FRANK B. ANDERSON

Former Postal Aide Succumbs

Frank Anderson Was Assistant Postmaster for Nearly 35 Years

Frank B. Anderson, 89, former assistant postmaster for nearly 35 years, died at a local convalescent home yesterday.

Mr. Anderson, who retired in 1935, was one of the best known businessmen in Pontiac during his active years.

He lived to see the population of Pontiac grow from 10,000 to 73,000.

Born in Detroit Feb. 5, 1865, he was the son of Charles and Sarah Grills Anderson. He married Nellie Lull in Wetsumpka, Ala., March 27, 1889.

He came to Pontiac when he was six years old and attended Pontiac schools and Pontiac Business College.

For a short time he worked for his brother, W. B. Anderson, in his grocery store. He was with the Second National Bank as bookkeeper for 12 years.

He became substitute clerk at the Pontiac Post Office in 1898 and assistant postmaster in 1902. He held this post until his retirement at the age of 70.

At 78, he came out of retirement during World War II, and for several years delivered Western (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2)

Air Force Plans to Name Plane After Pontiac

An F-80 jet fighter will be named after Pontiac in a ceremony at Selfridge Air Force Base Feb. 13 at 10 a. m., according to Col. F. L. Vidal, commander of the 439th Fighter-Bomber Wing, Air Force Reserve.

Vidal made the announcement in a letter to Pontiac Mayor Arthur J. Law. The city will endeavor to have representatives present, Law said.

The action, Vidal explained, will honor the many "Air Force reservists from Pontiac who train in our wing one week-end a month, and for 15 days each summer."

"In event of emergency they could spring into action for Pontiac's defense," he added.

Conlin Plan for School Aid Fails to Win Support From 64 Area Superintendents

School superintendent from Oakland, Wayne and Macomb counties cast 64 votes against the Conlin proposal for school aid Thursday at a special Metropolitan Area meeting at Birmingham High School. Four votes supported the plan.

Resolution adopted by the school officials said that they opposed the Conlin plan and "recommended study of a proposal that would more adequately meet needs of the boys and girls of the State of Michigan."

On long-term basis, said the superintendents, the Conlin Plan was not the answer to the schools financial problems in the state.

Representative Rollo Conlin's proposal presented this year to the legislature calls for repeal of the Sales Tax Diversion Amendment.

Dulles Cautions West Soviets Seek to Extend Sphere to Rhine

BERLIN (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles, denouncing the Russian plan for German unification, told the Berlin conference today Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov is trying to extend the Kremlin's power to the Rhine.

Dulles said Molotov had rejected a Western plan for unification of Germany through free elections because he is afraid that the 18 million Germans in the Communist zone "would overwhelmingly reject its present Red regime."

"Mr. Molotov has good reason to be afraid," the American Secretary said.

Dulles led off the Western attack on the Molotov plan, which he said follows the "tragic pattern" by which the Soviet Union has spread Communist control over Eastern Europe since the war.

Dulles said Britain's Anthony Eden, France's Georges Bidault and he had come to Berlin two weeks ago hoping that solutions would be found to the problem of German unity in a conference which at the outset carried the promise of easing world tension.

But, he said, the Molotov program which the Russian minister put before the conference yesterday shows that "he has no intention of seriously seeking German unity with freedom."

"I would say to Mr. Molotov," Dulles declared, "that it is late, but not too late to redeem the promise of Berlin."

The cornerstone of the Russian program, Dulles said, is the Communist government of East Germany which he declared was put in office and kept there by Soviet power. It would have been "forcibly ejected" by the workers of East Germany last June, Dulles asserted, had it not been for "elements of 22 Soviet divisions, including tanks and armored cars."

He referred to the workers' rebellion in which two million East Germans defied their government and the Russian occupation itself to show their resentment of Red rule.

FLOYD E. LAMPHIER

Lake Orion Man Taken by Death

Floyd Lamphier Served in Village Offices for Many Years

Floyd E. Lamphier, 59, Lake Orion village assessor and former Orion Township treasurer, died suddenly after a heart attack yesterday afternoon in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Mr. Lamphier served as Orion Township treasurer from 1932 until 1937 and as a village councilman from 1937 to 1946.

An active politician, he had campaigned as a Democratic candidate for Oakland County register of deeds in the 1948 primary and at one time declined an appointment as postmaster in Lake Orion.

For the past five years, Mr. Lamphier had served as Orion Township chairman for the March of Dimes.

He was also a past president of Lake Orion Rotary Club, past commander of Charlestown Polka American Legion Post in Lake Orion, member of Lodge 108 Oxford Knights of Pythias, and a member and financial secretary of Lake Orion Methodist Church.

A World War I veteran, he was active in scouting, serving as a past Boy Scout leader.

For the past 27 years Mr. Lamphier was a representative for the Michigan Mutual Liability Insurance Co. in this area. He also was the owner of a service station in Lake Orion from 1939 to 1945.

Born Aug. 28, 1894 in Arcadia Township, Lapeer County, he married Evelyn G. Sims of Lake Orion in Pontiac Jan. 17, 1921.

5-Alarm Blaze Destroys Detroit Roofing Factory

Save Stored Gasoline as Loss on Building Nears $750,000

DETROIT (AP)—A roaring five-alarm fire gutted a big roofing company last night, causing an estimated $750,000 damage.

With big nearby gasoline tanks endangered, the blaze for a time threatened to become a major disaster. Firemen saved the tanks, however.

The fire, which swept the block-long Lloyd A. Fry Roofing Co. in southwestern industrial Detroit, was one of three which broke out within a period of hours in Motor City environs.

Two firemen, knocked off their ladders, were hurt in fighting an appliance store blaze in Highland Park. In downtown Detroit a fire forced 300 night school students out of the Michigan Building.

The series of fires followed by four days the destructive blaze which virtually wiped out an entire downtown business block in Royal Oak.

Last night's roofing company fire was spectacular in the extreme.

For nearly three hours firemen fought the blaze with 29 pieces of equipment. The fireboat John Kendall also joined in the battle, sending streams of water from the nearby Rouge River.

Huge towers of smoke soared up and flames shot 60 to 70 feet into the sky before the blaze was brought under control near midnight.

Fourteen workmen and five company officials, in the one-story building when the fire broke out, escaped injury.

No one was hurt fighting the fire but three firemen were injured as they sped to the blaze and their fire truck collided with a semi-trailer truck.

Finish Hearings in Straley Case

Trial Board to Have Written Opinion at Next Meeting

A five-man Police Trial Board last night formally closed hearings of charges filed by Pontiac Attorney Milton R. Henry against Pontiac Police Chief Herbert W. Straley.

John B. Wilson, chairman, said the board decided to take "the matter under advisement" after allowing both parties opportunities to present their case and witnesses.

A written opinion probably will be presented at the board's next meeting March 11, Wilson said.

The board held its first session on the matter Jan. 5 after Henry filed three specific charges against Straley with the city clerk's office Nov. 19. Following two later meetings, the board adjourned to allow Henry to amend his bill of complaint which was to be filed by the next official meeting Jan. 27, said Wilson.

"But Henry failed to appear at the meeting and failed to amend his charges," Wilson stated.

No further amendments were permitted by the board after Henry's failure to appear. Wilson said the board especially convened last night to hear a witness summoned by the trial board. A total of 17 persons gave testimony.

Charges cited by Henry date back to 1952. In his bill of complaint, Henry alleged dereliction of duty.

Other members of the board are T. L. Hansen, James J. McCarthy, S. J. Cloonan and R. Verne Todd.

Detroit Roofing Plant Razed by Fire

ENGULFED IN FLAME—Flames consumed the Lloyd A. Fry Roofing Company in Detroit Thursday night, with loss at $750,000. Fourteen workmen and five company officials fled from the building unharmed. The blaze started in a vat of asphalt in the processing room of the huge 750 by 150 foot structure.

Radford Silent on Secret Report

Admiral Keeping Quiet About Topic of Meeting With Senate Committee

WASHINGTON (INS)—Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, goes back to Capitol Hill today to make a super-secret report on military strategy.

His appearance at a closed-door session of the Senate Armed Services Committee — on which all sources refused to offer any advance explanation — was arranged on the heels of two possibly related developments.

1. Information that the Eisenhower administration has decided to give Indochina all the military and economic aid it can "absorb" — short of armed intervention. French needs are now under re-examination by a four-man team headed by Acting Secretary of State Walter Bedell Smith and Deputy Defense Secretary Roger M. Kyes, reporting to the National Security Council.

2. Announcement by the Army that a third atomic artillery battalion has been alerted to leave for Europe within three months. The Army indicated another may follow shortly. Two atomic battalions went to Europe last fall.

Honor Marines for Bravery in Korean War

Sgt. Elmer R. Betts of 220 Cottage, Pontiac, and Lt. Alva D. Howard Jr. of 524 Calappa, Royal Oak, both marines, were decorated last night in Detroit for bravery during the Korean fighting.

Sgt. Betts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer R. Betts, was awarded the Navy Cross for rescuing two wounded Marines as he was preparing to withdraw his flame-throwing tank after burning enemy

Sgt. Betts trenches.

Betts, who enlisted Aug. 3, 1951, was serving with the 1st Marine Division at the time, in February, 1953.

A Marine flyer, Lt. Howard was decorated with the Silver Star for carrying out his mission through heavy enemy fire although wounded.

Members of the 5th Infantry Battalion, U. S. Marines, stood at attention as the battalion commander, Lt. Col. J. F. Ingraham, made the awards.

East Detroit Gets Municipal Parking

A 249-meter municipal parking lot—the first in East Detroit—will be under construction by spring, city officials have announced.

The site, behind shops on the southeast corner of Nine Mile and Gratiot, will be purchased by the city for $55,000. According to City Manager Charles Beaubien, the lot will be paid for by a special assessment on business owners in the area.

Improvements on the lot will cost about $31,000 and will be financed through meter revenues.

Pope's Condition Weaker, Medical Bulletin Reports

VATICAN CITY (UP)—The general condition of Pope Pius XII has weakened, the first official medical bulletin by his physician said today.

Dr. Riccardo Galeazzi-Lisi said the 77-year-old pontiff was suffering from the "symptoms of gastritis" and had a slight fever. He said the Pope's condition was weakened because he has difficulty in taking nourishment.

However, the doctor added that the Pope's heart was in good condition and the hiccup which accompanied the stomach trouble vanished three days ago.

The medical analysis was published in the Vatican City newspaper Osservatore Romano because of world-wide concern over the state of the Pope's health, Vatican sources said.

The doctor's report said: "From the 25th of January, the Holy Father has had, together with a slight fever, symptoms of gastritis, preceded by insistent hiccup."

"An objective clinical examination has excluded any other possible reaction of peritonitis, and laboratory examinations have given normal results, excluding the possibility of excessive nitrogen in the blood and damage to the heart."

"It is hoped that soon special radiological examinations may be repeated to ascertain the condition of the gastric part, and of the other nearby organs, which so far have produced normal results."

"The general state, weakened by excessive and prolonged mental and physical work, has suffered a further depression due to the tiring gastric disturbance and difficult nourishment."

"The hiccup, however, disappeared three days ago."

That was the end of the medical bulletin. It was signed by Galeazzi-Lisi, a Rome eye specialist who has treated the Pope for years.

Vatican sources said earlier doctors were administering strength-giving drugs to the Pope orally and through muscular injections.

Czech-Born GI Wins Cat-Mouse Russian Game

Hvasta Arrested as Spy but Escapes in 2 Years, Hides for 24 Months

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—Young John Hvasta smilingly flew back today toward freedom in the United States, the land of his adoption, after five fantastic years—in prison and in hiding—in Red-ruled Czechoslovakia, the land of his birth.

The winner in a grim cat-and-mouse game with Communist officialdom, he took off for Zurich, Switzerland, on the first leg of a flight to New York.

He got to the airport just in the nick of time. The plane's propellers were turning and the passenger ramp had been removed when he arrived from Nuernberg in a U. S. consulate car.

He jumped out, embraced an old companion of his Czechoslovak prison break, sidestepped reporters and sprinted to the plane.

The ramp was replaced and he climbed aboard, bareheaded and smiling.

He is due at New York's Idlewild Airport tomorrow.

His friend was identified as Jaroslav Bures, now a stateless person living in Munich, where he is employed by the American-run Radio Free Europe.

Hvasta's plane reached Zurich at 2 p. m. (8 a. m. EST) for an hour's stopover. At the request of the U. S. State Department and Swiss federal police, airport officials took strict measures to guarantee complete privacy for Hvasta and his escort. Reporters and photographers were barred from the area where Hvasta waited for his plane to London.

Shortly before takeoff at Zurich, Hvasta came out of a locked room, looked at the group of correspondents outside the door and said:

"I am going to make a statement at home. All I want to do is to go home. Please give me the chance."

Asked how he was feeling, Hvasta, who seemed pale but in good health, smiled and said: "Great."

First a prisoner, then a fugitive, then a refugee sheltered for four months in the U. S. Embassy in Prague, the 26-year-old Czech-born U. S. Navy veteran started catching up on freedom when a State Department car whisked him through the Iron Curtain at the Czech-German border yesterday.

The full story of at least one phase—how he bounced from pillar to post as a hunted man in Czechoslovakia for 21 months, always one step ahead of his Red pursuers—may never be publicly told. It could touch off a reign of terror against the anti-Red Czechs who sheltered him.

Break in Europe's Winter Finds More Than 300 Dead

LONDON (AP)—A bright wintry sun brought a break in Europe's coldest spell in seven years today as relief missions rushed supplies to snowbound highland hamlets and islands still isolated.

Helicopters were used to reach 70 hamlets in Italy's Appennine Mountains east of Rome, where some communities have been cut off for a week. Outbreaks of minor epidemics of tonsillitis were reported in two villages—Capracotta and Baselice.

Hardy inhabitants of the lone island of Foula in the Shetlands north of Scotland welcomed their first mailboat in 31 days. The 70 islanders — accustomed to long periods of isolation in the winter—had laid in a good stock of foodstuffs beforehand, however, and suffered no great hardship.

Budapest radio reported "acts of heroism" by Hungarian railwaymen digging out from the biggest snowdrifts in years.

The death toll over Europe is estimated at more than 300.

Ironically, the thaw brought threats of more hardships. The fearsome landslide of Missano de Zocca in the Italian Appennines—halted by frozen ground—began moving again during the night and swallowed up two more buildings.

A fresh snowstorm hit the Isle of Guernsey during the day. Cargo steamers were stormbound in St. Peter Port harbor. Greece reported zero temperatures in many sections.

Berlin had 10.4 degree weather but it was a fine, sunny day. The mercury reading dipped to 14 degrees in Austria and skies were clearing. Brussels temperatures were around 15 degrees above zero. In Amsterdam it was about the same.

The temperature in Paris was 25 degrees above and the sky was clear. Four inches of snow fell in Toulouse in southwestern France. Newspapers reported 10 persons died from cold yesterday.

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Andrea Michalik of Minneapolis soon will receive a sample of Texas.

Brando Facing Suit for Delaying Movie

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Marlon Brando's studio has announced it will sue the actor for failure to report for work on a picture. The amount of damages to be sought will depend upon the sum the studio has lost through delayed production, said a 20th Century-Fox statement.

Brando, the studio said yesterday expressed no objection to the script or his role in "The Egyptian," but disappeared just before filming was to start.

Last Tuesday the studio received a wire from Brando's physician in New York, Dr. Bela Mittelman, saying he was giving Brando psychiatric treatment. The actor would be unable to work for 10 weeks, the doctor's message said.

Hold Off on Test of Bricker Bill

Key Senate Votes on Hot Issues to Come After Lincoln Day

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California said today there will be no key test votes on the Bricker amendment dealing with treaty powers until Feb. 16 or later.

The hotly controversial issue is being put aside to summer all next week while the Senate turns to other matters.

Knowland told newsmen he thought the delay would be healthy in giving the country a chance to be heard from further.

Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio), author of the original proposal fought determinedly by President Eisenhower, appealed to his followers to make known their backing for a modified plan he unveiled yesterday.

This revised proposal makes big concessions but still is far more sweeping than anything the administration has indicated it would accept.

Knowland had been trying to dispose of the Bricker proposal this week. It has been before the Senate for two weeks of debate while repeated efforts were made—without success—to compromise.

Knowland said in advance of today's session it might be possible to adopt two minor amendments to the Bricker proposal at this afternoon's session. But he added there will be no important rollcall tests until week after next.

The week's delay is forced by the plans of many GOP senators to leave Washington for Lincoln Day speeches next week.

As the Senate prepared to put the issue aside for 10 days, there appeared to be little change in the four-way split that makes it difficult for any constitutional change in treaty powers to get the necessary two-thirds vote.

One key senator predicted privately that the substitute for Bricker's plan advanced by Sen. George would attract the most support.

The Georgia senator's substitute says (1) that treaties and international agreements are void if they conflict with the Constitution and (2) that presidential agreements not subject to the Senate ratification shall not override domestic law unless Congress so votes.

However, the first senate votes are scheduled on three amendments offered as a substitute for Bricker's amendment by four top administration leaders in the Senate.

Knowland, one of the four, says he believes they are acceptable to Eisenhower although the President has not publicly endorsed them.

One of this group's amendments is the same as George's first clause. Another simply would require a rollcall vote in the Senate on all treaties.

These are relatively noncontroversial. But the third appeared to face considerable opposition.

It would amend Article 6 of the Constitution to state that treaties shall be the supreme law of the land only if "made in pursuance of this Constitution."

Rochester Man Waives Examination for Larceny
Examination on "larceny from a dwelling" charges was waived yesterday by a Rochester man who was bound over for appearance in Oakland County Circuit Court Feb. 8 by Pontiac Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

Phillip Kaminski, 43, of 113 Terry, accused of taking an $800 diamond ring from a Rochester home Jan. 31, was unable to furnish $500 bond. He is being held in Oakland County Jail.

Rochester Police Chief Sam Howlett said Kaminski admitted taking the ring from the home of Mrs. Nelda Carmichael of 337 Drace. The pawned ring was returned by Howlett from a Highland Park store.

Tallulah Hopes to Get Steady Job This Year

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Tallulah Bankhead is looking for a steady job. To the layman, it would seem that the magnolia blossom from Alabama is busy enough. In the past year, she has:

1. Made her night club debut at the Sands in Las Vegas, where she returns next Tuesday;

2. Appeared on everything in TV from Ed Murrow's Person to Person to Hedda Gabler to the Jimmy Durante show, which she does Sunday;

3. Authored an autobiography that led nonfiction books for five months and sold out the first 25-cent editions of 250,000 apiece;

4. Acted in a movie, "Main Street to Broadway."

But all this is not enough for Tallulah. She told me her troubles in her hotel suite, where she was battling "the actor's nightmare," laryngitis. She explained that she wasn't supposed to smoke and proceeded to light a cigarette every two minutes.

"I'm not supposed to talk either," she added. "But you know how impossible that would be for me, baby." She then poured forth thousands of words in an endless stream. I noted that she seemed to have given up "dahling." Everyone was "baby."

"I can't go on doing work in bits and pieces, really I can't, baby," she remarked. "I've got to have some steady line of work to keep the wolf from that door. Years ago, I bought a perfectly tremendous place in the country with a huge swimming pool and everything. I thought I would retire there and enjoy the country life."

"But I have to keep working my fool head off to afford the place! People... in our business should never acquire big possessions. You become a slave to them."

"Two courses are open to me: I could go back to the stage or I could do a regular TV show. I still read all the play scripts that are submitted to my agents. So far I haven't found anything suitable. It's pretty hard to find a star vehicle. I don't mean the play has to be tailored for me, Lord knows, in my two greatest hits in this country, aside from 'Private Lives,' which was a revival—I'm talking about 'The Little Foxes' and 'Skin of Our Teeth'—my part wasn't big at all."

"I wouldn't mind going back to the theatre, except for one thing:

the road. I suppose if the show were a hit, I would have to travel all over the country with it. The thought of it bores me. It's all right for some stage-struck child, but I've been through all that."

"Besides, you have such a limited audience in the theatre. In eight performances a week, you play to perhaps 8,000 people. You can play to more people in one night on TV than you could in a lifetime in the theatre. Being in radio and TV has brought me to millions of people who never knew I existed. The sale of my book proves how important the mass audience can be."

"The other thing I could do is a regular TV show, and one is being cooked up for me. No, I can't tell you all about it, baby, but it will be a situation comedy show. Something in which I would have an entertainer and perhaps a figure in the news as guest stars. I would be able to play myself, not a crude caricature."

"I wasn't happy with the reviews I did last season. It was like being shot out of a cannon. When you're playing with all those guest stars, you have to do things that aren't suited to you. I felt that the only thing I really did well was the closing monologue. In the rest of the show, I was like a fish out of water."

I might add that Miss Bankhead was sipping tea. She explained that she was still recovering from the celebration of her 51st birthday.

Strip-Teaser's 50-50 Contract Voided by Court

BALTIMORE (AP)—A judge has voided the contract in which he said Pat (Amber) Halliday, 28-year-old strip-tease dancer, "sold herself down the river."

The contract was with Jack A. White of Hyattsville, Md., who had been Miss Halliday's manager about four years. It called for a 50-50 split, but the dancer said she frequently got very little of her weekly pay, which sometimes reached $500. "Only enough for the bare necessities," she told Judge Herman A. Moser.

The stripper said she was fed up with taking her clothes off in front of people and continued to work because she owes the government income taxes.

Votes $500,000 for Missions

State Episcopal Diocese OKs Funds at Detroit Convention

DETROIT (AP)—An outlay of more than a half a million dollars for missionary work mostly in this country was voted this week at the 121st annual convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan. The budget includes $294,168 for the Missionary Extension Program, with $154,000 for use in building the church in Michigan.

An additional $223,000 was approved for the National Builders for Christ program. Of this, $50,000 is to help construction of a new All Saints Episcopal Church on the Michigan State College campus at East Lansing.

Another $25,000 of this fund will be spent for real estate needed for expansion of the church in Michigan. The diocesan budget also includes an additional $68,155.

Delegates attending the convention at the Masonic Temple learned that 3,000 new church members had been confirmed during the last year. Only three other dioceses in the nation exceeded this record.

The convention voted for a special election May 12 to replace Suffragan Bishop Russell S. Hubbard, who is leaving to become Bishop of the Missionary Diocese of Spokane, Wash. Bishop Hubbard has been an assistant to the Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich, bishop of Michigan.

Delegates decided to name a second suffragan bishop at the 1955 diocesan convention.

There are 147 Episcopal parishes in the diocese. The number of clergy has risen from 121 to 171 in the last few years.

Complete Reorganization of Civil Defense Program Started by Birmingham

From Our Birmingham Bureau — BIRMINGHAM — A dying civil defense program received a shot in the arm last night. Members of the Civil Defense Council met informally with interested parties to revive and reorganize for emergencies of either national or local character.

Explaining that there are 10 separate divisions within the program, Deputy Director Roland Reese said that a workable plan be submitted by each division head at a Feb. 17 meeting.

These would be coordinated into a master plan, Reese said.

The 10 divisions are: warrens, medical, welfare, schools, clergy, communications, police, fire, DFW and utilities.

Until a better location is suggested, central headquarters will be in the basement of the Municipal Bldg.

Fire Chief Vernon M. Griffith said he felt the key to the entire system was proper alerting. He added his opinion that "the city can no longer depend on the city sirens for a signal of disaster."

He described the 21 large gasoline driven sirens, with a bearing range of four miles, which Detroit has set up.

One of those would serve this whole city," Griffith stated.

A communications system vital to a Civil Defense program is available to the city and ready to operate at a minute's notice. James F. Abbott stated.

A "ham operators" organization was formed five years ago, he said. It consists of about 265 amateurs, with 51 in Birmingham alone, all owning their own equipment.

A control station for all of Oakland County has been in operation in the St. James Church here for several years, he added.

Birmingham High, Cranbrook and Holy Name Schools were mentioned as emergency hospitals.

Representatives of the Oakland County Chapter, American Red Cross, the local Civil Air Patrol and Oakland County Civil Defense were present to offer assistance to the program.

The cast has been chosen for Gilbert and Sullivan's "H. M. S. Pinafore," to be given Feb. 26-28 in a joint production by Bloomfield Hills and Cranbrook Schools.

Principal female roles will be played by Bloomfield Hills School students, Mimi Fuller, of Bloomfield Hills, and Mary Lou Fuller and Gretchen Miller, both of Birmingham, have been named to the parts.

Male leads, sung by boys from Cranbrook School, include Robert Reed, Robert Griswold, Charles Lawson and Dwight Davis.

City commission approval was given this week to 4 election board workers for the Feb. 11 special election to fill the state legislature place of Howard Estes, who resigned to run the Oakland County Infirmary.

Warren E. Bertollet, secretary of the Birmingham Gun Club, has posted February shooting dates for the club. The clubhouse on Richardson road, Commerce Township, will be open tomorrow and on Feb. 20.

Young adult group of the First Methodist Church will begin a dinner and program at 7 tonight.

Clerk Misused Licensing Funds

Woman Admits Taking Drivers' License Money in Muskegon Heights

MUSKEGON — A 38-year-old former clerk for the Muskegon Heights Police Department Thursday said she had admitted misuse of drivers' license fees entrusted to her.

Gladys Webster of Muskegon Heights, now a clerk in another municipal office, signed a statement admitting responsibility for a shortage expected to total $390, according to Alex J. Bell, Muskegon Heights police chief.

Her statement "came as a distinct shock to all the members of the Heights Police Department as we have had the utmost confidence in her," Chief Bell said.

Miss Webster converted to her own use some of the money taken in on drivers' license applications since last August, according to Chief Bell. She had expected to replace it later, he said.

Two checks were made out to the Secretary of State covering license fee money that had not been mailed, the police chief reported.

Miss Webster was auto license examiner at Muskegon Heights for nearly six years. Recently she transferred to a position as mail clerk in the Heights Water Department.

Many motorists have not received drivers' licenses for which they had applied and Chief Bell said the number may go to 300.

Misuse of the license fees came to light at Lansing this week.

Thursday night there had been no decision as to action to be taken in the case, Chief Bell said.

Refugee Flies Home to His Adopted U. S.

N. Oatis, freed from Czech imprisonment last May 17; Hvasta was accused by the Red regime of espionage. He was sentenced to 10 years. He had served 2 1/2 years when he took part in a five-man break from Leopold Prison near Bratislava early in 1952. Then came his 21 months as a fugitive and four months in the Prague embassy, technically American soil, while diplomats dickered over his fate.

The Prague radio, skipping the details, reported he had been "released" and ordered expelled.

U.S. military policemen stood guard as Hvasta slept overnight at the Grand Hotel in Nurnberg, 85 miles north of Munich. His final stepping stones to safety were all arranged by a jubilant U.S. government: three commercial airlines—Munich to Zurich, to London, to New York.

He looked forward to the reunion with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hvasta of Hillsdale, N.J., like him naturalized citizens of the United States. The family came to the United States in 1939.

Hvasta returned to Czechoslovakia in 1948 as a student under the GI Bill of Rights at the University of Bratislava. He worked four months at the U.S. consulate general in Bratislava. But Czechoslovakia still considered him a Czech citizen. He was arrested in October that year as a spy. The conviction came the following May.

There was no immediate news about Hvasta's wife, a beautiful young Czech he married while in prison. Ironically, the wedding was five years ago to the day on which he left Czechoslovakia a free man.

Brando Facing Suit for Delaying Movie

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Marlon Brando's studio has announced it will sue the actor for failure to report for work on a picture. The amount of damages to be sought will depend upon the sum the studio has lost through delayed production, said a 20th Century-Fox statement.

Brando, the studio said yesterday expressed no objection to the script or his role in "The Egyptian," but disappeared just before filming was to start.

Last Tuesday the studio received a wire from Brando's physician in New York, Dr. Bela Mittelman, saying he was giving Brando psychiatric treatment. The actor would be unable to work for 10 weeks, the doctor's message said.

Hold Off on Test of Bricker Bill

Key Senate Votes on Hot Issues to Come After Lincoln Day

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California said today there will be no key test votes on the Bricker amendment dealing with treaty powers until Feb. 16 or later.

The hotly controversial issue is being put aside to summer all next week while the Senate turns to other matters.

Knowland told newsmen he thought the delay would be healthy in giving the country a chance to be heard from further.

Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio), author of the original proposal fought determinedly by President Eisenhower, appealed to his followers to make known their backing for a modified plan he unveiled yesterday.

This revised proposal makes big concessions but still is far more sweeping than anything the administration has indicated it would accept.

Knowland had been trying to dispose of the Bricker proposal this week. It has been before the Senate for two weeks of debate while repeated efforts were made—without success—to compromise.

Knowland said in advance of today's session it might be possible to adopt two minor amendments to the Bricker proposal at this afternoon's session. But he added there will be no important rollcall tests until week after next.

The week's delay is forced by the plans of many GOP senators to leave Washington for Lincoln Day speeches next week.

As the Senate prepared to put the issue aside for 10 days, there appeared to be little change in the four-way split that makes it difficult for any constitutional change in treaty powers to get the necessary two-thirds vote.

One key senator predicted privately that the substitute for Bricker's plan advanced by Sen. George Wright attract the most support.

The Georgia senator's substitute says (1) that treaties and international agreements are void if they conflict with the Constitution and (2) that presidential agreements not subject to the Senate ratification shall not override domestic law unless Congress so votes.

However, the first senate votes are scheduled on three amendments offered as a substitute for Bricker's amendment by four top administration leaders in the Senate.

Knowland, one of the four, says he believes they are acceptable to Eisenhower although the President has not publicly endorsed them.

One of this group's amendments is the same as George's first clause. Another simply would require a rollcall vote in the Senate on all treaties.

These are relatively noncontroversial. But the third appeared to face considerable opposition.

It would amend Article 6 of the Constitution to state that treaties shall be the supreme law of the land only if "made in pursuance of this Constitution."

Rochester Man Waives Examination for Larceny

Examination on "larceny from a dwelling" charges was waived yesterday by a Rochester man who was bound over for appearance in Oakland County Circuit Court Feb. 8 by Pontiac Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

Phillip Kaminski, 43, of 133 Terry, accused of taking an $800 diamond ring from a Rochester home Jan. 31, was unable to furnish $500 bond. He is being held in Oakland County Jail.

Rochester Police Chief Sam Howlett said Kaminski admitted taking the ring from the home of Mrs. Nelda Carmichael of 337 Drace. The pawned ring was returned by Howlett from a Highland Park store.

Tallulah Hopes to Get Steady Job This Year

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Tallulah Bankhead is looking for a steady job. To the layman, it would seem that the magnolia blossom from Alabama is busy enough. In the past year, she has:

1. Made her night club debut at the Sands in Las Vegas, where she returns next Tuesday;
2. Appeared on everything in TV from Ed Murrow's Person to Person to Hedda Gabler to the Jimmy Durante show, which she does Sunday;
3. Authored an autobiography that led nonfiction books for five months and sold out the first 35-cent editions of 250,000 apiece;
4. Acted in a movie, "Main Street to Broadway."

But all this is not enough for Tallulah. She told me her troubles in her hotel suite, where she was battling "the actor's nightmare," laryngitis. She explained that she wasn't supposed to smoke and proceeded to light a cigarette every two minutes.

"I'm not supposed to talk either," she added. "But you know how impossible that would be for me, baby." She then poured forth thousands of words in an endless stream. I noted that she seemed to have given up "dahling." Everyone was "baby."

"I can't go on doing work in bits and pieces, really I can't, baby," she remarked. "I've got to have some steady line of work to keep the wolf from that door. Years ago, I bought a perfectly tremendous place in the country with a huge swimming pool and everything. I thought I would retire there and enjoy the country life."

"But I have to keep working my fool head off to afford the place! People in our business should never acquire big possessions. You become a slave to them."

"Two courses are open to me: I could go back to the stage or I could do a regular TV show. I still read all the play scripts that are submitted to my agents. So far I haven't found anything suitable. It's pretty hard to find a star vehicle. I don't mean the play has to be tailored for me. Lord knows, in my two greatest hits in this country, aside from 'Private Lives,' which was a revival—I'm talking about 'The Little Foxes' and 'Skin of Our Teeth'—my part wasn't big at all."

"I wouldn't mind going back to the theatre, except for one thing:

the road. I suppose if the show were a hit, I would have to travel all over the country with it. The thought of it bores me. It's all right for some stage-struck child, but I've been through all that.

"Besides, you have such a limited audience in the theatre. In eight performances a week, you play to perhaps 8,000 people. You can play to more people in one night on TV than you could in a lifetime in the theatre. Being in radio and TV has brought me to millions of people who never knew I existed. The sale of my book proves how important the mass audience can be."

"The other thing I could do is a regular TV show, and one is being cooked up for me. No, I can't tell you all about it, baby, but it will be a situation comedy show. Something in which I would have an entertainer and perhaps a figure in the news as guest stars. I would be able to play myself, not a crude caricature."

"I wasn't happy with the reviews I did last season. It was like being shot out of a cannon. When you're playing with all those guest stars, you have to do things that aren't suited to you. I felt that the only thing I really did well was the closing monologue. In the rest of the show, I was like a fish out of water."

I might add that Miss Bankhead was sipping tea. She explained that she was still recovering from the celebration of her 51st birthday.

Strip-Teaser's 50-50 Contract Voided by Court

BALTIMORE (AP)—A judge has voided the contract in which he said Pat (Amber) Halliday, 28-year-old strip-tease dancer, "sold herself down the river."

The contract was with Jack A. White of Hyattsville, Md., who had been Miss Halliday's manager about four years. It called for a 50-50 split, but the dancer said she frequently got very little of her weekly pay, which sometimes reached $500. "Only enough for the bare necessities," she told Judge Herman A. Moser.

The stripper said she was fed up with taking her clothes off in front of people and continued to work because she owes the government income taxes.

Votes $500,000 for Missions

State Episcopal Diocese OKs Funds at Detroit Convention

DETROIT (AP)—An outlay of more than a half a million dollars for missionary work mostly in this country was voted this week at the 121st annual convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan. The budget includes $294,168 for the Missionary Extension Program, with $154,000 for use in building the church in Michigan.

An additional $223,000 was approved for the National Builders for Christ program. Of this $50,000 is to help construction of a new All Saints Episcopal Church on the Michigan State College campus at East Lansing.

Another $25,000 of this fund will be spent for real estate needed for expansion of the church in Michigan. The diocesan budget also includes an additional $68,155.

Delegates attending the convention at the Masonic Temple learned that 3,000 new church members had been confirmed during the last year. Only three other dioceses in the nation exceeded this record.

The convention voted for a special election May 12 to replace Suffragan Bishop Russell S. Hubbard, who is leaving to become Bishop of the Missionary Diocese of Spokane, Wash. Bishop Hubbard has been an assistant to the Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich, bishop of Michigan.

Delegates decided to name a second suffragan bishop at the 1955 diocesan convention.

There are 147 Episcopal parishes in the diocese. The number of clergy has risen from 121 to 171 in the last few years.

The enrollment period has been extended to March 1. Any farmer wishing to participate in the cost-sharing ACP should contact the county office at 18 South Perry St., 330 Hubbard building, or his local township committeeman.

Two Firemen Hurt at Berkley Blaze

BERKLEY—Two firemen were cut by falling glass as they fought a $3,000 fire which shot through the Chester Wilson home at 3162 Buckingham, yesterday afternoon. Given first aid were Capt. James Damery and Fred Hill.

According to Damery, the blaze started in the basement when an oil-burning, hot-water heater overflowed its fuel and caught fire. Flames leaped up through the first floor and into the attic. Firemen were on the scene for three hours, Damery said.

Authority Voted to Add Districts

7 School Areas Must Now Decide on Joining District 1

DRYDEN — In a special meeting last night, voters of district 1, fractional, unanimously gave the district authority to annex seven neighboring districts. The vote was 84 to 0.

Next steps toward annexation are up to the seven school districts, which will hold similar meetings to decide if they want to consolidate with district 1.

All but five of the seven already send their children to the district 1 school in Dryden. The school now has an enrollment of 375, ranging from kindergarten to 12th graders.

Should the districts agree on the merger, an eight-room elementary addition would be added. "If we can get the vote within the next month, I'd say we can get a new elementary to go next fall," Fred Patterson, district 1 superintendent, stated.

Cost of the addition would be approximately $150,000. Like all operating and maintenance costs, it would be shared by taxpayers of all eight districts.

Milwaukee's NL Players Money-Hungry

Only 4 Regular Braves' Stars Signed for '54

Players Out to Share in Profits Club Made Through Shift

By CHRIS EDMONDS
MILWAUKEE (AP)—The rich giveaway menu at Milwaukee County Stadium last summer appears to have produced a winter crop of money-hungry baseball players.

The Milwaukee Braves had only 17 players under contract today—Cincinnati reported 40 signed yesterday in comparison—and there's been no visible stampede into the front office for salary chats. What it boils down to is a so-far-unsuccessful clamor for a bigger cut of the profits from the top money-making club in major league baseball last summer.

The 1953 Braves really lived it up in their first Milwaukee season, but more on the fabulous generosity of a baseball-crazy populace than the contents of their pay envelopes. There was hardly a man on the club that didn't receive items ranging from $1,000 bonds down to free milk for his kids for six months. Tractors, automobiles, wrist watches and a year's supply of fresh lamb figured in too.

The front office fared equally as well as fans fought for tickets, so well it was estimated the club cleared enough to pay off its losses for the final dismal years in Boston.

But only four regulars are among the 17 in the fold—and two of them were here last year only as visitors. Bobby Thomson, the ex-Giant, agreed to an estimated $35,000, and Danny O'Connell, a refugee from Pittsburgh, to about $12,000. The two "old" Braves—Warren Spahn, ace left-hander, and home run king Eddie Mathews—came in for a reported $42,000 and $25,000, respectively.

Three Braves wintering here still are unsigned. Shortstop Johnny Logan is said to be asking $18,000 without much luck, while outfielder Billy Bruton and pitcher Lew Burdette are in the same boat.

General Manager John Quinn admits several men have returned unsigned contracts, but says, "We're not upset."

'Jack Tankers' Are Here Today

Unbeaten Arthur Hill Swimmers Test Pontiac High Squad

Pontiac High's swimming team, burdened by five consecutive losses, were entertaining undefeated Saginaw Arthur Hill this afternoon.

Lumberjacks, who defeated Pontiac 55-26 early last month, were heavily favored today. Arthur Hill has four victories and a tie in five starts this season.

Chiefs' best chances for individual victories rested with sophomore breast-stroker Bob Keavy and sophomore free-stylist Bob Lamson. Keavy has won his specialty in six of seven meets, while Lamson has been beaten only twice at 200 yards. They accounted for Pontiac's only 1st places in last month's meet with Arthur Hill.

A junior varsity meet was to precede today's varsity test.

Brennan Is Impressive With Poise, Confidence

By JOE FALLS

DETROIT (AP)—Men of long-standing football fame were there, to be sure, but it seemed all eyes were focused on a young man who was a comparative unknown only a week ago.

Young Terry Brennan, new head coach of Notre Dame, was making his first major public appearance last night at the Detroit Downtown Quarterback dinner, and he handled himself with a sureness that usually only comes with years of experience.

Impeccably dressed, the handsome 25-year-old Irishman told an intent audience: "I've stepped into some big shoes which can only be filled by hard work. I'm going to provide that hard work."

His speech was short, crisp. He had followed to the podium such football greats as Biggie Munn, Johnny Lattner, Forest Evashevski—but yet he received the biggest ovation.

Prior to the dinner, Brennan held forth at a press conference. A flock of questions were fired at him. He answered calmly, optimistically.

Of Notre Dame's rugged schedule, he said: "I wouldn't want any breathers on it. The only way you can prove you're the best is by playing the best."

Would an elder man hesitate to work for Brennan? "I do not feel age enters into it. I simply want the best men for the job."

Reporters noted Brennan's use of the pronoun "I." It appeared to indicate the young man's self-confidence.

His presence was the highlight of the annual affair, Lattner.

Notre Dame's All-America half-back, was honored as "Player of the Year" and Forest Evashevski of Iowa as "Coach of the Year."

Among those also honored were Ralph Young and Biggie Munn of Michigan State and Ray Eliot of Illinois, the Detroit Lions, Otto Graham, "Pro Player of the Year," and Matt Mann.

Only 10 players in the history of the National League have hit more than 40 home runs in one season.

Lincoln Upsets Unbeaten Eastern in Junior Action

Lincoln's Railsplitters registered the biggest upset of the Suburban Junior High Basketball League season Thursday afternoon, toppling unbeaten Eastern, 37-35.

Northsiders jumped into a 16-3 first quarter lead and never lost the advantage. Eastern shaved the margin by 2 points in the finale, but could not catch the resurgent Railsplitters.

Dave Diehm led the winners

CAPTAIN EASY

Recent causes for alarm have been not only the expulsion of foreign newsmen of vague charges that they "defamed" Guatemala, but also a series of secret arrests of opposition leaders and threats against the free press by Communist and semi-government press.

These are the weathervanes of communism's ruthless methods everywhere.

in the state as well as PHS. The staff of The Journal was announced recently.

Bill Hampton will take over duties as editor-in-chief assisted by Bruce Serwin, assistant editor.

Paul Govenis has charge of art work and Walter Hodge takes over as Letters Editor.

Science co-editors are Sid Schochet and Norvell Sears.

Michigan correspondent for the Journal is Richard Barger and out-of-state reporter is Paul Maloney.

Other staff workers will be named at a later date.

Controlling Guatemala's politics is a left party coalition called the National Democratic Front. The Workers Party is the dominant one. It claims only 4,500 members but through unions under its domination it actually controls 100,000 labourers.
