Rowston to Head 9-Man Airport Planning Group

Oakland County's jet age designs for future airport planning will be coordinated by a special nine-member county committee to be headed by Philip E. Rowston, Pontiac mayor and newest member of the Board of Supervisors.

Rowston today was named to lead the committee by Delos Hamlin, chairman of the Board of Supervisors.

Other members appointed to the important group, which will carry out a valuable $30,000 study of airport needs in southeastern Michigan through 1975, were:

★ ★ ★

Elmer R. Johnson, Waterford Township supervisor, in whose township Pontiac's mushrooming municipal airport is located.

John L. Carry, Springfield Township supervisor in charge of the Board's special committee studying county government reform, an Air Force officer during World War I.

John C. Rehard, newly appointed member of the Board replacing Hiland M. Thatcher of West Bloomfield Township.

John G. Osgood, attorney and new supervisor from Royal Oak.

Roy L. Duncan, Troy supervisor whose city has two airports which, according to a master plan, will have a direct bearing on future plans.

Ray W. Lahti, supervisor of Wixom, where another airport is situated.

Hamlin also named J. Robert F. Swanson, chairman of the Oakland County Planning Commission, and Robert O. Felt, chairman of the Board of Road Commissioners, as ex-officio members of the special airport committee.

"I think we have a real good committee which will be an asset

HAROLD E. HOWLETT

Pontiac Lawyer Dies at Home

Harold Howlett Noted for Many Community Activities

Pontiac attorney Harold E. Howlett of the law firm of Howlett-Hartman & Beier, a former president of the Oakland County Bar Assn., died yesterday afternoon at his home, 104 E. Iroquois Rd. He had been ill for several weeks.

A native of Howell, he was graduated from the University of Michigan law school in 1924. He practiced law with his father in Howell before coming to Pontiac Jan. 18, 1925 and opening an office in the Pontiac State Bank Building.

While at the university Mr. Howlett, 59, was one of 10 members of the law school chosen to organize that school into groups for intensive study of the practical side of law, later taking charge of one of these groups.

A member of First Presbyterian Church, he served as director of the Community National Bank, Baldwin Rubber Co. and Pontiac Varnish Co.

★ ★ ★

A past president of Pontiac Community Chest and Oakland County Bar Assn., Mr. Howlett was a member of the American Bar Assn., Delta Theta Phi Law Fraternity, Pontiac Rotary Club, and a charter member of Pontiac City Club.

A past president of the Pontiac Exchange Club, he served the state as a member of the State Highway Advisory Board in the 1930s.

During World War II he was named chairman of the Oakland County Defense Council and in 1945 served as chairman of Pontiac Commercial Division of the Oakland County United War Fund campaign.

Mr. Howlett leaves his wife, the former Lucille Larson; his mother, Mrs. Louis E. Howlett of Howell; a daughter, Mrs. Richard B. Jones of Eau Gallie, Fla.; a son, James L. of Pontiac; a granddaughter and a brother, Wilson of Howell.

Funeral service will be held at 1:30 p.m. Thursday at the First Presbyterian Church with his pastor, Dr. William H. Marbach, officiating. Burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery. His body will be at the Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home until 11:30 a.m. Thursday.

'Collared' in Store Theft

EL MONTE, Calif. (UPI)—The companion of a suspected thief was held today. He was collared by market employes when the suspect fled while being questioned about the disappearance of a Christmas tree. Sheriff's deputies thought the companion, a boxer dog, might lead them to its owner.

Mercury Dives to Herald Arrival of Winter Today

Winter is here.

It arrived promptly with the sun ashining at 9:35 this morning, the second coldest day in Pontiac since summer gave way to fall on Sept. 23.

Temperatures tumbled from a high of 26 yesterday afternoon to a low of 13 degrees at 6 a.m. today.

The weatherman said tonight will be somewhat warmer with the low about 22 degrees. Wednesday's high will reach about 34.

Michigan's prospects for a "white Christmas" are good. The outlook for Christmas Eve is little temperature- change with occasional snow likely.

Even though temperatures are freezing, residents may look forward to days gradually becoming longer.

The temperature in downtown Pontiac at 2 p.m. was 26.

Attorneys Ask Judge to OK Straley Return

Send Proposal Order for Reinstatement to Ionia Court

Attorneys for Herbert W. Straley have asked Ionia County Circuit Judge Morris K. Davis to approve an order which would reinstate Straley as Pontiac police chief with full back pay.

The proposed order, drawn by Attorneys Clarence L. Smith and Philip Pratt, was in the mail today.

Straley's attorneys sent their proposed order to Ionia after failing to agree on its contents with City Attorney William A. Ewart.

Approval of the order by the judge would put Straley in actual command of the police department.

'LEGAL TECHNICALITY'

Judge Davis two weeks ago reversed Straley's firing by the Civil Service Commission last April on the grounds that Straley had committed no acts of misfeasance or nonfeasance within a 90-day period prior to filing of charges with the Commission.

Judge Davis has called the order reinstating Straley a "legal technicality."

He can approve the order prepared by Straley's attorneys, amend it or approve one prepared by the city.

Ewart's main objection is that the proposed order does not incorporate sections of Judge Davis' opinion upholding Straley's appeal which explain the reasons behind the court's ruling.

Straley's attorneys have proposed a hearing on their order Monday. The actual date will be set by the judge.

Not That Desperate

SANTA CLAUS, Ind. (UPI) — Assurances of the safety of Rudolph, the red-nosed reindeer, have been sent to a worried Salem, Ill., girl. She wrote Santa Claus in care of the post office here that she heard a grownup say "meat prices are so high he had to butcher Rudolph."

Texas Holiday Wish

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)—A sign in the window of Crockett English's Bookstore near the University of Texas reads: "Merry Christmas and a Happy Cotton Bowl."

Cards Flood Bedside of Dying Girl

A little girl lay close to death in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital today, her eyes closed in a coma most of the time.

But when Carolyn Carr, 11-year-old leukemia victim, regained consciousness for a few minutes at a time, her mother was by her side.

And in her hands was evidence that Pontiac's heart has gone out to the child who seems fated to die before Christmas Day arrives.

Mrs. Carr showed Carolyn some of the 300 Christmas cards that have arrived in a flood at the Carr home since The Pontiac Press told of the girl's fate yesterday.

CARDS, GIFTS . . .

Not only cards from hundreds of well-wishers, but gifts, too, and flowers and generous offers of blood donations.

More than 100 cards were delivered to the Carr home, 54 N. Jessie St., this morning and postal authorities expected another big load in the afternoon.

A special delivery truck went out shortly after noon to pick up and deliver 34 cards from the Pontiac Fire Department.

Robert A. Miller, acting postmaster, said he was prepared to offer any emergency mail service which the family needs.

A distinguished looking man, who maintained silence about his name, delivered 120 cards to the Carr home last night and said they were from sympathizers in the Rochester area.

By noontime today, two bouquets, three dolls and several bracelets and necklaces had been sent to the home.

EXTRA DELIVERY

Postman Karl George during off-hours last night made a special delivery to the Carr home, bearing the first 80 cards.

Yesterday's Press carried an account of how Carolyn, bedridden the past two months, admired Christmas cards that had come to her parents.

"I'd like to get Christmas cards myself—lots and lots of them," she told her mother.

Yesterday afternoon, Carolyn was taken to the hospital in critical condition.

Pneumonia had attacked her and she spent last night and today in an oxygen tent.

GROWING MOUNTAIN

She was unconscious most of the time.

Whenever she awakened, Mrs. Carr pointed out the growing mountain of Christmas greetings on the table next to her bed.

Mrs. Carr said she would hold one or two cards in front of the girl so she could enjoy them in detail.

She said that once, as the little girl drifted back into a coma, she murmured, "Thank you."

Morocco Cheers Cap 11-Nation Journey in Cause of Friendship

CASABLANCA, Morocco (AP) — President Eisenhower heads for home tonight, winding up the crusade for friendship and peace in freedom which he carried to 11 nations.

A thunderous acclaim by about 500,000 jubilant Moroccans and a generous send-off capped the President's history-making tour, the most extended foreign trip ever undertaken by an American President.

The 19-day journey, on which the President was cheered by perhaps nine million welcomers, encompassed visits to Italy, Turkey, Pakistan, Afghanistan, India, Iran, Greece, Tunisia, Spain and Morocco as well as a Western summit meeting in Paris.

The conclusion of the President's far-ranging venture in personal diplomacy still found him grinning and radiating confidence that he had managed to spread to millions a feeling of trust in the sincerity of American motives and policies. Only time will disclose the long-term effects. But there were many signs of at least a temporary boost to American prestige as a result of the tour.

The President's orange-nosed jetliner headed westward and was due at Andrews Air Force Base outside Washington at 11 p.m. EST his point of departure Dec. 3. A refueling stop is planned at Gander, Nfld.

The President was received with wild enthusiasm and one of the most colorful welcomes of his three-continent tour when he arrived in this white-walled North African city.

He was fascinated by dashing horsemen, 5,000 strong, who raised their ancient long guns in salute as he rode by in an open car with King Mohammed V past crowds roaring "yaish Ike" (long live Ike).

The President was presented with the traditional Arab greeting gift of dates and goat milk.

Tens of thousands packing United Nations Square cheered as the President grinned and waved in appreciation of the silver tray of dates and the pitcher of milk.

Then the Eisenhower motorcade moved from the square down an avenue packed 10 deep with screaming, cheering Moroccans.

Thirty motorcycle police escorted the American visitor into Casablanca, the last stop on his spectacular tour of three continents.

Moroccan women in veils shrilled "Yoo, Yoo"—the traditional Moroccan shout of excitement.

★ ★ ★

The President, arriving from a whirlwind visit to Madrid where his welcome was similarly enthusiastic, rode through the city in an open car beside King Mohammed V. Both were standing.

Wearing a broad grin, the President waved his hat to the shouting Moroccans, many in the burnooses and colorful robes characteristic of the country.

The President frequently extended his arms in greeting. When he did so, the crowd seemed almost to go wild with joy. It thundered approval when the President clasped his hands above his head in a gesture of friendship.

Morocco's King, who wants more American aid but wants the United States to give up its bases here, turned out to greet Eisenhower at the airport.

Record Snow Buries the Marquette Area

MARQUETTE (AP) — A vest-pocket snowstorm struck this Lake Superior city yesterday. It dumped 7.9 inches of snow between midnight to midnight — a record for Dec. 21.

★ ★ ★

While the storm raged here, the rest of Michigan's Upper Peninsula got little if any snow and most of what fell elsewhere came in flurries.

Christmas With the Quads

NEARING 9TH BIRTHDAY — The Rosebush quadruplets of Oakwood, near Oxford, have made their own fireplace of cardboard and brick paper in preparation for Santa's arrival Christmas Eve. Hanging their stockings are (from left) Keith and Kenny, and decorating the mantel, Kristine and Krystal. Now eight years old, the quads are looking forward to two special occasions in the near future, Christmas Day, and their ninth birthday Jan. 10. (See story and other pictures on page 13.)

Sales on the Rebound

Christmas Shopping's Booming Here

Only two more days remain in a Christmas shopping season that most retailers say is finishing with a grand finale.

★ ★ ★

Hurt earlier this month by layoffs caused by the steel strike, Pontiac retail sales have taken a sharp upturn at most stores during the past two or three weeks, it was reported.

John W. Hirlinger, manager of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce, reported that most stores are doing "excellent" business.

One store manager was cautious, saying that the recent spurt in retail sales at his establishment was turning "a poor season into a fair one."

★ ★ ★

But the manager of a downtown department store said sales this Christmas were better than last year.

At the three-year-old Miracle Mile Shopping Center a store manager said this Christmas was the best yet.

George Richman, president of the Downtown Merchants Assn., believed most stores would come close to the sales record achieved during the Christmas season last year.

This was generally consisidered a highly successful sales period.

Most stores will close at 5:30 p.m. Thursday, Christmas Eve. Closed on Christmas Day, most will open again for regular hours Saturday.

All governmental agencies and offices in Pontiac will be closed for the three-day weekend.

Banks will close at 3 p.m. Thursday and won't open again until Monday morning.

Oakland County Sheriff Frank W. Irons appealed to motorists "to make it a safe holiday."

"If you plan to attend parties or do any drinking, do it as a passenger not a driver," he said.

Irons pointed out that this is one of the most dangerous times of the year for drivers, citing weather conditions and drinking drivers.

"Our men will not hesitate to jail drunk drivers," he added.

Acting Postmaster Robert C. Miller said special deliveries would be made as late as necessary to complete distribution of mail by the 24th.

"Although all windows will be closed Friday," said Miller, "should there be any late arrival of Christmas parcels, we will make every attempt to deliver them on Christmas day.

"We will also deliver all special delivery mail and perishables. Regular delivery of mail is not scheduled for Christmas day, however."

Miller asked that people supply baskets or containers by their mail boxes to handle the quantity of mail the carrier brings them. There are many cases where the mail box will not hold the volume of mail delivered and another receptacle is needed, he said.

Post Office branches will close 6 p.m. today, but tomorrow and Thursday will revert back to normal hours, 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

"Our outgoing mail this year is roughly 10 per cent above last year for the Christmas period," Miller said.

"Our incoming mail is slightly less this year, with the exception of the last couple of days. We have been able to keep current with the mail. There have been no delays."

The Post Office will be closed New Year's day also, the Postmaster said.

Loss of Art Gowens Major Blow to MSU

EAST LANSING (AP) — The Michigan State basketball team suffered another major loss today—the scholastic ineligibility of starting center Art Gowens.

Just last night, the touring Spartans lost their first game in five starts, 79-75 to Brigham Young.

It was learned here today Gowens will be ineligible because he flunked an economics course during the fall term. He will be able to play through the Wisconsin game Jan. 2 but will be ineligible for the remainder of the season.

It's Almost Your Last Chance to Buy Presents

Last call for Christmas shoppers. You can really get in the mood for Christmas with snow on the ground.

Do you know someone who is trying to count calories? Get him or her a colorful plate with all this information right on it. That should curb any appetite.

Little girls love to get doll clothes. We were enchanted with the sets of child's gloves and matching ones for the doll. Other handwear we saw and liked included fluffy red mitts with leather palms.

Now that the Oriental influence is being felt more and more in home decorating, matching accessories are being made. One store shows trays with Oriental paper and butterflies under glass. Another in the same store has a tiny rim of minute pieces of what looks like bamboo.

Silver cigarette holders that look like miniature fireplace wood baskets would be delightful on any dinner table. So would a handsome dressing spoon with a ceramic handle.

Have you seen the very small transistor radios with earplugs? Bet your teen-ager would like one.

Give that man a visor valet for his ear. There's space for money, a pencil, memo pad, glasses and miscellany (in the zippered section.) In the same store where we saw the above we also saw good looking plaid vests and interesting colorful braided belts.

Cribbage players aren't forgotten in this year's gifts. One sports store is featuring a cribbage board about three feet long. Just the thing for the beach next summer.

If you're completely stymied after all these suggestions, get flowers for the person you love. Their fragrance and color say "Merry Christmas" for many days.

Youth Injured in Xway Chase

GM Vice President's Son Is Critically Hurt in Auto Crash

A Bloomfield Hills youth was critically injured this morning when his car crashed on the John C. Lodge expressway in Detroit while being pursued by police.

Cyrus W. Osborn, 18, son of General Motors Corp. Vice President Cyrus R. Osborn of 125 Martell Dr. was admitted to Mt. Carmel Mercy Hospital with head injuries, cuts on his legs and chest and possible internal injuries.

He was still unconscious at 1 p.m., 8 hours after the accident.

Detroit policeman Paul Shinsky said he spotted young Osborn's car speeding and started after it.

LOSES CONTROL

With his speedometer reading 65 m.p.h., Shinsky said, the other car was pulling away when it suddenly went out of control, careened up an embankment, rolled down, struck a utility pole and overturned several times.

Police said the youth, driving a 1960 Corvair, apparently was en route home from a party. A student at Brown University, he was home for the holidays.

His father is in charge of engine divisions and overseas operations at GM.

Puts Up $200,000 to Find 'Snowman'

CHICAGO (UPI) — An encyclopedia publisher plans to put up $200,000 to send Sir Edmund Hillary into the Himalayas to find the Abominable Snowman.

World Book publisher Bailey K. Howard yesterday disclosed plans for the trip by Hillary, conqueror of Mount Everest, and a 14-man party.

Howard said Hillary and his party will ascend the mountains of Nepal next September, spend the winter at high-altitude camps and return in the spring — possibly with the legendary, elusive snowman.

Howard said he is backing the trip because Hillary is convinced the snowman is more than a myth.

★ ★ ★

"There's something up there. I know there's something up there," Howard said Hillary told him. "I told Hillary, 'go and bring it back.'"

But even Hillary has no idea whether the snowman is man or beast, Howard said.

Persons who claim to have seen the snowman usually describe it as a giant, white, shaggy creature which stands erect, runs naked through the snow and biting cold and is easily frightened by human beings.

Howard said the expedition will try to tranquilize the snowman, if it finds it, with hypodermic guns, since the Nepalese government forbids the killing of animals.

Express Accord of Ike, Franco

Agree Summit Parleys Will Help Cause of World Peace

MADRID (AP) — President Eisenhower and Generalissimo Francisco Franco agreed today Western talks with the Soviets and the President's visit to Moscow next year will help the cause of peace. But they added "a firm defense posture should be maintained" by the West.

★ ★ ★

The two chiefs of state after a breakfast conference of two hours and 20 minutes at Franco's Pardo Palace said their conversation strengthened the bonds of cooperation between Spain and the United States.

★ ★ ★

They issued a joint statement as Eisenhower took off in his big jet airliner for Morocco, the last stop of his 11-nation goodwill tour. His reception in Madrid, the next to last stop, was the greatest ever given a foreign visitor in modern Spain. White House press secretary James C. Hagerty quoted Eisenhower as saying he was completely overwhelmed.

★ ★ ★

About a million Spaniards roared "Viva Ike" as the President rode through Madrid with Franco, resplendent in his generalissimo's uniform, in cold rain and wind late Monday.

"The talks, which covered a wide variety of other international matters of interest to both countries, were conducted in an atmosphere of cordiality and understanding," the statement said.

Tragedy Averted at Sylvan Lake

Christmas vacation nearly began with tragedy for three West Bloomfield Township High School students today on ice-covered Sylvan Lake.

James Richman, 15, of 1665 Stapleton St., went through thin ice near the middle of the lake. He can thank the quick thinking of Chris Hargreaves for saving him from drowning in the frigid waters.

The three teen-agers, all of Keego Harbor, were lured out on the ice by several ducks they saw walking on the lake.

"We figured we might trap them," said Hargreaves, 15, of 1807 Rustic Lane. "The lake was completely frozen over, but we didn't realize how weak the ice was out in the middle because there was snow on it."

The ducks suddenly began taking to the wing.

"Jim tried to run after them and the ice just went out from under him," Chris related. The third youth, Jerry Guerrero, 17, of 1621 Beachmont St., ran around to the other side of Richman but couldn't reach his floundering friend.

LAYS ON ICE

Chris laid down on the ice.

"I couldn't get out because the ice kept breaking around me," said Richman. "When I'd grab the edge, it would just crumble in my hands," he said.

Then Chris ripped his coat off and began edging closer to Jim. He finally flipped the coat far enough and Richman grabbed it.

"We inched back until Jim had enough solid ice in front of him and I just pulled as hard as I could until he was out," said Chris.

★ ★ ★

The two boys then hurriedly got their shivering companion to the Hargreaves home where warm blankets and hot coffee were quickly put into use.

The rescue occurred at about 10:40 a.m. By 11:15 the rescued youth was "all wrapped up in a blanket and feeling fine."

Chessman Given 8th Death Sentence

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Caryl Chessman, 38, artful dodger of San Quentin Prison's gas chamber, Monday was sentenced to death for the eighth — and possibly the last time.

Superior Judge Herbert V. Walker set Feb. 19 as the execution date for Chessman. The convict-author has evaded the executioner for 11½ years through appeals and petitions.

Neither Chessman nor his attorney was present at the court session. Re-sentencing is routine after an appeal has been denied.

PROUD PRINCESS — This apricot colored poodle is of royal ancestry, she says, but adds that she is a down-to-earth princess. "I'm pretty but not stuck up," she says, "and I like to play and frisk a lot. I know I would make a real nice pet for some family that would love me."

PLEASE TAKE ME HOME—Mr. Dubious Ancestry Dog really has a lot of cocker in him and would sure like to make friends with some young boy or girl, he said imploringly. He can be quiet or full of fun and, he added, it's awful lonely where he is now.

STOCKING SIZE — These three pups in a basket crowded together for this shot just to show how nice they could fit into a Christmas stocking. Real good actors, they knit their brows and looked sorrowful just to show how much they would like to go to some nice home and be The Surprise on Christmas morning.

Dogs, Cats Primp as Prospective Gifts

"Oh, oh, here they come," said Mr. Dubious Ancestry Dog to Mr. Tomcat.

★ ★ ★

The message spread and a great clamor went up. The canines were in good voice and the felines licked their fur slick in readiness for the photographer and the strange man with him.

They knew a picture in the paper is worth 1,000 barks and meows.

"I could just fit into a little boy's stocking at Christmas," a cocker puppy implored.

"And I'd be great fun to a nice young man," woofed a German Shepherd.

"Watch me flip," demanded a mixed spaniel.

"I'm sure there are plenty of nice girls who'd like to cuddle me under the tree," purred a little pussy cat.

"I'm sure there's a nice home for me. I'm pretty and I'm fun. I like to play," said a noble looking apricot poodle.

And from all over they tried to get into the act, homeless puppies, dogs, kittens and sleek cats.

There are more than 60 puppies and dogs and a few cats at the Oakland County Animal Welfare shelter at 1260 W. Boulevard. And, according to Dr. Frank Bates, director, there is even a beautiful white duck. The animals cost $2 plus vaccination and license fees for adult pets.

Mrs. Martin Davis, a humane officer at the Michigan Animal Rescue League, 790 Featherstone Rd., says she has about 70 animals that would make wonderful pets and perfect Christmas gifts.

The Rescue League animals range in price from $2 to $35, with the exception of a standard size poodle who costs $50.

The Michigan Animal Rescue League hours today through Thursday are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Oakland County Animal Welfare Shelter hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

'Legislative Power' Cited

Court Backs Connecticut on 2 Birth Control Laws

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — The State Supreme Court of Errors today upheld the constitutionality of two state laws dealing with birth control.

The laws prohibit the use of contraceptive devices, and forbid physicians from advising their use under any circumstances.

The court, in a unanimous decision, said the laws "are a constitutional exercise of legislative power."

It said "the judiciary has a duty to test legislative action by constitutional principles, but it cannot, in that process, usurp the power of the Legislature."

★ ★ ★

Connecticut's highest court was ruling on four suits brought against the laws, which often have been involved in court tests since they were passed in 1879.

★ ★ ★

Backers of the suits had indicated in advance of the ruling that they would appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Principals in the suits were Dr. C. Lee Buxton, a physician and chairman of Yale Medical School's obstretrics department; three of his women patients; and two husbands.

Buxton claimed that the ban on giving birth control advice prevented him from prescribing contraceptives for three patients for whom pregnancy could mean a loss of life or abnormal children.

The patients also filed suits, using fictitious names to maintain their anonymity.

They and Buxton claimed the laws were unconstitutional and deprived them of their rights under the Fourteenth Amendment to the U. S. Constitution. This forbids the individual states to "deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law."

"It may well be that the use of contraceptives is indicated as the best and safest preventive measure which medical science can offer these plaintiffs," the court said.

"That fact does not make it absolutely necessary for the Legislature to accept such a solution in all cases, where there is, as pointed out in the Tileston case, another alternative, abstinence from sexual intercourse."

Rowston Will Head Airport Committee

to the county on future airport planning," Hamlin said.

CAN GO RIGHT TO WORK

He said he selected the members who represent areas in the county which will probably share most in the future plans.

The master plan, released recently to the six-county Supervisors Inter-County Committee suggested creation of a jet airfield near Pontiac by 1970-75 to help meet the growing air needs presently handled by Detroit's Metropolitan Airport.

Hamlin said Rowston's committee could go right to work charting the county's needs for the next 15 years based on the master plan.

These ideas then will be coordinated with those of a six-county group made up of representatives of committees, like Oakland's, already established or soon to be set up in Wayne, Washtenaw, Livingston, Monroe, St. Clair and Macomb counties.

Hamlin, chairman of the SIIC, said soon after the first of the year this large committee would be created and steps taken to carry out the study made by the Landrum & Brown consultant firm of Cincinnati.

Rowston's committee will concern itself with airport developments in Oakland County, Hamlin said.

One of the committee's first jobs, Hamlin suggested, would be to sit down with Pontiac city officials who are moving ahead rapidly on building up the city's airport, and see how these plans tie into over-all county designs.

He Waives Examination on Holdup

Accused of shooting and holding up Pontiac A & P supermarket manager, Eugene J. Thouin, 54, yesterday waived examination on a charge of armed robbery and was bound over to Circuit Court for trial.

Thouin will be arraigned on the charge Monday.

He was unable to furnish bond of $5,000 set by Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum and was returned to Oakland County Jail pending arraignment.

Thouin was arrested by Pontiac Police less than an hour after Claire Kramp, 50, manager of the A & P at 1185 N. Perry St., and a woman cashier were robbed of $9,000 in the store's parking lot Friday afternoon.

Kramp was shot in the hand by the bandit after he laughed at the order to drop money bags containing $9,000 in the holdup man's car.

RETURNING FROM BANK

The store employes were returning from the Community National Bank where they had gone to obtain extra money for cashing Christmas checks.

Witnesses gave police the license number of Thouin's car and he was subsequently arrested in the basement of an apartment building at 88 W. Mansfield Ave.

All but $600 of the loot has been recovered.

★ ★ ★

Thouin who boasted to police that he's "spent 28 years in prison," has refused to admit the holdup-shooting.

★ ★ ★

He moved from Pontiac to Florida three years ago, he said, returning here last Wednesday.

Begin Testimony in Suit Opposing Royal Oak Mall

First testimony was taken yesterday before Circuit Judge William J. Beer in the nonjury lawsuits of five parties opposing the city of Royal Oak's intentions of converting its downtown area into a modern shopping mall.

★ ★ ★

Leslie R. Tripp, Pontiac realtor, was first witness called by one of the plaintiffs. He testified that merchants would not receive equal benefits for the assessments to be levied.

★ ★ ★

Although six suits were originally filed, five remain in which merchants protest the manner and amount of assessments they would have to pay for the $2,610,000 project.

Testimony was expected to resume at 2 p.m. today.

Thruway Speed Limit Dropped to 35

Snow Scrambles Traffic Throughout Northeast

By The Associated Press

A vast blanket of snow stretched over most of the Northeast today, five inches deep in some spots, and created hazardous traffic conditions for holiday motorists.

★ ★ ★

The U.S. Weather Bureau in New York said the snow storm is expected to end by tonight. There was still a chance of a white Christmas, however, he said, because "the elements are right" for more snow before Friday.

The wind-driven snow stretched from the Great Lakes east through Pennsylvania, West Virginia, New Jersey, Maryland, New York and parts of New England. Western Pennsylvania had up to five inches.

★ ★ ★

Several hundred cars were trapped on Route 35 in New Jersey between Middletown and Red Bank. The locked-in motorists included three pregnant women headed for hospitals to deliver their babies. A doctor, also snowbound in the traffic snarl, was called to their aid.

★ ★ ★

Highways throughout the area were icy and dangerous. New York State Thruway speed limits were reduced from 60 to 35 m.p.h. Motorists returning from work inched their way through traffic jams. Buses were caught in the snarl. Trains were late.

★ ★ ★

The first day of winter found New York City appropriately white and chilly. Air traffic at the city's busy airports was only slightly delayed, however.

Suffers Minor Injuries in Two-Car Collision

Madeline Rallis, 24, of 197 Judson St., was injured yesterday when her car collided with one driven by Sylvia J. Wallis, 94 E. Howard St., at the intersection of Sanford street and Auburn avenue.

She was treated for minor injuries at Pontiac General Hospital and released.

Betty Hutton Too Busy to Obtain a Divorce

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Betty Hutton didn't have time to get a divorce yesterday. She'll try it after the first of the year, when she's not so busy.

★ ★ ★

The actress and NBC executive Alan W. Livingston, both 38, have been separated since last March. They married about four years ago. In her complaint, she charges grievous mental suffering.

★ ★ ★

Miss Hutton, married twice previously, was scheduled to appear for a hearing yesterday. But her attorney told the judge she "didn't want to stop work in order to get the divorce over with."

Steamboat Rock in Dinosaur National Monument was named for its resemblance to the prow of a ship.

The Day in Birmingham

City Decides to Retain Weed-Control Ordinance

BIRMINGHAM — While temperatures hovered in the low 20's last night, City Commissioners discussed the control of weeds throughout the city.

The Commission decided to continue the ordinance adopted last May under which property owners are asked to cut their weeds when they become 10 inches high.

To prevent hay fever the Commission asks that owners have their lots mowed privately or have the city do it, assessing them the cost.

During the past year, the Commission was told, 609 individual notices were sent to property owners, 356 of whom had the weeds mowed privately. The city mowed 202 parcels.

The figures do not add up to 609 because in some instances owners who held title to several adjacent parcels in separate subdivisions received two notices instead of one.

The Commission also set Jan. 18 for a hearing of necessity on the repaving of Redding road from Woodward avenue to Chesterfield road.

The estimated cost of repaving and drainage construction from Lake Park road to the Rouge River is $96,000.

Three special assessment districts would be established to cover the cost.

This is how the money would be divided:

For paving Redding road from Woodward avenue to Lake Park road, $43,000, and Lake Park road to Chesterfield road, $47,000; and for the construction of a storm sewer from Lake Park road to the Rouge river, $5,700.

ONLY ONE OBJECTION

The only objection to the complete resurfacing of Redding road from Woodward avenue to Chesterfield road came from Commissioner Florence H. Willett.

★ ★ ★

She said she felt that only the stretch from Woodward avenue to Lake Park road warranted asphalt concrete.

With Quarton road being used as a throughway, it would not be necessary to resurface the entire section of Redding road with asphalt, she said.

The Commissioners also asked Police Chief Ralph Moxley to make a traffic count before the hearing Jan. 18.

The Commission agreed to enter into a contract with Standard Service Co. for the janitorial maintenance of the Municipal building.

Standard had submitted a low bid of $10,200. The work has been done previously by two city employes at a cost of $10,600 annually.

A low bid of $9,475 also was accepted by the Commission from the Telford Equipment Co. in Wayne for a new street sweeper.

The Commission was told that the old sweeper needs major repairs since it is six years old.

Remanded back to Birmingham Municipal Court for a grand larceny examination he once waived is Henry Heinz, a 56-year-old Birmingham man accused of stealing $300 in tools from a city nursery.

★ ★ ★

Heinz of 276 E. Brown St. appeared before Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland yeterday and his attorney requested he be remanded. He remained in jail under bond. No date has been set for the examination.

Winston K. Griffin

Service for Winston K. Griffin, 58, of 25635 Franklin Hills Dr., Franklin Village, will be at 11 a.m. Saturday at the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Funeral Home. Burial will be at Franklin Cemetery.

Mr. Griffin died today at Henry Ford Hospital after a long illness.

He was manufacturers agent representing the steel industry to the automotive trade.

Mr. Griffin was a member of the Detroit Athletic Club and the Oakland Hills Country Club.

He is survived by his wife, Barbara, a daughter, Gail and a son, James.

Judge Removes Bribery Charge

One Man Is Freed, Another to Be Tried in Alleged Shakedown

A bribery charge against one man accused in the alleged shakedown of an Oak Park restaurant owner has been dropped, while a second man, a union business agent, has been bound over to Circuit Court for arraignment Jan. 4 on the same charge.

Oak Park Municipal Judge Burton R. Shifman has dismissed for insufficient evidence the charge against Charles (Chicky) Sherman, 54, of Detroit, and bound over Morrie Sherman, 50, also of Detroit. The Shermans are not related.

Morrie Sherman is a business agent with Local 705 of the Hotel and Restaurant Employes and Bartenders Union, AFL-CIO.

The two were accused of accepting a $50 bribe from Daniel Lambard, owner of Dannie's Restaurant, 8410 W. Nine Mile Rd., so that attempts wouldn't be made to organize Lambard's employes, police said.

★ ★ ★

After having the case under advisement since July, Judge Shifman dismissed the charge against Charles Sherman because "there was not enough probable cause to bind him over" for trial.

The other Sherman, a former state boxing champion and licensed boxing referee, is free on a $500 bond.

Teamsters Drop Suit Against Hoffa

WASHINGTON (AP) — A group of Teamster Union members has dropped court efforts to oust James R. Hoffa as union president and will turn its efforts toward removing him through the new labor-management law.

The action, brought by John Cunningham and others, has been pending for about two years. Attorney J. Benjamin Simmons of Washington and Jaques M. Schiffer of New York, Monday asked U.S. District Court to dismiss the complaint. The request was based on the assertion that "the labor-management reporting and disclosure act of 1959 . . . preempts this court from proceeding further in the case."

ANTHONY KREPS

Sylvan Names Justice of Peace

Anthony Kreps Quits as Mayor Pro-Tem to Take Post

At a public hearing and special meeting of the Sylvan Lake City Council last night Mayor Pro-tem Anthony Kreps resigned his Council post and was appointed the city's new justice of the peace.

Kreps will fill the position left vacant by the death Nov. 25 of former Justice Joseph J. Leavy.

The next election for a justice will be next November. The present term expires July 4, 1961.

Kreps is a former mayor of the city and has been a councilman for 11 years. He was re-appointed mayor pro-tem last November.

★ ★ ★

The new justice was to be sworn in today by City Clerk Mrs. Marjorie B. Willson at the City Hall.

He lives at 2282 Garland Ave., and owns and operates a barbershop in the Riker Building in Pontiac.

"We certainly are happy to have a man of Tony's capability as justice of the peace," said City Manager David E. Firestone.

The public hearing last night concerned rezoning requests by Samuel Warwick, a Sylvan Lake builder.

The Council voted to rezone about 1,200 feet on the north side of Orchard Lake road from office district to roadside and neighborhood business.

★ ★ ★

The property stretches northeast from Warwick street to a Grand Trunk Western Railway crossing about three blocks away.

Warwick had requested the change because he wanted to build a restaurant on the northeast corner of Warwick and Orchard Lake.

The change will become effective Jan. 4.

Whoever Gets This Plane Will Be All Wet

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Brookley Air Force Base planned to open bids today on a military amphibian plane being sold on a "where-is, as is" basis.

The tail section of the SA16 Albatross is at Brookley Field. The rest is under 36 feet of water 27 miles away in the Gulf of Mexico.

★ ★ ★

The plane cracked its hull Nov. 23 while the crew was making practice landings in the Gulf. Only the tail section was salvaged.

The plane costs about $75,000 new but Brookley wasn't saying what it expected to get for this one.

Has Nothing to Wear

BRAWLEY, Calif. (UPI)— Nightclub stripper Ann LaMont, 24, told sheriff's deputies today she expected doing her act would be kind of inconvenient for a while. She said her costumes were stolen from her dressing room.

Government Wants Stamps

No More Premiums

WASHINGTON (AP) — Drivers of government vehicles, turn in your trading stamps. You have nothing to lose but your premiums.

★ ★ ★

That's the gist of a new directive going out to about 100,000 government employes who drive cars, trucks and motorcycles on official business. The total includes about 35,000 rural mail carriers.

★ ★ ★

If each of those drivers bought gas at a service station that gives trading stamps, it would amount to a considerable raft of stamps. Until now no one has questioned their keeping the stamps themselves.

The government's idea is to cash them in for money, rather than merchandise.

★ ★ ★

The General Service Administration, which operates the federal motor pools here, issued the order to all government agencies for drivers to turn in any stamps they get.

'We're Way Behind the Russians'

Stamps Push Into Cold War Front

NEW YORK (UPI)—The cold war soon will enter a new phase if Americans meet Russia's challenge to capture the goodwill of postage stamp collectors in Asia and Africa.

Ernest A. Kehr, a newspaper stamp columnist, has set up an organization named Stamp Out Communism to channel abroad the millions of U.S. commemorative stamps that go daily into American waste-baskets. All he needs now, he said, is public cooperation.

"We're several years behind Russia in making use of this inexpensive way to win friends and influence people in the newly developing countries," he said.

"The collectors of India, Japan, Ghana and Nigeria, for instance, can obtain Russian stamps for the asking, but they may have to pay more for an American commemorative than for a loaf of bread."

Kehr, who founded Stamps for the Wounded in World War II, said he hopes to arrange for distribution of free packets containing 50 different U.S. commemoratives to foreign collectors. The United States Information Agency and various stamp clubs here and abroad have promised to participate.

"We don't have to worry about printing special propaganda issues," he said. "American stamps like the recent Lincoln Susquicentennial issues and the Champions of Liberty series tell the story of American life and principles well enough."

Kehr, who recently made a swing around the world, gave this outline of Russia's philatelic operations in areas where stamp collecting was until recently the exclusive hobby of rich nabobs and European colonials:

About 20 or 25 new stamp issues are printed in Russia each month with designs that convey a flattering picture of communism in action. These adhesives show the Soviet worker embracing Asian and African workers, Sputniks and Luniks, the Russian flag on the moon, famed Soviet scientists and inventors, the joys of Communist youth congresses, a benevolent Khrushchev, and the Picasso dove of peace.

Tens of thousands of extra sheets of commemoratives are printed for free distribution abroad and lightly canceled to make them "used" stamps. Then they are sent to Russian information centers in Asia and Africa for free distribution or to dealers who will sell them at prices attractive to even the poorest collectors.

"Now the satellites are copying big brother and using the same methods to distribute their numerous commemorative issues," Kehr said. "Dealers in Bombay told me they get as many as 5,000 to 10,000 free sets of stamps every month from behind the Iron Curtain."

Kehr said the stamps fall mainly into the hands of youthful collectors—students and young professional people—whose minds are open to the party line propaganda on the stamps. Often, Russian stamps are the only foreign issues these youths have been able to obtain.

★ ★ ★

"I'm not asking the United States government to fill the stamp albums of the world with handouts of American stamps," Kehr said. "But I definitely think that with contributions of stamps from the American people and with a little aid in distribution, we can do just as good a job in this field as Russia."

Wife at Home Is Fraud Target

Business Bureau Cites Letter Addressing Lure —Tells of Fake Firms

WASHINGTON (AP)—A housewife who would like to earn a few dollars at home is a favorite target of deceptive employment advertising, a spokesman for the Association of Better Business Bureaus said today.

★ ★ ★

Edwin M. Lockard, who is also general manager of the Baltimore Better Business Bureau, spoke today from a statement prepared for a Federal Trade Commission Conference on Deceptive Advertising.

LETTER SCHEME

He cited promotional matter put out by a Baltimore firm speaking of "numerous affiliations" with businesses needing envelopes addressed and chances to earn "$35 or more per week for a few hours a night." Women were asked for two dollars "to cover cost of mailing, listing and registration."

★ ★ ★

Bureau investigation, Lockard said, disclosed that the advertiser was a newly formed company which could not prove it had work to offer. After a postal investigation, the firm went out of business and the Post Office returned to the senders the letters with the fee, Lockard said.

★ ★ ★

The FTC concludes today a two-day session for representatives of 47 consumers, civic and other organizations, seeking to strengthen defenses against misleading advertising and other deceptive sales practices.

★ ★ ★

Lockard applauded the effort but suggested care "to avoid creating a national neurosis that would cause the feeling that all advertising is suspect."

Market Owner Fined for Liquor Violation

The owner of a Pontiac market was among those fined for violations of the state liquor law at a recent hearing of the Michigan Liquor Control Commission.

★ ★ ★

Glen LaLone, owner of the Rosebud Market, 585 Auburn Ave., was fined $100 on a charge of selling alcoholic beverages to a minor.

★ ★ ★

The Commission ordered a seven-day suspension of Lalone's license waived. The fine is due and effective Jan. 11.

Lizard Can Tell You 'Morning After' Bad

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Dr. Charles Shaw, curator of reptiles at San Diego Zoo, was called to the steamship President Van Buren to treat a lizard with a hangover.

During the trip from the Philippines, the ship's crew had discovered that the lizard liked soda water. Then, somebody spiked the soda with whisky. The lizard was being taken to a trade fair at Oakland, Calif.

Copies of His Painting

Mamie Gives Ike's Gifts

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's Christmas presents were distributed Monday to the people at the White House. They are reproductions of a presidential painting of a mountain in the Canadian Rockies that is named for him.

The picture of Mt. Eisenhower was given out at a reception for the hundreds of people who work at the executive mansion, from cooks and maids and gardeners to top officials.

Mrs. Eisenhower, wearing a gay Christmas red dress, diamond earrings sparkling in the lights of a tree, received the staff in the White House east room. Eisenhower, of course, is still overseas.

The White House personnel went by for a handshake with Mrs. Eisenhower. Then they received their paintings.

The picture shows a tall, rocky butte looming over a blue lake with fir trees rising beyond the shores.

Mt. Eisenhower rises 9,390 feet in Banff National Park. It was named for Eisenhower, the general, rather than Eisenhower the President, on Jan. 11, 1949. It used to be called Castle Mountain. The Canadian board on geographic names made the change.

Reproductions of Eisenhower paintings are a favorite gift of the President and the recipients. One year the President gave White House workers a picture of a battered red barn. Another year the painting was a snow scene in the Colorado Rockies.

LITTLE GABE AND THE GOLDEN STARS — A Christmas Story — By Walt Scott

Armenian Pours Out Nutty Music

Yipe! Such Chipmunkeyshines!

By DICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — 'Twas three months before Christmas, and all through the house four-year-old Adam Bagdasarian kept asking, "Hey, Pop, is Christmas here yet?"

"I blew up," recalled the father, a zany Armenian songwriter named Ross (Daddy Chipmunk) Bagdasarian. "I thought, 'Here we go again! Christmas—bills, the whole thing.' Then I realized that if my son was impatient for Christmas, other kids must feel the same way."

The result was the smash record "The Chipmunk Song" ("Christmas, Don't Be Late"), which has sold nearly six million copies since it was issued 14 months ago.

It has made a millionaire out of Bagdasarian, a once-poor raisin farmer from Fresno, Calif., who cashed in by not only writing and arranging the song but also by leading the orchestra, doing all the voices and narrating it under the name of David Seville—"who represents my lighter side."

SPONSORS BY-PRODUCTS

The record was such a huge success that Bagdasarian—small, dark-haired, handsome and 40—formed Chipmunk Enterprises. Through it, he has turned out another dozen "chipmunk" records and now sponsors 70-odd "chipmunk by-products" from wallpaper to clothes to jumping beans.

★ ★ ★

Sipping on a highball in a Hollywood restaurant, he said:

"After Adam asked me if Christmas was here yet, I jumped into my car, which is where I do most of my work. I love cars—the faster the better—because it's the only time you're alone.

"Soon the melody came to me. I can't read or write music, so I rushed over to Liberty records, got the engineer to turn on the tape and started whistling into the microphone—my usual procedure. I remember everything in my head. That's the way I do arrangements too. Anyway, I finished it in one day."

Bagdasarian had had two big records before "The Chipmunk Song." The first was "Come On-a My House," which he wrote with his cousin, playwright William Saroyan. The second, "Witch Doctor," came right before the "Chipmunk Song."

"But," he said, "they were nothing compared to 'The Chipmunk Song.' It sold four million records in the first seven weeks. In one day we sold 550,000 records.

"By the way, the names of the chipmunks—Alvin, Simon and Theodore—were taken from the first names of Liberty executives. So help me, I didn't make them up. They seemed to fit."

Bagdasarian got his start in show business as the singing newsboy in Saroyan's brilliant Broadway play, "The Time of Your Life."

"I conned him into giving me a good part," he said. "He thought I was a great singer. He said, 'What do you want to sing?' I said, 'When Irish Eyes Are Smiling.' He said, 'What kind of tenor are you?' I said, 'Irish.' He said, 'I thought you were Armenian,' anyway he rewrote the play for me.

★ ★ ★

"He's as nuts as I am. When he was in Europe recently, I heard he was writing a Yugoslavian screenplay with no dialogue called 'Ah, Yugoslav.' "

Bagdasarian's earnings have enabled him to buy two grape ranches—in Fresno and Mecca, Calif. But he said he has turned down much money from people who want him to do chipmunk commercials.

"I'll never do them," he said, "because the chipmunks belong to the kids now. I got kids, so I believe in them, and I won't sell them out."

★ ★ ★

Bagdasarian said he adopted the pseudonym of Seville because he once needed a Spanish-sounding name to sell a Latin melody he wrote. But, he roared:

"I'm Armenian through and through. I'm working on an American Western called 'They Died with Their Rugs On.' "

Construction Slows More Than Expected

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Construction activity in November slowed down more than was expected, the Commerce Department reports.

★ ★ ★

New construction of all kinds was valued at $4,436,000,000 for November, 9 per cent less than in October and 1 per cent less than a year earlier.

Shortages of structural steel figured in the slowdown, which was more pronounced than a purely seasonal dip.

For the first 11 months of 1959, construction hit a record of $50,207,000,000 up 12 per cent from the like months of 1958.

The face fly, an annoying livestock pest, first found on Long Island, N.Y., in 1953, has since been discovered in 15 states.

Cub Pack 53 Donates to Salvation Army

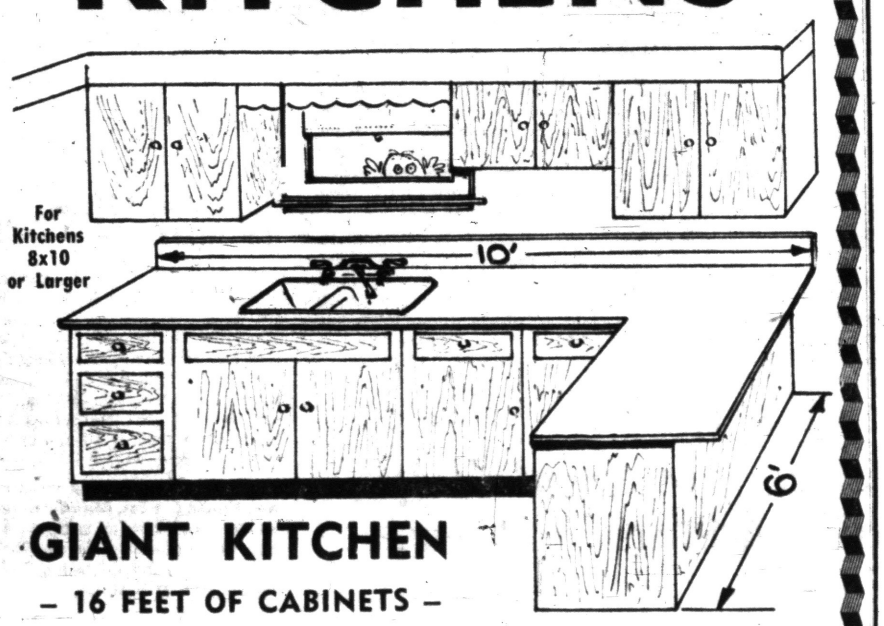

Toys and canned food were turned over to the Slavation Army for distribution to needy families at Christmas time by Cub Scout Pack 53 which met recently at Mark Twain School.

Christmas puppets were displayed by den 5. Three boys received awards.

First to Trim Tree

The custom of decorating trees at Christmas came originally from Germany.

Judge Moore Is Wise in Waiving Jurisdiction

The Pontiac PRESS stands solidly behind Judge ARTHUR E. MOORE in his decision to waive jurisdiction over a 16-year-old youth involved in the near fatal holdup of a gas station attendant.

★ ★ ★

Reaching this verdict was not done in haste, since the Judge is one of the staunchest advocates of looking out for the juveniles in this area. Probably no single man has spent more hours working for the well-being of delinquent children than Judge Moore.

★ ★ ★

For this reason we are sure that his decision was based on a fair appraisal of the case with an eye to helping the juvenile if possible.

★ ★ ★

This was an adult crime and the youth should be prosecuted as such. Leniency in dastardly crimes of this nature cannot be tolerated in our society. They must be punished to the fullest extent of the law.

It's High Time Someone Spoke for Public Rights

The Columbus (Ohio) Citizen Journal has come up with what we consider a very astute comment on the current steel hassle. In a recent editorial they had this to say:

★ ★ ★

. . . "AFL-CIO President George Meany has proposed, and President Eisenhower has directed Labor Secretary Mitchell to explore the possibility of a White House-union-management conference to see if some way can't be found to avoid prolonged stalemates like the steel strike.

This conference, when it is held, should begin by weighing those rights which ought to come first in any major dispute—the public's rights. If the conference meets with that attitude paramount, then it can get something done."

★ ★ ★

Too often the attitude is to heck with the public. This is wrong. It's about time someone put in a word for the "public's rights." And it's about time they were respected.

The steel strike is a national problem, and it is everyone's business.

Hopeful Developments in Assembly Meeting

The U.N. General Assembly terminated its session in a flurry of action after having wasted time and 51 votes on the issue of whether Turkey or Poland would get the vacant seat on the Security Council. A very simple compromise finally settled the deadlock—Poland will sit the first year and Turkey the second.

★ ★ ★

There was little, if any change in Soviet Russia's attitude on international relations in this 14th General Assembly meeting. Despite the Russians' objections, the situation in Hungary was discussed. They argued that such debate did not relax tensions and furthered American efforts to prolong the cold war. The Assembly did what it could. It passed a resolution deploring conditions in Hungary.

★ ★ ★

Asian countries, not wishing to take sides in the India-China dispute, sidetracked the Tibetan question nor was the Laotian situation discussed. Laos had withdrawn its complaint but a U.N. observer was sent to that country to keep an eye on developments.

The Afro-Asian bloc failed to get a two-thirds majority to pass a resolution on Algeria. It was felt, and quite properly we believe, that Pres. DE GAULLE should be given time to implement his pledges of self-determination for the Algerians.

★ ★ ★

Perhaps the most hopeful development was the discussion of disarmament. After three weeks of debate the assembly sponsored a resolution calling on the 10 nation disarmament commission to consider all U.N. proposals for disarmament, prevention of wider dissemination of nuclear weapons and nuclear weapons testing. Talks could go on for years but at least they're off dead center and the group will meet in March at Geneva.

★ ★ ★

A new 24 nation committee, with 12 free world, 7 Communist and 5 neutral members, was set up for peaceful development of outer space. The Western powers had to concede to the Soviet bloc a stronger representation than it has had in previous groups of this kind. They could not have done otherwise due to Russian successes in outer space.

David Lawrence Says:

World Must Someday Stop Delay

WASHINGTON—Postponement is the order of the day now. Settlement of the big problems in world affairs has been put farther and farther off.

LAWRENCE

This is the true meaning of the Paris conference just concluded. For it was announced that the "summit" meeting on April 27 in Paris is to be merely the first of a series to be held "from time to time."

This formula, originally attributed to Prime Minister Macmillan, postpones for months and perhaps years the settlement of any outstanding issues of importance.

★ ★ ★

Unless the Soviets provoke another crisis over Berlin—and there is little reason for them to do so as long as they are achieving their other objectives—the situation will drift on as at present for a long, long time.

The Communists have everything to gain and really nothing to lose by the formula of postponement. For it gives them a chance to consolidate their gains.

It creates an impression behind the Iron Curtain that the Western Allies will not exert themselves to help liberate the captive or enslaved peoples and that, for all practical purposes, the so-called "status quo" will be maintained.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, there will continue to be two German governments, two Korean governments, two Chinese governments and two governments in what used to be Indochina and now is called North and South Viet Nam.

These divisions will mean continued friction and a danger of further outbreaks. In addition, there are evidences that Red China has embarked on a course of continued harassment of India.

There are other trouble spots such as in the Middle East and North Africa, and also in Latin America where the Communists are financing revolutions and stirring up more and more controversy between Cuba and the United States.

Because of the danger that a local war can overnight become a big war and because of the widespread feeling that a nuclear conflict must be avoided at all costs there is really no way to solve by military pressure some of the issues that have arisen around the world.

In the absence of any leverage such as has influenced the course of history in the past, the situation will continue to drift from crisis to crisis without any determined effort by the West to come to grips with the Communist campaign for world conquest.

Indeed, inside all the Western countries the activities of a hard core of Communists, well-trained and well-financed, are beginning to be ignored or pooh-poohed.

Even the advocacy of treason is held to be a form of "free speech" and the Western countries are finding their parliaments and their governments letting down the bars against active Communists who manage to infiltrate universities, the press and various church organizations.

Time could be on the Western side, if the protracted period of negotiation were effectively used to build up what someday could be a people's revolution behind the Iron Curtain.

The events of world history have proved that human liberty cannot be permanently crushed in any country, and that sooner or later the concerted will of millions can triumph over a small group of despots.

The Communist Party is a minority, behind the Iron Curtain. It is all powerful today, but it is vulnerable.

Nikita Khrushchev is a politician.

He thinks time is on his side and that every year he will be able to stave off revolt by improving the standard of living. But it has been well said that man cannot live on bread alone. Someday the passion for freedom will supersede all else.

The moral force of American public opinion can eventually serve as an inspiration to the patriots in Hungary and elsewhere who know that someday they must bring an end to despotism.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Steroid Treatment Helps Fight Addison's Disease

As with the diabetic, one usually sees for the first time the patient with adrenal cortical hypofunction (so-called Addison's disease) severely ill from some complication which has brought his condition to a state of crisis, says Dr. John F. Howard, associate professor of medicine, Johns Hopkins.

★ ★ ★

For the patient, who has noted browning of the skin, weakness, a little weight loss, and fall in blood pressure . . . one can at once prescribe 2 mg. of desoxycorticosterone acetate daily intramuscularly and 12.5 mg. of cortisone orally (by mouth) after breakfast and supper with every confidence that he or she will feel as well as ever within one or two weeks and be able to carry on all his or her usual activities.

DR. BRADY

Addison's disease (impairment of adrenal function) is due to idiopathic atrophy (shrinking or wasting of the adrenal glands from unknown or undetermined cause) or hemorrhage into the gland or invasion of the gland by tuberculosis or cancer.

So treatment with the steroids, such as cortisone by mouth and/or injections of desoxycorticosterone acetate into muscle, is comparable with regular injections of insulin and/or one or two daily doses of orinase by mouth daily in the treatment of diabetes.

This is substitution therapy—that is to say, the steroids, given regularly, function in place of the hormone or internal secretion of the adrenal glands which are no longer able to manufacture an adequate amount of it; and insulin given regularly, functions in place of the hormone or internal secretion of the islands of Langerhans in the pancreas (abdominal sweetbread) which can no longer manufacture an adequate amount of it.

Just how orinase, in tablet form, by mouth, works in place of insulin by injection, in mind or moderate diabetes in adults, I am not qualified to explain. The chemical name for orinase is tolbutamide. It is available only on prescription and can be safely used only under the physician's control, at least until the proper dose for the individual case is determined.

The steroids, likewise, are available only on prescription and can be safely used only under the physician's observation.

Here I emphasize that the effect of insulin, cortisone, hydrocortisone, hydrocortone, prednisolone and the other steroids or "miracle medicines" is TEMPORARY.

Signed letters not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

'Our Judges Need to Be as Tough as Criminals'

The first man that was charged with robbing the poor through Goodfellow stealing is let off and I can't understand why it is the courts are always so good to the goons who harm society in so many different ways. All my neighbors agree and if the judges were as tough as the men that come before them, then decent people would not have to put up with so much dirty work.

'Boy Is Losing Faith in People'

Our boy, 12, is fast losing confidence and trust in people. Losing his first bike by accident was bad enough, but when he was fortunate enough to get a new one two years later for his birthday, someone stole it three weeks later. You can imagine how he felt this morning when he went out to leave for school and his third bike was gone. Christmas is for giving, not stealing, so have a Merry Christmas.

'Give Board Credit for Job Well Done'

Some people in Waterford Township have said some nasty things about your school board. I've watched Waterford schools very closely for quite some time and what they have done in Waterford with limited funds is outstanding.

★ ★ ★

No school system of its size in Oakland County is getting as much for the dollar in education as citizens of Waterford Township. You may have your quarrels about changing the name of Waterford High, but you don't want two high schools called that. Why not call the original Central High like Pontiac has done and the new one Waterford Northern or Eastern or Western and then everybody would be happy.

★ ★ ★

But do give your board and administration credit for the really good job that has been done by them.

Raps Blood Bank for Inefficiency

If the entire General Hospital is run like the blood bank, people are paying for nothing. I donated blood recently for a friend. I was paid for my time by the company I work for, which I appreciated, but due to the blood bank's inefficiency, it cost my employer much more than it should have.

★ ★ ★

I arrived at 9:45 for a 10 a.m. appointment. Four persons were on duty and with no patients. I had to wait until 10:00 because they were gabbing instead of taking care of business.

★ ★ ★

Since the hospital is in such dire need of funds, it seems some could be saved by eliminating some of the extra personnel. But they're civil service and this just isn't done. Oh well, more for the taxpayers to carry.

Attitude of Clerks Inspires Letter

When timid little U. Customer clears his throat to interrupt a clerk's conversation, he is stared at haughtily as if he noisily dropped his pool cue from his coat sleeve at a church social.

★ ★ ★

Poor U. Customer backs away like a cornered cockroach from an exterminator gun. He knocks over a shiny new garbage can in his haste and when last seen, he was racing out the door, leaving the dynamic discourse (about the cute new stock boy, etc.) disturbed, but undaunted.

★ ★ ★

But fear not, if Christmas shopping is impossible, we can always depend on the fat, round man who brings gifts and goodies to everyone. And all he says is "Ho Ho" and "Merry Christmas to all and to all good night."

'Why Let Religion Remain Untaxed?'

Now that more and more are coming to realize the greatest of all frauds perpetrated upon them—that of organized religion—and it's no longer the "untouchable" subject it once was, can't we be realistic about this?

★ ★ ★

Why should churches be tax exempt? Think of the health research and education possibilities if they had revenue from taxing these organizations which feed upon the superstition and fears of the uneducated?

Here we truly have big business and in the interest of democrary, justice and plain common sense, let's stop being sentimental about this and benefit thereby.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Women Look to Advice Columns

Newspaper publishers like Phil Buchheit are really Chancellors of tremendous "Universities in Print." The newspaper is unique nowadays in being the major educational agency for American adults. See how eagerly women want to make their homes happy and be good mothers, as well as successful wives. They look to newspapers for scientific help, so "advice" columns must be authoritative.

By GEORGE W. CRANE

Case D - 432: Phil Buchheit, aged about 45, is a civic dynamo as well as a publisher of two newspapers at Spartanburg, South Carolina.

★ ★ ★

CRANE

As Chairman of the YMCA campaign to raise $1,000,000 for a new building, he invited me to deliver the kickoff address.

It is typical of our newspaper publishers to be staunch rooters for all good civic and moral projects.

But not all of them have the vitality and personal energy to sparkplug the actual campaigns in their cities the way Phil Buchheit does.

For example, while at Spartanburg, he introduced me to 1,200 high schoolers in the morning, plus 50 clergymen at a noon luncheon.

And there was a packed auditorium of 3,500 at the big evening affair.

★ ★ ★

But at 11 a.m., I spoke to 1,000 ladies at a "Women Only" clinic. I talked 45 minutes; then answered questions which they had written, unsigned, on slips of paper. Here are a few.

DOMESTIC PROBLEMS

"Why do husands fail to compliment their wives or praise them for their efforts to please those husbands?"

"Does it make a 6-year-old feel insecure because its mother has to work outside the home?"

"Should a younger child be told that his older brother is a child of the mother by a former husband?"

"How can eligible but unmarried people meet congenial members of the opposite sex?"

★ ★ ★

"Could there be a real disease called laziness?"

"What are the pros and cons of social drinking?"

"My husband drinks though I do not, so how can I impress on my two boys that liquor is harmful?"

"How can I get my husband to quit smoking and become active in our local church?"

"What is meant by a schizophrenic personality?"

"My 15-year-old teases other children and acts like a 'Smart Alec'. Why does he do so and what can I do to correct him?"

★ ★ ★

"After 25 years of happy married life, my husband has suddenly grown cold toward me. He wants to go places alone. What can I do to restore our former happy relationship?"

"At 23, I want to get married, but my mother opposes the idea, saying I should stay home and look after her. But I have a wonderful boy friend whom I have dated steadily for over two years."

"We've been married 18 years and have 4 children, but my husband is running around with other women and says he wants a divorce. I have begged him to restore our happy home, but he refuses."

★ ★ ★

"For 14 years of our marriage, my husband has been a chronic philanderer with no desire to change. For the sake of our children, aged 10 and 12, what should I do?"

"How can I get my husband out of bed and to church without nagging him?"

"What cause a husband of 35 to have no erotic desire?"

"I have two semi-invalided parents to look after, as well as my husband and three children. I am so upset for I can't do justice to all my obligations. Just where does my first responsibility lie?"

"How can a wife help an immature husband grow up?"

"How can I stop jealousy in my husband when he has no valid cause?"

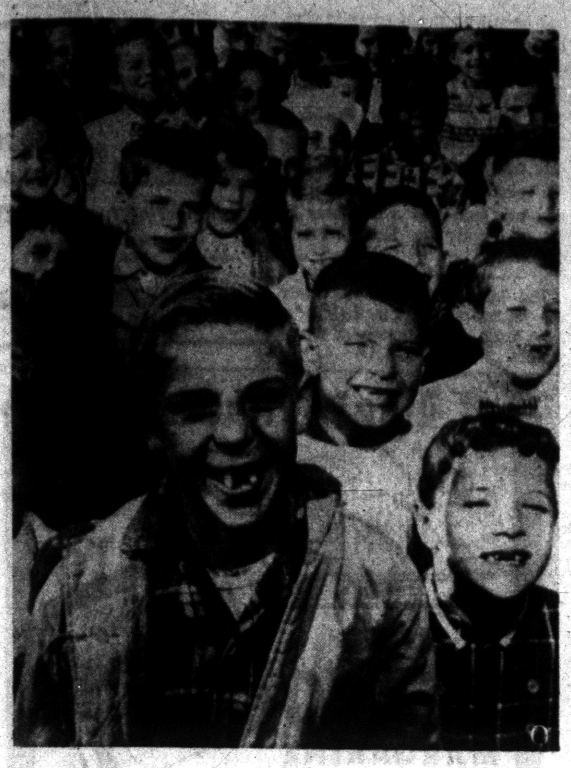

See tomorrow's follow-up for additional questions, but please note how sincerely these women want to succeed as wives and homemakers!

ALL THEY WANT FOR CHRISTMAS — If Santa hopes to fill the orders of all these children who want their front teeth for Christmas, he had better get his elves working in a denture factory. The Las Vegas, Nev., Chamber of Commerce was curious to find out how many local boys and girls were in this predicament and was swamped by several hundred toothless youngsters.

Clothing Workers to Band for Wages

NEW YORK (UPI) — The amalgamated clothing workers, representing about 125,000 workers in the men's garment industry, will ask next year for its first industrywide pay raise since 1956.

Jacob S. Potofsky, president of the Union, said it would ask a 25-cent wage package in negotiations to begin in February for a contract to become effective in June. Most major suit makers will be represented in talks by the United States Clothing Manufacturers Assoc.

Potofsky said in making the announcement that clothing industry wages had fallen well below those of the steel industry in the years since World War II. Menswear workers now average $2.12 an hour as compared with $3.10 for the Steelworkers.

In 1936, when the old and solid amalgamated and the young steel union both were founding members of the CIO, the clothing workers made $1.25 an hour and the steelworkers only 76 cents.

Yule Tree Means Life

The tradition of decorating with evergreens at Christmas comes down from the ancient midwinter festivals. The evergreens, which flourish when all else is brown and dead, are a symbol of enduring life.

The chances of surviving a wound during the Civil War were 7 to 1. In the Korean War, they were 50 to 1.

Nuclear Confab 'Disappointing'

U.S. Regards Action at Geneva as Minimal Agreement

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department Monday expressed great disappointment that the Geneva meeting of nuclear power scientists recessed with what the department called a minimal agreement.

A lengthy statement by department spokesman Lincoln White accused the Soviet representatives of an entirely negative attitude.

He said Soviet refusal to discuss important data submitted by U. S. scientists leaves the problem of underground detection unresolved.

"There is no question but that the negative attitude displayed by the Soviet scientists makes it more difficult to achieve our objective of establishing an adequate, workable, comprehensive detection and control system," White said.

He was asked whether the State Department had evaluated the report filed by scientists of the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union when they recessed last Saturday until Jan. 12.

There has been no opportunity yet to examine the experts' report in its detail, White said. He added that it will be "carefully studied."

"However," White continued, "we are greatly disappointed that the meeting concluded with only minimal agreement; namely on new seismo-logical techniques which in the future could be used to improve the control system."

White said that in the two previous technical meetings — at the 1958 Geneva conference of experts and at this year's technical working group meetings — the Soviet participants approached their work in a general objective manner.

But in the latest sessions, he said, the Soviet experts "were not prepared to agree with anything that would supplement in any way the 1958 Geneva technical conference report."

White called this attitude "perhaps the most unfortunate aspect" of the Geneva talks.

White refused to speculate whether the United States will extend the U.S. ban on nuclear testing beyond the Dec. 31 deadline.

There's Always a Fortune Somewhere

Jake's as Shrewd as They Come

CHICAGO (UPI)—John (Jake the Barber) Factor was the Beau Brummel of Chicago's promoters during the 1920s and the early 1930s when the money was easy—for some—and the living was high.

★ ★ ★

Today, at 63, Factor still is a dapper figure — smiling, wealthy, respected — in contrast to the tragic little man whose life and death intertwined with Factor's career in such ironic twists of fate.

Roger Touhy, a prohibition era bootlegger, gang chieftain and beer distributor, spent nearly 26 years in jail on conviction of kidnaping Factor, a charge Touhy always denied.

Last Wednesday night, at the age of 61, Touhy, who had thrived through a decade of mobster violence, was shot to death only 23 days after getting out of jail.

★ ★ ★

It was a wasted and bitter man who lost his life blood sprawled on the steps of a west side home, and almost to the every end Touhy directed his bitterness at the dapper man who was sitting in a near north side restaurant when the murder occurred.

That, perhaps, was the strangest twist of all. Factor had come to Chicago in connection with a $1,300,000 libel suit he had filed against Touhy for statements made in Touhy's autobiography, "The Stolen Years."

Police cleared him of any implication in the murder, even before Factor volunteered for and took a lie detector test. He said he was sorry Touhy was killed.

★ ★ ★

"I am very broken up about it," Factor told newsmen. "I hope they get the killers. I don't believe in violence."

There is no evidence that he ever did. But his career as a barber, handler of money in the millions and convicted swindler will puzzle historians.

BORN IN ENGLAND

Factor says he was born Oct. 8, 1892, in Hull, England. Naturalization authorities to whom he applied for U. S. citizenship last Oct. 21 said the application is under routine investigation.

Not-so-routine investigation has dogged Factor for 50 years. A Florida land company, a London brokerage house, a midwestern whisky dealership, a Rhodesian mine and a speculators' tip sheet filled dossiers in the '20s and '30.

AP Wirephoto

LONGTIME PROMOTER — John (Jake the Barber) Factor has a history of bigtime frauds and promotions. At one time British authorities claim he pocketed $7,000,000 from an African swindle. There are reports that he won $625,000 gambling with the young Prince of Wales. Here he enters a police office in Chicago to undergo a lie detector test in connection with the slaying of Roger Touhy.

The African affairs—British authorities called it a $7,000,000 fraud—sent Factor back to America with an extradition warrant on his heels. The U. S. Supreme Court upheld the extradition action.

Factor is familiar with court battles and tall figures. He reportedly settled Rhodesian claims for $1,800,000; there were accounts of his winning $625,000 across the gambling table from the young Prince of Wales; he is said to have given more than a million dollars of his real estate and advertising agency income to charity in the last year alone.

★ ★ ★

While fighting extradition in 1933, Factor was kidnaped. He was released after 12 days and charged the abduction to Touhy.

The case dragged through two trials. When it was over, chances of extraditing Factor had fizzled out. Touhy later charged Factor with cooking up the kidnap to escape extradition.

In the late '30s, Factor built a million-dollar wholesale whisky business. The government called it fraud and brought him to trial in November 1942. It was a month after Touhy escaped from prison for three months.

Factor pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 10 years.

In 1947, Factor sought release on grounds that only fear of the temporarily at-large Touhy had made him plead guilty.

But a federal district judge denied Factor's release.

After about six years in jail, Factor headed for California in 1949. There the former shoeshine boy and barber made another fortune. Now he hobnobs with bankers and is a Temple Beth El president.

★ ★ ★

Friday night, Factor flew home to California. Touhy was dead.

"I feel very badly," Factor said. "It's too bad for any human being to be cut down like that. It's not may way of life."

Summit Plans Boost Nixon

Proposed Series of Talks Puts Premium on Foreign Experience

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The proposed series of summit meetings may cause both parties to put a premium on international experience in the choice of their 1960 presidential nominees.

President Eisenhower, along with the heads of Britain and France, spoke of the desirability of a series of summit meetings Monday as they formally proposed a meeting with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in Paris in April.

★ ★ ★

If the Soviet Union agrees, the timing of any subsequent sessions would be dictated in part by the progress made in the original Big Four talks.

But politicians here are of the general opinion that if the Allied idea is carried out, the next president may find himself involved shortly after his inauguration in what could be a decisive meeting with the other heads of states.

★ ★ ★

This is likely to emphasize at both July conventions the possibility that the party may be nominating the man who will have to deal with Khrushchev in efforts to end the cold war.

Part of Vice President Richard M. Nixon's current popularity is attributed in many quarters to the way he handled himself in his widely publicized "kitchen debate" with Khrushchev in Moscow.

Candy Will Brighten Yule on Alcatraz

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Alcatraz convicts this Christmas are being permitted to buy a 2-pound box of chocolate candy—for the first time in the 25-year history of the federal maximum security island prison.

★ ★ ★

Warden Paul J. Madigan said 200 of the San Francisco Bay prison's 260 inmates put up $2 and will receive the chocolates Christmas Eve. Alcatraz has no commissary for prisoner purchases.

Haydens Each May Spend Half Yule With Kids

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor Sterling Hayden and his ex-wife each may spend half of Christmas day with their four children, a judge has decided.

★ ★ ★

The two are fighting over the youngsters' custody. A hearing is set for Jan. 25 on Betty Hayden's demand for permanent custody.

Hayden was authorized Monday to take the children to South Sausalito, near San Francisco, after next Monday.

★ ★ ★

The children are Christian, 11; Thor, 10; Gretchen 9, and Matthew, 7. Mrs. Hayden has them this week.

Rep. Roosevelt, Wife Adopt Infant Son

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Rep. and Mrs. James Roosevelt (D-Calif) have adopted a son, red-haired Hall Delano Roosevelt.

★ ★ ★

The child is six months old. He has been with the Roosevelts since he was three days old.

Roosevelt and his wife, Irene Todas, were married July 1, 1956. The son of the late President Franklin Delano Roosevelt formerly was married to Betsey Cushing and Romelle Schneider. He has two sons and a daughter by his first marriage. Both ended in divorce.

The latest survey shows there are 786,240 buildings in the city of New York and 5,982 miles of paved streets.

Some people are more critical of cars than others, and they are the ones we want specially to drive the solid new Plymouth.

This car is built a new solid way by Chrysler Corporation engineers. It is precisely put together and simply doesn't have many parts that work loose and need fixing in some cars. We'd like to answer some questions about this car now:

Q. What is this new way of building?

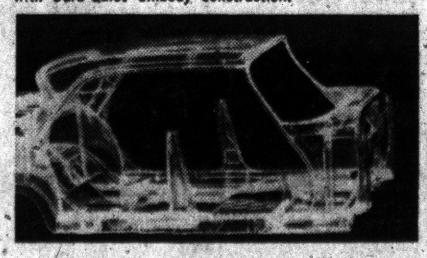

A. Chrysler Corporation's virtually trouble-free version of unit construction. Body and undersills are joined in a single unit of enormous strength, locked by close to 5400 welds. In Dura-Quiet Unibody, there is no frame and no conventional body bolts, struts, braces, etc., to loosen and rattle.

Q. What about power and performance?

A. There's the new 30-D Economy Six, a new "inclined" six that delivers outstanding economy in normal driving. The standard V-8 is the Fury V-800 which three times in a row topped its class in the Mobilgas Economy Run. Or you may choose the extra-cost SonoRamic Commando V-8.

If you ask us, this is the best built, best performing low-price car of all. Give it a real try soon, won't you?

Body and frame are welded as one unit with Dura-Quiet Unibody construction.

A Chrysler-engineered product, built a new solid way to give you solid satisfaction.

Soo Locks Shut Down, Ending Rush of Steel

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—The Soo Locks, connecting lakes Huron and Superior, were closed last night, ending the Great Lakes shipping season on a record note.

The last vessel passed through the MacArthur Lock about 11 p.m. EST. It was the ore carrier Richard V. Lindabury upbound for winter berth at Duluth. The Lindabury is owned by the Pittsburgh Steamship Division of the United States Steel Corp.

The passage of the ore carrier set a shipping record. Not since World War II have the American locks been open so late in the season.

Funeral Wednesday

Nation Pays Tribute to Walter Williams

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Mourners trooped slowly by the bier of Civil War veteran Walter Williams by the thousands today.

The body of the 117 - year - old soldier of the South lay in state in the Civil Courts Building a second day—the last survivor of the five million members of the Blue and the Gray who took part in the great conflict.

Flags dipped to half - staff across the land. Texas and Georgia observed memorial days in his honor.

ESCORT WEDNESDAY

A military procession escorts the body Wednesday morning through downtown streets to the South Main Baptist church for funeral services, Dr. E. H. Westmoreland, pastor, will officiate.

★ ★ ★

At the church will be a group dressed in Union blue. The Mount Vernon, Ohio, Sons of Union Veterans Fife and Drums Corps will render the one - time forage master's favorite melodies—"Dixie," "The Yellow Rose of Texas," and "When Johnny Comes Marching Home."

Then U.S. 4th Army and Texas state highway patrol units will escort the body to the country cemetery at Franklin, Tex., for military rites.

GOVERNMENT TRIBUTE

Williams died Saturday. His doctor said he apparently had beaten back his fourth attack of pneumonia since summer, only to succumb of old-age complications.

Governmental agencies pay tribute to him tonight with memorial services in the Houston Music Hall. Various service organizations will take part.

★ ★ ★

The body was clad in a Confederate officer's uniform of gray, trimmed with gleaming gold buttons, cuffs, collar and braid.

Willie Mae Bowles, a daughter with whom Williams lived out his final years, sobbed as she touched her father's head.

Eisenhower Library Contracts Awarded

ABILENE, Kan. (AP) — A group of contracts for the Eisenhower Presidential Library in Abilene, totaling $1,067,517, was let Monday by the State Architect's office in Topeka.

Contracts amounting to $226,140 for the service building, sewer changes and reviewing platform were let early in October.

The contracts awarded Monday cover the erection of the main library building and completion of the archives section, but do not include all the finish bronze work and equipment in the office, research and display sections of the library.

C. L. Brainard, secretary of the Library Commission, said the contracts were let this way to insure the completion of the archives portion of the building before December 1960 in order to receive and store the President's papers by the time he leaves office.

Teamster Agent to Get Hearing on License Return

His driver's license revoked because of a drunk driving conviction, Frank A. Orsini, business agent for Pontiac Teamsters Local 614, has petitioned Circuit Court for a hearing on its return.

Judge H. Russel Holland set the hearing for Jan. 4.

In his petition, Orsini, 42, of 2200 Coe Ct., Pontiac Township, contends he drives 7,000 miles a month in his job as business agent. He said his work takes him to Oakland, Macomb, Livingston and Genessee Counties, which "are not served by public transportation systems."

Earlier this month, Judge Holland upheld the 1956 lower court conviction of Orsini for driving while under the influence of liquor. He was arrested by Waterford Township police while arguing on the side of the road with a trucker.

First Christmas Carol Echoes Through Time

Angels' Song Has Inspired Writers

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The Gloria chorus sung by the angels the first Christmas has inspired men of many nations to herald the birth of Christ in song. Handel was bankrupt and ill when he heard the angelic chorus, and was so moved that he wrote his great "Messiah." Charles Wesley, hearing the chorus in ringing church bells, wrote "Hark the Herald Angels Sing." This is the first of three articles on the origin of our Christmas carols.)

By HUGH A. MULLIGAN
AP News Writer

"And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of heavenly hosts, praising God and saying: Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace, good will to men."
LUKE II, 13-14

★ ★ ★

On the plains above Bethlehem the shepherds listened in wonder and delight to the singing of the world's first Christmas carol.

The great Gloria chorus, proclaiming the birth of the Savior, rang out over the frost-jeweled valleys and caught a never ending echo in the ancient Judean hills.

The hills echoed it to the mountains, and the mountains sang it to the stars. Out across the chasm of centuries it carried, a strain of unsurpassed beauty that time could not still.

It whispered urgently in the ears of composers. It burst forth from the hearts of poets. Men of all ages and climes heard it in infinite variations.

George Frederick Handel, a poor barber's son who wanted all his life to write great music, heard it in the loneliness of his London flat in the year 1741.

"I did think I did see all Heaven before me, and the Great God Himself," he described his moment of sublime inspiration.

Bankrupt, broken in health and spirit, he locked himself indoors with his dream for 22 days, seldom eating or sleeping, and emerged with his greatest oratorio, "The Messiah," clutched in his paralyzed left hand.

WESLEY'S INSPIRATION

Charles Wesley, the poet laureate of Methodism, heard it on his way to church on Christmas morning, 1739.

The joyful clanging of the bells seemed to him like silver tongues of angels singing a welcome to the Christ child. His "Hark the Herald Angels Sing," written almost on the spot, remains to this day one of the most popular of all Christmas hymns.

The Rev. Joseph Mohr heard it one Christmas Eve in the Austrian Tyrol while returning from a sick call. He was a newly ordained priest assigned to St. Nicholas Church, Oberndorf, a parish so poor that the church mice could find nothing better to eat than the bellows of the organ.

Their choice of fare saddened the young priest, because it meant there would be no Christmas music.

★ ★ ★

Pausing to rest on his way down a mountain, Father Mohr was struck by the beauty of the snow covered peaks, soft blue in the star light but glowing here and there with the torches carried by his parishioners on the way to Midnight Mass.

"Silent night, holy night
All is dark, save the light . . ."

The words rushed to his mind. Hurrying to the home of his friend Franz Gruber, the local schoolmaster and church organist, the priest begged a melody to fit his simple words.

In less than an hour, Gruber scored the exquisite poem for guitar and two voices.

"We will die, you and I" Gruber told his wife, "but this song will never die."

That Christmas morning in 1818, with Father Mohr playing the Italian guitar and singing tenor to Franz Gruber's rich bass, "Silent Night" first burst forth upon the world.

VOICES OF ANGELS

From the dawn of Christianity, men have borrowed tongues of angels to serenade the new born savior.

Pope Telesphorus in 129 A.D. exhorted his flock to sing together the "Gloria in Excelsis Deo," the Latin translation of the angel song recorded in Luke's Gospel. St. Jerome mentions the use of carols in the Fifth Century.

"Adeste Fidelis," possibly one of the oldest hymns and next to "Silent Night" the most universal, is believed to have been the chant that medieval monks intoned while moving through the darkness of their cloisters to sing the office on Christmas morning.

Other authorities, however, attribute it to John Francis Wade, a music copyist who in 1740 lived at Douay, France, with a group of exiled English Catholics.

★ ★ ★

Still others credit it to St. Bonaventure, an associate of St. Francis of Assisi, the humble friar who introduced the custom of the Christmas crib at Greccio, Italy, in 1223, using live animals for his stable figures.

Because the crowds who came to see this striking Nativity scene were asked to join in singing, Francis is often called the father of the modern Christmas carol.

SAILORS CAROL

Sailors about the time of Columbus' first voyage to the New World began the morning watch on Christmas Day by singing "I Saw Three Ships," an unusual carol that pictured Christ and Mary arriving by sea at landlocked Bethlehem.

★ ★ ★

"Good King Wenceslaus," a carol of Swedish or German origin, chronicles the devout doings of a 10th Century Duke of Bohemia who was known for his generosity on St. Stephen's Day, the day after Christmas.

"God Rest Ye Merry, Gentlemen," traditionally the first carol heard in London on Christmas mornings, is believed to be of Welsh origin.

Mozart borrowed the melody for a duet for violin and piano. Charles Dickens' Ebenezer Scrooge had a different reaction. When the carolers bent down at his keyhole to regale him with this cherished favorite, he grabbed his ruler and drove them off.

★ ★ ★

Down through the ages men of all walks of life have added their voices to the angel chorus. Carols have been penned by such diverse authors as Sir Walter Raleigh, Mary Queen of Scots, Francis Scott Key, Johannes Brahms (whose immortal "Lullaby" was written as a Christmas hymn), St. Francis Xavier, Martin Luther, Oliver Wendell Holmes, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, Pope Pius IX and Harpo Marx.

The last mentioned, although a comedian by trade, composed the beautiful music for "Guardian Angels," a carol popularized by the late Mario Lanza and now sung in many churches.

Tomorrow: "Joy To The World."

How did graham bread get its name? Although he neither invented nor introduced it, it is named after Sylvester Graham, a 19th Century lecturer on temperance and food reform. He included wheat bread in his dietary regimen, which at one time had thousands of adherents. Hence, "Graham bread." Today, the baking industry uses national newspaper advertising—over $20,000,000 worth in 1958—to inform you of its many products and their benefits.

Puerto Ricans Protest on Ike's Visit to Franco

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP) —A small, orderly picket line outside the Federal Post Office demonstrated Monday against President Eisenhower's visit to Spain.

★ ★ ★

"Don't shake Franco's bloody hand!" read one of their signs. Among the groups taking part were the Assn. for a Democratic Spain and the International Ladies Garment Workers Union.

★ ★ ★

Pablo Casals, Spanish cellist in self-imposed exile here as a protest against Generalissimo Francisco Franco's government, commented that he was disappointed at the Eisenhower visit. He said the President "may have made a grave error."

Senate Sets Probe of Plane Fatalities

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A Senate commerce subcommittee will hold hearings next month in an attempt to find out why civil aviation this year more than doubled its passenger fatalities over 1958.

Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney (D-Okla), chairman of the subcommittee on aviation, said yesterday he was concerned because the accident record was "one of the worst in recent years." He said the hearings were scheduled to begin Jan. 11.

There have been 329 persons killed in 17 fatal accidents involving the nation's scheduled airlines this year. There have been 103 accidents including both fatal and nonfatal mishaps.

"Reports received from the Civil Aeronautics Board on these accidents do not show any apparent pattern as to their cause," Monroney said. "Nevertheless, it is imperative that every effort be made to determine what steps can be taken to prevent their recurrence."

★ ★ ★

Monroney said the safety hearings would be part of a broad review of civil aviation as it operated under the 1958 Federal Aviation Act.

For the family of four, the average demand is 130 gallons of hot water a day with as much as 60 per cent of this total drawn off in the rush period of only two hours.

Tecumseh---It's a Love Affair Between Company and Town

TECUMSEH (UPI) — The compressor capital of the world is continuing to expand.

This little city of Tecumseh, which lured Tecumseh Products here 25 years ago and thereby pulled off the best deal since the Dutchmen bought Manhattan Island, is topping off the granddaddy of all Community Fund drives.

Tecumseh, with somewhat more than 5,000 residents, until this year was satisfied to be like other communities in conducting an annual drive for an approved list of charities.

But there were some local objections to the way the money was allocated after it was turned in to the county, state and national organization which parcels out the united gifts.

So this year Tecumseh formed the "Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation" and did its own allocating. The foundation budgeted $20,295 for nearly 40 charities, community programs and organizations, and announced that everything over that would go into building such things as a new library, civic center, auditorium or perhaps a second swimming pool.

WHAT A COLLECTION!

While most towns this size boast if they hit the $10,000 mark in the annual charity drive, Tecumseh has nearly $110,000. Close to $90,000 will be in the foundation kitty Jan. 12 when a citizens committee is picked to decide what and when to build.

Of course, it wouldn't be possible without Tecumseh Products. The Dutch got Manhattan from the Indians. The only thing this town got from the Indians was the name of a Shawnee chief. But Tecumseh got Tecumseh Products from Hillsdale, 35 miles west, in 1934.

Tecumseh Products, which led this foundation drive and matched the contributions of its employes, pays out $27,000,000 in payroll.

Tecumseh Products builds more compressors for refrigerators, freezers, coolers, air conditioners and heating-cooling units than any other firm in the world, and it builds most of them here.

If you don't think this was almost as good a deal as Manhattan consider this: Tecumseh has this $27,000,000 payroll because it agreed to pour a concrete floor and make repairs on a small plant which went bust in the depression years.

★ ★ ★

The firm was called Hillsdale Machine and Tool Co. and was chiefly making auto parts for Ford Motor Co. when President R. W. "Ray" Herrick started dickering with the Tecumseh Commerce Club in 1934. Coincidentally, Ford Motor Co. owned a lot of land here then.

Also coincidentally, Herrick's three-man engineering-sales team of Frank Smith, Jens Touborg and Curtiss Brown had just started producing a compact compressor for refrigerators — and refrigerator builders started buying it.

Tecumseh Products growth was fantastic: 60 workers in November 1934; 200 in January 1935; 520 in March 1937; 800 in 1939, two years after Touborg came up with an early hermetic (sealed) compressor; 1,200 in 1942 as production shifted over to munitions and war machines.

Since 1950, Tecumseh Products has bought and built plants making compressors at Marion, Ind., and Danville, Ill., and bought two small gasoline engine plants in Wisconsin.

★ ★ ★

But most amazing is what Herrick and Tecumseh Products have done for Tecumseh, Adrian College in nearby Adrian and other area institutions. The 50-bed Herrick Memorial Hospital; Tecumseh High School and an elementary school; the city hall and the swimming pool are among the community structures built mostly or substantially on Products gifts.

★ ★ ★

Of course, Herrick has always made it a self-help proposition, even when he gave away lots and the first $200 or $300 to hundreds of employes who wanted to build homes.

Herrick, retired as president but still chairman of the board, just can't get Tecumseh to expand as fast as the world's biggest compressor company.

'Amelican,' You Just No Good Piker

PRINCETON, N.J. (UPI) — A Chinese "cribbing shirt" with quotations from the four books of Confucius has been placed on display at the Princeton University Library.

The light-weight satin shirt, covered with more than 520,000 Chinese characters, was designed to be sewn into the lining of a student's clothes when he began a three-day civil service examination in ancient China.

Chinese civil service candidates who took the three-day examinations in a solitary cell, sometimes were found dead from the strain and pressure accompanying the tests. The examinations helped to determine social status.

★ ★ ★

The exact age of the shirt was not known, although Chinese scholars say cheating on the civil service tests began during the second century B.C.

The shirt will be on display at Princeton through the school's final exam period which runs from Jan. 18-27.

Princeton has an honor system.

Construction to Begin on Building at Ferris

BIG RAPIDS (UPI) — Construction will begin this week on a new $200,000 student health service building at Ferris Institute. Ferris President Dr. Victor F. Spathelf said the building will serve present and foreseeable needs of the growing Ferris student body. The structure is scheduled for completion next spring.

Smallest of 104 Has 34 Subscribers

State Strung With Phone Firms

LANSING (UPI)—Malcolm Garrison runs a general store, post office, barber shop and pheasant farm in Falthorn.

He also runs the smallest telephone company in the state—with 34 subscribers. The Menominee County (Upper Peninsula) company is one of 104 telephone companies in Michigan. Some are only slightly larger than Garrison's.

The Falthorn example was cited by State Public Service Commission Chairman George E. Hill, an Upper Peninsula man himself.

The commission regulates telephone rates and areas as well as other utilities.

Michigan Bell, with 2,800,000 rate payers, is by far the largest in the state. The American Telephone and Telegraph subsidiary has about 40 per cent of the state's telephone business.

★ ★ ★

General Telephone controls about two-thirds of the independent telephones, which doesn't leave much for the other 102 companies.

Hoxeyville in Wexford County has a company with 55 subscribers —just a rung above Falthorn.

But some are fairly large. The Moore Telephone Co. in the Caro region has 3,000 customers. The Ontonagon County Co. has 2,000 rate payers and another in Calhoun County has about the same number.

"Most of these little companies are owned by families which use them to supplement other incomes," said Verne H. Hufford, supervisor of the PSC telephone section.

"Just about all of them got started between 1900 and 1910 when Bell's patent on the telephone ran out," Hufford said.

In several areas the PSC has allowed competition between companies, although usually it assigns one company to one area. Only when an existing service can be shown inadequate does the commission allow another to compete with it.

Three little companies operating in the Horton-Hanover area of Jackson County each serve a town. And Southern Telephone also serves the same area.

★ ★ ★

Independents have an association with central headquarters in Lansing. A number of companies, such as Stromberg-Carlson, supply them with equipment.

★ ★ ★

"There is some trend toward the large companies taking over the smaller ones," said Hufford. "But some of the larger ones aren't even interested in the little ones. They aren't economical."

JAMES BURNS — Wonderment about dirt led to new antibiotic and changed his life.

Hits Fungus Diseases

Curiosity Over Handful of Dirt Leads to Drug

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (UPI)—The life of James Burns has been changed favorably by a handful of dirt.

One day four years ago, while playing with his two daughters in the backyard, Burns dug his fingers into the ground, then watched the soil dribble from his hand.

As a researcher on bacteria, he knew important medical discoveries, including some wonder drugs, had been made in recent years by the isolation of certain organisms from certain soils.

These soils however, were for the most part from some little known places, spots with exotic names, ones he never expected to see.

"What's in this handful of dirt?" he recalls wondering.

Burns decided to see. The next day he took a sample with him to the hospital laboratory where he worked.

After four years of research, working with Dr. D. Frank Holtman at the University of Tennessee, Burns has isolated an organism from plain backyard soil and produced an antibiotic that is reported to attack fungus diseases successfully.

★ ★ ★

The organism, he says, is one of the streptomyete group and has been officially named streptomyces chattanoogenis.

The antibiotic is called Tennecetin.

Both Burns and Dr. Holtman and the S. E. Massengill Co. of Bristol, Tenn., which has been doing research to determine its practical uses, have great hopes Tennecetin will be highly important in fighting fungal diseases in humans and animals and possibly to agriculture.

A representative of the Massengill firm says Federal Food and Drug Administration approval is expected soon, which would lead to marketing of the product.

Burns says some of the common types of diseases being treated experimentally over the country with Tennecetin include ringworm, thrush, athlete's foot and several types of serious skin and scalp infections.

Since the discovery, Burns has been appointed head of the bacteriology department of the city's largest hospital and next month he will receive his doctorate from the University of Tennessee.

TRAGIC SIDE, TOO

His story seems filled only with success, but there is a tragic side.

★ ★ ★

His wife, a registered nurse, worked at her husband's side through the lean years, giving him moral encouragement, and helping with family finances while he studied.

Then, just as it appeared they were on the high road, Mrs. Burns became ill. She died not long ago, just six weeks after the birth of their third daughter.

"I regret that my wife did not live to see the successful completion of our work," Burns says. "However, I'm dedicating my thesis to her."

The rhodondendron is the state flower of West Virginia.

State Had Fine Year

Agriculture Sees Good Prospects

By GEORGE S. McINTYRE
Michigan Agriculture Department Director

(UPI) — As the old year passes and the new year dawns those in Michigan's vast agriculture cannot help but be thankful for the good that 1959 brought and face 1960 confident that there will be a happy issue out of many problems of the future.

While prices were not always what farm people would have liked to have received, 1959 was a good crop year in general for Michigan. Total output of 18 major field and fruit crops climbed 8 per cent over the previous year to a new record in crop production.

Corn and dry bean crops were of record size while the largest sugar beet crop since 1920 and a record tonnage of tree fruit also helped boost total crop output. New yield records were set for corn, dry beans, sugar beets, soybeans and hay. Small grain yields were sharply lower than the previous year's yields, but still above average.

The Michigan Department of Agriculture, with cooperation of other agencies, completed a Japanese beetle control program in Berrien, Wayne and Monroe counties, the largest control program of its kind the department ever attempted.

Notable progress was made toward eradication of brucellosis, a contagious disease of cattle that has cost owners millions of dollars over the years. Today the state has 36 counties with no known herds of cattle infected with this disease. Records indicate there are 66 per cent fewer cattle reacting to tests for the disease than a year ago. This is gratifying. The goal of complete eradication appears to be in sight if the program continues at its present pace.

LINKED WITH NATION

Michigan's agricultural future as far ahead as 1969, naturally is inexorably linked with what the fates hold for agriculture nationally. All the problems of agri-business nationally bear on Michigan farming to some degree.

Being able to sell at a profit often places the farmer in a grave situation. At present the farmer receives only 39 cents of the retail dollar spent by the consumer at the food store. The farmer has encountered and continues to encounter higher prices for the things he must buy. Thus the margin of profit narrows.

Especially bright for Michigan agricultural marketing is the opportunity presented by the St. Lawrence Seaway. Michigan lake ports are potentially world ports. Eighty per cent of the world's shipping can reach our inland seas during much of the year. The cost of exporting from developed harbors on the Great Lakes compares favorably with charges from Atlantic docks.

Already such prominent products of this state as dry beans and canned red tart cherries have sailed from Michigan cities to foreign lands, and there will be many other products in the future.

This great benefit also brings a hazard and a threat. With arrival of ships from all parts of the world comes danger of foreign diseases and insect pests to threaten Michigan's livestock and crops.

Word From Oakwood: Quick, St. Nick!

Rosebush Quads Are All Aquiver

By LEE WINBORN

Imagine the excitement that prevails in the Kenneth F. Rosebush home in Oakwood with four eight-year-olds eagerly awaiting the arrival of Santa Claus on Christmas Eve!

The Rosebush quadruplets, Kristine, Krystal, Keith and Kenny, have made a small cardboard and paper fireplace to accommodate the old gentleman — which — although he will have to squeeze a bit to fit — he is sure to find entirely satisfactory for his needs.

It's an exciting time of year for the whole Rosebush family. In addition to preparations for the big day at home, the quads, their older sister, Dottie, 16, and their parents have been busy with special programs at school, at their new church and with the Brownie troop to which Kristine and Krystal belong.

As if Mrs. Rosebush didn't have a hectic enough time keeping her youngsters calm right now, she also is a third-grade room mother at Thomas Elementary School where her four youngest attend, and is cochairman of the Christmas party there tomorrow.

She had charge of the toy auction at the school Christmas party Saturday evening, and on Sunday the quads had pieces to speak in the Yule program at the new Free Methodist Church in Oxford.

The children appeared in a skit entitled "Forward and Backward."

CHILDREN ACTIVE

The girls have long, dark hair and love sports — especially basketball.

Their brothers, too, are an active pair. There isn't a game or sport that they won't at least try.

The youngsters also have chores to do around their home at 3043 Baldwin Rd., near Oxford. They have to feed and take care of two rabbits, six chickens, 12 turkeys and four pigs.

All four of the quads made Christmas presents for their mother and father and have placed each individually wrapped gift on the mantel of their new fireplace.

Although the boys are loath to admit it, they occasionally attend their sisters' Brownie meetings. Their mother is a leader, and there are no leaders for a Cub Scout group for them.

When the children were asked what they want for Christmas, their eyes sparkled. Kristine wants a ballerina doll, Krystal, a bride doll; Keith a Colt .45; and Kenny, a Colt .45 and a derringer.

KENNY'S A COMIC

Kenny is the comic member of the quartet. He loves to "ham it up" when he is having his picture taken, and if any mischief is being planned, Kenny is usually the instigator.

Times have changed, for it used to be Keith who was the prankster and leader of the group.

The Rosebushes have expanded the six-room home they occupied at the time of the quads' birth. It now has nine rooms, and is carpeted and festively decorated throughout.

To add to the family's income, Mrs. Rosebush, now 42, is a demonstrator for a household products firm and a cosmetics company. Her husband has changed his occupation from mason to truck driver and is home only on weekends.

He was laid off for two months this summer, and a month again this fall, due largely to the steel strike. He returned to work only a couple of weeks ago.

"We're just like other families," Mrs. Rosebush said. "We have our ups and downs, but as long as we can make ends meet and keep the children clothed and well-fed, we're happy."

The family's happiness permeates the whole house as the gala holiday approaches, and the quads also look forward to their ninth birthday Jan. 16.

TRIM THE TREE—Here the Rosebush quads have a gay time putting the lights on their Christmas tree. Their whole house is festively decorated with tinsel, pine boughs and yule candles for the holiday season.

$300,000 Issue's Decision to Come at Feb. 15 Primary

ROMEO — When Romeo voters cast their ballots in the spring primary Feb. 15, they also will be asked to authorize the Village Council to borrow $300,000 and issue general obligation bonds for additions and improvements for the town's sewage treatment plant.

The Council set the date at its meeting last night which climaxed months of planning and study with state and village engineers of the village's sewer problem.

★ ★ ★

Proposed improvements in the town's sewer system are designed to prevent pollution of the north branch of the Clinton river. The present antiquated system has been condemned by the State Department of Health.

★ ★ ★

Council has determined that the period of usefulness of the larger sewage treatment plant shall be "not less than 40 years."

This time limit was set on advice of McMahon Engineering Co., village engineers.

★ ★ ★

Plans call for a trickling filter-type plant costing about $245,000 and several future filter units, about $50,000 each, to be added when necessary.

★ ★ ★

During the sewage disposal plant study, State Department of Health officials continued testing capacity of East Pond Creek.

★ ★ ★

They found that an additional filter unit would be needed now because the flow of water there is small at various times of the year.

★ ★ ★

Additional units should be added as deemed necessary to meet population growth, they said.

TAPPING RATES RISE

In order to meet rising costs of construction and labor, the village governing body voted to increase water and sewer tapping rates.

A ¾" water tap now will cost $85, water meter, $40; and sewer, $65. A one-inch water tap will cost $110; and the larger meter, $75.

★ ★ ★

The new rates go into effect immediately.

Calls Novi Petition Worthless

NOVI — The Council was told last night by the village attorney that a petition for an amendment to the charter was "Worthless."

The petition, filed with the village last month, asked that residents decide if they want village government.

Village attorney Howard Bond told the Council "In my opinon the petition is worthless. The charter already provides for such action."

The amendment would allow a petition to be filed by one-fourth the residents in the village so a special election could be held.

The election would decide if the residents wanted village or township government.

The village, which is one of the largest municipalities in Oakland County, became a village in 1958.

At present, there is less than a square mile of the township left.

The petition calling for the amendment was signed by more than 600 persons, living in all areas of the village.

The village has an estimated population of 6,700.

The remaining portions of the township are two subdivisions.

One is the Northfield Estate at Eight Mile road and Beck road and the other is the Brooklyn Subdivision at Novi road and Nine Mile road.

Village Manager Fred E. Olson said these two portions did not become part of the village because of an oversight in not getting petitions to them when the village was incorporated.

Subdivision Addition OK'd

Farmington Council Acts on Petition to Improve Alta Loma Park

FARMINGTON — Final approval was given by councilmen last night on plans for an addition to a subdivision here.

The subdivision, known as Alta Loma Park No. 4, is located at the western boundaries of the city on Gill road and Grand River avenue.

Developers of the new subdivision, which contains 61 lots, have already begun street and sewer improvements.

The Council approved the parcel on the recommendation of the city manager and city engineers.

Construction of the new homes will begin in the spring, the Council was told.

★ ★ ★

An ordinance prohibiting minors from possession of alcohol was adopted by the Council in other action.

The new ordinance, which follows the state law closely, will give the city local authority to prosecute on any offenses.

Previously, the Municipal Court received no benefit from the fines.

The ordinance calls for fines up to $500 and 90 days in jail.

★ ★ ★

An antilitter ordinance also was introduced but not action was taken.

The proposed ordinance sets fines for throwing rubbish on streets and private property in the city.

Electricity Cut Off in Southfield Monday

SOUTHFIELD — A wide sector of Southfield was without electricity for almost two hours yesterday morning when a power shovel cut through two Detroit Edison underground cables.

Electric power was cut off from about 200 homes in the vicinity of Ten-Mile road and Northwestern highway, and from Lawrence Institute of Technology, Duns Scotus College and Southfield High School.

The power shovel was being used to excavate for a new sewer line along Northwestern highway.

3 Leonard Youths Injured in Crash

ADDISON TOWNSHIP — Three Leonard youths were injured yesterday when their car skidded on a patch of ice, left the road and hit a tree.

Injured were the driver, David A. Edwards, 18, of 104 Beattie Rd.; Ronald Strong, 17, of 145 E. Elmwood St.; and Avery V. Greene, 21, E. Elmwood St.

Edwards had a bruised jaw and cut face and Greene, a bruised foot. Greene was treated at the Community Hospital and released.

Strong was admitted to the hospital with a possible broken jaw. His condition is listed as satisfactory today.

The accident, which happened on Rochester road, west of Brewer road, was handled by the Romeo State Police.

Ike May Set Farm Plea for January

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower may deliver the long-anticipated radio-TV appeal for his farm program next month, informed sources said today.

These sources said a date would be picked soon. They said the timing of this speech would be one of the major domestic problems facing Eisenhower when he returns from his 11-nation good-will tour tonight.

Some material for the speech was believed to have been prepared for the White House already by administration farm officials.

SEEKS TO SILENCE DEMS

In the farm speech, Eisenhower will try to drum up wide public support for his proposals and thereby bring pressure on the Democratic Congress to drop its opposition.

The farm program of Eisenhower and Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson would eliminate all production controls on wheat and reduce wheat price supports. It also would eliminate the farm parity formula as a basis for figuring support prices and substitute a support plan based on a percentage of actual market prices in recent years.

The President also will ask for legislation to expand the soil bank and expand food-for-peace exports.

Marries Jackson Girl in Double-Ring Rites

OXFORD TOWNSHIP — Kay Jean Bolster became the bride of Robert H. Beatty in a double-ring ceremony Saturday at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Jackson.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald H. Bolster of Jackson. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. W. Edgar Beatty of 1040 Coats Rd.

A crown of orange blossoms secured her illusion silk veil. She carried a white orchid centered in holly.

★ ★ ★

Sally Kahn of Buchanan was maid of honor and Faye Carraway of Royal Oak was bridesmaid.

The bridegroom's brother David of Bloomfield Hills served as best man. Seating the guests were Thomas H. Sheehan of Chicago and Thomas J. Josephsen of Toledo.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Parish House.

The newlyweds will reside in East Lansing.

That Jolly Ol' Man in Red Still Brightens Little Ivan's Eyes

By ALINE MOSBY

MOSCOW (UPI) — Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus in Moscow, and Christmas trees with the same decorations as back home right down to the tinsel.

Today, the usually somber Moscow stores are brightened in holiday decorations. And underneath all their propaganda noise about the new social order, you can see the Russians cling to some of their traditions like anybody else.

Of course, the big silver stars that hang on the walls in Children's World, a big department store for small fry, are garnished with the hammer and sickle. Two big paper moons are marked with the Soviet rocket and a big Sputnik is decorated with a new year greeting.

But otherwise you almost could be in Peoria. On the outside of the children's store hangs a two-story high cardboard cutout of Santa.

The Russians call him Grandfather Frost; this is one thing they did invent, for he outdates Santa by centuries. The new Soviet order kept him, only he celebrates New Year's now instead of the officially unnoticed Russian Orthodox Christmas which arrives Jan. 7.

★ ★ ★

Grandfather Frost has the same chubby cheeks, white beard and ho-ho that we know. The two huge lighted fir trees in front of the store could be in any country, too. So could the silver, gold and colored metallic balls and bell-shaped ornaments and tinsel.

Many of the ornaments are strictly old-fashioned, traditional Russian. Some are in the shape of girls in the national Russian costumes; metallic balls are painted with Russian designs.

Others are in the shape of mushrooms, a passion of the local citizenry.

You can't find a single angel. But there are plenty of Grandfather Frosts in their Russian-looking robes with fur trim to use as table centerpieces. The cardboard animals circling the bottom of a big tree in the middle of another store include a gay fox playing a Russian balalaika.

NO TOY GUNS

Veterans of Moscow holiday seasons say there are more gifts and decorations for sale this year than ever before.

Russians are great children doters, and the stores today, at least, have plenty of inexpensive green and yellow sleds with metal runners. But there are not toy guns or cannons.

At the big Gum department store special stalls with tree decorations are presided over by salesgirls in holiday smocks sparkling with sequins.

The otherwise sober, cavernous store is brightened by strings of colored lights, modest by Western standards but gay for Moscow. Russians are finding plenty of watches, cameras, cloisine knick-knacks, wine decanters from China and other gift items to buy.

★ ★ ★

The tree sale apparently is a problem. According to newspapers, speculators bring them from the country, at their own prices. The only approved ones in sight are foot-high artificial ones in Gum which don't destroy lumber needed for the seven-year plan.

HIGH STYLE DOLLS — These long-legged dolls are outfitted in high style from head to needle pointed toes.

Union Turns Neat Hat Trick

Grants Wage Hikes to Workers, Bosses, Gets 'Intermural' Contract

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Hatters Union signs a contract this week with its other hat, granting a wage increase to workers at the Merrimac Hat Co., Inc., in Amesbury, Mass.

With the other hand — er, hat — the union is passing out wage increases to the management of the plant.

★ ★ ★

And this, union president Alex Rose announced proudly, is no mad hatter's tea party — it's business, and it's good.

The United Hatters, and Millinery Workers International Union bought the company last February when the former owners shut down operations and prepared to go out of business.

It hired back the old management and the 325 union workers. And last week the board of directors approved a new labor contract — with the majority stockholder.

★ ★ ★

It also announced a net profit of $163,000 before taxes for the first nine months of union ownership, as compared with a loss of more than $170,000 in the same period of the previous year.

★ ★ ★

Rose, a member of the board on which the union has a majority vote, said the new labor contract institutes a 3 per cent pension fund, increases in wages and health and welfare benefits for an overall increase of 7½ per cent in labor costs. No one presented a varying estimate.

Sweden, Russia Sign Stepped-Up Trade Pact

MOSCOW (AP)—Sweden and the Soviet Union signed a trade pact Monday providing for an increased exchange of goods between the two countries.

Tass said that under the agreement, covering next year's trade, the Soviet Union will export more oil products, iron and other ores, equipment and machinery to Sweden than it has in past years.

Sweden will supply plant equipment, tubes, leather, foodstuffs "and other goods," the Soviet news agency added.

The 22,000,000 working women in the U. S. spend $7,000,000,000 a year for clothes, $2,000,000,000 a year on toiletries and cosmetics. To reach all women, national apparel advertisers invested $8,616,000, and perfume and cosmetics advertisers $12,158,000, in daily newspapers last year.

Glamor for Glamor Girls

She Likes Pretty Velvet

Every little girl wants a velvet dress and this year Santa Claus can satisfy her wishes, for velvets are back at the top of the mode for both mothers and daughters.

Two of the prettiest holiday party dresses of the season are designed by Celeste.

Your young charmer would like a jumper of red velveteen with white Swiss organdy blouse that sports a dainty eyelet-embroidered collar. It can have a pretend bolero and horizontal tucks on the bodice. A short, full skirt is made for twirling, and should be worn with petticoats.

A pint-size glamor girl can wear a black velveteen party dress with wide Quaker collar of tucked and embroidered white Swiss organdy, matching cuffs and perky waistline accent. This is a dress any parent would choose for a Christmas portrait.

Economy Keyed at Boom Levels

See Fast Start for Golden Sixties

By L. A. ROPHY
AP General Business Editor

NEW YORK — What will the sixties bring economically?

The first six months of the first year shoud live up to the term "golden" now liberally used by phrase makers to name the decade.

By mid-year of 1960, or the third quarter, some economists see a tapering off in business. Others think the year will continue on a boom basis. In any event, by most standards, 1960 should continue good times for most people.

The key segments of the economy are geared to operate at flush levels going into the new year. Detroit's auto makers expect Americans to buy seven million cars, including imports, in 1960. That's a million more than in 1959.

According to Ward's Automotive Reports, auto production in the first three months of 1960 is scheduled on the basis of 2,240,000 cars, which would be the best three months' production on record.

★ ★ ★

The steel industry, hustling to replenish supplies, will operate at peak levels; but the big question mark hanging over steel as well as auto and other production dependent upon the metal, is the possibility of the strike resuming after Jan. 26. The truce based on a Taft-Hartley injunction expires then.

However, the heavy hand of the 116-day shutdown did not stop steel mills from bettering 1958 production. Production was expected to reach 92 million tons this year, 7 million tons ahead of 1958.

The textile industry is hopeful of better times in 1960. It's 1959 production topped that of 1958—but that was the worst in 20 years. Cotton, accounting for nearly two-thirds of the country's textile requirements, looks for a sustained high level of mills' activity.

Retail trade increased four per cent in 1959 over 1958. Merchants look for another substantial increase in 1960.

For the furniture industry, 1959 was one of the best years on record and the industry expects to roll right along in 1960, certainly for the first half.

Many economists see a slowdown in the second half of 1960 for this reason: the steel strike depleted inventories. The catching up process will have been completed during the first six months—barring any resumption of the strike—with consequent slower gains for the rest of the year.

However, a survey by the Prudential Insurance Co., shows these exceptions for 1960 over 1959:

Business capital expenditures up 6 billion dollars; inventory accumulation at a 2 billion higher rate; presidential construction expenditure down about 1 billion; consumer purchases up 18 billion; exports up 1 billion; gross national product to rise about 29 billion, reaching a total of $509,000,000,000 for the full year.

★ ★ ★

The economy's ability to stand up under adversity was clearly demonstrated as the steel strike cut heavily into production and workers' wages.

The gross national product (total value of all goods and services) for 1958 was $441,700,000,000. For 1959, it will average around 485 billion dollars. It was slightly under that point in the second quarter of 1959, then dropped only to $478,500,000,000 in the third quarter.

Personal income was running at an annual rate of 385 billion dollars as 1959 closed; it was 359 billions in 1958. Industrial production, compared to the 1947-1949 average, was 148 in October as compared with an annual average of 134 in 1958.

It seems obvious at this point that the vast American economic complex will run in high enough gear throughout 1960 to assure most citizens good and profitable times.

Naval Reserve Toy Project Hits an All-Time High

Lt. Cmdr. William C. Remick, commander of the Pontiac Naval Reserve Training Center, reported today that the center's annual Christmas top repair project hit an all-time high this year.

Each year the reservists issue an appeal to area families for worn or broken toys and to merchants for toys damaged in shipment.

The reservists repair the toys and give them to needy children.

"We've got boxes for 500 kids," Remick said. "This is far more than in previous years and much more than we expected to get this year."

The Santas in navy blue began their repairing in November.

"The old toys just kept on coming in," Remick said. "We'll hand out 550 gift boxes this week. We had expected to have around 350 at best."

Each box contains one large toy, several smaller toys and candy.

Figuring an average of three children to a family, the local reservists will serve about 183 area families suggested by area church groups.

To qualify for definition as a "farm" by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, it must have 10 or more acres with agricultural sales of $50 or more a year; if less than 10 acres, its sales must be at least $250 a year.

Delinquency Hit Son of Rocky

Steven Was Beaten Up Three Times by Youth Gang, Governor Says

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller says he has a personal knowledge of juvenile delinquency because his son Steven was beaten up three times by a youth gang.

★ ★ ★

The governor said it was 10 years ago when Steven was 13. He said the beatings took place in Manhattan while Steven was en route home from school.

★ ★ ★

Rockefeller made the disclosure in a panel interview on juvenile delinquency, published in the latest issue of the Ladies' Home Journal.

"Youthful crime and violence have increased in alarming proportions in recent years," the governor is quoted.

★ ★ ★

"You know, one of my sons was beaten up three times on his way home from school here in New York a few years ago. In fact, 82 boys in his school were attacked and beaten.

★ ★ ★

"Juvenile delinquency isn't some abstract problem of a group of unfortunate people remote from us. It is right here. It affects all children and all families directly and indirectly."

At that time, Steven attended a private school.

Santa and the ICE KING

by LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

SYNOPSIS: Santa's attempt to make a match between the Sun Daughter and the Ice King failed miserably. In anger and shame, the Ice King is determined to go back to his castle to grind out more winter.

CHAPTER 14

"What will we do?" whispered Oonik as the sled flew away. "The Ice King will never stop making winter now."

"We'll make one more try," said Santa. "This one I think will do."

"Who is she?" asked Oonik.

"The Ice Queen of the South," said Santa.

"I didn't know there was such a one!" exclaimed Oonik.

"Oh, yes," said Santa. "She lives at the South Pole where, I have heard, it is colder by far than at our home in the North."

The Ice King had buried his head in the polar bear's fur to hide his tears of shame and sorrow at being rejected by the Sun Daughter.

As the reindeer sped towards the South Pole it grew colder and colder and the Ice King, thinking they were nearing home, raised his head and shouted gleefully, "I must have left my ice machine going full blast!"

The sled came down before a palace of ice. "What is this?" cried the King. "This isn't my home."

"It is the South Pole," replied Santa. "The Ice Queen lives here. I have brought you to ask for her hand."

REFUSED TO BUDGE

"Never!" roared the king. "I told you I would never humble myself again. Everyone hates me and I hate everyone and that's the end of that." And he threw himself down beside the polar bear and refused to budge an inch.

★ ★ ★

Santa left him there and went into the Ice Queen's palace.

Now the Ice Queen's palace was just like the Ice King's castle. Everything was made of ice and far above Santa could hear the same grinding, clattering noise he had heard at the King's home.

Santa went up a winding icy staircase and found the Ice Queen energetically working her ice machines and pumping her wind bellows.

"FLY WITH me to the North," said the Ice King.

But this was as it should be for at the South Pole winter always came in June and July and August and when December, January and February came, the Ice Queen would stop her work for it would be summertime in her upside down world.

Santa had to holler to make himself heard over the noise. "I've brought you a suitor!" he bellowed.

'A SUITOR?'

The Ice Queen stopped pounding and pumping. She turned and stared at Santa. She was tall and regal looking and she too had icicles in her hair and frost on her eyebrows.

"A suitor?" she exclaimed blushing. "What nonsense! Who would ever want to marry me?"

"He's in my sled," said Santa. "Come and see."

Picking up her icy skirts the Ice Queen rushed down the stairs and out to the sled. There was the Ice King sitting there with his back to her staring at his feet.

The Ice Queen walked in front of him and gazed at him worshipfully. "Oh, no!" she whispered. "He's too wonderful for me."

The Ice King raised his sullen eyes and when he saw her his heart turned over. He got out of the sled and took one step towards the Queen and then they both gulped and cried out, "Oh, would you marry me?"

ALL ARE PLEASED

They fell in each other's arms and Oonik jumped up and down with joy and Keotuk barked and even the polar bear looked pleased.

Then the Ice King said, "Fly with me to my castle in the north."

But the Queen said, "I can't do that for it is wintertime at the South Pole and I must keep things cold."

The King looked crestfallen. "But, I can't stay here," he mumbled unhappily. "I am needed at the North Pole."

Santa burst into laughter. He laughed until the tears rolled down his cheeks.

"What is so funny?" demanded the Ice King.

"You!" cried Santa. "You've forgotten — it's August! It should be summer in the North and you're not needed or wanted there at all!"

Next: A Merry Christmas.

Sailor's Sports Car Takes Sub Dive, Too

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—While sailor John Collins was away on a four-day cruise in the submarine USS Seafox, his British-made sports car also took a dive.

He had parked it on Harbor drive and police said it apparently had been pushed over a foot-high concrete buffer into San Diego Bay. "I guess somebody wanted the parking space," said Collins.

See Madagascar, Dahomey Liberty

PARIS (UP) — Madegascar and Dahomey are expected to be the next African territories to proclaim their complete independence from France, it was reported today.

Philibert Tsiranana, president of the Florida-sized island of Madegascar, told newsmen he asked for "international sovereignty" and has been assured by President Charles de Gaulle that he can have it.

Tsiranana said he believes Dahomey has made a similar request.

The two African territories, formerly French colonies, are now semi-autonomous members of the French community.

Thomas Edison, who invented the electric light and the phonograph, also made the first mimeograph machine.

News of the fall of Troy was relayed to Greece by means of mountain top fires.

There is no known cure for the cattle disease of brucellosis and few animals ever recover from it.

Everyone in St. Louis

Raise Voices on High

ST. LOUIS (AP)—"Joy to the world, the Lord is come . . ." As they have for the last half century, joyful words such as these will fill the streets of St. Louis again this Christmas Eve.

★ ★ ★

Some 50,000 carolers will make their annual trip through the neighborhoods, stopping house to house to serenade the entire population of the city.

It all began when a small group of friends joined together to carol for their neighbors one snowy Christmas year 47 years ago.

From that small beginning, the St. Louis Christmas Carols Assn. sprung.

Today more than 2,500 groups carry on this old tradition.

★ ★ ★

The whole community joins in the Christmas spirit. Carols are in the air everywhere. And everywhere, St. Louisians place a light in their window on Christmas Eve, a beacon welcoming the strolling bands of carolers.

Voluntary contributions are collected by the merry carolers and turned over to some 70 institutions caring for handicapped and underprivileged children.

Thus the carolers keep aglow the Christmas spirit throughout the year.

Americans Pay Average of $96 for Medical Care

NEW YORK (AP)—Americans spent an average of $96 per person for medical care last year, says the Health Insurance Institute.

★ ★ ★

More than 123 million Americans paid 1,200 insurance organizations nearly six billion dollars for protection against possible injury and illness, the institute said Sunday.

Total public expenditures for personal medical care in 1958 was more than 16½ billion dollars.

American families budgeted 1.9 per cent of their income toward the purchase of health insurance in 1958, compared with 1.5 per cent in 1954 and 0.8 per cent in 1949, the report said.

Created 'Peaceful Atmosphere'

Time Will Tell Real Value of Ike's Trek

MADRID (AP) — President Eisenhower has won new friends and perhaps influenced some very important people in his strenuous peace and friendship tour.

But only time will tell whether the President's venture into personal diplomacy eased any of the bitter disputes which plague much of the 22,000 miles he traveled.

★ ★ ★

His top aides are convinced that the good will and sincerity Eisenhower radiated, both before cheering crowds and in confidential talks with foreign leaders, will pay impressive dividends later.

In his modern Odyssey, they say, the President created a "peace atmosphere" which will help many nations to discuss their quarrels with others more calmly—and eventually with positive results.

This would be a notable achievement for a journey which, in any event, will go down in history as one of the most adventurous ever undertaken by an American president.

★ ★ ★

Even the most skeptical of those accompanying Eisenhower acknowledge that his trip already has yielded significant short-term gains for American foreign policy. These appear to be:

1. A hefty boost in American prestige in Asia, particularly in neutral-minded India, which may be the main arena in the East-West struggle for the allegiance of uncommitted millions during the next decades.

2. New luster for Eisenhower's reputation as a world leader dedicated to peace. This bolsters him in advance of face-to-face talks with the Soviet Union's Nikita Khrushchev.

★ ★ ★

The President made no visible effort to use his added prestige to dominate the Western Big Four summit meeting which ended in Paris Monday. Eisenhower's role was overshadowed by French President Charles de Gaulle, who wound up convincing Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan that Paris should be the site of the proposed East-West summit parley.

Infant's First Christmas Will Be Spent in Jail

PLYMOUTH, Mass. (AP) — Three-months-old Karen Bruning will spend her first Christmas in jail.

★ ★ ★

Her mother, Beverly Bruning, 22, is confined to Plymouth County Jail. Her father, Leslie Bruning, 24, is confined to Barnstable County Jail.

★ ★ ★

The couple was sentenced to a year in jail Nov. 5 for shoplifting.

The judge decided it would be better for the child to accompany the mother than to be placed in a foster home.

Karen has her own room—gaily decorated for Christmas—to which the mother has ready access.

TV Actor Separates From Wife of 3½ Years

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Efrem Zimbalist Jr. of television's "77 Sunset Strip" and his wife, Stephanie, have separated after 3½ years of marriage.

Zimbalist moved into a hotel Monday. He said the parting was a friendly one.

"Basically we both love each other," the actor said. "I feel sure that given a little time we'll be able to clear things up."

Americans read 122 pounds of newspapers and magazines last year, says the American Paper and Pulp Assn.

'Music Man' Costs Warners 1 Million Dollars

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Meredith Willson's musical, "The Music Man," has been bought by Warner Bros. for what the studio calls one of the top prices ever paid for a Broadway show.

A trade publication said the figure was a million dollars or 10 per cent of the gross, whichever is larger.

★ ★ ★

Several motion picture studios had bid for the comedy—tale of a confidence man's visit to an early 20th century Iowa hamlet—now in its third year on Broadway.

Willson was unofficially reported in line for 60 per cent of the price as author and composer. The rest would go to Kermit Bloomgarden as producer and representative of investors.

Barrymore Estate $31,000 in the Red

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor John Barrymore's estate wound up more than $31,000 in the red.

A final accounting in court Monday listed assets of $10,812.54, mostly from the recent sale of his interest in three old movies.

★ ★ ★

But he owed more than $40,000 in federal income taxes for 1939, 1940 and 1941. He died in 1942.

Consequently, there was nothing left for his three children, Diana Barrymore, John Drew Barrymore and Dolores Barrymore Bedell.

Of the 60 million individual Federal income tax returns filed for 1957, the latest year for which official figures are available, 29.1 per cent came from taxpayers reporting incomes ranging from $5,000 to $10,000.

Avon Man Gets 2-15 Years

2 Sentenced in Burglaries

Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland yesterday sentenced a 21-year-old Avon Township man to prison and placed a Rochester youth on three years probation for belonging to a 16-member burglary ring.

Given 2 to 15 years in Jackson Prison was Jason M. Edgerton, 2344 Longview St., and placed on probation and assessed $150 court costs was Paul D. McIntyre, 20, of 3170 Gerald St.

Both pleaded guilty Dec. 7 to breaking and entering during the nighttime.

★ ★ ★

Three other alleged members of the gang stood mute to the same charge at their arraignments. Two are awaiting trial. Since then, Gregory L. Holder, 21, of Utica, has pleaded guilty. He will be sentenced Dec. 28.

Awaiting trial are William H. Dickson, 18, of Utica, and Raleigh Wilson, 18, of 2382 Longview St., Avon Township.

Sheriff's detectives say the five, along with nine juveniles and two others, were responsible for a long string of burglaries, mostly in the eastern part of the county. They netted the members about $1,200 in cash and merchandise.

Drivers Will Pay More in March

Legislature's Finale Is Signal for Increase on Plates, Licenses

LANSING (AP) — Final legislative adjournment means Michigan motorists will pay more for their driving privileges starting in mid-March.

★ ★ ★

An extra 50 cents for driver's licenses will be levied under a bill to help support driver training in high schools.

An additional 35 cents will be assessed for reflectorized license plates which will not be available until 1961.

The increased fees go into effect March 19—90 days after legislative adjournment.

OTHERS START THEN, TOO

Other new laws which will take effect on the same day include those to:

Require school board meetings to be open to the public if any final action is to be taken.

Increase the fee for appealing from justice court decisions from $1 to $2.

★ ★ ★

Require a minimum two-year sentence for aggravated assault or serious injury committed in an armed robbery.

Raise the maximum truck speed from 45 to 50 m. p. h.

Require locomotives to sound their bells continuously when passing through grade crossings in municipalities.

Woman to Get Furniture Back

Drop Action Demanding That Irons Return Goods to Home

In a legal decree signed today by Circuit Judge William J. Beer, mandamus action to force Sheriff Frank W. Irons to return a household of furniture to a Bloomfield Township home has been dropped.

At the same time, the judge ordered that all goods seized last July by Deputy Herbert R. Radunz be retruend to Mrs. Betty Ellen Chapman upon the condition that she pay charges for storing the furniture. Mrs. Chapman is the granddaughter of the late Edward C. Kinsel, founder of the Kinsel drug store chain.

The property was removed under a writ of replevin started by Mrs. Chapman after Judge Beer refused her a divorce from her Detroit public relations husband, James P., in June. She appealed to the State Supreme Court.

But under a cross bill of complaint filed last week by Chapman, of 3300 Lone Pine Rd., Judge Beer granted him the divorce and awarded the custody of the four Chapman children to Mrs. Chapman. It was stipulated under the decree that Mrs. Chapman would discontinue her appeal.

3 Area Women Injured in Crash on Telegraph

Three women were injured yesterday in a two-car accident at the intersection of Vooheis and Telegraph roads.

A car driven by Sally Rehner, 30, of 9400 Cooley Lake Rd. White Lake Township, moving east on Voorheis, collided with one driven by Judith F. Maddock, 22, of 1413 Glenwood St., Waterford Township. Miss Maddock's car was moving south on telegraph.

Miss Rehner and a passenger in her car, Betty Van Dyke, 9400 Cooley Lake Rd., were treated for minor injuries at Pontiac General Hospital and released.

Miss Maddock was admitted with a fractured wrist. Her condition is satisfactory.

Donner Sees 1960 Car Spurt

Claims Availability of Steel Will Be Limiting Factor for Awhile

DETROIT (AP)—The board chairman of General Motors predicts that 1960 will be a good year for business generally with auto demand becoming brisk when steel supplies become more plentiful.

Frederic G. Donner, estimated yesterday that auto sales next year will reach about seven million units.

In a formal year-end statement, Donner said the "potential car buyer has an unusually wide choice of makes, including a variety of imports."

Donner added, however, that "while it is still too early to determine the extent of the demand for smaller cars, we are confident that larger cars will continue to be the choice of the majority."

(GM's Chevrolet Division produces the compact Corvair.)

Donner estimated imports would drop about 100,000 to 500,000 next year. He forecast sales of one million trucks, or an overall automotive market of about eight million vehicles. If that total is reached in 1960, it would be higher than for any year except 1955.

"It is my belief that 1960 will be a good year for business generally," said Donner. "The country can look forward to a record output of goods and services provided unnecessarily prolonged and widespread strikes are avoided.

"In the automobile industry, availability of steel will be the limiting factor on production for some time to come. Later in the year, the rate will depend on market demand.

"We believe the demand will be brisk," Donner added.

Woman Guilty of Taking Child

Convict Baby Sitter, 30, of Kidnaping Youngster of Pontiac Woman

A 30-year-old woman who took the infant son of a Pontiac mother from Chicago to Gary, Ind., while she was acting as baby sitter, yesterday was found guilty of a federal charge of kidnaping.

Federal prosecutors said the defendant, Diane Varner, was the first woman to be convicted under the Lindbergh law.

Miss Varner was found guilty of taking the child, Lloyd, then 18 weeks old, from the Loop hotel room where his mother, Mrs. Marilyn Vickers, 19, had left him in Miss Varner's care on Nov. 18.

The next day Miss Varner was found at a Gary hotel with the baby.

She has previously served three years in prison for a kidnaping in Texas.

Mrs. Vickers has returned to Pontiac with the boy, and is staying with her mother, Mrs. Martha Dietrich, 85 Henry Clay Ave.

Michigan's Banking Chief Finally Agrees to Resign

LANSING (AP) — State Banking Commissioner Alongo L. Wilson has agreed to resign within 30 days after a Circuit Court decision on a case in which he is the defendant, Gov. Williams said today.

★ ★ ★

The governor said the 69-year-old commissioner told him yesterday that he would quit the $10,500-a-year job to which he was appointed in 1957 and reappointed this year. The alternative would be dismissal.

The governor, charging a conflict of interests, has been pressing for a resignation since August. Until now, Wilson has refused.

Two Traverse City banks brought suit against the commissioner, accusing him of granting a special privilege to the Empire State Bank in which his wife holds 9.5 per cent of the stock.

NO TRIAL DATE

A pretrial hearing was held last week in Ingham County Circuit Court but no trial date has been set.

The Empire State Bank last August got permission from Wilson to shift its main office from Empire to a trailer on a site within 200 feet of the Traverse City limits.

The Traverse City State Bank and the First People's State Bank obtained an injunction closing the trailer office five days after it opened.

★ ★ ★

They asked a permanent closing order, contending a third bank in the area was unwarranted and would damage their business. Wilson's wife also owns stock in the two plaintiff banks.

Wilson still maintains he is innocent of any wrongdoing and I still maintain he is not," said Williams.

Under the state constitution, the governor cannot fire an elected or appointive state official while the Legislature is in session.

Williams brought the dispute to a head when the lawmakers went home.

Living Cost Rise Slows Pace; Still Hits New Mark

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs crept upward to another all-time high in November, but the rise was at a slower pace than in other recent months, the government reported today.

Consumer prices advanced less than one-tenth of one per cent to a level 25.6 per cent above the 1947-49 average. A month earlier, prices were 25.5 per cent above the base period.

It was the sixth time in seven months that prices, as measured by the Labor Department's consumer price index, advanced to a new peak.

The November rise was less marked than in September and October, and Ewan Clague, commissioner of labor statistics, said he looks for relative price stability until next spring.

A continued downtrend in food prices helped check the November rise in the index. The big factors on the upside were increases in charges for services and for durable goods, including new autos.

The November rise in the index will bring pay increases to about 170,000 workers who get cost-of-living increases under union contracts.

About 70,000 meat packing workers will get an hourly wage boost of one cent, and 55,000 aircraft workers will get two cents. The other workers are in scattered industries and will variously get one to three cents an hour more.

The department also announced that the buying power of factory workers dropped by two-tenths of one percent in November. The average after-tax earnings of a factory worker with a family of four declined about five cents to $79.97 a week. Coupled with the increase in prices, this reduced his buying power. However, buying power was six-tenths of one percent higher than a year earlier, and almost equal to the November peak reached in 1956.

Macomb Couples Claim Spraying Damaged Pepper

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP) — Two farm couples filed suits totaling $114,000 yesterday charging that weed killer sprayed along a Macomb County road ruined their pepper crops.

Named in the Macomb County Circuit Court suits were Chemi-Trol Chemical Co., an Ohio firm which did the spraying in the summer of 1958, and the Macomb County Road Commission which hired the spraying done.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van Thomme, who operate an 80-acre farm in Macomb Township, seek $75,000 in damages. Another $39,000 is sought by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence DeBuck who have an 85-acre farm nearby.

Citizens for Michigan Pick Two Directors

LANSING (AP) — The Citizens for Michigan group has added two members to its board of directors. They are Clark L. Brody, former vice president of the Michigan Farm Bureau, and James M. McInerney, president of the McInerney Spring and Wire Co. of Grand Rapids.

The group, headed by George Romney of American Motors, seeks to solve state problems through citizen action.

Hurt in Collision With Wrecker Truck

A 62-year-old Pontiac man was in satisfactory condition at Pontiac General Hospital this morning after his car collided with a 1½-ton wrecker truck yesterday afternoon at the intersection of Oakland avenue and North Johnson street.

The truck driver, Donald G. Brown, 26, of 111 S. Josephine St., told Pontiac Police he was unable to stop in time to avoid the collision because of the slippery street.

Brown was driving south on Oakland when his truck collided with the car of Harold Gritten, 62, of 63 Elizabeth Lake Rd. Britten was turning off Oakland. Both men told police their vision was obscured by other cars.

Britten was admitted to Pontiac General Hospital with possible internal injuries.

World Bank to Ignore Plea of Congressmen

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The World Bank was expected to approve a 56 million dollar loan to the United Arab Republic despite a plea by 66 House members that the decision be held up until that the country agrees to let Israel use the Suez Canal.

The Congressmen made their appeal yesterday, shortly after the board of executive directors of the bank met for an hour to consider the loan, which would be used to improve traffic conditions in the canal.

Arrest 26 at U. of M. on Morals Charges

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The Ann Arbor Police Department said today that 25 men and a juvenile have been arrested on the University of Michigan campus on morals charges in the past six weeks.

Detective Lt. George Stauch said the group included 14 university students, an associate professor, a disc jockey for a radio station, a former Ypsilanti school teacher and eight Ann Arbor businessmen.

All have been named in warrants charging gross indecency between males or attempted gross indecency between males.

★ ★ ★

Of the group, two have pleaded guilty in Washtenaw County Circuit Court.

Four have been bound to Circuit Court after Municipal Court examination and three are awaiting Circuit Court hearings.

★ ★ ★

The rest are awaiting Municipal Court examination. The juvenile was turned over to juvenile authorities.

Name Gallagher GM of New Buffalo Bills

BUFFALO, N.Y., (UPI) — Richard (Dick) Gallagher, one of the men who built the Cleveland Browns into world professional champions, today was named as general manager of the Buffalo Bills in the newly-formed American Football League.

Gallagher's appointment was announced by Ralph Wilson Jr., wealthy Detroit trucking executive who owns Buffalo's franchise.

The former chief talent scout and personnel manager of the Browns will assume his new duties Jan. 1, Wilson said. He signed a three-year contract.

Charged in Goodfellow Mess

Start Police Captain's Trial

The trial of Royal Oak Township Police Capt. Samuel Mitchell, began this morning before Township Justice Lonnie C. Cash.

Mitchell is charged with larceny by conversion in the alleged theft of charity funds collected from Goodfellow newspaper sales Dec. 14.

Police Sgt. James Gatewood, who preceded Mitchell to the stand, was found not guilty last Friday.

Oakland County Prosecutor George F. Taylor spent Monday consulting with his assistants, state police, and Cash.

TO GO AHEAD

He said that, although unhappy with the Gatewood verdict, his department would go ahead with prosecution as planned.

Cash, said Taylor, offered to turn the trials over to another justice if Taylor wanted him to do so. Taylor left the matter in Cash's hands.

"I want to make it clear that my verdict in the Gatewood trial is not a precedent for future trials by any means," Cash asserted.

Mitchell and eight others were charged after state police investigators reported that only $6 of $57 in marked bills paid on street corners for Goodfellow newspapers was turned in to leaders of the charity drive.

The Goodfellow campaign, raised money to buy Christmas gifts for needy youngsters.

Capt. William Ware, head of the township's police force, was scheduled to follow Mitchell in standing trial.

★ ★ ★

Eight policemen and firemen from the township were suspended by the township after the charges were brought by the state police. Two men, both civilians, pleaded guilty and were fined and placed on probation.

Detroit Papers Won't Be Cited for Suit Stories

DETROIT (UPI)—Federal Judge Theodore Levin said today Detroit's three daily newspapers — the News, Times and Free Press — will not be cited for contempt for printing details of a suppressed civil case.

The papers disclosed late last week that the suppressed suit was brought by the architectural and engineering firm, Giffels & Rossetti, Inc., against Victor E. Vallet, former president of the firm.

Details were published after Levin had ordered the case suppressed.

Levin said he decided no contempt proceedings would be started against the newspapers after he was assured by the Federal Court clerk that information about the suit was not obtained from records in the suppressed suit file in the clerk's office.

The judge said it was his belief that the court had no jurisdiction over information obtained by the papers from outside sources.

Set to Appoint City Assessor

Commission Is Slated to Name Successor to W. Ray Ransom Tonight

The City Commission is scheduled tonight to appoint a successor to retiring City Assessor W. Ray Ransom.

Ransom, 70, ends his long career with the city Dec. 31. It is expected that Deputy City Assessor Edward Bloe will be appointed to the job.

Commissioners will also be notified by the Oakland County Board of Supervisors that the road commission and county planning commission have been asked to begin a cost and location study for a main entrance road to Michigan State University Oakland.

★ ★ ★

City officials have asked the county to locate the road on the western side of the Squirrel road campus, recommending that it lead to and from Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

Ready for initial action is an ordinance to rezone 15 acres on the north side of North Perry street, between Giddings and Pontiac roads, from residential to commercial to make way for a proposed bowling alley and neighborhood shopping center.

Steel Front Broken, Yet Talks Lag

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal mediators plowed ahead today without visible progress while plans sprouted for 93 separate bargaining sessions across the country next Sunday.

Seemingly to the surprise of some unionists, industry negotiators bowed quickly Monday to the demand of United Steelworkers President David J. McDonald for company-by-company negotiations.

This scrambled the bargaining picture. McDonald apparently hoped that by bringing the responsible executives of every big and little steel firm into direct talks, he could crack the industry front which has held almost completely solid for eight months against the union's wage and benefits demands.

NO SIGN OF BREAK

There was no immediate sign, however, that any of the smaller companies were ready to offer their local union leaders any more than the industry's top negotiating team has offered McDonald.

★ ★ ★

Each company has its own contract with the union, even though the bargaining up to now has been on an industry-wide basis.

The continuing deadlock made it almost certain President Eisenhower returning to the capital tonight after his 11-nation peace mission, won't get the homecoming present he requested when he left—a signed and sealed steel agreement.

★ ★ ★

Federal Mediation Director Joseph F. Finnegan scheduled morning and afternoon meetings today between top union officials and the industry's negotiating team. They met Monday for the first time in 10 days, but reported no progress.

★ ★ ★

Finnegan said there probably will be more sessions as the week advances—perhaps even next Sunday, while the dozens of home town negotiations are going on.

Five grains of aspirin make a tablet and 7,000 grains made a pound.

Southfield Council Favors New Xway

SOUTHFIELD—The state's proposed expressway route along 11½-Mile road from Northwestern highway to city limits here won the City Council's favor by a vote of 4-3 last night but ran into another obstacle.

★ ★ ★

According to Mayor Donald Swanson, the planning commisssion which had recommeded the Council's approval had not held a public hearing on the matter as required by law if it was to be adopted immediately.

Swanson sees no further difficulty standing in front of the proposed route once a public hearing has been scheduled.

Round Trip to Rome May Cost Little as $250 in Only 18 Months

By WARD CANNEL

ROME (NEA)—Look for minimum air fares between the U.S. and Europe to drop sharply — at least 50 per cent — within the next 18 months.

This is the inside, unofficial, but highly authoritative word from this hub of U.S. to Europe-Africa-Middle East air travel. And while it is said sadly ("It is unpleasant to see profits dwindle"), it is also said with a continental shrug of the shoulders ("It is better than no business at all").

And if it come to pass as predicted, your round trip fare to let's say Rome will cost you about $250 — compared to today's $1,000 first-class fare or $600 tourit.

The reasons are best spelled out in the words of Andrea Folchi-Vici, a ranking commercial officer with Alitalia. But his story is the story of most of the world's up-to-date, luxury, competitive airlines. It looks like this:

Introduction of jet passenger craft (6½ hours New York to Rome) has forced every competitor to order a fleet of his own. Cost: $6 million per plane.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, supersonic planes are only five years away. Half the time, but twice the cost — and long before the jets are amortized.

This means whole fleets of DC7C's in perfect order liberated and idle. Lufthansa, for example, will be caught with her brand-new piston engines three months old — and obsolescent.

"And in the meantime," Folchi-Vici said, "we have studies to show that close to 70 per cent of the potential flying market in the U.S. has never even been in a plane. We have to tap that market."

★ ★ ★

It all adds up to a glorious buyer's market in travel, despite the present International Air Transport Assn. regulation which set ticket prices, thus limiting competition to menu and wine list.

Oak, long recognized as a wood of great strength and durability, was once the tree of the God of Thunder. The ancient Saxons so respected the Oak that they passed a law prohibiting its injury.

NEWLYWEDS — Peter Townsend, onetime suitor of Britain's Princess Margaret, married Marie-Luce Jamagne, 20, in Brussels Monday in a civil ceremony. They are shown here two months ago as their engagement was announced. Marie-Luce, daughter of an Antwerp tobacco tycoon, is holding her pet dog Kiki.

State Charts Paths for Vets Fund Money

LANSING (AP) — Public schools, universities, suppliers and welfare cases are among those who will get quick cash when the state liquidates the veterans trust fund.

Gov. Williams and his administrative board, meeting in special session, Monday decided how to allocate the cash when securities in the 50-million-dollar fund are sold.

Currently, it is worth about 40 million dollars on the bond market.

Cashing of the veterans trust fund was a key feature of an 87-million-dollar revenue program put together by the Legislature Friday.

$7 MILLION IN SECURITIES

State Treasurer Sanford A. Brown said he probably could sell about seven million dollars in short term securities in a week. The rest, he said, likely will be disposed of within 30 days.

★ ★ ★

Here's how the money will be spent:

$24,600,000 to the school aid representing the general fund obligation to the school aid fund for the fiscal year 1958-59.

$2,100,000 to local units of government, representing the amount of money past due for veterans' homestead tax exemptions.

$900,000 for racing revenue distribution owed to local governments in cities which have race tracks.

$600,000 in operator and chauffeur license fee money owed to local units of government.

$500,000 in legislative grants to county fairs.

$2,500,000 to pay out 12,605 warrants (checks) owed to various vendors.

$2,500,000 to meet this month's obligations to local governments for welfare relief.

$6,500,000 to meet this month's payments to the University of Michigan, Michigan State University and Wayne State University.

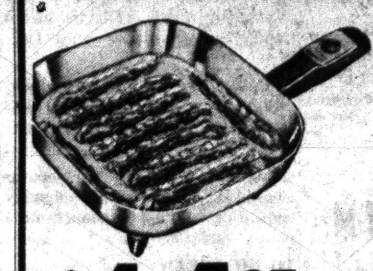

State Controller James W. Miller said the state will owe more than $53,000,000 even after paying out proceeds from the veterans trust fund.

Two Perish in Crash of U.S. Jet Trainer

HAHN, Germany (AP)—A U.S. Air Force jet trainer crashed and burned in a landing attempt Sunday night at this American air base. Both men aboard perished.

Air Force authorities identified the victims as Capt. Calvin G. Davey of 5046 Fenton Rd. Flint and Lt. Thomas W. Jackman of El Paso, Tex.

Accepted After Prison Parole

'Benefit of the Doubt' to U. of M. Robbery Suspect

ANN ARBOR (AP)— A University of Michigan official said the school gave James J. Minder Jr., who is being questioned today in Detroit in connection with a series of robberies, "the benefit of the doubt" in permitting him to re-enter the university after his parole from prison.

★ ★ ★

The 29-year-old student was arrested Monday night after he was captured by police following a high speed automobile chase over slippery, snow-covered streets.

Polic said they found a shotgun, 26 rings, six watches and other valuable items in Minder's possession.

Minder, a junior in the university's literary college and a journalism major, was on parole from the federal prison at Lewisburg, Pa., where he had been serving a 3½ to 13 year sentence for his part in a $50,000 Detroit bank holdup.

'GOOD ACADEMIC WORK'

James H. Robertson, associate dean of the College of Literature, Science and Arts, said Minders "exceedingly good academic work in prison (through correspondence and extension courses) and his extremely good behavior led us to take a calculated gamble" on his re-entry to the university.

The college faculty administrative board, he said, supported Minder on the basis of his academic potential and letters of recommendation from teachers and wardens.

"It was a good decision and was based on all the evidence that we had," he said.

★ ★ ★

We gave the lad the benefit of the doubt that he could succeed," Robertson said adding:

"The decision was in keeping with the general policy of looking into the special circumstances surrounding any case."

Lt. Howard Brownfield of the Detroit police said Minder admitted robberies of eight stores in the city between Oct. 25 and Dec. 14. Brownfield estimated loot at about $3,000.

HELD WITHOUT CHARGE

Police held Minder, of Dearborn, without charge for investigation of armed robbery. Minder was five credit hours short of his junior year.

More than 6,000 species of plants can be found in New Mexico, including many trees and shrubs which grow in no other state of the nation.

Car Insurance Cost Levels in Michigan

LANSING (AP)—Michigan auto insurance cost leveled off this year after rising since 1942, the Michigan Insurance Information Service reported.

★ ★ ★

"After 12 years of rise it has been possible to hold the general rate level unchanged since late 1958," said the service, which speaks for the state's casualty insurers.

A major factor has been a decline in accidents, the service said. From the end of 1955 to the end of 1958, traffic fatalities dropped 32 per cent, injuries 7 per cent and accidents nearly 10 per cent.

★ ★ ★

But this was offset by "inflation, more expensive car design, more costly care of the injured and an increase in questionable and extravagant injury claims and higher jury awards."

"The net effect, however, has been a flattening of the loss spiral," the service added.

New car registrations are expected to top 6,000,000, making 1959 the third best sales year in automotive history. In the first six months of this year, manufacturers placed 17.5 per cent more new car advertising in daily newspapers than in a comparable period of 1958.

HEADS FOR WEDDING, THRONE — Farah Diba, clad in a bluish, pearl gray wedding gown, walks down the steps at her mother's home as she leaves for her wedding Monday in Tehran to the Shah of Iran. The 21-year-old Iranian commoner became the new queen in a Moslem ritual in the marble palace.

Second Place Not for Me, Says Rocky

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller says he will have no part of any attempt by the 1960 Republican national convention to draft him as a vice-presidential candidate.

He would reject such a draft "in any form," he told a news conference yesterday.

Some Republican leaders have continued to urge Rockefeller to run on a ticket headed by Vice President Richard M. Nixon, despite Rockefeller's repeated assertions that he is not interested in second place.

Rockefeller is considering running for president. Nixon generally is considered to have a commanding lead for the nomination.

★ ★ ★

Rockefeller said, in response to a question, that many people were reluctant to oppose Nixon politically at this time because of the possibility that Nixon might be president by convention time.

Consumers, with more leisure time available, are currently spending $2,100,000,000 for photographic supplies; $3,500,000,000 for gardening equipment; $2,100,000,000 for boating and $300,000,000 for hi-fi and stereo components. At their leisure, too, these customers turn to daily newspapers for news, features and ads about their favorite hobbies.

Coconut Tarts Smooth, Elegant

The holiday season is a time for partying, and every hostess wants to serve dishes suited to festive occasions. From a national test kitchen comes the prefect recipe . . . Coconut Tarts.

★ ★ ★

Deliciously flavored and beautifully textured because corn syrup is an ingredient, these tarts are the answer to "What to serve" when you're looking for an elegant, attractive dessert that is easy to prepare. Homemakers know corn syrup's bright flavor and smooth texture make this kind of treat tops in taste, and an ideal consistency.

Coconut Tarts

2 eggs, slightly beaten
1 cup dark corn syrup
¼ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
1 cup flaked coconut
8 3½-inch unbaked tart shells

Mix eggs, corn syrup, salt, vanilla, sugar and butter or margarine. Stir in coconut. Pour into shells. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees) 20 to 25 minutes. Filling should appear slightly less set in center. Makes about 8 tarts.

Quick Appetizer

Spread chili sauce on toast strips which have been lightly brushed with olive oil from canned sardines. Top each with a whole sardine and sprinkle over grated cheese. Broil until lightly browned.

Bubbly Cheese Sauce Caps Turkey Sandwich

Here's an inviting way to use leftover slices of that holiday turkey . . . a Delmonico Turkey Sandwich with sparkling Cranberry Jellied Salads. Fresh cranberries give this salad the flavor and color so necessary for bright meals with leftovers.

Delmonico Turkey Sandwich

3 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
¾ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon powdered mustard
Dash cayenne
2 cups milk
2 cups chopped or grated sharp cheese

Melt butter. Stir in flour, salt, mustard and cayenne. Add milk all at once stirring constantly. Cook until thickened. Add cheese, stirring until melted. Top toast slices with sliced turkey. Pour cheese sauce over the turkey and dot with crumbled Bleu cheese. Sprinkle with paprika.

★ ★ ★

Place in hot oven (450 degrees) to heat until sauce is bubbly, about 10 minutes. Serve with . . .

Sparkling Cranberry Salads

1 package lemon flavored gelatin
1 cup hot water
½ cup pineapple juice
2 cups Fresh Cranberries, ground
1 medium apple, ground
½ cup sugar

Dissolve package of lemon flavored gelatin in hot water. Add pineapple juice. Chill until partially set. Grind cranberries and apple. Mix with sugar. Add to partially set gelatin. Pour into 1½ pint mold or 6 individual molds. Chill until firm. Unmold on lettuce

Waffles Can Be Even Better

Give waffles, a delicious breakfast standby, an unusual flavor boost by adding an extra ingredient, rice. Then to lend a bright look, serve Rice Waffles with a hot blueberry sauce topped with a dollop of sour cream. Or use your favorite syrup.

Made with your favorite mix, Rice Waffles are quick to make. The rice, which adds an interesting texture as well as flavor, may be left over from a meal served earlier in the week.

Cooked rice keeps well under refrigeration and can easily be reheated to use plain or added, as is, to the waffles and a vast variety of other foods from soups to desserts.

Rice Waffles

2 cups pancake mix
2 tablespoons sugar
2 tablespoons grated orange peel
1¼ cups milk
1 egg, beaten
¼ cup shortening
1 cup cooked rice
Blueberry Sauce
½ pint sour cream

★ ★ ★

In a mixing bowl, combine pancake mix, sugar, and orange peel. Add milk, egg, and shortening. Beat until smooth; stir in the cooked rice. Bake in a heated waffle iron until golden brown. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Sift the Crumbs

After grinding dry bread through the fine blade of a food chopper, you'll have to sift it if you want to separate the very fine crumbs from those that are coarser.

Edwin L. Drakes discovery of oil at Titusville, Pa., on Aug. 27, 1859, ushered in the oil era and started a rush for oil that rivaled the California gold rush of 10 years earlier.

Little Chanukah Latkes Prepared Without Fat

Two important festivals of two great religions coincide this year—Chanukah, the Festival of Lights, and Christmas — an ideal time to introduce a new twist on an old Jewish favorite into holiday homes of all faiths. This is the latke, a delicious little pancake that serves equally well as a snack or as an accompaniment to an entree.

Normally latkes are fried in fat, but not in this version. Instead they are prepared the greaseless dry fry way. This preparation is a pure vegetable extract packaged in a spray container. With it you fry "dry" rather than in calorie-rich cooking fats.

Latkes prepared with it won't contain a single extra calorie. They'll be far more digestible and even members of the family on restricted diets will be able to enjoy them.

To prepare latkes the greaseless way, spray the cooking surface of your griddle or frying pan as directed on the can. Preheat it for three minutes — 350 degrees for electric appliances, otherwise hot enough to sizzle a drop of water. Now add the batter beaten to a thin, smooth consistency which you've prepared from:

2 eggs, well beaten
6 level tablespoons matzo meal or cracker meal
2 tablespoons water
¾ teaspoon salt

Drop the batter a tablespoon full at a time. Brown on both sides, turning the latkes with a pancake turner. As a snack serve them with powdered sugar, applesauce, cinnamon or jellies and your favorite beverage. For dinner, they're wonderful plain or swimming in sauces.

★ ★ ★

The above recipe yields about 12 snack-size latkes.

Black-Eye Peas

A delicious accompaniment for poultry is this new way to serve blackeye peas. Cook several slices of bacon until crisp; remove and drain. Pour off most of the fat.

★ ★ ★

Add a bit of liquid from canned black-eye peas, drained black-eye peas and some chopped pimiento. Add thyme, salt and pepper to taste. Mix lightly and heat. Serve topped with crumbled bacon.

Souffle Base Made of Soup

For a "touch of magic" in busy holiday meal preparation depend on canned condensed soup. It will work wonders for you . . . timewise and flavorwise. Use condensed cream of mushroom soup as a base for a light fluffy ham souffle.

Crisp tossed green salad . . . highlighted with slices of radishes and cucumber . . . makes a nice accompaniment. Serve your family's favorite dessert and coffee.

Ham And Mushroom Souffle

1 can (10½ ounces) condensed cream of mushroom soup
1 cup shredded sharp Cheddar cheese
¼ teaspoon chervil
½ cup finely minced cooked ham
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
6 eggs, separated

In saucepan, combine soup, cheese, and chervil. Heat slowly until cheese melts; add ham and parsley. Beat egg yolks until thick and lemon colored; stir into soup mixture. Beat egg whites until stiff; fold soup mixture into egg whites.

Pour into an ungreased 2-quart casserole. Bake in a slow oven (300 degrees F.) 1 to 1¼ hours or until souffle is golden brown. Serve immediately. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Try Garbanzos

Ceci beans (garbanzos) may be bought canned; drain them, season them with olive oil, vinegar, minced onion, salt and pepper and chill. Serve as a first course along with other interesting tidbits.

New Filling to Use in Cheese Sandwich

Here's a salad-sandwich combination "the girls" will like.

Salad 'n' Sandwich

1 cup grated cheddar cheese
¼ cup mayonnaise
8 slices bread
Soft butter
1 quart salad greens
1½ cups seedless grapes
French dressing
Salt

Mix together the grated cheese and mayonnaise. Make 4 sandwiches, using the cheese mixture as filling between the bread slices. Spread outside of sandwiches with soft butter.

Just before serving, toast sandwiches on both sides under broiler. Mix greens and grapes with dressing and salt to taste. Serve sandwiches with salad. Makes 4 servings.

For Open Sandwiches

Thinly sliced radishes and gherkins, or shrimp cut in flat lengthwise halves make attractive garnishes for open cheese sandwiches; add one or two tiny sprigs of parsley to each garnish.

Give Bowl of Fruit Crystal Sugar Glaze

A sugarplum decoration for Christmas is one devised by home economists for the American Sugar Refining Company. They have been working out mouth-watering fruit arrangements to bedeck holiday tables—and to beguile the eye and palate.

These fruit arrangements are essentially simple to make. The smaller, easily handled fruits with edible skins are dipped in egg white and water and rolled in sugar. After drying, they are arranged in bowls, baskets and on trays. The smallest fruits, wired and hung on Christmas tree branches, make nostalgic conversation pieces.

1. A variety of shapes and colors of fruits make arrangements simple and prettier than usual. For instance, lady apples, sickle pears, cranberries and grapes in several colors make an excellent arrangement. When buying fruits, select some red, yellow, russet and green fruits. By all means, include one fruit which is dark purple—the latter appears black in the arrangement and sets off the colors of other fruits.

2. Select a bowl, basket or tray which is especially suited for the place the fruit is to be displayed. Don't overlook the use of footed compotes and old-fashioned cake stands — pile up the latter in tiers. Height lends drama and elegance to fruit arrangements.

3. Consider using sugar-glazed fruits for your mantel and buffet. Cover the area to be used with cellophane or saran, make a bed of Christmas greens with balsam, spruce or pine boughs and top with fruits as desired.

4. A variation of the above idea is especially suitable for the large dining tables used for family gatherings. A Della Robbia garland similar to those used in Colonial Williamsburg at Christmas can be laid out by using greens and fruits. A few nuts will complete the picture-book arrangement.

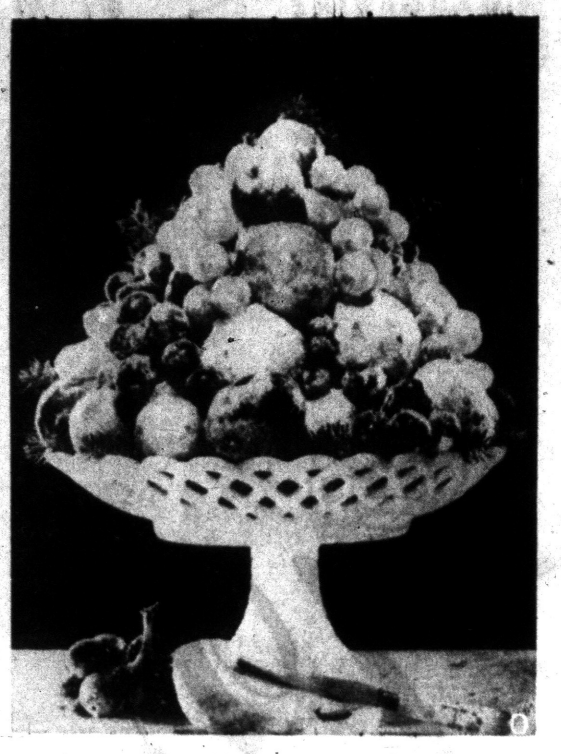

5. Thin-skinned fruits suitable for sugar-glazing include all kinds of apples, pears, grapes and cranberries. With luck, special fruits can be obtained—Domino arrangements included strawberries, plums, cherries and kumquats. Homemakers in other areas may be able to locate figs, fresh dates and other suitable fruits.

6. Put a few sprigs of holly or other greens among the fruits in bowl arrangements—a festive air will be the result.

Sugar-Glazing of Fruits

Water
Egg whites
Extra fine granulated sugar

Mix ½ teaspoon water with each egg white to be used. Dip fruits in mixture and allow excess to drip off. Roll fruit in sugar and place on paper towels to dry. (A good over-all coating can be obtained by placing fruit to dry on a bed of sugar spread on a tray.) Allow to dry until coating becomes a candy-like crust. Use as desired.

SUGAR GLAZED FRUITS — Colorful fruits of the season are given a wintry glaze with a coating of egg white and granulated sugar. Use them as a holiday centerpiece, piling them high in your prettiest dish or footed compote.

Dig for Themselves

Know how to serve Edam or Gouda cheese? Cut a slice from the top and then let guests dig out nuggets of it; if there's a cheese scoop on hand the digging's easy.

Pear Sundaes

Poach fresh pears; put a small scoop of vanilla ice cream in the caviety of each pear half; surround with chocolate sauce. Serve to guests!

Bit of Lemon Juice Excellent in Squash

This variety of squash is winning converts!

Nutmeg Butternut Squash

1 butternut squash (2 pounds)
1¼ cups boiling water
1 teaspoon salt
1 to 2 tablespoons butter
1 teaspoon (or more) lemon juice
⅛ teaspoon nutmeg

Cut squash in half; remove seeds and stringy portion. Pare; cut into ¾-inch cubes; makes about 6 cups. Cook rapidly, covered, with boiling water and salt just until tender—8 to 10 minutes.

Drain and dry by shaking pan over low heat. Mash with butter, lemon juice and nutmeg. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Deviled Ham in Soups

Blend deviled ham into such soups as pea, asparagus or cream of celery. Or spread deviled ham on croutons and sprinkle them over the soup.

Hearty Brunch Dish for Lazy Weekends

For late morning weekend risers serve a Top-Notch Mackerel Brunch. To prepare, place drained canned mackerel on a heat proof platter or in a shallow pan. Dribble lemon juice over it and sprinkle with barbecue spice.

★ ★ ★

Top with slices of Canadian bacon. Broil under low heat until bacon is browned. Serve with a border of parsley scrambled eggs.

Christmas South of the Border

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

If you were in Mexico tonight, you might find yourself taking part in the annual Christmas festival, the Posadas. Starting on December 16, this celebration goes on for eight nights, right up to Christmas Eve.

★ ★ ★

The people go through the streets from house to house. Their travels are symbolic of Mary and Joseph's search for a place to stay. On a litter children carry figures of the two Bible characters.

The candle lighted procession stops at each house to sing and to ask for lodging. After being refused for a time, the celebrants are let in and given a party. Singing, dancing, speeches and refreshments are part of the festivities. There is also the breaking of the pinata.

The pinata is a large jar filled with candies. A blindfolded individual is given a stick and told to hit the pinata. When he finally does, the candies scatter all over the floor with the children scrambling to get them.

All of the above we got from a book and from talking with a Pontiac family of Mexican descent, the Miguel Benavides' of East Howard street. Both Mr. and Mrs. Benavides were born in Texas, but have visited Mexico several times.

We asked Mrs. Benavides about traditional Mexican food at the Christmas season. The book she referred us to listed shrimp, chili, potatoes, bean soup, fruit and tortillas as the foods most often served. In Pontiac many of our Mexican inhabitants have tamales with pork and raisins.

CHRISTMAS EVE

For dinner on Christmas Eve the Benavides family (there are two teen-age daughters) has tamalas, rice, lettuce salad, pinto beans and tortillas made with flour instead of cornmeal. They are usually given corn tortillas when they call on friends during the holidays.

The Benavides' insisted that Mexican food doesn't have to be "hot." Mrs. Benavides cans the tiny hot Mexican peppers which look like shriveled cranberries when pickled.

These are always placed on the table for anyone to add to his food. When she cooks her rice, she fries it raw in vegetable shortening, then adds onions, garlic, cumin seed and tomatoes—but no peppers.

You can buy corn tortillas at a local grocery store. But if you would like to make some with flour, here is Mrs. Benavides' recipe.

TORTILLAS (With Flour)

2 cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon vegetable shortening

Sift flour, baking powder and salt. Cut in shortening. Add enough warm water to make a soft dough. Pat out with hand into a six-inch circle. Cook in a dry frying pan on top of the stove. Watch carefully, letting it get brown on one side, then turning it.

★ ★ ★

This is a bread the Benavides like very much and serve at any meal. But, says Mrs. B with a laugh, it isn't too good for the waistline.

About a week after we had talked with the Benavides' we heard about a Mexican meal the fifth-grade children in the new Washington Irving school had enjoyed.

They had been studying Mexico when one of the mothers, Mrs. Joseph Van Tull, offered to show them some real Mexican food. The Van Tulls lived in California for a time and learned about Mexican cookery then.

Incidentally, you won't find many Mexican cookbooks. Mexican women cook by "feel" and say of a good cook, "she has a good hand to cook." Mothers teach their daughters.

The children in Mrs. Nancy Cheek's room were enthusiastic about Tacos, the dish prepared for them. When we went to take their picture, they were begging for more.

This recipe is for a large group.

TACOS

2 dozen corn tortillas
3 pounds hamburger
1 large onion
9 teaspoons chili powder
¼ teaspoon garlic powder
Salt and pepper
2 cans tomato sauce
Grated cheese

Chop onion. Simmer in fat but do not brown. Add meat a little at a time, breaking it up constantly. Do not brown. Add rest of ingredients except cheese. Simmer 30 minutes.

Heat vegetable shortening in skillet. Place one tablespoon meat mixture in center of one tortilla, add one teaspoon cheese. Fold over to make half moon.

With tongs place in hot fat and hold down so edges adhere together. Fry on both sides until golden. Drain on absorbent paper. Serve at once. Makes about 34 Tacos.

★ ★ ★

If authentic, these Tacos are eaten with tossed green salad and hot sauce inside. Open cooked tacos, add desired salad and/or hot sauce. Press together. Eat with your hands.

Hot Sauce

6 hot peppers, grated fine (bought in Mexican grocery)
1 can tomato sauce
Dash garlic powder

Mix altogether and serve with Tacos.

THEY'RE LEARNING — Yolanda and Jovita Benavides have been taught how to cook by their mother. Here they are, at Christmas time, getting some traditional Mexican food ready. Yolanda (stooping) is in high school. Jovita is training to be a practical nurse. The girls are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Miquel E. Benavides of East Howard street.

Confection Goes Together Fast

All in together — go the makings of French Chocolate Balls, a quick and easy way to satisfy a sweet tooth.

In the top of a double boiler, melt 4 ounces of semi-sweet chocolate. Then add these ingredients: 2 tablespoons confectioners' sugar, 1-3 cup (chopped) toasted salted almonds, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons strong coffee, and 2 cups toasted ½-inch bread crumbs.

Form into balls with a tablespoon and place on a cookie sheet. Refrigerate for 1 hour.

First Course Eggs

Mold halves of hard-cooked eggs in consomme that jellies when chilled; serve as a first course garnished with lots of minced parsley.

Christmas Song Gives Inspiration for Dessert

Christmas is a season fairly bursting with time-honored traditions — exquisite decorations long-time family customs, and beautiful music, to mention a few. One of the beautiful folk songs of the Christmas season is the fanciful "Twelve Days of Christmas."

As you will remember, the first day brings a colorful gift — "a partridge in a pear tree." And here is the modern version of this fabled partridge perched on the bough of our picturesque pear tree.

This partridge has his eye on a delectable dish beneath the tree, a large bowl of Christmas Rainbow Pears, as tasty a treat as ever to tempt a hungry partridge, or for that matter, any appetites found with family or guests during the holiday season. Sweet, juicy fresh pears make a colorful dessert when some of them are tinted mint green, some cinnamon red and others remain a creamy white. Given a lacy coconut topping, a festive holiday treat is ready in no time at all.

★ ★ ★

You'll usually find fresh Western pears ripe and ready to eat at your favorite market. Ripe pears yield to gentle pressure regardless of color. You can always buy firm pears with confidence — they'll ripen in a few days at room temperature, becoming sweet and juicy, the way you like them.

Christmas Rainbow Pears

6 fresh Anjou pears
1½ cups sugar
3 cups water
¼ cup red cinnamon candies
3 drops peppermint extract
Few drops green food coloring
½ teaspoon vanilla
Coconut
Maraschino cherries
Table cream

Wash, core and halve pears. Combine sugar and water and heat until sugar is dissolved. Divide into three equal portions. To one portion add 4 pear halves and red cinnamon candies. To the second portion add 4 pear halves, peppermint extract, and green food coloring; and to the third portion add 4 pear halves and vanilla. Simmer each portion gently until pears are tender. Chill.

To serve: Arrange pears in large bowl, sprinkle with coconut and garnish with maraschino cherries. Serve with table cream. Makes 6 servings.

Spice Cake Topping

Just the right combination of flavors are blended in Apple-Berry Topping for spice cake. Combine a pound can of apple sauce, ½ teaspoon cinnamon, ½ teaspoon grated lemon rind, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, ½ cup sugar and 1 tablespoon butter; heat. Serve over squares or wedges of spice cake. Garnish with drained canned blueberries.

Mincemeat Stuffs Chops

Here's a holiday offering that has a habit of wending its way into the traditional meals that will be highly regarded in your home.

It's called Pork Chops—Mincemeat Stuffing. Featured in the recipe are pork rib chops, bread crumbs, mincemeat and chopped onion.

Aside from the stuffing mixture, the chops are prepared in the same manner as braised pork chops. After stuffing, simply brown the chops on both sides in lard or drippings, pour off drippings, season, cover tightly and simmer 45 minutes to 1 hour.

The chops used are rib chops and you'll want to make sure the pocket is cut into the chop along the bone.

Pork Chops—Mincemeat Stuffing

6 rib pork chops, cut 1 inch thick
1 cup soft bread crumbs
½ cup mincemeat
3 tablespoons chopped onion
1 tablespoon lard or drippings
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper

Make pocket in each chop by cutting into the chop along the bone. (Chops cut from this side hold the stuffing better.) Combine crumbs, mincemeat and onion and stuff each chop with this mixture.

Brown chops on both sides in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Season. Cover tightly and simmer 45 minutes to 1 hour or until done.

Nesselrode Is Angelic Fare

Does Nesselrode Pudding sound vaguely familiar to you? Of course! This is the dessert that Grandmother or Great-Grandmother served when she was being unusually elegant. Sometimes she served it in her flakiest pie shell and topped it with curls of shaved chocolate. At other times she used one of those fancy molds for which she was so famous. You and your guests will share Grandmother's delight as you serve this shimmering custard pudding filled with bright jewel-like candied fruits.

★ ★ ★

Here's the perfect dessert for you to serve for that evening after a busy day. You see, you can make it the day before and forget all about it until time for dessert.

★ ★ ★

Nesselrode Pudding

2 tablespoons soft margarine or butter.
⅛ teaspoon almond extract.
⅛ teaspoon rum extract.
1½ cups bite-size shredded corn biscuits crushed to ½ cup.
1 tablespoon sugar.
1 tablespoon (1 envelope) unflavored gelatin.
2¼ cups milk.
5 eggs.
½ cup sugar.
¼ teaspoon salt.
1¼ teaspoons rum extract.
¼ cup golden raisins.
¼ cup candied fruit, finely diced.
¼ cup chopped California walnuts.

Butter a 2½-cup mold. Mix margarine, almond extract and ⅛ teaspoon rum extract. Combine with cereal crumbs and 1 tablespoon sugar. Pack all but ¼ cup in bottom of mold.

★ ★ ★

Soften gelatin in ¼ cup milk. Beat together eggs, sugar, salt and 2 cups milk. Heat and stir over hot, NOT boiling water until custard coats the spoon (about 25 minutes). Add gelatin mixture. Cool, stirring frequently, until custard thickens.

Cover raisins with water. Heat to boiling. Rinse candied fruit with water to separate. Dry both thoroughly. Stir extract, fruits and nuts into custard. If fruits sink, continue chilling.

★ ★ ★

Pour into mold. Top with ¼ cup crumbs. Chill overnight. Set mold in hot water ½ minute before unmolding. Yield: 6 servings.

Little No-Bake Cookies Made With Rice Cereal

Yes, indeed, our smiling boy is full of delicious Rum Balls made of tasty bite-size shredded rice biscuits. His face is an oversized brandy snifter with bright red felt features. The hat is an ordinary red stocking cap.

Rum balls, made with non-alcoholic rum extract, require no baking and will keep fresh and tasty for a week if stored in an airtight container. You'll like the delicate caramel flavor of the toasted rice combined with the rum and almond extracts and cocoa.

The youngsters will like to help make these Christmas cookies or even to handle the entire project by themselves.

Happy Boy will be an attractive gift for a favorite teacher, or for a shut-in friend. A skating or sleighing party will be even more merry with Happy Boy, or two of them, in the center of a red felt covered table and surrounded by mugs of steaming cocoa.

Rum Balls

6½ cups (1 6-oz. pkg) bite-sized shredded rice biscuits, crushed to 1½ cups
1 cup sifted confectioners sugar
1 cup finely chopped pecans
2 tablespoons cocoa
⅛ teaspoon salt
½ cup white corn syrup
3 tablespoons water
1½ teaspoons rum extract
¼ teaspoon almond extract
Maraschino cherries
Dates, pitted
Pecans
⅓ cup confectioners sugar (for coating)

Mix together cereal crumbs, sugar, pecans, cocoa, and salt. Combine syrup, water, and extracts. Add liquid slowly to crumb mixture. Blend well. Shape mixture into balls or around bits of cherries dates, or pecans. Let stand one hour before rolling in confectioners sugar. Yield: 4 dozen 1-inch balls.

JAPPY FELLOW — Here's a Christmas gift that sets its own mood. Fill a brandy snifter with delicious no-bake Run Balls. Make the features of red felt and top with a gay stocking cap. Bite-size shredded rice biscuits give the Rum Balls that unusual, delicious flavor.

MONEY IN THE BANK — Cuba's Fidel Castro holds aloft a bundle of checks said to total 30 million dollars. They were collected from the sugar workers for the purchase of bonds to finance the revolutionary government's industrial development drive. The sugar workers donated 4 per cent of their salary to raise the money, part of Castro's campaign to spearhead land reform.

TV May Soon Offer Full College Course

NEW YORK (UPI) — A four-year college course via television may be a reality soon, says a new school which seeks to improve teaching techniques by integrating them with TV, films and radio.

The Learning Resources Institute, a non-profit corporation headed by Dr. John E. Ivey Jr., currently runs "Continental Classroom" over the National Broadcasting Co. TV network.

Under a multimillion-dollar project announced this week, a full two-year college basic curriculum of 15 TV network courses will be ready by 1964-65.

Negotiations are under way with NBC, the Columbia Broadcasting System and the American Broadcasting Co. to show the filmed or taped courses at prime viewing time.

If successful, a four-year college course is seen as the next step, the institute said. Credits would be given by the colleges participating.

TO BROADCAST FROM PLANES

Dr. Ivey, former executive vice president of New York University, also is president of the Midwest Council on Airborne Television Instruction. The Midwestern project plans by 1961 to broadcast as many as 72 full-year courses from aircraft flying at high altitude.

Receiving them will be 13,000 schools and colleges in Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Wisconsin and Ohio — with an estimated five million students.

A spokesman said the institute is negotiating for land in Princeton, N. J., and hopes to break ground for a research and demonstration center within the next two years.

Ivey said:

"Under guidance of the classroom teacher, the student can learn in a new environment aided by the work of the nation's great teachers on television, learning machines, records, tapes and other technological developments."

The idea for the new institute, said Dr. Ivey, grew out of the success of "Continental Classroom," a program of college courses.

Webster Cubs Decorate Tree; Turn Over Toys

The annual Christmas party of Cub Scout Pack 6 of Webster School was held recently.

Go Ahead— Take Your Bag Along

By EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: Whenever I go visiting, I have a habit of taking my bag with me into the living room and either hold it on my lap or put it on the floor beside my chair. I like to have it handy for my cigarettes and also for a handkerchief should I happen to need one.

My husband thinks this is improper and that I should leave it with my hat and coat as it implies that I do not trust those in the house. I never thought of it this way before and wonder if he could be right.

Answer: It is not unusual nor does it imply distrust for women guests to take their handbags with them into the living room, and if they have been invited for a meal, they leave them there when they go into the dining room.

Dear Mrs. Post: When is a friend introduced as John Jones and when as Mr. Jones?

Answer: Whether or not he is an intimate friend of yours, a man in his thirties, or over, is ordinarily introduced as "Mr. Jones." But if he is an intimate friend and also being introduced to other intimate friends, it would be proper to introduce him as John Jones. If you are all in your twenties, you would probably introduce everyone without title.

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. Post: Please tell me which flower is proper for a man to wear with a tail coat, also with a tuxedo — a carnation or a gardenia? And should the flower always be white?

★ ★ ★

Answer: It should always be white when a man is taking part in a wedding, but not necessarily otherwise. A red or white carnation is correct with a tuxedo. With tails, either a white carnation or gardenia is correct and a red carnation is permissible.

MRS. LANCE C. MINOR JR.

Barbara Vance Rownd, daughter of Mrs. Louise Harper Rownd and the late Daniel T. Rownd of Wheeling, W. Va., exchanged vows with Lance Cabell Minor Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. Lance Cabell Minor of Birmingham, Saturday, in Vance Memorial Presbyterian Church, Wheeling, W. Va.

Minor-Rownd Nuptials Performed in Wheeling

Reception at the Fort Henry Club in Wheeling, W. Va., followed Saturday nuptials of Barbara Vance Rownd and Lance Cabell Minor Jr. in the Vance Memorial Presbyterian Church, Wheeling.

★ ★ ★

The double - ring ceremony was performed by Dr. J. Davis Illingworth.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Louise Harper Rownd and the late Daniel T. Rownd of Wheeling. Mr. and Mrs. Lance Cabell Minor of Birmingham are parents of the bridegroom.

★ ★ ★

Daniel T. Rownd Jr. gave his sister in marriage. She wore a gown of ivory satin ending in a chapel train. The round neckline of the fitted bodice was trimmed with heirloom rosepointe lace. A panel of the lace, held by a tiny cap, fell over the full-length tulle veil.

An orchid centered the bridal bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. John W. Carenbauer was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Jessie M. Harris, Mrs. Edwin A. Sheridan, Mary S. Rankin, Mrs. Daniel T. Rownd and Emily G. Minor, sister of the bridegroom. A niece, Deborah Rownd, was flower girl. The attendants, in emerald green velvet dresses, carried cascade bouquets of white chrysanthemums and ivy.

★ ★ ★

Lance Vars of Westerly, R. I., served the bridegroom as best man. Seating the guests were Dr. John C. Maddox Jr., John A. Ziegler, James H. Walters, Robert E. Philpott, Paul Thomas, Arthur V. Wynne Jr. and Richard Spademan.

The bride was graduated from Masters School, Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., and attended Northwestern University and University of Colorado. She is a member of the Junior League of Wheeling and Chi Omega sorority.

★ ★ ★

Mr. Minor, a graduate of University of Michigan, is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. He served as lieutenant in the U. S. Air Force.

★ ★ ★

Performers included Elizabeth Crocker, Linda Emsley, Gilbert Stephison, Kenny Smith, Elaine Findlay, Lynn Marie Rippberger and Heather Sue Lockhart.

★ ★ ★

Christmas readings were given by Phyllis Ann Augsburger and Miss Crocker. A story of the home life of Mozart at Christmas time was read by Mrs. Oscar Schmidt.

The meeting concluded with games and a social period.

★ ★ ★

The January meeting will be at the Henderson street home of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Stephison.

Dear Abby Says 'Merry Christmas' Is Enough

He Doesn't 'See' Straight If He Acts That Silly Way

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a husband who says if you wear eyeglasses he won't be seen walking down the street with you? I am 55 years old and we have been married 36 years.

ABBY

I started getting bad headaches and the eye doctor told me I needed glasses. I bought myself a beautiful pair and I paid a lot of money for them, too. Everybody says they look real nice but my husband says that any kind of eyeglasses look awful on a woman.

I keep telling him I can't see without them, but he says he doesn't care if I go blind. Please tell me what I should do next?

LADY WITH GLASSES

DEAR LADY: Your husband must have shredded wheat where his brains belong. For goodness sakes, wear your eyeglasses! If he refuses to be seen with you, let him hide out.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I have a weekly standing appointment at the beauty parlor. I have a shampoo, set and manicure. I tip each girl 25c. That makes 75c every week.

I am a working girl and pay room and board at home and buy my own clothes and try to save a little for vacations. I am not exactly "poor" but I can't afford to tip like that and buy them gifts at Christmas, too. I don't want to look cheap. What should I do at Christmas?

WORKING GIRL

DEAR GIRL: Simply say "Merry Christmas!" (P.S. But if you feel "cheap" at Christmas time because you have not given them a gift, buy them a Christmas gift, and during the year simply say, "Thank you.")

DEAR ABBY: I am very much in love with Steve but I am beginning to wonder if the feeling is mutual. He claims he loves me, but all he ever does when he comes to my house is EAT!

My mother is the one who feeds him and she doesn't seem to mind — but I do. The reason I am bothered is because when I am near Steve I can't eat a thing. That's the way love affects me. But Steve eats like a horse. Can our love be one-sided? Or doesn't love affect a boy's appetite the way it affects a girl's? We are both 17.

STEVE'S GIRL

DEAR GIRL: NOTHING affects a teen-aged boy's appetite. Not even "love." In fact, most young men shovel in additional calories in order to keep the fires of love burning. Don't worry. If he says he loves you — believe him and pass the potatoes.

They Danced All Night at Charlotte's Debut

DETROIT (AP) — Charlotte Ford, eldest daughter of Henry Ford II, made her debut last night at a dazzling party attended by high society and leaders of business and industry.

The 18-year-old great-granddaughter of the late Henry Ford was introduced to society at a night-long coming-out party at the Country Club of Detroit.

★ ★ ★

The party was estimated to have cost the Fords $100,000.

The club was decorated by Jacques Frank of Paris in an 18th century motif.

Imported French tapestries, insured for $150,000, lined the walls.

★ ★ ★

Flowers and fountains were everywhere. A formal French garden had been reproduced on the spot.

WHITE SATIN GOWN

Charlotte, a willowy blonde, arrived wearing a strapless white satin gown designed by Yves St. Laurent, the Parisian successor to Dior.

★ ★ ★

The ankle length gown was trimmed with bands of emboidered flowers, pearls and tourmalines.

Her mother, Mrs. Henry Ford II, wore a pink satin ball gown. It was embroidered with crystals and created by Simonetta of Rome.

★ ★ ★

Charlotte was escorted by a cousin, Peter Sullivan of Glen Head, L. I. Her father, president of Ford Motor Co., got the first dance—to the strains of "The Most Beautiful Girl in the World."

Music was provided by the 20-piece Meyer Davis orchestra from New York, flown in for the glittering occasion.

The ballroom, huge gallery, two bar rooms and dining room were ablaze with crystal, marble and gilt. Flowers hung from the chandeliers.

The dreams of Ford women had focused on Charlotte's introduction to society.

★ ★ ★

Henry Ford Sr. had no daughters. Edsel Ford's daughter Josephine, now Mrs. Walter B. Ford, shared a quiet wartime debut with four other girls.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Edsel Ford married the year she was scheduled to make her debut. And Charlotte's mother chose a year in Europe instead of a coming-out party.

Chapter 9 Carols at Dinner

The annual turkey dinner of Chapter Nine, American Gold Star Mothers, was held at Disabled Veterans Hall Thursday evening. Mrs. Edna Olmsted, general chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Lola Erb, Mrs. Henry C. Hight, Mrs. Hilda LaLonde and Mrs. Sybella Stevens.

★ ★ ★

Traditional Christmas carols were sung by the ensemble, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Mary Lee Hawkes. Members exchanged gifts and brought presents for hospitalized widows of all war veterans and Gold Star Mothers at the Grand Rapids facility.

★ ★ ★

Those present included Mrs. Lauretta Stockwell, Mrs. Evelyn Harris, Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Pike, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis A. Young, Mrs. Mae Archambeau, Mrs. George W. Sprague, Mrs. John E. Bray, Mrs. Verdie Weatherby, Mrs. Edna Matheny and Mrs. Ralph U. Graham.

★ ★ ★

Attending from Clarkston were Mrs. Ralph M. Brady, Mr. and Mrs. Beniamin O. Cote and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Duemler; and from Milford, Mrs. Louise Gutson.

The next monthly meeting will be 1:30 p.m. Jan. 5.

Judith Oliver Wedding Plans Announced

The Frederick M. Olivers of Birmingham revealed news of their daughter's engagement to William Robert Wiltshire, at an open house Sunday honoring their son, Ronald, on leave from Fort Gordon, Ga.

★ ★ ★

Judith's fiance holds a bachelor of science degree in liberal arts from Central Michigan University. He is a member of Phi Sigma Epsilon and Alpha Psi Omega (dramatics) and has done graduate work at Boston University.

★ ★ ★

Out of town guests included William's parents and their daughter Marsha.

Food Ingathering, Annual Luncheon at McConnell

The ingathering of food for Christmas baskets coincided with the annual luncheon for homeroom mothers last week at McConnell School.

Other holiday festivities included Thursday evening's presentation of "The Night Before Christmas." Playing roles were Thomas Byers, Aloma Julian, Sandra Troxell, Karen Yakmalian, Danny Martin, David Mills, Jerry Best and Beth Strickland.

★ ★ ★

Others were Datonya Samples, Bernard Slumoski, Deborah Priest, Gayle Shattuck, Diana Tanner and Wyman Lewis.

Carolers were Gerald Woods, Randy Young, Sheila Kee and Dennis Roe.

Choruses from the primary and upper grades were directed by Mrs. Olive Hurst. The choral reading chorus was directed by Kenneth Harger. Program chairman was Eunice E. Liskum.

Sashay Dancers Hold Yule Party, Bring Tots' Gifts

The Elks Sashay Quadrille Square Dance Club held its Christmas party Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. John DePauw chairmen. Mr. DePauw was also master of ceremonies.

Callers for the evening were Mr. DePauw, Burnell McAllister, Russell Pope, Bert Denham, William Schmiel, Oscar Denham and Howard Bond in charge of novelties.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Herring headed the decorating committee and Mrs. DePauw lead a candlelight service. Members brought gifts to be given to a children's home.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hudak were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Becker.

★ ★ ★

The next party, an open house, will be Jan. 8.

It'll Save Feet and Nerves

List Will Aid Yule Shoppers

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Here are a few suggestions which I hope will be helpful for the last minute rushed shopping.

1. Make a list before you go shopping. This should include the names of those for whom you are going to buy gifts and any ideas you have for each one. You may have no idea for some of them.

2. Make a list of all the categories you can think of, such as books, cosmetics, sporting goods, records, clothes, accessories, food delicacies, smoking equipment, money, work equipment and so forth.

Now see if any of these "hard-to-get-presents-for" folks fit into any one of the above categories. If not, then you will just have to look in the stores and hope to be hit by a bright idea.

★ ★ ★

3. Make a list of the stores you are going to and what you expect to buy in each store. If you are going to have the presents gift wrapped and delivered or mailed straight from the stores, (and this is a great help) you will have to write on the Christmas cards to be enclosed. Put the list of items and the cards which belong with them in an envelope, one for each store. This not only will be a great help to you but to the saleswomen.

TELEPHONE

4. If you are not sure whether a certain store carries an item you want, telephone to find out.

All of this will take quite a bit of time at home but it will save your feet and your disposition and nerves a lot of wear and tear.

★ ★ ★

It also will be most helpful if you will be at the first store when it opens. The counters will not be so crowded and you will be able to accomplish twice as much in half the time it otherwise would take. Also don't try to do too much in one day. This is almost sure to lead to mistakes.

Happy hunting!

College Comes 1st; Marriage Must Wait

By RUTH MILLETT

Jim, 18, a college freshman, has put the big question to his parents: "How about my getting married in June — if I agree to go and finish college? If you will pay half of our living expenses I'm sure Sue's parents will pay half."

The parents want to know what their answer should be. Sue seems to be a nice girl.

The youngsters have been going steady for more than a year and are convinced they have a right to get married, though it means their parents will have to support the marriage for at least three years.

The boy's parents think the couple should wait until they are through school to marry, but they don't want to be "old-fashioned."

There's nothing wrong with parents being "old-fashioned" about the basic ideas that children aren't ready for marriage until they are able to be financially independent of their parents.

sense. Parents owe their children as good an education as they can provide. But they don't owe them a subsidized marriage.

That is just good, hard, common

If the eighteen-year-olds are as deeply in love as they think they are they can wait three years for each other, while they finish their educations.

In fact, having to wait a while for marriage is a blessing in disguise. It gives a couple a chance to mature, to be sure that their love has the solid foundation of mutual respect, shared goals and ideals, and shared interests.

Besides, marriage means more to a young couple when it is something they have to wait and work for than just one more indulgence paid for by their parents.

In this case the parents of the boy and girl should get together, not to figure out how to support a marriage between eighteen-year-olds, but to agree on standing by the "old-fashioned" idea that a young man has no right to take a wife until he can support one.

Reception at Forest Lake Country Club followed Saturday nuptials of Linda Sue Hunt and Gaylord Coleman White in St. James Episcopal Church, Birmingham. Their parents are the Ralph E. Hunts of North Cranbrook road, Birmingham, and the Wilmer E. Whites of New London, Ohio.

MRS. GAYLORD COLEMAN WHITE

Linda Sue Hunt Wed at St. James Church

On a honeymoon trip to Fort Lauderdale, Fla., are the Gaylord Coleman Whites (nee Linda Sue Hunt) who pledged vows before Dr. Kenneth H. Gass Saturday afternoon in St. James Episcopal Church, Birmingham.

At the reception in Forest Lake Country Club were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Hunt of Birmingham, and the Wilmer E. Whites of New London, Ohio, parents of the bridegroom.

Cupioni silk fashioned the bridal gown which swirled into a chapel train. Alencon lace, re-embroidered with pearls and sequins, trimmed the bodice, styled with Empire waistline and butterfly bustle. Full-length sleeves ended in wrist points.

From a silk pill box studded with seed-pearls, fell the finger-tip veil of illusion. The bride's flowers were phalaenopsis with lilies-of-the-valley.

Identical gowns of royal blue peau de soie worn by the attendants, featured dome skirts, Bateau necklines, bell sleeves and a butterfly bustle bow. They wore crown hats of royal taffeta and matching slippers. Flowers for the honor maid were Happiness roses with phalaenopsis and ivy. Bridesmaids carried Happiness roses and ivy.

Patricia Andrus of Birmingham was honor maid. Bridsmaids were the bride's sister, Bonnie Lou; her sister-in-law, Mrs. David Lynn Hunt, of Birmingham; the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Russell Lee Edgington, New London, Ohio and Mrs. Phillip Roberts of Indianapolis.

Stuart Leslie Miller of Oak Park, Ill., was best man. Seating the guests were the bridegroom's brother, William, and brother-in-law, Russell Lee Edgington, with Robert E. Weaver, of New London, Ohio; the bride's brother, David; and James E. McCarty of Elmhurst, N.Y.

★ ★ ★

An orchid pinned to her hand bag, complemented Mrs. Hunt's gown of brown lace over beige taffeta, with brown and beige accessories. Mrs. White chose a beige lace sheath dress with matching accessories. Cymbidium orchids were mounted on her handbag.

★ ★ ★

For traveling, the new Mrs. White changed to a suit of cherry red wool, alligator handbag and shoes, white satin hat and white gloves. The couple will be at home in Birmingham.

Mountain Honeymoon for V. Thomas Smiths

Honeymooning at Paradise Valley Lodge in the Pocono Mountains of Pennsylvania are Mr. and Mrs. V. Thomas Smith (nee Nan Maureen Caldwell) who pledged vows Saturday in Church of Christ, Ferndale. Brother Tipton C. Wilcox read the candlelight rite against a background of white gladioli and chrysanthemums.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Jones Caldwell of Birmingham, and Rudolph Winston Caldwell of Brocton, Mass. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Vernie C. Smith of Detroit.

White peau de soie taffeta fashioned the bridal gown styled with chapel train. Appliques of Alencon lace defined the Louvier neckline and were set into the skirt. From a crown of lace and pearls, fell the fingertip veil. A spray of white roses and stephanotis topped a white Bible carried by the bride. Her jewelry, a pearl and diamond heart on a chain, was a gift of the bridegroom.

Colonial bouquets of white carnations were held by bridesmaids, Mrs. Maurice Jones Barton of Saugerties, N.Y.; Connie K. Miller, Pontiac; Nancy Raymond of Detroit and Sandra Muir of Birmingham. Crowns of blue pearls and sequins complemented their ballerina gowns of light blue iridescent taffeta.

A white cummerbund and sash distinguished the ensemble worn by honor matron, Mrs. Donald Gene Cole of Pontiac. Her crown was white and she carried white roses and carnations.

Best man was Joseph Eddings of Ferndale. Ushering were Edward Vennerholm, John Craig, Jack Miettunen and Donald G. Cole.

Mrs. Caldwell chose a sheath dress in ash of roses shade, with matching accessories. White accessories sparked Mrs. Smith's gown of blue chiffon. Both mothers wore white roses.

The bridegroom is a student of electrical engineering at Lawrence Institute of Technology. The couple will live in Detroit.

Cincinnati Heads Cage Poll

By The Associated Press

Undefeated Cincinnati, called by some coaches the "finest college team ever assembled," is the No. 1 cage team in the nation.

Sports writers and broadcasters participating in the Associated Press' first weekly poll of the season, gave the Bearcats a wide margin over the rest of the field Monday, giving them 55 of the 120 first place votes. In the point score, the Bearcats received 956 points to 820 for runner-up West Virginia, which drew 30 first place votes.

Cincinnati, averaging better than 100 points a game in five straight victories, meets fifth ranked Bradley tonight before competing in the ECAC Holiday Festival in Madison Square Garden Saturday. Other top ten teams scheduled tonight include seventh-ranked St. Louis (6 - 2) against Kansas, third-ranked Ohio State (6-1) vs. Brigham Young, eighth-ranked Georgia Tech (6 - 1) vs. Texas Tech, and ninth-ranked Indiana (4-1) vs. Butler.

West Virginia (8-0) won't see action until it goes into the Los Angeles Holiday Festival next Monday but fourth - ranked California (5-0) has a big game against a strong Michigan State team Wednesday. Utah and Indiana also play Wednesday. The Utes will meet College of the Pacific and the Hoosiers will face Butler.

Favorites fell by the wayside in last night's action but 10th-ranked Illinois managed to keep its slate clean, nipping Oklahoma 60-57 in overtime. The biggest upset was perpetrated by Brigham Young which defeated Michigan State 79-75.

2 Pitt Cagers Accuse Doctor of 'Rig' Offer

Dentist Denies Charge That He Wanted Point Spread for Betting

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A preliminary hearing was set for tomorrow for Dr. Edward H. Sebastian, Pittsburgh dentist charged with attempting to bribe two University of Pittsburgh basketball players.

Dr. Sebastian, former dental instructor at Pitt, was arrested yesterday following an investigation of statements by John Fridley, 20-year-old defensive star of the Pitt Panthers, and teammate Dick Falenski, 21, the team's leading scorer.

Fridley and Falenski, both juniors, told university officials Dr. Sebastian offered them scholarships to Pitt's Dental School, and to pay them 50 per cent of bet winnings if they would keep Pitt's victory margins within bet-winning range.

Dr. Sebastian denied the charges saying, "Everything we discussed he (Fridley) started."

The investigation began Dec. 11 when Fridley and Falenski, on the advice of their parents, reported to university athletic director Frank Carver that they were offered a bribe.

Fridley told detectives he met with Dr. Sebastian separately Dec. 3 and Dec. 9. He said Falenski was with him in a meeting Dec. 10 and it was then that Dr. Sebastian gave his pitch.

He "offered us the world — anything that came to his mind he said he'd get us — cars at cost and everything," Fridley said.

Falenski, who has been averaging 17 points a game, said:

"Our grades aren't up to snuff but he said he'd fix everything — get us Senatorial scholarships and guarantee we got into dental school."

Both players said they refused to have anything to do with the offer.

"It's a very regretable incident," said Carver, "but we have complete confidence in the boys. They now are in New York and will be playing against Fordham tonight.

Fridley said the final meeting with the dentist was on the eve of the tournament in which Pitt made a clean sweep, 74-73 over St. John's, and 75-44 over Duquesne.

Dukes Has New Misfortune

Lanky Walter Cuts His Eye on Car Door

But He'll Be Starter Tonight When Pistons Meet Celtics

DETROIT (AP)— The latest chapter in the perils of Walter Dukes won't handicap the Detroit Pistons tonight in the season's second National Basketball Assn. doubleheader at Olympia Stadium.

Dukes, with four stitches over his left eye, will play with the Pistons against the high-flying Boston Celtics in the second game. The Cells have won 12 straight. New York plays Cincinnati in the opener.

Dukes suffered a cut above his eye while attempting to ease his 7-foot frame out of his car yesterday. His head hit the door, shattering the glass and sending the lanky star to the doctor for needle work.

★ ★ ★

It was another in a series of off-court incidents for the towering player. Among his other adventures recently were an encounter with Detroit police over several traffic tickets, loss of clothing to a car thief and a drawn-out contract battle that carried through the first several games this season. He also has been known to miss the team's transportation and show up late for games.

Coach Red Rocha said Dukes would be in the Pistons' starting lineup.

The Pistons yesterday placed Bill Kenville on the injured reserve list for five games. That left the Pistons with only two available backcourt men—Gene Shue and Dick McGuire. Rocha said Ed Conlin would be shifted to guard until Chuck Noble comes off the injured reserve list Saturday.

★ ★ ★

When Kenville rejoins the club, the Pistons will have to pare their roster by one man to reach the 10-player limit.

Detroit has lost six of its last eight games. Boston hasn't lost since Nov. 24 and has only four defeats all season.

Campbell, Katalinas in Speedup Jobs

Tigers Revamp Farms to Aid Player Growth

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Tigers have revamped their minor league operations in a new bid to speed up player development and attract promising homegrown talent.

The Tigers yesterday put Vice President Jimmy Campbell in charge of all minor league operations and scouting. Ed Katalinas continues as chief scout.

Handling of minor league clubs had been split up among various Tiger executives.

President Bill DeWitt gave Katalinas responsibility for a speeded up scouting program in Michigan and the Detroit area.

The Tigers have lost bidding battles for numerous home grown products in recent seasons. Among them were Detroiters Milt Pappas, now a star right-hander at 20 with the Baltimore Orioles, and Willie Kirkland, a hard-hitting outfielder for the San Francisco Giants. Bonus babies Dean Look went to the Chicago White Sox and Al Luplow to the Cleveland Indians from the Michigan State campus.

"Campbell will have complete charge of Detroit's eight-club minor league system, including the players and managers assigned to those clubs," DeWitt said.

He'll also supervise the work of the Tigers' 20 full-time scouts and 150 part-time scouts.

★ ★ ★

"I plan to make some changes," said the 35-year-old Campbell.

Knights Keep Record Clean

The defending champion Knights of Columbus remained unbeaten in the Class A City League basketball race Monday night with a 76-69 triumph over the Lakeside Royals at Pontiac Central.

A strong 4th-quarter rally enabled the Knights to keep their record clean. The Royals held a 56-46 lead at the end of the 3rd period. John Keller paced the Knights with 21 points and Felix Brooks tallied 19 for the Royals.

Shaw's Jewelers ran away from CIO Local 594 in the 4th stanza for a 71-51 victory in the other Class A contest. Shaw's led after three quarters, 49-44. Bob McManus topped the Jewelers with 21 points and Bill Spain made 17 for the CIO.

Cronin, Walker May Leave Lions

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Lions are in danger of losing two members of their defensive unit before next season rolls around.

The defense was about the only phase of play of which Detroit could boast during the dismal 1959 National Football League season. The Lions won only three of 12 games.

Assistant coach Buster Ramsey, who was credited with molding the Lions' tough defense, already has left the team. He took a job as head coach of the Buffalo Bills in the new American Football League for 1960.

Now it has been learned that linebacker Wayne Walker and defensive end Gene Cronin have shown interest in leaving the Lions.

Walker said he has been offered an assistant coaching job at Idaho, his alma mater. The Associated Press has learned that Cronin, a four-year Lion veteran, has asked coach George Wilson to be traded.

Wilson said Walker's offer is news to him. But he added that Cronin had spoken with him.

"I wouldn't say Cronin said he wants to be traded," declared Wilson. "But he did come to me to say he wants to play more, that's the thing."

Wilson was asked if he'd be willing to trade Cronin.

"I haven't given that a thought," said Wilson. "We may trade him if we could get something to help the team. We'll trade but I don't know if he'll be one of them we let go."

★ ★ ★

Cronin, who attended College of the Pacific, already has left Detroit for the off-season.

Walker said Idaho coach Skip Stahley would be in Detroit soon to discuss the proposed offer with him. Stahley is Walker's old coach at Idaho.

★ ★ ★

"I'm undecided at the moment," said Walker, who played two seasons with Detroit. "I'd like to get into coaching. I don't know what I'd like to do now but I know I'd like to raise my family in Idaho."

★ ★ ★

Walker and his wife, Arlene, have a one-year-old son, Steven.

"I doubt if Walker will leave Detroit," Wilson said. "He's working here during the off-season. I haven't heard that he's interested in a coaching job."

Villanova and Omaha Pick New Grid Mentors

By The Associated Press

Villanova and the Univerity of Omaha named new head football coaches Monday, raising to nearly a score the number of changes since mid-October.

Villanova selected Alex Bell, Harvard end coach, to replace Frank Reagan and his interim successor, Joe Rogers, Reagan, Villanova athletic director, fired himself in mid-October and turned over the reins to Rogers, an aide.

Omaha shuffled its athletic staff by naming assistant coach Al Caniglia to the head job.

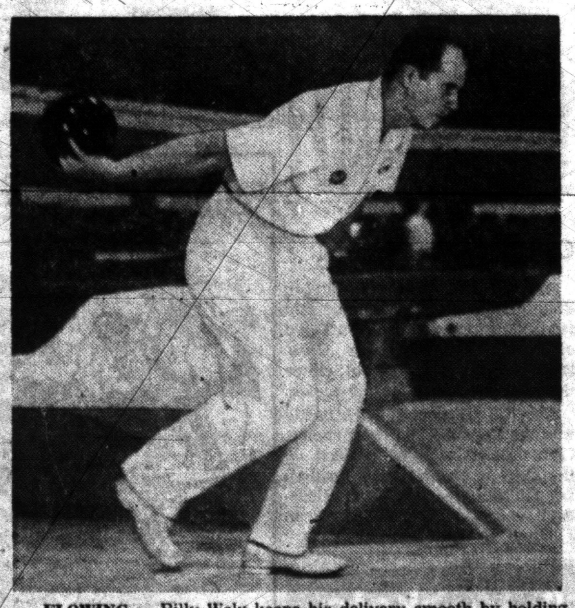

Wildcat Coach Talks With Florida Prexy

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Ara Parseghian, Northwestern football coach, was interviewed Monday by Dr. J. Wayne Reitz about the vacant Florida coaching job but both said no agreement had been reached.

The 36 - year - old Parseghian looked over the University of Florida plant at Gainesville and then was accompanied to Jacksonville by university President Reitz to board a plane.

The university has been looking for a coach since Bob Woodruff resigned Dec. 2 under pressure.

FLOWING — Billy Welu keeps his delivery smooth by holding the backswing down to below his shoulder level.

DELIVERY
By BILLY WELU

How can you separate the stance and approach from the delivery?

The type of ball you roll, the release and the follow through are part of the delivery. Where does the delivery begin and end?

It is easier to tie the entire subject into a package.

Take your stance on the approach with balanced comfort. Strive for a harmonious, relaxed approach with four natural steps. Keep the bowling arm close to the body with a rhythmic, pendulum swing.

Keep the backswing from going higher than shoulder level, or too low, because otherwise it will upset balance. Walk, don't run in the approach. Stay in a straight line and keep the shoulders squared to the pins.

Slide smoothly on a bent left leg as you get set for the release. The ball hand should be ready for the release as you complete the slide, the last step of the approach.

Bathgate Fined $500, for Article

MONTREAL (AP) — President Clarence Campbell of the National Hockey League announced Monday night that Andy Bathgate of the New York Rangers, author of a magazine story regarding alleged brutality in hockey, has been fined $500.

General Manager Muzz Patrick of the Rangers was fined $100.

In announcing his decision, Campbell said "the sum total effect on the article is definitely prejudicial to the league and the game, and this was not seriously contested by the principals involved."

Regarding Patrick, Campbell said "it is clear that he did not authorize or approve the article in the form in which it finally appeared but by his failure to consider its possible implications, which were quite plain in the text which was submitted to him, he gave his authorization by default and is responsible under the NHL by-law."

For Cimoli and Cheney

Cards Get Hurler Kline

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Fans took a second look today at the Pittsburgh Pirate swap of a front line pitcher to the St. Louis Cardinals for a line-drive hitting outfielder and an unproven hurler and wondered if there's more to come.

Joe L. Brown, Pirate general manager, interrupted a Florida vacation yesterday to trade right-hander Ron Kline for outfielder Gino Cimoli and pitcher Tom Cheney.

★ ★ ★

It was the first major player deal involving the Pirates since the 1959 season. It didn't produce the long ball hitter Pirate officials say is needed for the club to improve its 1959 fourth place finish.

The 27-year-old Kline, from Callery, Pa., has never been a sensational pitcher but he often appeared on the verge of becoming one.

Kline's best season was 1956. He won 14 and lost 18 then. Last season he posted an 11-13 record, losing several games by one run.

Cardinal pitching coach Howie Pollet, teammate of Kline in 1952, endorsed the trade.

"I saw a lot of potential in the kid," he said. "He has great desire and I have enough confidence in my ability to think I can make him a regular winner.

Cimoli's best year was a .293 average in 1957. Last year he hit .279, including 40 doubles, seven triples and eight home runs.

The Pirates already have a strong defensive outfield in Roberto Clemente, Bill Virdon and Bob Skinner.

★ ★ ★

General Manager Brown said Cimoli "definitely will help our outfield. He will not hit many home runs at Forbes Field but he is a good line driver hitter with very good all around ability."

★ ★ ★

Brown called Cheney, "An outstanding pitching prospect" and said "he has an excellent chance to help our club in 1960."

Cheney, 25, of Morgan, Ga., spent most of last season in the minor league at Omaha. He posted a 5-6 record there. After being called up by the Cardinals late in the season he lost his only decision while appearing in 11 games.

Colts, Giants Dominate Players' All-Pro

NEW YORK — (NEA)—Championship teams reflect championship performances.

So it's no accident that the Baltimore Colts and the New York Giants dominate the All-Players' All-Pro team.

The Colts and Giants each placed five men, and they put them where they figure to do the most good. Baltimore, with the most explosive attack in football, is represented by four men on the All-Pro offensive platoon.

Johnny Unitas, their tremendous quarterback, and Ray Berry, the premier pass-snagger in the National Football League, were runaway choices at their positions. Berry was on 94 per cent of the ballots sent in by the players of the 12 teams.

The Giants, featuring the greatest defense in football, have three men on that platoon, with linebacker Sam Huff and safety Jim Patton topping all the defensive votes.

★ ★ ★

Another landslide choice was Jim Brown of Cleveland, who now has made the all-pro selection at fullback in all three of his years with the money men.

There are few surprises on this year's team, since eight men of the offense and seven of the defense are repeaters from 1958. Guard Jim Ray Smith of Cleveland, center Jim Ringo of Green Bay and halfback Frank Gifford of New York, all second team selections a year ago, jumped up a notch.

So did defensive end Andy Robustelli of the Giants and tackle Ernie Stautner of Pittsburgh. Newcomers to the all-pro ranks are defensive halfback Tom Brookshier of Philadelphia and veteran tackle Leo Nomellini of San Francisco, experiencing a comeback.

The second team, however, indicates the arrival of a new set of stars. Tommy McDonald of the Eagles, tackle Forest Gregg of Green Bay and halfbacks J. D. Smith, San Francisco, and John David Crow, Cardinals, are the coming offensive standouts.

Defensive back are Woodson of the Forty Niners, linebacker Harland Svare of the Giants and tackle Frank Fuller of the Cardinals rated serious All-Pro consideration for the first time.

Guard Duane Putnam of Los Angeles and linebacker Joe Schmidt of Detroit are the only men who've been selected by the toughest jury, the men they play with and against, on all five of the NEA All-Pro teams since the balloting of the players was inaugurated in 1955.

The Washington Redskins was the only team which failed to place a man on either the first or second squads.

Fifty Nominated for $100,000 Widener Race

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Fifty thoroughbreds, headed by champion Sword Dancer, have been nominated for the $100,000 Widener Handicap at Hialeah Feb. 20.

★ ★ ★

The 23rd running of the winter's first hundred grand handicap drew 24 foreign breds, representig England, Ireland, France, Argentina, Venezuela, New Zealand and Australia. The race is at a mile and a quarter.

Sword Dancer, Mrs. Isabel Dodge Sloane's Brookmeade Stable star, was champion 3-year-old in 1959 when he won $537,004. He won six stakes and is now in training at Hialeah.

★ ★ ★

Other standout American horses nominated include Bald Eagle, Easy Spur, Terra Firma, Talent Show, Dunce On and On, Air Pilot, Open View, and Royal Orbit.

Pro Coach Honor to Vin Lombardi

NEW YORK (AP)—Vinnie Lombardi, in his first year as head coach of the Green Bay Packers, today was voted coach of the year by National Football League writers in the annual Associated Press poll.

The 45-year-old tactician, who once served as Red Blaik's backfield coach at West Point, and helped the New York Giants to two Eastern titles, guided his team to a third place tie with San Francisco in the Western Conference with a 7-5 mark.

While Lombardi doesn't profess to be a miracle man, the Packers showing this past season cannot be described as anything less than a miracle. He took over a team which had won only one game, lost 10 and tied one in Green Bay's poorest season in its 40 years of professional football last year.

The little man with the build of a blacksmith steered his team to victories in its first three games and was carried off the field on the shoulders of his players after their opening game triumph over the Chicago Bears.

★ ★ ★

Lombardi received 29 of the 37 votes cast with four going to Jim Lee Howell of the Giants and two each going to Weeb Ewbank of Baltimore and Red Hickey of San Francisco. No other coach got a vote. Ewbank earned the award last year.

Lombardi took over as coach and general manager of the Packers last winter after five years as head coach and Verne Lewellen as general manager.

Lombardi, who first gained attention in football as a guard on the "Seven Blocks of Granite" in Fordham's football glory days, made a remarkable metamorphosis at Green Bay. He revamped the team almost completely, instilled morale, traded for or acquired eight players from rival teams, installed five rookies, and picked up two veterans who returned from the service. He hung onto only 22 men from last year. He concentrated on defense but he didn't ignore the running game.

Paul Hornung found himself under Lombardi. After two seasons at quarterback and fullback, the former Notre Dame All-America was switched to left halfback and became the key to Green Bay's offense. He led the league in scoring with 94 points.

★ ★ ★

Lamar McHan, who spent five largely undistinguished seasons toiling for the Chicago Cardinals, proved a first rate quarterback after Lombardi acquired him for a couple of 1960 draft choices. When McHan was hurt Vinnie switched to Bart Starr and he turned in a fine job.

Expect Weather, Crowd Advantage

Colts Resume Drills for Big Final Sunday

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Baltimore Colts returned to the practice field after a two-day rest today to prepare for their National Football League championship game here Sunday with the New York Giants.

Meanwhile, most of Baltimore seems more concerned with the rematch of last year's sudden-death Colt victory than with Christmas.

Lighted windows that used to spell out "Noel" in downtown buildings now say "Colts."

And a Colt-conscious Santa Claus, making the rounds of a shopping center with a small band failed to gain much attention with "Jingle Bells" but drew a cheering crowd when his players switched to the "Colt Marching Song."

Everyone is giving opinions of making predictions. Joe Tereshinski, who scouted both teams for the Washington Redskins, got in the act yesterday by rating the Colts a slight choice.

★ ★ ★

"Two things must be considered in making the Colts the favorites," said the former Redskin end. "Quarterback John Unitas needs a dry ball and a dry field, and the Baltimore fans with their whooping give the Colts an edge in their stadium."

The weatherman predicts a dry field, and there is no doubt the Colt fans will be on hand. Beside some 40,000 season ticket holders, 3,000 faithful stood in line most of Sunday night to gobble up 6,000 general admission tickets yesterday morning. The rest of the tickets — some 11,000 — went to the Giants and other league teams.

★ ★ ★

"Defensively speaking," said Tereshinski, "I like the experience and defensive play of the Baltimore line over New York. Linebacking rates about even with just a shade to New York, with the deep secondary nearly equal.

Not So With Easy-Going Badgers

Workouts Worry Huskies

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Both Rose Bowl teams planned workouts today and Washington Coach Jim Owens said he'd call on the Long Beach harbormaster, if necessary, to be sure he got a practice session.

The Huskies, who have taken up pre-game residence in Long Beach, had to drill on a damp turf yesterday. Rain had fallen during the night.

Informed that more unsettled weather could mar the double session scheduled for today, Owens looked up the harbormaster and made arrangements to use a vacant warehouse—just in case.

Owens is understandably concerned about conditioning. Rain was a problem in Seattle, too, and the team didn't get in as much work as the coach wanted before flying south.

The Wisconsin Badgers, quartered in Pasadena, aren't so worried. They got in some good licks in Madison and plan only one-a-day drills today and tomorrow.

The Badgers are using the East Los Angeles Junior College field for their warmups. This afternoon they were to tour Universal Studios. A trip to Disneyland is on tap tomorrow.

Hull 2nd in NHL Points

Horvath Leads by Only 1

MONTREAL (AP) — Bronco Horvath's once-mighty lead in the National Hockey League scoring race all but disappeared last week as the big guns of four other teams lined up right behind him at one-point intervals.

★ ★ ★

Official scoring statistics released today showed the Boston Bruins' center still on top with 21 goals—tops in that department—and 18 assists for 39 points.

One point behind was the NHL's current scoring sensation, the Chicago Black Hawks' Bobby Hull, who collected four goals and two assists in his team's three games last week to raise his total to 19-19—38. The splurge lifted him out of a fourth-place tie.

Horvath played in both Boston games but suffered through his first pointless week of the season. In front since Nov. 3, he held seven-point leads at two different stages.

★ ★ ★

Andy Bathgate, of New York, second a week ago, scored a goal and two assists but dropped to third with 37 points on 13 goals and a league-leading total of 24 assists.

The Montreal Canadiens' Jean Beliveau held on to fourth place with two goals and two assists to bring his record to 18-18—36.

The leaders:

Colts Plan on Floyd

BALTIMORE (AP) — Baltimore Colt Coach Weeb Ewbank said today he expects to use Don Floyd of Texas Christian, the Colts' latest addition for 1960, at either defensive end or offensive tackle.

The 6-3, 220-pound TCU tackle was the Colts' second draft choice. Club officials said he decided on the Colts of the National Football League despite bids from Houston's entry in the new American Football League.

Denver 'Jackrabbit' Hits 38 as 'M' Loses

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)— A 6-3 jackrabbit with an unerring jump-shot upset Michigan's visions of getting off on a modest winning streak last night.

The Wolverines, victors Saturday over Tennessee, had been favored over an in-and-out touring Denver quintet. But Jim Peay had different thoughts.

Peay pitched in 38 points — the most scored by an individual Wolverine opponent in several seasons—and Denver came fast at the end for a 71-65 victory. Michigan now has dropped four of its five games.

The lanky Denver sharpshooter connected on 16 field goals en route to his impressive point total.

Michigan's John Tidwell matched Peay most of the way, pouring in 31 points for the second straight game.

Michigan, behind 38-33 at half-time, pulled into a two-point lead with a seven-point spurt right after intermission. The game remained a nip-and-tuck affair until four minutes were left.

Then Peay scored on a driving layup, added two free throws and Denver was in command 63-59.

★ ★ ★

Peay's 38-point scoring spree was one of the hottest ever in ancient Yost Fieldhouse. Don Schlundt established the fieldhouse record when he scored 39 points for Indiana six years ago. M. C. Burton tallied 38 last year against Butler for the Wolverine high.

A last-ditch shot from 28 feet by Dave Lee sent Soo Tech into the finals of the Holiday Invitational tournament at Sault Ste. Marie last night.

Soo Tech led only once and that was when Lee's shot sent it ahead at the final buzzer for a 56-54 triumph over Alma College.

Central Michigan struggled to a 59-50 triumph over Alpena Community College and meets Soo Tech for the championship tonight. The two losers will pair off for third place in a preliminary game.

The Flint Junior College tournamem gets under way tonight. Defending champion Eastern Michigan plays Hillsdale and Aquinas meets host Flint JC.

Alma had led Soo Tech by 11 points with five minutes left only to watch its lead wither away. Dan Owczarzak topped Soo Tech with 17 points. Jim Northrup, Ferris Saxton and Joe Wzwak shared Alma's scoring honors with 11 points each.

Gary Lee was Central Michigan's big gun with 19 points. The Chips led most of the way, but never had a comfortable lead. Jim Gunderson was high for Alpena with 16 points.

Brigham Young Snaps State's Streak at Four

Victors Break Up Tie for 79-75 Triumph; California Next

PROVO, Utah (AP)—Michigan State had every right to figure on winning its fifth straight basketball game last night and until the final 34 seconds it looked like it would.

The Spartans were unbeaten in four games and are ranked 11th nationally in the latest Associated Press poll. Brigham Young, their third opponent on a four-game Western jaunt, had lost five straight.

But with the score tied 75-75, Gary Ernst sank two free throws and in the next 34 seconds added a field goal as Brigham Young upset the Spartans 79-75.

The Spartans were confronted with a tough zone defense. But they seemed to have it cracked when the Cougars sprang ahead for the upset triumph.

★ ★ ★

Horace Walker and Art Gowens were drifting through the zone to do most of the Spartan scoring. Walker connected for 20 points, two more than Gowens. But Lance Olson, who'd been averaging close to 22 points, was missing from outside the zone. He ended up with a mere 12 points.

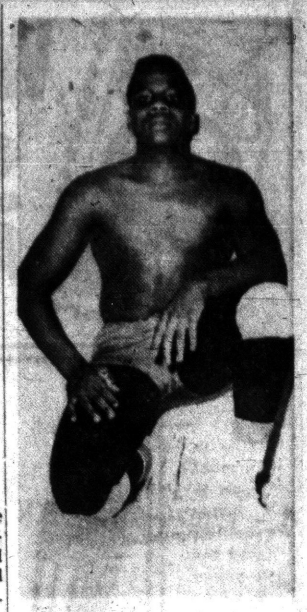

Ernst topped Brigham Young with 21 points.

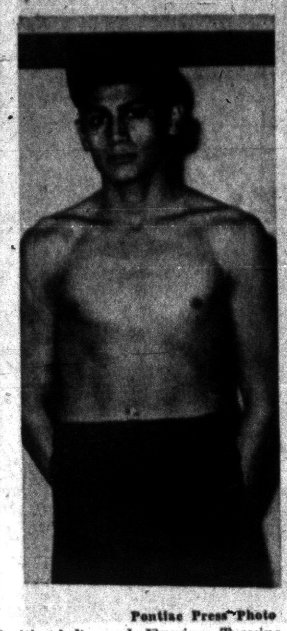

Michigan State had a better shooting percentage than the Cougars. The Spartans connected on 48 per cent of their shots to Brigham Young's 41 per cent. But the Cougars took more shots, and out-rebounded the Spartans by a slight margin.

Michigan State had defeated Bowling Green, Notre Dame, Nebraska and Wyoming before running into its nemesis.

The Spartans continue on to Berkeley, Calif., for a game against NCAA champion California tomorrow. Cal is coached by Pete Newell, former coach of the Spartans.

WANT REVENGE—Henry Smith, left, and Ermino Trevino will be among the Chiefs going after revenge when Central hosts Pontiac Northern in a city wrestling battle tonight at 7:30 at the PCH gym. The Huskies won their only previous match a year ago by two points.

City Mat Teams Battle Tonight at PCH, 7:30

All is in readiness for tonight's big city wrestling battle matching the strong squads of host Pontiac Central and Pontiac Northern.

The action will start at 7:30 in the PCH gymnasium with a close battle expected in the 2nd meeting between the schools in the mat sport.

Northern made history last winter with a 24-22 upset making its debut in varsity competition.

It was the Huskies first victory over a Chief team in anything. And that still stands since no Northern team has beaten Central since.

★ ★ ★

Another big factor in tonight's match will be the chance to gain points towards winning the rotating Pontiac Press all-sports trophy — an award determined by the records of the schools against each other throughout the season.

Both teams went through light workouts yesterday following a rugged weekend in the Southeastern Michigan tournament. Several city matmen were standouts at Allen Park paced by Chief 154-pounder Sam Wiscombe and Northern's Winfred Miracle and Jerry Heard.

Miracle will miss tonight's long-awaited return duel due to a pulled muscle suffered Saturday in the consolation finals. Two Chiefs have been nursing bruises but are expected to be ready. Soph Don Ross will replace Miracle.

★ ★ ★

Bill Willson, who started wrestling at PCH before moving to Northern, predicts only "that it will be close." Steve Szabo, Central boss and Willson's former aide, agrees figuring a break could decide the outcome.

The teams clash again at the Huskie court Jan. 19.

AJBC Eliminations Set for Dec. 29 at Lakewood

An Oakland County eliminations tournament to determine area representatives in the 13th annual American Junior Bowling Congress event will be held Dec. 29 at Lakewood Lanes.

Keglers in three age divisions will be eligible to compete in singles and doubles for local prizes and the chance to shoot for national honors.

Co-directors Bob Brown and Virginia Menzies have set 2 p.m. on Dec. 28 as the dealine for entries. Interested keglers can register in person or call Lakewood Lanes.

The divisions for bowling will be: Bantam (12 and under); Juniors (13-15); and Seniors (16 to 18).

★ ★ ★

Bantams wil bowl two games each. All others will roll three. Singles will start the program at 10 a.m.

Birth dates and averages must be presented upon signing up for the meet. If there is more than one average, the highest will be used.

Only keglers who have bowled nine games in a sanctioned AJBC league are eligible to advance to the nationals but anyone can shoot for county honors.

★ ★ ★

If a non-AJBC member should win, the highest scores among the sanctioned contestants will decide the national entries.

Lakewood proprietor Bill Kuklinski has donated a trophy for the tourneys. Others are expected to be added.

Owen Scouts for Braves

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves Monday announced the appointment of Bill Marshall as Braves' supervisor in the northwest part of the country.

Marv Owen, former Detroit star, was assigned to scout the same area under Marshall.

GETS LIFE-SAVING AWARD — Exclusive distinction as the first woman employe ever to achieve the General Motors life-saving award is held by Mrs. Gertrude Wall of Pontiac Motor Division. For recent heroic action she was presented with a gold watch and certificate of appreciation from S. E. Knudsen (left), Pontiac general manager and vice president of General Motors. Looking on is K. S. Hedges, GM safety director.

She's 1st Woman to Get GM's Lifesaving Award

The first General Motors lifesaving award preseintation to a woman employe has been made to Mrs. Gertrude Wall of Pontiac Motor D ivision, it was announced today by S. E. Knudsen, Pontiac general manager and GM vice president.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Wall, a plating plant employe, received a gold watch and certificate of appreciation for her successful efforts in saving the life of fellow employe Henry Moran.

The emergency arose on a plating plant catwalk as Moran suffered initial dizziness of a heart attack. After seating the stricken man in a chair, the woman proceeded to a telephone to summon assistance.

Before the call was completed, Mrs Wall saw Moran topple forward into the elevator section of a plating machine.

Mrs. Wall promptly pulled an emergency stop cable, preventing an imminent down movement of heavy rack equipment on top of Moran.

The quick-thinking Mrs. Wall becomes the seventh Pontiac employe to be honored for life saving. GM has recognized 134 employes since the award was inaugurated in 1944.

Kidproof Bottle Cap Frustrates Junior

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI)—Two-year-old Keith Christian, like most children his age, likes to unscrew bottle caps.

But Keith can't get anywhere with the pill bottles in the medicine chest at his home. He can't bite, flip or unscrew the covers because they are protected with a foolproof cap designed by his father.

Kenneth Christian, a barber by profession, is an inventor on theside. The patent on the safety cap is pending in Washington and he has a plastic manufacturer lined up to make it.

Glassware Gift Will Please All

Milk Tumblers for Kids, Tall Coolers for Those Party-Giving Friends

A lady poet complains that no matter what Christmas gifts she buys they are bound to be too small, too large, or the wrong color.

For this woman and others with the same problem there is a simple secret to save wear and tear on frazzled nerves.

Decide on a one-category, one-department gift for anyone on the list from maiden Aunt Hattie to bachelor Bob.

There's a trick to this, however. Your one-gift-for-everyone must be something beautiful as well as useful.

An item that fills such a requirement is glassware.

Here are a few sample suggestions for women:

For the mother of young children — sets of decorated tumblers to encourage the small fry to drink their milk.

★ ★ ★

For bridge-playing hostesses — eight-piece caddy sets to take care of two tables nicely.

For frequent party-givers — gaily decorated sets of tumblers or tall coolers.

CHRISTMAS PANIC melts with one-department shopping. Glassware gifts are lasting thoughts for all on list. Gifts for men (left to right top) are English hi-ball, cocktail, marine life 10-ounce beverage and pilsner. For women (bottom) frosted beverage, 1818 cut stemware sherbet-champagne, Yorktown goblet and continental cup.

Hal Boyle Says:

'Nuts' Symbolizes Greatest WW II Stand

NEW YORK (AP) — Fifteen years ago today a U.S. brigadier general became the first soldier in history to win military immortality with a four-letter word.

The word was "Nuts!" and the man who said it—and later came to hate the word—now feels it changed his whole life.

BOYLE

This bit of American slang, delivered as a defiant reply to a German surrender demand, infuriated a Nazi army. It set the Allied world rocking with laughter and pride.

★ ★ ★

Today it is still the best remembered symbol of the greatest engagement fought by American troops in World War II —the Battle of the Bulge in Belgium.

The battle, personally planned by Adolf Hitler in a last-ditch gamble, began at 5 a.m. Dec. 16, 1944, with a bombardment by 1,900 German artillery pieces.

The Nazis, attacking with 250,000 troops and 1,000 tanks through the Allied "rest camp" area in the Ardennes, achieved complete tactical surprise.

McAULIFFE HELD

The acting commander, Anthony (Old Crock) McAuliffe and the 101st Airborne Division were rushed by truck to Bastogne. There, strongly supported by elements of the U.S. 9th and 10th Armored Divisions, McAuliffe held the vital Belgium road center against frantic German breakthrough efforts.

★ ★ ★

The enemy couldn't bypass him. They had to destroy his force to go on. And if they couldn't go on their cause was lost.

It was a bloody battle fought in a frigid hell. The U.S. forces cheerfully gave the map code name "Merry Christmas" to the 20-square mile area they held that blocked the gigantic German advance.

By Dec. 22, McAuliffe and his 10,000 men were surrounded by seven Nazi divisions and outnumbered four to one.

Through the morning gloom four German soldiers carrying a white flag trudged up to an outpost three miles south of Bastogne.

They carried a message which said: "The fortune of war is changing. There is only one possibility to save the encircled U.S.A. troops from total annihilation. That is the honorable surrender of the encircled town.

'READY TO ANNIHILATE'

"If this proposal should be rejected, one German artillery corps and six heavy battalions are ready to annihilate the U.S.A. troops in and near Bastogne.

"All the serious civilian losses caused by this artillery fire would not correspond with the well-known American humanity."

The four Germans, blindfolded by their own truce flag, were scrawled reply: "To the German commander Nuts! The American Commander."

When one of the Germans who spoke English complained he didn't understand the message, he was told it meant "go to hell." He said he understood this, and the four were blindfolded again and led away.

★ ★ ★

The battle raged on for more than four days and four nights until an armored column from Gen. George Patton's 3rd broke through and lifted the siege.

But the heroes of Bastogne always insisted they had never been rescued—and no rescue was ever necessary.

"The whole thing was just our dish," said McAuliffe. "We were giving the Germans the licking of their lives."

CALL HIM 'CROCK'

"Old Crock," a square-jawed, 5-foot-5 soldier who weighed only 135 pounds, performed heroically before and after the Bastogne siege. After the war he rose steadily in the service until he retired in 1956 as a full general commanding the U.S. Army in Europe. He is now a vice president of the American Cyanamid Co.

Although over the years he had to tell the Bastogne story so often he shuddered when anyone at a cocktail party passed the nuts, he now is reconciled to the word "nuts!"

★ ★ ★

A modest man, he feels it was his spur-of-the-moment choice of this odd one-word classic answer that helped send him later up the Army ladder.

At the time of the Bastogne siege he wore a brigadier's star but his permanent rank was that of colonel.

Last week, mellow, handsome and graying at 61, "Tony" McAuliffe philosophically told a reunion at the overseas Press Club here: "Except for the word 'nuts' I'd probably have been known only as a competent combat colonel. Sometimes you have to have more than competence—you have to have a bit of luck."

Then, paying tribute to the troops under him who halted the baffled German tide in the snow at Bastogne 15 years ago, he said:

"All you can do as a commander is to put the men out there and hope they'll do their stuff. They are the ones."

86 Per Cent of Voters in Chicago Suburb Are Stirred by Referendum

DEERFIELD, Ill. (AP) — The village park board, with $550,000 at its disposal, meets tonight to map plans for acquisition of the site of a planned interracial housing subdivision in this all - white suburban community.

★ ★ ★

The park board wants to buy the land from the builders with funds voted Monday in a village referendum. A record 86 per cent of the eligible voters in this Chicago suburb of 10,000 turned out to give a 2 - 1 approval to the board's $550,000 bond issue referendum.

The board plans to add six tracts of land to the village park system, including two that make up the proposed integrated Floral Park project.

Although the ballot contained only a "yes" or "no" on the bond issue, the vote was regarded as a censure of the Floral Park project in which the builders said 10 to 12 of the 51 homes would be sold to Negroes.

The builders, Progress Development Corp., have indicated no desire to sell the Floral Park land. They already have rejected one park board offer of $166,999.

★ ★ ★

Park Board President James Mitchell has said that if the land can't be purchased, the board would instigate condemnation proceedings. A long court fight appeared probable.

Mixed Market Skirts Record

NEW YORK (AP) — Steels, motors and electronics made gains in a mixed stock market early this afternoon. Trading was moderately active.

Key stocks showed gains or losses of fractions to about a point.

A scattering of selected stocks, particularly among the electronics, did better, scoring gains of 2 or 3 points.

Turnover was down considerably from yesterday when the Dow Jones industrial average for the second time in a week failed to hold a gain which would have put it above the closing record high.

The overall business background was good and 1960 forecasts by industrial leaders were optimistic. The market warmed up appreciably after a very inconclusive start but the overall picture was uneven.

Most of the coppers moved a bit higher following news of a price boost for the red metal by a big Belgian producer. Oils, rails, electrical equipments and most chemicals drifted off.

Hope of a steel strike settlement perked up again with the agreement by steel management to company-by-company negotiations. Jones & Laughlin picked up more than 2 points, Republic Steel more than a point and U.S. Steel about a point.

Chrysler recovered about a point. Ford and General Motors added fractions. American Motors was around a point higher.

Renewed buying put Motorola and General Time up about 3 apiecve Haveg and Beckman Instruments added more than 2 apiece.

Anaconda and Phelps Dodge gained fractions while Kennecott remained easy. Aluminums did better, Alcoa advancing about 2 and Reynolds Metals more than a point.

A raised dividend for Gimbels was followed by a 1-point rise but the stock quickly canceled the gain and traded at a fractional loss.

Hart Likes Ike's Trip but Urges Alertness

LANSING (AP)—President Eisenhower's peace mission to Europe and Asia was described today as "good for all of us" by U.S. Sen. Philip A. Hart (D-Mich).

★ ★ ★

But we must not be lulled by "the Khrushchev smile and smiling Asians," Hart said in a report to his Michigan constituents.

"I have never had any doubt that the President's warmth projects through," Hart said.

"Certainly, some people in other lands would know America only as portrayed by Hollywood and that's not very good sometimes."

"After seeing the President," Hart added, "they must think that we are a people of warmth and sincerity and a people that genuinely seeks peace.

"For this reason, among others, I think this trip is good for all of us."

'BIG BROTHER' — Brig. Gen. Ariel Neilsen has rescinded his new surveilance policy at Forbes Air Force Base in Topeka, Kan. The policy, which assigned noncommissioned officers to supervise airmen's activities off as well as on the base, came under heavy fire in Washington where some officials thought it resembled a "big brother" arrangement. General Neilsen said his order was "misunderstood."

Grain Future Prices Steady, Trade Slow

CHICAGO (AP)—Trading in grain futures opened slowly today at mostly steady prices. Wheat was slightly lower and soybeans firm.

The market lacked any new significant influences and dealers said the meager transactions appeared to be toward consolidating new positions since expiration of trading in the December contract yesterday.

Commercial business was virtually absent and expected to continue so throughout the holiday weeks.

After about an hour wheat was ¼ to ¾ cent a bushel lower, March $2.00⅞; corn ⅛ to ⅜ lower, March $1.12⅛; oats unchanged to ⅜ lower, March 74⅝; rye ½ higher to ½ lower, March $1.26½; soybeans unchanged to ¼ higher, January $2.09.

Illness Claims George Marble

Real Estate Broker in Waterford Area for 40 Years, Dies at 69

Following an eight-week illness, George Marble, 69, of 4071 Lotus Dr., Waterford Township, died Monday at his home.

★ ★ ★

A member of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Drayton Plains, he had been a real estate broker in the Waterford area 40 years.

He belonged to the Waterford-Drayton Rotary Club, Pontiac Real Estate Board and was a life member of Mason's Lodge 21, Pontiac.

Mr. Marble was also on the executive board of the Crippled Children's Society and had been a member of the Waterford Board of Education.

★ ★ ★

Survivors include his wife, Ruth; four daughters, Mrs. George Petrell of Fresno, Calif., Mrs. William Dupee of Drayton Plains, Janette and Grace, both at home; and three sons, George P. of Ortonville, James W. of Great Falls, Mont., and Ralph C. of Waterford.

Also surviving are a brother and 14 grandchildren.

Service will be Thursday at 1:30 p. m. at Sharpe-Goyette Funeral Home, Clarkston, with burial in Oakhill Cemetery.

★ ★ ★

Donations may be made to the Crippled Children's Society, the family said.

Sewer Plant Operator Hired

Waterford Twp. Board Approve F. L. Vermette for Full-Time Post

At a brief Waterford Township Board meeting last night, members approved the hiring of Floyd L. Vermette, 45, of 186 East Boulevard, as the township's first full-time sewer plant operator.

★ ★ ★

Vermette, a licensed sewer treatment operator and registered engineer, will assume his new duties Jan. 4 with a starting salary of $8,000.

Before becoming a self-employed civil engineer recently, Vermette served as a chemist, superintendent of water supply and superintendent of sewage treatment for the city of Pontiac.

In other business, a hearing date for establishment of a special assessment district for blacktopping part of LaSalle street was set for Jan. 11. Another hearing for Meigs street will be held Jan. 18.

★ ★ ★

All property owners involved will be notified of the hearings by mail and will be given an approximate total of individual assessments.

★ ★ ★

The Board approved transfer of a 1959 class B hotel and dance permit from the Stanton Langs estate to Rollin Francis of Detroit for the Waterford Hotel at 5803 Dixie Hwy.

Clerk James Seeterlin was authorized to purchase $1,000 water revenue bonds which were incurred in 1952. By retiring the bonds the township will be saved $64 in interest charged, it was pointed out.

CHARGED BY HUSBAND — A divorce sought by the Earl of Shrewsbury and his wife, left, was denied by a London judge on the grounds that both gave false testimony. The Earl charged his wife had committed adultery with their children's tutor, Gerald A. Lowther, right. The countess petitioned for a divorce on the grounds that her husband also had committed adultery.

Sparkling Welcome Prepared for Ike

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Hundreds of dignitaries and thousands of other Americans will give President Eisenhower a cheering, torchlight welcome home tonight from his Christmas season quest for peace on earth.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon will head the estimated 500 to 600 U.S. and foreign officials who will greet Eisenhower at nearby Andrews Air Force Base, Md. Nixon has urged Americans to give the chief executive an enthusiastic reception when he returns from "this terribly hard schedule in the service of the cause of peace."

The President's luxurious four-engine jetliner was scheduled to land at 10:50 p.m. EST, bringing him home from his exhausting 11-nation, 23,000-mile mission in time to spend Christmas with his family.

After simple ceremonies at the airport, 15 miles from the capital, Eisenhower will ride to the White House along the same route taken by Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev in September. Throngs of applauding, well-wishers were expected to line his path.

When he reaches the executive mansion, the President will be greeted by a spectacular display of 15,000 giant sparklers, highlight of a gala welcome.

City officials went ahead with plans for the torchlight display in Lafayette Park, just across Pennsylvania avenue from the White House, despite a warning from fire safety spokesmen that the 36-inch sparklers were "dangerous and illegal."

Loudspeakers have been installed to notify the crowd when the President is nearing the executive mansion. The plan calls for the sparklers to be lit all at once as a brilliant tribute to Eisenhower's pre-Christmas journey in search of peace.

Tomorrow Eisenhower will light the national community Christmas tree in a park behind the White House. He was expected to discuss his trip in his Christmas message to the nation on radio and television.

There was some brief hesitation over using the yard-long sparklers tonight. But District Commissioner Robert McLaughlin approved their use for a public ceremony.

They were purchased at Havre de Grace, Md., inasmuch as no stores in Washington are allowed to sell sparklers longer than 20 inches.

Safety precautions for the ceremony have been taken. The sparklers will be distributed by 150 Boy Scouts who have been specially trained to demonstrate their safe use. Police, fire and Red Cross units will be on hand.

★ ★ ★

Despite these precautions, Percy Bugbee, general manager of the National Fire Protection Assn., wired district commissioners protesting the use of the giant sparklers in the ceremony.

★ ★ ★

Bugbee said in Boston that the sparklers were "dangerous and illegal." He said the association's files contain "scores of reports of deaths, serious injuries, and disfigurements" caused by giant sparklers.

U.N. Official to Head MSU Project in Pakistan

EAST LANSING (UPI)—Richard O. Niehoff, a United Nations official, will head Michigan State University's project in Pakistan.

MSU, along with the Pakistan government and Ford Foundation, is providing advisory assistance in the development of two academies, one in East Pakistan and the other in West Pakistan.

Since 1958 Niehoff has been with the U.N. Technical Assistance Administration in Ethiopia where he is director of the Imperial Ethiopian Institute of Public Administration.

Won't Be Tried Till February

3 Accused of Robbery, Shooting Stand Mute at Arraignment

Armed robbery charges probably won't be tried until February against the trio which, police said, robbed a young Highland Township gas station attendant, who was shot in the back by one of the bandits.

★ ★ ★

All three appeared before Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland yesterday for arraignment.

Pleas of innocent were entered in each instance after attorneys said their clients would stand mute.

Judge Holland lowered the $25,000 bonds to $5,000 for the youngest members of the trio, Theodore A. Mendoza, 16, and Carroll L. Lay, 17, both of Lake Orion, upon request of their attorneys.

HOOD'S NOT LOWERED

The $25,000 bond, however, for Victor L. Hood, 26, of Pontiac, the accused gunman, remained.

Hood, an ex-convict, is accused of being the ringleader of the threesome which robbed Frankie D. Newton, 19, in a gas station Nov. 30.

Newton, at an examination at Pontiac General Hospital Friday, picked Hood out as the one who shot him in the back, leaving him paralyzed from the waist down.

★ ★ ★

Milton R. Henry, Mendoza's attorney, requested Judge Holland lower the minor's bond to $5,000, saying the bonds were set in the lower court as high as they were "until it was determined whether he (Newton) was going to die or not."

"There's hardly any question of him dying now," Henry said.

Juvenile Court Judge Arthur E. Moore last week waived jurisdiction over Mendoza.

ALL STILL IN JAIL

As of this morning, neither Mendoza nor Lay had posted their smaller $5,000 bonds. Hood, too, remained in jail.

★ ★ ★

Following Monday's arraignment before a standing-room-crowd in the courtroom, Chief Assistant Prosecutor Robert D. Long said the earliest the three could be tried would be February when the next jury is impaneled.

Deadly Chromium Pollutes Raisin River

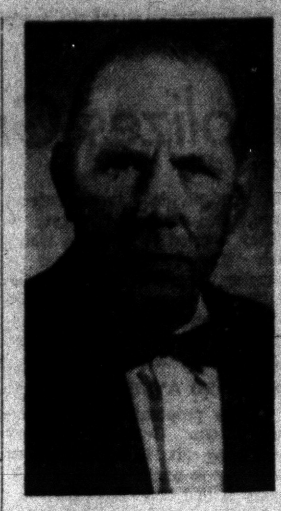

LANSING (AP)—A deadly slug of chromium waste dumped accidentally into the Raisin River at Adrian has endangered water supplies of three communities, Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner, said today.

State health authorities and staffers for the water resources commission are following the solution downstream to prevent it from contaminating drinking water, Heustis said.

★ ★ ★

The waste is due to arrive at Blissfield late this afternoon, then continue toward Deerfield and Dundee. The river empties into Lake Erie at Monroe, which gets its water from the lake.

Heustis was unable to immediately identify the plant from which the waste was dumped. He said it contained 10 parts chromium per million parts waters. A solution of five-hundredths parts per million is considered unsafe, he said.

ERIC H. FRANZEN

Eric H. Franzen of 354 W. Wattles Rd., Troy, was installed last night as High Priest of Birmingham Chapter 93, Royal Arch Masons. He is a member of Trelum Lodge 552 F&AM. Other officers installed were Calvin Blankinship, king; Clarence McRill, scribe; Alex Busby, treasurer; and Dwight Hurlbut, secretary.

Touhy Killing Probe Fades

Charge Chicago Police Let Hoodlums Slip Out of Town After Slaying

CHICAGO (UPI)—Police turned back to "scientific methods", today in a search for the killers of Roger Touhy, but an anticrime leader said the hunt faded away as Chicago's hoodlums faded out.

Virgil Peterson, head of the Chicago Crime Commission, charged that police didn't act fast enough to prevent hoodlums from slipping out of town for the holidays.

He said this was typical of gangland investigations.

Police, with hardly an important underworld figure to question about one of the most important gangland slayings in recent years, could only concentrate on the few physical clews to last Wednesday's murder.

Every year well-heeled gangsters leave Chicago to visit their families in Florida or California for the holidays, but Peterson said they might have left a bit early this year.

"At least 10 or 12 were seen around after the slaying, but they're not here now," Peterson said.

"The public just doesn't seem to care," he said. "Sure, there's a big fuss and large headlines right after a killing, but then it all quiets down. What we need is sustained public opinion and that seems almost impossible."

Touhy, 61, was gunned down on the porch of his sister's home only 23 days after being paroled from a prison where he had served 25 years on conviction of kidnaping John (Jake the Barber) Factor.

Gets Jail Term in Softener Theft

Judge Beer Imposes Sentence on Former Area Resident

Circuit Judge William J. Beer yesterday imposed a six month to four year prison sentence upon Emmett F. Delaney, a former West Bloomfield Township resident who sold another company's water softeners to help his dwindling softener business.

Delaney, 60, now of Lincoln Park, pleaded guilty Nov. 2 to larceny from a building.

He was accused of stealing a number of softeners over a six-month period which another firm had stored in its warehouse at 32385 Northwestern Hwy.

Delaney and his two sons, Robert M., 29, and Edward F., 39, of Toledo, also were accused in Detroit of passing a number of bad checks to keep their Rite-Way Softener Service in business.

Also pending against the three are charges, issued out of the Oakland County Prosecutor's Office, of obtaining money under false pretenses. Two civil suits against the trio also are pending here.

Prosecutor George F. Taylor said the two sons and their father are still awaiting sentence in Wayne County Circuit Court for issuing checks without sufficient funds. All three pleaded guilty Nov. 23.

News in Brief

Clifford Pollard, 60 Douglas St., reported to Pontiac police Saturday that someone stole an aluminum suitcase, valued at $50, which he had left inside the front door of the apartment building.

Mrs. William Beatty, 359 W. Iroquois Rd., reported to Pontiac police Saturday that someone broke into her home by forcing a door, then stole Christmas presents valued at $60.

Mrs. Blanche O'Neil, 27 Hudson Ave., reported to Pontiac Police Saturday that someone stole two purses containing $25 from her home. The intruder entered through an unlocked door.

Someone broke into the Quick Clean Laundro-Mat at 220 S. Telegraph Rd. and stole an undetermined amount of change from vending machines, it was reported to Pontiac police yesterday.

Burglars took $814 in cash and checks from a safe in the Trans-American Freight Lines office, 267 S. Blvd. E., it was reported to Pontiac Police yesterday.

James Jones, 18 Lull St., reported to Pontiac police Sunday the theft of a watch valued at $550.

Two Area Men Sent to Prison in Drive-In Theft

Jackson Prison sentences of 3 to 15 years were handed down yesterday to Lawrence J. Achten, 17, of 124 Myron St., Ortonville, and Phillip E. Brooks, 19, of 4980 Grange Hall Rd., Holly.

They pleaded guilty Dec. 8 to the armed robbery of the Hilltop Drive-In in Springfield Township. The pair, along with another man, were tagged as the burlap sack robbers.

They took $35 from the cash register during the Nov. 19 robbery after forcing the waitress into a back room.

Achten and Brooks were sentenced by Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland.

The third accused robber, Lawrence P. Scott, 22, of 121 Bird Rd., Ortonville, yesterday stood mute when arraigned before Judge Holland on the same charge. A plea of innocent was entered by the judge for him.

His arraignment had been delayed as he was remanded back to justice court for examination.

His Country's Restless, Though

Morocco's Chief a Peacemaker

By STEPHEN HUGHES

RABAT, Morocco (AP)—King Mohammed V of Morocco, host to President Eisenhower today, is a mild mannered moderate who has spent much of his reign trying to calm the passions of extremists.

He once was shipped off to a two-year exile when the French were masters of the country. His prestige was so great among his people that France finally called him back to the throne and gave Morocco its independence.

Nominally, Mohammed is the absolute civil and religious ruler of his nation, slightly larger than California and its 10 million inhabitants.

In practice he never has been able to wield this authority fully. For many years he could only rubber-stamp decisions by the French. Now he must fight his way through the political intrigue by ill-defined political parties.

As 18th ruler of the Alaouis dynasty, he traces his ancestry to Ali son-in-law of the founder of Islam, the prophet Mohammed.

Now 50, Mohammed was elected Sultan of Morocco at 18, after his father died. The election was by the ulemas, the learned doctors of Islamic law. The throne stays within the Alaouis family but does not automatically pass to the eldest son.

NO NATIONAL ELECTIONS

National elections never have been held. Political leaders gained their stature during their fight for independence from France, and there is little way of telling how much popular support they have.

★ ★ ★

This leaves the king the delicate task of mediating fierce political infighting.

Through the years of struggle for independence, Mohammed proceeded at an unhurried pace. After his return from exile, Spain also agreed to withdraw from its area of occupation and the 12-power control over Tangier was dropped.

The result has been that Mohammed and Morocco have managed to keep on friendly terms with France and Spain, although conflicts still erupt.

KING MOHAMMED V

The king—he discarded the title of sultan in favor of what he considered a more up to date title—has 10 rambling baroque places at his disposal. But he seldom lives away from the sprawling palace at Rabat, with its colorful Negro bodyguard, a fleet of 35 American cars, tennis courts, gymnasium and swimming pool.

Mohammed has two of the four wives allowed by Moslem law and is the father of six children of whom the eldest, Prince Moulay Hassan, is crown prince. He also keeps several concubines, but in Moslem eyes this only adds to his stature.

A slight man, Mohammed has walked with a bit of a stoop since undergoing two abdominal operations. He is most often seen in a flowing floor length jellebah with its hood for protection from the cool wind over Morocco. He often wears a felt tarboosh and almost always the belgha slippers, open at the heel, made of sheepskin.

Mohammed had dinner with President Franklin D. Roosevelt during the Allied conference at Casablanca in January 1943. Sir Winston Churchill noted it was a "dry, alas" meal. Mohammed, as a devout Moslem, does not drink alcohol and Roosevelt had decided it would affront the guest of honor to serve liquor.

In 1957, Mohammed crossed the United States on an official visit.

Ike Plays Santa to Spanish Tot

MADRID (AP) — President Eisenhower played Santa Claus to a cute little Spanish girl today. He gave her a doll and got a big kiss in exchange.

Roa Maria Jimenez Calvo, 7, wrote to Eisenhower and said she wanted to kiss a good - looking grandpa—her description of the American chief executive.

★ ★ ★

The President arranged with U. S. Ambassador John Davis Lodge to have Rosa brought to him.

Tiny and sleepy-eyed, the little girl showed up with her parents at 7:30 a.m. today at Moncloa Palace, where Eisenhower was an overnight guest of the Spanish government. Rosa was standing at the foot of an ornate staircase as the President came down to start a busy day taking him to Morocco and then home to Washington.

★ ★ ★

Photographers' lights momentarily blinded Eisenhower as he stopped to shake hands with the tot, who greeted him shyly in Spanish.

"Let's get over here out of these lights where you and I can talk," said the President, taking Rosa's hand.

To Take Property of Castro Plotters

HAVANA (UPI) — The cabinet announced approval early today of a new law authorizing the confiscation of property owned by persons convicted of plotting against Premier Fidel Castro's government.

Castro announced in a telecast Sunday night that the new law was in the works.

Earlier, it had been reported that the attorney who defended Austin Young of Miami against charges of anti-government plotting has been arrested in connection with Young's escape from prison.

Reports from the western provincial capital of Pinar del Rio said Jorge Bacallao, the attorney, is being held in an army intelligence jail. Details of the charges against him have not been made public.

State GOP Eyes $1,250,000 Fund for Campaigns

LANSING (UPI) — "Political campaigning these days costs a lot of money," a Republican party official said today, and to prove it announced that $1,250,000 would be raised for the state and national election campaigns in Michigan this year.

Don E. Ahrens, Republican State Finance Committee chairman said about $450,000 of the goal would go for the national campaign.

He said the first major fund-raising campaign would come Jan. 27 with a "Dinner with Ike" program with other dinners set for Lansing, Ishpeming, Muskegon, St. Joseph, Jackson, Battle Creek, Detroit, Flint, Saginaw and Port Huron.

Summit Plans Boost Macmillan

LONDON (UPI) — The Western summit invitations to Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev brought an extra bonus of Christmas cheers today in Britain for Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Britons recalled that Macmillan had been doggedly plugging away at the need for a summit meeting almost since Khrushchev delivered his "get-out-of-West Berlin" ultimatum more than a year ago.

They recalled also that Macmillan, since his visit with President Eisenhower last spring, had urged not just one meeting at the top but a "continuous chain of summits."

The average family washes 45,600 dishes every year. Not so the 425,000 families who purchased electric dish washers in 1958. To sell more appliances of all kinds, manufacturers of housing equipment and supplies invested $28,297,000 in daily newspapers last year.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF LaVerne Cranston who passed away December 22, 1951.
Do not ask us if we miss him,
Life for us is not the same;
All the world would be like heaven,
Just to see him once again.
Sadly missed by Daughters and families.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR dear mother, Gladys Kernshner, who passed away Dec. 22, 1942.
What is home without a mother?
All things this world may send,
But when I lost my darling mother,
I lost my dearest friend.
Sadly missed by Jere, Bud, Janet, David, Ronnie and Joyce.

Guinea Newest African Nation

Economy Still Shaky, but Natural Resources Boom Will Come

WASHINGTON—The republic of Guinea, once the major stronghold of European slave traders, is Africa's newest nation.

The young country stands on shaky economic legs, following the withdrawal of French technical assistance. However, prosperity looms on the horizon. Guinea's soil may contain the world's largest deposits of bauxite; American, Canadian, and European aluminum companies are investing heavily in development projects.

Iron ore abounds. Diamonds have been discovered. Alluvial gold lures some 100,000 natives to pan the stream beds.

The Oregon-sized country on Africa's western bulge has a population of about 2,500,000, the National Geographic Society says. Perhaps 80 per cent of the inhabitants are Moslem.

A rich variety of peoples and climates characterizes Guinea. Negro farmers cultivate the tropical Atlantic coastal region. Arabs and Berbers have mixed with the peoples of the cool interior plateau. Pastoral Fulahs of Hamitic origin graze large herds of sheep, goats, and cattle in the palm-clad mountains of Fouta Djallon.

Guinea begins where Atlantic surf pounds gray sand beaches. Palms and giant kapok trees, festooned with colonies of fruit bats, fringe the coast. River channels meander seaward through vast mangrove swamps.

Conakry, Guinea's capital and chief port, is a sleepy town of white colonial houses and African shacks, nestling among clumps of red hibiscus and mango trees on the island of Tombo.

Father inland, Soussou tribesmen cultivate oil palms, banana, and rubber trees. Rice and millet are local staples of diet.

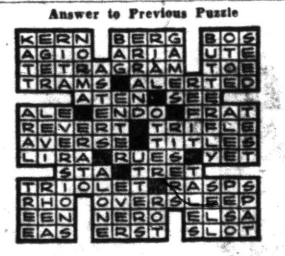

In the southeast lie dense rain forests inhabited by the primitive Tomas. Curiously, boys of this tribe are incarcerated for two years in wicker cages before being initiated into manhood.

★ ★ ★

Beyond the coastal plain, the country rises to grassy uplands, the livestock domain of 800,000 Fulahs. Peanuts are grown extensively in drier areas.

Some fetishism lingers on in Guinea, but with an Islamic touch.

SECRET HEARING — An involved secret court action was begun Monday in London. The American-born second Duchess of Argyll, right, has petitioned the court to have the third and present Duchess, left, committed to prison. The second wife of the 56-year-old Duke married a New York banker after her divorce. The Duke has filed for divorce from his current wife, the former wife of a U. S. financier. The judge banned publication of the proceedings.

'Booking' of Santa Claus Stirs Mixed 'Reactions'

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — The song, and the season, tell us Santa Claus is coming to town.

Is it possible that he, too, will be enticed into doing a "guest shot" on TV?

★ ★ ★

Here are some imaginary reactions to this booking as contrived by one observer:

Bill Cullen: "There is no Santa Claus. There is only Goodson-Todman."

Dr. Frank Stanton: "Will this TV appearance be live or on tape?"

Charley Weaver: "I hear Santa's been getting letters from Mama, too."

Dennis (Chester) Weaver: "There is no Santa Claus. There is only Mr. Dillon."

★ ★ ★

Bud Collyer: "Will the real Santa Claus please shake his belly like a bowlful of jelly?"

Bob Hope: "Santa Claus? I knew him when his name was Kid Payola."

Robert Lishman, counsel of the House Commerce legislative oversight subcommittee: "I notice Mr. Claus has been getting a great many free plugs on TV lately."

Ed Wynn: "I hope he gets his own show. He's one of the finest young men I know."

Dick Clark: "Santa can do a walk-on, carrying Fabian in his sack."

★ ★ ★ ★

Perry Como: "Do I get to shave his beard off on my show?"

Dinah Shore: "See the U.S.A. in a reindeer sleigh . . ."

Jose Melis: "There is no Santa Claus. There is only Jack Paar."

Jack Paar: "Gee, I didn't know Santa had a book to plug."

Garry Moore: "Santa is always welcome on 'I've Got a Secret,' but his reindeer had better stay off the stage."

★ ★ ★

Steve Allen: "Does this cat dig jazz?"

Frank Sinatra: "Crazy. Maybe Santa'll introduce me to that wild tailor of his."

John Daly: "We'll be most happy to have Santa on 'What's My Line' if he writes and tells us when he plans to be in New York and encloses a picture . . ."

Ralph Edwards: "We can do a lovely 'This Is Your Life' on Santa, if we can only get in touch with his mom and dad."

Ed Sullivan: "A coincidence. We were planning to bring Santa, his helpers and the reindeers plus the entire North Pole right to our stage here in Noo Yawk."

★ ★ ★

Ed Murrow: "I'd put him on 'Small World' with Jackie Gleason and Walter Slezak and . . .

"Change the name of the show to 'Wide, Wide World', — Dave Garroway.

Marvin Miller: "There is no Santa Claus. There is only John Beresford Tipton."

Charles Van Doren: "There is no Santa Claus."

Loretta Young TV Plan Starts Segregation Tiff

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Actress Loretta Young says segregationists from Little Rock, Ark., will have no influence on whether or not she does a television show about a woman who worked to have Little Rock's integrated schools reopened.

"The decision as to what films we will produce is vested solely in those properly responsible to the show, the network and the sponsors," said Miss Young, star of a television series.

She made the announcement after Dr. Malcolm G. Taylor, president of the Capital Citizens Council of Little Rock, sent her a letter demanding plans for the show be canceled.

Miss Young, while refusing to reply directly to Taylor's letter, said: "We have considered a story of the Women's Emergency Committee's work to reopen the Little Rock schools because of reasons other than the problems of integration.

★ ★ ★

"If that story, like any other story we consider, develops into a script — unanimously acceptable to the producers, network and sponsors of the Loretta Young Show — it will be scheduled for production during the 1960-61 season (which starts in the fall of 1960)."

Latest Rocket Listens to Stars

U.S.-Canadian Vehicle Launched at Wallops Island Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Canadian and American scientists sent a four-stage rocket into space at Wallops Island, Va., today to record radio signals emanating from the stars.

The complicated rocket incorporated a new X248 engine as its fourth stage, and the experiment also was to test how this worked in the vacuum of space.

★ ★ ★

The rocket was set to reach a height of 560 miles. The National Aeronautics and Space Administration could not say immediately the exact height the rocket reached, but it apparently "went good." The rocket was in flight for about 18 minutes and came down in the Atlantic about 600 miles from the Virginia coastal island.

★ ★ ★

Radio signals produced by the stars—scientists call it galactic noise—are partly absorbed by the earth's ionosphere. In order to measure them accurately instruments must be sent above 450 miles.

The rocket's 48-pound payload carried a 3-megacycle radio receiver to collect the star signals. These were telemetered back to earth.

Crosbys, Como: 'Be My Guest' (TV)

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Bing Crosby and Perry Como have agreed to exchange guest TV spots —with Bing's four singing sons appearing on both shows.

Como will come west to tape his spot on Bing's show the week of Jan. 11. It will be seen Feb. 29 on the ABC-TV network.

Crosby will reciprocate March 26 when he and his sons will travel to New York to appear on Como's NBC-TV show.

Park Hermit Returns After Six Lost Years

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Six years ago, a disturbed and disillusioned young man returned from the Korean War not knowing which way to turn. He could have gone home to his family in Nebraska but decided against it.

No one heard from Dennis Farrell for the next five years. And it wasn't until recently that the 32-year-old ex-GI finally agreed to re-enter the civilized world.

Farrell was "The Hermit of Griffith Park," where he spent six years as a recluse, hiding in the hills of the 4,200-acre city-owned park on the northern edge of Los Angeles, sleeping in caves, eating picnic leftovers.

For the first five years, his identity was unknown. A number of people had seen the bearded figure in tattered clothing as he wandered about the park. But few paid much attention to him.

His secret was uncovered when police picked him up for questioning as a possible prowler. As it turned out, he was not a prowler and actually had done nothing wrong so he was allowed to go back into the park. Again, he disappeared.

★ ★ ★

A couple of months ago, the Hermit of Griffith Park decided to come out of hiding for good. He had had a lot of time to think things out and had decided to seek help in re-entering the world he once knew.

Farrell made his way across the familiar paths of the rugged terrain to the park's observatory atop a hill. He asked a caretaker to telephone police in nearby Hollywood. A short time later, a patrol car picked him up and took him to the police station.

Photographers and newsmen were gathered at the station when he arrived but he refused to talk to anyone except the two detectives who had befriended him when he was picked up a year before. He was told one of the officers no longer worked out of the Hollywood station and that the other one had the day off.

Officers on duty chipped in to get a hotel room for Farrell until he could discuss his problems with the detective he wanted to see the next day.

Later, he said he had turned his back on civilization because he was "tired of living." He said he had survived in the park on the leavings of picnickers, by scraping garbage cans and by plucking the few wild fruits and berries he could find growing on the hillsides.

★ ★ ★

Psychiatrists at General Hospital said Farrell was mentally ill. They described his condition as potentially dangerous to others even though he showed no signs of violence. It was believed he could recover within a few months under proper psychiatric care.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Farrell, came here from their Nebraska home as soon as they heard their son had changed his mind about living the life of a hermit.

"Do you know us, Dennis?" his mother asked.

Farrell nodded and whispered, "Yes."

He seemed to relax toward the end of his first conversation with his parents.

"I'll be out before long," he said. "Then we'll be back together again."

Since then, he has been transferred to the Veterans' Administration Hospital for treatment. Hopes are high that he will recover soon and resume a normal life.

No Payola Was Needed for Success of Rudolph

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Johnny Marks sits high over Broadway in his office at "The St. Nicholas Music Co.," and wonders as he tinkles the piano how he can get another song like "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer" to happen to him.

WILSON

"They say 'Rudolph' has passed Irving Berlin's 'White Christmas,'" a fellow comments.

"I don't know," shrugs the fiftyish composer. "I do know 'Rudolph' flabbergasted me. Thirty-nine new recordings of it this year! Over the 10 years, a total of 200 recordings. We've sold 28,000,000 records in this country."

"Was there any payola?" I rudely and crudely inquire.

"Nope!" he insists. "There were no deals for any of the rights—I don't think, though, if I had brought the song out today, that I could have retained those rights. The payola wasn't as blatant then."

Marks had seen a children's book, "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer," which gave him the idea. He thought about the song for eight or ten years. Finally, in 1949, after he'd been in the war—a hero—he wrote it and got a demo record off to Gene Autry, who took it home in Los Angeles and played it with other records while dozing on the couch.

"It's nice, but it's not for me," Autry decided.

But Mrs. Autry said, "I love that song. Take a chance on it."

MARKS

Later, Autry met Bing Crosby, who said, "Looks like you got a bigger song than I have with 'White Christmas.' You know, I had that 'Rudolph' song, too, while out playing golf. I guess I was thinking more about golf than I was about songs, and I decided not to do it."

Bing did do it eventually—Perry Como did it twice (first in '50 and then again this year).

Census Takers Face Huge Task

160,000 Will Compile Data on 180 Million in Mammoth Nose Count

WASHINGTON — An army of 160,000 will knock on the door of every home in the United States and its possessions for the 1960 census.

Mansions, huts, lighthouses, monasteries, carnivals, houseboats, jails, even the White House will be visited.

Not only will the census takers count 180,000,000 noses across the land; they will gather billions of facts about Americans' lives and activities. The survey is a fantastically big job, required by the Constitution every 10 years.

How the U.S. Census Bureau goes about the task is described in the November National Geographic Magazine in an article entitled, "Census 1960: Profile of the Nation," by Albert W. Atwood and Lonnelle Aikman.

★ ★ ★

Preparation for a major census takes about three years. The Bureau's nerve center throbs in two huge buildings at Suitland, Md., just outside the Nation's Capital. More than 2,000 men and women use the latest electronic devices to record and analyze statistics. About 400 district offices are being set up for the 1960 survey.

Forms will be mailed to all American domiciles next March. Recipients will be asked to fill in the blanks: name, address, relationship to head of household, date of birth, race, sex, marital status, and type of home — house, apartment, trailer, coal barge or whatever. Census takers will call in person to check and collect the answers.

At every fourth dwelling, the census taker will leave a more detailed form to be filled out and returned by mail. The form highlights personal questions — education, number of times married, occupation, income, and so on. But the answers are strictly confidential. Not even the FBI or tax agencies can tap census data for their own purposes.

★ ★ ★

Once the information is collected, it is microfilmed, converted to electrical pulses, and processed in automatic computers.

The 1960 census will fill about 100,000 pages in more than 100 bound volumes.

More Americans — 67,594,000 in all—were employed this past July than at any other time in the nation's history, according to the Labor Department. That same month, all nine newspaper advertising classifications measured by Media Records showed linage gains over July, 1958. Automotive advertising — up 39 per cent — scored the largest increase.

Soviet Discussing Agriculture Status

MOSCOW (AP)—The Communist party Central Committee began a plenary meeting at the Kremlin today to discuss Soviet agriculture.

★ ★ ★

Tass, the Soviet news agency, reported that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, who never tires of appealing for increased farm production, opened the meeting.

"The plenary meeting will consider the results of the fulfillment of the agricultural plan for the first year of the seven-year program and discuss the urgent tasks of the further development of crop farming and animal husbandry in the country," Tass said.

Nixon to Check Political Fences

Will Follow Rocky's Trail to See If He Can Draw Bigger Crowds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon is going to take a post-Christmas look at any damage done to his political fences by touring Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Beginning with a Jan. 16 appearance at a party rally in Miami, Fla., Nixon will make an unhurried personal survey of some of the territory the New York governor covered in a six-day political prospecting trip in seven states last week.

His schedule of appearances includes speeches in Chicago, Milwaukee and Detroit within the following month.

Nixon associates say Florida State Chairman G. Harold Alexander is hoping to put on a big show for Nixon at the Miami Rally. One of the objectives is to demonstrate that the Vice President has strong support in one of the few southern states where Republicans seem to be gaining party strength.

If the party organization turns out the expected crowds, the contrast between the Nixon affair and the smaller Rockefeller reception last week would be expected to register on GOP officials in other states.

While Rockefeller had good crowds in some areas, reports to the Nixon camp indicate that Rockefeller made less headway than they had feared with GOP organization members who have a voice in the choice of nominating convention delegates.

They're Booming Right Along

There's No Tie-Up in Yule Ribbon Sales

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) —The late Christmas shopper — and how many of you could cast the first stone?—probably is all tied up or snowed under today in millions of yards of decorative ribbons and string, wrappings, seals and stickers and Christmas cards.

★ ★ ★

And the some 50 factories across the land that make these things are already taking in new carloads of raw material and starting production for next Christmas' multimillion-dollar outpouring.

If you aren't tangled up today wrapping them, let's hope you'll be tangled up Friday unwrapping them.

BIGGEST YEAR?

And the makers of these things say that spending on colorful trappings that go only with Christmas is a strong clue that this Christmas will see the greatest exchange of gifts in the nation's history. The clue may be better than the big retail sales volume now setting a record, since so much of the buying at the stores can be for other things.

Those in the gift embellishment business say this also has been a big year for technological advances, with science and automation invading the field.

★ ★ ★

Once paper and common twine ruled almost unchallenged. Now you find mylar, nylon, laminates, polyethylene film, synthetic adhesives, glass fiber, aluminum. But the total volume has increased so much that paper and twine sell better now than when they had the field alone.

★ ★ ★

The Christmas seal business is blooming as never before. The Tuberculosis & Health Assn. of New York reports mailing 378 million seals, or 22 tons, to persons living in three boroughs of New York City alone.

Hallmark Cards Inc. says card sales average four million a day and that Americans will spend close to 200 million dollars this year for cards, paper, ribbon, seals, tags and decorations.

8 MILLION CARDS

California Artists Inc. has turned out more than eight million cards this season, with artists taking six or seven months each year and printing going on for another six months.

Artistic Manufacturing Co. estimates the industry has marketed this year 2¼ billion yards of colored ribbon, most of it for the Christmas trade, a hefty inrease over last year.

One big boost has come from business concerns themselves. They have been competing in gift wrappings and cards to attract shoppers in the nation's stores. Increasing stress on help-yourself buying, as in a supermarket, has increased the rivalry.

Here automation has stepped in. As one example, three years ago one liquor producer adorned gift bottles with ornate, many-looped bows of ribbon. The bows were made by women who could turn out 400 a day each.

MACHINES SPEED

Today a machine can turn out 10 times as many as one worker. But the demand has grown so that more persons are employed than when it was done by hand.

One firm in this field, the Facile Corp. division of Sun Chemical, estimates that this year 60 million dollars worth of package ribbon has been sold, a 10 per cent gain over 1958. Some 50 million bows have been turned out for producers of various products, and another 50 million have been bought for adorning packages at home.

New GOP Solon: 'Benson Is a Liability'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Iowa's new Republican congressman said today Ezra Taft Benson will be a liability to the GOP in next year's elections if he stays on as secretary of agriculture.

★ ★ ★

John Kyl, who won Iowa's 4th district seat in a special election last week, told a news conference he wants to talk with Benson.

But, he said, it isn't his prerogative to tell Benson the Republicans would be better off without him.

He said the secretary of agriculture becomes a symbol of the farm situation to the farmers.

Foreign Auto Registrations Off

Dive for 2nd Straight Month, but Still Remain Over 50,000 Mark

DETROIT (AP) — Registrations of foreign cars in the United States dropped for the second straight month in October but remained above the 50,000 mark, Automotive News reported Monday.

The total of 51,923 represented 9.73 per cent of total passenger car registrations in the U. S. in October. In September imported cars made up 11.76 per cent of the registrations, high for 1959.

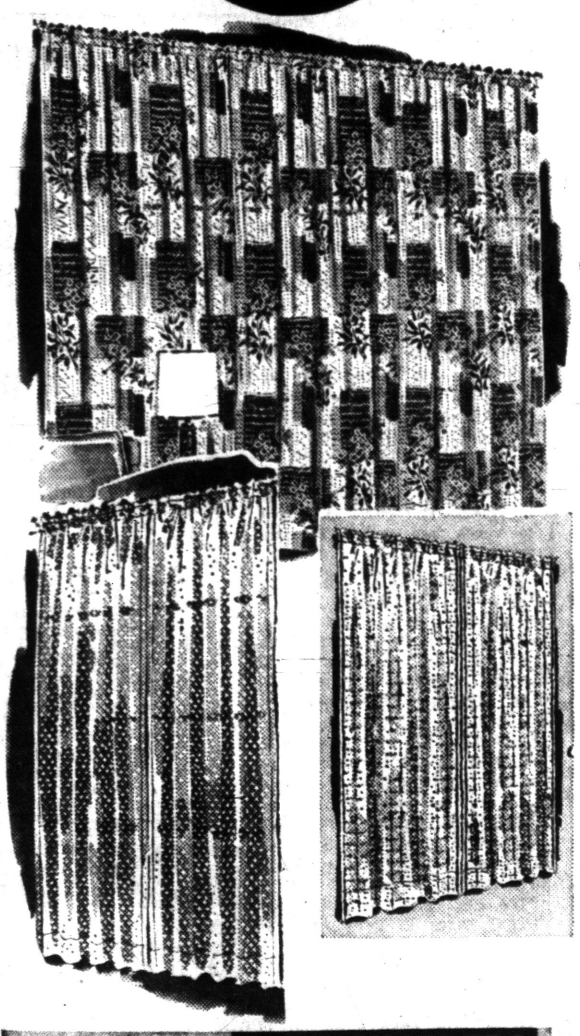

Imports through the first 10 months of this year totaled 507,425 compared with the all-time 12-month high of 377,548 set last year. October was the first month of sale for the three new American compact cars — Falcon, Corvair, and Valiant — although the Valiant was not introduced until the last week of the month.
