City Man Arrested in Killing of W. Bloomfield Trustee

A 39-year-old Pontiac man was arrested today in connection with the July 3 murder of West Bloomfield Township Trustee Edward E. DeConick, according to Pontiac police.

Taken into custody on a warrant charging him with conspiracy to commit armed robbery was Milton R. Pratt of 556 Bloomfield, police said.

He was arrested about 10:30 a.m. by Pontiac, West Bloomfield and State Police detectives while at his place of employment at 550 Oakland.

Pratt was scheduled to be arraigned at 1 p.m. today before West Bloomfield Township Justice of the Peace Emery Jacques, according to officers.

★ ★ ★

West Bloomfield Township Police Chief Mel Wills said the law enforcement agencies involved had been planning the arrest for several weeks and were acting on leads supplied by an informant.

FATALLY SHOT

DeConick, 63, a prominent businessman-farmer, was fatally shot and his 73-year-old sister, Kathleen, was seriously wounded and beaten by four persons who forced their way into his home at 5847 W. Maple.

The assailants — three men and a woman — apparently left Miss DeConick for dead and made off with a cash box and floor safe containing some $25,000.

However, she survived and was able to contact police.

★ ★ ★

Miss DeConick, who was shot in the right eye, later told police the intruders were three Negro males and a light-skinned woman.

ASK TO USE PHONE

She said the woman gained entrance to the house at 11 p.m. by pretending her car was stalled and asked to use the telephone. Then the men rushed in.

DeConick was first beaten with a shotgun, then shot in the head with a pistol.

DeConick served as township justice of the peace from 1947 until he was elected trustee in 1953. He had served on the board of trustees since then.

Rewards totaling $6,500, including $1,000 from The Pontiac Press, have been offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the killers.

WRECKAGE OF PLANE — This is the wreckage of the tail section of a TWA jetliner that crashed on an approach to the Greater Cincinnati Airport last night, killing 64 passengers. Six of the 18 survivors were reported in serious or critical condition. Federal investigators are at the scene.

Waterford Rejects School Tax Boost

By HUDSON WILLSE JR.

The proposed 7½-mill property tax increase in the Waterford Township School District was soundly defeated by more than a 2-1 margin yesterday as a record turnout of 7,145 voters went to the polls.

Unofficial results from the eight precincts showed that 4,881 or about 68 per cent of the voters cast negative ballots and 2,188 or about 31 per cent of the turnout voted yes. In addition, there were 76 void ballots.

The proposition was turned down in all precincts, in six by more than a 2-1 margin.

The additional millage was being sought for a five-year period from 1968 through 1973 to meet increasing operational expenses.

Prior to yesterday's vote, the record turnout for a Waterford Township School District election was in 1963 when 5,601 voters cast ballots.

REGISTERED VOTERS

There are about 26,000 registered voters in the district, according to school officials.

The board of canvassers will meet tomorrow night to certify the election results. Voting was by paper ballots.

The school board most likely will call for another millage election next year, although it is undecided when.

★ ★ ★

To be placed on the December 1968 tax rolls, the additional millage would have to win voter approval and be certified by next Sept. 1.

'FUNDS NEEDED'

School officials have maintained that additional local funds are needed to avoid drastic cutbacks in program and personnel.

Teachers and school officials both showed disappointment at the results and commented on the repercussions.

★ ★ ★

"This was a dark day for Waterford schoolchildren," said Supt. of Schools Dr. Don O. Tatroe. "They are children only once, and our limited funds will deny hundreds of them an important part of their education.

"We accept the community's decision with regret, however," added Tatroe, "and pledge ourselves to produce the

Kentucky Plane Toll Is 64

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — A team of federal investigators went to work today trying to determine why a TWA jet passenger plane crashed while approaching the Greater Cincinnati Airport Monday night, apparently killing 64 of 82 persons aboard.

"We counted up all our passengers again, and now find there were 75 passengers and seven crew members," said TWA District Manager A. B. Krueger "There are 18 survivors."

"That leaves 64 person not accounted for. I don't want to say they are all dead, but I don't have much hope for finding any more survivors," Krueger added.

Six of the survivors were reported in serious or critical condition in various area hospitals.

★ ★ ★

Most of the injured were rushed to St. Elizabeth Hospital in Covington, Ky. Two-thirds of the nurses at the hospital resigned last week in a dispute with the management — but most of them reported back to work last night to care for the injured.

The debris-strewn crash scene is in an orchard about 1.5 miles north of the airport and not far from the spot where an American Airlines passenger plane crashed in 1965 with heavy loss of life.

The airport is on the Kentucky side of the Ohio River and about 15 miles southwest of downtown Cincinnati.

Members of the National Transport Safety Board team arrived during the night. Several of them visited the crash site in the dark.

Woodrow McKay, chief tower controller at the airport, said "a pretty good fire broke out" after the plane hit.

More than a score of persons were waiting inside the airport restaurant for the arrival of friends and relatives.

Mrs. Maude Cuneo of Hebron, Ky., said she saw a "great ball of fire," that it looked to her as though the plane had "exploded in the air."

The airplane was Trans World Airlines Convair Flight 128 bound from Los Angeles to Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and Boston.

It was about two hours late, TWA said, because a faulty door of another plane caused passengers to be shifted in Los Angeles to the one that crashed.

Dense smoke hung over the area and debris covered the ground at the scene of the crash. Light snow fell sporadically as ambulances hauled bodies away from the orchard. Floodlights illuminated the area.

★ ★ ★

Among the first at the scene was Capt. Paul Dickman, commander of the Hebron, Ky., life squad.

"We were running across the field past a man and when we went on there was a man carrying a child from the burning wreckage of the plane," Dickman said.

He said both men were badly hurt but told him to go on and help the others.

★ ★ ★

The cause of the crash was not determined.

A part of the tail of the plane was about all that remained of the jet.

Pontiac Area United Fund Will Fall Short of Goal

For the first time in a decade, the Pontiac Area United Fund (PAUF) will fall short of its goal when the campaign ends tomorrow.

What had been planned as a victory celebration tomorrow at the Pontiac Elks Club will be nothing more than another luncheon, said campaign chairman Frederick J. Poole.

At a progress meeting yesterday at Bedell's Restaurant in Bloomfield Township, Poole reported to some 40 campaign leaders that only $850,229 or 84 per cent of the goal had been collected as of Friday.

Poole expressed no optimism that the goal could be reached before the deadline, already once extended because of slow returns.

★ ★ ★

In terms of money the campaign has not been successful, said Poole. "But in a sense it has been a moral victory for those who have worked so hard.

"Maybe it will serve as a reminder in the future that reaching a goal isn't something that happens automatically," he added.

"This is a year when the odds were stacked against us.

"Maybe," said Poole, "the pulse of our community has slowed down — or perhaps it beats a different drum . . . I don't know.

"I can only repeat my appeal," said Poole. Give once, give again, give more. Help us meet the needs of the community."

At yesterday's meeting, sponsored by First Federal Savings of Oakland, the Advance Gifts Division, headed by Warren H. Eierman, reported it had attained $96,972 or 89.6 per cent of its $108,134 goal.

Second in the running was the GM Division, under the leadership of Chairman Theodore Bloom, reporting $656,124 or 88.5 per cent of the $758,409 goal.

The Commercial Division followed with Chairman Daniel Murphy reporting 80 per cent or $225,204 of its goal of $281,307.

Mrs. Robert C. Irwin, chairman of the Residential Division, turned in $30,064, which is 78 per cent of the $38,541 goal.

Chairman Wallace Schroth of the Manufacturing Division reported $28,059 or 65.7 per cent of its goal of $42,662.

Light Snow May Blanket Ground on Thanksgiving

There's a chance a light snow will blanket the ground on Thanksgiving Day.

The U.S. Weather Bureau predicts light snow beginning late today possibly mixed with rain at times tonight. Partly cloudy and cold is Thursday's outlook.

Temperatures are expected to fall to 32 to 35 tonight and rise to the upper 30s tomorrow.

Morning east to southeast winds at six to 14 miles will become southeast 10 to 20 miles tonight, and shift to northerly by morning.

Precipitation probabilities in per cent are: today 50, tonight 80, tomorrow 70.

Thirty was the low recording prior to 8 a.m. in downtown Pontiac. The mercury registered 38 at 2 p.m.

Tax Boost Looms Larger Due to Pound Devaluation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional passage of President Johnson's proposed income tax boost became a renewed possibility today as an indirect consequence of Britain's currency devaluation.

Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., of the House Ways and Means Committee, which calls the tax signals for Congress, announced a Nov. 28 hearing to consider a new administration surtax and cost-cutting package.

White House Press Secretary George Christian told newsmen yesterday the package calls for the $7 billion, 10 per cent income tax surcharge Johnson requested Aug. 3, plus a matching $7 billion paring of expenditures.

But congressional sources said they understood the cost - cutting actually would amount only to about $4 billion in this fiscal year, which ends next June 30, including about $1 billion of cuts already made by Congress.

The surtax proposal had been considered dead for this session.

If the British action has changed congressional sentiment, it could be enacted in time to take effect Jan. 1, Capitol Hill experts said, but only if Congress remains in session almost until Christmas.

The ways and means committee shelved the Johnson tax plan on Oct. 2. It said the surtax would be considered again only if there was a firm agreement with the administration on reduced spending.

Mills apparently agreed to the new hearing despite some doubts it would bear fruit. He sandwiched his hearing announcement into a Hot Springs, Ark., speech that was sharply critical of the Johnson fiscal program.

But at the White House, Christian said the British move — followed by Federal Reserve Board action boosting its interest rate on loans to member banks from 4 to 4½ per cent — made the surtax package "absolutely imperative," in the opinion of the President.

A NONSTOP CONGRESS?—Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield pauses just off the Senate floor yesterday to say that Congress may have to drop its mid-December adjournment goal and remain in session to act on a tax increase. The Montana Democrat said British devaluation of the pound may force reassessment of the President's tax proposal, stalled in the House Ways and Means Committee.

Senate Passes 2 Benefit Bills

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has voted to provide an extra $250 million a year in federal funds to hospitals in payments for their elderly medicare patients and to require states to provide welfare for families with unemployed fathers.

★ ★ ★

The two provisions were tacked on to the omnibus Social Security bill yesterday during the fourth day of Senate floor debate.

The measure remained before senators today as Democratic leader Mike Mansfield pressed for final Senate action by tomorrow.

Many important amendments remain to be considered.

★ ★ ★

Republican leaders announced they would make a major effort today to substitute the House version of Social Security cash benefits and taxes for the Senate Finance Committee's proposed schedules.

COMMITTEE VOTE

The committee voted for substantially larger monthly payments than the House as well as for bigger payroll taxes.

A bipartisan group of 15 senators said they plan to push amendments to the welfare sections of the bill designed to remove what they term coercive provisions which might force mothers on welfare to work.

The amendments to boost medicare payments to hospitals, sponsored by Sen. Jack Miller, R-Iowa, and adopted by voice vote, would make it possible to reimburse them on a per diem costs basis.

General: War End to Be Visible Soon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. William C. Westmoreland declared today the United States is about to enter a new phase of the Vietnam war in which "the end begins to come into view."

Westmoreland, commander of U. S. forces in Vietnam, predicted no target date for the end of the conflict, but he said already "the enemy's hopes are bankrupt.

His remarks came in a speech prepared for a National Press Club luncheon here.

The graying four-star general said the "new phase" of the war will begin next year with U.S. efforts to bring the South Vietnamese armed forces to such a point of combat effectiveness that eventually they can "take on an ever-increasing share of the war."

Israeli Jets Attack Jordan

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli jet fighter-bombers attacked Jordanian positions on the east bank of the Jordan River today for the first time since the Arab-Israeli war in June.

Jordan claimed two Israeli planes were shot down and said the pilot of the first one balled out and was killed.

Israel admitted the loss of one of its French Mysteres and said the pilot balled out over Jordanian territory.

The Israeli Army also announced that one Israeli was killed and one wounded by Jordanian shelling. It claimed six Jordanian tanks and one armored car destroyed.

Amman Radio said the Jordanians lost only one military vehicle and there was no casualties to Jordanian personnel. It claimed Israeli tanks and other equipment were set ablaze, two Israeli gun positions were destroyed and most of their personnel was killed.

HUSSEIN IN TOUCH

Amman said King Hussein, now in London, was in constant telephone contact with his brother, Crown Prince Hassan, until the fighting stopped, and that Jordan's delegate to the United Nations had been instructed to inform U.N. members of the battle.

The Israelis said their air force went into action after the Jordanians moved tanks up to the cease-fire line and opened up across the river on a wide front.

The Jordanians charged that the Israelis began the attack with artillery and tank fire, then called in their planes when Jordanian positions returned the fire.

It was the fourth consecutive day of firing across the river.

TANKS OPEN FIRE

An Israeli spokesman said Jordanian tanks opened fire at 8:45 a.m. (1:45 a.m. EST) a few miles south of the Umm- Shart Bridge, at a point where Israeli and Jordanian gunners dueled for two hours Monday.

"Israeli forces returned the fire to silence the source of the enemy shelling," the spokesman continued. "The enemy fire did not stop, so the air force was called in."

The Jordanian communique said the Israeli attack was concentrated in the area of the Allenby Bridge, 10 miles north of the Dead Sea and about 200 miles west of Amman, the Jordanian capital.

The Israeli spokesman said the firing stopped at 10:55 a.m. 3:55 a.m. EST and "the sector is quiet for the moment."

AIR STRIKES WIDEN

A Jordanian communique said the Israelis "widened air strikes" at 11:25 a.m. and fighting did not stop until noon.

Lifer From City Is Up for Parole

Governer Commutes Sentences of 4 Men

Gov. Romney has commuted the life sentences of four Michigan men, including one from Pontiac, who are serving prison terms for first-degree murder.

The governor's action makes the men eligible for immediate parole consideration, and was taken on the unanimous recommendation of the state parole board.

Those whose sentences were commuted are:

Tom Dennard, 57, of Pontiac, sentenced in 1951 from Oakland County Circuit Court for the fatal stabbing of his wife.

* * *

Alfred L. Smith, 37, of Grand Rapids, sentenced in 1951 from Kent Superior Court for the shotgun death of his wife.

Lukie Duke, 54, of Detroit, sentenced in 1949 from Detroit Recorder's Court for the rifle slaying of another man following an argument in a bowling alley.

* * *

Calvin Giles, 71, of Detroit, sentenced in 1942 from Detroit Recorder's Court for the barroom pistol slaying of another man following an argument.

All four are in Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson.

Three Judges Set for Pageant

Three Pontiac area citizens will serve as judges for the Pontiac Junior Miss Pageant Dec. 2 at Pontiac Northern High School.

Judges will be Mrs. Margaret Demetrak, assistant editor of the Inter-Lake News and Lakeland Tribune; Mrs. Delaroes Donahue, manager of Hudson's Hair Fashions Salon at the Pontiac Mall; and Fred V. Beaudoen, history teacher and president-elect of West Bloomfield Education Association.

Senior girls between the ages of 16 and 19 from the Pontiac area are eligible to compete for the Junior Miss title, sponsored by the Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce.

This is not a beauty contest. Scholastic ability and mental alertness count most toward the title, along with poise and personality, physical fitness and creative talent.

* * *

The winner will receive $250 in scholarships, with $100 in scholarships going to the first runner-up, in addition to merchandise awards donated by local firms.

Entry forms may be obtained at LaVergne's Hair Fashions, 887 Woodward. The deadline for entry is next Monday.

Four Deserters Say GIs Oppose Fighting

MOSCOW (AP) — Four U.S. sailors who deserted the carrier Intrepid in Japan told the Soviet public today that a majority of American servicemen do not want to fight in Vietnam.

A Soviet "peace committee" looking after the four said they are "resting" in Moscow but declined to give their whereabouts or future plans or to allow foreign newsmen to talk with them.

* * *

The four young men said on Moscow television Monday night they deserted in protest against U.S. policy in Vietnam. They are Richard D. Bailey, 19, of Jacksonville, Fla.; John Michael Barilla, 20, of Catonsville, Md.; Craig W. Anderson, 20, of San Jose, Calif., and Michael Lindner, 19, of Mount Pocono, Pa.

The U.S. Embassy said it has no intention of trying to contact the deserters or inquiring about them. A spokesman said the embassy plans to ignore them.

PRAVDA INTERVIEW

In an interview today in Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper, the sailors said they would go on to other countries to continue their work against "the inhuman war in Vietnam." They did not say which countries.

The four young Americans

jumped ship Oct. 24 while the Intrepid was in Japan for a recreation stay after a tour bombing North Vietnam.

A Japanese peace group which looked after the deserters said they went to the Soviet Union because they apparently did not consider Japan neutral in the Vietnam war.

"I think the majority of Americans do not want to fight in Vietnam," Barilla told Pravda. "But many of them lack decisiveness. They are drafted and they "do their duty."

Ferency Likely to Quit Nov. 28

LANSING (UPI) — Zolton Ferency, maverick Democratic state chairman, is expected to announce his resignation Nov. 28.

Ferency's plans to resign are a result of recent pressure from other party leaders who are critical of his call for Democrats to rally around a liberal peace candidate to oppose President Johnson in 1968.

* * *

Plane Pirated; Owner Just Wants Pilots

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP) — The owner of a plane which was hijacked at gunpoint and flown to Havana says, "The Cubans can have the plane....as long as I get my two boys back."

The pilot, J. V. Raymond, 35, of Pompano Beach radioed that a passenger pulled a gun on him Monday over South Florida.

* * *

"There is a man aboard with a gun and he intends to take this plane to Havana....and that's exactly what he's going to do," Raymond told the Federal Aviation Agency in Miami.

He described the hijacker as Russian but George Nesmith, owner of the Crescent Air Taxi Service plane, said the man's nationality was not determined.

Action Put Off Until '68 on Boat, Trailer Proposal

BIRMINGHAM — Action on a proposed ordinance aimed at controling the storage of boats and trailers was deferred by the City Commission last night until early next year.

* * *

The commission referred the proposal back to the administration for redrafting and clarification of portions of the ordinance.

Commissioners will reconsider the proposal at their Jan. 2 meeting.

"The ordinance would place restrictions on the parking and storage of boats, boat trailers and house trailers, particularly in residential areas.

* * *

In other business, the commission rejected a proposal from the Birmingham-Bloomfield Chamber of Commerce to place an attendant in the municipal parking lot at Pierce and Merrill.

USE OF METERS

The administration recommended that the use of meters be continued since the lot will be shut down after the first of year so construction can begin on a parking structure on the site.

The commission gave permission to the Birmingham-Bloomfield Teen Center to construct and maintain a yuletide fireplace on the mall in Shain Park.

Irate parents of five students who were recently suspended from Seaholm High School for smoking will have their say before the Birmingham Board of Education tonight at 8 p.m. in the Baldwin School Gym.

* * *

The five families requested they be heard since their five daughters were among eight girls suspended for suspicion of smoking.

JOINT LETTER

In their joint letter to board President Pell Hollingshead, the parents said they desired to discuss the controversial rule which permits the school to take disciplinary action even when students are only suspected of smoking or are carrying cigarettes.

Damage Put at $100,000 in Area Blaze

Damage to the Piety Hill Apartments now under construction in Birmingham caused by a fire Friday night was estimated at well over $100,000 by Fire Marshall Harvey Renshaw.

Fire erupted in the building's fifth floor about 7 p.m. Friday. The $1 million block-square building is at Southfield and Brown.

* * *

Evidence of structural steel damage pushed the damage estimate up and will probably delay the scheduled opening of the building which was to have been in the near future, he said.

Smoke and water damage was throughout the five-story structure, he added. The cause of the fire is still undetermined.

Tonight's Agenda for City Is Routine

City commissioners face mostly routine business at their 7:30 meeting tonight.

The commission is scheduled to consider final approval for nine street paving projects, discuss the possibility of allowing merchants to have outside speakers in the downtown area during Christmas and consider purchase of a house on South Johnson for expansion of Pontiac General Hospital.

The commission also will hold hearings on four sanitary sewer projects and installation of water mains and sidewalks.

City Youth Gets Life in Slaying of Girl

Found guilty last month of beating his 15-year-old girlfriend to death, Porfidio (Junior) Acosta this morning was sentenced to a mandatory life prison term.

* * *

Acosta, 19, of 307 Ferry was convicted by an Oakland County Circuit Court jury of first degree murder in the slaying of Linda Darlene Arnold of 142 Clifford.

Under law, first-degree murder is punishable by life imprisonment, with no chance for parole unless the sentence is commuted by the governor.

The sentence was imposed by Judge William R. Beasley who presided at Acosta's four-day trail.

* * *

The girl, reportedly a runaway from home a week before her death, was found by police early the morning of July 7 at the rear of Acosta's home.

The prosecutor contended that she was killed when she rejected Acosta's advances.

'I AM APPALLED'

Waterford Education Association President Mrs. Ladeen Floyd also offered remarks after election results were in:

"I am appalled at the loss of faith that the community has evidenced in this vote," Mrs. Floyd said. "Having searched for the answer and fully realizing that we are pressed on all sides by financial burden, it is difficult to believe that our citizens place education at the bottom of the priority lists.

"It will now be up to this same community to find enough teachers to staff the schools with the adjustments that will have to be made.

"Few teachers will be able to remain under such conditions," continued Mrs. Floyd. "On behalf of our teachers, we will ask the immediate assistance of the National Education Association for placement services elsewhere."

Prior to yesterday's defeat, district voters had passed 26 of 34 millage and bond issue proposals since 1946.

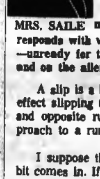
Plane Fact Is That Her Slip Is Showing

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Jean Saile, a Pontiac Press reporter, mother of six children and wife of a commercial artist, is learning how to fly an airplane. This is the 12th in a series.)

By JEAN SAILE

"It happens to everybody. Don't let it get you down."

That's what Lawson Letzring, the flying instructor, said following probably the worst hour of my whole flying course.



We were doing landings and takeoffs, and wind conditions called for use of the short runway at Oakland-Pontiac Airport.

There was a crosswind. That meant using a slip, which had been investigated in the lesson previously and supposedly learned, for landing.

Letzring had earlier needed to impress on MRS. SAILE me so keenly that the plane is normal flight responds with very little pressure, that I was — and remain — unready for the amount of pressure needed on the rudder and on the ailerons to go into a slip.

A slip is a lot of hard work — that is what it is. It is in effect slipping the plane into the wind by the use of aileron and opposite rudder, and it should provide a straight approach to a runway in a crosswind.

* * *

I suppose this is where the female element of this whole bit comes in. If anyone even looks like they're going to help me out, I'm only too willing to let them.

CONTROLLED SITUATION

The dual controls — which we discussed once before — lead themselves to this kind of a situation.

Coming in for a landing is, as far as I'm concerned, pretty vital business, but on the other hand I know the instructor isn't going to let me kill myself or him.

What he did do during this lesson was to let me run off the runway and scatter up the dirt on the leeward side.

I'll use my ground rudder control more effectively from now on as a result of it.

SLOPPY PATTERN

And then there was the next landing. We had slopped around the landing pattern — with me forgetting just about everything I'd learned out in the practice area.

It's the sheer volume of the amount to remember that threw me, and if I inadvertently forget one item, I was thrown for the rest of the pattern.

We were on final approach to the runway. My altitude was questionable. My flight path was off, and things really looked pretty awful.

A quick check of the instruments revealed just one reading correctly.

WITH THE TRIMMINGS

"Hey, I'm trimmed for an 80 mile-per-hour cruising speed," I exulted.

"It wasn't worth it," said Letzring in what was probably his first statement registering disgust since I've started to fly.

I note I'm going to have to slip the airplane onto the runway. I see that the wrong wheel is going to hit first, but what can I do about it?

I know what I'm SUPPOSED to do about it. I'm supposed to level out the airplane.

PUFF OF RUBBER

But SUPPOSED TO and CAN are two entirely unrelated items at this point. I see the puff of burnt rubber come up.

What really makes me angry is that the things I was doing right in the practice area, I am now doing wrong in the landing pattern.

I get so busy flipping switches and cutting power and turning and trimming and putting on flaps that I forget what the ultimate object is.

"Don't worry about it," said Letzring. "We won't let you solo until you're ready for it."

Hah!

Rezoning of Supervisor's Land Rejected

By JEAN SAILE

ADDISON TOWNSHIP — A split vote of the Township Board last night denied the rezoning to light industry of 154 acres belonging to Supervisor Billy Van Arsdel.

The decision followed an oft-times spirited public hearing with Clerk Robert McCallum presiding after Van Arsdel's voluntary vacating of the position.

McCallum was the only member to vote for rezoning. A motion to deny the petition was made by Treasurer Donald Hickmott and seconded by Trustee Adam Lupp. Trustee Elmer Powell voted with the majority.

The decision was announced following a short executive session called by the board after the presentation of viewpoints by some 100 residents who jammed the township hall for the public hearing.

* * *

Stated opinions against such rezoning for Van Arsdel's 154 acres at the corner of Lakeville and Hosner Roads were in the majority.

They included:

- While industry is bound to come to the township, it should be controlled by a master plan—not "spot zoning."
- Van Arsdel's ownership of the land could constitute "conflict of interest" — an allegation denied by the supervisor.
- "We don't want to change the agricultural character of the community. Industry could lead to eventual water and air pollution."
- By rezoning before learning the intended occupant of the land, the township board would have no guarantee of what type light industry would be introduced.
- Additional tax base provided by such rezoning might be used up in providing additional services such as sewers, police and fire protection.

* * *

- A heavily industrial community does not necessarily guarantee good schools.

The last opinion was expressed in rebuttal to Hiram Terry, former Oxford School Board member. The Oxford district includes much of Addison.

Terry said, "We have a very definite school tax problem. In ten years we've slipped 4 per cent farther into debt. It's a proven fact that in a community where there is no industry, residences will not support the schools.

* * *

"Our enrollment is increasing. If the trend continues it is possible that we might have to build six or seven classrooms a year."

Oxford Township Supervisor Lee Valentine, introduced by Dr. Robert C. Small, leader of resident opposition, spoke of the need for master planning and cautioned against forming an opinion on individual desires.

"The tendency now is to abolish local government," he said. "We lost control of the roads and very soon the county and state will take over planning if we don't do something about it."

Residents were allowed to speak in three-minute segments, and an altercation arose over the right of others to cede their time to Dr. Small who opened the meeting with a lengthy prepared statement.

Some pointed out previous township zoning to light industry involving 40 acres on Lake George Road, and the allegation was made that the township had failed to control development there.

Last night's meeting saw a statement by Van Arsdel reaffirming his intention to leave the post of supervisor as of Jan. 1.

Trustees Lupp and Powell who along with McCallum and Van Arsdel had threatened resignation last week privately withdrew their statements made at that time.

McCallum, a member of the board for ten years, is the only one who has submitted a written resignation.

* * *

Following last night's meeting — during which several residents expressed faith in the board—Van Arsdel said he would put the rezoning refusal in the hands of his attorney.

GRAVEL MINERS

He said he had been quizzed by gravel miners in the Oxford area in regard to the property. Such usage of the land would also require rezoning from agriculture, according to township zoning laws.

DRIVER CRITICAL — Vincent A. Plummer, 48, of Royal Oak is in critical condition in William Beaumont Hospital today after he apparently lost control of his car and crashed into a bridge pier on I-75 at the Crooks Road overpass in Troy at 1 p.m. yesterday, said police.

Orchard Lake Council Changes Mind About Joining Council of Governments

ORCHARD LAKE — This city will not join the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments (COG), at least as long as COG retains its present form.

This was the essence of council opinion last night in approving 5-1 a resolution to withdraw the city's original resolution of intent to join. Councilman John C. Hall cast the lone dissenting vote.

Orchard Lake, like some 185 other local governmental units in the six-county area of Southeast Michigan, had previously indicated a willingness to join the council of governments.

The council of governments, slated to become operational Jan. 1, is to be a voluntary organization of local governments working as a cooperative association.

* * *

COG is to be financed by an annual schedule of dues. Orchard Lake's membership fee would have been $100 a year.

BRIEF DISCUSSION

Last night's action followed relatively brief discussion of what the motion to withdraw ought to say.

Most council members indicated that the question of COG membership would be considered again after the State legislature defines COG and its scope and priorities.

William R. Allen, 5099 Commerce, head of the 14-member Orchard Lake Citizens Committee, said recent debate of the COG issue has indicated that people don't want COG in any hands but those of elected officials.

* * *

In other business, S. F. Leahy was elected to his fourth term as mayor. Everette R. Casey was elected as mayor pro tem.

NEW ORDINANCE

A new ordinance was introduced last night. The ordinance would permit the creation of special assessment district to finance certain public improvements. Districts could be initiated by the council or residents.

Final action on the ordinance is slated for the next council meeting.

Also last night, the council received a letter from the Oakland County Department of Public Works which offered a "last opportunity" to join the projected Clinton-Oakland Sewer Interceptor system.

* * *

Councilmen indicated the city still did not want sewers and particularly did not want the interceptor with its escalating costs over 30 years.

In still other business, four appointments were made to the board of canvassers. Appointed to terms expiring Dec. 31, 1969 were Paul Fink and Paul Line, while Frank Deemer and Paul Procissi were named to terms expiring Dec. 31, 1971.

Tops Estimate by $361,000

School Budget Is Adopted

ROCHESTER — A budget—up $361,000 from its preliminary estimate — was adopted by the board of education last night. Total figure for the 1967-68 school year is $4,632,093.

Supt. of Schools Douglas Lund said the increase could be attributed to additional staff — much of it made necessary at the new Long Meadow Elementary School — and to pay raises granted employes since the preliminary budget was adopted in April.

The budget leaves a $387,000 deficit, Lund reported. It reflects a better than 15 per cent increase in total costs over the previous year.

A membership report presented last night showed that the district has increased by 509 students more than at this time last year. An increase of 17 since the official "first Friday" enrollment on which state aid is based was noted.

The board last night awarded a bid of $8,789 to Northwest Studio of Detroit to curtain the stage of the new auditorium now being constructed at the Senior High School.

Lund said he expected the auditorium — part of a $1.1-million package with a new high school pool and elevated walkway — should be ready for occupancy about Jan. 1.

He said the pool, delayed because of water seepage at its base, would likely not be ready for use until May. The seepage problem, he reported, has been corrected.

The senior high school choir will contribute $1,100 and the board $968 for the purchase of new choir jackets and skirts for its members.

Landmark's Fate Is Pondered

BIRMINGHAM — What is going to be the fate of Birmingham's 98-year-old Hill School building now that construction has begun on a new $675,000 building to house the board of education offices?

Is the building with its Victorian arched windows to be preserved as an architectural gem?

Or is it to be torn down because it's considered an eyesore?

Opinions differ.

* * *

Many residents think the red brick former schoolhouse with its traditional bell tower is ugly.

SPACE DESIRED

Some school officials want the space it occupies for an expanded playground for the Baldwin School which is adjacent to the Hill Building on Chester.

But the Birmingham Historical Society wants to save it — at least the original portion facing on Chester, said a member and former President Garvin Bawden Jr.

In a letter to the Birmingham Board of Education in February, Bawden, then president, outlined a proposal which he and the society hope still might be adopted.

* * *

"The idea is to raze only the portion at the rear and a garage which were added to the 1869 building.

CAN EXPAND PLAYGROUND

"This way the Baldwin playground can be expanded into the area where the addition was removed to compensate for the space lost to the new board of education offices which are going up along Merrill," said Bawden.

"The plan is to use the original structure for nonschool community functions — maybe even housing the Chamber of Commerce offices, our offices — it could be used in a manner similar to the Community House," explained Bawden.

He added that the present president, James J. Flack also favored the idea which Bawden himself initiated.

He also noted that a group of Seaholm High School students last spring formed a committee under Karen Pritchard called the "Students for the Preservation of the Hill School Building."

FINANCIAL AID NEEDED

"We can't save the venerable building by ourselves," claimed Bawden. "We need either private financial backing or perhaps to have the city declare it a public building."

The old three-story red brick Hill building was put up in 1869 at a cost of $14,000 replacing Birmingham's first brick one-room schoolhouse on West Maple at Southfield, according to a historical account compiled by former Supt. Clarence Vliet.

It was named after a Presbyterian minister, Rev. S. N. Hill, and Prof. David Bemis was the first principal. The first class of one (Edward Bodine) graduated in 1880.

* * *

The Hill School remained as the city's high school until 1918 when the Baldwin School was opened.

HISTORICAL PLAQUE

Bawden said that the society put a historical plaque on the side of the building in 1966 dating the building to 1861, which according to the written history is eight years early.

The school bell which still rests in its quaint tower was rung for the first time on that day (Heritage Day) since the end of World War II, he said.

So the Hill Building, almost a century old, may or may not be a familiar landmark in Birmingham next fall when the new board of education building is scheduled for completion.

Sky at Christ's Birth Will Be Re-Created

EAST LANSING (AP) — The Christmas sky 2,000 years ago and today will be re-created in a holiday program at Michigan State University's Abrams Planetarium beginning Friday.

"The Christmas Star," a traditional planetarium program featuring all new settings this year, will present possible astronomical explanations for the appearance of the Star of Bethlehem, based on accounts from the Bible.

The program, open to the public, will include a view of the sky as it appeared on the first Christmas Day.

Area Men Appointed to Job-Safety Posts

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Romney announced his appointments to the new State Occupational Safety Standards Commission and State Board of Safety Compliance and Appeals.

The two bodies, created within the State Labor Department by the Legislature this year, will set and enforce occupational safety standards and regulations.

Among those appointed to the commission, subject to Senate confirmation, were:

Wendell G. Mouw of 2829 Amberly, Bloomfield Township, president of Royal Oak Tool & Machine Co. (three years); Ralph H. Lieckfield, 3065 Stellmar, Birmingham, vice president of Michigan Mutual Liability Co. (one year); Thomas F. Yarger, of Farmington, regional office supervisor for Hartford Accident & Indemnity Co. (two years).

Romeo Policemen Vote to Join Union

ROMEO — By a vote of 3-0 Romeo's four village policemen are now being represented by a union.

The short 15-minute election yesterday morning was necessary for Metropolitan Council No. 23 to become the bargaining agent for the policemen, said Village Clerk Norman Engel.

"This means that following certification of the election within a week or two, we will probably begin negotiating a contract with them," said Engel. "Previously, of course, they hadn't been under a union contract."

He added that the village had no extra money on hand at the present time if wage increase demands entered the picture.

The election resulted because of the refusal by the Village Council recently, in a 4-2 vote, to recognize the bargaining agent, he explained.

4 Women Reelected to Hospital Unit Posts

ALMONT — At the annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Almont Community Hospital, Mrs. James Smith of Almont, Mrs. Franklin O'Connor of Armada, Mrs. James Smith of Almont and Mrs. Walter Parsons of Lakeville were reelected to serve another three years as board members.

A spokesman noted that the success of a recent fund drive assured the continuation of the nursing scholarship program.

Highway Projects Audited in Progress

LANSING (AP) — The State Highway Department reports it has started auditing all construction contracts from the time the work begins until it is completed.

It marks the first time the projects have been audited while in progress.

* * *

Charles Chambers State Highway Commission auditor, said the continuing financial and performance audits are intended to make sure that payments to contractors are made only for work specified in the contracts.

* * *

An attorney general's probe of the department uncovered numerous alleged illegal overpayments to contractors. Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley's office currently has started suits to try and collect some of the reported overpayments.

Avondale Schools Make Land Swap

A land swap to increase acreage at the site of Stone Elementary School, 3941 S. Adams, Pontiac Township, was approved last night by the Avondale Board of Education.

The board within the last month had purchased five acres in the area of the school at a cost of $18,000. It held a tentative agreement with Alfred H. Miller, 3791 S. Adams, to trade that five acres for another five which Miller owned adjacent to the school.

The swap will increase the Stone Property to about nine acres, which will allow room for further expansion, according to Schools Supt. John W. Dickey.

Southfield Twp. Picks Bingham as Supervisor

Carson C. Bingham of 3251 S. Bingham, Bingham Farms, has been named by the Southfield Township Board to succeed Hugh Allerton Jr., who died Oct. 17, as supervisor.

Bingham, whose term will expire Nov. 20, 1970, was elected by the board from among five candidates, said Clerk Fannie Adams. She said it took five ballots to elect Bingham since a 4-3 majority was needed.

SOMEBODY GOOFED — According to written historical accounts, the venerable Hill Building in Birmingham, almost a century old, was built in 1869. However, the plaque put up by the Historical Society in 1966 reads differently.

Rusk Briefs Romney for World Trip

LANSING (AP) — After his first foray into Washington as a declared Republican presidential candidate, Gov. George Romney was to be back in Lansing today attending to state affairs.

The governor was in Prsident Johnson's bailiwick yesterday for a television interview and closed briefings by State Department officials in preparation for a three-week trip to Europe, the Mideast and Southeast Asia next month.

At the State Department, Romney met briefly with Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

The governor told newsmen later he received very kind and gracious treatment and "I was given information I asked for. I have no complaint about it."

* * *

answers on how to end the war in Vietnam and said, "this is one of the reasons I am going abroad.

In earlier statements, Romney has proposed neutralization of North and South Vietnam—a plan he says would "defuse the war."

Romney made it clear yesterday that he considers Richard M. Nixon his No. 1 target in the race for the GOP nomination.

A weekend Gallup Poll lists Nixon as the choice of 42 per cent of the nation's rank-and-file Republicans. Gov. Nelson Rockefeller is favored by 15 per cent and Romney by 14 per cent.

The Michigan governor acknowledged that "Nixon has more support than anyone else," but Romney contended that being the underdog will help him.

MOVE QUICKLY

Romney, who threw his hat in the ring Saturday, is expected to move quickly into the New Hampshire primary campaign when he returns from his overseas trip.

He said a defeat in New Hampshire's March primary would not be fatal to him because he is the underdog. On the other hand, Romney said, a victory in that primary is more vital to Nixon's hopes.

Romney, who has pledged to lead the country out of the Vietnam war, gave indirect support to President Johnson's bombing policy earlier in the day on NBC's "Today" show, saying a halt in the bombing would be unwise without knowing in advance it would lead to a worthwhile result.

The governor did take a crack at Johnson's economic stewardship, charging the country is in a "fiscal mess," and he said he would not support a tax increase without controls on federal spending.

Talking to newsmen after the broadcast interview, Romney said his use of the term "brainwashing" had hurt him because, he said, of the way it was presented by the press.

His standing in the public opinion polls dropped after he charged on a Detroit television show that he had supported an earlier commitment to South Vietnam because he got a "brainwashing" from American generals and diplomats.

Romney accused the national press of doing "a superficial job on what I've said." And this, he contended, led to accusations he has been inconsistent, particularly on Vietnam.

But the only change in his thinking, said Romney, was to withdraw his support for original American involvement in Vietnam.

By brainwashing, Romney said he meant that the Administration was trying to shape news and attitudes, and was not telling the truth about Vietnam, the budget and other issues.

The governor's political strategists, also conceding they lag in the polls, hope Romney's political stock will rise now that he has formally entered the race.

His announcement Saturday came six weeks or more ahead of the time candidates traditionally disclose their intentions.

But some politicians say if Romney starts an aggressive campaign now, he runs the risk of losing momentum before the GOP convention in Miami Beach, Fla.) next August.

'Board' Gives Doctor Soft Treatment

The strange case of Dr. Ronald E. Clark, the Farmington Township physician charged with manslaughter in the death of his part-time nurse and under suspicion in the deaths of a former employe and several patients, reflects a dim light on the State Board of Registration in Medicine.

DR. CLARK

What makes it so strange is that a doctor who had been investigated repeatedly by the license board, whose license had been twice revoked and then returned, convicted of practicing without a license and of assault and battery on a patient, could still enjoy the legal right to practice medicine.

Apologists for the state board declare that the 1889 Act under which it functions does not grant sufficient control over licensing and that proposals to the State Legislature to revise it are being prepared.

As for the case in point, the explanation strikes us as an exercise in responsibility ducking.

The board obviously had the authority to revoke Clark's license, as it twice did, and to initiate investigative procedures affecting him. Where the board failed in its duty to the people of Michigan was by reinstating the physician to professional good standing after having previously determined that he was unsuited for such status.

Written laws have little value unless implemented by those charged with enforcing them. We think the State Board of Registration in Medicine needs not so much new laws as a policy of stricter enforcement of those it now has.

Trade Tariff Rates Have Their Ups and Downs

Liberalized world trade vs. protectionism has always been a sticky issue in highly industrialized nations. And the two forces are about to renew their antagonism when President Johnson issues an expected proclamation putting into effect on Jan. 1, 1968 the tariff cuts negotiated at Geneva under the "Kennedy round" earlier in the year.

Congress five years ago gave President Kennedy authority to negotiate tariff cuts up to 50 per cent with 52 other countries. The House passed the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, 298-125, after exhaustive hearings. The vote in the Senate was 78 to 8. Reflecting an average tariff cut of 35 per cent, Kennedy called it the most important economic legislation since the Marshall plan.

★ ★ ★

But now, in the face of 30 years of movement toward ever-freer trade, Congress seems in a contradictory protectionist mood.

Out of the 100 Senators, 90 are now sponsoring bills that would limit imports under a quota system. The movement would affect $6.4 billion of imports. U.S. exports would be pinched by at least an equal amount.

During the first nine months of 1967 we exported — exclusive of military and grant aid programs — at an annual rate of better than $31 billion. Imports were $26.6 billion. But protectionists charge that the Commerce Department deflates import values by approximately 10 per cent by using the f.o.b. (free on board) basis in determining valuations rather than the c.i.f. (cost-insurance-freight) basis used by most nations.

★ ★ ★

Most of the quota bills probably will not reach the White House this year. President Johnson already has vowed that "these protectionist bills are not going to become law so long as I am President."

An exporter has traditionally viewed foreign tariff in the same light as a legislator regards government spending: Let's cut it — so long as it doesn't affect me.

Science Sees Husband as 'Occupational Loser'

Most marriage counselors agree that connubial arguments are often good for clearing the air. But there can be too much of a good thing.

A study at the University of Michigan Institute for Social Research has discovered that the woman who fights with her husband may develop rheumatoid arthritis because of "resentment and depression." The husband who fights with his wife is more apt to develop peptic ulcer because of "unmet needs for emotional support."

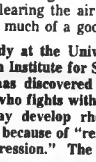
Father always pays, however. In families with "significantly less domestic hostility," the rheumatoid arthritis was found in the husband.

In other and simpler words, the Old Man has always two marital strikes on him.

Romney Race Car Needs Patching

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON — George Romney, the onetime automaker, is going to have to patch up his old car or build a brand new one if he hopes for a chance among other Republicans racing for the GOP presidential nomination.



MARLOW

The Michigan governor proved he thinks he has a chance by formally announcing his candidacy last week. He was the second Republican to do so. Earlier last week Harold Stassen, who never takes no for an answer, also announced.

But the candidate-image Romney has been presenting incessantly but informally for many months looks a little dilapidated in the public opinion polls. At one time they showed him leading all his party's would be candidates.

This might seem a little discouraging to anyone but Romney. While he has been running around like a man with an 8-cylinder engine, feeling pulses and seeking support, Rockefeller has steadily insisted he doesn't want the nomination.

★ ★ ★

Romney has put four kinds of nails in his tires: By contradicting himself, his vagueness on national issues, being insufficiently informed on them, and by boners, like saying U.S. officials "brainwashed" him in Vietnam.

HARDLY SPECIFIC

The vagueness was conspicuous Saturday when he made his announcement. He hardly said anything more specific than, "One who aspires to the presidency should be confident he can be useful and capable of providing the needed leadership."

Then Sunday he was questioned by newsmen when he appeared on CBS television's "Face the Nation." He started out saying he thought he could do better than President Johnson in finding a solution to the Vietnamese war.

After that he didn't have an easy time with the newsmen who wanted to find out why he thought so. He was reminded there has been a lot of caustic doubt about his ability to rise and shine in the presidency.

Romney replied that if anyone checked his statements on Vietnam, all the way back, he would find the governor had been consistent except when "I stated frankly . . . that I had changed my mind."

HIS SOLUTION

Sunday he offered a solution for the Vietnamese war, a quite different one from his earlier days when he was all for bombing North Vietnam. This time he said Vietnam should be neutralized.

When pressed to explain he didn't go beyond saying the neutralizing should be done by some international group. How? He said this group would have to persuade the Vietnamese neutralization was the best thing for them.

Then he explained he is in the process of studying the problem. But, judging from his past performance, if he studies the problem enough he may change his mind.

★ ★ ★

This was at the root of his Sept. 4 statement about changing his mind on Vietnam. At that time he said the change came after he had delved into a history of that country.

This could be interpreted as meaning he had never been well informed — until he read a history — on a problem he had been talking about with great positiveness for a couple of years.

Bulling His Way!

Capital Letter:

TV: Reagan's Path to Success?

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON—John Fitzgerald Kennedy was our first president to owe his election to television.

Until the evening of Sept. 26, 1960, he was badly trailing his GOP opponent in public opinion polls and having difficulty attracting campaign crowds.

Ruth Montgomery

Then came the first of four televised Nixon-Kennedy debates. The good-looking young man with the candid blue eyes, the unruly mop of brown hair, the fresh face and brilliant grasp of issues enchanted his nationwide audience, and the tide began to turn.

Should Ronald Reagan confound the experts by winning the '68 GOP nomination and go on to victory in November, he would become the second president to owe his election to the electronics marvel called television.

The average man-in-the-street could scacely have identified a picture of Sen. Jack Kennedy prior to his presidential bid in 1960, but Reagan already has the built-in advantage of instant voter recognition, thanks to his movie and television careers.

★ ★ ★

The most widely discussed speech of the '64 campaign was the nationally televised one by Reagan, in behalf of Barry Goldwater's candidacy.

HANDSOME 'NEW FACE'

Like JFK, Reagan came across on TV as a handsome "new face" politically, and as a sincere speaker who knew what he was talking about.

This ability to "project" subsequently won him the California governorship, as well as his current status as a presidential "favorite son."

Both JFK and Reagan have been fortunate to possess that elusive quality known as "telegenics." You either have it or you don't, and Newsweek magazine wrote of Reagan: He has an "unmatched ability to convince people that the honest face they see on their TV screens is an accurate reflection of the inner man."

It is perhaps unfortunate that presidents should be chosen on the basis of their television performances, but as Madison Avenue would say, That's the way the cookie sometimes crumbles."

PROJECTED BETTER

Kennedy defeated Richard M. Nixon by only two-tenths of one per cent of the popular vote.

Even his most loyal partisans concede that the scales were tipped his way because he projected so much better on TV than his opponent, whose heavily bearded jowls had a five o'clock-shadow look on the sensitive tube.

It is doubtful that television influenced the '64 contest. LBJ was then a new incumbent who had succeeded a martyred president, and he had Congress eating out of his hand, whereas Barry Goldwater gave the impression on the political stump of being "trigger-happy" about Vietnam.

Bob Considine Says:

Israel Is Not in a Mood to Yield Captured Land

JERUSALEM — No more than 10 minutes are needed to convince a visitor that, if denied iron-clad assurances, Israel is determined to hold on to her new frontiers—come hell, high water or another Russian implemented attack.

CONSIDINE

The only democracy in this part of the world is fed up with the U.N., which served as its midwife during its birth, and with the ruptured pledges and patronizing pats on the head by western powers, including the United States.

★ ★ ★

This time, after whipping its Arab taunters for the third time in 20 years, Israel feels muscular enough to demand realistic promissory notes from both friends and foes.

Until they are forthcoming, Israel will not yield an inch of conquered Egyptian, Jordanian and Syrian land three times the size of prewar Israel.

Apparently no security pledge from any source would persuade Israel to give up the three natural frontiers its forces won last June in six torrid days of preventive warfare.

★ ★ ★

These are the east bank of the Suez Canal, the west bank of the River Jordan and the commanding Golan Heights from whose crags Syrian gunners shelled the Kibbutzim in the valley for years.

BROAD TERMS

Israeli officials from Prime Minister Levi Eshkol down generally have difficulty spelling out the type or types of assurances now demanded, except in the broadest terms. But one new and striking suggestion can be heard around Jerusalem's spanking new houses of government. It concerns the United States and roughly sketched is as follows:

Israel would like the United States Senate to pass a resolution (or something stronger) "guaranteeing" American aid and interest — though no American troops.

This measure, it is felt here, would make the American "presence" definable in this region, and thus counterbalance the Soviet Union's campaign of controlled chaos.

A guarantee of this nature would give Israel another arsenal from which to buy arms when and as needed. France has been the only arms market available to the Israelis to date.

★ ★ ★

No one here has a clue as to how the Senate could formulate such a position. But the reason behind this unusual proposal is plain: Israel wants a U.S. guarantee of a more enduring nature than a transitory American president's well-wishes.

Reader Expresses View on Fair Housing Law

I favor the fair housing law for Michigan. The only valid reason for not permitting a person to buy or rent a house should be his inability to pay. Exclusion for any other reason is anti-Christian and anti-democratic. God created all men equal and the Constitution states that all men should have equal rights under the law.

'Will Government Break All Monopolies?'

The Government talks vaguely about a suit to break up General Motors. Will there also be a suit to break up President Johnson's TV monopoly in Austin, Texas? And will there be a suit to break up the monopoly the UAW union has on automobile workers? GM hasn't any monopoly. Ask Ford, Chrysler and American Motors. LBJ and the UAW actually have.

I was appalled to read about two socially prominent women of Bloomfield Hills having a brawl. One can expect people living in the slums to settle their grievances in this manner, as they are unable to afford a lawyer, but the well-heeled folks of Bloomfield Hills are able to have their attorneys take care of their legal problems.

Rationale for Vietnam Isn't New

By BRUCE BIOSSAT

WASHINGTON (NEA) President Johnson's critics on the war like to say that he keeps changing the administrations argument for U.S. participation in Vietnam.

BIOSSAT

According to the newest critical comment from dovish Democratic senators and others, the President, Vice President Humphrey, Secretary of State Rusk and other top officers have only in the past month and a half stressed the "national interest" and the danger from Red China as reasons for our presence.

The critics' assertions look curious when set beside the record of administration utterance as it was uttered almost from the beginning of our heavy entry into the fighting.

At a televised news conference July 28, 1965, wherein the President announced a big war step-up, higher draft calls and other moves, he said the war was spurred by Red China whose goal is conquest of Southeast Asia to "extend the Asiatic dominion of communism."

If we did not help to stop it, he foresaw this:

"In each land, the force of independence would be considerably weakened, and an Asia so threatened by Communist domination would certainly imperil the security of the United States itself."

Five months earlier and only a few weeks after we had begun bombing North Vietnam, the White House — answering a criticism of U.S. actions by U.N. Secretary General U Thant — said:

"We conduct our policies, within our commitments to the rest of the world, in what we consider the best interests of the United States."

Endlessly in the months thereafter, the President, Humphrey, Rusk and Defense Secretary McNamara presented our heightened military activity in Vietnam as part of a broader policy of preserving world freedom.

★ ★ ★

It is not plausible for the President's critics to suggest that he and his key men were talking about everybody's freedom except our own.

The President's speech in Baltimore on April 7, 1965, is well-remembered as voicing U.S. readiness to negotiate a peace. But he also said:

"Over this war and all Asia is another reality — the deepening shadow of Communist China. The rulers in Hanoi are urged on by Peiping, a regime which . . . is helping the forces of violence in almost every continent."

On May 13 of that year Johnson said in a nationally televised speech that Red China's target was both to dominate all Asia and "to erode and to discredit America's ability to help prevent such Chinese domination."

★ ★ ★

Rusk, on June 23, said he could not understand Hanoi's aversion to peace talks with the United States since "they too, fear the ambitions of Communist China in Southeast Asia."

This refrain from high administration sources can be documented again and again through 1965 and thereafter.

Yet, when Rusk hit that theme on Oct. 12, 1967, war critics saw the administration "suddenly" depicting Red China as the enemy. Some, like Minnesota's Sen. Eugene McCarthy, even confused Rusk's October utterance with talk of the "yellow peril," a reference to racist slogans used by now forgotten U.S. superpatriots to stir fears of "China's hordes" decades ago.

The critics' "yellow peril" gambit quickly fell flat. Unless they chooose to plead faulty memory, so should their ill-founded contention that the administration is offering a tricky new rationale for the war. In fact, it is as old as February 1965.

Investigatory Council Asked in State Open Housing Law

LANSING (AP) — A Wayne County Republican suggests the proposed open housing law provide for a semipermanent legislative council to investigate, evaluate and determine the effectiveness of such a law.

★ ★ ★

The council also would make recommendations to the Legislature's civil rights committees for revisions or additions to the law when needed, Henry R. Sladek, chairman of the Wayne County Republican Committee, said Monday.

Sladek made the suggestion in testimony before a bipartisan, joint committee named by legislative leaders and Gov. George Romney to work out an agreement on an open housing bill while the Legislature is adjourned.

The council would consist of eight members appointed proportionately from both houses on a bipartisan basis. It would have an initial life of two years, renewable only by joint action of both houses.

'PERSONAL CONCERN'

Sladek said he was appearing before the committee "because of my personal concern that present circumstances as such may cause an extensive delay in enactment of a fair housing law or even worse, nonpassage."

"Now, and before present widespread attention wanes, is the right time to exercise every justifiable and practical means to reach legislative and public acceptance of a fair housing law," he said.

★ ★ ★

The creation of the council, he said, would provide a safeguard to insure individual rights and "would be a means for the legislative body to have continual feedback on the law."

The law, he said, "must be most meticulous in assuring everyone their individual rights as a citizen."

KEY TO ACCEPTANCE

"I believe this is the philosophical and emotional key to public acceptance no matter what a person's present stand 'pro or con' on this issue may be," he added.

He said the proposed law now contains technical defects on which the party cannot agree. Nor can the party agree with provisions that permit the Civil Rights Commission having so much power, he added.

★ ★ ★

Surveys indicate public disapproval of open housing, he added.

Sladek said he has not talked to a single legislator who has indicated he was opposed to open housing as such.

Court Erases Reagan's Cuts in Health Care

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — California Gov. Ronald Reagan planned to meet with key legislators today to determine what action to take on the state Supreme Court's ruling that his administration's controversial Medi-Cal cutbacks were illegal.

Reagan indicated Monday he may call a special session of the legislature to deal with the problem which he says may force the state to take free medical care away from 160,000 needy Californians.

★ ★ ★

The governor was obviously angered by the high court decision, which invalidated the cutbacks designed to save $210 million in Medi-Cal costs this fiscal year.

COURT BLAMED

Reagan said the court "... has substituted its policy views for those of our medical experts and must now bear the burden for disruption of the Medi-Cal program."

Democratic Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh has already served notice he will oppose a special session unless the governor agrees to consideration of payroll deduction of state income taxes.

Copters Lift 20 From Hill 875

61 Wounded GIs Still Stranded

FIRE SUPPORT BASE 16, Near Dak To, South Vietnam (AP) — U.S. rescue helicopters whirled through North Vietnamese machine gun and mortar fire today to lift 20 seriously wounded U.S. paratroopers from Hill 875 where they had lain surrounded by Red gunners for as much as 48 hours.

At least 61 American wounded were still stranded on the hill tonight.

★ ★ ★

Shooting from virtually bombproof bunkers in the side of the hill, the enemy repeatedly drove off medical helicopters attempting to land. Ten choppers had been hit and disabled since the battle, one of the fiercest of the war, erupted Sunday.

In addition to the 86 officially reported wounded, 71 men of the 173rd Airborne Brigade's 2nd Battalion were reported killed Sunday and Monday. At least 20 of these died Sunday when a bomb from a U.S. plane mistakenly dropped into the tiny perimeter about 300 yards from the crest of the hill.

UNDER STRENGTH

The 2nd Battalion, under strength to begin with was joined Monday night by three companies of the 4th Battalion which marched across the valley floor from a fire support base a mile and a half away.

An assault by the 4th Battalion, scheduled for midmorning today in an effort to knock out the enemy fire around the landing zone was postponed.

★ ★

Brig. Gen. L. H. Schweiter of Wichita, Kan., the brigade commander, ordered the assault held off while heavy artillery and air support was called in to help soften up the North Vietnamese.

But massive air and artillery strikes during the three days of fighting have apparently taken little toll of the well prepared bunkers and trenches the North Vietnamese built into the side of the hill. Similar emplacements on other hills in the Dak To area have been observed to be as deep as 30 feet underground with five to six feet of earth and log cover.

Looking grim and speaking in hushed tones, Gen. Schweiter told newsmen: "The wounded are my most serious concern at this moment. My heart goes out to them."

Volunteers Get Awards

Eighty-four individuals received recognition for their volunteer service to Pontiac General Hospital at Monday's annual awards luncheon in the Elks Temple.

The event, hosted by the hospital board of trustees, paid tribute to members of the Women's Auxiliary, the American Red Cross, chaplains and non-affiliated volunteers.

Aleck Capsalis, chairman of the Board, presided and presented gold pins with diamond to Mrs. Charles Eilender, Mrs. Edward F. Dalton and Mrs. Arlie Leake.

Mrs. Janet Odell, women's editor of The Pontiac Press, spoke to the group on "Why a Volunteer?"

Honorees who received pins for 1250 or more hours of service are Mesdames Allen Denham, William Matheny, James Fleming, Hagon Kemsuzian, Harold Kendrick and Anthony Peleski.

Others are Mesdames William Dean, Howard Waider, Joseph Belant, Ross Elliott and Ronald Mountain.

You Did Decent, Admirable Thing

Son Should Be Grateful, Proud

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Last January my son went north to get a job. While he was there he phoned to say he had met a "wunderful" girl and they had been married. Naturally we were surprised, but he seemed happy, so we were happy, too.

ABBY

A couple of months later he called to say that he and his wife were splitting up and he was going to join the army, his reason being that his wife was going to have a baby that wasn't his. He said that he knew nothing about her condition when he married her, but she admitted to having known it all along.

* * *

Well, this poor girl called us and said she had no money and nowhere to go and she couldn't go home, so we sent her money and told her to come stay with us until her baby is born.

She's here now, and, Abby, she is really a sweet girl. She plans to give the baby away when it comes. We wrote our son about what we had done, and he was very angry at us and wrote back saying we shouldn't have had anything to do with her.

We keep writing, trying to explain, but he won't answer our letters. Even if it's not our son's baby, it's an innocent child. What is your advice? We can't turn this poor girl out. But will our son ever speak to us again?

A MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: If he doesn't, shame on him. HE found this girl, you didn't, and even though I do not condone her actions, she is a human being. She is also his wife, until they are legally divorced. I think you did the decent and admirable thing. And hopefully so will your son after he cools off and thinks about it for a while.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Do blondes really have more fun? If so, why?

REDHEAD

DEAR REDHEAD: Could it be that they're easier to find in the dark?

* * *

DEAR ABBY: What do you think is going on when a husband suddenly starts signing off his letters with "Regards" after so many years of "Love and Kisses?"

My husband is an air force sergeant and was transferred to the Philippines a few months ago. We have five children and are looking forward to his service retirement so we can have a normal family life.

He doesn't even wish me "Best Regards." Just "Regards."

SINCERELY YOURS, WORRIED

DEAR WORRIED: The next time you write to your husband, tell him that you noticed the change in his "signing off" and ask if there is a reason for it. Let him know that you are delighted with his "Regards," but you'd like to know what happened to his "Love and Kisses."

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Am I engaged or not? This whole situation is very confusing. Here is what happened. Axel left for Vietnam in June. We talked about getting married when he gets home next year. First of September he wrote saying he had bought a set of rings before he left, and if I wanted to become engaged I should write and tell him and he would ask his brother Olaf to drop the rings off at my house. I wrote back, "Yes, have Olaf drop the rings off," so that's what happened.

O. K., so now I have the rings, right? My mother says this is like no engagement she ever heard of before, and I should have waited for Axel to get back and give me the rings himself. I say I don't care who gave me the rings, I am engaged. What do you say?

ENGAGED

DEAR ENGAGED: I say, you're engaged. And congratulations.

'Full Recovery' Is Expected by Gov. L. Wallace

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI) — Gov. Lurleen Wallace said Monday she expects "full recovery" from the cancer which keeps her commuting from the capitol to a Houston clinic for therapy.

"I'm a little bit hoarse, but I feel fine," Mrs. Wallace said in a 10-minute interview marking her resumption of full-time duties for the first time since Nov. 3.

Mrs. Wallace, who underwent surgery for an abdominal malignancy in July, has been returning periodically to the M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute at Houston for cobalt treatments.

* * *

The 40-year-old governor said she would go to Houston "just for a day" Dec. 12 for a routine checkup.

"I have no reason to believe that I will not have a full recovery," she said.

More Research Needed

Doctors Don't Agree on Pill

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — A Temple University scientist said today at least 20 years of extensive research is needed before doctors prescribe use of the controversial birth control pill "without some reservations as to safety."

* * *

Dr. Michael B. Shimkin, who spent 25 years as a cancer researcher for the U.S. Public Health Service, explained: "There is now no evidence that the pill is harmful, but there is also no evidence of its complete safety."

* * *

Shimkin spoke at a science writers' seminar at Temple University Health Sciences Center.

The Temple medical school professor said the pill contains estrogen, a female hormone, which has produced breast cancer and leukemia in mice.

* * *

"This does not mean it will produce breast cancer in women," he said, "but does indicate the need for more research before anyone is foolhardy enough to recommend its use without reservations."

"NOT SO"

Challenging Shimkin was Dr. Robert B. Greenblatt of the Georgia Medical School at Augusta.

Greenblatt said hormones do not cause cancer and he suggested use of birth control pills even for women in their early 40s, generally a short time before the menopause.

* * *

He said in these cases, the pill would do double duty — relieve the women of the fear of pregnancy during "that period when she fears it most" and prevent the onset of some of the problems connected with the menopause.

* * *

On Monday, Greenblatt had voiced caution against another Temple Researcher's efforts to seek fertility in women by transplanting parts of ovaries.

The researcher, Dr. Hector A. Castellanos, reported he had transplanted bits of ovaries no bigger than fingertips and found in some cases they successfully produced estrogen and, in two cases, even caused them to menstruate twice.

Greenblatt felt too much work had to be done before Castellanos' method would work on infertility. He thought it preferable to give estrogen by injection rather than surgery.

Sorority Chapter Disciplined; Race Discrimination Is Denied

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. (AP) — The national president of a women's sorority says reports that it put a Michigan college chapter on probation for pledging a Negro are "erroneous and unwarranted."

Mrs. Gustave B. Weck, president of Zeta Tau Alpha, which Lynda Bird Johnson belonged to while at the University of Texas, said Monday the Albion College chapter was placed on probation for violation "of the sorority's by-laws."

* * *

Earlier in the day the school's president announced he was severing the ties between Zeta Tau Alpha and Albion.

Dr. Louis W. Norris, Albion president, said, "We have been forced to take this action because of the refusal of the national organization to remove the probation of the Albion college chapter for its pledging of an Albion student."

NEGRO

Norris avoided directly accusing the sorority of discrimination, but noted that the student over whom the furor arose was a Negro.

Cecelia Williams, a Negro and a junior from New Baltimore, Mich., was pledged in February to Beta Tau, the Albion chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha.

Janice Ballanger, the chapter's president, resigned in protest from the national sorority after the local group was placed on probation.

Mrs. Weck said, "The chapter was disciplined for violation of the sorority's by-laws and procedures and while the violations were serious enough to warrant charter revocations, the executive committee only imposed temporary probation.

* * *

"The Albion chapter violations had occurred over a long period of time and the chapter had been given every fair opportunity to defend itself.

"The violations were several in number and involved internal procedures of the sorority."

Mrs. Weck said her statement was issued "to avoid further erroneous publicity and misinterpretation of the events." She did not disclose the details of the reported violations.

METHODIST

Members of the Albion sorority voted to support Norris in whatever action he took in the case.

Albion College is operated by the Methodist Church and has an enrollment of 1,500.

Jazz Quartet to Play at OU

Jack Brokensha and his exciting Jazz Quartet will give one of their rare concert performances Monday at 8:30 p.m. in Wilson Hall at Oakland University.

* * *

Concentrating on mainstream jazz, the local restaurateur-recording artist-symphony performer who came to us originally from Adelaide, Australia, has built a formal program featuring many of his own works along with the free-wheeling improvisations which have made him a favorite of local jazz aficionados.

A percussionist, Brokensha leads his group from the vibraphone, a refreshing variance from the standard pianoled format of most jazz ensembles. He is assisted by Bess Bonnier, piano, Dan Jordan, bass, and Dick Riordan, drums.

This tiny musical dynamo — he's five foot two standing up very straight — has come a long way from playing xylophone in local Australian vaudeville houses at age six.

By age fourteen he was a member of the South Australian Symphony Orchestra and has since played under such noted maestros as Sir Thomas Beecham, Arturo Toscanini, and Detroit's Sixten Ehrling.

It was during World War II as a member of the Royal Australian Air Force that Brokensha turned to jazz. He formed his first recording group, "The Jack Brokensha Quartet," in 1946, settling in this area in 1954. He has since toured extensively as a lecturer and performer.

Tickets are available at OU.

Children Grow Up in Series of 'Goodbys'

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

DEAR MRS. LAWRENCE: Our 16-year-old girl has had her brown hair bleached and dyed a strawberry blond that makes her look like a hussy. What has upset her father and me is that she had it done secretly so that we couldn't forbid it.

I've tried to explain that it's the influence of all these TV commercials about hair dye. But my husband feels that her disregard of us could be the beginning of more dangerous rebellion . . .

Answer: You're torturing yourselfs, you know, by applying the word "rebellion" to the child's decision to change her hair color.

Sure you are. Your choice of this word is torturing you with its threat of Lord knows how many other imaginary deliances, future rebellions including anything from illegitimate babies to experiments with L&D.

Whereas the actuality is that your child has used this change of hair color, not to defy you, but to declare her hope of someday soon taking control of all her own decisions, of her own life.

Good gracious, you don't want to spend the rest of your lives making decisions for her, do you?

Now let me propose that your "upset" feelings all really boil down to one feeling — sadness.

For us, children's adolescence is primarily a time of sadness. It's filled with a million little "goodbys" to us that we don't recognize. Our 16-year-old daughter, instead of consulting us on a change of hair color, says "goodby" to old dependence on our supportive approval.

Instead of joining us for a family birthday dinner, our teen-aged son takes his girl to a drive-in movie. What occurs to us is a sadness piled up and up by those million little "goodbye" which are preparing us for the final BIG GOODY between us and the children we love.

* * *

It's awfully important to name our feeling accurately. Otherwise, we're only too apt to misjudge it as irritation and resentment.

There's nothing to do about our sadness. We can't move time backwards to the precious lost days of their childhoods when we served as substitutes for God Almighty. But at least we can know we wish we could and are sad because we can't.

Farm Hatches 100,000 Eggs in Incubators

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Frank Porter never runs out of eggs at his house. The 73-year-old owner of the Glenbrook Valley Game Farm has 100,000 of them in six incubators.

* * *

Porter raises geese, turkey, quail, duck and pheasant and sells many of the eggs in various stages of incubation. Schools and hospitals use fertile eggs for experimentation. Elementary schools buy them so children can watch them hatch. Pheasant and quail eggs are sold to clubs and hotels.

* * *

All of the eggs must be turned twice a day, and the temperature and humidity must be checked during the night. "I know the tray and incubator each egg is in and the exact day it will hatch," Porter says.

Choosing a Mattress

Consider Comfort

Being a consumer is an individual process, according to Mrs. Rosalie J. Hawley, home economist with the Cooperative Extension Service in Oakland and Wayne counties.

"Even in such utilitarian times as a mattress and spring the consumer must look for quality features which satisfy individual ideas of comfort and will continue to meet the individual's needs through many years," the home economists explained.

Guidelines can be given, but the final selection is up to the individual, she stressed.

GUIDELINES

The home economist listed some points to look for: materials used, types of construction, quality of workmanship, degree of firmness and size. A good mattress supports all parts of the body equally; is resilient, durable, buoyant, and free of noise.

But because most of the important parts of a mattress are hidden, you must rely on the dealer to answer questions about these points. For this reason, it's important to choose a reliable dealer, Mrs. Hawley said.

* * *

Ask about type of construction — innerspring or foam. Innersprings come in two types: open coil and pocked coil. A full-size mattress should have 220 or more coil units of heavy gauge, high carbon wire. Prebuilt boarders of cotton felt or foam help preserve its shape.

Foam mattress may be natural latex foam rubber, or man-made polyurethane foam. Both are lint and dust free, non-allergenic, lightweight and flexible.

Density affects firmness. A four to six inch mattress will support up to 100 pounds.

* * *

You can check the outside of the mattress for yourself. It should have a tightly woven, lightweight fabric cover and smooth firm surface with well-tailored edges.

Handles should be securely attached and flat. Four or more side-wall ventilators help keep the mattress fresh.

When you've decided on a mattress, remember that a set of springs designed to go with it will increase the comfort and increase the wearing quality of the mattress.

* * *

Size of bed definitely depends on the individual. Generally, a person needs a space 39 inches wide, and six to 10 inches longer than his height.

Thanksgiving Food Is Lower in Cost in '67

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The traditional Thanksgiving dinner of turkey and all the trimmin's should cost only a little over $5 this year for a family of four.

The government however declined for the first time to put a price tag on the goodies that go into the turkey day menu.

The explanation by an agriculture department spokesman was:

"Costs of specific items vary from place to place and we got lots of reaction last year from people who said either they didn't pay as much as we said or had to pay more."

* * *

The department did suggest a menu — and even recommended quantities — to satisfy the holiday appetites of an average family of two adults and two children, aged 9 and 12.

DOW A BIT

Based on the department's recommended menu and quantities, a UPI survey of Washington, D.C., supermarkets indicated that this year's turkey and trimmings should cost $5.29. That's slightly lower than the government estimate a year ago.

Prices in other areas should vary only slightly from that figure, an agriculture department official said. He said the price anywhere in the country would not go very much below $5 or much above $5.30.

* * *

The department's recommended menu includes turkey and dressing, sweet potatoes, peas, cranberry sauce, a relish tray of celery, stuffed olives, lettuce and tomatoes, coffee, milk, rolls and topped off with pumpkin pie.

According to the department a family of four requires five pounds of turkey. At an average price of 43 cents a pound, that would come to $2.15.

* * *

Other quantities and costs: two packages prepared dressing, 50 cents; 1½ pounds sweet potatoes, 20 cents; one pound frozen peas, 24 cents; half stalk of celery, 9 cents; 5 ounces stuffed olives, 35 cents.

One pound cranberry sauce, 22 cents; head of lettuce, 21 cents; pound of fresh tomatoes, 34 cents; four ounces french dressing, 18 cents; two-thirds of pumpkin pie, 24 cents; package of brown-and-serve rolls, 29 cents; four ounces margarine, 19 cents.

An average family of four uses two cups of milk, costing 13 cents, and six tablespoons of coffee, costing a nickel, during such a meal.

SOME LEFTOVERS

Of course, the department points out, most families don't eat all of a major item — a whole turkey, for instance — at one sitting. So your grocery bill for Thanksgiving will be higher than $5.29.

It would be $4.01 higher, in fact — or $9.30 — since you have to buy normal quantities of everything, not portions.

Make Careful Choice of Solvent for Home Dry Cleaning Purpose

A dry cleaning solvent is a handy material to have around the home for removal (from carpeting) of grease, wax, tar, chewing gum, etc. Many types of solvents and various trade names are available and the one to be used should be chosen wisely to avoid any detrimental effect.

Solvents such as carbon tetrachloride may be injurious to health or even cause death if sufficient fumes are inhaled. Others are quite flammable or explosive. Certain solvents will dissolve some face fibers or damage latex often found on the back of carpeting.

* * *

The use of a non-toxic solvent, one with a high flash point and which will not burn is suggested. Try a small amount in an inconspicuous spot — behind a chair, back of the draperies — to determine if there will be any adverse effect before using it on the stained area.

Place a few drops on a spot, hold a clean white tissue against it, count to ten, and examine both the spot and the tissue. Determine whether or not the dye has bled and if the fibers have been damaged or softened. If not, the material should be safe to use on the stain.

PROCEDURE

Always use small amounts to prevent over-wetting to the backing. Start at the outside of the stained area and work towards the center. Apply the dry cleaning solvent, work gently, and blot the loosened staining material into clean white absorbent tissues. When the stain is completely removed, blot as dry as possible and brush the face yarns in one direction.

There's No Tax on Honesty . . . Yet

By BETTY CANARY

I cheerfully sorted the mail and what to my wondering eyes should appear but an envelope marked Internal Revenue Service. Ah, I thought, even though more than six months have passed since they received my return, they are sending me a thank you note.

My country is grateful, I thought. Gratitude, I thought, is the most noble of all virtues.

It was a bill—a bill curtly informing me that during the black month of April I made a mistake in arithmetic and still owed the government $95.01, the exact price (including tax) of that tweed suit I looked at Thursday. Added to the bill was an interest charge of $2.59.

COWARDS

I thought of asking why the IRS computers were so slow in finding the mistake that I must pay interest and I thought of checking to see if the government has a deadline for billing comparable to my deadline for filing. What I did was write the check.

In the same batch of mail was an anthology of pieces from early editions of Encyclopaedia Britannica, so I thumbed through it, trying to relax after writing the check. Right there on page 47 was an article from the seventh edition (1830) by Professor J. R. McCulloch. He headed his essay, "Taxation of Income Impracticable," which just shows what kind of prophet HE was.

* * *

He begins by stating firmly, "It is not, indeed, very likely that any people, not altogether enslaved, would tolerate, in ordinary circumstances, such inquisitorial proceedings . . ."

"Now, now," I said. "That is putting it much too strongly, professor. I am not enslaved. I willingly, nay gladly, pay my taxes."

I was interrupted here by an unearthly groan.

"Why, so far this year I have paid income taxes to both my federal and state governments, and then I paid Social Security, personal property tax, utility tax, phone tax, entertainment tax, luxury goods tax, sales tax and I will freely pay the proposed surtax."

CAN'T BE

Could I really have heard the professor quoting his article on income tax? "The tax would fall with its full weight on men of integrity . . . It would, in fact, be a tax on honesty!"

"Quiet down!" I pleaded. "We don't have a tax on honesty YET. However, there is one on license plates and liquor and cigarettes and there is a durable goods tax and . . . " I couldn't continue because my mind became clouded when that threshing, churning sound began.

Now that I think of it, however, that couldn't have been the professor turning over in his grave.

Tablecloths Spark Decor

Table tops used to be for accumulating clutter. Now they're for decorating, reports the National Cotton Council. And pretty cotton cloths make them the center of attraction in any room.

If you sew, it's easy to whip up bright floor-length cloths to cover small occasional tables. Use inexpensive cotton prints from dress fabrics departments.

To cover a party table, make a cloth from filmy cotton organdy. For extra elegance, make a pastel pink or blue undercover cloth of lustrous cotton satin. If you have one of the new sewing machines with a variety of fancy stitches, give the organdy cloth a distinctive air with criss-cross lines of machine embroidery.

Don't throw away those leftover waffles. Store them in the refrigerator; then drop them into the toaster to reheat.

Student Group to Play for 'The Messiah'

INTERLOCHEN, Mich. — A year ago 50 members of the Interlochen Arts Academy orchestra provided the accompaniment for the University Musical society's traditional production of Handel's "The Messiah" in Hill Auditorium at Ann Arbor.

The three performances come off so well that the Interlochen orchestra was invited back for this year's presentation on December 1, 2 and 3.

Playing with the 320-voice University Choral Union will again be a challenge to Interlochen's young musicians, but it also will be preparation for the orchestra's filling the same assignment in its home auditorium, the Jessie V. Stone Building, on the campus here.

Interlochen is to present its own performances of the great oratorio Saturday and Sunday evenings, December 9 and 10, with Dr. Kenneth W. Jewell conducting. And the choir will be a special group named the Festival choir made up of students, faculty, staff and some other area residents. Organized early in the fall, it totals about 100.

Interlochen's Christmas program has always attracted near-capacity crowds and starting last year became a two-night demand for seats.

The Handel oratorio was performed by the Academy once before, in May, 1963, when Dr. Maynard Klein of the University of Michigan conducted. Klein, conductor of choirs at the National Music Camp, also directs the Festival choir in presenting it every third summer.

Meat Institute Gives Bill Its Qualified Endorsement

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American Meat Institute gave a qualified endorsement today to a compromise federal meat inspection bill under consideration by the Senate Agriculture Committee.

★ ★ ★

But the institute called for changes in the proposed measure to give greater time for small meat packing plants to comply with federal standards. Failure to provide extra time, it said, would force out of business thousands of such smaller plants.

★ ★ ★

Sens. Walter F. Mondale, D-Minn., and Joseph F. Montoya, D-N.M., who had authored rival meat inspection bills, agreed over the weekend to a joint measure that is expected to win quick approval from the agriculture committee.

★ ★ ★

The compromise version would give states two years in which to meet federal standards. In the meantime, U.S. inspectors could check all plants and close those considered a threat to public health unless the state immediately moved to eliminate health hazards.

★ ★ ★

Current law allows federal inspection only of those plants that ship meat across state lines.

Levy Vote Today

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Voters balloted today in the Grand Rapids School District on a seven-mill, 2-year operating levy. School Supt. Jay Pylman said if the millage request is approved, junior high and fourth, fifth and sixth grades would return to full time, a full range of subjects would be offered, the new Union High School would be opened and previous transportation commitments would be honored. Voter rejection of a proposed five-mill levy in June prompted the school board to cut back its school program.

Junior Editors Quiz on FARM ANIMALS

QUESTION: What is the difference between a pig and a hog?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: People often use pig and hog interchangeably. Pigs, hogs or swine are descended from the European wild hog and belong to an animal group known by the Latin name of suidae; they are the genus Sus and the species scrofa.

Hogs (generally the preferred name) are very important farm animals, giving us ham, bacon, sausage, pork chops and other by-products. Hogs are cleaner and smarter than most people realize — they rank as the ninth most intelligent animal.

The word hog, although a general term for these animals, usually refers to an adult, one which is ready for the market. Pig is the word generally used for a hog less than 10 weeks old.

A male hog is called a boar, a female a sow. The sow farrows when she gives birth to a litter of little pigs. After a little pig has been weaned from taking his mother's milk, he is called a shote.

3,000 Return in Alabama After Chlorine Gas Scare

NEWTON, Ala. (AP) — Nearly 3,000 residents of this southeast Alabama town were back in their homes today after officials announced 10,000 gallons of deadly chlorine gas, unleashed in a railroad derailment, had dissipated.

"It seems like everything is back to normal now," Police Chief Charles Brackins reported Monday night.

★ ★ ★

The mass evacuation was ordered Saturday night after a railroad tank car containing the chlorine and 48 other cars derailed about a mile from the business district. Fire broke out in the wreckage, and for a time officials feared an explosion might release all the gas at once.

Brackins said he believes the danger was eliminated when safety valves on the tank car popped open and allowed the gas to escape gradually.

TANKER FLIPPED

Officials said the gas-carrying tanker flipped over in the crash and they were unable to move it. They also pointed out the danger of explosion was increased by several cars of butane and propane gas which also had plunged off the tracks.

Brackins said it took just 33 minutes to evacuate the town.

★ ★ ★

The residents lived with friends, relatives, or stayed in motels. Others were quartered at a community center in nearby Ozark, Ala.

Until late Monday, when the tanker was found to be empty of gas, firemen and rescue workers had pumped thousands of gallons of water and foam onto the overturned car.

State House Lists Interim Study Trips

LANSING (AP) — House Speaker Robert Waldron Friday listed House committees which will make research trips before the 1968 regular session, describing the studies as "the best planned interim program we have ever had."

"I believe fully that good, progressive, problem-solving legislation comes from planned and properly staffed study," the Grosse Pointe Republican said.

★ ★ ★

Approval of study plans submitted by committee chairmen was given only in cases where the Legislature and the public will benefit from results of the studies, he said.

Studies include:

Insurance, San Francisco, Nov. 22-30, for a study of group and speciality life insurance policies; Weather Modification, Dallas, Tex., Dec. 4-9, for a conference;

SMALL LOAN BILL

Private Corporations, Chicago, Columbus, Cleveland, Nov. 27-30, study of small loan bill, San Francisco, Nov. 28-Dec. 1, study of branch banking;

U.S. Effort Likely on Rising Medical Costs

WASHINGTON (AP) — A presidential commission's call for a major overhaul of the U.S. health care system is expected to spur new federal efforts to hold down rising medical costs.

While top officials of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare declined comment on specifics, sources said they were delighted by the commission report issued Monday.

★ ★ ★

"It does give us a tremendous amount of moral support and a great deal of encouragement," an informed source said. "I don't think there's an item in there we would disagree with."

The 15-member commission, appointed by President Johnson last May, told him: "There is a crisis in American health care. The intuition of the average citizen has foundation in fact."

CRISIS FELT

Average citizens have become aware of the crisis, the commission said, by having to wait for long periods to see a doctor for routine care and then receiving "hurried and sometimes impersonal attention in a limited appointment time..."

And for the next 10 years, the commission forecast, patients are likely to receive even less personal attention. It noted 98 per cent of current medical school graduates go into specialties rather than general practice.

The commission did not make explicit how its recommendations would make more health professionals available for patient needs.

It did recommend, however, that federal grants be used to give medical schools incentives to expand their enrollments. And it called for more federal experimentation in training new types of health personnel such as assistant doctors.

NO OUTLAYS

No large outlays of federal money or expansion of federal powers were recommended by the commission, and sources said the administration feels no dismay at this.

The government has been relying mainly on persuasion to bring about changes in health care practices which it—and the commission—say are costing Americans huge amounts of money.

While the commission report implied heavy criticism of the way doctors now practice, administration sources said no significant opposition was expected from the American Medical Association. The AMA's president-elect, Dr. Dwight L. Wilbur of Stanford University's School of Medicine, was a commission member.

Among the commission's recommendations were that doctors should be required to undergo periodic license reexaminations, be subjected to more professional scrutiny by their fellow doctors and should have better means of keeping up on latest medical findings.

★ ★ ★

Asserting many hospitals are inefficient, the commission said the government and private health firms should begin new payment formulas to provide hospitals more incentive to hold down costs.

Americans consumed 9.9 pounds of cheese per person last year, a record.

Jobless Rate Cut

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Retail stores hiring additional help for the holiday season helped bring the Kent-Ottawa county unemployment rate to its lowest point this year, Frank Christensen, manager of the local office of the Michigan Employment Security Commission, said 2.7 per cent of the available work force of 210,100 was without jobs in October, compared with 3.1 per cent in September. Last year, the October jobless rate was 2 per cent of a 209,200 work force.

U.S. 10 Rest Stop

LANSING (AP) — Construction of modern rest room facilities, costing $117,224, has been completed at a rest area on U.S. 10 freeway near Midland, the State Highway Commission reports. Wright Industries Inc. of Lansing was contractor on the project, which replaced "rustic" facilities.

South Korea Denies Troops-for-Aid Deal

WASHINGTON (AP) — A South Korean official denies his country is sending combat troops to South Vietnam to repay massive U.S. economic aid and trade concessions.

Ambassador Kim Dong-jo said South Korea's contribution of troops to the Vietnam war "is not in any sense a mercenary action."

His comments came Monday following publication by the St. Louis Post-Dispatch of a story saying South Korea is receiving millions of dollars worth of special aid and trade concessions in return for providing combat troops in the Southeast Asian struggle.

Post-Dispatch Washington correspondent Richard Dudman said the incentives were so generous "the administration has covered them with a security classification in an effort to prevent other allies in Vietnam from learning their terms."

ADVANTAGES NECESSARY

Noting South Korea has some 48,000 troops in Vietnam, Dudman said the advantages offered by the United States were necessary to make it financially possible for the country to provide combat units in that strength.

"It is not in any sense a mercenary action," Kim said of his nation's troop commitment. Instead, he said, it was based on "our conviction that we are helping to defend our own freedom and democratic form of government."

In other war-related developments:

● The United States officially expressed regret to India for "any casualties that might be caused" to the International Control Commission in Hanoi by American air attacks on the North Vietnamese capital.

The statement followed radio broadcasts from Hanoi that an Indian member of the ICC was killed and another wounded during a U.S. attack last week. The State Department said again it has not confirmed that U.S. aircraft were responsible for the reported casualties.

● Lt. Col. Frank W. Kiel, medical adviser to Army Intelligence, said the need for blood transfusions for Americans in Vietnam has increased from an average 5 pints a week in 1965 to up to 10,000 pints monthly late this year. Kiel spoke to a convention of the Association of Military Surgeons of the United States.

● Sen. Mark O. Hatfield, D-Ore., told newsmen in Columbus, Ohio, "the division of thinking on Vietnam is growing deeper every day." Hatfield has been a persistent critic of President Johnson's war policies.

● Police used tear gas and arrested a score of people at San Jose State College in California while quelling a riot that erupted during a lunch-time antiwar demonstration.

● War protesters picketed peacefully meanwhile at the University of Wisconsin campus in Madison.

ON WAY TO HIS ARRAIGNMENT — Bottling plant executive Earle T. Cook shields his face on the way to arraignment before a U.S. commissioner in Chicago yesterday. Cook is accused of planting a bomb on a plane in which his wife was a passenger. The baggage compartment was disheveled, but the plane landed safely and no one was hurt. Cook lives in St. Charles, Ill.

Colorado Governor Mum on Romney, Hints VP Bid

ST. JOSEPH (UPI) — Gov. John Love of Colorado yesterday refused to join the "Romney for President" club but hinted he might consider a vice presidential bid.

★ ★ ★

Love said he felt it would not be proper to indicate his feelings about the candidacy of Michigan's George Romney, who made his presidential ambitions official last Saturday.

He did, however, turn thumbs down on Harold Stassen, the other officially announced GOP presidential aspirant.

"I certainly don't believe I'd want to associate myself with a peace candidate," Love said of Stassen.

★ ★ ★

At a press conference prior to his appearance at a county GOP fund-raising dinner, Love was asked if he would consider a vice presidential spot. He said he viewed himself as a "responsible citizen" and:

"I would certainly be interested and give it sure, strong and perhaps a firm response."

He said he would make his choice of a presidential candidate public after the first of next year.

He echoed Romney's recent comments about the U. economy, saying the country is in a "fiscal mess."

"I don't care how idealistic a program you draw," the Republican governor said, "it depends in part on the existence of a stable currency. I would say that we are approaching a time of almost crisis in that area."

★ ★ ★

At the fund-raising dinner which Romney did not attend, Love told 260 Berrien County GOP leaders that the three major issues confronting the nation are racial strife, the Vietnam war and problems in the U.S. economy.

Though it was not the first steamboat, Robert Fulton's Clermont proved that steam boats could be commercially successful.

Yale-Vassar Betrothal Off

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Yale University and Vassar College in Poughkeepsie, N.Y. have decided to go their separate ways, ending a year-long study of the possibility of affiliation.

The women's institution announced Monday it had decided to remain in Poughkeepsie and continue to be "the mistress in our own house." At the same time it disclosed plans for an expansion program that would include setting up a coordinate men's college at Vassar.

* * *

In a separate and simultaneous announcement, Yale President Kingman Brewster Jr. announced his school would "explore the possibility" of founding its own women's college.

$60-$70 MILLION

The Vassar expansion program would cost between $60 million and $70 million. It would entail overhauling the existing undergraduate curriculum and establishing two new institutes and also would tie Vassar to other schools in the Mid-Hudson Valley and New York City.

Brewster said financial support would be a key to the timetable for setting up the Yale women's college.

He said he would ask three distinguished persons—two women and a man—not now related to Yale to help it come up with the best plan for the new women's college. Their names will be announced, he said, when they agree to participate.

NO LOSS OF IDENTITY

Information and thinking from the joint study with Vassar has "evolved arrangements by which the faculty and the students of a first quality women's college in New Haven could enjoy the privileges of membership in Yale University without losing their identity or their ability to design their own programs, grant their own degrees, and make their own appointments," Brewster said.

CAPITAL APPEARANCE — Michigan's Gov. Romney, a declared Republican presidential candidate, talks with newsmen yesterday in the lobby of the State Department. He had been attending briefings before embarking on a three-week trip to Europe, the Mideast and Southeast Asia in December.

GOP Maneuvering on Spring Primaries Is Bursting Into Open

By GAYLORD SHAW
Associated Press Writer

In his spacious Manhattan law office, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon prepares a book on the issues confronting America.

A third of a continent away, beneath the dome of Michigan's State Capitol, Gov. George Romney polishes a proposed Vietnam policy alternative.

★ ★ ★

Even as Nixon and Romney devote long hours to what one's aide calls "homework for next spring's drills," their supporters are ranging from New Hampshire's rocky hills to California's sunny suburbs, wooing potential convention delegates, building state organizations and raising money.

Though largely veiled from public view, this maneuvering for the Republican presidential nomination has been under way for months. Now, with Romney an announced candidate and Nixon all but one, the scramble is bursting into the open.

NOT IDLE

Meanwhile the self-styled "noncandidates" are by no means idle.

California Gov. Ronald Reagan resumes his out-of-state appearances next month. Illinois Sen. Charles H. Percy is continuing an extensive speaking schedule while considering a trip to Vietnam.

★ ★ ★

And while New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller insists he doesn't want to be president, sources say his supporters are taking soundings of his strength in the Midwest.

Political pros in Washington and other key cities say Nixon is far ahead in the race for the nomination to oppose President Johnson's expected reelection bid. Most polls reach the same conclusion.

PERSONAL CONTACT

Romney supporters, while conceding they trail Nixon at least two-to-one in New Hampshire are banking on a strong showing in that state's March 12 presidential primary. They say, and Nixon strategists agree, that the Michigan governor is at his best in the personal contact campaigning he plans in New Hampshire.

Romney, who plans a globe-girdling trip beginning early next month, was in Washington Monday assailing Johnson's fiscal record but backing the President's policy of not halting U.S. bombing of North Vietnam without a promise of reciprocal action from Hanoi.

★ ★ ★

In other Monday developments:

—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, in Washington for a medical checkup, said he doesn't plan to play a major role in the 1968 presidential campaign whoever his fellow Republicans nominate.

★ ★ ★

—New York Mayor John V. Lindsay told newsmen in Washington he won't be a candidate for the GOP presidential nomination now or in the future.

—The chairman of Georgia's Democratic organization, James Gray, said in Atlanta he believes there's a strong possibility Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., will replace Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey on the party's 1968 ticket.

The average person now eats 45 pounds more meat than in 1937.

Pontiac Civitans to Host Club Exec

The Pontiac Civitan Club will be host to Rudolph T. Hubbard, international executive secretary, at its noon luncheon tomorrow.

HUBBARD

Hubbard has served as executive secretary at the international headquarters in Birmingham, Ala., for the past 22 years.

The meeting will be at the Holiday Inn, 1801 S. Telegraph, Bloomfield Township. The Bethune Elementary School Toastmaster's Club will provide part of the program.

Workshop Slated on the Arranging of Yule Decor

A workshop in the art of arranging holiday centerpieces, door wreaths and other decorations appropriate to the holiday season will be held at the Community Activities, Inc., building, 6468 Williams Lake, Waterford Township.

The instructor will be Mrs. Olive Caruso of Dunstan's Flowers.

The sessions are scheduled for Nov. 28 and Dec. 5 from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

The first session will be a demonstration of Christmas arrangements and instruction. Participants will make their own, arrangements with Mrs. Caruso's assistance at the Dec. 5 meeting.

Fee for each session is $1.

2nd Copter Carrier Started

Soviet Land-Sea Buildup Seen

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon sources say the Soviet Union apparently is building a second helicopter carrier and suggest the Soviets may be bent on developing a significant amphibious warfare force.

The sources interpreted the development as a sign the Soviets may be belatedly taking a leaf out of the American book and building a force that could intervene with Marine-like troops in overseas crises.

★ ★ ★

The construction of the new vessel reportedly is in its early stages, but Pentagon experts said it appears to be a helicopter carrier like the first such Soviet ship whose existence was disclosed publicly only about a month ago.

The first helicopter carrier, about 600 feet long and less than 30,000 tons, is being outfitted near Odessa in the Black Sea, the sources said. The second carrier is being built in the same place.

NATO CONCERNED

The rise of Soviet interest in amphibious warfare has been a matter of concern for the United States and for its North Atlantic Treaty Organization partners.

Since the Arab-Israeli war last June, the Soviets have maintained a fleet of more than 45 warships and supporting vessels in the Mediterranean. Five of these ships are amphibious types.

★ ★ ★

Coupled with this is the evident attention the Soviets are giving to their "naval infantry," roughly a counterpart of the U.S. Marine Corps.

After an on-again, off-again history, the Soviet naval infantry apparently was revived a little more than three years ago. Estimates now place its strength at only about 3,000—roughly 1 per cent of the size of the Marine Corps.

AN ELITE FORCE

U.S. authorities say the Soviet Naval infantry is being developed as an elite force. Naval infantrymen wear a distinctive uniform, topped off by a black beret.

If the Soviets use their helicopter carriers in the same way as the United States, they would station them off potential trouble spots of political interest to the Soviet Union.

★ ★ ★

In event of a decision to establish a Soviet military presence, the Soviet navy could fly naval infantrymen from the carriers and land them in helicopters on foreign shores.

So far, Pentagon experts said, the Soviets have only a tiny capacity for any kind of cold war "show of force" amphibious operation.

"It's a drop in the bucket now," one intelligence expert said, "but we really don't know to what extent they are going to expand their naval infantry and amphibious capability."

The experts say the Soviet naval infantry is organized as light infantry, with supporting mortar, light tank and amphibious tractor units.

★ ★ ★

One class of Soviet landing ship reportedly could carry 8 to 10 tanks, and there have been West German naval reports that the Soviets have a new 360-foot ship which probably can haul up to 40 tanks.

Pentagon theorists believe the Soviets decided some time in the early 1960s there was a need for well-trained amphibious assault troops.

"Maybe the success we enjoyed in making our presence felt ashore in Lebanon in 1958 influenced Soviet military thinking," one military authority said.

Air Crash Suit Trial Is Started

DALLAS (UPI) — A widow's $851,000 lawsuit against American Airlines for a crash that killed her husband in 1965 near Greater Cincinati Airport went to trial yesterday.

★ ★ ★

The crash scene was near the site where a Trans World Airlines jet crashed yesterday.

Sarah Ann Creasey sued American Airlines and the federal government after her husband, Samuel O. Creasey, was killed Nov. 8, 1965.

The lawsuit bedore U.S. District Judge Sarah T. Hughes, alleges the crash was caused by negligence by the airline and by employes of the Federal Aviation Agency and the U.S. Weather Bureau.

★ ★ ★

All parties have denied any blame for the crash of the Boeing 727 near Constance Ky., on a flight from New York City.

LIST SUBMITTED

The government submitted a list of 70 persons who may be called to testify.

Radar controllers for the FAA should not have granted a visual flight rules approach, but should have brought the plane in on an instrument approach because of weather conditions, American said.

The Airlines said there were thundershowers and reduced visibility.

★ ★ ★

Incorrect information also was transmitted by the weather bureau to the FAA and the information was passed to the jetliner pilot, American said, contending approach facilities at the airport were inadequate.

The rate of population growth in 1966 was the lowest since the end of World War II, mainly because of a declining birth rate.

JIM DURNBAUGH

All-A Student Is Waterford Teen of Week

Charles S. Mott High School sophomore Jim Durnbaugh is the latest to win the honor as Waterford Township's Teen of the Week.

One of three students at the school carrying an all-A average, Jim, 15, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Durnbaugh of 4045 Lanette, Waterford Township.

He takes an active part in many school activities, including the student council, drama club and election and constitution committees.

A candidate for student council chairman, Jim hopes he can help make Mott the most outstanding school in the community and in the state.

★ ★ ★

He plans to attend college and, presently, is interested in becoming a high school science teacher.

In addition to school activities, Jim is active at his church where he serves as treasurer of the youth group.

SPORTS

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

For the first time in many moons, this writer sat in on a sports event as a spectator, and for those who think that a sports writer gets a free seat at all athletic contests—we paid two bucks to watch the new Pontiac Tomahawks in their home debut Saturday night.

It was the best $2 worth of entertainment we've seen since probably the last time we stood at a ticket window.

* * *

Like any sports fan who feels he has the right to cheer or boo, applaud or heckle for his admission price, this writer is hoarse today because it was a good feeling to enjoy these privileges of a fan.

On any other occasion when on the job we believe in the sports rule of "no cheering" in the press box.

* * *

Just to watch little Dave Gaines and Ernie Thompson with their court trickery was worth the adult price of $2.00 to see the Tomahawks.

Gaines, who barely reaches 6-1, was dunking his shots before the game and during the contest he displayed some of the razzle-dazzle which was part of his floor itinerary of show-boating while with the Globetrotters for three years.

* * *

The Tomahawks, behind 24 points at one time, came back to take the lead and then lose it 132-129 in the final seconds, but the small home opening crowd enjoyed and screamed in approval as Gaines and Thompson displayed some of their antics.

DETROIT CAGER

Gaines, a graduate of Detroit's Northeastern High School and holder of a BS degree from LeMoyne College in Tennessee, hit for 40 points in the contest.

His high with the Globetrotters was 64 points and at LeMoyne he hit 58 on two occasions.

"With the Trotters we had to practice a lot of showboat stuff but in this competition where winning and losing is more serious, I've got to do less of that," said Gaines.

"They featured me as a dribbler and dunker for my size with the Trotters, but I haven't forgotten how to play serious basketball however," he added.

* * *

Thompson, who certainly is no stranger to Pontiac after a great all-state career in the Saginaw Valley while leading Saginaw High to the state championship, also pulled a couple plays of the Globetrotter nature, like passing under his legs and hitting the backboard deliberately with a shot so that he could tip it back in for a bucket.

* * *

Gaines was drafted by the Pistons after college, but he went with the Globetrotters instead.

"I played forward in high school and college and I figured my chances in the NBA as a guard were slim so that's why I went with the Trotters.

"Right now I just want to get back to competitive playing and serious basketball, get a good job and locally settle down with my family," he added.

"This team (the Tomahawks) could develop into a good outfit in this league, but right now we haven't played as a unit long enough. I only had one practice session before this game."

* * *

Coach Bob Duffy doesn't object to Gaines putting on some of his Globetrotter learnings as long as they don't deter from his efforts to win.

"Win? That's something I'm used to. We didn't lose very often with the Globetrotters, you know, and I want to win regardless of where," said Gaines.

The fans started yelling "Go, Go Gaines" Saturday night and it is evident the little trickster has already become the peoples choice at the $2.00 window.

Detroit Will Face Top Defensive Line

From the frying pan into the fire. This is the case of the Detroit Lions.

After taking a 41-7 walloping from the Baltimore Colts, the leaders of the Coastal Division Sunday, the Lions have another treacherous assignment against the Los Angeles Rams in the annual Thanksgiving Day game at Tiger Stadium.

The Rams, who have a 7-1-2 record and must win to keep pace with the Colts who are 8-0-2, arrived in Detroit today from Atlanta where they stayed to work out after whipping the Falcons 31-3 on Sunday.

Except for Tommy Mason, who injured his knee against Atlanta Sunday, the Rams are in top physical condition for the contest and will be 13-point favorites Thursday.

Milt Plum, who led the Lions to their only TD Sunday in the late stages of the game, will probably start for Detroit. His appearance last Sunday was his first since giving way to Karl Sweetan four games ago.

For the Rams, Roman Gabriel, enjoying the finest season of his six years with the team, will start.

Gabriel has completed 132 of 264 passes for 1,959 yards and 15 touchdowns.

The big, 6-4 and 230-pound, signal caller was battling for the starting job with Bill Munson until the end of the 1965 season. He led the Rams to three wins to finish 1965 and then took over to start 1966, but he suffered a leg injury and had to have surgery during the off-season.

KEEPS JOB

He has now kept his job during the 1967 season while Munson has been in action for only eight pass attempts.

The Rams, known for their huge defensive line which now includes former Lions' star Roger Brown, will give Plum and the Detroit line the toughest pass rush of the season.

The Lions did put a strong rush on John Unitas last week but the star Colt quarterback was fast and deadly with his release. Sweetan actually appeared to have more time to throw than Unitas, but the second-year QB of the Lions hasn't been effective since his game in San Francisco almost a month ago.

In the front line, which is the best in the NFL defensively against the rushing game, the Rams will have Brown, 6-5 and 290 and Merlon Olsen, 6-5 275 at the tackles with Deacon Jones, 6-7 and 280 and Lamar Lundy, 6-6 270 at the defensive ends.

Defensively, the Rams also have the best secondary in the league as far as pass interceptions go. Led by Ed Meador, the Rams have intercepted 25 times this year, and the linebackers have shared in nine of them.

Game time for the feast, which could be the day the Ram devours the Lion on Turkey Day in Tiger Stadium is noon. Gates with 3,000 bleacher seats will open at 10:00 a.m.

Putting Tells Tale of Haig Tourney

RANCHO LA COSTA, Calif. (AP) — Putting told the story of the $115,000 Haig Scotch Invitational golf tournament.

Dave Stockton and Laurie Hammer, who shared the $22,000 first prize Monday, took the fewest putts—116.

* * *

Second money of $13,200 was grabbed by Richard Martinez and Bob Lunn, who also took the second fewest putts —119.

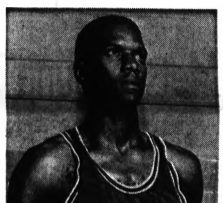
And in third place in both the tournament and putting were tour veterans Ray Floyd and Ken Still. They putted 122 times.

Fittingly, the Hammer and Stockton victory was achieved with a 10-foot putt on the last hole. Stockton had hit a wedge shot 10 feet from the cup on the par-5, 539-yard hole. The tall, blond Hammer aimed the ball at a spike mark two inches right of the cup. The ball broke into the center of the cup.

Hammer, from Sarasota, Fla., and Stockton, from San Bernardino, Calif., scored a 3-under-par 33-36—69 in the final round. Their 80-hole total of 273, 15 under par, also invluded rounds of 60-67-67.

Martinez, of Laguna Beach, Calif. and Lunn, of Sacramento, Calif., finished a stroke back at 274. They owed their defeat to three putts on the 16th hole.

Their final round score was 34-37—71.



BUCKEYE COMET — Former Ohio State University basketball's star Joe Roberts, 6-6, leads the strong Columbus Comets against the Pontiac Tomahawks in an NABL game at Pontiac Northern Wednesday night. Both teams are in the Eastern Division of the NABL.

Wednesday Tilt at PNH

Columbus Next T-Hawks' Foe

Bolstered by three periods of vastly improved play against perhaps what is the best team in the North American Basketball League and the vocal response of several hundred enthused fans, the Pontiac Tomahawks are intent on posting their initial North American Basketball League win tomorrow.

Beaten in their first two starts, the Tomahawks will be host to the Comets from Columbus in an 8 p.m. contest at the Northern High School gym.

Pontiac Press Photo

Columbus will enter the contest fresh from a victory — the Comets' first in three starts — at Holland. Pontiac lost its opener in Holland by 20 points, but the Tomahawks are better now and have the advantage of the home court.

They are considered only slight underdogs. They will relinquish the home court advantage Thanksgiving Day when they visit codivision leader Lansing. The Capitols share the Eastern Division lead with Battle Creek at 2-0.

Columbus' visit will mark the first Eastern Division contest for the Tomahawks who opened their season with losses against Holland and the high-flying Grand Rapids Tackers, both Western squads.

UNIT

Coach Bob Duffy of Pontiac found a unit of six or seven players who worked well together last Saturday after spotting the Tackers a big early lead. The Tomahawks evoked roars from their followers with a stirring rally that brought them to the brink of victory before the visitors prevailed.

In the process, Duggy unveiled two crowd-pleasing performers in 6-3 Ernie Thompson of Saginaw and Bradley University, and 6-1 Dave Gaines of Detroit, LeMoyne College and the Harlem Globetrotters.

Gaines' debut was particulatly impressive as he scored 40 points to set a season high for the NABL. Also joining the standard setting was 6-7 center Jim Patterson from Miami of Ohio who pulled down 25 rebounds for a new season high.

Others rating praise from the Tomahawks' mentor were Joe Maddrey of Grand Rapids and Niagara University, Lou Hyatt of Detroit and the U. of D., and Ken Nevels from Detroit and Dillard.

These seven are expected to see most of the action tomorrow night with spot relief from ex-Michigan pivotman Bill Buntin and former U. of D. regular John Watson.

Columbus is led by player-coach Joe Roberts whose scoring and rebounding led the Comets to their win at Holland. Roberts is a former National Basketball Association performer with the now defunct Syracuse Nationals.

The Comets' roster consists of mostly former Ohio collegians. Tom Bowman, Frank Wade and Arvesta Kelley provide support for Roberts' talents.

Following Thursday's trip to Lansing —where the Capitols will have Bill Curtis, Horace Walker and Gene Summers among their familiar names — the Tomahawks will be off until Battle Creek invades the PNH court Saturday, Dec. 2.

TASK FOR CHALLENGERS — The Pontiac Open Bowling Championship is a singles tournament, but the Team N' Match feature, permitting any five bowlers to total score for an added team prize, these five bowlers from 300 Bowl offer a challenge for other bowlers. They posted a 3,180 total, including handicap at Cooley Lanes Saturday night as all qualifying opened for the tournament. Les Rothbarth's 709 actual led all bowlers at three sites. Left to right are Rothbarth, Larry Crake, Walt Conta, Gary Crake and Bob Lowrey. Qualifying continues in the Pontiac Open next weekend at Huron Bowl, Lakewood Lanes and Fairgrounds Bowling in Milford.

Gal Bowlers Shine in Tourney

Pontiac area women bowlers are taking their place in top qualifying positions among the men in the Pontiac Open Bowling Championship continuing this weekend at three new sites, Huron Bowl, Lakewood Lanes and Fairgrounds Bowling in Milford.

* * *

Lady bowlers with 140 and 150 averages were among the top scorers in the first qualifying round last weekend.

* * *

Betty Bond with a 140 average tied for honors at Howe's Lanes with a 645 total. She matches Wayne Herman of Rochester with her total score including handicap.

* * *

Marian McNair, a 155 average bowler, started with a 210 game and finished with a 623 total at Howe's.

At 300 Bowl, Nancy Jarrell, with a 135 average, missed the first time, but re-entered and right now has the second best qualifying score at the house with 643.

At Cooley last weekend, a feature team score of 3,180 including Les Rothbarth's 751, Bob Lowrey's 651, Larry Crake's 629, Gary Crake's 581 and Walt Conta's 568.

* * *

Any five bowlers, men and women, can enter the feature Mix 'N Match team score by merely listing their five-man team on the back of their singles entry.

* * *

There is no special entry fee and all singles totals are merely added together. They must, however, bowl on the same squad at the same house.

* * *

The same applies in the Mix 'N Match doubles which currently has a 1,194 total by Harry Roberson and Naoma Johnston, even though Miss Johnston failed to qualify last weekend in singles competition.

All entries for posted squads this Saturday and Sunday should be submitted by Thursday evening to any local house in the Pontiac area.

Squad times will be listed by the houses and any openings at a given time will be filled on the given day. Re-entries for those who fail to reach the target qualifying score of 600 can be submitted for subsequent squads or at another house either day.

* * *

The semifinals scheduled for 300 Bowl, Dec. 10 will begin at 10 a.m. The finals at Huron Bowl, along with the Actual's Invitational will be held Dec. 17.

* * *

Bowlers who enter with an average of 180 or better on their entry blanks or who bowl 601 actual or better in qualifying will go into the Actual's Invitational part of the tournament.

Firebirds' Hopes for Title Put to Task This Weekend

Two bruising football games and the Midwest Football League championship are the stakes for the regular season finale this weekend in the MFL.

Saturday night it will be Mt. Clemens (10-1) at Dayton.

Sunday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. it will be Pontiac (9-2) at Ypsilanti.

* * *

A victory for Dayton and Pontiac would mean Pontiac versus Mt. Clemens in a playoff for the championship, Saturday Dec. 2 at 1:30 p.m. with the site to be determined by a flip of a coin.

The Firebirds are keyed up over their hopes of facing Mt. Clemens in a playoff. "We want to play Mt. Clemens again so bad we can taste it," said defensive back Mike Pryor, team captain.

"It would be the game of the year for minor league football in Michigan," said Paul Parks, general manager of the Firebirds, "and we could fill Wisner Stadium if we were to win the toss."

The first order of business however would be the games this weekend.

* * *

Dayton, which is the only team to defeat Mt. Clemens (34-7) this year, could do it again if Pistol Pete Mikolajewski is on target with his passing.

It won't be an easy task for the Firebirds either. Pontiac edged Ypsilanti, 7-6, earlier in the season but Sunday the F-Birds won't have the services of quarterback Tim Jones.

Jones, who suffered a leg injury two weeks ago, has been treated and the t rommuscle has been mending well, opening only a remote possibility that he could be ready for a playoff game should it come about.

The game Sunday will start at 1:30 p.m.

Tickets are available at three Pontiac locations, Griff's Grill, Osmuns and VFW Post 1370.

A bus trip will be made to Ypsilanti should there be enough reservations. The total package is $6.00 and reservations must be made by noon tomorrow by calling FE 5-4201.

Miles on Target as Pistons Edge Coast Five, 120-118

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — Eddie Miles scored 38 points Monday night to lead the Detroit Pistons to a 120-118 National Basketball Association victory over Seattle and avenge Sunday's overtime loss to the Sonics.

Miles and teammate John Tresvant, both former Seattle University stars, led the play in the closing seconds when it appeared the Sonics might force an overtime.

Detroit, leading 55-52 at the half, opened up a 16-point lead midway through the third period, but Seattle fought back to cut the margin to 102-101 on a basket by Tommy Kron.

Tennessee-Oklahoma Get Berths in Orange Bowl

By The Associated Press

"It is mighty nice," said Tennessee Coach Doug Dickey, "to be wanted at a time like this."

The top postseason college football bowl games began taking shape Monday, the first day bids could be extended under NCAA rules.

Dickey's once-beaten Volunteers, rated second in the country, will meet Oklahoma, No. 5, in the Orange Bowl in Miami, Fla., the night of January 1.

"We're looking forward to the game," said Sooner Coach Chuck Fairbanks. "It's the one my boys wanted. But we've still got two tough games left."

Oklahoma can clinch the Big Eight title by beating Nebraska Thanksgiving Day and then Oklahoma State. Tennessee can wrap up the Southeastern Conference title with victories over Kentucky and Vanderbilt.

TIDE GOING WEST

Alabama accepted a bid to meet the Southwest Conference champion in the Cotton Bowl Jan. 1 in Dallas. Bear Bryant's ninth-rated Crimson Tide is 7-1-1. If Texas A&M wins its traditional contest with Texas Thursday, the Aggies would be the host club.

Texas, Texas Tech and Texas Christian also still have a chance to go to the bowl. It will be the third appearance in the Dallas game for Alabama, which beat A&M 29-21 in 1942 and lost to Rice 28-6 in 1954.

* * *

Wyoming, the last of the major unbeaten college teams, will meet Louisiana State in the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans, La. The Cowboys, 10-0, are rated seventh in the latest poll. LSU is 8-3-1.

The news of the bid was warmly received in Laramie, Wyo., where students, players, the university president and even the governor showed their excitement. Some 10,000 residents of the state are expected to make the trip.

WINNER'S AWARD — O. J. Simpson, whose 64-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter produced a 21-20 victory for University of Southern California over UCLA Saturday, happily changes the color of the victory bell to Trojan cardinal at a victory celebration on the campus yesterday in Los Angeles. The USC colors are cardinal and gold. O. J.'s timely run not only gave the Trojans a win over their city rival, it gave them a spot in the Rose Bowl and boosted them into the No. 1 spot in the college rankings.

Southern California, of course, will be the host team in the Rose Bowl. The Trojans assured themselves of the Pacific 8 title with its 21-20 victory over UCLA. Indiana and Minnesota still are in contention for the Big Ten spot.

* * *

Indiana can go to the bowl if it beats Purdue or if it ties Purdue and Minnesota loses to winless Wisconsin. If both lost Indiana goes. The Hoosiers have never been to the Rose Bowl.

Colorado accepted a Bluebonnet Bowl bid for Houston on Dec. 23. The runner-up in the Southwest Conference could be the opposing team as could Georgia, which has also been sounded out by the Liberty Bowl, to be played in Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 16.

Penn State, 7-2, accepted a bid to the Gator Bowl in Jacksonville, Fla., Dec. 30. Chances are the opposition will be provided by the winner of this Saturday's Florida-Florida State game.

POSSIBLE CHOICE

Miami is thought to be a Liberty Bowl possibility if it beats Notre Dame this week. Missouri was considered for the game, but the team decided Monday against accepting any bowl bid.

Mississippi, 4-3-1, will go to the Sun Bowl in El Paso, Tex., on Dec. 30. The selection committee was reportedly considering six teams—Syracuse, Nebraska, Florida, Florida State, Arizona State and the University of Texas at El Paso—as possible opponents.

Jan. 1
ROSE BOWL, Pasadena, Calif.—Southern California, 9-1, vs. Minnesota, 7-2 or Indiana, 6-1.
ORANGE BOWL, Miami, Fla.—Tennessee, 7-1, vs. Oklahoma, 7-1.
SUGAR BOWL, New Orleans, La.—Wyoming, 10-0, vs. Louisiana State, 6-3-1.
COTTON BOWL, Dallas, Tex.—Alabama, 7-1-1, vs. Texas A&M, Texas Christian, 5-3, Texas Tech, 5-3 or Texas, 5-3.
Dec. 30
SUN BOWL, El Paso, Tex.—Mississippi, 4-3-1, unnamed opponent.
GATOR BOWL, Jacksonville, Fla.—Penn State, 7-2, vs. Florida, 6-2, or Florida State, 6-2-1.
Dec. 31
BLUEBONNET BOWL, Houston, Tex.—Colorado, 7-2, vs. unnamed opponent.

Vols Hope to Impress Voters in College Poll

Southern Cal Leading Pack

Tennessee in Finale Against Kentucky

By the Associated Press
Associated Press Sports Writer

Tennessee gets a last chance to dislodge Southern California from first place in The Associated Press' major-college football poll Saturday and an overwhelming victory by the Volunteers probably couldn't come at a more opportune time.

A decisive triumph by the Volunteers over a relatively weak Kentucky Wildcat team could play a large part in the final balloting for the national championship.

Southern Cal completed its regular campaign by defeating UCLA 21-20 last Saturday. Tennessee has two games remaining, against Kentucky (2-7) Saturday and against Vanderbilt (2-5-1) the following week.

The final poll will be taken after this Saturday's games and announced next Tuesday.

In the latest vote by a national panel of 47 sports writers and broadcasters, USC collected 21 votes for first-place and 432 points. Tennessee received 15 votes for the top position and 410 points on a basis of 10 points for a first-place vote, 9 for second etc.

Kentucky lost its first six games, then beat West Virginia 22-7 and Vanderbilt 13-7 before bowing to Florida 28-12 last Saturday.

Tennessee boosted its record to 7-1 the past weekend by downing Mississippi, 20-7. The Vols lost only to UCLA in the season opener for both teams.

Purdue remained a solid third in the latest poll, drawing 380 points, including 80 for nine first-place votes. The Boilermakers (8-1) beat Michigan State 21-7 last weekend.

UCLA, the leader a week ago, changed positions with Southern Cal in slipping to the No. 4 spot. Oklahoma, a 14-10 winner over Kansas, advanced two places to fifth.

Notre Dame, the defending national titleholder, climbed from ninth to sixth after routing Georgia Tech, 36-3. Wyoming is seventh followed in order by Oregon State, Alabama and Houston, the latter two teams replacing Indiana and North Carolina State in the rankings.

The Hoosiers were beaten by Minnesota 33-7 while North Carolina State lost to Clemson, 14-6.

In addition to Southern California, Wyoming and Oregon State also have completed their regular campaigns.

Dec. 2 The Top Ten, with first place votes in parentheses and points on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

1. Southern California (21)	7-1	432
2. Tennessee (15)	7-1	410
3. Purdue (9)	8-1	380
4. UCLA	7-1-1	339
5. Oklahoma (1)	7-1	318
6. Notre Dame	7-2-1	214
7. Wyoming (1)	10-0	179
8. Oregon State	7-2	131
9. Alabama	7-1-1	85
10. Houston	8-2	81

Others receiving votes, listed alphabetically: Baylor, Colorado, Florida, Florida State, Georgia, Indiana, Kansas, Michigan State, North Carolina State, North Texas State, Penn State, Texas A & M, U. Texas at El Paso, Yale.

NL'S TOP ROOKIE — The smiles by New York Mets' Tom Seaver and his wife Nancy were brought on by word yesterday that Tom had been named National League Rookie of the Year. The 23-year-old right-hander won 16 games for the New Yorkers to become the first Met ever to capture an official post-season award. With the Seavers at their Manhattan Beach, Calif., home is their poodle, Slider.

Texas A&M Awaits Big Title Chance

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — "We have an even chance," said a grim Gene Stallings, coach of Texas A&M, today as he looked toward Thanksgiving Day when his Aggies try to break a stranglehold of 10 years and win the Southwest Conference championship for the first time in 11.

The Aggies, should they beat bitter rival Texas here Thursday, also would be setting another record—the first team to win the conference title after losing its first four games.

* * *

They are all set to label this the greatest comeback in conference history — if it comes about.

And still another angle makes the game intriguing — if A&M wins, it will set up a meeting of coach and pupil in the Cotton Bowl. The coach, in this instance, is the colorful Bear Bryant of Alabama. The pupil will be Stallings, who played for and coached with the fabulous Bryant.

"It sure would furnish a lot of good copy for you guys of the press," Stallings said with a weak attempt at a chuckle.

But, he admitted, he liked the idea himself.

Bryant had already gotten his team into the Cotton Bowl, which was nothing new for the man from Alabama. He had Kentucky in the Cotton Bowl back in 1952. Won it, too.

Bryant would have had another team in the Cotton Bowl had it not been for a little matter of probation. He was coaching at Texas A&M in 1956 when he won the conference championship and Stallings was one of his players. But the Aggies had to stay home on New Year's day because of that probation thing.

San Diego in Camellia

Line Forms for Small Bowls

By the Associated Press

San Diego State will put its No. 1 Associated Press small college ranking on the line Dec. 9 in the Camellia Bowl at Sacramento, Calif., when the Aztecs take on high-powered San Francisco State.

Quarterback Bob "Holy" Toledo, whose credentials show 45 touchdown passes this season and more than 3,500 yards gained in the air, leads San Francisco State. The Gators are tops in the nation in total offense and passing and second in scoring.

* * *

The nation's individual scoring leader, halfback Bert Nye, will be in the Tangerine Bowl Dec. 16 at Orlando, Fla., where his West Chester State, Pa., team will probably meet tenth-ranked Morgan State.

West Chester has a 10-0 record and the Lambert Cup, symbolic of the best college division team in the East.

Morgan State is 8-0 this season and has won 26 games in a row.

Also in the running for the Tangerine Bowl are Tempia, Pa., 7-2, and Northeastern, Mass., 7-1.

Second-rated North Dakota State already has a bid to the Pecan Bowl Dec. 16 at Abilene, Tex. The Associated Press was told by a reliable source that the other spot will go to Texas-Arlington, ranked sixth with a 9-1 record.

The Grantland Rice Bowl, set for Dec. 9 in Murfreesboro, Tenn., won't be completed until Friday. However, Eastern Kentucky, No. 3, has been chosen with a 7-1-2 record. Eastern's only loss was in the season opener to Dayton, a major opponent. Split end Aaron Marsh has caught 70 passes for nine touchdowns, including 19 passes in one game for 316 yards.

* * *

If Tennessee-Martin wins Thanksgiving, it more than likely will be chosen for the Grantland game. Ball State of Indiana, 7-2, also is in contention.

William Jewell of liberty, Mo., meets Doane, Neb., Saturday in the Mineral Water Bowl at Excelsior Springs, Mo. Doane, 9-0, will put its 18-game victory string on the line against Jewell's 10-0 mark.

* * *

In a revised format on the West Coast, West Texas State, 7-3, plays San Fernando Valley State College, 6-3, in the Junior Rose Bowl Dec. 2 in Pasaden's famed stadium.

Previously the Junior Rose Bowl had been a post-season game between the best junior college in the west and an eastern representative.

Warriors Wage Scoring Battle

NEW YORK (AP) — Nate Thurmond has replaced his San Francisco Warrior teammate, Jim King, at the head of the National Basketball Association scoring parade.

The big center, who was fifth the previous week, has scored 450 points for a 22.5 per game average through games of last Sunday, league statistics released today revealed.

* * *

King now is second with 437 points and a 21.8 average. Dave Bing of Detroit replaced Zelmo Beatty of St. Louis in third place, with 434 points, and Beatty is fourth with 430.

Mets' Young Hurler Top Rookie

NEW YORK (AP) — The last-place New York Mets have a first today in pitcher Tom Seaver, the National League's Rookie of the Year for 1967, and they have the luck of the draw to thank for it.

They can thank, too, the 11 members of the Baseball Writers Association of America, who voted for Seaver, the cool, confident 23-year-old winner of 16 games last season.

* * *

Two other right-handed pitchers were mentioned in the voting announced Monday. Dick Hughes of the champion St. Louis Cardinals drew six votes and Gary Nolan of Cincinnati collected three.

* * *

Hughes posted a 16-6 record while Nolan had a 14-8 mark.

"I am thrilled to win the award because there were other fine young pitchers in our league besides Hughes and Nolan like Don Wilson of Houston and Bill Singer of Los Angeles," said Seaver in Manhattan Beach, Calif. "I felt that Hughes would win it because he won 16 games for a pennant winner."

* * *

Seaver was obtained by the Atlanta Braves in the college draft and signed to reported $40,000 contract in February, 1966. However, Baseball Commissioner William D. Eckert nullified the contract because the signing violated the college rule.

Two months later, the Mets obtained the rights to the young pitcher in a special drawing in which the Cleveland Indians and Philadelphia Phillies also were involved.

* * *

Seaver is the first Mets' player ever to capture an official post-season award and the first member of a last-place team to win the rookie award in the National League.

Outfielders Albie Pearson and Bob Allison were named the leading American League rookies while with last-place Washington, Pearson in 1958 and Allison in 1969. The award in each league was originated in 1949.

* * *

Seaver is the first pitcher to capture NL rookie honors since Jack Sanford of Philadelphia in 1957. He set Mets' records last season in victories plus complete games, 18, strikeouts 170 and lowest earned run average, 2.76.

* * *

In addition, with a scoreless one-inning performance he preserved the National League's 2-1, 15-inning victory over the American League in the mid-season All-Star game.

Brawl Brings Ice Penalties

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — International Hockey League Commissioner Andy Mulligan has taken action against two members of the Columbus Checkers for their part in a Nov. 16 brawl involving the Checkers and Port Huron Flags.

* * *

Columbus forward Wayne Spooner was suspended for two games for hitting linesman Pete Glaab and teammate Ted Leboda was fined $25 for spitting on Glaab.

* * *

Mulligan said more penalties would be levied when he gets further reports on the incident.

Houston '5' Rolls By Pro Colonels

HOUSTON (AP) — Art Becker dropped in 25 points Monday night to spark the Houston Mavericks past the Kentucky Colonels, 102-90, in an American Basketball Association game.

Darrell Carrier led the Colonels with 21 points and rallied behind the shooting of Cotton Nash to within four points early in the fourth quarter but could not catch up.

IC4A Harrier Mark Broken

Holy Cross Soph Sets 5-Mile Record

NEW YORK (AP) — Arthur Dulong of Holy Cross, who shattered the Freshman record last year, broke the varsity mark Monday in winning the 59th annual IC4A cross-country championships.

The 19-year-old sophomore from Randolph, Mass., covered the five mile University Division race over the cold and windy course in 24 minutes, 4.4 seconds, easily bettering the 24:18.6 mark established last year by Charlie Messenger of Villanova.

Messenger never threatened this year. He said later the cold weather hampered his breathing. He wound up a distant eighth.

1. Arthur Dulong, Holy Cross	24:04.4
2. Steve Stagsters, Georgetown	24:29
3. Tom Donnelly, Villanova	24:50
4. Terry Dimmitt, William & Mary	25:00
5. Ray Smith, Penn State	25:04
6. Tom Gaine, St. John's, N.Y.	25:07

Florida Coaches Among Sideline Casualty List

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Coaching football from the sidelines used to just be tough on the nerves. Now it's tough on the body for Florida coaches.

Four of them are hobbling around with canes, casts or soreness as they shout instructions to their squads.

* * *

Graves and Gaither are also battled-scarred from sideline collisions with their beefy charges.

TOO SLOW

Graves didn't move fast enough last Saturday during the Florida-Kentucky game and was hit on a sideline play. He stayed through the game and later found out he had a torn cartilage in his left leg, now immobilized by a cast.

A mass of players smashed into Gaither in a A&M's Nov. 11 game at Tallahassee against Southern University. His left leg was broken.

* * *

Tate was knocked down and bruised in Miami's midseason game at Pittsburgh. Worse yet, one of his own Hurricanes, Joe Mira, smacked into him as he was forced out of bounds.

Peterson's troubles started when he twisted his ankle after the Nov. 4 game at Memphis State. Then television lights burned his eyes, and an old kidney infection flared up.

He missed his squad's victory over Virginia Tech on Nov. 11, in bed suffering from the ankle injury, the kidney infection and swollen eyes.

This week he's limping around with a cane as he gets his Seminoles ready to play Florida at Gainesville Saturday.

Leafs' Mahovlich Out of Hospital

TORONTO (AP) — Frank Mahovlich returned to Maple Leaf Gardens Monday for the first time since he was admitted to a hospital Nov. 2 and Dr. Hugh Smythe said the right winger may be skating again with the Toronto Maple Leafs next week.

The National Hockey League star was hospitalized with what doctors termed acute depression and tension, but for the last week has been skating in secret at a private club.

* * *

His noon-hour session Monday was barred from reporters or photographers as he worked with defenseman Allan Stanley, recovering from an eye injury suffered Nov. 11 in Minnesota against the North Stars.

Celts' Red Auerbach Changes Tune on Refs

BOSTON (AP) — Red Auerbach, who spent almost as much time arguing with officials as coaching during his long career as bench boss of the Boston Celtics, is mellowing in his second year as general manager of the National Basketball Association club.

Auerbach, who stepped out as coach after the 1965-66 season, shocked Boston basketball writers Monday by praising — that's right, praising — the officiating in the league this year.

* * *

"If you want proof, just look at the results," Auerbach told the weekly luncheon. "In the old days you dreaded going on the road. You just couldn't win. But in 54 games to date this year the road teams have won 29 against 21 losses — an unbelievable figure."

Auerbach, who probably has paid more in fines than any coach in any sport, reverted slightly to character, however. He openly questioned how the Celtics could draw six fouls in the first six minutes of the final period at Philadelphia while the 76ers were called for one infraction.

He didn't seem too upset about the matter, however. The Celtics' 116-111 victory apparently tempered his concern.

MILD FINE

Auerbach said in defending the officiating in the league this year that he thought the $250 fine imposed on Los Angeles Coach Bill Van Breda Kolff was mild for criticizing NBA play and the referees.

* * *

"What gives him the right to criticize?" Auerbach asked. "He is new as a coach and he wasn't much of a player. He only lasted for three games (as a player) in the NBA."

The Celtics lead Philadelphia by one-half game in the Eastern Division.

Oaks Capture Third Straight

OAKLAND (AP) — LeVern Tart, held to two points in the first half, stormed back with 23 in the final half and led the Oakland Oaks to a 116-110 American Basketball Association triumph over the Minnesota Muskies. It was their third straight victory.

If you answer 'Yes' to the question that follows, you've probably aged quite a bit since the event occurred.

Ever hear of a shutout in basketball? Not any of those 4-2, 2-1 or 3-2 affairs, but an honest-to-goodness whitewashing.

You won't hear of it today with the speedy brand of ball most teams are using, but once upon a time there was a style of basketball that produced some low scores and some shutouts.

A local principal who switched to administration after a few successful years as a coach was on the winning end of one of those shutouts a few years back.

The ex-coach is Lowell Ruggles, now principal at Avondale High School.

"You might say I was a defensive-minded coach," Ruggles said with a smile the other evening while talking about the shutout.

★ ★ ★

The big game came in 1938 when Ruggles coached his Perrysville, O., team to a 30-0 win over nearby Nova, two small towns near Mansfield.

TENSION APLENTY

"There was a lot of tension," Ruggles recalled. "The crowd was excited. They really wanted the shutout.

★ ★ ★

"In the last two minutes, they (Perrysville) had two or three shots.

"We had a small court and we used a zone defense, and one of our boys from that team made All-State."

Two years earlier, Ruggles was teaching grade school and coaching the junior high team. After a 19-0 season with the junior players, Ruggles was elevated to the high school job when the other coach left.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac Central turned in some low scores back in the Thirties and Fourties, and perhaps the lowest for the Chiefs was recorded in 1935.

In that year, PCH downed a YMCA team, 14-2. The Chiefs beat Hazel Park, 53-4, in 1939. Flint Northern beat the Chiefs, 14-8, in 1937.

Ex-Royal Oak Kimball ace John Gabler is gaining a lot of playing time as a sophomore on the University of Michigan football team. He's a fine blocker and No. 3 in pass receiving with 16 catches for 126 yards.

Former North Farmington basketball star Rick Lorenz and John Toland of Birmingham Seaholm are two of the lettermen on the Alma College quintet.

Fullback Mel Patterson and linebacker Chuck Havitland, both graduates of Kettering, continue to star at Hillsdale. Patterson is the top ground gainer on the team with 536 yards, while Haviland ranks third on defense with 22 solo tackles.

Patterson and teammate Dick Kraatz, a graduate of Bloomfield Hills Andover, scored the touchdowns Saturday as Hillsdale downed Southwest Missouri.

Cranbrook finished a point behind University School of Cleveland in the over-all athletic fall effort among teams in the Interstate Preparatory School League. The Cranes were third in cross country, second in football and third in soccer.

A project someone at Pontiac Northern might undertake would be the task of providing football programs at the 1968 home games. It's always nice to know who's on the field.

Lack of Sleep Doesn't Hurt Pass Catching

PROVO, Utah (AP) — A rugged ex-Marine who has trouble sleeping after games may become college football's second leading pass receiver of all time Saturday.

He is Phil Odle, the swift split end of Brigham Young University, who needs six receptions against San Jose State to take the No. 2 spot from Hugh Campbell, former Washington State star.

Odle, a 5-foot-11, 185-pounder with fine moves and sure hands, has caught 171 passes for 3,437 yards and 22 touchdowns since he and three other Marine buddies were recruited by the Mormon school.

With six receptions, 17 yards and one touchdown in his final game, Odle would finish his career second in receptions, tied for second in touchdown catches, and third in reception yardage.

Howard Twilley, former Tulsa end, holds a wide lead as the all-time champion in each category.

★ ★ ★

Older than most college players, the 24-year-old Odle nonetheless plays with the desire of sophomore trying to break into the starting line-up.

He has played about half the season with two broken ribs, suffered in BYU's 31-13 victory over eight-ranked Oregon State.

Prototype Engine to Get Debut

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — An experimental turbine engine, somewhat similar to the one which ran away from the field for 197 of the 200 laps at Indianapolis, will make its debut in sports car racing in 1968.

The sports prototype, being built by the Howmet Corp. and McKee Engineering, will make its initial start in Bill France's 24-hour Continental at Daytona Beach in February. It will run later in the 12-Hours of Sebring and the 24-Hours of Le Mans.

Drivers will be Dick Thompson and Ed Lowther, both experienced in American open circuit racing and with Daytona's combination infield-high banked 3.2-mile course.

★ ★ ★

Designed by engineers of the Howmet Corp., a leading metals concern, the sports turbine is being produced by Continental Aviation and Engineering, a subsidiary of Continental Motors Corp. McKee Engineering for years has been a top designer and builder of sports-racing cars, mainly for Chevrolet engines and for Sports Car Club of America's Group 7 category.

IT'S SMALLER

No details of the sports turbine have been announced, but sources close to racing say it is different, but not radically so, from the STP turbine that has been banned from the Indianapolis 500 for next season. For one thing, it is smaller.

Despite the new limitations placed on Indianapolis turbines, the Memorial Day 500 hasn't seen the last of the exotic new power plants. Several are being built for the 1968 event.

There are reports that Bruce McLaren and Dennis Hulme, who made a walkaway of the Canadian - American Challenge Cup Group 7 sports-racing series this year, will drive the championship turbine cars being built in a well-guarded hideaway near Ted Halibrand's shops at Torrance, Calif.

Ankle Injury Slows So. African Netter

JOHANNESBURG (AP) — Spain's chances in the Davis Cup Interzone tennis final against South Africa rose sharply today with the announcement that Bob Hewitt has been dropped from the South African squad because of an ankle injury.

Jim Barrie, president of the South African Lawn Tennis Union, announced the team after speaking to Claude Lister, the South African Davis Cup team manager, who is in London.

Lister told Barrie that Hewitt's ankle, which was hurt against India in Barcelona earlier this month, was not completely healed.

Officials Protecting QB, Says Packer

By the Associated Press

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — National Football League on-the-field officials are keeping a protective eye on the league's quarterbacks, says Green Bay Packer safety man Willie Wood.

The result, said the All-Pro defender, is that rushers have a tendency to let up on the quarterback if they can't reach him before he releases a pass.

Wood was not critical of the vigilance.

★ ★ ★

"I think quarterbacks are a rare commodity in professional football," he said. "The second-string quarterback on a lot of teams (Wood excluded the Packers) doesn't have the necessary experience, and can't fill right in for a starter, and to lose a first-string quarterback gives some guys a tendency to lose confidence in their offense."

Injuries have stripped several of the NFL's teams of their quarterbacks. The Packers' starter Bart Starr has been out of action reneatedly this season. Dallas has been forced to play at times without its ace passer Don Meredith.

★ ★ ★

Injuries also have hampered Frank Ryan of the Cleveland Browns.

Despite the strategic importance of knocking a quarterback out of commission, Wood said, "We pull up on the quarterback as often as possible."

FIRST WARNING

The reason, he said, is fear of a penalty for roughing a passer. Such penalties are usually not called until after a first warning.

"Penalties can kill you," Wood said. "A 15-yarder could be the difference in a ball game."

★ ★ ★

"They warn us any time it's close," said Packer linebacker Lee Roy Caffey. "The officials protect the quarterback as much as they can, and they should."

Caffey admitted that defenders try to give quarterbacks their hardest tackles.

"We don't try to hurt him, but if he is running with the ball, he's live meat," he said. "He's anybody's. And knowing he's quarterback, you definitely put your mind to it. We don't try to injure him. We just try to give him a good shot."

Caffey wasted no sympathy. "On those sweeps," he said, "those linemen don't slow down for me. That's football. That's the name of the game."

Wood said the Packers, who are warned by their own coaching staff against hitting the quarterback unnecessarily, have yet to be penalized this season for roughing a passer. The Packers have the league's best over-all defense against the pass.

Former Seals' GM Takes Club to Court

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Oakland Seals club of the National Hockey League has been sued for $105,000 on a charge of breach of contract by Rudy Pilous, coach and general manager before the team shifted from the Western Hockey League to the NHL.

Pilous contended in his suit Monday that he signed a four-year contract May 18, 1966. He said it was terminated June 16, 1967, 13 months later.

He declared the contract provided $25,000 a year as coach, $10,000 more as manager, and a $10,000 bonus if the Seals finished above three other teams.

Pilous said he expected to remain as coach after the Seals moved into the NHL this season. Burt Olmstead.

Of the popular pickups

Only Chevrolet '68 Job Tamers give you all this truck power!

250 Cu.-In. SIX—biggest standard in-line six

292 Cu.-In. SIX—power plus economy

307 Cu.-In. V8—new standard V8 for '68

327 Cu.-In. V8—extra pulling power

396 Cu.-In. V8—top pickup power, regular-grade fuel

Here are five powerful reasons for buying a Chevrolet pickup! Start with the standard 250 Six with 155 hp. It's the biggest standard in-line Six in a popular pickup. And a very smooth operator with 12-counterweight crankshaft design. Chevy's 292 Six gives you even more power with traditional 6-cylinder economy. For those who prefer a V8, there's the brand-new standard 307 V8 with 200 Job Taming horses. Or step up to a 327 V8 or 396 V8—up to 310 hp. Nobody offers more! Chevrolet's famous for job-tailored power!

Naturally, you look for more than engine power, economy and performance in a pickup. Chevrolet offers a lot more! Like the kind of ride you get only with Chevy's full coil spring suspension on ½- and ¾-ton models. Independent front suspension. Modern cab design that lets you see more of the road ahead. Double-strong, double-wall cab and Fleetside body construction. Ask your Chevrolet dealer to price out the pickup that's right for your purpose. That will be another powerful reason for buying a Chevy Job Tamer!

From Fleischmann: The Preferred Whiskey.

A lot of people like Fleischmann's Preferred.
And they can tell you why.
Most would say they simply like the way it tastes.
For some, it's the 90 proof.
For others, it's the value of Preferred.
This is very fine whiskey—at a very decent price.
A good many people might even tell you the important thing is the Fleischmann name.
(And that's just the kind of confidence we've tried to create—every step of the way since 1870.)
It's an easy whiskey to like.

Michigan Gets Ready for Ohio State

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The University of Michigan football team began its final week of practice Monday after beating Wisconsin 27-14 Saturday.

Coach Bump Elliott said the team came through the game with only minor injuries.

* * *

Phil Seymour, a sophomore defensive end, was sidelined Monday with a knee injury. Elliott said Seymour should be able to work out today.

MINOR INJURY

Dennis Brown, a junior quarterback, suffered a minor groin injury, and Ernie Sharpe, a senior halfback, suffered a minor head injury. Both worked with the team Monday.

* * *

Sophomore fullback Garvey Craw remained on the injured list with a pulled leg muscle, from the game with Illinois last week. Elliott said "it is not yet certain whether Craw will be ready to play in the Wolverine's final game of the season against Ohio State in Ann Arbor Saturday.

Likes Boilermakers' Keyes, Too

Duffy on Purdue Bandwagon

By DUFFY DAUGHERTY
Head Football Coach
Michigan State University

Which college football team is the best in the country and who is the most outstanding player? These two questions more than any others will be kicked around during the next 10 days. Yet they fall right in line with one of the most topsy-turvy seasons on record.

Some writers cast their ballots before all the returns are in. This is one of the things wrong with mail voting, especially for the outstanding player vote involving the Heisman Award.

* * *

Writers anxious to vote for a certain player sometimes mail their ballot before a player has ended his season. It is also tough for a writer to pick a team or a player he hasn't seen in person.

But we have seen the Big Three. There's Leroy Keyes of Purdue, Orenthel James Simpson, better known as Southern Californi's Orange Juice, and Gary Beban of UCLA.

We have been victimized by these three men and beaten by Keyes this fall and Beban a year ago last New Year's Day in the Rose Bowl. These men and their teams have compiled fine records.

LIKES PURDUE

My vote goes to Purdue as the nation's No. 1 team and to Keyes as the No. 1 player.

Of course, if the Boilermakers lose to Indiana Saturday, Purdue would no longer be No. 1 team. And everyone expects Keyes will gain at least 127 yards against the Hoosiers to make it an even 1,000 for the season.

* * *

So there's still pressure on Purdue and Keyes, even though they can't meet Southern Cal in the Rose Bowl because of the Big Ten rule against successive appearances.

USC, UCLA and Purdue have been victims of either the field goal or the conversion kick. In three games super kicker Mike Haggard of Oregon State decided the outcome. His three field goals and a conversion beat Purdue 22-14; his 30-yard field goal beat USC 3-0 and his late field goal tied UCLA 16-16.

And last Saturday Rikki Aldridge's extra point beat UCLA 21-20. Had UCLA's fine kicker, Zenon Andrusyshyn, made his final attempt a tie would have resulted, putting the Bruins into the Rose Bowl.

TIGHT FIT

Before all the polling for No. 1 team is over you are likely to see a tight fit among Purdue, USC and Tennessee, a team UCLA beat 20-16 in the opener for both teams.

But take Keyes, Simpson and Beban away from their great teams and each squad would be brought back to the level of most other good college teams. Even I find it difficult to make a true comparison because each of these super players perform different things. In most any other year any one of them would be a worthy Heisman trophy winner.

Simpson's electrifying 64-yard run that made the score 20-20 in the Rose Bowl clincher showed his blinding speed. He was that way against us and combined his speed with terrific power.

Beban unquestionably is the nation's top quarterback, a great leader, fine passer and runner. He got his team back to a 14-14 tie then put them ahead 20-14 but it just wasn't enough.

Keyes is a more versatile man. He runs well, passes well, plays defense when needed and blocks with reckless abandon. The contract lenses he uses must fit perfectly because he did everything right against us.

Spartans Hope to Salvage '67

Northwestern Visits MSU Saturday

EAST LANSING (AP)— Michigan State can only aim at a salvage operation as the football Spartans close out their season Saturday against Northwestern.

MSU, Northwestern and Illinois all are tied for sixth in the Big Ten with 2-4 conference marks. Only Iowa and Wisconsin are below them.

* * *

Even with a win, Coach Duffy Daugherty will have his worst season on record. His previous poorest was 3-6 in 1954, his first year as head coach.

* * *

A victory over the Wildcats still would leave Michigan State at 3-7.

* * *

Daugherty reported minor but nagging injuries to such defensemen as tackle Charles Bailey, guard Ken Hines and linebacker Don Law had cut further into his lineup.

MAY SWITCH

He said he is thinking of shifting first string offense guards Mitch Pruiett and Tony Conti to the defense this week.

* * *

There were nine defensive players out with injuries before the season started, the coach said, and at least eight have been sidelined by injuries since the first game.

Adrian's Schwartz Lone Repeater

All-Staters Small, Quick in 'D' Lineup

By The Associated Press

Two boys who already have made their mark in prep sports and the top lineman on Bay City St. Joseph's No. 1-ranked team dominated the small but quick 1967 Michigan Associated Press Class D High School All-State football team.

Joe Schwartz, who sparked Adrian Catholic to an 8-1 record, was the only repeater from last year's Class D squad. He heads a team which averages six feet in heighth and 185 pounds.

Joe Sperla of Flint St. Matthew, who made All-State in basketball last year, made it as a football halfback this year along with Steve Jean, St. Joseph's bulwark guard.

Rounding out the team, announced today, are ends Bill Flood of Benton Harbor St. John and Mike Tavernili of Potterville, tackles Roger Chase of Vestaburg and Jack Vliet of Rose City, center Ron Pearson of Galien, guard Chuck Latour of Richmond St. Augustine and halfbacks Terry Morrison of Portland St. Patrick and Dennis VanTiem of Marine City Holy Cross.

RECORD-BREAKER

Schwartz, who broke all of Adrian Catholic's passing records set by his older brother, Tom, an All-State selection a few years back, hit on 69 of 141 passes for 1,169 yards and 14 touchdowns.

The 6-foot-1, 185-pound quarterback also rushed for 313 yards and scored five touchdowns, ran for two extra points and passed for three others. On defense, he averaged seven tackles a game.

* * *

He heads an elite backfield that rushed for more than 3,000 yards. Sperla, a great all-around athlete, sparked Flint St. Matthew to the Class D state basketball title last winter. This fall, he rolled up 1,077 yards, scoring 17 touchdowns. Sperla had 280 rushing in one game and against a tough Owosso St. Paul club, he amassed 214 yards and scored four touchdowns.

Opening lead—♠ K

BY OSWALD AND JAMES JACOBY

In board-a-match team competition each board counts exactly the same in the final standing. A win by 10 points and a win by 2,000 points is still and a win by just one win. Thus some players try to win boards by playing a hand in no-trump instead of a major suit. If they can make the same number of tricks at either contract, the 10-point difference is a win.

JACOBY

When the team of Jim, Judy, Mary Zita and Oswald Jacoby put Oswald over the 10,000 Master Point mark in Dallas, they were faced with a possible 10-point loss when the older Jacobys bid and made a normal four hearts while at the other table the opponents played the hand at three no-trump.

We don't think much of south's bid of two no-trump. South was looking at two little spades, and Judy's double of two diamonds had clearly shown a club-spade hand. Still South bid two no-trump and North raised to three on the theory that his seven hearts would all take tricks at no-trump.

As you can see, three no-trump is a very bad contract. Judy's king of spades held the first trick, but she wasn't too happy about it. Jim did play the seven, but if Jim had started with just two spades he would have to shift after winning the second spade with his ace and would surely shift to a club.

* * *

After all, South had bid diamonds, not clubs, Judy solved the problem of getting a diamond return from Jim by leading her ten of spades at trick two. This lead of an unnaturally high spade was a most unusual example of a suit preference signal.

It wasn't needed this time because Jim had a third spade to lead back, but good players go out after every trick they can get.

Jim knew he could set three no-trump with a spade lead but he played a diamond anyway. This gave Judy two diamond tricks in addition to the rest of her spades, and South was down three instead of only two.

What do you do now?

A—Double. This modern bid is for takeout, not for business. It shows something like you actually hold. If you are afraid that your partner will read your double as "for penalty," you should bid two spades.

TODAY'S QUESTION

You do double and your partner bids two hearts. What do you do?

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — Robert J. Kleinman, 42, of Traverse City, has been named to head the office of administration and finance by the Reformed Church in America. The post was created by the denomination's general synod as part of a general reorganization. Kleinman, who operated a wholesale building supply service for 19 years, begins his new duties in New York Jan. 15.

Tool-Die Strike Hits 54 Plants

DETROIT (UPI)—More than 6,500 tool and die makers struck 54 plants in the Detroit area yesterday after the union membership rejected a contract offer.

Leaders of the two United Auto Workers unions involved said the contract offer was rejected because it was "grossly inadequate."

* * *

George Merrelli, director of UAW region 1 said "There has been no indication that the companies want to tackle and solve the problems that we have or even that they have."

The 54 tool and die plants are represented in the negotiations by the Detroit Tooling Association.

Curbs on Drivers

LANSING (AP)—Disciplinary actions against errant drivers during the first 10 months of the year are running well ahead of last year, says Secretary of State James Hare. He said nearly 44,000 actions against drivers have been taken by his driver improvement section, a rise of about 4,000 from the same period last year. These actions include license cancellations, recovactions, suspensions, restrictions, denials and referrals to county driver safety schools.

STUDENTS SCUFFLE — San Jose State College students scuffle after police arrived on the California campus to break up what began as a peaceful antiwar demonstration over the appearance on campus of a representative from Dow Chemical Corp., which makes napalm for use in the Vietnam war. The fracas resulted in 12 arrests, three head injuries and a dozen tear gas burns. About 4,000 protesters gathered.

New Napalm Protest Is Threatened

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — A student and faculty protest against napalm threatened San Jose State College with another outbreak of violence today.

A fracas Monday resulted in 12 arrests, three head injuries and a dozen tear gas burns.

★ ★ ★

The college administration scheduled a two-hour public forum today. The subject: Job recruitment on the campus by Dow Chemical Corp, which makes napalm for use in the Vietnam war. All parties in the dispute were urged to attend the present their views.

★ ★ ★

About 300 persons demonstrated Monday against the Dow representative. This swelled to a crowd of 4,000—mostly onlookers—and turned into a riot when a flying wedge of San Jose police charged with tear gas after campus authorities ordered the crowd to disperse. There are 20,000 students at the school

TWO-POINT PROPOSAL

Leaders of Students for a Democratic Society, who led Monday's demonstration, met Monday night and decided to attend today's forum to present the Dow envoy with a two-point proposal: Either stop making napalm or stop recruiting on the campus.

If an answer was not forthcoming, they promised another demonstration.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile Gov. Ronald Reagan called for stern measures against both students and faculty members taking part in the protest.

Such teachers "have forfeited their right to teach," he said, adding that students involved "in these criminal violations should be severely disciplined and subject to expulsion."

JOSEPH V. ZILINSKY

Pontiac Twp. GI Killed in Viet

A Pontiac Township soldier has been killed in action in Vietnam. He was a recent bridegroom, having been married Oct. 7.

Dead is Pfc. Joseph V. Zelinsky, 19, of 380 Gannon, an infantryman.

Zelinski was reported by the Army as being killed by enemy mortar fire on Nov. 19. He had been drafted in May of this year.

He was a former General Motors Truck and Coach Division sheet metal worker and a 1966 graduate of Avondale High School. He married his wife, Theresa, 17, just 12 days prior to his shipment to Vietnam.

★ ★ ★

Survivors include his father, Stanley Zelinsky of Troy; a brother Neal, at home; and a sister Mrs. George Fairman of Utica.

The body is expected to be shipped to Harold Davis Funeral Home for funeral service.

Strangulation Killed Woman in Local Fire

Pontiac police, continuing their investigation of the murder of a city woman who was at first believed killed by a fire in her home Saturday, today said strangulation has been established as the cause of death.

★ ★ ★

An autopsy performed Saturday afternoon revealed that Mrs. John T. Johnson had been both beaten and strangled.

Doctors at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital said she had suffered a fractured skull from a blow with a blunt instrument and had been choked by a wire hanger twisted about her neck —not found until the autopsy, due to the charred condition of the body.

The predawn blaze, which was originally blamed on careless smoking, was apparently set in an effort to cover the murder, according to Detectives Dallas Flesher and Billie Irwin.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Johnson's body was found by firemen in the combination bedroom-kitchen of the house. Investigators later discovered traces of kerosene in the room.

Electric Typewriters Stolen From Office

Two electric typewriters each valued at more than $500, were stolen from the office of Big Brothers of Oakland County, 132 Franklin Blvd., it was reported yesterday.

★ ★ ★

Investigators, who said entry was made by breaking through a window on the side of the building, checked the area for fingerprints.

It was the second break-in at the office in the past two weeks, according to police.

Turkey at Holly Is Gobbled Up in a Fowl Play

With Thanksgiving only two days away, somebody in Holly last night was up to some fowl play.

Ed Freeman, who owns Freeman's Shop Rite Supermarket at 124 N. Saginaw, reported to police that a live turkey he had been using for advertising purposes was stolen.

He told Holly police that the gobbler was taken along with its large pen from the back of the store. The turkey weighed 25-30 pounds.

Eleven State Arrests in Gambling Raids

DETROIT (AP) — Police officers from Detroit, Michigan State Police, and three suburban departments aided by Internal Revenue Service agents arrested 11 persons in eight raids on a suspected gambling ring Monday night.

★ ★

Police said the raids in Detroit and the suburbs of Livonia, Lincoln Park and Garden City smashed a group doing $25,000 weekly business.

Lt. Robert Bullock of the Detroit racket conspiracy bureau said the raids netted 10,000 football bet slips, betting records, several pieces of printing equipment and four automobiles.

Road Project Bill OK'd by U.S. House

A bill authorizing transfer of unused mileage in one interstate highway project to another was passed yesterday by the U.S. House.

According to Congressman Jack McDonald, R-19th District, cosponsor of the bill, about 200 miles will be added to the program.

★ ★ ★

This transfer, said McDonald, would be done in cases where construction problems had arisen or the amount of mileage approved for the project was considered excessive.

No additional federal funds are involved, he said.

★ ★ ★

The 200 miles added to the interstate system would probably affect only a few of the larger states, including Michigan.

Recall of School Board Mulled in Illinois City

MADISON, Ill. (AP) — A recall of the school board at Madison is being considered by parents of some white students who boycotted classes Monday.

About 800 of the 1,700 white students in the six Madison schools stayed home Monday. The leader said they were protesting school board action that ended a Negro student boycott last week.

★ ★ ★

Thomas Watson, a spokesman for the white parents, said the group thinks "Even the colored people are dissatisfied with the competence of the board."

Watson said he has contacted Madison County School Superintendent Wilber Trimpe to learn procedures for recalling the school board. He said Trimpe will meet Wednesday afternoon with white parents to discuss the situation.

About 1,300 Negro students who boycotted the schools last week returned to classes Monday. The Negro boycott began in a dispute over cheerleader selection when 17 boys skipped football practice three weeks ago. The players said they were protesting the fact that only one of six varsity cheerleaders was a Negro.

The board banned the boys from competition and said it would not reinstate the Negro athletes. But last Friday the boycott ended with the announcement that the football players could return to athletic competition.

Plans for the white boycott were made Sunday afternoon.

PNH Student, Teacher to Attend Atom Confab

Patricia L. Adomitis, a student at Pontiac Northern High School, and David Craigmile, a physics teacher at PNH, have been selected to be among 28 Consumers Power Co. delegates at the 1967 National Youth Conference on the Atom.

Patricia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Adomitis of 3277 E. Walton. Craigmile lives at 3065 Shawnee, Waterford Township.

The delegation, consisting of 13 students, 13 teachers and two company representatives, will meet Nov. 29-Dec. 2 in Chicago.

In announcing the local representatives, Charles F. Brown, Pontiac division manager of the company, said both students and teachers were selected by the schools.

★ ★ ★

The students were chosen in recognition of their outstanding scholastic achievement in scientific studies.

"Consumers Power Co. joins 70 investor-owned electric utilities which this year are sending a total of 720 students and teachers to Chicago as a way of recognizing the efforts of our schools and teachers to help youngsters everywhere prepare for this increasingly technical and scientific world," Brown said.

Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, chairman, Atomic Energy Commission, will be a principal speaker. A message from President Johnson will open the first session.

2 Area Firms Broken Into

Rochester police are investigating weekend break-ins at two downtown business places. More than $550 was taken.

Police Chief Robert Werth reported this morning a break-in at Rochester Elevator Co., 303 E. University, early Saturday. $75 in bills and coins was taken.

★ ★ ★

Investigation of a later forced entry into an office complex at 427 W. University revealed $308 missing from Dr. Richard Dayton and Dr. Loren Siffring's office and another $75 from the John Peterson Northwest Mutual Insurance Agency in the basement. Entry had been gained through the basement suite, according to Officer Douglas Ehle.

Fire Destroys Barn at Adelphian Mills

A blaze early this morning destroyed a barn at the Adelphian Academy Mills, 820 Academy, Holly Township, which had over $20,000 worth of wood trellises stored in it.

Manager of the mills J. D. Wohlers said that there was about a month's production stored in the two-story barn, which until recently had remained empty. The fire apparently started about 3 a.m.

The rapid ignition of the blaze forced the Holly Fire Department to let it burn and keep it from spreading, he said. It had burned out by 6 a.m.

By 1985, households headed by persons under 35 will make up 31.6 per cent of the population in the U.S.

Names of Planets Derive From Classical Dieties

NEW YORK (UPI) — Almost as fascinating as the solar system itself is the background of the planets' names. All the names, except that of earth, were derived from Roman and Greek mythology.

The first six planets were discovered and named by ancient star watchers. There has, however, been some confusion in naming the "newer" planets discovered since the 18th century.

But in modern times, "questions of the naming of astronomical objects are usually settled by the International Astronomical Union," said Franklyn M. Branley, assistant chairman of the Hayden Planetarium. "This body has clarified the naming of features on Mars and on the Moon."

The ancients had no difficulties in their name choices, drawing from their colorful mythology. Mercury, probably because of its great speed, was named for the messenger of the gods.

★ ★ ★

Venus, of course, is named for the goddess of love and beauty. Because of its starlike brilliance, it was once known as Lucifer ("light-bearer").

ANGLO-SAXON NAME

Earth is derived from the Anglo-Saxon word for land ("eorthe"). Steps have been taken to see that remains the only nonclassical planet name.

The "red planet," Mars, was named for the fiery Roman god of war, due to its "bloody" appearance. Its two satellites are named Phobes (fear) and Deimos (terror), giving the planet an even more ominous aura.

The word "planet," incidentally, comes from the Greek "planan," meaning "to wander," while "satellite" is based on the Latin word "satelles," which means "attendant."

★ ★ ★

Jupiter was named after the chief of the gods, ruler of the heavens, no doubt because of the planet's immense size. It is the largest of the nine planets.

SATURN

In mythology, Saturn was the son of Heaven and Earth. He became the father of Neptune, Jupiter and Pluto.

These first six planets remained the known solar system from ancient times until 1781, when Uranus was spotted by Sir William Herschel of England.

He originally called his discovery "Georgium Sidium" in honor of King George III and it became known as "The Georgian" throughout Britain.

★ ★ ★

In 1850, however, J. E. Bode renamed it in the classical tradition. Uranus in mythology was the earliest of the gods and was once called Coelus (heaven); in fact, "uranus" is Greek for heaven.

Merger OK'd in Principle

Edward S. Reddig, president of White Consolidated Industries Inc., the parent company of Briney Bushing Co., Inc., 454 N. Cass, and Edward P. Bullard, president of The Bullard Co., Lathrup Village, announced that the boards of directors of each company in separate meetings approved in principle a merger of Bullard into White.

The terms are: Each Bullard share is to be exchanged for 44 shares of White Consolidated common stock plus .43 shares of a new White $3 series preferred stock, $50 par value.

The transaction is subject to approval by the stockholders of both companies.

Newsmen Sneak a Look at Red Moscow-to-NY Jet

WASHINGTON (AP) — A sleek Soviet jetliner has a star billing at Dulles International Airport as it undergoes a series of tests aimed at clearing the way for nonstop Moscow to New York air service.

The Aeroflot IL62 touched down at Dulles Monday night and in the flood-lit, televised confusion, four newsmen got a sneak preview of the inside of the craft from six pretty Soviet stewardesses.

* * *

They said they found the air stale—apparently due to a nonoperating ventilating system—but otherwise the interior of the plane appeared to measure up to standards of most American passenger jets.

In the terminal, Dimitry I. Petrov, inspector general of Soviet civil aviation, described the visit as "the first step for the beginning of direct communication between Moscow and New York."

11-HOUR FLIGHT

The flight, Petrov said, brings the Soviet and American capitals to within 11 hours of each other.

Aeroflot and Pan American Airways have applied to the two governments for clearance to begin the direct air service. The two governments have completed negotiations for opening the two routes except for final operating details.

* * *

Pan American is sending a team of technicians to Moscow in December to obtain Soviet clearance on the 707-321B which it plans to use on the route.

The two governments have completed all negotiations for opening the two routes except for final operating details.

No visitors were to have boarded the plane until today, but in the confusion of arrival the reporters found their way unbarred and their welcome friendly.

"I am looking forward to meeting my Pan American colleague," said smiling Natasha Arutjunova, who identified herself as Aeroflot's chief stewardess.

She said the plane carried 80 passengers on its regular nonstop flight from Moscow to Montreal, then flew on to Washington with the delegation of 10 technicians which is to arrange for the plane's U.S. certification.

The IL62 is designed to carry up to 186 passengers in all-economy class seating. On Monday's flight it was set up with 90 seats in the rear tourist section and 32 first-class seats forward. The sections were separated by a large galley.

NANCY KEFAUVER

Kefauver's Widow Dies in Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nancy Kefauver, 56, widow of Tennessee Sen. Estes Kefauver and a State Department art adviser, collapsed at a formal Washington dinner and died in a hotel room Monday night.

She had been carried from the Mayflower Hotel's grand ballroom only a short time before President Johnson, a long-time friend of the Kefauvers, arrived to make a dinner speech. A police coroner said her death was due to "heart failure."

Johnson apparently was unaware Mrs. Kefauver had died in a seventh floor room as he paid tribute to the dinner's guest of honor, Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen.

Mrs. Kefauver, vivacious and red-haired, was once a familiar figure in politics, campaigning for years with her tall Tennessee husband, who won five terms in the House and three in the Senate and ran in 1956 as vice presidential candidate on the unsuccessful Democratic ticket with Adlai Stevenson.

* * *

When Kefauver died in 1963 at the age of 60, friends and constituents urged Mrs. Kefauver to run for her husband's unexpired Senate term. She declined.

* * *

In 1963, President John F. Kennedy named Mrs. Kefauver a State Department consultant to help provide a showcase of American art at U. S. embassies abroad. Two years later it became a full-time job and she got a newly created post as adviser on fine arts.

Former GI, Canine Pal Are Reunited in NY

NEW YORK (AP) — Just short of a year ago, Army Spec. 4 Frank A. Coronato bought a mongrel pup for $2.80 from a native boy in Long Binh, Vietnam.

Six months later the black and brown, knee high dog had won the heart of the entire 561st Transportation Corps, with which Coronato served.

* * *

The 22-year-old Staten Island soldier was proud of his new friend, whom he called Joe. The pup had earned the title of mascot of the entire 3,000-man outfit.

And earned it he had, living on scraps from the mess hall, even traveling with the troops on dangerous truck convoys through the Vietnamese countryside.

DUTY ENDED

When Coronato ended his Vietnam duty last September he decided he couldn't part with Joe. But it cost $160 to ship the puppy home by air freight, and soldiers' salaries being what they are, Coronato did not have the money.

So he asked Capt. George Douglas of the Moore-McCormack's shipping line's Robin Hood if he would take Joe to New York. Five minutes of hand-licking and paw-shaking later the pooch had a free trip to the states.

* * *

Monday, Joe arrived in his adopted land. As one might expect, he again had won everybody over. Douglas said: "We had a nice doghouse built for him but he didn't spend a night in it. He took to the bridge immediately. He thought he was an officer. And he had the run of the ship. He became the mascot of the whole 44-man crew."

But Joe's heart was true. When he spotted his old buddy Frank he bounded toward him, leaped into his arms and gave the ex-soldier a face-licking that had him reaching for his handkerchief time and again.

Douglas got a farewell hand licking from Joe and told Coronato, now an auto parts salesman, "If you ever want to get rid of him, just let me know."

At the Coronato home Joe refused dog food. "I think they spoiled him on the cruise," his owner said.

Cigarette Filter May Be Used to Cut Car Pollution

WINDSOR, Ont. (UPI) — A cigarette filter described by its inventor as revolutionary may be useful in controlling automobile exhaust fumes and reducing air pollution, a scientist said yesterday.

Otto Brundy of the University of Windsor said the filter, combined with factors, could virtually eliminate carbon monoxide from car exhaust.

He said the principle could be applied to cars at a cost of about one dollar per car. He said General Motors Corp. has already approached him to investigate the finding.

Brundy is a colleague of Dr. Joseph Haborski, inventor of the "percolator" cigarette filter.

* * *

The filter, announced earlier this year, spins tars out of cigarette smoke by centrifugal force. Haborski has described the action as being similar to a propeller moving through water.

Wipes Out Monday Losses

Stock Market on the Rebound

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market rebounded today, wiping out all the losses taken in the Monday decline. Trading was heavy.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 8.84 at 866.62.

★ ★ ★

An hour before it was up 10.23, but traders took some profits.

Gains outnumbered losses by about 4 to 1.

★ ★ ★

Some of the high-priced growth stocks made multi-point gains. Polaroid, which announced a 2-for-1 stock split and dividend boost, spurted 10 points.

The rally actually was a continuation of the recovery drive from the low point reached in Monday's scare selling triggered by devaluation of the British pound and by interest rate increase in Britain and the Unite dStates.

★ ★ ★

Although the Monday market ended lower, a strong recovery drive was under way and its momentum carried through to Tuesday.

The most important news factor in the recovery, brokers said, was the move by Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark, of the House Ways and Means Committee, to call a hearing Nov. 28 to consider a new administration and cost-cutting package.

Prices rose in active trading on the American Stock Exchange. Stanrock Uranium was the volume pacemaker, rising a fraction. R.F. Communications and Zapata Off-Shore rose 2 or more. Up a point or more were Dynalectron, Technicolor, Argus and Hydrometals. Fractionally higher and active were Federal Resources, Transcontinental Investors, Siboney and Kin-Ark Oil.

Average Driver Gains

Auto Trends Shift

By DAVID W. CHUTE

DETROIT (UPI) — The auto companies are discovering a new route in the horsepower race, and it adds up to gains for the ordinary driver.

★ ★ ★

For several years, the companies have been increasing the sizes of their engines in an effort to keep pace with the demand of the youth market for more and more zip in the cars.

It's the same influence that has brought the styling revolution in automobiles, too, with the new emphasis on sporty-type cars.

But in 1968 the trend is changing. Engine horsepower is still going up. Bigger engines are in the new cars. But there's a difference.

Transmissions and power trains are being changed, too, to provide more emphasis on economy, smoothness, quietness and durability.

GOOD REASONS

There are good reasons. The new federal regulations requiring that all cars be equipped with exhaust emission systems to reduce hydrocarbons is one of them. Higher prices for cars is another.

Here's why. The exhaust emission system reduces usable horsepower by at least 2 per cent. It also increases gasoline consumption.

This is a dilemma the auto companies face. They have increased engine size to try to overcome the loss in performance caused by the antipollution systems.

★ ★ ★

But higher horsepower tends to cause an increase in gas consumption all by itself, and this is compounded by the higher gas consumption induced by the exhaust emmission systems.

REDESIGNING ENGINES

So the auto companies are redesigning engines to get the highest foot pounds of torque at lower revolutions.

Then they couple that with transmission systems and lower rear axle ratios to provide the best performance in the median range of speeds . . . the range where most driving is done.

With the bigger engines being used, it provides very satisfactory performance at low speeds but the car travels at the moderate speeds between 50 and 70 miles an hour with less engine turnover.

★ ★ ★

The result is a quieter ride, the engine is working less hard. It also increases gas mileage at those speeds, and because the engine is not turning over so many revolutions per mile, it increases the durability.

GAS ECONOMY

The companies foresee that with the higher price tags on 1968 cars, the motoring public may be seeking to economize somewhere. Better gas mileage offers it.

Novel Heat Source for Building in NY

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Telephone Co. plans to build a multimillion-dollar skyscraper in Manhattan to house the world's largest center for switching long-distance telephone calls.

★ ★ ★

But the 550-foot-tall building won't have any boilers for heating.

★ ★ ★

The company said Monday that heat generated by the telephone switching equipment will be harnessed to warm the building. The move eliminates the need for conventional oil-fired boilers, which the firm said are a source of air pollution.

Dow Exec Wins

MIDLAND (AP)—Dr. W. R. Collings of Midland, honorary chairman of the board of Dow Corning Corp., has been named a winner of the annual Founders Award of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers. An institute spokesman said the award recognizes Collings for pioneering work in the field of chemical engineering.

OK of British Mideast Plan Likely in U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Despite a new Soviet delay, informed sources said today that the British Middle East peace plan is assured of approval when the Security Council meets again Wednesday afternoon.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov obtained the 48-hour delay by introducing a proposal containing some of the provisions of the British plan. But it was worded in such a way that the resolution was immediately labeled pro-Arab.

The Soviet resolution omitted a key provision in three other pending proposals—the appointment of a special U.N. representative to aid in peace efforts.

Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban quickly rejected the Soviet resolution, as did the United States. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg said the plan lacked balance. Eban called it "backward looking."

EXPRESSES SURPRISE

Britain's Lord Caradon expressed surprise that the Soviet proposal made no mention of a special U.N. representative. He noted that this was not only a major feature of his own resolution but was also part of a U.S. proposal and of one sponsored by India, Mali and Nigeria.

The purpose of the Soviet move was not clear, since diplomatic sources said the Russians were prepared to support the British plan if the Soviet proposal—as expected—was rejected. There appeared little chance that the Soviet plan would get the necessary nine votes.

The British resolution, on the other hand, was reported to have lined up at least 12 of the council's 15 votes, with a possibility of a unanimous vote.

Even though both the United States and Britain expressed regret over the delay, they did not vote against it. The reason given for the postponement was to permit delegates time to study the Soviet resolution and obtain instructions.

PRIVATE GRUMBLING

Apart from some private grumbling over the delay, the impression was that Kuznetsov's speech before the council had been unusually conciliatory and that the resolution itself had avoided the usual Soviet attacks on Israel.

He spoke of "propitious conditions" and a "favorable climate" for a political settlement and said his government is "vitally interested to see a lasting peace established in the Middle East area."

Some delegates noted that the Soviet resolution included a call for a limitation of the arms race in the Middle East, a provision advocated by President Johnson and included in the U.S. resolution.

"We would be very happy with a limitation to the arms race in the Middle East," Kuznetsov said.

$20,000 Bond for Dixie Trio in Kidnaping

PASCAGOULA, Miss. (UPI)—Bonds of $20,000 each were set yesterday for three alleged Ku Klux Klansmen charged in a kidnaping case apparently linked with the 1966 fire-bomb death of Negro leader Vernon Dahmer.

Circuit Court Judge Darwin Maples imposed the bonds on Samuel H. Bowers Jr. of Laurel, identified by the FBI as the imperial wizard of the Militant White Knights of the klan; Deavours Nix of Laurel and Cecil V. Sessum of Ellisville, whom the FBI said also are Klansmen.

★ ★ ★

Maples also set $5,000 bond for attorney Travis Buckley on a perjury charge arising from the kidnaping case.

Bowers, Nix and Sessum were jailed Nov. 11 on charges of abducting Jack Watkins of Pascagoula in an alleged attempt to force a statement from him concerning the Dahmer slaying.

California Dem Demands Draft Director Resign

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. John Moss, D-Calif., claims Gen. Lewis B. Hershey's "vindictiveness" makes him clearly unqualified to direct the draft. He wants the Selective Service director to resign immediately.

Moss, in a letter to the 74-year-old Hershey yesterday accused him of having a "callous disregard and contempt for the law, the Constitution and the rights of Americans.

"For the good of our country, it is now time for your honorable discharge," Moss said. "I urge that you immediately resign."

Moss was particularly critical of Hershey's recommendation to local draft boards that they order the immediate induction of deferred students who interfere with the Selective Service system or armed forces recruiters during antiwar demonstrations.

Such action, Moss wrote Hershey, would be an attempt to stifle freedom of speech over the Vietnam war.

Moss said he had "naively" hoped that Hershey would be guided by a U.S. Court of Appeals decision that the Selective Service system could not punish war protesters by reclassifying them 1A.

"I cannot comprehend how a person in your position could exhibit so blatantly a total lack of understanding of fundamental democratic principles," Moss told Hershey.

"The vindictiveness which characterizes your periodic recommendations concerning draftee-protesters makes it abundantly clear that you are now unqualified to direct the Selective Service system," Moss said.

6 Saved From Gas Fumes

HOLLAND (UPI) — As far as Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Vork are concerned, having a "nosy" neighbor, Mrs. Albert Doolittle, yesterday was credited with saving six members of the Vork family after they were overcome by furnace fumes.

Ottawa County sheriff's deputies and Mrs. Doolittle observed no action at the home of the Vorks yesterday morning when normally the home is bustling and preparations are made to send the Vork children to school.

Mrs. Doolittle telephoned the Vork home and no one answered. She knocked on the windows and then went to the home of another neighbor, Mrs. Gerrit Timmer, when she got no response. Both returned to the Vork home and saw Mr. Vork lying on the hallway floor.

A Consumers Power Co. employe stopped by and the Vorks and their children, Karen, 16, Jane, 8, were found overcome in various parts of the house from the fumes.

They were taken to Holland Hospital where their conditions were reported good.

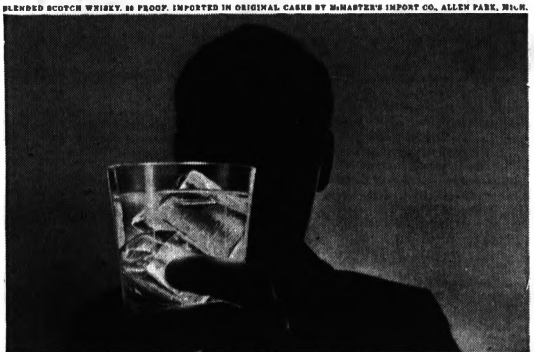
BLENDED SCOTCH WHISKY. 86 PROOF. IMPORTED IN ORIGINAL CASKS BY McMASTER'S IMPORT CO., ALLEN PARK, Mich.



You can tell it's an expensive Scotch, even in the dark.

By the taste not the price.

McMaster's® Scotch tastes expensive, smooth and mellow. You can tell that without looking. Try the McMaster's Scotch taste test: Pour McMaster's fine Scotch and your expensive Scotch into separate glasses. Have a friend blindfold you, rearrange the glasses. Taste both. Aren't you glad you tried McMaster's?

All you have to pay is $4.98 for a $7.00 value: how do we do it? We bring McMaster's fine Scotch over from Scotland in barrels. And bottle it only after it arrives in this country. So we save on taxes, shipping and handling. We pass the savings on to you. The only expensive thing about our Scotch is the taste. 4.98 Tax incl. 4/5 qt.

THE STRIKE'S OVER! WE LOST 61 DAYS. WE HAVE A LOT OF CATCHING UP TO DO!

We're going to sell 12 months' worth of Fords in 10 months... and here are 4 ways we're going to do it!

1. LTD and XL priced lower than last year! We did it by changing what comes as standard equipment . . . and made it even easier to get what you want. Now LTD comes with a bigger V-8—302 cu. in.; XL has a 240-cu. in. Six and a choice of 5 V-8's. Last year you could choose V-8's only. On LTD and XL, 3-speed manual transmission is standard, instead of SelectShift Cruise-O-Matic—now optional. Vinyl roof on 2-door LTD's and Comfort-Stream Ventilation are optional this year. Choose them now only if you want them. And hidden headlamps, strong die-cast grille are all standard for '68.

2. Fastbacks priced the same as hardtops! Take your choice of full-sized or intermediate models, with no extra charge for fastback styling. Above is the handsome Torino GT Fastback with the luxury ride of a 116-in. wheelbase longer than 38 competing intermediate models!. Choice of bucket seats or full-width seats for six.

3. Wagons in three sizes—all available with Ford's two-way Magic Doorgate! Only Ford offers so wide a choice—and only Ford offers its Magic Doorgate with every model. It opens down for cargo—opens out for passengers—and it's only one of the many better ideas that make Ford first in wagon sales.

4. Mustang—the one car on the road you can't mistake for any other! The only one to offer you wall-to-wall carpeting, bucket seats, floor-mounted stick shift, functional hood louvers with turn indicators, and sport steering wheel—all standard. And only Mustang makes it happen at such an economical price! No wonder it's America's favorite sporty car.

You'll find dozens of other better ideas at your Ford Dealer's—and better deals, too. See him soon.

FORD ...has a better idea.

See the man with Better Ideas—Better Deals...your Ford Dealer.

Catch him while he's catching up!

ASSEMBLY PRACTICE — Preparing for the Pontiac Central High School Thanksgiving assembly which will be presented this afternoon and tomorrow are (from left) seniors Victor Adams, Beth Vershure and Mike Stove. Victor and Beverly Bacak will narrate the program.

Thanksgiving at PCH

Assembly Will Feature Music

By JAN GODOSHIAN

Pontiac Central High School's annual Thanksgiving assembly will be presented fifth hour today and tomorrow.

Victor Adams and Beverly Bacak will narrate.

"Let Us Break Bread Together" will be sung by the A Cappella Choir. The Central singers will sing "Surely He Hath Borne Our Griefs." "Psalm 150" and "Hosanna" will be sung by the A Cappella Choir.

The senior boys will sing "If I had a Hammer" while the senior girls will sing "I Wish You Love." The mass chorus will close the program with "How the West was Won" and "The Lord's Prayer."

★ ★ ★

The Stacia Burns Dancers will also participate in the assemblies beginning at 2:15 p.m.

BANDSMAN CHOSEN

Senior Dale Cheal has been chosen as one of the two people from Michigan high school bands to represent the state's outstanding high school musicians.

Recently Dale auditioned and won a scholarship to the University of Michigan Symphonic Band.

Coronet player Gary Featherstone recently returned from New York where he appeared with Count Basie and his orchestra.

The marching band closed its season Saturday. Throughout the year the band displayed formations such as a Lamp Post, Diamond, the letters PCHS, and Granny Glasses.

PLAY IS SUCCESS

Rumpelstiltskin was a big success at all six performances. Plans are now being drawn up for this year's spring musical, "The King and I," by directors Michael Dempsey and Peter Ugolini.

Last week spirit was once again displayed by Pontiac Central students.

David Barker and Stephen Embree acted out two skits between a Pontiac Central and a Pontiac Northern student.

Each class had its own "dress up" day to show its spirit. The week was topped off with a pep assembly held Friday morning.

BELL WHEELED OUT

Pontiac Northern's victory bell was wheeled out on the floor.

Garth Errington, principal, awarded the trophy for the best homecoming float to Purvis Hunt, junior class president.

Chief Leon Looney performed the traditional dance as the Central fans cheered.

★ ★ ★

Roger Shepler introduced the cross country team.

★ ★ ★

James Goodfellow presented to the student body the senior members of the Varsity team that appeared in the game against Pontiac Northern.

★ ★ ★

Ed Dauw announced that the class with the most spirit for this week was the junior class.

Thanksgiving Assembly Near

By KARIN HEADLEE

Students at Rochester High School will attend the annual Thanksgiving assembly tomorrow at 9 a.m. in the gymnasium.

RHS will host Father Kazava from St. Iraneus Church who will deliver the Thanksgiving address. Members of the Treble Choir will sing "The Lord's Prayer" and "A Seasonal Thanksgiving," under the direction of Frank Irish, music instructor.

Mary Houser, faculty member, divides her free time between the cheerleaders and the girls' Pep Club.

Officers elected for the 1967-68 sports year are Caren Clawson, president; Tooty VanWezel, vice president; Chris Lindquist, treasurer; and Chris Fetherolf, treasurer.

★ ★ ★

Among projects club members have planned are a flashcard routine for basketball games, a dance and a spirit ribbon sale.

"The Bitter End" will have its second grand opening in the Champion Building tomorrow and Friday. "The Revolvers," an area band will play from 8-11:30 p.m.

Things may be a little hazy around Waterford Kettering High School when the junior class presents music by The Phogg tomorrow night a Dance-Rec. Night at 8.

★ ★ ★

Tickets will be sold at the door.

Committee chairmen for the event are Shirla Zacherlag, publicity; Colleen Noland, entertainment; Sue Aschiemen, decorations; Cheryl Deford, refreshments and Karen Bergfund, tickets.

Junior officers for 1967-68 are Janet Nutter, president; Mona Haviland, vice president; Sandy Dilshaw, treasurer; and Hazel Goodwin, secretary. Faculty sponsors are Roberta Gibson, Howard Heitzeg and Roger Johnson.

Monday launches the debate season for debaters, when they travel to Southfield.

Others are Dave Hinson, Geri Klock, Brenda Pawley, Steve T. Peterson, Steve W. Peterson, Terry Ruelle and Mike Salley.

Mary Sies, Sari Surre, Steve VanRoekle, Alice Voss, Mike Wiley and Dennis Wooster conclude the list. Their sponsor is Patty Looman, speech teacher.

Recently Stephen Hubbell and Larry Timm, yearbook sponsors of Waterford Kettering and Waterford Township respectively, toured the Inter-Collegiate Press in Mission, Kan. This company will print both schools' yearbooks.

Another club of action at W-K is the Future Teachers.

Members of Future Teachers are now cadet teaching at local elementary schools.

Officers are Mary Lou Marino, president, and Judy Edwards, secretary. Robert Kaminskis is faculty adviser.

Thanksgiving Dance Set at St. Lawrence

By JANICE VAN DEN BROUCK

Dan Lemanski, St. Lawrence High School Student Council president, announced the council-sponsored Thanksgiving Dance will be tomorrow from 8 to 11 p.m. in the gym.

Appropriate dress will be coat and tie for the boys and Sunday best for the girls.

Entertainment will be provided by the M. C. Five and disc jockey Bob Day. Tickets will be sold at the door.

The yearbook staff sold orders last week. Totaling the sales, staff members will have an idea as to this year's budget.

Proceeds of Friday's bake sale went into the sophomore class treasury.

Members of the Future Nurses Club participated in Pontiac's St. Joseph Mercy Hospital's open house Wednesday and toured the hospital's facilities.

Tomorrow, three sophomore members Bernadette Justick, Roxanne Rich and Nancy Bratkowski will deliver Thanksgiving favors made by FNC members to children in the St. Joseph Hospital, Mount Clemens.

Athletes Honored by Paper at Utica

By LOIS HADLER

At Utica High School, the school paper, the Arrows, has presented its annual awards, droll and otherwise, to athletes for special recognition in areas not always mentioned.

★ ★ ★

The first one went to Dave Freeman, captain of the cross country team. Dave has managed to fall or stumble in almost every meet, thus earning the Mistake Every Week award.

The Honest - to - Goodness - Greatness Award went to Grant Cranick. He has been lineman of the week twice for the football team and played consistently in every game.

The Team Unsportmanship Award went to Avondale High in connection with a rock-throwing episode at the football game with the yellowjackets.

★ ★ ★

In tribute to all football and cross country players who have been injured this season a group award was presented. It is called the OBPHC award. The initials stand for Orange and Black Purple Heart Club.

The UHS Debate Team is preparing for competition, to begin in early November. The six orators are Cindy Paterson, Janis Breen, Bob Claxton, Gary McGowan, Jeff Krause and Tom Toth.

Annual Junior Miss Pageant Saturday Night at Clarkston

By KATHY MATLOCK

Clarkston High School's annual Junior Miss Pageant will be held Saturday night, at 8.

Friday night there will be a dress rehearsal. The girls will be interviewed by judges Saturday morning, and there will be a luncheon at 1 p.m. That afternoon the girls are free to do as they wish.

Chairman of the Junior Miss Pageant is Tom Hawke.

The girls will be judged on talent, physical fitness, poise and personality.

Seniors in the pageant are Sue Bennett, Mariane Cornado, Karen Dengate, Jeanette Erkfritz, Dawn Evely, Jane Freeman, Cindi Harlyvitch, Carol LePere, Diane Lundy and Mary Porter.

Also competing are Rosanna Ragatz, Leslie Surre, Ruth Upward, Sue Vascasseno, Sandi Walts, Judy Weeks, and Nancy Weiss.

Tomorrow the Student Council will sponsor a "Bucket Brigade." Money raised will help pay for exchange student's senior graduation expenses and Christmas presents.

This year's foreign visitors are Jacoba Kuiper from the Netherlands and Einar Brekkan from Iceland.

The brigade will trigger class competition. All day long any class or students may ask Jacoba or Einar questions about themselves and their countries.

Leslie Bell, senior, is secretary of the Wayne Oakland League Student Council.

Lahser High Gets Into Swing of Things

By GRETCHEN HAAS

Students and faculty at Bloomfield Hills Lahser High School are getting things rolling in the new school.

Although the building is not yet completed, the newly introduced curriculum is well under way. It is based on a system in which each student moves at his own rate of speed.

Student government planning at Lahser is on the move. Class elections are tentatively scheduled to take place within the next month.

Students will make decisions on the type of government that they want at Lahser before elections take place.

The Psychology Club had its second meeting Monday. Club officers were elected for the year and members were chosen to form a committee to establish the club constitution.

PICKLE SALE

A pickle sale after school last week brought in funds for the club and a bagel sale is scheduled for tomorrow.

The Club hopes to have a Christmas party for retarded children in the coming month.

The Page is the name of Lahser's newspaper, the first issue of which will go on sale today. The staff aims to create a new and different approach to expression of student opinion.

★ ★ ★

The yearbook staff, under the guidance of Mrs. Gay Ann McAvoy, has chosen "The Accolade" as the annual's name.

The theme will be "New tradition begins with us." Sales end Wednesday.

Rice Goal: 26 Dinners

By GARY MILLER

Students at Brother Rice High School will provide a hearty Thanksgiving Day dinner for 26 families in and around the Detroit and Pontiac area under the sponsorship of the school's Project '68.

Senior Chris Hussar and junior Dave Lawson are in charge of this annual drive.

Each of the 26 homerooms at Brother Rice is responsible for one family's dinner.

Each homeroom also collected money to be used to purchase turkeys. This 'turkey money' was collected in place of regular mission money.

★ ★ ★

The drive is held in conjunction with Marian High School.

Turkeys and canned food will be delivered to the families tomorrow by members of Project '68.

Cranbrook at Parleys

By DAVID DYE

Cranbrook School participated in two religious conferences sponsored by C.R.I.S. (Conference of Religion for Independent Schools) during the past two weekends.

★ ★ ★

Since Cranbrook is halfway between the Chicago Area Conference and the Lake Erie Conference, the school was invited to both annual conventions.

William Meiggs, chaplain for Cranbrook, took five boys (Dick Sloan, Tim Clark, Tom Nehil, Robert Lochow and Clint Border) to the recent meeting at Culver Military Academy in Indiana.

At the recent Lake Erie Conference, Reverend Ralph Brooks lectured on "Religion in the Twentieth Century." Twelve private schools were involved, including a group of 20 students from Kingswood and Cranbrook led by Robert Darwall, chaplain of Cranbrook, and Scribner Jelliffe, assistant headmaster.

★ ★ ★

The singer in Cranbrook's picture last week was erroneously identified as Penny Mitchell instead of Cathy Moore.

'Hippie' Bags, Christmas Cards Keep Country Day Artists Busy

By SHARON BERRIDGE

Art classes at Bloomfield Country Day are busy. Mrs. James Siddall, art instructor, has students working on "hippie" bags, large cloth bags which the girls decorate themselves.

★ ★ ★

Other girls are working on Christmas cards, one of which will be picked as the school card.

Next project for the girls will be a papier-mache cave which will hold the nativity figures. Of olive wood, the figures were a gift from Mrs. Kirk Horigan.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Raymond Monto spoke to the girls about his experiences on the Hope ship in South America. Dr. Monto is physician-in-charge, division of hematology, Henry Ford Hospital, and the father of one of our girls, Betsy.

HONOR ROLLS

Girls on the academic honor roll are Gaylynn Coldwell, Shari Lightstone, Karen Bently Cathy Croll and Dawn Higley.

Girls on the citizenship honor roll are Sue Adams, Liz Golden, Jeanne Davidson, Wendy Mitchelle, Kathy Wild, Nancy Russ and Mary Ann Bricker.

Others are Lynne Deihl, Janet Jones, Betsy Monto, Lisa Soloman, Janet Ivory, Janis Rotenberg and Paula Swayze.

★ ★ ★

Still others are Dana Carnick, Karen Rubens, Karen Bently, Helen Freeman, Sally Bricker, Libby Connally, Debby Daly, Sue Tina Spitzley, Terri Finkel, Maggie Cannon, Laurie Emerman, Dawn Forshew, Lolly Izner, Kathy Tambke, and Jill Jasin.

Sacred Heart Starts Tutorial Program

By ELAINE COSTELLO

After hours of planning, the tutorial program at Convent of the Sacred Heart is under way.

Twice monthly on Saturday mornings, a group of 50 first-through-third graders from St. Frederick's School, Pontiac, come to the Convent. About 15 high school girls help them with their school work and guide them in other educational activities.

The time the children spend at the Convent is divided into three half-hour periods. One period is devoted to tutorial work. Emphasis is being placed on speech.

Many of the youngsters are from homes where a language other than English is spoken, and they have difficulty expressing themselves. Simple grammatical structures and correct usage are being taught with the aid of pictures.

After a brief free period and a snack, the children resume activity in the art room.

Each week they work on a different project such as painting, cutting and pasting, working with clay, etc.

★ ★ ★

The third and last period of the morning changes each week to include games, movies, dramatics, sports and other group activities.

Adelphian Band Holds First Concert

By GAIL GALLANT

Adelphian Academy's first band concert of the 1967-68 school was held Saturday under the direction of Dan Shultz.

Included in the program was a trombone trio by Ted Lewis, president of the band, Don Kalvoada, and Darrell Fitch.

Lacy Salsbury, student director, led the band in the spirited "Belle of the Ball."

A novelty number brought delight especially for the children as the band rendered the "Big Bad Wolf." Karen Hamstra was the narrator.

Future band concerts will be presented Feb. 3, March 23, and May 11. An open house was held last Sunday so guests and parents could view the new Administration Building. It is a classroom-administration complex with an auditorium that seats over 500 people.

During the festivities the band performed and the choir sang.

TEDS CORNER
FHA Loans are guaranteed loans and are insured by the Federal Government. The current interest rate is 6 per cent plus ½ per cent. The down payment is 3 per cent up to 15,000 and 10 per cent of everything over plus closing costs. EXAMPLE: A home's selling on FHA terms at $17,000 would require 3 per cent of $15,000 plus closing costs of $1,000 plus 10 per cent of $2,000 plus closing costs. Total down payments required by FHA loan would be $1,650 plus closing costs.
SELLER: The approximate closing time from the date all agreements are signed is from 6 to 8 weeks. Your loan is insured by an FHA terms. Your local realtor can advise you. The advantage to the seller is cash on FHA terms is that they get a much wider audience for prospects.

El Morocco Party for Merrill Made Gleeful by Glee Club

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—It was the most expensive "glee club" that ever gleed.

V. P. Humphrey, Maria Callas, Aristotle Onassis, Cary Grant, his estranged wife Dyan Cannon, the Alan Kings, the Maurice Uchitels, Charles Carey—and Robert Merrill, who also sings—were doing a little swinging at El Morocco at 2 a.m. at a party for the same Robert Merrill . . . and it took V. P. Humphrey to expain VIPs' occasional relaxation spirit.

WILSON

"I work 18 hours a day," he said.

"There are many pictures of Lincoln in Washington. I often think at the end of 18 hours, 'He never heard of me—I'm not emancipated.'"

Sexy-shaped Dyna Cannon of "The 90-Day Mistress" and Cary Grant made clear they weren't together and are not reconcilable though they may have kissed for photographers.

"You were very nice to her," I mentioned to Grant. "That's a nice girl to be nice to," he replied.

Aristotle Onassis, kidding with Grant, put it succinctly: "How many times have you been married? Four? If you had four accidents driving a car, they would take away your drivers' license. Maybe they should take away your marriage permit."

★ ★ ★

I suppose I was the only reporter discussing religion with George Hamilton during his date with Charlotte Ford Niarchos at the Reemay Paper Ball on the Michelangelo (chairlady lovely Mrs. John Mosler). He'd told me during the Lynda Bird days that the was a Christian Scientist. Some readers doubted it. He reiterated that he and his family are Christian Scientists. George's secret for a wonderfully thin figure: He fasts. Goes on complete fasts (nothing but water) for day and days.

★ ★ ★

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Howard Duff couldn't imagine why he was invited to a White House dinner for the Japanese prime minister, then learned his "Felony Squad" TV'er is the top show there . . . Hugh O'Brian'll get a day off from the touring "Cactus Flower" to attend Lynda Bird's wedding.

★ ★ ★

Joey Heatherton showed two extremes in style at Camillo's: a turtlenecked minidress . . . Cary Grant says his favorite preoccupation is wondering through supermarkets: "But I can't do it very often. Yul Brynner and I are the only ones who can't disguise ourselves."

Karate School Loses Battle

CHICAGO (AP) — A political organization and restaurant have won their battle to tone down the activities of a neighboring karate school.

Judge John J. Lupe of Circuit Court issued a temporary restraining order Monday against the Korean Karate Institute.

★ ★ ★

The order banned the institute's instructors and patrons from jumping, marching, pounding, stomping or kicking if such acts disturb persons below its second-floor quarters.

Operators of the Sayat Nova Restaurant and the 49th Ward Democratic Organization had complained that the karate tactics caused plaster to fall and chandeliers to shake.

★ ★ ★

The judge suggested that floor mats might reduce sounds.

Homosexual Film Surge Seen

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — Once banned as a theme for American films, homosexuality lately has become a popular subject for movie makers.

Several films concerning homosexuality are in production, and they are not being made solely by exploitation-film companies. Many are top-flight films, as evidenced by the current Warner Brothers-Seven Arts release, "Reflections in a Golden Eye."

The John Huston film, derived from an early novel of Carson McCullers, depicts Marlon Brando as an Army officer who is a latent homosexual. He is married to Elizabeth Taylor but is more interested in a private who enjoys cavorting nude in the forest.

THOMAS

* * *

Such a situation would have been banned under the self-censorship code of film czars Will Hays and Eric Johnston. The code declared:

"Pictures shall not infer that low forms of sex relationship are the accepted or common thing. Sex perversion or any inference of it is forbidden." Also banned were such words as "fairy," "nance" and "pansy."

Such specifics were swept away with the new production code, promoted by Jack Valenti as one of the first acts in his post as president of the Motion Picture Association. The provision now states:

"Illicit sex relationships shall not be justified. Restraint and care shall be exercised in presentations dealing with sex aberrations."

* * *

It was under the new code that such a film as "Reflections in a Golden Eye" could achieve a seal of acceptability—with the proviso "recommended for mature audiences." Actually the homosexual theme has been injected into several films in recent years, though not in such explicit terms.

In 1961, William Wyler remade "The Children's Hour," which he had filmed as "These Three" in 1936 with no reference to the Lesbian theme of the Lillian Hellman play. The second version portrayed Shirley MacLaine's affection for Audrey Hepburn. The film was not a success.

In both "Advise and Consent" and "The Best Man," the homosexual background of political figures was used as a possible basis for blackmail. In "The Haunting," Claire Bloom and Julie Harris figured in a Lesbian relationship, and there were hints of homosexuality in such films as "Tea and Sympathy," "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof," "Suddenly Last Summer" and "The Group," in which Candice Bergen played a Lesbian.

European film makers have been unrestrained by production codes, and they have long dealt with homosexuality in such films as "La Dolce Vita," "A Taste of Honey" and two features about Oscar Wilde. The underground movie makers have poured forth a flood of homosexual films.

* * *

Such influences, plus the liberalized morality of these times, have prompted Hollywood film makers to seek franker treatment of homosexuality. "The Fox" promises to be one of the most outspoken of the new films. The Warner Brothers-Seven Arts release features Sandy Dennis as a girl in love with Anne Heywood. One scene features a kiss between the pair.

Robert Aldrich is preparing "The Killing of Sister George," which was a hit on the London stage, less so in New York. The plot concerns a British Broadcasting Company radio actress who lives with a young, simple-minded woman.

Twentieth Century-Fox is now filming "The Detective," which concerns the murder of a homosexual. The films stars Frank Sinatra.

Warners-Seven Arts has announced the future production of "The Sergeant," concerning the homosexual relationship of two American soldiers stationed in Europe. It stars Rod Steiger and John Philip Law.

Actors' State Like Neurosis, Hypnotism

NEW YORK — A Russian scientist who has studied the brain patterns of actors as they go about their craft finds that their mental state resembles those of neurosis and hypnotism.

As they strut their brief hour on the stage, they summon up real emotions — but a part of their brains remains aloof and delighted with their skill in feeling pain, rage or happiness.

The research offers insights into both the emotional process and the creation of art.

Russian physiologist T. V. Simonov, well known in the Soviet Union for his work on the emotions of actors, presented the research to a New York Academy of Sciences meeting here.

He gave evidence that the actors' emotions duplicate true feelings in all the involuntary physical responses, including changes in heart rate and in electrical properties of the skin.

But in brain wave patterns, the simulated emotions did differ from true emotions, indicating that the actors were maintaining a kind of split personality, said Dr. Simonov, who is at the Institute of Higher Nervous Activity and Neurophysichology of the Soviet Academy of Sciences in Moscow.

100,000 Toys Destined for Tots in Vietnam

NEW YORK (AP) — Barbie is off for Vietnam, along with Batman, Little Snoopy and a host of other toys American children will find under the Christmas tree.

A toy salesman on a one-man campaign, individual toy companies, charity organizations and GIs in Vietnam already have helped get toys to thousands of Vietnamese youngsters for Tet Tan Sun, the Vietnamese new year. More are on the way.

* * *

"Last year we donated a few toys to two orphanages in Vietnam, and from the letters of gratitude and the pictures of the children receiving the toys, we know how much good it can do, not only for these needy tots, but for the American image abroad," said H. H. Coords, president of Fisher-Price Toys, Inc., the preschool toy manufacturer in East Aurora, N.Y.

* * *

This fall, 100,000 wagons and balls, wheelbarrows and balloons, dolls and games, have been donated to be distributed by the Marines as part of their civic action program.

* * *

"I'm not a crusader or anything, but I thought it was right," said Jay Krotman, 31, the New York toy salesman who organized the drive. "My next-door neighbor is a retired Marine major, and he told me about this civic action program to help the Vietnamese.

* * *

"I sent out 325 letters, and 60 per cent responded. They were great. One manufacturer in New Jersey sent 96 cartons."

Gen. Wallace N. Greene Jr., Marine Corps commandant, endorsed Krotman's proposal, saying it would be a substantial contribution to the children of Vietnam.

"Most importantly, donations to the children of Vietnam is a patriotic effort that expresses the support of the American people to our own men and to the children in whom the future of Vietnam will soon rest," Greene said.

NO GUNS

Krotman asked for — and got — art supplies, baby toys, gym sets, plastic toys, puzzles, models and plush animals.

"Please don't send any guns and war toys," he asked. He said Marines suggested no guns.

Some toy guns have been shipped to Vietnam under other programs, however.

Pfc. Mike Voorhees saw the children in the village of Xuam Ho and wrote home to Tonka Corp. at Mound, Minn., which sent off 125 steel trucks.

* * *

"When you have done has brought smiles and happiness over the faces of 125 children," Voorhees wrote back.

Highway Tester

LANSING (AP) — Roy L. Greenman has been appointed director of the State Highway Commission's division of testing and research. Greenman, 62, had been serving as acting director since the retirement of William W. McLaughlin in February.

Waterford Voters Soundly Defeat School Tax Proposal

MAKE OVER PAGES

By HUDSON WILLSE JR.

The proposed 7½-mill property tax increase in the Waterford Township School District was soundly defeated by more than a 2-1 margin yesterday as a record turnout of 7,145 voters went to the polls.

Unofficial results from the eight precincts showed that 4,881 or about 68 per cent of the voters cast negative ballots and 2,188 or about 31 per cent of the turnout voted yes. In addition, there were 76 void ballots.

The proposition was turned down in all precincts, in six by more than a 2-1 margin.

The additional millage was being sought for a five-year period from 1968 through 1973 to meet increasing operational expenses.

Prior to yesterday's vote, the record turnout for a Waterford Township School District election was in 1963 when 5,601 voters cast ballots.

REGISTERED VOTERS

There are about 26,000 registered voters in the district, according to school officials.

The board of canvassers will meet tomorrow night to certify the election results. Voting was by paper ballots.

The school board most likely will call for another millage election next year, although it is undecided when.

* * *

To be placed on the December 1968 tax rolls, the additional millage would have to win voter approval and be certified by next Sept. 1.

'FUNDS NEEDED'

School officials have maintained that additional local funds are needed to avoid drastic cutbacks in program and personnel.

Teachers and school officials both showed disappointment at the results and commented on the repercussions.

* * *

"This was a dark day for Waterford schoolchildren," said Supt. of Schools Dr. Don O. Tatroe. "They are children only once, and our limited funds will deny hundreds of them an important part of their education.

* * *

"We accept the community's decision with regret, however," added Tatroe, "and pledge ourselves to produce the

WRECKAGE OF PLANE — This is the wreckage of the tail section of a TWA jetliner that crashed on an approach to the Greater Cincinnati Airport last night, killing 64 passengers. Six of the 18 survivors were reported in serious or critical condition. Federal investigators are at the scene.

Ohio Plane Crash Claims Lives of 64

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — A team of federal investigators went to work today trying to determine why a TWA jet passenger plane crashed while approaching the Greater Cincinnati Airport Monday night, apparently killing 64 of 82 persons aboard.

"We counted up all our passengers again, and now find there were 75 passengers and seven crew members," said TWA District Manager A. B. Krueger "There are 18 survivors."

"That leaves 64 person not accounted for. I don't want to say they are all dead, but I don't have much hope for finding any more survivors," Krueger added.

Six of the survivors were reported in serious or critical condition in various area hospitals.

* * *

Most of the injured were rushed to St. Elizabeth Hospital in Covington, Ky. Two-thirds of the nurses at the hospital resigned last week in a dispute with the management — but most of them reported back to work last night to care for the injured.

The debris-strewn crash scene is in an orchard about 1.5 miles north of the airport and not far from the spot where an American Airlines passenger plane crashed in 1965 with heavy loss of life.

Members of the National Transport Safety Board team arrived during the night. Several of them visited the crash site in the dark.

Woodrow McKay, chief tower controller at the airport, said "a pretty good fire broke out" after the plane hit.

More than a score of persons were waiting inside the airport restaurant for the arrival of friends and relatives.

'GREAT BALL OF FIRE'

Mrs. Maude Cuneo of Hebron, Ky., said she saw a "great ball of fire," that it looked to her as though the plane had "exploded in the air."

The airplane was Trans World Airlines Convair Flight 128 bound from Los Angeles to Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and Boston.

It was about two hours late, TWA said, because a faulty door of another plane caused passengers to be shifted in Los Angeles to the one that crashed.

* * *

AMONG FIRST AT SCENE

Among the first at the scene was Capt. Paul Dickman, commander of the Hebron, Ky., life squad.

"We were running across the field past a man and when we went on there was a man carrying a child from the burning wreckage of the plane," Dickmann said.

He said both men were badly hurt but told him to go on and help the others.

Dickman said a survivor told him he thought it was just a hard landing at first but then "the ceiling collapsed on my wife and then the plane burst into flames."

McKay said the plane was making a routine instrument approach.

An airport spokesman said there had been no indication from the pilot of any trouble.

The cause of the crash was not determined.

A part of the tail of the plane was about all that remained of the jet.

PAUF to Fall Short of Goal

For the first time in a decade, the Pontiac Area United Fund (PAUF) will fall short of its goal when the campaign ends tomorrow.

What had been planned as a victory celebration at the Pontiac Elks Club will be nothing more than another luncheon, said campaign chairman Frederick J. Poole.

At a progress meeting yesterday at Bedell's Restaurant in Bloomfield Township, Poole reported to some 40 campaign leaders that only $850,229 or 84 per cent of the goal had been collected as of Friday.

Poole expressed no optimism that the goal could be reached before the deadline, already once extended because of slow returns.

* * *

In terms of money the campaign has not been successful, said Poole. "But in a sense it has been a moral victory for those who have worked so hard.

"Maybe it will serve as a reminder in the future that reaching a goal isn't something that happens automatically," he added.

"This is a year when the odds were stacked against us.

"Maybe," said Poole, "the pulse of our community has slowed down — or perhaps it beats a different drum . . . I don't know.

"I can only repeat my appeal," said Poole. Give once, give again, give more. Help us meet the needs of the community."

At yesterday's meeting, sponsored by First Federal Savings of Oakland, the Advance Gifts Division, headed by Warren H. Eierman, reported it had attained $96,972 or 89.6 per cent of its $108,134 goal.

Second in the running was the GM Division, under the leadership of Chairman Theodore Bloom, reporting $456,124 or 86.5 per cent of the $758,409 goal.

The Commercial Division followed with Chairman Daniel Murphy reporting 80 per cent or $225,204 of its goal of $281,307.

Mrs. Robert C. Irwin, chairman of the Residential Division, turned in $30,064, which is 78 per cent of the $38,541 goal.

Chairman Wallace Schroth of the Manufacturing Division reported $28,059 or 65.7 per cent of its goal of $42,662.

Tax Boost Looms Larger Due to Pound Devaluation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional passage of President Johnson's proposed income tax boost became a renewed possibility today as an indirect consequence of Britain's currency devaluation.

Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., of the House Ways and Means Committee, which calls the tax signals for Congress, announced a Nov. 28 hearing to consider a new administration surtax and cost-cutting package.

White House Press Secretary George Christian told newsmen yesterday the package calls for the $7 billion, 10 per cent income tax surcharge Johnson requested Aug. 3, plus a matching $7 billion paring of expenditures.

But congressional sources said they understood the cost - cutting actually would amount only to about $4 billion in this fiscal year, which ends next June 30, including about $1 billion of cuts already made by Congress.

The surtax proposal had been considered dead for this session.

If the British action has changed congressional sentiment, it could be enacted in time to take effect Jan. 1, Capitol Hill experts said, but only if Congress remains in session almost until Christmas.

The ways and means committee shelved the Johnson tax plan on Oct. 3. It said the surtax would be considered again only if there was a firm agreement with the administration on reduced spending.

Mills apparently agreed to the new hearing despite some doubts it would bear fruit. He sandwiched his hearing announcement into a Hot Springs, Ark., speech that was sharply critical of the Johnson fiscal program.

* * *

But at the White House, Christian said the British move — followed by Federal Reserve Board action boosting its interest rate on loans to member banks from 4 to 4½ per cent — made the surtax package "absolutely imperative," in the opinion of the President.

NASA Names Two Crews for Manned Saturn Flights

SPACE CENTER, HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Six astronauts, including two who never have ridden a rocket, today held key roles in two forthcoming space rehearsals for America's flight to the moon.

The space agency yesterday named three-man crews for the first manned flights atop the Saturn 5 rocket, whose triumphant test journey Nov. 9 gave the moon program the impetus it needed.

Air Force Lt. Col. James A. McDivitt, 38, commander of the 1965 Gemini 5 flight, is in charge of the first manned Saturn 5 flight planned for late next year.

Traveling with him will be Air Force Lt. Col. David R. Scott, 35, veteran of the Gemini 8 flight in 1966 and civilian astronaut Russell L. Schweickart, 32, venturing into space for the first time.

* * *

Early in 1969 Air Force Col. Frank Berman, 39, will command the second manned trip aboard a Saturn 5, joined by Air Force Lt. Col. Michael Collins, 37, and Air Force Maj. William A. Anders, 34. Berman commanded Gemini 7 in 1965, Collins rode Gemini 10 in 1966. Anders is a space rookie.

SPACE TESTING

Once in space the men are to act out vital steps in the moon flight scenario. McDavitt's team is to carry out first manned space testing of the Apollo command craft, its service section and the moonlanding lunar module.

* * *

Borman and his colleagues will fly with orders to carry out lunar mission steps the way they would go during an actual flight to the moon.

Light Snow May Blanket Ground on Thanksgiving

There's a chance a light snow will blanket the ground on Thanksgiving Day.

The U.S. Weather Bureau predicts light snow beginning late today possibly mixed with rain at times tonight. Partly cloudy and cold is Thursday's outlook.

Temperatures are expected to fall to 32 to 35 tonight and rise to the upper 30s tomorrow.

Morning east to southeast winds at six to 14 miles will become southeast 10 to 20 miles tonight, and shift to northerly by morning.

* * *

Precipitation probabilities in per cent are: today 50, tonight 80, tomorrow 70.

Thirty was the low recording prior to 8 a.m. in downtown Pontiac. The mercury registered 36 at 1 p.m.

A NONSTOP CONGRESS?—Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield pauses just off the Senate floor yesterday to say that Congress may have to drop its mid-December adjournment goal and remain in session to act on a tax increase. The Montana Democrat said British devaluation of the pound may force reassessment of the President's tax proposal, stalled in the House Ways and Means Committee.

Senate Passes 2 Benefit Bills

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has voted to provide an extra $250 million a year in federal funds to hospitals in payments for their elderly medicare patients and to require states to provide welfare for families with unemployed fathers.

* * *

The two provisions were tacked on to the omnibus Social Security bill yesterday during the fourth day of Senate floor debate.

The measure remained before senators today as Democratic leader Mike Mansfield pressed for final Senate action by tomorrow.

Many important amendments remain to be considered.

* * *

Republican leaders announced they would make a major effort today to substitute the House version of Social Security cash benefits and taxes for the Senate Finance Committee's proposed schedules.

COMMITTEE VOTE

The committee voted for substantially larger monthly payments than the House as well as for bigger payroll taxes.

A bipartisan group of 15 senators said they plan to push amendments to the welfare sections of the bill designed to remove what they term coercive provisions which might force mothers on welfare to work.

The amendments to boost medicare payments to hospitals, sponsored by Sen. Jack Miller, R-Iowa, and adopted by voice vote, would make it possible to reimburse them on a per diem costs basis.

School Millage Up to Utica Vote

Utica school district residents have until 8 tonight to vote on renewal of 11 operating mills for five more years.

Supt. Phillip Runkel said the renewal concerns 43 per cent of the total millage being levied now. He said $212,000 a year would be lost to the schools if the vote fails today.

Israeli Jets Attack Jordan

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli jet fighter-bombers attacked Jordanian positions on the east bank of the Jordan River today for the first time since the Arab-Israeli war in June.

Jordan claimed two Israeli planes were shot down and said the pilot of the first one bailed out and was killed.

Israel admitted the loss of one of its French Mysteres and said the pilot bailed out over Jordanian territory.

The Israeli Army also announced that one Israeli was killed and one wounded by Jordanian shelling. It claimed six Jordanian tanks and one armored car destroyed.

Amman Radio said the Jordanians lost only one military vehicle and there was no casualties to Jordanian personnel. It claimed Israeli tanks and other equipment were set ablaze, two Israeli gun positions were destroyed and most of their personnel was killed.

HUSSEIN IN TOUCH

Amman said King Hussein, now in London, was in constant telephone contact with his brother, Crown Prince Hassan, until the fighting stopped, and that Jordan's delegate to the United Nations had been instructed to inform U.N. members of the battle.

The Israelis said their air force went into action after the Jordanians moved tanks up to the cease-fire line and opened up across the river on a wide front.

The Jordanians charged that the Israelis began the attack with artillery and tank fire, then called in their planes when Jordanian positions returned the fire.

It was the fourth consecutive day of firing across the river.

TANKS OPEN FIRE

An Israeli spokesman said Jordanian tanks opened fire at 8:45 a.m. (1:45 a.m. EST) a few miles south of the Umm- Shart Bridge, at a point where Israeli and Jordanian gunners dueled for two hours Monday.

"Israeli forces returned the fire to silence the source of the enemy shelling," the spokesman continued. "The enemy fire did not stop, so the air force was called in."

The Jordanian communique said the Israeli attack was concentrated in the area of the Allenby Bridge, 10 miles north of the Dead Sea and about 260 miles west of Amman, the Jordanian capital.

The Israeli spokesman said the firing stopped at 10:55 a.m. 3:55 a.m. EST and "the sector is quiet for the moment."

AIR STRIKES WIDEN

A Jordanian communique said the Israelis "widened air strikes" at 11:25 a.m. and fighting did not stop until noon.

Governor Commutes Sentences of 4 Men

Gov. Romney has commuted the life sentences of four Michigan men, including one from Pontiac, who are serving prison terms for first-degree murder.

The governor's action makes the men eligible for immediate parole consideration, and was taken on the unanimous recommendation of the state parole board.

Those whose sentences were commuted are:

Tom Dennard, 57, of Pontiac, sentenced in 1951 from Oakland County Circuit Court for the fatal stabbing of his wife.

Action Put Off Until '68 on Boat, Trailer Proposal

BIRMINGHAM — Action on a proposed ordinance aimed at controling the storage of boats and trailers was deferred by the City Commission last night until early next year.

* * *

The commission referred the proposal back to the administration for redrafting and clarification of portions of the ordinance.

Commissioners will reconsider the proposal at their Jan. 2 meeting.

The ordinance would place restrictions on the parking and storage of boats, boat trailers and house trailers, particularly in residential areas.

* * *

In other business, the commission rejected a proposal from the Birmingham-Bloomfield Chamber of Commerce to place an attendant in the municipal parking lot at Pierce and Merrill.

USE OF METERS

The administration recommended that the use of meters be continued since the lot will be shut down after the first of year so construction can begin on a parking struture on the site.

The commission gave permission to the Birmingham-Bloomfield Teen Center to construct and maintain a yuletide fireplace on the mall in Shain Park.

Irate parents of five students who were recently suspended from Seaholm High School for smoking will have their say before the Birmingham Board of Education tonight at 8 p.m. in the Baldwin School Gym.

The five families requested they be heard since their five girls suspended for suspicion of smoking.

JOINT LETTER

In their joint letter to board President Pell Hollingshead, the parents said they desired to discuss the controversial rule which permits the school to take disciplinary action even when students are only suspected of smoking or are carrying cigarettes.

Three Judges Set for Pageant

Three Pontiac area citizens will serve as judges for the Pontiac Junior Miss Pageant Dec. 2 at Pontiac Northern High School.

Judges will be Mrs. Margaret Demetrak, assistant editor of the Inter-Lake News and Lakeland Tribune; Mrs. Delaroes Donahue, manager of Hudson's Hair Fashions Salon at the Pontiac Mall; and Fred V. Beaudoen, history teacher and president-elect of West Bloomfield Education Association.

Senior girls between the ages of 16 and 19 from the Pontiac area are eligible to compete for the Junior Miss title, sponsored by the Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce.

This is not a beauty contest. Scholastic ability and mental alertness count most toward the title, along with poise and personality, physical fitness and creative talent.

* * *

The winner will receive $250 in scholarships, with $100 in scholarships going to the first runner-up, in addition to merchandise awards donated by local firms.

Entry forms may be obtained at LaVergne's Hair Fashions, 887 Woodward. The deadline for entry is next Monday.

Four Deserters Say GIs Oppose Fighting

MOSCO W(AP) — Four U.S. sailors who deserted the carrier Intrepid in Japan told the Soviet public today that a majority of American servicemen do not want to fight in Vietnam.

A Soviet "peace committee" looking after the four said they are "resting" in Moscow but declined to give their whereabouts or future plans or to allow foreign newsmen to talk with them.

* * *

The four young men said on Moscow television Monday night they deserted in protest against U.S. policy in Vietnam. They are Richard D. Bailey, 19, of Jacksonville, Fla.; John Michael Barilla, 20, of Catonaville, Md.; Craig W. Anderson, 20, of San Jose, Calif., and Michael Lindner, 19, of Mount Pocono, Pa.

The U.S. Embassy said it has no intention of trying to contact the deserters or inquiring about them. A spokesman said the embassy plans to ignore them.

PRAVDA INTERVIEW

In an interview today in Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper, the sailors said they would go on to other countries to continue their work against "the inhuman war in Vietnam." They did not say which countries.

The four young Americans

jumped ship Oct. 24 while the Intrepid was in Japan for a recreation stay after a tour bombing North Vietnam.

A Japanese peace group which looked after the deserters said they went to the Soviet Union because they apparently did not consider Japan neutral in the Vietnam war.

"I think the majority of Americans do not want to fight in Vietnam," Barilla told Pravda, "But many of them lack decisiveness. They are drafted and they "do their duty."

Ferency Likely to Quit Nov. 28

LANSING (UPI) — Zolton Ferency, maverick Democratic state chairman, is expected to announce his resignation Nov. 28.

Ferency's plans to resign are a result of recent pressure from other party leaders who are critical of his call for Democrats to rally around a liberal peace candidate to oppose President Johnson in 1968.

* * *

A statement Oct. 17 by Ferency declaring that Johnson "is in no mood to tolerate differences or dissent" at the next national convention created an upheaval within the Michigan Democratic party.

Plane Plays 'Samaritan,' Ferries Blood

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP) — The owner of a plane which was hijacked at gunpoint and flown to Havana says, "The Cubans can have the plane....as long as I get my two boys back."

The pilot, J.V. Raymond, 35, of Pompano Beach radioed that a passenger pulled a gun on him Monday over South Florida.

* * *

"There is a man aboard with a gun and he intends to take this plane to Havana....and that's exactly what he's going to do," Raymond told the Federal Aviation Agency in Miami.

He described the hijacker as Russian but George Nesmith, owner of the Crescent Air Taxi Service plane, said the man's nationality was not determined.

Damage Put at $100,000 in Area Blaze

Damage to the Piety Hill Apartments now under construction in Birmingham caused by a fire Friday night was estimated at well over $100,000 by Fire Marshall Harvey Renshaw.

Fire erupted in the building's fifth floor about 7 p.m. Friday. The $1 million block-square building is at Southfield and Brown.

* * *

Evidence of structural steel damage pushed the damage estimate up and will probably delay the scheduled opening of the building which was to have been in the near future, he said.

Smoke and water damage was throughout the five-story structure, he added. The cause of the fire is still undetermined.

City Youth Gets Life in Slaying of Girl

Found guilty last month of beating his 15-year-old girlfriend to death, Porfidio (Junior) Acosta this morning was sentenced to a mandatory life prison term.

* * *

Acosta, 19, of 307 Ferry was convicted by an Oakland County Circuit Court jury of first degree murder in the slaying of Linda Darlene Arnold of 142 Clifford.

Under law, first-degree murder is punishable by life imprisonment, with no chance for parole unless the sentence is commuted by the governor.

The sentence was imposed by Judge William R. Beasley who presided at Acosta's four-day trail.

* * *

The girl, reportedly a runaway from home a week before her death, was found by police early the morning of July 7 at the rear of Acosta's home.

The prosecutor contended that she was dilled when she rejected Acosta's advances.

'I AM APPALLED'

Waterford Education Association President Mrs. Ladeen Floyd also offered remarks after election results were in:

"I am appalled at the loss of faith that the community has evidenced in this vote," Mrs. Floyd said. "Having searched for the answer and fully realizing that we are pressed on all sides by financial burden, it is difficult to believe that our citizens place education at the bottom of the priority lists.

"It will now be up to this same community to find enough teachers to staff the schools with the adjustments that will have to be made.

"Few teachers will be able to remain under such conditions," continued Mrs. Floyd. "On behalf of our teachers, we will ask the immediate assistance of the National Education Association for placement services elsewhere."

Prior to yesterday's defeat, district voters had passed 26 to 34 millage and bond issue proposals since 1946.

Tonight's Agenda for City Is Routine

City commissioners face mostly routine business at their 7:30 meeting tonight.

The commission is scheduled to consider final approval for nine street paving projects, discuss the possibility of allowing merchants to have outside speakers in the downtown area during Christmas and consider purchase of a house on South Johnson for expansion of Pontiac General Hospital.

The commission also will hold hearings on four sanitary sewer projects and installation of water mains and sidewalks.

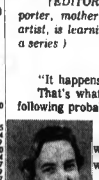
Plane Fact Is That Her Slip Is Showing

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Jean Saile, a Pontiac Press reporter, mother of six children and wife of a commercial artist, is learning how to fly an airplane. This is the 12th in a series.)

By JEAN SAILE

"It happens to everybody. Don't let it get you down."

That's what Lawson Letzring, the flying instructor, said following probably the worst hour of my whole flying course.



We were doing landings and takeoffs, and wind conditions called for use of the short runway at Oakland-Pontiac Airport.

There was a crosswind. That meant using a slip, which had been investigated in the lesson previously and supposedly learned, for landing.

Letzring had earlier needed to impress on me so keenly that the plane is normal flight responds with very little pressure, that I was — and remain —unready for the amount of pressure needed on the rudder and on the ailerons to go into a slip.

MRS. SAILE

A slip is a lot of hard work — that is what it is. It is in effect slipping the plane into the wind by the use of aileron and opposite rudder, and it should provide a straight approach to a runway in a crosswind.

* * *

I suppose this is where the female element of this whole bit comes in. If anyone even looks like they're going to help me out, I'm only too willing to let them.

CONTROLLED SITUATION

The dual controls — which we discussed once before — lend themselves to this kind of a situation.

Coming in for a landing is, as far as I'm concerned, pretty vital business, but on the other hand I know the instructor isn't going to let me kill myself or him.

What he did do during this lesson was to let me run off the runway and scatter up the dirt on the leeward side.

I'll use my ground rudder control more effectively from now on as a result of it.

SLOPPY PATTERN

And then there was the next landing. We had slopped around the landing pattern — with me forgetting just about everything I'd learned out in the practice area.

It's the sheer volume of the amount to remember that threw me, and if I inadvertently forgot one item, I was thrown for the rest of the pattern.

We were on final approach to the runway. My altitude was questionable. My flight path was off, and things really looked pretty awful.

A quick check of the instruments revealed just one reading correctly.

WITH THE TRIMMINGS

"Hey, I'm trimmed for an 80 mile-per-hour cruising speed," I exulted.

"It wasn't worth it," said Letzring in what was probably his first statement registering disgust since I've started to fly.

I note I'm going to have to slip the airplane onto the runway. I see that the wrong wheel is going to hit first, but what can I do about it?

I know what I'm SUPPOSED to do about it. I'm supposed to level out the airplane.

PUFF OF RUBBER

But SUPPOSED TO and CAN are two entirely unrelated items at this point. I see the puff of burnt rubber come up.

What really makes me angry is that the things I was doing right in the practice area, I am now doing wrong in the landing pattern.

I get so busy flipping switches and cutting power and turning and trimming and putting on flaps that I forget what the ultimate object is.

"Don't worry about it," said Letzring. "We won't let you solo until you're ready for it."

Volunteers Get Awards

Eighty-four individuals received recognition for their volunteer service to Pontiac General Hospital at Monday's annual awards luncheon in the Elks Temple.

The event, hosted by the hospital board of trustees, paid tribute to members of the Women's Auxiliary, the American Red Cross, chaplains and non-affiliated volunteers.

Aleck Capsalis, chairman of the Board, presided and presented gold pins with diamond to Mrs. Charles Eilender, Mrs. Edward F. Dalton and Mrs. Arlie Leake.

Mrs. Janet Odell, women's editor of The Pontiac Press, spoke to the group on "Why a Volunteer?"

Honorees who received pins for 1250 or more hours of service are Mesdames Allen Denham, William Matheny, James Fleming, Hagon Kemsuzian, Harold Kendrick and Anthony Peleski.

Others are Mesdames William Dean, Howard Waider, Joseph Belant, Ross Elliott and Ronald Mountain.

You Did Decent, Admirable Thing

Son Should Be Grateful, Proud

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Last January my son went north to get a job. While he was there he phoned to say he had met a "wonderful" girl and they had been married. Naturally we were surprised, but he seemed happy, so we were happy, too.

ABBY

A couple of months later he called to say that he and his wife were splitting up and he was going to join the army, his reason being that his wife was going to have a baby that wasn't his. He said that he knew nothing about her condition when he married her, but she admitted to having known it all along.

★ ★ ★

Well, this poor girl called us and said she had no money and nowhere to go and she couldn't go home, so we sent her money and told her to come stay with us until her baby is born.

She's here now, and, Abby, she is really a sweet girl. She plans to give the baby away when it comes. We wrote our son about what we had done, and he was very angry at us and wrote back saying we shouldn't have had anything to do with her.

We keep writing, trying to explain, but he won't answer our letters. Even if it's not our son's baby, it's an innocent child. What is your advice? We can't turn this poor girl out. But will our son ever speak to us again?

A MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: If he doesn't, shame on him. HE found this girl, you didn't, and even though I do not condone her actions, she is a human being. She is also his wife, until they are legally divorced. I think you did the decent and admirable thing. And hopefully so will your son after he cools off and thinks about it for a while.

DEAR REDHEAD: Could it be that they're easier to find in the dark?

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: What do you think is going on when a husband suddenly starts signing off his letters with "Regards" after so many years of "Love and Kisses?"

My husband is an air force sergeant and was transferred to the Philippines a few months ago. We have five children and are looking forward to his service retirement so we can have a normal family life.

He doesn't even wish me "Best Regards." Just "Regards."

SINCERELY YOURS, WORRIED

DEAR WORRIED: The next time you write to your husband, tell him that you noticed the change in his "signing off" and ask if there is a reason for it. Let him know that you are delighted with his "Regards," but you'd like to know what happened to his "Love and Kisses."

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Am I engaged or not? This whole situation is very confusing. Here is what happened. Axel left for Vietnam in June. We talked about getting married when he gets home next year. First of September he wrote saying he had bought a set of rings before he left, and if I wanted to become engaged I should write and tell him and he would ask his brother Olaf to drop the rings off at my house. I wrote back, "Yes, have Olaf drop the rings off," so that's what happened.

O. K., so now I have the rings, right? My mother says this is like no engagement she ever heard of before, and I should have waited for Axel to get back and give me the rings himself. I say I don't care who gave me the rings, I am engaged. What do you say?

ENGAGED

DEAR ENGAGED: I say, you're engaged. And congratulations.

Sorority Chapter Disciplined; Race Discrimination Is Denied

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. (AP) — The national president of a women's sorority says reports that it put a Michigan college chapter on probation for pledging a Negro are "erroneous and unwarranted."

Mrs. Gustave B. Weck, president of Zeta Tau Alpha, which Lynda Bird Johnson belonged to while at the University of Texas, said Monday the Albion College chapter was placed on probation for violation "of the sorority's by-laws."

★ ★ ★

Earlier in the day the school's president announced he was severing the ties between Zeta Tau Alpha and Albion.

Dr. Louis W. Norris, Albion president, said, "We have been forced to take this action because of the refusal of the national organization to remove the probation of the Albion college chapter for its pledging of an Albion student."

NEGRO

Norris avoided directly accusing the sorority of discrimination, but noted that the student over whom the furor arose was a Negro.

Cecelia Williams, a Negro and a junior from New Baltimore, Mich., was pledged in February to Beta Tau, the Albion chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha.

Jancie Ballanger, the chapter's president, resigned in protest from the national sorority after the local group was placed on probation.

Mrs. Weck said, "The chapter was disciplined for violation of the sorority's by-laws and procedures and while the violations were serious enough to warrant charter revocations, the executive committee only imposed temporary probation.

★ ★ ★

"The Albion chapter violations had occurred over a long period of time and the chapter had been given every fair opportunity to defend itself.

"The violations were several in number and involved internal procedures of the sorority."

Mrs. Weck said her statement was issued "to avoid further erroneous publicity and misinterpretation of the events." She did not disclose the details of the reported violations.

METHODIST

Members of the Albion sorority voted to support Norris in whatever action he took in the case.

Albion College is operated by the Methodist Church and has an enrollment of 1,500.

Jaycee Women Select Nominee

The Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce Auxiliary will again present its local phase of the Michigan Organization's Four Outstanding Young Women award.

The local community service award will be given to a young woman from the Pontiac area who has made significant contributions to her community through work in civic organizations as well as through her home and religious activities.

Nominees must meet these qualifications:

- No less than 21 years of age and no more than 36 by June 30, 1968.
- Resident of the area.
- Be a young woman who has made a contribution in her community through an organization.

Application blanks for the award may be obtained from Mrs. David Ogg of Lyndale Drive, Avon Township. Deadline for entries is Nov. 30. Judging will be held the following week.

Johnsons to Be Feted

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Johnson of Wolverine Lake will be honored at a family dinner party Wednesday evening in "The Canopy."

Married in Toledo, Ohio, Nov. 22, 1917, the Johnsons have two children, Mrs. Ralph Mohr of Wolverine Lake and Eugene V. Johnson of Dearborn. There are three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

More Research Needed

Doctors Don't Agree on Pill

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A Temple University scientist said today at least 20 years of extensive research is needed before doctors prescribe use of the controversial birth control pill "without some reservations as to safety."

★ ★ ★

Dr. Michael B. Shimkin, who spent 25 years as a cancer researcher for the U.S. Public Health Service, explained: "There is now no evidence that the pill is harmful, but there is also no evidence of its complete safety."

★ ★ ★

Shimkin spoke at a science writers' seminar at Temple University Health Sciences Center.

The Temple medical school professor said the pill contains estrogen, a female hormone, which has produced breast cancer and leukemia in mice.

★ ★ ★

"This does not mean it will produce breast cancer in women," he said, "but does indicate the need for more research before anyone is foolhardy enough to recommend its use without reservations."

"NOT SO"

Challenging Shimkin was Dr. Robert B. Greenblatt of the Georgia Medical School at Augusta.

Greenblatt said hormones do not cause cancer and he suggested use of birth control pills even for women in their early 40s, generally a short time before the menopause.

★ ★ ★

He said in these cases, the pill would do double duty — relieve the women of the fear of pregnancy during "that period when she fears it most" and prevent the onset of some of the problems connected with the menopause.

★ ★ ★

On Monday, Greenblatt had voiced caution against another Temple Researcher's efforts to seek fertility in women by transplanting parts of ovaries.

The researcher, Dr. Hector A. Castellanos, reported he had transplanted bits of ovaries no bigger than fingertips and found in some cases they successfully produced estrogen and, in two cases, even caused them to menstruate twice.

Greenblatt felt too much work had to be done before Castellanos' method would work on infertility. He thought it preferable to give estrogen by injection rather than surgery.

JACK BROKENSHA

Jazz Quartet to Play at OU

Jack Brokensha and his exciting Jazz Quartet will give one of their rare concert performances Monday at 8:30 p.m. in Wilson Hall at Oakland University.

★ ★ ★

Concentrating on mainstream jazz, the local restaurateur-recording artist-symphony performer who came to us originally from Adelaide, Australia, has built a formal program featuring many of his own works along with the free-wheeling improvisations which have made him a favorite of local jazz aficionados.

A percussionist, Brokensha leads his group from the vibraphone, a refreshing variance from the standard pianoled format of most jazz ensembles. He is assisted by Bess Bonnier, piano, Dan Jordan, bass, and Dick Riordan, drums.

This tiny musical dynamo — he's five foot two standing up very straight — has come a long way from playing xylophone in local Australian vaudeville houses at age six.

By age fourteen he was a member of the South Australian Symphony Orchestra and has since played under such noted maestros as Sir Thomas Beecham, Arturo Toscanini, and Detroit's Sixten Ehrling.

It was during World War II as a member of the Royal Australian Air Force that Brokensha turned to jazz. He formed his first recording group, "The Jack Brokensha Quartet," in 1946, settling in this area in 1954. He has since toured extensively as a lecturer and performer.

Tickets are available at OU.

'Full Recovery' Is Expected by Gov. L. Wallace

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Gov. Lurleen Wallace said Monday she expects "full recovery" from the cancer which keeps her commuting from the capitol to a Houston clinic for therapy.

"I'm a little bit hoarse, but I feel fine," Mrs. Wallace said in a 10-minute interview marking her resumption of full-time duties for the first time since Nov. 3.

Mrs. Wallace, who underwent surgery for an abdominal malignancy in July, has been returning periodically to the M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute at Houston for cobalt treatments.

★ ★ ★

The 40-year-old governor said she would go to Houston "just for a day" Dec. 12 for a routine checkup.

"I have no reason to believe that I will not have a full recovery," she said.

Big Three Subsidiaries Affected

British Auto Price Clouded

DETROIT (AP) — Britain's devaluation of the pound has further clouded the already hazy profit picture for the British subsidiaries of American auto makers.

With tighter consumer credit in Britain already threatening auto sales there, auto makers will now have to increase their export sales of British-made cars to make up for the money that will be lost in converting the devalued pound to the American dollar, an industry source said.

"The overall outlook isn't that rosy," the source said.

All the Big Three firms have subsidiaries in Britain and other countries. General Motors makes Vauxhalls in Britain, Ford of Britain makes Anglias, Corinas, Zephyrs and Zephyr Zodiacs. Chrysler owns 77 per cent of Rootes Motor Co. in England.

CUT IN PRICE

The immediate effect of the pound devaluation, making it worth $2.40 rather than $2.80, is to cut the price of all British export goods by about 14 per cent.

This will give the Big Three's British subsidiaries an edge in competing on the world market.

A source indicated the cut could put British subsidiaries in a better position against Germany's Volkswagen, the No. 1 foreign seller in the United States.

He said the four-door Ford Cortina, a "middle- of-the-line English car," sold for $1,943 in New York before the currency cut. The car will now sell for about $1,666 in New York. "This is now cheaper than the Volkswagen," he added.

The problem is how many more cars can the British firms sell now that they are cheaper than non-British competitors on the world market.
