another step. Michael's knees began to tremble. He tried to speak but no word came from his mouth.

The Monster took another step and, abruptly, Michael found the power to move. He turned to dive from the cliff.

But never before had he dived from so great a height and the sight of the water so far below terrified him.

Between the Monster and the sea he did not know which way to go. He glanced around in panic and suddenly saw the rope, one end still tied to the rock and the other end curled at the cliff's edge.

A group of fierce-looking copy fish surrounded him.

He pounced on the rope and hurled the free end over the cliff. Quickly he slipped over the edge and began to descend, hand over hand, to the sea.

ARMS ACHED

The rope swayed back and forth, scraping him against the side of the cliff. His arms ached. His hands burned. Still he struggled on until he was halfway down.

Then an awful thing happened. Though he kept on descending, hand over hand, he was getting no nearer to the sea.

The faster he dropped, the more he seemed to stand still! The rope was being pulled back to the top of the cliff and, for every foot he struggled down, he was pulled back two.

He looked up and saw the grinning Monster peering over the cliff and hauling up the rope. He looked down. Each moment the water was getting farther and farther away. Suddenly he let go of the rope and fell head over heels into the sea.

He hit the water with a force that yanked back his mask and almost tore the lung from his back. It sent him all the way to the bottom where he arrived gasping for breath.

He chocked on the sea water and struggled to replace the mask that fed him air from the lung. Just in time he got it back in place and, without pausing to rest, swam off to search for the sea chest.

A group of fierce looking copy fish appeared out of nowhere and surrounded him. Razor sharp teeth protruded from their mouths and their yellow eyes blinked off and on like electric lights.

Wide-eyed with terror Michael braced himself to escape. But the copy fish paid no attention to him. They stared entranced at strange bubbles drifting lazily up through the water.

"Why, those are air bubbles!" thought Michael. "It's Costenbricker!"

He tracked the bubbles to the bottom and sure enough there was the sea chest.

The force of its fall had almost buried it in the sand but the bubbles rising steadily from its cracks showed that there was still air in it and a furious banging on the top showed that Costenbricker was still alive.

Frantically, Michael dug out the chest but try as he might he could not lift it from the bottom. He tore at the lock with his fingers but could not break it.

The copy fish swarmed around him watching curiously. They came closer and closer.

They wanted to copy the Boy-fish, do what he did. They began to poke at the lock and in no time their sharp teeth had cut right through it and the chest flew open.

States Rights Top Vote Getter Among Minors With 169,572

WASHINGTON (AP) — A total of 386,253 Americans voted for minor parties in the 1960 presidential election.

Four years ago, the total was 30,000 more.

Official figures put the States Rights party of Louisiana as the top vote-getter among the minor parties. It polled 169,572 votes in Louisiana for its electors — unpledged to any candidate.

The other minor party votes:

Socialist-Labor, Eric Hass of New York as its presidential candidate, 47,521 votes in 16 states.

Prohibition party, Dr. H. L. Decker of Kansas City, 46,208 in 11 states.

National States Rights party, Gov. Orval Faubus of Arkansas, 44,977 in four states.

Socialist-Workers, Farrell Dobbs, New York, 40,175 in 12 states.

Constitution party of Texas, Charles L. Sullivan, Clarksdale, Miss., attorney, 18,169 votes in Texas.

Conservation, J. Bracken Lee of Utah, 8,708 in New Jersey.

Virginia Conservation, C. Benton Coiner of Virginia, 4,204 in Virginia.

Tax cut, Lar Daly of Chicago, 1,767 in Michigan.

Afro-American, Rev. Clennon King of Alabama, 1,485 in Alabama.

Constitution party, M. B. Curtis of Washington state, 1,401 in Washington.

Independent American, no candidate, 539 in Michigan.

Scattered write-ins 1,532.

U. of M. Expert Calls for Crash Air Control Plan

ANN ARBOR (AP)—A University of Michigan expert says a "crash program" of improvement in the nation's air traffic control system could minimize the possibility of air tragedies like the one in New York Friday.

Dr. Paul M. Fitts, a leading authority in the field of aviation psychology, said improved radar beacons — called transponders — and better ground-to-air voice communication is needed.

Fitts said transponders already are in use in military aircraft and should be installed in commercial planes. They would permit clearer visibility and more positive identification of planes from ground control centers, he said.

The voice communications could also be improved with existing equipment, he said.

"In addition to these things, we need long-range research to determine the optimum balance between human and mechanized (computer) control of air traffic," Fitts said.

Montana Legislature Fight Is Family Affair

HELENA, Mont. (AP)—Montana's Beaverhead County campaign trail has been stumped, and won, by another Hazelbaker.

Frank Hazelbaker Jr. has won the family's third seat in the Montana Legislature.

His father and grandfather also served as Beaverhead County representatives, all Republicans.

Miss Mansfield's 'Life' Real Wacky Taffy-Pull

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — I don't know how Ralph Edwards did it but somehow he lured shy, self-effacing Jayne Mansfield before his "This Is Your Life" cameras Sunday night.

Between blurbs for denture powder, cake mix and mouth wash we were advised that Miss Mansfield has restored glamour, glitter and ballyhoo to the Hollywood scene—commodities that the pessimists among us assumed had vanished with Jean Harlow or Clara Bow.

The NBC-TV half-hour sought to support the glamour premise with pictures of Jayne's 20-room, 13-bathroom mansion, her figure and the fur-trimmed suit she wore on the show, which clung to her like she was the sausage and it was the casing.

But then Jayne posed with her husband, mother, step-father and three children in an effort to prove that although she is the most glamorous of all our film stars, she is also "just playne Jayne," a normal daughter, wife, mother.

It was kind of confusing. In the old days, they tell me, our sex symbols stuck to being sex symbols. The trappings of domesticity they left to the slobs who bought the tickets.

Although the show didn't include interviews with any of the numerous publicity men who thumped the bongos for Miss Mansfield during what Ralph Edwards called, "her meteoric rise to stardom," we met the following:

—Mickey Hargitay, her husband. (They rubbed noses. Jayne and Mickey did, and seemed genuinely attracted to each other.)

—A wardrobe mistress who said, "Jayne hasn't a nerve in her on opening night (of her first Broadway play) she pasted pictures in her scrap book."

—A clergyman who said, "Jayne is as normal as apple pie."

—Columnist Jimmy Fidler, who said, "Jayne revived those wonderful days and that wonderful way of living."

—Her mother: "She used to sit on a bed surrounded by pillows and make believe she was a movie star . . . I built a pink lollipop world for her."

—A guidance counselor, "She was a serious-minded, hard-working student with a burning ambition to become a movie star."

—A photographer, "She wore the tightest - fitting gown I ever saw . . . "

—Ralph Edwards, "This is your make-believe world, created for you largely through your own efforts."

—Jayne sighed such things as, "This is too much . . . I just really can't talk . . . It's so wonderful . . . Jule (Styne) gave me my break."

Incidentally, when Edwards introduced some nurses who attended her during her recent confinements at the hospital, Jayne called out to them, "I'll be back soon." Edwards also advised us that Jayne is "completely natural, simple and sweet."

It was a wacky, unreal, awesome taffy-pull, this show. But you know something? I think it probably did reflect Jayne Mansfield's life.

Defectors Level Blast at U.S.

Marriage to Russian Girl Revealed by One of Two Turncoats

MOSCOW (UPI) — Two American defectors William Martin and Berhon Mitchell, former code clerks of the National Security Agency, charged today that the United States will "continue to carry out subversive activities and interference in the internal affairs of other countries."

Quoted in an interview with the official Tass news agency, the two who defected to the Soviet Union last summer said they expected the United States to continue and to enlarge its intelligence activities.

Martin disclosed that he had married a Russian girl since his defection. He called her "a wonderful Soviet girl and excellent housekeeper." He said he, his wife and Mitchell planned to devote themselves to "peaceful, scientific work."

Martin said Allen Dulles' retention as chief of the Central Intelligence Agency was an indication that American espionage activities would go on as usual.

Threat Over; Guards Had Fled

Selassie Seeks Ethiopian Rebels

By HOMER SMITH

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia (AP) —Emperor Haile Selassie's loyal army today hunted rebel imperial guards who fled to the mountains after an abortive attempt to dethrone the 68-year-old monarch.

Army patrols marched through the streets of Addis Ababa and air force patrol planes droned overhead but the city otherwise was quiet, concerned mainly with burying its dead and tending its wounds. Officials estimated civilian and army casualties at 2,000.

A communique claimed the revolt, which broke out Wednesday while the emperor was visiting Brazil, was "quickly crushed by the Ethiopian army and people."

Swift punishment was promised for others attempting to overthrow the Ethiopian "king of kings."

Haile Selassie flew to Addis Ababa airport Saturday, then drove in a tank to Jubilee Palace. His primary residence, Guentalui Palace, had been a rebel stronghold.

MASSACRE CLAIMED

The government claimed it also was the scene of a rebel massacre. The rebels killed 18 government dignitaries and hostages and wounded 32 others before pulling out, the government said.

Haile Selassie's son, Crown Prince Asfa Wassen, 44, was exonerated from any part in the rebellion. The rebels forced the crown prince and other government leaders to make statements against Haile Selassie, the communique said.

The emperor's bodyguard, 5,000 picked soldiers who formed the nucleus of the rebellion, were tricked by "treacherous leaders of the revolt" into thinking they were fighting for their ruler, the communique said.

Many rebel leaders were killed, the government said. Those being hunted reportedly included the imperial guard commander, the commissioner of police and the security chief.

Refugees who fled from the fierce fighting in Addis Ababa began returning to the city. Ethiopian airlines announced resumption of flights inside the country and said flights to Eruope would get under way soon. International telephone service also was being restored.

Stolen Safe Found; Empty, Unidentified

Pontiac state police have recovered a safe, obviously stolen, but have been unable to trace the owner.

The safe, bearing the name of M. L. Spears M.D. in gold letters on front, was found Saturday by Holly Recreation Area Manager Murray Telsworth in an old gravel pit in the state park.

It was empty when found, Sgt. Michael Ahlgrim of the state police post said, and a check with Oakland and Wayne County Medical Associations has failed to identify any Dr. M. L. Spears in the area.

Foot and tire prints showed the 150-lb. safe had been carried from a car or pickup truck stopped on the park roadway to the gravel pit nearby.

The safe had been ripped open.

Elderly Ypsilanti Couple Loses Its Home to Fire

YPSILANTI (UPI) — Fire today destroyed the home of an elderly Ypsilanti couple.

Peter Harris, 81, and his wife Alice, 91, were in the kitchen of their home when fire trucks arrived. A neighbor had noticed the roof was on fire. Efforts to save the house failed.

Winds of 28 to 34 miles an hour are called moderate gales.

Market Features Heavy Trading

NEW YORK (AP) — Heavy trading and mixed prices prevailed in the stock market early this afternoon.

Gains and losses of most key stocks were minor, some stretching to about a point.

A few secondary issues encountered trading interest and moved 2 or 3 points either way.

Tax-loss selling and switching was still an important factor and there was nothing in the continued drab economic news to spur a change in trend. At the same time the list was at a relatively high point on average and some overhead resistance was apparent, brokers said.

Autos, tobaccos and drugs were somewhat higher on balance. Steels were down slightly as expectations were of an easing in steel operations because of the holidays. Most other major groups were thoroughly mixed.

Ford showed a spurt of strength and picked up about a point. American Motors was up a fraction and General Motors was steady.

Declines were registered by the top four steel companies. U.S. Steel falling more than a point.

Several nonferrous metals showed little or no change. Anaconda was down about a point and International Nickel up slightly.

A jump of more than 3 by Polaroid was a routine move for this stock. A 12,500-share block of McGraw-Hill was unloaded at 107, off 2.

Crown Cork was up 2¼ at 44 on a sizable block of 4,500 shares. Vendo jumped a couple of points; U.S. Gypsum fell more than 2.

United Air Lines, soft last week because of the disastrous air collision, recouped about a point. Trans World Airlines was very lightly traded and firm.

Texaco was off a fraction and Jersey Standard eased in an oil group which showed little action. Rails were very narrowly mixed.

American Tobacco picked up close to a point. Schering was another 1-point gainer.

Soybean Futures Active, in Demand

CHICAGO (AP)—The government's final crop report of the year was credited for an active demand for soybean futures today in early transactions on the board of trade. The grains were mixed with price changes narrow.

Soybeans were bid up well over a cent at the opening in line with firmer prices for both soybean oil and soybean meal. The estimate of 1960 yield at 358,778,000 bushels was down only about 1¼ million from a month ago but some brokers had said any reduction at all probably would be mildly bullish.

Trade in the grains was light. Exports over the weekend consisted only of small amounts of soybeans and corn.

U.S. Food Airlift Helps Pro-West Boun in Laos

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Pro-Western Premier Boun Oum struggled today to put this battered capital on its feet with the help of an American airlift flying in critically needed food and medicine.

The government announced the roundup of more than 100 snipers and looters as it tackled the critical economic and political crisis that gripped the little Indochinese kingdom.

An American airlift to rush rice, milk, medical and building supplies from neighboring Thailand was set up over the weekend after pro-Communist troops were driven out of the city in a four-day battle that left at least 150 men, women and children dead and more than 500 wounded.

A U.S. Embassy spokesman said the airlift would continue as long as needed.

Boun moved into the Foreign Ministry building Sunday and announced his government was in business in the rubble-strewn city.

But four months of palace maneuvering and civil war has failed to unify the Buddhist kingdom's political tangle touched off by a leftist coup led by paratroop Capt. Kong Le on Aug. 9.

The rebels military threat to Vientiane remained, with danger of a new flareup in fighting. Rightist government forces led by Gen. Phoumi Nosavan were reported to have pushed several miles north of the capital's airport. Kong Le's forces, retreating with much of their Soviet-supplied arms, were believed still only about 15 miles from the heart of the capital.

The pro-Red Pathet Lao, who joined Kong Le, still held much of the mountainous country's rural area.

Michigan Opens Nation's Longest Freeway Today

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Gov. Williams has proclaimed today "Interstate Highway 94 Day" to commemorate the opening of an 18-mile section of highway between Ann Arbor and Jackson.

The newest strip gives Michigan a 203-mile freeway between Detroit and Stevensville on Lake Michigan.

It is the longest continuous toll-free interstate highway in the nation, according to the State Highway Department.

Ribbon-cutting ceremonies were planned today with Gov. Williams, Gov-Elect John B. Swainson and other state officials presiding.

Crime Weekend Keeps Waterford Police Hopping

Vandals and burglars kept Waterford Township police busy over the weekend.

Vandals last night smashed three large windows in a store at 6312 Hatchery Road. Damage was estimated at $800.

Robert Moss, 5155 Oak Cliff St., said his unlocked home was entered last night. He reported more than $150 worth of guns and fishing equipment stolen.

Harry Martin, 28 Kent St., said vandals smashed the windows of a new home he owns at 6655 Salene St. He said electrical fixtures and cabinets were ripped loose from the walls.

An attempted break in was reported by Frederick Render, owner of the White Swan Restaurant 4370 Highland Road. A rear window was smashed, he said.

Another-rear window was broken at a gas station at 4397 Highland Road, but nothing was taken, police were told.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MRS. Cornelius (Alice) Jewell who passed away five years ago December 19, 1955. The family of Mrs. Cornelius Jewell.

MARBLE — IN LOVING MEMORY of a dear husband and father George Marble, who passed away Dec. 21, 1959.
Gone dear husband gone forever,
How we miss your smiling face,
But you left us to remember,
None on earth can take your place.
A happy home we once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still,
But death has left a loneliness,
The world can never fill.
Sadly missed by wife Ruth, and daughters.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF ARthur Thompson who passed away 3 years ago today, Dec. 19.
'Twas hard to say
Thy will be done,
So great with parting pain
But faith and hope
Have given us strength
That we shall meet again.
Sadly missed by his wife, son, daughter, and grandchildren.

10 Claim Seeing Airliners Collide

Quizzed by Probers; Others Eye Possibility Jet Overshot Pattern

NEW YORK (AP)—Two teams of federal investigators planned intensive questioning today of at least 10 persons who claim they actually saw Friday's airliner collision — worst in aviation history.

Other investigators checked the possibility that the United Air Lines DC8 jet involved had overshot the point at which it was to begin flying a rectangular "holding pattern" prior to its intended landing at Idlewild Airport.

As the Civil Aernautics Board pressed its inquiry, the exact total of dead still could not be determined.

All 128 persons on the jet and on the plane that collided with it, a Trans World Airlines Super Constellation, were killed.

Five other persons were known to have perished on the ground in Brooklyn, where the jet plane crashed, and at least two more were missing and probably dead.

Services will be held Tuesday in Chicago for Stephens Baltz, 11, who survived for 26 hours.

Stephen's body arrived from New York Sunday night on a United cargo flight.

Stephen's parents Mr. and Mrs. William Baltz and their daughter Randee, 8, came home from New York by train. Shephen had been aboard the United jet.

The total of 135 had fluctuated because police were unable to learn the whereabouts of all those believed to be tenants of the buildings smashed and burned by the jet.

While the inquiry moved ahead in New York, a flight recorder recovered from the jet in Brooklyn was on its way to its manufacturer in California.

There it will be given a detailed analysis under CAB supervision.

Insurance experts estimated that awards resulting from the crash might top $15 million.

Waterford Man Injured in Crash on South Blvd.

A Waterford Township man was injured when his car smashed into the rear of another auto on West South Boulevard Saturday evening.

Gordon Sutherland, 53, 1715 La Due St., was in satisfactory condition today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital where he was under observation for possible head injuries.

He told Pontiac police he was driving west on South Boulevard when his car hit the rear of one driven by George A. Carpenter, 48, 178 Crystal Lake Drive.

Carpenter told officers he had stopped to turn into a driveway.

The accident occurred east of Bloomfield Ave. at 6:45 p.m.

New Violence in New Orleans

Vandals Hurl Creosote at Walls of Methodist Minister's Church

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — A background of new violence faced New Orleans' sixth week of school desegregation today.

Light globes filled with tarlike creosote were hurled against the white stucco walls of the Rev. L. A. Foremen's St. Mark's Methodist Church on the edge of the French Quarter this weekend, leaving huge black stains.

The pastor's bishop, Aubrey G. Walton, visited the church Sunday to affirm his endorsement of Foreman's leaving his 5-year-old daughter in the William Frantz School despite segregationists' threats against the pastor's life.

"Those who strike the property of the church strike at Christ," said the bishop as he led the congregation in prayer for the souls of vandals who desecrated the church.

State Rep. Edward Lebreton asked the legislature in Baton Rouge not to withhold the back pay due employes of New Orleans' school system Friday when the Christmas holidays begin.

"It's going to be awful hard for these school teachers and janitors and carpenters to explain to their own children why there isn't a Santa Claus this year," he said. But he got no encouragement in the house.

Munich Mourns Over Air Crash

Usually Gay City Fears Toll of 49 May Rise in Downtown Calamity

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—Police today feared an increase in the death toll of the air disaster that plunged this gay Bavarian capital into mourning over the weekend.

A total of 49 persons were known to have been killed after a U. S. Air Force transport plunged into a downtown street Saturday, exploded in flames and turned a crowded street car into a blazing mass of twisted wreckage.

Forty-eight charred bodies were recovered from the wreckage and another victim died in a hospital. The condition of the bodies made identification difficult. Police appealed to all Munich families to report if any relatives had failed to return home.

It was learned Sunday that a U. S. Army private, previously not listed among the dead, was hitchhiking a ride to London aboard the plane and was killed in the crash. He was Pfc. Elvin I. Sherman, 20, of Linden, N. J.

All 20 Americans aboard the plane were killed. Twelve were students at the University of Maryland's Munich College here, children of U. S. Military personnel. They were bound for a holiday reunion with their parents in Britain.

The tragic task of identifying the German dead was left to a sad procession of friends and relatives which wound through police headquarters, viewing personal possessions taken from bodies on the street car.

President Eisenhower sent a message of condolence to Chancellor Konrad Adenauer. Adenauer replied with an expression of condolence to the families of the Amerian dead.

Munich's Lord Mayor Hans Jochen Vogel ordered the city into mourning until Christmas. Theaters were asked to cancel performances. No public dancing will be permitted.

Air Force experts began a thorough examination of the wreckage of the shattered twin-engine Convair in a search for the cause of the accident.

More dirt has been moved to bury pipelines, most of which carry oil or its products, than all that required to build all existing canals.

Injuries Fatal to Area Man

Howard W. Elliott, 34, of Birmingham Dies After Saturday Crash

A 34-year-old Birmingham man died yesterday of injuries received the day before in a two-car crash in Holly Township.

The victim, Howard W. Elliott of 2379 Pembroke St., suffered internal and head injuries. He succumbed at Hurley Hospital in Flint.

The driver of the other car, Harold Haywood, 39, of 11611 S. Dixie Highway, Holly, remained in critical condition today at the hospital with internal injuries.

Haywood's son Robert, 10, sustained a fractured leg and multiple cuts. He was in fair condition.

Another son, Harold Jr., 12, had minor cuts.

Flint state police said Haywood turned left from Evans Road, near Grand Blanc, onto U.S. 10 and was struck broadside by the Elliot car headed north on the highway.

Both cars burst into flames after the injured were extricated.

Assistant Prosecutor Anthony Renne has asked that the unidentified, possible witness who assisted troopers at the crash, contact him at the Oakland County Prosecutor's Office in Pontiac.

Bad Tree Ornaments Add to Fire Deaths

By United Press International

Defective Christmas tree trimmings and forgotten cigarettes headed causes today of a spate of weekend fire deaths across the nation.

A United Press International count showed at least 32 persons burned to death or fatally injured in fires since Saturday night. At least eight of the victims were children.

Florida and Texas each recorded six fire deaths. Four persons died in Kentucky, three in Missouri, two each in Illinois, Nebraska, Minnesota, Maine and Georgia, and one each in California, New Hampshire and Oklahoma.

Next Treasurer Starts Practicing Her Signature

KENTFIELD, Calif. (AP)—The next treasurer to sign those crisp new bills of U. S. currency will be an attractive brunette whose friends all call her "Libby."

Elizabeth Rudel Smith, 49, and grandmother of two, will take office in January with the incoming administration of President-elect John F. Kennedy.

Informed of her appointment by Kennedy Mrs. Smith said she started practicing her signature. The official version probably will be "small, simple and scratchy," she declared.

Active in politics only since 1948 and a Democratic national committeewoman since 1956, she has been a newspaperwoman; has been co-owner of a dress shop and has helped her three brothers run a machinery company in Montreal.

Saves Her Grandchild as Two Persons Burn

DEARBORN (AP) — A Dearborn woman carried her grandchild from their burning home shortly after midnight Sunday. Her husband and brother-in-law burned to death.

Killed were John W. Bastuba, 56, of Dearborn, and Rinold Hopke, 59, of Bay City.

Firemen said Bastuba, a researcher at the General Motors Technical Center in Warren, may have fallen asleep with a lighted cigarette while watching television.

Mrs. Bastuba, 52, apparently was asleep upstairs when the fire started. Her grandson John Brown, 2, was sleeping in a crib in her bedroom.

When firemen arrived, Mrs. Bastuba was sitting in her car with the child, both of them clad in nightclothes. She was crying hysterically.

Mrs. Bastuba suffered minor burns and shock and was reported in fair condition at a Dearborn hospital. The child suffered minor burns and was in satisfactory condition.

Traffic Deaths Held to Seven

Skiddy Highway Spots Cause Trouble; 2 Cars Collide With Trains

By United Press International

Michigan motorists, apparently driving with more than normal care because of reports of slippery spots on the highways, held the state's traffic death toll to seven during the weekend.

It was a comparatively light toll and state police and other traffic enforcement officials were hoping motorists would use at least as much caution during the Christmas holiday next weekend.

Two of the accidents which claimed lives during the weekend were car-train crashes, two involved sideswiped cars, two involved cars that hit trees and one was a car-pedestrian accident.

William J. Rayert, 42, Flint, and Mrs. Emil Badovinac, 41, rural Marion, were killed in separate car-train accidents. Rayert was killed Saturday morning at the Michigan 61 grade crossing in Marion.

Howard W. Elliott, 34, Birmingham, and Ray H. Buttars, 46, Ionia, died of injuries suffered in accidents in which their cars were sideswiped.

Elliott died Sunday as a result of a Saturday accident in Holly Township, Oakland County.

Buttars was killed Sunday night when his car skidded into a tree after it sideswiped another car in an attempt to pass on Michigan 66, three miles north of Six Lakes in Montcalm County.

Oscar Rude, 57, Grand Rapids, and Robert N. McDonogh, 27, Inkster, were killed in accidents in which their cars struck trees. Rude was killed in Paris Township, Kent County, Sunday and McDonogh was killed Sunday night in Livonia.

Airliner Crash-Lands

NOME, Alaska (AP)—A Wien Alaska Airlines passenger plane with 10 persons aboard developed mechanical trouble after takeoff at Northeast Cape on St. Lawrence Island Sunday and crash-landed on tundra near the airport.

The airlines said those aboard were shaken up in the landing but their injuries were not believed to be serious. An Air Force C47 was diverted to Northeast Cape to bring the passengers and crew members here.

2 Unarmed Bandits Take $24 From Man

A Pontiac man reported being robbed by two unarmed bandits last night behind 161 Wessen St.

Ulis Karkendall, 54, 275 Raeburn St., told Pontiac police two unarmed bandits grabbed him, took $24 and fled on foot.

Karkendall said the robbery occurred at 7:45 p.m.

Cane Growers Ignore Castro

Vote to Boycott Sugar Congress; Believe He'll Grab Land Eventually

HAVANA (UPI) — Cuban sugar cane growers defied Premier Fidel Castrol by voting to boycott his "sugar congress" today despite an impassioned warning by his elder brother Ramon of the possible consequences.

Nearly 1,000 delegates, representing the 65,000-member-strong Cuban Cane Planters Association, attended an urgent meeting Sunday night to decide whether to participate in the congress called by the premier to "determine all aspects of the coming harvest." The vote against was unanimous.

The meeting coincided with reports that more canefields in Eastern Camaguey Province have been put to the torch by saboteurs. Fires were reported in the Jaronu, Vertientes, Estrella and Jatibonico sugar districts.

The government already has ordered sugar mills to begin operations in an attempt to salvage whatever possible from burnt cane. At Jaronu it cost $13,000 to grind up burnt cane which yielded only $8,000 worth of raw sugar.

Most of the association members are small sugar cane growers with plantations of not more than 330 acres.

The association represents the only substantial economic group not yet taken over by the Castro regime.

Many of the growers, however, privately expressed the opinion that the Castro government eventually would take over their plantations and set up "communes."

'60 Farm Exports May Hit $4.6 Billion

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Agriculture Department said today the value of farm products shipped abroad during 1960 may reach $4.6 billion.

This estimate was based on official data for nine months. It would be a rise of 18 per cent from the $3.9 billion total in 1959, and would exceed the previous calendar year record of $4.5 billion in 1957.

Greatest advances in both volume and value were made by cotton, wheat and soybeans.

Ethiopia Rebel Chief Shot, Corpse Hanged

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia (AP) — The corpse of Ethiopia's former security chief, a leader of the revolt last week against Emperor Haile Selassie, was publicly hanged in Menelik Square today.

He was a lieutenant colonel named Workineh.

Ethiopians flocked to the square, the capital's biggest, to view this macabre symbol of the crushing of the rebellion.

Workineh had been shot Sunday night.

The emperor's loyal troops hunted through the city and surrounding hills for rebel imperial guards who fled after failure of the attempt to dethrone the 68-year-old monarch.

An official funeral was held for ministers and other officials massacred by the rebels. Commoners also buried their dead.

Elect President of U.S. Today—Jack a Shoo-In

Nov. 8 Vote Selected Only the 537 Electors Who Do the Picking

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The next president of the United States will really be elected today.

Barring some unexpected surprise, John F. Kennedy's slim popular vote victory over Vice President Richard M. Nixon in the Nov. 8 balloting will be confirmed when the 537 presidential electors meet in state capitals all over the nation to do the actual electing.

Under the frequently criticized electoral college system, written into the Constitution, the voters last month merely selected these electors. Each state is allotted a number of electors equal to the total of its senators and House members.

Until Illinois certified its 27 electors for Kennedy last week, some Republicans suggested a long-shot possibility that Nixon still might win the White House.

Kennedy's official total remained in doubt right up to today's electoral college balloting because of possible defections by individual Southern electors unhappy about his proposals.

The indicated division before the electors met was 300 votes for Kennedy and 223 for Nixon. A total of 269 was needed for election. All of Mississippi's eight electors and six from Alabama, who ran unpledged to any candidate in the Nov. 8 balloting, announced they would vote for Sen. Harry F. Byrd, a conservative Democrat from Virginia.

These unpledged Southern electors injected the element of uncertainty into the electoral college count. They unsuccessfully urged a massive vote by Dixie electors for some third candidate as a way to deny either Kennedy or Nixon a majority.

This would have thrown the election into the House of Representatives where the Southerners hoped to trade their support for a promise of no new civil rights action. Each state would have had one vote in the house with 26 needed for election.

HAWAII IN DOUBT

Hawaii's final vote still was being checked, with a recount scheduled to be completed today.

Because of this, both Republican and Democratic electors from the 50th state planned to cast ballots.

The filing of duplicate electoral votes is permitted and governed by a complicated set of rules. Three states submitted duplicate ballots in the contested Tilden-Hayes presidential race, but Hawaii's vote was not going to make the difference in this election, as those states' did in 1876.

The procedure probably will be for Congress to agree amicably to accept the salte of Hawaiian electors if the winners are decided by the courts before Congress finally accepts and records the verdict next month.

Tonight's low is expected to drop to 17. Tuesday's high is expected to reach 30, with continued cold weather and light snow.

Waterford Mother Dies

Deaths Still a Mystery

Fails to Regain Consciousness; Await Tests

Health Dept. Working on Denham Case to Determine Cause

Waterford Township police remained baffled today by the mystery deaths of a young mother and her 3-year-old son.

The mother, Mrs. Robert Denham, 24, of 109 Exmoor Road, died yesterday at Pontiac General Hospital of undetermined causes.

Her son Raymond was found dead in his crib Friday afternoon, near the unconscious body of his mother. The cause of his death was still unknown today.

There were no marks of violence on either body, police said. The boy was believed to have been dead at least four hours before his body was discovered.

Police were hoping that Mrs. Denham would be able to clear up the mystery of her son's death. But she never regained consciousness.

Autopsies performed on both bodies by Dr. Richard Olsen, were inconclusive, police said.

Traces of influenza and pills in the boy's stomach led doctors to believe these might have caused his death.

"If so, it's possible the shock was just too much for the mother," said Waterford Police Chief Pender. Sh ewas under a doctor's care for a nervous disorder since the birth of her daughter, Lori Ann, 3½ weeks ago.

SWALLOWED PILLS

The father told police his son had swallowed an unknown number of vitamin pills he took from a kitchen cupboard earlier in the day, but had shown no immediate ill effects.

Samples from both bodies were being examined by State Health Department toxicologists at Lansing in an effort to determine the cause of death in each case.

Pender said, "We are still at a loss as to what caused the deaths." He is hoping the toxicologists will be able to solve the mystery.

Discovery by detectives of pieces of a shredded note in a wastepaper basket at the Denham home was revealed today by Pender. He said the words "telephone . . . jerked . . . wall" had been deciphered.

"We usually spend the Christmas season on the beach —swimming or tanning ourselves," said the 21-year-old North Central Christian College student.

This would seem a strange statement coming from most students at NCCC, but not from Monika Steinger, a sophomore whose home is in Port Elizabeth, South Africa.

Munich Mourns Over Air Crash

Usually Gay City Fears Toll of 49 May Rise in Downtown Calamity

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—Police today feared an increase in the death toll of the air disaster that plunged this gay Bavarian capital into mourning over the weekend.

A total of 49 persons were known to have been killed after a U. S. Air Force transport plunged into a downtown street Saturday, exploded in flames and turned a crowded street car into a blazing mass of twisted wreckage.

Forty-eight charred bodies were recovered from the wreckage and another victim died in a hospital. The condition of the bodies made identification difficult. Police appealed to all Munich families to report if any relatives had failed to return home.

It was learned Sunday that a U. S. Army private, previously not listed among the dead, was hitchhiking a ride to London aboard the plane and was killed in the crash. He was Pfc. Elvin I. Sherman, 20, of Linden, N. J.

All 20 Americans aboard the plane were killed. Twelve were students at the University of Maryland's Union College here, children of U. S. Military personnel. They were bound for a holiday reunion with their parents in Britain.

The tragic task of identifying the German dead was left to a sad procession of friends and relatives which wound through police headquarters, viewing personal possessions taken from bodies on the street car.

President Eisenhower sent a message of condolence to Chancellor Konrad Adenauer. Adenauer replied with an expression of condolence to the families of the American dead.

"Blessed Art Thou, Mary" . . . First Chapter

Prays as She Awaits Her Wedding Day

(Editor's Note: The great human love story of the Gospels is that of Joseph and Mary, the Virgin chosen to bear the Son of God. But the New Testament account of their story is skimpy. Here, drawing on nonsacrilegical accounts that circulated widely in the early church, an award-winning Associated Press religion writer recreates their story in all its warmth and glory. This is the first of five articles.)

By GEORGE CORNELL

Adoration welled in the heart of the girl's aging mother Anna, as she combed and smoothed her daughter's long, dark tresses. It was a deep-felt morning. For on thid day, Mary would be espoused.

How beautiful she is, and pure of soul. Ah, beloved daughter, thou art the treasure of this house. There is no spot on thee. Thy innocence is a garden enclosed, and thou seem overyoung for witehood.

Yet Mary was 15, the proper age for taking a husband. She sat now on a stool, in dewey-eyed reverie, as Anna arrayed her for the ceremony. He braids had been loosened and flowed over the nape of her neck to her waist.

Lithe, lovely child, thy parents exult in thee, and shall miss the song of thy rising and lying down.

Anna laid the comb aside and began to weave a fillet of yellow marguerites for Mary's hair. The guests would soon be arriving, and all must be made ready.

It was a joyous, yet also heavy time. Mary was not just another daughter of Israel. She had been the sunrise of life to her elderly parents, Anna and Joachim. For 20 years of marriage they had been childless until her coming. Anna remembered how unceasingly she had prayed in those years.

"O God of my fathers," she had implored again and again, "bless me, as thou didst bless the womb of Sarah in her old age, and gavest her a son, Isaac."

Once, kneeling under a laurel tree, she noticed the young sparrows nesting above, and the grief burst from her in a wail.

"Woe unto me. I am not comparable to the very fowls of the heavens; to the very beasts of the earth, for even the beasts are fruitful before thee, O Lord."

Their lack of issue had sorely afflicted Joachim, an otherwise large-spirited and prosperous man. He owned vast numbers of sheep, the greatest herd in the Jezreel valley, and a splendid house in Nazareth.

Yet his affluence could not ease the gall of childlessness.

It was a scandal for a Jew to fail to beget children, a sign of sin and God's disfavor and, in time, the priests had come to scorn his generous festival offerings.

"It is not lawful for thee to offer thy gifts," they said, "seeing thou hast not begat any seed in Israel."

Joachim had betaken himself to the desert for long periods of fasting and prayer. And then, at last, it had come to pass. Anna sensed it, like a whisper in her soul, a stirring warmth in her flesh.

She rushed from the house in the twilight and saw Joachim coming from the fields with his shepherds and flocks. Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear, break forth into singing. At the gate of the fold, she met him, and threw her arms about his neck.

"Now I know that the Lord God hath greatly blessed us," she exclaimed, "Behold, now, she that was barren hath conceived!"

The tears of the aging couple, their faces pressed close, flowed together.

"As the Lord my God liveth," Anna had vowed, "whatever I bring forth, whether it be male or female, I will devote it to the Lord my God."

Jubilant and singing praises, Joachim had made a special pilgrimage to Jerusalem to offer 100 goats, 10 lambs without spot or blemish and 12 tender calves to the Lord in thanksgiving.

Anna still remembered the first words she uttered after her nine months were fulfilled and she de-

Once, kneeling under a laurel tree, she noticed the young sparrows nesting above, and the grief burst from her in a wail.

"Woe unto me. I am not comparable to the very fowls of the heavens; to the very beasts of the earth, for even the beasts are fruitful before thee, O Lord."

Their lack of issue had sorely afflicted Joachim, an otherwise large-spirited and prosperous man. He owned vast numbers of sheep, the greatest herd in the Jezreel valley, and a splendid house in Nazareth.

Yet his affluence could not ease the gall of childlessness.

It was a scandal for a Jew to fail to beget children, a sign of sin and God's disfavor and, in time, the priests had come to scorn his generous festival offerings.

"It is not lawful for thee to offer thy gifts," they said, "seeing thou hast not begat any seed in Israel."

Joachim had betaken himself to the desert for long periods of fasting and prayer. And then, at last, it had come to pass. Anna sensed it, like a whisper in her soul, a stirring warmth in her flesh.

She rushed from the house in the twilight and saw Joachim coming from the fields with his shepherds and flocks. Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear, break forth into singing. At the gate of the fold, she met him, and threw her arms about his neck.

"Now I know that the Lord God hath greatly blessed us," she exclaimed. "Behold, she that was barren hath conceived!"

The tears of the aging couple their faces pressed close, flowed together.

"As the Lord my God liveth," Anna had vowed, "whatever I bring forth, whether it be male or female, I will devote it to the Lord my God."

Jubilant and singing praises, Joachim had made a special pilgrimage to Jerusalem to offer 100 goats, 10 lambs without spot or blemish and 12 tender calves to the Lord in thanksgiving.

Anna still remembered the first words she uttered after her nine months were fulfilled and she delivered on the 15th day of the month Hathor.

She Awaits Her Wedding

"What have I brought forth?"

"A female, the midwife answered.

How swiftly the years had flown since then, and now the girl-child was to be married. Anna's fingers trembled as she placed the ringlet of flowers on the crown of Mary's dark, shining head, and then straightened the folds of her woven white gown.

SHE FELT OLD

It was a difficult time for a mother. She stepped back to survey the girl's appearance, striving to keep the unreasoned sense of loss from her eyes.

Looking at her with an ever-sheltering love, Anna's throat filled and she felt worn and old and no more of use. The hours that bound them had passed. Come now, my daughter, and take thy bridal seat.

Anna reached out and caught her hand, pressing it, and led her slowly into the forechamber where the maid-servant, Judith, was busily decking the walls with leafy boughs and blossoms.

It was the custom to receive guests throughout the day before the signing of the betrothal agreement, and Mary would be there for all to see, her hair flowing to its full length as a sign of her maidenhood.

How strangely life unfolded. Just as the end of Mary's childhood was being marked with festivities, so was its beginning. That other, earlier celebration had scarcely faded in Anna's memory.

Mary had been a healthy, happy youngster, taking her first toddling steps at the age of nine months. When she was a year old, Joachim had made a great feast, inviting the whole village of Nazareth and even priests from Jerusalem.

In the midst of the jollity and lifting of wine cups, he had stood up, signaled for silence, and then prayed:

"O God of our fathers, bless this child, and give her a name renowned for ever among all generations."

"Amen and amen," the assemblage had cried, "So be it."

In keeping with their vow, when Mary was three years old, they had taken her to the Temple to dedicate her to the Lord's service.

They had arranged for her to study there, with other young virgins of well-to-do families, in the care of Anna's kinsman, the aged priest, Zecharieh, of the division of Abijah, and his wife, Elizabeth. It was they, after the death of Joachim, who had helped Anna guide the child's upbringing.

Mary had grown radiant in spirit, rejoicing in worship, hymns and the sacred statutes, an exquisitely bright-cheeked and devout girl, with glad heart and a voice sweeter than the harps and flutes of the Levites on the Temple stairs.

Surely, Israel had never brought forth so goodly and elegant a bride. Anna moved distractedly about the room, her head swimming with recollections, hopes and fleeting anxieties, as she directed the final preparations.

Two other servants had joined Judith in decorating the house, bringing out extra ottomans and setting out trays of pickled olives, cheeses, fig cakes and other pastries for the throng of neighbors and relatives who would come in a day-long succession.

Anna's lips moved silently, as she bent to adjust a rug.

O Lord, grant that this man that thou hast chosen for her shall deal gently with her. Let him never raise his hand against her, nor speak to her harshly. She is born and nourished in thy loving kindness, O Lord, Give to to this woodcutter, Joseph, a worthy heart and good intent.

brought the girl to the place of cover over the couch where Mary would sit with her groom, and brought the girl to tht place of honor. There were three knocks at the door, signifying a visitor. Anna walked across the carpeted floor, dabbing at her eyes.

(Tomorrow: Joseph, the Woodworking Groom).

WHERE'S THAT BUS? — An unidentified woman stood ankle-deep in snow Sunday awaiting her bus during a storm that dumped five inches in Buffalo and up to a foot in some of its suburbs. The blustery snows snarled street and highway traffic in the area, but began to taper off in the afternoon. Most of the section's snowbelts were out of the path of the wintry blast, however.

Israel Corrects A-Bomb Report

But Admits Research With France for Peace Purposes Only

LONDON (AP) — The Israeli embassies in London and Paris confirmed today that France and Israel are engaged in joint atomic research but said it "is concerned only with the use of atomic power for peaceful purposes."

Both Israel's ambassador to Britain, Arthur Lourie, and the Israeli Embassy in Washington denied reports published in Washington and London that Israel is trying to build an atomic bomb. The reports said the French were helping secretly.

Information was said to have reached U.S. intelligence agencies that Israel would be capable of exploding its first nuclear device within a year. The Washington Post said Israel had developed a nuclear reactor secretly and might produce a nuclear weapon in about five years.

A New York Times dispatch from Washington said recent intelligence information in the U.S. capital was that Israel was secretly building a "fairly large atomic reactor near Beersheba."

Weather Cold but Warmer Days Coming

By The Associated Press

Temperatures dropped sharply across the snow-covered sections of the East and northern Midwest today but some warmer weather appeared headed into the nation's midsection.

It was near zero in some mountain areas in New England and Pennsylvania as the cold air dropped temperatures 20 degrees lower than Sunday morning from northern Virginia through New England.

* * *

Below zero marks were reported from the eastern Dakotas to Minnesota and northern Wisconsin.

Surprise End to Street

Woman Drives Into River

A Pontiac woman, unaware that the street she was driving on ended at the Clinton River, drove her car into its muddy waters early today.

Patricia Johnson, 21, 494 N. Johnson Ave., told Pontiac police she was driving east on Edna Street on Pontiac's westside at 5:45 a.m. Before she could stop, she told Patrolman Jack Beach, her car plunged off a four-foot slope into the river.

Police were notified of Miss Johnson's plight by a neighborhood woman, Nina Laferty, 27 Edna St. They found the unhappy driver atop the trunk of her car 25 feet from shore.

Using a rowboat to rescue her, officers brought the wet, shivering woman to shore.

She told officers when she realized the street ended at the river she was unable to stop because of icy pavement.

* * *

She was taken to Pontiac General Hospital where she was treated for shock and exposure.

The car — a 1960 model — belonged to a friend, she told officers.

the tears and whipped out the pistol.

The escape tarnished the reputation of the jail, which had not even had a serious escape attempt since it was built in 1950.

The Federal Bureau of Prisons recently said Michigan had six of the best nine jails in the country and that the one at Howell topped the six.

Police said Mrs. Sargent acted as lookout during the burglary and was charged in the case, but the charge was dismissed.

To Continue Talks on Waterford Police

The Waterford Township Board will continue discussion tonight on alternate plans for job security for police department employes.

The question of whether civil service should be established or a police administrative board set up has been aired at recent board meetings.

Police Chief Millard Pender is expected to make a recommendation tonight.

The board is also scheduled to talk about replacement of three police cars.

We Can't Be Home for Christmas Day

sulem. As a boy, he remembers walking five miles to attend Christmas services in Bethlehem.

"Christians of all denominations from all over the world would come to the services at midnight Christmas Eve at the Catholic Church in Bethlehem," he recalled.

Christmas was just another day for residents of Mogoilov, Russia, the boyhood home of Yvan Kolesnikov, 25, and his brother, Victor, 22.

Although the Kolesnikovs have lived in Canada for the past eight years, Yvan remembers only a few people celebrating during the Yule season in his homeland.

"You cannot wipe out religion entirely in a country," Yvan said. "But the official celebration of Christmas is abolished in Russia."

The opposite was true for a German coed, 20-year-old Elke Nordhausen, who recalls the gaiety and religious atmosphere of Christmases in her hometown of Berlin.

Elke, who escaped from East Germany with his mother 10 years ago, says that the season in Berlin actually begins a month before Christmas.

One of the ceremonies she told of was the lighting of one candle on each of the four Sundays preceding Christmas, which she says represented the light brought into the world with the birth of the Christ Child.

She said Saint Nicholas Day is celebrated on Dec. 6 when the German version of Santa Claus leaves nuts, cookies and sweets to children who have been good that year.

"If they have been bad," she said, "he leaves them potatoes in their shoes instead."

Elke said she gets "very homesick" this time of year when she knows she can't be home for Christmas.

but the handwriting had not yet been matched.

A telephone ripped from the wall of the Denham home was the only sign indicative of any violence at the scene, according to police.

The boy's death was discovered by his grandmother, Mrs. Nell Adler of 1910 Hillside Drive. She summoned a neighbor, Beecher E. Bevington, 37, of 121 Exmoor, who attempted vainly to revive Mrs. Denham with mouth-to-mouth respiration.

The boy's father was at work in Pontiac, where he is a store clerk, at the time. The couple's baby daughter was quietly nursing a bottle in her bassinet in the living room.

Mrs. Adler became suspicious when she couldn't reach her daughter by telephone, and drove to the Denham home. She reached through the milkchute to unlock the door and gain entry.

ARTHUR E. SUMMERFIELD

Summerfield to Discuss Postal Career

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield will discuss his eight years in the Eisenhower administration Wednesday in Pontiac.

The only Cabinet member still serving of the original 1953 appointees, Summerfield is scheduled to address several hundred persons at a joint luncheon meeting of Pontiac service clubs at Elks Temple at 12 noon.

Some tickets are still available to the general public. They are on sale at Osmun's Men's Wear store, 51 N. Saginaw St., the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce, Community National Bank and the Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan office.

Summerfield's talk is being sponsored by the Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce. The postmaster general will be introduced by Harold A. Fitzgerald, publisher of The Pontiac Press.

Only two other postmaster generals have served as many years in the post as Summerfield. Albert S. Burleson served eight years under Wilson and James A. Farley served the first eight years of FDR's administration.

Summerfield is a former Flint automobile dealer.

Leo F. Kampsen Tries for Job of Waterford Clerk

Leo F. Kampsen, an auto salesman in Pontiac, has announced he was circulating nominating petitions for the office of Waterford Township clerk on the Republican ticket.

Kampsen, 38, of 4097 Baybrook Drive, Drayton Plains, is making his first try for public office, he said, trying to earn a spot on the Feb. 20 primary ballot in the township.

He has been a resident of the county for 34 years, attended Pontiac schools and is a veteran of World War II.

He was employed with Nye Dairy before joining Matthews-Hargreaves, Inc., three years ago. Kampsen is married and the father of four children.

Hills Votes Again Today on Sewer-Plan Bonds

BIRMINGHAM — Bloomfield Hills voters go to the polls today for the second time in less than three months to decide a $1.5-million bond issue to finance construction of an internal sewer system.

Property owners authorized the sale of the general bonds in a special election Oct. 3 but the vote was nullified after it was discovered an election notice failed to appear in a weekly newspaper.

In the first election the proposition carried by a 4-vote margin over the needed 60 per cent majority.

City officials explain that if the bond issue is turned down the internal sewer system will eventually be constructed as a result of a Circuit Court directive to stop pollution of the Rouge River.

If this is done the improvement would probably be financed through special assessments, costing taxpayers a higher rate than proposed with the general bonds, city officials claim.

Approval of today's bond issue would increase property taxes the first year an estimated $7.31 for each $1,000 of assessed valuation.

Taxes on each $1,000, however, could be reduced nearly a dollar if the city decides to sell the bonds in two stages. With this plan the city would only sell $1.33 million of the bonds for immediate construction of sewers in developed areas.

The remaining $170,000 in bonds would be sold at a later date when undeveloped areas begin to grow.

Both the city and a citizens' group have mailed letters to property owners urging them to approve the bond issue for the second time.

Christmas and New Year schedules at Baldwin Public Library were announced today.

The library will close Friday at 6 p.m., will remain closed through Monday, and reopen Dec. 27 at 9:30 a.m. Regular hours will be observed the remainder of that week.

In observance of the New Year's holiday the building will be closed Jan. 2 and service will resume Jan. 3 at 9:30 a.m.

HOWARD W. ELLIOTT

Service and burial for Howard W. Elliott, 34, of 2373 Pembroke St. will be held Wednesday in Muncie, Ind. His body will be at the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. until 10 p.m. tomorrow.

Mr. Elliott died yesterday in Hurley Hospital, Flint, from injuries sustained in an automobile accident Saturday in Holly Township.

He was a sales representative for the Michigan Tool Co. of Detroit.

Elliott was a member of the Daleville, Ind., Lodge 730, F&AM, and the First Methodist Church of Birmingham.

* * *

Surviving are his wife Mary M.; a daughter, Marcy K; a son, Michael; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Elliott of Yorktown, Ind.; a sister and grandmother.

JOHN G. KIRNICH

Service for John K. Kirnich, 69, of 3335 W. Maple Road, will be 2 p.m. tomorrow at St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church, Detroit. Burial will be in Roseland Park Cemetery, Berkley.

* * *

Mr. Kirnich died Saturday in William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak.

He was the owner of a Birmingham restaurant.

Surviving are his wife, Pauline Y.; a daughter, Mrs. Edward A. Mistapoulus; a son, George G.; both of Birmingham; two grandchildren, a brother and a sister.

His body will be at the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. until 1 p.m. tomorrow.

Only 32 Italians Now

Pope John to Raise Cardinals to 100?

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

Pope John's announcement of the appointment of four new cardinals raises the complement of the Roman Catholic Church's "senate" to 86, and church sources say he intends to raise the number to 100 or more.

Of the four new cardinals, only one was Italian. There are now 32 Italians in the college of cardinals where their numerical strength has been diminishing steadily for the last 10 years.

The question now is: Will the next Pope be a non-Italian? The last non-Italian Pope was Pope Adrian VI of Utrecht, Holland, who reigned from 1522 until 1523.

Khrushchev strategy:

NATO sources meeting in Paris believe the first international test of President-Elect John F. Kennedy's administration may come over the Berlin issue, with Nikita Khrushchev attempting either to force a new East-West summit meeting before the Kennedy regime is properly on its feet or carrying out his threat to sign a separate treaty with Communist East Germany.

The Russians might also use Berlin to divert attention from Laos where they may be on the point of deciding the future of Southeast Asia.

More Algerian troubles:

Look for more trouble from the Moslems in Algeria before the year is out.

Word is that the response of the city-based Arabs who stitched together rebel flags and demonstrated for hours under the guns of the French army, surprised even the National Liberation Front (NLF) command in Tunis, which now will try to exploit it.

In Paris, there is talk that President de Gaulle may have in mind some starting gesture to win back support of the mass of Moslems after the recent rioting.

One such gesture might be to declare a one-sided truce in Algeria, regardless of rebel action.

De Gaulle is reported still convinced he will win by a big majority the referendum he has called for Jan. 8 for French voters to record their approval of his plan for a semi-independent Algeria.

Communist troubles:

The Communists are worried by growing demands among East German workers for a five-day week. Brief strikes have been held at some Soviet zone factories to test the long work week.

Names Postmaster General

Kennedy Picks Civic Servant

By United Press International

J. Edward Day, the choice of President-Elect John F. Kennedy, as postmaster general, played a prominent role in the Illinois administration of former Gov. Adlai Stevenson.

Stevenson, Kennedy's ambassador to the United Nations, appointed Day as his aide for legal and legislative matters when he assumed the governorship in 1949. A year later, Day was named Illinois insurance commissioner, a post he held until 1955.

Day's public life has been characterized by civic activities rather than party-line politics. He once headed a bipartisan committee for constitutional amendment in Illinois, and led the 1959 YMCA drive at Los Angeles where he now lives.

Day, 46, was born in Jacksonville, Ill., and grew up in Springfield, Ill. He now is vice president in charge of western operations for the Prudential Life Insurance Co.

As a Californian, he is serving on Gov. Pat Brown's business advisory council and is vice chairman of the 15-member state commission on metropolitan area problems.

Day graduated from the University of Chicago in 1935 and received a law degree with honors at Harvard three years later. He edited the Harvard Law Review while a student and was admitted to the Illinois bar upon receiving his degree.

Until his appointment by Stevenson, he practiced law in Chicago except for 45 months' Navy duty during World War II. He commanded a submarine chaser in the South Pacific.

While serving as insurance commissioner, he was elected chairman of the Midwest zone of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners and vice chairman of the group's life insurance committee.

* * *

He joined Prudential in 1953 and was assigned to the home office at Newark, N.J. As associate general counsel for the firm, he developed a legal and legislative program which caused a battle over valuable annuities in the New Jersey legislature. He was transferred to Los Angeles in 1957.

Day, a Presbyterian, is married and the father of three children.

COMPLETE LIST — President-Elect John F. Kennedy completes his biggest preinaugural chore Saturday by naming J. Edward Day postmaster general. The Cabinet appointments now have all been made. Here Kennedy and Day face newsmen with the announcement at the president-elect's West Palm Beach, Fla., home. Day served under Adlai Stevenson in Illinois.

Salinger Denies Jack Plans Trip to Europe

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — President-Elect John F. Kennedy's news secretary today denied published reports that Kennedy plans to make a European trip early next year.

The aide, Pierre Salinger, was asked about a report published in the Washington Post-Times Herald under a Bonn, Germany, dateline that said the West German government has been informed Kennedy is considering a fast trip to Europe shortly after his inauguration.

Offer Made to New Orleans

$500,000 for Integration?

NEW YORK (UPI)—A St. Louis heiress, will hold a news conference today to explain why she offered $500,000 to the New Orleans School Board to help keep its newly integrated public schools open.

Ellen Steinberg, daughter of a multimillionaire broker, made the offer Saturday because "people should back their beliefs with direct action."

School officials are reported to be considering the bequest. Board President Louis G. Reicke Jr., wired Miss Steinberg that "the gesture practically has taken my breath away."

The Louisiana legislature has stripped the school board of operating funds and the power to borrow money in an effort to halt integration.

The schools must have $3 million by Friday to meet salaries and bills if they are to open after the holidays.

The heiress said she was "deeply distressed over the poor image of our country being created abroad" by the school crisis.

"I hope that by making this offer I will encourage others who have been silent to fight to keep the schools open," she said.

Miss Steinberg's attorney, Joseph H. Wishod, said the money will be placed in a New York bank to be drawn on by the schools if they accept the offer.

The grant will be regarded as a loan to be paid back when the crisis is over, he said, but emphasized that the heiress was prepared to lose her money if repayment is impossible.

The philanthropist, daughter of Mark C. Steinberg who died in 1951, said she was prepared to offer similar aid to other school systems which might close because of integration.

Compact Cars Costing New York $3 Million

ALBANY, N.Y. (UPI) — The increasing popularity of compact cars among New York motorists is decreasing the state revenue by $3 million a year, the state tax commission estimates.

* * *

The state tax comission said the losses came from smaller returns from motor fuel taxes and a drop in revenue from registration fees.

Deaths in Pontiac and Nearby Areas

JANET A. CASTELL

Service for Janet A. Castell, 97, of 14 Mark St., will be held at 3 p.m. Tuesday at All Saints Episcopal Church with burial in Oak Hill Cemetery. Her body is at the Pursley Funeral Home. She died at her home Friday after a long illness.

Born in Pontiac on July 23, 1863, she was the daughter of Robert and Mary Dawson Castell. Oakland County pioneers who lived on a farm at Elizabeth Lake for many years.

Miss Castell had made her home in Chicago and spent her summers on Cape Cod at Woods Hole, Mass. until returning to Pontiac 11 years ago.

A member of the Church of the Redeemer in Chicago, she was the last living member of her immediate family.

A former teacher in Waterford and West Bloomfield Township schools, she was the sister of the late Mrs. E. C. Chapman and Doctors D. G. and F. C. Castell of Pontiac.

Miss Castell made her home with two nieces, Mary Chapman and Mrs. Janette Bathum. A nephew, Robert Castell, and two other nieces, Mrs. Joan Reish of Midland and Mrs. Jeanette Tyrrell of Milwaukee, also survive.

RAMOND E. DENHAM

Service for Mrs. Robert E. (Beverly Jean) Denham 24, and her 3-year-old son, Ramond E. Denham of 109 Exmoor St., Waterford Township, will be held at 11 a.m. Tuesday at the Donelson-Johns Funeral Home. Burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

A member of the Christian Alliance Church, Mrs. Denham died yesterday at Pontiac General Hospital. Her son was dead on arrival Friday at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. The cause of their deaths has not been determined.

Surviving are Ramond's father, Robert and one sister, Lori Ann.

LONZO FULLER

Service for Lonzo L. Fuller, 67, of 2560 Voorehis Road, will be held at 3 p.m. Wednesday at Sparks-Griffin Chapel. Burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Mr. Fuller died Saturday at the Veterans Hospital in Battle Creek.

A retired Pontiac postal employe, he was a member of the First Methodist Church and the Metropolitan Club.

Surviving are his wife, Helen; a son, Robert in California, and three grandchildren.

THE REV. ROBERT HATCHETT

Service for the Rev. Robert Hatchett, 95, of 33 Earlmoor St., will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday at the First Baptist Church in Kansas City, Kan. Burial will follow in Wyandott Cemetery. His body may be viewed at 7 p.m. this evening at the Frank Carruthers Funeral Home.

The Rev. Hatchett died Saturday after an illness of five years.

A retired minister of the First Baptist Church in Kansas City, he is survived by six sons, Fred and Joel Hatchett of Pontiac; Oliver of Auvergne, Ark.; Chester of Marianna, Ark.; Arnett of Little Rock, Ark.; and Robert, Jr. of San Monita, Calif; and one daughter, Mrs. Rosie Lee of Pontiac. Two brothers also survive.

A prayer service will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the Trinity Baptist Church before the body will be taken to Kansas City.

WILLIAM H. LYONS

Service will be Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. from the Huntoon Funeral Home for William H. Lyons, 61, of 52 Center St., who died Saturday at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital after a long illness. Burial will be in Perry Mount Park Cemetery. He had been employed by the General Motors Truck and Coach Division.

Survivors include a son, Charles W. of Pontiac, three grandchildren, a sister, Mrs. Edith Lomanson of North Branch, and a brother Earl Smiley of Pontiac.

Great Baseball Lefty Art Nehf Dies at 68

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI) — Art Nehf, one of baseball's great lefthanders during sports' Golden Era of the '20s, died Sunday night at his home here. He was 68.

The former pitcher, who gained his greatest fame with the New York Giants, suffered from cancer.

Nehf's career was among the bright ones of the Golden Era.

He broke into the majors in 1915 with the Boston Braves, then moved to the Giants for their pennant years of 1921-24, and also pitched for the Cincinnati Reds and Chicago Cubs.

The first commercial sugar cane production in the New World was in San Domingo where Negro slaves were imported to cultivate the fields.

Blue Star Will Send Gifts to Vets

Members of the Blue Star Mothers, Chapter 4, were guests of Mrs. Frank Schmidt at a Christmas luncheon Thursday in her home on Fairmount Avenue. Gifts were exchanged.

Plans were completed at the Tuesday evening meeting at Pontiac Young Men's Christian Association Building to send gifts to the veterans at the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium and veterans at Pontiac State Hospital.

Baskets are being prepared for distribution to needy families of veterans at Christmas.

Stop Water Spots

(UPI) — If windows sweat during cold weather, water stains on the window sills can be avoided. One way is to wax the painted surface with any good furniture wax. A second way is to coat painted sills with spar varnish. If the sills were painted originally with a gloss enamel, water spotting should be no problem.

Carol Singing, Turkey Mark Annual Dinner

Alpha Sigma Nu Sorority members observed their annual Christmas party at a turkey dinner in Stephens Hall Wednesday. Guild 8 of All Saints Episcopal Church served.

Mrs. Albert Kohn led carol singing, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. John Levandoski. Mrs. J. K. Helvey accompanied by Mrs. Walter A. Schmitz, sang "Star Lullaby," a Polish folk song, "O Holy Night," and "Ave Maria."

Gets 'Em Part-Time Jobs

One Man Bosses 70,000 Females

NEW YORK (UPI) — Any time of the house complains that he'll never understand women, tell him about the plight of Tom Graham.

Graham's job is trying to understand, to encourage, supervise, and often act as father-confessor to not one woman, but 70,000 females.

The jovial Mr. G, a married man in his 40s, isn't sure how well he understands them yet, but he has survived eight years of being surrounded by women in his role as vice president of the Kelly Girl Service, Inc., specialists in providing white collar help on a temporary basis.

"Sometimes," said Graham in an interview, "I just take the advice of one of my regional managers. He said watch for problems during the full of the moon."

His firm, with headquarters in Detroit, is one of several organizations in the fairly new field of providing temporary workers for business and industry. Kelly is the largest all-girl organization, he said, with 70,000 women on its payroll.

PART-TIME PERMANENT

Temporary help differs from part-time help, graham explained, because a woman can be on a temporary assignment from one week to several months, and then take as much time at home as wants before she reports ready for another job. Part-time is a permanent arrangement.

(The U.S. Labor Department estimates that women make up 60 per cent of the nation's part-time labor force.)

Graham said it was hard to estimate the number of women temporaries, but the supply certainly grows each yera as housewives especially find they can pick their jobs and work at their convenience.

Most employers find temporary help full productive, he said, "because they don't stay around long enough to pick up the bad habits of the regular office force . . . the long coffee break . . . the hours using the telephone for personal calls."

But he conceded some women were not cut out for the type of job. "The woman has to be able to adapt quickly to moving from one assignment to another," said Graham. "If she's the type who wants to do everything her way, she will have trouble."

The average woman with his organization is 37½ years old, is married, has two children, and may work at 10 different jobs during a year.

The age range is from 18 to 478, with quite a few women over 65 enrolled. "We judge on ability and personality," said Graham, "not on age."

Graham said the most frequent customers for temporary white collar help are insurance, automotive, petroleum, food and drug, and banking businesses. But his firm has supplied help to U.N. missions, to the U.S. government, and to numerous celebrities ranging from Elsa Maxwell to Tennessee Williams.

An assignment at the home of actress Jeannette MacDonald led to a movie contract for Susan Kelly, 22, of Seminole, Okla. She originally had moved to Los Angeles to become a tecaher, but through Miss MacDonald met a director who gave her a screen test, put her in a television series, and now has cast her in a movie role.

"We also seem to run a regular matrimonial bureau," said Graham. "Most of our women are already married, but those single ones . . . well you know how it is around an office. The new girl is the one the men look over. We've had a few who nabbed the boss's son, and I don't know how many babies are named for us."

George Fires 674 for Actual Tourney Honors

Egerer, Bull in Second Place Roles; Award Prizes Tuesday

By CHUCK ABAIR

Ken Leece is the champion of the 4th annual Pontiac Press Bowlerama which concluded Sunday afternoon at Lakewood Lanes.

He bowled 633 to go with a 92 handicap for a 725 total to take top honors easily.

Frank Egerer was runnerup with 702 nipping Tom Augello by a single pin.

The big actual invitational, held for the 2nd year in conjunction with the handicap finals, was taken by Paul George in impressive fashion.

He fired a 674 to overtake early leader Bill Bull, who had rolled 637 on the 1st of two squads. Lou Koprince followed at 610.

Led by Leece, all the handicap finalists and top three in actual will be awarded prize money and trophies tomorrow at 6 p.m. at the 300 Lounge on Elizabeth Lake Rd.

Leece really did well. He had already won $10 and a trophy for being high qualifier at Howe's Lanes Dec. 4 with 703. The title brought another $325 and a trophy for a total of $535 and a pair of handsome souvenirs.

Egerer earned $275 and a trophy and Augello $150. The remaining prizes guaranteed by The Press were $125 to Vic Stoddard and $100 to Don Pennell. Stoddard had 694 for 4th and Pennell 692.

The other prizes are in accordance with the total entries headed by 6th place Maurice Yarnold at 682, Al Mills, Franklin Miller and Irv Gray tied at 671.

A booming 276 middle game sparked another big performance by Leece. After starting with a 166, he really got hot. A 191 final put it on ice for the Hickory Lane resident.

Egerer, of Drayton Plains, rolled 201-182-223 and Augello 191-210-231.

George gave a hint that he might be hot in the actual after finishing strong in the last handicap group with 192 and 200 after a 147 beginning.

He fired 192 and then 235 in the acutual but still trailed Bull by three pins going into the deciding 3rd game. The little cleaning man really did some mopping up then hitting 247 to romp.

Bull had fired 217-207-213. Koprince hit 181-171 and then 258 beating out Joe Foster for the No. 3 position. Foster had 607.

Harold Law, John Whitehead, Loren Kay, Al Urbaniak, Dr. E. E. Ludwig, Gary Greene, Bob Kuklinski and Bill DeBats are others who won from $15 to $25.

Montcalm high qualifier and actual leader at that house Bob Hanson added $10 to $20 and a trophy clinched last Sunday. Tom Shara, the big gun at Sylvan, did the same. Bob Lawson added $10 to $10 assured for being actual leader at Howe's.

URBANIAK 13th—$20

LUDWIG 14th—$15

Ohio State and Bradley Meet Stiffest Challenge

By The Associated Press

Ohio State, Bradley, the 1-2 [illegible] basketball, will [illegible] really [illegible] sense, when they face their sternest challenges yet.

Both are undefeated but that hasn't been a shield for some of the big boys through the first two and a half weeks of the season.

The Buckeyes, defending NCAA champions, play Loyola of Chicago tonight and then go for victor. No. 6 Thursday night against Detroit (4-1). Ohio State was rated first in last week's Associated Press poll and the Titans were third.

Both were victorious over the weekend, Ohio State winning over tough little Wichita 93-82 and Detroit beating Nebraska 71-62.

Bradley, second ranked, plays Gonzaga tonight, then tries to settle an old score with Missouri Valley foe Cincinnati. The Braves have been runnerup to Cincy in the MVC for the past three years—when Oscar Robertson led the Bearcats.

Now Robertson is gone, Cincy is just another ball club, having had a bad year, Bradley is 6-0 and the City of Roses tournament title at Portland, Ore.

Wake Forest moved to the top of the Atlantic Coast Conference race with a 72-60 upset of Maryland, coming on the heels of last week's upset of North Carolina State. Temple handed Kentucky its second loss, 66-58. The Wildcats play host to the Kentucky Classic, beginning Wednesday at Lexington, Ky.

Kentucky will play Illinois, a 96-87 loser to Marquette while California meets St. Louis in the other pairing.

Oklahoma City and Tulane each tasted defeat for the first time. Houston's late rally cut down Oklahoma City 78-65 and SMU belted the Greenies 83-67. Drake surprised Dayton 73-62.

UCLA defeated Butler 73-61 and Southern Cal won over Notre Dame 93-63, and Memphis State beat Montana State 77-50 in some Far West intersectional jousts. In return, St. Mary's (Calif.) won over Minnesota 54-52 but Purdue beat Washington State 74-46 and Iowa State defeated Washington 60-50 in Midwest intersectional contests.

With the Christmas recess in progress or about to begin, the program is just the calm before the tournament storm which will burst forth in every corner of the country next week.

Most of the nation's top teams play only one game this week, with three others, in addition to Ohio State, Bradley and Detroit, in action tonight. Fifth-ranked North Carolina (3-2) meets Creighton. St. Bonaventure (6-0) plays Western Ontario and Duke (5-0) goes against Georgia Tech. North Carolina and St. Bonaventure take the rest of the week off after tonight.

Fourth ranked Indiana (4-1) plays Notre Dame Tuesday night in its only action this week while ninth-rated Louisville and 10th-ranked North Carolina State also have a light schedule. The Cardin-

Elsewhere, St. John's, ranked 7th with a 4-0 mark, takes on Pitt and Conzaga this week while Duke (No. 8), pits its 5-0 mark against Georgia Tech and Florida. The Johnnies and Duke were idle over the weekend.

Indiana won over Nevada 80-52, North Carolina beat Kansas 78-70, and St. Bonaventure easily handled Morehead 106-88 to make it a clean sweep for the top ranked clubs.

Auburn tabbed itself as the team to beat for the Southeastern Conference crown, beating Alabama 74-62 for the Birmingham Classic title, making its record

1-2 PUNCH — The big guns of the 2nd annual Pontiac Press Invitational Actual tournament Sunday afternoon were a pair of familiar names [illegible] bowling circles. Bill Bull points to the Lakewood Lanes scoreboard which shows Paul George, right, beat him out 674 to 637.

Warriors Stay Close to Celts

Wilt and Rodgers Pace Philly to 128-112 Win Over Royals

By The Associated Press

The Philadelphia Warriors still are dogging the trail of the league-leading Boston Celtics in the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division, but had to come from behind Sunday night to overcome the Royals at Cincinnati.

Thanks to Wilt Chamberlain and Guy Rodgers, Philadelphia stepped up the pace in the second half after trailing 59-57 and defeated the Royals 127-112.

Chamberlain scored 32 points and grabbed 38 rebounds, a Cincinnati Garden record. Rodgers came up with 20 points, and had 16 assists, also a Garden record. Oscar Robertson scored 31 points for Cincinnati in the first half.

In the only other game, the St. Louis Hawks snatched victory in the last 26 seconds when Bob Pettit made two free throws to edge the Syracuse Nationals 104-103.

Pettit scored 26 points and Cliff Hagan 20 for the Hawks, leaders in the Western Division. Dave Gambee, John Kerr and Dolph Schayes each tallied 18 for Syracuse.

On Saturday, Boston downed Los Angeles 140-112, while St. Louis defeated New York 136-103.

Lost Weekend for MSU Cagers

From Our Wire Services

It was a lost weekend for Michigan State's basketball team and Dave DeBusschere, University of Detroit's All-America player.

The Spartans were clobbered twice in the Sunflower Cage Classic, falling to Kansas State 104-82 Saturday night after losing 91-69 the night before to Kansas.

For DeBusschere, the Titan's 27-61 win over Nebraska was hardly an individual effort. Big Dave had the poorest scoring night of his collegiate career as he collected only eight points.

He helped the cause on the boards, however, as he grabbed 23 rebounds. The records show Dave made only 4 buckets out of 23 day night.

In their last start, coach Dave Strack's cagers downed Idaho 73-57 for their second win against four defeats.

The question from the Ohio State scout in the press box was, "Is DeBusschere sandbagging?" He passed off several occasions to shoot.

The third-ranked Titans meet first-ranked OSU at Columbus Thursday night.

Tonight, however, U. of D. must be on guard against a tall Gonzaga quintet which boasts an All-America candidate in Frank Burgess.

The West Coast team has foreign imports George Trontzos of Greece who stands 7-1, and Hans Albertson of Sweden who stands 6-8.

The Titans had a cold first half although they led 36-31 at halftime, but they pushed ahead by 12 points right at the start of the second half and never were in trouble.

Pontiac's Herman Munson played a key role. He hit his first shot from the floor. Charley North led the scoring with 19.

Kansas State wasted no time against the outclassed Spartans. They led by 17 early in the first half and the 104 points was a field-house scoring record for the winners.

Michigan's basketball team opens a two-game road trip in Wichita tonight against the University of Wichita.

The Wolverines, idle over the weekend, then wind up their pre-holiday season at Denver Wednesday night.

Birmingham Swimmer Helps Set New Record

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP)—A 400 yard medley relay team from Indiana University, including two Michigan swimmers, is claiming a new national collegiate and American record of 4:40.5.

The quartet includes Frank McKinney, backstroke; Chet Jaworski, Toledo, Ohio, breast-stroke; Terry Laberdie, Battle Creek, butterfly, and Pete Sintz of Birmingham, freestyle.

The time Saturday as three-tenths of a second under the mark set last year by another Hoosier squad.

It Was Probably the Only Ground Cleveland Lost

NEW YORK (AP)—The Cleveland Browns won the football game from the New York Giants Sunday, but before it even started Jimmy Brown and six hefty Cleveland teammates lost six stories—rushing.

The seven players, including the 228-pound fullback, and a bellboy entered an elevator at the sixth floor of a hotel near Yankee Stadium. The car immediately took off and didn't stop until it hit the basement.

No one was hurt in the sudden drop and the players walked to the Stadium, where Brown gained 110 yards in the Browns' 83-34 victory.

A hotel spokesman said the elevator probably had slipped a cable because of overloading.

Reah Hits 687 for Huron High

Arnie Reah, lead-off man for the Pfeiffer's Beer team in the Huron Bowl Classic, turned in the loop's highest three game series with a 242-233-212—687 to pace his mates' three game sweep over Pasquale's Pizzeria. Reah's total topped a 685 by Bill Bull, the year's previous high. Paul Karns had a 237 and 203 in a 602 set for the losers.

Sylvan Center boosted its league lead to four points with a shut-out of Collier Lanes with Wally Johnson best at 612. Calbi Music Company took advantage of 626 and 605 series by Ron Rothbarth and George Chicovsky to take two games from Westside Mobil.

Auburn Lanes followed a 211-213-208—632 set by Brooks Robertson to a sweep over Mel Eiler Builders that enabled the Auburn five to earn third place in the standings.

Ollie Miller offered 620 as his Montcalm Center teammates also won every game of their match with Mazza's Market, while Ray Keith's 619 was tops for Sno-Bol in a two game win over Oakland Coin. Bill Hart 625 for the Coinmen.

Fetes Quality Market continued its hot streak by running twice from Oakland Mobil Homes as Max Bottern turned in 177-211-236—624. Stroh's Beer also scored a double win over Double Cola behind a fine 623 by Gene Podgo Jr., who put together games of 221-222-200.

Petersen Leaders Change

CHICAGO (AP) — Four Milwaukee bowlers climbed among the leaders tonight in the $327,808 Petersen bowling classic which carries a top prize of $27,500.

* * *

Richard Liesiecki of Milwaukee took over second place with a 1586 total for eight games. He fell five pins short of Charles Garrison, Kalamazoo, Mich., who took the lead last weekend when the classic began.

Others moving into the top 10 were Don Geressy, St. Joseph, Mich., 1547; Ken Mack, Milwaukee, 1546; Robert Nierwicki, Milwaukee, 1521, and Roland Geiger, Milwaukee, 1519.

The tournament runs through June 25 and is expected to attract 13,000 bowlers.

BOTTOMS UP — Cleveland end Rich Kreitling ends up with the ball as he is upended by defender back Dick Lynch of the New York Giants in their game in New York yesterday where the Browns won a 38-21 victory. Kreitling took a pass from quarterback Milt Plum. The Browns will meet the Lions in the Runnerup Bowl Game of the NFL, January 7th in Miami.

Tigers Schedule 81 Home Games for '61 Season

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Tigers will play 81 home games for the first time in history next year. The schedule, also for the first time, contains twi-light doubleheaders.

Detroit has played twi-night doubleheaders at home before, but only as makeups of postponed games. However, three of them are on the 1961 schedule announced over the weekend.

The Bengals will play their first game at home April 11 against the Cleveland Indians. A total of 24 night games are on tap — the first on April 25 against New York.

Besides the twi-lighters, the Tigers also will play seven doubleheaders on Sundays and another on Memorial Day.

The Tigers will play host to the Los Angeles Angels for the first time April 21. The new Washington Senators will be here May 9, while the Minneapolis-St. Paul Twins won't make their first visit to renamed Tiger Stadium until June 2.

Last-Minute Gift Idea: $50,000 Coffeemaker!

NEW YORK (UPI)—A jeweler advertised a Christmas gift for "the woman who has everything"—a 14-carat gold electric coffeemaker set with 250 diamonds and 150 rubies.

Price: $50,000. That's worth 500,000 cups of coffee at 10 cents a cup.

Gophers Plan to Prove Two Things in Rose Bowl Game

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI) — Coach Murray Warmath and members of his Minnesota football team accepted the bid to meet Washington in the Rose Bowl Jan. 2 for two good reasons.

First, the Golden Gophers want to prove that they fully deserved their designation as the nation's No. 1 college football team for the 1960 season.

And, secondly, they are anxious to restore the prestige of the Big Ten Conference, which was badly weakened when virtually the same Washington team shocked Wisconsin, 44-8, in the Rose Bowl last New Year's Day.

Warmath and his young giants believe that they can accomplish both aims if they win impressively at Pasadena.

When the Gophers left Minneapolis for California last Saturday, Warmath was especially happy that fullback Tom Robbins had fully recovered from an early-season knee injury and was able to join the traveling squad.

Robbins last season was the Big Ten's leading punter and much of Minnesota's strategy is centered on kicking.

Minnesota is so strong defensively the Gophers often have kicked on third down simply to place the opponent in a hole.

And, should Minnesota win the pre-game coin toss in the Rose Bowl game, the Gophers probably will elect to kick as they have done all season.

Plays such as these have dismayed some writers who like to describe wide open plays and thrilling gambles. But the fan who enjoys superb defensive football will find Minnesota a dream team.

With All-America guard Tom Brown leading the way, the Minnesota line is the strongest in the nation. Brown weighs 243 pounds and tackle Frank Brixious scales 250.

The starting line averages 220 and the backfield, quarterbacked by junior Sandy Stephens, 202 pounds.

Minnesota opponents this season lost the ball a total of 16 times on fumbles and 18 times on pass interceptions to the hard-hitting, alert Gophers.

With the Gophers gaining the ball deep in enemy territory on opponent miscues countless times this season, it hasn't been necessary for Minnesota to grind out long yardage for touchdowns.

In almost every instance when Minnesota got the ball on the foe's 20 yard line, the Gophers managed to score.

The longest scoring play for Minnesota this season was a 42-yard scamper by fullback Roger Hagberg against Iowa. Hagberg, Stephens, Judge Dickson and Mill Munsey are all consistent runners who can pick up needed yardage at vital moments.

The Washington players probably won't see many Minnesota passes thrown at them unless the game is close. Minnesota's passing attack has been just so-so this season.

Stephens has completed only 20 of 52 attempts and accounted for two touchdowns through the air.

At least 20,000 Minnesota rooters are expected for the game, including the Minnesota basketball team.

By a rare stroke of good fortune Minnesota last year entered its team in the Big Ten Los Angeles College Basketball Tourney immediately preceding the Rose Bowl game.

And the basketball players will be guests at the Rose Bowl.

Pistons Seeking Wins on Coast

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — The Detroit Pistons will try to break out of the cellar in the National Basketball Association's western division when they tackle the Los Angeles Lakers back-to-back tonight and tomorrow night here.

A pair of victories would lift the unpredictable Pistons past the Lakers and Cincinnati Royals and into second place in the western division chase.

Detroit is winless against the Lakers in three starts this season.

Hurlers Didn't Aid Bucs According to Statistics

CINCINNATI (UPI)—Pitching is supposed to be 75 per cent of baseball, but the Pittsburgh Pirates won the National League pennant practically on hitting alone.

That's what the official batting averages, released at league headquarters here, indicated today, anyway.

Led by shortstop Dick Groat, who won the league's batting crown with a .325 average, the Pirates swept virtually every title in the hitting department.

They paced the league in team batting with .276 as compared with .265 compiled by the runner-up Milwaukee Braves, and also led in runs batted in (689); hits (1,493); total bases (2,201); doubles (236), and runs scored (734).

The only important department in which the Pirates were not first was home runs. The Braves were high with 170. The Pirates hit 120.

Groat, who barely edged out Norm Larker of Los Angeles for the individual batting title by two points, was the first N.L. shortstop to win the crown in 25 years. The last one before him was Arky Vaughan, also of the Pirates, in 1935.

Outside of Groat and Larker, only three other regulars managed to hit .300. Willie Mays of San Francisco was third with 319, Roberto Clemente of the Pirates fourth with .314 and Ken Boyer of St. Louis fifth with 304.

Shortstop Ernie Banks of Chicago led in home runs with 41, and Hank Aaron of Milwaukee drove in the most runs, 126, and hit for the most total bases, 334. It was the fourth straight year that Aaron finished first in total bases.

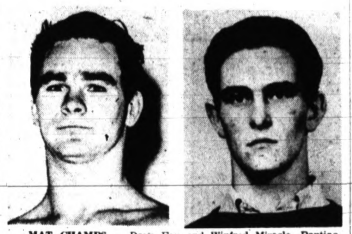
Two Huskies Gain Wrestling Titles

Pontiac Northern won two titles, Waterford and Walled Lake one each in the 1st big Oakland County Wrestling Tournament held over the weekend at Norup Junior High in Berkley.

Seven other Huskies finished 2nd, 3rd or 4th in an outstanding team performance.



MAT CHAMPS — Dave Fox and Winfred Miracle, Pontiac Northern wrestlers took first places in the Oakland County Wrestling tournament over the weekend. Fox won the 165 pound division and Miracle was the winner in the 145 pound class.

Winfred Miracle sparked PNH with a 2-0 triumph in the 145 final. Dave Fox nipped Hazel Park football ace Frank Smotherman on riding time as they each scored two points in 165.

Jim Cook was the Waterford champ taking the 95-pound crown. John Shiker of Walled Lake won a pin in 180.

Hazel Park dominated the other 1st places taking six. Frank Stagg, Bill Kettlewell, Carson Smith, Jerry Cunningham, T. Duncan and Gary Burger.

Stan Ellis won for Berkley as did George Blackwood for Dondero.

Art Fowlkes, veteran 112-pound entry, was the top Pontiac Central grappler. He bowed by a fall in the title match to Burger.

Officials were pleased with the operation of the 1st such tournament for the county as another step towards improving and expanding the mat sport in this area.

Other schools taking part were Warren Fitzgerald, Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows, Lake Orion, Oak Park, Southfield, Van Dyke and L'Anse Creuse.

Medals were won by all champions. Ribbons went to all others in the top four in each division. There were no team scores kept and no awards on that basis.

The top finishers:
95—Cook, Rolfe (HP); Black (HP); Whittaker (PC).
103—Ellis, Chancey (PN); McIlroy (PN); Janetis (ROD).
112—Burger, Fowlkes, Steele (HP); Mikus (WF).

Chargers, Oilers Combine for 87 Points

Scoreboard Gets Workout in AFL

By The Associated Press

The Los Angeles Chargers and Houston Oilers, two high scoring outfits which closed out the regular 14-game schedule with an adding machine total of 87 points Sunday, will meet for the American Football League title Jan. 1.

It will be the rubber game between the Chargers and Oilers, and the Texas homefolks should see pigskins flying all over the premises. Earlier in the season, Houston beat Los Angeles 38-28, but several weeks ago the Chargers won 24-21.

With Houston wrapping up the Eastern Division crown and Los Angeles the Western title a week ago, Sunday's final games were meaningless as far as the standings went.

Los Angeles ripped across 17 points in the fourth quarter to rock the New York Titans 50-43. Houston also got 17 points to come from behind in the last period and blast the Boston Patriots 37-21. In one other Sunday game, the Dallas Texans downed the Buffalo Bills 24-7. Saturday the Oakland Raiders overpowered the Denver Broncos 48-10.

The 93 total for Los Angeles and New York cracked the AFL record of 80 when the Chargers beat Oakland 52-28 three weeks ago.

The National Football League completed its 12-game schedule, but the Green Bay Packers had clinched the Western Conference crown by beating the Los Angeles Rams Saturday 35-21. They meet the Eagles, Eastern Conference champs, in the title game at Philadelphia Dec. 26. In other final NFL games, Detroit whipped Chicago 36-0, Cleveland pulled out a 48-34 thriller over New York, St. Louis beat Pittsburgh 38-7, Philadelphia outscored Washington 38-28, and the dethroned champion Baltimore Colts were beaten 34-10 by the San Francisco 49ers.

Jack Kemp, former Occidental College star, threw three touchdown passes and scored one himself for Los Angeles but a 41-year-old teammate, Ben Agajanian, chipped in with three field goals and five conversions to gain top scoring honors with 14 points. Al Dorow tossed three TD passes for New York, which led 21-16 at halftime.

It was 43-33 New York when Kemp flipped an 11-yard scoring pass to Blanche Martin. Kemp then scored on a 5-yard run, and Agajanian iced the works with his third field goal from 27 yards out.

Billy Cannon, former Louisiana State All-America, returned a kickoff 88 yards for a touchdown, and his 38-yard punt return opened the gates for the 17 points Houston rolled up in the final period burst against Boston.

Boston's Ed Songin had completed five passes in 4 minutes, 43 seconds of the third quarter to give Boston a 21-20 lead.

Cannon's punt return set up a third field goal for George Blanda, and put Houston in front to stay. Rookie Jackie Lee of Cincinnati then directed two quick touchdown drives to turn the game into a rout.

Jack Spikes scored one TD for Dallas, kicked a field goal and three extra points and teammate Cotton Davidson tossed two touchdown passes to lead the Texans over Buffalo.

Montreal Is Hard to Stop

Geoffrion Scores Three Times as Canadiens Win Pair Over Weekend

By The Associated Press

Apparently there's no stopping Boom Boom Geoffrion and the Montreal Canadiens in the National Hockey League.

The 29-year-old winger smashed home three goals over the weekend in pacing the league-leading Canucks to two victories and a six point spread over the runner-up Toronto Maple Leafs.

Boom Boom scored both goals in Montreal's 2-0 victory over the New York Rangers Saturday and one—the winning marker—in a 4-2 win over Boston on Bruin ice Sunday.

Geoffrion has scored 11 in eight games and his scoring string for the eight games is just one short of the NHL record held by Maurice Richard of the Canadiens.

The Canadiens have swept 10 of their last 11 games.

It must be awfully discouraging for the Maple Leafs. They tied Boston 3-3 Saturday and beat the Rangers at New York Sunday, 3-2, but lost ground anyway. The Leafs are unbeaten in their last five, four of them victories.

Frank Mahovlich extended his scoring streak to five games in leading Toronto to victory over the Rangers. He scored his 29th goal in 31 games in the second period. That made the score 3-0 and proved to be the winner as the Rangers rallied to make it close.

Northern, Central Matmen Tangle Tomorrow, 7:30

The first of two big city wrestling battles comes up Tuesday night when Pontiac Central invades the Northern gym for a 7:30 match.

PNH rates a slight edge on the basis of a much better showing the 1st Oakland County meet over the weekend but that should mean little when the action starts.

Central has whipped Waterford and Fitzgerald in two outings while Northern took its only start at Royal Oak Dondero.

Miss Mansfield's 'Life' Real Wacky Taffy-Pull

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — I don't know how Ralph Edwards did it but somehow he lured shy, self-effacing Jayne Mansfield before his "This Is Your Life" cameras Sunday night.

Between blurbs for denture powder, cake mix and mouth wash we were advised that Miss Mansfield has restored glamour, glitter and ballyhoo to the Hollywood scene—commodities that the pessimists among us assumed had vanished with Jean Harlow or Clara Bow.

The NBC-TV half-hour sought to support the glamour premise with pictures of Jayne's 20-room, 13-bathroom mansion, her figure and the fur-trimmed suit she wore on the show, which clung to her like she was the sausage and it was the casing.

But then Jayne posed with her husband, mother, step-father and three children in an effort to prove that although she is the most glamorous of all our film stars, she is also "just playne Jayne," a normal daughter, wife, mother.

It was kind of confusing. In the old days, they tell me, our sex symbols stuck to being sex symbols. The trappings of domesticity they left to the slobs who bought the tickets.

Although the show didn't include interviews with any of the numerous publicity men who thumped the bongos for Miss Mansfield during what Ralph Edwards called, "her meteoric rise to stardom," we met the following:

—Mickey Hargitay, her husband. (They rubbed noses. Jayne and Mickey did, and seemed genuinely attracted to each other.)

—A wardrobe mistress who said, "Jayne hasn't a nerve in her ... on opening night of her first Broadway play) she pasted pictures in her scrap book."

—A clergyman who said, "Jayne is as normal as apple pie."

—Columnist Jimmy Fidler, who said, "Jayne revived those wonderful days and that wonderful way of living."

—Her mother: "She used to sit on a bed surrounded by pillows and make believe she was a movie star . . . I built a pink lollipop world for her."

—A guidance counselor, "She was a serious-minded, hard-working student with a burning ambition to become a movie star."

—A photographer, "She wore the tightest - fitting gown I ever saw . . ."

—Ralph Edwards, "This is your make-believe world, created for you largely through your own efforts."

—Jayne sighed such things as, "This is too much . . . I just really can't talk . . . It's so wonderful . . . Jule (Styne) gave me my break."

Incidentally, when Edwards introduced some nurses who attended her during her recent confinements at the hospital, Jayne called out to them, "I'll be back soon." Edwards also advised us that Jayne is "completely natural, simple and sweet."

It was a wacky, unreal, awesome taffy-pull, this show. But you know something? I think it probably did reflect Jayne Mansfield's life.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Danny Thomas is reported ready to pinch hit for ailing Red Skelton on Skelton's CBS-TV show for Tuesday, Jan. 3. The half-hours for Dec. 20 and 27 were taped before Skelton underwent surgery.

Bob Hope leaves today (Monday) for a 10-day trip to 12 military bases. Films of his Yuletide tour with Zsa Zsa Gabor, Andy Williams, Janis Paige, Jerry Colonna and Anita Bryant will be seen on Hope's Wednesday, Jan. 11 NBC-TV special.

Boy Falls to Death Down Icy Slope

MOUNT BALDY, Calif. (UPI) — A 12-year-old boy fell down an icy 1,500-foot slope to his death Sunday while his horrified father and two friends watched helplessly.

Rodney Carl Keeran was the fourth person to plunge to his death in a roped-off section of an icy trail behind the Mt. Baldy ski lift in the past month.

Sheriff's deputies said Keeran of Upland, Calif., and his father Royal J. Keeran, and two young friends were hiking on the snow-covered mountain and had defied signs reading, "No travel beyond this point", and "closed area — danger."

Voting on Fate of Idle School

Dearborn Twp. Voters to Decide on Tax Hike for Use of Structure

By United Press International

A school problem that was placed in the national spotlight recently by a nationwide television program highlight a series of local elections in Michigan today.

Voters in Dearborn Township School District No. 8 go to the polls to decide whether to raise their taxes to raise funds to put the Hamilton J. Robichaud High School into service.

The school, built at a cost of $2.6 million, was featured in the nationwide TV program on school problems because taxpayers in the district refused to approve funds to operate the school after it had been built.

Most of the controversy centered around charges that the school was "too plush," mainly because it included a swimming pool.

WOULD LOWER RATE

The current proposal calls for raising taxes by $11.55 per $1,000 of state equalized valuation.

But the school board has promised to lower its rate on bonded indebtedness by $4.

So the increase would be only $7.55 per $1,000 valuation, or a total school tax rate of $31.50.

Opponents of the tax increase insist that the school district can open the new high school, completed last August, without raising taxes.

Voters have twice turned down tax increases to operate the school.

The 1,800 students who normally would attend the school are attending classes on half-day schedules at old Roosevelt High School, a half block away from the school.

Residents of five Detroit suburbs are voting on whether to establish a "downriver community college" in another local election today.

More than 42,000 are eligible to vote in the election in Wyandotte, Trenton, Riverview, Flat Rock and the Heintzen District of Southgate.

Sen. Clinton Anderson Resting After Illness

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., (UPI) — Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N. M., rested at his farm south of here today following his release Sunday from Bataan Memorial Hospital.

Anderson was taken to the hospital here Thursday night after he was stricken in Denver, where he had been scheduled to address the Upper Colorado River Commission.

His doctor said Anderson's illness was due in part to galistones which caused a "slight cardiac complication," along with a "gastrointestinal upset."

African Leader Is Impressed by Gov. Williams

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP)—An African nationalist leader and government official has described Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan as "a very positive-minded person who is eager to learn more about Africa."

The appraisal came from Gikonyo Kaino, Kenya's minister for commerce and industry, who returned from a trip to the United States.

Williams has been named as President-Elect John F. Kennedy's assistant secretary of state for African Affairs.

Kiano described the U.S. government as "sympathetic to Kenya's cause." He said Williams, whom he met at a conference at Princeton, "is definitely not a fence-sitter."

Symphony Conductor Is Injured in France

CARCASSONNE, France (AP)—Roger Brassens, 36, conductor of the Johannesburg Symphony Orchestra, was seriously injured today when the auto he was driving skidded on an icy pavement and crashed near here.

Brassens' wife, their three children and his mother and father also were injured critically.

Injuries Fatal to Area Man

Howard W. Elliott, 34, of Birmingham Dies After Saturday Crash

A 34-year-old Birmingham man died yesterday of injuries received the day before in a two-car crash in Holly Township.

The victim, Howard W. Elliott of 2279 Pembroke St., suffered internal and head injuries. He succumbed at Hurley Hospital in Flint.

The driver of the other car, Harold Haywood, 39, of 11611 S. Dixie Highway, Holly, remained in critical condition today at the hospital with internal injuries.

Haywood's son Robert, 10, sustained a fractured leg and multiple cuts. He was in fair condition.

Another son, Harold Jr., 12, had minor cuts.

Flint state police said Haywood turned left from Evans Road, near Grand Blanc, onto U.S. 10 and was struck broadside by the Elliot car headed north on the highway.

Both cars burst into flames after the injured were extricated.

Assistant Prosecutor Anthony Renne has asked that the unidentified, possible witness who assisted troopers at the crash, contact him at the Oakland County Prosecutor's Office in Pontiac.

'60 Farm Exports May Hit $4.6 Billion

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Agriculture Department said today the value of farm products shipped abroad during 1960 may reach $4.6 billion.

* * *

This estimate was based on official data for nine months. It would be a rise of 18 per cent from the $3.9 billion total in 1959, and would exceed the previous calendar year record of $4.5 billion in 1957.

Greatest advances in both volume and value were made by cotton, wheat and soybeans.

Parsons Okays Traverse City Plant

TRAVERSE CITY (UPI)—Parsons Corp. will establish a new division here to manufacture rotor blades for Umbaugh Aircraft Corp. of Ocala, Fla.

The company agreed to establish the new division here, and provide an additional 300 to 400 jobs for Traverse City, after it reached a separate contract agreement with Local 945 of the United Auto Workers Saturday to cover the new employes.

Parsons, which had already obtained a $10 million contract to manufacture rotor blades for Umbaugh, told the union the work would be done at the existing Parsons facility here only on condition that it be apart from the general contract with the UAW.

Expect to Equip Defense Area With New Nike

The Midwestern Air Defense Command at Selfridge Air Force Base, Mount Clemens, has announced plans for 1961 to equip the metropolitan perimeter defense with the new Nike Hercules atomic warhead missile.

The Hercules would replace the older model Ajax in protection of the defense-vital area.

Since the improved Hercules does more work at less expense, the plan would call for inactivation of several of the existing perimeter missile bases.

However, the commanding officer, Col. Charles F. Coffee, said the plan would not eliminate this. Mount Clemens Regional Guard - controlled missile sites in the Pontiac area, at Auburn Height's, Commerce Township and Southfield.

They will be converted to the new missile when the plan goes through. Col. Coffee said he expected it would be carried out by 1962 if not next year.

Achievement Award Goes to J. M. Rahl

The American Savings and Loan Institute of Chicago has presented an achievement award to James M. Rahl, assistant vice president of Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Association, 761 W. Huron St.

* * *

The award represents successful completion of at least four semester credits of study in the institute's specialized savings and loan courses.

Rahl has been with the Pontiac association five years.

* * *

He was presented the award by James Clarkson, executive vice president of the association.

Vandals Hurl Creosote at Walls of Methodist Minister's Church

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — A background of new violence faced New Orleans' sixth week of school desegregation today.

Light globes filled with brilliant creosote were hurled against the white stucco walls of the Rev. L. A. Foremen's St. Mark's Methodist Church on the edge of the French Quarter this weekend, leaving huge black stains.

The pastor's bishop, Aubrey G. Walton, visited the church Sunday to affirm his endorsement of Foreman's leaving his 5-year-old daughter in the William Frantz School despite segregationists' threats against the pastor's life.

"Those who strike the property of the church strike at Christ," said the bishop as he led the congregation in prayer for the souls of vandals who desecrated the church.

State Rep. Edward Lebreton asked the legislature in Baton Rouge not to withhold the back pay due employes of New Orleans' school system Friday when the Christmas holidays begin.

"It's going to be awful hard for these school teachers and janitors and carpenters to explain to their own children why there isn't a Santa Claus this year," he said. But he got no encouragement in the house.

U.S. Food Airlift Helps Pro-West Boun in Laos

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Pro-Western Premier Boun Oum struggled today to put this battered capital on its feet with the help of an American airlift flying in critically needed food and medicine.

The government announced the roundup of more than 100 snipers and looters as it tackled the critical economic and political crisis that gripped the little Indochinese kingdom.

* * *

An American airlift to rush rice, milk, medical and building supplies from neighboring Thailand was set up over the weekend after pro-Communist troops were driven out of the city in a four-day battle that left at least 150 men, women and children dead and more than 500 wounded.

A U.S. Embassy spokesman said the airlift would continue as long as needed.

Boun moved into the Foreign Ministry building Sunday and announced his government was in business in the rubble-strewn city.

But four months of palace maneuvering and civil war has failed to resolve the Buddhist kingdom's political tangle touched off by a leftist coup led by paratroop Capt. Kong Le on Aug. 9.

The rebels military threat to Vientiane remained, with danger of a new flareup in fighting. Rightist government forces led by Gen. Phoumi Nosavan were reported to have pushed seven miles north of the capital's airport. Kong Le's forces, retreating with much of their Soviet-supplied arms, were believed still only about 15 miles from the heart of the capital.

* * *

The pro-Red Pathet Lao, who joined Kong Le, still held much of the mountainous country's rural area.

Crime Weekend Keeps Waterford Police Hopping

Vandals and burglars kept Waterford Township police busy over the weekend.

Vandals last night smashed three large windows in a store at 6512 Hatchery Road. Damage was estimated at $800.

Robert Moss, 5155 Oak Cliff St., said his unlocked home was entered last night. He reported more than $150 worth of guns and fishing equipment stolen.

Harry Martin, 28 Kent St., said vandals smashed the windows of a new home he owns at 6855 Salene St. He said electrical fixtures and cabinets were ripped loose from the walls.

An attempted break-in was reported by Frederick Render, owner of the White Swan Restaurant, 4270 Highland Road. A rear window was smashed, he said.

Another rear window was broken at a gas station at 4397 Highland Road, but nothing was taken, police were told.

Negro Will Direct One FHA Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Housing Administration has appointed William Robert Valentine Jr., of New York City, as FHA's intergroup relations adviser.

Valentine, a Negro, will direct FHA's cooperation with states and cities which have enacted housing laws to eliminate discrimination because of racial, religious or other bias.

New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Connecticut, California, Oregon, Colorado and Washington have such laws, and there has been a marked increase in the number of cities which prohibit housing discrimination.

Valentine is 46 and a graduate of New York University and Bates College. He was associated with the New York State Commission against discrimination and, previously, was field secretary to the National Urban League in New York and executive secretary of the Flint, Mich., Urban League.

Urges Intervention in Latin America

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (UPI) — Aviation pioneer Eddie Rickenbacker Sunday night urged U.S. military intervention in South and Central America — wherever communis is gaining a foothold.

Rickenbacker, the World War I flying ace, praised President Eisenhower's action in ordering units of the Navy to patrol the coast of Central America to prevent a communist invasion.

* * *

"If 10,000 marines had been sent to Cuba when the confiscation of American property was on, Cuba would be a free nation today," he said on the weekly Manion radio network forum.

GOP Man Well Trained

Job: To Curb Gold Drain Dillon's

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Newly named Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon already has some firm ideas and some on-the-job training for dealing with the urgent problem of America's dwindling gold reserves.

The drain on U. S. gold and dollars and the current business slump are but two of the immense fiscal headaches that will fall on the 51-year-old Republican, appointed to the Treasury post by President-Elect John F. Kennedy Friday.

Dillon and his wife contributed a total of $9,550 to the unsuccessful campaign of Kennedy's opponent, Vice President Richard M. Nixon, and to other GOP campaign funds, according to House records.

Dillon now is undersecretary of state. He was an investment banker before becoming a diplomat in 1953 and is considered an expert in international economic matters.

* * *

Dillon accompanied Treasury Secretary Robert B. Anderson on a recent trip to Bonn to try to persuade the West German government to pay more toward the support of American troops there as a means of saving U. S. dollars and gold. The Germans turned down the plea.

OPPOSED APPEAL

State Department officials have disclosed that Dillon and Secretary of State Christian A. Herter opposed such an appeal to the Germans on grounds that it was sure to be turned down, giving the United States a diplomatic black eye. The views of Dillon and Herter were overruled.

Dillon feels the best way to cut American outlays abroad is to ask all the big NATO countries—Britain, France and West Germany—to pay a bigger share of the cost of the alliance. He also has a number of other ideas on curbing the dollar-gold drain.

This drain, which probably will run more than $3 billion this year, is caused by the excess of American spending abroad over American earnings abroad. President Eisenhower already has ordered a number of steps to stem the outflow.

Underlining his feeling that the dollar-gold drain is a crucial problem, Dillon said shortly after his appointment to the Treasury post that the economy and strength of the entire free world are "tied to the strength of the dollar."

* * *

The Swiss born banker-diplomat said he had discussed his new post with Eisenhower and Nixon and neither had any objection if it was in the interest of security and towards fiscal stability."

* * *

There have been reports that some Republican officials had urged Dillon to stay away from the Treasury hot seat. But he said the job was above partisan politics.

Pre-Christmas Time Marked by Tragedy

NEW YORK (AP)—The pre-Christmas season, normally a time of joyful celebration and happy memories, has frequently been marked by tragedy in the past 10 years.

Before Friday's airline collision and Saturday's Munich tragedy, nine disasters had taken more than 2,000 lives.

Coincidentally, two of the tragedies also occurred on Dec. 16.

In 1951, a nonscheduled airliner crashed after take off at Elizabeth, N. J., killing 56. It was the first of a series of three crashes at Elizabeth that took 119 lives.

And on Dec. 16, 1958, 84 died in a department store fire in Bogota, Colombia.

Tragedy struck at least three times on Christmas Eve.

In 1954, about 50 perished in a landslide in Carmen, Colombia. An express train plunged off a bridge in New Zealand on Christmas Eve, 1953, killing 166. On the same day 104 died in another train wreck in Czechoslovakia.

Two more pre-Christmas crashes took 148 lives. On Dec. 20, 1952, a Military Air Transport Service C124 crashed on take off from Larson Air Force Base in Washington State, killing 87. Sixty-one died Dec. 8, 1957, in the crash of a DC4 near Bolivar, Argentina.

The worst pre-Christmas tragedy was an earthquake in Western Iran on Dec. 13, 1957, in which 1,288 died.

A flood in Ceylon on Dec. 23, 1957, killed 250.

Highway carnage also takes its toll at Christmas. Over the last Christmas weekend 609 Americans died in accidents, 493 in traffic. The record was in 1955, when 782 perished, 609 in traffic.

Discourteous Clerks? Not in New York City

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—While they were saying here that "the snow must go on," a friend of ours who's a big Madison Avenue genius rushed out and bought ear tabs—now his toes are cold.

"Please plead with NY sales people to be courteous—just for Christmas," writes a reader. He claims clerks have the snarlies, that a shoe shine boy barked abuse at him when he didn't like his shine. Says the storm had nothing to do with it," that they were nasty before the storm. (We're sure he didn't refer to any of our readers, who are fabled for their charm. How could he talk like that about our good will ambassadors and ambassadresses?. Must have an unfortunate personality himself, poor man.)

Year '61 to See Stocks Up 5 Pct. Over Present

By HENRY J. BECHTOLD
UPI Financial Editor

NEW YORK — Most forcasts made these days concern the nation's economy. But what about the stock market?

Van Alstyne, Noel & Co. answers this question in a 41-page report to its "friends in the financial community." The following is some of the conslusions reached by the brokerage firm:

—Industrial stock prices in 1961 probably will average 5 per cent higher than December 1960 prices.

—In 1965 industrial prices are likely to average 20-25 per cent higher than this month.

—Earnings of industrial corporations by 1965 will be more than 50 per cent greater than in 1960.

—More cyclical stocks are likely to rise in price than noncyclical stocks over the next five years.

—Industrial groups whose stocks may rise most from now until 1965 are truck manufacturers, appliance, plumbing, textile weavers and steam generating equipment.

—Losses during this period may be experienced by some drug, soft drink, small loan, chemical and dry packaged food stocks.

—Stocks of corporations in two extremely fast-growing industries, civilian electronics and business machinery, may rise about as much as, or even more than, the general market.

Van Alstyne, Noel said there is ample evidence to justify a belief that the market has come full circle, and that the next five years will be an "earnings" market once again.

In a "multiplier" market, the firm explained, the stocks of companies whose growth rates are not subject to recurring cyclical doubt are the ones which receive the initial attention. Such stocks, it added, usually are relatively insensitive to, and to some extent independent of, the trend of corporate earnings generally.

It is generally known that the best-performing portfolios of the last five to ten years have been heavily invested in "multiplier" stocks.

When the market's emphasis shifts — as it now appears that it will — from multipliers to earnings, then the earnings stocks begin to outperform the market, according to the brokerage firm.

Professor Sees Slump Ending

Article Says Kennedy's Proposed Program to Build Up Economy

WASHINGTON (UPI) — An economic adviser to President-Elect John F. Kennedy predicted today the nation would start to recover from the current business slump by next summer without the need for a "crash antirecession program."

Paul A. Samuelson, professor of economics at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, said he thinks Kennedy's proposed legislative program "will begin to fight against the downward slide" in the U.S. economy.

In a copyrighted interview in U.S. News and World Report Magazine, Samuelson said Kennedy's proposals in the fields of urban renewal, depressed areas, aid-to-education and aids for research "are desirable for their own sake."

"It would be wrong to think of these programs as trumped-up public works programs to get us out of a quick recession," he added, "but it would be wrong to ignore the fact that, as we go into this recession, these programs are around the corner.

"Even without any special, new, crash antirecession program, there will be policies which will begin to fight against the downward slide," the 45-year-old economist said.

Another "very good way" to combat a recession, he said, "is by flexible tax rates — cut down on tax rates when you're in a recession. Under our withholding system, this can come into operation overnight."

He suggested that Congress consider granting the president some discretion, under safeguards, "with respect to timing" such changes in the tax rate.

He also proposed "some tying of tax-rate changes to certain objective indicators of business activity, such as the level of production index, the rate of change in disposable income, the degree of unemployment."

Samuelson said, however, that government spending might make a tax increase necessary in the future.

He said "we're definitely not now at the limits of our taxable capacity. Nobody likes any extra burden, but the extra burdens are continuous."

Five largest bridges in the U.S. are the Golden Gate, Mackinac Straits, George Washington, Tacoma Narrows and the San Francisco-Oakland span.
