OAS Confab Split 3 Ways on Cuba Action

U.S. Still Hoping as Argentina Warns of Breakup Danger

PUNTA DEL ESTE, Uruguay (AP)—The Inter-American Foreign Ministers Conference on Cuban communism split into three blocs today in wrangling over how best to deal with Prime Minister Fidel Castro's threats to hemispheric unity.

Argentina, one of the biggest and most powerful nations, warned other members that the Organization of American States faces a danger of disintegration unless a compromise formula is found.

A U. S. spokesman still expressed hope the meeting would result in some indictment of the Castro regime, but the situation remained extremely fluid.

Brazil, leader of the anti-punishment bloc, obviously has not budged an inch after two days of behind-the-scenes bargaining over whether to punish Castro with diplomatic or economic penalties or adopt a soft approach.

* * *

"There is little prospect of complete accord at this conference," a Brazilian spokesman said.

3 DIVISIONS

As of the moment, the line-up appeared to be:

* * *

1. The United States and 10 other nations — largely Central American and Caribbean — seek stern punishment, including a rupture of diplomatic and trade relations with Havana.
2. A nonpunishment bloc made up of Brazil, Mexico, Bolivia, Ecuador and Haiti. Haiti shifted its position from the first group Monday.
3. Argentina, Uruguay, Venezuela and Chile, oppose a diplomatic or economic break, but favor a declaration of condemnation.

Argentine spokesmen argue that sanctions against Cuba are impractical and could have little hope of forcing Cuba out of the Communist bloc.

They contend that even if more than two-thirds of the 20 nations sitting in judgment on Cuba voted for sanctions, there remains large countries such as Mexico and Brazil that would not go along.

Thus the OAS would be effectively divided.

* * *

Brazilian spokesmen insisted that, after hearing the arguments of all sides, Brazil has the only way out.

Brazil's formula would seek to cure the Cuban situation by permitting Havana to neutralize itself.

* * *

Brazilians contend a sanitary cordon around Cuba could prevent Communist infiltration into the rest of the Americas while American nations kept their hands off the Cuban internal situation.

BLANKET OF SNOW — A blanket of snow covers the diving board, decking the area around a swimming pool, mountains in the background and foliage, including the tropical plants in front of the wall at the center of the picture. This scene on Foothill Boulevard in La Crescenta, Calif. is in the foothills of the San Gabriel Mountains. La Crescenta is a Los Angeles suburb. Commission to Consider Budget, Rezoning Plan

The proposed 1962 operating budget and a request to rezone 37 acres for a shopping center loom as the top items scheduled for tonight's Pontiac City Commission meeting.

If tradition persists, the public hearing on this year's proposed $6.7 million budget will be handled almost like a routine measure.

In past years, citizens have rarely shown more than passing interest in the annual budget. City commissioners are expected to adopt a resolution authorizing City Atty. William A. Ewart to prepare the 1962 appropriation ordinance for presentation and final adoption next Tuesday.

* * *

The shopping center proposal promises to create more controversy. At the January city planning commission meetings, a request by National Business Brokers, Inc., of Pontiac, to rezone the plot at North Perry and Arlene streets from residential to commercial was met with considerable resistance from affected property owners.

However, late yesterday a petition requesting the rezoning was submitted to city officials by John Ridgway, president of National Business Brokers.

* * *

It included about 150 signatures of persons said to be property owners in the immediate area. The names were being checked for validity today.

* * *

Despite resistance of Commissioner John A. Dugan, whose district includes the area in question and the planning commission recommendation against the request, the Commission tabled the matter for study two weeks ago.

* * *

Dugan said he had many calls from persons in that area protesting the rezoning.

* * *

In other business, commissioners will be asked to okay a resolution ordering construction of combined sewers by public necessity on Meadowlawn, Cloverlawn and Cherrylawn drives and Stanley Avenue.

* * *

They are also expected to appoint City Manager Robert A. Stierer civil defense director and Administrative Asst. David S. Teel, deputy civil defense director for Pontiac.

Texas Skids on Ice Cap; West Thaws

By United Press International

A sheet of ice covered almost the entire state of Texas today in the latest twist of a crazy, mixed-up, vicious winter.

The nation's freakish weather pattern also inflicted a dying snow storm on Los Angeles suburbs, blocked the Mississippi River with a giant ice jam, and spread freezing drizzle across the Southland.

Marathon cold in the North took an increasing toll in human misery. Chicago's hospitals were filled to capacity with victims of respiratory ailments and of spills upon the city's icy sidewalks.

Await Blueprint for Tax to Cover '62-63 Spending

Mental Health, Schools and Colleges, Welfare Would Share Increase

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Swainson today proposed a record $528.3-million budget to finance state government operations in 1962-63.

He will map out a tax program Friday to help pay for it, probably through a tax on corporate and personal income.

The governor's spending blueprint, submitted to the legislature today, tops current spending by 11 per cent.

Most of the increase would be earmarked for state school aid, state colleges and universities, mental health programs and welfare programs.

Swainson, in a special message to legislators, described it as "a realistic budget for a dynamic state of nearly eight million people responding to the inspiring potentials of the space age we have entered."

* * *

The Democratic governor made another pitch for a state building corporation to launch a far-reaching construction program, chiefly at mental institutions, institutions of higher learning, and capital development.

The $56.2-million construction program would supplement $22.6 million the governor asked for construction from current revenue.

The 1961-62 budget for general government operations totals $462.6 million, about $400,000 more than the governor's recommendations.

The governor's 1962-63 budget appropriation recommendation for education includes a recommended [illegible] increase over the current outlay for Michigan State University Oakland.

MSUO is getting $970,000 in the current fiscal year and had requested an additional $801,270 in next year's budget. The governor's recommendation is $208,918 below the MSUO request.

However, the governor last year asked for $38.2 million for the state building authority, an amount the legislature partially provided for in its budget.

State budget officials estimated another $14.1 million will be needed this year in supplemental appropriations, partly to pay

Auditorium Packed for Cooking School

Pontiac Central High School's auditorium was expected to be filled with a capacity crowd this afternoon when the first performance of "Galaxy of Foods" was to be presented

The third annual cooking school, sponsored by the Pontiac Press will run through the rest of the week.

Long before the doors opened at 1 p.m., women and a few men were lined up outside. Many had left home hours earlier in order to be sure of a good seat

They planned to pass the time after they were in the auditorium in chatting, knitting, crocheting and exchanging recipes. Cliff Wiegand of Wiegand Music Center was to entertain at the organ.

Janet Odell, Pontiac Press Home Editor, was to introduce Mary Metag and Anne Stezel, home economists from the National Live stock and Meat Board. These two young women were prepared to present a fast-moving program of food preparation, including such interesting dishes as Bavarian Pot Roast, Sesame Stuffed Pork Chops, Park Avenue Cake and Gold Nugget Peppers.

* * *

These and all other dishes to be prepared on stage were to be awarded to winners of the ticket-drawing session at the close of the afternoon.

The grand prize drawing for the two new ranges will take place Friday afternoon. A score of other prizes will be given then also.

Ticket holders need not be present to win. No member of the Pontiac Press or of any Press family is entitled to win

* * *

Those without tickets are admitted on a first-come, first-served basis just before 2 p.m. No children under 10 will be admitted.

Stahlin Planning GOP Candidacy for Lt. Governor

Stahlin said he would run on a platform of "building a new Michigan by convincing business leaders in other states to locate their plant expansions in Michigan."

Stahlin said he had the support in his bid of party leaders, including most of the so-called moderates and many of the conservatives in the Senate.

Use Teamwork to Nab Youth

Five Area Police Units Cooperate in Arrest of Suspect in Ski Thefts

Police from five area police departments cooperated in the arrest of a Detroit youth they believe is a member of a ring responsible for stealing and re-selling hundreds of dollars worth of ski equipment

* * *

The suspect, James Hall, 19, waived examination yesterday in his appearance before White Lake Township Justice of the Peace Joseph Hynds on a charge of grand larceny

Hall was arrested by White Lake Township police following special investigations by Ferndale and Southfield police after several complaints of stolen skis were made to sheriff's departments in Oakland and Lapeer counties.

The operators of four ski resorts in the area, Mount Holly, Alpine Valley, Mount Christie and the Dryden Ski Area, reported the theft of eight pair of skis Jan. 11.

The ski lodge owners all said they feared an organized group of thieves was involved in the theft and re-sale of the ski equipment.

* * *

The skis at the Southfield shop had the serial numbers and identification removed, police said

Craig Shaw, a private patrol man for the Dryden Ski Area in Lapeer County, noted that he had seen two suspicious persons near the ski rack when a false accident report had drawn away other special policemen from the rack.

On Saturday, Shaw and Lapeer County Sheriff's detectives visited the ski shop where Hall is employed and Shaw identified Hall as one of the two suspicious persons he had seen

* * *

SETS IDENTIFIED

The two sets found for sale in the shop were identified as the ones taken from Alpine Valley in White Lake Township and Hall was charged with the thefts.

The owner of the Southfield ski shop was in Chicago and unavailable for comment on the arrest of his employe, according to Detective Gerald Gaedt of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department.

Although only one arrest was made, police believe others are involved in the thefts.

* * *

Frostbitten Michigan Snowed by Forecast

* * *

The forecast throughout the state called for temperatures ranging from 8 above to zero, to the mid-teens to lower 20s. In the Pontiac area continued cold and snow flurries added to the traffic woes.

The outlook for tonight is continued cold with a low of 11. Wednesday is expected to be a little warmer with the high rising to 22. Cloudy and warmer temperatures is Thursday's prediction.

Morning westerly winds at 10 miles per hour will become southwesterly tonight and Wednesday.

Twelve was the lowest recording in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The thermometer registered 21 at 2 p.m.

Reaches Halfway Point

Clare 'Indoorsman' Going Strong

AP Photofax

CLARE (AP) — Sandra Wedal was among the scoffers who bet that her husband couldn't last eight days in the snowy woods.

She and 14 friends bet $10 each that Tony Wedal couldn't take the zero weather with only a tent as a shelter and on a diet of dehydrated foods.

Mrs. Wedal now is about ready to concede that her husband, who calls himself an indoorsman, will win the $150 bet.

Wedal, 33, reaches the halfway mark today and he's going strong. Dr. J. R. Gerson examined him Monday at the campsite on the shores of Lake Beebe several miles from Wedal's Clare home and reported he is in fine health.

Mrs. Wedal said she bet against her husband because she considered it all a joke last December when he boasted he could survive in the woods. Friends dared him to try it.

"From all reports now I expect to lose $10," said Mrs. Wedal, a note of pride in her voice. "They say he's never been healthier and he's already got rid of a slight cold he had when he went into the woods."

Wedal had never attempted roughing it before. His hobbies are progressive jazz and reading

* * *

Wedal, a state probation officer, walked into the woods at 1 p.m. Friday. Under terms of the bet, his only supplies were what he could carry on his back. He figured on supplementing his diet with fish from the lake.

Terror Is Reply to French Plans

Controls for Algerian Cities Answered by Gunfire, Explosives

ALGIERS (AP)—Terrorists replied with gunfire and explosives today to plans of French authorities to clamp tight traffic and other restrictions on three of Algeria's largest cities.

Jean Morin, chief government representative in Algeria, ordered the special control measures for Algiers, Oran and Bone Monday night in an effort to stop the war between European and Moslem terrorists.

In Oran a terrorist shot a European to death and a European crowd in retaliation killed a Moslem flower seller who had a dagger hidden in his flower basket.

In Bone, an explosive charge damaged the stern of the steamship Djebel Dira, which was preparing to sail with a company of riot police being transferred to France. The ship will have to go into drydock for repairs.

Four persons were killed and 18 wounded in terrorist attacks and seven Moslems were killed by police Monday.

Authorities said the terrorist attacks showed the necessity of immediate application of the new security measures — including roadblocks, traffic curfews and troop cordons.

They said it would be some time, however, before they could be put into effect because of a shortage of troops.

The city's public transport system was strikebound for the sixth day, and European doctors were in the second day of their 48-hour strike. Bus drivers and doctors are demanding police escorts, but authorities say they do not have enough manpower.

Dr. Obear 'Experiments' in MSUO Lab

"Fizzz . . . Poof!"

* * *

It was a simple experiment of mixing potassium permanganate and glycerol to demonstrate an explosive chemical reaction. It is a standard experiment performed each year in thousands of chemistry classes across the nation.

But last Saturday at Michigan State University Oakland, the real experiment was taking place among the students:

The youngest was a fourth grader. Among the oldest were fathers in their fifties.

In a unique parent-child classroom setup, Dr. Frederick W. Obear, teaching the class in the Continuing Education Division, is bringing the family into the laboratory.

* * *

The 20 parents and 23 youngsters in "Exploring Chemistry for Parents and Children" will peek into the basic principles of atomic structure and chemistry.

The professor also hopes to demonstrate flying ping-pong balls, an ammonium dichromate volcano (which changes from orange to green), and a few minor explosions.

"The purpose of the course is to give parent and child a common learning experience where they can help out each other," explained Obear. "The subject in most part is new to both of them."

A 'FIRST' FOR OBEAR

This is the first time Obear has taught children and adults at the same time.

But already he has made a discovery.

He says he'll extend the lab time.

* * *

After a discussion last week of "Inside the Atom," Obear plans to build on the basic principles. Unfortunately, at that session a dearth of ping-pong balls prevented a demonstration of a chain reaction . . ., but only temporarily.

In this presentation, the balls are placed on set mousetraps. As one is sprung, bouncing balls set off the others.

* * *

In laboratory work, he said, children will actually make things they have heard about, but not just follow a cook book recipe to do so.

When a lecture deals with types of compounds, the children will make one type: table salt. To make it, they will learn about acids and bases.

In biochemistry, the students will learn how important chemistry is to life itself.

"I'm thinking of having them make aspirin," says Obear. "Whenever they have a headache they'll remember the meaning of chemistry to life as they gulp one down."

Pay Hike OK'd at City Hospital

The Pontiac General Hospital Board of Trustees has approved an $82,500 pay increase for hospital employes and authorized a hike in daily room rates to offset the expense.

* * *

At a special meeting Monday afternoon, trustees approved an agreement which will give all employes a 4.5-cent-per-hour pay increase and set aside $6,091 to cover "inequities in the pay plan" which might arise this year, according to Harold S. Goldberg, board chairman.

To pay for the "increased labor costs and other operating expenses" the board authorized Harold B. Euler, administrator, to increase room rates $1 per day.

This brings the charge for a ward room to $21 per day, still considerably lower than other major area hospitals.

* * *

The hospital's recently approved $5.8-million 1962 operating budget doesn't include provisions for a pay hike and income will have to be revised before final adoption.

Employes got a five-cent-an-hour hike in pay last year. Their total request for a pay hike and fringe benefits for 1962 originally totaled some $240,000.

The wage agreement came out of a weekend meeting between the board's personnel committee, administrators and a negotiating committee of Pontiac Local 100, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes Union (AFL-CIO).

* * *

Samuel A. Baker, Local 100 president, said the hospital members of the union were pleased with the plan.

* * *

The board also announced a $25 per month pay increase to married interns and resident doctors amounting to about $6,500 annually.

The Day in Birmingham

9-Hole City Golf Course Wins Commission OK

BIRMINGHAM — A proposal for a nine-hole municipal golf course was met favorably by city commissioners last night with an appropriation of $3,000 to hire a landscape architect to prepare plans for the recreation facility.

The commission named W. Bruce Matthews of Newaygo to proceed with preliminary plans for the golf course, which would be laid out at the site of the former city sewage treatment plant on Cranbrook Road.

Each of the three preliminary plans to be submitted is to show a course layout of approximately 3,200 yards in length, with large greens and tees.

Plans also will show the location of a proposed parking lot, entrance drive, practice green, fairways, roughs, greens, sandtraps and existing and proposed tree plantings.

* * *

All preliminary plans will be submitted to the commission for consideration on or before April 2.

Upon approval by the city, Matthews will then prepare a final plan of the course, together with an estimated cost of construction.

The final plan would be presented within three weeks after the preliminary drawings and field staking have been approved by the city.

The seven constitutional convention delegates from Oakland County will have an opportunity to talk directly to their constituents — and vice versa — at 8 p.m. Friday in a public meeting at the Birmingham Community House, 380 S. Bates St.

A press panel will question the delegates on their beliefs and progress on Michigan's proposed new constitution, after which the public will be invited to participate in the questioning.

Delegates are George W. Romney, Richard D. Kuhn, Raymond L. King, Henry L. Woolfenden, Richard C. Van Dusen, Arthur G. Elliott Jr. and Lee Walker.

Press panelists will represent The Pontiac Press, The Birmingham Eccentric, Royal Oak Tribune and Radio Station WPON.

* * *

The meeting is one of a series, "Meet Your Celebrity Neighbor," sponsored jointly by the Community House and the Oakland Citizens League to acquaint residents of the Birmingham-Bloomfield area with individuals and issues of common interest.

VIPs Urged to Speak Out

Eisenhower Message Read Into Records of Muzzling Probers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower urged today that top military and civilian leaders be encouraged to speak out against the dangers of international communism.

* * *

Eisenhower offered this advice in a statement sent to a special Senate investigating committee, and made public as it opened hearings on charges the Pentagon "muzzles" anti-Communist speeches by military leaders.

* * *

"I say, let the military speak, always under properly established policies and the general—not petty—supervision of their civilian superiors," Eisenhower said in his letter to Sen. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., chairman of the inquiry.

* * *

"In half a century of national service, I have yet to meet the American military officer who viewed himself as a budding Napoleon, or even a Rasputin, and I suggest it is worthy of note that in recent world history the three major dictators, Hitler, Mussolini and Stalin, came from civil life."

USED BLUE PENCIL

As the hearings began, it was learned the senators have obtained some information that Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara declined to give them—the names of individuals in the Defense Department who blue-penciled specific speeches.

In declining to give these names, McNamara took a stand that he was assuming full responsibility himself for what had been done. The senators got the names from the men themselves.

* * *

* * *

An overflow crowd jammed the big room. Many spectators were standing along the sides and in the rear of the room.

Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, retired former chief of naval operations, was waiting to testify.

But first, Stennis read from Eisenhower's statement and put it into the record.

French Dressing Jackie Favors Sours Mrs. Luce

NEW YORK (AP) — Clare Boothe Luce says that whatever Jacqueline Kennedy "does for French fashions does not help our own fashion industry."

Mrs. Luce, former ambassador to Italy, Republican congresswoman and playwright, comments in an article in the current issue of McCall's magazine.

"When she wears French-designed, French-made clothes, it may be interpreted by fashion-conscious Americans as mistrust of American designers' ability to bring out her full beauty," Mrs. Luce wrote.

Mrs. Luce was replying to a question by a reader: "Do you think Mrs. Kennedy should be censured for buying some of her clothes in Paris?"

About one-third of the sky visible from the United States has been photographed and recorded out to a distance of approximately 350 million light years, it is now estimated.

Man-in-Space Flight Hangs in Air

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — U.S. scientists took a critical look at a trouble-ridden space capsule today to decide whether to attempt America's first manned orbital flight Saturday or wait until next week.

While astronaut John H. Glenn Jr., stood by anxiously and impatiently, technicians began an "evaluation" of new difficulties that forced a new postponement of at least three days in plans to launch him on a three-orbit trip around the globe.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) officially quoted Glenn as saying "the additional time will only increase our sharpness."

But the 40-year-old astronaut was tight-lipped after scientists decided to postpone the shot from Wednesday until at least Saturday.

Informed sources said Glenn's orbital voyage could be attempted Saturday only if "everything goes perfectly from now on."

If there are further troubles — and many expected there would be — the launching was expected to be again delayed until at least Jan. 30.

Because part of the capsule's oxygen supply system had to be taken apart Monday, scientists decided it was necessary to set the countdown back to T-minus-four-days in order to run full safety checks on all the equipment that had to be dismantled.

It was learned, also, that Project Mercury officials were considering the possibility of calling a weekend rest period for the hundreds of technicians and workers involved.

This would mean a delay until at least Tuesday and informed sources said Tuesday now appeared a much more likely firing date than Saturday.

The space agency was more optimistic about its chances of firing a camera-carrying space capsule to the moon on Friday or Saturday.

The new delay in the Project Mercury man-into-space shot also increased the Navy's hopes for launching five satellites into orbit aboard a single rocket this week. The shot, called "Composite-1," was removed from the firing schedule Thursday and pulled back to Wednesday.

Clues Tie Two to Detroit Killing

State Ex-Convicts Held in Missouri on Armed Robbery Charge

DETROIT (AP) — A bloodstained newspaper and an empty match folder were reported by Detroit police today to have been the key clues which implicated two Michigan ex-convicts in the slaying last Friday of Mrs. Hazel Lancaster, a westside apartment manager.

Both men, one a nephew of the slain woman, now are held in Joplin, Mo., on a charge of armed robbery. They are James Gudenau, 31, whose last known address was near Holly, and Donald E. Harrington, the victim's 30-year-old Detroit nephew.

Gudenau worked on a farm in Rose Township immediately after his release from prison but left shortly after the holidays. He had been employed at the same farm about six years earlier.

* * *

Police Inspector George Bloomfield forwarded a request for murder warrants to the Wayne County prosecutor's office today. Two Detroit detectives arrived in Joplin Monday night to quiz the pair.

* * *

The men were arrested in Missouri about an hour after the hold-up of a filling station at Carthage, near Joplin. Capt. Walter Flenner of Joplin police said Gudenau admitted in questioning he fatally stabbed the 57-year-old Mrs. Lancaster in a robbery he and Harrington planned.

U Thant Talks to Indonesian, Dutch Delegates

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Acting U.N. Secretary-General U Thant held exploratory talks Monday night with the Netherlands and Indonesia as hopes rose for a peaceful settlement to the dispute over West New Guinea.

Thant met separately with representatives of the two nations for the first time since both agreed to his offer to serve as go-between.

The secretary-general conferred first for 35 minutes with Dutch Ambassador C. W. A. Schurmann, then talked for more than an hour with Subjarwo Tjondronegoro, an Indonesian expert on West New Guinea sent here by President Sukarno to represent his government.

Indonesian delegate Sukarjo Wirjopranoto, who accompanied Tjondronegoro to the conference with Thant, said the Jakarta envoy filled Thant in on the current situation in West New Guinea as Sukarno sees it and ranged over the whole problem.

Reject Revision of Township Plat

Waterford Board Had OK'd Original Plan for Subdivision

The Waterford Township Board last night turned thumbs down on a request for revision of a plat in the Vista Villa Subdivision on Crescent Lake Road near M59.

The board had approved the preliminary plans, but after land developer Richard Price made changes, the board denied the request for approval.

A request from Montgomery Ward to establish a collection depot for payment of township water and sewer bills was unanimously approved.

There were no objectors at the 7:30 p.m. for black topping 3,100 feet of Kempf Street at an estimated cost of $25,000 and the project was approved. Each of the 46 assessments will cost $4.30 per front foot.

Another request was made by Paul Felice to be awarded the township's one Class C liquor license. He told the board he wanted to build a new cocktail lounge near the Howard Johnson restaurant on Dixie Highway. The board is considering many such requests.

Record-Size Budget Asked by Swainson

out the state school aid formula of $205 per pupil.

The biggest chunk of new revenue — $34 million — was asked for state aid to public schools, $29.1 million of it from the state's general fund and $5 million from taxes on cigarettes and liquor and other sources.

* * *

The governor asked $22.5 million, or approximately $12.50 per pupil — for an across the board 8 per cent increase in aid. The rest was sought to take care of an estimated 50,000 increase in enrollment and higher costs for teacher retirement and other programs.

SCHOOL AID UP

Swainson estimated the state will realize $468.3 million from current revenue sources in the fiscal year starting June 30. That is nearly $9 million under his estimates a year ago for income in the current fiscal year, a figure reduced in the interim because tax revenues failed to live up to expectations.

* * *

His proposed new tax program will yield another $71 million, leaving $11 million over his spending proposals which would be applied against a State Treasury deficit expected to top $90 million by the end of the current fiscal year.

* * *

Swainson proposed a $15 million increase for higher education operations, including $12 million for the 10 state colleges and universities and 16 community colleges. The total would go up to $124.6 million.

blamed for at least 54 deaths, 18 of them in Texas and 9 in California.

Gas was curtailed by as much as 40 per cent to industrial users in the state.

Only a handful of schools stayed open in north Texas. Hotels were full, airline offices were jammed, and only piston-powered airliners were able to maneuver on ice-covered runways.

The freezing drizzle was expected to dip as far as Brownsville, at the southern tip of the state.

But the cold could not do much further damage to the multimillion citrus crop of the lower Rio Grande Valley.

The sap was still too low in the citrus trees as a result of a disastrous freeze earlier this month.

ICE WARNING ISSUED

The U.S. Weather Bureau said Texas would have no monopoly on the ice. Glaze and hazardous driving warnings were issued for parts of Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee and northern Alabama.

* * *

In the Far West, the storm which plastered Los Angeles foothill suburbs with up to a half foot of snow appeared to be weakening.

Weathermen said a warming trend would confine the snow to higher elevations in southern California, but rains still poured down on coastal areas and mudslides oozed down canyon walls in Bel Air Canyon.

Hits Plan to Decorate Margaret's Home

LONDON (UPI) — Parliament's first 1962 session was thrown into an uproar today when an attack was made on plans to spend $238,000 to redecorate Princess Margaret's royal home.

* * *

Members began yelling and demonstrating when one MP asked if the princess and her husband Lord Snowdon — formerly photographer Antony Armstrong-Jones — were paying any of the cost.

The bewigged speaker of commons, Sir Harry Hylton-Foster, gavelled the chamber back into order. He ruled the question out of order.

Polaris Shot Flops as 2nd Stage Fails

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — A Navy attempt to fire a Polaris missile 1,500 miles across the Atlantic Ocean failed today when the rocket's second stage misfired.

The Polaris, aimed at a target southeast of the cape, fell far short of its goal.

It appeared to observers that the second stage might have blown up high in the sky. The Air Force said, however, that the rocket was not deliberately destroyed, an action taken when a rocket veers off course.

The 30-foot missile thundered from a launching pad on the cape at about 12:08 p.m. (Pontiac time) and streaked high into a misty blue sky ahead of the brilliant white vapor trail characteristic of solid-fueled rockets.

The Price of Persuasion

County Bar Assn. Members Vote for System

Seek Creation of Jury Commission Bill

A bill will be sought by the Oakland County Bar Association in the legislature this year to permit creation of a jury commission to select Circuit Court juries.

* * *

About 100 of 200 association members yesterday afternoon voted almost unanimously — there was only one negative vote — to employ the commission selection system to improve what several judges have called "irregularities" in the present selection.

Some attorneys, too, have criticized the present selection system, left pretty much up to the township supervisors and city assessing officers, in that it produces an abundance of housewives, retirees, repeaters and few laborers on juries.

Royal Oak attorney Jack W. Hutson, past president of the association, seemed to sum up the reaction of many local attorneys when he said: "We don't think this is a good system." His remark was applauded.

* * *

Before the end of the year, attorneys envision a paid commission whose responsibility would include primarily the screening of prospective jurors to provide a sufficient number from diversified backgrounds.

Unlike the present system, when the township and city officials pick the names from tax assessment rolls, the names would be drawn "at random" through a key numbering system from rolls of electors from cities and townships.

The change to the commission would provide "the most acceptable vehicle to accomplish the desired administration," said Jerome F. Mulligan, a member of the special six-member committee of the Bar which proposed the jury commission.

Opposing the change was Pontiac attorney Kenneth B. McConnell. "I hesitate seeing this county yelling to Lansing for help before putting its own house in order," he said.

The association will seek the cooperation of the board of supervisors' legislative committee for an act which would be similar to one under which a seven-member commission operates in Wayne County.

FAIL TO SPEAK

The four of five circuit judges who attended yesterday's monthly meeting did not speak up then with their opinions. But afterward Judge Clark J. Adams said, "We came down to listen, but are quite willing to work under any system."

* * *

Judge William J. Beer said: "I have no opposition to a jury commission but it appears the statutory system of selecting jurors works well in Oakland County when well administered. Over the years it has been administered well. However, there is room for improvement."

Diplomats Hear Molotov Relieved of Vienna Post

MOSCOW (UPI)—Western diplomatic sources said today they have heard unofficially from Soviet sources that former Foreign Minister Vyacheslav Molotov has been replaced as representative to the International Atomic Energy Commission in Vienna.

* * *

The sources said they had been told, in conversations on at least two occasions, that the acting delegation chief, Alexander Alexandrov, will be promoted to Molotov's place.

* * *

(In Vienna, IAEA officials said they have not been told of any changes in the Soviet delegation. They said Molotov still is listed as permanent head of the mission with Alexandrov as acting chief.)

Free Streetcar Ride to End Era in Capital

All day Saturday—and until 2 a.m. Sunday—youngsters accompanied by an adult will be allowed to ride the trolleys free.

A spokesman for the D.C. Transit Co. said "Lots of kids might never have the opporunity to ride a streetcar. We thought it would be a nice thing to do."

Quartets Plan Songfest Saturday at Northern

The 19th annual "Parade of Harmony" starting at 8:15 p.m. Saturday at Pontiac Northern High School will feature barbershop quartets from throughout the country.

The event is sponsored by the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America, Inc.

From Pittsburgh will be the Town and Country Four, which finished second in the international contest in June.

Detroit's state champions, the "Auto-Towners," will present several numbers. A feminine touch will be added with quartet singing by the "Yankee Misses," members of the Detroit Chapter of the Sweet Adeline organization.

* * *

Some 30 members of the Pontiac chapter chorus, the "Revelaires," will sing "You'll Never Know the Good Fellow I've Been" and "That Old Gang of Mine."

* * *

Pontiac Chapter 17 of the SPEBQSA is sponsoring the affair. Tickets may be obtained from either Cloonan's or Hallman's drug store in Clarkston.

Attorney General Is Told to Decline Moscow Trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy has declined an informal invitation to visit the Soviet Union next month on his trip around the world. But he says he looks forward to visiting there in the future.

PLANS FOR FUTURE

The brother of President Kennedy said: "I have received an informal invitation to visit the Soviet Union during my currently planned trip.

"My travel plans, however, have been completed for some time and I will not be able to alter them at this time. I will, however, look forward to visiting the Soviet Union in the future."

Neither Kennedy, the Justice Department nor the White House would say who issued the invitation. A Justice Department spokesman said it was received last Thursday.

The decision apparently was reached after discussions between the attorney general, the President and Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger had said earlier that the attorney general had a full schedule for his trip starting Feb. 2.

Presumably, Kennedy's schedule could have been changed to fit in the Moscow trip if the President and Rusk had thought it worthwhile.

HIDDEN MEANING

There was speculation the invitation might be accepted to give Kennedy—and through him the President—a first hand look at what is going on in Moscow now. Some U.S. officials think Premier Khrushchev is faced with demands for a more aggressive attitude toward the Western alliance—demands from within the Soviet Union and outside. They think he might welcome a chance to communicate with the President through his brother.

* * *

Apparently outweighing the possible advantages was the opinion that there would be objections at home and abroad to the attorney general, who has no diplomatic rank, taking on such a job.

* * *

The younger Kennedy and his wife, Ethel, will be making goodwill visits to Japan, Indonesia, Iran, Germany and the Netherlands, ending about Feb. 26. Last August they made a similar trip to West Africa.

Expect Light Vote in Detroit Today

DETROIT (AP) — The cold weather was expected to result in a light turn-out of voters in the 14th Congressional District's special primary election today.

The weather bureau forecast a high of 18 for the day.

Democratic and Republican voters choose their nominees for the runoff election Feb. 13. The winner will succeed the late Rep. Louis C. Rabaut, a Democrat.

Rabaut, who died Nov. 12, was elected to Congress from the district 13 times. The district embraces Harper Woods, the Grosse Pointes and East Side Detroit's 17th, 19th and 21st wards.

Ex-Gov. Folsom Asks 3rd Alabama Term

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—James E. Folsom has formally announced what a lot of observers predicted all along—that he'll seek an unprecedented third term as governor.

"There will be no bloodshed in Birmingham, Montgomery or any other part of the state while I am governor," Folsom declared. "My policy on segregation has worked in the past and will work again. While I am governor, there will be no night floggings of our citizens."

Folsom, 53, was governor in 1947-51 and 1955-59.

Set Wayne County Bids on 2 Highway Projects

LANSING (AP) — The State Highway Department has announced it will open bids in Wayne County Feb. 15 on two highway construction projects totaling an estimated $4.3 million.

They include nearly one mile of construction on the Southfield Freeway in Allen Park, preliminary work on a short section of the Walter P. Chrysler Expressway and start of work on the Chrysler-Fisher Freeway exchange in Detroit.

Walled Lake Voters Reject 3 School Issues

$2.1 Million for Building, Mill Hike Lose Narrowly

WALLED LAKE — Three proposals — two bond issues and a millage increase — were rejected yesterday by voters in the Walled Lake School District.

The proposed $2.1-million bond issue for new construction and the two-mill tax hike for operational purposes were defeated by narrow margins while a plan for a $400,000 auditorium was overwhelmingly turned down.

The larger bond issue failed to win support by 24 votes, losing 1,046 to 1,022. The auditorium proposal was defeated by a vote of 1,327 to 741.

Failing to gain approval by only four votes was the proposed tax increase. It lost with a vote of 1,075 to 1,071.

Approval of all three proposals would have increased taxes four mills over the current rate of 20.35 mills for each $1,000 of state equalized valuation.

* * *

The board of education met following the final tallying of the votes early this morning but came to no decision on what its next move would be, said Supt. Clifford H. Smart.

SET SPECIAL SESSION

The school board will hold a special session at 8 p.m. Thursday to canvass the votes.

"I really don't know what will happen now," said Smart. "The facilities are needed and something will have to be done."

While similar proposals could be placed on a ballot in 30 days, Smart indicated that it would be longer since the Citizens Committee on School needs would have to be contacted for recommendations.

The citizens group had asked the board to schedule the special election last November following a six-month study of school facilities.

The committee's major recommendation was for additional elementary classrooms.

* * *

In addition to erecting new elementary facilities, the $2.1 million bond issue would have financed the construction of a new administration building, garage and service building.

It also would have been used for acquiring and improving sites for the new buildings.

The 900-seat auditorium would have been built as an addition to the senior high school.

The millage increase would have provided the school district with about $140,000 annually for operations.

Petition Hour Saturday Noon

Council Hopefuls to File With Clerks in Oxford and Rochester

Political hopefuls in the villages of Rochester and Oxford will have to file their nominating petitions with their respective village clerks by noon Saturday in order to enter the races for expiring posts on the village councils.

Incumbent councilmen in Rochester whose terms are expiring are John J. Lowes, Don G. Pixley, Stowell Collins and Sydney Q. Ennis.

Lowes has been on the council for a one-year term. Pixley's first two-year term is expiring. Collins has held his post for six years and Ennis is completing his ninth year in office.

Council candidates in Rochester must submit petitions with the signatures of at least 25 qualified electors to have their names on the ballot for the March 12 general election.

* * *

OXFORD COUNCIL

Oxford councilmen whose terms are expiring are Allen J. Valentine, Wayne Converse and Edmund Unger. Valentine has served three two-year terms and has been president of the council for the past three years.

Converse's first one-year term is expiring in March and Unger has been on the council for five years.

A primary election will be held Feb. 19 if more than six eligible candidates file for the three posts. The nominating petitions must be signed by at least 25 qualified voters.

In both the Rochester and Oxford nonpartisan elections, the candidate who polls the least number of votes among the winners will get a one-year term. The other council terms are for two years.

Women Voter Unit Will Hear Planner

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—Henry J. Moses, secretary of the township planning commission, will be the guest speaker at the Jan. 30 meeting of the West Bloomfield League of Women Voters.

The theme of the 11:30 a.m. program to be held in the township library, 5030 Orchard Lake Road, will be "Master Planning for the Township."

Moses will outline future planning needs of the township. This will be followed by a general discussion of the planning commission's responsibilities, functions and activities.

Heads Oakland Pharmaceutical Association

Howard Cole, manager of a Birmingham pharmacy, has been named president of the Oakland County Pharmaceutical Association.

Cole, of 1632 Webster St., Birmingham, succeeds Alvin Sass, a Royal Oak pharmacist, as head of the county group. Cole has managed the Mills Pharmacy for 10 years.

Other officers of the association are W. C. Roberts of Drayton Plains, vice president; Hortense Riddick of Pontiac, secretary; and Frederick Arnold of Birmingham, treasurer.

Art Classes Scheduled in Clarkston This Month

CLARKSTON — Two series of art classes, one for children, the other for adults, are slated to get under way here the end of this month.

The children's classes begin Saturday and run for eight weeks. They will be held at the old Methodist Church and the hours are tentatively set for 1 to 4 p.m.

The course will include instruction in drawing and painting as well as sculpture.

The 10-week session of classes in drawing and painting for adults will begin Jan. 30 and the hours will be 7 to 10 p. m. at the same location.

WON JURY SHOW

One of the most outstanding artists in the area, Mrs. Sanford McLean, will be the instructor. She recently entered her first juried show, had all of her entries accepted and won a prize by popular vote for her pastel, "St. Jerome."

Mrs. McLean is a member of the Village Friends of Art in Clarkston and the Pontiac Art Association.

Enrollment fees for the classes have been set for $20 for Village Friends of Art members and $25 for non-members. The children's fees are the same, but they also cover the cost of materials not included for the adults.

Homeowners at Lake Orion

Object to Street Name Changes

LAKE ORION — An angry delegation of some 25 homeowners showed up at the Village Council meeting last night to protest that their street names were being changed without good reason.

Gerald H. Curtiss, 44 Hemingway St., spoke for the group.

Curtiss pointed out that the residents were all for changing the names if they were duplicated within the village. He said there were no duplications in the village of some of the names.

The street names scheduled to be changed and contested were Hemingway, Sylvan and Crescent streets and Central Avenue.

Village President Irvine J. Unger explained that the name changing was approved by the council at the request of Orion Township and the Oakland County Road Commission.

ASKED TO DO IT

According to Unger, the township has been asked to change 41 street names. The whole program was undertaken at the request of fire and police departments, the post office and utility companies in order to cut out dangerous or time-wasting confusion about like-named streets or roads in the county, he said.

Curtiss asked that the council reconsider their cooperation with the township board and the road commission and save the names of the village streets.

There also was concern in the audience last night about the cost of updating a title or abstract for land on these streets. Councilman Dr. Richard A. McNeil explained that he lived on such a street and that the title is based on geographical address as determined by surveyors, not by postal addresses.

The abstract would not have to be brought up to date until the land was up for sale and at that time the street change could be included in other changes without much extra cost, he said.

* * *

Unger told the group that he would contact members of the township board to find out what could be done about the problem. Curtiss said that the property owners would return to get an answer and recommended that the council keep the village's street names.

Lake Orion Councilmen Defer CD Budget Topic

LAKE ORION — The village's share of a joint civil defense budget with Orion Township was debated last night at the Village Council meeting and the matter deferred for a full hearing at the next meeting.

* * *

Councilman Thomas Arthur proposed that the village equal the township's appropriation of $700 for training and equipment and $300 for a CD director's raise.

His motion died for lack of support.

The hike would have brought Ray Genereux's salary to $1,200 a year for administration of the joint office of civil defense.

At its last meeting, the township cut its annual CD budget from $1,000 to $700 and then approved Genereux's raise of $300.

* * *

In turning down the CD budget for next year, Councilman David Eklandson said he felt the entire $1,000 should go into CD training and equipment and should not be used for the director's salary.

Councilman Dr. Richard A. McNeil said he thought the village should put $1,000 into the CD program rather than the $700 suggested. "We pay $1,400 for a liability insurance policy," he said. "And we hope it's wasted money. We should be prepared to save village lives as well as money."

"This is no time to cut our civil defense program," he said.

* * *

Last year's joint CD program cost about $2,000. According to Village President Irvine J. Unger, the proposed budget for 1962 is similar to that for 1961.

Dance Will Benefit New March of Dimes

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — The West Bloomfield March of Dimes Committee will sponsor a dinner dance Saturday at the Glen Oaks Country Club, 30500 W. 13 Mile Road, Farmington Township.

The evening will begin with a seven-course roast beef dinner at 7 p.m., followed by entertainment and dancing to the music of the "Vikings."

Proceeds from the event will go to the New March of Dimes campaign in Oakland County. Advance tickets can be obtained at a reduced rate by contacting committee chairman Stephen Heotaky of 7217 Finnigan St., Farmington Township, or the Mayfair Supermarket, 33006 Northwestern Highway.

Elmwood Church Group Plans Movie Thursday

AVON TOWNSHIP — The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Elmwood Methodist Church will sponsor the film, "Project Hope," at 8 p.m. Thursday at the church, corner of Grant Street and Auburn Road.

Following the movie, which describes the medical mission of the ship "Hope," refreshments will be served.

Michigan produced an almost russet-free apple crop in 1961. Educational meetings and demonstrations by Michigan State University fruit spray specialists led to more careful use of fungicides and pesticides by fruit men. The result was a top-quality apple crop.

Would Reorganize in Avondale

School Study Group Asks Grade Change

The Avondale Citizens School Study Committee last night went on record recommending a change in the organization of the grade levels in the district which would move the sixth grade back to the elementary schools.

The 6-3-3 plan recommended by a subcommittee would include three grades in high school, three in junior high and the rest on the elementary level.

Presently the district employs a 5-3-4 arrangement.

Should the board of education adopt the recommendation, it would necessitate construction of small additions to the four existing grade schools, according to Supt. Leroy R. Watt.

* * *

He said that if the plan is accepted, the board will ask voters this spring to approve funds for the new additions.

Among the reasons given for the subcommittee's recommendation for reorganization were the "high community support" for moving the sixth grade back to the grade schools and the necessity to relieve the overcrowding in the high school.

Parents feel the sixth graders have a "huge adjustment" to make when attending classes in the junior high, the subcommittee reported. It was felt the proposed change would eliminate this problem.

UP TO 420 PUPILS

The plan would call for building elementary populations up to 420 pupils in each of the four existing schools. As this total is reached in each school and new subdivision growth is recorded, a fifth grade school will be required.

The population committee predicted "very conservatively" that there would be 814 new students in the district within the next five years.

In other action, McAllister Stock, chairman of the steering committee, was elected chairman of the parent committee by the some 70 members present.

Members of the board of education also were in attendance as nonparticipants.

CD BANQUET SPEAKER — Slated to address representatives of the Northeastern Oakland County Civil Defense Council at a testimonial dinner at 7 p.m. Friday is Robert S. D'Amelio, acting director of the Michigan CD Office. The affair will be held at Michigan State University Oakland.

MEA Workshop Set for Berkley

Speaker, on Jan. 30, to Talk on Group's Plans for 1962

Legislation will be the focal point of interest at a workshop for Region 7 (Oakland County) of the Michigan Education Association to be held at the Berkley Elementary School Jan. 30.

Featured speaker at the 3:30 p.m. program will be Richard Adams, MEA assistant executive secretary for governmental relations. He will discuss various aspects of the association's legislative program for 1962.

Topics he will discuss include state school support, removal of the 21-year limitation in the definition of membership, and the extension of the distressed school district aid to $11,000 to be paid on formula rather than by the present table.

* * *

Other areas included in the talk will be school district reorganization, an appropriation of $300,000 to the public school adult education programs of the state, group life insurance for school employes, a minimum salary of $4,800 for qualified teachers, and terminal leave pay and sick leave allowance.

Willard Rogers, principal of the Berkley Elementary School and legislative chairman for Region 7, will conduct the workshop.

Retired Group to Meet

Chapter Seven of the American Association of Retired Persons will hold a potluck luncheon 11 a.m. tomorrow at the Pontiac Local 653 Hall, 386 Kennett Road. It will be followed by a white elephant sale.

Huber and Long to Vie in Troy Primary Feb. 19

TROY — Arch political rivals Mayor Robert J. Huber and civil defense director Clarence F. Long will oppose each other for the top city post in a primary election here Feb. 19.

* * *

The primary is required because five candidates filed for the two open commission seats before the 4 p.m. deadline yesterday.

Incumbent Commissioners Wallace B. Hudson and Vincent J. McAvoy, both finishing their first three-year terms, are in the race for their present posts.

Also filing for the commission seats were Robert L. Doolin of 151 Tacoma St.; Carlis R. Hanifan of 169 Ottawa St.; and James E. E. Blair of 299 Olympia St.

* * *

Huber's first three-year term is expiring in March. Both he and Long were candidates for the mayoralty in 1959.

Even Number File for Wixom Election

WIXOM — An even number of candidates filed nominating petitions before the deadline here yesterday for the mayor and three council posts, eliminating the need for a primary election in February.

Vying for the mayor's office in the April 2 general election will be Donald E. Brooks, incumbent, and Wesley McAfee, 37, of 3023 W. Maple Road.

The candidates seeking the council seats are O. F. Scheffler of 30303 Beck Road, and incumbents Mrs. Lottie Chambers, R. W. Lahti and Howard Coe.

Missionary to Speak

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP—Rev. Raymond Florence, a missionary to the Belgian Congo, will be the guest speaker Sunday in the last program of a school of missions at the Commerce Methodist Church.

The 7 p. m. talk will be preceded by mission classes at 5 p. m. and a dinner.

The Murderers — 7

Luciano Came From Prison Back to Top

By HARRY J. ANSLINGER
U. S. Commissioner of Narcotics
AND WILL OURSLER

To understand Lucky Luciano's role in crime and political maneuvers, one needs uncontaminated facts.

* * *

Some of Lucky's publicity people have tried to present him as the most misunderstood public benefactor of our times. The records, however, show that he was first arrested — for a narcotics violation — in 1918, at the age of 19. The government had him on two counts of selling the stuff, plus possession of two ounces of heroin.

Lucky admitted the heroin was his, but agreed to provide narcotics agents with information and got off with a light sentence on a minor rap; all the main narcotic charges were dropped.

Lucky continued to feed the government information about other dealers in dope. As a result, one by one his competitors were sent away. Thus unwittingly the American government helped him rise to power.

EARLY RECORD

Here is more of Lucky's early record, before his conviction as the greatest white slaver of all times: In July, 1926, he was arrested again for possession of a revolver; in December, 1926, he was arrested in New York City for felonious assault; in August, 1927, he was arrested on several counts involving violation of the Prohibition laws; in December, 1928, he was arrested for assault and robbery; in October, 1929, in New York, he was arrested on a charge of grand larceny; and in February, 1930, he was arrested in Miami for running an illegal gambling game.

At that time, Lucky's power was so great that most of the charges could be quieted before any indictment was pressed. I knew, everybody in law enforcement knew, that Lucky had virtually taken over the Mulberry Street mob which preceded the East 107th Street mob as a major factor in New York and national dope distribution. I knew also that Lucky was tied up with prostitution.

Lucky liked the ladies. He developed his personal technique of "induction"; taking the girls out — young working girls usually, waitresses, manicurists, shop girls, office workers, youngsters eager for a way out of the slavery of drab routine.

RECRUITED GIRLS

Lucky gave them plenty of excitement and love making, and wound up turning them into heroin users — "for kicks, that's all." But soon they were addicted and to pay for their heroin "ration" Lucky turned them over to his lieutenants who ran the call-girl branch of his expanding rackets.

Lucky's prostitution parade became so big that it was making him more money than the drugs he was feeding the girls — for which they had to pay out of their earnings. Testimony indicated that Lucky at one time took a cut from the daily "licks" of more than 5,000 prostitutes in cities across the country.

In 1935, racket smasher Thomas E. Dewey brought Luciano to trial on a charge of forcing women into compulsory prostitution. The trial was long and sensational.

* * *

Luciano was found guilty and given 30 to 50 years in prison. Dewey received national cheers for putting this criminal behind bars for what everyone believed would be the rest of his life.

In 1942, with the United States at war, one of my agents, moon-faced supervisor George White, received a visitor at our offices at 90 Church Street. It was August Del Gracio, the Little Augie whose arrest had started Eliopoulos on the final lap.

Augie revealed that he had come as an emissary of a man not as well known at that time as he was to become — Frank Costello.

"Frank has a deep sense of patriotism," Little Augie said.

'LONG TIME FRIENDS'

"He hates the Fascists. Know who else hates their guts? Luciano. You know he and Frank are friends for a long time."

This was the first hint White had of where Little Augie was heading. "Sure," he said, "They're old buddies."

Augie went on in a persuasive tone, "Listen, Lucky's big stuff in this city. What he says goes with the Italians, the Sicilian organizations. They do what he says. Don't you get what that means? Lucky can help America."

A former crime reporter in San Francisco, White had a newsman's directness. "What's he want, Augie?"

"As far as I'm concerned," White informed Little Augie, "Lucky can go to hell."

Some time later, wartime Navy intelligence in New York City did launch what became known as Operation Underworld, involving the use of gangsters to provide information to Navy authorities. Enlisted in the enterprise, through the help of gangland figures, was Lucky Luciano.

In January, 1946, several months after the end of World War II, Governor Dewey, acting on the recommendation of the New York State Board of Parole, commuted Luciano's sentence on condition he be deported at once to Italy.

Some time after Il Capo landed back in Italy and began establishing his new postwar syndicate, he obtained a passport and set off for Havana. The then Cuban ambassador to the United States came to see me and asked my advice. He was a babe in the woods regarding organized crime.

"What do you think the arrival of Luciano portends for our country?" he asked. "He is making a hit with Cuban society ladies here."

HAD BIG PLANS

I had received a preliminary report through a Spanish-speaking agent, and I read this to the Cuban ambassador. The report stated that Luciano had already become friendly with a number of high Cuban officials through expensive gifts.

Luciano had developed a full-fledged plan which envisioned the Caribbean as his center of operations. The Isle of Pines, south of Cuba, was to become the Monte Carlo of the Western Hemisphere. Cuba was to be made the center of all international narcotic operations.

The ambassador telephoned the president of Cuba with an urgent plea to issue an immediate deportation order for Lucky. The press played the story big. But no concrete action was taken by Cuban authorities.

I decided that our Bureau was the only American agency in a position to take direct action without causing too great an international upheaval.

"As long as Luciano remains in Cuba," I had our agent inform Cuban authorities, "America will not send one more grain of morphine or any other narcotics, for medicinal or any other needs." Since we were virtually the only supplier of medicinal narcotics to Cuba, the government was forced to capitulate.

Lucky went back to Italy and set himself up in a swank duplex apartment in Naples. Everyone came to see him; screen stars, celebrities, newsmen, gangsters, and old friends from America. Hoodlums carried narcotics to America and returned to Italy for the next consignment, on orders from Il Capo.

FULL PRODUCTION

His assembly line was in full production: opium from Turkey and the Near East was smuggled into Italy, manufactured into heroin and then shipped across the Atlantic.

Heroin shipments poured into the United States, sucking into addiction thousands of postwar adolescents. Our evidence connected him with several other rackets including smuggling cigarettes, counterfeiting money in Austria and diversion of gold.

When the secretary of the Italian delegation at the United Nations publicly described Lucky as the new boss of international gangdom, he was stating a truth for which men who participated in Lucky's release from prison can take whatever joy or guilt conscience dictates.

* * *

Closing in on Il Capo has proved a hard task for the Bureau, for the Italian police, who would like to get him out of their hair, and for Interpol, the international police force.

The loyalty or fear inspired by Luciano has been a primary fact in the difficulty of obtaining witnesses who have the courage to declare publicly what they almost nonchalantly admit in private.

Luciano is uncannily shrewd in avoiding entangling evidence. He talks to his relatives and intimates on the beach, away from the casual listener, and he avoids any open statements. He leaves no trace because there is no trace. And still we know he is the man.

Slate First Phase in Depot Shutdown

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — The first phase in the shutdown of the Rossford Ordnance Depot will be completed Feb. 1, depot officials reported Monday.

The depot was among several ordered closed last year by the Defense Department in a reorganization of ordnance operations.

Col. Harry J. Marker, Rossford commander, said 673 of the depot's 1,632 employes will be affected in the first phase of the shutdown. Many employes already have transferred to other ordnance units, Marker said.

The first phase involved the tools and equipment division, which was transferred to the Ordnance Weapons Command, Rock Island, Ill., Ordnance Tank-Automotive Command, Detroit, and the Ordnance Ammunition Command, Joliet, Ill.

Let's Not Be First to Finance U.N. Loan

This matter of a U.N. "loan" of $200 million continues to be a hot potato in Washington.

And well it may.

★ ★ ★

President Kennedy wants this country to "finance" one half of the total. The whole maneuver is glibly described under the fetching heading of "issuing bonds." Bankers nationwide would have a different version of the transaction.

"Gift" would be proper.

Whether this Nation should voluntarily take one-half of the world total is a debatable point. But this newspaper feels another question shouldn't even be up for discussion and that's this:

Let's don't be first.

Just as sure as Someone made little green apples, if we advance $100 million, the whole "financial transaction" will terminate right there. There won't be any more "bidders."

Some place, some where, somehow this Nation must cease to play the tireless role of Uncle Sucker which we've filled so gracefully for so long. There MUST be an end somewhere.

Should this be it?

English Paper's Views on Kennedy's Message

British Information Services disclose opinions over there on President KENNEDY's message.

The Times (independent) says that in his handling of economic affairs President KENNEDY continues to show both high courage and a willingness to run risks in pushing ahead with programs of economic expansion. A year ago he faced and overcame an immediate dollar crisis with little more than an infusion of confidence and a statement of his future intentions—many of which are still awaiting fruition. Now he makes it clear that neither a troublesome payments position nor the danger of the current inflationary pressures, nor even a doubting Congress, is going to prevent him from reaching his stated goals. The Times goes on:

"He is calling for further increases in defense expenditure; he wants new legislation from Congress, in the shape of a five-year tariff plan, to meet the challenge of the Common Market. He wants to reduce unemployment below four per cent before the middle of next year, and he wants an extra $1,100 million for space research. These are lofty aims. Yet the President still hopes to produce a balanced budget. Both literally and figuratively, he is reaching for the moon. Will he succeed?

★ ★ ★

The Daily Telegraph (conservative) notes that the Defense Department, the Aeronautics and Space Administration and foreign aid account for three-fifths of all budget expenditures. The paper says it is magnificent, but it eats up surpluses and leaves nothing for new social and other projects at home; it observes:

★ ★ ★

"Therein lies President Kennedy's political dilemma. His progressive supporters hope to see him as a bold and progressive President promoting measures for social welfare and stimulation of economic growth. There is little scope for the one and, since the strong business recovery, little need for the other. The only significant domestic project mentioned was the education bill—which failed to get through Congress last session and is put forward again in muted form. The President seems likely to go on earning praise for being prudent, cautious, and other things which the Democrat left wing regard as dirty words."

The Guardian (liberal) says that in spite of the staggering wealth of the United States and the high living standards of most of its citizens almost every big American city contains pockets of desperate poverty, and the KENNEDY administration has the greatest difficulty in persuading Congress to increase the amount of Federal aid to education or to enact a program of medical care for the aged; it declares:

"It is hard to resist the conclusion that the Berlin crisis and President Kennedy's defense policy came fiscally at a convenient time. A predominantly conservative Congress is willing to spend large sums of public money on defense, but extremely chary of spending them on welfare programs or of unbalancing the budget except on the plea of military necessity."

The Man About Town

Coming South

Other Michigan Wildlife Now Following the Deer

Lottery: What is too much a part of our present weather predictions.

Local sportsmen report that the wildlife of the Pontiac area, which was driven north by our growth in population now is returning. For several years this has been true of the deer.

But now it also is true of rabbits, squirrels and other small animals and birds.

The mink, muskrat and skunk, nearly depopulated here by trapping, are also coming back. But the trappers claim that this is on account of the lower prices on pelts, which makes their catching hardly profitable.

The wise and wily fox is the exception to the rule. With a bounty on his head, a pelt that's worth skinning, and an organized effort to catch him on account of his ravages on pheasants and other game life, he's getting scarcer in this area.

Proof of this fact is found that a recent fox hunt in the woods of northern Oakland County, under the auspices of the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club, in which nearly 100 good sports took part, only three fox were killed.

At the same time, over in our neighboring Washtenaw County, which is not so thickly populated, 15 hunters caught 40 fox.

The tops in goofy winter weather has been reached, according to

of Birmingham, who phones to call attention to the fact that there was too much snow for a big ski tournament in California.

Harvey Williams

has been given a leadership award by the National Sporting Goods Association for outstanding contributions to the progress and welfare of this highly specialized manufacturing industry.

One phase of the junk mail problem is found in the case of an Oakland County dog, whom a friend of the family wanted to send a kennel blanket. It was mailed to the proper address, in the name of the dog, who now is receiving all kinds of junk mail. Selling mailing lists is a big business.

Despite the fact that the woodchuck or ground hog is a hibernating animal, who lives in the hills north of Rochester, phones that he has been watching a pair that come out of their underground dwelling every day, no matter how cold it may be.

Back from a Southern trip,

Arthur Teklele

of Rochester says that at many Florida and Georgia gas stations you now can buy a quick hot lunch, prepared while your car's tank is being filled, oil checked and windshield wiped.

'Can I Interest You in a Fire Engine?'

David Lawrence Says:

Protectionism on New Frontier?

WASHINGTON — The Kennedy Administration is in for a serious controversy with the principal industries of the country—the automotive and other manufacturers engaged in foreign trade.

LAWRENCE

Many of the companies which have been the strongest supporters of the reciprocal-trade program and recently have been enthusiastically advocating the low-tariff program proposed by the administration in connection with the European Common Market now are having second thoughts.

They see difficulty in going along with the free-trade program, because, they say, the administration is sponsoring a protectionist doctrine when it tries to penalize American overseas investments.

Most significant is a speech delivered a few days ago by Henry Ford II which is typical of the way other auto manufacturers and heads of large businesses feel about the administration's course.

A total investment of $32 billion by American companies around the world is bound to be affected by the President's determination to choke off further American investment in many countries. Mr. Ford, in his New York speech, said:

"Some people seem to think you can be liberal on tariff policy and protectionist in other matters. I mention this because there has been some evidence that a new protectionism is rearing its ugly head along the New Frontier.

"This new protectionism would artificially restrict and direct the outflow of dollars by discouraging private investment abroad.

"The new protectionist says that foreign investment, particularly in industrially mature areas, means 'exporting jobs'—a phrase borrowed from protectionist union circles. Such talk gives comfort only to the enemies of liberal trade. It will be hard, I fear, to rally eager support for a program that appears to be half protectionist, half free.

"Any effort to liberalize trade presents dilemmas to the government, as well as to industries facing important competition. We now have, for example, areas of chronic unemployment, some of them in industrial areas affected by imports.

"We have rising wage costs at home and competition from increasingly efficient producers abroad.

"Further confusing the issue is the recurrent balance-of-payments problem that now and then threatens a run on our gold reserve, and a possible monetary crisis.

"In such circumstances it is natural to seek a villain, on whom to blame all the country's troubles. A politically tempting target is offered by American investments abroad.

"Blocking off capital investment—particularly in Europe—might temporarily ease the payments problem, but in the long run, it would make it worse. . . .

★ ★ ★

"I particularly question a recent legislative proposal to tax foreign income at the source. Such a move would immediately put many American investments abroad at a serious competitive disadvantage vis-a-vis other foreign investors.

REVOLUTIONARY IDEA

"It would establish a revolutionary tax principle of unpredictable consequences. It involves a far-ranging change in law to achieve a short-term result.

"It ignores the fact that, historically, America's export surpluses have been greatest where our investment is greatest, and that America's annual income from investment has regularly exceeded its outflow. . . ."

President Kennedy must have known about this speech, or at least his economic advisers should have told him about it.

But the President ignored the argument altogether and came forth with a tax proposal in his message to Congress on Monday of this week which would damage American businesses abroad and perhaps increase unemployment in this country, where many of the parts are made for American plants abroad.

Europeans are jubilant because the Kennedy administration would thus weaken their American competitors abroad. It is a dramatic example of important proposals for legislation which are not thoroughly studied in advance by the administration.

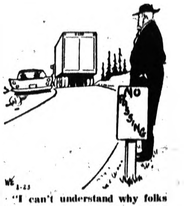
The Country Parson



"I can't understand why folks who don't want to die do so many things that will hasten their deaths."

Dr. William Brady Says:

People Who Have Vite Naturally Feel Better

People who "feel their oats" have vite — or vice versa.

★ ★ ★

Remember what I have said here several times: the addict takes a drink or several drinks because he or she "just wants to feel better." That's the drinker's way of expressing the wish to forget for an hour or two how miserable, ashamed, unhappy, unfit, morbid or inferior he or she feels.

DR. BRADY

It is a sad commentary on American life that so many Americans today consider a narcotic, alcohol, essential for sociability.

The person with vite feels just fine and dandy and doesn't want or need anything to make him forget it. One with better-than-average nutritional condition enjoys being alive more than anyone can enjoy the effects of alcohol or drug.

The relaxation, tranquility or good cheer produced by cocktail or highball is precisely the same as that of the early stage of anesthesia. You can't deny that alcohol is a narcotic.

Better than average nutritional condition not only makes total abstinence easier to practice, but it is a great help to the addict who want to quit drinking.

HAVE POOR APPETITES

Regular, steady or habitual drinkers generally gave poorer-than-average nutritional condition because they take liquor instead of food, for which they have no appetite.

For instance it is rarely indeed that a steady or heavy drinker consumes the minimum daily ration of milk that is requisite for good nutrition — 1½ pints, or three glasses.

It is universally recognized that vitamin B in large doses is indispensable in the successful treatment of acute and chronic alcoholism.

★ ★ ★

Do you approve of the use of carbolic salve or ointment as a first aid application to minor wounds or burns? If not, what do you advise for the purpose? (W.H.A.)

Answer. No, carbolic acid (phenol) is not advisable for the purpose. I advise sterile petrolatum (petroleum jelly), from a collapsible tube, not from a can, box or jar unless it is freshly sterilised by heat.

Medicaments in collapsible tubes remain sterile (germ-free) a long time after initial sterilization. Medicaments in boxes, cans or jars become infected (contaminated) the first time they are used and thereafter are not fit to apply to fresh wound or burn unless freshly sterilized before each use.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Voice of the People:

'Federal Funds' Actually 'Taxpayers' Money'

This article from The Cleveland Plain Dealer should be read by everyone:

"I recall the unsuccessful attempt to do away with the expressions 'at government expense' or 'paid for by federal funds.' The newspapers report the 'government will pay.' A politician will explain gleefully how he has saved money. 'The big expense will be taken care of by federal funds.'

"When Congress approves a gift or a loan of millions or billions the money is your money and mine.

"It is time somebody put to use the facts that there are no such things as federal funds. I suggest that the phrase 'federal funds' be changed to 'taxpayers' money.' Instead of accepting a statement that the United States government is spending $500 million for development of a river in South America, editors ought to print such items as: 'The taxpayers of the United States today sent, etc. . . .'

★ ★ ★

"Instead of telling how the federal government is paying for some new building in Catchall, Kansas, the item ought to read 'The taxpaying citizens of 50 states today chipped in $43 million so that the people in Catchall could have a new downtown development.'

★ ★ ★

"The people who come up with the scratch should get proper credit. Drumming home the point might cause more people to zipper up the national purse strings.

"Federal Funds? Nuts. That's our dough."

'Also Would Enjoy Old-Time Movies'

I also think it would be nice if theaters brought back old movies. Many would like to see them, although if we wait long enough we might be able to see them on TV.

'There's More News Than Caroline, JFK'

I love children, but am sick to see pictures of the President, Caroline, et al., in your paper every day, especially the first page. There are more interesting items in this world. This Caroline business is becoming a pain in the neck.

The Almanac

By United Press International

Today is Tuesday, Jan. 23, the 23rd day of the year with 342 to follow in 1962.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The evening star is Mercury.

On this day in history:

In 1845, Congress ruled that all national elections would be held the first Tuesday following the first Monday in the month of November.

In 1941, Charles A. Lindbergh appeared before the House Foreign Affairs Committee to testify against the proposed lend-lease bill of World War II.

In 1948, Gen. Dwight Eisenhower told politicians he would not accept any nomination for the presidency.

'State Income Tax Will Destroy Us'

"The power to tax is the power to destroy." Michigan as well as the federal government will take this road.

Michigan politicians are determined to put through a state income tax. Only 2 per cent is their sales pitch, but how about next year or the year after? Will it still be 2 per cent. Federal income tax started out as 1 per cent.

One will get you ten that the first thing they do if the income tax becomes law is to raise their own salaries.

Michigan will always be in a financial mess as long as pressure groups control the government and as long as unnecessary jobs are created to take care of the ones that help get them elected.

★ ★ ★

If you can live on 50 per cent of your salary or less, keep right on voting these demagogues into office.

Portraits

By JOHN C. METCALFE

I plan on leaving for the country . . . Where peace and quiet wait for me . . . And where my life will take on meaning . . . And where of worries I'll be free . . . And if you'll pack your things and join me . . . Before the mist of dove-gray dawn . . . I doubt that we would hear from many . . . Who really cared where we had gone . . . And we could go where there is sunshine . . . In hills and valleys down below . . . And I would fill your arms with flowers . . . That on the mellow meadows grow . . . And we can rest at crimson twilight . . . To dream upon the setting sun . . . And listen to the sparkling waters . . . That in the rivers play and run . . . And when the fields across the heaven . . . Have faded into nighttime blue . . . I'll go among the golden moonbeams . . . And pick a thousand stars for you.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Possible to Control Hand Tremor

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE L-414: Harris H., aged 58, has a rather common type of problem.

"Dr. Crane, I am a sales executive," he began. "But I am greatly embarrassed by a marked tremor of my hands.

"They will shake so obviously that it makes me look like a rank amateur afflicted with stagefright.

DR. CRANE

"Yet it isn't stagefright, for I have been selling and speaking to people for 30 years.

"I've tried to take medicine to reduce my tremor, but nothing has cured it entirely. What would you prescribe?"

NERVOUS TENSION

Many older people are troubled by a very definite tremor of the hands.

This quivering becomes intensified when they try to use their fingers, as in writing. We call it "intention" tremor, for it is greater when they intend to do something with their hands.

Paralysis Agitans is another ailment of elderly people in which they indulge in what is called "pill rolling" movements with the fingers.

But most of the hand trembling of people of all ages is simply due to excessive self-consciousness and stagefright.

And in all cases, whether medical or psychological, a great deal of relief can be obtained by diverting one's attention from self to the surrounding human beings as by analyzing the latter for merits and then paying them deserved compliments thereon.

If you are thus acting as a social detective, sizing up your companions for good points, you meanwhile forget your trembling hands to a large degree.

TREMBLING HANDS

But here are some more bits of advice to calm yourself and reduce much of your tremor.

If you are talking or singing in public, mount your speech notes or music on a stiff cardboard background.

And then pull gently in opposite directions. In fact, even if you have a single sheet of thin paper in your hands, if you will pull in opposite directions with both hands, you will find that much of the tremor instantly disappears.

★ ★ ★

If your tremor occurs primarily when you are trying to write, then alter the situation somewhat by pressing hard upon the heel of your palm. Try to put 25 lbs. pressure thereon.

Meanwhile, write with finger movements instead of the rolling forearm tehnique.

Another variation, is to flex your legs, with feet far back under your chair and try to lift part of your weight off the seat while you are writing. That will divert your attention, and thereby lessen your hand tremor.

COFFEE SPILLERS

Some people grow nervous at banquets and tremble when lifting their coffee cups to their lips. They may even spill some of the liquid.

In such cases, try grasping the handle with extra force and maintain a tight squeeze on that handle.

Or use the opposite hand, for in many cases your tremor has become habituated to just one hand. If you change hands, you fool your nuisance habit, and may be fairly calm.

As regards medical tremors like those of Paralysis Agitans, certain drugs are helpful, but don't expect a complete cure. And even then, you'll find that the above devices will help lessen the tremors.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4 cent stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Army Medicos 'Fight' in Malaya

4-Man Team Helping Wipe Out 2 Infectious Diseases With U.S. Aid

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaya (AP)—A four-man Army medical team is helping Malaya tackle the twin scourges of scrub typhus and leptospirosis.

In Malaya 10 per cent of undiagnosed fever cases had been put down to scrub typhus and 30 per cent pronounced due to leptospirosis.

In 1953 the first U. S. Army medical unit came out to work alongside Malayan scientists at the Malayan Institute of Medical Research. Today the institute has a staff of 45 Malayans employed as laboratory assistants and field workers. Their payroll is borne by the U.S. government.

Can scientists do anything to eradicate these two infectious diseases?

"There is no concept of eradication," says Col. Hinton J. Baker of Mandarin, Fla., leader of the four-man team. "We have hopes we may find the means to control them."

Smallpox in Nigeria

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP) — Thirty cases of smallpox have been reported in Onitsha, Eastern Nigeria. Thirty thousand people in the town on the banks of the Niger River have been vaccinated. Mass vaccination is also being carried out in Lagos as a preventive measure.

Gunshot Wound Fatal

THREE RIVERS (UPI) — James Harmon, 11, died in a Kalamazoo Hospital Monday of a gunshot wound inflicted while he and another boy examined a rifle.

Changes Mind About Stealing From Shanties

A conscience-stricken thief who stole about $125 worth of equipment from two fishing shanties in Waterford Township yesterday, called the township police at 12:30 a.m. today and told them where to find the loot.

Police are searching for the man who called and said the stolen property could be found beside Jacobson's Market at 3591 Watkins Lake Road.

Police found a large quantity of fishing equipment, a small heating stove and a fuel tank at the market. Attached to the tank was a note printed in large letters: "Dear Sir: These things were taken from Pontiack (sic) Lake and Loon Lake. Sighned (sic) Mr. Sorry."

Missing GI From State Reported Safe in Laos

CHEBOYGAN (AP) — Mrs. Mamie York was notified by the Army Monday that her son, Pfc. Gerald York, who had been reported missing in Laos Saturday, was safe and well.

Mrs. York said she was not given details how her son, a paratrooper, was found. He has been stationed in Laos since September.

Dondero Joins List of Injured County Judges

Judge Stanton G. Dondero has joined the list of the injured Oakland County judiciary.

First it was Judge Frederick C. Ziem who received a gash on the forehead when he walked into the side of a door.

Hawaii Developing New Chicken Feed

HONOLULU (AP)—Poultry experts at the University of Hawaii say they have developed a grainless poultry feed which is nearly all Hawaii-grown.

★ ★ ★

It consists of pineapple leaf meal, molasses, tuna, blood meals, meat, bone scraps and tallow. Vitamins and minerals—the only imported ingredients—are added.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Ernest Ross, head of the poultry science department, said, "So far the only big difference between our product and that normally imported from the mainland is a slightly smaller egg." He said tallow content caused this and can be overcome.

Man in Moon Grins and Waits

By BOB CONSIDINE

CAPE CANAVERAL—The moon looked big enough to hit with a custard pie, or close enough to reach out and touch.

"Trouble is, it's just as close to the Russians as it is to us," groaned a man from the National Aeronautical and Space Administration.

UP TO SOMETHING

"You can be sure they're up to something, right while we're trying to get our hardware in working order. We've been monitoring some of their scientific broadcasts lately and they're talking about making a 'soft' landing on the moon and also of putting a man in earth orbit for a week or 10 days."

He sighed.

"I could live with that guy in orbit, I guess," he said, "but I'd sure hate like hell to see them put something on the moon that works. They hit the moon a couple of years ago—ker-plunk. But that wasn't much. It sent back nothing.

"What we've got ready to land on the moon is fantastically ingenious and sophisticated. But getting it up there is another story."

He looked at the deceptively jovial face of the "man in the moon." It looked unnervingly like a close-up of Khrushchev.

"If we can't get going by Friday, we're dead for another full month," the young man staring at a heavenly body which kindled romance in millions but only frustration in this man of science.

TROUBLE DEVELOPS

Ranger 3, designated label for our scheduled unmanned exploration of the moon, was scheduled to begin its two-and-one-half day voyage to that body Monday of this week. But trouble developed in the sorely complicated rocketry. There is still a bare chance, as of this writing, that necessary repairs can be made before the moon shies away from earth again in the endless course of the lunar month.

The task involved is staggering. An Atlas must lift itself and its burden into orbit, all in one piece. A 20-foot tall second stage, the liquid fuel Agena, must then be ignited—by means of a beam from earth— and streak away from the dead Atlas to which it is attached.

In time the Agena must disgorge Ranger 3, a 727-pound gold and silver-plated miracle of technology. Ranger 3 must then do some things you won't believe. (We'll come to that later.)

To put itself and its free-loaders in orbit, the Atlas must attain a terminal speed of 17,500 MPH and be pointed in the right direction when it does.

IF ALL GOES WELL

If all goes well, it then becomes a kind of space platform from which the Agena will be fired. At a precise moment, 22 hours after the orbit has been established, the Agena takes off.

To burst itself and its payload out of earth orbit it must develop a speed of 24,500 MPH. Thus it changes gravitational allegiance and, at slower speeds, is magnetized by the moon.

★ ★ ★

Ranger 1 and Ranger 2 reached parking orbit but their Agenas never fired. The incredibly costly mechanisms fell back into the atmosphere and were burned to cinders. Ranger 3, well, it's raring to go—like a bride whose car develops a flat on the way to church to marry up with a groom who might change his mind if she keeps him waiting too long.

JUST A FEW JOBS

Ranger 3 will be asked to do a few jobs out there. Once free of incumbrances it must unfold a weird series of flips, flaps, wings, antennae, solar batteries and the like.

It must respond to delicate suggestions from the earth as to its course toward the moon. It must turn on its television camera as it approaches the moon and send back the pictures.

It must make a study of the lunar surface and the moon's radar reflection characteristics.

It must drop a capsule when 70,000 feet above the moon's surface, a capsule which will be braked by a built-in retrorocket at 1,100 feet above the moon, land without breaking, and radio back information on moon quakes and meteoritic impact.

Carmen Finally Stays in Last Film 'Reprieve'

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD— Carmen Phillips, a beautiful kook, is in for a surprise—her footage in the movie "Reprieve" stays in the picture.

Carmen is a girl with a natural talent as an offbeat comedienne. A cutting-room jinx has plagued her career.

* * *

In "High School Confidential," she knocked herself out in a sequence with Jerry Lee Lewis—the rock 'n' roll singer.

* * *

Next came "Bells Are Ringing" in which she had a top featured role, once more as Dean Martin's girl friend.

"On the first day of shooting," says Carmen, "I was already standing in front of the camera when someone from the front office, whispered to the director.

"I was told I was out of the picture, that I was too sexy for the part."

Her next good role was in "It Started with a Kiss" with Debbie Reynolds, This came at the time of the Debbie-Eddie-Liz triangle.

* * *

Came "Oceans 11," and once more as Martin's girl friend.

"My part ran 42 pages. Once more I was in makeup in front of the camera when I was told that because of the impending actors strike, the role was being dropped so that the picture could be finished before the deadline. This was the first time I ever cried when they paid me off."

* * *

Then came "Reprieve," where she plays convict Ben Gazzara's love-em and leave-em wife. Allied Artists assures her that she is in the finished cut—every scene.

"I'll believe it when I see the movie in a theater," says Carmen.

HE GREW HAIR

Before Erickson Treatment

A Few Months Later

Mr. T. A. Melton, Jr., of Hollidaysburg, Pa. (above) gave about 20 minutes of his time for an interview with the Erickson representative—saved and regrew his hair in only a few months with the exclusive home method.

Erickson HAIR and SCALP SPECIALISTS

World's Largest Home Treatment System

Will Be in Pontiac,
Wednesday, January 24 Only

The Erickson Hair and Scalp Specialist' District Director, Mr A. C. Erickson on his regularly scheduled visit, will be at the Waldron Hotel between 12 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. Every hair-worried person should take advantage of this great opportunity.

The Erickson method is known all over the United States. You can have a conference with the Erickson representative regarding your hair and scalp problems at no cost to you whatsoever, learn how the scalp treatments work, and the results you can expect in a short period of time

Results guaranteed by the Erickson organization. We don't ask you to take our word. You will be given a written guarantee from the beginning to end on a pro-rated basis.

HOPELESS CASES REFUSED

Erickson Specialists will accept only clients whose hair will respond to treatment. They cannot help individuals who are slick-bald or the majority of cases of baldness, and excessive hair loss, called male pattern baldness, where no treatment, including the Erickson method, is of any value. Therefore, Erickson will continue their policy of refusing all hopeless cases. The person shown above does not have male pattern baldness.

If you have dandruff, excessive hair fall, thinning hair, excessive oiliness or dryness, itchy scalp, take 20 minutes of your time to see what you can do.

Thousands have reported satisfaction from the Erickson Scalp Method. Why burden yourself with unhealthy hair and scalp? Anyway it costs you nothing to come in and learn how thousands have been helped by the years of Erickson experience plus the wonderful opportunity for help it offers. Just go to the Waldron Hotel in Pontiac on Wednesday, Jan. 24 only, between 12:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. Ask the Hotel Desk Clerk for Mr. Erickson. He will do the rest. Interviews are given in private. You will not be embarrassed in any way.

Grocery Chains to Cooperate in Clamp Down

LANSING (AP) — Representatives of Michigan's chain stores have pledged cooperation in a campaign to clamp down on short weights and false labels in food sales.

Gov. Swainson held a meeting Monday with members of the Michigan Food Industry Committee, spokesman for the major food chains.

"No industry is as controlled as we are," complained W. E. Fitzgerald, executive director of the committee, "but there is nothing you might ask us to do that we will not do."

W. A Rosie, committee chairman, said chain stores are just as anxious to get rid of a dishonest manager as the public.

Smallpox Scare Rouses Whites in South Africa

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—South Africa was hit by a big smallpox scare Monday. Hundreds of whites queued four-deep in a downtown block to be vaccinated.

Jenks, who joined the Times in 1936, was born in Saranac Lake, N.Y.

Colombian City Denies Graham Use of Stadium

BARRANQUILLA, Colombia (AP) — Billy Graham has been denied permission to hold an evangelical service in the city baseball stadium.

Mayor Ricardo Gonzalez said he withdrew permission because an advance group had been "proselytizing and propagandizing" for Graham's crusade in violation of the constitution.

Gonzalez said that only the Roman Catholic Church is allowed to propagandize in Colombia. Supporters of the American Baptist evangelist have been distributing pamphlets and posting signs, the mayor said.

German Rocca, a layman who helped arrange for the American's crusade in Colombia, said Gonzalez' action was due to "pressure of the Roman Catholic bishop of Barranquilla."

Philly Fire Misses Historic Landmarks

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A general alarm fire destroyed a five-story building housing several clothing manufacturers today but 300 firemen kept the blaze from spreading to several historic landmarks including the Betsy Ross house.

The fire broke out shortly after 1 a.m. Eight alarms were sounded as it raged in a building occupied by a number of apparel manufacturers and wholesale dress houses.

Caused Rise in 1961 Cost

City Hospital Facilities Increased

By DICK SAUNDERS

The announcement that Pontiac General Hospital's cost per patient day increased last year, may have been met with pessimism by some.

* * *

The patient-day cost was $1.57 more than in 1960, but what this bought is a story in itself.

Hospital administrators feel the $1.57 is a pretty good price to pay for well over $100,000 in additional services and care to patients.

Right now, patients have that much more service than they did a year ago.

* * *

Much of the cost of the new equipment and facilities was met by private donations, but the 65 employes added to maintain these items and nine additional interns and resident doctors are paid out of the hospital budget.

The intensive care unit got four Bird Mark-8 respirators, costing about $500 each, last year. The unit also gained a $1,600 Morch respirator.

This important respirator provides mechanical ventilation of the patient suffering from respiratory failure and is especially effective in polio cases and crushing injuries.

Another addition to this unit was an electrically operated $900 Circ-Olectric bed which turns vertically, permitting bedridden patients to do many things they otherwise would be incapable of doing, according to Mrs. Irene McNamara, public relations officer.

The hospital opened its medical-social service units in September to promote the smooth recovery of patients.

Four isolettes, at $840 each, were added to the nursery for premature infants and an obstetrics post anesthesia recovery room, with $3,000 worth of equipment, was opened last January.

2 NOTABLE ADDITIONS

Probably the most notable additions were opening of the 23-bed mental health unit in May at a cost of $20,000, and the occupational therapy unit opened in June.

* * *

The occupational therapy unit, financed by the Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation, was dedicated in September. Here, patients with disabling injuries or illnesses are helped to rehabilitate themselves.

General also added a fluoroscopic room with $27,000 worth of x-ray equipment and an image intensifier that increases brilliance of the picture but reduces radiation exposure to the patient.

* * *

In August, a $45,000 stock room and trilevel loading dock was completed at the rear of the hospital, freeing vital storage space for patient use.

The tissue laboratory counted a $5,000 Auto Analyzer for blood chemistries, a $2,000 automatic blood cell counter and an $800 Cryostat for tissue research as its additions.

There were some 34,000 more lab examinations performed than during the preceding year and nearly 1,000 more emergency cases treated.

* * *

A total of 5,314 surgical patients and their families were served 1,771 cups of coffee, tea, milk or ginger ale through the efforts of a newly created position — patient coordinator.

* * *

Last, but not least (and maybe the noisiest) are the littlest things — babies. The hospital recorded 3,182 births last year, highest in its history. There were 2,925 births in 1960.

They're Lovely, and Engaged by Coincidence

Judith Peake and Evelyn Ann Mudd met recetly for the first time in two years and learned that:

* * *

Judith was going to be married this Saturday. So was Evelyn.

Judith's wedding was to be in Our Mother of Sorrows church. So was Evelyn's.

* * *

Judith's fiance's name was Ronald Paul Schneider.

* * *

Evelyn's fiance is another Ronald Paul Schneider.

Who had they hired to take wedding and reception pictures?

Sees Industry Softening on Tax

Swainson Says Firms Recognizing Need for More State Revenue

LANSING (AP) — Spokesmen for Michigan industry seem to be becoming more receptive toward a state and corporate income tax, claims Gov. Swainson.

"I think they recognize we will have to have more revenue for state programs and some time will have to move toward a corporate and personal income tax," the governor told a press conference.

Swainson said he has been consulting on the state's revenue program with representatives of all sections of the Michigan economy, including industry and labor.

* * *

He said he talked to spokesmen for General Motors Corp., Ford Motor Co., Chrysler Corp., Wyandotte Chemical Co. and other major Michigan manufacturers.

"No single tax will solve our problems," Swainson added. "We will have to revise our tax structure and consider other taxes."

Swainson was asked if American Motors Corp., headed by George Romney as president, was among the manufacturers he contacted. Romney has been receiving growing support as a Republican candidate for governor to oppose Swainson.

* * *

Swainson said it was not, although he contacted American Motors in a similar industry survey last year. He said this was only because of time limitations.

Russian Fleet Engaged in Suspicious Operation

TOKYO (AP) — A Soviet fishing fleet is engaged in suspicious operations in the East China and Yellow seas, the newspaper Yomiuri said Monday. The fleet was reported composed of 14 radar-equipped vessels headed by a 4,000-ton mothership.

Yomiuri quoted Japanese maritime sources as speculating that the Russians, whom they have never seen fishing, may be surveying routes for submarine navigation or laying special equipment on the sea bottom to measure the intensity of underground and oceanic nuclear tests.

Sister of Mercy Dies in Hospital

Was Administrator at St. Joseph Pontiac From 1930 to 1932

Solemn Requiem Mass will be sung for Mother Carmelita, administrator at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital from 1930 to 1932 at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday in St. Scholastica Church, Outer Drive and Southfield, Detroit. Her body will lie in state in the Sisters of Mercy Provincialate at Mercy College, 8200 W. Outer Drive until Wednesday morning.

* * *

Burial will be in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Born Mary Manning in Lansing, Ia., Mother Carmelita, 73, entered the Convent of the Sisters of Mercy in Dubuque, Ia., in 1909. She took her perpetual vows there on Sept. 24, 1911.

Her first assignment was in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor where she was made administrator there in 1927.

Before coming to Pontiac she was elected assistant to the Reverend Mother of the Sisters of Mercy in Dubuque serving three years.

* * *

Parents Demand Desegregation of Detroit Schools

DETROIT (AP) — A group of parents asked U.S. District Court Monday to require the Detroit Board of Education to present the court a plan for the complete desegregation and integration of the city's public school system.

They charged that the board "has maintained and still maintains a racially segregated school system.'

They sought a court order to prevent the school board from transferring 145 pupils, most of whom are Negro, from the Sherrill School to the Clippert School, 1½ miles away.

* * *

The group suing the school board was organized as the Sherrill School Parents Committee.

* * *

The suit charged that the school board has maintained segregated schools since 1910 "in violation of the constitution and the laws of the United States.'

Bandit Clubs Merchant, Wife Jumps Into Fray

An elderly market owner was pistol-whipped by a masked bandit who fled the store at 750 S. Saginaw St. last night after being surprised by the victim's wife.

* * *

Peter J. Metropoulis, 70-year-old proprietor of the Woodward Market, said a man wearing a cloth and silk stocking mask burst into his store at about 9:15 p.m.

Metropoulis told police the man beat him four times about the head and shoulders with a nickel-plated, snub-nosed pistol. The owner fell to the floor, but then got up and raced to his living quarters in the rear for his gun.

* * *

Metropoulis' wife, Dorothy, 65, hearing the commotion, ran to the front of the store and confronted the would-be thief who told her: "I'll shoot you."

* * *

Mrs. Metropoulis grabbed for the gun. The bandit slapped her across the face with his free hand and fled without taking anything. Metropoulis and his wife were not seriously injured.

* * *

White Lake Twp. Man Injured in Accident

A White Lake Township man, injured when his car struck a tree after colliding with another auto in West Bloomfield Township last night, is in fair condition today at Pontiac General Hospital.

* * *

Donald J. Stephens, 38, 9096 Maplewood St., suffered face cuts and a fractured leg in the accident at Cooley Lake Road and Weymouth Street at 9:47 p.m.

* * *

* * *

Stephens told deputies Brown gave no signal that he was going to turn. Stephens said he was attempting to pass Brown's car when the accident occurred.

Artificial Respiration Brings Dog to Life

CUTLER, Maine (AP) — As a Coast Guardman, Chief Boatswain's Mate Ken Ashby knows how to apply artificial respiration on human beings.

He had never tried it on a dog, but he thought it was worth a try when his pet Labrador retriever fell into the water and apparently drowned.

Ashby placed the dog's body on an oil barrel and gently rolled the barrel back and forth. The dog was fully revived in an hour.

MICHIGAN IS THE FUTURE

Michigan is synonymous with progress. It has a brilliant record of accomplishments.

With skilled labor, management know-how, natural resources, brainpower and transportation, Michigan has established itself as a world leader in industry. Its achievements have brought to the entire world a better standard of living.

But the past serves only as a prelude to the future. Through research and ability to produce will come new Michigan-made products almost beyond our present understanding. Michigan will lead the way in progress of the future, as it has done in the past.

With great research centers at our universities and in our industries, together with our other advantages, Michigan is a good place for industry. It is a good place to locate an industry and it is a good place for our present industry to expand.

Michigan is the future.

Help carry Michigan's message to the nation. Clip this ad and mail it to someone in another state with your comment. Let's talk up Michigan and its advantages for industry. Together we can assure a greater future for all of us.

MICHIGAN IS EVERYTHING FOR INDUSTRY

New Trend: Hide Knee in Fashions

Balmain Show in Paris Takes Hem Down for Spring

PARIS (UPI) — Not as much as a kneecap showed when experts here viewed some 80 new spring outfits presented today by Pierre Balmain at the beginning of the second day of the Paris spring fashion showings.

Like Pierre Cardin Monday, Balmain believes that women should look ladylike by covering their knees for spring and slightly dropping the hemlines.

Balmain presented the "pyramid look," outlined by a high and narrow silhouette tapering from the cone-shaped skirt to the narrow shoulders and high, brimless hat.

He proposed to dress women in pleated, flaring skirts, flower-printed blouses and silk dresses with polka-dots — all with hemlines well covering the knees.

Balmain said he liked "violent colors," including "brutal red," "hard green" and acid yellow and orange tones.

One red spring suit had a flared pleated skirt, cardigan jacket and was worn with a white pique blouse and a white hat and a rolled brim.

For trips, Balmain this time advised either a white broadtail coat or a trenchcoat made of white ermine. The white crepe dresses, shown with these coats, gave a spring touch to the de luxe outfits.

Like most of the rest of this year's models so far, Balmain's day dresses and suit skirts were shown with fabric belts for a slim waist effect.

Also important from a style point of view was the fact that the silk blouses worn with the new spring suits were shown tucked into the skirt belt rather than worn over-blouse fashion.

Balmain's new cocktail and party dresses were mostly made of silk - chiffon with prints of pastel or violently colored flower patterns.

* * *

Through the unlined chiffon coat one could see the slim styled chiffon dresses which made an airy and flowing effect.

Balmain showed a new jewel pin style smart looking on suits as well as party clothes. It is a large gold sun-flower centered with diamond seeds and worn in Paris on the shoulder or the hat.

Yolanda Bishop Initiated Into Bethel 40 Unit

Yolanda Bishop, daughter of Mrs. Gladys Bishop, St. Joseph Street, was initiated by Bethel 40, International Order of Job's Daughters, at Monday's meeting in the State Street Masonic Temple.

Guests introduced were Mrs. Richard McGee and Nancy Newcomb, past honored queens; Mrs. Lester Oles, grand chaplain of the Grand Council of Michigan; Raymond Boutright, past master of Brotherhood Masonic Lodge No. 561; and Harry Eaton, past patron of Areme Chapter No. 503, Order of the Eastern Star.

* * *

Mrs. Francis Thompson, guardian, and M. B. Holmes, associate guardian, closed the meeting. Sandra Trietsch, honored Queen, was presiding officer.

VFW Auxiliary Seeks Members

A large-scale membership drive is being conducted by the Waterford Township David Belisle Auxiliary to Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4102, reports membership chairman, Mrs. Alphonse Garneau.

VFW programs are offered in youth activities, community service, hospital work and Americanism, she points out.

Women eligible to join the Ladies Auxiliary include mothers, sisters, wives, daughters and widows of deceased or honorably discharged men who have served on foreign soil in wartime.

Sisterhood Unit Meets; Lives of Founders Told

As program chairman of the day, Mrs. J. W. Kensey gave highlights in the lives of the seven founders of PEO. This month PEO is observing its 93rd anniversary. The organization began first as a college sorority on the campus of Iowa Wesleyan College. Today PEO is an international organization with 3900 chapters and a membership of over 142,000.

* * *

The three main projects of PEO are an Educational Loan Fund; Cottey College, Nevada, Mo., a women's junior college owned by the sisterhood; and the International Peace Scholarship, a fund which assists young women from foreign countries who want to do graduate work in the United States.

* * *

The program closed with a musical tribute to the founders, sung by Mrs. V. L. Lindquist and Mrs. G. H. Putnam, accompanied by Mrs. W. H. Sink.

Connie Cheek Marries Charles B. Lind Jr.

* * *

The former Connie Jean Cheek of Auburn, Ind. is the daughter of the Eugene Cheeks of Seyburn Avenue, Waterford Township, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lind of New Carlisle.

* * *

ATTENDED BRIDE

Abby Reminds a Young Lady:

He May Look Like an Owl, but at Least He's Not Flying

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I like a boy who is tall, dark and handsome. But he doesn't even know I'm alive. I am 14 and he is 17. He has a brother my age who is short, has freckles and wears glasses, and he likes me a lot. Both these boys are very nice but I sure would like to get the older one. Do you have any ideas?

ABBY

FUSSY

DEAR FUSSY: A bird—even a freckled one with glasses—in the hand is better than one in the bush.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I don't agree with you that a hairdresser's "tips" are her bread and butter. Generally speaking, a hairdresser receives a salary, plus a commission. When an employer expects the public to pay his help, he is putting that much more into his own pocket. It used to be that a customer got a calendar for Christmas from the dairy. Now the milkman expects a present! Good night!

MADISON

DEAR ABBY: The people I have reference to read your column. Both are professionals in the same line of work. The man is a devoted husband and father and is respected in town. The woman is younger, married and attractive, and there has been some talk about her. This woman falls all over this man in public, calling him "honey" and "darling." She also stands very close to him and manages to touch him all the time. She tries to give the impression that there is something between them. The man is too naive to realize what she is trying to do.

It would be too bad to have this man's home broken up through scandal. I am sure he isn't aware that this woman is hurting him by her actions. Who should tell this innocent man that people are noticing and talking?

A FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND: A man would have to be extremely naive not to be aware of a woman "falling all over him" in the manner you describe. I would say the man is either cooperating or you are exaggerating. In any case, let the "innocent" man look out for himself.

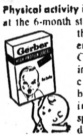
Bringing Up Baby.

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

Six months sees a lot of exciting changes in a baby. Hand skills begin to come to the fore. Achievements in sitting, moving and cooing appear by the score. Gentle encouragement on your part now, will help speed baby's progress by providing incentive. Point to remember: try not to urge baby beyond his capabilities.

Physical activity increases rapidly at the 6-month stage and so does the need for energy. Gerber Baby Cereals are rich in energy-giving calories, plus blood-building iron. (6 tablespoons give your darling more than 100% of the Recommended Daily Dietary Allowance for iron.) In addition, Gerber Cereals are enriched with important B-vitamins and calcium.



As for eating enjoyment Gerber Cereals have bland but distinctive flavors and a dreamy, creamy texture when mixed with formula or milk. For you: they stir to smooth perfection in seconds. Your choice of Rice Cereal, Barley, Oatmeal, Mixed Cereal and High Protein Cereal.

As baby gets older his day to day appetite may wane a bit. This appetite lag may be caused by too much excitement, teething or just plain lack of hunger. Favorite foods are in order now and plenty of variety in color and kinds of food. Babies do respond to a change of taste from meal to meal.

Appetites usually rise 'n shine when you spark baby's menus with Gerber Baby Foods. Over 100 strained and junior varieties so you can pick and choose to your heart's content and baby's continued delight. Among the Gerber delectables: the new Ham High Meat Dinner, Garden Vegetables, Chicken, Applesauce and Apricots. Gerber Baby Foods, Fremont, Michigan.

Chiefs Battle Second Place Saginaw Friday

PCH Gains One Point Edge in Class A Vote; Imlay Drops Notch

By The Associated Press

The two unbeaten powers, separated by a solitary point in the judgment of the AP's panel of Michigan sports writers and sportscasters, have a head-on test of strength Friday night at Saginaw.

Saginaw (6-0) was idle all last week while Pontiac Central (8-0) posted an easy victory over Bay City Handy. That was enough for the pollsters to have the two leaders trade positions. Just six points behind Saginaw is third-ranked Detroit Northwestern (7-0).

The Class C rankings also underwent a juggling at the top this week while the Class B and Class D leaders remained entrenched. Perry (10-0) took over first place in Class C shoving Imlay City (10-0) down to second.

* * *

River Rouge (10-0) retained its commanding lead in Class B. Northville advanced in Class B from sixth to fifth.

The only other major change in the four classes was Pickford's climb of two positions to second in Class D behind Champion (10-0). Suttons Bay, last week's runner up to Champion, fell to third despite a victory in its only outing. But only six poll points separate Pickford (10-1) and Suttons Bay (12-1).

This week's poll results on the basis of 10 points for a first-place vote, 9 for a second, etc. on down to 1 for a 10th-place vote:

MSU Downs Gophers, 84-79

By the Associated Press

A sophomore-studded Michigan State basketball team outhustled Minnesota, 84-79, last night to gain its second straight Big Ten triumph of the season.

The Gophers, who now have lost their last three conference games, made a valiant attempt to overtake the Spartans in the second half after State led by 17 point at the intermission, 45-28.

* * *

MSU set the stage for its win early in the game on the play of sophomores Fred Thomann, Pete Gent and Bill Berry. Thomann, 6-9 center, starting in his second game, finished the contest with 16.

Gent, the team's leading scorer, tallied 13 points before bowing out on fouls in the second half.

Minnesota lost three of its key players in the crucial second half to deflate its comeback.

* * *

The shooting and rebounding skills of Ohio State's Jerry Lucas have been taken for granted but there's always been a tendency to underestimate his defensive ability.

The Buckeyes' 6-foot-8 tower of talent displayed his guarding prowess last night by holding Terry Dischinger of Purdue, the Big Ten's top scorer for the past two seasons, to nine points in a duel of all-Americas.

Ohio State, the nation's top-ranked college basketball team, easily disposed of the Oilermakers 91-65 for its 14th straight victory this season. The Buckeyes' triumph also was their 29th in a row at home, their last setback in Columbus being inflicted by Purdue in 1959.

Lucas completely dominated the 6-foot-7 Dischinger, who had held the upper hand in their two previous meetings. Lucas tallied 32 points and snared 25 rebounds, much to the delight of 13,497 partisan rooters.

Dischinger, entering the game as the Big Ten's leading scorer, played with an injured finger on his shooting hand. Terry jammed the little finger of his right hand in practice Saturday and the injury apparently hindered his shooting touch.

Action was light on the basketball front last night with most of the schools busy with examinations. In other games involving major teams, Maryland edged Miami (Fla.) 71-68, and Stanford turned back Washington State 67-51.

LEAVES U. OF D.—Jim Miller announced Monday he will resign after three successful years at University of Detroit to take a similar post at Boston College. His first opponent there next fall will be the Titans.

Expect Idzik to Be Picked Titan Mentor

DETROIT (AP)—John Idzik is expected to be named Jim Miller's replacement as the University of Detroit's football coach in a few days.

Danny Boisture, an assistant at Michigan State, is the only other coach whose name has cropped up into the Detroit speculation. But Boisture received a raise from the Spartans just last week.

'Victim' Boston College Takes Miller From U-D

NEWTON, Mass. (AP) — Jim Miller, whose Detroit team has defeated Boston College two years in a row, has been signed as head football coach by his recent victim.

Boston College athletic director Bill Flynn announced Monday night that Miller had been signed to a three-year contract for an unspecified salary.

Miller's first opponent next fall? Detroit.

Miller succeeds Ernie Hefferle, who has returned to his previous job as a Pittsburgh assistant.

* * *

"I was very impressed by their program and by the over-all potential of Boston College," Miller said in Detroit. "This includes the people associated with the program and the athletes that their program attracts."

A former Purdue captain, Miller was a football assistant and head track mentor at Wabash College in 1947. Two years later he moved to Niagara. When Niagara dropped the sport, he assisted at Buffalo, then Purdue. As a defensive specialist, Miller was a major factor behind Purdue's No. 2 ranking in Big Ten total defense in 1956 and second national ranking in 1958.

Outstanding Trainer

Howe Closer to Bathgate

MONTREAL (AP) — Gordie Howe of the Detroit Red Wings, a five-time winner of the National Hockey League scoring championship, has projected himself right into the thick of the 1961-62 race.

* * *

Howe has cut the lead of Andy Bathgate of the New York Rangers to eight points, league statistics showed today. Bathgate picked up his 18th goal and 41st assist during the week for 59 points.

* * *

The Red Wings' winger scored two goals and collected three assists for 51 points. This boosted Howe's NHL all-time regular season point total to 1,100.

Bathgate and Howe each has 27 more games remaining.

The Wake County Grand Jury returned a true bill Monday charging Frank (Lefty) Rosenthal of Miami and Chicago, with offering to bribe a player to shave points.

* * *

Charged along with Rosenthal was David Budin, 28-year-old New Yorker who already is under indictment here on charges of conspiring to bribe North Carolina State College players.

Each of the two was charged with two counts of conspiracy to offer to bribe and two counts of bribery.

Buckeyes Get All Votes

By The Associated Press

Unbeaten Ohio State unanimously maintained its lofty position as collegiate basketball's No. 1 major team today in the weekly Associated Press poll.

The mighty Buckeyes (13-0) received all 42 first-place votes in the balloting of the panel of sports writers and sportscasters from 420 points on the basis of 10 for coast-to-coast. Ohio State collected first place, 9 for second, etc. The voting is based on games through last Saturday.

There was very little shuffling in the rest on the top ten teams. This week's listings showed the same top ten teams as those of a week ago with just two switching places.

Southern California advanced from sixth to fifth even though the Trojans were idle last week. Duquesne dropped a notch from fifth to sixth after its loss to Cincinnati. The Dukes, however, did beat Toledo 80-57 and St. Vincent Pa., 85-33.

The top ten teams based on a 10-9-8-etc vote count with first place votes and records through Jan. 20, in parentheses:

1. Ohio State (42) (13-0)	420
2. Kentucky (13-1)	366
3. Cincinnati (13-2)	333
4. Kansas State (13-2)	268

Jensen Retirement Confirmed by Sox

BOSTON (AP)—Jackie Jensen has retired for the third and last time as far as the Boston Red Sox are concerned.

"Jackie is all through," club vice president Dick O'Connell said Monday night. "He's going into business out near his home."

Just in case the unpredictable outfielder has a last-minute but not probable change of heart, O'Connell added: "We still have a value interest in him."

Thus ends the major league career of the former University of California football star who specialized in driving across runs but wound up unhappily. Jensen's last baseball days were punctuated by consultations with a hypnotist who helped him battle his fear of flying and dissatisfaction with a life which kept him away from home.

Pistons Easy for Royals

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The red hot Cincinnati Royals strengthened their grasp on second place in the Western Division of the National Basketball Association with a 115-106 victory over the Detroit Pistons at the University of Dayton field house last night.

The Royals rolled to their eighth victory in their last nine games.

The Pistons, third in the division, will get back into action on their home court Wednesday night when they take on Syracuse, which is third in the Eastern Division.

Campbell Loses on First Hole of Extra Play

Vet Ends Dominance of Winter Tournaments by Young Pros

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Veteran Doug Ford checked the rush of golf's youth brigade as he captured the $50,000 Bing Crosby Golf Tournament title in a sudden death playoff after whipping miserable cold weather en route to his crown.

The 39-year-old former Masters and PGA champion from Vernon Hills, N.Y., went 71 holes before he finally caught 26-year-old former collegiate champion Joe Campbell Monday in the snow-delayed finals.

They finished the 72 holes all even at 286 and went on to the first extra hole. If Campbell won, it would continue the youth dominance for 1962 that started when Phil Rodgers won the Los Angeles Open and Tommy Jacobs followed with a triumph at San Diego.

Neither Ford nor Campbell hit the green on the 385-yard, par four hole. The ex-Purdue athlete from Pendleton, Ind., who has led from the opening day, was in the fringe at the front edge of the green. He tried a putter, and left his ball six feet from the cup.

* * *

Ford's second shot hit a grassy embankment, bounced off a woman spectator's leg and into a trap. He calmly wedged out of the trap within five feet of the hole. Campbell missed his putt and Doug tapped a perfection downhill stroke with a four-inch break. When it dropped, Ford had $5,300. He had opened the year's campaign with two shutouts at the payoff window. The one putt meant a difference of $1,900 between first and second this time.

"I was doing so poorly that I didn't think it paid me to come out here," he said. "I didn't make the cut in Los Angeles and didn't make a dime in San Diego." Now he heads northward for Thursday's opening round in the $50,000 San Francisco International.

In addition to his first prize as low pro, Ford collected $1,000 for a fourth place finish with partner Dudley Wysong of McKinney Texas in the pro-amateur. Wysong went to the finals in the 1961 National Amateur before losing to Jack Nicklaus over this same Pebble Beach course.

Nicklaus, now a pro, won money for his third straight tourney, collecting $450 for a 76—296.

Rodgers finished third with a 288, two strokes off the pace. Both he and Ford carded two-over-par 74s while Campbell had a 76 and, after the playoff, a check for $3,400.

Greer Among Best Scorers

NEW YORK (AP) — While Wilt Chamberlain continues to make a runaway of the National Basketball Association scoring race, the top 10 had a new face today.

Official statistics showed that Hal Greer of the Syracuse Nationals jumped into 10th place, pushing out Wayne Embry of Cincinnati. Greer passed the 1,000 mark for the season last week and now has 1,063 points.

* * *

Chamberlain, meanwhile, is widening his margin with every game. A week ago, his lead over second place Elgin Baylor of Los Angeles was 663 points.

* * *

This week, Chamberlain has 2,541 points to his credit to Baylor's 1,603, a bulge of 938 points. Baylor is in the Army and probably will drop out of the top 10 unless he is given permission to play some more during the season.

Tigers Slated to Open Play at Washington

BOSTON (AP)—The American League has an unusually early 1962 opener, April 9, at Washington's new baseball stadium.

Grades Bench Badger

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Ron Jackson, the University of Wisconsin basketball team's top scorer, will be ineligible to play in the second semester, athletic director Ivan B. Williamson said Monday.

The 6-foot-4 Jackson scored 248 points, averaging 22.6 points per game, as the Badgers got off to one of their best starts in years, posting eight victories in 11 games.

HULL, Que. Bob Cleroux, 207, Montreal, knocked out Cecil Gray, 190½, Halifax, 3 (for Canadian heavyweight championship).

Dream Comes True for Yanks' Maris

* * *

Selected as the pro athlete of 1961 by a huge margin, the crew-cut Yankee slugger received the diamond-studded gold buckled belt that goes with the honor at the annual Rochester Press and Radio Clubs charity dinner Monday night.

A year ago, the suddenly arrived Yankee star saw golf champion Arnold Palmer receive the valuable eye-popping trophy.

"I had a good look at it and thought I'd sure like to win it," said Maris. "But I thought then I'd only have a faint hope of ever winning it myself."

* * *

Maris hit 39 homers (one behind teammate Mickey Mantle, the American League champion), drove in 112 runs for the AL title, hit .283 and was named the league's most valuable player in 1960.

"I only hope I can do as well for 1961," he said then.

Little did he realize the sensation he was going to create for most of the 1961 season with his record-busting 61 homers. He also won the RBI title again with 142 and the AL MVP award for the second straight year.

* * *

So what's ahead? Will he break his record of 61 homers?

"I don't believe in miracles," replied Maris. "I'm just hoping for another good year. Everything went right for me last year and I was lucky. You have to avoid injury like I did and play 161 (of 162) games. I had only one injury (a pulled muscle), but was able to play with it."

He said he hoped to settle on his 1962 contract before then with general manager Roy Hamey.

In their first meeting recently, it was believed Hamey offered Roger about $55,000 — approximately a $20,000 raise. Maris won't talk figures but the grapevine has him asking for $70,000.

The 27-year-old Maris is the fifth Yankee and the sixth baseball player to win the Hickok award in its 12-year history.

* * *

Maris received 85 first-place votes from a national panel of 135 sports writers and sportscasters and a total of 304 points, figured on a 3-2-1 basis.

Runner-up Paul Hornung, the great back of the champion Green Bay Packers of the National Football League, collected 13 first-place votes and 141 points. Maris' teammate, pitcher Whitey Ford, was third with 14 and 108 points.

* * *

Steve Sebo Accepts Virginia Position

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP)—Steve Sebo, an unembittered graduate of football's school of hard knocks, will fall heir in June to "the kind of job I've always wanted"—the post of athletic director at the University of Virginia.

* * *

Sebo resigned Monday as general manager of the New York Titans of the American Football League to accept appointment to the athletic directorship as successor to Gus K. Tebell, who retires in June.

* * *

He said he didn't quit the Titan job because of any disagreement with Wismer. On the contrary, he said, "I like Harry."

Harvey Honored by NHL

MONTREAL (AP)—Doug Harvey, player-coach of the New York Rangers, was named the National Hockey League's most valuable player and the outstanding defenseman for the first half of the 1961-62 season today.

* * *

The 37-year-old veteran led by a narrow margin over Jacques Plante, Montreal Canadiens' goalie, in the voting for the Hart Trophy, awarded the MVP. Harvey polled 53 points and Plante 40. Gordie Howe of the Detroit Red Wings was third with 23.

Harvey was an overwhelming selection for the halfway leader for the Norris Trophy, given to the outstanding defenseman. He collected 83 out of a possibly 90 points. Allan Stanley of Toronto and Jean Guy Talbot of Montreal tied for second with 13 points each.

Bobby Rousseau of the Canadiens edged Boston's Cliff Pennington in the balloting for the rookie-of-the-year award. Rousseau had 53 points and Pennington 51. Pat Stapleton, Boston, defenseman, was third with 32.

* * *

Three Top Contenders in Class A Victorious; 300 Whips Waterford

Colonial Lumber upset the cops 49-47 to gain a tie for the National League lead. John Devine and Glenn Powell led the way with 11 points each. Hal Kunkle swished 13 in defeat.

CIO 596 and Clarkston both won to remain tied for third in Class A just one game out of second. CIO blasted Newingham 72-52, paced by Tom Dabbs' 20 points. Jim McDonald hit the same total for the losers. Bob Yahne topped a balanced Clarkston attack with 16 in a 74-60 win over Southwest Trojans. Al Manley tallied 16 for the Trojans. Jerry Williams got 22 pacing Newman over Buckner 86-68.

In an exhibition, 300 whipped the Waterford All Stars 85-56. Rod Treais led the way with 17.

Champ's Impersonator Learned Lessons Well

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—Tom McNeeley, who last month was soundly trounced by heavyweight king Floyd Patterson, Monday night lost a split decision to the man who impersonated the champion in his pre-title fight training.

Headquarters Planned at Sea

Defense Dept. to Add Command Posts as N-Attack Safeguard

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department plans to add several seagoing command posts to its system of alternate military headqurters for use if nucler attack wipes out the Pentagon.

Several alternate headquarters have been set up. They include the underground "Little Pentagon" in the mountains on the Maryland-Pennsylvania border and the Navy cruiser-command ship Northampton.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara asked funds in the new military budget to convert at least two mothballed light carriers. He says that for the next few years "we have tentatively programmed the construction of one new command ship in each year."

The addition of sea-roaming alternate headquarters is a part of the new emphasis on the system of command and control of forces in time of attack.

UNDER CONTROL

Testifying before a Senate committee last week, McNamara said that "achievement of our over-all national security objectives requires that our strategic retaliatory forces be kept continually under the control of constituted authorities, from the President on down to the commanders of these forces—before, during and after a nuclear attack.

The command and control system involves the constant linkage by radio and other communication systems of bomber and missile forces, Navy ships and troops with operational and top administrative headquarters.

Counterfeiting Ring Smashed Out West

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The Secret Service has smashed a West Coast counterfeiting ring with the arrest of four men and the seizure of nearly a half million dollars in phony $20 bills — apparently manufactured in the offices of a fallout shelter sales firm.

The arrests were announced in Washington, D. C., Monday by deputy Secret Service Chief Paul J. Paterni. He said agents seized $477,800 of the fake bills, including approximately $200,000 in Reno, Nev., and $224,000 in Oakland, Calif.

Hails Kennedy for Record on Separation Issue

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A leading Protestant magazine said Monday that President Kennedy "has compiled a better record on the issue of separation of church and state than any other president we have had in the past 30 years."

The praise for the country's first Roman Catholic President came in an editorial in the Christian Century, an influential interdenominational magazine.

America said Kennedy had "bent over backwards" to please Protestants by avoiding public contacts with leading Catholics.

Ex-Governor Is Dead

KENNEBEC, S.D. (AP)—Merrell Quentin Sharpe, 74, Republican governor of South Dakota from 1942-1946, died Monday. Sharpe, who had served as attorney general in the early 1930s, was born in Maryville, Kan.

Drop Bias Charges Against Warden

DETROIT (AP) — Charges that Jackson Prison Warden William H. Bannan deprived four convicts of the Koran and Muslim prayer books were dismissed Monday in U.S. District Court.

★ ★ ★

Bannan agreed to let the prisoners receive religious books through the mail. In turn, the inmates agreed that they were not being discriminated against when Bannan censored their mail, as he does the mail of all inmates.

★ ★ ★

Arrow Pierces Zoo Elk; Reward Out for Arrest

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — The Rochester Humane Society has offered a $200 reward for information leading to arrest of the person who shot a steel-tipped arrow into Duke, a 400-pound elk, at the Seneca Park Zoo.

★ ★ ★

The arrow was found Saturday embedded 7 inches in Duke's shoulder. Veterinarians removed the arrow and are hopeful of saving Duke from permanent disability.

Investigators said they found two more arrows in Duke's yard, indicating other shots had missed.

Experts Bullish for Long Term

Gainers Clipped by Profit Deals

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market went through another typical 1962 performance with prices losing ground on balance early this afternoon in moderate trading.

To Wall Streeters it was just "more of the same" as some of the big gainers of the past year or so were clipped by long-term profit taking.

Even the aerospace issues, which received some stimulus last week from Washington plans for increased spending, edged downward. The general run of losses was moderate and the decline was resisted by a scattering of issues here and there. A selection of stocks, however, took fairly sharp losses.

* * *

Most market experts continued to express bullish opinions for the longer term but saw the current market in a corrective movement possibly forming a base for an attempt to clear upside resistance levels.

In the category of long-term profit taking, brokers said, were Crown Cork, down about 5, Ford, off more than 2 and Polaroid, down more than 2.

* * *

Even the news that International Business Machines had upped its dividend to 75 cents from 60 cents was only a temporary stimulus to this stock which has had a sharp decline from its high in 1962 trading. IBM recovered from a loss as the news came, showed a fractional gain for a few minutes, then slumped to a net loss of 5 points.

Prices were irregularly higher in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange. Great Basins Petroleum recovered fractionally from yesterday's loss in in active trading. Mead Johnson picked up about 3. Gainers included Occidental Petroleum, Stanrock Uranium, Pacific Petroleum, Aurora Plastics and South Penn Oil.

Corporate Bonds Higher

NEW YORK (AP) — Corporate bonds opened higher today. U. S. treasuries were unchanged and quiet.

In dealings on the New York Stock Exchange, corporates gained fractionally in all sections, with utilities and industrials showing the broadest strength. Investment grade issues were generally higher.

Far and way the best gainer among the regular bonds in early activity was a 2-point pickup by Oklahoma Gas and Electric 3⅞s of 1988 to sell at 91.

* * *

Other corporate gainers included Baltimore and Ohio 4¼s of 1955 by ⅜ at 67⅝; Gulf, Mobile & Ohio 5s of 2056 by ½ at 68, General Motors Acceptance 4⅝s of 1982 by ½ at 101, Standard Oil of New Jersey 2¾s of 1974 by ¾ at 85½, AT&T 5s of 1983 by ⅝ at 101 and Wisconsin Public Service 3¼s of 1971 by ½ at 89.

Chairman Quits American Mart

Reilly and Three Others Resign Troubled Board; Reformer 'In'

NEW YORK (AP) — Chairman Joseph F. Reilly and three other top officers of the troubled American Stock Exchange have resigned.

Their action Monday virtually erased the higher element of an administration that has been under fire from the Securities and Exchange Commission and some exchange members.

* * *

Quitting with Reilly, who also was acting as president pro tem, were Vice Chairman Charles J. Bocklet, James R. Dyer, a member of the Board of Governors and chairman of the Committee on Finance, and John J. Mann, a governor and chairman of the Committee on Floor Transactions.

The SEC had accused the four of dominating the administration of the nation's No. 2 securities market for the last 10 years.

This statement was part of an SEC report in which it said the exchange had allowed 'manifold and prolonged abuses'' of trading rules.

MEMBER 31 YEARS

Reilly, 54, had been serving as president pro tem since the resignation last Dec. 11 of Edward T. McCormick as president. He has been an exchange member 31 years, a governor since 1951 and was completing his second term as chairman.

Reilly and the three other officers made no comment about their resignations.

Immediately upon accepting the resignations, the Board of Governors named Edwin Posner, a partner in the New York City brokerage and specialist firm, Andrews, Posner and Rothschild, as president pro tem.

Posner, 71, a former chairman, is a leader in a reform movement within the exchange.

Attempts to Settle S-P Strike Stalled

SOUTH BEND (UPI)—Efforts to settle the three-weeks-old Studebaker-Packard strike of 6,500 workers stalled Tuesday despite marathon talks.

David Tanzman of Detroit, a member of the special panel appointed by the federal government to mediate the dispute, said he could make no comment on the talks, which were aimed at arriving at a basis for a new contract between the auto firm and the United Auto Workers.

Liquidation Pressure Slows in Grain Mart

CHICAGO (AP)—The recent steady pressure of liquidation in the grain futures market appeared to have slowed somewhat today in initial transactions on the board of trade. Prices during the first several minutes included a few small gains.

Silver Speculators Selling Hoard

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK — Silver speculators have unloaded some of their hoard after a price rise that carried it from 91½ cents an ounce Nov. 28 to a high of $1.04¾ Dec. 15. So the price has dropped here and in London — to around $1 an ounce in Britain Monday.

* * *

SET CEILING

The speculative rise in the price of silver was set off by the President's order Nov. 28 halting the Treasury's sale of silver, which had effectively set a price ceiling of 91⅛ cents an ounce.

* * *

Under the Silver Purchase Act of 1934 the Treasury still offers to buy newly mined silver at 90½ cents an ounce. But who wants to sell to it when the free market price is so much higher?

STOPPED SELLING

The Treasury stopped selling as the first step in the President's plan to demonetize silver, except as coins. But it already was in a bind. The supply it had for sale in excess of the amount it was legally required to keep as backing for paper money was fast disappearing.

* * *

The price of silver rose sharply — about 9 cents an ounce the first day —partly because of a strong demand for industrial uses. But silver users say the rise then and since was due even more to so much being held off the market by speculators expecting the Treasury to use up its supply at the rate its sales had been increasing. They held that growing industrial demand had made the Treasury price artificially low.

USE INCREASED

Industrial and commercial use had increased not only for more household and jewelry items, but also for expanded use in electronics, in missiles, in silver-printed circuits supplanting electric wiring.

Handy & Harman, refiner and fabricator of precious metals, puts total world consumption of silver in 1961 at 430.7 million ounces. This is broken down into 350.7 million ounces for industrial usage and coinage, up 8 per cent from 1960; about 40 million ounces in inventory accumulations, part of this in anticipation of the price rise; and some 40 million ounces in speculative hoardings.

CHARTS CONSUMPTION

The climb in U.S. consumption is charted this way by Handy & Harman: 98 million ounces in 1959; 100 million in 1960; and 105 million in 1961, with the final months of 1961 seeing some stocking up by fabricators.

Last year the U.S. Treasury used 54.2 million ounces in coinage and sold 62.6 million for commercial usage.

* * *

Now silver users are counting upon hoarders gradually releasing their stocks to the trade. Also, if the price drop of the recent week or so continues, some silver users will dip into their stocks and be off the market.

KENNEDY WANTS OUT

If the President has his way, the U.S. Treasury might be out of the market, too, using up its present supplies for new coinage.

The President proposes that the present $1 and $2 silver certificates gradually be withdrawn from circulation. The Federal Reserve System would be authorized to issue paper money in all denominations, free of specific requirements for silver backing.

* * *

The President also wants the Treasury freed of the present requirement to buy all domestically mined silver offered. He hopes to see a futures market in silver set up, entirely free of government control.

Du Pont Tax Bill to Be Put to Test

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Du Pont tax bill faced its first test vote in the Senate today with what backers called important new support from the Treasury Department.

Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., said in an interview that Treasury officials had told him they were "unalterably opposed" to any amendmente to the measure. He interpreted this as important backing for the bill's supporters.

The measure, which has touched off more than a week of sharp debate, is designed to relieve the tax and market impact of a Supreme Court antitrust order that Du Pont dispose of $3.5 billion in General Motors stock.

In a move to speed action on the bill, the Senate last week agreed to start voting at 2 p.m. (Pontiac time) today on a motion by Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., to send it back to the Finance Committee for further study.

* * *

Despite Gore's attack on it as a "private relief bill," backers of the measure were confident they had ample votes to defeat the recommital motion, and stave off any amendments.

Gore has charged that the bill would permit the Du Pont family to continue to retain working control over the vast automotive empire, which would be contrary to the whole purpose of the Justice Department's antitrust case.

Du Pont officials claim the bill would permit Du Pont to complete an orderly distribution of the 63 million shares of GM stock in a shorter time, and without causing serious disruptions in the market price of the widely held stocks.

Du Pont Profits Hit $418 Million

'61 Net Earnings Traced in Part to Record Sales of $2,191,000,000

WILMINGTON (AP)—E. I. Du Pont de Nemours and Co., Inc., America's biggest chemical maker, Monday reported 1961 profits of $418 million based in part on record sales of $2,191,000,000.

* * *

The net earnings were equal to $8.88 a share of common stock and included $3.16 obtained from dividends of General Motors Corp. stock Du Pont owns.

In 1960 net income totaled $381 million to $8.10 per share which included $2.53 dividends from GM.

Sales last year, based on preliminary figures, were 2 per cent higher than the previous record year—1960—which totaled $2,143,000,000.

* * *

A company spokesman said the higher profits resulted from the increased sales and continued efforts to reduce costs even though many products were reduced in price.

* * *

Sales for the fourth quarter last year also set a new record, $563 million. This was 10 per cent higher than the $514 million for the last quarter of 1960 and 2 per cent greater than the $552 million for the third quarter of 1961.

Jetliner Reaches 811 Miles an Hour With Tailwind

The turbo-fan astro-jet, piloted by Capt. Charles Votsch of Redondo Beach, Calif., attained the faster-than-sound speed with the help of a 190-mile-an-hour tailwind.

It took the plane 2 hours and 37 minutes to make the trip compared to the old record of 2:46.

Earlier Monday another jetliner piloted by Capt. George Russom of Woodland Hills, Calif., made the same trip in 2:41.

WYANDOTTE (AP) — Wyandotte Chemicals Corp. and Huron Portland Cement Co. said Monday they will dissolve their 60-year cement-marketing agreement effective next Jan. 1.

Huron has been marketing Wyandotte cement since 1903, but Wyandotte said it is forming its own marketing organization.

GM Production Backs Up Its Optimistic Forecast

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Automotive Writer

DETROIT — General Motors is backing its optimistic 1962 sales forecasts with its highest auto production rates in two years.

Output at the five GM divisions is running almost double the year-ago pace and last week's assemblies of 82,145 cars marked a high point reached only once since the post-steel strike rush of January 1960.

Even with this outpouring of new cars, General Motors as a corporation was believed to have the smallest stockpile of unsold models of any of the companies as measured in days' supply.

* * *

General Motors sales in early January were especially good, dropping only a fraction of one per cent below December's pace whereas the normal December-to-January drop is more pronounced.

In the model year so far General Motors has built just over half of all the new cars. Ford has built about 29 per cent, Chrysler some 12.5 per cent, American Motors a little over 6.5 per cent and Studebaker, idled by a strike since Jan. 1, less than two per cent.

Calendar year production is off to a fast start with most makes running well ahead of 1961. One of the few exceptions is the Ford Galaxie, down about 4,000.

NEW FAIRLANE

This was caused by the introduction of the new Ford Fairlane, sized between the Galaxie and Falcon. Total Ford division production is 28,000 ahead of last year.

Ford, as a corporation, shows an increase so far of 42,000 units over a year ago. General Motors is about 63,000 ahead.

Chrysler, with a 35,000 total so far, is up almost 50 per cent while American Motors at 26,000 has more than doubled its 1961 figure at this point.

Over-all, passenger production is running 46 per cent ahead of 1961 and truck production is up 21 per cent.

Gizenga Held at Residence

U.N. Lifts Protection of Congo's Ex-Premier as He Awaits Trial

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Antoine Gizenga was placed under house arrest in a comfortable suburban villa today to await trial for acts of rebellion against the central Congolese government.

U.N. protection for the former deputy premier was lifted Monday night and Gizenga was transferred from accommodations in the U.N. headquarters building.

SURROUND VILLA

Officially the troops surrounding the modern two-story residence were to "protect" Gizenga. But the sergeant of the guard assured newsmen that they had orders to prevent him from leaving the house without authorization from Premier Cyrille Adoulas government.

U.N. headquarters had no further information about the activities of the mutinous Congolese troops in north Katanga who are apparently still at large after slaying 19 white Roman Catholic priests on Jan. 1 and the capture of a Roman Catholic mission at the river town of Sola last week.

A U.N. spokesman said plans are being carried out to restore order in north Katanga and deal with the marauding troops.

Sues Osteopath, Assistants for Alleged Abortion

A lawsuit, asking $1.5 million in damages, yesterday was filed in Circuit Court against a Bloomfield Township osteopath and two of his former assistants in an alleged abortion ring said to have been operating in Livonia until last October.

* * *

Roy L. Ingle Jr., the administrator of the estate and former husband of Mrs. Louise D. Ingle, a 37-year-old Madison Heights mother of four who died Sept. 22 following an alleged $300 abortion, filed the suit. He seeks $500,000 for each of three counts.

Being sued are Dr. Bernard W. Weiss, 43, of 1135 Charrington Road, Hugh J. Pollak of Ferndale and Mrs. Lillian Brod of Oak Park.

Dr. Weiss is awaiting trial in Detroit for manslaughter by abortion. He is also awaiting sentence there on a charge of writing fraudulent prescriptions for narcotics.

Manslaughter charges against Pollak and Mrs. Brod were dropped in the lower court.

Nepal King Escapes Assassination Try

KATMANDU, Nepal (UPI)—The Nepalese government announced today that an attempt to assassinate King Mahendra in the southern town of Janakpur failed Monday night.

A government press note here said the king visited the town during his south Nepal tour and "some unpatriotic elements" threw a bomb at Mahendra and tried to manhandle him as he was driving to address a public reception.

The bomb did not explode and the would-be assassin was arrested.

She's No Dumb Blonde

Dody Goodman Zany but Thinks Straight

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK—"You ask me why I haven't been married.

"Well, I don't know.

"I suppose it's because—well, I've often wondered about it too, and I think maybe it's because—uh, these people, men that is, whom I almost married—well, I didn't because I figured that life with them wouldn't be as good as life without them. There."

This is the kind of straight thinking, disguised in obtuse hemming and hawing, that has made Dody Goodman famous.

She realizes that some of her terminology is obscure ("My first speech in college," she reported, "was 30 minutes long. It had 28 minutes of and-uhs in it"), but she knows how to make herself understood if she really tries:

"Look, forget what I just said," she clarified. "Just say I haven't married because I'm completely rejected."

Dody smiled winningly. "That's easier, isn't it?"

As everyone who watched the Jack Paar show in its early days (rather nights) is aware, Miss Goodman looks sweet and sounds naive. Her professional image is that of a "dumb blonde." Is she?

"Well, as you can see, no. I'm a redhead. Of course, sometimes I'm blonde. But I'm a red head more than I'm a blonde.

"About being dumb. I really don't know if people think of me that way. I don't think of myself that way. Not exactly. But then everybody's image of you is so colored by their own thoughts. I think of myself as pretty serious.

"Speaking of images, my mother called me (from Columbus, Ohio) the other day and she was concerned about some problems, and so I said to her, 'Now, mama, don't worry. Remember, you ARE what you THINK. And Mama said, 'Oh, Dody, I HOPE not!' "

Dody does, seriously, have her serious side.

"No, I don't think of myself as funny. My brother was funny: he wanted to own a Chinese laundry. That's not quite right, is it? But I wanted to be a serious ballet dancer.

"I came to New York to study, and I got good roles in some musicals under (choreographer) Jerry Robbins — 'Wonderful Town', 'Call Me Madame' and 'Miss Liberty.' But people kept saying 'You're zany, and you ought to do comedy too.' Then I got on the Paar show, and I was typed.

"Bing on his show certainly did a great deal for me, but I'm not sorry I had to go off it. On that type of show I couldn't do all the things I've really worked for all my life, like dancing and acting."

Next Feb. 10, on CBS-TV, Dody has her first chance at a serious dramatic role in "The Defenders." She hasn't seen the tape of her performance as a middle-aged woman. She only ohpes it's good. "I wouldn't do it," she says, "till the director assured me nobody would laugh." She grinned suddenly. "So don't you laugh, now, if you see it."

Awaiting Films on Plane in Italy

Expect Study to Prove Bulgarian Pilot Surely Was Red Spy

ROME (AP) — NATO experts today were completing development and study of films from the Bulgarian jet that crashed near a secret NATO base in southern Italy. The pictures were expected to prove that the young pilot was on a spy mission.

* * *

The Italian Defense Ministry in a communique Monday said a "final judgment on the nature of the episode" could not be given yet. But it said there were "indications of a true and proper case of aerial espionage" which needed only to be "further substantiated."

One high Italian government official went farther.

MISSION UNFRIENDLY

"We can say now that the mission of the Bulgarian aircraft was unfriendly," he said. "We expect to state flatly in the next few days that the plane was flying a spy mission."

A Defense Ministry source predicted that the Bulgarian pilot, Lt. Milusc Solakov, 22, would be put on trial by the Italians for espionage, as American U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers was by the Russians.

If convicted of espionage, Solakov could get 5 to 15 years in prison. The Russians sentenced Powers to 10 years.

* * *

'WAS ESCAPING'

The Defense Ministry communique said Solakov, after he was pulled from the wreckage of his jet Saturday, "said that he escaped from Bulgaria in order to evade the political regime of that country" and "asked not to be put into contact with Bulgarian diplomatic authorities in Italy."

Ex-Athletic Chief, GOP Solon Young Is Dead at 72

EAST LANSING (AP) — Rep. Ralph H. Young, R-East Lansing, a Republican state representative since 1956 and former athletic director at Michigan State University, died at his home today.

The East Lansing Fire Department was called to his home shortly after 8 a.m. Firemen said Young was dead when they arrived, apparently of a heart attack.

Young, 72, rotund, jolly and universally liked, had a long career in athletics before he retired from Michigan State and entered politics. He was credited with the early building of friendships and prestige that made MSU its present power in athletics, particularly in football.

He was first elected to the house from the 2nd Ingham County District in 1956 and was re-elected in 1958 and 1960. His death leaves Republicans with only a 55-54 edge over Democrats in the House.

'Parties to Draw Closer If Romney Gets in Race'

If George W. Romney runs for governor this year the tax issue of the campaign "will find the two parties closer together though still divided," Sen. Farrell E. Roberts has told Bloomfield Township Republicans.

* * *

"The Democrats will continue their push to replace the sales tax with the income tax as the primary source of state revenue," Roberts said.

"The Republicans, asserting that the federal government has just about pre-empted the income tax field, will seek to use the income tax as a secondary source of income next to the sales tax."

* * *

Roberts, Oakland County's voice in the State Senate, is one of four so-called "moderate" GOP state senators who last week endorsed the need for an income tax for Michigan.

OPPONENT AGREES

Gov. Swainson and Romney, likely opponent of the governor's this year, both agree as to the need also.

* * *

Roberts attributed the likelihood of the tax to a campaign by Democrats "coupled with short sightedness on the part of some of the legislative Republican leadership in Lansing."

* * *

The legislator said his party's legislative leaders now believe the state income tax cannot be avoided.

Roberts said the leaders had been warned by the "moderates," after former Gov. Williams refused to put the sales tax increase on the ballot in 1959, "that continuation of the nuisance tax package could not logically be avoided.

* * *

"We (the moderates) were unable to procure enough votes to pass even a watered-down version," Roberts said. "This year, with hindsight, most senior members agree that they should have gone along with the moderate proposal."

* * *

"As a revenue raising measure the income tax could have been forestalled," Roberts told a leadership training session for county party workers.

War on Plat Changes Renewed in Area

A group of Waterford Township residents last night threatened to bring suit against the Township Board and the Oakland County Road Commission involving the establishment of a supervisor's plat set up 10 years ago.

* * *

This is the third time residents living along Hospital Road and bordering Elizabeth Lake Road have protested they cannot get a clear title to their land because of the plat changes originally made to ease the work of assessors.

Headed by Allen L. Means, 185 S. Hospital Road, the residents said they felt they should have been notified when the supervisor's plats were established. Now, they claimed, instead of a 66-foot roadway, the road commission records show 120 feet of road, including right-of-ways, although the road has not been widened.

* * *

According to Supervisor Elmer R. Johnson, this same situation exists throughout the township. There is not much that can be done to correct the situation without Circuit Court action, he said.

Means told the board that as the first step petitions for the suit are being circulated today.

He added, "All I'm interested in is what I bought and paid for, and if this situation has existed for the last 10 years, it's time it come to a screaming halt."

* * *

Top Reds in U.S. to Lose Passports

WASHINGTON (AP) — State Department officials said today they have notified several top U.S. Communists that their passports are being revoked.

Under the notices sent out by mail, the recipient is supposed to turn in his passport in 30 days or he can appeal the action against him. If he appeals, the regulations provide that he can confront any evidence against him.

* * *

Because of this, the passport revocations are being applied only to those against whom passport officers believe they have evidence which can stand up in open hearings.

Dems 'Will Need' GOP to Push Urban Bureau

WASHINGTON (AP)—Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., in effect conceded today, after talking with President Kennedy, that Republican votes will be needed to get the Kennedy bill to create a department of urban affairs before the House for a vote.

* * *

McCormack and other Democratic leaders had breakfast with Kennedy.

Afterward McCormack told newsmen the urban affairs bill was the only subject of discussion. He said Kennedy reiterated his deep interest in the legislation.

McCormack said the House Rules Committee is scheduled to vote on the bill Wednesday.

Unless it clears that committee for floor action, it is believed to have scant chance of passage.

* * *

There are 10 Democrats and 5 Republicans on the committee.

McCormack said he hopes the five Republicans will not vote unanimously against sending the bill to the floor.

'Kiss Can Reveal Man's Nationality'

LONDON (AP) — "You can always tell a man's nationality by introducing him to a beautiful girl," says Anna Karina, 20-year-old Danish-born actress in English films.

* * *

Which technique is best?

About six billion checks are printed annually in the U.S. to supply the need for this exchange medium.

Card of Thanks 1

WE WISH TO THANK OUR friends, neighbors and relatives for their acts of kindness and sympathy with floral offerings and cards during the bereavement of our beloved son and brother, Donald D. Crosby. A special thanks to Rev. Wayne Smith, Donelson-Johns Funeral home, the pall bearers, employes of Pontiac Motor, Plant 14 and Union Local 653. Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Leach and Family.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF EDGAR H. Davis Sr., who passed away Jan. 21, 1960.
Always so true, unselfish and kind.
Few in this world his equal you'll find.
A beautiful life that came to an end,
He died as he lived, everyone's friend.

Unit Agrees to Rebuild Church as Fire Rages

ST. CATHARINES, Ont. (AP) — While firemen battled a blaze in their 100-year-old church Monday, the committee of St. Paul Street United Church held an emergency meeting and decided to rebuild.

The fire reduced the downtown brick church to a shell. The church committee said the building, the largest Protestant church in this Niagara Peninsula city, with a capacity of about 900 persons, was valued at $750,000. Cause of the fire was not known.

AVALANCHE SCENE — This is a panorama showing a portion of about 600 volunteer workers who probed the debris of a huge snow avalanche which took at least six lives at Twin Lakes, Colo. The avalanche roared down 14,431-foot Mt. Elbert, highest mountain in Colorado.

'Nobody to Back U.S. Moon Man'

Study Group Reports Alarming Shortage of Space Technicians

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A special House education study group said Monday the men behind the man this country hopes to send to the moon are "nowhere in sight."

* * *

The group, appointed last fall to study higher educational needs with emphasis on science and technology, reported to the House Education Committee that the United States has "an alarming shortage of semiprofessional technicians."

"Experts maintain that we should be training at least one engineering technician for each graduating engineer," the report said. "But at present we are producing about one technician for every four engineers."

Chairman Adam C. Powell, D-N.Y., of the education committee said the report showed that "due to our lack of science education, it is totally impossible for the United States to place an astronaut on the moon within a minimum of 10 years."

* * *

The study group, headed by Rep. John Brademas, D-Ind., recommended a program of federal grants to states for the creating of technical institutes. It did not estimate the cost of such a program, but called for quick action by Powell's committee on the problem.

'The Storm' Blew Up a Real Thriller-Diller

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — Formula for a nail-biting binge: Take one raging thunderstorm, add one frightened housewife, a black cat, an isolated country house, spooky noises, ominous background music, wild shadows, props that include the traditional dead body in a cellar trunk.

Subtract heat and electricity from the house. Divide all this into three suspense-filled acts. Voila! "The Storm," which honored the "Thriller" title on NBC-TV Monday night.

Nancy Kelly as Janet Willsom took charge of William Gordon's teleplay and built up an exciting, credible portrait of a woman battling to maintain her sanity while beset by a series of panic-inducing noises and coincidences.

* * *

Directed by Herschel Daugherty, the hour grabbed hold of my nerve fibers early and kept squeezing and twisting all the way.

It's nice to know that such tried-and-true, tired-and-true suspense ingredients can still work, thanks to great production skills. "Thriller" was out to scare the battens out of the hatches. And they did.

Pontiac Library Bookmobile Adds Some New Books

The Pontiac Public Library bookmobile has recently added a number of new books to its shelves.

American Heritage, "Pirates of the Spanish Main"; Best, "Desmond's First Case"; Call, "Peter's Moose"; Campion, "Patrick Henry: Firebrand of the Revolution"; Ciardi, "I Met a Man"; De Regniers, "Who Likes the Sun?"; Du Bois, "Otto in Africa"; Enright, "Return to Gone-Away"; Epstein, "The First Book of Washington, D. C."; Frick, "The Comeback Guy"; Goudey, "The Day We Saw the Sun Come Up"; Greenhood, "Watch the Tides"; Grimm Brothers, "Felix"; Livingston, "I'm Hiding"; McGaw, "Little Elk Hunts Buffalo: As Little Elk Tells It in Indian Picture Writing"; O'Neill, "Hailstones and Halibut Bones: Adventures in Color"; Smith, "Western Butterflies"; Stambler, "Space Ship: The Story of the X15"; Sterling, "Caterpillars"; Stevens, "Catch a Cricket"; Werstein, "The Battle of Midway"; Williams, "Plant Explorer: David Fairchild."

Urges State Aid New Employers

Senate Measure Asks Break for Businessmen Moving to Michigan

LANSING (AP)—A measure allowing a break on unemployment compensation payments to new employers moving to Michigan has been filed in the senate.

Sen. John B. Smeekens, R-Coldwater, the sponsor, said it should help encourage employers from other states to locate in Michigan.

It would recognize the new firms as qualified employers under the Employment Security Act at the end of their first year of business provided they had good employment records in other states. New firms currently have to wait three years before receiving recognition as qualified employers.

They would allow a drop in payments from around 4 per cent to slightly more than 1 per cent, Smeekens said. He estimated it would save the new employer in Michigan more than $100 a year for each worker employed.

* * *

Sen. Perry W. Greene, R-Grand Rapids, introduced a measure to prohibit the employment of professional strike breakers in places where employes are involved in a labor dispute.

Under the measure, employers advertising for new workers in such a situation would have to state a labor dispute was involved.

Sen. Phillip Rahoi, D-Iron Mountain, sponsored a bill to provide that state payments to private hospitals caring for welfare, old age, crippled or dependent children must match rates paid by the Michigan Hospital Service (Blue Cross).

* * *

This would result in higher state assistances to hospitals in most such cases, Rahoi said.

California Fire Victim Has 'Small' Wardrobe

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Arnold Stang, the little 104-pound, 5-foot-3 stalwart, who's the voice of "Top Cat" on ABC, went to a party in Bel-Air, Cal., the other night — and noticed something remarkable.

"Everybody seemed to be wearing brand-new shoes," he told me later.

"Then I realized why. This was a reunion of victims of the Bel-Air fire last November. We were standing around at the home of an attorney, Dee Westmoreland, exchanging reminiscences, new phone numbers, and new addresses. All these people had lost their shoes in the fire, and had to get new ones."

WILSON

Stang, however, had a special problem — he wears clothes about the size as are worn by his son, David, 10. He gets his shirts in the boys' department—and has 3 inches taken off the sleeves.

STANG

He was in Boston on tour when the fire broke-out—with just a couple of suits.

"When I rushed home, I didn't think about clothes until I got the family back together. It takes 6 or 7 weeks to get my special small sizes . . .

"People have been complaining that lately they've seen me around only in coat and trousers that match — like I was in a uniform or something. But in a week or two, my new pants and jacket will be delivered—then I'll be casual and unmatched like everybody else in Beverly Hills!"

Scholarship Deadline March 1 – AMVETS

The deadline for entries in the 11th annual AMVETS college scholarship program is March 1, it was announced today by Commander Faustin J. Dobski of AMVETS Post 113.

High school seniors who are the children of deceased or totally disabled World War II and Korean veterans are eligible for scholarships ranging in value from $500 to $2,000.

Further information may be obtained by contacting Commander Dobski in care of AMVETS Post 113, 28 E. Huron St., Pontiac.

Can Sound Off at Cheaper Rate

Western Union Offers Reduced Cost on Wires Expressing Opinions

NEW YORK (AP)—Western Union Telegraph Co. today offered a reduced rate to citizens who have something to say to Washington.

The company will wire 15 words of anybody's opinion to the nation's capital at a cut rate of 75 cents, plus tax.

EXPERIMENTAL MOVE

The service is an experimental one for "personal opinion messages," intended for those who want to express their views to President Kennedy, Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, or any senator or representative.

From anywhere in the United States, excluding Alaska and Hawaii, the cost of a message of 15 words or less, followed by the sender's name and address and title and organization if desired, will be 83 cents including the 8-cent federal tax.

PROMPTED BY POLL

At the regular rate a 15-word telegram from New York City to Washington, with a seven-word name and address, would cost $1.59, plus 16 cents federal tax, a total of $1.75.

Western Union said the service was prompted by a poll, which showed that seven persons in 10 would like to express opinions to their senators or representatives, but that few did so by mail.

3rd Grader Subs for Scientist Dad as a Lecturer

SILVER SPRING, Md. (AP)—Kurt Amsler, 8, a third-grade pupil, turned second-grade teacher for a while Monday.

Kurt's father, Ben Amsler, a scientist at the Johns Hopkins Applied Physics Laboratory, was scheduled to lecture second-graders at Georgian Forest Elementary School on the uses of friction in simple machines.

* * *

Kurt explained to the class that without friction, levers wouldn't work and wheels would "skid all over the street."

TV Starlet Gigi Perreau Stricken With Ailments

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Gigi Perreau, actress on the "Follow the Sun" television series, became ill Monday with a combination of intestinal virus and food poisoning.

Her doctor said she probably will be hospitalized for several days.

Ten Foreign Teachers on Visit in Michigan

LANSING (AP) — Ten teachers from foreign lands were welcomed by the State Department of Public Instruction Monday as they started a two-week visit to Michigan.

The group, all teachers of English, will tour various Michigan cities under sponsorship of the International educational exchange program of the Department of State.

Call 4 Witnesses in Murder Trial

Men to Testify About Day the Newberry Boy Was Slain

NEWBERRY (AP) — Four new witnesses were subpoenaed to testify today at the first-degree murder trial of James Yenik, 38, a Flint auto factory worker, accused of slaying 14-year-old Michael Richmond of Newberry.

* * *

Circuit Court Judge George S. Baldwin late Monday granted a defense motion that Joseph Labreck of Escanaba, a salesman, and three other men be summoned to testify as to what they saw at the scene of the slaying on the afternoon of last July 28.

The judge acted after State Police Cpl. Francis Treado testified that Labreck came to the Newberry post and reported that he and three companions saw the boy alive at 2:35 p. m. and that they also saw an unidentified man near the scene of the slaying at a road intersection 15 miles east of Newberry.

Cpl. Treado testified that Yenik was placed in a line-up with seven or eight Newberry businessmen. He said Labreck did not pick Yenik from the line-up as the man he saw in the vicinity of the slaying scene.

But instead, Treado said, Labreck singled out a man whose place of business is next to the Newberry State Police Post.

PERFECT ALIBI

The businessman had a perfect alibi. He was painting his place the day of the killing —in sight of state troopers. He and the other businessmen had volunteered for line-up duty to help police.

* * *

The state put in evidence a green shirt bearing an unidentified stain. A conservation officer said the shirt was found in a tub of water in a cabin where Yenik was staying.

The prosecution made no immediate attempt to identify the stain as blood but it has summoned state crime detection laboratory experts as witnesses today.

Ex-Ambassador Named Asst. Foreign Minister

MOSCOW (AP) — Sergei G. Lapin, former Soviet ambassador to Austria, has been appointed a deputy foreign minister, Tass announced Monday. He was envoy in Vienna from 1956 to 1960 and since September 1960 had been foreign minister of the Russian Soviet Federated Socialist Republic. He also headed the Soviet delegation to UNESCO in 1960.

He Counts His Losing Tricks

Sukarno Hedges on Going to War Over New Guinea

BY PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

If Indonesian President Sukarno wanted to go to war over New Guinea, as he has threatened so many times, last week's Dutch attack on three of his torpedo boats offered him a tailor-made excuse.

In Jakarta, the question is being asked, why didn't he use it?

Westerners who ask the question also supply a variety of answers.

One is that, for all his talk of taking New Guinea by force, "in a thousand small boats if necessary," Sukarno is not prepared for an all-out assault.

* * *

Another is that by generating among the people war fever against the Dutch, he has found a convenient means of diverting attention from serious difficulties at home.

Militarily, Sukarno has an experienced army of 350,000 men. His navy includes two destroyers and two submarines obtained from the Soviet Union, and his air force between 325 and 375 aircraft some Russian-built Mig jets and Ilyushin jet bombers.

The big stumbling block is lack of shipping necessary to launch and support an invasion.

The ships Indonesia does have are urgently needed to ferry goods and supplies from one island to another in the vast archipelago.

Indonesian Defense Minister Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution is said to have estimated he would need half of all Indonesia's commercial shipping for three months if he were to mount an attack.

Grave civilian shortages would be certain to ensue, thus facing Sukarno with the risk of serious domestic turmoil.

Further, if the Dutch chose to resist, they could make victory long in coming and costly. Aiding them would be New Guinea's unfriendly terrain of mountains, jungles, marshy valleys and narrow beaches.

* * *

Other factors also mitigate against any attempt to take the big island by force.

* * *

Another is Nasution's reported reluctance to tie up his army for any length of time out of fear of an attempted Communist takeover while the army's back is turned.

NO LOCAL MILITIA

The staunchly anti-Communist Nasution also is reported to oppose formation of local militia who might fall into the hands of the Communists. The Communists have the largest and best organized party in Indonesia.

As for Sukarno's troubles at home, his lack of foreign exchange has forced him to impose an unpopular austerity program.

Floods followed by drought have created a serious shortage of rice, a staple in the Indonesian diet.

* * *

Rice prices have gone up nearly six times over what they were a year ago. The government is spending precious foreign exchange to import rice, but even government workers who receive rice as part of their wages occasionally find their rations reduced.

* * *

Western observers say Sukarno has the total support of the Indonesian people in his anti-Dutch campaign. Undoubtedly Sukarno would prefer to avoid the risks of an invasion, but these observers wonder how long he can continue his balancing act without being forced to pull the trigger.

Changes in Legislature Stymie Con-Con Men

LANSING (AP) — A clash on basic principles over how the State Legislature should be apportioned all but smashed hopes today for bipartisan agreement at the constitutional convention.

* * *

A marathon weekend session of the convention's committee on legislative organization wound up Monday with Democrats and Republicans apparently unable to work out a compromise solution to the problem.

Democrats generally continued to insist that both houses be apportioned on a population basis, while the GOP members demanded that one house include some other factor such as geography or local governmental units.

Republicans emerged from a caucus with a partial agreement among themselves that they would support a plan which would add four senators to the present 34-man body and postpone the issue of redistricting until after the 1970 census.

80-20 FORMULA

The Senate then would be reapportioned on a formula based on 80 per cent on population and 20 per cent on area factors.

Michigan State University President John A. Hannah, R-East Lansing, the committee chairman, said the plan had the virtue of being understandable to the voters who will have to approve or reject the proposed new constitution.

"Since we'll be selling the constitution to the people, much is to be said for keeping the plan simple," Hannah declared.

The 80-20 formula plan had varying degrees of enthusiasm among the Republicans, Hannah reported. Several of the GOP members indicated they wanted something else and were going along only on a provisional basis.

"This plan is unacceptable and could not be made acceptable to us on the basis of principles all Democrats subscribe to," said Melvin Nord, a Detroit attorney and spokesman for the seven Democrats on the 21-man committee.

* * *

Sen. Frank D. Beadle, R-St. Clair, Senate majority leader, commented:

"Off the cuff, it sounds pretty reasonable."

A leader of the so-called moderate bloc, Sen. John W. Fitzgerald, R-Grand Ledge, declared that of all the plans proposed, "I think this would be the most palatable."

CHEVY II NOVA
What's this? A top-down picture in January? Sure! We simply couldn't wait till spring to show you the easiest-to-own Chevrolet convertible you ever flipped a top over. Just get a load of that broad-loop carpeting, the elegant instrument panel, that tasteful chrome trim, the leatherlike vinyl on those comfortable bucket seats* up front. It's what we call Fisher Body finesse. Something else you'll find in all eleven Chevy II models: Plenty of zip, thanks to a frisky 4 or spunky 6 (your choice in most models). Plenty of room, too, thanks to some canny engineering that kept the dimensions cozy outside and comfy inside. And the ride's firm, but ever so gentle, thanks to new Mono-Plate rear springs. With all this, your Chevrolet dealer's ready right now to put some June in your January. Go see him.

U.S. Faltering in OAS Battle to Punish Cuba

Latin Nations Reluctant but Rusk Hopes to Get OK for a Scolding

PUNTA DEL ESTE, Uruguay (AP)—The Inter-American foreign ministers conference on Cuban communism split into three blocs today in wrangling over how best to deal with Prime Minister Fidel Castro's threats to hemispheric unity.

PUNTA DEL ESTE, Uruguay (AP)—The United States fought an uphill battle today in an effort to convince its big Latin-American allies to close ranks against the threat of Castro communism.

President Kennedy's team headed by Sec. of State Dean Rusk, faced an array of conflicting fears and aspirations that produced at least a temporary deadlock on what to do about Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro's regime.

The United States apparently abandoned any hope of unanimity of the 20 nations on strong collective anti-Castro punishment and sought to salvage at least a forthright majority condemnation of the Cuban Communist regime.

The deadlock involved sharp differences of approach between big Latin-American nations advocating a soft policy toward Cuba and smaller ones feeling Castro pressure acutely and anxious for quick, positive action.

The impasse plunged the foreign ministers of the Organization of American States into complex quarrels that clearly threatened hemispheric unity. However, hopes were expressed that the broad differences of opinion would be glossed over by some compromise formula.

At Brazil's urging, today's formal sessions were pushed back until 8 p.m. to permit another round of hotel room bargaining.

The Brazilian and Argentine delegations arranged a number of sessions in the hope a steady exchange of ideas would bring a meeting of minds, particularly with the smaller nations urging strong action against Cuba.

The Brazilians hinted they would seek an additional 24-hour postponement of formal debate if the informal talks failed to turn up any prospects of agreement.

Auditorium Packed for Cooking School

Pontiac Central High School's auditorium was filled with a capacity crowd this afternoon when the first performance of "Galaxy of Foods" was presented.

The third annual cooking school, sponsored by the Pontiac Press will run through the rest of the week.

Long before the doors opened at 1 p.m., women and a few men were lined up outside. Many had left home hours earlier in order to be sure of a good seat.

They passed the time after they were in the auditorium in chatting, knitting, crocheting and exchanging recipes. Cliff Wiegand of Wiegand Music Center entertained at the organ.

Janet Odell, Pontiac Press Home Editor, introduced Mary Metag and Anne Stetzel, home economists from the National Livestock and Meat Board. These two young women presented a fast-moving program of food preparation, including such interesting dishes as Bavarian Pot Roast, Sesame Stuffed Pork Chops, Park Avenue Cake and Gold Nugget Peppers.

These and all other dishes prepared on stage were awarded to winners of the ticket-drawing session at the close of the afternoon.

The grand prize drawing for the two new ranges will take place Friday afternoon. A score of other prizes will be given then also.

Ticket holders need not be present to win. No member of the Pontiac Press or of any Press family is entitled to win.

Those without tickets are admitted on a first-come, first-served basis just before 2 p.m. No children under 10 will be admitted.

$528.3 Million Requested for State in 1962-63

Mental Health, Schools and Colleges, Welfare Would Share Increase

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Swainson today proposed a record $528.3-million budget to finance state government operations in 1962-63.

He will map out a tax program Friday to help pay for it, probably through a tax on corporate and personal income.

The governor's spending blueprint, submitted to the legislature today, tops current spending by 11 per cent.

Most of the increase would be earmarked for state school aid, state colleges and universities, mental health programs and welfare programs.

Swainson, in a special message to legislators, described it as "a realistic budget for a dynamic state of nearly eight million people responding to the inspiring potentials of the space age we have entered."

The Democratic governor made another pitch for a state building corporation to launch a far-reaching construction program, chiefly at mental institutions, institutions of higher learning, and capital development.

The $56.2-million construction program would supplement $22.6 million the governor asked for construction from current revenue.

The 1961-62 budget for general government operations totals $462.6 million, about $400,000 more than the governor's recommendations.

The governor's 1962-63 budget appropriation recommendation for education includes a recommended $595,352 increase over the current outlay for Michigan State University Oakland.

MSUO is getting $979,000 in the current fiscal year and had requested an additional $801,270 in next year's budget. The governor's recommendation is $205,918 below the MSUO request.

However, the governor last year asked for $38[illegible] million for the state building authority, an amount the legislature partially provided for in its budget.

State budget officials estimated another $11.1 million will be needed this year in supplemental appropriations, partly to pay out the state school aid formula of $205 per pupil.

The biggest chunk of new revenue — $34 million — was asked for state aid to public schools, $29.1 million of it from the state's general fund and $5 million from taxes on cigarettes and liquor and other sources.

The governor asked $[illegible] million — or approximately $12.50 per pupil — for an across-the-board 8 per cent increase in aid. The cost was sought to take care of an estimated 50,000 increase in enrollment and higher costs for teacher retirement and other programs.

SCHOOL AID UP

The new school aid figure would go up to $317.9 million, including $75.1 million from the general fund.

Swainson estimated the state will realize $468.3 million from

Commission to Consider Budget, Rezoning Plan

The proposed 1962 operating budget and a request to rezone 37 acres for a shopping center loom as the top items scheduled for tonight's Pontiac City Commission meeting.

If tradition persists, the public hearing on this year's proposed $6.7 million budget will be handled almost like a routine measure.

In past years, citizens have rarely shown more than passing interest in the annual budget. City commissioners are expected to adopt a resolution authorizing City Atty. William A. Ewart to prepare the 1962 appropriation ordinance for presentation and final adoption next Tuesday.

The shopping center proposal promises to create more controversy. At the January city planning commission meetings, a request by National Business Brokers, Inc., of Pontiac, to rezone the plot at North Perry and Arlene streets from residential to commercial was met with considerable resistance from affected property owners.

However, late yesterday a petition requesting the rezoning was submitted to city officials by John Ridgway, president of National Business Brokers.

It included about 150 signatures of persons said to be property owners in the immediate area. The names were being checked for validity today.

Despite resistance of Commissioner John A. Dugan, whose district includes the area in question and the planning commission recommendation against the request, the Commission tabled the matter for study two weeks ago.

Dugan said he had many calls from persons in that area protesting the rezoning.

★ ★ ★

In other business, commissioners will be asked to okay a resolution ordering construction of combined sewers by public necessity on Meadowlawn, Cloverlawn and Cherylawn drives and Stanley Avenue.

★ ★ ★

They are also expected to appoint Administrative Asst. David S. Stierer civil defense director and City Manager Robert A. Teel, deputy civil defense director for Pontiac.

Stahlin Planning GOP Candidacy for Lt. Governor

Stahlin said he would run on a platform of "building a new Michigan by convincing business leaders in other states to locate their plant expansions in Michigan."

Stahlin said he had the support in his bid of party leaders, including most of the so-called moderates and many of the conservatives in the Senate.

★ ★ ★

He was elected to the Senate in 1958 and re-elected in 1960 from the 25th District, which takes in Ionia, Montcalm, Mecosta and Gratiot counties.

Zany Winter Piles Snow South, West

By United Press International

A crazy, mixed-up winter, that spewed snow on Los Angeles and left New York balmy, spattered freezing rain across Dixie today and stabbed most of the North with polar cold.

There were floods in Montana and Illinois; a foot of snow in New Mexico.

Fort Myers, Fla., had its hottest January day in history.

It was 50 degrees in New York City Monday.

DEATHS HIT 48

The death toll from the weather onslaught reached at least 48. Texas had 12 deaths and California 9. In Indiana a woman motorist died when her car skidded into a school bus.

Reaches Halfway Point

Clare 'Indoorsman' Going Strong

CLARE (AP) — Sandra Wedal was among the scoffers who bet that her husband couldn't last eight days in the snowy woods.

She and 14 friends bet $10 each that Tony Wedal couldn't take the zero weather with only a tent as a shelter and on a diet of dehydrated foods.

Mrs. Wedal now is about ready to concede that her husband, who calls himself an indoorsman, will win the $150 bet.

Wedal, 33, reaches the halfway mark today and he's going strong. Dr. J. R. Gerson examined him Monday at the campsite on the shores of Lake Beebe several miles from Wedal's Clare home and reported he is in fine health.

Mrs. Wedal said she bet against her husband because she considered it all a joke last December when he boasted he could survive in the woods. Friends dared him to try it.

"From all reports now I expect to lose $10," said Mrs. Wedal, a note of pride in her voice. "They say he's never been healthier and he's already got rid of a slight cold he had when he went into the woods."

Wedal had never attempted roughing it before. His hobbies are progressive jazz and reading.

Use Teamwork to Nab Youth

Police from five area police departments cooperated in the arrest of a Detroit youth they believe is a member of a ring responsible for stealing and re-selling hundreds of dollars worth of ski equipment.

The suspect, James Hall, 19, waived examination yesterday at his appearance before White Lake Township Justice of the Peace Joseph Hynds on a charge of grand larceny.

Hall was arrested by White Lake Township police following special investigations by Ferndale and Southfield police after several complaints of stolen skis were made to sheriff's departments in Oakland and Lapeer counties.

Craig Shaw, a private patrolman for the Dryden Ski Area in Lapeer County, noted that he had seen two suspicious persons near the ski rack when a false accident report had drawn away other special policemen from the rack.

On Saturday, Shaw and Lapeer County Sheriff's detectives visited the ski shop where Hall is employed and Shaw identified Hall as one of the two suspicious persons he had seen.

After questioning, Hall admitted taking three pair of skis from Mount Holly, two pair from Alpine Valley, two pair from Dryden and one from Mount Christie, police said.

SETS IDENTIFIED

The two sets found for sale in the shop were identified as the ones taken from Alpine Valley in White Lake Township and Hall was charged with the theft.

The owner of the Southfield ski shop was in Chicago and unavailable for comment on the arrest of his employe, according to Detective Gerald Gaedt of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department.

Although only one arrest was made, police believe others are involved in the thefts.

Local ski resort owners today expressed concern over setting up tighter protective measures in regard to stolen equipment.

The operators of four ski resorts in the area, Mount Holly, Alpine Valley, Mount Christie and the Dryden Ski Area, reported the theft of eight pair of skis Jan. 14.

The ski lodge owners all said they feared an organized group of thieves was involved in the theft and resale of the ski equipment.

Flying Objects (Snowflakes) Hit Numbed State

The forecast throughout the state called for temperatures ranging from 8 above to zero, to the mid-teens to lower 20s. In the Pontiac area continued cold and snow flurries added to the traffic woes.

The outlook for tonight is continued cold with a low of 14. Wednesday is expected to be a little warmer with the high rising to 22. Cloudy and warmer temperatures is Thursday's prediction.

Morning westerly winds at 10 miles per hour will become southwesterly tonight and Wednesday.

Twelve was the lowest recording in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The thermometer registered 18 at 1 p.m.

Terror Is Reply to French Plans

Controls for Algerian Cities Answered by Gunfire, Explosives

ALGIERS (AP)—Terrorists replied with gunfire and explosives today to plans of French authorities to clamp tight traffic and other restrictions on three of Algeria's largest cities.

Jean Morin, chief government representative in Algeria, ordered the special control measures for Algiers, Oran and Bone Monday night in an effort to stop the war between European and Moslem terrorists.

* * *

In Oran a terrorist shot a European to death and a European crowd in retaliation killed a Moslem flower seller who had a dagger hidden in his flower basket.

SHIPS DAMAGED

In Bone, an explosive charge damaged the stern of the steamship Djebel Dira, which was preparing to sail with a company of riot police being transferred to France. The ship will have to go into drydock for repairs.

Four persons were killed and 18 wounded in terrorist attacks and seven Moslems were killed by police Monday.

Authorities said the terrorist attacks showed the necessity of immediate application of the new security measures — including roadblocks, traffic curfews and troop cordons.

They said it would be some time, however, before they could be put into effect because of a shortage of troops.

The city's public transport system was strikebound for the sixth day, and European doctors were in the second day of their 48-hour strike. Bus drivers and doctors are demanding police escorts, but authorities say they do not have enough manpower.

Dr. Obear 'Experiments' in MSUO Lab

"Fizzz . . . Poof!"

* * *

It was a simple experiment of mixing potassium permanganate and glycerol to demonstrate an explosive chemical reaction. It is a standard experiment performed each year in thousands of chemistry classes across the nation.

But last Saturday at Michigan State University Oakland, the real experiment was taking place among the students:

The youngest was a fourth grader. Among the oldest were fathers in their fifties.

In a unique parent-child classroom setup, Dr. Frederick W. Obear, teaching the class in the Continuing Education Division, is bringing the family into the laboratory.

* * *

The 20 parents and 23 youngsters in "Exploring Chemistry for Parents and Children" will peek into the basic principles of atomic structure and chemistry.

The professor also hopes to demonstrate flying ping-pong balls, an ammonium dichromate volcano (which changes from orange to green), and a few minor explosions.

"The purpose of the course is to give parent and child a common learning experience where they can help out each other," explained Obear. "The subject in most part is new to both of them."

A 'FIRST' FOR OBEAR

This is the first time Obear has taught children and adults at the same time.

But already he has made a discovery.

He says he'll extend the lab time.

* * *

After a discussion last week of "Inside the Atom," Obear plans to build on the basic principles. Unfortunately, at that session a dearth of ping-pong balls prevented a demonstration of a chain reaction . . . but only temporarily.

In this presentation, the balls are placed on set mousetraps. As one is sprung, bouncing balls set off the others.

* * *

In laboratory work, he said, children will actually make things they have heard about, but not just follow a cook book recipe to do so.

When a lecture deals with types of compounds, the children will make one type: table salt. To make it, they will learn about acids and bases.

In biochemistry, the students will learn how important chemistry is to life itself.

"I'm thinking of having them make aspirin," says Obear. "Whenever they have a headache they'll remember the meaning of chemistry to life as they gulp one down."

Pay Hike OK'd at City Hospital

The Pontiac General Hospital Board of Trustees has approved an $82,500 pay increase for hospital employes and authorized a hike in daily room rates to offset the expense.

* * *

At a special meeting Monday afternoon, trustees approved an agreement which will give all employes a 4.5-cent-per-hour pay increase and set aside $6,091 to cover "inequities in the pay plan" which might arise this year, according to Harold S. Goldberg, board chairman.

To pay for the "increased labor costs and other operating expenses" the board authorized Harold B. Euler, administrator, to increase room rates $1 per day.

This brings the charge for a ward room to $21 per day, still considerably lower than other major area hospitals.

* * *

The hospital's recently approved $5.8-million 1962 operating budget doesn't include provisions for a pay hike and income will have to be revised before final adoption.

Employes got a five-cent-an-hour hike in pay last year. Their total request for a pay hike and fringe benefits for 1962 originally totaled some $240,000.

The wage agreement came out of a weekend meeting between the board's personnel committee, administrators and a negotiating committee of Pontiac Local 100, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes Union (AFL-CIO).

* * *

Samuel A. Baker, Local 100 president, said the hospital members of the union were pleased with the plan.

The board also announced a $25 per month pay increase to married interns an resident doctors amounting to about $6,500 annually.

The Day in Birmingham

9-Hole City Golf Course Wins Commission OK

BIRMINGHAM — A proposal for a nine-hole municipal golf course was met favorably by city commissioners last night with an appropriation of $3,000 to hire a landscape architect to prepare plans for the recreation facility.

The commission named W. Bruce Matthews of Newaygo to proceed with preliminary plans for the golf course, which would be laid out at the site of the former city sewage treatment plant on Cranbrook Road.

Each of the three preliminary plans to be submitted is to show a course layout of approximately 3,200 yards in length, with large greens and tees.

Plans also will show the location of a proposed parking lot, entrance drive, practice green, fairways, roughs, greens, sandtraps and existing and proposed tree plantings.

* * *

All preliminary plans will be submitted to the commission for consideration on or before April 2.

Upon approval by the city, Matthews will then prepare a final plan of the course, together with an estimated cost of construction.

The final plan would be presented within three weeks after the preliminary drawings and field staking have been approved by the city.

The seven constitutional convention delegates from Oakland County will have an opportunity to talk directly to their constituents — and vice versa — at 8 p.m. Friday in a public meeting at the Birmingham Community House, 380 S. Bates St.

A press panel will question the delegates on their beliefs and progress on Michigan's proposed new constitution, after which the public will be invited to participate in the questioning.

Delegates are George W. Romney, Richard D. Kuhn, Raymond L. King, Henry L. Woolfenden, Richard C. Van Dusen, Arthur G. Elliott Jr. and Lee Walker.

Press panelists will represent The Pontiac Press, The Birmingham Eccentric, Royal Oak Tribune and Radio Station WPON.

* * *

The meeting is one of a series, "Meet Your Celebrity Neighbor," sponsored jointly by the Community House and the Oakland Citizens League to acquaint residents of the Birmingham-Bloomfield area with individuals and issues of common interest.

'Fight Commies but Don't Panic'

Sen. Stennis Launches Censorship Probe With Plea; Burke 1st Called

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., opened the Senate inquiry into military censorship today with an appeal for Americans — in uniform and out — to stand firm against communism "without frenzy or panic."

Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, retired chief of naval operations, was called as the first witness to tell the senators whether Pentagon censors "muzzled" his verbal blasts against communism.

Stennis, chairman of the Senate Armed Services subcommittee conducting the inquiry, said:

* * *

"In today's rapidly changing world, with our worldwide commitments and our troops stationed across the globe, certainly our military personnel — at every level — must be fully cognizant of the menace of the cold war and of the threat of any political system which seeks to destroy our own.

"The alien philosophy of international communism threatens our freedom, our liberty and our cherished traditions, beliefs and heritage. The Communists seek to infiltrate every segment of our society. Americans should and must rally to the defense of our own way of life and stand firm in the face of insidious subversion and propaganda techniques and methods.

"We should do this, however, without frenzy or panic . . . Let us double and triple our own efforts in reaching the positive principles of our own government, not only to our men in uniform but to all citizens."

* * *

current revenue sources in the fiscal year starting June 30. That is nearly $9 million under his estimates a year ago for income in the current fiscal year, a figure reduced in the interim because tax revenues failed to live up to expectations.

* * *

His proposed new tax program will yield another $71 million, leaving $11 million over his spending proposals which would be applied against a State Treasury deficit expected to top $90 million by the end of the current fiscal year.

Swainson proposed a $15 million increase for higher education operations, including $12 million for the 10 state colleges and universities and 16 community colleges. The total would go up to $124.6 million.

Nepal King Escapes Assassination Try

KATMANDU, Nepal (UPI) — The Nepalese government announced today that an attempt to assassinate King Mahendra in the southern town of Janakpur failed Monday night.

A government press note here said the king visited the town during his south Nepal tour and "some unpatriotic elements" threw a bomb at Mahendra and tried to manhandle him as he was driving to address a public reception.

The bomb did not explode and the would-be assassin was arrested.

Six Sets of Twins Crowding Nursery

RUN 1ST EDIT ONLY —TUES

If things keep up like they've been in the past week, St. Joseph Mercy Hospital will have to build a "pair-shaped" nursery.

* * *

There have been six sets of twins born at the hospital since Jan. 15. The most recent pair of pairs came yesterday morning a little more than one hour from each other.

"This is very unusual," said Sister Mary Niceta, supervisor of the obstetrics department. "We haven't had this many all at once in a long time."

With four sets of twins already the topic of discussion in the nursery, Mrs. Douglas J. Duke of 1030 Monica St., Waterford Township, produced the fifth set at 8:06 and 8:08 yesterday morning. They are boys and weigh over six pounds each.

SIXTH SET BORN

Almost before the dust had settled, Mrs. Thomas E. Hunt of 308 W. Third St., Rochester, became a mother for the first time.

* * *

She had twin girls at 9:28 and 9:31. The Hunt twins weighed in at four pounds, four ounces and four pounds, six ounces, lightest of the current crop.

If statistical averages mean anything, the hospital should get another set around Wednesday or Thursday. They've been coming about every two days.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. William F. Zielkowski of 36460 Oakdrive, Mount Clemens, had a boy and girl each weighing over seven pounds, biggest of the bunch.

* * *

The whole thing started Jan. 15 when two sets were born. Mrs. Robert F. Kaufman of 1694 Witherbee St., Birmingham, gave birth to twin girls at 7:54 a.m.

* * *

Three hours earlier, twin boys had been born to an unmarried Pontiac woman.

Reject Revision of Township Plat

Waterford Board Had OK'd Original Plan for Subdivision

The Waterford Township Board last night turned thumbs down on a request for revision of a plat in the Vista Villa Subdivision on Crescent Lake Road near M59.

* * *

The board had approved the preliminary plans, but after land developer Richard Price made changes, the board denied the request for approval.

A request from Montgomery Ward to establish a collection depot for payment of township water and sewer bills were unanimously approved.

There were no objectors at the 7:30 p.m. for black topping 3,100 feet of Kempf Street at an estimated cost of $25,000 and the project was approved. Each of the 46 assessments will cost $4.30 per front foot.

Another request was made by Paul Felice to be awarded the townships one Class C liquor license. He told the board he wanted to build a new cocktail lounge near the Howard Johnson restaurant on Dixie Highway. The board is considering many such requests.

Awaiting Films on Plane in Italy

Expect Study to Prove Bulgarian Pilot Surely Was Red Spy

ROME (AP) — NATO experts today were completing development and study of films from the Bulgarian jet that crashed near a secret NATO base in southern Italy. The pictures were expected to prove that the young pilot was on a spy mission.

* * *

The Italian Defense Ministry in a communique Monday said a "final judgment on the nature of the episode" could not be given yet. But it said there were "indications of a true and proper case of aerial espionage" which needed only to be "further substantiated."

One high Italian government official went farther.

MISSION UNFRIENDLY

"We can say now that the mission of the Bulgarian aircraft was unfriendly," he said. "We expect to state flatly in the next few days that the plane was flying a spy mission."

A Defense Ministry source predicted that the Bulgarian pilot, Lt. Milusc Solakov, 22, would be put on trial by the Italians for espionage, as American U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers was by the Russians.

If convicted of espionage, Solakov could get 5 to 15 years in prison. The Russians sentenced Powers to 10 years.

* * *

'WAS ESCAPING'

The Defense Ministry communique said Solakov, after he was pulled from the wreckage of his jet Saturday, "said that he escaped from Bulgaria in order to evade the political regime of that country" and "asked not to be put into contact with Bulgarian diplomatic authorities in Italy."

Diplomats Hear Molotov Relieved of Vienna Post

MOSCOW (UPI)—Western diplomatic sources said today they have heard unofficially from Soviet sources that former Foreign Minister Vyacheslav Molotov has been replaced as representative to the International Atomic Energy Commission in Vienna.

* * *

The sources said they had been told, in conversations on at least two occasions, that the acting delegation chief, Alexander Alexandrov, will be promoted to Molotov's place.

* * *

(In Vienna, IAEA officials said they have not been told of any changes in the Soviet delegation. They said Molotov still' is listed as permanent head of the mission with Alexandrov as acting chief.)

Kill 75 Viet Cong Rebels

U Thant Talks to Indonesian, Dutch Delegates

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Acting U.N. Secretary-General U Thant held exploratory talks Monday night with the Netherlands and Indonesia as hopes rose for a peaceful settlement to the dispute over West New Guinea.

* * *

Thant met separately with representatives of the two nations for the first time since both agreed to his offer to serve as go-between.

The secretary-general conferred first for 35 minutes with Dutch Ambassador C. W. A. Schurmann, then talked for more than an hour with Subjarwo Tjondronegoro, an Indonesian expert on West New Guinea sent here by President Sukarno to represent his government.

* * *

Indonesian delegate Sukarjo Wirjopranoto, who accompanied Tjondronegoro to the conference with Thant, said the Jakarta envoy filled Thant in on the current situation in West New Guinea as Sukarno sees it and ranged over the whole problem.

County Bar Assn. Members Vote for System

Seek Creation of Jury Commission Bill

A bill will be sought by the Oakland County Bar Association in the legislature this year to permit creation of a jury commission to select Circuit Court juries.

* * *

About 100 of 300 association members yesterday afternoon voted almost unanimously — there was only one negative vote — to employ the commission selection system to improve what several judges have called "irregularities" in the present selection.

Some attorneys, too, have criticized the present selection system, left pretty much up to the township supervisors and city assessing officers, in that it produces an abundance of housewives, retirees, repeaters and few laborers on juries.

Royal Oak attorney Jack W. Hutson, past president of the association, seemed to sum up the reaction of many local attorneys when he said: "We don't think this is a good system." His remark was applauded.

* * *

Before the end of the year, attorneys envision a paid commission whose responsibility would include primarily the screening of prospective jurors to provide a sufficient number from diversified backgrounds.

Unlike the present system, when the township and city officials pick the names from tax assessment rolls, the names would be drawn "at random" through a key numbering system from rolls of electors from cities and townships.

The change to the commission would provide "the most acceptable vehicle to accomplish the desired administration," said Jerome E. Mulligan, a member of the special six-member committee of the Bar which proposed the jury commission.

Opposing the change was Pontiac attorney Kenneth B. McConnell. "I hesitate seeing this county yelling to Lansing for help before putting its own house in order," he said.

The association will seek the cooperation of the board of supervisors' legislative committee for an act which would be similar to one under which a seven-member commission operates in Wayne County.

FAIL TO SPEAK

The four of five circuit judges who attended yesterday's monthly meeting did not speak up then with their opinions. But afterward Judge Clark J. Adams said, "We came down to listen, but are quite willing to work under any system."

* * *

Judge William J. Beer said: "I have no opposition to a jury commission but it appears the statutory system of selecting jurors works well in Oakland County when well administered. Over the years it has been administered well. However, there is room for improvement."

Man-in-Space Flight Hangs in Air

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — U. S. scientists took a critical look at a trouble-ridden space capsule today to decide whether to attempt America's first manned orbital flight Saturday or wait until next week.

* * *

While astronaut John H. Glenn Jr., stood by anxiously and impatiently, technicians began an "evaluation" of new difficulties that forced a new postponement of at least three days in plans to launch him on a three-orbit trip around the globe.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) officially quoted Glenn as saying "the additional time will only increase our sharpness."

But the 40-year-old astronaut was tight-lipped after scientists decided to postpone the shot from Wednesday until at least Saturday.

Informed sources said Glenn's orbital voyage could be attempted Saturday only if "everything goes perfectly from now on."

If there are further troubles — and many expected there would be — the launching was expected to be again delayed until at least Jan. 30.

The space agency was more optimistic about its chances of firing a camera-carrying space capsule to the moon on Friday or Saturday.

* * *

The new delay in the Project Mercury man-into-space shot also increased the Navy's hopes for launching five satellites into orbit aboard a single rocket this week. The shot, called "Composite-1," was removed from the firing schedule Thursday and pulled back to Wednesday.

HUNDREDS OF REPORTERS

But the hundreds of newsmen who poured into the area last week to cover the manned orbital flight were more interested in the Mercury "evaluation" that was expected to produce a new target date for Glenn's 81,000-mile flight through space.

* * *

The problem centered in the capsule's environmental control system — the delicate mechanism which will force a vital supply of oxygen into Glenn's cabin and spacesuit during the voyage of nearly five hours.

* * *

Technicians ripped into the system Monday and replaced a faulty oxygen demand regulator and a hose. NASA officials said tests showed there was a possibility these instruments could have caused an "excessive use of oxygen" should Glenn's cabin suddenly lose air pressure in space.

The Murderers — 7

Luciano Came From Prison Back to Top

By HARRY J. ANSLINGER
U. S. Commissioner of Narcotics
AND WILL OURSLER

To understand Lucky Luciano's role in crime and political maneuvers, one needs uncontaminated facts.

* * *

Some of Lucky's publicity people have tried to present him as the most misunderstood public benefactor of our times. The records, however, show that he was first arrested — for a narcotics violation — in 1918, at the age of 19. The government had him on two counts of selling the stuff, plus possession of two ounces of heroin.

Lucky admitted the heroin was his, but agreed to provide narcotics agents with information and got off with a light sentence on a minor rap; all the main narcotic charges were dropped.

Lucky continued to feed the government information about other dealers in dope. As a result, one by one his competitors were sent away. Thus unwittingly the American government helped him rise to power.

EARLY RECORD

Here is more of Lucky's early record, before his conviction as the greatest white slaver of all times: In July, 1926, he was arrested again for possession of a revolver; in December, 1926, he was arrested in New York City for felonious assault; in August, 1927, he was arrested on several counts involving violation of the Prohibition laws; in December, 1928, he was arrested for assault and robbery; in October, 1929, in New York, he was arrested on a charge of grand larceny; and in February, 1930, he was arrested in Miami for running an illegal gambling game.

At that time, Lucky's power was so great that most of the charges could be quieted before any indictment was pressed. I knew, everybody in law enforcement knew, that Lucky had virtually taken over the Mulberry Street mob which preceded the East 107th Street mob as a major factor in New York and national dope distribution. I knew also that Lucky was tied up with prostitution.

Lucky liked the ladies. He developed his personal technique of "induction"; taking the girls out — young working girls usually, waitresses, manicurists, shop girls, office workers, youngsters eager for a way out of the slavery of drab routine.

RECRUITED GIRLS

Lucky gave them plenty of excitement and love making, and wound up turning them into heroin users — "for kicks, that's all." But soon they were addicted and to pay for their heroin "ration" Lucky turned them over to his lieutenants who ran the call-girl branch of his expanding rackets.

Lucky's prostitution parade became so big that it was making him more money than the drugs he was feeding the girls — for which they had to pay out of their earnings. Testimony indicated that Lucky at one time took a cut from the daily "ticks" of more than 5,000 prostitutes in cities across the country.

In 1935, racket smasher Thomas E. Dewey brought Luciano to trial on a charge of forcing women into compulsory prostitution. The trial was long and sensational.

Luciano was found guilty and given 30 to 50 years in prison. Dewey received national cheers for putting this criminal behind bars for what everyone believed would be the rest of his life.

In 1942, with the United States at war, one of my agents, moon-faced supervisor George White, received a visitor at our offices at 90 Church Street. It was August Del Gracio, the Little Augie whose arrest had started Eliopoulos on the final lap.

Augie revealed that he had come as an emissary of a man not as well known at that time as he was to become — Frank Costello.

"Frank has a deep sense of patriotism," Little Augie said.

'LONG-TIME FRIENDS'

"He hates the Fascists. Know who else hates their guts? Luciano. You know he and Frank are friends for a long time."

This was the first hint White had of where Little Augie was heading. "Sure," he said, "They're old buddies."

Augie went on in a persuasive tone. "Listen, Lucky's big stuff in this city. What he says goes with the Italians, the Sicilian organizations. They do what he says. Don't you get what that means? Lucky can help America."

A former crime reporter in San Francisco. White had a newsman's directness. "What's he want, Augie?"

Some time later, wartime Navy intelligence in New York City did launch what became known as Operation Underworld, involving the use of gangsters to provide information to Navy authorities. Enlisted in the enterprise, through the help of gangland figures, was Lucky Luciano.

In January, 1946, several months after the end of World War II, Governor Dewey, acting on the recommendation of the New York State Board of Parole, commuted Luciano's sentence on condition he be deported at once to Italy.

Some time after Il Capo landed back in Italy and began establishing his new postwar syndicate, he obtained a passport and set off for Havana. The then Cuban ambassador to the United States came to see me and asked my advice. He was a babe in the woods regarding organized crime.

"What do you think the arrival of Luciano portends for our country?" he asked. "He is making a hit with Cuban society ladies here."

HAD BIG PLANS

I had received a preliminary report through a Spanish-speaking agent, and I read this to the Cuban ambassador. The report stated that Luciano had already become friendly with a number of high Cuban officials through expensive gifts.

Luciano had developed a full-fledged plan which envisioned the Caribbean as his center of operations. The Isle of Pines, south of Cuba, was to become the Monte Carlo of the Western Hemisphere. Cuba was to be made the center of all international narcotic operations.

The ambassador telephoned the president of Cuba with an urgent plea to issue an immediate deportation order for Lucky. The press played the story big. But no concrete action was taken by Cuban authorities.

I decided that our Bureau was the only American agency in a position to take direct action without causing too great an international upheaval.

"As long as Luciano remains in Cuba," I had our agent inform Cuban authorities, "America will not send one more grain of morphine or any other narcotics, for medicinal or any other needs." Since we were virtually the only supplier of medicinal narcotics to Cuba, the government was forced to capitulate.

Lucky went back to Italy and set himself up in a swank duplex apartment in Naples. Everyone came to see him; screen stars, celebrities, newsmen, gangsters, and old friends from America. Hoodlums carried narcotics to America and returned to Italy for the next consignment, on orders from Il Capo.

FULL PRODUCTION

His assembly line was in full production: opium from Turkey and the Near East was smuggled into Italy, manufactured into heroin and then shipped across the Atlantic.

Heroin shipments poured into the United States, sucking into addiction thousands of postwar adolescents. Our evidence connected him with several other rackets including smuggling cigarettes, counterfeiting money in Austria and diversion of gold.

When the secretary of the Italian delegation at the United Nations publicly described Lucky as the new boss of international gangdom, he was stating a truth for which men who participated in Lucky's release from prison can take whatever joy or guilt conscience dictates.

* * *

Closing in on Il Capo has proved a hard task for the Bureau, for the Italian police, who would like to get him out of their hair, and for Interpol, the international police force.

The loyalty or fear inspired by Luciano has been a primary fact in the difficulty of obtaining witnesses who have the courage to declare publicly what they almost nonchalantly admit in private.

Luciano is uncannily shrewd in avoiding entangling evidence. He talks to his relatives and intimates on the beach, away from the casual listener, and he avoids any open statements. He leaves no trace because there is no trace.

And still we know he is the man.

Slate First Phase in Depot Shutdown

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — The first phase in the shutdown of the Rossford Ordnance Depot will be completed Feb. 1, depot officials reported Monday.

The depot was among several ordered closed last year by the Defense Department in a reorganization of ordnance operations.

Col. Harry J. Marker, Rossford commander, said 673 of the depot's 1,632 employes will be affected in the first phase of the shutdown. Many employes already have transferred to other ordnance units, Marker said.

The first phase involved the tools and equipment division, which was transferred to the Ordnance Weapons Command, Rock Island, Ill., Ordnance Tank-Automotive Command, Detroit, and the Ordnance Ammunition Command, Joliet, Ill.

PCH Gains One Point Edge in Class A Vote; Imlay Drops Notch

By The Associated Press

The two unbeaten powers, separated by a solitary point in the judgment of the AP's panel of Michigan sports writers and sportscasters, have a head-on test of strength Friday night at Saginaw.

Saginaw (6-0) was idle all last week while Pontiac Central (8-0) posted an easy victory over Bay City Handy. That was enough for the pollsters to have the two leaders trade positions. Just six points behind Saginaw is third-ranked Detroit Northwestern (7-0).

The Class C rankings also underwent a juggling at the top this week while the Class B and Class D leaders remained entrenched. Perry (10-0) took over first place in Class C shoving Imlay City (10-0) down to second.

* * *

River Rouge (10-0) retained its commanding lead in Class B. Northville advanced in Class B from sixth to fifth.

The only other major change in the four classes was Pickford's climb of two positions to second in Class D behind Champion (10-0). Suttons Bay, last week's runner up to Champion, fell to third despite a victory in its only outing. But only six poll points separate Pickford (10-1) and Suttons Bay (12-1).

This week's poll results on the basis of 10 points for a first-place vote, 9 for a second, etc. on down to 1 for a 10th-place vote:

MSU Downs Gophers, 84-79

By the Associated Press

A sophomore-studded Michigan State basketball team outhustled Minnesota, 84-79, last night to gain its second straight Big Ten triumph of the season.

The Gophers, who now have lost their last three conference games, made a valiant attempt to overtake the Spartans in the second half after State led by 17 point at the intermission, 45-28.

* * *

MSU set the stage for its win early in the game on the play of sophomores Fred Thomann, Pete Gent and Bill Berry. Thomann, 6-9 center, starting in his second game, finished the contest with 16.

Gent, the team's leading scorer, tallied 13 points before bowing out on fouls in the second half.

Minnesota lost three of its key players in the crucial second half to deflate its comeback.

* * *

The shooting and rebounding skills of Ohio State's Jerry Lucas have been taken for granted but there's always been a tendency to underestimate his defensive ability.

The Buckeyes' 6-foot-8 tower of talent displayed his guarding prowess last night by holding Terry Dischinger of Purdue, the Big Ten's top scorer for the past two seasons, to nine points in a duel of all-Americas.

Ohio State, the nation's top-ranked college basketball team, easily disposed of the Ollermakers 91-65 for its 14th straight victory this season. The Buckeyes' triumph also was their 29th in a row at home, their last setback in Columbus being inflicted by Purdue in 1959.

Lucas completely dominated the 6-foot-7 Dischinger, who had held the upper hand in their two previous meetings. Lucas tallied 32 points and snared 25 rebounds, much to the delight of 13,497 partisan rooters.

Dischinger, entering the game as the Big Ten's leading scorer, played with an injured finger on his shooting hand. Terry jammed the little finger of his right hand in practice Saturday and the injury apparently hindered his shooting touch.

Action was light on the basketball front last night with most of the schools busy with examinations. In other games involving major teams, Maryland edged Miami (Fla.) 71-68, and Stanford turned back Washington State 67-51.

Expect Idzik to Be Picked Titan Mentor

DETROIT (AP)—John Idzik is expected to be named Jim Miller's replacement as the University of Detroit's football coach in a few days.

Danny Boisture, an assistant at Michigan State, is the only other coach whose name has cropped up into the Detroit speculation. But Boisture received a raise from the Spartans just last week.

'Victim' Boston College Takes Miller From U-D

NEWTON, Mass. (AP) — Jim Miller, whose Detroit team has defeated Boston College two years in a row, has been signed as head football coach by his recent victim.

Boston College athletic director Bill Flynn announced Monday night that Miller had been signed to a three-year contract for an unspecified salary.

Miller's first opponent next fall? Detroit.

Miller succeeds Ernie Hefferle, who has returned to his previous job as a Pittsburgh assistant.

* * *

"I was very impressed by their program and by the over-all potential of Boston College," Miller said in Detroit. "This includes the people associated with the program and the athletes that their program attracts."

A former Purdue captain, Miller was a football assistant and head track mentor at Wabash College in 1947. Two years later he moved to Niagara. When Niagara dropped the sport, he assisted at Buffalo, then Purdue. As a defensive specialist, Miller was a major factor behind Purdue's No. 2 ranking in Big Ten total defense in 1956 and second national ranking in 1958.

Outstanding Trainer

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Carl Hanford, former jockey who trained Mrs. Richard Dupont's Kelso to "horse of the year" honors in 1960 and 1961, has been voted outstanding trainer by the National Turf Writers Association, it was annouced today.

Howe Closer to Bathgate

MONTREAL (AP) — Gordie Howe of the Detroit Red Wings, a five-time winner of the National Hockey League scoring championship, has projected himself right into the thick of the 1961-62 race.

* * *

Howe has cut the lead of Andy Bathgate of the New York Rangers to eight points, league statistics showed today. Bathgate picked up his 18th goal and 41st assist during the week for 59 points.

* * *

The Red Wings' winger scored two goals and collected three assists for 51 points. This boosted Howe's NHL all-time regular season point total to 1,100.

Bathgate and Howe each has 27 more games remaining.

'Lefty' Indicted by Grand Jury in Cage Scandal

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP)—A man who invoked the fifth amendment recently when a congressional committee asked him if he were left-handed or right-handed has been indicted here on basketball fix charges.

* * *

The Wake County Grand Jury returned a true bill Monday charging Frank (Lefty) Rosenthal of Miami and Chicago, with offering to bribe a player to shave points.

* * *

Charged along with Rosenthal was David Budin, 28-year-old New Yorker who already is under indictment here on charges of conspiring to bribe North Carolina State College players.

Each of the two was charged with two counts of conspiracy to offer to bribe and two counts of bribery.

Spitball Hurler Dead

BALTIMORE (AP) — Clarence (Lefty) Russell, a major league baseball pitcher known for his fast ball and spitball 50 years ago died Monday. He was 71.

Pistons Easy for Royals

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The red hot Cincinnati Royals strengthened their grasp on second place in the Western Division of the National Basketball Association with a 115-106 victory over the Detroit Pistons at the University of Dayton field house last night.

The Pistons, third in the division, will get back into action on their home court Wednesday night when they take on Syracuse, which is third in the Eastern Division.

Still No. 1 Team in Nation

Buckeyes Get All Votes

By The Associated Press

Unbeaten Ohio State unanimously maintained its lofty position as collegiate basketball's No. 1 major team today in the weekly Associated Press poll.

The mighty Buckeyes (13-0) received all 42 first-place votes in the balloting of the panel of sports writers and sportscasters from 120 points on the basis of 10 for coast-to-coast. Ohio State collected first place, 9 for second, etc. The voting is based on games through last Saturday.

There was very little shuffling in the rest on the top ten teams. This week's listings showed the same top ten teams as those of a week ago with just two switching places.

Southern California advanced from sixth to fifth even though the Trojans were idle last week. Duquesne dropped a notch from fifth to sixth after its loss to Cincinnati. The Dukes, however, did beat Toledo 80-57 and St. Vincent, Pa., 85-33.

The top ten teams based on a 10-9-8-etc. vote count with first place votes and records through Jan. 20, in parentheses:

1. Ohio State (42) (13-0)	420
2. Kentucky (13-1)	366
3. Cincinnati (13-2)	331
4. Kansas State (12-2)	268
5. Southern California (12-2)	196
6. Duquesne (13-2)	167
7. Duke (11-2)	151
8. Bowling Green (14-1)	100
9. Bradley (11-3)	[illegible]
10. Mississippi State (13-1)	[illegible]

Others receiving votes: West Virginia, Utah, Villanova, Wichita, Oregon State, Purdue, Stanford, Arkansas, Chicago Loyola, Wisconsin, Illinois, Arizona State, Centenary.

Jensen Retirement Confirmed by Sox

BOSTON (AP)—Jackie Jensen has retired for the third and last time as far as the Boston Red Sox are concerned.

"Jackie is all through," club vice president Dick O'Connell said Monday night. "He's going into business out near his home."

Just in case the unpredictable outfielder has a last-minute but not probable change of heart, O'Connell added: "We still have a value interest in him."

Thus ends the major league career of the former University of California football star who specialized in driving across runs but wound up unhappily. Jensen's last baseball days were punctuated by consultations with a hypnotist who helped him battle his fear of flying and dissatisfaction with a life which kept him away from home.

Chairman Quits American Mart

Reilly and Three Others Resign Troubled Board; Reformer 'In'

NEW YORK (AP) — Chairman Joseph F. Reilly and three other top officers of the troubled American Stock Exchange have resigned.

Their action Monday virtually erased the higher element of an administration that has been under fire from the Securities and Exchange Commission and some exchange members.

* * *

Quitting with Reilly, who also was acting as president pro tem, were Vice Chairman Charles J. Bocklet, James R. Dyer, a member of the Board of Governors and chairman of the Committee on Finance, and John J. Mann, a governor and chairman of the Committee on Floor Transactions.

* * *

The SEC had accused the four of dominating the administration of the nation's No. 2 securities market for the last 10 years.

This statement was part of an SEC report in which it said the exchange had allowed 'manifold and prolonged abuses" of trading rules.

MEMBER 31 YEARS

Reilly, 54, had been serving as president pro tem since the resignation last Dec. 11 of Edward T. McCormick as president. He has been an exchange member 31 years, a governor since 1951 and was completing his second term as chairman.

* * *

Reilly and the three other officers made no comment about their resignations.

* * *

Immediately upon accepting the resignations, the Board of Governors named Edwin Posner, a partner in the New York City brokerage and specialist firm, Andrews, Posner and Rothschild, as president pro tem.

Posner, 71, a former chairman, is a leader in a reform movement within the exchange.

Attempts to Settle S-P Strike Stalled

SOUTH BEND (UPI)—Efforts to settle the three-weeks-old Studebaker-Packard strike of 6,500 workers stalled Tuesday despite marathon talks.

David Tanzman of Detroit, a member of the special panel appointed by the federal government to mediate the dispute, said he could make no comment on the talks, which were aimed at arriving at a basis for a new contract between the auto firm and the United Auto Workers.

Network Share in TV Subject of FCC Probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission opens a new round of hearings today aimed at finding how much control networks exert over television programs.

Officials have estimated that networks provide half the programs aired by the nation's TV stations.

The Price of Persuasion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., said today the drug industry spends about $750 million a year — or several times the amount it takes to operate all the nation's medical schools — to persuade doctors to write prescriptions in trade names.

Price Drops to $1 Ounce

Silver Speculators Selling Hoard

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK — Silver speculators have unloaded some of their hoard after a price rise that carried it from 91⅝ cents an ounce Nov. 28 to a high of $1.04¾ Dec. 15. So the price has dropped here and in London — to around $1 an ounce in Britain Monday.

* * *

SET CEILING

The speculative rise in the price of silver was set off by the President's order Nov. 28 halting the Treasury's sale of silver, which had effectively set a price ceiling of 91⅝ cents an ounce.

* * *

Under the Silver Purchase Act of 1934 the Treasury still offers to buy newly mined silver at 90½ cents an ounce. But who wants to sell to it when the free market price is so much higher?

STOPPED SELLING

The Treasury stopped selling as the first step in the President's plan to demonetize silver, except as coins. But it already was in a bind. The supply it had for sale in excess of the amount it was legally required to keep as backing for paper money was fast disappearing.

* * *

The price of silver rose sharply — about 9 cents an ounce the first day —partly because of a strong demand for industrial uses. But silver users say the rise then and since was due even more to so much being held off the market by speculators expecting the Treasury to use up its supply at the rate its sales had been increasing. They held that growing industrial demand had made the Treasury price artificially low.

USE INCREASED

Industrial and commercial use had increased not only for more household and jewelry items, but also for expanded use in electronics, in missiles, in silver-printed circuits supplanting electric wiring.

Handy & Harman, refiner and fabricator of precious metals, puts total world consumption of silver in 1961 at 430.7 million ounces. This is broken down into 350.7 million ounces for industrial usage and coinage, up 8 per cent from 1960; about 40 million ounces in inventory accumulations, part of this in anticipation of the price rise; and some 40 million ounces in speculative hoardings.

CHARTS CONSUMPTION

The climb in U.S. consumption is charted this way by Handy & Harman: 98 million ounces in 1959; 100 million in 1960; and 105 million in 1961, with the final months of 1961 seeing some stocking up by fabricators.

Last year the U.S. Treasury used 54.2 million ounces in coinage and sold 62.6 million for commercial usage.

* * *

Now silver users are counting upon hoarders gradually releasing their stocks to the trade. Also, if the price drop of the recent week or so continues, some silver users will dip into their stocks and be off the market.

KENNEDY WANTS OUT

If the President has his way, the U.S. Treasury might be out of the market, too, using up its present supplies for new coinage.

The President proposes that the present $1 and $2 silver certificates gradually be withdrawn from circulation. The Federal Reserve System would be authorized to issue paper money in all denominations, free of specific requirements for silver backing.

* * *

The President also wants the Treasury freed of the present requirement to buy all domestically mined silver offered. He hopes to see a futures market in silver set up, entirely free of government control.

Du Pont Tax Bill to Be Put to Test

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Du Pont tax bill faced its first test vote in the Senate today with what backers called important new support from the Treasury Department.

Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., said in an interview that Treasury officials had told him they were "unalterably opposed" to any amendmente to the measure. He interpreted this as important backing for the bill's supporters.

The measure, which has touched off more than a week of sharp debate, is designed to relieve the tax and market impact OF a Supreme Court antitrust order that Du Pont dispose of $3.5 billion in General Motors stock.

In a move to speed action on the bill, the Senate last week agreed to start voting at 2 p.m. (Pontiac time) today on a motion by Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., to send it back to the Finance Committee for further study.

* * *

Despite Gore's attack on it as a "private relief bil," backers of the measre were confident they had ampel votes to defeat the recommital motion, and stave off any amendments.

Gore has charged that the bill would permit the Du Pont family to continue to retain working control over the vast automotive empire, which would be contrary to the whole purpose of the Justice Department's antitrust case.

Du Pont officials claim the bill would permit Du Pont to complete an orderly distribution of the 63million shares of GM stock in a shorter time, and without causing serious disruptions in the market prire of the widely held stocks.

Jetliner Reaches 811 Miles an Hour With Tailwind

The turbo-fan astro-jet, piloted by Capt. Charles Votsch of Redondo Beach, Calif., attained the faster-than-sound speed with the help of a 190-mile-an-hour tailwind.

It took the plane 2 hours and 37 minutes to make the trip compared to the old record of 2:46.

Du Pont Profits Hit $418 Million

'61 Net Earnings Traced in Part to Record Sales of $2,191,000,000

WILMINGTON (AP)—E. I. Du Pont de Nemours and Co., Inc., America's biggest chemical maker, Monday reported 1961 profits of $418 million based in part on record sales of $2,191,000,000.

* * *

The net earnings were equal to $8.88 a share of common stock and included $3.16 obtained from dividends of General Motors Corp. stock Du Pont owns.

In 1960 net income totaled $381 million to $8.10 per share which included $2.53 dividends from GM.

Sales last year, based on preliminary figures, were 2 per cent higher than the previous record year—1960—which totaled $2,143,000,000.

* * *

A company spokesman said the higher profits resulted from the increased sales and continued efforts to reduce costs even though many products were reduced in price.

* * *

Sales for the fourth quarter last year also set a new record, $563 million. This was 10 per cent higher than the $514 million for the last quarter of 1960 and 2 per cent greater than the $552 million for the third quarter of 1961.

Winkelman's Is Paying Dividend of 17½ Cents

The board of directors of Winkelman Brothers Apparel, Inc., announced it had declared a cash dividend Jan. 15 of 17½ cents per share to holders of record of Class A stock at the close of business Feb. 5, 1962.

The dividend is payable Feb. 20.

To End 60-Year Pact in Cement Marketing

WYANDOTTE (AP) — Wyandotte Chemicals Corp. and Huron Portland Cement Co. said Monday they will dissolve their 60-year cement-marketing agreement effective next Jan. 1.

Huron has been marketing Wyandotte cement since 1903, but Wyandotte said it is forming its own marketing organization.

GM Production Backs Up Its Optimistic Forecast

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Automotive Writer

DETROIT — General Motors is backing its optimistic 1962 sales forecasts with its highest auto production rates in two years.

Output at the five GM divisions is running almost double the year-ago pace and last week's assemblies of 82,145 cars marked a high point reached only once since the post-steel strike rush of January 1960.

Even with this outpouring of new cars, General Motors as a corporation was believed to have the smallest stockpile of unsold models of any of the companies as measured in days' supply.

* * *

General Motors sales in early January were especially good, dropping only a fraction of one per cent below December's pace whereas the normal December-to-January drop is more pronounced.

In the model year so far General Motors has built just over half of all the new cars. Ford has built about 29 per cent, Chrysler some 12.5 per cent, American Motors a little over 6.5 per cent and Studebaker, idled by a strike since Jan. 1, less than two per cent.

Calendar year production is off to a fast start with most makes running well ahead of 1961. One of the few exceptions is the Ford Galaxie, down about 4,000.

NEW FAIRLANE

This was caused by the introduction of the new Ford Fairlane, sized between the Galaxie and Falcon. Total Ford division production is 28,000 ahead of last year.

Ford, as a corporation, shows an increase so far of 43,000 units over a year ago. General Motors is about 65,000 ahead.

Chrysler, with a 35,000 total so far, is up almost 50 per cent while American Motors at 28,000 has more than doubled its 1961 figure at this point.

Over-all, passenger production is running 46 per cent ahead of 1961 and truck production is up 21 per cent.

Working Girls Move to Farm

Still Have Their Jobs and Place to Keep Busy During Off Time

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Two Oklahoma girls with a yen for open spaces are proving that a city working girl doesn't have to be bound to an apartment.

* * *

After two years as roommates in Tulsa, Donna Kuhlman, 25, and Joan Gregory, 31, moved to a farm.

* * *

"We just got tired of people yelling and tires squealing," they explained. "And most of all, we were getting a little wide in the wrong places sitting around with nothing to do."

That was before last June, when they moved to a six-acre farm on the fringe of the city, only five minutes by expressway from their jobs in Tulsa.

"We don't have much time to get bored any more," Donna said. "Taking care of the yard nearly worked us to death last summer."

* * *

Next summer they plan to put in a garden, install some chickens and reseed the pasture. They may add a calf to the farm's livestock, which now includes seven cats and two horses.

Jail Prisoners Play for Fraternity Dance

London Painter Uses Laundry as Art Gallery

* * *

"People come from miles around to see them," he said proudly. "They bring their washing with them, too."

Osterweil said European artists have heard about his exhibition and keep asking him for wall space.

"I'm only too happy to oblige but there are so many of them that I'm going to have a waiting list," he said.

Each show will last two weeks.

She's No Dumb Blonde

Dody Goodman Zany but Thinks Straight

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK—"You ask me why I haven't been married.

"Well, I don't know.

"I suppose it's because—well, I've often wondered about it too, and I think maybe it's because—uh, these people, men that is, whom I almost married—well, I didn't because I figured that life with them wouldn't be as good as life without them. There."

This is the kind of straight thinking, disguised in obtuse hemming and hawing, that has made Dody Goodman famous.

She realizes that some of her terminology is obscure ("My first speech in college," she reported, "was 30 minutes long. It had 28 minutes of and-uhs in it"), but she knows how to make herself understood if she really tries:

* * *

"Look, forget what I just said," she clarified. "Just say I haven't married because I'm completely rejected."

Dody smiled winningly. "That's easier, isn't it?"

* * *

As everyone who watched the Jack Paar show in its early days (rather nights) is aware, Miss Goodman looks sweet and sounds naive. Her professional image is that of a "dumb blonde." Is she?

"Well, as you can see, no. I'm a redhead. Of course, sometimes I'm blonde. But I'm a red head more than I'm a blonde.

"About being dumb. I really don't know if people think of me that way. I don't think of myself that way. Not exactly. But then everybody's image of you is so colored by their own thoughts. I think of myself as pretty serious.

MAMA WORRIES

"Speaking of images, my mother called me (from Columbus, Ohio) the other day and she was concerned about some problems, and so I said to her, 'Now, mama, don't worry. Remember, you ARE what you THINK.' And Mama said, 'Oh, Dody, I HOPE not!' "

"No, I don't think of myself as funny. My brother was funny; he wanted to own a Chinese laundry. That's not quite right, is it? But I wanted to be a serious ballet dancer.

"I came to New York to study, and I got good roles in some musicals under (choreographer) Jerry Robbins — 'Wonderful Town', 'Call Me Madame' and 'Miss Liberty.' But people kept saying 'You're zany, and you ought to do comedy too.' Then I got on the Paar show, and I was typed.

* * *

"Bing on his show certainly did a great deal for me, but I'm not sorry I had to go off it. On that type of show I couldn't do all the things I've really worked for all my life, like dancing and acting."

* * *

Next Feb. 10, on CBS-TV, Dody has her first chance at a serious dramatic role in "The Defenders." She hasn't seen the tape of her performance as a middle-aged woman. She only ohpes it's good. "I wouldn't do it," she says, "till the director assured me nobody would laugh." She grinned suddenly. "So don't you laugh, now, if you see it."

WHAT'S ON THE RHINE? — Shades of the Loch Ness monster! The good people of Bingen, West Germany, have a creature of their own in the swift-running Rhine River. No cause for concern, however. It's just a twisted tree trunk that drifted onto a sand bar.

Montego Within Reach of All

Jetliners Opens Hideaway

United Press International

Jet service has brought Jamaica's famed Montego Bay, once the preserve of the international set, within the reach and budget of almost any American who has succumbed to Caribbean fever.

* * *

For many years Montego (Jamaicans call it Mobay) life was pretty much restricted to sun, sand and surf, but facilities for a broader program of sports are being added to meet the demands of the more athletic type visitor.

The newest additions are the splendid night-lighted tennis courts at the just-opened Montego Bay Racquet Club and the 18-hole championship Rose Hall-Half Moon golf course on the former Rose Hall sugar estate.

Happily, the burgeoning tourist trade will not spoil Montego for there is plenty of room on the expansive blue-green hills surrounding the truquoise bay for the cottage style hotels that are vying for popularity with older hostelries on "hotel row".

* * *

One of the nicest of these cottage inns is the Racquet Club, owned by a syndicate of pro and near-pro tennis players including Bill Talbert, Dick Savitt, Don Budge and Norton Mailman.

On a series of hilltop terraces the visitor can play tennis on championship courts, swim in a pool with a panoramic view of Jamaica's gold coast, and dine, dance and drink tall rum coolers al fresco in a setting of rare flowering shrubs and trees.

There are 27 hotels in the Montego bay area with accommodations for 2232 visitors who pay a spread of rates ranging from $15 per person a day with all meals to $35 a day. For the more budget-minded traveller there are charming hotels like the Tropical Terrace which charges $11 a day with breakfast only, leaving its patrons free to dine around. Lavish cold and hot buffets and excellent seafood dishes are Montego's specialties.

CHIC BEACH

Some hotels have their own beaches but it's still very, very chic to make one appearance a day at Doctor's Cave, a public beach with a modest entrance fee next to the bellewether of hotels, the gracious Casa Blanca.

Doctor's Cave is noted for the clearest water (a mixture of fresh spring and ocean salt waters) and whitest sands in the Caribbean and the celebrity of its devotees — big names in society, the arts, sports and fashion.

One of the popular sea trips is a night excursion to Phosphorescent Lagoon. Pick a moonless night and you can see fish as they swim in the eerily illuminated water.

* * *

Land tours are more or less up to the whim of the visitor. A popular innovation is the five-hour 30-mile trip to the Appleton sugar estate in the big island's jungle-tangle interior via the Jamaican Governor's diesel coach, originally outfitted for Princess Margaret's visit.

The luxury maisonette on wheels has its own calypso band and provides royal and rhythmic sightseeing for only $10.

You can get plenty of native atmosphere without ever leaving the city of Montego itself, a slightly ramshackle port with long, ancient wharfs and warehouses jutting into the bay. Its streets pulse with life and color that derive from an African heritage spiced with Chinese and its shops are filled with irresistible bargains from all over the world.

LOCAL NIGHT SPOTS

At night the music of steel bands and dance combos throbs through Montego's byways where you can discover happy nightclubs with names like "The Spotted Dog" and "The Yellow Flower" where the twist and the merengue predominate.

You can nicely balance the abandon of these native niteries with visits to more sophisticated dine-and-dance spots such as the Reef, the Embassy and the Bay Roc or with an evening of hotel-hopping to see the various Jamaican shows featuring calypso singing and limbo dancing.

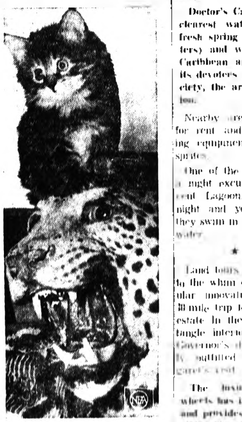
Montego's handsome jetport can be reached in 3½ hours from New York or New Orleans and only 1½ hours from Miami. Eight airlines serve this West Indian paradise which is at its best in January, February and March.



"HE'S MY COUSIN"—"Charley" couldn't be less concerned with the ferocious snarl of the stuffed leopard in the home in London, England, where the kitten lives.

Says Churches Should Be Built to Fit Service

VANCOUVER (AP) — Churches, like homes, should be designed for those who live in them, says architect William Wilding.

* * *

Color, light, fabric and the use of appropriate wood can induce a worshipful response on the part of the church-goer, just as a well-planned home gives a sense of warmth and security to a family, he says.

Wilding says the order of service of the church should have an effect on the design of the building.

"Some denominations require a church that could almost be classed as an auditorium, others with a strong emphasis on liturgy require focusing of the main attention on the chancel and the minister."

Can't Find a Cook in Prison System

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Too many cooks may spoil the broth, but Ohio Penitentiary officials have found that their problem is not enough cooks.

* * *

Among more than 4,000 inmates in the penitentiary and honor system, they had a difficult time finding a qualified cook to join the staff at the governor's mansion on honor status. To cope with the problem, the prison now is offering cooking classes.

Policewoman Discovers Night Duty Hazardous

Police Matron Albina Jenko was rushed to county emergency hospital for treatment of a dislocated jaw suffered when she yawned at 3:30 a.m.

He Counts His Losing Tricks

Sukarno Hedges on Going to War Over New Guinea

BY PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

If Indonesian President Sukarno wanted to go to war over New Guinea, as he has threatened so many times, last week's Dutch attack on three of his torpedo boats offered him a tailor-made excuse.

In Jakarta, the question is being asked, why didn't he use it?

Westerners who ask the question also supply a variety of answers.

One is that, for all his talk of taking New Guinea by force, "in a thousand small boats if necessary," Sukarno is not prepared for an all-out assault.

* * *

Another is that by generating among the people war fever against the Dutch, he has found a convenient means of diverting attention from serious difficulties at home.

Militarily, Sukarno has an experienced army of 350,000 men. His navy includes two destroyers and two submarines obtained from the Soviet Union, and his air force between 325 and 375 aircraft some Russian-built Mig jets and Ilyushin jet bombers.

The big stumbling block is lack of shipping necessary to launch and support an invasion.

The ships Indonesia does have are urgently needed to ferry goods and supplies from one island to another in the vast archipelago.

Indonesian Defense Minister Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution is said to have estimated he would need half of all Indonesia's commercial shipping for three months if he were to mount an attack.

Grave civilian shortages would be certain to ensue, thus facing Sukarno with the risk of serious domestic turmoil.

Further, if the Dutch chose to resist, they could make victory long in coming and costly. Aiding them would be New Guinea's unfriendly terrain of mountains, jungles, marshy valleys and narrow beaches.

* * *

Other factors also mitigate against any attempt to take the big island by force.

* * *

Another is Nasution's reported reluctance to tie up his army for any length of time out of fear of an attempted Communist takeover while the army's back is turned.

NO LOCAL MILITIA

The staunchly anti-Communist Nasution also is reported to oppose formation of local militia who might fall into the hands of the Communists. The Communists have the largest and best organized party in Indonesia.

As for Sukarno's troubles at home, his lack of foreign exchange has forced him to impose an unpopular austerity program.

Floods followed by drought have created a serious shortage of rice, a staple in the Indonesian diet.

* * *

Rice prices have gone up nearly six times over what they were a year ago. The government is spending precious foreign exchange to import rice, but even government workers who receive rice as part of their wages occasionally find their rations reduced.

* * *

Western observers say Sukarno has the total support of the Indonesian people in his anti-Dutch campaign. Undoubtedly Sukarno would prefer to avoid the risks of an invasion, but these observers wonder how long he can continue his balancing act without being forced to pull the trigger.

Changes in Legislature Stymie Con-Con Men

LANSING (AP) — A clash on basic principles over how the State Legislature should be apportioned all but smashed hopes today for bipartisan agreement at the constitutional convention.

* * *

A marathon weekend session of the convention's committee on legislative organization wound up Monday with Democrats and Republicans apparently unable to work out a compromise solution to the problem.

Democrats generally continued to insist that both houses be apportioned on a population basis, while the GOP members demanded that one house include some other factor such as geography or local governmental units.

Republicans emerged from a caucus with a partial agreement among themselves that they would support a plan which would add four senators to the present 34-man body and postpone the issue of redistricting until after the 1970 census.

80-20 FORMULA

The Senate then would be reapportioned on a formula based on 80 per cent on population and 20 per cent on area factors.

Michigan State University President John A. Hannah, R-East Lansing, the committee chairman, said the plan had the virtue of being understandable to the voters who will have to approve or reject the proposed new constitution.

"Since we'll be selling the constitution to the people, much is to be said for keeping the plan simple," Hannah declared.

The 80-20 formula plan had varying degrees of enthusiasm among the Republicans, Hannah reported. Several of the GOP members indicated they wanted something else and were going along only on a provisional basis.

"This plan is unacceptable and could not be made acceptable to us on the basis of principles all Democrats subscribe to," said Melvin Nord, a Detroit attorney and spokesman for the seven Democrats on the 21-man committee.

CHEVY II NOVA
What's this? A top-down picture in January? Sure! We simply couldn't wait till spring to show you the easiest-to-own Chevrolet convertible you ever flipped a top over. Just get a load of that broad-loop carpeting, the elegant instrument panel, that tasteful chrome trim, the leatherlike vinyl on those comfortable bucket seats* up front. It's what we call Fisher Body finesse. Something else you'll find in all eleven Chevy II models: Plenty of zip, thanks to a frisky 4 or spunky 6 (your choice in most models). Plenty of room, too, thanks to some canny engineering that kept the dimensions cozy outside and comfy inside. And the ride's firm, but ever so gentle, thanks to new Mono-Plate rear springs. With all this, your Chevrolet dealer's ready right now to put some June in your January. Go see him.
Chevy II was put to the test by the men who know cars best—
