Save Children From Flames

CARRIED TO SAFETY — Policemen and a newspaper reporter carry two children to safety as flames from a brush fire in the hills northwest of Los Angeles suddenly advance toward the group Monday night. The children of Mrs. R. Velasco had just been removed with their mother from their hillside home and were being walked to a patrol car when the flames suddenly began to race toward them. Udall, Hart, Griffin at Odds Over Dunes

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall wants to up the ante and make the Sleeping Bear Dunes Area of Lake Michigan a national seashore area of 92,000 acres.

Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., wants support for a bill he co-sponsored with Sen. Patrick V. McNamara, D-Mich., calling for a national recreation area of 77,000 acres.

Rep. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., wants to know what happened to original studies which suggested 26,000 acres of the territory for national recreation.

The Sleeping Bear Dunes Citizens Council, through spokesmen Ove F. Jensen of Glen Arbor, wonders why there is a need for "nationalizing" the area which embraces inland lakes ringed by plush private retreats and land now under Michigan Conservation Department jurisdiction.

QUESTION OPEN

With numerous variations, these questions today were in the hands of a Senate subcommittee on interior and insular affairs after a public hearing at Traverse City before Sen. Frank E. Moss, D-Utah.

★ ★ ★

Approximately 800 persons gathered Monday at Traverse City's Central Junior High School for the hearings. Little less than half that number were on hand when Moss adjourned it after nine hours of testimony from about 40 witnesses pro and con.

"You may be sure this matter will not be rushed through and it still has to go to the House where you are so ably served," he said in reference to Griffin.

The Traverse City congressman's testimony noted that the Senate's last session approved a matching funds bill providing $25 million to help states acquire land for park and recreation programs. He also was concerned about expanding land requests by the secretary of interior.

Dear Hunters: Weather Is Fine

'Red Coats' Will Get Break Tomorrow for Venison Forays

BY DON VOGEL
Outdoor Editor, Pontiac Press

Hunters opening the deer season Wednesday in northern Michigan can expect one break they didn't get the first day in 1960.

★ ★ ★

Wednesday is expected to be clear with temperatures ranging in the high 40s and low 50s. Opening day last year was one of the poorest on record.

★ ★ ★

Hunters were greeted by light drizzle, heavy fog and 70-degree temperatures.

The unseasonable weather continued the first week resulting in a light kill.

There will be fewer hunters this season. Experts are predicting about 400,000—a drop of over 60,000—will take to the woods before the season ends Nov. 30.

Removal of does and fawns from the legal list, except in two small areas in Mason and Oceana counties, is cited as the main reason for the decline. Only bucks can be taken over the remainder of the state. The total kill is expected to exceed 40,000.

★ ★ ★

Many Pontiac and area hunters are at private camps west of Hubbard Lake in Alcona County. The Oakland Hunt Club has the largest number of nimrods.

★ ★ ★

Angus Campbell, Bloomfield Hills; A. B. Corbin, Royal Oak; James Hampton, Pontiac; and Glenn Miller, Auburn Heights, are veteran members of this club.

A. Floyd Blakeslee, Ralph Norvell and Robert Oliver, all of Pontiac, have been the more successful hunters at Camp 24 in the past. Paul Sparrow will have several guests at his lodge and so will former Pontiac Mayor John Cowe.

★ ★ ★

The Pontiac Optimists Club will hold two meetings Thursday. The deer hunters will convene at the Double-O Ranch south of Lewiston while the nonhunters are holding a session in Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

Recent rains have made back roads wet and muddy. This has caused a problem for some hunters trying to reach camps deep in the woods.

Military Chief to Ask Kennedy for Cash, Arms

Revolutionary Head, President Conferring This Afternoon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lt. Gen. Chung Hee Park, South Korea's revolutionary leader, met with Secretary of State Dean Rusk today to lay the groundwork for talks with President Kennedy on economic backing and more military aid for his Communist-menaced country.

Officials said Kennedy, in a luncheon session and an afternoon conference, would pledge American aid in principle and approve a plan to modernize South Korea's 600,000-man armed forces.

Before Park's arrival at the State Department Rusk told newsmen he considered the talks "very important," and praised the progress the military regime is achieving in Korean development.

"We got off to a very good start," Rusk commented after his one hour and 20-minute meeting with the Korean leader.

Park had no comment.

He rushed off to see Fowler Hamilton, head of the U.S. foreign aid agency.

Park came to prominence last May when he and a group of fellow officers overthrew the elected government.

GAVE IT THE NOD

At first, the United States was cool to the revolutionary junta but gradually gave it increasing support as the junta attacked graft and corruption in government and undertook a series of social reforms.

Park was met late Monday with a red carpet welcome, complete with a 19-gun salute and full military honors at National Airport.

In welcoming him, Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson said: "In the next two days President Ken-

Wednesday's forecast is fair and a little warmer, the high near 55. Party cloudy with little change in temperature is the outlook for Thursday.

From 10:15 Monday morning until the same hour today .6 of an inch in showers fell in downtown Pontiac. Morning north to northwest winds at 8 to 16 miles per hour will become light and variable tonight.

Admit Confusion

Pontiac Citizens 'Accept' A-Tests

Confusion about the dangers of fallout and determination to meet the Soviet atomic challenge—these are the marked attitudes of Pontiac-area residents and workers.

The man or woman you meet on the street appears confused about what atomic bomb fallout will do to his health and that of his children. But even those who would oppose testing in the atmosphere feel that the United States should and can keep ahead of the Soviets' atomic might by underground testing.

These are the conclusions derived from a Pontiac Press survey which asked a two-pronged question:

1—The Soviet Union has just concluded a series of atomic tests in the atmosphere. In view of this and the fact that President Kennedy has ordered the military to prepare similar tests pending his order, would you be for or against such atomic bomb tests in the atmosphere?

2—How serious do you think the danger is from such nuclear testing in the air?

Of the eight citizens quoted below, none opposed testing of atomic bombs if this could be done in a safe place such as underground. However, four said they would go along with a presidential decision to resume testing, while four said they were against any atmospheric tests.

Here is what they had to say:

Mrs. Vivian Rodabaugh, housewife and mother of four children and grandmother of four grandchildren, 245 Voorheis, Pontiac:

"We are all worried about fallout. But if these tests are necessary for our defense, then I would say go ahead with them."

MRS. RODABAUGH OWENS

Thomas Owens, 2355 Leewin, Detroit, a sales representative for an abstract and title company, father of two young boys:

"I am for the continuation of tests, if these tests are vital for our defense. I don't think anybody knows whether or not the fallout is harmful, and until it's

Williams Talks on 4-Year Term

Tells Con-Con Governor Should Have More Pay, Home Provided

LANSING (UPI) — Former Michigan Gov. G. Mennen Williams today recommended that the constitutional convention provide a four-year term for the state's chief executive.

Meanwhile, at last night's convention session the fourth round in the bickering between some Democrats and Charles A. Ferry, former Oakland County Republican publicist, was opened and closed.

★ ★ ★

Committee debate centered over what Ferry, of Rochester, should be paid as a research assistant.

Williams, now assistant secretary of state for African affairs, testified before the committee on the executive branch of the convention.

Williams suggested that the lieutenant governor and governor be coupled on the ballot.

WANTS VETO ITEM

The former six-term chief executive also recommended a constitutional provision for a governor's mansion, better pay and executive budget, and retention of the item veto in the state budget.

He differed with previous witnesses in recommending that the State Administrative Board continue to be elected as at present.

Three Democrats on the administration committee, which approves hiring the convention staff, renewed their resolution opposing paying Ferry, 35, $1,000 a month, the same pay as the chief public relations man of the convention.

★ ★ ★

Continuing his opposition was Lee Walker, D-Madison Heights, one of the three Democrats who are minority members on the committee.

★ ★ ★

Earlier they and other Democrats fought Ferry's appointment on the grounds that his former position in Oakland County made him too partisan to handle the bipartisan work.

When the latest round was over action on the resolution had been postponed indefinitely.

Pontiac Engineer, Earl Taylor, Dies

A Pontiac Motor Division engineer, Earl P. Taylor, 47, 116 N. Main St., Clarkston, died of a heart attack yesterday at a hunting camp near Ottawa Lake in the Upper Peninsula.

Mr. Taylor, the father of two children, suffered the fatal attack while at a cabin awaiting the start of the deer hunting season.

A machine, tool and jig designer in the engineering department, he joined Pontiac in April, 1951.

Berkley Father Killed in Crash

Car Hits Semitrailer on Northwestern Hwy. Early This Morning

A Berkley father of two was killed early today when his car struck a semi-trailer on Northwestern Highway just north of Telegraph Road in Southfield.

★ ★ ★

Walter J. Carlstrom, 30, of 2044 Ellwood Road, was dead on arrival at William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak.

Driver of the trailer, George N. Barney, 40, of Toledo, told Southfield police that he was driving south on Northwestern and had slowed down as he approached the red light at the Telegraph intersection.

He said that Carlstrom, who also was headed south, rammed his trailer in the rear. Police estimated the victim's car was traveling about 50 miles per hour when the accident happened.

They said that Carlstrom was on his way to a gas station he owned on the corner of Telegraph, just 500 feet away. Barney was not held, but a more thorough investigation of the mishap is planned.

The accident occured at 1:18 a.m.

34 Inches of Snow in New Mexico

Deadly Storm Lashes Southwest

By United Press International

One of the worst November storms in recent years stranded travelers, isolated towns and closed schools in the Southwest today.

The wintry blast hit hardest at New Mexico. Travel was at a standstill across the state as snows mounted up to 34 inches deep without a sign of letup. Heavy equipment was called out in an attempt to rescue hundreds of deer hunters stranded in the Sacramento Mountains.

Elswhere, winds slackened in Southern California and fire crews contained a 2,300-acre brush fire that had destroyed 10 structures. But to the east, rain and mist were blamed for mishaps which claimed at least 17 lives, most of them in auto smashups on wet highways.

Heavy rains doused the southland and triggered flash floods which forced 200 persons to flee their homes in the Southeast Louisiana communities of Bogalusa, Varnado and Franklinton. Water was as high as four feet in parts of Bogalusa, where a wooden house was reported to have been swept 50 feet by the flood tide.

In Alabama, floods washed out roads and bridges and forced three schools to close.

★ ★ ★

Electricity went out at the height of the southwest storm in parts of Albuquerque, N.M., and in all of El Paso, Tex. El Paso's power lines were snapped when the storm rolled out of the Western Mountains. The darkness lasted for an hour until power crews, struggling in 50-mile-an-hour winds, could restore service.

SCHOOLS CLOSED

There was nearly four inches of snow on the ground at El Paso at daybreak. Roads were icy and dangerous and schools were closed at El Paso and in the communities of Ysleta and Ulesboe.

★ ★ ★

Although several tiny towns were snowbound in New Mexico, the inhabitants were not believed to be in danger. Roads were clogged with drifts and scores of stalled cars as snow-laden winds mounted to 74 miles an hour.

A state policeman searched all day for a lost 11-year-old boy. When he finally round the lad, the roads were so drifted the two had to spend the night in a church at the isolated town of Pinon.

In Arizona, the snow was 10 inches deep at Flagstaff. Forty-five high school students were stranded in the White Mountain town of Eager and had to spend the night in homes there.

★ ★ ★

Weather-blamed deaths included six in Texas, five in New Hampshire, three in Missouri, two in Iowa, and one in Indiana.

The Texas victims included three small children who burned to death when the stove of their home caught fire at Navasota. An 11-year-old boy drowned in flood waters at Houston.

3 in Area Among 27 Hurt in Ann Arbor Bus Crash

Two Pontiac women and an Oak Park resident were among 27 persons injured last night when a Greyhound bus skidded out of control and plunged down a 10-foot embankment on the outskirts of Ann Arbor.

Listed in satisfactory condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, is Mrs. Daniel M. Treece, 47, of 223 Parkdale St.

Treated for minor injuries at University Medical Center and released were Mrs. Otis Larnes, 38, of 515 Bloomfield Ave., and Avers Lee, 41, of 8615 Leroy, Oak Park.

None of the passengers was seriously injured. The worst injuries appeared to be cuts and broken bones, physicians said.

The bus was entering the west side of Ann Arbor on 194 when the mishap occurred in a heavy rain.

★ ★ ★

Ann Arbor police said the driver, James J. Gordon, 49, of Chicago told them he applied the brakes and then the bus skidded about 1,000 yards to the embankment. The bus tipped on its left side when it reached the bottom in a field.

Passengers crawled or were carried from the bus through the shattered front windshield.

Six ambulances rushed passengers to the two hospitals.

After checking at the hospitals, police said "all but two or three" of the passengers were in the process of being released following treatment.

Four wrecker trucks worked two hours to right the bus. A spokesman for the bus line said the body of the bus would be rebuilt completely.

22 Passengers, Driver Injured

Greyhound Rams Tree in N.Y.; Bright Lights of Car Blamed

PLATTSBURGH, N.Y. (AP)—A Greyhound bus veered from a rain-slick highway three miles north of here today and smashed into a tree. Twenty-three persons were injured, one seriously.

The bus driver said he had been blinded by the lights of an oncoming automobile that did not stop.

The injured included three children. A woman passenger was pinned in her seat for 45 minutes before rescuers could free her.

The bus was en route from New York City to Montreal. Most of the passengers were Canadians.

Mrs. George Algiers, 47, of Montreal, who was pinned in her seat, suffered a fractured left leg and severe cuts on the right foot. She was reported in serious condition at Champlain Valley Hospital.

The driver, George W. Gannis, 54, of Brooklyn, suffered an arm injury.

Area Man Is Critical After Trailer Blast

A 50-year-old Commerce Township man, injured when a propane gas stove exploded in his house trailer yesterday, is reported in critical condition today at Pontiac General Hospital.

★ ★ ★

Gerald E. Avery, who lives at the Walled Lake Trailer Court, 46530 Pontiac Trail, suffered second and third-degree burns over 30 to 40 per cent of his body.

Oakland County Sheriff's deputies said the explosion occurred after Avery lit a match in front of his propane gas stove.

The blast blew a wall out of the 15-foot trailer. Commerce Township Fire Chief Clarence Kuttkuhn said the cause of the explosion is undetermined.

East Germany Stages De-Stalinization Drive

BERLIN (AP) — Communist East Germany staged a blitz de-Stalinization during the night, renaming East Berlin's showplace boulevard and removing its statue of Stalin and countless other memorials to the late Soviet dictator.

★ ★ ★

This morning only workmen and debris remained as bulldozers cleared the square where East Berlin's bronze Stalin statue had stood since shortly after World War II.

STREET RENAMED

Stalinallee, the broad, three-mile avenue that is East Berlin's main street, had fresh name signs—Karl Marx Allee—for half its length and Frankfurter Allee for the rest. Frankfurter Allee was the street's name before the Russians occupied East Berlin.

Stalinstadt, a major East German iron and steel town on the Oder River, was renamed Eisenhuettenstadt, or iron foundry town, according to a small front-page announcement in Neues Deutschland, organ of the East German Communist party.

FIRST SIGN

The important Josef W. Stalin plant in Berlin Treptow was renamed "Electrical Apparatus Works Berlin-Treptow."

The dictator's name-changing was the first concrete sign of de-Stalinization in East Germany since condemnations of the dictator were made public from the Soviet Communist party congress last month and his body was removed from Lenin's tomb in Moscow's Red Square.

DENOUNCES STALIN

East Germany's regime is dominated by Communists of the Stalinist variety, led by Chief of State Walter Ulbricht. But Neues Deutschland on Sunday, in an article denouncing Stalin, asserted at great length that Ulbricht had never developed a personality cult or committed other Stalinist crimes.

★ ★ ★

The work in Stalinallee began midnight in a driving storm of rain and sleet. East Berlin police cordoned off the boulevard for blocks and closed the nearest subway station.

Scores of workmen turned to on the street signs and went to work on the statue with pneumatic hammers and drills.

Crews Contain LA Brush Fire

Hard Work, Decrease in Winds Enable Men to Encircle Blaze

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Fire crews contained today a ravaging 2,300-acre brush fire that destroyed 10 structures.

★ ★ ★

Heroic ground crews encircled the sprawling burn during the night as optimistic forecasts of decreasing winds by weather officials spurred them on.

A statement at dawn by Sim Jarvi, Angeles National Forest supervisor, that "it's looking pretty good," was backed up soon afterward with the containment.

2,300 ACRES DESTROYED

The breakdown of acreage was 1,800 in the forest and 500 in Los Angeles County territory destroyed in the 18-hour fire.

Jarvi and County Fire Chief Keith Klinger jointly praised the work of borate bomber crews who had pounced on the fire when it started Monday in Tujunga Canyon about 25 miles north of here. They hoped for complete control by day's end.

Fire lines were strengthened during the night by 600 men. The city, county and forest crews used pumper trucks and bulldozers to solidify their positions, carving out wide swaths of brush and setting small backfires to stop advancing flames.

PLANES ON ALERT

A dozen borate bombers, converted World War II planes, were on the alert at surrounding airports, ready to answer the call if fire lines were ruptured. Additional ground crews also were standing by.

High winds that reached 80 miles an hour at times had plagued Southern California for two days when the fire broke out. Forecasts for renewed gusts were reversed during the night by the weather bureau.

The fire struck in Tujunga Canyon then spread into Kagel and Lopez and other canyons pushed by 50-mile-an-hour winds that engulfed the scattered structures.

It was the second major holocaust in eight days and was under investigation as possibly set by an arsonist.

Colombia Requests Conference on Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP) — Colombia formally asked today for a Western Hemisphere foreign ministers' conference to study the threat of Communist intervention in the Americas through Cuba. Mexico declared it cannot support the proposal under any circumstances.

The Colombian request was presented to the council of the Organization of American States. The Mexican stand conceivably could mean the defeat of the Colombian plan.

The 10-point Colombian proposal made no direct reference either to communism or to Cuba. It stressed the potential danger of extracontinental influences in the Western Hemisphere and referred to Cuba by implication.

But the Cuban regime of Fidel Castro was pinpointed in debate on the proposal.

Garcia Trails in Philippines

Vice President Leads by 32,000 Ballots as Military Keeps Order

MANILA (UPI)—Vice President Diosdado Macapagal opened up an early lead today over President Carlos Garcia in scattered initial unofficial returns in the race for president of the Philippines. Strong military and militia forces maintained relative peace during the voting that followed a violent 10-month campaign causing 39 deaths.

★ ★ ★

Unofficial returns at 10:30 a.m. (Pontiac time) five hours after the polls closed showed:

Macapagal, 134,405 votes, and Garcia, 102,187.

Unofficial returns for vice president showed:

Emanuel Pelaez, 26,691; Sergio Osmena, 25,249; Gil J. Puyat, 9,035.

The Manila Chronicle Radio at the same hour reported precisely the same totals for the two men.

But the returns were only a fraction of the estimated seven million votes cast throughout the country under tight police and militia protection. A real trend is not expected until Wednesday.

Macapagal, currently vice president of the Philippines and candidate of the Liberal party, jumped off to an initial lead on the basis of returns from precincts in Manila considered to be centers of opposition strength.

A computing error at one point temporarily showed Garcia, 65-year-old candidate of the ruling Nacionalista party, leading in his bid for a second elective term. But the error was quickly corrected, and the 51-year-old Macapagal stayed ahead.

Earlier, the Chronicle Radio reported the three-way race for vice president also was close on the basis of first returns.

Initial tallies showed Emmanuel Pelaez with 3,014 votes, Sergio Osmena, 2,823; and Garcia-sponsored Gil J. Puyat, 1,152. The vice president is elected separately.

City Boy Sentenced in Shotgun Slaying

John A. Haase, 19, of Pontiac, was sentenced from 7 to 15 years in Jackson Prison for the slaying of a teen-age girl in the city in September.

Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland said in sentencing Haase, 181 S. Marshall St., that he "couldn't go along with the story it was an accident" in the Sept. 29 shooting of Janet M. Olsen, 18, 115 Euclid St.

The judge said Haase, on probation for robbery, was "a very lucky fellow that he didn't have to stand trial for second degree murder." This carries any term up to life in prison.

The girl, whom Haase had been dating for a month, was shot in the head with a 12-gauge shotgun, which Haase said he was only "playing around with" and meant only to "scare" the girl. The shooting took place during a party at Haase's home.

Haase pleaded guilty to manslaughter Oct. 23 in Circuit Court after Pontiac Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum reduced the original first-degree murder charge.

City Boys Club Gutted by Fire

Fire Marshal Estimates Blaze Did $30,000 in Damage to Building

A fire of undetermined origin early today did an estimated $30,000 damage to the interior of the Pontiac Boys Club at 530 E. Pike St.

The blaze, which was reported at 1:20 a.m., gutted the 30- by 30-foot recreation room and the 40- by 25-foot lounge. There also was extensive smoke damage in an adjoining hallway.

Pool and ping pong tables in the recreation room and large pieces of overstuffed furniture in the lounge were completely destroyed.

The Pontiac Fire Department had the blaze under control in about an hour and a half, according to Fire Marshal Charles E. Metz.

★ ★ ★

Metz said the fire had been smouldering for some time before firemen were called to the scene. Although the cause is not determined, Metz said it was apparently an accidental fire and not the work of an arsonist.

The building was unoccupied when the fire broke out. An unidentified citizen notified the fire department.

Next to the club's gymnasium, the recreation room and lounge are the largest rooms in the 172- by 97-foot brick building. The gymnasium was not damaged.

Metz estimated damage to the building at $20,000 and $10,000 to the contents.

Fading Rayburn Has Better Night, but Still Critical

BONHAM, Tex. (AP) — Sam Rayburn, ill of cancer, had a somewhat better night Monday but still is in critical condition.

Rayburn's doctor, Joe Risser, was not called in during the night.

The morning bulletin said: "Speaker Rayburn rested well last night and is more alert this morning. Weakness still very severe. Fluid intake improved. Condition still critical."

Dr. Meyer is also doing research in his laboratories at the Wayne State University College of Medicine.

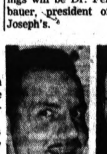

Common skin diseases and their treatment will be discussed by another Mayo Clinic staff member, Dr. Robert R. Kierland. Dr. Kierland also is professor of dermatology at the University of Minnesota graduate school.

All afternoon meetings will be held in the Nurses' Home Auditorium at 126 Fulton Avenue, Pontiac.

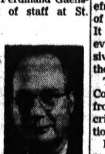

Preceding the evening address, a social hour will be held at 6:30 p.m. followed by a dinner at 7:30 p.m. The entire evening program is at Birmingham Country Club.

Presiding at the afternoon meetings will be Dr. Ferdinand Gaensbauer, president of staff at St. Joseph's.

Approve Increased Fees for Sewer, Water Tap-Ins

BIRMINGHAM — Increased fees for water and sewer tap-in installations were approved by the City Commission last night on the recommendation of City Manager L. R. Gare.

Gare reported to the commission that the city has lost money the last four years from the installation of these two services.

More specifically, he said, a two-year review by the Department of Public Works showed that 180 sewer services were installed at a loss of about $5,000 and 151 water services installed at a deficit of $332.

The sewer and water rates, which vary depending on the type of pavement that must be removed and diameter of the pipe installed, were increased by the commission's action 20 and 5 per cent, respectively.

Gare's proposal that no additional charges be made for these services installed during the winter months also was accepted by the commission.

The commission in another action approved the purchase of a transformer needed to correct a lighting problem in the municipal building.

A contract for the transformer was awarded to Kramer Electric of Hazel Park for $1,585.

A report from Asst. City Manager Robert S. Kenning informed the commission that "considerable trouble" was being experienced in city hall with lights not functioning properly due to a voltage drop within the building.

A request from the Birmingham-Bloomfield theaters to hold a parade Dec. 16 on Woodward Avenue was tabled by the commission until further information can be obtained.

Alan Teicher, manager of the Birmingham Theater, in a letter to the commission, said the parade, which would include a band and Santa Claus riding in a convertible, probably would last only 10 minutes.

Bloomfield Township trustees last night awarded a $12,426 contract to Grinoldi and DePompolo of Detroit for the construction of a sanitary sewer in the Peabody Subdivision, Lahser and Quarton roads.

Bonds totaling $19,000 for the construction of the Thurber-Sheringham sanitary sewer were sold to McDonald and Moore investment company, Detroit, at an interest rate of less than 3 per cent.

Mr. Henning died at home yesterday after a long illness.

A retired president of the Henning-Cheadle Corp. Detroit, he was a member of the First Methodist Church of Birmingham, the Detroit Boat Club, the Detroit Power Squadron, the Great Lakes Cruising Club, Harbor Island Yacht and Fishing Club and the Inter-Lake Yachting Association.

Surviving are his wife Gladys H.; three sons, Robert L. of Wisconsin, William H. of Mount Clemens and Lester A. of Detroit; two brothers and three grandchildren.

John H. Rice

Service for John H. Rice, 70, of 1560 Rotsel St., Bloomfield Township, will be 1 p.m. Thursday at the Friendly General Baptist Church, Pontiac. Burial will be in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Rice, a retired welder at Fisher Body, died yesterday at his home following an illness of several months.

★ ★ ★

He is survived by his wife Reina; two sons, Clayton of Clarkston and Milton of Rapeer; a daughter, Mrs. Genevieve Sarson, at home; two stepsons, Eddie Hudson of Watkins Lake and Roy Hudson, at home; a sister, Mrs. Blanche Jones of Lake Orion; 18 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

His body is at the Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home, Pontiac.

To Recommend Splitting of Cost

Willman to Suggest City Pay Half of Yule Free-Parking Tab

In one of his final official duties as city manager Walter K. Willman will recommend tonight that the city pay half the cost of free parking in municipal parking lots during the Christmas holidays.

Tonight's City Commission meeting will be the last for Willman who begins his terminal leave Saturday prior to retirement Dec. 31.

He will recommend that the city and Downtown Merchants Association split the cost of free parking in some 1,036 off-street parking spaces for downtown shoppers during December.

Commissioners will also make appointments to the zoning board of appeals to fill one resignation and four expiring terms.

In other business, City Attorney William A. Ewart will report on the legality of selling city property to Newman AME Zion Church below the appraised value and will propose several amendments to the city's traffic ordinance regarding liabilities of motor vehicle operators.

Public hearings are slated on resolutions to vacate Grove Avenue and part of Baltimore Avenue. Commissioners will also get cost estimates on construction of a storm drain on Kettering Ave nue.

Revised estimates will be presented for a shortened water main project in Mt. Clemens Street east of Bay Street.

Sees Better Relations

TOKYO (UPI) — Premier Haya to Ikeda said Monday night the weekend visit of Gen. Chung Hee Park, South Korea's "strong man," appears to have improved prospects of restoring his country's relations with Japan.

U.N. Claims Lumumba Was Killed 'Officially'

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—A U.N. investigating body expressed belief today former Congo Premier Patrice Lumumba was murdered last January with high Katanga officials as eyewitnesses.

But it declared also that the Central Congo government could not escape responsibility for the death.

A four-man commission said that probably among the eyewitnesses was Moise Thombe, premier of secessionist Katanga Province.

It added that there is a strong suspicion that a Belgian army captain was the actual perpetrator of the crime.

The commission described as "staged" the account released last Feb. 13 by Katanga authorities say ing Lumumba and two associates were killed by tribesmen on the day before.

EVIDENCE OFFERED

On the contrary, the commission accepted as substantially true evidence indicating the fiery Congo leader and his associates were killed almost a month before in a villa not far from Elisabethville, the Katanga capital. It fixed the day as Jan. 17.

There were unconfirmed reports three days after the Katanga announcement that Lumumba and his two associates were killed by a Belgian army captain.

The commission singled out Godefroid Munongo, Katanga minister of the interior, for special blame. It said its findings "bristles with evidence indicative of the extensive role" played by Munongo in the deaths.

The commission said that the Congo government prevented it from going to the scene of the crime to carry out its investigations.

It expressed hope its findings could serve as a basis for further investigation in the Congo, and "also in judicial proceedings which, in its view, should be instituted as soon as possible."

Murderer Faces Execution Today

Roustabout Convicted of Raping and Killing 6-Year-Old Girl

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP)—A much-married roustabout who raped a 6-year-old girl and then killed her, with the help of his pregnant wife, faced death today in the gas chamber.

★ ★ ★

Richard Arlen Lindsey, 30, an ex-convict, was scheduled to die today for the Jan. 12 death of Rose Marie Riddle, who suffered a congenital heart ailment.

SERVING LIFE TERM

Lindsey's common-law wife, Dixie Elaine, 23, gave birth to a son two months after the crime. She is serving two life terms for bludgeoning Rose Marie with a tire iron after Lindsey raped and choked the child.

★ ★ ★

Lindsey and his 208-pound wife abducted Rose Marie from a labor camp at Shafter. Rose Marie's father, Everett, had brought his wife and two daughters there from Chandler, Ariz., so he could work as a farm migrant.

The Lindseys drove to a remote field where Lindsey raped the girl in the car while his wife sat in the back seat. Then he choked her. But he wasn't sure she was dead.

★ ★ ★

"If you don't do it, I will," Mrs. Lindsey said. She grabbed a tire iron and struck the girl 19 times.

Adds to List of Musical Triumphs

Casals Charms White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — For the second time — in a span of 57 years — the charm of Pablo Casals' cello echoed in the White House.

For the 84-year-old, world-renowned musician, it was another of many triumphs.

Leaders of the music world, invited to hear him, viewed the performance as a triumph, too, for President Kennedy who had made the rare performance possible.

The emphasis was on music and a salute to the arts as Casals performed in the glittering East Ballroom after a formal state dinner honoring Gov. Luis Munoz Marin of Puerto Rico.

BERNSTEIN MOVED

Bernstein, conductors Leopold Stokowski and Eugene Ormandy and composers Glan Carlo Menotti and Aaron Copland were among the many representatives of the music world included among the 153 distinguished guests the Kennedys invited to the dinner.

Introducing Casals, President Kennedy cited the Spanish-born cellist as a man who has demonstrated in his own life that "an artist must be a free man."

★ ★ ★

Casals, in a moral protest against the dictatorship of Generalissimo Francisco Franco of Spain, has refused to play in public in any country which recognizes the Franco government. He has made himself an exile from the land of his birth.

PERFORMED IN 1904

Although the United States recognizes Franco, Casals accepted Kennedy's invitation to play a return engagement at the White House where he last performed in 1904, during Theodore Roosevelt's administration.

★ ★ ★

Roosevelt's daughter, Alice Longworth, who was present at the 1904 concert, attended Monday night.

Casals is a close friend of Governor Munoz Marin and now lives in Puerto Rico.

Prince Charles Turns 13

It's Just Another Day

LONDON (UPI) — "Loyal greetings" to the heir to the British throne boomed over radio loudspeakers from the British Broadcasting Corporation (BBC) into the cold dormitories of Cheam School early today.

With the opening flourishes of the national anthem, Britain paid its only official tribute to Prince Charles who became 13 today and entered the turbulent teens.

At just about the time the BBC was sending its birthday greetings, a sleepy-eyed prince was struggling out of bed at the school 56 miles west of London into just another school day.

★ ★ ★

There is no nonsense at Cheam about birthdays, whether they be royal or common, and no parties are allowed except on Wednesdays or Saturdays.

★ ★ ★

Sometime during the day, the prince was expected to get a telephone call from his mother and dad — Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip — who now are on tour 3,600 miles away in the West African Republic of Ghana.

Urges Common Market

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP)—Ali Asghar Homayoun, governor of the State Central Bank of Iran, suggested Monday the formation of a common market among some Middle East and Far East countries along the lines of the European Common Market.

Safeguard Eyes if Burning Trash

Whoever draws the family trash-burning chore during the fall clean-up season should think twice to safeguard his eyesight, warns the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

Both smoke and flames can mean unusual vision hazards for mom, dad or the kids.

Be watchful when raking leaves or plants for burning — smoke from burning poison ivy or poison oak can cause serious inflammation of the eyes as well as the skin.

Discarding old bottles or cans in the rubbish fire can mean tragedy if one should explode from the heat and spray potentially-blinding fragments of glass or metal for yards around the incinerator; the danger is greater if th container still holds some combustible powder or liquid.

Another risky idea is disposing of old batteries in the trash fire. Batteries such as those used in flashlights and portable radios explode with tremendous force when exposed to heat. Don't gamble with your eyesight.

To Honor Seaway Man

MILWAUKEE, Wis., (UPI) — Dr. Harlan Hatcher, president of the University of Michigan, will be the main speaker here Nov. 27 at a dinner honoring Sen. Alexander Wiley, R-Wis., for his efforts to make the St. Lawrence Seaway a reality.

RECEIVES TORAH — President Kennedy receives from Rabbi Maurice N. Participating in the White House rose garden ceremony Monday is Labor Secretary Arthur Goldberg (right). May Decide Fate of House Legislation

Smith, Halleck Pose Threat to Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two men other than the speaker and majority leader may decide the fate of major legislation in the House in the session starting Jan. 10.

They are Howard W. Smith, Virginia Democrat who heads the Rules Committee, and Charles A. Halleck, Indiana Republican who leads the minority.

For years Smith and Halleck have teamed up to head a conservative coalition that at times has dominated the House despite its nominal control by Democrats.

The Northern Republican-Southern Democrat coalition's chief stumbling block in the past has been Sam Rayburn, who was able on occasion to win over enough Southerners to save coalition-opposed legislation. Rayburn's success was attributed primarily to his personal popularity with his Southern colleagues.

WON'T RETURN

The 79-year-old speaker is ill with cancer in a Bonham, Tex., hospital and not even his most optimistic friends expect him to return to Washington.

It is generally assumed that Rayburn will be succeeded as speaker by John W. McCormack of Massachusetts, now the Democratic leader, and that McCormack's leadership post will go to Carl Albert of Oklahoma, now the Democratic whip, or assistant leader.

★ ★ ★

Neither McCormack nor Albert has demonstrated the ability to crack the usually solid Southern lines as Rayburn did on occasion.

On at least three major issues during the 1961 session of Congress, Rayburn was credited with having saved the day for the liberals by personal appeals to some Southern Democrats.

The three issues involved a change in the rules, which won by a vote of 217 to 212; a major amendment, backed by conservatives, to the general housing bill, and a move to kill a bill raising minimum wages. The housing amendment lost by vote of 215 to 197. The attempt to recommit the minimum wage measure failed by a vote of 224 to 196.

★ ★ ★

Even some of the more optimistic liberals in the House concede privately that the 1962 session will be a bad one as far as the Kennedy legislative program is concerned. They see serious trouble ahead for legislation dealing with tariffs, school aid, medical care for the aged, foreign aid and any program involving heavy expeditures of public money.

Ike and Mamie Celebrate Her 65th Birthday

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UPI)—Former President and Mrs. Eisenhower observed the second day of their fall vacation at the Augusta National Golf Course today with a celebration of Mamie's 65th birthday.

A birthday cake was ordered from an Augusta bakery for the occasion. Mrs. Eisenhower also is scheduled to have lunch today with the wives of officers from nearby Ft. Gordon.

The nation's former first couple arrived here Monday morning by private railway car from Washington. They intend to remain from 10 days to three weeks at "Mamie's cabin," a plush house built on the edge of the golf course when the Eisenhowers began making frequent trips here after they occupied the White House.

Williams Says Africans Need 'New' Education

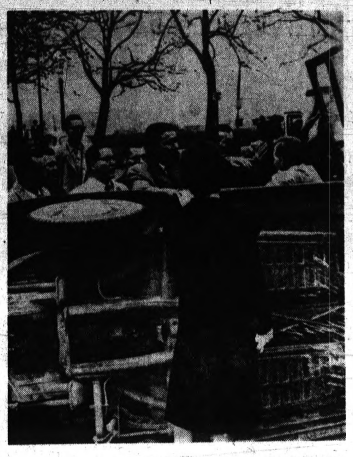

KANSAS CITY (AP) — G. Mennen Williams said Monday that Africans and Europeans are "having new thoughts about the kind of education Africa needs."

★ ★ ★

Williams, secretary of state for African affairs, said the emerging nations of Africa have an immediate need for great numbers of men with specialized skills.

★ ★ ★

The former Michigan governor told the annual meeting of the American Association of Land Grant Colleges and State Universities that Africa needs a new type of educational institution, one essentially African in personality and culture.

Red Vopos Fortify Wall; 15 Berliners Run to West

BERLIN (UPI)—More than 1,000 Communist policemen today strengthened the wall on the East-West Berlin border which was built exactly three months ago.

But at least 15 East Germans fled to West Berlin during the night.

The Communists extended the "death zone," the no-man's land along the walls, and dug new ditches on the 25-mile border. They also carried out more removals of border residents.

Eye Big Foreign Education Plan

Five U.S. University Officials See Value of Bold New Approach

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — The United States was urged today to inaugurate "bold, imaginative, massive and costly" programs of international education, conceived along a broad front and involving tens of thousands of persons.

Five university officials said such programs on behalf of foreign students and foreign universities "will most probably bring greater results per dollar of expenditure than some of our direct aid programs."

A study group headed by Dr. Harry R. Wellman, vice president of the University of California, outlined its conclusions in a report to the annual meeting of the American Association of Land Grant Colleges and State Universities.

"The need is urgent," the report said, "to understand more about the emerging nations, not as potential allies or enemies in sources of raw materials and, some war that should not happen, but as potential markets, as above all, as groups of human individuals who have interest and challenge in their own right."

★ ★ ★

The report noted that "the leaders of the smaller and poorer emerging nations will for some time be educated abroad. It is important that as many as possible be educated in the United States."

The group also warned: "We will err grievously if we conceive of our foreign educational activity in terms of transplanting American political ideology."

Bonn Gives $1,125,000 for Experiment Victims

Undergraduates Show Poor Sportsmanship

Young people do many wonderful things. And at times, they reverse their field, too.

★ ★ ★

An incident of this latter lies in the contemptible act in East Lansing when Football Coach Hugh Daugherty was hung in effigy by some misguided undergraduates who proved their own pressing need for more education.

★ ★ ★

The MSU football team lost two games in a row. Is this earth-shaking? Is it very important? Is it important at all? We answer a decided and emphatic "no" to all three questions.

★ ★ ★

Michigan State has one of the fine football teams in the country—but so have most of her opponents. Fortunately, no one wins all the time in collegiate athletics any more.

★ ★ ★

Students should place things in their proper perspective even at a relatively tender age. The world tolerantly allows for errors, but exceedingly bad sportsmanship and gross manners are harder to forgive. This current exhibition of childishness is unfortunate.

Happily it doesn't represent the thinking of the campus in general. Today most young men and women in college and university life can take football or leave it alone. And even when "they take it," their perspective isn't twisted or warped and they remain ladies and gentlemen and good Americans.

American Record Hits British Sound Barrier

The British Broadcasting Company has banned a record by American singer CHICO HOLIDAY, but not for what might seem the obvious reason —poor taste or horrible noise exported to Britons under the guise of music.

★ ★ ★

In this case, the record "God, Country and My Baby" was repulsed at the beaches, so to speak, in the best British stiff upper lip manner. The reason—too hysterical about the current international situation.

★ ★ ★

Apparently British commentators and comedians are getting boffo laughs with cracks about this country's current interest in fallout shelters. They think Americans are too full of war talk.

★ ★ ★

Perhaps if they were the nation taking the major role in stemming the Red tide around the world, they'd be laughing out of the other side of their mustaches.

President of Ecuador Leans Toward Reds

The following editorial is reprinted from the Nashville Banner which has long been interested in Latin American affairs. The PRESS concurs with the views expressed below.

"The revolutionary shift of power in Ecuador, installing an extreme leftwinger at the helm—in the person of CARLOS JULIO AROSEMENA—bodes no good.

★ ★ ★

"Circumstances depict it as a potential third Red beachhead in Latin America—for the new president is by reputation imbued with that leaning, as is Cheddi Jagan, prime minister of British Guiana; and the fact of his partnership in the making was clearly attested by Fidel Castro's jubilant expression at Havana, hailing the Arosemena coup as a 'victory over Yankee imperialism.

"The hemisphere assuredly can detect circumstantial outlines of danger.

"Notably, it was under military pressure that JOSE VELASCO IBARRA, the outgoing president, resigned — and the army shared his charges that AROSEMENA was a Communist sympathizer and a budding dictator bent on driving the country into that camp. Significantly, the new incumbent is not the military's choice; briefly it installed its own chief executive, CAMILO GALLEGOS TOLEDO on the premise of judicial regard for law and order.

★ ★ ★

"The United States must not rush into diplomatic recognition of this new regime — bestowing prestige, much less the inference of approval, on it. There certainly is no justification for extending to it the handout for which it will be looking to Washington.

"Ecuador's taste in governments is Ecuador's business, but it is not up to the United States to furnish such a regime the fuel for its fires."

What has Kokomo got anyway, besides that comic strip name?

David Lawrence Says: 'And Avoid Strikes!'

Boss and Men Should 'Talk' Daily

WASHINGTON — What do businessmen talk about when they get together nowadays?

Mostly about the short-range future, but lately a few of them have begun to have serious doubts about the long-range outlook for America. Some of them privately express fears that an autocratic exercise by government of the power to control wages and prices is inevitable — and businessmen dread this.

LAWRENCE

If it happens for a prolonged period, they foresee the national growth impaired and a gradual deterioration of the whole system of free enterprise.

Everyone knows, of course, that the railroads are in trouble —due to mishandling by government regulatory bodies and a narrowing of their opportunities to compete with other forms of transportation.

Now the steel industry is beginning to be worried lest it go the way of the railroads, with diminished earnings and an impairment of the competitive spirit as a consequence of excessive regulation by the government.

Current discussions cannot be oversimplified merely by referring to the Kennedy administration as "antibusiness."

SYMPATHY FOR JFK

Actually, there is a growing sympathy for the President and a fear that he may find himself helpless for the present to cure the real illness that afflicts the American economic system today — labor's unrestrained power to force prices upward.

Perhaps the whole question can best be tackled only by an informed public opinion.

"Labor unions are here to stay," said the president of a large industrial company to this writer the other day, "and the sooner we in business accept that fact, the more progress we will make toward a solution of the real problem.

"And that problem is the failure of many labor leaders to see beyond their own political fortunes inside a big union and their inability or unwillingness to deal with the issues in a statesmanlike way."

This is but another way of saying that many labor union leaders are not facing up to their responsibility in a long-range sense, and are doing the very things that will cause unemployment to grow and recessions to recur.

Only this week a United Press International dispatch from Cleveland reports a development which has more significance as to what's coming in America next year—possibly another recession in the autumn of 1962—than any other single economic factor. It reads as follows:

ABOUT STEEL

"The 'Steel' magazine said a steel build-up already is under way. It noted inventories were about 400,000 tons higher at the end of October than at the start of the month."

★ ★ ★

This is exactly what happened early in 1959 just before the 115-day steel strike that began on July 15 and ran until Nov. 7, when it was ended by a Taft-Hartley injunction. A convulsion of the whole economy—called a "recession"—followed and as yet there has not been a complete recovery.

Why is it that everybody waits until just a few days before a contract expires before trying to bring about a settlement? Why shouldn't the steel problem be tackled now, instead of next June? One answer is that labor depends on a process of extortion.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Doctors, Sociable Drinkers Don't Like My Reminders

A recent editorial, titled "Alcohol and You," said:

DR. BRADY

I'm sure my fellow practitioners, or quondam colleagues, as I call 'em, watch this column constantly for any error they can protest. For example, 10 of 'em signed a letter, published in an Eastern paper, asserting that my articles about tonsillectomy were "vicious." They implied it was "vicious" to tell parents that tonsillectomy has a frightful death rate. They did not specify just how many children must die on the operating table or following the operation to make the death rate frightful. But then, I have been "irking" the ever-ready operators for many years by calling tonsillectomy an ATROCITY, so their synthetic indignation is understandable.

What galls the eager beaver operators and "such persons as find cocktails an aid to sociability" is not so much these facts themselves but the fact that I keep reminding people of the facts and so making it difficult to pretend they are not so.

One thing can be said in derogation of strong drink short of Dr. Brady's comparisons with heroin and cocaine, the editorial conceded: "It is better left utterly alone by those who demonstrate they can't handle it."

Drinkers under the influence are generally sure they can "handle" their liquor. Alcoholics characteristically assert they can stop drinking whenever they want to and they need no help.

The kind of sociability aided by cocktails is what made Father Pfau, author of the fascinating "The Prodigal Shepherd," an alcoholic. My copy of the paperback edition of this book has disappeared and I forgot the name of the publisher. Numerous readers tell me they cannot find it in the paperback bookstacks where they have searched for it. A mysterious disappearance!

Father Pfau was a member of Alcoholics Anonymous for a long while before he could bring himself to acknowledge, as all A. A. members do: "I am an alcoholic."

I have great respect for Adventists, Mormons and Mohammedans who practice total abstinence as a principle of their religion. I thank God that my parents pledged their four sons not to use alcohol or tobacco before we were 21 years old. I am forever grateful for the influence the WCTU had upon my parents and I don't give—I don't care if this irks some people. As a man of utmost positiveness, I deplore the equivocal attitude of most churches towards total abstinence. And I don't mean just temperance. Smoking and drinking, it seems to me, is not merely a sign, it is a prime factor of the moral deterioration of young people today.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady. If a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

'Our Foreign Aid Does Little for Enslaved Europeans'

Senator Talmadge of Georgia says: "All men are saddened about the plight of the enslaved people of Eastern Europe. The sufferings of the brave Hungarians, the hardy Poles, and the other lovers of freedom who are trapped behind the Iron Curtain is a constant reminder of the high stakes in the continuing international struggle.

★ ★ ★

"If it were possible to give aid directly to those unfortunate pawns of the cold war there could be no question about extending it. But foreign aid is a government-to-government proposition and aid extended to the Communist satellites not only will not help their subject people, but worse, will give their masters resources with which to forge their chains even tighter."

We've extended too much foreign aid already.

Post Office Is 'No Spy'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Post Office Department said Monday a closed circuit television system being installed in the Detroit Post Office is designed to keep tabs on mechanized equipment and not postal workers.

★ ★ ★

But the National Postal Union denounced the installation as heralding "big brother, super spy" type supervision of postal workers.

"Despite the good intentions of department officials to experiment with the device," the postal union said in a memorandum to its members, "we object strongly to the method that has been used in bringing about the use of television observation lookouts in post offices."

A spokesman at the Post Office Department said the Detroit Post Office is highly mechanized and the TV sets will be used only to monitor ceiling level conveyer equipment to spot any breakdowns. He said the postal unions have been told it won't be used to watch employes.

★ ★ ★

Leaders of other postal unions were inclined to wait and see how the Detroit TV system operates. One said such a system is already in effect in post offices in Canada.

President John W. MacKay of the postal union said, however, his union feels sure the TV equipment will be used to check upon workers as well as equipment and "we're just opposed to that sort of thing."

Case Records of a Psychologist:

'Psychosomatic Medicine' Used

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE K-450: Martha G., aged 23, is a new bride.

"But my right hand is paralyzed," she protested unhappily. "It was perfectly normal until after my marriage last week.

DR. CRANE

"But the very next morning when I woke up, it was numb. And it has been that way ever since.

"Dr. Crane, I am alarmed, for I don't want to have a paralyzed hand all my life.

"Is it polio or what? Please tell me what to do to make it well."

PSYCHOSOMATIC AILMENTS

A person's hand can hardly become totally paralyzed except by a deep cut that entirely encircles the wrist, for the nerve supply of the hand comes from three sources.

So Martha had what we psychiatrists call "glove anesthesia." It is a psychological complex, much like the writer's cramp which I have previously discussed in this column.

To understand this interesting case, please recall the statement in the Bible:

"If thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and if thine hand offend thee, cut it off."

Martha has figuratively cut off her offending hand.

There is an age-old tendency in the human race to pass the buck and thus blame segments of our anatomy for our own wrong behavior.

For example, there have been occasional instances where murderers were later so remorseful that they actually cut off the guilty hand that had plunged the dagger into their wife or child.

With this general background, you are ready for a more detailed explanation of Martha's complex.

PSYCHIC HEIRLOOMS

Her apparent paralysis of the right hand is a psychological heirloom of her childhood training.

For Martha had engaged in auto erotic practices when she was about 10 years old.

One day her mother apprehended her in the act, and was so shocked, as well as incensed, that she forced Martha to plunge the offending hand into a pail of hot water.

The water was so hot and her mother made her keep the naughty hand immersed so long, that it was numb when Martha finally was allowed to remove it from the pail.

Please note that this situation occurred 13 years prior to her wedding day. And ostensibly Martha had completely forgotten it, at least until her lengthy interview.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, she had refrained from any further indulgence in self sex practices.

But her mind had been indelibly impressed with the guilty association of erotic stimulation, followed by numbness of the right hand.

After her marriage, this old thought association was quickly revived, and although her erotic stimulation was now legitimate and a normal function of marriage, her right hand suddenly became numb.

For subconsciously she was again imposing a penalty upon herself, as her mother had so dramatically taught her, 13 years earlier.

When I explained the background of her case and positively told her that her right hand would now move normally and she would have full feeling in it, sure enough, her hand was O. K.

Survivor Tells of Yacht Mishap

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP) — "It was dark, rough and squally. I saw a child floating in the water with a lifejacket. I pulled it into the lifeboat but the child was dead. I drifted with the body beside me until the tanker picked me up."

★ ★ ★

That was part of the story told Monday night by the only known survivor of seven Americans aboard a 60-foot yacht which caught fire and sank during a cruise of Bahamian waters.

ADRIFT 14 HOURS

The survivor, Capt. Julian Harvey, 44, skipper of the ketch Blue Belle, said the vessel went down about 50 miles northwest of Nassau late Sunday night.

After drifting for 14 hours with the body of a 10-year-old girl beside him, Harvey was picked up by the tanker Gulf Lyon and brought to Nassau. He was treated for exposure and shock.

Also aboard and believed lost when the Blue Belle went down were Mary Dene Harvey, 34, wife of the skipper; Arthur Dupersault, about 40, of Green Bay, Wis., his wife and three children, including the girl and two boys aged 8 and 14.

TELLS OF SINKING

The Blue Belle, owned by Harold S. Pegg of Hollywood, Fla., left Bahia Mar yacht basin in Fort Lauderdale Wednesday.

Harvey said the party left Sandy Point in the Bahamas about 5 p.m. Sunday to return to Fort Lauderdale.

★ ★ ★

"About 11 o'clock we ran into a sudden squall near Stirrup Key," he reported. "The mainmast crashed through the hull, fire broke out and the boat went down within 15 minutes."

Nixon Would Accent the Positive for '62

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—This country needs a strategy of victory to counter Nikita Khrushchev's strategy of demand, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon said at a $100-a-plate Republican fund-raising dinner Monday night.

★ ★ ★

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower wasn't at the Cow Palace—where the 1956 Republican ticket was born—but he sent a message.

"This is the time to lay aside divisive talk about 1964," he said, "and to concentrate upon the challenge of 1962."

Mexico to Guard 47 Castro Foes

To Assume Protection of Group in Venezuelan Embassy in Havana

CARACAS, Venezuela (UPI) — Mexico has agreed to assume the protection of 47 anti-Castro Cubans in the Venezuelan embassy in Havana.

President Rolulo Betancourt announced in a nationwide radio and television speech Saturday night that Venezuela had broken off all relations with Cuba because of "continued insults and interference."

It was learned that Venezuelan Charge d'Affaires, Francisco Quijada informed the Cuban refugees that Mexico would take over their protection. The 47 Cubans include former President Manuel Urrutia, ex-Labor Minister Manolo Fernandez and Premier Fidel Castro's one-time private secretary, Juan Orta.

The United States and nine Latin American countries had severed relations with Castro's regime previously. The nine are Costa Rica, Honduras, the Dominican Republic, El Salvador, Guatemala, Haiti, Nicaragua, Paraguay and Peru.

In his speech, Betancourt said the move had the unconditional support of the armed forces, labor and political parties and warned Castro backers any protests would be curbed "rapidly, energetically and efficiently." No incidents were reported.

He said concern for the 47 Cubans in asylum had delayed the break. It came two weeks after a bitter attack on Betancourt by Cuban Foreign Minister Paul Roa.

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials for normal regularity

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents become so dry and shrunken that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge.

Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulks and moisteners may create gas, take 3 or 4 days for relief. Old-style salts and drugs cramp and gripe the entire system. Of all laxatives, only new Colonaid gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).

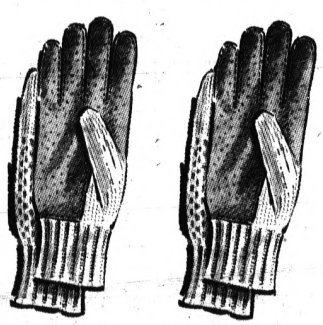

(1) Colonaid prevents the formation of dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain or strain. (2) Colonaid's unequalled rebulking action helps restore flabby colon muscles. (3) And Colonaid acts gently, on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the vital "mass movement" of your lower colon.

Colonaid relieves even chronic constipation overnight; is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for expectant mothers. And Colonaid won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or other food nutrients. Get Colonaid today! INTRODUCTORY SIZE 43¢

'No Ghost Town for Us,' Say Davisburg Folks

BY JIM LONG

DAVISBURG — There'll soon be no need for residents to go out of their way to buy a few groceries as has been the case since the village's only market closed two weeks ago.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Clyde Nelsey, campaigning alone to revitalize this little community's business district, announced today that plans have been made to open a milk depot and small grocery here before the end of the month.

★ ★ ★

In another turn of events, it was also learned, she said, that the unincorporated village will continue to be served by a restaurant, previously scheduled to close at the end of this week.

Mrs. Nelsey, 9985 Cross-Hill Road, began promoting the town with all effort early this month when she realized that something must be done to give the community a boost.

"Otherwise there wouldn't be a community at all," she said.

Half of the stores in town presently are vacant.

A former postmaster here, Mrs. Nelsey believes that residents themselves must have the incentive to bring new business into the village, or personally open antique shops.

GROCERY FIRST

Her first goal was a grocery, already a successful project with the announcement that Walter Samuel, who presently operates a small appliance shop would open a food store.

The restaurant, which was expected to shut down Saturday, will stay open under the management of Mrs. Rowland Harmes, who is taking over its operation the first of next week.

"This will give the community a much needed boost," said Mrs. Nelsey, who only last week feared that unless something was done the village of 350 residents would become a ghost town.

COLONIAL SHOPS

One of Mrs. Nelsey's ideas is to have antique and gift shops established in the village, thus giving it a colonial air and a distinction all its own.

"Our big problem now," Mrs. Nelsey said, "is to get the highway department to hear our pleas for an entrance and exit ramp to I75 now under construction."

The highway, located about 1½ miles from Davisburg, does not provide any access to the village. Davisburg Road, the community's main artery to U.S. 10, will pass right over the new highway.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Nelsey said she has and will continue to contact highway officials hoping that a revision in plans can be made to provide ramps to and from the highway.

Special Police Veto Overruled

Southfield Mayor Says No in Vain to Ordinance Adopted by Council

SOUTHFIELD—Mayor S. James Clarkson last night vetoed a special police ordinance adopted by the City Council last week, and the council promptly overruled his objection.

★ ★ ★

The ordinance in question would authorize Police Chief Milton Sackett to appoint special police officers in any regional shopping center in the city.

Clarkson claims the ordinance is unconstitutional and the chief of police hasn't the authority to make such appointments.

The council will seek an opinion on the matter form Att. Gen. Paul Adams.

The ordinance was adopted after Northland's general manager Richard W. Frey notified the council that all Northland Center police had been Oakland County sheriff deputies the last seven years but nuder a new ruling the sheriff is unable to appoint anyone living outside the county.

Abner O. Bryant of 9976 Elizabeth Lake Road died in Wayne County General Hospital. He had suffered burns over 60 per cent of his body.

Bryant, father of three children, had been working on an addition to the Annapolis Hospital in Wayne when the explosion occurred, spraying him with burning oil.

The victim was employed by the Paul H. Johnson, Inc., construction firm, Detroit.

Court-appointed attorney S. Jerome Bronson said Overall, who fled to Ohio after the alleged killing, would stand mute to the charge. Overall was returned to the county jail without benefit of bond.

Could Have Ended 'Buffers'

Troy Denies Rezoning Bid

TROY —Agreeing with its earlier decisions, the city commission denied a rezoning request last night which could have destroyed the city's buffer zones between residential and industrial land.

★ ★ ★

According to Commissioner Robert J. Bargert, the request, if approved, would have implied that any strip lying adjacent to industrial land could be rezoned for industrial use at the owner's request.

Frank C. Newell, owner of about 12 acres of property on the north side of Maple Road facing Crooks Road, had asked for rezoning of the land from residential and commercial to industrial use at earlier comission meetings.

His previous requests had been denied.

Homeowners' arguments against the rezoning request were that industry on the site would increase traffic flow which present roads could not handle safely, and that this change would not follow the city's master zoning plan.

5 TO 2 VOTE

The request was turned down by a 5 to 2 vote, Comissioners James F. Carey and Clifford Sutermeister Jr. dissenting.

In other business last night, the commission awarded a contract for construction of the Dequindre water main to the Nelson M. Sharrow Co. of Marine City.

The firm's low bid for cast iron pipe was $81,420.

★ ★ ★

The commission approved the drawing up of an amendment to the present civil defense ordinance governing removal of the CD director.

Under the amendment, the director will serve at the pleasure of the commission. Presently he can be removed only for malfeasance of duty.

The proposed amendment will follow the unanimous recommendation of the newly formed five-man civil defense study committee.

★ ★ ★

Clarence F. Long, CD director, serves on the study committee with Mayor Robert J. Huber, Mayor Pro Tem Vincent J. McAvoy, City Manager David E. Firestone and school board representative John P. Diefenbaker.

The committee will meet again Friday morning to map out Troy's civil defense policy.

Deadline on Signing Up for Wheat Support Near

Only a short time remains in which wheat growers may file applications to take part in the 1962 winter wheat stabilization program, Robert H. Long, chairman Oakland County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, reminded farmers today.

The deadline is Dec. 1, Long said, which means that producers may sign up in the program at any time through that date.

Farmers who take part in the program will be eligible to receive special payments for diverting a part of their wheat history acreage from the production of wheat and devoting that acreage to an approved conservation use.

★ ★ ★

They also will qualify for price support if they have planted within their allotment, the county ASCS chairman said.

Support will not be available even though the allotment is not exceeded unless an acreage equal to 10 per cent of the original allotment is diverted. This 10 per cent is in excess of the allotment received by the wheat grower.

The 1962 wheat support in Oakland County will be in excess of $2 a bushel.

★ ★ ★

Farmers can sign up at the County ASCS Office located at 63 Oakland Ave., Pontiac. The office is open Monday thru Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

'Patriots' Hope to Halt Planes

Group at San Diego to Protest U.S. Shipment of Jets to Yugoslavia

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI) — Placard-bearing planes, boats and cars were being massed here today in a protest demonstration designed to arouse the nation against shipments to Communist Countries.

The demonstrators, banded together under the title of "Patriots Unlimited," are protesting the scheduled arrival of the Yugoslavian freighter Gundulic to load four U.S. jet training planes for Yugoslavia.

Edward S. Barr, 28, crew-cut leader of the protest flotilla, said the demonstration was planned, "to arouse the nation to awareness that continuation of our present policy is a direct route to total surrender to communism."

At preliminary rallies last week participants resolved to write letters to President Kennedy urging him to halt shipments to Communist countries. The letters are being mailed so they will reach the President Friday when he is to arrive here to view Navy-Marine war games.

★ ★ ★

A symbolic re-enactment of the "Boston Tea Party" was also planned for the protest program today.

The Coast Guard warned demonstrators not to approach within 200 feet of the Gundulic and not to interfere with the ship's movements.

★ ★ ★

"We don't intend to break any laws," said Barr, a San Diego marina operator.

Hunters to Be Sentenced for House Trailer Theft

Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams will sentence two would-be deer hunters Nov. 28 for grand larceny in the theft of a house trailer from a Waterford Township man.

★ ★ ★

A third person stood mute when arraigned on the same charge yesterday by Judge Adams. A plea of innocent was entered for Gary L. Skrobeck, 19, 4146 Lamont St., of Waterford Township.

Pleading guilty to stealing the 24-foot trailer Oct. 7, which the trio planned to use along with other allegedly stolen hunting and camping equipment, were Thomas L. Duford Jr., 23, of 4813 Sashabaw Road, Independence Township, and Darrell O'Neil, 19, of 4146 Lamont St.

Duford was arraigned in the morning so that he could make an afternoon court date in Bay County. He faces charges there concerning the theft of a car that occurred when the trio's car broke down on the return trip from their deer hunting camp near Houghton Lake.

★ ★ ★

O'Neil is being held in the Oakland County jail on a $2,500 bond while Duford and Skrobeck are free on bond. No trial date was set for Skrobeck.

Union Officer's Wife to Testify

Judge Orders Woman to Appear as Witness Before Grand Jury

DETROIT (UP) — A judge has ruled that Mrs. Elaine Mastaw McMaster, wife of an indicted Teamsters Union official, must appear as a witness before a federal grand jury.

★ ★ ★

U.S. District Judge Thomas P. Thornton Monday ordered Mrs. McMaster to appear in rejecting her plea that she might then be forced to testify against her husband.

Mrs. McMaster heads the Southern Michigan Lease Co., 21910 Berg Road, Southfield, a firm that leases tractors and bulldozers. The grand jury wants to see the company's books and records. Judge Thornton ordered her to produce the records.

Mrs. McMaster's husband, Roland B. McMaster, secretary-treasurer of Teamsters Local 299 of Detroit, is under indictment for allegedly accepting money from an employer who has union members working for him. This is a violation of the Taft-Hartley Labor Law. Local 299 is Teamsters President James R. Hoffa's home local.

★ ★ ★

The McMasters were married July 11. McMaster was indicted Oct. 30. About three weeks prior to her husband's indictment Mrs. McMaster was subpenaed for her company's books and records.

Shooting Charge Examination Set

Pontiac Woman Is Held in County Jail After Gunning Collector

The 45-year-old Pontiac widow who admitted shooting a Southfield bill collector Saturday afternoon will be examined Nov. 29 in Municipal Court on a charge of attempted murder.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Elizabeth E. Jones of 436 Harvey St., demanded the examination yesterday afternoon in her hearing before Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum.

Mrs. Jones is being held today in the Oakland County Jail, unable to furnish $15,000 bond set by Judge McCallum.

Albert Leo Jr., 37, 29213 Fairfax St., Southfield, is still in critical condition today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. Mrs. Jones told Pontiac police she shot Leo following an argument over an overdue bill for a new furnace he was trying to collect.

★ ★ ★

Oakland County Prosecutor George F. Taylor said yesterday a charge of first-degree murder would be brought against Mrs. Jones if Leo dies.

Leo, who was shot in the spine as he was standing in front of Mrs. Jones' home Saturday afternoon, will be paralyzed for life if he recovers, according to Taylor.

The hurricane hit the coast between Acapulco and Zihuatanejo, about 100 miles to the north, and howled inland to blow itself out in the mountains.

Dem Conference Reaches Detroit

GOP Attacks White House 'Safari' With 'Paul Revere' Panel

DETROIT (UP) — The Democrats today set up the Detroit section of their national series of White House regional conferences in the wake of Republican attacks on the propriety of the meetings.

★ ★ ★

A GOP "Paul Revere" panel was busy in the Detroit area Monday taking pot shots at the meetings which President Kennedy said are intended to get the government closer to the people.

Vice President Lyndon Johnson's address tonight was a highlight of the two-day Motor City meeting bringing top Democratic officials here from Washington.

During their 48 hours here the Democrats planned to discuss various matters, including employment and the country's economics, with Michigan officials.

One of the administration's leaders given top billing for the conference missed out, however.

Officers quoted Raymond Hendrix, operator of the store where Mrs. Locklear was employed, as saying the couple began arguing. Then he said, Locklear began "slapping her around."

DREW PISTOLS

Hendrix said Mrs. Locklear pulled a pistol from her purse, Locklear drew one from his pocket, and both began shooting at close range.

Friends of Locklear said he complained recently about his nerves. He had been separated from his wife for several months. He was convicted three months ago of assault by threatening her with a pistol.

The shooting orphaned three children. The Locklears, American Indians, had two girls, aged 3 and 4, and a boy, 2.

Rash of Bogus $10 Bills Bothers Secret Service

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Counterfeit $10 bills are flooding New York and popping up in small numbers in other states as far west as California, the Secret Service reported today.

Chief James J. Rowley considers the problem the most acute to confront the Secret Service in years. He and aides are planning a special effort to alert the public.

Although the bogus $10s are not top quality counterfeits, they are so deceptive that some are getting by bank tellers.

Limited numbers of phony $1 bills, hard to distinguish from good money, have appeared recently in San Francisco, Toledo and Cleveland. They pose a special problem because $1 counterfeits are uncommon and people are even less likely to check to see if they are genuine.

STILL APPEARING

Only last spring a rash of counterfeit $20 bills appeared in New York and bedevilled the Secret Service until agents found the printing plant in Union City, N. J.

Despite intense efforts by Secret Service agents to track down the source of supply, the phony $10s have been appearing in increasing numbers in New York City.

Last week agents and banks removed 263 of them from circulation — the highest one-week total to date. Since the bogus $10s were first spotted on Sept. 21 more than 1,500 have been hauled in, mainly in New York.

★ ★ ★

About a dozen "passers" have been arrested, but all are "small fry," according to the Secret Service.

Send Plant or Flowers This Time

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: I belong to the women's guild of our church. There are about 20 members in all and at each meeting we contribute 50 cents. Whenever any of the members has a birthday or anniversary, a present is bought out of this money and presented to that person. One of the members lost her husband six months ago. Her wedding anniversary is next month and we are divided as to what to do about giving her a present.

Some of the members feel we should send her a present and that it will be slighting her if we don't. I, and a few of the other members, feel that a present will be out of order under the circumstances. Will you please give us your opinion?

A: The nicest thing to do will be to send her some flowers so that she will know she has your thoughtful sympathy on this sad anniversary.

Q: My husband was asked to give a friend's daughter away at her forthcoming marriage. The bride's father is not living. The men in the wedding party will be wearing tuxedos. As my husband does not own a tuxedo he will have to rent one.

I would like to know who pays for this? Some say the bridegroom should and others that my husband pays for this himself. Will you please tell me who is responsible for this expense?

A: Your husband pays this expense himself.

Q: When introducing my fiance to friends, is it necessary to explain who he is? In other words, do I say, "John Jones, my fiance" or is "John Jones" enough? Also when introducing a relative, is it necessary to explain the relationship?

A: "John Jones—my fiance" is correct. When introducing a relative you naturally say, "My sister," "My cousin" or whoever it may be.

Let's Change Attitude . . . Abby

Don't Keep Running to Mom but Tattling at Times Is OK

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: In our class at school we had a big discussion about "tattling" and we would like to know how you feel about the subject. Thank you.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

DEAR STUDENTS: For some reason, teachers and even parents teach young people that it is "unethical" or downright disgraceful for one child to tell someone in authority that another child has disobeyed, misbehaved or even broken the law. Is it any wonder we have hoodlums and vandals who count it a virtue not to "squeal"?

ABBY

This is not to be confused with running to Mamma or the teacher with, "Johnny hit me!" If children are to grow up with a sense of civic duty, they cannot be taught that it is "noble" to remain silent when they know who has destroyed public property or committed other serious anti-social acts. (It is their parents who must pay for such deeds.)

I think that a guilty child should "get by" unpunished; the next time he will try something a little bolder. I think it is time we adults reviewed our attitude on "tattling."

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: When my husband and I rented this apartment, we specifically asked if we could keep our dog with us. The landlord said, "Yes, if the dog is quiet and well-behaved." Our dog IS quiet and well-behaved, unless a stranger comes around. We have been here less than a month and the landlord tells us we can't keep our dog.

He said, "You have a full-grown boxer, and to me a boxer is not a dog, but a 'pony'." We signed a year's lease and like this place. Can he make us move? And is a boxer a dog or a horse?

JUST MOVED IN

DEAR JUST: If your boxer raises Ned whenever a "stranger comes around," he is being far from "quiet and well-behaved." You don't need a dictionary, you need a lawyer.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I am amused by some of the women who write to you and ask your help to get them a man. I am an unmarried man, alone, retired and live in my own home on a lake—rather secluded—and have ample income for two.

I have placed blind ads in papers and magazines and have answered others—61 to be exact. I have visited their miserable apartments and have yet to find a lady who will live more than four blocks from a bus line.

Men, Get With It!

Smash That Bay Window

B JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

The familiar bay window is man's most usual figure defect. When the lean look of youth is replaced by this absurdity, it's time to start exercising as well as dieting. And when your abdomen reaches your destination before your chest does, you are in real danger.

Therefore, abdominal exercises are valuable for men as well as for women. The exercises printed Monday are fine for men, too, but they seem to like the two following ones better.

Lie on the floor on your back, in a straight line—arms over head and legs straight. Raise your arms and trunk and touch your fingers to your toes. Lower trunk and arms to the floor. If you cannot keep your feet on the floor, ask someone to hold them down or tuck them under a divan. Keep the knees stiff.

Another: Lie on the floor on your back with your legs straight and your arms on the floor at your sides. Raise both legs halfway up (with stiff knees) as you raise your trunk halfway up, like a jackknife.

At the same time, swing the arms forward and upward to a shoulder height position. Hold for a second or so and return arms, legs and trunk, to the floor.

Here are two exercises for keeping or improving those broad shoulders. Stand tall. Extend your arms out at your sides, shoulder-height position, palms facing the floor. Raise and lower arms, up and down, no more than six to eight inches in each direction. After a time rest and continue.

Another: Take the same starting position. This time make small circles with your arms, elbows stiff. Circle first in one direction and then in the other.

This week I have been suggesting to you that it would be fun and also a health bonus if you would exercise together as a family once a day. You might try doing the exercises to music.

Hold it! But not for very long — just a few seconds. Return arms, legs and trunk to the floor. Continue. This is the way to break that bay window.

Presbyterian Women Hold Circle Meetings

The Flora Shelly Circle of the First Presbyterian Church met for dinner Friday in the small dining room of the church. Assisting Mrs. Roy O. Ward, chairman, were Mrs. Earl Clark, Mildred Hill, Grace Heitsch and Ethel A. Wooden.

Officers elected for 1962 are Adah Shelly, president; Mrs. Earl Clark, vice president; Ethel A. Wooden, secretary and Mrs. Ward, treasurer.

Mrs. Monroe will be hostess for the Christmas meeting and party at 6:30 p.m. Dec. 15 in her home on Cherokee Road.

★ ★ ★

Eleven members of the September-October Group attended a brief meeting at the church Thursday after serving at the coffee hour for the Needlework Guild Ingathering.

★ ★ ★

The Faith Group of the First Presbyterian Church gathered for luncheon Friday at the Bedford Road home of Mrs. James Coon. Cohostesses were Mrs. Donald Barker and Mrs. Earl Downing.

Mrs. Robert Sigler reviewed the final portion of the Bible study on the Gospel of St. John.

Reservations were taken for the annual Christmas dinner of the Women's Association at 6:30 p.m., Dec. 1 at the church. The men of the church will serve.

Mrs. Frank Wilson will open her home for the group's Christmas party Dec. 8, with Mrs. Harold Smead and Mrs. Sigler assisting.

Former member, Mrs. Burton M. Mitchell, was accepted into active membership.

Parents to See Airborne TV

At Emmanuel Christian School's 7:30 open house this evening parents will see the new airborne television instructional system in use at Emmanuel Christian School, according to Dr. Tom Malone, superintendent.

The "Airborne TV Open House" will be from 8 to 9:35 p.m. A special program, originating from the "flying classroom" — a TV-equipped aircraft hovering at 23,000 feet over Indiana — will present samples of the video-taped lessons the children have been receiving in the school.

In addition, parents, members of boards of education and teachers will observe how airborne TV is utilized by teachers in the classroom and will learn of plans to continue the instructional system on a long-term basis.

An estimated half-million students are receiving the telecasts at schools in Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio and Wisconsin. The lesson material is transmitted by means of video tape from a four-engine aircraft operated by the Midwest Program at Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind.

Teachers will instruct 15 minute classes for the parents. Student work will be displayed, and the elementary band program will be explained. The new chemistry lab also will be open for inspection.

A nursery will be available for small children.

Bringing Up Baby

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

A new baby in the house prompts all kinds of advice from backyard baby-care experts. Most of it is well-meaning but often conflicting and thereby confusing. Best advice, of course, will come from your doctor. Next best is to read authoritative material... then heed your heart and your common sense. Amazing how reliable your own instincts are.

•

New-baby basic. Specially prepared cereals come early in the modern baby's diet. One reason is that they give baby the iron that milk does not supply. Gerber Rice Cereal is a good starter because it's especially mild, and like all Gerber Cereals, easy to digest. For variety's sake rotate the Rice Cereal with Barley, Oatmeal, Mixed Cereal and High Protein Cereal. All are enriched with iron and B-vitamins.

•

Security plan. The custom of swaddling a tiny one is as old as time itself. It not only provides friendly warmth and a feeling of security, but it's still the best way I know to comfort a fussy baby.

•

Water plan. Does baby balk at water? If so, he's probably getting enough from his formula and juice. Offer previously boiled water, but don't urge it on baby.

•

As your baby goes to a full food schedule, he'll start on fruits and vegetables. Gerber Strained and Junior Fruits and Vegetables are prepared to make your tyke like to eat. All are specially prepared for utmost protection of nutritive values.

•

When your doctor puts baby on meats, he's indicating protein for his growth. Gerber Strained Meats are protein-rich, wonderfully smooth and moist. Made of selected Armour* cuts, they're especially savory and extra low in fat.

•

*Armour Meat Protein is complete protein, supplying all the essential amino acids that build and re-build vital body tissues.

. . . And Chiropodists Are Darned Glad of It

Relax Girls, Pointed Toes Are Getting the Boot

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — It is with a twinge of relief in the big toes (and a twinge of pain in the budget) that I note the sharply pointed women's shoe is on its way out.

Always despised the "pointed toe look." It was an idiotic fashion for my money—what money was left after paying off the chiropodist for treatments on the corns.

The idea of watching my leather toes precede my natural toes by a half-inch and more always made me feel like some spear-footed monster.

The reason the rapier shoe is going out of style, top shoe designer David Evins informs, is that it had reached the point of distortion. "It began its career as a long, lean look which was very graceful and helped the shoe industry. But the shoemakers got carried away.

"All at once, shoes looked more like weapons than fashions. The point became pointless, so to speak. Now shoes will be shoes again, and feet will be feet."

* * *

My chiropodist, along with most of his fraternity, reports that he is gratified at the change. A kindly sort, he viewed the pointed toe as a genuine threat to female foot health—and says he would rather see his business drop off a little and be assured of having his patients live longer on foot rather than in wheelchairs.

ONE PROBLEM

The only trouble with the changeover is that during the transition period, the so-called stylish shoes now have square toes. How homely and awkward!

The chief difference between square toes and pointed toes is that now, when a women kicks up her heels, she appears ready to merely stun her victim, rather than knifing him dead.

Wouldn't it be interesting to see a shoe silhouette someday that conforms gracefully to the physical shape of the foot? Curving gently back from the big toe to the little toe, the way God made feet?

But that's a ridiculous idea because although most Americans love God, they seem to think his ideas can be improved upon with a little padding here and there. Do you know any church elders, for instance, who approve of nudism?

* * *

Ray Milland, of all marvelous people, is a connoisseur of women's fashions. This is not because he has any inclination toward dress designing (bless him!) but he is a connoisseur of women . . . and did you ever know a connoisseur of art who didn't take some interest in frames?

Well, Milland says "the most alluring outfit a woman can wear is a white shirtwaist and a plain black skirt, with a string of pearls around her neck."

The reason he likes black and white with pearls is that "when you're conscious of a woman's dress, you are oblivious to what's inside it. That's bad. Sex appeal is an internal quality. Webster says it's 'the quality that attracts the opposite sex.'

"I'd like to go farther: Sex appeal is a quality that gives a man the feeling that the woman is both the lady and the tiger. And a white shirt and dark skirt express those feelings—stark darkness and purity."

Milland shrugged when we suggested the combination might have a "uniform" quality.

"Yes, and you might say it's too much a combination worn by the 'girl-next-door' type. Too demure. But note that many glamortype girls in revealing gowns are still searching for what I believe is referred to as 'true love,' while the girls next door are settled down with good, observant men."

Prelate Is Elected by Armenian Church

DETROIT (AP) — Bishop Hrant Khatchadourian is the new permanent prelate of the Armenian Apostolic Church of North America.

The 35-year-old bishop formerly was acting prelate. His election came Sunday as the church concluded its annual convention attended by representatives of the prelacy's 30 parishes in the United States and Canada.

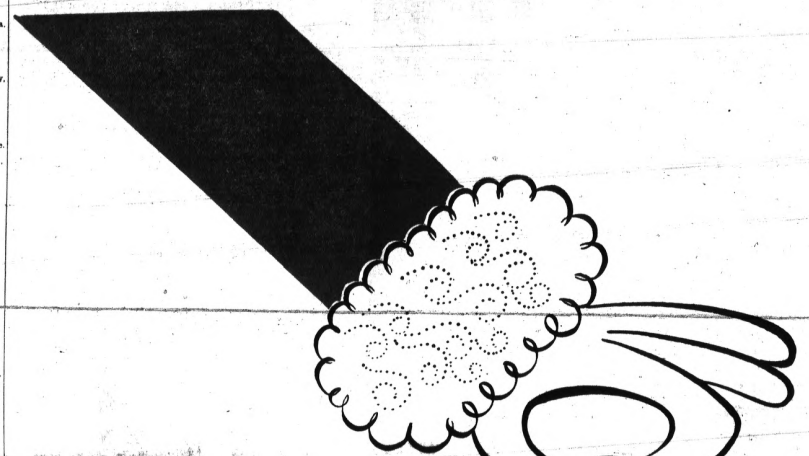

Bishop Khatchadourian called for strengthening and expanding "our church facilities in America as an added assurance to our less fortunate brothers presently living in areas of the world where religious freedoms are denied all men."

Turkey Roasts Fast in Aluminum Foil

Because time is of the essence on holidays, why not roast that turkey in aluminum foil? This means wrapping it carefully in heavy duty aluminum foil and baking it at a high temperature for about half as much time as one ordinarily uses for turkey-roasting. It's a favorite way with many homemakers and one that produces a juicy, moist, tender bird.

Turkey Aluminum Foil

Prepare turkey for roasting, defrosting thoroughly, if frozen. Stuff turkey or not, as desired, and truss in the usual manner. Simmer giblets and neck in covered saucepan with one quart of water, seasonings and a small onion until tender. Remove liver after 30 minutes. Use this broth in the gravy.

Use heavy duty aluminum foil and wrap turkey carefully. Eighteen-inch-wide foil will wrap turkeys up to 16 pounds eviscerated weight. Two 18-inch widths may be spliced for larger turkeys.

Lay turkey on its back in middle of foil. Brush all over with butter; season with salt and pepper. Place small folds of foil over the ends of legs, wing tips and tail to prevent puncturing. Bring long ends of foil up over the breast of the turkey and overlap 3 inches or more. Close open ends by folding underneath foil up and over the top piece. Let it extend up 2 to 4 inches so drippings will not run into pan. Large turkeys may have as much as 3 pints of drippings. Place turkey in a shallow pan in oven; roast according to chart.

TIME TABLE FOR ROASTING TURKEY IN ALUMINUM FOIL

Ready-to-cook weight (pounds)	Oven temp. (Very hot oven)	Internal temperature	Total cooking time (hours approx.)
7-9	450°F	190°F	2¼ to 2½
10-13	450°F	190°F	2½ to 3
14-17	450°F	190°F	3 to 3¼
18-21	450°F	190°F	3¼ to 3½
22-24	450°F	190°F	3½ to 3¾

Twenty minutes before end of roasting time, open and fold back aluminum foil. Spoon juices in bottom of foil over turkey and let turkey brown.

★ ★ ★

Remove turkey to platter. Garnish with parsley and spiced crab apples. Ladle juices into saucepan, add broth from giblets, seasonings to taste, and thicken in the usual manner.

Aluminum Foil Cook's Friend

Why not make foil dishes for serving a big crowd, often a problem for many? Use it to shape little boats for whipped yams. And use it again to make little tart holders for the tasty apple tarts. The shimmery silver of the foil can help lay a table as beautiful as one set with ancestral silver and china.

Quick Creamed Potatoes

Blend one can undiluted condensed cream of mushroom or cream of chicken soup with 1/3 cup milk; heat. Or blend one can undiluted condensed cream of celery soup with ½ cup milk and heat. Pour over 6 small cooked potatoes and heat. Sprinkle with paprika.

★ ★ ★

Whipped Yams in Foil Boats

Cook yams in jackets or skins in small amount of boiling salted water, covered, until tender — about 30-35 minutes. Drain. Peel and mash well. Add hot milk or cream and whip or mash until creamy. Add salt, pepper and butter or margarine to taste.

If desired, also add a few tablespoons of drained canned crushed pineapple or chopped pecans or a few pieces of cut-up marshmallow. Or add a dash of nutmeg or cinnamon. Spoon into aluminum foil boats and slip back into oven to keep hot until ready to serve.

To make foil boats: For each boat use a 5" by 7" piece of foil. Place all pieces together, one on top of another, then fold in half and cut length-wise into an elongated half-circle. Open out. With each oval, turn up edges and flute to lok like a boat. Pile a serving of whipped yams into each boat, sprinkle with nutmeg, and keep hot in oven until ready to serve.

★ ★ ★

Glazed Apple Tarts

Make up pastry from a favorite recipe, enough for six 3-inch tarts. Roll thin. Cut 5-inch circles from standard aluminum foil. Cut matching circles of pastry and place on foil. Prick all over with a fork. Turn up foil and pastry and pinch all around to form tart shells. Place on cookie sheet and bake in a very hot oven (450 degrees F.) 12 minutes or until lightly browned.

Apple Filling

2 lbs. Rome Beauty or Cortland apples
4 tablespoons lemon juice
1 cup sugar
½ cup water
2 tablespoons butter
Nutmeg

Peel apples and slice. Place the lemon juice and water in a saucepan and bring to boil. Add the apples and simmer until tender, being careful not to break them. Cool slightly; then lift apples from syrup and fill tarts. Add the butter to the syrup and pour over each tart. Dust with nutmeg. Cool, then arrange each tart on a second foil circle, crimping it attractively. Top with dollops of slightly sweetened whipped cream and garnish with maraschino cherries.

Half Brown Sugar Good in Cranberries

A sugar changeover gives cranberry sauce old-fashioned flavor.

New York Cranberry Sauce

1 cup granulated sugar
1 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
1 cup water
3 cups (1 pound) cranberries (washed and picked over)

Mix sugars and water in a medium sized kettle; bring to a boil; cover and boil 2 minutes. Add cranberries; boil without cover until cranberries stop popping—about 5 minutes. Skim off foam. Cover kettle and cool; chill.

Planned-Over Turkey

Add cubed leftover turkey or chicken along with cooked vegetables (such as peas, snap beans, celery, carrots) to a white sauce and top with crispy cooked bacon. Nice for Sunday night supper.

Orange Mold Rings Around Apple Salad

Frozen orange juice has uses other than as a breakfast drink. It adds excellent flavor to gelatin salads like the one below. This might be a good choice for your Thanksgiving menu.

Frozen Orange-Gelatin Ring

2 (6-oz.) cans frozen concentrated orange juice
3 cups water
2 packages orange flavored gelatin
Few grains salt

Let orange juice stand at room temperature in unopened containers until defrosted to "mushy" stage. Heat 2 cups water to boiling. Mix water in bowl with the orange-flavored gelatin, stirring until dissolved. Mix the frozen concentrated orange juice with the 1 cup unheated water; stir into gelatin mixture with a few grains of salt. (The cold juice makes the mixture start to jell promptly.) Turn into 5½-cup ring mold and chill until firm.

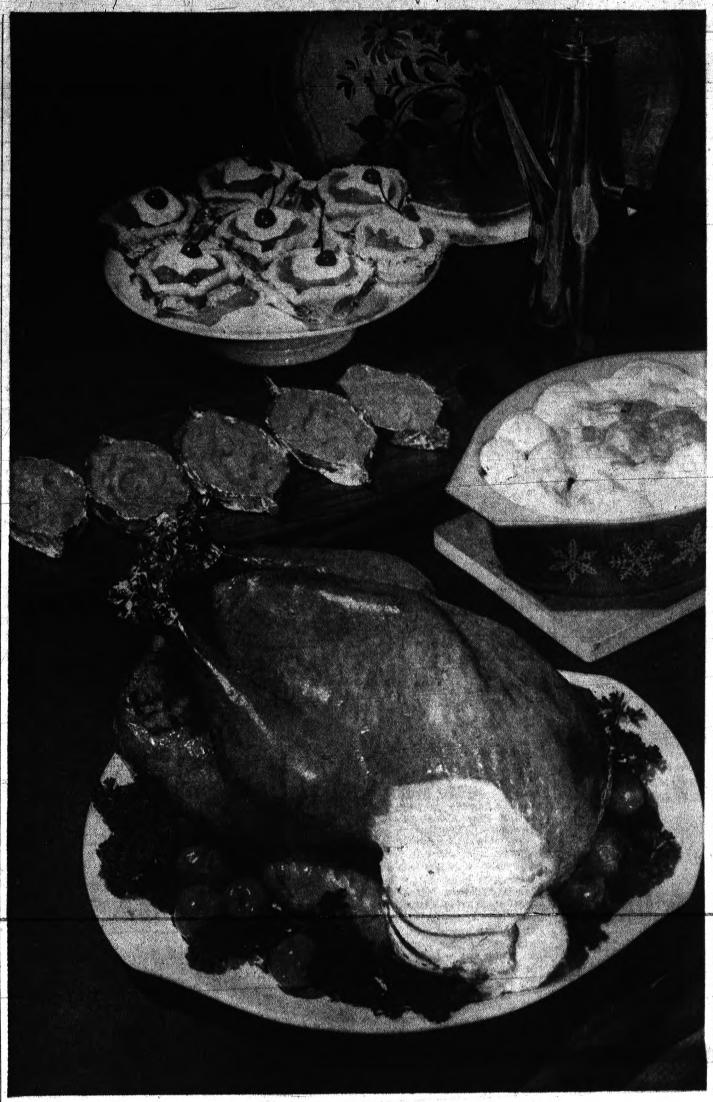

Unmold on chop plate and arrange greens around outside. Place Waldorf salad in ring center with greens and around outside if desired. Serves 6 or 8.

To make Waldorf Salad, prepare 2½ cups diced unpeeled red apples. Sprinkle with 2 tablespoons frozen lemon juice. Add 1 cup chopped celery. Mix ¼ cup mayonnaise with 2 tablespoons evaporated milk or light cream and toss with apple-celery combination. Chill until ready to serve.

Word 'Turkey' Comes From India via Spain

NEW YORK (UPI) — The turkeys that grace our Thanksgiving boards do not take their name from the country, Turkey. They're believed to be named for India, because the first turkeys arrived in Spain at a time when the New World was thought to be connected with India.

The Spanish thought the turkey was a peacock, which in India's Tamil language is "toka," Jewish merchants in Spain converted the Tamil word to the Hebrew "tukki" and this was eventually Anglicized into "turkey."

TURKEY 'N' TRIMMINGS — Turkey still holds the place of honor on the Thanksgiving table, even though it is now available the year round. Spiced crabapples make a colorful garnish. There are Quick Creamed Potatoes in the blue casserole and whipped yams in the little foil boats (could be whipped squash if you don't want two kinds of potatoes). For dessert a tray of Glazed Apple Tarts is passed. Apples are so plentiful this year that they should appear somewhere in the holiday dinner.

Thanksgiving Dinner Calls for Traditional Food

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

'Tis high time you started making plans for that dinner you'll be serving Thursday, November 23. The more you can do ahead of time, the easier the day itself will be for you.

Now that turkey comes in small, medium and large sizes, no need forego it it for the holiday. Even if there are only two of you, you can buy turkey parts or buy a small broiling turkey.

Prices this year are pleasingly low. The most economical bird is the 16-25 pounder. Buy this size if you are feeding a large crowd or like to cut the meat off the bones and freeze it for later use.

Many homemakers like to roast their turkey in aluminum foil. Directions for this are given elsewhere on this page. You will also find directions for roasting the bird in the oven in a covered or uncovered pan.

If you buy a frozen stuffed turkey, read the directions on the package carefully. If you do not follow them, you may be disappointed in the results.

After the dinner, spoon every bit of dressing out of the carcass and refrigerate it immediately. Refrigerate the remaining turkey at once too; do not let it stay out on the table for people to "pick at" the rest of the day.

If you are serving a lunch later, get the bird out of a chilled storage place. These are important health precautions which should not be ignored.

Two kinds of potatoes are shown in the color picture. The creamed potatoes can be made with canned whole potatoes or with potatoes you have cooked previously yourself. Assembly and heating time is short.

If you want to fill the little foil boats with whipped yams, this may be done days ahead of time and the boats covered and frozen. Without a freezer, you can prepare the potatoes the day before or early in the morning and store them covered in the refrigerator.

Shells for the glazed apple tarts can be made early, also the filling. Here again, you put the two together at the last minute, but it isn't much of a job.

Enjoy that Thanksgiving dinner and as grace is said before dinner, add your own thanks that you live in a land where you can indulge in this kind of a meal. Make it a real thanks-giving occasion.

Thaw Frozen Turkey Before You Roast It

Here are directions for roasting ready-to-stuff frozen turkeys. You might tack the schedule up in your kitchen for quick reference through the holiday season or paste it into a cookbook.

Thawing:

Thaw turkey in refrigerator. Allow 1 to 2 days for 8 to 11 pound turkey, 2 to 3 days for a 11 to 18 pound turkey and 3 to 4 days for an 18 to 24 pound turkey. For quicker thawing, place under running cold water. Keep thawed turkey in refrigerator. Do not refreeze.

Preparation for roasting:

Free legs and tail from tucked position. Remove neck from main cavity and giblets from neck cavity. Rinse turkey inside and out with cold water.

Season body and neck cavities with salt. Fill lightly with stuffing, allowing about ¾ cup stuffing per pound purchased weight. To shape bird, return legs and tail to tucked position. Fold neck skin to the back.

There are two ways to roast this turkey. Use an uncovered pan for an attractive turkey to be carved at the table. Use a covered pan to shorten the roasting time. The bird may be less attractive if cooked by this method.

How to roast in an uncovered pan:

Place turkey breast side up on a rack in an open pan. Use no water or cover. Spoon melted fat over turkey. Cover turkey lightly with aluminum foil or several thicknesses of cheesecloth.

Roast in a slow oven (325 degrees F.). Use chart as a guide to the length of roasting time. See tests for doneness".

Weight as Purchased	Approximate Roasting Time
8 to 11 pounds	4¾ to 5¾ hours
11 to 14 pounds	5¾ to 6½ hours
14 to 18 pounds	6½ to 7¼ hours

How to roast in a covered pan:

Place turkey breast side up on a rack in the bottom of a roaster. Use no water. Cover with top of roaster. Roast in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.). Use chart as a guide to the length of roasting time. See tests for doneness".

If bird is not sufficiently brown at the end of roasting time, remove cover and continue roasting 15 minutes or until brown.

Weight as Purchased	Approximate Roasting Time
8 to 11 pounds	2¾ to 3¼ hours
11 to 14 pounds	3¼ to 3¾ hours
14 to 18 pounds	3¾ to 4¼ hours

The approximate roasting times shown above were determined using dark enameled roasters. If a shiny light-colored pan is used, it may be necessary to increase time as much as one hour.

Tests for doneness:

1. Protect thumb and forefinger with paper or cloth. Pinch thickest portion of drumstick. Meat should feel very soft.

2. Insert roast meat thermometer into thigh muscle next to body cavity. Temperature should be 190 degrees F.

To store:

When the turkey has been roasted, serve within ½ hour. After service, remove the remaining stuffing and store the stuffing and the turkey separately in the refrigerator.

To cook neck and giblets:

Simmer neck and giblets in salted water until tender, about ½ hour for the liver and 2 to 2½ hours for the neck, heart and gizzard.

Light Dessert Is Happy Ending

By the time family and guests have reached the dessert stage of Thanksgiving Dinner, they are replete. Blissfully so, of course, but still there's not much room left for more. So could be a dessert that's chill, bright and refreshing would be really welcomed. Such a dessert is these Individual Rum Prune Sponge Fluffs.

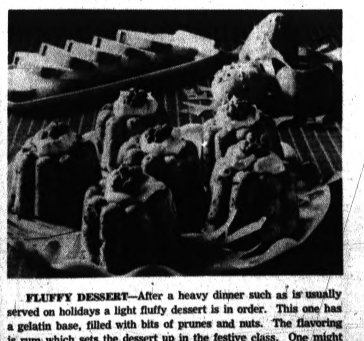

For one thing, they look festive, pretty and inviting as befits the occasion. But it's the taste that counts. That's a glorious burst of rum flavor and cream pointed up with the natural wine-y fruitiness of prunes . . . all in a delicate jellied sponge. It's rich, to be sure, but with the richness offset by the fresh, piquant tang of the prunes. And being lightly jellied and chilled, it's all downright refreshing.

This is a dessert that's made ahead and parked in the refrigerator, out of the way and off your mind until the big moment of serving. Then bring the Fluffs to the table, each with a garnish of whipped cream and a walnut . . . a delightful sign-off to the most important feast meal of the entire year.

Rum Prune Sponge Fluffs

1 package lemon gelatin
1 cup boiling water
½ cup cold water
1 tablespoon grated lemon rind
3 tablespoons lemon juice
¼ cup sugar
¼ cup rum or 2 teaspoons pure rum flavoring
1 cup plumped, pitted, chopped prunes
¼ cup chopped walnuts
¾ cup heavy cream, whipped

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water; add cold water, lemon rind, lemon juice, sugar and rum. Mix well. Add prunes and walnuts. Chill until slightly thickened. Fold whipped cream into prune mixture. Pour into individual molds. Chill until set. Makes 6 servings.

FLUFFY DESSERT—After a heavy dinner such as is usually served on holidays a light fluffy dessert is in order. This one has a gelatin base, filled with bits of prunes and nuts. The flavoring is rum which sets the dessert up in the festive class. One might almost call this a modern plum pudding.

Frozen Vegetable Platter Is Colorful Dish

The working mother has an extra challenge this time of year. She must squeeze a great deal of "quality" into the small "quantity" of time she has with her children on Thanksgiving Day and the coming Christmas holidays. Part of her "quality" program involves preparing a traditional Thanksgiving dinner that helps her children understand the real historical significance of the national feast day.

A generous variety of frozen foods — ready for the pan and oven — are in there pitching for the working mother, as well as for the mother who gives many hours to community betterment.

Below is a traditional Thanksgiving dinner menu that frozen foods help make an attainable goal for the woman who has only evenings-plus - Thanksgiving - morning for preparations. Furthermore, this plans allows opportunity for attending a service of thanks at church or synagogue (automatic temperature control in ovens being the good turkey-minder that it is).

Traditional Thanksgiving Dinner
(Working Mother Style)
Frozen Condensed Oyster Stew
Roast Frozen Turkey with Stuffing
Giblet Gravy
Frozen Whipped Potatoes and Platter of Frozen Vegetable Harvest
Frozen Orange Gelatin Ring with Waldorf Salad
Frozen Rolls
Frozen Mincemeat and Pumpkin Pies

A colorfully varied platter of frozen vegetables is as decorative and tantalizing on the Thanksgiving table as a bowl of fruit. This is also a symbol of the bounty that inspired the first Thanksgiving Day. Line the color-brightness of the vegetables up in this order.

Frozen French Fried Onion Rings. Heat these while baking the frozen rolls in the hot oven (after the turkey is out of the oven and "setting" in preparation for carving).

Frozen Brussels Sprouts. After cooking in salted water (do not over-cook), sprinkle with melted butter.

Frozen Candied Sweet Potatoes or Yams. Sweet potatoes are a native American plant and therefore have special significance on the Thanksgiving menu. You may buy them frozen as small whole one or as sliced large ones. They are cooked and glazed, ready to heat either top-stove or in the oven. Top-stove may be best for this day if you do not have an extra oven.

Frozen Italian Green Beans. This frozen vegetable is relatively new in our stores, and especially enjoyed for the distinctive taste and crisp-tenderness of the bean. To dress these bright-green beans up in different fashion for Thanksgiving, add a combination of these ingredients after cooking and draining: 2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine, ¼ teaspoon lemon juice, and ¼ teaspoon crushed rosemary leaves. Double the amount for this sauce if using two packages. As with the Brussels sprouts, our advice is again—do not overcook.

Frozen Cut Corn. What could be better suited to the Thanksgiving table? Corn is the vegetable of the New World which the Indians taught the new Americans to cultivate and enjoy. The varieties that are frozen now are, of course, sweeter and more tender. Just add melted butter or margarine to the cooked and drained corn and add the small pieces of pimiento for decoration.

Frozen Broccoli. This is a wonderful "edible garnish" for the turkey platter. If is a green as the much-used parsley, but it is more apt to be enjoyed as part of the meal. Serve Frozen Broccoli with Curry Butter this way: For two packages of frozen broccoli spears (cooked and drained), melt ¼ cup butter or margarine and mix with ½ teaspoon curry powder. Pour over the hot cooked broccoli spears. This curry butter idea for vegetables is excellent with other kinds of poultry as well.

Arranging the frozen cooked and heated vegetables on the warm platter is a last-minute job. Before you start, of course, you take the turkey from the oven to "set" for 20 to 30 minutes so that the meat firms for easy carving; the oven has room now to heat certain of the vegetables and bake the rolls. When they are ready, the frozen pies get the oven space, and they will be served just-baked and hot.

FROZEN VEGETABLES — Frozen vegetables can be a timesaver for any homemaker, especially at holiday time. They make possible the serving of a variety of colorful vegetables like those in the picture above—with preparation time cut to a minimum. Arrange the vegetables you choose in a way that will bring out the colors best. Then serve with pride.

Add Mushrooms to Favorite Dish

If you belong to the school that no Thanksgiving dinner is complete without creamed onions, the creamed onion-mushroom combination introduces a new idea to an old New England tradition. The onion flavor is as true as ever, but the delicate flavor and texture of the mushrooms adds new 1961 goodness and quality to a traditional favorite.

Creamed Onions 'n' Mushrooms

3 tablespoons butter or margarine
3 tablespoons flour
¾ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon paprika
⅛ teaspoon nutmeg
1½ cups milk
2 cans (4-oz. ea.) button mushrooms, drained
2 cans (1-lb. ea.) tiny whole white onions, drained, or 2-lbs. small white onions, cooked

Melt butter or margarine. Blend in flour, salt, paprika and nutmeg. Gradually add milk, stirring constantly. Cook over low heat until thickened, stirring constantly. Add mushrooms and onions; heat thoroughly, stirring carefully. Makes about 8 servings.

Frozen Cranberry Relish Has Horseradish Bite

Try this frozen cranberry meat accompaniment for roasts. Whip 1 cup whipping cream until stiff. Huskies Working Hard for Friday Meeting With PCH

No Pep Talks Needed at Northern

BY CHUCK ABAIR

There are no pep talks needed at the Pontiac Northern practice sessions this week.

Pontiac Central is the next and last football opponent of the 1961 season. That's all the athletes need to know.

The Huskies will be in the host role at the 2nd annual meeting of city rivals Friday night at Wisner Stadium.

PCH started the series in great style a year ago with a 54-14 romp. A much better game is anticipated this time although the Chiefs still rate about a two-touchdown edge.

Most of the boys who played key roles in the 1960 game departed at graduation time. As a matter of fact, big Central end Elick Shorter is the only boy back on either team who scored in that 1st meeting. He had one touchdown.

Northern's 6-2 record is much more impressive than that compiled by coach Paul Dellerba's aggregation but the fact that the Friday "visitors" compete in the rugged Saginaw Valley League offsets that difference.

PNH has been much better defensively than last fall and that could be a big difference. Mike Marcum, who diagnoses plays well and hits hard, and Larry Cheek have led the defenders all season.

The Red and White have tallied 162 points while allowing 61. They have scored at least one touchdown in every game thus far with a high of 40. Berkley's 14 was the most allowed in one outing.

Chris Payne, who head coach Ed Heikkinen calls "our best all around ballplayer," has taken over the team scoring lead and ranks 7th in Oakland County with 66 points. He has had two 24-point efforts.

The 150-pound senior also blocks well and is a workhorse on defense, He came along fast after being hindered by ailing muscles in early season.

Dave Shields ranks 2nd in pointmaking with 44 — 38 in the 1st half of the season. He has looked good as a pass catcher but has not had the running success he did early.

Tricky quarterback Rick Fisher has had a good year. He runs the option well and has been very successful as a ground gainer. He has not passed much except in the Berkley game.

Don Glowaz has led a high-spirited line and the punting of Larry Norman have been another big reason for Northern's success.

The Huskies will be outweighed but they are used to that by now. It's been that way week after week.

★ ★ ★

Rugged workouts started yesterday and were to continue today and Wednesday at PNH. Heikkinen and his staff will ease up on the boys Thursday to go over final strategy and work on fundamentals.

They hope to come up with some surprises to cope with the favored Chiefs, who are certain to be "way up" for the occasion after two successive Valley triumphs. Northern has also won its last two starts.

POWER RUNNER—Dave Shields has been the power runner for Pontiac Northern this fall. The senior halfback's ball carrying thrusts keep the defense from pointing toward break away threat Chris Payne.

First rule for the wise investor

If you're planning to give your money a chance to grow by investing in stock, you may be in a mood to welcome a hot tip. And you probably won't have to wait long.

It may come from a well-meaning friend, or from a stranger who may or may not be well-meaning.

Here's a timely warning about tips: The hotter they are the worse a hasty investor can get burned.

Whenever you're thinking of investing, drop in at a nearby Member Firm of the New York Stock Exchange and let them help you get facts you'll want before you invest a penny. You'll find a broker there who has qualified as a Registered Representative by meeting the Exchange's requirements for knowledge of investing. He has no key to the future—nobody has. But he'll be glad to put his training and the experience of his firm at your disposal.

If you have funds over and above your needs for living expenses and emergencies you may be ready to become a shareowner. How you invest depends upon your goals. Some companies have been paying liberal dividends for a considerable time. Others have been paying smaller dividends—or none at all—in order to use profits for expansion and growth. Bonds normally offer greater safety of principal. Your Member Firm broker can help you decide which securities seem to have the best possibilities of meeting your needs.

Not every company prospers, of course. Some fail to make a profit and may not pay dividends or interest. But many have flourished in the past and will continue to thrive in the future.

You'll find a lot of valuable information in our free booklet, "INVESTMENT FACTS." It gives you the records of some 400 stocks that have paid a cash dividend every three months for 20 years or more. It contains much other helpful information. And it tells about the Monthly Investment Plan through which you can acquire stock in famous companies by investing with as little as $40 every three months, or as much as $1,000 a month.

Spartans Practice Indoors

EAST LANSING (UPI) — Coach Duffy Daugherty put his reeling Michigan State Spartans through a light, one-hour workout indoors yesterday because of rain.

The Spartans, who toppled from the nation's No. 1 football ranking after successive losses to Minnesota and Purdue, were smarting physically from last Saturday's 7-6 defeat handed them by the Boilermakers.

Thirteen regulars were nursing a variety of wounds, most of them not serious.

Senior halfback Wayne Fontes and junior guard Ed Budde, both with sprained ankles, were the only doubtful starters against Northwestern this Saturday.

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — Michigan coach Bump Elliott received good news yesterday when defensive fullback Ken Tureaud was declared fit to play in next Saturday's game with Iowa.

The six-foot, 198-pound senior from Detroit, who missed the Wolverines' last three games with a leg injury, was pronounced ready by team physician Dr. A. W. Coxan.

Ailing tackle Jon Schopf attended practice for the first time in two weeks Monday but he is still an "uncertain" starter for the Iowa game here, Elliott said.

Meanwhile, Elliott ran the Wolverines through light drills yesterday in preparation for the Hawkeyes. Assistant coach Don Dufek scouted Iowa last Saturday in its 16-9 loss to Minnesota and said the Hawkeyes "have latent power ready to explode any day now."

MIAMI—Tommy Schaffer, 138, Pittsburgh, stopped Willie Finney, 142, Miami, 5.
BANGKOK—Keowan Yontarakit, 152, Thailand, stopped Kang Shaw Sul, 152, Korea, 2.

Andy Regains Scoring Lead

Bathgate Moves Past Provost With 6-Points Outburst for Week

MONTREAL (AP)—Andy Bathgate, a sparkplug in the New York Rangers' early-season success, has regained the National Hockey League's individual scoring lead from Claude Provost of the Montreal Canadiens.

★ ★ ★

Official NHL statistics released today show Bathgate with seven goals and a league-leading 17 assists for 24 points. Provost has 13 goals, tops in the league, and 10 assists for 23 points.

Bathgate scored twice and helped set up four other goals in two games last week. Provost got three goals in one game, but was held pointless in two others.

Bathgate has played 16 games and Provost 14.

★ ★ ★

Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion of Montreal and Don McKenney and Johnny Bucyk of the Boston Bruins share third spot with 18 points.

Doug Mohns of the Bruins turned in the best performance of the week — picking up seven points on two goals and five assists—and moved into sole possession of sixth place with 17 points.

Red Wings Recall Center From Minors

DETROIT (AP) — Marc Boileau, a 29-year-old center, will join the Detroit Red Wings tomorrow in Chicago for the start of their six-game road trip.

Boileau was recalled from Hershey of the American Hockey League yesterday.

The Wings sent down Hershey winger Bob Dillabough, who had been used sparingly in National Hockey League games since he was brought up two weeks ago.

Parker MacDonald, who had been suspended by Detroit for his refusal to report to the Sudbury Farm in the Eastern pro league, also was sent to Hershey. MacDonald had been sent to Sudbury when Dillabough was called up.

U-D Grid Coach Can't Complain Over His Effigy

DETROIT (AP) — University of Detroit students displayed an effigy of football coach Jim Miller yesterday.

But unlike his coaching counterparts whose effigies are strung up by the neck, Miller's was placed on a throne and crowned.

"King Coach Jim Miller," said the students who praised the coach for Detroit's 20-6 upset of Villanova Friday night.

"We figured if coaches can get hung for doing a bad job we can enthrone and crown ours for doing a good job," said cheerleader Dave Escordi. "And there's no question Jim Miller did just that."

Detroit has a 5-2 record—losing only to Army and Navy—with two games left.

'61 Tournament Starts Dec. 3 at Two Sites

1st Qualifiying Date Sheduled at Lakewood and Wonderland

Entries for the 5th annual Pontiac Press Bowlerama start today with the first deadline of the three week Men's Singles Handicap Tournament only two weeks away.

The blank printed in today's Press can be used for entry. Distribution of blanks at Oakland County establishments is being made today and Wednesday.

The biggest prize list in history of the tournament is expected this year, starting with the five guaranteed top prizes of $500, $250, $150, $125 and $100. In each instance the prize will probably be much greater than the guarantee depending on entries. Last year's champion Ken Leece, with a 92 pin handicap, walked off with $535 and two trophies.

When the purse was broken down, one of every 6½ bowlers won a prize. This is a much better percentage than the average tournament in which one of every 10 bowlers win a prize.

The big feature of the Bowlerama, which will mean additional prizes and trophies, will be the Invitational Actual's meet. More prizes and awards will be presented in the Actual's part of the tournament which is now in its third year as part of the Bowlerama.

Bowlers invited to the Actual's competition must bowl in the Bowlerama. Invitations are made on the basis of average and also their actual scores in the Bowlerama. There is no extra entry fee for participation in the Actual's. Bowlers merely pay their line costs.

Sunday, December 3rd, is the first qualifying date at Lakewood Lanes and Wonderland. All entries for the first date must be in at The Press or the local bowling establishment by Wednesday midnight, November 29th. Bowlers should designate their choice of establishments.

Those who fail to qualify in the opening round can try again on December 10th at either Huron Bowl or Colliers Lanes in Oxford.

No bowler can attempt to qualify twice on the same day or at the same alley. In event another qualifying alley is needed, all surplus bowlers on the second qualifying date, December 10th, will go to the new Airway Lanes.

The big finals, December 17th, will be held at the new "300 Bowl" on Cass-Elizabeth Lake Road. This is also the site of Actual's Invitational.

Entry blanks can also be obtained and filled out starting today at The Pontiac Press sports department.

Young Detroit Bowler Leading Pros

CLEVELAND (AP) — A young man of 21, bowling in his fifth professional tournament, showed the old pros how to do it in the $40,000 Professional Bowlers Association national championship.

Dave Soutar of Detroit, refusing to fold when the pressure was the greatest, finished the rugged four-day tournament in first place Monday night and carried off the $6,000 top prize.

The slender, mild - mannered Soutar, who turned pro just last May, beat some of the nation's best-known bowlers in head-to-head competition. During the 27-game finals, he piled up 212.01 points and led also in pins felled with total of 5,792.

His point total was nearly four ahead of second-place Morrie Oppenheim of Chicago, who finished with 208.13 on 5,719 pins.

The point system gives one point for every 30 pins felled and one for each game won.

In third place was Don Ellis of Houston, Tex., with 207.20. Following him, in order, were Dick Weber, St. Louis, 206.27; Billy Welu, St. Louis, 202.23; and Ray Bluth, St. Louis, 202.22.

Defending champion Don Carter of St. Louis finished 16th with 191.16 points.

Soutar led the qualifying field of 24 with 6,436 pins in 30 games over the first three days of the tournament and won 19 of his 27 games in the final. A field of 192 had started the tournament Friday.

The Detroit bowler, who plans to be married in three months, says he has been bowling since he was 13 and admits he has nourished the desire to become a pro almost as long.

Hits 300 at Wonderland

Wonderland Lanes, a Pontiac Press Bowlerama qualifying site, had its first 300 and another Lakewood Lanes team stole the show at the Mid-State Handicap tournament in Cleveland over the weekend. Lakewood will also be in on the Press meet.

Ed Angles of Walled Lake, a 182 average kegler, fired the 300 in open jackpot competition against Nelson Trent and Elmer Dixon.

It the 3rd open 300 of Angles' career. His best league scores have been 299 and 297.

This is the 2nd year of operation for Wonderland. A pair of 289s by John McKenzie in sanctioned action and Vince Spencer in practice had previously topped all single efforts at the Commerce Township establishment.

Entered as Lakewood Lanes, the local keglers went ahead of the field in team actual with 1042 on game of 248 by Carl Behrick, 226 for Bob Kuklinski, Gary Thompson's 225, a 189 for Bob Murphy and 154 by Ron Newcombe. They also ranked high in handicap at 1122.

Lakewood Lounge, led by Behrick, ranked 1st in team handicap series earlier and now is in line for runnerup honors. Behrick may also be in line for some individual honors.

Eyes of Nation Stay on No. 1 Texas

Alabama Holds Second Place in Weekly Poll

Spartans Drop to 9th After Purdue Setback; Ohio State is 3rd

By The Associated Press

Texas remained the No. 1 college football team in the country today in the weekly Associated Press football poll and in the process won over another half-dozen panelists.

Last week, the Longhorns, were 8-0 and rushing toward the host spot in the Cotton Bowl, collected 25 first places. This week, 41 members of the nationwide group of 47 sports writers and sportscasters placed them on top.

Alabama continued a strong second, followed by Ohio State, Louisiana State and Minnesota. That's just how the top five looked a week ago.

Mississippi was sixth. Then came, in order, Purdue, Colorado, Michigan State, and Syracuse.

Texas finished with 463 points on the basis of 10 points for first place, 9 for second and so on. Alabama had 401 and Ohio State 365. Alabama, which had six first-place votes a week ago, had three this time.

Georgia Tech and Missouri tumbled out of the top 10, while Purdue and Syracuse jumped into the select circle. The Engineers were humbled by Tennessee, 10-6, and the Tigers dropped a 7-0 decision to Oklahoma. Purdue upset Michigan State, 7-6, and Syracuse clobbered Colgate, 51-8.

One unusual aspect of the poll this week was that two losers, Michigan State and Colorado, both hung on in the top 10. Usually, when a team loses it nosedives right into the also-rans.

Michigan State did fall three notches from sixth to ninth. But Colorado, which had its hopes for an unbeaten season dashed by Utah, 21-12, stayed in eighth place.

The top teams with season records and first-place votes in parentheses, points figured on a 10, 9, 8, etc. basis:

1. Texas (41) (8-0)	463
2. Alabama (3) (6-0)	401
3. Ohio State (2) (6-0-1)	365
4. Louisiana State (1) (7-1)	336

7. Mississippi (7-1)	189
8. Michigan State (5-2)	61

Others receiving votes: Missouri, Georgia Tech, Maryland, Arkansas, UCLA, Kansas, Rutgers, Utah State, Duke, Wyoming, Utah, Michigan, Iowa, Notre Dame, Arizona.

LAKERS TO LOSE "GREATEST PLAYER" — Coach Fred Schaus (left) of the Los Angeles Lakers talks with Elgin Baylor, whom he calls "the greatest player in basketball," at Los Angeles last night after the army announced that the Laker star must report for a one-year tour of active duty. Baylor, a medical corpsman in the reserve, is the NBA's No. 2 scorer.

Army-Bound Baylor Paces Laker Victory

LOS ANGELES (AP) — When Elgin Baylor reports to Fort Lewis, Wash., Nov. 26 as an Army medical corpsman he will go off salary as a $50,000-a-year Los Angeles Laker basketball star and draw $85-a-month from Uncle Sam.

The 26-year-old Baylor signed a five-year personal services contract with Laker owner Robert E. Short this year, calling for $250,000. General Manager Louis R. Mohs said a new contract, probably for the same duration and same terms, will be negotiated when Baylor completes his one year of service.

★ ★ ★

Baylor was the high scorer with 39 points Monday night as the Lakers beat the Chicago Packers, 127-113, and extended their lead in the Western Division of the National Basketball League. It was the only game scheduled. The Lakers now are 10-2. It was the ninth loss in 11 games for the Packers, who were led by Walt Bellamy's 30 points.

Jerry West, Los Angeles' fine sophomore guard, dropped in 32 points, Frank Selvy 20 and Rudy LaRusso 19.

Chicago pulled up to within five points of the Lakers in the third period, but that was as close as they got. The two teams meet here again Wednesday night.

★ ★ ★

Baylor was getting his affairs in shape today, for he plays his last game at home Wednesday. He recently bought a home here.

"I've been with his club for four years and I thought this was the year we had a chance for the championship," says Baylor.

"I had hoped I could play out the season, but since I have to go I'm no different than any other guy who is called up by the Army."

"Elgin has six more games to play with us before he leaves," said coach Fred Schaus.

Jets Show Defense in 108-99 Triumph

By The Associated Press

The Los Angeles Jets moved up a bit in the American Basketball League's Western Division race Monday night with a final period defense that held the Cleveland Pipers to a meager nine points.

Los Angeles trailed 91-89 going into the fourth quarter, then outscored the Pipers 19-9 for a 108-99 decision that moved them to within one-half game of first-place Kansas City. In Monday night's only other game, the Chicago Majors beat the Washington Tapers 97-87 before 5,004 at Muskegon, Mich.

Chicago set the pace all the way against Washington but had to close with a rush to nail it down, outpointing the Tapers 11-2 in the last 5 minutes. High point men were Ron Zeger of the Majors with 22 and Roger Kaiser of Washington with 18.

Thunderbirds Close to Lead

By The Associated Press

Fresno's bombers and Detroit's Thunderbirds each won four matches out of five the past week and it got them places in the National Bowling League.

Fresno went from next to last to first place in the Western Division, dropping Fort Worth into second. Fort Worth got only two victories in five matches.

Detroit advanced within a half-match of leading Dallas in the Eastern Division, gaining a full match when Dallas managed only three triumphs out of five.

The shooting pace stepped up with four matches producing better than 500 series and one of them equalling the year's high mark. Dale Seavoy of Detroit rolled it—289-247—536. It tied the score rolled by Bud Horn of San Antonio two weeks ago.

Joe Joseph of Kansas City had 256-277—533, Bob Hill of Minneapolis - St. Paul 256-253—509 and Elkins of Dallas 267-238—505.

The high game mark for the season also was tied when Tom Harinisch of Detroit rolled a 289. It equalled games of Carmen Salvino of Dallas and Bob Strampe on Minneapolis-St. Paul.

Grid Bribe Case Lacking Witness From West Coast

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — A reported attempt to bribe a player in last year's Oregon - Michigan football game apparently will not be prosecuted.

University of Oregon halfback Mickey Bruce, who said he was offered a $5,000 bribe to see that Oregon lost by a certain number of points, announced yesterday he won't return to Michigan to prosecute the case. In earlier testimony to a Senate subcommittee investigating gambling, the Oregon senior said the bribe offer came from Frank Rosenthal of New York City.

"I've done my duty," Bruce said yesterday. "I can't afford the time to go back there." He said he had missed some midterm examinations because of a football injury and could not afford more time away from his studies.

Lions Hope to Use Gordy

DETROIT (UPI) — Detroit Lion coach George Wilson today expressed the hope that army-bound lineman John Gordy would be able to play with the Lions in the crucial stretch ahead.

"We have hopes that Gordy will be allowed to rejoin the team on weekends," Wilson said. "Ray Nitschke (Green Bay linebacker) is in the same unit which called up Gordy. He's been given the O. K. to play and if they let one do it, they would have to let others play, too."

Gordy was scheduled to report to the army at Ft. Lewis, Wash., this morning. The burly veteran is the main cog in the Lions' offensive line.

Nick Pietrosante, who injured an ankle in Sunday's 45-14 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals, is not seriously hurt. The big fullback reported for treatment Monday and insisted he would be able to play against the Vikings at Minnesota this Sunday.

The Lions, with five games to play, have their work cut out for them in the Western Division of the National Football League but still harbor title hopes. The victory Sunday, combined with a rash of upsets, moved the Lions into second place — in effect, two games behind the pace-setting Green Bay Packers. A tie with the San Francisco 49'ers two weeks ago leaves a fly in the ointment.

Red Fishing Fleet Called Threat

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union's growing and far-ranging fishing fleet poses an "overt challenge to our defenses," says a semiofficial publication on naval affairs.

★ ★ ★

An article in the November issue of "United States Naval Institute Proceedings" also contends the Soviet fishing fleet is an economic threat to Western nations by cutting down on the amount of fish the Soviet Union imports from them.

RETIRED COMMANDER

These are the views of Bernard M. Kassell, a retired U.S. Navy commander who reads Russian and told a reporter he gets much information by studying Soviet publication of the United States Naval Institute, an organization of Navy, Coast Guard and Marine officers. Its headquarters is on the campus of the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md.

★ ★ ★

Although the publication disclaims any official connection, it prints articles only after they have been approved by a board of control headed by Adm. George W. Anderson, chief of naval operations.

Kassell's article appeared a few days after a stir was caused by the appearance of a large fleet of Soviet trawlers and other fishing vessels in international waters off the Massachusetts coast.

200-400 AT SEA

"Reports from sources in the West, including those attributed to the U.S. Navy, indicate that there are from 200 to 400 such ships always at sea in strategic areas," the article said.

★ ★ ★

"Add to this number the countless fishing craft shuttling back and forth through strategic waters, and the picture becomes a disturbing one, particularly to nations bordering on the Baltic Sea."

Kassell suggests these fishing craft are capable of mining strategic waters. He quotes an unidentified Danish official as voicing concern that the Russians could land a sizable force from such craft.

The article indicates a worry about "passive countermeasures" Kassell suggests the Soviet fishing craft are engaged in off U.S. coasts. Passive countermeasures is a technical term for listening in on American military radio communication.

Kassell recalls that a Soviet trawler, the Vega, was photographed by U.S. Navy patrol craft south of Long Island on April 26, 1960. He told a reporter that a study of the pictures showed the Vega mounted 11 radio antennae.

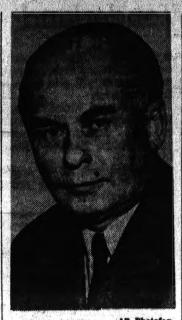

Kassell also refers to an incident a year ago when a Soviet trawler was chased away after it tried to pick up test missiles fired by the Polaris submarine George Washington, off New London, Conn.

However, Kassells says it should be stressed that "the overwhelming majority of fishing vessels in the Soviet fleet are, today, engaged in the occupation for which they were built."

The driver had stepped out to get change for a phone call but neither car nor phone was of much use when he returned. The driver of the bigger car, Sylvia J. ORDERED HOME — Hans Kroll, veteran German diplomat, has been ordered home by West German Chancellor Konrad Adenhauer and may lose his post as ambassador to Moscow because of his talk with Khrushchev on the Berlin crisis. Kroll is now in Bonn to explain why he made what West Germany calls unauthorized proposals on the future of the divided city.

Congressmen in 3-Car Crash

Pair Hurt, Released After Accident Between Detroit and Toledo

DETROIT (AP)—Two Republican congressmen were treated at a hospital Monday night after the car in which they were riding was involved in a three-vehicle crash.

★ ★ ★

Reps. John Kyl, R-Iowa, and Albert Quie, R-Minn., were treated for cuts at Wayne County General Hospital and then released.

In the car with them were New York Times political writer Russell Baker, and John Deardourff, an aide to the congressmen. Baker was held for observation. Deardourff was treated and released.

The mishap occurred in suburban Taylor Township. Police said the congressmen's car was hit head-in by another car and then was struck by a semitruck.

★ ★ ★

The congressmen were in Detroit as members of a Republican "Paul Revere Panel" assessing the Kennedy administration. They were en route to Toledo for the next appearance of the panel when the mishap occurred.

Union Calls End to Bus Walkout

Intertown Lines Refuses to Say if Company Will Resume Service

DEARBORN (AP) — Strikers voted Monday to end a 105-day walkout at Intertown Suburban Lines, a bus line serving Western Wayne County.

★ ★ ★

However, company officials refused to say whether bus service would be resumed.

The 185 striking drivers and mechanics voted 94-21 Monday to end the strike.

The action was designed to clear the way for Michigan Public Service Commission (MPSC) enforcement of an Oct. 6 order that the company remain in business pending the end of the strike, said Bruce A. Miller, attorney for the strikers.

★ ★ ★

The strike started last Aug. 1 and shut down daily service for 30,000 persons. Intertown announced Oct. 4 that it was firing the strikers and planned to shut down operations permanently.

"We feel now that it is the MPSC's responsibility to force the company to resume service to the community," Miller said.

"If the company doesn't resume operation, if it defies the MPSC, then, in my opinion, it is engaged in a lockout," he said.

Miller said the union expected negotiations on a new contract would be restimed if the bus operation is started.

Leave to Quiet Congo Garrison

LEOPOLDVILLE (AP) — Government and army investigators left today for the Kivu Province town of Kindu to quiet the tense army garrison there. They also will seek the release of 13 Italian U.N. airmen arrested and beaten by Congolese troops last Saturday.

The United Nations announced the Kindu situation has deteriorated since the arrest of the fliers, one of whom was reported seriously wounded. A spokesman said local troops are threatening to shoot down any U.N. planes that try to land, and that over 700 Congolese soldiers now surround Kindu Airport.

The Congolese Army has been nervous after its defeat two weeks ago by the Katanga gendarmerie. Apparently the soldiers also are frightened at the thought they might be ordered to attack Katanga again.

The investigating party is headed by Gen. Victor Lundula, army commander for the army group which includes the Kindu garrison. Flying with him were Christophe Gbenye, interior minister in the central government, and U.N. legal experts.

South Africa Rapped Anew

U.N. Unit Condemns Country Hours After Vote of Denunciation

UNITED NATONS, N. Y. (AP) — A special U.N. committee today heaped new condemnation on South Africa only a few hours after a 103-member assembly special political committee voted denunciation of South Africa for its apartheid racial policies.

The nine-member, especially appointed committee on South West Africa published the second of its reports on South Africa's disputed administration of the vast South West Africa territory.

The first, issued three weeks ago, recommended that the United Nations oust South Africa from its mandate power in the territory, expel its military forces, halt immigration of whites into the territory, and turn its administration over to nonwhites who would be trained by the United Nations to govern.

Today's report, written on the basis of complaints from natives and their white sympathizers, called for South Africa to end the use of force against the natives, to halt enforcement of apartheid measures in the territory, and to release 17 Africans charged with violence in the Windhoek riots in December 1959. The assembly trusteeship committee and the assembly itself will review the reports in turn.

South Africa has argued for years that it administers the territory under an old League of Nations mandate that has never been upset and that it is not accountable to the United Nations for how it administers the area.

Lucille Ball Gets Herself 'A Great Guy'

NEW YORK (AP)—Comedienne Lucille Ball has revealed who many of her friends have suspected for some time — that she'll wed comic Gary Morton, a man she met on a blind date.

★ ★ ★

The bouncy actress, whose 20-year old marriage to Desi Arnaz ended in divorce in May 1960, said Monday night that a quiet ceremony will be held here Sunday with the Rev. Norman Vincent Peale officiating.

★ ★ ★

Her mother and two children and a dozen or so friends will attend, she said.

★ ★ ★

Miss Ball, who admitted she was depressed after her divorce from her longtime costar of "I Love Lucy" on television, met Morton last summer while she starred in the Broadway musical, "Wildcat."

'A GREAT GUY'

A friendship blossomed, then romance. It wasn't long before she was declaring: "I've got myself a great guy."

★ ★ ★

But when asked, just four months ago, whether she was thinking of marriage, she replied: "No, I have no plans to get married."

Then, reflectively, she added: "I'm afraid of marriage."

Indiana Man, 48, Killed in Light Plane Crash

GOSHEN, Ind. (AP) — Dale O. Tripp, 48, of Warsaw, Ind., was killed when his light plane crashed about eight miles south of here Monday.

Tripp was returning from a business trip in Ohio. Authorities said his Piper Tri Pacer was found in a ditch bordering U.S. 33.

10 Units Ratify Chrysler Pact

2 Locals Who Rejected Contract Still Haven't Changed Their Minds

DETROIT (AP)—Ten units of three United Auto Workers Union locals ratified the new three-year Chrysler contract Monday.

But two locals that rejected the new pact earlier still hadn't agreed on the national contract or local-level agreements.

★ ★ ★

Units that voted acceptance of the contract were:

Eight of the 17 units of local 412 of Detroit; Detroit Local 230's office group, and the office section of Local 954, Marysville, Mich.

Detroit Local 212 voted to delay its decision for a week.

Illinois Man Given Capital Post by JFK

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy named James J. Saxon of Wilmette, Ill., today to be comptroller of the currency succeeding Ray M. Gidney who has been at odds with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy over bank mergers.

Kennedy gave Saxon a recess appointment. This means his name will have to be submitted to the Senate for confirmation in January.

Gidney has submitted his resignation to be effective at the close of business Wednesday.

Kroll Returning to Bonn to Report on Nikita Gabfest

MOSCOW (AP)—West German Ambassador Hans Kroll is returning to Bonn today to tell Chancellor Konrad Adenauer his side of the story of how reports were started that the Soviet Union put forth new proposals for solving the German and Berlin questions.

★ ★ ★

Reports coming from Bonn imply that Kroll may have initiated these proposals as his own. But according to the best available information here they came first from Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko and then were discussed by Kroll and Premier atd by the latter.

★ ★ ★

It also remained possible that Kroll advanced some of his own ideas during the talks with Khrushchev. The two have been known to talk frankly and at times with considerable heat.

Macmillan Hoping for Berlin Goals

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Macmillan expressed hope today the Western powers soon would agree among themselves on how to negotiate with the Russians on Berlin.

"I think progress has been made in recent weeks and I am very hopeful we shall get an agreed Western position," he told the House of Commons. "At that point negotiations, in one form or another, at one level or another, can begin but I do not think it would be helpful if I were to go into details."

Arrest West Germans

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet authorities have arrested two West German tourists on charges of spying for United States intelligence in West Germany, the Soviet foreign ministry announced today.

Pentagon Calls for Drafting of More Doctors

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department issued a call today for drafting 345 more doctors.

All of the new group will be assigned to the Army.

This is the third such call by the Defense Department this year and brings to 1,025 the total number of doctors summoned to military duty in 1961.

"This call is a special one necessary to support the military build-up," the Pentagon said.

Algerian Leader Under Guard in Paris Hospital

PARIS (AP)—Mohammed Ben Bella, vice premier of the Algerian rebel regime, and two associates were placed in a hospital under heavy guard today after the government forcibly removed them from a prison where they launched a protest fast 12 days ago.

A doctor reported on Sunday that the three were in poor health as a result of their hunger strike. French authorities said all three walked to their rooms in the hospital with firm steps and there was no cause for alarm over their condition.

Police surrounded the hospital which is outside Paris, and erected barriers in front of a wing where the three were lodged.

Hotel Guests Safe in Virginia Blaze

NEWPORT NEWS, Va. (AP)—A stubborn fire erupted in a basement mattress storage area of the downtown Warwick Hotel and flared out of control for nearly 12 hours today, leveling the hotel's old wing.

All the hotel guests, many of them elderly permanent residents, were believed escorted to safety. Eight firemen were overcome by smoke and another was injured when knocked from a fire truck.

The nation's repair and maintenance bill for buildings of all kinds has grown to around $20 billion a year.

Around Level of Historic High

Market Trading Is Turbulent

NEW YORK (AP)—Tre stock market churned in turbulent trading early this afternoon around the level of its new historic high.

Gains and losses of most key stocks were fractional but here and there was a movement of a point or so either way.

★ ★ ★

Renewed interest in some of the electronics and other glamour issues continued but after initial gains some fell back on short-term profit taking.

The ticker tape lagged briefly and repeatedly in bursts of heavy trading. A number of large transactions reflected shifts in portfolios.

STEEL SPOTTY

Tobaccos, drugs and some other defensive issues did well but the pattern was spotty among steels, motors, oils, chemicals and airlines. Building materials were off. Rubbers and mail order-retails were a bit higher.

The market was irregular from the start and remained that way.

Ling - Temco - Vought, yesterday's most-active gainer, was up 1¾ on an opener of 14,000 shares then trimmed about a point from the rise. Avnet Electronics, second most active in the prior session, was up a fraction at the start then erased the gain and showed a net loss of around a point. Philco was down a point at 22¼ on 5,100 shares.

Gains of around 2 were shown by Zenith, Polaroid and International Business Machines. Reeves Brothers rose ¼ to 19 on 10,400 shares.

Prices were mixed on the American Stock Exchange in fairly active trading. Microwave Associates was up about 2 points while gains of a point or so were made by Tampa Electric, Audio Devices, Edo Corp. "A" and Louisiana Land. Off around a point were occidental Petroleum, Vornado, Gulf & Western Industries and Mead Johnson.

Government Bonds Drop

NEW YORK (AP)—U. S. government bond prices declined at the start of trading today. Corporates were steady.

Over the counter dealers in Treasury securities quoted long bonds off 6/32 to 10/32 and intermediates down 2/32 to 4/32. The losses were fairly sharp for early in a session.

Among corporates traded on the New York Stock Exchange industrials fell but rails and utilities were irregular. There were comparatively few changes throughout the list.

Wisconsin Central Railroad 4s gained 1½ to 62 and Great Northern Railway 3⅛s of 2000 gained 1½ at 65⅝.

Eastern Airlines Asks Fare Okay

Also Would Cut Out Meals, Liquor Service on Coach Flights

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Eastern Air Lines today asked the Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) for approval of fare increases and elimination of meal and liquor service on coach flights.

★ ★ ★

The proposal was advanced by Eastern President Malcolm A. MacIntyre who also called for stronger CAB authority over plane fares. He voiced hope the rest of the industry would support the program. MacIntyre specifically suggested:

—A 7 per cent increase in jet day coach fares, thus reducing to 20 per cent the differential between first class and jet day coach tariff.

—An increase of 5 per cent in jet night coach and propeller-driven plane fares except for such experimental tariff as Eastern's air shuttle and air bus services.

—Elimination of family fare plan discounts.

—Elimination of liquor and meal service on domestic coach flights.

—New authority for the CAB to abolish automatically any fare increases which appear to be returning more than fair and reasonable revenues.

The latter recommendation was one of the most drastic tariff rules ever proposed by an airline. The CAB presently has no authority to suspend fares without prolonged, formal hearings.

Grains Are Firmer in Quiet Trading

CHICAGO (AP) — Most grain futures contracts showed a little firmer trend today in rather quiet early transactions on the board of trade.

Corn again posted the best gains during the first several minutes with the December delivery up a major fraction on buying which dealers said appeared to be further short covering. Wheat and oats moved up minor fractions, rye and soybeans eased.

5.5 Eyed for Year

Autos at 4.5 Million

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Automotive Writer

DETROIT (AP)—The auto industry passed the 4.5 million mark in passenger car production for the year today with its sights still set on 5.5 million by Dec. 31.

Based on recent weeks when output consistently has topped the 150,000 mark, the 5.5 million goal is realistic even though it would mean a fourth-quarter total exceeded only once in history.

Present schedules call for slightly more than 1.8 million cars to be built in the October-December quarter. This would compare with 1,739,032 a year ago, currently second high. The record of 1,949,131 was set in 1955.

Ward's Reports predict a Dec. 31 inventory of 875,000 unsold cars against almost one million at year end last year. Ward's estimated the inventory at 661,600 as of Oct. 31.

CONSISTENT PRODUCER

In the new model year Chrysler has been one of the most consistent producers, building in the 18,000 range each week. It was the only one of the big three companies not hit by system-wide shutdowns during labor negotiations.

Neither General Motors nor Ford will attempt to recoup its entire strike-caused production losses this quarter. By present calculations total output will fall about 97,000 units short of original schedules.

Chevrolet and Ford are continuing to step up production of their new cars, the Chevy II and Ford Fairlane. A preliminary count showed the Chevy equaled the Corvair last week for the first time. Advance predictions from Chevrolet were that the Chevy II would outsell Corvair in 1962 about two to one.

★ ★ ★

The Fairlane added 25 per cent to its output from the previous week but still is running only about one to four with the bigger Ford Galaxie. As yet Ford has not begun volume production of the Mercury Meteor although it can be expected this week.

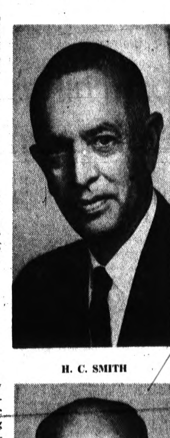

Rambler outbuilt Falcon in the compact field last week. The Buick Special continues to pace the Buick-Olds-Pontiac compacts in the 1962 model production race. At Chrysler Valiant is running about two to one over the Dodge Lancer.

Pontiac Motor Official Reports 3 Promotions

Martin F. Rummel, director of purchasing and production control for Pontiac Motor Division, has announced promotions of three men to higher positions of responsibility.

Hugh C. Smith has been named assistant director of purchasing, following nearly 33 years of service with Pontiac. A life-long resident of Pontiac, Smith began his career with the division in the material department.

He progressed from purchasing follow-up in 1936 to buyer in 1946, and then to general supervisor in 1950. Smith will report to Homer C. Jackson, whose promotion to director of purchasing was announced earlier.

H. C. SMITH

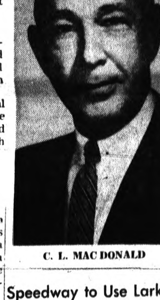

Charles L. MacDonald, assistant general material supervisor since 1957, has been named assistant production manager. He succeeds Dennis P. Duross, recently elevated to production manager.

A graduate of Boston University with a degree in business administration, MacDonald joined Pontiac Motor Division in 1937, holding positions of responsibility in production control and scheduling, and later becoming customer contact man.

★ ★ ★

Edward F. Dalton, general material supervisor of schedules and systems, has been given additional responsibilities in the production control department.

Along with supervision of central stores, he will now be in charge of all material scheduling and planning. Dalton has been with Pontiac since 1948.

Charter Airlines Told to Attend Big Confab

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Heads of all nonscheduled airlines have been ordered to meet with top federal aviation officials on Dec. 15 to discuss their safety practices and financial condition.

Federal Aviation Administrator Najeeb E. Halaby and Civil Aeronautics Board chairman Alan S. Boyd called the meeting.

They did not mention last Wednesday's crash of a nonscheduled airline at Richmond, Va., killing 77 persons, but said "recent events" indicated the need for the conference.

Denies Charges of Antibusiness

Robert Kennedy Claims No Administration Can Be So Prejudiced

NEW YORK (AP)—Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy says critics who describe the Kennedy administration as "antibusiness" are wrong. It's "probusiness," he says.

★ ★ ★

Speaking to some 1,300 businessmen at a dinner of the Economic Club of New York Monday, the attorney general said: "The United States must have a strong and rapidly expanding economy and this administration and any administration has no choice but to be 'probusiness.'"

ALL COMPLAINING

Kennedy, a brother of the President, said "complaints have not come just from small- or middle-class business men, but from big business as well."

★ ★ ★

He said the history of antitrust enforcement "shows that successful antitrust prosecutions have often strengthened and brought vitality to extremely large companies and businesses."

★ ★ ★

Of 439 antitrust complaints to date this year, Kennedy said, almost 300 have come from businessmen.

Kennedy said the field of price-fixing conspiracies is of particular concern to him.

Gold, Dollar Flow Out of U.S. Up for Three Months

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U.S. gold-and-dollar outflow increased in July, August and September, according to the Commerce Department.

It said net payments to foreigners rose to an annual rate of slightly more than $3 billion. The second quarter rate was $1.9 billion and the first quarter rate $1.4 billion.

The department Monday blamed the increase on "an exceptionally rapid increase in merchandise imports and a large decline in the inflow of foreign capital for investment purposes." But it held out hope that foreign investments here would expand as a continued rise of U.S. business activity opens new profit possibilities.

Speedway to Use Lark as Pace Car Next May

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) — The 1962 Studebaker Lark Daytona has been named pace car for the annual 500-mile race at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway next May 30.

It is the first compact car selected for the chore. Speedway President Tony Hulman's invitation was accepted Monday by Sherwood Egbert, president of the Studebaker-Packard Corp.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI) — The metamorphosis is complete and the bull market of 1961 has resumed, says Investors Research Co.

★ ★ ★

The West Coast advisory service says last week "tremendous upside surge" was the culmination of all the favorable technical indications that have appeared in the last six weeks—and the beginning of a new phase of the bull market.

It says subscribers should become fully invested in favorable groups such as business machines, finance food producing, tobacco, autos, cosmetics, drugs, radio-TV and selected electronics.

Standard & Poor's outlook says last week's performance inspires confidence in the future of the stock market. Its expectations are that the upward movement of prices will be extended, subject to minor setbacks of a technical nature. It recommends selected purchases for underinvested accounts.

Spear & Staff believes that at the moment, the Dow lacks sufficient strength to keep moving straight upward. Instead it looks for a short pattern of consolidation to be followed by a sustained year-end rally.

J. W. Sparks's analyst, Richard T. Leahy, says the immediate upside objective of the industrial index is the 730-35 zone and "we believe this goal may be attained during the coming week."

One of the few analysts who lacks market enthusiasm at the moment is Alan C. Poole of Hemphill, Noyes & Co. He says "the trading range of the past three months will be penetrated on the downside. We will not see new highs in the market this year and stocks may eventually go back to their spring and summer lows."

International Statistical Bureau, Inc., says the action of the market last week was "very impressive" and suggests maintaining recommended commitments in both short-term and capital gains investments.

Western World Expected to Pledge Economic Push

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Twenty Western nations, including the United States, are expected to pledge themselves this week to increase their combined economic output by about half in the 1960s.

★ ★ ★

U.S. officials expect that a resolution setting forth this growth target will result from a meeting which starts in Paris Thursday. Representatives of the 20 member nations of the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) will attend.

The United States, according to officials, will give its vigorous support to the resolution setting forth a growth formula for the combined economies of the Atlantic community.

The goal is in line with the Kennedy Administration's drive for a faster expansion of the U.S. economy.

Although U.S. officials said the expected move by OECD nations was not to be viewed as a response to Communist actions, it inevitably will be compared with the ambitious 20-year development program outlined by Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev at the 22nd Communist Party Congress in Moscow.

No Office Is Without Them

Married Office Romeos Clawless

(Editor's Note: Recently Hal Boyle wrote on the office romance problems of bachelors and bachelor girls. Many wrote in to demand, "How about exposing the office married Romeos?")

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the things that keeps girls on their toes in the average business office today is the married Romeo.

BOYLE

He sometimes keeps them on the run, too.

No office is without a married Romeo; most have several. But they add more comedy than menace to the Poor Working Girl's life, as generally they are merely would-be wolves who long ago have lost their claws.

They may have a mind for the chase, but usually their hearts are not really in the race. The last thing they want to be is serious.

FOUR GENERAL TYPES

Office Romeos can be divided into four general types: Pinchers and patters, creepers and leapers. But each one is a character in his own way.

Here are some you can find in almost any large office:

* * *

Winded Wilbur — He asks his secretary to stay late. Then he closes the door and pursues her around the office 12 times, leaping desks like a broken-field runner. Finally he pauses, puffing heavily and says, "Well, I guess that will be all for tonight, Miss Winfield. Please be in on time tomorrow morning. We have a lot more work to catch up on."

THE CRY BABY

Cry Baby Bobby — "We're all lonely prisoners in a lonely world. Life is but a jail," he whines, wheedling each girl in turn for a comforting kiss. This little boy blue isn't looking for romance. He just wants a dozen more mothers.

* * *

Oily Oliver — "Be nice to me, kid," he says, "and I'll see you go places in this firm." This gives the girls a big laugh, as Oliver has been with the firm 25 years and hasn't been able to get any place himself.

TREAT AND TRICK

Treat and Trick Ted—He believes one good turn deserves another. He doesn't mind splurging on a box of chocolates for his secretary at Christmas, so long as she allows him one free pinch for each piece of candy.

* * *

Ambushing Arnold—He hides in the supply room and pounces at any unwary stenographer who comes tripping in for a packet of paper clips. The older girls are wise to him. They go to the supply room only when Arnold is out to lunch.

SUBTLE APPROACH

Light-fingered Larry — The fatherly type. As his arm gently steals around a girl's waist—pat, pat, pat—he tells her, "Here are some new snapshots of my grandson. Isn't he a fine-looking lad?"

Big Shot Bert—The firm's top salesman is as expansive as an accordion. "Baby, go out with me, and you'll travel first class—anything from caviar to champagne," he says, pulling out a wallet that contains two $1 bills and 27 credit cards.

Lunar Lew—The full moon does something to him. Then every girl in the place looks like Marilyn Monroe to him. The rest of the time he is as harmless as bunny rabbit.

REAL PROBLEM

Pleading Paul—"My wife simply doesn't understand me," he weeps, using the oldest line in the book. His real trouble is that every girl in the office does understand him.

* * *

Leo the Leech—"his wife gives him only $2 a day, Leo's idea of romance is to sweet-talk any available secretary into taking him out for two martinis and a big lunch. On the way back he gives her a big squeeze—and a large IOU.

THE BIG CREEP

Bug-eyed Ben — Instead of watching the clock he watches the girls. He doesn't say anything to them—just leers and leers and leers. Every girl secretly thinks he is the biggest creep in the place.

Anniversary Abner—The senior vice president feels one of the privileges of seniority is to kiss every girl in the office on his birthday. That's why, on his birthday, there is no one around to take dictation. All the girls stay home.

* * *

There they are—the clawless married wolves every secretary knows. She also knows another thing: If, just to tease them, she pretended to respond to their antediluvian overtures they'd run for shelter like the frightened mice they are.

Action Keeps Things Looking Up Not Down

By RUTH MILLETT
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

You don't have to let things get you down —

Instead of complaining about how empty the house seems with all the children grown and gone from home, why not try filling it with friends often enough to keep things lively?

Instead of telling anyone who will listen how you are running yourself ragged with outside activities, why not quietly drop a few so that you will have time to enjoy the ones that really interest you?

Instead of feeling hurt because your new neighbors don't seem as friendly as you expected, and deciding that you've moved into the wrong neighborhood, why not forget the old-fashioned notion that a newcomer has to wait for acceptance and make a few friendly calls, yourself?

MAKE AN EFFORT

Instead of regretting that your circle of friends seems to be narrowing with the years, why not get busy making a real effort to make new friends?

Instead of champing at the bit when you have to take time off because of illness or accident, why not make the best of being out of the main stream for a while?

Unless you are too ill to care, you can find something interesting to do with your time — if it is only to catch up on the reading you have always said you didn't have time for.

* * *

Instead of always saying "Somebody ought to do something about . . ." why not try doing something yourself?

Instead of worrying continually about your children why not accept the fact that they are bound to make mistakes and actually have to learn by trial and error?

Instead of holding grudges against those who "do you wrong" why not forgive and forget?

You don't really HAVE to let things get you down.

Your New Social Security

By WILLIAM E. LaROCK
Pontiac District Manager

Q: I have a small retail business and sometimes hire a man to help me on Saturdays. I pay him $10, and he works about one day a month. I have no other employes. Do I have to pay Social Security taxes on him?

A: Yes. There is no minimum number of employes or amount of wages for most types of employment. Household domestic labor is not subject to taxation unless the wages paid amount to $50 or more in a quarter-year, and there are similar special rules for certain non-profit organizations and for agricultural labor, but there is no such limitation for the ordinary industrial or commercial type of employment. Even if you only hire one person part-time, you should file tax returns. For details, contact Internal Revenue Service.

HST Says N-War Is So Dangerous That It's Safe

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman told a group of college presidents Monday night he isn't worried about the outbreak of a nuclear war.

He explained: "Out by my home town of Independence there is a railroad underpass. When you drive up to it, you have to make a right-angle turn to get into the underpass and on the other side you have to make a right-angle turn to get out of it.

"I asked an engineer one day what could be done about it, and he told me, 'That thing's so damned dangerous, it's safe.'

"And that's just the way it is with a nuclear war, it's so dangerous it's safe."

Nehru Believes War Not Likely

Speaks in Los Angeles Before Taking Off for Mexico City

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru of India, 72 years old today, says he is convinced Russia does not want war.

He thinks "war is unlikely in the foreseeable future."

He will not have fallout shelters built in India.

He made these comments before flying to Mexico City today after a nine-day visit to the United States and talks with President Kennedy.

Nehru told about 1,700 persons at a Los Angeles World Affairs Council dinner Monday night that he was certain Russia and its leaders did not want a war for these reasons:

"They are doing well. Their people are tired of privation. They want the good things of life."

Earlier, he told a news conference that Russia and Red China differed in that the Soviet Union "is by and large a satisfied country —almost, one might say, a conservative country."

He admitted, however, he "found it difficult to explain" Russia's satellite expansion.

★ ★ ★

In his one-hour 15-minute speech Monday night, Nehru drew applause with the remark:

"A strong country does not lose its strength in gentle approaches. The strength remains."

★ ★ ★

He reiterated his "shock" at the Soviet resumption of nuclear tests and said that although India tries to be friendly with all nations, "this does not mean we are governed by fear of Russia or China."

Cargo Plane Crashes in Landing Attempt

CINCINNATI, Ohio (UPI) — A DC4 airplane crashed and burned early today while attempting to land at the Great Cincinnati Airport but the pilot and copilot—the only persons aboard—walked away from it.

The four-engine cargo plane was owned by Zantop Lines. Airport authorities said the plane was en route from Detroit, carrying frieght for General Motors Corp.

Authorities said the plane was making its approach but fell short of the runway by about a mile and a half.

The plane immediately caught fire in a heavily wooded area in Boone County, Ky., about 10 miles southwest of here.

Tranquilizers to Be Used to Eliminate Birds

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The city plans to use tranquilizers in getting rid of starlings and pigeons which mass in hundreds in City Hall courtyard.

★ ★ ★

Raymond J. Mauerman, deputy commissioner of public property, told City Council's budget committee Monday the birds will be fed grains of wheat soaked in tranquilizing drugs. When they become serene, a city employe will pick them up and put them in a box for shipment to Pennsylvania Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

The PSPCA will place the birds in a high altitude chamber, which officials said is a tried and tested method of painless extermination.

Girls Making Money on Letters From N-Sub

GLASGOW, Scotland (AP)—Canny Scots girls with boy friends on the U.S. Navy nuclear submarine depot ship Proteus are turning their correspondence into pin money.

Stamp dealers are paying two shillings sixpence—35 cents—for the envelopes, which are franked in the ship's postoffice with the words USS Proteus. One Glasgow dealer said some girls arrange to get letters from three or four sailors on the Proteus each week, then sell the franked envelopes to him.

Sees Intellectual Rebirth in Higher Education

LANSING (AP) — The executive director of the Michigan Council of State College Presidents says higher education in Michigan and elsewhere is headed for an intellectual rebirth.

The director, M. M. Chambers, in remarks prepared for delivery at a meeting of educators at the University of Michigan, said the public has taken a "new and broader view of higher education."

Cadillac Gets U.S. Grant

You Can Survive Atomic Attack — No. 7

Most Will Have Time to Get Home to Shelter

(Editor's Note: A Nobel prize winner who is America's best known authority on fallout and radiation has written for The Pontiac Press 15 vital articles on what you can do if nuclear war strikes. The series is not intended to approve or oppose fallout shelters but to relate how the nuclear threat has become a part of your life. This is the seventh installment.)

By PROF. WILLARD F. LIBBY

It is night; families are sleeping.

It is a weekday, children at school, husbands at work, wives at home or shopping.

★ ★ ★

Secretly, rocket missiles are fired and 30 minutes later they strike.

Of what use then, many people ask, is a family fallout shelter? Some give this doubt as a reason for doing nothing.

★ ★ ★

But the fact is you have one to several hours to assemble your family, to have your children run home from school, unless you are in the immediate blast area. Neither you nor I can predict whether we will be right under a bomb, and so have relatively little or no chance at all.

★ ★ ★

If children are in school, should they really run home if the locality has not been severely damaged, or is some distance from the blast?

HOME THE ONLY REFUGE

My unequivocal answer is, YES. Provided you have a fallout shelter at your home. The really shocking fact is that practically no schools in the land have provided fallout shelters. Children have no place else to go but home, or to public shelters. Distraught parents would be wondering whether they were safe.

Many hospitals have done little more than schools about shelters for their patients.

School fallout shelters are urgently needed. School basements, or shelters beneath playgrounds, would offer a haven. Such facilities might be used normally for play, for clubs, for school activities, or community activities.

★ ★ ★

Husbands whose jobs are near enough to their homes could get home also in a majority of circumstances. In big cities, where mass movements would jam up commuting, most men should seek shelter in their factories or offices, or in public shelters.

Delays in trying to get home might find them caught in the open. But everyone has to judge for himself.

The odds are very strong most of us shall have warning of an impending attack. Memorize the Civil Defense siren signals, which could wake you at night, or give added time by day for reaching or final checking of your shelter preparations.

YOU WILL HAVE TIME

A steady siren tone lasting three to five minutes means an attack is believed imminent, and you should be ready for the blast and heat—early direct radiation effects.

Three minutes of warbling sound, or short series of blasts of the siren, means attack is due any moment, and you should take cover.

Remember, if you are some distance from the center, you have a fair amount of time to think and act intelligently before intensive and dangerous fallout can ever arrive.

★ ★ ★

You have a greater chance of being on the fringes, with the possibilities of completing preparations, than of being directly under the center of the explosion.

Many or even most of us tend to think—and some with real justification—we are living in prime target areas.

It is an enemy who will be choosing those targets. His errors in aiming, or defensive actions, can put the center of an explosion somewhere else than over your head, no matter how prime a target you consider your city or neighborhood.

Earl Needs Assistance After Doing the Twist

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — I'd like to deny the rumor I was seen dancing the Twist up at the Lanai with lovely Sherry Britton, the actress,—but I can't. Too many people saw me.

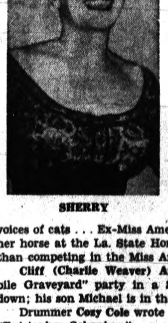

WILSON

It was my first serious dancing since the Shag and compliments ranged all the way from "I never thought you'd be able to do it—and I was right" to a simple, "Boy, can you two-step!"

Sherry coaxed and coaxed me out to the floor — and I was soon wiggling my hips like a guy drying off his caboose with a bath towel and maneuvering the toe of my left foot as though grinding out a cigarette.

"Wow, I've already ground out a whole carton!" I puffed to Sherry, who held me up as I limped to my table.

Eyewitnesses included Jack Carter, Mimi Benzell, Paula Stewart, Martin Revson, Carl Erbe, Mrs. Joe Kipness and others who twisted to Chink Hines' and Del Marino's music.

SHERRY

Barbara Nichols commented, "The Twist is just a strip-tease with clothes on."

The Twist officially reached Broadway via the Lanai. It's now also being done by Edie Adams at the Las Vegas Thunderbird and the Miami Beach Fontainebleau.

I asked Rudy Vallee at the Lanai whether he'd Twist. "Listen," he said, "would you expect Coolidge to do the cha-cha-cha?"

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Robert Goulet (of "Camelot") is making a cartoon film, "Gay Purr-ee," with Judy Garland; they'll purr-tray the voices of cats . . . Ex-Miss America Mary Ann Mobley, entering her horse at the La. State Horse Show, writes: "This is worse than competing in the Miss America contest!"

Cliff (Charlie Weaver) Arquette attended the "Automobile Graveyard" party in a Sutton Pa. garage, four stories down; his son Michael is in the show . . .

Drummer Cozy Cole wrote a song for the new dance craze: "Twistopher Columbus."

TV Land Sees Plenty of Wandering Buddy

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — Continued story: On Sunday night, the final scene in "Bus Stop" had Buddy Ebsen cutting loose from his cowboy buddy and hitting the road on his own. I went to sleep worrying about what would become of him.

Monday night, I got the answer. Ebsen turned up in "The Andy Griffith Show" as a heartwarming hobo-type. He was arrested while moseying through Mayberry on a heartwarming vagrancy charge.

Ebsen does such a convincing job in these heartwarming roles — his face registers such wholesome strength and honesty — that I expect to see him wend his way into all the other situation comedies on the network landscape.

★ ★ ★

Let him spend a day with "My Three Sons," meet "The Real McCoys" and ask Danny Thomas for a handout. He can turn into a sort of roving goodwill ambassador for situation comedy shows — until he settles down in a show of his own.

We'll call it "Bringing Up Buddy."

WATCH PSYCHOLOGISTS

Which child psychologist do you watch, Robert Young or Andy Griffith? On the saccharinated "Window on Main Street" Monday night, Young was busy butting into a high school couple's romance. He even went so far as to carry the ladder to the bedroom window off Main Street so the teen-agers could elope. Why so indulgent?

Young explained that the girl trusted him and he didn't want her to lose faith in the adult world. His advice was that fathers should listen to their daughters.

Later, on Griffith's show, Andy came out in favor of cracking down on the kids when they are about to make mistakes.

Said Andy, "You can't let a youngster decide for himself . . . All a parent can do is say 'wait, trust me . . . And try to keep temptation away.' "

Has anyone heard from Dr. Joyce Brothers on this?

Fallout Count Jumps at State Health Lab

LANSING (UPI) — Michigan's radioactive fallout count at the State Health Department laboratory here took a sharp jump Monday to 32.8 micromocrocuries.

Health department officials said this was the highest the count had been for more than a month.

The reading Sunday was 15.9 MMC.

Department spokesmen said the "heavy weather" probably influenced the increased reading.

Praise Ex-Judge Raymond Starr at Testimonial

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Former District Court Judge Raymond W. Starr was described as a man of "patience and understanding" Monday night at a testimonial dinner staged by 250 friends.

Starr, who retired Aug. 15 as federal judge in Michigan's Western District, was termed a man "who calls them as he sees them" by Gov. Swainson.

Former Gov. G. Mennen Williams, now assistant secretary of state for African affairs said "all of us owe Raymond Starr many things."

Starr was state attorney general in 1937 and Williams was an assistant. The judge also served on the Michigan Supreme Court from 1941 to 1946.

"Judge Starr introduced me to this game of politics," Williams recalled, adding, "and this may lessen his popularity in certain quarters."

36 School Districts Integrate in South

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Another 36 school districts have been desegregated this fall in Southern and border states. So far there has been none of the racial violence which has flared every other year since the Supreme Court's segregation ruling in 1954.

Of the 6,599 public school districts in the 17-state area, 829 are now desegregated, Southern Schools News reports in the November issue. Integration also has increased at the university, college and teacher levels, the publication said.

Liberia President Says Kennedy Great American

MONROVIA, Liberia (AP) — President William V. S. Tubman hailed President Kennedy Monday as a "great and outstanding American citizen who is genuinely interested in extending the dimensions of democracy."

In a nationwide radio address, Tubman said the U.S. chief executive's policies "have made a great impact on the minds of statesmen and world leaders everywhere."

Tubman returned earlier from a 39-day foreign tour during which he visited the United States.

HOW THE NATIONS LINE UP . . . In This Divided World

Here is the roster of participants in the deadly serious game called the Cold War. All the nations in the line-up are numbered. You can't enjoy this game even with a program, but you will understand it better.

Essentially, it shows the United Nations as they are disunited by the pressures of world politics. Included is the colossus, Red China, adversary of the U.N., and several other nonmembers.

The 12 countries listed in the Red bloc have a population of nearly a billion and more than 16 million square miles of land area. They are firmly controlled by Moscow or Peiping.

Forty-five western nations are tied by alliance to the United States. They have a population of more than 1.1 billion and occupy 21.5 million square miles.

The 54 nonaligned countries are mostly former colonies. They have 868 million people and 16 million square miles of land. They lean in many directions and frequently switch their sentiments.

Save this map for reference in the perilous days ahead so you can pinpoint the hot-spots with the headlines and visualize the strategic areas that are the battlefields between communism and freedom.

Admit Confusion

Pontiac Citizens 'Accept' A-Tests

Confusion about the dangers of fallout and determination to meet the Soviet atomic challenge—these are the marked attitudes of Pontiac-area residents and workers.

The man or woman you meet on the street appears confused about what atomic bomb fallout will do to his health and that of his children. But even those who would oppose testing in the atmosphere feel that the United States should and can keep ahead of the Soviets' atomic might by underground testing.

These are the conclusions derived from a Pontiac Press survey which asked a two-pronged question:

1—The Soviet Union has just concluded a series of atomic tests in the atmosphere. In view of this and the fact that President Kennedy has ordered the military to prepare similar tests pending his order, would you be for or against such atomic bomb tests in the atmosphere?

2—How serious do you think the danger is from such nuclear testing in the air?

★ ★ ★

Of the eight citizens quoted below, none opposed testing of atomic bombs if this could be done in a safe place such as underground. However, four said they would go along with a presidential decision to resume testing, while four said they were against any atmospheric tests.

Here is what they had to say:

Mrs. Vivian Rodabaugh, housewife and mother of four children and grandmother of four grandchildren, 245 Voorheis, Pontiac:

"We are all worried about fallout. But if these tests are necessary for our defense, then I would say go ahead with them."

MRS. RODABAUGH OWENS

Thomas Owens, 22555 Leewin, Detroit, a sales representative for an abstract and title company, father of two young boys:

"I am for the continuation of tests, if these tests are vital for our defense. I don't think anybody knows whether or not the fallout is harmful, and until it's Driver of the trailer, George N. Barney, 40, of Toledo, told Southfield police that he was driving south on Northwestern and had slowed down as he approached the red light at the Telegraph intersection.

He said that Carlstrom, who also was headed south, rammed his trailer in the rear. Police estimated the victim's car was traveling about 50 miles per hour when the accident happened.

They said that Carlstrom was on his way to a gas station he owned on the corner of Telegraph, just 500 feet away. Barney was not held, but a more thorough investigation of the mishap is planned.

Area Man Is Critical After Trailer Blast

A 50-year-old Commerce Township man, injured when a propane gas stove exploded in his house trailer yesterday, is reported in critical condition today at Pontiac General Hospital.

★ ★ ★

Gerald E. Avery, who lives at the Walled Lake Trailer Court, 46530 Pontiac Trail, suffered second and third-degree burns over 50 to 60 per cent of his body.

Oakland County Sheriff's deputies said the explosion occurred after Avery lit a match in front of his propane gas stove.

★ ★ ★

The blast blew a wall out of the 10-foot trailer. Commerce Township Fire Chief Clarence Kuttkuhn said the cause of the explosion is undetermined.

Udall, Sen. Hart at Odds on Park for Dunes Area

Differences Aired in Subcommittee Hearing at Traverse City

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall wants to up the ante and make the Sleeping Bear Dunes Area of Lake Michigan a national seashore area of 92,000 acres.

Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., wants support for a bill he cosponsored with Sen. Patrick V. McNamara, D-Mich., calling for a national recreation area of 77,000 acres.

Rep. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., wants to know what happened to original studies which suggested 26,000 acres of the territory for national recreation.

The Sleeping Bear Dunes Citizens Council, through spokesmen Ove F. Jensen of Glen Arbor, wonders why there is a need for "nationalizing" the area which embraces inland lakes ringed by plush private retreats and land now under Michigan Conservation Department jurisdiction.

With numerous variations, these questions today were in the hands of a Senate subcommittee on interior and insular affairs after a public hearing at Traverse City before Sen. Frank E. Moss, D-Utah.

Approximately 800 persons gathered Monday at Traverse City's Central Junior High School for the hearings. Little less than half that number were on hand when Moss adjourned it after nine hours of testimony from about 40 witnesses pro and con.

"You may be sure this matter will not be rushed through and it still has to go to the House where it are so ably served," he said in reference to Griffin.

The Traverse City congressman's testimony noted that the Senate's last session approved a matching funds bill providing $25 million to help states acquire land for park and recreation programs. He also was concerned about expanding land requests by the secretary of interior.

Deer Hunters to Get Break From Weather

By DON VOGEL
Outdoor Editor, Pontiac Press

Hunters opening the deer season Wednesday in northern Michigan can expect one break they didn't get the first day in 1960.

Wednesday is expected to be clear with temperatures ranging in the high 40s and low 50s. Opening day last year was one of the poorest on record.

Hunters were greeted by light drizzle, heavy fog and 70-degree temperatures.

The unseasonable weather continued the first week resulting in a light kill.

There will be fewer hunters this season. Experts are predicting about 400,000—a drop of over 60,000—will take to the woods before the season ends Nov. 30.

Removal of does and fawns from the legal list, except in two small areas in Mason and Oceana counties, is cited as the main reason for the decline. Only bucks can be taken over the remainder of the state. The total kill is expected to exceed 40,000.

Many Pontiac and area hunters are at private camps west of Hubbard Lake in Alcona County. The Oakland Hunt Club has the largest number of nimrods.

★ ★ ★

Angus Campbell, Bloomfield Hills; A. B. Corbin, Royal Oak; James Hampton, Pontiac; and Glenn Miller, Auburn Heights, are veteran members of this club.

A. Floyd Blakesdee, Ralph Norvell and Robert Oliver, all of Pontiac, have been the more successful hunters at Camp 24 in the past. Paul Sparrow will have several guests at his lodge and so will former Pontiac Mayor John Cowe.

The Pontiac Optimists Club will hold two meetings Thursday. The deer hunters will convene at the Double-O Ranch south of Lewiston while the nonhunters are holding a session in Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

Recent rains have made back roads wet and muddy. This has caused a problem for some hunters trying to reach camps deep in the woods.

Believe It or Not, but Next 2 Days Fair, Warmer

First they're up, then they're down, but temperatures are gradually heading for the frosty season. The weatherman says tonight will be fair and cold with a low of 36. Monday's low was 44.

Wednesday's forecast is fair and a little warmer, the high near 55. Party cloudy with little change in temperature is the outlook for Thursday.

From 10:15 Monday morning until the same hour today .6 of an inch in showers fell in downtown Pontiac. Morning north to northwest winds at 8 to 16 miles per hour will become light and variable tonight.

★ ★ ★

At 1 p.m. the thermometer reading was 44.

Dems, Publicist Still Feuding

End Round of Con-Con Bickering on Former County GOP PR Man

The fourth round in the con-con bickeering between some Democrats and Charles A. Ferry, former Oakland County Republican publicist, opened and closed in Lansing last night.

★ ★ ★

Committee debate over what Ferry, of Rochester, should be paid as a research assistant went on for an hour as other Democrats prepared to lay out the red carpet for today's appearance of former Michigan Gov. G. Mennen Williams.

Williams, now assistant secretary of state for African affairs, was to testify before the committee on the executive branch of the convention.

Three Democrats on the administration committee, which approves hiring the convention staff, renewed their resolution opposing paying Ferry, 35, $1,000 a month, the same pay as the chief public relations man of the convention.

★ ★ ★

Continuing his opposition was Lee Walker, D-Madison Heights, one of the three Democrats who are minority members on the committee.

Earlier they and other Democrats fought Ferry's appointment on the grounds that his former position in Oakland County made him too partisan to handle the bipartisan work.

INDEFINITE DELAY

When the latest round was over action on the resolution had been postponed indefinitely.

There was other action. Raymond L. King, R-Pontiac, offered a resolution which would make delegates immune from arrest during sessions of the convention and for 15 days after adjournment, except for treason, felony or breach of the peace.

King's resolution also would declare that delegates "shall not be subject to any civil process during the same period, and they shall not be questioned in any other place for any speech delivered from the floor."

General to Ask U.S. President for Cash, Arms

Sec. Rusk Arranges Luncheon for Southern Area's Chung Park

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lt. Gen. Chung Hee Park, South Korea's revolutionary leader, met with Secretary of State Dean Rusk today to lay the groundwork for talks with President Kennedy on economic backing and more military aid for his Communist-menaced country.

Officials said Kennedy, in a luncheon session and an afternoon conference, would pledged American aid in principle and approve a plan to modernize South Korea's 600,000-man armed forces.

Before Park's arrival at the State Department Rusk told newsmen he considered the talks "very important," and praised the progress the military regime is achieving in Korean development.

Park also had a date with Fowler Hamilton, U.S. aid administrator.

Park came to prominence last May when he and a group of fellow officers overthrew the elected government.

GAVE IT THE NOD

At first, the United States was cool to the revolutionary junta but gradually gave it increasing support as the junta attacked graft and corruption in government and undertook a series of social reforms.

Park was met late Monday with a red carpet welcome, complete with a 19-gun salute and full military honors at National Airport.

In welcoming him, Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson said: "In the next two days President Kennedy and members of his administration will discuss with you how we in America can assist in the fulfillment of plans for the greater well-being and prosperity of the Korean people.

★ ★ ★

Park replied: "This visit affords us an unparalleled opportunity to discuss our mutual problems. We shall repay the United

Save Children From Flames

AP Photofax

CARRIED TO SAFETY — Policemen and a newspaper reporter carry two children to safety as flames from a brush fire in the hills northwest of Los Angeles suddenly advance toward the group Monday night. The children of Mrs. R. Velasco had just been removed with their mother from their hillside home and were being walked to a patrol car when the flames suddenly began to race toward them.

Winds Decreasing Near LA

Hope to Halt Brush Fire Today

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Decreasing winds and heroic work by ground crews gave an optimistic forecast for containment today to a ravaging 2,300-acre brush fire that has destroyed 10 structures.

★ ★ ★

"It's looking pretty good, the winds are very slight and we have a favorable forecast of rising humidity," announced Sim Jarvi, Angeles National Forest supervisor.

Jarvi and County Fire Chief Keither Klinger jointly praised the work of borate bomber crews who had pounced on the fire when it started Monday in Tujunga Canyon about 25 miles north of here. They hoped for complete control by day's end.

Fire lines were strengthened during the night by 600 men. The city, county and forest crews used pumper trucks and bulldozers to solidify their positions, carving out wide swaths of brush and setting small backfires to stop advancing flames.

PLANES ON ALERT

A dozen borate bombers, converted World War II planes, were on the alert at surrounding airports, ready to answer the call if fire lines were ruptured. Additional ground crews also were standing by.

High winds that reached 80 miles an hour at times had plagued Southern California for two days when the fire broke out. Forecasts for renewed gusts were reversed during the night by the weather bureau.

The fire struck in Tujunga Canyon then spread into Kagel and Lopez and other canyons pushed by 50-mile-an-hour winds that engulfed the scattered structures.

It was the second major holocaust in eight days and was under investigation as possibly set by an arsonist.

More than 150 homes in Kagel Canyon were evacuated Monday, but residents were permitted to return late last night. Some school children were removed from the area. They were picked up by anxious parents late last night.

Officials said seven injuries were reported during fire-fighting operations, but none of them serious.

The blaze erupted exactly one week after two giant blazes turned the Santa Monica Mountains into virtual holocaust. It started in little Tujunga Canyon and was whipped along the dry hillsides by a fierce wind with gusts up to 80 miles an hour.

The same conditions spurred the Bel-Air and Topanga Canyon fires last week which claimed 456 homes and charred 14,000 acres of watershed.

Monday more than 50 nurses and medical personnel at the Pacoima Memorial Lutheran Hospital stood by to remove the 65 patients.

The blaze crept to within one-quarter of a mile from the hospital during the afternoon but was turned back.

3 in Area Among 27 Hurt in Ann Arbor Bus Crash

Two Pontiac women and an Oak Park resident were among 27 persons injured last night when a Greyhound bus skidded out of control and plunged down a 10-foot embankment on the outskirts of Ann Arbor.

Listed in satisfactory condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, is Mrs. Daniel M. Treece, 47, of 223 Parkdale St.

★ ★ ★

Treated for minor injuries at University Medical Center and released were Mrs. Otis Larnes, 38, of 515 Bloomfield Ave., and Avers Lee, 41, of 8615 Leroy, Oak Park.

None of the passengers was seriously injured. The worst injuries appeared to be cuts and broken bones, physicians said.

The bus was entering the west side of Ann Arbor on 194 when the mishap occurred in a heavy rain.

★ ★ ★

Ann Arbor police said the driver, James J. Gordon, 49, of Chicago told them he applied the brakes and then the bus skidded about 1,000 yards to the embankment. The bus tipped on its left side when it reached the bottom in a field.

Passengers crawled or were carried from the bus through the shattered front windshield.

Six ambulances rushed passengers to the two hospitals.

After checking at the hospitals, police said "all but two or three" of the passengers were in the process of being released following treatment.

22 Passengers, Driver Injured

Greyhound Rams Tree in N.Y.; Bright Lights of Car Blamed

PLATTSBURGH, N.Y. (AP)—A Greyhound bus veered from a rain-slick highway three miles north of here today and smashed into a tree. Twenty-three persons were injured, one seriously.

The bus driver said he had been blinded by the lights of an oncoming automobile that did not stop.

The injured included three children. A woman passenger was pinned in her seat for 45 minutes before rescuers could free her.

The bus was en route from New York City to Montreal. Most of the passengers were Canadians.

Send Plant or Flowers This Time

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: I belong to the women's guild of our church. There are about 20 members in all and at each meeting we contribute 50 cents. Whenever any of the members has a birthday or anniversary, a present is bought out of this money and presented to that person. One of the members lost her husband six months ago. Her wedding anniversary is next month and we are divided as to what to do about giving her a present.

Some of the members feel we should send her a present and that it will be slighting her if we don't. I, and a few of the other members, feel that a present will be out of order under the circumstances. Will you please give us your opinion?

A: The nicest thing to do will be to send her some flowers so that she will know she has your thoughtful sympathy on this sad anniversary.

Q: My husband was asked to give a friend's daughter away at her forthcoming marriage. The bride's father is not living. The men in the wedding party will be wearing tuxedos. As my husband does not own a tuxedo he will have to rent one.

I would like to know who pays for this? Some say the bridegroom should and others that my husband pays for this himself. Will you please tell me who is responsible for this expense?

A: Your husband pays this expense himself.

Q: When introducing my fiance to friends, is it necessary to explain who he is? In other words, do I say, "John Jones, my fiance" or is "John Jones" enough? Also when introducing a relative, is it necessary to explain the relationship?

A: "John Jones—my fiance" is correct. When introducing a relative you naturally say, "My sister," "My cousin" or whoever it may be.

Don't Keep Running to Mom but Tattling at Times Is OK

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: In our class at school we had a big discussion about "tattling" and we would like to know how you feel about the subject. Thank you.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

ABBY

DEAR STUDENTS: For some reason, teachers and even parents teach young people that it is "unethical" or downright disgraceful for one child to tell someone in authority that another child has disobeyed, misbehaved or even broken the law. Is it any wonder we have hoodlums and vandals who count it a virtue not to "squeal"?

This is not to be confused with running to Mamma or the teacher with, "Johnny hit me!" If children are to grow up with a sense of civic duty, they cannot be taught that it is "noble" to remain silent when they know who has destroyed public property or committed other serious anti-social acts. (It is their parents who must pay for such deeds.)

Also it is unfair that a guilty child should "get by" unpunished; the next time he will try something a little bolder. I think it is time we adults reviewed our attitude on "tattling."

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: When my husband and I rented this apartment, we specifically asked if we could keep our dog with us. The landlord said, "Yes, if the dog is quiet and well-behaved." Our dog IS quiet and well-behaved, unless a stranger comes around. We have been here less than a month and the landlord tells us we can't keep our dog.

He said, "You have a full-grown boxer, and to me a boxer is not a dog, but a 'pony'." We signed a year's lease and like this place. Can he make us move? And is a boxer a dog or a horse?

JUST MOVED IN

DEAR JUST: If your boxer raises Ned whenever a "stranger comes around," he is being far from "quiet and well-behaved." You don't need a dictionary, you need a lawyer.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I am amused by some of the women who write to you and ask your help to get them a man. I am an unmarried man, alone, retired and live in my own home on a lake—rather secluded—and have ample income for two.

I have placed blind ads in papers and magazines and have answered others—61 to be exact. I have visited their miserable apartments and have yet to find a lady who will live more than four blocks from a bus line.

Red Fishing Fleet Called Threat

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union's growing and far-ranging fishing fleet poses an "overt challenge to our defenses," says a semiofficial publication on naval affairs.

★ ★ ★

An article in the November issue of "United States Naval Institute Proceedings" also contends the Soviet fishing fleet is an economic threat to Western nations by cutting down on the amount of fish the Soviet Union imports from them.

RETIRED COMMANDER

These are the views of Bernard M. Kassell, a retired U.S. Navy commander who reads Russian and told a reporter he gets much information by studying Soviet publication of the United States Naval Institute, an organization of Navy, Coast Guard and Marine officers. Its headquarters is on the campus of the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md.

★ ★

Although the publication disclaims any official connection, it prints articles only after they have been approved by a board of control headed by Adm. George W. Anderson, chief of naval operations.

★ ★

Kassell's article appeared a few days after a stir was caused by the appearance of a large fleet of Soviet trawlers and other fishing vessels in international waters off the Massachusetts coast.

200-400 AT SEA

"Reports from sources in the West, including those attributed to the U.S. Navy, indicate that there are from 200 to 400 such ships always at sea in strategic areas," the article said.

★ ★ ★

"Add to this number the countless fishing craft shuttling back and forth through strategic waters, and the picture becomes a disturbing one, particularly to nations bordering on the Baltic Sea."

★ ★ ★

Kassell suggests these fishing craft are capable of mining strategic waters. He quotes an unidentified Danish official as voicing concern that the Russians could land a sizable force from such craft.

The article indicates a worry about "passive countermeasures". Kassell suggests the Soviet fishing craft are engaged in off U.S. coasts. Passive countermeasures is a technical term for listening in on American military radio communication.

Kassell recalls that a Soviet trawler, the Vega, was photographed by U.S. Navy patrol craft south of Long Island on April 26, 1960. He told a reporter that a study of the pictures showed the Vega mounted 11 radio antennae.

Kassell also refers to an incident a year ago when a Soviet trawler was chased away after it tried to pick up test missiles fired by the Polaris submarine George Washington, off New London, Conn.

However, Kassell says it should be stressed that "the overwhelming majority of fishing vessels in the Soviet fleet are, today, engaged in the occupation for which they were built."

The driver had stepped out to get change for a phone call but neither car nor phone was of much use when he returned. The driver of the bigger car, Sylvia J. KC Bus Drivers Out on Strike

Governor Starts Seizure of Transit Firm Under Missouri Law

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Kansas City's public buses were idled today as drivers struck in defiance of a Missouri law forbidding strikes against public utilities.

★ ★ ★

Extra police were called to duty. O. J. Falin, city traffic director, predicted a 25 per cent increase in traffic.

The struck firm provides the only bus service for Kansas City, Mo., and Kansas City, Kan., and most of the cities' suburbs, an area including more than one million persons.

Gov. John M. Dalton of Missouri ordered state seizure of Kansas City Transit, Inc., Monday night under the King-Thompson law which empowers him to prohibit strikes against public utilities.

'STRIKES ON'

Loren Hargus, president of Local 1287 of the Amalgamated Association of Street Electric Railway and Motor Coach employes, said he had not been served a copy of the seizure order.

"The strike's on; you can see that with your own eyes," said Hargus, pointing to a picket line.

★ ★ ★

Under the law, the union can be fined $10,000 a day and its officers up to $1,000 a day each unless they order the members back to work. Members can lose job seniority.

Windsor Repeals Law Restricting Stores' Hours

WINDSOR, Ont. (AP) — City Council Monday night repealed Windsor's early closing bylaw.

This means most stores will be able to set their own business hours free of civic controls for the first time in nearly 20 years.

Under the bylaw, most retail outlets had to close at 6 p.m. every weekday except Friday when hours were extended until 9 p.m.

It is expected that repeal of the bylaw will mean extended store hours for at least one other week night. Most suburban shops are open two nights a week.

★ ★ ★

The repeal was urged by two large downtown department stores but opposed by 85 per cent of the other retail stores in Windsor.

Ambassador Biddle Service Thursday

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ambassador Anthony J. Drexel Biddle Jr. will be buried Thursday with military honors in Arlington National Cemetery.

Biddle, 64, U.S. envoy to Spain, died Monday in Walter Reed Army Hospital of a heart attack. He had been under treatment for lung cancer since his return from Madrid a month ago.

A member of a noted Philadelphia family, Biddle had held many diplomatic positions and served as an Army officer in both world wars.

Imperial Probe Being Pushed

Crew Members Being Able to Testify Helps Data on Crash

WASHINGTON (AP) — An open hearing into the crash of an Imperial Airlines plane that killed 77 will be conducted by the Civil Aeronautics Board in Richmond, Va., Nov. 21 and 22.

An official said it was unprecedented in recent years for the board to act with such speed.

The plane, ferrying 74 Army recruits, crashed at Richmond Wednesday night. All the solders and three crew members were killed. To date, only 46 bodies have been positively identified.

★ ★ ★

H. B. Godwin, Federal Aviation Administration supervising inspector, said in Richmond, "This is probably one of the fastest hearings following a major aircraft disaster that has ever been conducted."

The relative accessibility of the wreckage and the survival of two crew members helped speed the investigation.

★ ★ ★

Imperial, a supplemental airline, was to have transported the troops to Ft. Jackson, S.C.

Modest Cukor Shocks Many by Taping 'Chapman Report'

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD — Why would George Cukor be directing "The Chapman Report"?

The question has furrowed a number of brows in Hollywood, where Cukor is noted as a director of taste and quality. Look at the record: "Little Women," "David Copperfield," "Romeo and Juliet," "Philadelphia Story," "Camille," "A Double Life," "Born Yesterday, "Edward, My Son," etc., etc.

THOMAS

★ ★ ★

Now he is engaged at Warner Brothers in transfering the gamy "Chapman Report" onto sizzling celluloid, as the publicists might put it. A brush-haired man with penetrating eyes behind thick glasses, he maintains a constant enthusiasm despite his 40-odd years of directing plays and pictures.

★ ★ ★

"Why are you doing this film?" I asked point-blank.

"Because I like it," he fired back. "I am amused by all the people who ask why on earth would George Cukor be doing "The Chapman Report.' As if I were suddenly making a dirty picture."

IT'S CURRENT

"I'm not. When I read this story, I immediately thought, this is current, this is what people are thinking about. I thought we could make a movie that deals with sex, but is done without vulgarity. And that's what I think we're doing.

"Besides, I think there are four very exciting stories, each dealing with a different kind of sexual problem. One girl (Shelley Winters) practices adultery as a regular pattern. A widow (Jane Fonda) has an unfortunate feeling that she is frigid. A divorcee (Claire Bloom) is promiscuous. Another wife (Glynis Johns) leads a fairly well-adjusted marriage life, but takes a fling at adultery.

★ ★ ★

"What is the lesson? I don't necessarily make pictures to teach a lesson, but I can assure you that adultery will be shown as a highly unsatisfactory thing. I don't think any woman will be inclined to go out and try it because of seeing our picture."

Cukor's quartet of females sound somewhat extreme. Where is the normal sex in Chapman's report?

"What is normal?" the director asked philosophically. "If you make a picture about the well-adjusted boy and girl who get married and live happily ever after, you ain't got a picture."

Congressmen in 3-Car Crash

Pair Hurt, Released After Accident Between Detroit and Toledo

DETROIT (AP)—Two Republican congressmen were treated at a hospital Monday night after the car in which they were riding was involved in a three-vehicle crash.

★ ★

Reps. John Kyl, R-Iowa, and Albert Quie, R-Minn., were treated for cuts at Wayne County General Hospital and then released.

In the car with them were New York Times political writer Russell Baker, and John Deardourff, an aide to the congressmen. Baker was held for observation. Deardourff was treated and released.

The mishap occurred in suburban Taylor Township. Police said the congressmen's car was hit head-in by another car and then was struck by a semitruck.

The congressmen were in Detroit as members of a Republican "Paul Revere Panel" assessing the Kennedy administration. They were en route to Toledo for the next appearance of the panel when the mishap occurred.

Kooyoyoomjian Makes Life Hard for Underworld

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Any would-be robber would do well to stay away from Hagop Kooyoyoomjian's delicatessen.

Over the past 16 years 24 men have tried to rob the place and only 3 succeeded, police report.

★ ★ ★

Henry Jackson, 21, was identified Monday night as the 24th man to try. He was arrested on a charge of armed robbery when he showed up at a hospital with a gunshot wound of the hip.

Kooyoyoomjian, 59, told police: "I didn't want to shoot that fellow but he was persistent in threatening me."

Kooyoyoomjian has shot at least one other gunman and thrashed a dozen or more. He has used a butcher knife, soda bottles and a chair to defend his delicatessen.

★ ★ ★

He said three men were successful in robbing his store because "they came when I first opened, when I was a greenhorn. But I've got more experience now."

Finnish Officials Mum on Red Talks

HELSINKI (UPI)—Foreign Minister Ahti Karjalainen planned to report to leaders of the Finnish Parliament today on Soviet demands for defense talks between the two nations.

★ ★ ★

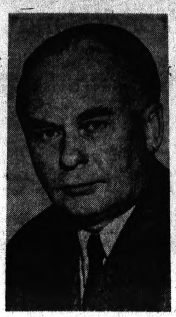

Karjalainen returned from his mission to Moscow Monday night and immediately met with President Urho Kekkonen on his discussions with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

★ ★

Officials answered "no comment" to all questions from newsmen. It had been speculated that Russia would demand the right to station troops in Finland.

Kroll is now in Bonn to explain why he made what West Germany calls unauthorized proposals on the future of the divided city.

Union Calls End to Bus Walkout

Intertown Lines Refuses to Say if Company Will Resume Service

DEARBORN (AP) — Strikers voted Monday to end a 105-day walkout at Intertown Suburban Lines, a bus line serving Western Wayne County.

★ ★ ★

However, company officials refused to say whether bus service would be resumed.

The 185 striking drivers and mechanics voted 94-21 Monday to end the strike.

The action was designed to clear the way for Michigan Public Service Commission (MPSC) enforcement of an Oct. 6 order that the company remain in business pending the end of the strike, said Bruce A. Miller, attorney for the strikers.

★ ★ ★

The strike started last Aug. 1 and shut down daily service for 30,000 persons. Intertown announced Oct. 4 that it was firing the strikers and planned to shut down operations permanently.

"We feel now that it is the MPSC's responsibility to force the company to resume service to the community," Miller said.

"If the company doesn't resume operation, if it defies the MPSC, then, in my opinion, it is engaged in a lockout," he said.

Miller said the union expected negotiations on a new contract would be resumed if the bus operation is started.

Trading Is Mixed and Heavy

Electronics Spurt on Market

NEW YORK (AP)—Some of the electronics and other glamour issues spurted in a mixed stock market early today. Trading was heavy.

Changes of most key stocks were fractional, a point either way being about the limit.

Wider gains were made by higher priced or more volatile issues.

Ling-Temco-Vought, Monday's most active gainer, took opening block honors on a block of 14,000 shares, rising 1¾ to 26¾. Avnet, second in volume Monday, rose ⅝ to 34⅛ on 5,000 shares. Phelps Dodge (ex dividend), was down about a point, and Union Carbide, around a point higher.

★ ★ ★

Steels were steady, motors, rubbers, oils, aircrafts and nonferrous metals mixed. Utilities showed a string of small gains. Chemicals were mostly lower, as were electrical equipments.

The ticker tape was late in early dealings.

Opening blocks included 7,000-share transactions in Standard Oil (New Jersey), up ⅛ at 47, and Westinghouse Electric, off ¾ at 39½; 4,000 of General Motors, off ¼ at 52¾; and 3,500 of Royal Dutch, off ¼ at 32⅛.

Prices were irregularly higher on the American Stock Exchange. Tampa Electric was up about a point and Insurance Co. of North America lost around a point.

Gainers included Giannini Controls, Sherwin-Williams and Creole Petroleum.

50-Ct. Dividend Declared by Pontiac State Bank

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Pontiac State Bank Monday night a $.50 dividend per share was declared payable Dec. 1, 1961, to stockholders of record Nov. 15, 1961. A total of $1.00 per share has been paid in 1961, including this divident.

With an average annual value of $2 million, fur production supports almost all the 33,000 persons in Canada's Yukon and Northwest Territories.

Government Bonds Drop

NEW YORK (AP)—U. S. government bond prices declined at the start of trading today. Corporates were steady.

Over the counter dealers in Treasury securities quoted long bonds off 6/32 to 10/32 and intermediates down 2/32 to 4/32. The losses were fairly sharp for early in a session.

Among corporates traded on the New York Stock Exchange industrials fell but rails and utilities were irregular. There were comparatively few changes throughout the list.

Wisconsin Central Railroad 4s gained 1½ to 62 and Great Northern Railway 3⅛s of 2000 gained 1½ at 65⅝.

Eastern Airlines Asks Fare Okay

Also Would Cut Out Meals, Liquor Service on Coach Flights

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Eastern Air Lines today asked the Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) for approval of fare increases and elimination of meal and liquor service on coach flights.

★ ★ ★

The proposal was advanced by Eastern President Malcolm A. MacIntyre who also called for stronger CAB authority over plane fares. He voiced hope the rest of the industry would support the program. MacIntyre specifically suggested:

—A 7 per cent increase in jet day coach fares, thus reducing to 20 per cent the differential between first class and jet day coach tariff.

—An increase of 5 per cent in jet night coach and propeller-driven plane fares except for such experimental tariff as Eastern's air shuttle and air bus services.

—Elimination of family fare plan discounts.

—Elimination of liquor and meal service on domestic coach flights.

★ ★ ★

—New authority for the CAB to abolish automatically any fare increases which appear to be returning more than fair and reasonable revenues.

★ ★ ★

The latter recommendation was one of the most drastic tariff rules ever proposed by an airline. The CAB presently has no authority to suspend fares without prolonged, formal hearings.

State Reports Dip in Idle, but Rate Still High

DETROIT (AP) — Unemployment in Michigan fell off 18,000 as of Oct. 15 but still stood at 7.3 per cent of the labor force, the Michigan Employment Security Commission (MESC) said today.

A proportion of unemployment that high is within or near the "distressed area" classification.

Unemployment on Oct. 15 was given as 212,000 as compared to 230,000 a month earlier in the commission monthly preliminary report.

★ ★ ★

The Detroit metropolitan area was down 10,000 to a total of 117,000, or 8.4 per cent.

5.5 Eyed for Year

Autos at 4.5 Million

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Automotive Writer

DETROIT (AP)—The auto industry passed the 4.5 million mark in passenger car production for the year today with its sights still set on 5.5 million by Dec. 31.

Based on recent weeks when output consistently has topped the 150,000 mark, the 5.5 million goal is realistic even though it would mean a fourth-quarter total exceeded only once in history.

Present schedules call for slightly more than 1.8 million cars to be built in the October-December quarter. This would compare with 1,739,032 a year ago, currently second high. The record of 1,949,131 was set in 1955.

Ward's Reports predict a Dec. 31 inventory of 875,000 unsold cars against almost one million at year end last year. Ward's estimated the inventory at 661,600 as of Oct. 31.

CONSISTENT PRODUCER

In the new model year Chrysler has been one of the most consistent producers, building in the 18,000 range each week. It was the only one of the big three companies not hit by system-wide shutdowns during labor negotiations.

Neither General Motors nor Ford will attempt to recoup its entire strike-caused production losses this quarter. By present calculations total output will fall about 97,000 units short of original schedules.

Chevrolet and Ford are continuing to step up production of their new cars, the Chevy II and Ford Fairlane. A preliminary count showed the Chevy equaled the Corvair last week for the first time. Advance predictions from Chevrolet were that the Chevy II would outsell Corvair in 1962 about two to one.

★ ★ ★

The Fairlane added 25 per cent to its output from the previous week but still is running only about one to four with the bigger Ford Galaxie. As yet Ford has not begun volume production of the Mercury Meteor although it can be expected this week.

Rambler outbuilt Falcon in the compact field last week. The Buick Special continues to pace the Buick-Olds-Pontiac compacts in the 1962 model production race. At Chrysler Valiant is running about two to one over the Dodge Lancer.

Pontiac Motor Official Reports 3 Promotions

Martin F. Rummel, director of purchasing and production control for Pontiac Motor Division, has announced promotions of three men to higher positions of responsibility.

Hugh C. Smith has been named assistant director of purchasing, following nearly 33 years of service with Pontiac. A life-long resident of Pontiac, Smith began his career with the division in the material department.

He progressed from purchasing follow-up in 1936 to buyer in 1946, and then to general supervisor in 1950. Smith will report to Homer C. Jackson, whose promotion to director of purchasing was announced earlier.

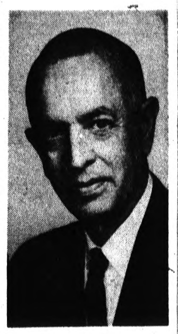

Charles L. MacDonald, assistant general material supervisor since 1957, has been named assistant production manager. He succeeds Dennis P. Duross, recently elevated to production manager.

A graduate of Boston University with a degree in business administration, MacDonald joined Pontiac Motor Division in 1937, holding positions of responsibility in production control and scheduling, and later becoming customer contact man.

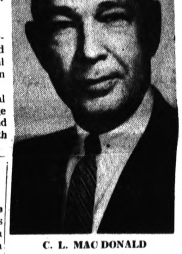

★ ★ ★

Edward F. Dalton, general material supervisor of schedules and systems, has been given additional responsibilities in the production control department.

Along with supervision of central stores, he will now be in charge of all material scheduling and planning. Dalton has been with Pontiac since 1948.

Charter Airlines Told to Attend Big Confab

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Heads of all nonscheduled airlines have been ordered to meet with top federal aviation officials on Dec. 15 to discuss their safety practices and financial condition.

Federal Aviation Administrator Najeeb E. Halaby and Civil Aeronautics Board chairman Alan S. Boyd called the meeting.

They did not mention last Wednesday's crash of a nonscheduled airline at Richmond, Va., killing 77 persons, but said "recent events" indicated the need for the conference.

Western World Expected to Pledge Economic Push

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Twenty Western nations, including the United States, are expected to pledge themselves this week to increase their combined economic output by about half in the 1960s.

★ ★ ★

U.S. officials expect that a resolution setting forth this growth target will result from a meeting which starts in Paris Thursday. Representatives of the 20 member nations of the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) will attend.

The United States, according to officials, will give its vigorous support to the resolution setting forth a growth formula for the combined economies of the Atlantic community.

The goal is in line with the Kennedy Administration's drive for a faster expansion of the U.S. economy.

Although U.S. officials said the expected move by OECD nations was not to be viewed as a response to Communist actions, it inevitably will be compared with the ambitious 20-year development program outlined by Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev at the 22nd Communist Party Congress in Moscow.

Denies Charges of Antibusiness

Robert Kennedy Claims No Administration Can Be So Prejudiced

NEW YORK (AP)—Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy says critics who describe the Kennedy administration as "antibusiness" are wrong. It's "probusiness," he says.

★ ★ ★

Speaking to some 1,300 businessmen at a dinner of the Economic Club of New York Monday, the attorney general said: "The United States must have a strong and rapidly expanding economy and this administration and any administration has no choice but to be 'probusiness.'"

ALL COMPLAINING

Kennedy, a brother of the President, said "complaints have not come just from small- or middle-class business men, but from big business as well."

★ ★ ★

He said the history of antitrust enforcement "shows that successful antitrust prosecutions have often strengthened and brought vitality to extremely large companies and businesses."

Of 439 antitrust complaints to date this year, Kennedy said, almost 300 have come from businessmen.

Kennedy said the field of price-fixing conspiracies is of particular concern to him.

Gold, Dollar Flow Out of U.S. Up for Three Months

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U.S. gold-and-dollar outflow increased in July, August and September, according to the Commerce Department.

It said net payments to foreigners rose to an annual rate of slightly more than $3 billion. The second quarter rate was $1.9 billion and the first quarter rate $1.4 billion.

The department Monday blamed the increase on "an exceptionally rapid increase in merchandise imports and a large decline in the inflow of foreign capital for investment purposes." But it held out hope that foreign investments here would expand as a continued rise of U.S. business activity opens new profit possibilities.

Speedway to Use Lark as Pace Car Next May

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) — The 1962 Studebaker Lark Daytona has been named pace car for the annual 500-mile race at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway next May 30.

It is the first compact car selected for the chore. Speedway President Tony Hulman's invitation was accepted Monday by Sherwood Egbert, president of the Studebaker-Packard Corp.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI) — The metamorphosis is complete and the bull market of 1961 has resumed, says Investors Research Co.

★ ★ ★

The West Coast advisory service says last week "tremendous upside surge" was the culmination of all the favorable technical indications that have appeared in the last six weeks—and the beginning of a new phase of the bull market.

It says subscribers should become fully invested in favorable groups such as business machines, finance food producing, tobacco, autos, cosmetics, drugs, radio-TV and selected electronics.

Standard & Poor's outlook says last week's performance inspires confidence in the future of the stock market. Its expectations are that the upward movement of prices will be extended, subject to minor setbacks of a technical nature. It recommends selected purchases for underinvested accounts.

Spear & Staff believes that at the moment, the Dow lacks sufficient strength to keep moving straight upward. Instead it looks for a short pattern of consolidation to be followed by a sustained year-end rally.

J. W. Sparks's analyst, Richard T. Leahy, says the immediate upside objective of the industrial index is the 730-35 zone and "we believe this goal may be attained during the coming week."

One of the few analysts who lacks market enthusiasm at the moment is Alan C. Poole of Hemphill, Noyes & Co. He says "the trading range of the past three months will be penetrated on the downside. We will not see new highs in the market this year and stocks may eventually go back to their spring and summer lows."

International Statistical Bureau, Inc., says the action of the market last week was "very impressive" and suggests maintaining recommended commitments in both short-term and capital gains investments.
